Lions' 60th Anniversary

The Lions celebrate their 60th season in Detroit in 1993. In recognition of this milestone, the Lions have planned a series of events, including a media poll selecting an all-time Lions team (see pages 166-167), a fan poll to choose a similar all-Lions squad, and the production of a commemorative 60th Anniversary Book. The picture on the cover represents 60 seasons of Lions' football with the ball from the Lions' first game in Detroit, the team's first championship trophy, and other articles symbolizing the history of Lions' football.

William Clay Ford

OWNER AND PRESIDENT

In order to be successful in any endeavor, whether it be fielding the best possible football team or building the best possible car, one has to take full advantage of the latest innovations. No one knows that better than Lions' Owner and President William Clay Ford, who has experienced success with his National Football League club and in his life-long affiliation with the Ford Motor Company.

The latest innovation in the NFL is the new system of unrestricted free agency. Mr. Ford, who celebrates his 30th season as owner in the Lions' 60th year, has always shown a burning passion for winning, and the new free agency system stoked those fires even more, which was evidenced by the Lions' fervent efforts to improve during the offseason.

Mr. Ford's ongoing commitment to winning was re-focused and intensified as Lions' Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer Chuck Schmidt relentlessly pursued free agents and other avenues to improve the Lions' football team.

The new system provided the vehicle, and Mr. Ford, who knows a thing or two about vehicles, was the driving force as the Lions signed three proven offensive linemen — Bill Fralic, Dave Lutz and Dave Richards — in the opening weeks of the new marketplace. "We are traveling in the unknown," Ford said in reference to free agency. "I don't know what the future is going to hold, but we will continue to look for opportunities and take advantage of them. Right after the season we planned on being aggressive in the free agent market, and we were. We've improved our team in a span of months that otherwise could have taken years."

Just one year removed from a Central Division title and an appearance in the NFC Championship Game, Mr. Ford wants to see his team duplicate and improve on the success enjoyed in 1991.

The Lions took another big step towards that end on draft day when the Lions completed a trade for Pat Swilling, perhaps the finest pass rusher in the game.

"I'd like to see a winner for this team, for the fans. We're going to do whatever we can do, and we're going to do it forcefully," Ford said.

For three decades, he has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of stability, integrity and honest leadership. If you know Mr. Ford, you understand that the owner and president of the Lions is, in the truest sense of the word, a gentleman.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November of 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964.

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automobile industry, he being a grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

Although he retired from his post as Ford Motor Company Vice-Chairman in March of 1989, Mr. Ford remains a member of the Board of Directors and chairman of the Finance and Executive Committees. He has been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee since its inception in 1957 until retirement in 1989.

In recent months, Mr. Ford was lured out of retirement, as the motor company is once again utilizing his expertise in design on a special assignment as a consultant in the design studio. He is currently focusing his efforts on the Jaguar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corp, he enrolled at Yale, where he captained both the tennis and soccer teams at the Ivy League school. In fact, he was a nationally ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. (Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes some tennis, although he prefers golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer.) He graduated from Yale with a Bachelor of Science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

He helped orchestrate a major change in Lions' history when he moved the team in 1975 from the downtown-located Tiger Stadium to metropolitan Pontiac and the sparkling, 80,000-plus seat Pontiac Silverdome, which remains the world's largest (based on seating capacity) indoor athletic facility.

Mr. Ford also is Chairman Emeritus of the Board of Trustees of the Edison Institute, which operates Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn. He is a trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, and serves as a director or a trustee for the Boys' Club of America, the National Tennis Hall of Fame, the United Way of Southeastern Michigan, and the Economic Club of Detroit. His more recent appointments include being named as a trustee for the Michigan Heart Association and to the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation. He received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, California, in 1981.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio, and they are the parents of three daughters — Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth — and a son, Bill, Jr., who serves the Lions as club treasurer.

Head Coach Wayne Fontes with Lions owner and president, William Clay Ford.

William Clay Ford, Jr.

TREASURER

One of the fastest-rising, young executives of the Ford Motor Company doubles as the treasurer of the Detroit Lions — William Clay Ford Jr. In March of 1991, the 36-year old Ford was named executive Director of Business Strategy for the Ford Automotive Group. Prior to assuming his current responsibilities, he was the manager of Ford Heavy Truck Engineering and Manufacturing after a three-year assignment in Europe. Previously, he was elected to the Ford Motor Company's Board of Directors (Jan. 14, 1988).

Mr. Ford, son of Lions' Owner and President William Clay Ford, joined the company in 1979 as a product planning analyst in Advanced Vehicles Development. He later moved to automotive assembly operations and worked on the launch of the Escort and Lynx. Additionally, he was a zone manager for district sales in the New York-New Jersey area before he was appointed as a member of Ford's bargaining team for negotiations with the UAW in 1982.

After a stint as a Ford Division advertising specialist, the Princeton University graduate entered the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he earned a master's degree in management. Subsequent moves at Ford came in 1984 when he served as an international finance specialist and, in 1985, when he became a Car Product Development planning manager.

His tenure in Europe began in 1986 when Mr. Ford was appointed director of Commercial Vehicle Marketing for Ford of Europe and, in 1987, he moved his family to Zurich to become chairman and managing director of Ford Switzerland.

Chuck Schmidt

EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

It is a players game, and no one understands that more than Chuck Schmidt. In his first three years as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Schmidt faced and met many challenges, particularly with regard to personnel. But as the National Football League enters into a new pact with its players, the rules have changed, and Schmidt sees more obstacles in the road ahead.

"We have moved into a new era—an era of unrestricted free agency," Schmidt said. "The Detroit Lions will not throw caution to the wind; we will be aggressive in our approach, because we've made a commitment to winning."

"We enjoyed a good amount of success two years ago, and it's no secret that we suffered some setbacks last year that deeply affected this football team, both emotionally and personnel-wise."

"A year removed, our mindset is much improved, and I think we've made some moves that have helped our ball club," Schmidt said. "We needed to improve our offensive line, so we were active in the free agent market and signed some players who should make an immediate impact. We also needed to upgrade our pass rush, so we traded for one of the league's premier players in Pat Swilling."

Schmidt, 46, was handed the baton on December 27, 1989, when he succeeded Russ Thomas as the organization's top officer. In his first year at the helm, he hired a new Director of Player Personnel in Ron Hughes; oversaw construction of a new weight room that rivals any in the NFL; and was instrumental in the Lions' switch in training camp sites from Oakland University to the team's year-round residence at the Pontiac Silverdome. Schmidt later reorganized the front office staff to reflect the club's increased emphasis in the areas of marketing, promotions, and community and media relations; spearheaded the construction of a new player's lounge; was responsible for the construction of a new ticket office at the north end of the Silverdome and the renovation of the old ticket office into the new public relations department; and helped initiate "Lions Live", a three-day football festival to benefit charity. More recently, with the new free agency system in place, Schmidt hired Michael Huyghue, a highly-respected labor relations expert, to serve as Vice President for Administration and General Counsel.

Now in his 18th year with the Lions, Schmidt has performed a variety of duties during his tenure, providing the Detroit native with a keen and unique insight into the overall operation of the organization. He has been with the Lions since 1976 when he joined the club as a CPA. He soon thereafter was promoted to the team's controller. In 1987, Schmidt was named to the position of Vice-President for Finance and assumed the crucial, yet often thankless task of negotiating and signing all player contracts. Schmidt attended Detroit's Lutheran East High School before accepting a baseball scholarship from the University of Michigan where he earned his undergraduate degree in business. After earning a graduate degree in finance from Detroit's Wayne State University, he joined the accounting firm of Ernst and Whinney, where for five years he worked as a tax specialist before joining the Lions organization.

Under Schmidt's direction in 1990, the club established Detroit Lions Charities, a non-profit organization which assists various charitable and worthwhile causes in Michigan. Schmidt serves on the board of directors for the program and is Secretary-Treasurer. He also serves on the Board of Directors for Detroit Tigers' Manger Sparky Anderson's CATCH charity, the Board of Trustees for Henry Ford Hospital West Bloomfield, and also is on the board of the Pontiac Development Foundation, which is an organization established to enhance economic progress in the Pontiac area.

Born on January 22, 1947, Schmidt and his wife Sharon reside in Oakland County with their three children, Scott, Krista and Matthew.

Executive Vice-President Chuck Schmidt

Michael Huyghue

VICE-PRESIDENT OF ADMINISTRATION AND GENERAL COUNSEL

1st Year with Lions

Michael Huyghue (pronounced HEWG) begins his first year as Vice-President of Administration and General Counsel. He assists Chuck Schmidt with player contracts, League and administrative matters. Huyghue brings to the Lions an extensive background in football and labor relations. Most recently, Huyghue served as Vice-President/Administration and General Counsel for the World League. Prior to his stint with the World League, he was the General Manager for the Birmingham Fire, where he directed the Fire to the North American West Division Championship.

From 1987 to 1990 he was Labor Relations Counsel of the NFL's Management Council. He advised the 28-member clubs' managers on general interpretation and enforcement of collective bargaining agreement provisions between the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

He also was an integral member of the NFL Management Council Staff which directed clubs in signing the "replacement players" during the 1987 strike. Prior to joining Management Council, Huyghue served briefly in the legal department of the NFL Players Association in Washington, D.C.

Admitted to the state bar in both New York and New Jersey, Huyghue earned a bachelor's degree in communication arts from Cornell University (1983) and a juris doctor degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 1987. A two-sport athlete at Cornell, Huyghue won three letters as a wide receiver in football and also played third base for the Ivy League School. The 31-year-old Huyghue is a native of Windsor, Connecticut. He and his wife Kimberly were married in July.

Administrative Staff

Otis Canty

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER RELATIONS/
ADMINISTRATIVE ASST. TO THE HEAD COACH

28th Year with Lions

Otis Canty, a long-time fixture with the Lions' organization, handles the duties of administrative assistant to the head coach which coincides with his role as director of player relations. He also is the club's office manager. Among his tasks as office manager are purchasing and overseeing the ongoing interior renovation of the Lions' offices. The native of Troy, Alabama and long-time Detroit resident is in his 28th year with the Lions, including his first year that he worked on a part-time basis. Canty and his wife Gloria Jean reside in Oakland County.

Mark Graham

ASSISTANT TICKET MANAGER

11th Year with Lions

Managing the sale and distribution of tickets is an enormous task, and the Lions are fortunate to have someone as experienced as Mark Graham as assistant ticket manager. Mark re-joined the Lions in 1990 following a brief stint in the ticket office of the Fox Theatre in Detroit. He started with the Lions on a part time basis in 1980 and remained in that capacity until 1986 when he was hired to a full time position by the Lions. Graham, 34, brings to the Lions a plethora of knowledge in many areas of ticket management. He has worked in the ticket offices of the Detroit Tigers, Detroit Red Wings and Joe Louis Arena in Detroit. Graham has worked at the Super Bowl and was involved in the allocation and distribution of all the Super Bowl tickets.

Mark and his wife Michelle have a daughter, Suzan, and a son, Michael.

Bill Keenist

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING, BROADCASTING AND COMMUNICATIONS

9th Year with Lions

When the Lions formed their first marketing department, Bill Keenist, with more than a decade of experience in athletic publicity and promotions, was a natural selection as one of the directors. Keenist, who continues to oversee the Lions' public relations department, also, along with Chuck Schmidt, coordinates the team's local broadcasting concerns.

Keenist has been with the Lions since 1985 when he was hired as assistant public relations director. In 1987 he was named director of public relations, a position he held until 1991.

Prior to joining the Lions, Keenist worked for the Washington Redskins from 1981-83 as a public relations assistant and Director of Promotions. He was a member of the Redskins when the team won Super Bowl XVII in 1983 over Miami.

Keenist left the Redskins to become P.R. Director of the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League. After the Maulers, Keenist was the Sports P.R. Director for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, where he worked primarily with the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team.

For Super Bowls XXIV, XXV, XXVI and XXVII, he had the honor of being selected by the NFL, the public relations co-captain, which involves the coordination of all media-related activities.

A native of Elizabeth, Pa., Keenist holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, from where he also received his bachelor's degree. He did his graduate internship at Duke University. He lives in Oxford with his wife Cindy and their two sons Billy and Christopher.

Larry Lee

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PROGRAMS AND PRO SCOUTING ASSISTANT

1st Year with Lions

Former Lion lineman Larry Lee assumes the newly-created position of Director of Player Programs and Pro Scouting Assistant.

An all-Pac Ten performer and team captain as a senior at UCLA, Lee was selected by Detroit in the fifth round of the 1981 draft. Lee spent five seasons with the Lions as a center-guard and long snapper, then was released during the 1985 season and signed by Miami where Lee played through the '86 season. He finished his career with Denver (1987-90), playing with the Bronco team that advanced to Super Bowl XXII.

Lee, 33, began planning for his post-football career while he was still playing, taking part in former Lion great Mel Farr's Automobile Dealer Training Program in 1987, then working full time for Mel Farr Ford from 1990-92. For the past year, Lee has served as general manager at White Allen Honda in his hometown Dayton, Ohio.

Larry and his wife Daphne have two daughters, Dayna (8) and Danielle (5).

Tom Lesnau

CONTROLLER

16th Year with Lions

Tom Lesnau was named controller of the Lions in January of 1991 after serving as the team's accountant for 13 years. Lesnau came to the Lions from the accounting firm of Ernst and Whinney where he had worked for five years. He was hired as the club's accountant in 1978 and took over the additional duties of travel coordinator in 1980. In his current position, Lesnau is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day financial tax and budgeting operations of the organization as well as coordinating all of the team's travel arrangements. Lesnau also coordinated the construction of the new players' lounge as well as the construction of the new ticket and marketing offices and the conversion of the old ticket office into the public relations office in 1991.

Lesnau, a native of Detroit, received his degree in accounting from Michigan State University and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Fred Otto

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING, SALES AND TICKET OPERATIONS

22nd Year with Lions

One of the senior members of the organization, Fred Otto has been with the Lions since 1972. Otto started out as assistant ticket manager and was promoted to ticket manager in 1974, becoming the youngest ticket manager in the National Football League at the time. He holds the distinction of being with the same team longer than any ticket manager in the league today. When the Lions started their own marketing department in December of 1990, Otto was selected as one of the two people to run the department and was promoted to his current position.

During his tenure, Otto has witnessed the proliferation of computers into the ticket business and has kept the Lions' ticket operation on the cutting edge of the National Football League. In addition to his duties with the Lions, Otto heads up the ticket operation for the Super Bowl, a job he has done since Super Bowl XV.

Otto received his bachelor's degree from Michigan State University and his M.B.A. from the University of Detroit. Fred is the son of the long-time ticket manager for the Detroit Tigers, the late Norm Otto.

Jim Renouf

DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER SERVICES

15th Year with Lions

Computers have permeated all areas of the Lions' organization, and the man in charge of the computer operations is Jim Renouf. Renouf is in his fifteenth season with the club as the computer services director. His is responsible for facilitating the day to day operation of the extensive computer system which plays an important part in all aspects of the organization. Computers are utilized by every department from the ticket office and training room to player personnel and scouting, which uses the computer to compile and store player evaluations. Jim came to the Lions from Sperry-Univac in Chicago where he was employed as regional products manager.

Renouf majored in math and physics at UCLA. He and his wife Diana have four daughters Melinda, Cassandra, Katharine and Margaret and reside in Troy.

Media Services Directory

SILVERDOME PRESS BOX

The working area for writers, broadcasters and overhead photographers is located on the Club Level between the south and west corners of the stadium. The facility can accommodate more than 150 media representatives in the upper press area and contains 15 booths in the lower area for radio, television, photographers, public address and scoreboard operations.

CREDENTIALS

All applications must be made in writing through Mike Murray, Media Relations Coordinator. Credentials are available to working members of the media only. Advance notification of requests is appreciated. Season credentials will be issued to appropriate outlets. Since no Press Will Call window is available due to the need for a parking pass to gain press lot access, most credentials and parking passes are mailed. Please allow AT LEAST three days for mail delivery. Credentials can be left at a local hotel for pickup on game day. That hotel is the Hilton Suites (313-334-2222), which is located on Featherstone Road, approximately one-quarter mile east of the Silverdome. The front desk is used as a credential pickup when requests are made too late to guarantee mail delivery.

PARKING

A parking pass is required to enter the press parking area, located on the southwest side of the Silverdome. Enter Gate 1 from Opdyke Road and proceed to the press parking area adjacent to the press Box. Press parking is not automatically issued to every credentialed member of the media covering the game because of an insufficient number of parking passes and spaces.

SERVICES

Statistical information is distributed before, during and after the game. Spotters and statisticians are available to radio and TV crews upon advance request. Food and beverages for the working media are available in the Press Lounge. Your game credential entitles you to the buffet meal that is served prior to the game.

PRESS CONFERENCE/LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Head Coach Wayne Fontes will hold his regular Monday luncheon/press conference at noon in the Silverdome. The Lions' locker room is open for player interviews between the hours of 12:00 (Noon) - 12:55 p.m. on non-game days. The Lions' Public Relations staff is here to help. If you need assistance, don't hesitate to ask.

Media Relations

Mike Murray

MEDIA RELATIONS COORDINATOR

3rd Year with Lions

Mike Murray joined the club as media relations coordinator in April, 1991. Murray manages all aspects of media relations including the writing and publishing of the media guide, weekly press releases, media credentials, press conferences, and direct day-to-day contact with media.

Murray brings to the Lions extensive experience in athletic public relations. He comes to the Lions following a brief stint as Assistant to the Athletic Director for Media Relations at Illinois State University. Prior to that Murray spent seven years as Assistant Sports Information Director at the University of Michigan where he helped coordinate publicity for six bowl-bound football squads and the basketball team that claimed the 1989 NCAA Championship.

A Dearborn native, Murray received his communications degree from the University of Michigan. He and his wife, Mena, reside in Royal Oak with their three children, Elizabeth, Michael and Eddie.

James Petrylka

MEDIA RELATIONS ASSISTANT

3rd Year with Lions

James Petrylka is in his third year as the Lions' media relations assistant. He has been a familiar face in the Silverdome press box in recent years after serving as the Lions' public relations intern for three seasons. Petrylka's tireless efforts earned him a full-time position in February, 1991.

Petrylka's background in the Detroit media market is considerable, including stints with WDIV-TV and radio stations WWJ and WPZA.

Petrylka, 28, is a Detroit native. He attended the University of Michigan where he received a bachelor's degrees in Sports Management and Communications in 1988. He and his wife Denise were married in May. The couple resides in Madison Heights.

Detroit Lions Charities

"The Community Pride of the Lions"

The Detroit Lions expanded its community efforts in June, 1990, with the establishment of Detroit Lions Charities (DLC), a non-profit organization founded by the Lions to assist charitable and worthwhile causes in Michigan. The Lions, with corporate assistance, have raised over $254,000 for charity since 1990 season. Grants totaling over $101,000 were awarded to 65 Michigan charities in March, 1993.

"The Detroit Lions long has had an organization-wide commitment to helping our community," said Lions' Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer Chuck Schmidt. "Now, the club has made an even greater commitment with the establishment of Detroit Lions Charities. The Lions will identify and, with support from our corporate friends, help fund specific programs that we feel best benefit Michigan's needs."

Funding for Detroit Lions Charities comes from several sources including proceeds from the Detroit Lions Invitational, a golf outing held in May at Great Oaks Country Club in nearby Rochester. Funds also were raised through "Lions Live," a sports memorabilia and autograph fun-fair held in the Silverdome. Principal financial support comes from the "Northwest Airlines Flies for Detroit Lions Charities" program. Northwest Airlines donates $100 for every point the Lions score to DLC.

DLC assists a wide variety of activities and programs that benefit education, civic affairs and health and human services in Michigan. Requests for funding will be accepted from October 1 through December 31, 1993. Grant applications will be reviewed early in the new year with recipients being announced in March, 1994, and awarded shortly thereafter.

Specific grant eligibility guidelines and application procedures are available by writing: Detroit Lions Charities, c/o Detroit Lions, 1200 Featherstone Road, Pontiac, MI 48342.

Community Relations

Tim Pendell

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS AND DETROIT LIONS CHARITIES

9th Year with Lions

The Lions' involvement with charity and community organizations in the Detroit area has increased in recent years largely due to the efforts of Tim Pendell. Pendell joined the Lions in 1985 and was director of communications prior to being named to his current position in December of 1990. Along with running Detroit Lions Charities, Pendell coordinates player appearances, edits the Lions' Gameday magazine and assists in coordinating the entertainment at Lions' home games.

Pendell is a native of Macomb, Illinois, but he was no stranger to Michigan when he joined the Lions. He was the sports information director at Ferris State University in Big Rapids, Michigan from 1976-83. He then joined the public relations staff of the United States Football League's Michigan Panthers, he was with the Panthers in 1983-84.

He graduated from Western Illinois University and served a four-year stint in the Air Force with American Forces Radio and Television service. He and his wife Diann live in Rochester.

Kim French

COMMUNITY RELATIONS ASSISTANT

2nd Year with Lions

Kim French begins her second year as the Lions' community relations assistant. She handles player appearances including weekly hospital visits to children by Lions' players during the season. Additionally, she assists with all community relations projects and writes for the Lions' Game Day magazine.

French joined the Lions at the start of training camp in 1991. Prior to coming to the Lions, Kim spent two years handling public relations and copywriting for Alexander Marketing Services, Inc. French graduated from Michigan State University with a degree in communications in 1985. After graduating she went to work for Vanguard Publications where she spent three years before moving on to Alexander Marketing Services, Inc.

Kim received a master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State University in May, 1992. French, a native of Killingworth, Connecticut, resides in Detroit.

Detroit Lions Head Coach

Wayne Fontes

33-38 Career Record
(32-37 regular season; 1-1 postseason)
9th full year with Lions
5th full year as Head Coach
18th year in NFL

When Wayne Fontes officially was named the 17th head coach in Detroit Lions' history on December 22, 1988, he promised that his team would put excitement back into the Pontiac Silverdome and that his Lions would "Restore the Roar."

Fontes was true to his word in 1991 as the Lions compiled a 12-4 record in just his third season. The 12 victories were the most regular season wins in franchise history. Fontes directed the Lions to their first playoff berth since 1983 and the first home playoff game for Detroit since 1957. Fontes' program suffered a setback in 1992, however, limping home with a 5-11 record, but the taste of success in '91 has helped fuel his determination to return to NFL prominence this season.

The tragic off-season deaths of guard Eric Andolsek and secondary coach Len Fontes, Wayne's brother, scarred the Lions deeply in 1992, and a rash of additional injuries dealt the young team a personnel loss that that even the Detroit head coach could not have anticipated. Facing the league's second-toughest schedule (only Phoenix's slate was more difficult), the hard-luck Lions managed five wins in 16 outings, dropping six games by a total of just 23 points.

Still, Fontes has maintained the nucleus of the 1991 team that captured the city's imagination. The healthy return of several key performers, along with the emergence of several new players, may be just the medicine Fontes' squad needs to recapture the NFC Central crown.

Under Fontes' leadership, the Lions overcame adversity and tragedy in 1991 to reach the playoffs. Despite the loss of five starters to injury — including guard Mike Utley's spinal cord trauma — Fontes guided the Lions to a Central Division title and the NFC Championship Game, replacing proven starters with promising athletes, refining the defense and redefining the offense. It is little wonder that Fontes earned universal praise as the NFL's Coach-of-the-Year, including honors from the AP, UPI, Pro Football Writers Association, Football News, and Pro Football Weekly. Fontes was also honored by the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia and the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Paul Brown Award). He capped the season with a 21-15 victory as the NFC's head coach in the 1992 Pro Bowl. Fontes did not turn the Lions into winners overnight. The framework for success was built in Fontes' first two full seasons as head coach. In his first full season, the Lions ended the season as the NFL's hottest team with five straight victories; scored their most points since the 1983 NFC Central Division Championship season; sent four players to the Pro Bowl for the first time since 1972; and featured NFL "Rookie of the Year" and NFC rushing champion Barry Sanders.

Behind Fontes, the Lions made even greater improvement in 1990; the team tallied 373 points, the second-best output in club history; Sanders earned All-Pro honors while becoming the second player in Lions history to capture the NFL rushing title; Detroit sent five players to the Pro Bowl, the most representatives for the club in 18 seasons; fan enthusiasm and support reached an eight-year high as Silverdome attendance skyrocketed 32 percent from the previous season and 75 percent over 1988.

He was named the Lions' head coach after serving five weeks as interim head coach at the close of the 1988 season. He coached Detroit to a 2-3 record during that span.

Fontes was born Feb. 17, 1939, in New Bedford, Mass., and lived there until he was 15 when he moved to Canton, Ohio, where his father worked in a steel mill. An exceptional schoolboy athlete at Canton's McKinley High School, he matriculated to Michigan State where he was a two-sport (football and baseball) star and earned All-Big Ten honors as a defensive back.

He was selected to play in the North-South and Senior Bowl All-Star games in 1962 before being drafted by the New York Jets where he started in the defensive backfield. His brief pro career (1962) was cut short by a broken leg. However, his 83-yard interception return against Houston (12-15-62) stood as a Jets' record until it was broken in 1989 by Erik McMillan's 93-yarder.

His first coaching job was directing the freshman team at Michigan State in 1965, while he was working on his master's degree in administration (which he later earned). He coached at Visitation High School in Bay City, Mich., in 1966-67, winning the Michigan Class B state championship in 1967 with a team that went 10-0. He then moved on to the college level and was defensive backfield coach at Dayton (1968),

Iowa (1969-71) and Southern California (1972-75). It was at the latter stop Fontes began a 13-year association with John McKay, who brought Fontes with him when McKay was named the head coach of the expansion Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1976.

Fontes spent nine years with the Bucs and advanced from secondary coach to defensive coordinator to assistant head coach under McKay. In his first year as the Bucs' defensive coordinator (1982) Tampa Bay led the NFC in defense.

He left the Bucs in 1985 to become the Lions' defensive coordinator. Under Fontes the Lions switched to a new 3-4 defensive alignment and the defense showed continued improvement.

Off the field, Fontes has been extremely active in charitable causes. Gifted with a quick smile and keen sense of humor, Fontes is often seen at community and charity events lending a helping hand. Fontes has taken an active role in many charitable causes, including the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, C.A.T.C.H., Special Olympics, D.A.R.E., the Whaley Children Center, the National Paralysis Foundation, the Palmer Drug Abuse Program and the Mike Utley Foundation.

Active on the banquet circuit, he has served as Chairman of the Michigan Chapter of the American Cancer Society's Great American Lockup. He has also served as Chairman of a program to raise $1 million for the expansion of Camp Fowler, a Mayville, Mich., camp for disabled children. Fontes was the guest of honor at a "Wayne Roast" dinner which benefited the Center for Creative Studies in Detroit. In 1992, Fontes was honored as a "Michiganian of the Year" by the Detroit News. Fontes also has participated in numerous charity golf outings and has been a chairman the past three years of the Detroit Lions Charities' annual golf tournament which benefits numerous causes throughout southeast Michigan. Fontes and his wife Evelyn (who met at a high school sock hop in Canton) have three children (Mike, Scott and Kim) and reside in nearby Rochester Hills.

Hank Bullough

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

1st Year with Lions
21st Year in the NFL

When the Lions were looking for a defensive coordinator after the 1992 season, head coach Wayne Fontes was fortunate to find one of the most experienced and successful defensive coaches in the league in Hank Bullough. The 58-year-old Bullough has a reputation as an innovative architect of the 3-4 defense, an aggressive scheme employing a host of variations. The Michigan State alumnus last coached with Green Bay (1988-91) as the Packers' defensive coordinator. A native of Scranton, PA, Bullough won three varsity letters as a linebacker at Michigan State and was drafted by Green Bay in the fifth round in 1955. Following his rookie season, his playing career was interrupted by two years of military service. He returned to the Packers in 1958 before leaving to enter the coaching ranks at Michigan State under the late Duffy Daugherty in 1959. Bullough was MSU's defensive coordinator in 1966 when the second ranked Spartans and top-ranked Notre Dame played to their famed 10-10 tie. Bullough left his alma mater in 1970 to join the Colts as linebackers coach. As a rookie assistant, he helped Baltimore to an 11-2-1 regular-season mark and a 16-13 victory over Dallas in Super Bowl V.

After seven seasons at New England, including two as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, Bullough transformed Cincinnati's defense into the fourth-ranked unit in the league en route to Super Bowl XVI in 1981. The following year, Bullough's squad finished the season as the NFL's top-ranked defense.

In 1984, Bullough made the move from Cincinnati to Green Bay with Forrest Gregg when the latter took over as the Packers' head coach. Hank later resigned in May of '84 to become head coach of the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League. With only four games left in the Maulers' season at that stage, Bullough decided to wait until 1985 before taking the reins, only to see the Pittsburgh franchise dissolve before he put on a headset.

Bullough joined Kay Stephenson's Buffalo staff in 1985 and later was named head coach of the Bills on October 1, 1985, remaining in that capacity through November 3, 1986. He compiled a record of 4-17-0 in parts of two seasons before being replaced by Marv Levy.

Hank and his wife, LouAnn, a daughter, Cheryl, and two sons, Shane and Chuck, both of whom were football standouts at Michigan State.

Don Clemons

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

9th Year with Lions
9th Year in the NFL

In his ninth year with the Lions, Don Clemons continues to be valuable to the Lions' coaching staff, now in charge of the outside linebackers. Clemons came to Detroit in 1985, and served four years as the Lions' strength and conditioning coordinator before handling a variety of duties as a defensive assistant beginning in 1989.

Clemons, 39, is a native of Northampton, Pa. He was a standout defensive end at Muhlenberg (Pa.) College, where he earned All-District honors and was team captain his senior year ('76). His first coaching experience was at Kutztown State (Pa.) where he tutored outside linebackers for two seasons (1977-78). He then spent one year as linebackers coach at New Mexico State (1979) before joining former Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers at Arizona State. Clemons was the strength and conditioning coach for the Sun Devils and also assisted the defensive line coach from 1980-84.

Holder of an English degree from Muhlenberg, Clemons and his wife Shawn - who starred in basketball at Arizona State and was an assistant coach on the Oakland University (Rochester, Mich.) women's basketball team that went to the NCAA Division II semi-finals in 1989-90 - have a son, Scot, and are expecting their second child.

John Fontes

DEFENSIVE BACKS

2nd Year with Lions
2nd Year in the NFL

John Fontes (pronounced fon-TEZ) becomes the newest member of the Lions' staff as he takes over as defensive backs coach, a position held by his late brother Len for the past two seasons. John, the younger brother of Head Coach Wayne Fontes, comes to the Lions with twelve years of coaching experience.

Fontes spent the spring of 1992 as a defensive assistant with the World League Champion Sacramento Surge. In 1991 he served as the defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Storm in the Arena League, and the Storm won the Arena League championship with a 13-2 record. Prior to his stint with the Storm, John was an assistant at Louisiana State University. He tutored the defensive backs in 1987-88 and he coached the outside linebackers in 1989.

In 1986 Fontes was the linebacker coach at the University of Miami, a season in which the Hurricane defense finished fifth in the nation in total defense and seventh in scoring defense. He coached at Northwestern in 1985, and he coached the linebackers at Oregon State from 1976-80 and also worked with the secondary. From 1973-76 Fontes coached at Long Beach Poly High School where he was defensive coordinator and tutored defensive backs. They compiled a 3-year record of 26-4 with two league championships. Fontes left coaching from 1980-84 and worked for Levi Strauss and Company.

He played for the University of Iowa, however his career was cut short by a knee injury. After his injury he became a graduate assistant, coaching the freshman team for the Hawkeyes in 1971-72 and received a degree in Physical Education. Fontes and his wife, Therese, have two children, John and Ashlee.

Frank Gansz

SPECIAL TEAMS

*5th Year with Lions
16th Year in the NFL*

A veteran of the NFL wars, Frank Gansz brought outstanding credentials to Detroit built through 15 years of NFL coaching experience. After two seasons as head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs (1987-88), Gansz was quickly tabbed by Wayne Fontes following the 1988 season to direct the Lions' special teams.

It didn't take long for Gansz to add to his coaching credits. In a vote by the league's coaches, he was named the NFL's 1989 Special Teams "Coach of the Year". The Lions' special teams have flourished under Gansz's direction as evidenced by return specialist Mel Gray's two consecutive Pro Bowl appearances. In 1991 Gray became the first return specialist in NFL history to lead the league in punt return and kickoff return average in the same season.

Gansz is in his 28th year as a coach. He began his coaching career at the Air Force Academy (1964-66), and had stints at Colgate (1968), the Naval Academy (1969-72), Oklahoma State (1973-75), Army (1974) and UCLA (1976-77).

An outstanding special teams instructor, Gansz entered the NFL in '78 as special teams coach at San Francisco, then added the title of tight ends coach to his credit during stops at Cincinnati ('79-80), Kansas City ('81-82) and Philadelphia ('83-85). Upon his return to Kansas City in 1986, Gansz was named assistant head coach and special teams coach. That season, the Chiefs' special teams blocked an NFL record 10 kicks and scored five touchdowns while sparking Kansas City to its first playoff berth in 15 years.

In 1992 Gansz conducted clinics for several World League teams during their respective training camps. The 54-year-old (Nov. 22, 1938) Gansz was born in Altoona, Pa. and grew up in Pittsburgh. He is a 1960 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy where he played guard, center and linebacker in three seasons and was a member of the 1958 Cotton Bowl team. Gansz went through the Air Force's pilot training program and earned his wings in 1961, flying single-engine aircraft.

Gansz and his wife Barbara have two children (Frank, who was an assistant coach with New York/New Jersey Knight of the World League, and Jennifer) and two grandsons, and live in Rochester, Mich.

Dan Henning

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

2nd Year with Lions
19th Year in the NFL

Looking to add a more stable running game to accompany the Lions' four wide receiver offense, Head Coach Wayne Fontes hired Dan Henning as his new offensive coordinator. Henning, an 18-year NFL coaching veteran, completes one of the most experienced staffs in the league.

The 51-year-old Henning (June 21, 1942) brings with him impressive credentials and a reputation as one of the top offensive minds in the game. He spent the past three years ('89-'91) as head coach of the San Diego Chargers. Prior to joining the Chargers, Henning spent 1987-88 directing the passing game and quarterbacks of the Washington Redskins and was on the staff when the Redskins defeated the Denver Broncos 42-10 in Super Bowl XXII. He was no stranger to Washington having been the assistant head coach when the Redskins captured Super Bowl XVII, a 27-17 win over the Miami Dolphins. In between his stints with the Redskins, Henning spent four seasons ('83-'86) as head coach of the Atlanta Falcons.

Following a standout career as a quarterback at William & Mary, where he finished 14th in the nation in passing yardage in his senior season ('63), Henning joined the San Diego Chargers in the 1964 preseason. Following two years in the Continental League, Henning spent 1966 with the Chargers. He remained with the Chargers into the 1967 preseason before finishing his career with Norfolk in the Continental League.

Henning entered the coaching ranks in 1968 on the collegiate level at Florida State University where he tutored the quarterbacks and receivers, a position he held through 1970. He moved on to Virginia Tech where he was offensive coordinator in 1971 and 1973, before returning to Florida State in 1974. In 1972 Henning began his professional coaching career as quarterbacks and receivers coach of the Houston Oilers. He returned to the NFL to stay in 1976 when he joined the New York Jets as quarterbacks and receivers coach, remaining with the Jets through 1978. Henning tutored the quarterbacks and receivers with the Miami Dolphins from 1979-80 before moving on to the Redskins in 1981.

Dan has five children (Mary K., Patty, Dan, Terry and Mike) and three grandchildren; Teddy, Hunter and Taylor—and is expecting a fourth in August.

Bert Hill

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING/DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

4th Year with Lions
4th Year in the NFL

Long ago NFL teams learned that much of the on-the-field success is due to dedicated and well-spent hours in the weight room. In charge of this vital responsibility for the Lions is Bert Hill, who also assists in coaching the defensive line.

The 35-year-old (Jan. 25, 1958) Montgomery, Ala. native attended junior college at Marion (Ala.) Military Institute ('76-'77) where he captained the football team and also played baseball. After one year ('78) at Wichita State where he was a Shockers' linebacker, he earned his degree in physical education from Auburn (Montgomery campus).

His first coaching experience came at Nichols State ('81-'82) where, as a graduate assistant, he helped coach the defensive line and was a strength coach. He earned his master's degree from Auburn (Auburn campus) where he again assisted with the strength program ('82-'83).

Hill was named the strength and conditioning coach under Coach Jackie Sherrill at Texas A&M ('83-'88) where the Aggies won three straight Southwest Athletic Conference titles. He served one year ('88-'89) in a similar capacity at Ohio State with Coach John Cooper before returning to Texas A&M to coach under long-time friend R.C. Slocum. Hill came to the Lions in March, 1990.

Hill married the former Tara Maragas on July 7, 1990. The couple resides in Rochester Hills, Mi.

Dave Jaumotte

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

3rd Year with Lions
3rd Year in the NFL

Now in his third season with Detroit, Dave Jaumotte will coach the tight ends along with being responsible for the scouting of the opponent's defense. Dave also handles the offensive self-scout responsibilities by way of computer and statistical analysis.

Jaumotte came to the Lions in 1991 after two years as assistant offensive line coach at Texas A & M. He held a similar positions with the University of Iowa in 1987-88. Jaumotte started his coaching career at his alma mater, Mt. Lebanon High in Pittsburgh, Pa. in 1985.

He lettered three-years as an offensive lineman at Purdue before graduating in 1984. The 31-year-old (June 23, 1962) Pittsburgh native is single and resides in Utica.

Lamar Leachman

DEFENSIVE LINE

4th Year with the Lions
14th Year in the NFL

Lamar Leachman enters his fourth season as the Lions' defensive line coach after ten years with the New York Giants. Leachman spent a decade (1980-89) coaching the Giants' defensive linemen and helped build one of the NFL's finest defenses. The highlight of his tenure there came in 1986 when New York defeated Denver 39-20 to capture Super Bowl XXI.

Before entering the NFL, he was defensive coordinator for two years (1978-79) with the Montreal Alouettes and three seasons (1975-77) for the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL. He also held a similar post for one year (1974) with the WFL New York Stars.

Born August 7, 1934, in Cartersville, Ga., Leachman was a center-linebacker under Bowden Wyatt at the University of Tennessee where he gained honorable mention All-America honors. He began his coaching career in Savannah, Ga., with Chatham County Public School as head coach. He remained there until 1966, when he was named assistant coach at Richmond University (1966-67). He also coached at Georgia Tech (1968-71), Memphis State (defensive coordinator, 1972), and South Carolina (defensive coordinator, 1973).

Lamar and his wife Paula have three daughters (Lisa, Lori and Lamara), three granddaughters and one grandson.

Dave Levy

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

5th Year with Lions
14th Year in the NFL

Thirty-four years of coaching experience are wrapped around Dave Levy who was promoted to assistant head coach in 1992 after serving one year as offensive coordinator.

Having coached virtually every position at one time or another during his career, the 60-year-old (Oct. 25, 1932) Levy came to Motown after nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers, most recently as coach of the tight ends and H-backs. He also was San Diego's offensive coordinator (1983-85/87) and coached the offensive line (1980-87). Levy coached on two divisional championship teams ('80-81) and the "Air Coryell" offense flourished when the Chargers led the NFL ('81-83) by allowing only one sack for every 27 passing attempts.

A two-year performer at guard for UCLA, Levy began his coaching career with the Bruins' freshman team in '54, and as an assistant at Long Beach City College (1955). Following four seasons in the California high school ranks (1956-59), he coached for 16 years at the University of Southern California. During the 1972-75 seasons, Levy and Wayne Fontes were assistants under former Trojan field general John McKay. Before entering the NFL ranks (at San Diego) he concluded his USC stint as an assistant athletic director (1976-79).

Born in Carrollton, Missouri, Levy grew up in Long Beach, Calif. He and his wife Barrie have four children (Laurie, Ariel, John and Robert), and reside in Southfield.

Billie Matthews

RUNNING BACKS

5th Year with Lions
15th Year in the NFL

Matthews enters his fourth season as the Lions' running backs coach - a position he has coached virtually his entire career. He tutored the Lion's defensive backs in 1989, his first year with Detroit.

Matthews, who previously served as running backs coach (1987-88) on the staff of present Lions' special teams coach Frank Gansz at Kansas City, is in his 15th season of coaching in the NFL. Prior to joining the Chiefs, he spent two years as offensive coordinator and running backs coach for the Indianapolis Colts (1985-86).

Matthews entered the NFL in '79 as running backs coach of the San Francisco 49ers, where he spent four seasons, including the team's first Super Bowl title in 1981. Matthews then joined the staff of the Philadelphia Eagles where he served two years (1983-84) as running backs coach.

He began his college coaching career at the University of Kansas in 1970 before moving on to an eight-year stint at UCLA (1971-78), where he coached the running backs and the secondary. Matthews coached five 1,000-yard rushers (Kermit Johnson, James McAlister, Wendell Tyler, Theotis Brown and Freeman McNeil) while with the Bruins. A standout player himself, he quarterbacked Southern University (Baton Rouge, La.) to a 37-4 record during his playing career (1948-51).

A native of Houston, Tex., Matthews and his wife Gene have four children (Jackie, Kenneth, Kennette and Karen), and reside in Rochester Hills, Mich.

Herb Paterra

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

5th Year with the Lions
13th Year in the NFL

Herb Paterra, in his fifth season in Detroit, was well familiar with Michigan and Head Coach Wayne Fontes long before joining the Lions to coach the inside linebackers.

The association between Fontes and Paterra began at Michigan State, where both were teammates under former Spartan head coach Duffy Daugherty. Fontes played defensive back and Paterra was a two-way performer at MSU (offensive guard and linebacker).

Paterra began his professional career with the Buffalo Bills in 1963 (13th-round choice), and after two seasons in Buffalo (including one as AFL champions in '64), he joined the CFL Hamilton Tiger-Cats where he spent four years. Hamilton won two Grey Cup championships during his time there.

He began his coaching career at Michigan State as an assistant in 1969 (linebackers and defensive line). He also coached linebackers at Wyoming (1972-74). His first professional stint came in '75 when he served as linebackers coach with the Charlotte Hornets of the World Football League. Following two seasons (1976-77) as head coach at North Mecklinburgh High in Charlotte, N.C., Paterra returned to Hamilton (CFL) as defensive coordinator. His first stint in the NFL came as the defensive coordinator and special teams coach of the Los Angeles Rams (1980-82).

After a return to the CFL as the defensive coordinator at Edmonton ('83), Paterra was named linebackers coach at Green Bay where he spent the '84-'85 seasons. He became a member of Hank Bullough's staff at Buffalo in 1986, as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach before joining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to coach the inside linebackers ('87-'88).

The 52-year-old (Nov. 8, 1940) Paterra was born in Glassport, Pa. He and his wife Lou Ann have two sons - Jeff and Craig who were college quarterbacks at Michigan State and Missouri, respectively - and reside in Rochester Hills, Mich.

Charlie Sanders

RECEIVERS

5th Year with the Lions
5th Year in the NFL

Detroit welcomed a good friend home when Wayne Fontes named Charlie Sanders the team's tight end coach on Jan. 30, 1989. Sanders, who played 10 years with the Lions (1968-77), was given complete charge of the receivers in 1991.

Sanders is the club's all-time leading receiver with 336 receptions, second in yards gained with 4,817 (14.3-yard average), and fourth in touchdown catches with 31. The team's leading receiver during four of his 10 years, Sanders enjoyed his best year in '69, when he gained 656 yards on 42 receptions (he also caught 42 passes in 1974).

The seven-time Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro had his best single-game effort during his rookie season when he grabbed 10 passes for 133 yards against Washington (Dec. 15, 1968). He was the only rookie selected that season to appear in the Pro Bowl and, in addition, Sanders finished second to then-teammate Earl McCullough for NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

Sanders' standout Lions' career was recognized in May, 1990, when he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

A two-sport (football and basketball) star at the University of Minnesota, Sanders concluded his senior season as the Gophers' leading receiver after hauling in 21 receptions for 276 yards and two TD's helping his team win a share of the 1967 Big Ten title.

Sanders remained close to the Lions' organization by serving as an analyst on the Lions/WJMR radio broadcast team in the six years prior to joining the Detroit coaching staff. The Richland, N.C., native prepped at (Greensboro) Dudley High School. Born on Aug. 25, 1946, Sanders and his wife Georgiana have nine children (Mia, Charese, Mary Jo, Georgianna, Charlie Jr., Nathalie, Tallisa, Wayne and Jordan).

Jerry Wampfler

OFFENSIVE LINE

5th Year with Lions
21st Year in the NFL

Wayne Fontes again went for an NFL-experienced coach when he rounded out his offensive staff early in 1989, by naming Jerry Wampfler to coach the offensive line. In his 20th NFL coaching season, Wampfler completed a one-year ('88) stint with the San Diego Chargers in a similar capacity before joining the Lions.

A veteran of 40 years of coaching at the high school, college and pro levels, Wampfler served on the staffs of five NFL clubs prior to his appointment in Detroit. He began his pro coaching career in Philadelphia ('73) where he coached the defensive line.

Three seasons after joining the Eagles, he was named defensive line coach at Buffalo (1976) and switched to the offensive line with the New York Giants in 1978. After rejoining the Eagles a year later, Wampfler was the running game coordinator and offensive line coach for five years (1979-83). During his tenure, the Eagles made the playoffs three times and competed in Super Bowl XV. Before his stint in San Diego, he spent four seasons ('84-87) as Green Bay's offensive line coach.

The Miami of Ohio graduate began his coaching career on the high school level in 1954 at his alma mater, New Philadelphia (Ohio) High. During his collegiate coaching days, Wampfler coached under Bo Schembechler at his alma mater (Miami of Ohio) during 1963-65. He then moved on to Notre Dame where he spent four years (1966-69) under Ara Parseghian, the Irish won the National Championship in 1966. He was the head coach at Colorado State in 1970.

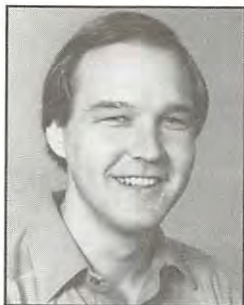

Born Aug. 6, 1932, in New Philadelphia, Ohio, Wampfler and his wife Carol have three children (Nan, Jody and Tad), and live in Lake Orion, Mich.

Football Operations

Dan Jaroshewich

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

21st Year with Lions

One of the veteran equipment managers in the NFL, Dan Jaroshewich enters his 21st season of service with the Lions.

A native of Windsor, Ontario, Jaroshewich joined the club in 1973 as an assistant to long-time Detroit equipment manager Roy "Friday" Macklem, who spent 45 years with the Lions. Jaroshewich was elevated to equipment manager in 1980. The 39-year-old Jaroshewich supervises the purchasing, replacing and cleaning of various equipment, uniforms and clothing used by the players and coaching staff.

Prior to joining the Lions, he worked at the high school and semi-pro levels in Windsor, where he also was a standout youth hockey player. He has a degree in personnel and industrial relations from the University of Detroit.

Jaroshewich and his wife Kathy have three children (Jennifer, Jessica and Joey) and they live in Troy, Mich.

Mark Glenn (left) assists Dan Jaroshewich in keeping George Jamison and the rest of the Lions ready for action.

Mark Glenn

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

10th Year with Lions

Mark Glenn is a top assistant in his department in the position of assistant equipment manager. The 32-year-old Glenn previously worked for the Lions on a part-time basis from 1976-82. He became a full-time employee in 1983 and assists Equipment Manager Dan Jaroshewich in all areas of the equipment operation.

Glenn and his wife Maria live in Waterford, Mich., they have four sons (Marc, Matthew, Michael and Mitchell) and a daughter, Melanie.

Gavin Johnson

EQUIPMENT ASSISTANT

7th Year with Lions

Gavin Johnson returns for his seventh season as equipment assistant. Johnson is a jack-of-all-trades in the equipment room handling chores in all phases of the equipment operation. Johnson worked part-time for the Lions while attending Oakland University, where he received his bachelor's degree in political science in December, 1990. He is currently pursuing his master's degree in education from Wayne State University. Johnson, 25, and his wife Karen live in Waterford.

Steve Hermans

VIDEO DIRECTOR

16th Year with Lions

The man who has "kept his eye" on the Lions for 16 years is Video Director Steve Hermans. He oversees a wide ranging and ever-expanding list of video responsibilities for the coaching staff and player personnel department, as well as any other video needs by the organization.

The 43-year-old Hermans was assistant photo director at WBAY-TV in his native Green Bay, Wis., from 1968 until joining the Lions 10 years later. His contact with football began at WBAY when he processed, edited and printed game films for the Packers.

Hermans spearheaded the Lions' effort in switching from an all film operation to all video in 1986, when the NFL effected a league-wide change. Thanks to Hermans' experience, the Lions made the difficult transition without a hitch.

Steve and his wife Rosann live in Auburn Hills, Mich. with their three sons (Craig, Chad and Keith).

Michael Richardson

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

5th Year with Lions

The demand and use of video has diversified and expanded in recent years, and to maintain its standing as a top video department, the Lions hired Michael Richardson as the first full-time assistant video director in 1991. Richardson assists in all areas of video, including taping practices and games for use by the coaches and scouts. Mike is starting his second year in his current position, but he is no stranger to the Lions' organization. He started with the Lions in October of 1989 as an office assistant where among his other duties he handled the organization's mail services and also assisted in the video taping of all the Lions' games. Richardson, 27, attended Wilberforce University. Mike and his wife Kim live in Detroit.

Medical Staff

Kent Falb

HEAD TRAINER

28th Year with Lions

Entering his 28th season with the Lions, Kent Falb is one of the most respected trainers in the National Football League and throughout the field of athletic medicine. He was named the 1984 "Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year", as selected by the National Athletic Trainers Association and he served as president of MATS (Michigan Athletic Trainers Society), in 1989-90. In June, 1991 Falb received the high honor of induction into the MATS Hall of Fame joining three other inductees in the Hall's second class.

Also in 1991 Falb was elected to the board of directors of NATA, representing the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers Association (GLATA), one of ten districts that comprises NATA. He served as Director-elect in 1991 and is now serving a three year term as an active board member. In June 1987, Falb had the most prestigious honor of being the keynote speaker for the NATA convention in Columbus, Ohio.

Along with his assistants, Joe Recknagel and Robert Thomas, and Strength and Conditioning Coach Bert Hill, Falb oversees the prevention, evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of player injuries.

A native of Elgin, Iowa, Falb graduated from the University of Iowa in 1964, and received a Physical Therapy certificate from Iowa one year later. He began his athletic training career in 1959 as an assistant trainer at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

He was a student trainer at Iowa throughout college and worked part-time for the Minnesota Vikings in 1963 and 1964. The next year he was named head trainer at Boston College and joined the Lions as assistant trainer under Millard Kelly in 1966. He assumed his present position with the Lions in 1967.

Including exhibition and playoff games, Falb enters the 1993 season having worked 536 consecutive games for the Lions (384 regular season games). Falb, 53, and his wife Maxine have two daughters (Carmen and Nanette) and reside in nearby Lake Orion.

Joe Recknagel

ASSISTANT TRAINER

14th Year with Lions

Assistant trainer Joe Recknagel has been Kent Falb's right hand man the past 12 seasons. A native of Toledo, Ohio, Recknagel began his athletic training career as a student trainer at Rogers H.S. in Toledo. He attended Ohio University where he was a student assistant trainer for four years (1974-78). While at O.U., he assisted Falb at the Lions' training camp during the summers of 1977-79. After graduation in 1978, Recknagel accepted the position of graduate assistant trainer at Marshall University.

In 1979, he was promoted to assistant trainer at Marshall, and during his tenure there he worked with the football, wrestling and baseball teams. In June of '80, he joined the Lions.

Recknagel, 37, also donates a great deal of his time and expertise to the Oakland County (Mich.) Special Olympics and to both the Winter and Summer State (of Michigan) Olympic Games, which are held each February and June.

He also served on the Professional Athletic Training Society's advisory board selected to meet with a team representing Gatorade Thirst Quencher for the mutual benefit of both parties. A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Recknagel is single and lives in Lake Orion, Mich.

Robert Thomas

ASSISTANT TRAINER

4th Year with Lions

With a variety of experience as a trainer in Olympic-type competition, Robert Thomas enters his third year as the Lions' assistant trainer. Prior to joining the Lions Thomas spent four years as a trainer at Decatur H.S. in Federal Way, Washington. Thomas worked as the men's and women's basketball team trainer at the 1990 Goodwill Games in Seattle. He also worked at the Washington State Centennial Games in Spokane in 1989. Additionally, Thomas served as an intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1989 and 1988. A student trainer at Gonzaga University from 1978-80, Thomas earned a bachelor's of education in biology and physical education in 1980. He taught school on the elementary and high school levels for ten years. Robert also served as the trainer at Gonzaga Preparatory H.S. while he taught there. He is currently pursuing a Masters of Science in Microbiology. A native of Santa Monica, California, Thomas is single.

Dr. Keith Burch

TEAM DOCTOR

13th Year with Lions

Dr. Keith Burch, 51 (Dec. 10, 1941), is the Medical Director at Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital, a post he was appointed to in July of 1985. He joined the West Bloomfield Center in 1979 as the division head for internal medicine. His internship at Henry Ford in Detroit came in 1967-68 following his graduation from the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. Dr. Burch's undergraduate studies were taken at the Ohio-located University of Akron. He is a graduate of Akron's St. Vincent High School, now Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary's. Dr. Burch served his residencies at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit from 1968-69 and at the Ohio State University Hospital from 1971-72. He also served at the U.S. Army Hospital in Ft. Gordon, Ga., in 1969-70 and in Vietnam for one year ('70-'71). Dr. Burch then returned to Henry Ford Hospital where he completed an Infectious Disease fellowship from 1972-74.

Dr. Burch and his wife Kathryn (Kitty) live in Birmingham, Mich., and have two daughters (Kathy and Michelle). An avid golfer, he played that sport while an undergrad at the University of Akron. He began working with the Lions initially as a consultant in 1976 and joined the club as a team doctor in 1980.

Dr. David Collon

9th Year with Lions

Dr. David Collon, 53, (Feb. 17, 1940) is Director of the Center for Athletic Medicine and serves as the Chief of Orthopaedics at the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. He came back to Henry Ford Hospital in 1984 following five and one-half years in private practice in Mt. Clemens and Bloomfield Hills (both Detroit suburbs). He was with the orthopaedic surgery staff at Henry Ford for three years in the mid-70's, and prior to that served for six months with Wrightington Hospital in Wigan, England, where he specialized at the hospital's hip center. He also worked in Europe at Lorenz Boehler Krankenhaus, a hospital in Vienna, Austria.

Dr. Collon, who completed his orthopaedic surgery residency at Ford Hospital in '75, was the team physician for the USFL Michigan Panthers in 1983-84. He serves the Detroit Tigers' baseball team as a team physician, an assignment he first undertook in '84. He has served as the Detroit Red Wings as an orthopaedic consultant since 1988. He served with the U.S. Navy as a Lieutenant Commander and as General Medical Officer at Camp Pendleton, Calif., from 1970-72. Dr. Collon is a graduate of the University of Michigan (1963) and the Wayne State University School of Medicine (1968).

A Detroit native, Dr. Collon graduated from Cranbrook High School in 1959. Collon has four children (Katie, David, Sean and Kevin). He and his wife Mary Beth live in Birmingham, Mich.

Player Personnel/Scouting

Ron Hughes

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

11th Year with Lions

Ron Hughes was promoted to Director of Player Personnel in June, 1990, after having worked in the department since 1983. For two years he served as the Lions' Director of Pro Scouting prior to being named to his current position. In his most recent position with the Lions, Hughes primarily was responsible for the advance scouting reports of the Lions' opponents during the football season. He also scouted the top 100 college prospects each year. In his role as Director of Player Personnel, Hughes coordinates and supervises all of the Lions' college and pro scouting efforts.

Hughes is a 1965 graduate of California State College of Pennsylvania. He returned to his native Pittsburgh and coached for 14 years on the high school level, including five seasons as head coach of North Catholic High School.

In 1979, Hughes joined BLESTO, a National Football League scouting combine where he spent four seasons scouting eastern colleges. He spent his first two years (1983-84) with the Lions as a college scout, before moving to pro scouting in 1985.

The 50-year-old Hughes and his wife Adrienne have three children (Ted, Scott and Jennifer) and reside in Lathrup Village, Mich.

Kevin Colbert

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

4th Year with Lions

With the promotion of Ron Hughes to Director of Player Personnel, Kevin Colbert was hired by the Lions (June 1990) to fill the vacant Director of Pro Scouting spot. Colbert spent five seasons (1985-89) as a college scout for the Miami Dolphins where he concentrated on college athletes from Illinois to Alabama and eastern United States. Prior to joining the Miami staff, he served one season (1984) with the BLESTO scouting service.

The 36-year-old Colbert is an experienced coach in three sports. He was the backfield coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio Wesleyan University for three years (1981-83). In '84, he also aided Ohio Wesleyan as its head baseball coach.

From 1979-81, he served as a graduate assistant basketball coach and baseball coach at Robert Morris College, where he pursued a master's degree in sports management. Before attending grad school, Colbert spent three months as an intern in the ticket office of the NBA Detroit Pistons. He received an undergraduate degree in sports management from Robert Morris in 1979.

Kevin and his wife Janis have three children (Kacie, Jennifer and Daniel) and reside in Clarkston, Mich.

Milt Davis

Dirk Dierking

Scott McEwen

Jim Owens

Rick Spielman

Allen Hughes

John Trump

Team Scouts

Milt Davis is the newest member of the Lions' scouting staff as he begins his second year with the club. The 27-year NFL scouting veteran (of the Colts, Dolphins and Browns) will serve the Lions as the west coast area scout. Davis, who played defensive back at UCLA, was selected by the Lions in the eighth round of the 1954 draft. In 1957 he went to Baltimore where he played until 1960. He made All-Pro in 1957 and led the NFL in interceptions in 1957 and 1959. He holds the all-time NFL record for highest rate of interceptions per games played (27 in 45 games). Milt and his wife Yvonne reside in Eugene, Oregon. They have three children and two grandchildren.

Dirk Dierking came to the Lions in June of '78. A native Texan from Brenham, his background includes several years as an area scout for BLESTO. Dierking has two sons and lives in Plano, Tex., a suburb of Dallas.

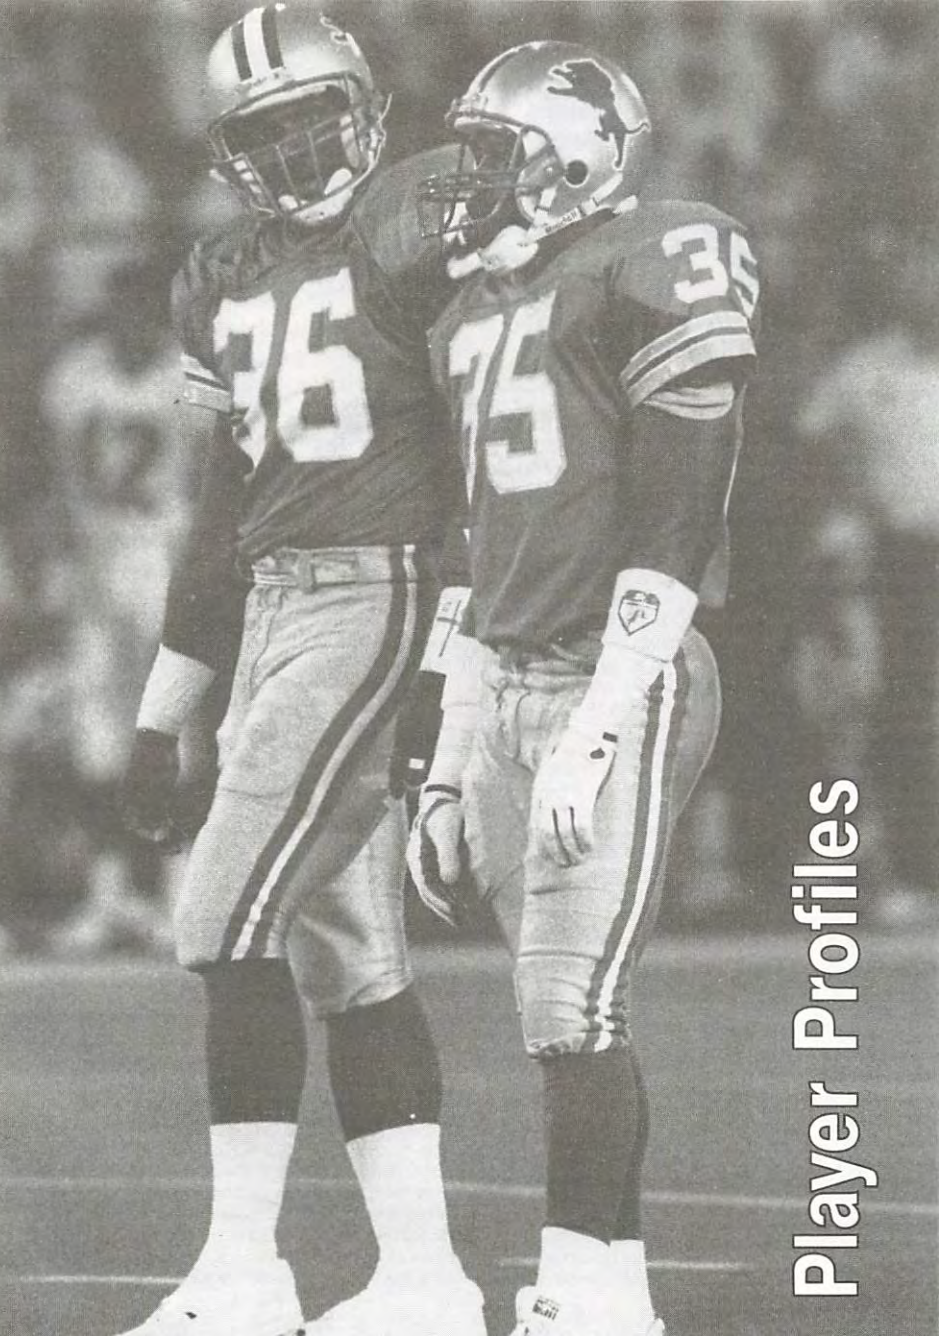

Scott McEwen is in his seventh season working with the Lions. The East McKeesport, Pa., native scouts the eastern portion of the U.S. A 1980 graduate of West Liberty State (W. Va.), McEwen spent two seasons with BLESTO before joining the Lions. After a four-year career at West Liberty State, he became a defensive line coach at his alma mater (1980-81), and later coached four years at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh. He and his wife Coleen have three children.

Jim Owens enters his tenth season with the Lions. Prior to his time with Detroit, he scouted colleges in the southeast. Like Dierking, a native Texan (Garland, Tex.), Owens also worked for BLESTO before coming to Detroit. Prior to his six years with that scouting combine service, Owens was a high school and college coach at various stops throughout Texas for 21 years. Owens and his wife Charlotte live in Athens, Tex., and they have three children.

Rick Spielman is in his fourth year on the Lions' scouting staff. The older brother of Chris Spielman, Rick spent the 1988 training camp with the Lions as a free agent linebacker. He also had a free agent tryout with the San Diego Chargers in the '87 camp. A former grid standout at Southern Illinois, Spielman is the BLESTO representative for the Lions and will handle the scouting along the southeast portion of the U.S. Rick and his wife Michelle reside in Royal Oak, Mich.

Allen Hughes joined the Lions' scouting staff in 1988 and scouts colleges in the Michigan area. The Detroit native (Benedictine H.S.) played three seasons in the USFL - two for the Michigan Panthers ('83 and '84) - and he also was a 12th-round draft pick by the Steelers in '82. Hughes signed with the Lions in '86 as a free agent, but a broken ankle suffered in the final ('86) pre-season game ended his career. He was a two-time Western Michigan University "Defensive Player of the Year". Hughes and his wife Maureen have two sons.

John Trump retired in 1990 but still serves the Lions on a part-time basis scouting colleges on the west coast. He started with the Lions in 1985 as area scout in California and at western U.S. colleges. Prior to joining the Lions Trump spent seven years with San Diego as scouting administrative assistant. Trump started working in professional football in 1953 when he began a 25-year association with the Los Angeles Rams. John and his wife Jean live in Van Nuys, California. They have two sons, one of whom, Frank, is a scout for the Rams.

Kevin
Glover

Maryland 9th Year HT: 6-2 WT: 282

Born: 6-17-63 D-2 in '85

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1985 (10/0); 1986 (4/1); 1987 (12/9); 1988 (16/16); 1989 (16/16); 1990 (16/16); 1991 (16/16) [2/2]; 1992 (7/7) TOTAL: (97/81) [2/2]

PRO: Drafted as a center in the second-round in the '85 draft (34th overall), Glover has shown the ability to play several positions on the offensive line ... Leg injury in '92 snapped streak of 73 consecutive starts ... Started every game four straight years (1988-91) on the offensive line, three seasons (1989-91) at center ... He has also started at left and right guard during his career. 1992: Did not play in preseason ... Started the first seven games of the season at center ... Had the longest streak on the team with 73 consecutive starts ... His streak was snapped when he suffered a broken leg at Tampa Bay (10/25) ... Placed on injured reserve October 27 for the remainder of the season. 1991: Started every game for the fourth consecutive season ... Helped solidify the offensive line from his center position ... Calls the signals for the offensive line on blocking adjustments at the line of scrimmage ... Earned All-NFC honors from the Football News and was named a Pro Bowl alternate. 1990: For the third straight year, Glover started every regular season contest on the offensive line for the Lions ... Sustained a severe ankle sprain in Detroit's contest at Kansas City, but had the opportunity to use the Lions' bye week to recover (Glover started and played the entire game at New Orleans two weeks later within having had to miss a contest). 1989: Won the starting center position when veteran starter Steve Mott suffered a season-ending neck injury ... Led the offensive line in cuts, takedowns and pancakes ... Improved his play more than anyone else on the offensive unit, according to the coaching staff ... Played as a wedge-blocker on the kickoff return team. 1988: Very versatile athlete, who not only started for the Lions at left guard, but if the situation needed him, could have played the center spot ... Had the second-most minutes of the offensive linemen, behind Steve Mott, with 379.6. 1987: Started in nine games at either left guard, right guard or center ... He drew his first starting assignment at right guard vs. Denver (11/1) ... Glover caught a three-yard TD pass vs. Minnesota (9/13) in the season-opener but was nullified because he failed to report as an eligible receiver ... Performed extensively as a special teams player ... Returned a kickoff for 19 yards vs. the Rams (12/6). 1986: Glover made his starting debut at left guard at Cleveland (9/28) but was forced from the game with a knee injury sustained in the fourth quarter ... Although the knee did not require surgery, he was placed on injured reserve until the season finale vs. Atlanta (12/21) ... He did not play vs. the Falcons ... Played only 74 minutes the entire season. 1985: Played sparingly in the first 10 games ... Just when it appeared Glover would receive more playing time, the injury bug bit ... Scheduled to start at left guard against Minnesota (11/17), but he injured his knee in a practice blocking drill.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: One of the stabilizers behind Maryland's powerful offensive line, Glover started as an offensive tackle in his sophomore season and at center in his final two years ... The Sporting News named him a first-team All-America as a senior ... Roomed with current Lions' tackle Lomas Brown when both played in the Senior Bowl ... An All-State honoree at Largo (Md.) High, Glover was a three-sport letterman there ... Majored in recreation at Maryland ... Enjoys speaking to Christian groups, especially youth groups ... Visits pediatric patients in Detroit-area hospitals with his Lion teammates ... Has been involved with Pro Challenge, taking anti-substance abuse seminars to schools ... He and his wife Cestaine live in Pasadena, Md. during the off-season ... His full name is Kevin Bernard Glover.

PRO: Considered by many to be the premier running back in the National Football League, Sanders continues his assault on the Detroit and NFL record books . . . He surpassed Billy Sims to become the Lions' all-time leading rusher with 5,674 . . . In just four full seasons, has broken or tied 11 Detroit offensive records . . . First Lion to record four consecutive 1,000-yard seasons . . . Over the last four years, he has rushed for more yards, 5,674, and more rushing touchdowns, 52, than any other back in the NFL . . . Just the fourth back in NFL history to run for 1,000 yards in each of his first four seasons (the others are Eric Dickerson, Earl Campbell, and Tony Dorsett) . . . Now owns the Lions' career records for rushing TDs with 52 and total career TDs with 57 . . . A threat to score every time he touches the ball, he captured the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards in 1990 . . . Finished second (1,548) to Dallas' Emmitt Smith (1,563) in the '91 NFL rushing race . . . He also narrowly missed accomplishing that feat in his rookie campaign when he led the NFC in rushing and finished just 10 yards shy of the Chiefs' Christian Okoye, the NFL leader, although he had 90 fewer carries . . . Has been named a Pro Bowl starter in each of his first four professional seasons . . . The third overall selection in the 1989 draft.

1992: Started his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl . . . Earned All-NFC honors from UPI, Football News, Pro Football Weekly . . . Named to the All-Madden Team . . . Named All-Pro second team by AP, N.E.A. and College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with 1,352 yards . . . Rushed for 109 yards in 19 carries, including a dazzling 43-yard touchdown run, in the season opener at Chicago (9/6) . . . Rushed for 122 yards in 21 carries and scored a season-high two TD's, one on a 55-yard sprint, his longest run of the season at Tampa Bay (10/25) . . . Recorded his third 100-yard rushing day of 1992, totaled 108 yards in 18 carries vs. Dallas . . . Went over the 5,000-yard mark for his career with 94 rushing yards in 24 carries, ran for one touchdown and caught three passes for 23 yards at Pittsburgh (11/15) . . . Set season-high with 151 yards rushing and took over the Lions' career rushing lead at Cincinnati (11/22) . . . Made his first touchdown reception of the season and ran for another TD vs. Houston (11/26), rushed 22 times for 54 yards and caught two passes for 12 yards . . . Recorded 114 yards in 16 carries, which put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season, caught three passes for 20 yards and attempted the first pass of his career which fell incomplete at Green Bay (12/6) . . . Totaled 113 yards in 20 carries with one touchdown and recorded the longest reception of his career, 48 yards vs. Chicago (12/20) . . . Tallied 104 yards in 19 carries, his seventh 100-yard game of the season, at San Francisco (12/28). 1991: Captured consensus All-Pro honors (AP, UPI, PFWA, Pro Football Weekly, Sporting News, College & Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, Sports Illustrated's Dr. "Z" Team, Football News and the All-Madden Team) . . . NFL Players Association NFC Most Valuable Player . . . Football Digest's "Player of the Year" . . . Recipient of the Maxwell Football Club's Pro Player of the Year Award . . . Made his third consecutive starting assignment in the Pro-Bowl . . . 1991 NFL Touchdown Leader (17) and second in league rushing with a club-record 1,548 yards . . . Led Detroit in scoring for the second straight year . . . Became the first non-kicker in Lions history to score 100-plus points in a season (102) . . . His only preseason action came at Kansas City (8/17)

where he sustained a rib injury . . . That injury kept him on sidelines for Detroit's season-opener at Washington . . . Rushed a career-high 32 times for 143 yards in win over Miami, his performance marked by a second-effort three-yarder on 3rd-and-2 to ice the victory . . . Picked up 179 yards on 30 tries at Indianapolis (9/22), including TD runs of 2 and 23 yards . . . Carried the ball 27 times for 160 yards with a career-long 69-yard TD run versus the Bucs (9/29) . . . Named the NFC's Offensive Player of the Month for September . . . Ran for 116 yards and caught a career-high nine passes for 76 yards against the Vikings (10/6), scoring the winning TD on a 15-yard scamper with 36 seconds left (had 69 yards on 10 carries in the fourth quarter as Detroit scored three TDs in final 8 minutes to win) . . . Limited to 55 yards against Dallas (10/27), but caught first TD pass of season, a 10-yarder from Erik Kramer . . . In win at Minnesota (11/24), rushed for a Detroit-record 220 yards and four TDs, earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors . . . Scored a pair of touchdowns in win over the Jets (12/8) . . . Posted his team-record eighth 100-yard game of the season with 108 and a TD on 26 carries at Buffalo (12/22) as he tied Billy Sims' career TD record with 47 . . . Had 69 yards on just 12 carries in the divisional playoff contest as Dallas (1/5) keyed on the All-Pro back, but managed a game-breaking 47-yard TD dash in the fourth quarter . . . Picked up 44 yards on 11 attempts and caught four passes for 15 yards in the NFC title clash at Washington (1/12). 1990: Everybody's All-Pro — AP, UPI, PFWA, Pro Football Weekly, Sporting News, College & Pro Football Weekly, Sports Illustrated's Dr. "Z" Team, and Football News . . . Earned his second straight appearance as a Pro Bowl starter . . . Claimed the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards on 255 carries (5.1 yard average with 13 TDs) . . . Became the first Lion to win that title since Byron "Whizzer" White led the league with 514 yards in 1940 . . . Named the Lions' Offensive MVP, he tied the club record for most touchdowns in a season (16) and, with 96 points, became the first non-kicker to lead Detroit in scoring since Mel Farr and Bill Gambrell each tallied 42 points in 1968 . . . Keyed Detroit's 34-27 win at Minnesota with 82 yards on 15 carries (5.5 average), rushed for one TD and caught the first touchdown pass of his pro career, a 22-yarder from Bob Gagliano . . . Posted his first 100-yard receiving day with five grabs for 135 yards, and also rushed for 90 yards on 16 carries (5.6 average) and one TD at Kansas City (10/14) . . . His 225 all-purpose yards tied his career-high . . . Exploded on Thanksgiving Day against the Broncos (11/22), sprinting for 147 yards on 23 carries (a 6.4 average) with a seven-yard TD, and also caught three passes including a 35-yard TD catch and run . . . Selected as the Miller Lite Player-of-the-Week for his performance vs. Denver . . . On Monday Night against the Raiders (12/10), went over the 1,000-yard barrier with a 176-yard effort on 25 carries, scoring on each of Detroit's first two drives . . . As a result, he was selected the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career . . . Ran for 135 yards on 19 carries on a frozen turf and scored the game-winning TD on a six-yard run with 3:55 remaining to deal Green Bay a 24-17 defeat (12/22) . . . His 23 yards on nine carries in the finale at Seattle (12/30) gave him his first NFL rushing title. 1989: Re-wrote the Lions' rushing record book in his rookie season: His 1,470 yards eclipsed the club's single-season rushing mark and the rookie mark previously held by Billy Sims while his 14 rushing touchdowns established a new Detroit high-water mark . . . The consensus Rookie of the Year . . . Outstanding season culminated with a trip to the Pro Bowl . . . Returned five kickoffs for 118 yards (23.6 avg.) . . . Signed a contract on Sept. 8th . . . Two days later in the season opener vs. Phoenix (9/10), electrified the Silverdome with his third quarter entrance on a 18-yard dash on his first NFL carry . . . Running a variation of one play, he finished the day with 71 yards and one TD on nine carries (7.9 avg.) . . . The following week at Giants Stadium, he gained 57 yards on 12 carries and one TD vs. New York (9/17) . . . He also exploded for 96 yards on six receptions . . . Cracked the 100-yard barrier for the first time vs. Chicago (9/24) with a 126-yard, one TD-performance in just over two quarters of play (108 yards on 14 carries in the first half) . . . It was the first time a Lion rushed for 100 yards since Garry James ripped Green Bay (10/12/86) for 140 yards . . . Left the Chicago game in the third quarter with a hip-pointer . . . Severely hampered by the hip pointer, rushed for only one yard on five carries vs. Pittsburgh (10-1) and left the contest in the second quarter . . . Although not 100 percent (from hip pointer), he bounced back with 99 yards rushing on 23 carries at Minnesota (10/8) . . . His performance prompted Vikes' Coach Jerry Burns to ask officials to inspect Sanders' jersey to determine if it was slickened with silicon spray . . . De-activated the following week at Tampa (10-15) due to the lingering hip-pointer . . . In the return bout with Minnesota (10/22), the Vikings assigned two players to "shadow" him as he rushed for 59 yards on 15 carries . . . Made his debut as a kickoff returner vs. the Vikings and returned his first kickoff 45 yards, but was nullified due to a penalty . . . Dazzled the Packers in Milwaukee (10/29) with 184 yards on 30 carries (123 yards on 19 carries in the first half) and also returned two kickoffs for 41 yards . . . Scored the game-deciding TD vs. Green Bay (11/12) in a 41-yard all-Barry Sanders drive, including a one-hand 20-yard reception on a third-and-five situation from the Green Bay 25-yard line . . . Shattered the 1,000-yard barrier with a 145-yard performance on 28 carries on Turkey Day (11/23) in a 13-10 victory over Cleveland (11/23) . . . Became the first Lion to reach 1,000 yards since Sims in '83 . . . Propelled Detroit to a 27-17 victory at Chicago (12/10) with 120 yards and two TDs on 26 carries and three receptions for 39 yards . . . Returned two kickoffs for 59 yards, including a long of 43 yards where he was pushed out of bounds by Bear kicker Kevin Butler to save a potential TD return . . . Earned numerous All-Star honors at the conclusion of the season: AP All-Pro team, College and Pro Football Newsweekly NFL All-Pro team, Pro Football Writers Association All-Pro team, Football Digest All-Pro team, The Sporting News All-Pro team, Pro Football Weekly All-NFL, Pro Football Weekly Offensive Rookie of the Year, AP Offensive Rookie of the Year, Sports Illustrated's "Z" team Rookie of the Year, UPI NFC Rookie of the Year, The Sporting News Rookie of the Year, NFL Films Rookie of the Year, College and Pro Football Newsweekly Offensive Rookie of the Year, PFWA Rookie of the Year, Football Digest Offensive Rookie of the Year, Football News All-NFC team, UPI All-NFC team, Lions' Offensive MVP and the Lions' Quarterback Club Offensive MVP.

Lions Honors

Lions' 60th Anniversary Team

As a part of the Lions' celebration of 60 years of pro football, a media poll was conducted to select two all-time teams — a Golden Era Team (first 30 years, 1934-63) and a Modern Era Team (second 30 years, 1964-93).

Local sports reporters and broadcasters were asked to select the top two players per position for each era. The media were also asked to choose Offensive and Defensive MVPs, Most Outstanding Coaches, and a variety of other categories.

Lions' MVP Selections Through the Years

Since the 1952 season, Detroit Lions' players have voted for the Lions' Most Valuable Player. From that initial MVP vote until 1966, only one Lions' player was honored per season. Since 1967, Offensive and Defensive MVPs have been honored, and since 1981, the Lions have voted for a Special Teams' MVP. For the 1992 season, the Offensive MVP was running back Barry Sanders, who became the Lions' all-time leading rusher in 1992. He rushed for 1,352 yards, giving him 5,674 career rushing yards. Sanders' selection makes him the first Lion named MVP four consecutive years and only the second to capture four most valuable player awards. On defense, free safety Bennie Blades was the selection. Blades was third on the team with 95 tackles (62 solo) and posted a career-high three interceptions. The special teams' award was shared by return specialist Mel Gray and Melvin Jenkins. Gray, named special teams MVP for the second consecutive year, was the only NFL player to return both a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown in 1992 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive year. Jenkins led the Lions with 11 special teams tackles. He also returned a blocked field goal for a touchdown in the Lions' win over Minnesota.

GRIDIRON HEROES

"Gridiron Heroes - The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions."

(Verse)

Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.

Sing their song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,

*Fighting for fame, winning the game,
 Dashing to victory as they go.*

(Chorus)

Forward down the field,

*A charging team that will not yield.
 And when the Blue and Silver wave,
 Stand and cheer the brave,*

Rah, Rah, Rah!

*Go hard win the game.
 With honor you will keep your fame.
 Down the field and gain,
 A Lion victory!*

Lions' Radio

In 1993, the Detroit Lions' radio network will be comprised of 37 stations throughout the state of Michigan and directed for the fifth year by flagship station WWJ Newsradio 95 (950) in Detroit.

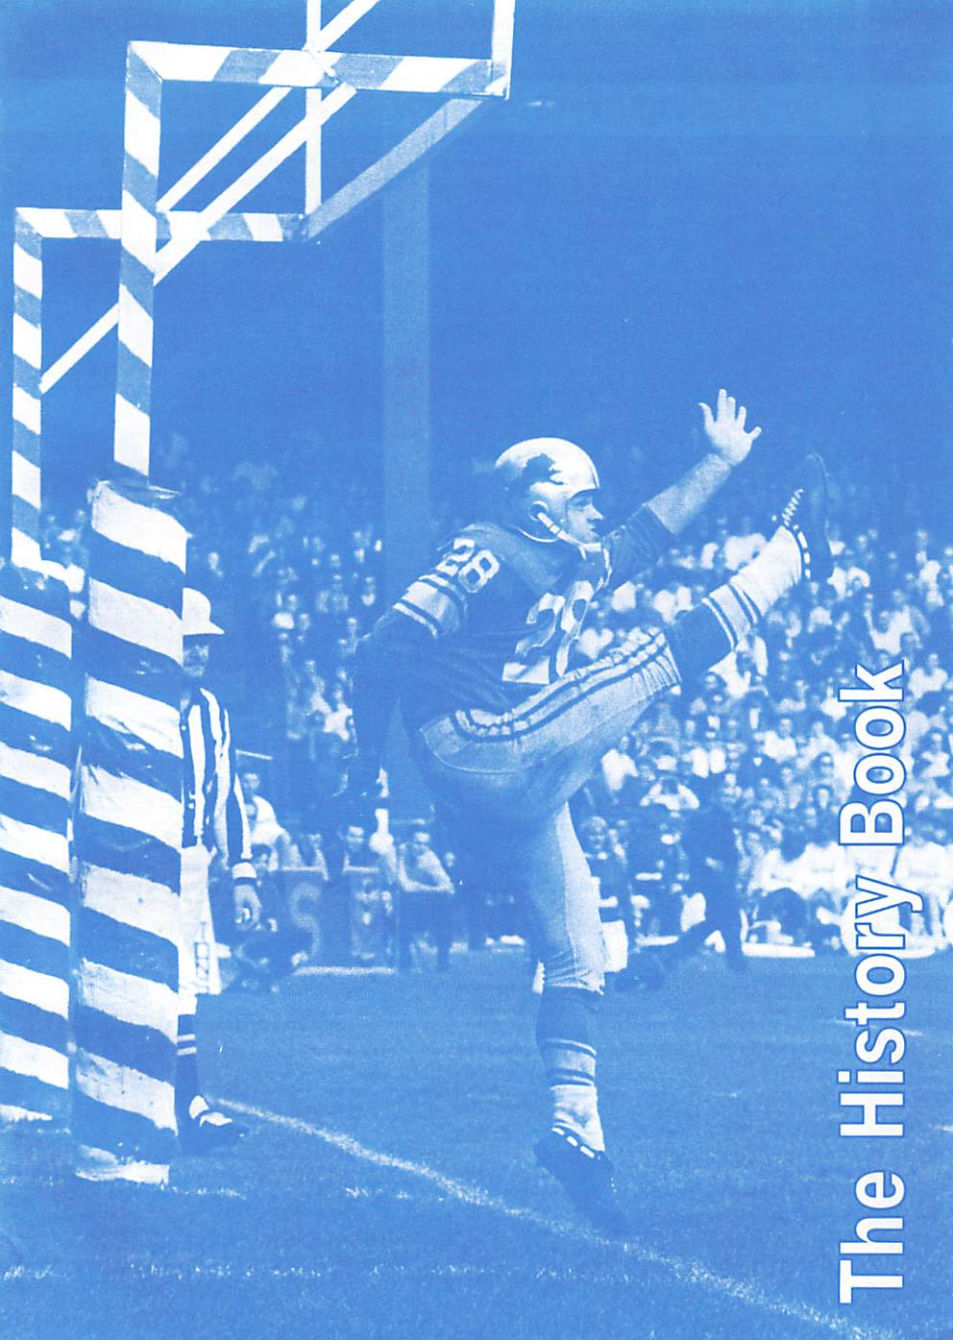

The Lions' broadcasting team again will feature play-by-play man Mark Champion, who had been the radio voice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for ten years prior to coming to Detroit in '89. Detroit radio and television personality Jim Brandstatter, who is a former star lineman for the University of Michigan, again will provide the color commentary. Behind the scenes, providing game statistics to Champion and Brandstatter, will be Walter Dell - who is in his 32nd season covering the Lions.

The History Book

A Brief History of the Lions

A strange mixture of enthusiasm and sadness gripped the Lions as they entered the 1992 season. There was enthusiasm following the success enjoyed by Detroit in 1991, however, two tragedies rocked the Lions family in the off-season. In May, Len Fontes, the Lions' defensive backs coach and brother of head coach Wayne Fontes, died suddenly of a heart attack. Then in June, guard Eric Andolsek was killed in an accident. The team struggled early, losing five of the first six games, and never recovered on the way to a 5-11 finish. There were some bright moments though. Barry Sanders rushed for 1,352 yards which vaulted him into first place on the Lions' all-time list with a career total of 5,674 yards. Sanders was elected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl. Also selected to the Pro Bowl were offensive tackle Lomas Brown and kick returner Mel Gray, both for the third consecutive year.

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football.

In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. Then, the Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925. They also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then 10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for less than $8,000 by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before average crowds of 16,000 people, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in their second year, 1935. Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era were Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964 when William Clay Ford became sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three League championships. Under Head Coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952 and 1953, defeating Cleveland in both title games. Stars of those glittering teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen and Doak Walker, and Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have been looking in vain for the top spot. Such recent performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players like Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the post-season playoffs, but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Just prior to the '75 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Michigan, a town of 85,000 people located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome is the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seats over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Under Monte Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in both 1980 and 1981, before finally qualifying in 1982 — the first time the Lions made the playoffs since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the playoffs with a 24-23 loss to San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over the Lions' command in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by Defensive Coordinator Wayne Fontes in November, 1988. Fontes officially was named the 17th head coach of the Detroit Lions on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise record 12 regular season games. Detroit hosted its first playoff game in the Silverdome and defeated Dallas 38-6, Detroit's first playoff victory since 1957. The win gave the Lions a berth in the NFC title game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

Thanksgiving Day Series

Dating to 1934, the Detroit Lions have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. In all, 52 Thanksgiving games have been played. The Lions have won three of their last four, defeating the Cleveland Browns 13-10 in the Golden Anniversary game in 1989, the Denver Broncos 40-27 in 1990 and the Chicago Bears 16-6 in 1991. The three-game winning streak was snapped last year when the Lions fell to the Houston Oilers 24-21. The game was the brainchild of G.A. Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the Lions from Portsmouth, Ohio to the Motor City. At that time, Thanksgiving Day football was a tradition in the Midwest on the high school and college levels, but unheard of on the professional level. In fact, professional football played on any day back then was a risky proposition. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact the Lions had lost just one game prior to the Thanksgiving Day in '34, the largest crowd that season had been just 15,000.

The opponent for the first Thanksgiving Day game - on Nov. 29, 1934 - was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears of George Halas and the reigning star of that era, fullback Bronco Nagurski. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations), and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into the University of Detroit Stadium while thousands of disappointed fans were turned away.

The Bears won the inaugural game, 19-16, but a classic was born. Since 1934, 51 Thanksgiving Day games have been played with Detroit leading the series at 26-24-2.

SCOREBOARD

The scoreboard is a Mitsubishi Diamond Vision Mark III High Brightness Video Display. It is the first installation and newest technology of its kind in the world.

The 24 ft. x 32 ft. full-color scoreboard, with a full production unit in the Silverdome, has the capabilities of providing graphics, replays, animated features and statistics.

For fans who can't see the Diamond Vision screen, there are 70 26" color TV monitors around the Silverdome for their viewing pleasure.

FIRST AID

It is located on the Lower Concourse at Section 109.

STADIUM SECURITY and LOST AND FOUND

They are located on the Lower Concourse at Section 130 (313-456-1650).

LIONS TICKET OFFICE

To better serve their fans, the Detroit Lions moved their ticket operations to the north end of the Pontiac Silverdome. The location provides greater access for fans with more parking closer to the building and a larger lobby area. This season, upper and lower deck tickets are $25 while bleacher seats (on sale two weeks before the game) are $10.00. Lions' tickets, including bleacher seats, are also available through Ticketmaster at (313) 645-6666. For more information, contact the Lions' ticket office at (313) 335-4151.

The Pontiac Silverdome

The Pontiac Silverdome has been "Home Sweet Home" for the Detroit Lions since the last brick was put in place in 1975. During the past 18 years, the building has earned a reputation as one of the finest sports facilities in the world. Not even a freak, late-winter snowstorm on March 4, 1985, which caused extensive structural damage to the roof, could keep the Silverdome from maintaining its enviable stature in the sports world. A new canvas and steel-girder reinforced roof was added between March and June of 1985.

The Silverdome has the second largest seating capacity (at 80,368) among NFL stadiums - second only to the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (92,488). The air-supported and cable-restrained facility is the largest of its kind in the world and is the first successful example of a fiberglass fabric roof system.

Since a 27-24 pre-season game victory over the Kansas City Chiefs on Aug. 23, 1975, the Lions have played 176 games in the Silverdome after moving from their former home at Tiger Stadium in downtown Detroit. The Dallas Cowboys defeated the Lions, 36-10, in the first regular-season game in the building, Oct. 6, 1975. The Lions have posted a 92-82-2 overall record in Pontiac, including a 72-64-1 mark in regular season games (a .529 winning percentage). On January 5, 1992, the Lions defeated the Dallas Cowboys 38-6 in the first playoff game held at the Silverdome. The victory also capped an undefeated home season for the Lions as they finished a perfect 9-0 in games played in the Silverdome.

Though the Silverdome is the Lions' home, the Cincinnati Bengals and the San Francisco 49ers made NFL history in the building. On Jan. 24, 1982, the 49ers defeated the Bengals, 26-21, before a crowd of 81,270 in Super Bowl XVI - the first Super Bowl ever played in a northern U.S. city. The Silverdome was built at a cost of $55.7 million. It was occupied in just 23 months, on time and within budget, from its ground breaking on Sept. 19, 1973. During the roof's reconstruction in 1985, the Teflon-coated fiberglass panels (100 in all) that span the roof were completely replaced, and several structural modifications and safety improvements also were accomplished. The roof was re-inflated by workmen on May 30, 1985.

Medical Terminology

(Taken from Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society Glossary of Medical Terms)

A-C Joint—Acromioclavicular joint (shoulder) where acromion process (of the scapula) and the clavicle meet and where most shoulder separations occur.

Anabolic Steroids—Testosterone that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.

Arthrogram—X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).

Arthroscope—An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy—Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of a surgical viewing apparatus inserted into the joint.

Bone Scan—"Radionuclide Imaging", the injection of radioactive fluid, to demonstrate stress fractures not evident on routine x-rays.

Burner—Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Cartilage—Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Charley Horse—A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding.

Clavicle—The collar bone.

Disc—A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Groin—Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring—Muscles running from the buttocks to behind the knee and the muscles responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Fibula—The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Fracture—Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

KNEE LIGAMENTS

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL)—Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL)—Ligament of the knee attaching lateral femoral condyle and to fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL)—Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the tibia. It provides stability to the medial aspect of the joint.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL)—Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of the femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Ligament—Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage, and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imagery (MRI)—Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Meniscus—Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.

Patella—The knee cap.

Rotator Cuff—Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area and often irritated by overuse.

Sciatic Nerve—Largest nerve in the body located in the back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sprain—A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Strain—A muscle injury. The pulling or twisting of a muscle or tendon.

Stress Fracture—A hairline type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Subluxation—Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that the joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Tendon—Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Triceps—Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.
