STEVE HERMANS
1950-2004

The 2004 Detroit Lions Media Guide is dedicated to Steve Hermans, who passed away June 19, 2004. Both a long-time colleague and friend, Hermans, 54, was the Lions "Eye in the Sky" for over 25 years as the team's video director.

Hermans completed his 26th season with the club in 2003. He was responsible for overseeing a wide ranging and ever-expanding list of video responsibilities for the coaching staff and player personnel department, as well as any other video needs the organization threw his way.

He supervised a major change during the 2000 season in the way the Lions processed, evaluated and distributed practice and game videotape. The process is now almost entirely digital (using the PINNACLE system) with compatible computers and monitors, enabling coaches, players and front office personnel the ability to splice, view and monitor the same footage using "v-mail" off each individual monitor. The new process paralleled Hermans' spearheading of the Lions' effort in 1986 when the NFL switched from an all-film operation to videotape.

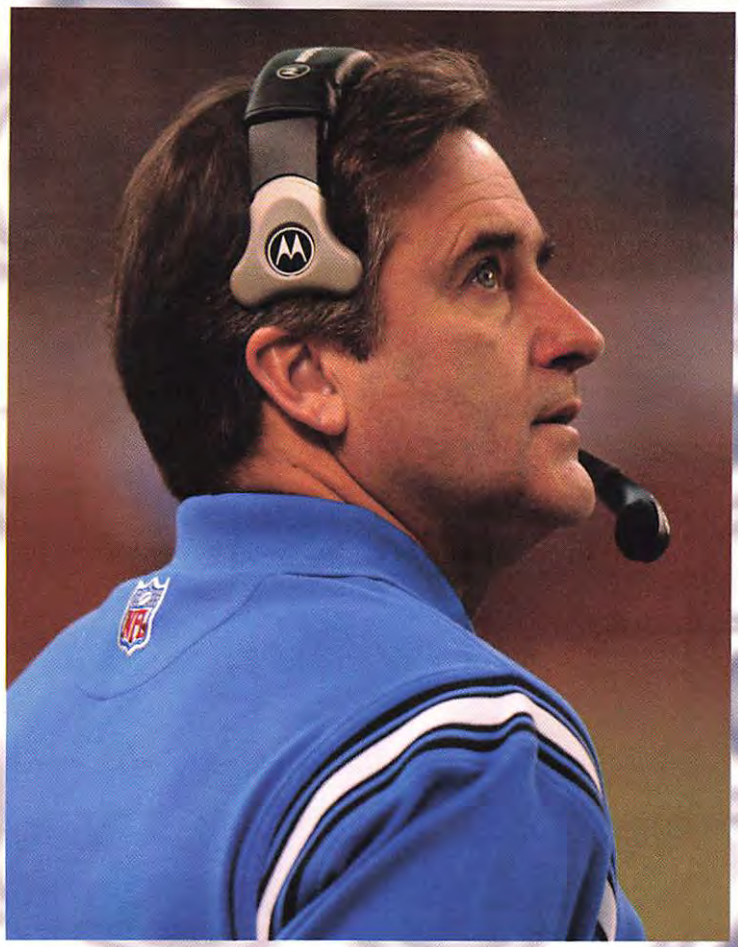

Prior to being hired by former Head Coach Monte Clark in 1978, Hermans was assistant photo director at WBAY-TV in his native Green Bay, Wisc., from 1968-77. His contact with football began at WBAY when he processed, edited and printed game films for the Packers.

Hermans is survived by his wife, Rosann, and three sons, Craig, Chad and Keith.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN

In an age where ownership changes and franchise moves in professional sports have become alarmingly commonplace, William Clay Ford continues to provide the Detroit Lions organization, its fans and the community with unwavering stability and sound leadership.

His commitment to the franchise is imprinted on virtually every aspect of the organization. By combining one of the finest sports and entertainment venues, Ford Field, and a world-class headquarters and training environment with a strong management team, Mr. Ford has instilled the organization with the right mix of fuel that will power the further development of the entire Lions organization.

"I believe we have the right people and resources in place to make the Lions one of the best teams on and off the field," Mr. Ford said.

"We have taken important steps in this process recently that points us in the right direction. Coach Mariucci has been a valuable addition to the team, and his leadership is felt from top to bottom. We have also made critical decisions in our player personnel and our business ventures that enhance our ability to compete successfully in the NFL."

One thing and one thing only remains the utmost goal to Mr. Ford, and that is for the Detroit Lions to win a Super Bowl. Mr. Ford understands that in the current competitive realities of the NFL, reaching the game's ultimate prize can be a quick climb. Not only is having the coaching staff and front office in place necessary for this ascension, but providing vital infrastructure, such as a new stadium and new practice facility, is also important in the rise to the top.

Further evidence of Mr. Ford's commitment can be found in the fact that the Lions returned "home" to a new downtown Detroit stadium, Ford Field, in 2002. The $500 million stadium impacts the Lions' ability to compete in several facets of the game. In this NFL age of salary cap and free agency, the revenues produced from Ford Field levels the economic playing field with the Lions' NFL counterparts. Ford Field has already influenced NFL leadership as it became the overwhelming factor in Detroit being awarded the right to host Super Bowl XL to be played February 5, 2006. That championship game will clearly add to the city's economic landscape in numerous ways.

Ford Field is serving as a springboard, shaping further revitalized growth in the city of Detroit. The stadium's effect on the city will continue to be comprehensive with its contributions to host several events besides Lions games.

In May 2003, the Detroit News honored Mr. Ford as a Michiganian of the Year for 2003, an annual tribute to select citizens who made significant contributions to the state or local community, as he brought the Lions "back home" and opened Ford Field's doors to reap benefits for Detroit.

Additional confirmation of his steadfast dedication to the team was the completion of the team's $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park, Mich., that opened in April 2002 as the NFL's premier training center. Thanks to Mr. Ford's addition of the Lions Headquarters and Training Facility, the entire organization is further developing year-round in a world-class environment. Both the short-term and long-term consequences on the players are significant as they train under conditions second to none. This joint venture between the Lions and Ford Land Development Corporation provides state-of-the-art facilities for players' off-season workouts, training camp, and in-season meetings and practices.

Throughout his tenure as owner, William Clay Ford has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of balance, integrity and honest leadership. Never one to seek the limelight, Mr. Ford has not sought public accolades for his many contributions to football, the automobile industry and his community.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964.

The 2003 season marked the 40th year of Mr. Ford's sole ownership of the club, and after making additional investments via free agency and shrewd development through the draft, he believes the team will become a title contender.

"Over the past four years, we have been able to compile excellent drafts to create a young and talented foundation for this team. You can see how this team is developing by looking at those drafts. We have been able to create a young core along both the offensive and defensive lines, and have selected strong additions to become playmakers at key positions, including quarterback, wide receiver and running back."

"As we continue to manage the cap efficiently, we will be able to make critical moves like we've been able to do the past few years. Last year we signed cornerback Dré Bly and defensive tackle Dan Wilkinson, and this year we added Pro Bowl guard Damien Woody, perhaps the best offensive linemen available in the free agent market, cornerback Fernando Bryant, safety Brock Marion and wide receiver Tai Streets.

"Surrounding our young quarterback with a solid offensive line and talent at receiver and running back is an important step in allowing him to thrive in this offense. It will be exciting to see this unit grow and succeed together.

"The team is also developing on the defensive side of the ball as well. After some key moves in free agency last season with the acquisitions of Bly and Wilkinson, we were able to add to the lineup two quality players in the secondary in Bryant and Marion. After drafting Boss Bailey and Terrance Holt last year, we added more speed at linebacker with Teddy Lehman."

"Overall, we have been able to re-shape and change the core make-up of the team that we believe will equal success on the field."

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automobile industry, he being a grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

"I believe we have the right people and resources in place to make the Lions one of the best teams on and off the field. We have taken important steps in this process recently that points us in the right direction. Coach Mariucci has been a valuable addition to the team, and his leadership is felt from top to bottom. We have also made critical decisions in our player personnel and our business ventures that enhance our ability to compete successfully in the NFL," Mr. Ford said.

For the entire Ford family, 2003 marked a year of great pride and celebration as Ford Motor Company commemorated its historic 100 years as an icon in American industry.

Although he retired from his post as Ford Motor Company Vice-Chairman in March 1989, Mr. Ford remains a member of the Board of Directors and serves on its Finance Committee. He has been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee from its inception in 1957 until his retirement in 1989.

Utilizing his expertise in design, Mr. Ford is on special assignment as a design consultant focusing his efforts on the Jaguar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the Naval Air Corp in World War II, he enrolled at Yale, where he captained the tennis and soccer teams at the Ivy League school. In fact, he was a nationally-ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer, while registering a remarkable seven (7) hole-in-ones over the years.

He graduated from Yale with a bachelor's of science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Ford is Chairman Emeritus of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford in Dearborn, Michigan. He is an Honorary Life Trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, and serves as a National Trustee of Boys' and Girls' Clubs of America and Honorary Chair of the United Way Community Services. He is also a trustee for the Michigan Heart Association and is on the Texas Heart Institute National Advisory Council. He received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, Calif., in 1981.

Mr. Ford's generosity as a benefactor was again recognized in 1997, as the outdoor courts of the University of Michigan's new tennis center were named in his honor. Also, a new addition to Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital (which bears the name of Mr. Ford's grandfather) opened in 1996 - The William Clay Ford Center for Athletic Medicine - which is one of the leading sports medicine treatment and research institutions in the country.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They are the parents of three daughters—Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth—and a son, William Clay Ford, Jr., who serves as the Lions' Vice Chairman, in addition to his role as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Ford Motor Company.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has left an ineradicable stamp on the organization since ascending to his current post of Vice Chairman in February 1995. His goals remain focused not only on outfitting a winner in the present, but shaping the franchise to ensure prosperity well into the 21st century both on and off the field. Ford continues to influence the direction of the franchise in order to position it among the elite professional sports organizations.

On the field, Ford shares his father's commitment and devotion to the Lions and sustains a burning passion to win. Like his father, he wants nothing more than to see the Lions regarded as one of the premier franchises in the National Football League and to produce a championship for the city of Detroit.

"I strongly believe that we have laid the groundwork for prosperous growth both on and off the field," William Clay Ford, Jr. said. "Many facets within the organization have been stronger over the past few years which will help us reach our ultimate goal—a Super Bowl title."

"On the football side, we have rejuvenated the talent on our team through the draft and have modified the core of this team through free agency. Efficient management of the salary cap has allowed us to bring in marquee free agents like Dré Bly and Damien Woody and will make it possible to keep many of our young players here as they enter into the prime of their careers.

"We cannot emphasize enough how much leadership Steve Mariucci injects into this organization. He's a proven winner and he generates a winning attitude in every aspect of this team, and not just with the players but the front office as well.

"As a business entity, many recent accomplishments, like the opening of Ford Field, are positively affecting the direction of the Lions. Ultimately, each business decision we make is based on the vision of how it will contribute to winning a championship."

Off the field, two momentous milestones were reached in 2002, the opening of Ford Field and the completion of the team's Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park, Mich. Both were shaped by Ford's resolve for the Lions to be a leader in the NFL, and these projects critically factor in the team's success.

Ford's role was instrumental as the Lions announced plans in August 1996 to build a new domed stadium in downtown Detroit (named Ford Field November 19, 1999). His dedication to the Lions was never more evident than when he spearheaded the team's stadium negotiations. Due largely to his determination and perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the city of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation for the Lions to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

"Ford Field is an elite facility second to none. It has a multi-faceted impact on our team, our business and our city," Ford said.

"The most important feature of Ford Field is the fact that it provides an environment that fans can embrace, which impacts the team by creating a homefield advantage. Last year was evidence of this as we compiled our best home record in five years and we expect this to continue progressing."

Ford also continues to be on the forefront of influential and wide-ranging issues league-wide, as evidenced by his inclusion on the NFL International Committee, which oversees the continued development of the NFL Europe League.

Additionally, Ford balances his duties as Lions Vice Chairman with his responsibilities as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Ford Motor Company. He assumed the role of Chairman of the Board January 1, 1999, and was named Chief Executive Officer October 30, 2001. His current role at Ford Motor Company not only entails a tremendous professional commitment, but also constitutes immense personal pride, as he was elected to the position once held by his great-grandfather and American automotive pioneer,

William Clay Ford, Jr. shares his father's commitment and devotion to the Lions and sustains a burning passion to win. Like his father, he wants nothing more than to see the Lions regarded as one of the premier franchises in the National Football League and to produce a championship for the city of Detroit.

Henry Ford.

Ford's personal pride in Ford Motor Company was especially evident in 2003 as the automaker celebrated the company's first 100 years.

Since the decision was made to move to downtown Detroit, Ford also wanted to provide a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium project. The $36 million Allen Park facility, which opened April 2002, has been identified as the best facility in the NFL. Its expansive football facilities, including an indoor practice facility with a regulation-size field, provide the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches. With added features, such as its own broadcast studio, the new headquarters will maintain auxiliary business growth.

Besides developing new homes for the team to practice and play, Ford also played a vital role in Detroit's bid for its second Super Bowl as the league officially announced, November 1, 2000, Ford Field the site of Super Bowl XL, to be played February 5, 2006.

Ford Field will also play host to the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four in 2009, along with first and second round action in 2008.

In Ford's nine years in his current role, he has made a remarkable and far-reaching impact, as the organization has taken major steps forward on several fronts. In addition to the new stadium and practice facility, under Ford's guidance the Lions have launched one of the industry's most aggressive marketing campaigns, which currently centers on enhanced revenue streams derived primarily from Ford Field.

Over the past five years, the Lions have reached major achievements in ticket sales. In 1999, the team instituted a new ticket sales policy, including the introduction of the largest "Family Section" in the NFL that is now a part of the Ford Field experience. In 2001, Detroit established a new record for season tickets sales. And for the first time in team history, the Lions initiated a waiting list for season tickets after they sold out in February 2002. In the both years at Ford Field, every Lions' home game, including both preseason contests, were sold out and televised locally in the Detroit Metro broadcast area.

Through Ford's support, the Detroit Lions began a collaborative effort with Detroit Public Schools and Communities in Schools of Detroit to open the Detroit Lions Academy. The new school offers an alternative school environment for approximately 130 sixth, seventh and eighth grade students. He has been a significant supporter of the team's involvement in a wide array of community programs, such as sponsoring Detroit PAL youth football program, and the continued development of Detroit Lions Charities, which has awarded more than $2.75 million in total donations in its 14-year history.

Under Ford's direction, the Lions began publishing a team magazine and Internet site, which was one of the first official team sites launched in pro sports.

The club also entered into a lucrative partnership with Infinity Broadcasting (now CBS Radio) for the Lions' radio broadcast rights and started production on weekly radio and television shows that air throughout the season.

William Clay Ford, Jr., 47, had previously been Treasurer of the Lions since 1980. Among his other roles within the NFL structure in the past has been his inclusion on the NFL's Finance Committee, Broadcasting Committee and NFL Properties' Committee.

In 1996, he was named to Newsweek Magazine's "The Century Club", a list of 100 people to watch as America headed into the next millennium. Ford was one of only two people from the state of Michigan named to that list. And in June 2004, Ford graced the cover of Fortune Magazine (also on cover in March 2000), which featured his "coming of age as a CEO" and applauded his efforts for refocusing and reshaping the vision and strategy of Ford Motor Company.

Prior to his current appointment at Ford Motor Company, Ford had served on the company's Board of Directors (elected on January 14, 1988) for 11 years. He assumed the position of Chairman of the Finance Committee for Ford Motor on January 1, 1995. He also is Chairman of the Environmental and Public Policy Committee.

The Princeton University graduate earned a master's degree in management as an Alfred P. Sloan Fellow at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. Ford is Chairman of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford, and a trustee of Detroit Renaissance and Princeton University. He is also a member of the board of the Greater Downtown Partnership Board of Directors (Detroit).

"I strongly believe that we have laid the groundwork for prosperous growth both on and off the field. Many facets within the organization have been stronger over the past few years which will help us reach our ultimate goal—a Super Bowl title. On the football side, we have rejuvenated the talent on our team through the draft and have modified the core of this team through free agency. Efficient management of the salary cap has allowed us to bring in marquee free agents like Dré Bly and Damien Woody and will make it possible to keep many of our young players here as they enter into the prime of their careers," Mr. William Clay Ford, Jr. said.

MATT MILLEN

PRESIDENT AND CEO

With a paramount desire to steer the Lions' franchise in a new direction and rise among the NFL's top-tiered teams, Lions Chairman and Owner William Clay Ford appointed Matt Millen to the position of president and CEO January 9, 2001. Millen, who begins his fourth year, assumed full control over the team's football operations and has been forging his knowledge and attitude about the game into the team's development since he began directing day-to-day operations of the organization.

Since Millen's arrival, he has re-structured the organization to have a positive impact on the team's strive to claim a Super Bowl crown. In 2003, he continued to improve the direction of the organization when he landed Steve Mariucci, who guided the San Francisco 49ers to four 10-win seasons in six years at the helm, as the Lions' new head coach.

During his tenure, Millen has directed four successful drafts that are developing into pillars of strength for future success. In his first year, the Lions selected tackle Jeff Backus, center Dominic Raiola and defensive tackle Shaun Rogers. The following year, the Lions looked to solidify the quarterback position as they drafted Joey Harrington with the third overall pick. The team also picked defensive end Kalimba Edwards, cornerback André Goodman, and cornerback Chris Cash in 2002. Millen then chose wide receiver Charles Rogers in 2003 to immediately impact the offense. He also increased team speed on defense by taking linebacker Boss Bailey in the second round, and followed that pick by adding depth to the defense by adding defensive end Cory Redding and safety Terrence Holt. This past April, the Lions were at the head of the draft class when they selected wide receiver Roy Williams and running back Kevin Jones in the first round and followed that by drafting linebacker Teddy Lehman with their second round pick.

In fact, both the 2003 and 2004 draft classes have been universally acclaimed by several national media outlets as tops in the NFL. Sporting News has rated both the 2003 and 2004 classes first in the league.

Millen has made considerable progress in free agency. The Lions' defense was boosted in 2003 when the team landed unrestricted free agent cornerback Dré Bly, who played in two Super Bowls with the St. Louis Rams, within the first 36 hours of free agency. Bly paid immediate dividends by earning a starting nod in the Pro Bowl.

The early days of free agency that year did not turn out to be the only successful period for the Lions. In August, the Lions acquired free agent defensive tackle Dan Wilkinson, who immediately combined with Shaun Rogers to be one of the most formidable tandems in the NFL.

This past off-season also proved to be fruitful as the team signed unrestricted free agent guard Damien Woody, who earned two Pro Bowl selections while with New England, as well as cornerback Fernando Bryant, safety Brock Marion and wide receiver Tai Streets.

Millen made his mark in the National Football League as he enjoyed a distinguished 12-year playing career at linebacker playing for three franchises - Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders (1980-88), San Francisco 49ers (1989-90) and Washington Redskins (1991). He retired following the '91 season as the only player in NFL history to earn four Super Bowl rings with three different teams (Super Bowls XV and XVIII while with the Raiders, Super Bowl XXIV with San Francisco and Super Bowl XXVI with Washington), and he helped bring championships to four different cities.

He originally was a second-round selection of the Raiders from Penn State in the 1980 NFL Draft and made his lone trip to the Pro Bowl following the 1988 season. While at Penn State, the Hokendauqua, Pa., native was a three-year starter and earned first-team All-America honors as a junior in 1979.

Upon retirement from the NFL, Millen made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth as a game analyst for CBS and FOX television. The last six years of that span were spent with veteran play-by-play man Dick Stockton. His work with the NFL television networks was highly regarded among his broadcast peers, as well as, personnel around the league. Millen also was a member of the CBS Radio Monday Night crew from 1997-00 that served as the national voice for the NFC Championship game and the Super Bowl. Along with his television and radio responsibilities, Millen co-hosted a weekly radio show syndicated nationally for the NFL Players Association.

Born March 12, 1958 in Hokendauqua, Pa., Millen and his wife, Patricia, have four children - Matthew, Jr., 21, Marcus, 18, Michalyn, 15 and Marianne, 13.

During his tenure, Matt Millen has directed four successful drafts that are developing into pillars of strength for future success. In fact, both the 2003 and 2004 draft classes have been universally acclaimed by several national media outlets as tops in the NFL. Sporting News has rated both the '03 and '04 classes first in the league both years.

TOM LEWAND

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Tom Lewand, in his ninth year with the Detroit Lions organization, was promoted to executive vice president and chief operating officer February 1, 2003. In his position, Lewand operates as the team's chief contract negotiator and architect of the salary cap, and oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sales and marketing, public/media relations, broadcasting, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

An extremely talented, creative and aggressive businessman, Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities within the front office during his tenure with the Lions organization, most recently as executive vice president and chief operating officer of Detroit Lions Properties, LLC and vice president of salary cap. Over the past several years, Lewand's efforts were split between the team's salary cap and the construction of the Lions' new home, Ford Field.

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit, and has become a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Lewand's commitment to the city of Detroit and the Lions were evident immediately after his new appointment. Spearheading the effort alongside President and CEO Matt Millen, the organization hired one of the most highly regarded head coaches in the NFL, Steve Mariucci.

Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling over $500 million since 1996. His contract highlights include: the Lions' last 12 first-round draft choices, RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of recent Pro Bowl players (CB Dre' Bly, DE Robert Porcher, DT Luther Elliss, LB Stephen Boyd, WR/KR Desmond Howard, K Jason Hanson and TE David Sloan) and recent free agent acquisitions G Damien Woody and CB Fernando Bryant.

With an eye on the future, Lewand also serves as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL in Detroit in 2006. He played an instrumental role in developing the strategic bid plan in pursuit of the game. He also represented the organization in winning the bid to host the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four.

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both a law degree at the University of Michigan Law School and his master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the University of Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a part-time basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh. Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson, Wright, Moon, Van Dusen and Freeman in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is also entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, works as an attorney and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

Lewand is active in the community, serving on the Boards of Directors of the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation, the Detroit Urban League, the Metropolitan Detroit Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the Parade Company. He was also named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. In 2003, Lewand was recognized nationally by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, reside in Royal Oak with their three daughters, Cayleigh, 6, Paige, 4 and Shannon, 2.

As Executive Vice President and COO, Tom Lewand is the team's chief contract negotiator and architect of the salary cap, and he manages the day-to-day business operations of the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling over $500 million while spearheading Ford Field's landing of Super Bowl XL and the NCAA 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four.

STEVE MARIUCCI

HEAD COACH

2nd Year with Lions
8th Year as NFL Head Coach
13th Year in NFL

The ability to generate an about-face turnaround is essential while building a successful organization and is a commodity of Steve Mariucci's that has prevailed throughout his career as a football coach and college football player.

Mariucci's penchant for transforming struggling situations into programs of success has been evident thus far in his coaching tenure with the Lions, as he continues to pour the foundation to accomplish the same in Detroit that he did in his previous stops.

One of the first steps to building a winner in the NFL involves establishing home field advantage, and Mariucci did just that last year as the Lions compiled a 5-3 record at Ford Field during his first season as head coach in Detroit. The 5-3 mark was the best home field record by the Lions since 1999.

His first season in Detroit was highlighted by the additions and improvements of several key players. On defense, cornerback Dré Bly was the only player in the league to be selected to the Pro Bowl who was signed as an unrestricted free agent last year. Along with Bly on defense, the Lions added young players with bright futures, including outside linebacker Boss Bailey, defensive linemen Cory Redding and safety Terrence Holt. Up front, Shaun Rogers continued to develop into a force at defensive tackle, earning an alternate Pro Bowl nod, and he was joined in the middle with free agent acquisition Dan Wilkinson.

On offense, second-year quarterback Joey Harrington continued to improve as the Lions' signal caller. Among first or second-year quarterbacks, Harrington was the leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, completions and attempts. Of those quarterbacks, he was the only player to start and play in every game. Harrington's 17 touchdown tosses were the most by a Lions' quarterback since 1997.

Fullback Cory Schlesinger earned an alternate Pro Bowl nod for the second straight year, and the offensive line began to solidify with the strong play of three young players: left tackle Jeff Backus, right tackle Stockar McDougle and center Dominic Raiola. The team also added wide receiver Charles Rogers, the second overall pick in the 2003 NFL draft, who played well in the first five games of the season before being sidelined with a collarbone injury.

This past off-season also proved to be quite productive for Mariucci and the Lions, as they continued building the team's core around players in the primes of their careers and young talent with speed and playmaking abilities. In free agency, Pro Bowl guard Damien Woody was signed to progress the improvement of the offensive line unit. The defensive backfield was strengthened with additions of two starters, cornerback Fernando Bryant and safety Brock Marion. And Tai Streets was acquired to upgrade the team's corps of wide receivers.

In April, the Lions amassed a draft class that was considered one of the best in the entire NFL by several national media outlets. In the first round, the team traded down one position and picked wide receiver Roy Williams with the seventh overall pick. By trading down and capturing an additional second round pick, the Lions then traded back into the first round to take running back Kevin Jones. Williams and Jones, who many considered to be the top prospect at each of their positions, will add speed and playmaking ability to the offense. The Lions then selected one of the best linebackers in the draft in Teddy Lehman, who will also add speed to the team's defense.

The development of current players, valuable additions in free agency, and key selections in the past two drafts are combining with Mariucci's guidance to assemble a winner in Detroit.

In previous roles, Mariucci proved his leadership as a coach by navigating the 49ers' organization through salary-cap related struggles and returning it to a winner, by taking the University of California to a bowl game, and, as a player, by commanding Northern Michigan University from a winless college football program to a national championship as a standout quarterback.

Following seven seasons as a head coach in the NFL, Mariucci's overall record stands at 65-54 (.546), with a 62-50 (.555) regular season mark. Four times during a six-year span in San Francisco his teams clinched playoff berths (1997, 1998, 2001 and 2002), twice claimed division titles (1998 and 2002) and once reached the NFC Championship game (1997). During his coaching career, Mariucci's teams have compiled an overall home record of 43-17 (.717).

Signs of achievement also appear in the form of Pro Bowl selections by players under Mariucci. During his head coaching career, 28 players have been selected to play in the NFL's annual all-star game, including Bly last year.

A remarkable result derived from his coaching and leadership traits occurred in San Francisco when the team struggled through a harsh salary cap environment and re-joined the platform that staged the NFC elite teams. Simply stated, the 49ers went from the top to near the bottom and to the top again between 1997-02. Mariucci took over in San Francisco with a veteran-laden squad that included future hall-of-famers such as wide receiver Jerry Rice and quarterback Steve Young. He maintained their success by winning 25 out of 32 games (13-3 in 1997 and 12-4 in 1998) in his first two seasons. The organization then faced serious salary cap issues and was forced to turn over the roster at an unprecedented level for a period of time. After forging through two atypical but foreseen down seasons (four wins in 1999 and six wins in 2000), he put the 49ers back into contention with two straight playoff appearances with a 12-4 record in 2001 and an NFC West title with a 10-6 record in 2002.

San Francisco was one of five teams to put together back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2001 and 2002, and the 49ers were one of four teams to win 22-or-more games in those two seasons. Mariucci's positive guidance directed this unusual up-down-then back up again ride by the 49ers.

The year that perhaps best exemplifies Mariucci's ability to rise to the top was 2001. That season his club went from salary cap sufferers to NFC contenders. The transition years of 1999 and 2000 changed the face of the team to younger talent at quarterback, wide receiver and on defense. For example, Mariucci was forced to start as many as seven defensive rookies, including five at one time, in 2000. The 49ers went from 6-10 in 2000 and jumped to 12-4 the next season. The rather young 2001 squad was Mariucci's third 12-win team in five years and were led by six Pro Bowl selections, including quarterback Jeff Garcia, defensive tackle Bryant Young, guard Ray Brown (started for Detroit in 2002-03), center Jeremy Newberry, wide receiver Terrell Owens and running back Garrison Hearst. Hearst earned Comeback-Player-of-the-Year honors by gaining 1,206 rushing yards and four touchdowns after recovering from a career-threatening two-year ankle injury.

Mariucci's West Coast offenses engineered high-powered production during his stint in the Bay Area. From 1997-02, San Francisco ranked third in the NFL in total offense with a combined clip of 361.7 yards per game, behind only St. Louis (364.2) and Minnesota (362.0). In those six seasons, Mariucci's squads averaged 24.1 points per game and ranked in the top 10 five times (1998-02) in total offense. The 49ers' rushing attack gained the third-most yards (134.3 yards per game) of all NFL teams behind only Pittsburgh (142.1) and Denver (137.1). From 1998-02, San Francisco (370.1 yards per game) ranked second to St. Louis (377.6) in total offense, second in rushing (136.6) behind Pittsburgh and fifth overall in passing (233.5).

The 49ers ranked first in total offense during the 1998 season, and San Francisco became the first team since the 1941 Chicago Bears to lead the league in gross passing and rushing yards in the same season. They averaged a franchise record 425.1 yards per game, which was second-best in league history. For two straight seasons (1998-99), the 49ers ground out rushing totals that led the NFL.

Defensively, Mariucci's teams also had success, especially against the run. Along with the top overall ranking in 1997, the 49ers finished in the top 10 in rushing defense four times (1997-98, 2001-02). After playing numerous rookies in 2000, the team jumped from 29th to 13th in the league the next season in total defense.

The Pro Bowl has been well-represented by several players during Mariucci's time in San Francisco. Through 2002, 27 players were selected for trips to Hawaii as representatives from Mariucci's teams. From 1997-02, the 49ers averaged between four and five players (4.5) a year in the NFL's annual all-star classic. Notable in Mariucci's San Francisco stint was that two different players made the Pro Bowl at three key offensive positions. This includes Garcia and Young at quarterback, Hearst and Charlie Garner at running back and Owens and Rice at wide receiver.

Both quarterbacks (Young and Garcia) earned multiple trips to the Pro Bowl. Young's career-high 4,170 passing yards and franchise record 36 touchdown passes in 1998 occurred in Mariucci's second season. After Young's retirement, Mariucci developed Garcia, a free agent and Canadian Football League (CFL) project, into a three-time Pro Bowler. Garcia was the starter in the 2003 Pro Bowl. Garcia set a franchise record 4,278 passing yards in 2000 and became the first passer in 49ers' history with 30-plus touchdown tosses in consecutive seasons (32 in '00 and 31 in '01).

Mariucci's NFL head coaching career was launched in 1997 when he took over the San Francisco 49ers. His rookie season was among the best all-time. His squad finished with a 13-3 record that included an 11-game win streak while being without Jerry Rice, the NFL's greatest wide receiver, for almost all of the year after tearing his ACL in Mariucci's pro head coaching debut. The 11 consecutive wins set an NFL record for longest win streak by a rookie head coach. That season, the 49ers claimed the NFC West division title and advanced to the NFC Championship game. The 49ers' attack was well balanced with the league's top ranked defense and second-ranked offense.

Mariucci delved into the head coaching ranks at the Division I college level by leading the Bears football program at the University of California in 1996. His rather young program battled to a 6-5 record and earned a spot in the Aloha Bowl. As he implemented the West Coast system, the Bears offense averaged 457.6 yards per game, including a school record for passing yards (321.5 per game).

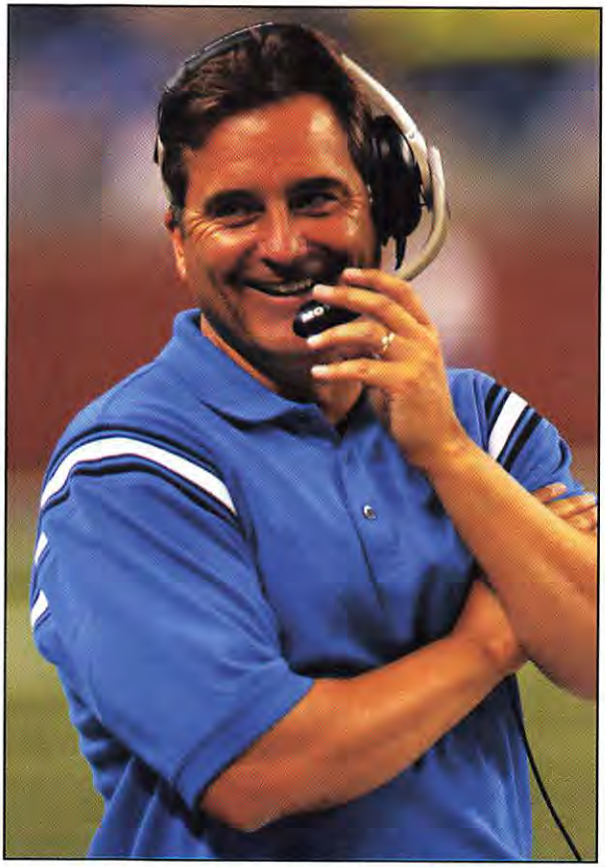

While serving as quarterbacks coach in Green Bay from 1992-95, Mariucci supervised the evolution of Brett Favre from traded back-up quarterback to an NFL superstar of success, durability and longevity. Favre started his amazing run of 189 consecutive starts at quarterback in 1992, which was Mariucci's first year in Green Bay. He coached Favre to three Pro Bowl nods (1992-93, '95 seasons) and to NFL MVP in 1995. Other quarterbacks Mariucci developed during that time included Mark Brunell and Ty Detmer.

Except for a one-year pro coaching shift, Mariucci developed as a coach on the college level in the 1980s and early 1990s. From 1987-91, Mariucci was the offensive coordinator (1990-91) and special teams coach (1987-89) for the University of California. The season prior to his stay in Berkeley, Mariucci was at Southern California as the wide receivers and special teams coach in 1986. The only year during the decade of the '80s he spent on the pro level was 1985 when he worked as wide receivers/tight ends coach for the Orlando Renegades (USFL) and quality control coach for the Los Angeles Rams in the same calendar year. Mariucci was assistant head coach (1984) and offensive coordinator (1983) at Louisville from 1983-84, and he was the quarterbacks coach and special teams coordinator at Cal State-Fullerton from 1980-82.

The road to becoming an NFL head coach for Mariucci originated at his alma mater, Northern Michigan University (located in Marquette, Mich.), where he coached quarterbacks and running backs for two seasons from 1978-79.

As a Division II star at Northern Michigan, he quarterbacked a program to one of the most remarkable improvements in the entire history of college football. In 1974, Mariucci saw limited time as a freshman as the team struggled to a 0-10 record. The following season, Mariucci was inserted as the starter at the beginning of the year after injuries to four quarterbacks ahead of him. As a first-year starter during his sophomore campaign he led an explosive turnaround by leading the team to a 13-1 record and claiming a Division II National Championship. Mariucci claimed All-America honors twice (1976-77), was voted team MVP three straight times (1975-77) and established 14 school passing records.

In 1988, Mariucci was honored by the university that he led to greatness in the mid-1970s when he was inducted into the Northern Michigan University Hall of Fame. Seven years later, he was a 1995 inductee into the Upper Peninsula of Michigan Hall of Fame.

Steve Mariucci, hired as Lions head coach in February 2003, has a penchant for transforming struggling situations into programs of success, which has been evident thus far in his coaching tenure with the Lions.

Mariucci was well known in Michigan circles prior to his return because of his long-time friendship with Tom Izzo, Michigan State's head basketball coach. Mariucci and Izzo were teammates and co-captains in football, basketball and track at Iron Mountain High School. They were roommates at Northern Michigan and were members and captains of the football (Mariucci) and basketball (Izzo) teams. Each accrued Division II All-America honors in their sports during their college careers.

In fact, Mariucci and Izzo are co-hosts for the IM Classic, a charity golf tournament in Iron Mountain, each summer to raise funds for Iron Mountain H.S. and I.M. (Iron Mountain) Charities.

Other charity events and organizations have benefited from Mariucci's involvement. This past June, Mariucci revived his annual Bocce Ball charity, as he hosted the tournament for the first time in Michigan. The event, which was held at the newly-opened Palazzo de Bocce in Lake Orion, included such celebrities as Larry Brown, Barry Sanders, Dave Lewis, Bo Schembechler, George Perles, Leann Tweeden, Tom Izzo and other former Lions. While in the Bay Area, he hosted the annual charity tournament that included John Madden, Danny Glover, Willie Mays, Brandi Chastain, Johnny Moseley, George Seifert, Peggy Fleming and 49ers' greats.

Mariucci is also a supporter of Boys and Girls Club, March of Dimes and Catholic Youth Organization (CYO).

Born November 4, 1955, the Iron Mountain native and his wife, Gayle, have four children: sons, Tyler, Adam and Stephen, and daughter, Brielle.

MARIUCCI'S COACHING PROFILE

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE...

- The Lions compiled a 5-3 home record in 2003, their best home record since 1999, which was the last time the team earned a playoff spot.
- His overall record at home is 43-17 (40-16 regular season; 3-1 playoffs), for a .717 winning percentage.
- During his tenure in San Francisco, Mariucci quickly set the tone for establishing home field advantage. He guided the 49ers to 18-straight home victories to start his coaching tenure with San Francisco.
- His 18-0 mark broke the previous record of 13-0 set by John Madden with the Oakland Raiders in 1969-70.

SAN FRANCISCO REVIEW...

In Steve Mariucci's six seasons at the helm of the San Francisco 49ers, he led that organization to the following:

- Four playoff berths in six seasons (1997, 1998, 2001, 2002).
- Two NFC West titles (1997, 2002).
- Four 10-win seasons (13, 1997; 12, 1998; 12, 2001; 10, 2002).
- Three 12-win seasons (13, 1997; 12, 1998; 12, 2001).
- One NFC Championship Game (1997).
- Three playoff wins (once each in 1997, 1998 and 2002).
- Mariucci's six seasons were among the best in the NFL in terms of wins and playoff berths.
- The 49ers were one of five teams (Miami, 5; Tampa Bay, 5; Green Bay, 4; Minnesota, 4) to earn playoff appearances at least four times from 1997-02.
- He is one of three head coaches to lead their teams to four playoff appearances from 1997-02. Tony Dungy (Tampa Bay and Indianapolis) accomplished this feat five times, and Dennis Green (Minnesota) did this four times.
- San Francisco had the sixth-best regular season record in the NFL with 57 wins from 1997-02 (Green Bay, 65; Denver, 60; Tennessee, 60; Tampa Bay, 60; Miami, 59). Mariucci accomplished this in his first six seasons as an NFL head coach. As a comparison, Bill Walsh won the same amount of games (57) in his first six full seasons (1979-85, excluding the 1982 strike-shortened year).

WINNING 12 GAMES...

With a 12-win season in 2001, Mariucci became just the second coach in NFL history to win at least 12 games in three of his first five seasons as head coach.

- He won 13 games in 1997, 12 games in 1998 and 12 games in 2001.
- The only other coach to do so was George Seifert with the San Francisco 49ers when he won at least 12 games in 1989, 1990 and 1992.

MARIUCCI'S TURNAROUND...

Mariucci became the 24th head coach to improve his team from six-or-fewer wins to 10-or-more wins in back-to-back season since the merger in 1970.

- He is one of only 30 coaches in NFL history, including the AFL, to accomplish that turnaround feat.

TWO-YEAR ACCOMPLISHMENTS...

After two seasons as head coach (1997-98), Mariucci garnered the second most wins by a head coach in his first two NFL regular seasons.

- His tally of 25 wins in two seasons was second to only George Seifert's 28 wins in 1989-90.
- The 49ers' 25 wins in Mariucci's first two seasons were the most of any NFL team from 1997-98.
- His record in his first two years was 25-7 (.781).
- Mariucci is one of only three coaches in NFL history to win at least 12 games in each of his first two seasons.

WINNING AS A ROOKIE...

Mariucci's 49ers team clinched the NFC West title after 11 games in 1997.

- By claiming the division title after Game 11, the 49ers tied an NFL record first established by the Chicago Bears in 1986 for the fastest to clinch a divisional crown during a season.
- He became the 12th coach since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to win a division title in his rookie season as head coach.
- Other coaches to win division title as a rookie head coach includes: Jim Fassel (NYG, 1997), Barry Switzer (Dal, 1994), Bill Cowher (Pit, 1992), Dennis Green (Min, 1992); Bobby Ross (SD, 1992); George Seifert (SF, 1989); Bud Carson (Cle, 1989); Red Miller (Den, 1977); Ted Marchibroda (Bal, 1975), Chuck Knox (LARm, 1973) and Don McCafferty (Bal, 1970).
- Mariucci established an NFL record when he won 11-straight games in '97, the longest streak for a coach in his first year in the NFL.
- After losing the season opener on the road in 1997, Mariucci led the 49ers to 11-straight wins, and finished the season with a 13-3 record.
- Mariucci's 11-game win streak established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach.

MAKING THE JUMP...

In 1997, Mariucci became the fourth coach to win a division title in his first year after directly serving a previous stint on the college level.

- Mariucci was the head coach at California in 1996 before taking over the 49ers' coaching job in 1997.
- Other coaches to accomplish this feat were: Barry Switzer (1994); Dennis Green (1992) and Bobby Ross (1992).
- He is the only head coach in NFL history to lead his team to a conference championship game in his first year directly out of college.

FOUR POINTS OF PRESSURE...

Mariucci preaches ball security and focuses on that consistently with his "four points of pressure" drills and speeches. He is second all-time in fewest turnovers as a head coach. Those coaching techniques were proven in the team's performance (following statistical information provided by Elias Sports Bureau).

- In 112 regular season games, Mariucci's teams accumulated the second-best turnover rate since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger with 1.47 giveaways (interceptions and fumbles) per game.
- The Lions completed the 2003 season with only four fumbles lost, tied for the fourth fewest in NFL history with San Francisco (1960), Kansas City (1982) and Minnesota (1998). No Lions running backs lost a fumble during the season. The four fumbles lost was the lowest tally in the league in 2003.
- In 2003, the Lions did not turn the ball over in their regular season opening game vs. Arizona, at Denver, vs. Chicago or vs. San Diego.

DICK JAURON

Defensive Coordinator

1st Year with Lions
20th Year in NFL

Dick Jauron brings 19 years of NFL coaching experience to Detroit, including 14 in the NFC North (formerly Central) Division. He joins the Lions to coordinate the team's defense after spending the last five seasons as the head coach for the Chicago Bears, where he was the 2001 Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year. That season, he led the Bears to a 13-3 record and the first NFC Central division championship since 1990. Jauron joined George Halas and Mike Ditka as the only coaches in franchise history to reach 13 wins in a single season, and the sixth Bears coach to string a six-game winning streak together during a season.

The 2001 Bears were clutch as they accumulated five second-half, come-from-behind victories and an 8-0 record in games decided by seven points or less. The Bears defense ranked first in the NFL in points allowed and second in rushing yards allowed.

The Bears' run in 2001 was established by a strong finish to end the 2000 season. Playing the leagues' strongest schedule, Jauron's team finished 5-11; however, Chicago capped off the 2000 campaign with a 4-4 record in the final eight games. Of those four victories down the stretch were wins against playoff-bound or playoff-contending teams (Indianapolis, Tampa Bay and Detroit). Jauron also guided the Bears to a road victory at Green Bay for the second consecutive year, becoming the first coach in Bears history to record consecutive wins in his first two games at Green Bay (1999 and 2000).

During Jauron's five seasons in the Windy City, the Bears were represented in the Pro Bowl each year by a combination of eight different players, which included KR Jerry Azumah, WR Marty Booker, KR Glyn Milburn, C Olin Kreutz (three times), LB Brian Urlacher (four times), DT Ted Washington, S Larry Whigham and T James Williams.

As head coach, Jauron compiled a career coaching record of 35-46 (.432).

Prior to being the head coach in Chicago, Jauron served as the defensive coordinator for the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars from 1995-98, helping lead the team to three playoff appearances in four years, including the AFC Championship game in 1996 and the AFC Central division title in 1998.

From 1986-94, Jauron coached the defensive backs for the Green Bay Packers under three different head coaches (Forrest Gregg, Lindy Infante and Mike Holmgren). While in Green Bay, he worked on a coaching staff with current Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci and Offensive Coordinator Sherman Lewis. Jauron was instrumental in the development of Packers All-Pro safety LeRoy Butler, who went to four Pro Bowls in his career. Jauron's coaching career started in 1985 with the Buffalo Bills, also as a defensive backs coach.

Jauron played the first five seasons of his NFL career with the Lions after being drafted in the fourth round of the 1973 NFL Draft by Detroit. He started at free safety as a rookie and was a Pro Bowl selection in 1974 after leading the NFC in punt return average (16.8). Jauron has the fifth longest interception return (95-yard TD) in Lions' franchise history against Chicago November 18, 1973 (also had three interceptions for 167 yards). He played the final three seasons of his career with the Cincinnati Bengals, and finished with a career tally of 26 interceptions and two touchdowns.

After retiring from the NFL, Jauron worked two years for Nautilus Sports Medical Industries before launching his coaching career.

A graduate of Yale University with a bachelor's degree in history, Jauron holds several school rushing records, including consecutive 100-yard rushing games (16). He spent much of his childhood in Rensselaer, Ind. where his father was the head coach at St. Joseph's College. A three-sport standout at Swampscott High School in Boston, Jauron was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals as a shortstop and was named one of the top 10 prep athletes of the 20th Century in the state of Massachusetts by the Boston Globe.

Jauron and his wife, Gail, have two daughters, Kacy and Amy.

JAURON'S PROFILE

- Jauron was named 2001 Associated Press Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading the Chicago Bears to a 13-3 record and first NFC Central division title since 1990. That season, the Bears defense was ranked first in the league in points allowed and second in rushing.
- After being selected in the fourth round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Lions, Jauron played five seasons in the Motor City. He started at free safety during his rookie year, and was selected to the Pro Bowl after leading the NFC in punt return average (16.8) in 1974. On November 18, 1973, Jauron recorded a 95-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. Chicago, which is the fifth longest interception return in Lions' history.

SHERMAN LEWIS

Offensive Coordinator

3rd Year with Lions
22nd Year in NFL

Sherman Lewis was promoted to offensive coordinator by Head Coach Steve Mariucci on February 17, 2003 due to his vast knowledge of the West Coast offense and his proven winning track record. Lewis originally joined the Lions as the team's special assistant–offense in February 2002 after 19 years of NFL coaching experience with the Minnesota Vikings, Green Bay Packers and San Francisco 49ers. This season marks Lewis' 22nd year coaching in the NFL.

Before his move to Motown, Lewis spent two seasons (2000-01) as the offensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings. Prior to his time in Minnesota, Lewis spent eight seasons with the Green Bay Packers as offensive coordinator from 1992-99 and nine seasons with the 49ers as wide receivers coach (1989-91) and running backs coach (1983-88).

In his 21 seasons as an NFL coach, Lewis' teams have made 15 playoff appearances, which includes 11 divisional championships, five NFC Championships and four Super Bowl titles.

Under Lewis in 2000, the Vikings' offense averaged 24.8 points per game and advanced to the NFC Championship game with a quarterback (Daunte Culpepper) who had never thrown an NFL pass. Culpepper went on to earn the starting spot on the NFC squad in the 2001 Pro Bowl after ranking among the league's passing leaders having completed 297 of 494 passes for 3,937 yards, 33 touchdowns, a 62.7 completion percentage and a 98.0 quarterback rating. Other offensive

Pro Bowlers that year included running back Robert Smith, who led the NFC in rushing yards with 1,521, wide receivers Randy Moss and Cris Carter and center Matt Birk.

In Lewis' eight seasons with the Packers, the team never had a losing season, made the playoffs six times, earned three NFC Central division titles, claimed two NFC Championships and won Super Bowl XXXI. Seven different offensive players made the Pro Bowl 15 times during his time with the Packers.

From 1983-91 Lewis began his learning of the West Coast offense under Bill Walsh. As running backs coach, Lewis tutored stars such as Roger Craig and Tom Rathman (Lions running backs coach), and coached Jerry Rice and John Taylor as he supervised the development of the wide receivers. The 49ers won three Super Bowls while Lewis was there.

Prior to Lewis' NFL coaching tenure, he spent 14 years (1969-82) in various coaching capacities at his alma mater Michigan State University. He served as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator/linebackers from 1980-82, defensive backs coach from 1970-79 and began his stint with MSU as offensive backs coach in 1969.

Lewis, a two-time All-American halfback at Michigan State, was second runner-up for the 1963 Heisman Trophy (behind Roger Staubach, Navy and Billy Lothridge, Georgia Tech), and was named college football's Player of the Year by Football News. He was the Spartans' co-captain in 1963. Lewis was also a standout track and field performer, as well as a captain of the track team two straight years from 1963-64.

Lewis and his wife, Toni, have two sons—Kip and Eric.

LEWIS' PROFILE

- In his 21 seasons as an NFL coach, Lewis' teams have made 15 playoff appearances, which includes 11 divisional championships, five NFC Championships and four Super Bowl titles.
- Lewis was a two-time All-American halfback at Michigan State and was second runner-up for the 1963 Heisman Trophy (behind Roger Staubach – Navy and Billy Lothridge – Georgia Tech). Lewis was named college football's 'Player of the Year' by Football News.

CHUCK PRIEFER

Special Teams
8th Year with Lions
15th Year in NFL

Chuck Priefer, a 15-year NFL coaching veteran, was retained by Head Coach Steve Mariucci and enters his eighth season as the Lions' special teams coach. The club's special teams units have been ranked among the NFL's best over the past seven seasons, with Priefer's inventive schemes and sound tutoring in the kicking game playing a large role.

Since the arrival of Priefer in 1997, the Lions have seen a noticeable upturn in production from both Jason Hanson at kicker and '97 off-season acquisition John Jett at punter, as well as with its "Hard Core" coverage units. Hanson has enjoyed seven outstanding seasons under Priefer's direction, being named to the Pro Bowl following both the '97 and '99 campaigns. He has been over the 100-point barrier in five of the past seven seasons and became the franchise's all-time leading scorer in 2002. Last year, Hanson set a Lions' single-season record with the highest field goal percentage (.958), as he went 22-of-23 on the year.

Jett enjoyed several of the top years of his career under Priefer's direction, culminating with him being named the alternate for the 2001 NFC Pro Bowl squad. In 2002, Jett ranked second in the NFL with a net punting average of 38.0 and ranked seventh in the NFL in gross punting average with a 42.2 mark.

Priefer has formulated superb cover units during his time in Detroit. Last year, the Lions ranked fifth in the league in covering punts by allowing just 6.6 yards per return average. In 2002, the team's punt coverage unit ranked first in the NFL after holding opponents to a mere 4.5 average return per punt. Kickoff coverage teams have been strong as accredited by the Lions leading the league in average starting field position (kickoff team) in 2000 (25.1) and 2001 (25.3). In 2002, the Lions' kickoff return unit ranked third in the NFL in average yards per kickoff return after averaging 24.6 yards per kickoff return, and the unit ranked second in the NFC after accumulating a 31.0 average starting point.

Additionally, Priefer has had a big hand in the Lions' return game being established as one of the most potent in the NFL, and this has been accomplished by utilizing several kick returners. In 2003, Detroit was one of only four teams to return a kickoff and a punt return for touchdowns. Eddie Drummond returned a punt 57 yards, and Reggie Swinton returned a punt (89 yards) and a kickoff return (96 yards) for touchdowns. In seven years in Detroit, four different players have gone the distance on kicks, including Swinton, Drummond, Desmond Howard and Terry Fair.

In 2003, Swinton was fourth in the league in punt return average (13.8) and sixth in the league in kickoff return average (24.1). In 2002, with injuries sustained to Howard, Drummond took over the kickoff return duties. He finished the season with the fourth-best average per kickoff return in the NFL and ranked the highest among rookies with a 26.0 average. Howard enjoyed a prolific 2000 campaign, as he earned his first career trip to the Pro Bowl and ranked third in the NFL averaging 14.7 yards per punt return. Howard's 457 punt return yards in 2000 tied him for the second-highest single-season tally in Lions' history. Among Howard's 2000 accomplishments include a game-winning 95-yard punt return in the season opener at New Orleans and two of his longest career regular season kickoff returns (63 and 70 yards) vs. Tampa Bay. And during the 2001 season, Howard had a career-long 91-yard kickoff return (regular season) vs. Cincinnati. He earned an alternate spot as the NFC kick returner in the 2002 Pro Bowl. Among 1999 return highlights was a 91-yard kickoff return by Fair and Desmond Howard's 68-yard punt return for a touchdown December 5, only hours after signing with the club. Fair led the NFL in kickoff returns (28.0 avg.) as a rookie in 1998, becoming the first player since the AFL/NFL merger in 1970 to record two kickoff returns for touchdowns in his first four pro games.

Priefer possesses 27 years of college and pro coaching experience on his resume. Priefer coached the defensive backfield at Georgia Tech from 1987-91 and went on to San Diego in 1992. Prior to his tenure at Georgia Tech, Priefer spent the 1986 season as the defensive coordinator at Kent State.

While at San Diego, the Chargers' special teams under Priefer also consistently ranked among the best in the NFL. In 1995-96 San Diego's special teams scored eight touchdowns, more than any other team in the league. The Chargers' Darrien Gordon led the AFC and was second in the NFL with a 14.9-yard punt return average. In 1994, return specialist Andre Coleman became the first player in Chargers' history to return two kickoffs for touchdowns in a single season, and he also returned a kickoff for a score in Super Bowl XXIX. He repeated that feat and also returned a punt for a score in 1995. He also averaged an AFC-high 11.6 yards per punt return in 1995.

In 1996, punter Darren Bennett, followed his standout campaign of 1995 with a record-setting season as he averaged a team-record 45.6 yards per punt. In 1995, Bennett, a former Australian Rules Football player, ranked second in the NFL with a 44.7-yard average and earned a Pro Bowl spot in his first season of organized football. Bennett's Pro Bowl appearance was the second consecutive by a Priefer student. In 1994, kicker John Carney led the NFL in scoring with 135 points en route to a Pro Bowl appearance.

In 1994, the Chargers' punt return and kickoff return teams ranked second and third, respectively, in the league. During the 1994 regular season, San Diego was the only team to return two punts and two kickoffs for touchdowns. Punt returner Darrien Gordon led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL with a 13.2-yard average.

At Georgia Tech, Priefer cultivated a pass defense that ranked No. 1 in the country for several weeks in both the 1988 and 1990 seasons. Tech's pass defense ranked eighth in the country in 1991 and ranked in the top 15 three times.

Preceding his tenure at Georgia Tech, Priefer spent two seasons (1984-85) as the special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers. He also assisted with the Packers' linebackers. In 1984 Priefer's kickoff coverage team led the NFL by allowing only 16.0 yards per return and the special teams finished with the top average ranking in the NFC Central division.

Priefer began his coaching career at Padua Franciscan High School in Parma, Ohio as an assistant football, baseball and basketball coach in 1963. He was named head baseball coach in 1965 and assistant athletic director in 1966. From 1972-76 he was the head football coach, posting a 34-15 record.

In 1977, he jumped from the prep ranks to Miami (Ohio) where he coached one season before moving on to North Carolina. He spent six seasons (1978-83) with the Tar Heels — one season as defensive backfield coach and five years as defensive line coach. North Carolina went to five straight bowl games during that time, posting a 50-20-1 record.

Charles John Priefer was born in the 1940s on July 26 in Parma, Ohio. He attended Bo,omeo High School in Wickliffe, Ohio before matriculating to John Carroll University. He graduated from John Carroll in 1963 with a degree in history and Latin and earned a master's degree in American history (emphasis in American-Russian relations) from John Carroll in 1967.

Chuck and his wife, Sheila, have four children - Michael, Therese, Jennifer and Megan - and 10 grandchildren.

PRIEFER'S PROFILE

- Chuck Priefer has solidified the Lions' cover teams among the best in the NFL over the past four seasons. Last year, the Lions ranked fifth in the league in covering punts by allowing just 6.6 yards per return average. In 2002, the team's punt coverage unit ranked first in the NFL after holding opponents to a mere 4.5 average return per punt. For two-straight seasons, the Lions were the NFL's best team at pinning opponents deep in their own territory following kickoffs. The Lions' kickoff coverage team led the league in average starting field position in 2000 (25.1) and 2001 (25.3). In 2002, the Lions' kickoff return unit ranked third in the NFL in average yards per kickoff return after averaging 24.6 yards per kickoff return, and the unit ranked second in the NFC after accumulating a 31.0 average starting point.
- Priefer has formulated a superb combination of talent and scheme in developing the Lions' return game into a force. Four players have scored touchdowns on returns during Priefer's tenure in Detroit. In 1998, he guided Terry Fair to a league best 28.0 yards per kickoff average. In 2000, Desmond Howard's prolific punt and kickoff return game earned him a spot in the Pro Bowl. In 2002, the returner role was handed off to Eddie Drummond as he finished with the NFL's fourth-best kickoff return average (28.0 yards per return) and highest of rookies, and he returned one punt for a touchdown (73 yards) during the season. Indicative of Drummond's threat as a punt returner occurred at Arizona (12/8/02) when he returned a punt 73 yards for a touchdown. In 2003, both Drummond (1 PR) and Reggie Swinton (1 PR; 1 KOR) scored touchdowns on returns.

RICHARD SMITH

Assistant Head Coach/ Linebackers

17th Year in NFL

Richard Smith enters his 17th season as an NFL assistant coach and his second with the Lions after being hired in 2003. As well as serving as the team's assistant head coach, Smith is the Lions' linebackers coach. Last year, Smith supervised a largely re-structured group of linebackers, as well as guiding the steady development of rookie LB Boss Bailey, who was selected in the second round of the 2003 NFL draft and was named to ESPN.com's all-rookie team.

Before his hiring in Detroit, Smith spent six seasons (1997-02) with the San Francisco 49ers coaching the linebackers. During that time, four of his linebackers were selected for the Pro Bowl: Julian Peterson in 2002, Winfred Tubbs in 1998 and both Ken Norton, Jr. and Lee Woodall in 1997.

During his last two seasons in San Francisco, he developed a young and inexperienced 49ers' linebackers squad and transformed that group into a highly productive unit. In 2001, the 49ers' linebackers began the season with only two of the six players having more than one year of NFL experience, and they helped the team finish ninth in the league in rush defense, which was improved over the 16th overall ranking garnered in 2000. In 2002, the unit again steadily improved as it jumped up to seventh overall in the league (second in NFC) in rush defense, and produced a Pro Bowler in Peterson.

In 11 of 16 NFL seasons, Smith worked on coaching staffs that guided their teams to playoff berths, including four appearances with San Francisco (1997-98 and 2001-02), two appearances with Denver (1993, 1996) and five appearances with Houston (1988-92).

Prior to joining the 49ers in 1997, Smith spent four seasons (1993-96) with the Denver Broncos coaching special teams and assisting with the linebackers for three seasons (1993-95).

Smith began his NFL coaching career with the Houston Oilers in 1988 where he coached special teams and assisted with the tight ends (1988-89), linebackers (1990-91) and the offensive line (1992). Smith's special teams were a key cog in the Oilers reaching the playoffs all five seasons (1988-920 that he coached in Houston.

In 1987, Smith spent a season at the University of Arizona coaching linebackers and special teams after tutoring the outside linebackers and special teams from 1984-86 at California.

Previous to his four-year Pac-10 stint, Smith was a defensive line coach at Cal State-Fullerton for three seasons (1981-83) where he helped the Titans win the 1983 PCAA title.

His first career coaching assignment was as an offensive line coach at Rio Hondo (Calif.) Junior College (1979-80) where he played as an offensive lineman (1975-76) before transferring to Fresno State. As a Bulldog, Smith helped the university claim the 1977 PCAA title.

Smith graduated from Fresno State in 1979 with a degree in physical education. He and his wife, Patti, have four children, including daughters Morgan, Aimee and Whitney, along with a son, Travis.

SMITH'S PROFILE

- Richard Smith has completed 16 years as a coach in the NFL, and 11 times he served on staffs that led the organization to a playoff appearance, including four playoff runs in San Francisco (1997-98 and 2001-02), two berths in Denver (1993, 1996) and five appearances with Houston (1988-92).
- During Smith's tenure with the 49ers, four linebackers earned Pro Bowl nods: Julian Peterson in 2002, Winfred Tubbs in 1998 and both Ken Norton, Jr. and Lee Woodall in 1997.

JASON ARAPOFF

Strength and Conditioning

4th Year with Lions
17th Year in NFL

Jason Arapoff enters his fourth season as the Lions' strength and conditioning coach. His primary role is to oversee the physical fitness of all Lions' players.

Focusing equally on the off-season regimen and the regular season program, Arapoff utilizes high-end cardiovascular, strength training and free weight equipment in the team's state-of-the-art facility. His hands-on training techniques emphasize a balance of muscular strength and cardiovascular fitness, and are underscored by a comprehensive, personalized approach to each athlete. He also has introduced a shift toward more football-specific activities that encompass high-intensity protocols to train the entire body.

Arapoff arrived in Detroit prior to the 2001 season with 13 years of experience with the Washington Redskins. While serving as the team's conditioning director for nine years, he was instrumental in computerizing and implementing the team's strength and conditioning and nutritional programs.

A frequently published author, Arapoff has been a monthly columnist for Scholastic Coach magazine and is a frequent speaker for industry events, schools, universities and football camps. He has also served as a content expert for area media, including guest spots on various television and radio programs.

During his playing career as a collegian, Arapoff was a four-year letter-winning defensive back Springfield (Mass.) College where as he earned his undergraduate degree in health fitness. He went on to obtain his master's degree in exercise physiology from American University in Washington, D.C.

Arapoff and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters: Julia, and twins, Anna and Alexa.

ARAPOFF'S BACKGROUND

MALCOLM BLACKEN

Assistant Strength and Conditioning

4th Year with Lions
9th Year in NFL

Malcolm Blacken enters his fourth year as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach, a position he attained prior to the 2001 season. With his appointment, Blacken added to a resume that already includes similar stops at three colleges and his first NFL team, the Washington Redskins.

Over the past three seasons in Detroit, Blacken has been instrumental in the transition of the new weight and conditioning facilities at the Lions' new training center in Allen Park, Mich., along with the instruction of the new strength and conditioning program introduced in 2001.

Prior to arriving in Detroit, he spent the previous five seasons (1996-00) as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Redskins.

Before that stint, he was a strength assistant coach for the University of Virginia's football program in 1995, and worked with all other sports in the Cavaliers' athletic department as well.

For three years (1992-94), Blacken served as the head strength and conditioning coach for George Mason University, where his duties included overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for all of the university's varsity sports. Blacken began his coaching career at the University of South Carolina in 1990-91 as the football program's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Blacken graduated from Virginia Tech in 1989 with bachelor's degrees in art and physical education. He was a Hokies' running back from 1984-88, and was a four-time letter winner. Twice, in 1987-88, he won the Super Iron Hokie Award that is given yearly to the football program's strongest player.

Blacken, and his wife, Marcy, have a daughter, Maya, 5, and a son, Bo, 3.

LARRY BROOKS

Defensive Line

1st Year with Lions

19th Year in NFL

Larry Brooks brings 18 years of NFL coaching experience with him to Detroit, including the last 10 years as a defensive line coach. He joins the Lions after spending last season as the defensive line coach for the Chicago Bears, where he worked under new Lions Defensive Coordinator Dick Jauron.

Previous to his stint in Chicago, Brooks spent nine years coaching under Mike Holmgren with the Green Bay Packers (1994-98) and then with the Seattle Seahawks (1999-02). While with Green Bay, he coached on the same staff with both Jauron and Mariucci, and tutored future Hall-of-Famer Reggie White. Brooks earned a Super Bowl ring with the Packers in 1996.

After taking a year away from football in 1991, Brooks returned to his alma mater Virginia State as an assistant coach and assistant athletic director. His first coaching job came as an assistant defensive line coach with the Los Angeles Rams, the team he played with for his entire career, from 1983-90. Brooks served on the same Rams' coaching staff with Mariucci, the team's quality control coach, in 1985

From 1972-82, Brooks was a standout defensive tackle for the Rams as he was named to the Pro Bowl for five consecutive seasons (1976-80) and was an All-Pro selection in 1977, 1978 and 1979. Drafted in the 14th round (355th overall) by the Rams in 1972, he played an integral role in the Rams' seven consecutive NFC West division championships (1973-79), played in four NFC Championship games (1974, 1975, 1976, 1979) and one Super Bowl (1980).

Brooks, a Prince George, Va. native, was named to the Associated Press Little All-American team while playing for Virginia State and was inducted into the Virginia Hall of Fame in 2000. He and his wife, Colleen, have a son, Larry, Jr.

GEORGE CATAVOLOS

Defensive Backs

1st Year with Lions

20th Year in NFL

George Catavolos, who enters his 20th season as a coach in the NFL, joins the Lions after spending the last two seasons with the Washington Redskins where he coached two of the top young cornerbacks in the NFL in Fred Smoot and four-time Pro Bowler Champ Bailey, the older brother of Lions linebacker Boss Bailey.

Catavolos' coaching career includes 17 years on the college level and 19 years in the NFL.

Prior to working in Washington, Catavolos spent four seasons as the assistant head coach and defensive backs coach for the Indianapolis Colts. In his last two years in Indianapolis, the Colts' defensive backs garnered 31 interceptions, including 15 in 2001. From 1995-97, he served as the Carolina Panthers defensive backs coach and helped cornerback Eric Davis reach the Pro Bowl in 1996, a season in which the Panthers reached the NFC Championship game in only their second year in the NFL.

Catavolos' NFL coaching career started in 1984 when he was hired as the Colts' defensive backs coach, a position he held through the 1993 season. Catavolos also has 17 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level, including stops at Tennessee (1982-83), Kentucky (1977-81), Louisville (1970), Middle Tennessee State (1969) and twice at his alma mater, Purdue (1967-68, 1971-76).

A four-year letter winner at Purdue as a defensive back, Catavolos was the Boilermakers' co-captain during the team's 1967 Rose Bowl Championship season.

Catavolos received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Purdue in 1967, and was the recipient of the Nobel E. Kizer award for excellence in academics during his senior year. He went on to earn his master's degree in education and administration in 1969. Catavolos and his wife, Tona, have two daughters, Lindsay and Stephanie.

DON CLEMONS

Defensive Assistant

20th Year in NFL

Don Clemons is the club's elder statesman among coaches, and he enters his 20th season with the Lions in 2004. Steve Mariucci is the sixth head coach he has worked for while in Detroit. He served on the staffs of Marty Mornhinweg (2001-02), Gary Moeller (final seven games of 2000 season), Bobby Ross (1997-00), Wayne Fontes (1989-96) and Darryl Rogers (1985-88). Clemons has been responsible for a myriad of roles during his tenure that includes defensive assistant, tutoring linebackers, coaching both nickel and dime cornerbacks and strength and conditioning.

His first coaching experience was at Kutztown State (Pa.) where he tutored outside linebackers for two seasons (1977-78). He then spent one year as linebackers coach at New Mexico State (1979) before joining Rogers at Arizona State for five years. Clemons was the strength and conditioning coach for the Sun Devils and also assisted the defensive line coach from 1980-84.

The holder of an English degree from Muhlenberg (Pa.), Clemons and his wife Shawn — who starred in basketball at Arizona State, and was an assistant coach for the women's basketball team at Oakland University (Rochester, Mich.) that went to the NCAA Division II semifinals in 1989-90 — have two sons, Scot and Corey, and live in Rochester, Mich.

KEVIN HIGGINS

Wide Receivers

4th Year in NFL

Kevin Higgins, who originally joined the Lions February 7, 2001, was retained by Head Coach Steve Mariucci, and 2004 will mark Higgins first year as the team's wide receivers coach. For the past three seasons, Higgins served as quarterbacks coach and tutored the team's highly touted young quarterbacks in starter Joey Harrington and backup Mike McMahon.

In his new role, Higgins will oversee the development the team's corps of wide receivers that includes, Az-Zahir Hakim and Charles Rogers, the second overall pick in the 2003 NFL Draft.

For the past two seasons, Higgins was a vital cog in Harrington's progress at quarterback. Last year, he started all 16 games, and showed major improvement over the last nine games of the season. Harrington compiled the second highest single-season pass completions (309) and attempts (554) in team history. During the 2002 season, Harrington had an extremely productive rookie campaign, despite not starting four games. In 2001, the Lions totaled nine plays of 30 yards or more through the air, while during the 2002 season, Harrington accumulated 14 plays for 30 yards or more through the air. Harrington also had the lowest sack per pass attempt percentage (eight sacks/429 attempts for 1.61%) in the NFL. Higgins also helped McMahon show signs of promise as he threw for 293 yards and three touchdowns in the team's final game of the season.

In 2001, Higgins helped the Lions' quarterbacks amass the third-most passing yards in the NFL, as the team accumulated 3,969 yards in the air (248.1 yds/g), and trailed only St. Louis and Indianapolis. Also, QB Charlie Batch threw for the NFL's best single-game passing tally that season by throwing for 436 yards at Arizona November 18.

Before arriving in Detroit, he spent the previous 13 years at Lehigh University, including seven seasons as the school's head coach (1994-00). Higgins also served as the Mountain Hawks' quarterbacks coach.

Higgins compiled an overall record of 56-25-1 (30-9 in Patriot League play) mark since he began directing the program in 1994, and led Lehigh to four Patriot League championships (1995, 1998, 1999 and 2000) and NCAA Division I-AA post-season berths for a three-year span from 1998-00. Twice, in 1998 and 2000, he led the Mountain Hawks to undefeated regular season records and into the quarterfinals of the playoffs. His squads went 32-1 in regular season games over his last three years.

Higgins was honored as the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 1995, 1998 and 2000, and was named Regional Coach of the Year in 1999. He was a candidate for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year award, which honors the top coach in Division I-AA, in each of his last two seasons.

In 2000, Higgins helped Lehigh accrue its second undefeated regular season (11-0) in three years and its third-straight league title. The team ended the season 12-1 after being defeated by Delaware in the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs. In 1999, Lehigh was 10-1 and earned an at-large postseason bid after being Co-Patriot League champions and ranked 14th nationally. He also was named GTE Regional Coach of the Year in '99. The previous season, Lehigh completed its first undefeated regular season (11-0) under Higgins, and defeated third-ranked Richmond in the opening round of the playoffs before losing to Massachusetts, who went on to win the national championship.

Under Higgins' tutelage, Lehigh developed into one of the premier passing offenses in the country, and topped the Patriot League in passing offense during five of his last seven years. Three former players, Rabih Abdullah (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), Lehigh's all-time leading rusher, Rich Owens (Kansas City Chiefs) and Phil Stambaugh (Jacksonville Jaguars) played in the NFL in 2001.

Prior to his arrival in Bethlehem, Higgins was an assistant coach at the University of Richmond from 1985-87, after beginning his collegiate coaching career at Gettysburg (Pa.) College from 1981-84. Before jumping into the college ranks, he worked as a head basketball and baseball coach, and was an assistant football coach at North Warren (N.J.) High School from 1979-80. He was also the head basketball coach and assistant football coach at Emerson (N.J.) High School from 1977-78.

A native of Emerson, N.J., Higgins attended Emerson High School where he was captain of the football, basketball and baseball teams during his senior year.

Higgins graduated from West Chester (Pa.) University with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, and played free safety on the school's football squad and was named the team's most valuable defensive back. In 1981, he earned a master's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University.

Higgins and his wife, Kay, a former collegiate head basketball coach, have three children, Tim, 19, Meaghan, 17, and Katie Rose, 12. Tim is a member of the football team at the University of Florida.

JOHNNY HOLLAND

Defensive Assistant

10th Year in NFL

Johnny Holland was named to Head Coach Steve Mariucci's staff on March 6, 2003. This season marks Holland second year with the Lions and 10th in the NFL. He will continue to serve as a defensive assistant and assist Richard Smith in tutoring the Lions' linebacking corps. Overall, Holland's pro experience includes seven years (1987-93) as a player and nine years (1995-03) as a coach.

Holland began his coaching career after being hired by the Green Bay Packers as the team's defensive quality control coach in 1995 and held that post through the 1997 season. He spent the 1998 season as the special teams coach and the 1999 season as the Packers' linebackers coach. After five seasons with the Packers, including back-to-back Super Bowl appearances (Super Bowl XXXI in 1996 and Super Bowl XXXII in 1997), Holland was hired as the Seattle Seahawks' assistant special teams/assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2000. During the 2001-02 seasons, Holland reverted back to his post as the linebackers coach with the Seahawks.

Holland was originally a second-round draft choice out of Texas A&M in 1987 by the Packers. He posted six consecutive seasons with at least 100 tackles before retiring in 1994. In 1993, after recovering from a neck injury suffered in 1992, Holland led the Packers in tackles with 145 and helped guide the team into the playoffs for the first time in 11 years. Holland was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame in July 2001.

As a collegian at Texas A&M, he was a three-year starter and a four-year letterman, where he led the Aggies in tackles each of his last three years. As a prep at Hempstead High in Texas, he won 12 letters.

Holland and his wife, Faith, have a son, Jordan (3/15/94) and daughter, Joli (8/26/96).

SEAN KUGLER

Assistant Offensive Line/ Tight Ends

4th Year with Lions
4th Year in NFL

Sean Kugler came to Detroit on February 12, 2001 and was retained by Head Coach Steve Mariucci. This season marks Kugler's fourth season coaching the Lions' tight ends coach and his first as assistant offensive line coach.

In 2003, Kugler aided the emergence of Casey FitzSimmons from an undrafted rookie free agent to a regular starter in the team's offense. In 2002, he was instrumental in helping tight end Mikhael Ricks to a 2003 Pro Bowl alternate selection. Ricks' 12.6 yards per catch average was tied with Atlanta's TE Alge Crumpler for the highest amongst tight ends in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Lions, Kugler coached for eight years at his alma mater, the University of Texas-El Paso. While there, he served in several capacities, including as a graduate assistant/defensive line coach in 1993, tutoring tight ends in 1994 and as the Miners' offensive line coach for his final six seasons (1995-00).

The Lockport, N.Y., native was a four-year letterwinner (1985-88) at Texas-El Paso and went on to sign a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1989.

He split the next three years coaching at two high schools and playing as a starting guard for the Sacramento Surge of the World League of American Football in 1991. In 1990, Kugler was on the staff at Tampa Bay (Fla.) Tech and coached at Gaither High School (also in Tampa) in 1992 before returning to UTEP as a graduate assistant.

Kugler, and his wife, Patsy, have two sons, Robert, 11, and Patrick, 9, and a daughter, Kali, 3.

STAN KWAN

Assistant Special Teams/ Offensive Assistant

5th Year with Lions
14th Year in NFL

Stan Kwan re-joins the Lions after spending three seasons (2001-03) with the Arizona Cardinals as special teams assistant/ defensive quality control. As well as serving as assistant special teams coach, he will return to his previous role as offensive assistant. Kwan will be reunited with special teams coach Chuck Priefer whom he worked with in Detroit (1997-00) and with the San Diego Chargers (1992-96).

He previously served as assistant special team/offensive assistant with the Lions under former head coaches Bobby Ross and Gary Moeller from 1997-00. Throughout his pro coaching career, Kwan has served in a variety of support roles including designing computer diagrams of plays, compiling both offensive and defensive playbooks, breaking down of special teams film, providing statistical analysis on the league and college combine testing.

Kwan's career in the NFL originally began in 1991 in the Chargers organization.

For three years, Kwan played baseball at San Diego State University where he earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice. During that span, the nationally-ranked Aztecs won one regular season WAC title, one WAC tournament title and earned two NCAA tournament berths.

Prior to matriculating to San Diego State, Kwan spent one year at South Mountain Community College in Phoenix where he was the first freshman to be named captain of the baseball team.

He attended Phoenix Camelback High School where he holds the school career records for batting average, runs scored, stolen bases, on base percentage and walks. In his junior year, Camelback was the top-ranked team in the state and was ranked 16th in the nation. He earned all-state honors twice as a shortstop and doubled as the school's quarterback where he set the school single-game passing record (327 yards).

Kevin Lartigue was hired by Head Coach Steve Mariucci in February 2003 after five seasons in San Francisco (1997-02) as the 49ers' equipment manager. In his role with the Lions, he assists Mariucci in a wide range of administrative and organizational matters, including coordinating the daily schedules and itineraries of the team and coaching staff.

Lartigue originally joined the 49ers' staff as an assistant equipment manager in 1997, and then was promoted to equipment manager in 1998.

Prior to his stint in San Francisco, Lartigue spent two-and-a-half years (1994-97) as the assistant equipment manager for the Michigan State University football program where he started as a student manager in 1991. Lartigue was honored as the Student Manager-of-the-Year in 1994.

Lartigue earned a bachelor's degree in advertising at MSU in 1994. A native of East Lansing, Mich., Lartigue graduated from Lansing Everett High School in 1985 where he lettered in both basketball and track.

PAT MORRIS

Offensive Line

1st Year with Lions
8th Year in NFL

Morris, 49, spent the last seven years with the San Francisco 49ers, including six seasons (1997-02) under Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. Morris was hired as tight ends/ assistant offensive line coach in 1997 and was named offensive line coach in 1999.

During Morris' tenure with the 49ers, the team totaled the second-highest rushing tally in the NFL, averaging 135.5 yards per game over the seven-year span. The 49ers offensive line paved the way for five 2,000-yard total rushing seasons—2,544 in 1998 (franchise record), 2,095 in 1999, 2,244 in 2000, 2,244 in 2002 and 2,279 in 2003.

Four offensive linemen played in the Pro Bowl while Morris worked with the offensive line, including G Kevin Gogan (1998), G Ray Brown (2002), C Jeremy Newberry (2002-03) and G Ron Stone (2003).

Before joining Mariucci on the 49ers coaching staff, Morris coached two seasons (1995-96) for Stanford as offensive line coach (tackles and tight ends) for the Cardinal.

Morris is not a stranger to the state of Michigan, having spent eight seasons as offensive line coach at Michigan State (1987-94). Prior to his stint in East Lansing, Morris spent four seasons (1983-86) at his alma mater, USC, working with the offensive line. Mariucci was the wide receivers and special teams coach on the same USC staff as Morris in 1986. Morris also was the offensive line coach at Minnesota (1979-82) and at Northern Arizona (1978).

Morris launched his coaching career at USC as a graduate assistant from 1976-77. He graduated in 1976 following his playing days with the Trojans.

During his college playing and coaching career, Morris was associated with five Rose Bowl wins and two national championships. Morris played for the Trojans as they were victorious in the 1973 and 1975 Rose Bowls that also catapulted the school to national titles. As a coach, he was a member of staffs that led their programs to Rose Bowl wins at USC in 1977 and 1985 and at Michigan State in 1988.

GREG OLSON

Quarterbacks

1st Year with Lions
3rd Year in NFL

Greg Olson joins the Lions following a one-year stint as the quarterbacks coach for the Chicago Bears. Olson takes over a position that features Joey Harrington, one of the league's young, up-and-coming quarterbacks.

During his coaching career, he has tutored quarterbacks Jeff Garcia (San Francisco 49ers), Drew Brees (Purdue) and Jon Kitna (Central Washington) and Rex Grossman (Chicago Bears), among others.

Olson served on Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci's 49ers staff as quarterbacks coach in 2001. That season Garcia earned his second-straight Pro Bowl selection as he completed 62.7 percent of his passes and accumulated 3,538 yards and 32 touchdowns. The 49ers compiled a 12-4 record that season and earned a playoff spot as an NFC Wild Card. Olson left the 49ers after his wife, Lissa, was named the head coach for track and field program (both men and women) for Purdue.

As quarterbacks coach at Purdue (1997-00), Olson played a critical role in the development of Brees, one of the most prolific passers in history of the school and Big Ten Conference. The Boilermakers passing offense was ranked in the top 10 nationally over Olson's last three years (seventh in 1998, fourth in 1999 and sixth in 2000), and was slotted as 13th in 1997. Brees, a two-time Heisman Trophy finalist, left college after capturing six Big Ten and school career offensive records, and was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year twice (1998 and 2000). He garnered All-America accolades in 2000 when he led the nation in total offense in 2000 (349.1 per game). During Olson's first year at Purdue, he guided quarterback Billy Dicken to first team all-Big Ten honors.

From 1994-96, Olson served as quarterbacks coach at Idaho. The team's passing attack, led by quarterback Ryan Fien (Div. I-A second-ranked quarterback in 1996), was the catapult to the Vandals' national ranking of fourth in passing, fifth in total offense and 15th in scoring. During Olson's first season at Idaho (1994), the school was ranked second in the nation in total offense and scoring and seventh in passing.

Prior to his time served at Idaho, Olson was the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Central Washington. The school was the top-ranked NAIA school in total offense in 1991 and 1993. Olson helped develop Jon Kitna during his tenure that began the quarterback's transition from NAIA signal caller to 1997 World Bowl MVP to starter in the NFL (currently with the Cincinnati Bengals). Also during his stint at Central Washington, he was a coach for the wrestling program for four seasons, including the last two as head coach as he led the program to a ranking of sixth in the country.

Olson, a native of Richland, Wash., began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Washington State from 1987-89. He served on the same staffs as Purdue Head Coach Joe Tiller, Michigan State Head Coach John L. Smith, San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Dennis Erickson and UTEP Head Coach Mike Price. While at Washington State, Olson earned his master's degree in athletic administration.

During his college playing days, Olson was the school's starting quarterback at Central Washington in 1983-84, and he earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1986.

Olson's wife, Lissa, was the head coach for both the track and field program (men and women) at Purdue. She was named the Boilermakers head coach in 2001.

TOM RATHMAN

Running Backs

2nd Year with Lions
8th Year in NFL

Tom Rathman joined the Lions as the team's running backs coach in 2003 after serving in the same capacity for six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers under Head Coach Steve Mariucci. This season marks Rathman's second year with the club.

During Rathman's tenure, the 49ers finished with the sixth-best rushing attack in the NFL with an average of 140.3 rushing yards per game under Rathman's direction in 2002. From 1998-02, the 49ers rushing attack was the best in the NFC and second in the NFL behind Pittsburgh.

Among the running backs in Detroit, Rathman is united with, like himself, a standout West Coast offense fullback from Nebraska in Cory Schlesinger, who was a 2004 Pro Bowl alternate.

In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding Garrison Hearst, the two-time NFL Comeback Player-of-the-Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. Rathman also helped to tutor rookie Kevan Barlow to rush for over 500 yards during his first year. The 49ers ranked second in the league with 140.3 rushing yards per game.

Rathman helped RB Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000. Garner rushed for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns during the 2000 campaign, joining Joe Perry (1953-54), Roger Craig (1988-89) and Garrison Hearst (1997-98) as the only 49ers running backs to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner also was a receiving force, eclipsing his career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns.

As an NFL player (1986-94), Rathman helped the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. He totaled 4,392 yards from scrimmage and scored 34 touchdowns while playing in 113 games with San Francisco. He played his final season in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994.

A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged over six yards per carry. Prior to joining the 49ers staff, Rathman helped rebuild the Menlo College (Calif.) program by serving as the offensive coordinator in 1996 and coached the running backs at Serra High School (San Mateo, Calif.) in 1995.

He and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole Christine, Alexandra Elizabeth, and Samantha Lynn.

ANDY SUGARMAN

Tight Ends

2nd Year with Lions
7th Year in NFL

Andy Sugarman arrived in Detroit in 2003 after five years with the San Francisco 49ers, including three years as the offensive assistant (2000-02) and two seasons (1998-99) as offensive quality control coach. This past season, Sugarman aided tight end Casey FitzSimmons' development from undrafted rookie into an eventual starter.

Sugarman was brought from San Francisco

by Head Coach Steve Mariucci as the team's offensive assistant, and he also assists with the tight ends position. He assisted with the tight ends during his last two seasons (2001-02) in San Francisco.

During his first three seasons in San Francisco, Sugarman worked with the wide receiver position. In addition to his coaching duties, he also handled the computer operations (inputting game plans) and coordinating scout teams for special teams.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Sugarman spent seven years (1991-97) as an assistant to the offensive and special teams coaching staff at the University of California, Berkeley. He worked under four head coaches while at Cal, including: Bruce Snyder, Keith Gilbertson, Mariucci and Tom Holmoe. Sugarman, a fourth-generation Cal student, was the Golden Bears' team manager while he was a student at Acalanes High School in Lafayette, Calif.

The 32-year-old San Francisco native is was recently married to the former Amanda Mehan.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

SHELDON WHITE

Director of Pro Personnel

8th Year with Lions

Sheldon White begins his fifth season as Director of Pro Personnel. During his first three years in the Lions' personnel department, White fulfilled a myriad of roles – in 1997 as the team's BLESTO area scout, in 1998 as an area scout and in 1999 working in both the college and pro scouting areas.

While managing the pro personnel side of the team's scouting department, White is responsible for evaluating and scouting current Lions and NFL players, as well as NFL Europe, and handles day-to-day player transactions. He plays a key role in free agency and the draft. White also assists in some salary cap issues, negotiating contracts for selected draft choices and free agents and handles the budgeting for the scouting department.

This past off-season, White completed the NFL's career development program at Stanford's School of Business.

White, a Lions' defensive back from 1990-92, initially re-joined the organization in '97 as a BLESTO scout after coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio) from 1994-96. That post followed a six-year NFL playing career in which White also saw action for the New York Giants in 1988-89 and the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, White was a four-year starter at Miami (Ohio) from 1984-87, and was recently named to their first team All-Century team. He earned first-team All-MAC honors in 1986-87 and served as a key contributor to the Redskins' MAC title in '86.

In 1988, he was selected by the Giants in the third round of the NFL Draft, and was named to the All-NFL Rookie team by College & Pro Football Weekly. White was also named the team's Rookie of the Year after leading the club with four interceptions. Following a two-year stint in New York, White signed with the Lions. He played three seasons in Detroit and was a member of the 1991 team that won the NFC Central title and advanced to the NFC Championship game. White signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Bengals in '93, before entering the coaching ranks at Miami (Ohio) in 1994.

White, 39, is a graduate of Miami with a bachelor's of science degree in business administration, majoring in finance. He and his wife, Amy, have four children – sons, Sheldon II, 14, Jordan, 8, and Cody, 5, and a daughter, Lacy, 3.

SCOTT McEWEN

Director of College Scouting

18th Year with Lions

Scott McEwen is now in his 18th season working in Lions' personnel department. He manages the college side of the team's scouting department and is instrumental in developing the NFL Draft. McEwen is a key cog in the team's evaluation of college players throughout the country and plays an integral part in the Lions' preparation for the annual college selection meeting.

McEwen is the team's elder statesman among the members of the player personnel department, having been a member of the scouting staff for the longest period of time. He originally joined the organization in 1987.

A 1980 graduate of West Liberty State (W.V.), McEwen began his tenure with the Lions as an area scout after spending two seasons working for the BLESTO Scouting Service. Prior to his scouting career, the East McKeesport, Pa., native served as the defensive line coach at his alma mater from 1980-81, and later coached four seasons at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh.

McEwen and wife, Colleen, reside in Pittsburgh, and have four sons – Scott Jr., 17, Matthew, 16, Patrick, 14 and Michael, 9.

CHARLIE SANDERS

Assistant Director of Pro Personnel

15th Year with Lions

Long-time Lions' player and coach Charlie Sanders re-joined the club in a scouting role February 18, 1998. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Personnel March 1, 2000 after serving the previous two seasons as a pro scout. Sanders compiles reports and evaluations on upcoming Lions' opponents and players throughout the league, as well as aiding in preparation for the NFL Draft. This season is Sanders' 15th season working in the Lions' front office.

After eight years on the Lions' coaching staff (tight ends in 1989-90 and wide receivers in 1991-96), Sanders spent the 1997 season as a radio broadcaster on the team's flagship station, WXYT. That assignment added to a radio broadcast resume that also included time as the club's color commentator (1983-88).

One of the best tight ends of his era, Sanders caught 336 passes (fifth on the team's all-time list) during his 10-year career (1968-77) for 4,817 yards. He appeared in seven Pro Bowls, was twice named All-Pro and missed only 12 games during his career.

Drafted by the Lions in the third round from the University of Minnesota in 1968, Sanders was the only rookie that season selected to play in the Pro Bowl and he finished second to then-teammate Earl McCullough for NFL Rookie of the Year honors. Sanders was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1990 and in the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, his native state, in 1997.

Sanders and his wife, Georgianna, have nine children — Mia, Charese, Mary Jo, Georgianna, Charlie Jr., Nathalie, Tallisa, Wayne and Jordan.

RUSS BOLINGER

College Scouting Coordinator

9th Year with Lions

Russ Bolinger is currently the team's college scouting coordinator, and he has operated out of the Lions' home offices on a daily basis since June 2001. In his role, Bolinger assists in the planning and implementing of the Lions' overall college scouting program.

Bolinger is no stranger to the Lions' family, having spent seven of his 10 NFL seasons playing on the offensive line in Detroit from 1976-82. Now in his ninth year, he re-joined the Lions in 1996 working for the team's player personnel department as an area scout. After serving the club from the Lions' Silverdome offices in 1997 in a pro scouting capacity, Bolinger moved to Edmond, Okla., evaluating prospects throughout the south and western portions of the United States for the next three seasons.

From 1994-95, Bolinger served a two-year stint as a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Prior to his stint with the Jaguars, he spent three seasons at the University of Utah—serving as a graduate assistant in 1991 and as recruiting coordinator in 1992 and 1993. After leaving the Lions as a player in '82, he finished his career with the Los Angeles Rams from 1983-85, and also had a stint with the USFL Memphis Showboats in 1985.

A standout player at the University of California-Riverside and Long Beach State, he won the Lynn Hoyem Outstanding Senior Award and played in the 1976 East-West Shrine All-Star Game. He graduated from Long Beach State in 1975 with a bachelor's degree in liberal arts. He is an inductee in the both the University of California-Riverside Hall of Fame and Long Beach State Hall of Fame.

He and his wife, Paula, have four children, Joey, Kaylin, Jackie and Tony.

BOB BEERS

Personnel Scout

2nd Year with Lions

Bob Beers enters his second season with the Lions after spending eight years as a college scout with the Denver Broncos (1995-02). Beers also served a one-year stint (2003) as head coach for the Colorado Crush of the Arena Football League.

Before joining the Broncos in 1995, Beers was the offensive coordinator for the then World League (NFLE) Amsterdam Admirals, helping them to a 9-1 regular season record and World Bowl appearance.

Beers was the head coach at Western Montana for two seasons (1993-1994) and earned Conference Coach of the Year honors both years while the Bulldogs claimed two consecutive Frontier Conference titles. Prior to coaching Western Montana, Beers got his first taste of the professional coaching ranks, spending three seasons (1990-1992) as the offensive coordinator for the Frankfurt Galaxy of the World League. He spent 10 years coaching in the prep ranks in Oregon and Montana before brief stints as the offensive line coach at his alma mater, the University of Montana, and as the defensive coordinator at Montana Tech.

As a linebacker at Montana, Beers earned All-American honors as a junior and senior. Bob and his wife, Janelle, have three children: a son Bobby, 31, who was an assistant coach for the 2002 World Bowl Champion Berlin Thunder (NFLE) and two daughters, Carrie, 30, and Joey, 13. The family resides in Redmond, Ore.

CHAD HENRY

Personnel Scout

7th Year with Lions

Chad Henry enters his seventh year working full-time in the Lions' scouting department. During the 2000 off-season, Henry was promoted to area scout after serving the previous two seasons as the team's BLESTO scout. His scouting territory primarily includes the portion of the country east of the Mississippi River.

Henry, 32, possesses a variety of experience, both in coaching and scouting at all levels of football. Before being hired full-time in 1998, he spent a year as an intern in the Lions' personnel department and assisted both college and pro scouting in a variety of capacities. He also served as a personnel and coaching staff assistant for the San Diego Chargers during training camp in 1996.

Among Henry's coaching stops have been as varsity wide receivers/defensive backs/special teams coach and junior varsity offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Indiana (Pa.) Area Senior High School in the Fall of 1997 and as baseball coach for the American Legion Indiana (Pa.) Titans in 1996-97. He also volunteered several summers as an assistant coach and counselor for the high school football camp held at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Henry worked as a student assistant for the football program at Penn State University from 1991-93. He was also an undergraduate assistant coach/recruiting assistant at Indiana University of Pennsylvania upon transferring there in the spring of 1994.

In May 1996, Henry received his bachelor's degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in English. He completed his master's work in labor and industrial relations from the same school in May 1998.

Henry, and his wife, Holly, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa. Henry's father, Jack, coached the Lions' offensive line from 1997-99, and now serves as offensive line coach with the New Orleans Saints.

SILAS McKINNIE

Personnel Scout
2nd Year with Lions

Silas McKinnie enters his second season as personnel scout with the Lions. Prior to joining the club in 2003, McKinnie spent five NFL seasons (1997-02) as a regional scout with the Minnesota Vikings.

Prior to joining the Vikings, McKinnie concluded a 20-year career as a college basketball coach with a three-year stint as an assistant coach for the University of Miami (1994-96).

McKinnie played football at the University of Iowa from 1965-67, where he earned All-Big 10 honors as a running back. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in speech and dramatic arts. Following graduation, McKinnie played five seasons of professional football with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1968-71, '73). He signed with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972, but played the season with the Atlanta Falcons and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Silas Anthony McKinnie (1/24/46) was born in Detroit. He attended Robichaud High School in Dearborn, Mich., where he earned all-state honors in both football and basketball. He has a daughter, Ixchel, and a son, Lance.

DENNIS MURPHY

Pro Personnel and Advance Scout
8th Year with Lions

Dennis Murphy began his second tour of duty with the Lions when he was hired as pro personnel and advance scout in May 2003. Murphy was an assistant coach for the Lions from 1997-00, serving in defensive quality control and advance scout capacities.

Between his two terms in Detroit, Murphy worked two seasons (2001-02) as a pro scout for the Washington Redskins, and contributed to the evaluation of opponents and players throughout the NFL.

Murphy who earned five medals while serving in Vietnam, originally joined the Lions in 1997 following three seasons with the San Diego Chargers. He spent the 1996 campaign as an assistant for the Chargers' defense and special teams working with the squad's quality control and scouting of opponents' offensive tendencies. In his first two seasons with the Chargers (1994-95), Murphy tutored the Chargers' defensive line. Prior to joining the Chargers, spent two seasons (1992-93) at the United States Naval Academy where he was the defensive coordinator in 1993.

A native of South Bend, Ind., Murphy earned three letters as a defensive lineman/tight end at Notre Dame. He played in the North-South Shrine All-Star game.

He was commissioned as a Navy Flight Officer and during service in Vietnam earned the Vietnam Service Medal with three stars, the National Defense Medal and Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal.

Following his military commitment, Murphy returned to Notre Dame where he spent six years as a coach with the Fighting Irish. He was freshman coach in 1969 and junior varsity coach from 1970-74. In 1975, he moved on to Colgate where he coached the offensive line. He then spent two years (1976-77) as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Holy Cross. From 1978-81, he was the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at Eastern Michigan. In 1982, Murphy was hired at Maryland where he spent the next 10 years as defensive line coach before moving on to Navy.

Dennis Michael Murphy was born October 22, 1940 in Endicott, N.Y. He competed in baseball, wrestling and football for John Adams High School in South Bend, Ind., where he earned three letters and all-state honors. Murphy graduated from Notre Dame with a bachelor's of arts degree in 1963 and earned a master's of arts teaching degree from Notre Dame in 1969.

Denny's family includes three daughters, Michelle Leader, Kristen Walker, Lisa Banse, and son, Kevin.

LANCE NEWMARK

Personnel Scout
6th Year with Lions

Lance Newmark enters his sixth season as a personnel scout with the Lions. Newmark's primary responsibility will continue to be the area west of the Mississippi River.

Newmark's time with the Lions began in 1998, assisting the team's scouting efforts leading up to the 1999 NFL Draft. Shortly following that draft, Newmark was officially hired as an area scout May 1, 1999.

Newmark played wide receiver at San Diego Mesa College for two seasons, before transferring for one season to the University of San Diego. He holds a degree in social sciences. His head coach at San Diego Mesa was Martin Moss, a defensive lineman for the Detroit Lions from 1982-85.

Prior to his time in Detroit, Newmark worked two seasons (1994-95) for the San Diego Chargers as a staff assistant.

Newmark, 29, and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Oakland County.

DAVE UYRUS

Personnel Scout

5th Year with Lions

Dave Uyrus joined the Lions' personnel department as an area scout in June 2000, and 2004 marks his fifth season with the club. He handles scouting duties predominantly in the eastern third of the United States.

Previous to joining the scouting staff, he spent six seasons (1994-99) with the New England Patriots. Uyrus was Director of Pro Scouting from 1997-99 and Assistant Director of Pro Scouting from 1994-96.

Uyrus, 51, has been coaching and scouting in the collegiate and professional ranks for the past 29 years, beginning with his first job in 1974 as freshman coach of his alma mater, Middlebury College, where he remained for three seasons. He then joined Dick MacPherson's staff at Massachusetts as a graduate assistant in 1977-78 before moving on to American International in 1979 and Merchant Marine Academy in 1980.

Following those stints, Uyrus re-joined MacPherson at Syracuse in 1981, coaching the Orangemen's tight ends and special teams for 10 seasons (1981-90). He moved into the professional ranks after MacPherson was named the head coach of the Patriots in 1991. He spent the 1991-92 campaigns as the Patriots' assistant defensive line and special teams coach before coaching the tight ends and special teams at Cornell in 1993.

As a player, Uyrus earned honorable mention Little All-American, All-ECAC and All-New England Small College honors as a senior at Middlebury.

He and his wife, Heidi, have two daughters, Haley and Gwendolyn.

DENNIS GENTRY

Lions/Blesto Scout

4th Year with Lions

Dennis Gentry joined the Lions player' personnel department as the Lions/BLESTO personnel scout in 2001, and this season marks his fourth season with the Lions.

Gentry worked for the XFL's Chicago Enforcers as both a scout and running backs coach in August 2000. He concentrated heavily on offensive quality control and was responsible for analyzing the computerized breakdown of all games for the team's offense.

Prior to his stint in the XFL, he worked the 1998-99 seasons as a coach on the prep level in the state of Texas.

Gentry's first exposure to the NFL after his playing career came in 1997 when he was hired during camp to serve as an intern wide receivers coach for the Arizona Cardinals as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship program.

From 1982-93, Gentry played 11 seasons as a running back and kick returner for the Chicago Bears, and was a member of the Bears' Super Bowl XX championship team.

Gentry was drafted by Chicago in the the 1982 NFL Draft (4th Round) out of Baylor.

He graduated from the Baylor University with a bachelor's degree majoring in health and mathematics. Gentry, 45, and his wife, Jaye, reside in Woodway, Texas.

AL BELLAMY

Head Athletic Trainer

4th Year with Lions

Al Bellamy enters his fourth season as head athletic trainer. Chief among Bellamy's responsibilities is overseeing the Lions' medical staff.

Bellamy, 42, arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. Bellamy began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI.

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (Fla.) football team (1986-87). During this span, he worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship and included former Lions' safety Bennie Blades and wide receiver Brett Perriman. That assignment was his first full-time job, and came after he had earned his master's degree in Physical Education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in Health Education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop Caroll High School in Washington, DC.

He and his wife, Sharon, reside win Northville, Mich., with their son, Chase, and daughter, Ashley.

BILL KEENIST

Senior Vice President of Communications & Marketing

20th Year with Lions

Bill Keenist embarks upon his 20th year within the Lions' organization. In 2001, he was promoted to the post of senior vice president of communications and marketing. He works closely with the club's following departments: communications, marketing, sales, tickets, broadcasting, new media and community affairs. Keenist also serves as the team's chief spokesman on organizational matters.

For seven years prior, Keenist served as a team vice-president supervising the areas of communications, broadcasting and marketing. Since 1994, the team has launched its own television show, radio show, a state-wide preseason TV and highlight show network, team newspaper, magazine and Internet site. In June 2002, a study by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal rated 121 MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL team Internet sites, and Detroitlions.com was selected No. 2 overall.

Keenist leads in the negotiations of broadcast contracts for local radio and TV. The Lions current agreement with Infinity Broadcasting includes a simulcast of games on radio and two weekly shows. This year, the Lions enter into a new relationship with CBS-affiliate WWJ-TV Ch. 62 to broadcast the Lions preseason games and the team's weekly television show.

In 1997, Keenist directed a restructuring of the Lions' ticket office, which included the establishment of both a telemarketing and group sales departments. In the season prior to these changes, the season ticket base had fallen to near 30,000. In 2002, the first year at Ford Field, the Lions sold out their regular season ticket packages and, for the first time, have a waiting list for prospective season ticket buyers.

Keenist has been with the Lions since 1985 when he was hired as assistant public relations director. In 1987 he was named director of public relations, a position he held until his appointment as director of marketing, broadcasting and communications in 1991. He held that position until 1994 when he was promoted to vice president for administration and communications.

In 1981, Keenist's NFL career began when he worked for the Washington Redskins as a public relations assistant. He was a member of the Redskins staff when the team won Super Bowl XVII in 1983 over Miami. He also served as the Redskins' director of promotions in 1983.

After leaving the Redskins, Keenist returned home to the Pittsburgh area where he was the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League in 1984. After the Maulers' one season in the USFL, Keenist served as the sports public relations director for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, where he worked primarily with the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Keenist's talents have been recognized around the NFL. For Super Bowls XXIV through XXVIII he had the honor of being selected a public relations co-captain, which involves the coordination of all media-related activities at the Super Bowl. In all, he has worked a total of 13 Super Bowls for the NFL. In the past, he has served on the following NFL PR/Marketing Committees: Broadcasting, Governmental Affairs and Insider Magazine. Keenist has been the P.R. Chairman of the NFC Central division and Chairman of the Public Relations Special Projects Committee.

In 2002, Keenist was honored by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association with the "Best of the Best" award, which annually honors the top sports public relations person in the Detroit media market. In 2003, the Lions' 2002 club seat ticket commercial, produced by Keenist and Lions' Director of Broadcasting and New Media Bryan Bender, was nominated for an EMMY, a first for any Lions' production.

Keenist is a member of Detroit's Super Bowl XL Communications Task Force Committee.

A native of Elizabeth, Pa., Keenist holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. He also received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Ohio and was a recipient of a Sports Administration Scholarship from the NFL in 1981. As sports editor of The Ohio University Post in 1980, his sports section was named the Best College Sports Section in America by a national panel of sportswriters and columnists, an honor for which he received a post-graduate scholarship.

He then served a graduate internship at Duke University where he worked in the athletic department.

Keenist, 46, lives in Oxford with his wife Cindy and their three children, sons, Billy and Christopher, and daughter, Lindsay.

TOM LESNAU

Senior Vice President of Finance & Chief Financial Officer

27th Year with Lions

Tom Lesnau is entering his 27th season with the Lions organization. Prior to the 2003 season he was promoted to senior vice president in conjunction with the restructuring of the Lions front office. Lesnau is one of the senior members of the Lions management staff. His role consists of overseeing the club and stadium's financial, insurance, banking, computer, business systems and purchasing operations. Lesnau reports directly to Executive Vice President & COO Tom Lewand.

During the last several years, Lesnau has been involved in assisting Lewand with the initial start-up of Ford Field and the adjoining commercial development that has been recognized as one of the premiere venues in the NFL. Lesnau's involvement with the stadium development has spanned all the way from 1996, when a new state of the art stadium was proposed for downtown Detroit. During the last year Lesnau has coordinated a long-term financing arrangement for the Stadium and Warehouse projects, and the implementation of accounting and reporting systems for the new ventures in order to facilitate an integrated financial system for team and stadium operations.

Over the past year, Lesnau was instrumental in the development and implementation of a new combined budget strategy and process for the Lions and Ford Field, thus allowing the organization to strategically plan the direction of the two entities.

In his prior role, Lesnau established reporting controls to more effectively monitor the overall performance of the organization. He also revamped all computer operations of the team and implemented a new system for both financial operations and administrative areas of the club.

Lesnau gained five years of business and accounting experience with the international accounting firm of Ernst & Young from 1973 to 1978. He joined the Lions in 1978 as an accountant, took on the additional duties as travel coordinator in 1980, and was promoted to controller in 1991. He was promoted to the position of vice president of finance and chief financial officer in 1996. Prior to the team's relocation to Detroit, Lesnau was the primary contact with the City of Pontiac and the Pontiac Silverdome.

Lesnau graduated with honors from Michigan State University in 1973 with a degree in business administration/accounting and is a Certified Public Accountant. Lesnau is a member of the American Institute of C.P.A.s, the Michigan Association of C.P.A.s, and the Financial Executives Institute of America.

Lesnau's involvement with local charities includes positions as treasurer of Detroit Lions Charities, and also as treasurer and member of the Board of Directors of numerous other charitable organizations including the Detroit Lions Courage House, Kolo Charities and the Russ Thomas Scholarship Fund.

Lesnau is a native of the Detroit area, having lived substantially all of his life in the Detroit metropolitan area, and currently resides in Waterford.

MARTIN MAYHEW

4th Year with Lions

Martin Mayhew is entering his second season as the team's senior vice president of football administration and legal affairs, and fourth year with the organization. Mayhew plays a key role in coordinating the team's salary cap objectives, player contract negotiations and works in conjunction with Executive Vice President & COO Tom Lewand on all team-related legal affairs. He also assists Lewand on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures. Mayhew is primarily responsible for all football operations (including team travel, the medical staff, equipment operations, video department, groundskeeping, player development and security), human resources, practice facility operations and the cafeteria staff.

Mayhew is also involved in the Lions' Inclusion Council.

This summer, Sports Illustrated ranked Mayhew among the "Top 101 Most Influential Minorites in Sports."

In 2003, Mayhew completed the NFL's Program for Managers at Standford's School of Business.

After joining Lions in February 2001 as one of President and CEO Matt Millen's major additions to the team's front office staff, Mayhew entered the organization in the role of senior director of football administration/staff counsel, but after illustrating his talents and work ethic the past two years, he was promoted on February 3, 2003 to his current role.

Prior to joining the Lions, Mayhew was Director of Football Administration for the XFL, where he was instrumental in developing policies for the start-up professional football league. He was instrumental in developing league procedures for player transactions and the draft. Mayhew also planned the league's training camps and supervised team officials in their planning of practices and other team activities.

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has kept an eye on the future and has always thought one step ahead, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center (2000). He is one of only two members of the Lions' front office staff to have earned their law degree and also is a member of the Florida Bar.

During the 1999 NFL season, while attending law school, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. While with the Redskins, he scouted NFL players and late NFL cuts and also assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew also had two separate internship stints with the NFL League office in both the Labor Operations and Legal departments. With the Labor Operations Department, Mayhew worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving NFL player contracts and the salary cap. With the Legal Department, Mayhew assisted in-house labor counsel of the NFL by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He also was exposed to a taste of corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the primary firms used by the NFL as outside counsel. At Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

Before entering law school, Mayhew played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback for the Buffalo Bills (1988), Washington Redskins (1989-92) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL draft, and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

Mayhew entered the league after graduating from Florida State with a bachelor's of science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

Mayhew has also been extremely involved within the community throughout his professional career. In 1993, while playing for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award and the following year, he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. During the 1995 and 1996 seasons, Mayhew was the United Way Spokesperson for the Bucs. Mayhew is a member of the American Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Mayhew, 38, and his wife, Sabrina, have a daughter, Sierra, and a son, Ryan.

DAVE GLAZIER

Vice President of Business Development and Sales

4th Year with Lions

Dave Glazier enters his fourth season with the Lions after originally joining the club as a consultant in November 2001. Glazier was promoted to vice president of business development and sales in June 2002.

Glazier's responsibilities involve coordinating corporate sales and sponsorships, along with suites, premium seats and ticket sales. He directs several revenue mechanisms that are derived from games and events at Ford Field.

During Glazier's professional career, he has been involved in the opening of three stadiums, including Ford Field, Comerica Park and Coors Field (Denver), which included developing new business strategies.

Prior to joining the Lions in the fall of 2001, he was the vice president of business operations for the Detroit Tigers from 1995-01. The Tigers opened Comerica Park, which is across Brush St. from Ford Field in downtown Detroit, in 2000.

From 1991-95, Glazier was the vice president of sales & marketing for the Colorado Rockies, and was one of the first full-time employees hired by the club when the new franchise was launched in 1991. He joined the Rockies 18 months before the first pitch was thrown in the team's history. The Rockies opened their new stadium, Coors Field, in 1995 after playing their first two seasons at Mile High Stadium. In 1993, Colorado broke the Major League Baseball all-time attendance record with 4.5 million fans.

Glazier was the director of Cincinnati Reds television sales at WLWT from 1989-91. Before arriving in the Queen City, he was the director of sports marketing for Miller Sports Group (Miller Brewing Co.) from 1986-89.

Glazier's first venture in the professional sports industry following college was from 1983-86 when he was an administrator for the MLB American League office.

Glazier earned a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, and he earned a bachelor's degree from Capital University in his hometown of Columbus, Ohio where he also played basketball during his college days.

He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Jennifer, 16, and Mallory, 13.

Wt: 250
Hometown: Chickasha, Okla.
Acquired: '04, UFA-SD

PRO: Alexander joined the Lions on June 4, 2004 to add depth at the tight end position. The six-year veteran comes to Detroit after spending the past two seasons with the San Diego Chargers. He had his best season as a pro in 2000 with the Washington Redskins when he was named to the 2000 NFC Pro Bowl squad. Alexander entered the NFL as Washington's second-round pick (48th overall) in the 1998 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Motorcycle enthusiast who envisions building a motorcycle collection in his home one day. An avid rider since a teenager, Alexander enjoys both off-road trail riding and cruising the nation's highways.
- Had a chance to ride his motorcycle with professional Supercross competitor Grant Langston and X-Games gold medalist Tommy Clowers for a segment on FOX's NFL Under the Helmet.
- Has a twin brother, Michael.

2003:
- Hampered by injuries for most of the season, playing in only three games.
- Placed on the reserve/injured list on for the last two games of the season.

2002:
- Team's fourth-leading receiver with 45 catches for 510 yards.
- Missed two games in the middle of the season after suffering a foot injury versus Denver (10/6).
- Hauled in a 20-yard catch in overtime to set up the game-winning field goal against Denver (12/1).
- Had breakout day against Seattle (12/29) with a career-high 129 receiving yards and a career-best eight catches.

2001:
- Battled leg injuries for most of the season, which limited him to just seven games.
- Had a season-best five catches for 45 yards at the New York Giants (10/7).

2000:
- Named to NFC Pro Bowl squad after setting career highs in catches (47) and receiving yards (510).
- Only Redskins player to have at least one catch in every game.
- Team's third-leading receiver in catches and yards.
- Had a season-high five receptions at Arizona (11/5).
- Caught four passes for a season-high 85 yards at Pittsburgh (12/10).

1999:
- Named a first-alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad.
- Had a season and team-high five catches for 86 yards and two touchdowns against the New York Giants (9/19).
- Started both playoff games, catching two passes for 16 yards.

1998:
- Hauled in a career-high four touchdowns.
- Over the final eight weeks of the season, he caught 29 passes for 297 yards (10.2 avg) and three touchdowns.
- Had a career-high seven catches at Carolina (12/13).
- Helped key Redskins come-from-behind win with six catches for 62 yards, all in the fourth quarter, against Tampa Bay (12/19).

COLLEGE:
- Career totals at Oklahoma included 104 catches for 1,591 yards and six touchdowns.
- Named second-team All-Big 12 as a senior.
- Earned first-team All-Big 8 honors as a sophomore, leading the conference tight ends in catches with 43 for 580 yards and two touchdowns.

PERSONAL:
- A USA Today and Blue Chip Illustrated All-America selection and earned Super Prep National Player of the Year at Chickasha High School.
- All-state and two-time all-district Defensive Player of the Year as a defensive end.
- Also lettered in basketball and track, where he won state high jump title (6'8") as a junior.
- Member of National Honor Society, graduating 16th in his class with a 3.75 G.P.A.
- Resides in San Diego with his wife, Mandie.
- Born on November 7, 1975 in Chickasha, Okla.

SCOTTY ANDERSON

88

Wide Receiver
Grambling State
Ht: 6-2
Born: 11/24/79
Drafted: '01, R5a (148)-Det

4th Year
Wt: 200
Hometown: Jonesboro, La.

PRO: Anderson emerged as the Lions' deep receiving threat in 2003, accounting for the three longest plays from scrimmage during the season, including a career-long 72-yard touchdown catch. A tall receiver with an explosive initial burst, he put up career numbers during the 2003 season, his third in the NFL. He was the first of two fifth-round selections (148th overall) by the Lions in the 2001 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Has seen the movie Any Given Sunday dozens of times with his favorite character being Willie Beamen, played by Jamie Foxx.
- An avid golfer during his free time, he has a handicap around 11 or 12.
- Likes to hunt and fish, both in Michigan and back home in Louisiana.
- Has two brothers that played in the NFL. Anthony was a safety with the San Diego Chargers (1987), and Stevie saw action as a wide receiver with the New York Jets (1994) and Arizona Cardinals (1995-96).
- Would like to coach sports, either football or baseball, once his football career is over.

2003:

- The Lions leader with a career-high in receiving yards (325) and yards-per-catch (19.1) in 2003 before being placed on injured reserve with an ankle injury on November 18.
- Made a great play for a 43-yard touchdown at Denver (9/28) after catching a short pass and dancing through the Broncos defense for the score, the longest pass and touchdown of the season for the Lions.
- Recorded a career-high tying five catches for a career-high 77 yards against Chicago (11/9), including three on third down that all went for first downs.
- Followed up that performance with a career game at Seattle (11/16) before leaving at the end of the second quarter with an injured ankle. He caught two passes for a career-high and Lions season-high 87 yards, including a 72-yard touchdown reception from Joey Harrington. The touchdown was the longest reception of his career and gave him a career-high two touchdowns this season. It was the Lions' longest play since Johnnie Morton caught a 76-yard pass at Arizona on November 18, 2001.

- Started and had three receptions for 34 yards, all of which came on the final drive in regulation vs. Chicago (10/20) resulting in a game-tying field goal.
- Had a career day at Chicago (11/24), finishing with five receptions for 70 yards.

2001:

- Inactive for first four games of rookie year.
- Had career day vs. Green Bay (11/22), catching first NFL touchdown to bring team to within two points with 18 seconds remaining in game.

- Pulled in longest career pass to date (69-yarrds) vs. Minnesota (12/16).

COLLEGE:
- Grambling State's all-time career leader with 195 catches for 3,334 yards (17.1 avg.) and 35 TDs, easily eclipsing all three marks (previously by Trumaine Johnson, 1979-82).
- Three-year starter who developed into the team's clutch receiver and primary target throughout his college career.
- Became the only player in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season twice (1999-2000).
- All-American first-team selection by The Associated Press, The Sports Network, Sports Xchange and Sheridan Broadcasting Network & Black College Sports in 2000 as well as being a All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first-team choice after he broke his own school season records (from 1999) with 76 receptions for 1,298 yards (17.1 avg).

PERSONAL:
- Lettered in football as a wide receiver at Jonesboro-Hodge (La.) High.
- Son of Kotie and Austin Anderson.
- Born 11/24/79 in Jonesboro, La.

ROD BABERS

26

Cornerback
Texas
Ht: 5-9
Born: 10/6/80
Drafted: '03, R4 (123)-NYG

2nd Year
Wt: 185
Hometown: Houston, Texas
Acquired: '03, W-NYG

PRO: After being claimed off waivers from the New York Giants on September 8, 2003, Babers got into the rotation at cornerback in Week 4 and showed promise on both defense and special teams. His rookie season was cut short, however, when he injured his shoulder and was placed on the reserve/injured list on November 11. Babers was drafted by the Giants in the fourth round (123rd overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft after a standout career at the University of Texas and spent training camp in New York.

MANE FACTS

- Babers was a teammate of Lions second-year DE Cory Redding, fourth-year DT Shaun Rogers and rookie WR Roy Williams at the University of Texas.
- Nicknamed "Kool Aid."
- Worked with 80 at-risk youth at the annual Detroit Lions and United Way Community Services "Hometown Huddle."
- Signed autographs in Dearborn to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Attended Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

2003:
- Saw his first NFL action at Denver (9/28), playing on special teams and recorded a pair of special teams tackles on punt coverage.
- Tied for the team lead with three special teams tackles at San Francisco (10/5) and also played on defense for the first time.
- Registered three solo tackles against Dallas (10/19) after seeing his first significant time on defense.
- Left the game at Chicago (10/26) in the first quarter and did not return after suffering a shoulder injury on punt coverage.
- Re-injured his shoulder against Chicago (11/9) in the first quarter and did not return. He was placed on the reserve/injured list on November 11.

COLLEGE:
- Three-year starter at Texas who teamed with Nathan Vasher to form one of the best cornerback tandems in college football.
- Recorded 131 tackles (104 solos) with four sacks and 11 stops for losses (-50) in 47 games as well as five interceptions for 176 yards in returns with three TDs.
- His interception return average of 35.2 yards shattered the previous school career-record of 20.1 yards by Chris Carter (13 for 261 yards, 1993-96). Only Carter (261) and Bobby Dillon (190, 1949-51) gained more yards in a career on interception returns for the Longhorns.
- As a senior in 2002, Babers was an All-American second-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, All-Big 12 Conference first-team choice and a semi-finalist for the Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back.
- Started every game at left cornerback in 2002, recording 42 tackles (30 solos), two interceptions (one TD), and led the team with 20 pass deflections, the fourth-best season total in school history.
- An All-Big 12 Conference second-team selection by The NFL Draft Report in 2001 after he teamed with Quentin Jammer to give the Longhorns an elite cornerback tandem as they combined to deflect 41 passes.

PERSONAL:
- Born Roderick Henri Babers on October 6, 1980 in Houston.
- Earned USA Today All-America honorable mention, Texas Class 5A All-State third-team, All-Greater Houston and All-District first-team honors at Lamar High School.
- Had three defensive touchdowns his senior year of high school, two on interceptions and one fumble return.

JEFF BACKUS

Tackle
Michigan
Ht: 6-5
Born: 9/21/77
Drafted: '01, R1 (18)-Det

4th Year
Wt: 305
Hometown: Norcross, Ga.

PRO: Backus is the Lions' mainstay at left tackle, having started 48 consecutive games since being drafted in the first round (18th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft. A well-rounded competitor who battles with aggression and shows good initial quickness off the snap to gain advantage on the defender, Backus was the first Lions' first-round selection to start all 16 games as a rookie since Luther Elliss did in his rookie year in 1995. He was also the first Lions' offensive player selected in the first round to start all 16 games as a rookie since Lomas Brown in 1985.

MANE FACTS

- Backus is only the second player out of the University of Michigan to be taken in the first round by the Lions, and the first since Detroit selected Bob Westfall in 1942 with its first pick.
- Although he spent most of his childhood in suburban Atlanta, Backus was born in Midland, Mich.
- Spends much of his free time hunting.
- Donated Lions' tickets to C.S. Mott Children's Hospital through Lions CATS for kids program.
- Took part in a special wall-raising ceremony to begin the building of the first Habitat for Humanity home sponsored by the Lions.
- Participated in annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf tournament to benefit Detroit Lions Charities.
- Took part in Detroit Lions Pet Calendar to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.

2003:

- Recipient of the Eric Andolsek Top Offensive Lineman Award.
- For the second straight season the Lions' offensive line led the league in sacks allowed with just 11, nine better than their previous franchise record of 20 set in 2002.
- Protected QB Joey Harrington as he led the NFL in sacks per pass play ratio among quarterbacks at 1.60% (nine sacks/563 pass plays), the second straight year he has led in that category.
- The Lions allowed no sacks in seven games—vs. Arizona (9/7), at San Francisco (10/5), at Chicago (10/26), vs. Oakland (11/2), at Minnesota (11/23), vs. San Diego (12/7) and at Kansas City (12/14).

2002:

- Key contributor on offensive line that set franchise record (since 1963) with only 20 sacks allowed, which were also the fewest in the NFL.
- Played large part in Joey Harrington finishing season with the league's lowest sack per pass play ratio among passers (eight sacks/437 pass plays for 1.83%).
- Offensive line unit allowed no sacks in seven games—vs. New Orleans (9/29), at Buffalo (10/27), at Green Bay (11/10), vs. New York Jets (11/17), vs. New England (11/28), at Arizona (12/8) and vs. Minnesota (12/29)—and only one sack in four other contests—vs. Green Bay (9/22), at Minnesota (10/13), vs. Dallas (11/3), vs. Tampa Bay (12/15).
- Helped pave way for James Stewart's second 1,000-yard season in three years, including a career-high 172-yard rushing effort in Lions' 23-20 overtime win vs. Chicago (10/20).
- Sustained a bone bruise to left knee early in training camp (7/30) which hindered play during the early part of the season but still managed to start in all 16 games.

2001:

- Solidified the left tackle position as a rookie, starting in all 16 games.
- Selected to the Pro Football Weekly and Pro Football News All-Rookie teams.
- Helped hold up the Vikings' defensive line for Lions' 129-yard rushing and 345-yard passing outing at Minnesota (10/14).
- Protected the blindside of Charlie Batch who posted 436 passing yards at Arizona (11/18).
- Suffered a lower leg laceration that sidelined him in the fourth quarter at Tampa Bay (12/9).

COLLEGE:

- Starter for the Wolverines at left tackle from 1997-00, finishing his career with 49 consecutive starts, one shy of the school record of 50 by current Washington Redskins' starting right tackle, Jon Jansen (1995-98). Teamed with Seattle Seahawks 2001 first round pick, guard Steve Hutchinson, to man the left side of Michigan's offensive line since their freshman campaigns.
- Earned All-Big Ten honors in four straight years and was an All-American second-team selection by College Football News and ABC Sports, earning honorable mention from CNN/Sports Illustrated and consensus All-Big Ten first-team pick as a senior, as well as being a candidate for both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Awards.
- Co-recipient of the Hugh H. Rader Award for his junior and senior years, given to the team's top offensive lineman.
- In 1999, he was an All-Big Ten first-team selection by the media, earned University of Michigan Athletic Academic Achievement honors after starting every game at left tackle, collecting 67 key blocks for an offense that averaged 264.8 yards per game passing.
- Started at left tackle during Michigan's march to the 1997 Rose Bowl and had a hand in Wolverines winning a piece of the national championship (Associated Press).
- General studies major at Michigan and earned his degree in December 2000.

PERSONAL:

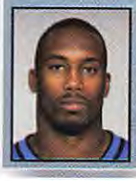

- Born Jeffrey Carl Backus on September 21, 1977 in Midland, Mich.
- Selected to the first-team All-USA squad by USA Today at Norcross (Ga.) High.
- He was also picked to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super 11 and the Super Seven of the Macon Touchdown Club and was chosen as the Gwinnett Touchdown Club Lineman of the Year.
- Selected to play in the Florida-Georgia All-Star Game following his senior season.
- Named All-American by Scholastic Coach, Schutt Sports, Reebok, Prep Football Report, Super Prep and was a member of Blue Chip Illustrated's Dream Team.
- Also started four years of high school baseball, playing first base and pitching.
- His mother, uncle and grandfather all graduated from Michigan.

BOSS BAILEY

Linebacker
Georgia
Ht: 6-3
Born: 10/14/79
Drafted: '03, R2 (34)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 235
Hometown: Folkston, Ga.

PRO: Bailey immediately became the Lions' starter at strongside linebacker and started all 16 games as a rookie in 2003, emerging as one of the top young linebackers in the NFL and shows the potential to be an all-pro. The Lions took Bailey in the second round with the 34th overall pick in the 2003 NFL Draft and were impressed with his speed and ability to get to the ball.

MANE FACTS

- Given name is Rodney but goes by Boss, a name his grandmother gave him.
- Football runs in Bailey's blood as his older brother, Champ, was an All-American cornerback and wide receiver at Georgia (1996-98) and was selected in the first round of the 1999 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins and has played in four Pro Bowls. His older brother, Ronald, started at Georgia and served a stint in NFL Europe (Frankfurt Galaxy, 1999).
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."
- Attended Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
- Attended teammate Earl Holmes' "Holmes for Families Foundation" event as a volunteer handing out Thanksgiving dinners to families through the Children's Aid Society Project Permanency Program (CAS).

2003:

- Voted the team's Mel Farr Rookie of the Year.
- Named to the ESPN.com and Football Digest all-rookie teams.
- Tied a then-career-high with nine tackles (eight solos) and had the first sack of his career on Chris Chandler at Chicago (10/26).
- Shared the team lead with nine tackles (five solos) against Oakland (11/2) as well as a pass defense and his first career forced fumble when he knocked the ball out of the hands of Marques Tuiasosopo.
- One of five finalists for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week Award for his efforts against Chicago (11/9) after he collected seven solo tackles, a half-sack, a tackle-for-loss and two big pass defenses.
- Put together his best game of the season at Carolina (12/21) with a career and team-high 13 tackles (11 solos) and a 62-yard fumble return for a touchdown, his first career score. He earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors for his efforts against the Panthers and the 13 tackles put him over 100 for the season.
- Nominated for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week after the game against St. Louis (12/28) when he had his first career interception as well as six tackles (five solos). His pick of Rams QB Marc Bulger led to a Jason Hanson field goal which put the Lions up 27-20.

COLLEGE:

- Three-year starter and was "heart and soul" of the Bulldogs' defense, carrying on the family tradition passed down by his brother, Champ, an All-American cornerback now with the Denver Broncos.
- Emerged as one of the premier defenders in the SEC after recording 266 tackles (151 solos) with 7.5 sacks, 22 stops behind the line of scrimmage, 29 quarterback pressures, three forced fumbles, two interceptions, 11 pass deflections and three blocked kicks while starting 35 of 48 games in his career.
- An All-SEC first-team selection and a semifinalist for the Butkus and Lombardi Awards as a senior in 2002. Bailey was a defensive catalyst for Georgia as they claimed the SEC Championship and a Sugar Bowl win over Florida State after starting every game at strongside outside linebacker, leading the team with a career-high 114 tackles (63 solos), including six sacks for minus-55 yards and 10 stops for losses of 66 yards.
- Named All-SEC second-team by the league's coaches in 2001.
- Did not play in 2000 after injuring his knee on opening kickoff of season opener and received a redshirt year.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Charlton County (Ga.) High where he was USA Today All-USA honorable mention, chosen as one of the Super Eleven, Super Southern 100 and Top 50 in Georgia by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and was named to the Macon Telegraph Sweet 16, 1998 Fox Sports South Countdown to Signing Day all-South third-team and all-region.
- Played quarterback, punter and on defense. He averaged 36.3 yards on 10 punts and had 143 tackles, three sacks and four interceptions and totaled 1,079 yards and 23 touchdowns rushing and 1,243 yards and 16 touchdowns passing.
- Finished as the school's all-time leading passer with 1,243 yards and 16 touchdowns in addition to 1,079 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on the ground.
- Received team's Linebacker Award and Freshman Award.
- Also a track and field standout as he reached the 1996 Class A State Championships in the 110-meter hurdles and received the track squad's Sprint Award.
- He and wife, Amber, are the parents of three-year-old Khalil and infant twins, Kendall and Kayden.

BRADFORD BANTA

Tight End
Southern California
Ht: 6-6
Born: 12/14/70
Drafted: '94, R4 (106)-Ind

11th Year
Wt: 257
Hometown: Baton Rouge, La
Acquired: '01, UFA-NYJ

PRO: Banta, a veteran tight end who originally signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Lions April 19, 2001, has been used primarily as the team's long snapper on special teams. He played the first six seasons of his NFL career with the Indianapolis Colts (1994-99) and the 2000 campaign with the New York Jets. One of the league's most accurate long snappers throughout his career, he snapped for two Pro Bowlers – P Chris Gardocki and K Cary Blanchard – during his tenure in Indianapolis. He was originally selected by Indianapolis in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Appeared in the Detroit Lions Pet Calendar to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- While with Indianapolis, he participated for two years in celebrity theater production to benefit Indiana Repertory Theater.
- Has made numerous visits to schools and civic organizations throughout his career.
- Heavily involved with the Indiana School for the Blind, where he organized and helped sponsor the Making Waves Swim-A-Thon at the IUPUI Natatorium, with the program benefiting the Indiana Blind Children's Foundation.

- Lions' long snapper in the first 13 games of the season.
- Left the game versus San Diego (12/7) after breaking his clavicle and was placed on the Reserve/Injured list on December 8.

2002:
- Team's long snapper who also made contributions on the Lions punt coverage unit, which was the best in the NFL in 2002, finishing with 10 special teams tackles.

2001:
- Served as team's long snapper.
- Led team in special teams tackles with three vs. Tampa Bay (11/11).

2000:
- Saw action as long snapper in all 16 games in his lone season with the New York Jets.
- Signed with the Jets August 29, 2000, two days after being released by the Colts.
- In addition to snapping duties, he registered six special teams tackles.

1999:
- Primary action once again came as long snapper.
- Helped K Mike Vanderjagt to an outstanding season, which included 26 consecutive made field goals.

1998:
- Saw action in all 16 games for third time in his career, mostly as long-snapper and special teamer.
- Made five special teams tackles and also recovered a fumble on special teams vs. Miami (9/6) to set up a Colts' field goal.
- Second career reception as a tight end came on a seven-yarder vs. New England (11/7).

1997:
- Inactive in season opener at Miami (8/31) with a knee injury, but played in all 15 games thereafter.
- Served as fourth tight end (no receptions) and had four special teams tackles – two apiece coming at Detroit (11/23) and at Minnesota (12/21).

1996:
- Inactive for three-game stretch in October after breaking his hand at Buffalo (10/6).
- Collected seven special teams tackles in regular season play, in addition to two stops in AFC Wild Card Playoff game at Pittsburgh (12/29).

1995:
- Earned the only two starts of his career at tight end and collected his first career reception (six yards) vs. San Diego (12/17).
- Two starts came when Colts opened game in two-tight end alignment vs. St. Louis (10/1) and at New England (11/19).

1994:
- Emerged as team's long-snapper in rookie campaign and saw action in all 16 games.
- Ranked seventh on squad with nine special teams tackles.

COLLEGE:
- Four-year letterman and two-year starter at tight end at USC.
- Career college statistics include 47 receptions for 491 yards and four touchdowns.

PRO: The Lions' claimed the contract rights to Bell on June 11, 2004 after he had spent the first three seasons of his career with Arizona. Bell was the Cardinals' second selection in the fourth round (123rd overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Was among a stellar group of defenders as a senior at Memphis and was one of five defensive players to be honored on the All-Conference USA first team, which tied a league record.
- Anchored a defensive line at Memphis that provided the nation's top rushing defense during his senior campaign.

2003:

- Inactive for first two games of season due to knee injury suffered during final preseason game.
- Saw first action of the season vs. Green Bay (9/21), racking up 2 tackles (1 solo) and one pass defensed at the line of scrimmage.
- Recorded career-high two stops for loss in his first start of the season at St. Louis (9/28).
- Led Cardinal defensive linemen with five tackles and forced career-first fumble at Dallas (10/5).
- Nearly intercepted a ball he defensed vs. SF (10/26).
- Sidelined for Carolina game (12/14) due to upper respiratory illness.

2002:

- Recorded four tackles (two solo) and one pass deflection at the line of scrimmage at Washington (9/8).
- Came through with timely pressure of Giant's QB Kerry Collins as the hurried throw was intercepted at the 11-yard line by cornerback David Barrett to end a Giant scoring threat (9/29).
- Registered three tackles and first sack of the season at Kansas City (12/1).
- Had solid day vs. San Francisco (12/21) with four tackles and a first-quarter sack on third-and-nine at the Cardinal 24-yard line to force a 42-yard field goal attempt.

2001:

- Suffered an elbow injury after two solo stops and one assist vs. Denver (9/23), making him inactive for the next three games.
- Led all defensive linemen with 10 combined tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (11/11), his first and only double-digit tackle game and showed impressive speed as he stopped Giant TE Howard Cross for a seven-yard gain on third-and-eight, forcing the Giants to settle for a fourth-quarter field goal.
- Deflected a pass that teammate Ronald McKinnon intercepted and ran 24 yards to the end zone to give the Cards a 7-3 second-quarter lead vs. Dallas as Arizona was on its way to a 17-10 victory.
- Played more defensive snaps (65) than any other Cardinal lineman at Washington (1/6), resulting in eight tackles (5 solos) and a hurry of QB Tony Banks after which Banks left the game with a thigh injury.

COLLEGE:

- Anchor of the nation's top-rated rushing defense as a senior.
- One of five Tiger defenders to earn first-team all-Conference USA honors as a senior, tying a league record.
- Started only 20 games, recording 34 tackles behind the line of scrimmage and 10 sacks at nose guard in his collegiate career.
- 16 tackles behind the line of scrimmage during his senior campaign ranks fifth on the Memphis single-season list.

PERSONAL:

- Two-way tackle Kingsbury (Memphis, Tenn.) High School.
- All-Tennessee class 3-A selection at offensive and defensive line in 1996.

Drafted: '99, R2 (41)-StL

6th Year
Wt: 185
Hometown: Chesapeake, Va.
Acquired: '03, UFA-StL

PRO: Bly established himself as an elite cornerback in the NFL in 2003, his first year with the Lions, earning a starting spot in the 2004 Pro Bowl. Detroit made a big splash when they signed Bly to a five-year contract on March 1, 2003, within 36 hours of when the free agent market opened, and he did not disappoint as he became the Lions' top defensive player in 2003. He solidified his reputation as a playmaker last season, intercepting six passes, forcing five fumbles and recovering three more and had two defensive touchdowns as well as shutting down some of the top receivers in the NFL. Bly came to Detroit in the prime of his career after his first full season as a starter for the St. Louis Rams in 2002. While in St. Louis, he played in seven playoff games and two Super Bowls, including the Rams' Super Bowl XXXIV title as a rookie. He was originally selected by Rams in the second round (41st overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft after a standout career at the University of North Carolina.

MANE FACTS

- This past off-season, Bly donated $150,000 to the University of North Carolina to set up a football scholarship in his name. Bly, the son of two teachers, wanted to give the opportunity to others to have a similar experience as he had at North Carolina.
- Bly has returned four of his 20 career interceptions for touchdowns with all four returns being more than 45 yards (48, 53, 56, 93). He also has two fumble returns for touchdowns.
- Growing up in Virginia, he idolized former all-pro cornerback Deion Sanders and was a fan of the Dallas Cowboys.
- Bly is one of only four players in college football history to be named an All-American as a freshman. The others are Tony Dorsett, Herschel Walker, Bjorn Merten and Marshall Faulk, Bly's teammate in St. Louis.
- A very talented all-around athlete, Bly had many scholarship offers from Division I schools in baseball as well as football.
- Donated Lions' tickets to the Detroit Recreation Department through Lions CATS for Kids program.
- Attended charity autograph signing (Feb. 21, 2004) in Dearborn to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Attended 2003 HAVEN Holiday Party for residents of the Lions Courage House.

2003:

- Named as a starter in the 2004 Pro Bowl after leading all NFC cornerbacks in fan voting and was just one of three cornerbacks (Champ Bailey, Washington and Troy Vincent, Philadelphia) to be selected to the game, and the first Lions' cornerback since Lem Barney in 1977 to play in the game.
- Named to Pro Football Weekly's All-NFC Team.
- Earned the Lem Barney Defensive MVP Award from his teammates as well as being named the team captain for the defense.
- Recorded either a fumble recovery, forced fumble or interception in 10 of the 14 games he played.
- Set career-highs in fumble recoveries (three) and forced fumbles (five) and tied a career-best with six interceptions. His five forced fumbles led all NFL defensive backs and his six interceptions ranked seventh overall in the league.
- One of only two players in the NFL (St. Louis S Aeneas Williams) to have both a fumble return and an interception return for a touchdown.
- Despite missing the entire preseason with a sprained ankle, he started the year off strong with interceptions in four of his first five games with Detroit.
- Made a huge splash in his Lions debut against Arizona (9/7) after returning an interception 48 yards for a touchdown, the fourth interception touchdown return of his career.
- Registered an interception in his third straight game for the first time in his career when he picked off Gus Frerotte against Minnesota (9/21). He also added the third sack of his career when he brought down Daunte Culpepper.
- Scored his second defensive touchdown of the season against Dallas (10/19) when he recovered a fumble by Troy Hambrick and took it back 67 yards, his second career fumble return for a touchdown. He also held Joey Galloway to zero catches in the game.
- Missed the first two games of his NFL career (snapping a streak of 71 straight) against Oakland (11/2) and Chicago (11/9) after suffering a hamstring injury in practice.
- Made a big defensive play at Minnesota (11/23) when he stripped Moe Williams of the ball, picked up the fumble and ran 44 yards before tossing it to teammate Corey Harris who ran the final 35 yards for a touchdown. The play earned NFL Play of the Week honors. He also collected five tackles (four solos) against the Vikings as well as holding all-pro Randy Moss to just five catches for 56 yards and no touchdowns.
- Played his most dominating game of the year against Green Bay (11/27) in a Thanksgiving Day matchup, which earned him Fox's Galloping Gobbler Award. He recorded two interceptions of QB Brett Favre, forced a fumble and had three passes defensed. It was the first two-interception game of his career and the first time he had forced fumbles in consecutive games. He was the first Lion to have more than one pick in a game since Bryant Westbrook did on October 19, 2000 at Tampa Bay. One of his pass defenses was knocking down Favre's Hail Mary pass to preserve the Lions' win.
- Had a career-high two forced fumbles, including one that Boss Bailey returned 62 yards for a touchdown, at Carolina (12/21).
- Capped off the best season of his career with a team-leading eight tackles (seven solos) against St. Louis (12/28), his former team, as well as a forced fumble, a pass defense and a tackle-for-loss. Bly had a 17-yard runback after Boss Bailey intercepted a Marc Bulger pass and lateraled the ball to him. In the game, he held Torry Holt, the NFL's leading receiver, to just five catches for 54 yards and no touchdowns.
- Continued to demonstrate his playmaking abilities in the 2004 Pro Bowl when he returned an interception off MVP QB Peyton Manning 32 yards for the go-ahead touchdown. Bly added a forced fumble, which was returned to the two-yard-line by Bears CB Jerry Azumah.

- Set career-highs in tackles (79) and passes defensed (25) after starting all 16 games for the first time in his career.
- Led the secondary with 10 tackles (career-high nine solo), one interception and one pass defense vs. Dallas (9/29).
- Had three solo tackles and one pass defense and recovered an onside kick with 3:06 left in the game to setup game-winning scoring drive vs. San Diego (11/10).
- Tallied eight tackles (six solo) with one for a loss and one pass defense and returned four punts for a 27.5-yard average vs. Arizona (12/15), including a 78-yard return for a touchdown which was his first career punt return for a touchdown.
- Had three solo tackles, a pass defense and forced a fumble on 49ers RB Garrison Hearst which he recovered and returned 20 yards for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:05 left in game, helping the Rams overcome a 20-3 deficit to defeat San Francisco (12/30), 31-20.

2001:

- Finished sixth in the NFC with a career-high six interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns.
- Established a postseason career-high with 10 tackles (nine solos) and four pass defenses.
- Made one tackle and had a key interception that set up an 11-play,

99-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Marshall Faulk to break open the Rams' lead to 28-10 against Miami (9/30).
- Set career-high by tallying 11 tackles (seven solos) in a Monday Night Football contest at Detroit (10/8) in addition to returning an intercepted pass from Lions QB Ty Detmer with 3:56 left in first quarter, 93 yards for a touchdown, the sixth longest interception return for a touchdown in Rams' history.
- Collected seven tackles and an interception, returning it 56 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter at Atlanta (12/2).
- Started game at New Orleans (12/17), and was tied for the lead among defensive backs (S Kim Herring) with eight tackles and also made a fourth quarter interception in the end zone.
- Returned one punt for seven yards, collected three tackles, and recovered a fumble on Panthers' field goal attempt returning it 15 yards before pitching it to CB Dexter McCleon, who ran the final 29 yards for the touchdown to give the Rams a 21-10 lead in the second quarter at Carolina (12/23).

2000:
- Collected first interception of season for 22 yards and had a season-high three pass defenses vs. San Francisco (9/17).
- Recorded four tackles (three solo), first career sack and one interception for eight yards at Atlanta (9/24).
- Recorded one interception for 14 yards and made three solo tackles in season finale at New Orleans (12/24), helping Rams clinch playoff berth.

1999:
- Ranked third on the Rams with three interceptions.
- Collected his first NFL interception against San Francisco QB Jeff Garcia in the fourth quarter of 42-20 victory (10/10).
- Sealed Rams' division-title clinching win over Carolina (12/5) with 53-yard interception return for touchdown in fourth quarter.
- Earned NFL Defensive Player of the Week Award after intercepting a pass in the fourth quarter that led to the Rams' game winning touchdown drive in the NFC Championship Game (1/23).

COLLEGE:
- Only player in the history of North Carolina and the ACC to earn consensus first-team All-America honors three times in career (first player to accomplish feat since Herschel Walker of Georgia 1980-82).
- Finished college career with 102 tackles and conference record 20 interceptions.
- One of three finalists for Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Year Award as sophomore.
- In 1996, he became first freshman to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in ACC history, was a finalist for Jim Thorpe Award as National Defensive Back of the Year and was the ACC Rookie of the Year, setting a conference record with 11 interceptions.

PERSONAL:
- Full name is Donald André Bly.
- Graduated from Western Branch High in Chesapeake, Va., where he was an all-Tidewater, all-city, all-Eastern region, all-state and all-district choice after having 36 career touchdowns and 16 interceptions as three-year starter.
- Lettered three times as centerfielder on baseball team.
- Married (Kristyn) with three sons (Trey, Jordan and Aaron).

FERNANDO BRYANT

25

Cornerback
Alabama
Ht: 5-10
Born: 3/26/77
Drafted: '99, R1 (26)-Jax

6th Year
Wt: 175
Hometown: Murfeesboro, Ten.
Acquired: '04, UFA-Jax

PRO: The Lions coveted Bryant in the first week of free agency, signing him to a six-year contract on March 5, 2004. A solid veteran left cornerback with loads of talent, he will start opposite Dré Bly. In his five years in Jacksonville, he started 71 of 72 games, tying for the most starts by a cornerback in a Jacksonville career. As a rookie in 1999, he became only the second Jaguar to start every game as a rookie. Jacksonville selected Bryant in the first round (26th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- A diehard San Francisco 49ers fan when he was growing up.
- A self-proclaimed "Superman buff", he loves Smallville and collects all kinds of memorabilia from Superman, Star Wars, Spiderman and other science fiction titles.
- Participated in the 2004 Detroit Lions Invitational to benefit Detroit Lions Charities.
- A fan of the Colorado Avalanche, especially when Patrick Roy played there.
- One of Jaguars' most visible players in the community when he played in Jacksonville.
- Established the 25-Sports Foundation in 2001 to help provide guidance and encouragement to inner-city children through a variety of programs.
- Supports organ donation programs (brother, Larry, received a life-saving kidney transplant in 2001).
- Volunteered year-round at Jacksonville's Hubbard House, a shelter for battered women and their children.
- Filmed a public service announcement in 2000 and helped produce a brochure for their Men Against Violence Against Women Program (MAVAW).
- Hosted 15 disadvantaged youth, "Fernando's Commandos," during each Jaguars home game.
- Spokesman for the Wireless Foundation's national Call to Protect/ Donate-a-Phone program in 2001-02, which provides refurbished wireless phones to benefit victims of domestic violence and spearheaded a game day ALLTEL Stadium collection last October when Jaguars fans donated over 650 wireless phones.
- Volunteered with Jacksonville's I.M. Sulzbacher Center for the Homeless, annually supporting its holiday card fundraising program.
- Led Jaguars Thanksgiving-week food distribution efforts by way of Operation Blessing, which provides donated food items to over 3,000 Northside families.
- 2000 recipient of the Jaguars/Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida Community Champion Award and another team-sponsored community leader award. Donated $3,000 from both awards to Hubbard House.
- Served meals at local homeless shelters, speaks at elementary schools, visits sick and injured children at Wolfson Children's Hospital and makes numerous other appearances to support the community and his teammates.
- Held a dinner fundraiser during 2002 season and a special holiday shopping spree at a local Sports Authority store for disadvantaged youth.

2003:

- Started all 16 games and in eight of the games, played every snap on defense.
- Made six tackles at Indianapolis (9/21) and held all-pro WR Marvin Harrison to just 31 yards on four catches.
- Put together a solid effort at Houston (9/28) with three pass defenses and his first interception of the season off David Carr.

2002:

- Played left cornerback and started all 16 games for second time in career and first time since rookie season.
- Led team's corners with 67 tackles (61 solos).

- Received a defense game ball for performance vs. Philadelphia (10/6) when he made seven tackles while playing with a sprained ankle.

2001:
- Missed six games with a foot injury, his most missed games in a season since he started playing football.
- Finished with 56 tackles (50 solos), tops among team's cornerbacks.
- Suffered a foot injury vs. Cleveland (9/30) after making nine tackles, tying his career high, and was inactive next game.
- Did not start but played as nickel back when he returned vs. Buffalo (10/18).
- Re-injured his foot in Monday night game vs. Green Bay (12/3) after making season-high 10 tackles.
- Inactive next four games, then was placed on injured reserve on January 1 before season finale.

2000:
- Started all 14 games played, leading team's cornerbacks with 57 tackles (42 solos).
- Received a defense game ball along with 13 other players for team's first shutout ever on vs. Cincinnati (9/17).
- Tied for team lead with seven tackles (six solos) in Monday night game at Indianapolis (9/25).
- Suffered hamstring injury in Monday night game at Tennessee (10/16), and although he finished the game, it forced him to be inactive for following game vs. Washington, missing his first game as a Jaguar and first football game since 1995, when he was a freshman at Alabama.
- Returned to starting lineup on at Dallas (10/29), making four tackles and recovering a fumble to thwart a Dallas drive in the fourth quarter.
- Suffered sprained left ankle in first quarter and left game vs. Cleveland (12/3) which caused him to be inactive next week vs. Arizona.

1999:
- Named to every All-Rookie team (Pro Football Writers of America/ Pro Football Weekly, Football News, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest).
- Started every game and led Jaguars cornerbacks and was second among defensive backs and fourth on team with 78 tackles (64 solos).
- Became sixth Jaguars rookie to start on opening day.
- Made his first NFL interception in his second pro game at Carolina (9/19) (off Steve Beuerlein).
- Got his first fumble recovery the next week vs. Tennessee (9/26) which set up a Jaguars touchdown.
- Earned a defense game ball at Cincinnati (10/31) when he set up a TD with a recovery of a Corey Dillon fumble at Bengals' eight-yard line as well as making a season-high nine tackles (seven solos) and team-leading four passes broken up.
- Earned his second defensive game ball after he made his second interception of season vs. New Orleans (11/21) off Billy Joe Hobert in the fourth quarter to set up a touchdown as well as seven solo tackles and two passes defensed.
- Suffered a strained right hamstring in third quarter of season finale vs. Cincinnati (1/2) and did not return.
- Made the first postseason interception of his career off Steve McNair vs. Tennessee (1/23) in the AFC Championship game.

COLLEGE:
- Made 40 starts in 45 games, registering 179 tackles (149 solos), three fumbles recovered and eight interceptions and also returned 17 kickoffs for 466 yards (27.4-yard average).
- Played in two bowl games: 1996 Outback and 1997 Music City.
- Consensus All-SEC first-team selection as a senior in 1998 after starting every game and recording a career-high 51 tackles (44 solo) with two interceptions and four pass deflections.
- Closed out his career with an interception and a pass deflection in the Music City Bowl against Virginia Tech.
- A broken jaw sustained in spring practice prior to his senior season kept him from getting a lot of repetitions offensively (his coaches had planned to use him on offense in 1998, but scrapped that idea after his injury).
- All-SEC second-team choice in 1997 when he made 47 tackles (39 solos) with two tackles for loss, recovered two fumbles and forced one, deflected 10 passes and had three interceptions for 106 yards in returns and one touchdown as well as returning 15 kickoffs for 416 yards (27.7 average).
- Second-team All-SEC selection in 1996 when he started every game, making 42 tackles (36 solos) with one fumble recovery, deflected 14 passes, blocked a kick, had three interceptions for 13 yards and blocked an extra point attempt.
- Knoxville News-Sentinel SEC All-Freshman team pick in 1995 when he started the final six games, finishing with 39 tackles (30 solos) and deflected three passes.

PERSONAL:
- Born Fernando Antoneyo Bryant in Albany, Ga.
- All-America as a two-way starter at Riverdale High in Murfreesboro, Tenn.
- As a senior, recorded 82 tackles with six interceptions, averaged 30 yards per punt return and caught 48 passes for 798 yards with eight touchdowns.
- As a junior, made 62 tackles and five interceptions on defense and caught 25 passes for 350 yards and one TD.
- Finished third in the 100-meter championships (10.1 seconds) at the state track meet.

PRO: Bryson was re-signed by the Lions on March 24, 2004 to a two-year contract after he spent most of the 2003 season as the Lions starter at running back. Bryson, who originally signed with Detroit on March 26, 2003, is a strong running back with good speed and an ability to catch the ball out of the backfield.

MANE FACTS

- Appeared in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" as a nine-year-old after scoring seven TDs in a Little League Game.
- Plays golf in his spare time and enjoys riding motorcycles, especially through the mountainous terrain in his home state of North Carolina.
- Enjoys watching crime shows such as CSI and Law and Order.
- Supported Bills' community programs, including the holiday "Shop with a Jock" program.

2003:

- Finished the season as the Lions leader in rushing yards (606) and receptions (54).
- His 606 yards and 54 receptions for 340 yards were all career-highs for a season.
- Started at running back against Minnesota (9/21) and had 49 rushing yards and his first touchdown, a five-yard run, in a Lions uniform.
- Caught a Lions' season-high and a personal career-high eight passes for 42 yards against San Diego (12/7).
- Racked up a season-best 105 yards on 18 carries (5.8 avg.), the Lions' first 100-yard rushing game of the season, at Kansas City (12/14), and also had a Lions' season-long 39-yard rush in the game and a one-yard touchdown run, his third of the season.

2002:

- Played in six games, mostly on special teams, before suffering a season-ending left knee injury at Houston (10/13).
- Placed on the reserve/injured list on October 18 with torn knee ligaments.

2001:

- Finished second on the Buffalo Bills in rushing (behind former Tennessee teammate Travis Henry) with 80 carries for 341 yards and two touchdowns.
- Gained 130 yards (1st 100+ game) on 16 carries at Atlanta (12/23), highlighted by a 15-yard TD run in the first quarter which was his first career rushing TD and a 68-yard TD run in third quarter which was a career-high, marking his first multi-TD game.
- Recorded his second consecutive 100+ yard game with a 107-yard effort at New York Jets (12/30).
- Led the team in rushing yards for the third straight week in season finale at Miami (1/6).

2000:

- Led the team with 591 yards rushing for the season and was also the team's leading rusher in nine games.
- Appeared in his first NFL game vs. Tennessee (9/3) after returning from a training camp knee injury that forced him to miss the entire 1999 season.
- Made his first NFL start in a 27-18 win vs. Green Bay (9/10).
- Set up game-winning FG in OT at New England (11/5) by picking up 20 yards on just two carries.
- Made a spectacular dive for the game's first TD on an 11-yard reception at Seattle (12/23) but did not return after injuring his hip on the play.

1999:
- Was drawing raves for his performance in his first NFL training camp.
- Tore ACL in drills on 8/10/99 and missed the entire season.

COLLEGE:
- Started 24 of 24 games at fullback as a junior and senior at Tennessee.
- A team captain and leader for the National Champion Vols in 1998.
- Gained 200 yards on 21 carries (9.5 avg.) with four touchdowns as a senior and also had 19 catches for 167 yards and a touchdown receiving; the score came on a 63-yard catch and run vs. Houston.

PERSONAL:
- A four-sport star at Franklin (N.C.) High.
- All-America, all-state, and all-conference selection following his senior football season and was also selected as Western North Carolina Player of the Year by the Asheville Citizen.
- As a senior, rushed for 1,204 yards and 19 touchdowns and also returned 17 kickoffs for 528 yards.
- Gained 986 yards and recorded 12 touchdowns as a junior.
- Also an all-conference selection in basketball, baseball and track.
- Full name: Adrian Shawn Bryson.

Cornerback
Southern California
Ht: 5-10
Born: 7/13/80
Drafted: '02, R6 (175)-Det

3rd Year
Wt: 185
Hometown: Stockton, Calif.

PRO: Cash returns after suffering a torn ACL in the 2003 preseason and looks to be a valuable commodity at the cornerback position this season. The Lions' sixth-round draft pick (175th overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft impressed coaches with his quickness and agility during the 2002 preseason and took over the starting left cornerback spot in Week 3. He was slated to be the team's starting cornerback in 2003 after an impressive training camp before suffering the knee injury. Cash made a large impact on the Lions' defense in 2002 with his ability to make tackles, especially in one-on-one situations with offensive opponents.

MANE FACTS

- Rarely misses an episode of CSI.
- Watches the movie Braveheart every time he goes on an airplane.
- Interested in going into coaching following his playing career, focusing on coaching the secondary at any level.
- Took part in Detroit Lions Pet Calendar to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.

2003:

- Penciled in as the team's starting cornerback opposite Dré Bly before suffering a season-ending knee injury in the Lions preseason game against Cleveland (8/23).
- Placed on the reserve/injured list on August 25.

2002:

- Finished second on the team in tackles with 117 (82 solos) and according to NFL.com press box statistics, ranked first overall in tackles amongst NFL cornerbacks (88 stops).
- Saw action in his first NFL regular season game at Miami (9/8) and registered three solo tackles and two special teams tackles.
- Started first NFL game against the Green Bay Packers (9/22) and registered 10 tackles (seven solos), a pass defense and a fumble recovery.
- Led the Lions with a career-high 16 tackles (13 solos) against the New Orleans Saints (9/29) in only his second NFL start.
- Led the Lions in tackles for the second consecutive week with 12 tackles (seven solos) at Minnesota (10/13), his third straight week of double-digit tackles.
- Intercepted his first NFL pass vs. New England (11/28) and finished with eight tackles (six solos) and two pass defenses.
- Led the Lions with 12 tackles (nine solos) including a tackle for a loss and a pass breakup vs. Tampa Bay (12/15).

COLLEGE:

- Started USC's first nine games at cornerback as a senior in 2001, earning All-Pac-10 second-team honors after recording 47 tackles, including three for losses, two interceptions, one deflection and one blocked field goal (which USC returned for a TD).
- A junior college transfer who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2000, he started six games at cornerback in 2000 including the final five games (San Jose State, then California, Arizona State, Washington State, UCLA and Notre Dame) after transferring from Palomar College in San Marcos (Calif.).
- Named to the 1999 Prep Star JC All-American first-team, J.C. Gridwire All-American honorable mention, Prep Star JUCO Super 75, Super Prep JUCO 100 and All-Mission Conference first-team as a sophomore defensive back at Palomar.
- All-Mission Conference first team performer at Palomar as a freshman in 1998, when he had three interceptions.

PERSONAL:

- Earned 1997 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Prep Star Western Super 30, Super Prep All-Farwest and All-San Joaquin Athletic Association first team honors at Franklin High in Stockton (Calif.), where he had 22 catches for 615 yards (28.0 avg) and 12 touchdowns as a wide receiver on offense and two interceptions on defense as a senior.
- In his prep career, he scored six touchdowns on punt returns and three touchdowns on kickoff returns.
- Also played basketball at Franklin.

2nd Year
Wt: 205
Hometown: Camden, N.J.

23

PRO: Cobourne signed with the Lions as an undrafted free agent out of West Virginia on May 2, 2003 and was just one of two undrafted rookie free agents to make the 53-man roster for Detroit (Casey FitzSimmons) coming out of training camp.

MANE FACTS:

- Allocated to NFL Europe for the 2004 season and played with the Cologne Centurions. He finished the season with 117 carries for 525 yards (4.5 avg.), which ranked third in NFL Europe. He also was second in the league with 749 yards.
- Attended Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."

2003:

- Had a career-long 19-yard rush on his only carry at Denver (9/28).
- The Lions' primary kick returner in two games (at Den, 9/28; at SF, 10/5), returning seven kicks for 123 yards (17.6 avg.).

COLLEGE:

- Four-year starter at tailback for West Virginia (played and started in 44 games).
- As a senior, was voted team MVP for the second straight year (2001-02) and finished seventh in the nation in rushing at 131.5 yards per game.
- All-time rushing leader for West Virginia and the Big East Conference with a career tally of 5,164 yards on 1,050 carries (4.9 avg.) and 42 touchdowns, including 28 career 100-yard games.
- Rushed for over 1,000 yards in all four seasons (1,138 in 1999, 1,018 in 2000, 1,298 in 2001 and 1,710 in 2002).
- Career receiving numbers include 59 receptions for 459 yards (7.8 avg.).
- First-team All-Big East and third-team AP All-America as a senior (335 attempts, 1,710 yards, 5.1 avg., 17 TD). His 1,710 rushing yards and 17 touchdowns are single-season records at West Virginia.
- During junior campaign, ranked second in Big East in rushing (118.0 avg./gm.), while being named second-team All-Big East.
- Had five 100-yard outings and 1,018 yards overall as a sophomore, and was ranked third in the Big East in rushing (99.2 avg./gm) and named second-team All-Big East.
- Led conference in rushing (113.9 avg./gm) and named first-team All-Big East as a redshirt freshman, and had the most rushing yards (1,139) among freshmen in the nation. He broke WVU's freshman rushing record previously set by Amos Zereoue.
- The Sporting News first-team freshman All-America and was ranked 16th nationally in rushing.

PERSONAL:

- Considered one of the top running backs in New Jersey before being sidelined early in his senior season with a knee injury at Holy Cross High.

Drafted: '01, UndraftedFA-GB

4th Year
Wt: 240
Hometown: Savannah, Ga.
Acquired: '02 W-Was

PRO: Curry has become a valuable special teams player and solid backup linebacker for the Lions due to his tough and tenacious play. He was claimed off waivers from the Washington Redskins by the Lions on August 28, 2002 became the primary strongside linebacker in the fifth game of the 2002 season due to injuries. Curry entered the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent with Green Bay in 2001 and was signed by the Redskins off the Packers' practice squad October 3, 2001.

MANE FACTS

- Has seen the movie Meet the Parents at least 40 times.
- Likes watching That 70s Show and re-runs of the Cosby Show.
- Wants to be a high school football coach when his career ends.
- Took part in Detroit Lions Pet Calendar to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.

2003:

- Tied a career-high with 21 special teams tackles on the season.
- Made a big play on special teams in the season opener vs. Arizona (9/7) when he recovered a muffed punt by Anquan Boldin at the Cardinals' 35, eventually leading to a Lions touchdown.
- Collected one tackle while playing on defense at Seattle (11/16) and had a team-high four special teams tackles.

2002:

- Saw first extended NFL action on defense vs. Chicago (10/20) due to injuries at the linebacker position and finished with seven tackles (five solos), including a tackle for a loss and his first career sack and fumble recovery.
- Started his first NFL game at Buffalo (10/27) and finished with three tackles (one solo).
- Finished with career-high 10 tackles (eight solos) vs. New England (11/28).

2001:

- Played in eight games for the Redskins in 2001 after being signed off the Green Bay Packers' practice squad and contributed primarily on special teams, registering four tackles.

COLLEGE:

- A two-year starter and letterman at Morris Brown (Atlanta) after transferring from Middle Georgia Junior College in Cochran, Ga.
- As a senior, he played in 10 games, leading the team with 83 tackles (19 for a loss) and tallied 11 sacks, six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, one interception, eight pass defenses and one blocked kick.
- In his junior season he led the team with 88 tackles (27 for a loss) and recorded 15 sacks, four interceptions, one pass defense, one fumble recover and one blocked kick.

PERSONAL:

- Three-year letterman and earned all-state honors as a senior defensive end at Savannah (Ga.) High School.
- Has three daughters and lives in College Park, Ga.

JAMES DAVIS

52

Linebacker
West Virginia
Ht: 6-2
Born: 4/26/79
Drafted: '03, R5b (144)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 240
Hometown: Stuart, Fla.

PRO: Davis fought off injuries to play eight games in his rookie campaign, contributing on both defense and special teams in 2003. He adds depth to the linebacking corps and packs a punch on coverage units. Detroit selected the speedy Davis with its second fifth-round pick (144th overall) in the 2003 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Still gets butterflies in his stomach before games, but he says, "when the first hit comes, it goes away and I'm ready to play."
- His two favorite movies are Braveheart and Gladiator.
- Once his football career is over, he would like to get his master's degree in special education and then help the football team at that school.
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."
- Participated in the Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
- Attended annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to benefit the Lions Courage House, HAVEN, a prevention and treatment center for domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.

2003:

- Inactive for the first two games of the season while still recovering from rib injury suffered during the preseason.
- Made his NFL debut at Denver (9/28) and recorded two solo tackles in addition to a special teams tackle.
- Recorded a solo tackle as well as the first two pass defenses of his career against Oakland (11/2).
- Collected a tackle against Chicago (11/9) before leaving the game with a shoulder injury which caused him to miss the next five games.
- Started at middle linebacker for the first time in his career at Carolina (12/21) and had a career-high five tackles (two solos).

COLLEGE:

- Finished his career with 238 tackles (144 solos), 18 sacks for minus-131 yards, 39.5 stops for losses of 193 yards, 48 quarterback pressures, five forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, four pass deflections and a pair of blocked kicks while starting 25 of 46 games.
- His 39.5 career stops behind the line of scrimmage established a Mountaineer record, breaking the previous mark of 30 by Delbert Fowler (1977-80).
- All-Big East Conference second-team selection as a senior in 2002 after starting all year at left outside linebacker, finishing second on the team with a career-high 120 tackles (65 solos).
- As a junior in 2001, started at the "Stud" (strongside defensive end) position and recorded 51 tackles (37 solos) with eight sacks for minus-55 yards and 14 stops (third-best season total in school history) for losses of 69 yards. His eight sacks rank eighth on WVU's season-record chart.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Martin County (Stuart, Fla.) High where he was a two-time Stuart News Defensive Player of the Year and also captured all-area and honorable mention all-state honors as an outside linebacker. He also played in the Outback Steakhouse all-star game.
- Team's leading tackler on defense and the leading rusher on offense with more than 1,000 yards and 12 touchdowns and was the team's captain.
- A gifted all-around athlete, he averaged almost 15 points per game as a forward on the basketball team and high jumped 6'5" in track.
- Presently is working on his master's degree after graduating in May 2002 with a bachelor's degree in physical education (specialization in athletic coaching).

JARED DEVRIES

Defensive End
Iowa
Ht: 6-4
Born: 6/11/76
Drafted: '99, R3 (70)-Det

6th Year
Wt: 275
Hometown: Aplington, Iowa

95

PRO: The rugged, hard-nosed sixth-year defensive lineman adds grit and versatility to the team. The Lions re-signed DeVries on March 6, 2003 to a three-year deal as DeVries has been a vital part of the team's rotation on the defensive line since Detroit took him in the third round (70th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft after a standout career at Iowa.

MANE FACTS

- DeVries is one of four players out of Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa) High School to be currently playing in the NFL despite the fact that the school's enrollment is only 200 students. The other three in the league are Casey Weigmann of the Kansas City Chiefs, Aaron Kampman of the Green Bay Packers and Brad Meester of the Jacksonville Jaguars.
- The DeVries family is quite the athletic one as three of Jared's siblings also received Division I scholarships. The oldest brother, Darian, played point guard at Northern Iowa for four years and is currently an assistant coach at Creighton University, a sister, Jody, played volleyball at Northern Iowa and brother, Dusty, played football at Iowa and Northern Iowa and is now an assistant coach at Aplington-Parkersburg High. The youngest brother, Jay, plays football at Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa.
- Took part in Detroit Lions Pet Calendar to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.

- Had a career-best two starts and set a career-high with two forced fumbles.
- Recorded his second career sack against Arizona (9/7) when he brought down Cardinals QB Jeff Blake and also forced a fumble on the play.
- Made a huge play on special teams against Chicago (11/9) when he blocked what would have been a go-ahead field goal by Paul Edinger, the first field goal block of his career.
- Collected a season-high five solo tackles, which led the defensive line, and forced a fumble at Seattle (11/16).
- Tallied a tackle at Minnesota (11/23) before leaving the game with a shoulder injury which forced him to miss the next three contests.
- Got the start at defensive end in place of the injured Robert Porcher against St. Louis (12/28) and tallied two tackles (one solo), his first career pass defense, two quarterback knockdowns and a pressure.

2002:

- Registered his first career sack at Minnesota (10/13), bringing down QB Daunte Culpepper for a four-yard loss.
- Inactive for three games due to the foot injury and was put on the reserve/injured list on December 10 for the final three contests.

2001:

- Placed on Physically Unable to Perform (PUP) list August 28, 2001 while recovering from surgery on July 24 to relieve a blood clot suffered in an off-season workout.
- Returned to lineup vs. Cincinnati (10/28) and posted three tackles.
- Had a season-high four tackles (three solo) at San Francisco (11/4) rotating in at left end.

2000:

- Recorded a career-best 35 tackles.
- Made presence known in season opener at New Orleans (9/3) when he forced and recovered a fourth-quarter Ricky Williams' fumble.
- Collected a career-best six stops vs. Minnesota (10/1).
- Received first career start at New York Giants (11/19), seeing significant time in running situations.
- Inactive in season finale vs. Chicago (12/24) due to hand injury.

1999:

- Slowed significantly for majority of season while recovering from a training camp foot injury.
- Saw first game action as a pro in reserve role vs. Washington (12/5) before being inactive for Games 13-15.
- Played his most significant game-action (12 snaps) of rookie campaign in regular season finale at Minnesota (1/2) with Luther Elliss inactive (ankle).

COLLEGE:

- Holds Iowa's career-record with 43 quarterback sacks and 79 tackles for loss.
- All-Big Ten first-team selection for third consecutive season as a senior in 1998.
- Associated Press and Football News All-American second-team selection as a junior in 1997 as well as the team's Co-Most Valuable Player, starting every game at left defensive tackle.
- Earned Big Ten and ESPN Player of the Week honors for effort vs. Michigan (11 tackles, three sacks and an interception).
- Football News All-American third-team pick as a sophomore in 1996 as his 22 tackles behind line of scrimmage tied school season-record (Leroy Smith in '91).
- Started every game as a freshman in 1995, recording 54 tackles (26 solos), 12 sacks and 19 tackles for loss and earned MVP honors in the 1995 Sun Bowl vs. Washington.

PERSONAL:

- Blue Chip Illustrated All-American and All-Midwest high school pick as a senior in 1993, adding all-state Class 1A honors as a senior and junior defensive end at Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa) High.
- Also competed as a fullback, gaining over 4,000 yards on the ground during his career.
- He and wife, Jamie, have two sons, Jaylen and Easton.

EDDIE DRUMMOND

Wide Receiver
Penn State
Ht: 5-9
Born: 4/12/80
Drafted: '02, UndraftedFA-Det

3rd Year
Wt: 190
Hometown: Pittsburgh, Pa.

18

PRO: After being signed as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2002, Drummond emerged that season as the Lions' primary punt and kickoff return specialist due to injuries to Desmond Howard and Az-Zahir Hakim and started 2003 in the same role. Despite being limited by injuries in 2003, he now ranks eighth on the Lions' all-time kickoff return lists in number of returns (61), yards (1,508) and average yards per return (24.7) and is one of only 10 players in Lions' history to have more than one punt return for a touchdown.

MANE FACTS

- After going to Penn State as a running back, he ended up playing wide receiver for the first three-and-a-half years in college and then switched back to tailback midway through his senior year
- Drummond has collected thousands of baseball and football cards since he began doing so in the sixth grade.
- In addition to the card collecting, Drummond likes to swim and dance.
- When watching TV, Drummond watches primarily Comedy Central.

2003:

- Helped swing the momentum in the Lions season opening win over Arizona (9/7) after his 57-yard punt return for a touchdown and then his pressure on Cardinals PR Anquan Boldin caused a muff which was recovered by the Lions in prime scoring position. His punt return for a touchdown was his second in as many games against Arizona.
- Put together an impressive kick return game, returning five kicks for 115 yards at Green Bay (9/14), including a season-long 38-yarder.
- Helped give the Lions good field position against Minnesota (9/21) with four kick returns for 89 yards and one punt return for 26 yards, but left the game in the third quarter with an injured lower leg.
- Missed eight games with a sprained knee and ankle.
- Had a Lions' season-high five punt returns against San Diego (12/7).
- Re-aggravated his lower leg injuries and missed the games at Kansas City (12/14) and Carolina (12/21).

2002:

- Voted the team's Mel Farr Rookie of the Year after a season in which his 26.0 yards per kickoff return average ranked third in the NFC, was tied for fifth in the NFL and was the fifth-best single-season kickoff return average in franchise history.
- Had a solid outing vs. Green Bay (9/22), his first NFL regular season game, finishing with 149 yards on six kickoff returns with a long of 31 before being forced out of the game with an ankle injury.
- Returned six kickoffs for 160 yards (26.7 avg.) vs. NY Jets (11/17) including a career-long 40-yard return.
- Had a 23-yard run on a reverse as well as three kickoff returns for 42 yards (14.0) and caught his first NFL pass vs. New England (11/28).
- Scored first NFL touchdown on a 73-yard punt return in the first quarter at Arizona (12/8), capping off a day in which he had a career-best 100 punt return yards.
- Returned a kickoff for a career-long 91 yards vs. Tampa Bay (12/15) and finished with a career-high 197 kickoff return yards.

- Had an 88-yard kickoff return that helped the Lions' offense to its first score at Atlanta (12/22).

COLLEGE:

- Played the first three years at Penn State as a receiver and switched to the tailback position midway through his senior season.
- Started five games at wide receiver, but spent much of the second half of the season at tailback.
- Throughout his career at PSU, he accumulated 71 receptions for 1,132 yards and five touchdowns, while he also rushed the ball 40 times for 272 yards and one touchdown.
- Finished his senior campaign with six receptions for 103 yards and 33 rushing attempts for 156 yards.
- Second-leading rusher during the Blue-Gray game with 26 yards rushing on eight carries.
- During his junior season, he recorded 29 receptions for 365 yards and as a sophomore in 1999, he recorded a career-high 35 receptions for 652 yards and five touchdowns.

PERSONAL:

- Set school records with 5,729 all-purpose yards and 3,901 rushing yards at the Linsly School in West Virginia.
- As a senior, Drummond rushed for 1,105 yards and 19 touchdowns and was named the Gatorade and USA Today Player of the Year in West Virginia.
- First-team all-state by the Associated Press and a Parade All-American.
- Also a high school track star, he holds the Linsly School record in the 100-meter (10.4), 200-meter (21.5) and 400-meter (48.9) dashes.
- Born Edward Drummond in Pittsburgh, Pa.

KALIMBA EDWARDS

98

Defensive End
South Carolina
Ht: 6-6
Born: 12/26/79
Drafted: '02, R2 (35)-Det

3rd Year
Wt: 265
Hometown: Atlanta, Ga.

PRO: Edwards has played in 31 games in his first two seasons, accumulating 8.5 sacks and 58 tackles in that span. He was slowed in 2003 with a sports hernia injury, but showed promise as a rookie in 2002 as he led the team with 6.5 sacks, the first Lions rookie to lead the team in sacks since Tracy Scroggins did in 1992. Edwards, selected by the Lions in the second round (35th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft, is an excellent edge rusher who consistently beats the blocker with his initial quickness.

MANE FACTS

- Kalimba is an African-American name that means "Prince" and was given to him by his father, Lloyd, who is a professor of biostatistics at the University of North Carolina and was a football All-American himself at Morehouse College in Atlanta.
- Once his football career is over, he would like to teach history at the college level.
- Watches the cartoon Samurai Jack every day.
- Grew up idolizing boxing great Muhammad Ali.
- Donated Lions' tickets to Detroit Southeastern High School through Lions CATS for Kids program.

2003:

- Missed the preseason while recovering from hernia surgery.
- Made a big impact at San Francisco (10/5) with three solo tackles, two passes defensed and a quarterback pressure.
- Recorded his first sack of the season vs. Oakland (11/2) when he brought down Rick Mirer on third down and had a season-high five tackles (three solos), two QB knockdowns and two pressures.
- Racked up his second sack in as many games against Chicago (11/9) when he tackled Chris Chandler for an 11-yard loss.
- Left the game at Carolina (12/21) with groin injury.
- Placed on the I.R. list with a torn groin muscle on December 23.

2002:

- Led the team with 6.5 sacks after playing in all 16 games.
- Registered his first career sack and forced fumble when he sacked Saints QB Aaron Brooks in the first quarter vs. New Orleans (9/29), the fumble was picked up by DE James Hall and returned for a TD.
- Started first NFL game at Minnesota (10/13).
- Finished with a career-high two sacks at Arizona (12/8).
- Forced a fumble on a sack of Vikings QB Daunte Culpepper vs. Minnesota (12/29).

COLLEGE:

- As a senior, was an All-SEC first-team selection and semifinalist for both the Lombardi Trophy (top lineman) and Butkus Award (top linebacker) after finishing with 79 tackles (55 solos), 3.5 sacks for minus-10 yards and six stops for losses of 17 yards in 10 games.
- All-American third-team selection by the Associated Press and a consensus All-SEC first-team choice as a junior after starting at weakside linebacker (rush end), finishing third on the team with 74 tackles (49 solos) and tying for the squad lead with seven sacks for minus-45 yards and ranking second with 11 stops for losses of 52 yards.
- During his junior season, Edwards picked off a Casey Clausen pass, returning the ball 81 yards for a TD. The pick was the eighth-longest interception return in school history and the longest since Patrick Hinton's 83-yarder vs. North Carolina State in 1988.
- Sophomore All-American selection by The NFL Draft Report after starting every game at right defensive end, recording 64 tackles (40 solos) with five sacks for minus-38 yards and four stops for losses of 14 yards.

PERSONAL:

- Regarded as one of the premier defensive players in the country, starring as a middle linebacker at Tri-Cities (Atlanta) High.
- Rated the ninth-best defensive line prospect in Georgia by PrepStar.
- Averaged 10 tackles per game in 1997, earning team Defensive Most Valuable Player honors.
- Coca-Cola Student-Athlete Honoree.

CASEY FITZSIMMONS

82

Tight End
Carroll College (Mont.)
Ht: 6-4
Born: 10/10/80
Drafted: '03, UndraftedFA-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 258
Hometown: Chester, Mont.

PRO: FitzSimmons emerged as the Lions' starting tight end coming out of training camp after the team signed him as an undrafted free agent out of Carroll (Mont.) College on May 2, 2003. He impressed the coaches with his blocking abilities and work ethic which led him to become one of two undrafted rookies to make the 2003 53-man roster (along with Avon Cobourne).

MANE FACTS:

- Became a fan favorite with his rise from NAIA football to the NFL. FitzSimmons' high school in Montana was so small that the football team played eight-man football.
- Prior to his junior year in high school, he was injured in a motorbike accident and missed the season. He was close to not playing his senior year, but was talked into it by some friends.
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."
- Attended Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
- Attended annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to benefit the Lions Courage House, HAVEN, a prevention and treatment center for domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.

2003:

- His two touchdowns tied for the NFL lead among rookie tight ends while his 23 receptions ranked fourth.
- Registered the first two catches of his career at Green Bay (9/14), with a long of 13 yards.
- Had then-career highs in catches (five) and yards (33), including a then-career-long 17-yard reception while starting against Chicago (11/9). Two of his catches versus the Bears came on the Lions game-winning drive.
- Made the first touchdown catch of his career versus San Diego (12/7) when he hauled in a four-yard pass from Joey Harrington in the fourth quarter.
- Had a career day against St. Louis (12/28) with a season-best 36 yards on four catches, including a two-yard touchdown reception and a career-long 22-yard catch.

COLLEGE:

- Finished college career with 244 receptions for 2,698 yards and scored 21 touchdowns.
- Led the Fighting Saints to the 2002 NAIA National Championship with a 28-7 win over two-time defending NAIA Champion Georgetown (Ky.).
- During senior championship run, earned first-team All-American honors and was named the Frontier Conference MVP and finalist for NAIA Player of the Year Award while catching 79 passes for 971 yards and six touchdowns.
- In 2000 and 2001, earned second-team NAIA All-American honors and was a first-team All-Conference selection all four seasons at Carroll College (Mont.). His 2001 totals included 78 receptions for 812 yards and five touchdown and his 2000 totals included 70 catches for 686 yards and eight touchdowns.

PERSONAL:

- Born October 10, 1980 in Wolf Point, Mont.
- All-state and all-conference at Chester (Mont.) High School.

LIONS TALES

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the league to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two Lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games. The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.

PRO: The Lions traded a conditional draft pick to Buffalo to acquire Gary on August 31, 2003 for depth and experience at the running back position following the season-ending injury to James Stewart. He had joined the Bills as a free agent signing on April 21, 2003 after spending the previous four years of his NFL career with the Broncos. Gary was selected by Denver in the fourth round of the 1999 Draft (120th overall) and went on to break several Broncos' rookie rushing records in 1999. However, his career has been hampered by injuries, limiting him to just 10 games total in 2000 and 2001.

MANE FACTS

- Has seen all of Martin Lawrence's movies and enjoys the show Martin.
- Idolized Eric Dickerson and Tony Dorsett when he was growing up.
- Would like to go into real estate once he is done playing football and spends much of his free time reading up on real estate and investing.

2003:

- Led the Lions in rushing in the season opener against Arizona (9/7), carrying the ball 12 times for 44 yards.
- Had a team-high 64 yards on 14 carries at San Francisco (10/5), including his first touchdown as a Lion, and two receptions for 14 yards.
- Ran the ball for a team-high 43 yards on only six carries (7.2 avg.), including a season-long 27-yard run at Seattle (11/16).
- Reached 2,000 career rushing yards against San Diego (12/7).

2002:

- Injured his ankle vs. Buffalo (9/22) early in the first quarter and did not return to the game, but was able to play the next week at Baltimore (9/30).
- His best rushing performance came in Week 2 at San Francisco (9/15) when he tallied 61 yards on 12 carries (5.1) and notched his only rushing touchdown of the year on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter.
- In the opener vs. St. Louis (9/8) played a big role in the passing game, catching a career-high five passes for 48 yards to lead the team.

2001:

- Lone start came at Dallas (11/22) and in that game he fractured his left fibula in the first quarter and underwent surgery the following day.
- Placed on the Reserve/Injured list on November 26
- He was five-for-five in third-down-and-one rushing situations, leading the AFC at the time of his injury.
- At Arizona (9/23) he rushed 14 times for a season-high 90 yards and a TD in a reserve role after playing only on special teams in the season opener vs. New York Giants (9/10).

2000:

- Placed on the Reserve/Injured list on September 8 because of a torn anterior cruciate ligament suffered in the season opener at St. Louis (9/4).
- Underwent surgery on September 11 and began rehabilitation immediately.

1999:

- Chosen to all All-Rookie teams by Pro Football Weekly, Football News, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest.
- Started each of the final 12 games at halfback after an injury to Terrell Davis and rushed for a then-rookie franchise-record 1,159 yards.
- Despite being declared inactive for each of the seasons' first four games, he ranked sixth in the AFC (11th NFL) in rushing yards, and second in the NFL among rookie rushers.
- Ranked third in the NFL in average yards per game (96.6) just behind the Redskins' Stephen Davis (100.4) and the Colts' Edgerrin James (97.1).
- His 1,159 rushing yards not only ranked as the most ever by a Denver rookie but were also sixth overall on the Broncos' all-time single-season list.
- His seven rushing touchdowns tied Bobby Humphrey (1989) and Terrell Davis (1995) for the rookie franchise record, while his 276 rushing attempts ranked second (Humphrey, 294).
- His 185 rushing yards at Detroit (12/25) and 183 the week before vs. Seattle (12/19) are the top two single-game marks ever posted by a Broncos rookie, and rank sixth and seventh (tie) on the club's all-time list, while also representing the second-highest two-game total in franchise history (368), behind Davis' 376 in back-to-back games in 1998 (168 vs. Philadelphia, 10/4 and 208 at Seattle, 10/11).
- Became the first NFL player with back-to-back games with at least 180 rushing yards since 1986 (Joe Morris, New York Giants, 181 twice, 10/27 and 11/2), and the first NFL rookie to do so since 1983 (Eric Dickerson, L.A. Rams, 192 on 9/25 and 199 on 10/2).
- Set an NFL record for most carries after the first six games of a career, with 151 (avg. of 25.2/gm.) breaking the old record of 149 set by Dickerson in 1983, and James, also in 1999.
- Played in his first NFL game at Oakland (10/10), starting at halfback because of a hamstring injury to Derek Loville.
- His 37 carries against Green Bay (10/17) represented the second-highest single-game figure in franchise history (Terrell Davis' 42 on 10/27/97 OT game at Buffalo).
- In his first appearance on Monday Night Football, vs. Oakland (11/22), he rushed 22 times for 95 yards (4.3), including the game-winning touchdown on a 24-yard run in overtime.
- Powered his way to a new career-high 185 yards on 29 carries with one touchdown at Detroit (12/25), not only eclipsing the 1,000-yard mark for the season, but passed Davis (1,117 in 1995) for second-most rushing yards by Broncos rookie, finishing the day at 1,121. His total for the third quarter alone was 134 yards, en route to a franchise-record 174 yards second half.

COLLEGE:

- Played two years at Georgia (1997-98) after transferring from Marshall (1994-95).
- Named second-team All-SEC as a senior at Georgia in 1998 after starting nine games at tailback and leading the Bulldogs with 698 yards and 10 touchdowns on 143 carries (4.9 avg.) and caught 10 passes for 117 yards (11.7 avg.).
- As a junior was the second-leading rusher for the Bulldogs behind Robert Edwards, tallying 381 yards and seven touchdowns on 75 carries (5.8).
- Sat out 1996 after his transfer from Marshall, where he rushed for 776 yards on 103 carries (7.5) playing in 18 games over two seasons.
- Earned his bachelor's degree from Georgia in consumer economics.

PERSONAL:

- Three-time all-county selection, and as a senior added Chesapeake All-Star and all-state honors at Riverdale (MD) Baptist High School.
- Set a state record with 5,375 career rushing yards, while also lettering twice in basketball and competing in track and field.

TREVOR GAYLOR

15

Wide Receiver
Miami (Ohio)
Ht: 6-3
Born: 11/3/77
Drafted: '00, R4 (111)-SD

4th Year
Wt: 195
Hometown: St Louis, Mo.
Acquired: '04 FA

PRO: Gaylor was signed by the Lions on January 8, 2004 after not playing in 2003. He spent the 2003 training camp with the Atlanta Falcons before being waived on August 25, 2003. Originally a fourth round (111th pick overall) draft choice by San Diego in 2000, Gaylor was traded to Atlanta by San Diego for an undisclosed 2004 draft pick on September 1, 2002.

MANE FACTS

- A huge fan of the San Francisco 49ers, especially Jerry Rice, when growing up.
- Never misses an episode of The Dave Chappelle Show.
- One day would like to own his own recording studio just to be able to listen to various artists.
- Enjoys reading to kids and spending time with inner-city youth.

2003:
- Spent training camp with the Falcons, but was released on August 25.

2002:
- Shared Falcons' offensive MVP honors after recording a career-long and the longest pass play from scrimmage by a Falcon with a 74-yard touchdown reception versus New Orleans (11/17) and was on the receiving end of other long catches, covering 47, 28 and 27 yards. The 74-yard touchdown was the longest play of the season for Atlanta.
- Against Seattle (12/15), he hauled in a season-high four receptions for 60 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown catch to tie the game at 24-24 with 12 seconds remaining.

2001:
- Had a career-best five receptions for 78 yards in 20-17 loss at Kansas City (12/23).
- Recorded a career-best 84 yards receiving and tied a career-high with five catches the following week in a 25-22 loss to Seattle (12/30).

2000:
- Had a single-game season-high of four catches against New Orleans (9/10).
- Scored the first touchdown of his career on a 62-yard reception at St. Louis (10/1).

COLLEGE:
- Ended his career as Miami's record holder in receptions (128), receiving yards (2,131) and touchdowns (20).
- As a senior in 1999, earned second-team All-Mid American Conference honors after leading team with a career-high 53 receptions for 1,028 yards and 11 touchdowns.
- The 1,028 yards represented a single-season school record while the 53 receptions and 11 touchdowns were both good for second in the school's all-time single-season annals.

PERSONAL:
- Full name is Trevor Alexander Gaylor.
- An All-Suburban North League selection and was named the team's MVP as a receiver and defensive back at Hazelwood West High School in Hazelwood, Mo.
- Also lettered in track and basketball.

ANDRE' GOODMAN

35

Cornerback
South Carolina
Ht: 5-10
Born: 8/11/78
Drafted: '02, R3 (68)-Det

3rd Year
Wt: 185
Hometown: Greenville, S.C.

PRO: Goodman enters the 2004 season looking to get back into the Lions rotation at cornerback after suffering a dislocated shoulder in Week 3 of 2003, which cost him the rest of the season. He originally became a regular in the Lions' secondary as a rookie after missing the first two games of 2002 with an ankle injury. Goodman, who is solid in stopping the run and has superb leaping ability and keen field vision to keep track of the ball in flight, was drafted by the Lions in the third-round (68th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Goodman was a teammate of Lions DE Kalimba Edwards at South Carolina as the two lined up on the same defense for four seasons with the Gamecocks.
- A huge fan of Michael Jordan, Goodman owns a Jordan jersey, poster and several items from Jordan's clothing line.
- Has a basketball card collection of over 3,000 cards from the 1990s with his most prized card being a Michael Jordan Defensive Player of the Year card.
- Goodman's initial ambition was to become a basketball player, but because he never grew past 5-10 he decided to play football, but not until his junior year of high school.

2003:
- Had a pass defense and three tackles (two solos) against Minnesota (9/21) before leaving the game in the third quarter with a shoulder injury.
- Placed on the reserve/injured list on September 25 with a dislocated shoulder.

2002:
- Saw first NFL action against Green Bay (9/22) and finished with four tackles (three solos).
- Had a pass breakup in the end zone and five solo tackles, including one for a loss, in his first career start against New Orleans (9/29).
- Registered two pass breakups and five tackles (four solos) at Green Bay (11/10) before being forced out of the game with a thumb injury.

- Had a strong game in the season finale vs. Minnesota (12/29), finishing with career-high nine tackles (six solos) and his first career interception, despite playing with a cast on his right hand (thumb injury).

COLLEGE:
- Starting left cornerback as a senior at South Carolina for first eight games and final three, including the Outback Bowl, and recorded 43 tackles (36 solos), eight pass deflections and was tied for the team-high with three interceptions.
- Accumulated 86 tackles, four interceptions and 20 pass deflections during his four-year career with the Gamecocks.
- Experienced his first year as a starter during his junior year, lining up at free safety for the first two games before shifting to left cornerback for the remainder of the season and registered 35 tackles (28 solos), returned an interception 71 yards and ranked second on the team with 11 pass deflections.

PERSONAL:
- All-state selection and rated the state's 20th-best prospect by Super Prep during his final year at Eastwood (Greenville, S.C.) High.
- Rated the 10th-best receiver in the Atlantic Coast region by Prep Star.
- Also excelled in track, with personal bests of 10.5 in the 100 meters and 22.4 in the 200 meters.

LIONS TALES

GRIDIRON HEROES...

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes–The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions." The sound of "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs; today it is still played after each Lions' score.

(Verse) Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.
Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game.
Dashing to victory as they go.

(Chorus) Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain, A Lion victory!

AZ-ZAHIR HAKIM

Wide Receiver
San Diego State
Ht: 5-10
Born: 6/3/77
Drafted: '98, R4a (96)-StL

7th Year
Wt: 185
Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.
Acquired: '02, UFA-StL

PRO: Hakim recovered from a potentially career-threatening hip injury suffered in 2002 to rebound in 2003 and was the Lions' leading receiver in yards and touchdowns. He came to Detroit as a highly sought after unrestricted free agent from St. Louis, signing on March 7, 2002. A proven scoring threat at both wide receiver and punt returner, he has seven games of playoff experience, including two Super Bowl appearances. St. Louis drafted Hakim with their first of two fourth-round selections (96th overall) in the 1998 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Launched Az Hakim Foundation in the Spring of 2002 to benefit children with incarcerated parents.
- Although he played four seasons at San Diego State, Hakim was only 20 years old when the St. Louis Rams drafted him in the spring of 1998.
- Learned how to surf this past off-season.
- Would someday like to own a childcare facility.
- Donated Lions' tickets to the Children's Visitation Program through Lions CATS for Kids program and the Az Hakim Foundation.
- Had a pizza party at Buddy's Pizza in Dearborn for youth of the Az Hakim Foundation.
- Has donated $1,500 for every touchdown he scored with the Lions to the Az Hakim Foundation ($12,000).
- Took part in a special house dedication ceremony for the first Habitat for Humanity home sponsored by the Lions.
- Attended teammate Earl Holmes' "Holmes for Families Foundation" event as a volunteer handing out Thanksgiving dinners to families through the Children's Aid Society Project Permanency Program (CAS).

2003:

- Despite missing the first two games while recovering from knee surgery, he finished the season as the team leader in receiving yards (449) and touchdowns (four).
- Playing in his first game of the season against Minnesota (9/21), he replaced Eddie Drummond as the punt returner in the fourth quarter and returned three punts for 44 yards (14.7 avg.).
- Completed the second pass of his career, a 21-yarder to Charles Rogers, at San Francisco (10/5).
- Caught a two-point conversion pass from Joey Harrington, the first of his career, at Chicago (10/26).
- Made a crucial 18-yard catch on a corner route to spark the Lions game-winning drive against Chicago (11/9).
- Hauled in a team-high six catches for 65 yards against Green Bay (11/27). The six catches in that game gave him 19 in three games, the most he has had in that span in his career.
- Racked up a season-high 72 yards on six catches at Kansas City (12/14), including an eight-yard touchdown reception on fourth down and a season-long 28-yard reception.
- Had his best effort of the season versus St. Louis (12/28), his former team, with 101 total yards and a touchdown as he finished with a career-best 43 yards rushing on two attempts, including a career-long 35-yarder on a reverse play that led to a Lions touchdown. His five catches for 58 yards, highlighted by a 13-yard touchdown reception from Harrington to pull the Lions within a field goal.

2002:

- Had a standout performance in his first game with the Lions finishing with a career-high nine receptions for 97 yards against Miami (9/8).
- Led the Lions with five receptions and scored his first touchdown with Detroit, which was the first touchdown scored at Ford Field, a 72-yard punt return on a reverse handoff from WR Eddie Drummond against Green Bay (9/22).
- Had three receptions for 98 yards including receptions of 40 and 52 yards against the New Orleans Saints (9/29).
- Led Lions with seven receptions for 143 yards at Green Bay (11/10) including a 64-yard touchdown reception on Detroit's first offensive play of the game.
- Had a nifty 14-yard gain on a shuffle pass vs. NY Jets (11/17) in the first quarter but sustained a season-ending hip injury at the end of the play.
- The team's leading receiver when he was placed on the Reserve/Injured list on November 20.

2001:

- Made one reception for 25 yards and a touchdown and returned three punts for 47 yards with a long of 32 yards at San Francisco (9/23).
- His 47 punt return yards at San Francisco (9/23) made him the fourth player in Rams' history to amass at least 1,000 punt return yards, joining Henry Ellard (1,527, 1983-93), LeRoy Irvin (1,451, 1980-89) and Eddie Kennison (1,085, 1996-98).
- Recorded season-high six receptions for 40 yards and one touchdown, while returning three punts for 32 yards at NYJ (10/21) in which he passed Eddie Kennison (1,085, 1996-98) to move into third place on Rams' career list of punt return yards with 1,108.
- Completed his first career pass, a 51-yard touchdown pass to WR Isaac Bruce on the second play of the game, at New Orleans (10/28)
- Caught five passes for a game-high 90 yards and rushed once for five yards in Super Bowl XXXVI vs. New England (2/3).

2000:

- Established career highs in receptions (53), receiving yards (734) and 100-yard receiving games (three).
- Led the NFC and was second in NFL in punt return average (15.3) with one touchdown.
- Tallied best overall effort of season in opener vs. Denver (9/4) where he caught five passes for a team-high 116 yards, including a career-long 80-yard touchdown, and returned one punt for a career-long 86-yard touchdown. He was one of three Rams (Torry Holt 6-103 and Marshall Faulk 4-100) to gain over 100 yards receiving in the contest, only the second time in team history the Rams had three players with at least 100 yards receiving in same game.
- Started at wide receiver and registered a then-career-high eight receptions for career-high 147 yards and one touchdown vs. Carolina (11/5).
- Caught two passes for 42 yards and returned three punts for 59 yards (long of 65) in NFC Wild Card game at New Orleans (12/30).

1999:

- Caught a career-high eight touchdowns, the second-most on the Rams, and averaged a touchdown catch every 4.5 receptions.
- Led the Rams and tied for first in the NFC with five touchdown receptions on third downs.
- Led the Rams and was fourth in the NFC with 403 receiving yards on third down plays.
- His 10.5 punt return average ranked sixth in the NFC.
- Had the best game of his career at Cincinnati (10/3), becoming only the fourth player in team history to score four touchdowns in a game, tying mark set by Bob Shaw (four rushing 12/11/49 vs. Washington), Elroy Hirsch (four receiving vs. N.Y. Yanks 9/18/51) and Harold Jackson (four receiving vs. Dallas 10/14/73). His 84-yard punt return for a touchdown tied for the fifth longest in team history and was the third longest in the NFL. He also set the team record for punt return yards in a game with 147. All three of his receptions went for touchdowns (9, 51, 18), and he came the first Rams' player with three receiving touchdowns in a game since December 15, 1996 (Eddie Kennison at Atlanta).

- Posted his first career 100-yard receiving game (four receptions for 122 yards and two touchdowns) in Rams' division-clinching victory at Carolina (12/5).
- Set Rams' playoff record with 72 punt return yards on four attempts vs. Minnesota (1/16) and his 34-yard punt return was the third longest in team history.

1998:

- Collected three receptions in first career game at Chicago (11/8).
- Made first start of career versus Carolina (11/22), making two receptions for 25 yards.
- Scored two touchdowns (nine-yard touchdown reception, 34-yard run on reverse for a touchdown) in victory over New England (12/13).

COLLEGE:

- Four-year letterman in football at San Diego State where he started eight games as a senior and caught 37 passes for 595 yards (16.1 avg.) and six touchdowns.
- Caught 36 passes as a junior for 635 yards and five touchdowns.
- Selected All-Western Athletic Conference second-team selection as a sophomore after he started 12 games and was fourth in conference with career-high 57 receptions for 1,022 yards (17.9 avg.) and eight touchdowns.

PERSONAL:

- Born Az-Zahir Ali Hakim in Los Angeles (pronounced Oz-Za-HERE Ha-KEEM). His full name stands for "the appearance of a high, wise counselor" in Muslim.
- All-city selection as defensive back for Fairfax High in Los Angeles where he also played flanker and quarterback.
- As senior, intercepted six passes, threw for 452 yards and rushed for 838 yards.
- Also played basketball and ran track.

JAMES HALL

96

Defensive End
Michigan
Ht: 6-2
Born: 2/4/77
Drafted: '00, UndraftedFA-Det

5th Year
Wt: 280
Hometown: New Orleans, La.

PRO: Hall re-signed with the Lions on March 3, 2004 and enters his fifth season in Detroit. He is coming off his second straight season of being the Lions' starter at defensive end, with 2003 being the first season he has started all 16 games. Hall has a quick first step and jumps off the snap of the ball aggressively and uses speed and leverage to move around offensive linemen in order to get to the quarterback. He originally made the Lions roster as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2000.

MANE FACTS

- During the 2003 season, he appeared in a Disney commercial with teammates Robert Porcher, Shaun Rogers, Dan Wilkinson and Joey Harrington for the release of The Lion King on DVD.
- Spent the past off-season interning in the University of Michigan athletic department under an associate athletic director. He was learning more about sports marketing and administration, which he majored in while in school there.
- Donated Lions' tickets to Cleveland Elementary School in Detroit and the Detroit PAL Football League through Lions CATS for kids program.
- Detroit Lions PAL (Police Athletic League) spokesman presenting the West Side Cubs with a $5,000 donation to PAL Football.
- Teamed up with Buddy's Pizza to serve lunch at the Capuchin Soup Kitchen in Detroit.
- Purchased turkeys and hams for Thanksgiving dinners for families from Cleveland Elementary School in Detroit.

2003:

- Finished with career-highs in tackles (78) and sacks (4.5) after starting all 16 games for the first time in his career.
- Led the Lions defensive line in tackles with a career-high tying eight (seven solos) at Green Bay (9/14).
- Put together one of his best games of the season at Chicago (10/26) with a block of a Paul Edinger field goal attempt, the first block of his career, a sack of Chris Chandler, three quarterback pressures and four solo tackles.
- Racked up seven tackles (three solos), a quarterback pressure and his first forced fumble of the season against San Diego (12/7) when he caught Doug Flutie from behind and stripped him of the ball which was recovered by Jeff Gooch.

2002:

- Started first NFL game in 2002 season opener at Miami (9/8) and finished with four assisted tackles.
- Had a productive day against New Orleans (9/29 with six tackles (five solo), a sack, a pass break up and a fumble recovery which he returned 22 yards for a touchdown.
- Had a career-high eight tackles (three solo) including two tackles for a loss and registered a pass break-up against Chicago (10/20).

2001:

- In second career game at New York Giants (11/19), recorded first career sack (seven-yard loss) and forced fumble (recovered by Robert Porcher) on play, batted down one pass, and garnered two special teams stops.
- Scored first NFL touchdown, an eight-yard run after a Brett Favre fumble vs. Green Bay (11/22).
- Had career day at Tampa Bay (12/9) with career highs in sacks (3.5 for 24.5 yards) and tackles (six; four solos) along with getting good pressure on Brad Johnson throughout day.
- Left game vs. Chicago (12/30) in the second quarter with a knee injury and was inactive for the season finale against Dallas (1/6).

2000:

- Saw action on kickoff and kickoff return units (four special teams tackles). He was Inactive for the first nine games of the 2000 season, and saw first NFL action vs. Atlanta (11/12).
- Made an impact in his second career game, at New York Giants (11/19), recording his first career sack, forcing a fumble (recovered by Robert Porcher) and batting down a pass, in addition to making two special teams stops.
- Suffered knee injury late in Giants' game, which forced him inactive for the next two games.

COLLEGE:

- Four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at rush linebacker who finished career at Michigan with 185 tackles, 25 sacks (second in school history) and 40 tackles for loss (fourth in school history).
- Started 33 consecutive games to end his collegiate career and played in 2000 East-West Shrine Bowl.
- Third-team All-America pick by Sporting News, honorable mention All-Big Ten and Butkus Award semifinalist as a senior in 1999.
- Had 54 tackles and team-high seven sacks in 1999.
- All-Big Ten second-team pick as a junior in 1998 by both coaches and media with career-highs in tackles (63), sacks (team-high 11) and tackles for loss (team-high 16).

- Recorded 51 tackles, four sacks and eight tackles for loss as a sophomore in 1997.
- Saw action in 11 of 12 games as a redshirt freshman in 1996, registering 17 tackles and three sacks.

PERSONAL:
- All-state pick as a prep senior in 1994 at St. Augustine (New Orleans) High School.
- Named as the 13th-best defensive line prospect in the country by Prep Football Report.
- Collected 67 tackles, eight sacks and an interception in '94 as a prep senior.

LIONS TALES

PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premier was held Thursday, October 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown. 2003 marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.

The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast last year with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held September 20-21. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s. The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

JASON HANSON

Kicker
Washington State
Ht: 5-11
Born: 6/17/70
Drafted: '92, R2 (56)-Det

13th Year
Wt: 190
Hometown: Spokane, Wash.

PRO: The 12-year veteran, and one of the NFL's most productive kickers, is the Lions' all-time scoring leader with 1,236 points as well as the all-time leader in field goals with 284 and extra points with 384. He became just the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 1,200-point mark in 2003. Hanson, who has not missed a game in his career, and needs just nine games played to move into first place on the team's all-time games played list. He owns several other team records including the single-season scoring record with 132 points in 1995, the two longest field goals ever made (55 and 56) and the team's longest streak of consecutive field goals made (24 in 1997). He enters 2004 having connected on 153 of his last 173 field goal attempts (.884) inside 50 yards, dating back to the beginning of the 1997 campaign. Hanson, who made consecutive Pro Bowl appearances following the 1998 and 1999 seasons, has led the Lions in scoring in each of his 12 pro seasons and is a four-time winner of the Lions' Yale Lary Special Teams Player of the Year Award (1993, '97, '99 and '03). He has connected on 241-of-280 (.861) career field goal attempts inside the 50-yard line and is a remarkable 172-of-180 (.956) from inside the 40-yard line for his career. Hanson has proved to be a valuable asset to the Lions as the team is 50-32 (.610) in his career when he kicks two-or-more field goals in a game, 29-9 (.763) when he makes three-or-more, and 14-2 (.875) when he converts four field goals in a contest. In addition, Hanson has made 14 game-winning, fourth quarter or overtime kicks during his career (eight in regulation; six in OT), including two in 2003. The Spokane, Wash., native has only missed six extra points in his career (384-of-390) and has been perfect in PAT tries in seven different seasons (1992-93, 1995-96 and 2000-02). Hanson has been almost flawless at Ford Field since the Lions began play there in 2002, going 35-for-37 on field goal attempts (.946), which include four fourth-quarter or overtime game-winners and a long of 54 yards. His only two misses there were attempts from 55 and 57 yards out, both coming in 2002. The Lions originally selected Hanson in the second round of the 1992 NFL Draft (56th overall). Hanson signed a long-term contract extension prior to 1999 season (through 2004).

MANE FACTS

- Grew up playing soccer, but when he reached junior high school, he began kicking a football and went on to play both football and soccer in high school.
- A big fan of music, he particularly likes jazz, country, hard rock and contemporary Christian and has a collection of about 300 CDs. Some of his favoriite artists are Joe Satriani, The Yellow Jackets and Bela Fleck and the Flecktones.
- In his free time he likes to hunt, fish and play golf.
- Hanson helped establish Providence Youth Outreach in Pontiac, Mich. The organization which helps at-risk youth from ages 12-22 and through his "Points For Providence" program, he donates $200 for every field goal he kicks. He also assists with soliciting corporate contributions for Providence Youth Outreach and spends time mentoring youth in this program.
- Won the "Longest Drive" contest at the 1996 Detroit Lions Invitational golf tournament (a 290-yarder down the middle of the fairway).
- Active speaker before youth and Christian groups in Michigan and Washington.
- Donated Lions' tickets to Providence Youth Outreach in Detroit through Lions CATS for Kids program.
- Attended 2003 HAVEN Holiday Party for residents of the Lions Courage House.

2003:

- His field goal percentage of .957 was the highest of his career and in franchise history as well as the second best in the NFL in 2003.
- Tied for the NFL lead with four field goals of over 50 yards.
- Recipient of the Yale Lary Special Teams Player of the Year Award for the fourth time in his career.
- Named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November after making 12-of-13 attempts, including two game-winners (vs. Chicago 11/9; vs. Green Bay 11/27).
- Started the season converting on 13 straight field goal attempts, the most consecutive field goals he has made to begin a season in his career.
- Had a then-season-long 53-yard field goal at Denver (9/28), which put him in third place all-time in the NFL with 23 kicks of over 50 yards.
- Stepped in to take care of the punting duties in place of the injured John Jett at San Francisco (10/5), punting seven times for 264 yards (37.7 avg.) in the game.
- Tallied 11 points versus Oakland (11/2), converting on all three field goal and two extra point attempts, including a season-long 54-yard field goal in the first quarter, making him only the third player in NFL history with 24 field goals of over 50 yards.
- Kicked four field goals against Chicago (11/9), including a 48-yard game-winner with 39 seconds remaining in the game, and earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. His game-winner was the 13th of his career and it was the 275th field goal of his career. The game against the Bears was the 185th of his career, moving him into a tie for second place on the Lions all-time list with Dick LeBeau.
- Became just the 25th player in NFL history with 1,200 career points after converting both extra point attempts at Minnesota (11/23).
- Had one of his most productive games as a pro against Green Bay (11/27), converting on all five of his field goal attempts and an extra point for 16 points on the day, the most he has recorded since he scored 19 on October 19, 1999 against Minnesota. It was the third time he recorded five-or-more field goals in a game and the 16th time he had more than four. His third field goal against the Packers was the eventual game-winner, his 14th career game-winner in either the fourth quarter or overtime.
- With two extra points at Carolina (12/21), tied Eddie Murray for first on the Lions' all-time list with 381 for his career.
- Went 3-for-3 in field goal attempts versus St. Louis (12/28), converting from 39, 38 and 50 yards out. His 50-yard field goal was the 25th of his career of 50 yards and over and his fourth of the season, tying a career-high. With his three extra points against the Rams, he took sole possession of first place on the Lions' all-time list and now has 384.

- Tied former Lions' kicker Eddie Murray for the most career field goals in franchise history after kicking four field goals against New Orleans (9/29) and with a 49-yard field goal in the third quarter at Minnesota (10/13) he became the all-time single leader in field goals in franchise history.
- Named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his efforts vs. Chicago (10/20) after he kicked a 48-yard game-winning field goal vs. Chicago (10/20) to finish the day with 11 points (three FGs, two PATs) and a special teams tackle.
- Kicked a 43-yard game-winning field goal with 48 seconds left against Dallas (11/3) and accounted for all of the Lions' points against the Cowboys (3/3 FG).
- Became the Lions' all-time leading scorer with a 45-yard field goal in the second quarter vs. New England (11/28) and scored the Lions' only offensive points while going 4-of-4.

2001:

- Tied a career-high with four field goals of over 50 yards.
- Collected his 1,000th career point with first extra point at Arizona (11/18).

- Kicked season-long field goal (54 yards) along with a 33-yarder and a PAT vs. Green Bay (11/22). The 54-yarder made Hanson the 20th player in NFL history to kick 20 or more 50-yard field goals.

2000:

- Productive on kickoffs, recording 10 touchbacks, forced 17 drives to begin inside 20-yard line and teamed with superb cover unit to lead NFL in opponent's average drive start (25.1 yard-line).
- Finished the season by nailing 11-of-12 final field goals in Games 10-16, including his final nine attempts.
- Enjoyed a huge game vs. Washington (9/10), connecting on all five of his field goal tries and accounting for all 15 of Lions' points in the win which earned him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Among the kicks he made in that game was a 54-yarder in the third quarter (tied for third-longest in team history) and a 37-yarder in the fourth quarter, which was the 200th field goal of his career.
- Made game-winning (seventh of career) 44-yard field goal, with 1:43 left to play fourth quarter, in Lions' 13-10 win vs. Atlanta (11/12), and added another 18-yarder in fourth quarter.
- Made second (17th of career) 50+-yarder (52 yards) field goal of season at Minnesota (11/30), and reached the 300-extra point mark in his career.
- Booted a critical 35-yard field goal in third quarter at New York Jets (12/17) in sloppy conditions at the Meadowlands in a tightly-fought 10-7 Lions' win.

1999:

- Named to his second career NFC Pro Bowl squad (also following 1997).
- Voted by teammates as the Yale Lary Special Teams MVP as well as the 1999 Detroit Lions Man of the Year.
- Named first-team All-NFC by both Pro Football Weekly and Football News after he made an NFC-high 26-of-32 field goal attempts, including career-high four of 50+-yards.
- All six of Hanson's misses were from 46 yards-or-longer in 1999, including a 57-yard attempt at Arizona (11/14) and a 58-yard try at Minnesota (1/2).
- Garnered NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October after converting on 10-of-11 attempts.
- Both of his late-game field goals in first two wins of the season gave the Lions a key eight-point lead in final minutes – a 49-yarder at Seattle (9/12) with 2:46 remaining and a 48-yard effort vs. Green Bay (9/19) with 2:10 left in the game.
- Enjoyed landmark day vs. Minnesota (10/17) with team-record-tying and career-high six field goals, including game-winning 48-yard effort with seven seconds remaining in the game (sixth game-winner of career), and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his effort. With six field goals that day, he became one of 17 players in NFL history to accomplish that feat and his seven FG attempts on the day were a career-high as well, in addition to recording career-best 19 points.
- Became 11th player in NFL history to kick two 50+-yarders in the same game twice in his career (also vs. Indianapolis on 11/23/97) after converting from 50 and 52 yards vs. Washington (12/5).

1998:

- Named as an alternate to the 1999 NFC Pro Bowl squad.
- The Sporting News named him as the NFL's top kicker at the season's midway point
- Made two-or-more field goals in 11 contests, including eight consecutive games (Weeks 3-10).
- Prior to missing two field goals (47 and 43 yards) in Games 12-13, his only misses on the season were a 58-yard attempt in the last minute of play at Philadelphia (11/8) and a 53-yarder in swirling wind at Chicago (10/4).
- Game vs. Pittsburgh (11/26) saw him drill a season-long 51-yarder and resulted in the fifth overtime game-winning kick of his career (first since 1994). A 43-yard miss in the game was his first miss from the 40-49-yard range since the regular season finale in 1996 (16 in a row) and also broke a string of 23 consecutive field goals made from inside 50 yards.

1997:

- Made his first career Pro Bowl appearance.
- Converted a franchise record 24 straight field goal attempts en route to making 26-of-29 tries on the season (then-career-high .897). He hit the upright on his first field goal try of the year vs. Tampa Bay (9/7) from 52 yards out and didn't miss again until a 50-yard attempt at Minnesota (12/14).
- Became the first Lion to kick two field goals of 50 yards-or-longer in the same game with efforts of 52 and 55 yards vs. Indianapolis (11/23).
- Converted a career-high seven PATs in Lions' Thanksgiving Day win over Chicago (11/27).
- Had his streak of consecutive PATs broken at 126 at Miami (12/7).

1996:

- Attempted only four field goals in eight-game stretch in middle of the year, making three of them — one each in games at Green Bay (11/3), vs. Seattle (11/17) and vs. Kansas City (11/28). His 43-yard effort vs. Seahawks with 4:43 remaining proved to be the game-winner.
- Most prolific game of season came vs. Minnesota (12/8) when he drilled a season-high three field goals (30, 31 and 48-yarders) in a season-high four attempts (missing from 48 yards wide right).

- NFC's top scorer among kickers with team-record 132 points (tied for second in the NFL) and was named as the alternate on the 1996 NFC Pro Bowl squad.
- With 48 extra points, he broke Eddie Murray's club record of 46 PATs set in 1981.
- Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his four-of-four field goal effort (plus four touchbacks on kickoffs) in Detroit's win over San Francisco (9/25).
- Only effort vs. Cleveland (10/8) was record-breaking 56-yarder, in addition to making all five PATs.

1994:

- Set an NFL record with three game-winning overtime kicks.
- Booted a 37-yarder in overtime to win the season-opener vs. Atlanta (9/4), despite a severely bruised shin on his kicking leg (injured making game-saving tackle on kickoff after Lions' tying TD).
- Kicked his second game-winning field goal of the season, a 44-yarder in overtime, at Dallas (9/19).
- Kicked his third game-winning field goal of the season, a 24-yarder in overtime, at N.Y. Giants (10/30).
- Played instrumental role in victory at N.Y. Jets (12/10) — was successful on 4-of-4 field goal attempts (37, 49, 48 and 23 yards) in rainy and windy conditions at the Meadowlands.

1993:

- Led the NFC in scoring with then-team-record 130 points (second in the NFL) and his 34 field goals also set a Lions' record and fell one short of the then-NFL record for most field goals in a season.
- Connected on three-or-more field goals eight times, with the Lions winning all eight contests.
- Named All-Pro by the Sporting News, earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for October and December and was the Lions' Special Teams MVP for the first time in his career.
- Named the first ever NFC Special Teams Player-of-the-Week (Week 1) after he converted all three field goal attempts, all three PATs and booted all seven kickoffs for touchbacks, including one that went through the uprights, in season opener vs. Atlanta (9/5).
- Booted the game-winning field goal (38 yards), in overtime at New England (9/12) — made 4-of-5 field goals in the game, with his only miss coming from 52 yards.
- Converted all three field goals and all three PATs vs. Seattle (10/17), with all seven kickoffs resulting in touchbacks, including one that went through the uprights and one that hit the cross bar.
- Kicked the game-winning field goal (18 yards) with four seconds remaining in game at L.A. Rams (10/24) — game-winner was one of three field goals on the day.
- Made a then-career-long 53-yard field goal in division-clinching win vs. Green Bay (1/2), making 3-of-4 field goal attempts in the game, with his only miss coming from 56 yards.

1992:

- Named Offensive Rookie of the Year by Pro Football Weekly as well as being selected to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly, P.F.W.A., Football News and College and Pro Football Newsweekly.
- The average attempt of his five missed field goals (21-of-26) on the year was 51.4 yards and he was the only kicker in the NFL not to miss a kick under 45 yards.

- Made 18 of his last 19 field goal attempts and put together a string of 12 straight makes over a 10-game stretch (9/27-12/13).
- In his pro debut, made his only field goal attempt, from 38 yards, and all three PATs at Chicago (9/6).
- First four-field-goal-outing of career at Cincinnati (11/22).
- Had his streak of 12 consecutive field goals broken when a 57-yard attempt was blocked vs. Cleveland (12/13).

COLLEGE:

- Considered one of the finest kicking specialists in the history of college football.
- Made 57.1 percent of his field goal tries (20-of-35) from 50 yards-or-longer, setting Washington State and Pac 10 records.
- His 20 field goals from 50 yards-or-longer set an NCAA mark, topping the previous career mark of 16 by Tony Franklin of Texas A&M (38 attempts, 1975-78), and his 39 collegiate field goals of 40 yards-or-longer surpassed Russell Erxleben of Texas' NCAA career record of 32.
- Holds the school record with 328 points, topping the old mark of 248 points by Steve Broussard (1986-89).
- Kicked at least two field goals in a game 20 times, surpassing Kevin Butler of Georgia's NCAA record (17, 1981-84).
- Holds WSU's all-time records with 63 field goals and 139 conversions.
- All-American third-team selection by the Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft and Football News as a senior in 1991.
- All-Pac-10 first-team choice as a punter and second- team pick as a kicker his senior year.
- Led the team with 58 points his senior year and led the conference with 55 punts for 2,245 yards (40.8 avg.).
- Kicked a 62-yard field goal that year, setting the record for the longest field goal without a tee in NCAA history.
- Set a conference record by making seven-of-nine field goals from 50 yards-or-longer in 1991 as well, one shy of the NCAA season mark.
- All-American choice as a punter by ESPN his junior year in 1990.
- Unanimous All-American first-team pick as a sophomore in 1989.
- GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American pick who received a Bachelor of Science degree in pre-med from Washington State, possessing a 3.8 grade point average.

PERSONAL:

- Born Jason Douglas Hanson in Spokane, Wash.
- Lettered twice in football, three times in soccer and once in basketball at Mead (Spokane, Wash.) High.
- All-Greater Spokane League grid pick as a kicker and punter and was named All-State first-team by the Washington Sportswriters Association.
- Brother, Travis, handled placekicking duties for the Washington Huskies (1990-93).
- He and his wife, Kathleen, were married in 1992 and have two sons, Ryan and Luke, and a daughter, Jessica.

JOEY HARRINGTON

Quarterback
Oregon
Ht: 6-4
Born: 10/21/78
Drafted: '02, R1 (3)-Det

3rd Year
Wt: 220
Hometown: Portland, Ore.

PRO: Entering his third season, Harrington is the Lions' franchise quarterback who continues to steadily progress as he masters the intricacies of West Coast offense. Harrington improved in his second season over his rookie campaign of 2002 in nearly every category, including yards, completions, attempts, completion percentage, touchdowns and quarterback rating. Harrington quickly emerged as the Lions' starting quarterback as a rookie in 2002 after entering training camp as the third-string quarterback, making his NFL starting debut against the Green Bay Packers (9/22) in the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field. He holds the NFL record for the lowest sack-per-passing attempt percentage in a career (17 sacks/983 attempts for 1.73%) as he has been sacked only 17 times in his 30 NFL games. The Lions selected the former Oregon standout with the third overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Following the 2002 season, the Harrington Family Foundation (www.joeyharrington3.com) was established with a focus to promote the education, safety and welfare of children. One of the first organizations benefiting from the Harrington Family Foundation was the Shriners Hospital for Children in his hometown of Portland.
- For the past two years, Harrington, who started playing the piano early in his childhood, has hosted a summer concert in Portland as the signature fundraiser for the Harrington Family Foundation. The 2003 inaugural concert featured Blues Travelers and Jason Mraz. This year, the night was headlined by Third Eye Blind and the Pat McGee Band.
- Appeared in a Disney commercial during the 2003 season with teammates Robert Porcher, James Hall, Shaun Rogers and Dan Wilkinson for the release of The Lion King on DVD.
- Harrington became a nationally-known name prior to his senior season at Oregon in 2001 after he appeared on a 10-story high billboard in New York City's Times Square. Last summer, he began selling pieces of the billboard with proceeds going to the Harrington Family Foundation to create scholarships for Oregon's Lundquist College of Business.
- PGA Tour golfer Padraig Harrington is Harrington's second cousin.
- Donated Lions' tickets to Catholic Youth Organization through Lions CATS for Kids program.
- Took part in ABC's Monday Night Football at the Mic in 2003, an on-line fan voting contest in which NFL players competed against one another while displaying their musical talents.
- Teamed up with Feed the Children and Gleaners Community Food Bank in Detroit to help distribute Thanksgiving dinners and personal care items at the Capuchin Service Center. The effort was part of a new collaborative partnership between the international charity and relief organization, Feed the Children, and Athletes First, one of the country's premier sports representation firms.
- Nominated his junior high school teacher, Walter Shepard, in the NFL Teacher of the Month Program. Shepard was named NFL Teacher of the Month for November '03 and received a $2,500 award along with a $5,000 grant awarded to All Saints Catholic Grade School in Portland where he taught for the past 35 years.
- Participated in annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf tournament to benefit Detroit Lions Charities.

2003:

- Among first or second-year quarterbacks, he was the leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, attempts and completions and was the only one to play and start in every game.
- 554 attempts and 309 completions were the second-highest totals in Lions history, and the 554 attempts ranked third in the NFL.
- Despite numerous injuries to his key offensive weapons, Harrington saw improvement as the season went on, completing 58.7 percent of his passes over the last 10 games (51.0 percent in first six).
- For the second straight season he led the NFL with the lowest sacks/pass play ratio (1.60%), after being sacked just nine times in 563 pass plays.
- Named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week and the FedEx Express Air Player of the Week vs. Arizona (9/7) after he threw for 195 yards on 17-of-30 passing and a career-high four touchdowns. The four touchdowns were the most by a Lions quarterback against the Cardinals in the 55-game history of the series.
- Caught his first NFL pass at Green Bay (9/14) after his own throw was batted back to him and he ran for eight yards after the reception.
- Engineered the third fourth-quarter, game-winning drive of his career against Chicago (11/9) after he was 5-for-6 for all 35 yards on the drive to set up a Jason Hanson game-winning field goal.
- Completed 26-of-48 passes for a season-high 285 yards and two touchdowns at Seattle (11/16), including a career-long 72-yard touchdown pass to Scotty Anderson, in a game that he played in front of a large number of fans from his native Portland who made the three-hour trip to Seattle.
- Went 21-for-32, a then-career-best 65.6 completion rate, for 183 yards against Green Bay (11/27) and was credited with his fourth career (second of 2003) fourth-quarter comeback as the Lions trailed 14-13 going into the final quarter.
- A finalist for the FedEx Express Air Player of the Week for his efforts against the Rams (12/28) after he put together one of the best games of his career in the season finale, completing 26-of-36 for 238 yards (a career-best 72.2 completion percentage), three touchdown passes and a rating of 106.0. His three touchdowns and rating were the second-best tallies of his career.

- Set Lions' single-season marks for a rookie quarterback with 2,294 yards passing, 12 touchdowns, 215 completions and 429 attempts.
- Played in the fourth quarter at Miami (9/8) and directed 11-play, 77-yard scoring drive (2-for-2 in third-and-long situations).
- Started first NFL game, the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field against Green Bay (9/22), and threw two touchdown passes, including one for 52 yards which was a career high at the time.
- Led the Lions to a victory vs. New Orleans (9/29), the first in Ford Field, throwing for a then-career-high 267 yards, a touchdown and no interceptions and he iced the game with a 15-yard bullet to WR Larry Foster to give the Lions a first down so that they could take the victory kneel.
- Became the first Lions' rookie quarterback to throw for over 300 yards with a 309-yard passing effort at Minnesota (10/13).
- Finished first career fourth-quarter comeback as he completed five straight passes for 73 yards on 12-play drive vs. Chicago (10/20) to put team in position to kick a game-tying FG as time expired.
- Completed a 12-yard pass to James Stewart on fourth-and-three in the fourth quarter vs. Dallas (11/3) to keep the drive alive that resulted in a game-winning field goal.
- Threw a then-career-long 64-yard touchdown strike to Az-Zahir Hakim on the Lions' first offensive play at Green Bay (11/10).
- Threw a touchdown pass to Mikhael Ricks in the first quarter at Arizona (12/8) to become the all-time Lions' rookie leader with 12.
- Left game vs. Tampa Bay (12/15) with irregular heartbeat (fully recovered within days of ailment and procedure) and was inactive for the final two games (at Atlanta 12/22; vs. Minnesota, 12/29).

COLLEGE:

- Compiled a record of 25-3 as the starting quarterback for Oregon and was undefeated in postseason play (3-0) with victories against Minnesota, Texas and Colorado.
- Finished his career with 512 completions on 928 attempts (55.2%) for 6,911 yards, 59 touchdowns and only 23 interceptions in 33 games as well as 210 rushing yards and 18 scores on 145 carries.

- His 7,121 yards in total offense rank third in school history.
- As a senior, he was an All-American first-team pick by Verizon, adding second-team honors from The Sporting News and third-team accolades from The NFL Draft Report as well as being a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm awards, a Football News National Offensive Player of the Year semi-finalist, an All-Pac-10 Conference first-team selection and Offensive Player of the Year and was the recipient of the Hoffman Award, given to the team's most outstanding player.
- Started every game in 2001, completing 214-of-364 passes (58.8%) for 2,764 yards, 27 touchdowns and only six interceptions and added seven scores on 55 carries for 56 yards.
- After junior year, he was named All-Pac-10 second-team, the team's Hoffman Award winner and semifinalist for Davey O'Brien Award.
- Completed 214-of-405 passes (52.8%) for 2,967 yards and 22 touchdowns and was third on the team with 66 carries for 124 yards (1.9 avg.) and seven touchdowns in 2000.
- Started four of eight games played as sophomore, completing 84-of-158 passes (53.2%) for 1,180 yards, 10 touchdowns and only three interceptions (24 rushes for 30 yards (1.3 avg) and four TDs).
- Business administration major, twice earning Pac-10 Conference academic honors with a 3.34 grade average.

PERSONAL:

- Born John Joseph Harrington October 21, 1978 in Portland, Ore.
- Younger brother, Michael, is the starting quarterback at the University of Idaho.
- Named the nation's eighth-best prep quarterback by Super Prep and selected first-team 4A All-State quarterback and second-team all-state punter (44.8 avg.) by The Oregonian at Central Catholic (Portland, Ore.) High.
- Threw for 2,151 yards and 28 TDs as a senior while completing better than 55 percent of his passes (111-200) and also ran for 585 yards and seven scores while throwing only five interceptions.
- Accorded honorable mention All-American honors by USA Today, and ranked second on the Tacoma News Tribune's Northwest Nuggets aggregation.
- Collected over 4,200 yards and 50 touchdowns while starting final 26 games over his last three prep seasons.

NICK HARRIS

Punter
California
Ht: 6-2
Born: 7/23/78
Drafted: '01, R4 (120)-Den

4th Year
Wt: 218
Hometown: Avondale, Ariz.
Acquired: '03 FA

PRO: Harris was signed by the Lions on October 14, 2003 as a replacement for the injured John Jett and established himself as the Lions punter for the remainder of the season. He played the 2001-02 seasons and the first five games of 2003 with the Cincinnati Bengals before being released by Cincinnati on October 7, 2003. Harris was originally drafted by the Denver Broncos in the fourth round of the 2001 NFL Draft (120th overall) and then was waived on August 28, 2001, but was claimed by the Bengals just one day later.

MANE FACTS

- Favorite hobby is golf.
- As a freshman at California in 1996, Harris redshirted and the head coach that year for the Bears was Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci.
- Such a valuable member of his team at Cal, students made signs and t-shirts that said "Nick Harris for Heisman".
- Was close to going to a smaller college to play linebacker before Cal offered him a scholarship to be a punter.
- Has an identical twin brother, Chris, whose football career was curtailed by a serious knee injury.
- Favorite movie is Blues Brothers.

2003:

- Bengals' primary punter for the first five games of season..
- Signed by the Lions on October 14.
- Dropped a season-high three punts inside-the-20 against Green Bay (11/27) and finished with six punts for 217 yards and no touchbacks.
- Had Lions' season-highs in punts (nine) and punt yards (387) against San Diego (12/7) with his nine punts in the game also tied a career-high.

2002:

- Second season as the Bengals' No. 1 punter and finished with a plus-seven differential on inside-20 kicks (11) compared to touchbacks (four).
- Total touchbacks were the fewest among regular AFC punters.
- With only four touchbacks in 64 kicks, his touchback percentage (6.2) was the NFL's third-best behind only Chicago's Brad Maynard (2.3) and Houston's Chad Stanley (5.3).
- Handled 50 holds on place kicks (18 FG, 32 PAT) without a muff, helping K Neil Rackers post an 83.3% accuracy rate on field goals (15-of-18), tied for seventh among all NFL kickers with 15-or-more attempts.
- Averaged 44.2 yards on five punts in season opener vs. San Diego (9/8), including a season-long 57-yarder that tied his career-high.
- Averaged 43.7 yards on a season-high nine punts vs. Tampa Bay (9/29), with two inside-20s and one touchback.
- Inactive at Carolina (12/8) as coaches elected to give rookie Travis Dorsch his first game action, but returned for the final three games of the season.

2001:

- Acquired by Bengals on waiver claim on August 29.
- Had 21 inside-20 kicks against just six touchbacks, and his plus-15 differential in those categories was Bengals' best since plus-19 by Lee Johnson (27-8) in 1997.
- Helped Bengals punting unit yield only 8.0 yards per return, ranked eighth in the NFL.
- Had at least one inside-20 punt in each of season's first 12 games.
- Had season-high punting average (46.7), three inside-20 kicks and tied for season-long punt (57) at Jacksonville (11/11).

COLLEGE:

- Regarded by many as the premier punter in college football during his Cal career where he averaged 42.3 yards per punt, and his 13,621 total yards broke previous NCAA mark of 12,947 by TCU's Cameron Young.
- Placed 92 of his punts (28.6%) inside-the-20 and also held for place kicks.
- Had his best season average, 44.7 yards, as a junior in 1999.
- Well-conditioned athlete who had Cal's fastest 10-yard dash (1.77) and second-best 20-yard shuttle time (4.17).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Westview High School where he earned National Coaches' Association All-America honors as a senior with 42.3-yard punting average.
- Also earned prep all-state honors as a linebacker and saw action on offense as a receiver and a rusher.
- All-state prep soccer player as well.
- Holds a bachelor's degree in business and master's degree in education from the University of California.
- Married (wife Heather) with son, Drew.
- Full name is Nicholas John Harris.

EARL HOLMES

50

Linebacker
Florida A&M
Ht: 6-2
Born: 4/28/73
Drafted: '96, R4 (126)-Pit

9th Year
Wt: 242
Hometown: Tallahassee, Fla.
Acquired: '03, UFA-Pit

PRO: Holmes enters his ninth NFL season as a durable and solid middle linebacker who signed with the Lions on April 11, 2003 and immediately became the Lions starter. A consistent producer on defense, he has led his team in tackles each of the past five seasons (1999-03), including a Lions' team-high 121 in 2003. A very aggressive and tenacious defender, especially against the run, Holmes was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the fourth round of the 1996 NFL Draft and in six years with Pittsburgh, he started in 79 of the 81 games he played in and led the team in tackles in each of his final three seasons (1999-01). He signed with the Cleveland Browns for the 2002 season and started all 16 games there.

MANE FACTS

- Nicknamed "Hitman."
- Teammate of Detroit Mayor Kwame Kilpatrick at Florida A&M.
- During games, he wears a long sleeve on one arm and leaves the other one uncovered. He says it represents "six months in bed and graveyard dead." The one that is not covered is graveyard dead and the one that is covered is six months in bed.
- Watches movies every day and has an extensive movie collection, which he increases every Tuesday with visits to Best Buy and Circuit City.
- Donated Lions' tickets to the Children's Aid Society through Lions CATS for Kids program.
- With the help of the Children's Aid Society Project Permanency Program (CAS), Holmes for Families Foundation provided Thanksgiving food baskets to 25 Project Permanency families.
- Has helped over 100 families in his native home of Tallahassee, Fla., through his Holmes for Families Foundation.

2003:

- Tied for the team lead in tackles for the season with 121 (80 solos), the fifth straight season that he has led his team in that category.
- Either led the team or tied for the lead in tackles in five games.
- Had seven solo tackles, including the 800th tackle of his career at Chicago (10/26) in the 100th start of his career.
- Collected 12 tackles (six solos), the second-highest total tackle by a Lion in 2003, against Chicago (11/9).
- Tallied a team-high nine tackles (six solos), including one tackle-for-loss, versus San Diego (12/7) which allowed him to surpass the 100-tackle mark for the fifth consecutive season.

2002:

- Tallied a team-best and career-high 150 tackles (95 solos) in his first season in Cleveland.
- Led Cleveland with 13 tackles (nine solos) and stopped Bengals RB Corey Dillon on consecutive plays on the one-yard line (third-and-goal and fourth-and-goal) in the fourth quarter to help preserve a seven-point Browns' victory at Cincinnati (11/17).
- Finished with a season-high 16 tackles (eight solos), including one for a loss vs. Indianapolis (12/15).
- Had 11 tackles (eight solos) and a pass breakup vs. Atlanta (12/29) and was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after stopping Falcons RB Warrick Dunn on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line with 28 seconds remaining in regulation to secure the Browns 24-16 victory as well as a playoff berth.

2001:

- Assumed a much greater role with the departure of Levon Kirkland and responded by leading the team with 118 tackles (97 solos).
- Moved to the left inside linebacker spot and was the defensive signal caller for the Steelers.
- Had 10 or more tackles in three straight games (at Cleveland, 11/11; vs. Jacksonville, 11/18; at Tennessee, 11/25).
- While playing through a painful knee injury, Holmes registered six tackles vs. New York Jets (12/9) as he topped the 100-tackle mark for the third consecutive season.
- Registered three tackles (one solo) and forced a fumble in divisional playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/20) before leaving the game with a knee injury in the first half.

2000:

- Led the Steelers in tackles for the second consecutive season with 141 total tackles, including a team-high 108 solo stops.
- Led or was tied for the team lead in tackles in seven games.
- Recorded a career-high 17 tackles at Tennessee (11/5).
- Also recorded six games with 10 or more tackles.

1999:

- Led the team in tackles, registering a then-career-high 144 total tackles, including a team-high 109 solo stops, as well as finishing with a team-high 22.5 tackles for losses.
- Led the Steelers in tackles seven times.
- Had a season-high 15 tackles, including a career-high 13 solos, vs. Seattle (9/26).
- Recorded double-digit tackle totals in 9-of-16 games.

1998:

- One of the Steelers' top defensive players despite being hampered somewhat with a high calf problem throughout the preseason and the early part of the regular season as well as suffering a broken hand in vs. Cincinnati (10/11) that limited his production mid-year.

- Recorded three double-digit tackle performances (four for the season) in the final six games.
- Dressed but did not play in the Chicago game (9/13) because of his high calf injury.

1997:
- Finished the season as the team's second-leading tackler with 96 total tackles as well as a career-best four sacks.
- Had an excellent game in the AFC Championship Game vs. Denver (1/11), collecting 10 tackles and he led the team with 17 tackles (10 solos) in the postseason.

1996:
- Made his NFL debut on special teams vs. Baltimore (9/8).
- Made first start and produced first career sack at Carolina on (12/22) and led team with 10 stops (nine solos).

COLLEGE:
- Finished career at Florida A&M with school-record 509 tackles (200 solos) and 6.5 sacks.
- All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference linebacker over the last three years of career.
- Following senior season was voted the MEAC Defensive Player of the Year, earned Division I-AA All-America honors, was a consensus first-team All-America selection and earned Sheridan Broadcasting Network Black College & Football Gazette Division I-AA Defensive Player of Year.
- Six-time MEAC Defensive Player of Week and started all year at inside linebacker with a school-record 171 total tackles while setting single-season record with 103 solo stops as a senior.
- Set school record for tackles in game with 30 tackles (21 solos) versus Southern University.

PERSONAL:
- Full name is Earl L. Holmes.
- Lives in Tallahassee, Fla. with his wife, Tiffany, and son, Earl Holmes, Jr..
- Twice earned all-state and all-district honors, playing both defensive end and linebacker at Florida A&M High School.

TERRENCE HOLT

42

Safety
North Carolina State
Ht: 6-2
Born: 3/5/80
Drafted: '03, R5a (137)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 208
Hometown: Gibsonville, N.C.

PRO: A fifth-round pick (137th overall) in 2003, Holt elevated himself into a starting role at free safety for the final two games of his rookie season and will compete for the starting job this year at that position. He demonstrated playmaking ability in his rookie campaign, intercepting three passes, the most by a Lions' rookie since 1986, despite being inactive for the first five games of the year and having to play cornerback at times, an unfamiliar position for him. The younger brother of former All-American and current St. Louis Rams wide receiver Torry Holt, Terrence made his own name for himself with his hard-hitting style and ability to come up with the big play.

MANE FACTS

- Holt and his older brother, Torry, recently started the Holt Foundation. The foundation is designed to help cancer patients and their families as well as being involved in the community in Detroit, St. Louis and North Carolina.
- In the 2003 season finale, Holt faced off against his older brother as the two played opposite each other when the Lions took on the St. Louis Rams. The younger brother won the game 30-20.
- After five arduous practices at the team's rookie mini-camp, Holt was the last rookie standing during the famed "Beep Test," a conditioning drill implemented by Head Coach Steve Mariucci. Not only did Holt go the longest on the team, he also set a new record for any Mariucci squad with 140 segments completed.
- Eats a sandwich or a bag of chips right before a game because he says pre-game meal is too early and he is hungry by kickoff.
- Holt never misses an episode of The Sopranos or The Apprentice.
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."
- Attended Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation
- Attended annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to benefit the Lions Courage House, HAVEN, a prevention and treatment center for domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Took part in Detroit Lions Pet Calendar to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter and then attended the charity autograph signing.

2003:

- Intercepted three passes, tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the most by a Lions' rookie since Devon Mitchell had five in 1986.
- Saw his first playing time on defense in the NFL at cornerback against Oakland (11/2) and responded with four tackles (two solos), a pass defense and a game-sealing interception of Rick Mirer that he returned 30 yards.
- Recorded the first fumble recovery of his career against Green Bay (11/27) which led to Jason Hanson's game-winning field goal.
- In his first career start at Carolina (12/21), intercepted a Jake Delhomme pass for his third pick of the season and had a career-high with 10 tackles (seven solos) in the game in which he played in his native North Carolina.

COLLEGE:

- Recorded 315 tackles (195 solos) with 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage, five forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 20 pass deflections and five interceptions while starting 37 of 48 games
- All-American second-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, College Football News and the Associated Press as a senior as well as All-Atlantic Coast Conference first-team, a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award (nation's top defensive back) and finalist for the Mosi Tatupu Award (nation's top special teams performer) as he was regarded as the premier kick blocker in the nation (13 for his career).
- Team Defensive Most Valuable Player after he started all year at free safety, finishing fourth on the team with 100 tackles (67 solos) and four blocked kicks.
- All-Atlantic Coast Conference first-team pick, winner of the school's Mike Hardy Award, given to the player who demonstrates a winning attitude, recipient of the team's Defensive Leadership Award and named the Wolfpack's Most Outstanding Player as a junior in 2001 after starting every game at free safety, finishing third on the team with a career-high 104 tackles (62 solos).

- Blocked four field goals in 2001, tying the NCAA season-record set by Hawaii's Mike Akiu in 1982.
- All-ACC second-team selection as a sophomore, starting every game at free safety and recording 89 tackles (53 solos).

PERSONAL:

- Three-year all-conference and all-region defensive back at East Guilford (N.C.) High.
- As a senior, helped lead his squad to an 8-3 record, East Guilford's best mark in 20 years.
- Named his conference's player of the year in basketball as a junior, was the regional player of the year as a junior and senior, and the Guilford County Player of the Year as a senior.
- Three-time all-conference, all-region and All-Guilford performer in basketball.
- Scored 1,786 career points on the hardwood, breaking the school record that had been held by his older brother Torry and also set the school record for most points in a single game with 46.

TYRONE HOPSON

64

Guard/Center
Eastern Kentucky
Ht: 6-2
Born: 5/28/76
Drafted: '99, R5 (161)-SF

3rd Year
Wt: 294
Hometown: Owensboro, Ky.
Acquired: '01, FA-SF

PRO: Hopson re-signed with the Lions on March 5 after being released following training camp in 2003. An aggressive and versatile lineman, who plays both guard and center, was signed to Lions' practice squad October 31, 2001, then signed to active roster December 18, 2001. He was originally selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the fifth round of the 1999 NFL Draft (161st overall) out of Eastern Kentucky.

MANE FACTS

- Never misses an episode of The Apprentice or The Practice.
- Enjoys scuba diving, and this past off-season he went diving at night in Cozumel, Mexico.
- An avid paintballer, he tries to go at least once a week.
- Owns a small transportation company in his hometown of Owensboro, Ky., called HLH Logistics.

2003:

- Released by the Lions on August 31 following training camp.

2002:

- Primary action occurred on special teams, specifically forming part of one wedge line on kickoffs during eight games played.

2001:

- Signed to Lions practice squad October 31, 2001, then signed to active roster December 18, 2001 and was inactive for the final three games of the season (at Pittsburgh 12/23, vs. Chicago 12/30, vs. Dallas 1/6/02).

2000:

- Underwent emergency gallbladder surgery during preseason.
- Signed to the San Francisco practice squad on August 29, 2000, two days after the 49ers waived (non-football injury) him, and then was re-signed to the active roster November 14, 2000.
- Started and played at right guard in place of Dave Fiore in the season finale at Denver (12/23).

1999:

- Inactive Weeks 2-6 with left shoulder injury.
- Placed on the Reserve/Injured list on October 20.

COLLEGE:

- Earned first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference honors at left tackle as a senior at Eastern Kentucky after he averaged 10.0 knockdown blocks per game and graded at 90 percent blocking efficiency.
- As a junior, he earned first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference honors and was named third-team All-America by Associated Press.

PERSONAL:

- Earned all-city and all-county honors as two-way lineman at Davies County (Owensboro, Ky.) High.
- Named team's defensive MVP as senior.
- Lettered four times each in track and basketball.

MATT JOYCE

75

Guard/Tackle
Richmond
Ht: 6-7
Born: 3/30/72
Drafted: '94, UndraftedFA-Dal

10th Year
Wt: 300
Hometown: Scottsdale, Ariz.
Acquired: '01, UFA-Arz

PRO: Joyce is a nine-year veteran offensive lineman who signed as a free agent with the Lions on April 26, 2001 and has offered versatility and depth along the offensive front. A steady contributor all three seasons with Detroit, Joyce played in 45 games with 21 starts (seven at left guard and 14 at right tackle) and has played every offensive line position except center in regular season game-action throughout his career. He arrived in Detroit after playing four seasons (1997-2000) with the Arizona Cardinals, including 28 starts. He originally signed into the NFL by the Dallas Cowboys as an undrafted rookie free agent on May 2, 1994 and then the Cowboys switched him to offensive line after playing as a defensive lineman in college. He spent the '94 campaign on the Cowboys' practice squad and played in Seattle in 1995, where he started 13 games at left guard (signed by Seattle March 1, 1995). After his release from the Seahawks in 1996, he signed with the Cardinals on December 3, 1996 and played a prominent role in the team's offensive line success for four years.

MANE FACTS

- Motorcycle and guitar enthusiast. He owns four guitars—two acoustics, one electric and one bass.
- Moved seven different times in his childhood, including living in Switzerland for two years where he learned French.
- After he moved to Kentucky in second grade, he used to get in fights at school because of his support for 'Mean' Joe Greene and the Pittsburgh Steelers. Most of the other kids were Dallas Cowboys fans.
- Owns part of a restaurant in Scottsdale, Ariz., called Grilled X.
- Watches the movie The Big Lebowski whenever he cleans his house.

2003:
- Started the final three games of the season at left guard in place of the injured Eric Beverly.
- Played in the 100th game of his career at Denver (9/28).
- Played at left guard for much of the second half against San Diego (12/7) after Beverly left the game with an injury and also lined up as an eligible receiver at times against the Chargers.

2002:
- Contributed to offensive line unit's league-best for least amount of sacks surrendered with only 20 during the season.
- Started first game in 2002 at Green Bay (11/10) in place of injured starting left guard Tony Semple and assisted effort in leading James Stewart to 122-yard outing.
- Started at right tackle vs. Tampa Bay (12/15), at Atlanta (12/22) and vs. Minnesota (12/29).

2001:
- Played in all 16 games and started 12 (11 at right tackle and one at left guard).
- Posted first start as a Lion at right tackle vs. Tennessee (10/21), moved to the left guard for Tony Semple (injury) in the third quarter.

2000:
- Started the first six games of the season, and was inactive with a back injury for three-game stretch at Dallas (10/22), vs. New Orleans (10/29) and vs. Washington (11/5), before returning to starting role at Miami (11/12).

1999:
- Started a career-high 15 games, nine of which came at left tackle and six outings at left guard.
- Inactive at New England (10/31) with a minor back ailment.
- Began season as starting left tackle (first time there during career), but moved to guard for six mid-season games once first round pick, L.J. Shelton was inserted into the lineup.

1998:
- Saw special teams action in season's first three games and began to see reserve time along the offensive line at left tackle, left guard and right guard.
- Suffered broken bone in his right hand vs. Dallas (11/15) and was inactive for the next five games.
- Returned for special teams duty for regular season finale vs. San Diego (12/27) and both Arizona postseason games.

1997:
- Limited to nine games (six starts) after suffering a knee sprain in preseason that sidelined him for the first seven games of the year.
- Saw first action of the season vs. Tennessee (10/26) and started the final six games of the campaign at left guard.
- Played for the World League's Scottish Claymores in the spring of 1997.

1996:
- Late-season signee (December 2) with Cardinals after being released by Seattle following preseason (August 25).
- Played in two late-season games for Arizona, mostly on special teams.

1995:
- Signed as a free agent with Seattle on March 1, 1995 after being granted free agency following '94 season.
- Started the season's first 13 games at left guard and served as a backup in the final three games of '95.
- Saw some playing time at center during preseason.

1994:
- Had a brief stint with Cincinnati before being signed onto the Cowboys' practice squad September 5, where he remained for the duration of the year.

COLLEGE:
- First-team All-Yankee Conference pick as a defensive lineman as a senior in 1993.
- Earned degree in health science from Richmond.

PERSONAL:
- Lettered in football, basketball and track at New York Military Academy in Cornwall on the Hudson, N.Y.
- Resides in Scottsdale, Ariz. during the off-season.
- Born in La Crosse, Wis.

Wide Receiver
Grand Valley State
Ht: 6-2
Born: 2/19/80
Drafted: '03, R6 (175)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 190
Hometown: Imlay City, Mich.

PRO: Kircus spent the first 11 weeks of the 2003 season on the Lions practice squad after being signed to it on September 1 and then was activated to the 53-man roster on November 18, 2003.

MANE FACTS

- Earned nickname "Circus Kircus" for his acrobatic catches during his college playing days.
- Kircus closed out his collegiate career with 11 catches for a school game-record 270 yards and touchdowns of 54, 67 and 10 yards against Valdosta State in the Division II National Championship game. His 10-yard touchdown reception came with 1:04 left, giving the Lakers a 31-24 win.
- Attended fourth annual Grand Rapids Luncheon at the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel with college teammate Curt Anes and Coach Steve Mariucci, an event that raised over $35,000 to benefit seven West Michigan charities through Detroit Lions Charities.
- Made a visit to DeVos Children's Hospital in Grand Rapids.
- Participated in annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf tournament to benefit Detroit Lions Charities.

2003:

- Made his NFL debut at Minnesota (11/23) and started, but did not record a catch.
- Caught his first NFL pass, a 16-yarder from Joey Harrington on third down that went for a first down, against San Diego (12/7).
- Made a 19-yard catch over the middle, a career-long, against St. Louis (12/28), but did not return to the game after suffering a shoulder injury while making the grab.

COLLEGE:

- Re-wrote virtually every school and Greater Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) receiving records while also making his mark on the NCAA Division II and overall collegiate record.
- Scored 482 points during his career, the sixth-best total in college annals and second at the Division II level behind Emporia State's Brian Shay (544, 1995-98). His 482 points also shattered the school career-record of 362 by Eric Lynch (1988-91).
- His 212 points scored in 2002 is topped only by Oklahoma State's Barry Sanders (234, 1988) in NCAA history.
- Set school all-time records with 241 catches for 4,523 yards (18.8 avg) and 80 TDs and 241 grabs set a conference career record.
- His 4,523 yards rank sixth in college football history and is topped only by Ferris State's Clarence Coleman (4,983, 1998-01) on the Division II all-time chart.
- His 80 touchdowns set a collegiate record, topping the old mark of 75 scores by Scott Pingel of Westminster (1996-99).
- Had at least one TD catch in 26 of his final 28 collegiate games.
- Two-time All-American and All-Greater Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference first-team choice and was the Daktronics All-Northeast Region and 2002 GLIAC co-Offensive Player of Year.
- Set a collegiate season-record with 35 TDs in 2002, topping the old record of 27 by Troy Edwards of Louisiana Tech in 1998.

PERSONAL:

- Received All-Michigan Athletic Conference honors as a sophomore, junior and senior at Imlay City (Mich.) High and was a Detroit News All-State performer as a junior and senior.
- Rushed for combined 1,827 yards and 38 touchdowns as a junior and senior and caught 55 passes for 1,201 yards and 19 scores.
- Lettered in four sports in high school.

Acquired: '04, UFA-StL

PRO: Loverne signed with the Lions on March 24, 2004 and is expected to compete for the starting right guard spot. He spent the 2003 season in St. Louis after he was acquired by the Rams in a trade with Washington on February 28, 2003 along with a 2003 fourth-round draft pick in exchange for RB Trung Canidate. The Redskins acquired him from the New York Jets on April 8, 2002 in a trade for an undisclosed draft pick. He originally entered the NFL as third-round draft selection (90th overall) by Jets in 1999 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Did not start playing football until high school when his mother made him so he would stay out of trouble.
- Loverne's high school football team, De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., has not lost a game since 1991. Loverne played there when the streak started.
- In his free time, he likes to hunt and some day would like to go to Africa for a safari.

2003:
- Saw action on special teams at San Francisco (11/2).
- Inactive for 15 regular season games and NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Carolina (1/10).

2002:
- Made first career start at left guard in season opener vs. Arizona (9/8) as Washington gained 442 total yards, led by QB Shane Matthews' 327 passing yards and RB Stephen Davis' 104 rushing yards.
- Started at left guard as Redskins gained 442 total yards at Tennessee (10/6).
- Started at left guard as team rushed for 165 total yards against Indianapolis (10/27).

2001:
- Played in all 16 games for Jets, contributing in short-yardage situations and special teams.
- Lined up as fullback in short-yardage situations in season opener vs. Indianapolis (9/9).
- Threw key block in first quarter vs. San Francisco (10/1), opening hole for RB Curtis Martin's two-yard touchdown run.

2000:
- Played in all 16 games for New York on special teams and in reserve capacity.
- Made key block on kickoff return, opening up WR Kevin Williams for 97-yard touchdown run vs. Buffalo (9/17).
- Lined up as eligible receiver helping Martin set Jets franchise record with 203 rushing yards vs. Indianapolis (12/3).

1999:
- Inactive for all 16 regular season contests.

COLLEGE:
- Two-year starter on offensive line at San Jose State.
- Named as all-WAC selection and key member of Trojans' WAC-leading offense as a senior.

- Transferred to San Jose State after spending freshman season at Idaho.

PERSONAL:

BROCK MARION

31

Safety
Nevada
Ht: 6-0
Born: 6/11/70
Drafted: '93, R7 (196)-Dal

12th Year
Wt: 200
Hometown: Bakersfield, Calif.
Acquired: '04, UFA-Mia

PRO: The Lions signed Marion to a four-year contract on March 25, 2004 to add depth and durability to the secondary. Marion, who enters his 12th NFL season, is slotted to start at free safety in 2004. He remains among the top safeties in the league as he has been named to the last two Pro Bowls and ranks fifth in the league with 18 interceptions over the past four seasons (2000-03). Marion, who has missed only one game since 1996, has been a leader in the secondary in both Dallas (1993-97) and Miami (1998-03). The Cowboys originally drafted Marion in the seventh round (196th overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft out of Nevada. He signed with the Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent on March 3, 1998. He ranks third on Miami's interception return yardage list with 431 yards on 20 interceptions and also is third in kickoff returns (107), kickoff return yards (2,517) and kickoff return average (23.5).

MANE FACTS

- Brock's father, Jerry, lettered as a wide receiver at the University of Wyoming from 1964-66 and went on to play one year (1967) with the Pittsburgh Steelers.
- Winning has followed Marion wherever he has gone. In his 11 NFL seasons, he has never played on a team that has finished below .500. His teams have been in the playoffs in eight of those 11 seasons and he won two Super Bowls as a member of the Dallas Cowboys. He also won three conference titles in college at Nevada.
- Owns a nursery which he runs out of his home in South Florida. He uses 3.5 of his 10 acres to buy and sell trees and other landscaping items.
- Likes to watch cartoons with his favorite being Looney Tunes.
- Has a celebration dance in which he and his kids refer to as the "Goofy Dance" where he acts like he is flying. He created the dance after a show on the Disney Channel in which Goofy teaches himself to fly.
- Started the Brock Marion Foundation, which is a nonprofit organization that exists to serve people by providing the necessary means to improve their family life.
- Has participated in fund-raising events for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
- Along with other Dolphins defensive backs, has been part of the "Prudential No Passing Zone" program, which in conjunction with Prudential, has helped 2,300 children from the Broward Boys & Girls Clubs attend Dolphins home games.
- Created his own program called "Tackles For Hunger" in which he donated $75 for every tackle he made to the Daily Bread Food Bank.
- Part of a defensive backfield that won the team's Community Service Award for 1999.

2003:
- Ranked fourth on the Dolphins with 100 tackles (67 solos), the seventh time in his career that he reached the 100-tackle mark.
- Named to the 2004 Pro Bowl, the third time he had been selected.
- Picked off Drew Bledsoe in the end zone against Buffalo (9/21).
- Intercepted Tim Hasselbeck on his own nine-yard-line with 3:25 left in the game vs. Washington (11/23) to help secure the Dolphins' 24-23 win.

2002:
- Voted as a reserve to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the second such honor in his career.
- Finished second on the team with 109 tackles (78 solos), the fifth time in the last six seasons that he surpassed the 100-tackle mark and the sixth time in his 10 NFL seasons that he accomplished the feat, and also tied for second on the squad with 13 passes defensed.
- Second on the team and tied for seventh in the AFC with five interceptions and amassed a team-high 99 interception return yards, which ranked eighth in the conference.
- In season opening win over Detroit (9/8), led Dolphins with nine tackles, while also intercepting a Mike McMahon pass and returning it 28 yards to set up a touchdown.
- Recorded seven tackles and two passes defensed in 21-13 win at Indianapolis (9/15) and came up with crucial play on the game's final snap when he knocked away a Peyton Manning pass in the end zone to preserve the victory.
- Recorded five tackles and two passes defensed, including an interception of a Jim Miller pass, in 27-9 Monday night win over Chicago (12/9), as the Dolphins held the Bears to just 88 net passing yards.
- Led club with 10 tackles, while also picking off a Daunte Culpepper pass, at Minnesota (12/21).

2001:
- Re-signed with the Dolphins to a two-year contract on June 9, 2001.
- Finished third on the team with 97 total tackles (66 solos) and snared a team-high five interceptions for 227 yards in returns and two touchdowns. The 227 interception return yards were the second-highest single-season total in club history. All five of his interceptions occurred over the final seven games of the season.
- Part of the NFL's top-ranked pass defense, one which yielded an average of 176.8 yards per contest.
- A first-alternate at safety for the AFC Pro Bowl squad.
- Inactive at Seattle (10/28) with a left calf strain, ending his streak of having started and played in 69 straight league games dating back to 1997.
- Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his play in 41-6 Monday night win vs. Indianapolis (12/10) after tying for the team-lead with 10 tackles, picking off a pair of Peyton Manning passes that he returned a total of 78 yards, marking the first multiple interception game of his NFL career and also having a forced fumble and a fumble recovery on the same play when he punched the ball loose from Ken Dilger following a 13-yard reception and then recovered it at the Colts' 44-yard-line.
- In 21-14 win over Atlanta (12/30), intercepted a Chris Chandler pass and returned it 26 yards for his first touchdown as a Dolphin and the second of his career. It occurred with 59 seconds to play in the first quarter and tied at the game at 7-7 and was his first score since December 25, 1995 at Arizona.
- A week later, in season-ending win vs. Buffalo (1/6/02), snared a Travis Brown pass at the goal-line on the final play of the game and went the distance for his second touchdown in as many weeks. The 100-yard return is the second-longest in Dolphins history.
- Named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December 2001/ January 2002, the first Dolphins' defensive back ever to earn that honor. In six games over that span, Marion recorded 52 tackles and intercepted four passes for 204 yards in returns, including two touchdowns.

2000:
- Voted to the first Pro Bowl of his career and to Pro Football Weekly's All-AFC Team.
- Led the team with 109 total tackles (85 solos).
- Part of a defense that registered an NFL-high 28 interceptions and a defensive backfield in which all four starters recorded at least five interceptions, as the Dolphins became the first NFL team since the 1981 Tampa Bay Buccaneers to have at least four players with five or more interceptions in the same season.
- His kickoff return average (23.3) tied for eighth in the AFC.
- Topped the team's tackle chart with 11 stops in Monday night game at N.Y. Jets (10/23) and also returned seven kickoffs for 193 yards, a 27.6 average. Had a season-long return of 47 yards to the Jets' 46 in the fourth quarter, which was immediately followed by a Jay Fiedler to Leslie Shepherd touchdown pass on the next play. His seven returns tied a club single-game record which had been accomplished four previous times, including once by Marion and his yardage total was the second-highest single-game figure in club annals at that time, now fourth.

- Tied for second on the team with 100 total tackles (66 solo), marking the third straight year and fourth time in the last five seasons that he attained the 100-tackle plateau.
- His kickoff return average (24.6) tied for second in the AFC and seventh in the NFL and the 62 returns established a new club single-season record. His 1,524 return yards also was a Dolphins single-season best, surpassing the old record of 1,136 yards, attained by Mercury Morris in 1969. Of his 62 returns in 1999, six went for 35 yards or longer, including three of 50 yards or longer.
- Brought back four kickoffs for a 39.3-yard average vs. Buffalo (10/4), including a career-long 93-yard return, setting up the Dolphins' only touchdown of the game. It was the longest kickoff return by a Dolphin since Marc Logan's 97-yard return for a touchdown on October 1, 1989 at Houston.
- His fumble recovery vs. San Diego (12/19) came following a Rich Owens sack of Jim Harbaugh with 5:47 to play and led to Olindo Mare's game-winning field goal in a 12-9 victory.

1998:
- Finished the regular season with 112 total tackles (89 solos), which ranked second on the team and was first among defensive backs.
- Made his Dolphins debut at Indianapolis (9/6) and registered 11 tackles, a pass defensed and a fumble recovery.
- Awarded a defensive game ball for his performance at Carolina (11/15), as the Dolphins held the Panthers to just 148 net passing yards and no touchdowns in a 13-9 victory.
- Led team with a season-high 13 stops vs. N.Y. Jets (12/13).
- Totaled a personal playoff best 12 tackles in Divisional contest at Denver (1/9/99).

1997:
- Led or tied for the team-lead in tackles on six occasions during the course of the season, and tallied double-digit tackle totals eight times.
- Earned a game ball when he posted a team-best 11 tackles vs. Chicago (9/28).
- Topped club with a career-high 19 tackles at Green Bay (11/23). It marked the third-highest single-game total in team history, and with 14 solo stops, was the second-best total in that category.

1996:
- Finished fifth on the squad with 77 total tackles (44 solos).
- Opened the season with eight tackles at Chicago (9/2), when he also returned a fumble 45 yards from his own goal line to set up a field goal.
- Amassed a season-high 15 tackles at Buffalo (9/22), which marked a career-best to that point.
- Made six tackles in the first half at San Francisco (11/10) before sustaining a fractured left scapula.
- Missed each of the final six regular season games and both playoff contests with a fractured left scapula and was placed on the reserve/injured list on December 24.

1995:
- Interception total of six (a career-high) tied for the team-lead, along with Larry Brown, and tied for fifth in the NFL and his 114 tackles (74 solos) ranked second on the team.
- Stopped a potential score with an interception in the end zone at San Diego (10/15).
- Broke up a career-best four passes the following week at Oakland (11/19), when he also intercepted a pass that led to a field goal.
- Intercepted a Dave Krieg pass and raced 31 yards for his first career touchdown in season finale at Arizona (12/25).
- Recorded an interception on the final play of Super Bowl XXX in Dallas' 27-17 victory over Pittsburgh, when he picked off a Neil O'Donnell pass.

1994:
- Had a career-high 23 special teams tackles, which tied for second on the squad.
- Made first NFL start vs. Houston (9/11), and recorded five tackles and a pass defensed.
- Had first career sack, in addition to four tackles and a forced fumble, vs. N.Y. Giants (11/7), when he earned a game ball.
- Only interception of the season came against Washington (11/20), when he also registered four stops on special teams.
- Inactive for each of the last two regular season games (at New Orleans 12/19 and at N.Y. Giants 12/24) while recovering from fractured ribs sustained against Cleveland (12/10).
- Posted nine tackles, to go along with a pass defensed, in Divisional game vs. Green Bay (1/8/95) and earned NFL Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his performance in the Cowboys' 35-9 win over the Packers by recording three tackles.

1993:
- Played in 15 regular season games and two playoff contests in rookie season, all in a reserve role.
- third on the team during the regular season with 19 special teams tackles.
- First career interception came against Miami on Thanksgiving Day (11/25), picking off a Steve DeBerg pass and returning it two yards. Finished the game with five tackles, a forced fumble and a pass defensed.
- Earned a special teams game ball at N.Y. Jets (12/18) when he led team with four tackles and recovered a fumbled punt.

COLLEGE:
- A four-year starter at the University of Nevada (1989-92) where he played cornerback each of his first three seasons before being moved to strong safety for his senior season.

- Concluded his career with 303 tackles, 13 interceptions and 44 passes defensed.
- Earned All-Big Sky accolades twice and All-Big West honors once.
- Led the Wolf Pack secondary in tackles all four years, during which time the team won three straight conference titles, participated in the NCAA I-AA playoffs twice and received a bid to the Las Vegas Bowl.

PERSONAL:
- Full name is Brock Elliott Marion, born June 11, 1970, in Bakersfield, Calif.
- Married to Keri and the couple has four daughters, Brianna , Olivia, Hannah and Gennavieve, and two sons, Brock Jr. and Luke.
- Earned nine varsity letters in football, basketball and track at West High School in Bakersfield, Calif.

STOCKAR McDOUGLE

73

Tackle
Oklahoma
Ht: 6-6
Born: 1/11/77
Drafted: '00, R1 (20)-Det

5th Year
Wt: 335
Hometown: Deerfield Beach, Fla.

PRO: McDougle showed in 2003 how productive he is when on the field and not hampered by injuries as he started all 16 games for the first time in his career. The Lions' first-round pick (20th overall) in the 2000 NFL Draft, he has established himself as the starting right tackle in 2002-03, seasons in which the offensive line set franchise records for fewest sacks allowed (20 in '03 and 11 in '04).

MANE FACTS

- Recently funded the purchase of championship rings for his high school's girl's basketball team which has won the past two Florida Class 6A titles.
- Participant in Lions' hospital visits program.
- Donated Lions' tickets to the Boys & Girls Club of Southeastern Michigan – Diehl Club through Lions CATS for kids program.
- Took part in Detroit Lions Pet Calendar to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- McDougle has three relatives playing in the NFL this season, including his younger brother, Jerome, who is a defensive end and was drafted in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. Stockar and Jerome will play on the line of scrimmage against one another this season for the first time in the NFL when the Eagles visit the Lions on September 19. The McDougles are also cousins of New York Jets S Tyrone Carter and Chicago Bears rookie DT Tommie Harris, who was the 14th pick in the 2004 NFL Draft. Stockar will face off against Harris twice in 2004, once in the season opener at Soldier Field on September 12 and when the Bears come to Ford Field on December 26.

2003:

- Solidified the right tackle position after starting all 16 games at right tackle for the first time in his career.
- For the second straight season the Lions' offensive line led the league in sacks allowed with just 11, nine better than their previous franchise record of 20 set in 2002.
- Protected QB Joey Harrington as he led the NFL in sacks per pass play ratio among quarterbacks at 1.60% (nine sacks/588 attempts) for the second straight season.
- The Lions allowed no sacks in seven games—vs. Arizona (9/7), at San Francisco (10/5), at Chicago (10/26), vs. Oakland (11/2), at Minnesota (11/23), vs. San Diego (12/7) and at Kansas City (12/14).

2002:

- Captured the starting right tackle spot in the second game of the season and held onto it before injuring his toe and missing the final three games due to the injury.
- Contributed to offensive line allowing league-low 20 sacks over the entire season.
- Member of offensive line unit that paved way for RB James Stewart's 1,000-yard season.
- Saw extensive time against Carolina (9/15) after starting right tackle Kerlin Blaise left the game with a season-ending knee injury and then started the next 11 games at right tackle, a span in which the offensive line only allowed seven sacks and helped RB James Stewart rush for 909 yards, including a single-game career-high 172 yards rushing and two touchdowns vs. Chicago (10/20).

- Started the first three games, but suffered an ankle injury during Monday Night Football vs. St. Louis (10/8) and was inactive Games 4-10.
- Returned for the final six games of the season, spending time as a reserve at both tackle positions.

2000:

- Slated to start at left guard position in training camp, but was sidelined for first quarter of season with a knee injury suffered in preseason contest at Oakland (8/18).
- As first month of season wore on, his knee healed and he was being trained for move back to more comfortable tackle position and he began full practice regiment week prior to game vs. Minnesota (10/1).
- Made first NFL game appearance (and first start) vs. Miami (11/5) and remained there for the rest of his rookie campaign.
- Among his best outings was at New York Jets (12/17) as Lions' churned out 210 rushing yards on 44 attempts, and ran in McDougle's direction on many of those rushes.

COLLEGE:

- Two-year starter at Oklahoma after a two-year junior college career at Navarro Junior College in Corsicana, Texas, in 1996-97.
- Served as Sooners' starting right tackle in all 12 games as a senior in 1999 and was named third-team All-America by Associated Press, first-team All-Big 12 by the Football News and Kansas City Star and second-team all-conference choice by Dallas Morning News and league coaches.
- Played in all 11 games in maiden season for Oklahoma as a junior in 1998 – began season as a reserve, but broke into starting lineup at right tackle.
- Second year at Navarro Junior College in 1997 saw him named a JUCO All-American for the second consecutive season (played at left tackle both years) and he was considered one of the top-rated junior college linemen in the nation by several recruiting publications following the '97 campaign.
- Arrived at Navarro Junior College as a freshman in 1996 and was named JUCO All-American after he helped lead squad to a berth in the conference championship game.

PERSONAL:

- Highly-recruited offensive lineman at Deerfield Beach (Fla.) High School.
- Came out of high school rated as one of the top 11 offensive linemen in the nation.
- He and wife, Octavia, have two sons Lamonte and Marcus.

MIKE McMAHON

Quarterback
Rutgers
Ht: 6-2
Born: 2/8/79
Drafted: '01, R5b (149)-Det

4th Year
Wt: 215
Hometown: Wexford, Pa.

PRO: McMahon is a fourth-year quarterback who continues to show the ability and potential to be an NFL starting quarterback. He saw action in three games in 2003 as a backup to Joey Harrington after starting seven games over the 2001-02 seasons, his first two in the league. An impact player who can make a big gain out of nothing, McMahon at times has been used in special offensive situations alongside Harrington because of his great athleticism. The Lions traded a sixth and seventh-round pick to move up 31 spots into the fifth round (149th overall) to select him in the 2001 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- First Rutgers quarterback ever to be selected in the NFL Draft.
- Throws a weighted football before every game, something he has done since the ninth grade. While in high school, he cut open an old football, put a small weight and rags inside and closed it up. Former Lions QB Charlie Batch offered to buy McMahon's weighted ball when he signed with Pittsburgh, but McMahon refused.
- Likes to go wakeboarding--which is like snowboarding on water behind a boat--in his free time during the summer.
- Enjoys watching comedies, especially ones with Chris Rock, and any movie that has a good-looking female.
- Was a Jim McMahon fan and then grew to like Randall Cunningham and Steve Young--guys he said that liked to run around and weren't afraid to take a hit as a quarterback.
- Appeared in the Lions' Pet Calendar with his dog, Jake, to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.

2003:

- Made his first appearance of the 2003 season against Minnesota (9/21), subbing for an injured Joey Harrington, and was sacked on his only play.
- Replaced Harrington in the second quarter of the game against Dallas (10/19) for his first significant action of the season.
- Saw significant game action at Carolina (12/21), playing the final two-and-a-half quarters against the Panthers.

2002:

- Started season opener at Miami (9/8) and scored the Lions' first touchdown in 2002 with a two-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.
- Ran for the Lions lone touchdown with an 11-yard scamper in his second consecutive start against Carolina (9/15).
- Did not see game action again until Week 8 vs. Dallas (11/3), where he was inserted for one play, a quarterback draw.
- Caught a screen pass for seven yards in a trick play vs. New England (11/28).
- Came into game vs. Tampa Bay (12/15) in second quarter and led the Lions to scores on his first two possessions, to tie the game after an early 10-0 deficit; finished the game with an 18-yard touchdown pass and a two-yard touchdown run.
- Started at Atlanta (12/22) and threw two touchdown passes (1, 15) and completed a two-point conversion attempt to Bill Schroeder.
- Threw a career-high three touchdown passes and had career-highs with 19 completions 44 attempts and 293 yards passing in season finale vs. Minnesota (12/29).

2001:

- Saw first NFL action at San Francisco (11/4), playing the third series in each half.
- Played last series of game at Arizona (11/18) at the wide receiver position, filling in for a depleted unit.
- Led Lions to near-win vs. Green Bay (11/22), scoring his first NFL points on a two-point conversion, throwing his first career touchdown and posting career highs in pass attempts (20), completions (nine), passing yards (89) and long pass (29-yard touchdown).
- Drove team to within three points of tying game at Chicago (12/2) after Charlie Batch left the game in the third quarter with a separated shoulder.
- In first NFL start, set career highs in pass attempts (25), completions (11), passing yards (165) and long pass (32) at Tampa Bay (12/9).
- Led Lions to first win of the season vs. Minnesota (12/16), nudging nearly all of his career passing highs to 15-of-28 passes for 241 yards (53.6 avg.) and career rushing highs of 12 for 74 yards with a long run of 22. He also scored his first career touchdown with a one-yard run in the first quarter.
- Tied career highs in pass attempts (28) and passing touchdowns (two) at Pittsburgh (12/23), and threw his first-ever interception on his 95th career pass attempt.
- Inactive with ankle injury vs. Dallas (1/6/02) and vs. Chicago (12/30).

COLLEGE:

- Four-year starter at Rutgers where he was tutored in the West Coast offense.
- Gritty field leader who left school ranking second on the school's all-time passing lists with 974 pass attempts, 41 touchdown passes and 6,608 yards.
- His 482 pass completions ranks third on the Scarlet Knights' all-time list.
- Holds the school record for participating in 1,188 offensive plays and ranks second with 6,793 yards of total offense.
- Played in 10 games as a senior, completing 169-of-340 passes for 2,157 yards and 18 touchdown passes. His 2,157 passing yards rank third on the school's all-time single-season passing yardage list and marked the first time a Rutgers quarterback had thrown for over 2,000 yards twice in his career. The 18 touchdown passes broke a single-season record formerly held by Bryan Fortay and Ray Lucas. He also finished third on the squad with 243 yards rushing.
- During junior season he completed 66-of-146 passes for 989 yards and five touchdowns in injury-shortened junior campaign.
- Started the first five games of the season, but suffered a shoulder injury in game vs. Virginia Tech while diving into the end zone on a scramble and required surgery.
- Started every game for Rutgers, completing 143-of-276 passes for 2,203 yards and 12 touchdowns as a sophomore, becoming only the third player in school history to throw for over 2,000 yards in a season.
- Played in nine games as a true freshman, with six starts, and led the nation's true freshman quarterbacks with 1,295 passing yards on 104-of-212 passing for six touchdowns.
- Became the first true freshman at Rutgers to start a game since Jacque LaPrairie in 1981.

PERSONAL:

- First-team all-state honors from the Associated Press and Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Fabulous 22 accolades as well as being honorable mention All-American pick by USA Today as a senior at North Allegheny (Pa.) High School.
- Played in the Pennsylvania-Ohio Big 33 All-Star Game.
- Completed 84-of-161 passes for 1,431 yards and rushed 102 times for 385 yards in his senior season in '96.
- Lettered three times in football and twice in both basketball and baseball.
- Featured in high school on "NFL Presents" piece as one of the next great quarterbacks to come out of Western Pennsylvania.
- Son of Patty and Bob McMahon.
- Born Michael Edward McMahon on February 8, 1979.

RICK MIRER

Quarterback
Notre Dame
Ht: 6-3
Born: 3/19/70
Drafted: '93, R1 (2)-Sea

12th Year
Wt: 210
Hometown: Goshen, Ind.
Acquired: '04, UFA-Oak

PRO: Mirer brings 11 years of experience as an NFL quarterback to the Lions, where he will likely backup Joey Harrington and Mike McMahon. He signed with Detroit as an unrestricted free agent on April 2, 2004 after spending the previous two seasons with the Oakland Raiders. The Lions are Mirer's seventh NFL team and the veteran signal-caller has a great deal of experience in the West Coast offense, including playing two seasons (2000-01) under Steve Mariucci for the San Francisco 49ers. He entered the league with Seattle after the Seahawks selected him with the second overall pick of the 1993 NFL Draft and he played his first four seasons there.

MANE FACTS

- Enjoys playing golf, reading and traveling.
- After receiving a surfboard from friends as a gift for his 30th birthday, he picked up the sport.
- His brother, Jeff, participated in Operation Desert Storm with the 82nd Airborne Division.
- Competed in the national Punt, Pass & Kick at age eight.
- Created the "Rick Mirer Children's Charity Foundation" in 1996 to assist in meeting needs of young people and youth organizations, such as the Boys and Girls Clubs and Big Brothers/Big Sisters.
- Established the "Rick Mirer Endowed Scholarship" at Notre Dame in 1998 as an academic grant to be given to a student from his home area who attends the university.

2003:
- Started the season as the team's third quarterback, but after injuries to Rich Gannon and Marques Tuiasosopo, Mirer became the team's starter for the final eight games of the season.
- Came into game at Detroit (11/2) in the first half after Tuiasosopo went down with a season-ending injury.

2002:
- In his first season with the Silver and Black, he suited up for all 16 league games as the third quarterback.
- Did not see any action in regular season or postseason games.

2001:
- With San Francisco 49ers in training camp and preseason, released prior to first regular season game.
- Re-signed and designated as third quarterback in Weeks 8-17 and one postseason contest for 49ers.

2000:
- Appeared in one game in first year with the 49ers while acting as reserve signal caller for 15 others.
- Played entire fourth quarter (10-of-20 for 126 yards, 17-yard TD and two-point conversion) vs. Carolina

1999:
- Acquired by Jets in training camp trade with Green Bay.
- Saw first action of season in Week 1 vs. New England (9/12) after he opened game as third quarterback and played due to injuries.
- Made first start of season at Buffalo, his first since 9/5/97 as member of Bears.
- Started at Denver and recorded sixth career come-from-behind win, throwing a 16-yard scoring pass in fourth quarter to put Jets ahead, 21-13, after trailing 13-7 entering final quarter.

1998:
- Signed with Packers as free agent four days before season opener after being waived by Chicago.
- Active, but did not play, at Detroit, vs. Baltimore, vs. San Francisco and at Pittsburgh.

1997:
- Made first start with Chicago at New England.
- Inactive Weeks 8-13.

1996:
- Posted fifth come-from-behind victory of career at Tampa Bay.
- Returned to starting duty against Oakland (11/24).

1995:
- Seattle's offensive team captain...Led team to three straight wins (was 53-of-94 for 682 yards and six TDs during that period).
- Best game of the season came vs. Cincinnati (9/17), as he passed for a season-high 279 yards on 21-of-30 passing with two touchdowns.

1994:
- Set club single-season record and tied Kansas City QB Joe Montana for league-low interception percentage (1.8) while completing 195-of-381 passes for 2,151 yards and 11 touchdowns.
- Team's second leading rusher with 153 yards on 34 carries.
- Threw for career-high three touchdown passes on 19-of-26 passing in 38-9 victory over the Los Angeles Raiders.

1993:
- Earned Rookie of the Year honors after setting NFL rookie records for attempts (486), completions (274) and passing yards (2,833) — all of which also are career highs.
- Established new team rookie records for touchdown passes (12), completion percentage (56.4) and passer rating (67.0).
- Named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and also chosen to All-Rookie teams.
- Led all AFC signal callers and set team single-season record for rushing yards by quarterback with career-high 343 yards and three touchdowns on 68 carries.
- Became only the third rookie quarterback since 1970 league merger to start all of team's games, joining Raiders Legend Jim Plunkett (while playing for New England in 1971) and Buffalo's Joe Ferguson (1973).
- Just the sixth rookie QB in NFL history to improve club's win total by four over previous season
- Second overall selection by Seattle in 1993.

COLLEGE:
- Three-year starter and four-time letterman (1989-92) for Notre Dame where he completed 377-of-698 passing attempts for 5,997 yards and gained 694 yards and scored 17 TDs on 253 career carries.
- Posted 29-7-1 record as starter (2-1 record in bowl games).
- Team co-captain as senior.
- Earned second team All-America honors from UPI and Football News as a senior after he threw for 1,876 yards and 15 touchdowns (on 120-of-234 passing with six interceptions), as a senior.
- Finalist for Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award in 1992.
- Set school's single-season mark with 18 touchdown passes as a junior and threw career-high 2,117 yards and shared team MVP honors with Jerome Bettis.
- Earned honorable mention All-America recognition from Football News in 1990 and 1991.
- Spent 1989 season as reserve signal caller.

PERSONAL:
- Two-time all-state selection at quarterback.
- Indiana Player of the Year and All-American as a senior at Goshen (Ind.) High School, and also received Bobby Dodd Award from Touchdown Club of Atlanta as national prep back of the year.
- Finished high school career with 44 touchdown passes and 6,586 passing yards, both state records.
- Broke single-season Indiana prep passing record, previously held by former Raiders quarterback Jeff George, with 3,973 yards as a senior, including 30 touchdowns.
- Father, Ken, coached Goshen High School's 1978 state championship football team.
- Married to Stephanie with two sons, Morrison and Oliver Franklin.

- Inactive at Buffalo (10/27) due to shoulder injury.
- Started three of the final four contests (at Arizona, 12/8; at Atlanta, 12/22 and vs. Minnesota, 12/29).

COLLEGE:

- Began his college career as a tight end before shifting to defensive end as a junior and then returned to the offensive side of the ball in 2001, establishing himself as one of the finest athletes in the Fighting Irish program.
- A Super Sleeper Team selection by the National Sports Bureau as a senior in 2001.
- Started every game, except vs. Pittsburgh and West Virginia (team opened with a three-receiver formation) and caught six passes for 79 yards (13.2 avg) and a touchdown.
- Lined up at right defensive end as a junior until shifting to tight end for Fiesta Bowl vs. Oregon State.
- Recorded nine tackles (seven solos) in 12 contests, seeing most playing time (61 snaps) on special teams coverage units.
- Appeared in nine games as a tight end in 1999 as a sophomore.
- Played in 10 regular season games and the Gator Bowl (vs. Georgia Tech) as a freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Born John Wesley Owens in Washington, D.C.
- Earned three letters in football as tight end and defensive end at DeMatha (Hyattsville, Md.) High School.
- Rated 95th best prep player nationally by The Sporting News and 99th best player by Chicago Sun-Times and was USA Today honorable mention All-America pick.
- Two-time all-conference and Washington Post all-metro selection.
- Selected for Chesapeake Classic that matches football standouts from Maryland and Virginia.
- Three-year starter in basketball and an all-league pick as senior.
- Averaged 12.7 points in basketball as senior to go with 13.9 rebounds.
- Helped team to three-year record of 92-13 in basketball.

ARTOSE PINNER

Running Back
Kentucky
Ht: 5-10
Born: 1/5/78
Drafted: '03, R4 (99)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 235
Hometown: Hopkinsville, Ky.

21

PRO: After recovering from a leg injury suffered in the 2003 Senior Bowl, Pinner was able to play in the final three games of his rookie season and showed an ability to gain tough yardage. The Lions selected him in the fourth round with the 99th overall pick in the 2003 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Pinner is a big fan of any movie with Ben Stiller in it.
- Collects DVDs and remote control cars.
- Had his first 100-yard rushing game in college when he ran for 105 yards on 19 carries against South Carolina in 2001, whose defense featured two current Lions, DE Kalimba Edwards and CB André Goodman.
- This season, Pinner is set to open a youth center in his hometown of Hopkinsville, Ky., and also plans to hold a football agility camp.
- While at Kentucky, Pinner was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the Key Club and the Champions Club, helped serve meals at the Hope Center shelter (1999-00) and was a guest speaker at area elementary schools (2000-01).
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."
- Attended Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
- Attended annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to benefit the Lions Courage House, HAVEN, a prevention and treatment center for domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.

2003:

- Spent the first 11 games of the season on the Non-Football Injury Reserve List while recovering from a leg injury suffered in the Senior Bowl, but recovered to play in the final three games of the season (started the last two) after being activated to the 53-man roster on November 24.
- Made his NFL debut at Kansas City (12/14) with nine rushes for 26 yards and a 21-yard reception.
- Rushed 12 times for 22 yards and had a nine-yard reception at Carolina (12/21) in his first career start.
- Led all running backs with 51 yards rushing against St. Louis (12/28).

COLLEGE:

- Ran for 2,105 yards and 17 touchdowns on 438 attempts (4.8 avg) and totaled 407 receiving yards and two touchdowns on 58 receptions during his career at Kentucky, including 11 100-yard rushing games.
- Accolades after his senior season included All-American honorable mention by CNN/SI, All-Southeastern Conference first-team pick by the SEC coaches, Associated Press, The Sporting News, College Football News, the Birmingham News and Mobile Register, SEC's Most Improved Player by the Southeastern Post, Mobile Register SEC Player of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award, given to the nation's premier running back.
- Started nine games, leading the team with 283 carries for 1,414 yards (5.0 avg) and 13 touchdowns with his 1,414 yards being the second-highest single-season rushing total in school history behind Moe Williams' 1,600 yards in 1995
- Rushed for a career-high 224 yards and four touchdowns on 31 attempts. His 224 yards rank sixth on the school's game-record list, while four scores tied another Wildcat record held by several players (most recently by Moe Williams vs. South Carolina in 1995).

PERSONAL:

- Born Artose Deonce Pinner on January 5, 1978 in Hopkinsville, Ky.
- Three-year starter, lining up as a defensive back his sophomore season, then started at running back and outside linebacker his final two years at Hopkinsville (Ky.) High.
- Amazing career totals include 704 rushing attempts for 5,829 yards (8.3 avg) and 68 touchdowns and he amassed 8,114 all-purpose yards, 84 total touchdowns and 516 points during his career and was all-conference and all-area for three years.
- Led Hopkinsville to a three-year record of 38-5, including a berth in the state championship game in his last two seasons.
- As a senior, rushed 361 times for 3,274 yards and 33 touchdowns, caught 29 passes for 340 yards and three scores and averaged 19.2 yards on punt returns, including an 89-yarder for a touchdown that year.
- Named Class AAA State Player of the Year as a senior, earned first-team all-state honors from The Associated Press and the Louisville Courier-Journal, chosen to the Lexington Herald-Leader "Class of the Commonwealth", was a finalist for Kentucky's "Mr. Football" award and was honorable mention All-American by USA Today.
- Three-year letterman in track and was a regional champion in the 400 meters the last two years and finished third in the state meet as a junior.

ROBERT PORCHER

Defensive End
South Carolina State
Ht: 6-3
Born: 7/30/69
Drafted: '92, R1 (26)-Det

13th Year
Wt: 275
Hometown: Wando, S.C.

PRO: Porcher has been one of the league's most productive and feared defensive ends for much of his 12-year career. The Lions' all-time career leader in sacks with 95.5, Porcher has led the team in sacks in eight different seasons (1993, 1996-01, 2003), making him the only Lion ever to do so—Mike Cofer and Al "Bubba" Baker each did so four times. Porcher has appeared in three Pro Bowls, with the first trip in 1998 making him the first Detroit defensive lineman to participate in the league's annual All-Star game since Jerry Ball in 1990-92. He became the first Lion to record double-digit sack totals in four consecutive years in 1996-99 (eight sacks in 2000 broke that streak) and was the only active NFL defensive end to be in double-digits from 1996-99. With two multi-sack games in 2003, Porcher has recorded 24 career games notching more than one sack. His 673 career tackles are ranked seventh in Lions' history and his 187 games played ranks third. Porcher, the Lions' first-round selection in the 1992 NFL Draft (26th overall) has been a starter since late in his second pro year (1993) and has started 155 of the team's 162 regular season contests since 1994, including starting at defensive tackle during the 1995 season.

MANE FACTS

- Appeared in a Disney commercial in the 2003 season with fellow defensive linemen James Hall, Shaun Rogers and Dan Wilkinson and quarterback Joey Harrington to promote the release of The Lion King on DVD.
- Named the Lions' NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year, the only NFL award which recognizes both on and off the field excellence.
- Named the NFL "Extra Effort" award winner for October for his commendable work in the community.
- Teamed up with Detroit Mayor Kwame Kilpatrick and brought the first annual Ford Detroit Football Classic, a game featuring two historically black colleges, to Ford Field. The event was highlighted by a Charity Gala which benefited the Robert and Kimberly Porcher Cancer Research and Relief Fund by raising more than $30,000. Donations from the event were also made to the Reggie McKenzie Foundation, The National Association of Black Auto Suppliers and a $5,000 donation was made to Rock & Wrap Up to provide food for Detroit area homeless shelters.
- Opend his new restaurant and jazz supper club, Seldom Blues, located at the Rennaisannce Center in downtown Detroit.
- Hosted his annual "Celebrity Stylemaker" fashion show which raised more than $70,000 for the Robert and Kimberly Porcher Cancer Research and Relief Fund.
- Assisted people through The Heat and Warmth Fund (THAW), with which he is an active board member, and pledged $250 for each sack in 2003 to THAW, which was matched by Detroit Edison.
- Spokesman for the Detroit Police Athletic League and in 2002 donated $10,000 to Detroit PAL for their athletic programs.
- Donated 500 turkey to "Focus: Hope," a Detroit non-profit organization for those in need during Thanksgiving.
- 2003 spokesperson for the Salvation Army Coat Drive held at Ford Field prior to the Lions – Packers Thanksgiving Day game.
- Spokesman for the state of Michigan's "Fatherhood Is Forever" campaign for the past six seasons.
- Lions' 1998-99 United Way spokesman.
- Named team's nominee for 1998 Sprint NFL Man of the Year, in which he was voted a finalist for the league-wide honor.
- 1997 Honorary Chairperson for the Metro Detroit American Heart Association Heart Walk.
- Honorary Chairperson for United Way's Black History Month celebration in 1997-99.
- Established Porcher and Friends Invitational Charities, which helps groups in South Carolina and Detroit. His charity held its first annual Celebrity Weekend in June 1998, with proceeds from a celebrity basketball game and black-tie dinner going to the Henry Ford Spinal Cord Research Center, the Robert Porcher, Jr. Scholarship Fund and to help fund a football camp the preceding week.
- Activities in 1999 to benefit his foundation included a free football camp for inner-city youth and a celebrity golf outing.
- Served as host at the 1995 "Boyz Night Out" program that mentors 300 middle-school boys in Detroit.
- Received National Fatherhood Initiative "Father of the Year" Award in June 2000.

2003:
- Named the team's co-winner of the Joe Schmidt Leadership Award along with Ray Brown.
- Earned the Lions' 2003 Ed Block Memorial Courage Award which recognizes NFL men of courage and was one of the NFL's finalists for the Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.
- Finished the season tied for the team lead with 4.5 sacks with fellow end James Hall.
- Collected a Lions' season-high two sacks at Minnesota (11/23), including a big one on third down in the fourth quarter and one that he forced Daunte Culpepper to fumble. It was his first multi-sack game since November 3, 2002 against Dallas.
- Recorded two sacks against Green Bay (11/27), the ninth and 10th sacks of his career of Brett Favre, the most he has sacked any quarterback. It gave him multiple sacks in back-to-back games for the first time since November 12 and 19, 2000 and it was the 24th time in his career he had more than one sack in a game.
- Played in his 186th game at Kansas City (12/14), moving him alone into third place on the Lions' all-time list.
- Inactive in the season finale against St. Louis (12/28) while nursing an arm injury suffered at Carolina.

2002:
- Recorded 600th career tackle vs. Chicago (10/20) and finished game with three solo tackles.
- Inactive at Chicago (11/24) due to knee injury.
- Scored first career TD on a fumble recovery in the end zone vs. Minnesota (12/29).

2001:
- Voted team's 2001 Lem Barney Defensive MVP.
- Broke Al "Bubba" Baker's mark of 75.5 career sacks on the first of two sacks recorded at Cleveland (9/23).
- Collected two sacks vs. Minnesota (12/16), the second being his tenth sack of 2001, marking his fifth career double-digit sack year. The game was also his fourth multi-sack game of the season.
- Voted to third career Pro Bowl after leading team in sacks (11.0) and moving into first place on Lions' career sack list (85.5) during the 2001 season.

2000:
- Led Lions in sacks for sixth time in career and fifth consecutive season.
- Signed four-year contract extension August 8, 2000.
- Recorded another sack vs. Green Bay (10/8), in addition to forcing a first quarter Brett Favre fumble which led to an early Lions' field goal.
- Registered five tackles at New York Jets (12/17), and moved past Paul Naumoff (532) for eighth-place on Lions' career tackles chart.

1999:
- Arguable the best year of his coaching career as one of Detroit's defensive cornerstones.
- Tallied a team and career-high 15 sacks, in addition to a sack in NFC Wild Card Playoff Game at Washington (1/8). The 15 sacks is franchise's fourth-highest all-time seasonal tally, trailing three separate tallies by Al "Bubba" Baker.

- Named to second NFC Pro Bowl in the past three years (also went following '97 season).
- Among other honors included being named to Pro Football Weekly's and Football News All-NFC team and second-team All-Pro by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest.
- Exploded in season opener at Seattle (9/12) for three sacks and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.
- Passed both William Gay and Mike Cofer into second-place on Lions' all-time sacks list with three-sack outburst at Tampa Bay (12/12), the 15th multi-sack game of his career.
- Missed only second game of his career (first since 1994) vs. San Diego (10/10) with sprained ankle suffered at Kansas City (9/26), but was back to full strength at Carolina (10/24) and responded with 1.5 sacks.
- Ranked #74 in Sporting News' preseason Top 100 player in the NFL list.

- Finished season with team-high 11.5 sacks, including four multiple-sack outings — third straight year as team sack leader.
- Also sixth on squad with 83 tackles, which equaled the career-high he set in 1997.
- Voted by teammates prior to the season as one of defensive co-captains for second straight year.
- His 18-yard sack vs. Green Bay (10/15) was the team's longest of the year.
- Career-high 13 tackles vs. Pittsburgh (11/26).
- With his two-sack outing vs. Atlanta (12/20), he became the first Lion to record double-digits in sacks in three consecutive seasons since Al "Bubba" Baker did it from 1978-81.

1997:
- Outstanding all-around season culminating with first career trip to the Pro Bowl.
- Had a then-career-best 12.5 sacks, which ranked fifth in the NFL. The sack total was highest for a Lion since William Gay registered 13.5 sacks in 1983.
- Had two sacks in the first two series (fourth multi-sack game of career) vs. Tampa Bay (9/7) before suffering an ankle injury in the midst of recording the second sack.
- Made lone career interception vs. Green Bay (9/28).
- Exploded for career-high 3.5 sacks in Lions' eight-sack onslaught vs. Indianapolis (11/23).
- Recovered a fumble and made three tackles in NFC Wild Card Playoff Game at Tampa Bay (12/28).

1996:
- Move from tackle to left defensive end energized defensive line.
- Matched his then-career-high with eight tackles, including a sack, vs. N.Y. Giants (10/27).

1995:
- Starter at defensive tackle in all 16 games.
- Collected his first two sacks of the season vs. Arizona (9/17).
- Posted two tackles in NFC Wild Card Playoff game at Philadelphia (12/30).

1994:
- Missed first half of training camp with knee injury and did not play until third preseason game.
- Led linemen with a career-high eight passes defended for the season.
- Started all but one game (vs. Tampa Bay, 11/13) after re-spraining ankle the previous week at Green Bay (11/6).
- Played well in the season finale at Miami (12/25), recovering and forcing a fumble, defending a pass and making seven tackles.
- Tied his then-career-high with eight tackles in NFC Wild Card Playoff game at Green Bay (12/31).

1993:
- Emerged during sophomore campaign to lead club with 8.5 sacks, despite playing as a reserve for the first 12 games of the season.
- Sacked Steve Beuerlein and caused a fumble on the Cardinals' next-to-last possession late in the fourth quarter vs. Phoenix (9/26).
- Batted a pass down that was intercepted by Pat Swilling in the fourth quarter, setting up the Lions' final touchdown vs. Green Bay (1/2).

1992:
- Played mostly in passing situations in pro debut at Chicago (9/6), but did not make a tackle.
- Recorded his first NFL sack at Washington (9/20).
- Made his first professional start vs. New Orleans (10/4), making season-high five tackles and defending a pass.

KELVIN PRITCHETT

93

Defensive Tackle
Mississippi
Ht: 6-3
Born: 10/24/69
Drafted: '91, R1 (20)-Dal

14th Year
Wt: 330
Hometown: Atlanta, Ga.
Acquired: '99, UFA-Jax

PRO: A dependable defensive tackle in his 14th year, Pritchett has been a solid and consistent contributor as a regular in the Lions' defensive line rotation since re-signing with the team on April 23, 1999 for his second stint with the club. Although he plays mostly defensive tackle, he has experience at end and has seen extensive playing time there throughout his career. Pritchett played with the Jacksonville Jaguars after signing there on March 11, 1995 and started 34 games in four years there. Pritchett played the first four seasons of his career with the Lions after they acquired him in a draft-day trade in 1991. He was originally selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the first round (20th overall) in the 1991 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Served as a movie review correspondent for a weekly segment during the past two seasons on WJBK-TV Fox 2 in Detroit.
- His favorite movie is Braveheart because it gets him "fired up".
- Once his football career comes to an end, he would like to go into teaching or coaching.

2003
- Played in the 125th game of his career against Chicago (11/9).
- Missed the games at Seattle (11/16) and Minnesota (11/23) due to a leg injury.

2002:
- Had two solo tackles vs. Chicago (10/20) and recovered a fumble at the Bears' six-yard line to set up the Lions' first touchdown.

2001:
- Left game at Cleveland (9/23) with sprained left knee.
- Had season-high six tackles (three solo) at Arizona (11/18).

2000:
- Serving as a vital component along team's regular defensive line rotation, adding valuable depth.
- Opened season at New Orleans (9/3) with a two-sack performance, and had season-high five tackles (four solos).
- Intercepted first-career pass vs. Washington (9/10) after it ricocheted off Redskins FB Larry Centers and returned it 78 yards to the Redskins' one-yard line, setting up field goal.

1999:
- Veteran defensive lineman who served as a key cog (20-25 snaps per game) along team's re-tooled defensive line.
- Two starts came vs. Minnesota (10/17) and at Minnesota (1/2).

1998:
- Sat out only the regular season opener at Chicago (9/6) nursing a hyperextended elbow suffered in preseason...
- Broke into starting lineup for game vs. Baltimore (9/20) and started the next four games before suffering a sprained ankle at Buffalo (10/18).

1997:
- Started five of his eight games played, but missed the second half of the season after tearing an anterior cruciate ligament in his knee.
- Huge game vs. Cincinnati (10/5) with team-record and career-high-tying three sacks.
- Started the next three games, but injured his knee in practice on October 30, and underwent surgery and was placed on Injured Reserve five days later.

1996:
- Three games missed were the first games in his career in which he didn't play.
- Did not start vs. Houston (9/8), breaking a string of 32 consecutive starts and then suffered a strained groin in game with the Oilers and missed the next game at Oakland (9/15).
- Aggravated the groin pull at New Orleans (10/6) and was inactive the next two games.
- Big play at Baltimore (11/24) when he recovered an Ernest Byner fumble in overtime that set up the game-winning field goal.
- Played reserve role in all three of the Jaguars' playoff games in '96 and made five tackles.

1995:
- One of five players to start all 16 games in Jaguars' inaugural season, playing mostly at left defensive tackle, but also saw some time at defensive end.
- Jaguars' third-leading tackler with career-high 101 stops (tops among defensive linemen) and 1.5 sacks.
- Big play vs. Cleveland (10/22) when he recovered a fourth quarter Leroy Hoard fumble at the Jaguars' 19-yard line to preserve a victory.
- Registered three games of 10 tackles and never made less than three tackles in a single game.

1994:
- In final season of first stint in Detroit, started 15 of 16 games (plus playoff contest) at right defensive end in Lions' 3-4 alignment (flipped sides with Robert Porcher).
- Finished '94 with 5.5 sacks (second on squad) and then-career-high 73 tackles (sixth on club).
- Sat out much of '94 training camp due to a contract holdout, and did not start the regular season opener vs. Atlanta (9/4).
- Started the remaining 15 outings of the season, with the highlight coming on Thanksgiving Day when he recorded his first three-sack performance of career vs. Buffalo (11/24).

1993:
- Started the last five games of the regular season (plus Wild Card playoff game) at left defensive end in Lions' 3-4 alignment after serving in a backup role along the defensive line in the season's first 11 games.
- Made a tackle for a three-yard loss on second-and-goal from the Detroit one-yard line on the Cardinals' last possession of the game against Phoenix (12/12).
- Led team with a career-high 10 tackles at Chicago (12/26).

1992:
- Career-high 6.5 sacks to go along with 59 tackles.
- First pro start came vs. Minnesota (9/13), when he made five tackles and forced a fumble.

1991:
- Saw action in every game as a rookie as a reserve along the defensive line, seeing more playing time as the season progressed
- First career sack came vs. Dallas (10/27) when he ripped down Troy Aikman for a four-yard loss.

COLLEGE:
- Voted to Mississippi's "Team of the Century" (1893-1993) in a vote by Ole Miss fans in 1994.
- Named second-team All-American as a senior in 1990 by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft and third-team by Associated Press and Football News.
- First-team All-SEC as a senior after playing right defensive end for the Rebels and collecting 91 tackles (fourth on squad) and was second on the team with eight sacks.
- Led Ole Miss with 22 tackles for loss in '90.

PERSONAL:
- First-team all-state pick and Atlanta Journal-Constitution first-team all-city choice at Therrell (Atlanta) High School.
- Recorded 100 tackles and 18 sacks as a prep senior.
- Played in both the Georgia All-Star Game and the Georgia-Florida All-Star Classic prior to enrolling at Mississippi.
- Born Kelvin Bratodd Pritchett in Atlanta.

Drafted: '99, R4 (124)-Cle

6th Year
Wt: 240
Hometown: Rockingham, N.C.
Acquired: '03, UFA-Jax

PRO: After spending the first four seasons of his career as a starting middle linebacker, Rainer's role changed in Detroit where he became a special teams standout and a versatile reserve linebacker. He signed with the Lions as an unrestricted free agent April 7, 2003 after he spent the 2002 season with the Jacksonville Jaguars following a draft-day trade in which the Jaguars acquired him from the Cleveland Browns. The Browns originally drafted Rainer in the fourth round (124th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Has an interest in architecture and urban planning, an area he majored in at Virginia, and when his football career is over he plans on using that knowledge to help low-income neighborhoods in inner-cities develop.
- Loves any movie that Halle Berry is in.
- Likes to read in his spare time.
- Donated Lions' tickets to Boys & Girls Club of Southeastern Michigan – Diehl/Marcus Garvey Academy through Lions CATS for kids program.
- Attended teammate Earl Holmes' "Holmes for Families Foundation" event as a volunteer handing out Thanksgiving dinners to families through the Children's Aid Society Project Permanency Program (CAS).
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle".
- Attended 2003 HAVEN Holiday Party for residents of the Lions Courage House.
- Visited the Detroit Lions Academy (an alternative middle school in Detroit that was started in part by the Detroit Lions) as a guest speaker.
- Very active in the Jacksonville and Cleveland communities prior to joining the Lions.
- Browns 2001 NFL Man of the Year for his exemplary community involvement.
- Supported the NFL & United Way Hometown Huddle program by helping to build a playground, and was spokesman for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Cleveland while with Browns.
- Selected by his Browns teammates for Unsung Hero Award, which recognizes the players from each team who best exemplifies the dedication and love of football, fans and community.
- Honored by Kaleidoscope Magazine as one of 40 top professionals who have made an impact in their community.

2003:

- One of the team's top special teams players throughout the season, leading with 24 special teams tackles.
- Saw his first significant action on defense at Seattle (11/16) and collected three tackles (two solos).
- Led the Lions with five special teams tackles versus San Diego (12/7) and tallied a tackle on defense.
- Tallied a season-high four solo tackles at Carolina (12/21) as well as a pair of special teams tackles.

2002:

- Led the Jaguars defense with 188 tackles (87 solos).
- Had a career-high 22 tackles (nine solo), which was the second-highest single game total in Jaguars franchise history, at Tennessee (10/13).
- Led the Jaguars in tackles seven times in an eight-game span in the middle of the season (10/13-12/1), amassing 117 tackles (54 solos) in those seven contests.

2001:

- Ranked fifth on the Browns with 91 tackles (50 solos), and led or shared the team lead in tackles in four games and had 10 tackles in four games.
- Led team with 10 tackles at Detroit (9/23), including a deflected pass in the third quarter that was intercepted by LB Jamir Miller and led to a touchdown a play later.
- On second play of the game at Chicago (11/4), Rainer hit Bears QB Shane Matthews for 15-yard sack and forced a fumble which was recovered by DT Courtney Brown and returned 25 yards for a touchdown.
- Missed the only two games of his career after he left the Bears game with an ankle injury and was inactive for the next two contests.

2000:

- Led the club for the second consecutive season with 154 tackles.
- Recorded 10 or more tackles in eight games, and led team in tackles in eight games.
- Registered 15 tackles three times for season-highs (9/3 vs. Jacksonville, 10/29 vs. Cincinnati and 11/26 at Baltimore).
- Had team-leading 15 tackles (10 solos) as well his first and only sack of the season vs. Cincinnati (10/29) and recorded his first career interception (off Akili Smith), returning it five yards.

1999:

- In his rookie season, led the Browns with a career-high 191 tackles (140 solos).
- Posted 10 or more tackles in 12 games and led the team in tackles nine times.
- Made his NFL debut vs. Pittsburgh (9/12), starting at middle linebacker, and led the Browns with 17 tackles (13 solos).
- Had a then-career-high 20 tackles (15 solos) at New Orleans (10/31).

COLLEGE:

- Ranks sixth on Virginia's career list with 347 tackles in four seasons.
- Played in 44 games, with 31 starts, totaling 347 tackles (201 solos), three forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 13 passes broken up, 16 sacks and four interceptions.
- As a senior in 1998, selected third-team All-America by Football News and first-team All-ACC, becoming the school's first middle linebacker to earn first-team honors since Dick Ambrose in 1974.
- Recipient of the Joe Palumbo Award for showing the most dedication and enthusiasm.
- Graduated in 1998 with a degree in city planning.

PERSONAL:

- Full name: Wali Rashid Rainer.
- Attended West Charlotte (N.C.) High, where he lettered three years at middle linebacker.
- Twice named all-state and All-Mecklenburg County and was named to Blue Chip Illustrated's All-Regional team.
- Three-time all-conference selection and two-time team defensive MVP.
- Father, James, played football at Winston-Salem, and brother, Jamil'h, was a teammate and reserve linebacker at Virginia.
- He and wife, Brandi, live in Charlotte, N.C. with their two children.

LIONS TALES

LIONS BY THE NUMBERS

Prior to the 1941 season, the Lions devised a numbering system for the team so fans would have an easier time identifying the players. The following number classifications were used:

Wingbacks 10-19
Blocking Backs 20-29
Fullbacks 30-39
Tailbacks 40-49
Centers 50-59
Guards 60-69
Tackles 70-79
Ends 80-89

Following Detroit's lead, a similar system was later implemented on a league-wide basis by the NFL and is still utilized today. For more information see the history of the Lions' uniform featured in the History Book section of the media guide.

DOMINIC RAIOLA

51

Center
Nebraska
Ht: 6-1
Born: 12/30/78
Drafted: '01, R2 (50)-Det

4th Year
Wt: 295
Hometown: Honolulu, Hawaii

PRO: Raiola enters his fourth season after spending the last two as the Lions' starting center. He has become the middle force of the league's best pass-protecting offensive line, which allowed a total of 31 sacks over the past two seasons. Raiola has demonstrated his durability, playing in all 48 games since the Lions drafted him in the second round (50th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- A big fan of Al Pacino, he owns most of the movies the actor is in including his favorite, Scarface, which he has watched repeatedly.
- Younger brother, Donovan, is the starting center at the University of Wisconsin.
- While in high school, Raiola was assigned to hold the headset cord for the head coach of the California Bears in the 1996 Aloha Bowl and the NFC team for the 1998 Pro Bowl. The head coach was Steve Mariucci.
- Participated in annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf tournament to benefit Detroit Lions Charities.

2003:

- Took over the long-snapping duties for much of the game against San Diego (12/7) after Bradford Banta left the game with a broken clavicle and recorded the first two special teams tackles of his career.
- For the second straight season the Lions' offensive line led the league in sacks allowed with just 11, nine better than their previous franchise record of 20 set in 2002.
- Key protector of Joey Harrington as he led the league in sacks per pass play ratio among quarterbacks at 1.60% (nine sacks/563 pass plays), the second straight year he has led in that category.
- The Lions allowed no sacks in seven games—vs. Arizona (9/7), at San Francisco (10/5), at Chicago (10/26), vs. Oakland (11/2), at Minnesota (11/23), vs. San Diego (12/7) and at Kansas City (12/14).

2002:

- Selected by his teammates as the recipient of the Chuck Hughes Most Improved Player Award.
- Had a strong outing in only his third NFL start against Green Bay (9/22) and made a key block on a screen pass, helping RB James Stewart score a 52-yard touchdown.
- Key contributor to the Lions offensive line which allowed only 20 quarterback sacks, the fewest in the NFL in 2002 and a then-franchise record, and helped RB James Stewart rush for over 1,000 yards for the second time in three seasons.
- Played significant role in helping Joey Harrington finish season with the league's lowest sack-per-pass-play ratio among passers (eight sacks/437attempts for 1.83%).
- Offensive line unit allowed no sacks in seven games: vs. New Orleans (9/29), at Buffalo (10/27), at Green Bay (11/10), vs. New York Jets (11/17), vs. New England (11/28), at Arizona (12/8) and vs. Minnesota (12/29); and only one sack in four other contests: vs. Green Bay (9/22), at Minnesota (10/13), vs. Dallas (11/3), vs. Tampa Bay (12/15).
- Helped pave way for James Stewart's career-high 172-yard rushing effort in Lions' 23-20 overtime win vs. Chicago (10/20).

2001:

- Spent majority of rookie season blocking on several special teams units, however was inserted at center at various times during six games near the latter half of the season.
- Selected to the Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie squad.
- In goal-line situations vs. Cincinnati (10/28), checked into game as eligible receiver at tight end; also returned a kickoff 11 yards in that game along with usual duties on special teams units.
- Saw first action at center at San Francisco (11/4), snapping to rookie QB Mike McMahon in third series of each half.

COLLEGE:

- Turned pro after playing three seasons at Nebraska, but was a four-year collegian (redshirted in 1997).
- Cornhuskers' first freshman offensive lineman to start a game since Rob Zatechka in 1991.
- The two-time Nebraska Lifter of the Year finalist set a school record with 140 knockdown blocks (11.67 per game) as a sophomore in 1999, only to better that mark as a junior in 2000 with 145 (13.2 per game).
- Besides on-field accolades, he garnered Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors the last two years while making the conference's honor roll three times.
- In 2000, he was an All-American first-team selection by the Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association, rated the best center in the country by The Sports Xchange, a finalist for both the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top lineman and a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection.
- Junior year was first full year as starter and was named a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection, the first sophomore Nebraska offensive lineman to earn such honors since Dave Rimington in 1980 and was a member of Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl Team.

PERSONAL:

- Three-year starter on the offensive line for St. Louis High School in Honolulu.
- Team went undefeated in each of his last three years and ranked 15th nationally in 1996, winning its 11th straight state championship.
- Earned first-team all-state honors as a junior in 1995 and as a senior in 1996.
- Also a National Honor Society member, a three-year scholar-athlete and ranked sixth in his class of 180.

CORY REDDING

78

Defensive End
Texas
Ht: 6-4
Born: 11/15/80
Drafted: '03, R3 (66)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 290
Hometown: Houston, Texas

PRO: In his second season, Redding will look to become a permanent fixture on the defensive line and try to establish himself at either defensive end or tackle. After being selected by the Lions in the third round with the 66th overall choice in the 2003 NFL Draft, Redding saw time at both positions during his rookie campaign.

MANE FACTS

- Redding played and started alongside Lions DT Shaun Rogers as a sophomore at Texas, and was a teammate of Lions CB Rod Babers and rookie WR Roy Williams.
- Knows every line of Ferris Bueller's Day Off and loves cartoons, especially Tom and Jerry.
- Learned how to ride a bicycle backwards while sitting on the handlebars.
- Although he weighs 290 pounds, he can walk on his hands and do flips.
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."
- Attended Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
- Attended annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to benefit the Lions Courage House, HAVEN, a prevention and treatment center for domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.

2003:

- Missed the first two games of the season due to a leg injury suffered during the preseason and went in and out of the lineup following his return, seeing time at both defensive end and tackle along with special teams.
- Made his NFL debut against Minnesota (9/21) and recorded a solo tackle.
- Had the most productive game of his young career at Kansas City (12/14) with a season-best four tackles (three solos) and his first career pass defense.

COLLEGE:

- Two-time first-team All-Big 12 Conference selection, playing in every game since arrival at Texas, including a string of 35 consecutive starts.
- Finished his career with 201 tackles (123 solos), 21 sacks (for 174 yards lost), 53 stops (third on the school's career-record list) for losses of 249 yards, an interception, six pass deflections, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.
- As a senior, was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Award (nation's top interior lineman) and inaugural Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end) and was on the Nagurski Award (nation's top defensive player) watch list.
- A key member of a defense that led the conference and ranked 10th in the NCAA in pass defense (162.8 ypg), second in the league and eighth in the country in scoring defense (16.0 ppg), second in the Big 12 and 12th nationally in total defense (296.6 ypg) and third in the conference and 10th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (98.3 rtg) in 2002.
- In 2002, started every game at left defensive end and recorded 66 tackles (45 solos) with 7.5 sacks for minus 56 yards and 20 stops for losses of 82 yards. His 20 tackles behind the line of scrimmage ranks sixth on the school's season-record list and he earned player of the game honors vs. North Texas, North Carolina, Kansas State and Texas A&M.
- All-Big 12 Conference honorable mention as a sophomore.

PERSONAL:

- Named USA Today's National Defensive Player of the Year and a consensus All-American choice as a senior in 1998 at North Shore High after he recorded 215 tackles (103 solos), 15 sacks, 22 stops for losses, 25 pressures, six forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and four interceptions.
- Also named the nation's top linebacker by Parade, Associated Press All-State first-team and Texas Sports Writers Association Texas Class 5A Defensive Player of the Year.
- Excelled in track, winning the state Class 5A title in the discus as a junior and senior (career best toss of 193'9").

CHARLES ROGERS

80

Wide Receiver
Michigan State
Ht: 6-3
Born: 5/23/81
Drafted: '03, R1 (2)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 202
Hometown: Saginaw, Mich.

PRO: Rogers enters the 2004 season, his second in the league, trying to improve on a stellar start to his NFL career that was ended prematurely after just five games due to a broken collarbone. Rogers contributes play-making abilities to the team's West Coast offense and an ability to stretch the field with his speed. The Lions took Rogers with the second overall selection of the 2003 NFL Draft, and signed him to a six-year contract.

MANE FACTS

- During the 2003 NFL Draft weekend, he appeared in a commercial for EA Sports video games with Baltimore LB Ray Lewis where he rapped his college receiving statistics.
- Has not missed an episode of The Sopranos since the series began in 1999.
- Attended Lions' Rookie Club dinner event as celebrity waiter to benefit Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."
- Attended annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to benefit the Lions Courage House, HAVEN, a prevention and treatment center for domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Donated Lions' tickets to the Salvation Army - Saginaw through Lions CATS for kids program.
- Attended teammate Earl Holmes' "Holmes for Families Foundation" event as a volunteer handing out Thanksgiving dinners to families through the Children's Aid Society Project Permanency Program (CAS).

2003:

- Had his promising rookie campaign cut short after breaking his right clavicle on October 7 during a bye week practice.
- The team's leading receiver at the time of his injury with 22 catches for 243 yards and three touchdowns in five games.
- Caught touchdowns on his first two NFL receptions in debut vs. Arizona (9/7), becoming the first rookie in Lions history to catch two touchdowns in his first game and the fifth Lions rookie to record two touchdown receptions in a game.
- The first NFL rookie to record touchdowns on his first two receptions since Tony Horne did it for the St. Louis Rams in 2000.
- Led the team with a career-high six catches and 54 yards against Minnesota (9/21).
- Had a team and career-high 62 yards receiving at Denver (9/28), including a 33-yard touchdown from Joey Harrington, the longest of his career.
- Placed on the Reserve/Injured list on December 2.

COLLEGE:

- Finished career with 135 receptions for 2,821 yards (20.9 avg.) and 27 touchdowns in only 24 games at Michigan State.
- Holds the Spartans record with 27 career touchdown receptions after breaking the previous mark of 24 set by Detroit Tigers legend and current bench coach Kirk Gibson.
- Third on MSU all-time receptions list behind Courtney Hawkins (138, 1988-91) and Andre Rison (146, 1985-88).
- Second in MSU history in career receiving yards with 2,821 behind only by Rison's 2,992 and second in school history in career receiving yards average behind Gibson (21.0 avg, 1975-78).
- Joined Plaxico Burress (65 in 1998 and 66 in 1999) as only players in school history to catch at least 60 passes in a season during career and also as the only Spartans to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season twice in a career (1,013 in 1998 and 1,142 in 1999).
- Consensus All-American and All-Big Ten Conference first-team selection and recipient of the Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's premier receiver, as a junior in 2002.
- Team MVP who broke own school season-record with 68 receptions for 1,351 yards (19.9 avg) and 13 touchdowns with 57 of his 68 catches going for first downs, highlighted by an amazing touchdown grab in the back of the end zone against Notre Dame.
- Against Northwestern in '02, broke Big Ten and NCAA Division I record with 13th consecutive game with a touchdown reception previously held by Michigan's Desmond Howard.
- As a sophomore in 2001, an All-American first-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, All-Big Ten Conference second-team pick by media and member of CBS Sportsline's All-Bowl team after leading the team with 67 receptions (second-best total in school history as he set school season-records with 1,470 yards (21.9 avg) and 14 touchdowns, topping the previous marks of 1,142 yards and 12 scores by Plaxico Burress in 1999.
- In MSU bowl game vs. Fresno State (Silicon Valley Football Classic), set school single-game record with 270 yards on 10 catches, including 69 and 72-yard touchdowns. His 270 yards broke previous MSU record of 255 yards by Plaxico Burress vs. Michigan in 1999.
- Along with his 201 yards earlier in the year vs. Wisconsin, it marked the first time a player gained over 200 yards receiving twice in a season and in career.

PERSONAL:

- Consensus All-American and unanimous all-state (three times) and All-Midwest Region pick at Saginaw (Mich.) High.
- Rated the best high school player in the country by Prep Football Report and named Midwest Region Offensive MVP by PrepStar.
- Caught 40 passes for 760 yards (19.0 avg) and 14 touchdowns as a senior and added 15 carries for 125 yards and two touchdowns and returned two punts for touchdowns as he led the team to the state Division II title that year.
- Made 53 catches for 956 yards (18.0 avg) and 14 touchdowns as a junior.
- Finished his career with 126 receptions for 2,644 yards (21.0 avg) and 39 touchdowns.
- Also excelled in track, winning the state titles in the 200 meters (2000), 400 meters (1999) and 100 and 200 meters (1998).

SHAUN ROGERS

Defensive Tackle
Texas
Ht: 6-4
Born: 3/12/79
Drafted: '01, R2 (50)-Det

4th Year
Wt: 345
Hometown: LaPorte, Texas

92

PRO: The fourth-year defensive tackle, who has played in 46 games (44 starts) in his first three NFL seasons, along with Dan Wilkinson, made up one of the most formidable defensive tackle duos in the league. In 2003, he returned to the form he showed in 2001 as a rookie, when he was one of the biggest impact players defensively for the Lions, playing in and starting all 16 games and leading all NFL defensive lineman in tackles with 97. Rogers has overpowering strength coming off his blocks and was considered a "steal" for the Lions in the second round (61st overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Assistant Cub Scout leader in his youth.
- Collects throwback jerseys.
- Eats a pulled chicken sandwich before every home game.
- Enjoys the Lord of the Rings trilogy and the movie The Five Heartbeats.
- With teammates James Hall, Robert Porcher, Dan Wilkinson and Joey Harrington, Rogers appeared in a Disney commercial in 2003 promoting the release of The Lion King on DVD.
- Donated Lions' tickets to the Wolverine Human Services through Lions CATS for kids program.
- Worked with youth at annual "Hometown Huddle."
- Visited the Capuchin Soup Kitchen in Detroit to prepare Thanksgiving meals and receive a lesson on the art of turkey carving.

2003:

- Named an alternate to the 2004 Pro Bowl for the first time in his career, voted by his teammates as the Chuck Hughes Most Improved Player and named to Football Digest's All-Pro second-team.
- Racked up a career-best four sacks, third best on the team.
- Had a season-high eight tackles (all solos) against Dallas (10/19), including two tackles-for-loss.
- Played perhaps his best game of the season to date versus Oakland (11/2) with six tackles (three solos), a sack of Marques Tuiasosopo on third down just short of the Raiders' goal-line, a pass defense, two quarterback pressures and a team-high three quarterback knockdowns.
- Recorded his third sack of the season against Green Bay (11/27), as well as a pass defense, three quarterback knockdowns, a pressure and four tackles (one solo).
- Put together a great game to end the season against St. Louis (12/28) with a sack, forced fumble, three tackles (one solo), three quarterback knockdowns anad four hurries and helped limit the Rams' rushing attack to just 41 yards in the game. His sack and forced fumble of Marc Bulger in St. Louis territory led to a Lions' touchdown.

2002:

- Recorded six tackles (two solo) against Carolina (9/15) and blocked a 46-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter.
- Inactive vs. Green Bay (9/22) and vs. New Orleans (9/29) after sustaining a hand injury against the Panthers in Week 2 and was forced to play with a cast for the rest of the season.
- Finished with five tackles (three solos), a sack and a pass defense and blocked a 43-yard field goal attempt vs. Minnesota (12/29).

2001:

- Ranked third on the team and led all NFL defensive lineman with 97 tackles (62 solos).
- Voted as the Mel Farr Rookie of the Year by his teammates and was ranked one of the 10-best rookies of the 2001 season by the Sporting News.
- Started in place of injured Luther Elliss in the season opener at Green Bay (9/9) and posted six tackles (three solo) in his first NFL action.
- Had breakout day after posting his first professional sack as well as his first career multi-sack game with two sacks at Minnesota (10/14) in addition to eight tackles (three solos).
- Posted his first double-digit tackle game (11; seven solos) vs. Tennessee (10/21).
- Blocked two field goal attempts at San Francisco (11/4), the second being a 19-yard attempt with 1:56 left in the fourth quarter that gave the Lions a chance to tie the game. His first block of the day was a 49-yard attempt in the second quarter, the first for a Lion since James Jones batted an attempt away at New Orleans (9/3/00).
- Led the team in tackles vs. Dallas (1/6/02) with 10 stops (seven solos) and a pass defensed.

COLLEGE:

- Started 20 of 41 games he played in for the Texas Longhorns, ranking third on the school's career-record list with 53 stops behind the line of scrimmage as well as collecting 199 tackles (108 solos) with 14 sacks and 54 pressures during his career...
- All-Big 12 second-team choice in 2000 despite being hindered for much of the year with a high-ankle sprain that would require surgery after the season. Despite lack of usual mobility, he was one of the major reasons Texas limited opponents to only 94.0 yards per game rushing, the lowest figure by a Longhorn squad since 1983, and the Longhorns led the nation in pass efficiency defense (88.3) and ranked seventh in total defense (278.3 ypg) as well.
- In 1999, he earned All-Big 12 Conference first-team honors, joining Pittsburgh Steelers 2000 first round choice, Casey Hampton in becoming the Longhorns' first defensive tackle tandem to garner such accolades in the same season since Ray Dowdy and Greg Ploetz in 1971.
- Started 12 of 13 games as a junior, recording a career-high 80 tackles (43 solo) with 5.5 sacks for 33 yards and 24 quarterback pressures. His 27 stops for loss of (84 yards) rank second on the school's season-record list behind Kiki DeAyala's 33 in 1982.

PERSONAL:

- Two-way tackle at LaPorte (Tex.) High.
- Also lettered in basketball.
- Father, Ernie, played at Rice (1975-78), was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1979 and played in the Canadian Football League and also for the Houston Gamblers in the United States Football League.

CORY SCHLESINGER

30

Fullback
Nebraska
Ht: 6-0
Born: 6/23/72
Drafted: '95, R6b (192)-Det

10th Year
Wt: 247
Hometown: Duncan, Neb.

PRO: Schlesinger enters his 10th season as the Lions fullback, still in the prime of his career as he was selected as an alternate to the 2003 and 2004 Pro Bowls. One of the best pure fullbacks in the NFL, he was selected by his teammates as the recipient of the Bobby Layne Offensive MVP Award in 2003 as well as the Mike Utley Spirit Award in 2002 and 2003. Despite his bruising lead-blocking ability, Schlesinger has proved to be very durable, missing only one game in his nine-year career. He is also a valuable member of the Lions special teams units and his 118 special teams tackles in 1995-01 were the most of any player on the squad in that span. Schlesinger was the second of the Lions' two sixth-round draft picks in 1995 (192nd overall) and he signed a two-year contract extension prior to the 2003 season.

MANE FACTS

- Currently pursuing his master's degree in vocational education at Nebraska.
- Once his football career is over, he plans to go into teaching high school and coaching football.
- Spent parts of 1995-97 off-season as a student teacher at Park Middle School in Lincoln, Neb., and taught at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, during the 1998-99 off-seasons.
- Muscle car enthusiast.
- Drove in demolition derbies for three years during high school.

- Took part in a special wall-raising ceremony to begin the building of the first Habitat for Humanity home sponsored by the Lions.
- Attended 2003 HAVEN Holiday Party for residents of the Lions Courage House.

2003:

- Voted by his teammates as the Bobby Layne Offensive MVP Award winner and as the Mike Utley Spirit Award winner.
- Named an alternate to the 2004 Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season.
- Played his best all-around game of the season against Oakland (11/2) highlighted by a 33-yard touchdown reception from Joey Harrington, the longest touchdown catch of his career. He led the team with four catches for 53 yards, opened lanes for the Lions' second 100-yard rushing effort of the season and made a key block on Reggie Swinton's 61-yard kickoff return.

2002:

- Scored first ever rushing touchdown at Ford Field against the Green Bay Packers (9/22).
- Led Lions with six receptions for 46 yards at Minnesota (10/13).
- Helped pave the way for RB James Stewart who ran for a career-high 172 rushing yards vs. Chicago (10/20) while playing with a back injury and sustaining a chest injury.
- Left game vs. New England (11/28) early due to injury and did not have any receptions or running attempts for the first time in 2002.

2001:
- Voted team's Chuck Hughes Most Improved Player by teammates and was also voted onto Howie Long's Tough Guy team.
- Named to the 2001 All-Pro Team by Sports Illustrated's Paul Zimmerman ('Dr. Z') and to the College and Pro Football Newsweekly 2001 All-Pro Second Team squad.
- Finished the 2001 season with single-season career highs in rushing attempts (47), rushing yards (154), rushing touchdowns (three), receptions (60) and receiving yards (466).
- Reeled in career highs with five receptions for 37 yards at Cleveland (9/23).
- Scored first rushing touchdown of his career along with posting then-career highs in receptions (five) and receiving yards (54) vs. Tampa Bay (11/11).
- Played solid game leading the team with career-high six receptions (41 yards), along with five rushes for 39 yards, including a career-long 26-yard run off a fake punt vs. Green Bay (11/22).
- Set career-highs with 11 catches for 67 yards vs. Chicago (12/30).

2000:
- Played in all 16 games for fifth time in six NFL seasons and second year as Lions' starting fullback.
- His 15 special teams tackles (tied for fifth on squad) as well.

1999:
- Served in 1999 for first time in his NFL career as Lions' full-time starter at fullback.
- Named as a member of the 1999 All-Madden team and filmed a sketch for the show in a Lincoln, Neb. grocery store where he repeatedly crashed into other shoppers with his cart.
- Finished third on the team with 15 special teams tackles.
- Very productive season opener at Seattle (9/12) with career-highs in rushes (10) and yards rushing (50).
- Third career TD reception (three yards) came on play-action toss on fourth-and-one vs. St. Louis (11/7).

1998:
- Backup fullback to Tommy Vardell at most times during '98 (two starts), but saw significant action in the backfield.
- Served as one of squad's most productive special teamers for fourth consecutive season – 18 tackles ranked fifth on the Lions.
- Part of team's "jumbo" package at goal-line and in short-yardage with he and Vardell sharing the backfield.
- Career-high five special teams stops at Chicago (10/4).

1997:
- Split time at fullback with Tommy Vardell (two starts) and saw more action there than in previous years with Lions moving to a predominantly two-back set.
- Again played role as one of the team's most valuable special teams members (finished second on team with 27 tackles).
- Caught career-long 33-yard pass at Green Bay (11/2) on fourth-and-one on a misdirection route, advancing Lions to the Packers' one-yard line with a touchdown occurring on the next play.
- Made several key blocks vs. Minnesota (11/16) helping spring Vardell for three one-yard touchdown runs and a 41-yard scamper.
- Scored his first career touchdown (one yard) at Minnesota (12/14) on play-action pass on goal line.

1996:
- Primarily used on special teams, leading club in that category with 13 stops on the year.
- Received only starting nod at fullback at Chicago (11/24), but did not record a carry or reception.

1995:
- Saw extensive action in rookie season as lead blocker for Barry Sanders in short-yardage and goal-line situations.
- Started two of the club's first three games at fullback, but playing time in backfield diminished dramatically soon thereafter when offense began employing three-receiver sets on almost every play from scrimmage.
- One of squad's top special teams players throughout the season, notching 15 special teams stops (second on the team).

COLLEGE:
- A two-year starter at Nebraska, he rushed for 456 yards in 63 carries (7.2 avg.) and four touchdowns as a senior in 1994, nearly double his career total of 250 yards going into the season.
- 1993 Husker Co-Lifter-of-the-Year with linebacker Donta Jones.
- Earned All-Big Eight honorable mention honors in '94 in coaches poll and a Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight pick the same year with a 3.44 grade point average in industrial technology.
- Scored two touchdowns, including the game-winner, in the 1995 Orange Bowl as the Cornhuskers sealed the national championship.
- Finished his junior year in 1993 as the team's fifth-leading rusher with 48 carries for 193 yards and one touchdown.
- Earned his degree in industrial technology education.

PERSONAL:
- Two-time all-state selection at linebacker at Columbus (Duncan, Neb.) High and led the team in tackles as a junior and senior (117 stops).
- Also played fullback as a senior in 1990, rushing for 1,514 yards and 23 touchdowns (including nine 100-yard games).
- Named the Nebraska Defensive Player of the Year as a prep senior.
- Played with a group of Nebraska football all-stars in the Down Under Bowl in Sydney, Australia following his senior campaign.
- Won the 189-pound wrestling state championship twice during his prep career and toured with an all-star wrestling team to Quebec, Canada.
- He and wife, Karen, have two daughters – Natalie Rae (5/15/98) and Leah Kate (5/3/00).

LIONS TALES

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit. The Lions now operate primarily from their new headquarters in Allen Park, and some portions of the organization are housed in the warehouse portion of Ford Field.

PAUL SMITH

27

Fullback
Texas-El Paso
Ht: 5-11
Born: 1/31/78
Drafted: '00, R5 (132)-SF

5th Year
Wt: 234
Hometown: El Paso, Texas
Acquired: '03 UFA

PRO: The Lions re-signed Smith on February 2, 2004 after he proved to be a valuable special teams player and solid backup running back and fullback in the seven games after he signed with Detroit on November 11, 2003. When he signed with the Lions, he was reunited with Head Coach Steve Mariucci and Running Backs Coach Tom Rathman, who he played for in San Francisco before being released by the 49ers after the 2002 season in which he played 11 games in addition to the two San Francisco playoff games. Smith is a powerful back capable of running through tacklers, explosive between tackles and quick around end and also a good receiver out of the backfield with great open-field vision. He was originally drafted by the 49ers in the fifth round (132nd overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft.

MANE FACTS

- A huge fan of The Matrix movies, Smith saw each of the two sequels on the first night they were released, plays The Matrix video games and watches the Animatrix series on television.
- Likes to draw and paint in his free time and last Christmas, he painted a portrait of his wife and gave it to her as a gift.
- Growing up in Texas, he followed Barry Sanders closely.

2003:
- Signed with the Lions on November 11 and played on special teams just five days later.
- Made a huge impact on special teams at Minnesota (11/23) by making two tackles on punt returns and holding the returner to zero yards on those plays.
- Saw his first action on offense against St. Louis (12/28) and put together a solid day with a career-high and team-high tying five receptions (previous high was two) for 45 yards versus the Rams, including three straight receptions in the second quarter.

2002:
- Saw action mostly on special teams, but was used at times on offense and as a kickoff returner.
- Inactive Weeks 3-7 with a hamstring injury.
- Set career-highs with 13 carries for 40 yards (3.1 avg.) at Dallas (12/8).

2001:
- Saw action in 15 games, mostly on special teams
- Had first rushing attempts of the season, gaining 27 yards on four carries and recording the first touchdown of his career on a 13-yard carry against Buffalo (12/2).

2000:
- Mainly used on special teams.
- Made NFL debut at Green Bay (10/15).
- Had first two NFL carries for 20 yards at Carolina (10/22).
- Caught two passes for a career-high 55 yards vs. Kansas City (11/12).

COLLEGE:
- Started 22 of 43 games in four-year career at UTEP.
- Rushed for 2,539 yards on 603 carries in his career, which ranks fourth in school history.
- All-America honorable mention and first-team All-Western Athletic Conference as a senior after he rushed for 1,258 yards on 272 carries and 12 touchdowns.
- Earned All-WAC honorable mention as a junior after gaining 660 yards on 149 carries and two touchdowns.
- Played in every game as a sophomore with three starting assignments at fullback, totaling 432 yards on 115 carries and two touchdowns.
- Scored first career touchdown and first career 100-yard game vs. San Jose State.

PERSONAL:
- Born on January 31, 1978 in El Paso, Texas.
- Earned All-District and El Paso All-Star selections at Andress (El Paso) High.
- Married, he and his wife, Maribel, have one daughter, Nevaeh Raine and reside in El Paso, Texas.

REGGIE SWINTON

10

Wide Receiver
Murray State — 4th Year
Ht: 6-0 — Wt: 182
Born: 7/24/75 — Hometown: Little Rock, Ark.
Drafted: '98, UndraftedFA-Jax — Acquired: '03, W-GB

PRO: Swinton emerged as the Lions kickoff and punt returner in 2003 after Eddie Drummond suffered an injury early in the season. The Lions claimed Swinton off waivers from Green Bay on October 10 to be a return specialist and add depth to the receiving corps. Swinton began the 2003 season with the Dallas Cowboys, a team he played for in 2001-02, then was traded to Green Bay on September 30 before being waived on October 9. After struggling to find a home with six teams in pro four leagues, he arrived in Dallas in 2001 and proceeded to re-write the Cowboys kick return record books. Swinton established team records for kickoff returns, kickoff return yards and combined kick return yards (kickoff and punt) to earn All-Pro honors as a rookie, then continued his trek in 2002 by moving into third on the Cowboys career kickoff return average list (24.0 avg.), behind Mel Renfro (26.4 avg.) and Herschel Walker (25.3 avg.). His 87 career kickoff returns are the third most in club history behind Kevin Williams (144) and James Dixon (101) and his 2,089 career kickoff return yards are the fourth most in club history, just behind James Dixon (2,315) and Mel Renfro (2,246).

MANE FACTS

- Over the past year, he released his first rap CD entitled "Whatcha gone do?"
- In 2002, he participated in the Cowboys High School Coach of the Week Program and presented the head coach of MacArthur High School in Irving, Texas a check for $1000 for their football program.

2003:

- Turned out to be a huge midseason acquisition for the Lions as a replacement for Eddie Drummond on returns and played significantly at receiver in his 11 games in Detroit.
- Finished the season ranked fourth in the NFL in punt return average (13.8) and was one of only two players in the league (Dante Hall) to have both a kickoff and punt return for a touchdown in 2003.
- The 13.8 average on punt returns was the fourth highest in Lions' history for a season.
- His 40 kickoff returns were the eighth most in team history for a season and his 964 kickoff return yards were the seventh most.
- Recorded three kickoff returns for 65 yards (21.7 avg.) and one punt return for no yards vs. Atlanta (9/7), his only game played with the Cowboys of the season.
- Traded to Green Bay on September 30, waived on October 9 by the Packers and then claimed on October 10 by Detroit.
- Had a huge day returning kickoffs at Chicago (10/26) with four returns for 149 yards (37.3 avg.), highlighted by a 96-yard return for a touchdown, his first touchdown as a Lion and the second of his career. It was the first Lions kick return for a touchdown since Terry Fair returned one 105 yards against Tampa Bay (9/28/98) and the 96-yarder was the second-longest in the NFL in 2003.
- Averaged an outstanding 38.7 yards (three returns for 116 yards) on kickoff returns, including a 61-yard return late in the game that set up a key Lions field goal against Oakland (11/2).
- Had a career-high five receptions for 54 yards, including a season-long 25-yarder, against San Diego (12/7).
- Made a big play at Carolina (12/21) by returning a punt 89 yards for a touchdown, his first punt return for a score since 2001 and his longest ever punt return. The 89-yarder was the second-longest in the NFL in 2003 and tied for the third-longest in Lions' franchise history.

2002:

- Finished sixth in the NFC and 10th in the NFL with a 24.9 kickoff return average while catching seven passes for 63 yards and returning 19 punts for 141 yards (7.4 avg.).
- Began the year by straining his hamstring in a preseason game at Carolina (8/17), and the recovery from the strain forced him to miss the first two games of the regular season.
- Made his first appearance of the season at Philadelphia (9/22) and returned his first kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown, tying the fourth longest kickoff return in club history and was the first kickoff return for a score by Dallas since Kevin Williams went 87 yards with a return against Arizona on October 9, 1994. He finished the Eagles game with 213 kickoff return yards, breaking the club record of 205 yards set by Jason Tucker at the New York Giants on October 15, 2000, while his 215 combined return yards was the third best total in team history.
- His two kickoff returns against Seattle (10/27) pushed him past 75 career kickoff returns, and moved him onto the club's all-time return list in third place at 24.7 yards-per-return.

2001:

- Finished the Arena League 2 season as the leading receiver for the Arkansas Twisters.
- In 13 games with the Twisters, he set franchise records with 85 receptions for 1,463 yards and 33 touchdowns.
- After joining the Cowboys in training camp in August, he went on to set single-season club records for kickoff returns (56), kickoff return yards (1,327) and combined kick return yards (1,741).
- His 414 punt return yards in 2001 were the seventh most in club history and he also tied the club mark for combined kick returns (87), despite not taking over punt return duties until Week 7.
- His 13.7-yard average on punt returns ranked third in the NFL, second in the NFC and his 23.7-yard average on kickoff returns was ninth in the NFL and seventh in the NFC. Those numbers earned him second-team All-Pro recognition from College and Pro Football Newsweekly as a punt returner.
- Set the tone for his season in his NFL debut against Tampa Bay (9/9), returning his first kickoff 77 yards to set up Dallas' first field goal.
- Biggest day as a return man came in the Thanksgiving Day match-up against Denver (11/22) when he recorded his first punt return for a touchdown, taking one back 65 yards in the fourth quarter. His 11 total returns tied Butch Johnson for the second most in a game in club history, and his 224 total return yards for the game were the second most in club history.
- Despite a slow day due to the weather at Seattle (12/16), he managed to record six kickoff returns for 93 yards, giving him 1,216 kickoff return yards for the season, a club record... Established a club record for combined kick return yards in a season at 1,554.

2000:

- Went to camp with the Seattle Seahawks but was released prior to the season.

1999:

- Signed with the Winnipeg Bombers of the CFL on July 13 and was released August 2, re-signed August 9 and released again August 16.
- While with the Bombers, he ranked 10th in the CFL in kickoff returns with a 25.8 avg. and one touchdown.
- Picked up by the Edmonton Eskimos of the CFL on September 13, but was released on October 12.

1998:

- Originally signed as a rookie free agent with the Jacksonville Jaguars but was released on the final cut down day.

COLLEGE:

- Set Murray State records for most career receptions (133) career receiving yards (2,346) and single season receiving yards (1,042).
- Ranks second in all-time touchdowns with 25.
- As a senior, he finished the year with 35 receptions for 642 yards.
- Named first team All-Conference and second-team Division I-AA All-America as a junior.

PERSONAL:

- A standout athlete at Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., where he all-state honors in football, baseball, basketball and track.
- As a senior, he was named his school's athlete of the year.
- His father and uncle were drafted by Major League Baseball teams.
- Has two sons, Ryan (5/15/99) and Reggie II (8/5/02).

STEPHEN TREJO

36

Fullback
Arizona State
Ht: 6-2
Born: 11/20/77
Drafted: '01, UndraftedFA-Det

4th Year
Wt: 250
Hometown: Casa Grande, Ariz.

PRO: The fourth-year fullback has been a capable backup and solid contributor on special teams in his career since signing with the Lions as an undrafted rookie free agent on April 27, 2001.

MANE FACTS

- After playing linebacker at Arizona State, Trejo bounced between running back and tight end as a rookie. After two seasons in the league, he now has settled in at fullback.

2003:

- Saw special teams action in all 16 games and limited action on offense at the end of the season.
- Broke a bone in his foot at Chicago (10/26), but finished the game.

2002:

- Played in all 16 games, and had two catches for 13 yards and 23 special teams tackles, which ranked third on the team.
- Finished with a career-high five special teams tackles at Arizona (12/8).

2001:

- Made his career-long reception (20 yards) vs. Dallas (1/6/02).
- Team's first tight end at Chicago (12/2) due to knee injury to David Sloan and caught three passes for 26 yards.
- Caught first NFL pass, a 15-yarder vs. Green Bay (11/22).

COLLEGE:

- Played linebacker at Arizona State University and finished career with 88 tackles and three sacks.
- Played in all 12 games as a senior, recording three tackles.
- Saw action in eight games in 1999, registering 29 stops.
- Participated in eight games (two starts) as a sophomore, tallying career-best 33 tackles and two sacks.
- As a freshman, played in 11 games (started season's first five contests) and posted 23 tackles and two fumbles recovered.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Casa Grande (Ariz.) High School.
- First-team all-state selection as a junior and senior after recording 178 carries for 1,458 yards and 19 touchdowns and also had 111 tackles, 6.5 sacks, two INTs and one fumble recovery.

BRACY WALKER

28

Safety
North Carolina
Ht: 6-0
Born: 10/28/70
Drafted: '94, R4 (127)-KC

11th Year
Wt: 202
Hometown: Lake Villa, Ill.
Acquired: '02, FA-KC

PRO: Walker enters his 11th NFL season, his third in Detroit, as a seasoned veteran who adds talented depth to the safety position and is a strong contributor on special teams. He has played for a total of four teams, including Kansas City (1994 and 1998-2001), Miami (1997) and Cincinnati (1994-96). The Lions signed him as an unrestricted free agent on April 16, 2002. He was originally drafted out of University of North Carolina by the Kansas City Chiefs in the fourth round (127th overall) of the 1994 NFL draft.

MANE FACTS

- Hobbies include playing PlayStation 2 video games and reading, playing basketball.
- Despite being from suburban Chicago, Walker is a big fan of the Houston Rockets and followed the Dallas Cowboys as a child.
- Once his football career comes to an end, he intends to go into real estate in his home state of Illinois.

2003:
- Recovered a fumble on a muffed punt at Green Bay (9/14) to put the Lions in scoring position.
- Left the game against Chicago (11/9) with an open dislocation of his finger and did not return.
- Led the secondary with eight tackles (five solos), including one for loss, versus San Diego (12/7) while seeing extensive action after Corey Harris left the game with an injury.
- The team leader in tackles with 11 (six solos) while getting his first start of the season at Kansas City (12/14).

2002:
- Finished second on the team with 31 special teams tackles and helped the punt coverage unit hold opponents to a mere 4.5 yards per punt return average, the best in the NFL, despite having the third-most punts (behind Houston and Carolina) in the league with 91.
- Finished with three tackles at Buffalo (10/27) and forced a fumble at the Bills' 31-yard line at the end of the fourth quarter to give the Lions a chance to tie the game.
- Led Lions with four special teams tackles at Green Bay (11/10).
- Tallied his first career sack at Chicago (11/24).
- Led Lions with five special teams tackles vs. New England (11/28).
- Suffered a lacerated liver vs. Tampa Bay (12/15) and placed on the Reserve/Injured list on December 18.

2001:
- Appeared in 15 games on special teams, seeing action at safety in one game.
- Recovered a RB Terry Kirby fumble on a kickoff at Oakland (12/9).

2000:
- Played in 15 games on special teams and three contests on defense.
- Blocked a John Baker punt attempt vs. St. Louis (10/22). The loose ball was recovered by RB Mike Cloud, who scooped it up for a six-yard touchdown return in Kansas City's 54-34 victory over the defending World Champions.
- Left game vs. Denver (12/17) and was inactive at Atlanta (12/24) due to injury.

1999:
- Saw duty in all 16 games on special teams, ranking sixth on the team with 13 special teams tackles (10 on kickoff coverage and three on punt coverage).
- Played in 10 games (one start) at free safety.
- Captained the special teams vs. Denver (9/19) and vs. Detroit (9/26).
- Captained the special teams and started at free safety for an injured Jerome Woods at San Diego (10/3), posting four tackles (three solo) and marking his first start as a member of the Chiefs, his first start since opening for Cincinnati in the final game of '96.

1998:
- Saw action in the club's final eight games, mainly on special teams.
- Appeared in his first game of the year on special teams at Seattle (11/8).
- Saw his lone action of the season on defense vs. Dallas (12/13), serving as an extra defensive back and recording one tackle.

1997:
- Went to training camp in Cincinnati, was waived by the Bengals on August 19 and then claimed by the Miami Dolphins the following day.

1996:
- Started all 16 games at strong safety for the Bengals and enjoyed his best pro campaign with a career-high 116 total tackles (54 solos), which ranked third on the team.
- Helped preserve win vs. New Orleans (9/15) with a career-long 35-yard interception return of a Jim Everett pass late in third quarter.
- Intercepted a John Elway pass at the goal line vs. Denver (9/29).
- Tallied a career-high 15 tackles vs. Houston (10/6), the highest single-game tackle tally of any Cincinnati defender in '96.
- Led team with eight stops vs. Jacksonville (10/27).
- Tied for team lead with 14 tackles at Buffalo (11/17).

1995:
- In his first full season with the Bengals, had a career-high four interceptions and 13 pass defenses as well as a then-career-best 85 tackles.
- Had two interceptions in season-opening 24-21 overtime win at Indianapolis (9/3), picking off passes by Craig Erickson and Jim Harbaugh.
- Led the team with seven tackles vs. Jacksonville (9/10).
- Topped team's tackle chart with nine vs. Miami (10/1).
- Intercepted a Steve Beuerlein pass late in the game to preserve a 17-13 victory at Jacksonville (11/26).
- Missed game at Pittsburgh (10/19) due to a knee strain and sat out the season finale vs. Minnesota (12/24) with neck soreness.

1994:
- Appeared in seven games, all in a reserve role, with Cincinnati after being claimed by Cincinnati on October 12.
- Began his rookie season with the Chiefs and was waived by Kansas City on October 11.

COLLEGE:
- Started at strong safety each of his last two seasons at North Carolina.
- Finished his career with 263 tackles, four interceptions, five forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and six blocked kicks.
- Earned first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association, was a second-team All-America pick of The Sporting News and first-team All-ACC pick as a senior after he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles, while also blocking four kicks.
- A second-team All-ACC pick as a junior when he collected 96 tackles, three INTs and four passes defensed.

PERSONAL:
- Attended Pine Forest High School in Fayetteville, N.C., where he was an all-conference running back as a senior, producing 261 carries for 1,415 yards and 18 touchdowns, and also returned a pair of punts for scores.
- First duty at defensive back didn't come until the state playoffs his senior year.
- Full name: Bracy Wardell Walker.
- He and wife, Levoda, have a son, Bracy, Jr.

BRIAN WALKER

45

Safety
Washington State
Ht: 6-1
Born: 5/31/72
Drafted: '96, UndraftedFA-Was

9th Year
Wt: 205
Hometown: Colorado Springs, Colo.
Acquired: '02, UFA-Mia

PRO: The Lions acted quickly and made their first move in the free agent market in 2002, signing Walker on March 5 to add speed to the secondary and he spent the past two seasons as the Lions starter at free safety. A hard-nosed defender who has excellent instincts and field awareness, he was part of Miami Dolphins squad which ranked first (2001) and fifth (2000) overall in the NFL in pass defense and he was a major factor in the team's back-to-back 11-win seasons while starting 32 of the team's 35 games during that span (including three playoff games). Walker spent the 1999 season in Seattle, 1998 in Miami,1997 season was split between Miami and Washington and he entered the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Washington Redskins during the 1996 season.

MANE FACTS

- Loves low-budget comedy movies including The Wash and Bones.
- Watches re-runs of Martin and any episodes of Family Feud.
- Along with the other Dolphins defensive backs, was part of the "Prudential/No Passing Zone" program in 2000 in which each member donated three tickets for every home game to the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County.
- The Dolphins' recipient of the Unsung Hero Award in 2000 as presented by the NFLPA.

2003:

- Started all 16 games for the second time in his career and finished tied for the team-lead with a career-best 121 tackles (72 solos).
- Tied for the team lead with 10 tackles (seven solos) at Green Bay (9/14) while playing in every defensive snap for the second straight game.
- Tied for the team-lead with 10 tackles (four solos), including a tackle-for-loss, against Dallas (10/19).
- Intercepted his first pass of the season when he picked off Rick Mirer against Oakland (11/2) and added nine tackles (four solos) versus the Raiders, the 50th start of his career.
- Had a team-high 12 tackles (six solos), a tackle-for-loss and a pass defense at Seattle (11/16).
- Picked off his second pass of the season when he intercepted Daunte Culpepper in the end zone at Minnesota (11/23).

2002:

- Led secondary with 10 tackles (five solos) including two tackles for a loss and had a pass breakup against Carolina (9/15).
- Recorded the Lions' first sack of the season in the first quarter against Green Bay (9/22) which forced a fumble that turned into the first Lions' takeaway of the 2002 season; had eight tackles (six solos) against the Packers before being forced out of the game with a toe injury.
- Inactive vs. New Orleans (9/29) and at Minnesota (10/13) due to a toe injury.

2001:

- His 99 tackles (65 solos, 34 assists) in 2001 ranked second on the Dolphins' defensive unit, a unit which had the best overall ranked defense in the National Football League.
- Led the team in tackles twice and has finished second on the team in tackles four times.
- Underwent surgery on November 5 to stabilize a fracture in his right thumb suffered vs. Carolina (11/4) and missed three games (Weeks 8-10) as a result of that surgery.

2000:

- Finished with then-career-high numbers of 94 total tackles (65 solos), seven interceptions for 80 yards in returns and nine passes defensed.
- His 94 tackles ranked third on the team and his seven interceptions led the squad, tied for first in the AFC along with Tennessee's Samari Rolle and tied for third in the NFL. It also marked the highest total by a Dolphins safety since Jake Scott had eight in 1974, and is tied for the sixth-highest by a Dolphins safety in a season.
- Part of a defensive backfield in which all four members recorded at least five interceptions, the first NFL team to have at least four players with five or more interceptions in the same season since the 1981 Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
- Recorded five tackles the following week in 10-3 win over New England (9/24) when he forced a Kevin Faulk fumble at the goal line that was recovered by Zach Thomas to prevent a touchdown.
- Named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career for his performance at San Diego (11/12), a game in which he had two interceptions and eight tackles.

1999:

- Waived by the Dolphins on September 5 and claimed by Seattle.
- Released by Seattle on September 14 before being re-signed on September 30.
- Inactive for each of the final nine regular season games and First-Round Playoff contest vs. Miami (1/9/00) with a hamstring injury.

1998:

- Played in all 16 regular season games in a reserve role in his first full season with the Dolphins and finished third on the squad with 22 special teams tackles and third with four interceptions.
- Came up with the first interception of his career, vs. New England (10/25), when he picked off a Drew Bledsoe pass.
- Appeared in both playoff games following the 1998 season in a reserve capacity.
- Underwent successful reconstructive surgery to repair a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee following the season, on February 1, 1999.

1997:

- Began the season with Washington and was waived by the Redskins on October 10.
- Signed with the Dolphins as a free agent on December 9.
- Did not see action in his two games on the Dolphins' active roster.

1996:

- Finished fourth on the squad with 16 special teams tackles.
- Opened the year as the nickel back, but injuries thrust him into the starting lineup by Week 13.
- Initial NFL sack came vs. San Francisco (11/24) when he dropped 49ers QB Steve Young on a safety blitz.
- First NFL start came on Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11/28).

COLLEGE:

- Played his final two years at Washington State (1994-95) after transferring from Snow Junior College in Ephraim, Utah, where he recorded 13 career interceptions in two seasons.
- Honorable mention All-Pac-10 performer his senior season for the Cougars after he totaled 60 tackles and two interceptions while playing in all 11 games.
- Appeared in all 12 contests his junior season and posted 32 tackles and a pair of interceptions.

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at Widefield High School in Colorado Springs, Colo.
- Earned all-league honors and honorable mention All-America accolades as a junior after he led all Colorado prep players with nine interceptions.
- Did not play football his senior season following the death of his mother.
- An all-league selection as a senior on the school's basketball team, where he averaged 22 points a game.
- He and his wife, Shahidah, have two daughters.

DAN WILKINSON

72

Defensive Tackle
Ohio State
Ht: 6-4
Born: 3/13/73
Drafted: '94, R1 (1)-Cin

11th Year
Wt: 335
Hometown: Dayton, Ohio
Acquired: '03, UFA-Was

PRO: In his first season with the Lions in 2003, he teamed with fellow defensive tackle Shaun Rogers to make up one of the most formidable interior defensive lines in the NFL. The solid 10th-year starter was signed by Detroit as a free agent on August 17, 2003 to a four-year deal after he was released by the Washington Redskins, a team he was with from 1998-2000. He was selected with the first overall pick by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1994 NFL Draft and played four seasons for the Bengals before being traded to the Washington Redskins on February 26, 1998 for 1998 first and third-round draft picks.

MANE FACTS

- During the 2003 season, he appeared in a Disney commercial for the release of the Lion King on DVD with teammates James Hall, Robert Porcher, Shaun Rogers and Joey Harrington.
- Donated Lions' tickets to Don Bosco Hall through Lions CATS for kids program.
- Teamed with Star Bank in Cincinnati to fund a charitable foundation named the "Big Daddy Fund," which encourages middle-school students to stay in school.
- Participated in a charity golf tournament raising funds for the Washington Redskins Leadership Council.
- Hobbies include playing golf and restoring old cars.
- He owns about a dozen cars, including two 1970 Cadillacs, a Chevy Impala, a 1966 Cadillac, a Porsche and a 1965 Buick Riviera.
- Was active in community outreach with the Redskins, including promoting the annual Prince George's County Fatherhood Conference.

2003:
- Named to Peter King of Sports Illustrated's all-pro team.
- Had an impressive debut in Honolulu blue and silver in season opener against Arizona (9/7), recording three tackles (all solos), five quarterback hurries, two passes defensed and a nine-yard sack of QB Jeff Blake, the first Lions' sack of the season.
- Put together his best game of the season against Green Bay (11/27) with a sack of Brett Favre, his first fumble recovery of 2003, two quarterback pressures and a season-high six tackles (four solos).
- Notched a pass defense, two quarterback knockdowns and a pressure against St. Louis (12/28), and helped hold the Rams' rushing attack to just 41 yards.

2002:
- Recorded one tackle at Dallas (11/28) before leaving the game in the third quarter with a strained right calf.
- Placed on injured reserve on December 5.

2001:
- Throughout the year, he made key blocks, allowing other defensive players to make big plays.
- His pass deflection on second-and-goal led to an interception by Otis Leverette on the one-yard line and ended a critical scoring threat by Carolina (10/21). The Redskins went on to beat the Panthers 17-14 in overtime.
- Although he posted no stats, Wilkinson had perhaps his best game of the season at Philadelphia (11/25). His pressure helped hold Philadelphia's offense to only 186 total yards.

2000:
- Made a season-high four tackles at both Dallas (12/10) and at Pittsburgh (12/16).
- Posted a season-long, nine-yard sack at Jacksonville (10/22).

1999:
- Led the Redskins with eight sacks to match his career-high from 1995 and finished second in QB pressures (43).
- In Week 7, DE Marco Coleman hit Bears QB Shane Matthews, and the ball fluttered to Wilkinson, who rumbled 88 yards for a touchdown vs. Chicago (10/31). The play gave the Redskins a 14-0 lead in their 48-22 win vs. Chicago (10/31) and was the fourth-longest interception return for a score in Redskins history, the longest such return ever by a Redskins player at home and the longest return ever by a Redskins defensive lineman.
- Tallied five tackles (three solo), two sacks, five pressures and a pass defensed at the New York Giants (9/19), when he was awarded a game ball along with the rest of the starting defensive line.
- Recorded a team-high nine pressures, a sack, two solos and one tackle-for-loss vs. Arizona (12/12).

1998:
- Acquired by Washington in an off-season trade with Cincinnati on February 26, 1998.
- Led the team in sacks (7.5), QB pressures (50) and tackles-for-loss (six). His 50 quarterback pressures were 30 more than the team's No. 2 man in that category (DE Kenard Lang).
- Set career highs in total tackles (60) and solo stops (45).
- Played in more snaps (1,037) than any other DT in the NFL.
- Intercepted his second career pass vs. Philadelphia (11/15) when he picked off the deflected pass deep in Eagles territory and ran four yards before being tackled, setting up the Redskins first touchdown.
- Also performed well vs. the New York Giants (11/1) with 14 QB pressures, seven tackles and a pass deflection.
- Tied a career-high with eight tackles vs. Arizona (11/22).

1997:
- Played much of the season at right defensive end after the Bengals converted to a 3-4 defense, totaling a team-high five sacks.
- Awarded the team's defensive game ball for his play in Cincinnati's victory over Jacksonville (11/23).
- Missed his only game of the season vs. Dallas (12/14) with a stinger in his neck.

1996:
- Led the Bengals in sacks for the first time with 6.5, including one in each of the first five games, and also led the defensive line with 44 solo tackles.
- Led rushing defense which allowed fewest yards per game (102.7) since the 1983 Bengals allowed 93.7.
- Opened the year with a season-high eight tackles, a sack and five QB hurries vs. St. Louis (9/1).
- Made his first career interception vs. Baltimore (11/3) off a Vinny Testaverde pass.

1995:
- Set a career-high with eight sacks which led all AFC interior linemen that season and were the most by a Bengals interior lineman since Mike Reid in 1972.
- His 18 QB hurries were second on the team and he played in 829 snaps, second-most on the defensive line.
- Spent time at both defensive tackle positions and right defensive end.
- Played the first two games of the regular season with a cast on his hand after breaking his ring finger in the final preseason game.
- Registered two sacks and led defensive line with five tackles (all solo) in win vs. Jacksonville (9/10) and sacked Mark Brunell on fourth down in the final minute of the game to preserve the Bengals win.
- Suffered a neck injury vs. Chicago (12/10) and was inactive for the final two games of the season.

1994:
- Wilkinson became the first player the Bengals ever drafted No. 1 overall.
- Led the defensive line with 19 QB hurries.

- Volunteered his starting spot in the season-finale vs. Philadelphia (12/24) so Bengals great Tim Krumrie could start his final home game, and still made two sacks in a reserve role.
- Led team with season-high seven tackles vs. Indianapolis (11/20).

COLLEGE:

- Played in 1992 and 1993 at Ohio State after being redshirted in 1991.
- Entered the 1994 NFL Draft after his sophomore season, when he was a consensus All-American and All-Big Ten player.
- Played on the scout team as a 348-pound OT during his redshirt season, then dropped to 300 pounds the next season and switched to defense.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Dunbar High School in his hometown of Dayton, Ohio.
- Has four children: Brooklyn, Daniel Jr., Taylor and Sydné and resides in Potomac, Md.

DAMIEN WOODY

65

Guard
Boston College
Ht: 6-3
Born: 11/3/77
Drafted: '99, R1a (17)-NE

6th Year
Wt: 325
Hometown: Beaverdam, Va.
Acquired: '04, UFA-NE

PRO: Woody signed with the Lions as an unrestricted free agent on March 5, 2004 and is expected to be the team's starting left guard. The 2002 Pro Bowler spent his first five NFL seasons with the New England Patriots after being selected in the first round (17th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft. Woody started 76 games mostly at center in New England and was a member of the Patriots' two Super Bowl championship teams (2001 and 2003).

MANE FACTS

- A big fan of CSI and any movie with Denzel Washington in it.
- Once his football career ends, he is interested in becoming a commentator.
- Boston College coaches nicknamed Woody "The Dominator" during spring drills before his sophomore year.
- Idolized Bruce Smith while growing up and even wore his #78 in high school.
- Played a part on two championship teams nicknamed the Patriots. He helped lead his high school team, the Patrick Henry High Patriots (Beaverdam, Va.) to a 14-0 record and a Division 5 State Group AAA championship in 1994, and in 2002 he helped the New England Patriots to their Super Bowl XXXVI title.
- Presented more than 4,500 cans of Campbell's Chunky Soup to the Greater Boston Food Bank as part of Chunky's 2001 NFL Tackling Hunger Program.

2003:

- Missed the first game of his five-year professional career at Philadelphia (9/14).
- Opened holes for Patriots rushers to gain 161 yards on 27 carries (6.0 avg.) and three touchdowns against Tennessee (10/5/03), the most productive rushing output for New England since it averaged 6.5 yards per carry (130 yards on 20 carries) against the New York Jets on December 27, 1998.
- Part of an offensive line that started the same five players in each of the last 12 regular season games, all Patriots victories.
- Member of an offensive line that did not allow a sack on 35 pass attempts at Denver (11/3) in the Patriots thrilling 30-26 come-from-behind victory over the Broncos on Monday Night Football and supplied Tom Brady with time in the pocket, allowing him to throw for 350 passing yards.
- Recovered a key fumble on the goal line at Indianapolis (11/30) after Joe Andruzzi caught a deflected Tom Brady pass and was stripped of the ball. Michael Cloud scored on a one-yard touchdown plunge on the next play to give the Patriots a 31-10 lead.
- Started in the divisional playoff game against Tennessee (1/10), a game in which the Patriots allowed no sacks in 41 pass attempts.
- Injured his knee against the Titans and was placed on injured reserve on January 17, 2004.

2002:
- Earned his first career Pro Bowl selection, becoming the first Patriots offensive lineman selected since Bruce Armstrong in 1997.
- Part of offensive line that allowed only 31 sacks in 2002, the lowest total since 1997 (30).
- Member of a Patriots offensive line that did not allow a sack in four games in 2002, the first time the Patriots accomplished that feat since 1995.
- Part of an offensive line that allowed no sacks on 35 passing attempts and cleared the way for a season-high 163 yards rushing at the New York Jets (9/15).

2001:
- Selected to Dr. Z's All-Pro team in Sports Illustrated, as well as earning second-team All-Pro honors from Football Digest.
- Helped lead the offense to a season-high 432 yards of total offense against New Orleans (11/25), including 191 yards rushing on 38 carries (5.0 avg.) and their third 100-yard rusher in four games (Smith's 111 yards).
- Powered the Patriots offense to a season-high 196 yards rushing on 44 carries (4.5 avg.) against Miami (12/22) and their fourth 100-yard rusher of the season (Smith's 156 yards).
- Started at center and was part of an offensive line that led the way for a game-high 133 yards rushing on 25 attempts (5.3 avg.) in the Patriots 20-17 victory over St. Louis (2/3) in Super Bowl XXXVI.

2000:
- Centered an offensive line that eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in six games.
- Cleared the way for the Patriots second-highest rushing performance of the season against Indianapolis (10/22), 155 yards, as they achieved season-highs in total rushes (24) and rushing first downs (11) and did not surrender a sack against the Colts.
- Blocked for rushing attack which amassed a season-high 189 rushing yards against Buffalo (12/17).

1999:
- Started every game and earned All-Rookie Team honors from Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Football News and Football Digest.
- The only rookie to start every game for the Patriots and only the fourth offensive lineman to start every game as a rookie since 1973.
- First center to be drafted in the first round (17th overall) since Cleveland selected Steve Everitt in the first round (14th overall) in 1992.
- Centered an offensive line that rolled up 400 yards of offense in three games and allowed for over 100 yards rushing in six games, games in which the Patriots were 4-2.
- Established a season-high with 451 yards of total offense in a 19-7 victory over Cleveland (10/3).
- Centered an offensive line against Dallas (12/5) which helped power the offense to over 100 yards rushing for the fifth time of the year and sheltered quarterback Drew Bledsoe, allowing just one sack.
- Battled the top-rated defense against Buffalo (12/26) and won the ground assault by compiling a season-high 158 yards rushing (4.6 avg.).

COLLEGE:
- Three-year starter at Boston College (1996-98) who was responsible for making the offensive line blocking calls throughout his Boston College career.
- Earned All-Big East Conference first-team honors in 1998 as a junior after starting every game at center and opened holes for running back Mike Cloud, who led the Big East and ranked third in the country with 1,787 yards rushing (156.9 ypg).
- Paved the way for Cloud's school record 10 100-yard games.
- Started all 11 games during his sophomore season and was voted All-Big East second team choice.

PERSONAL:
- Born Damien Michael Woody in Beaverdam, Va.
- Attended Patrick Henry High and earned all-state honors while leading his school to a 14-0 record and the 1994 Division 5 state championship.
- Captured all-metro, all-region, and all-district accolades as well as USA Today All-American honorable mention honors.
- Member of the Roanoke Times Top 25 and the Richmond Times-Dispatch Top 30.
- He and his wife, Nicole, have four daughters, Kamille, Jalynn, Alexandra and Dominique.

LIONS TALES

DETROIT: CITY OF CHAMPIONS

The Lions helped Detroit earn the label, "City of Champions," with the team's first NFL championship in 1935. In addition to the Lions' success, the Detroit Red Wings won the National League Title and the Stanley Cup; the Detroit Olympics won the International League championship and the Teddy Oke Trophy; and the Detroit Tigers won the 1935 World Series. Several local athletes also excelled individually during that era, including Joe Louis, the world heavyweight champion, and Gar Wood, the undisputed "King of Speed" on water.

ROY WILLIAMS

Wide Receiver
Texas
Ht: 6-3
Born: 12/20/81
Drafted: '04, R1a (7)-Det

Rookie
Wt: 212
Hometown: Odessa, Texas

11

COLLEGE: Williams' size, speed and strength will be an asset to the Lions this season after he achieved great success in the NCAA over the past four seasons. He was projected as a top 2003 NFL Draft pick before announcing he would return to Texas for his senior year. Williams started 40 contests during his career (not including 2000-01 bowls), shattering school career-records with 241 receptions for 3,866 yards (16.0 avg) and 36 touchdowns, topping the old marks of 177 catches for 3,032 and 16 scores by Mike Adams (1992-96). Those figures also rank second in Big 12 Conference history, surpassed only by Rashaun Woods of Oklahoma State (293 catches for 4,414 yards and 42 touchdowns, 2000-03). He also demonstrated productivity carrying the ball with 243 yards and three touchdowns on 16 carries (15.2 avg.), with most of the attempts coming on reverses. Williams also holds the Texas career-record with 17 games gaining over 100 yards receiving and scored 238 points during his career, the seventh-best total in school history. Williams caught at least one pass in a school-record 47 consecutive games and had at least four catches in 39 contests.

MANE FACTS

- Williams played a role in the new movie Friday Night Lights, which is based on a book that portrays a football season at his high school (Odessa Permian). His older brother, Lloyd Hill, was on the team that the book was written about. The movie, which stars Billy Bob Thornton, is set for release later this year. Williams' role in the movie is as an assistant coach of Permian's rival high school (Midland Lee) and he has one line- "He ain't going to play, Coach."

2003:
- All-American Dream Team second-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, a semi-finalist for the Biletnikoff Award (nation's top receiver) and an All-Big 12 Conference second-team choice.
- Started every game at split end, leading the team for the third straight year in receptions and for the fourth consecutive season in receiving yards and touchdown catches.
- Caught 70 passes for 1,079 yards (15.4 avg) and nine touchdowns, becoming the only player in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving twice in a career. His 1,079 yards rank fourth on the school's season-record list.
- Only Kwame Cavil (100 in 1999) had more catches in a season for the Longhorns and his nine scoring receptions are topped only by Herkie Walls (10 in 1982) and his own 2002 total of 12 on the Texas season-record chart.
- Gained over 100 yards receiving in four contests and had at least four receptions in 10 games.
- Took a pitchout from QB Vince Young and threw a 56-yard pass to B.J. Johnson against Iowa State as well as catching four passes for 90 yards including a 30-yard touchdown.
- Caught six passes for a season-high 162 yards and a 67-yard score versus Oklahoma State.

2002:
- All-Big 12 Conference first-team selection, a semi-finalist for the Biletnikoff Award and was named the team's Co-Offensive Most Valuable Player.
- Despite battling a nagging hamstring injury all year, he led the team with 64 receptions for a career-high 1,142 yards (17.8 avg) and a school season-record 12 touchdowns, topping the previous mark of 10 scores by Herkie Walls in 1982.
- Only Kwame Cavil (1,188 in 1999) gained more yards receiving in a season for the Longhorns.
- Finished the season with 78 points scored and gained over 100 yards in six contests.
- Ranked second in the conference and 17th in the NCAA in receiving yards per game (95.2 ypg), and sixth in the league and 36th nationally in receptions per contest (5.3 rpg).
- Against Nebraska, he caught a school game-record 13 passes for 161 yards, including touchdowns of two and 16 yards. His 13 catches topped the previous UT record of 12 by Eric Metcalf vs. Arkansas in 1988.
- Named MVP of the Cotton Bowl against Louisiana State as he had his fifth-straight 100-yard game, tallying 142 yards on four receptions with a 51-yard score. He also set up another touchdown on a 75-yard catch and scored on a 39-yard reverse.

2001:
- All-Big 12 Conference first-team selection after starting every game at split end, leading the team with 67 receptions for 836 yards (12.5 avg) and seven touchdowns.
- Gained over 100 yards receiving in three contests and had at least four catches in every contest, including the Holiday Bowl.
- Against Kansas had six receptions for 109 yards and a 68-yard touchdown, marking the fifth straight game in which he found the end zone.
- In Texas' 47-43 win over Washington in the Holiday Bowl, he caught 11 passes for 134 yards and a 25-yard touchdown. The 11 catches ranked third on the school's game-record list.

2000:
- Second-team Freshman All-American choice by The Sporting News, third-team All-Big 12 Conference and Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year.
- Named the team's Outstanding Offensive Newcomer after playing in 11 games, starting the final six contests at split end.
- Ranked second on the team with 40 receptions and led the Longhorns with 809 yards (20.2 avg) and eight touchdowns.
- Scored 62 points, gained over 100 yards receiving in three contests and had at least four catches in seven games.
- Ranked first nationally among true freshman wide receivers in receiving yards, yards per game (73.5), yards per catch and touchdowns.
- Made six catches for 105 yards against Louisiana-Lafayette in his collegiate debut.
- Scored his first career touchdown, a 38-yarder, against Stanford.
- Had five catches for 175 yards and a career-long 96-yard touchdown against Oklahoma State. His 96-yarder was the longest catch by a freshman in school annals and the second-longest reception in Texas annals behind Wane McGarity's 97-yarder vs. Oklahoma in 1998.
- Hauled in a career-high 180 yards on four catches, including touchdowns of 38 and 65 yards. His 180 yards receiving rank fifth on the school's game-record list.

HIGH SCHOOL:
- Claimed All-State honors in both football and track as a junior and senior at Permian (Odessa, Texas) High.
- Had 100 receptions for 2,364 yards and 30 touchdowns in three seasons.
- Also returned kicks and played safety and set 20 school records.
- Recorded 35 catches for 800 yards and seven touchdowns en route to second-team All-State honors in 1999 despite missing three games with a toe injury.
- Posted a career-high 233 receiving yards on five receptions in a 1999 playoff game vs. San Angelo.
- Made 49 receptions for 1,521 yards (31.0 avg) and 18 touchdowns to earn first-team All-State honors as a junior and also picked off three passes that season.
- Had 23 catches and was tabbed first-team All-District and voted the Newcomer of the Year as a sophomore.
- Earned three letters in both basketball and track.

- Single-handedly led his team to a fourth-place finish at the 2000 Texas 5A state track meet after he won the long jump with a state-record leap of 25-6, was second in the high jump (6-10) and finished third in the 100 meters (10.48) to tally all of Permian's 24 points.
- Finished fourth in the long jump at the 1998 and 1999 state meet.
- Three-time first-team All-District performer in basketball.
- Member of the AB Honor Roll all four years of high school.

- Recipient of the Dudley Award, given to the top athlete in the state of Virginia.
- Carried 281 times for 1,647 yards (5.9 avg) and 21 touchdowns, breaking the old school season-record of 1,403 yards by Cyrus Lawrence in 1981. Only Lee Suggs (27 in 2000 and 22 in 2002) had more touchdown runs in a season for the Hokies.
- Ran for over 100 yards in nine games.
- Had the biggest game of his career against Pittsburgh, rushing for 241 yards on 30 carries (8.0 avg.) and four touchdowns, including an 80-yarder.
- Closed out his career with 153 yards on 16 runs with an 11-yard touchdown against California in the Insight.com Bowl.

2002:

- Shared tailback duties with Lee Suggs, carrying 160 times for 871 yards (5.4 avg) and nine touchdowns in 12 games.
- Amassed 171 yards on 24 runs with three touchdowns against Marshall, including a 25-yard run up the middle that saw him break five tackles on the way to the end zone.

2001:

- Freshman All-American second-team selection by The Sporting News, named to the Virginia Division I All-State team and was named Big East Conference Rookie of the Year.
- Played in every game as a true freshman, starting the final three games and the Gator Bowl.
- Ran for a school freshman season-record 957 yards with five touchdowns on 175 carries (5.5 avg).
- Scored his first career touchdown on a seven-yard run against Central Florida.
- In his first career start against Temple, he registered 21 attempts for 155 yards with scores of 11 and 87 yards. His 87-yarder was the longest run ever by a Tech freshman (fourth-longest overall).
- Facing one of the premier defenses in the nation against Miami (Fla.), he rushed for 160 yards on 24 attempts.

HIGH SCHOOL:

COLLEGE: The Lions used the second-round pick they acquired from the Cleveland Browns to pick up Lehman, a very complete linebacker who can play any of the linebacker positions. Known for his knowledge and understanding of the game, Lehman also has the ability to contribute on special teams. The recipient of the Bednarik Award and Butkus Award, Lehman closed out his sensational career with 323 tackles (209 solos), six sacks (41 yards), 47 stops for losses (140 yards), 17 quarterback pressures, four interceptions, 16 pass deflections, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries while starting 38 of 51 games. His 47 stops behind the line of scrimmage rank second on the school's career-record list for linebackers, topped only by Rocky Calmus (57, 1998-01).

2003:

- Consensus All-American first-team selection.
- Winner of the Dick Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) and Bednarik Award (nation's top defensive player).
- Unanimous All-Big 12 Conference first-team choice.
- Rated the top outside linebacker prospect in the country by The NFL Draft Report.
- Started all year at weak-side outside linebacker, and led the team with a career-high 117 tackles (63 solos), including two sacks and 19 stops for losses. His 19 stops behind the line of scrimmage broke the school's season-record for linebackers (17 by Brian Bosworth in 1986, 17 by Torrance Marshall in 1999 and 17 by Rocky Calmus in 2000).
- Closed out his career with eight tackles (six solos) and two stops behind the line of scrimmage, including a sack, in the Sugar Bowl against LSU.

2002:

- Chevrolet National Defensive Player of the Year and was one of three finalists for the Butkus Award.
- First-team All-American selection by The NFL Draft Report, Associated Press, Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, The Sports Network and CNN/SI.
- Named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by The Sports Network and added All-Big 12 Conference first-team honors from the media and league coaches.
- Chosen team co-defensive MVP.
- Shared Sooner Iron Man strength and conditioning award for upperclassmen with Quentin Griffin and Kory Klein.
- Lined up at weak-side OLB, finishing second on the team with 112 tackles (85 solos), including two sacks and 17 TFL's.
- Posted six tackles (five solos) in the Rose Bowl against Washington State and sacked QB Jason Gesser twice (17 yards) as both sacks killed scoring drives at the end of the second quarter.

2001:

- Took over the weak-side outside linebacker position, finishing third on the team with 83 tackles (54 solos), including two sacks and 10 stops for losses and five quarterback pressures.
- Recorded seven tackles and returned an intercepted Chris Simms pass two yards for his first career touchdown against Texas.
- Collected two stops for loss, causing a fumble on a nine-yard sack of Matt Jones (Sooners recovered) and posted six tackles (five solos) against Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl.

2000:

- One of three true freshmen to letter, playing in all but one game as a reserve middle linebacker.
- Recorded 11 tackles (seven solos) with a stop for a two-yard loss.

HIGH SCHOOL:

- Prep Star and Super Prep All-American choice at Fort Gibson (Okla.) High.
- First-team All-State pick by the Daily Oklahoman, Tulsa World and high school coaches association.
- Ranked as the sixth best player in the state by FirstDown Publications and also ranked as the 40th best linebacker in the nation and fifth best in the Midlands by Super Prep.
- Played linebacker and fullback, helping his squad post its best record ever (13-1) and advance to the Class 4A title game.
- Ended his senior season with 151 tackles, three interceptions, two sacks and three forced fumbles (ranked fourth in the state Class 4A in tackles).
- Ranked third in the state in rushing with 1,252 yards and 16 touchdowns on 206 carries (6.1 avg) as a running back.
- Also handled the punting duties for the Tigers with an average of 39.6 which was the tops in Class 4A.
- Recorded more than 400 tackles and seven INTs during his career.

PERSONAL

- Son of Cindy and Ken Lehman.

KEITH SMITH

38

Cornerback
McNeese State
Ht: 5-11
Born: 3/20/80
Drafted: '04, R3 (73)-Det

Rookie
Wt: 191
Hometown: Leesville, La.

COLLEGE: Smith was selected by the Lions in the third round (73rd overall) to add talent and depth to the team's secondary. In 47 games at McNeese State, he recorded 154 tackles (101 solos) with three sacks (12 yards), seven stops for losses (25 yards), two forced fumbles, a pair of blocked kicks, six interceptions and a school career-record 69 pass deflections. After spending his freshman season as a nickelback, Smith elevated himself into the starting role as a sophomore and became a team leader in his final three seasons, playing an integral role in McNeese State winning three straight Southland Conference championships (2001-03). Smith, who demonstrated great ability as a deep coverage cornerback, did not allow a reception in 13 of his last 22 games for the Cowboys. He also starred in track at McNeese State, competing in the quarter-mile and helped the 4x400 relay team set a school record at the 2002 Southland League Finals.

MANE FACTS

- Smith is not the only sports figure in Detroit with connections to McNeese State. Joe Dumars, president of basketball operations for the Detroit Pistons, also is an alumni of McNeese State and his brother, David, is an assistant basketball coach for the Cowboys.

2003:
- All-American first-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, a second-team all-American pick by the Associated Press and The Sports Network and earned All-Southland Football League first-team accolades.
- Participated in the Senior Bowl.
- Rated the best defensive prospect in the NCAA Division 1-AA ranks by The Sports Xchange.
- Started every game at strong-side cornerback and had eight games where he did not allow a reception, including a string of four-straight contests.
- In the playoffs against Northern Arizona, he closed out his collegiate career with six tackles (five solos) and a season-high five pass defenses.

2002:
- All-Southland Football League first-team choice after he helped lead the team to the Division I-AA Championship game.
- Led the squad with 26 pass deflections (tops in the Division 1-AA ranks in 2002) and did not allow a reception in four contests.
- In four playoff games, he recorded 18 tackles, two sacks and eight pass defenses.
- Tallied seven tackles and two pass defenses in the Division I-AA Championship game against Western Kentucky.

2001:
- Moved into the starting lineup at strong-side cornerback, collecting 36 tackles (23 solos) with an interception and a team-high 22 pass deflections.
- Opened the season with a six-tackle (four solos) performance against Texas A&M, as he held split end Bethel Johnson, now with the New England Patriots, to 18 yards on two catches.
- Set a school game-record as he deflected six passes against Maine in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

2000:
- Valuable nickel back, recording 15 tackles (nine solos) with three pass deflections.
- Had a season-high five tackles (three solos) against Northwestern State (La.).

1999:
- Redshirted as a freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL:
- All-State defensive back who also played wide receiver and running back at Leesville (La.) High.
- Recorded 131 tackles and two pass interceptions in his senior season.
- Won the state title in the 400-meter dash and was a member of the state champion 4x400-meter relay team.

PERSONAL:
- Son of Ramona and Keith Smith.
- Born on March 20, 1980.
- Resides in Leesville, La.

ALEX LEWIS

59

Linebacker
Wisconsin
Ht: 6-0
Born: 6/11/81
Drafted: '04, R5 (140)-Det

Rookie
Wt: 235
Hometown: Delran, N.J.

COLLEGE: Selected in the fifth round (140th overall) by the Lions, Lewis will compete for time on special teams and at linebacker. The speedy linebacker started 23 of 27 games at Wisconsin after joining the Badgers as a junior, playing his first two seasons at SUNY-Morrisville. Lewis recorded 175 tackles (102 solos), 12 sacks (86 yards), 27.5 stops (102 yards), 12 quarterback pressures, six forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and three blocked kicks. Including his junior college career, Lewis participated in 48 games, making 321 tackles (192 solos) with 24.5 sacks for minus-201 yards, 70.5 stops for losses of 317 yards, 39 quarterback pressures, three fumble recoveries, eight forced fumbles, 11 pass deflections and four interceptions.

2003:
- All-American third-team selection by The NFL Draft Report and listed as the most underrated defensive player in the Big Ten by that scouting service.
- All-Big Ten Conference first-team pick by the league's coaches, earning second-team honors from the media.
- Lined up at weak-side inside linebacker and ranked third on the team with 89 tackles (46 solos).

- Led the Badgers and ranked sixth in the conference with nine sacks (64 yards), the eighth-best season total in school history.
- Also led the squad and ranked fourth in the Big Ten with 16.5 stops for losses of 76 yards.
- Blocked two kicks and registered a safety.
- Began the season in explosive fashion against West Virginia, blocking a Todd James punt, advancing the ball 25 yards and made seven tackles with a pass deflection and sealed the victory, as he sacked QB Rasheed Marshall for a seven-yard loss on a 4th-and-2 play late in the game.
- Named National Defensive Player of the Week by The NFL Draft Report as he collected five (39 yards) of the team's eight sacks against Purdue and also registered nine tackles (seven solos) with 6.5 stops for minus-42 yards. His five sacks were one short of the school game record of six, set by Tim Jordan vs. Northwestern in 1985 and his 6.5 stops behind the line of scrimmage broke the previous game-record of six, first set by Darryl Sims vs. Northwestern in 1982, and matched by both Jordan (Northwestern in 1985) and Wendell Bryant (Penn State in 2001).
- Collected six tackles (five solos) against Michigan State as he sacked QB Jeff Smoker twice (17 yards) during the same series in the second quarter, causing a fumble after dropping the passer for a 13-yard loss.

2002:

- Played in every game, starting 10 contests, and finished third on the team with 86 tackles (56 solos), including three sacks for (22 yards), six quarterback pressures and a team-high 11 stops for losses (26 yards). He also blocked a punt and recovered a fumble.
- Blocked a punt against Arizona that was recovered by Badgers defender Dave Braun, setting up a three-yard touchdown run, tackled tailback Clarence Farmer twice behind the line of scrimmage and had 10 tackles (6 solos).
- Named Big Ten Conference Player of the Week as he recorded 13 tackles (11 solos), collected three sacks (21 yards), caused two fumbles and one pass deflection.
- Had 13 tackles (10 solos) against Illinois with a pressure and recovered a fumble that he advanced 52 yards to the Illini six-yard line, setting up a six-yard touchdown run.

2001:

- Named Northeast Football Conference Defensive Player of the Year, as he recorded 101 tackles (62 solos) with 11 sacks (98 yards), 32 stops for losses (167 yards) and 20 QB pressures.
- His 11 sacks rank second on the school's season-record list while his 32 tackles for loss set a team season-record.
- Also excelled in track, garnering All-American accolades in the discus, shot put and javelin.

2000:

- Appeared in 10 games, finishing second on the team with 45 tackles (28 solos).

HIGH SCHOOL:

- Two-time All-League gridiron pick at Delran (N.J.) High.
- Also excelled in track, twice winning the state Group II title in the discus (competed in the Penn Relays) and won the district wrestling title.
- Team captain in both football and track.

PERSONAL:

- Son of Belva Lewis-Taylor.
- Born on June 11, 1981.

Tackle
Purdue
Ht: 6-7
Born: 7/24/82
Drafted: '04, R6 (172)-Det

Rookie
Wt: 324
Hometown: Grand Rapids, Mich.

COLLEGE: The massive drive blocker was taken by the Lions in the sixth round (172nd overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft after starting 38 games over the past three seasons at Purdue. After redshirting in 2000 due to a shoulder injury, he earned team Newcomer of the Year honors and was a member of The Sporting News' Freshman All-Big Ten Conference squad in 2001. A model of consistency, he graded 80% or better for blocking consistency in each of his final 26 games and was part of a very successful Purdue offense during the 2002 and 2003 seasons.

MANE FACTS

- While a sophomore at Purdue, Butler played for a coaching staff that included Lions QB Coach Greg Olson. Olson served as an assistant coach on the Boilermakers' staff in 2002.

2003:

- Started every game at right tackle and graded at least 80% or better for blocking consistency in every contest.
- Registered 78 knockdowns/key blocks, with nine of those blocks resulting in touchdowns.
- Helped the offense average 372.9 yards per game.
- Closed out his career with 10 knockdowns against Georgia in the Capital One Citrus Bowl as he did not allow defensive end Robert Geathers to record any tackles.

2002:

- Started every game at right tackle, receiving a 78.8% grade for blocking consistency as he registered 63 key blocks/knockdowns, including six that resulted in touchdowns.
- Part of an offensive line that helped Purdue lead the Big Ten Conference in total offense with an average of 452.2 yards per game (Boilermakers averaged 196.5 rushing yards per game, the most ever under Head Coach Joe Tiller).

2001:

- Selected Freshman All-Big Ten Conference by The Sporting News.
- Recipient of the team's Newcomer Award.
- Took over starting chores at right offensive tackle, coming up with 55 knockdowns to help the offense average 320.1 yards per game.

2000:

- Received medical redshirt due to shoulder tendonitis.

HIGH SCHOOL:

- Attended Union (Grand Rapids, Mich.) High, playing football for coach Scott Van Essen.
- Named All-American, All-State and All-Region as a senior.
- Two-time All-City and All-Area selection.
- Member of the city championship team his senior season.
- Also played basketball.

PERSONAL:

- Born Kelly Don Butler on July 24, 1982.
- Resides in Grand Rapids, Mich.

SUMMARY
The Lions (1-0) downed the Arizona Cardinals (0-1) 42-24 in the coaching debut of Steve Mariucci in front of 60,691 fans at Ford Field on Sunday. Second-year QB Joey Harrington completed a career-high four touchdown passes, two of which were to rookie WR Charles Rogers, and Detroit did not commit a turnover en route to the victory. The Cardinals would draw first blood, however, with QB Jeff Blake connecting with rookie WR Anquan Boldin for a seven-yard touchdown with 5:48 left in the first quarter to give Arizona a 7-0 lead. The Lions would respond just under four minutes later with the first Harrington-to-Rogers connection, a four-yard pass to the back of the end zone, to tie it at 7-7. Another Rogers touchdown grab from Harrington, this one for 13 yards, put the Lions on top 14-7 with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter. Arizona would come back strong, scoring once in the second and once in the third to jump ahead 21-14. But as he is capable of doing, Lions second-year PR Eddie Drummond swung the momentum in the Lions favor with an electric 57-yard punt return for a touchdown to tie the game at 21 apiece with 8:21 to go in the third quarter, his second punt return for a touchdown against the Cardinals in as many games. Drummond made another huge special teams play shortly thereafter, forcing a muffed punt by Boldin which was picked up by Lions LB Donté Curry on Arizona's 35, leaving Detroit in prime scoring position. The Lions would not disappoint as two plays later, Harrington connected with a wide-open FB Cory Schlesinger for an eight-yard touchdown in the corner of the end zone to put Detroit up for good, 28-21. A 38-yard field goal by Cardinals K Bill Gramatica pulled Arizona within four, but the Lions continued to pour it on. The Lions forced a turnover when DE James Hall picked up a Blake fumble on the Arizona 36 and then Harrington threw his fourth touchdown of the day, a five-yard pass to WR Bill Schroeder that gave Detroit a 35-24 advantage with 11:43 remaining in the fourth quarter. Less than a minute later, Lions CB Dré Bly put the finishing touches on the game with a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown to make it a 42-24 victory for Detroit.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions (1-1) dropped the second game of the 2003 season, 31-6, at the hands of the Green Bay Packers (1-1) at rainy Lambeau Field. Green Bay got off to a quick start when RB Ahman Green took a handoff and ran 65 yards for a touchdown on the second play of the game, to give the Packers a 7-0 lead. The Packers took a 14-0 lead with 4:26 remaining in the first when QB Brett Favre flipped a pass to RB Tony Fisher for a five-yard score. The Lions would catch a break late in the quarter when P John Jett's punt deflected off a Packer and the fumble was recovered by Detroit deep in Packers' territory. K Jason Hanson would then kick a 22-yard field goal to get the Lions on the board. Green Bay responded four minutes later with a 46-yard field goal by K Ryan Longwell to make it a 17-3 game. With less than a minute remaining in the half, CB Dré Bly picked off Favre at midfield to stall a Packers' drive and give the Lions a shot to score before heading into the locker room, and with no time remaining in the half, Hanson booted the 22nd 50+ yard field goal of his career, this one from 52 yards out to pull the Lions to within 17-6. It would be all Packers in the second half, however. After an interception by LB Nick Barnett, Green Bay scored three plays later when Favre hit WR Robert Ferguson for a 14-yard touchdown early in the third quarter to put the Packers up 24-6. The Packers would score once more on a 56-yard interception return by CB Al Harris in the fourth quarter to make it a 31-6 final.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions (1-2) dropped their second straight game at the hands of the Minnesota Vikings (3-0), 23-13, in front of 60,685 at Ford Field. Detroit came out firing and jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. After KR Eddie Drummond gave the Lions good field position with a long return on the opening kickoff, Detroit moved 59 yards in seven plays to get on the board first. RB Shawn Bryson capped off the drive when he got into the end zone with 11:00 remaining in the first quarter on a five-yard run, the Lions first rushing touchdown of the season. Later in the quarter, a 27-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson gave Detroit a 10-0 lead, but Minnesota would come back and control the second quarter. A pair of rushing touchdowns by Vikings QB Daunte Culpepper put Minnesota up 13-10 and then a 21-yard field goal by K Aaron Elling with five seconds remaining in the first half made it 16-10 Vikings going into the locker room. Culpepper injured his back on his second touchdown after getting hit by Lions LB Wali Rainer and did not return to the game. Detroit would cut the lead to 16-13 on its first possession of the second half on a 37-yard Hanson field goal, but a 72-yard touchdown play from QB Gus Frerotte to WR Kelly Campbell on the Vikings next drive put Minnesota up 23-13. On the play prior to Campbell's touchdown, Lions CB André Goodman injured his shoulder and did not return to the game and then in the fourth quarter, the injury bug hit again as Drummond went down with a lower leg injury that kept him out the rest of the way. Detroit would not be able to overcome the injuries and the deficit and the team had four possessions in the final 10 minutes of the game, but was unable to convert those into any points.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions (1-3) held tough on the road against the undefeated Denver Broncos (4-0) at Invesco Field, but fell short at the end, 20-16. The Lions, who rushed for a season-high 144 yards in the game, used the run en route to their first touchdown of the game. RB Shawn Bryson's 28-yard run on Detroit's second possession helped set up a 33-yard touchdown play from QB Joey Harrington to rookie WR Charles Rogers to give the Lions a 7-0 lead. The Broncos would counter on their next drive, tying the game at 7-7 after a 29-yard touchdown pass from QB Jake Plummer to WR Ashley Lelie. Denver would take a 14-7 lead when Plummer hit TE Shannon Sharpe for a one-yard score. A 53-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson midway through the second quarter cut the Denver lead to 14-10. The Lions defense made a big play late in the first half when CB Jimmy Wyrick recovered a Plummer fumble while the Broncos were in scoring territory to keep the deficit at four points going into the locker room. Late in the third quarter, K Jason Elam booted a 37-yard field goal to put the Broncos up by a touchdown again, but on the ensuing drive, the Lions would storm 70 yards down the field in seven plays, capping it off with WR Scotty Anderson dancing his way through the Denver defense for a 43-yard touchdown reception from Harrington. However, a bad snap would cost the Lions the extra point and they would remain behind, 17-16. With 3:13 remaining in the game, Elam kicked his second field goal of the game, this time from 41 yards out, to put Denver up 20-16. Detroit had the opportunity to run a two-minute drill, but a fourth-down pass from Harrington to Rogers was broken up and the Broncos were able to take over and run out the clock.

SUMMARY
For the second consecutive week the Detroit Lions (1-4) played tough on the road, but fell short, this time a 24-17 loss to the San Francisco 49ers (2-3) at Candlestick Park. San Francisco got off to a quick start. After intercepting a pass from QB Joey Harrington, the 49ers went 23 yards in six plays capped off by a six-yard touchdown from QB Jeff Garcia to WR Terrell Owens to go up 7-0 just over three minutes into the game. The Lions would go three-and-out on their next series and the 49ers took advantage, going up 10-0 on a 48-yard field goal by K Owen Pochman. San Francisco increased their lead to 17-0 early in the second quarter when its 11-play, 90-yard drive resulted in Garcia connecting with TE Aaron Walker for a 14-yard score. The Lions would not go quietly, however. With six minutes remaining in the first half, Detroit moved the ball deep into San Francisco territory and came away with three points on a 28-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson to pull within two touchdowns. The Detroit defense came up with a huge turnover on the 49ers next offensive play when CB Dré Bly intercepted a Garcia pass in front of Owens to give the Lions prime field position in San Francisco territory. Six plays later Harrington hit TE Mikhael Ricks for a six-yard touchdown, Ricks' first of the season, to make it a 17-10 game going into the locker room. The teams took turns on offense without scoring for most of the third quarter until, with just 1:06 remaining, Garcia scored on a one-yard touchdown run to put the 49ers up by two touchdowns again. The Lions would respond quickly as on their next possession, they drove 60 yards on eight plays, capped off by a two-yard touchdown run by RB Olandis Gary early in the fourth quarter. Detroit trailed by just a touchdown, but that was all San Francisco would allow as the 49ers defense shut down the Lions for the rest of the game.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions (1-5) returned home for their first game at Ford Field in nearly a month and were greeted rudely by the red-hot visiting Dallas Cowboys (5-1). The Lions struggled to stop the steady Cowboy offensive attack, led by QB Quincy Carter, and had problems moving the ball on offense. Detroit jumped out to a 7-0 lead, however, when S Corey Harris stripped Cowboys RB Troy Hambrick of the ball and CB Dré Bly picked it up and sprinted 67 yards untouched down the sideline for a touchdown. It was Bly's second defensive touchdown of the season and the second fumble return for a touchdown in his career. It would be all Cowboys after that. Carter connected with WR Terry Glenn for three touchdowns in the first half to put Dallas up 21-7 and then CB Mario Edwards returned a QB Joey Harrington interception 27 yards for a score and a 28-7 lead. The second half would not treat Detroit any better. QB Mike McMahon replaced Harrington with hopes of jump-starting the offense, but he too struggled. The Cowboys controlled the clock for nearly all of the third quarter, including a 14-play, 81-yard drive that took 7:27 off the clock and was capped off by a three-yard touchdown run by Hambrick to make it 35-7. K Billy Cundiff kicked a 23-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to put Dallas up 38-7.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions made their first trip to the newly renovated Solider Field to face the Chicago Bears in the 147th meeting of the historic rivalry. The Lions rallied late after being down 24-0 but the Bears held on for a 24-16 victory. After a scoreless first quarter, the Bears got on the board first with a 21-yard touchdown strike from QB Chris Chandler to rookie WR Justin Gage. K Paul Edinger gave Chicago a 10-point cushion going into halftime with a 37-yard field goal as time expired in the second-quarter. The Bears grabbed the momentum quickly in the third quarter as CB Jerry Azumah returned the second-half opening kickoff 89-yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 Chicago lead. Rookie RB Brock Forsey scored the Bears final points with an 8-yard touchdown run, capping off an eight-play, 58-yard drive. On the ensuing kickoff, Lions KR Reggie Swinton provided a spark with a 96-yard return for a touchdown and the Lions converted the two-point play when QB Joey Harrington hit WR Az-Zahir Hakim. The Lions scored a touchdown with 53-seconds left in the fourth quarter when Harrington hit TE Mikhael Ricks for a three-yard touchdown and converted the second two-point conversion attempt of the day, this time to WR Scotty Anderson. Detroit appeared to recover the onside kick attempt but Chicago was awarded possession after replay determined that the Lions recovered the kick inches before it traveled 10 yards.

SUMMARY
Behind a strong defensive effort and key plays the Detroit Lions (2-6) defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders in front of 61,561 fans at Ford Field to snap their six-game losing streak. Despite playing with a patchwork secondary the Lions were able to limit the Raiders to just 13 points and forced four turnovers. Detroit's defense struck early as on Oakland's first possession, Lions CB Otis Smith made a great read and picked off a QB Marques Tuiasosopo pass right along the sideline, his first interception as a Lion. K Jason Hanson would make the Raiders pay for the miscue as he booted a 54-yard field goal to give the Lions an early 3-0 lead. The Lions would come up big again later in the first quarter when newly-signed CB Doug Evans stripped future Hall-of-Fame WR Jerry Rice of the ball which was picked up by LB Barrett Green and taken 38 yards to the Raiders 12-yard-line. Detroit then took a 10-0 lead when RB Olandis Gary broke through a huge hole up the middle for a two-yard touchdown run, his second of the season. The Raiders cut the lead to seven at the end of the first half when K Sebastian Janikowski booted a career-long 55-yard field goal. The Lions struck again on their first drive of the third quarter when FB Cory Schlesinger snuck behind Raiders CB Philip Buchanon and hauled in a 33-yard touchdown pass from QB Joey Harrington to cap off a seven-play, 66-yard drive and make it a 17-3 Lions lead. Oakland would not go quietly as it scored on its next possession on a seven-yard touchdown run by RB Charlie Garner. Hanson increased the Lions lead to 20-10 when he was good from 42 yards out early in the fourth quarter after an 11-play, 44-yard drive by the Lions. The Lions defense stood up to the Raiders next challenge as a special teams fumble put Oakland in prime scoring position on the Detroit nine-yard-line, but they were held to only a field goal. Lions KR Reggie Swinton returned the ensuing kickoff 61 yards well into Raiders' territory which set up a 39-yard field goal by Hanson, his third of the game, to give the Lions a 23-13 advantage. Detroit's defense continued to make plays down the stretch, intercepting Raiders QB Rick Mirer on both of Oakland's final two possessions.

SUMMARY

K Jason Hanson's 48-yard field goal with just 39 seconds remaining lifted the Lions (3-6) to a 12-10 win over the division rival Chicago Bears (3-6), their second consecutive win. After the Lions defense forced a three-and-out late in the fourth quarter, QB Joey Harrington engineered his third career fourth-quarter, game-winning drive to set up Hanson's kick. Harrington completed 5-of-6 passes for 35 yards on the drive, sparked by an 18-yard completion to WR Az-Zahir Hakim on a corner route. The Lions got on the scoreboard first in the game on a 24-yard field goal by Hanson late in the first quarter. Chicago tied it at 3-3 when K Paul Edinger made a 43-yard field goal. Detroit's special teams would come up huge on the Bears' next possession when DE Jared DeVries blocked an Edinger attempt from 48 yards out to keep the score tied. On the ensuing drive, Harrington led the Lions 11 plays for 55 yards, capped by a 25-yarder by Hanson to make it a 6-3 Lions lead. Midway through the third quarter the Bears scored the first and only touchdown of the game when QB Chris Chandler connected with TE Desmond Clark on a 12-yard touchdown play to give Chicago a 10-6 lead. The Lions would battle back though with Hanson connecting on a 30-yard field goal on the next possession, his third of the game to cut the advantage to 10-9. Detroit's defense would hold tough through the fourth quarter, forcing two Bears punts and a missed field goal, to allow the Lions the opportunity to win the game with Hanson's kick. S Corey Harris made a big interception on a Chandler pass after Hanson's field goal to preserve the victory.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions (3-7) were unable to stretch their winning streak to three games as they fell to the Seattle Seahawks (7-3), 35-14, in their first ever trip to Seahawks Stadium. Things did not start well for the Lions as Seattle jumped out to an early 14-0 lead. On the Seahawks first possession, QB Matt Hasselbeck ran in from four yards out to give Seattle a 7-0 lead and then later in the quarter, RB Shaun Alexander went in from one yard to make it a two-touchdown advantage. The Lions would respond quickly, coming to life on their next play from scrimmage when QB Joey Harrington hit an open WR Scotty Anderson down the field for a 72-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 14-7. The score was the Lions' longest play from scrimmage this season and Harrington's longest completion of his career. Seattle's offense continued to play tough, and went up 21-7 when it caught a break after Hasselbeck fumbled on a run, but it was recovered in the end zone by WR Koren Robinson for a touchdown. Seattle increased its lead to 35-7 on a pair of big plays by WR Bobby Engram. Engram hauled in a 34-yard touchdown pass from Hasselbeck and then returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown. The Lions would not go quietly as on their ensuing possession, they drove 71 yards on nine plays, capped off by Harrington connecting with WR Az-Zahir Hakim in the corner of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown. The drive would be costly for the Lions, however, as Anderson was injured while blocking and did not return. The teams would go into the locker room with Detroit trailing 35-14. Neither team would score in the second half. The Lions defense held Seattle in check for the final 30 minutes, limiting Alexander to just 11 yards on seven carries.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions (3-8) played yet another tough game on the road, but came up short in the end, failing to the first-place Minnesota Vikings (7-4), 24-14. Detroit's defense held the league's top offense to only one touchdown and forced two turnovers. CB Dré Bly, who was nursing a strained hamstring, and the rest of the secondary played well, holding all-pro WR Randy Moss to only five catches for 56 yards and no touchdowns. Minnesota did get on the board first with a 25-yard touchdown run by RB Michael Bennett midway through the first quarter to give the Vikings a 7-0 lead. The teams would play scoreless through the rest of the first half, with the defenses making stops on each side. With the Vikings driving early in the second quarter, Lions S Brian Walker made his second interception of the season when he picked off QB Daunte Culpepper in the end zone to end any Vikings threat. The Lions defense came out in the second half as well and made a huge play on the Vikings' first possession in the third quarter when CB Dré Bly stripped RB Moe Williams of the ball, picked up the fumble and ran 44 yards down the sideline before tossing it back to S Corey Harris who took it the final 35 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 7-7. The teams traded punts for the remainder of the third quarter, but the Vikings offense was able to put together a drive in the fourth. Culpepper led his team 73 yards down the field and held the ball for nearly nine minutes, but Detroit came up big in the red zone, holding the potent Vikings offense to only a field goal by K Aaron Elling. The Lions offense would not be able to convert, however, as Minnesota's S Corey Chavous and CB Brian Williams each returned interceptions for touchdowns to give Minnesota a 24-7 lead late. Detroit scored a touchdown late when QB Joey Harrington hit WR Az-Zahir Hakim for a five-yard score, to make it a 24-14 game.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions (4-8) used some Thanksgiving Day magic to beat the Green Bay Packers (6-6), 22-14, at Ford Field. Detroit was propelled by its defense, which forced a season-high five turnovers and limited the Packers' league-leading rushing attack to just 52 yards, as well as K Jason Hanson who booted five field goals, including three in the fourth quarter. Lions CB Dré Bly earned FOX's inaugural 'Galloping Gobbler' award for his efforts, which included a career-best two interceptions and a forced fumble. The Lions scored first in the game when RB Shawn Bryson ran for a six-yard touchdown midway through the first quarter on the Lions' opening possession. Hanson gave Detroit a 10-0 lead with his first field goal, a 42-yarder, with just 33 seconds left in the first quarter. Green Bay responded on its next drive when QB Brett Favre found TE Bubba Franks in the corner of the end zone for a five-yard touchdown, cutting the lead to 10-7. Late in the second half, Hanson kicked a 28-yard field goal to cap off a nearly eight-minute drive by the Lions offense and make it a 13-7 Detroit lead going into halftime. Green Bay took its first and only lead of the game in the third quarter when Favre connected with WR Javon Walker on a 45-yard touchdown. The Lions defense would take over after that, however. After that go-ahead touchdown, Detroit sacked Favre three times and forced four turnovers. CB Dré Bly got it started on the first play of the fourth quarter when he popped the ball out of Walker's hands in Packers' territory and was recovered by S Terrence Holt. Hanson converted on a 49-yard field goal shortly thereafter, which was the eventual game-winner. The Lions would tack on two more field goals, both after turnovers. DT Dan Wilkinson recovered a Favre fumble after S Brian Walker and DT Shaun Rogers sacked him and the Lions turned into three points with a 46-yard field goal by Hanson, and then Hanson put the Lions up 22-14 after Bly made his second interception of the game.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions (4-9) were unable to follow up their big performance on Thanksgiving Day as they fell 14-7 to the San Diego Chargers (2-10) at Ford Field. Detroit came out flat and San Diego made the Lions pay. On their second possession of the game, the Chargers drove 70 yards on nine plays, capped off by QB Doug Flutie connecting with RB LaDainian Tomlinson for a 16-yard touchdown to give San Diego a 7-0 lead. While the Lions' offense was struggling, the Chargers threatened again early in the second quarter and drove deep into Detroit territory. The Lions defense would come up with a big play, however, as rookie S Terrence Holt stepped in front of a Flutie pass and intercepted it at the 11-yard-line. On his runback he fumbled, but it was recovered by Lions CB Dré Bly on the Lions' 31. Later in the second quarter, San Diego took a 14-0 lead when Flutie hit Tomlinson again for a touchdown, this time a 73-yard score. On the Chargers' next possession, Detroit's defense came up big again when DE James Hall stripped Flutie of the ball and it was picked up by LB Jeff Gooch and taken back to the Detroit 41-yard-line, giving the Lions a shot to cut into the Chargers' lead going into halftime. The Lions moved the ball down the field, but would run out of time as WR Bill Schroeder was tackled five yards short of the end zone as the half ended. Detroit's defense shut down the Chargers for the entire second half, allowing no points and just 70 yards of total offense. The Lions finally got on the board midway through the fourth quarter when QB Joey Harrington found rookie TE Casey FitzSimmons for a four-yard touchdown, the first touchdown of FitzSimmons' career. The score capped off an 11-play, 83-yard drive that took 6:33 off the clock and made it a 14-7 Chargers' lead. Detroit had one last chance to tie the game late, WR/KR Eddie Drummond got things started with a game-long 25-yard punt return that put the Lions on their own 41-yard-line with just under two minutes to go in the game. On the drive, Harrington completed a 21-yard pass to TE Mikhael Ricks on fourth down-and-16 to keep the drive alive, but on the Lions' last play, Harrington's Hail Mary pass to the end zone fell to the ground.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions (4-10) were unable to contain the offensive firepower of the Kansas City Chiefs (12-2) as they fell 45-17 to the AFC West Champions at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City jumped out to a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter on a 27-yard pass from QB Trent Green to all-pro TE Tony Gonzalez and then a pair of touchdown runs by NFL-leading rusher RB Priest Holmes. Lions K Jason Hanson put Detroit on the board with a 29-yard field goal late in the second quarter, capping off a 15-play, 71-yard drive that took 8:33 off the clock. The Chiefs would respond, however, as Green hit RB Derrick Blaylock on a screen pass which he took 63 yards for a touchdown to make it a 28-3 Kansas City lead. Detroit cut the lead to 28-10 when QB Joey Harrington connected with WR Az-Zahir Hakim on fourth down for an eight-yard touchdown, Hakim's third of the season. The Lions would not be able to carry the momentum into the second half as Kansas City scored the first 10 points of the third quarter. Holmes scored his third touchdown of the game on the Chiefs' first possession and then after a fumble by the Lions on the next kickoff return, K Morten Andersen booted a 35-yard field goal to make it a 38-10 Chiefs advantage. Lions RB Shawn Bryson scored his third touchdown of the season from one yard out late in the third quarter, putting the score at 38-17. The Chiefs scored once more, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Green to Gonzalez, to make it 45-17. On the Lions final possession, Bryson snapped off a season-long 39-yard run to put him over 100 yards for the first time this season.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions (4-11) could not get their offense going against the NFC South division champion Carolina Panthers (10-5) at Ericsson Stadium, falling 20-14. Detroit scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, but the early 20-point deficit was too much to overcome. Carolina converted on its first possession of the game when QB Jake Delhomme connected with WR Steve Smith for a 20-yard touchdown pass to give the Panthers a 7-0 lead. Later in the first quarter with the Panthers driving, Lions rookie S Terrence Holt, who made his first career start in the game, intercepted Delhomme for his third pick of the season, the most by a Lions rookie since 1986. The Detroit defense held the Panthers offense in check for the rest of the first quarter, but midway through the second, Carolina struck again when Delhomme hit RB DeShaun Foster for a 10-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead. Lions QB Mike McMahon came into the game and got a drive started, but was intercepted deep in Carolina territory. The Panthers took advantage, going up 17-0 on a 42-yard field goal by K John Kasay. Kasay added a 44-yard field goal on the Panthers' first drive of the second half to put Carolina up 20-14. Detroit's defense and special teams took over in the fourth quarter, however. WR/KR Reggie Swinton got things started early in the final quarter when he took a punt back 89 yards for a touchdown, his first punt return for a touchdown since 2001, to bring the Lions within 20-7. Midway through the quarter, Lions rookie LB Boss Bailey capped off his best game of the season with a 62-yard fumble return for a touchdown, the first of his career. After CB Dré Bly stripped Foster of the ball, Bailey scooped it up and scampered 62 yards to cut the Panthers lead to 20-14. With the extra point after that touchdown, Lions K Jason Hanson moved into a tie for first place with Eddie Murray for most extra points in a career (381). It would not be enough in the end as the Lions were unable score again in the game.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions (5-11) finished the 2003 season with a bang, defeating the NFC West Champion St. Louis Rams (12-4), 30-20, and thwarting their attempt to clinch homefield advantage in the playoffs. The Lions trailed the Rams 20-10 at halftime, but came out in the second half and shut down the high-powered St. Louis offense and were able to score some points of their own. Detroit scored the first points of the game and the only of the first quarter when K Jason Hanson converted on a 39-yard field goal to make it 3-0. The Rams would counter on their next possession to take a 7-3 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from QB Marc Bulger to TE Brandon Manumaleuna. Detroit came roaring back to go ahead 10-7 when QB Joey Harrington found WR Bill Schroeder in the end zone for a 13-yard score. The Rams would take over the remainder of the second quarter with a pair of field goals by K Jeff Wilkins and a two-yard touchdown run by RB Marshall Faulk. It would be all Lions in the second half as they scored 20 unanswered points. After DT Shaun Rogers sacked Bulger and forced a fumble which was recovered in St. Louis territory by LB Barrett Green, Harrington connected with WR Az-Zahir Hakim for a 13-yard touchdown to pull the Lions within 20-17. The defense forced a three-and-out on the Rams' next drive and the offense put the Lions ahead for good on a Harrington-to-TE Casey FitzSimmons touchdown midway through the third quarter. Rookie LB Boss Bailey made his first career interception on the Rams' next possession, leading to another field goal by Hanson to make it 27-20 late in the third. On the second play of the fourth quarter, Hanson booted a 50-yarder, his fourth of the season over 50 yards, to pad Detroit's lead to 10 points. Rams QB Kurt Warner replaced Bulger following an injury, but the Lions defense continued to be tenacious and held St. Louis to just 194 total yards, including only 41 on the ground.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2004

Barry Sanders, Detroit Lions all-time leading rusher, joins tackle Bob Brown, defensive end Carl Eller and quarterback John Elway as the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2004. Sanders is the 16th player in Lions' franchise history to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. Sanders, and the Class of 2004, will be honored at an induction ceremony in Canton, Ohio Sunday, August 8, 2004.

SANDERS' CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- One of the most electrifying players ever to play in the NFL, Sanders was a threat to go the distance any time he touched the ball.
- Retired in 1999 needing 1,458 rushing yards to overtake Walter Payton (16,726 yards) as the NFL's all-time leading rusher (now currently in third place).
- Set nine all-time NFL records, and sits atop virtually every major Lions' offensive rushing record (16 in all).
- Became the third player in NFL history (O.J. Simpson with 2,003 yards in 1973, and Eric Dickerson with 2,105 yards in 1984) to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season by gaining league-leading 2,053 yards in record setting 1997 campaign.
- His 25 career games of more than 150 yards rushing is an all-time NFL standard, as are his 15 career touchdown runs of more than 50 yards (Jim Brown is second on both lists).
- The first player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in 10 consecutive seasons and the only player to do it in the first 10 seasons of his career. He is tied for second with Payton for the all-time lead with 10 1,000-yard seasons overall, behind Emmitt Smith who has 11.
- Also during his '97 onslaught, he rushed for 100 yards in a record 14 consecutive games, as well as continuing his consecutive road 100-yard outings streak at 10 (an NFL record, which he started in 1996). The 14 games in which he topped the 100-yard mark in '97 is an all-time league record, eclipsing three men who had surpassed the 100-yard mark 12 times in a single-season.
- Only player in NFL history to record five 1,500-yard rushing seasons, in addition to being the only player to do so in four consecutive years (1994-97).
- Recorded 76 career 100-yard rushing outings, one game shy of Payton's all-time mark (77).
- Finished career in second place all-time on the NFL's total yardage (18,308 yards) and rushing attempts (3,062 carries) lists, trailing Payton in both instances.
- His 4.99 yards per rushing attempt during his career is second only to Brown (5.22 yards per carry) among all NFL players in history who qualify with the minimum number of career rushing attempts.
- The only player in NFL history to post two 80-yard TD runs in one game (80 and 82 yards at Tampa Bay 10/12/97), and three 80-yard TD runs in a single season (also an 80-yarder vs. Indianapolis 11/23/97).
- Ranked sixth on the NFL's all-time rushing touchdowns list (99) and eighth in total touchdowns (109) at the time of his retirement.
- Only Simpson (six) rushed for 200 yards in a game more often than Sanders (Brown, Earl Campbell and LaDainian Tomlinson also have four such career outings).
- Captured his first NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards in his second season (1990) and won subsequent crowns in 1994 (1,883 yards), '96 (1,553 yards) and '97 (2,053 yards). 1,883 yards in '94 was at the time, the fourth-highest single-season tally in league history.
- Surpassed Billy Sims in 1993 as the Lions' all-time leading rusher (Sims is second with 5,106 yards).
- Had a streak of 803 consecutive attempts (703 rushes, 100 receptions) during career without fumbling the ball to the opponents.
- Team career records: most rushing yards (15,269), rushing attempts (3,062), rushing touchdowns (99) and total touchdowns (109).
- Franchise single-game records: most rushing yards (237 vs. Tampa Bay November 13, 1994), most rushing TDs (four at Minnesota November 24, 1991) and most rushing attempts (40 at Dallas September 19, 1994).
- Holds Lions' all-time seasonal marks for most rushing yards (2,053 in '97), most rushing attempts (343 in 1998) and both rushing and total touchdowns (16 in 1991). Possesses the top seven all-time team seasonal rushing outputs (and 10 of the top 12).
- Scored 654 career points, third-place on the Lions' all-time scoring list and the top non-kicker on career scoring list.
- His 352 career receptions also pegs him in fourth-place on that all-time Detroit chart.
- Third-fastest player in league history to tally 10,000 career rushing yards (Sanders' 103 games trailed only Brown and Dickerson). Only two NFL players rushed for more yards in their first 100 games than Sanders, Brown (10,833) and Dickerson (10,818).
- Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Month award for October, November and December 1997, becoming the first NFL player to capture the award three times in a single season.
- Voted the Lions' Offensive MVP by his teammates an unprecedented nine straight years.
- Detroit's first round selection (third overall pick) in the 1989 NFL Draft.

SANDERS MOTOWN RECORDS

Barry Sanders established or tied (and still holds) 16 Detroit Lions' records during his 10-year career. During the 1997 campaign, Sanders became the third player in NFL history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season (2,053 yards), and vaulted from seventh place to second place on the NFL's all-time rushing list.

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

Having completed 10 seasons in the NFL, Barry Sanders retired within striking distance of the NFL's most coveted rushing record—career rushing yards. His 15,269 yards trailed Walter Payton's career record of 16,726, which has since been surpassed by Emmitt Smith. In his pursuit to become the NFL's all-time rushing king, Sanders put himself among the elite in several NFL rushing records.

Note: Prior to 1972, a team's winning percentage was calculated using wins and losses, disregarding ties. For example, Detroit's record in 1971 was 7-6-1 and their winning percentage was .538 (seven wins/seven wins + six losses). Since 1972, ties have been calculated in winning percentage as a half-a-win. For example, Detroit's record in 1972 was 8-5-1 and their winning percentage was .607 (eight wins + .5 for tie/total games played).

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. The Arizona Cardinals were located in Chicago from 1920-59 and in St. Louis from 1960-87 before moving to Phoenix, Ariz., in 1988.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 15, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 29-21-5 advantage over the Cardinals.
- September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0.
- In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit has registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 3-6 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix.
- The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and New York Giants) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 in the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix December 12.
- Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago 10/9/88. The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland 9/28/86 and vs. Green Bay 10/25/87. The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota 11/23/95. And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota 11/23/95.
- Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, amassing a 21-8 record. The initial meeting took place at Tiger Stadium September 25, 1966, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. Detroit claimed the first nine contests in the series.
- The Lions are 13-3 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 8-3 in the Silverdome, 0-0 at Ford Field). Detroit has won nine of the last 12 games in the series, with the lone exceptions during that span coming in a 1995 Falcons' 34-22 win in the Lions' only visit ever to the Georgia Dome , Atlanta's 24-17 win at the Silverdome December 20, 1998 and the Falcons' 36-15 victory at the Georgia Dome last season.
- The Lions and Falcons met in the regular season opener or closer seven times between1985-94. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89, and met in the regular season opener again in 1997.
- Detroit was victorious 13-10 over the Falcons November 12, 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. The contest marked the first game and victory by Gary Moeller, who replaced Bobby Ross as head coach six days earlier.

SERIES NOTES

- The inaugural game between Detroit and Baltimore occurred December 27, 1998 at PSINet Stadium in Baltimore, with the Lions losing to the Ravens 19-10 in the '98 season finale.
- Detroit's first game with Baltimore ended up being RB Barry Sanders final game in his 10-year career. He rushed 19 times for 41 yards, finishing nine yards (1,491) shy of collecting his fifth-straight 1,500-yard rushing season.
- The two teams will meet for the second time in the preseason in the past three seasons when the Lions travel to Baltimore in August. The Ravens were 12-6 winners in the 2002 preseason opener in Baltimore.

SERIES NOTES

- Aside from the NFL's most recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the seven meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.
- Two of the seven games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 November 24, 1994.
- In the 1976 meeting, O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in the history of pro football as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough, though, as the Lions prevailed 27-14.
- Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, is the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss.
- Looming large in the final outcome were the Panthers' five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, with the Detroit defense forcing two turnovers and yielding only three John Kasay field goals.
- The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).
- The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 victory at Ericsson Stadium September 15, 2002.
- Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.

SERIES NOTES

- On Thanksgiving Day (November 27) in 1997 the Lions downed the Bears 55-20 for their largest offensive output ever against Chicago. RB Barry Sanders rushed for 167 yards and three touchdowns in the win at the Silverdome. Earlier in the 1997 season, Sanders put up 161 yards on Chicago in a 32-7 victory over the Bears.
- The Lions hosted the Bears for the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game on November 29, 1934. The game, played in front of a then-record 26,000 fans at the University of Detroit Stadium, was won by the Bears, 19-16, giving the Bears the Western Division championship. NBC Radio Network broadcast the game coast-to-coast and a Thanksgiving tradition was born.
- Detroit downed the Bears twice in a three-week span in 1995 as part of the Lions' seven-game winning streak to finish the regular season that year and gain a playoff berth. The Lions won 24-17 at Soldier Field on November 19 and then won 27-7 two weeks later on December 4. In the second game, WR Herman Moore had 183 receiving yards and set a franchise record with 14 catchesand WR Brett Perriman caught 12 passes for 142 yards in the November game.
- Detroit had its best stretch against the Bears when it won 11 of 12 games from September 22, 1968 to December 9, 1973.
- Only four contests between the two teams have gone to overtime—including both in 2002— with the Bears winning three of them. The most recent tie of the series occurred back on November 6, 1966 in the Chicago when the teams were knotted at 10-10.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Bengals met every year in preseason from 1970-2001 and the rivalry was renewed in 2003. The two teams have played a total of 33 preseason games, with the Bengals holding a slight 18-15 series edge. The teams do not meet in the 2004 preseason.
- In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3 September 27, 1970. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. Mel Farr led the Lions with 70 yards rushing on 13 carries.
- An eight-yard TD toss from Greg Landry to Charlie Sanders (now a Lions' scout) with 29 seconds remaining in the game gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.
- In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, RB Barry Sanders passed Billy Sims to become the Detroit's all-time leading rusher. He rushed 29 times for 151 yards and scored one TD as the Lions won 19-13.

# NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have played the Browns four times in postseason action, the most against any team (Lions own 3-1 edge). Also, Detroit has accumulated 35 preseason games against Cleveland, also the most against any team in that category. This year marks the 36th preaseaon meeting between the two teams. Detroit holds a 20-14-1 edge over Cleveland in preseason games. In 2002, the Lions and Browns kicked off the first Great Lakes Classic charity preseason game.
- The Lions hold a commanding 12-4 (.750) series lead over the Browns, dating back to the clubs' initial meeting in 1952. Detroit owns an 8-1 record in games played in Detroit (including a 4-1 mark at the Silverdome).
- Jason Hanson booted the longest field goal in franchise history against the Browns October 8, 1995. Hanson drilled a 56-yard effort on the last play of the first half.

The following are brief recaps of each of the four postseason games between the Lions and Browns.

- December 28, 1952 (NFL Championship Game) - The Detroit Lions claimed their first NFL title in 17 years with a 17-7 win over the Browns. The Lions scored the first touchdown of the game on a two-yard run by Bobby Layne and extended the lead to 14-0 in the third quarter on a 67-yard scamper by Doak Walker. Detroit was outgained in total yardage by 151 yards and had 12 fewer first downs, but the Detroit defense stiffened at crucial times; The Lions came up with four important goal line stands. Layne attempted only nine passes, all coming in the fourth quarter. To pick up the slack, the Lions rushed for 199 yards with 97 yards coming from Walker. Detroit capped the title game win with a 36-yard field goal by Pat Harder.
- December 27, 1953 (NFL Championship Game) - The game evolved into a defensive struggle as 20 of the 33 points scored in the game were direct results of turnovers. The mistakes began when Otto Graham fumbled on his own 13-yard line, the Lions capitalized on a one-yard touchdown run by Doak Walker. Although Graham completed only two of his 15 attempts, the Browns managed to hold a 16-10 lead with less than five minutes to play. Then, Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne put together an impressive drive that culminated with a 33-yard touchdown toss to Jim Doran. The 17-16 victory provided the Lions with their second consecutive title.
- December 26, 1954 (NFL Championship Game) - The game began on a good note for Detroit as Cleveland quarterback Otto Graham turned the ball over on an interception. But, the Lions could only manage a field goal after the turnover and the rest of the afternoon was all Cleveland. Graham bounced back from the early interception to pass for three touchdowns and run for another three touchdowns as the Browns captured the World's Championship with a 56-10 win. Lions' quarterback Bobby Layne had a horrible day as he threw for six interceptions.
- December 29, 1957 (NFL Championship Game) - Tobin Rote, playing for injured QB Bobby Layne, directed a relentless offensive attack as the Lions posted a 31-7 halftime lead and coasted to their fourth NFL title. The highlight of the day came on a 78-yard bomb from Rote to Jim Doran that gave the Lions a 38-14 lead. Detroit went on to win 59-14, the second biggest title win ever.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's first regular season game, as well as its last, at the Pontiac Silverdome was played against Dallas. The Cowboys won the Monday Night contest 36-10 October 6, 1975 during the Silverdome's inaugural regular season game and the Lions won the finale 15-10 on January 6, 2002.
- The Lions have won seven of the last 10 regular season meetings with Dallas, in addition to Detroit's 38-6 win in the 1991 Divisional Playoff game.
- The Lions and Cowboys have squared off twice in postseason play with each team claiming victory on its own turf. The first postseason contest occurred December 26, 1970 with the Dallas posting a 5-0 shutout against Detroit.
- The Lions captured the victory in the second playoff contest when they defeated the Cowboys 38-6 at the Silverdome January 5, 1992.
- Detroit and Dallas traditionally host Thanksgiving Day games each season. The Lions have played 64 games since the Thanksgiving Day tradition kicked off in 1934. The Cowboys have hosted 36Thanksgiving Day games since 1966.
- Lions RB Barry Sanders set a Lions' record for most carries in a game (40) in a Monday Night contest in Dallas September 19, 1994. The Lions won the game 20-17 in overtime.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have won three of the nine regular season meetings. Their last victory occurred when they handed the Broncos a 40-27 loss on Thanksgiving Day at the Silverdome in 1990.
- Detroit posted a 24-20 win November 7, 1971 in the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry-to-Earl McCullough 76-yard bomb which gave the Lions the lead.
- Three of the seven regular season games between the Lions and Broncos have been played on Thanksgiving Day, and five of the seven games have been in November.
- Denver's 31-27 win in 1974 was the last Thanksgiving Day game played in Tiger Stadium, with the Lions moving into the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.
- In 1999, the Lions hosted the Broncos on another holiday, Christmas Day, with the Broncos claiming a 17-7 victory at the Silverdome.
- The Lions fell 20-16 at Denver on September 28, 2003, their first trip to Denver since 1987 and the first game in the series played at Invesco Field.
- The Lions are 1-2 vs. the Broncos in preseason contests, with the last outing coming in the 1991 Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. From 1933-94, the Green Bay Packers played select home games in Milwaukee (Mil).

SERIES NOTES

- The Packers and Lions have met on Thanksgiving Day 17 times, with the Lions holding an 11-5-1 advantage in those games. The Lions have played the Packers more times on Thanksgiving than any other team in the league.
- The Lions and Packers met 13 consecutive years on Thanksgiving Day from 1951-1963 with the Lions winning nine of those contests. This will be the Packers first visit to Ford Field on Thanksgiving.
- Each team has recorded five shutouts of one another since the beginning of the series in 1934, but there has not been a shutout between the two teams since the Lions held the Packers to no points in a 20-0 win on December 20, 1970.
- The 11 consecutive wins that the Lions posted against Green Bay from December 11, 1949 to November 25, 1954 are the most by the Lions against any franchise. The 11-game streak came after the Lions were 8-29-1 in the first 38 games of the series.
- Frank Sinkwich set a Lions' record by intercepting seven passes in a 27-6 loss to the Packers on October 24, 1943.
- These two franchises played in 127 regular season games in 60 years before meeting in the playoffs for the first time following the 1993 season and then again following the 1994 season.
- The Packers came to Ford Field for its regular season opener on September 22, 2002 and defeated the Lions 37-31.
- The Lions snapped a six-game losing streak to Green Bay in last year's Thanksgiving Day matchup at Ford Field with a 22-14 victory.

October 6: The National Football League owners vote 29-0 to award the 32nd NFL franchise to Houston and Bob McNair for a record amount of $700 million.

November 24: Houston NFL debuts "transition" logo, which serves as the organization's mark until a team name is selected, and the corresponding official logo, team colors and uniform are developed. The "transition" logo is created by NFL Properties, the New York-based licensing and marketing arm of the NFL.

2000

January 19: Houston NFL hires Charley Casserly as ExecutiveVice President/ General Manager. Casserly comes to Houston after 23 years with the Washington Redskins, the last 10 as general manager.

February: The National Football League begins researching and developing computerized designs for potential logos. Additional focus groups are conducted in Houston and San Antonio.

March 2: Houston NFL announces that its team name search has been narrowed to five choices: Apollos, Bobcats, Stallions, Texans and Wildcatters. The five names were determined after several months of research conducted jointly by Houston NFL 2002 and National Football League Properties. That research included multiple focus group studies performed in both English and Spanish in not only Houston, but also in numerous surrounding markets such as San Antonio, Austin, Galveston and Beaumont.

March 9: Houston NFL 2002 celebrates the official groundbreaking of the new stadium that will house the team when it begins play in 2002. The 69,500-seat state-of-the-art facility will be the world's first retractable-roof football stadium. Houston NFL 2002 will be a co-tenant of the new stadium with the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

April: The list of five team names is shaved to three - Apollos, Stallions and Texans. Color logo designs are presented to focus groups for feedback.

July: McNair reviews logo designs and colors for all three potential names.

August 10: McNair and other club officials view the final proofs of the selected team logo at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. NFL Properties conducts television and photo testing of the logo as well.

September 6: The NFL's 32nd franchise is officially christened the Houston Texans before thousands at a downtown rally on Texas Avenue. NFL Commissioner Tagliabue introduces McNair, who then unveils his team's name, colors and logo to the crowd. The ceremony, televised live on ESPN2, includes simultaneous unveilings in Austin and San Antonio. McNair then heads to Enron Field, where he throws out the first "pitch" (actually a Texans football) to Houston Astros Owner Drayton McLane before the Astros play the Florida Marlins.

September 7: The Texans are honored by the Texas Sports Hallof Fame in Waco. Club officials present the Hall of Fame with a Texans helmet, football and other merchandise.

October 26: Reliant Energy acquires the naming rights for Houston's new state-of-the-art football stadium and the sports, entertainment and convention complex currently known as the Astrodomain Complex. Reliant Energy's 32-year agreement to acquire the naming rights for five different buildings and the complex is the most comprehensive naming rights agreement in history.

November 1: At its owners' meetings in Atlanta, the NFL announces that Reliant Stadium will host Super Bowl XXXVIII on February 1, 2004. Houston becomes the seventh city to host multiple Super Bowls. Rice Stadium hosted Super Bowl VIII in 1974. Jacksonville is awarded Super Bowl XXXIX and Detroit earns Super Bowl XL.

2001

January 21: The Texans introduce Dom Capers as the club's first head coach.

February 2: Chris Palmer is hired as the Texans' first offensive coordinator.

May 22: The NFL announces its realignment plan for the 2002 season at league meetings in Chicago. The league will realign into eight four-team divisions. The Texans are placed in the AFC South with Indianapolis, Jacksonville and Tennessee.

June 12: Bob McNair and Titans owner Bud Adams each donate $100,000 to the Red Cross in an effort to aid Houston flood victims. NFL Charities matches the donation. More than 20,000 Houston-area families were displaced from their homes by raging flood waters the previous weekend.

September 25: The Texans unveil their team uniforms before a crowd of 12,000 fans in downtown Houston. Local dignitaries and numerous Texan celebrities join Bob McNair on stage for the ceremony. The Houston Texans Cheerleaders also make their debut.

November 5: The Texans hold their first individual workout session at Reliant Astrodome, evaluating 13 defensive backs.

December 29: The Texans sign their first 10 players to contracts — running back Michael Basnight, saefty Leomont Evans, tackle Robert Hicks, defensive tackle Jason Nikolao, quarterback Mike Quinn, fullback Matt Snider, cornerback Jason Suttle, linebacker Casey Tisdale, safety Kevin Williams and tackle Jerry Wisne.

2002

January 14: The Texans hire former Indianapolis Colts defensive coordinator Vic Fangio as their first defensive coordinator.

February 18: The Texans selected T Tony Boselli, T Ryan Young, CB Aaron Glenn, DT Gary Walker, LB Jamie Sharper, WR Jermaine Lewis, CB Marcus Coleman, DT Seth Payne, G Matt Campbell, S Matt Stevens, G Jeremy McKinney, T Ryan Schau, RB Charlie Rogers, TE/LS Sean McDermott, DE Jabari Issa, WR Avion Black, QB Danny Wuerffel, LB Brian Allen and TE Johnny Huggins in the expansion draft.

March 4: The Texans execute the first trade in club history, shipping QB Danny Wuerffel to Washington in exchange for DT Jerry DeLoach.

March 6: The Texans sign their first unrestricted free agent, inking former Colts offensive lineman Steve McKinney.

March 25: The Texans start their first off-season workout program at Reliant Astrodome. All 65 players report.

April 20: The Texans select Fresno State quarterback David Carr with the first overall selection of the 2002 NFL Draft.

April 26: The Texans open their first mini-camp with 99 players, including 25 rookies.

April 28: The Texans launch their first Texans Outreach Tour, taking players to Austin, Beaumont, College Station, Corpus Christi and Lufkin over a five-day stretch.

July 20: Ninety-seven players report for the Texans' first-ever training camp. Camp is held at the club's training facility in Houston. The players go through conditioning drills the following day before hitting the practice field on July 22.

July 20: Ninety-seven players report for the Texans' first-ever training camp. Camp is held at the club's training facility in Houston. The players go through conditioning drills the following day before hitting the practice field on July 22.

August 5: In their first preseason game, the Texans fall to the New York Giants 34-17 in the annual Pro Football Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio. Kris Brown kicks a 22-yard field goal for Houston's first points. TE Billy Miller and WR Sherrod Gideon follow with touchdown receptions.

August 10: The Texans record their first preseason win, defeating the New Orleans Saints 13-10 at the Louisiana Superdome.

August 24: The Texans open Reliant Stadium with a 24-3 preseason loss to the Miami Dolphins.

September 8: The Texans become the first NFL team in 41 years to win their expansion debut, stunning the Dallas Cowboys 19-10 before 69,604 at Reliant Stadium. QB David Carr throws two touchdown passes, including a 19-yarder to TE Billy Miller for the club's first-ever touchdown. DT Seth Payne sacks Cowboys QB Quincy Carter in the end zone for a safety to clinch the victory.

October 27: The Texans win on the road for the first time, defeating Jacksonville 21-19 at ALLTEL Stadium. K Kris Brown nails a 45-yard field goal with 2:11 remaining to provide the winning points.

December 8: Despite just 47 yards of total offense, the Texans shock eventual AFC North champion Pittsburgh 24-6 at Heinz Field. All three of Houston's touchdowns are scored by the defense - two interception returns by CB Aaron Glenn and a fumble return by CB Kenny Wright. The 47 yards mark the lowest output by a winning team in NFL history.

December 19: CB Aaron Glenn and DE Gary Walker are selected to represent the AFC in the 2003 Pro Bowl. It is the third selection for Glenn (1997, 1998) and the second for Walker (2001). The Texans tie the 1961 Vikings for the most players selected on an expansion team and become the first expansion club to be represented since the Saints in 1967, when all teams were required to have at least one player selected.

2003

February 2: CB Aaron Glenn and DE Gary Walker start for the AFC in the Pro Bowl and help their conference to a 45-20 win before 50,125 at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu.

February 13: Texans general manager Charley Casserly is named to the NFL's Competition Committee for the second time in his 25-year NFL career.

April 26: The Texans use the third overall selection of the 2003 NFL Draft to pick Miami WR Andre Johnson, who caught 22 touchdowns passes in three seasons with the Hurricanes.

September 7: The Texans become the first NFL expansion team to win two consecutive regular season openers, stunning the heavily-favored Dolphins 21-20 in Miami. K Kris Brown hits a game-winning 35-yard FG in the final minute.

September 21: The Texans, in conjunction with Siemens and the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, open a photography exhibit entitled First Down Houston: The Birth of an NFL Franchise. The exhibit features 86 black-and-white photos taken by Robert Clark, who followed the Texans throughout their inaugural season.

September 28: QB David Carr leaps over the goal line from one yard out on the game's final play, lifting Houston to s 24-20 win over Jacksonville at Reliant Stadium. Dom Capers is named Staples NFL Coach of the Week for his decision to go for the touchdown.

November 13: After rushing for 104 yards and one touchdown in Houston's loss to Cincinnati, rookie RB Domanick Davis wins his fourth consecutive NFL Rookie of the Week honor, the first in league history to do so.

2004

January 29: RB Domanick Davis is named NFL Rookie of the Year at a press conference at the George R. Brown Convention Center. NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue is on hand to present Davis the trophy.

February 1: Reliant Stadium hosts one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever as New England defeats Carolina 32-29 in Super Bowl XXXVIII. Patriots K Adam Vinatieri nails a 41-yard FG with four seconds remaining to give his team the win.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Texans will play each other for the first time when the two teams meet in Detroit's home opener at Ford Field September 19.
- Among the possible storylines of the season's second game will be the matchup among the quarterbacks, Lions QB Joey Harrington and Texans QB David Carr. Harrington was selected by Detroit with the third overall pick of the 2002 NFL Draft, while Houston tabbed Carr with the first overall choice that same year.

Note: From 1950-83, the Indianapolis Colts were headquartered in Baltimore.

SERIES NOTES

- The clubs have met just four times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis from Baltimore, with each team winning twice. The team's matchup this season will be the first since 2000, the first at Ford Field and the first time the teams have met on Thanksgiving since 1965. The Lions and the then-Baltimore Colts tied 24-24.
- On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard TD pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.
- In their meeting November 23, 1997, a 32-10 Detroit win at the Silverdome, Jason Hanson became the only kicker in team history to convert two field goals of more than 50 yards in the same game. Hanson booted 52 and 55-yarders in the contest.
- In that same game, Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards on 24 carries, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career and the first against an AFC opponent.
- The 1997 game was the Colts' second trip ever to the Silverdome, and the first since the club moved from Baltimore.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Chiefs have played four of their 10 games on Thanksgiving Day—two of them were played on November 26 (in 1981 and 1987).
- The Lions are 1-2 in home games (0-0 at Ford Field) against the Chiefs and 2-5 in games played in Kansas City.
- In the inaugural meeting—the 1971 Thanksgiving Day classic—Errol Mann contributed three field goals while Greg Landry threw TD passes to Charlie Sanders and Earl McCullouch in a 32-21 Lions' win. RB Ed Podolak scored all three touchdowns for the Chiefs.
- In the first regular season meeting between the two teams at the Silverdome, Detroit dominated defensively and claimed a 27-10 Thanksgiving Day win in 1981 at the Silverdome. The Lions held Kansas City's top-ranked rushing attack to just 116 yards, and sacked Chiefs' quarterbacks five times.
- The Lions hold a 6-4 preseason edge in the series against the Chiefs, and have won five of the last six preseason matchups. The two teams met August 23, 1975 in an exhibition affair that kicked off the opening of the Pontiac Silverdome. Detroit won the contest 27-24.

SERIES NOTES

- The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.
- The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, '79 and '94).
- Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions trail 29-54-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.
- The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.
- On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.
- Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for most rushing touchdowns in a single game. His four TDs and 24-point performance also tied Lions' single-game marks.
- Scott Mitchell set a Lions' single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 410 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver trio of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38.
- In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 14-13 victory over the Vikings at the Metrodome when Scott Mitchell tossed a one-yard pass to Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with two second remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:56 remaining to play and with only one timeout.
- After losing 13 straight games to open the 2001 season, the Lions rallied against the Vikings and won their first game of the season at the Silverdome vs. the Vikings on December 16, 2001.

SERIES NOTES

- New England has made just four regular season visits to Detroit, with each team taking a pair of victories.
- Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Foxboro Stadium). Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard TD catch from Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yards for a score.
- The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. Willie Clay (who later joined the Patroits as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993.
- In the 1993 matchup, the Lions edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave Detroit its first 2-0 start since 1985, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder.
- The Lions and Patriots met at Ford Field in 2002 in the 63rd Thanksgiving Day game and the first in the holiday tradition at Ford Field. The game marked the first Thanksgiving Day classic in downtown Detroit since 1974. The Patriots won, 20-12.
- Included in the Patriots three visits to the Silverdome was a Lions' 34-9 win November 23, 2000 in the 61st Thanksgiving Day classic.

SERIES NOTES

- In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home. Detroit also tied the series, 8-8-1.
- The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie November 24, 1968 in Detroit.
- The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 5-2-1 mark at home (2-0-1 at Tiger Stadium; 3-2 in the Silverdome and 1-0 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-2 record at home (2-0 at Tulane Stadium; 4-2 in the Superdome).
- In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans kicker Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record October 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.
- Despite a 310-yard passing game from Detroit's Greg Landry (27-of-38 with two TDs), the Saints nipped the Lions 17-16 in the Superdome in 1976. Detroit RB Dexter Bussey led all rushers in the contest with 82 yards on only eight carries.
- The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-most in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.
- The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome in the season-opener. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.

NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions-Giants series in one of four series (Arizona, Chicago and Green Bay) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The Lions hold a 19-17-1 lead in the series which dates back to a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the Lions were known as the Portsmouth Spartans. This season Detroit travels to Giants Stadium for the teams' first meeting since 2000.
- Overall, the Giants have an 11-7-1 (4-2 in Giants Stadium) advantage at home while the Lions have fared better in Detroit, posting a 12-6 mark at home (The teams have yet to meet at Ford Field).
- Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests, but the Giants have won eight of the last 11 decisions.
- The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.
- The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless tie. The 0-0 game was played November 7, 1943 at New York.
- Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants December 15, 1935. The contest marked the only time the two teams have met in postseason action.
- Two of the last four outings between the two teams have gone to overtime, with the road team winning each. Detroit won a 28-15 decision on October 31, 1994 at Giants Stadium, while New York defeated the Lions 26-20 at the Silverdome October 19, 1997.
- In 2000, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium November 19. The first half was highlighted by two Charlie Batch touchdown passes and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since Bennie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit leads the all-time series 6-4, which dates back to a 37-20 Detroit victory November 23, 1972 at Tiger Stadium. Detroit has played seven of its 10 contests at home against the Jets with a record of 4-3 at home (1-0 at Tiger Stadium, 3-2 at the Silverdome and 0-1 at Ford Field).
- The Lions have won two of the three games played in New York/New Jersey. The Jets won 31-10 at Shea Stadium September 16, 1979 and Detroit defeated the Jets twice at Giants Stadium—18-7 December 10, 1994 and 10-7 December 17, 2000.
- The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets December 8, 1991.
- Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome December 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 yards rushing in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season, and Lions' LB Reggie Brown suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth quarter with a national television audience watching. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet.
- The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G Jeff Hartings.

SERIES NOTES

- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions defeated the Raiders 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day November 26, 1970. The win was the second of five consecutive wins by the Lions that year, which propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. In that contest between the two clubs, the Lions scored 14 fourth quarter points on the way to knocking off the Raiders. Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit.
- The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders 16-0 September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while Dexter Bussey passed Altie Taylor as the club's all-time leading rusher. Also in the game, Detroit QB Gary Danielson fractured his left wrist—an injury that would sideline him for 10 weeks.
- In the Monday Night meeting December 10, 1990, there were five former Heisman Trophy winners on the field—Barry Sanders and Andre Ware for Detroit, and Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson for the Raiders. Sanders finished the game with 176 yards rushing on 25 carries, while Jackson led the Raiders with 129 yards rushing on 18 carries.
- The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout. The Lions also won seven of the first eight meetings.
- In 24 regular season meetings, the Lions have scored more than 30 points only twice (35 points in both 1935 and 1965). Philadelphia, however, has also been limited to only two 30-point outbursts—45 points in 1948 and 44 points in 1979.
- The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984 in the Silverdome. The game was the only tie in the history of the Pontiac Silverdome.
- Coming into this season, the Eagles had gone the longest of any NFC team without playing at Detroit. When Philadelphia comes to Ford Field on September 12, it will mark the team's first trip to the Motor City since November 4, 1984.
- In Detroit's last win over Philadelphia, the Lions' defense sacked Eagles QB Randall Cunningham 11 times to tie a club record in a 13-11 win November 6, 1986. Seven Lions' defenders recorded sacks, including four by Keith Ferguson and 2.5 by William Gay. A 72-yard scoring strike from Joe Ferguson-to-Jeff Chadwick in the first quarter turned out to be the only touchdown of the game.

SERIES NOTES

- The Detroit Lions played in Heinz Field's first game during the preseason (August, 25, 2001). In 2002, the Lions returned the favor as the Steelers played in the first game at Ford Field (August 24, 2002). The Steelers won 34-22.
- Detroit and Pittsburgh meet for the fourth straight year in the preseason on August 8.
- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 426 yards rushing. Ernie Caddell scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit.
- The Lions won the first four meetings of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests, although the Steelers have bounced back to claim seven of the last nine meetings.
- In the 1952 meeting, Bob Hoernschmeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. The Detroit defense held Pittsburgh to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win in Pittsburgh.
- Detroit passed for a then-club-record 375 yards (364 by Bobby Layne) in a 38-21 Lions' victory September 9, 1953.
- Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers November 24, 1983 stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the team's Thanksgiving Day series (second-largest in team annuls).
- The Lions also defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in overtime November 26, 1998 in the second Thanksgiving Day matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving overtime contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a touchdown despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period.

The Rams were located in Cleveland from 1937-45 and Los Angeles from 1946-94.

SERIES NOTES

- The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 40-37-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).
- Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 2-1 vs. the St. Louis Rams.
- The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.
- After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played.
- The Lions played the Rams November 7, 1999 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germane Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive.
- In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions won each of the first three meetings between the two teams (all home games), but have dropped the five most-recent contests.
- Detroit recorded a 34-20 victory over the Chargers in the first meeting of the series October 22, 1972. Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 yards on the ground for the game. Greg Landry also rushed for a touchdown and added 151 yards passing with a TD strike going to Larry Walton, who finished with seven catches for 101 yards.
- Detroit fell to the Chargers 27-24 September 20, 1984 at Jack Murphy Stadium. Billy Sims ran for two touchdowns and 119 yards, including an 81-yard TD scamper. Detroit QB Gary Danielson matched Hall of Famer Dan Fouts every step of the way, completing 20-of-25 attempts for 269 yards, while Fouts was 22-of-35 for 268 yards. The Chargers forged to a 24-7 halftime lead, but Detroit scored two third quarter touchdowns to narrow the gap to 24-21.

SERIES NOTES

- The 49ers have won nine of the last 10 meetings in the series to gain a 31-27-1 lead all-time in the series.
- Detroit is 16-12 in home games vs. the 49ers, including a 5-3 mark at the Silverdome. The teams have yet to meet at Ford Field.
- The Lions' dramatic 31-27 come-from-behind playoff win at San Francisco December 22, 1957 set the stage for Detroit's last NFL Championship. The week after the "Comeback at Kezar", the Lions routed Cleveland 59-14 for its third league title in six years.
- In Detroit's regular season finale December 23, 1996 at San Francisco, Barry Sanders cruised for 175 yards in claiming his third-career NFL rushing title. Sanders entered the game needing 161 yards to surpass Denver's Terrell Davis.
- Three of the last eight meetings between the two teams have been held in San Francisco on December Monday nights (all 49ers wins). The contests in 1992 (December 28) and 1996 (December 23) were regular season finales, while the 1998 outing (December 14) was the 14th game each team played that year.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions are 2-1 in the Silverdome vs. the Seahawks and 2-3 in the Kingdome.
- The Lions opened up a 20-0 lead and rolled to a 41-14 victory over the Seahawks in the first-ever meeting between the two teams October 24, 1976. Greg Landry threw three touchdown passes for the Lions, and Jim Zorn was intercepted six times, including two that were returned for touchdowns (Levi Johnson and Lem Barney). Zorn was the Lions quarterbacks coach from 1998-00.
- After winning the inaugural meeting between the two clubs, the Lions dropped four consecutive outings to the Seahawks before winning the last three games.
- The Seahawks defeated the Lions 37-14 in the third and final game during the 1987 players' strike. In a game played predominantly by replacement players, Seattle QB Jeff Kemp passed for 344 yards and four touchdowns, while Hall of Famer Steve Largent caught 15 passes for 261 yards (both individual Silverdome records) and three scores.
- In the 1990 regular season finale played December 30, Barry Sanders rushed for 23 yards on nine carries to claim the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards.
- The Lions' game with the Seahawks played October 17, 1993, a 30-10 Lions' win, was Detroit's 800th contest (including regular and post-season games) since the Portsmouth Spartans moved to the Motor City in 1934.
- In the 1999 regular season opener, the Lions built a 25-7 halftime lead and held on for a 28-20 victory over Seattle for the club's first season opening road win since 1986.
- The Lions and Seahawks met outside for the first time in 2003, the Lions first trip to Seahawks Stadium. Seattle was victorious, 35-14.

SERIES NOTES

- 2001 marked the final year of the Lions and the Buccaneers annual home-and-home divisional series between the two teams. As the NFL re-aligned in 2002 with the addition of the Houston Texans, Detroit was grouped in the NFC North division (Chicago, Green Bay and Minnesota) and Tampa Bay shifted to the NFC South division (Atlanta, Carolina and New Orleans). The two teams, however, did play December 15, 2002 at Ford Field in the 49th game in the series' history. The Buccaneers won the game 23-20.
- The Lions are 0-1 at Ford Field, 14-9 in the Silverdome, and 12-13 in Tampa (regular season).
- The series went 23 games during 1983-94 without either team winning more than two games in a row. The streak ended when Detroit claimed five wins in a row, starting November 13, 1994 and continuing with season sweeps over the Bucs in 1995-96.
- Detroit has been victorious in two of the four games the Lions have played at Raymond James Stadium, including a 28-14 win in a Thursday night nationally televised game October 19, 2000.
- In Detroit's 14-9 win at the Silverdome November 13, 1994, Barry Sanders rushed for a franchise-record 237 yards (then-sixth-highest single-game total in NFL history). Sanders gained a NFL record 200 yards in the second half.
- Sanders made more history in Detroit's 27-9 win over the Buccaneers at Houlihan's Stadium October 12, 1997. Sanders became the first player in NFL history to record two runs of 80 yards-or-more in the same game. He broke off an 80-yard scoring play late in the first quarter, and added an 82-yard touchdown romp in the third quarter and finished the day with 215 yards rushing on 24 carries.
- The two clubs met for the only time in the playoffs December 28, 1997, with the Buccaneers coming away with a 20-10 win.

The Titans were located in Houston (known as the Oilers) from 1960-96 and known as the Tennessee Oilers from 1997-98.

SERIES NOTES

- The Titans are one of only two teams that the Lions have never played outdoors, with Seattle being the other. This ends in 2004 as the Lions make their first trip to Titans Stadium in Nashville. The previous seven games have been played indoors (five in the Houston Astrodome and two in the Silverdome).
- The Lions and Titans have hooked up eight times in the regular season with Tennessee holding a 5-3 lead. The Lions were 2-3 in Houston and 1-1 in the Pontiac Silverdome.
- The teams first met October 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away with a 31-7 win.
- The Titans have won five of the last seven contests.
- The Titans, then known as the Oilers, put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind 24-21 win November 26 over the Lions in the Silverdome. Lorenzo White's eight-yard touchdown scamper with 1:17 remaining sealed the Titans' victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.
- On December 10, 1995, QB Scott Mitchell set the Lions' all-time record for most touchdown passes in a season. Bobby Layne had previously owned the record (26 in 1951). Mitchell completed the '95 season with 32 touchdown passes.

# NFC Championship Game

The Lions were located in Portsmouth from 1930-33. The Redskins were located in Boston from 1932-36

SERIES NOTES

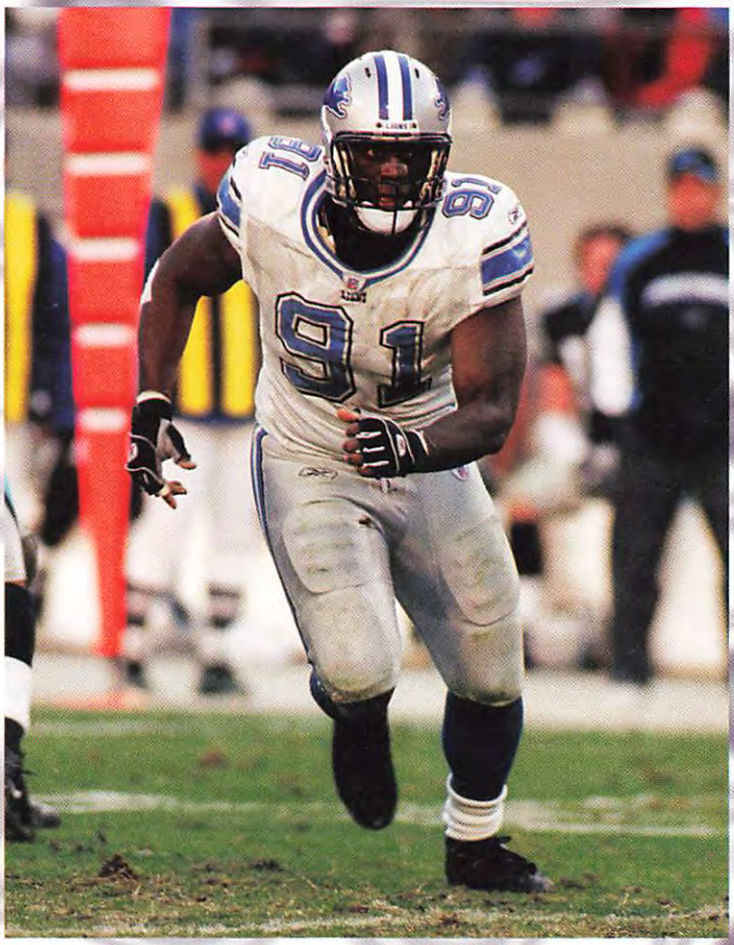

- The Lions have never won a game in the Washington D.C. area, owning an overall record of 0-20 vs. the Redskins either at RFK Stadium (0-18) or at FedEx Field (0-2). Of those 20 games, three were postseason losses (0-2 at RFK Stadium and 0-1 at FedEx Field).
- The last time the Lions defeated the Redskins away from the Motor City was October 13 1935, a 17-7 victory at Boston.
- The two teams have met twice in the playoffs, with the most recent game coming in the 1991 NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium. The Redskins claimed a 41-10 win en route to winning Super Bowl XXVI two weeks later. The first postseason game between the two clubs was also played in RFK Stadium January 8, 1983, with the Redskins coming away with a 31-7 win. Washington also went on to win the Super Bowl that year.
- Including postseason games, 11 of the last 14 contests between the two teams have been played away from Detroit—either at RFK Stadium or FedEx Field. This season the Redskins make their first visit to Ford Field and their first to Detroit since November 9, 1997.
- The Lions own a 3-0 mark against the Redskins when they played in Boston, including two victories in 1935 en route to the NFL Championship.
- Detroit's 33-17 victory over the Redskins December 5, 1999 at the Silverdome snapped a 16-game regular season losing streak against Washington that dated back to a 14-10 Lions' win at Tiger Stadium October 3, 1965. The Redskins however rebounded when they defeated the Lions 27-13 January 8, 2000 in a 1999 Wild Card contest at FedEx Field.
- With Detroit defeating Washington 15-10 September 10, 2000 at the Silverdome, the win marked the first time since the 1935 season that the Lions won back-to-back regular games against the Redskins. Washington was located in Boston when Detroit won both games played during the '35 season (17-7 at Boston and 14-0 at Detroit).

HISTORY

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. And outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Michigan, a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was at one time the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator, Wayne Fontes, in November 1988, after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes officially was named the 17th head coach of the Detroit Lions on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96, and following the season Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg, after going 5-27 over two seasons, was fired, and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced April 23, 2003 a major addition to the team's uniform. The Lions' classic uniform now features black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

Dating to 1934, the Detroit Lions have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. G.A. Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions, was behind the Lions' inaugural Thanksgiving game in 1934. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the Lions from Portsmouth, Ohio, to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact that the Lions had lost just one game prior to the Thanksgiving Day game in 1934, the largest crowd that season had been just 15,000.

The opponent for the Lions' first Thanksgiving Day game November 29, 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears of George Halas and the rising star of that era, fullback Bronko Nagurski. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations), and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into University of Detroit Stadium while thousands of disappointed fans were turned away.

The Bears won the inaugural game, 19-16, and a classic was born. Since 1934, the Lions have played 64 Thanksgiving Day games with Detroit leading the series 33-29-2. A total of 3,553,216 fans have witnessed Detroit's 64 Thanksgiving games, including 1,042,328 fans (74,452 average) since 1990, which includes 11 sellouts. The Lions Thanksgiving Day classic has been sold out in each of the last 10 seasons (since 1994). This year, the Lions will host the Indianapolis Colts for the second time in the annual Turkey Day tilt. The last time the Lions faced the Colts, which played in Baltimore until 1983, on Thanksgiving Day was November 25, 1965 which ended in a 24-24 deadlock. The game is one of only two ties in the history of the Lions Thanksgiving Day Classic.

(1939-44: Series Interrupted During WW II)

Note: Prior to 1972, a team's winning percentage was calculated using wins and losses, disregarding ties. For example, Detroit's record in the 1960s was 2-6-2 and their winning percentage was .250 (two wins/two wins + six losses). Since 1972, ties have been calculated in winning percentage as a half-a-win.

The Lions were busy on the trade front during the 2004 NFL Draft. The team traded their sixth pick of the draft to the Cleveland Browns and dropped one spot while garnering an addition slot early in the second round. With the seventh selection, the team drafted wide receiver Roy Williams out of Texas. With an additional second round pick, they were able to make a trade with Kansas City to move back into the first round in order to choose running back Kevin Jones out of Virgina Tech. These two moves, along with the overall choices the Lions made draft weekend, gave them top honors among most national media outlets rating the 2004 draft.

UNIFORM HISTORY

1934-1947: The first uniform donned by the Detroit Lions included a blue jersey with gleaming silver numerals, silver pants and a silver helmet. The shoes were black. The shade of blue used for the jersey became known as 'Honolulu' blue.

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams.The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors. The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.

The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win.' The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.

The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combi - nations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1949: The Lions returned to wearing their Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home but continued to wear combinations of the scarlet and white uniforms and the all-black uniforms on the road. The team changed the color of their helmet to blue and some players went back to wearing plastic helmets after the NFL lifted the ban on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On October 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves – giving the appearance of only one or two stripes on the sleeves.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jersey's had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between to thin silver stripes.

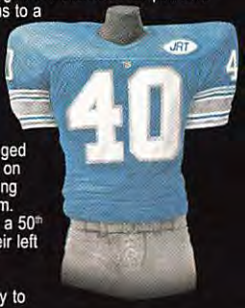

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.

1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

1982-97:

1982 The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.

1983 The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.

The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.

1991 They wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991.

The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

1992 They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.

1993 The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.

1994 The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

1998: In what turned out to be Barry Sanders final season, the Lions changed their look on the road, wearing blue pants with a white stripe between two silver stripes.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the road.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game in Ford Field on September 22, 2003, against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

The helmet has the one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.

The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

Linebacker Wayne Walker holds the franchise record for most career games played with 200 and most seasons at 15. Two current players are within reach of Walker's career games played record. Kicker Jason Hanson has played in 192 games (12 seasons) and defensive end Robert Porcher has charted 187 games (12 seasons). Hanson and Porcher are set to surpass Walker in 2004

DETROIT LIONS CHARITIES

From building a team on the field to building houses in Detroit for low-income families, the Detroit Lions and Detroit Lions Charities, the football organization's philanthropic foundation, are committed to the fans and communities throughout the state of Michigan.

In March, Detroit Lions Charities (DLC) awarded 98 grants totaling a record $400,089.39 to non-profit agencies throughout Michigan. This year's contributions bring DLC to nearly $2.75 million in total donations in its 14-year history.

Detroit Lions Charities was established in 1990 to assist all age groups in a diverse range of needs and programs in Michigan, with an emphasis on programs that benefit children and youth of Detroit.

"We strive to be good corporate citizens through the many programs supported by Detroit Lions Charities as well as by the individual efforts of the players, coaches and staff of the Lions and Ford Field," said Lions' Vice Chairman William Clay Ford, Jr. "Detroit Lions Charities continues to grow because of the efforts of these people and the continued support we receive from corporate sponsors and our fans."

For the sixth consecutive year, a grant will sponsor the Detroit Lions PAL Football League. The league is operated by the Detroit Police Athletic League (PAL) and involves over 3,000 youngsters, ages eight through 14, playing in one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues. The PAL season will conclude with its annual championships, which are hosted by the Lions at Ford Field in November.

Another major commitment to Detroit was made through grants to the Detroit Lions Academy. The Academy has a student body of 130 sixth, seventh and eighth grade Detroit children who have had difficulties in traditional school settings. The Academy is a cooperative effort between the Lions, Costco Wholesale, Detroit Public Schools and Communities in Schools of Detroit in association with several corporate sponsors including Ford Motor Company, The Dow Chemical Company, and Pepsi.

A partnership with Pepsi has provided two additional grants to PAL and the Detroit Lions Academy. These grants will support the PAL tutorial program and a career lab at the academy.

In a project that began in 2003 and saw its completion in early 2004, the Lions and Pepsi partnered to build a house for a Detroit family through Habitat for Humanity. The family moved into their new home in February in the Tri-Centennial Village development in western Detroit.

DLC assists several of the Lions' current and former players with grants to support their community efforts. Among them are grants to the Holmes for Families Foundation through which linebacker Earl Holmes helps families having difficulties finding suitable and affordable housing; the Robert and Kimberly Porcher Cancer Research/Relief Fund generously donates to the U of M Cancer Research Center; a donation also goes to former Lion Ernie Clark whose Life Long Fitness programs provide Detroit senior citizens ways of staying fit and improving the quality of their lives. Other grants support community outreaches from other current and former Lions including Carl Bland, Joey Harrington, Ron Rice, and Bob and Scott Kowalkowski.

Several agencies in west Michigan are assisted by DLC through proceeds of the Grand Rapids Luncheon hosted by the Downtown Rotary Club and WXMI Fox 17. Among those agencies is the YMCA of Greater Grand Rapids, which will use its grant to conduct its "Swim Safe" program to teach inner-city children to swim.

The Lions' High School Football Coach of the Week program benefited 10 Michigan prep football programs from Bay City to Muskegon and from Livonia to Negaunee. Three Rivers' coach Scot Shaw earned this year's Coach of the Year award after his team captured the Division 4 state title.

Another DLC grant, in partnership with Ford Motor Company, helped to refurbish the Allen Park High School football field.

Grants were awarded this year, as well, through a cooperative effort between Detroit Lions Charities and NFL Charities. They combined to support the William Clay Ford Community Quarterback Award. A total of $20,000 in grants was awarded to nine organizations in the name of the Lions' owner to salute outstanding community volunteers. The overall award winner was the Loaves and Fishes Food Bank in Kalamazoo and its outstanding volunteer Mike Blakely, an 83-year-old whose garden annually provides 33,000 pounds of vegetables to the food bank.

DLC raises funds from several sources. Major support comes from corporate sponsors as well as funds raised through auctions of Lions' memorabilia and game-worn items on eBay.

Other fundraisers include the Lions' Kickoff Luncheon, Lions' Grand Rapids Luncheon, Detroit Lions Invitational (DLI) and Coach (Steve) Mariucci's inaugural Celebrity Bocce Ball Tournament , which was held on June 9 and raised nearly $250,000. The Lions' annual Kickoff Luncheon will be held at Cobo Center in Detroit on August 27.

For tax-exempt Michigan organizations interested in filing for future funding, grant requests will be accepted from October 1 through December 31. Further information on grant eligibility guidelines and application procedures is available via the Lions' web page www.detroitlions.com or by writing Detroit Lions Charities, 222 Republic Drive, Allen Park, MI, 48101.

LIONS PROWLING AROUND THE COMMUNITY

The Ford Family's commitment to community service and dedication to making an impact in the lives of the citizens of Michigan is evident by the contributions made all year long by the Detroit Lions players, coaches and staff. The Lions take great pride in supporting those in need and make every effort to lend a helping hand to the community that has always supported the Detroit Lions. The following is just a sample of some of the programs and events the Lions have been involved in during the past year.

GAME DAY DRIVES

13th Annual Thanksgiving Day Coat Drive: The 2003 Thanksgiving Day Coat Drive was sponsored by Pepsi in association with Martinizing Dry Cleaning, The Oakland Press, WKRK LIVE 97.1, WOMC and WJBK FOX 2. Fans donated over 6 tons of coats before the Lions-Packers game on November 27, vaulting the 13-year total to over 45 tons of coats collected to help the Salvation Army. Coats were distributed to those in need to help stay warm during the winter season. Lions' defensive end Robert Porcher served as honorary chairman.

Annual Toy Drive: The annual Toys for Tots toy drive in 2003 sponsored by FOX 2, Two Men and a Truck, WKRK LIVE 97.1 and Wallside Windows collected a new record of more than 4,200 toys. The drive was held on December 7 prior to the Lions-Chargers game. The toys were distributed to less fortunate children in the metro-Detroit area by the 1st Battalion, 24th Marines, 4th Marine Division through their Toys for Tots program.

UNITED WAY HALFTIME SHOW

In 2003, United Way of America, the National Football League and the Detroit Lions collaborated with multi-platinum recording artist Mary J. Blige for the Sixth Annual Thanksgiving Day Halftime Show during the Lions vs. Packers game on November 27. The halftime show was performed live in front of a sold-out Ford Field audience of 65,000 and broadcast nationally on FOX to more than 40 million viewers.

Blige performed songs from her album "Love and Life," as well as a duet with hip-hop performer Wyclef Jean. In addition to the live performance, celebrity newlyweds Nick Lachey and Jessica Simpson made a cameo appearance from Los Angeles. The 2003 United Way Thanksgiving Halftime Show was produced by e2K Sports, an Olmstead Productions Company.

Watching Thanksgiving games and halftime shows has become tradition for many families. Through the halftime show, United Way inspires millions of NFL fans to get involved in their communities. Whether it's coaching a youth football team, spending time with seniors or serving meals at a soup kitchen, anyone can get involved and make a difference in their own way.

The Detroit Lions are one of the NFL's strongest United Way supporters and provide outstanding leadership and service throughout southeast Michigan year round. Thanks to the support of the Lions, and the support of corporations, businesses, labor and other community members, United Way Community Services raised $64,257,747 in the 2003 United Way campaign to serve the people of southeast Michigan. The Lions' personal campaign set a new record in 2003 with nearly $52,000 in donations with 89 percent of Lions and Ford Field employees contributing.

PAPER LION REUNION

Forty players, coaches and trainers featured in the best-selling book Paper Lion, including its author George Plimpton, were welcomed home to Detroit for a reunion. A banquet was held on September 20 followed by a brunch, which was hosted the next day in their honor before they went to the Lions-Vikings game at Ford Field. The Paper Lions were introduced at halftime before a sold-out crowd. Several of the home-comers even stayed an extra day to play in the NFL Alumni's annual charity golf outing.

Paper Lion chronicled the exploits of a "36-year-old rookie quarterback from Harvard" during the Lions 1963 training camp. Five years after its release, the book became a hit movie starring Alan Alda and Lauren Hutton as well as featured several Lions. The 40th anniversary celebration of Plimpton's trials and tribulations in Lions' camp reunited several of the Paper Lions, including Alex Karras, Roger Brown, Gail Cogdill, Pat Studstill, Milt Plum, Earl Morrall, John Gordy, Joe Schmidt and Lem Barney.

They came from across the country to rekindle friendships and share laughter in what turned out to be Plimpton's final opportunity to reminisce with his former teammates. Plimpton passed away unexpectedly days later (September 25, 2003) at the age of 76.

DETROIT LIONS ACADEMY

The Detroit Lions Academy is a collaborative effort between Detroit Public Schools, Communities in Schools of Detroit, the Detroit Lions and corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale, Dow Chemical Company and Ford Motor Company. The Academy is an alternative school for students who have not been successful in traditional middle school settings. Students accepted into the Academy must have demonstrated prior academic or behavioral problems. At the grand opening, Dow Chemical announced a $120,000 commitment to the school for its science classroom. Ford Motor Company presented a check for $85,000 to sponsor the Academy's Media Resource Center and the paving of the school's parking lot and basketball court. Previously, Costco Wholesale and the Lions each made commitments for $50,000 a year for the next three years. In 2003, Lions head coach Steve Mariucci made a $10,000 donation to the academy for a book club. The school first opened its doors in Fall 2001 with approximately 60 middle school students and has expanded to 130 students in the fall of 2003. The Lions continue their involvement with the Academy throughout the year through player and staff appearances.

PAL YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Detroit Lions sponsor Detroit PAL youth football and host the football championships at Ford Field. The league, officially called the Detroit Lions PAL Football League, features 60 teams made up of more than 3,000 youngsters, making Detroit PAL among the largest police athletic leagues for tackle football in the nation. Founded in 1970, Detroit PAL serves 10,000 youth ages six-to-18 with 15 sports programs, seven tutorial sites, and two multi-purpose activity centers. The Lions not only provide financial backing for the league, but also have players participate in the development of the youngsters. In 2003, Lions' defensive end James Hall was the teams' PAL spokesman and presented the West Side Cubs with a $5,000 donation to PAL Football. The Lions also hosted a PAL mini-camp clinic at Ford Field at which youth received instruction in many aspects of the game from Lions' alumni and staff.

LIONS HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK

For the seventh consecutive season, the Detroit Lions and Detroit Lions Charities, in association with the NFL, presented the Detroit Lions High School Coach of the Week Program. The winning coaches were honored at the Lions' game against the St. Louis Rams on December 28, 2003. Each week throughout the 2003 regular season, one Michigan high school coach that best developed his players' character, discipline, and football skills was recognized for his commitment to the team, school and community. Each winning coach throughout the regular season received a $1,000 donation to his school's football program and the Coach of the Year received $3,000. The winners were selected by a panel of three sportswriters – Mick McCabe of the Detroit Free Press, Jane Bos of the Grand Rapids Press and Hugh Bernreuter of the Saginaw News. In addition to the monetary award, all winners received a framed certificate signed by Lions' Head Coach Steve Mariucci, Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, as well as former Detroit Lion and current NFL Director of Football Development, Gene Washington. They also received a personalized NFL football and a Coach of the Week hat and were honored at a brunch held at the Dearborn Inn prior to the December 28 game. Lions President and CEO Matt Millen also attended the ceremony and spoke to the winners.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

The Detroit Lions and Pepsi Bottling Group partnered with Habitat for Humanity-Detroit in 2003 to build a Habitat for Humanity home for a family in need. On May 6, 2003 Lions' Head Coach Steve Mariucci, President and CEO Matt Millen, mascot Roary and several players took part in a special wall-raising ceremony to begin the building of the house in Detroit. Volunteers used their time and talent to construct the three-bedroom, 1,050 square-foot home for Crystal Heard, her son Bernard and daughter Candice.

On December 16, 2003 a special house dedication ceremony was held to celebrate the completion of the house, which was the newest house in Tri-Centennial Village, a 16-block neighborhood revitalization effort located in Core City Neighborhood on Detroit's near west side. Lions' Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer Tom Lewand, several Lions' players, mascot Roary, Lions' personnel and Pro Football Hall of Famer Lem Barney were on hand to help with the ceremony.

Detroit Lions Charities partnered with Pepsi to contribute $60,000 to sponsor the project. The Lions and Pepsi, along with dozens of Habitat volunteers, also contributed approximately 2,000 volunteer hours to construct the home. The Heard family contributed over 300 volunteer hours on the home and other Habitat homes as part of their commitment to Habitat. The Heard's will own the home paying an affordable long-term, no interest mortgage with no profit to Habitat for Humanity. The mortgage payments are used to help build other Habitat homes in the neighborhood for low-income partner families.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

On Tuesday, October 14, 2003 the Detroit Lions and United Way Community Service joined forces with a "Hometown Huddle" project designed to assist at-risk Detroit youth. The event took place at the Lions' practice facility in Allen Park and brought in 100 youth from the Boys and Girls Club, Children's Aid Society, Common Ground Sanctuary, Franklin Wright Settlements and the Vista Maria.

The event featured a host of Lions' players teaching skills to agency participants and sharing personal stories of challenge and achievement. The players made a point to address the youth with motivational messages. The youth also had a chance to meet the players, run through a football mini-clinic and get autographs. DLC, Costco Wholesale and United Way Community Services presented video game systems to each of the participating agencies.

The 5th annual Hometown Huddle is the latest element in the nearly 30-year partnership of the NFL and United Way. By participating in the Hometown Huddle project, more than 300 NFL players in 32 cities reached out to thousands of individuals supported by local United Way agencies.

DETROIT LIONS PET CALENDAR

In 2003, The Detroit Lions started a new project by teaming up with their pets to help benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter. Detroit Lions' players and their pets had their photos taken on Tuesday, October 21 at Ford Field and the Allen Park Practice Facility as part of a project with the Friends for the Dearborn Animal Shelter (FFDAS). The photos were then used in a 2004 Detroit Lions Pet Calendar with all proceeds to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.

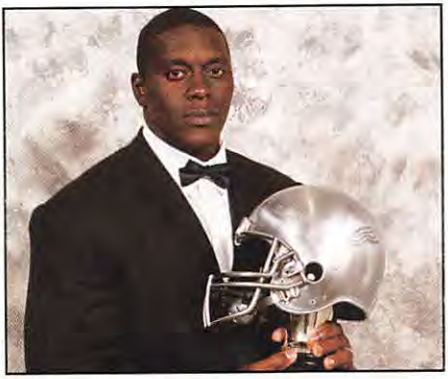

Proceeds from the 2003 calendar are being used to help the Friends for the Dearborn Animal Shelter to build the New Dearborn Animal Shelter Facility. The facility is planned to be the first animal shelter facility of its kind in Michigan, utilizing state-of-the-art innovation and design that will enhance the experience of both people and animals.

COURAGE HOUSE DINNER

The 10th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner was held on Tuesday, December 2 at Ford Field to benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse. The dinner raised nearly $85,000, much of which was used to target the center's child abuse prevention and treatment programs.

Former NFL great Reggie White was the keynote speaker and special awards were presented to the Lions' Robert Porcher and the Detroit Red Wings' Steve Yzerman.

Porcher received the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award at the dinner. The award annually recognizes men of courage in the National Football League. Porcher, the Lions' all-time leader in quarterback sacks in Detroit, is well-known for his commitment to serving others in the community. He and his wife Kimberly are involved in countless charitable causes.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARD

Mike Blakely, a volunteer for the Loaves and Fishes Food Bank in Kalamazoo, was named recipient of the fourth annual William Clay Ford Community Quarterback Award, a recognition program that honors outstanding volunteers. Blakely was named the overall winner while eight others volunteers were named as finalists.

On behalf of the Loaves and Fishes, Blakely accepted a grant award of $10,000 from Detroit Lions Charities. Blakely, 83, devotes his retirement as a master gardener growing vegetables and feeding needy families through the Food Bank. He spearheaded the development of a two-acre vegetable garden in 1995. During the 2003 growing season, more than 33,000 pounds of vegetables were contributed to the Food Bank.

The award, sponsored by the NFL, acknowledges exceptional community leaders in each of the NFL's 32 markets and distributes nearly $1 million nationally through the program. Funded by NFL Charities, the NFL Community Quarterback Award recognizes community volunteers who demonstrate leadership, dedication and a commitment to bettering their communities. The nomination process was done on-line through PARADE Magazine whereby charitable organizations and others nominated their notable volunteers. Finalists received awards of $1,250 for their nominating agencies.

ANNUAL KICKOFF LUNCHEON

A record sold-out crowd of 1,800 attended the seventh annual Detroit Lions Kickoff Luncheon presented by Epoch Restaurant Group and hosted by the Detroit Economic Club on August 27 at Cobo Center in Detroit. Guest speakers for the program were William Clay Ford, Jr., Detroit Mayor Kwame Kilpatrick, Robert Porcher and Lions' Head Coach Steve Mariucci. Mayor Kilpatrick spoke on Detroit's plans in hosting Super Bowl XL in 2006. The master of ceremonies was FOX 2's Dan Miller. The Lions' radio broadcast team of Mark Champion and Jim Brandstatter presented the player awards. The entire Lions' team attended the luncheon and awards from the 2002 season were presented. Detroit Lions Charities donated all of the proceeds to the Detroit Police Athletic League (PAL) youth football.

ANNUAL GRAND RAPIDS LUNCHEON

Detroit Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci, Pro Bowl cornerback Dré Bly and Executive VP Tom Lewand were on hand to represent the Lions at the 5th annual Detroit Lions Charities Luncheon in Grand Rapids on Tuesday, May 4.

The luncheon was held at the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel and raised $23,800 for Detroit Lions Charities. The proceeds will be used to benefit nine west Michigan charities, which include: IMPACT, the Boy Scouts of America-Gerald R. Ford Council, the downtown YMCA, In The Image, The Grand Rapids Ballet, Grand Rapids Public Museum, Gilda's Club, Dwelling Place and Rotary Charities.

Mariucci, Bly and Lewand addressed the crowd of nearly 500 about the excitement surrounding the Lions' upcoming season including the free agency period, the NFL Draft and the Lions' recent mini-camp. The three also took part in a question and answer session allowing the fans in attendance to fire questions about the 2004 season and what they can expect from the Lions.

This year's event was hosted by the Rotary Club of Grand Rapids and FOX 17 WXMI along with luncheon sponsor Warner, Norcross & Judd and presenting sponsors Axios Inc., Blue Cross & Blue Shield of Michigan, National City Bank and Meijer.

14TH ANNUAL DETROIT LIONS INVITATIONAL

The 14th annual Detroit Lions Invitational held at the historical Indianwood Golf and Country Club in Lake Orion on May 24 raised $125,000 for Detroit Lions Charities. Nearly 300 golfers participated, with many having the opportunity to play with current and former Lions players and coaches. Included among the many celebrities were Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci as well as former head coaches Wayne Fontes, Monte Clark, Tommy Hudspeth and Rick Forzano.

In addition, current Lions players Jeff Backus, Bradford Banta, Dré Bly, Fernando Bryant, Casey FitzSimmons, Terrence Holt, David Kircus, Mike McMahon, Dominic Raiola and Damien Woody braved the wind and chilly temperatures to participate in the event. Among the former Lions players in the field were Lem Barney, Dexter Bussey, Eddie Murray and Barry Sanders.

Following the golf, there was a dinner and silent auction. The auction, which featured various items such as autographed memorabilia, passes to the 2004 Ryder Cup at Oakland Hills and the use of a suite at Comerica Park for a Tigers vs. New York Yankees game, raised a record $19,000.

COACH MARIUCCI CELEBRITY BOCCE BALL TOURNAMENT

Coach Mariucci's Celebrity Bocce Ball Tournament, June 9, at Palazzo di Bocce in Orion Township, Michigan raised an estimated $250,000 for Detroit Lions Charities. More than 600 spectators and celebrities were on hand as 32 four-person teams competed in a round robin bocce ball tournament. The championship was won by the Campo di Bocce team from Los Gatos, California in the title match-up with Charter One Bank. The event was presented by the Lincoln Mercury Dealers of Metro Detroit.

The Palazzo di Bocce, built and owned by Anthony Battaglia, is a 32,000 square foot facility with 10 indoor championship courts, spectator seating, a pro shop and a restaurant that features Italian cuisine and wine. It is considered the nation's newest and finest indoor facility for bocce ball.

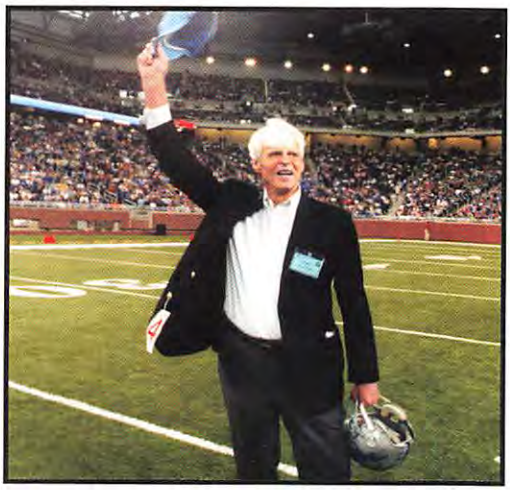

Detroit Pistons' Head Coach Larry Brown and Red Wings' Head Coach Dave Lewis were among the many celebrities who were Coach Mariucci's guests at the event. Michigan State University Head Basketball Coach Tom Izzo, professional women's boxing champion Mary Jo Sanders joined George Perles and Bo Schembechler, former MSU and U of M Head Football Coaches respectively as some of the other icons in the crowd. The Lions' radio play-by-play team of Mark Champion and Jim Brandstatter were masters of ceremonies for the day's special programs. Pro Football Hall of Famers Lem Barney and Joe Schmidt and the 2004 inductee Barry Sanders highlighted a field of current and former Detroit Lions players on hand.

Proceeds for the event go to Detroit Lions Charities. Among the recipients of funding from the tournament will be the Assistance League of Southeast Michigan, Boys & Girls Clubs of Southeast Michigan, IM Charities, Lions Clubs' Bear Lake Camp, Oakland Land Conservancy, Orion War Memorial, The Salvation Army, and St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

GEORGE PLIMPTON PAPER LION

This past year, the Lions were re-united with a special friend who cemented the Lions in literary and movie lore during the 1960s. Author George Plimpton wrote the book "Paper Lion" about his exploits as a 36-year old rookie quarterback from Harvard during the 1963 Lions Training Camp.

"Paper Lion" was then made into a movie five years later that featured Alan Alda playing Plimpton, Lauren Hutton and several Lions players, including Alex Karras.

Plimpton and that group of Lions (including Karras, Roger Brown, Gail Cogdill, Pat Studstill, Milt Plum, Earl Morrall, John Gordy, Joe Schmidt and Lem Barney) caught up with each other at a reunion that was held September 20-21, the reunion turned out to be Plimpton's last chapter of his life as he passed away just days later on September 25 at the age of 76.

FORD FIELD

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium, Ford Field. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' new home is an incomparable 65,000-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2002 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

The first major non-football event scheduled for the new stadium was Impact at Ford Field, a fund-raising event on September 5 for The Children's Center. Founded in 1929, The Children's Center provides 28 interrelated programs to approximately 7,000 children and families in Detroit. Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was that October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones.

Prior to opening in 2002, Ford Field captured the attentive eye of NFL owners. Ford Field was selected unanimously November 1, 2000 by NFL ownership to be the host site of Super Bowl XL to be played February 5, 2006. It will mark the first Super Bowl in the Detroit Metro area since the Pontiac Silverdome was the site for Super Bowl XVI, played January 24, 1982.

Ford Field is a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and it is the crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district.

LOCATION

Ford Field is nestled at the intersection of I-75 and I-375 in downtown Detroit, Mich. The 40-foot glass wall entrance is located at the corner of Adams and Brush Street. Brush St. runs between Ford Field and Comerica Park, the home of the Detroit Tigers. St. Antoine St. runs on the east side of the stadium and Beacon St. borders Ford Field on the south side.

LUXURY SUITES

The luxury suite options are like no other in the sports industry. Ford Field incorporates 132 luxury suites, including 115 in the warehouse and 17 on the north side of the stadium. The 115 suites in the warehouse are located on four different levels.

The inspired design that integrates luxury suites into the historic Hudson's warehouse affords each suite holder significant opportunities, including optimum views, easy access and customized floor plans. By eliminating end zone suites, Ford Field luxury suites offer goal-line-to-goal-line, corner-to-corner views of every play. Since suites are centrally located, access is simple and direct, and creative use of warehouse space provides flexibility to create a wide selection of suite shapes and sizes.

Suites can accommodate from eight to 30 people, which allows for a wider variety of suites than any other football stadium.

Suite holders receive amenity packages consisting of tickets for all Lions' home games, tickets for most non-Lions events, first option on additional tickets to non-Lions events, VIP parking, private entrance, private concourse, private bathroom access, premium catering, in-suite televisions to view additional NFL action, exclusive option to purchase Super Bowl XL tickets, full concierge service and day use of suite (during normal business hours).

CLUB SEATS

There are 8,700 club seats at Ford Field. 4,300 club seats are located on the north side, and 4,400 are located on the club level that is adjoined to the warehouse. Club seats at Ford Field represent the ultimate in club experience with an unrivaled game day opportunity. Club seat ticket holders have access to four exclusive clubs in the stadium with expanded food selection of upscale cuisine.

Amenities include: wide, leather padded seats (manufactured by Visteon) with cupholders, elevator and escalator services from main entrances, two private entrances, climate controlled atmosphere, televisions and video walls in club lounges, club level concierge service, exclusive Lions merchandise store, opportunities to purchase tickets to other Ford Field events and opportunities for year-round use of club lounges for business meetings and social functions.

FORD FIELD TIMELINE

1996

August 20: Lions announce plans to build new domed stadium in downtown Detroit.

November 5: Voters in Wayne County overwhelmingly approve a referendum by the largest margin of victory in NFL stadium election history (68-32 percent) which will allow the Detroit Lions to build a domed stadium in downtown Detroit adjacent to a new baseball park for the Detroit Tigers.

1999

November 16: Lions host groundbreaking ceremony "From the Ground Up" unveiling renderings and officially naming the new stadium, Ford Field.

2000

February: Workers begin installing 380 concrete caissons into the hard pan, which is a densely compacted layer of gravel located approximately 100 feet below the surface that rests on top of the bedrock, to provide stability to the structure of the bowl.

April 17: Demolition of a 250,000 square-foot portion of the old Hudson's Warehouse begins. The razed area will be the site of the glass wall located on the southwest corner of Ford Field.

April 24: Lions award construction contracts. Partnership between Indianapolis-based Hunt Construction Group and Detroit-owned Jenkins Construction is contracted to build the majority of Ford Field, including the playing field, seating bowl and roof, and White/Olson, LLC of Detroit is contracted to handle the reconstruction of the Warehouse.

June 13: Above grade cast-in-place concrete begins to start shaping the stadium's upper bowl.

September: Below-grade foundation work north of warehouse site is completed.

October: Roof/atrium work begins on warehouse.

November 1: NFL owners unanimously approve the city of Detroit to host Super Bowl XL at Ford Field February 5, 2006.

November 17: Detroitlions.com launches Ford Field Web Cam to provide views with real-time updates of construction progress.

November: Lions open new marketing and project office at Harmonie Park in Detroit.

December: Caissons installation completed.

2001

April 28: First steel lifted 120 feet in southwest corner of stadium to begin assembling roof structure.

October: Upper bowl seats installation begins.

November 2: First massive roof lift completed. The lift of this magnitude is the first of its kind in the United States. The steel, weighing approximately 2,800 tons (5.6 million lbs.) and spanning 450 feet, is lifted by a computerized system of pulleys, cables and jacks.

December: Workers begin removing approximately 300,000 cubic yards of soil and clay to shape the lower bowl and field level portion of the stadium.

December 16: Second massive roof truss lift completed.

2002

January 24: Lions' ticket office relocates to downtown office at Harmonie Park in downtown Detroit. Ticket operations plan to move into Ford Field in Fall 2002.

February 11: Lions' ticket office begins season ticket holders seat relocation process. First appointments include accounts dating back to 1950.

March 28: NFL releases 2002 schedule, with the Lions hosting the Green Bay Packers September 22 in the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field.

May: Video boards installed.

May 1: Installation of lower bowl seats begins.

May 2: Ford Field announces Levy Restaurants as its official caterer and concessionaire at a food testing at the Harmonie Park Ford Field Project office.

May 7: Ford Field slates the Rolling Stones as the stadium's first major concert scheduled for October 12, 2002.

June: Upper bowl and suite seats installed. Two 97-by-27 feet LED digital video scoreboards installed. Bathrooms completed. Concession stands outfitted with equipment. Carpet installed in banquet rooms, suites and press box. Brick-like concrete pathways poured for glass wall (southwest) atrium. One-half of field level construction completed. One-half of seats in the lower bowl installed. Brick paving of Adams Street begins.

July: Three-quarters of field level poured. Final one-quarter of field level graded and prepared. Roof membrane (a type of skin-like finish) installed. East side upper glass wall finished. Fixtures in suites installed and cleaned. Kitchen equipment calibrated. Stadium sound system installed in roof structure. White baffling material from ceiling hanged to reduce acoustic distortion. Roof installation completed. Sound and video system and scoreboard calibrated. Seat cup holders installed. Main glass wall (southwest) atrium glass installed.

August: Ford Field business and operations offices open on second level of warehouse. Stadium exterior brick walkways paved. Final section of field level poured. FieldTurf installed. Stadium exterior landscaped. Ford Field stadium staff trained.

August 22: Lions hold first practice at Ford Field.

August 24: First preseason game at Ford Field. Lions fall to the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-22.

September 5: Impact at Ford Field, the annual Children's Center fundraiser marks the first non-football event to take place in the new stadium.

September 15: Interfaith dedication of Ford Field.

September 22: Lions host the Green Bay Packers in the Inaugural Game at Ford Field. The Lions fall to the Packers 37-31. The game also marks the first career start by Lions quarterback Joey Harrington.

September 29: The Lions win their first game at Ford Field as they defeat the New Orleans Saints 26-21.

October 12: Legendary band the Rolling Stones headline the first concert at Ford Field. Pop band No Doubt plays the night's opening act.

November 28: The Lions host the first Thanksgiving Day game at Ford Field vs. the New England Patriots. The game serves as the 63rd installment of the historic holiday series and the first Thanksgiving Day Game in downtown Detroit since 1974.

December 26,: The Motor City Bowl takes place at Ford Field for the first time in the bowl game's six-year history. Boston College defeats Toledo 51-25.

December 29: Lions close out the first season at Ford Field vs. the Minnesota Vikings. The Lions finish the 2002 season at Ford Field with eight regular season and two preseason sellouts. All 10 home games are broadcast on local television, a feat never accomplished at the Pontiac Silverdome.

2003

April 26: Ford Field hosts the NFL Draft Day Experience, the Lions' 15th annual draft day fan gala. 8,600 fans attend the event.

May 12: Michigan Sports Hall of Fame holds its annual induction ceremony at Ford Field for the first time. Among the sports figures inducted are Lions' Hall of Fame tackle Lou Creekmur and Lions' all-time leading rusher Barry Sanders.

LIONS HEADQUARTERS AND TRAINING FACILITY

The Ford family not only made a commitment to bring the pride of the Detroit Lions back into downtown Detroit with the construction of Ford Field, but they also decided that the new training and practice facility would be rivaled by no other team in the National Football League.

The Lions' $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility is built on a 22.7-acre parcel and is located just west of Detroit on the border of Allen Park and Dearborn. In fact, the new facility is just down the street from Ford Motor Company's World Headquarters.

The franchise broke ground on the new world-class facility in August 2000 and moved into its new digs in April 2002. The 460,000 square foot complex includes a full indoor practice field, 2.5 outdoor practice fields, a state-of-the art weight and training room, a massive locker room, a hydrotherapy room, a spacious equipment room, a cafeteria, meeting rooms for each position, a player lounge, a 106-person auditorium for full team meetings and large press conferences, a broadcast studio, a library and archive room, a media room along with offices for all personnel.

When entering the building from the main entrance, one is immediately hit with flashbacks of Lions football. A 23-by-26 foot mural is covered with the likes of nine Hall-of-Fame Lions players.

In an effort to keep the environment clean, William Clay Ford, Jr. also made sure the building was built with renewable and recyclable products. The bamboo floors in the lobby, latex paint and rubber flooring have all contributed to this cause.

The ultimate goal of the new training and practice facility is to help provide a winning atmosphere. If the facility for the Lions is any indication as to how the team will do on the field this coming year, the Super Bowl trophy without a doubt will be in Motown.

MEDIA POLICIES

The Lions Media Relations department has compiled the following information to assist the media in their coverage of the Detroit Lions. Adherence to the following procedures will prove beneficial to both the Detroit Lions and the media assigned to cover the team. If you have any questions or need any additional information, please contact any member of the Lions Media Relations staff.

DETROIT LIONS MEDIA RELATIONS STAFF

Matt Barnhart ..... Director of Media Relations
Deanna Caldwell ..... Communications Assistant
Ben Manges ..... Media Relations Assistant
Kelsey Mandl, DeAndre Phillips and Chris Brewer..Interns
Bill Keenist ..... Sr. V.P. of Communications & Marketing

MEDIA ACCESS AND INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interview requests for players, coaches, executives and staff should be directed to the Lions Media Relations department.

Head Coach: Head Coach Steve Mariucci will be available for interviews immediately following practice sessions. During training camp, Coach Mariucci's post-practice media sessions will generally occur following the morning practice session. Following select practices, there will be a designated media interview area equipped with a sound distribution system that the media is encouraged to use. One-on-one or special requests for Coach Mariucci should be directed to Bill Keenist or Matt Barnhart.

Players Access: Players are available during open locker room sessions and on the field immediately following practices. Please coordinate special requests for an individual player with a member of the Lions Media Relations department.

Assistant Coaches: Lions' assistant coaches are available to the media throughout the year. Please coordinate all interview requests for assistant coaches with a member of the Lions Media Relations department. Members of the media requesting an interview with an assistant coach should be prepared to conduct the interview on the field following practice sessions, though interview availability may vary due to meeting schedules.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES

- The media should respect the proprietary nature of open practice opportunities, and will be expected not to disclose those occurrences in either print or electronic news stories. If there is a question whether an incident is considered "of proprietary nature", the media person should ask a media relations staff member for clarification. No portions of practice should be reported unless commented on by the head coach.
- Lions' team practice sessions (mini-camp, training camp and regular season) will be open to the media, including reporters, photographers and camerapersons. Practice sessions during the regular season will be open to local-media only.
- Outdoor Practices: Members of the media covering practice outdoors should enter the practice area using the fire lane on the south side of the facility. Media observing practice should remain on or behind the track surrounding the practice fields. Tripods may not be used at any time during outdoor practice sessions.
- Indoor Practices: Members of the media view indoor practice sessions from the second level balcony. Media will be escorted to and from the viewing area by a member of the Lions Media Relations department. Since members of the media must be escorted to the viewing area, covering practice beginning at the starting time is the best way to insure complete access to practice. Media will be escorted to field level for post-practice interviews at the end of the practice sessions. Tripods may be used on the balcony during indoor practices.
- Photographers and television camerapersons will be allowed to shoot individual drills only. A member of the Lions Media Relations staff will be there to assist during practice times.
- Please silence or turn off cell phones and pagers when entering practice areas. If a call must be made, please exit the viewing area.

CREDENTIALS

Written requests for training camp and game (season or individual games) press credentials should be submitted on letterhead to the Detroit Lions Media Relations department. Request for season credentials should be made by July 22. Requests for individual games should be made no later than one week prior to the game. Requests should be mailed or faxed to:

Matt Barnhart, Director of Media Relations
The Detroit Lions, Inc.
Headquarters and Training Facility
222 Republic Drive
Allen Park, MI 48101
Fax: 313.216.4226

Road Credentials: Members of the Lions' media traveling to road games should submit requests for credentials to Matt Barnhart no later than seven days prior to the road game.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Many members of the media who are assigned to cover all Lions games (preseason and regular reason) will be issued a season credential with photo identification. If a member of the media is assigned a season-long, laminated credential without a photo identification, then government-issued photo identification must be shown to enter Ford Field. If a member of the media is issued a game pass (paper), this must be picked up at Will Call (located at Gate G off St. Antoine Street) the day of the game. Government-issued photo identification, along with business identification, must be show to receive credential.

LIONS MEDIA WING

All members of the media covering the Lions at the Headquarters and Training Facility are welcome to use the work area designated for the media. In the Media Workroom (Room 111), there are workstations set aside for the Detroit Free Press, Detroit News, Booth Newspapers, Oakland Press, Associated Press and Lions Radio Network. All other stations within the workroom are available on a first-come, first-serve basis and are equipped with pool phones.

The Radio Room (Room 108) is outfitted for WXYT, WWJ, WJR and WDFN. There is an additional workstation for remote broadcasts. Use of this workstation must be scheduled through the Lions Media Relations department. Local radio stations needing to host remote shows at the practice facility must contact the Lions Media Relations Department to schedule locations in auxiliary interview rooms.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Lions' press conferences are held in the Lions Broadcast Studio (Room 200) located on the second floor of the Headquarters and Training Facility. Use staircase closest to Media Work Room to access the Broadcast Studio. A sound distribution system is available for electronic news outlets. Members of the print media are also encourage to use the sound distribution system for a high-quality recording of the press conference. For electronic news outlets taking a press conference "live", please coordinate with Lions Director of Broadcasting & New Media Bryan Bender.

CONFERENCE CALLS

Weekly conference calls and other media conference calls take place in the Lions Library (Room 113) located in the Lions Media Wing. Typically, weekly conference calls take place around Noon each week. Weekly conference call times are available through a member of the Lions Media Relations department.

TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts of all Lions press conferences, conference calls and most general interview sessions (Head Coach Steve Mariucci and select players) are transcribed. Transcripts are distributed to the media filing reports from the practice facility, e-mailed to the Lions Media Distribution list, and posted on Media.Detroitlions.com.

PRESS INFORMATION

All Lions press releases are distributed via e-mail and posted on Media.Detroitlions.com. Most general press releases are also posted on Detroitlions.com. To receive team press releases, submit request to a member of the Lions Media Relations staff.

ELECTRONIC MEDIA BROADCASTS

Television and radio stations needing to produce "live shots" should coordinate their broadcasts through the Lions Media Relations department. Technical questions regarding hook-ups should be directed to Bryan Bender.

MEDIA.DETROITLIONS.COM

For media covering the Detroit Lions in 2004 and beyond, the team has launched Media.Detroitlions.com (http://media.detroitlions.com), a media-only Internet site. The site has been created to supplement the year-round media coverage of the Lions and will serve as an online database of media information that will be accessible seven days a week, 24 hours a day.

Information that can be found on Media.Detroitlions.com includes the daily schedules, press releases, news clippings, updated rosters and depth chart (when available), statistics and other media services. During the regular season, our complete media information packs and press kits for each opponent will be available early Tuesday and will be customizable for the media to print or download.

This site is offered to accredited members of the media for FREE to provide an extensive service to the Detroit Lions media and the NFL media. The purpose of Media.Detroitlions.com is to enhance the media's coverage with important media information and services.

E-MAIL DISTRIBUTION

As of the 2004 Lions Training Camp, all press releases, media advisories, schedules, transcripts and daily updates will be distributed electronically via e-mail through Media.Detroitlions.com. To receive the above mentioned information via e-mail, media members must be registered on the Lions Media Website.

CALENDAR TOOL

Members of the media covering the Lions are encouraged to log onto Media.Detroitlions.com daily to view up-to-date schedule and times for all relevant Lions' and NFL events. These include such items as practice schedules, media availability, press conference, game information and community affairs events.

MY PROFILE

Each registered media member logging on will be required to set up a profile for access to the information provided. The information will be used by the Lions Media Relations staff for internal purposes only. Changes to contact information (such as addresses, phone numbers and e-mail addresses) can easily be made and submitted to the media relations department by updating the user profile created during registrations.

In order to access the site, the site requires users to create a "MY PROFILE". Members of the media will create an individual profile, and will have the ability to update and change important information at any time.

Once the "My Profile" is created, users will be given a username and password to enter most portions of the site for 72 hours. Within that time, the profile will be reviewed and accredited. Once the review is complete, users will have full access to the site.

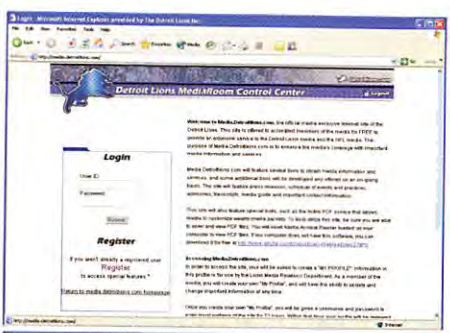

USING PDF FILES

Media.Detroitlions.com features the use of special tools, such as the Active PDF service that allows media to customize weekly media packets. To best utilize this site, members of the media must be able to open and view PDF files. It is important to load Adobe Acrobat Reader on the computer used to view PDF files. This software can be downloaded for free at :

http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html.
