THE FIESTA GETS 40 HIGHWAY MILES PER GALLON.
THAT'S MORE THAN 21 HYBRIDS.

SERIOUSLY.

How does the Fiesta get more miles per gallon than many hybrids?* Two words: thoughtful engineering. The kind that understands that giving the Fiesta a Ti-VCT engine will allow it to squeeze every last drop. Or that a line cutting through the taillamp will make the Fiesta more aerodynamic, and therefore more fuel-efficient. But these are only a few of the many reasons the Fiesta can go farther than so many other cars. Including all those hybrids.

IT'S A PRETTY BIG DEAL.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN

In an age where ownership changes and franchise moves in professional sports have become alarmingly commonplace, William Clay Ford continues to provide the Detroit Lions organization, its fans and the community with unwavering stability and sound leadership.

His commitment to the franchise is imprinted on virtually every aspect of the organization. By combining one of the finest sports and entertainment venues, Ford Field, and a world-class headquarters and training environment with a strong management team, Mr. Ford has instilled the organization with the right mix of fuel that will power the further development of the entire Lions organization.

Last season (2009) signaled the beginning of a new era for Detroit Lions football. Everything from the team's management all the way down to the logo on the helmet changed with the mindset to improve this franchise and compete for championships. There were considerable changes to the organization starting with Mr. Ford's promotion of Tom Lewand as team president and Martin Mayhew as general manager. Lewand oversees the direction of the organization, including business operations, and Mayhew is responsible for all football matters. Both set out to find the best coach for this team, and they, along with Mr. Ford's blessing, did so when the team hired Jim Schwartz, who had served as defensive coordinator for many successful Tennessee Titans teams, as the Lions' new head coach. The 2009 season also marked the first time in franchise history that the team began the season with a new general manager, new team president and new head coach, and that fresh approach is paying dividends in many ways.

The strong leadership team that Mr. Ford has formulated is guiding the franchise on and off the field with a plan that will elevate this team to new heights.

On the football side, Mayhew has re-vamped the team's player personnel and football operations in numerous ways and those efforts have resulted in two very successful drafts. In 2010, the Lions have also improved the team's roster via free agency and trades.

Mayhew has worked alongside Schwartz to find players based on their shared philosophy on the types of skills that are necessary to win in the NFL. To guide those players on the field, Schwartz has built a coaching staff that is working to maximize those talents and produce game strategies to complement the players' abilities. Having spent several years on the Tennessee Titans coaching staff, Schwartz understands that consistency with the coaching staff and the team schemes provides a competitive edge in the team's development.

"Though we are not satisfied until we accomplish our highest priority, which is a championship," said Mr. Ford." I firmly believe we are moving in that direction. It's never about one individual and our front office is proving that a team effort is needed to improve this club each and every day.

"While game days remain the true judge, we can see the improvement we've made in the talented players we have acquired over the past two years. We have a good blend of quality, young players and veterans who still can have a great impact on this team. Teams win with great players and we are confident that players like Matthew Stafford, Calvin Johnson, Brandon Pettigrew, Louis Delmas, Kyle Vanden Bosch, Ndamukong Suh and many others, will have the type of success that we expect them to for us.

"Winning is critically important to our family and to our organization, and we realize that we need to win for this community. Our fans are second to none, and we appreciate their support. Our goal is to provide them with a Super Bowl title."

On the business side, Lewand continues to forge ahead with a strategic approach to make sure every element off the field impacts the team on the field. Whether it is through revenue streams generated at Ford Field, effective management of player contracts, improvement of the club's financial processes or building stronger relationships with fans and business partners, Lewand ensures that Mr. Ford's vision to become one of the best franchises in professional sports is being realized.

As it's always been with Mr. Ford, the mission is for the Detroit Lions to win a Super Bowl. Mr. Ford understands that with competitive realities of today's NFL, reaching the game's pinnacle takes a concerted organizational effort both on and off the field. While everyone appreciates the importance of the coaching staff and the front office staff, you also need the proper infrastructure, such as state-of-the-art stadium and practice facilities.

Mr. Ford's commitment was evident in the Lions' return "home" to a new downtown Detroit stadium, Ford Field, in 2002. The $500 million stadium enhanced the Lions' ability to compete in several facets of the game. In this NFL age, the revenues produced from Ford Field help level the economic playing field with the Lions' NFL counterparts.

The Ford Family and Ford Field were the overwhelming factors in Detroit being awarded the right to host Super Bowl XL in February 2006. That championship game clearly added to the city's economic landscape in numerous ways, including a $260 million boost to Metro Detroit, and the impact the Ford family had on bringing the Super Bowl to Detroit was apparent.

"We wouldn't be here if it were not for the Ford family, who led the way in developing Ford Field as a catalyst for the redevelopment of downtown Detroit, including the return of the Super Bowl to Detroit," former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue pronounced in 2006 during his annual state of the league press conference held just prior to Super Bowl XL.

"And the Ford family's leadership has certainly been a big part, not just of the NFL and NFL history, but of Detroit and our nation's history."

Ford Field has been a key cog in shaping further revitalized growth for the city of Detroit. The stadium's effect on the city continues to be comprehensive with its contributions as it hosts several events besides Lions' games.

In May 2003, the Detroit News honored Mr. Ford as a Michiganian of the Year, an annual tribute to select citizens who made significant contributions to the state or local community, as he had brought the Lions "back home" and opened Ford Field's doors to reap benefits for Detroit. In September 2005, he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

"Winning is critically important to our family and to our organization, and we realize that we need to win for this community. Our fans are second to none, and we appreciate their support. Our goal is to provide them with a Super Bowl title," Mr. Ford said.

Additional confirmation of his steadfast dedication to the team was the completion of the team's $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park, Mich., that opened in April 2002 as the NFL's premier training center.

Thanks to Mr. Ford's addition of the Lions Headquarters and Training Facility, the entire organization develops year-round in a world-class environment. Both the short-term and long-term impacts are significant as the team trains under conditions second-to-none. This joint venture between the Lions and Ford Land Development Corporation provides state-of-the-art facilities for players' off-season workouts, training camp, and in-season meetings and practices.

Throughout his tenure as owner, William Clay Ford has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of balance, integrity and honest leadership. Never one to seek the limelight, Mr. Ford has not sought public accolades for his many contributions to football, the automotive industry and his community.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964. The 2010 season will mark the 47th year of Mr. Ford's sole ownership of the club.

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automotive industry, he being the only surviving grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

For the entire Ford family, 2003 marked a year of great pride and celebration as Ford Motor Company commemorated its historic 100 years as an icon in American industry.

In May 2005, Mr. Ford retired from the Board of Directors of Ford Motor Company after nearly 57 years of service. He remains director emeritus on the Board of Directors. Mr. Ford most recently served as a member of the Board of Directors and was on the company's Finance Committee, and in years past served on its Governance Committee. He had been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee from its inception in 1957 until his retirement as vice chairman in March 1989.

Utilizing his expertise in design, Mr. Ford was also on special assignment as a design consultant focusing on the Jaguar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939. In 1973, Mr. Ford was appointed vice president-Product Design.

Mr. Ford was elected to the Board of Directors in 1948 and began his employment at Ford following graduation from Yale University. He served several executive positions before appointment as vice president and general manager of the Continental Division in 1954. In 1956, he assumed responsibility for corporate product planning and design.

When the Design Committee of Ford's Policy and Strategy Committee was formed in 1957, Mr. Ford became the committee's first chairman, a post he held until retirement in 1989.

In 1978, Mr. Ford was elected chairman of the Executive Committee and appointed a member of the Office of the Chief Executive. He was elected vice chairman of the Board in 1980 and chairman of the Finance Committee in 1987. He retired as chairman of the Finance Committee in 1995.

"Though we are not satisfied until we accomplish our highest priority, which is a championship. I firmly believe we are moving in that direction. It's never about one individual and our front office is proving that a team effort is needed to improve this club each and every day. While game days remain the true judge, we can see the improvement we've made in the talented players we have acquired over the past two years. We have a good blend of quality, young players and veterans who still can have a great impact on this team. Teams win with great players and we are confident that players like Matthew Stafford, Calvin Johnson, Brandon Pettigrew, Louis Delmas, Kyle Vanden Bosch, Ndamukong Suh and many others, will have the type of success that we expect them to for us, " said Mr. Ford.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corp in World War II, he enrolled at Yale, where he lettered in both tennis and soccer at the Ivy League school. As a collegian, he won league tennis titles in singles and doubles, and he earned All-American honorable mention honors in soccer. In fact, he was a nationally-ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer, while registering a remarkable seven (7) holes-in-one over the years.

He graduated from Yale with a bachelor's of science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Ford also is chairman emeritus of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford. He is an honorary life trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, is a national trustee for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of America and honorary chair of the United Way Community Services. He is also on the Texas Heart Institute National Advisory Council. Mr. Ford received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, Calif., in 1981.

Mr. Ford's generosity as a benefactor was again recognized in 1997, as the outdoor courts of the University of Michigan's new tennis center were named in his honor. Also, a new addition to Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital (which bears the name of Mr. Ford's grandfather) opened in 1996 - The William Clay Ford Center for Athletic Medicine - which is one of the leading sports medicine treatment and research institutions in the country.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They are the parents of three daughters— Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth— and a son, William Clay Ford, Jr., who serves as the Lions Vice Chairman, in addition to his role as Executive Chairman of Ford Motor Company.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has made a positive and lasting impact on the Detroit Lions since assuming his current post of vice chairman in February 1995. He remains focused not only on creating a winner in the present, but also on ensuring success well into the 21st century, both on and off the field.

Ford shares his father's commitment and devotion to the Lions and also has a burning passion to win. He wants nothing less than for the Lions to become one of the premier franchises in the National Football League and knows that elite status includes delivering a championship to Lions fans.

"Everything we do is based on our top priority, which is to win the Super Bowl," said Ford. "And I believe we have many assets that are leading us in that direction. Our leadership, including Head Coach Jim Schwartz along with Tom (Lewand) and Martin (Mayhew), is moving the team forward in a positive direction. It is our job to add to what we started last year and improve our results.

"I believe the young talent that we have recently acquired, especially at quarterback with Matthew Stafford, provides a solid foundation for our future. I am excited to see how this team continues to develop and how we progress this year.

"I've always believed that winning is the best return for our fans' investment and we are committed to provide our fans exactly that."

To see Ford's influence off the field, one has to look no further than Ford Field in downtown Detroit and the team's headquarters and practice facility in Allen Park. Both are considered among the best respectively in all of sports, and were shaped by Ford's resolve for the Lions to be a leader in the NFL.

Ford's dedication and commitment to the fans was never more evident than when he spearheaded the team's stadium negotiations that led to the 1996 decision and announcement to build Ford Field. Due largely to his determination and perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the city of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation for the Lions to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

Ford's vision of a downtown stadium had perhaps its finest moment to date when it played host to Super Bowl XL in February 2006. It received extraordinary reviews by the international community.

In addition to developing new homes for the team to practice and play, Ford played a vital role in Detroit's bid for Super Bowl XL. Through his leadership, the Ford Family, the Lions and Ford Motor Company were integral in Detroit's impressive hosting of Super Bowl XL that exceeded expectations. Overall, there was a $260 million economic impact generated by Super Bowl XL, including $100 million in downtown improvements, $10 million in emerging businesses—the most in Super Bowl history—and $6 million in the NFL/Boys & Girls Club Youth Education Town—the largest in the country.

"We wouldn't be here if it were not for the Ford family, who led the way in developing Ford Field as a catalyst for the redevelopment of downtown Detroit, including the return of the Super Bowl to Detroit," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue in 2006. "And the Ford family's leadership has certainly been a big part, not just of the NFL and NFL history, but of Detroit and our nation's history."

Though satisfied with progress made so far by the development of Ford Field, Ford continues to push for the stadium to become an even greater benefit to the community and its growth.

"Our goal is to aggressively build on the impact Ford Field has already made in just the eight years since we opened the doors. It's important that we continue to offer opportunities that not only exceed our business goals but improves the City of Detroit through events that take place throughout the year. To accomplish this, we set forth a high standard of excellence when it comes to providing fans, whether it is at a football game, concert or other events, an unrivaled experience."

Since the decision was made to move to downtown Detroit, Ford also wanted to provide a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium project. The $36 million Allen Park facility, which opened in April 2002, has universally been identified as one of the best facilities in the NFL. Its state-of-the-art football facilities, including an indoor practice facility with a regulation-size field, provide the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches.

In Ford's 15 years in his current role, he has helped the Lions take major steps forward on several fronts. Ford has strongly supported an active community outreach program which has been recognized as the best of any team in all of professional sports.

Through Ford's support, Detroit Lions Charities, which has awarded more than $5.6 million in total donations during its 20-year history, continue to serve Detroit and the State of Michigan. Featured among the Lions' philanthropic efforts is the collaborative effort with Detroit Public Schools and Communities in Schools of Detroit to open the Detroit Lions Academy. The school, which opens its doors for its eighth year this fall, offers an alternative school environment for approximately 140 sixth, seventh and eighth grade students. Ford has been a significant supporter of the team's contribution in numerous other community programs, such as the sponsorship of the Think Detroit PAL youth football program—one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues.

Involvement in the community does not stop at the team's community outreach and charitable contributions, as Ford also emphasizes the importance in growing the game of football and the development of youth. The Detroit Lions Youth Football program is one the most extensive youth sports programs operated by a professional sports team. From numerous youth camps held statewide to coaching clinics, the goal of the program is to impact children's lives on and off the field through the game. Ford believes it is valuable to grow youth's interest in football and assist in the development of youth coaches.

Under Ford's direction, the team has launched one of the most aggressive business operations in all of sports. Many elements to this are derived primarily from events held at Ford Field and the benefits generated from both Lions games and other ancillary events. Ford ensures that every aspect of the team's business operations ultimately focus on the impact they have on the Lions' ability to win.

Over the years, Ford's leadership has generated several key business initiatives. In April 2009, the team introduced comprehensive changes to the team's brand that includes a new, fierce-looking logo and other unique branding elements. A month earlier the organization re-vamped the Lions merchandise operations with a strong emphasis on improving customer service, including re-launching the team's retail store, Lions Pro Shop, at Ford Field and the team's online retail store, Detroitlionsstore.com.

Since Ford assumed his role with the club, the Lions became one of the first pro sports teams to launch its own website. The team also entered into a partnership with CBS Radio (formerly Infinity Broadcasting), a relationship it extended in 2009, for the Lions' radio broadcast rights and started production on weekly radio and television shows that air throughout the season.

Beyond football events that range from the NFL all the way down to youth football, Ford Field hosts some of the largest sporting and entertainments events in the nation.

For the past three years, Ford Field has hosted two of the biggest events in the history of college athletics. In 2009, Ford Field hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four, a first for downtown Detroit, which shattered tournament attendance records, provided the Metro Detroit area with a $30-50 million economic boost over the weekend and provided a number of community outreach initiatives that will have a lasting impact on the city of Detroit. An example of those outreaches was the newly-created legacy program that established early learning and literacy centers in the Detroit community. Ford Field was the host site for the Midwest Regional Finals in March 2008, and the event also broke NCAA Regional and preliminary round attendance records with over 57,000 people attending each session.

"Everything we do is based on our top priority, which is to win the Super Bowl. And I believe we have many assets that are leading us in that direction. Our leadership, including Head Coach Jim Schwartz along with Tom (Lewand) and Martin (Mayhew), is moving the team forward in a positive direction. It is our job to add to what we started last year and improve our results. I believe the young talent that we have recently acquired, especially at quarterback with Matthew Stafford, provides a solid foundation for our future. I am excited to see how this team continues to develop and how we progress this year. I've always believed that winning is the best return for our fans' investment and we are committed to provide our fans exactly that," said William Clay Ford, Jr.

In April 2010, the focus was again back on Ford Field as Detroit hosted the 2010 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four. In doing so, Ford Field became the first venue in NCAA history to host the Final Four and the Frozen Four in back-to-back years. The Frozen Four at Ford Field generated record crowds and established a new hockey indoor world attendance record.

In other past roles within the NFL structure, Ford has served on the NFL's Finance Committee and NFL Properties Committee.

Though football remains a passion for Ford, his father and his family, his top priority remains serving as Ford Motor Company's Executive Chairman. His current role is a professional and personal commitment, as he leads the company founded by his great-grandfather, American automotive pioneer Henry Ford. A member of the Board of Directors since 1988, he assumed the role of Chairman of the Board January 1, 1999. He also served as Chief Executive Officer from October 2001 through September 2006. Additionally, he serves as Chairman of the Board's Finance Committee and as a member of the Environmental and Public Policy Committee.

Among his many outside leadership roles, he serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford, Chairman of the Detroit Economic Club, and Chairman of the Executive Committee of Detroit Renaissance.

Born in Detroit in 1957, Ford is an avid fly fisherman and car enthusiast, enjoys playing hockey and tennis, and is a black belt in the martial art of Tae Kwon Do. In his spare time, Ford competes in pond hockey tournaments and his team has claimed the USA Hockey Pond Hockey National Championship in recent years. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Princeton University and a master of science degree in management from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

TOM LEWAND

PRESIDENT

Tom Lewand, who was named team president December 29, 2008, oversees the team's day-to-day operations and reports to Mr. Ford on all business, organizational and NFL matters. Now in his 16th season with the Detroit Lions, he guides the overall direction of the franchise.

Lewand's fundamental principle is to consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction.

Among his responsibilities, Lewand is the chief player contract negotiator and he oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sales and marketing, public/media relations, broadcasting, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, acquisition of events and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

An extremely talented, creative and aggressive businessman, Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities within the front office during his tenure with the Lions, most recently as executive vice president and chief operating officer.

On a League-wide level, Lewand is involved in several key business and labor issues. He serves on the NFL Management Council's Club Executives Committee and was on the Committee on Revenue Sharing Qualifiers and the Special Committee on League Economics. Lewand represents the organization for all League-level business matters.

Lewand's leadership positions every aspect of the Lions' organization, including Ford Field operations, to significantly impact the Lions' drive for a Super Bowl title. For Lewand, everything from football transactions to Ford Field events influences the team's ability to compete and win.

In January 2009, Lewand and General Manager Martin Mayhew completed an exhaustive and thorough search for a head coach that would lead the team on the field. They completed that process as the team announced the hiring of Jim Schwartz, one of the most experienced and successful defensive coordinators in the NFL. Schwartz has unique experience having served several years as an assistant under Titans Head Coach Jeff Fisher and worked in player personnel while current Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick was the head coach for the Cleveland Browns. Schwartz's philosophy on the game and how to build a successful team, along with his experience contributing to winning organizations and working under successful coaches, made him the right choice for the Lions new head coach.

During his tenure with the Lions, Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling more than $1.1 billion.

Last year, within just a few hours of the 2009 NFL Draft, Lewand completed extensive and complex contract negotiations with Lions QB Matthew Stafford, the first overall selection, allowing the Lions to sign the team's top pick prior to the draft. It was one of the most important goals that both he and Mayhew set forth as they began the process of transforming the franchise into a winner.

Lewand's additional contract highlights include: the Lions' last 18 first-round draft choices, RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of several Pro Bowl players and recent key free agent acquisitions.

On the business side, Lewand constantly evaluates and reviews opportunities to grow the team's business operations, a process that incorporated two major recent initiatives.

In April 2009, the Lions announced a new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms, a new team logotype and font and streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history. Though the new brand features the most significant change to the Lions logo since it was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961, the Lions brand now extends beyond the logo on the helmet and presents a consistent visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways.

In March 2009, the team partnered with MainGate on a 10-year exclusive retail and merchandising agreement. The new partnership, which focuses on providing greater service to Lions fans and consumers, includes significant improvements to the organization's retail operations. Headlining the overhaul is the re-vamped team store at Ford Field, now known as "Lions Pro Shop," and the re-launch of the Lions' online store, Detroitlionsstore.com.

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit and serves as a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews in 2002, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Ford Field shined in 2006 when the city of Detroit hosted Super Bowl XL. Lewand served as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL, and he was among the key figures leading the city's hosting of the game and events surrounding Super Bowl XL, which was widely-acclaimed as successful and critical to Detroit's future growth. Super Bowl XL injected a $260 million economic boost to the Metro Detroit region.

Behind Lewand's leadership, Ford Field once again stepped to the forefront in April 2009 as Detroit, for the first time, hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. The championship culminated six years of planning, including Lewand representing the organization in a partnership with the NCAA to present the Final Four in a groundbreaking manner that has set the standard for all future sites.

The event featured a center-stadium configuration that utilized the entire stadium seating structure along with customized risers. Ford Field broke long-standing records, including: attendance for Final Four Friday (nearly 30,000), the National Semifinals (72,456) and National Championship game (72,992). Overall, a record 145,378 fans attended the Final Four. By hosting the Final Four, Ford Field was the centerpiece for a weekend that had an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit. Attendance records were not only set inside Ford Field, but the ancillary events, such as Hoops City, set their own records as well. All of these events generated a tremendous opportunity for both residents and visitors to enjoy downtown Detroit over a five-day period.

Paced by Lewand's leadership, the organization followed up that tremendous accomplishment with the highly successful hosting of the 2010 Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Like the basketball championship, Ford Field allowed the NCAA to elevate one of its marquee events to even greater heights. For the first time, the 2010 Frozen Four was held in a large-stadium venue with the portable ice configuration set-up used in the NHL's annual Winter Classic. The championship garnered record crowds (34,954 for the National Semifinals and 37,592 for the National Championship) that not only set NCAA Frozen Four records but world indoor hockey records as well.

Ford Field became the first venue to host the Men's Final Four and the Men's Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In April 2007 Ford Field hosted WWE's Wrestlemania 23 that set a new Ford Field all-events attendance record (80,103) and had a $25 million impact on the Metro Detroit area.

Additionally, Lewand continues to lead in the development of Ford Field events, including college football (Division I regular season games, MAC Championship and the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl), MHSAA high school football, concerts, motorsports and various trade shows.

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both his Juris Doctor at the University of Michigan Law School and his Master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a part-time basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh. Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson Wright in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is also entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, works as an attorney and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

Lewand is active in the community, acting as Past Chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau and serving on the Boards of Directors of the Detroit Zoological Society, the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation and the Parade Company. He also is on the Corporate Advisory Board for the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. Lewand was named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. Lewand has also been recognized nationally twice, in 2003 and 2005, by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, have four daughters: Cayleigh, Paige, Shannon and Erin.

PRIDE of the LIONS

The Detroit Lions are not only forging ahead both on and off the field, but the organization is also recognizing the team's great history and the many players who have fortified the Lions as one of the league's great and historic franchises. In 2008, the Lions celebrated the team's 75th season in Detroit, and that celebration was capped off with the announcement of the Lions 75th Season All-Time Team. In 2009, the Lions again honored the past with the introduction of the Pride of the Lions.

On November 22, 2010, the Detroit Lions introduced the 12 members of the Pride of the Lions charter class. Those members include: CB Lem Barney (1967-77), S Jack Christiansen (1951-58), QB Dutch Clark (1934-38), OL Lou Creekmur (1950-59), CB Dick "Night Train" Lane (1960-65), S Yale Lary (1952-53, 1956-64), QB Bobby Layne (1950-58), RB Barry Sanders (1989-98), TE Charlie Sanders (1968-77), LB Joe Schmidt (1953-65), RB Doak Walker (1950-55) and OL Alex Wojciechowicz (1938-46). All 12 members of the charter class are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Pride of the Lions is a very visible feature on the old Hudson's warehouse of Ford Field (south suite levels) that includes the players' jersey numbers, name and years played with the Lions. During the halftime ceremony, members of the Pride of the Lions charter class were announced accompanied by photos and highlights of their careers. Upon the conclusion of the introduction, the names of the charter class was simultaneously unveiled.

MARTIN MAYHEW

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Martin Mayhew, now in his 10th season with the Lions, was promoted to general manager December 29, 2008 and reports directly to Mr. Ford on all football matters.

Mayhew, the team's executive football decision-maker, is building the Lions through a plan that focuses on developing a physically-tough football team. Mayhew adamantly believes that the players that will lead the Lions will be smart football players, and show great character and work ethic.

The process of improving the Lions success on the field began to take shape in January 2009 with the team's search for a new head coach. Along with President Tom Lewand, Mayhew searched for the right coach who shared his philosophies with the following characteristics: strong communication and leadership skills, a track record of success in the NFL, demonstrated ability to overcome adversity, the right mixture of youth and experience, and a coach with enthusiasm and energy for the challenge ahead.

The search concluded with the hiring of Jim Schwartz, who served eight years as the Tennessee Titans defensive coordinator before coming to Detroit. Schwartz is unique because he brings tremendous experience as a coordinator and position coach in the NFL, but he also previously worked in player personnel when he began his NFL career. These attributes appealed to Mayhew, and both have worked in concert on free agency and the draft—critical areas that will significantly impact the Lions' future success.

Along with the coaching staff, Mayhew re-organized the team's player personnel department. From the start of the 2009 off-season, the team set out to add a personnel executive who was successful in overseeing both pro and college scouting in the NFL. That was completed with the hiring of James "Shack" Harris, who now has worked 23 years in scouting including the six seasons as Jacksonville's vice president of player personnel. Along with the hiring of Harris, the Lions' player personnel department, under Mayhew's direction, underwent a geographical realignment that improves the team's scouting operations.

In his role as general manager, Mayhew oversees the player personnel department, including college and pro scouting, and plays an integral role in the coordination of the team's salary cap objectives and negotiation of player contracts.

Along with free agency and the draft, Mayhew utilizes every resource, such as trades and the league's waiver wire process, year-round to improve the team's roster from top to bottom. Heading into the team's 2010 training camp, only 18 players remain on the roster since the beginning of the 2009 off-season.

In Mayhew's first 20 months (October 2008-May 2010) after assuming the role of general manager, he completed 15 trades for personnel or draft picks, including seven during the 2010 off-season. Involved in the team's trades during that time is the acquisition of veteran talent that could produce the following starters for the 2010 season: DT Corey Williams, CB Chris Houston, G Rob Sims, TE Tony Scheffler and LB Julian Peterson. Other veterans acquired via trade include QB Shaun Hill, S Ko Simpson and WR Dennis Northcutt.

Two of Mayhew's trades generated additional first round draft picks in each of the past two drafts. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Lions have made two selections in the first round of the draft in back-to-back seasons. Those two transactions involved the Lions drafting TE Brandon Pettigrew with the 20th pick in the 2009 NFL Draft and RB Jahvid Best with the 30th pick in the 2010 NFL Draft.

The team's first draft under Mayhew's direction generated a highly successful 2009 draft class that includes six players (QB Matthew Stafford, Pettigrew, S Louis Delmas, LB DeAndre Levy, DT Sammie Hill and LB Zack Follett) who either started several games in their rookie season or who will be competing for starting roles in 2010.

The Lions followed that up in 2010 with a draft class that is lead by DT Ndamukong Suh and RB Jahvid Best.

Mayhew and Lewand collectively work on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures.

In addition, the coordination of all football operations, managed day-to-day by Vice President of Football Operations Cedric Saunders, is under the direction of Mayhew. This includes team travel, training camp operations, security, medical staff, equipment operations, video department and cafeteria staff. Mayhew also works on many of the Lions' football-related legal matters and human resources.

In February 2001, Mayhew joined the Lions' front office as senior director of football administration/staff counsel. After illustrating his talents and work ethic for two years, Mayhew was promoted February 3, 2003 to senior vice president of football administration/legal affairs. On October 14, 2004, he was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager.

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has kept an eye on the future and has always thought one step ahead, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown's Law Center (2000). He is one of two Lions' front office executives with law degrees, and he is also a member of the Florida Bar.

While attending law school during the 1999 season, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins' pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. In Washington, he scouted NFL players and late NFL cuts and assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew had two separate internship stints with the NFL in both the labor operations and legal departments. In labor operations, he worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving player contracts and the salary cap. With the legal department, he assisted the NFL's in-house labor counsel by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He was exposed to corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the NFL's primary firms for outside counsel, where he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

Mayhew played nine years in the NFL at cornerback for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL draft and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

He entered the NFL after graduating from Florida State with a Bachelors of Science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

Mayhew has been extremely involved within the community throughout his professional career. In 1993, while playing for Tampa Bay, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award, and the following year he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. From 1995-96, Mayhew was the Bucs' United Way Spokesperson. Mayhew is a member of the American Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

For the past two years, he has hosted the Martin Mayhew Youth Football Coaching Academy at Ford Field for approximately 100 coaches from Think Detroit PAL. In 2009, the academy focused on teaching offense and special teams, and the 2010 program concentrated on defense. The purpose of the camp is to provide additional teaching and training tools for coaches so they can continue having a positive and long-lasting impact on the young lives they touch through youth football.

JIM SCHWARTZ

HEAD COACH
Years with Lions: 2
Years as NFL Head Coach: 2
Years in NFL: 18

When asked about what attracted Jim Schwartz to the Lions head coaching position, he stated, "You're not going to find a more passionate fan base in the NFL than Detroit. You talk about ownership and a commitment to winning. That's critical. Without those two, I don't think it's an attractive opportunity. I think Detroit offers both of those."

At age 44, Schwartz, hired by the Lions January 16, 2009, offers a unique blend of coaching and player personnel experience to the Lions head coaching position. Schwartz has spent the past 17 seasons in the NFL—14 years as a coach and three in player personnel— working his way up from an entry-level football operations position to a NFL head coach. He began his NFL coaching career as a defensive assistant and quality control coach, progressed to position coach and then succeeded as a defensive coordinator for nearly a decade despite the constant nature of change in today's NFL.

In Schwartz's first season in Detroit, he began the process of transforming the team by seeking talent based on what he commonly refers to as "multi-dimensional" players. Like his defenses in Tennessee, he firmly believes success is a product of the team's ability to adapt, and all three phases of the game—offense, defense and special teams—are tailored on both personnel and particular game strategies.

Schwartz understands that the team's coordinators play a significant role in this process. Following his hiring last year, he targeted two coaches, Gunther Cunningham (assistant head coach/defensive coordinator) and Scott Linhehan (offensive coordinator), who bring experience as coordinators and head coaches in the NFL to the positions. Combined, they have 22 years of experience in the NFL as a coordinator or head coach. Since Schwartz added them to his coaching staff, each has implemented philosophies and schemes that not only fit Schwartz's insistence on adapting to personnel and strategies but they also have provided consistency for player development.

In 2010, he also added Danny Crossman, who previously spent five seasons a special team coach for the Carolina Panthers, to the staff to lead the Lions' special teams units.

One of the most important personnel decisions Schwartz made in his first year was finding a quarterback who could lead this franchise. After an intense evaluation process throughout the offseason and training camp, Schwartz named rookie QB Matthew Stafford, the first pick of the 2009 NFL Draft, as the team's signal caller to begin the 2009 regular season. Stafford was the youngest quarterback to start the regular season in the NFL since 1993, and his physical talents and intelligence proved quickly as one of the team's key assets. In his rookie season, Stafford showed great progress and illustrated many times why his potential provides great optimism for years to come.

Schwartz's infusion of young talent isn't confined to Stafford. The team selected five other players in 2009 (TE Brandon Pettigrew, S Louis Delmas, LB DeAndre Levy, DT Sammie Hill and LB Zack Follett) who are key pieces to the team's future. They are joined by members of the 2010 draft class, including DT Ndamukong Suh and RB Jahvid Best, who will add to the team's talented young core.

With Schwartz, it's not just about the team's youth. He is also guiding the team's reshaping of the roster with veterans in the prime of their careers. This past off-season, he was instrumental in the team signing Pro Bowl DE Kyle Vanden Bosch and WR Nate Burleson, and the team trading for DT Corey Williams, CB Chris Houston G Rob Sims and TE Tony Scheffler.

Whether it's acquiring young talent and talented veteran to blend with talented players already on the team's roster, such as WR Calvin Johnson, Schwartz is molding the Lions into team he envisioned from the first day he took over as head.

Before his tenure in Detroit began in 2009, Schwartz spent 10 seasons with the Tennessee Titans, including eight (2001-08) as defensive coordinator. While with the Titans, he worked under Head Coach Jeff Fisher, one of the most successful coaches in the NFL over the past 15 seasons. In 2008, Schwartz's defense guided the Titans to an NFL-best 13-3 record and an AFC South title. The Titans' defense finished the season ranked in the top 10 in several key defensive categories, including: defensive points allowed (third, 14.2), total yards allowed (seventh, 293.6), rushing yards allowed (sixth, 93.9), passing yards allowed (second, 161.0), third down percentage allowed (6th, 35.0) and sacks (fifth, 44).

Tennessee's defense was one of only six teams to finish among the top 10 in the league in both rushing yards and passing

Lions Head Coach Jim Schwartz has begun the process of transforming the team by seeking talent based on what he commonly refers to as "multi-dimensional" players. Like his defenses in Tennessee, he firmly believes success is a product of the team's ability to adapt, and all three phases of the game—offense, defense and special teams—are tailored on both personnel and particular game strategies.

As the Titans' defensive coordinator since 2001, Schwartz's defensive unit held firm in two major categories that factored significantly in the team's overall success; rushing defense and third down conversion. From 2001-08, Tennessee ranks fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.5) and sixth in third down conversion (36.1). Through 2008, the Titans allowed just nine rushers over 100 yards during the past 64 home games.

During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Titans claimed two AFC South titles (2002 and 2008), earned two other AFC Wild Card spots (2003 and 2007), and in four seasons finished with 10 or more wins, including 2002 (11-5), 2003 (12-4), 2007 (10-6) and 2008 (13-3).

During Schwartz last two seasons (2007-08) in Tennessee, the Titans claimed 23 victories and their winning percentage of .719 (23-9) was the third-best in the NFL. They are one of only three teams (New England and Indianapolis) with 23-or-more wins. From 2006-08, the Titans record was 31-17 (.646), which was tied for the fourth-best record in the league.

In 2007, the Titans defense helped rejuvenate the team and led the team's return to the playoffs. Among the NFL's rankings, Schwartz's defensive unit completed the season among the league best in the following categories: total yards allowed (fifth, 291.6), rushing yards allowed (fifth, 92.4), passing yards allowed (10th 192.2), defensive points allowed (17.3, 7th), first down yards per play allowed (4.34, first), sacks (40, seventh) and takeaways (34, sixth).

The Titans limited three teams in 2007 under 200 total offensive yards, and All-Pro RB LaDainian Tomlinson was held to the lowest rushing total of his career (42) with 20 or more carries in the Titans' playoff game at San Diego.

Schwartz managed a defense that, much like the rest of Tennessee's team, was in transition during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. That unit replaced seven regular starters from the 2004 squad with new and, often younger, talent. Schwartz's defense held their own throughout the process, and one example of that was when Tennessee held the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts and their high-powered offense in 2006 to a combined 31 points in both games, the lowest tally allowed by a Colts division opponent in the history of the AFC South.

The 2005 Titans defense was one of the youngest defenses in the NFL with their average years of experience being only 3.5 years. That defense included two starting rookie cornerbacks for only the second time in the team's 46-year history, and the unit ranked eighth in third down percentage allowed (35.5), ninth in sacks (41) and second in three-and-out drives (31.3 pct.).

For just the second time in franchise history, and first since 1993, Schwartz put together a defense that finished first in the NFL in rushing defense. Finishing in the top 10 in rush defense extended the team's streak of nine consecutive seasons ranked in the top 10. That nine-year streak was also the longest streak in the league at the time.

As remarkable as it was for the Titans defense to finish first in rushing yards allowed, it was even more remarkable of a feat considering the talented rushers they faced nearly week-in and week-out. That year, the Titans faced eight (total of 10 games) of the NFL's top 13 rushers who combined for 12,018 yards on the season. The Titans' defense dominated the league's leading rusher, Ravens RB Jamal Lewis who rushed for over 2,000 yards that season, in the AFC Wild Card game as the team held Lewis to just 35 yards. It was Lewis' second-lowest career single-game rushing tally as a starter in the NFL through that year.

Combined with the stellar rushing defense was the strong effort by the defense on third down, once again proving a common theme of Schwartz's defense. The Titans led the league in third down defense by allowing an opponent conversion percentage of 27.7. It was the lowest in franchise history and the lowest in the NFL since 1998 (Oakland Raiders, 26.3).

Beyond those two categories the Titans defense ranked fourth in the AFC in red-zone defense (43.9 pct.), fifth in the AFC in takeaways (34) and it recorded the most interceptions (21) by a Titans defense since 1995.

In just his second-year as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz's defense finished in the top 10 as they persevered through a season which they lost All-Pro DE Jevon Kearse to injury and added six new defensive starters. In 2002, the Tennessee defense finished fifth overall in defensive points allowed (282).

Prior to his eight seasons as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz contributed to the Titans defense as the linebackers coach where he also coordinated the team's third down package in 2000. That year, the Titans led the NFL in opponent third down efficiency by allowing a league-low 30.8 percent. He also was instrumental in the integration of newly-acquired linebacker Randall Godfrey into the Titans defensive scheme, as he set career highs in tackles (169) and interceptions (2).

Schwartz originally joined the Titans in 1999 as defensive assistant/quality control. In his first year with the club, the team claimed the AFC Championship and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Before joining the Titans in 1999, he spent three years (1996-98) as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens. During his tenure in Baltimore, he also coached the team's outside linebackers. After the Cleveland Browns moved to Baltimore following the 1995 season, Schwartz made the transition from player personnel to coaching. From 1993-95, he worked in the Browns' player personnel department, serving as both a college and pro scout. During his time with the Browns, he also assisted the coaching staff, headed by Bill Belichick, on defense with film breakdowns and scouting reports.

In addition to his pro coaching and scouting experience, Schwartz worked on the college level for four years before moving onto the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' linebackers from 1989-90 and then served as graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota (1990-91). He became a position coach in the secondary at North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

The Baltimore, Md., native was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Georgetown University, where he earned a degree in economics. He received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown, and in 1989 he earned numerous honors that include Division III CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, All-America and team captain.

In the community, Schwartz supports the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International and stresses the importance of giving back through entities like Detroit Lions Charities. In 2010, Schwartz served as chairman Detroit Lions Invitational Golf Tournament and co-chairman for the Lions Celebrity Bocce Ball Tournament.

GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
Years in NFL: 29

Cunningham is a 41-year coaching veteran on the college and pro levels, including the past 28 seasons in the NFL. He has been a defensive coordinator in the league for 11 seasons and a head coach (Kansas City, 1999-2000) for two. Cunningham has also worked with linebackers and defensive linemen for 16 of his seasons in the pros. As a coach in the NFL, Cunningham has earned the respect of both his peers and players for his intense and straightforward approach to coaching. He is known as a strong motivator who emphasizes the importance of an aggressive and hard-hitting defense. Additionally, Cunningham also brings the elements of being a talented defensive teacher and tactician.

Last season Cunningham introduced a defensive system that emphasizes pressure and attacking the opponents' offense.

In 2010, Cunningham's defense will be led by one of the most revamped defensive lines in the entire NFL. The acquisitions of DE Kyle Vanden Bosch and DT Corey Williams, along with the selection of DT Ndamukong Suh with the second overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft, have made the Lions defense a bigger, faster and stronger unit. They will forge the way for a young linebacker corps led by LB DeAndre Levy, a third round pick in the 2009 NFL Draft.

In the secondary, Cunningham will utilize the abilities of one of the league's most-talented, young defensive players in S Louis Delmas to set the pace for a unit that was re-tooled in the offseason. A result of Cunningham's attack-style defense was exemplified last year when Delmas became only the second player ever (first rookie) in NFL history to record a safety, fumble return for a touchdown and an interception return for a touchdown in the same season. Delmas' interception return for a touchdown, a 101-yarder, was the longest by a rookie since 1926. Delmas also led the league among rookie defensive backs with 7.5 tackles for loss.

From, 2004-08, Cunningham served as the Kansas City Chiefs defensive coordinator during his second stint with the organization. In 2008, he also coached the team's linebackers as the Chiefs' defense began a transition with six new starters and endured numerous injuries throughout the season. From 2004-07, his imprint on the defense was prevalent in several areas.

In 2007, Cunningham's defense ranked in the top five in nine different defensive categories, including a league-high in third-down defense (30.2 pct.), negative plays forced (121) and 10+-play drives (1). The Chiefs ranked second in allowing touchdowns on defensive possessions (37.2 pct.) and in Red Zone defense (37.2 TD pct.). Kansas City was third in the league by allowing just 28 offensive touchdowns, the lowest tally for the team since 1997. The defense allowed 18.6 offensive points per game, the lowest for the Chiefs since 1999.

Overall, Kansas City's pass defense ranked fifth in the NFL in 2007 allowing only 188.9 yards per game. They also tied for fifth in three-and-outs forced (47) and first downs allowed (278).

After just two seasons following his return to Kansas City, Cunningham improved the Chiefs rushing defense that ranked 30th in the league in 2003 (146.5 yards allowed per game) to seventh in the NFL in 2005 (98.1 yards allowed per game). The 98.1 rushing yards allowed per game was the lowest the Chiefs yielded since 1997. In 2005, the Chiefs were ninth in Red Zone defense (46.7 TD pct.) after ranking 27th the previous season. They also tied for the second highest tally of forced fumbles that year with 33.

In 2004, Cunningham began the process of improving the team's defense as Kansas City tied for seventh in the NFL with 41.0 sacks, the club's best total since 2000, Cunningham's last year as Kansas City's head coach.

Cunningham coaches alongside Schwartz at Tennessee (2001-03) under Head Coach Jeff Fisher. Cunningham served as the Titans assistant head coach/linebackers. In those three seasons, the Titans defense helped the franchise earn two playoff berths. From 2001-03, the Titans led the league in rushing yards allowed (86.5 yards per game) and were third in opponent's third down percentage (33.6). In 2003, Tennessee's defense led the NFL in both rushing defense (80.9 yards per game) and opponent's third-down percentage (27.7). That year, LB Keith Bullock earned a spot in the Pro Bowl under Cunningham's tutelage as his position coach.

As head coach for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1999-00, Cunningham compiled a 16-16 (.500). In 1999, the Chiefs were 9-7 and tied with the Seattle Seahawks with the best record in the AFC West but lost out on a playoff tie-breaker. Cunningham became the first coach in Chiefs' history to claim nine wins in his first season as Chiefs' head coach. In 1999, the Chiefs led the NFL with a +21 turnover margin and set a team record by scoring nine defensive touchdowns. In his two seasons, his club was 4-0 against Denver and defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion St. Louis Rams October 20, 2000 54-34 in a high-scoring affair.

As defensive coordinator for the Chiefs from 1995-98, the defense was a key cog in Kansas City compiling a 42-22 (.656) record, including a 23-9 record (.719) against the AFC West. In those four seasons, the Chiefs allowed a NFL-low in offensive points (16.4 points per game), and led the league in scoring defense during the 1995 (15.1 points per game) and 1997 (14.5 points per game) seasons. Cunningham's defenses were critical in Kansas City producing an AFC-best +30 turnover margin from 1995-98, as they were responsible for 127 takeaways. They also scored 77 points on 10 touchdowns and four safeties. The Chiefs produced 172.0 sacks over those four years, a total which ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL over that span.

The 232 points allowed by the Chiefs in 1997 was a franchise record for a 16-game season. That season, they set a NFL record, previously held by the 1934 Detroit Lions, by not permitting a second half touchdown in 10 consecutive games. They led the AFC in interceptions (21) and total takeaways (34), and ranked second among NFL team in opponents' third-down percentage (31.6). Kansas City's 54.0 sacks in '97 were the second-highest total in team history, leading the AFC and ranking third in the NFL.

In '95, Kansas City's defense was even better in terms of actual offensive points allowed as opposing offenses scored an average of just 12.9 point per game, and they were ranked second in the entire league by allowing just 284.3 yards per game. They also ranked third in rushing defense (82.9 yards per game). Additionally, the Chiefs led the league in scoring defense, turnover margin (+12), touchdowns allowed (23) and yards allowed per play (4.3).

Cunningham not only has compiled great defensive units, but he has coached and mentored several Pro Bowl and All-Pro players. He has shared a special bond as a mentor to the late, great nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas, who concluded his illustrious career as the all-time leading sack artist in Chiefs history with 126.5 QB takedowns. Cunningham served as Thomas' position coach in '97, helping him earn his final Pro Bowl invitation. He also coached DE Neil Smith (second in Chiefs history with 86.5 sacks) and DE Jared Allen, who earned his first spot in the Pro Bowl after the 2007 season when he lead the league in sacks with 15.5. Another defensive linemen who excelled under Cunningham was DT Dan Saleaumua. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 1995 after anchoring the team's defensive front.

In the secondary, CB Dale Carter and CB James Hasty were the most formidable cornerback tandems in Chiefs history, as they combined for six Pro Bowl berth, and each intercepted 21 passes.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Cunningham spent four seasons (1991-94) with the Los Angeles Raiders, as linebackers coach (1991), defensive coordinator (1992-93) and defensive line coach (1994). As the Raiders defensive coordinator, his defense ranked ninth in the NFL both seasons, and they allowed a NFL-low 11 touchdown passes in 1992.

Cunningham was the San Diego Chargers defensive line coach for six seasons (1985-90) after originally being hired by the team's player personnel department. During those six seasons, the chargers led the AFC in sacks three times and garnered a club record 62.0 in 1986. As the defensive line coach, he developed DE Lee Williams and DE Leslie O'Neil into Pro Bowl players.

In 1982, Cunningham entered the NFL coaching ranks when he joined the Baltimore Colts coaching staff, learning from the late Bud Carson. He was the team's defensive line/linebackers from 1982-84. Before entering the NFL ranks, his previous pro coaching experience was with the defensive line/linebackers coach for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1981 with head coach Frank Kush who also hired Cunningham in Baltimore.

As a college coach, Cunningham's last stop was at California. Cunningham coached the Bears defensive line from 1979-80, the linebackes in 1978 and secondary in 1977.

Prior his stop in Berkeley, Cunningham coached at the Stanford Cardinal from 1973-76. He was hired by Head Coach Jack Christensen, a Hall of Fame defensive back for the Detroit Lions in the 1950s and a member of the Lions 75th Season All-time Team. While at Stanford, he coached the defensive line from 1974-76 and was the assistant offensive line and freshmen coach during his first year in 1973.

Cunningham worked at the University of Arkansas in 1972 on a staff headed by Frank Broyles that included Joe Gibbs and Raymond Berry.

In 1969, Cunningham began his coaching career at the University of Oregon, his alma mater. He was with the Ducks program for three years from 1969-71 where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive coach, George Seifert. Cunningham was a graduate of Oregon and was a linebacker and kicker for the Ducks from 1966-68.

Cunningham played his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California. He was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College by Hall of Fame coach John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced as head coach by Ernie Zampese.

Cunningham, who became a naturalized U.S. citizen on April 6, 2010, is just one of four foreign-born individuals in league history to ever serve as an NFL head coach, joining Hugo Bezdek (Cleveland Rams, 1937-38), Jock Sutherland (Pittsburgh, 1946-47) and Al Saunders (San Diego, 1986-88). Born in Munich, Germany, he moved to Greenfield, Mass., at the age of 10 in 1956 with his mother Katharina and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham.

Cunningham and his wife, René, have two children, Natalie and Adam.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 9

Linehan begins his second season as the Lions offensive coordinator after joining the club in 2009. He is now entering his ninth season as an NFL coach, going on 21 years of coaching experience.

In his first season directing the Lions offense, Linehan focused on implementing a versatile offensive attack along with the maturation of the team's young, talented offensive playmakers.

Working directly with the team's quarterbacks, Linehan was instrumental in the growth of rookie quarterback Matthew Stafford, who became one of the youngest players to ever start the season at quarterback in the NFL. Stafford steadily progressed with each outing until injuries slowed him down towards the end of the year. Stafford finished the season ranking near the top of almost every franchise rookie passing record, including first in touchdown passes (13) and second in yards (2,267), completions (201) and completion percentage (54.1) despite starting only 10 games.

Another rookie who showed great promise under Linehan was TE Brandon Pettigrew. Although he missed the season's final five games, he led all NFL rookie tight ends in receptions (30) and receiving yards (346), and was tied for a league-high with two touchdowns.

While the foundation of Linehan's offense was put in place last year, 2010 will combine that work with a talented core of skill players that includes: Stafford, Pettigrew, WR Calvin Johnson and newly acquired wide receiver Nate Burleson and tight end Tony Scheffler. The core of the team's offensive weapons will join a veteran group of offensive linemen who will lead the way for the Lions.

As a first-time NFL head coach, Linehan put his stamp on the Rams in 2006 via the ground game, giving the ball to RB Steven Jackson 346 times – the most by a St. Louis player in 20 seasons. Jackson finished the year with 1,528 rushing yards (3rd, NFC), 105 first downs (1st, NFC) and 2,334 all-purpose yards (1st, NFL), earning his first-career Pro Bowl appearance.

Other Rams saw career bests under Linehan. QB Marc Bulger passed for a career-best 4,301 yards in 2006, setting franchise records with a 1.4 interception percentage and 588 passing attempts. His 370 completions for 24 touchdowns were also second in Rams' history. That season, WR Torry Holt and WR Isaac Bruce finished with 1,188 and 1,098 yards, respectively, combining for 167 pass receptions.

Linehan also brings four years of league experience as an offensive coordinator. He spent the 2005 season with the Miami Dolphins, improving the team's total offense from 4,960 yards (29th, NFL) in 2004 to 5,198 yards (14th, NFL) in 2005 and bettering the run game from 402 rush attempts (31st, NFL) in 2004 to 444 (12th, NFL) in 2005.

That year, the Dolphins' two primary running backs – Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams – combined for 1,650 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. WR Chris Chambers earned his first-career Pro Bowl appearance under Linehan, finishing with 82 catches for 1,118 yards and 11 touchdowns, marking his only 1,000-yard season.

Linehan entered the NFL as an offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002, helping the franchise to some of its best offensive seasons, ranking second, first and fourth from 2002-04. The Vikings also compiled a franchise-best 36 consecutive games of 300-yards-or-more of total offense (2002-04) and, in 2004, had a franchise-best five games of 400-yards-or more of total offense.

In Vikings history, his offenses also rank first and second in total yards (6,339 yards, 2004; 6,294 yards, 2003), first and second in first downs (351, 2004; 350, 2002), second and third in touchdowns (51, 2003; 50, 2004), second in points (416, 2003), first in passing first downs (225, 2004), first in rushing touchdowns (26, 2002) and second and third in rushing yards (2,507 yards, 2002; 2,343 yards, 2003).

Minnesota's top offensive players had some of their best years under Linehan, including QB Daunte Culpepper and WR Randy Moss, who each had career years while he was with the Vikings. Moss became the team's featured 'big man' in 2002 after the departure of WR Cris Carter, starting 45 games over that span and garnering two Pro Bowl selections (2002, 2003) under Linehan.

Moss finished with 106 catches for 1,347 yards and seven touchdowns in 2002 while his 111 receptions for 1,632 yards in 2003 remain personal bests. He also tied a then career high in 2003 with 17 touchdowns (now 23 with New England in 2007).

Culpepper had his best seasons with Linehan calling the plays. In 2004, his second Pro Bowl season, Culpepper finished with a passer rating of 110.9 (fourth-highest in NFL history), a 69.2 completion percentage (379-of-548), a league-leading 4,717 passing yards, an 8.6 yards per play average and 39 touchdowns - all career bests.

Linehan effectively utilized the Culpepper-Moss tandem over his three seasons with the Vikings, bettering the team's total points to 390, 416 and 405, respectively, after Minnesota scored 290 points in 2001. He maintained the team's solid performance through the air, as the offense ranked 9th, 4th and 2nd, respectively, throughout his three seasons.

While improving the passing game, Linehan also made significant improvements to the team's running game. Before his arrival in 2001, Minnesota finished 25th in the league with 376 rushing plays for 1,609 yards (4.3 average). In 2002, Linehan helped the Vikings to the league's top ground game, finishing with 473 rushing plays for 2,507 yards (5.3 average).

That year, Minnesota's running game was led by Michael Bennett, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 2002 season. He finished the year 11th in the NFL in rushing with a career-best 1,296 yards – his only 1,000-yard performance to date – on 255 attempts. In 2003, Linehan utilized a trio of runners – Moe Williams, Onterio Smith and Bennett – to finish third in the league in rushing with 493 rushing plays for 2,343 attempts.

Linehan coached collegiately for 13 years on teams that played in seven bowl games and won five conference titles: one Pac-10, two Conference USA and two Big Sky. Five of Linehan's quarterbacks were drafted by NFL teams: Louisville's Chris Redman and Dave Ragone, Washington's Brock Huard and Marques Tuiasosopo and Idaho's Doug Nussmeier.

He was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Louisville from 1999-2001, coaching the team to three bowl games and becoming the first Conference USA team to win consecutive league championships. A Louisville quarterback earned Conference USA Player of the Year honors in each of Linehan's three seasons.

Prior to his time in Louisville, Linehan spent five years at the University of Washington (1994-98), advancing to four bowl games and winning the 1995 Pac-10 title. He also spent four total seasons at Idaho, his alma mater, as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1992-93) and as the wide receivers coach (1989-90) and Linehan spent one season at Nevada-Las Vegas (1991) as the quarterbacks coach. While a coordinator with Idaho in 1993, the Vandals led the nation in scoring (47.5 points per game) and total offense (532 yards per game).

Linehan was a quarterback at Idaho from 1982-86, winning the Big Sky Championship in 1985 and earning Division I-AA playoff appearances in three straight seasons (1984-86). He signed as a rookie free agent with Dallas in 1987, but a shoulder injury ended his career.

Born in Sunnyside, Wash., Linehan and his wife, Kristen, have three sons: Matthew, Michael and Marcus.

DANNY CROSSMAN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
Years with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 8

Danny Crossman arrives in Detroit after working the past seven seasons (2003-09) with the Carolina Panthers, including the previous five seasons (2005-09) as special teams coordinator. He originally joined the Panthers in 2003 as special teams assistant and he also assisted with the team's strength and conditioning program. This season marks Crossman's eighth season in the NFL.

During Crossman's tenure with the Panthers, the team's kicking and cover groups contributed significantly to the team's success during his time in Carolina which included three playoff appearances (2003, 2005 and 2008), two NFC South titles (2003 and 2008).The Panthers also finished with at least eight wins five of those seven seasons.

In 2008, the Panthers ranked third in the NFL with an opponent average drive start following kickoffs of 24.7. They were one of only three teams that did not allow an opponent to start a drive following kickoffs past the 50-yard-line. Carolina led the NFL in touchbacks (30) and touchback percentage (33.7), and the team was ninth in the league by allowing a 21.9 opponent kickoff return average.

In his first season (2005) as special teams coach, Crossman's group ranked ninth in the comprehensive Dallas Morning News special teams ratings, highlighted with rankings of second in punt coverage and seventh in kickoff coverage.

Under Crossman's tutelage, Panthers P Jason Baker set the franchise record in net punting average in both 2005 (38.9) and 2006 (39.0). In both seasons, Baker's net punting average ranked first in the NFC and third in NFL. From 2005-09, Baker ranked eighth in the NFL with a combined net punting average of 38.0.

In 2003, Crossman's first year assisting the Carolina's special teams, the Panthers were second in the special teams ratings compiled by the Dallas Morning News.

Crossman entered the pro ranks following 10 seasons as a college coach where he worked with special teams in each season and also coached multiple defensive positions. In 2002, Crossman served as the linebackers and special teams coach at Michigan State.

From 1999-2001, Crossman was on the coaching staff at Georgia Tech. All three seasons, he was the Yellow Jackets special teams coordinator along with defensive ends coach (1999-2000) and defensive backs coach (2001). In both 1999 and 2001, Georgia Tech ranked high nationally in kickoff return average, net punting average and punt return average. Georgia Tech led the ACC in kickoff return average and punt return average during the 2000 season. Two of Crossman's specialists, K Luke Manget and KR Kelley Rhino, were first-team All-ACC in 2001.

Before arriving at Georgia Tech, Crossman was the defensive backs and special teams coach at Central Florida for two seasons (1997-98). Crossman served a three-year stint (1994-96) at Western Kentucky as special teams and secondary coach (1994-95) and outside linebacker and special teams coach (1996). He entered the coaching ranks in 1993 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy.

Crossman earned three letters at the University of Pittsburgh as the team garnered a 22-12-1 record those three seasons and appearances in 1987 Bluebonnet Bowl and 1989 Sun Bowl. He moved to strong safety as a senior and was named team MVP. Crossman earned second-team All-America honors as he recorded 62 tackles and one interception. He originally began his college career at the University of Kansas. As a freshman in 1985, Crossman made eight starts at defensive back, posted 48 tackles, recorded one interception and collected freshman All-America honors.

Following his college playing career, he spent time with the Washington Redskins in 1990 and the Detroit Lions during training camp in 1991. He played for the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football in 1991-92. In the inaugural World Bowl in 1991, he was named MVP in the 21-0 shutout of Barcelona. Crossman intercepted three passes in the championship game and returned one for a 20-yard touchdown.

Crossman earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and communications from Pittsburgh in 1990. He and his wife, Susan, have a son, Kyle, and a daughter, Kaylie.

COORDINATOR OF PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT
Years with Lions: 10
Years in NFL: 23

Jason Arapoff enters his tenth season directing the Lions' strength and conditioning program. His primary role is to oversee the physical fitness of all Lions' players.

Focusing equally on the off-season regimen and the regular season program, Arapoff utilizes high-end cardiovascular strength training and free weight equipment in the team's state-of-the-art facility. His hands-on training techniques emphasize a balance of muscular strength and cardiovascular fitness, and are underscored by a comprehensive, personalized approach to each athlete. He also has introduced a shift toward more football-specific activities that encompass high-intensity protocols to train the entire body.

Arapoff arrived in Detroit prior to the 2001 season with 13 years of experience with the Washington Redskins. While serving as the team's conditioning director for nine years, he was instrumental in computerizing and implementing the team's strength and conditioning and nutritional programs.

A frequently published author, Arapoff has been a monthly columnist for Scholastic Coach magazine and is a frequent speaker for industry events, schools, universities and football camps. He has also served as a content expert for area media, including guest spots on a variety of television and radio programs.

During his playing career as a collegian, Arapoff was a four-year letter-winning defensive back at Springfield (Mass.) College, where he earned his undergraduate degree in health fitness. He went on to obtain his master's degree in exercise physiology from American University in Washington, D.C.

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
Years in NFL: 3

Bradford Banta, a former Lion, enters his third season as the assistant special teams coach. He returned to Detroit in 2008 after spending the previous season as a tight ends coach for the University of Tennessee Chattanooga. He played three of his 11 NFL seasons with the Lions (2001-03) primarily as a longsnapper.

After being drafted by Indianapolis in the fourth-round of the 1994 NFL Draft, Banta spent six seasons with the Colts and established himself as one of the league's best longsnappers. He joined the New York Jets for the 2000 season before coming to Detroit in 2001. He finished his career with Buffalo in 2004.

Upon his retirement from the NFL, Banta worked for Chase's home financial division for nearly two years in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Banta was a two-year starter at tight end at the University of Southern California (1989-93) as well as a four-time letterwinner. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior and received his bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in sociology in 1993.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High School and helped them to the state championship (1988) while playing tight end and linebacker. He and his wife, Amy, have three children.

MATT BURKE

LINEBACKERS
Years in NFL: 7

Matt Burke, in his second season as linebackers coach, came to Detroit after spending five seasons (2004-08) with the Tennessee Titans. Last season Burke was instrumental in the development of rookie LB DeAndre Levy who played in all 16 games with 10 starts, including two starts at middle linebacker. Levy finished tied for fourth among rookies with 85 tackles (according to NFL.com) and tied for seventh among all NFL defensive players with 8.5 tackles for loss.

In 2008, Burke helped coach Tennessee to an NFL best 13-3 record and rank seventh in overall defense with 4,698 yards allowed as well as third in offensive points allowed with 227. In his first two seasons with the Titans, he worked as an administrative assistant in the football department assisting the coaching staff with scouting breakdowns during the week and on gamedays. Burke was promoted to defensive assistant/quality control coach in 2006. He was primarily responsible for breaking down film on upcoming opponents and self-scouting, also conducting on-field work with the linebackers.

Prior to joining the Titans, Burke was the assistant secondary coach for one season (2003) at Harvard, originally entering the college ranks at Boston College (2000) as a graduate assistant for recruiting before working with the defense from 2001-02. His first coaching position came at Bridgton Academy (Maine), where he worked in 1998 and 1999.

A native of Hudson, Massachusetts, Burke played safety at Dartmouth and was part of an undefeated Ivy League champion in 1996.

TODD DOWNING

ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS
Years in NFL: 8

Todd Downing enters his second season with the Lions. He was promoted to assistant quarterbacks coach this offseason after spending his first season with Detroit as an offensive quality control coach. Before joining the Lions, he coached three seasons with St. Louis as an assistant secondary/defensive quality control coach (2008) and a defensive assistant coach/assistant special teams coach (2006-07).

Downing originally entered the NFL with the Minnesota Vikings, spending three years on the Vikings coaching staff as the Offensive Quality Control Coach (2005) and football systems analyst (2003-04), helping the Vikings to a Top 5 Offense in all three years and a playoff appearance in 2004. During the summers from 2000-02, Downing played quarterback for a semi-pro team, the Minnesota Maulers.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Downing began his coaching career with Eden Prairie High School in Minneapolis (1999-2000). In 2000, he helped his alma mater to the Minnesota Class 5-A state title.

A native of Eden Prairie, MN, Downing studied Business Communications at the University of Minnesota (1999-2002) and now resides in Michigan with his wife Julie.

RUNNING BACKS
Years with Lions: 4
Years in NFL: 6

Sam Gash enters his fourth season with the Lions, his third as running backs coach. He came to Detroit prior to the 2007 season as assistant special teams coach.

Before joining the Lions, Gash spent two seasons (2005-06) as the New York Jets' assistant running backs and assistant special teams coach. He entered the NFL coaching ranks following a 12-year playing career with the New England Patriots (1992-97), Buffalo Bills (1998-99, 2003) and Baltimore Ravens (2000-02).

As a player, Gash earned a reputation as one of the most physical fullbacks in the league and was named to two Pro Bowls (1999-2000). In 1999, he became the first back ever selected to the Pro Bowl without recording a rushing attempt.

Gash was an eighth-round draft choice (205th overall) of the New England Patriots in the 1992 NFL Draft out of Penn State. He recorded 177 regular season games and also appeared in 11 postseason games. Gash carried the ball 121 times, scored two rushing touchdowns and added 169 receptions for 1,347 yards for an 8.0 average and 13 touchdowns. He was also active on various protection and coverage units throughout his career.

At Penn State, Gash was the top fullback as a junior and senior. He served as offensive captain as a senior and had a career-high 391 rushing yards and three touchdowns on 87 carries. As a junior, Gash started every game and posted 315 yards and five scores on 95 carries. He earned his undergraduate degree in liberal arts with an emphasis in speech communication, marketing and management. He and his wife, Alicia, have a daughter, Samantha, and sons Kolby, Elijah, Isaiah, Caleb, Samson and Gideon.

SHAWN JEFFERSON

WIDE RECEIVERS
Years with Lions: 6
Years in NFL: 6

Shawn Jefferson is in his sixth season coaching with the Lions. He was named wide receivers coach prior to the 2008 season after working with the team's wide receivers the previous three seasons as a coaching intern in 2005, an offensive assistant in 2006 and as the assistant wide receivers coach in 2007. Jefferson spent the 2003 season with the Lions as a player and brings 13 years of NFL playing experience to the club.

Jefferson helped Lions WR Calvin Johnson breakout as one of the NFL's best receivers in 2008 as he tied for first in touchdown receptions (12), fifth in receiving yards (1,331), second in yards per catch among receivers with 60 receptions (17.1), tied for second in 20+-yard receptions (21), tied for second in 40+-yard receptions (7) and tied for first in 25+-yard touchdown catches (6). Johnson was also named an alternate to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl squad.

In the Lions record books, Johnson became only the second player in team history (WR Herman Moore in 1995) to record 70 receptions, 1,200 yards and 10 touchdowns in a single season. He is the only player in Lions' history to record 1,300 yards with less than 80 catches. His 12 touchdowns tied for the most touchdown grabs (Leon Hart in 1951) by a first or second year player with the Lions and his 1,331 receiving yards are the second-most in team history by a first or second year player.

In 2007, the Detroit Lions were the only team in the NFL and the first in franchise history to have four different players finish with more than 650 receiving yards (Shaun McDonald, 943; Roy Williams, 836; Calvin Johnson, 756; Mike Furrey, 664). Detroit's wide receiving unit was also second in the NFL in receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,370).

While working as an offensive assistant in 2006, Jefferson helped WR Roy Williams to a NFC-leading and career-high 1,310 receiving yards. He also worked with the NFC's receptions leader Mike Furrey (98 receptions for 1,082 yards). It was the first time since 1999 that two Lions receivers finished with more than 1,000 yards.

In addition to his time with the Lions as a player, Jefferson spent five seasons with San Diego, four with New England and three with Atlanta, accumulating over 7,000 yards receiving and 29 touchdowns. Jefferson also played in Super Bowl XXIX with the Chargers and Super Bowl XXXI with the Patriots.

Jumping right into the coaching ranks following his playing career, Jefferson spent the 2004 season as a volunteer coach with his high school alma mater, William Raines H.S. During his tenure at William Raines, he spent the month of June with the Jacksonville Jaguars as part of the team's Scouting Seminar.

Jefferson attended Central Florida where he starred as a wide receiver and kick returner. Jefferson finished with 67 catches, 1,087 yards and 11 touchdowns. As a returner, Jefferson returned 39 kickoffs for 782 yards (20.1 avg.).

DEFENSIVE LINE
Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 2

Kris Kocurek was promoted to defensive line coach just before the 2010 offseason. He came to Detroit as the Lions' assistant defensive line coach in 2009 after spending the previous season coaching defensive line at Stephen F. Austin State.

Kocurek is leading the development of Detroit's young corps of defensive linemen which features DT Ndamukong Suh who was drafted second overall in this year's draft.

Last season Kocurek helped rookie DT Sammie Hill, who was drafted out of Stillman College in the fourth round (115th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draf, emerge as an opening day starter. He finished the season with 26 tackles (14 solo) and two fumble recoveries in 13 games while making the transition from a small college prospect to NFL starter (12 starts).

In 2007, Kocurek served as the assistant head coach and defensive line coach at West Texas A&M where he helped coach the Buffaloes to the 2007 Lone Star Conference title as well as the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. The Buffaloes became one of the top defensive units in the LSC and led the conference in scoring defense.

Under Kocurek's guidance, Brandon Swain became one of the top defensive players at the Division II level and was a 2007 First-Team Daktronics, AFCA and AP Little All-American and conference defensive lineman of the year after recording 24.5 tackles for losses and 14 sacks.

Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2006 and helped guide the Lions' top-ranked defensive unit which finished with No. 1 in total and scoring defense.

For two seasons (2004-05) Kocurek served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M-Kingsville and coached the Havelina's defensive line where he was active in the development of Wilbert Martin, who was twice selected as first team All-LSC and was a free agent signee of the Baltimore Ravens.

Kocurek began his coaching career in 2003 as a student assistant at Texas Tech. While in Lubbock, he assisted with the defensive linemen and helped coach the Red Raiders to a 2003 Houston Bowl win over Navy.

Prior to coaching, Kocurek spent two years in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans (2002) and the Seattle Seahawks (2001) after being selected in the seventh round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by Seattle.

Kocurek played collegiate football at Texas Tech and was a three-time All-Big 12 selection. As a senior, he was selected as team captain and named defensive player of the year.

TIM LAPPANO

TIGHT ENDS

Tim Lappano returns for a second season coaching the Lions' tight ends. In 2009, he helped rookie TE Brandon Pettigrew emerge as one of the team's offensive playmakers. Pettigrew led all rookie tight ends in receptions (30) and yards (346) despite being forced out of the lineup after 11 games with a season-ending knee injury. Veteran tight end Will Heller also flourished last season, setting career-highs with 29 receptions, 296 yards and three touchdowns. Before coming to Detroit, Lappano served four seasons (2005-08) as the offensive coordinator at the University of Washington. He is entering his 28th season as a coach and his fifth in the NFL.

Lappano's last pro-coaching opportunity was with San Francisco where he was the running backs coach. In his first season with the 49ers, their running game was third in the NFC with 2,279 yards as FB Fred Beasley made his first Pro Bowl appearance and RB Kevan Barlow rushed for a career-high 1,024 yards despite starting only four games.

In 1998, Lappano made his NFL coaching debut as the running backs coach for the Seahawks. There he helped Ricky Watters rush for 1,239 yards and nine touchdowns, earning team Offensive Player of the Year honors.

In between, Lappano was the offensive coordinator at Oregon State (2000-02) and contributed heavily to the resurgence of the Beavers program. OSU led the Pac-10 in rushing yards (1,933) and in rushing offense, averaging 148.7 yards per game in 2002. Current St. Louis Rams RB Steven Jackson led the conference with 1,690 yards while earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors.

Lappano began his coaching career as the running backs coach at the University of Idaho where he was a four-year letterman after finishing his collegiate career as the school's second all-time leading rusher with 2,196 yards. In 1985, he helped the Vandals to a Big Sky Conference championship before leaving to coach running backs for Wyoming (1986). He then served as running backs coach at Washington State (1987-88) before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989. In his first season as offensive coordinator, he led the Cougars to a top-10 finish with former NFL Pro Bowl quarterback Drew Bledsoe and Pac-10 Offensive Player-of-the-Year, running back Steve Broussard.

Lappano moved on to the University of California in 1992 as assistant head coach and running backs coach. While in Berkeley, Lappano coached Heisman Trophy candidate Russell White and helped lead Cal to an Alamo Bowl victory over Iowa in 1993. He returned to Wyoming in 1996 as receivers coach, helping the Cowboys to an WAC Championship while coaching All-American Marcus Harris to the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver.

In 1997, Lappano joined the Purdue coaching staff as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach. The Boilermakers led the Big Ten in offense that season and ranked seventh in the nation.

Lappano earned a bachelor's degree in general studies at Idaho in 1983. He played high school football at Gonzaga Preparatory School in his native Spokane, WA and earned All-State honors as a senior. Lappano and his wife, Sandi, have two sons, Taylor and Kyle.

TED RATH

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING ASSISTANT
Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 2

Ted Rath returns for his second season as the Lions strength and conditioning assistant after joining the team during the 2009 offseason. He had spent the previous two years as the assistant director of strength and conditioning for his alma mater, the University of Toledo. Rath was a linebacker for the Rockets (2003-2006) and helped them claim the 2004 MAC Championship and earn two bowl game berths, including the 2004 Motor City Bowl at Ford Field.

While working with Toledo's strength and conditioning program, Rath directed the strength regimens for all 15 of their Olympic Sports. He also assisted with all phases of football training protocols, including design and implementation of their workouts. Prior to being named assistant director, Rath worked as a graduate assistant and focused on the strength programs for men's basketball, baseball, track, cross country, golf and swimming.

After graduating from Toledo with a degree in Physical Education, Rath started his professional career at nearby Crestwood (Dearborn Heights, Mich.) High School where he was an assistant football coach as well as their director of speed and strength training. The Monroe, Mich., native is certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (C.S.C.C.A.) and has been published on www.speedandstrengthcoach.com.

Daron Roberts, who enters his second season with Detroit, joined the Lions after two seasons (2007-08) working with the Kansas City Chiefs. He was a volunteer with the Chiefs in 2007 and was hired as defensive quality control assistant in 2008 where he assisted current Lions Defensive Coordinator Gunther Cunningham.

Roberts' responsibilities included: assisting in the development of the playbook, providing computer breakdown reports for the defensive staff and assisting with the defensive backs. While in Kansas City, he worked with a unit that allowed 188.9 passing yards per game in 2007 and ranked fifth in the league for pass defense.

When Roberts joined the Chiefs in 2007 as a volunteer, he worked with special teams coach Mike Priefer. He also served as an assistant coach on at Bishop Miege High School in Kansas City.

Roberts is a University of Texas alumnus and served as the Student Body President his senior year. He earned a Master of Public Policy degree from the John F. Kennedy School of Government and holds a law degree from Harvard Law School.

TIM WALTON

SECONDARY

Tim Walton joined the Lions as secondary coach in 2009. Before coming to Detroit, he was the defensive coordinator at the University of Memphis (2008) and had additional responsibilities coaching the safeties. Throughout his 14-year collegiate coaching career, Walton coached 13 players who were eventually drafted into the NFL, including five first round picks (Patriots S Brandon Merriweather, Seahawks CB Kelly Jennings, Giants CB Kenny Phillips, Redskins S LaRon Landry and Cardinals S Antrel Rolle) and four second round picks (S Idrees Bashir, WR/KR Devin Hester, S Michael Stone and CB Corey Webster).

Prior to joining the Tigers, Walton spent the previous four seasons (2004-07) with the Miami Hurricanes. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in February of 2007 and helped propel the defense to a national ranking of 33rd in total defense. In his first three seasons at Miami, he coached the defensive backs and the Miami secondary ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass defense in 2004 (ninth) and 2005 (first).

In 2005, Walton's pass defense led the nation, allowing only 152.17 yards per game, and featured All-Americans safety Brandon Meriweather and cornerback Kelly Jennings as well as Freshman All-American Kenny Phillips.

Walton was at LSU in 2003 and his defensive backs were a key factor in the Tigers earning the 2003 BCS National Championship and a Southeastern Conference title. The LSU defense ranked among the nation's top three in four-of-five major defensive statistical categories: total defense (first, 252.0 yards per game), scoring defense (first, 11.0 ppg), pass efficiency defense (second, 89.8 rating) and rushing defense (third, 67.0 yards per game). Additionally, LSU ranked 18th nationally in passing yardage defense (185.0 ypg) while leading the SEC in four of the five defensive categories, including a No. 2 ranking in the league in pass defense.

In his first stint with Memphis (2000-01), Walton coached defensive backs. In 2000, the Tigers ranked fifth in the nation in total defense (first in rush defense), allowing only 275 yards per game and placed in the top 15 nationally in passing and scoring defense. He left Memphis to coach defensive backs at Syracuse for the 2002 season.

Walton began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green in 1995. He was promoted to running backs coach in 1996 and then moved to coach the defensive backs in 1999.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Walton has had three summer internships with NFL teams. He spent the summer of 1998 serving as a defensive intern with the Chicago Bears, the summer of 2001 as a defensive intern for the Green Bay Packers and in 2004 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

As a defensive back at Ohio State, Walton lettered four seasons and served as co-captain for the Big Ten champions in 1993. During his time with the Buckeyes, OSU went to four bowl games, including the Liberty Bowl in 1990. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from OSU in 1994.

JEREMIAH WASHBURN

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE
Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 9

Jeremiah Washburn joined the Lions coaching staff as the assistant offensive line coach in 2009. Before coming to Detroit, he had spent six seasons working in the Baltimore Ravens player personnel department. Washburn was the Ravens' area scout for the Southwest from 2005-08 and covered schools from the Big 12, SEC, WAC and Conference USA. He also assisted with the acquisition of rookie free agents following the draft.

During his first two years in Baltimore (2003-04), Washburn was a player personnel assistant. He assisted in pro scouting, including some advance scouting of opponents, unrestricted free agents, NFL Europa and other free agents, and he also assisted the college scouting director in preparation for the NFL Draft.

In 2002, Washburn entered the NFL as a football operations assistant with the Carolina Panthers.

Washburn was a three-year guard at the University of Arkansas. He was an international economics major and was a graduate assistant for the Razorbacks' athletic department while he earned his MBA.

Washburn and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Ally and Megan, and a son, Drew.

OFFENSIVE LINE
Years with Lions: 2

George Yarno enters his second season as Detroit's offensive line coach. Prior to joining the Lions' coaching staff, Yarno spent the 2008 season as the assistant offensive line coach with Tampa Bay after spending 17 years at the college level working with the offensive line.

From 2003-07, Yarno worked at his alma mater, Washington State, in his second stint as the school's offensive line coach. During the 2003 season, he guided All-Pac-10 selections Josh Parrish (first team) and Calvin Armstrong (honorable mention) to become 2003 Holiday Bowl champions. Yarno began his coaching career with the Cougars from 1991-94.

Over the course of his 17-year college coaching career, Yarno served as an offensive line coach at both LSU (2001-02), helping the team win an SEC title (2001) and at Arizona State (2000). Yarno also served as an assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Houston (1998-99) and as an offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Idaho (1995-97).

Prior to coaching, Yarno was a two-time Pack-10 conference honoree as a defensive lineman at Washington State (1975-79). In1979 he signed as a free agent with Tampa Bay where he played for five years (1979-1983). Yarno later joined the Denver Gold of the upstart USFL (1984-85) before returning to the Buccaneers (1985-87). Yarno finished out his NFL playing career with Atlanta (1988), Houston (1989) and Green Bay (1990).

Born August 12, 1957, Yarno and his wife, Cindy, have three children, Josh, Adrianne and George.

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE
Years with Lions: 2

James Harris joined the Lions player personnel department after spending six seasons (2003-08) as the Jacksonville Jaguars vice president of player personnel. While directing the Jaguars player personnel area, he oversaw all player acquisitions, including: college draft, free agency, undrafted player signings and the scouting of players in other professional leagues.

Known affectionately as "Shack," Harris brings 34 years of NFL experience to the Lions' front office, with the past 22 years working in player personnel and scouting.

Harris originally began his front office career in 1987 when he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a scout, a position he would hold for six years (1987-92). He then moved on to the New York Jets and served as the team's assistant general manager from 1993-96. In 1997, Harris was named the director of pro personnel for the Baltimore Ravens. He was a member of the Ravens' player personnel department from 1997-2002, and he earned a Super Bowl ring with the Ravens as the team claimed a world championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXV.

In 1969, Harris was drafted by Buffalo in the eighth round of the draft—an achievement of its own right since he was just one of a few blacks ever drafted at quarterback at the time. He would play for the Bills from 1969-71, and he would become the first black in NFL history to open the season as a starting quarterback. Harris then played for Los Angeles from 1973-76. While with the Rams, he was the Pro Bowl MVP in 1975 after throwing two touchdowns in a 14-13 win over the AFC. In 1976, he led the NFC with an 89.8 passer rating, which included a 436-yard outing against the Miami Dolphins. He concluded his career in San Diego where he played for the Chargers from 1977-81.

Harris has also impacted the community through the Shack Harris Doug Williams Foundation, which is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to creating opportunities for economically disadvantaged youth. The foundation, established in 2005 with fellow NFL quarterback pioneer and Grambling State alumnus Doug Williams, provides grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance.

Harris' front office work has been recognized by numerous organizations. For two years in a row (2003 and 2004), he was one of the top-50 most influential minorities in sports by Sports Illustrated, and in 2005 he received recognition as one of "the most powerful African Americans in sports" by Black Enterprise. In March 2006, he was awarded the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award that recognized his efforts to level the playing field and improve life for minorities. In February 2007, William Rhoden featured Harris as a member of the Field Generals in ESPN's "Third and a Mile: The Trials and Triumphs of the Black Quarterback." Last year, Harris received the Onyx Awards Achievement in Sports by Onyx Magazine.

Prior to being drafted in 1969, Harris played for one of college football's most legendary coaches, Eddie Robinson, at Grambling State. During each of his four seasons (1965-68), the Tigers won or shared the SWAC title. He was named MVP of the 1967 Orange Blossom Classic and was named Pittsburgh Courier Player of the Year in 1968. As a legendary athlete and quarterback at Carroll High School in his hometown of Monroe, La., Harris received two-time All-State honors as he led Carroll to two unbeaten seasons and a state title.

Harris and his wife, Vickie, have two sons, James and Aaron, and two daughters, Felicia and Ashley.

SHELDON WHITE

VICE PRESIDENT OF PRO PERSONNEL
Years with Lions: 14

Sheldon White was promoted to vice president of pro personnel following the 2009 NFL Draft. He had previously served as the team's director of pro personnel since 2000.

White is entering his 14th season with the Lions. During his first three years in the Lions' personnel department, White fulfilled a myriad of roles: in 1997 as the team's BLESTO area scout, in 1998 as an area scout and in 1999 working in both the college and pro scouting areas.

In his current capacity, White heads a team of personnel scouts that are responsible for evaluating all of the players in the National Football League as well as the current Lions roster. He plays a key role in free agency and assists in the draft. White is also involved in some salary cap issues, negotiating contracts for selected draft choices from Rounds 2-7 and selected free agents, and he handles the budgeting for the pro scouting department. Additionally, he is responsible for official daily personnel transactions and ensures that the team is in compliance with the NFL Player Personnel rules and regulations.

In 2004, White completed the NFL's career development program at Stanford's Graduate School of Business.

White, a Lions' defensive back from 1990-92, initially re-joined the organization in '97 as a BLESTO scout after coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio) from 1994-96. That post followed a six-year NFL playing career in which White also saw action for the New York Giants in 1988-89 and the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, White was a four-year starter at Miami (Ohio) from 1984-87, and was named to their first team All-Century team. He earned first-team All-MAC honors in 1986-87 and served as a key contributor to the school's MAC title in '86.

In 1988, he was selected by the Giants in the third round of the NFL Draft, and was named to the All-NFL Rookie first-team by College & Pro Football Weekly. White was also named the team's Rookie of the Year after leading the club with four interceptions. Following a two-year stint in New York, White signed with the Lions. He played three seasons in Detroit and was a member of the 1991 team that won the NFC Central title and advanced to the NFC Championship game. White then signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Bengals, where he spent the '93 campaign, before entering the coaching ranks at Miami (Ohio) in 1994.

In July 2004, White began serving as a member of the Business Advisory Council Executive Committee of the Richard T. Farmer School of Business at his alma mater, Miami University.

White is a graduate of Miami with a bachelor's degree in business administration, majoring in finance. He and his wife, Amy, have four children: sons, Sheldon II, Jordan and Cody, and a daughter, Lacy.

SCOTT McEWEN

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING
Years with Lions: 24

Scott McEwen is now in his 24th season working in the Lions' personnel department. He manages the college side of the team's scouting department, and he is a key cog in the team's evaluation of college players throughout the country. McEwen plays an integral role in the team's planning and preparation for the annual college selection meeting.

McEwen is the team's elder statesman among the members of the player personnel department, having been a member of the scouting staff for the longest period of time. He originally joined the organization in 1987.

A 1980 graduate of West Liberty State (W.V.), McEwen began his tenure with the Lions as an area scout after spending two seasons working for the BLESTO Scouting Service. Prior to his scouting career, the East McKeesport, Pa., native served as the defensive line coach at his alma mater from 1980-81, and later coached four seasons at Duquesne University (Pittsburgh, Pa.).

McEwen and his wife, Colleen, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa., and have four sons: Scott Jr., Matthew, Patrick and Michael.

MILLER McCALMON

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL
Years with Lions: 2

Miller McCalmon joined the Lions player personnel department in 2009 and has more than 30 years of experience in the NFL as a scout, coach and administrator. From May 2000-May 2007, McCalmon was the Houston Texans' associate director of pro scouting. McCalmon previously was a college scout with the Washington Redskins for 10 years, and during the 1999 season he worked with General Manager Martin Mayhew who was an intern in the Redskins scouting department.

From 1988-89, McCalmon served as a scout for BLESTO, the national scouting combine that represents 12 NFL teams.

Prior to his stints as a scout in the NFL, McCalmon served in several coaching capacities. From 1986-87, he was an assistant coach with the Houston Oilers and was in charge of special teams and tight ends. Before spending a year (1985) in private business, he worked with the Buffalo Bills from 1980-84. For three years (1980-82), he was on special assignment with the Bills under Head Coach Chuck Knox before working as special team's coach under Kay Stephenson (1983-84). From 1978-79, he was an administrative assistant for defensive planning for Head Coach Ted Marchibroda and the Baltimore Colts. He originally broke into the NFL as a personnel scout for Head Coach George Allen and the Redskins from 1976-77.

Before entering the pro ranks, McCalmon was the head coach at Erie (Colo.) High School from 1973-75. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1971-72 after beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tulsa in 1970 while earning his master's degree in educational administration.

McCalmon is a native of Denver, Colo., and he and his wife, Georgia, have three daughters: Piper, Katherine and Jennifer. They also have five grandchildren: Sabina, Noel, Ana, Brooklyn and Caroline.

CHARLIE SANDERS

Years with Lions: 22

Long-time Lions' player and coach, Charlie Sanders re-joined the club in a scouting role February 18, 1998. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Personnel March 1, 2000 after serving the previous two seasons as a pro scout. Sanders compiles reports and evaluations on upcoming Lions' opponents and players throughout the league and aids in preparation for the NFL Draft.

Sanders is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007 and is only the seventh tight end in NFL history to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Overall, Sanders has spent 36 years affiliated with the Detroit Lions organization, including 10 years as a player (1968-77), seven as a broadcaster (1983-88, 1997), eight as a coach (1989-96) and the last 11 as a player personnel scout (1998-07).

After eight years on the Lions' coaching staff (tight ends in 1989-90 and wide receivers in 1991-96), Sanders spent the 1997 season as a radio broadcaster on the team's flagship station, WXYT. That assignment added to a radio broadcast resume that includes time as the club's color commentator from 1983-88.

One of the best tight ends of his era, Sanders caught 336 passes (fifth on the team's all-time list) during his 10-year career (1968-77) for 4,817 yards. He appeared in seven Pro Bowls, was twice named All-Pro and missed only 12 games during his career.

Drafted by the Lions in the third round from the University of Minnesota in 1968, Sanders was the only rookie that season selected to play in the Pro Bowl and he finished second to then-teammate Earl McCullough for NFL Rookie of the Year honors. He was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1990, the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, his native state, in 1997 and the Guilford County Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

Sanders and his wife, Georgianna, have nine children -- Mia, Charese, Mary Jo, Georgianna, Charlie Jr., Nathalie, Tallisa, Wayne and Jordan. Daughter Mary Jo is a professional boxer and a six-time world champion. She is 25-1-1 in 27 career professional fights. Son Wayne is a junior and plays linebacker for the Saginaw Valley State University football program.

LANCE NEWMARK

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING/ NATIONAL SCOUT
Years with Lions: 12

Lance Newmark enters his 12th year in the Lions player personnel department and his third as Assistant Director of College Scouting. Newmark, 35, continues to evaluate prospects as a National Scout, and has added responsibilities within the club's college scouting effort.

Newmark's time with the Lions began in 1998, assisting the player personnel department with various pro and college scouting assignments during the season and in preparation for the 1999 draft. Newmark was officially hired as a personnel scout on May 1, 1999. Newmark worked six seasons in that role before being promoted to National Scout in 2005.

Raised in La Mesa, California, Newmark played wide receiver for two years at San Diego Mesa College, before transferring to the University of San Diego for one year, where injuries ended his playing career. Newmark holds a degree in Social Sciences.

Prior to his time with the Lions, Newmark worked two years for the San Diego Chargers as a staff assistant.

Newmark, and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Commerce Township, Michigan with their daughters, Laci, Kendall and Ava.

CARY CONKLIN

REGIONAL SCOUT
Years with Lions: 2

Cary Conklin, who serves at the team's West Coast regional scout, brings both scouting and coaching experience to the team's player personnel department. From 2006-08, Conklin was a scout for the St. Louis Rams and was a scout for the Washington Redskins in 2003. As a coach, Conklin coached quarterbacks at Eastern Michigan from 2000-01 and was the wide receivers coach at the University of Washington in 1998. He began his coaching career at Washington where he was a student assistant and worked with quarterbacks from 1996-98.

In 1990, Conklin was a fourth-round pick at quarterback by the Washington Redskins in the NFL Draft. He played for the Redskins from 1990-94 and with the San Francisco 49ers in 1995. Conklin was a teammate of Mayhew with the Redskins during the 1990-92 seasons.

In college, Conklin set numerous passing records for the Washington Huskies. He was recruited to play for the Huskies after being named Washington's Gatorade Player of the Year while attending Eisenhower High School in Yakima, Wash.

Conklin is married to wife, Demetra, and has two daughters, Cosette and Violet, and a son, Canon.

BLESTO SCOUT

Dennis Gentry joined the Lions player personnel department in 2001 and will work as the team's BLESTO scout in his 10th season with Detroit.

Gentry previously worked for the XFL's Chicago Enforcers in various scouting and coaching capacities (both scout and running backs coach) in August 2000. In his role, he concentrated heavily on offensive quality control and was responsible for analyzing the computerized breakdown of all games for the team's offense.

Prior to his stint in the XFL, he worked the 1998-99 seasons as a high school coach in the state of Texas.

Gentry's first exposure to the NFL after his playing career came in 1997 when he was hired during training camp to serve as an intern wide receivers coach for the Arizona Cardinals as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship program.

From 1982-93, Gentry played 11 seasons as a running back, wide receiver and kick returner for the Chicago Bears, and was a member of the Bears' Super Bowl XX championship team.

Gentry was originally drafted by Chicago in the fourth round of the 1982 NFL Draft out of Baylor.

He graduated from Baylor University with a bachelor's degree in health and mathematics. Gentry and his wife, Jaye, reside in McGregor, Texas.

CHAD HENRY

Chad Henry, one of the team's regional scouts who evaluates college talent throughout the year, enters his 13th year working full-time in the Lions' player personnel department and 14th year overall in the organization. He originally served as the team's BLESTO scout before being promoted to area scout in 2000.

Henry possesses a variety of experience, both in coaching and scouting at all levels of football. Before being hired full-time in 1998, he spent a year as an intern in the Lions' personnel department and assisted in numerous capacities in both college and pro scouting. He also served as a personnel and coaching staff assistant for the San Diego Chargers during training camp in 1996. Among Henry's coaching stops were at his alma mater, Indiana (Pa.) Area Senior High School in the Fall of '97, and as a scholastic level summer league baseball coach in 1996-97.

Although side effects from a bout with cancer during high school ended Henry's playing career prematurely, he continued in football as a student assistant at Penn State from 1991-93. He was also an undergraduate assistant coach and recruiting assistant at Indiana University of Pennsylvania upon transferring there in the spring of 1994.

In May 1996, Henry received his bachelor's degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in English. He completed his master's work in labor and industrial relations from the same school in May 1998.

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR/ REGIONAL SCOUT
Years with Lions: 4

Rob Lohman enters his fourth season with the Lions. He serves as the team's college scouting coordinator, handling various administrative duties within the college scouting department, and is also a regional scout.

He originally joined the player personnel staff in May 2007 and had a variety of responsibilities in both college and pro scouting, including serving as the team's advance scout during his first season.

Previously, Lohman spent six years with the Houston Texans, and was a member of the organization before it began play in the NFL in 2002. From 2004-06, he served as the team's northeast regional scout, and was the team's pro administrator from 2002-03. Additionally in 2003, he handled all the team advance scouting duties. Lohman joined the Texans in 2001 as a scouting intern.

Before entering the NFL ranks in 2001, he was a graduate assistant at Syracuse University, where he earned his master's degree in higher education.

In 1998, Lohman was a special teams and recruiting assistant at Hofstra.

Lohman graduated from the University of South Carolina, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management and worked with the Gamecock's football program as an undergraduate recruiting assistant. He is a native of Oceanside, N.Y.

SILAS MCKINNIE

REGIONAL SCOUT
Years with Lions: 8

Silas McKinnie enters his eighth season as personnel scout with the Lions. Prior to joining the club in 2003, McKinnie spent five NFL seasons (1997-2002) as a regional scout with the Minnesota Vikings.

Before joining the Vikings, McKinnie concluded a 20-year career as a college basketball coach, including a three-year stint as an assistant coach for the University of Miami (1994-96).

McKinnie played football at the University of Iowa from 1965-67, where he earned All-Big 10 honors as a running back. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in speech and dramatic arts. Following graduation, McKinnie played five seasons of professional football with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1968-71, '73). He signed with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972, but played the season with the Atlanta Falcons and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Silas Anthony McKinnie was born in Detroit. He attended Robichaud High School in Dearborn, Mich., where he earned all-state honors in both football and basketball. He has a daughter, Ixchel, and a son, Lance.

DAVE SEARS

REGIONAL SCOUT

Dave Sears joined the team as a regional scout in May 2007 after spending seven seasons with the Houston Texans organization. He joined the Texans' personnel department in May 2000 to scout the central region.

Prior to his stint in Houston, Sears spent three seasons (1997-2000) working with Washington's scouting department. He started with the Redskins as an intern in January 1997 and was hired as their scouting administrator in May. Sears was promoted as the Redskins' BLESTO scout in May of 1998. He also spent time interning for the Springfield Falcons in the American Hockey League.

Sears earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Springfield (Mass.) College and he was a four-year linebacker for Springfield's football team. He attended Hauppauge High School in his hometown of Hauppauge, N.Y., and lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse.

Sears is married to wife, Nancy and together they have a daughter, Delaine.

DAVE UYRUS

NATIONAL SCOUT

Dave Uyrus joined the Lions' personnel department as an area scout in June 2000, and 2010 marks his 11th season with the club. Prior to joining the club's scouting staff, Uyrus spent seven years (1994-2000) with New England. He started as their assistant director of pro scouting (1994-96) and then was director of pro scouting for three years (1997-99). Uyrus worked as a national scout for the Patriots in 2000.

Uyrus has been coaching and scouting in the collegiate and professional ranks for the past 29 years, beginning with his first job in 1974 as freshman coach of his alma mater, Middlebury College. In 1975 he coached the varsity tight ends at Brown University and the following year he was an assistant coach at Lee High School in Lee, Massachusetts. He then joined Dick MacPherson's staff at Massachusetts as a graduate assistant in 1977-78 before moving on to American International in 1979 and Merchant Marine Academy in 1980.

Following those stints, Uyrus then re-joined MacPherson's staff at Syracuse in 1981. He spent 10 seasons (1981-90) with the Orangeman, six as the tight ends and special teams coach (1985-90). He moved into the professional ranks after MacPherson was named the head coach of the Patriots in 1991. He spent the 1991-92 campaigns as the Patriots' assistant defensive line and special teams coach before coaching the tight ends and special teams at Cornell in 1993.

As a player, Uyrus earned honorable mention Little All-American, All-ECAC and All-New England Small College honors as a junior at Middlebury.

He and his wife, Heidi, have two daughters: Haley and Gwendolyn.

CEDRIC SAUNDERS

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
Years with Lions: 5

Cedric Saunders is in his fifth year with the Lions and was named vice president of football operations September 24, 2008. In 2007, Saunders was promoted to director of football operations in his second season with the club. He came to Detroit after spending the previous five seasons with Tampa Bay.

Saunders works closely with Senior Vice President and General Manager Martin Mayhew and oversees the team's football operations, including the coordination of the year-round football calendar. Among his football operations duties, Saunders oversees the Lions' player development department, video department, equipment operations, team travel, athletic training staff, strength and conditioning, cafeteria operations, security department and human resources. Along with the coordination of those departments, he handles the annual budgets for the coaching staff, coaching support staff and player personnel department.

He also assists with player personnel, including the development of the team's roster, college scouting and on-campus visits and pro talent evaluation. Saunders plays a role in the coordination of the team's free agency and draft agenda, including free agent and draft eligible visits.

Each season, Saunders is responsible for interviewing and hiring coaching interns as part of the NFL Minority Coaching Program.

In addition to his various football operations responsibilities, he also assists with contract negotiation.

While directing the player development department in Tampa Bay, Saunders helped get players involved in continuing education programs, off-season internships and jobs to prepare for possible post-NFL careers. He was also the main contact between the players and the club's community relations department and encouraged player involvement in charities and community activities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Saunders spent the previous two seasons as an area scout for the Kansas City Chiefs, evaluating college talent in the Midwest. A native of Sarasota, Fla., Saunders was in training camp for three seasons with Tampa Bay (1994-96), and saw action on both the practice squad and active roster in 1995 as a tight end and special teams player. He also played with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1997.

A four-year starter at Ohio State, Saunders posted 68 career receptions for 853 yards for the Buckeyes. He recorded 27 catches and earned second-team All-Big 10 honors as a senior in 1993 and was an honorable mention selection as a junior.

Saunders and his wife, Bashi, have two daughters, Reegan and Charlie Bleu, and two sons, Cayden and Kai.

DEAN KLEINSCHMIDT

COORDINATOR OF ATHLETIC MEDICINE/ ATHLETIC TRAINER
Years with Lions: 4

Dean Kleinschmidt, was hired in April 2007 and brought over three decades of work in the athletic medicine field, most of which occurred on the NFL level. Kleinschmidt oversees the team's athletic training and medical operations.

Kleinschmidt joined the Lions with a distinguished career as an athletic trainer that included 35 years in the NFL and three seasons in Division I college athletics. Before coming to Detroit, he completed three seasons (2004-06) as the head athletic trainer for Indiana University's football program.

Previous to his stint at Indiana, Kleinschmidt was head athletic trainer for the Washington Redskins (2002-03). For a two-year period, he worked as the administrative director at East Jefferson Hospital Wellness Center in Metairie, La. (2001-02).

For 31 years, Kleinschmidt served as an assistant (1969-70) and head athletic trainer (1971-99) for the New Orleans Saints. He was promoted to head athletic trainer in 1971, becoming the NFL's youngest ever head athletic trainer at the age of 24.

Kleinschmidt is a 1970 graduate from Indiana University where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and safety and a major in athletic training. His work has been well-recognized throughout his career, and he is an inductee in the Senior Bowl Hall of Fame (2008), Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association (National Athletic Trainers Association District IX) Hall of Fame (2007), New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame (2002), National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1994) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1990).

In 2003, Kleinschmidt was awarded the National College Football Foundation Athletic Trainer of the Year, and he has received awards from Indiana University and the U.S. Sports Academy.

In 1986, he directed the Saints athletic training department that was named the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

In addition to his duties over the years, Kleinschmidt has coordinated all sports medicine efforts at the Senior Bowl All-Star Game in Mobile, Ala., since 1971. He also has served on the board of directors and as president, including three terms, of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. During his career, Kleinschmidt has been a member of two NFL advisory committees to the Commissioner: Drugs of Abuse & Alcohol and Anabolic Steroids & Related Substances.

Dean and his wife, Marlene, have a son, Rhett, who played wide receiver at Indiana University, and a daughter, Morgan.

AL BELLAMY

ATHLETIC TRAINER
Years with Lions: 10

Al Bellamy enters his 10th season as athletic trainer. In his role, Bellamy helps manage the team's athletic training staff and works closely with the team's physicians.

Bellamy arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. Bellamy began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI.

In 2009, Bellamy also served on the Gatorade Advisory Board.

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (Fla.) football team (1986-87). During this span, he worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship and included former Lions' safety Bennie Blades and wide receiver Brett Perriman. That assignment was his first full-time job and came after he had earned his master's degree in physical education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in health education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop John Carroll High School in Washington, DC. In recognition of Bellamy's career in athletic training, the school's annual Student Athletic Trainer and Manager of the Year Award is named in his honor.

He and his wife, Sharon, reside in Northville, Mich., with their son, Chase, and daughter, Ashley.

BILL KEENIST

SR. VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS
Years with Lions: 26

Bill Keenist embarks upon his 26th year within the Lions' organization. In 2001, he was promoted to the post of senior vice president of communications. Keenist, the team's chief spokesman on organizational matters, oversees communications, community affairs and new media, and he works closely with other team business initiatives, including broadcasting, marketing, sales and tickets.

For seven years prior, Keenist served as a team vice president supervising the areas of communications, broadcasting and marketing. In 1994-95, Keenist directed the team's launch of several in-house media programs, including: a team television show, radio shows, a state-wide preseason TV and highlight show network, team newspaper, magazine and Internet site. Many of those entities are still in operation today.

Keenist has over the years assisted in the negotiations of broadcast contracts for local radio and TV, most recently including the Lions' radio deal in 2005 when the Lions renewed their relationship with Infinity Broadcasting by inking a new five-year deal that includes greater presence on the team's flagship station, 97.1 FM, and other auxiliary programming.

In 1997, Keenist directed a restructuring of the Lions' ticket office, which included the establishment of both telemarketing and group sales departments. In the season prior to these changes, the season ticket base had fallen to near 30,000. In 2002, the first year at Ford Field, the Lions sold out their regular season ticket packages and, for the first time, have a waiting list for prospective season ticket buyers.

Keenist has been with the Lions since 1985 when he was hired as assistant public relations director. In 1987 he was named director of public relations, a position he held until his appointment as director of marketing, broadcasting and communications in 1991. He held that position until 1994 when he was promoted to vice president for administration and communications.

In 1981, Keenist's NFL career began when he worked for the Washington Redskins as a public relations assistant. He was a member of the Redskins staff when the team won Super Bowl XVII in 1983 over Miami. He also served as the Redskins' director of promotions in 1983.

After leaving the Redskins, Keenist returned home to the Pittsburgh area where he was the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League in 1984. After the Maulers' one season in the USFL, Keenist served as the sports public relations director for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, where he worked primarily with the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Keenist's talents have been recognized around the NFL. For Super Bowls XXIV through XXVIII he had the honor of being selected a public relations co-captain, which involves the coordination of all media-related activities at the Super Bowl. In all, he has worked a total of 18 Super Bowls for the NFL. In the past, he has served on the following NFL PR/Marketing Committees: Broadcasting; Governmental Affairs and Insider Magazine. Keenist has been the P.R. Chairman of the NFC Central division and Chairman of the Public Relations Special Projects Committee.

In 2002, Keenist was honored by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association with the "Best of the Best" award, which annually honors the top sports public relations person in the Detroit media market. In 2003, the Lions' 2002 club seat ticket commercial, produced by Keenist, was nominated for an EMMY, a first for any Lions' production.

Also among Keenist's accomplishments, he served as a member of Detroit's Super Bowl XL Communications Task Force Committee, and played a key role in the organization's public relations efforts during several Super Bowl XL related events.

Keenist holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. He also received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Ohio and was a recipient of a Sports Administration Scholarship from the NFL in 1981. As sports editor of The Ohio University Post in 1980, his sports section was named the Best College Sports Section in America by a national panel of sportswriters and columnists, an honor for which he received a post-graduate scholarship.

He then served a graduate internship at Duke University where he worked in the athletic department.

In 2004, Keenist was inducted into the Elizabeth Forward High School Hall of Fame in his hometown of Elizabeth, Pa., and was a member of the school's Class of 1976.

In 2006, Keenist was awarded a medal of merit by Ohio's Alumni Association, which annually honors alumni who have distinguished themselves in their respective professions.

Keenist, 52, lives in Oxford with his wife Cindy and their three children: sons, Billy and Christopher, and daughter, Lindsay. He is an active member of Oxford High School's Athletic Boosters, a member of the Oxford School District Strategic Planning Committee and serves on Oxford's School Board.

TOM LESNAU

Years with Lions: 33

Tom Lesnau is entering his 33rd season with the Lions organization. Prior to the 2003 season he was promoted to senior vice president in conjunction with the restructuring of the Lions front office, and he is one of the senior members of the Lions management staff. His role consists of overseeing the club and stadium's financial, insurance, banking, information technology, business systems, retail store and purchasing operations. Lesnau reports directly to President Tom Lewand.

During the last several years, Lesnau has been involved in assisting Lewand with the initial start-up and on-going development of Ford Field and the adjoining commercial and parking complex that has been recognized as one of the premiere venues in the NFL. Lesnau's involvement with the stadium development has spanned all the way from 1996, when a new state of the art stadium was proposed for downtown Detroit. He has also coordinated a long-term financing arrangement for the stadium and warehouse projects, and the implementation, upgrade and standardization of accounting and reporting systems for the new ventures in order to facilitate an integrated financial system for team and stadium operations.

In 2009, Lesnau and his finance group, in conjunction with the organization's business operations, re-vamped the team's entire retail operations and entered into a 10-year agreement with MainGate to become the exclusive retail and merchandising company for the organization. This agreement involved a complete re-launch of the team's official team store, "Lions Pro Shop," e-commerce operations and is now the team's internal merchandise department.

Over the past seven years, Lesnau was instrumental in the development and implementation of a new combined budget strategy and process for the Lions and Ford Field, thus allowing the organization to strategically plan the direction of the two entities.

In his prior role, Lesnau established reporting controls to more effectively monitor the overall performance of the organization. He also revamped all computer operations of the team and implemented a new system for both financial operations and administrative areas of the club.

In addition to his role as the team's chief financial officer, Lesnau, along with long-time Lions' employee Danny Jaroshewich, has manned the Lions' draft table operations in New York City during the NFL's annual selection meeting.

Lesnau gained five years of business and accounting experience with the international accounting firm of Ernst & Young from 1973 to 1978. He joined the Lions in 1978 as an accountant, took on the additional duties as travel coordinator in 1980, and was promoted to controller in 1991. He was promoted to the position of vice president of finance and chief financial officer in 1996. Prior to the team's relocation to Detroit, Lesnau was the primary contact with the City of Pontiac and the Pontiac Silverdome.

Lesnau graduated with honors from Michigan State University in 1973 with a degree in business administration/accounting and is a Certified Public Accountant. Lesnau is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Michigan Association of CPAs, and the Financial Executives Institute of America.

Lesnau's involvement with local charities includes positions as treasurer of Detroit Lions Charities and member of Board of Directors of Detroit Lions Courage House, Kolo Charities the Russ Thomas Scholarship Fund and numerous other charitable organizations. He also serves as a trustee on several local community organizations and governmental boards.

Lesnau is married to wife, Liz, and currently resides in Waterford. The native of the Detroit area has lived substantially all of his life in the Detroit metropolitan area.

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit. The Lions now operate primarily from their new headquarters in Allen Park, and some portions of the organization are housed in the warehouse portion of Ford Field.

LIONS TRAINING CAMP LOCATIONS

Since their first training camp in 1934, the Lions have trained at 10 different sites during the preseason.

CLIFF AVRIL

Defensive End
Purdue 3rd Year
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 260
Born: 4/8/86 Green Cove Springs, Fla.
Draft: '08, R3c (92)-Det

MANE FACTS

- Having not started playing football until the 11th grade, Avril looked up to RB Barry Sanders and RB Emmitt Smith. When he started playing football, he'd pay attention to LB DeMarcus Ware, LB Julian Peterson and guys that played in the 3-4 scheme.
- Avril loves watching television shows Martin and the Fresh Prince.
- Avril enjoys playing basketball, but has slowed down a little now that he dedicates much of his time to football. He also likes to sit at home and play video games.
- During the offseason Avril likes to go home and chill out at home with his family since he doesn't see them much for half of the year.
- After football, Avril would like to own a couple of businesses. Being into clothing, he wouldn't mind owning a few clothing stores, or a few stores in the mall back at home.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round (92nd overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft.

PRO

In two NFL seasons, Avril has proven effective as a pass rusher and has a knack for forcing fumbles while taking down opponent's quarterbacks. In his career, he has played 28 games (15 starts), collected 62 tackles (43 solo), registered 10.5 sacks (67.5 yards lost) knocked down three passes, recovered one fumble, forced seven fumbles and has two special teams tackles.

- It didn't take long for Avril to prove himself as a pro during his rookie season as he quickly emerged as a regular contributor in the defensive end rotation. Among all rookie pass rushers in 2008, he finished tied for first with 5.0 sacks and was first with four forced fumbles.
- Avril ended his first season with 22 tackles, having played 15 games, including the final four as a starter.

2009: Was slowed early on with a hamstring injury, but appeared in 13 games (11 starts), and recorded 40 tackles (26 solo), three passes defensed, three forced fumbles and 5.5 sacks.

- Started at LDE at New Orleans (9/13) and recorded one solo stop.
- Inactive vs. Minnesota (9/20) and Washington (9/27) with a hamstring injury.
- Recorded a sack-fumble for a loss of 14 yards at Chicago (10/4).
- Posted five tackles (four solo) and split a sack with DT Andre Fluellen for a loss of 4.5 yards vs. Pittsburgh (10/11).
- Recorded a career-high seven tackles (six solo) and a sack for a loss of 9 yards at Green Bay (10/18).
- Knocked down a career-high two passes vs. St. Louis (11/1), and recorded one tackle and one special teams tackle.
- Inactive at Minnesota (11/15).
- Started and made four tackles, including one behind the line of scrimmage vs. Cleveland (11/22).
- Recorded a sack and two tackles in start at Cincinnati (12/6).
- Notched a sack-fumble vs. Arizona (12/20). The sack was Avril's fourth of the season and ninth of his career.
- Made five tackles (three solo) and recorded a pass defensed in start at San Francisco (12/27).
- Recorded his second sack-fumble of the season vs. Chicago (1/3). The sack gave Avril 5.5 on the season as he surpassed his rookie total (5.0). Avril also made five tackles for the second consecutive week.

COLLEGE

Avril moved to defensive end in his final two seasons for the Boilermakers and registered 30 of his 35.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage and 12.5 of his 13 sacks from the left end position. In 40 games at Purdue, he started in 35 contests, with 12 starts coming at strong-side linebacker and the other 23 at left defensive end. He was 12th in school history with 13 sacks for minus-79 yards and finished 11th in Purdue annals with 35.5 stops for losses of 137 yards.

- Named All-Big Ten Conference by the NFL Draft Report and second-team by the league's media in 2007 after starting all 13 games at left defensive end, where he led the team and tied for tenth in the conference with 6.5 sacks and returned an interception for a touchdown
- Started the first four games at strong-side linebacker in 2006 before shifting to left defensive end for the final 10 games.
- Played in 10 games as a sophomore in 2005 before a midseason back fracture forced him to sit out for the rest of the year and limited him in drills the following spring.
- Saw considerable action as a true freshman in 2004 while appearing in 12 games, starting four contests at strong-side linebacker.

PERSONAL

Attended Clay High School (Fla.) where he earned second-team All-State honors as a defensive end as a senior and was rated the 37th best outside linebacker in the nation by Rivals.com

- Named to the Florida Times-Union Super 24 team and twice earned All-Conference accolades.
- As a senior led the team to an 11-2 record and registered 80 tackles, 9.0 sacks, 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage and four passes defensed.
- Named to Class 3A All-State team by the Florida Sports Writers Association in his senior year.
- Lettered in basketball, track and field and weight lifting.
- Retail management major.
- Enjoys playing basketball.

JEFF BACKUS

Tackle
Michigan 10th Year
Ht: 6-5 Wt: 305
Born: 9/21/77 Norcross, Ga.
Draft: '01, R1 (18)-Det

- Named Lions 2009 Ed Block Courage award winner.
- Backus is only the second player out of the University of Michigan to be taken in the first round by the Lions, and the first since Detroit selected Bob Westfall in 1942 with its first pick.
- Although he spent most of his childhood in suburban Atlanta, Backus was born in Midland, Mich.
- Donated Lions' tickets for each home game to C.S. Mott's Children's Hospital through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Took part in a special wall-raising ceremony to begin the building of the first Habitat for Humanity home sponsored by the Lions.
- Works with Mott Children's Hospital on numerous fundraisers throughout the season.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed with the Detroit Lions July 14, 2006 to a long-term contract extension (six-year deal).
- Designated by the Detroit Lions as the team's Franchise Player February 23, 2006 and signed one-year tender May 15, 2006.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (18th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

PRO

Backus has been the Lions' mainstay at left tackle since being drafted in the first round (18th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft, and has never missed a game or start (144 consecutive starts) in his career. He has more consecutive starts than any Lions offensive lineman in team history.

- His 144 consecutive starts are now the most among active linemen in the NFL, and his streak of 144 starts is tied for fifth overall in the entire league.
- He is the only player drafted in 2001 who has started every game as a pro.
- Backus and teammate C Dominic Raiola had started more consecutive games (105) than any active offensive line pair in the NFL until Raiola missed his first career game vs. Jacksonville (11/9/08).
- Backus was the first Lions first-round selection to start all 16 games as a rookie since Luther Elliss in 1995. He was also the first Lions offensive player selected in the first round to start all 16 games as a rookie since Lomas Brown in 1985.

2009: Started all 16 games for the ninth consecutive season. Was named the named the Lions' Ed Block Courage Award winner, which recognizes men of courage in the NFL. He has extended his streak of consecutive starts to 144 with his start vs. Chicago (1/3).

- Started at left tackle in his 129th consecutive game at New Orleans (9/13). By starting on opening day, he now has the most consecutive starts among any offensive linemen in the NFL.
- Started at left tackle and helped the ground game produce 129 yards on 34 carries vs. Minnesota (9/20). This marked his 130th consecutive start of his career, which breaks G Ed Flanagan's team record of 129 straight starts by an offensive linemen.
- Started at left tackle vs. Washington (9/27) and was part of an offensive line that gained 154 yards on the ground, including Kevin Smith's 101 rushing yards.
- Started at left tackle vs. Arizona (12/20) and was part of an offensive line that gained 161 yards on the ground, including Maurice Morris' 126 rushing yards.

COLLEGE

Starter for the Wolverines at left tackle from 1997-2000. Finished his career with 49 consecutive starts, one shy of the school record of 50 by current Detroit Lions' right tackle, Jon Jansen (1995-98).

- Teamed with Seattle Seahawks 2001 first-round pick, guard Steve Hutchinson, to man the left side of Michigan's offensive line in every campaign since their freshman year.
- Earned All-Big Ten honors four straight years and was an All-American second-team selection by College Football News and ABC Sports. Honorable mention from CNN/Sports Illustrated. Consensus All-Big Ten first-team pick as a senior.
- Co-recipient of the Hugh H. Rader Award for his junior and senior years, given to the team's top offensive lineman.
- In 1999, he was an All-Big Ten first-team selection by the media, and earned University of Michigan Athletic Academic Achievement honors after starting every game at left tackle.
- Started at left tackle during Michigan's march to the 1997 Rose Bowl and had a hand in Wolverines winning a piece of the National Championship (Associated Press).
- Earned general studies degree in December 2000.

MANE FACTS

- Pro Bowls: 2004, 2005
- Bly donated $150,000 to the University of North Carolina to set up a football scholarship in his name. Bly, the son of two teachers, wanted to give the opportunity to others to have an experience similar to his at North Carolina.
- Growing up in Virginia, he idolized former all-pro cornerback Deion Sanders and was a fan of the Dallas Cowboys.
- Bly is one of only five players in college football history to be named an All-American as a freshman. The others are Tony Dorsett, Herschel Walker, Bjorn Merten and Marshall Faulk, Bly's teammate in St. Louis.
- Established the Dre Bly Foundation, a non-profit organization designed to improve education through physical excellence. The organization helps to promote physical awareness by improving athletic facilities and promoting the importance of athletics in maintaining a healthy body and a healthy mind. It provides equipment and scholarships to kids in addition to putting on camps and fundraising events, such as the Dre Bly Celebrity Golf Classic.

TRANSACTIONS

- Signed by the Detroit Lions July 2, 2010.
- Signed by the San Francisco 49ers May 21, 2009 to a one-year contract
- Released by the Denver Broncos on February 17, 2009
- Traded to Denver Broncos March 1, 2007 and signed a five-year extension on March 28.
- Signed by the Detroit Lions March 1, 2003 to a five-year contract.
- Drafted by the St. Louis Rams in the second round (41st overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft.

PRO

Bly is entering his 12th NFL season. The two-time Pro Bowl selection will add depth and experience to the Lions secondary. Since entering the league in 1999, he has 43 career interceptions which is the fourth most in the NFL over that span.

- Tied for sixth among all active players with five interceptions returned for touchdowns and owns a total of eight touchdowns scored on returns for his career (5 interceptions, 2 fumbles and 1 punt).
- Named to the Pro Bowl with the Lions following the 2003 and '04 seasons.
- Spent his first four professional seasons (1999-2002) with St. Louis, helping the club to win Super Bowl XXXIV as a rookie in 1999 and to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVI in 2001.

2009: Played in all 16 games and had six starts in his lone season with San Francisco. His 13 pass defenses and three interceptions both ranked second on the team.

- Played nickel back at Arizona (9/13), leading the team with three pass defenses while helping the secondary limit Cardinals receivers Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin to a combined 90 yards receiving.
- Made first start of the season vs. Jacksonville (11/29).
- Started and contributed to the secondary as they held the Arizona Cardinals (12/14) to a season-low 178 passing yards and a 44.9 quarterback rating, not allowing a QB Kurt Warner touchdown pass for the first time during the 2009 season.
- Tallied his 43rd career interception vs. Detroit (12/27) and added a forced fumble and recovery.

COLLEGE

- Only player in the history of North Carolina and the ACC to earn consensus first-team All-America honors three times in career (first player to accomplish feat since Herschel Walker of Georgia 1980-82).
- Finished college career with 102 tackles and conference record 20 interceptions.
- One of three finalists for Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Year Award as sophomore.
- In 1996, he became first freshman to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in ACC history, was a finalist for Jim Thorpe Award as National Defensive Back of the Year and was the ACC Rookie of the Year, setting a conference record with 11 interceptions.

PERSONAL

- Graduated from Western Branch High in Chesapeake, Va., where he was an all-Tidewater, all-city, all-Eastern region, all-state and all-district choice after having 36 career touchdowns and 16 interceptions as a three-year starter.
- Lettered three times at centerfielder on baseball team.
- Married to Kristyn, with four children, daughter Peyton and sons: Trey, Jordan and Aaron
- Full name is Donald André Bly.

MANE FACTS

- Brown enjoys comedy and while growing up he was a fan of Martin Lawrence and used to watch Martin every night before going to bed. He also enjoyed The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air with Will Smith.
- While Brown doesn't have any superstitions before taking the field, he said he mostly prays asking God for confidence, wisdom and courage.
- Because of his love for track, Brown's all-time favorite sprinters are Michael Johnson and Gail Devers. The 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta stand out in Brown's mind because Johnson still set the world record in the 200-meter dash after slipping off the starting block.
- During the offseason, Brown planned to travel to the big cities across America, such as Chicago, New York and Los Angeles.
- After his career is over, Brown wants to give back to the game, so he is looking to become a coach.

TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by the Detroit Lions in the sixth round (162nd overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

- Possesses explosive speed in open field. Serves as back-up running back and has handled kickoff returns.
- Has played in 15 games (two starts), rushed for 131 yards on 27 attempts and caught 10 receptions for 84 yards and one touchdown.
- As a returner, he has registered 43 kickoff returns for 959 yards.

2009: Had 27 carries for 131 yards (4.9 avg.) and 10 receptions for 84 yards with one touchdown in his rookie season. Returned 43 kickoffs for 959 yards (22.3) on the season.

- Returned five kickoffs for 180 yards, including a long of 87 and added one carry on offense for nine yards at New Orleans (9/13).
- Brown's 87-yarder was the longest kickoff return by a Lions rookie since WR Eddie Drummond's 88-yard kickoff return at Atlanta (12/22/02), and it was the longest kickoff return in the NFL during opening weekend. It was also the longest by the Lions since Drummond had a 92-yard kickoff return touchdown.
- Returned six kicks for 96 yards vs. Minnesota (9/20) and added four carries for 10 yards.
- Returned two kicks for 38 yards and added five carries for 6 yards vs. Washington (9/27).
- Recorded a career-high 27 yards rushing at Seattle (11/8) including a career-high long of 19 yards.
- Inactive at Minnesota (11/15).
- Scored first career touchdown on a 26-yard reception in addition to returning four kickoffs for 118 yards (29.5 avg.) with a long of 46 vs. Cleveland (11/22).
- Started first career game (slot receiver) vs. Green Bay (11/26).
- Registered his fourth-longest kickoff return of the season (42 yards) at Cincinnati (12/6).
- Gained 21 yards on three carries and caught three passes for 19 yards vs. Chicago (1/3). Brown also returned a kickoff 53-yards which was his second-longest of the season.

COLLEGE

Closed out an impressive four-year collegiate career at TCU with 487 rushing attempts for 2,596 yards and 20 touchdowns, while also adding 81 receptions for 857 yards and five touchdowns. As a senior in 2008, Brown was placed second on TCU with 445 yards rushing, moving him into 10th place on the Horned Frogs' career list with 2,494 yards. Brown topped TCU with 1,042 all purpose yards despite sitting out the opening three games.

- Despite being plagued with injuries in 2007, Brown was still placed second on the Frogs with 490 yard rushing (4.6 per carry) while ranking fourth with 24 receptions. Also averaged 24.6 yards on 14 kickoff returns for the year.
- In 2006, Brown was TCU's top rusher with 801 yards and placed third in the league (66.8 yards per game). His 5.2 per carry average was the best among the MWC's top-eight ground gainers.
- As a freshman in 2005, Brown was named the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year and an honorable-mention Freshman All-American as a true Freshman. Posted the highest per carry average (5.9) among the MWC's top 10 rushers.
- Placed eighth in the league with his 758 yards, all coming in the last 10 contests (75.8 avg.). Ranked 12th nationally among true freshmen in rushing yards and in a tie for sixth with his three 100-yard games.

PERSONAL

Coached in football by Joe Sheffy at Mayde Creek High School in Katy, Texas.

- Ran a 4.4 40-yard dash and recorded a 10.45 100-meter dash time on the track, one of the fastest prep times in the nation in 2004.
- Parents are Johnathan and Cheryl Brown.

MANE FACTS

- Former teammate of his twin brother, Josh, who started alongside Daniel as a free safety for Nebraska (2001-04). Josh, who is the younger of the twins by one minute, was selected in the second round (40th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints. In 2009, he signed a free agent contract with the Chicago Bears.
- Both Daniel and Josh were selected with the 40th overall pick of the draft in 2006 and 2005, respectively.
- Josh and Daniel are cousins of former U.S. Olympic gold medalist Evelyn Ashford.
- Donated Lions home game tickets to MI-COPS through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Looked up to the Detroit Lions as a youth and cites Barry Sanders as his favorite player and role model.
- Drinks pickle juice before each game, and pre-game routine including always tying right shoe before left, puts on pants and then shoulder pads.
- Loves antique cars and owns two '72 Chevelle SSs.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed with the Detroit Lions April 19, 2010 as a restricted free agent.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list August 21, 2009 due to a knee injury
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list August 28, 2007 after suffering a knee injury in the preseason.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (40th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft.

PRO

Enters fifth NFL season looking to breakout as one of the league's best young safeties as he brings athleticism and intensity to the defensive backfield.

- Bullocks rebounded from season-ending knee injury in 2007 to set a career-high with 93 tackles in 2008, which was the third-most on the team and the most among Lions defensive backs.
- Slated as the starter at free safety prior to his injury during the 2007 preseason after making seven starts at strong safety during his rookie season in 2006.
- Finished rookie season with 70 tackles (52 solo), five special teams tackles and three pass defenses.

COLLEGE

Finished his career with the Huskers ranked second amongst the school's all-time defensive backs with 226 tackles.

- As a senior in 2005, Bullocks was the veteran leader and team co-captain of an aggressive Nebraska defensive unit which led the nation in quarterback sacks (46) and tackles for loss (115) and was a consensus second-team All-Big 12 Conference choice and All-American Dream Team selection by The NFL Draft Report.
- Finished second on the squad his senior season with 83 tackles (46 solos), adding four tackles for loss (8 yards), a quarterback pressure, caused two fumbles and recovered another, returning it 30 yards for a touchdown. He also deflected 10 passes and intercepted another for a 12-yard return and blocked a punt that he returned 12 yards.
- All-Big 12 Conference second-team pick by the Dallas Morning News, earning honorable mention from the league's coaches and Associated Press in his junior season as he started all year at strong safety finishing fourth on the team with 58 tackles (38 solos), a sack (12 yards) and four tackles for loss (19 yards). He also led Nebraska and ranked second in the conference (12th nationally) with five interceptions (187 yards) and had nine pass defenses, forced a fumble and had a fumble recovery which he returned 10 yards for a touchdown.
- Played in every game, starting nine contests at strong safety in his sophomore campaign and finished fourth on the team with 69 tackles (44 solos), tops among the Husker defensive backs. He also had four stops for losses of 5 yards and three quarterback pressures, caused and recovered a fumble, deflected three passes and picked off two others for 11 yards in returns.
- Began his redshirt freshman season as a reserve, but ascended to the top of the depth chart at 'rover' by midseason and earned his first career start vs. McNeese State. Moved back to a reserve role after Philip Bland shifted to rover from free safety midway through the season but saw action in 12 games and finished with 16 tackles (five solos) and a forced fumble.
- Redshirted as a true freshman.

PERSONAL

Former teammate of his twin brother, Josh, who started alongside Daniel as a free safety for Nebraska (2001-04). Josh, who is the younger of the twins by one minute, was selected in the second round (40th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints.

- Josh and Daniel are cousins of former U.S. Olympic gold medalist Evelyn Ashford.
- Attended Hixson (Chattanooga, Tenn.) High School where he played quarterback, teaming in the backfield with his brother Josh, while helping Hixson to four Class 4A playoff appearances.
- Took over starting quarterback duties as a sophomore, without previously playing the position, and totaled more than 50 career touchdowns.
- As a senior, Bullocks was the Player of the Year in Chattanooga by the Times Free Press and was Mr. Tennessee for football in Class 4A.
- In 2000, he rushed for 1,432 yards with 21 touchdowns and passed for 309 yards and five touchdowns. He also caught 10 passes and had 43 tackles as a free safety with four interceptions and two fumble recoveries.
- Earned Class 4A first-team All-State honors, and both he and Josh were named to the Associated Press Tennessee All-Star Team.
- The twins both played in the Tennessee vs. Kentucky All-Star Game, and Daniel earned MVP honors after returning an interception 104 yards for a touchdown in Tennessee's 30-20 victory.
- Daniel and Josh visited Nebraska and Auburn together before selecting the Huskers.
- Graduated in December 2005 with a degree in sociology.
- Born 2/28/83 in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

MANE FACTS

- While growing up in South Carolina, Cohen was a fan of the Carolina Panthers. His favorite player was RB Stephen Davis, who incidentally was a graduate of Cohen's high school.
- Cohen is a fan of all types of music, from country to hip-hop rap. His current favorite is Sam Cooke.
- During college, Cohen couldn't help but watch the movie, Gladiator a few times a week. He also was a big fan of the movie Training Day.
- Currently, one of Cohen's primary interests outside of football is technology as he tries to keep up on all of the latest gadgetry.
- Cohen has a degree in Public Relations and Social Services management and would like to be a sports broadcaster or analyst after his playing career.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the seventh round (216th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft.

PRO

Cohen is a regular contributor in the team's defensive line rotation, and has appeared in 20 career games (four starts).

- Career defensive totals include: 25 tackles (16 solo).
- As a rookie, he was designated inactive for the first nine games of the season, but played in six of the last seven contests and had an opportunity to contribute on defense and special teams.
- He was drafted by the Lions in the 2008 NFL draft and was the 27th Ohio University player to be drafted in the program's history.

2009: Played in 14 games (three starts) this season and made 21 tackles (14 solo) on the season.

- Recorded one solo tackle at New Orleans (9/13).
- Tallied an assisted tackle vs. Minnesota (9/20) and held Vikings' RB Adrian Peterson to 92 yards rushing.
- Made first-career start at Chicago (10/4) and recorded one solo tackle.
- Started and made four tackles (three solo) at Green Bay (10/18).
- Was inactive at Minnesota (11/15) and at Cincinnati (12/6).
- Returned to action and made a career-best five tackles (all solo) at Baltimore (12/13).
- Made one solo tackle-for-loss at San Francisco (12/27).
- Recorded three stops (one solo) including one behind the line-of-scrimmage vs. Chicago (1/3).

COLLEGE

Cohen closed out his four-year career amassing 144 career tackles with 39.5 tackles for loss. He also started a team-high 37 consecutive games over the course of his sophomore, junior and senior year (tied with running back Kalvin McRae).

- Started 12 games in 2007 and finished with a career-high 59 tackles in addition to notching 1.5 sacks for 21 yards, a forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and 12.5 tackles for a loss of 47 yards.
- In 2006, Cohen started in all 14 games, including the MAC Championship game and the GMAC bowl, and recorded 40 total tackles. He was named second-team All-MAC after leading all defensive linemen with 14.0 tackles for loss, which was a career best and ranked tied for 10th on the Ohio single-season list.
- As a sophomore, he started in all 11 games played and recorded 28 tackles (16 solo) and two quarterback pressures on the season and recorded at least one tackle for loss in seven of the last eight games played.
- One of only three true freshman to play in all 12 games in 2004, despite battling a nagging ankle injury during second half of season. Started three times while sharing reps at nose guard.

PERSONAL

Earned all-state, all-area and all-region honors at Spartanburg (S.C.) High School under Head Coach Doc Davis and was a member of the Spartanburg Herald-Journal Fantastic 50.

- Collected 107 tackles, 28 quarterback pressures and 6.0 sacks during his senior year.
- Helped the Vikings win the state championship during sophomore season.
- Participated in the Service Learning Program.
- Also a four-year letterman in track.
- Son of Charles and Carolyn Ragin.

LOUIS DELMAS

Safety
Western Michigan 2nd Year
Ht: 5-11 Wt: 202
Born: 4/12/87 North Miami Beach, Fla.
Draft: '09, R2 (33)-Det

MANE FACTS

- While growing up in Florida, Delmas was huge fan of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers mainly because he enjoyed watching fullback Mike Alstott run over defenders.
- Delmas' favorite actor is Chris Tucker. He considers Friday one of the best movies ever made.
- Delmas loves to fish and when he is back in Florida, he drives around with his pole just in case he comes across a fishing spot.
- In the offseason, Delmas will travel to the Bahamas and Tokyo.
- When his career is over, he would like to open up a Boys and Girls club.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (33rd overall) in the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

Hard-hitting safety who flies around the field with speed and aggressiveness. Delmas brings athleticism and toughness to the Lions' defensive backfield.

- One of the league's best, young defensive playmakers.
- Became the first rookie in NFL history and the second player (Rams LB Rod Martin, 1984) ever to register an interception return TD, fumble return TD and a safety in the same season.
- Named to Sporting News 2009 All-Rookie Team.
- During rookie season, named NFL Defensive Player of the Month for September.

2009: One of the NFL's top defensive rookies, Delmas recorded 91 tackles (63 solo), eight passes defensed, two interceptions, a safety, one fumble recovery, four special teams tackles and two defensive touchdowns (INT-TD and FR-TD). Delmas scored more defensive points than any rookie in the NFL and ranked third overall in that category (one Int-TD, one Fum-TD, one safety). His 14 defensive points in a season ranked second all-time in team history. Only third rookie in Lions history to record two defensive touchdowns and the first to do so in 42 years. Was named Defensive Rookie of the Month for September and nominated for same award in November. Ranked first among rookie defensive backs and third among all rookies with 94 tackles (65 solo) (including special teams tackles) according to NFL.com rankings.

- Started at FS in season opener at New Orleans (9/13) and notched six solo stops, one pass defense and returned a fumble for a 65-yard touchdown.
- Recorded first career sack for a loss of two yards at Chicago (10/4) and added four tackles (three solo) and a special teams tackle.
- Made nine tackles (seven solo), including a tackle for loss, at Green Bay (10/18).
- Notched first career interception at Seattle (11/8) for 29 yards which set up a Lions touchdown. Also added five tackles (two solo) and a career-high two passes defensed.
- Did not play at Minnesota (11/15) due to a tooth infection.
- Returned to the starting lineup and made eight tackles (six solo) vs. Cleveland (11/22).
- Scored first career safety while making six tackles (four solo) against Green Bay (11/26).
- Set a career-high as he led the team with 10 tackles (five solo) at Cincinnati (12/6).
- Left game early (ankle) at Baltimore (12/13) after making two tackles.
- Returned an interception 101 yards for a touchdown (longest in the NFL in 2009) while also contributing eight tackles (three solo) vs. Arizona (12/20). The 101-yard interception return is the longest by a Lions rookie, tied for the second longest and is the fourth 100-yard interception return ever by a Lions player.
- Delmas was the first rookie in NFL history to register an interception return for a touchdown (101t vs. Arizona 12/20/09), a safety (vs. Green Bay 11/26/09) and a fumble return for a touchdown (65t at New Orleans 9/13/09) in the same season. He is the second player in NFL history to accomplish the feat (L.A. Rams LB Rod Martin in 1984).
- His 101-yard interception return is the second longest in NFL history (considered longest in modern NFL history) by a rookie since Columbus B Pete Barnum (102 yards) vs. Canton September 26, 1926.

COLLEGE

Delmas started in 44 of 45 games at Western Michigan, 33 at free safety and 11 at cornerback as he began his career as a left cornerback before moving inside to free safety as a sophomore. He became just the 14th player in school history to register 300 or more tackles in a career, finishing tied for eighth on that record list with 310 hits. He also appeared on special teams and saw brief action as a receiver in the 2008 Texas Bowl.

- In 2008, Delmas led the Broncos with a career-high 111 tackles (61 solo) and earned All-American status for the first time. Also had four interceptions, including one that he returned for a touchdown. His 111 hits ranked sixth among the nation's defensive backs during his final season.
- All-American Dream Team choice by The NFL Draft Report, adding All-MAC first-team honors from the league's coaches. Earned MAC Defensive Player of the Week honors vs. Northern Illinois and Illinois.
- In 2007, started nine of 10 games played in, recording 64 tackles (48 solos), ranking fifth on the team. Earned All-MAC second-team honors.
- As a sophomore in 2006, started 11 games at free safety. Finished third on the team with 53 tackles (39 solos), coming up with 0.5 stops for minus one yard. Caused and recovered a fumble, as he deflected five passes and intercepted four others for 52 yards in returns.
- During his freshman season in 2005, started all 11 games at left cornerback. Ranked third on the squad with 82 tackles (54 solos), the most by any first-year player in the MAC during 2005. Also had 1.5 sacks for minus 7 yards among his four stops behind the line of scrimmage and recovered two fumbles and registered one safety.
- Freshman All-American second-team selection by College Football News. Added All-MAC second-team honors after deflecting a team-high eight passes and pacing the Broncos with three interceptions.

PERSONAL

Attended North Miami Beach (Fla.) High School, where he was teammates with fellow Western Michigan players Daniel Marks and E.J. Biggers.

- Was voted his team's best defensive back three straight seasons.
- Broke school records for single game and career kickoff return yardage, as he collected 178 tackles with three interceptions on defense and had 61 receptions for 841 yards and seven touchdowns on offense.
- Brother Greg Joseph,plays safety at Florida Atlantic.
- Born April 12, 1987 in Fort Pierce, Florida.

12th Year
Wt: 275
Aplington, Iowa

MANE FACTS

- DeVries is one of four players out of Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa) High School to be currently playing in the NFL despite the fact that the school's enrollment is only 200 students. The other three in the league are Casey Wiegmann (KC), Aaron Kampman (Jax) and Brad Meester (Jax).
- Nominated high school coach Edward Thomas (Aplington-Parkersburg H.S.; Parkersburg, Iowa), who was named the 2005 NFL High School Football Coach of the Year by the NFL.
- On the morning of June 24, 2009, Thomas was fatally shot while supervising workouts in the football team's weight room. In 2010, The Ed Thomas Family was named the recipient of the Arthur Ashe Courage Award presented annually at the ESPYs to individuals who contributions transcend sports. "The Thomas family showed us how people can come together under extraordinary circumstances that would normally drive them apart," said John Skipper, ESPN executive vice president, content. "For that reason, we honor the Thomas family as the recipient of the 2010 Arthur Ashe Courage Award."
- In May 2009, DeVries, along with brothers Jay and Darian and family friend Dusty Hanson, opened "Brothers Market" in Parkersburg, Iowa. The opening of the store represented a significant piece to a community rebuilding after it was ravaged by a tornado a year earlier (May 25, 2008). In January 2010, they opened a second store in Cascade, Iowa.
- Jared's brother, Darian, is an assistant coach for Creighton University's Men's Basketball team, and has been with the program since 1998.
- Helped to purchase and shop for emergency relief supplies for Hurricane Katrina victims in 2006.
- Regular participant in annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament and Detroit Lions Invitational Golf Tournament that raises over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Donated Lions' home game tickets to the Children's Hospital of Michigan and Our Children's Homestead through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Honored as the Lions 2004 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, which recognizes men of courage in the NFL.
- Attended 16th annual Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.

- Placed on Active/Physically Unable to Perform (PUP) by the Lions to began the team's 2001 training camp. Placed on Reserve/PUP by the Lions August 28, 2001 and was activated off Reserve/PUP list October 27, 2001.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round (70th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft.

PRO

Entering his 12th season, DeVries brings toughness to the position and is a dual threat as a run-stopper and a pass rusher. He continues to be a vital part of the team's rotation on the defensive line.

- Has played in 120 career games with 32 starts. Career totals include 185 tackles, 16.5 sacks, seven forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries.
- On Special Teams, he has registered ?? career blocked kicks and has played on kickoff return unit during his career.
- He had a career-high 6.5 sacks in 2007 and followed up with a career-high 29 tackles as a starter in 2008 before an injury forced him onto the Reserve/Injured list after nine games.

2009: Spent the season on Reserve/Injured after suffering an Achilles injury during training camp.

COLLEGE

Holds Iowa's career record with 43 sacks and 79 tackles for loss.

- All-Big Ten first-team honors as a senior for third-straight season. Associated Press and Football News All-American second-team selection as a junior in 1997 as well as the team's Co-Most Valuable Player, starting every game at left defensive tackle.
- Earned Big Ten and ESPN Player of the Week honors for effort vs. Michigan (11 tackles, three sacks and an interception).
- Football News All-American third-team pick as a sophomore in 1996 as his 22 tackles for loss tied the school season record.
- Started every game as a freshman in 1995, recording 54 tackles (26 solo), 12 sacks and 19 tackles for loss, and earned MVP honors in the 1995 Sun Bowl vs. Washington.

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (56th overall) in the 1992 NFL Draft.

PRO

The 19-year veteran, and one of the NFL's most productive kickers, is the Lions' all-time scoring leader with 1,835 points as well as the all-time leader in field goals (427) and extra points (554). Hanson is only the sixth player in NFL history to connect on 400 career field goals. With a 51-yarder at Indianapolis (12/14/08) Hanson recorded his 41st 50+-yard field goal and set the all-time record for 50+-yard field goals in his career by surpassing Morten Andersen.

- Hanson is the first kicker in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50+-yard field goals in a single season.
- In 2008, he was named to the Lions 75th Season All-Time Team.
- Hanson became only the eighth player in NFL history to surpass the 1,700-point mark in 2008, and with 1,835 career points he ranks fourth in all-time scoring amongst active players and seventh all-time.
- Also hold the record making 24 consecutive field goals of 40+ yards.
- Hanson ranks first in every statistical category for a place kicker in Lions history with longest field goal (56), field goals made (427), field goals attempted (522), points scored (1,835), extra points made (554) and extra points attempted (562).
- He is also the franchise leader in games played with 287 and is the franchise's all-time leader in seasons played with 18.
- Hanson, who made Pro Bowl appearances following the 1997 and 1999 seasons, has led the Lions in scoring in each of his 18 pro seasons, one of two active players to lead his team in scoring for at least 18 seasons. He is the only player in NFL history to lead the same team in scoring for the first 18 years of their career.
- He is a five-time winner of the Lions' Yale Lary Special Teams Player of the Year Award (1993, '99,'03, '06 and '08).
- Has connected on 385-of-443 (.869) career field goal attempts inside the 50-yard line and is a remarkable 270-of-285 (.951) from inside the 40-yard line for his career.
- Hanson has proved to be a valuable asset to the Lions as the team is 68-61 (.527) in his career when he kicks two-or-more field goals in a game, 39-19 (.672) when he makes three-or-more and 17-4 (.810) when he converts four field goals in a contest.
- In addition, Hanson has made 17 game-winning, fourth quarter or overtime kicks during his career (10 in regulation; seven in overtime).
- The Spokane, Wash., native has only missed eight extra points in his career (554-of-562) and has been perfect in PAT tries in 11 different seasons (1992-93, 1995-96 and 2000-02, 2004-06, 2009).
- Hanson has been quite accurate at Ford Field since the Lions began play there in 2002, going 115-for-131 (.878) on field goal attempts, which include five fourth-quarter or overtime game-winners and a long of 54 yards. He has made the second-most field goals at home (112) in the NFL since 2002.

2009: Made 21 of 28 field goals (.750) he attempted. After a pre-season knee procedure kept him out of action for a few weeks, his leg strength progressed well each week. He was credited with a special teams tackle against Seattle (11/8).

- Connected on two field goals of 47 and 24 yards respectively in season opener at New Orleans (9/13). Also added three extra point kicks.
- Connected on two field goals of 30 and 48 yards vs. Minnesota (9/20) and added a PAT.
- Hanson made his first two field goals vs. Pittsburgh (10/11). His 20-consecutive field goal streak was snapped when he missed a 49-yarder in the third quarter.
- Appeared in his 276th career game, the most in franchise history vs. Pittsburgh (10/11) and connected on two field goals of 46 yards.
- Hanson moved into second place on the Lions' all-time list for consecutive field goals made with 20 straight successful field goals dating back to the Lions' game at Carolina November 16, 2008. Hanson surpassed K Eddie Murray's streak of 19 that he had during the 1988-89 season. His streak ended in the third quarter when his 49-yard attempt was no good.
- Hanson registered an NFL record for consecutive field goals made (24) of 40+yards. Prior to his 49-yard miss vs. Pittsburgh (10/11), he made his previous 24 kicks from 40-49 and 50+ yards. His streak started on Thanksgiving Day vs. Green Bay 11/22/07.
- Played in his 279th game at Seattle (11/8) which is a Lions franchise record. Hanson connected on 2-of-3 field goals in the game for 41 and 50 yards respectively.
- 50-yard FG at Seattle (11/8) was his 42nd of his career, extending his NFL record. It also was his 10th consecutive 50-yard field goal he has made, which is the second-longest streak in NFL history.
- Kicked a season-high five PATs including the game-winner with no time remaining to give the Lions a 38-37 victory vs. Cleveland (11/22). The match-up marked Hanson's 281st career game, a Lions franchise record.
- Surpassed 1,800 career points when he connected on a PAT after the Lions' first touchdown (Brown's 26-yard touchdown reception) of the game. It was his fourth point of the game. He became the seventh player in NFL history with 1,800 career points.
- Connected on all three of his field goal attempts (42, 28 and 32 yards) vs. Chicago (1/3), finishing the year on a 6-6 streak dating back to his 37-yard kick vs. Arizona (12/20).
- Hanson's 11 points vs. Chicago were a season high and by connecting on both of his extra point attempts, He finished the season 25-25 on PATs, marking the 11th season that he has been perfect on his PAT attempts and the first such season since 2006 when he went 30-30.

COLLEGE

- Made 57.1 percent of his field goal tries (20-of-35) from 50 yards-or-longer, setting Washington State and Pac 10 records.
- His 20 field goals from 50 yards-or-longer set an NCAA mark, topping the previous career mark of 16 by Tony Franklin of Texas A&M (38 attempts, 1975-78), and his 39 collegiate field goals of 40 yards-or-longer surpassed Russell Erxleben of Texas' NCAA career record of 32.
- Holds the school record with 328 points, topping the old mark of 248 points by Steve Broussard (1986-89).
- Kicked at least two field goals in a game 20 times, surpassing Kevin Butler of Georgia's NCAA record (17, 1981-84).

- Holds WSU's all-time records with 63 field goals and 139 conversions.
- All-American third-team selection by the Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft and Football News as a senior in 1991.
- All-Pac-10 first-team choice as a punter and second- team pick as a kicker his senior year.
- Led the team with 58 points his senior year and led the conference with 55 punts for 2,245 yards (40.8 avg).
- Kicked a 62-yard field goal that year, setting the record for the longest field goal without a tee in NCAA history.
- Set a conference record by making 7-of-9 field goals from 50 yards-or-longer in 1991 as well, one shy of the NCAA season mark.
- All-American choice as a punter by ESPN his junior year in 1990.
- Unanimous All-American first-team pick as a sophomore in 1989.
- GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American pick who received a Bachelor of Science degree in premed from Washington State, possessing a 3.8 grade point average.

LIONS TALES

PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premier was held Thursday, October 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

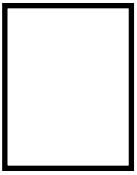

The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.

The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in September. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s. The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

IN MEMORIAM

Several members of the Detroit Lions served in World War II and made the ultimate sacrifice for their country in the fight against fascism.

- Lt. Charles Behan was killed by Japanese machine gun fire on Okinawa, May 18, 1945.
- Sgt. Alex Ketzko was killed in France with Patch's Seventh Army, Dec. 23, 1944.
- Lt. Chet Wetterlund was killed flying a Navy Hellcat on night patrol along the New Jersey coast, Sept. 5, 1944.

PRO

Harris continues his progress as one of the league's most productive and punters. Harris is the team's all-time leader in punts (537), punting yards (23,056) and third in gross punting average (42.93).

- Since 1976 when net punting became an official statistic, Harris has the highest net punting average (36.2) and most punts downed inside the 20-yard line (165) among Lions punters.
- He is a valuable asset in terms of the battle for field position. In his first four full seasons with the Lions (signed for last 11 games in 2003), Harris increased his gross punting average—40.9 in 2004, 43.5 in 2005 and 45.0 in 2006, and he registered his second highest punting average in 2007 with 44.3.
- Harris also increased his net punting average from 2004-06 with 34.2 in 2004, 36.9 in 2005 and 38.7 in 2006, and he recorded his third-highest net average of his career in 2007 with 36.4.
- In 2006, he finished strong with two top-10 rankings amongst NFL punters as he was fifth in gross punting (45.0 avg.) and tied for eighth in net punting (38.2 avg.).
- He had one of the best outings in the NFL in 2005 while proving to be one of the league's most accurate punters as he led the NFL with a net differential (punts downed inside the 20-yard line minus the number of touchbacks) of 32. Harris' 34 punts downed inside-the-20 was the highest in the league.
- He played the 2001-02 seasons and the first five games of 2003 with the Cincinnati Bengals.

2009: Averaged 42.9 yards on 74 punts. Had 20 punts inside the 20-yard line with just five touchbacks. Established Lions career punting records for punts (537) and punting yards (22,056) and punts downed inside the 20-yard line (165). Set a team record (since 1976) with a 41.6 net punting average for the month of November.

- Punted five times for 208 yards (41.6 avg.) with two landing inside the 20-yard line at New Orleans (9/13).
- Tallied six punts for 241 yards (40.2 avg.) with three landing inside the 20-yard line vs. Washington (9/27).
- Recorded 7 punts for 324 yards (46.3 avg.) with three landing inside the 20-yard line and no touchbacks vs. St. Louis (11/1).
- Punted three times for 154 yards giving him a season-best average of 51.3 vs. Green Bay (11/26). Finished with a season-high net average of 48.7 while downing two of his punts inside the 20 with no touchbacks. In addition, he booted a season-long 56 yard punt.
- Assisted on a special teams tackle at Cincinnati (12/6).
- Averaged 47.0 yards on five punts at Baltimore (12/13). The 47.0 yards per punt was his fourth-highest of the season and highest among games with at least four punts.
- With 188 punt yards at San Francisco (12/27), Harris became the Lions' all-time leader in punt yards with 22914, surpassing that mark of 22,893 set by Jim Arnold (1986-93).
- Punted three times for 142 yards vs. Chicago (1/3), downing one inside the 20 with one touchback. Harris' 47.3 average was his third-best of the season. In the game, Harris recorded a net average of 40.3 yards per punt.
- With three punts vs. the Bears, Harris became the Lions' all-time leader in punts with 537, surpassing Jim Arnold's 536.

COLLEGE

Regarded by many as the premier punter in college football during his Cal career where he averaged 42.3 yards per punt, and his 13,621 total yards broke previous NCAA mark of 12,947 by TCU's Cameron Young.

- Placed 92 of his punts (28.6 percent) inside-the-20.
- Earned consensus All-American honors in 2000.
- Had his best season average, 44.7 yards, as a junior in 1999.
- Well-conditioned athlete who had Cal's fastest 10-yard dash (1.77) and second-best 20-yard shuttle time (4.17).

PERSONAL

Attended Westview (Ariz.) High School where he earned National Coaches' Association All-America honors as a senior with 42.3-yard punting average.

- Also earned prep all-state honors as a linebacker and saw action on offense as a receiver and a rusher.
- All-state prep soccer player as well.
- Holds a bachelor's degree in American studies and a master's degree in education from the University of California.
- Married to wife, Heather, and they have twins, Drew and Halle.
- Full name is Nicholas John Harris.

MANE FACTS

- Hill earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. St. Louis (11/16/08), where he became the first 49ers quarterback to post a perfect QB rating in the first half.
- Loves to fish. Quarterback started reeling in fish inhabiting farm ponds in his home state of Missouri during high school. When he lived in Minnesota as a member of the Vikings, Shaun caught a 30-inch, 9-pound walleye on his first trip out. He was able to lure the fish using a leech for bait 40-feet deep. Also in his fishing repertoire is a 48-inch muskie.
- Shaun owns all of the weightlifting records for quarterbacks at Maryland - power clean (303 lbs), bench press (320 lbs), and squat (500 lbs).
- Has supported the Muscular Dystrophy Association.
- Hosts annual fundraising golf tournament at high school alma mater to benefit booster club.
- Hosts annual football camp in conjunction with the Parsons Police Football League.

TRANSACTIONS

- Acquired by the Detroit Lions via trade from the San Francisco 49ers March 16, 2010.
- Signed by the San Francisco 49ers as an unrestricted free agent June 2, 2006.
- Signed as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Minnesota Vikings April 25, 2002.

PRO

As a proven, veteran quarterback, Hill adds valuable depth to the team's quarterback position. Has accumulated a 10-6 record as a starter and is 7-1 when starting at home.

- Career .625 winning pct. as a starter is the fourth-highest winning percentage among all undrafted quarterbacks since 1970 (min. 10 starts).
- All 16 starts at quarterback occurred while with the San Francisco 49ers (2006-09) and winning percentage (.625) is the third highest winning percentage in 49ers history.
- In his first NFL start, he set a record for the highest completion percentage in NFL history for a player making his first pass attempts.
- Originally entered the league as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2002 with Minnesota where he served primarily as the team's third quarterback from 2002-05.
- While with Minnesota, he worked with Lions Offense Coordinator Scott Linehan from 2002-04 while Linehan served in the same role for the Vikings.

2009: Started the first six games of the season for the 49ers and was 87-of-155 for 943 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions.

Completed 11 seasons in the NFL, and 2009 was the first with the Lions after signing as a free agent. He spent the first 10 seasons of his career with the Washington Redskins.

- Has played in 137 career games with 125 starts.
- Jansen reunited with Lions' current starting left tackle Jeff Backus after the two played for three years together at the University of Michigan.
- In 2008, Jansen was part of 14 games with 11 starts and inactive for two with a left MCL sprain.
- When healthy, he was part of an offensive line that was instrumental in RB Clinton Portis' success as he had the second-most rushing yards (1,487) in a single-season in club history.
- Jansen also opened up running lanes for Portis to post more than 120-yards rushing in five consecutive contests. Portis became only the second player in NFL history with 120 rushing yards in five consecutive games twice in a career (O.J. Simpson in 1973 and 1975). Portis also tied a club record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (five straight contests), a record shared by Rob Goode (1951), Portis (2005) and Ladell Betts (2006). In that five-game span (Week 3-8).
- Jansen helped pave the way for the Redskins to average 174.6 rushing yards per game, the most over that game span in the NFL.

2009: Served as backup offensive lineman and contributed on field goal protection unit.

- Inactive for five games: at New Orleans (9/13), at Chicago (10/4), at Green Bay (10/18, at Seattle (11/8) and vs. Cleveland (11/22).
- Recorded first start since signing with the Lions as he replaced Gosder Cherilus (injured shoulder) at right tackle vs. Pittsburgh (10/11).
- Started at left guard for the first time as a Lion vs. St. Louis (11/1) alongside former college teammate T Jeff Backus.
- Saw time at right tackle at Minnesota (11/15) after Gosder Cherilus left the game with a knee injury.
- Part of an offensive line that gained 161 yards on the ground, including Maurice Morris' 126 rushing yards vs. Arizona (12/20).

COLLEGE

A two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection at Michigan and set a school record with 50 straight starts, all at right tackle, earning the nickname "Rock."

- As a senior in 1998, was named a First-Team All-American by the Burger King American Football Coaches Association. He paced Michigan's down linemen with 106 knockdowns on an offense that gained 4,955 yards.
- Was Michigan's co-captain as a senior and junior and fortified an offense that posted 4,652 yards en route to the National championship.

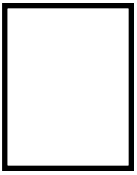

PERSONAL

Earned All-Midwest and Detroit News Blue Chip honors as a tight end at Clawson High (Mich.).

- Posted 68 career catches and made 202 tackles, 4.0 sacks and four interceptions at linebacker to earn Oakland County Defensive MVP honors.
- Jansen is married to wife, Martha, and has two daughters, Lucy and Ruby. Also has four dogs, Rocket, Roscoe, Diesel and Tug.
- Was a guest host on the Redskins' pregame show on Comcast SportsNet in 2007.
- Was a contributing writer for SportingNews' NFL Draft coverage.

MANE FACTS

- Growing up Johnson enjoyed watching WR Jerry Rice and the San Francisco 49ers. He thought Rice was a great role model and a guy that he could one day be like.
- A fan of all types of movies, Johnson also likes to watch some classic television shows like Good Times, the Cosby Show, Martin and The Fresh Prince.
- Johnson owns a collection of watches that he labels as exquisite time pieces.
- The first thing Johnson likes to do in the offseason is to try and take a vacation out of the country to get away for awhile and re-cap the season and his personal performance as well as think of the things that he can do better than the year before. Also during the offseason, Johnson is currently in the process of starting a home preservation company.
- After his playing career, Johnson would like to be able to help youth who excel in sports and people that were in the same situation that he was in and teach them that school is very important. He'd like to help the youth prepare for college and prepare for life.

MANE FACTS

- Grew up a huge LSU and New Orleans Saints fan. His family had Saints season tickets and he attended every single home Saints game from birth to age 13, and he watched every away game with parents on TV. Proud to say he never missed a game!
- Favorite Saints players include: Ricky Jackson, Pat Swilling, Craig "Ironhead" Heyward, Sam Mills, Bobby Hebert and Dalton Hilliard.
- While with Dallas, despite an intense rehabilitation schedule for his knee Peterman got involved in the Dallas-Ft. Worth community. He attended a local Arlington (Texas) high school football game to present the Bank of America/Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week award and $2000 grant.
- Set-up the Stephen Peterman Foundation to provide aid to disadvantaged children and to enhance the lives of terminally ill children in Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions February 17, 2009 to a five-year deal (through 2013).
- Placed on the Reserve/Injured list by the Lions November 20, 2009.
- Signed to the Lions active roster on December 13, 2006.
- Signed to the Detroit Lions practice squad October 17, 2006.
- Released by the Dallas Cowboys August 23, 2006.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by the Cowboys September 4, 2004.
- Drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the third round (83rd overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft.

PRO

The sixth-year player is a tough, physical offensive guard who has manned the right guard spot for most of the past three seasons. He signed a long-term deal with the Lions in 2009 and will be counted on to help anchor the Lions interior offensive line.

- Has played in 42 career games (38 starts).
- Peterman first signed to Detroit's practice squad in 2006 and was promoted to the active roster for the team's final three games.
- The following year, he was inserted into the starting lineup at right guard in Week 4 due to injuries and played himself into a full-time starting role and has since started 38 games over the past three seasons.
- He began his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 2004 but a knee injury slowed down his progress early in his career.

- Started at right guard in season opener at New Orleans (9/13).
- Was part of an offensive line that allowed 129 rushing yards on 34 carries vs. Minnesota (9/20).
- Started at right guard vs. Washington (9/27) and was part of an offensive line that allowed for 154 yards on the ground, including Kevin Smith's 101 rushing yards.
- Left the game with a foot injury at Minnesota (11/15).

COLLEGE

An All-America and All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection as a senior, Peterman was a team leader and anchor of an offensive line that helped lead the LSU Tigers to the SEC title and a win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl to capture the 2003 national title.

- For his career, he appeared in 48 games at LSU, starting 35. He moved to right guard in his senior season, after starting 25 games over the previous two years at left guard, and allowed just one sack while playing a major role in leading an offense that averaged 418.4 yards-per-game.
- A first-team All-Southeastern Conference pick as a junior, Peterman started the entire season at left guard and allowed only one sack.
- Peterman started his collegiate career as a tight end and spent his freshman season at defensive end.
- He made the switch to offense as a sophomore and started all but one game at left guard during a very successful second season, allowing only one quarterback sack.
- He played a key role in the Tigers 10-3 season that featured a win over second ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game and a 47-34 win over No. 7 Illinois in the Sugar Bowl.

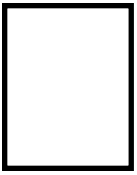

PERSONAL

Peterman attended St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, Miss.

- He was rated the 18th best player in Mississippi by Super Prep Magazine and was a first-team all-state selection and a two-time all-district choice.
- As a senior, Peterman caught 14 passes for 150 yards and one touchdown and was rated the best tight end in the state.
- He was selected for the Mississippi All-Star Game.
- He also played basketball in high school.
- Peterman majored in general studies at LSU.
- Despite an intense rehabilitation schedule for his knee, Peterman got involved in the Dallas-Ft. Worth community.
- He attended a local Arlington high school football game to present the Bank of America/Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week award and $2000 grant.
- He also set-up the Stephen Peterman Foundation to provide aid to disadvantaged children and to enhance the lives of terminally ill children in Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas.
- In the spring of 2005 and 2006, Peterman joined forces with fellow Louisiana State University (LSU) alumnus David Toms to host the Stephen Peterman Foundation and David Toms Foundation Fort Worth Dinner in Fort Worth, Texas.
- Proceeds from the fundraising dinner benefited Happy Hill Farm Academy/Home - a residential school/farm where socially and academically disadvantaged youth are given a second chance to prepare for a productive future – and the David Toms Foundation.
- He is married to the former Colleen Scheyd, and the couple has three sons, Stephen Frederick Jr., Timmy and Gerard.

BRANDON PETTIGREW

Tight End
Oklahoma State 2nd Year
Ht: 6-5 Wt: 265
Born: 2/23/85 Tyler, Texas
Draft: '09, R1 (20)-Det

For complete and updated biographical information, visit...

MANE FACTS

- Growing up in Texas, Pettigrew was naturally a Cowboys fan and his favorite players were QB Troy Aikman and WR Michael Irvin. He was also a fan of WR Jerry Rice.
- Goes bowling every week, often with teammates, and has around a 200 average.
- His favorite musical artist is Lil' Wayne; favorite actor is Denzel Washington; favorite movies include Man on Fire and Book of Eli.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by the Lions December 1, 2009.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (20th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

Pettigrew is a big, athletic tight end who has the ability to stretch the field as a receiver and aggressively block at the line of scrimmage.

- Started in the first 11 games of his career before a knee injury on Thanksgiving Day vs. Green Bay (11/26) forced him out for the remainder of his rookie season.
- Led all NFL rookie tight ends in 2009 with 30 catches for 346 yards, and was tied for the most receiving touchdowns (two).
- Regarded by many as the most complete tight end to enter the 2009 NFL Draft, the Lions selected Pettigrew in the first round (20th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

2009: Started the first 11 games for the Lions, making 30 catches for 346 yards (11.5 avg.) and two touchdowns before a knee injury ended his season.

- Started in a two-tight end set in season opener at New Orleans (9/13).
- Was one of four rookie starters in season opener: QB Matthew Stafford, S Louis Delmas and DT Sammie Hill. It was the first time Detroit has had four rookie starters on opening day since 1978 when DB Luther Bradley, DE Al Baker, T William Fifer and G Homer Elias made their starting debut.
- Caught four catches, including his first career catch, for 40 yards vs. Minnesota (9/20). Also added one special teams tackle.
- Caught four passes for 64 yards (16.0 avg.) including a career-long 28-yard catch on a tight-end screen pass from Stafford at Chicago. (10/4).
- Recorded three catches for 27 yards, including a long of 19 vs. Pittsburgh (10/11).
- Recorded first career touchdown on a 7-yard pass from QB Matthew Stafford at Seattle (11/8). Also posted a career-high seven receptions for 70 yards on the day. His seven catches were the most by a Lions tight end since David Sloan registered seven at Arizona November 14, 1999.
- Suffered a season-ending knee injury vs. Green Bay (11/26).

COLLEGE

Just the second tight end in Oklahoma State history to hear his name called in the first round of the draft, joining Reuben Gant (1974, Buffalo). Pettigrew ended his collegiate career ranked ninth overall on the school's receiving yardage record list with 1,450 and averaged more than 54 knockdown blocks per season for the Cowboys.

- A physical open-field runner who gained more than 40 percent of his yardage after the catch.
- Became first tight end in school history to amass more than 100 receptions (112) in a career.
- In 2008, he had just 11 receptions through the team's first seven games, but finished with a career-high 42 catches for 472 yards (11.2 avg), despite not finding the end zone. 23 of his receptions produced first downs (54.76%), as he converted 4-of-9 third-down (44.44%) and 1-of-2 fourth-down plays.
- All-American Dream Team and All-Big 12 Conference selection by The NFL Draft Report as a senior. Finalist for the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's top tight end
- Three of his catches were for 20 yards or longer, as he also had key receptions to set up five scoring drives. 11 of his catches came inside the red zone, including eight on goal-line plays. Made 43 knockdowns, including eight touchdown-resulting blocks.
- Started all 13 games in 2007, ranking third on the team with 35 receptions for 540 yards (15.4 avg) and four touchdowns. Added one solo tackle in the Oklahoma clash and led the conference's tight ends. Also paced the Cowboys with ten touchdown-resulting blocks, as his 72 knockdowns were a league-high for tight ends. All-Big Twelve Conference first-team selection.
- Started all 13 games as a sophomore in 2006, ranking third on the team with 24 receptions for 310 yards (12.9 avg), including four touchdowns. Also recorded six tackles (three solo) and recovered a fumble. Registered 71 knockdowns that included eight touchdown-resulting blocks..
- All-Big Twelve Conference honorable mention.
- Played in every game in 2005, starting nine contests, including the final seven. Finished fifth on the team with eleven receptions for 128 yards (11.6 avg). Scored his only touchdown on a 3-yard reception vs. Baylor. Posted 30 knockdowns and four touchdown-resulting blocks.
- Redshirted as a freshman (2004).

Attended Robert E. Lee (Tyler, Tex.) High School, earning All-State honors in 2003.

- Despite playing primarily as a blocker, he was rated as the best tight end in Texas by numerous recruiting services.
- The All-District and All-East Texas choice also competed on the defensive line.
- Son of Elaine and Henry Pettigrew. Born February 23, 1985.
- Was an education major at Oklahoma State.

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions March 13, 2005 to a five-year contract extension.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (50th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft.

PRO

Raiola is in his 10th season in the NFL, all with the Detroit Lions, and his ninth as the starting center. Utilizes tremendous quickness, tenacity and intelligence to anchor the team's offensive front.

- Named team captain four-straight seasons (2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009).
- Has played in 140 career games (124 starts).
- In 2008, a hand injury forced him to miss his first career game and start vs. Jacksonville (11/9/08), he had the second most consecutive starts (104) behind Denver C Casey Wiegman (120) and Atlanta C Todd McClure (120) since 2001.
- In 2006, Raiola emerged as one of the most effective all-around centers in the league with his ability to get outside and block on the perimeter and to get to the second level.
- In 2004, he centered an offensive line that developed into one of the top run-blocking lines in the NFL as the offensive line led the way for a rushing attack that ranked second in the NFL over the final seven games of the season.

2009: Named team captain for fourth-straight season.

- Started at center in season opener at New Orleans (9/13).
- Was part of an offensive line that allowed 129 rushing yards on 34 carries vs. Minnesota (9/20).
- Started at center vs. Washington (9/27) and was part of an offensive line that helped produce 154 yards on the ground, including Kevin Smith's 101 rushing yards.
- Started at center and filled in at long snapper after Don Muhlbach was injured at Baltimore (12/13). Made first tackle of the season on special teams.
- Started at center vs. Arizona (12/20) and was part of an offensive line that gained 161 yards on the ground, including Maurice Morris' 126 rushing yards.

COLLEGE

Turned pro after playing three seasons at Nebraska, but was a four-year collegian (redshirted in 1997).

- Cornhuskers' first freshman offensive lineman to start a game since Rob Zatechka in 1991.
- The two-time Nebraska Lifter of the Year finalist set a school record with 140 knockdown blocks (11.67 per game) as a sophomore in 1999, only to better that mark as a junior in 2000 with 145 (13.2 per game).
- Besides on-field accolades, he garnered Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors the last two years while making the conference's honor roll three times.
- In 2000, he was an All-American first-team selection by the Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association, rated the best center in the country by The Sports Xchange, a finalist for both the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top lineman and a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection.
- Junior year was first full year as starter and was named a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection, the first sophomore Nebraska offensive lineman to earn such honors since Dave Rimington in 1980 and was a member of Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl Team.

PERSONAL

Three-year starter on the offensive line for St. Louis High School in Honolulu.

- Team went undefeated in each of his last three years and ranked 15th nationally in 1996, winning its 11th straight state championship.
- Earned first-team all-state honors as a junior in 1995 and as a senior in 1996.
- Also a National Honor Society member, a three-year scholar-athlete and ranked sixth in his class of 180.

Draft: '07, R4(117)-Det

MANE FACTS

- Participated in the Lions annual Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball Tournament which raised over $85,000 for DLC.
- After he started playing football in high school, Ramirez's teammates nicknamed him 'Munoz,' a reference to former Bengals T Anthony Munoz, who was the first Hispanic American to be inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. At first Ramirez didn't know who he was, but after doing some research on him, he developed a great respect for him as a person and a player.
- Enjoys watching anything with actor/comedian George Lopez.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions as a restricted free agent March 26, 2010.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the fourth round (117th overall) in the 2007 NFL Draft.

PRO

Strong, physical guard who adds bulk to the Lions interior offensive line. Has appeared in 18 career games (15 starts).

- Saw most action of his career playing in 13 games with 12 starts in 2009.
- In 2008, Ramirez saw action in four games and had a career-high three starts at guard.
- As one of the most physical linemen in Texas Tech's history and arguably one of the most talented, Ramirez was one of the top offensive linemen in the Big 12.

2009: Appeared in 13 games with 12 starts at left guard.

- Inactive for season opener at New Orleans (9/13).
- Started at left guard and was part of an offensive line that allowed 129 rushing yards on 34 carries vs. Minnesota (9/20).
- Started at left guard vs. Washington (9/27) and was part of an offensive line that allowed for 154 yards on the ground, including Kevin Smith's 101 rushing yards.
- Inactive at Green Bay (10/18) and vs. St. Louis (11/1).

COLLEGE

Part of the most explosive aerial attacks in the nation during his four years at Texas Tech, as the Red Raiders led the nation during that span with 19,947 yards passing, an average of 398.9 yards per game. He was known at Texas Tech for his intelligence and leadership on the field as he called all the blocking schemes the last two years and served as the line's mentor for the younger players--blocking unit reduced the team's total of sacks allowed from 36 in 2005 to 19 in 2006. Started all but one game as a senior; missed Iowa State game with injury.

- All-Big 12 Conference first-team pick by The NFL Draft Report and the Austin American Statesman, and added second-team accolades from the Dallas Morning News and honorable mention from the league's coaches.
- Captained offensive line that allowed only 19 sacks, which was 17 better than the 36 allowed in 2005.
- The four-year starter's upper-body strength is off the charts, and was considered one of the strongest college offensive linemen. Tremendous strength and explosion off of the line. He twice set the school bench press record, leaving the school with a 550-pound press in 2005, after first establishing the record with a 525-pound lift in 2004.
- Second-team All-Big 12 Conference selection by the league's coaches as a junior.
- Set a school lifting record with a 550-pound bench press during spring training, topping his own mark of 525 pounds set in 2004.
- Benched a team-record 525 pounds at the "Night of Champions" in the Spring of 2004.
- Moved into the starting lineup at right guard in the fourth game of the 2003 season vs. Mississippi and would remain there for the final nine contests.
- Allowed only 1.5 sacks and posted 11 TD-resulting blocks.
- The offense was dominant throughout the year, leading the nation with 582.77 yards per game in total offense and 475.31 yards per game in passing. The Red Raiders also ranked fourth nationally with an average of 42.46 points scored per game.
- Redshirted as a true freshman.

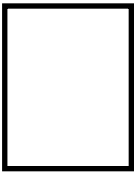

PERSONAL

Attended Willowridge High School in Houston, Texas, and played for high school coach David Scurlock.

- Rated as the No. 95 prospect in the state by Superprep recruiting magazine and was named to Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Top 100 and Fort Worth Star-Telegram Top 100.
- First-Team All-District 20-5A selection as a junior and senior
- Married to wife, Iris.
- Majored in exercise sport science at Texas Tech.
- Son of Rosalinda and Manuel Ramirez. Has two siblings, Angel and Rosalinda.
- Born Manuel Ramirez February 13, 1983 in Houston, Texas.

Draft: '06, R2 (61)-Den Acquired: '10, T-Den

MANE FACTS

- Growing up in Chelsea, Michigan, Scheffler was a Lions fan all the way through his college career and up until he was drafted by Denver. He was able to go to a lot of the games and even participated in the punt, pass and kick contest at the Silverdome.
- Scheffler is a big fan of reality TV shows, in particular Jersey Shore, and often gets sucked into watching shows like The Hills and the Real Housewives with his wife.
- Goes through the same routine prior to every game using the same athletic tape and stretches. Scheffler also listens to country music to mellow out and goes through his iPhone to look at pictures of his daughters, which helps him appreciate what got him to where he is today.
- Was a huge sports card collector growing up and just recently got back into the hobby, including having a large collection of sports memorabilia.
- Sometime in the near future Scheffler would like to open up a gym in the area as part of his plan to give back to the kids and the community.
- Scheffler is hoping for a long and successful career in Detroit and looks forward to being imbedded in the area, passing along to kids what he's learned over the years.

TRANSACTIONS

- Acquired via trade by the Detroit Lions from the Denver Broncos April 19, 2010.
- Selected by Denver in the second round (61st overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft.

PRO

Tight end Tony Scheffler was acquired by Detroit from Denver in a three-team trade in April 2010. Scheffler has spent the previous four years of his career with the Broncos and finished the 2009 season tied for fourth on the club with 31 receptions while ranking third on the team with 416 receiving yards through 15 games played with nine starts. Over the span of his four-year career, Scheffler has recorded 138 receptions for 1,896 yards and 14 touchdowns through 57 games with 28 starts.

- Led all NFL tight ends and set a Denver single-season record for tight ends with a 16.1 yards per reception average in 2008 that helped him register a career-high 645 receiving yards (40 receptions), which ranked eighth in the league at his position.
- Placed second on the Broncos in receptions (49) and receiving yards (549) in 2007, ranking 10th and 11th, respectively, in the league among his position group in those categories.
- Set a Broncos record for touchdown receptions (four) by a rookie tight end in 2006 and recorded 18 catches for 286 yards (15.9 avg.) during his first professional season.
- Owns eight receptions of at least 30 yards for his career, including a personal-best 72-yard grab that he made on Monday Night Football at Oakland (9/8/08).

2009: Played in 15 contests with nine starts and tied for fourth on the club with 31 receptions while ranking third on the team with 416 receiving yards.

- Recorded an interception at Cincinnati (9/13) on the game's last play as a deep free safety on the Bengals' Hail Mary attempt. Also had a 2-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter.

MANE FACTS

- Favorite movie is 40 Year Old Virgin.
- Growing up, Simpson was a Dallas Cowboys fan and the player he looked up to the most was Deion Sanders.
- Before every game Simpson used to eat a snickers bar. It was started by his mom when he was a kid. He still tries to do it every now and then, but he has kind of got away from it.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions as a restricted free agent April 6, 2010.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list November 25, 2009.
- Acquired by the Detroit Lions via trade with the Buffalo Bills September 4, 2009.
- Drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the fourth round (105th overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft.

PRO

Acquired by the Lions from Buffalo for an undisclosed 2010 draft pick September 4, 2009. Simpson has shown, when healthy, that he can be a force in the secondary.

- Has played in 41 career games (32 starts) and has recorded 172 tackles, three interception, 10 pass defense, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and two special teams tackles.
- After suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week 1 of the 2007 campaign, Simpson staged a strong return in 2008. In his first game back, he posted four tackles (two solo) vs. Seattle (9/7). For the season, Simpson recorded 64 tackles, including a season-high 11 tackles at New England (11/9). His 64 tackles ranked third among Bills defensive backs.

2009: Acquired from Buffalo for an undisclosed 2010 draft pick September 4. Appeared in eight games with five starts at SS.

- Saw time on special teams in season opener at New Orleans (9/13).
- Recorded first interception of the season vs. Washington (9/27) for a gain of 8 yards. Also added two solo tackles and a pass defensed.
- Inactive due to hamstring injury vs. Pittsburgh (10/11).
- Inactive at Green Bay (10/18) with hamstring injury.
- Returned to the starting lineup at SS vs. St. Louis (11/1) and recorded five tackles (three solo) and a pass defensed.
- Posted a team-best nine tackles (all solo) at Seattle (11/8). Also added a pass defensed and a fumble recovery.
- Made a team-high eight stops (seven solo) at Minnesota (11/15).
- Left game vs. Cleveland (11/22) with a knee injury.

COLLEGE

Started all 23 games in his two years at South Carolina, producing 164 tackles (72 solo). He added 3.5 stops for losses of 9 yards, 15 pass deflections and had five fumble recoveries, returning two for touchdowns. Simpson gained 110 yards on seven interception returns.

- In 2005, he was selected as an All-American first-team selection by the Football Writers Association and CBS Sports.
- Unanimous All-Southeastern Conference first-team pick (2005).
- Led the SEC and Gamecocks defensive backs with 103 tackles (72 solos) after starting every game.
- In 2004 named Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year by the Associated Press, adding Freshman All-American honors from the Football Writers Association of America and The Sporting News. Second-team All-SEC pick by the league's coaches and Associated Press.
- Tied for the conference lead and ranked third in the nation with six interceptions for 94 yards in returns. His six interceptions were the most by a Gamecock in one season since 1997.

PERSONAL

Simpson was a defensive standout at Rock Hill (S.C.) High School for head coach Jim Ringer.

- Led team to Class AAA State Championship in 2002, recording 112 tackles with four interceptions and six pass break-ups his junior year.
- Caught 22 passes for 525 yards and four touchdowns as a junior on the offensive side.
- Born Yukota Simpson November 9, 1983 in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

MANE FACTS

- During the Lions' dramatic 38-37 last second, come-from-behind win against Cleveland at Ford Field when he set an NFL rookie passing records for yards (422) and tied a record for touchdowns (five), Stafford was mic'd up by NFL Films for that memorable win. Stafford suffered a shoulder injury on the last timed play of regulation. Following a pass interference penalty in the endzone and a Browns timeout, Stafford forced himself back on the field for one more throw that resulted in the game winning touchdowns to TE Brandon Pettigrew. As published in the Detroit Free Press: NFL Films president Steve Sabol said Stafford "earned a lasting place in the cinematic folklore of the NFL." Stafford was wired for sound when he suffered an AC joint separation, came back and threw the winning touchdown with no time left against the Browns. Sabol called it "the most dramatic player wiring ever" -- and NFL Films has wired more than 350 players since 1965.
- Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week and was voted Rookie of the Week for Week 11 of the 2009 season.
- Attended Highland Park High School in Dallas, Texas, the same high school that Lions Hall of Famers QB Bobby Layne and RB Doak Walker attended. Layne and Walker led the Lions to NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. Layne also led the team to the 1957 NFL Championship.
- While growing up in Texas, he was fan of the Dallas Cowboys.
- After his football career, he would like to either coach or work in broadcasting and then one way or the other play a lot of golf.
- Among his favorite TV shows are: Entourage and Eastbound and Down; favorite movies: Blood Diamond and Gladiator; favorite actor/entertainer: Will Ferrell.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured by the Lions December 26, 2009.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (1st overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

As the Lions starting signal caller, Stafford combines great arm strength and accuracy with exceptional ability to read opponent's defenses to lead the team's offense.

- Rookie campaign was highlighted by his 13 touchdowns passes (Lions rookie passing record) and his gritty performance against Cleveland when he threw for an NFL record 422 yards and tied a league single-game rookie record with five touchdown passes.
- Selected by the Lions with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft and was named the team's starting quarterback to start the regular season. He was the youngest player to start the regular season at quarterback since drew Bledsoe in 1993.

2009: Completed 201-of-377 passes (53.3) for 2,267 yards during his rookie campaign. His 13 touchdown passes is a Lions' rookie passing record. Was one of four rookie starters (TE Brandon Pettigrew, S Louis Delmas and DT Sammie Hill) in season opener. It was the first time Detroit has had four rookie starters on opening day since 1978 when DB Luther Bradley, DE Al Baker, T William Fifer and G Homer Elias made their starting debut). First Lions rookie quarterback to start the season since QB Greg Landry in 1968. Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 11) and voted Pepsi Rookie of the Week (Week 11) for his efforts in Lions 38-37 win vs. Cleveland (11/22)

- Made his first career start in the season opener at New Orleans (9/13). Completed 16-of-37 passes for 205 yards and ran in for a 1-yard touchdown.
- Stafford (21 years, 218 days old) was the youngest quarterback to start a season opener since QB Drew Bledsoe (21 years, 203 days old) started for the New England Patriots in the 1993 season opener.
- Connected on his first career passing touchdown on a 8-yard pass to WR Calvin Johnson vs. Minnesota (9/20). Completed 18-of-30 passes for 152 yards.
- Completed 21-of-36 passes for 241 yards and a touchdown for a passer rating of 87.8 vs. Washington (9/27). Engineered three scoring drives (two TDs and one FG).
- Connected on 24-of-36 passes for 296 yards, a touchdown and an interception for a quarterback passer rating of 89.6 at Chicago (10/4).
- Stafford's 221 passing yards in the first half at Chicago (10/4) were the most by a Lions passer since QB Jon Kinta garnered 314 yards in the first half at Philadelphia (9/23/07). Since 1995, Stafford's 221 passing yards in the first half was the fourth highest tally by a Lions passer in the past 15 seasons.
- Inactive-third quarterback vs. Pittsburgh (10/11) and at Green Bay (10/18) due to knee injury.
- Returned to the starting line-up vs. St. Louis (11/1) and completed 14 of 33 passes for 168 yards. Also scored on a 4-yard rushing touchdown for his second rushing score of the year. Stafford has either thrown or run for a touchdown in all five games he has started this year.
- Connected on 22 of 42 passing attempts for 203 yards and two touchdowns at Seattle (11/8). Set career high with two touchdown passes, including a 7-yard pass to TE Brandon Pettigrew and a 29-yard pass to WR Bryant Johnson.
- Reached career highs for both attempts (51) and completions (29) for 224 yards and no interceptions at Minnesota (11/15) and passed for his sixth career touchdown on an 8-yard strike to TE Will Heller.
- Had a record-setting game vs. Cleveland (11/22) in which he completed 26 of 43 passes for a career-high and NFL Rookie Record (previous was Arizona QB Matt Lienart, 405 yards 11/26/06) 422 yards and tied the NFL Rookie Record with five passing touchdowns (tied with Chicago QB Ray Buivid 12/5/37).
- His 422 yards are the third-highest Lions' single-game total and are the most yards thrown for by a Lions' quarterback in a win.
- Stafford became just the second rookie in NFL history to throw for five touchdowns in a game and shattered the Lions' previous rookie-high of two. His five touchdowns were thrown to five different receivers.
- At 21 years, 288 days old, Stafford was the youngest player in NFL history to pass for five touchdowns in a game. Buivid accomplished the feat at 22 years, 112 days old.
- The five touchdowns also tied for the most by a Lions quarterback in team history (Gary Danielson vs. Minnesota 12/9/78).
- Stafford completed a 75-yard touchdown to Calvin Johnson to set a career-long play. After injuring his shoulder at the end of the game, Stafford returned for the game's final play, connecting on a 1-yard touchdown strike to fellow rookie TE Brandon Pettigrew on an untimed down (following a defensive pass interference penalty) for the game-winning score.
- Against the Browns, he led the Lions to a 38-37 win after overcoming three different deficits (21, 3 and 6 points). It was his first career fourth quarter comeback win.
- Stafford's 112.7 passer rating against the Browns was the fourth highest single-game passer rating (highest by rookie quarterback) with over 40 pass attempts since 1970.
- With his 54-yard touchdown pass to WR Calvin Johnson at Cincinnati (12/6), Stafford set the Lions' rookie passing record for touchdowns.
- With the touchdown pass to Johnson against the Bengals, Stafford has thrown or rushed for a touchdown in each of his 10 starts this season. He has also registered touchdown passes in each of the past five games.

COLLEGE

LIONS TALES

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

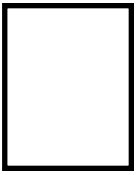

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five players on the Lions' All-Time Team played college football in the Lone Star State, including : QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A&M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Layne, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Joining those stars on the franchise's All-Time Team are Texas prepsters CB Dick "nigh Train" Lane (Austin) and RB Billy Sims (Hooks). Layne, Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pride of the Lions charter class.

In fact, those roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were friends as children. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

That connection has been revisited with the Lions drafting QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker. He was joined in the first round of 2009 NFL Draft by another Texas prep star when the Lions drafted TE Brandon Pettigrew who is from Tyler, Texas.

- Texas Tech: C Dylan Gandy (Harlingen), G Manny Ramirez (Houston), G Daniel Loper (Houston)
- Texas A&M: LS Don Muhlbach (Lufkin)
- Texas Christian: RB Aaron Brown (Katy), Marvin White
- Stephen F. Austin: WR Contrevious Parks (Killeen)
- Others Texas prepsters: LB Caleb Campbell (Perryton), T Jason Fox (Fort Worth), CB Chris Houston (Austin), LB Landon Johnson (Lubbock), TE Brandon Pettigrew (Tyler), QB Matthew Stafford (Highland Park)

- In one of the most unique fundraisers ever staged, Vanden Bosch organized the "KVB Birthday Brawl," which combined the worlds of pro football and pro wrestling, as Titans players teamed up with the superstars of TNA Wrestling for a wrestling event at The Wildhorse Saloon. The November 2008 event raised more than $90,000 for foundation and its efforts to fund the first KVB Media Center at the Andrew Jackson Boys & Girls Club in Nashville.
- In 2009, Vanden Bosch received the Sydney F. Keeble Distinguished Service award from the Boys and Girls Club for outstanding contributions to the agency. He shared the honor with teammate Casey Cramer.
- Vanden Bosch started the KVB S.A.C.K. (Supporting and Assisting Charities for Kids) Foundation in 2008. The foundation aims to give children more opportunities for success in life. Website: www.kvb93.com.
- His father, Doug, owns D&L Masonry, a construction company in Larchwood, Iowa, while his mother, Bonnie, is an accountant. Kyle began working for his father's company when he was just 12 years old, hauling bricks, cement and other materials. He says he owes much of his strength and work ethic to his experience with his father's business.
- Kyle and his older brother, Keith, played in high school together in Larchwood. Keith went on to star at Northwestern College in Iowa.
- Vanden Bosch has shaved his head since he was a freshman in college. The Nebraska defensive line members traditionally shave their heads at the start of camp, and Vanden Bosch decided to keep the look ever since.
- As a senior at Nebraska, he was one of six Div. 1-A players to garner National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete honors. He also received one of the most prestigious awards in the nation for student athletes, the St. Vincent de Paul Draddy Scholar-Athlete Award, which includes a $25,000 post-graduate scholarship.
- Vanden Bosch enjoys spending time at a close friend's property in Winner, South Dakota, one of the country's best locales for pheasant hunting. He also is a big fisherman and spent a lot of time catching catfish at a lake near his home in Arizona during his career there.
- List of favorites: (movie) "Scarface"; (TV show) "World Poker Tour"; (actor) Al Pacino; (music group) Rascal Flatts; (school subject) math; (car) Chevy Avalanche; (video game) Big Game Hunting; (vacation getaway) his cabin in Town Creek, Ala.; and (food) cheeseburgers.

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the seventh round (213th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

Started 36-of-49 games at North Carolina State, including 28 at right defensive end and eight more on the left side. Recorded 194 tackles (109 solos) with 20.0 sacks for minus 140 yards, 46.0 stops for losses totaling 235 yards and 29 pressures. Caused four fumbles and recovered two others. Deflected 11 passes and intercepted three others for 42 yards in returns, including a touchdown. Young became just the sixth player in school history to register 20.0 sacks during a career, joining Mario Williams (25.5, 2003-05), Tyler Lawrence (24.0, 1990-93), Carl Reeves (22.5, 1991-94), Manny Lawson (21.0, 2002-05) and Mike Jones (21.0, 1987-90).

- Young's eight sacks in 2009 tied for seventh place on the school's season-record chart.
- One of five Wolfpack defenders to record at least 40 tackles for loss in a career, as only Mario Williams (55.5, 2003-05) had more than Young's 46.0 on the school's all-time record chart.
- His 15 stops for loss in 2007 tied Levar Fisher (2000), Pat Thomas (2003) and Mario Williams (2004) for seventh on State's season-record list.

2009: Second-team All-ACC selection. Started all 12 games for the first time during his career, leading the team in sacks and tackles for loss. Finished sixth on the squad with 54 tackles (32 solos). His eight sacks for minus 56 yards ranked third in the ACC and tied for 35th in the nation. Also finished third in the conference and tied for 37th in the major college ranks with 14.0 stops for losses totaling 85 yards. Had three pressures, 2 forced fumbles and 3 pass defense, also recorded first career interception.

- Made 52 plays vs. the ground game, allowing 43 yards and just four first downs (0.83 yards per carry), as he made four third-down tackles and stopped ball carriers for no gain eight times.
- Posted three more third-down hits on passing plays and registered 12 tackles inside the red zone, including seven on goal line plays.
- Served as one of the team's three captains, participating in 526 defensive snaps.

2008: Started 11 of 13 games at right defensive end. Participated in a career-best 608 plays, as he led the team with 6.5 sacks for minus 51 yards and 12.5 stops for losses of 72 yards. Also paced the Pack with 10 pressures. Recovered two fumbles, blocked a kick, intercepted one pass and deflected four others.

- Had three sacks, 6.5 stops for loss and seven pressures in the final five games after returning to the lineup from his benching.

2007: Played in all 12 games, starting the final eight contests at left defensive end. Saw action in 590 snaps, leading the team with 5.5 sacks for minus 33 yards. His team-high 15.0 stops for losses of 66 yards are the second-highest total by a sophomore in school annals and ranked fourth in the ACC. Credited with 11 pressures, as he caused 2 fumbles and 3 pass defenses.

2006: Saw action in all 12 games, started five contests, including the last four of the season while sharing right defensive end duties with Martrel Brown. Recorded five quarterback pressures with 4.5 stops for losses of 12 yards and 44 tackles (24 solos).

- Turned his first career interception into a 34-yard touchdown return vs. Clemson. Also added a pass defensed.

PERSONAL

Attended Palm Beach (Fla.) Gardens Community High School, where the three-sport standout competed in football, basketball and track. First-team Class 6A All-State pick, as the defensive end recorded 65 tackles, including 25 for loss, and had 12.0 sacks as a senior.

SUMMARY
The Lions opened the 2009 season against the high powered Saints offense in New Orleans. The Saints started the scoring early, taking the opening kickoff to their own 46-yard line and scoring on a 9-yard pass from QB Drew Brees to WR Marques Colston. After a Lions three-and-out, the Saints' punt return resulted in another short field, and Brees capped that drive with a 39-yard strike to WR Robert Meachem. QB Matthew Stafford then returned to the field and put together his first scoring drive. On first down, he completed a 21-yard pass to WR Calvin Johnson, but later the Lions failed to convert on third down in Saints' territory. K Jason Hanson was on hand to convert the field goal, making the score 14-3. Later in the first quarter, the Saints punted to Lions WR/PR Dennis Northcutt, who split two tacklers and went 43 yards to the Saints' 18-yard line. The Lions then decided to go for the touchdown on 4th-and-1 at the Saints' 4-yard line, and RB Kevin Smith ran it in to cut the Lions' deficit to four points. The Saints again looked poised to score, but Brees' pass was intercepted by CB Anthony Henry in the end zone and returned 26 yards. The Lions gave the ball back soon after, and the Saints drove 65 yards to score on a pass from Brees to TE Jeremy Shockey. With a chance to counter, the Lions punted and the Saints scored again with the same passing combination, making the score 28-10. After the Lions recovered a muffed punt, Stafford was intercepted at the goal-line by Saints' S Darren Sharper, setting up another possible scoring drive for the Saints, which ended with a blocked field goal by DE Dewayne White, sending the teams into halftime at 28-10. Coming out of the break, Stafford completed a short pass to C. Johnson which stretched into a 64-yard gain. Stafford later kept the ball and scored to make the score 28-17. The Saints responded with a field goal after a long drive, 31-17. On the ensuing kickoff, rookie RB/KR Aaron Brown broke through the Saints' coverage for an 87-yard return, but the Lions settled for a field goal to put the deficit back at 11 points. It was short-lived as the Saints returned Hanson's kickoff to their own 42-yard line and scored on a pass from Brees to WR Devery Henderson on their first play from scrimmage. Stafford was then intercepted by Saints' LB Scott Shanle, but on their next play, RB Mike Bell's fumble ball was scooped up by S Louis Delmas and returned 65 yards for a touchdown to make the score 38-27 going into the fourth quarter. The Saints' next possession again ended in a touchdown, this time from Brees to FB Heath Evans, 45-27. The Lions again attempted a comeback, entering Saints' territory. However, Stafford was intercepted a second time by Sharper, allowing the Saints to run out the rest of the clock and come away with a 45-27 victory.

SUMMARY
In their 2009 home opener, the Lions took on NFC North rivals the Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings won the toss and elected to receive, sending the Lions' defense onto the field early to face the run-based attack of the Vikings. The Vikings quickly picked up a first down in the Lions' territory, but a bad exchange caused RB Adrian Peterson to fumble the ball, and it was recovered by LB Ernie Sims. The Lions then used a balanced attack to move 40 yards to the Vikings' 12-yard line, but were forced to take the field goal by K Jason Hanson when they failed to convert, making the score 3-0. After the score, the Lions defense came out strong once again, stifling the trickery of the Vikings on first down and then putting the Vikings in a hole when DE Jason Hunter came up with a sack on QB Brett Favre. On the Lions' next possession, the offense moved the ball well once again into Vikings' territory, but QB Matthew Stafford was intercepted by LB Chad Greenway at the 31-yard line. Despite the turnover, the Vikings were unable to get anything going against the Lions' defense. Led by LB Larry Foote, who had a tackle for a loss and a sack, the Lions forced two three-and-outs to get the ball back. Starting at their own 25-yard line, the Lions used a solid running attack to reach the red zone and the drive was capped off by Stafford's first career touchdown pass—an 8-yard toss to WR Calvin Johnson. Protecting a 10 point lead, the Lions defense took the field once again to try to put the clamps on Minnesota's offense, but the Vikings responded quickly, scoring on a 1-yard pass from Favre to TE Visanthe Shiancoe with just over a minute remaining in the half. The Lions then let the clock run out, heading into the locker room with a 10-7 lead. After halftime, the Lions received and set out to continue their success on offense. Vikings DE Jared Allen sacked Stafford on first down, forcing a fumble that was recovered by TE Brandon Pettigrew. Stafford was sacked again on third down, which ended in a punting situation. The Vikings then tied the game on a 26-yard field goal by K Ryan Longwell. With the game tied and the ball on the Lions' 31 –yard line, RB Kevin Smith fumbled and it was recovered by Greenway. On the Vikings' first play from scrimmage, Peterson appeared to be stopped at the line, but bounced outside and outran the defenders for a 27-yard touchdown to make the score 17-10. Later on in the 4th quarter, the Vikings were once again in Lions' territory and extended their lead with a 46-yard field goal by Longwell. Now trailing by 10 points, Stafford looked to close the gap but was intercepted a second time by Greenway, and the Vikings' linebacker returned the ball to the Lions' 16-yard line. Favre connected on a screen pass to WR Percy Harvin, who eluded defenders to score and make the Vikings lead 27-10. Forced into a passing situation, Stafford led the lions to the Vikings' 30-yard line, but the offense could only come up with a field goal. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by the Vikings, allowing them to keep the ball until the game ended, winning 27-13.

SUMMARY
The Lions entered this contest against the Washington Redskins having won only five times of their last 35 meetings. After receiving the opening kickoff, Detroit was unable to get a drive going and had to punt. Washington moved the ball steadily down the field through the air down to the Detroit 9-yard line and looked to come up with the game's first points, but LBs Larry Foote and DeAndre Levy had two big stops on third and fourth down at the goal line to keep the game scoreless. On the ensuing possession, QB Matthew Stafford engineered a 12 play, 99-yard drive, hitting WR Bryant Johnson from 21-yards out for the touchdown. It was Johnson's first TD catch as a Lion and the offense's longest drive of the season. The Detroit defense forced a quick punt out of the Redskins offense, and the Lions started at their own six-yard line after a nice punt from P Hunter Smith. Once again, the offense was not hindered by the field position. The running game, led by RB Kevin Smith, helped move the offense, but the drive would stall, and the Lions came away with a 39-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson to put the home team up 10-0. The Detroit defense forced a three-and-out, and the Lions took over inside its own 10-yard line for the third time. With a mixture of run and pass, the offense moved down to the Washington 8-yard line, but the Redskins defense held Detroit to another field goal to end the half at 13-0. Washington received to start the second half and needed only four plays to score when QB Jason Campbell connected with WR Santana Moss, who raced down the Detroit sideline 57 yards to make the score 13-7. Both defenses put the clamps until the fourth quarter, when Stafford led the offense on another long scoring drive. This time the Lions went 85 yards in eight plays and handed off to RB Maurice Morris, who took it two yards for the touchdown. After a failed two-point conversion the Lions went up 19-7. Campbell and the Redskins answered back with its own eight play touchdown drive, ending with a four-yard pass from Campbell to RB Rock Cartwright. With 2:36 remaining, Stafford had to eat clock to secure a win. He did his part by completing a gutsy 24-yard pass to TE Will Heller for a first down. However, the Redskins still had three timeouts and the two-minute warning to stop the clock, and eventually the Lions punted to the Washington 22-yard line. After a couple of Campbell passes to TE Chris Cooley, RB Ladell Betts, and Moss, the Redskins entered Lions' territory but were out of timeouts and spiked at the Lions 36-yard line. On the final play of the game, Campbell hit Moss over the middle for a hook-and-ladder, but the game—and the Lions' 19-game losing streak—ended when Foote made the final tackle on Betts.

SUMMARY
Coming off their first win since 2007, the Lions sought to ride their momentum into this divisional contest. On their first possession, the Lions came out firing, with QB Matthew Stafford hitting WR Calvin Johnson for 45 yards on the first play from scrimmage. Later in the drive, an offside penalty against the Bears on a field goal attempt gave the Lions a fresh set of downs and allowed them to score on a 1 yard run by RB Kevin Smith. The Bears wasted no time responding, scoring on a 5 yard scramble by QB Jay Cutler to tie the game at 7-7. With the ball back in their hands, the Lions' offense continued to be efficient, scoring again on a pass from Stafford to TE Will Heller. Ahead 14-7, the Lions' defense forced a three-and-out, but the offense stalled when Stafford was sacked, forcing a punt that was returned deep into Lions' territory by WR Devin Hester. The Bears scored quickly on a pass from Cutler to TE Kellen Davis. After receiving the kickoff, the Lions found themselves in a third-and-long situation. Stafford felt the pressure from the Bear's pass rush and was intercepted by DT Tommie Harris to give the Bears another short field. This time, Cutler completed a short pass to TE Greg Olsen to put the Bears ahead 21-14. The teams exchanged punts and the Lions took control of the ball at their own 2-yard line with 4:51 remaining in the first half. Stafford led the offense 98 yards, ending on Smith's second touchdown run of the day to leave the teams deadlocked at 21 going into halftime. Out of the break, the Bears immediately grabbed control of the game on a 102-yard kickoff return by WR Johnny Knox. A big sack by the Bears' defense put the Lions in another third-and-long deep in their own territory, and they then gave up another big punt return, setting up a field goal by K Robbie Gould to make the score 31-21. The Bears continued to win the field position battle with the Lions, taking another field goal in the third quarter after a fumble by Stafford and constantly forcing the Lions to punt from inside their own territory. In the fourth quarter, the Lions got back on the scoreboard with a field goal by K Jason Hanson to cut the deficit back to 10, but the Bears never let up. RBs Matt Forte and Garrett Wolfe each scored to put the game away for good, ending at 48-24.

SUMMARY
With the reigning champion Steelers in town, the Lions looked to establish themselves against one of the NFL's best teams. The defense forced a three-and-out from the Steelers on their first possession. With the ball on their own 22-yard line, QB Daunte Culpepper, in his first start of 2009, took over. The offense appeared shaky when Culpepper was sacked by LB James Harrison and fumbled on first down, but the ball was recovered and he went on to scramble for 32 yards on third down. The drive ended on a 46-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson. The Steelers then retook the field and scored behind the passing of QB Ben Roethlisberger and the touchdown run of RB Rashard Mendenhall. On the Lions' next possession, Culpepper led the team inside the Steelers' 10-yard line, but an intentional grounding penalty backed them up to create second and goal from the 23-yard line. The Lions would have to settle for another field goal to make the score 7-6. The Steelers again began driving, and Roethlisberger was intercepted by CB Eric King. However, the interception was negated by a controversial roughing the passer penalty and the Steelers scored on a pass from Roethlisberger to TE Heath Miller. A Lions three-and-out gave the ball back to the Steelers very quickly. WR Mike Wallace dropped a wide open pass and Roethlisberger looked to connect with him again, but this time CB William James jumped the route and took the interception 38 yards for the score. Roethlisberger shook off the interception, leading the Steelers into Lions' territory then hitting WR Hines Ward for a 17-yard touchdown to pull ahead 21-13 at halftime. Coming out of the break, the Lions hoped to break their trend of slow starts in the second half. It seemed they would by scoring on their first possession, but Hanson missed a 49-yard field goal. When the Steelers regained possession, they scored on a 47-yard strike from Roethlisberger to Wallace to make the score 28-13. Needing to respond, the Lions marched downfield to the Pittsburgh 28-yard line, but after fumbling the snap Culpepper threw the ball up and was intercepted by S Ryan Clark. In the fourth quarter, the Lions' defense denied the Steelers more points and finally used its pressure to sack Roethlisberger and give the offense a chance. Culpepper moved the ball well and found WR Dennis Northcutt over the middle for a 25-yard touchdown that closed the gap to eight points. The Lions defense shut down the Steelers on the ensuing possession to give Detroit the ball 3:07 remaining along with two timeouts. The Lions moved all the way to the Steelers' 21-yard line, but the Steelers' sense of urgency kicked in and their pressure sacked Culpepper on three straight plays. When the final Hail Mary was knocked down, the Steelers had sealed their 28-20 victory.

SUMMARY
The Lions traveled to Lambeau Field to take on the Packers and try to end a dry spell in Green Bay dating back to 1991. On the opening kickoff, a Packers touchdown was nullified by an offensive holding penalty, and rather than taking the 6 points, they started on their own 20-yard line. WR Greg Jennings made a one-handed grab on third down to extend the drive, and later QB Aaron Rodgers connected on a 47-yard touchdown to WR James Jones. The Lions first possession began with two plays for a loss of yardage, then on third down QB Daunte Culpepper's screen pass was intercepted by DE Cullen Jenkins. With a short field in front of them, the Packers scored again quickly on a pass from Rodgers to FB John Kuhn to make the score 14-0. The Lions then registered another three-and-out to give the ball back to the Packers, who succumbed to the Lions' pressure and were stopped in their own territory. After connecting with WR Dennis Northcutt and a 9-yard run by RB Kevin Smith, the Lions entered the Packers' end of the field but were put in a fourth-and-one situation. The Lions chose to go for the first down instead of taking the points, but were stopped and the Packers took control of the ball.The Lions' defense stopped the Packers once again, but the offense failed to get anything going and continued to have to punt away to Green Bay. One their next try, the Packers came away with a 46-yard field goal by K Mason Crosby. Another Lions' drive was stopped short when Culpepper was sacked on third down, and the Packers returned the punt 45 yards all the way to the Lions' 29-yard line. The Lions were able to hold Green Bay to three points with the help of a sack by LB Julian Peterson, but Crosby's kick made the score 20-0. The Lions attempted to run the two-minute drill with 1:52 left in the half and were forced into another fourth down. P Nick Harris came out under center and handed the ball off to RB Aaron Brown, but the Packers were up to the task and made the stop to take the ball and kick a field goal to go into halftime ahead 23-0. Looking to come out of the locker room and mount a comeback, the Lions took the field. Culpepper tweaked a hamstring, bringing QB Drew Stanton into the game. The drive ended with another punt, and Green Bay drove 70 yards but again were only able to come up with a field goal, which would be the final score of the game. Stanton was intercepted on the next drive, which led to the Packers retaking possession and moving down to the Lions' 3-yard line. Peterson prevented a score by sacking Rodgers and forcing a fumble, which was recovered by LB Larry Foote. The Lions punted once again, and with the Packers continuing to move the ball, Rodgers was intercepted by LB DeAndre Levy, his first career interception. Stanton led the Lions inside the Packers' 10-yard line, but another interception ended the Lions last chance to score, and sent them into their bye week with a shutout loss.

SUMMARY
After a bye week that was used to review the first part of the season and allow players to heal, the Lions got set to host the winless St. Louis Rams at Ford Field. This game marked the return of rookie QB Matthew Stafford, who missed two games due to an injured knee. The other big news on the injury front was WR Calvin Johnson, who missed his second straight game since injuring his knee against Pittsburgh (10/11). The Lions received the opening kickoff and looked to establish the run game immediately with four straight carries by RB Kevin Smith. The drive appeared to be moving before a holding penalty and later a dropped pass on third down led to a punting situation. When the Rams got the ball, they too looked to establish the run with RB Steven Jackson. On a critical third down, LB Julian Peterson was flagged for roughing the passer which extended the Rams' drive, ending in a field goal by K Josh Brown. The Lions sought to respond quickly and put together their longest drive of the day. Beginning at their own 20-yard line, Stafford led the team 68 yards to the Rams' 12-yard line. On third-and-ten, Stafford's receiver dropped yet another pass and it was intercepted by S James Butler in the end zone. Butler attempted to return the interception and left the end zone, but was later ran back into the end zone on his own and was tackled by Smith for a safety to make the score 3-2. Dropped passes continued to plague the Lions' offense and they were unable to get into scoring range, giving the ball back to the Rams. Near the end of the half, the Rams drove into Lions' territory and were faced with a fourth down. They set up to try to convert the fourth down, but then called a timeout and came out of it with their field goal personnel in place. The Lions were fooled by a fake on what would have been a 53-yard field goal attempt, and Brown passed to a wide open TE Daniel Fells, who staved off a tackle to score. The teams entered the locker room at halftime with the score at 10-2. Late in the third quarter, the Rams found themselves deep in the Lions' end of the field once again. As QB Marc Bulger threw, the ball was tipped in the air and then intercepted by DE Dewayne White, who was tackled at the spot. Re-energized by the turnover, the Lions drove and connected on a 36-yard pass from Stafford to WR Bryant Johnson to put themselves inside the Rams' 5-yard line. After a 1-yard gain, Stafford dropped back to pass and scrambled to the end zone for the touchdown. The Lions attempted the two-point conversion and Stafford found the open RB Maurice Morris to tie the game at 10-10. Later on, the Rams were pinned on their own 2-yard line but got out behind the running of Jackson, allowing them to flip field position and pin the Lions with their punt. The Rams got the ball back and were helped into Lions' territory by a pass interference call. They then used runs of 17 and 25 yards by Jackson to score and take the lead 17-10 with 1:38 remaining. With the ball at their own 20-yard line, The Lions had a play erased by offsetting penalties and were pushed back to the 10-yard line by holding. The next three attempts fell incomplete to end the comeback try.

SUMMARY
Playing in a hostile environment, like Qwest Field, the Lions could not have asked for a better start. The Lions went up 17-0 in the opening quarter; however five turnovers and nine penalties allowed the Seahawks to come from behind and win 32-20. On the opening drive, K Jason Hanson missed a 34-yard Field Goal off the right goal post. The frustration was short lived as QB Matt Hasselbeck was intercepted on their first play by S Louis Delmas, who returned it 29 yards to the Seahawks 2-yard line. The offense capitalized when QB Matthew Stafford connected with TE Brandon Pettigrew for a 7-yard touchdown pass. FB Justin Griffith fumbled on the Seahawks first play of the ensuing drive after LB Julian Peterson stripped the ball and S Ko Simpson recovered. Two plays later, Stafford hit WR Bryant Johnson in the end zone for a 29-yard touchdown pass. Again, the defense came up big as LB Larry Foote stopped RB Julius Jones on fourth-and-one. Penalties forced a Jason Hanson 41-yard field goal. The Seahawks offense would answer back with a 10-play, 60-yard drive that ended in a 3-yard touchdown run from Jones. Once again, the Lions offense started with good field position, but Stafford was picked off at the Seattle 22-yard line by LB David Hawthorne. The Seahawks would move down inside the Detroit red zone, but only came away with a K Olindo Mare 37-yard field goal. After Stafford was intercepted again, Mare connected from 37 yards once more to make the score 17-13 at halftime. Both teams traded punts to start the second half before Mare connected on another field goal, this time from 24 yards. After a Lions punt, the Seahawks capped a 7 play, 68-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown catch by WR T.J. Houschmandzadeh to give the Seahawks a 22-17 lead. Trying to be too aggressive on the next possession, Stafford under threw a deep pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson and was picked off by Hawthorne again. The Seahawks came away with a Mare 20-yard field goal. Highlighted by RB Kevin Smith's 31-yard run, the Lions would answer when Hanson connected from 50 yards out. After Detroit's defense forced a three-and-out, the offense was stalled by a Stafford interception; however the defense gave him another chance with just over two minutes left. The offense moved almost to midfield but an ill-advised throw by Stafford was picked off by CB Josh Wilson, who returned it 61 yards for a touchdown to make the score 32-20.

SUMMARY
The Lions headed to Minnesota to play the Vikings for the second time this season. The Vikings were fresh coming off a bye week, while the Lions played their second-straight road game after losing to the Seahawks in Seattle. The Vikings received the opening kick and immediately began moving the ball behind the passing of QB Brett Favre to WR Sidney Rice. The Lions, however, were able to hold the Vikings to a field goal by K Ryan Longwell by stopping them inside the 5-yard line. On the Lions' first possession, the drive was stalled when a pass from QB Matthew Stafford to WR Derrick Williams was short of the marker. On fourth down the Lions elected to punt, but an offsides penalty gave them a fresh set of downs. The Lions couldn't advance the ball anymore and tried for a 48-yard field goal, but it was missed by K Jason Hanson. Another long pass for the Vikings brought them into Lions' territory, but an attempt at trickery went foul when RB Adrian Peterson's pitch to WR Percy Harvin fell to the turf and was recovered by DT Sammie Hill. The Lions couldn't score off the turnover and punted away to the Vikings. After exchanging punts, the Vikings connected yet again on a 43-yard pass from Favre to Rice, setting up a 22-yard scamper for Peterson to make the score 10-0. The Lions' offense struggled to produce, putting up another three-and-out possession and giving the ball back to the Vikings. On the ensuing drive, the Vikings had the ball at the Lions' 1-yard line and ran the ball with TE Jeff Dugan. He was stopped at the line by DT Grady Jackson. After another punt, Peterson broke free of the Lions' defense and had open field in front of him, but he was caught from behind by CB Phillip Buchanon, who punched the ball into the end zone where it was recovered by LB Jordon Dizon for a touchback. In the two-minute drill, a few completions to WR Calvin Johnson got the Lions in field goal range and the teams went into the break at 10-3. The Lions received the kickoff in the third quarter, and RB Kevin Smith fumbled the ball on the first play. The Vikings took advantage and Peterson scored after two carries for 28 yards. Determined to make up for the turnover, the Lions drove deep into Vikings' territory. On third down, Stafford was sacked and fumbled, but a penalty for a helmet-to-helmet hit negated the play and gave them a fresh set of downs. Stafford hit TE Will Heller for the score to cut the deficit to 17-10. At the start of the fourth quarter, another bomb from Favre to Rice put the Vikings in scoring position, Favre found Dugan in the end zone. Another Lions' possession found them punting, and the Vikings added another Longwell field goal to make the score 27-10. With the clock running out, the Lions tried to convert some fourth downs but were unsuccessful, allowing the Vikings to run out the clock and complete their victory.

SUMMARY
After trading field goals on the opening drives, the Browns took advantage of big plays to jump ahead by 21 points in the first quarter. Browns QB Brady Quinn threw three touchdowns to three different receivers. At the end of the quarter, Lions QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions back into the game, and a 78-yard drive was capped off by a 26-yard run off a screen pass by rookie RB Aaron Brown. The Lions' defense then stopped the Browns, who punted away. Stafford orchestrated another drive, finishing with a 25-yard strike to RB Kevin Smith. Another Browns punt followed, pinning the Lions at their own 6-yard line. The Browns' defense forced the Lions into a 3rd-and-1, but two consecutive offside penalties on DT Shaun Rogers gave the Lions breathing room. Stafford then found WR Calvin Johnson wide open in the middle of the field for a 75-yard touchdown, and the extra point tied the game at 24. With the clock running out on the half, the Browns faked a field goal with a pass from K Phil Dawson to WR Mike Furrey, but S Louis Delmas stopped him from scoring. The Browns kicked the field goal and went into halftime with a 27-24 lead. In the third quarter, the Lions' defense held up again and later Stafford hit Johnson again for a long gain, setting up a 1-yard touchdown to TE Will Heller to give the Lions their first lead at 31-27. The Browns punted on their next possession and pinned the Lions. Stafford took an intentional grounding penalty in the end zone and gave a safety to the Browns to make the score 31-29. The Browns then scored again on a pass from Quinn to TE Michael Gaines and got the two-point conversion to go up 37-31. Stafford was intercepted with 3:40 remaining, and the Browns tried to run out the clock. The Lions used their two timeouts and the two minute warning to stop the clock on 3rd-and-5. The Browns threw the ball and it fell incomplete, then punted to the Lions with 1:46 remaining. The Lions took chunks of yards and spiked multiple times to stop the clock. On the final play, Stafford scrambled and heaved the ball into the end zone, where it was intercepted, and was hurt on the play. A flag was thrown for pass interference and the Lions were given one untimed down at the 1-yard line. Due to Stafford's injury, QB Duante Culpepper was set to take the final snap when Cleveland called a timeout. Stafford had the awareness to know he could return for the play and willed himself into the game. Stafford then hit rookie TE Brandon Pettigrew for a 1-yard touchdown to tie the game and set a record for most touchdowns thrown by a rookie with five. Hanson then hit the extra point to complete the Lions' comeback win.

SUMMARY

SUMMARY
The Lions headed down to Cincinnati to take on the Bengals, who were fresh off a win to sweep their division in 2009. The Lions received the ball to begin the game but were stopped at their own 42-yard line. The punt by P Nick Harris was returned 25 yards by Bengals PR Qwan Cosby to put them in good field position. The Lions' defense turned up the intensity to force the punt that bounced into the end zone for a touchback, but the next drive stalled out again. On the Bengals' next drive, QB Carson Palmer's pass was intercepted by CB William James. The Lions used a double play-fake to get the Bengals' defense to bite, and QB Matthew Stafford found WR Calvin Johnson wide open for a 54-yard touchdown and an early 7-0 lead. The Lions controlled the game through the rest of the first quarter and the early second quarter. On third-and-11, Stafford dropped back to pass, but the ball was tipped by DE Michael Johnson, then caught and returned for a touchdown by DE Jonathan Fanene. The Bengals then forced a three-and-out from the Lions and got in position for a deep play of their own, connecting on a 36-yard pass from Palmer to WR Chad Ochocinco. From that point forward, the Lions struggled to move the ball on offense but held the Bengals at bay. At the end of the first half, the Bengals kicked a field goal to go into the break leading 17-7. Coming out of halftime, the Bengals received the kickoff and used 6:57 of clock before taking a field goal to lead 20-7. Through the rest of the third quarter, the Lions failed to gain any ground on offense, but the defense continued to hold strong. CB Phillip Buchanon sacked Palmer and forced a fumble that was recovered by DE Dewayne White. In the fourth quarter, the Bengals came up with another clock-consuming drive that culminated in a field goal, giving the Lions some chance of coming back with two touchdowns and two 2-point conversions. On that next drive, the Lions moved into Bengals' territory but Stafford was intercepted. The Bengals looked to seal the game with another score, but only two plays later Palmer's pass was intercepted by CB Anthony Henry. Starting from their own 48-yard line, the Lions used passes from Stafford to RB Kevin Smith and RB Maurice Morris to get within scoring range, but the Bengals forced them into a fourth down situation. Stafford was hit on the play, re-injuring his non-throwing shoulder that was first hurt on the game-winning drive against Cleveland. After the turnover on downs, the Bengals tried to run out the clock but the Lions were able to get the ball back with 2:56 remaining. QB Daunte Culpepper replaced the injured Stafford and completed a 38-yard pass to Johnson to put the ball at the 2-yard line. Smith ran the ball in the cut the deficit but the two-point conversion failed. The onside kick attempt was then recovered by the Bengals, who kneeled on the ball for the last 1:36 to secure the 23-13 victory over the Lions.

SUMMARY
In the driving rain in Baltimore, the Lions took on the Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium. With the Ravens desperate for a win to stay in the AFC playoff picture and the Lions looking to end a lengthy road losing streak, both teams started the game looking for a victory. The Lions received the opening kickoff and began moving the ball behind the running of RB Kevin Smith. At midfield the Lions failed to convert and had to punt away to the Ravens. Ravens RB Ray Rice began his day with a 52-yard scamper into the Lions' territory. On third-and-eight from the Lions' 12-yard line, Rice caught a pass from QB Joe Flacco and looked like he was on his way to the end zone, but LB Larry Foote popped the ball loose and it went out of bounds in the end zone for a Lions touchback. On the Lions' next possession, QB Daunte Culpepper threw an interception but it was nullified by a roughing the passer penalty. The Lions kept the ball and got it into field goal range, but K Jason Hanson missed a 45-yarder. For the rest of the first quarter, the Lions' defense held strong allowing only a 38-yard field goal by K Billy Cundiff. Early in the second quarter, the Lions once again moved the ball into Ravens territory, but failed to convert on third down and had to punt. Flacco then connected with WR Derrick Mason, who broke two tackles and ran 62 yards for a touchdown to make the score 10-0. The Lions' response was a 15 play, 69 yard drive that took them inside the Ravens' 10-yard line. They couldn't get the touchdown, but Hanson hit the field goal to cut the deficit to seven points. Rice then broke another long run of 59 yards for a touchdown. At the end of the half, the Lions tried to make up some points, but Culpepper was intercepted and the Ravens got another field goal to lead 20-3 at the break. The Ravens received the ball to begin the half, and put together a steady drive highlighted by a 34-yard pass from Flacco to WR Demetrius Williams to the Lions' 3-yard line. FB Le'Ron McClain punched the ball in to make the score 27-3. Throughout the rest of the third quarter, the Lions couldn't muster up any offense and the Ravens scored two more touchdowns behind the running of RB Willis McGahee. In the fourth quarter, the Lions began to move the ball more but struggled to convert on several third down and fourth down situations. The Ravens' final score came with just over five minutes remaining on a scramble by QB Troy Smith. The Lions had one final possession to try to put some points on the board but were unable to convert, giving the ball back to the Ravens for the final three minutes of the game.

SUMMARY
With the defending NFC champions coming into Ford Field, the Lions faced another test against a team battling for a playoff spot. For the second straight week, QB Daunte Culpepper started for the Lions and RB Maurice Morris also started for the first time in place of RB Kevin Smith. The Lions took the opening kickoff and Morris started quickly, but the drive ended in a punt. When the Cardinals' potent passing attack took the field, the Lions were able to get good pressure on QB Kurt Warner to force a three-and-out. The next possessions for each team failed to enter scoring range, but P Ben Graham's punt was muffed by PR Dennis Northcutt, and the Cardinals recovered at the Lions' 13-yard line. After getting a first down at the 1-yard line, Warner threw to WR Larry Fitzgerald in the end zone. CB William James popped the ball out of Fitzgerald's hands, but he was able to come down with the ball to go ahead 7-0. Looking to respond, the Lions looked for a big play of their own, but Culpepper was intercepted by CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie. The Cardinals got a field goal off the turnover. K Jason Hanson then missed a 54-yard field goal, and the Cardinals marched downfield to take a 17-0 lead. Going into halftime, the Cardinals were in position to score once again, but DE Cliff Avril sacked Warner and forced a fumble to eliminate the threat. After the break, the Lions decided to make a change at quarterback and bring in QB Drew Stanton. Early in the third quarter, Stanton threw an interception to Rodgers-Cromartie, who returned the ball to the Lions' 20-yard line. On the Cardinals' first play on that drive, Warner threw to the end zone and was intercepted by S Louis Delmas, who tip-toed along the sideline and scored a 101-yard touchdown. The score was an immediate boost to the Lions, who forced a three-and-out after the ensuing kickoff, then broke a 64-yard touchdown run by Morris, then forced another three-and-out before tying the game with a field goal at 17-17. Early in the fourth quarter the Cardinals took the lead again on an 18-yard touchdown run by RB Beanie Wells. The Lions had to punt on the next possession, but PR Steve Breaston muffed the punt and it was recovered by LB Zack Follett. The Lions got the ball inside the 10-yard line but failed to convert on fourth down. However, the defense played well and the Lions got the ball back after a punt. Stanton led the Lions down the field then scored on a QB sneak to tie the game again. On the kickoff, the Cardinals were able to return the ball close to midfield, then Wells ran for 34 yards. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for the touchdown. The Lions had one last opportunity but failed to convert a fourth down, ending the game at the score of 31-24.

SUMMARY
The Lions took to the road in San Francisco the last road game of 2009. With the first possession of the ball, QB Drew Stanton moved the offense well in his first career start, using nearly eight minutes of game clock. On the first play from scrimmage, WR Calvin Johnson took the ball on a reverse and ran for 19 yards. Stanton then scrambled on a third down to move the chains, and Johnson had another big run to put the Lions in a goal-to-go situation. They were stopped on third down and took the field goal converted by K Jason Hanson. The defense then came out strong, and DE Jason Hunter sacked QB Alex Smith on the 49ers' first offensive play before forcing a punt. The Lions then had a three-and-out of their own and punted back to the 49ers. Smith completed a 50-yard pass to rookie WR Michael Crabtree, but the Lions were able to hold San Francisco to a field goal to tie the game at 3-3. The next two Detroit possessions ended with fumbles by both Stanton and Johnson, but the defense was able to hold the 49ers and keep points off the board until late in the quarter when another field goal gave the 49ers a 6-3 lead. With just over two minutes remaining, the Lions looked to score, but Stanton was intercepted by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers began at the Lions' 40-yard line and got all the way to the 10-yard line, but had to go for a field goal on fourth down. The Lions called a timeout to ice rookie K Ricky Schmitt. The timeout paid off as DT Grady Jackson was able to get a good push and blocked the kick to prevent another score. Coming out of halftime, the Lions' defense continued to play well, but the offense could not get anything going to score points and had to punt. On the ensuing possession for the 49ers, RB Frank Gore was able to get some big chunks and moved them deep into Detroit territory. Smith threw a 2-yard touchdown to TE Vernon Davis, which was challenged by Detroit citing that Smith had crossed the line of scrimmage. The call on the field stood, and the Lions went down 13-3. Again the Lions' offense couldn't move the ball and punted. Faced with a fourth-and-inches on their own 46-yard line, San Francisco went for it. Gore got open in the flat was able to break a 48-yard run after the catch. He ran the ball in to finish the drive with a touchdown, making the score 20-3. In the fourth quarter the Lions tried to mount a comeback but were stopped short by turnovers as Stanton threw an interception in 49ers' territory. Later in the quarter, the Lions were given another opportunity when LB Julian Peterson forced a fumble from Gore that was recovered by DT Sammie Hill on the 49ers' 29-yard line. On the first play of the possession, Stanton threw another interception to CB Dre' Bly. QB Daunte Culpepper entered the game to finish and got the Lions into field goal range. Hanson converted to make the score 20-6. On the Lions' last effort, Culpepper completed a pass to Johnson, but his second fumble of the day allowed the 49ers to seal the game and the 20-6 victory.

SUMMARY
In front of a sellout crowd at Ford Field, the Lions faced the Bears for their final game of the 2009 season. On the opening drive of the game, the Bears were able to move the ball well into the Lions' territory, but the Lions were able to force a third down and held the Bears to a field goal by K Robbie Gould. QB Daunte Culpepper took the field for the Lions and threw an interception, but for most of the rest of the quarter neither team could get anything going on offense and exchanged three-and-outs. When P Brad Maynard shanked a punt and gave the Lions good field position, they capitalized with a long reception by WR Calvin Johnson and took a field goal to even the score. The tie was short-lived as the Bears answered back with another field goal by Gould. Later in the quarter, the Bears had a third-and-short but a false start moved them back, and DE Cliff Avril sacked Bears QB Jay Cutler to force the punt. On the ensuing drive, Culpepper completed a 12-yard pass to WR Bryant Johnson for a touchdown and the lead, 10-6. With less than two minutes in the half, however, then Cutler completed a long pass to TE Greg Olsen to put them inside scoring range. Inside the 10-yard line, he found Olsen again for a 7-yard touchdown and brought his team into halftime with a 13-10 lead. The Lions received the ball to begin the second half. On fourth-and-8 on their own 38-yard line, the Lions faked a punt with a direct snap to S Kalvin Pearson but were stopped. The Bears took advantage of the turnover on downs and scored on a pass from Cutler to WR Devin Aromashodu. Later in the quarter, another pass from Culpepper to Calvin Johnson put the Lions into scoring range and they came away with a field goal to cut the deficit to 20-13. At the start of the fourth quarter, the Lions once again moved downfield through the connection of Culpepper to Calvin Johnson, and the drive was capped off by a leaping touchdown catch by Johnson to tie the game. The tie was once again short-lived. The Lions' defense forced a third down situation, but a 48 yard pass from Cutler to WR Devin Hester followed by a 34-yard pass to Olsen set up the 1-yard touchdown pass to TE Desmond Clark. The Lions got a field goal back and kicked the ball away, but another big play doomed the Lions. RB Matt Forte ran for 53 yards to set up another touchdown pass to Aromashodu. Lions KR Derrick Williams fumbled the kickoff return with 2:49 remaining, allowing the Bears to get another field goal and seal the game at 37-23.

Kicker Jason Hanson leads all current Lions' players with 1,835 points and is the franchise's all-time leading scorer. In 2009, he became only the 7th player in NFL history to surpass the 1,800 career points mark, and he is currently in 7th place on the NFL's all-time scoring list. Among his career scoring tally are 42 field goals from 50 yards or more. In 2009, he set an NFL record for the most 50-yard field goals in a career and became the first player in league history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard attempts in a season.

CHUCK HUGHES MOST IMPROVED

Chuck Hughes Award is presented to the player who, because of hard work and determination, showed significant development and improvement during the past year. Chuck Hughes, a Lions' reserve wide receiver, played two seasons with the Lions (1970-71); Hughes is the only NFL player to have died during action on a football field, having suffered a fatal heart attack during Detroit's game against Chicago on October 24, 1971.

TEAM CAPTAINS

In 2007, the NFL launched a formalized initiative for teams to select season-long captain, up to six per team, with each player wearing the letter "C" on the upper right chest of their home and away jersey. The Lions have selected numerous captains over the years, both on a season and game basis. Below are captains selected by the team beginning with the 2007 NFL initiative.

2007	Jason Hanson	K	Special Teams
	Cory Redding	DT	Defense
	Ernie Sims	LB	Defense
	Dominic Raiola	C	Offense

ALL-TIME TEAM

The Lions All-Time Team was compiled by an online fan voting process on Detroitlions.com and a selection committee that consisted of five members of the media and four long-time employees of the Detroit Lions. The media portion included: Mike O'Hara (Detroit News), Tom Kowalski (Booth News), Curt Sylvester (retired, Detroit Free Press), Jerry Green (retired Detroit News) and Jim Brandstatter (broadcaster). Lions employees were Asst. Dir. of Pro Personnel Charlie Sanders, Sr. Dir. of Community Affairs Tim Pendell, former equipment mgr. Danny Jaroshewich and retired athletic trainer Kent Falb.

PRIDE OF THE LIONS

On November 22, 2009, the Lions unveiled the team's Pride of the Lions, a permanent stadium display honoring greatest players in team history during a halftime celebration at Ford Field against the Cleveland Browns. The team introduced the 12 members of the Pride of the Lions charter class.The Pride of the Lions is a very visible feature on the old Hudson's warehouse of Ford Field (south suite levels) that includes the players' jersey numbers, name and years played with the Lions.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. The Arizona Cardinals were located in Chicago from 1920-59 and in St. Louis from 1960-87 before moving to Phoenix, Ariz., in 1988.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 15, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 31-23-5 advantage over the Cardinals.
- September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0.
- In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit has registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 5-6 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix. Detroit currently has a three-game winning streak against the Cardinals.
- The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and New York Giants) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 at the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix December 12.
- Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a then franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago 10/9/88. The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland 9/28/86 and vs. Green Bay 10/25/87. The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota 11/23/95. And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota 11/23/95.
- Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. QB Joey Harrington threw for a career high four touchdown passes in the game.
- In Detroit's 26-12 win over Arizona December 5, 2004, RB Kevin Jones ran for a career-high 196 yards on 26 carries, 105 of which came in the first half. It is the second highest rushing total by a Lions rookie in team history, just one yard shy of Mel Farr's record of 197 yards on 24 carries at Minnesota (11/12/67).
- In the same 2004 contest, K Jason Hanson became the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 1,300-point plateau.
- In the most recent meeting at Ford Field (12/20/09), S Louis Delmas returned an interception 101 yards for a touchdown which was the longest by a NFL rookie since 1926 (Columbus RB Pete Barnum, 103t at Canton 9/26/26). It also ranks as the longest by a Lions rookie in team history and is tied for the second longest in franchise history.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, amassing a 23-10 record. The initial meeting took place at Tiger Stadium September 25, 1966, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. The Lions are 14-4 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 8-3 in the Silverdome, 1-1 at Ford Field). Detroit has won 10 of the last 15 games in the series.
- The Lions and Falcons met in the regular season opener or closer seven times between 1985-94. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89, and met in the regular season opener again in 1997.
- Detroit was victorious 13-10 over the Falcons November 12, 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. The contest marked the first game and victory by Gary Moeller, who replaced Bobby Ross as head coach six days earlier.
- The Lions' 17-10 victory October 10, 2004, marked the first time the Lions won back-to-back road games since the 2000 season.
- The Lions winning-percentage against the Falcons (.697) is their highest among all NFC opponents and their second highest among all NFL opponents (Cleveland, .778).

SERIES NOTES

- The inaugural game between Detroit and Baltimore occurred December 27, 1998 at PSINet Stadium in Baltimore, with the Lions losing to the Ravens 19-10 in the '98 season finale.
- Detroit's first game with Baltimore ended up being RB Barry Sanders final game in his 10-year career. He rushed 19 times for 41 yards, finishing nine yards (1,491) shy of collecting his fifth-straight 1,500-yard rushing season.
- In the Lions 35-17 win over Baltimore at Ford Field October 9, 2005, Detroit's rushing attack was steller as the offfense registered four rushing touchdowns, the ever yeilded by the Ravens defense. Among the rushing touchdowns were two scores by RB Kevin Jones and a 77-yard dash by RB Shawn Bryson.

SERIES NOTES

- Aside from the NFL's recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the seven meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.
- Two of the seven games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 November 24, 1994.
- In the 1976 meeting, O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in pro football history as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough as the Lions prevailed 27-14.
- The Lions defeated the Bills 20-17 in their first regular season visit to Ford Field. The victory also was Rod Marinelli's first as a head coach.
- Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, is the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.
- The Lions and Bills have met each other in the preseason each year since 2002, and the two teams will once again face each other in the preseason Thursday, September 2 at Ford Field. Overall, the teams have played 29 times in the preseason, with Detroit holding a 17-11-1 edge in the preseason series.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss. The Panthers' made five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, and the Detroit defense forced two turnovers and yeilded only three field goals.
- The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).
- The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 victory at Ericsson Stadium September 15, 2002.
- Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.
- LB Boss Bailey (34 yards) and S Kenoy Kennedy (64 yards) each returned interceptions back for touchdowns in the Lions last-minute 21-20 loss against Carolina at Ford Field October 16, 2005. The last time the Lions had two interceptions for touchdowns in a game was at Seattle October 24, 1976 when Levi Johnson and Lem Barney both returned interceptions for touchdowns.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hosted the Bears for the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game on November 29, 1934. The game, played in front of a then-record 26,000 fans at the University of Detroit Stadium, was won by the Bears, 19-16, giving the Bears the Western Division championship. NBC Radio Network broadcast the game coast-to-coast and a Thanksgiving tradition was born.
- On Thanksgiving Day (November 27) in 1997 the Lions downed the Bears 55-20 for their largest offensive output ever against Chicago. RB Barry Sanders rushed for 167 yards and three touchdowns in the win at the Silverdome. Earlier in the 1997 season, Sanders put up 161 yards on Chicago in a 32-7 victory over the Bears.
- WR Herman Moore set a franchise record with 14 catches for 183 yards in a 27-7 win December 4 at the Pontiac Silverdome.
- Detroit had its best stretch against the Bears when it won 11 of 12 games from September 22, 1968 to December 9, 1973.
- Five contests between the two teams have gone to overtime—including both in 2002— with the Bears winning three of them.
- In the 2004 season opener, Detroit topped Chicago 20-17 to end its 24-game road losing streak. S Bracy Walker returned a blocked FG an NFL-record 92 yards to give the Lions a 10-7 advantage, and QB Joey Harrington found WR Az-Zahir Hakim for a fourth-quarter touchdown to give the Lions a 20-14 lead they would not relinquish.
- With the Lions trailing 13-3 going into the fourth quarter vs. Chicago at Ford Field September 30, 2007, the Lions reeled off an NFL record 34 points in the fourth quarter to claim a 37-27 win. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history a team scored 30 or more points in a quarter. Detroit scored five touchdowns, including two passing, one rushing, one interception and one kickoff return. The teams also combined for 48 points, which is a record for combined fourth quarter points.
- On October 28, 2007, the Lions defeated the Bears 16-7 at Soldier Field. K Jason Hanson, connected on a 52-yarder which was his career longest against the Bears on the road, and marked the longest in franchise history by a Lions kicker on the road vs. Chicago. It also marked the first 50-yard field goal on the road vs. the Bears by a Lions kicker in the series that dates back to 1930. Alone year to the exact date (November 2, 2008), Hanson repeated this feat when he hit another 52-yarder vs. the Bears.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Bengals met every year in preseason from 1970-2001 and the rivalry was renewed in 2003. The two teams have played a total of 33 preseason games, with the Bengals holding a slight 18-15 series edge.
- In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3 September 27, 1970. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. Mel Farr led the Lions with 70 yards rushing on 13 carries.
- An eight-yard touchdown toss from Greg Landry to Charlie Sanders (now Lions' Assistant Director of Pro Personnel) with 29 seconds remaining in the game gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.
- In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, RB Barry Sanders passed Billy Sims to become Detroit's all-time leading rusher. He rushed 29 times for 151 yards and scored a touchdown as the Lions won 19-13.

# NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hold a 14-4 (.777) series lead over the Browns, dating back to the clubs' initial meeting in 1952. Detroit owns an 9-1 record in games played in Detroit.
- Jason Hanson booted the longest field goal in franchise history against the Browns October 8, 1995. Hanson drilled a 56-yard effort on the last play of the first half.
- Lions QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions to a thrilling, come-from-behind 38-37 win over Cleveland (11/22) with one of the most remarkable performances by a rookie quarterback in NFL history. Stafford brought the team back from deficits three different times (21, 3 and 6 points) to either tie or take the lead. The win was Stafford's first career come-from-behind fourth-quarter win.

- December 28, 1952 (NFL Championship Game) - The Detroit Lions claimed their first NFL title in 17 years with a 17-7 win over the Browns. The Lions scored the first touchdown of the game on a two-yard run by Bobby Layne and extended the lead to 14-0 in the third quarter on a 67-yard scamper by Doak Walker. Detroit was outgained in total yardage by 151 yards and had 12 fewer first downs, but the Detroit defense stiffened at crucial times. The Lions came up with four important goal line stands. Layne attempted only nine passes, all coming in the fourth quarter. To pick up the slack, the Lions rushed for 199 yards with 97 yards coming from Walker. Detroit capped the title game win with a 36-yard field goal by Pat Harder.
- December 27, 1953 (NFL Championship Game) - The game evolved into a defensive struggle as 20 of the 33 points scored in the game were direct results of turnovers. The mistakes began when Otto Graham fumbled on his own 13-yard line, the Lions capitalized on a one-yard touchdown run by Doak Walker. Although Graham completed only two of his 15 attempts, the Browns managed to hold a 16-10 lead with less than five minutes to play. Then, Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne put together an impressive drive that culminated with a 33-yard touchdown toss to Jim Doran. The 17-16 victory provided the Lions with their second consecutive title.
- December 26, 1954 (NFL Championship Game) - The game began on a good note for Detroit as Cleveland quarterback Otto Graham turned the ball over on an interception. But the Lions could only manage a field goal after the turnover and the rest of the afternoon was all Cleveland. Graham bounced back from the early interception to pass for three touchdowns and run for another three touchdowns as the Browns captured the World's Championship with a 56-10 win. Lions' quarterback Bobby Layne had a horrible day, as he threw six interceptions.
- December 29, 1957 (NFL Championship Game) - Tobin Rote, playing for injured QB Bobby Layne, directed a relentless offensive attack as the Lions posted a 31-7 halftime lead and coasted to their fourth NFL title. The highlight of the day came on a 78-yard bomb from Rote to Jim Doran that gave the Lions a 38-14 lead. Detroit went on to win 59-14, the second biggest title win ever.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's first regular season game, as well as its last, at the Pontiac Silverdome was played against Dallas. The Cowboys won the Monday Night contest 36-10 October 6, 1975 during the Silverdome's inaugural regular season game and the Lions won the finale 15-10 on January 6, 2002.
- The Lions have won eight of the last 14 regular season meetings with Dallas, in addition to Detroit's 38-6 win in the 1991 Divisional Playoff game.
- The Lions and Cowboys have squared off twice in postseason play, with each team claiming victory on its own turf. The first postseason contest occurred December 26, 1970 with the Dallas posting a 5-0 shutout against Detroit.
- The Lions captured the victory in the second playoff contest when they defeated the Cowboys 38-6 at the Silverdome January 5, 1992.
- Detroit and Dallas traditionally host Thanksgiving Day games each season. The Lions have played 66 games since the Thanksgiving Day tradition kicked off in 1934. The Cowboys have hosted 36 Thanksgiving Day games since 1966.
- Lions RB Barry Sanders set a Lions' record for carries in a game (40) in a Monday Night contest in Dallas September 19, 1994. The Lions won the game 20-17 in overtime.
- Detroit will travel to Dallas on November 21, 2010 and play in Cowboys Stadium for the first time.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit posted a 24-20 win November 7, 1971 in the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry-to-Earl McCullough 76-yard bomb which gave the Lions the lead.
- Three of the seven regular season games between the Lions and Broncos have been played on Thanksgiving Day, and five of the seven games have been in November.
- Denver's 31-27 win in 1974 was the last Thanksgiving Day game played in Tiger Stadium, with the Lions moving into the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.
- In 1999, the Lions hosted the Broncos on another holiday, Christmas Day, with the Broncos claiming a 17-7 victory at the Silverdome.
- The Lions fell 20-16 at Denver on September 28, 2003, their first trip to Denver since 1987, and the first game in the series played at Invesco Field.
- In Denver's first regular season trip to Ford Field November 4, 2007, the Lions crushed the Broncos 44-7, which marked the largest margin of victory, 37 points, by the Lions since they shutout the Jacksonville Jaguars 44-0 December 17, 1995.The 44 points were also the by the team since they put up 55 points vs. Chicago November 27, 1997. The 37-point difference by Denver was the largest margin in a loss by the Broncos since the team fell to at New Orleans 42-0 November 20, 1988.
- Detroit will travel to Denver for a preseason game August 21, 2010. The two last met in the preseason in 2006, a 20-13 Lions victory.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. From 1933-94, the Green Bay Packers played select home games in Milwaukee (Mil).

SERIES NOTES

- The Packers and Lions have met on Thanksgiving Day 18 times, with the Lions holding an 11-6-1 advantage in those games. The Lions have played the Packers more times on Thanksgiving than any other team in the league.
- The Lions and Packers met 13 consecutive years on Thanksgiving Day from 1951-1963 with the Lions winning nine of those contests. 2003 was the Packers' first visit to Ford Field on Thanksgiving.
- Each team has recorded five shutouts of one another since the beginning of the series in 1934, but there has not been a shutout between the two teams since the Lions held the Packers to zero points in a 20-0 win on December 20, 1970.
- The 11 consecutive wins that the Lions posted against Green Bay from December 11, 1949 to November 25, 1954 are the by the Lions against any franchise. The 11-game streak came after the Lions were 8-29-1 in the first 38 games of the series.
- Frank Sinkwich set a Lions' record by intercepting seven passes in a 27-6 loss to the Packers on October 24, 1943.
- These two franchises played in 127 regular season games in 60 years before meeting in the playoffs for the first time following the 1993 season and then again following the 1994 season.
- The Packers came to Ford Field for its regular season opener on September 22, 2002 and defeated the Lions 37-31.
- K Jason Hanson became the 16th player in NFL history to reach the 300-point mark when he kicked a 36-yard field goal against Green Bay December 12,2004.
- On December 12, 2004 rookie RB Kevin Jones registered his second-straight 150-yard rushing game, the first Lions rookie RB to do so since Barry Sanders in 1997.
- The 17-3 Lions win in the 2005 season opener was the lowest point total in any game (including postseason) that then Packers QB Brett Favre had ever started.

SERIES NOTES

- Houston is the only team the Lions hold an undefeated record against. In the teams' only matchup September 19, 2004, Detroit topped the Texans 28-16 at Ford Field.
- In that series opener, WR Eddie Drummond returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his longest career return and his first career kickoff return touchdown.
- The first and only matchup between Houston and Detroit featured two of the top three picks from the 2002 NFL Draft. Houston QB David Carr and former Detroit QB Joey Harrington were selected first and third overall, respectively.
- Drummond's kickoff return was the eighth longest in team history and the longest since Terry Fair returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay 9/28/98.
- Harrington completed 18-of-25 passes for 176 yards and finished the game with the third-highest quarterback rating of his career (114.3) and the third-highest completion percentage of his career (72%).
- In the Lions first trip to Houton's Reliant Stadium on November 19, 2008, WR Calvin Johnson caught two passes for 154 yards, including a career long of 96 yards. With 154 yards on two receptions against the Texans, Johnson's receiving yards were the third for a player with 2-or-fewer receptions in a single game in NFL history.
- In that same game, K Jason Hanson hit two field goals of 54-yards at Houston which were his 36th and 37th career field goals of 50+-yards. It was the third time in Hanson's career he hit two-or-more field goals of 50+-yards in a game.

SERIES NOTES

- The clubs have met just six times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis from Baltimore.
- A record-setting crowd of 63,107 witnessed the Lions take on the Colts November 25, 2004. The crowd was the Lions' largest at Ford Field, breaking the previous best of 62,938 set vs. Green Bay (10/17/04). The contest also marked the Colts' first visit to Ford Field and the first time the teams had met on Thanksgiving since 1965. The Lions and the then-Baltimore Colts tied 24-24.
- On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassady with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.
- In their meeting November 23, 1997, a 32-10 Detroit win at the Silverdome, Jason Hanson became the only kicker in team history to convert two field goals of more than 50 yards in the same game. Hanson booted 52 and 55-yarders in the contest.
- In that same game, Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards on 24 carries, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career and the first against an AFC opponent.
- The 1997 game was the Colts' second trip ever to the Silverdome, and the first since the club moved from Baltimore.
- In Detroit's first visit to Indianapolis' Lucal Oil Stadium, December 14, 2008, K Jason Hanson connected on a 51-yard field goal. his 51-yarder set a new NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a career (41) and it tied Morten Andersen's NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a season (8). Hanson is the first player in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard field goals in a single season.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's 44-0 win over the Jaguars December 17, 1995 represents the largest victory margin in Lions' history and was the largest in the NFL in 1995. The game also marked the inaugural contest in the series between the Lions and the Jaguars.
- Lions KR Eddie Drummond had one of the finest performances by a returner in NFL history that ultimately forced the Lions' game at Jacksonville into overtime November 14, 2004. Drummond became the first player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the fourth quarter and the 11th (14th time) to return two punts for a touchdowns in a single game.
- Drummond's six punt returns against the Jaguars (11/14/04) for 199 yards (33.2 avg) is the third-best single-game total in NFL history and set a new Lions' franchise record for punt return yards in a game.
- His two punt returns for touchdowns (55 and 83 yards) at Jacksonville (11/14) marked the third time in Lions' history that a player recorded two punt return touchdowns in a game. Jack Christiansen accomplished the feat twice in 1951 (2 vs LA 10/14/51 and 2 vs. GB 11/22/51).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Chiefs have played four of their 10 games on Thanksgiving Day—two of them were played on November 26 (in 1981 and 1987).
- The Lions are 1-2 in home games (0-0 at Ford Field) against the Chiefs and 2-5 in games played in Kansas City.
- In the inaugural meeting—the 1971 Thanksgiving Day classic—Errol Mann contributed three field goals while Greg Landry threw touchdown passes to Charlie Sanders and Earl McCullouch in a 32-21 Lions' win. RB Ed Podolak scored all three touchdowns for the Chiefs.
- In the teams' first regular season meeting at the Silverdome, Detroit dominated defensively and claimed a 27-10 Thanksgiving Day win in 1981. The Lions held the Chiefs' top-ranked rushing attack to just 116 yards, and registered five sacks.
- The Lions hold a 6-4 preseason edge in the series against the Chiefs, and have won five of the last six preseason matchups. The two teams met August 23, 1975 in an exhibition affair that kicked off the opening of the Pontiac Silverdome. Detroit won the contest 27-24.
- Kansas City made their first ever trip to Ford Field December 23, 2007, with the Lions claiming a 25-20 victory.

SERIES NOTES

- The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.
- The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, 1979 and 1994).
- Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions trail 30-63-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.
- With his opening kickoff return for a touchdown at Minnesota November 21, 2004, Eddie Drummond became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns. He became only the second player in NFL history to return two kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns in a single season, the other being Dante Hall (Kansas City) in 2003.
- The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.
- On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.
- Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for rushing touchdowns in a single game. His four touchdowns and 24-point performance also tied Lions' single-game marks.
- Scott Mitchell set a Lions' single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 410 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver trio of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38.
- In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 14-13 victory over the Vikings at the Metrodome when Scott Mitchell tossed a one-yard pass to Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with two second remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:56 remaining to play and with only one timeout.

SERIES NOTES

- New England has made just four regular season visits to Detroit, with each team taking a pair of victories.
- This year's regular season meeting between the Lions and the Patriots will be the third meeting between the teams since 2000 (fourth overall) on Thanksgiving. In the past 10 years, New England is the Lions second-most-common opponent on Thanksgiving behind Green Bay, which the Lions have hosted four times during that span.
- The Thanksgiving Day Lions-Patriots series is tied at 1-1. The Lions claimed victory in the first Thanksgiving Day meeting between the clubs with a 34-9 win in 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. In 2002, the Patriots returned to Detroit on Thanksgiving and captured a 20-12 victory over the Lions at Ford Field.
- Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Foxboro Stadium). Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard touchdown catch from Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yards for a score.
- The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. Willie Clay (who later joined the Patriots as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993.
- In the 1993 matchup, Detroit edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave the Lions their first 2-0 start since 1985, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder.

* New Orleans split home games between San Antonio and Baton Rouge due to Hurricane Katrina.

SERIES NOTES

- In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home. Detroit also tied the series, 8-8-1.
- The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie November 24, 1968 in Detroit.
- The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 6-2-1 mark at home (2-0-1 at Tiger Stadium; 3-2 in the Silverdome and 1-0 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-3 record at home (2-0 at Tulane Stadium; 4-2 in the Superdome; 0-1 at San Antonio).
- In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans kicker Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record October 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.
- Despite a 310-yard passing game from Detroit's Greg Landry (27-of-38 with two touchdowns), the Saints nipped the Lions 17-16 in the Superdome in 1976. Detroit RB Dexter Bussey led all rushers in the contest with 82 yards on only eight carries.
- The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.
- The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.
- K Jason Hanson nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in regulation that lifted the Lions to a 13-12 win over New Orleans in San Antonio. The final drive was set up by a Roy Williams 40-yard grab on 4th-and-17. Williams' four catches for 111 yards against the Saints, all in the fourth quarter.

NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions-Giants series is one of four series (Arz, Chi and GB) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The Lions hold a 21-17-1 lead in the series which dates back to a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the Lions were known as the Portsmouth Spartans.
- Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests, but the Giants have won eight of the last 12 decisions.
- The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.
- The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless tie. The 0-0 game was played November 7, 1943 at New York.
- Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants December 15, 1935. The contest marked the only time the two teams have met in postseason action.
- In the Lions' 28-13 win over the Giants October 24, 2004, QB Joey Harrington had the efficient outing of his career, completing 18-of-22 passes to set single-game career highs with an 81.8 completion percentage and a 140.5 quarterback rating. He finished the game with 230 yards passing, including four completions of at least 20 yards and seven completions of at least 18 yards to six different receivers.
- In 2000, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium November 19. The first half was highlighted by two Charlie Batch touchdown passes and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since Bennie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.
- This year's regular season match-up between the two teams will mark Detroit's first trip to the Giants' new stadium.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit leads the all-time series 6-5, which dates back to a 37-20 Detroit victory November 23, 1972 at Tiger Stadium. Detroit has played seven of its 10 contests at home against the Jets with a record of 4-3 (1-0 at Tiger Stadium, 3-2 at the Silverdome and 0-1 at Ford Field).
- The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets December 8, 1991.
- Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome December 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 yards rushing in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet. Unfortunately, Lions' LB Reggie Brown suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth quarter of the game.
- The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G Jeff Hartings.
- In 2010, the Jets will play the Lions at Ford Field for only the second time. New York's last trip to Detroit was in 2002, the Lions inaugural season at Ford Field.

Note: The Raiders were located in Oakland from 1960-81 and Los Angeles from 1982-94. The club returned to Oakland in 1995.

SERIES NOTES

- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions defeated the Raiders 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day November 26, 1970. The win was the second of five consecutive wins by the Lions that year, which propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. In that contest between the two clubs, the Lions scored 14 fourth quarter points on the way to knocking off the Raiders. Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit.
- The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders 16-0 September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years, as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while Dexter Bussey passed Altie Taylor as the club's all-time leading rusher. Also in the game, Detroit QB Gary Danielson fractured his left wrist—an injury that would sideline him for 10 weeks.
- In the Monday Night meeting December 10, 1990, there were five former Heisman Trophy winners on the field—Barry Sanders and Andre Ware for Detroit, and Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson for the Raiders. Sanders finished the game with 176 yards rushing on 25 carries, while Jackson led the Raiders with 129 yards rushing on 18 carries.
- The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.
- Detroit opened the 2007 season on the road at Oakland and came away with 36-21 victory. DE Dewayne White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week 1 performance at Oakland as the veteran defensive end was a force in the fourth quarter when Detroit scored 16 unanswered points in the final 10:45 to come away with the victory. After the Lions took a 26-21 lead in the fourth quarter, White intercepted a pass on the ensuing Raiders drive and returned it 28 yards to set up a field goal to increase Detroit's lead to eight. On the first play of the next Oakland possession, White sacked the Raiders quarterback and forced a fumble. Another Oakland player recovered the ball and White forced another fumble, which was recovered by teammate DE Kalimba Edwards. The play helped set up a touchdown that put the game out of reach.
- Kitna's 289 yards in the '07 opener at Oakland were the second-passing yards by a Lions quarterback on opening day in franchise history, only behind Bobby Layne's 364 yards September 27, 1953 against Pittsburgh.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout. The Lions also won seven of the first eight meetings.
- In 25 regular season meetings, the Lions have scored more than 30 points only twice (35 points in both 1935 and 1965). Philadelphia, however, has also been limited to only three 30-point outbursts (45 points in 1948, 44 points in 1979, and 30 points September 26, 2004).
- The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984 at the Silverdome, and was the only tie in Silverdome history.
- In 2004, Philadelphia visited the Motor City for the first time since November 4, 1984.
- With nine receptions for 135 yards vs. Philadelphia September 26, 2004, WR Roy Williams became the first Detroit rookie receiver to top 100 yards receiving since Larry Foster caught eight passes for 106 yards at Minnesota (11/30/00). It marked Williams' first 100-yard receiving game of his career.
- In Detroit's last win over Philadelphia, the Lions' defense sacked Eagles QB Randall Cunningham 11 times to tie a club record in a 13-11 win November 6, 1986. Seven Lions' defenders recorded sacks, including four by Keith Ferguson and 2.5 by William Gay. A 72-yard scoring strike from Joe Ferguson-to-Jeff Chadwick in the first quarter turned out to be the only touchdown of the game.
- In the Lions first visit to Lincoln Financial Field September 23, 2007 to take on the Eagles, QB Jon Kitna set a franchise record with 446 passing yards. Kitna connected with WR Roy Williams for a 91-yard touchdown for the longest pass play in the NFL for 2007. The 91-yard pass play were career highs for both Kitna and Williams. With 204 receiving yards, Williams' career high was the third-highest tally by a receiver in Lions history.

SERIES NOTES

- The Detroit Lions played in Heinz Field's first game during the preseason (August, 25, 2001). In 2002, the Lions returned the favor as the Steelers played in the first game at Ford Field (August 24, 2002), which the Steelers won 34-22.
- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 426 yards rushing. Ernie Caddell scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit.
- The Lions won the first four meetings of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests, although the Steelers have bounced back to claim eight of the last 10 meetings.
- In the 1952 meeting, Bob Hoernschmeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. The Detroit defense held Pittsburgh to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win in Pittsburgh.
- Detroit passed for a then-club-record 375 yards (364 by Bobby Layne) in a 38-21 Lions' victory September 27, 1953.
- Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers November 24, 1983 stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the team's Thanksgiving Day series (second-largest in team history).
- The Lions also defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in overtime November 26, 1998 in the second Thanksgiving Day matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving overtime contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a touchdown despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period.
- Detroit and Pittsburgh faced off during the regular season for first time at Ford Field in 2009. The Steelers evened the all-time series with a 28-20 victory.

Note: The Rams were located in Cleveland from 1937-45 and Los Angeles from 1946-94. The club relocated to St. Louis in 1995.

SERIES NOTES

- The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 42-37-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).
- Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 2-3 vs. the St. Louis Rams.
- The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.
- After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played.
- The Lions played the Rams November 7, 1999 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germane Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive.
- In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions won each of the first three meetings between the two teams (all home games), but have dropped the six most-recent contests.
- Detroit recorded a 34-20 victory over the Chargers in the first meeting of the series October 22, 1972. Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 yards on the ground for the game. Greg Landry also rushed for a touchdown and added 151 yards passing with a touchdown strike going to Larry Walton, who finished with seven catches for 101 yards.
- Detroit fell to the Chargers 27-24 September 20, 1984 at Jack Murphy Stadium. Billy Sims ran for two touchdowns and 119 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown scamper. Detroit QB Gary Danielson matched Hall of Famer Dan Fouts every step of the way, completing 20-of-25 attempts for 269 yards, while Fouts was 22-of-35 for 268 yards. The Chargers forged to a 24-7 halftime lead, but Detroit scored two third quarter touchdowns to narrow the gap to 24-21.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions were 2-1 in the Silverdome vs. the Seahawks and 2-3 in the Kingdome.
- In the 2006 regular season opener, the Lions played host to the Seahawks for the first time at Ford Field. It marked Seattle's return to Ford Field after losing to the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL.
- The Lions opened up a 20-0 lead and rolled to a 41-14 victory over the Seahawks in the first-ever meeting between the two teams October 24, 1976. Greg Landry threw three touchdown passes for the Lions, and Jim Zorn was intercepted six times, including two that were returned for touchdowns (Levi Johnson and Lem Barney). Zorn was the Lions quarterbacks coach from 1998-00.
- After winning the inaugural meeting between the two clubs, the Lions dropped four consecutive outings to the Seahawks before winning the last three games.
- The Seahawks defeated the Lions 37-14 in the third and final game during the 1987 players' strike. In a game played predominantly by replacement players, Seattle QB Jeff Kemp passed for 344 yards and four touchdowns, while Hall of Famer Steve Largent caught 15 passes for 261 yards (both individual Silverdome records) and three scores.
- In the 1990 regular season finale played December 30, Barry Sanders rushed for 23 yards on nine carries to claim the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards.
- The Lions' game with the Seahawks played October 17, 1993, a 30-10 Lions' win, was Detroit's 800th contest (including regular and post-season games) since the Portsmouth Spartans moved to the Motor City in 1934.
- In the 1999 regular season opener, the Lions built a 25-7 halftime lead and held on for a 28-20 victory over Seattle for the club's first season opening road win since 1986.
- The Lions and Seahawks met outside for the first time in 2003, the Lions first trip to Seahawks Stadium. Seattle was victorious, 35-14.

SERIES NOTES

- 2001 marked the final year of the Lions and the Buccaneers annual home-and-home divisional series between the two teams. As the NFL re-aligned in 2002 with the addition of the Houston Texans, Detroit was grouped in the NFC North division (Chicago, Green Bay and Minnesota) and Tampa Bay shifted to the NFC South division (Atlanta, Carolina and New Orleans). The two teams, however, did play December 15, 2002 at Ford Field in the 49th game in the series' history. The Buccaneers won the game 23-20.
- The Lions are 1-2 at Ford Field, 14-9 in the Silverdome, and 12-14 in Tampa (regular season) vs. the Buccaneers.
- The series went 23 games during 1983-94 without either team winning more than two games in a row. The streak ended when Detroit claimed five wins in a row, starting November 13, 1994 and continuing with season sweeps over the Bucs in 1995-96.
- In Detroit's 14-9 win at the Silverdome November 13, 1994, Barry Sanders rushed for a franchise-record 237 yards (then-sixth-highest single-game total in NFL history). Sanders gained a NFL record 200 yards in the second half.
- Sanders made more history in Detroit's 27-9 win over the Buccaneers at Houlihan's Stadium October 12, 1997. Sanders became the first player in NFL history to record two runs of 80 yards-or-more in the same game. He broke off an 80-yard scoring play late in the first quarter, and added an 82-yard touchdown romp in the third quarter and finished the day with 215 yards rushing on 24 carries.
- The two clubs met for the only time in the playoffs December 28, 1997, with the Buccaneers coming away with a 20-10 win.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Titans have hooked up 10 times in the regular season with Tennessee holding a 7-3 lead. The Lions were 2-3 in Houston and 1-1 in the Pontiac Silverdome.
- The teams first met October 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away with a 31-7 win.
- The Titans have won six of the last eight contests.
- The Titans, then the Oilers, put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind 24-21 win November 26 over the Lions in the Silverdome. Lorenzo White's 8-yard touchdown scamper with 1:17 remaining sealed the Titans' victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.
- On December 10, 1995, QB Scott Mitchell set the Lions' all-time record for touchdown passes in a season. Bobby Layne had previously owned the record (26 in 1951). Mitchell completed the '95 season with 32 touchdown passes.

NFC Championship Game

Note: The Lions were located in Portsmouth from 1930-33. The Redskins were located in Boston from 1932-36.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have never won a game in the Washington D.C. area--record of 0-21 vs. the Redskins either at RFK Stadium (0-18) or at FedEx Field (0-3). Of those 20 games, three were postseason losses (0-2 at RFK Stadium and 0-1 at FedEx Field).
- The last time the Lions defeated the Redskins away from the Motor City was October 13 1935, a 17-7 victory at Boston.
- Including postseason games, 11 of the last 14 contests between the two teams have been played away from Detroit—either at RFK Stadium or FedEx Field. The 2004 season marked the Redskins' first ever visit to Ford Field and their first to Detroit since November 9, 1997.
- Lions K Jason Hanson played in his 200th career game as a Lion when the Redskins visited Ford Field in 2004. Hanson's 200th game tied him for first on the Lions' all-time games played list with Wayne Walker (1958-72).
- The Lions own a 3-0 mark against the Redskins when they played in Boston, including two victories in 1935 en route to the NFL Championship.
- Detroit's 33-17 victory over the Redskins December 5, 1999 at the Silverdome snapped a 16-game regular season losing streak against Washington that dated back to a 14-10 Lions' win at Tiger Stadium October 3, 1965. However, the Redskins however rebounded when they defeated the Lions 27-13 January 8, 2000 in a 1999 Wild Card contest at FedEx Field.
- Detroit's win over Washington, 15-10, on September 10, 2000 at the Silverdome, the first time since the 1935 season that the Lions won back-to-back regular games against the Redskins. Washington was located in Boston when Detroit won both games played during the '35 season (17-7 at Boston and 14-0 at Detroit).
- In the last meeting against the Redskins (9/27/09), Lions rookie QB Matthew Stafford threw for 241 yards and one touchdown and was 21-of-36 (58.3 pct.) with no interceptions for his first win as an NFL starting quarterback.
- Washington will return to Detroit in 2010 marking the first time in the series' history that the Redskins will play in Detroit three consecutive seasons. The Lions played at Washington three consecutive season from 1983-85.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was at one time the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was

GRIDIRON HEROES...

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes–The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions." The sound of "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs today, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
(Chorus) Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain, A Lion victory!

On Janaury 16, 2009, Lions President Tom Lewand and General Manager Martin Mayhew introduced the Lions new head coach, Jim Schwartz, at a press conference held at Ford Field.

replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform now features black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform -- the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 18 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms -- and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver", the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksgiving Tradition.

With 76 years now in the rear-view mirror, Detroit is embarking on a new era of Lions football. In 2009, for the first time in team history, the team entered the season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired January 16, 2009. Together, they are the driving force for the team's success on and off the field. In that same year, the Lions introduced a new logo and new brand, along with new team uniforms that features the first significant change to the Lions logo since it was introduced in 1961.

In 2010, the franchise is led by ownership determined to deliver a winning team to the fans of Detroit, and the Lions are moving forward in this endeavor with strong leadership and a resolve to build a winner.

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the league to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two Lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games. The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.

GRID AND IRON, DETROIT LIONS MASCOTS

Only a handful of great teams over the years in the NFL can claim the title of dynasty. One of those great teams were the Detroit Lions in the 1950s when the franchise captured world championships three times in a six-year span. Winning three championships in six years has occurred only nine times by eight different teams in the history of the NFL. Detroit won back-to-back titles in 1952 and 1953 and became the third team since the beginning of NFL Championship games in 1933 to win championships in consecutive years. Overall since '33, back-to-back titles has occurred just 15 times. Including 1954, the Lions appeared in the NFL title game four times in a six-year period. Above are images of the game program covers from the team's championship seasons in the 1950s.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous feast.

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans -- except Detroiters.

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, but with a new twist that began in 1934.

Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 76 years later, fans throughout Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions, was behind the Lions' inaugural Thanksgiving game in 1934. Richards had purchased the team in June of that year and moved the Lions from Portsmouth, Ohio, to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the Tigers of baseball. Despite the fact that the Lions had lost just one game prior to the Thanksgiving Day game that season, the largest crowd that season had been just 15,000.

The opponent for the Lions' first Thanksgiving Day game November 29, 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears of George Halas and the rising star of that era, fullback Bronko Nagurski. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations), and additionally, an estimated 26,000 jammed into University of Detroit Stadium while thousands of disappointed fans were turned away.

In the inaugural game, the Bears won 19-16 and a classic was born. Since '34, the Lions have played 70 Thanksgiving Day games and Detroit has a 33-35-2 in the series. A total of 3,922,027 fans have witnessed Thanksgiving Day games in Detroit. The Lions Thanksgiving Day classic has been sold out in each of the last 15 seasons (since 1994).

The Detroit Lions 71st Thanksgiving Day Classic will feature the Lions hosting the New England Patriots Thursday, November 25. This year's game between the Lions and the Patriots is the third meeting between the teams since 2000 (third overall) on Thanksgiving. In the past 10 years, New England is the Lions second-most common opponent on Thanksgiving behind Green Bay.

The Thanksgiving Day Lions-Patriots series is tied at 1-1. The Lions claimed victory in the first Thanksgiving Day meeting between the clubs with a 34-9 win in 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. In 2002, the Patriots returned to Detroit on Thanksgiving and captured a 20-12 victory over the Lions at Ford Field.

THANKSGIVING DAY FACTS

- The series began with a 19-16 loss to the Chicago Bears on November 29, 1934.
- A total of 70 games have been played with the Lions owning a 33-35-2 record in the annual holiday classic.
- More than 3.9 million fans have witnessed the Lions' 70 Thanksgiving Day games.
- The Lions have played 23 different teams since the first Thanksgiving Day game. The most common opponent has been the Packers, who the Lions played in 2009 for the 19th time in the Thanksgiving series. Their second most common opponent is the Chicago Bears (15 times).
- The two highest scoring games were a 44-40 Packers' win in 1986 and a 52-35 Detroit romp over Green Bay in 1951.
- The lowest scoring game was a 12-0 Philadelphia win in the 1968 "Mud Bowl."
- 10 games in the Thanksgiving Day series has a game been decided by three points or less, with the Lions' record standing at 4-4-2 in those meetings.
- The most lopsided game was a 45-3 Lions win over Pittsburgh in 1983.
- Seven shutouts have been recorded, but only one by the Lions (20-0 over the Bears in 1979).
- Two Thanksgiving Day games have gone into overtime. The first came in 1980 when the Bears' David Williams returned the opening kickoff of OT for a 95-yard touchdown. At the time, the game marked the shortest overtime game in NFL history (21 seconds). The most recent overtime game occurred in 1998 when the Lions defeated the Steelers 19-16 on a 42-yard Jason Hanson field goal in a game that will be remembered for the controversial coin toss before overtime began.

DETROIT LIONS UNIFORM HISTORY

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors

- The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.
- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.
- The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

- They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On October 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

- During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves– giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

- For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

- The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between to thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.
- 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

- 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.
- 1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

- 1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.
- 1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.
- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games.

LIONS NEW COMPREHENSIVE BRAND

On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that includes a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field. The classic Honolulu blue, white and black colors remain unchanged.

Home Honolulu Blue Jerseys

- Numerals were customized specifically for the Lions uniform. They are Honolulu Blue, trimmed in silver and black.
- Above the new numerals is the new Lions logotype.
- On the collar, there are three trim lines of equal width, with two black trim lines outside a silver trim line.
- The sleeves are a new knit sleeve that features a wide silver trim, inside two smaller white trims and those all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim. The new material is improved and more flexible for players. The trim is part of the knit-sleeve material, which was changed from the previous silk-screened sleeve.
- Numerals remain on the shoulders but are now in the customized Lions jersey numerals.
- Players' nameplates on the back of the uniform have slightly modified block letters from the previous block letter names on the back of the uniform.

Road White Jerseys

- The road jerseys are the traditional "road whites," with blue numerals trimmed in silver and black.
- On the road jerseys, the collar is in the same black and silver trim pattern as the home uniforms.
- Sleeves are of the same new knit-sleeve material that are on the new home uniforms. The trim on the sleeves includes a wide Honolulu blue trim, inside two smaller silver trims and those are all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim.

Helmet

- The helmet now features the new logo on each side. It is the most significant change since the Lions logo was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961.
- The facemasks will remain black, but the new Lions logotype will be included on the front and the back of the helmet.
- At the top middle of the helmet, the striping pattern has been modified. Instead of a thick white stripe, two Honolulu blue stripes and a very thin black accent stripe, the helmet striping pattern is now a 5/8-inch Honolulu blue stripe, two 3/16-inch white stripes and two 3/16-inch black stripes. The striping pattern is the same striping pattern as the team's game pants.

Pants and Game Socks

- The game pants will remain in the team's traditional silver. Like the striping pattern on the helmet, the pants vertical trim on the side of the legs are now a thick Honolulu blue stripe inside smaller white stripes, which are all inside black stripes that are the same width as the white stripes.
- The game socks, which are the same for the home and road uniforms, now have a 5/8-inch black stripe on the calf midline. The top half is Honolulu blue and the bottom half is white.

LIONS MOVE UNDER MAYHEW

From the time Martin Mayhew assumed the role of general manger in 2008 (officially named to position December 29, 2008), the Lions have been utilizing every resource to improve the team. Indicative of this aggressiveness has occurred via trades with other teams. The club has made 15 trades for personnel or draft picks in the first 20 months (October 2008-May 2010) of Mayhew's time as the team's general manager.

- The following veterans on the Lions' current roster were acquired via trade: QB Shaun Hill, CB Chris Houston, WR Dennis Northcutt, LB Julian Peterson, TE Tony Scheffler, S Ko Simpson, G Rob Sims and DT Corey Williams.
- Projected starters among the group veterans acquired via trade could include Houston, Peterson, Scheffler, Sims and Williams.
- Two of the biggest trades the Lions made since October 2008 involved the team acquiring a second first round draft choice in the 2009 and 2010 NFL Drafts. It marked the first time in team history that the Lions had two picks in the first round in back-to-back drafts. On October 14, 2008, the Lions consummated a trade with the Dallas Cowboys (WR Roy Williams) that gave the team the 20th overall pick on the first round of the 2009 NFL Draft. On the first day of the 2010 NFL Draft, the Lions exchanged picks with the Minnesota Vikings to move back into the first round by acquiring the 30th pick of the draft. In 2009, the Lions drafted TE Brandon Pettigrew and in 2010 they selected RB Jahvid Best.
- Another example of Mayhew's diligence occurred at the end of the team's 2009 training camp when the Lions claimed QB Kevin O'Connell off waivers on September 1, 2009 and flipped that transaction into a trade with the New York Jets for a 2011 seventh round choice. With two picks in the seventh round of the 2011 draft, the Lions used the extra pick to acquire QB Shaun Hill from the San Francisco 49ers. The veteran quarterback is projected as the team's backup quarterback in 2010.

DETROIT LIONS CHARITIES

Detroit Lions Charities (DLC) awarded 88 grants totaling $345,829.13 to non-profit agencies in 2009-2010. This year's awards bring DLC, the football organization's philanthropic foundation, to nearly $5.6 million in total donations in its 20-year history.

DLC was established in 1990 to assist all age groups in a diverse range of needs and programs in Michigan. Particular emphasis is placed on programs that benefit the children of Detroit.

"Detroit Lions Charities is honored and pleased to partner with so many outstanding charitable organizations in making the most positive impact we can in the community. These organizations have proven track records in making a difference especially during these difficult times when needs are so great," said Lions President Tom Lewand.

THINK DETROIT PAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

For the 12th consecutive year, a $60,000 grant will sponsor the Think Detroit PAL Football League. The league involves 3,200 Detroit youngsters, ages eight through 14, playing in one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues. The Think Detroit PAL season will conclude with its annual championships to be held November 13th and hosted by the Lions at Ford Field.

"Detroit Lions Charities is honored and pleased to partner with so many outstanding charitable organizations in making the most positive impact we can in the community. These organizations have proven track records in making a difference especially during these difficult times when needs are so great." - Lions President Tom Lewand.

DETROIT LIONS ACADEMY

Another major commitment to Detroit was made through a $50,000 grant to Communities in Schools (CIS) of Detroit for the Detroit Lions Academy. The Academy will celebrate its 10th year this fall and has a student body of 140 sixth, seventh and eighth grade Detroit children who have had difficulties in traditional school settings. The Academy is a cooperative effort between the Lions, Detroit Public Schools and CIS in association with several corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale and Ford Motor Company.

LLOYD H. DIEHL BOYS & GIRLS CLUB

A grant for nearly $23,000 sponsored fitness equipment in the new "Lions' Den" at the Lloyd H. Diehl Boys & Girls Club in Detroit. The donation was made in partnership with United Way for Southeastern Michigan and the NFL's Play 60 initiative that encourages children to be active at least 60 minutes each day. Also, in partnership with American Heart Association and Detroit Public Television, DLC awarded a $10,000 grant to support youth fitness and nutrition programs through a youth summit and public service announcements featuring Lions' receiver Calvin Johnson.

HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK

The Lions' High School Football Coach of the Week program awarded grants totaling more than $17,000 to 10 Michigan prep football programs from Detroit to Grand Rapids and from Hudson to Pontiac. Marshall's Rich Hulkow was named High School Coach of the Year. The Lions have donated $246,000 to Michigan high school football programs through the "Coach of the Week/Year" program since 1997.

ADDITIONAL GRANTS

A grant for $20,200 went to the Athletes with Disabilities Network to promote programs for persons with disabilities. This grant among several others came from the proceeds from the annual Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament held at Palazzo di Bocce in Orion Township.

DLC and the Lions continue to be major supporters of HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse. The annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner has raised approximately $1.6 million for HAVEN since 1994.

DLC and the Lions supported various relief efforts following the earthquake in Haiti including a $10,000 grant to American Red Cross International Response Fund.

Among others, grants of $5,000 or more were made to support The Children's Center, The Henry Ford, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Karmanos Cancer Institute, Pancreatic Cancer Action Network and United Way for Southeastern Michigan.

DLC raises funds from several sources. Major support comes from corporate sponsors as well as funds raised through NFL auctions of Lions' memorabilia and game-worn items. Lions' players, coaches and staff support the "CATS for Kids" program that provides free game tickets to youth groups and also raises funds for DLC. Donations also come from the "Up in Lights" program on game days.

DLC fundraisers include the bocce tournament, the Detroit Lions Invitational (DLI), and the Lions' Kickoff Luncheon. The Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament was held at Palazzo di Bocce in Orion Township on May 18 and raised approximately $75,000. This year's DLI, a golf tournament open to the public and featuring several current and former Lions' players, was held at TPC Michigan in Dearborn on June 8 and also raised an estimated $75,000. The Lions' annual Kickoff Luncheon will be held on September 1 at Ford Field.

GRANT REQUESTS

For tax-exempt Michigan organizations interested in filing for future funding, grant requests will be accepted from October 1 through December 31. Further information on grant eligibility guidelines and application procedures is available by going to the Lions' web page www.detroitlions.com or by writing Detroit Lions Charities, 222 Republic Drive, Allen Park, MI, 48101.

LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

DETROIT LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

MAKING A POSITIVE IMPACT

The Ford Family's commitment to community service and dedication to making an impact in the lives of the citizens of Michigan is evident by the contributions made all year long by the Detroit Lions players, coaches and staff. The Lions take great pride in supporting those in need and make every effort to lend a helping hand to the community that has always supported the Detroit Lions. The following is just a sample of some of the programs and events the Lions have been involved in during the past year.

DONATIONS & PLAYER APPEARANCES

DONATIONS

The Detroit Lions understand that even though not every DLC grant application can be fulfilled, they have other means of helping out charities throughout Michigan with donated memorabilia for school and community fundraisers, charity auctions and raffles. The Lions filled more than 2,000 donation requests in 2009 and strive to fill all donation requests in the state of Michigan. If you are having a fundraising or charitable event and are interested in a merchandise donation from the Detroit Lions, please go to www.detroitlions.com and click on the "Community" tab and then the "Make A Request" tab. All requests should be specific as to the need and the date that the fund-raising event is being held. Requests are required six weeks in advance of the date of the event.

PLAYER APPEARANCES

Lions' players spend much of their time away from football getting to know their fans by volunteering at special community events, hospitals, schools and fundraisers throughout the year. During 2009, players and coaches filled more than 250 appearance requests. Organizations requesting a player appearance can go to www.detroitlions.com and click on the "Community" tab and then the "Make A Request" tab. Requests should include information about the organization and appearance, where it will be held, what the player would be expected to do and if there is an honorarium available for the player. A six-week advance notice for all appearances is required.

FUNDRAISING

COURAGE HOUSE DINNER

Many Lions' players, alumni and staff joined sponsors and supporters at Ford Field for the 16th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner which recognized Lions' tackle Jeff Backus as the recipient of the 2009 Ed Block Courage Award and Mike Utley as recipient of the Ricky Sandoval Community Courage Award. ESPN's Mike Tirico served as the guest speaker. The annual dinner benefits HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse. Previous dinners have raised approximately $1.6 million for HAVEN.

DETROIT LIONS INVITATIONAL

Detroit Lions Charities raised approximately $75,000 at the Detroit Lions Invitational, the 20th annual golf tournament held at the prestigious TPC Michigan in Dearborn. Factoring in this year's substantial contribution, Detroit Lions Charities has now generated approximately $1.9 million in the 20 outings. Approximately 135 golfers enjoyed good golf and great fellowship at TPC Michigan's championship course – including the event chairman Lions' head coach Jim Schwartz and over 25 Lions' players.

KICKOFF LUNCHEON

Lions' fans were given the opportunity to meet the entire 2009 team and coaching staff at the 13th annual Detroit Lions Kickoff Luncheon. The annual kickoff to a new Lions' season was presented by Tribute Restaurant & The Wisne Family and hosted by the Detroit Economic Club at Ford Field. The primary recipient of Detroit Lions Charities' proceeds from the luncheon is the Think Detroit PAL youth football league. The league features approximately 3,200 youngsters playing in one of the nation's largest tackle football program.

TONY FILIPPIS MEMORIAL BOCCE TOURNAMENT

The 2010 Detroit Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament raised approximately $75,000 for Detroit Lions Charities to benefit the Athletes with Disabilities Network and various other charities in Michigan. The event is named in honor of the late Tony Filippis, long-time advocate for the disabled community. This year's tournament was led by honorary chairmen Tony Battaglia, AJ Filippis, Head Coach Jim Schwartz and former Lions' lineman Mike Utley. The tournament has raised more than $860,000 since it first originated in 2004 by former Lions head coach Steve Mariucci.

EDUCATION

DETROIT LIONS ACADEMY

The Detroit Lions Academy is an alternative middle school in Detroit for students who have not been successful in traditional middle school settings. The school first opened its doors in Fall 2001 with 60 students and expanded to 140 students by the Fall of 2009. The Academy is made possible through a collaborative effort between Detroit Public Schools, Communities in Schools of Detroit, the Detroit Lions and corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale and Ford Motor Company. The Lions continue their involvement with the Academy throughout the year with player and staff appearances.

LIONS ACADEMY

NFL TAKE A PLAYER TO SCHOOL

Lions' wide receiver Calvin Johnson participated in the NFL's "Take a Player to School" program presented by JCPenney Afterschool in 2009. During an assembly at Collins Elementary in Sterling Heights, Johnson spoke to students about the importance of good health and staying active as well as leading them in fitness activities. The program is part of the NFL's PLAY 60 campaign which encourages kids to get at least 60 minutes of exercise every day.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK PROGRAM

For the 13th consecutive season, the Lions and the NFL presented the Detroit Lions High School Coach of the Week Program. Each week throughout the regular season, one Michigan high school coach that best developed his players' character, discipline, and football skills was recognized for his commitment to the team, school and community. The winning coaches were honored at a Lions' home game and each received a $1,000 donation to his school's football program. Coach of the Year, Rich Hulkow from Marshall received $3,000. The Lions High School Coach of the Week program has awarded $246,000 to high school football programs throughout the state of Michigan.

MARTIN MAYHEW'S YOUTH FOOTBALL COACHING ACADEMY

Lions' general manager Martin Mayhew hosted a camp for 60 youth football coaches from Think Detroit PAL at Ford Field in 2010. Martin Mayhew's second annual Youth Football Coaching Academy focused on defense with the assistance of college coaches from across Michigan and Ohio as well as Detroit Lions alumni. Also assisting Mayhew at the camp was Pro Football Hall of Fame cornerback

Darrell Green. Last year, in the inaugural camp, the focus was on offense and special teams.

PUNT, PASS & KICK

For the 23rd consecutive year the Detroit Lions in partnership with the Michigan Recreation and Park Association (MRPA) hosted the Michigan NFL Punt, Pass & Kick Championships at Ford Field. Forty (40) youngsters age 8-15 competed for state titles in four age divisions for both boys and girls. The Michigan program is coordinated through the MRPA and is free to all youngsters.

THINK DETROIT PAL YOUTH FOOTBALL

THINK DETROIT PAL

The Lions were once again a major sponsor for Think Detroit PAL (TDP) youth football and host to the TDP football championships at Ford Field in 2009. The league features 80 teams and more than 3,200 youngsters, ages 8-14, making it among the largest leagues for tackle football in the nation. The Lions have sponsored the TDP Football League since1999. Each year, the Lions host the league's championships at Ford Field and designate the proceeds from their annual kickoff luncheon to support the TDP football program.

COMMUNITY ENHANCEMENT

American Heart Association.

The Lions teamed up with the American Heart Association and Detroit Public Television to co-host a youth fitness forum in 2009. The event was in association with the NFL's PLAY 60 campaign that challenges children to get at least 60 minutes of exercise each day. The forum panel and audience members that was composed of kids, teens and adults from all over Metro Detroit, discussed the importance of exercise, eating right and living healthy lives. Lions' players took part in discussions as well as demonstrated fitness drills.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

The Lions and the NFL continued their support in the fight against breast cancer. The campaign, "A Crucial Catch", in partnership with the American Cancer Society, focuses on the importance of screenings. Throughout October, Lions' players and coaches wore pink game apparel to raise awareness. Items were then auctioned off by NFL Auction, with proceeds benefiting the American Cancer Society. During the team's October home game local breast cancer survivors were guests at the game. The Lions also sponsored and took part in the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk at Belle Isle and the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure in Detroit.

HAITI EARTHQUAKE RELIEF

International Relief Fund to assist efforts in the wake of the tragic earthquake in Haiti. The donation was made in the name of players Cliff Avril, Gosder Cherilus and Louis Delmas, who are of Haitian decent. Delmas and his foundation "We R Love" hosted a "Detroit for Haiti" fundraiser. Cherilus and his foundation put together a team of 20 doctors and nurses and flew them to Haiti to assist. Linebacker Zack Follett auctioned off his Super Bowl XLIV tickets and personal artwork with proceeds going to relief efforts. The Lions also teamed up with Achatz Handmade Pie Co. to collect donations that went to benefit The Salvation Army Disaster Relief Fund. Combined efforts totaled approximately $20,000.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

The Lions teamed up with United Way for Southeastern Michigan and the Boys & Girls Club of Southeastern Michigan for the 11th annual Hometown Huddle. Lions' players participated with local area youth in several exercise activities and helped create a new fitness room at the Lloyd H. Diehl Club in Detroit. The Hometown Huddle helped promote the NFL Play 60 campaign which encourages kids to get at least 60 minutes of exercise every day.

HOSPITAL VISITS

The Detroit Lions commitment to the community is no more rewarding than when it touches the lives of youngsters, and one way in which players and staff are able to do just that is by making visits to Detroit-area children's hospitals. Children typically receive personal visits with the players, who help with homework, play games, share stories and provide the children encouragement. They also take time to sign autographs and take photos for the children and their families.

LIFT UP AMERICA

The Lions teamed up with Tyson Foods, Inc. to host "Lift Up America" at Ford Field again in 2009. Lift Up America was founded in 2005 with a mission to give back to communities across the country. Fueled by caring corporations and individuals and powered by a humanitarian heart, Lift Up America aims to feed the nation's hungry. During the event, volunteers and players worked together and loaded more than 30,000 pounds of Tyson Brand chicken into the vehicles of more than 60 agencies from the Detroit area.

LIFT UP AMERICA™

LIONS LADIES

Lions' players are not the only ones who try to help make an impact in the lives of others in the community. Wives and girlfriends of players, coaches and staff are always looking for ways to help, as well. Over the years the Lions Ladies have given their time, energy and support by reaching out to make a positive impact on the lives of others. For several years, the Lions Ladies have donated and delivered Thanksgiving food baskets to the Coalition on Temporary Shelter (COTS) in Detroit to help people in need. In 2009, the wives of Lions' management and coaching staff initiated a mentoring program with female students from the Detroit Lions Academy, the team's alternative middle school in Detroit.

NFL YET CENTER

The Lions continue their support of the NFL YET Center/Boys & Girls Club on the Dick and Sandy Dauch Campus in Detroit. The YET, which opened its doors in May 2007, is a 30,000 square-foot facility that consists of a gymnasium and locker rooms, games room, teen center, technology center and multi-media studio, learning center, arts and crafts center, community room, snack area and numerous other spaces for youth programs. It also includes an outdoor athletic field sponsored by Buffalo Bills' owner and Detroit native Ralph Wilson and a fitness trail sponsored by the Lions.

PANCREATIC CANCER ACTION NETWORK

The Lions once again teamed up with the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network to help increase awareness of pancreatic cancer, the fourth leading cause of cancer death in the U.S. Each year more than 37,000 Americans are diagnosed with the cancer. The Lions were touched by pancreatic cancer when Director of Security Ricky Sandoval was diagnosed in May 2006. Sandoval lost his courageous battle to this disease in July 2009. The Lions received the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network's 2010 Affiliate Sponsor of the Year award for raising national and local awareness and funding, and for their support of Sandoval and his wife. Gael.

ADVANCE RESEARCH. SUPPORT PATIENTS. CREATE HOPE.

PET CALENDAR

Lions' players and their pets were photographed for the seventh annual Detroit Lions Pet Calendar in 2009 to help support the Dearborn Animal Shelter. Proceeds from sales of the calendar will help the Friends for the Dearborn Animal Shelter to build a new Dearborn animal shelter facility. The facility is planned to be the first animal shelter facility of its kind in Michigan, utilizing state-of-the-art innovation and design.

PLAY 60

Designed to tackle childhood obesity, NFL PLAY 60 brings together the NFL's long-standing commitment to health and fitness with partner organizations. In recognition of the campaign, which

GAME DAY ACTIVITIES

CATS FOR KIDS

The Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program provides an opportunity for players and coaches of the Lions to give back to the community by purchasing game tickets through Detroit Lions Charities. The mission of the program is to distribute tickets to youth organizations for children that would not otherwise have a chance to attend a Lions' game.

CHARITY DRIVES

The Lions, with the assistance of many sponsors and fans, were able to help many people in need through its annual game-day collection drives. Fans donated tons of coats and blankets to the 19th annual Thanksgiving Day Coat Drive, benefiting that benefits the Salvation Army. The 15th annual Toys for Tots Toy Drive collected thousands of toys that were distributed to less fortunate children in the Detroit area by the U.S. Marine Corps in Detroit.

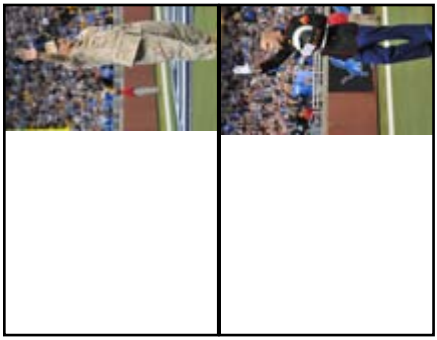

HOMETOWN HEROES

UP IN LIGHTS

The Lions "Up in Lights Program" allows fans a unique opportunity

Lions' home games. The messages are shown on all TV monitors in the stadium and the large stadium boards in both end zones during the game. The cost is a $100.00 fee per message payable by check, money order or credit card to Detroit Lions Charities.

ALUMNI

ALUMNI DAY

The Lions hosted more than 40 of its former players at their September 27th game at Ford Field as part of the annual Lions' Alumni Day festivities. The Lions hosted a brunch at the DoubleTree Guest Suites in Detroit for the alumni prior to the game, provided tickets and transportation to the game and introduced the players on the field during special pre-game ceremonies.

PRIDE OF THE LIONS

On November 22, 2009, the Lions announced the 12 members of the Pride of the Lions charter class. Those members, all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, include: Lem Barney, Jack Christiansen, Dutch Clark, Lou Creekmur, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Yale Lary, Bobby Layne, Barry Sanders, Charlie Sanders, Joe Schmidt, Doak Walker and Alex Wojciechowicz. The Lions unveiled the team's Pride of the Lions, a permanent stadium display honoring the 12 greatest players in team history, during a celebration at halftime of their game against the Cleveland Browns at Ford Field.

DETROIT LIONS YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Detroit Lions Youth Football Initiative has been created for the sole purpose of making a positive impact on children's lives both on and off the field through football. Many life lessons can be learned by playing the game, and the Lions would like to play its part in the positive development of Michigan's youth. The implementation of the following state-wide programs will help increase interest in children playing organized football as well as aid in the development of those coaching the game.

For more information on any of the Detroit Lions Youth Football Programs or to join the mailing list, please call (313) 262-2248, e-mail cfritzsching@detroitlions.com or visit www.detroitlions.com/youthfootball.

SUMMER YOUTH FOOTBALL CAMPS & ACADEMIES

Camps will be conducted 9 weeks during the summer. Non-contact, fundamental football camps, designed to improve child's beginning, intermediate and advanced skill levels, are either 2 or 4 days for children ages 6-14. Participation from former or current Lions' players adds to the quality of the experience. Fundamentals of all positions on offense, defense and special teams are taught during the instruction.

Lions Youth Football Camp includes: Non-contact fundamental football instruction; Lions Camp T-shirt; Guest appearance from a current or former Lions player; Chalk talk & video sessions; Skills contests & scrimmages; Opportunity to earn week-long awards such as the Leadership Award, Attitude Award, Extra Effort Award, Future Star Award, Consistency Award, Teammate Award, Most Improved Award and the Hustle Award.

Camp schedule is available in February of each year.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT SESSIONS

Take your game to the next level! Sign up for Detroit Lions Skill Development Sessions! Members of the Detroit Lions Youth Football Camp Coaching Staff conduct one hour sessions that include detailed, one-on-one, position-specific instruction, video analysis, and a written evaluation. Video analysis and comparison to other football players helps in the overall development of the participant. Participants receive a DVD of their Skill Development Session. Sessions can be conducted year-round.

LIONS "LEADERS FOR LIFE" EDUCATIONAL SCHOOL ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Exciting, interactive 45-minute assemblies are conducted September-April at elementary schools throughout Michigan. This interactive, high-energy character education program discusses six qualities it takes to become a successful leader.

FIRST HALF: "Lions Leaders for Life" assembly is designed to discuss the development of character, academic and athletic values through goal-setting. Interactive vignettes will help explain the Lions Leadership List (Listen & Learn, Educated, Ambitious, Disciplined, Encouraging, and Responsible), a list to help youth become a leader today, tomorrow, the rest of the school year and for the rest of their lives.

FUNDAMENTAL YOUTH FOOTBALL CLINICS

Clinics are conducted at elementary schools, Recreation Departments, YMCA's, Boys and Girls Clubs and local parks or for youth football organizations. These one-and-a-half hour clinics can be held indoor or outdoor, September-May, and teach the fundamentals of quarterback, running back or wide receiver play in a safe, fun and educational manner.

HALFTIME YOUTH FOOTBALL GAMES

Be part of the halftime entertainment! Experience the thrill of playing at Ford Field in front of 65,000 people during halftime at a Detroit Lions game. Youth football teams ages 8-10 have the opportunity to suit up like the pros, play at Ford Field, and feel what it is like to walk out of the players' tunnel! Three to six games are conducted every football season. This experience will provide great team building opportunities and ultimately great memories for youth football organizations!

PARENT-CHILD CLINICS

Participate in a Detroit Lions Parent-Child Football Clinic for a game day experience you'll never forget! Actively participate in football drills at Ford Field with your child, enjoy a pre-game meal, sit in on a football classroom session to learn more about the game, and then watch the Lions from your seats for an exciting day of football fun with your family! Parent-Child Clinics are held 1-2 times per season

HIGH SCHOOL 7-ON-7 TOURNAMENT

The Detroit Lions High School Football 7-on-7 Passing Tournament is open to 12 varsity high school football teams. The double-elimination passing tournament is held in June or July at Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions.

YOUTH FOOTBALL FORUM

The Detroit Lions have created an exciting program entitled the "Detroit Lions Youth Football Forum", designed to discuss issues critical to the day-to-day operation of youth football conferences, organizations and teams.

The purpose of the Youth Football Forum is to allow for discussion of key topics, meet new league representatives and share innovative ideas with the hope of gathering new programs, concepts and rules for the betterment of the youth football experience. Topics include age and weight restrictions, coaching education, background checks, equipment, insurance, fundraising and much more.

The Youth Football Forum consists of two to four meetings per year with members being selected by the Detroit Lions organization. The current Forum consists of 38 members from 26 different Youth Football Organizations around the state of Michigan, representing over 62,000 youth football players.

DETROIT LIONS COACHING ACADEMY

The Detroit Lions have developed a football education program designed to elevate the quality of coaching at the youth, middle and high school levels across the State of Michigan.

Topics covered include Coaching Philosophy; Football Skills, Strategy & Drills; Health, Fitness, Nutrition & Strength Training; and On-Field Demonstrations, along with several specialty sessions.

DETROIT LIONS/MEIJER KIDS CLUB

For information on how to become a member, call (313) 262-2248 or visit www.detroitlions.com/kidsclub.

FORD FIELD

Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions, is one of the premiere sports and entertainment stadiums in the world, and that fact has been proven over and over again the past few years with such high-profile international events like Super Bowl XL.

Every event at Ford Field impacts the city of Detroit beyond the event itself inside the stadium. For example, by hosting the Super Bowl in Detroit, Ford Field stood as the centerpiece to an over $260 million economic impact on Metro Detroit.

And none of that would have been made possible without the vision and investment made by Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford and the Ford family to not only construct a fine football stadium but an unrivaled sports and entertainment venue.

HOME FOR FOOTBALL

2009 FALL FOOTBALL EVENTS

- 10 Lions home games, including the Lions 70th Thanksgiving Day Classic
- 13th annual Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl: Ohio vs. Marshall
- MAC Football Championship: Ohio vs. Central Michigan
- MHSAA High School State Championships
- High School Catholic League Championship
- Annual Detroit PAL Football Championships

Ford Field is busy during the summer time as well when the Detroit Lions Youth Football Programs host both summer camps and a high school 7-on-7 tournament at the stadium.

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparkled as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations.

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

THE ROAD AHEAD

Football events are not the only major events on the docket at Ford Field. The future is gearing up for several spectacular events that are anchors in an impressive entertainment schedule that continues serving as a centerpiece to growth in Detroit's downtown business district. The following is the Ford Field upcoming events calendar (tentative).

- Nov. 26-27: MHSAA Football Championships
- Dec. 3: Marathon MAC Football Championship
- Dec. 26: Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights in 2009 year as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

The 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the city of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to the championship at Ford Field was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the National Semifinals. In the National Championship, North Carolina ousted Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off on a record note as Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered as well. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans attending both games, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,448 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Although the primary focus of Final Four weekend was on the student athletes, the festivities surrounding the event livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which include a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

2008 MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time as well, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin,73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single Regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans World Dome in 1999.

NCAA HOCKEY

In 2010 Ford Field elevated collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosted the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which was the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, proved the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before.

For both the National Semifinals and National Championship, the crowds that gathered set new NCAA records and new world records for an indoor hockey game. Overall, approximately 19,000 more fans experienced the Frozen Four weekend than ever before. The first night of the Frozen Four, the National Semifinals, commenced as Ford field established a new attendance record of 34,954. Wisconsin defeated Rochester Institute of Technology 8-1 and Boston College upended Miami 7-1. In the National Championship game, Boston College claimed the NCAA title by shutting out Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 37,592. In total, 72,546 fans watched the Frozen Four at Ford Field.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 65,000-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2003 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field warmed-up for that championship event by hosting one of the four Men's Basketball Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA returned in 2010 as Ford Field hosted the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Besides events like the NCAA Final Four, Midwest Regionals and Frozen Four, Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the Monster Jam monster truck series for the past five years and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact will continue to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, tradeshows and concerts.

FEATURES

Ford Field is nestled at the intersection of I-75 and I-375 in downtown Detroit. The 40-foot glass wall entrance is located at the corner of Adams and Brush Street. Brush Street runs between Ford Field and Comerica Park, home of the Detroit Tigers. St. Antoine Street runs on the east side of the stadium and Beacon St. borders Ford Field on the south side.

LUXURY SUITES

The luxury suite options are like no other in the sports industry. Ford Field incorporates 132 luxury suites, including 115 in the warehouse and 17 on the north side of the stadium. The 115 suites in the warehouse are located on four different levels.

The inspired design that integrates luxury suites into the historic Hudson's warehouse affords each suite holder significant opportunities, including optimum views, easy access and customized floor plans. By eliminating end zone suites, Ford Field luxury suites offer goal-line-to-goal-line, corner-to-corner views of every play. Since suites are centrally located, access is simple and direct, and creative use of warehouse space provides flexibility to create a wide selection of suite shapes and sizes.

Suites can accommodate from eight to 30 people, which allows for a wider variety of suites than any other football stadium.

Suite holders receive amenity packages consisting of tickets for all Lions' home games, tickets for most non-Lions events, first option on additional tickets to non-Lions events, VIP parking, private entrance, private concourse, private bathroom access, premium catering, in-suite televisions to view additional NFL action, full concierge service and day use of suite (during normal business hours).

CLUB SEATS

There are 8,700 club seats at Ford Field. 4,300 club seats are located on the north side, and 4,400 are located on the club level that is adjoined to the warehouse. Club seats at Ford Field represent the ultimate in club experience with an unrivaled game day opportunity.

Club seat ticket holders have access to four exclusive clubs in the stadium with expanded food selection of upscale cuisine.

Amenities include: wide, leather padded seats (manufactured by Visteon) with cupholders, elevator and escalator services from main entrances, two private entrances, climate controlled atmosphere, televisions and video walls in club lounges, club level concierge service, exclusive Lions merchandise store, opportunities to purchase tickets to other Ford Field events and opportunities for year-round use of club lounges for business meetings and social functions.

LIONS PRO SHOP

The Detroit Lions' official merchandise store, Lions Pro Shop, is located inside Ford Field on the Adams St. Concourse. The team store is open for business Monday-Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3 p.m. and during select events.

HEADQUARTERS & TRAINING FACILITY

The Ford family not only made a commitment to bring the pride of the Detroit Lions back into downtown Detroit with the construction of Ford Field, but they also decided that the new training and practice facility would be rivaled by no other team in the National Football League.

The Lions' $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility is built on a 22.7-acre parcel and is located just west of Detroit on the border of Allen Park and Dearborn. In fact, the facility is just down the street from Ford Motor Company's World Headquarters.

The franchise broke ground on the new world-class facility in August 2000 and moved into its new digs in April 2002. The 460,000 square foot complex includes a full indoor practice field, 2.5 outdoor practice fields, a state-of-the art weight and training room, a massive locker room, a hydrotherapy room, a spacious equipment room, a cafeteria, meeting rooms for each position, a player lounge, a 106-person auditorium for full team meetings and large press conferences, a broadcast studio, a library and archive room, a media room along with offices for all personnel.

When entering the building from the main entrance, one is immediately hit with flashbacks of Lions' football. A 23-by-26 foot mural is covered with the likes of nine Hall-of-Fame Lions players.

In an effort to keep the environment clean, William Clay Ford, Jr. also made sure the building was built with renewable and recyclable products. The bamboo floors in the lobby, latex paint and rubber flooring have all contributed to this cause.

SANDOVAL FIELD

In June 2009, the Lions indoor practice field was named "Sandoval Field" in honor of Ricky Sandoval, who passed away after a courageous and extended battle with pancreatic cancer that lasted more than three years.

As a dedicated member of the organization, Sandoval touched virtually every person and every aspect of the team's operations. He was hired as director of security in June of 2001, and for eight seasons he managed the team's security operations.

The impact Sandoval had on everyone who knew him was lasting and profound. To recognize and honor his dedication and devotion to the Lions organization, "Sandoval Field" is a fitting tribute given his oversight of security at each and every team practice since 2001.

"Ricky set a new standard for courage as he not only fought this disease, but did so with incredible spirit, dignity and determination," said Lions President Tom Lewand.

DETROIT LIONS RADIO NETWORK

The Detroit Lions enter their 15th year with CBS Radio and their seventh season on flagship station 97.1 The Ticket (WXYT-FM). In 2009, the Lions and CBS Radio renewed their broadcast partnership by extending their current deal through 2012.

In 2010, all Lions games will be carried live on flagship station 97.1 The Ticket. The Detroit Lions Radio Network will comprise of 30 stations throughout Michigan, Ohio and into Canada.

The Lions' broadcasting team features Dan Miller, who is in his fifth season as the Lions Radio Network's play-by-play announcer. Alongside Miller in the booth will be Detroit radio and television sports personality Jim Brandstatter, a former star lineman for the University of Michigan, who will provide the color commentary. Brandstatter is now in his 24th season on the Lions Radio Network after joining the team in 1987. In his 10th year as the Detroit Lions Radio Network sideline reporter is Tony Ortiz. Rounding out the team and working behind the scenes is Al Rosenberg, who enters his 17th season serving as the engineer and on-site producer.
