ELEVEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers lead the National Football League in most championships won with eleven. They won three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931) and eight times since the playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967). Green Bay also is the only team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).

In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1967, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1968, 33-14).

The Chicago Bears rank second with eight NFL titles, followed by the Giants, Lions and Browns with 4 each.

DEDICATION

DOMINIC OLEJNICZAK

This 1982 edition of the Green Bay Packers Media Guide is dedicated to Dominic Olejniczak in appreciation for his many contributions to the Packer organization over the past three decades.

Mr. Olejniczak, who continues as chairman of the board, recently ended a 24-year tenure as president, longest in the team's 63-year history. During this span, he has been closely involved in a host of decisions and developments which have had a profound and positive effect upon Green Bay's National Football League franchise. A long-time former mayor of the city (1945-55), he used that experience in municipal government to good advantage, helping guide the Packers to unprecedented corporate prosperity. In the process, he supervised a succession of secure but productive investments which have loomed large in the creation of a solid financial base for football's most storied franchise.

His contributions to the Packers' welfare began much earlier, however. A member of the Packers' official family since 1950, when he was elected to the board of directors, his loyalty to the team goes back to its early days. He has been a devout Packer fan ever since the 1920s, when he was a pupil at St. Mary of the Angels Grade School. "Mr. Ole" later became closely identified with the Packers in an official capacity for the first time during the mid-1930s. Elected to the City Council in 1936, he became involved with the team through the City of Green Bay and the board of education, which had jurisdiction over old City Stadium. He continued to work closely with the Packers while the mayor of Green Bay and, in that position, was a prime mover in the drive to build the new city stadium, now known as Lambeau Field, construction of which was approved in a city-wide referendum in 1956.

One of his most significant contributions to the Packers as president came in 1959 when he played a major role in luring the then unknown Vince Lombardi from the New York Giants to Green Bay, a move which launched the most successful era in National Football League annals. Under Lombardi, the Packers won five championships in a seven-year span.

Elected to the board of directors July 10, 1950, Mr. Olejniczak joined the organization during a troublous period. It was a time when the Packers, facing bankruptcy, were forced to stage a public stock drive in order to survive. His leadership and administrative expertise helped raise $118,000 in stock sales, an amount which enabled the Packers to remain in the NFL following a financially debilitating struggle with the then All-America Football Conference.

Subsequently moving up through the chairs, he was named to the Executive Committee January 21, 1952, elected a vice president March 1, 1954, executive vice president Dec. 23, 1957, president April 28, 1958 and chairman of the board Oct. 11, 1981.

JUDGE ROBERT J. PARINS President

History was made when Judge Robert J. Parins was elected president of the Green Bay Packers, Inc., at the organization's annual board of directors' meeting May 3, 1982.

In that process, the veteran jurist became the first full-time president in the 63-year history of the organization, founded in 1919 as a town team.

Following his election, Judge Parins noted that the increasing complexity of professional football's business and legal aspects have made such a change necessary. "I'm satisfied that a full-time president is essential today," he said. "I think that the operation of this football team and its corporation, other than its football operations, clearly calls for a full-time executive.

"By that, I mean someone who can be there to take care of the day-to-day business of running the corporation ... I will be involved in the total operation."

Judge Parins also observed that he is taking on his new responsibilities at an "exciting" time. "We are going into some great changes in professional football," he said. "I think the changes will substantially affect the Packers, as they will other teams in the league."

The 63-year-old Green Bay native formally assumed those duties June 1, following his resignation as a Brown County circuit court judge (Branch 2 of the 8th Judicial Circuit Court). He previously had been named principal executive officer at a board of directors' meeting Oct. 11, 1981.

Only the eighth man to hold the Packer presidency, he had been a member of the Packers' official family since May 23, 1966, when elected to the board of directors at the organization's annual stockholders' meeting.

Judge Parins later was elected to the Packer Executive Committee at a board of directors' meeting August 1, 1979, a day on which he also was elected vice president of the corporation.

Born in Green Bay Aug. 23, 1918, he graduated from Green Bay

East High School in 1936. He subsequently obtained a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1940 and a law degree, also from the University of Wisconsin, in 1942.

Upon graduation from law school, Judge Parins worked as an adjuster for Employers Mutual Insurance Co. in Minneapolis from 1942 through 1944 before returning to Green Bay, in 1944, to open the practice of law in partnership with the late Meyer Cohen. In 1949, he was elected district attorney of Brown County and served one, two-year term.

Elected a circuit judge in the fall of 1967, he was formally invested Jan. 2, 1968. On the bench, he earned a state-wide reputation for the fair and efficient disposition of the cases brought before him.

Judge Parins and his wife, Beth, have five children and 10 grandchildren.

Although he lost his right arm in a childhood accident, the judge has not permitted that mishap to limit his activities in any way. Owner of a stable just outside Green Bay, he regularly works with his horses, a favorite pastime. He also is a highly respectable golfer (20 handicap) and fond of bridge, a game in which his dexterity at shuffling a deck of cards one-handed is a continuing source of amazement to his friends.

The Green Bay Packers are a team—and an organization—apart. Unique in professional football, in both structure and championship tradition, they represent the only publicly-owned team in the 28-club National Football League. They also have won more titles, 11, than any other club in the NFL's 63-year annals.

Green Bay Packers, Inc., is a non-profit corporation, founded in 1922. There are 4,626 shares of non-profit stock owned by 1,769 shareholders. The corporation is governed by a seven-man Executive Committee, selected from a 45-man board of directors. (For the "Green Bay Packer Story," turn to page 110).

Judge Robert J. Parins, new head of the corporation, was elected president May 3, 1982, succeeding Dominic Olejniczak, who had served in that capacity for 24 years.

BOB HARLAN Assistant to the President

Robert E. "Bob" Harlan, who has begun his second decade in Packer management, is corporate assistant to the president.

In this role, his primary responsibility is the negotiation of all player contracts, which has become a year-around job in the increasingly complex field of professional football. He also handles all coaching contracts, except that of the head coach. In addition, he is responsible for the hiring of all front office and secretarial personnel.

The 45-year-old Harlan is a native of Des Moines, IA, and a graduate of Marquette University, where he earned a B.S. degree in journalism in 1958. Following a short tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he spent a year as a reporter for United Press-International in Milwaukee, before becoming sports information director at Marquette in 1959. After six years in that capacity, Harlan joined the St. Louis baseball Cardinals, serving as director of community affairs and speakers bureau for two years and director of public relations for 3½ years. He left that position to join the Packers as assistant general manager on June 1, 1971.

Bob and his wife, Madeline, have three sons, Kevin, 22, a graduate of the University of Kansas who is a sportscaster for KCMO in Kansas City, MO; Bryan, 20, a University of Iowa student, and Michael, 13, at home.

TOM MILLER Assistant to the President

Thomas M. "Tom" Miller, dean of the Packers' front office, wears a variety of "hats" as assistant to the president for business.

Miller, who joined the Packer organization in 1956, supervises all ticket operations in both Green Bay and Milwaukee, as well as the public relations department. He also arranges team travel and is responsible for scheduling of pre-season games and all purchasing. In addition, he is responsible for repair and maintenance of Lambeau Field in cooperation with the Green Bay Stadium Commission, and for the planning and construction of all additions to Packer facilities.

Possessor of an extensive football background, the Pennsylvania native played five years of professional football—the last of them for the Packers in 1946. An end, he launched his National Football League career with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1942, following graduation from Hampden-Sydney. After three seasons with Philadelphia, he moved to the Washington Redskins in 1945 before joining the Packers.

Miller subsequently coached for nearly a decade, coaching football and basketball at Wilkes College (1946-50) and football, basketball and baseball at Drexel College (1950-55). He rejoined the Packers as publicity director in 1956, serving in that capacity until 1965, when the late Vince Lombardi named him assistant to the general manager. He was appointed business general manager by Bart Starr in 1975 and assistant to the president for business in 1981.

Tom and his wife, the former Beverly Rusch of Green Bay, have three children: Tom, Jr., Nancy and Sue.

BART STARR Head Coach

If a coach can be said to have momentum, Bryan Bartlett Starr clearly has it coming into the 1982 season, his eighth as head coach of the Green Bay Packers. With the Packers owning a disappointing 2-6 record at the halfway point in 1981, he rallied his athletes for the most dramatic comeback in Green Bay's history, directing them to a 6-2, second half mark and within one game of the National Football League playoffs.

That strong finish not only ignited the faithful's hopes for the immediate future but gave Coach Starr something of substance to build on in '82, when the Packers intend to be prominent contenders for the National Football Conference's Central Division Championship—a title they last won in 1972 with Starr as the team's quarterback coach.

The overall, 8-8 record represented the Packers' best won-lost performance since 1978, when they posted an 8-7-1 mark and tied Minnesota for first place, but were denied a playoff berth because the Vikings had a better record in head-to-head competition.

The turnabout, Starr is convinced, was traceable in large part to the watchword he stressed throughout the 1981 season—consistency. And he is quick to assure it will continue to be his theme in the season ahead.

"Consistency was one of the real keys in our second half surge last year," he says. "The reverse was very prominent in the first half ineffectiveness ... So we're going right back to that word ... consistency."

Starr, out-ranked in Packer head coaching tenure only by team founder E. L. "Curly" Lambeau and Vince Lombardi, is confident that second half comeback was the forerunner of an upward trend for his Green and Gold. "We have some mentally aggressive people," he said, "who are anxious to pursue what we started chasing last year."

The purposeful ex-field general would be the first to concede that reaching this point in the rebuilding process, upon which he embarked in 1975, has not been an easy one. Committed from the outset to reconstructing Packer fortunes via the draft, he adopted this course despite the knowledge Green Bay's first and second round draft choices in his first two years would not be available to him, having been dealt away in a pre-Starr trade. After he had bitten that unpalatable bullet in 1975 and '76—as his team struggled to 4-10 and 5-9 records—injuries conspired to thwart him a first time in 1977, the Packers slipping back to a 4-10 mark. That began to change in '78 with the addition of talented newcomers like James Lofton and John Anderson, triggering visions of a productive future for the Green and Gold.

The Packers responded with an 8-7-1 season, their first winning record in six years and only their second since 1967. It gave promise of better things to come in 1979—until the football fates again took an untimely hand. Major injuries sidelined John Anderson, Barty Smith, Carl Barzilauskas, Michael Hunt and Steve Atkins, while others hampered the effectiveness of Mark Koncar and Terrell Middleton, a combination of circumstances which contributed heavily to a 5-11 record.

Then, in their grim wake, came the injury epidemic of 1980, which saw 27 players on the injured reserve list at one time or another and combined with artistic consistency to produce a disappointing 5-10-1 mark.

The eighth head coach in the annals of professional sports' most storied franchise, Starr officially was tendered his imposing assignment by the Packer Executive Committee on Dec. 24, 1974. It was his by informal acclamation, a development unique in Packer annals. The sweeping mandate was entirely understandable, even though he had had only one year of coaching experience, success having been a habit with him on and off the field.

"Mr. Quarterback," most productive signal caller in pro football history, had endeared himself to the faithful with his achievements as field leader of the Packers in the 7-year period between 1961 and 1967, during which he guided Green Bay to five world championships, a feat without equal in pro football history.

With Starr at the offensive controls, the Packers made 6 playoff appearances in 8 years, beginning with a 1960 showdown against the Eagles. That was the only playoff the Packers were to lose with No. 15 at quarterback. They rebounded from that disappointment to decimate the Giants in the '61 title game, 37-0, and repeated in '62, again felling the Giants (16-7).

After two winning but non-championship years in 1963 and '64, Starr led the Packers to three consecutive titles in 1965-66-67, the first time such a parlay had been achieved since the advent of the NFL playoff system in 1933.

He climaxed that historic "triple play" by escorting Green Bay to successive victories in the first two Super Bowls, in both of which he was voted the game's Most Valuable Player.

During those highly prosperous '60s, Starr three times led the NFL in passing (1962, 1964 and 1966) and was named to the Pro Bowl on four occasions (1961, '62, '63 and '66). He also established four NFL passing records during his 16-year playing career, longest in the team's history. He set, and still holds, league marks for most consecutive passes attempted without an interception, 294, and lowest percentage of passes intercepted for a season, 1.20, set in 1966; and shares the record for fewest passes intercepted in a season, 3, with Gary Wood of the New York Giants.

Born in Montgomery, AL, Jan. 9, 1934, the son of a career Air Force master sergeant, Starr won All-American honors in high school, but things did not come easily for him thereafter. He had to fight his way through adversity to gain pre-eminence among pro football quarterbacks.

Bart was a lowly, 17th round draft choice of the Packers in 1956 because pro scouts were wary of his physical future, a reluctance prompted by a back injury Starr had received as a junior at Alabama. The uphill struggle continued after he joined Green Bay. For the next four seasons, Starr shared quarterbacking duties with Tobin Rote, Lamar McHan, Babe Parilli, and Joe Francis before gaining regular status in the ninth game of the 1959 season. He led the Packers to consecutive wins in those 4 games, under first year Coach Vince Lombardi, and Green Bay's first winning season in 12 last years.

Although a consistent, high level performer during the regular season, it was Starr's brilliance in post-season play which set him apart from all others. In six NFL title games, he completed 84 of 145 passes for 1,090 yards and 11 touchdowns — with, incredibly, only one interception — for a glittering 57.9 percent. In two Super Bowls, he was even more deadly, completing 29 of 47 attempts (61.7 percent) for 452 yards, 3 TDs and again, with only 1 interception.

Following his retirement as a player in July of 1972, after two shoulder operations, Bart became Packer quarterback coach. He resigned in January of 1973 to pursue private business interests. In the interim, he had become a highly successful automobile dealer and a much sought after motivational speaker and TV "salesman" as well as a popular analyst on CBS-TV's NFL football telecasts and an actor in motivational films prior to taking on his current challenge.

Despite his heavy schedule, Starr gives generously of his time and talents to charitable and civic endeavors such as "Rawhide," a leadership training camp for boys who need a second chance. He and his wife, the former Cherry Morton of Birmingham, AL, have two sons, Bart Jr., 23, a law student, and Bret, 18, a freshman at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

BOB SCHNELKER Offensive Coordinator

A widely respected veteran of nearly two decades in the National Football League's coaching ranks, Bob Schnelker returns to the Packers as offensive coordinator this season after an 11-year absence.

Schnelker, 53, previously had served as Green Bay's passing game and receivers coach under the late Vince Lombardi from 1966 through 1971, helping the Packers win two consecutive world championships.

The rangy Bowling Green alumnus, recognized as one of pro football's premier offensive minds, rejoins the Green and Gold fresh from directing the National Football Conference's No. 1 offense in 1981 at Detroit, where he had been offensive coordinator the past four years on the staff of Monte Clark. Although the passing game is supposed to be his forte, Schnelker exhibited admirable ability to adjust to the personnel at hand last season when his Lion offense led the entire NFL in rushing, averaging an impressive 4.7 yards per attempt.

Schnelker, born Oct. 17, 1928, began his 19-year coaching career with the Los Angeles Rams in 1963. Joining the Packers in 1966, he served under Lombardi as Green Bay won NFL titles and the first two Super Bowls in '66 and '67, later under Phil Bengston (1967-70) and Dan Devine (1971). He moved to the San Diego Chargers in 1972, to Miami in 1974, where he coached under Don Shula, and to Kansas City in 1975 before joining the Detroit staff.

A 17th round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1953, he subsequently played for New York Giants from 1954 through 1960, helping them win the NFL championship in 1956, before closing out his nine-year playing career in 1961 with Pittsburgh and Minnesota, where he caught the first of Fran Tarkenton's NFL record 342 touchdown passes. A standout tight end, he was a two-time Pro Bowl selection.

Schnelker and his wife, B.J., have three children, Mindy, Jeff and Tina.

JOHN MEYER Defensive Coordinator

The Packer defense made significant strides under John Meyer in 1981, his second season as the team's defensive coordinator. It vaulted from 25th place in National Football League statistical rankings in 1980 to ninth place last year and, in even more dramatic contrast, to first place in takeaways from 28th and last place a year earlier. In the process, the defense collected 30 interceptions, the most the Packers have had in a season since 1962 when Green Bay had what many observers consider to be the greatest team in the club's history.

As might be expected, the Packer defensive platoon is a reflection of the 40-year-old Meyer, a resourceful and innovative coach who has quickly become known for his ability to make adjustments "on the run" in a fast-changing game becoming more and more sophisticated with each passing year.

Meyer, in his 13th year as a coach in the National Football League, forged a major change in the Packers' defensive approach in 1980 when he shelved the time-honored 4-3 alignment in favor of the "3-4," a format the Green and Gold will be employing for a third year in 1982.

Honored as professional football's "Assistant Coach of the Year" in 1978, Meyer is in his eighth year on the Packer staff. Youngest assistant coach in the NFL when he made his debut with New England in 1968 at the age of 27, he spent his first four seasons with the Patriots. He subsequently joined the staff of the late Don McCafferty when the latter became head coach of the Detroit Lions in 1973, then came to the Packers in January of 1975, becoming one of the first assistants to be hired by Bart Starr when he became Green Bay's head coach.

Born Feb. 20, 1942, Meyer is a graduate of Chicago's Brother Rice High School, where he won all-city honors at defensive end before enrolling at Notre Dame. Later an eighth round selection of St. Louis in the 1965 draft, he played for the Cardinals that year and the Oilers in '66 before moving into the scouting department for Houston in 1967.

John and his wife, the former Loretta Kruchten, have three daughters, Tracey Ann, 15; Courtney Lynn, 11; and Blake Marie, 8.

LEW CARPENTER Receivers Coach

A man who has gained league-wide recognition for his development of premium receivers, Lew Carpenter has added some imposing accomplishments to his coaching dossier in the past two seasons. In 1981, three Packers — split end James Lofton (71), running back Gerry Ellis (65) and tight end Paul Coffman (55) caught more than 50 passes in a season for the first time in the team's 63-year history. A year earlier, five Packers (Lofton, Eddie Lee Ivery, Coffman, Ellis and Aundra Thompson) caught 40 or more passes — also for the first time in Packer annals. In the process, the Packers set new club records for gross (3,651) and net (3,291) yards passing in a season.

These impressive figures have come as no surprise to those familiar with Carpenter's coaching expertise. He has presided over the development of such talented receivers as Ahmad Rashad, Charley Taylor, Mel Gray, John Gilliam and Paul Flatley during a 17-year NFL coaching career.

Earlier, as a player, Carpenter was one of the most versatile performers in National Football League history, playing five different positions. Uniquely equipped for his current role, Lew played both wide receiver positions, tight end, halfback and fullback during an 11-year playing career. An eighth round draft choice of Detroit in 1953, he was traded to Cleveland and later came to the Packers from the Browns in a 1959 trade. He became Green Bay's utility man on offense, helping them win successive world titles in 1961-62.

Carpenter launched his coaching career with the Vikings in 1965, later moving to the Falcons, Redskins, Cardinals and Oilers. He was named to the Packer coaching staff in January of 1975 by Coach Bart Starr with the assignment of redesigning the passing game. So well did he succeed that quarterback John Hadl set a team single season record for completions (191) that year.

Born in West Memphis, AR, Jan. 12, 1932, Lew and his wife, Ann, have four daughters, Cheryl, 25; Cathy, 23; Lisa, 20; and Rebecca, 17.

ROSS FICHTNER Defensive Backfield Coach

Ross Fichtner, an exponent of the patient, low key approach, saw his Packer secondary blossom in 1981, his second season at the controls. It waylaid 20 opponent passes, almost doubling its 1980 total, and played a major role in helping the Packers lead the National Football League in takeaways.

Fichtner, a veteran of two title playoffs and nine NFL seasons as a player, joined the Packer staff in 1980. It marked a return to pro football for the moustachioed Pennsylvanian, who had been actively employed by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in 1978 and '79. A former Cleveland Brown, he previously had spent four seasons as secondary coach under Jack Pardee in the World Football League and with the Chicago Bears, beginning in 1974.

A two-way performer at Purdue, where he played quarterback and defensive back, Fichtner was a member of the College All-Stars who played the Baltimore Colts in the 1960 midsummer classic. He was selected by the Browns in the third round of the '60 draft and went on to forge an impressive career with the Browns. He played 102 games for Cleveland and intercepted 27 passes during the 8-year span, returning three for touchdowns. Voted the Browns' most valuable defensive player in 1966, the strong safety previously had been a starter as the Browns won the NFL Championship in '64 and as Cleveland played for the '65 title in Green Bay, a game won by the Packers (23-12). Fichtner closed out his playing days with New Orleans in 1968. He returned to football in 1974 as an aide to Pardee with the WFL's Florida Blazers.

Ross was born Oct. 26, 1938 at McKeesport, PA, and is the father of four children (Randy, 18, Tamara, 17, Tonya, 15 and Rusty, 13). He and his wife Karen, make their home in Allouez, a Green Bay suburb.

JOHN MARSHALL Linebacker Coach

John Marshall, a veteran of Rose Bowl and national championship success at USC, is in his second season as coach of Green Bay's linebackers. In 1981, they were a model of productivity under his tutelage, all four starters (Mike Douglass, John Anderson, George Cummy and Rich Wingo) amassing 100 or more unassisted tackles and collectively accounting for the imposing total of 10 interceptions.

A veteran of 11 years' coaching experience in major college ranks despite his youth, the 35-year-old Marshall joined the Packer staff as special teams coach in 1980, when he also assisted Defensive Coordinator John Meyer with the linebackers.

An aide to Coach John Robinson at USC from 1977 to 1979, Marshall was named to the Green Bay staff by Head Coach Bart Starr, Feb. 4, 1980. While he was at USC, the Trojans won a national championship (1978) and two Rose Bowls (1979 and '80).

A native of Arroyo Grande, CA, Marshall launched his coaching career early — as a student assistant at the University of Oregon after suffering a neck injury while a freshman at Washington State — a misadventure that cut short his playing career. He transferred to Hancock Junior College where he worked under subsequent Oakland Raider coach John Madden, and from there to Oregon, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in health education in 1969. At Oregon, Marshall coached the freshman team for three years, then tutored the offensive line for five more seasons. At USC, he coached the outside linebackers his first two years, later taking over the inside linebackers in 1979.

John, born Oct. 2, 1945, is married (Becky) and the father of two daughters, Sarah and Meg.

ERNIE McMILLAN Offensive Line Coach

One of the most effective and respected offensive linemen in recent National Football League history as a player, Ernie McMILLAN returns for a third year as overseer of the Packers' offensive line.

Last season, his charges rebounded from early injury problems to finish strong, enabling quarterback Lynn Dickey to set a personal career season high for touchdown passes (17).

The towering University of Illinois product was recognized as one of the NFL's premier technicians during a 15-year playing career and thus brings impressive expertise to his assignment. He also is an excellent communicator, having developed an outstanding relationship with his athletes via an articulate, low key and highly personal approach to coaching.

McMILLAN, a 13th round draft choice of St. Louis in 1961, spent 14 seasons with the Cardinals and won all-pro honors in 1970 and '71. He also was selected to play in four Pro Bowls. Ernie, who played in more games than any other player in Cardinal history (178), closed out his playing career with the Packers in 1975.

Before being named to the Packer coaching staff by Head Coach Bart Starr in 1978, McMILLAN had served as publisher of "Proud," a St. Louis black consciousness periodical. A native of Chicago Heights, IL, Ernest Charles McMILLAN was born Feb. 21, 1938. He is married to the former Gail Thomas of St. Louis, a teacher in the Green Bay school system, and they have a one-year-old daughter, Amber Gail.

PETE KETTELA Offensive Backfield Coach

A special assistant last season, Pete Kettela takes on a new role in 1982 as offensive backfield coach, succeeding Zeke Bratkowski.

Kettela, a member of the Packers' scouting department from 1978 through 1980, is a veteran of 13 coaching seasons in the college ranks. A 1961 graduate of the University of California-Riverside, he began his coaching career in high school, then returned to his alma mater as head football coach in 1965. After five years at UC-R, he served as offensive coordinator at the University of California-Santa Barbara for one year, at the University of Pacific for one year, at Stanford for five years and at San Jose State for one year before joining the Packer scouting staff. At Stanford, he moulded the Cardinal receiving corps (including James Lofton) into one of the most explosive in the nation.

The 1976 unit caught 223 passes for 2,699 yards and 16 touchdowns, enabling quarterback Guy Benjamin to rank second nationally among Division I passers.

Last season, in his first year on the Packer staff, Kettela was involved in advance game planning for the offensive staff, based on computer and film work. He also did some on-the-field coaching, primarily assisting with the special teams.

As a collegian, Kettela was UC-Riverside's "Athlete of the Year" in 1960, starring in football, basketball and baseball and earning Little All-America honors in football. Pete, born May 28, 1938, is married (Jill) and they make their home on Green Bay's Southwest side—virtually in the shadow of Lambeau Field.

DICK REHBEIN Special Teams Coach

Dick Rehbein, a tireless and resourceful student of the game, is coaching Green Bay's special teams for a second season. Last season, his kickoff coverage unit led the entire National Football League, limiting opponents to an average of 16.9 yards per return.

Now in his fourth year on the Packer staff, Rehbein served as a special assistant in 1979 and '80 before being named special teams coach by Head Coach Bart Starr in 1981. In addition to the latter duties, the 26-year-old Ripon College product will continue to supervise the team's strength and conditioning program.

Rehbein, a center during his playing days at Ripon College, was appointed to the Packer coaching staff January 1, 1979. The Green Bay native had a Packer tryout in 1977, following graduation from college, and later returned in 1978 to assist with centering duties during training camp. He subsequently worked as an in-office assistant in the Packers' computer program on a part-time basis during the 1978 season before being named to a full-time position on the coaching staff.

A graduate of DePere, WI, High School, Rehbein won four varsity football letters at Ripon and was a two-time Associated Press and Kodak Coaches' Little All-America selection. Born Nov. 22, 1955, he is married to the former Pam Kowalczyk and they make their home in DePere.

BILL MEYERS Offensive Line Assistant

Bill Meyers, a 35-year-old Wisconsin native, is in his first year as a member of the Packer staff following tours of collegiate coaching duty at the University of California-Berkeley, Santa Clara and Notre Dame.

Meyers, who will assist Offensive Line Coach Ernie McMillan, comes to Green Bay from South Bend, where he coached Notre Dame's defensive tackles in 1981 after tutoring the offensive line during his first two years there under Dan Devine.

Born in Chippewa Falls, WI, Oct. 8, 1946, he began his coaching career in 1972, following graduation from Stanford, when he joined the Cal-Berkeley staff as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line. Two years later, he moved to Santa Clara as linebacker and defensive coach for three years. Meyers rejoined the California staff as offensive line coach in 1977, spending two more seasons with the Bears before moving to Notre Dame in 1979.

The new Packer aide played his high school football in Long Beach, CA, and earned All-America junior college honors at Long Beach City College. Later, at Stanford, he was a two-year starter and all-Pacific Coast lineman in 1970-71, helping the Cardinals post Rose Bowl victories following both of those seasons.

Bill, a Marine Corps veteran (1964-67), and his wife, Cathie, have a son, Charlie, 9, and a daughter, Michelle, 5.

RICHARD "DOC" URICH Defensive Line Coach

A veteran of more than three decades in coaching, Richard "Doc" Urich is credited with upgrading the performance of the defensive line in 1981. His most noteworthy contribution came at nose tackle, where Terry Jones developed into a highly productive performer under his patient and positive direction after spending the bulk of the 1980 season in a reserve role.

Urich, a native of Wapakoneta, OH, joined the Packers Jan. 29, 1981, after serving as defensive coordinator of the Washington Redskins in 1978-79-80.

Doc, now 53, has an impressive resume which includes 11 years as an assistant to Ara Parseghian in the college ranks. He began his NFL coaching career in 1971 with the Buffalo Bills and moved to Denver in 1972, when John Ralston became the Broncos' head coach. When Robert "Red" Miller succeeded Ralston in 1977, Urich was appointed director of pro scouting for the Broncos. He left Denver in 1978 to join Jack Pardee's staff at Washington.

As a collegian, Urich played end at Miami (OH) University—where his teammates included Parseghian, Bo Schembechler and Paul Dietzel—from 1948-50 under Sid Gillman and Woody Hayes. He launched his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater in 1951, later moving to Northwestern in 1955 under Parseghian. Urich followed Parseghian to Notre Dame in 1964, then became head coach at the University of Buffalo in 1966. He subsequently was named head coach at Northern Illinois University in 1969, then left in 1971 to enter pro coaching.

Doc was born Sept. 10, 1928. He and his wife, Pat, have two children: Cynthia, 29, and Danny, 26.

DAVE HANNER Quality Control

A legendary figure in Packer history, Joel David Hanner returns to Green Bay's coaching staff this year to supervise the team's quality control program.

In his new responsibilities, the big Arkansan will be in charge of advance game planning for the offensive staff, based on computer and film work.

Hanner, who had been the Packers' East Coast talent scout since Feb. 27, 1981, occupies a unique niche in Packer history. He is marking his 29th year as a Green Bay player or coach, a record surpassed only by Packer founder E. L. "Curly" Lambeau in the team's 63-year history. Also in his 30th year in the Packer organization, he had a distinguished 13-year playing career (1952-64) before joining the coaching staff in 1965 under the late Vince Lombardi. He subsequently assisted on the staffs of Phil Bengtson, Dan Devine and Bart Starr, who named him assistant head coach in 1975, a position in which he served through the 1979 season. He scouted for the Chicago Bears' in 1980 before joining the Packer scouting staff in 1981.

Selected from the University of Arkansas campus on the fifth round of the '52 draft, Hanner quickly established himself at defensive tackle, claiming all-pro honors five times, plus two Pro Bowl nominations. En route, he helped the Packers win the NFL Western Division title in 1960 and successive world championships in 1961-62.

Born in Parkin, AR, May 20, 1930, Hanner retired as a player during the 1965 pre-season to join Lombardi's coaching staff. The defensive line he tutored subsequently contributed substantially to the acquisition of three straight NFL titles (1965-66-67) and two Super Bowl crowns. He later served as defensive coordinator on Devine's staff, playing a prominent coaching role as the Packer defense finished No. 1 in the National Football Conference and the Packers won the 1972 Central Division championship.

Dave and his wife, Jane, have six children—Joel David II (Joe), 27, head football coach at DePere, WI, High School; Eddie, 26, an executive with RTE, Pewaukee, WI; Sammie Jane, 25, with a Minneapolis advertising agency; Mike, 22, a University of Wisconsin-Green Bay student; Hollye Ann, 19, employed at Green Bay's Carlton West; and Jimmy, 14, about to enter the ninth grade.

DICK CORRICK Director of Player Personnel

Dick Corrick, one of professional football's most knowledgeable judges of talent, supervises and coordinates all Packer scouting and personnel operations as Director of Player Personnel.

In this key role, the former Oregon State athlete directs the club's extensive college scouting program, combining input from club talent scouts, the United Scouting combine and Packer coaches in making critical personnel decisions during the annual National Football League draft, wellspring of every pro football team's talent supply. Named to his present position in 1978, Corrick responded by supervising drafts which have produced such quality performers as James Lofton, John Anderson, Greg Koch, Mike Douglass, and Eddie Lee Ivery. George Cumby and Mark Lee.

Immediately prior to taking on his current assignment, Dick had been associated with the coaching staff in the area of team development in 1977. He joined the Packer organization in 1971 as a college scout and served as director of pro player personnel from May 6, 1975 until early 1977.

Born April 22, 1934, Corrick is a 48-year-old graduate of LaJolla, CA, High School. A 161-pound center and linebacker at Oregon State under Tommy Prothro, he later coached in the high school and college ranks for 16 years before joining the Packer scouting staff.

Dick is the father of two children, Traci, 24, and Rowdy, 22, the latter a center-placekicker at Cal State-Hayward. He also is a chef of recognized talents who is known to assemble a gourmet meal for himself and his wife, Bonnie, in time of leisure.

BURT GUSTAFSON

Director, Pro Player Personnel

As Director of Pro Player Personnel, Burt Gustafson is responsible for maintaining close surveillance of the National Football League's 27 other clubs with an eye to trade possibilities or opportunities to upgrade the Packers' overall roster by way of the waiver route.

Gustafson, respected for his dedication and football knowledge, has served in his current capacity since April 2, 1979. He joined the organization in 1971 as linebacker coach, serving in that role through the 1974 season. Following a two-year stint as a college talent scout, he was named special teams coach in February of 1977, serving in that role through the pre-season of 1978 before transferring to the pro scouting department.

Born in Marquette, MI, Nov. 30, 1925, Burt went on to become a 12-letter winner at Northern Michigan University in his home town. He later coached at Battle Creek, MI, High School at Northern Michigan, and at the University of Wyoming (1962-70) before joining the Packers.

Burt and his wife, Alice, have five children—two sons and three daughters.

Mike Butler - 77

DEFENSIVE END • KANSAS • 6TH YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 265 • BORN: 4/4/54 • (ACQ: D-1, '77)

PRO: Had his best NFL season in 1981, leading Packer defense in quarterback sacks with 10½. "I'm disappointed Mike didn't make all-pro," Defensive Coordinator John Meyer noted in assessing Butler's '81 performance. . . Huge Washington (D.C.) native emerged with 59 solo tackles and 15 assists. . . Also caused one fumble, knocked down three passes and paced defense in "harasses" of opposing quarterbacks with 24. . . Started all 16 games in 1981 for second year in row after being hampered by injuries in 1979, when he missed opener vs. Bears with dislocated elbow. . . Later was troubled by ankle problem. . . Possessor of exceptional strength, fine speed (4.75 in the 40) and excellent quickness, he has the requisites to be one of the dominant performers in the game. . . Packers' No. 1 selection in 1977 draft, Butler had been a starter since opening day of his rookie season. . . Invaded Packer record book late in '79 season, picking up fumble vs. Vikings in Milwaukee Nov. 11 and trundling 70 yards for TD—longest such run in Packer history. . . Led defense—or shared lead—in "hurries" in 1978-79-80. . . Had best statistical year-to-date in 1978, amassing 78 unassisted tackles, including 11½ sacks, and team-leading total of 31 "hurries". . . Also caused 5 interceptions, more than any other Packer defender. . . Has emerged as a team leader in last two seasons.

COLLEGE: Only ninth player chosen in 1977 draft. . . Named to NEA and Sporting News All-Americans in 1976.

PERSONAL: Given name Michael Anthony Butler. . . Born in Washington, D.C. . . Won Washington Touchdown Club's award as player-of-the-year as senior at Calvin Coolidge High School. . . Married (Darlene). . . Residence: Madison, WI.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts — 1977 (14-14); 1978 (16-16); 1979 (14-14); 1980 (16-16); 1981 (16-16).

QUARTERBACK • CAL-BERKELEY • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 224 • BORN: 12/22/58 • (ACQ: D-1, '81)

PRO: Top-rated field general in 1981 college crop, he was drafted No. 1 as Packers' quarterback of the future. . . Made two regular season appearances as a rookie, one of them an extended relief effort against Tampa Bay Nov. 22 in behalf of the injured David Whitehurst, sidelined in the first quarter. . . Went rest of way, completing 15 of 30 passes for 168 yards and impressed coaches with poise under fire despite four interceptions. . . Sparkled in pro debut against then world champion Oakland in pre-season game at Milwaukee, directing Packers to their final 13 points in 34-14 victory over the Raiders. . . Fine, pure passer, with exceptional accuracy, touch, timing and field vision. . . Also has ideal size and strong arm. . . Patient quarterback who rarely "forces" the ball. . . Solid leader and quality individual.

COLLEGE: Completed 70.7 percent of his 273 passes in 1980 to set a new NCAA record. . . Also established NCAA career percentage completion mark (64.5) and was third player in PAC-10 history to surpass 7,000 yards passing, accomplishing feat in less than three seasons. . . Established Golden Bear single game percentage completion record (84.5) percent against Arizona in 1979, hitting 22 of 26 attempts. . . Religious studies major.

PERSONAL: Given name Richard Delano Campbell. . . Played prep football at Santa Teresa High School in Oakland. . . Married (Janice). . . Continuing studies at Cal-Berkeley in off-season. . . Plans to become a minister. . . Hobbies: Fishing, hunting, reading. . . Hometown: Oakland, CA.

Paul Coffman - 82

TIGHT END • KANSAS STATE • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 225 • BORN: 3/29/56 • (ACQ: FA, '78)

PRO: Recognized as one of the National Football League's premier tight ends, he established himself among the Packers' all-time pass receiving elite in 1981... His 55 receptions swelled his career total to 153 (after only three seasons as starter), lifting him past such storied names as Paul Hornung, Donny Anderson and John Brockington into 10th place on Green Bay's lifetime list... It was the second time the former Kansas State athlete has caught more than 50 passes in a season... He had 56 catches in 1979, when he was the team's leading receiver and caught more passes than any other TE in the National Football Conference... That total also shattered the Packers' single season reception record for a TE (37 by Ron Kramer in 1962)... Had career single game high against Tampa Bay Oct. 12, 1980, when he caught 9 passes for 109 yards and one touchdown... Registered Packers' longest kickoff return of '81 season, a 52-yarder against the 49ers at Milwaukee Oct. 18... Won backup job at TE as rookie free agent in 1978, beating out two other FA's and a drafted rookie... Later entrenched himself with outstanding job on special teams... A literal "walk-on," he persuaded Packer Ass't. Coach John Meyer to give him a tryout on Meyer's visit to K-State campus in March of '78 to work out Coffman's teammate, linebacker Gary Spani... An all-out athlete, he has won the unreserved respect of Head Coach Bart Starr, who says of him, "Paul is one of the hardest working people I've ever been associated with, and gets it done through an extremely high effort level. You can't have enough players on your team like Paul Coffman."

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at KSU... Ninth ranked receiver in school's history at graduation... Second team All-Big Eight selection.

PERSONAL: Given name Paul Randolph Coffman... Nickname "Hog"... Acquired degree in grain milling at K-State in off-season... Attended Chase, KS, High School... Hobbies: racquetball and skiing... Single... Hometown: Chase, KS... Residence: Manhattan, KS.

HT: 6-½" • WT: 230 • BORN: 7/5/56 • (ACQ: D-1B, '80)

PRO: Rebounding from injury problems in rookie (1980) season, he established himself as a starter at inside linebacker last year ... Emerged as No. 3 tackler on defensive unit with 102 unassisted stops ... An exceptionally mobile athlete, he also had 37 assists, caused five fumbles, recovered two, made three interceptions and knocked down six passes ... A first round draft choice in '80, he twice was sidelined by knee injuries and spent nearly half of the season on injured reserve ... Hurt left knee just prior to pre-season opener vs. San Diego, and underwent arthroscopic surgery, returning to action for regular season opener vs. Bears ... Subsequently became starter vs. Vikings Oct. 26, then injured right knee vs. Pittsburgh Nov. 2 and sat out balance of season following a second surgery ... Boasts excellent speed for his size, plus fine awareness on pass defense and great reaction to ball in flight ... Effective on blitz and good open field tackler ... Intense effort player.

COLLEGE: Named to AP, UPI, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, Sporting News and Football News first team All-Americans as senior ... Played in '80 Hula and Senior Bowls.

PERSONAL: Given name George Edward Cumby ... Attended Thomas K. Gorman High School, Gorman, TX ... Married (Audrey) ... Hometown: LaRue, TX.

Lynn Dickey - 12

QUARTERBACK • KANSAS STATE • 12TH YEAR

HT: 6-4 • WT: 210 • BORN: 10/19/49 • (ACQ: T-Hou., '76)

PRO: Continued to rewrite Packer passing records in 1981, despite missing three games because of injury, and emerged as fourth-ranked passer in National Football Conference ... Set all-time Green Bay single game percentage record (90.47) against New Orleans Dec. 13, completing 19 of 21 passes ... Also tied Packer record for touchdown passes in a game same day, throwing 5 TD strikes ... Already held six other Packer marks, all set in 1980, for most passes attempted in a season (478), most passes completed (278), and most yards gained (3,529) and single game records for most attempts (51), completions (35) and yards gained (418), all of the latter three coming against the Buccaneers at Tampa Oct. 12, 1980 ... In the process, Dickey presided over an offense which set all-time Packer team season records for yards gained passing (3,651) and total yards gained (5,097) ... Suffered back injury when speared by Detroit's William Gay in Game Eight of '81 at Pontiac Silverdome and missed following game against Seattle ... Returned to action in Game Ten vs. Giants and reinjured back ... Forced to sit out two more weeks, he returned vs. Minnesota Nov. 29 and played prominent role as Packers forged to consecutive victories over the Vikings, Lions and Saints passing for 775 yards and 10 touchdowns over this span ... Closed out season with 17 TD passes, a personal season high ... Played full season for first time in his career in 1980, rebounding from broken left leg which sidelined him for one season (1978) and substantial portions of two others (1977 and 1979) ... Injured vs. Rams at Milwaukee Nov. 13, 1977 and did not make another regular season appearance until Game 13 of '79 (Nov. 25 vs. Philadelphia), when he started second half and went rest of the way ... Has started 32 of 35 games since ... During long layoff, Dickey had undergone three operations, plus many months of therapy and rehabilitation ... Acquired in a 1976 trade with Houston, he had taken over as No. 1 QB at start of '76 season ... Suffered shoulder separation in Game 10 at Chicago, which required surgery and sidelined him for rest of year ... Previously had sat out '72 season at Houston with a major hip injury ... Third round choice of Oilers in '71 draft.

COLLEGE: Greatest passing quarterback in Big Eight history while at Kansas State, completing 501 of 994 passes for 6,208 yards and 29 TDs over college career ... Physical education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Clifford Lynn Dickey ... Married (Sherry) and father of three daughters, Natalie, 8, Meredith, 6, and Elizabeth, 2 ... Hobby: golf ... Finest all-around athlete in history of Osawatomie, KS, High School, which later named its high school stadium (Lynn Dickey Field) in his honor ... Born in Paola, KS ... Residence: Lenexa, KS.

Named to Sports Illustrated all-pro team and to College and Pro Football News Weekly's all-NFC team... Also voted Packers' Most Valuable Defensive Player of the Year for second year in row by Wisconsin's sports media... Amassed 146 unassisted tackles, second highest single season total in Packer history, and added 34 assists... Aggregate included 9½ sacks, a total second only to Mike Butler's team-leading 10½... Douglass also led defense in causing fumbles with 7, recovering three, made three interceptions and knocked down three passes... Had best statistical day of season against 49ers Oct. 18, registering 16 unassisted tackles (two of them behind the line of scrimmage), and one quarterback sack and recovering a fumble... Also led defense in solo tackles in 1980 with 122, including 4½ sacks... Described as a "big play guy" by Packer Defensive Coordinator John Meyer... Moved into starting role in 1979 after John Anderson went down in training camp in July with a broken arm... Emerged as second leading tackler on defensive unit with 118 unassisted stops... Also had 3 interceptions, led team in causing fumbles (5½) and had Packers' longest interception runback of season (46 yards vs. Patriots Oct. 1)... Exceptional athlete, he crashed roster as rookie in '78 and wound up starting three games when Anderson broke his left arm for first time... Underwent knee surgery following '78 season... Has good (4.8) speed and bench presses over 400 pounds.

COLLEGE: Was 6-foot-8 high jumper at SDS... Also shot put 59 feet, triple jumped 50 feet... Had 21 QB sacks as junior.

FULLBACK • MISSOURI • 3RD YEAR

HT: 5-11½ • WT: 216 • BORN: 11/12/57 • (ACQ: FA, '80)

PRO: Followed impressive rookie season with even bigger year in 1981, emerging as Packers' total offense leader and setting a team record for receptions by a running back (65)... Closed out as Green Bay's leading rusher with 860 yards in 196 attempts (a 4.4 average) and gained 499 yards with his 65 catches, giving him total offense aggregate of 1,359 yards... Had best rushing day against Seattle Nov. 1, gaining 127 yards in 23 attempts, and best receiving day against Tampa Bay Nov. 22 (11 catches for 76 yards)... Scored 7 touchdowns

(4 rushing and 3 receiving), giving him total of 15 TDs in 29 games as a pro... Missed first two games of '80 season as a rookie after being released by Rams and before joining Packers and Game Four against Minnesota last season because of ankle injury suffered in first half against LA at Anaheim previous week... Already No. 20 rusher and No. 17 receiver in Packer history, he easily ranks as one of the great "bargains" in Packer annals... Signed as a free agent Sept. 10, 1980 and made first appearance vs. his former team, the Rams, just 10 days later... Quickly became a fixture, emerging as Packers' leading scorer (48 points), No. 2 rusher (545 yards in 126 carries) and No. 3 receiver (48 catches for 496 yards)... Had best rushing days in '80 vs. Minnesota Nov. 23, gaining 101 yards in 15 attempts and best yardage day receiving vs. Pittsburgh, Nov. 2 (7 receptions for 106 yards and 2 TDs)... The latter included a 69-yard collaboration with Lynn Dickey, longest Packer completion of season... A seventh round draft choice of Rams, he was released in LA's final cutdown for '80 season.

COLLEGE: Missouri's leading scorer (9 TDs) and No. 2 rusher (584 yards and 4.8 average) as senior... Also shared team lead in pass receptions (23)... Transferred to Missouri after one year at Ft. Scott, KS, Junior College.

RUNNING BACK • GEORGIA TECH • 4TH YEAR

HT: 6-1/2" • WT: 210 • BORN: 7/30/57 • (ACQ: D-1, '79)

PRO: Intent upon regaining 1980 form, when he was Packers' rushing and total offense leader, after suffering season-ending knee injury in '81 opener against Bears at Chicago, September 6 ... Off to an impressive start, he had rushed for 72 yards in 14 attempts prior to being injured in third quarter ... It was the second such mishap in three years for the gifted Georgia Tech alumnus, who also was sidelined for the '79 season after suffering an injury to the same left knee in the second quarter of the Packers' opener against the same Bears in Soldier Field

... Both Ivery and Trainer Domenic Gentile are confident he can and will rebound from those two surgeries to again become one of the National Football League's premier running backs ... Head Coach Bart Starr describes Ivery as "a three-dimensional player ... He not only has great run instincts, but he is an excellent receiver and he's a good blocker" ... Rushed for 831 yards and caught 50 passes, then a club record for running backs, for 481 more in 1980 when he emerged as the Packers' total offense leader with 1,302 yards ... Had best rushing day vs. Vikings at Minnesota Nov. 23, 1980, amassing 145 yards in 24 attempts, including 38-yard TD run which sealed 25-13 victory ... It was Packers' longest run from scrimmage of season ... Posted his best receiving day (and Packers' best individual day of season) vs. Bucs at Tampa Oct. 12, 1980, snaring 11 passes for 128 yards... Was team's leading rusher and receiver for '79 pre-season as rookie before suffering first knee injury in season opener vs. Bears... Explosive, slashing runner with good speed outside and ability to accelerate when he gets turned upfield.

COLLEGE: Set Georgia Tech career marks of 609 carries and 3,517 rushing yards... Also established all-time, NCAA single game rushing record as senior, rolling up 356 yards vs. Air Force... Finished 8th in balloting for Heisman Trophy... Team captain and represented football squad on prestigious Tech Athletic Board... Industrial management major.

PERSONAL: Given name Eddie Lee Ivery... Prep All-American at Thomson, GA, High School... Married (Anna) and father of an infant daughter, Talivia, 1... Hometown: Thomson, GA... Residence: Thomson, GA.

John Jefferson - 83

WIDE RECEIVER • ARIZONA STATE • 5TH YEAR

HT: 6-1 • WT: 198 • BORN: 2/3/56 • (ACQ: T-San Diego, '81)

PRO: Acquired from San Diego in one of the most celebrated trades in recent pro football history. "J.J." joined the Packers in the fourth week of the 1981 regular season and had a dramatic impact on both the team and its fans... His infectious and exuberant "cheerleading" was a major catalyst in the Packers' second half comeback, which saw them win six of their last eight games and come within one game of the playoffs... So were his clutch catches against the Giants (a 41-yarder which set up Jan Stenerud's game-winning field goal) and the Vikings

(a leaping grab of a 30-yard Lynn Dickey pitch in the end zone, triggering a 14-14 halftime tie)... Likewise his ability to instantly rebound from a "big hit," as he demonstrated after a second quarter catch against the Lions, igniting a successful comeback... It thus came as no great surprise when appreciative fans voted the tautly muscled Texan the Packers' "Most Popular Player" in a late-season poll conducted by a Green Bay radio station... The trade, consummated September 17, teamed Jefferson with fellow all-pro James Lofton, giving Green Bay what many knowledgeable observers consider to be the premier pair of wide receivers in professional football... The exchange sent the Packers' veteran flanker Aundra Thompson, the No. 2 draft choices in 1982 and 84 and their No. 1 selection in 1983 to the Chargers, along with the right to exchange places in the first round of this year's draft... Jefferson had a highly productive afternoon in his Packer debut, snaring seven passes for 121 yards against the Vikings in Game Four at Milwaukee September 27... He had another 100-yard day, the 19th of his career, against the Lions December 6 (8 catches for 113 yards)... He closed out the season with 39 receptions for 632 yards and 4 TDs... A three-time Pro Bowl selection while with San Diego, Jefferson has been one of the game's most productive receivers since being drafted in the first round by the Chargers in 1978... His first regular season catch was a leaping, end zone reception from Dan Fouts which produced a 29-yard touchdown at Seattle Sept. 2, 1978... He went on to lead the NFL in touchdown catches that rookie season, and again in 1980, both times with 13 TDs... In '80, he also became the first player in NFL history to gain at least 1,000 yards receiving in each of his first three seasons, making a career high 82 catches in the process... During this 45-game span, he caught 36 TD passes and was shut out only once — when he went without a catch against Buffalo Sept. 16, 1979, only because the Chargers did not aim a pass at him when he was assigned double coverage, which helped contribute to a 245-yard team rushing performance.

COLLEGE: All-America at Arizona State and starter in both the Hula and Japan Bowls... Caught 175 passes for 16.1-yard average and 19 TDs in four seasons, including 53 receptions for 17.2 average and 8 TDs in senior, 1977 season... Fourteenth player chosen in '78 NFL draft and third wide receiver, behind

James Lofton and Wes Chandler (now with San Diego).

PERSONAL: Given name John Larry Jefferson... Born in Dallas Feb. 3, 1956... Played prep football at Franklin Delano Roosevelt High School in suburban Oak Cliff... Caught 161 passes for 3,997 yards (24.8 average) and 41 TDs in three seasons... Ran 100 yards in :09.6 and 220 yards in :21.2 for track team... Residence: San Diego.

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • COLORADO • 7TH YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 265 • BORN: 5/5/55 • [ACQ: D-1, '76]

PRO: Became instant regular as rookie in 1976 and made 27 consecutive starts before sitting out '77 finale vs. 49ers with knee hurt ... Handicapped by injuries much of time since then, sitting out entire 1978 season because of knee injury suffered in Packers' first offensive play of the pre-season ... Returned to good health for '79 season but subsequently was plagued by ankle and knee problems that forced him to miss four games and parts of others ... Then spent '80 pre-season on injured reserve list because of severely sprained ankle, suffered in training camp scrimmage ... Three days after returning to roster in Game Five of regular season vs. Cincinnati, he tore achilles tendon in left leg in practice and was sidelined for balance of season ... Also missed one game and saw only limited service in two others in '81 because of ankle injury ... Had been credited with revitalizing Packer ground game in his '80 appearance vs. Bengals before being sidelined ... Hailed by four-time all-pro guard Gale Gillingham as "the best rookie offensive lineman to come into the league while I was in it" ... Packers' No. 1 choice in '76 draft—via compensation from Oakland for signing free agent Ted Hendricks in '75 ... Named to NFL all-rookie team and chosen Packer "Offensive Player of Year" in '76 ... Bench presses 400 pounds.

James Lofton - 80

WIDE RECEIVER • STANFORD • 5TH YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 201 • BORN: 7/5/56 • [ACQ: 0-1, '78]

PRO: Superbly talented athlete, with superior size, world class speed and the grace of a ballet dancer, he is widely regarded as one of the two premier receivers in pro football (the other being ex-Charger John Jefferson, now a teammate) ... A consensus all-pro selection in 1981 for the second year in succession, he broke long-standing Packer record by amassing 1,294 yards receiving ... The old mark, 1,231 by Bill Howton, had stood since 1952 ... Lofton's total also was the second highest in the NFL last season, ranking behind only the 1,358 yards gained by Atlanta's Alfred Jenkins ... The former track All-American also continued to rewrite the Packer record book in other ways ... Along the way, he became the first Green Bay receiver to catch 50 or more passes three years in succession (54 in 1979, 71 in both 1980 and '81), the first to catch 70 or more passes in a season twice (71 in both 1980 and '81), and the first to gain 1,000 yards receiving two years in succession (1,226 in 1980 and 1,294 in '81) ... Lofton likewise moved up into sixth place in Packer career receiving with 242 catches ... He now needs only 34 receptions in 1982 to pass fifth-ranking Carroll Dale (275) ... Among Packer receivers, only the legendary Don Hutson (with 74 in 1942) has caught more passes in a season than Lofton (71 catches each of last two seasons) ... No. 80 also is the first receiver in Packer history to catch 100 passes in his first two seasons (46 in 1978, 54 in 1979) ... His 175 yards vs. Giants in 1980 represent a personal, single game high ... Consistent as well as productive, Lofton has caught at least one pass in every game of his 64-game NFL career except one—an Oct. 14 contest against Detroit at Milwaukee in 1979 ... Also a highly durable athlete, he has not missed a start in his four pro seasons ... Punctuated rookie, 1978 season with three TD receptions vs. Saints (Sept. 10), becoming first Packer to catch 3 for TDs in one game since Max McGee turned trick vs. Rams in 1963 ... Consensus NFL All-Rookie selection and chosen for NFC's Pro Bowl that year ... Also saluted as NFC's "Offensive Rookie of the Year" by the NFL Players' Association ... Pro Bowl first team choice each of last two years ... A team leader, he also serves as its player representative ... Bench presses over 350 pounds.

COLLEGE: Caught 68 passes for 1,216 yards and 16 TDs at Stanford ... Three-time track All-American, he had world's longest long jump in '78, a 27-foot leap, in winning AAU title ... Has B.S. degree in industrial engineering.

PERSONAL: Given name James David Lofton ... Married (Beverly) ... Wife is professional model and singer ... Member of investment firm in Palo Alto, CA, in off-season ... Attended Los Angeles, CA, Washington High School ... Born at Fort Ord, CA ... Active in charitable and community activities, including Boy Scouts ... Chairman of "Great Green Bay Jog-A-Thon," special chairman of Arthritis Foundation drive ... Lists photography, active whale watching, snorkeling and Superstars as hobbies ... RUNNING BACK/RETURN SPECIALIST • WISCONSIN • 4TH YEAR
HT: 5-8 • WT: 175 • BORN: 8/23/57 • (ACQ: FA, '82)

PRO: One of NFL's leading kick return specialists while with Oakland, he was signed as free agent March 29, 1982 ... Had been released by Raiders Oct. 9, 1981 ... Drafted in sixth round by Oakland in 1979, the former Wisconsin Badger standout was National Football League's third-ranking kickoff returner that year with 24.9-yard average for 35 runbacks ... Later was the American Football Conference's sixth-ranking punt returner in 1980, when he averaged 8.8 yards per return and tied a Raider season record with 48 runbacks ... Also saw action as both a wide receiver and running back ... His 104-yard kickoff return against San Diego in 1979 was the longest in Oakland's history.

COLLEGE: Led nation in punt returns in 1978 with a 16.9-yard average and scoring runs of 70, 60 and 50 yards ... Two years earlier, paced country in kickoff returns as sophomore with a 29.6-yard average and touchdown runs of 100 and 97 yards ... Four-year varsity player ... Larry McCarren - 54

CENTER • ILLINOIS • 10TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 260 • BORN: 11/9/51 • (ACQ: D-12, '73)

PRO: Long recognized by his fellow players as one of the premier centers in the National Football League, he finally was accorded formal recognition in 1981 when named to Pro Football Weekly's All-National Football Conference first team, annually one of the most prestigious "all" teams selected. Labeled "a player's player and a solid leader" by Head Coach Bart Starr, the Packers' offensive captain is a fully committed, self-made athlete who has developed into one of the game's most effective performers by unrelenting, year-around effort. "Larry is a great example of a success story in which sheer determination and hard work took him to the front of his class." Starr says of the tireless, 30-year-old veteran, who has won the respect of opponents by his consistently high level of play. A virtually indestructible performer, he underwent hernia surgery in the second week of August, 1980, yet returned to start against the Bears in the season opener just 3 1/2 weeks later. Subsequently shrugged off broken hand (vs. Cincinnati Oct. 5)—with aid of special protective device—to start remaining 11 games. Again started all 16 games in 1981, running his team-leading consecutive game streak to 125. Also has string of 95 straight starts, likewise longest on the team. Has been Packers' starting center, for all practical purposes, since opening day of '74 season. Started all but one game that year, all but two in '75. Has earned reputation for playing the nose tackle in 3-4 defense better than any other center in the league. Intense, intelligent performer who rarely makes an assignment error. Classic competitor and excellent technician. Indefatigable trainer, he stays in optimum condition year around via regular and arduous weight-lifting program. Began rookie year on taxi squad but battled way onto active roster in tenth game of season.

COLLEGE: One of few in University of Illinois history to captain football team two years. All-Big 10 selection as senior. Played in East-West Shrine game and Hula Bowl. Physical education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Laurence Anthony McCarren. Married (Becky) and father of daughter (Meghann, 3). Nickname "Rock". Hometown: Park Forest, IL. Residence: Green Bay, WI.

Has been five-year starter at right cornerback, running his consecutive-start total to 78 games in 1981, fourth longest on the roster ... Registered 41 unassisted tackles and 21 assists, embellishing his performance with two interceptions ... Also knocked down 10 passes ... Doubled as kickoff returner, averaging 20.1 yards for 11 runbacks ... Had busiest season in 1979, when he collected 82 solo tackles ... Moved into starting assignment at right corner in 1977 as successor to traded Perry Smith and proceeded to share team interception honors that year with Steve Luke at four ... Had made one start as rookie in '76, getting early test by debuting at RC in season bow vs. San Francisco when Smith was injured ... Was special teams standout that season, finishing fourth in NFC kickoff returns and was voted kamikazes' "Co-Player of the Year" with Steve Wagner ... Can play safety as well as cornerback.

COLLEGE: Scored two TDs on returns as senior ... Transferred to Colorado from West Los Angeles, J.C., where he led nation with 10 pass interceptions.

PLACEKICKER • MONTANA STATE • 16TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 187 • BORN: 11/26/43 • (ACQ: FA, '80)

PRO: Already entrenched among pro football's all-time elite, this former Norwegian ski jumper had the finest year of his 15-year NFL career in 1981—at the age of 38 ... A spectacular marksman all season, he broke pro football's all-time field goal percentage record by making 22 of 24 attempts—an imposing 91.67 mark ... It eclipsed a record (23 of 26 by former Cleveland Brown Lou Groza) which had stood since 1953 ... Along the way, Stenerud set a Packer distance record by kicking a 53-yard field goal against the Buccaneers at Tampa Nov. 22 and tied another with a 4-for-4 FG performance against the Giants at Milwaukee Nov. 8 ... Also made 35 of 36 conversion attempts (lone "miss" was blocked because of protection breakdown) ... At season's end, the unflappable veteran had climbed into a tie with Jim Turner for second place on the NFL's career field goals list at 304 ... He now trails only George Blanda (335) ... Stenerud, with 101 points, also became only the fourth player in NFL history to score 100 or more points in as many as six seasons ... Leads all active NFL kickers and is sixth ranking scorer in league annals ... Swelled his career total to 1,344 points, leaving him only six out of fifth place (Lou Groza 1,349), 22 out of fourth (Fred Cox 1,365), and 37 out of third (Jim Bakken 1,380) ... Only two other kickers, Blanda (638) and Turner (488) have made more field goal attempts than Stenerud (465) ... One of the most accurate and consistent kickers in pro football history, he has a career percentage of 65.37, based on 304 FGs in 465 attempts ... The breakdown includes a 94.73 percentage (54 of 57) from 1-19 yards, 79.0 percent from 20-29 (83 of 105), 74.16 from 30-39 (89 of 120), 49.6 from 40 to 49 (64 of 129) and 50.0 from 50 or more yards out (64 of 128) ... Joined Packers as free agent Nov. 26, 1980, following 13 seasons with Kansas City Chiefs ... Holds Super Bowl record for longest FG (48 yards) in Chiefs' 23-7 triumph over Minnesota in SB IV ... Also owns Pro Bowl record (48-yarder in '71 contest) ... Kicked five field goals in a game three times, all against Buffalo Bills (twice in '69 and once in 1975) ... Has had four FGs in a game 11 times ... Led NFL in FGs three times (21 in 1967, 30 in 1970 and 22 in 1975) ... Highest FG total came in '69 when he hit 27 of 35 (a .771 percentage) ... Named to Pro Bowl three times ... Selected by Kansas City in third round of 1966 American Football League red shirt draft.

COLLEGE: Attended Montana State on a skiing scholarship; was discovered as a kicker by football coach Jim Sweeney ... Had been ranked among Norway's leading ski jumpers ... Business administration major.

PERSONAL: Given name Jan Stenerud (pronounced Yon STEN-uh-rood) ... Married (Lindy) and father of four (Shane 13, Brett 12, Klancy 10, Betsy 9) ... Born in Fetsund, Norway ... QUARTERBACK • FURMAN • 6TH YEAR

HT: 6-2 • WT: 204 • BORN: 4/27/55 • (ACQ: D-8, '77)

PRO: Triggerman in Packers' second half comeback last season ... Brought them from behind three times in Game Nine vs. Seattle to forge 34-24 victory and launch three-game victory string ... Came off bench in fourth quarter following week to engineer drive which produced decisive Jan Stenerud field goal against Giants at Milwaukee, including a 41-yard strike to John Jefferson ... Returned to starting role the next week and passed for all three touchdowns as Packers shaded Bears, 21-17 ... Made second consecutive start against Tampa, following Bear contest, but tore groin muscle in first quarter and sat out balance of season ... One of only six passers in Packer history to pass for more than 5,000 yards in a career (others are Bart Starr, Tobin Rote, Arnold Herber, Cecil Isbell and teammate Lynn Dickey) ... Had started 34 consecutive games before giving way to Dickey at halftime of Philadelphia game in 1979 (Nov. 25) ... Launched that string on national television Nov. 21, 1977, when he made his debut in glare of "Monday Night Football" while taking over for the injured Dickey ... Accomplished runner, he scored four rushing TDs in '79, three of them on "bootlegs" ... Voted Packers' most popular player of 1978 in fan poll.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter ... Passed for 3,122 yards, rushed for 1,253 more ... Political science major.

Rich Wingo - 50

LINEBACKER • ALABAMA • 3RD YEAR

HT: 6-1 • WT: 230 • BORN: 7/16/56 • (ACQ: D-7B, '79)

PRO: Rebounded strongly in 1981 after being forced to sit out entire 1980 season following back operation for herniated disc, performed in August of '80 ... Started and played in all 16 games at left inside linebacker last season and amassed 100 solo tackles ... Embellished that performance, which included a pair of QB sacks, with 39 assists ... Also made one interception, a clutch theft which sealed victory over Seattle in Green Bay Nov. 1, caused one fumble and knocked down one pass ... Voted both Packer "Rookie of the Year" and "Defensive Player of the Year" following outstanding rookie season in 1979 ... The multi-muscled Indianan set an all-time

Packer season record for unassisted tackles with 151—a mark he still holds—despite the fact he did not become a starter until third game of year . . . Before that season was half over, ex-Oakland Coach John Madden paid Wingo high tribute, calling him “the finest rookie middle linebacker (the Packers then were employing the 4-3 defense) I’ve ever seen” . . . At season’s end, he was named to the Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest NFL all-rookie teams . . . In addition to those 151 tackles, he intercepted two passes, caused two interceptions, caused three fumbles and recovered one . . . Virtually untested during pre-season of ’79, when minor injuries sidelined him for all but the final game, he stepped in for injured Michael Hunt at MLB in Game Two of the regular season vs. Saints and proceeded to entrench himself at the position . . . Became a Packer via Willie Buchanon trade to San Diego, which brought Green Bay the Chargers’ 7th round choice in ’79 (Wingo) and their No. 1 pick in ’80.

COLLEGE: Second leading tackler on Alabama defense as junior . . . Wildlife management major.

PERSONAL: Given name Richard Allen Wingo . . . Married (Cheri) . . . Captain of his football teams from elementary grades through high school . . . All-state selection at Elkhart, IN, Central High School . . . Active in charitable causes in Green Bay and Fox River Valley area . . . Sought after as speaker . . . Hometown: Elkhart, IN . . . PACKERS 1982 NFL DRAFT

The following players were selected by the Packers in the 1982 National Football League draft. The players appear in the order of their selection.

RON HALLSTROM • 23 • G • UNIV. of IOWA
HT: 6-6 • WT: 295 • BORN: 6/11/59 • D-1

Characterized as an instant starter by Dick Corrick, Packers' director of player personnel, who says of Hallstrom, "We think he can come right in and play ... He's a productive player, he's competitive and he has the size to dominate. In our preparations for the draft, he was one of the few guys who we consistently saw get the job done. He was the most productive offensive line player we scouted. He's a guy who plays with great intensity and enthusiasm. A weakness—if he has one—is he's a little short on the speed and on exposure to the position, because of the fact that he played defense prior to the last half of his junior year. Ron is a good trap blocker and we think that he uses his hands just exceptionally well on pass protection. The main things about him are that he's got a mean streak and he's tough" ... Hallstrom climaxed a standout senior season by winning AP and UPI All-Big Ten honors in his first year as an offensive lineman ... Played defensive tackle freshman season at Iowa Central Junior College, earning second team All-American honors ... Also played DT in 1979 following transfer to Iowa ... Redshirted in 1980, when he was moved to offensive tackle ... Made transition from defense to offense with ease ... Rose to No. 1 guard entering '81 season ... Appeared in all 11 games for Rose Bowl Hawkeyes ... Invited to play in '82 East-West Shrine Game as well as Japan Bowl but couldn't participate because of hand injury suffered in closing minutes of Rose Bowl Game ... Also invited to play in Blue-Gray Game but unable to because of Rose Bowl commitment ... Lettered twice in football at Moline, IL, High School ... Given name: Ronald David Hallstrom ... Born in Holden, MA ... Family moved to Moline in 1967 ... General studies major ... Brother, Jim, is a former University of Iowa varsity basketball player.

DEL RODGERS • 22 • RB • UTAH
HT: 5-10 • WT: 197 • BORN: 6/22/60 • D-3

A fast, strong and elusive runner whose great open field moves make him almost impossible to catch ... Had finest season of his career in 1981, rushing for 1,127 yards to lead Western Athletic Conference ... His 13 rushing touchdowns also tied a school record ... Had 14 TDs overall to finish second in WAC scoring ... First 1,000-yard single season rusher in Utah's history ... Best game was school record 232 yards (28 carries) for 3 TDs in 30-27 victory over Wyoming ... Also gained 173 yards on 14 carries (4 TDs) in 56-28 loss to BYU and 151 yards on 20 attempts (also 4 TDs) in 42-0 triumph over Northwestern ... Was first team All-WAC selection and chosen to play in '82 East-West Shrine game and Senior Bowl ... Averaged 6.6 yards per rush in 1981, prompting Packer Scout Lloyd Eaton to observe: "His development as a senior was almost unbelievable. He blossomed last season as a most effective running back. He just grew up physically and as a performer over the past season and we feel there is going to be a continuation of this growth and development for him as a Packer" ... Began college career with two straight 100-yard rushing games and was leading WAC in rushing before suffering season-ending knee injury vs. Colorado third week of season ... Returned in '79 to finish third on team—for second straight year—with 593 yards ... Earned 9 letters in 3 sports (Football, basketball and track) at North Salinas, CA, High School ... Named to Coach and Athlete Prep All-American senior year at North Salinas, when he gained over 2,100 yards ... Consumer studies major. Nickname "Popcorn," his CB handle.

MIKE MEADE • 22 • RB • PENN STATE

HT: 5-10½ • WT: 228 • BORN: 2/12/60 • D-5

Expected to be strong contender for employment as backup to Gerry Ellis at fullback. A fourth-year junior who opted to give up his last season of eligibility, he became Penn State starter for first time in 1981 after backing up Matt Suhey (Chicago Bears) and Booker Moore (Buffalo Bills) ... Rushed for 372 yards in 80 carries (4.7 avg.) as senior and scored 4 touchdowns, despite also seeing extensive service as blocker for Nittany Lions' Curt Warner ... A fast starter with the leg drive and body lean to grind out tough yardage inside ... Can go outside as well ... "Mike hits in hard as both a runner and blocker," according to Packer Scout Lloyd Eaton. "He's a second effort type player" ... Pete Kettela, Packer offensive backfield coach, says of him, "Mike has outstanding endurance. He gets stronger as the game wears on. He's at his best in the fourth quarter, which he demonstrated in the '82 Fiesta Bowl games against USC" ... As a prep, he captained the football team and also competed in track at Dover, DE, High School ... Management major.

JOHN MACAULAY • 23 • C • STANFORD*HT: 6-3 • WT: 254 • BORN: 4/29/59 • D-11

Chosen to play in three major all star games—Japan Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Blue-Gray Game—following 1981 season ... Highly durable athlete, he started 40 consecutive games for Stanford ... Named to All-PAC 10 second team at center as both junior and senior ... Also named to PAC 10 All-Academic team in both '80 and '81 ... A rare four-year starter for Cardinals, he had brief stints at offensive guard and defensive end early in his college career ... A knee injury sidelined him as a freshman in 1977 causing him to redshirt ... Cracked Stanford starting lineup midway through 1978 season and played well enough to win All-PAC 10 second team honors ... Was an all-league choice at Bonita, CA, High School as a prep ... Fashioned a lusty .529 batting average as a senior third baseman to earn All-CIF recognition in baseball ... Dick Corrick, Packer director of player personnel, says of Macaulay, "He has quickness and an excellent snap from the shotgun. He is accurate and consistent, and sets well on pass protection. He is a good pickup blocker, a competitor and a fighter. John also has good body balance—he stays on his feet well. Good at getting off the line of scrimmage quickly ... "Alert" ... Biology major and pre-med student.

PHILLIP EPPS • 23 • WR • TEXAS CHRISTIAN*HT: 5-10 • WT: 165 • BORN: 11/11/58 • D-12

World class sprinter ... Clocked at 20.1 in 200-meters in recent effort for TCU track team ... Also has been caught at blistering 10.1 in 100 meters ... Averaged 18.5 yards every time he touched the ball ... A three-year starter with quick feet, he recorded 100-yard kickoff return for TD vs. Rice as freshman in '78 ... Had 111 yards on 4 receptions and 3 TDs (16, 26 and 39 yards) vs. University of Texas-Arlington ... Recorded 70-yard punt return for a TD in the Horned Frogs' 39-39 tie with Texas Tech ... Had finest game of career in 1980 vs. Baylor, catching 8 passes for 174 yards, most ever by one receiver against Baylor ... Qualified for nationals in 100 and 200 meter dashes for TCU at outdoor track meet in 1981 ... All-State at Atlanta, TX, High School ... Led football team to district title with 11-1 record. Set national age group record as high school freshman with time of 21.0 in 220-yard dash ... Packers plan to employ him as kick return specialist ... "Phil has fine speed and runs good patterns under good control", Packer Scout Tom Tipps says of Epps. "He adjusts well to coverage. He has good concentration and will make the difficult catch" ... Criminal justice major.

JUST FOR THE RECORD

One of only three teams in the history of professional football to have played more than 1,000 games (the Bears and Cardinals are the others), the Packers carry a .595 all-time winning percentage into the 1982 season. Now in the 64th year of their existence, they have won 601 games, lost 401 and tied 46 of the 1,048 games played since being founded as a town team by the late E.L. "Curly" Lambeau.

The overall total includes 785 league, playoff and Super Bowl games and 263 pre-season, mid-season and post-season non-league games. The league-playoff breakdown shows the Packers with 428 victories, 322 defeats and 35 ties, a .568 percentage, and the non-league record 173 wins, 79 losses and 11 ties, a .679 percentage.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Sept. 6 Packers erect 13-0 halftime lead on 2 and 5-yard scoring runs by Eddie Lee Ivery and Gerry Ellis, respectively, hold on in second half to register 16-9 opening day victory over Bears at Chicago with aid of last minute Johnnie Gray fumble recovery at Green Bay 1.
- Sept. 27 John Jefferson has 100-yard day in Packer debut (7-for-121) and James Lofton joins him (8 catches for 101 yards) but Packers fall to Vikings at Milwaukee, 30-13.
- Oct. 4 Lynn Dickey completes 17 of 22 passes for 208 yards and 2 TDs, and Harlan Huckleby rushes 30 times for 88 yards to key 27-14 Packer road victory over New York Giants.
- Nov. 1 David Whitehurst, stepping in for injured Dickey, three times brings Packers from behind to forge 34-24 win over Seattle in Green Bay's Lambeau Field and launch 3-game winning streak. Whitehurst passes for 3 TDs, 2 of them to James Lofton.
- Nov. 8 Estus Hood returns first quarter interception 41 yards for touchdown, Mark Lee runs back punt 94 yards for another TD and Jan Stenerud ties Packer record by kicking 4 field goals as Packers beat Giants for second time, 26-24. Stenerud's final FG settles issue with 2:23 remaining.
- Nov. 15 Packers score all of their points in first half via three Whitehurst TD passes (2 to Huckleby), then weather second half Chicago comeback to trip Bears, 21-17.
- Nov. 29 Packers expunge early 14-0 deficit with a three-TD performance by Harlan Huckleby, a clutch, 30-yard scoring catch by John Jefferson and a 47-yard TD strike from Lynn Dickey to James Lofton to outlast Vikings at Minnesota, 35-23.
- Dec. 6 After falling behind 10-0 in second quarter, Packers rebound with 21 unanswered points (a 1-yard run by Huckleby and Dickey TD passes to Paul Coffman and James Lofton) and go on to decision Detroit Lions, 31-17.
- Dec. 13 Lynn Dickey throws 5 TD passes, tying Packer all-time record, to trigger 35-7 triumph over Saints in New Orleans Superdome. Maurice Harvey interception runbacks of 53 and 46 yards set up two Green Bay scores.

THE HISTORY

SUPER BOWL STORY

Super Bowl I

January 15, 1967

Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

Paid Attendance: 61,946

Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's American Football League champions 35-10 behind the passing of Bart Starr, the receiving of Max McGee and a key interception by all-pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Wood's 40-yard return of an interception to the Chief's 5-yard line with the Packers leading by only 14-10. The pass, authored by the Chiefs' Len Dawson, had been intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, filling in for ailing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers first offensive series) after having caught only three passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores counting one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter and the other on a one-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' 10 points came in the second quarter; the only touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and 2 touchdowns and was chosen the game's most valuable player. His scoring strikes came on a 37-yard collaboration with McGee in the first quarter and a 13-yard pitch to the aging end in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece — the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports.

Super Bowl II

January 14, 1968

Orange Bowl, Miami, Florida

Paid Attendance: 75,546

Green Bay 33, Oakland 14

Having acquired a third consecutive NFL championship just two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning the Super Bowl title for the second straight year. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was chosen the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packer attack that was in control all the way after building up a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and all-pro cornerback Herb Adderley highlighted the Green Bay scoring with a 60-yard interception return of a Daryle Lamonica pass.

After leading by only 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers padded their margin to 16-7 at halftime by way of three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period. Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game marked the last for Vince Lombardi as Packers coach, ending nine years at Green Bay in which he won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedented in pro football history.

THE PACKERS NFC (NFL) PLAYOFF HISTORY...GAME BY GAME

1936 — GREEN BAY 21, BOSTON REDSKINS 6. (Polo Grounds, New York) — Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played in the Polo Grounds because the Redskins franchise was being shifted to Washington, D.C., by George Marshall. A turnout of 29,545 saw Don Hutson take a 45-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers were never headed.

1938 — NEW YORK 23, GREEN BAY 17. (Polo Grounds, New York) — The Packers overcame an early 9-0 New York lead, spawned by two blocked punts, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. The Packers began to close in early in the second period, Arnie Herber capitalizing on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 50-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants margin to 9-7.

The Giants shortly converted a mid-field fumble by Packer fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead before Green Bay again trimmed the deficit to two points before the half was over; Clarke Hinkle crashing over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker. The Packers then forged in front in opening minutes of the second half for the first and only time in the game; an Engebretsen field goal presenting them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 35-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A crowd of 48,120, a play off record, sat in on proceedings.

1939 — GREEN BAY 27, NEW YORK 0. (State Fair Park, Milwaukee) — The Packers made playoff history by scoring first shutout ever registered in NFL championship game. Despite bitter 35 m.p.h. wind, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in leading Green Bay to its fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, and pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen and a long TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski.

1944 — GREEN BAY 14, NEW YORK 7. (Polo Grounds, New York) — With peerless pass catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy for the Giant defense, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged the offensive hero of Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, one on a 2-yard run in the second quarter and the other on a 26-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the third. Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a one-yard plunge on the first play of the final period. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, had a brilliant day, setting a playoff record with three interceptions and claiming ground gaining honors with 74 yards in 13 carries. Attendance: 46,016.

1960 — PHILADELPHIA 17, GREEN BAY 13 (Franklin Field) — Packers erected a 6-0 lead in the second period and were out in front by 13-10 in fourth quarter before yielding to late surge by Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay moved ahead in first quarter on a 20-yard Paul Hornung field goal. Hornung added 23-yard FG in second quarter but Eagles tied it 6-6 on a 35-yard scoring pass from Norm Van Brocklin to Tommy McDonald and edged ahead via Bobby Walston's first conversion. Walston followed with a 15-yard FG for a 10-6 halftime lead.

The Packers stopped Philadelphia at their own four late in the third period, then recaptured lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. A 58-yard kickoff return by Dean, however, ignited Eagles and victory eluded Packers, making their first title game appearance in 16 years. Attendance: 67,325.

1961 — GREEN BAY 37, NEW YORK 0. (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, scored an individual record 19 points to key Packer decimation of Giants in first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A record Packer home crowd of 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team of 1961, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, was proving a devastating complement to the attack, intercepting four Giant passes and recovering one fumble.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and defensive back Hank Gremminger, set up touchdowns No. 2 and 3 while the fumble recovery by Forrest Gregg led to Hornung's second field goal and a Jess Whittenton interception to Hornung's final FG.

1962 — GREEN BAY 16, NEW YORK 7. (Yankee Stadium, New York) — Out front all the way in a raw, cyclonic setting, Packers weather siege by vengeful Giants in primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke proves principal frustration to New Yorkers, seeking redemption for shutout humiliation in '61 title game. His deflection triggers interception to blunt early Giant drive to Green Bay 10. On way to being named game's most valuable player, he also registers two interceptions, one of which led to the Packers' only touchdown of the afternoon. The other set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided eventual margin.

Giants' only TD comes on block of Max McGee punt in Green Bay end zone midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor sets playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

1965 — GREEN BAY 23, CLEVELAND 12, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Field softened by four-inch snow made Packer backs only run harder as Lambeau Field crowd of 50,777 celebrated third championship in five years. Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung amassed 201 yards rushing in rally that overcame Browns' early 9-7 lead.

Packers charged to 7-0 first quarter advantage on 47-yard Bart Starr pass to Carroll Dale and Don Chandler's conversion, but Cleveland moved in front on a 17-yard TD strike from Frank Ryan to Gary Collins and 24-yard Lou Groza field goal.

Green Bay rebounded, however, with 15 and 23 yard FGs by Chandler, the latter following a Willie Wood interception, to claim 13-7 lead subsequently trimmed to a single point by a second Groza FG shortly before the intermission.

Starr settled the issue in third quarter, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play scoring drive climaxed by Hornung's 13-yard sweep of Browns' right perimeter 1966 — GREEN BAY 34, DALLAS 27, (Cotton Bowl, Dallas) — Bart Starr has one of his finest hours, passing for four touchdowns as Packers win second straight title and fourth in six years. Tom Brown thwarts last-minute Cowboy bid, and the majority of 74,152 Cotton Bowl fans, with end zone interception of Don Meredith's fourth down pass from Green Bay 2.

Packers mounted quick 14-0 lead on a 17-yard Starr pass to Elijah Pitts and 18-yard scoring run with a fumble recovery by rookie Jim Grabowski, but led only 21-17 at halftime following explosive Cowboy comeback. After a 32-yard Villanueva field goal had cut Packer lead to a tenuous 21-20, Starr hit Dowler and McGee with 16-yard scoring passes to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

1967 — GREEN BAY 21, DALLAS 17. (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — With thermometer shuddering at 16 below zero and 50,861 in stands, Bart Starr scores winning touchdown from one-yard-line with 13 seconds remaining, sealing record third straight championship for Packers and their fifth in seven years.

Starr's touchdown, on third down with no timeouts remaining, climaxed a 68-yard drive in 12 plays.

As was case in 1966, Packers grabbed early 14-0 advantage. But this time Cowboys came from behind to take the lead, forcing story book finish by Green Bay to win contest later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

Starr's touchdown passes of 8 and 46 yards to Boyd Dowler built the first quarter bulge, trimmed in second quarter by George Andrie's 7-yard scoring return of a Starr fumble and 21-yard Danny Villanueva field goal. Don Meredith's 50-yard scoring strike to Lance Rentzel in the fourth quarter triggered the dramatic denouement.

THE LAMBEAU FIELD STORY

Lambeau Field, the home of the Green Bay Packers, was constructed in 1957 with an initial capacity of 32,150. The cost of the original project, $960,000 was shared equally by the Green Bay Packers, Inc. and the city of Green Bay. It was financed by means of a bond issue, which received voter approval in a referendum conducted April 3, 1956.

Since that time, there have been four additions to the stadium, all underwritten by the Packer Corporation. The capacity was increased to 38,669 in 1961, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,861 in 1965 and to its present capacity, 56,189 in 1970.

The stadium was dedicated as City Stadium on September 29, 1957. It was later renamed Lambeau Field in 1965, following the death of the late E.L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first coach of the Packers.

Lambeau Field now is wholly owned by the city of Green Bay, retirement of the original $960,000 indebtedness having been celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978.

PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1963 — E. L. (Curly) Lambeau, Founder, player, coach, vice-president (1919-49): Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '27, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and remains one of only four coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL. (others are George Halas, Paul Brown and Don Shula) Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53).

1963 — Johnny (Blood) McNally, HB (1928-36). Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos, Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Steelers. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1920, 30 and 31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Still ranks 13th in Packer lifetime scoring, four decades after departing Green Bay scene, with 224 points. Collegiate star at St. Thomas.

1963 — Don Hutson, E (1935-45). Highest scoring receiver in pro football history with 99 touchdowns, all-time NFL record. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving 8 years and in scoring 5 seasons, both also league marks. Caught passes in 95 consecutive games, fifth longest streak in NFL history. Currently ranks 13th lifetime among pro receivers with 488 catches and 18th in NFL career scoring with 823 points. Starred at U. of Alabama

1963 — Robert (Cal) Hubbard, T-E (1929-35). Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants — a massive 6 ft. 3 inch, 265 pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was all-pro choice in each of first three years (1931, 32, 33) such selections were made. Played college football at Centenary, Geneva.

1964 — Clarke Hinkle, FB (1932-41). A four-time all-pro selection (1936, 37, 38, 41)...One of most versatile players in NFL annals, he was tough, bruising runner, line blocker, good receiver and excellent placekicker as well as a shrewd, hard-hitting linebacker. Fourth-ranking rusher in Packer history with 3,860 yards in 1,171 carries. Played college football at Bucknell.

1964 — Mike Michalske, G (1929-37). Also played for New York Yankees (1927-28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time all-pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State.

1966 — Arnie Herber, HB (1930-41). Also played for New York Giants (1944-45). Pro football's first great long passer. Won three National Football League passing titles and was all-pro selection in 1932. Teamed with Don Hutson to form NFL's first feared passing combination in mid-30s. Shares fourth place in lifetime passing efficiency in Packer annals with 50.06 percentage for 9 seasons and ranks fourth in career touchdown passes with 51. Tough, durable athlete and accomplished punter as well as great passer. A Green Bay native, he played college football at Regis (Denver, Colo.)

1966 — Walt Kiesling, T (1935-36). Also played for Duluth Eskimos (1926-27), Pottsville (1928), Chicago Cardinals (1929-33) and Chicago Bears (1934). All-pro selection in 1932. Two-way performer, he starred on both offense and defense. Although a giant of his time, he possessed impressive quickness for one of his dimensions. Later served as Packer assistant coach (1945-48). Also coached for Pittsburgh Steelers, Philadelphia-Pittsburgh combine and Chicago Cardinals. Played college football at St. Thomas.

1967 — Emlen Tunnell, HB (1959-61). Also played for New York Giants (1948-58). Second leading interceptor in pro football history. Intercepted 79 passes over 14-year career and returned them 1,282 yards, another National Football League record. Also holds NFL career record for punt returns with 258 and most yards punts returned, 2,209. Played college football at University of Iowa.

1971 — Vince Lombardi, Coach and General Manager (1959-67). Also assistant coach for New York Giants (1954-58) and head coach of Washington Redskins (1969). Directed Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 1965-66-67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. His 1966 and 1967 teams also made history by winning first two Super Bowls. Packers won nine of 10 playoff games under his leadership and overall, compiled a 98-30-4 record, a glittering .766 winning percentage. Lombardi, a guard, played his college football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

1974 — Tony Canadeo, HB (1941-43, 1946-52). Became only the third 1,000 yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1952. Still ranks as No. 3 ground gainer in Packer annals with 4,197 yards in 1,025 attempts, a 4.1 average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was an accomplished blocker, capable passer and good receiver in addition to being a highly effective kick returner. Also played defensive back during early years of his career. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired sobriquet of "Grey Ghost."

1976 — Jim Taylor, FB (1958-66). Also played for New Orleans Saints (1967). One of only three running backs in pro football history to rush for 1,000 yards in five consecutive seasons (1960-64). Also fifth ranking career rusher in NFL annals with 8,597 yards in 10 seasons. Ranks eighth, all-time, in number of 100-yard rushing games with 26 and fifth in career rushing attempts with 1,941. Also shares NFL record for most rushing touchdowns in a season, 19 in 1962, and owns third highest lifetime total of rushing TDs, 83. Played college football at LSU.

1977 — Forrest Gregg, T (1956-1958-70). Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1971). A second round draft selection. Gregg won all-pro honors eight times, including selection at both guard and tackle in 1965, and five times was named to the Pro Bowl. Termed by his late coach, Vince Lombardi, "the finest football player I ever coached." Holds Packer durability record, having played in 187 consecutive games for Green Bay. Played college football at SMU.

1977 — Bart Starr, QB (1956-71). A 17th round draftee in 1956. Starr became the most productive quarterback in pro football annals, directing the Packers to six Western Division championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowl triumphs. Embellished these achievements by winning Most Valuable Player honors in both Super Bowls I and II. Starr led the NFL in passing three times (1962, 1964 and 1966) and retired as the leading percentage passer in league history. He also was named to the Pro Bowl four times. Later served as Packer quarterback coach in 1972 and was named head coach and general manager of the Packers Dec. 24, 1974. Played college football at the University of Alabama.

1978 — Ray Nitschke, LB (1958-72). One of the most devastating hitters in the game's history, he was named to NFL's All-50 Year Team at linebacker after winning all-pro honors three times. Had 15-year playing career, second longest in Packer history, highlighted by his selection as Most Valuable Player in 1962 NFL Championship Game against the Giants at New York. Helped Packers win five world titles (1961-62 and 65-66-67) and first two Super Bowls. Talented ballhawk, he forged career total of 25 interceptions and recovered 20 fumbles, only one short of Packers' all-time record. A third round draft choice in 1958, he played his college football at the University of Illinois.

1980 — Herb Adderley, DB (1961-69). Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1970-72). Packers' No. 1 draft choice (Michigan State) in 1961. Five-time all-pro at cornerback. Played in five Pro Bowls, four of six Super Bowls (two with Green Bay, two with Dallas). Had 48 career intercepts, ran 7 back for TDs (second highest total in NFL history).

1981 — Willie Davis, DE (1960-69). Also played for Cleveland (1958-59). A 17th round draft choice, he came to Packers from Browns in 1960 trade. Became one of premier pass rushers in pro football history, winning all-pro honors six times and selection to Pro Bowl five times. Holds all-time Packer record for career fumble recoveries (21) and second longest consecutive game streak (162) in Green Bay annals. Helped Packers win five NFL titles during 1960s. Played college football at Grambling.

1981 — Jim Ringo, C (1953-63) Also played for Philadelphia (1964-67). Seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Went on to win all-pro honors six times, five as a Packer, and play in 10 Pro Bowls, seven as a Packer. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183). Helped Packers win back-to-back NFL titles in 1961-62. Traded to Philadelphia in 1964. Presently offensive line coach for Los Angeles Rams.

BIRTH OF A TEAM AND A LEGEND . . . THE PACKER STORY

On the evening of August 11, 1919, a score or more of husky young characters, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

There had been some preliminary talk and planning and that night's decision wasn't announced until two days later, but the big step had been taken. So August 11 is as good a birthday as any.

Actually the initial spark had been struck a few weeks before during a casual street corner conversation between Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun. It was apparently one of those "Why not get up a football team?" remarks, but once they got interested they wasted no time.

FIRST THEY TALKED Curly's employer at the Indian Packing Company into putting up some money for equipment.

Because the team's jerseys had been provided by the packing company, which also permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the corporation had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and at the end of the season it had to be forfeited.

THIS WAS the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A.B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

FROM THOSE MODEST and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual world-wide recognition by winning more championships (eleven) over the intervening half-century than any other team in professional football.

The fact that these achievements have come while representing a city of only 90,000 inhabitants, in competition with the country's population giants, has endeared them to the nation's football fans, many of whom are intrigued by the David vs. Goliath concept and the Packers' unique status as a community-owned corporation.

INEVITABLY, PROCEDURES at Packer games have come a long way since the sandlot years of 1919-20 when the Pack was subsisting on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. Then there were no ushers, no majorettes, no band and no public address system—the latter hadn't been invented yet, there weren't even any seats at first, and it didn't cost anything to get in.

When the Packers began their existence in 1919, they played on approximately the same site as the now abandoned City (East) Stadium, but with a mighty difference. Hagemester Park, as it was called was just a big vacant lot with a football gridiron marked on it.

There were no gates because there wasn't any fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street streetcar and walked over to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about ten yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow the play up and down the field. By moving as the play progressed, you always had a "50-yard line" location and were handy to any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that too.

When the half ended teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. Nothing private about those huddles. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's half time suggestion.

In 1920 a section of stands was built—just a small bleacher with a capacity of a couple hundred—on one side of the field, and a fee charged to sit there. The next year a portable canvas fence was erected around the whole field and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

WHEN HAGEMEISTER Park was dug up in 1923 to make way for East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds out on the end of Main Street. This was called Bellevue Park because it was just east of the old Hagemeyer Brewery, which was renamed the Bellevue Products Co. during Prohibition. Things were Big Time out there, with crowds of 4,000 to 5,000 storming the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears.

The Packers used Bellevue in 1923-24, but it was obviously inadequate and too far out, lacking about every facility needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of old City Stadium just back of the new high school.

The new plant was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but was an immediate success, the Bear game that year drawing a record crowd of nearly 6,000. It was a typical small town park of its day, with wooden fences and stands on both sides, between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines the ultimate capacity of 25,000 was reached.

AFTER WORLD WAR II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. September 29, 1957 was a proud day for Green Bay and its Packers. A million dollar modern stadium with a seating capacity of 32,150 was dedicated. In 1961, the Stadium was expanded to 38,669, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,861 in 1965 when the name was changed to Lambeau Field, and to the present 56,191 in 1970.

The Packers' colorful saga, spanning 62 years, can be roughly divided into eight chapters. They take us from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Curly Lambeau to the present day, which finds the Packer's legendary quarterback, Bart Starr, presiding as the eighth head coach in the team's history.

THE IRON MAN ERA—With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 or 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD—Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold, when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense. Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME—After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER—The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the rebuilding plans and Lisle W. Blackbourn, coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. During the four-year Blackbourn regime the Packers won 17 while losing 31.

McLEAN MOVES UP—Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958.

McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, worst in Packer history in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA—In 1959, the Packers announced the signing of New York Giant assistant Vince Lombardi as head coach and general manager.

In his first season, Lombardi lifted the Packers to a 7-5 record and was unanimously voted Coach of the Year. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division title and went on to win World Championships in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, and 1967. Never finishing lower than second since 1960, his teams became the standard of football excellence and the Packer franchise one of the most successful. Over a nine year span as head coach, Lombardi's teams racked up 141 victories against 39 losses and 4 ties for a remarkable .783 winning percentage. Even more noteworthy, however, is the record of Lombardi coached teams in post-season play. In 10 Division playoffs and World Championship Games, the Packers emerged victorious nine times.

BENGTSON PERIOD—Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to coach and manage the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-1970, compiling a 20-21-1 record, and in December of 1970 resigned.

THE DEVINE DAYS—Dan Devine, one of the three most successful coaches in the nation's collegiate ranks, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January of 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first season, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of '73 and they slipped to a 5-7-2 mark. They continued their recession in '74, emerging with a 6-8 record, and Devine resigned.

THE PRESENT—Bart Starr, the most successful field general in pro football history as Green Bay's quarterback of the '60s, accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager on Dec. 24, 1974. Starr, who led the Packers to five world championships from 1961 through 1967, asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere. . . We will earn everything else."

Although he had to settle for a 4-10 record in the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave Packer fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the 1975 season. He continued the resurgent trend in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning record since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily dampened in '79 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.

Rebounding strongly in 1981, they rallied from a disappointing 2-6 start to mount the most dramatic comeback in Green Bay history, closing with a 6-2 rush (an 8-8 mark) and coming within one victory of the playoffs.

Architect's conception of Packer indoor practice facility.

PACKER PROGRESS REPORT: New Facilities Set

Within the next year, the Packers will make two major additions to their facilities, projects which will enable them to remain fully competitive with their National Football League rivals.

Before 1982 is out, they expect to be using a new indoor practice field facility—only the second of its kind in the NFL. The all-metal building will be constructed over the artificial turf strip on the Packers' South Oneida Street practice field. It will be 240 feet long, 230 feet wide and 65 feet high at the apex—permitting punting and placekicking—and equipped with minimal heating.

A clear span building—which means it will have no interior supports—it will be the largest of its kind in the Green Bay area and one of the largest of its kind in the State of Wisconsin. Target date for completion of the building is November 1. (Architect's sketch appears above.)

The administration building on Lombardi Avenue also will be expanded and remodeled. The improvements will include new and additional administrative and coaches' offices, a new and larger dressing room, more meeting rooms, a new players' lounge, new public relations and ticket offices and a new lobby—plus racquetball courts and a jacuzzi. (An architect's sketch of the remodeled building appears below.) Work is expected to begin in late summer or early fall and be completed by the start of the 1983 season.
