The Green Bay Packers, Inc., is a community-owned non-profit corporation. A total of 4,626½ shares are owned by 1,812 shareholders—none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment. The Corporation is governed by 45 directors and a 7-man executive committee.

JUDGE ROBERT J. PARINS President and Chief Executive Officer

Rapid growth, major change and record profits are three constants which have characterized the presidency of Judge Robert J. Parins, now in his seventh year as chief executive of the Green Bay Packers, Inc.

In the past six years, he has presided over the planning and construction of four major additions to the Packers' physical facilities and seen the corporation's assets mount from $19.5 million when he took office to more than $32,000,000 in 1988.

The building program was inaugurated in 1982 with construction of a 55,000-square foot indoor practice facility. It was followed in 1983 by remodeling and expansion of the administration building and training quarters, a project which more than doubled the size of the existing structure. In 1984, as part of a renegotiated lease with the City of Green Bay, stadium restroom facilities also were doubled and all concession stands were remodeled and modernized. In 1985, seventy-two private boxes were constructed along the east and west sides of Lambeau Field. In 1986, a new and more sophisticated scoreboard was installed in 'Lambeau', followed by the addition of an improved sound system in 1987.

The upgrading process is scheduled to continue in 1989, when the visitors' dressing room facilities will be expanded and the press box remodeled.

Organizationally, Judge Parins made a major change early in 1987 (January 31) when he named Tom Braatz, a former general manager and personnel director of the Atlanta Falcons, to a new position as executive vice president of football operations.

In another historic development, he supervised the creation of the Green Bay Packer Foundation, established May 6, 1987 for the purpose of receiving and distributing funds. Its first grants, in the amount of $42,700, were made earlier this year to various Green Bay institutions and programs, including the Boys and Girls' Club, the Brown County Library, Girl Scout fund drive, Neville Public Museum and the Bellin College of Nursing.

On June 1 of last year, Judge Parins also announced a record, one-year profit of $3,018,000 at the corporation's annual stockholders' meeting, the second year in succession that he was able to disclose a record profit.

The first full-time president in the Packers' 69-year history, the veteran jurist assumed his current responsibilities on June 1, 1982, following his resignation as a Brown County circuit court judge (Branch 2 of the 8th Judicial District). He previously had been named principal executive officer at a board of directors' meeting October 11, 1981.

Only the eighth man to hold the Packer presidency since the corporation was founded in 1922, he has been a member of the team's official family since May 23, 1966, when elected to the board of directors at the annual stockholders' meeting.

Judge Parins later was elected vice president of the corporation at a board of directors' meeting August 1, 1979.

Born in Green Bay August 23, 1918, he graduated from Green Bay East High School in 1936. He later obtained a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1940 and a law degree, also from the University of Wisconsin, in 1942.

Upon graduation from law school, he worked for Employers Mutual Insurance Co. in Minneapolis from 1942 through 1944 before returning to Green Bay, in 1944, to open the practice of law in partnership with the late Meyer Cohen. In 1949, he was elected district attorney of Brown County and served one, two-year term. Elected a circuit judge in the spring of 1967, he was formally vested Jan. 2, 1968. On the bench, he earned a state-wide reputation for the fair, efficient and expeditious disposition of the cases brought before him. Although he officially retired from the bench in 1982, he continues to serve as a reserve judge on occasion.

Judge Parins and his wife, Elizabeth, have five children and 11 grandchildren.

An active sportsman he owns a stable just outside Green Bay and regularly works with his horses there. He also is an avid fisherman and shoots a respectable game of golf.

DOMINIC OLEJNICZAK Chairman of the Board

Dominic Olejniczak, who served the organization as president longer than any other man in the team's history, now is chairman of the board of Green Bay Packers, Inc. He was elected to the position by the board of directors Oct. 11, 1981.

Mr. Olejniczak ended a 24-year tenure as corporation president May 3, 1982, when Judge Robert J. Parins was elected to succeed him. A former mayor of the City of Green Bay (1945-55), he used that experience in municipal government to help guide the Packers to unprecedented corporate prosperity.

A devout Packer fan since the 1920s, when he was a pupil at St. Mary of the Angels Grade School, he first began to develop close ties with the Packers in an official capacity during the mid-1930s. Elected to the Green Bay City Council, he became involved with the team through the City of Green Bay and the Board of Education, which had jurisdiction over old City Stadium, where the Packers then played their games. He continued to work closely with the Packers while mayor and, in that position, was a prime mover in the drive to build the current stadium, Lambeau Field.

Elected to the board of directors July 10, 1950, Mr. Olejniczak subsequently moved up through the chairs, being named to the Executive Committee January 21, 1952, elected a vice president March 1, 1954, executive vice president Dec. 23, 1957, president April 28, 1958, and then chairman of the board in 1981.

"Mr. Ole" and his wife, Regina, have two sons — Thomas, a Green Bay attorney who was elected to the Packer board of directors June 2, 1986, joining his father in the 45-member directorate; and Mark, a Green Bay realtor.

BOB HARLAN Executive Vice Pres. of Administration

Robert E. "Bob" Harlan, a member of the Packer management team for the past 17 years, assumed additional responsibilities and a new title earlier this year when he was named executive vice president of administration.

Harlan, who had been corporate assistant to the president since 1981, was promoted to the post by Judge Robert J. Parins, president and chief executive officer of the Green Bay Packers, Inc., on February 16, 1988.

In his expanded role, Harlan is responsible for team travel, negotiating radio and pre-season television contracts, playing and practice fields, buildings and grounds, in addition to his previous areas of responsibility — front office personnel, ticket office operations, the public relations department, marketing, purchasing, the leasing of Lambeau Field's private boxes, insurance, game day-entertainment and the scheduling of pre-season games.

Prior to 1985, he also negotiated all player contracts for 14 years.

A graduate of Marquette University, where he earned a B.S. degree in journalism in 1958, Harlan had a brief tour of duty in the U.S. Army before spending a year as a general reporter for United Press-International in Milwaukee. He subsequently became sports information director at Marquette in 1959, serving six years in that capacity. He joined the St. Louis baseball Cardinals in 1965, serving as director of community relations and the speakers' bureau for two years and as director of public relations for 3½ years. He left that position to join the Packers as assistant general manager on June 1, 1971.

A native of Des Moines, the 51-year-old Iowan is a member of the board of directors of the First Wisconsin Bank in Green Bay and the Packers' 65 Roses Sports Club, which was created to generate awareness of Cystic Fibrosis and to raise money for research.

He and his wife, Madeline, have three sons — Kevin, 28, sports director of radio station KCMO in Kansas City and the play-by-play "voice" of both the Kansas City Chiefs and University of Missouri basketball; Bryan, 26, assistant director of public relations for the Chicago Bears; and Michael, 19, who is a sophomore at St. Norbert College in De Pere, WI, and the school's sports information director.

TOM BRAATZ Executive Vice President of Football Operations

A veteran of 23 years' National Football League experience as a general manager, personnel director and talent scout, Tom Braatz is in his second year as executive vice president of football operations, a key position in the Packer Corporation's organizational structure.

Braatz, who had been a member of the Atlanta Falcons' front office since the club's inception in 1965, was named to the newly-created post on January 31, 1987 by Judge Robert J. Parins, Packer president and chief executive officer.

His appointment represented a homecoming of sorts for the 55-year-old personnel expert, regarded as one of professional football's premier judges of talent, who is a native of Kenosha, WI, and a graduate of Marquette University.

In his comprehensive new role, his duties include hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft in conjunction with the head coach, handling trades and waivers, assimilating all scouting information for the draft and trades, conducting all contract negotiations with players and scouts and serving as liaison between football operations and the club president.

In Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, although he also had handled most of the club's contract negotiations in recent years. In the former role, he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons, among them William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic and Steve Bartkowski.

Braatz was named general manager of the Falcons in 1982 in an expansion of his duties. He subsequently was reassigned as director of college scouting following the 1985 season as the Falcons moved to streamline areas of responsibility. Braatz previously had been an area scout when he joined the Atlanta organization in 1965 and was appointed director of player personnel in 1969.

Tom's route to Green Bay, as well as league-wide respect, was somewhat circuitous. He grew up as a Packer fan in Kenosha, where he played a major role in his high school's drive to consecutive state football championships as a junior and senior.

Braatz then went on to Marquette University in neighboring Milwaukee with the intention of becoming a dentist. "But once I got into football, that was it," said Tom, who captained the Marquette varsity as a senior.

Following graduation, he entered the Army, rising to the rank of lieutenant before leaving the service. Upon returning to civilian life, he signed on with the Washington Redskins as a defensive end, later closing out his pro career under Tom Landry with the expansion Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season.

After his playing days, he worked for the Ithaca Gun Co. as an arms demonstrator while living in Dallas.

Then he ran into Vince Lombardi, an encounter which was to have an indirect but pronounced impact upon his future.

That was in 1965, when the Packers were playing a pre-season game in Dallas. Rankin Smith, chairman of the board of the expansion Falcons, was in town to interview Lombardi for the team's coaching job. A friend of Smith's asked Braatz to pick up Lombardi at the airport and drive him to his hotel. Tom agreed. Smith didn't persuade Lombardi to join the Falcons but he did like Braatz enough to ask him to work as a part-time scout. Braatz agreed.

Twenty-three years later, he is still in personnel, in effect, and still in the NFL.

"I was just doing the guy a favor, and that's how I started in football," Tom says. "That was one of the hardest decisions I had to make, though. I loved Dallas."

Braatz and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 25, and Jon, 21.

Unique in professional football in both structure and accomplishment, the Green Bay Packers are a team — and an organization — apart. Organizationally, they represent the only publicly-owned team in the 28-club National Football League. Artistically, they have won more championships — 11 — than any other team in the NFL's 69-year history.

A non-profit corporation, Green Bay Packers, Inc., was founded in 1922 under the leadership of A. B. Turnbull, publisher of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who became the organization's first president. There are 4,626½ shares of stock owned by 1,812 shareholders. The corporation is governed by a eight-man Executive Committee, selected from a 45-man board of directors. (For "The Green Bay Packer Story," turn to page 157).

Judge Robert J. Parins, eighth president of the corporation, was elected the organization's chief executive May 3, 1982. He was reelected to a seventh one-year term at the annual stockholders' meeting June 6, 1988.

LINDY INFANTE Head Coach

Lindy Infante, in his first year as head coach of the Green Bay Packers, brings to his assignment a league-wide reputation as one of pro football's premier offensive innovators and a consistent identification with success.

The 48-year-old Miami, FL native, a 23-year coaching veteran, has previously played major roles with two winning NFL programs in the '80s—first with the Cincinnati Bengals in their surprising surge to Super Bowl XVI in 1981, and more recently with the Cleveland Browns, who won more games than any other team in the American Football Conference over the past two years with him as their offensive coordinator.

Infante, who began developing his highly productive offensive system while at Cincinnati in the first three years of the current decade, became the tenth head coach in the Packers' 69-year history when he signed a five-year contract on February 3, 1988.

During his second year with the Bengals (1981), when he was the team's quarterback-receivers coach, Cincinnati set team records with 3,999 passing yards and 5,968 total yards en route to a 12-4 record and that Super Bowl XVI appearance against the 49ers. A year later, in the strike-shortened 1982 season, the Bengals finished with a 7-2 mark with Infante as offensive coordinator.

A similar pattern of success emerged during his two seasons at Cleveland. In 1986, his first year as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, the Browns won more games than any team in the club's history (13), produced the best regular season record in the AFC (12-4), scored the fourth-most points in team history (391), set 15 Browns' offensive playoff records and eight NFL offensive playoff records, came within 37 seconds of playing in the Super Bowl, and improved their offensive rating from 21st to ninth in the NFL.

Last season, the Browns continued to mount a high-powered offense under Infante, rolling up 390 points — only one fewer than in 1986, in one less game — as they reached the AFC championship game for the second year in a row. Those 390 points represented an AFC best and ranked third in the league as a whole behind San Francisco and New Orleans.

In the process, the Browns demonstrated an impressive ability to activate the scoreboard, scoring on 46 of 54 possessions inside the opponents' 20-yard-line. Significantly, they also exhibited remarkable balance, passing 482 times and rushing 474 times while finishing third in the AFC and fifth in the league in passing.

These imposing figures are a graphic reflection of Infante's "spread the ball around" philosophy. In 1987, the Browns had six players close out the season with 20 or more receptions, with quarterback Bernie Kosar throwing the ball to at least seven receivers in 10 games, and to at least five in every game.

In that two-year span, Infante also was credited with helping Kosar develop into one of the NFL's premier passers.

The Packers' new leader describes his offensive style as "a multiple approach".

"We kind of pride ourselves... as a reaction-type offense," he says. "It's not one that tries to cram a round peg in a square hole. We're going to be willing to take, and you've heard it said, the standard cliché is to take what the defense gives up, or where the defense is weakest maybe is a better way to approach it.

"We'll spread the field out as best we can, we'll make people cover as much of the field that's left, try to get everybody in the act. We will not be a one-dimensional football team, where one guy or two players on our offense are the guys you have to stop to be successful against us. We'll hope to keep the defense guessing from down to down as to who's going to get the ball and where it's going."

For Infante, it is the second head coaching venture of a career which has seen him coach at every level

COACHES

—high school, college and professional. He previously was head coach of the Jacksonville Bulls of the United States Football League in 1984-85, compiling a 15-21 record.

The trim, athletic Floridian, who had joined the Browns following the demise of the USFL, launched his pro coaching career with the Charlotte Hornets of the World Football League in 1975 before moving into the NFL with the New York Giants in 1977. He later joined the Bengals under Forrest Gregg in 1980, remaining with Cincinnati until 1983, when he became head coach at Jacksonville.

Infante began coaching in his hometown, Miami, joining the staff of Miami Senior High School in 1965 — two years after graduating from the University of Florida, where he was a second team, All-Southeastern Conference selection as a running back/defensive back and also a team captain.

A year later, he returned to the U. of Florida as freshman coach and then coached the Gators' defensive backs from 1967 through 1971 before going to Memphis State as offensive coordinator in 1972. He subsequently joined the WFL's Hornets in '75. After the WFL folded, he became offensive coordinator at Tulane in 1976, then returned to the pro ranks with the New York Giants in 1977. After coaching the Giants' receivers for two seasons, Infante returned to Tulane as offensive coordinator for one season, then joined the Bengals in 1980.

Before going into coaching, Infante briefly tried his hand at playing pro football. A 12th round draft selection of the Cleveland Browns and an 11th round choice of the American Football League's Buffalo Bills, he signed with Buffalo and was released before the season started. He subsequently signed with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League and played in one game during a four-week stay, gaining 12 yards in three ball-carrying attempts.

Of Italian descent, the Packers' new head coach was born Gelindo Infante in Miami May 27, 1940. He and his wife Stephanie, have two sons, Brett, 17 and Brad, 16. He is the third head coach of Italian extraction in Packer history, following Gene Ronzani (1950-53) and Vince Lombardi (1959-67).

Although he has been in Green Bay and Wisconsin less than a year, Infante already has earned an impressive reputation as a witty and entertaining speaker, gained in large part during appearances at numerous fund-raising events around the state, to which he has given freely of his time and talents. One of them, the first Lindy Infante Celebrity Invitational Golf Classic, raised more than $23,000 for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of Wisconsin.

COACHES

HANK BULLOUGH Defensive Coordinator

Colorful and loquacious Hank Bullough, now in his third tour of duty with the Packers, is recognized throughout the National Football League for his vast knowledge of defensive football.

The 54-year-old Michigan State alumnus long since has been accorded the honorary title of "Doctor of Defense", a distinction well merited by his coaching accomplishments. At Cincinnati, he transformed a Bengal defense which had finished dead last in 1980 into the fourth-ranked unit in the NFL en route to Super Bowl XVI in 1981. Two years later, he elevated the Cincinnati platoon to the league's No. 1 ranking before joining the Packer coaching staff for the first time in 1984.

Earlier, he had spent seven seasons with New England, two of them as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, and helped develop the Patriot defense into one of the league's most miserly.

Bullough was named to the Packer staff by Head Coach Lindy Infante February 10, 1988. He and Infante earlier had been fellow members of the Cincinnati coaching staff for three years (1980-82).

Hank, once a Packer player, thus returned to Green Bay for the second time as a coach. He previously had been named defensive coordinator by Forrest Gregg when the latter took over as Green Bay's head coach in 1984. Bullough later resigned in May of 1984 to become head coach of the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League. With only four games left in the Mauler season at that point, Hank decided to wait until 1985 before taking the reins, only to see the Mauler franchise dissolve before he put on a headset.

Bullough subsequently was named head coach of the Buffalo Bills on October 1, 1985, remaining in that capacity through November 3, 1986. He compiled a 4-17-0 record in 21 games, including a 2-10 mark in 1985 and a 2-7 record in 1986 before being replaced by Marv Levy.

The personable Scranton, PA, native launched his coaching career at Michigan State in 1959, working with four MSU teams that placed in the wire service polls' collegiate top ten, including the 10-1 team of 1965 that was ranked number one by UP after winning the Big Ten championship.

Bullough left his alma mater in 1970 to join the Colts as linebacker coach, serving in Baltimore for three seasons. As a rookie assistant coach, he was part of a Super Bowl championship team in 1970 on the staff of the late Don McCafferty, helping the Colts to an 11-2-1 regular season record capped by a 16-13 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V.

As a collegian, Hank won three varsity football letters at Michigan State and was drafted by the Packers in the fifth round in 1955. Following his rookie season his career was interrupted by two years in military service. He returned to the Packers in 1958 before leaving to enter the coaching ranks at Michigan State under the late Duffy Daugherty in 1959.

In addition to serving as the Packers' defensive coordinator, Bullough will coach the linebackers.

Hank and his wife, Lou Ann, have three children — a daughter, Cheryl, and two sons, Shane and Chuck, both of whom have played linebacker at Michigan State.

GREG BLACHE Defensive Line Coach

Coaching has been a way of life for Greg Blache, the Packers' new defensive line coach, since his student days at Notre Dame.

The 39-year-old Blache (pronounced BLAA-sh), entered his profession unexpectedly when a lower leg injury suffered in freshman football at South Bend cut short his playing career. As a sophomore, he thus became a student assistant coach under the legendary Ara Parseghian, tutoring Notre Dame's freshman defensive backfield for the next three seasons.

Following graduation, Greg remained on Parseghian's staff as a graduate assistant and later was named to the Fighting Irish staff as a full-time aide in 1973. He remained in that capacity under new head coach Dan Devine in 1975 before moving to Tulane where he joined Packer Head Coach Lindy Infante on the Green Wave staff in 1976.

Blache returned to Notre Dame in 1981, serving as running back coach that season before taking over the defensive line and linebackers in 1982. Two years later, he joined Infante's Jacksonville Bulls staff. Following the USFL's demise, Blache coached at Southern University in 1986 and at Kansas in 1987. He had just moved to the University of North Carolina early this year when Infante invited him to join the Packer staff February 15, 1988.

Greg, an ardent hunter and fisherman, was born March 9, 1949. He is married (Bernardine) and the father of three children — Greg, Jr., 18, a sophomore at Notre Dame; Christopher, 12, who is in the eighth grade; and Corinne, 10, who is in the sixth grade.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1973-75 and 1981-83 (Notre Dame); 1976-80 (Tulane); 1984-85 (Jacksonville, USFL); 1986 (Southern University); 1987 (Kansas).

JOE CLARK General Offensive Assistant

Joseph B. "Joe" Clark, a 55-year-old California native, brings 29 years of coaching experience to his role as general offensive assistant on Lindy Infante's coaching staff.

Clark, who previously had been associated with Infante in both the college and pro ranks (with the Charlotte Hornets of the World Football League and Jacksonville of the USFL in the latter), has coached at every level over that three-decade span.

In his Packer responsibilities, the former Santa Clara field general will help Infante with the quarterbacks, assist in other position areas and aid in the breakdown of opponents' video and in game scouting.

Clark, whose experience has been primarily on the offensive side of the ball, began his coaching career at Wooster College in 1958 after spending "about an hour and a half with the Cleveland Browns," as he puts it. In the college ranks, he also has coached at the University of Detroit (1960-64), Tulane University (1965-70), Memphis State University (1974), Nicholls State University (1981-83), Southeastern Louisi-iana University (1985) and Southern University (1986) and at Loyola High School in his native Los Angeles (1971), Northside High School in Lafayette, LA. (1972-73) and at East Ascension High School in Gonzales, LA. (1976-80) at the prep level. He resigned at Southern University prior to the 1987 season to pursue other interests.

Joe, who says he has been "a disciple of Lindy's for years," first became associated with Infante at Memphis State in 1974. He also was a colleague of the Packer head coach with the Charlotte Hornets the following year and later an assistant on Infante's staff with the Jacksonville Bulls in 1984-85, coaching the offensive backs and special teams.

An All-America quarterback in high school at Inglewood, CA., Clark later played the same position for two varsity seasons at Santa Clara, which dropped football following his junior year.

He subsequently spent two years in the military service at Fort Lewis, WA., in 1955-56, earning all-service honors in his second year.

A brief stay with the Cleveland Browns followed and proved to have a profound effect upon Clark's life. "Being around Coach (Paul) Brown at the time made me want to get into coaching," Joe says, "and he helped me get my first couple of coaching jobs."

Clark, born December 22, 1932, is married (Sam).

CHARLIE DAVIS Offensive Line Coach

Charlie Davis, an energetic and persuasive Californian, brings impressive credentials to Green Bay's coaching staff, having been tight end coach of the highly successful Cleveland Browns the past two seasons.

His selection, which came on February 16, 1988, continues a long standing association with Packer Head Coach Lindy Infante. Davis previously coached with Infante at Tulane, later was a member of Lindy's staff when the Packers' new leader was head coach of the Jacksonville Bulls of the United States Football League in 1984-85 and, for the past two seasons, was a member of the Browns' offensive coaching staff headed by Infante as coordinator.

A three-year letterman in football at UCLA as a collegian (1962-64), Davis went on to gain his master's degree at San Francisco State, getting into coaching on the university's staff at the same time in 1967. He moved to Xavier University at Cincinnati in 1971, then to Ball State in 1974, helping the latter to a 9-2 record in 1975.

In 1976, Davis moved to Tulane, joining Infante on the Green Wave's coaching staff. When Infante left to sign on with the New York Giants in 1977, Davis became offensive coordinator. He remained on the staff through 1980, helping Tulane reach the Liberty Bowl in 1979, the year Infante returned to the Green Wave staff, and the Hall of Fame Bowl in 1980.

Charlie left football at the age of 36 after not reaching his personal objective — becoming a head coach — and went into the oil business in New Orleans for three years. Infante persuaded him to return to the game when Lindy became head coach at Jacksonville in 1984.

Although undersized by today's standards, Davis played linebacker at Kearney High School while growing up in the San Diego area, then continued in that position at San Diego City College in 1961, and at UCLA.

Charlie, was born in San Diego August 7, 1944. His wife, Virginia, runs a physical therapy business in New Orleans. They have a grown son, Bret. Charlie who dotes on popcorn as a luncheon repast, lists reading, golf, jogging and skiing as his favorite pastimes.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1966 (UCLA, graduate assistant); 1967-68 (San Francisco State); 1969-70 (San Diego City College); 1971-73 (Tulane); 1974-75 (Ball State); 1976-80 (Tulane); 1984-85 (Jacksonville, USFL); 1986-87 (Cleveland Browns).

WAYNE "BUDDY" GEIS Receivers Coach

Wayne "Buddy" Geis, a model of enthusiasm for his profession, has been a coach all of his adult life.

Geis, a 41-year-old native of Altoona, PA named to the Packer staff by Head Coach Lindy Infante February 15, 1988, moved into the coaching ranks immediately following graduation from Lock Haven University in Pennsylvania. He returned to his prep alma mater, Altoona High School, at that point to launch his career, now in its 19th year.

Earlier, upon graduating from high school, Buddy had earned a football scholarship to Northern Arizona University, where he played wide receiver and started several games his freshman year. After one season, he transferred to Lock Haven University and earned a degree in health and physical education.

After four years of coaching at Altoona, Buddy joined the University of Arizona staff under Jim Young, now head coach at Army. During his first year there, he earned his master's degree in education. In 1977, he moved to Tulane under Larry Smith, now head coach at USC. At Tulane he met Infante when the latter returned to the Green Wave's staff in 1979. Infante left following that season to join the National Football League's Cincinnati Bengals, while Geis continued on the Tulane staff through the 1983 season, helping the Wave gain the Liberty Bowl in '79 and the Hall of Fame Bowl in '80.

Geis subsequently left Tulane in December of 1982 to become offensive coordinator at the University of Kansas, but before the 1983 season began, received a call from Infante to become receivers coach on his new Jacksonville Bulls staff in the United States Football League.

After the USFL's demise following the 1985 season, Geis moved to Memphis State where he coached the quarterbacks in addition to serving as offensive coordinator.

While with Jacksonville, he honed the talents of Gary Clark, who has credited Geis with accelerating his development and who since has become an all-pro wide receiver with the Washington Redskins.

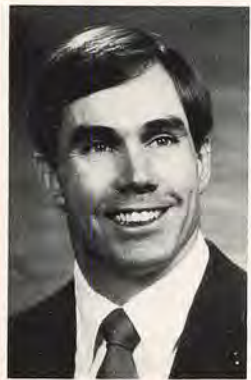

Geis, a tennis buff, was born September 16, 1946. He is married (Jere) and the father of two children, a son, Adam, 13, and a daughter, Jeni, 9.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1973-76 (Arizona); 1977-82 (Tulane); 1983-85 (Jacksonville, USFL); 1986-87 (Memphis State).

Lynn Dickey owns the second highest single game passing percentage in pro football history. The ex-Packer quarterback (1976-85) compiled a 90.48 mark by completing 19 of the 21 passes he attempted against the Saints in the New Orleans Superdome Sunday, December 13, 1981.

Dickey also shares honors for the second longest completion streak in NFL annals. He completed 18 straight attempts against the Oilers at Houston September 4, 1983, matching the string fashioned by Steve DeBerg for Denver in 1982.

DICK JAURON Defensive Backfield Coach

The Packer secondary continued to make impressive strides under the direction of Dick Jauron in 1987, his second year as a member of Green Bay's coaching staff.

The highly cerebral Yale alumnus, retained by Lindy Infante after the Packers' new head coach replaced Forrest Gregg in February of this year, produced a defensive backfield which ranked among the National Football League's elite in preventing "the bomb". The Green Bay outfield gave up only 14 touchdown passes, a season-long performance which ranked second only to that of the San Francisco 49ers, who permitted a league-leading 13.

A year earlier, in Jauron's first year of coaching, his secondary produced a substantial increase in interceptions over the previous season, picking off 20 passes compared to 15 in 1985 — a production achieved despite the loss of two starters — strong safety Mark Achary, who missed the entire season because of a foot problem, and cornerback Tim Lewis, who suffered a career-ending neck injury in the third game of the season against the Chicago Bears.

Originally named to the Packer staff by Forrest Gregg January 7, 1986, to succeed Ken Riley, Jauron began his pro coaching career in 1985 as a member of the Buffalo Bills' staff under Hank Bullough, now the Packers' defensive coordinator.

Dick, who left the business field in Miami to join the Bills, earlier had played for Gregg in 1980, the latter's first year as head coach at Cincinnati. Suffering a knee injury that season which ended his career, he subsequently assisted the Bengal coaching staff during Cincinnati's 1981 Super Bowl season while spending the year on injured reserve. Gregg later offered Jauron a coaching job the following season but Dick decided to go into business.

A graduate of Yale, where he ranks as one of the school's all-time football greats, the 37-year-old Jauron entered professional football in 1973 as a fourth round selection of the Detroit Lions and was named to the Pro Bowl following the 1974 season, his second in the NFL. Released by the Lions August 23, 1978, he signed with Cincinnati six days later and was a Bengal starter until he suffered the knee injury in Game 10 of the '80 season.

Jauron, a native of Swampscott, MA, made 26 interceptions over his eight pro seasons, including a career-high six for Cincinnati in 1979, and returned two of them for touchdowns. He also recovered 14 fumbles overall. Also employed as a kick returner in the early years of his NFL career, he posted a 10.2-yard average for 44 punt returns, including an impressive 16.8-yard average for 17 runbacks in 1974.

After retiring as a player, he owned a health fitness center in Cincinnati with teammate Jimmy Corbett. He sold his interest in the business in 1983 and moved to Florida, where he was employed by Nautilus until he joined the Buffalo coaching staff in July of 1985.

Born Richard Manual Jauron on Oct. 7, 1950, he was a nine-letter winner at Swampscott High School (three each in football, basketball and baseball) before going on to entrench himself among Yale's all-time football elite. An offensive back as a collegian, he still owns Yale's career rushing record (2,947 yards in 515 attempts, a 5.7-yard average), and holds the second longest run from scrimmage in the school's history (an 87-yard maneuver against Columbia in 1972). A three-letter winner, he was named to the Kodak and Walter Camp All-America teams following his senior season and was chosen to play in the East-West Shrine game.

A career in football was inevitable for the soft-spoken Ivy Leaguer. Dick's father, Robert, was a successful college football coach, once leading St. Joseph's College of Rensselaer, IN, to the national small college championship during the late 50s.

Dick and his wife, Gail, are the parents of two daughters, Kacy, born, April 2, 1985 and Amy, born October 3, 1986.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1985 (Buffalo, NFL); 1986-87 (Green Bay).

VIRGIL KNIGHT Tight Ends/Strength/Conditioning

Virgil Knight, who in 1984 became the first strength and conditioning coach in Packer history, this year takes on additional responsibilities under new Head Coach Lindy Infante. In addition to executing his previous duties, which included assisting with the offensive line, Knight will tutor the tight ends.

Knight, a 14-year coaching veteran of the college ranks, was named to the Green Bay staff Feb. 9, 1984 by Forrest Gregg. Previously a position coach, he had five years' experience as a strength coach — beginning in 1979 when he moved from Arkansas Tech to the University of Florida. He left Florida in 1981 to become a member of Coach Pat Dye's staff at Auburn, spending three years at the Alabama institution before joining the Packer organization.

Born January 30, 1948 in Clarksville, AR, Knight began his coaching career in 1971 at Sylvan Hills High School in Little Rock, AR. After one year there and three years at Marist, GA, High School, he moved into the college ranks at Arkansas Tech, where he coached the defensive line and linebackers for four years and also was head track coach.

As an athlete himself, Virgil won all-state honors in football and was an all-district selection in basketball in high school at Clarksville. He later attended Northeast Oklahoma University, where he was named to the All-Oklahoma College Athletic Conference football team in both his junior and senior years, and also competed in track.

Virgil and his wife, Becky, a school teacher in the Green Bay system, have two sons, Trent, 14, and Josh, 7.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1975-78 (Arkansas Tech); 1979-80 (University of Florida); 1981-83 (Auburn); 1984- (Green Bay Packers).

RICHARD T. "DICK" MOSELEY Outside Linebackers

Dick Moseley, a 54-year-old native of Detroit, has coached in three professional leagues — the NFL, the USFL and Arena — after first trying his hand at playing another professional sport, baseball.

A graduate of Detroit's Central High School, Moseley earned a degree in physical education at Eastern Michigan University in 1956 and then spent two years with the Dodger organization in professional baseball, reaching the Class A level at Elmira, N.Y., before deciding to enter coaching.

Moseley launched his coaching career at Hazel Park, MI, High School. He later coached at Mount Clemens, Wyandotte and Flint, MI, before entering the college ranks at his alma mater, Eastern Michigan, in 1968 as defensive backfield coach. In his first year there, the EMU secondary led the nation in pass interceptions with 29.

Moseley subsequently became defensive coordinator at Wichita State in 1971 before moving to the University of Minnesota in the same capacity in 1972. Under his direction, the Gopher defense set a record for takeaways in a season in 1973 (38) and later established another Big Ten mark by permitting no touchdown passes during the 1975 season. He joined the University of Colorado staff in 1979 and later entered the pro ranks with the New Jersey Generals of the USFL in 1982. He joined the USFL's Pittsburgh Maulers the following year, then moved to the NFL and Buffalo Bills in 1984 before signing on with the Arena League's Chicago Bruisers in 1987.

Coach Moseley has two sons Michael and Thomas. Dick lists outdoor sports and travel as his favorite pastimes.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1968-70 (Eastern Michigan); 1971 (Wichita State); 1972-78 (University of Minnesota); 1979-81 (Colorado); 1982 (New Jersey Generals USFL); 1983 (Pittsburgh Maulers, USFL); 1984-85 (Buffalo Bills); 1987 (Chicago Bruisers, Arena Football League).

WILLIE PEETE Offensive Backfield Coach

Soft-spoken Willie Peete, the painstaking and paternal coach of the Packers' offensive backfield, has coached at every level — high school, college and professional — during a 26-year career.

A former University of Arizona athlete and coach, he served as offensive backfield coach of the Kansas City Chiefs for four years before being named to Green Bay's staff by then Head Coach Forrest Gregg February 13, 1987.

The 50-year-old Peete, a native of Mesa, AZ, earlier had been an assistant coach at the University of Arizona for 12 years prior to joining the Kansas City organization in 1983 as an original member of John Mackovic's staff.

Described as "a quality coach" by Gregg in making the appointment, Willie began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Arizona, as a graduate assistant while completing his degree in physical education. He returned to his hometown, Mesa, upon graduation and became an assistant coach in both football and track at Mesa High School. He subsequently moved to a new high school, Westwood, where he served as an assistant in football and then as junior varsity basketball coach for seven years, a period during which he earned his master's degree in secondary education from Arizona State.

Peete later returned to the University of Arizona in 1971, joining the coaching staff on a full-time basis and staying on until he signed on with the Chiefs prior to the 1983 NFL season.

Himself a talented, all-around athlete, Willie won four varsity letters in football at the University of Arizona, where he played fullback. He earlier had earned nine letters—three each in football, basketball and baseball—in a three-year high school program at Mesa.

Willie and his wife, Edna, have two sons who also have excelled in football—Skip, 24, a varsity wide receiver at Kansas State who went to training camp with the New York Jets in both 1986 and 1987, and Rodney, a versatile athlete who is the starting quarterback at USC, where he also has been a member of the varsity baseball team. Skip this year followed his father into the coaching profession as a graduate assistant to Head Coach Mike Gottfried at the University of Pittsburgh.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1971-82 (University of Arizona); 1983-86 (Kansas City Chiefs); 1987- (Green Bay Packers).

COACHES

HOWARD "TIP" TIPPETT Special Teams Coordinator

Howard "Tip" Tippett, a 49-year-old product of Tallahassee, AL, is a true veteran of the coaching wars. He is now in his 30th year in his chosen vocation, his pedigree including eight seasons at the professional level and 12 years as a defensive coordinator in the college ranks.

A graduate of East Tennessee State University in 1959, he began his coaching career that year at Lafayette High School in Lexington, KY. He moved into the college ranks at Tulane in 1963, and later to the universities of Houston, West Virginia, Wake Forest and Mississippi State before venturing into pro football with the Jacksonville Express of the World Football League under Charlie Tate in 1974.

After the WFL went under in 1975, Tip joined the Washington State staff under Jackie Sherrill. He moved to the University of Oregon in 1977, then to Mississippi State for a second time in 1979, and to UCLA under Terry Donahue in 1980.

Following the latter assignment, he became linebacker/special teams coach at Tampa Bay in 1981, highlighting a four-year stint under John McKay by coaching the linebackers and special teams for the NFC squad in the 1982 PRO Bowl. He retained the position under Leeman Bennett for two additional years (1985-86) after the latter succeeded McKay. Tippett then joined the University of Illinois staff in 1987 as defensive coordinator under Mike White.

Howard, born September 23, 1938, is married (Peggy) and the father of four daughters, Paige 10, JoAnn, 7, Terri and Kimberly.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1963-65 (Tulane); 1966 and 1970-71 (West Virginia); 1967-69 (University of Houston); 1972 (Wake Forest); 1973 and 1979 (Mississippi State); 1974-75 (Jacksonville Express, WFL); 1976 (Washington State); 1977-78 (Oregon); 1980 (UCLA); 1981-86 (Tampa Bay Buccaneers); 1987 (Illinois).

HT: 6-3 • WT: 228 • BORN: 2/14/56 • (ACQ: D-1B, '78)

PRO: Already entrenched among the Packers' all-time linebacking elite, he this season dons a new mantle as the team's ranking greybeard in terms of Packer service... A first round draft choice in 1978, he now is in his eleventh season in green and gold... One of the most disciplined and dependable players in Packer history, he enjoyed a typically productive season in 1987, emerging as the No. 2 tackler on the defensive platoon with 65 solo stops... They included four quarterback sacks, an accomplishment which tied him for team runnerup honors... He also registered two interceptions, broke up five other passes and recovered three fumbles... These contributions added up to a triumphant comeback from a major injury — a broken ankle suffered in the first quarter of Game Four of the 1986 season against the Vikings at Minneapolis (Sept. 28)... That misadventure ended a 77-game starting streak, then the second in longevity on the Packer roster for Anderson... He made 21 tackles, along with six sts, and one interception before being injured... A dedicated and highly intelligent performer (he was an Academic All-American at Michigan), he has been a model of consistency since becoming a starter in the opening game of his rookie, '78 season... The quality of his contributions was underscored when he was voted the Packers' most valuable defensive player for three consecutive seasons (1982-83-84) by Wisconsin and Upper Michigan sports media... Equally effective at playing the run or the pass, he had his most productive season in '83 when he amassed 120 solo tackles, including four QB sacks, made 5 interceptions to share the team lead and knocked down 7 other passes... Highlighted his personal season that year by returning one of those 5 interceptions 27 yards for his first pro touchdown (vs. Tampa Bay in Green Bay Oct. 2)... His three consecutive MVP laurels accentuated a heartwarming comeback for the enduring Wisconsin native, hampered by injuries during his first three pro seasons, in each of which he suffered a fracture of the left arm... Wears a specially designed protective device (designed by Packer Trainer Domenic Gentile) to safeguard the arm, broken for first time in Game 12 of his baptismal, 1978 season (at Tampa)... again in a training camp scrimmage July 28, 1979 and a third time in Game Nine at Pittsburgh, Nov. 2, 1980... Missed first nine games of the '79 season and last 7 of '80 because of the latter two injuries... Underwent remedial surgery in late 1980, a procedure in which bone was grafted from a hip into the left arm... Operation was designed to give the bone greater density... Displayed his versatility upon returning to action in 1979 by kicking a 39-yard field goal in his first — and to date, only — pro placekicking attempt... Earned consensus NFL all-rookie honors in '78, when he made four interceptions in his first three games... Had been listed as backup punter on Packer depth chart, earlier in his career... Averaged better than 40 yards for a career total of 180 punts at Michigan.

COLLEGE: Academic All-American as junior... Environmental education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Roger John Anderson... Married (Susan) and father of a daughter, Christine Carly (born 10/18/86)... Voted Packers' NFL 'Man of the Year' by fans in 1983 for his efforts in behalf of civic and charitable causes... Graduate of Waukesha, WI, South High School... Former Wisconsin Punt, Pass & Kick champion... Has developed impressive reputation as after dinner speaker... Deeply religious, he often discusses his belief during speaking appearances... Hobbies: Travel, basketball and barbecuing... Hometown: Waukesha, WI... Residence: Elm Grove, WI.

PRO STATISTICS:

The fabled Don Hutson led the National Football League in scoring for five consecutive seasons, still an all-time record.

Robbie Bosco - 6

QUARTERBACK • BRIGHAM YOUNG • 1ST YEAR

HT: 6-2½ • WT: 198 • BORN: 1/11/63 • (ACQ: D-3, '86)

PRO: One of the most proficient and productive passers in college football history coming out of BYU in 1986, he is expected to contend for employment in 1988 after sitting out two seasons following surgery on his right shoulder ... Head Coach Lindy Infante says of him: "He's been throwing the ball pretty firmly and fairly accurately and I think he's now in a position where he should get in the hunt for the starting job" ... Had surgery performed by Dr. Frank Jobe in Los Angeles in mid-October of 1986 to correct instability in the shoulder ... Underwent extensive rehabilitation in the interim under Packer Trainer Domenic Gentile, who has been encouraged by Bosco's progress since the early months of '88. "Every day," he says, "Robbie gets a little stronger."

COLLEGE: The 24-year-old Californian finished third in NCAA career passing efficiency with a 149.4 rating, ranking behind only Jim McMahon (156.9) and Steve Young (149.8), both also former BYU quarterbacks, and ahead of John Elway (139.3) ... At the time of graduation, Bosco's NCAA records included: Most consecutive 200-yard passing games, 12; most 200-yard passing games in a season, also 12; most passes completed, three consecutive games, 105; most plays total offense, two years, 1,121; most completions, two years, 621; most passing attempts, two years, 969; most pass completions, one season, 338; most passing attempts, one season, 511; most yards passing, two years, 8,148. Also tied record for most seasons of 3,000-yards total offense or more with two (3,875 in 1984 and 4,273 in 1985) ... Compiled a 24-2 record as a starting quarterback for BYU, including '84 Holiday Bowl victory over Michigan ... Injured a knee early in the Holiday Bowl contest but returned to the game to finish with 30 pass completions in 43 attempts for 343 yards and 2 touchdowns, including the winning TD pass with 1:23 left in game ... Runnerup to Doug Flutie for Davey O'Brien Award, given to outstanding collegiate quarterback, and finished third in Heisman Trophy balloting ... Led nation in total offense that season (average of 327.7 yards per game while escorting BYU to the national championship) ... Posted personal career bests in 1985 for attempts (61, vs. New Mexico), completions (42, vs. New Mexico), yards (585, vs. New Mexico) and passing percentage (.809 on 17-for-21 vs. Wyoming). Again finished third in Heisman Trophy balloting ... Second team All-America selection by United Press International.

PERSONAL: Given name Robert Louis Bosco ... Married (Karen) ... Communications major ... Won four letters in football and basketball and three in golf at Roseville, CA High School ... Named all-league in all-three sports and all-Northern California in football.

Jerry Boyarsky - 61

NOSE TACKLE • PITTSBURGH • 8TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 290 • BORN: 5/15/59 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: Massive Pennsylvanian became a full-time starter and a major factor in the Packers' defensive front following departure of incumbent Charles Martin early in 1987 season ... Stacked up 23 tackles from his nose tackle position to share defensive line honors with end Alphonso Carreker in this category ... His production included a pair of quarterback sacks for 16 yards in losses and a pair of assists ... Appeared in 12 games overall and started eight, including last four of the season ... Missed two games (vs. Kansas City Nov. 22 and vs. Chicago Nov. 29) because of a knee injury ... New Head Coach Lindy Infante who was on the Cincinnati staff when Jerry previously played for the Bengals, says of him, "Boyarsky really is a load in the middle of the defensive line ... I was impressed via video study with his aggressiveness, the way he moved up and down the line of scrimmage. He may not be blessed with the greatest all-out speed in the world but the guy played hard and hustled all last year, and made a lot of big plays because of his tenacity and his ability to stay after people" ... The compactly constructed ex-Bengal originally joined the Packers Dec. 2, 1986 ... Appeared in two games — vs. Minnesota Dec. 7 and vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 14 ... Waived when Charles Martin rejoined team for '86 season finale following 2-game suspension ... Boyarsky later re-signed to a Green Bay contract March 27, 1987 ... The former Pitt Panther had begun the '86 season with Buffalo and appeared in 10 games before being waived Nov. 24 ... Made 12 tackles and was credited with 2 quarterback pressures while backing up the Bills' Fred Smerlas ... Signed on with the Bills Sept. 10, 1986 after being waived in the pre-season by the Bengals, with whom he had spent the previous four seasons (1982 through 1985) ... A fifth round selection (the 128th player chosen) of the New Orleans Saints in 1981 ... Played in 11 games as a rookie after spending first month of the regular season on injured reserve with a knee injury ... Released by Saints Sept. 6, 1982, he signed with Cincinnati Dec. 1 of the same season ... Played in 2 games for the Bengals that year and in 46 of 48 games over the next three seasons before being waived in '86.

COLLEGE: Played nose guard in Pitt's nationally ranked No. 1 defense ... Third-best career tackler among graduating seniors (215) behind Hugh Green and Rickey Jackson.

PERSONAL: Given name is Gerard Mark Joseph Boyarsky ... Married (Erin) and father of three children (Jerry Jr. born 5/18/82, Zachary born 1/21/85, and Krysta born 10/8/86) ... season, falling after slipping on an icy patch of turf while delivering a punt... Had averaged 40.1 yards for 55 kicks prior to the injury... Was credited with placing 6 punts inside the 20 and had only five of his efforts result in touchbacks, a record bettered in the NFC only by Minnesota's Greg Coleman and Greg Cater of St. Louis... Had a long of 63 yards, registered against Pittsburgh Nov. 2... Bracken, who succeeded Joe Prokop as the Packers' punter in '85, was recommended to then Head Coach Forrest Gregg by Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler, for whom Bracken set school's all-time punting record with a 43.3-yard average as a sophomore... Joined Green Bay Nov. 6, 1985 and made his first appearance for the Packers vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Metrodome Nov. 10, getting off a 44-yarder in his only punt of the afternoon during a 27-17 victory... Originally selected by Michigan of USFL in 1984 territorial draft and signed by Panthers in January of 1984... Released by Michigan Feb. 16 of that year, he had subsequent tryouts with Kansas City Chiefs, Baltimore Colts and Denver Broncos of the NFL, remaining with the Broncos until late in the '85 pre-season (August 27) before being waived... Averaged 40.5 yards for 26 punts with Packers after joining Green Bay early in November.

COLLEGE: A four-year starter and letterman at Michigan, he punted 203 times for 8,273 yards, a 40.8 career average... Possessor of excellent hang time, he punted 48 times as a junior and only 14 were returned for a 2.0-yard average... Set Michigan single season average record as a freshman (42.7), then broke it as a sophomore (43.3), a mark that ranked second in Big Ten that season... Earned second team All-Big Ten honors his first three seasons... His 73-yard punt vs. Washington in 1981 Rose Bowl set a record for the post-season classic... Exercise physiology major.

CORNERBACK • MICHIGAN • 14TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 197 • BORN: 1/16/53 • (ACQ: T-Sea., '87)

PRO: Enters 1988 season as professional football's leading active interceptor... Has amassed 53 career thefts, including three in 1987 to share team lead (with Jim Bob Morris) in his first season with Green Bay... Quickly stabilized Packer secondary and became a team leader after being acquired from the Seattle Seahawks in a draft choice trade late in the pre-season (August 28, 1987)... In addition to sharing club interception honors, he led the entire secondary in pass deflections with 13... Also weighed in with 35 solo tackles and 2 assists... A highly durable athlete, he extended his consecutive game streak to 97 (82 of them with the Seahawks) in the process... His contributions prompted then Head Coach Forrest Gregg to say following the season, "I don't know where we would have been in our secondary without Dave Brown"... The softspoken University of Michigan alumnus had stepped in at right cornerback, left vacant by the departure of Mossy Cade... Ranks among National Football League's elder statesmen in his 14th season... A natural leader, he was voted by his teammates as defensive captain for four straight years while at Seattle (1983-86)... Ranked second on Seahawk team in games played (159) and starts (159) prior to being traded to the Packers... Has missed only six games during his career, all in 1981 with a broken leg suffered at Cincinnati... Led Seattle in interceptions in four different seasons 1976 (3), 1979 (5), 1980 (6) and 1986 (5)...

DEFENSIVE END • VIRGINIA TECH • 7TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 267 • BORN: 5/21/60 • (ACQ: D-4, '82)

PRO: Highly durable, dependable and consistent, he enters the 1988 season with the longest durability streak by a current Packer, having played in 88 consecutive games ... A full-time starter at right defensive end the last two seasons, he has yet to miss a game since donning green and gold in 1982 ... Collected 20 solo tackles in 1987, including three quarterback sacks for 18 yards in losses ... Also batted down four passes and captured team runnerup honors in fumble recoveries with four, a figure bettered only by linebacker Brian Noble, who had five ... Registered 32 solo stops in 1986, matching the production of fellow starter LE Alphonso Carreker ... Led defensive platoon in fumble recoveries with four in 1985, a season in which he played extensively in all 16 games for the first time and started four ... Also forged the Packers' only safety of the '85 season, submerging Lions' quarterback Joe Ferguson in the Detroit end zone during a 43-10 Green Bay victory (October 6) ... The hustling Virginia Tech alumnus also highlighted his 1985 production by posting three QB sacks among 17 unassisted tackles ... Spiced his personal season in 1984 by intercepting a Gary Hogeboom pass vs. Dallas (Sept. 23) and returning it 5 yards for a third quarter touchdown — the Packers' only score of the afternoon as well as his first interception and first TD as a professional ... Also proved to be effective pass rusher in '84, collecting five QB sacks ... Launched Packer career as a linebacker in his rookie, '82 season, transferring to defensive end in '83 ... Was special teams standout in 1983, playing key role in kickoff coverage team's third place finish in National Football Conference statistics ... Paced that unit with 16 unassisted tackles ... Also was major contributor on Packer kamikaze squads as a rookie, making nine solo tackles during strike-shortened 9-game season ... A fourth round draft choice in 1982 (98th player selected).

COLLEGE: All-South Independent first team selection and NEA and College and Pro Football Newsweekly second team choice following senior season at Virginia Tech ... Also voted VT's MVP ... Transferred to Tech from Chowan Junior College, where he won All-America honors ... Played in Hula and Olympic Gold Bowls following senior season ... Education major.

HT: 6-3 • WT: 265 • BORN: 3/22/54 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: Signed as free agent just prior to Packers' 1987 season opener and made important season-long contribution to the cause ... The ebullient former Bengal, owner of the Super Bowl record for unassisted tackles, proved invaluable in late November, stepping in as starter at nose tackle for two games while incumbent Jerry Boyarsky was temporarily shelved by a knee injury, and playing well ... Registered 15 unassisted tackles overall, including one quarterback sack, and five assists ... A first round draft choice by Cincinnati in 1978 (the eighth player selected), he was starting defensive end for the Bengals for nine seasons ... Highlighted his Cincinnati contributions by setting a Super Bowl record for unassisted tackles with 10 in SB XVI against San Francisco 49ers ... Had 49 tackles in 1986, his final season with Cincinnati, including 6½ sacks.

COLLEGE: Consensus All-American at Notre Dame ... Winner of the Lombardi and Outland trophies, annually given to the premier college lineman.

PERSONAL: Given name Ross Browner ... Has two brothers playing in the NFL — Joey, a defensive back with the Minnesota Vikings, and Keith, a linebacker for the Tampa Bay Bucs ... Another brother, Jim, is a former Bengal defensive back ... A talented and versatile athlete, he is an excellent swimmer and boxer ... Won NFL heavyweight boxing title in 1979 ... Active in the fund raising for the United Negro College Fund and also involved with the NAACP, Boy Scouts of America, Notre Dame Alumni Club, Children's Homes of America and Day Care Center for Motivation ... Mark Cannon - 58

CENTER • TEXAS-ARLINGTON • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 270 • BORN: 6/4/62 • (ACQ: D-11, '84)

PRO: Personable Texan, a low round draft choice in 1984, has matured into a team leader as well as one of the NFL's more effective centers ... Rebounded from an injury-ridden 1986 season to start and play all 12 "A" team games in '87 ... New Head Coach Lindy Infante, basing his evaluation on off-season video study, says of Mark, "I think that Cannon's played very solid, very sound football in the middle of the line of scrimmage" ... Hampered by injuries in 1986 after establishing himself as the starter in 1985, taking over from retiring Pro Bowler Larry McCarren in only his second year as a professional ... Injured left knee in Game Five against Cincinnati at Milwaukee and spent five weeks on injured reserve before returning to the starting lineup against Tampa Bay in Milwaukee Nov. 16 ... Re-injured left knee against Bears at Chicago's Soldier Field the following Sunday (Nov. 23) and was sidelined for the balance of the season ... A year earlier, the dedicated Texas-Arlington alumnus had become the biggest individual success story of the Packers' 1985 season, when he made the imposing leap from special teams long snapper to starting status following McCarren's injury-enforced retirement ... Later won Packer coaches' plaudits by quickly establishing himself among the NFL's leading centers ... Was described by Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampfler as the most improved player in the offensive line over the '85 season ... Cannon likewise earned the admiration of former Philadelphia Eagles coach Dick Vermeil, who late in that '85 season tabbed Cannon as the Packer offensive line's standout ... Such accolades capped a storybook season for the youthful Austin, TX, native, who had been a late (eleventh round) draft choice a year earlier ... After serving as the Packers' long snapper in his rookie, 1984 season, Cannon started all 16 games in '85 and also handled all of the snaps on punts, extra points and field goals ... In addition to his long snap contributions in '84, he also was a factor on kickoff coverage, collecting six solo tackles ... He earlier had beaten out Larry Rubens, a three-year veteran, for the backup center berth.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Texas-Arlington ... Co-captain as both junior and senior ... Electrical engineering major.

HT: 6-6 • WT: 270 • BORN: 5/25/62 • (ACQ: D-1, '84)

PRO: A full-time starter for the past two seasons, the former Florida State athlete started all 16 games in 1987 for the second year in a row ... The first player Forrest Gregg selected in the draft after becoming the Packers' head coach in 1984, he shared solo tackle honors in the defensive line last season with nose tackle Jerry Boyarsky, matching Boyarsky's total of 23 ... Punctuated his production with four quarterback sacks to share runnerup laurels in this category with linebacker John Anderson ... Lindy Infante, the Packers' new head man, says of Alphonso, "Carreker is a good, solid player that just needs to start making a bigger impact as far as the pass rush is concerned, and we feel certain that he'll be able to do that" ... Had his best performance as a professional to date in the 1985 "Snow Bowl" game against Tampa Bay in Green Bay's Lambeau Field December 1, 1985, collecting four quarterback sacks during a 13-inch snowstorm, a performance which earned him National Football Conference "Defensive Player of the Week" honors ... Registered 32 solo tackles in '86, including 3½ sacks ... Started 14 of 16 games in '85, giving way to returning veteran Mike Butler for two games before regaining the position when an injury shelved Butler ... Eight, or over half, of his 15 tackles in '85 were sacks ... He also broke up one pass ... Emerged as runnerup in tackles along the defensive line in 1984 as a rookie with 32, earning consensus NFL All-Rookie honors in the process ... Has career total of 19½ sacks.

COLLEGE: A three-year fixture in the defensive line at Florida State, where he was known as the "Secretary of Defense" ... Led the Seminoles in sacks in both 1982 and '83 ... Chosen to play in East-West Shrine game and Japan Bowl following senior season.

PERSONAL: Given name Alphonso Carreker ... Married (Kimberly) ... Last name pronounced CARE-uh-ker ... Nickname: "Chubb" ... FULLBACK • ALABAMA • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 225 • BORN: 7/12/61 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

PRO: A model of versatility and dependability, he started at both tailback and fullback during the 1987 season, contributing as a 'bread-and-butter' rusher, sure-handed receiver and effective blocker ... Started one game at fullback — vs. Bears in Green Bay Nov. 8 — and the last four of the season at tailback (vs. 49ers Dec. 6, vs. Vikings Dec. 13, vs. Giants Dec. 19 and vs. Saints Dec. 27) ... Had best rushing day of season against 49ers, gaining 68 yards in 17 attempts and scoring Packers' final touchdown of the afternoon on a one-yard run ... Also scored the Green and Gold's first TD against Minnesota the following week on another one yard run which contributed to a 16-10 victory over the playoff-bound Vikings ... Scored Packers' only TD of the day vs. the Giants a week later in a 20-10 loss to New York ... Posted his first score of the season as a receiver, pulling in a 7-yard Don Majkowski pass in the end zone, staking the Packers to a 13-0 lead over the Denver Broncos at Milwaukee (Sept. 20) at that point ... Later registered what proved to be Green Bay's winning touchdown in a 23-3 victory over the Chiefs Nov. 22, veering into the right corner of the end zone off a 6-yard draw ... Closed out season as Packers No. 4 rusher (192 yards in 64 attempts, a 3.0 average) and No. 4 scorer (24 points on 4 TDs) ... Ex-Birmingham Stallion joined Green Bay as a free agent in mid-August of 1986, after United States Football League found it expedient to release a number of players ... Proceeded to win the starting job at fullback before two months had elapsed ... Took over in Game Five against the Bengals at Milwaukee (Oct. 5) and held the position the rest of the way ... Closed out as the Packers' No. 3 rusher (308 yards in 81 carries, a 3.8 average, and 2 TDs) ... Also caught 24 passes for 134 yards and 2 TDs ... His 24 points enabled him to share team runnerup scoring honors with Phillip Epps and James Lofton ... Had his best rushing performance of the season against Buccaneers at Tampa Dec. 14, gaining 56 yards in 11 carries ... His production included a 42-yard run, his longest of the season ... Carruth says of himself: "I do everything to a certain level. I'm not great at any one thing. I'm not a great runner, not a great receiver, not a great blocker, but good enough at all of them to get the job done" ... New Coach Lindy Infante says of him: "Paul Ott Carruth has played often and seems so very versatile in the things that he does — a guy that kind of has the knack of finding a little crease here and there" ... Signed on with Birmingham following his senior (1984) season at Alabama ... Had attracted the attention of then Packer Coach Forrest Gregg as a member of the South squad in the 1985 Senior Bowl, when Gregg coached the South ... Was chosen MVP in the Senior Bowl ... Played behind Joe Cribbs at Birmingham, starting one game ... As a Packer in 1986, he was the team's emergency quarterback as well as the starting fullback, having played quarterback his first three years in high school.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at halfback for Alabama ... Captained Crimson Tide as a senior ... Advertising major ... Recruited out of high school as a wishbone QB.

PERSONAL: Given name Paul Ott Carruth ... Nickname: "Otter" ... Married (Lindsey) ... Wife has played football (flag) in a Green Bay league ... Cousin of baseball Hall of Famer Mel Ott ... Graduate of Parklane High School (McComb, Miss.), where he earned all-state and All-America honors at tailback as a senior and was chosen "Player of the Year" in the state of Mississippi ... Hobbies: Water skiing, softball, basketball, golf, drawing ... Hometown: Summit, MS.

FULLBACK • ARKANSAS • 6TH YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 233 • BORN: 1/3/60 • (ACQ: D-7, '83)

PRO: A solid, all-around fullback and a formidable power runner when in good health, he rebounded from injury problems of 1986 to enjoy a productive campaign in 1987 ... Started 10 of 12 "A" team games and emerged as third-ranking rusher (211 yards in 56 attempts, a respectable 3.8 average) and No. 4 receiver (22 catches for 119 yards and 1 TD) ... Had best rushing day of season against 49ers in Green Bay December 6 with 76 yards in 10 attempts, including the Packers' second longest run from scrimmage of the season, a 57-yard effort ... New Packer Coach Lindy Infante says of him: "Jessie Clark has played often and certainly has shown that he's a tough guy. He can block." ... Troubled by nagging rib injury in 1986, he saw action in only five games, starting one (vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Sept. 28) ... A hustling all-out competitor, Clark had the most productive season of his career in 1984 ... Starting 14 of 16 games, he closed out as team's No. 2 rusher (633 yards in 147 attempts, a 3.8 average) in falling only 3 yards short of team leader Eddie LeIvery ... Highlighted his efforts with the longest run from scrimmage of the National Football League season — an 80-yard excursion against the Cardinals at St. Louis Sept. 29 ... It also ranks as the fourth longest run from scrimmage in Packer history ... Finished the day with 112 yards in 9 attempts — the first 100-yard rushing performance of his pro career and one of three by Packer running backs in '85 ... Collaborated with quarterback Jim Zorn in pulling off another memorable play Nov. 3 of '85, gathering in a Zorn pass and wheeling into the end zone to complete a 55-yard pass-run maneuver which staked Green Bay to a temporary 10-7 lead over the eventual Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears ... Finished as runnerup to team leader Al Del Greco in scoring with 42 points on 7 touchdowns ... Named offensive captain by then Head Coach Forrest Gregg just prior to Game Five in the 1985 season ... Started first 11 games of 1984 season at fullback before incurring an elbow injury which sidelined him for the rest of the year ... Despite sitting out those last five weeks, he finished as the Packers' No. 3 rusher (375 yards in 87 carries) and No. 4 receiver (29 catches for 234 yards) ... Emerged as team's No. 2 rusher as a rookie in 1983, gaining 328 yards in 71 carries, despite being hampered by a turf toe injury for several weeks ... He also teamed with quarterback Lynn Dickey to forge the Packers' longest offensive play of the '83 season, a 75-yard pass-run

PRO: One of the biggest men in the game, he has the potential to be a force in the Packers' offensive line ... The huge Bethune Cookman alumnus originally joined the Packers' replacement team in late September of 1987 and started all three "B" team games, displaying sufficient talent to survive when the strike ended ... Went on to play in seven of nine games the rest of the way, earning three consecutive starts en route (vs. the Bears Nov. 8, the Seahawks Nov. 15 and the Chiefs Nov. 22) ... In his first post-strike start, vs. the Bears, he did not give up a sack though confronted by Dan Hampton most of the afternoon ... Has intriguing combination of great size, imposing strength and quick feet — all of the assets coaches look for in an offensive lineman ... Had previous tryouts with the Browns (1985) and Chargers (1986) ... Moved to offensive tackle at Cleveland, where he survived until final cut in '85 ... Packers had to petition Sandknit to make a special jersey to accommodate Collier's 24-inch biceps ... Wears a size 58 jersey.

COLLEGE: Defensive end at Bethune Cookman ... Won Little All-America honors as senior.

PERSONAL: Given name Steven Andre Collier ... Fitness consultant at Chicago Health Club prior to joining Packers in September of 1987 ... Father of daughter, Chauntae, born 2/8/85 ... OFFENSIVE TACKLE • IOWA • 1ST YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 280 • BORN: 11/10/63 • (ACQ: D-3A, '87)

PRO: Expected to make substantial bid for berth in offensive line after spending last season on injured reserve with an elbow problem after being selected in the third round of the 1987 draft ... Considered one of the premier offensive tackles in the nation and the top left tackle in the college ranks going into the draft ... Possesses all the tools scouts look for in a quality lineman — great size, excellent strength, impressive quickness and fine intelligence ... Had been a starter for the Hawkeyes for three years ... Considered a fine basketball prospect coming out of the prep ranks but chose his first love, football, when he arrived on the Iowa campus ... Croston worked under All-American John Alt, a 1984 first round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs, his first two years with the Hawkeyes and credits Alt with his development at left tackle ... Following Croston's '86 season, Hawkeye Coach Hayden Fry said of him, "Dave Croston may be the best pass blocker we've had at Iowa since I've been here."

COLLEGE: Finalist for the Outland Trophy, given to the nation's top interior lineman, in 1986 ... First team All-Big Ten Conference and Academic All-Big Ten selection ... Pre-business major.

PERSONAL: Given name David Charles Croston ... Played offensive tackle in football and power forward in basketball at Sioux City, Ia, Rast High School ... First team all-state selection twice in football.

Kenneth Davis - 36

RUNNING BACK • TEXAS CHRISTIAN • 3RD YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 209 • BORN: 4/16/62 • (ACQ: D-2, '86)

PRO: Talented Texan is counted upon to play a prominent role in the "multiple approach" offense installed by new Head Coach Lindy Infante after leading Green Bay in rushing for second consecutive season in 1987... Infante, favorably impressed with what he saw of Davis on video in the off-season, says of him, "He's been impressive on many occasions... I think he seems to be fairly versatile. He's been split out some and played out in space pretty decent; he runs the ball hard and seems to have a good knack in the open field"... Rushed for 413 yards in 109 attempts (a 3.8 average) and 3 touchdowns... Also weighed in with 14 pass receptions for 110 yards... Punctuated his personal season with the first 100-yard rushing day of his career, amassing 129 yards in 23 carries vs. Detroit at the Pontiac, MI, Silverdome October 25... Highlighted that performance with a pair of long scoring runs — a 39-yard sortie in the first quarter and a 28-yard maneuver in the second... Also made a dramatic and decisive contribution to an upset of the playoff-bound Minnesota Vikings at Milwaukee December 13, spurring off left tackle and into the end zone from 7 yards out for the winning touchdown with only 1:14 remaining to play... Also had a productive afternoon in a losing cause against Seattle Nov. 15 gaining 75 yards in 14 rushes... Missed two games because of a bruised sternum (vs. Bears Nov. 29 and vs. 49ers Dec. 6)... Averaged an impressive 4.6 yards per attempt as a rookie in emerging as the team's leading rusher for the first time (519 yards in 114 attempts)... A starter in six games overall, he posted Packers' longest run from scrimmage of the season, a 50-yarder in the season finale vs. the New York Giants (Dec. 20)... Had best day — and the most productive outing for a Packer running back all season — against Washington in Green Bay (Nov. 9) piling up 93 yards in 16 attempts... Earlier rushed for 65 yards in 10 attempts in the second half at Cleveland (Oct. 19) to spearhead a comeback which produced a 17-14 come-from-behind victory, the Packers' first of the season after six losses... Caught 21 passes for 142 yards and one TD and also made major contributions on special teams, averaging 19.3 yards for 12 kickoff returns and weighing in with 7 solo tackles on coverage units.

COLLEGE: Set TCU single season (1,611 yards in 1984) and career (2,944 yards in 493 attempts) for rushing... TCU's first consensus All-American (chosen in 1984) since the legendary Bob Lilly was so honored in 1959... Finished fifth in Heisman Trophy voting in '84... Speech communications major.

PERSONAL: Given name Kenneth Earl Davis... One of 12 children... Father of a daughter, Danielle Olliniesse, born 10/21/87... Considered one of Lone Star state's premier racquetball players... Lists professional pool champions Willie Mosconi and Minnesota Fats as personal sports heroes because he aspires to be a professional pool player one day... Active in Pro-Am Reunion Golf Tournament which benefits Methodist Hospital of Dallas... Led his Temple, TX, High School team to an unbeaten season and a Texas state championship... Widely recruited as a prep All-American before settling upon TCU... Hometown: Temple, TX.

WIDE RECEIVER • TEXAS CHRISTIAN U. • 7TH YEAR
HT: 5-9½ • WT: 165 • BORN: 11/11/58 • (ACQ: D-12, '82)

PRO: Wing-footed Texan, one of the National Football League's swiftest citizens, formally took his place among the Packers' all-time elite in 1987 ... Moved into tenth place on the Green Bay's lifetime receiving list, swelling his career catch total to 181 while passing Rich McGeorge, previously No. 10 with 175 ... Closed out season with 34 receptions for 516 yards (a 15.2 average) and 2 touchdowns despite missing the last two games of the year with an abdominal muscle pull ... Had his best days of the season against the Packers' favorite enemies, the Bears ... Caught 6 passes in each game against the NFC Central champions, amassing 139 yards and one touchdown in Green Bay's Lambeau Field November 8 and rolling up 81 yards in their November 29 rematch at Chicago's Soldier Field ... Put together the most productive year of his NFL career in 1986 despite suffering a broken left ankle in Game 12 at Chicago (Nov. 23), a mishap which forced him to miss the last four games of the year ... Still came away with 49 receptions in his second season as a starter, five more than he made over the full 16-game route in 1985 ... Had most prolific afternoon of the season — and of his pro career — from the standpoint of receptions — in a nationally televised "Monday Night Football" game vs. the Bears in Green Bay Sept. 22 of '85, making 9 catches for 99 yards ... Later had a 2-touchdown day vs. Tampa Bay at Milwaukee Nov. 16 in his last pre-injury start ... One of those was a 53-yard collaboration with quarterback Randy Wright ... Shared runnerup scoring honors with Paul Ott Carruth and James Lofton at 24 points ... Had Packers' longest reception of 1985 season, a 63-yard hookup with quarterback Lynn Dickey which triggered go-ahead touchdown in a 27-17 victory over the Vikings at the Minneapolis Metrodome ... Finished afternoon with 6 catches for 118 yards, his first 100-yard receiving day as a professional ... Also had Packers' longest punt return of '85 season, the same day, a 46-yard effort ... Later completed a sweep of team "longest" honors by making team's longest kickoff return of the season, a 48-yard venture against Miami in Green Bay Dec. 8 ... A year earlier, the former TCU star started the last four games of the '84 season following an injury to John Jefferson, catching 14 passes for 233 yards and 3 TDs over that span ... Posted a 16.7-yard average per catch overall, second only to Lofton's team-leading 22.0 in finishing year with 26 receptions for 435 yards ... His biggest moment of that '84 season came against Bears in Chicago Dec. 9 when he gathered in "Hail Mary" pass from Rich Campbell in last minute of play, eluded defender Terry Schmidt and sprinted into end zone with what proved to be winning touchdown in a 20-14 victory over the Midway Monsters ... It was a 43-yard maneuver, second longest reception of the season for Epps, who earlier had pulled in a 56-yard throw against Lions (Nov. 22) ... Voted Packer "Rookie of the Year" in 1982 when he posted team-leading average of 22.6 yards per reception (10 catches for 226 yards) and 2 TDs ... Also finished as ninth ranking punt returner in the National Football Conference... Emerged as No. 6 punt returner in NFC in 1983 (a 9.0-yard average for 36 runbacks), highlighting his efforts with longest PR of the season in the NFC, a 90-yard TD run which keyed a 55-14 Packer triumph over Tampa Bay (Oct. 2)... The 321st player chosen in the '82 draft, the Atlanta, TX, native overcame imposing odds to make the Packer roster... Following the '82 season, he starred in another sport — track — running what was then the fifth fastest 60-yard dash in the history of American track (6.07 seconds) in a meet at Oklahoma City while competing for Texas Christian in his final year of collegiate track eligibility... Set club record with 8 punt returns vs. Vikings, Nov. 21, 1987.

THE PLAYERS

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at TCU... Had 100-yard kickoff return for TD as a freshman... Finished second in 200 meters in '82 NCAA outdoor track championships with a 20.1 clocking... Also ran 10.1 in 100 meters during collegiate career... Has bachelor of science degree in criminal justice.

PERSONAL: Given name Phillip Earl Epps... Married (Ceca) and father of daughter, Rachel Renee (born 9-22-84)... All-state football selection at Atlanta, TX, High School, where he led football team to district title with 11-1 record... Set national age group record in track as high school freshman with 21.0 time in 220-yard dash... Hobbies: All sports, reading, music... Sales representative for an auto dealer in off-season... Hometown and residence: Fort Worth, TX.

Brent Fullwood - 21

RUNNING BACK • AUBURN • 2ND YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 209 • BORN: 10/10/63 • (ACQ: D-1, '87)

PRO: Although hampered by a hamstring injury as a rookie in 1987, the St. Cloud, FL native underscored his imposing potential by closing out the season as the Packers' No. 2 rusher with 274 yards in 84 carries a 3.3 average, and a team-leading 5 touchdowns ... Also was Packers' leading kickoff returner with 510 yards on 24 runbacks, a 21.3 average ... New Coach Lindy Infante, aware of Number 21's capabilities, says of him: "Brent Fullwood should be past the stage of being a rookie now and I think a lot more should be expected out of Brent Fullwood, although maybe a lot was expected out of him. But we need to get a lot more out of Brent Fullwood. I think he needs to be a guy that starts to make an impact on us offensively. I think he's definitely a talented player — a hard runner, aggressive, seems to have that ability, hopefully, that takes a five-yard gain and turns it into a 25 or 30-yard gain" ... Had best day of his rookie season against the Chiefs at Kansas City (Nov. 22), rushing for 68 yards in 23 attempts ... Followed with 64 yards in 20 carries against the Bears the following Sunday (Nov. 29) while making his only start of the season ... Played in 11 of the 12 "A" team games overall, sitting out the Viking game Dec. 13 with a leg injury.

COLLEGE: Unanimous All-America selection (by AP, UPI, Kodak, Football Writers, Football News, Scripps Howard and Walter Camp) when he led Southeastern Conference in rushing (1,391 yards in 167 attempts, an 8.3 average) ... Rushed for over 100 yards seven times, tying a school record ... Had best day against Tennessee, rolling up 207 yards in 18 carries ... Rushed for 2,789 yards overall and a school record career average of 7.15 yards per attempt ... Finished sixth in Heisman trophy voting as a senior.

PERSONAL: Given name Brent Fullwood ... Married (Lanett) ... Rushed for 4,580 yards, scored 47 touchdowns and 322 points at St. Cloud, FL, High School ... Returned 10 kickoffs as a senior — all for touchdowns ... and three of five punt returns for scores ... Set a national record with three kickoff returns for touchdowns in one game ... Consensus prep All-America ... Honored with "Brent Fullwood Day" in native St. Cloud (May 4, 1987) after being drafted number one by the Packers ... Says most admired athlete is Tony Dorsett of the Broncos.

George "Tiger" Greene - 23

DEFENSIVE BACK • WESTERN CAROLINA • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 194 • BORN: 2/15/62 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

PRO: Highly productive performer in 1987 as both a "nickel back" in Packers pass defense package and an all-out member of the special teams' coverage units ... Collected 31 solo tackles as a defensive back — more than any other except for the four starters in the secondary — and three assists ... Also made one interception, broke up three other passes and recovered two fumbles ... Likewise a special teams standout, he registered 7 unassisted tackles on kick coverage ... The former Atlanta Falcon joined the Packers as a free agent September 25, 1986 and quickly found a new home ... Inserted in starting lineup in Game 7 at Cleveland (Oct. 19), along with Ken Stills and Timothy Harris, he made his presence felt immediately in starting role at strong safety, collecting seven tackles and three assists in that Cleveland contest, helping Packers come from behind to post a 17-14 victory over the Browns and end a six-game losing streak ... Started for the rest of the season and made "big play" impact, making two interceptions and registering one quarterback sack ... Also blocked a punt in Nov. 23 rematch with Bears in Chicago ... Originally signed by Atlanta as free agent in 1985 ... Although hobbled by injuries as a rookie he managed to play in 10 games and start seven ... Forced into starting lineup in Game 7 of '85 by an injury to teammate Scott Case, he responded by making pivotal pass interception in end zone to stop a New Orleans drive that had reached Atlanta one-yard-line ... Also had an interception to stall a Rams drive in a 30-14 Falcon victory ... Recorded 35 tackles (25 solo) before returning to injured reserve for last two games after incurring ankle injury at Kansas City ... Can play cornerback, safety or nickel back.

COLLEGE: Was two-time All-Southern Conference choice and second team Division 1-AA All-America selection at Western Carolina ... Specialized in blocking kicks, blunting seven during his career ... One block against Holy Cross gave his W. C. Catamounts a Division 1-AA quarter-finals victory over Crusaders ... Business management major.

PERSONAL: Given name George Everett Greene ... Nickname: "Tiger" ... Married (Juedey) and father of a new son, Anthony Jovohn (born 5/9/87) ... TIGHT END • ELON COLLEGE • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 267 • BORN: 9/29/58 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: Former Denver Bronco joined Packers as a free agent September 15, 1987 ... Backed up Ed West at tight end the balance of the season and became a formidable factor on special teams coverage units, collecting seven unassisted tackles to rank among team leaders in this category ... Played in all 11 "A" team games after reporting to Green Bay following season opener ... Played well for American Football Conference champion Broncos as a rookie in 1986, as a reserve tight end and on special teams ... Appeared in every game of the regular season and postseason and started the last three games of the regular season, as well as the divisional playoff game against New England (Jan. 4, 1987) and the AFC championship game against Cleveland (Jan. 11) ... Made three catches for 48 yards in the regular season and also registered five tackles and four knockdown blocks on special teams ... Joined the Broncos in 1986 after spending two seasons with the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers, for whom he caught 63 passes for 946 yards and 8 touchdowns ... Had previous tryouts with the Dallas Cowboys, Washington Redskins and the USFL's New Jersey Generals ... Only second Elon graduate to play for Packers, following another tight end, Rich McGeorge (1970-78), a first round draft choice.

COLLEGE: Played four years of varsity football (1977-80) for the Fightin' Christians of Elon ... Also played three years of varsity baseball ... Obtained degree in physical education.

Ron Hallstrom - 65

OFFENSIVE GUARD • IOWA • 7TH YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 295 • BORN: 6/11/59 • (ACQ: D-1, '82)

PRO: A leader in deed as well as word, the Packers' huge offensive captain set a sterling example for his colleagues up front in 1987 ... Gave up only one-half sack, best performance of the season by a Green Bay offensive lineman ... Also led the offensive line in cuts and knockdowns (the number of times a lineman gets an opponent off his feet) ... Had best overall year of his career in the process ... It prompted Jerry Wampfler, then Packer offensive line coach, to say, "I think Ron is capable of going to the Pro Bowl level. I think that would be the next step for him" ... Hallstrom says of himself and his '87 performance: "I feel it's coming together now. I still have a ways to go ... I didn't have much experience when I came into the NFL. I took every year as a learning experience ... It's just going on three years that I've been a starter, and that's not long. When I came into the NFL, I could do some things because I was big, but there's a lot more to the game than that. I'm getting to a point where I can use my size and my technique hand-in-hand" ... Also credits his improved performance to a more relaxed approach to his responsibilities as offensive captain, new to him in 1986 when he was appointed by then Head Coach Forrest Gregg. "I think I took a little too much on and I learned from that experience," Hallstrom says. "When I was named captain, I wanted to do extra things, but I'd never been a captain before and I didn't know what to do. I tried to help other people out and I think it took a lot away from my game ... I'm going to help others out now, too, but I'm not going to take away from my game" ... Has been the Packers' incumbent at right guard since fourth game of the '84 season ... Ran his consecutive game streak to 76, second longest on the team, by starting all 12 "A" team games ... Moved into starting lineup at Dallas Sept. 30, 1984, replacing Syd Kitson at right guard ... Hallstrom responded by developing into a strong run blocker and effective pass protector ... His performance later prompted Gregg to observe, "As far as our right guard position is concerned, that issue is settled" ... Had been listed as a backup tackle on the depth chart going into the '84 season after beginning his pro career at guard two years earlier ... Hampered in early weeks of 1985 season by ankle injury that forced him to miss a portion of the league opener against the Patriots at New England ... Returned to starting lineup in Game Two vs. New York Giants and has made 43 consecutive starts in the interim ... Played in seven of nine regular season games during strike-interrupted '82 season, his rookie year ... Also appeared in Super Bowl Tournament games against Cardinals and Cowboys ... Was backup to Swanke at LT in 1983 and played in all 16 games.

COLLEGE: Accorded AP and UPI all-Big Ten honors as senior at Iowa — his first year as an offensive lineman ... Played defensive tackle his freshman season at Iowa Central Junior College, earning second team All-America honors ... Also played DT in 1979 following transfer to Iowa ... Red-shirted in 1980, when he was moved to offensive tackle ... Made transition with ease, rising to No. 1 guard entering '81 season, playing in all 11 games and starting for Hawkeyes in Rose Bowl ... Also was invited to play in East-West Shrine game, Blue-Grey and Japan Bowl games.

PERSONAL: Given name Ronald David Hallstrom ... Nickname: "Abbs" ... Married (Mary Pat) and father of a daughter, Emily Erin (born 10-31-86) ... Lettered twice in football at Moline, IL, High School ... Born in Holden, MA ... Hobbies: Hunting, fishing, golf, "baby bouncing" ... Spokesperson for Hemophilic Association ... Residence: Moline, IL.

Gregg Harris - 63

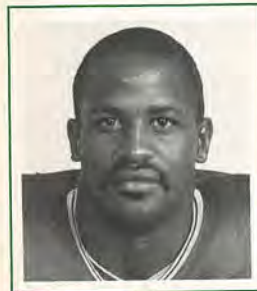

CENTER • WAKE FOREST • 1ST YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 279 • BORN: 4/8/66 • (ACQ: D-9, '87)

PRO: A ninth round draft choice in 1987, he spent the regular season on the injured reserve list after suffering a shoulder injury ... Drafted as a guard, he is listed at center on the depth chart coming into the 1988 season ... Termed "a very, very good athlete" by then Head Coach Forrest Gregg at the time he was selected in the 1987 college draft ... Has impressive size, with good feet, speed and quickness.

COLLEGE: Enrolled at Wake Forest in 1985 after an all-conference season at Independence, KS, Junior College ... Worked his way into the starting lineup and came on strong in his senior year ... Late developing athlete who excelled for the Deacons in the second half of the '86 season ... Entered Wake Forest weighing 310 pounds, pared weight down to 258 before building back up to the 270s ... Speech communications major.

PERSONAL: Given name William Gregg Harris ... Single ... All-league selection in football at Norfolk, VA, Catholic High School in 1982 ... Would like to enter communications field, preferably in television.

Timothy Harris - 97

LINEBACKER • MEMPHIS STATE • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 235 • BORN: 9/10/64 • (ACQ: D-4A, '86)

PRO: A key figure in a defense which ranked among the most miserly in the National Football Conference last season, he emerged as the Packers' sack leader for the second year in a row ... New Head Coach Lindy Infante is counting upon the former Memphis State athlete to improve upon that 1987 performance which saw him register 55 unassisted tackles, including a team-leading seven sacks for 52 yards in losses ... "What we need out of Harris this year," Infante says, "is we need to get a few more big plays, a few more pressures on the quarterback, a few more sacks out of him" ... Infante characterizes the towering linebacker as "a guy who has the ability to play up and down; he's a big linebacker or a smallish down lineman, whichever you want to call him, and he's one of those guys who gives you the ability to play in both positions, and gives you the ability to have a multiple approach to your defense because you can play him down or play him up and do those types of things with him" ... Harris augmented his 55 tackles with 14 assists and also broke up three passes ... Became a starter in the seventh game of the 1986 season and quickly developed into a fixture in the defense before the year was out, capping the season, by capturing Packer "Rookie of the Year" honors in a runaway ... Dale Lindsey, who was number 97's position coach in 1986 and '87, said of him, "Tim can be like Ted Hendricks if he wants to be, and Hendricks was a pretty fair country football player. Tim can be a Pro Bowler if he wants to, because he can do two things — play linebacker or defensive end — where most other players can only do one" ... Remindful of Hendricks in build as well as range and ability, Harris emerged as the defensive unit's "big play" leader as a rookie despite playing only sparingly in the first six games ... Paced the platoon in sacks with 7½, broke up three passes, forced two fumbles and recovered one ... Made an impressive starting debut at Cleveland (Oct. 19) ... Collected 10 unassisted tackles, including one QB sack, and added two assists ... He also forced a second quarter fumble, recovered by teammate John Dorsey at midfield, which led to an Al Del Greco field goal that proved to be the eventual winning margin in a 17-14 victory — a win that ended a six-game Packer losing streak ... Later made such an impression on CBS analyst John Madden in a dramatic, 44-40 victory over Detroit that Madden announced he was naming Harris to his "All-Thanksgiving Day" team ... Timothy's contributions that afternoon, on which he put heavy pressure on Lions quarterback Joe Ferguson, included a quarterback sack and a punt block converted into a Green Bay touchdown when John Simmons made an end zone recovery of the football ... Harris also broke up a Ferguson pass ... Closed out season with a flourish against the eventual Super Bowl champion New York Giants, sacking quarterback Phil Simms twice and collecting six total tackles ... Registered 51 tackles overall in his nine starts, in addition to 16 assists.

COLLEGE: Was three-year starter at Memphis State, setting a school record for most tackles for lost yardage in a season (17 in 1983) and in a career (47 for 270) ... Also set MS mark for most sacks in a game (three vs. Vanderbilt in '83) ... Had 17-tackle performance against Ole Miss. in '84. Co-captain as a senior ... Selected to play in Senior and Hula Bowls ... Accounting major.

PERSONAL: Given name Timothy David Harris ... Married (Barbara) ... Attended Woodlawn High in Birmingham, AL, later transferring to Memphis Catholic High ... Credited with 22 solo tackles in 1981 Jaycee Bowl ... Also played varsity basketball, averaging 15 points and 20 rebounds as a senior at Memphis Catholic ... Favorite pastimes: Handball, basketball and pool ... Worked with Special Olympics Volleyball program and fund raiser in Memphis ... Hometown: Birmingham, AL ... Residence: Memphis, TN.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts — 1986 (16-10); 1987 (12-12).

LINEBACKER • TEXAS A.&M. • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 225 • BORN: 3/11/65 • (ACQ: D-2, '87)

PRO: A runaway choice as Packer "Rookie of the Year" in 1987, the wide-ranging Texas A.&M. alumnus is expected to be a fixture in the Green Bay defense for years to come ... Won starting role at right inside linebacker just prior to season opener with the Los Angeles Raiders, beating out veteran Randy Scott in the process ... Entrenched himself immediately, recording 10 solo tackles in his first regular season game to lead the defensive charge ... Followed that performance with six solo stops in Game Two vs. defending AFC champion Denver ... Later posted a second 10-tackle effort against the 49ers (December 13) ... A playmaker who makes tackles from sideline to sideline, he had highly productive baptismal season, closing out as the fourth-ranking tackler on the defensive unit with 60 unassisted stops, including one quarterback sack ... Also collected 12 assisted tackles, intercepted two passes and broke up another ... Supplemented these contributions by making five solo tackles on special teams coverage units ... Such efforts brought him 61 of a possible 70 votes in the "Rookie" balloting ... Blessed with superior body control and excellent quickness, he caught the eye of new Head Coach Lindy Infante in the off-season ... Impressed with what he saw of Holland on video, Infante says of him, "Johnny Holland played very solid, very sound football for a rookie, and he's now past his rookie stage and should take another step in his development, so we look for him to improve and keep getting better ... He's certainly been a welcome sight to see on the defensive side of the ball."

COLLEGE: Led Texas A.&M. in tackles in each of his last two seasons ... Nicknamed "Mr. Anywhere" because of his ability to be where the ball was ... Consensus All-America selection as junior when he led Aggies with 150 tackles despite missing one game ... Began college career as a quarterback, later moved to defensive back, then to linebacker ... Business management major.

PRO: The last player (No. 335) chosen in the 1987 draft, the purposeful LSU product overcame long odds to make the Packer grade ... Saw action in special defenses as an extra back, making three unassisted tackles and breaking up a pass ... Also made his presence felt on special teams, registering five solo tackles on Packer coverage units and averaging 15.0 yards on two kickoff returns ... Led Packers in punt returns in '87 pre-season, averaging 14.9 yards for nine runbacks ... Highly intelligent athlete, he has impressed defensive backfield coach Dick Jauron with both his athletic and learning skills ... Honored during week-long series of activities at Newport Beach, CA, in June of 1987 ("Irrelevant Week") for being last player chosen in the draft.

COLLEGE: Had 5 interceptions at LSU as a sophomore after ranking as one of the nation's leading return specialists as a freshman in '83 (averaged 13.2 yards for 18 punt returns and 29.4 yards for nine kickoffs ... Was clocked at 4.65 seconds in the 40-yard dash.

Mark Lee - 22

CORNERBACK • WASHINGTON • 9TH YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 189 • BORN: 3/20/58 • (ACQ: D-2, '80)

PRO: Established as one of the leading cornerbacks in Packer history, he has broken up more passes over the past six seasons — 64 — than any other Green Bay defender ... Settled for just one interception in 1987 but broke up eight other passes to finish second to incoming Dave Brown (13) in latter category ... His lone interception, the 25th of his career, was a highly opportune theft, coming in the second quarter of a game vs. the Bears in Green Bay's Lambeau Field November 8 ... It gave the Packers possession at the Chicago 38-yard-line and set up a 26-yard scoring pass from quarterback Randy Wright to Phillip Epps ...

Closed out the season with 47 solo tackles and 5 assists in 12 "A" team games ... Broke hand in the final pre-season game against Cleveland but still managed to break up two Raider passes in regular season opener a week later ... A tough and talented athlete, he had the best year of his career in 1986, which may explain why opponents consistently threw away from him in 1987 ... Forged nine interceptions, only one fewer than league-leader Ronnie Lott of San Francisco and also just one theft short of tying the Packer single season record of 10, set by Irv Comp in 1943 ... Those nine interceptions were the most by a Packer cornerback since 1978, when Willie Buchanan had the same number ... Lee, who customarily covers the opponents' toughest receiver, made two of those steals against the arch rival Bears at Chicago Nov. 23 of '86 ... Also broke up two other passes and recovered a fumble ... Registered 47 solo tackles overall in '86 and embellished this total with 14 assists ... Led Green Bay defenses in passes broken up for five consecutive seasons — 1981 through 1985 ... Had a career high 17 passes defended in 1981 while sharing team interception honors with six ... Again claimed the honor in 1982, a strike-shortened, nine-game season, with 8 and in 1983, with seven, then shared laurels with strong safety Mark Murphy in 1984, each being credited with 15 ... Again had a team-leading 7 in 1985 ... Has been starter at left cornerback since opening game of '81 season ... Following '82 season, he triggered a major opportunity for Packers in fourth quarter of the second and final Super Bowl tournament game vs. Dallas (Jan. 16, 1983), intercepting a Danny White pass and returning it 22 yards for a touchdown which temporarily cut the Cowboys' lead to 30-26 (Dallas subsequently won, 37-26) ... Was Packers' leading punt returner in '81, running one back 94 yards for a TD against Giants at Milwaukee — longest punt return in the NFL that year and second longest in Green Bay's league history ... Has not been employed on kick returns since 1984 ... Underwent surgery in March of 1985 to correct disc problem ... Has excellent (4.4) speed in '40' ... Handicapped in rookie season by hamstringing injury suffered opening day of training camp.

COLLEGE: UPI second team All-America selection as senior ... Ran back three punts for touchdowns same season for Washington's Huskies.

Don Majkowski - 7

QUARTERBACK • VIRGINIA • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 207 • BORN: 2/25/64 • (ACQ: D-10, '87)

PRO: An unheralded newcomer as a tenth round draft choice in 1987, he has become a prime candidate for the starting assignment at quarterback in the wake of an intriguing rookie season ... One of the most talented all-around athletes ever to wear the green and gold, he shared the starting role with veteran Randy Wright last season ... Started five games in all, including three in a row early (vs. the Broncos in Game Two Sept. 20, vs. the Detroit Lions Oct. 25 (following the end of the player strike) and vs. the Buccaneers Nov. 1 and vs. the Chiefs Nov. 22 and vs. the Saints in the season finale Dec. 27 ... Had best day of a game-winning field goal in the fourth quarter (34-33) after they had fallen behind 33-31 ... Passed for 323 yards overall (19 completions in 29 attempts) to become the first rookie quarterback in Packer annals to throw for 300 or more yards in a game ... Earlier had played a surprisingly strong game against Denver's defending American Football Conference champions in his first pro start (Sept. 20 at Milwaukee), exhibiting impressive composure in leading Green Bay to a 17-17 overtime tie with the Broncos, quarterbacked by the redoubtable John Elway ... Closed out the season with an impactful performance against the playoff-bound Saints in the intimidating New Orleans Superdome, firing a pair of early touchdown passes to Walter Stanley and emerging as the team's leading rusher with 54 yards in 4 attempts ... Completed 14 of 29 passes overall for 219 yards and 3 TDs, with one intercept ... Also impressed teammates and New Orleanians by making thunderous tackle of PAT Swilling following that lone intercept in the third quarter ... Quickly became a fan favorite because of his mobility, daring and leadership qualities, complementing impressive arm strength ... New Head Coach Lindy Infante says of him, "Certainly, a lot of people think a lot of Don Majkowski, and I do, too. I think the games he's played in (as seen on video) he has shown the ability to scramble and to move around when the pocket breaks down — a good athlete that has a pretty strong arm."

COLLEGE: University of Virginia's all-time passing (3,901 yards) and total offense (4,632 yards) leader ... Cavaliers' starting quarterback for 2½ years, taking over midway through sophomore season in 1984 ... Sports management major.

PERSONAL: Given name Donald Vincent Majkowski ... Single ... Nickname: "Majik" ... Standout athlete in football, basketball, baseball and track at Depew, N.Y., High School, where he played quarterback and defensive back ... Led his football team to a sectional championship as a junior, was all-state selection in basketball as a senior and all-Western New York (pitcher and shortstop) in baseball ... Prepped one year at Fork Union Military Academy, where the football team was 8-0-1 ... Named Fork Union's MVP in both football and track and was 6-11 high jumper in track ... Also a member of the dean's list ... Possessor of both artistic and musical talents, he has paintings hanging in the Albright-Knox Art Gallery in Buffalo, N.Y., and also played lead guitar for three years in a high school rock band named "Joker" ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Oil painting, playing guitar and "lots of basketball" ... Active in behalf of Special Olympics in Virginia, United Way and as volunteer for Children's Rehabilitation Center in Charlottesville, VA ... Grandfather pitched professionally in the New York-Penn Baseball League, hurling two perfect games in his career ... Name pronounced "Mah-kow-skee".

HT: 6-2½ • WT: 275 • BORN: 3/19/62 • (ACQ: D-3, '85)

PRO: Rebounding from a knee injury which had hampered him through most of the 1986 season, the deep chested Californian enjoyed the best year of his pro career in '87, starting all 12 "A" team games at left guard ... New Head Coach Lindy Infante, assessing what he has seen of Moran's '87 efforts on video, pronounced himself "encouraged" over the San Diego State product's ability to "move, pull and run" ... Suffered knee injury on the Packers' very first offensive play of the year in 1986 ... Injured in September 7 opener vs. Houston, he returned to active roster for Thanksgiving Day game against Detroit (Nov. 27), in time to play in each of the last four games ... Had become installed as starter at left guard in eighth game of the 1985 season, his first year, following loss of Keith Uecker via knee surgery ... Appeared in all 16 games as a rookie, playing on special teams' field goal and PAT-block units ... Blocked one FG attempt in that role, deflecting a 44-yard attempt by Colts' Raul Allegre at Indianapolis (Oct. 27, 1985) ... A dedicated student of the game, he is also one of the Packers' stronger athletes, bench pressing 425 pounds ... Was club's s third round pick (second selection overall because the Packers had dealt their No. 2 choice to Buffalo in the trade for the draft rights to Ken Ruetters) in 1985 college draft.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at San Diego State ... Recruited as a linebacker, he played offensive guard as a freshman in 1980, center in '81 and tackle in '83 and '84 ... Redshirted in 1982 because of a pinched nerve in the neck ... Finance major (real estate emphasis).

STRONG SAFETY • WEST LIBERTY STATE • 8TH YEAR

HT: 6-2 • WT: 201 • BORN: 4/22/58 • (ACQ: FA, '80)

PRO: Reclaimed starting job at strong safety in impactful fashion last season after sitting out 1986 campaign with stress fracture of the left foot, suffered during training camp ... Started all 12 "A" team games and closed out as the leading tackler in the secondary (No. 3 on the defense overall) with 63 solo stops, including two quarterback sacks for 18 yards in losses ... Also collected 14 assists, sharing team honors with Timothy Harris in this category, intercepted one pass and broke up four others ... Supplemented these efforts by making three solo tackles on Packer special teams kick coverage ... His performance prompted new Head Coach Lindy Infante to observe, following off-season video study of 1987's games: "Murphy is a fine strong safety ... Smart, does a lot of good things for us as far as the strong safety is concerned, forces the run well" ... An all-out performer, the ex-free agent has been a model of productivity throughout his career ... Paced Packer defense in unassisted tackles in 1984 with 94, after stepping in at strong safety following injury to Johnnie Gray ... He also had 22 assists, 2 interceptions and shared team lead with Mark Lee in knocking down opponent passes at 15 ... Was involved in 102 tackles overall in '85, making 58 solo stops and adding 44 assists to finish as fourth-ranking tackler on defensive unit despite missing two games because of injuries ... Also registered 2 interceptions, returning one of them 50 yards for a touchdown vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Metrodome (Nov. 10) to seal a 27-17 Packer, come-from-behind victory and record his first pro TD ... Earlier had been a highly productive performer in 1983 after being installed at SS in Game Five following departure of Maurice Harvey and transfer of Gray to free safety ... Likewise made presence felt on special teams, registering 11 unassisted tackles ... Forged key interception in playoff game vs. St. Louis following 1982 season, returning it 22 yards to Cardinal 12-yard line to set up Packers' fourth TD in a 41-16 victory ... Voted Packer "Rookie of the Year" by Wisconsin sports media in 1984 after injury to Gray thrust him into starting role in Game 10 ... Made three interceptions in seven starts, two of those thefts contributing directly to Green Bay victories over Giants and Bears ... First interception came in first pro start (vs. Giants Nov. 8, 1981) ... Spent all but one game of first season in 1980 on injured reserve after suffering broken hand in pre-season ... Activated for regular season finale vs. Detroit.

Frankie Neal - 80

WIDE RECEIVER • FORT HAYS STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 202 • BORN: 10/1/65 • (ACQ: D-3C, '87)

PRO: Voluble Floridian, one of the most colorful performers of recent vintage to wear Green Bay's green and gold, made an early impact in his rookie, 1987 season, then went on to emerge as the Packers' No. 2 receiver ... First attracted attention with an outstanding, 10-catch performance against the Cincinnati Bengals in third pre-season game (August 29) and his subsequent pronouncement to the media following that game: "I've made big plays all my life and I always will" ... Finished freshman year with 36 catches — only two fewer than team leader Walter Stanley — for 420 yards and three touchdowns ... Became starter for last three games after Phillip Epps was sidelined by an abdominal muscle pull ... Had three best afternoons against NFC Central opponents — making 5 catches in each game of home and home series with the division champion Bears and 5 for 57 yards — his best yardage day of the season — against Vikings at Milwaukee December 13 ... Also had 5-catch day in season finale vs. Saints at New Orleans ... Had most impactful afternoon against Chiefs at Kansas City November 22, pulling in 26 and 13-yard touchdown passes from quarterback Randy Wright in the third quarter to account for better than half of Green Bay's points in a 23-3 victory. Possesses deceptive speed for his size and is able to elude defenders easily in the open field ... Also has knack for making the circus catch, as he did in registering his first NFL touchdown with dazzling, one-hand grab in the end zone at Kansas City ... Wears number 80, formerly the property of Packers' all-time leading receiver James Lofton ... It also was his college number at Florida, where it had been made famous by Chris Collinsworth.

COLLEGE: Averaged over 20 yards per catch each of his last three years in college, including 24.4 in 1985 ... Caught 40 passes for 1,846 yards (21.2 average) and led team in scoring with 54 points on 9 touchdowns as a senior at Fort Hays ... Also averaged 90.7 yards per game in all-purpose running ... Administrative recreation major.

PERSONAL: Given name Frankie Leon Neal ... Father of a daughter, Franquell Nicole (born 12/18/86) ... All-state receiver at Okeechobee, FL, High, where he caught 72 passes for 1,635 yards (22.7 average) and 16 TDs his last two years ... Caught TDs of 97, 89 and 50 yards in final game his senior year ... Spa official in off-season ... One of Packers' flashiest dressers ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Listening to music, talking football, basketball ... Born in Sebring, FL ... Residence: Okeechobee, FL.

In 1987, quarterback Randy Wright became only the sixth player in Packer history to pass for more than 5,000 yards in a career. Throwing for 1,507 yards, he padded his career total to 5,616.

Tom Neville - 72

OFFENSIVE GUARD • FRESNO STATE • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 300 • BORN: 9/4/61 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

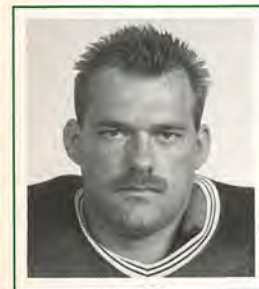

PRO: An accomplished pass protector, the massive Alaskan was inserted at left guard on all obvious passing downs in 1987 and earned high marks for his overall performance ... Played in all 12 "A" team games, running his string of consecutive games to 26 ... Also employed at nose tackle in the defensive line in goal line and short yardage situations, he made big play against Seattle (Nov. 15), "stuffing" Seahawks' John Williams for no gain in a third-and-one situation to force a punt ... Became a sudden starter as a rookie in 1986 when Rich Moran, the incumbent left guard, went down with a knee injury on the Packers' first offensive play of the season ... Neville (the name is pronounced "Neh-VILL") stepped into the breach on the second play and started the remaining 15 games of the season ... His efforts earned him high praise from Jerry Wampfler, then the Packers' offensive line coach, who said of the personable Fresno State alumnus, "Tom did an outstanding job of pass protection for a rookie" ... Had a tryout with Seattle as a rookie in 1985, accepting Seahawks' contract offer over one from the Packers because he had grown up in Alaska as a Seattle fan ... Released during pre-season, he was out of football during the regular season that year and subsequently signed with the Packers as a free agent on March 14, 1986 ... Reported early for preliminary program with a number of other rookie, free agent linemen and feels the early work was the key element in his eventual survival ... One of only two players to come out of Alaska high schools and play professional football (the other is Rocky Klever of the New York Jets).

COLLEGE: Began college football career at Weber State in 1980 and transferred to Fresno State in '81 ... Red-shirted in first year at FS, then started at guard sophomore and junior years ... Had shoulder surgery following junior season and returned to starting lineup—at tackle—in mid-season. Speech communications major.

PERSONAL: Given name Thomas Lee Neville ... Nickname: "T-Boar" ... Single ... Attended Eielson High School at Eielson Air Force Base in Alaska ... Grew up in Salcha, a one-time Indian village located 20 miles outside Fairbanks ... Born in Great Falls, Mont. ... Residence: Fresno, CA.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts: 1986 (16-15); 1987 (12-0).

Brian Noble - 91

LINEBACKER • ARIZONA STATE • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 250 • BORN: 9/6/62 • (ACQ: D-5, '85)

PRO: A key figure in Green Bay's defense, freewheeling Brian Noble made the move to a new position in 1987 with impressive ease—and a continuing high degree of productivity ... Transferred to left inside linebacker, where he replaced the veteran Randy Scott, he proceeded to lead Packer defenders in unassisted tackles (with 81) for the second year in a row ... It is the kind of performance that has come to be expected from the highly articulate Arizona State alumnus ... An impact player since arriving upon the Green Bay scene, he also had paced his platoon in both unassisted stops (82) and total tackles (113) in 1986, a display of productivity which had come upon the heels of an outstanding rookie year ... Quickly entrenched himself as a starter in that baptismal, '85 season, replacing veteran George Cumby in Game Two, and went on to sweep Packer "Rookie of the Year" honors and earn selection to the Pro Football Writers' Association of America's NFL All-Rookie team ... Confident he now has found a home at LILB, Noble says: "It's definitely the place where I've belonged all along. It's taken me a while to get there; hopefully, it's a place I'll be for some years to come ... It's definitely the position I'm most suited for—strong side linebacker" ... It is the third position at which the former Sun Devil has been employed since becoming Green Bay's fifth round selection in the '85 NFL draft ... He began his Packer career at right inside linebacker, then was transferred to the weak outside position at the start of the '86 season by then Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski in a bid to improve the pass rush ... Started the first eight games there before being moved back inside for the last half of the season, Bobby Leopold taking over the outside post ... Noble, who has been involved in 306 tackles over his three seasons, takes satisfaction in his productivity, observing, "I think that's something a linebacker has to be — productive. I do take a lot of pride in leading the team in tackles. I think that's something a strong side linebacker should do" ... Supplemented his 81 solo stops last season with 13 assists, his tackle total including one QB sack ... Also made one interception (in the overtime period vs. Denver en route to an eventual 17-17 tie), the first intercept of his pro career, broke up one pass and led the team in fumble recoveries with five ... Also major contributor on special teams, collecting four unassisted tackles on kick coverage ... Registered 10 or more tackles in a game twice, amassing 12 vs. Denver Sept. 20 and 10 vs. the Vikings Dec. 13 ... Originally earned starting job by way of a strong performance in the Packers' 1985 pre-season finale, when he was credited with 10 unassisted tackles in Bishop's Charities Game vs. Jets ... Moved in as starter at RILB two weeks later.

COLLEGE: Involved in 60 tackles as senior at Arizona State after sharing team lead in quarterback sacks as a junior with 8 ... Won first team junior college All-America honors at Fullerton, CA, J.C., in '82, setting school marks for most sacks in a season (24) and a career (36) ... Fullerton was 18-3 during his two-year tenure and ranked among the top five junior college teams nationally ... Business administration major.

PERSONAL: Given name Brian David Noble ... Married (Cindy) and father of a daughter, Amanda (born 8-15-85) ... Employed as sales manager in father's plating business in Anaheim, CA, in off-season ... Lettered in football for three years and baseball for one in high school at Anaheim ... Played defensive end and also punted, averaging 42.5 yards per punt ... Youngest of four children, he has one brother and two sisters ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Shark fishing, bow hunting (bears, pigs, deer, etc.), wind surfing, basketball, off-road racing ... Hometown: Anaheim, CA.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: 1985 (16-16); 1986 (16-16); 1987 (12-12).

Additional statistics: Has one career interception (vs. Denver Sept. 20, 1987).

Keith Paskett - 82

WIDE RECEIVER • WESTERN KENTUCKY • 2ND YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 190 • BORN: 12/7/64 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: Caught collective eye of Packer coaches with impressive pre-season performance to win berth on receiving corps in the final 45-man roster last season ... Solidified his bid with a four-catch effort in pre-season finale vs. Browns at Milwaukee Sept. 5 ... Employed as a backup receiver during the '87 season, he went on to make 12 catches for 188 yards (a 15.7 average) and one touchdown ... The latter, his first pro TD, came on a 47-yard pass-run collaboration with Randy Wright to give the Packers a temporary 10-7 lead over the Seahawks at the Seattle Kingdome Nov. 15 ... Had two other long receptions—a 33-yarder vs. Tampa Bay and a 41-yarder vs. Kansas City Nov. 22 ... Enjoyed most productive afternoon against the Giants (Dec. 19) with 5 receptions for 38 yards ... Appeared in all 12 "A" team games.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Western Kentucky ... Journalism major with minor in psychology.

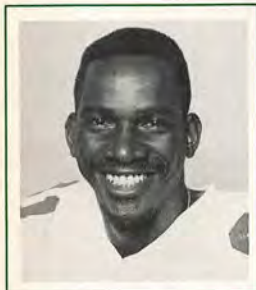

PERSONAL: Given name Keith Paxton Paskett ... Single ... Played prep football at Glencliff High School, Nashville, TN ... Favorite hobbies: Music and watching television ... Hometown: Nashville, TN.

Karl Powe - 18

WIDE RECEIVER • ALABAMA STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 178 • BORN: 1/17/62 • (ACQ: FA, '88)

PRO: Former Dallas Cowboy signed on as a free agent March 26, 1988 ... Out of football in 1987, he had exhibited flashes of brilliance with Dallas as a rookie in 1985, making 14 receptions for 237 yards and an impressive 16.9-yard average ... His 14 catches were the most by a Cowboy rookie receiver since all-time Dallas hero Drew Pearson's 22 in 1973 ... Cowboys had high expectations for Powe in 1986 but he suffered a neck injury in the season opener against the Giants which sidelined him for the rest of the year ... Also was on I.R. in 1987 until being waived October 20.

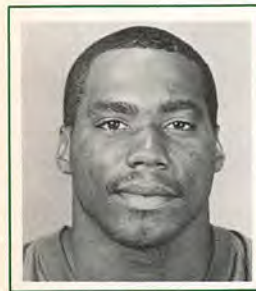

COLLEGE: Was backup receiver at Alabama State through most of his collegiate career, primarily because he chose to participate in track (100 and 200-meters) instead of spring football ... Still managed to catch 40 passes for 817 yards 20.5 average) and six touchdowns in three seasons ... Also led the SWAC in kickoff returns in 1984 with a 27.3 average ... Has degree in psychology and human services.

PERSONAL: Given name Karl Alonzo Powe (pronounced POE) ... Married (Lacynthia) and father of a daughter, Kasheena (born 8-17-83) ... DEFENSIVE BACK • CENTRAL (OK) STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 207 • BORN: 8/28/62 • (ACQ: FA, '88)

PRO: A former USFL standout, he joined the St. Louis Cardinals in 1987 and appeared in five games — two prior to the player strike, the third and final replacement game and two following the strike ... A strong safety, he previously played three seasons with the USFL's New Jersey Generals and led the team in unassisted tackles in 1985 with 77 ... He also collected three interceptions for 22 yards, forced one fumble recovery in New Jersey's final USFL season.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons at Central (OK) State after transferring from Texas Christian ... Registered 109 tackles in 1982 and 81 in 1983 ... Also intercepted seven passes for Central State, returning three for touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Given name John Stanley Preston ... Married (F.M.) and father of two children, John Stanley, Jr. (born 4/23/85) and Danielle Michelle (born 1/16/87) ... Attended South Oak Cliff High School (Dallas, TX) ... Residence: Dallas.

GUARD • TEXAS A&M • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 290 • BORN: 11/17/61 • (ACQ: T-Cleve, '85)

PRO: Monolithic Texan, who became a Packer by way of the John Jefferson trade in 1985 (September 19), appeared in three regular season games in 1987 ... Also started Packers' pre-season finale against Cleveland at left guard ... A two-year veteran of service in the USFL, the Texas A&M alumnus had been Cleveland's second round selection in the NFL's 1984 supplemental draft of USFL players ... The Packers subsequently acquired the Browns' rights to Robison, in addition to a seventh round selection in the 1987 NFL draft, in the Jefferson transaction ... Played for New Jersey Generals of USFL in 1984 and '85.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Texas A&M ... Began freshman year as defensive tackle, moved to offensive tackle by the end of that season ... Sophomore All-America selection in 1981 ... Management major.

PERSONAL: Given name: Tommy L. Robison ... Married (Deana) and father of a daughter, Tiffany (born 10/1/85) ... Three-year football starter in high school at Gregory, TX, Portland High School ... Ken Ruetters - 75

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • S. CALIFORNIA • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 285 • BORN: 8/20/62 • (ACQ: D-1, '85)

PRO: With awesome dedication to the work ethic, blended with a high degree of intelligence and tireless pursuit of excellence, Ken Ruetters has become one of the National Football League's pre-eminent offensive tackles in the short span of three seasons ... Celebrated pro personnel expert Joel Buchsbaum, for one, ranks him among the top six OT in the game ... And there is a very good chance he would get other glowing testimonials from such as Howie Long, Rulon Jones, Richard Dent, Chris Doleman and Lawrence Taylor, against whom he performed in 1987 while giving up only 3½ quarterback sacks over the 12-game schedule ... The quality of his efforts is underscored by the fact he was voted Packer "Offensive Player of the Year" by Wisconsin's sports media following the '87 season, an honor which marked first time a Green Bay offensive lineman had been so honored since center Ken Bowman was similarly recognized in 1971 ... Also was Packer nominee in Miller Lite NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year competition ... His season-long performance becomes all the more impressive in light of the fact he had to overcome an attack of mononucleosis during early weeks of training camp ... In addition to long hours in the weight room and exhaustive video study of his opponent during and after hours, Ruetters has achieved his lofty level of competence by developing a "book" on each defensive end he faces over the course of a season ... It contains, he says, "just what their moves are, what their personality types are from what I can determine on film ... What they've done against me, and against other teams ... I take things down ... It's just handwritten, although I've been thinking about getting it typed up" ... His rigorous off-season regimen, probably as strenuous a routine as any undertaken by a Packer between seasons, also has been a prime factor in Ruetters' success ... It includes four days of weight-lifting per week, plus racquetball, basketball and karate — as well as hitting the speed bag and jumping rope ... First gained prominence in 1986 season finale against the New York Giants, then en route to Super Bowl XXI, when he climaxed his personal year by shutting out league sack champion Lawrence Taylor at Giants Stadium (Dec. 20), a performance which deprived the New York superstar of an NFL single season record for sacks ... A durable athlete, he enters the 1988 season with a string of 44 consecutive games, having played in or started every regular season game the Packers have played since he joined them ... Became a Packer by way of a draft day trade with Buffalo in 1985, an exchange which sent Green Bay's first and second choices in that draft to Buffalo for the Bills' first round choice and a fourth round selection in 1986, the latter turning out to be linebacker Timothy Harris ... The seventh player chosen overall, Ruettgers shared time with veteran Karl Swanke for eight of the last nine games of the '85 season, then started the season finale at Tampa after Swanke suffered a knee injury in Game 15 vs. Lions ... Earlier had stepped in as starter at LT in season opener vs. Patriots when Swanke was moved to RT, replacing Greg Koch, who had been pressed into service at right guard following an injury to Ron Hallstrom.

COLLEGE: Co-captained Trojans as senior and played in Japan Bowl ... Was a reserve guard from 1980 through 1982 before switching to tackle in 1983 ... Limited to six minutes' playing time as a freshman by injuries (a broken hand and torn cartilage in right knee) ... Business administration major.

PERSONAL: Given name Kenneth F. Ruettgers ... Nickname: "Colonel" ... Married (Sheryl) and father of a son, Matthew (born 1/28/88) ... Real estate appraiser in off-season ... Volunteer in "Just Say No" anti-drugs campaign ... All-sectional offensive and defensive lineman at Graces High School (Bakersfield) ... Also played center and forward on basketball team, threw shot and discus for the track team and was a member of the golf team ... Hometown and residence: Bakersfield, CA.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts — 1985 (16-2); 1986 (16-16); 1987 (12-12).

WIDE REC./KICK RET. • MESA (CO.) COL. • 4TH YEAR
HT: 5-9¼ • WT: 180 • BORN: 11/5/62 • (ACQ: D-4, '85)

PRO: Walter Stanley, an athlete of superior and varied talents, has become synonymous with the big play during his three-year Packer career ... The electrifying Chicago native has averaged nearly 16 yards for every time he has touched the football since being selected in the fourth round of the 1985 college draft ... Although his "per handle" production dropped slightly in 1987, he again emerged as Green Bay's primary offensive weapon, leading the team in both receptions, average yards-per-catch and punt returns ... Typically, he engineered the Packers' longest play of the season — a 70-yard scoring maneuver which saw him pull in a short pass into the right flat from quarterback Don Majkowski at the Pontiac, MI, Silverdome Oct. 25 and streak the distance ... He ended the afternoon with 6 receptions for 150 yards (best yardage day of his career) ... Stanley closed out the season with a team-leading 38 receptions and a 17.7 yard average per catch, also a team high, capping his year with a second 100-yard day in the season finale against the Saint (109 yards on 4 receptions, good for 2 TDs) ... The elusive flanker also posted the Packers' longest punt return of the season, a 48-yard effort against the Giants at East Rutherford, N.J., Dec. 19, a maneuver which set up the Packers' lone touchdown in a 20-10 loss ... Stanley also registered Green Bay's best rushing ratio, gaining 38 yards on four attempts, a 9.5 average ... Overall, he averaged 12.6 yards for each of the 70 times he touched the football ... Had stamped himself as one of pro football's most explosive performers in 1986, when he finished among the NFL's leaders in all-purpose yardage with 1,617 yards ... Closed out the season among the top ten punt and kickoff returners in the National Football Conference and also emerged with the NFC's highest average per catch as a wide receiver (20.7 yards) after taking over for the injured Phillip Epps as the starting flanker in Game 13 ... Averaged 17.0 yards for every time he handled the ball, including 35 receptions for 723 yards, 33 punt returns for 316 yards, a 9.6 average good for fifth place in the NFC, and 559 yards in 28 kickoff returns, a 20.0 average which ranked ninth in the NFC ... Punctuated his punt return heroics with an 83-yard, scoring runback against the Detroit Lions at Pontiac before a national television audience Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 27) which propelled the Packers to a last-minute, come-from-behind, 44-40 victory ... The longest punt return of the year in the NFC, it was the third TD of the afternoon for Stanley, who earlier had collaborated with quarterback Randy Wright for a pair of TDs on 21 and 36-yard air strikes ... Walter closed out the afternoon with 124 yards in 4 catches to register the first 100-yard receiving day of his pro career ... Rolled up the astonishing total of 287 all-purpose yards in that performance, including 113 on two punt returns and 50 on three kickoff returns ... Had not played football in three years when then Head Coach Forrest Gregg made him Green Bay's fourth pick in the '85 draft, a choice Gregg admitted had been a bit of a "reach" ... Wears Number 87, formerly the property of Willie Davis, a six-time all-pro defensive end for the Packers, who now is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Had the Packers' best punt and kickoff return averages as a rookie (12.7 yards on 14 PR and 23.8 yards on 9 KOR) ... Also saw limited action at wide receiver and had no receptions.

COLLEGE: Played two years of varsity football at the University of Colorado under Chuck Fairbanks and was redshirted one year before transferring to Mesa College (Grand Junction, CO), where he did not play football competitively ... Averaged 4.5 yards per rush and 25.8 yards per kickoff return as a freshman, returning both a punt and a kickoff for TDs in one game against Oklahoma ... Led CU in kickoff returns as both a freshman and sophomore ... Originally utilized as a running back at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Given name Walter Stanley ... Nickname: "Mr. Excitement" ... Was highly productive performer at Chicago South Shore High School, rushing for more than 1,600 yards as a senior while winning the Illinois state scoring title with 150 points ... Rushed for 282 yards in one game as a senior, 268 in another as a junior ... Also lettered in basketball and track ... Active in support of the Vince Lombardi, John Elway and Michael Jordan McDonald's charity golf classics, and Boys' Town ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Baseball, skiing, jet skiing, biking, music, dancing, swimming and basketball ... Operates home decorating service in off-season ... Hometown: Chicago. Scott Stephen - 54

LINEBACKER • ARIZONA STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 232 • BORN: 6/18/64 • (ACQ: D-3b, '87)

PRO: Established himself in the linebacking corps as a rookie last season despite being forced to miss four games because of an ankle problem ... Understudy to veteran John Anderson at left outside linebacker, he has displayed impact potential as a pass rusher because of exceptional quickness ... Also has the speed to run down his quarry from behind ... Employed primarily on special teams last season, he registered four unassisted tackles on coverage units and two other solo stops while operating at linebacker and appearing in eight "A" team games overall.

COLLEGE: All-Pac 10 selection as a senior at Arizona State ... Recorded 11 tackles in a 22-15 win over Michigan in the 1987 Rose Bowl ... Chosen to play in Japan and Senior Bowls ... Led Sun Devils in sacks as both a sophomore and junior ... Psychology major.

PERSONAL: Given name Scott DeWitt Stephen ... Single ... Earned all-Central, all-city and All-America honors at Manual Arts (Los Angeles) High School while serving as team captain as a senior ... Caught 54 passes as a receiver on offense and made 67 tackles as a linebacker on defense that '82 season ... Favorite sports and hobbies: Working on high performance vehicles, watching baseball, basketball, boxing and /or beating Burnell Dent at racquetball ... Hometown: Los Angeles.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: 1987 (8-0).

Ken Stills - 29

FREE SAFETY • WISCONSIN • 4TH YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 186 • BORN: 9/6/63 • (ACQ: D-8, '85)

PRO: An intense and aggressive athlete, he has been the Packers' resident free safety since mid-season of 1986 ... Inserted in the starting lineup at Cleveland in Game Six (Oct. 19), he keyed a freewheeling performance which limited the Browns to a mere 32 yards rushing as the Packers ended an 0-6 season start by upsetting the AFC Central Division leaders, 17-14, and has been a starter ever since ... A productive performer in his first full season in that role last year, he amassed 49 solo tackles and 10 assists in '87 ... He also broke up five passes while starting 11 of the 12 "A" team games (missed Vikings game Dec. 13 because of a back problem) ... His season-long performance prompted new Head Coach Lindy Infante to observe, following off-season video study, "From what I've seen I've been impressed with Ken Stills' willingness to hit and come up and force the run and support the run game ... And he seems mobile enough and athletic enough to cover the centerfield" ... Finished second on the defensive platoon in tackles in '86 with 63 despite not becoming a starter until the seventh game of the season ... He also contributed 19 assists, forced one fumble and made one interception, a theft he returned 58 yards for a touchdown in the season finale against the eventual Super Bowl champion Giants to record his first pro TD ... An eighth round draft choice in 1985, the former Wisconsin Badger saw his rookie season take a surprising and storybook twist ... After making a strong bid for a berth on the final, 45-man roster, he was reluctantly released by the Packer coaching staff in the last cutdown for the regular season ... Back home in Oceanside, CA, he was sent a hasty S.O.S. two months later when injury problems struck the Packer secondary five days before a Nov. 3 rematch with the Chicago Bears in Green Bay ... Stills proceeded to make an impact, particularly upon Bear fullback Matt Suhey, felled by a thunderous, "delayed" hit which brought the yearling defender and the Packers a 15-yard assessment ... A defensive standout, he finished the day with 5 solo tackles and one assist ... It was his only start of the season, as it turned out but Stills went on to become a major contributor on special teams the balance of the season, making six solo stops and adding a pair of assists.

TIGHT END • BOISE STATE • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 235 • BORN: 2/21/61 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: Was Packers' most effective tight end during the replacement period, played in all three games and started one ... Caught 7 passes for 83 yards (an 11.8 average) and one touchdown overall, a surprising contribution considering he was selling cars in Boise, Idaho when the Packers called last October ... Signed as a free agent Oct. 2, 1987 — just two days prior to first replacement game (vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Oct. 4) ... Made several clutch receptions vs. Vikings to give Packers key first downs in the second half ... Also made an important catch in Green Bay's final drive which led to overtime vs. Detroit the following week ...

Scored his first Packer TD vs. Lions on a 10-yard strike from quarterback Alan Risher ... Suffered a knee injury late in the Eagles game (Oct. 18) which ended his season ... Originally signed with Packers May 2, 1986 ... Caught two passes for 16 yards in three pre-season games before being waived August 26 ... Launched his pro career with the Denver Broncos as a free agent in 1984 and played in all 16 games that season, making three catches for 32 yards ... Also played in two games for Denver in 1985 before being released (Oct. 4).

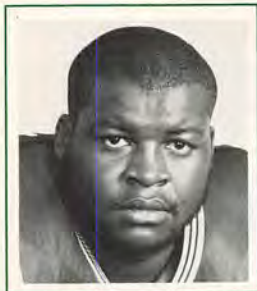

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at Boise State ... Earlier played two years of college football at Oregon Tech.
PERSONAL: Given name Donald O. Summers ... Married (Kenna) and father of Jarrid (son) ... Attended Eagle Point Medford, OR, High School ... Born in Grants Pass, OR ... Residence: Boise, Idaho.

DEFENSIVE END • AUBURN • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 275 • BORN: 7/21/61 • (ACQ: W-N.E., '86)

PRO: Spent 1987 season on injured reserve following off-season knee surgery ... Earlier a second round draft choice of the New England Patriots (1985), he had been expected to be a solid contender for employment at either end or tackle ... Now fully recovered, he is counted upon to accelerate the competition in the defensive line in 1988 ... Became a Packer via waivers Oct. 20, 1986 following release by Patriots ... Registered 6 tackles, including one quarterback sack, and three assists in reserve role ... Had been New England's third selection in the second round of the '85 draft and played in 15 regular season games as a rookie, being credited with three tackles and two assists ... Later recorded a sack in Super Bowl XX vs. the Bears ... Suffered a neck injury in '86 season opener vs. Colts, having started the game for injured Garin Veris ... Returned in Game Four vs. Denver and posted one sack ... Also played in Games 5 and 6 before being waived to make room for Kenneth Sims, then returning from injured reserve.

COLLEGE: Set Auburn record with 141 tackles in '84 ... Adult education major.

RUNNING BACK • FRESNO STATE • 1ST YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 205 • BORN: 12/12/63 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: Former Fresno State star saw his 1987 season telescoped to one game by the football fates ... Came within inches of making the regular season roster, shortly returned to make history of sorts by scoring the Packers' first touchdown of the replacement period (vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Oct. 4), then suffered a season-ending knee injury before that contest had ended ... Registered his historic TD on a 30-yard pass-run collaboration with Alan Risher, staking the Packers to an early lead en route to a 23-16 victory ... Had run the football effectively (19 yards in 5 attempts) before incurring the injury, a hyper-extension of a knee ... Earlier had gained 18 yards rushing in 6 carries for the Packers during the pre-season ... Had previous tryout with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1986 ... A cousin of Jewerl Thomas and Ken Thomas, both also running backs, who also have played in the NFL — Jewerl with the Los Angeles Rams (1960-62) and the Chiefs (1983) and Ken with the Chiefs (1983).

Keith Uecker - 70

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • AUBURN • 6TH YEAR

HT: 6-5 • WT: 284 • BORN: 6/29/60 • (ACQ: W-Den., '84)

PRO: One of the most accomplished offensive linemen in recent Packer history, he frequently has been plagued by—and has overcome—injury problems over his five-year pro career ... Also a classic example of dedication and determination, the massive Auburn alumnus reclaimed his starting job at right tackle at the start of the 1987 season — after spending a year and a half on injured reserve in the rehabilitation process ... Started two pre-strike games and the final replacement contest, later stretched the medial collateral ligament in his right knee in the first post-strike game (vs. the Lions Oct. 25) and sat out the next five games ... He returned to the starting lineup against the 49ers Dec. 6 to revitalize a sagging ground game and upgrade the right side of the offensive line for the last four weeks of the season ... In recognition of his latest comeback, Uecker was honored as Green Bay's 1987 selection for the Ed Block Courage Award, which salutes one player from each of the 28 NFL teams for exemplifying courage as seen through the eyes of teammates ... The 28-year-old Floridian obviously is eminently well qualified for such an award ... During the 1985 season alone, he underwent five surgeries on his left knee and while rehabilitating the knee after the first operation, decided it would be an opportune time to have repair of his achilles tendon, which had hampered him throughout his career. Just moments before that surgery, doctors decided to x-ray his lung area because he complained of pain and soreness. Pericarditis, a serious heart condition which could have caused major health problems for Uecker if he had been placed under anesthesia, was detected ... Later, after seven weeks of total inactivity following the achilles surgery, he discovered he was unable to extend his surgical knee without excruciating pain. More surgery was required and four subsequent operations sidelined him for the 1986 season ... Not easily turned aside, he returned for the 1987 training camp and regained starting status, finally realizing the goal of all those rehabilitation efforts ... "It's as much a dream as a job," he explains. "It's hard to let a dream go" ... Confident the football fates are about to smile upon him at long last, he says, "I feel the best I've felt in a long time" ... Before his injury problems began to surface, Uecker started the first seven games of the 1985 season before undergoing knee surgery and giving way to then rookie Rich Moran ... Acquired on waivers from Denver Oct. 23, 1984 ... He appeared in the last five games of the '84 season, starting two at left guard in stepping in for Tim Huffman, who had been temporarily moved to tackle to replace the injured Karl Swanke ... A ninth round draft choice of the Broncos in 1982, Uecker started two games for Denver as a rookie and played in all 16 games in 1983, being frequently employed in short yardage and goal line situations ... Was handicapped by a foot injury in 1984 before being waived off injured reserve by Broncos with hope of reactivating him in their offensive line, a point at which he was claimed by the Packers.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and starter at Auburn, earning all-SEC honors in 1981 ... Closed out his college career with appearances in the East-West and Blue-Gray games ... Named Tigers' outstanding lineman in 1980 as tackle, then moved to guard for senior, '81 season ... Team captain as senior ... Accounting major.

PERSONAL: Given name Richard Keith Uecker ... Married (Juliana Pier in April, 1988) ... Earned nine letters at Hollywood Hills, FL, High School, three each in football, baseball and basketball ... Has undertaken Tai-Kwon-Do lessons to improve his mobility and footwork ... Favorite sports and hobbies: Golf, hunting, fishing ... Has skied in NFL Pro-Celebrity competition for handicapped children, sponsored by Miami Dolphins' Doug Betters ... Also took part in Rulon Jones Pro-Am Ski Tournament in Winter Park, CO, and played in the John Elway Pro-Am golf tournament in Denver.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts: Denver — 1982 (5-2); 1983 (16-0); Green Bay — 1984 (5-2); 1985 (8-7); 1986 (0-0, spent season on injured reserve); 1987 (8-0).

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • EAST TEXAS STATE • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 277 • BORN: 7/24/63 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

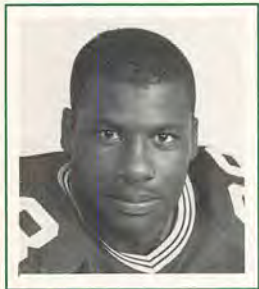

PRO: A highly effective pass blocker as a rookie in 1986, he continued to hone his techniques last season while further entrenching himself in the Packers' pass protection unit ... Played in 11 of the 12 "A" team games and started two ... Missed the season opener against the Raiders because of a bruised ankle, suffered in the pre-season finale against the Cleveland Browns ... Started at right tackle against Tampa Bay at Milwaukee Nov. 1 and against the Bears at Chicago Nov. 29 ... Also played the entire second half against the Lions at Pontiac, MI, Oct. 25, when starter Keith Uecker was injured, and turned in solid pass protection performance ... Personable Miami native joined Packers as an unheralded free agent in the spring of 1986 and proceeded to win the starting job at RT ... Credits early, pre-training camp workouts for offensive linemen under then Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampfler with enabling him to crash the roster ... "That was the key for me to make the football team," he says. "I needed the technique work terribly. I knew passblocking was the key to making it in the NFL and the time we spent — we worked for 2½ hours every day and then watched video of the workouts in the classroom — that really helped me" ... Went on to start all 16 games ... A 1985 graduate of East Texas State, Veingrad had tryouts with both Tampa Bay, with whom he signed after the NFL draft, and the Houston Oilers in '85 before signing with the Packers as a free agent March 28, 1986.

COLLEGE: Was two-time All-Lone Star Conference selection at East Texas State ... A four-year letterman, he was team captain 1983 and '84 ... Named to Kodak All-America team as a senior ... Also selected on National Strength and Conditioning All-America ... Competed in track (discus) for three years ... Physical education and health major.

PERSONAL: Given name Alan Stuart Veingrad ... Single ... Attended Miami, FL, Sunset High School ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Fishing, racquetball, bike riding, weightlifting and reading ... Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. ... Residence: Miami, FL.

DEFENSIVE BACK • S. CALIFORNIA • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-1½ • WT: 205 • BORN: 3/20/63 • (ACQ: W-Rams, '86)

PRO: A significant contributor after joining the Packers in mid-season of 1986, the talented ex-USC performer spent the 1987 season on injured reserve after suffering a dislocation of the left knee during a public intra-squad scrimmage in Green Bay's Lambeau Field August 8 ... Has undergone long and intensive rehabilitation under Packer Trainer Domenic Gentile, who is hopeful Watts will be ready for a return to action when the '88 NFL season begins ... Claimed on waivers from the Rams in August of '86, Number 28 made his presence felt at defensive back and on special teams—on both coverage and kick returns ... Appeared in nine games and registered nine unassisted tackles, including one QB sack, two assists and one interception ... The latter, Elbert's first as a professional—came against the Detroit Lions at Pontiac, MI, Silverdome Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 27) ... Also was standout on kick coverage, finishing as runnerup to team leader with 12 solo tackles and 5 assists ... In addition, he averaged a 19.9 yards on 12 kickoff returns, including a 40-yarder against the Bears (at Chicago Nov. 23).

COLLEGE: Two-year letterman at USC ... Played wide receiver as a junior, cornerback as a senior ... Began college career at Oklahoma in 1981 as a freshman corner and emerged as Sooners' leading punt returner (23 returns for 230 yards, with a long of 52) ... Also intercepted three passes that year and was

LINEBACKER • OKLAHOMA • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 245 • BORN: 10/9/60 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

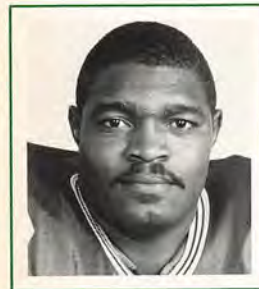

PRO: Former Oklahoma and USFL starter filled a dual role in 1987 — as an additional linebacker in most passing situations, especially in the nickel, and as a primary coverage man on special teams ... Ranked among the Packers' premier kamikazes in the latter role. Collected seven solo tackles, a production exceeded by only two teammates (John Dorsey and Ken Johnson) ... While playing in all 12 "A" team games also registered two solo stops as a linebacker ... Joined Packers as a free agent Aug. 13, 1986 ... Suffered a shoulder separation in his very first scrimmage appearance and was sidelined until late season ...

Active for the last three games, he made two tackles and contributed one assist ... He also made an impact on special teams, recording five solo tackles and two assists ... Played for the New Jersey Generals of the USFL for three years (1983-84-85) before joining the Packers.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Oklahoma ... Played tight end as a freshman in 1979, converted as a sophomore to defensive end and started there for the balance of his college career ... Business management major, with minor in finance.

PERSONAL: Given name Michael Wayne Weddington ... Married (Jacqueline Renee) and father of a daughter, Porsche Jean Nicole (born 3/12/88) ... Sales rep for Wilson Art in off-season ... Favorite hobbies: Writing business plans and working with computers.

TIGHT END • AUBURN • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 243 • BORN: 8/2/61 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: One of the pre-eminent blocking tight ends in the National Football League, he has been a consistent and reliable performer ever since making the Green Bay roster as a rookie free agent in 1984 ... Had his most productive year to date in 1987, in terms of receptions, registering 19 catches for 261 yards (a 13.7 average) and one touchdown, the latter coming on a 27-yard pass-run collaboration with quarterback Randy Wright vs. the Bears in Green Bay (Nov. 8) ... New Head Coach Lindy Infante says of him: "I think Ed West is a solid tight end ... We rely heavily at times on our tight end so we hope that maybe some of the things we'll do will help him blossom into a pretty good tight end" ... Became the nominal starter for the first time in 1987, playing in all 12 games and starting eleven (all but the opener vs. the Raiders Sept. 13) ... Started first four games in '86 before giving way to Dan Ross, and played in all 16 ... Later started rematches with the Bears (Nov. 23) and Lions (Nov. 27) when Ross was sidelined by illness ... Scored Packers' only touchdown of the afternoon in that Bear contest at Chicago, by way of a 46-yard pass from quarterback Randy Wright, which gave the Packers a temporary 10-8 lead midway through the fourth quarter ... Closed out the season with 15 receptions (a 13.3 average) and one TD ... A highly productive performer, he has 7 touchdowns to show for 48 career catches—an average of one TD for every 7.9 receptions ... Also owns one rushing TD—on a 2-yard run vs. Vikings at Milwaukee (Nov. 11, 1984) ... Had remarkable success ratio as a rookie that '84 season, collecting 4 TDs on just six receptions, and scoring a fifth on his only pro rushing attempt to date ... Overall, he handled the football 7 times and scored 5 TDs ... Also shared third place in solo tackles on special teams that season with 15.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter and four-year letterman at Auburn ... Family and child development major, with minor in counseling education.

PERSONAL: Given name Edward Lee West III ... Nicknames: "Monk" and "Toolbox" ... Father of a daughter, Jennifer (born 7-28-80) ... Attended Leighton, AL, High School ... Favorite sports: Racquetball, golf, swimming, hunting and basketball ... Born in Colbert County, AL.

QUARTERBACK • BRIGHAM YOUNG • 9TH YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 205 • BORN: 2/5/57 • (ACQ: FA, '88)

PRO: A late addition to the Packers' quarterback derby (he was signed as a free agent July 9, just two weeks prior to the opening of training camp), the former Los Angeles Raider brings a record of success to his bid for primacy under the center ... The rangy BYU alumnus compiled an entirely respectable 31-19 won-lost record as a starting quarterback with the Raiders, who selected him in the first round of the 1980 National Football League draft (the 15th player chosen) ... A strong-armed athlete with good mobility and impressive size (he's 6-5 and 205 pounds), Wilson started at least eight games in each of the 1984, '85 and '86 seasons and seven in 1987 ... Guided Raiders to AFC Western Division title in 1985 after taking over for injured Jim Plunkett in third game ... The Raiders went 11-2 from that point, including the final six league games ... Now ranks as the number five passer in Raider history with 871 completions in 1,666 attempts for 11,760 yards and 77 touchdowns ... Passed for 2,608 yards and 17 touchdowns, including three-touchdown games at San Diego and Atlanta ... Played in all 16 games in 1986, starting eight and completing 129 of 240 passing attempts (53.8 percent) for 1,721 yards and 12 touchdowns ... Had his best game that season with 25 completions for 367 yards in home game against Denver ... Also threw for 346 yards in league opener at Broncos' Mile High Stadium and for 314 yards vs. San Diego, a performance which earned him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors ... Started 10 games in 1984, passing for 2,151 yards and 14 touchdowns ... Limited to three starts in 1983 because of a shoulder fracture, after playing in eight league games in 1982 ... Started nine games in '81, passing for 2,311 yards and 14 TDs ... Had career-best 92-yard completion to Marcus Allen against Seattle in 1984 ... Has registered six 300-yard passing games to date, the most recent a 339-yard effort vs. the Chiefs at Kansas City December 13, 1987 ... Excellent holder for field goals and extra points.

COLLEGE: Consensus All-America quarterback in 1979 after setting 11 NCAA records over three seasons ... Led the national in total offense (3,580 yards) and touchdowns (29) as a senior while escorting BYU to an 11-0-0 record ... Passed for 300 yards or more in seven straight games that season ... Threw for seven touchdowns in one game as a senior, setting a Western Athletic Conference record ... Also set NCAA single game passing yardage record with 571 yards vs. Utah in 1977 ... Amassed 7,637 passing yards over his career ... Played in Holiday Bowl, East-West Shrine game and Senior Bowl ... Economics major.

PERSONAL: Given name Marc Douglas Wilson ... Married (Colleen) and the father of four children (Travis, born 10/19/78, Katie 7/4/82, Jane 11/19/85 and Ryan 1/4/88) ... Born in Bremerton, WA ... Played football, basketball and baseball at Shorecrest High School in Seattle, winning all-league honors in all three sports — as a quarterback in football, a forward in basketball and pitcher-outfielder in baseball ... Three-time Most Valuable player in baseball and led his team to state championship as a senior ... Resides in Woodinville, WA.

Blaise Winter - 68

DEFENSIVE END • SYRACUSE • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 274 • BORN: 1/31/62 • (ACQ: T-San Diego, '88)

PRO: Acquired from San Diego Chargers in past considerations trade April 28, 1988 ... Started all three replacement games for the Chargers in 1987 and spearheaded defense, piling up 18 unassisted tackles including four quarterback sacks for 18 yards in losses ... Had been waived previously in pre-season ... A former Colt, Winter joined San Diego as a free agent on Nov. 24, 1986 and played in the Chargers' final four games, collecting 6 tackles in the process ... Originally selected by the Colts in the second round of the 1984 draft (he was 35th player chosen), he started 15 games at right end as a rookie and closed out the season as the team's fourth ranking tackler with 92 (48 solo stops and 44 assists), his total including 2 sacks ... Subsequently was named to all-rookie teams by UPI, PFWA, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest ... Spent 1985 season on injured reserve because of tendonitis problem in shoulder which required surgery ... Also missed most of '86 season after being waived from IR by Indianapolis following the opening game.

COLLEGE: Co-captain at Syracuse as senior, when he registered 72 tackles, including 5 sacks ... Also played in Blue-Gray game ... Obtained degree in physical education.

PERSONAL: Given name Blaise Winter ... Participated in football, basketball, wrestling and track for the Tappan Zee High School Dutchmen in Baluvelt, N.Y. ... Has been active in the San Diego community, particularly in behalf of the Special Olympics ... Residence: San Diego.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts: Indianapolis 1984 (16-15); 1985 (0-0, on injured reserve); San Diego 1986 (4-0); 1987 (3-3).

Randy Wright - 16

QUARTERBACK • WISCONSIN • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 203 • BORN: 1/12/61 • (ACQ: D-6, '84)

PRO: In 1987, the former University of Wisconsin field general became only the sixth passer in Packer annals to throw for more than 5,000 yards in a career ... Passing for 1,507 yards (132 completions in 247 attempts), he padded his lifetime yardage total to 5,616 ... In the process, he joined an elite fraternity which includes career leader Bart Starr (23,718), Lynn Dickey (21,369), Tobin Rote (11,535), Arnold Herber (6,741) and David Whitehurst (6,205), all of whom logged more NFL seasons than Wright has to date ... Started seven games overall, including four in succession (vs. the Bears at Chicago Nov. 29, vs. the 49ers Dec. 6, vs. the Vikings Dec. 13 and the Giants Dec. 19) ... Had his best day vs. Bears in Green Bay Nov. 8, completing 20 of 41 passes for 298 yards and 2 touchdowns in a memorable duel with the Midway Monsters' Jim McMahon ... Capped that effort by putting Packers in position for a 47-yard Al Del Greco field goal which lifted them into a 24-23 lead with one minute remaining, a heroic which was shortly negated by a 52-yard, game-winning FG by the Bears' Kevin Butler ... Also had highly productive afternoon in rematch with Bears at Chicago, hitting on 18 of 36 attempts for 255 yards ... Was installed as the Packers' starting quarterback in 1986 following the release of veteran Lynn Dickey and responded to the assignment by compiling the third highest single season totals in Packer history for completions (263) and passing yards (3,247) ... Only Dickey, in Green Bay's history, has completed more passes for more yards in a single season ... Wright, subsequently voted Packer Most Valuable Offensive Player honors, set two club records en route, for most passes attempted in a game (vs. San Francisco at Milwaukee Oct. 26), eclipsing the 51 thrown by Dickey at Tampa Oct. 12, 1980, and for most pass attempts in a season (492), surpassing Dickey's previous club mark of 484, set in 1983 ... In addition, Wright's 17 touchdown passes matched the fifth highest single season total in Packer history and his 30 completions vs. the 49ers also tied the second highest single game total in Green Bay's annals ... Those 30 completions resulted in the first 300-yard passing day of Wright's pro career ... Had his best percentage day of the season vs. Detroit Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 27), when he completed 18 of 26 passes for a glossy 69.2 percentage, 268 yards and 3 TDs ... New Head Coach Lindy Infante says of him, "Randy Wright's been around now for a few years and should be hitting the peak of his career as a quarterback. We would hope that he would get in the hunt for the starting job" ... A sixth round draft choice in 1984, Wright had made only two starts prior to 1986—the first against the Bears at Chicago Dec. 9, 1984 and the second against the Cardinals at St. Louis Sept. 29, 1985 ... Suffered knee injury in second quarter of the Bear contest and underwent surgery the following day ... Threw a TD pass in his very first regular season appearance as a professional earlier that season (Sept. 9), a game in which he replaced Dickey when the latter was injured on the first offensive series ... Became first player Packers had drafted from University of Wisconsin in 20 years (since Ken Bowman was made Green Bay's eighth round selection that year) when he was selected in round six.

COLLEGE: Led Badgers to 12 Big Ten offensive marks as a senior, also establishing seven conference individual passing records ... Finished career as seventh ranking passer in Big Ten history on yardage basis with 5,048 ... Earned MVP honors in Blue-Gray game following senior season ... Transferred to Wisconsin from Notre Dame ... Has degree in communications.

PERSONAL: Given name Randall Steven Wright ... Married (Kelli) and father of daughter Katelyn (born 3-19-88) ... Honorable mention All-America prep star at St. Charles, IL, High School ... Also competed in basketball and track ... Born in Austin, TX, and lived there until age of 16 ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Piano playing, golf, movies ... Residence: Madison, WI.

Max Zendejas - 8

PLACEKICKER • ARIZONA • 3RD YEAR
 HT: 5-11 • WT: 184 • BORN: 9/2/63 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: Engineered Packers' best Cinderella story of the 1987 season ... An "at liberty" free agent when the regular season began, he was summoned to join Green Bay's replacement team in late September and proceeded to delight the faithful by making all seven field goals he attempted during the replacement games ... Then, after being inactive for three weeks following the end of the player strike, he replaced veteran Al Del Greco as Green Bay's resident placekicker and went on to forge the second highest single season field goal efficiency percentage (.8421) in Packer history ... Also ran his consecutive completion streak to 10 before missing ... Made 16 of 19 FG attempts overall, including two at Seattle Nov. 15 and another pair vs. 49ers in Green Bay Dec. 6 ... His Seattle efforts included a 48-yard success, the Packers' longest field goal of the season ... Also had a 45-yarder against the 49ers and a 47-yarder vs. the Vikings ... Emerged as team's leading scorer with 61 points, including 13 PAT in 15 attempts ... Earlier, during the replacement period, sent the first Detroit game into overtime (Oct. 11) by hitting a 45-yard FG attempt as regulation time expired ... Made all three field goals he attempted, connecting from 39 and 28 yards prior to forcing the overtime ... Closed out the 1986 season as Washington Redskins' second-ranking scorer with 50 points ... Had surfaced as the most effective of three kickers to be employed by the Redskins (Mark Moseley and Steve Cox were the others), making 9 of 14 FG attempts, including 2 of 4 from 40-49 yards ... He also made 23 of 28 conversion tries ... Placed on injured reserve with leg injury December 16, 1986, he remained there the balance of the year ... Was released during August of '87 and subsequently signed by Packers as a FA Sept. 23 ... Originally had been selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth round of the 1986 draft (100th player chosen) ... Later was waived Sept. 1, 1986 and signed as a FA by the Redskins Oct. 13.

COLLEGE: Four-year letter winner at Arizona, where he once made three field goals of beyond 50 yards in one game ... Business major with minor in bilingual education.

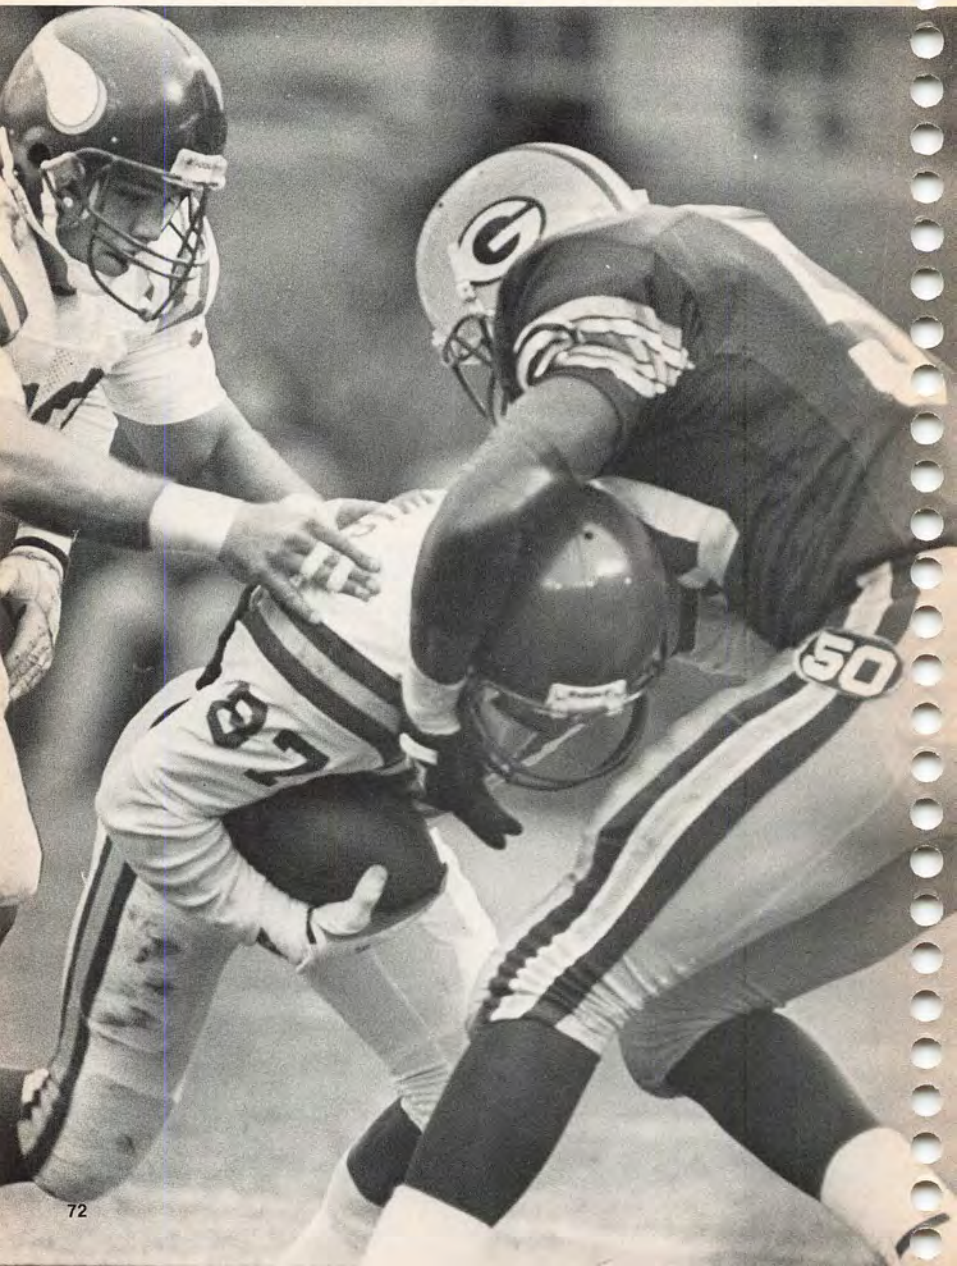

PERSONAL: Given name Maximiano Javier Zendejas ... Single ... Employed in sales by U.S. West Cellular Car Phone Co. (Phoenix) in off-season ... Born in Curimeo Michucan, Mexico ... One of four brothers who have been or currently are kicking at the pro or collegiate level ... Brother Luis kicked for the Dallas Cowboys in 1987 and two other, younger brothers, Alan and Alex, for Arizona State and Scottsdale Junior College, respectively ... An older brother, Joaquin, formerly kicked for the New England Patriots ... He also is a cousin of Tony Zendejas, Houston Oilers placekicker, and of Martin Zendejas, who kicks for the University of Nevada, and the son of a former Mexican national soccer star, Joaquin Zendejas, Sr. ... Favorite pastimes: Basketball, soccer, football, racquetball ... Active in counseling at Phoenix and Tucson area schools and as a participant in golf tournament fund-raisers for charitable purposes ... Also originated Zendejas kicking camps, launched in Arizona this year ... Residence: Scottsdale, AZ.

THE DRAFTEES

The following players were selected by the Packers in the 1987 National Football League draft. The players appear in the order of their selection.

STERLING SHARPE • 23 • WR/KR • South Carolina
Ht.: 5-11 • Wt.: 202 • Born: April 6, 1965 • D-1

"Once this guy gets his hands on the football, he is a potential all-the-way guy," Head Coach Lindy Infante says of Sharpe, his initial first round selection as Green Bay's new head coach ... Generally ranked as the premier pure receiver in this year's college draft, he is the possessor of exceptional speed (4.44 in the 40-yard dash) ... Also one of the most versatile pass-catchers in the nation, Sharpe blossomed at South Carolina under Coach Joe Morrison's "run and shoot" offense, operating from the wingback position ... A consummate team player whose all-out approach to the game rubs off on his teammates, he is known for his big-play ability and fierce desire to win ... A jack-of-all trades offensively, he excels whether running, catching or returning the ball ... Also known as a clutch receiver who always seems to come through in crucial situations ... Keith Kephart, South Carolina's strength and conditioning coach, says the talented Gamecock has another important asset, asserting, "Sterling is as strong as anyone I've ever seen for his size" ... An excellent route-runner, Sharpe also is known for his flair for the dramatic, best exemplified by a sensational, one-handed diving grab of an 80-yard scoring pass in a 30-21 win over Nebraska last season ... Scouts feel the mercurial Georgian has unlimited potential ... Sharpe, who has greatly improved his blocking skills entered South Carolina as a halfback and quarterback ... Broke the school career record for receptions (146 by Fred Ziegler from 1967-69) by amassing 163 catches, including 74 in 1986 and 56 in 1987 ... His 2,444 receiving yards set another school record, surpassing Phillip Logan's old mark of 2,063 (1974-77) ... Also set a school career mark for touchdowns with 25 ... All-America selection by The Sporting News, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft ... In addition to leading the Gamecocks in receiving, he returned 20 punts for 170 yards (an 8.5 average) and one TD ... Pulled in 11 passes for 114 yards in the Georgia contest and tied a school single game record when he rushed for three TDs in a 40-10 trouncing of Virginia Tech ... Also caught a 59-yard scoring pass and returned a punt 59 yards for another score in a 58-10 romp over Virginia ... Set school single season records as a junior in 1986 with 74 receptions for 1,106 yards and 10 TDs ... His average of 6.73 catches per game was fifth best in the nation ... Also ranked seventh in the 1-A ranks with 1,777 all-purpose yards, an average of 161.6 yards per game ... Returned 21 punts overall for 190 yards (a 9.0 average), 16 kickoffs for 377 yards (a 23.6 average) and recorded a solo tackle on special teams ... Also attempted one pass ... Voted the team's offensive player of the year, he had 10 receptions for 98 yards vs. Nebraska and 9 catches for 167 yards in a 21-21 tie with Clemson ... Led the team in receiving as a sophomore in 1985 with 32 catches for 471 yards (a 14.7 average) and two TDs ... Returned 10 kickoffs for 262 yards and tied an NCAA record with a 100-yard touchdown (actual distance: 104 yards) ... Ran a sideline toss for 34 yards and a TD vs. Georgia and did the same on a 70-yard scoring excursion in the East Carolina game ... Played mainly on the special teams as a freshman in 1983 and redshirted in 1984.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-county and Player of the Year at Glennville, GA High ... Also named school's Athlete of the Year after lettering four times in football, three times in basketball and four times in track.

PERSONAL: Earned a degree in interdisciplinary studies ... Worked on post-graduate studies in retailing in 1987.

SHAWN PATTERSON • 23 • DT • Arizona State
 Ht.: 6-5 • Wt.: 270 • Born: June 13, 1964 • D-2

Described as "a complete football player" by Head Coach Lindy Infante, who says of him, "We had Shawn projected as a first round draft choice on our board. He was projected as a guy who could possibly go in the first round, so we feel very fortunate to have gotten him where we got him" ... One of the top defensive linemen in the West in 1987, he started at defensive tackle for Arizona State but experts feel he could move out to end to take advantage of his quickness and pass rushing ability ... A good technique player with excellent speed for his size (4.74 in the 40), he has overcome injury problems that hampered him earlier in his career ... Also a hard worker in the weight room, he added over 25 pounds of muscle to his frame over the last two years ... First team All-Pac 10 Conference selection last season and also named to All-America third team by both the Football News and The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft ... Finished second on the ASU team with 90 tackles (65 solos), two sacks and 10 tackles for 29 yards in losses ... Caused and recovered a pair of fumbles ... Also deflected three passes ... Recorded 9 tackles vs. Illinois and had 7 solos and a fumble recovery in 31-12 victory over Pacific ... Had a sensational performance against Nebraska, coming up with 10 tackles and a sack in the process of forcing Husker quarterback Steve Taylor out of the pocket all afternoon ... Led a fierce pass rush that sacked Texas El Paso quarterbacks 7 times for 48 yards in losses on the way to a 35-16 Sun Devil victory ... Teamed with nose guard Mark Duckens to tackle tailback Steve Broussard for a safety in a 38-7 thumping of Washington State ... Had 13 solo tackles, a sack and two tackles for 14 yards in losses in a 33-28 win over Air Force in the Freedom Bowl ... Started 9 of 11 regular season games at tackle for ASU as a junior in 1986 ... Finished sixth on the team with 47 tackles (35 solos), made two sacks and had 7 tackles for 22 yards in losses ... Also recovered a fumble and deflected three passes. It was the first injury-free season of his career ... Made only two tackles in a 22-15 win over Michigan in the Rose Bowl, but one was a sack and the other a tackle for a 6-yard loss ... Started eight games as a sophomore in 1985 but was hampered with knee, ankle and hamstring problems throughout the year ... Still managed to record 36 tackles (25 solos), a sack and 8 tackles for 17 yards in losses ... Earlier started two games in 1984, finishing with 17 tackles ... Redshirted with an assortment of minor injuries in 1983.

KEITH WOODSIDE • 23 • RB • Texas A&M
 Ht.: 5-11 • Wt.: 203 • Born: July 29, 1964 • D-3

Ideally suited to the multiple-type offense being installed by new Head Coach Lindy Infante, he is an emerging star who excels whether carrying the ball or catching passes. "We need guys that can come out of the backfield and catch the ball and go out there and play in space," Infante explains, "and we feel that in Keith, we have a guy that fits those kinds of situations ... He has excellent hands and has been a returner. He just does a lot of things — he's got the body size to be a blocker if we need him to be, he's got the ability to take the ball and bounce it outside; he's got a wiggle about him" ... One of the most highly regarded backs in Louisiana coming out of high school, he is an elusive runner in the open field and one of the best receivers in the nation coming out of the backfield ... Also displayed fine blocking skills as a junior, paving the way for his running mate, Roger Vick (Jets) to lead the Southwest Athletic Conference in rushing in 1986 ... Picks his holes well and runs precise pass routes ... Had 109 career receptions to become the school's all-time leader, breaking the old mark of 105 catches by Rod Bernstine (Chargers) ... Shared the tailback position in 1987 with Darren Lewis ... Finished second on the team with 620 yards and two touchdowns on 112 carries (5.5 average) and led the Aggies in receiving with 25 catches for 237 yards (9.5 average) ... Carried the ball 12 times for 90 yards, caught 5 passes for 22 yards and raced for a career long 77 yards to set up a Matt Gurley 2-yard touchdown run in a 29-12 victory over Washington ... Had 5 receptions for 46 yards vs. LSU ... Burst through the middle of the line, outracing three defenders downfield, on a 66-yard touchdown run in a 27-21 loss to Texas Tech, finishing the contest with 77 yards on 3 carries and 27 yards in receptions ... Exploded for 122 yards on 17 carries and caught a pair of passes for 52 yards in a 34-21 triumph over Rice ... Closed out the regular season with a season high 135 yards and a 90-yard touchdown run on 12 carries, adding 13 yards on a reception, in a 20-13 win over Texas ... Rushed for 73 yards on 17 carries and caught two passes for 22 yards in a 35-10 victory in the Cotton Bowl ... Earned first team all-SWC honors by UPI, Dallas Morning News and Houston Post as a junior in 1986 ... Ranked second on the team and fourth in the conference with 569 yards rushing (5.9 average) and 2 touchdowns on 97 attempts ... Tied for second in the SWC in receptions with 52 for 603 yards (11.6 average) and 5 scores, an average of 4.7 catches per game ... His 52 catches were the most by an SWC running back since Donny Anderson (ex-Packer) caught 60 at Texas Tech in 1965 and his 109 career catches broke Anderson's SWC record (107) ... Set a conference record for running backs in catching 12 passes for 95 yards and a TD vs. Arkansas ... Ran for 107 yards on 10 carries and caught 2 passes for 23 yards in 48-28 win over North Texas State ... Caught 5 passes for 134 yards and 2 scores and ran for 39 yards in a 39-35 win over SMU.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-state running back at Vidalia (LA) High School ... Led the state's runners with 2,000 yards rushing in 9 games his senior year ... Gained 173 yards in the Riverside Bowl vs. the Mississippi All-Star team.

PERSONAL: Industrial education major.

CHUCK CECIL • 23 • S • Arizona
 Ht.: 6-0 • Wt.: 184 • Born: November 8, 1964 • D-4A

Considered one of the premier defensive backs in the country, he was a consensus All-America first team selection and a leading contender for the Jim Thorpe Award, annually presented to the nation's top secondary player ... Possessor of deceptive speed (he's 4.6 in the 40) and excellent leaping ability, he is a former walk-on who took over the starting strong safety job at Arizona in his sophomore year ... An intelligent player and team leader — he earned All-America Academic honors — Cecil also is a standout special teams player who was used as an up back on the punt return unit ... Head Coach Lindy Infante describes him as "one of those guys that plays from sideline to sideline, he covers an awful lot of ground ... He had 9 interceptions last year, which shows he has a nose for the football ... We really like his mental makeup as far as the game is concerned — he's a tenacious individual who will throw himself around" ... Cecil's 21 interceptions set a new Pac-10 Conference record, surpassing the previous mark of 20, held by USC's Artimus Parker (1971-73) and Stanford's Phil Moffatt (1929-31) ... Won all-Pac 10 first team honors each of the past two seasons and was named league's Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 ... Led Arizona last season with a career-high 136 tackles (80 solos), a sack and two tackles for 10 yards in losses ... Caused a fumble and recovered two others, blocked a punt and deflected a team-high 12 passes ... Tied Virginia's Keith McMeans and Michigan State's Todd Krumm for the national title with his nine interceptions, good for 77 yards in returns ... Also averaged 7.8 yards on 11 punt returns ... Missed all of spring drills after undergoing surgery for a knee injury ... Returned to the starting lineup by the season opener ... Registered the remarkable total of 21 tackles (11 solos) and deflected 3 passes in a 34-24 loss to UCLA ... Posted 9 stops vs. Iowa and 14 tackles in a 20-9 victory over New Mexico ... Was named Pac-10 Conference and Sports Illustrated Defensive Player of the Week after recording 14 tackles, deflecting a pair of passes and tying a league record with 4 interceptions in a 23-13 win over Stanford ... Followed with 11 tackles in a 21-21 tie with Washington, later came up with 17 tackles (8 solos) and a pair of pass deflections in a 12-10 loss to USC ... Closed out his Wildcat career with 17 tackles (9 solos) and set a conference mark with his 21st interception in a 24-24 tie with Arizona State in the season finale ... Finished third on the team as a junior with 122 tackles (71 solos), 3 of them for losses totaling 17 yards ... Also led the Pac-10 with 19 pass deflections and picked off six passes, returning them for a school record 142 yards ... Set another school mark with a 100-yard interception return for a TD in a 34-17 win over Arizona State ... Had a sensational day in a 41-17 rout of Oregon, recording 11 tackles, deflecting a pass, intercepting two others and blocking a punt ... Made 16 tackles, 2 deflections and caused a fumble in the Arizona State game and accounted for 18 tackles, an interception and a deflection vs. USC ... Earned sophomore All-America honors from Football News in 1985 after registering 94 tackles (53 solos) over the season ... Redshirted in 1983 after joining the team as a walk-on.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-League and All-County receiver, quarterback and defensive back at Helix (San Diego) High ... Also all-Grossmont League in basketball and baseball ... Honor Society member with a 3.95 grade average.

PERSONAL: Business major ... Academic All-America and Pac-10 All-Academic selection ... Has 3.3 grade point average.

ROLLIN PUTZIER • 22 • NT • Oregon
 Ht.: 6-4 • Wt.: 279 • Born: December 10, 1965 • D-4B

A standout lineman, he was a three-year starter at Oregon, moving to nose guard his senior year in the Ducks' 5-2 defense ... An avid weight lifter, he added more strength and quickness through his off-season efforts ... A solid fortress in the middle of the field, he has all the tools to be a dominating force ... Described as "very nasty vs. the run and tremendously improved as a pass rusher" ... Oregon football head coach Rich Brooks says of him, "Rollin is as good as any player we've ever had" ... A versatile performer, he can play any defensive line position ... Packer Coach Lindy Infante describes Putzier (pronounced Poot-ZEER) as a "huge guy, athletic, who has been a basketball player. He had six sacks in '87 so he has shown the ability to get to the quarterback. He is a great big hunk of humanity — 280 pounds, 6-4ish, with good mobility for a guy that size ..." Earned All-America second team honors from The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft in 1987, as well as first team All-Pac-10 Recognition ... Saw action in 629 plays at nose guard and finished fourth on the team in tackles with 84 (66 solos), a team-high 6 sacks and 7 tackles for 49 yards in losses ... Also deflected two passes and caused fumble ... Accounted for 11 tackles, four behind the line of scrimmage, and a sack in a 34-27 triumph over USC ... Came up with 10 tackles vs. Arizona State and 9 stops and a sack in a 31-17 victory over Washington State ... Started all year at left tackle in 1986 as a junior, seeing action on 596 plays ... Ranked second on the team in tackles with 91 (71 solos), recorded a sack, had three tackles for 11 yards in losses, deflected one pass and recovered two fumbles ... Was in on 698 plays in 1985 as a sophomore, finishing fourth on the team with 86 tackles (51 solos), two sacks and three tackles for 17 yards in losses while playing LT ... Also caused a fumble and recovered 2 others ... Was the team's only defensive lineman to start every game ... One of four freshmen to earn a letter in 1985.

HIGH SCHOOL: Two-time all-state, two-way lineman and Idaho's A-2 Defensive Player of the Year at Post Falls High School ... Credited with 67 tackles and a school record 11 sacks as a junior and had 144 tackles with 10 sacks as a senior ... Led the team to the state playoffs his last two years ... Team MVP and leading scorer and rebounder in basketball his junior year ... Cleared 535 pounds in the squat lift.

PATRICK COLLINS • 21 • RB • Oklahoma
 Ht.: 5-9 • Wt.: 188 • Born: Aug. 4, 1966 • D-8

Possessor of blazing speed and great body movement, he has been clocked at 4.3 seconds in the 40-yard dash ... Explosive outside runner with the strength to carry the ball up the middle ... Also exceptional blocker and special teams player ... Packer scout Charlie Army says of him, "I think Collins was a steal (in the eighth round). He's got very good hands, excellent speed and, what really impressed me is that he is one of the better blocking backs in the draft" ... Known as a consummate team player, sacrificing personal statistics to aid in the overall success of the team ... Very difficult to cover in one-on-one situations and dangerous return specialist who is a threat to score any time he touches the ball ... With Barry Switzer's famed shuttle system for Sooner running backs, he didn't get to carry the ball often but was highly productive, averaging an imposing 7.6 yards per carry in 1987 (626 yards in 82 carries) and 6.5 yards per attempt for his career ... Possesses a strong throwing arm for the half-back option ... A durable performer who never missed a game in four seasons due to the injury ... Had best rushing day of '87 season in key game against Nebraska, amassing 131 yards, including a 65-yard TD run ... Caught a 20-yard pass and threw another 20-yarder to tight end Keith Jackson in a 20-14 loss to Miami in the Orange Bowl ... Averaged 14.4 yards on eight punt returns ... Started all year at right halfback as a junior, averaging 6.0 yards on 56 rushing attempts for 337 yards and pacing the ground game in scoring with 8 touchdowns ... Also returned 17 punts for 205 yards, a 12.1 average ... Won a starting job at RHB in 1985 as a sophomore after a very impressive pre-season performance ... Finished as fourth ranking rusher on the team (306 yards on 53 attempts, 5.8 avg. ... and 5 TDs).

HIGH SCHOOL: Chosen Tulsa World Metro Player of the Year as senior at Washington High (Tulsa), where he rushed for almost 2,000 yards, leading the state's 5A teams in scoring with 28 TDs.

PERSONAL: Business management major.

NEAL WILKINSON • 23 • TE • James Madison University
 Ht.: 6-5 • Wt.: 226 • Born: Oct. 2, 1964 • D-9

A productive performer and three-year starter at James Madison ... Tied the school's single season touchdown record for receivers in junior year (1986) with six, matching the mark set by Gary Clark of the Super Bowl champion Washington Redskins, who played for Packer Coach Lindy Infante with Jacksonville of the USFL ... Infante says of Wilkinson: "He seems to kind of fit the type of tight end that we're looking for — a guy that can kind of get up the field a little bit, stretch the coverage a little bit ... a good-sized target, good hands and a good, solid blocker" ... Caught 24 passes as a senior, averaging 14.6 yards per reception ... Averaged an impressive 22.7 yards per catch as a junior, when he was JMU's No. 2 receiver ... Closed out his collegiate career with 12 TD receptions ... Played in three games as a walk-on in 1984 as a freshman and in all 11 games in each of his last three years.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-district selection as a senior at Jefferson High School (Roanoke, VA) ... Attended Air Force Academy Prep School before enrolling at James Madison.

PERSONAL: Given name Neal Allan Wilkinson ... Political science major.

BUD KEYES • 22 • QB • Wisconsin
 Ht.: 6-2½ • Wt.: 211 • Born: March 3, 1966 • D-10

The first Green Bay native to be drafted by the Packers since 1972, he is likened to Don Majkowski — selected in the same round a year ago — by Tom Braatz, Packer executive vice president of football operations ... "Both have strong arms, both are good athletes with mobility ... both are smart," Braatz says. "Keyes was productive as a sophomore and junior, the same as Majkowski" ... Led the Badgers in passing as a junior, completing 93 passes in 174 attempts (.534) for 1,002 yards and five touchdowns ... Also rushed for 111 yards on 40 attempts and scored three TDs ... Emerged as Wisconsin's total offense leader with 1,113 yards on 214 plays ... Rushed for 50 yards in season finale at Michigan State ... Saw action in ten games and started the final seven ... Started four games as a senior in 1987, completing 28 of 66 attempts for 350 yards

THE DRAFTEES

(.424) and one TD in the newly-installed veer offense of incoming coach Don Morton ... Rushed 57 times for 180 gross yards (86 net) ... Appeared in seven games as a sophomore in 1985, starting four (vs. UNLV, Wyoming, Illinois and Michigan State) ... Passed for 829 yards and eight TDs ... Earned "Player of the Week" honors on offense against Michigan State ... Threw three TD passes against UNLV, including a career-best 78-yarder ... Passed for career-high 225 yards at Illinois ... Ranked tenth in total offense in Big Ten Games with 116.7 yards per game.

Keyes is only the fourth Green Bay native to be drafted by the Packers since the National Football League instituted the college draft in 1936, following halfback Gene Evans of Wisconsin (1950), halfback Gary Kroner, also of Wisconsin (1963) and quarterback Jerry Tagge of Nebraska (1972) ... Like Evans and Tagge, Keyes is a Green Bay West product ... Kroner prepped at Green Bay Premontre.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-metro and all-conference quarterback in 1982 and '83 at Green Bay West, leading Wildcats to two state tournament berths under Coach Earl "Mike" Miller ... Also played for West in the 1983 state high school basketball tournament.

PERSONAL: Given name Herbert Keyes ... Hobbies include playing basketball ... General home economics major, with an emphasis in journalism and consumer science ... Favorite athlete is Michael Jordan.

SCOTT BOLTON • 23 • WR • Auburn
 Ht: 6-0 • Wt: 188 • Born: Jan. 4, 1965 • D-12

Reminds Lindy Infante of Brian Brennan, a productive receiver he coached at Cleveland the past two years. "This guy's a little faster than Brian Brennan," Infante says, "but Brennan does come to mind" (when making a comparison) ... Bolton, Infante feels, "might be classified as a sleeper" ... A swift receiver (4.49 in the 40) receiver who runs precise pass routes, he came to Auburn as a halfback and was moved to receiver as a sophomore ... An excellent open field runner, he has the quickness to easily elude an opponent in one-on-one situations ... Can also fill in as a kickoff returner ... Had 10 catches for 132 yards and a touchdown in 1987 ... Played in all 11 games in 1986 as a junior, making 11 catches for 169 yards (15.4 avg.) ... Moved to wide receiver in spring drills in 1985 and made 11 catches for 139 yards that season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Lettered as a halfback at Theodore, AL, High ... Rushed for 950 yards and nine TDs as a senior, despite missing three games with a shoulder separation and a bruised Achilles tendon.

PERSONAL: Management major.

The Lambeau Field Story

Green Bay's Lambeau Field, home of the Packers, was erected in 1957 with a capacity of 32,150. Five subsequent additions have been made to the facility in the 31-year interim, increasing the current capacity to 57,095. The most recent expansion, in 1985, involved the construction of 72 private boxes, 44 of them from goal line to goal line on the east side and 28 on the west side, extending from either end of the press box to the goal line.

The cost of the original project, when the stadium was constructed in 1957, was $960,000. It was shared equally by the Green Bay Packers, Inc., and the City of Green Bay. Financed by means of a bond issue, it received voter approval in a referendum conducted April 3, 1956. All subsequent additions have been underwritten by the Packer Corporation. They previously increased stadium capacity to 38,669 in 1961, 42,327 in 1963, 50,861 in 1965 and to 56,155 in 1970.

The stadium was dedicated as City Stadium on September 29, 1957. It later was renamed Lambeau Field in 1965, following the death of the late E. L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first coach of the Packers.

Lambeau Field now is wholly owned by the City of Green Bay, retirement of the original $960,000 indebtedness having been celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Sept. 20 Rookie Don Majkowski makes first pro start at quarterback, leads Packers to 17-17 overtime tie with Denver Broncos, Super Bowl finalists. Completes 10 of 20 passes for 121 yards and one touchdown, without an interception. Brian Noble spearheads defense with 12 unassisted tackles and an interception.
- Oct. 4 Packer replacement team debuts with 23-16 victory over Vikings at Minneapolis, strong safety Jim Bob Morris intercepting Viking pass at Green Bay 4-yard-line with a minute to play and returning it 73 yards to preserve win. Quarterback Alan Risher completes 12 of 21 passes for 164 yards and one touchdown and scrambles 13 yards for another TD to aid winning cause.
- Oct. 11 Max Zendejas kicks 45-yard field goal as fourth quarter ends to forge 16-16 tie and force overtime against Detroit. Lions subsequently win in sudden death via 31-yard Mike Prindle FG. Packers' Kevin Willhite rushes for 79 yards in 18 attempts.
- Oct. 18 Packers go into overtime for second week in row, shade Eagles 16-10 in extra period on 7-yard run by James Hargrove, which caps a 10-play, 76-yard drive. Quarterback Alan Risher completes 15 of 23 passes for 236 yards and one touchdown — 6 of them to Lee Morris for 132 yards. Kevin Willhite rushes for 100 yards in 16 carries.
- Oct. 25 Don Majkowski makes second start as regulars return, passes for 323 yards (19 completions in 29 attempts) to escort Packers past Lions, 34-33. Out front by 31-7 at one point in second quarter, Packers fall behind 33-31 before rallying to win on 45-yard field goal by Al Del Greco with one minute to play.
- Nov. 8 Packers take 24-23 lead on Bears with one minute remaining on 47-yard Al Del Greco field goal, only to see Chicago prevail on last play, 52-yard FG by Kevin Butler. Randy Wright throws for 298 yards (20 completions in 40 attempts) and 2 touchdowns in losing cause. Phillip Epps emerges with second 100-yard receiving day of his career (6 catches for 139 yards, 1 TD).
- Nov. 22 A pair of Randy Wright TD Passes to rookie Frankie Neal, carry Packers to a 23-3 victory over Chiefs in Kansas City. Paul Ott Carruth stakes Green Bay to early 6-0 lead with a 6-yard TD run. Rookie Brent Fullwood has his best rushing day of the season (68 yards in 23 attempts).
- Nov. 29 Even with the Bears at the intermission (10-10) in Chicago rematch, Packers fall victim to Midway Monsters in second half, two blocks of Max Zendejas field goal attempts and a midfield interception by the Bruins' Maurice Douglass figuring prominently in the outcome.
- Dec. 6 Green Bay pulls within four points of 49ers midway through third quarter on one-yard scoring run by Carruth, following a Dave Brown interception, but Prospectors seal Packers' fate with 57-yard scoring strike from Joe Montana to Jerry Rice in fourth period for eventual 23-12 victory.
- Dec. 13 Packers surprise playoff-bound Vikings in season home finale, driving 72 yards in 10 plays to break 10-10 deadlock with 1:09 remaining and pull out 16-10 victory, Kenneth Davis' 7-yard off-tackle run providing deciding points. Brian Noble makes 10 solo tackles to spark a defense which holds high-scoring Vikings to a lone TD and 287 net yards.
- Dec. 27 Packers get off to early 14-3 lead on New Orleans via pair of Don Majkowski TD passes to Walter Stanley in see-saw Superdome struggle, subsequently regain advantage (24-19) late in third quarter on 20-yard Majkowski pitch to Phillip Epps but Saints respond with two late TDs to salvage 33-24 win.

PACKERS STILL OWN A SHARE OF 'MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL' HIGHEST SCORING GAME

The Packers still own a share—the winning share—of the highest scoring game in the history of "Monday Night Football," ABC-TV's 18-year-old prime time series. On October 17, 1983, they delighted a Lambeau Field house of 52,555 fans by edging the Washington Redskins in an explosive struggle, 48-47.

The Packers eventually prevailed over the Redskins—reigning Super Bowl champions then as they are in 1988—by way of a Jan Stenerud field goal. The scoring orgy produced 11 touchdowns, 11 conversions and 5 other field goals, Stenerud's 20-yard success with only 54 seconds remaining deciding the issue. The Redskins' Mark Moseley added a final, dramatic flourish by missing a 39-yard field goal attempt on the game's last play.

The 95-point production surpassed the previous "Monday Night Football" record for total points by 11. The latter had been established Dec. 20, 1982, when the San Diego Chargers outscored the Cincinnati Bengals, 50-34.

The contest also was the highest scoring game in which the Packers ever have been involved. The 95 points exceeded by eight the previous mark of 87, set when Green Bay lost to the Lions at Detroit in 1951, 52-35.

The Packer record on "Monday Night Football:"

- 1970 — Packers 22, Chargers 20 (at San Diego, Oct. 12)
- 1970 — Colts 13, Packers 10 (at Milwaukee, Nov. 9)
- 1971 — Packers 14, Lions 14 (at Milwaukee, Nov. 1)
- 1971 — Falcons 28, Packers 21 (at Atlanta, Nov. 22)
- 1972 — Packers 24, Lions 23 (at Detroit, Oct. 16)
- 1973 — Packers 23, Jets 7 (at Milwaukee, Sept. 17)
- 1973 — Forty Niners 20, Packers 6 (at San Francisco, Nov. 26)
- 1974 — Bears 10, Packers 9 (at Chicago, Oct. 21)
- 1975 — Broncos 23, Packers 13 (at Denver, Sept. 29)
- 1977 — Redskins 10, Packers 9 (at Washington, Nov. 21)
- 1979 — Packers 27, Patriots 14 (at Green Bay, Oct. 1)
- 1982 — Packers 27, New York Giants 19 (at East Rutherford, N.J., Sept. 20)
- 1983 — Giants 27, Packers 3 (at East Rutherford, N.J., Sept. 26)
- 1983 — Packers 48, Redskins 47 (at Green Bay, Oct. 17)
- 1983 — Packers 12, Buccaneers 9 (OT) (at Tampa Bay, Dec. 12)
- 1984 — Broncos 17, Packers 14 (at Denver, Oct. 15)
- 1985 — Bears 23, Packers 7 (at Chicago, Oct. 21)
- 1986 — Bears 25, Packers 12 (Sept. 22)

Packers won 7, lost 10, tied 1.

THE HISTORY

PACKER SUPER BOWL STORY

Super Bowl I

January 15, 1967

Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

Paid Attendance: 61,946

Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's American Football League champions 35-10 behind the passing of Bart Starr, the receiving of Max McGee and a key interception by all-pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Wood's 40-yard return of an interception to the Chief's 5-yard line with the Packers leading by only 14-10. The pass, authored by the Chiefs' Len Dawson, had been intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, filling in for ailing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers, first offensive series) after having caught only three passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores counting one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter and the other on a one-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' 10 points came in the second quarter; the only touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and 2 touchdowns and was chosen the game's most valuable player. His scoring strikes came on a 37-yard collaboration with McGee in the first quarter and a 13-yard pitch to the aging end in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece — the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports.

Super Bowl II

January 14, 1968

Orange Bowl, Miami, Florida

Paid Attendance: 75,564

Green Bay 33, Oakland 14

Having acquired a third consecutive NFL championship just two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning the Super Bowl title for the second straight year. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was chosen the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packer attack that was in control all the way after building up a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and all-pro cornerback Herb Adderley highlighted the Green Bay scoring with a 60-yard interception return of a Daryle Lamonica pass.

After leading by only 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers padded their margin to 16-7 at halftime by way of three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game marked the last for Vince Lombardi as Packers coach, ending nine years at Green Bay in which he won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedented in pro football history.

ELEVEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships — eleven — than any other team in National Football League history. They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931) and eight since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967). Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).

In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1967, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1968, 33-14).

Chicago's Bears rank second with nine NFL titles, followed by the Giants, Lions and Browns with four each.

GAME BY GAME

1936 — GREEN BAY 21, BOSTON REDSKINS 6, (Polo Grounds, New York) — Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played in the Polo Grounds because the Redskins' franchise was being shifted to Washington, D.C., by George Marshall. A turnout of 29,545 saw Don Hutson take a 45-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers were never headed.

1938 — NEW YORK 23, GREEN BAY 17, (Polo Grounds, New York) — The Packers overcame an early 9-0 New York lead, spawned by two blocked punts, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. The Packers began to close in early in the second period, Arnie Herber capitalizing on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 50-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants margin to 9-7.

The Giants shortly converted a mid-field fumble by Packer fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead before Green Bay again trimmed the deficit to two points before the half was over; Clarke

Hinkle crashing over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker. The Packers then forged in front in opening minutes of the second half for the first and only time in the game; an Engebretsen field goal presenting them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 35-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A crowd of 48,120, a play off record, sat in on proceedings.

1939 — GREEN BAY 27, NEW YORK 0, (State Fair Park, Milwaukee) — The Packers made playoff history by scoring first shutout ever registered in NFL championship game. Despite bitter 35 m.p.h. wind, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in leading Green Bay to its fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gartenbein, and pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen and a long TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski.

1944 — GREEN BAY 14, NEW YORK 7, (Polo Grounds, New York) — With peerless pass catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy for the Giant defense, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged the offensive hero of Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, one on a 2-yard run in the second quarter and the other on a 26-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the third. Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a one-yard plunge on the first play of the final period. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, had a brilliant day, setting a playoff record with three interceptions and claiming ground gaining honors with 74 yards in 13 carries. Attendance: 46,016.

1960 — PHILADELPHIA 17, GREEN BAY 13 (Franklin Field) — Packers erected a 6-0 lead in the second period and were out in front by 13-10 in fourth quarter before yielding to late surge by Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay moved ahead in first quarter on a 20-yard Paul Hornung field goal. Hornung added 23-yard FG in second quarter but Eagles tied it 6-6 on a 35-yard scoring pass from Norm Van Brocklin to Tommy McDonald and edged ahead via Bobby Walston's first conversion. Walston followed with a 15-yard FG for a 10-6 halftime lead.

The Packers stopped Philadelphia at their own four late in the third period, then recaptured lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. A 58-yard kickoff return by Dean, however, ignited Eagles and victory eluded Packers, making their first title game appearance in 16 years. Attendance: 67,325.

1961 — GREEN BAY 37, NEW YORK 0, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, scored a record tying 19 points to key Packer decimation of Giants in first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A record Packer home crowd of 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team of 1961, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, was proving a devastating complement to the attack, intercepting four Giant passes and recovering one fumble.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and defensive back Hank Gremminger, set up touchdowns No. 2 and 3 while the fumble recovery by Forrest Gregg led to Hornung's second field goal and a Jess Whittenton interception to Hornung's final FG.

1962 — GREEN BAY 16, NEW YORK 7, (Yankee Stadium, New York) — Out front all the way in a raw, cyclonic setting, Packers weather siege by vengeful Giants in primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke proves principal frustration to New Yorkers, seeking redemption for shutout humiliation in '61 title game. His deflection triggers interception to blunt early Giant drive to Green Bay 10. On way to being named game's most valuable player, he also registers two interceptions, one of which led to the Packers' only touchdown of the afternoon. The other set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided eventual margin.

Giants' only TD comes on block of Max McGee punt in Green Bay end zone midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor sets playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

1965 — GREEN BAY 23, CLEVELAND 12, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Field softened by four-inch snow made Packer backs only run harder as Lambeau Field crowd of 50,777 celebrated third championship in five years. Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung amassed 201 yards rushing in rally that overcame Browns' early 9-7 lead.

Packers charged to 7-0 first quarter advantage on 47-yard Bart Starr pass to Carroll Dale and Don Chandler's conversion, but Cleveland moved in front on a 17-yard TD strike from Frank Ryan to Gary Collins and 24-yard Lou Groza field goal.

Green Bay rebounded, however, with 15 and 23 yard FGs by Chandler, the latter following a Willie Wood interception, to claim 13-7 lead subsequently trimmed to a single point by a second Groza FG shortly before the intermission.

Starr settled the issue in third quarter, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play scoring drive climaxed by Hornung's 13-yard sweep of Browns' right perimeter.

1966 — GREEN BAY 34, DALLAS 27, (Cotton Bowl, Dallas) — Bart Starr has one of his finest hours, passing for four touchdowns as Packers win second straight title and fourth in six years. Tom Brown thwarts last-minute Cowboy bid, and the majority of 74,152 Cotton Bowl fans, with end zone interception of Don Meredith's fourth down pass from Green Bay 2.

Packers mounted quick 14-0 lead on a 17-yard Starr pass to Elijah Pitts and 18-yard scoring run with a fumble recovery by rookie Jim Grabowski, but led only 21-17 at halftime following explosive Cowboy comeback. After a 32-yard Villanueva field goal had cut Packer lead to a tenuous 21-20, Starr hit Dowler and McGee with 16-yard scoring passes to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

PACKER NFC PLAYOFF HISTORY

1967 — GREEN BAY 21, DALLAS 17, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — With thermometer shuddering at 16 below zero and 50,861 in stands, Bart Starr scores winning touchdown from one-yard-line with 13 seconds remaining, sealing record third straight championship for Packers and their fifth in seven years.

Starr's touchdown, on third down with no timeouts remaining, climaxed a 68-yard drive in 12 plays.

As was case in 1966, Packers grabbed early 14-0 advantage. But this time Cowboys came from behind to take the lead, forcing story book finish by Green Bay to win contest later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

Starr's touchdown passes of 8 and 46 yards to Boyd Dowler built the first quarter bulge, trimmed in second quarter by George Andrie's 7-yard scoring return of a Starr fumble and 21-yard Danny Villanueva field goal. Dan Reeves' 50-yard scoring strike to Lance Rentzel in the fourth quarter triggered the dramatic denouement.

1972 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

WASHINGTON 16, GREEN BAY 3 (Robert F. Kennedy Stadium, Washington, D.C.) — Chester Marcol's 17-yard field goal early in the second quarter puts the Packers out front but a Bill Kilmer-to-Roy Jefferson touchdown pass late in the same period gave the Redskins a lead they never yielded. Curt Knight kicked three field goals to provide the Redskins' other points before a crowd of 52,321 fans on Sunday afternoon, December 24. John Brockington, the Packers' 1,000-yard rusher, had to settle for nine yards on 13 carries as the Redskins used a five-man defensive line to shut down Green Bay's running game.

1983 SUPER BOWL TOURNAMENT

1983—GREEN BAY 41, ST. LOUIS 16 (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Making their first post-season appearance in Lambeau Field since celebrated "Ice Bowl" game of 1967 against Dallas, Packers halt Cardinal drive at one-yard-line in first quarter then proceed to forge an all-time club scoring record in their opening Super Bowl Tournament contest following 1982 season.

Out front 21-3 at halftime, they pad lead to 41-9 in fourth quarter before permitting Cards a consolation touchdown. Quarterback Lynn Dickey ties Packer playoff record before 54,282 fans by passing for 4 touchdowns (17 of 23 for 260 yards and 0 intercepts overall) and flanker John Jefferson sets club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards on 6 catches, including a 60-yard TD reception, another Packer playoff record. Placekicker Jan Stenerud also establishes a club playoff mark with a 46-yard field goal.

1983—DALLAS 37, GREEN BAY 26 (Texas Stadium, Irving, TX) — Packers amass 466 yards, a team playoff record, but are unable to overcome slow start, which finds them trailing 20-7 at halftime. They roll up 363 yards and out-score Cowboys 19-17 in second half, pulling within four points (30-26) on a 23-yard scoring runback of an interception by Mark Lee in fourth quarter, but Cowboys retaliate with 74-yard scoring drive to end Green Bay hopes with 63,972 fans looking on.

Quarterback Lynn Dickey throws for 332 yards (19-for-36) and all-time Packer playoff record in losing cause, split end James Lofton emerging with 109 yards on 5 receptions. Lofton also spices Packers' second half comeback with 71-yard reverse for a TD, tying all-time NFL playoff record for a run from scrimmage.

Bart Starr holds the National Football League record for most consecutive passes thrown without an interception — 294. He set the mark over the 1964 and '65 seasons.

As the 1988 season began, there had been ten 1,000-yard rushing seasons by Packer players—half of them by Hall of Fame fullback Jim Taylor. Oddly enough, his five 1,000-yard campaigns came in succession—1,101 in 1960, a 1,307 in 1961, a career-high and club record 1,474 in 1962, 1,018 in 1963 and 1,169 in 1964.

Taylor also is the Packers' lifetime rushing leader with 8,207 yards (in 9 seasons) on 1,811 attempts, a 4.5 average.

JUST FOR THE RECORD

Founded as a town team in 1919, the Green Bay Packers begin the 1988 season with a .553 overall winning percentage after playing 1,161-games. Only two other teams in professional football, the Chicago Bears and Phoenix (formerly Chicago and St. Louis) Cardinals have played more than 1,000 games.

In 69 seasons, the Packers have won 645 games, lost 469 and tied 47, a .576 percentage. The 1,161-game total includes 874 league, playoff and Super Bowl games and 287 pre-season, mid-season and post-season non-league games.

1963 — E. L. (Curly) Lambeau, Founder, player, coach, vice-president (1919-49). Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '27, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and is one of only five coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL, (others are George Halas, Paul Brown, Don Shula and Tom Landry). Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-'51) and Washington Redskins (1952-'53).

1963 — Johnny (Blood) McNally, HB (1928-'36). Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos, Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Steelers. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1929, '30 and '31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Still 16th place in Packer lifetime scoring, four decades after departing Green Bay scene, with 224 points. Collegiate star at St. Thomas.

1963 — Don Hutson, E (1935-'45). Highest scoring receiver in pro football history with 99 touchdowns, all-time NFL record. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving 8 years and in scoring 5 seasons, both also lifetime marks. Caught passes in 95 consecutive games, one of the longest streaks in pro football history. Led NFL in receiving yards in 7 seasons, an all-time record. Also holds league record for most points scored in one quarter (29).

1963 — Robert (Cal) Hubbard, T-E (1929-'35). Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants — a massive 6 ft. 3 inch, 265 pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was an all-pro choice in each of first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Played college football at Centenary, Geneva.

1964 — Clarke Hinkle, FB (1932-'41). A four-time all-pro selection (1936, '37, '38, '41) ... One of the most versatile players in NFL annals, he was tough, bruising runner, fine blocker, good receiver and excellent placekicker as well as a shrewd, hard-hitting linebacker. Fourth-ranking rusher in Packer history with 3,860 yards in 1,171 carries. Played college football at Bucknell.

1964 — Mike Michalske, G (1929-'37). Also played for New York Yankees (1927-'28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time all-pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State.

PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1966 — Arnie Herber, HB (1930-'41). Also played for New York Giants (1944-'45). Pro football's first great long passer. Won three National Football League passing titles and was all-pro selection in 1932. Teamed with Don Hutson to form NFL's first feared passing combination in mid-'30s. Shares fourth place in lifetime passing efficiency in Packer annals with 50.06 percentage for 9 seasons and ranks fifth in career touchdown passes with 51. Tough, durable athlete and accomplished punter as well as great passer. A Green Bay native, he played college football at Regis (Denver, Colo).

1971 — Vince Lombardi, Coach and General Manager (1959-'67). Also assistant coach for New York Giants (1954-'58) and head coach of Washington Redskins (1969). Directed Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-'62 and 1965-'66-'67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. His 1966 and 1967 teams also made history by winning first two Super Bowls. Packers won nine of 10 playoff games under his leadership and overall, compiled a 98-30-4 record, a glittering .766 winning percentage. Lombardi, a guard, played his college football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

1974 — Tony Canadeo, HB (1941-'44, 1946-'52). Became only the third 1,000 yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1952. Still ranks as No. 3 ground gainer in Packer annals with 4,197 yards in 1,025 attempts, a 4.1 average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was an accomplished blocker, capable passer and good receiver in addition to being a highly effective kick returner. Also played defensive back during early years of his career. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired nickname of "Grey Ghost."

1976 — Jim Taylor, FB (1958-'66). Also played for New Orleans Saints (1967). One of three running backs in pro football history to rush for 1,000 yards in five consecutive seasons (1960-'64). Also ninth ranking career rusher in NFL annals with 8,597 yards in 10 seasons. Ranks ninth all-time, in number of 100-yard rushing games with 26 and eighth in career rushing attempts with 1,941. Also owns fifth highest lifetime total of rushing TDs, 83. Played college football at LSU.

1977 — Forrest Gregg, T (1956, 1958-'70). Also played with Dallas Cowboys (1971). Drafted No. 2 in 1956. Gregg was named All-Pro eight times (including All-Pro at both Guard and Tackle in 1965) and 9 times to the Pro Bowl. Called by Lombardi the "finest player he'd ever coached." Gregg holds the Packer record for durability with 187 consecutive games. Head Coach of the Green Bay Packers 1984-87. Also served as head coach of Cleveland Browns (1975-'77) and Cincinnati Bengals (1980-83). Played college football at SMU, where he now is head football coach.

1977 — Bart Starr, QB (1956-'71). Drafted in 17th round in 1956. Starr became the winningest quarterback in football, directing the Packers to 6 Western Division Titles, 5 World Titles, 2 Super Bowl victories, and was named MVP in Super Bowls I and II. Starr led the League in passing in 1962, 1964 and 1966 and was named to the Pro Bowl 4 times. In 1972 he coached Packer quarterbacks, Head Coach of Green Bay Packers 1975-83. He played college football at Alabama.

PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1978 — Ray Nitschke, MLB (1958-'72). Drafted in third round in 1957 after playing fullback at Illinois. Most Valuable Player in 1962 NFL Title game vs NY Giants. Named to the NFL All-50 year team. All-Pro in 1964, 1965 and 1966; Pro Bowl 1965.

1980 — Herb Adderley, DB (1961-'69). Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1970-'72). Packers' No. 1 draft choice (Michigan State) in 1961. Five-time all-pro at cornerback. Played in five Pro Bowls, four of first six Super Bowls (two with Green Bay, two with Dallas). Had 48 career interceptions, ran 7 back for TDs (second highest total in NFL history).

1981 — Jim Ringo, C (1953-'63). Also played for Philadelphia (1964-'67). Seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Went on to win all-pro honors six times, five as a Packer, and played in 10 Pro Bowls, seven as a Packer. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183). Helped Packers win back-to-back NFL titles in 1961-'62. Traded to Philadelphia in 1964. Currently offensive line coach for New York Jets.

1981 — Willie Davis, DE (1960-'69). Also played for Cleveland (1958-'59). A 17th round draft choice, he came to Packers from Browns in 1960 trade. Became one of premier pass rushers in pro football history, winning all-pro honors six times and selection to Pro Bowl five times. Holds all-time Packer record for career fumble recoveries (21) and second longest consecutive game streak (162) in Green Bay annals. Helped Packers win five NFL titles during 1960s. Played college football at Grambling.

1986 — Paul Hornung, HB (1957-'62, 1964-'66). One of the most versatile players in pro football history, he won NFL scoring title three consecutive years (1959-60-61), setting all-time league record of 176 points in 1960. Also shares league single game playoff scoring record, 19 points. All-pro selection three times and named to Pro Bowl twice. Averaged 4.1 yards per rush, caught 130 passes and kicked 66 field goals during 9-year career. Second ranking scorer in Packer history with 760 points. Bonus choice (first player selected overall) in 1957 NFL draft. Played college football at Notre Dame, winning Heisman Trophy in 1956.

THE PACKER STORY

BIRTH OF A TEAM AND A LEGEND

On the evening of August 11, 1919, a score or more of husky young characters, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

There had been some preliminary talk and planning and that night's decision wasn't announced until two days later, but the big step had been taken. So August 11 is as good a birthday as any.

Actually the initial spark had been struck a few weeks before during a casual street corner conversation between Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun. It was apparently one of those "Why not get up a football team?" remarks, but once they got interested they wasted no time.

FIRST THEY TALKED Curly's employer at the Indian Packing Company into putting up some money for equipment.

Because the team's jerseys had been provided by the packing company, which also permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the corporation had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and at the end of the season it had to be forfeited.

THIS WAS the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A.B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

FROM THOSE MODEST and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual world-wide recognition by winning more championships (eleven) over the intervening half-century than any other team in professional football.

The fact that these achievements have come while representing a city of only 90,000 inhabitants, in competition with the country's population giants, has endeared them to the nation's football fans, many of whom are intrigued by the David vs. Goliath concept and the Packers' unique status as a publicly-owned corporation.

INEVITABLY, PROCEDURES at Packer games have come a long way since the sandlot years of 1919-20 when the Pack was subsisting on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. Then there were no ushers, no majorettes, no band and no public address system—the latter hadn't been invented yet, there weren't even any seats at first, and it didn't cost anything to get in.

When the Packers began their existence in 1919, they played on approximately the same site as the now abandoned City (East) Stadium, but with a mighty difference. Hagemester Park, as it was called was just a big vacant lot with a football gridiron marked on it.

There were no gates because there wasn't any fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street streetcar and walked over to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about ten yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow the play up and down the field. By moving as the play progressed, you always had a "50-yard line" location and were handy to any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that too.

When the half ended teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. Nothing private about those huddles. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's half time suggestion.

In 1920 a section of stands was built—just a small bleacher with a capacity of a couple hundred—on one side of the field, and a fee charged to sit there. The next year a portable canvas fence was erected around the whole field and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

THE PACKER STORY

WHEN HAGEMASTER Park was dug up in 1923 to make way for East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds out on the end of Main Street. This was called Bellevue Park because it was just east of the old Hagemaster Brewery, which was renamed the Bellevue Products Co. during Prohibition. Things were Big Time out there, with crowds of 4,000 to 5,000 storming the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears.

The Packers used Bellevue in 1923-24, but it was obviously inadequate and too far out, lacking about every facility needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of old City Stadium just back of the new high school.

The new plant was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but was an immediate success, the Bear game that year drawing a record crowd of nearly 6,000. It was a typical small town park of its day, with wooden fences and stands on both sides, between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines the ultimate capacity of 25,000 was reached.

AFTER WORLD WAR II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. September 29, 1957 was a proud day for Green Bay and its Packers. A million dollar modern stadium with a seating capacity of 32,150 was dedicated. In 1961, the Stadium was expanded to 38,669, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,861 in 1965 when the name was changed to Lambeau Field, 56,155 in 1970, and to 56,926 following the addition of private boxes in 1985.

The Packers' colorful saga, spanning 69 years, can be roughly divided into eight chapters. They take us from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Curly Lambeau to the present day, which finds the Packer's legendary lineman, Forrest Gregg, presiding as the ninth head coach in the team's history.

THE IRON MAN ERA—With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 or 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD—Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold, when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME—After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER—The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the rebuilding plans and Lisle W. Blackburn, coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. During the four-year Blackburn regime the Packers won 17 while losing 31.

McLEAN MOVES UP—Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, worst in Packer history in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA—In 1959, the Packers announced the signing of New York Giant assistant Vince Lombardi as head coach and general manager.

In his first season, Lombardi lifted the Packers to a 7-5 record and was unanimously voted Coach of the Year. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division title and went on to win World Championships in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, and 1967. Never finishing lower than second since 1960, his teams became the standard of football excellence and the Packer franchise one of the most successful. Over a nine year span as head coach, Lombardi's teams racked up 141 victories against 39 losses and 4 ties for a remarkable .783 winning percentage. Even more noteworthy, however, is the record of Lombardi coached teams in post-season play. In 10 Division playoffs and World Championship Games, the Packers emerged victorious nine times.

THE PACKER STORY

BENGTSON PERIOD—Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to coach and manage the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-1970, compiling a 20-21-1 record, and in December of 1970 resigned.

THE DEVINE DAYS—Dan Devine, one of the three most successful coaches in the nation's collegiate ranks, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January of 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first season, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of '73 and they slipped to a 5-7-2 mark. They continued their recession in '74, emerging with a 6-8 record, and Devine resigned.

BART STARR — the most successful field general in pro football history as Green Bay's quarterback of the '60s, accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager on Dec. 24, 1974. Starr, who led the Packers to five world championships from 1961 through 1967, asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere... We will earn everything else."

Although he had to settle for a 4-10 record in the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave Packer fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the 1975 season. He continued the resurgent trend in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning record since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily dampened in '79 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.

Rebounding strongly in 1981, they rallied from a disappointing 2-6 start to mount one of the most dramatic comebacks in Green Bay history, closing with a 6-2 rush (an 8-8 mark) and coming within one victory of the playoffs.

The Packers continued the upsurge in 1982, when they qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1972 by posting a 5-3-1 record during a strike-interrupted season. They then embellished that performance by routing St. Louis 41-16 in the first game of the NFL's Super Bowl Tournament before bowing to Dallas (37-26) despite a record-setting, 466-yard offensive effort. Starr was relieved of his head coaching duties on Dec. 19, 1983, after the Packers finished the '83 season with an 8-8 record and missed the NFL playoffs on the final week of the year.

THE PRESENT—On December 24, 1984, Starr was replaced by Forrest Gregg, a former teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in the history of the game as a player, who had maneuvered Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season. Gregg, whose Bengals' 19-6 record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football, received a five-year contract.

In taking over, he declared, "I took this job to field a winning team ... That will happen."

Gregg's prediction began to bear of fruit in the second half of the 1984 season when the Packers rebounded from an injury-ridden 1-7 start to win seven of their last eight games.

Because of injury and other complications, however, the 1985 season followed the '84 script, the Packers getting off to a slow 3-6 start before mounting a strong finish to again close at 8-8 by winning 5 of their last 7 games.

Gregg, convinced the time had come to rebuild a team which had gone 8-and-8 three years in succession and was "starting to get old" at that level, made sweeping personnel changes in 1986. The young and inexperienced Packers, their task complicated by injuries to such key performers as John Anderson, Tim Lewis, Rich Moran and Mark Cannon, got off to an 0-6 start, then began to mature in mid-season and went on to finish with a 4-and-12 record.

Following the 1987 season, which saw the Packers finish third in the NFC Central with a 5-9-1 record, Gregg resigned (Jan. 15, 1988) to become head coach at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University.

Nineteen days later, (Feb. 3), Cleveland Browns offensive coordinator Lindy Infante became the tenth head coach in Packer history. Recognized throughout the NFL as a brilliant innovator, the 47-year-old University of Florida alumnus received a five-year contract.

PACKERS OWN OVERTIME MARK

The Packers, who have demonstrated a flair for the dramatic over the 69-year course of their history, continue to own the National Football League record for most overtime games played in a season. They set the mark in 1983 when they were involved in five sudden death decisions, winning two and losing three.

Last year, the Packers augmented their reputation for going the "extra mile" playing in three more overtime contests, a parlay which swelled their lifetime total of sudden death games to 15. In the NFL, only the Cleveland Browns, with 17, have played in more.

The Packers three OT adventures of '87 came within a four-game span. The first occurred in Game Two against Denver at Milwaukee September 20, a confrontation which ended in a 17-17 sudden death tie when neither team was able to score in the extra period. The other two sudden death affairs came on consecutive weekends in replacement games, the Packers bowing to Detroit in Green Bay's Lambeau Field on Sunday, October 11 (19-16), a contest decided by Lion Mike Prindle's 31-yard field goal, then defeating the Philadelphia Eagles in "Lambeau" the following Sunday, October 18 (16-10) via James Hargrove's, climactic, 7-yard touchdown run up the middle.

Overall, the Packers have won five, lost six and tied four of those 15 overtime struggles.

In addition to regular and post-season play, the Packers have played one overtime game in pre-season action—against New England at Milwaukee August 30, 1975. The Patriots won that one, 20-17, on a John Smith field goal.

Capsules of the Packers' regular and post-season overtime games follow:

REGULAR SEASON

Nov. 26, 1978—Green Bay 10, Minnesota 10, at Green Bay; Packers win toss. Both teams have possession of the ball four times.

Sept. 23, 1979—Minnesota 27, Green Bay 21, at Minnesota; Vikings win toss. Kramer throws 50-yard touchdown pass to Rashad at 3:18.

Sept. 7, 1980—Green Bay 12, Chicago 6, at Green Bay; Bears win toss. Parsons punts and Nixon returns 16 yards. Five plays later, Marcol returns own blocked field goal attempt 24 yards for touchdown at 6:00.

Oct. 12, 1980—Green Bay 14, Tampa Bay 14, at Tampa Bay; Packers win toss. Teams trade punts twice. Lee returns second Tampa Bay punt to Green Bay 42. Dickey completes three passes to Buccaneers' 18, where Birney's 36-yard field goal attempt is wide right as time expires.

Dec. 19, 1982—Baltimore 20, Green Bay 20, at Baltimore; Packers win toss. K. Anderson intercepts Dickey's first-down pass and returns to Packers' 42. Miller's 44-yard field goal attempt blocked by G. Lewis. Teams trade punts before Stenerud's 47-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Teams trade punts again before time expires in Colts possession.

Sept. 4, 1983—Green Bay 41, Houston 38, at Houston; Packers win toss. Stenerud kicks 42-yard field goal at 5:55.

Oct. 23, 1983—Minnesota 20, Green Bay 17, at Green Bay; Packers win toss. Scribner's punt downed on Vikings' 42. Ricardo kicks 32-yard field goal eight plays later at 5:05.

Nov. 20, 1983—Detroit 23, Green Bay 20, at Milwaukee; Packers win toss. Scribner punts and Jenkins returns 14 yards to Green Bay 45. Murray's 33-yard field goal attempt is wide left at 9:32. Whitehurst's pass intercepted by Watkins and returned to Green Bay 27. Murray kicks 37-yard field goal four plays later at 8:30.

Nov. 27, 1983—Atlanta 47, Green Bay 41, at Atlanta; Packers win toss. K. Johnson returns interception 31 yards for touchdown at 2:13.

Dec. 12, 1983—Green Bay 12, Tampa Bay 9, at Tampa; Packers win toss. Stenerud kicks 23-yard field goal 11 plays later at 4:07.

PACKERS RADIO NETWORK

JIM IRWIN

MAX MCGEE

Jim Irwin, long one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, and Max McGee, an all-time great player who has become a popular and respected analyst in a second "career", once again will bring all the color and excitement of Packer games to fans throughout Wisconsin and the Midwest in 1988 via the Packer Radio Network.

Irwin, whose authoritative tones also are familiar to Milwaukee Brewer and Bucks fans, is in his 17th year as the voice of the Packers. His credibility as a sports journalist has been repeatedly recognized by his peers, who have voted him Wisconsin's Sportscaster of the Year eight times.

McGee, who still ranks fourth lifetime among Packer receivers 20 years after completing a 13-year playing career, brings a special knowledge of the game — and of the Packers specifically — to the broadcast booth. Listeners also respond to his droll and penetrating wit, applied impartially to friend and foe alike.

—CONFERENCE CALLS: The Packer Public Relations Department will arrange a conference call with the head coach of the opposing team each week during the regular season, with the call to be placed in the PR Department's media lounge.

INSTANT REPLAY APPROVED FOR 1988

For the third consecutive year, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1987 with the exception that the Replay Official will now be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game. League office personnel will no longer be used as Replay Officials. In 1987, there were 490 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 57 reversals in 210 games for an average of one reversal in each four games. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed resulting in 38 reversals in 224 games.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a “no frills” approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986 and 1987. A total of 28 plays were examined closely in 1985 (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed, and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking, or kneeling; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.
