FORD FAMILY

2025 DETROIT LIONS

SHEILA FORD HAMP

PRINCIPAL OWNER AND CHAIR

On June 23, 2020, Sheila Ford Hamp succeeded her mother, Martha Firestone Ford, as Principal Owner and Chair of the Detroit Lions. From 2014-19, Mrs. Hamp served as one of the team's vice chairs during her mother's ownership.

Mrs. Hamp carries the Ford Family's proud legacy that was first established by her father, William Clay Ford, who passed away on March 9, 2014, after serving as the sole owner of the franchise for 50 seasons (1964-2013). Mr. Ford's ownership grew into a deeply-rooted family tradition that now includes multiple generations of the Ford Family.

At the end of the 2020 season, Mrs. Hamp, with the assistance of President and CEO Rod Wood, Chief Operating Officer Mike Disner and Special Assistant to President/CEO and Chairperson Chris Spielman, laid out a clear vision for the organization. With the goal of establishing the Lions as a workplace built on a collaborative culture, the search for new leadership resulted in the arrival of Brad Holmes and Dan Campbell.

Holmes was named Executive Vice President and General Manager on January 14, 2021 after spending 18 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (2003-20) in a variety of roles, including most recently director of college scouting. That same week, Campbell, a former tight end with 22 years of NFL experience, including 11 as a coach and 11 as a player, was named the team's new Head Coach. These key hires, born from Mrs. Hamp's vision for a culture of communication, collaboration and innovation, have helped lay a foundation for success across the Lions organization that will continue to grow into the 2025 NFL season.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Hamp in 2024, the Lions ushered in a new era of success for the team which included unveiling new uniforms, partnering with Meijer to rename the team's practice facility in Allen Park, and revamping the team's training camp festivities. On the field, the team set records during the 2024 regular season, posting the most wins (15), touchdowns scored (70) and points scored (564) in a single season in franchise history. The Lions captured their second-consecutive NFC North title with a 31-9 Week 18 win over rival Minnesota and secured the number-one seed in the NFC for the first time in team history. In 2023, the Lions advanced to the NFC Championship Game for just the second time in team history following two playoff wins over the Los Angeles Rams and Tampa Bay Buccaneers – the first-ever playoff games in Ford Field history. The Lions' NFC North Division title in 2023 marked the team's first division championship since 1993.

Mrs. Hamp has helped elevate the Lions to the national spotlight during her time as Principal Owner and Chair. In 2024, Hamp and the Lions leadership team helped showcase Detroit to the sporting world as the city hosted the 2024 NFL Draft. More than 775,000 fans attended the annual NFL spectacle, setting a new NFL Draft record. Through Hamp's vision, the Lions also participated in the NFL's premier behind-the-scenes television series Hard Knocks, which provided an inside look at Lions Training Camp through collaboration with NFL Films and HBO. Detroit carried the momentum of the 2022 offseason into the regular season as the Lions won eight out of their final 10 games to close out the year with a 9-8 record, including a 20-16 win over Green Bay in Week 18 that eliminated the Packers from playoff contention.

In 2022, Mrs. Hamp and Wood unveiled a new organizational leadership structure that included the hiring of two new senior positions in Brian Facchini, Chief Communications and Brand Officer, and Lindsay Verstegen, Chief People and Diversity Officer. The revamped leadership team has since helped establish long-term goals for the Lions that focus on football and organizational excellence, fan engagement, brand reputation and stadium experience.

During her first year as Principal Owner and Chair, Mrs. Hamp created a Culture Task Force that was designed to improve organizational culture through enhanced employee engagement, alignment and openness. The work of the Task Force, which included an employee-wide survey to address areas of improvement, led to Mrs. Hamp establishing various sub-committees that now allow employees to strategize and achieve work solutions together across the Allen Park and Ford Field offices.

Mrs. Hamp's hands-on approach to leading the Lions also extends to the league level. In February 2021, she participated in the NFL's Women's Careers In Football Forum, where she, along with Cleveland Browns Managing and Principal Partner Dee Haslem, led a "From Firsts To The Future" panel discussion with young women about breaking into careers in professional football. She also serves on the NFL's Fan Engagement and Major Events Committee, as well as the NFL Foundation Committee.

At the age of five, Mrs. Hamp, the second of four children, began attending Lions games at Briggs (Tiger) Stadium and Lions Training Camp at Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills, Mich. As a teenager, her love of the Lions and knowledge of the game of football would impress many, including then NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle. Now as Principal Owner and Chair, Mrs. Hamp focuses that love, knowledge and commitment to the team that has been part of her family for decades.

Beyond her involvement with the Lions, Mrs. Hamp and her husband, Steve, are very active in numerous community and charitable organizations. She is on the board of the Purple Rose Theatre Company in Chelsea, Mich. Mrs. Hamp also is a Trustee Emeritus of the Board of The Henry Ford. In addition, she is the Chair of the Board for Detroit Lions Foundation, and serves on the boards for the Edsel and Eleanor Ford House and USA Football.

Mrs. Hamp was a member of the ground-breaking group of students who were in the first class of women to graduate from Yale University where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree. While at Yale, she played varsity tennis and earned Major Y honors during her college career. Following her graduation from Yale, she earned her Master of Arts degree in teaching and early childhood education from Boston University.

Sports have always been an integral part of Mrs. Hamp's life. In addition to her accomplishments as a college tennis player, she competed as a junior tennis player at the national level and won a Michigan state tennis title at age 17. She also coached youth soccer for more than 10 years in her current hometown of Ann Arbor, where she and her husband, Steve, raised their family.

FORD FAMILY
BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND OWNERS/VICE CHAIRS

The unique relationship between the Ford Family and The Detroit Lions...

... goes all the way back to 1934, the very first season the Lions ever played in Detroit, when William Clay Ford attended his first Lions game with his father, Edsel Ford.

In 1963, Mr. Ford would purchase the Lions and become sole owner, and over the past six decades the passion and love Mr. Ford had for the Lions was shared with his wife, Martha, their children and grand-children. Upon Mr. Ford's passing in 2014, the Lions remained in the family as Mrs. Ford assumed majority ownership, and in 2020 she was succeeded by her daughter, Sheila Ford Hamp.

Mrs. Hamp is supported directly by her three siblings, Martha Ford Morse, William Clay Ford Jr. and Elizabeth Ford Kontulis, each of whom respectively serve as owner/vice chair and on the board of directors. All four children are members of the Board of Trustees for the Detroit Lions Foundation.

The vice chairs' involvement with the Lions dates back to when they also attended games during their childhood. Years later, they now remain deeply devoted, along with their mother, to overseeing and governing the Lions with one primary goal in mind -- to bring Detroit a Super Bowl title.

The Ford Family continues the legacy left by Mr. Ford to support the city of Detroit and the state of Michigan with transformative philanthropy, while also establishing the Lions organization as exemplary on and off the field.

Following six seasons (2014-19) as the Detroit Lions Owner and Chair, Martha Firestone Ford now serves as Owner/Chair Emeritus and supports her four children – Principal Owner and Chair Sheila Ford Hamp, Owner/Vice Chair Martha Ford Morse, Owner/Vice Chair William Clay Ford Jr., and Owner/Vice Chair Elizabeth Ford Kontulis – in the organizational leadership of the franchise.

Mrs. Ford succeeded her husband, William Clay Ford, who passed away on March 9, 2014, after serving as the sole owner of the franchise for 50 seasons (1964-2013). Following her husband's passing, Mrs. Ford became the fifth principal owner or syndicate group to own and operate the franchise since it moved to Detroit in 1934.

Along with the entire Ford Family, Mrs. Ford appreciates the unwavering support of Lions fans and knows that winning and bringing a Super Bowl title to Detroit remains the team's primary goal. Beyond success on the field, she desires to deliver one of the best fan gameday experiences in all of sports. Under her ownership, the team made significant investments to Ford Field, including a $100 million stadium renovation in 2017.

In addition to her contributions to the football team, Mrs. Ford also has made a positive impact in the community. In June 2016, she was honored with the 2016 Zero Tolerance Award from the Detroit Public Safety Foundation at the annual "Women in Blue" banquet for the team's stance on domestic violence. In January 2019, the Lions announced an initial $600,000 commitment from Mrs. Ford and players toward the launch of Detroit Lions Inspire Change, a social justice initiative in the City of Detroit that has continued into 2025. Funds generated for the team's social justice initiative focus on three community pillars as determined by the players – Scholarship Funding, Social-Educational Programs and Medical Aid/Health Assistance.

In March 2019 as part of the NFL's celebration of its 100th season, Mrs. Ford starred in the NFL Films production A Lifetime of Sundays, a documentary highlighting the lives of four matriarchs of the NFL family – Mrs. Martha Firestone Ford (Detroit Lions), Mrs. Virginia Halas McCaskey (Chicago Bears), Mrs. Patricia Rooney (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Mrs. Norma Hunt (Kansas City Chiefs). The film debuted at the NFL Annual Meeting before airing on ESPN to a national audience.

Born in Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Ford is the granddaughter of one of America's great automotive industrial icons, Harvey Firestone. She graduated from Vassar College in 1946 with a bachelor's degree. After getting married in 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Ford moved to New Haven, Conn., where Mr. Ford attended Yale. The couple relocated to the Detroit area in 1952 and became active members of the Metro Detroit community.

Mrs. Ford also serves on the board for Detroit Lions Foundation and is an Honorary Trustee on The Henry Ford Health System Board of Trustees. She has held leadership positions with many organizations, including The Merrill Palmer Institute, The University Liggett School, and The Children's Home of Detroit. She was also the founder and longtime board member of The Maple Grove Institute.

Along with her four children, Mrs. Ford also has 14 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

2025 DETROIT LIONS

ROD WOOD

PRESIDENT AND CEO

NFL YEARS: 10 LIONS YEARS: 10

As Detroit Lions Team President and CEO, Rod Wood oversees all football and business operations of the Lions organization and reports directly to Principal Owner and Chair Sheila Ford Hamp. He was originally appointed Team President on Nov. 19, 2015.

Under Wood's leadership, the Lions have ushered in a new era of success over the last three seasons. In 2024, the team set records during the regular season, posting the most wins (15), touchdowns scored (70) and points scored (564) in a single season in franchise history. The Lions captured their second-consecutive NFC North division title with a 31-9 Week 18 win over rival Minnesota and secured the number-one seed in the NFC for the first time in team history. In 2023, Ford Field hosted its first two playoff games, welcoming an environment of loyal fans that propelled the Lions to their second all-time appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

Wood's direction of the Lions has resulted in unprecedented popularity for the club heading into the 2025 season. Last season, Detroit ranked first in average national TV viewership with an average of 22.65 million people tuning in to watch Lions games. Including the preseason, the Lions will play in 13 nationally-televised games in 2025, highlighted by a Christmas Day matchup at Minnesota that will be broadcast to the world through the NFL's new partnership with NETFLIX. At Ford Field, the Lions' homefield advantage continues to rank as one of the top game presentation environments in the NFL following back-to-back years of sold-out season tickets.

Across the City of Detroit, Wood and the Lions leadership team have helped highlight Detroit on the national stage. The Motor City hosted the 2024 NFL Draft and went on to set a new attendance record for the event with more than 775,000 fans attending over the course of the three days. A week prior to the Draft, the Lions also debuted new uniforms that now feature home blue, road white and alternate black jersey combinations that provide a modern-classic look to the Lions' on-field performance.

In his nine years, Wood has implemented significant changes that range from day-to-day operations to new branding and has done so guided by a mission to improve the team's competitive financial position, fan engagement and overall customer experience. In 2024, Wood helped lead the efforts to align Michigan-based Meijer as the official naming rights partner of the Lions practice facility in Allen Park – now officially known as the Meijer Performance Center. In March of 2025, the Lions and Ford Motor Company extended the stadium naming rights agreement for Ford Field. Ford Field has been the home of the Lions since 2002, making it the second-longest-tenured naming rights partnership in the NFL.

Additionally, Wood has worked to improve the team's football infrastructure at the Lions' Allen Park practice facility. Over the past six years, the organization has completely renovated and updated the weight room, locker room, practice fields and athletic training room, along with other ongoing facility improvements and branding enhancements.

In February 2017, Wood unveiled plans for the first major renovation to Ford Field since it opened its doors in 2002. The $100 million investment incorporated a complete overhaul of the audio and visual experience that featured new videoboards as well as a new state-of-the-art sound system. The stadium's premium spaces also received a complete makeover with expanded offerings to fans. With the fan game-day experience a primary focus for Wood, his team also implemented a significant upgrade to the stadium's Wi-Fi and oversaw the return of a team cheerleading squad for the first time in four decades.

Off the field, Wood has provided support for the team's social justice initiative, Detroit Lions Inspire Change. The initiative began with an initial $600,000 commitment from Mrs. Ford and Lions players in 2018 and has since continued through grants to various Metro Detroit organizations.

At the League level, Wood was appointed to and serves on the NFL's Investment Committee. For the eight years prior to his appointment as team president, Wood worked closely with the Detroit Lions organization and the Ford Family in his role as President and CEO of Ford Estates.

From 1999 until his appointment at Ford Estates in 2007, Wood was Executive Vice President of Wealth Management for the Wilmington Trust Company in Wilmington, Del., a $400 million operation with 17 offices in eight states. Wood directed the company's entire wealth management business nationally, and he managed the personal trust, financial planning, private banking, investment management, family office services and sales functions for the wealth advisory business of Wilmington Trust.

Prior to joining Wilmington Trust, Wood held an executive position with Comerica Bank where he oversaw 12 offices in four states.

Over the years, Wood has been a member on numerous company and non-profit boards. He now serves on the board of trustees and is an officer for Detroit Lions Foundation. He is also a member of the boards for Business Leaders For Michigan, an organization dedicated to making Michigan a Top Ten state for jobs, personal income and a healthy economy; CATCH, an organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for pediatric patients and their families at Children's Hospital of Michigan and Henry Ford Hospital; the Downtown Detroit Partnership, which includes business, philanthropic and government partners that strengthen the city through strategic initiatives and programs; as well as the Detroit Sports Organizing Corporation.

Wood graduated from Goodrich (Mich.) High School, and earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Michigan and a graduate degree from the ABA Graduate School of Commercial Banking.

Wood and his wife, Susan, enjoy spending time with their family – including their daughter, Alison, son-in-law, Brett, two grandchildren - Wesley and Merrick, their son, Taylor, and daughter-in-law, Julia.

BRAD HOLMES

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

NFL YEARS: 23 LIONS YEARS: 5

Brad Holmes was named the Lions Executive Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 14, 2021. In his role, he oversees the Lions' football operations and reports directly to Principal Owner and Chair Sheila Ford Hamp and President and CEO Rod Wood.

Holmes joined the Lions after spending 18 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (2003-2020). In 2013, the Rams elevated Holmes to Director of College Scouting, where he was responsible for overseeing the team's college scouting operations for eight seasons.

Holmes' vision for leading the Lions has been founded on a collaborative approach with Head Coach Dan Campbell as the two began reshaping the roster in 2021. Placing an emphasis on players with grit, passion and football character, Holmes has enhanced the Lions roster through precision in every phase of the talent acquisition process as he enters his fifth season as Executive Vice President and General Manager.

Holmes' combination of Draft success and strategic free agent signings has helped build a roster that achieved historic success the last two seasons. In 2024, the Lions set records during the regular season, posting the most wins (15), touchdowns scored (70) and points scored (564) in a single season in franchise history. The Lions captured their second-consecutive NFC North division title with a 31-9 Week 18 win over rival Minnesota and secured the number-one seed in the NFC for the first time in team history. In 2023, the team finished the season with a 12-5 record and clinched a division title for the first time in 30 years. The Lions went on to appear in their second-ever NFC Championship Game, their first since the 1991 season. Holmes was named the Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA) Executive of the Year in back-to-back seasons for his work in 2023 and 2024. He is the first Detroit Lions executive to win the award and the NFL's third general manager to win it multiple times.

The 2024 season saw four Lions (T Penei Sewell, WR Amon-Ra St. Brown, S Kerby Joseph, P Jack Fox) earn Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors, and two (C Frank Ragnow, PR Kalif Raymond) earn Second-Team All-Pro honors. Sewell, St. Brown, Fox and Ragnow also made their way to the Pro Bowl alongside QB Jared Goff, DB Brian Branch, RB Jahmyr Gibbs and T Taylor Decker. Gibbs set the franchise record and led the NFL in total touchdowns in a single season with 20, while Goff finished in the top five of every passing category and set a franchise record for most games with a 100+ passer rating with 12. St. Brown became only the third player in NFL history to record 115 receptions and 10 receiving touchdowns in consecutive seasons, while WR Jameson Williams recorded his first-career 1,000-yard season (1,001 yards). Defensively, Joseph led the entire NFL with nine interceptions, while Branch became only the third defensive back since 1999 to post 100 tackles, 15 pass defenses and five TFLs in a season.

With a draft-and-develop approach to building his team, Holmes' success in the draft has resulted in several of his core draft selections earning major contract extensions under his tenure, including Sewell, St. Brown, Joseph, DT Alim McNeill and LB Derrick Barnes. Holmes also signed QB Jared Goff, who was acquired by the Lions via a blockbuster trade with the Los Angeles Rams during Holmes' first month on the job in 2021, to a long-term contract extension prior to the 2024 season.

Over the last four seasons, Holmes and his personnel staff have also acquired key free agent signings that have helped piece together one of the deepest rosters in the NFL. Among the key veteran players who have joined the Lions as free agents under Holmes include, WR/PR Kalif Raymond, LB Alex Anzalone, RB David Montgomery, DT D.J. Reader, DB Amik Robertson and CB DJ Reed.

Prior to the Lions, Holmes led the Rams college scouting department and helped the organization capture two NFC West titles en route to three playoff berths and an appearance in Super Bowl LIII. After originally joining the Rams in 2003 as a public relations intern, Holmes transitioned into scouting and spent nearly two decades in a variety of roles within the organization's player personnel department, including NFS scout, area scout, national Combine scout and scouting assistant.

In his previous role, Holmes collaborated with the Rams' personnel directors to improve technological resources and enhance overall scouting procedures. While holding a prominent leadership role in the player personnel department from 2013-20, Holmes helped the Rams achieve a 64-58 record (.524), while having a total of 25 players named to the Pro Bowl during that span. He played an integral role in drafting several key players on the Rams' current roster, including DT Aaron Donald, QB Jared Goff, WR Cooper Kupp and S John Johnson. Holmes was also instrumental in helping the Rams acquire All-Pro CB Jalen Ramsey via trade in 2019.

A Tampa, Fla. native, Holmes graduated cum laude from North Carolina A&T State University in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science in Journalism and Mass Communications and was a four-year letterman for the Aggies at defensive tackle. He was voted team captain and helped A&T win the 1999 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and Black College Football National Championship. In May 2025, Holmes was given the distinguished honor of delivering the university's Class of 2025 commencement speech. In 2022, the Chamberlain (Fla.) High School Legacy Alliance recognized Holmes as a distinguished alumnus by naming the new football stadium press box in his honor.

Holmes is the son of Melvin Holmes, who played offensive line for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1971-73, and is also the nephew of former Lions defensive back Luther Bradley (1978 first-round pick). He is married to his wife, Lisa, and together they have two children.

MIKE DISNER

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

NFL YEARS: 19 LIONS YEARS: 7

Mike Disner enters his 19th season in the National Football League and his seventh with the Detroit Lions. In May 2022, he was named the organization's Chief Operating Officer after previously serving as Senior Vice President of Football and Business Administration. In his current role, Disner assumes responsibilities across both the football and business management teams, overseeing the organization's football operations and football administration, as well as leading the Lions' strategy and revenue teams. Disner's leadership has helped establish a supportive and efficient working relationship between the football and business operations that has led to more creative opportunities to enhance the Lions brand.

During the 2021 offseason, Disner worked alongside Principal Owner and Chair Sheila Hamp, President and CEO Rod Wood and Special Assistant to President/CEO and Chairperson Chris Spielman to reshape the culture and leadership of the Lions football operation. The group led a broad search that resulted in the hiring of Lions Executive Vice President and General Manager Brad Holmes and Head Coach Dan Campbell. The newly formed group continues to shepherd a new era of success for the Lions organization.

Disner's leadership has helped the Lions achieve historic success the last two seasons. In 2024, the Lions set records during the regular season, posting the most wins (15), touchdowns scored (70) and points scored (564) in a single season in franchise history. The Lions captured their second-consecutive NFC North division title with a 31-9 Week 18 win over rival Minnesota and secured the number-one seed in the NFC for the first time in team history. In 2023, the team finished the season with a 12-5 record and clinched a division title for the first time in 30 years. The Lions went on to appear in their second-ever NFC Championship Game, their first since the 1991 season.

Off the field, Disner's teams have helped the Lions' business goals reach new heights. In 2024, Michigan-based Meijer became the official naming rights partner of the Lions practice facility in Allen Park – now officially known as the Meijer Performance Center. In March of 2025, the Lions and Ford Motor Company extended the stadium naming rights agreement for Ford Field. Ford Field has been the home of the Lions since 2002, making it the second longest tenured naming rights partnership in the NFL.

Disner joined the Lions in 2019 with an extensive background in player contract negotiations and NFL salary cap regulations both at the club and League level. During his first two season with the club, he served as vice president of football administration and focused on matters pertaining to the club's salary cap management, player contract negotiations and compliance with the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement. Disner also oversaw the club's analytics efforts and financial strategic planning as it relates to player acquisition and roster construction.

Prior to joining Detroit, Disner spent six seasons (2013-18) with the Arizona Cardinals as director of football administration. During his time in Arizona, he served as the club's lead contract negotiator and a key member of the Cardinals leadership team overseeing the strategic planning and management of the team's salary cap. Disner's role also included serving as the organization's liaison to the NFL

Management Council and overseeing the development of technical and analytical initiatives for both the player personnel department and coaching staff.

While in Arizona, Disner worked on key contract extensions with marquee players such as Carson Palmer, Patrick Peterson, Larry Fitzgerald, Chandler Jones and Tyrann Mathieu. Disner also contributed to the rise of the Cardinals under Head Coach Bruce Arians, where the organization won at least 10 games three straight years after the franchise had accomplished the feat just once in the previous 35 years.

During the 2014 offseason, Disner was selected to Forbes "30 Under 30" list, which honors 30 athletes or executives who are 30 years or younger and making a mark in the sports industry. He has been named to The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40" list three times (2020, 2021, 2025).

Prior to joining Arizona, Disner spent four years working at the National Football League Management Council, serving as labor operations manager (2012) and labor operations coordinator (2009-11). In these roles, Disner reviewed all aspects of player contracts while also managing the salary cap process. During this time his team developed new analytic tools to assist clubs in evaluating salary related decision making. Disner was also instrumental in negotiations that helped cultivate the Rookie Compensation Pool in the League's 2011 Collective Bargaining Agreement, a system that is still used today.

Disner began his NFL career with the New England Patriots in 2007 as a scouting assistant after working as an intern for the Patriots for two summers (2005 and 2006). He was part of New England's personnel staff that helped the team capture the AFC title and an appearance in Super Bowl XLII.

A West Bloomfield, Mich. native, Disner played baseball at Williams College (Mass.) where he earned a degree in Economics. He and his wife, Gail, have two sons, Teddy and Archie.

DAN CAMPBELL

HEAD COACH

NFL YEARS: 16 LIONS YEARS: 5

On Jan. 20, 2021 the Detroit Lions named Dan Campbell the franchise's new head coach.

CAMPBELL'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2021-
Head Coach	2021-
New Orleans Saints	2016-20
Assistant Head Coach/Tight Ends	2016-20
Miami Dolphins	2010-15
Interim Head Coach	2015
Tight Ends	2011-15
Coaching Intern	2010

Campbell possesses 27 years of NFL experience, including 16 years as a coach and 11 as a player. Since his first year as the Lions' head coach, Campbell has helped instill a new culture built on grit, conviction and collaboration on and off the field. Upon arrival, Campbell assembled a proven coaching staff comprised of several former NFL players that have brought a wealth of knowledge and passion to Detroit's roster.

During the 2024 season, Campbell's Lions set records in the regular season, posting the most wins (15), touchdowns scored (70) and points scored (564) in a single season in franchise history. The Lions captured their second-consecutive NFC North division title with a 31-9 win in Week 18 over rival Minnesota and secured the number-one seed in the NFC for the first time in team history.

The 2024 season saw four Lions (T Penei Sewell, WR Amon-Ra St. Brown, S Kerby Joseph, P Jack Fox) earn Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors, and two (C Frank Ragnow, PR Kalif Raymond) earn Second-Team All-Pro honors. Sewell, St. Brown, Fox and Ragnow also made their way to the Pro Bowl alongside QB Jared Goff, DB Brian Branch, RB Jahmyr Gibbs and T Taylor Decker. Gibbs set the franchise record and led the NFL in total touchdowns in a single season with 20, while Goff finished in the top five of every passing category and set a franchise record for most games with a 100+ passer rating with 12. St. Brown became only the third player in NFL history to record 115 receptions and 10 receiving touchdowns in consecutive seasons, while WR Jameson Williams recorded his first-career 1,000-yard season (1,001 yards). Defensively, Joseph led the entire NFL with nine interceptions, while Branch became only the third defensive back since 1999 to post 100 tackles, 15 pass defenses and five tackles for loss in a season.

After claiming the division title in 2023, the team's first in 30 years, Campbell's team capitalized on a postseason run built on homefield advantage that led to the first time the Lions have ever hosted multiple playoff games in the same season. Detroit secured its first playoff win since the 1991 season after beating the Los Angeles Rams, 24-23, in the Wild Card Round, and went on to defeat the Buccaneers, 31-23, in the Divisional Round. Campbell is just the third coach in team history to win multiple playoff games, joining George Wilson (1957) and Buddy Parker (1953). Rooted in a culture based on resilience, Detroit did not lose consecutive games within a single season in 2023 for the first time since 1972.

In 2022, Campbell's Lions overcame a 1-6 start to finish 8-2 in the final 10 games of the season. Detroit finished with a 9-8 record overall, capped off by a 20-16 win at Green Bay on Sunday Night Football to eliminate the Packers from playoff contention. Offensively, the Lions ranked in the top five in several League categories in 2022, including total net yards (3rd, 6,460), total touchdowns scored (4th, 54), fewest turnovers (1st, 15), points scored (5th, 453) and 30-point games (T-1st, 8). On defense, the Lions set an NFL record for sacks by rookies (20.5). The Lions' 2022 defensive rookie class also ranked atop several League categories for 2022 – including second in rookie interceptions (7) and first in rookie tackles for loss (26).

With one of the NFL's youngest rosters in 2021, 85 players saw the field for the Lions in Campbell's first season at the helm, which tied for the third most in the NFL behind the Jets (87) and Titans (91). In 2021, 10 different Lions rookies started a combined 66 games, and the Lions featured at least one rookie player on 100 percent of offensive snaps. The leadership from Campbell and the coaching staff resulted in consistent player development, as the Lions finished the season winning three of their final six games of the season – including a 30-12 statement win over the Arizona Cardinals in Week 15 and a 37-30 win over rival Green Bay in Week 18.

In their first four years together, Campbell and Executive Vice President and General Manager Brad Holmes have emphasized building through the Draft as the foundational identity of the team. The pair assembled what became one of the most historically productive Draft classes in franchise history in the 2023 Draft. Jahmyr Gibbs (first round) and Sam LaPorta (second round) became the NFL's first set of rookie teammates to each produce 10 touchdowns in a season. Jack Campbell (first round) and Brian Branch (second round) became regular starters on the defensive side as well. The 2023 class complemented previous Campbell-Holmes draft selections such as Sewell (first round, 2021), Alim McNeill (third round, 2021), St. Brown (fourth round, 2021), Hutchinson (first round, 2022) and Joseph (third round, 2022) who have emerged as young leaders on the team.

Prior to becoming the head coach in Detroit, Campbell served as the assistant head coach/tight ends coach for the New Orleans Saints from 2016 – 2020. During the span of his five-year coaching tenure with New Orleans, the club captured four NFC South division titles, ranked first in the NFL in points scored (2,361), touchdowns (277), net yardage (31,147) and posted the third-most wins (56) in the League.

In 2019, Campbell helped coach TE Jared Cook to a Pro Bowl berth in Cook's first season with the Saints. Cook established a career-high average for yards per reception (16.4) that season under Campbell, while fellow TE Josh Hill posted a career-high 25 receptions for 226 yards and three touchdowns. During the 2017 season, Campbell's group saw three different players make starts at tight end, while still helping produce the NFL's fifth-best rushing offense.

In 2015, Campbell became the Miami Dolphins' interim head coach following organizational changes, where he took over a 1-3 team that had lost three consecutive contests and immediately helped the team win its first two games under his leadership. The Dolphins finished 5-7 under Campbell that season, including a 20-10 win over the New England Patriots in the season finale. Under Campbell, Miami improved eight spots in the NFL's rushing yards per game rankings and saw five Dolphins selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Additionally, QB Ryan Tannehill became the first Dolphins signal-caller to pass for at least 4,000 yards in consecutive seasons since Dan Marino (1984-86). Prior to taking over interim duties with the Dolphins, Campbell was responsible for mentoring Miami's tight ends unit dating back to 2011, after initially joining the Dolphins in 2010 as a coaching intern.

Campbell entered the NFL coaching ranks following an 11-year playing career with the New York Giants (1999-2002), Dallas Cowboys (2003-05), Detroit Lions (2006-08) and New Orleans Saints (2009). A third-round selection by the Giants in the 1999 NFL Draft, the former tight end appeared in 114 total career games (76 starts) and caught 91 passes for 934 yards and 11 touchdowns. He was a member of the Giants team that appeared in Super Bowl XXXV following the 2001 season. In his first year as a player with the Lions in 2006, Campbell posted career-highs in receiving yards (308), yards per reception (14.7) and touchdowns (four).

As the 28th head coach in franchise history, Campbell is also the fifth former Lions player to be named full-time head coach for the team and the first since Joe Schmidt, who played for Detroit from 1953-65 and served as head coach from 1967-72.

A Clifton, Texas native, Campbell attended Texas A&M, where he was a four-year letterman for the Aggies and majored in agricultural development. Campbell and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody, and a daughter, Piper.

Under Montgomery's leadership in 2024, the Lions set single-season franchise records in rushing touchdowns (29) and games with 100 rushing yards (16) while also tying a single-season NFL record by producing 15 games with at least 100 rushing yards and a rushing touchdown. Detroit's running backs combined to top all other NFL running back units in scrimmage yards (3,307), scrimmage touchdowns (32), rushing touchdowns (28) and rushes of 10-or-more yards (61).

Orchestrating a balanced rushing attack, Montgomery helped RBs Jahmyr Gibbs and David Montgomery each produce a scrimmage touchdown in the same game on seven occasions in 2024, tied for the second-most such games in a season in NFL history. The duo also became the first set of teammates in NFL history to each rush for at least 10 touchdowns in consecutive seasons (2023-24).

Montgomery helped guide Gibbs to one of the most prolific seasons by a running back in team history in 2024, with Gibbs setting a franchise record with an NFL-high 20 total touchdowns. Gibbs also set an NFL record by producing a rushing average of at least 5.0 yards per carry in seven-straight games (minimum 10 attempts) and became the first player in franchise history to produce a season with at least 1,900 scrimmage yards and 20 scrimmage touchdowns. Earning his second-straight Pro Bowl berth to start his career, Gibbs also tied for the NFL lead in rushing touchdowns (16), ranked third in scrimmage yards (1,929) and was fifth in rushing yards (1,412) while also joining Barry Sanders as the only running backs in franchise history to produce a game with four touchdowns.

In Montgomery's first season in Detroit in 2023, the Lions ranked tied-for-first in the NFL in games with a rushing touchdown (16), tied-for-first in rushing touchdowns (27), fifth in rushing yards (2,311) and fifth in rushing average (4.62). Their 27 rushing touchdowns set a single-season franchise record while their 2,311 rushing yards were the fifth-most in a season in franchise history. Detroit also tied a franchise record by producing 14 games with at least 100 rushing yards and a rushing touchdown.

In 2023, Montgomery guided Gibbs, a rookie, to a Pro Bowl berth and helped Montgomery produce 1,015 rushing yards and a career-high 13 rushing touchdowns, the most a free agent acquisition has had in their first season with the Lions. Under Montgomery's tutelage, Gibbs and Montgomery became the first set of teammates in NFL history to each produce 1,000 scrimmage yards and 10 rushing touchdowns for a team in the same season. Gibbs (two) and Montgomery (three) combined for five individual 100-yard rushing games in 2023, the first time Detroit had five individual 100-yard rushing games in a season since Pro Football Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders in 1998. The only other time the Lions had two players log multiple 100-yard rushing games in the same season was in 1936.

Gibbs also joined Sanders and Billy Sims as the only rookies in franchise history to produce a season with 1,000 scrimmage yards and 10 touchdowns and set a franchise rookie record by logging 13-straight games with at least 50 scrimmage yards to start his career. He ranked second in the NFL in 20-yard rushes (10) and was third in rushing average (5.19) among all NFL running backs in 2023. Montgomery tied the single-season franchise record for the most games with 50 rushing yards and a touchdown in a season (10) and became the first Lion to rush for 100 yards and a touchdown in consecutive games since 2004. He ranked third in the NFL in longest rush (75t), third in rushing yards per game (72.5) and tied for fifth in both rushing touchdowns (13) and rushing first downs (59) in 2023.

Prior to joining the Lions, Montgomery spent two seasons (2021-22) as the running backs coach with the Indianapolis Colts. In Indianapolis, Montgomery guided RB Jonathan Taylor to a record-breaking season in only his second year as a pro. Taylor earned a unanimous AP First-Team All-Pro selection and Pro Bowl honors in 2021 as he led the League in scrimmage yards (2,171), rushing yards (1,811) and rushing touchdowns (18). His rushing yards and touchdown marks set single-season franchise records, while he recorded the fewest carries to reach 1,000 rushing yards in team history.

Under his teaching, Montgomery's running backs corps ranked top 10 across the League from 2021-22 in rushing yards (4,406), rushing average (4.7) and rushes of 10+ yards (118). He cultivated one of the most dynamic backfields in the NFL, developing Taylor and RB Nyheim Hines as pass-catching threats. In 2021, the Colts were one-of-three teams to have multiple running backs with at least 40 receptions.

Before his stint in Indianapolis, he served two seasons as Maryland's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2019-20). In his first three games in the role, the Terrapins saw unprecedented success as their 159 points scored were the most over any three successive games in program history.

Despite playing only five games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Montgomery oversaw Maryland RB Jake Funk rushing 60 times for 516 yards (8.6 avg.) in 2020. His rushing average ranked second in the Big Ten while he averaged 129.0 rushing yards per game, the second-best mark in the conference. In 2019, he tutored the rushing tandem of RBs Javon Leake and Anthony McFarland Jr., leading them to become one of two running back duos in the Power Five to both tally at least eight touchdowns.

Prior to his time in College Park, Montgomery spent three seasons (2016-18) as the head coach at East Carolina. His impact was felt immediately as the Pirates put together their second-highest single-season passing attack in school history, averaging 334.7 air yards per game in 2016. Their 5,605 yards of offense (467.1 yards per game) stood as the fourth-highest total in program history.

In 2017, East Carolina's 3,815 passing yards ranked 12th in the FBS and were fifth-most in the school's record books. He also helped Biletnikoff Award finalist WR Zay Jones capture FBS stat titles in receptions (158) and receiving yards per game (145.5). Jones' 399-career receptions are the most in NCAA history.

Montgomery spent two years (2014-15) at Duke in his second stint with the Blue Devils as associate head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. He spent the 2013 season overseeing the passing game and wide receivers. In Montgomery's first year as the offensive coordinator in 2014, the offense's 421 points scored finished second-most in single-season program history.

In 2015, Montgomery was one-of-three finalists for the AFCA National Assistant Coach of the Year and earned recognition by Athlon as one of "College Football's 20 Best Coaches Under 40."

His first NFL coaching opportunity came with the Pittsburgh Steelers as wide receivers coach from 2010-12, where he mentored WRs Hines Ward, Mike Wallace and Antonio Brown. Under Montgomery's oversight, Wallace earned a Pro Bowl nod in 2011 while Brown was named 2011 Team MVP after becoming the first player in NFL history to amass 1,000-plus yards both receiving and on kick returns. Brown was also named to the 2011 Pro Bowl as a returner.

In his first coaching role at Duke, Montgomery directed the wide receivers at his alma mater from 2006-09. Montgomery played wide receiver for the Blue Devils from 1996-99, pacing the team in receiving for three-straight seasons and earning Team MVP honors in 1998 and 1999.

Montgomery went on to play three seasons with the Denver Broncos from 2000-02 and one season with the Oakland Raiders in 2003.

A Shelby, N.C. native, Montgomery has three sons, Cassius, Moses and Magnus. His wife, Ebony, is a native of Detroit, Mich.

JOHN MORTON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL YEARS: 22 LIONS YEARS: 2

With more than two decades of NFL coaching experience, John Morton enters the 2025 season as offensive coordinator for Detroit.

Most recently, Morton spent two seasons (2023-24) with the Denver Broncos where he served as the passing game coordinator. In 2024, Morton guided the passing game with rookie QB Bo Nix at the helm. Nix completed 376-for-567 passes (66.3%) for 29 touchdowns and 12 interceptions. He logged the second-most passing touchdowns, third-most completions and eighth-most passing yards by a rookie quarterback in NFL history. He earned two AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors (Week 10, Week 18) for historical performances. In Week 10, he became the first rookie quarterback in NFL history to complete over 80% of his passes while throwing for at least four touchdowns and 300 yards. In Week 18, he set a new franchise record for completion percentage (89.7%) in a win that secured Denver's first postseason berth since 2015. The Broncos finished the season with the third-highest completion percentage (66.5), fifth-most passing touchdowns (30) and the seventh-highest passer rating (94.1) in franchise history.

In 2023, Morton oversaw a passing game that ranked tied-for-fourth in the NFL in interceptions (nine), sixth in passer rating (96.7) and eighth in passing touchdowns (28). Broncos WR Courtland Sutton benefited from Morton's pass game, recording one of the best seasons of his career. Sutton became the first Bronco since 2014 to record at least 10 receiving touchdowns in a single season and was also 1-of-6 players in the NFL in 2023 with at least 700 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns after recording 59 catches for 772 receiving yards (13.1 avg.) and 10 touchdowns.

Morton's first stint in Detroit came as the senior offensive assistant in 2022. The Lions finished the season ranked in the top five in numerous NFL offensive categories, including fewest giveaways (15; first), fewest sacks allowed (24; second), total yards (380.0; fourth), red zone efficiency (66.2; fourth) and points per game (26.6; fifth). Detroit had five players selected to the Pro Bowl in 2022 with all coming from the offense (QB Jared Goff, WR Amon-Ra St. Brown, T Penei Sewell, C Frank Ragnow, former Lions TE T.J. Hockenson).

Morton spent three seasons (2019-21) under head coach Jon Gruden and interim head coach Rich Bisaccia as senior offensive assistant with the Las Vegas/Oakland Raiders. In Las Vegas, Morton helped guide QB Derek Carr to the most prolific passing season by a Raiders quarterback in franchise history as he set a single-season club record with 4,804 passing yards in 2022. Under Morton's tutelage, Carr became one-of-four quarterbacks in the NFL with at least 4,000 passing yards in four-straight seasons from 2019-21.
Morton also tutored two first-time Pro Bowlers in RB Josh Jacobs and TE Darren Waller while in Las Vegas. In 2021, Jacobs became the first rusher in franchise history to tally back-to-back seasons with at least 1,000 rushing yards to start his career, while Waller broke Hall of Fame WR Tim Brown's team record for most receptions in a single season (107).

In 2020, Morton helped oversee one of the most successful offensive campaigns in franchise history. While ranking top 10 in nearly all major offensive categories, Morton assisted the offense in producing a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher for the second consecutive season after becoming the first offense to do so in club history in his first season in 2019.

Prior to the Raiders, Morton spent one season as the offensive coordinator under head coach Todd Bowles with the New York Jets in 2017. Under Morton's direction, QB Josh McCown completed a career-best 67.4 percent of his passes, a mark that ranked as the third-highest completion percentage in franchise history. He also helped bolster the wide receiver corps, with WRs Robby Anderson and Jermaine Kearse seeing career years in 2017.

Before joining the Jets, Morton spent two seasons (2015-16) under head coach Sean Payton with the New Orleans Saints as the wide receivers coach. This marked his second stint with the club after serving as offensive assistant/passing game coordinator in 2006. In his time overseeing the wide receivers in New Orleans, Saints receivers led the league with a combined 507 receptions and 6,682 yards. In 2016, New Orleans boasted two 1,000-yard receivers in WRs Brandin Cooks and Michael Thomas, despite both having under three years of experience.

Morton spent four seasons (2011-14) under head coach Jim Harbaugh with the San Francisco 49ers as the passing game/wide receivers coach. During that span, Morton helped WRs Anquan Boldin and Michael Crabtree compile 1,000-yard seasons. Boldin reached the mark in consecutive seasons from 2013-14 as Crabtree led all receivers with 109 yards in the 49ers' Super Bowl XLVII appearance.

Ahead of his tenure with the 49ers, Morton worked for USC for four seasons (2007-10) under head coaches Pete Carroll and Lane Kiffin. He spent his last two seasons in Los Angeles as the Trojans' offensive coordinator/passing game coordinator/wide receivers after originally serving as a passing game coordinator/wide receivers with the team.

In 2005, Morton entered the collegiate ranks as a passing game/wide receivers coach under Jim Harbaugh at the University of San Diego. He mentored QB Josh Johnson to program records in completions (260) and completion percentage (70.1).

From 1997-2004 under head coaches Gruden and Bill Callahan, Morton worked in a variety of roles for the Oakland Raiders in his first stint with the team. During that time, he helped the club earn three consecutive divisional crowns from 2000-02, including a Super Bowl XXXVII appearance in 2002. Morton worked as a tight ends coach in 2004 under head coach Norv Turner after serving as a senior offensive assistant from 2002-03, where he assisted WR Jerry Rice to a campaign of 92 receptions for 1,211 yards and seven touchdowns.

Morton spent the two seasons prior (2000-01) in an offensive quality control/wide receivers role. In 2001, Morton's Hall of Famer WRs Tim Brown and Rice combined for over 170 receptions, 2,400 yards and a total of 18 receiving touchdowns, and were the only teammates in the NFL to both record at least 80 receptions, 1,100 yards and nine touchdowns.

From 1998-99, Morton was tasked with overseeing the offense in the capacity of offensive assistant/wide receivers coach, while spending his inaugural season with the Raiders in the personnel department in 1997 under owner Al Davis.

Before joining the coaching ranks, Morton entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 1993, where he spent time on the Los Angeles Raiders' practice squad from 1993-94 and the Green Bay Packers' practice squad in 1993. He also had training camp stints with the Jacksonville Jaguars (1995) and Raiders (1996). Following the NFL, Morton played two seasons (1995-96) for the CFL's Toronto Argonauts and World League's Frankfurt Galaxy (1997).

A native of Rochester Hills, Mich., Morton is a 1997 graduate of Western Michigan, where he played wide receiver for two seasons (1991-92). Morton received All-Mid-American Conference honors with the Broncos after spending two years at Grand Rapids (Mich.) Community College. Morton has two daughters, Tierney Rose and Sage Marie.

KELVIN SHEPPARD

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL YEARS: 5 LIONS YEARS: 5

Kelvin Sheppard enters his fifth season with the Lions and first season as defensive coordinator, after he previously served as the linebackers coach for three seasons. He originally came to Detroit as the outside linebackers coach in 2021.

SHEPPARD'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2021-
Defensive Coordinator	2025-
Linebackers	2022-24
Outside Linebackers	2021
LSU	2020
Lead Defensive Analyst/Director of Player Development	2020

In 2024, Detroit's defense ranked first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (32.4%) and second in fourth-down efficiency (41.4%). The unit also averaged 20.1 points allowed per game, finishing seventh in the League.

Sheppard guided a linebacker room riddled with injuries in 2024. After LB Alex Anzalone was placed on Reserve/Injured, Sheppard helped lead LB Jack Campbell to become the green dot of the defense. Campbell was one of five linebackers to record 125 tackles, five tackles for loss, five pass defenses, and one forced fumble in the season. Campbell also recorded eight-straight games with at least seven tackles, the longest streak in franchise history since Stephen Boyd in 2000 (13 games).

Since arriving in Detroit, Sheppard has guided eight-year pro LB Alex Anzalone to career seasons in 2022 and 2023. Under Sheppard, Anzalone became just the fourth player in franchise history to record multiple seasons with at least 125 tackles. In 2023, Anzalone also became only the third Lion to post a season with at least 125 tackles and 3.0 sacks. Despite missing six games due to injury, Anzalone finished the 2024 season with 63 tackles and seven tackles for loss. This was the third consecutive season that Anzalone had recorded at least seven tackles for loss, all under Sheppard's tutelage.

Sheppard has overseen the development of multiple rookie linebackers who have been proficient in their first seasons with Detroit. In 2023, Sheppard directed first-round selection Campbell, who recorded the second-most tackles (89) among all rookies. His five tackles for loss tied for sixth-most by a rookie inside linebacker in team history. In 2022, Sheppard also tutored rookie LB Malcolm Rodriguez who produced eight games with at least one tackle for loss, tied for the most among rookies, and led all rookies with 12 tackles for loss or no gain.

In his first season working primarily with outside linebackers and edge rushers, the club's edge rushers combined for 110 tackles in 2021. The number marked the third-most tackles among an NFL team's edge rushers in Sheppard's first season coaching the group. His unit also combined for 22 tackles for loss or no gain, tied for the seventh-most in the NFL among the position group.

In his first season with the Lions, Sheppard also worked closely with DL Charles Harris, previously listed as OLB, a player who joined the team as a 2021 free-agent acquisition. In just one season with Sheppard, Harris notched a career-high 7.5 sacks, earning his way to a contract extension through the 2023 season on March 18, 2022. Harris' 7.5 sacks were the second-most sacks a free agent acquisition has had in his first season in Detroit. His total also tied for the fourth-most sacks a Lions player has had in his first season with the team, while tying for the third-most tackles-for-loss (10) by a Lions linebacker in a single season.

Following his playing career, he joined the LSU football program and served as the team's director of player development under head coach Ed Orgeron in 2020. Sheppard was tasked with helping players with their academic direction, social development, and overall quality of life.

He was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the third round (68th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft out of LSU and split eight seasons (2011-18) with the Bills, Indianapolis Colts, Miami Dolphins, New York Giants, and Detroit Lions. He appeared in 107 career games (63 starts) and logged 400 total tackles, 3.0 sacks and two interceptions.

Sheppard appeared in 53 games (30 starts) in his career at LSU (2007-10), finishing in the top-10 in school history with 311 tackles. He was an All-SEC selection and team captain as a senior in 2010.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Sheppard has two children; a daughter, Ava, and a son, Miles.

DAVE FIPP

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL YEARS: 18 LIONS YEARS: 5

Dave Fipp joined the Lions coaching staff in 2021 as the special teams coordinator after spending eight seasons (2013-20) with the Philadelphia Eagles in the same role. He has spent over 20 seasons coaching between the collegiate and NFL levels.

"I think Fipp is a superstar," Lions Head Coach Dan Campbell said. "He gets his shot in Philly, and I think he's, just from afar, he was always one of the best special teams coaches. So, to be able to get him, the timing was right, and you see what he does. I think it's probably been our most consistent unit out of the three phases. We've got a pretty good core group of guys, but he's been great. I just think he's an outstanding teacher and he's high energy and I think you have to be both to be a good special teams coach."

Entering his fifth season with the franchise in 2025, Fipp's special teams units have routinely been one of the best in the League. In 2024, Fipp helped the team to a single-season franchise record of 15-2, an undefeated record on the road (8-0), a second-straight NFC North Division title and the franchise's first-ever number one seed in the Playoffs. The special teams unit ranked first in punt return yards (479) and third in punt return average (12.9), while ranking second in punt return yards allowed (135) and third in punt return average allowed (6.4).

The 2024 season saw the Lions' special teams unit garner multiple awards and honors, including four NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards and an NFC Special Teams Player of the Month award. Under Fipp's tutelage, Lions P Jack Fox achieved First-Team AP All-Pro honors and was selected to his second Pro Bowl as he set the single-season NFL record for net punt average (46.2) and led the League in gross punt average (51.0). K Jake Bates scored the most points in a season in Lions history (142) and converted the second-most consecutive field goals to start a career in NFL history (19).

Veteran WR Kalif Raymond also had a successful 2024 under Fipp, being named Second-Team AP All-Pro for the second time in his career after leading the League in punt return yards (413) and returning five punts in Week 8 for 190 yards (38.0 avg.) and a touchdown.

During the 2023 season, Fipp was a part of a coaching staff that helped the Lions to a 12-5 record, tying the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The 2023 coaching staff was the club's third coaching staff in team history to win multiple playoff games, and the first coaching staff to do so since 1957. Fipp's work was also key to helping Detroit clinch their first Division Championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991. The Lions' opponents started their average drive at their 23.7-yard line, the worst starting field position in the NFL.

Fipp's unit was led by team captain, LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin, who was named to his first Pro Bowl in 2023. During the season, Reeves-Maybin earned an NFC Special Teams Player of the Week award, after he produced four special teams tackles against the New Orleans Saints in Week 13. Under Fipp's coaching, Reeves-Maybin recorded 13 total special teams tackles (nine solo) on the year, tied for the second-most across the League in 2023. Reeves-Maybin became the first Lions special teamer who was not a punter, kicker, kick returner, or long-snapper to make a Pro Bowl.

In 2022, the group played a pivotal role in turning around the team's record, winning eight of the last 10 games of the season. In Fipp's second season leading the group, the special teams unit helped the Lions' offense start their average drive at their 27.0-yard line after kickoffs, the second-best rate in the NFL in 2022. Detroit's 26.1 (yards) kickoff return average ranked third in the NFL in 2022, while leading the NFL with 85.3% of kickoff returns being 20 or more yards. Since Fipp was hired in 2021, his unit has gained a reputation for its creativity. P Jack Fox has converted three fake-punt passes for first downs. Also, since being hired in 2021, Fipp's unit is eight-of-10 (80%) on fake punt attempts. Four of those conversions have come via rushes and the other four have come via passes from Fox and Reeves-Maybin.

In Fipp's first season in Detroit, his unit was among the best in the NFL. Despite all NFL teams being a combined 9-for-56 (16.07%) on onside kick attempts, the Lions were the only team with multiple onside kick recoveries, leading the League with three in 2021. The team's three-of-nine (33.33%) conversion rate marked the most successful onside kick recoveries the Lions have had in a season since at least 1997, when the data began to be tracked.

With Fipp's oversight as special teams coordinator between 2013-19, the Eagles ranked second in the NFL in special teams touchdowns (12) and total blocks (18). During that period, the Eagles returned four kickoffs for touchdowns, four punt returns for touchdowns and four blocked punt returns for touchdowns. Additionally, they registered 11 blocked punts and seven blocked kicks.

The Eagles had many standouts on special teams during the 2019 season. LS Rick Lovato earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2019 after helping K Jake Elliott reach a career-high 84.6% FG percentage and P Cameron Johnston produce top 10 finishes in gross (46.4, 9th) and net (42.3, 8th) punting averages. Before his exceptional contributions in 2019, Fipp helped Johnston have a strong 2018 campaign, in which he set single-season team records in both gross (48.2) and net (42.7) punting averages while ranking third and fourth in the NFL respectively. Fipp had a helping hand in guiding Elliott to a memorable rookie season in 2017 when Elliott converted the longest regular-season (61 yards) and postseason (53 yards) field goals in franchise history. Elliott also kicked the longest field goals (42, 46 yards) by a rookie in Super Bowl history that season in Philadelphia's Super Bowl LII victory.

Fipp played an integral role in helping return specialist Darren Sproles, earn two consecutive Pro Bowl berths for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. In 2014, Sproles earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after leading the NFL in punt return average (13.0), punt return yards (506) and punt returns for touchdowns (two). In addition to helping Sproles' breakout campaign in 2014, rookie K Cody Parkey recorded a historical kicking season amongst all-time Eagles rookies en route to Pro Bowl honors. Parkey (150 points) broke Kevin Butler's NFL rookie record and the Eagles' record for points scored in a single season while finishing second in the League in scoring. LS Jon Dorenbos completed the trifecta for Eagles specialists who earned Pro Bowl honors in 2014, earning himself a bid as well under Fipp's coaching.

Sproles followed up the 2014 season by again earning the crown as the League's leader in punt return yards and touchdowns in 2015. The Eagles special teams unit posted the second-highest punt return average (11.4) in the League and added three touchdowns in 2015.

In Fipp's second season with the Eagles, Fipp's unit ranked first in Rick Gosselin's Dallas Morning News special teams ranking. The Eagles special teams group finished first in the NFL with seven special teams touchdowns during the 2014 season.

Fipp's first NFL experience came with the San Francisco 49ers from 2008-10, where he helped P Andy Lee rank third in the League in gross punting yards (12,069), gross punting average (47.1), and net punting yards (10,147) in that span. Lee earned Pro Bowl honors in 2009 after leading the NFC in gross punting yards (4,711), gross punting average (47.6) and net punting yards (4,056). Fipp went on to work with the Miami Dolphins in a similar position coaching special teams from 2011-12.

Fipp began his coaching career in 1998 as the special teams coordinator at Holy Cross. After two seasons at Holy Cross, he was a graduate assistant at Arizona (2000) before stints at Cal Poly (2001-03), Nevada (2004) and San Jose State (2005-07) working in defensive coordinator roles. Prior to coaching, Fipp began his collegiate playing career at Arizona. A four-year letterman and former walk-on, Fipp played for the Wildcats from 1994-97. He was a leading tackler on special teams as a sophomore in 1995 and started at safety during his final two years with the Wildcats. The Wildcats' defense finished as one of the top defensive units in the Pac-10 Conference and ranked 12th nationally in rushing defense.

Raised in San Diego, Calif., Fipp and his wife, Jenny, have two daughters, Ashlee and Lilly, and a son, Tyler.

MARK BRUNELL

QUARTERBACKS

NFL YEARS: 5 LIONS YEARS: 5

Mark Brunell enters his fifth season as the Lions' quarterbacks coach in 2025.

BRUNELL'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2021-
Quarterbacks	2021-
Episcopal School of Jacksonville	2013-20
Head Coach	2013-20
Providence School (Jacksonville, Fla.)	2012
Assistant Coach	2012

Brunell helped QB Jared Goff produce one of the most prolific seasons in franchise history in 2024. Goff set single-season NFL records for the most games with a 75.0% completion percentage (nine) and an 80.0% completion percentage (six) while also tying for the most games with a 150.0 passer rating (three). He also set single-season franchise records for passer rating (111.8) and completion percentage (72.4%), with his completion percentage mark ranking as the fourth-highest in a season in NFL history. He became the fifth player in NFL history to produce a season with at least 4,500 passing yards, 35 passing touchdowns and a completion percentage of 70.0%, and among all NFL quarterbacks in 2024, he ranked second in passing yards (4,629), second in passer rating (111.8), second in completion percentage (72.4%) and fourth in passing touchdowns (37). Goff's performance led to him becoming a finalist for the MVP Award and joining Bobby Layne as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to earn multiple Pro Bowl berths.

In 2023, Brunell helped Goff lead the NFL in passing first downs (227), rank second in passing yards (4,575) and rank fourth in passing touchdowns (30) en route to the team capturing their first division title since 1993 and advancing to their second-ever NFC Championship Game. Goff became only the third quarterback in franchise history to win multiple playoff games, joining QBs Tobin Rote (1957) and Bobby Layne (1952-53). The 2023 season also saw Brunell guide Goff to the single-season franchise record in completion percentage (67.3%) and finish with the third-most completions (407) and third-highest passer rating (97.9) in a season in team history.

Under Brunell's tutelage over the 2022-23 seasons, Goff strung together two historic NFL streaks. He went 10-straight starts without throwing an interception, tied for the second-longest streak in NFL history, and attempted 383 consecutive passes without throwing an interception, the third-longest streak in NFL history.

In 2022, he helped Goff lead the NFL in touchdown-to-interception ratio (4.14), have the second-lowest interception rate (1.2%), tie for the fifth-most passing touchdowns (29), throw for the sixth-most yards (4,438) and post the seventh-highest passer rating (99.3) en route to a Pro Bowl berth.

Once Brunell concluded his playing career in 2011, he served as the high school head coach and program director at the Episcopal School of Jacksonville (2013-20), was the Team Relations Director of the NFL Legends Community and worked as a sports analyst at ESPN from 2014-16.

After being selected by the Green Bay Packers in the fifth round (118th overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft out of Washington, Brunell embarked on a 19-year NFL career (1993-2011) with the Packers, Jacksonville Jaguars, Washington, New Orleans Saints and New York Jets. He appeared in 193 career games (151 starts) and completed 2,761-of-4,640 passes (59.5%) for 32,072 yards, 184 touchdowns and 108 interceptions for an 84.0 passer rating. He also added 513 rushing attempts for 2,421 yards (4.7 avg.) and 15 touchdowns.

He made three Pro Bowls in his career, led the NFL with 4,367 passing yards in 1996 and left the Jaguars organization as the franchise leader in career passing attempts (3,616), completions (2,184), yards (25,698) and touchdowns (144). As a starter, he led Jacksonville to two AFC Central division titles and four playoff appearances, and guided Washington to the NFC East crown in 2005. He was the fourth player to be enshrined to the "Pride of the Jaguars," Jacksonville's ring of honor.

Brunell served as a backup quarterback and the team's holder on field goals and extra points with the Saints in 2009, helping New Orleans win Super Bowl XLIV, the first championship in franchise history.

He played five seasons at the University of Washington (1988-92) and was part of the 1991 National Championship team. Brunell also appeared in three Rose Bowls, was the MVP of the 1991 Rose Bowl and was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2015.

HANK FRALEY

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

NFL YEARS: 11 LIONS YEARS: 8

Hank Fraley enters his eighth season with the Lions, and his first as the run game coordinator/offensive line, in 2025. He originally began his time with the club as the assistant offensive line coach in 2018.

FRALEY'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2018-
Run Game Coordinator/Offensive Line	2025-
Offensive Line	2020-24
Assistant Offensive Line	2018-19
UCLA	2017
Offensive Line	2017

Assistant Offensive Line	2014-16
San Jose State	2013
Offensive Line	2013
University of San Diego	2012
Offensive Line	2012

The Lions have had four different offensive linemen combine to earn nine Pro Bowl berths under Fraley's tutelage, comprising of C Frank Ragnow (2020, 2022-24), T Penei Sewell (2022-24), T Taylor Decker (2024) and G Jonah Jackson (2021). Ragnow's four-career Pro Bowl selections tie Ed Flanagan (1970-72, 1974) for the most by a center in team history. Ragnow has also been named Second-Team AP All-Pro three times (2020, 2023-24) while Sewell has been named First-Team AP All-Pro twice (2023-24), joining Lou Creekmur (1954, 1956-57) and George Christiansen (1931, 1934) as the only Lions tackles to earn multiple First-Team AP All-Pro honors.

Since Lions Head Coach Dan Campbell was hired in 2021, Fraley has led an offensive line that has paved the way for the second-most rushing touchdowns (91), fourth-fewest sacks (124) and sixth-most rushing yards (8,864) in the NFL in that span.

Under Fraley's leadership in 2024, the offensive line paved the way for an offense that produced the fourth-most points (564), tied for the fourth-most touchdowns (70) and registered the fifth-most first downs (410) in a season in NFL history. Behind the offensive line, Detroit's rushing attack set single-season franchise records in rushing touchdowns (29) and games with 100 rushing yards (16) while also tying a single-season NFL record by producing 15 games with at least 100 rushing yards and a rushing touchdown. Detroit had three offensive linemen (Decker, Ragnow, Sewell) named to the Pro Bowl for the first time since 1957 and the team produced a franchise-record 15 wins while capturing the No. 1 seed in a postseason for the first time.

In 2023, Fraley helped the offensive line guide the team to new heights, with the Lions winning their first division title in 30 years and appearing in their second-ever NFC Championship Game. The offensive line was anchored by Sewell, who became Detroit's second offensive lineman since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to be named First-Team AP All-Pro. Ragnow earned Second-Team AP All-Pro honors for the second time in his career and Decker became the fourth tackle in franchise history to reach 100-career starts for the team. Sewell also became the first Lions tackle to earn consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl since T Lomas Brown (1990-95) and Ragnow became the third center in franchise history to be named to at least three-career Pro Bowls, all of which have come under Fraley's time leading the room.

Detroit's offensive line also ranked fourth in the NFL in sack percentage allowed (4.8%) in 2023 while guiding the ground attack to a franchise-record 27 rushing touchdowns and the fifth-most rushing yards (2,311) in a season in team history.

In 2022, Fraley once again tutored one of the top offensive lines in the NFL, producing Pro Bowlers in Sewell and Ragnow. The unit allowed only 24 sacks on the year, the second-fewest in the League, while their 3.9% sack-rate was the third-best in the NFL. Under Fraley's guidance, the group anchored an offense that rushed for 2,179 yards, the most for the franchise since 1997 at the time. The team also scored 23 rushing touchdowns, tied for the fourth-most in Detroit single-season franchise history.

In 2021, the Lions added Sewell with the seventh overall pick of the NFL Draft, marking the second offensive lineman (Ragnow) the team had selected in the first round since Fraley was hired by Detroit in 2018. Additionally, under Fraley's leadership, the offensive line adapted to several injuries throughout the season.

After an injury knocked Decker out for the first eight games in 2021, Fraley was instrumental in helping Sewell adjust and start the team's first eight games at left tackle. In Week 1 vs. San Francisco, Sewell became the youngest player in NFL history to start a game at left tackle (20 years and 202 days). Upon Decker's return, Sewell started eight games at right tackle. Sewell allowed only 2.0 sacks over the final 12 games played in his rookie season as he earned a place on the 2021 PFWA All-Rookie Team.

Fraley also helped Jackson earn a trip to the Pro Bowl in 2021 and Detroit's offensive line paved the way for nine different players to record a rush of 20-or-more yards, the first time an NFL team has done so since the 1984 Chicago Bears.

In 2020, Fraley guided Ragnow to his first Pro Bowl appearance after Ragnow did not allow a sack or commit a false start in 14 games played.

In the 2019 season, the O-line helped four different running backs accumulate at least 200 rushing yards on the season, which was an NFL-high. In Week 7 of the 2018 season, Detroit's offensive line helped put together a season-best 248 rushing yards at the Miami Dolphins, their most in a game since 1997.

Prior to coming to Detroit in 2018, Fraley served as the offensive line coach at UCLA in 2017. He originally entered the NFL coaching ranks when he was named the assistant offensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 2014, where he worked for three seasons (2014-16). While assisting with the offensive line, Fraley helped the unit produce one of the NFL's top rushing attacks in 2015.

With an offense featuring RB Adrian Peterson, the Vikings offensive line paved the way for Peterson to rush for an NFL-leading 1,485 yards in 2015, while the team finished fourth in overall rushing that season. Minnesota's offensive line finished the 2015 season as the only NFL team to have the same starting offensive line in all 16 games.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Fraley served as the offensive line coach at San Jose State in 2013. He began his coaching career in 2012 when he was named the offensive line coach at the University of San Diego.

A former lineman himself, Fraley played 11 seasons in the NFL after entering the League as an undrafted free agent in 2000 out of Robert Morris. He went on to play with the Philadelphia Eagles (2000-05), Cleveland Browns (2006-09) and St. Louis Rams (2010). As a mainstay along the offensive line, he helped Philadelphia win four-consecutive NFC East titles between 2001-04 and reach four-consecutive NFC title games. The Eagles advanced to Super Bowl XXXIX against New England following the 2004 season.

A standout athlete at Robert Morris, Fraley was an All-Northeastern Conference selection from 1997-99, helping his teams win conference titles each season. He had his No. 75 retired by the school in 2001 and became the first Robert Morris alum to play in the Super Bowl. He was enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame in 2006 and honored by the Northeast Conference in 2010.

Fraley and his wife, Danielle, have four sons, Trent, Mason, Travis and Beau, and one daughter, Scarlett.

Under his tutelage alongside Special Teams Coordinator Dave Fipp, Detroit has ranked top three in punt return yards (1,310), punt return average (12.1) and punt return touchdowns (two). The unit has also ranked top five in punt return yards allowed (1,170) and punting average (48.7). Additionally since 2021, the special teams group has converted nine-of-12 (75%) fake punt attempts.

Modkins has also guided three AP All-Pros in WR/PR Kalif Raymond (Second-Team; 2022, 2024), P Jack Fox (First-Team; 2024, Second-Team; 2020) and LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin (Second-Team; 2023).

During the 2023 season, Detroit's opponents started their average drive at their own 23.7-yard line following kickoffs, the lowest average starting field position allowed in the NFL. The unit was anchored by Reeves-Maybin, who tied for second in the NFL with 13 total special teams tackles and threw for a 31-yard pass on a fake-punt conversion.

In 2022, the Lions led the NFL with the highest percentage of kickoff returns going for 20-or-more yards (85.3%) and were third in kickoff return average (26.1). With O'Neil's direction, the pair were one-of-two duos in the League to each have at least 10 pass defenses and two interceptions.

As a unit, the Lions defense allowed the lowest passer rating (82.0) and lowest passing touchdown percentage (3.0) in the League, while allowing the second-lowest completion percentage (82.0) and tied-for-second fewest passing touchdowns allowed (18) in 2024.

They finished in the top 10 each season in opponent passing yards per game, including a League-best mark (153.7) in 2009. In New York, he worked closely with three-time All-Pro CB Darrelle Revis and helped CB Antonio Cromartie and S LaRon Landry earn Pro Bowl honors in 2013. Tampa Bay finished as a top five run defense in five out of six seasons with Rodgers on staff.

He also played a critical role in the emergence of NT Vita Vea throughout his time with the Buccaneers. Under Rodgers' tutelage, Vea led all NFL nose tackles in tackles for loss (37), sacks (27.5) and run stuffs (14.5), and tied for the most pass defenses (seven) and second-most forced fumbles (three). While Vea led all nose tackles with 7.0 sacks, he combined with DT Calijah Kancey to be one-of-three interior tackle duos in the NFL to have at least 5.0 sacks each. The group finished the year ranked fifth in run defense for the second-straight season and tied an NFL record by holding three-straight opponents to under 40 yards on the ground (Weeks 15-17).

Tampa Bay kept their opponents to 95.3 rush yards per contest and 4.0 yards per carry in 2023. In the red zone, the Buccaneers led the league in tackles for loss (25), while ranking tied for second in red zone touchdowns allowed (23), second in sacks (8.0) and fifth in fewest yards per play against (2.3). In 2021, Rodgers coached Vea to his first-career Pro Bowl, working with a top three run defense that led the NFL in quarterback hits (123).

Rodgers earned the distinction of John Teerlinck Defensive Line Coach of the Year in 2020, an award given annually to the League's top defensive line coach as voted on by coaches across the League. He led a Super-Bowl winning defensive line unit that led the NFL against the run for the second consecutive season, limiting opponents to 80.6 rushing yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry in the regular season. Tampa Bay held its opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards an NFL-best 12 times in 2020. In Super Bowl LV, the Buccaneers defense kept the Chiefs offense out of the endzone, while tallying a Super Bowl-record 29 quarterback pressures.

Additionally, the Buccaneers tallied 48.0 regular season sacks in 2020 – the second-most in team history – and 58.0 total sacks between the regular season and postseason combined, which tied for the NFL lead. Under Rodgers' guidance, veteran DL William Gholston had a career-high 20 quarterback hits in 2020, the sixth-most in the NFL by an interior defensive lineman in 2020. DT Ndamukong Suh also recorded 6.0 sacks in 2020, his most in a season since 2015, and 19 quarterback hits, which ranked tied for seventh-most by an interior defensive lineman.

Under Rodgers' watch, the defensive line set the foundation for the NFL's top run defense, which limited its opponents to 73.8 rushing yards per game and 3.26 yards per carry in 2019. In his 10th NFL season, Suh posted single-season career highs with four fumble recoveries (43 return yards) and two defensive touchdowns. His four fumble recoveries tied for the second-most in a single season in team history. Additionally, the defensive line helped the Buccaneers defense to 47 sacks in 2019, which was the second highest single-season sack total in team history.

Rodgers spent four seasons serving as the defensive coordinator for the New York Jets (2015-18). The Jets unit under Rodgers posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.00 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowing only 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for the eighth-least in that timeframe. Rodgers helped DL Muhammad Wilkerson earn a Pro Bowl berth in 2015, after posting a career-high 12.0 sacks, and helped DL Leonard Williams – the team's 2015 first-round pick – earn a Pro Bowl berth in 2016.

Before working with the Jets, Rodgers spent seven seasons coaching the defensive line in Miami (2008-14). During his time with the Dolphins, the team posted 287 sacks, the third-highest mark in the NFL, while allowing the eighth-fewest yards per carry (4.02) during that span. Rodgers helped guide DT Paul Soliai (2012), DT Randy Starks (2010, 2012) and DE Cameron Wake (2010, 2012-14) to Pro Bowl selections. Wake, who also earned three AP All-Pro selections under Rodgers (first team, 2012; second team, 2010 and 2014), ranked third in the NFL in sacks from 2009-14, with 63.0.

Rodgers began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys, first working as the team's defensive tackles coach (2003-04) before taking over as the defensive line coach (2005-07). In four of Rodgers' five seasons in Dallas, the team ranked inside the NFL's top 10 for rush defense. He coached DT La'Roi Glover to three consecutive Pro Bowl appearances from 2003-05.

Prior to his time in the NFL, Rodgers coached collegiately, first working at Tennessee-Martin (1994-97) before going to Louisiana-Monroe (1998), Middle Tennessee State (1999-2001) and Arkansas (2002).

DON MUHLBACH

SPECIAL ASSISTANT FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Don Muhlbach transitioned to the Detroit Lions football administration department in 2021 as Special Assistant Football Operations after a storied 17-year playing career with the Lions at long snapper. In his role, he supports the front office and assists with various projects across the team's football, coaching and business operations.

Muhlbach retired from football in 2021 as the second-longest tenured player in Lions history (17 seasons, 260 career games) behind only K Jason Hanson. His 260 career games played tie for 40th in all-time career games played in NFL history, and also rank as the eighth-most a player has played with a single club in NFL history. Muhlbach appeared in every game from the 2010s decade (2010-19), becoming the first player in franchise history to appear in all 160 games in any given decade.

A two-time Pro Bowler (2012, 2018), Muhlbach became the first long snapper in Lions history to earn the recognition. He was named to the Detroit Lions All-Time Team in 2019.

He originally entered the NFL with the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted rookie free agent out of Texas A&M in 2004 before signing with the Lions midway through the 2004 season.

A native of Lufkin, Texas, Muhlbach played long snapper collegiately for the Aggies in 2003 and earned his BBA in Finance. He and his wife, Alix, have three children, Addison, Jackson and Avery.

SEAN PUGH

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT/TEAM CHAPLAIN

Sean Pugh enters his fifth season with the Lions, and first as the Director of Player Engagement/Team Chaplain, in 2025. He previously served as the team's co-director of player engagement from 2021-24.

In his role, Pugh guides players in all aspects of developing life skills, pursuing off-the-field endeavors and engaging in external programming while also leading Bible studies and guiding players through a spiritual lens.

Pugh joined the Lions after spending four seasons (2017-2020) with the Purdue University football program. During his time with the Boilermakers, Pugh supported the program in a variety of roles including counseling student-athletes and coaches, leading Bible studies, organizing community service initiatives and working with student-athletes on life skills development.

Prior to his time with Purdue, Pugh worked in a similar role with his alma mater Western Kentucky's football program as the team's character coach from 2008-16. Additionally, he served as a pastor at the Hillvue Heights Church (2010-15), the Western Kentucky campus director of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (2014-16) and as the lead pastor at Church on the Main (2015-16). Pugh originally started working with student athletes in the FCA's training program at Auburn between 2007-08.

A four-year letter-winner as an offensive lineman at Western Kentucky, the Hilltoppers advanced to the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs twice during Pugh's career. He graduated in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and went on to earn a Master of Theology from Campbellsville University in 2014.

Pugh is married to his wife, TraShana, and together they have four daughters, ShemaYah, ZioniYah, AnaniYah and YashaYah, and two sons, Melek and Yahawadah.

SCOTT NEALON

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

Scott Nealon joins the Lions in 2025 as director of performance nutrition. Most recently, Nealon worked two seasons (2023-24) with the Toronto Blue Jays as the club's Major League Dietitian.

Prior to Toronto, Nealon spent the 2022 NFL season with the Las Vegas Raiders as a Nutrition Assistant, where he provided optimal nutrition strategies to help maximize player performance and readiness.

In early 2022, Nealon completed his dietetic internship with Keith & Associates, Inc. During his internship, he completed a sports rotation at the University of Nebraska where he observed football, wrestling, women's soccer, women's softball and baseball programs.

Nealon previously served in strength & conditioning roles throughout Cleveland's Minor League system from 2011-21 after he spent the summer of 2011 with San Francisco's Rookie-level affiliate in Scottsdale, Ariz.

He obtained his Dietetics degree from the University of Northern Colorado and also holds his master's degree in Exercise Science from PennWest California and bachelor's degree in pre-physical therapy/exercise science from Baldwin Wallace University. He is a Certified Registered Dietitian (RD) from the Commission on Dietetic Registration, and a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the NSCA. LIONS ALL-PROS

The Associated Press All-Pro Team (First Team) dates back to 1930. In 1951, the AP began designating the All-Pro Team by offense and defense. From 1930-50, positions selected included the following: End (E), Tackle (T), Guard (G), Center (C) and Back (B). This designation represented the offensive and defensive systems of the era as well as the commonality of two-way players. The first year the offensive backfield was separated by Quarterback, Fullback and Half (Running) Back was 1954. The first year the AP designated the defensive backfield by Safety (S) and Cornerback (B or CB in 1963) was 1955. Wide Receiver (WR), also known as Flanker (FL) from 1963-69, were first separated in 1963, having been previously combined as the End (E) position. Punter (P) and Placekicker (PK) were first honored in 1970 and Kick Returner (KR) in 1978.

PLAYERS' ALL-PRO

Beginning in 2022, the NFLPA instituted its own end-of-season all-pro team for the first time. NFL players were tasked with voting for the best player at their same position and positions they line up against.

The final team consists of the best player at each position, plus two core special teamers.

Through three iterations of the Players' All-Pro, the Lions have had two players earn a place on the exclusive 29-man roster.

Player	Pos.	Year	Role Selected

Lions T Penei Sewell was named to the Players' All-Pro team in 2024 at right tackle.

Lions LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin was named to the Players' All-Pro team in 2023 at special teams.

ALL-TIME TEAM

As part of the team's Fantennial Weekend in celebration of the NFL's 100th season in 2019, the Detroit Lions announced their All-Time Team. Selection of the Detroit Lions All-Time Team was determined by fan voting, in addition to contributions from the Detroit Lions Legends Community, a committee of Lions executives and select members of the media. Players included in the voting for the All-Time Team were selected based on years of service with the team, statistical records, postseason accolades, as well as team honors such as the Pride of the Lions.

PRIDE OF THE LIONS

On Nov. 22, 2009, the Lions unveiled the team's Pride of the Lions, a permanent stadium display honoring the greatest players in team history during a halftime celebration at Ford Field against the Cleveland Browns. The team introduced the 12 members of the Pride of the Lions charter class. The Pride of the Lions is a very prominent feature on the old Hudson's warehouse of Ford Field (south suite levels) that includes the players' jersey numbers, name and years played with the Lions.

LIONS HISTORY

2025 DETROIT LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

William Clay Ford speaks after formally assuming control of the Lions in January of 1964.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was, at one time, the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

The Lions played at the Silverdome from 1975-2001. The venue also hosted many notable teams and events, briefly serving as home of the Detroit Pistons (1978-88) and becoming the first enclosed stadium to host a World Cup game in 1994.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 – the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

Wayne Fontes served as the Lions' full-time head coach from 1989-96 after a five-game stint as interim head coach in 1988. He led Detroit to a franchise-record 12 wins in 1991 and four winning seasons overall.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

Barry Sanders remains the only player in NFL history to record at least 1,100 rushing yards in each of the first 10 seasons of a player's career.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross resigned as head coach on November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On Jan. 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex featured outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field Aug. 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers on Sept. 22, 2002.

The Lions returned to the City of Detroit in 2002 for the first time since playing home games at Tiger Stadium in 1974. Ford Field hosted Super Bowl XL following the 2005 season.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform was enhanced with black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

On Nov. 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and Defensive Coordinator Dick Jauron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

In 2006, the Lions hired Rod Marinelli as the team's 24th head coach, a position he would hold through 2008.

In 2007, the Lions selected WR Calvin Johnson out of Georgia Tech with the second overall pick of the Draft. He embarked on an accomplished career which saw him join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in franchise history to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in their first year on the ballot in 2021.

Calvin Johnson retired from the NFL following the 2015 NFL season. He left the Lions as the record-holder in every major receiving category.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform – the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 18 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms – and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver," the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksgiving Tradition.

In 2009, for the first time in franchise history, the team entered the season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired Jan. 16, 2009. In that same year, the Lions introduced a new logo and new brand, along with new team uniforms that featured the first significant change to the Lions logo since it was introduced in 1961.

Schwartz labeled the 2011 season upon its conclusion as not a great year, but an important one. Perhaps most notably, 2011 will be remembered for the "comeback" as the Lions returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1999 and set NFL records with four comeback wins of 13+-points, three comeback wins of 17+-points and two back-to-back 20+-point comeback wins. The Lions set several team records, including points (474) and yards (6,337), as well as individual records. Perhaps the two biggest stars leading the Lions in 2011 were QB Matthew Stafford, named AP Comeback Player of the Year, and All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson.

In 2012, the season was highlighted by Johnson's remarkable performance as he broke the NFL record for receiving yards in a single season. He finished with 122 receptions for 1,964 yards, breaking Jerry Rice's previous record of 1,848 yards in 1995. One season later in 2013, Stafford became the Lions all-time leader in career passing yards, breaking the previous record of 15,710 yards held by Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne that stood for 55 years. Stafford reached this feat in only 55 career games, while Layne accomplished his mark in 97 games. He became the first Lions QB to reach 17,000 career passing yards.

Matthew Stafford is the Lions' leader in every major passing category and set numerous NFL records with his passing production.

After five seasons with the team (2009-13), Schwartz was dismissed as head coach on Dec. 30, 2013.

A new era for Lions football began Jan. 14, 2014 with the introduction of Jim Caldwell as the team's new head coach. Caldwell arrived in Detroit after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the Super Bowl as a head coach and won Super Bowls with both the Colts and the Baltimore Ravens.

On March 9, 2014, Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford passed away at the age of 88. Mr. Ford purchased the team on Jan. 10, 1964 and owned the team for 50 years. With his passing, ownership of the Lions organization was passed to his wife, Martha Firestone Ford, as she succeeded her late husband as Owner and Chairman of the Board for the franchise.

Caldwell led the Lions to an 11-5 record the ensuing season and a berth in the NFC Wild Card game, becoming just the third coach in team history to lead the Lions to the playoffs in his first year with Detroit. He also became one of only four coaches to lead the Lions to 11+ wins in a season.

Martin Mayhew and Tom Lewand were relieved of their duties on Nov. 5, 2015. Rod Wood was hired as team president on Nov. 19, 2015, as the Lions went on to finish the season 7-9, winning six of the team's final eight games of the 2015 season.

On Jan. 8, 2016, Bob Quinn was named Lions Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager following 16 seasons with the New England Patriots. In Quinn's first season at the helm, the Lions posted a 9-7 record en route to a berth in the playoffs for the second time in three years. In doing so, Quinn also became the Lions' first general manager to guide the team to the playoffs in his inaugural season since Nick Kerbawy in 1952.

Jim Caldwell was relieved of his duties following the final game of the 2017 season as the Lions finished 9-7 for a consecutive year. Matt Patricia was named the new head coach of the Detroit Lions on Feb. 5, 2018, bringing more than 20 years of coaching experience in the college and professional ranks, including 14 consecutive seasons (2004-17) with the New England Patriots.

On June 23, 2020, Sheila Hamp assumed the role of Principal Owner and Chairman after her mother, Martha Firestone Ford, transitioned to Chairman Emeritus after six seasons as the team's principal owner.

On Nov. 28, 2020, the Lions relieved Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Bob Quinn and Head Coach Matt Patricia of their duties.

On Jan. 14, 2021, the Lions named Brad Holmes the team's new Executive Vice President and General Manager. Holmes spent the previous 18 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams, ultimately ascending to the team's director of college scouting.

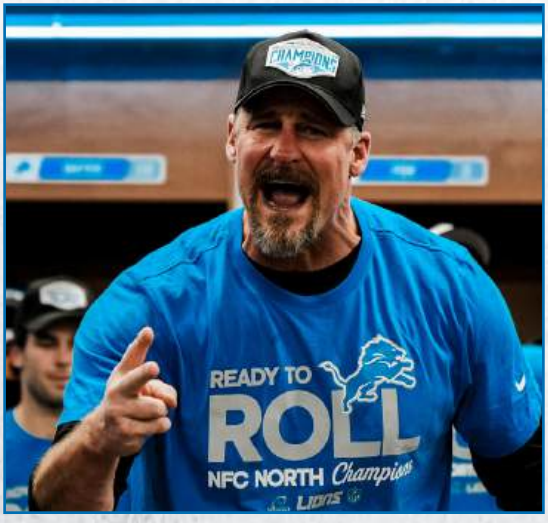

The Lions named Dan Campbell as the team's new head coach on Jan. 20, 2021. Campbell played 11 seasons as an NFL tight end and spent 11 seasons as an assistant NFL coach before assuming the role of head coach. He became the fifth former Lions player to be named a full-time head coach for the club.

On March 17, 2021, the Lions traded QB Matthew Stafford to the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for QB Jared Goff and three future draft picks. This marked the first time in NFL history that two former No. 1 overall picks have been involved in a trade together.

On Jan. 8, 2023, the Lions defeated the Packers, 20-16, on Sunday Night Football to conclude the 2022 season with a 9-8 record. This was the third time in NFL history that a team started a season 1-6 and finished the year with a winning record. It marked the first winning season for Detroit since going 9-7 in 2017.

The 2023 season was a historic year for the Lions, with the team reaching several new heights. Detroit finished with a 12-5 record, tying the then-franchise record for wins in a season, en route to winning their first division title in 30 years. By winning their first-ever NFC North title, the Lions hosted the Rams in the Wild Card Round in the first-ever playoff game at Ford Field. After defeating the Rams, the Lions beat the Buccaneers in the Divisional Round at Ford Field before falling to the San Francisco 49ers on the road in the NFC Championship Game.

The Lions orchestrated their best regular season in franchise history in 2024, finishing 15-2 and setting numerous franchise records. Detroit set single-season franchise records in wins (15), points scored (564), touchdowns scored (70), first downs (410), point differential (+222) and total net yards (6,962). They also produced 11-straight wins, establishing a new franchise record over any duration of time. The Lions clinched the No. 1 seed in a postseason for the first time and also captured back-to-back division championships for the first time in franchise history. Detroit produced at least 12 wins in consecutive seasons (2023-24) for the first time in franchise history and totaled 36 victories over the last three seasons (2022-24), also establishing a new franchise record. The Lions also had four different players earn First-Team AP All-Pro honors, tying the 1991 Lions for the most in any season since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger.

HISTORICAL TRADE OF NO. 1'S

On March 17, 2021, the Detroit Lions traded QB Matthew Stafford to the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for QB Jared Goff, a 2021 third-round draft pick, a 2022 first-round draft pick and a 2023 first-round draft pick.

This marked the first time in NFL history that former No. 1 overall picks were dealt in the same package for one another. Stafford went first overall to Detroit in 2009 out of Georgia and Goff went first overall to Los Angeles in 2016 out of California.

Stafford left the Lions as the team's all-time leader in all major passing categories, made one Pro Bowl and was voted the AP Comeback Player of the Year in 2011.

Goff left the Rams as a two-time Pro Bowl quarterback who guided L.A. to three playoff berths and an appearance in Super Bowl LIII.

Stafford's return to Ford Field came in the Wild Card Round of the playoffs following the 2023 season, coincidentally the first playoff game the stadium has ever hosted. Goff and the Lions came out victorious over the Rams, 24-23, in the second matchup between the teams since the trade.

The two teams met again at Ford Field in Week 1 of the 2024 season, with Goff and the Lions prevailing, 26-20, in overtime.

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the League to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games.

- The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.

HOMES OF THE DETROIT LIONS

In 2002, the Lions moved into their current home, Ford Field, in downtown Detroit. It marked the team's return to the city for the first time since 1974.

GRIDIRON HEROES

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes – The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions."

The song has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

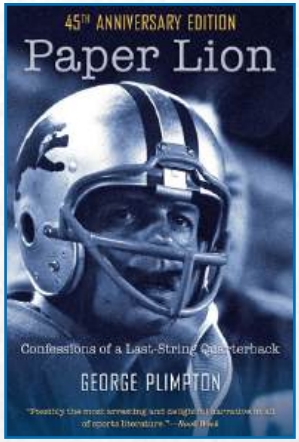

(Verse)
Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.
Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game.
Dashing to victory as they go.

(Chorus)
Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain,
A Lion victory!

PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premiere was held Thursday, Oct. 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

- The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. 2017 was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.
- The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in September. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s.
- The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

IN MEMORIAM

Several members of the Detroit Lions served in World War II and made the ultimate sacrifice for their country in the fight against fascism.

- Lt. Charles Behan was killed by Japanese machine gun fire on Okinawa, May 18, 1945.
- Sgt. Alex Ketzko was killed in France with Patch's Seventh Army, Dec. 23, 1944.
- Lt. Chet Wetterlund was killed flying a Navy Hellcat on night patrol along the New Jersey coast, Sept. 5, 1944.

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

Only a handful of great teams over the years in the NFL can claim the title of dynasty. One of those great teams was the Detroit Lions in the 1950s when the franchise captured world championships three times in a six-year span. Winning three championships in six years has occurred only 10 times by eight different teams in the history of the NFL.

- Detroit won back-to-back titles in 1952 and 1953 and became the third team since the beginning of NFL Championship games in 1933 to win championships in consecutive years.
- Overall since 1933, back-to-back titles have occurred just 15 times. Including 1954, the Lions appeared in the NFL title game four times in a six-year period.

DEEPLY ROOTED IN TEXAS

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five players on the Lions' All-Time Team played college football in the Lone Star State, including: QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A&M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Layne, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Joining those stars on the franchise's All-Time Team are Texas prepsters CB Dick "Night Train" Lane (Austin), who is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and RB Billy Sims (Hooks).
- Layne, Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pride of the Lions charter class.

Texas roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were childhood friends. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

- That connection was revisited when the Lions drafted QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker.

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit.

- Since 2002, the Lions have operated out of the team's headquarters in Allen Park, with portions of the organization's business operations housed in the old Hudson's warehouse portion of Ford Field.

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous feast.

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans – except Detroiters.

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, but with a new twist that began in 1934.

That's when Detroiters and their outstate Michigan compatriots found themselves at the dawn of an unplanned behavior modification, courtesy of George A. "Dick" Richards, owner of the city's new entry in the National Football League: The Detroit Lions. - Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 80 years later, fans throughout the State of Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

The game was the brainchild of Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the club from Portsmouth, Ohio to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact the Lions had lost only one game prior to Thanksgiving in 1934, the season's largest crowd had been just 15,000.

The opponent in 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations) and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into the University of Detroit Stadium while thousands more disappointed fans were turned away. The game was the NFL's first on a national broadcast.

In 2009, the Lions Thanksgiving Day game against Green Bay marked the NFL's 75th anniversary of the first NFL national game broadcast. Graham McNamee was the announcer for NBC Radio for that historic game in 1934.

Despite two Ace Gutowsky touchdowns, the Bears won the inaugural game 19-16, but a classic was born. Since 1934, 85 games have been played with the Lions holding a 38-45-2 record in the series. And each game, in its own way, continues to bring back memories of Thanksgiving, not only to Lions fans, but to football fans across the nation.

THANKSGIVING DAY FACTS

- The series began Nov. 29, 1934 when Detroit played host to the Chicago Bears. In the first Thanksgiving Day game, the Lions were defeated by the Bears 19-16.
- A total of 85 games have been played with the Lions owning a 38-45-2 record in the annual holiday classic.
- More than 4 million fans have witnessed the Lions' 83 Thanksgiving Day games. The total attendance for the first 85 games is 4,822,796 an average of 56,738 fans per game. For the first time in team history, there were no fans in attendance for the team's 2020 Thanksgiving game, due to COVID-19 restrictions.
- Detroit had won on Thanksgiving Day from 2013-16, marking the team's longest streak in the holiday classic since winning four-straight from 1997-2000.
- The Lions have played 24 different teams since the first Thanksgiving Day game. The most common opponent has been the Green Bay Packers, who the Lions played in 2023 for the 22nd time in the Thanksgiving series. Their second most common opponent is the Chicago Bears (19 times).
- The two highest scoring games were a 44-40 Packers' win in 1986 and a 52-35 romp over Green Bay in 1951.
- The lowest scoring game was a 12-0 Philadelphia win in the 1968 "Mud Bowl."
- Fifteen times in the series has a game been decided by three points or less, with the Lions' record standing at 6-7-2 in those meetings.
- The most lopsided game was a 45-3 Lions win over Pittsburgh in 1983.
- Seven shutouts have been recorded, but only one by the Lions (20-0 over the Bears in 1979).
- Three Thanksgiving Day games have gone into overtime. The first came in 1980 when the Bears' David Williams returned the opening kickoff of OT for a 95-yard touchdown. At the time, the game marked the shortest overtime game in NFL history (21 seconds). The second overtime game occurred in 1998 when the Lions defeated the Steelers 19-16 on a 42-yard Jason Hanson field goal in a game that will be remembered for the controversial coin toss before overtime began. The third occurred against the Houston Texans in 2012 in a game categorized by back-and-forth possessions and two missed field goals from each side, with Houston K Shayne Graham pulling out a 32-yarder for the win.

(1939-44: Series Interrupted During WWII)

Note: Prior to 1972, a team's winning pct. was calculated using wins and losses, disregarding ties. (Ex: Detroit's record in the 1960s was 2-6-2 and their winning pct. was .250, two wins/two ties + six losses). Since 1972, ties have been calculated in winning pct. as half-a-win.

*MR: Several players, most recent 1934-47: The first uniform donned by the Detroit Lions included a blue jersey with gleaming silver numerals, silver pants and a silver helmet. The shoes were black. The shade of blue used for the jersey became known as 'Honolulu' blue.

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors.

- The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.
- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.
- The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1949: The Lions returned to wearing their Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home but continued to wear combinations of the scarlet and white uniforms and the all-black uniforms on the road. The team changed the color of their helmet to blue and some players went back to wearing plastic helmets after the NFL lifted the ban on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season, the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

- They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On Oct. 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

- During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves-giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

- For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on Oct. 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

- The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes - one thick between two thin - on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey, except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.
- 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

1982-97:
- 1982: The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.
- 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.
- 1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on Nov. 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

- 1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.
- 1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.
- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

1998: In what turned out to be Barry Sanders final season, the Lions changed their look on the road, wearing blue pants with a white stripe between two silver stripes.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the road.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

- The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game at Ford Field September 22, 2002 against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

- The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.
- The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games.

2009-13: On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that included a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." Later in 2012, the NFL launched its new partnership with Nike in April of that year. The Lions uniform featured the Nike logo but also the new Nike Elite 51 technology. The collar changed from black and silver piping to a solid blue.

Designed and engineered from the inside out, the Nike Elite 51 uniform focused on creating a system where the baselayer, padding, jersey and pant work in concert. New innovations included integrating Nike Flywire Technology into the neckline to reduce weight and provide lockdown fit over pads, increasing sleeve articulation for better range of motion, and integrating new four-way stretch fabrication to provide a streamlined shrink-wrap fit.

2014: Detroit Lions players wore a uniform patch from 2014-16 honoring late team owner William Clay Ford. Mr. Ford, who passed away March 9, 2014, purchased the Lions in Nov. 1963 and officially became sole owner of the team Jan. 10, 1964. The Lions introduced the patch beginning with the regular season opener (September 8) on Monday Night Football at Ford Field when Detroit defeated the New York Giants, 35-14.

2017 NIKE RE-BRAND

Feb. 1, 2017: The Lions once again updated the team's logo and typeface as part of a rebranding initiative that also included four new uniform options. The updated logo and typeface included the removal of black from the brand identity, emphasizing the team's class color combination of Honolulu blue and silver that has been synonymous with the Detroit Lions since 1934.

HOME HONOLULU BLUE JERSEYS

The Lions home jerseys remained Honolulu Blue, a color first established in 1934.

- The numerals were developed and customized specifically for the Lions uniform based on the team's logotype. They were silver, trimmed in anthracite – officially 'dark steel grey.'
- The sleeves featured a silk-screened wide horizontal silver stripe, inside two smaller silver stripes. The wide stripe was stenciled with 'LIONS' on the right sleeve and 'WCF' was featured in front of blue and silver vertical bars on the left sleeve in honor of the team's previous owner, William Clay Ford, Sr.

ROAD WHITE JERSEYS

The road jerseys were the traditional "road whites," with blue numerals trimmed in dark steel grey. Sleeves were similar in style to the home uniforms except the striping was Honolulu blue.

- The right sleeve featured 'LIONS' screen-printed in white and the left sleeve featured the initials WCF.

COLOR RUSH JERSEY

The color rush jerseys were dark steel grey (anthracite) colored with white numerals trimmed in Honolulu Blue.

- Sleeves were similar in style to the away uniforms with the Honolulu Blue striping.
- This marked the first grey uniform in franchise history.

UNIFORM VARIATION

The Lions deviated from their primary home and away looks during their previous uniform iteration (2017-23), often mixing and matching jerseys and pants to create a monotone combination.

The first time Detroit wore a blue-on-blue combo (blue uniform with blue pants) was vs. Pittsburgh on Oct. 29, 2017.

The Lions introduced white pants for the first time at Green Bay on Sept. 20, 2021, donning their first white-on-white combo (white uniform with white pants).

DETROIT'S RECORD WITH A MONOTONE COMBO (2017-23)
All-Blue: 9-5 (7-5 regular season; 2-0 postseason)
All-White: 6-4-1 (6-3-1 regular season, 0-1 postseason)
All-Grey Color Rush: 6-6

In 2023, including the postseason, Detroit went 13-2 when wearing a monotone combination.

UNIFORM FACTOIDS

During the uniform iteration spanning from 2017-23, the Lions added some unique wrinkles into their jersey history.

On Oct. 14, 2019, the Lions wore blue uniforms at Lambeau Field for the first time in a Monday Night Football matchup. The last time Detroit wore blue in Green Bay was on Sept. 30, 1956 at City Stadium.

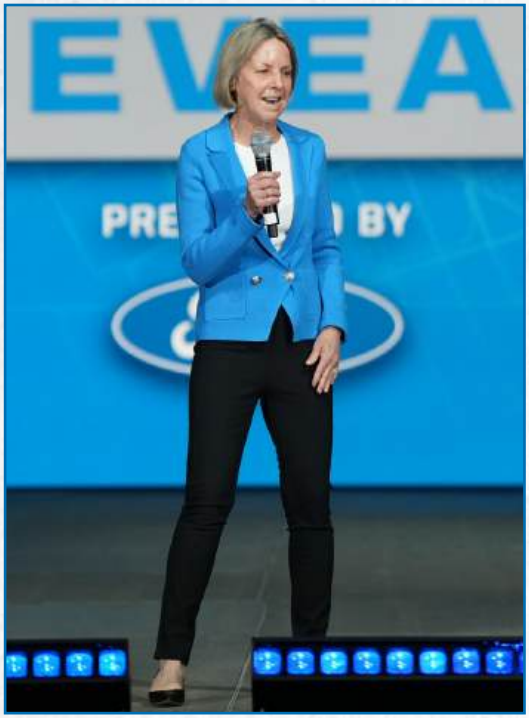

On Nov. 17, 2019 vs. Dallas, the Lions wore white uniforms in a home game for the first time since doing so vs. Oakland on Nov. 26, 1970. This marked only the third time in team history the team has donned a white uniform at home.

In 2023, the Lions accompanied their all-grey color rush uniforms with a blue alternate helmet, going 2-0 with that combination. This was the first time the Lions wore a blue helmet since the 1950s.

A MODERN CLASSIC

- On April 18, 2024, the Lions unveiled new uniforms during a Lions Loyal Member exclusive event at Ford Field. The Lions leadership team set out to reestablish Honolulu Blue by working with Nike to adopt a richer tone of the unique color that harkens back to an earlier era. True silver has also made its way back into the uniform, featured in various outlines and stripe elements, as well as in the team's traditional pant. Outside of the conventional colors, the team also brought black back into their uniforms, with a black jersey featuring Honolulu Blue lettering encased in a silver outline and an all-black alternate pant option.
- Inspired in part by Ford's reimagination of the Bronco, the SUV served as a muse for the team in taking a classic look and creating a sharper interpretation for the modern era. The Lions and Nike Design teamed up on their new primary jersey to create a fresh take of the uniforms worn by the early 90s teams. The striping across various pieces of the uniform were also inspired by the sleek design commonly seen on the iconic Mustang. Rooted in Detroit, the uniforms draw the connection between the team and the hardworking, passionate community the Lions represent.

NEW HELMETS

- Primary (Blue & white jersey): The team will continue to wear their classic silver helmet with the leaping Lion in redefined Honolulu Blue and trimmed in white on the side of the helmet. The updated look will feature a blue and white stripe that ties to the jersey sleeves. A blue facemask has been introduced as an additional reference to early 90s teams. The helmet also features a permanent helmet sticker that pays homage to William Clay Ford, showing the classic WCF mark featuring a pair of iconic Ford stripes on the back left of the helmet.

- Alternate (Black jersey): The team's alternate helmet, which was introduced leading into the 2023 season, now features a black leaping Lion trimmed in silver on the matte blue shell. The leaping Lion is complimented by a black and silver stripe that runs the length of the helmet, as well as a black facemask.

- Classic: The Lions will continue to embrace their classic look in an all-silver helmet paired with their classic jersey. The team will have the option of matching the helmet with a silver facemask or providing some contrast with their new blue facemask.

NEW UNIFORM ELEMENTS

- PRIMARY (HOME & ROAD): Both primary uniforms feature all three of the teams' classic colors. The jerseys also feature a patch under the inside back collar that pays homage to William Clay Ford, the team's longtime owner who secured the team's future in the Motor City. Inspired by Mr. Ford's classic style, the patch mimics a custom suit label and uses the WCF logo with iconic stripes above his penned signature. Both primary jerseys can be paired with either a silver pant option that features blue and white striping down the leg or three unadorned pant options – silver, blue or white.
- Home (Primary): The home jersey features a redefined Honolulu Blue with a classic white number font encased in silver borders and reimagined shoulder striping. The inside collar of the jersey is inscribed with "ONE PRIDE," acknowledging the team's passionate fans that pack Ford Field each home game.

- Alternate (Classic): The Lions' closet will continue to feature a classic uniform as a nod to the late 50s teams that dominated the early era of professional football. The redefined blue is the only change the team made to the classic uniform as they will still feature classic numbers in silver with no outline. The jersey will be paired with silver stripe-less pants and blue socks.
- Road (Primary): The road jersey presents in classic white with blue numbers encased in silver outlines and shoulder striping in blue and silver. The inside collar of the white jersey is trimmed in Honolulu Blue as a nod to not only the Lions gritty style of play but an homage to the work ethic that built Detroit into an iconic American city. The back of the collar features a "313" wordmark and for the first time in team history, the Lions will wear "DETROIT" across their chest on the road.

- Alternate (Black): The black jersey features blue classic numbers wrapped in a silver outline on a black background and striping in blue and silver on the sleeves. The "LIONS" wordmark will lay across the chest and "MOTOR CITY" is inscribed on a blue trim inside the back color. The black jersey can be paired with either an all-black pant or the team's blue pant.

FRANCHISE TAG HISTORY

The franchise tag was first introduced in 1993, when the NFL's free agency and salary cap era began. Franchises are eligible to select up to one pending unrestricted free agent with the franchise tag, which is a one-year contract that guarantees a predetermined salary for players.

The salary amount is set by averaging the top five salaries by position for the previous league year, or if it's higher, 120% of a player's salary the previous season.

Detroit has rarely used the franchise tag since it's implementation.

Year	Pos.	Player	Tag Value
2018	DE	Ezekiel Ansah	$17.10 million
2011	DE	Cliff Avril	$10.6 million
2007	DT	Cory Redding	$6.78 million
2006	T	Jeff Backus	$6.98 million
2000	DE	Robert Porcher	$4.25 million
1995	T	Lomas Brown	$2.70 million
1993	T	Lomas Brown	$2.58 million

Lomas Brown received the franchise tag in two of the first three seasons of its creation. He remains the only Lion and one of the only players in NFL history to receive the tag twice from the same team.

Doak Walker played for the Lions from 1950-55, earning five Pro Bowls, two NFL Championships and winning the 1950 NFL Rookie of the Year. His No. 37 uniform was the first number retired in franchise history, with Detroit doing so immediately after he retired in 1955. Walker was the fourth and final player to ever don the number for Detroit.

No. 7

The number worn the least in franchise history is No. 7, with only two players donning the number. OL/LB Grover "Ox" Emerson wore the uniform from 1931-32 while B Earl "Dutch" Clark donned it from 1934-38. Prior to wearing No. 7, Clark also repped Nos. 19 and 12. Clark won an NFL Championship, was a six-time First-Team AP All-Pro, led the NFL in rushing touchdowns and in scoring on three separate occasions and is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

The 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the City of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to the championship at Ford Field was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the semifinals. In the Championship, North Carolina beat Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off as the Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,378 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Although the primary focus of Final Four weekend was on the student athletes, the festivities surrounding the event livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which included a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

2008 MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin,73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans

COLLEGIATE BOWL GAME

In 2013, the Detroit Lions entered into a partnership with the Big Ten Conference and ACC to host an annual bowl at Ford Field. The inaugural game was played December 26, 2014 as Rutgers defeated North Carolina, 40-21.

The Lions also added the MAC as a secondary tie-in for the game, and the first nine editions were sponsored by the Ford Motor Company's Quick Lane Tire & Auto Center. The game was first known as the Quick Lane Bowl from 2014-23 before the Lions reached an agreement with GameAbove in 2024 to rebrand the game as the GameAbove Sports Bowl.

The Detroit Lions are now the only NFL team to own, host and operate a college football bowl game.

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparkled as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations.

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights in 2009 as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

NCAA HOCKEY

In 2010 Ford Field elevated collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosted the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which was the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, proved the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before.

For both the National Semifinals and National Championship, the crowds that gathered set new NCAA records and new world records for an indoor hockey game. Overall, approximately 19,000 more fans experienced the Frozen Four weekend than ever before. The first night of the Frozen Four, the National Semifinals, commenced as Ford Field established a new attendance record of 34,954. Wisconsin defeated Rochester Institute of Technology 8-1 and Boston College upended Miami 7-1. In the National Championship game, Boston College claimed the NCAA title by shutting out Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 37,592. In total, 72,546 fans watched the Frozen Four at Ford Field.

LOOK AT THE PAST

On Nov. 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 64,500-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, Aug. 24, 2002 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, Sept. 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was in October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field also hosted the Men's Basketball Midwest Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA returned in 2010 as Ford Field presented the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Besides events like the NCAA Final Four, Midwest Regionals and Frozen Four, Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the Monster Jam monster truck series and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact will continue to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, trade shows and concerts.

A STAR IN THE MAKING

Taylor Swift performed the National Anthem at the Lions Thanksgiving game in 2006 at just 16 years old.

While retuning to Ford Field for her most recent concert in the city in 2023, she told the crowd, "The first time that I ever sang at Ford Field was in 2006 at a Lions game singing the National Anthem. I was 16-years old and it was like, the biggest place I had ever seen in my life. I was absolutely losing it. So nervous. Freaking out. And now we're back on 'The Eras Tours.'

Since her National Anthem performance, Swift has performed five shows over four different tours at Ford Field.
