ELEVEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers lead the National Football League in most championships won with eleven. They won three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931) and eight times since the playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967) Green Bay also is the only team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).

In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1967, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1968, 33-14).

The Chicago Bears rank second with eight NFL titles, followed by the Giants, Lions and Browns with 4 each.

BART STARR
Head Coach

Though among the most articulate of men, Bryan Bartlett Starr has telescoped his imposing vocabulary to a single word for the 1981 season—his seventh as head coach of the Green Bay Packers.

That word is...consistency.

Reflecting upon a 1980 season he likened to "a roller coaster," Starr says, "We need to be more consistent...That's going to be our byword in 1981—consistency."

He acknowledges good health invariably is critical to a team's success—the Packers' 5-10-1 record of last season can be traced in no small measure to having 27 players on the injured reserve list at one time or another—but insists that consistency still has top priority.

"Despite the injuries, we didn't perform consistently well enough when we needed to," he said. "Had we, we would have had some dramatic victories because the conditions under which they would have been achieved—with all those people out—would have represented quite an accomplishment."

The legendary former field general also is quick to concede that the rebuilding process, upon which he embarked in 1975, has not been an easy one. Committed from the outset to reconstructing Packer fortunes via the draft, he adopted his course despite the knowledge Green Bay's first and second round draft choices in his first two years would not be available to him, having been dealt away in a pre-Starr trade. After he had bitten that unpalatable bullet in 1975 and '76—as his team struggled to 4-10 and 5-9 records—injuries conspired to thwart him a first time in 1977, the Packers slipping back to a 4-10 mark. That began to change in '78 with the addition of talented newcomers like James Lofton and John Anderson, triggering visions of a productive future for the Green and Gold.

The Packers responded with an 8-7-1 season, their first winning record in six years and only their second since 1967. It gave promise of better things to come in 1979—until the football fates took an untimely hand. Major injuries sidelined John Anderson, Barty Smith, Carl Barzilauskas, Michael Hunt and Steve Atkins, while others hampered the effectiveness of Mark Koncar and Terdell Middleton, a combination of circumstances which contributed heavily to a 5-11 record.

Then, in their grim wake, came the injury epidemic of 1980—and inconsistency.

The eighth head coach in the annals of professional sports' most storied franchise, Starr officially was tendered his imposing assignment by the packer Executive Committee on Dec. 24, 1974. It was his by informal acclamation, a development unique in Packer annals. The sweeping mandate was entirely understandable, even though he had had only one year of coaching experience, success having been a habit with him on and off the field.

"Mr. Quarterback," most productive signal caller in pro football history, had endeared himself to the faithful with his achievements as field leader of the Packers in the 7-year period between 1961 and 1967, during which he guided Green Bay to five world championships, a feat without equal in pro football history.

With Starr at the offensive controls, the Packers made 6 playoff appearances in 8 years, beginning with a 1960 showdown against the Eagles. That was the only playoff the Packers were to lose with No. 15 at quarterback.They rebounded from that disappointment to decimate the Giants in the '61 title game, 37-0, and repeated in '62, again felling the Giants (16-7).

After two winning but non-championship years in 1963 and '64, Starr led the Packers to three consecutive titles in 1965-66-67, the first time such a parlay had been achieved since the advent of the NFL playoff system in 1933.

He climaxed that historic "triple play" by escorting Green Bay to successive victories in the first two Super Bowls, in both of which he was voted the game's Most Valuable Player.

During those highly prosperous '60s, Starr three times led the NFL in passing (1962, 1964 and 1966) and was named to the Pro Bowl on four occasions (1961, '62, '63 and '66). He also established four NFL passing records during his 16-year playing career, longest in the team's history. He set, and still holds, league marks for most consecutive passes attempted without an interception, 294, and lowest percentage of passes intercepted for a season, 1.20, set in 1966; and shares the record for fewest passes intercepted in a season, 3, with Gary Wood of the New York Giants.

Born in Montgomery, AL, Jan. 9, 1934, the son of a career Air Force master sergeant, Starr won All-American honors in high school, but things did not come easily for him thereafter. He had to fight his way through adversity and initial professional obscurity to gain pre-eminence among pro football quarterbacks.

Bart was a lowly, 17th round draft choice of the Packers in 1956 because pro scouts were wary of his physical future, a reluctance prompted by a back injury Starr had received as a junior at Alabama. The uphill struggle continued after he joined Green Bay. For the next four seasons, Starr shared quarterbacking duties with Tobin Rote, Lamar McHan, Babe Parilli, and Joe Francis before gaining regular status in the ninth game of the 1959 season. He led the Packers to consecutive victories in those last four games, under first year Coach Vince Lombardi, and Green Bay's first winning season in 12 years.

Although a consistent, high level performer during the regular season, it was Starr's brilliance in post-season play which set him apart from all others. In six NFL title games, he completed 84 of 145 passes for 1,090 yards and 11 touchdowns — with, incredibly, only one interception — for a glittering 57.9 percent. In two Super Bowls, he was even more deadly, completing 29 of 47 attempts (61.7 percent) for 452 yards, 3 TDs and again, with only 1 interception.

Following his retirement as a player in July of 1972, after two shoulder operations, Bart became Packer quarterback coach. He resigned in January of 1973 to pursue private business interests. In the interim, he had become a highly successful automobile dealer and a much sought after motivational speaker and TV "salesman" as well as a popular analyst on CBS-TV's NFL football telecasts and an actor in motivational films prior to taking on his current challenge.

Despite his heavy schedule, Starr gives generously of his time and talents to charitable and civic endeavors such as "Rawhide," a leadership training camp for boys who need a second chance. He and his wife, the former Cherry Morton of Birmingham, AL, have two sons, Bart Jr., 23, a law student, and Bret, 17, a senior in high school.

JOHN MEYER
Defensive Coordinator

Resourceful and innovative, John Meyer is in his second year as overseer of the Packer defense. The 39-year-old Notre Dame graduate, a coaching veteran despite his youth, was named defensive coordinator by Head Coach Bart Starr following the 1979 season.

In his 13th year as a coach in the National Football League, Meyer wrought a major change in the Packers' defensive approach a year ago when he replaced the time-honored 4-3 alignment with the '3-4,' a format the Green and Gold will continue to employ in 1981. This year, he and Coach Starr have revamped and augmented the defensive staff, bringing in former Bills, Broncos and Redskins aide Richard "Doc" Urich as line coach and naming special teams coach John Marshall full-time linebacker coach. (Marshall previously had assisted Meyer with the linebackers). Ross Fichtner returns as secondary coach.

Meyer, honored as professional football's "Assistant Coach of the Year" by the National 1,000-Yard Foundation in 1978, is in his seventh year on the Packer staff. Youngest assistant coach in the NFL when he made his debut with New England in 1968 at the age of 27, he spent his first four seasons with the Patriots. He subsequently joined the staff of the late Don McCafferty when the latter became head coach of the Detroit Lions in 1973, then came to the Packers in January of 1975, becoming one of the first assistants to be hired by Starr when he became Green Bay's head coach.

Born Feb. 20, 1942, Meyer is a graduate of Chicago's Brother Rice High School, where he won all-city honors at defensive end before enrolling at Notre Dame. Later an eighth round selection of St. Louis in the 1965 draft, Meyer played for the Cardinals that year and for the Oilers in '66 before moving into the scouting department for Houston in 1967.

John and his wife, the former Loretta Kruchten, have three daughters; Tracey Ann, 14; Courtney Lynn, 10; and Blake Marie, 7.

ZEKE BRATKOWSKI
Offensive Backfield Coach

One of the pre-eminent rescue quarterbacks in pro football history as a player, Zeke Bratkowski is in the seventh year of his second term on the Packer coaching staff.

The one-time Chicago Bear and Los Angeles Ram, now in his 12th year of coaching, is responsible for tutoring Packer quarterbacks and running backs. He is in his third season in this assignment, having coached quarterbacks exclusively from 1975-78. Coach Bart Starr added the running backs to Bratkowski's responsibilities in 1979.

Edmund Raymond Bratkowski, was named to the current staff on Jan. 4, 1975—following three years on the Bears' staff—an appointment which not only reunited Zeke with the Packers but with his longtime ex-teammate, Starr. He previously had served as backfield coach under Phil Bengston in 1969-70, and as a Packer player for 6½ seasons (1963-68 and 1971). As a player, he had backed up Starr with distinction when injuries sidelined No. 15 during the highly successful '60s.

Though a starter with both the Bears and Rams during a 14-year career, Zeke had his most memorable day as a player in a rescue role. That was on December 26, 1965, when he led the Packers to a sudden death victory over Baltimore in the Western Conference playoff after Starr had suffered a disabling injury early in the game.

Born in Danville, IL, Oct. 20, 1931, Bratkowski was the Bears' No. 2 choice in the 1953 draft. Following his rookie season, he spent two years in the Air Force, rejoining the Bears in 1957. He was traded to the Rams in 1961, and by LA to the Packers during the '63 season.

Zeke and M.E. (for Mary Elizabeth) have three children—Robert, an assistant football coach at Weber State College, Ogden, Utah; Steve, varsity quarterback at Arizona State; and Kassie, a student at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire.

LEW CARPENTER
Passing Game Coach

As a player, Lew Carpenter was one of the most versatile performers in the history of the National Football League, playing five different positions. As a coach, he has fashioned an impressive record during a 16-year career as a specialist.

The former jack-of-all positions, now overseer of the Packer passing game, has gained league-wide recognition for his development of premium receivers, among them John Gilliam, Mel Gray, Ahmad Rashad, Charley Taylor, Paul Flatley and the Packers' James Lofton.

Uniquely equipped for his role, Lew played both wide receiver positions, tight end, halfback and fullback as a player. He was named to the Packer coaching staff in January of 1975 by Coach Bart Starr with the assignment of redesigning the passing game. So well did he succeed that quarterback John Hadl set a team single season record for completions (191) that year. And last season, the Packer offense forged new club marks for gross (3,651) and net (3,291) yards passing in a season.

Prior to joining the Packers as a coach, Carpenter had served on the staffs of the Vikings, Falcons, Redskins, Cardinals and Oilers.

An 8th round draft choice of Detroit in 1953, he later came to the Packers in a 1959 trade. He became Green Bay's utility man on offense, helping the Packers win successive world titles in 1961-62.

Born in West Memphis, Ark., Jan. 12, 1932, Lew and his wife, Ann, have four daughters, Cheryl, 24; Cathy, 22; Lisa, 19; and Rebecca, 16.

ROSS FICHTNER
Defensive Backfield Coach

Ross Fichtner, a nine-year veteran of National Football League combat, is in his second season as coach of the Packers' defensive secondary.

A former Cleveland Brown, Fichtner spent four seasons as secondary coach under Jack Pardee in the World Football League and with the Chicago Bears, beginning in 1974. During '78 and '79, he was actively employed by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in Pittsburgh, PA.

The former Purdue quarterback-defensive back, a member of the College All-Stars who played the Baltimore Colts in the 1960 midsummer classic, was selected by Cleveland in the third round of the '60 draft and went on to forge an impressive career with the Browns. He played 102 games for Cleveland and intercepted 27 passes during the 8-year span, returning three for touchdowns. Voted the Browns' most valuable defensive player in 1966, the strong safety had three interceptions in a game against Dallas that year. He previously had been a starter as the Browns won the NFL title in '64 and as Cleveland played for the '65 title in Green Bay, a game won by the Packers (23-12). Fichtner closed out his playing days with the New Orleans Saints in 1968. He returned to football in 1974 as an aide to Pardee with the WFL's Florida Blazers.

Ross was born Oct. 26, 1938 at McKeesport, PA, and is the father of four children (Randy, 17, Tamara, 16, Tonya, 14 and Rusty, 12). He and his wife Karen, make their home in Allouez, a Green Bay suburb.

PETE KETTELA
Special Assistant

Pete Kettela, a member of the Packers' scouting department since 1978, joins the coaching staff this year as a special assistant. Kettela, a veteran of 13 coaching seasons in the college ranks, was named to the position by Head Coach Bart Starr Feb. 27, 1981.

Kettela's responsibilities will include advance game planning for the offensive staff, based on computer and film work, and some on-the-field coaching, primarily assisting with the special teams.

A 1961 graduate of the University of California-Riverside, Kettela began his coaching career in high school, then returned to his alma mater as head football coach in 1965. After 5 years at UC-R, he served as offensive coordinator at the University of California-Santa Barbara for one year, at the University of Pacific for one year, at Stanford for five years and at San Jose State for year before joining the Packer scouting staff. At Stanford, he moulded the Cardinal receiving corps (including James Lofton) into one of the most explosive in the nation. The 1976 unit caught 223 passes for 2,669 yards and 16 touchdowns, enabling quarterback Guy Benjamin to rank second nationally among Division I passers.

As a collegian, Kettela was UC-Riverside's "Athlete of the Year" in 1960, starring in football, basketball and baseball and earning Little All-America honors in football. Kettela, who later coached his alma mater to a 21-19-2 record, is married (Jill) and they make their home on Green Bay's Southwest side—a stone's throw from Lambeau Field.

JOHN MARSHALL
Linebacker Coach

John Marshall, who left the USC campus a year ago to join the Packer staff as special teams coach, assumes a new role in 1981 as full-time coach of the linebackers. The 34-year-old Marshall, a veteran of 11 years' coaching experience in major college ranks despite his youth, assisted Defensive Coordinator John Meyer with the linebackers last season in addition to coaching the special teams.

An aide to Coach John Robinson at USC from 1977 through 1979, Marshall was appointed to the Green Bay staff by Coach Bart Starr Feb. 4, 1980. While he was a member of the Trojans' board of strategy, USC won a national championship (1978) and two Rose Bowls (1979 and '80).

A native of Arroyo Grande, CA, Marshall began his coaching career as a student assistant at the University of Oregon after suffering a neck injury—while a freshman at Washington State—a mishap that cut short his playing career. He transferred to Hancock Junior College where he worked under subsequent Oakland Raider coach John Madden, and from there to Oregon, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in health education in 1969. At Oregon, Marshall coached the freshman team for three years, then tutored the offensive line for five more seasons. At USC, he coached the outside linebackers his first two years, then took over the inside linebackers in 1979.

John is married (Becky) and the father of two daughters, Sarah and Meg.

ERNIE McMILLAN
Offensive Line Coach

Ernie McMillan, one of the most skilled offensive tackles in recent NFL history during his playing days, is in his second season as tutor of the Packers' offensive line. In his first year, McMillan's charges protected quarterback Lynn Dickey so well Green Bay set an all-time record for passing yardage in a season.

Ernie, who had assisted Bill Curry before taking over his present position in 1980, was recognized as one of the NFL's premier technicians during a 15-year playing career. The monolithic University of Illinois alumnus thus brings substantial expertise to his assignment. He also has an articulate, low key and highly personal approach to coaching which serves him well in communicating with his athletes, with whom he has developed excellent raport.

A 13th round draft choice of the Cardinals in 1961, the 43-year-old McMillan spent 14 seasons with the Cardinals, winning all-pro honors in 1970 and '71. He also was chosen to play in four Pro Bowls. McMillan, who played in more games than any other player in Cardinal history (178), closed out his playing career with the Packers in 1975.

Prior to his appointment to the Packer coaching staff by Coach Bart Starr on Feb. 7, 1978, McMillan had served as publisher of "Proud," a St. Louis black consciousness periodical. A native of Chicago Heights, IL, Ernest Charles McMillan was born Feb. 21, 1938. He is married to the former Gail Thomas of St. Louis, who is a teacher in the Green Bay school system.

DICK REHBEIN
Special Teams Coach

Dick Rehbein, now in his third year on the coaching staff, shoulders new and heavier responsibilities in 1981. A special assistant for two seasons, he has been named special teams coach by Head Coach Bart Starr. In addition, the 25-year-old Ripon College alumnus will assist Ernie McMillan with the offensive line, working with the guards and centers, and continue to supervise the team's strength and conditioning program.

A center during his playing days at Ripon, Rehbein was appointed to the Packer coaching staff January 1, 1979. The Green Bay native had a Packer tryout in 1977, following graduation from college, and later returned in 1978 to assist with centering duties during training camp. He subsequently worked as an in-office assistant in the Packers' computer program on a part-time basis during the 1978 season before being named to a full-time position on the coaching staff.

Rehbein, a graduate of DePere, WI, High School, won four varsity football letters at Ripon and was a two-time Associated Press and Kodak Coaches' Little All-America selection. He is single and makes his home in DePere.

RICHARD "DOC" URICH
Defensive Line Coach

Richard "Doc" Urich, a canny veteran of 30 years in coaching, has taken over as coach of the Packers' defensive line. Defensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins the past three years, he was named to his new position by Head Coach Bart Starr Jan. 29, 1981.

The 52-year-old Urich, whose imposing resume includes 11 years as an assistant to Ara Parseghian in the college ranks, began his NFL coaching career in 1971 with the Buffalo Bills. He moved to the Denver Broncos in 1972 when John Ralston became the Broncos' head coach. When Robert "Red" Miller succeeded Ralston in 1977, Urich was appointed director of pro scouting for the Broncos. He left Denver in 1978 to become defensive coordinator under Jack Pardee at Washington.

The Wapakoneta, OH, native played end at Miami (OH) University—where his teammates included Parseghian, Bo Schembechler and Paul Dietzel—from 1948-50 under Sid Gillman and Woody Hayes. He launched his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater in 1951, later moving to Northwestern in 1955 under Parseghian. Urich followed Parseghian to Notre Dame in 1964, then became head coach at the University of Buffalo in 1966. He subsequently was named head coach at Northern Illinois University in 1969, then left in 1971 to enter pro coaching.

Urich and his wife, Pat, have two children: Cynthia, 28, and Danny, 25.

DICK CORRICK
Director of Player Personnel

One of pro football's shrewdest and most insightful judges of talent, Dick Corrick coordinates all Packer scouting and personal operations as Director of Player Personnel.

In this critical role, the former Oregon State athlete directs the club's intensive college scouting program, combining input from club talent scouts, the United Scouting combine and Packer coaches in making critical personnel decisions during the annual National Football League draft, life blood of every pro football team. Named to his present position in 1978, Corrick responded by supervising 1978 and 1979 drafts which have produced such quality performers as James Lofton, John Anderson, Greg Koch, Mike Douglass and Eddie Lee Ivery.

Immediately prior to taking on his current assignment, Dick had been associated with the coaching staff in the area of team development in 1977. He joined the Packer organization in 1971 as a college scout and served as director of pro player personnel from May 6, 1975 until early 1977.

Born April 22, 1934, Corrick is a 47-year-old graduate of LaJolla, CA, High School. A 161-pound center and linebacker at Oregon State under Tommy Prothro, he later coached in the high school and college ranks for 16 years before joining the Packer scouting staff.

Dick is the father of two children, Traci, 23, and Rowdy, 21, the latter an outstanding kicking specialist for Cabrillo, CA, Junior College. He also is a chef of imposing talents and is fond of whipping up an elaborate meal for himself and his wife, Bonnie, in his leisure moments.

BURT GUSTAFSON
Director, Pro Player Personnel

Burt Gustafson, respected for his dedication and football knowledge, is the Packers' Director of Pro Player Personnel. Named to the position by Coach Bart Starr April 2, 1979, he is responsible for keeping a close watch on the rosters of the National Football League's 27 other clubs with an eye to trade possibilities or opportunities to upgrade the overall Packer roster via the waiver route.

Gustafson joined the organization in 1971 as linebacker coach, serving in that capacity through the 1974 season. Following a two-year stint as a college talent scout, he was named special teams coach in February of 1977, serving in that role through the pre-season of 1978 before transferring to the pro scouting department.

Born in Marquette, MI, Nov. 30, 1925, Burt matured into a 12-letter winner at Northern Michigan University in his home town. He later coached at Battle Creek, MI, High School, at Northern Michigan, and at the University of Wyoming (1962-70) before joining the Packers.

Burt and his wife, Alice, have 5 children—2 sons and 3 daughters.

THE PLAYERS

Kurt Allerman - 60

LINEBACKER • PENN STATE • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 225 • BORN: 8/30/55 • (ACQ: FA, '80)

PRO: Former Cardinal became one of Packer defensive unit's most productive performers after signing on as free agent Sept. 24, 1980... Tied Steve Luke for third most unassisted tackles with 68, including team-leading totals of 11 vs. Giants Nov. 16 and 10 vs. Tampa Bay Nov. 30... Also collected 46 assists... Started 11 of last 12 games at left inside linebacker... Released by St. Louis in final cutdown for '80 season, following strong performance previous year... Had started final 11 games of '79 at ILB and made most of opportunity, earning game ball after his first start of the season against Houston, when he helped hold Earl Campbell to 53 yards rushing in Cardinal victory... Finished season ranking second in total tackles (108) despite limited playing time in season's first five games... Also broke up 3 passes, forced 3 fumbles and recovered 2 more.

COLLEGE: Third round draft choice of Cardinals in 1977... Named to UPI All-America as senior after leading Nittany Lions in tackles... Co-captained Penn State defense as senior, also North squad in Senior Bowl... Has B.S. in physical education and recreation.

PERSONAL: Born in Glenridge, N.Y.... High school All-America at Kinnelon (N.J.) High School as tight end and linebacker... Also played basketball and baseball... Married (Kim)... Sales representative for a St. Louis industrial and commercial distributor... Hobbies: All outdoor activities, especially fishing and camping... Residence: Ballwin, MO.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts — 1977 (14-0), 1978 (14-0), 1979 (16-11), 1980 (13-11).

John Anderson - 59

LINEBACKER • MICHIGAN • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 228 • BORN: 2/14/56 • (ACQ: D-1B, '78)

PRO: Ranks as one of the most accomplished all-around athletes in recent Packer annals... Hampered by injury to date, he is counting upon a newly-designed protective device and remedial surgery to permit him to fully realize his abundant potential for the first time... The former is expected to safeguard his left arm, broken in each of his first three seasons (in Game 14 in 1978, forcing him to miss the final 2½ games, again in a training camp scrimmage on July 28, 1979, after which he missed the entire pre-season and first nine games of the regular season, and a third time in Game Nine at Pittsburgh Nov. 2, 1980, requiring him to sit out the final 7 games)... The surgical procedure grafted bone from a hip onto the left arm, an operation which Packer Trainer Domenic Gentile says "should give the bone greater density"... Gentile, optimistic about No. 59's football future, added, "The arm looks great"... Anderson is scheduled by Defensive Coordinator John Meyer to again start at outside linebacker... he registered 38 solo tackles and collected 11 assists before suffering last year's injury vs. Steelers... Also knocked down 4 passes and recovered a fumble... In '79, he celebrated his return to action by kicking a 39-yard field goal against the Jets Nov. 4 in his first pro attempt... Although employed primarily as a "spot" player in final six weeks, he started two games (vs. Buffalo and Philadelphia)... Earned consensus NFL all-rookie honors in '78, when he became an instant starter... A "big play" performer with exceptional field awareness and swift reactions, he emerged as Packers' No. 2 interceptor that year with 5 thefts... Has fine 4.65 speed in 40... Could serve as backup punter (averaged better than 40 yards for a career total of 180 punts at Michigan).

COLLEGE: Academic All-American as junior... Environmental education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Roger John Anderson... Married (Susan)... Former Wisconsin P.P. & K. champion... Employed as salesman for Mid-City Sporting Goods, Milwaukee, in off-season... Hobbies: Travel, basketball and barbecuing... Hometown: Waukesha, WI... Residence: New Berlin, WI.

FULLBACK • MARYLAND • 3RD YEAR

HT: 6-0 • WT: 219 • BORN: 6/22/58 • (ACQ: D-2, '79)

PRO: Handicapped by injuries his first two seasons, he has ability to be one of pro football's premier running backs...Displayed flashes of brilliance as a rookie in 1979 before knee injury sidelined him for last 9 weeks of year...Also was beginning to exhibit his fine speed (4.55 in 40) and raw power in 1980, when a similar fate befell him, a severe ankle sprain in Game Nine at Pittsburgh ending his second season...Still finished year as Packers' No. 3 rusher with 206 yards in 67 carries...His offensive backfield coach, Zeke Bratkowski, describes No. 32 as "a freight train with shoes on"...Atkins had biggest Packer moment to date in Game Two of '79 when he broke "outside" for 60 yards, longest Green Bay run from scrimmage of season...Finished day with 110 yards in 12 attempts, Packers' third best single game rushing performance of the season...Has deceptive running style to parlay with exceptional strength, superior quickness, agility and balance...Also blessed with excellent football instincts and ability to use blockers well.

COLLEGE: Set six University of Maryland records, including 32 career touchdowns and longest run from scrimmage in Terrapin history (98 yards vs. Clemson in '78)...All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection...Had fifteen 100-yard rushing games, including a 215-yard effort in '76.

PERSONAL: Given name Steve E. Atkins...Single...Major off-the-field interests are basketball and fishing...Residence: Upper Marboro, MD....Hometown: Spotsylvania, VA.

Buddy Aydelette - 62

GUARD • ALABAMA • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 260 • BORN: 8/19/56 • (ACQ: D-7, '80)

PRO: One of three promising young offensive linemen (along with Syd Kitson and Karl Swanke) produced by 1980 draft... Knee surgery following Game Nine (at Pittsburgh) slowed his professional progress but he has rebounded well from injury and is expected to make a strong bid for a berth in Ernie McMillan's unit... Has beefed up from 243 pounds as rookie to 260 via weight training with that goal in mind... Served as punt center prior to being sidelined and is counted upon to be contender for that assignment again this year... Has good feet, fine football intelligence and awareness.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter on Alabama's '78 and '79 national champions. Chosen to play in 1980 Senior Bowl... Played tight end and defensive tackle in addition to offensive tackle.

PERSONAL: Given name William L. Aydelette... Married (Becky)... All-state and All-American as prep at Murphy High School (Mobile, AL.)... Hobbies: Hunting and fishing... Residence: Green Bay... Hometown: Mobile, AL.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts — 1980 (9-0)

Mike Butler - 77

DEFENSIVE END • KANSAS • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 265 • BORN: 4/4/54 • (ACQ: D-1, '77)

PRO: Possessor of exceptional strength, fine speed (4.75 in the 40) and excellent quickness, he has the tools to be one of the dominant performers in professional football... Packers' No. 1 selection in 1977 draft, Butler has been starter since opening day of his rookie season... Shared team sack honors with fellow DE Ezra Johnson in 1980 with 9 and team laurels for "hurries" of enemy QBs, also with Johnson, at 19... Credited with 53 solo tackles overall, plus 15 assists... Also knocked ball down 12 times and caused 2 fumbles... Started all 16 games after being hampered by injuries in 1979, when he missed opener vs. Bears with dislocated elbow... Later was troubled by ankle problem... Crashed Packer record book late in '79 season despite latter injury, picking up fumble vs. Vikings in Milwaukee Nov. 11 and rumbling 70 yards for TD — longest such run in Green Bay's NFL history... Has led defense—or shared lead—in "hurries" for each of last three seasons... Had best year to date in 1978, amassing 78 unassisted tackles, including 11½ sacks, and team-leading total of 31 "hurries"... Also caused 5 interceptions, more than any other Packer defender... Continuing to develop as team leader.

COLLEGE: Only ninth player chosen in 1977 draft... Named to NEA and Sporting News All-Americas in 1976.

PERSONAL: Given name Michael Anthony Butler... Born in Washington, D.C. ... Won Washington Touchdown Club's award as player-of-the-year as senior at Calvin Coolidge High School... Married (Darlene)... Residence: Madison, WI.

Paul Coffman - 82

TIGHT END • KANSAS CITY • 4TH YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 225 • BORN: 3/29/56 • (ACQ: FA, '78)

PRO: Entrenched himself among NFL's tight end elite in 1980, his second season as starter... Caught 42 passes, despite much heavier surveillance from opposing defenses, and continued to distinguish himself as one of best blocking TE's in game... Nine of those 42 catches came in one game against Buccaneers at Tampa Oct. 12, a career high for Coffman... Caught at least one pass in every game last season and in every game but one in 1979 (Game Two vs. New Orleans Sept. 9)... Had more receptions (56) than any other TE in the National Football Conference in '79 (had gone catch-less in a limited backup role as a rookie)... His 78-yard collaboration with quarterback David Whitehurst at Miami was Packers' longest completion of latter season... Won backup job at TE as rookie FA in '78, beating out two other FA's and a drafted rookie... Later did outstanding job on special teams... A literal "walk-on," he persuaded Packer Ass't. Coach John Meyer to give him a tryout on Meyer's visit to K-State campus in March of '78 to work out Coffman's teammate, Gary Spani... An all-out athlete he has won the respect of Head Coach Bart Starr, who says of him, "Paul has exceeded our expectations, and he's done so because of remarkable dedication and work habits. Simply put, he wants to be the best at that position."

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at KSU... Ninth ranked receiver in school's history at graduation... Second team all-Big Eight selection as senior.

PERSONAL: Given name Paul Randolph Coffman... Nickname "Hog"... Grain milling major... Single... Working toward degree at K-State in off-season... Hobbies: racquetball and skiing... Hometown: Chase, KS ... Residence: Manhattan, KS.

GUARD • OKLAHOMA STATE • 4TH YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 260 • BORN: 3/20/55 • (ACQ: D-7A, '77)

PRO: A three-year starter at left guard, rugged Kansan has gained deserved reputation for durability, having appeared in every regular season game (62 straight) since joining Packers in 1977... Started all 16 games in 1980, running string to 48, despite multiple hurts, which would have sidelined a less tenacious athlete... One of latter necessitated off-season surgery for repair of ligament in left knee... Termed "a very versatile performer" by Head Coach Bart Starr, he can play center or tackle as well as guard... Began pro career as backup to Larry McCarren at center in 1977 before transferring to guard in '78... Intelligent, dedicated and highly consistent workman... Came to Packers in '77 draft from New York Giants as part payment for placekicker Joe Danelo, traded in 1976.

COLLEGE: Named to UPI and Kodak Coaches All-Americas as senior . . . Started at center, guard and tackle during OSU career.

HT: 5-11 • WT: 185 • BORN: 12/18/53 • (ACQ: FA, '75)

PRO: A highly consistent and productive performer, blessed with uncommon durability, Johnnie Gray is a storybook athlete . . . An unheralded free agent, he has been a starter since the first game of his rookie year, 1975 . . . In the six-year interim, he has amassed 596 unassisted tackles—an average of nearly 100 per season . . . Was runnerup to team leader Mike Douglass (122) on defensive platoon last season with 95 UT, in addition to 39 assists . . . Also led team in interceptions and fumble recoveries (for second year in row) with 5 INTs and 4 FRC . . . Doubled as punt returner, averaging 10.3 yards for 4 runbacks . . . Registered more than 100 solo tackles in three consecutive seasons—117 in 1977, 111 in '78 and 108 in '79 . . . Sure of hand, he set Packer all-time game and single season records for punt returns in 1976 with 7 and 37 runbacks, respectively . . . Also was team interception leader in '76 with 4, including 15-yard runback vs. 49ers for first Packer TD of season . . . Quickly entrenched himself at free safety as a rookie, leading '75 team in unassisted tackles with 70, and was named to all major NFL all-rookie teams . . . Has played in every game since joining Packers and enters '80 season with longest consecutive game starting streak on squad, 90.

COLLEGE: All-conference selection all four years . . . Only player in Cal-Fullerton history to win first team all-conference (PCAA) honors.

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • COLORADO • 6TH YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 265 • BORN: 5/5/55 • (ACQ: D-1, '76)

PRO: Both he and Head Coach Bart Starr are confident No. 79 will rebound smartly this year from achilles tendon surgery, which reduced his 1980 season to one game... It was trying year for huge ex-Buffalo, who spent pre-season on injured reserve list because of severely sprained ankle, suffered in scrimmage July 26... Then, three days after returning to active roster in Game Five vs. Cincinnati, he tore achilles in his left leg in practice and was sidelined balance of season ... Had been credited with revitalizing Packer ground game in that lone appearance vs. Bengals... Starr says of him: "If Mark is able to rebound from the injury to the degree we think he will, then all of us will feel better about our entire offensive line, particularly the left tackle position... He's a solid performer and only needs to play to establish himself as one of the best in the league"... Became instant regular as rookie in 1976 and made 27 consecutive starts before sitting out '77 finale vs. 49ers with knee hurt... Subsequently missed entire '79 season with knee injury incurred on Packers' first offensive play of pre-season opener vs. Kansas City... Returned to good health for '79 season but was plagued by ankle and knee problems that forced him to miss 4 games and parts of others... Hailed by four-time all-pro guard Gale Gillingham as "the best rookie offensive lineman to come into the league while I was in it"... Packers' No. 1 choice in '76 draft — via compensation from Oakland for signing free agent Ted Hendricks in '75... Named to NFL all-rookie team and chosen Pack's "Offensive Player of Year" in '76... Dedicated, tireless athlete... Bench presses 400 pounds.

COLLEGE: All-Big Eight and AP All-American as senior... Doubled in varsity baseball first three years and hit .350 as junior, attracting pro baseball scouts with prodigious home runs... Has degree in marketing.

CENTER • ILLINOIS • 9TH YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 260 • BORN: 11/9/51 • (ACQ: D-12, '73)

PRO: Dedicated, self-made athlete who has forged niche among pro football's elite by dint of all-out, year-around effort... Head coach Bart Starr says of him: "Larry has developed himself into one of the league's best centers through extremely hard work. He also has been a stabilizing influence on our offensive line and has provided us with outstanding leadership... He is a great example of a success story in which sheer determination and hard work took him to the front of his class"... Indestructible performer, he underwent hernia surgery in second week of August last year, returned to start against Bears in season opener 3½ weeks later... Subsequently shrugged off broken hand (vs. Cincinnati Oct. 5)—with aid of special protective device—to start remaining 11 games and extend his consecutive game streak to 109... Latter is longest on squad, dating back to 12th game of 1975 season... Also has string of 79 consecutive starts, second longest on current team... Has been Packers' starting center, for all practical purposes, since opening day of '74 season... Started all but one game that year, all but two in '75... Has earned reputation for playing the nose tackle in 3-4 defense better than any other center in the league... Alert, intelligent performer who rarely makes an assignment error... Classic competitor, he plays with high level of intensity... Excellent technician... Religious trainer, he stays in optimum condition year-around via regular and arduous weight-lifting program... Began rookie year on taxi squad but fought way onto active roster in Game 10.

Tim Stokes - 76

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • OREGON • 8TH YEAR

HT: 6-5 • WT: 252 • BORN: 3/16/50 • (ACQ: T-Wash., '78)

PRO: His 1980 presence in offensive line continued to underscore wisdom of draft choice trade which brought him to Packers from Washington in 1978... For third year in row, he stepped into starting role at LT last season when Mark Koncar was felled by injury... Started all but one game (Cincinnati Oct. 5) when ankle and achilles problems sidelined No. 79... Stokes' first such assignment had come the day after he was acquired in '78 (Aug. 5) when Koncar was forced to leave the Packers' pre-season opener with a knee problem... Tim started all 16 regular season games, delivering a consistent performance... Employed as "swing tackle" in 1979, he again demonstrated his value with solid play in four starts and reserve roles when injuries forced Koncar out of action. An intelligent, committed performer, Offensive Line Coach Ernie McMillan says of him, "Tim is a good student of the game—he's always trying to improve"... Prior to joining the Packers, he had started all 14 games for the Reds in both 1976 and '77... Came into NFL in 1973 as third round draft choice of Rams... Moved to Redskins in Sept. 4, 1975 trade... Earned starting berth that season but played only 5 games before knee injury put him out for season.

COLLEGE: Second team All-West Coast selection... Played in '72 Hula Bowl and Blue-Gray games.

PERSONAL: Given name Timothy Paul Stokes... Married (Jody)... Self-styled "compulsive jogger"... Part-owner of racquetball club in Eugene, OR... Ardent fisherman and racquetball player... Residence: Eugene, OR.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — Los Angeles 1973 (0-0, spent season on injured reserve); 1974 (6-0); Washington 1975 (5-5); 1976 (14-14); 1977 (14-14); Green Bay 1978 (16-16); 1979 (16-4); 1980 (15-15).

Karl Swanke - 67

GUARD/TACKLE • BOSTON COLLEGE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 251 • BORN: 12/29/57 • (ACQ: D-6, '80)

PRO: Highly talented athlete with capacity to become starter as second year pro... Offensive Line Coach Ernie McMillan says of him, "Karl has fine athletic ability. He's a big man who can move—he has quick feet, good speed and good overall body control... In other words, he has all the qualities needed to become a starting offensive lineman"... A tackle as a rookie, he has been moved to guard this year... Has the ability to play all offensive line positions... Appeared in all 16 games last season, primarily on special teams... Excellent physical specimen with well-proportioned body... Fine intelligence.

COLLEGE: Switched from tackle to center as junior, back to tackle as senior... Physics major.

PERSONAL: Given name Karl V. Swanke... Single... Born in Elmhurst, IL... Attended Newington, CT, High School... Life-long Packer fan, he had wanted to be a Packer since he was five years old, when his paternal grandmother (the late Theo Swanke of Tigerton, Shawano County, WI) brought him to Green Bay to watch Packers practice... Residence: Newington, CT.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1980 (16-0).

Aundra Thompson - 89

WIDE RECEIVER • E. TEXAS STATE • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 186 • BORN: 1/2/53 • (ACQ: D-5, '76)

PRO: Had most productive year of his pro career in 1980 (40 receptions)... Started 15 games (sat out Houston contest Dec. 14 because of a back bruise) and caught at least one pass in every game except season finale vs. Lions, in which he saw limited action... Had best day at Tampa Oct. 12 when he caught career high 7 passes (for 102 yards) vs. Bucs... Also an accomplished kick returner, he averaged 18.9 yards of 15 KO returns, registering Packers' longest KOR of season, a 57-yarder vs. Tampa Bay Nov. 30... Originally, a running back, he has been starter at flanker last three seasons... Started all 16 games in 1978 and had best per-catch average on team, 20.3 yards... Hampered by recurring leg injury in 1979 but managed 25 receptions... Also pressed into service as return specialist in mid-season, he led Packers in KOR with a 23.1 average for 15 runbacks... They included a 100-yard scoring excursion vs. New York Jets Nov. 4... Had best yardage day as pro Oct. 1, 1978, when he gained 111 yards on 3 catches vs. Lions at Milwaukee, including 43 and 19-yard TDs... Was special teams standout in 1977... Drafted as RB, moved to WR while spending rookie, '76 season on injured reserve.

COLLEGE: National (NAIA) rushing leader in '75 with 1,769 yards and 7.1 average.

PERSONAL: Given name Aundra Thompson... Married (Bernadette) and father of two (Aundra, Jr. 6, and Keisaundria 3)... Attended Richardson Berkner High School, Dallas... Nickname "Boomer"... Hometown: Dallas, TX... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

TIGHT END • UTAH STATE • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 228 • BORN: 1/18/57 • (ACQ: D-9, '79)

PRO: Fine athlete, with good size and the speed to get "deep," he provides excellent depth at tight end... His second pro season was cut short in 1980 when he suffered a knee injury in Cleveland game Oct. 19 and was forced to undergo surgery, sidelining him for balance of year... Had seen substantial action in two-TE formations (with Paul Coffman) prior to injury... Special teams standout as rookie in '79, leading kamikazes in unassisted tackles on punt and kickoff coverage... Named special teams captain twice within three-game span for his standout play... Solid blocker... Very strong.

COLLEGE: Played defensive end and linebacker at Weber State before transferring to Utah State in 1977... Second team All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association selection in '78... Business major.

PERSONAL: Given name John Washington Thompson, Jr.... Single... All-city football and wrestling star at Oakland (CA) Skyline High School... Born in Jackson, MS... Hometown: Oakland, CA... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1979 (16-0); 1980 (7-0).

Eric Torkelson - 26

RUNNING BACK • U. of CONNECTICUT • 8TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 210 • BORN: 3/3/52 • (ACQ: D-11, '74)

PRO: Versatile and dependable veteran spent 1980 season on injured reserve after suffering leg injury during training camp... Had most productive season of his pro career previous year, emerging as Packers' No. 2 rusher in 1979 (401 yards in 98 attempts) as part-time starter... Also caught 19 passes for 128 yards... Started 8 games at FB, including last 7, after injuries felled Barty Smith and Eddie Lee Ivery... Had his best rushing day vs. Philadelphia Nov. 25 (63 yards in 14 attempts)... Started 7 of 1977's first 8 games at HB... Punctuated that season with a 73-yard rushing day vs. Tampa Bay, scoring only TD in 13-0 Packer win... A perennial hustler, he led special teams in tackles his first two seasons... Had team's longest run from scrimmage in '75, a 29-yarder vs. Giants, en route to top rushing day of his Packer career, 78 yards.

COLLEGE: Rushed for 1,233 yards as senior... Transferred to RB after winning all-conference honors at flanker as prep.

Wylie Turner - 28

DEFENSIVE BACK • ANGELO STATE • 3RD YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 182 • BORN: 4/19/57 • (ACQ: FA, '79)

PRO: One of the fleetest afoot on Packer roster, he has world class speed (4.4 in 40, 9.3 in 100)... Employed primarily in special defenses, he shared runnerup honors in interceptions last season with 2... also knocked down 3 passes... Collected 11 unassisted tackles and 5 assists... A solid contributor on special teams, he added 8 solo tackles and 2 assists as a kamikaze... Signed as free agent Sept. 20, 1979, following tryout with Denver Broncos... Recovered onside kick vs. Bears that season (Dec. 9), setting up last minute FG try which fell just short in one-point loss.

COLLEGE: Made 7 intercepts in 3 games for Angelo State in 1978 NAIA playoff championships... Led NAIA and NCAA in kickoff return average in 1977 with a 32-yard ratio... Broke 104-yarder for TD vs. San Houston State that year... Also won NAIA 220-meter dash on track in '77 with 20.8 clocking.

PERSONAL: Given name Wylie Turner... Single... Graduate of W.T. White High School (Dallas)... Hometown and residence: Dallas, TX.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1979 (12-0); 1980 (16-0).

Ruben Vaughan - 95

NOSE TACKLE • COLORADO • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-2½ • WT: 263 • BORN: 8/6/56 • (ACQ: FA, '81)

PRO: A former 49er, he was signed as free agent Feb. 5, 1981... Originally as sixth round selection of San Francisco in 1979 NFL draft... Employed primarily in backup role as a rookie, he started one game... Registered 12 solo tackles and 3 assists over the season... Returned to the 49ers in 1980 and played in 2 pre-season games before being released August 20... Subsequently remained out of football for '80 season... PERSONAL: Given name Ruben Charles Vaughan Jr.... Married (Valeria)... Grew up in Watts section of Los Angeles and returns there to work with underprivileged children... "These kids many times don't have a figure to look up to," says Vaughan. "I know how important that can be, and I just like the idea of trying to help"... One-time diving champion at Los Angeles Jordan High School... Residence: Foster City, CA

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1979 (13-1).

David Whitehurst - 17

QUARTERBACK • FURMAN • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 204 • BORN: 4/27/55 • (ACQ: D-8, '77)

PRO: Though he saw limited action in 1980, No. 17 became one of a handful in Packer history to pass for 5,000 yards in a career... He thus joined an exclusive fraternity which includes Bart Starr, Tobin Rote, Arnold Herber, Cecil Isbell and his teammate, Lynn Dickey... Forced to spend the first 4 games of the regular season on injured reserve, Whitehurst surpassed the 5,000-yard mark in relief appearances vs. Chicago (Dec. 7) and Detroit (Dec. 21)... Earlier, in 1979, he had written his name into the Packer record book by completing 179 passes, which currently ranks as fourth highest single season total in Packers' 62-year annals, despite sitting out last 3½ games... Had started 34 consecutive games before giving way to Dickey at halftime of Philadelphia game (Nov. 25, 1979)... Launched that string on national television Nov. 21, 1977, when he made his debut in the glare of "Monday Night Football" while taking over for the injured Dickey... Accomplished runner, he scored 4 rushing TDs in '79, three of them on "bootlegs"... Voted Packers' most popular player of 1978 in fan poll.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter...Passed for 3,122 yards, rushed for 1,253 more...Political science major.

PERSONAL: Given name Charles David Whitehurst...(Married (Beth)...Born in Baumholter, Germany...Played prep football at Decatur, GA, Walker High...Residence: Decatur, GA.

LINEBACKER • ALABAMA • 3RD YEAR

HT: 6-1 • WT: 230 • BORN: 7/16/56 • (ACQ: D-7B, '79)

PRO: Voted both Packer "Rookie of the Year" and "Defensive Player of the Year" following a brilliant rookie semester in 1979, he was forced to sit out entire 1980 season in wake of August surgery for a herniated disc in his back...What his loss meant to the Packer defense is underscored by Head Coach Bart Starr, who says of him, "Rich has the potential to develop into one of the finest inside linebackers in the league. He's a leader—he leads through example. He's an inspirational-type player and has the capacity to motivate those around him"...As a rookie, the muscular Indianan set an all-time Packer season record for unassisted tackles with 151, despite the fact he did not become a starter until Game Three...Before that season was half over, ex-Oakland Coach John Madden called Wingo "the finest rookie middle linebacker I've ever seen"...At season's end, he was named to the Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest NFL all-rookie teams...His 151 tackles included 2 QB sacks...He also intercepted 2 passes, caused 2 interceptions, caused 3 fumbles and recovered one...Virtually untested during pre-season of '79, when minor injuries sidelined him for all but the final game, he stepped in for injured Michael Hunt at MLB in Game Two of regular season vs. Saints and proceeded to make the position his personal property.

COLLEGE: Second leading tackler on Alabama defense as junior...Wildlife management major.

RICH CAMPBELL • 19 • QB • CAL-BERKELEY

HT: 6-4 • WT: 224 • BORN: 12/22/58 • D-1

"It's taken us six years here to select a quarterback, but we believe Rich is an outstanding pick," Coach Bart Starr says of the Oakland, CA, native. "He's a quality person, a solid leader and an outstanding citizen"... Dick Corrick, the Packers' director of player personnel, points out, "Rich has the ideal size that you're looking for in a quarterback, and he does have the pro-style arm. Plus his training and background at the University of California have done a good job of preparing him for the pro game because the coaching staff did run a pro-style offense... As far as the knee injury he suffered last season is concerned, our medical people feel Rich has had excellent rehabilitation on the knee"... Packer Scout Tom Tipps says of Campbell, "Rich is patient and rarely 'forces' the ball. And he is probably better prepared to play right away than 90 percent of the NFL rookie quarterbacks"... As Campbell's statistics testify, he is a great pure passer with exceptional accuracy, touch, timing and field vision... Completed 70.7 percent of his 273 passes in 1980 to set a new NCAA record, a remarkable achievement considering he was forced to throw into 8-deep coverages most of the year for the 3-8 Golden Bears. He also holds the NCAA career (64.5) percentage completion mark, and is the third player in PAC-10 history to surpass 7,000 yards passing, accomplishing the feat in less than three seasons ... Quarterbacked 'Cal' to first post-season bowl game in 21 years as a sophomore ('79 Garden State Bowl)... Established Golden Bear completion record (84.5 percent) against Arizona in 1979, hitting 22 of 26 attempts for 200 yards... Graduated with five Division 1-A, three PAC-10 and virtually all 'Cal' passing records... Completed 43 of 53 passes for 421 yards against Florida, establishing a NCAA completion high for the season... His 19 completions in the second quarter also was a record... Hit on 21 straight passes during one '80 stretch... Suffered torn medial collateral ligament in first period of USC game October 27, but still was named to '81 Hula Bowl... Coached by Chon Gallegos, who also tutored Super Bowl XV Most Valuable Player Jim Plunkett, at Santa Teresa High (Oakland)... Religious studies major... Plans to become a minister... Married (Janice).

GARY LEWIS • 81 • TE • TEX-ARLINGTON

HT: 6-5 • WT: 234 • BORN: 12/30/58 • D-2

Packer passing game coach Lew Carpenter describes Lewis as an athlete "with great height, good speed—he can run a 4.7 or 4.65 '40'—and a great feel for both run and pass routes. He also has good quickness and finds the open spot. In addition, Gary has excellent hands and goes to the ball real well. Plus he has no problem catching the ball in a crowd"... Coach Bart Starr notes, "Gary doesn't run as fast as Jimmie Giles did when Coach Carpenter tested him, and is not as big or imposing as Junior Miller of Nebraska was last year, but in the physical tests that we give our people each year, this guy ranked right there with those two I mentioned, and that's pretty impressive"... Lewis ranks third on Texas-Arlington's all-time receiving list with 66 career receptions... In 1979, he caught 21 passes while UTA was setting a school record for fewest passes thrown in a season... Captained team in 1980... Named to play in '81 East-West Shrine game... Recruited as a wide receiver but moved to tight end before sophomore campaign... Nicknamed "Tick"... Physical education major... Home town: Daingerfield, TX.

RAY STACHOWICZ • 16 • P • MICHIGAN STATE

"Ray has the potential to be one of the premier punters in the National Football League," according to Dick Rehbein, the Packers' special teams coach. "He's a rare type of punter, the kind who does not come along every year. A strong point in his case is that he's experienced at kicking in cold weather. At Michigan State, he has been used to kicking in cold weather and strong winds, the kind of weather he is likely to encounter in the Central Division of the NFC. Another impressive thing about him is that he has improved throughout his college career. His hallmark is consistency and he's also a clutch performer. When he's backed up deep, he unloads his best kicks"... Coach Bart describes Stachowicz as "a polished punter—he can do all the things you ask a punter to do. We believe he has the capacity to step right in"... The Broadview, OH, native's statistics eloquently underscore Starr's appraisal. The Spartan specialist averaged 43.3 yards for 230 collegiate punts, leading the Big Ten in three of his four seasons and earning all-conference honors for all four years, thus becoming the first player ever to capture all-Big Ten honors four consecutive seasons... Finished second nationally in punting average in 1980 (46.2 yards for 71 punts)... Had only one punt blocked during his entire college career... His two-step punting style allows him to get punts off quickly... Named to NEA, Walter Camp and Football News first team All-Americas in 1980... Credits NFL's punt, pass and kick competition for sparking his interest in kicking... Paper packaging major at MSU.

RICH TURNER • 75 • DT • OKLAHOMA

HT: 6-2 • WT: 260 • BORN: 2/14/59 • D-4

All-Big Eight selection who had standout senior season... Rated Oklahoma's finest "technique" player... Described by Richard "Doc" Urich, Packer defensive line coach, as "a fine athlete with excellent strength. Rich played nose tackle as a sophomore and junior, then end as a senior, but he is a true nose tackle from a fine football program"... Dick Corrick, Packer Director of Player Personnel, says, "Rich has the power to throw blockers off, and also has pursuit quickness, a good burst going to the quarterback. And he's a punishing tackler"... Has 4.8 speed in 40... Difficult to block with low center of gravity... Accounted for 101 total tackles, including a team-high 63 unassisted stops, in 1980... Honored as Big Eight's Defensive Player of the Week for showing vs. Iowa State during '80 season. Amassed 20 tackles that day, 15 of them unassisted... Also was involved in 11 tackles vs. Texas, 10 vs. Kansas... Posted 12 total tackles in '79 Orange Bowl, including crucial 12-yard sack of Florida State quarterback... Sidelined much of '78 with a chest injury... Had surgery for removal of a calcium deposit late in season... Recreation major... Home town: Edmond, OK.

BYRON BRAGGS • 73 • DT • ALABAMA

HT: 6-4 • WT: 290 • BORN: 10/10/59 • D-5

"Byron has the size, speed and the strength to play in the NFL," says Buford "Baby" Ray, the Packers' veteran Southeast scout. "He has above average quickness for his size"... Dick Corrick, Packers' director of player personnel, labels Braggs "a big, powerful athlete with excellent natural quickness, good arm strength and good reaction to the down block"... Three-year starter and four-year letterman for "Bear" Bryant at Alabama... All-SEC selection past two seasons... Starred in '78 Sugar Bowl vs. Penn State, making 7 tackles, two for minus-36 yards... Has played nose tackle... Suffered a heat stroke in first pre-season practice as a freshman, returned in latter part of season... Earned high school All-America honors at George Washington Carver High School in native Montgomery and won Hitchcock Award as Montgomery's outstanding student-athlete... Averaged three QB sacks a game in high school... Also lettered in track (2) and wrestling (2)... Named to Football News second team All-America in 1980 and UPI first team all-SEC... Voted to '81 Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine game... Communications major with an eye on his first love—TV broadcasting... Spent '80 off-season at WCOV-TV in Montgomery as a fill-in.

BILL WHITAKER • 27 • DB • MISSOURI

HT: 6-0 • WT: 182 • BORN: 11/18/59 • D-7

Whitaker's penchant for the "big play" intrigued Packer scouts and coaches. "Bill was the big play man in Missouri's defense last season," says Pete Kettela, the Packers' East Coast scout prior to being named a special assistant to the coaching staff in February. Kettella's appraisal is documented by the statistics, which reveal Whitaker led the Big Eight Conference in interceptions as both a junior and senior, collecting 6 thefts each season... "Bill has good size and intelligence and plays his 'zone responsibilities well', Kettela further notes. "He also has a good key of the quarterback, good hands and fine concentration on the interception. Many of the plays he makes come from taking chances"... Became a full-time starter for Tigers in 1978 Liberty Bowl upon replacing injured teammate... Had three interceptions each game against San Diego during junior and senior years... Named to NEA All-America as senior... Has punt return potential... Had 50-yard punt runback for a TD against Illinois as a sophomore... Played prep football at Rockhurst High in Kansas City... Played cornerback in college but projected as safety as a professional... Has 4.67 speed in 40... Journalism major.

LARRY WERTS • 91 • LB • JACKSON STATE

HT: 6-2 • WT: 231 • BORN: 2/28/58 • D-8

Impressive physical specimen... Began career at DE, moving to middle linebacker in sophomore season... His coach, W.C. Gorden of Jackson State, compares him with Robert Brazile (Houston) and Robert Hardy (Seattle). "When he hits you, it hurts," Gorden says... "Larry plays with intensity," according to Buford "Baby" Ray, Packers' Southeast scout. "He has good size, speed and range, too. And he also has above average quickness, good natural strength and runs well"... Was Jackson State's leading tackler in '80, being involved in 102 stops... Named SWAC Defensive Player-of-the-Year... Called defensive signals for the Tigers... Took part in 18 total tackles against both Alabama State and Alcorn State as a senior... Returned interception 10 yards for TD vs. Mississippi Valley as freshman in '77... Named to AP first team Little All-American following '80 season... Majoring in criminal justice... Home town: Newberry, S.C.

TIM HUFFMAN • 92 • T • NOTRE DAME

HT: 6-5 • WT: 277 • BORN: 8/31/59 • D-9

"Both his line coach at Notre Dame (Bill Meyers) and Coach (Dan) Devine were high on Tim, particularly due to the fact he was still on the board in the ninth round," Coach Bart Starr says of the huge Dallas native. "He was hurt much of the 1980 season, but we believe that, physically, he has a real chance to play in the NFL... He has tackle size, he has good quick feet and he's light on his feet"... Pete Kettela, until recently the Packers' East Coast scout, says Huffman "has fine size and upper body strength, with a good, high blocking surface. He provides above average use of his hands on pass protection, and he has good intelligence"... A foot injury sidelined Huffman for the first three and last four Notre Dame games in 1980... Broke fifth metatarsal in left foot on August 18... Returned briefly vs. Miami and started next three games... Re-broke same bone vs. Navy November 1... Recovered in time for '81 Sugar Bowl vs. Georgia and East-West, Japan post-season bowls... Three-year starter at right guard for Irish... Excellent pass blocker... All-America brother Dave (Minnesota) centered '78 Irish squad... High school All-America... Also lettered in track (shot put)... Marketing major.

NICKIE HALL • 11 • QB • TULANE

HT: 6-4 • WT: 205 • BORN: 8/1/59 • D-10

Dick Corrick, the Packers' director of player personnel, describes Hall's arm as "a real whip... He throws well on the run, both right and left. He has an extremely strong arm and can complete the 'up' at 65 yards. He gets good 'top' on the ball, steps right into the throw with good velocity on the ball and good accuracy. He also has a good voice for a quarterback, and some running ability"... Packer Scout John "Red" Cochran also notes, "Hall is never very far off target, if at all. He has size, speed, and running ability to avoid the rush and turn a scramble into a gain. He has enough quickness and speed (4.85 in the 40) to go all the way." Another Packer scout, Buford "Baby" Ray, says Hall "reminds me of Doug Williams of Grambling (now with Tampa Bay), but he's not as physical"... Backup quarterback at Tulane for three years, Hall then ranked 13th in Division 1-A in total offense as a senior... His 159 completions were second most in Tulane history... Also set Green Wave marks for most TD passes in a season (21), most TD passes in a game (5) and most passing yards in a game (384)... Also rushed for 284 yards and scored 7 touchdowns... Chosen for the '81 Japan Bowl.

FORREST VALORA • 66 • LB • OKLAHOMA

HT: 6-0 • WT: 236 • BORN: 3/28/59 • D-11

Played tight end for Sooners but projected as a linebacker by Packers ... Tom Tipps, the Packers' Far West scout, labels Valora "a smart football player with good quickness, balance, agility and body control. He's a producer. He's a fine short player, with fine strength and explosiveness. He also has good character and desire" ... Averaged a whopping 26 yards per reception as a junior at tight end, with nine catches for 234 yards and one touchdown ... Caught five of those nine for 85 yards against Iowa ... Strongest player on Oklahoma squad last season. Can bench press 420 pounds ... Hails from Phoenix, Arizona.

CLIFF LEWIS • 93 • LB • S. MISSISSIPPI

HT: 6-1 • WT: 226 • BORN: 11/9/59 • D-12

Three-year letterman at Southern Mississippi ... Was involved in 280 tackles over varsity career, including 104 solo stops ... Was No. 2 tackler on SM defense in 1980 with 114 total, including 74 unassisted ... Buford "Baby" Ray, the Packers' Southeast scout, calls Lewis "a good football player. He's very active and usually around the football. He plays with a lot of intensity. He is a leader by example—he trains well and is dedicated" ... Dick Corrick, Packer director of player personnel, says of him, "Cliff is an alert athlete who comes off coverage and reacts well to the ball. He also can get through trash and has good long pursuit capability. He also has a good feel for the passing game, and he's a productive performer" ... Was all-state selection as a prep at Fort Walton Beach, Fla., High School ... Majoring in radio-television at Southern Miss., with minor in athletic administration and coaching ... Born in Brewton, AL.

JUST FOR THE RECORD

The Green Bay Packers are one of only three teams in the annals of professional football to have played more than 1,000 games. Now in the 63rd year of their existence, they carry a .596 winning percentage into the 1981 season, having won 590, lost 392 and tied 46 of the 1,028 games played since being founded as a town team by the late E.L. "Curly" Lambeau in 1919.

The overall total includes 769 league, playoff and Super Bowl games and 259 pre-season, mid-season and post-season non-league games. The league-playoff breakdown shows the Packers with 420 victories, 314 defeats and 35 ties, a .569 percentage, and the non-league record 170 wins, 78 losses and 11 ties, a .678 percentage.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Sept. 7 Chester Marcol scoops up his blocked field goal attempt and runs 25 yards for winning TD as Packers shade Bears in overtime, 12-6, in dramatic season opener.

Oct. 5 Lynn Dickey's 15 and 8-yard scoring passes to James Lofton and Steve Atkins, respectively, carry Packers to 14-9 win over Cincinnati with aid of scoreless, second half effort by defense.

Oct. 12 Packers amass 569 yards, most since Nov. 11, 1962, but have to settle for 14-14 overtime tie at Tampa as late 24 and 36-yard FG attempts by Tom Birney are off target.

Oct. 19 Strong second half Packer comeback, which produces 21-13 lead, is nullified by 46-yard Cleveland TD pass in closing seconds as Green and Gold fall, 26-21.

Oct. 26 Packers break scoreless tie with Vikings on 36-yard, third quarter FG by Tom Birney, then add 13 points in final period on Lynn Dickey TD passes to Bill Larson and Paul Coffman for 16-3 victory.

Nov. 2 Packers out-gain defending world champion Steelers in Three Rivers Stadium (343 yards to 281) but two errant center snaps cost them 9 points and they bow, 22-20. Gerry Ellis catches 2 TD passes (7 and 69 yards) in losing cause.

Nov. 9 Overcoming early 13-0 deficit, Packers down 49ers, 23-16, with aid of three Tom Birney field goals and a special, injury-forced 5-1-5 defense.

Nov. 23 Packers roll up 246 yards rushing (145 by Eddie Lee Ivery and 101 by Gerry Ellis), best rushing performance since 1973, to subdue Vikings, 25-13, and sweep season series for first time since 1965.

THE HISTORY

SUPER BOWL STORY

Super Bowl I

January 15, 1967

Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif. Paid Attendance: 61,946

Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's American Football League champions 35-10 behind the passing of Bart Starr, the receiving of Max McGee and a key interception by all-pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Wood's 40-yard return of an interception to the Chief's 5-yard line with the Packers leading by only 14-10. The pass, authored by the Chiefs' Len Dawson, had been intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, filling in for ailing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers first offensive series) after having caught only three passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores counting one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter and the other on a one-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' 10 points came in the second quarter; the only touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and 2 touchdowns and was chosen the game's most valuable player. His scoring strikes came on a 37-yard collaboration with McGee in the first quarter and a 13-yard pitch to the aging end in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece — the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports.

Super Bowl II

January 14, 1968

Orange Bowl, Miami, Florida Paid Attendance: 75,546

Green Bay 33, Oakland 14

Having acquired a third consecutive NFL championship just two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning the Super Bowl title for the second straight year. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was chosen the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packer attack that was in control all the way after building up a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and all-pro cornerback Herb Adderley highlighted the Green Bay scoring with a 60-yard interception return of a Daryle Lamonica pass.

After leading by only 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers padded their margin to 16-7 at halftime by way of three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game marked the last for Vince Lombardi as Packers coach, ending nine years at Green Bay in which he won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedented in pro football history.

1936 — GREEN BAY 21, BOSTON REDSKINS 6. (Polo Grounds, New York) — Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played in the Polo Grounds because the Redskins franchise was being shifted to Washington, D.C., by George Marshall. A turnout of 29,545 saw Don Hutson take a 45-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers were never headed.

1938 — NEW YORK 23, GREEN BAY 17. (Polo Grounds, New York) — The Packers overcame an early 9-0 New York lead, spawned by two blocked punts, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. The Packers began to close in early in the second period, Arnie Herber capitalizing on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 50-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants margin to 9-7.

The Giants shortly converted a mid-field fumble by Packer fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead before Green Bay again trimmed the deficit to two points before the half was over; Clarke Hinkle crashing over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker. The Packers then forged in front in opening minutes of the second half for the first and only time in the game; an Engebretsen field goal presenting them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 35-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A crowd of 48,120, a play off record, sat in on proceedings.

1939 — GREEN BAY 27, NEW YORK 0. (State Fair Park, Milwaukee) — The Packers made playoff history by scoring first shutout ever registered in NFL championship game. Despite bitter 35 m.p.h. wind, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in leading Green Bay to its fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, and pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen and a long TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski.

1944 — GREEN BAY 14, NEW YORK 7. (Polo Grounds, New York) — With peerless pass catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy for the Giant defense, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged the offensive hero of Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, one on a 2-yard run in the second quarter and the other on a 26-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the third. Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a one-yard plunge on the first play of the final period. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, had a brilliant day, setting a playoff record with three interceptions and claiming ground gaining honors with 74 yards in 13 carries. Attendance: 46,016.

1960 — PHILADELPHIA 17, GREEN BAY 13 (Franklin Field) — Packers erected a 6-0 lead in the second period and were out in front by 13-10 in fourth quarter before yielding to late surge by Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay moved ahead in first quarter on a 20-yard Paul Hornung field goal. Hornung added 23-yard FG in second quarter but Eagles tied it 6-6 on a 35-yard scoring pass from Norm Van Brocklin to Tommy McDonald and edged ahead via Bobby Walston's first conversion. Walston followed with a 15-yard FG for a 10-6 halftime lead.

The Packers stopped Philadelphia at their own four late in the third period, then recaptured lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. A 58-yard kickoff return by Dean, however, ignited Eagles and victory eluded Packers, making their first title game appearance in 16 years. Attendance: 67,325.

1961 — GREEN BAY 37, NEW YORK 0, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, scored an individual record 19 points to key Packer decimination of Giants in first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A record Packer home crowd of 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team of 1961, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, was proving a devastating complement to the attack, intercepting four Giant passes and recovering one fumble.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and defensive back Hank Gremminger, set up touchdowns No. 2 and 3 while the fumble recovery by Forrest Gregg led to Hornung's second field goal and a Jess Whittenton interception to Hornung's final FG.

1962 — GREEN BAY 16, NEW YORK 7, (Yankee Stadium, New York) — Out front all the way in a raw, cyclonic setting, Packers weather siege by vengeful Giants in primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke proves principal frustration to New Yorkers, seeking redemption for shutout humiliation in '61 title game. His deflection triggers interception to blunt early Giant drive to Green Bay 10. On way to being named game's most valuable player, he also registers two interceptions, one of which led to the Packers' only touchdown of the afternoon. The other set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided eventual margin.

Giants' only TD comes on block of Max McGee punt in Green Bay end zone midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor sets playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

1965 — GREEN BAY 23, CLEVELAND 12, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Field softened by four-inch snow made Packer backs only run harder as Lambeau Field crowd of 50,777 celebrated third championship in five years. Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung amassed 201 yards rushing in rally that overcame Browns's early 9-7 lead.

Packers charged to 7-0 first quarter advantage on 47-yard Bart Starr pass to Carroll Dale and Don Chandler's conversion, but Cleveland moved in front on a 17-yard TD strike from Frank Ryan to Gary Collins and 24-yard Lou Groza field goal.

Green Bay rebounded, however, with 15 and 23 yard FGs by Chandler, the latter following a Willie Wood interception, to claim 13-7 lead subsequently trimmed to a single point by a second Groza FG shortly before the intermission.

Starr settled the issue in third quarter, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play scoring drive climaxed by Hornung's 13-yard sweep of Browns' right perimeter.

1966 — GREEN BAY 34, DALLAS 27, (Cotton Bowl, Dallas) — Bart Starr has one of his finest hours, passing for four touchdowns as Packers win second straight title and fourth in six years. Tom Brown thwarts last-minute Cowboy bid, and the majority of 74,152 Cotton Bowl fans, with end zone interception of Don Meredith's fourth down pass from Green Bay 2.

Packers mounted quick 14-0 lead on a 17-yard Starr pass to Elijah Pitts and 18-yard scoring run with a fumble recovery by rookie Jim Grabowski, but led only 21-17 at halftime following explosive Cowboy comeback. After a 32-yard Villanueva field goal had cut Packer lead to a tenuous 21-20, Starr hit Dowler and McGee with 16-yard scoring passes to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

1967 — GREEN BAY 21, DALLAS 17, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — With thermometer shuddering at 16 below zero and 50,861 in stands, Bart Starr scores winning touchdown from one-yard-line with 13 seconds remaining, sealing record third straight championship for Packers and their fifth in seven years.

Starr's touchdown, on third down with no timeouts remaining, climaxed a 68-yard drive in 12 plays.

As was case in 1966, Packers grabbed early 14-0 advantage. But this time Cowboys came from behind to take the lead, forcing story book finish by Green Bay to win contest later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

Starr's touchdown passes of 8 and 46 yards to Boyd Dowler built the first quarter bulge, trimmed in second quarter by George Andrie's 7-yard scoring return of a Starr fumble and 21-yard Danny Villanueva field goal. Don Meredith's 50-yard scoring strike to Lance Rentzel in the fourth quarter triggered the dramatic denouement.

THE LAMBEAU FIELD STORY

Lambeau Field, the home of the Green Bay Packers, was constructed in 1957 with an initial capacity of 32,150. The cost of the original project, $960,000 was shared equally by the Green Bay Packers, Inc. and the city of Green Bay. It was financed by means of a bond issue, which received voter approval in a referendum conducted April 3, 1956.

Since that time, there have been four additions to the stadium, all underwritten by the Packer Corporation. The capacity was increased to 38,669 in 1961, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,861 in 1965 and to its present capacity, 56,191 in 1970.

The stadium was dedicated as City Stadium on September 29, 1957. It was later renamed Lambeau Field in 1965, following the death of the late E.L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first coach of the Packers.

Lambeau Field now is wholly owned by the city of Green Bay, retirement of the original $960,000 indebtedness having been celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978.

PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1963 — E. L. (Curly) Lambeau, Founder, player, coach, vice-president (1919-49): Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '27, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and remains one of only three coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL. (others are George Halas, Paul Brown) Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53).

1963 — Johnny (Blood) McNally, HB (1928-36). Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos, Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Steelers. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1920, 30 and 31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Still ranks 13th in Packer lifetime scoring, four decades after departing Green Bay scene, with 224 points. Collegiate star at St. Thomas.

1963 — Don Hutson, E (1935-45). Highest scoring receiver in pro football history with 99 touchdowns, all-time NFL record. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving 8 years and in scoring 5 seasons, both also league marks. Caught passes in 95 consecutive games, third longest streak in NFL history. Currently ranks 11th lifetime among pro receivers with 488 catches and 17th in NFL career scoring with 823 points. Starred at U. of Alabama.

1963 — Robert (Cal) Hubbard, T-E (1929-35). Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants — a massive 6 ft. 3 inch, 265 pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was all-pro choice in each of first three years (1931, 32, 33) such selections were made. Played college football at Centenary, Geneva.

1964 — Clarke Hinkle, FB (1932-41). A four-time all-pro selection (1936, 37, 38, 41)...One of most versatile players in NFL annals, he was tough, bruising runner, fine blocker, good receiver and excellent placekicker as well as a shrewd, hard-hitting linebacker. Fourth-ranking rusher in Packer history with 3,860 yards in 1,171 carries. Played college football at Bucknell.

1964 — Mike Michalske, G (1929-37). Also played for New York Yankees (1927-28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time all-pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State.

1966 — Arnie Herber, HB (1930-41). Also played for New York Giants (1944-45). Pro football's first great long passer. Won three National Football League passing titles and was all-pro selection in 1932. Teamed with Don Hutson to form NFL's first feared passing combination in mid-'30s. Shares third place in lifetime passing efficiency in Packer annals with 50.06 percentage for 9 seasons and ranks fourth in career touchdown passes with 51. Tough, durable athlete and accomplished punter as well as great passer. A Green Bay native, he played college football at Regis (Denver, Colo.)

1966 — Walt Kiesling, T (1935-36). Also played for Duluth Eskimos (1926-27), Pottsville (1928), Chicago Cardinals (1929-33) and Chicago Bears (1934). All-pro selection in 1932. Two-way performer, he starred on both offense and defense. Although a giant of his time, he possessed impressive quickness for one of his dimensions. Later served as Packer assistant coach (1945-48). Also coached for Pittsburgh Steelers, Philadelphia-Pittsburgh combine and Chicago Cardinals. Played college football at St. Thomas.

1967 — Emlen Tunnell, HB (1959-61). Also played for New York Giants (1948-58). Second leading interceptor in pro football history. Intercepted 79 passes over 14-year career and returned them 1,282 yards, another National Football League record. Also holds NFL career record for punt returns with 258 and most yards punts returned, 2,209. Played college football at University of Iowa.

1971 — Vince Lombardi, Coach and General Manager (1959-67). Also assistant coach for New York Giants (1954-58) and head coach of Washington Redskins (1969). Directed Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 1965-66-67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. His 1966 and 1967 teams also made history by winning first two Super Bowls. Packers won nine of 10 playoff games under his leadership and overall, compiled a 98-30-4 record, a glittering .766 winning percentage. Lombardi, a guard, played his college football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

1974 — Tony Canadeo, HB (1941-43, 1946-52). Became only the third 1,000 yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1952. Still ranks as No. 3 ground gainer in Packer annals with 4,197 yards in 1,025 attempts, a 4.1 average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was an accomplished blocker, capable passer and good receiver in addition to being a highly effective kick returner. Also played defensive back during early years of his career. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired sobriquet of "Grey Ghost."

1976 — Jim Taylor, FB (1958-66). Also played for New Orleans Saints (1967). One of only three running backs in pro football history to rush for 1,000 yards in five consecutive seasons (1960-64). Also fourth ranking career rusher in NFL annals with 8,597 yards in 10 seasons. Ranks fifth, all-time, in number of 100-yard rushing games with 26 and fourth in career rushing attempts with 1,941. Also shares NFL record for most rushing touchdowns in a season, 19 in 1962, and owns second highest lifetime total of rushing TDs, 83. Played college football at LSU.

1977 — Forrest Gregg, T (1956, 1958-70). Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1971). A second round draft selection, Gregg won all-pro honors eight times, including selection at both guard and tackle in 1965, and five times was named to the Pro Bowl. Termed by his late coach, Vince Lombardi, "the finest football player I ever coached." Holds Packer durability record, having played in 187 consecutive games for Green Bay. Played college football at SMU.

1977 — Bart Starr, QB (1956-71). A 17th round draftee in 1956, Starr became the most productive quarterback in pro football annals, directing the Packers to six Western Division championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowl triumphs. Embellished these achievements by winning Most Valuable Player honors in both Super Bowls I and II. Starr led the NFL in passing three times (1962, 1964 and 1966) and retired as the leading percentage passer in league history. He also was named to the Pro Bowl four times. Later served as Packer quarterback coach in 1972 and was named head coach and general manager of the Packers Dec. 24, 1974. Played college football at the University of Alabama.

1978 — Ray Nitschke, LB (1958-72). One of the most devastating hitters in the game's history, he was named to NFL's All-50 Year Team at linebacker after winning all-pro honors three times. Had 15-year playing career, second longest in Packer history, highlighted by his selection as Most Valuable Player in 1962 NFL Championship Game against the Giants at New York. Helped Packers win five world titles (1961-62 and 65-66-67) and first two Super Bowls. Talented ballhawk, he forged career total of 25 interceptions and recovered 20 fumbles, only one short of Packers' all-time record. A third round draft choice in 1958, he played his college football at the University of Illinois.

1980 — Herb Adderley, DB (1961-69). Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1970-72). Packers' No. 1 draft choice (Michigan State) in 1961. Five-time all-pro at cornerback. Played in five Pro Bowls, four of six Super Bowls (two with Green Bay, two with Dallas). Had 48 career intercepts, ran 7 back for TDs (second highest total in NFL history).

1981 — Willie Davis, DE (1960-69). Also played for Cleveland (1958-59). A 17th round draft choice, he came to Packers from Browns in 1960 trade. Became one of premier pass rushers in pro football history, winning all-pro honors six times and selection to Pro Bowl five times. Holds all-time Packer record for career fumble recoveries (21) and second longest consecutive game streak (162) in Green Bay annals. Helped Packers win five NFL titles during 1960s. Played college football at Grambling.

1981 — Jim Ringo, C (1953-63). Also played for Philadelphia (1964-67). Seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Went on to win all-pro honors six times, five as a Packer, and play in 10 Pro Bowls, seven as a Packer. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183). Helped Packers win back-to-back NFL titles in 1961-62. Traded to Philadelphia in 1964. Presently offensive coordinator for New England Patriots.

BIRTH OF A TEAM AND A LEGEND

On the evening of August 11, 1919, a score or more of husky young characters, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

There had been some preliminary talk and planning and that night's decision wasn't announced until two days later, but the big step had been taken. So August 11 is as good a birthday as any.

Actually the initial spark had been struck a few weeks before during a casual street corner conversation between Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun. It was apparently one of those "Why not get up a football team?" remarks, but once they got interested they wasted no time.

FIRST THEY TALKED Curly's employer at the Indian Packing Company into putting up some money for equipment.

Because the team's jerseys had been provided by the packing company, which also permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the corporation had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and at the end of the season it had to be forfeited.

THIS WAS the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A.B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

FROM THOSE MODEST and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual world-wide recognition by winning more championships (eleven) over the intervening half-century than any other team in professional football.

The fact that these achievements have come while representing a city of only 90,000 inhabitants, in competition with the country's population giants, has endeared them to the nation's football fans, many of whom are intrigued by the David vs. Goliath concept and the Packers' unique status as a community-owned corporation.

INEVITABLY, PROCEDURES at Packer games have come a long way since the sandlot years of 1919-20 when the Pack was subsisting on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. Then there were no ushers, no majorettes, no band and no public address system—the latter hadn't been invented yet, there weren't even any seats at first, and it didn't cost anything to get in.

When the Packers began their existence in 1919, they played on approximately the same site as the now abandoned City (East) Stadium, but with a mighty difference. Hagemeister Park, as it was called was just a big vacant lot with a football gridiron marked on it.

There were no gates because there wasn't any fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street streetcar and walked over to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about ten yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow the play up and down the field. By moving as the play progressed, you always had a "50-yard line" location and were handy to any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that too.

When the half ended teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. Nothing private about those huddles. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's half time suggestion.

In 1920 a section of stands was built—just a small bleacher with a capacity of a couple hundred—on one side of the field, and a fee charged to sit there. The next year a portable canvas fence was erected around the whole field and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

WHEN HAGEMEISTER Park was dug up in 1923 to make way for East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds out on the end of Main Street. This was called Bellevue Park because it was just east of the old Hagemeister Brewery, which was renamed the Bellevue Products Co. during Prohibition. Things were Big Time out there, with crowds of 4,000 to 5,000 storming the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears.

The Packers used Bellevue in 1923-24, but it was obviously inadequate and too far out, lacking about every facility needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of old City Stadium just back of the new high school.

The new plant was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but was an immediate success, the Bear game that year drawing a record crowd of nearly 6,000. It was a typical small town park of its day, with wooden fences and stands on both sides, between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines the ultimate capacity of 25,000 was reached.

AFTER WORLD WAR II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. September 29, 1957 was a proud day for Green Bay and its Packers. A million dollar modern stadium with a seating capacity of 32,150 was dedicated. In 1961, the Stadium was expanded to 38,669, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,861 in 1965 when the name was changed to Lambeau Field, and to the present 56,191 in 1970.

The Packers' colorful saga, spanning 62 years, can be roughly divided into eight chapters. They take us from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Curly Lambeau to the present day, which finds the Packer's legendary quarterback, Bart Starr, presiding as the eighth head coach in the team's history.

THE IRON MAN ERA—With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 or 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD—Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold, when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME—After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER—The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the rebuilding plans and Lisle W. Blackbourn, coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. During the four-year Blackbourn regime the Packers won 17 while losing 31.

McLEAN MOVES UP—Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, worst in Packer history in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA—In 1959, the Packers announced the signing of New York Giant assistant Vince Lombardi as head coach and general manager.

In his first season, Lombardi lifted the Packers to a 7-5 record and was unanimously voted Coach of the Year. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Divison title and went on to win World Championships in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, and 1967. Never finishing lower than second since 1960, his teams became the standard of football excellence and the Packer franchise one of the most successful. Over a nine year span as head coach, Lombardi's teams racked up 141 victories against 39 losses and 4 ties for a remarkable .783 winning percentage. Even more noteworthy, however, is the record of Lombardi coached teams in post-season play. In 10 Division playoffs and World Championship Games, the Packers emerged victorious nine times.

BENGSTON PERIOD—Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to coach and manage the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-1970, compiling a 20-21-1 record, and in December of 1970 resigned.

THE DEVINE DAYS—Dan Devine, one of the three most successful coaches in the nation's collegiate ranks, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January of 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first season, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of '73 and they slipped to a 5-7-2 mark. They continued their recession in '74, emerging with a 6-8 record, and Devine resigned.

THE PRESENT—Bart Starr, the most successful field general in pro football history as Green Bay's quarterback of the '60s, accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager on Dec. 24, 1974. Starr, who led the Packers to five world championships from 1961 through 1967, asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere.... We will earn everything else."

Although he had to settle for a 4-10 record in the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave Packer fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the 1975 season. He continued the resurgent trend in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning record since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily dampened in '79 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.
