1980 Media Guide

MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS BOX

The working area for writers, broadcasters and photographers is located on the Club Level between the south and west corners of the stadium. The facility can accommodate over 150 media representatives in the upper press area and contains fifteen booths in the lower area for radio, television, photographers, public address and scoreboard operation.

CREDENTIALS

All applications must be made through the Lions Public Relations Department. Credentials are available to working members of the media. Since no "Will Call" is in use, most credentials and parking passes are mailed. Please allow at least three days for mail delivery. Credentials may also be left at a local hotel for pick-up when requests are made too late to guarantee mail delivery.

PARKING

A parking pass is required to enter the press parking area. The press parking area is located adjacent to the Press Box on the southwest side of the stadium. Enter through Gate 1 off Opdyke Road.

SERVICES

Statistical information is distributed before, during and after the game. Spotters and statisticians are available to radio and TV crews upon advance request. Western Union, SportsComm and CanFax services are available. Please contact these organizations in advance if you plan on filing. Food and beverages for the working media are available in the Press Lounge.

TRAINING CAMP

The Lions enter their sixth year of training at Oakland University, located less than three miles from the Pontiac Silverdome. The media work room is located in Vandenberg Hall in the Pioneer Room on the second floor. This building is next to Hill House, the team's headquarters.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD
Owner and President

The Detroit Lions' biggest fan is also the club's chief executive, William Clay Ford, who is entering his 24th year of association with the team, 20th as its president and 17th as sole owner.

But Mr. Ford's love affair with the Lions goes all the way back to 1934, the club's first season in Detroit. The franchise had just moved to the Motor City from Portsmouth, Ohio, and his father, the late Edsel Ford, took young Bill to see this "new" team in action at University of Detroit Stadium. Mr. Ford, like the rest of Detroit, took an instant liking to the Lions. And, like the city's loyal fans, Mr. Ford's dedication and devotion to the club is unquestioned. As both a fan and chief executive, his primary goal is to bring a championship to the Detroit Lions and their followers.

Born and raised in the automotive industry, Mr. Ford holds top positions with a number of national and local civic organizations, in addition to his duties with the Ford Motor Company and the Lions. He has risen to the top of his family's business as his role with the company has been broadened considerably during the past few years. Last April, Mr. Ford was elected Vice-Chairman of the Board. This followed his appointment as chairman of the Executive Committee and member of the Office of Chief Executive in June, 1978. He has been a member of the Ford Board of Directors since 1948 and has had over-all supervision of the company's product design programs since 1956.

A grandson of the late Henry Ford, who founded the Ford Motor Company, and the youngest of four children of the late Edsel Ford, William Clay Ford was born in Detroit. He attended Detroit University School in Grosse Pointe, Michigan, and the Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Connecticut.

After a tour of duty in the Naval Air Corps, Mr. Ford graduated from Yale University in 1949 with a Bachelor of Science degree in economics.

He joined the Ford Motor Company's sales and advertising staff that same year, and later served on the industrial relations staff, where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Among his numerous positions as a community leader, Mr. Ford is chairman of the board of the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village in Dearborn, secretary-treasurer of Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research, a trustee of the Hotchkiss School and of the Eisenhower Medical Center, and a director of the National Tennis Hall of Fame and the United Foundation of Detroit.

Mr. Ford is an avid sports participant, having played varsity tennis and soccer at Yale.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They have three daughters and a son, William, Jr., who serves as treasurer of the Lions.

RUSS THOMAS
Executive Vice President and General Manager

Now in his 33rd year of service to the Detroit Lions, Russ Thomas is a firm believer in the philosophy of hard work and dedication.

He came out of his native West Virginia and has since molded himself into one of the National Football League's most respected executives. Thomas has achieved notoriety as a player, scout, coach and broadcaster. And now he holds the multi-faceted position of running the day-to-day operation of the Lions. One of his proudest moments came when he was honored by Michigan Governor William Milliken this year, along with other top government and business officials from around the State of Michigan, as being a prime driving force in bringing Super Bowl XVI to the Pontiac Silverdome in 1982.

Russ was an assistant coach when the Lions won NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. In addition to his coaching duties, and before the advent of film exchange and computers, Russ was in charge of scouting opposing teams, evaluating college prospects and negotiating player salaries. All this experience has benefited him greatly in the handling of the countless decisions and details involved in running a professional football organization.

This was also the kind of experience Mr. Ford was looking for when he named Thomas Vice President and General Manager of the club in 1967. Russ was appointed Executive Vice President in 1972. He is considered an expert in National Football League matters and in player contract negotiations. Thomas has been given even more responsibilities in the last two years, as Mr. Ford has been devoting more time to the automotive business. Russ regularly represents Detroit at the NFL owners meetings and at other League functions.

In his playing days, Thomas was an outstanding lineman. He came out of West Virginia as one of the state's most sought after high school football and track stars. He held the state high school shot put and discus record in West Virginia for years. He went on to Ohio State, where he played on a national championship team under Paul Brown and earned All-Big Ten honors and All-America mention for his work with the Buckeyes. In addition, he earned letters in track and wrestling at Ohio State. Thomas was drafted by the Lions in 1946 and played four seasons before a knee injury ended a promising playing career. He played both ways for Detroit and gained League recognition while serving as the co-captain of the team.

Thomas was assistant coach at St. Bonaventure in 1950-51. In 1964, after more than ten years on the Lions staff, Mr. Ford named Thomas Director of Personnel, a post which he held for three years until being named Vice President and General Manager.

Russ and his wife, Dorothy, live in Walled Lake. They are the parents of two married sons, John and Jim.

TIM ROONEY

Administrative Assistant to the Director of Football Operations

A familiar name in NFL circles is the Lions' Administrative Assistant to Monte Clark, Pittsburgh native Tim Rooney. He was selected by Clark to coordinate the club's college and pro scouting, aid in evaluating talent, and take part in trade discussions and other administrative affairs. Tim is in his second year with the Lions.

Rooney, 38, came to Detroit from the four-time World Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. He handled the club's pro scouting department for seven years prior to coming here. During his tenure with Pittsburgh, the team won three Super Bowls and reached the playoffs in every single season.

Tim actually grew up with NFL football, as his family name has been synonymous with the pro game almost since its beginning. Tim's uncle, Art Rooney, Sr., is the owner of the Steelers and introduced pro football to the city of Pittsburgh in 1933. Tim is also the cousin of Dan Rooney, President of the Steelers, and Art Rooney, Jr., the Vice President of the Pittsburgh club.

A graduate of Duquesne, Rooney gained coaching experience with positions at Villanova and Rhode Island, prior to joining the Steelers.

Tim lives in Birmingham with his wife, Mary Ann, and two children, Mike and Sarah.

SCOUTING STAFF

A group so instrumental in the many fine Detroit drafts during the past few years, is the Lions' scouting staff, composed of three highly qualified men; (l-r) Joe Bushofsky, Jerry Neri and Dirk Dierking.

Neri, senior member of the trio, is the western area scout. Based in Los Angeles, he is a veteran of 11 years with the club. Before joining the Lions in 1969, Neri coached at various levels. Following a fine career as a halfback at Villanova, he joined the school's coaching staff in 1943. He went on to positions with Loyola, Yale and the Washington Redskins. In 1965, he was made supervisor of the Pacific Coast scouting system of BLESTO, a talent-hunting combine representing many pro teams, including the Lions.

Bushofsky joined the Lions in 1975 and is in charge of the country's eastern area. Like Neri, Joe also spent time with BLESTO prior to beginning work in Detroit. A graduate of North Carolina State, he coached in the Pittsburgh area for 11 years. Joe lives in Birmingham, Michigan.

The third member of the scouting team is Clarence "Dirk" Dierking, a staffer since June of 1978. His responsibilities revolve around the central United States, especially his native southwest. He too was employed by BLESTO before joining the Lions. He makes his home in Texas, where he has coaching experience at many levels.

MONTE CLARK
Head Coach and Director of Football Operations

"Let discouragement harden your determination, not your heart."

Living by that creed represented one of the most difficult periods in Monte Clark's coaching career: the 1979 season. And, although the coach wanted desperately to put the disappointment behind him, his reactions to the Lions' 2-14 year tell a lot about the man.

In its editorial of November 8, 1979, The Detroit News said, ". . . Monte Clark has impressed us in defeat. He doesn't indulge in creative excuses, he doesn't scream hysterically at the press, and most importantly, he doesn't publicly humiliate individual players. Mr. Clark still possesses the excellent credentials that led to his getting the Detroit job in the first place."

These characteristics have made Clark not only popular, but respected among players and media alike. And though 1979 was a severe test, Monte and his team stuck together. They have two years invested; two years in which a foundation of solid basics has been laid. Now, they look only forward — to the 80s.

Clark has the complete support of Lion owner William Clay Ford, who hired him January 11, 1978 and gave the 6'6" coach complete control of the college draft, waivers, scouting and trades. Among the players Clark has brought to the Lions are Al "Bubba" Baker, Freddie Scott, Jimmy Allen, Tom Skladany, Keith Dorney, and, of course, the spectacular Billy Sims.

The 43-year old coach came to the Lions with an outstanding background in the NFL. He spent six years as offensive coach under Don Shula at Miami. He was part of Shula's original staff there in 1970. Monte helped develop the Dolphins into one of the League's most feared units. A pair of Super Bowl titles, along with three straight AFC Championships, brought Clark immediate coaching recognition. Under his leadership, Miami led the conference in rushing three consecutive years, setting a new NFL single-season record in 1972.

Clark became head coach at San Francisco in 1976 and propelled the 49ers into playoff prominence. Only some close, late-season defeats denied the team a berth. But the record indicated an 8-6 mark for Monte in his first year as a head man and three more wins for the 49ers over the previous season.

Clark's coaching career followed an 11-year playing stint as an offensive lineman with San Francisco, Dallas and Cleveland. With the Browns, he appeared in the League Championship games of 1964, '65 and '68. Monte, who entered pro ball after a fine collegiate career at USC, is a native of Kingsburg, California.

Monte and his wife, Charlotte, live in Bloomfield Township and are the parents of three sons, Bryan, 19, a quarterback on the Michigan State University squad; Randy, 17; and Eric, 13.

Clark has this to say concerning the new season:

- "We will not make the mistake of allowing last year's results to affect this year's thinking. Last year will be thrown out and forgotten, the sooner the better. There wasn't any mystery as to what went wrong. It's pretty tough operating wihout your No. 1 quarterback and a few other key people."
- "I honestly don't believe our personnel is of the 2-14 variety. Even with all the problems last season, we weren't that far off. We were ahead in ten games and couldn't hold the lead. There were eight games that we lost by eight points or less."
- "With the return of the injured players and the young ones who gained experience taking their place, we could surprise some people. Our rookies, drafted this spring, will be of immediate help. I look for many to get starting assignments. But I know we can show that we are a better team than the records indicate."

BAUGHAN

BRUNNER

DOLL

MAXIE BAUGHAN — Defensive Coordinator and Linebacker Coach — Four-time All Pro linebacker Maxie Baughan joined the Lions staff last January and will coordinate the Detroit defense this season. In announcing the appointment of Baughan, Coach Clark called him an outstanding player and coach at every level; a fine leader. Maxie comes to Detroit after five seasons as defensive coordinator at Baltimore. With the Colts, he was part of three AFC Eastern Division championship squads. The 42-year old Baughan played pro football for 14 years beginning as a second round draft choice of Philadelphia in 1960. He went to five Pro Bowl games for the Eagles before being traded to Los Angeles in 1966. As a Ram, Baughan was honored with four more Pro Bowl selections. Maxie became part of the "Over the Hill Gang" at Washington in 1971. Following a three-year retirement, Baughan returned as a player-coach under George Allen at Washington before joining the Colts. His first coaching experience came in 1972, when he began a two-year stint as defensive coordinator with his alma mater, Georgia Tech. Maxie and his wife, Diane, have three sons: Maxie III, Christopher and Matthew.

JOHN BRUNNER — Offensive Backfield Coach — New to the Lions staff is John Brunner, a 13-year veteran of collegiate coaching. He spent the last four seasons at Temple University, where he helped the Owls to their best record ever. The school established new total offense, rushing and passing marks on its way to a 10-2 season. Brunner, 42, began his college coaching career with Villanova in 1967. From there he went to Temple in 1970, to Princeton in 1974, before returning to Temple in 1976. The oldest of John's seven children, Scott, quarterbacked Delaware to the small college national championship in 1979. Current Detroit quarterback Jeff Komlo had led the same school into the finals the year before. Scott was elected to the Kodak All-America team for his efforts. Brunner was born in Perkesie, Pa. and attended East Stroudsburg State until his graduation in 1960. In addition to Scott, John and his wife, Barbara are the parents of daughters Penny and Jan, and sons Jack, Jeff, Tod and Mark.

DON DOLL — Special Assignments Coach — Don Doll, a former Detroit Lions player and coach, returned to the club in 1978 as special teams coach. He now serves as Monte Clark's right hand man in administrative and office matters. Doll, 53, played with the Lions from 1949 through 1952, representing the club three times in Pro Bowls as a defensive back. He is still Detroit's co-record holder for interceptions in a season, 12 in 1950. His first pro coaching position was with Detroit in 1963, when he started a two-year stint as secondary coach under George Wilson. Previously he had coached at Southern California and Notre Dame in the college ranks. Doll went on to become the Rams defensive backfield coach in 1965, then went to Washington from 1966 to 1970, before spending the 1971 through 1973 seasons at Green Bay. Don was defensive coordinator at Baltimore in 1974, then a defensive coach at Miami the following year. Doll graduated from USC in 1948. In his first pro season with Detroit, he intercepted 11 passes, including four in one game. Don and his wife, Diana, have five children, Steven, Wendy, Kevan, Heidi and Michael.

HOAGLIN

MADDEN

PETERS

FRED HOAGLIN — Offensive Line Coach — Entering his third year of NFL coaching, Fred Hoaglin has built an impressive offensive line from scratch. Working with rookies and young veterans, Hoaglin has impressed his former linemate, Monte Clark, with his ability. Clark, who played alongside Fred on the offensive line at Cleveland during the late 60s, sees a sense of pride developing among the front five. The 36-year old Hoaglin opened his 11-year playing career as a sixth round draftee of the Browns in 1966. Soon after, he began a string of 69 consecutive starts with the club, until a leg injury forced him out of the lineup in 1971. A 1969 Pro Bowler, Hoaglin was traded to Baltimore in 1973, then to Houston the following year. He was picked as one of the original Seattle Seahawks in the veteran allocation of 1976. Fred played his college ball at the University of Pittsburgh, where he earned a degree in industrial engineering. The native of Alliance, Ohio is a long time member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Fred and his wife, Janet, are the parents of two children, a daughter, Patti, and a son, Ricky.

JOE MADDEN — Special Teams Coach — An 18-year veteran of college coaching, Joe Madden joined the pro ranks last February as Detroit's new special teams coach. Madden, 44, had spent the previous three seasons as assistant head coach to Johnny Majors at the University of Tennessee. He also coordinated the school's kicking and punting game. Madden began his college coaching career in 1962 at Mississippi State. He went to Morehead State the following year before spending four seasons at both Wake Forest and Iowa State. In 1972, Joe went to Kansas State, then joined Majors at the University of Pittsburgh the next year. He was Majors top assistant in 1976 when the Panthers won the national championship behind the running of Tony Dorsett and quarterbacking of Matt Cavanaugh. Madden personally recruited 20 members of that title-winning squad. When Majors moved to the top spot at Tennessee in 1977, Madden went with him. A graduate of the University of Maryland, Joe also holds a masters degree from Mississippi State. Madden and his wife, Janis, are the parents of two daughters, Kerry and Keely; and two sons, Casey and Duffy.

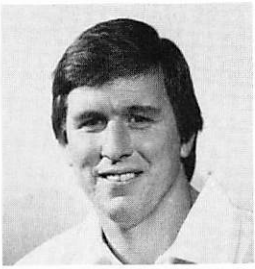

FLOYD PETERS — Defensive Line Coach — The creator of Detroit's feared "Silver Rush" is Floyd Peters, a former Lion player. Called the best defensive line coach in the business by Monte Clark, Peters, 44, is given much of the credit for the development of the Lions rush. Detroit collected a team record 55 quarterback sacks during his first year with the Lions. And considering the injury blitz, last year's total of 45 is equally impressive. Peters was also responsible for San Francisco's "Gold Rush," a group which rolled up an NFL high 61 sacks in 1976. Peters was a three-time Pro Bowl performer as a defensive tackle; in 1964, 1966 and 1967, all with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was voted MVP of the 1966 contest. Floyd also played with Baltimore, Cleveland, Detroit (in 1963), and Washington over the course of a 12-year career. He was a player-coach under Vince Lombardi at Washington in 1970. He first full-time coaching position was with the New York Giants in 1974. After two seasons, Peters joined Clark at San Francisco. He was the first assistant hired by Clark upon his appointment to the Lions in 1978. A graduate of San Francisco State, Floyd and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of four sons, Craig, Kelly, Dean and Allen.

PHILLIPS

SCHNELKER

SEIPLE

MEL PHILLIPS — Defensive Backfield Coach — A former player under Monte Clark at San Francisco, Mel Phillips came aboard last February as the Lions new defensive backfield coach. Clark sees a positive rapport developing between Phillips and his secondary men. Phillips, 38, played 12 seasons in the NFL from 1966-77, all with the 49ers. Mel worked under Clark in 1976 and Monte was instantly impressed with his intensity and attitude. Phillips played in all 14 games that year, intercepting two passes and recovering a fumble. Mel's career stats include 10 interceptions for 106 yards in returns, including a 35-yard touchdown in 1970. He was regarded as one of the most respected defensive backs in the game when he retired in 1977. Phillips played both ways during his college career at North Carolina A&T. During his senior year, the school won its conference championship, with Mel intercepting two passes and scoring two rushing TDs in the title game. He has been very active at the Youth Guidance Center in San Francisco for many years. He and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette and Yvette.

BOB SCHNELKER — Offensive Coordinator and Quarterback Coach — In his third season with the Lions, Bob Schnelker continues to be one of the finest offensive-minded coaches in the NFL. A veteran of 17 years in the National Football League, the 51-year old Schnelker calls all of Detroit's plays from his perch in the press box. In recent years, Lions fans have been treated to some exciting offense, with emphasis on the pass, a Schnelker forte. Bob has worked under some of the most honored coaches in the business, including Vince Lombardi at Green Bay and Don Shula at Miami. Schnelker came to Detroit in 1978 after three seasons with Kansas City. Bob's first pro coaching job came in 1963 with the Rams. In 1966, he joined Lombardi and the Packers. During six years with Green Bay, Schnelker saw the Pack win three straight League championships and the first two Super Bowls. Schnelker went to San Diego in 1972, then to Miami in 1974, before joining the Chiefs. A standout tight end, Bob played with the Giants from 1954 through 1960. He went to three championships and two Pro Bowls over the period. Late in his career, Bob caught the first of Fran Tarkenton's NFL record 342 touchdown passes. He and his wife, B. J., have three children, Mindy, Jeff and Tina.

LARRY SEIPLE — Receivers Coach — A new addition to the Lions coaching staff is Larry Seiple, Monte Clark's first receiver coach in Detroit. Seiple is the Lions first receiver coach since Raymond Berry in 1975. A 12-year veteran of NFL wars, Seiple was a punter and tight end with the Miami Dolphins from 1967-77. Last season, Larry was an assistant coach under Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Miami. Clark worked with Seiple during his six-year stint as an assistant with the Dolphins. Both saw the club rise to the top, winning two Super Bowls and three AFC Championships during the early 70s. Larry's best receiving year was 1969 when he led the Dolphins with 41 receptions for 577 yards. Seiple's professional career punting average was an even 40 yards per kick, with his best season coming in 1973 when he averaged 42.3 During his pro career, Seiple logged more game appearances (160) than any Dolphin other than current Miami quarterback Bob Griese. Larry was drafted in the seventh round in 1967 by Miami. He attended the University of Kentucky. Seiple, 35, and his wife, Trudy, are the parents of two daughters, Keri and Lori; and a son, Larry.

47 ★ JOHN ARNOLD

Wide Receiver — Wyoming — 2nd Year
Ht. 5-10 Wt. 175 — Free Agent '79 (Detroit)
Born: Shizaka, Japan, Oct. 5, 1955

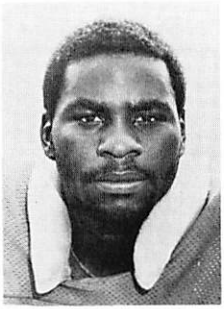

Pro Career — Beat all the odds in becoming a Lion last year . . . Virtually a walk-on; overlooked by the draft and the scouts . . . Followed some Wyoming buddies all the way to Detroit last year to attend the club's "Gong Show" tryout camp in May . . . Initially uninvited, he became the only player to be signed out of 90 candidates . . . Responded by leading the Lions in punt and kickoff returns . . . Averaged 23.4 yards returning kickoffs and 8.6 running back punts . . . Last two games were his best: 54-yard kickoff return against Miami and a 69-yarder versus Green Bay . . . Played in the last seven games . . . Cut in training camp, but resigned Oct. 30.

College — A 3-year starter at Wyoming . . . Missed all of the 1977 season because of an industrial accident . . . Severed three fingers in the mishap, but came back to start the 1978 campaign . . . Helped Wyoming beat Arizona State in 1978 Fiesta Bowl.

Personal — Born on an air base in Japan to an American father and a Japanese mother . . . Nickname is "Tashi" since it's his mother's middle name . . . Moved to the United States when he was in the seventh grade . . . Lives in the Detroit area with his wife, Louise, and daughter, Christie.

60 ★ AL BAKER

Defensive End — Colorado State — 3rd Year
Ht. 6-6 Wt. 260 — Drafted '78, 2nd round
Born: Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 9, 1956

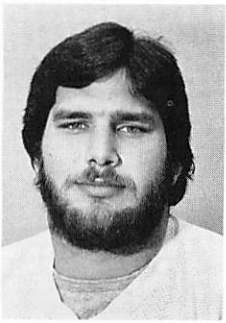

Pro Career — Led the Lions for the second straight year in quarterback sacks . . . Pulled down 16 enemy passes and now has 39 traps during his 32-game pro career . . . Finshed second among tacklers with 61 solos . . . Has been nothing short of phenomenal during his Lion career . . . Enjoyed a "dream-like" first season when he was named the NFL's defensive rookie of the year . . . He was one of only two rookies to start in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl and was named All Pro by AP, Pro Football Writers and N.E.A. . . . His incredible 23 sacks in 1978 also led to him being elected NFL defensive lineman of the year by his peers in the NFL Players Association . . . "Bubba's" contribution has helped Detroit to 55 and 45 sacks in each of the past two seasons . . . The 1978 total was a new team record . . . Al, who has yet to miss a start in Detroit, finished on a high note last fall, picking up nine sacks in his last five games . . . His four sacks on Thanksgiving Day against Chicago last year and his five traps versus Tampa Bay in 1978 are personal highs.

College — An All-West Athletic Conference selection in both 1976 and 1977 . . . Picked up 20 sacks and 78 tackles during his senior year . . . Played in the Blue-Gray Classic and earned honorable mention All-America . . . Also a starting member of the CSU basketball squad.

Personal — Given the nickname "Bubba" in college . . . His football playground as a youngster in Newark, N. J., was a graveyard . . . Single and lives in suburban Detroit.

50 ★ EDDIE COLE

Linebacker — Mississippi — 2nd Year
Ht. 6-1 Wt. 235 — Drafted '79, 11th round
Born: Clarksdale, Miss., Dec. 16, 1956

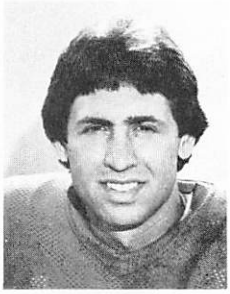

Pro Career — One of the few 11th round draft choices to make it in the NFL . . . Played in 15 games last year, including starts during the second and third weekends . . . Missed the Nov. 4 game at Chicago with an injured ankle . . . Totalled 20 solo tackles, highlighted by his eight stops against Washington in his second pro game . . . Possesses fine potential . . . Rated a third or fourth round selection by Lions staff.

College — Collared 93 solo tackles in 1977 for Ole Miss . . . Best game came that same year versus Alabama . . . Recorded 10 tackles and recovered two fumbles . . . Bothered by injuries in 1978, but still picked up 46 stops.

Personal — Deeply religious young man, something that scared off some pro scouts because they felt he might not play football on Sundays . . . Hopes to enter the ministry some day . . . Still lives in his hometown of Clarksdale, Miss.

16 ★ GARY DANIELSON

Quarterback — Purdue — 4th Year
Ht. 6-2 Wt. 195 — Free Agent '76 (Detroit)
Born: Detroit, Mich., Sept. 10, 1951

Pro Career — A right knee injury in the final pre-season game at Baltimore Aug. 24 forced Gary to miss the entire 1979 season . . . The mishap ruined the otherwise high hopes of the team and certainly contributed to the disappointing Lion season of a year ago . . . Hopes to repeat his storybook 1978 campaign when he came off the bench to lead the Lions to six wins in the last nine weeks . . . His 199 completions and five TD passes in one game put his name in the club record book . . . He was named offensive MVP that year after firing for 2,294 yards, the highest total of the decade by a Lion and sixth best ever . . . In just 11 starts he threw for 18 touchdowns, the fourth highest in club history . . . His finest day was Dec. 9 against Minnesota when he completed 26 of 33 for 352 yards and five scores . . . Prior to 1978, he had started just two games, with most of his experience coming as a holder.

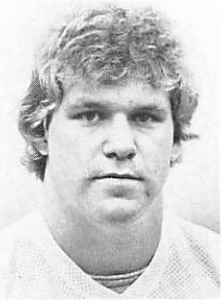

College — One of the Big Ten's best percentage passers while at Purdue . . . Passed over in the draft and went to the World Football League, where he played in 1974.

Personal — Was working on an assembly line when the Lions signed him as a free agent . . . A home town favorite since his high school days at Dearborn Divine Child . . . Led the school to the 1968 Michigan All-State title . . . Lives in suburban Detroit with his wife, Kristie, daughter, Kelly Ann, and son, Matthew.

21 ★ WALT WILLIAMS

Defensive Back — New Mexico State — 4th Year
Ht. 6-0 Wt. 185 — Drafted '77, 2nd round
Born: Bedford Hills, N.Y., July 10, 1954

Pro Career — Only a spot starter last season because of recurring shoulder problem . . . An operation near the end of last year corrected the problem . . . Has dislocated the shoulder in each of the past two training camps . . . Played both years with soreness . . . Still, last fall was his best season in three . . . Intercepted two passes, returning one 36 yards for a touchdown against Green Bay, Oct 14 . . . Started seven games, while appearing in 12 . . . Detroit's top draft choice in 1977 . . . Already has 41 games played and 24 starts.

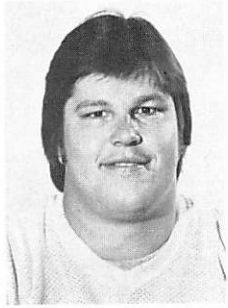

College — Accumulated 109 solo tackles and 80 assists in two years at NMS . . . Also blocked numerous field goal attempts . . . Transferred from Ashland College following his sophomore year.

Personal — A gutsy player who was raised in the ghettos of New York City . . . Now makes his home in Las Cruces, N.M.

77 ★ JOHN WOODCOCK

Defensive Tackle — Hawaii — 4th Year
Ht. 6-3 Wt. 250 — Drafted '76, 3rd round
Born: Eureka, Ca., Mar. 19, 1954

Pro Career — August back surgery ended his 1979 season very early . . . He was sorely missed, especially his work against the rush . . . This disappointment followed an outstanding 1978 season with the "Silver Rush" . . . He was second on the team in sacks with 10½ and third in tackles with 66 solo . . . Recovered four fumbles and started all 16 games . . . Had yet to miss a contest with the Lions prior to last year . . . A special teamer his first two seasons, he moved into the starting lineup with great success in 1978 . . . Almost year-long rehabilitation should have him back in the lineup this season.

College — A statistical leader with Hawaii in each of his last two years . . . Started his collegiate career at New Mexico before transferring to the islands after his sophomore season . . . Earned mention on All-America teams at both schools.

Personal — Very detail conscious . . . He maintains a profile on each offensive player he faces . . . Called a "student of the rush" . . . Lives in Fremont, Ca., with wife, Sharon, and daughter, Holly.

1980 DRAFT CHOICES

Round One: (1st choice)

BILLY SIMS
Running Back — Oklahoma
Ht. 6-0 Wt. 210
Born: St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 18, 1955

Called the next superstar running back in the NFL by most professional scouts . . . Acknowledged as the top collegiate player in the 1980 draft . . . Rated alongside O. J. Simpson, Tony Dorsett and Earl Campbell by many experienced prognosticators . . . Some scouting comments include: Speedy, innate runner with superior cutting ability; consistently makes the first defender miss; superior acceleration and leg spring; fearless blocker . . . Voted first team All-America by just about everybody during junior and senior seasons . . . Greatest collegiate honor was 1978 Heisman Trophy . . . He is the sixth Heisman winner to play for Detroit . . . Led NCAA in rushing and set Big Eight record with 1,762 yards in 1978 . . . Romped for 1,506 yards and 22 touchdowns last fall . . . His career totals include 538 carries for 3,813 yards and a whopping 50 touchdowns . . . Billy's 7.09 yards per rush average during his career established a new NCAA record for backs carrying a minimum of 500 times . . . Averaged 160.2 yards per game as a junior; 136.9 as a senior . . . Ran for over 100 yards in 20 of his 25 games during his last two seasons . . . Had seven career 200+ contests . . . Rushed for over 100 yards in 13 straight games before the string was broken by Texas in last year's fifth week . . . An early season shoulder injury in 1976 gave him an extra year of eligibility . . . Graduated from Oklahoma last May with a degree in recreational therapy . . . Enjoys hunting and fixing cars during spare time . . . Billy and wife, Brenda, currently live in Norman, Okla.

COMMENTS ON SIMS:

Monte Clark — "Our scouts identified Billy as one of the best players to come out of the collegiate ranks in recent years. We are very, very impressed with Billy, not only as an athlete, but as an individual. He is a class performer on and off the field. He compares in quality to some of the League's great backs. We will look for any way known to man to get the ball to him. He's just what we needed here."

Barry Switzer — "That Sims is the greatest football player in the world. We've never had anyone at Oklahoma with his speed and power. He's big, strong, fast, elusive and breaks tackles. Simply, he's just much stronger than any of the guys we've had here. And, all the people who know him know that Billy is a better person than a player."

Round Two:
(Choice traded to San Francisco for Cleveland Elam)

Round Three:

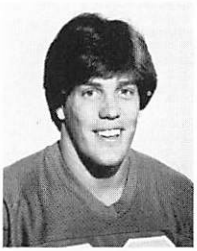

TOM TURNURE
Center — Washington
Ht. 6-4 Wt. 245

LIONS 1979 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

SEPT. 1 — BUCCANEERS 31, LIONS 16
at Tampa, 68,225

Detroit	0	7	0	9	—	16
Tampa Bay	10	14	0	7	—	31

TB — O'Donoghue 31 FG
TB — L. Selmon 29 fumble recovery-return (O'Donoghue kick)
D — Hill 11 pass from Reed (Ricardo kick)
TB — Bell 7 run (Ricardo kick)
TB — Giles 66 pass from Williams (O'Donoghue kick)
TB — Obradovich 2 pass from Williams (O'Donoghue kick)
D — Kane 3 run (Ricardo kick)
D — English tackled Rae in end zone for safety

Tampa Bay scored its first victory ever over the Lions, sending the Bucs on their way to a five-game winning streak. A pair of touchdowns in the second quarter's final minutes propelled Tampa Bay to the win. The Buccaneers totaled 334 total net yards to the Lions 231, and to make matters even worse Detroit lost its second quarterback in as many weeks as Joe Reed reinjured pulled groin muscles and missed the next 10 games.

SEPT. 9 — REDSKINS 27, LIONS 24
at Pontiac, 54,991

Washington	0	17	7	3	—	27
Detroit	3	0	0	21	—	24

D — Ricardo 27 FG
W — Thompson 8 pass from Theismann (Moseley kick)
W — Moseley 35 FG
W — Malone 5 run (Moseley kick)
W — Fugett 3 pass from Theismann (Moseley kick)
D — Robinson 2 run (Ricardo kick)
D — Kane 12 run (Ricardo kick)
D — Scott 24 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
W — Moseley 41 FG

A Mark Moseley field goal with eight seconds remaining dropped Detroit in the home opener. Washington pulled out the contest despite a furious 21-point fourth quarter rally by the Lions. Rookie Jeff Komlo, starting his first game for Detroit, directed the comeback. The Lions gained 374 yards in total offense on the day compared to 321 for the Redskins.

SEPT. 16 — JETS 31, LIONS 10
at New York, 49,612

Detroit	0	7	0	3	—	10
New York	0	14	3	14	—	31

D — Hill 12 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
NY — Long 4 run (Leahy kick)
NY — Long 5 run (Leahy kick)
NY — Leahy 35 FG
D — Ricardo 36 FG
NY — Dierking 2 run (Leahy kick)
NY — Long 5 run (Leahy kick)

Running back Kevin Long scored three touchdowns as the Jets ran over Detroit in the Lions' first appearance ever at New York's Shea Stadium. Taking to the ground 48 times during the afternoon, the Jets rushed for 209 yards while holding the Lions to just 53.

SEPT. 23 — LIONS 24, FALCONS 23
at Pontiac, 56,249

Atlanta	0	3	13	7	—	23
Detroit	7	3	0	14	—	24

D — Scott 15 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
A — Mazzetti 24 FG
D — Ricardo 20 FG
A — Bartkowski 1 run (Mazzetti kick)
A — Mazzetti 26 FG
A — Mazzetti 22 FG
D — Blue 13 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
D — Kane 26 run (Ricardo kick)
A — Stanback 55 run (Mazzetti kick)

Detroit won its first game of the young season, squeezing out a one-point victory over the Falcons. Rookie Jeff Komlo enjoyed his best outing of the year, completing 19 of 35 for 289 yards and two touchdowns. As a team, the Lions came up with 400 yards in total offense and held Atlanta to 270. A last ditch field goal attempt by the Falcons went just wide as time expired.

SEPT. 30 — VIKINGS 13, LIONS 10
at Pontiac, 75,295

Minnesota	0	3	7	3	—	13
Detroit	0	0	3	7	—	10

M — Danmeier 40 FG
D — Ricardo 33 FG
M — Foreman 2 run (Danmeier kick)
M — Danmeier 31 FG
D — Kane 10 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)

Despite a strong defensive performance by the Lions, Minnesota prevailed for the 20th time in the last 23 meetings. Detroit stood fast as the Vikings put the ball inside the Lions 30 on three occasions during the first half. Walt Williams and Jimmy Allen both came up with interceptions. But just 193 yards in offense left the Lions short.

OCT. 7 — PATRIOTS 24, LIONS 17
at Foxboro, 60,297

Detroit	0	3	14	0	—	17
New England	0	14	0	10	—	24

NE — Cunningham 1 run (Smith kick)
NE — Calhoun 2 run (Smith kick)
D — Ricardo 26 FG
D — S. Hunter 1 run (Ricardo kick)
D — Gay recovered fumble in end zone (Ricardo kick)
NE — Calhoun 6 pass from Owen (Smith kick)
NE — Smith 29 FG

Another sturdy defensive showing went down the drain as New England pulled out a tight victory. Detroit stopped the offensive-minded Patriots, holding them to 140 rushing yards on 45 attempts. The Lions collected five sacks, including three by Al Baker, and pulled in an interception on this rain swept day. A 17-14 edge slipped away from the Lions as New England picked up a touchdown and a field goal in the last five minutes.

OCT. 14 — PACKERS 24, LIONS 16
at Milwaukee, 53,930

Detroit	0	9	7	0	—	16
Green Bay	0	10	7	7	—	24

D — Ricardo 33 FG
D — Williams 36 interception return (kick failed)
GB — Whitehurst 1 run (Marcol kick)
GB — Marcol 32 FG
GB — Coffman 13 pass from Whitehurst (Marcol kick)
D — Thompson 38 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
GB — Landers 55 pass from Whitehurst (Marcol kick)

Missed opportunities, at the Packer one and 30 yards lines, helped spell the difference as Green Bay won its fourth straight from the Lions. Detroit drove to the one-inch line to open the game, but failed to score. Still, the Pack had to bounce back from a 9-0 deficit early in the game. Running back Dexter Bussey became the Lions' third all-time rushing leader with 73 yards on the ground.

OCT. 21 — SAINTS 17, LIONS 7
at New Orleans, 57,428

Detroit	0	0	7	0	—	7
New Orleans	7	3	7	0	—	17

NO — Chandler 24 pass from Manning (Yepremian kick)
NO — Yepremian 21 FG
NO — Myers 52 interception return (Yepremian kick)
D — Hill 5 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)

Playing most of the game with three rookie linebackers, the Lions held the high flying Saints to just 125 yards through the air. Archie Manning and company had been averaging just over 228 per game. New Orleans, which finished as the NFC's scoring leader with 46 touchdowns, picked up just one on Detroit's young defense. But it was the Saints' underrated defense which prevailed, collecting four interceptions and four sacks.

OCT. 28 — BILLS 20, LIONS 17
at Pontiac, 61,911

Buffalo	0	0	6	14	—	20
Detroit	14	0	3	0	—	17

D — Scott 5 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
D — King 11 run (Ricardo kick)
B — Mike-Mayer 23 FG
D — Ricardo 40 FG
B — Mike-Mayer 42 FG
B — Brown 3 run (Mike-Mayer kick)
B — Gant 7 pass from Ferguson (Mike-Mayer kick)

Detroit untracked its offense but the effort still fell through as a last second Benny Ricardo field goal was blocked. Scoring drives of 85 and 78 yards opened the game for the Lions. Dexter Bussey's fourth career 100-yard day, a 139er, and Jeff Komlo's 13 for 17 performance, added new-found punch. But Bill quarterback Joe Ferguson threw for 339 yards on 17 completions, pushing Buffalo to the come from behind victory.

NOV. 4 — BEARS 35, LIONS 7
at Chicago, 50,108

Detroit	0	7	0	0	—	7
Chicago	7	7	14	7	—	35

C — Payton 1 run (Thomas kick)
D — Norris 5 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
C — Baschnagel 14 pass from Phipps (Thomas kick)
C — Schubert 77 punt return (Thomas kick)
C — Schmidt 20 interception return (Thomas kick)
C — Payton 5 run (Thomas kick)

The script was the same in week ten as early opportunities slipped away for the Lions, paving the way for Chicago's run away victory. A close game in the first half, Detroit fell to an onslaught of four interceptions and five sacks by the Bear defense. A late second quarter score by Chicago broke a tie and spurred the Bears on to a big second half.

NOV. 11 — BUCCANEERS 16, LIONS 14
at Pontiac, 70,461

Tampa Bay	0	3	3	10	—	16
Detroit	7	0	7	0	—	14

D — Robinson 7 run (Ricardo kick)
TB — O'Donoghue 32 FG
TB — O'Donoghue 39 FG
D — Scott 14 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
TB — O'Donoghue 28 FG
TB — Mucker 23 pass from Williams (O'Donoghue kick)

Cruising along with a 14-6 lead late in the game, the snake-bitten Lions watched it evaporate into loss #10. A 242-yard day for Jeff Komlo and a 148-yard afternoon for receiver Fred Scott helped Detroit to the early margin. But two fumbles, one giving the Bucs the lead and one thwarting a last minute drive, gave away the game. For the Lions, it was their fourth home loss by three points or less.

NOV. 18 — VIKINGS 14, LIONS 7
at Bloomington, 43,650

Detroit	0	7	0	0	—	7
Minnesota	0	0	14	0	—	14

D — Komlo 13 run (Ricardo kick)
M — Young 23 run (Danmeier kick)
M — Young 2 run (Danmeier kick)

Detroit's offense went back into hiding at Minnesota, totaling just 167 yards all together, only 65 on the ground. Once again, the Lions had a lead, 7-0 at halftime, but for the eighth time, they lost it in the end. Jeff Komlo, still holding strong at quarterback, ran to six the number of consecutive games he had accounted for a score.

NOV. 22 — LIONS 20, BEARS 0
at Pontiac, 66,219

Chicago	0	0	0	0	—	0
Detroit	3	10	0	7	—	20

D — Ricardo 35 FG
D — Ricardo 29 FG
D — Thompson 22 pass from Komlo (Ricardo kick)
D — Kane 1 run (Ricardo kick)

The Lions shocked the Bears and a national TV audience on this Thanksgiving Day, blanking the playoff-bound Chicagoans. Detroit had dropped a 35-7 game in Chicago just a few weeks before. But this day belonged to Jeff Komlo, who passed for 244 yards, and to the young defensive corps, which held Mr. Walter Payton to just 54 yards. Al "Bubba" Baker picked up four of the club's five sacks. The shutout was Detroit's first in 40 Turkey Day appearances and stuck Chicago with its only loss in the season's last eight weeks.

DEC. 2 — EAGLES 44, LIONS 7
at Philadelphia, 66,128

Detroit	0	0	7	0	—	7
Philadelphia	0	24	13	7	—	44

P — Montgomery 1 run (Franklin kick)
P — Carmichael 20 pass from Jaworski (Franklin kick)
P — Carmichael 24 pass from Jaworski (Franklin kick)
P — Franklin 33 FG
P — Franklin 30 FG
P — Franklin 42 FG
D — Scott 34 pass from Reed (Ricardo kick)
P — Campbell 92 kickoff return (Franklin kick)
P — Barnes 1 run (Franklin kick)

The Eagles clinched a playoff spot with this one-sided thumping of the Lions. Philadelphia racked up 384 yards in total offense and collected 29 first downs. Detroit, on the other hand, totaled just 180 yards and five first downs. Quarterback Joe Reed returned from the Lions' wounded list to throw for the club's only points.

DEC. 9 — DOLPHINS 28, LIONS 10
at Pontiac, 78,087

Miami	14	0	7	7	—	28
Detroit	0	3	0	7	—	10

M — Moore 25 pass from Griese (von Schamann kick)
M — Cefalo 29 pass from Griese (von Schamann kick)
D — Ricardo 46 FG
M — Csonka 3 run (von Schamann kick)
M — Davis 3 run (von Schamann kick)
D — Washington 29 pass from S. Hunter (Ricardo kick)

Facing the club which gave him his first coaching position, Lions Coach Monte Clark watched Miami quarterback Bob Griese propel the Dolphins to an impressive victory. The playoff-bound Dolphins were extra sharp against the young Lions. Miami ran up 321 yards in total offense; 233 in gross passing, while Detroit mustered just 182.

DEC. 15 — PACKERS 18, LIONS 13
at Pontiac, 57,376

Green Bay	6	3	9	0	—	18
Detroit	7	0	0	6	—	13

GB — Birney 27 FG
D — Komlo 9 run (Ricardo kick)
GB — Birney 25 FG
GB — Birney 46 FG
GB — Torkelson 1 run (kick failed)
GB — Birney 41 FG
D — Bussey 5 run (kick failed)

One of Detroit's longest seasons came to a close with the Lions dropping a sloppy decision to the Pack. For the tenth time, Detroit was unable to hold a lead to the end. The Lions suffered seven sacks and came up with only 92 yards in net passing. Two fumbles and an interception all led to Green Bay scores.

HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

Almost a half century ago, the Lions began a long and successful association with the Detroit area as its National Football League representative.

Detroit welcomed the Lions 46 years ago, but it was not the area's first look at professional football.

In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL. But the club folded after two years. Then, the Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925. They also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then 10-year-old National Football League took in a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for less than $8,000 by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before average crowds of 16,000 people, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in their second year, 1935. Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit and for over 40 years they have been an integral part of the Michigan sports scene.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions stars of that era were Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojchiechowicz, John Green, "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold, eight years later, to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964 when William Clay Ford became sole owner for a price of six million dollars.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950's with four division titles and three League championships. Under Head Coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952 and 1953, defeating Cleveland in both title games. Stars of those glittering teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne and Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker, Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have been looking in vain for the top spot. Such recent performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary and "Night Train" Lane have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players like Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Lem Barney and Charlie Sanders have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Joe Schmidt began the first of six seasons as Head Coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the post-season playoffs, but lost in the first round to Dallas.

Just prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a fantastic new stadium in Pontiac, Michigan, a town of 85,000 people located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome is the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seats over 80,000 spectators under a Fiberglas roof.

Control of all football operations was handed to Head Coach Monte Clark in 1978. Clark's winning approach has brought a new optimism to Lions' faithful. With top caliber talent like Al "Bubba" Baker, Gary Danielson, David Hill, Doug English, Jimmy Allen and Dexter Bussey, plus the astute direction of a proven winner like Monte Clark, the Lions are determined to regain a place among pro footballs' finest.

WHEN YOUR GROUND GAME NEEDS A LIFT . . . GO TO THE AIR WITH DELTA.

Delta Air Lines takes to the air each day with flights to cities all around the U.S. and abroad. In fact, Delta jets make 1500 take-offs every day or an average of one take-off each minute. That takes the teamwork of a lot of not-so-average people. The Delta Professionals.

Are we ready when you are? Are we ever. Fly Delta and see. For flight information, see your Travel Agent or call Delta. DELTA
The airline run by professionals
