ELEVEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships — eleven — than any other team in National Football League history. They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931) and eight times since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967). Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).

In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1967, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1968, 33-14).

Chicago's Bears rank second with eight NFL titles, followed by the Giants, Lions and Browns with four each.

The Green Bay Packer Football Team is a community owned non-profit corporation. 4,629½ shares of stock are owned by 1,789 shareholders—none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment. The Corporation is governed by 45 directors and a 7-man executive committee.

JUDGE ROBERT J. PARINS
President

Growth and change continue to mark the presidency of Judge Robert J. Parins, now in his fourth year as chief executive of the Green Bay Packers, Inc.

During his first three years in office, he presided over the planning and construction of two major additions to the Packers' physical facilities — beginning with the building of an indoor practice facility in 1982. It was followed in 1983 by a remodeling and expansion of the administration building and training quarters, which more than doubled the size of the existing structure. In 1984, as part of a renegotiated lease with the City of Green Bay, stadium rest room facilities also were doubled and all concession stands were remodeled. This year, 72 private boxes were constructed along the east and west sides of Lambeau Field.

During the same period, Judge Parins also was called upon to guide the corporation through a 57-day player strike in 1982 and, at season's end, to coordinate preparations for the Packers' first home playoff game since 1967.

The first full-time president in the Packer organization's 66-year history, he formally assumed his current responsibilities on June 1, 1982, following his resignation as a Brown County circuit court judge (Branch 2 of the 8th Judicial District). He previously had been named principal executive officer at a board of directors' meeting October 11, 1981.

Only the eighth man to hold the Packer presidency since the corporation was founded in 1922, he has been a member of the team's official family since May 23, 1966, when elected to the board of directors at the annual stockholders' meeting.

Judge Parins later was elected Vice President of the corporation at a board of directors' meeting August 1, 1979, automatically becoming a member of the Packer Executive Committee in the process.

Born in Green Bay August 23, 1918, he graduated from Green Bay East High School in 1936. He later obtained a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1940 and a law degree, also from the University of Wisconsin, in 1942.

Upon graduation from law school, he worked for Employers Mutual Insurance Co. in Minneapolis from 1942 through 1944 before returning to Green Bay, in 1944, to open the practice of law in partnership with the late Meyer Cohen. In 1949, he was elected district attorney of Brown County and served one, two-year term. Elected a circuit judge in the spring of 1967, he was formally vested Jan. 2, 1968. On the bench, he earned a state-wide reputation for the fair, efficient and expeditious disposition of the cases brought before him. Although he officially retired from the bench in 1982, he continues to serve as a reserve judge on occasion.

Judge Parins and his wife, Elizabeth, have five children and 11 grandchildren.

An active sportsman in private life, he owns a stable just outside Green Bay and regularly works with his horses there. He also is an avid fisherman and shoots a respectable game of golf.

DOMINIC OLEJNICZAK
Chairman of the Board

Dominic Olejniczak, who served the organization as president longer than any other man in the team's history, now serves as chairman of the board of Green Bay Packers, Inc. He was elected to the position by the board of directors Oct. 11, 1981.

Mr. Olejniczak ended a 24-year tenure as corporation president May 3, 1982, when Judge Robert J. Parins was elected to succeed him. A former mayor of the City of Green Bay (1945-55), he used that experience in municipal government to help guide the Packers to unprecedented corporate prosperity.

A devout Packer fan since the 1920s, when he was a pupil at St. Mary of the Angels Grade School, he first began to develop close ties with the Packers in an official capacity during the mid-1930s. Elected to the Green Bay City Council, he became involved with the team through the City of Green Bay and the Board of Education, which had jurisdiction over old City Stadium, where the Packers then played their games. He continued to work closely with the Packers while mayor and, in that position, was a prime mover in the drive to build the current stadium, Lambeau Field.

Elected to the board of directors July 10, 1950, Mr. Olejniczak subsequently moved up through the chairs, being named to the Executive Committee January 21, 1952, elected a vice president March 1, 1954, executive vice president Dec. 23, 1957, president April 28, 1958, and then chairman of the board in 1981.

DEDICATION

This 1985 Green Bay Packers media guide is dedicated to the memory of the late Wilner Burke. A devout Packer fan and a dedicated musician, he directed the Packer Band for 44 years, serving in that capacity from 1938 through 1981. So deep was his commitment to his beloved band that not once during those 44 years did he miss a game or a practice. Wilner, who died June 14, also served as halftime director, arranging all pre-game and halftime entertainment, responsibilities which he carried out with both care and enthusiasm.

In all, Wilner made music at Packer games for more than 50 years, beginning as a saxophone player with the American Legion band in 1927, when the Legion unit played at home games. But it was as director of the Packer Band that he made his greatest contribution. With the band members' longevity becoming a hallmark over the years — a tribute to his leadership — he developed the group into a versatile organization, capable of playing marches, ballads, jazz and swing tunes with equal facility. In the process, both he and the band became a Packer institution.

The Green Bay Packers are one of a kind, both structurally and artistically. As an organization, they represent the only publicly-owned team in the 28-club National Football League. On the field, they have won more championships—11—than any other team in the NFL's 65-year annals.

Green Bay Packers, Inc., a non-profit corporation, was founded in 1922 at the behest of A. B. Turnbull, who became the organization's first president. There are over 4,600 shares of stock owned by 1,789 shareholders. The corporation is governed by a seven-man Executive Committee, selected from a 45-man board of directors. (For the "Green Bay Packer Story," turn to page 114).

Judge Robert J. Parins, eighth president of the corporation, was elected the organization's chief executive May 3, 1982.

BOB HARLAN
Assistant to the President

Robert E. "Bob" Harlan, corporate assistant to the president, has been a member of the Packer management team since 1971. He this year has assumed new responsibilities as the manager of Lambeau Field's 72 private boxes — scheduled to be completed for the 1985 season — which have been constructed on the east and west sides of the stadium.

The 48-year-old Iowan, a native of Des Moines, formerly negotiated all player contracts for 14 years, and continues to supervise the signings. In addition, he oversees the Packer ticket operations, public relations department, game entertainment and front office personnel. He also works with Tom Miller in purchasing.

A graduate of Marquette University, where he earned a B.S. degree in journalism in 1958, Harlan had a brief tour of duty in the U.S. Army before spending a year as a general reporter for United Press-International in Milwaukee. He subsequently became sports information director at Marquette in 1959, serving six years in that capacity. He joined the St. Louis baseball Cardinals in 1965, serving as director of community relations and the speakers bureau for two years and director of public relations for 3½ years. He left that position to join the Packers as assistant general manager on June 1, 1971.

Bob and his wife, Madeline, have three sons, Kevin, 25, a sportscaster at radio station KCMO in Kansas City who is the new play-by-play "voice" of the Kansas City Chiefs; Bryan, 23, who is assistant coordinator of media relations for the Chicago Bears; and Michael, 16, a junior at Green Bay Premontre High School.

TOM MILLER
Assistant to the President

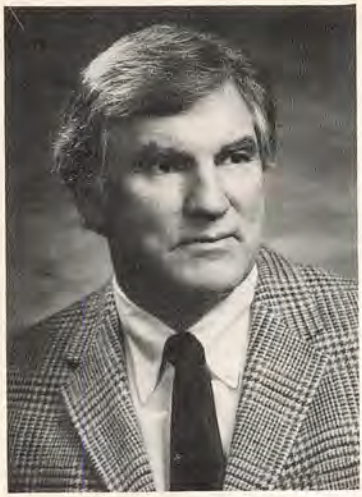

Dean of the Packers' front office, Thomas M. "Tom" Miller joined the organization in 1956. As assistant to the president for business, a position he has held since 1981, he wears a number of "hats." He arranges team travel and is responsible for negotiating radio and pre-season television contracts as well as the scheduling of pre-season games. He also is in charge of all purchasing.

In addition to these duties, Miller is responsible for repair and maintenance of Lambeau Field in cooperation with the Green Bay Stadium Commission, and for the planning and construction of all additions to the Packer facilities. He has been heavily involved in the latter area in the past four years, during which the Packers erected a $700,000 indoor practice facility and completed a $2,000,000 addition to the administration building, a $1,300,000 concession stands project and the private box construction begun earlier this year.

Possessor of an extensive football background, the Pennsylvania native played five years of professional football—the last of them for the Packers in 1946. An end, he launched his National Football League career with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1942, following graduation from Hampden-Sydney. After three seasons with Philadelphia, he moved to the Washington Redskins in 1945 before joining the Packers.

Miller subsequently coached for nearly a decade, coaching football and basketball at Wilkes College (1946-50) and football, basketball and baseball at Drexel College (1950-55). He rejoined the Packers as publicity director in 1956, serving in that capacity until 1965, when the late Vince Lombardi named him assistant to the general manager. He was appointed business general manager by Bart Starr in 1975 before being named assistant to the president.

Tom and his wife, the former Beverly Rusch of Green Bay, have three children: Tom, Jr., Nancy and Sue.

FORREST GREGG
Head Coach

For Forrest Gregg, a man with a deep and continuing commitment to excellence, success and winning have been a way of life.

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, he already was a legendary figure in both Packer annals and the archives of the National Football League when he became the ninth head coach in Green Bay's history December 24, 1983, agreeing to a five-year contract.

—For example, he to date is the only man in the history of the game who has made it to the Super Bowl as both a starting player (with the Green Bay Packers) and a head coach (with Cincinnati) since the classic was originated in 1967.

—As a player, he helped the Packers win five NFL titles during a seven year span in the 1960s, an achievement without parallel or precedent in pro football history. It included three consecutive championships (in 1965-66-67), the only time this feat has been accomplished since the NFL's playoff system was inaugurated in 1933, and victories in Super Bowls I and II.

—In the process, he became one of the most honored offensive linemen of all-time, winning all-pro honors eight times and being named to nine Pro Bowls during a distinguished Packer career which prompted the late Vince Lombardi to call him "the finest player I have ever coached."

—He also was the most durable athlete in the team's annals, playing in 187 consecutive games, a total which still ranks as an all-time Packer record.

—In 1977, his pre-eminence at his position was further documented when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the first time he was eligible following the mandatory five-year retirement period. He also was voted into the Packer Hall of Fame the same year.

—As a head coach, he developed the most successful team in the NFL over the 1981 and '82 seasons, a period during which his Cincinnati Bengals forged a glittering 19-6 won-lost record and qualified for Super Bowl XVI.

Both Gregg and Packer loyalists, who universally acclaimed his selection, are confident the success story will continue.

Green Bay's strong, 7-1 finish in 1984, second only to the 8-0 mark of Super Bowl champion San Francisco in the last half of the season, convinced them he is in the process of moulding the current Packers into serious contenders.

The big Texan promised as much in taking over the head coach's office at 1265 Lombardi Avenue.

"I'm not a prophet, so I can't tell you what is going to happen ... but I can tell that I didn't take this job to field a losing football team," he said. "I took this job to field a winning football team.

"That will happen."

Despite last season's brisk finish, which reversed a struggling, 1-7 start and spawned high hopes in the collective breast of the Packer faithful, Gregg insists, "As far as I'm concerned, we have no laurels to rest on. We were 8-and-8 last year. That's .500 ball and that's not good enough.

He points out, "This team has been close for several years now, but they've always been that one game away. We're going to have to close that gap.

"A lot of times, that one step is a tough step to take. It's going to take a lot of preparation and hard work —for 16 weeks — to make that other step ... If we can get that, I think we have a good chance."

Gregg left Green Bay as a player following the 1970 season, ending a 14-year career which had begun in 1956 when Head Coach Lisle Blackbourn made the Southern Methodist University captain Green Bay's selection in the second round of the NFL draft.

Subsequently persuaded by Tom Landry to play a 15th year, he joined the Dallas Cowboys in 1971 for a final season, capped by Super Bowl V, before going into coaching as an assistant on the San Diego Chargers' staff in 1972.

Leaving San Diego after the 1973 season, he moved to Cleveland, where he became offensive line coach in 1974. Just one year later, he was named head coach of the Browns by Art Modell. After a 3-11 rebuilding season in that role in 1975, Gregg turned the Cleveland franchise around in dramatic fashion the following year, maneuvering the Browns to a 9-5 record and earning "Coach of the Year" honors in the process.

His 1977 Browns won five of their first seven games to forge into contention for AFC Central Division honors. Injuries then struck, however, and they lost six of their last seven games. Gregg resigned with one game remaining in the season.

Out of football in 1978, he signed on as head coach of the Toronto Argonauts in 1979, compiling a 5-11 record with a young and inexperienced team.

That stint set the stage for a return to the NFL in 1979 as head coach of a Cincinnati team which had struggled to back-to-back 4-12 seasons in 1978 and '79.

In just two years, the purposeful Gregg had the Bengals in the Super Bowl. After improving the record to 6-10 in 1980, he directed them to an impressive 12-4 regular season record the following year, two playoff victories and a berth in Super Bowl XVI against the 49ers.

This achievement brought Gregg a host of honors, among them the prestigious AFC Coach of the Year Award. He also was chosen coach-of-the-year by the Associated Press, United Press International and the Professional Football Writers Association of America.

Refusing to permit the distractions of an eight-week player strike to disrupt his team, he followed that Super Bowl achievement by leading the Bengals to a 7-2 record in 1982 and another playoff appearance.

In 1983, Gregg may well have done the finest coaching job of his career. After two starters were suspended for the first four games for using drugs and two others announced their signing with the United States Football League for future delivery, his team got off to a 0-6 start, but he rallied the Bengals to win seven of their last ten games — a remarkable comeback by any measurement.

A man who brings the same intensity to coaching that he did to the playing field, Forrest sums up his basic approach with typical economy of verbiage.

"First of all, I believe in discipline," he says. "I believe in a well-conditioned football team, and I believe in a football team's being drilled to a point where they make very few mental mistakes."

Straightforward at all times, he may have been best described by one of his former Bengal players, punter-wide receiver Pat McInally. "He has a strong personality and he has the ability to lead just with his presence," McInally said. "He doesn't have to just say words. He embodies everything that he believes in and tells his players.

"He's not phony. He's genuine, and that's very important — and he finds a way to relate to all his players."

Born Alvis Forrest Gregg in Birthright, TX., October 18, 1933, Gregg had established himself as a multi-talented, injury-free athlete by the time he joined the Packers as a player. He participated in football, basketball, baseball and track at Sulphur Springs, TX., High School, and then twice won all-Southwest Conference honors as a two-way tackle at SMU, captaining the Mustangs in his senior year.

A broken arm, incurred when he was a high school sophomore, was the only major injury he suffered during his athletic career. Later, in the NFL, a bruised knee almost kept him out of a game against Detroit in 1965, but he went into block on an extra point attempt to keep his consecutive game streak alive.

In 1960, the year that the Packers won their first Western Division title under Lombardi, Gregg was voted all-pro, the first in a string of eight straight years of all-league recognition. In 1965, an injury to Jerry Kramer necessitated his moving to guard but it had no effect on Gregg's "all" status. He was named all-pro at both guard (Associated Press) and tackle (United Press International) that season.

Only two players in the Packers' 63-year NFL history wore Green Bay's green and gold longer than the "Man from Birthright" — his immediate coaching predecessor, Bart Starr, who played for 16 seasons, and Ray Nitschke, a Packer for 15 seasons.

Although he has known great success as both an athlete and a coach, Gregg won perhaps his greatest battle off the field — winning a bout with cancer during the late '70s. In May of 1982, he went to the White House to accept the American Cancer Society's "National Courage Award" from President Reagan.

Forrest and his wife, Barbara, have two children — Forrest, Jr., and Karen, both of whom graduated from the head coach's alma mater, SMU, in May of this year.

BOB SCHNELKER
Offensive Coordinator

A daring and imaginative tactician, Bob Schnelker has presided over the most productive offense in Packer history during the past two seasons. Over this span, the Packers have accumulated 819 points —including a club record 429 in 1983 and 390 in 1984, fourth highest single season total in the team's history. Only four other National Football League teams — the Washington Redskins (967), reigning Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers (907), Miami Dolphins (874) and Seattle Seahawks (821) have scored more often during this period.

Green Bay's attack, often succeeding with the element of surprise for which Schnelker has come to be known, averaged 31.6 points per game over the last half of the 1984 season as the Packers rebounded from a 1-7 start to win seven of those final eight contests.

Under his direction, the offense rolled up the second highest single season yardage total in Packer history — 5,449 — a total surpassed only by the '83 Packers, who amassed a record 6,172 yards in Schnelker's second season as Green Bay's offensive coordinator. In that process, the Packers became only the fifth team in NFL annals to gain 6,000 yards in a season and established a club record for passing yards, 4,365, then the fifth highest single season total in league history. Green Bay also emerged as the No. 1 offensive team in the National Football Conference.

The 56-year-old Schnelker, recognized as one of the foremost offensive "minds" in professional football, is in his second tour of duty in Green Bay. He previously had served as the Packers' passing game and receivers coach from 1966 through 1971.

Schnelker returned to the Packers in 1982 after four years as offensive coordinator at Detroit, where he directed the NFC's No. 1 offense in 1981 while with the Lions. Although the passing game is supposed to be his forte, Schnelker displayed an admirable ability to adjust to the personnel at hand when his Lion offense, paced by standout running back Billy Sims, led the entire NFL in rushing.

Bob, born October 17, 1928, began his 22-year coaching career with the Los Angeles Rams in 1963. Joining the Packers in 1966, he served under Vince Lombardi as Green Bay won NFL titles and the first two Super Bowls in '66 and '67, later under Phil Bengtson (1968-70) and Dan Devine (1971). He moved to the San Diego Chargers in 1972, to Miami in 1974, where he coached under Don Shula, and to Kansas City in 1975 before joining the Detroit staff.

A 17th round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1953, he subsequently played for the New York Giants from 1954 through 1960, helping them win the NFL championship in 1956 before closing out his nine-year playing career in 1961 with Pittsburgh and Minnesota, where he caught the first of Fran Tarkenton's record 342 touchdown passes. A standout tight end, he was a two-time Pro Bowl selection.

Schnelker and his wife, B.J., have three children — Mindy, Jeff and Tina.

DICK MODZELEWSKI
Defensive Coordinator

Richard "Mo" Modzelewski, an energetic and highly vocal son of Pennsylvania, saw Green Bay's defense make impressive strides in 1984, his first season as Packer defensive coordinator.

A platoon which had finished 28th in the National Football League statistically a year earlier soared all the way to 16th place under the tough-minded tutelage of the former Cleveland Brown and New York Giant lineman, advancing from 26th against the rush to 20th and all the way from 24th to 8th against the pass.

The 54-year-old coaching veteran has an impressive football pedigree — as both player and coach. As a player, the ex-University of Maryland athlete won the Outland Trophy as the nation's premier college lineman in his senior year (1952), then subsequently played on six conference championship and two NFL title teams — the 1956 New York Giants and 1964 Cleveland Brown — as a professional. He also was named to play in the 1964 Pro Bowl.

As a coach, the personable West Natrona, PA, native helped Cincinnati reach Super Bowl XVI in 1981, gain the playoffs again in 1982's strike-shortened season and achieve No. 1 ranking in the NFL defensively in 1983 while serving as the Bengals' defensive line coach. Earlier, while defensive coordinator at Cleveland, he guided the Browns' defense to the highest finish it has had in the past decade.

Modzelewski, who accompanied Forrest Gregg from Cincinnati to Green Bay when No. 75 became Packer head coach, was named Green Bay's defensive coordinator by Gregg, May 23, 1984 following Hank Bullough's resignation. He previously had been named defensive line coach December 30, 1983.

Dick began his pro coaching career with the Cleveland Browns in 1968 under Blanton Collier. He continued with the Browns under Nick Skorich who succeeded Collier, and was re-hired by Gregg when he became Cleveland's head coach in 1975. Gregg later appointed Modzelewski defensive coordinator in 1976, a position he also held in 1977. "Mo" subsequently was appointed interim head coach of the Browns for the final game of the 1977 season after Gregg resigned. He served as defensive coordinator for the Giants in 1978, then joined the Bengals in 1979 as defensive line coach. Gregg later asked him to remain on the Cincinnati staff when Forrest became head coach of the Bengals in 1980.

Drafted in the second round by Washington in 1953, when Packer founder E. L. "Curly" Lambeau was the Redskins' head coach, Modzelewski later played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1955 before being traded to the Giants, with whom he became a principal in the Giant "Fearsome Foursome," which also included Andy Robustelli, Jim Katcavage and Rosey Grier.

After starring for the Giants from 1956 through 1963, Dick was traded to Cleveland in 1964 and played three more seasons for the Browns before retiring in 1966.

Modzelewski was born February 16, 1931 in West Natrona. He and his wife, Dorothy, have four children —Mark, Laurie, Terrie and Amie — and one grandchild.

LEW CARPENTER
Receivers Coach

Lew Carpenter, now in his 21st year of pro coaching, has built an imposing reputation as a receivers coach. He has presided over the development of such talented pass catchers as the Packers' James Lofton, Paul Coffman and Phillip Epps in addition to Charley Taylor, Ahmad Rashad and Mel Gray, among others.

In 1983, for example, the Packers were the only team in the National Football League to have four players with 50 or more receptions, Lofton leading the quartet with 58, followed by John Jefferson with 57, Coffman with 54 and Gerry Ellis with 52.

Another eloquent testimonial to Carpenter's coaching expertise surfaced following the 1982 season when Lofton, Jefferson and Coffman all were named to the National Football Conference's 1983 Pro Bowl squad, marking the first time in NFC history that all three of one team's starting receivers were elected to play in the post-season classic. Lofton and Coffman again were named to the NFC's Pro Bowl team following both the '83 and '84 seasons.

In 1980, five Packers (Lofton, Coffman, Ellis, Eddie Lee Ivery and Aundra Thompson) had 40 or more receptions, a Packer first.

In 1982 the genial University of Arkansas alumnus also had once again demonstrated his ability to accelerate the development of a young receiver. Under his tutelage, Epps blossomed into the Packers' "Rookie of the Year," emerging with a team-leading average of 22.6 yards per reception.

As a player, Carpenter was one of the most versatile performers in NFL history, playing five different positions overall. Uniquely equipped for his current role, Lew played both wide receiver positions, tight end, halfback and fullback during an 11-year playing career.

An eighth round draft choice of Detroit in 1953, he was traded to Cleveland and later came to the Packers from the Browns in a 1959 trade engineered by the late Vince Lombardi. He became Green Bay's utility man on offense, helping them win successive NFL titles in 1961-62.

Carpenter launched his coaching career with the Vikings in 1965, later moving to the Falcons, Redskins, Cardinals and Oilers. He was named to the Packer coaching staff in January of 1975 by then coach Bart Starr with the assignment of redesigning the passing game. He subsequently was retained in January of 1984 when new Head Coach Forrest Gregg selected his staff.

Born in West Memphis, AR, January 12, 1932, Lew is married (Ann) and the father of four daughters (Cheryl, 28, Cathy, 26, Lisa, 23, and Rebecca, 20).

VIRGIL KNIGHT
Strength/Conditioning Coach

Virgil Knight, a 13-year coaching veteran of the college ranks, became the first full-time strength and conditioning coach in Packer history last year and his efforts already have begun to pay dividends.

"We've made a big improvement in that area," Head Coach Forrest Gregg observed after evaluating the physical strides made in 1984, adding, "We should make another one this year." Gregg had emphasized the need for more size and strength in taking over as head coach following the 1983 season.

The 37-year-old Knight, a member of the Auburn staff prior to joining the Green Bay coaching staff, was named to his present position February 9, 1984.

Previously a position coach, Knight had had five years' experience as a strength coach in the college ranks — beginning in 1979 when he moved from Arkansas Tech to the University of Florida. He left Florida in 1981 to become a member of Coach Pat Dye's staff at Auburn.

In addition to his duties in the strength/conditioning area, Knight assists Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampfler with the offensive line.

Born January 30, 1948 in Clarksville, AR, Virgil began his coaching career at Sylvan Hills High School in Little Rock, AR, in 1971. After one year there and three years at Marist, GA, High School, he moved into the college ranks at Arkansas Tech, where he coached the defensive line and linebackers for four years and also was head track coach.

As an athlete himself, Knight won all-state honors in football and was an all-district selection in basketball in high school at Clarksville. He later attended Northeast Oklahoma University, where he was named to the All-Oklahoma Collegiate Athletic Conference football team in both his junior and senior years and also competed in track.

Virgil and his wife, Becky, have two sons, Trent, 11, and Josh, 4.

HERB PATERRA
Linebacker Coach

A man of wide and varied coaching experience, Herb Paterra has coached at every level — high school, college and professional — the latter including the National Football League and the Canadian Football League.

The former Buffalo Bills linebacker joined Forrest Gregg's new Packer coaching staff January 5, 1984 after serving as defensive coordinator of the Edmonton Eskimos of the CFL in 1983.

Paterra, a 44-year-old Pennsylvanian, moved to Edmonton following three years on the staff of the Los Angeles Rams, where he coached the special teams in 1980, the linebackers in 1981 and served as defensive coordinator in 1982 under Ray Malavasi. He had entered the pro coaching ranks with the Charlotte Hornets of the World Football League in 1975 and later served as defensive line and linebacker coach for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the CFL in 1978-79.

Paterra launched his coaching career at his alma mater, Michigan State, where he tutored the linebackers and defensive line from 1969 through 1971. He moved to the University of Wyoming in 1972, to Charlotte in 1975, then was head coach at North Mecklinburgh High School in Charlotte in 1976 and 1977 before moving to Hamilton in 1978.

A native of Glassport, PA, where he was born November 8, 1940, Herb played offensive guard and linebacker at Michigan State from 1960 through 1962. Drafted by Buffalo of the American Football League, he played linebacker for the Bills in 1963 and '64. In 1965, he signed on with Hamilton, where he played for the Tiger-Cats for four seasons before closing out his pro playing career.

Paterra and his wife, Lou Ann, have two sons — Jeffrey, 20, and Craig, 18.

CHUCK PRIEFER
Special Teams/Defensive Assistant

Packer special teams made significant strides in 1984, their first season under the direction of Charles "Chuck" Priefer, veteran of 22 years in coaching. Three of the four units improved substantially, the kickoff team leading the league in coverage, the kickoff return platoon moving up from 27th a year ago to 8th last season and the punting team advancing from ninth to sixth place.

Individually, second year pro Bucky Scribner was a model of consistency under the 43-year-old Ohioan's tutelage, emerging as the No. 3 punter in the National Football Conference with a 42.3-yard average.

Priefer (the name is pronounced PREEF-er) spent 20 years in the high school and college coaching ranks before joining Head Coach Forrest Gregg's Packer staff in May of 1984. A 1963 graduate of John Carroll University, Chuck launched his coaching career the same year at Padua Franciscan High School in the Cleveland area, where he remained for 13½ years. He became head baseball coach at Padua in 1965, compiling a 151-59 record in that sport over an eight-year span, assistant athletic director in 1966, and head football coach in 1972, forging a 34-15 mark before moving into the college ranks at Miami of Ohio.

Chuck served as defensive line coach at Miami for one year, then followed Head Coach Dick Crum to the University of North Carolina, where he spent six years prior to taking his present position. He coached the defensive secondary in 1978, his first year at UNC, then tutored the defensive line for five seasons. Three of Priefer's former Tar Heel players are now in the National Football League.

A native of Lakewood, OH., where he was born July 26, 1941, Priefer moved to Parma, OH., with his family at the age of four and later spent 6½ years at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary before transferring to John Carroll University.

Chuck and his wife, Sheila, have four children — Mike, 18, Teri, 17, Jenny, 15, and Megan, 11.

KEN RILEY
Defensive Backfield Coach

Ken Riley, who closed out a distinguished, 15-year career as a National Football League cornerback in 1983, became an instant success when he moved into the coaching ranks in 1984.

The former Cincinnati Bengal quickly developed the Packer secondary into an aggressive, ballhawking unit, one which almost doubled 1983's interception total. Green Bay's "outfield" picked off 22 opponent passes, compared to just 12 a year earlier, and one member of that group, strong safety Mark Murphy, emerged as the defensive unit's leading tackler with 94 unassisted stops.

Head Coach Forrest Gregg had named Riley defensive backfield coach January 4, 1984 — less than two weeks after taking over in Green Bay. Riley had spent all of his 15 NFL seasons with the Bengals, the last four under Gregg.

The former Florida A.&M. quarterback had closed out his playing career with a flourish, leading the American Football Conference in interceptions in 1983 with eight and retiring as the fourth-ranking interceptor in pro football history with a career total of 65 while winning all-pro (Associated Press) honors.

Riley, a sixth round draft choice in 1969 (he was the 135th player selected), was a 14-year starter for the Bengals and had the longest playing career in the club's history. Along the way, he helped Cincinnati gain the NFL playoffs in 1970, '73, '75 and '82 and Super Bowl XVI in 1981.

Ken was born August 6, 1947 in Bartow, FL, where he attended Bartow Union Academy. He and his wife, Barbara, have three children — Kimberly, 14; Ken, 12; and Kenisha, 8.

GEORGE SEFCIK
Offensive Backfield Coach

George Sefcik, a tutor of National Football League offensive backs for a decade, has been a mainstay on every staff Forrest Gregg has assembled while coaching three NFL teams.

Sefcik initially joined Gregg when the Packer head coach was forming his first coaching staff at Cleveland in 1975. He was offensive backfield coach of the Browns from 1975 through 1977, later joining the Cincinnati staff in 1978 upon Gregg's recommendation. He served under Bill Johnson with the Bengals for two seasons prior to Gregg's taking over as head coach at Cincinnati in 1980.

When Gregg became head coach of the Packers following the 1983 season, Sefcik was the first assistant Number 75 named to his Green Bay staff.

The 45-year-old Ohioan, a Notre Dame graduate, is credited with returning the 1,000-yard rusher to the Bengal offense during his stay in Cincinnati. In 1981, Bengal fullback Pete Johnson rushed for 1,077 yards, thus becoming Cincinnati's first 1,000-yard rusher since Paul Robinson gained 1,024 yards in 1968. Two years earlier, in 1979, his Bengal running backs gained more yardage collectively and scored more touchdowns than any such group in Cincinnati history.

Born in Cleveland, OH, December 27, 1939, George was a two-way halfback on the Notre Dame teams of 1959-60-61. Following graduation, he became a head coach at Niles, IL, High School in 1962, then returned to Notre Dame a year later as freshman coach under Ara Parseghian. He served as an aide to Parseghian until 1964, when he moved to the University of Kentucky as offensive coordinator. Four years later, Sefcik launched his pro coaching career under Howard Schnellenberger with the Baltimore Colts in 1973. He then joined Gregg's staff at Cleveland in 1975 when Forrest became head coach of the Browns.

Sefcik is a graduate of Cleveland's Benedictine High School. He and his wife, Loretta (Lori), have three children.

JERRY WAMPFLER
Offensive Line Coach

A master technician, he presided over dramatic improvement in the Packers' offensive line in 1984, his first year on Green Bay's coaching staff. The line permitted only 11 quarterback sacks over the final eight games of the season — after giving up 32 in the first eight — in the wake of technical changes Wampfler implemented and following the insertion of Tim Huffman and Ron Hallstrom as starters at guard.

Previously a member of the Eagles' coaching staff, Wampfler gained a reputation in Philadelphia for developing outstanding offensive linemen. His prize Eagle pupils included Pro Bowl tackles Jerry Sisemore and Stan Walters.

Named to the Packer staff by Head Coach Forrest Gregg, January 8, 1984, he had been running game coordinator as well as offensive line coach for Philadelphia from 1979 through 1983, serving under Dick Vermeil from 1979 through 1982 and under Marion Campbell in 1983.

The New Philadelphia, OH, native had launched his pro coaching career with the Eagles in 1973 as an assistant to Mike McCormack. He moved to the Buffalo Bills in 1976 and to the New York Giants in 1978 before rejoining the Eagles' staff in 1979.

Born August 6, 1932, Wampfler was a standout offensive tackle at Miami of Ohio from 1951 through 1954. An off-season back injury forced him to miss an NFL tryout as a Los Angeles Rams draft choice and he turned to coaching in the high school ranks — first at his native New Philadelphia, then at Lancaster and Massillon, OH, before returning to his alma mater, Miami of Ohio, as an assistant to Bo Schembechler when the latter became head coach there.

In 1965, Jerry moved to Notre Dame as offensive line coach on the staff of Ara Parseghian, then to Colorado State as head coach in 1970. Three years later, he entered the pro coaching ranks with the Eagles.

Wampfler and his wife, Carol, have three children — Nan, 28; Jody, 26; and Tad, 24.

DICK CORRICK
Director of Player Personnel

Dick Corrick, one of pro football's most perceptive evaluators of personnel, has the overall responsibility for coordinating all Packer scouting of college players.

In this highly important assignment, the former Oregon State athlete directs the club's extensive scouting program,synthesizing input from Packer talent scouts and the National Football Scouting combine to assist Head Coach Forrest Gregg and his coaching staff in making critical decisions during the annual draft, the wellspring of every NFL team's talent supply.

Named to his present position in 1978, Corrick responded by supervising drafts which have produced such quality performers as James Lofton, John Anderson, Greg Koch, Mike Douglass, Eddie Lee Ivery, George Cumby, Mark Lee, Ron Hallstrom and Tim Lewis.

His input also was a key factor in this year's draft, highlighted by the "move-up" trade with Buffalo to acquire offensive tackle Ken Ruettgers of USC in the first round and the decision to select wide receiver-kick returner Walter Stanley of Mesa College in the fourth round.

Immediately prior to assuming his current role, Dick had been associated with the coaching staff in the area of team development in 1977. He joined the Packer organization in 1971 as a college talent scout and later served as director of pro player personnel from May 6, 1975 until early 1977.

Born April 22, 1934, Corrick is a 51-year-old graduate of LaJolla, CA, High School. A 161-pound center linebacker under Tommy Prothro at Oregon State, he later coached in the high school and college ranks for 16 years before joining the Packer scouting staff.

Dick is the father of two children, Traci, 26, and Rowdy, 24. A chef of considerable talent, he enjoys assembling a gourmet meal for himself and his wife, Bonnie, in leisure moments.

CHUCK HUTCHISON
Director of Player Procurement

Charles A. "Chuck" Hutchison, who has a diversified background in professional football as a player, coach and administrator, has taken over a new position in the Packer front office as director of player procurement.

Named by Packer President Robert J. Parins January 22, 1985, Hutchison is responsible for negotiating all player contracts and evaluating free agents who have been with other pro clubs or who are not selected in the college draft. His duties also include conducting trade talks in conjunction with Head Coach Forrest Gregg.

The 36-year-old Hutchison had been serving as vice president-administration for the Oakland Invaders of the United States Football League before joining the Packers. He previously had been interim head coach of the Invaders for the last 13 games of the USFL's 1984 season, leading Oakland to within one game of the playoffs.

Born in Canton, OH, November 17, 1948, Hutchison attended neighboring Carrollton High School where he was a star all-around athlete, winning 11 letters (four in both football and baseball and three in basketball). He later played college football at Ohio State under Woody Hayes, earning All-America and All-Big Ten honors at offensive tackle as a senior. A year earlier, he helped the Buckeyes win the 1968 Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl.

Drafted in the second round by the Cardinals, he played in St. Louis for three seasons (1970-72) and was an NFL all-rookie selection in '70. Just prior to the '73 season, Hutchison was claimed on waivers by Cleveland and played for the Browns for four seasons, the last two under Gregg. He retired prior to the 1977 season after undergoing three knee operations.

Invited by Gregg to join his new staff at Toronto as offensive line coach in 1979, Hutchison remained on the Argonaut staff for the 1980 and '81 seasons after Gregg moved to Cincinnati as head coach of the Bengals in 1980. He subsequently joined the Invaders in the fall of '82, first serving as offensive line coach and later also becoming personnel director. Following the '84 season, he was named the Invaders' vice-president-administration.

BURT GUSTAFSON
Adm. Ass't./Football Operations

Named a special assistant by Head Coach Forrest Gregg last January, he is responsible for organizing the Packers' spring mini-camps, the annual summer training camp at St. Norbert College, handling all transportation, housing and workout arrangements for free agents brought to Green Bay and assisting position coaches in all free agent tryouts.

Gustafson, who previously had served as director of pro player personnel, also scouts National Football League teams the week before they play the Packers.

A thorough and tireless scout, respected for his dedication and football knowledge, Gustafson joined the Packer organization in 1971 as linebacker coach, serving in that capacity through the 1974 season. Following a two-year stint as a Packer talent scout, he was named special teams coach in February of 1977, continuing in that role through the pre-season of 1978. He later was named director of pro player personnel April 2, 1979.

Born in Marquette, MI, Nov. 30, 1925, Burt went on to become a 12-letter winner at Northern Michigan University in his hometown. He later coached at Battle Creek, MI, High School at Northern Michigan, and at the University of Wyoming (1962-70) before joining the Packers. A firm believer in the benefits of physical fitness, he is a dedicated jogger and distance runner, frequently competing in marathon events.

Burt and his wife, Alice, have five children — two sons and three daughters.

THE PLAYERS

John Anderson - 59

LINEBACKER • MICHIGAN • 8TH YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 228 • BORN: 2/14/56 • (ACQ: D-1B, '78)

PRO: An athlete of exceptional skills, he has become the bellwether of the Packer defense ... His pre-eminence was recognized following the 1984 season when he was voted the Packers' most valuable player for the third consecutive year by Wisconsin and Upper Michigan sports media ... This honor was underscored by the assessment of Linebacker Coach Herb Paterra, who declared, "John Anderson had a tremendous year in '84 ... The biggest thing about John is that he's a great competitor, he's a dedicated football player, and he plays every down. His athletic ability, along with those qualities, make him an outstanding football player" ... Equally effective at playing the run or on pass coverage, he led Packer linebackers in interceptions with 3 and in pass deflections with 9 ... He also collected 78 unassisted tackles, including 4½ quarterback sacks for 37 yards in losses, and recovered 2 fumbles while starting all 16 games ... In capturing 1983 honors, Anderson shared the team lead in interceptions with five, emerged as the No. 2 tackler on the defensive platoon with 120 solo tackles and knocked down 7 passes ... He also forged 4 quarterback sacks, forced one fumble and recovered one ... The versatile ex-Wolverine highlighted his personal season that year by returning one of his interceptions 27 yards for his first pro touchdown October 2, a day on which he helped the Packers forge a 55-14 triumph over Tampa Bay in Green Bay's Lambeau Field ... A year earlier, Anderson was a standout during the strike-interrupted, nine-game season when voted the Packers' defensive MVP for the first time ... He led the defense in interceptions with three, shared the lead in fumble recoveries (two), forced two fumbles, was runnerup in knocking down opponent passes (7) and registered 50 unassisted tackles, third highest total on the team ... The three consecutive MVP honors have underscored a story book comeback for Anderson, plagued by injuries during his first three seasons, in each of which he suffered a fracture of the left arm ... John launched his comeback in 1981 when he amassed 117 unassisted tackles, led the team in fumble recoveries (four), was second only to cornerback Mark Lee in knocking down enemy passes (15) and made three interceptions ... One of the most accomplished all-around athletes in recent Packer history, he compiled the highest overall grade in the team's pre-season athletic skills testing program in each of his first four seasons ... Wears a specially designed protective device to safeguard his left arm, broken for the first time in Game 14 of his rookie, 1978 season at Tampa, again in a training camp scrimmage July 28, 1979 and a third time in Game Nine at Pittsburgh, Nov. 2, 1980 ... Missed nine games of the '79 regular season and last seven of '80 because of the latter two injuries ... Underwent remedial surgery in late 1980, a procedure in which bone was grafted from a hip onto the left arm, an operation designed to give the bone greater density ... Now has not missed a game since the start of the '81 season and enters '85 campaign with a 57-game starting streak ... Demonstrated his versatility upon returning to action in 1979 by kicking a 39-yard field goal against the Jets in his first—and to date, only—pro attempt ... Earned consensus NFL all-rookie honors in '78, when he became an instant starter, making four interceptions in his first three games ... Listed as backup punter on Packer depth chart he averaged better than 40 yards for a career total of 180 punts at Michigan.

COLLEGE: Academic All-American as junior ... Environmental education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Roger John Anderson ... Married (Susan) ... Voted Packers' NFL 'Man of the Year' by fans in 1983 for his efforts in behalf of civic and charitable causes ... Graduate of Waukesha, WI, South High School ... Former Wisconsin P.P.&K. champion ... Has gained imposing reputation as after dinner speaker on Packers' off-season speakers' bureau ... Sportscaster for radio station WMGF in Milwaukee during off-season ... Hobbies: Travel, basketball and barbecuing ... Hometown: Waukesha, WI ... Residence: Elm Grove, WI.

Robert Brown - 93

DEFENSIVE END • VIRGINIA TECH • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 270 • BORN: 5/21/60 • (ACQ: D-4, '82)

PRO: A linebacker as a rookie in 1982, he made major strides in his second year as a defensive end last season, prompting Head Coach Forrest Gregg to observe, "Robert has not nearly reached the potential of his ability" ... Highlighted his personal season by intercepting a Gary Hogeboom pass against Dallas Sept. 23 and returning it five yards for a third quarter touchdown. It produced the Packers' only score of the contest and his first TD as a professional ... Flashed promise as a pass rusher, forging five quarterback sacks — a figure surpassed in the defensive line only by Ezra Johnson's seven ... Also batted down one pass ... Emerged with 12 unassisted tackles and six assists overall ... Packer Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski says of him: "For a guy who was drafted as a linebacker and had to put on weight to play defensive end — and learn a new position — I have full, total confidence in Robert Brown. I wouldn't hesitate to play him any place. He's turned out to be a darned good pass rusher and he can play at defensive end against the run ... He's a very strong man, with good use of hands and good footwork ... Plus he's tough, a hard worker and has a great attitude — You have to have a good attitude to be a good defensive end" ... Was special teams standout in 1983, playing key role in kickoff coverage team's third place finish in National Football Conference statistics, pacing the unit with 16 unassisted tackles ... Also was significant contributor on Packer "suicide squads" as a rookie in 1982, making nine solo tackles on coverage units during the strike-interrupted season and recovering one fumble ... Moved to defensive end in '83 ... Hustling, instinctive athlete with "Mr. Universe" body ... Has good (4.8) speed in '40.'

COLLEGE: All-South Independent first team choice and NEA and College and Pro Football Newsweekly second team selection following senior (1981) season at Virginia Tech ... Also voted VT's MVP ... Transferred to Tech from Chowan Junior College, where he won All-America honors ... Physical education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Robert Lee Brown ... Nickname: "Robbie" or "R.B." ... Single ... Played High School Football at John A. Holmes High School in Edenton, N.C. ... Working toward degree in education in off-season ... Hobbies: Listening to music, playing backgammon, playing basketball ... Hometown: Edenton, N.C.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: 1982 (9-0); 1982-83 Playoffs (2-0); 1983 (16-0); 1984 (16-0).

Scott Brunner - 18

QUARTERBACK • DELAWARE • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-5½ • WT: 215 • BORN: 3/24/57 • (ACQ: T-Den., '85)

PRO: Acquired from Denver in April 26, 1985 trade with Broncos to provide Packers with what Head Coach Forrest Gregg describes as "a veteran, backup quarterback — one that, in case we had an injury to Lynn Dickey, that we could be sure of, who could come in and play and could win for us ... And that is what I think we have in Scott Brunner. He's had a good career up to this point and we expect that he will have a long and good career with the Green Bay Packers" ... Brunner impressed Packer coaches and railbirds with the strength and accuracy of his passing arm during pair of mini-camps in May ... Sat out 1984 season with Denver after developing infection in knee shortly before pre-season play opened ... Had been traded to Broncos by New York Giants prior to '84 in exchange for a fourth round draft choice ... A year earlier, he had posted his NFL bests in attempts (386), completions (190) and yardage (2,516), completing 49.2 percent of his passes for nine touchdowns ... He had two 300-yard days en route, throwing for 395 vs. San Diego and 346 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders ... First gained prominence when he stepped in as the Giants starter in 1981 after Phil Simms was felled by a shoulder injury ... Led New York club to a 4-1 record down the stretch to gain a playoff berth ... Subsequently was standout in playoff competition that year, firing three scoring passes to lead Giants to a 27-21 upset victory over Philadelphia, then adding three more TD throws and 290 yards passing in the divisional championship game against San Francisco, which went on to defeat Cincinnati in Super Bowl XVI ... Played the entire 1982 season for the Giants, completing 161 passes for 2,017 yards in the strike-shortened nine-game campaign, throwing for 10 touchdowns and emerging with his first two 300-yard days ... At one stretch during the year, Brunner had a string of 155 pass completions without an interception ... As a rookie, he appeared in six games and threw two TD passes in his first NFL start, a 27-21 win over Seattle.

COLLEGE: Earned three letters at Delaware ... Won Kodak All-America honors as a senior in Division II and led Delaware's Blue Hens to a 13-1 record, completing 134 of 268 passes for 2,401 yards and 24 TDs, the latter an all-time Delaware single season record ... Also threw five scoring passes in one game to set another school mark ... Accounting major.

PERSONAL: Given name Scott Lee Brunner ... Married (Dale) and father of daughter (Ashley, born 4/18/84) ... Starred in prep sports at both Henderson High School, West Chester, PA, and at Lawrence H.S., Lawrenceville, N.J. ... Took part in the Punt, Pass and Kick program as youngster ... Father, John Brunner, was Packers' offensive backfield coach in 1983 ... Born in Sellersville, PA ... Residence: Cranbury, N.J.

Mark Cannon - 58

CENTER • TEXAS-ARLINGTON • 2ND YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 268 • BORN: 6/14/62 • (ACQ: D-11, '84)

PRO: Quickly earned spurs as a rookie in 1984, taking over as Packers' long snapper and emerging as one of the most consistent special teams performers ... Has since made impressive progress physically, with a strenuous weightlifting program, prompting Head Coach Forrest Gregg to note, "With Blake Moore having played exceptionally well as a starter after Larry McCarren was injured late last season, and with what Mark Cannon has done during this off-season (in the weight room), it looks like we're going to have some real competition at the center position ..." Made all long snaps for punts last season and registered six solo tackles on kickoff coverage, as well as one assist ... Also was credited with six "crawl-ons" ... Beat out Larry Rubens, a three-year veteran, for the backup center assignment.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Texas-Arlington ... Co-captain as both junior and senior ... Electrical engineering major.

PERSONAL: Given name Mark Maida Cannon ... Single ... Born in Whittier, CA ... Developed into a fan favorite on Packers' off-season speakers' bureau, making in-tandem appearances with teammate Gary Hoffman ... All-district selection at defensive tackle at S.F. Austin High School in Austin, TX.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1984 (16-0).

Alphonso Carreker - 76

DEFENSIVE END • FLORIDA STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 270 • BORN: 5/25/62 • (ACQ: D-1, '84)

PRO: Drafted No. 1 in 1984 to fill a pressing need, the towering Ohioan stepped in as a starter at left end and quickly lived up to expectations ... Started 14 games (he missed two because of injury) and had what Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski described as "a good rookie year" ... Emerged as runnerup in tackles along the defensive line with 32, including 4 sacks for 18 yards in losses, and added 10 assists ... Also knocked down one pass ... Missed Seattle game Oct. 21 and Detroit game Oct. 28 because of leg injury ... Modzelewski says he is "expecting a lot more" from his prize protege in 1985 — "as far as getting more sacks and playing the running game better ... I think he's got the ability — all the tools — to be an outstanding defensive end ... He's going to be bigger —he's already bigger than a year ago ... Alphonso also looks like he has a lot more confidence in himself, which is a big factor" ... Was rated best overall defensive lineman in 1984 draft by Packers' defensive coaches ... Consensus NFL All-Rookie Selection.

COLLEGE: Known as the "Secretary of Defense" at Florida State, where he was a three-year fixture for the Seminoles, leading the team in sacks in both 1982 and 1983 ... Chosen to play in East-West Shrine game and Japan Bowl following senior season.

PERSONAL: Given name Alphonso Carreker ... Last name pronounced CARE-uh-ker ... Nickname: "Chub" ... Married (Kimberly) ... All-State selection in both football and basketball at Marion Franklin High in Columbus, OH ... Completing B.S. degree in criminology at Florida State in off-season ... Hobbies: Basketball, bike riding, music ... Hometown: Columbus, OH.

Ron Cassidy - 88

WIDE RECEIVER • UTAH STATE • 6TH YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 185 • BORN: 7/23/57 • (ACQ: D-8, '79)

PRO: Consistent contributor on special teams in 1984 ... Regular member of kickoff team which led National Football League in coverage ... Registered three unassisted tackles and five assists ... Appeared in 15 of 16 games ... All-out hustler and intense competitor, he again served as backup to James Lofton at split end ... Caught 2 passes for 16 yards ... Hampered by injuries in 1981 and '82 ... Saw limited action in '81 after missing first five games of regular season because of neck injury received during pre-season ... Spent '82 season on injured reserve because of shoulder problem ... Had best per-catch average among Packer receivers in 1980 with 21.8-yard mark for 5 receptions ... Also was Packers' leading punt returner that season, averaging 8.2 yards for 17 runbacks ... Has shown impressive ability to make the difficult, acrobatic catch.

COLLEGE: Was "walk-on" candidate at Utah State after spending first two collegiate seasons at Fullerton, CA, Junior College ... Earned four varsity track letters at Utah State ... Physical education-recreation major.

PERSONAL: Given name Ronald Gene Cassidy ... Nickname: "Seal Beach Barracuda" ... Married (Celia) and father of daughter, Aislinn (born 7/24/84) ... Jessie Clark - 33

FULLBACK • ARKANSAS • 3RD YEAR

HT: 6-0 • WT: 233 • BORN: 1/3/60 • (ACQ: D-7, '83)

PRO: Coming off an impressive rookie season, he established himself as a quality NFL fullback in 1984 ... Started first 11 games before incurring elbow injury which sidelined him for the rest of year ... Despite sitting out last 5 weeks, he closed out as Packers' No. 3 rusher (375 yards in 87 carries, a 4.3 average, and 4 touchdowns) and No. 4 receiver (29 receptions for 234 yards and 2 TDs) ... A reckless, all-out runner with raw power, Clark emerged as team's No. 2 rusher as a rookie, gaining 328 yards in 71 carries for an imposing 4.6-yard average, despite being hampered by a turf toe injury for several weeks ... He also teamed with quarterback Lynn Dickey to forge the Packers' longest offensive play of the 1983 season, a 75-yard pass-run touchdown in a 55-14 triumph over Tampa Bay, October 2 ... Complements his rushing and receiving contributions with a solid and consistent performance as a blocker ... Was a special teams standout as a rookie, registering 13 unassisted tackles on coverage units.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at Arkansas ... Posted 4.4 career rushing average ... Transfer from Louisiana Tech in 1980 ... Redshirted in '80, then won No. 1 fullback job in spring drills of '81 ... Sociology major.

PERSONAL: Given name Jessie Clark ... Single ... Graduate of Crossett, AR, High School, where he rushed for 950 yards and 12 touchdowns as a senior ... Paul Coffman - 82

TIGHT END • KANSAS STATE • 8TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 225 • BORN: 3/29/56 • (ACQ: FA, '78)

PRO: Now entrenched as the premier tight end in the National Football Conference after being named Pro Bowl starter for second year in a row, he is uncrowned king of them all as far as Packer receivers coach Lew Carpenter is concerned. "Paul is the best all-around tight end in the league," Carpenter says, "as far as both blocking and receiving are concerned" ... A Pro Bowl selection for a third straight year last season, he led all NFL tight ends in touchdown receptions with nine and now ranks second only to San Diego's Kellin Winslow among NFL's active tight ends with a career total of 33 ... Closed out season as Packers' No. 2 receiver, behind fellow Pro Bowler James Lofton, with 43 catches despite missing 2½ games because of knee injury incurred in second quarter of season opener against Cardinals (Sept. 2) ... Also ranked second in team scoring with 54 points, only seven fewer than club leader Al Del Greco ... Only two others, wide receivers Roy Green of St. Louis and Freddie Solomon of Super Bowl champion San Francisco, with 12 and 10, respectively, had more TD catches than the Packer workhorse ... Had four of those scoring receptions in a two-game span, two in helping the Packers end a seven-game losing streak with a 41-9 victory over Detroit, Oct. 28 and two more to key a 23-13 win over the Saints at New Orleans a week later (Nov. 4) ... Shared game receiving honors in 1984 Pro Bowl at Honolulu, catching 5 passes for 37 yards and one TD to help the NFC rout the AFC, 45-3 ... Only one TE in the NFC (the Rams' Mike Barber, who had 55), caught more passes in 1983 than the consistently productive Kansan, who made 54 receptions for 814 yards and a 15.1-yard average. Only three receivers in the entire NFL—wideouts or tight ends—surpassed his season total of 11 touchdowns (Roy Green of the Cardinals had 14, Mike Quick of the Eagles 13 and Todd Christensen of the Raiders 12) ... Those 11 TDs also were the most in a season for a Packer receiver in more than a quarter century—since Bill Howton had 12 in 1956, the Packers' last season in old City (East) Stadium ... Already established as one of the Packers' all-time receiving elite, he enters the 1985 season as the seventh-ranking pass catcher in team history with 273 catches and needs only three receptions to move past Carroll Dale into sixth place ... Based on his productivity ratio to date, Coffman also should in 1985 become only the sixth receiver in the Packers' 66-year history to catch 300 or more passes in a career, joining the legendary Don Hutson, Boyd Dowler, Max McGee, Howton and Lofton ... Had his best performance of 1983 (6 catches for 124 yards and 1 TD) in helping Packers shade Redskins, 48-47, in highest scoring "Monday Night Football" game ever, (October 17) ... Later closed out season with another 100-yard showing in losing effort vs. Bears at Chicago December 18 ... The top pass-receiving TE in Packer history, Coffman now has caught more than 50 passes in a season three times—56 in 1979, 55 in 1981 and 54 in 1983 ... His 1979 total eclipsed the Packers' single season reception record for a tight end (37 by Ron Kramer in 1962) ... Had career single game high vs. Tampa Bay October 12, 1980 when he caught 9 passes for 109 yards and one TD ... Won backup job at TE as rookie free agent in 1978, beating out two other FA's and a drafted rookie ... Later entrenched himself with an outstanding job on special teams ... A literal "walk-on" in the fullest sense of the term, he persuaded former Packer assistant coach John Meyer to give him a tryout on Meyer's visit to the K-State campus in March of '78 to work out Coffman's teammate, linebacker Gary Spani.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at KSU and ninth ranked receiver in school's history at graduation ... Second team All-Big Eight selection.

PERSONAL: Given name Paul Randolph Coffman ... Nickname "Hog" ... Has degree in grain milling from Kansas State ... Married former Amy Allen, May 4, 1985 ... Attended Chase, KS, High School ... Hobbies: Golf, racquetball and skiing ... Hometown: Chase, KS ... Residence: Lees Summit, MO.

Ray Crouse - 21

RUNNING BACK • NEVADA-LAS VEGAS • 2ND YEAR

HT: 5-11 • WT: 214 • BORN: 3/16/59 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: Proved to be a valuable role player in 1984 after leaving Toronto Argonauts of Canadian Football League to join Packers during training camp ... Appeared in all 16 games and closed out season as team's No. 4 rusher (169 yards in 53 carries) ... Also caught 9 passes for 93 yards and one touchdown ... Had best overall day against Tampa Bay in snow-swept Lambeau Field, Dec. 2, rushing for 31 yards in 6 attempts (a 5.1 average) and catching 4 passes for 36 yards and a TD ... Had best rushing afternoon against Vikings in season finale at Minnesota, gaining 43 yards in 6 attempts for an impressive 7.1-yard average ... His overall performance caused Head Coach Forrest Gregg to observe, "Ray Crouse did well when he was called upon" ... In addition to his contributions on offense, Crouse made 2 unassisted tackles and 2 assists on coverage teams, causing one fumble in the process ... Played for Calgary Stampeders of CFL in 1982-83 before joining Toronto in 1984.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman in football at Nevada-Las Vegas ... Broke school record for touchdowns in a season as senior with 15.

PERSONAL: Given name Marlon Ray Crouse ... Single ... Born in Oakland, CA ... Attended Berkeley, CA, High School, lettering for four years in both football and track, for three years in track and for one year in baseball ... Hobbies: Horseback riding, camping, cross-country driving, vacation.

George Cumby - 52

LINEBACKER • OKLAHOMA • 6TH YEAR

HT: 6-½ • WT: 224 • BORN: 7/5/56 • (ACQ: D-1B, '80)

PRO: A talented athlete with fine range and excellent reactions, he has been a three-year starter at right inside linebacker ... Highly consistent performer, he registered 70 unassisted tackles in 1984 and led Packer linebackers in assisted tackles with 23 ... Also had one interception, against Seattle at Milwaukee, October 21, which set up last ditch Packer bid for victory over Seahawks, one which ended with a Seahawk interception in the end zone on second last play of game ... Knocked down one other pass and recovered two fumbles ... Linebacker Coach Herb Paterra, assessing Cumby's 1984 performance, points out, "The biggest transition we had last year in our defense, as a new staff coming in, was at inside linebacker. The outside linebackers played comparably to what had been the case here, but George and Randy Scott had to make a big transition, moving up from five to three yards behind the line of scrimmage. And George made the transition well. His intelligence and athletic ability really give us another dimension in what we can do with an inside linebacker" ... Ex-Sooner was Packers' third-ranking tackler in 1983 with 100 unassisted stops, including a pair of quarterback sacks ... Involved in 131 tackles overall, a total which ranked second only to team leader Mike Douglass' 162 ... Led Packer defense in unassisted tackles in the strike-shortened 1982 season with 69 ... ... Later was involved in 17 tackles during Packers' two playoff games in the Super Bowl Tournament of January, 1983, third highest aggregate on the defensive platoon ... The total included 12 solo stops ... Also recovered a fumble in the playoff opener against the St. Louis Cardinals, triggering Packers' third touchdown in record-breaking 41-16 victory ... Hampered by injury problems as rookie in 1980 but rebounded in 1981 to establish himself as a starter ... Finished as team's No. 3 tackler in '81 with 102 unassisted tackles ... Also caused five fumbles, made three interceptions and knocked down six other passes ... A first round draft choice, he twice was sidelined by knee surgery and spent nearly half of '80 season on injured reserve ... Hurt left knee just prior to pre-season opener vs. San Diego and underwent arthroscopic surgery, returning to action for regular season opener vs. Bears ... Subsequently became a starter vs. Vikings October 26, then injured right knee vs. Pittsburgh Nov. 2 and sat out balance of season following a second surgery.

COLLEGE: Named to AP, UPI, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, Sporting News and Football News first team All-Americas as senior ... Played in '80 Hula and Senior Bowls.

PERSONAL: Given name George Edward Cumby ... Married (Audrey) and father of a son, Christopher George, born 2/2/85 ... Popular member of Packers' off-season speakers' bureau ... Deeply religious, he also speaks on behalf of Christian Fellowship of Athletes on a regular basis ... Attended Thomas K. Gorman High School, Gorman, TX ... Hometown: LaRue, TX.

Al Del Greco - 10

PLACEKICKER • AUBURN • 2ND YEAR

HT: 5-10 • WT: 195 • BORN: 3/2/62 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: Summoned from the Auburn campus in mid-season last October, the stocky Floridian took over as the Packers' resident placekicker in Game Eight and immediately proceeded to stake a claim ... Connecting on his first field goal attempt, a 42-yard effort against Seattle, at Milwaukee, October 21, Del Greco went on to make eight in succession ... Later, after missing his next three attempts, he closed out his personal season with a 30-yard success and finished with a 9-for-12 record overall ... Also emerged as Packers' leading scorer with 61 points, including all 34 conversions he attempted ... His performance prompted Head Coach Forrest Gregg to observe, "I was very pleased with Al Del Greco. I thought he handled pressure real well and I think he'll be a strong kicker in this league for a long time if he continues to improve" ... Played major role in Packers' 23-13 win at New Orleans, Nov. 4, hitting three field goals from 41, 34 and 41 yards) and 2 PAT to account for 11 points and the margin of victory ... Had tryout with Packers in May mini-camp but did not sign contract ... Later signed with Miami and made four of six FG attempts during pre-season before being released when Dolphins' Don Shula decided to retain veteran Uwe von Schamann ... Del Greco subsequently returned to the Auburn campus and was pursuing a degree in business transportation when the Packers called him for a second tryout after incumbent placekicker Eddie Garcia began to have problems ... Less than a month later, Green Bay called a third time, and for Del Greco, it turned out to be the proverbial charm.

COLLEGE: Placekicking specialist at Auburn all four years ... Holds school records for career field goals (42), conversions (110), most field goals in a game (6, vs. Kentucky in 1982) and most consecutive points after touchdown (55) ... Missed only one PAT try during his college career.

PERSONAL: Given name Albert Louis Del Greco, Jr. ... Single ... Attended Coral Gables, FL, High School, where he sharpened his kicking skills while playing right wing on a soccer team ... Tony De Luca - 98

DEFENSIVE END • RHODE ISLAND • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 250 • BORN: 11/16/60 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: Had two 'hitches' with Packers as a rookie in 1984 ... Originally checked in August 22 after being claimed on waivers from the Los Angeles Rams and played in Green Bay's final pre-season game against Indianapolis August 25, embellishing that appearance with a sack of Colt quarterback Art Schlichter ... Subsequently was released August 27 when caught in "numbers game" crunch ... Packer coaches liked what they had seen of him, however ... He later was re-signed on December 12 and played in season finale against Vikings at Minnesota. Strong, sure tackler ... Runs 40 in 4.8 and bench presses 370 pounds.

COLLEGE: Unanimous all-Yankee Conference selection as both junior and; senior ... Pre-season Sporting News All-America as senior ... Four-year letterman ... Consumer affairs major.

PERSONAL: Given name Tony Lawrence DeLuca ... Single ... Attended Greenwich, CN, High School and Milford Academy.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1984 (1-0).

Lynn Dickey - 12

QUARTERBACK • KANSAS STATE • 13TH YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 210 • BORN: 10/19/49 • (ACQ: T-Hou., '76)

PRO: Lynn Dickey, a model of productivity, has passed for more yards and more touchdowns over the past two seasons than any other quarterback in the National Football Conference. And only the Miami Dolphins' Dan Marino, in the league as a whole, has thrown for more touchdowns in that period than the 35-year-old Kansan, one of the premier long passers in the recent history of professional football ... Over the 1983 and '84 seasons, Dickey has amassed 7,653 passing yards and 57 touchdowns, these totals including league-high marks of 4,458 yards and 32 TDs in '83 and 3,195 yards and 25 TDs in '84 ... Only one other passer in the NFL's 65-year history has passed for more yards in a season than Dickey did in 1983, when his 4,458-yard and 32-TD totals set National Football Conference and Packer single season records, San Diego's Dan Fouts passed for 4,715 in 1980 and 4,802 in 1981 ... On an overall basis, Dickey closed out the '84 season as the seventh-ranked passer in the league (he was fifth in the NFC) on the basis of 237 completions in 401 attempts for career-high 59.1 percentage, 3,195 yards, a 7.97-yard average gain per pass and 25 TDs, with 19 interceptions, all of which was good for an overall rating of 85.6 points ... Dickey, who long since has passed for more yards and more touchdowns than any quarterback in Packer history except Bart Starr, holds sole title to every club season or single game record save one — for most touchdowns in a game — and he shares that one ... His season standards include most passes attempted (484), most passes completed (289), most yards gained (4,458) and most touchdown passes (32) ... His single game marks include most attempts (51), most completions (35) and most yards (418), all three of which were registered in a 14-14 overtime tie with Tampa Bay, Oct. 12, 1980, and the single game record for passing percentage, 90.47, set against New Orleans, December 13, 1981 when he completed 19 of 21 attempts ... He also shares the single game record for most TD passes (5) with Cecil Isbell (1942) and Don Horn (1969) ... He is the only Packer passer, however, to have turned this trick twice — vs. New Orleans, December 13, 1981 and vs. the Houston Oilers, September 4, 1983 ... Dickey also owns two other Packer records — for most consecutive completions, 18 vs. Houston, September 4, 1983, and for most 300-yard games in a season (5), also forged in 1983 ... The latter include 333 yards vs. Houston (September 4), 387 vs. Washington (October 17), 383 vs. Minnesota (October 23), 366 vs. Atlanta (November 27) and 345 vs. Chicago (December 4) ... Following the 1982 season, Dickey capped the strike-interrupted campaign with an assault on Packer playoff records, firing four touchdown passes in a 41-16 victory over St. Louis (January 8, 1983) to tie one mark and then passing for 332 yards against Dallas the following week (January 16) to set another ... Dickey also owns the second best career passing marks in Packer history in all major categories ... He is runnerup to Starr in passing attempts (2,517 to Starr's 3,149), completions (1,420 to Starr's 1,808), yards (19,113 to Starr's 23,718), percentage (56.41 to Starr's 57.42) and touchdown passes (120 to Starr's 152) ... Hampered by a series of injuries during the early years of his career, he has started 69 of the Packers last 73 games since the beginning of the 1980 season ... Saw string of 39 consecutive starts end last December 9 when he sat out Game 15 vs. Bears in Chicago because of severe headaches ... Returned to start season finale vs. Vikings following week ... Acquired from Houston in an April, 1976 trade, he missed the last four games of the '76 season following shoulder injury suffered vs. Bears at Chicago in Game 10 ... Injured vs. Los Angeles Rams in Milwaukee, November 13, 1977, suffering a broken leg which sideline him for the balance of that season, the 1978 season and a major portion of the 1979 season ... Took over at beginning of second half of game 13 vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 25, 1979) and, for all practical purposes, has been the Packers' starting quarterback ever since ... Had undergone three operations, plus many months of therapy and rehabilitation during long layoff ... Previously had sat out the '72 season at Houston with a major hip injury ... Third round choice of Oilers in '71 draft.

COLLEGE: One of premier passing quarterbacks in Big Eight Conference history ... Completed 501 of 994 passes for 6,208 yards and 29 touchdowns during collegiate career ... Physical education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Clifford Lynn Dickey ... Married (Sherry) and father of three daughters (Natalie born 3/21/74; Meridith, born 2/9/76; and Elizabeth, born 12/24/79) ... Hobby: Golf ... Finest all-around athlete in history of Osawatomie, KS, High School, which subsequently named its high school stadium in his honor (Lynn Dickey field) following his selection by Houston in the third round of the '71 draft ... Born in Paola, Ks ... Residence: Lenexa, KS.

John Dorsey - 99

LINEBACKER • CONNECTICUT • 2ND YEAR

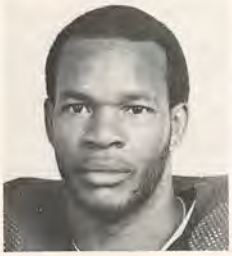

HT: 6-2¼ • WT: 240 • BORN: 8/31/60 • (ACQ: D-4, '84)

PRO: Primarily a special teams operative as a rookie, when he easily qualified for "Player of the Year" honors on a statistical basis, this freewheeling Marylander is expected to push for starting status this season ... "John's gotten bigger and stronger during this off-season," Head Coach Forrest Gregg pointed out, adding, "I think he'll ... create a little competition, and I'd like to see that" ... The swashbuckling Maryland native, a "big hitter" with obvious yen for contact, led all Packer kamikazes in both solo tackles and assists last season, with 19 of the former and 16 of the latter ... Also paced coverage teams in "crawl-ons" with 12 ... "John was in on a lot of hits," Special Teams Coach Chuck Priefer observed, "and in general did a good job for us. He's very conscientious." Employed as a backup at inside linebacker, he also was productive there, piling up 28 unassisted tackles.

COLLEGE: "Defensive Player of the Year" in Yankee Conference as both a junior and senior at Connecticut, averaging nearly 170 tackles per season ... Added first team All-America Division 1-AA honors to his laurels as a senior ... Four-year starter, first two at defensive end before moving to linebacker ... Recorded career total of 495 tackles, including an incredible 23-tackle performance in a game against Rutgers ... Economics major.

PERSONAL: Given name: John Michael Dorsey ... Married (Shari Ann) ... Attended high school and prepped one year at Fort Union Military Academy ... Received All-County football honors while earning second team, all-state honors in la crosse ... Hometown: Leonard Town, MD.

Mike Douglass - 53

LINEBACKER • SAN DIEGO STATE • 8TH YEAR

HT: 6-0 • WT: 214 • BORN: 3/15/55 • (ACQ: D-5, '78)

PRO: Annually ranks among foremost "big play" artists in professional football. Although he is one of the smaller outside linebackers in the game it has not kept him from being a premier impact player, Head Coach Forrest Gregg is quick to point out. "Everybody says that the guy is too small to play an outside backer," Gregg notes, "But what I like to do is look at production, and when you look at Mike Douglass, you see what he does for your football team. He produces — he also makes big plays" ... Gregg's contention is underscored by the fact Douglass led the Green Bay defense in quarterback sacks in 1984, registering 9 for a total of 53 yards in losses ... He also emerged as the No. 3 tackler on Dick Modzelewski's defensive platoon ... The highly mobile San Diego State alumnus was involved in 101 stops overall, making 86 solo tackles and contributing 15 assists ... He also knocked down one pass ... New Packer linebacker coach Herb Paterra, appraising Mike's 1984 season, pointed out, "In the past, they always had him going away from the tight end. Now that he's learned to play his techniques over the tight end, he's become a complete football player — not only a pass rusher but a complete player. Mike plays every down to the fullest — he gives you 100 percent on every down" ... He has led Green Bay defense in unassisted tackles in three seasons — most recently with 127 in 1983 ... Also paced his platoon in 1980 with 122 and in 1981 with 146, being voted Packers' most valuable defensive player in both years by Wisconsin's sports media ... Punctuated his 1983 performance by leading the team in both forced fumbles and recovered fumbles with four each ... In the process, he converted two of the latter into touchdowns, the first against Tampa Bay in Green Bay's Lambeau Field, October 2, when he sacked Buccaneer quarterback Jack Thompson, scooped up the resultant fumble and sprinted 35 yards into the end zone ... The second came two weeks later vs. Washington when he pounced upon a Joe Washington fumble and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown ... That heroic set in motion the most spectacular display of scoring in the history of "Monday Night Football," the Packers going on from there to shade the Redskins, 48-47 in a contest which produced 11 touchdowns, 11 conversions and 6 field goals ... Named to Sports Illustrated all-pro team three times — 1981, '82, and '83 ... Moved into starting role in 1979 after John Anderson suffered a broken arm during training camp ... Emerged as the second leading tackler on the defensive unit that season with 118 unassisted stops ... Also had Packers' longest interception runback of season (46 yards vs. Patriots, October 1) ... An exceptional athlete, he cracked roster as rookie in '78 and wound up starting three games when Anderson broke an arm for the first time ... Underwent knee surgery following '78 season ... Had good (4.8) speed and bench presses 400 pounds.

COLLEGE: Posted 21 QB sacks as a junior ... Triple jumped 50 feet and a 6-foot-8 high jumper at SDS ... Also put shot 59 feet.

PERSONAL: Given name Michael Reese Douglass ... Nickname: "Mad Dog" ... Attended Los Angeles, CA, Jordan High School ... Hobbies: Cars, bowling, cooking and decorating ... Hometown: St. Louis, MO ... Residence: El Cajon, CA.

David Drechsler - 61

OFFENSIVE GUARD • NORTH CAROLINA • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-3½ • WT: 264 • BORN: 7/18/60 • (ACQ: D-2, '83)

PRO: Stepped in as starter at left guard in Game Five of 1983, his rookie year, and made 15 consecutive starts there before giving way to Tim Huffman in fourth week of last season ... Played in all 16 games, running his two-year string to 32 without a miss ... Subsequently underwent back surgery in Washington, D.C., during off-season ... Physically unable to perform at the time of the Packers' veteran mini-camp in last week of May, he has continued to undergo rehabilitation ... One of the most impressive newcomers in recent Packer history, he was runaway winner of Packer "Rookie of the Year" honors in 1983 in balloting by Wisconsin and Upper Michigan sports media.

COLLEGE: First Carolina player to earn first team All-America status in back-to-back years (1981-82) since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner in 1948, '49 respectively ... Named to Football News first team All-America both years ... Was major factor in Tar Heels' setting school offensive record of 4,768 yards gained as a senior ... Along way, he blasted open holes for UNC backs who gained 342 yards vs. Georgia Tech and was paid rare tribute for an offensive lineman with ABC-TV/Chevrolet recognition as "Player of the Game" ... Selected to play in '83 Senior and Hula Bowls ... Also COSIDA 2nd team Academic All-America selection in '81 ... One of eleven NCAA Post Graduate Scholars with 3.29 grade point average in business.

PERSONAL: Given name David Edwin Drechsler (name pronounced DREX-LER) ... Married (Kimberly) ... Played end, guard and tackle at West Rowan County, N.C., High School ... Hobbies: Playing guitar, woodworking, fishing, all sports ... Born in Bethesda, MD. ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

Gerry Ellis - 31

FULLBACK • MISSOURI • 6TH YEAR

HT: 5-11½ • WT: 225 • BORN: 11/12/57 • (ACQ: FA, '80)

PRO: Versatile and talented Missourian already has ensconced himself among the Packers' all-time elite, no small achievement considering he has played only five pro seasons ... Enters the 1985 season ranked well up among top ten rushers and receivers in the team's history — seventh in rushing with 2,910 yards in 648 carries, which figures out to an impressive 4.5-yard average, and eighth in receiving with 219 catches for 3,050 yards ... He last season, in fact, became only the eighth player in Packer annals to catch more than 200 passes in a career, joining the legendary Don Hutson, Boyd Dowler, Max McGee, Bill Howton and Carroll Dale, along with current teammates James Lofton and Paul Coffman ... Also already ranks 24th in team's all-time scoring with 168 points ... His versatility has made the ex-Tiger a key member of the Packer offensive unit. "Gerry's been extremely valuable because he has been able — at a moment's notice — to move to fullback from halfback," Offensive Backfield Coach George Sefcik points out. Sefcik also is sold on Ellis' overall talents, observing, "Gerry makes people miss, he gets more yardage than is blocked for him, and I think he catches the ball extremely well" ... Emerged as team's leading rusher last season for second year in a row, gaining 581 yards in 123 attempts, a substantial 4.7 average, and 4 touchdowns ... Complemented that contribution by finishing as Packers' No. 3 receiver with 36 catches for 312 yards and 2 TDs ... Paced ground game in '83 with 696 yards in 141 carries (a team-leading 4.9 average) and was fourth-ranking receiver on 52 catches for 606 yards ... Had best rushing day of his career to date against Bears in Green Bay, Dec. 4, 1983 amassing 141 yards in 18 carries ... Punctuated that performance with the Packers' longest run from scrimmage of the year, a 71-yarder ... Had another big moment earlier in '83 when his 56-yard reception of a Lynn Dickey pass set up a decisive, 20-yard Jan Stenerud field goal in Packers' 48-47 victory over Washington (Oct. 17) in highest scoring "Monday Night Football" game in NFL history ... Had banner year in '81 when he was Packers' total offense leader (1,359 yards) and set a team record for receptions by a running back (65) ... Also closed out as Green Bay's leading rusher with 860 yards in 196 attempts ... Missed first two games of '80 season as a rookie after being released by Rams and before joining Packers, Game Four against Minnesota in 1981 because of an ankle injury suffered in first half against Rams previous week ... Also hampered by a leg injury early in 1982 season, suffered in season opener against Rams, which limited him to one rushing attempt vs. Rams and a token, non-ball carrying appearance in Game Two vs. New York Giants, and sat out 1983 finale against Bears at Chicago because of a leg injury ... Originally a seventh round draft choice of the Rams, he was released in team's final cutdown for the '80 season.

COLLEGE: Was Missouri's leading scorer (9 TDs) and No. 2 rusher (584 yards and 4.8 average) as a senior ... Also shared team lead in pass receptions ... Transferred to Missouri after one year at Ft. Scott, KS, Junior College.

PERSONAL: Given name Gerry (pronounced 'GARY') Lynn Ellis ... Single ... Graduate of Columbia, MO, Hickman High School ... Hometown: Columbia, MO ... Residence, Green Bay, WI.

Phillip Epps - 85

WIDE RECEIVER • TEXAS CHRISTIAN • 4TH YEAR
HT: 5-9½ • WT: 165 • BORN: 11/11/58 • (ACQ: D-12, '82)

PRO: World class sprinter with excellent hands, he is heir apparent to John Jefferson at flanker ... "I don't think there's any question that Phillip Epps is at a point where he can step in as a starter," Head Coach Forrest Gregg says of the fleet little Texan, listed No. 1 on the pre-season depth chart at his position. "I think he will be hard to unseat" ... Former TCU track star started last four games of '84 following injury to Jefferson, catching 14 passes for 233 yards and 3 touchdowns over that span ... Posted 16.7-yard average per reception overall, second only to James Lofton's 22.0 among Packer receivers, in closing out season with 26 catches for 435 yards ... His biggest moment of '84 came against Bears in Chicago, Dec. 9 when he gathered in "Hail Mary" pass from Rich Campbell in last minute of play, eluded defender Terry Schmidt and sprinted into end zone with what proved to be winning touchdown in 20-14 victory over Bears ... It was a 43-yard maneuver, second longest reception of season for Epps, who earlier had pulled in a 56-yard throw vs. Lions Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 22) ... longest of his career to date ... Lew Carpenter, the Packers' receivers' coach, had labeled him "the best 'third receiver' on any team in the NFL" before his rise to starting status. Voted Packer "Rookie of the Year" in 1982 when he posted team-leading average of 22.6 yards per reception (10 catches for 226 yards and 2 TDs) ... Also finished as ninth ranking punt returner in the National Football Conference ... Caught 18 passes for 313 yards and a 17.4-yard average as a second year pro in 1983 and finished as No. 6 punt returner in the NFC with a 9.0-yard average for 36 runbacks, punctuating his efforts with the longest return of the season in the NFC, a 90-yard TD run which triggered a 55-14 Packer victory over Tampa Bay October 2 ... The 321st of 336 players chosen in the '82 draft, the Atlanta, TX, native overcame long odds to crash the Packer roster ... During 1982's off-season, he starred in another sport — track — running the fifth fastest 60-yard dash ever (6.07 seconds) in a meet at Oklahoma City while competing for Texas Christian in his final year of collegiate eligibility.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at TCU ... Had 100-yard kickoff return as for TD as freshman ... Finished second in 200 meters of NCAA's 1982 outdoor championships (at Provo, Utah) with a 20.1 clocking ... Also ran 10.1 in 100 meters during collegiate career ... Has bachelor of science degree in criminal justice.

PERSONAL: Given name Phillip Earl Epps ... Married (Ceca Renee) and father of daughter (Rachel Renee, born 9-22-84) ... All-state football selection at Atlanta, TX, High School, where he led football team to district title with 11-1 record ... Set national age group record in track as high school freshman with 21.0 time in 220-yard dash ... Hobbies: All sports, reading, music ... Hometown and residence: Atlanta, TX.

FREE SAFETY • PITTSBURGH • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 195 • BORN: 3/24/62 • (ACQ: D-5, '84)

PRO: Had one of the great rookie seasons in Packer history in 1984 ... Installed as starter at free safety from the outset, he grew into the job with impressive dispatch, emerging early as respected "quarterback" of the Packer secondary ... Went on to lead the National Football Conference in interceptions (9), falling only one short of Packers' all-time record in the process, and earning selection by Pro Football Weekly as the NFC's "Defensive Rookie of the Year" ... Also a runaway choice for Packer "Rookie of the Year" honors in balloting by Wisconsin and Upper Michigan sports media, he led the defense in fumble recoveries with three while amassing 72 unassisted tackles and 13 assists ... Narrowly missed tying league and Packer single game records for interceptions vs. Detroit Lions, Oct. 28 ... Made a fourth theft on final play of the game but it was disallowed by officials, who ruled he did not have control of ball before going out of bounds ... Secondary Coach Ken Riley, who predicted stardom for Flynn at the time the Verona, PA, native was drafted, says of him: "Tom Flynn is a guy who you look at and wonder how he can do the job — but he gets the job done. He's very intelligent and a guy who has the knack of being around the ball — he has a great feel for the game ... And he's a leader. He does a good job of coordinating our defense. He's a heads-up ballplayer who makes an adjustment in the secondary when it's needed, and does a good job of disguising our defenses. The biggest thing about Tom is his ability to key in the quarterback ... Overall, his intelligence makes up for his physical limitations — the things that people say he doesn't have" ... Also employed as punt returner, in company with Phil Epps, and averaged 8.6 yards for 15 runbacks ... Consensus NFL All-Rookie Team Selection.

COLLEGE: Quarterbacked Pitt defense that ranked No. 1 in the nation three of his four years ... Cracked Panther starting lineup as a freshman ... Led Pitt secondary in tackles his last three seasons ... Also set school career record for punt returns (979 yards on 121 returns) ... Capped career by playing in Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine games ... NEA second team All-America selection as senior.

PERSONAL: Given name Thomas Jeffery Flynn ... Single ... Quarterbacked his Penn Hills High School team to consecutive state titles as junior and senior, winning all-state honors as both QB and DB ... Lettered three times in track, twice in basketball ... One of 10 children ... Hometown: Verona, PA.

Ron Hallstrom - 65

OFFENSIVE GUARD • IOWA • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 289 • BORN: 6/11/59 • (ACQ: D-1, '82)

PRO: Monolithic ex-Hawkeye entrenched himself as starter at right guard in 1984 following early season revamping of offensive line, living up to his No. 1 draft status in the process ... So impressive was the third-year pro that, after only four weeks, Head Coach Forrest Gregg was prompted to assert, "Ron Hallstrom has really played outstanding football. As far as our right guard position is concerned, that issue is settled" ... Listed as a backup at tackle on the depth chart going into the season after beginning his pro career at guard two years earlier, Hallstrom moved in as a starter in Game Four at Dallas, replacing Syd Kitson ... Developed into devastating run-blocker as well as imposing pass protector for quarterback Lynn Dickey ... Encouraged by that success, Hallstrom later declared, "I want to be a great player. I plan to be remembered — I think everybody should want to be remembered" ... At 6-6 and 290, the huge Massachusetts native has the dimensions Gregg was looking for up front ... Also is possessor of "good feet" ... Packers' first round draft choice in 1982, he played in seven of nine regular season games during strike-interrupted season that year ... Also appeared in Super Bowl Tournament games vs. St. Louis and Dallas ... Was backup to veteran Karl Swanke at left tackle in 1983 and played in all 16 games.

COLLEGE: Won AP and UPI All-Big Ten honors as senior at Iowa — his first year as an offensive lineman ... Played defensive tackle freshman-season at Iowa Central Junior College, earning second team All-America honors ... Also played DT in 1979 following transfer to Iowa ... Red-shirted in 1980, when he was moved to offensive tackle ... Made transition from defense to offense with ease, rising to No. 1 guard entering '81 season, playing in all 11 games and starting for Hawkeyes in Rose Bowl ... Also invited to play in East-West Shrine game, Japan Bowl and Blue-Grey game.

PERSONAL: Given name Ronald David Hallstrom ... Nickname: "Abbs" ... Single ... Lettered twice in football at Moline, IL, High School ... Born in Holden, MA ... Hometown: Moline, IL ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1982 (7-0); 1982-83 playoffs (2-0); 1983 (16-0); 1984 (16-13).

Leotis Harris - 69

OFFENSIVE GUARD • ARKANSAS • 7TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 267 • BORN: 6/28/55 • (ACQ: D-6, '78)

PRO: A five-year starter before being felled by a serious knee injury in the sixth game of the 1983 season, this talented veteran is attempting a comeback after sitting out the entire '84 season while rehabilitating the knee ... Suffered injury in game vs. Detroit Lions, Oct. 9, 1983 ... Until sidelined he had been starter at right guard since early in the 1979 season, when he replaced Mel Jackson ... A year earlier, on December 26, 1982, he had seen a 51-game starting streak end when he had to sit out because of a thigh muscle injury ... Returned to start season finale against Detroit that season and subsequent playoff games against St. Louis and Dallas ... Possesses exceptional quickness, explosive feet, great strength and excellent balance.

COLLEGE: All-America selection at Arkansas ... Voted top offensive lineman in Southwest Conference in 1977 ... Moved to offense midway through sophomore season after beginning career at nose guard ... Medical technology major.

PERSONAL: Given name Leotis Harris ... Nickname: "Big Lee" ... Married (Gloria) and father of four sons (Leotis, Jr., 10; Derrick, 9; Michael, 6; Tony, 5) ... Parts and service representative for Ford dealer in off-season ... Two-time All-America in football at Little Rock, AR, Hall High School ... Hobbies: Fishing, listening to music ... Hometown: Little Rock, AR.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: 1978 (13-0); 1979 (16-12); 1980 (16-16); 1981 (16-16); 1982 (9-8); 1983 (6-6); 1984 (0-0, on injured reserve). 1982-83 Playoffs: (2-2).

Gary Hayes - 27

CORNERBACK • FRESNO STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 180 • BORN: 8/19/57 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: Expected to press for more substantial role in secondary after winning backup berth in Packer "outfield" as free agent in 1984 ... "Gary has improved a lot since coming here from Canada with some Canadian bad habits," say Ken Riley, Packer defensive backfield coach. "Several times he spelled Mark Lee at left corner last year and a couple of times he played the 'nickel.' He also did a good job on special teams. This year he should challenge — if not as a starter, for the 'nickel' job. He developed into a very strong tackler over the season" ... Made 16 unassisted tackles as a defender and shared third place honors with Ed West on special teams, making 15 solo stops and causing 3 fumbles ... Three-year veteran of Canadian Football League, he signed with Packers as free agent March 19, 1984 ... Registered 5 interceptions as member of Edmonton Eskimos' secondary, two each in 1981 and '82 and one in '83 ... Also employed as a punt and kickoff returner, he returned 232 punts a total of 1,799 yards over those three seasons, averaging 7.8 yards per runback ... Had most productive year in 1982, returning 100 punts 818 yards ... Finished sixth in that specialty in CFL's Western Division in 1984, averaging 6.2 yards for 61 runbacks ... Also ranked eighth in kickoff returns with a 20.7-yard average for 13 returns ... Had tryout with St. Louis Cardinals of National Football League in 1980 before moving to the CFL.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Fresno State ... Set then NCA record as freshman, intercepting pass and returning it 100 yards for a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Given name Gary L. Hayes ... Single ... Attended El Cerrito, CA, High School ... Hometown: Richmond, CA.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1984 (16-0).

Gary Hoffman - 92

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • SANTA CLARA • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-8 • WT: 290 • BORN: 9/28/61 • (ACQ: D-10, '84)

PRO: At 6-8 and 290 pounds, this huge Californian easily ranks among the most substantial citizens ever to wear a Packer uniform ... Spent all but one week of rookie, 1984 season on injured reserve after suffering a serious eye injury during the pre-season ... Activated for season finale against Vikings December 16 and made his official Packer debut in the fourth quarter of that 36-14 victory ... Made history of sorts on that occasion, becoming first Santa Clara alumnus ever to play for the Packers ... Has ideal size for an offensive tackle and impressive ability to move for a big man ... Tireless, dedicated athlete.

COLLEGE: Elected captain as sophomore, becoming first underclassman in Santa Clara history to be named a team captain (1981) ... Served in same capacity as junior and senior ... First team AP Little All-America selection as junior ... Red shirted first year at SCU ... underwent arthroscopic knee surgery as junior and played in a game 10 days later.

PERSONAL: Given name Gary Hoffman ... Single ... Proved popular addition to Packers: off-season speakers bureau, often appearing in company with teammate Mark Cannon ... Played football, basketball and participated in track at Christian Brothers High School in Sacramento, CA ... Hometown: Sacramento, CA.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1984 (1-0).

Estus Hood - 38

DEF. BACK • ILLINOIS STATE • 8TH YEAR

HT: 5-11 • WT: 180 • BORN: 11/14/55 • (ACQ: D-3, '78)

PRO: Consistent and heady performer as the Packers' resident "nickel back" in 1984, a role he has carried out for the past four seasons ... "Estus did a very good job for us," according to new secondary coach Ken Riley. "He came in with a great attitude and he really worked. The thing about Estus is that he doesn't make mistakes — he's a veteran ... And he really works on his techniques. He's not the quickest guy in the world, although he has good speed — but his experience and his techniques help him overcome his physical limitations" ... Registered 21 unassisted tackles and 3 assists ... Also intercepted one pass and knocked down five others ... Added two other solo tackles and two assists on special teams coverage ... Was special teams standout in 1983, making 15 unassisted tackles ... Has had 11 career interceptions in regular season play ... Also made intercept in Packers' 41-16 playoff victory over St. Louis Cardinals in Super Bowl Tournament game January 8, 1983 ... Made three thefts as "nickel back" in 1981, two of them figuring prominently in Packers' 26-24 victory over New York Giants at Milwaukee and the other contributing to 35-23, come-from-behind win over Vikings at Minnesota ... Previously two-year starter at left cornerback (1979-80), succeeding departed Willie Buchanon (traded to San Diego) at beginning of '79 season ... Started 31 consecutive games before sitting out 1980 finale vs. Detroit because of strained knee ... Particularly strong against run, he amassed 88 unassisted tackles in '79 ... Impressed Packer coaches as a rookie, intercepting three passes as a part-time performer ... Also blocked a punt that year, an effort fellow kamikaze Walt Landers converted into a 15-yard touchdown run, triggering a 24-3 victory at San Diego.

COLLEGE: Co-captain of ISU football ... Third-ranking punt returner in nation as sophomore.

PERSONAL: Given name Estus Hood III ... Nickname: "Bun-Bunn" ... Married (Diane) and father of two (Estus IV, born 2/6/81, and Elexsia Danielle, born 6/6/83) ... Attended Kankakee, IL, Eastridge High School ... Inducted into ISU Hall of Fame and Kankakee High School Hall of Fame ... Co-chairman of national CP telethon ... Also works with Special Olympians ... Hobbies: Swimming, fishing, bowling, basketball, cards, photography, downhill skiing, racquetball and singing ... Born in Hattiesburg, MS ... Hometown: Kankakee, IL ... Residence: De Pere, WI.

Harlan Huckleby - 25

RUNNING BACK • MICHIGAN • 6TH YEAR

HT: 6-1 • WT: 201 • BORN: 12/30/57 • (ACQ: FA, '80)

PRO: Characterized by Head Coach Forrest Gregg as "a very, very reliable football player for us in 1984 — as a receiver and a running back" ... Employed as situation player, the former University of Michigan standout rushed for 145 yards in 35 carries (a solid 4.1-yard average) and caught 8 passes for 65 yards ... Also contributed on special teams, averaging 18.6 yards for 14 kickoff returns and making 4 solo tackles on kick coverage ... Led team in KOR in 1983 with 18.5-yard average for 41 returns ... En route, he set two Packer records — for most kickoff returns in a game (8) and most kickoff return yards in a game (208), both registered against Washington (October 17, 1983) in the highest scoring "Monday Night Football" game in history ... Also made his presence felt on the other side of the special teams coin, emerging as a standout on kickoff coverage with 10 unassisted tackles ... Used as short yardage specialist at running back, he scored four touchdowns over the season, including two to propel Packers past Bears in Green Bay (31-28) ... In 1981, he won starting job at tailback in Game Five, following an earlier injury to Eddie Lee Ivery, and held it rest of way ... Emerged as Packers' No. 2 rusher and tied James Lofton for runnerup scoring honors for season ... Rushed for 88 yards vs. Giants in his maiden start, his best effort of the season and as a professional to date ... Had 30 attempts that day, fifth highest single game total in Packer history ... Scored three of his eight TDs in '81 in 35-23 victory over Vikings at Bloomington, MN (two rushing and one receiving) ... Was fifth round draft choice of New Orleans Saints in 1979 ... Released in final cutdown for regular season, he played for Saskatchewan Roughriders of Canadian Football League that year ... Signed by Packers as free agent July 24, 1980.

COLLEGE: Was fourth leading rusher in Michigan history (2,956 career yards) at time of graduation ... Played in Rose, Orange and Hula Bowls ... Has 4.5 speed in 40 ... Anchored Michigan's Big Ten champion relay team in track ... Education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Harlan Charles Huckleby ... Nickname: "Huck" ... Married (Carol Ann) ... All-state in football and track (9.5 sprinter) at Cass Tech in Detroit. Hometown and residence: Detroit.

Tim Huffman - 74

OFFENSIVE GUARD • NOTRE DAME • 5TH YEAR

HT: 6-5 • WT: 280 • BORN: 8/31/59 • (ACQ: D-9, '81)

PRO: Most versatile performer in the Packers' offensive line, he moved in as starter at left guard in Game Four of 1984 but played three other positions during the course of the season ... "Everybody has certain abilities," he says, "and I think mine is that I'm able to adjust on the move, so to speak. I don't know if I'm Hall of Fame caliber, but I can play several positions well, which the coaches think is important" ... Jerry Wampfler, Huffman's position coach, notes in tribute to the huge ex-Notre Damer, "We're fortunate to have a person like him who can go from left hand stance to right hand stance and not let it bother him too much. He's made a major contribution to our offensive line. He's progressed, and I think he would have progressed faster if he could have been locked into one position" ... Found himself playing right tackle in '84 season opener when Greg Koch was sidelined by back problem ... Later played two games at left tackle — vs. Tampa Bay, Dec. 2 and vs. Bears, Dec. 9 —when starter Karl Swanke was hobbled by a leg injury ... His versatility is underscored by the fact he had started six games at right guard a year earlier ... The only offensive line position he has not played to date is center ... Started first three games of '83 at right guard before giving way to incumbent Leotis Harris, then three more contests (Oct. 30, Nov. 6 and Nov. 13) following injury to Harris and before yielding primacy at the position to Syd Kitson, who started last five games there ... Had been impressive in three starting assignments in 1982 (two at left guard, one at right) ... Hampered by foot and ankle injuries as a rookie in 1981, he is an above average pass protector with quick feet ... Went on injured reserve in final cutdown for '81 regular season September 1, returned to active roster September 29 ... Made his first pro start vs. Tampa Bay, October 11 of '81 ... Foot injury problem subsequently recurred and he returned to injured reserve list November 13 for balance of season. Offensive Coordinator Bob Schnelker says of him: "Tim has great size, fine intelligence and excellent football temperament."

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at guard for Notre Dame ... Handicapped by foot injuries senior season, breaking fifth metatarsal bone twice, but recovered from second fracture in time to play in '81 Sugar Bowl vs. Georgia and in East-West Shrine and Japan Bowl games.

PERSONAL: Given name Timothy Patrick Huffman ... Single ... Prep All-America at Jefferson High School, Dallas, TX ... Also lettered in track (shot put) ... Made appearance as guest conductor of Milwaukee Symphony for one work, shown on local television, in June of 1985 ... Hobbies: Reading, yardwork ... Brother, Dave, was an All-America center at Notre Dame and now plays for Memphis Showboats of USFL ... Another brother, Richard, is a member of the Indiana University varsity and a third, Steve, plays for Notre Dame ... Birthplace: Canton, OH ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: 1981 (4-1); 1982 (9-3); 1982-83 Playoffs (2-0); 1983 (15-6); 1984 (16-14).

Donnie Humphrey - 79

NOSE TACKLE • AUBURN • 2ND YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 275 • BORN: 4/20/61 • (ACQ: D-3, '84)

PRO: Packers' starting right defensive end as a rookie in 1984, he takes on new role this year as a nose tackle ... Dick Modzelewski, Green Bay's veteran defensive coordinator, is enthusiastic about the switch ... "Donnie Humphrey was born to play nose tackle," he insists. "And one thing about Donnie — if you're going to go to war, you want to go war with a guy like Donnie. He's a tough, determined young man. He has good 'two-gap' hands — the ability to take people on head-on. I have a lot of confidence that he's going to be a very fine nose tackle — he has the right temperament to play the position" ... Humphrey made his debut at NT in Packers' season finale against Vikings at Minnesota last Dec. 16 and impressed coaching staff with that initial effort ... Posted 27 unassisted tackles, including one quarterback sack, and one assist while starting all 16 games.

COLLEGE: First five-year letterman in Auburn football history (was awarded letter in '82 despite missing entire season following knee surgery) ... Given letter for contributing "undying moral support" by attending every team meeting and practice ... Had finest season of collegiate career as junior, being involved in 121 tackles and leading Tigers in sacks with 9 ... Adult education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Donnie Ray Humphrey ... Single ... All-state and all-Southern selection at Johnson High in Huntsville, AL ... Enjoys working with handicapped children ... Born in Madison County, AL ... Hometown: Huntsville, AL.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1984 (16-16).

Eddie Lee Ivery - 40

RUNNING BACK • GEORGIA TECH • 5TH YEAR

HT: 6-½ • WT: 210 • BORN: 7/30/57 • (ACQ: D-1, '79)

PRO: Multi-talented Georgian could have been valid choice for National Football League's "Comeback Player of the Year" in 1984 ... After voluntarily sitting out last eight games of the 1983 season because of a personal problem, he was grounded for the first five weeks of last season by difficulties with a surgical knee ... Erupted from that long inactivity in Game Eight against Detroit in Green Bay's Lambeau Field, rushing for 116 yards in only 9 carries (a robust 12.9-yard average) to key a 41-9 Packer rout of the Lions ... Punctuated that performance, best of the year by a Green Bay running back, with a 49-yard excursion, later to rank as the second longest by a Packer of the entire '84 season ... A major contributor to the cause from that point on, the former Georgia Tech standout later started the last five games of the season at tailback, taking over there when Gerry Ellis moved to fullback to replace the injured Jessie Clark ... Emerged as Packers' leading rusher in three of those starts, gaining 77 yards in 15 attempts and scoring three touchdowns in a 31-6 victory over the Rams, Nov. 18, rushing for 73 yards in 16 carries and snaring 5 passes for 29 yards in a 27-14 win over Tampa Bay, Dec. 2 and registering 50 yards in 12 attempts against tightfisted Bear defense in a 20-14 victory at Chicago, Dec. 9 ... Despite missing those first five weeks he closed out as Green Bay's No. 2 rusher (552 yards in 99 carries and a team-leading 5.6-yard average) and led the way in rushing TDs with 6 ... Also caught 19 passes for 141 yards ... Comebacks are getting to be old hat with Ivery. Suffered knee injury in his very first regular season start at Chicago in 1979 and was sidelined for the season ... He rebounded from that misadventure in 1980 to surface as the Packers' total offense leader, rushing for 831 yards and setting a then team record for receptions by a running back with 50 ... A year later, he again was felled by knee injury in the opening game of the '81 season at Chicago and was lost for the year ... Ivery then proceeded to forge a second comeback in 1982, scoring nine rushing touchdowns during strike-abbreviated season to share National Football Conference honors with the Rams' Wendell Tyler ... Also led Packers in rushing (453 yards in 127) ... Scored one additional TD as receiver with brilliant, diving catch of deflected pass in end zone vs. Vikings ... Later played major role in Packers' first round victory over St. Louis in Super Bowl Tournament, scoring two touchdowns and claiming game rushing honors (67 yards in 13 attempts ... Registered his best rushing day of that season in opener vs. Rams (109 yards in 17 carries) ... Posted best receiving day to date vs. Bucs at Tampa, Oct. 12, 1980, catching 11 passes for 128 yards ... Was team's leading rusher and receiver for '79 pre-season as rookie before suffering knee injury in season opener vs. Bears.

COLLEGE: Set what was then all-time, NCAA single game rushing record as senior, amassing 356 yards vs. Air Force ... Finished eighth in balloting for Heisman Trophy that year ... Established Georgia Tech career records of 609 carries and 3,517 rushing yards ... Team captain and represented football squad on prestigious Tech Athletic Board ... Industrial management major.

PERSONAL: Given name Eddie Lee Ivery ... Married (Anna) and father of two (Tauvia, 4, and Eddie Lee, Jr., 2) ... Prep All-America at Thomson, GA, High School ... Hometown: Thomson, GA ... Residence: Decatur, GA.

HT: 6-1 • WT: 198 • BORN: 2/3/56 • (ACQ: T-San Diego, '81)

PRO: Has been a Packer for only 54 games but on the verge of crashing the team's all-time top ten in receiving ... Enters 1985 season in 12th place with 149 receptions, only 26 fewer than 10th ranking Rich McGeorge (175) ... Had 26 catches for 339 yards and a 13.0-yard average in 1984 ... Missed three of last four games because of a rib injury suffered in Rams game at Milwaukee, November 18 ... A year earlier, he forged his best of four seasons as a Packer, making 57 catches for 830 yards, a 14.6-yard average, and 7 TDs in finishing just one reception behind team leader James Lofton ... Now has 348 career catches in seven seasons, 265 of them with the air-minded San Diego Chargers before being traded to the Packers, and 47 career touchdowns ... Veteran receivers coach Lew Carpenter, commenting on Jefferson's extraordinary catching skills, says, "J.J. has the finest hand-to-eye coordination of any receiver I've ever seen" ... Acquired from Chargers Sept. 17, 1981 in exchange for flanker Aundra Thompson, the Packers' No. 2 draft choices in 1982 and 1984 and their No. 1 selection in '83, along with the right to exchange places in the first round of the '82 draft ... J.J. promptly made the trade a profitable one, helping to ignite a 6-2 Packer turnabout in the second half of the season with his infectious and uninhibited "cheerleading" ... On the field, he combined with the gifted James Lofton to put stout pressure on enemy defenses ... His ability to make the tough, "first down" catch consistently also has been a major contribution to the Green Bay attack ever since he made his first appearance as a Packer on September 27, 1981, when he made 7 catches for 121 yards against the Vikings at Milwaukee ... Though he had missed the first three weeks of the season, he made such an impact on Packer fans he was voted team's "Most Popular Player" in a late-season poll conducted by a Green Bay radio station ... Went without a touchdown reception during the 1982 regular season, but he made up for oversight during the playoffs, snaring two TD passes in Game One vs. St. Louis (Jan. 8, 1983) ... One of them, a 60-yarder, staked the Packers to a permanent 7-3 lead in the first quarter ... He closed out the game with 148 yards (on 6 catches), setting an all-time Packer playoff yardage record for receiving ... Was named to Pro Bowl for fourth time following season and emerged as game's MVP after making spectacular, diving fourth down catch to keep last-minute drive alive, then grabbing TD pass in end zone to produce come-from-behind victory ... Now has 22 100-yard receiving days to his credit, his most recent coming last November 6 when he had 7 catches for 102 yards and one TD in 35-21 Packer victory over the Browns at Milwaukee ... In 1980, while with San Diego, he became first player in NFL history to gain at least 1,000 yards receiving in each of his first three seasons, making a career high 82 catches in the process ... During this 45-game span, he caught 36 TD passes and was shut out only once—when he went without a catch against Buffalo Sept. 16, 1979, only because Chargers did not aim a pass at him when he was assigned double coverage, which helped contribute to a 245-yard team rushing performance ... Led NFL in TD catches in 1978 as a rookie, and again in 1980, both times with 13.

COLLEGE: All-America selection at Arizona State ... Starter in both Hula and Japan Bowls following senior season ... Caught 175 passes for 19 TDs in four seasons ... Fourteenth player chosen in '78 draft and third wide receiver, behind James Lofton and Wes Chandler (now with San Diego).

PERSONAL: Given name John Larry Jefferson ... Married (DeWanda) and father of two, daughter, Tiffany, 5 ... and a son, John Larry II, born 5/14/84 ... Born in Dallas, TX ... and played prep football at Franklin Delano Roosevelt High School in Oak Cliff, a Dallas suburb ... Caught 161 passes for 3,997 yards (24.8 average) and 41 TDs in three seasons ... Ran 100 yards in :09.6 and 220 yards in :21.2 for track team.

Ezra Johnson - 90

DEFENSIVE END • MORRIS BROWN • 9TH YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 255 • BORN: 10/2/55 • (ACQ: D-1b, '77)

PRO: Could be the key to Packer pass rush in 1985 ... A gifted athlete, he comes off back surgery for the second year in a row with high hopes he is free of the disc problem which restricted him to a part-time role as Green Bay's "designated pass rusher" last season ... "I respect anybody who can play with pain," says Packer Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski, "and there were times in meetings last season where Ezra had to stand up because he couldn't bear the pain. Yet he wanted to practice and I had to tell him to back off a little bit because, once he practiced, he always went full speed ... I consider him one of the premier pass rushers in the National Football League and we hope to be able to play him full time this season. If not, we will have to utilize him as the designated pass-rusher, what we call the rover. It's important for us to have him on the field because he also has leadership qualities — a lot of people look up to him. He's an all-out, team effort type of player" ... Despite seeing only limited action, Johnson finished season as Packers' No. 2 sack artist with 7 for 55 yards in losses ... He previously had undergone disc surgery for the first time in March of 1984 ... Ranked among National Football Conference leaders in 1983 with 14½ QB sacks although consistently double-teamed ... Also led Packer defensive line in unassisted tackles with 86 ... Likewise led defense in strike-shortened 1982 season with five sacks and shared tackle honors for defensive line with Terry Jones at 37 ... Also cut substantial figure in '82 playoffs, making pair of sacks in Packers' opening victory over St. Louis and recovering a fumble in second game at Dallas ... Led defensive line in solo tackles in 1980 with 53, including 9 sacks which gave him a share of team lead ... Shared duty with Casey Merrill at right end in 1981 but started all nine games in '82 ... Handicapped by injury in '79, when he sprained left ankle in Game Five and was sidelined for five weeks ... Started all 16 games in '78 and sacked QB Greg Landry five times in Pack's opening, 13-7 win over Detroit ... Capped big personal year with outstanding performance for NFC squad in Pro Bowl ... Blocked 4 kicks (2 FGs, 2 PAT) as rookie in '77 ... Has career total of 80 QB sacks ... Came to Packers from Oakland in 1977 draft as final compensation awarded Green Bay for linebacker Ted Hendricks, who had signed with Raiders in 1975 ... Was Packers' second No. 1 choice in '77.

COLLEGE: Chosen on a number of black All-America teams in '76 ... Amassed 112 solo tackles as senior, including 28 quarterback sacks.

PERSONAL: Given name Ezra Ray Johnson ... Married (Carmen) ... Played prep football at Shreveport, LA, Green Oaks High School ... Hometown and residence: Shreveport.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts: 1977 (14-0); 1978 (16-16); 1979 (11-11); 1980 (15-15); 1981 (16-1); 1982 (9-9); 1982-83 Playoffs: (2-2); 1983 (16-16); 1984 (13-0).

Daryll Jones - 43

DEFENSIVE BACK • GEORGIA • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 195 • BORN: 3/23/62 • (ACQ: D-7, '84)

PRO: This former quarterback made his presence felt as a rookie in 1984, both as a backup at strong safety and on special teams ... His overall performance brought commendation from secondary coach Ken Riley, who observed, "Daryll made big strides last year in learning our system, and he did a good job on special teams. We used him in certain defenses and he also did a good job there. He's very aggressive, and a good tackler. I think he's going to be a good strong safety. With a year under his belt, he should be much better" ... Ranked among leaders in special teams tackles with 9 ... Also had 8 assists ... On defense, he weighed in with 7 solo stops and also recovered 2 fumbles.

COLLEGE: A quarterback his first three seasons, he moved to defensive back as senior at Georgia and led team in interceptions ... Played cornerback for Bulldogs ... Was a quarterback on Georgia's 1980 national championship team and a member of the winningest football class in school's history (44-4-2 for four years) ... Also played varsity baseball and was drafted by Pittsburgh Pirates.

PERSONAL: Given name Daryll Jones ... Nickname: "D.J." ... Married (Dena) ... Attended Carver High School (Columbus, GA), winning prep All-America honors and setting a Region 2-AAAA passing yardage record with over 3,200 yards and connecting for 27 touchdowns ... Continuing education towards communications degree.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — (16-0).

Terry Jones - 63

NOSE TACKLE • ALABAMA • 8TH YEAR

HT: 6-2 • WT: 260 • BORN: 11/8/56 • (ACQ: D-11, '78)

PRO: Made strong recovery last season from torn achilles tendon which sidelined him for all but the opening play of 1983, returning to start all 16 games in '84 and lead the Packer defensive line in unassisted tackles with 39 ... Also had 5 assists, registered 4 quarterback sacks for 38 yards in losses and batted down 2 passes ... Suffered torn achilles on first play of '83 season against Oilers at Houston, ending a string of 25 consecutive starts ... Dick Modzelewski, Packer defensive coordinator, calls Jones "the real technician in our defensive line. He does everything according to the book, as far as his playing nose tackle is concerned. He has a natural ability to unlock his arms on the center — getting the separation between him and the center that you want a nose tackle to have. He's also a technician on the pass rush. I have a lot of confidence in him. He came off that injury of 1983 and never complained, never said a word — just kept playing and practicing all the time ... Terry also is a smart football player — he knows the keys — knows the reads, very seldom makes a mistake" ... Shared tackle honors for defensive line with right end Ezra Johnson in 1982, making 37 solo stops ... Came into his own as a professional in 1981, when he reclaimed starting assignment at NT and led Packer defensive line in unassisted tackles with 82 ... Had been used primarily in reserve role in 1980, appearing in 15 games and making one start in behalf of injured Charles Johnson ... Started first two games of season in '79 before incurring knee injury, then returned to start last three ... Had been one of Packer coaches' more pleasant surprises in '78 ... A low (11th round) draft choice, he proved a consistent and capable performer in a reserve role.

COLLEGE: Alabama's starting center as sophomore and junior, he transferred to defensive team at nose guard as a senior ... Has B.S. degree in education (industrial arts/physical education).

PERSONAL: Given name Terry Wayne Jones ... Nickname "Big T" ... Substitute teacher in off-season ... Married (Willie Mays) and father of two (Terry, Jr., born 12/3/79, and Teresha Maya, born 11/25/80) ... Played prep football at Sanderville, GA, Washington County High School ... Hobbies: remote cars and airplanes, woodworking ... Wife is a third year law student at the University of Alabama.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1978 (16-0); 1979 (16-6); 1980 (15-1); 1981 (16-16); 1982 (9-9); 1982-83 Playoffs (2-2); 1983 (1-0); 1984 (16-16).

Greg Koch - 68

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • ARKANSAS • 9TH YEAR

HT: 6-4 • WT: 276 • BORN: 6/14/55 • (ACQ: D-2, '77)

PRO: Head Coach Forrest Gregg, himself one of the all-time greats at offensive tackle, describes this nine-year veteran as "very dependable" adding, "Greg did a good job for us last year" ... Started and played in 15 games after sitting out season opener vs. Cardinals, September 2, because of flareup by chronic back problem ... One of team's elder statesmen, he is out-ranked in terms of Packer service by only three players — center Larry McCarren, quarterback Lynn Dickey and defensive back Mike McCoy ... Can play guard as well as tackle, having stepped in at right guard for two games in 1983 following injury to Leotis Harris ... Made first start there vs. then world champion Washington Oct. 17, 1983 and played a major role as pass protector for Dickey as Packers outscored the Redskins, 48-47, in the highest scoring "Monday Night Football" game ever played ... Started there again vs. Vikings following week before returning to his customary right tackle position ... Also effective run-blocker, the big Texan has been the Packers' starter at RT since 1978 ... One of the game's more durable performers, he had made 78 consecutive starts before a back problem forced him to sit out Game Three vs. Rams in '83 ... Returned to the lineup a week later and started remaining 13 games of the season ... Articulate, committed athlete, he has become a prominent team leader ... Also a dedicated weightlifter, he has developed impressive strength, bench pressing 500 pounds ... Wears No. 68, previously worn by former all-pro guard Gale Gillingham ... Named to NEA all-pro second team following 1982 season ... Replaced Dick Himes as starter in 1978 after working as swing tackle during rookie season ... Made one start at left tackle and two at right tackle when injuries sidelined Mark Koncar.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter for Razorbacks ... Chemistry major.

PERSONAL: Given name Gregory Michael Koch (pronounced 'Cook') ... Nickname: "Bubba" ... Married (Renee) ... Co-owner temporary labor service, with father, in Houston, TX ... Attended Houston's Spring Woods High School ... Born in Bethesda, MD ... Hobbies: Golf, weightlifting, "anything to do with the beach" ... Residence: Houston, TX.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1977 (14-3); 1978 (16-16); 1979 (16-16); 1980 (16-16); 1981 (16-16); 1982 (9-9); 1982-83 Playoffs (2-2); 1983 (16-15); 1984 (15-15).

Mark Lee - 22

CORNERBACK • WASHINGTON • 6TH YEAR

HT: 5-11 • WT: 188 • BORN: 3/20/58 • (ACQ: D-2, '80)

PRO: Had best season of his pro career in 1984, his fourth as a starter at left cornerback ... Ken Riley, who took over as Packers' secondary coach last season, was impressed with Lee's overall performance. "Mark had an excellent year," he said. "He came in with a great attitude and he worked at it. In fact, he played hurt toward the end of the season — and never complained. He has the potential to be a great corner — he's a natural athlete. He makes things look so simple — he does things so naturally" ... Underwent disc surgery in March to correct disc problem but is expected to be at full speed when regular season opens ... Broke up 15 passes last season, sharing team lead with Mark Murphy, and intercepted 3 others ... It was fourth consecutive season he has either led Packer secondary — or shared the lead — in knocking down opponent passes ... Showed way in 1983 with seven and also was runnerup in interceptions with four ... Also led "outfield" in breaking up passes in 1981 with 17 and during the strike-shortened nine-game season in 1982 with eight ... Following the '82 season, he triggered glittering opportunity for Packers in fourth quarter of final playoff game vs. Dallas (Jan. 16, 1983), intercepting Danny White pass and returning it 22 yards for a touchdown which temporarily cut Cowboys' lead to 30-26 ... Shared team interception honors in '81 with six ... Also emerged as Packers' leading punt returner that season, running one back 94 yards for a TD against Giants—longest such return in the league in '81 and second longest in Green Bay's National Football League history ... Has excellent (4.4) speed in 40 ... Handicapped in rookie season by hamstring injury suffered opening day of training camp.

COLLEGE: UPI second team All-America selection as senior ... Ran back three punts for TDs same season.

PERSONAL: Given name Mark Anthony Lee ... Single ... Graduate of Hanford, CA, High School ... Has seven brothers and five sisters ... Hometown: Hanford, CA ... Residence: Bellevue, WA.

Cliff Lewis - 56

LINEBACKER • SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI • 5TH YEAR

HT: 6-1 • WT: 228 • BORN: 11/9/59 • (ACQ: D-12, '81)

PRO: Freewheeling, all-out performer, he again was special teams standout in 1984 ... Finished as runnerup in unassisted tackles with 17 and also led kamikazes in fumble recoveries with three ... "Cliff knows only one speed," says Special Teams Coach Chuck Priefer, "and that's full speed ... He runs hard and he's a good tackler" ... Paced special teams statistically in 1983, amassing 24 solo tackles — 13 on kickoff coverage and 11 on punt coverage ... Also employed as backup to Mike Douglass at outside linebacker, registering 8 unassisted tackles and 4 assists in that role ... Made one start at OLB ("weak" side) in '83 — against the Chicago Bears, December 4 —and turned in impressive performance ... Collected six unassisted tackles, including a sack of Bear quarterback Jim McMahon, to emerge with runnerup tackle honors on Green Bay defense that day in 31-28 victory ... A tough, durable athlete, with good speed and excellent strength, he has yet to miss a game and enters the 1985 season with a consecutive-game streak of 57.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Southern Mississippi ... Was involved in 280 tackles over varsity career ... Radio-television major.

PERSONAL: Given name Cliff Sylvester Lewis ... Single ... Attended Fort Walton Beach, FL, High School ... Born in Brewton, AL ... Residence: Fort Walton, Beach, FL.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: 1981 (16-0); 1982 (9-0); 1982-83 Playoffs (2-0); 1983 (16-1); 1984 (16-0).

Tim Lewis - 26

CORNERBACK • PITTSBURGH • 3RD YEAR

HT: 5-11 • WT: 191 • BORN: 12/18/61 • (ACQ: D-1, '83)

PRO: Talented Pittsburgh alumnus, the Packers' No. 1 draft choice in 1983, has begun to surface as a potential all-pro ... Made seven interceptions, most by a Packer cornerback since 1978 when Willie Buchanon had nine, highlighting that artistry by returning a fourth quarter theft against the Rams 99 yards for a touchdown at Milwaukee, November 18 to set an all-time Packer record ... Also knocked down 13 passes and made 52 unassisted tackles ... Ken Riley, the Packers' secondary coach, says of Lewis: "Tim is blessed with great overall ability. He also has great ability to concentrate on the receiver and he makes the big play — he's a big play cornerback. He has a knack of getting the interception, which you can't teach anybody. He also has great recovery ability. Tim has the potential to be a great cornerback. He had a great year last year, so he's had a taste of success and I think he wants more" ... Perkasie, PA, native became a starter at right cornerback in Game Nine of his rookie year following injury to Mike McCoy ... Closed out the season just six weeks later as the team's co-leader in interceptions, sharing honors with John Anderson at 5 ... Made immediate impact in his starting bow vs. Cleveland, registering two interceptions and playing a key role in Packers' 35-21 victory over Browns ... Posted his first pro intercept in second quarter, returning it 46 yards to Cleveland 22, from where Packers scored in four plays ... His second theft of the day, at the Green Bay 5, ended a major Cleveland threat ... Lewis' first interception runback (46 yards) turned out to be the Packers' longest of the season ... He also had two interceptions in '83 season finale at Chicago ... Finished season with 36 unassisted tackles ... Also employed as a kickoff returner, he averaged 17.7 yards for 20 runbacks ... Owns spectacular 21.8-yard average for 12 career interception returns to date.

COLLEGE: Named to NEA second All-America as senior ... Chosen to play in Senior and Hula Bowls ... Economics major.

PERSONAL: Given name Timothy Jay Lewis ... Single ... Exceptionally articulate, he has become highly popular member of Packers' off-season player speakers' bureau ... Brother, Will, plays for Houston Gamblers of USFL ... Earned three letters in both football and track and one in basketball at Pennridge, PA, High School and was MVP in all three sports ... Hobbies: Fishing, boating, music, dancing, model cars.

James Lofton - 80

WIDE RECEIVER • STANFORD • 8TH YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 204 • BORN: 7/5/56 • (ACQ: D-1, '78)

PRO: Blessed with a multiplicity of athletic talents, he ranks as the pre-eminent wide receiver in professional football ... His primacy at the position is underlined by the fact he is the only wideout in the National Football League to have been elected a Pro Bowl starter — by vote of opposing NFL players and coaches — each of the last five years ... It also is impressively documented statistically ... The former Stanford track All-American, a world class long jumper in his college days, has led the league in average yards per reception the last two years — with a 22.4 average in 1983 and a 22.0 ratio in 1984 ... Possessor of superior size (6-3) and exceptional speed (4.3 in the 40), he had six 100-yard receiving days along the way — including a league-high, 206-yard effort against the Broncos in snow-swept Mile High Stadium at Denver the night of October 15 ... A virtuoso performance, it saw Lofton make 11 catches — a personal single game high — for 206 yards despite the treacherous conditions ... Now has 27 100-yard receiving days to his career credit ... Closed out the season with seven touchdown receptions, a total surpassed by only four other receivers in the National Football Conference ... He embellished those contributions by averaging 8.2 yards per carry on 10 rushing attempts — the reverses for which he has become justly famous ... In addition to being a Pro Bowl selection for the fifth straight year, he was named to the NEA all-pro team ... Broke his own Packer single season record for receiving yards for the second year in succession, this time amassing 1,361 yards ... He first eclipsed the club record in 1981 with 1,294, then broke that mark in 1983 with 1,300 yards ... Capped his personal season with 3 catches for 31 yards and one touchdown in the Pro Bowl at Honolulu, January 27 ... His veteran position coach, Lew Carpenter, is one of Lofton's most ardent admirers ... Capenter, who had coached such celebrated wideouts as Charlie Taylor, Ahmad Rashad and Mel Gray, says, "James is as good as any receiver I've seen" ... Was second most productive pass-catcher in National Football Conference during 1982's strike-abbreviated season, gaining 696 yards on 35 receptions ... Exhibited his versatility in the process, scoring on two brilliant reverses — on both of which he went the route untouched ... Keyed a second half Packer comeback with the first, an 83-yard run vs. the New York Giants at East Rutherford, N.M., September 20 as the Packers rebounded to claim a 27-19 victory ... It was the third longest run from scrimmage in Packer history ... He later turned the trick again, engineering a 71-yard sortie against the Cowboys, tying an all-time NFL playoff record, in the Super Bowl Tournament which followed the '82 season ... Lofton, once a high school quarterback, also demonstrated he still knows how to throw the football, lofting a 43-yard pass to fellow receiver John Jefferson at Baltimore, December 19, 1982 ... With last season's 62 receptions, he moved past Max McGee (345) into third place on the Packers' all-time receiving list with 397 catches ... In Packer history, only fabled Don Hutson (488) and Boyd Dowler (449) now have caught more passes than the former Los Angeles prep star and only Hutson has caught more passes in a season (74) than Lofton, who had 71 catches in both 1980 and '81 ... Now is second only to Hutson in Packer annals in career receiving yards and needs only 329 in 1985 to take over first place ... Hutson had 7,991 in 117 games, Lofton has 7,663 in 105 ... He also has caught at least one pass in every game of his 105-game NFL career except four — one in 1979, vs. Detroit at Milwaukee, Oct. 14; one in 1983 vs. Bengals at Cincinnati on October 30; and two in 1984, vs. the Raiders at Los Angeles, September 9 and vs. the Buccaneers in Green Bay, December 2 ... Highly durable, he has not missed a game in his seven pro seasons and has started all 105 games in which he has appeared ... Highlighted rookie, 1978 season with three TD receptions vs. Saints (Sept. 10), becoming the first Packer to catch three for TDs in one game since McGee performed that feat vs. Rams in 1963 ... Consensus NFL All-Rookie selection and named to NFC Pro Bowl squad that year for first time ... Also saluted as NFC's "Offensive Rookie of the Year" by the NFL Players' Association ... Bench presses over 350 pounds ... Served as team's player representative and is an officer at-large member of the executive committee of the Players' Association.

COLLEGE: Made 68 receptions for 1,216 yards and 16 TDs at Stanford ... Three-time track All-American, he registered world's longest jump in 1978, a 27-foot leap ... Has B.S. degree in industrial engineering.

PERSONAL: Given name James David Lofton ... Married (Beverly) and father of a son (David James, born 1-28-84) ... Executive producer of television's "The James Lofton Show" ... One of five finalists in NFL 'Man of the Year' competition in 1983 ... Active in a number of charitable and community activities ... Has served as state chairman, Mental Health Association of Wisconsin 1982-84; state chairman of March of Dimes Superwalk Walk America; chairman, March of Dimes Golf Tournament 1983-84; chairman "Greater Green Bay Jog-A-Thon" 1981-84; and served as Packer United Way Spokesman in 1983 ... Also was Special Olympics volunteer, board member of Athletes for Youth, speaker for Boys' Club of Milwaukee and Urban League volunteer ... Member of Board of Directors of Milwaukee Ballet ... Wife is a professional model and singer ... Lists hobbies as "active whale watching and toy shopping" ... Born in Fort Ord, CA ... Hometown: Los Angeles, CA ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

Charles Martin - 94

DEFENSIVE END • LIVINGSTON • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 282 • BORN: 8/31/59 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: An unheralded free agent in 1984, he battled his way onto final roster, then proceeded to become a valuable situation performer throughout the regular season ... Expected to become a major contributor in defensive line this year after registering 13 unassisted tackles, including three quarterback sacks, last season ... Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski, an 18-year coaching veteran, calls Martin "probably the hardest worker in practice and in a game that I've ever coached. Totally, I think determination is his key — he's very determined. One thing about Charlie — we can play him at nose tackle, at end or as an inside pass rusher — and he'll give you all-out effort all the time. Plus he does a good job on special teams. And he overwhelms you with confidence. I think he has a good future. And it all goes back to the fact that you play the way you practice ... Charlie never takes it easy" ... Played in all 16 games last season and started two (vs. Seattle Oct. 28 and vs. Detroit Oct. 28) for injured Alphonso Carreker ... Drafted by Birmingham (USFL) in 1983, Martin started for Stallions the entire season ... A hand injury he suffered during his first season handicapped him in 1984 and he was released after three games.

COLLEGE: Voted Most Valuable Player in Gulf-South Conference his senior year at Livingston (Ala.) University (1982) ... All-Gulf South Conference Selection in 1981 and '82 ... Also named to Small College All-America first team ... in both 1981 and '82.

PERSONAL: Given name Charles M. Martin ... Married (Natalie) and father of daughter, Charisse (born 4-10-77) ... Nickname: "Too Mean" ... Hobbies: Weight training, carpentry, pottery, swimming ... Hometown: Canton, GA ... Attended Cherokee High School (Canton) where he won impressive total of 16 letters — four each in football, basketball, soccer and track).

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1984 (16-2).

Larry McCarren - 54

CENTER • ILLINOIS • 13TH YEAR

HT: 6-3 • WT: 263 • BORN: 11/8/51 • (ACQ: D-12, '73)

PRO: One of the most durable and dependable athletes ever to wear Packers' green and gold, he this season joins an elite group ... Becomes only the sixth player in the team's 66-year history to play as many as 13 seasons for Green Bay ... The only others who have scaled this longevity plateau are Bart Starr (16 seasons), Ray Nitschke (15), current Head Coach Forrest Gregg (14) and Charles "Buckets" Goldenberg and Dave Hanner, each of whom played 13 seasons ... Two-time Pro Bowl selection saw his impressive durability streak, which had reached 162 games, come to an end in 1984 ... Suffered a neck injury in Rams game at Milwaukee, Nov. 18 and was sidelined for final four games of season ... His 162-game streak matched the second longest in Packer annals, registered by all-pro defensive end Willie Davis, and fell only 25 games short of the team's all-time record of 187, held by Gregg ... Despite sitting out that last month of the season, he was named alternate to Pro Bowl at center, also to second team all-NFC team by UPI as well as to Joel Buchsbaum's Pro Bowl team in Pro Football Weekly ... Two previous years, he had been named to National Football Conference's Pro Bowl squad following both the 1982 and 1983 seasons ... Also chosen on UPI's all-NFC second team in '83 ... A tireless "workaholic," who easily ranks among the most dedicated and determined performers in Packer history, he first began to gain much overdue recognition in 1981 when he was chosen on Pro Football Weekly's All-NFC team, annually one of the most prestigious "all" teams selected ... A classic example of ability to play with pain and/or inury, he went to great lengths in 1980 to keep his durability streak intact ... Underwent hernia surgery in second week of August, yet returned to start against Bears in season opener just 3½ weeks later and go the distance ... Later shrugged off broken hand (vs. Cincinnati, Oct. 5) with aid of special protective covering devised by Trainer Domenic Gentile to start remaining 11 games of '80 season ... For all practical purposes, the rugged former Illini has been Packers' starting center since opening day of the 1974 season ... Started all but one game that year, all but two in '75 ... Has acquired reputation for playing the nose tackle better than any other center in the league ... An intense, highly intelligent performer, he rarely makes an assignment error ... Began rookie year on taxi squad but clawed way onto active roster by tenth game of season.

COLLEGE: All-Big 10 and Academic All-Big 10 selection as senior ... One of few in University of Illinois history co-captain football team two years ... Played in East-West Shrine game and Hula Bowl following senior season ... Physical education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Laurence Anthony McCarren ... Nickname: "Rock" ... Married (Becky) and father of two daughters (Meghann, 6, and Marie, born 4/28/83) ... Attended Park Forest, IL, High School ... Hometown: Park Forest ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: 1973 (5-0); 1974 (14-13); 1975 (14-12); 1976 (14-14); 1977 (14-14); 1978 (16-16); 1979 (16-16); 1980 (16-16); 1981 (16-16); 1982 (9-9); 1983 (16-16); 1984 (12-12).

Mike McCoy - 29

DEFENSIVE BACK • COLORADO • 9TH YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 190 • BORN: 8/16/53 • (ACQ: D-3, '76)

PRO: Veteran defender is attempting comeback after missing 1½ seasons because of major knee injury ... Previously a model of durability since joining the Packers as a rookie in 1976, he suffered a ruptured quadriceps muscle in Game Nine of 1983 season at Cincinnati, requiring a long recovery and rehabilitation process ... The injury ended a 96-game starting streak for the former U. of Colorado standout ... Later ruptured muscle in the same area during training camp in 1984, an injury which sidelined him for the season ... Had started every game at right cornerback since opening day of the 1977 season prior to that 1983 misadventure in Cincinnati ... Paced the Packer secondary in the Super Bowl Tournament which followed the 1982 season, collecting 14 unassisted tackles in the two games (vs. St. Louis and Dallas) and knocking down two passes ... Had busiest season in 1979, when he amassed 82 solo stops ... Made one start as a rookie in '76, receiving early test by debuting at right corner in season opener vs. San Francisco when starter Perry Smith was injured ... Was special teams standout that season, finishing fourth in NFC kickoff returns and was voted Packer kamikazes' 'Co-Player of the Year' with Steve Wagner ... Can play safety as well as cornerback.

COLLEGE: Scored two touchdowns on returns as senior ... Transferred to Colorado from West Los Angeles, J.C., where he led nation with 10 pass interceptions.

PERSONAL: Given name Mike Charles McCoy ... All-state football selection at West Memphis, AR, High School ... Married (Margaret) ... Nickname: "Taz" ... He and wife have monogramming business in Green Bay ... Hobby: Skiing ... Hometown: West Memphis, AR ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

DEFENSIVE BACK • MONTANA STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 180 • BORN: 5/4/58 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: Became a Packer in 1984 through a quirk of the football fates ... Suffered hamstring injury while playing for Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and later was released ... Subsequently signed with Packers September 25, replacing Dwayne O'Steen on the roster, and went on to play in 11 games and start one — vs. Seattle Oct. 21 — when he stepped in for the injured Tom Flynn at free safety ... Recorded one interception — vs. Saints at New Orleans, Nov. 4 — and recovered one fumble ... Also made 6 unassisted tackles ... Likewise a contributor on special teams, making four solo tackles and adding three assists ... Originally signed with Edmonton one month before the NFL draft in 1980 and helped Eskimos win Canada's "Super Bowl," the Grey Cup, three times ... Started for Eskimos for 4½ years and intercepted at least one pass in each of the three Grey Cup games in which he played ... Packer defensive backfield coach Ken Riley says of him, "As far as physical ability is concerned, Mike has as much as anybody in our secondary ... He has had some bad habits — his tackling was poor when he first joined us last season — but he should improve and when he does, he should be a good football player for us" ... Although he is listed as a free safety on the depth chart, Riley said, "He probably will be tried at cornerback some this year because he has the speed, quickness and the recovery ability to play corner, too."

COLLEGE: Played four years of varsity football and helped Montana State win national championship (Division II) as freshman and Big Sky Conference title as a senior, when he served as co-captain ... Political science major ... Earned law degree from University of Alberta ... Plans to become involved in entertainment and sports law when he leaves football.

PERSONAL: Given name Michael James McLeod ... Married (Vicki) ... Father of two sons (Matthew born 11-19-1982 and Mark, born 7-23-1984) ... Attended Cheynee, WY, East High School ... Blossomed into "star" on Packers' off-season speakers' bureau ... Born in Bozeman, MT ... Hobbies: Skiing, backpacking, white water-rafting, basketball, squash, racquetball.

Blake Moore - 60

CENTER • WOOSTER • 6TH YEAR

HT: 6-5 • WT: 272 • BORN: 5/8/58 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: Counted upon by Head Coach Forrest Gregg to be major contender for starting status this year ... "Blake Moore played exceptionally well when he was in there late last season," the Packer coach says of the huge former Bengal ... Moore, signed as a free agent September 18, 1984 following his release by Cincinnati, started the last four games of the season following the loss of longtime starter Larry McCarren, who suffered a neck injury in the Rams game at Milwaukee, Nov. 18 ... Had biggest personal moment of season when he scored his first pro touchdown during 41-9 victory over Detroit at Green Bay, Oct. 28, pulling in 3-yard scoring pass from quarterback Lynn Dickey in end zone when he filled in as a second tight end ... At 6-5 Moore is the tallest center the Packers have had in over 30 years, since 1950-51 when 6-7 Enrique "Ed" Ecker was a some-time starter ... A versatile lineman who also can play guard. Blake originally signed with the Bengals as a free agent in 1980 — the same year Gregg became head coach of the Bengals ... Backed up Cincinnati's Blair Bush and Dave Rimington ... Gregg described himself as happy with the job Moore did when Bush and Rimington went down. "He came in and played and we won," he said ... Moore played four seasons for the Bengals before being released last September ... Was Cincinnati's player representative.

COLLEGE: All-Ohio Conference center three years in a row at the College of Wooster ... He also was an All-Academic selection as sophomore, junior and senior and a Rhodes Scholar semi-finalist ... Accepted to Harvard Law School and plans to attend law school following football.

PERSONAL: Given name E. Blake Moore ... Married (Cindy) and father of two (Lauren, born 2/2/83 and Hudson, born 6/4/84) ... Attended Chattanooga, TN, Baylor High School ... Has own business in Cincinnati with his wife, providing legal assistance to area law firms (Litigation Support Services) ... Active in charity work in Cincinnati ... Will be making home in Green Bay, beginning in September of 1985 ... Hobbies: Golf, karate.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — Cincinnati 1980 (16-3); 1981 (14-0); 1982 (4-1); 1983 (16-5); Green Bay 1984 (10-4).

Mark Murphy - 37

STRONG SAFETY • WEST LIBERTY STATE • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 201 • BORN: 4/22/58 • (ACQ: FA, '80)

PRO: Rugged, combative Ohioan punctuated his first season as a full-time starter in 1984 by leading the Packer defense in unassisted tackles ... Stepping in at strong safety following an injury to veteran Johnnie Gray, he amassed 94 over the 16-game route, his total including a pair of quarterback sacks for 12 yards in losses ... He also registered 22 assists, made one interception and shared (with Mark Lee) team leadership in knocking down opponent passes with 15 ... In addition, he made two solo stops on kick coverage ... Ken Riley, Packer secondary coach, describes the five-year veteran as "a great competitor, with great intensity. He's an excellent tackler, which is one of his strong points, and he's intelligent as well as a leader" ... Murphy also had been a highly productive performer in 1983 after being installed at strong safety in Game Five following Maurice Harvey's departure and the transfer of Gray to free safety ... He made more unassisted tackles (68) than any other member of the Packer secondary except Gray ... In addition, he was runnerup in number of fumbles forced with three ... Also was substantial contributor on special teams, registering 11 unassisted tackles — 8 of them on kickoff coverage ... Made key interception in playoff game vs. St. Louis following 1982 season, returning it 22 yards to Cardinal 12-yard line to set up Packers' fourth touchdown in 41-16 victory ... Also was regular season standout on special teams in '82, making 8 solo stops on coverage units ... Voted Packer "Rookie of the Year" by Wisconsin sports media in 1981 after injury to Gray thrust him into starting role at strong safety in Game Ten ... Made three interceptions in seven starts, two of those thefts contributing directly to Green Bay victories over Giants and Bears ... First interception came in first pro start vs. Giants Nov. 8 of '81 ... Spent all but one game of rookie season in 1980 on injured reserve after suffering broken hand in pre-season ... Activated for '80 finale against Detroit.

COLLEGE: Football co-captain at West Liberty State and starter at strong safety ... Has B.S. degree in business administration.

Guy Prather - 51

LINEBACKER • GRAMBLING • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 229 • BORN: 3/28/58 • (ACQ: FA, '81)

PRO: Continued to distinguish himself as a major contributor on special teams last season ... Only one other kamikaze, John Dorsey, was involved in more tackles in 1984 than the moustachioed Maryland native ... Figured in 26 overall, making 13 solo stops and also weighing in with 13 assists while helping Packer kickoff coverage team lead the National Football League with an average yield of only 16.0 yards per runback ... Embellished those efforts with 9 "crawl-ons" and also recovered one fumble ... Backup to John Anderson at outside linebacker, he registered 17 additional unassisted tackles and recovered a second fumble in that role ... Forged 14 unassisted tackles on kickoff coverage team in 1983, second highest total by a member of his unit that season ... Had been Packer "Special Teams Player of the Year" as a rookie in 1981 and again in 1982 ... Was runaway leader of suicide squads in '82, piling up 16 solo tackles during the strike-shortened, nine-game season ... Punctuated that performance by recovering fumble in fourth quarter of opener vs. Rams, keying touchdown which gave Packers decisive, go-ahead score in 35-23 comeback victory ... Also special teams' leading tackler in '81 with 27 unassisted stops ... Was first backup at outside linebacker, either strong or weak side, in both 1982 and '83 ... Has not missed a game as a Packer and begins season with 57-game streak ... Had free agent tryout with Dallas Cowboys in 1980.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at linebacker for Grambling ... Two-time All-Southwest Athletic Conference selection ... Earned B.S. Degree in accounting.

PERSONAL: Given name Guy Tyrone Prather (pronounced PRAY-ther) ... Born in Olney, MD ... Attended Gaithersburg, MD, High School ... Hometown and residence: Gaithersburg, MD.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1981 (16-0); 1982 (9-0); 1982-83 Playoffs (2-0); 1983 (16-0); 1984 (16-0).

Del Rodgers - 35

RUNNING BACK • UTAH • 3RD YEAR

HT: 5-10½ • WT: 202 • BORN: 6/22/60 • (ACQ: D-3, '82)

PRO: Rebounded impressively in 1984 from broken neck which sidelined him for entire 1983 season ... Emerged as sixth ranking kickoff returner in National Football Conference, averaging 21.6 yards for 39 runbacks recording longest KOR of the season in the NFC, a 97-yard scoring return in the third quarter against Bears at Chicago's Soldier Field, Dec. 9 that keyed 20-14 Green Bay victory ... Rodgers' spectacular excursion enabled him to share league honors for '84 with Bobby Humphery of the Jets, who had made a 97-yard scoring return against Pittsburgh, Sept. 6 ... Del also rushed 25 times for 94 yards, a 3.8 average, and caught 5 passes, good for 56 yards (an 11.2 average) ... Was valued contributor as a rookie in 1982, when he helped the Packers gain a Super Bowl Tournament berth ... An alert athlete with excellent reactions, he twice recovered fumbles in the end zone for touchdowns (vs. Buffalo Dec. 5 and Detroit Jan. 2) ... Though largely a situation player, he emerged as Packers' No. 3 rusher (175 yards in 46 carries, a 3.5 average) and finished as the team's leading kickoff returner (11th in the National Football Conference) with a 21.8-yard average for 20 runbacks ... Latter included team's longest KOR of the season, a 76-yarder on the opening kickoff at Atlanta which keyed a 38-7 Packer victory, clinching Green Bay's first playoff appearance since 1972 ... Suffered broken neck on third day of training camp in 1983, sidelining him for season.

COLLEGE: First 1,000-yard rusher in Utah's history, he gained 1,127 yards as season, averaging 6.6 yards per rush in leading Western Athletic Conference ... Best game was then school record 232 yards vs. Wyoming ... Consumer law major.

PERSONAL: Given name Roderick Del Rodgers ... Nickname: "Popcorn" ... Single ... Owns and operates Rodgers Auto Retailing (Salt Lake City) and also attends U. of Utah in off-season ... Earned nine letters in three sports (football, basketball, track) at North Salinas, CA, High School, gaining All-America honors as senior, when he rushed for over 2,100 yards ... Hobbies: Fishing, skiing, water skiing, hunting ... Hometown and residence: Salinas, CA.

Randy Scott - 55

LINEBACKER • ALABAMA • 5TH YEAR

HT: 6-1 • WT: 228 • BORN: 1/31/59 • (ACQ: FA, '81)

PRO: One of most productive members of Packer defense last season, the intense, far-ranging Alabamian finished as team's No. 2 tackler ... Stacked up 89 unassisted tackles over the 16-game route, only five fewer than overall leader Mark Murphy ... Total included three quarterback sacks, for 23 yards in losses, and 20 assists ... He also knocked down one pass ... In the process, he won the admiration of Herb Paterra, the Packers' new linebacker coach. "As a coach, I'd like to have size in a linebacker, of course," Paterra admits, "but what Randy Scott lacks in size, he gains in heart. He's a great competitor and a tenacious hitter. He plays well enough to win. He's the kind of linebacker you like to have playing the strong side inside — he's a helluva football player" ... Signed as an unheralded free agent in 1981, he stepped in for the injured Rich Wingo late in the '82 season and became an immediate standout ... Was so impressive in a six-game starting stint (including playoffs) that he was named starter at the position going into the '83 season, the coaches' rating system having shown him to have been the most productive player on the defensive platoon for the time he played ... Suffered knee injury in '83 season opener at Houston, however, and was sidelined for 10 weeks ... Re-claimed starting role for last four games of season and also started all 16 games in 1984 ... Was standout in Super Bowl Tournament following 1982 season, leading defense in tackles with 24 solo hits, capping his surge with a brilliant, 17-tackle performance in the Packers' final playoff against Dallas ... Was stellar performer on special teams as rookie in '81, emerging as second-ranking tackler with 17 unassisted stops ... Has had one interception as pro against, Tampa Bay, December 13, 1983.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Alabama ... Leading tackler in Crimson Tide's Sugar Bowl victory over Arkansas (10 tackles) ... Has marketing degree.

PERSONAL: Given name Randolph Charles Scott ... Single ... Played prep football at Columbia High School in Decatur, GA ... Once had 15 tackles, 12 assists, and recovered two fumbles in one game ... Also earned letters in soccer and track ... Hobbies: Cliff diving and fishing ... Hometown: Decatur, GA ... Residence: Tuscaloosa, AL.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1981 (16-0); 1982 (9-4); 1982-83 Playoffs (2-2); 1983 (6-5); 1984 (16-16).

Bucky Scribner - 13

PUNTER • KANSAS • 3RD YEAR

HT: 6-0 • WT: 202 • BORN: 7/11/60 • (ACQ: D-11, '83)

PRO: Third-ranking punter in National Football Conference last season statistically but rated NFC's best by Head Coach Forrest Gregg. "He was third in the conference but the other two guys who finished ahead of him are 'dome' kickers — Greg Coleman (Vikings) and Brian Hansen (Saints)," Gregg points out. "Based on the number of times that Bucky had to kick outside, I think it was obvious who the best kicker was, in my estimation. I don't think there's any question about that. I'll take Bucky Scribner over the other two" ... Averaged 42.3 yards for 85 punts, with a long of 61, while depositing 18 of his efforts inside the opponents' 20-yard-line ... Also exhibited other athletic skills ... Scooped up bad snap in opener vs. Cardinals, threw "extemporaneous" pass and completed it for first down, only to have play nullified because an ineligible player was downfield ... Also was on target with a pass from punt formation, a planned play, vs. Bears in Chicago, Dec. 9 but ball was dropped ... "He's a good athlete," Special Teams Coach Chuck Priefer observed. "He makes things happen back there" ... Likewise a deft, sure-handed holder for Packer placekickers ... Though a low round draft choice in 1983, the self-assured Kansan won pre-season battle with incumbent Ray Stachowicz to claim Packer punting assignment ... Went on to finish as the third-ranking punter in the NFC with a 41.6-yard average for 69 punts and a respectable net average of 33.5 with the aid of consistently good hang time ... His longest effort was a 70-yarder against the Bengals at Cincinnati, October 30, his longest punt as a pro to date ... First left-footed punter Packers have had since Randy Walker (1974).

COLLEGE: Set Kansas and Big Eight career marks with 44.6-yard average and was three-time consensus all-Big Eight punter ... Averaged 59 yards for six punts at Colorado in final game of KU career ... Has B.A. degree in personnel administration.

PERSONAL: Given name William Charles Scribner ... Nickname: Bucky ... Married (Cindy) ... Attended Lawrence, KS., High School ... Hobbies: Racquetball, golf, hunting, fishing ... Hometown and residence: Lawrence, KS.

Karl Swanke - 67

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • BOSTON COLLEGE • 6TH YEAR

HT: 6-6 • WT: 275 • BORN: 12/29/57 • (ACQ: D-6, '80)

PRO: Huge easterner came into his own during 1984 season, easily his best of five years as a Packer ... Graded out as the No. 1 pass protector in the offensive line over the season, impressive accomplishment considering that unit also boasts the likes of Pro Bowl center Larry McCarren and Greg Koch, one of the National Football League's better offensive tackles ... "Karl played well — he had a good year," Head Coach Forrest Gregg observed, "even though he missed one game and part of another because of an injury" ... Previously started all 16 games in 1983 and was consistent, effective performer ... Had moved into starting berth in 1982 as a third year pro ... Started first eight games of that strike-interrupted, nine-game season before incurring knee injury early in Game Eight at Atlanta December 26, which sidelined him for balance of season ... Mobile Boston College alumnus, blessed with exceptionally quick feet for a man of his dimensions, had been challenging for starting status in 1981 when he suffered his first knee injury in fourth game of the season — vs. Vikings at Milwaukee — and was lost for the year ... Highly intelligent athlete with impressive physical attributes, he is a versatile performer with the ability to play all offensive line positions ... A tackle as a rookie, he was moved to guard in 1981 before returning to tackle in 1982.

COLLEGE: Transferred from tackle to center as junior, back to tackle as senior ... Physics major.

PERSONAL: Given name Karl Vance Swanke ... Nickname: "Karlos" ... Married (Maggie) ... Teaches religious education at a Green Bay church (Annunciation) ... Also assists wife with her work at the Family Violence Center ... Has become busy and popular member of Packers' off-season speakers' bureau during off-season ... Hobbies: Golf ("any-time, any-where, any-weather") and puzzles ... Born in Elmhurst, IL ... Attended Newington, CT, High School ... Life-long Packer fan, he had wanted to be a Packer since he was five years old, when his paternal grandmother (the late Theo Swanke of Tigerton, Shawano, WI, County) brought him to Green Bay to watch Packers practice ... Hometown: Newington, CT ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: 1980 (16-0); 1981 (4-0); 1982 (8-8); 1983 (16-16); 1984 (15-14).

Lenny Taylor - 84

WIDE RECEIVER • TENNESSEE • 2ND YEAR

HT: 5-10¼ • WT: 173 • BORN: 2/15/61 • (ACQ: D-12a, '84)

PRO: Hampered by injury as a rookie in 1984 ... Suffered jammed neck while making reception vs. Rams in pre-season game at Anaheim, CA, Stadium August 18 and did not return to action until late in regular season ... Made full recovery and appeared in last two contests — against Bears, December 9 and against the Vikings, December 16 ... Caught one pass for 8 yards ... Enters 1985 season as back-up at flanker ... Lew Carpenter, veteran Packer receivers coach, says of him: "Lenny has above average speed and hands" ... Was Packers' first selection in twelfth round of NFL's 1984 college draft.

COLLEGE: Established himself as quality receiver at Tennessee as senior in 1983 following graduation of celebrated teammates Willie Gault, Mike Miller and Darryal Wilson ... Caught 26 passes for 372 yards (a 14.3-yard average) and 4 touchdowns, with a long reception of 80 yards ... Liberal arts (sociology) major.

PERSONAL: Given name Lenny Moore Taylor ... Named after former Baltimore Colts star Lenny Moore ... Single ... Product of Southridge High School in Miami ... Hometown: Miami, FL.

Keith Uecker - 70

OFFENSIVE GUARD • AUBURN • 4TH YEAR

HT: 6-5 • WT: 283 • BORN: 6/29/60 • (ACQ: W-Den., '84)

PRO: Big, talented and highly competitive, this late 1984 addition is expected to be a major factor in the offensive line ... "Keith really played well for us last season," Head Coach Forrest Gregg noted. "I think he was really a fine addition to our football team" ... Acquired on waivers from Denver, October 23, after being waived off injured reserve for the purpose of reactivation, Uecker appeared in five games and started two — the latter at left guard, stepping in for Tim Huffman when Huffman temporarily moved to left tackle to replace the injured Karl Swanke ... Had been on I.R. at Denver since the pre-season ... Versatile performer, he can play either guard or tackle ... Should be even more effective this season, having beefed up from 270 to 283 pounds in the off-season via the weight-lifting program implemented by Virgil Knight, Packer strength and conditioning coach ... A ninth round draft choice of the Broncos in 1982, Uecker started two games for Denver as a rookie and played in all 16 games in 1983, being frequently employed in short yardage and goal line situations ... Was handicapped by a foot injury in 1984 before being waived by Broncos with hope of reactivating him in their offensive line.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and starter at Auburn, earning all-SEC honors in 1981 ... Closed out his college career with appearances in the Blue-Gray, East-West games ... Named Tigers' outstanding lineman in 1980, then moved from tackle to guard for senior, 1981 season.

PERSONAL: Given name Richard Keith Uecker ... Single ... Earned nine letters at Hollywood Hills High School, Hollywood, FL, three each in football, baseball and wrestling ... Has taken Tai-Kwon-Do lessons to improve his mobility and footwork ... Part-time accountant in off-season ... Hobbies: Skiing, weightlifting, fishing ... Skied in NFL Pro-Celebrity competition for handicap kids, sponsored by Miami Dolphins' Doug Betters, in off-season ... Hometown and residence: Hollywood, FL.
PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — Denver — 1982 (5); 1983 (16); 1984 — Green Bay — (5-2).

Ken Walter - 95

OFFENSIVE GUARD • TEXAS TECH • 1ST YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 260 • BORN: 3/2/58 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: A former starter with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League, he spent the 1984 season on the Packers' injured reserve list with a leg injury suffered during the pre-season ... Originally was an eighth round draft selection of the Baltimore Colts in 1980 ... After being released by the Colts, Walter signed on with the Eskimos ... Was with Edmonton until 1983, when he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, also of the CFL.
COLLEGE: Became starter at Texas Tech in sophomore year and never left the lineup ... Business/finance major.
PERSONAL: Given name Kenneth Gene Walter ... Married (Deloris) and father of two children (Kandace, born 8/28/79 and Kimberlee, born 11/22/80) ... Attended Corsicana, TX, High School.
PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1984 (0-0).

Ed West - 86

TIGHT END • AUBURN • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 236 • BORN: 8/2/61 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: Spectacularly productive as a rookie in 1984 — both as backup at tight end on special teams ... Signed as free agent May 15, 1984 following Packers' rookie mini-camp, he handled ball only seven times during regular season, yet scored startling total of five touchdowns ... Four of those TDs came as a receiver (in 6 receptions) and the other as a rusher on a two-yard reverse in a 45-17 victory over the Vikings at Milwaukee County Stadium Nov. 11 ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, impressed with Ed's 1984 contributions, says of West: "I think Ed West made a lot of improvement as a rookie last season ... I think we can win in this league with him" ... In addition to his big play efforts from scrimmage, West ranked among the Packers' special teams standouts, sharing third place honors with Gary Hayes in unassisted tackles with 15 — only four behind team leader John Dorsey ... He also had 4 assists, forced one fumble and recovered two others.
COLLEGE: Three-year starter and four-year letterman at Auburn ... Education major.
PERSONAL: Given name Edward Lee West III ... Nickname "Monk" ... Single ... Attended Leighton, AL, High School ... Lettered in football and basketball for four years, baseball and track for one year ... Born in Colbert County, AL ... Hobbies: Fishing, hunting, dancing.
PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — (16-0).

Rich Wingo - 50

LINEBACKER • ALABAMA • 6TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 230 • BORN: 7/18/56 • (ACQ: D-7B, '79)

PRO: Highly reliable and exceptionally productive, he is important role player in Packer defense ... Ideal backup at inside linebacker, where his 1984 performance moved Head Coach Forrest Gregg to note, "Rich did a good job for us. When he played, he played well. We always feel secure in having him in there" ... Played in all 16 games, finishing season with 14 unassisted tackles ... Also made major contribution on special teams, emerging with 11 solo tackles on kick coverage, as well as 5 assists and 4 "crawl-ons" ... A year earlier, he relieved injured Randy Scott at left inside linebacker in fourth quarter of '83 season opener at Houston and started next 10 games there until Scott returned to the lineup ... Typically, he closed out the year among team leaders in production, finishing fourth in unassisted tackles with 89 ... Also was runnerup on the defense in forcing fumbles with 3 ... Previously had started at LILB for 21 consecutive games (all of 1981 and through Game Five of 1982) until injured in Buffalo contest at Milwaukee (December 5, 1982), when he gave way to Scott ... Made one of most important interceptions of '82 season in Game Two vs. Giants, triggering a Jan Stenerud field goal en route to a 27-19 victory ... Had rebounded strongly in 1981 after being sidelined entire 1980 season following back surgery for herinated disc, performed in August of '80 ... Started and played in all 16 games in 1981, stacking up 100 unassisted tackles, including a pair of QB sacks ... Also made one interception, a clutch theft which sealed victory over Seattle in Green Bay (Nov. 1) ... Voted both Packer "Rookie of the Year" and "Defensive Player of the Year" following standout rookie season in 1979 ... Set all-time Packer season record for unassisted tackles (151) — a mark he still holds — despite the fact he did not become a starter until third game of the year ... Before that season was over, former Oakland coach John Madden labeled Wingo "the finest rookie middle linebacker (the Packers then were using the 4-3 defense) I've ever seen" ... Was named to Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest NFL all-rookie teams ... Virtually untested during pre-season of '79 when minor injuries sidelined him for all but the final game, he stepped in for injured Mike Hunt at MLB in Game Two of the regular season vs. Saints and proceeded to entrench himself at the position ... Became a Packer via Willie Buchanon trade to San Diego, which brought Green Bay the Chargers' seventh round choice in '79 (Wingo) and their No. 1 pick in 1980.

COLLEGE: Second leading tackler in Alabama defense as junior ... Education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Richard Allen Wingo ... Nickname: "Wings" ... Married (Cheri) ... Has been active in charitable causes, contributions which earned him Packer NFL "Man of the Year" honors in 1980 ... Sought after as a speaker ... Captain of his football teams from elementary grades through high school ... All-state selection at Elkhart, IN, High School ... Hobbies: Hunting, finishing old trucks ... Hometown: Elkhart, IN ... Residence: Tuscaloosa.

Randy Wright - 16

QUARTERBACK • WISCONSIN • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 194 • BORN: 1/2/61 • (ACQ: D-6, '84)

PRO: Came off Wisconsin campus to win berth as backup to Lynn Dickey at quarterback as a rookie in 1984, a status he was accorded by Head Coach Forrest Gregg going into first pre-season game ... Underwent knee surgery in mid-December, following injury in second last game of season vs. Bears at Chicago, December 9 but is expected to be at full speed by the time the regular season starts ... "We have to have a guy sitting in the second position (at quarterback) who can win for us," Gregg observed. In appraising the quarterback situation, "We think Randy Wright has that capability down the line ... We think he has a future as a football player" ... Wright played in eight games as a rookie and started one — the game at Chicago in which he suffered a second quarter injury after stepping in for Dickey, who had been felled by severe headaches ... Threw touchdown pass in his very first regular season appearance as a professional, firing 7-yard scoring strike to fellow rookie Ed West in second quarter against defending world champion Los Angeles Raiders, September 9, a game which saw him replace an injured Dickey on the first offensive series ... Went on to complete 10 of 24 passes for 67 yards overall, with 2 interceptions ... Had most productive outing against Detroit Thanksgiving Day, completing 5 of 7 passes for 100 yards and one touchdown in relief of Dickey ... Became first player Packers have drafted from University of Wisconsin in 20 years when he was selected in 1984. "We just couldn't pass up Randy," Gregg explained, "when he was still on the board in the sixth round". Bob Schnelker, Packer offensive coordinator, had Wright rated the No. 2 quarterback in the nation going into the 1984 draft ... Has exceptional ability to avoid the rush and is not afraid to run.

COLLEGE: Established seven individual Big Ten passing records as a senior in 1983 while leading Badgers to 12 Big Ten offensive team marks ... Finished career seventh among Big Ten players in passing yards with 5,048 yards ... Earned Blue-Gray game MVP honors ... Transferred to Wisconsin from Notre Dame ... Has degree in communications, with minor in Spanish.

PERSONAL: Given name Randell Steven Wright ... Married Kelli Ames, May 25, 1985 ... Ardent movie fan ... Honorable mention All-America prep star at St. Charles, IL, High School ... Also competed in basketball and track ... Born in Austin, TX, and lived there until age of 16 ... Hometown: St. Charles, IL.

PACKERS 1985 NFL DRAFT

The following players were selected by the Packers in the 1985 National Football League draft. The players appear in the order of their selection.

KEN RUETTGERS • 75 • OT • Southern California
Ht.: 6-5 • Wt.: 275 • Born: Aug. 20, 1962 • D-1

Head Coach Forrest Gregg described Ken Ruettgers as "a football player we have coveted for a long time" in making the USC tackle the Packers' first round choice in the 1985 draft. "We felt our need — in order to make us a better football team right now — was Ken Ruettgers. I guess the thing that I like about Ken over the other people who were available is his intensity," said Gregg, who traded Packer first and second round selections in this year's (1985) draft to Buffalo for the right to move up to seventh position in first round (Bills had acquired that position in trade with Cleveland) ... Packers also received Buffalo's fourth round selection in 1986 draft in the transaction ... Ruettgers (pronounced RUTT-GERS) was a two-year starter at USC, winning all-Pac 10 honors as a senior ... He also was named to the UPI all-West Coast first team last season and voted Trojans' "Offensive Player of the Year" ... Co-captain his senior year, he closed out his collegiate career by playing in the Japan Bowl ... The 1984 season was his "second senior season" after the NCAA granted him a retroactive redshirt year (1980), because 1980 freshmen originally could not redshirt that season ... Dick Corrick, the Packers' director of player personnel, says of him, "In our estimation, Ken was the most dominating lineman in the draft. He's a very physical guy, who plays with just unbelievable pride. On every snap, it's like a personal war with the guy across from him. He also has a tremendous ability to finish blocks — he puts 'em flat on their backs ... Ken also has terrific work habits, and that means a lot around here" ... Ruettgers, a reserve guard from 1980 to 1982 before switching to tackle in 1983, looked impressive early in his freshman year (1980) but a broken hand and then torn right knee cartilage which required surgery permitted him only six minutes of action ... Those injuries allowed him to redshirt ... He played only 14 minutes in 1981 when he was hampered by a broken thumb ... In 1982, he backed up All-America guard Bruce Matthews (now with the Houston Oilers) and played 36 minutes before missing the last four games after breaking his left ankle in a JV game ... High School: Prepped at Garces High in Bakersfield, CA, where he was an All-CIF Central Section offensive and defensive lineman in 1979 ... He also played center and forward on the basketball team, threw the shot and discus for the track team and competed for the golf team.

RICH MORAN • 57 • OC • San Diego State
Ht.: 6-2½ • Wt.: 271 • Born: March 19, 1962 • D-3

A strong and versatile performer, he has played both offensive guard and tackle for the Aztecs but will be employed at center by the Packer coaching staff ... Can make the deep snap, having played center at SDS as a sophomore ... Has bench pressed 440 pounds and squatted 550 ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg calls him "a very aggressive offensive lineman ... There's not too much finesse to him — just power — and that's what we were looking for" ... Dick Corrick, Packer director of player personnel, describes Moran as "tough and an effort player, who is very similar to Ken Ruettgers in regard to temperament and desire" ... Two-year starter at San Diego State ... Recruited as a linebacker, he surprised Aztec coaching staff with his versatility ... Played guard as a freshman in '80, center in '81 and tackle in '83 ... Was redshirted in 1982 because of a pinched nerve in the neck ... High School: Played five positions at Foothill High in Pleasanton, CA ... Also lettered in wrestling.

PERSONAL: Full name is Richard James Moran ... Born in Moscow, Idaho ... Son of Jim Moran, who played professional football for the New York Giants from 1964 through 1969 ... Has 3.1 grade point average ... Richard's brother, Eric, starred at the University of Washington and was drafted in the tenth round by the Dallas Cowboys in 1983 ... Released by Dallas, he played for the L.A. Express of the USFL in 1984 ... Currently is a backup offensive tackle with the Houston Oilers.

WALTER STANLEY • 87 • WR/KR • Mesa College
Ht.: 5-9½ • Wt.: 180 • Born: Nov. 5, 1962 • D-4

First caught collective eye of Packer coaches at National Football League physical workout camp in Phoenix last February, then upgraded that impression in Green Bay's rookie mini-camp in early May ... "One area where we reached a little (in the draft) was with our fourth round pick," Head Coach Forrest Gregg observed, "but after seeing him in our mini-camp, I think that's legit ... I think the one thing that impressed us in our camp over the Phoenix camp was his hands ... During the Phoenix camp, we weren't overly impressed with his ability to catch the ball. That was the one big question that we had in our minds ... I felt good about the pick when we made it and I feel better about it now. He does two things for us —he helps us in the wide receiver area and also in the kick return area ... I have to give credit to Dick Corrick (Packer director of player personnel) and our scouts because they called my attention to him — and after seeing him in our mini-camp, I'm pleased that they did ... We saw the same things in mini-camp that we saw at Phoenix — his ability to run — he has great quickness — and change direction. He can really make some quick moves ... but his hands were much better in our camp than they were at Phoenix — I thought he caught the ball well" ... Played two years of varsity football at Colorado University under Chuck Fairbanks and redshirted one year there before transferring to Mesa College (Grand Junction, CO.) ... Averaged 4.6 yards per rush and 25.6 yards per kickoff return as a freshman, returning both a punt and a kickoff for touchdowns in one game against the University of Oklahoma ... Led CU in kickoff returns as both freshman and sophomore ... Originally utilized as a running back at Oklahoma ... High School: A highly productive prep performer, he rushed for more than 1,600 yards for Chicago South Shore High School, while winning state scoring title with 150 points ... Rushed for 282 yards in one game as a senior, 279 in another as a junior ... Also lettered in basketball and track.

BRIAN NOBLE • 91 • LB • Arizona State
Ht.: 6-3¼ • Wt.: 237 • Born: Sept. 6, 1962 • D-5

"We are looking for bigger people at linebacker, and from that standpoint, he fills the bill," Head Coach Forrest Gregg says of Noble. "We played against him in the Senior Bowl (Gregg was head coach of the South team). We thought he was a good pass-cover guy, thought he was a good tackler and besides that, he blocked a kick against us. That helped him" ... Has played both inside and outside linebacker ... Expected to be tried at the "inside" by the Packers' defensive coaching staff ... Was involved in 60 tackles during the 1984 season, his total including four tackles for seven yards in losses and six quarterback sacks for 29 yards ... Also broke up two passes, forced four fumbles and recovered one ... Tied for team lead in QB sacks as a junior with 8 ... Won first team junior college All-America honors at Fullerton, CA, J.C. in '82, earning California defensive player-of-the-year honors that season ... Set school marks for most sacks in a season (24) and career sacks (36) ... During his two-year tenure at Fullerton, J.C., his school posted an 18-3 record and was ranked among the top five junior college teams nationally ... High School: A 1980 graduate of Anaheim, CA, where he lettered in football for three years and in baseball for one ... Played defensive end and also punted, averaging 42.5 yards per punt.

PERSONAL: Full name is Brian David Noble ... Majoring in business ... Married (Cindy Ann) ... Has three brothers and sisters.

MARK LEWIS • 89 • TE • Texas A&M
Ht.: 6-2 • Wt.: 235 • Born: May 5, 1961 • D-6

"Mark has good size, above average speed, and good hands," says Lew Carpenter, the Packers' veteran receivers coach. "He has kind of in-between size, so he can play either the inside or the outside, like Gary Lewis, the tight end we drafted from Texas-Arlington in 1981" ... Strong for his size, Lewis bench presses 360 pounds ... Texas A&M coach Jackie Sherrill says of him, "You couldn't pour the mold any better as far as a tight end is concerned" ... Suffered torn knee ligaments at the beginning of his sophomore season and was out remainder of the year following surgery ... High School: He was all-city, all-district, all-state and all-America ... Once caught three passes for three district, all-state and all-America ... Once caught three passes for three touchdowns and total of 208 yards in a prep game for Houston's Kashmere High School ... Industrial education major at Texas A&M.

ERIC WILSON • 71 • LB • Maryland
Ht.: 6-1 • Wt.: 247 • Born: Oct. 17, 1962 • D-7(a)

Closed out collegiate career as all-time leading tackler in Maryland history ... A four-year letterman, he co-captained Terrapins in 1985 ... Led Maryland in tackles in 1983 with 180, including two on specialty teams after making the deep snap on punts ... Once had 25 tackles in one game ... Joined his brother, Mark, at Maryland, in 1981 ... Comes to Packers from Minnesota in payment for placekicker Jan Stenerud, dealt to Vikings in 1984 .. Herb Paterra, Packer linebacker coach, says of Wilson: "Eric takes on people well — he does it extremely well. He has limitations, but not so much in his athletic abilities as in his speed ... He has the maturity and character which you like in an inside linebacker. He's a leader-type guy — he's always hustling, he's always going to the ball. With us, he will be an inside linebacker — probably on the strong side." ... High School: All-American at Charlottesville, VA, High School ... Also two-year all-state selection. Basketball forward for four years ... Radio and television major at Maryland.

GARY ELLERSON • 42 • RB • Wisconsin
Ht.: 5-11 • Wt.: 220 • Born: July 7, 1963 • D-7(b)

Made what Head Coach Forrest Gregg described as "a favorable impression" in the Packers' rookie mini-camp in early May despite having missed the 1984 season at Wisconsin because of scholastic difficulties ... "He was overweight but he showed ability as a running back," said Gregg. "He has some things we like — he catches the ball well, he has excellent quickness and he has good acceleration ... George Sefcik (Packer offensive backfield coach) looked at a lot of film on him prior to the draft and Dick Corrick called my attention to him several times" ... Sefcik says of Ellerson: "He's a halfback-or-fullback type, and I think that's important. If the league goes back to a 45-player limit, our running backs will have to be able to play both positions. Gary has adequate speed ... and, in my workout with him I thought he had excellent hands" ... Led Big Ten in kickoff returns in 1982 with 24.0 average for 15 runbacks ... Was Wisconsin's fourth leading rusher in 1982 with 326 yards, 62 carries (a 5.2 average) ... Began Badger career at split end ... Big Ten kickoff return leader in 1984 with 24.0 average. High School: All-Georgia as senior at Monroe H.S., Albany, GA.

KEN STILLS • 30 • DB • Wisconsin
Ht.: 5-10 • Wt.: 185 • Born: Sept. 6, 1963 • D-8

Played cornerback opposite Richard Johnson (a first round selection in this year's draft) for Badgers ... Made five interceptions and broke up six other passes in 1984 ... "In our estimation, he produced better at times last season than Richard Johnson did," says Dick Corrick, Packer Director of Player Personnel ... "We're not trying to say he has the same kind of athletic credentials as Johnson, but there were times when he was more productive ... Ken run-supports pretty well and has good ball reaction and range. He's a tough guy, and he's also the kind of guy who accepts the challenge ... He was eager and ready to play every week" ... Ken Riley, the ex-Bengal standout who coaches the Packer secondary, says of Stills, "He's very competitive and he loves to play the game. He has a great attitude and he's a hard worker" ... Played defensive back at El Camino, CA, Junior College for two seasons before transferring to Wisconsin ... High School: Was both a wide receiver and defensive back at El Camino, H.S. Also participated in track and basketball ... Majored in agricultural journalism at Wisconsin.

MORRIS JOHNSON • 64 • G • Alabama A&M
Ht.: 6-2½ • Wt.: 314 • Born: June 25, 1962 • D-9

Has quickly been dubbed "The Freezer" because of his size, a takeoff on the Chicago Bears' No. 1 draft choice, William Perry, who is called "The Refrigerator" ... Impressed Packer coaches in rookie mini-camp in early May with quickness, mobility and strength ... "From what I've seen of him so far," said Head Coach Forrest Gregg, "I think we made a good pick" ... The Packers' scale did not have the capacity to weigh the newcomer — it only goes to 300 pounds, but his bulk is not a concern to Gregg, although he jested, "The next time he comes in we're going to take him to the stone quarry and weigh him there (on a truck scale) ... Seriously, when you see him with his shirt off, he doesn't look fat, he just looks big and strong" ... Chosen to play in the Freedom Bowl at Atlanta following the 1984 collegiate season.

RONNIE BURGESS • 39 • DB • Wake Forest
Ht.: 5-11 • Wt.: 174 • Born: March 7, 1963 • D-10

Broke Wake Forest's career interception record with five thefts in senior season in 1984, running his total to 17 and breaking previous mark of 13... Has been starter for Deacons ever since freshman year... Described as "strictly a corner" by Packer secondary coach Ken Riley... "He's a quick guy, with good feet," says Riley. "He also has great ability to close on the ball"... Was standout defender at Sumter, S.C., High School—same school that produced Clemson's Terry Kinard, now a New York Giant starter ... Led his Sumter squad in interceptions three straight years ... Speech communications major.

JOE SHIELD • 17 • QB • Trinity College (CT.)
Ht.: 6-1 • Wt.: 185 • Born: June 26, 1962 • D-11

Set a host of season and career records at Trinity College (Hartford, CT), the latter including 476 completions in 845 attempts for 6,646 yards and 52 touchdowns ... His season marks include 264 attempts, 163 completions, 2,186 yards and 19 TD passes... The previous records in these four categories at Trinity endured for 15 years... "Joe doesn't have great size or a real strong arm," says Packer Offensive Coordinator Bob Schnelker, "but he gets things done—he makes things happen. He's a very bright, intelligent kid with a lot of poise and courage" ... Shield, explaining the football success he has had, recalls his childhood, "I was always throwing something — a baseball or a football. Even without anyone around, I'd aim at a clump of grass; I couldn't get enough of it"... Ironically, Shield ran a ball control offense at Brattleboro High School, throwing the ball "maybe five times a game my senior year when we aired it out"... Also was a power-hitting centerfielder-third baseman at Trinity ... An English major, he hopes to get a master's degree while coaching.

JIM MEYER • 11 • P • Arizona State
Ht.: 6-3¾ • Wt.: 204 • Born: Jan. 3, 1962 • D-12

Tied for first in Pac-10 Conference punting in 1984 with a 43.8-yard average and was a second team-all-conference selection for the second year in a row ... Averaged 41.9 yards in 1983 ... Previously won junior college All-America honors in 1981 at Phoenix College, averaging 42.5 yards per punt with a long of 72 yards... Chuck Priefer, Packer special teams coach, describes Meyer as "a big kid, an outstanding athlete, with a strong leg. We're not bringing Jim in as a camp kid — we feel he can challenge for the job. Bucky (Scribner, the Packers' incumbent punter) had a good year last season — we're not saying anything against Bucky — but like Coach Gregg says, we're always trying to upgrade our football team" ... High School: Meyer was a three-year letterman in football (tight end/punter) basketball (forward) and track (hurdler) at Alhambra High in Phoenix.

PERSONAL: Given name is James Edward Meyer ... Liberal arts major ... Brothers John (1979-82) and Steve (1974-75) also played varsity football at Arizona State, John being drafted in the second round by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1982.

JUST FOR THE RECORD

The Packers, founded as a town team by the late E. L. "Curly" Lambeau in 1919, enter the 1985 season with a .578 overall winning percentage after playing 1,103 games. Only two other teams in professional football's history, the Chicago Bears and St. Louis Cardinals, have played more than 1,000 games.

To date, the Packers have won 628 games, lost 428 and tied 47 over their 65-year existence. The 1,103-game total includes 828 league, playoff and Super Bowl games and 275 pre-season, mid-season and post-season non-league games. The league breakdown shows 450 victories compared to 342 defeats and 36 ties, a .565 percentage, and the non-league record 178 wins, 86 losses and 11 ties, a .667 percentage.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Sept. 2 Packers erect 24-13 lead in third quarter with aid of 1-yard scoring runs by Jessie Clark and Lynn Dickey and 4-yard TD pass, Dickey to Paul Coffman, then weather late Cardinal comeback to register 24-23 victory in league opener and make Forrest Gregg's debut as Green Bay head coach a success.

Sept. 30 Packers forge 27-27 tie in last eight seconds of regulation at Tampa on 36-yard Lynn Dickey scoring pass to Gerry Ellis and Eddie Garcia's conversion but Buccaneers prevail in overtime, 30-27, on Obed Ariri's 48-yard field goal.

Oct. 7 Packers fall short against Chargers, 34-28, despite 384-yard passing effort by Dickey, fourth best single game performance in team's history, as Packers' Super Bowl I team returns for first reunion.

Oct. 15 Green Bay out-gains Broncos in snow-swept Mile High Stadium by huge margin, 423 yards to 193, but is unable to overcome quick, 2-touchdown deficit as Denver recovers Packer fumbles on game's first two kickoffs and returns them for scores. Broncos win 17-14 despite 206-yard receiving effort (11 catches) by James Lofton.

Oct. 28 Packers bolt to 28-9 halftime lead via three Dickey TD passes (two to Paul Coffman one to 'TE' Blake Moore) and 1-yard run by Jessie Clark en route to 41-9 victory over Lions, ending 7-game losing streak. Comebacking Eddie Lee Ivery plays prominent role, rushing for 116 yards in 9 attempts.

Nov. 4 Pair of Dickey TD passes, both to Coffman, and three Al Del Greco field goals carry Packers to second straight win, a 23-13 decision of Saints in New Orleans.

Nov. 11 Packers erupt for season-high 513 yards (211 rushing and 302 passing) to thump Vikings, 45-17, in Milwaukee. Gerry Ellis rushes for 107 yards and Dickey passes for 303 and 4 touchdowns.

Nov. 18 Green Bay's defense holds potent Rams to pair of field goals and offense mounts three scoring drives of 73, 60 and 55 yards to forge 31-6 victory, fourth straight. Ivery scores all three Green Bay TDs on runs of 1, 1 and 2 yards and Tim Lewis seals verdict with 99-yard, interception return for TD, longest in Packer history.

Dec. 2 Packers rebound from 20-14 deficit with 20-point fourth quarter burst to out-gun Tampa Bay in snowy Lambeau Field, 27-14. Dickey's 10-yard scoring pass to Ray Crouse and 2-yard TD runs by Eddie Lee Ivery and Dickey turn the tide.

Dec. 9 With Dickey sidelined by severe headaches and Randy Wright felled by a second quarter knee injury, Rich Campbell comes off bench to throw 2 touchdown passes and Del Rodgers returns a kickoff 97 yards for a third TD to propel Packers past Bears in Chicago, 20-14. Campbell's second scoring throw—to Phil Epps—comes with only 34 seconds remaining.

Dec. 16 Packers cruise to 31-0 halftime lead and eventual 38-14 victory over Vikings in season finale at Minneapolis-Metrodome, closing out with seven victories in last eight games.

PACKERS MADE 'MONDAY NIGHT', TEAM HISTORY

The Packers made National Football League history — with an "assist" from the Washington Redskins —the night of October 17, 1983. Linebacker Mike Douglass scooped up a Joe Washington fumble and returned it 22 yards for the game's first touchdown with only 1:07 elapsed in the first quarter, triggering the highest scoring game in the history of ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football." The Packers eventually prevailed, 48-47, by dint of a 20-yard field goal with only 54 seconds remaining. The Redskins' Mark Moseley added a final dramatic touch to that explosive evening by missing a 39-yard field goal as time expired.

The previous "Monday Night Football" record for total points, 84, was established December 20, 1982, when the San Diego Chargers outscored the Cincinnati Bengals, 50-34.

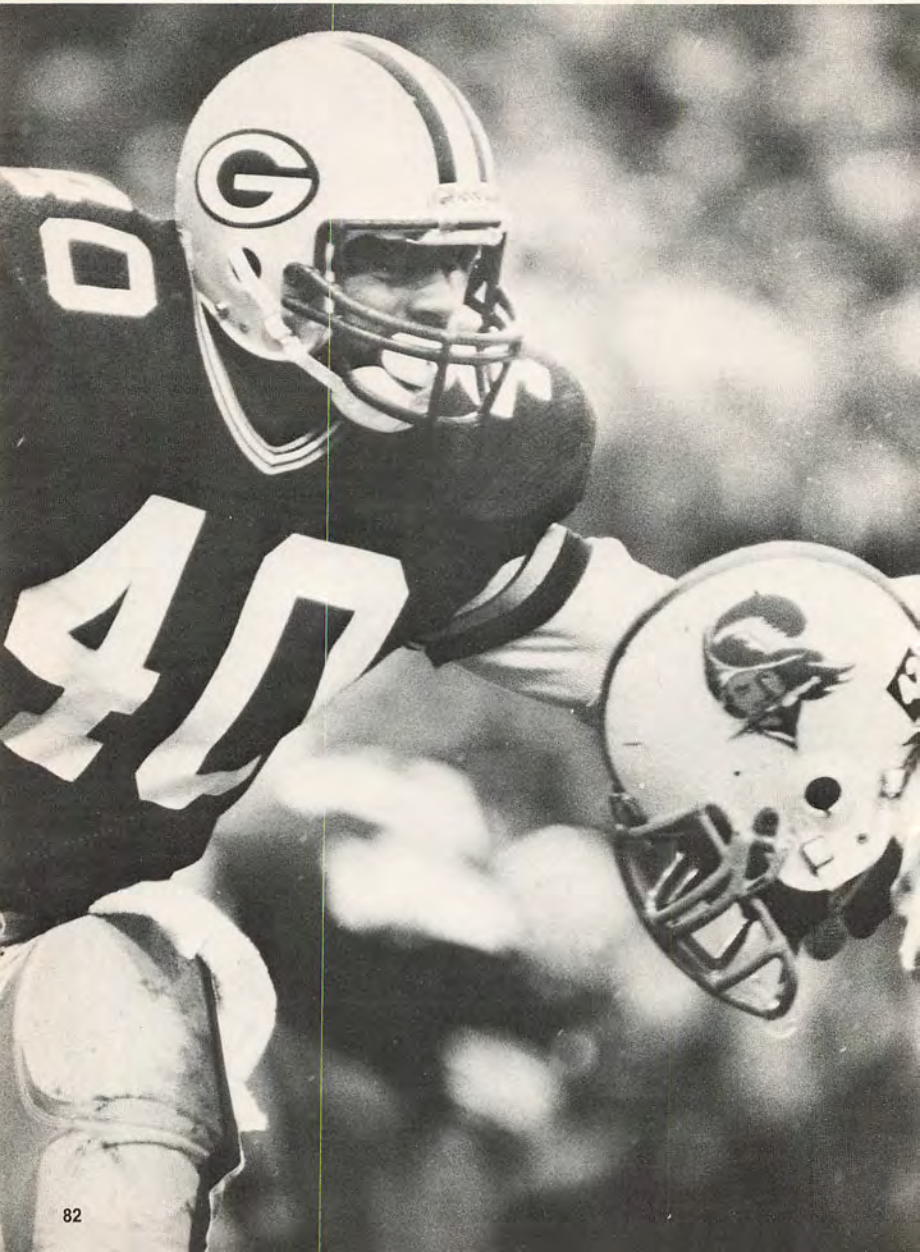

The contest, witnessed by 55,255 fans, also was the highest scoring game in which the Packers ever have been involved. The 95 points surpassed by eight the previous high of 87, set when the Packers lost to Detroit, 52-35 on Nov. 22, 1951.

The Packer record on "Monday Night Football:"

1970 — Packers 22, Chargers 20 (at San Diego, Oct. 12)
1970 — Colts 13, Packers 10 (at Milwaukee, Nov. 9)
1971 — Packers 14, Lions 14 (at Milwaukee, Nov. 1)
1971 — Falcons 28, Packers 21 (at Atlanta, Nov. 22)
1972 — Packers 24, Lions 23 (at Detroit, Oct. 16)
1973 — Packers 23, Jets 7 (at Milwaukee, Sept. 17)
1973 — Forty Niners 20, Packers 6 (at San Francisco, Nov. 26)
1974 — Bears 10, Packers 9 (at Chicago, Oct. 21)
1975 — Broncos 23, Packers 13 (at Denver, Sept. 29)
1977 — Redskins 10, Packers 9 (at Washington, Nov. 21)
1979 — Packers 27, Patriots 14 (at Green Bay, Oct. 1)
1982 — Packers 27, New York Giants 19 (at East Rutherford, N.J., Sept. 20)
1983 — Giants 27, Packers 3 (at East Rutherford, N.J., Sept. 26)
1983 — Packers 48, Redskins 47 (at Green Bay, Oct. 17)
1983 — Packers 12, Buccaneers 9 (OT) (at Tampa Bay, Dec. 12)
1984 — Broncos 17, Packers 14 (at Denver, Oct. 15)

Packers won 7, lost 8, tied 1.

THE HISTORY

THE PACKERS' SUPER BOWL STORY

Super Bowl I

January 15, 1967

Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif. Paid Attendance: 61,946

Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's American Football League champions 35-10 behind the passing of Bart Starr, the receiving of Max McGee and a key interception by all-pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Wood's 40-yard return of an interception to the Chief's 5-yard line with the Packers leading by only 14-10. The pass, authored by the Chiefs' Len Dawson, had been intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, filling in for ailing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers first offensive series) after having caught only three passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores counting one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter and the other on a one-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' 10 points came in the second quarter; the only touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and 2 touchdowns and was chosen the game's most valuable player. His scoring strikes came on a 37-yard collaboration with McGee in the first quarter and a 13-yard pitch to the aging end in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece — the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports.

Super Bowl II

January 14, 1968

Orange Bowl, Miami, Florida Paid Attendance: 75,564

Green Bay 33, Oakland 14

Having acquired a third consecutive NFL championship just two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning the Super Bowl title for the second straight year. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was chosen the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packer attack that was in control all the way after building up a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and all-pro cornerback Herb Adderley highlighted the Green Bay scoring with a 60-yard interception return of a Daryle Lamonica pass.

After leading by only 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers padded their margin to 16-7 at halftime by way of three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game marked the last for Vince Lombardi as Packers coach, ending nine years at Green Bay in which he won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedented in pro football history.

THE PACKERS NFC (NFL) PLAYOFF HISTORY . . . GAME BY GAME

1936 — GREEN BAY 21, BOSTON REDSKINS 6, (Polo Grounds, New York) — Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played in the Polo Grounds because the Redskins, franchise was being shifted to Washington, D.C., by George Marshall. A turnout of 29,545 saw Don Hutson take a 45-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers were never headed.

1938 — NEW YORK 23, GREEN BAY 17, (Polo Grounds, New York) — The Packers overcame an early 9-0 New York lead, spawned by two blocked punts, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. The Packers began to close in early in the second period, Arnie Herber capitalizing on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 50-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants margin to 9-7.

The Giants shortly converted a mid-field fumble by Packer fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead before Green Bay again trimmed the deficit to two points before the half was over; Clarke Hinkle crashing over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker. The Packers then forged in front in opening minutes of the second half for the first and only time in the game; an Engebretsen field goal presenting them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 35-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A crowd of 48,120, a play off record, sat in on proceedings.

1939 — GREEN BAY 27, NEW YORK 0, (State Fair Park, Milwaukee) — The Packers made playoff history by scoring first shutout ever registered in NFL championship game. Despite bitter 35 m.p.h. wind, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in leading Green Bay to its fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, and pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen and a long TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski.

1944 — GREEN BAY 14, NEW YORK 7, (Polo Grounds, New York) — With peerless pass catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy for the Giant defense, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged the offensive hero of Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, one on a 2-yard run in the second quarter and the other on a 26-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the third. Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a one-yard plunge on the first play of the final period. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, had a brilliant day, setting a playoff record with three interceptions and claiming ground gaining honors with 74 yards in 13 carries. Attendance: 46,016.

1960 — PHILADELPHIA 17, GREEN BAY 13 (Franklin Field) — Packers erected a 6-0 lead in the second period and were out in front by 13-10 in fourth quarter before yielding to late surge by Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay moved ahead in first quarter on a 20-yard Paul Hornung field goal. Hornung added 23-yard FG in second quarter but Eagles tied it 6-6 on a 35-yard scoring pass from Norm Van Brocklin to Tommy McDonald and edged ahead via Bobby Walston's first conversion. Walston followed with a 15-yard FG for a 10-6 halftime lead.

The Packers stopped Philadelphia at their own four late in the third period, then recaptured lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. A 58-yard kickoff return by Dean, however, ignited Eagles and victory eluded Packers, making their first title game appearance in 16 years. Attendance: 67,325.

1961 — GREEN BAY 37, NEW YORK 0, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, scored an individual record 19 points to key Packer decimination of Giants in first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A record Packer home crowd of 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team of 1961, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, was proving a devastating complement to the attack, intercepting four Giant passes and recovering one fumble.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and defensive back Hank Gremminger, set up touchdowns No. 2 and 3 while the fumble recovery by Forrest Gregg led to Hornung's second field goal and a Jess Whittenton interception to Hornung's final FG.

1962 — GREEN BAY 16, NEW YORK 7, (Yankee Stadium, New York) — Out front all the way in a raw, cyclonic setting, Packers weather siege by vengeful Giants in primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke proves principal frustration to New Yorkers, seeking redemption for shutout humiliation in '61 title game. His deflection triggers interception to blunt early Giant drive to Green Bay 10. On way to being named game's most valuable player, he also registers two interceptions, one of which led to the Packers' only touchdown of the afternoon. The other set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided eventual margin.

Giants' only TD comes on block of Max McGee punt in Green Bay end zone midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor sets playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

1965 — GREEN BAY 23, CLEVELAND 12, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Field softened by four-inch snow made Packer backs only run harder as Lambeau Field crowd of 50,777 celebrated third championship in five years. Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung amassed 201 yards rushing in rally that overcame Browns's early 9-7 lead.

Packers charged to 7-0 first quarter advantage on 47-yard Bart Starr pass to Carroll Dale and Don Chandler's conversion, but Cleveland moved in front on a 17-yard TD strike from Frank Ryan to Gary Collins and 24-yard Lou Groza field goal.

Green Bay rebounded, however, with 15 and 23 yard FGs by Chandler, the latter following a Willie Wood interception, to claim 13-7 lead subsequently trimmed to a single point by a second Groza FG shortly before the intermission.

Starr settled the issue in third quarter, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play scoring drive climaxed by Hornung's 13-yard sweep of Browns' right perimeter.

1966 — GREEN BAY 34, DALLAS 27, (Cotton Bowl, Dallas) — Bart Starr has one of his finest hours, passing for four touchdowns as Packers win second straight title and fourth in six years. Tom Brown thwarts last-minute Cowboy bid, and the majority of 74,152 Cotton Bowl fans, with end zone interception of Don Meredith's fourth down pass from Green Bay 2.

Packers mounted quick 14-0 lead on a 17-yard Starr pass to Elijah Pitts and 18-yard scoring run with a fumble recovery by rookie Jim Grabowski, but led only 21-17 at halftime following explosive Cowboy comeback. After a 32-yard Villanueva field goal had cut Packer lead to a tenuous 21-20, Starr hit Dowler and McGee with 16-yard scoring passes to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

1967 — GREEN BAY 21, DALLAS 17, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — With thermometer shuddering at 16 below zero and 50,861 in stands, Bart Starr scores winning touchdown from one-yard-line with 13 seconds remaining, sealing record third straight championship for Packers and their fifth in seven years.

Starr's touchdown, on third down with no time-outs remaining, climaxed a 68-yard drive in 12 plays.

As was case in 1966, Packers grabbed early 14-0 advantage. But this time Cowboys came from behind to take the lead, forcing story book finish by Green Bay to win contest later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

Starr's touchdown passes of 8 and 46 yards to Boyd Dowler built the first quarter bulge, trimmed in second quarter by George Andrie's 7-yard scoring return of a Starr fumble and 21-yard Danny Villanueva field goal. Dan Reeves' 50-yard scoring strike to Lance Rentzel in the fourth quarter triggered the dramatic denouement.

1983 SUPER BOWL TOURNAMENT

1983—GREEN BAY 41, ST. LOUIS 16 (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Making their first post-season appearance in Lambeau Field since celebrated "Ice Bowl" game of 1967 against Dallas, Packers halt Cardinal drive at one-yard-line in first quarter then proceed to forge an all-time club scoring record in their opening Super Bowl Tournament contest following 1982 season.

Out front 21-3 at halftime, they pad lead to 41-9 in fourth quarter before permitting Cards a consolation touchdown. Quarterback Lynn Dickey ties Packer playoff record before 54,282 fans by passing for 4 touchdowns (17 of 23 for 260 yards and 0 intercepts overall) and flanker John Jefferson sets club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards on 6 catches, including a 60-yard TD reception, another Packer playoff record. Placekicker Jan Stenerud also establishes a club playoff mark with a 46-yard field goal.

1983—DALLAS 37, GREEN BAY 26 (Texas Stadium, Irving, TX) — Packers amass 466 yards, a team playoff record, but are unable to overcome slow start, which finds them trailing 20-7 at halftime. They roll up 363 yards and out-score Cowboys 19-17 in second half, pulling within four points (30-26) on a 23-yard scoring runback of an interception by Mark Lee in fourth quarter, but Cowboys retaliate with 74-yard scoring drive to end Green Bay hopes with 63,972 fans looking on.

Quarterback Lynn Dickey throws for 332 yards (19-for-36) and all-time Packer playoff record in losing cause, split end James Lofton emerging with 109 yards on 5 receptions. Lofton also spices Packers' second half comeback with 71-yard reverse for a TD, tying all-time NFL playoff record for a run from scrimmage.

PACKERS HOLD NFL'S RECORD FOR OVERTIME GAMES

The Packers have been involved in more regular season and post-season overtime games than any other team in the National Football League. They have played 12 to date, including a league season record five in 1983. The first of them was a sudden death struggle with the Baltimore Colts for the Western Conference championship in 1965. The Packers won that one, 13-10, on a Don Chandler field goal and went on to defeat the Cleveland Browns in that year's NFL championship game, 23-12. Overall, the Packers have won four, lost five and tied three in overtime play. The game-by-game list:

Dec. 26, 1965: Packers 13, Baltimore 10 (Western Conference playoff at Green Bay)
Oct. 14, 1973: Packers 10, Chiefs 10 (tie, at Milwaukee)
Nov. 26, 1978: Packers 10, Minnesota 10 (tie, at Green Bay)
Sept. 23, 1979: Packers 21, Minnesota 27 (at Bloomington, MN)
Sept. 7, 1980: Packers 12, Chicago 6 (at Green Bay)
Dec. 19, 1982: Packers 20, Baltimore 20 (tie, at Baltimore)
Sept. 4, 1983: Packers 41, Houston 38 (at Houston)
Oct. 23, 1983: Vikings 20, Packers 17 (at Green Bay)
Nov. 20, 1983: Lions 23, Packers 20 (at Milwaukee)
Nov. 27, 1983: Falcons 47, Packers 41 (at Atlanta)
Dec. 12, 1983: Packers 12, Buccaneers 9 (at Tampa)
Sept. 30, 1984: Buccaneers 30, Packers 27 (at Tampa)

Packers: Won 4, Lost 5, Tied 3

The Packer record for punts in one game is 11, set by Earl "Jug" Girard against the Chicago Bears October 15, 1950.

The Lambeau Field Story

Green Bay's Lambeau Field, home of the Packers, is wearing a new look this year. It has a higher profile following the construction of 72 private boxes, 44 of them from goal line to goal line on the east side and 28 on the west side, extending from either end of the press box to the goal line. The fifth addition since the facility was built, it adds 816 seats and increases the capacity to 56,926.

The cost of the original project, when the stadium was constructed in 1957 with a capacity of 32,150, was $960,000. It was shared equally by the Green Bay Packers, Inc., and the City of Green Bay. Financed by means of a bond issue, it received voter approval in a referendum conducted April 3, 1956. All subsequent additions have been underwritten by the Packer Corporation. They previously increased stadium capacity to 38,669 in 1961, 42,327 in 1963, 50,861 in 1965 and to 56,155 in 1970.

The stadium was dedicated as City Stadium on September 29, 1957. It later was renamed Lambeau Field in 1965, following the death of the late E. L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first coach of the Packers.

Lambeau Field now is wholly owned by the City of Green Bay, retirement of the original $960,000 indebtedness having been celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978.

PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1963 — E. L. (Curly) Lambeau, Founder, player, coach, vice-president (1919-49). Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '27, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and is one of only five coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL, (others are George Halas, Paul Brown, Don Shula and Tom Landry). Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-'51) and Washington Redskins (1952-'53).

1963 — Johnny (Blood) McNally, HB (1928-'36). Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos. Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Steelers. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1929, '30 and '31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Still ranks 15th in Packer lifetime scoring, four decades after departing Green Bay scene, with 224 points. Collegiate star at St. Thomas.

1963 — Don Hutson, E (1935-'45). Highest scoring receiver in pro football history with 99 touchdowns, all-time NFL record. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving 8 years and in scoring 5 seasons, both also lifetime marks. Caught passes in 95 consecutive games, seventh longest streak in NFL history. Currently ranks 17th lifetime among pro receivers with 488 catches and 19th in NFL career scoring with 823 points. Starred at U. of Alabama.

1963 — Robert (Cal) Hubbard, T-E (1929-'35). Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants — a massive 6 ft. 3 inch. 265 pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was an all-pro choice in each of first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Played college football at Centenary, Geneva.

1964 — Clarke Hinkle, FB (1932-'41). A four-time all-pro selection (1936, '37, '38, '41) ... One of the most versatile players in NFL annals, he was tough, bruising runner, fine blocker, good receiver and excellent placekicker as well as a shrewd, hard-hitting linebacker. Fourth-ranking rusher in Packer history with 3,860 yards in 1,171 carries. Played college football at Bucknell.

1964 — Mike Michalske, G (1929-'37). Also played for New York Yankees (1927-'28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time all-pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State.

1966 — Arnie Herber, HB (1930-'41). Also played for New York Giants (1944-'45). Pro football's first great long passer. Won three National Football League passing titles and was all-pro selection in 1932. Teamed with Don Hutson to form NFL's first feared passing combination in mid-'30s. Shares fourth place in lifetime passing efficiency in Packer annals with 50.06 percentage for 9 seasons and ranks fifth in career touchdown passes with 51. Tough, durable athlete and accomplished punter as well as great passer. A Green Bay native, he played college football at Regis (Denver, Colo).

1966 — Walt Kiesling, T (1935-36). Also played for Duluth Eskimos (1926-27), Pottsville (1928), Chicago Cardinals (1929-33) and Chicago Bears (1934). All-pro selection in 1932. Two-way performer, he starred on both offense and defense. Although a giant of his time, he possessed impressive quickness for one of his dimensions. Later served as Packer assistant coach (1945-48). Also coached for Pittsburgh Steelers, Philadelphia-Pittsburgh combine and Chicago Cardinals. Played college football at St. Thomas.

1967 — Emlen Tunnell, HB (1959-61). Also played for New York Giants (1948-58). Second leading interceptor in pro football history. Intercepted 79 passes over 14-year career and returned them 1,282 yards, another National Football League record. Also holds NFL career record for punt returns with 258 and most yards punts returned, 2,209. Played college football at University of Iowa.

1971 — Vince Lombardi, Coach and General Manager (1959-'67). Also assistant coach for New York Giants (1954-'58) and head coach of Washington Redskins (1969). Directed Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-'62 and 1965-'66-'67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. His 1966 and 1967 teams also made history by winning first two Super Bowls. Packers won nine of 10 playoff games under his leadership and overall, compiled a 98-30-4 record, a glittering .766 winning percentage. Lombardi, a guard, played his college football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

1974 — Tony Canadeo, HB (1941-'43, 1946-'52). Became only the third 1,000 yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1952. Still ranks as No. 3 ground gainer in Packer annals with 4,197 yards in 1,025 attempts, a 4.1 average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was an accomplished blocker, capable passer and good receiver in addition to being a highly effective kick returner. Also played defensive back during early years of his career. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired nickname of "Grey Ghost."

1976 — Jim Taylor, FB (1958-'66). Also played for New Orleans Saints (1967). One of three running backs in pro football history to rush for 1,000 yards in five consecutive seasons (1960-'64). Also seventh ranking career rusher in NFL annals with 8,597 yards in 10 seasons. Ranks ninth all-time, in number of 100-yard rushing games with 26 and eighth in career rushing attempts with 1,941. Also shares NFL record for most rushing touchdowns in a season, 19 in 1962, and owns fifth highest lifetime total of rushing TDs, 83. Played college football at LSU.

1977 — Forrest Gregg, T (1956, 1958-'70). Also played with Dallas Cowboys (1971). Drafted No. 2 in 1956. Gregg was named All-Pro eight times (including All-Pro at both Guard and Tackle in 1965) and 9 times to the Pro Bowl. Called by Lombardi the "finest player he'd ever coached." Gregg holds the Packer record for durability with 187 consecutive games. Head Coach of the Green Bay Packers. Also served as head coach of Cleveland Browns (1975-77) and Cincinnati Bengals (1980-83). Played college football at SMU.

1977 — Bart Starr, QB (1956-'71). Drafted in 17th round in 1956. Starr became the winningest quarterback in football, directing the Packers to 6 Western Division Titles, 5 World Titles, 2 Super Bowl victories, and was named MVP in Super Bowls I and II. Starr led the League in passing in 1962, 1964 and 1966 and was named to the Pro Bowl 4 times. In 1972 he coached Packer quarterbacks, Head Coach of Green Bay Packers 1975-83. He played college football at Alabama.

1978 — Ray Nitschke, MLB (1958-'72). Drafted in third round in 1957 after playing fullback at Illinois. Most Valuable Player in 1962 NFL Title game vs NY Giants. Named to the NFL All-50 year team. All-Pro in 1964, 1965 and 1966; Pro Bowl 1965.

1980 — Herb Adderley, DB (1961-'69). Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1970-'72). Packers' No. 1 draft choice (Michigan State) in 1961. Five-time all-pro at corner-back. Played in five Pro Bowls, four of first six Super Bowls (two with Green Bay, two with Dallas). Had 48 career intercepts, ran 7 back for TDs (second highest total in NFL history).

1981 — Jim Ringo, C (1953-'63). Also played for Philadelphia (1964-'67). Seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Went on to win all-pro honors six times, five as a Packer, and played in 10 Pro Bowls, seven as a Packer. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183). Helped Packers win back-to-back NFL titles in 1961-'62. Traded to Philadelphia in 1964. Currently offensive line coach for New York Jets.

1981 — Willie Davis, DE (1960-'69). Also played for Cleveland (1958-'59). A 17th round draft choice, he came to Packers from Browns in 1960 trade. Became one of premier pass rushers in pro football history, winning all-pro honors six times and selection to Pro Bowl five times. Holds all-time Packer record for career fumble recoveries (21) and second longest consecutive game streak (162) in Green Bay annals. Helped Packers win five NFL titles during 1960s. Played college football at Grambling.

BIRTH OF A TEAM AND A LEGEND . . . THE PACKER STORY

On the evening of August 11, 1919, a score or more of husky young characters, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

There had been some preliminary talk and planning and that night's decision wasn't announced until two days later, but the big step had been taken. So August 11 is as good a birthday as any.

Actually the initial spark had been struck a few weeks before during a casual street corner conversation between Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun. It was apparently one of those "Why not get up a football team?" remarks, but once they got interested they wasted no time.

FIRST THEY TALKED Curly's employer at the Indian Packing Company into putting up some money for equipment.

Because the team's jerseys had been provided by the packing company, which also permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the corporation had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and at the end of the season it had to be forfeited.

THIS WAS the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A.B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

FROM THOSE MODEST and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual world-wide recognition by winning more championships (eleven) over the intervening half-century than any other team in professional football.

The fact that these achievements have come while representing a city of only 90,000 inhabitants, in competition with the country's population giants, has endeared them to the nation's football fans, many of whom are intrigued by the David vs. Goliath concept and the Packers' unique status as a publicly-owned corporation.

INEVITABLY, PROCEDURES at Packer games have come a long way since the sandlot years of 1919-20 when the Pack was subsisting on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. Then there were no ushers, no majorettes, no band and no public address system—the latter hadn't been invented yet, there weren't even any seats at first, and it didn't cost anything to get in.

When the Packers began their existence in 1919, they played on approximately the same site as the now abandoned City (East) Stadium, but with a mighty difference. Hagemeister Park, as it was called was just a big vacant lot with a football gridiron marked on it.

There were no gates because there wasn't any fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street streetcar and walked over to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about ten yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow the play up and down the field. By moving as the play progressed, you always had a "50-yard line" location and were handy to any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that too.

When the half ended teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. Nothing private about those huddles. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's half time suggestion.

In 1920 a section of stands was built—just a small bleacher with a capacity of a couple hundred—on one side of the field, and a fee charged to sit there. The next year a portable canvas fence was erected around the whole field and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

WHEN HAGEMEISTER Park was dug up in 1923 to make way for East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds out on the end of Main Street. This was called Bellevue Park because it was just east of the old Hagemeister Brewery, which was renamed the Bellevue Products Co. during Prohibition. Things were Big Time out there, with crowds of 4,000 to 5,000 storming the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears.

The Packers used Bellevue in 1923-24, but it was obviously inadequate and too far out, lacking about every facility needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of old City Stadium just back of the new high school.

The new plant was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but was an immediate success, the Bear game that year drawing a record crowd of nearly 6,000. It was a typical small town park of its day, with wooden fences and stands on both sides, between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines the ultimate capacity of 25,000 was reached.

AFTER WORLD WAR II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. September 29, 1957 was a proud day for Green Bay and its Packers. A million dollar modern stadium with a seating capacity of 32,150 was dedicated. In 1961, the Stadium was expanded to 38,669, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,861 in 1965 when the name was changed to Lambeau Field, 56,155 in 1970, and to 56,926 following the addition of private boxes in 1985.

The Packers' colorful saga, spanning 65 years, can be roughly divided into eight chapters. They take us from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Curly Lambeau to the present day, which finds the Packer's legendary lineman, Forrest Gregg, presiding as the ninth head coach in the team's history.

THE IRON MAN ERA—With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 or 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD—Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold, when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME—After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER—The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the rebuilding plans and Lisle W. Blackbourn, coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. During the four-year Blackbourn regime the Packers won 17 while losing 31.

McLEAN MOVES UP—Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, worst in Packer history in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA—In 1959, the Packers announced the signing of New York Giant assistant Vince Lombardi as head coach and general manager.

In his first season, Lombardi lifted the Packers to a 7-5 record and was unanimously voted Coach of the Year. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division title and went on to win World Championships in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, and 1967. Never finishing lower than second since 1960, his teams became the standard of football excellence and the Packer franchise one of the most successful. Over a nine year span as head coach, Lombardi's teams racked up 141 victories against 39 losses and 4 ties for a remarkable .783 winning percentage. Even more noteworthy, however, is the record of Lombardi coached teams in post-season play. In 10 Division playoffs and World Championship Games, the Packers emerged victorious nine times.

BENGSTON PERIOD—Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to coach and manage the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-1970, compiling a 20-21-1 record, and in December of 1970 resigned.

THE DEVINE DAYS—Dan Devine, one of the three most successful coaches in the nation's collegiate ranks, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January of 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first season, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of '73 and they slipped to a 5-7-2 mark. They continued their recession in '74, emerging with a 6-8 record, and Devine resigned.

BART STARR — the most successful field general in pro football history as Green Bay's quarterback of the '60s, accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager on Dec. 24, 1974. Starr, who led the Packers to five world championships from 1961 through 1967, asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere... We will earn everything else."

Although he had to settle for a 4-10 record in the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave Packer fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the 1975 season. He continued the resurgent trend in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning record since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily dampened in '79 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.

Rebounding strongly in 1981, they rallied from a disappointing 2-6 start to mount one of the most dramatic comebacks in Green Bay history, closing with a 6-2 rush (an 8-8 mark) and coming within one victory of the playoffs.

The Packers continued the upsurge in 1982, when they qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1972 by posting a 5-3-1 record during a strike-interrupted season. They then embellished that performance by routing St. Louis 41-16 in the first game of the NFL's Super Bowl Tournament before bowing to Dallas (37-26) despite a record-setting, 466-yard offensive effort. Starr was relieved of his head coaching duties on Dec. 19, 1983, after the Packers finished the '83 season with an 8-8 record and missed the NFL playoffs on the final week of the year.

THE PRESENT—On December 24, 1984, Starr was replaced by Forrest Gregg, a former teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in the history of the game as a player, who had maneuvered Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season. Gregg, whose Bengals' 19-6 record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football, received a five-year contract.

In taking over, he declared, "I took this job to field a winning team ... That will happen."

Gregg's prediction began to come true in the second half of the 1984 season when the Packers rebounded from an injury-ridden 1-7 start to win seven of their last eight games.

TWO GREAT STYLES

Fully Kraeusened Old Style. One beer that's pure brewed—naturally carbonated like fine Champagne—using sparkling pure, virgin spring water. Go ahead and do it with Style... have an Old Style.
