HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA POLICY

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be granted based on the following guidelines:

1. Houston-area media agencies which cover the Houston Texans on a daily basis will receive top priority.
2. Media agencies which cover the opposing team as requested by the opposing team's public relations staff.
3. National media agencies which cover the National Football League regularly (includes online properties such as ESPN.com, Yahoo! Sports, CBSSports.com, etc.).
4. Daily or weekly newspapers with a circulation of at least 100,000.
5. Television stations with a nightly news show & a nightly sports segment.
6. Radio stations with a 24-hour sports format that are affiliated with a national radio network (i.e. ESPN, Westwood One, etc.).
7. Daily or weekly newspapers with a circulation of at least 50,000.
8. Other requests not falling under one of the above categories will be considered on the basis of space availability in the NRG Stadium press box.
9. No freelance credentials will be granted.

Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested before 5 p.m. on the Tuesday prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted online at <http://media.houstontexans.com>.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS (ROAD GAMES)

If you are a regular member of the Houston media who wishes to cover the Texans on the road, submit your request for game credentials and parking passes through Amy Palcic at amy.palcic@houstontexans.com. All requests must be submitted no later than one game prior to a road contest. Credentials will be distributed on either Wednesday or Thursday during open locker room.

GAME DAY PARKING

Parking for Texans games must be applied for online at <http://media.houstontexans.com>. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to media parking lots on game day.

ENTRY ON GAME DAY

The media entrance at NRG Stadium is on the west side of the stadium at the corner of Kirby and Murworth. Enter through the media entrance which is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media will call is located on the west side of the stadium at the corner of Kirby and Murworth. The media will call gate is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the media will call window. Please remember to bring valid identification. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff and bags will be checked upon entrance to the stadium.

INTERNET

The Texans press box offers complimentary wireless Internet. If you have any questions on game day, see a member of the Texans communications department, seated on the second level of the press box, or call (832) 667-2831 for home PR.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Texans and visiting interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS, CELL PHONE VIDEOS OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE TEXANS LOCKER ROOM. With six minutes remaining in the game, take the media elevator to the field level. Videographers without field access will be in the team auditorium for the duration of the game. Bill O'Brien's postgame interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Texans Team Auditorium (white arrow). Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the mult box to ease congestion at the podium. Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitor's interview room across from the visiting locker room.

To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the service level and follow proper direction arrows on the ground:

Blue - Texans locker room

Red - Visitors locker room

White - Texans postgame press conference

PRESS BOX

The press box phone numbers are (832) 667-2831 (home PR) and (832) 667-2814 (visiting PR).

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers who are credentialed on a season-long basis for sideline access will be required to wear a photo vest. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized or sports publications. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

MEDIA WORKROOM

The media workroom is located on the service level at NRG Stadium across from the Texans locker room. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Texans information, NFL news releases and other information are available. Wireless service is available in the media workroom.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interview requests for Houston Texans executives, coaches and players should go through the Texans communications department. Please give at least 48 hours for your request.

For Texans players and assistant coaches, please send your request to Omar Majzoub (email: omar.majzoub@houstontexans.com; phone: (832) 667-2241) or Nathan Edwards (email: nathan.edwards@houstontexans.com; phone: (832) 667-2282).

Requests for Bob McNair, Rick Smith, Bill O'Brien and DE J.J. Watt should be sent to the attention of Amy Palcic (email: amy.palcic@houstontexans.com; phone: (832) 667-2220).

O'Brien's Monday news conference is held in the media workroom. He also speaks with the Texans' media on Wednesday through Friday in the media workroom (times will be emailed out at the beginning of each week).

HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA POLICY

OPEN LOCKER ROOM PERIODS

The Texans will have open locker room periods on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Special requests can be fulfilled on Monday or Tuesday, but it should be cleared with a member of the Texans communications department. You should give at least a week's notice for special arrangements on Monday and Tuesday. Everyone in the locker room must dress professionally and have a job function. The Texans communications department can remove any member of the media from the locker room for improper dress or unprofessional behavior.

PRACTICE REGULATIONS

Texans locker room and practices will be open to the media during the week as specified. We will provide a specific time during practice for shooting video.

PRESS RELEASES

The Texans' weekly press releases, as well as other news and information on the club, can be accessed on the team's official website at <http://www.houstontexans.com> or in the media section at <http://media.houstontexans.com>. Members of the media can also access league information from the NFL's media site at <http://www.nflcommunications.com>. The NFL's official web site address is <http://www.NFL.com>.

PARKING DURING THE WEEK

Parking for covering Texans weekly press conferences, open locker room or for access to the media workroom, use the Teal Lot, located at the northeast corner of Kirby and Murworth.

LIVE SHOTS

MONDAY-FRIDAY

Live shots on NRG Park property must be set up through the Texans communications department in conjunction with SMG. Please contact Nathan Edwards at nathan.edwards@houstontexans.com or (832)-667-2282 before setting up a live shot. Locations will be arranged through the communications department. Please give the Texans at least 12 hours advance notice to ensure proper set-up.

GAMEDAY

NFL network television partners and Texans media partners will be given priority for live shots at NRG Stadium. Television stations are allowed to shoot live at NRG Stadium until one hour before kickoff in the southwest corner of the field. Permission from the Texans communications department is required at least 48 hours before the game in order to shoot live.

NFL network television partners and Texans media partners are the only broadcast entities permitted to shoot live from inside NRG Stadium in the hour following the conclusion of the game.

Live shots and live streaming are NOT PERMITTED from the Texans postgame locker room for any entity.

HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA SERVICES

HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA WEBSITE

To access the Houston Texans media website, go to <http://media.houstontexans.com>. The section contains all Texans press materials, historical information, updated team statistics, media guides and credential information. Applications are being accepted for training camp, season and individual game credentials.

To apply for game credentials, please submit your request on the website the Tuesday before a Texans home game by 5 p.m. CT.

Fans can access coverage on <http://www.HoustonTexans.com> throughout the season on Texans TV. The Texans broadcast live streaming video of press conferences as well as game highlights, interviews, in-depth team features, community recaps, NFL Network footage and much more.

HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA GUIDE & GAME RELEASES

The complete 2017 Houston Texans Media Guide is available online at <http://Texans.1stRoundMediaGroup.com>.

Player bios and the Houston Texans record books are updated weekly during the season and are electronically distributed to media, as well as made available online at the Houston Texans media website.

The online version has been improved and is available in PDF format, allowing media to print, copy and paste information in an easier fashion. Player bios will be updated following each game, as will the roster, history and records sections. PDF versions of the media guide are available online as well.

HOUSTON TEXANS GAMEDAY STATISTICS AND TRANSCRIPTS

In an effort to significantly reduce paper waste at NRG Stadium, the Houston Texans will digitally host in-game statistics and postgame transcripts on <http://media.houstontexans.com> during the 2017 season. Links will be distributed to media in attendance prior to kickoff of each game, and media will be notified when new content has been posted. Hard copies will be available upon request.

HOUSTON TEXANS FTP & SHARE SITE

The Texans launched a new version of the FTP site in 2016 and will upload b-roll and clips of video interviews on a consistent basis. If you would like to be added to the email list, members of which receive emails when new content is uploaded, please contact Communications Coordinator Nathan Edwards at nathan.edwards@houstontexans.com.

TEXANS PR ON TWITTER

For up-to-the-second news, press releases, transcripts, game information, bios, notes and a variety of other information on the Houston Texans, follow the Texans PR Department on Twitter: @TexansPR.

TRANSCRIPTS

The Texans communications staff sends out transcripts of press conferences, open locker room interviews, and postgame interviews during the season. To be added to the Texans email list, please contact Communications Coordinator Nathan Edwards at nathan.edwards@houstontexans.com. All transcripts will also be posted on the Houston Texans media website at <http://media.houstontexans.com>.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

ROBERT C. McNAIR

FOUNDER, CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Robert C. McNair, a leading businessman, sportsman and philanthropist in Houston, Texas for more than 50 years is the founder, chairman and chief executive officer of the Houston Texans NFL team. McNair is perhaps best known in the business community as the founder of Cogen Technologies, which became the largest privately-owned cogeneration company in the world with an aggregate capacity of 1,400 megawatts. In 1999, he sold the company while retaining ownership of power plants in New York and West Virginia.

McNair serves as chairman of The McNair Group, headquartered in Houston, where he oversees an investment portfolio that includes interests in the two cogeneration plants in the eastern United States. McNair owns Palmetto Partners, Ltd. and RCM Financial Services, L.P., private investment entities that manage the McNairs' private and public equity investments. In 1997, he was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in 2010, the Houston Hall of Fame.

Committed to bringing a National Football League team to Houston, McNair formed Houston NFL Holdings in 1998. On October 5, 1999, the NFL awarded him the 32nd NFL franchise, returning professional football to the city of Houston in 2002. McNair's influence and leadership also brought two Super Bowls to Houston's NRG Stadium: Super Bowl XXXVIII in 2004 and Super Bowl LI in 2017. In grateful recognition, the Houston Super Bowl Host Committee commissioned acclaimed artist Chas Fagan to sculpt a bronze statue in McNair's likeness for unveiling at NRG during the Texans 2017 season.

McNair's Texans won their first AFC South title in 2011 and gave Houston its first NFL playoff game in nearly 18 years, a 31-10 win against Cincinnati in the Wild Card round on January 7, 2012. The Texans claimed their second consecutive AFC South title in 2012 and finished the regular season 12-4, matching the most regular-season wins in Houston's NFL history.

McNair hired Bill O'Brien as the third head coach of the franchise in January 2014, ushering in a new era of Texans football following a disappointing 2013 season. Now, the Texans are coming off three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history and have won back-to-back AFC South Division championships for the second time under McNair. The Texans' four division titles over the last six seasons are the fourth most in the NFL during that span and their 14 division wins since 2014 are tied for the most in the league.

In 2016, Houston advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012 and finished the year with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history. The team also posted a 7-1 record at home during the regular season, which set a single-season franchise record and tied for the best home record in the NFL.

McNair is actively involved in NFL affairs including serving as chairman of the Finance Committee. He also is a member of the Audit, Compensation and Chairman's Committees.

As founder and chairman emeritus of the Texas Bowl, McNair revived Houston's collegiate bowl game on December 28, 2006. The game now features teams from the Big 12 and SEC conferences and boasts an average attendance of over 70,000 fans a year, ranking fourth among all bowls trailing only the Rose, Cotton and Peach Bowls since 2014. In 2006, McNair selected The DePelchin Children's Center as the bowl game's charitable beneficiary. DePelchin has since received more than $1.2 million in direct financial support and millions more in promotional support from the Texas Bowl partnership.

Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky, is also among McNair's successes. The 1,947-acre racing stable was home to more than 275 racehorses, broodmares, yearlings and weanlings before its sale in October 2008. From its inception in 1994, Stonerside won 72 Graded Stakes races, including Grade I wins in the Belmont, Breeders' Cup Mile, the Travers, the Haskell, the Hollywood Gold Cup, the Cigar Mile, the Carter, the Swaps, the Wood Memorial, the Matriarch and the Oak Leaf Stakes. Stonerside also finished second and third in the Kentucky Derby and was the co-breeder of Fusaichi Pegasus, winner of the Derby in 2000. Stonerside bred the winners of over $50 million, including 2008 Breeders' Cup Classic winner Raven's Pass and 2008 Champion American Juvenile colt Midshipman, the winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Stonerside was named Breeder of the Year in 2007 and 2008 by Kentucky horsemen.

McNair served on the boards of the Breeders' Cup and Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and was awarded the Allan Bogan Memorial Award for outstanding services to the Texas Thoroughbred Association. He also is a member of the prestigious Jockey Club, which governs the sport of thoroughbred racing.

McNair chairs the Robert and Janice McNair Foundation and the Houston Texans Foundation, both headquartered in Houston, and the Robert and Janice McNair Educational Foundation where he grew up in Forest City, N.C. For over 25 years, the McNairs and their namesake Foundations have given generously to a wide array of charitable, scientific, literary, educational and religious organizations, including the Baylor College of Medicine's MD/PhD Program, and scholarship initiatives at the University of South Carolina, Columbia College, Newberry College, Austin College, Virginia Tech and Houston Community College.

The McNairs' passion for education includes the Houston Independent School District's Fine Arts Program, Project GRAD Houston, Teach For America, the Neuhaus Education Center and the Houston-area charter schools initiative. At the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy at Rice University, they endowed the Robert and Janice McNair Public Policy Chair, a position held by the institute's founding director, Ambassador Edward P. Djerejian. The McNairs' love of community is evident throughout the city of Houston and includes the Houston Zoo's McNair Asian Elephant Habitat, the jogging trail at Discovery Green, the San Jacinto Girl Scouts Equestrian Center, the McNair Cub Scout Adventure World, the United Way Computer Training Center, and the McNair Hall and McNair Plaza at Houston Baptist University. They have also sponsored community outreach programs for the Houston Symphony, Houston Grand Opera, Houston Museum of Fine Arts and Young Audiences of Houston. In addition, Bob McNair was a founding member of the Cotswold Project, a revitalization project in downtown Houston.

In 2007, the McNairs turned their primary philanthropic focus to medical research. They established the McNair Medical Institute and provided a transformational gift to the Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. The McNair Scholars Program soon followed to recruit and deploy world-class physicians and research scientists in the fields of Type 1 diabetes, cancer and the neurosciences. In addition to Baylor College of Medicine, McNair Scholars are located across Houston's acclaimed Texas Medical Center including MD Anderson, The Menninger Clinic, Texas Children's Hospital and the Texas Heart Institute.

In 2013 and 2014, the McNairs provided major gifts to Houston's AD Players Theater, Houston's United Way 2-1-1 Capital Campaign, the Star of Hope Family Place, Houston Parks Bayou Greenways 2020 and the Houston Zoo's Phase II African Forest campaign. Honoring the fruits of American entrepreneurship, in 2015, the McNairs began establishing McNair Centers for Entrepreneurism and Free Enterprise at the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy at Rice University, the University of St. Thomas in Houston, the University of South Carolina, Columbia College in Columbia, South Carolina, and Northwood University in Midland, Michigan. In 2016, they added a McNair Center at Houston Baptist University.

Bob and Janice McNair's philanthropic leadership has been recognized far and wide. In 2003, the Association of Fundraising Professionals honored their namesake foundation with the 2003 Outstanding Philanthropic Foundation Award. In November 2004, the Houston Independent School District followed with its Hall of Fame Award, and in 2008, Young Audiences of Houston bestowed its Houston Community Arts Partner Leadership Award. In 2012, the Neuhaus Education Center applauded the Foundation for 15 years of loyal support, and in May of 2012, it was recognized at the Mayor's Literacy Leadership Breakfast. In 2013, during its "Hats in the Park" luncheon, the Hermann Park Conservancy honored the Foundation for supporting Centennial Gardens.

Bob McNair has been the recipient of numerous awards, including the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award, Northwood University's Outstanding Business Leader Award, the Association for Private Enterprise Education's Herman W. Lay Memorial Award, the Houston Chapter of the National Football Foundation's Distinguished American Award, the Houston Rotary Club's Distinguished Citizen Award, the South Main Center Association's City Builder Award, the Houston Advertising Federation's Annual Trailblazer Award (for significantly enhancing the overall image of Houston both locally and globally), the Sam Houston Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America Distinguished Citizen Award, the Texas Heart Institute's Denton A. Cooley Leadership Award, the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge National Award for Outstanding Patriotism, Responsible Citizenship and Community Involvement, and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes President and Mrs. George H. W. Bush Community Impact Award.

In June 2005, Rice University's board of trustees named their 167,000-square-foot Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, "Janice and Robert McNair Hall." In October 2007, the Baylor College of Medicine presented its first Pink Ribbon Hero Award for Ambassadorship to the McNairs for their support of past Pink Ribbon Houses and for their commitment to fight cancer. In April 2009, the KIPP Academy honored the McNairs for their devotion in supporting the education of inner city and underprivileged youth. In May 2009, Bob McNair was named "Entrepreneur of the Decade" by the Houston Technology Center. In November, he was awarded the James A. Baker III Prize for Excellence in Leadership, an honor that recognizes nationally and internationally renowned leaders for excellence in public service and civic life. That December, McNair received the inaugural Rotary Lombardi Humanitarian Award, followed by the Houston Independent School District presenting him with its Encore for Excellence Award. In April 2010, the DePelchin Children's Center presented Bob and Janice McNair with its Kezia DePelchin Award in honor of their long-standing support of the DePelchin Center.

In May 2010, Bob McNair was inducted into the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame, and in November, the Association of Fundraising Professionals presented Bob and Janice McNair with its Maurice Hirsch Award for Philanthropy, the highest recognition given to an individual or family for exceptional generosity and outstanding civic and charitable responsibility. In 2012, Rice University again honored the McNairs during the 10th anniversary of McNair Hall, and in 2013, they were the recipients of the Texas Association of Partners in Education Award for the Texas Outstanding Sports Partnership.

In 2014, the McNairs received UNICEF's inaugural Margaret Alkek Williams Humanitarian Award and Houston Baptist University's Spirit of Excellence Award. They were honored by the Houston Zoo, the Souper Bowl of Caring, and in 2011, Bob McNair was honored by the Junior Achievement of Southeast Texas as a Class of 2011 Laureate and the JA Hall of Achievement. In September 2011, Texas Children's Cancer Center honored the McNairs as their 2011 Community Champions. In April 2012, the Escape Family Resource Center honored them as headliners for their annual Celebrity Serve benefit.

Bob McNair was selected as one of Texas Medical Center's 2013 Men of Distinction, and Bob and Janice McNair were Honorary Co-Chairs for Impact a Hero's 2013 Gala. They have chaired the American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge Houston campaign and were honored as Community Partner Honorees, along with the Houston Texans, at the Houston Symphony's Centennial Opening Night in September 2013. In November 2013, the McNairs were selected by the DePelchin Center to serve as Honorary Event Chairs at their Children's Center Gala. In February 2014, Bob and Janice McNair received the Houston Community College's Crystal Eagle Award. In November 2015, MD Anderson and NBC's Tom Brokaw honored Bob McNair as an MD Anderson Living Legend.

In March of 2016, the McNairs were selected as Honorary Chairs of the Texas Children's Hospital Promise Campaign. In February 2017, the Lombardi Honors and Awards program awarded Janice and Bob McNair with their 2016 Lombardi Fellows and Humanitarians of the Year awards. In May, the Newberry College John Bachman Society presented the McNairs with their "Distinguished Members for 2017" Award. In September 2017, Bob McNair will be an inaugural inductee of the Rutherford County, N.C. Sports Hall of Fame, and in 2018, he will become the fifth recipient of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame's Lamar Hunt Lifetime Achievement Award.

Bob McNair is a current or past member of the board of trustees for numerous institutions, including Rice University, Baylor College of Medicine, the Texas Heart Institute, Houston Grand Opera, the Museum of Fine Arts Houston, the Greater Houston Partnership, the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Free Enterprise Institute, the Sigma Chi Foundation, the Federal Reserve Banks of Dallas and Houston and the Young Presidents' and World Presidents' Organizations.

Bob McNair was born in Tampa, Fla. He and his wife, Janice Suber McNair, have been residents of Houston since 1960. McNair graduated from the University of South Carolina in Columbia, S.C. in 1958 with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1999, Mr. McNair received an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from the University of South Carolina. In 2010, he received an Honorary Doctor of Humanities in Medicine from Baylor College of Medicine. Janice McNair graduated from Columbia College in Columbia, S.C. in 1959. In 2015, she received an Honorary Doctor of Humanities from Columbia College.

D. CAL McNAIR

VICE CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

D. Cal McNair was named vice chairman of the Houston Texans in January 2008 and assumed the additional role of chief operating officer in April 2012. He has been a limited partner of the Texans since 2001. McNair also serves as the vice chairman of Palmetto Partners, Ltd., the private equity investing arm of The McNair Group.

McNair, who has been actively involved with the football operations of the Texans franchise since its inception, attends NFL meetings as part of team management and serves on the NFL Investment Committee. He has been part of the Texans' search committee in several key hires throughout franchise history, including current Head Coach Bill O'Brien in 2014, Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Rick Smith in 2006, former Head Coach Gary Kubiak in 2006 and former Defensive Coordinator Wade Phillips in 2011.

Those hires have paid dividends for the Texans, who are coming off three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history and have won back-to-back AFC South Division championships for the second time. The Texans' four division titles over the last six seasons are the fourth most in the NFL during that span and their 14 division wins since 2014 are tied with Kansas City for the most in the league.

In 2016, Houston advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012 and finished the year with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history. The team also posted a 7-1 record at home during the regular season, which set a single-season franchise record and tied for the best home record in the NFL.

In 2015, Houston clinched its third AFC South Division title in franchise history and first since 2012. The Texans also became the only NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning a game during the regular season and had a defense that finished third in the NFL in total yards (310.2) and passing yards (210.4) allowed per game.

In 2014, O'Brien led the team to a 9-7 record in his first year as the franchise's head coach. Houston's seven-win improvement under O'Brien led the NFL and made the Texans the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two-or-less games. O'Brien finished second in the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year voting in 2014.

After getting hired in 2006, Smith and Kubiak worked together to build the franchise's first two AFC South championship teams in 2011 and 2012. The hiring of Phillips, who was named the 2011 Pro Football Writers Association Assistant Coach of the Year, helped bring about the third-largest defensive turnaround in modern NFL history from 2010-11 and played a major role in the franchise's first-ever playoff berth.

Prior to 2001, McNair worked at Cogen Technologies for 11 years. In 1987, he was hired as one of the company's first employees. After beginning his tenure with Cogen, McNair helped oversee the construction of several major power plants in the eastern United States, managing those assets in the areas of financial analysis and project management.

McNair is a member of the board of trustees of the Robert and Janice McNair Foundation as well as the Robert and Janice McNair Educational Foundation. He is a director and vice president of the Houston Texans Foundation, a member of the United Way's prestigious Alexis de Tocqueville Society and a current or past member of the Amegy Bank Advisory Board, the University of Texas Chancellor's Council, the Council of Overseers at Rice University's Jones Graduate School of Business, Houston Zoo Board, the Fort Worth Zoo Board and the All Saints' Episcopal School Board in Fort Worth.

McNair attended The University of Texas at Austin, where he was a four-year member of the Longhorn football team. He earned a Master's of Business Administration degree from the Rice University Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management.

Born in Houston, McNair attended Cypress-Fairbanks High School. He has six children: Devon, Raelyn, Vivian, Robert, Calhoun and Michael. He resides in Houston with his wife, Hannah.

RICK SMITH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

Rick Smith oversees all football-related operations and the player acquisition process as Houston Texans Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager. Smith is in his 12th season as General Manager and seventh as Executive

Named general manager by owner Bob McNair on June 5, 2006, Smith's appointment made him the youngest general manager in the NFL at 36. Since then, Smith has assembled and led a football operations staff that prides itself on providing players and coaches with the tools needed for success on and off the field.

Smith's leadership, vision and success have garnered recognition by the league during his tenure. NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Smith to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee on Dec. 5, 2008. His peers honored him with the Tank Younger Award in 2008, presented annually by the Fritz Pollard Alliance for outstanding work in an NFL front office. Smith was an original member of the General Managers Advisory Committee, which provides advice and other feedback to the NFL Football Operations department on the integrity of the game, expansion of technology and other ways to improve the league.

The Texans are coming off three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history and have won back-to-back AFC South Division championships for the second time under Smith. The Texans' four division titles over the last six seasons are the fourth most in the NFL during that span and their 14 division wins since 2014 are tied with Kansas City for the most in the league. Houston posted a 5-1 record against AFC South opponents in 2016, which tied the best single-season winning percentage against the division in team history.

Houston advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012 and finished the 2016 season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history. The unit surrendered an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. Of the 20 players who started at least one game on defense for the Texans last season, 15 were either drafted by the Texans or signed as a college free agent. The team also posted a 7-1 record at home during the regular season, which set a single-season franchise record and tied for the best home record in the NFL.

Former No.1 overall pick DE Jadeveon Clowney earned Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after posting personal bests in tackles (52), sacks (6.0), tackles for loss (16), quarterback hits (17) and games played/started (14). Second-year ILB Benardrick McKinney led the Texans and finished 11th in the NFL (sixth in the AFC) with a single-season career-high 129 tackles, making him the only player in the NFL in 2016, and the second in Texans history, with at least 100 tackles and 5.0 sacks in a season.

On offense, the Texans finished with the eighth-most rushing yards in the NFL in 2016, averaging 116.2 per game. RB Lamar Miller, who was signed as a free agent during the 2016 offseason, became the fourth player in franchise history with 1,000 yards rushing in a season. As a team over the last three seasons, Houston ranks third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in rushing yards (5,751).

In 2015, Houston clinched its third AFC South Division title in franchise history and first since 2012. The Texans also became the only NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning a game during the regular season and had a defense that finished third in the NFL in total yards (310.2) and passing yards (210.4) allowed per game, while setting the franchise single-season records for sacks (45.0) and third down percentage (28.5). That percentage led the NFL in 2015 and was the lowest single-season mark by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

From day one, Smith and his staff rolled up their sleeves and scoured the free agent, draft and trade markets for players who could thrive with the Texans, solely focused on transforming their 2-14 team in 2005 into a perennial contender. The transformation culminated in back-to-back AFC South crowns and the franchise's first two playoff berths in 2011 and 2012.

Smith and his staff have been able to adapt and find the right personnel to fit changing schemes and coaching staffs throughout his tenure. He was faced with both heading into the 2014 season following a disappointing 2013. However, the Texans posted the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history and became the sixth team in the last 36 years to post a winning record (9-7) after having two wins or less the previous season.

Houston also forced a franchise-record 34 turnovers in 2014 and became the third team in the last 20 years to lead the NFL in takeaways after finishing last the year before. On offense, the Texans' 135.1 rushing yards per game ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest mark in franchise history.

This past spring, in his 11th draft with the Texans and fourth with Head Coach Bill O'Brien, Smith selected seven players who fit the credo he established when he arrived in Houston: "We're looking for tough, smart, physical players with high character who are competitive and passionate about football."

The Texans traded up 13 spots in the first round to select QB Deshaun Watson (12th overall) from Clemson. Houston drafted ILB Zach Cunningham (57th overall) from Vanderbilt in the second round and RB D'Onta Foreman from Texas with the 89th overall pick in the third round. Houston took Bucknell T Julián Davenport with their first selection in the fourth round (130th overall) and Clemson DE Carlos Watkins with their second fourth round pick (142nd overall). Oregon State CB Treston Decoud was the Texans fifth-round pick (169th overall), and Houston closed its draft by taking Baylor C Kyle Fuller in the seventh round (243rd overall).

Houston is the only team in the NFL with every first round pick since 2008 still on its roster and all but one of Smith's first-round selections played in at least 14 games as a rookie.

RICK SMITH

The Texans have been particularly successful drafting in the first round of the NFL Draft under Smith. Houston is the only team in the NFL with every first round pick since 2008 still on its roster and all but one of Smith's first-round selections played in at least 14 games as a rookie.

Eight of Smith's 10 first-round selections have started at least 10 games as a rookie with the franchise. Five have started every game as a rookie: LT Duane Brown (2008), ILB Brian Cushing (2009), CB Kareem Jackson (2010), DE J.J. Watt (2011) and WR DeAndre Hopkins (2013).

Collectively, the Texans' current roster, all acquired by Smith, has earned 20 Pro Bowl selections, 21 first- or second-team Associated Press All-Pro distinctions, three Defensive Player of the Year awards and one Defensive Rookie of the Year award.

Watt, the 11th overall pick in 2011, has already tied an NFL record with three Defensive Player of the Year awards (2012, 2014 and 2015) and became the first player in NFL history to have 20.0-or-more sacks in separate seasons. Hopkins, who was taken 27th in 2013, has the second most catches (317) and third most receiving yards (4,487) in NFL history for a player age 24 or younger. Hopkins also has the most receptions and receiving yards by a Texans player in the first four years of his career. Cushing was selected 15th overall in 2009 and went on to be named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and earn second-team All-Pro honors in 2011. Brown (26th overall in 2009) has been widely considered one of the best left tackles in the NFL and is the first lineman in franchise history to earn All-Pro recognition, doing so in 2011 and 2012.

Unrestricted free agents have also thrived in Houston on Smith's watch. CB Johnathan Joseph, who helped turn the Texans' defense around in 2011 after signing from Cincinnati, has been to the Pro Bowl twice since joining the Texans. Former DE Antonio Smith signed with Houston in 2009 and set career highs in sacks in 2011 and 2012, earning a trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2011 season. Former G Wade Smith signed with the Texans in 2010 from Kansas City and made the first Pro Bowl of his career in 2012, his 10th season.

Smith also orchestrated the trades that brought quarterback Matt Schaub from Atlanta in 2007 and center Chris Myers from Denver in 2008. Both players earned multiple Pro Bowl berths with the franchise. Additionally, the Texans have executed 16 draft-day trades in the last 11 years under Smith.

Smith places a premium on college free agents. The most well-known college free agent success story in Texans history is former RB Arian Foster. Undrafted out of Tennessee in 2009, Foster signed with Houston and spent most of his rookie season on the practice squad. Foster started 2010 with a 231-yard effort against Indianapolis and went on to have the best season ever by an undrafted running back, winning the 2010 rushing title, All-Pro honors and the first of three consecutive Pro Bowl nods. He rose from practice squad player to one of the most complete backs in the NFL and the franchise's all-time leading rusher with 6,472 yards (2009-15).

In 2012, the Texans won their second consecutive AFC South Division crown and set a franchise mark with a 12-4 record. Houston advanced to the Divisional round of the playoffs in 2011 and 2012, compiling a 22-10 regular season record that tied for the second-best mark in the AFC. Smith's tenure in Houston began with a 6-10 record, followed by a pair of 8-8 records in 2007 and 2008. In 2009, the Texans posted the first winning season in franchise history, narrowly missing the playoffs at 9-7 and followed that season up by going 6-10 in 2010.

Smith has found a way to consistently strengthen Houston's roster and is continuing to build upon a foundation of talent and depth with the cornerstones of scrupulous evaluation, opportunistic free agency signings, smart trades and a methodical draft strategy.

The 2011 campaign tested these principles unlike any other year. The Texans faced a drastically shortened 2011 offseason, a complete defensive scheme change and a glut of injured starters, including season-ending injuries to Schaub, QB Matt Leinart and Pro Bowl DE Mario Williams. In addition, All-Pro WR Andre Johnson missed more than half the season due to injury.

Smith's principles and commitment to the Texans' player acquisition strategy withstood the storm. The Texans managed to go 10-6 in 2011, win the AFC South and secure a playoff berth for the first time in franchise history. Most notable was the play of former fifth-round draft pick QB T.J. Yates. Yates was pressed into action as a rookie following the losses of Schaub and Leinart and became the first rookie quarterback to orchestrate comeback wins in his first two starts since 1968, including Houston's playoff-clinching victory at Cincinnati in Week 13.

The Texans finished 2011 with the NFL's second-ranked defense, a dramatic improvement over the unit that ranked 30th in the NFL in 2010. Houston's 912-yard improvement was the third-greatest leap for a defense from one year to the next since 1970. On offense, Houston set a franchise rushing record for the second straight season and ranked second in the NFL with 153.0 rushing yards per game.

In Smith's former role leading the Denver Broncos pro personnel department, the franchise posted the league's fifth-best regular-season record from 2000-05, going 61-35 (.635). The 61 wins were the most of any AFC West team during that span, 10 more than the next closest team, Kansas City. Denver was one of only four teams in the NFL to reach the playoffs each season from 2003-05.

Before moving into the front office, Smith spent four years as the Broncos' assistant defensive backs coach and earned two Super Bowl rings while helping guide a unit that consistently ranked as one of the league's best. The team won more games from 1996-98 (46) than any club during that three-year period.

Smith joined the Broncos on April 3, 1996, following a two-year stint as defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Purdue University. He spent a short time at TCU prior to joining the Broncos.

A 1992 graduate of Purdue, Smith began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Boilermakers, serving as the school's assistant strength and conditioning coordinator. After serving as the team's graduate assistant tight ends coach for one season, Smith was hired as the secondary coach, becoming the youngest full-time position coach in the Big Ten Conference at the time at the age of 24. In 2012, Smith was honored by his alma mater with the Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Smith started at strong safety and was a defensive captain for Purdue as a senior in 1991. A native of Petersburg, Va., he attended Meadowdale High School in Dayton, Ohio. Smith also is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Smith supports several schools in the community, including the Awty International School and The Regis School of the Sacred Heart. He also serves on the Board of Directors for Pro-Vision Academy, a charter school that provides young people in the greater Houston area with academic, social and economic opportunities in hopes of inspiring purpose and optimism. He and his wife, Tiffany, co-chaired the charter school's first Cornerstone Luncheon in May 2014, helping raise more than $300,000. The Smith Family also gives time and resources to many other local charities throughout Houston, including the Linda Lorelle Scholarship Fund, Susie Bean Gives, the United Way and the Children's Museum of Houston.

Rick and Tiffany Smith live in Houston with their sons, Robert LaMar and Christian LaMar, and daughter, Avery Jordan.

JAMEY ROOTES

PRESIDENT

Jamey Rootes serves as President of the Houston Texans and is responsible for all business functions of the club. Rootes was selected as Houston Business Journal's Business Person of the Year in 2016 after serving as the Chairman of the Greater Houston Partnership, deputy chairman for two public boards for the Super Bowl Host Committee and elevating Houston's visibility on an international scale. He was instrumental in bringing one of the largest soccer tournaments, Copa America, to Houston as well as bringing Monday Night Football to Mexico for the first time in NFL history, when the Houston Texans played the Oakland Raiders on November 21.

Under Rootes' leadership, the Texans have earned many distinctions, including numerous "Crystal Awards" for marketing excellence. J.D. Power & Associates recognized the team for providing the best fan experience in the NFL and even featured the Texans as a service success story in their book entitled "Satisfaction." The Texans were also recognized with SportsBusiness Journal's PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major professional sports team based on business excellence criteria. In 2016, the Texans extended their sell-out streak to 154 consecutive home games, a Houston NFL record and a testament to the quality of service and entertainment provided by the organization on game day. As a result, the Texans have consistently been recognized as one of the most valuable professional sports franchises both in the NFL and globally, as measured by a variety of business publications. In 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Texans were recognized by the Houston Chronicle as one of "Houston's Top Workplaces".

Rootes was selected twice by SportsBusiness Journal as a member of its distinguished "Forty Under 40" list of leading sports executives. In 2014, Rootes was named a finalist for Executive of the Year by the Stadium Business Awards. Rootes maintains an active role in the community by serving on a number of boards, including the Greater Houston Partnership and the United Way. He also oversees the activities of the Houston Texans Foundation, which donated over $1.6 million in 2016 to benefit youth and families in the Houston area. Since inception, the Texans have helped raise well over $27 million through annual fundraising events, disaster response programs, the team's United Way campaign and partnerships with nonprofit organizations on game day.

Prior to joining the Texans, Rootes helped to launch Major League Soccer as President and General Manager of the Columbus Crew. During his tenure, the Crew was consistently among the league's strongest teams both on and off the field, and Rootes was recognized as Executive of the Year in 1996 and Marketing Executive of the Year in 1999. Rootes helped lead the construction of Crew Stadium in 1999, which was the first stadium of its type in the United States. This facility earned distinction as America's Foremost Sports Facility of the Year and led to the development of numerous soccer-specific stadiums across the United States over the past decade, including BBVA Compass Stadium in Houston.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Rootes graduated Cum Laude from Clemson University's Calhoun Honors College. While attending Clemson, Rootes was a member of the Tigers' soccer team that captured two NCAA titles and he served as Student Body President. While earning a Master's of Business Administration (MBA) with honors at Indiana University, he served as an assistant soccer coach for the Hoosiers. Rootes previously held positions at IBM and Procter & Gamble before entering sports. He lives in West University with his wife, Melissa, and their children, Chris and Caroline.

SUZIE THOMAS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL COUNSEL AND CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Suzie Thomas joined the Houston Texans and The McNair Group in March 2000. She oversees the legal functions for the Houston Texans and the human resources and business administration functions for both groups. She also holds positions with various other entities in The McNair Group.

Thomas previously served as General Counsel and Vice President of Human Resources of Corporate Brand Foods America, Inc., a meat processing business that was subsequently purchased by Tyson Foods. Prior to CBFA, Thomas spent 16 years at Weatherford International Inc., an international energy service and manufacturing company, including the last 12 years as senior vice president and general counsel. She started her legal career as an associate attorney at Baker Botts L.L.P. in Houston.

Thomas earned her law degree from the University of Houston's Bates College of Law and her undergraduate degree in Spanish from the University of Texas. She is a member of the State Bar of Texas and also serves on the Board of Directors of Child Advocates, Inc.

Thomas resides in Houston.

GREG GRISSOM

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Greg Grissom was named senior vice president of corporate development in April 2017, but has been a part of the team's business operations staff since its inaugural 2002 season. He joined the Texans as a corporate sales manager before being promoted to director of corporate development in 2006 and then senior director of corporate development in May 2011. He was named vice president of corporate development in April 2012.

Grissom oversees the Texans' corporate partnerships, sales of all related media properties, new suite sales and partnership marketing services. Since 2012, the Texans franchise has seen landmark expansion from HoustonTexans.com to Texans Radio and Texans TV digital platforms, creating a wealth of new opportunities for sponsors and fans of the team.

He has over two decades of experience in sports sponsorship sales, planning, execution and event marketing. Before joining the Texans, Grissom worked for Enron Corp. as a sports marketing specialist and spent more than four years with the Houston Astros as an account services manager and later as the club's promotions coordinator.

Grissom represents the Texans on the Board of Directors of the Houston Food Bank. A native of Austin, he attended Baylor University. He lives in Houston with his wife, Jamie, their daughter, Campbell, and son, Sam.

JOHN SCHRIEVER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, TICKETING AND EVENT SERVICES

John Schriever is in his 18th year with the Texans and his 33rd in the professional sports industry. Schriever has been part of the sales and service of more than 42 million tickets to sporting events during his career. He started with the Texans in July 2000 as director of ticket operations and was promoted to vice president, ticketing and event management in July 2003, and senior vice president, ticketing and event services in June 2011. Schriever oversees all aspects of ticketing and event services for the Texans and Lone Star Sports and Entertainment.

Schriever began his sports business career with the Texas Rangers Baseball Club in 1984 as a season ticket sales intern. He became a full-time staff member in the spring of 1985 and was promoted to director of ticket operations prior to the 1989 season. The Rangers underwent a variety of changes during Schriever's 12-year tenure with the franchise: the team was purchased by an ownership group headed by George W. Bush, acquired pitcher Nolan Ryan, closed Arlington Stadium, opened The Ballpark in Arlington and hosted the 1995 Major League Baseball All-Star Game.

During the summer of 1996, Schriever worked with the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games at the Summer Olympics. He worked in ticketing as a customer service manager at Fulton County Stadium and Olympic Stadium.

Following the Olympic Games, Schriever joined Texas Motor Speedway in Ft. Worth as director of tickets. He was part of the management staff that opened the Speedway in the spring of 1997 to a debut crowd of more than 200,000 for its inaugural Winston Cup race.

Schriever is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University, where he earned a degree in business management. He and his wife, Dana, have two children, Nicholas, who attends Texas State University, and Sarah, who attends Texas A&M University.

SCOTT SCHWINGER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER AND TREASURER

Scott Schwinger serves as senior vice president, chief financial officer and treasurer for the Houston Texans and The McNair Group.

For the past 23 years, Schwinger has held positions with various companies owned, directly or indirectly, by Robert C. McNair, including President of Palmetto Partners Ltd., RCM Financial Services, L.P. and Vice President of Cogen Technologies. In April 2010, he was named the CEO of the McNair Group. In his role, he oversees the investment and management activities of companies for The McNair Group which include portfolios of public and private equities and certain operating companies.

Schwinger is responsible for the management of all McNair Group companies. His duties include investment management, deal structuring, financial reporting, budgeting, treasury, risk management, management information systems and all debt and equity financings. Specific areas of investment focus include real estate, energy, life science, financial services and technology.

He provided the financial analysis support to bring professional football to Houston beginning in 1998. Schwinger also served on the Houston Super Bowl XXXVIII Host Committee Inc. Since the awarding of the team in 1999, Schwinger has successfully coordinated and structured debt financings totaling $675 million, one of the largest and most successful series of financings to date for a professional sports team.

Schwinger earned a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics from Vanderbilt University and a Master's of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Austin. In the community, he serves on the boards of the Make-A-Wish Foundation and The Endowment Fund. He also is a member of the Young Presidents Organization. He and his wife, Becca, both native Houstonians, are the parents of sons, Corbin and Charley, and daughter, Cara.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

EMMETT BAYLOR III

VICE PRESIDENT, SECURITY

Emmett Baylor III is in his sixth season with the Houston Texans and first as the team's vice president of security. Baylor is responsible for directing and overseeing all security matters throughout the organization with an emphasis on football operations front office staff, players and personnel.

Baylor joined the Texans in 2012 after serving 10 years with the Federal Air Marshal Service. He was assigned to the Detroit Field Office, serving as a Federal Air Marshal, Acting Supervisory Federal Air Marshal, and back-up supervisor. Baylor was promoted to Supervisory Federal Air Marshal in October 2004 and held the positions of Squad Supervisory Federal Air Marshal, Administrative Supervisory Federal Air Marshal, Airport Supervisory Federal Air Marshal and Recruiting Supervisory Federal Air Marshal. In February 2006, Baylor served as the TSA Event Manager for Super Bowl XL in Detroit. He was promoted to Assistant Supervisory Air Marshal in Charge (ASAC) in March 2007.

Assigned to the Houston Field Office, he oversaw the management of the Operations Section, the Training Section, the Airport Liaison Section, the Administrative Section, the Visible Intermodal Protection and Response (VIPR) Teams and seven Federal Air Marshal Squads.

Prior to joining the Federal Air Marshal Service, Baylor began his professional career with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF). He accepted an appointment as a Special Agent in 1987 and conducted criminal and background investigations, undercover assignments and participated in surveillance operations. During his tenure with ATF, Baylor was a member of the Special Response Team, which conducted high-risk operations such as search and arrest warrants. Baylor also served as a recruiter for ATF.

After serving six years with ATF, Baylor was appointed to the position of Second Deputy Chief with the Detroit Police Department, serving as the commanding officer of the Community Policing Division. He was responsible for the operations of the Police Athletic League, the Police Reserves, the Chaplain Corps, the Crime Prevention Section, the Junior Police Cadets and the Mini-station Administration. Additionally, he was the grant administrator for the Department's federally funded community policing programs. He remained with the Detroit Police Department until July 1997.

In October 1997, Baylor began working in the private sector with Pinkerton Security (now Securitas). He worked in a number of Security Specialist positions with increasing responsibility for the security and fire operations at General Motors assembly plants and office complexes. The last two years of his tenure with Pinkerton were spent as an Executive Protection Specialist, providing personal protection for GM executives while traveling or attending public functions. Additionally, Baylor conducted electronic countermeasure surveillance at board meetings and other meetings where proprietary information was being discussed.

Baylor holds a Bachelor of Criminal Justice degree from Florida A&M University, is a graduate of Northwestern University's School of Police Staff and Command and has successfully completed the TSA Senior Leadership Development Program.

He currently resides in Manvel, Texas with his wife, Lynn, and son, Emmett IV.

JENNIFER DABKOWSKI

VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Jennifer Davenport Dabkowski joined the Houston Texans in December 2010. As vice president of marketing and community development, Dabkowski administers and monitors usage of the Texans brand and all related advertising, creative and design work. She also oversees all gameday entertainment, community development, the Houston Texans Foundation, youth football initiatives, targeted fan development, merchandise sales and regional brand growth, including broadcast partnerships.

Since joining the Texans, Dabkowski has helped the organization earn such prestigious awards as the AMA Crystal Award for Best Special Event Marketing (2016), AMA Crystal Award for Best Social Responsibility Campaign (2015), AMA Houston Marketer of the Year (2014) and more.

Dabkowski came to the Texans from the NBA's Houston Rockets and Toyota Center, where she served as marketing manager from May 2006 to November 2010. With the Rockets, Dabkowski oversaw advertising, grassroots promotions, fan development and non-sports publicity, as well as all aspects of marketing for third party events and concerts at Toyota Center. Prior to her time with the Rockets, Dabkowski was the marketing director for 96.7 KISS FM (KHFI) and AM 1300 The Zone (KVET AM) at Clear Channel Radio in Austin, Texas.

Dabkowski is a member of the YMCA of Greater Houston Board of Directors, a graduate of the Center for Houston's Future Leadership Forum, a member of the Discovery Green Conservancy Marketing Committee and a founding board member of Houston's Women In Sports and Events (WISE) chapter. She also was a lead executive for the Super Bowl LI Host Committee and was named to the Houston Business Journal's "40 Under 40" in 2017.

A native of Crosby, Texas, Dabkowski graduated from Stephen F. Austin State University. She resides in Houston with her husband, John.

GREG KONDRITZ

VICE PRESIDENT AND ASSOCIATE GENERAL COUNSEL

Greg Kondritz enters his 14th season with the Houston Texans and first as vice president and associate general counsel. Kondritz advises the organization on a wide variety of legal matters, including sponsorship agreements, digital media contracts, employment agreements, trademark matters and compliance with NFL rules and regulations.

Prior to joining the Texans in June 2004, Kondritz practiced corporate and securities law for Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. in Houston, where he was a senior associate in the Corporate, Banking & Business section.

Kondritz attended the NFL's management program at the Stanford University Graduate School of Business in June 2006. He also served as an adjunct professor of Sports Law at Houston Baptist University and a guest lecturer at a sports law program in Madrid, Spain.

Kondritz earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Murray State University in 1996 and a law degree from Vanderbilt University School of Law in 1999. Kondritz also served as a notes editor on the Vanderbilt Law Review.

Originally from West Frankfort, Ill., Kondritz and his wife, Alison, live in Houston with their three kids: Jack, Katie Grace and Rowan.

MARILAN LOGAN

VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF ACCOUNTING OFFICER

Marilan Logan is in her 18th year with the Houston Texans and serves as the franchise's vice president and chief accounting officer, managing all aspects of financial matters for the Texans and Lone Star Sports & Entertainment organizations. Logan joined the Texans as the team's controller in February 2000 and was promoted to vice president and controller in April 2007 before assuming her current position in September 2011.

Logan came to the Texans after serving as controller/treasurer for the Houston Aeros Hockey Club, Aerodromes Ice Rinks and the Houston Aeros Foundation for two seasons.

Prior to joining the Houston Aeros, Logan was the controller for the Houston Oilers (now Tennessee Titans) from 1978-97. Her responsibilities included accounting for player contracts, maintaining the club's financial records and aiding club management with special projects. Prior to the Oilers, she was a cost accounting specialist for Reed Tool Company.

Marilan and her husband, Rick, have a daughter, Sandy; two sons, Jeff and Roy; and two grandsons, Kyle and Todd. The couple resides in Humble.

CHRIS OLSEN

VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Chris Olsen is in his 11th season with the Texans and eighth as the team's vice president of football administration. Olsen's primary responsibility with the Texans is to work closely with Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Rick Smith on negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap.

Prior to joining the Texans' staff, Olsen spent 13 years working at the National Football League office in New York. Olsen served as the Manager of Labor Operations with the NFL Management Council from 1999-2006. He was responsible for reviewing and analyzing player contracts to ensure teams were in compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and salary cap, and provided assistance to club executives pertaining to player-related areas of the CBA. He also served as a League liaison to the NFL Players Association regarding player contract matters, while working as a national game representative and instant replay communicator.

Olsen began his tenure with the NFL in 1994 as an analyst in the player personnel department. He was promoted to coordinator in 1998 and became responsible for all facets of the player petition process on special eligibility for the NFL Draft (underclassman prospects), including coordinating player evaluations for the College Advisory Committee. He produced annual reports for the Competition Committee and reviewed player contracts to ensure their compliance with the NFL's Constitution and Bylaws.

Olsen began working in professional sports during his senior year in college with the Springfield Indians Hockey Club of the AHL in 1989-90, where he served as a public relations/marketing intern. After spending a brief time working for Ark-Asset Management Company, a financial services firm in New York City, he continued his sports career in 1992 while in graduate school by serving as a public relations/marketing intern for the Hartford Whalers of the NHL. Prior to joining the NFL, he worked for the New Jersey State Golf Association.

Olsen is a native of Little Silver, N.J. He earned his degree in business administration from Western New England University in 1990 and earned a master's degree in sports management from Springfield College in 1997. Olsen and his wife, Kim, reside in Houston.

JIMMY RAYE III

VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL / ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Jimmy Raye III joined the Houston Texans as vice president of player personnel/assistant general manager in 2017. This will be his 23rd season in the NFL.

Most recently, Raye spent the last four years (2013-16) as the vice president of football operations for the Indianapolis Colts. In his role, he oversaw many administrative aspects of the Colts organization in addition to assisting with daily matters regarding the roster and salary cap. Raye contributed extensively in all areas of talent acquisition, including free agency and preparation for the NFL Combine and NFL Draft. Raye also played a vital role in shaping the Colts' college free agent process, which produced 14 undrafted free agents who played in at least one regular season game in their rookie season.

Prior to Indianapolis, Raye spent 17 seasons with the San Diego Chargers. He served as director of player personnel from 2008-12, where he oversaw the team's professional and college scouting departments and assisted on player personnel matters. Raye joined the Chargers in 1996 and spent four seasons (1996-99) as a scout before being elevated to the team's director of college scouting, a position he held for eight years (2000-07).

During Raye's tenure with the Chargers, the team compiled six winning seasons and five AFC West division titles. San Diego posted four straight division crowns from 2006-09, which included a 14-2 campaign in 2006, marking the most wins for the team in a single season in franchise history. That season, the Chargers also led the league in Pro Bowl selections with 11. Raye played an instrumental role in the draft selections of Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson (2001), the Chargers all-time leading rusher (12,490 yards), as well as quarterback Drew Brees (2001), cornerback Quentin Jammer (2002), wide receiver Vincent Jackson (2005) and running back Darren Sproles (2005). He was also part of a staff that signed undrafted free agent Antonio Gates, the team's all-time leading receiver (10,644 yards), in 2003.

Raye's NFL coaching career started with the Kansas City Chiefs as the team's offensive quality control coach in 1995. Prior to his time in the NFL, he spent the 1994 season as a wide receivers coach at his alma mater, Irvine (Calif.) High School and worked for the Amsterdam Admirals of the World League in April of 1995.

A former wide receiver at San Diego State (1986-1990), Raye earned a degree in public administration. He left the university tied for eighth on the school's all-time receiving list with 111 catches. In 1991, Raye signed with the Los Angeles Rams and spent the entire campaign on the team's roster. He then went on to training camps with the Chargers (1992) and Houston Oilers (1993).

Raye was honored with the Fritz Pollard Alliance "Salute to Excellence" Award in back-to-back years (2014-15), recognizing those who display outstanding performance through the year on the field and in the front office of the National Football League. He also attended the 2003 NFL Stanford Executive Education program in its inaugural year at Stanford Business School and again in 2013 at the NFL Career Symposium at University of Pennsylvania Wharton Business School. In June of 2016, Raye was invited to attend the NFL's inaugural General Managers' Workshop at the league office.

Born in Fayetteville, N.C., Raye's family moved to Irvine, Calif. where he became an all-league quarterback and defensive back at Irvine High School. He also played basketball and ran track. Raye's father, Jimmy Raye II, played for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1969 and currently works as a senior advisor to Troy Vincent, the NFL's executive vice president of football operations.

JEFF SCHMITZ

VICE PRESIDENT, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Jeff Schmitz is entering his 16th season with the Texans. Schmitz was promoted to vice president of information technology in 2013 after serving as senior director and director of information technology from 2008-12.

Schmitz, who joined The McNair Group in March 1997, held positions in the treasury and accounting departments before moving into the IT department as manager of information technology in 2001.

Schmitz is responsible for leading all facets of technology for the Houston Texans and The McNair Group, including infrastructure, information systems, development, information security and support. During his tenure, Schmitz led teams responsible for stadium infrastructure design, data center design, voice and data service, unified communication, information security, compliance and software implementations.

Schmitz earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting from Pittsburg State University in Kansas. He lives in Missouri City with his wife, Leslie, and their daughters, Courtney and Hannah.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

MARC VANDERMEER

VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING & PLAY-BY-PLAY VOICE

Marc Vandermeer has been a team fixture since it began play in 2002, calling every snap the Houston Texans have ever taken as the team's play-by-play announcer. Vandermeer officially joined the Texans as the director of radio broadcasting in June 2012 and was promoted to senior director of broadcasting in June 2013 before being named vice president of broadcasting in 2016.

In his role, Vandermeer serves as the "Voice of the Texans" and oversees the programs and content on HoustonTexans.com, Texans Radio on the flagship station KILT SportsRadio 610 AM and Texans television programming on ABC-13/KTRK and Fox Sports Southwest. Since the Texans began play, Vandermeer is the only current team employee to attend every single game in franchise history. Vandermeer was also co-host of the morning drive show for SportsRadio 610 until May 2012.

Vandermeer came to the Texans following a successful three-year run as the play-by-play voice for the Miami Hurricanes on 560 WQAM. He called the action for the Hurricanes' football and baseball national championship teams in 2001, hosted the athletic program's weekly show, Hurricane Hotline and filled in on the WQAM Morning Show.

From 1995-99, Vandermeer was the play-by-play voice for the UMass Minutemen and served as the UMass Radio Network Director for WHMP AM/FM. He was promoted to station manager his final year with WHMP.

Vandermeer has called NCAA Basketball Tournament games for Westwood One Radio and was the play-by-play voice for Central Michigan University from 1992-95. He also serves on the Junior Achievement Board of Directors.

The Boston University alumnus and his wife, Corinne, have two sons, 11-year old Luke, and Liam, who was born in January of 2013.

GREG WATSON

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Greg Watson joined The McNair Group and the Houston Texans in November 1999 after working as an international finance associate in the energy industry. In his current position as vice president of finance, Watson is involved in all aspects of the team's debt and equity financing activities, long-range financial forecasting and special project analyses.

His other responsibilities include all aspects of deal execution for The McNair Group private equity investments.

Watson earned his Bachelor of Arts in political science from Vanderbilt University and his MBA with a focus on finance and entrepreneurship from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Cathy, both native Houstonians, live in Houston with their children, Claire, William and Gardner.

DOUG WEST

VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Doug West is in his 22nd season in the NFL and his 11th with the Texans. West was named vice president of football operations in April 2014.

West, who previously served as director of football operations starting in September 2010, oversees team travel, training camp and gameday operations, which include all aspects dealing directly on the field with the game, Texans and the visiting team.

On gameday, West is responsible for overseeing sideline communication equipment as well as instant replay equipment. He serves as the team liaison with the NFL, the officials and the visiting team. He also handles catering in all Texans areas.

West oversees the team practice facility and Texans areas in NRG Stadium, including scheduling, cleaning and upkeep. He is responsible for maintaining the day-to-day football operations budget as well as planning for future large expenditures and projects.

West joined the Texans as football operations manager in August 2007, overseeing team travel planning and lodging throughout the year. Prior to joining the Texans, West worked with Reebok as an NFL glove and footwear specialist, beginning in 2004. From 1993-2003, West was the head equipment manager for the Denver Broncos, where he worked with Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Rick Smith.

West was the head equipment manager from 1988-90 at the University of Northern Colorado before taking on the same role for the Birmingham Fire of the World League of American Football from 1991-92 under Head Coach Chan Gailey.

West earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences from Colorado State in 1988, where he was a student equipment manager for the football team for three years. He has three sons, Gunnar, Griffin and Graham, and a stepdaughter, Grace. He and his wife, Stacy, reside in Houston.

BILL O'BRIEN

HEAD COACH

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 9TH NFL SEASON

and NFL coaching experience.

In his first three years (2014-16), O'Brien led the Texans to three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history and back-to-back AFC South division championships. He is just the 14th coach since 1978 to begin his NFL head coaching career with three consecutive winning seasons and his 28 career victories are the most by any head coach in franchise history through their first three years.

In 2016, Houston defeated the Oakland Raiders in the AFC Wild Card Round and advanced to the Divisional Round for the first time since 2012. The Texans finished the season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. The team also posted a 7-1 record at home during the regular season, which set a single-season franchise record and tied for the best home record in the NFL.

DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney earned Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career, posting personal bests in tackles (52), sacks (6.0), tackles for loss (16), quarterback hits (17) and games played/started (14). ILB Benardrick McKinney led the Texans and finished 11th in the NFL (sixth in the AFC) with a single-season career-high 129 tackles and 5.0 sacks.

On offense, the Texans finished with the eighth-most rushing yards in the NFL in 2016, averaging 116.2 per game. RB Lamar Miller became the fourth player in franchise history with 1,000 yards rushing in a season. As a team over the last three seasons, Houston ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in rushing yards. Additionally in 2016, the tight end group of C.J. Fiedorowicz, Ryan Griffin and Stephen Anderson posted the most receptions (115) and receiving yards (1,094) in a single season in franchise history.

Houston recorded a 5-1 record against AFC South opponents in

Bill O'Brien's 28 career victories are the most by any coach in franchise history through their first three years.

2016, which tied the best single-season winning percentage against the division in team history, and have 14 wins against their division since 2014, which is tied with the Kansas City Chiefs for the most in the NFL over that span. Under O'Brien (2014-17), the Texans are 18-0 when leading at halftime of a regular season game and the only team in the NFL that has not given up a halftime lead since 2014. The Texans also finished the regular season with only

87 penalties accepted against them, which was the lowest total in the NFL.

In 2015, Houston became the first NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning a game during the regular season when they won the AFC South division championship for the first time since 2012.

WR DeAndre Hopkins became the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 200 receptions and 3,000 receiving yards for his career in 2015. That year, he earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl after posting career highs with 111 receptions for 1,521 yards and a franchise-record 11 receiving touchdowns. His receiving totals ranked among the best in the NFL, as he finished third in catches and yards and tied for seventh in touchdowns.

On the ground, the Texans averaged 108.2 rushing yards per game for the season and 135.1 yards over the final seven weeks of 2015. After RB Arian Foster was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 27, RB Alfred Blue stepped in to lead the team with a career-high 698 rushing yards, including three 100-yard games.

The Texans also received strong contributions from their defense in 2015, as they finished third in the NFL in total yards (310.2) and passing yards (210.4) allowed per game, fifth in opponent completion percentage (59.0) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). Houston set franchise single-season records for sacks (45) and opponent third-down percentage (28.5), which also was the lowest mark by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7). DE J.J. Watt won his third Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year award after leading the league with 17.5 sacks, 50 quarterback hits and 29 tackles for loss.

In 2014, O'Brien's first year as the franchise's head coach, Houston's seven-win improvement from 2013 led the NFL and made the Texans the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two or less games. The Texans just missed the playoffs as the last team out in the AFC and O'Brien finished second in NFL AP Coach of the Year voting to Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Bruce Arians.

O'Brien earned his first victory as head coach of the Texans with a 17-6 season-opening win against Washington at NRG Stadium, ending Houston's 14-game losing streak in the process. Following a Week 10 bye, Houston went 5-2 with three different starting quarterbacks leading the Texans to wins down the stretch. The Texans also led the NFL in takeaways with a franchise-record 34 and became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways after finishing last the year before.

On offense, the Texans ran the ball a league-high 51.9 percent of the time and posted an AFC-best eight individual 100-yard rushing performances in 2014. Houston's 135.1 yards rushing per game ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest mark in franchise history. Foster, who earned his fourth Pro Bowl honor, eclipsed the 100-yard mark in seven of the 13 games he played in as he rushed for 1,246 yards and scored 13 total touchdowns.

Due to injuries, quarterbacks Ryan Fitzpatrick, Ryan Mallett and Case Keenum each started at least two games under center for the Texans and combined to lead the team to wins in five of the last seven games. Hopkins had a breakout season, setting then-career highs with 76 receptions for 1,210 yards and six touchdowns.

Prior to joining the Texans, the Brown University alum took on one of the tallest tasks in college football history when he was named head coach at Penn State on Jan. 6, 2012. He spent two years leading the program through one of the greatest periods of strife any major college has endured, garnering national and conference coach-of-the-year awards in the process. In addition to replacing Joe Paterno, the all-time winningest head coach in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision history, O'Brien had to guide PSU through heavy scholarship reductions, a four-year postseason ban, an open transfer policy and the public aftermath of a devastating scandal that threatened the football program's storied existence.

Although odds of success were low, Penn State won eight of its final 10 games to finish the 2012 season with an 8-4 record. O'Brien, who also served as offensive coordinator for the Nittany Lions, was named the Bear Bryant, Maxwell Football Club and ESPN National Coach of the Year after winning more games than any other first-year head coach in the program's previous 125 seasons. He was also named the Big Ten Conference's Dave McClain Coach of the Year by media and the Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year by coaches.

O'Brien directed a fast-paced unit in 2012 that averaged 437.0 yards per game in conference play to lead the Big Ten. His offense also produced the conference's top rusher (Zach Zwinak), receiver (Allen Robinson) and passer (Matt McGloin). The Nittany Lions were 7-5 in 2013 and had upset wins against 18th-ranked Michigan and 14th-ranked Wisconsin.

A member of the Patriots' coaching staff from 2007-11, O'Brien helped lead the team to a pair of Super Bowl berths. He rose from offensive assistant to wide receivers coach in 2008 and then quarterbacks coach from 2009-10 prior to being named offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2011. The Patriots earned the top seed in the AFC with a 13-3 record and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI with O'Brien coordinating the offense in 2011. New England led the AFC in scoring with 32.1 points per game, and was second in the NFL in total offense (428.0 yards per game) and passing (317.8). QB Tom Brady threw for a career-high 5,235 yards (second in NFL) and 39 touchdowns. WR Wes Welker, who is currently on staff with the Texans, led the NFL with 122 receptions and set a career high with 1,569 yards. TE Rob Gronkowski, who set career bests with 90 receptions for 1,327 yards, led the NFL with 17 touchdown receptions, a record for an NFL tight end.

In O'Brien's second season as quarterbacks coach with the Patriots in 2010, Brady was selected as the first unanimous AP NFL MVP after leading the team to an NFL-best 14-2 mark. While O'Brien was his position coach from 2009-11, Brady led the AFC in attempts (1,668), completions (1,096), touchdown passes (103), interception percentage (1.7) and passer rating (104.0) and ranked second in the conference in passing yards (13,533).

O'Brien began his coaching career at Brown in 1993 as a tight ends coach before serving as inside linebackers coach in 1994. He joined George O'Leary's Georgia Tech staff in 1995 as a graduate assistant, helping the Yellow Jackets to bowl appearances in each of his last six seasons. O'Brien coached running backs from 1998-2000 before being promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2001 and assistant head coach in 2002.

O'Brien joined Ralph Friedgen's staff at Maryland in 2003 as running backs coach. Following two years in College Park, O'Brien served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Duke from 2005-06.

Born in Dorchester, Mass., O'Brien grew up in Andover and graduated from St. John's Preparatory School in Danvers. O'Brien went on to play linebacker and defensive end at Brown from 1990-92. He graduated with a double concentration in political science and organizational behavioral management in 1992.

O'Brien and his wife, Colleen, have two sons: Jack, 15, and Michael, 12.

ROMEO CRENNEL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / DEFENSE

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 35TH NFL SEASON

Romeo Crennel takes over as assistant head coach/defense for the Houston Texans in 2017. It is his fourth overall season with the team after spending the first three as defensive coordinator.

The 2017 season will be Crennel's 35th year coaching in the NFL. He has been part of 15 playoff appearances with 11 division crowns, six conference titles and has won five of the six Super Bowls he has appeared in (New York Giants – XXI and XXV, New England Patriots – XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX).

From 2014-16, Crennel's defense ranked third in the NFL in net yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards allowed per game (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6%), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8).

The Texans are coming off back-to-back AFC South division championships and have put together three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Houston's 7-1 record at home and 5-1 record in the division in 2016 both tied franchise records. The team also advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012.

The Texans finished last season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. They also gave up the fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards (201.6) per game. From Weeks 8-17, Houston allowed an average of 71.9 net rushing yards per game and opponents only scored three rushing touchdowns during that span, both of which led the league. Houston also was the only team in the NFL to not allow a 300-yard passer in 2016 and has given up just one 300-yard passer in the last 32 regular season games.

Crennel and the Texans defense accomplished all these accolades despite losing DE J.J. Watt and CB Kevin Johnson to injured reserve and starting 20 different players on defense, which tied for the fourth-most in franchise history. The team also used 15 different starting lineup combinations on defense, which tied for the second-most in the league.

DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney earned Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after posting personal bests in tackles (52), sacks (6.0), tackles for loss (16), quarterback hits (17) and games played/started (14). OLB Whitney Mercilus led the team in sacks for the first time in his career with 7.5 quarterback takedowns and tied for the NFL lead with four defensive fumble recoveries. ILB Benardrick McKinney led the team with a career-high 129 tackles and became the second player in franchise history with over 100 tackles and 5.0 sacks in a season. S Quintin Demps led all NFL safeties in 2016 with a career-high six interceptions, which also tied for the second-most in a single season in Texans history.

In 2015, Houston finished third in the league in net yards (310.2) and net passing yards allowed per game (210.4), fifth in opponent completion percentage (59.0) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). Houston, which won its first AFC South division championship since 2012, also set franchise single-season records for sacks (45) and third-down percentage (28.5). That percentage led the NFL in 2015 and was the lowest single-season mark by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

The Texans allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six games). On the season, the Texans did not allow the opposing team to score a touchdown in four of their games.

DE J.J. Watt became the second player in NFL history to win Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year in back-to-back years under Crennel in 2015, to go along with being named to the Pro Bowl, AP NFL All-Pro First Team and PFWA All-NFL team. Watt led the NFL in sacks (17.5), tackles for loss (29) and quarterback hits (50) for the second straight year. Watt and Mercilus (12.0 sacks) combined for the most sacks by any pair of teammates in franchise history (29.5).

Texans ILB Brian Cushing enjoyed one of the best years of his career in 2015, totaling 110 tackles, while CB Johnathan Joseph set a career high with 22 passes defended. The Texans defense also got major contributions from their rookie class with CB Kevin Johnson (nine passes defended) and ILB Benardrick McKinney (58 tackles) playing key roles under Crennel in their first year in the league.

In 2014, the Texans defense made huge improvements and set multiple franchise records. The team posted a 4-1 record after Thanksgiving, leading the league in opponent completion percentage (49.2), third-down defense (22.6 percent) and rushing touchdowns allowed (0), while yielding just 260.1 net yards and 16.2 points per game.

For the season, Houston became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways, with a franchise-record 34, after finishing last the previous season (11 in 2013). The Texans also set a franchise record for points off turnovers and had 11 players record interceptions. They led the NFL with 35 points scored against opposing offenses and set a team record with five defensive touchdowns.

Watt had one of the best seasons ever for a defensive player in 2014 and became the most decorated player in franchise history, earning All-Pro, Pro Bowl and numerous player of the year honors, including the distinction of being the first-ever unanimous selection as NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Watt recorded five total touchdowns (three on offense), six takeaways, 20.5 sacks, a safety and league bests of 51 quarterback hits and 29 tackles for loss.

Crennel came to Houston following a three-year stint with the Kansas City Chiefs (2010-12) where he served as defensive coordinator (2010-11), interim head coach (2011) and head coach (2012). In that time, his defense ranked 12th in the NFL (340.0 net yards per game) and sixth in pass defense (214.0 net yards per game). Under Crennel's guidance in 2012, the Chiefs sent six players to the Pro Bowl, with four of them on the defensive side of the ball. The Chiefs' six Pro Bowlers were the most the team had sent to the annual all-star game since the 2005 season and the four defensive players were the most making the trip since the 1995 season.

Prior to Kansas City, Crennel spent four seasons as head coach of the Cleveland Browns (2005-08) in his second turn with the organization. In 2007, he led Cleveland to a 10-6 record, the club's best mark since finishing 11-5 in 1994. The Browns won a franchise-record seven consecutive home games in 2007 as six players were selected to the Pro Bowl.

From 2001-04, Crennel served as defensive coordinator with the New England Patriots, where he helped the team win three Super Bowl titles. This was his second go-around with the organization and, during his four seasons in New England, the Patriots registered a 48-16 (.750) regular season record and a 9-0 postseason mark. The Patriots compiled 89 interceptions during his tenure, the second-highest total over that span behind only Tampa Bay (95). Crennel's defensive unit also returned an NFL-high 14 interceptions for touchdowns from 2001-04.

In 2004, the Patriots defense tied for second in the NFL, allowing only 16.3 points per game en route to their Super Bowl XXXIX victory over Philadelphia.

Crennel was named the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America following the 2003 season. He led a Patriots defensive unit that allowed a league-low 14.9 points per game, the best single-season mark in team history. New England led the NFL with 29 interceptions and six defensive touchdowns in the regular season and went on to defeat Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

The Patriots ranked sixth in the NFL in 2001, surrendering just 17.0 points per game. Despite St. Louis averaging an NFL-high 31.4 points per game in 2001, Crennel's unit limited the Rams to just 17 points in New England's Super Bowl XXXVI victory.

Prior to a one-year stint as Cleveland's defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in 2000, Crennel spent three seasons as the defensive line coach with the New York Jets (1997-99). The defense never allowed more than 20.0 points per game in any of his three seasons with the team. The Jets ranked second in the NFL in points allowed per game in 1998, as New York advanced to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since 1982.

Before joining the Jets, Crennel served as the defensive line coach for four campaigns in New England (1993-96), helping propel the club to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI.

Crennel began his NFL coaching career with a 12-year stint with the New York Giants (1981-92), serving as the defensive line coach (1990-92), special teams coach (1983-89) and special teams/defensive assistant coach (1981-82). During his tenure with the Giants, the club qualified for the playoffs six times, claiming wins in Super Bowls XXI and XXV. While with the Giants, Crennel worked with multiple Super Bowl-winning head coaches in Bill Parcells, Bill Belichick and Tom Coughlin.

Crennel began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1970 at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, before enjoying a four-season stint (1971-74) as the school's defensive line coach. From there, Crennel began his longtime association with Parcells at Texas Tech (1975-77) where Parcells served as defensive coordinator. He also spent two years at Mississippi (1978-79) coaching the defensive ends. Crennel concluded his collegiate coaching career with a one-year stop at Georgia Tech (1980).

A four-year starter on the defensive line for Western Kentucky, Crennel was elected captain as a senior. A rash of injuries during his senior season forced him to switch to offensive tackle where he earned team MVP honors. He attended Fort Knox High School in Fort Knox, Ky., and Central High School in Amherst, Va. His brother, Carl, entered the NFL as a ninth-round draft choice (209th overall) of Pittsburgh in 1970, playing one season with the Steelers before enjoying an 11-year career in the Canadian Football League. Crennel and his wife Rosemary have three daughters, Lisa Tulley, Tiffany Strokes and Kristine Cullinane. The Crennels have eight grandchildren.

MIKE VRABEL

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 18TH NFL SEASON

Mike Vrabel takes over as defensive coordinator for the Houston Texans in 2017 after spending three seasons as the team's linebackers coach. He is in his 18th season in the NFL after a 14-year playing career.

From 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in net yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards allowed per game (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6 percent), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8).

The Texans are coming off back-to-back AFC South division championships and have put together three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Houston's 7-1 record at home and 5-1 record in the division in 2016 both tied franchise records. The team also advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012.

The Texans finished last season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. They also gave up the fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards (201.6) per game. From Weeks 8-17, Houston allowed an average of 71.9 net rushing yards per game and opponents only scored three rushing touchdowns during that span, both of which led the league.

DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney earned Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after posting personal bests in tackles (52), sacks (6.0), tackles for loss (16), quarterback hits (17) and games played/started (14). OLB Whitney Mercilus led the team in sacks for the first time in his career with 7.5 quarterback takedowns and tied for the NFL lead with four defensive fumble recoveries. ILB Benardrick McKinney led the team with a career-high 129 tackles and became the second player in franchise history with over 100 tackles and 5.0 sacks in a season.

In 2015, the Texans defense finished third in the NFL in net yards (310.2) and net passing yards (210.4) allowed per game and tied for seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). Houston, which won its first AFC South division championship since 2012, also set the franchise single-season (45) and single-game (8.0) records for sacks in 2015. The linebackers combined for 22.5 of the team's sacks.

The Texans finished first in the league in opponent third-down percentage (28.5), which was the lowest single-season mark in franchise history. It also was the lowest opponent third-down percentage by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

Under Mike Vrabel in 2015, Texans linebackers combined for 22.5 of the team's franchise-record 45 sacks.

Houston allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six games). On the season, the Texans didn't allow the opposing team to score a touchdown in four games.

Veteran ILB Brian Cushing led the position group and topped 100 tackles in a season for the third time in his career. His 110 total tackles in 2015 were the third-highest mark of his career and his highest since posting 114 stops in 2011. Mercilus enjoyed the best year of his career as he set personal highs in sacks (12.0), tackles (50), tackles for loss (14) and fumble recoveries (two).

In 2014, the Texans saw their linebackers make significant improvements under Vrabel. Cushing led the way with 72 tackles, nine quarterback hits, a sack and a forced fumble in 14 games played. Additionally, in his third year in the league, Mercilus recorded then-career highs of 50 tackles and nine tackles for loss, while tying a career-best with two forced fumbles.

Vrabel came to Houston from Ohio State, where he served as defensive line coach for the 2012-13 seasons after starting his coaching career as linebackers coach for the Buckeyes in 2011.

In 2012, Vrabel coached four Ohio State defensive linemen who were either drafted into the NFL or signed free agent contracts. That year, Vrabel was also named the ESPN.com Big Ten Recruiter of the Year.

The Akron, Ohio native embarked on what would become a distinguished NFL career with three teams following his Ohio State playing days. It was a professional career that saw him be a part of the New England Patriots' dynamic run of three Super Bowls in four years (2001, 2003 and 2004). In 2007, he was named to the Pro Bowl and a month later was named All-Pro.

On top of these accomplishments, Vrabel's professional career included 14 seasons and a total of 206 games (140 starts) played with Pittsburgh (1997-2000), New England (2001-08) and Kansas City (2009-10). He registered career totals of 722 tackles (496 solo), 57.0 sacks, 42 passes defended, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 12 touchdowns receiving (as a tight end), including two in Super Bowls.

Selected in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh, Vrabel spent four years with the Steelers, eight seasons with the Patriots and his last two years with Kansas City.

Vrabel graduated with a degree from Ohio State in exercise science and was a dominant performer for the Buckeyes, earning back-to-back All-American honors and twice being named Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year (1995 and 1996). He was the first to win the lineman award twice.

Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School in Akron, Ohio. He and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of two sons, Tyler and Carter.

LARRY IZZO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

2ND SEASON WITH TEXANS / 21ST NFL SEASON

Larry Izzo enters his second season as special teams coordinator for the Houston Texans. The 2017 season marks his seventh as a coach in the NFL after a 14-year playing career.

In Izzo's first season with Houston, the Texans won the AFC South division championship and advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012. Veteran K Nick Novak turned in the signature year of his career and one of the best seasons in franchise history. Novak tied for second in the NFL with 35 made field goals, which marked a career high and the most in a single season in Texans history. He connected on 16 consecutive field goals from Weeks 11-16, which tied for second in franchise history, and his 127 total points were the fourth-highest total in team history.

P Shane Lechler added to his storied career by posting the second-highest single-season gross punting average (47.5) in franchise history and finishing the regular season with just three touchbacks on punts – the lowest total of his 17-year career. Lechler was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his Week 8 performance against Detroit in which he averaged a season-high 49.5 yards per punt and pinned three inside the 20-yard line.

Rookie WR Will Fuller V also earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 4 after taking his first career punt return 67 yards for a touchdown that lifted the Texans to a 27-20 win over Tennessee. Fellow rookie RB Tyler Ervin, the primary kick and punt returner most of the season, finished third in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in punt return average (9.7) among qualified players.

Izzo joined the Texans after spending five seasons (2011-15) as the assistant special teams coach with the New York Giants, where he was a part of the team's Super Bowl XLVI victory. In 2015, the Giants finished second in the Dallas Morning News' annual comprehensive ranking of the league's special teams. The unit ranked fifth in opponent kickoff return average (20.3) and tied for first in field goal percentage (93.8).

In Larry Izzo's first season as special teams coordinator, rookie RB Tyler Ervin posted the third-best punt return average (9.7) in the AFC among qualified players.

New York also was seventh in the NFL in punt return average (10.2) and 10th in kickoff return average (24.9).

The Giants' kickoff team allowed an average return of just 18.3 yards in 2014, which ranked second in the NFL, and their opponents' drives following a kickoff started on average at the 20.9-yard line, which was eighth in the NFL.

In 2012, the special teams unit made significant contributions to the Giants' winning season and finished seventh in the Dallas Morning News' annual ranking. The Giants led the NFL with five special teams takeaways and their average drive start following a kickoff was at the 25.2-yard line, which led the NFL. The Giants also averaged 26.2 yards per kickoff return, which placed them seventh in the NFL.

In 2011, Izzo's first season with the Giants, he won his fourth Super Bowl ring and first as a coach. He also helped develop a group of rookies who quickly became outstanding special teams players, including Mark Herzlich, Spencer Paysinger, Tyler Sash and Jacquian Williams.

In his 14-year NFL career (1996-2009), Izzo played for three teams, the Miami Dolphins (1996-2000), New England Patriots (2001-08) and New York Jets (2009). He was a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England (2001, 2003 and 2004) and a three-time Pro Bowler (2000, 2002 and 2004). He also was credited with 275 special teams tackles in 200 regular season games and 23 more in 21 postseason games. Izzo never played on a team with a losing record and his teams participated in the playoffs nine times, reaching five AFC Championship Games and four Super Bowls. His teammates selected him as a special teams captain nine times, eight of which were with the Patriots.

Izzo, considered one of the best special teams players in NFL history, began his career in 1996 as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins. He made such a rapid and positive impact that in the preseason, Head Coach Jimmy Johnson said only two players were guaranteed to make the team – future Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino and Izzo.

In 1999, Izzo led the Dolphins with a career-high 33 special teams tackles and was elected special teams captain. In 2000, his final season in Miami, Izzo earned his first Pro Bowl selection after finishing with a team-high 31 special teams tackles.

In his first season with the Patriots in 2001, Izzo was voted special teams captain for the first of eight consecutive seasons. He led the unit with 22 tackles and helped New England defeat St. Louis in Super Bowl XXXVI. Izzo led New England with 31 and 28 special teams tackles, respectively, to help the Patriots win two more Super Bowls. Izzo missed only one game from 2000-08 and is a member of the Patriots' All-2000's team.

Izzo, who is from Fort Belvoir, Va., was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Rice University in Houston, where he played linebacker and finished fourth in school history with 301 tackles, including a record 46 for losses. As a senior captain, he had 121 tackles and was named a consensus first-team All-Southwest Conference selection. He graduated in 2002 with a degree in business.

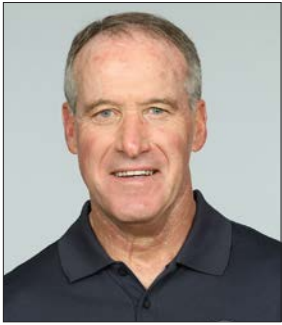

At McCullough High School in Houston, Izzo played safety and running back. The Houston Chronicle named him the two-way player of the year as a senior after he tallied 131 tackles and two interceptions on defense and contributed 1,081 yards rushing on offense.

In 2005, Izzo and Warrick Dunn participated in a USO tour to visit troops stationed overseas. They began their trip at Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan, where they helped open the Pat Tillman USO Center, then spent time with troops in Baghdad, Kuwait and Qatar.

The 42-year-old Izzo and his wife, Mara, have a son, Boston.

JIM BERNHARDT

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RESEARCH

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 4TH NFL SEASON

Jim Bernhardt is in his fourth season as the Director of Football Research with the Houston Texans. In his position, Bernhardt takes on an advisory role to Head Coach Bill O'Brien, assisting in all aspects of game preparation, management and review both on and off the field.

Bernhardt helped the Texans claim back-to-back AFC South division championships in 2015-16 and put together three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history (2014-16). Houston won 14 games against AFC South opponents over those three years, tying Kansas City for the most division wins in the NFL over that span. The team also posted 12 home wins from 2015-16, tying for the second most in the league.

Houston's 7-1 record at home and 5-1 record in the division in 2016 both tied franchise records. The team also advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012. The Texans finished the season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. They also gave up the fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards (201.6) per game.

In 2015, the Texans earned their first AFC South division championship since 2012 and became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game.

On defense, the Texans finished third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (310.2), third in pass yards per game (210.4), fifth in opponent completion percentage (59.0) and seventh in points per game (19.6). The Texans also set the franchise single-season record for sacks (45) and third-down defense (28.5 percent) in 2015.

In 2014, Houston recorded a seven-win improvement, which led the NFL and made them the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two or less games. The Texans defense led the NFL in takeaways with a franchise-record 34 and became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways after finishing last the previous season.

On offense, the Texans ran the ball a league-high 51.9 percent of the time and posted an AFC-best eight individual 100-yard rushing performances in 2014. Houston's 135.1 yards rushing per game ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest mark in franchise history.

Bernhardt came to Houston from Penn State, where he served in a similar role under O'Brien as special assistant to the head coach and director of football research. As a chief advisor to O'Brien, Bernhardt reviewed, evaluated and advised on the entire Penn State football program, including practice, game management and planning, compliance, recruiting and football administration.

Prior to his time at Penn State, Bernhardt served as recruiting coordinator and running backs coach at the University of Central Florida from 2005-07 and director of football operations in 2004.

In 2005, the Golden Knights won their first Conference USA Eastern Division title and earned a berth in the university's first bowl game, the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl, against Nevada. In that matchup, RB Kevin Smith set a Hawaii Bowl record with 202 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

Smith went on to post one of the most prolific seasons in NCAA history for a running back in 2007, rushing for 2,567 yards and 29 touchdowns. His yardage total landed him second on the NCAA all-time single-season rushing list, only behind Barry Sanders' 1988 season. Smith finished his career as the Golden Knights' all-time leading rusher.

Jim Bernhardt and Bill O'Brien first met in 1990, when Bernhardt was on the Brown University coaching staff and O'Brien was a sophomore linebacker.

Bernhardt began his collegiate coaching career in 1988-89 as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Hofstra University, which had nationally-ranked defenses and qualified for the NCAA playoffs both seasons he was there. In 1990, Bernhardt became the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Brown University, where he coached O'Brien for three seasons before transitioning to the role of offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 1993.

In addition to coaching the collegiate ranks, Bernhardt also coached at the high school level for 17 years, accumulating a .620 winning percentage despite never inheriting a program with a winning record prior to his arrival. Bernhardt garnered coach of the year honors four times at four different schools over the course of his coaching career.

A graduate of Long Island University, C.W. Post Campus with a degree in physical education, Bernhardt also is a three-time published writer in the Scholastic Coach magazine and a noted clinic speaker. Bernhardt and his wife, Catherine, have been married for 29 years and have three sons, Jake, Jesse and Jared.

SHANE BOWEN

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

2ND SEASON WITH TEXANS / 2ND NFL SEASON

Shane Bowen enters his second season as defensive assistant for the Houston Texans in 2017.

In his first season with the team, the Texans won their second straight AFC South Division championship and advanced to the Divisional Round for the first time since 2012. Houston finished the 2016 season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. They also gave up the fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards (201.6) per game. From Weeks 8-17, the Texans allowed an average of 71.9 net rushing yards per game and opponents only scored three rushing touchdowns during that span, both of which led the league.

Before joining the Texans, Bowen worked as linebackers coach at Kennesaw State University for three years (2013-15). The 2015 season was the football team's first as a Division I program, where it played in the Big South Conference and finished 6-5.

Bowen spent the 2012 season as a defensive graduate assistant at Ohio State, where his responsibilities included directing defensive film breakdown and scouting reports, monitoring student-athletes' academic performances, classroom attendance and study hall sessions, recruiting and camps. On the field, Bowen assisted in coaching the defensive line, a unit that produced two First Team All-Big Ten selections and the conference's Defensive Player of the Year, former Texans OLB John Simon. The Buckeyes concluded the year with a 12-0 mark and ranked No. 3 nationally.

Bowen began his coaching career as a student assistant at Georgia Tech after an injury ended his playing career during his junior season. He finished the year assisting with the linebackers before being named an offensive graduate assistant in 2010. He held that position for two years before leaving for Ohio State.

Bowen was a three-year letter winner at Georgia Tech where he played outside linebacker. He started 10 games and had a streak of 38 consecutive games played before an injury sidelined him for the remainder of his junior season.

In Shane Bowen's first season on staff, the Texans finished with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history.

He helped the Yellow Jackets win Atlantic Coast Conference Coastal Division Championships in 2006 and 2008. The team also played in three consecutive bowl games, participating in the 2007 Gator Bowl, 2007 Humanitarian Bowl and 2008 Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Bowen, named to the Dean's List three times while at Georgia Tech, earned a Bachelor of Science degree in business management in 2009 and a master's degree in workforce development and education in 2014. He is a native of Pickerington, Ohio.

Bowen and his wife, Courtney, have one daughter, Harper, who was born in March 2017.

JOHN BUTLER

SECONDARY

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 4TH NFL SEASON

John Butler is in his fourth season as the secondary coach with the Houston Texans.

During his first three years in Houston (2014-16), Butler helped the Texans rank third in net passing yards allowed per game (218.4), third in net yards allowed per game (319.9), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). Houston also ranked first in the league in third-down defense with a 33.6 opponent conversion percentage during that span.

The Texans are coming off back-to-back AFC South division championships and have put together three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Houston's 7-1 record at home and 5-1 record in the division in 2016 both tied franchise records. The team also advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012.

The Texans finished the 2016 season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. They also gave up the fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards (201.6) per game. Houston was the only team in the NFL to not allow a 300-yard passer in 2016 and has given up just one 300-yard passer in the last 32 regular season games.

S Quintin Demps led all NFL safeties in 2016 with a career-high six interceptions, which also tied for the second-most in a single season in Texans history. CB A.J. Bouye set single-season career highs with 62 total tackles and 16 passes defended while starting 11 games. Bouye also notched two interceptions in the playoffs and became the first player in team history with a pick in back-to-back postseason games.

In 2015, the Texans defense finished third in the NFL in net yards allowed per game (310.2), third in net passing yards allowed per game (210.4) and tied for seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). The Texans also allowed the fifth-lowest opponent completion percentage in the league (59.0).

Butler's unit helped the Texans finish tied for third in passes defended with 90 in 2015 and surrendered just 6.09 net passing yards per attempt, tied for third-best in the NFL. The Texans led the NFL in third-down defense, as opponents converted only 28.5 percent (61-of-214) of their opportunities. That percentage is the lowest single-season mark in franchise history by 4.5 percent and the lowest opponent third-down percentage by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

Houston won its first AFC South division championship since 2012 and only allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and is tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six times).

CB Johnathan Joseph set a single-season career-high with 22 passes defended while starting all 16 games for the second straight year. CB Kevin Johnson ranked third on the team and fourth among NFL rookies with nine passes defended.

In 2014, Butler's first year, Houston led the NFL in takeaways with a franchise-record 34 and became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways after finishing last the year before. The Texans also set a franchise record for points off turnovers and had 11 players record interceptions in 2014.

Houston's secondary was involved in 22 of the team's 34 takeaways in 2014 and had seven players with either a forced fumble, fumble recovery or interception. The group accounted for nine forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, 16 interceptions and three interceptions returned for touchdowns.

Prior to the Texans, Butler spent two seasons at Penn State with Head Coach Bill O'Brien, where he held the role of secondary coach in 2012 and defensive coordinator in 2013. In his first season working with the secondary, Butler helped Penn State rank second in the Big Ten and 16th nationally in scoring defense. Four defensive players at Penn State went on to be drafted in the NFL in 2013 and 2014.

Butler served as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at South Carolina in 2011, helping the Gamecocks win a school-record 11 games in 2011 and earn their first top-10 finish.

Prior to South Carolina, Butler spent four seasons (2007-10) as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Minnesota. From 2003-06, Butler served as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Harvard. In 2004, Harvard won the Ivy League title with a 10-0 record and ranked 12th in the nation.

Butler was safeties coach and special teams coordinator at Southwest Texas State from 2001-02. He also spent two seasons (1999-2000) at Midwestern State, where he served as the team's defensive coordinator while mentoring the linebackers and safeties.

In 1997 and 1998, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Texas under John Mackovic and Mack Brown.

Born in Philadelphia, the 1995 graduate of The Catholic University of America broke into the coaching ranks as the school's secondary coach after his senior year of playing. Butler took over as the defensive coordinator in 1996 and the team finished in the top 25 in Division III in total defense that season.

As an undergrad, Butler was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Catholic. He also was a two-year letterwinner in basketball and part of the school's 1992-93 NCAA Tournament team.

Butler and his wife, Carmen, have one son, Manny.

Houston has given up just one 300-yard passer in the last 32 regular season games under John Butler.

COACHING STAFF

DOUG COLMAN

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 9TH NFL SEASON

Doug Colman is in his fourth season as assistant special teams coordinator with the Houston Texans. He is in his ninth season in the NFL after a five-year playing career.

Last season, Colman helped veteran K Nick Novak turn in the signature year of his career and one of the best seasons in franchise history. Novak tied for second in the NFL with 35 made field goals, which marked his career high and the most in a single season in Texans history. He connected on 16 consecutive field goals from Weeks 11-16, which tied for second in franchise history, and his 127 total points marked the fourth-highest total in team history.

P Shane Lechler added to his storied career by posting the second-highest single-season gross punting average (47.5) in franchise history and finishing the regular season with just three touchbacks on punts – the lowest total of his 17-year career. Lechler was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his Week 8 performance against Detroit.

Rookie WR Will Fuller V also earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 4 after taking his first career punt return 67 yards for a touchdown that lifted the Texans to a 27-20 win over Tennessee. Fellow rookie RB Tyler Ervin, the primary kick and punt returner most of the season, finished third in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in punt return average (9.7) among qualified players.

In 2015, ILB Brian Peters tied for the NFL lead with a career-high 17 special teams tackles despite playing only 12 games. Additionally, LS Jon Weeks made his first Pro Bowl appearance after handling snapping duties on every field goal, punt and extra point for the Texans.

In Colman's first season with the team in 2014, he worked with K Randy Bullock, who had the most successful year of his career, and Lechler, who posted the third-highest single-season yards per punt average in franchise history (46.3).

Colman came to the Texans after two seasons as the linebackers coach at Coastal Carolina (2012-13) as well as coordinating aspects of the special teams. The Chanticleers won the Big South in each of his two seasons, and Colman coached LB Quinn Backus to back-to-back Big South Defensive Player of the Year honors as well as All-American status. Colman also coached two separate players to Big South Special Teams Player of the Year honors.

Under Colman's tutelage at Tulane (2010-11), LB Trent Mackey was a two-time All-Conference-USA selection, earning the Green Wave's only first-team selection to the all-league team in 2011 after being voted the Louisiana Football Newcomer of the Year in 2010.

Prior to Tulane, Colman spent two seasons at his alma mater, Nebraska, as the defensive quality control coach and was part of back-to-back Big 12 North Championships in 2008 (co-champions) and 2009. The Cornhuskers also participated in the 2008 Gator Bowl and 2009 Holiday Bowl.

Before Nebraska, Colman was an assistant coach for linebackers and special teams for the Amsterdam Admirals in NFL Europe during the 2007 campaign.

From 2003-07, Colman was the head football coach and physical education teacher for Absegami High School in Galloway, N.J. During his time there, he led the team to three straight conference championships (2004-06), four consecutive New Jersey state playoff appearances (2003-06) and the 2006 state championship in the New Jersey South Group IV – the school's only football state title.

Colman was named the 2004 and 2005 Cape Atlantic League Conference Coach of the Year, the 2004 National Football Foundation New Jersey Chapter Coach of the Year and the 2003 Press All-Area Coach of the Year. One of the highlights of his prep coaching career came in 2006 when he served as the head coach for the Adam Taliaferro New Jersey All-Star game.

Colman began his coaching career in the prep game in 2001 at his high school alma mater, Ocean City (N.J.) High School, where he was a freshman football coach. Following a one-year stint at Ocean City, he spent the 2002 campaign as the assistant football coach and physical education teacher at Oakcrest High School in Mays Landing, N.J.

Colman played linebacker for the University of Nebraska and its famed Blackshirt Defense from 1991-95. He was a part of five Big 8 Conference championships and back-to-back national titles in 1994 and 1995. In each of his four years, Colman and Nebraska played for the national championship, facing Miami (Fla.) in the 1992 and 1995 Orange Bowls, Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl and Florida in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl.

Following his collegiate career, Colman was selected in the sixth round (171st overall pick) of the 1996 NFL Draft by the New York Giants. He spent five seasons in the NFL (1996-2000), playing a total of 64 games for the Giants, Tennessee Titans (including Super Bowl XXXIV) and Cleveland Browns. While with the Titans in 1999, Colman was a part of the "Music City Miracle" during the end of a Wild Card Playoff game against the Buffalo Bills.

Colman starred at Ocean City High School, where he is a member of the Hall of Fame. A native of Ventnor, N.J., Colman received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Nebraska in 2001. Colman's father, Wayne, played nine seasons in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints and Philadelphia Eagles. Colman and his wife, Colleen, have five children: Logan Marie, Sarah, Matthew, Grace and Anna.

The Texans led the NFL with 323 special teams tackles in Doug Colman's first three seasons (2014-16) with the team.

MIKE DEVLIN

OFFENSIVE LINE

3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 23RD NFL SEASON

Mike Devlin enters his third season with the Houston Texans in 2017, serving as the team's offensive line coach. Devlin is in his 16th season as an NFL coach after a seven-year playing career.

Last season, the Texans featured the eighth-best ground attack in the NFL, despite employing six different starting combinations along the offensive line. In RB Lamar Miller's first season with Houston, he became just the fourth player in franchise history to top 1,000 rushing yards, as the Texans won their second consecutive AFC South crown and posted a third straight winning season for the first time in team history.

Devlin was key in the development of C Greg Mancz, a former undrafted free agent who started all 16 games at center and allowed a team-low 0.5 sack. T Duane Brown earned the Texans' Ed Block Courage Award after returning from injury to play the final 12 games and yielding a career-low 1.0 sack at left tackle.

In 2015, the Texans started nine different offensive line combinations throughout the season and allowed 36 sacks, which was the sixth-lowest total in the AFC. From Weeks 2-6, Houston allowed only one sack in each of the five games, which was the second-longest streak of games with one-or-fewer sacks allowed in team history. The line blocked for four different starting quarterbacks, led by Brian Hoyer, who posted career highs in passing touchdowns (19), passer rating (91.4) and completion percentage (60.7). The offensive line also paved the way for RB Alfred Blue to set a career high with three 100-yard rushing games.

Devlin came to Houston from the New York Jets, where he spent nine seasons (2006-14) coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

The Jets offensive line had a strong showing during the 2014 season, paving the way for a rushing attack that ranked first in the AFC and third in the NFL, averaging 142.5 yards per game on the ground. A key contributor to the line's success was veteran C Nick Mangold, who was selected to his sixth Pro Bowl.

Devlin's offensive line integrated two new starters in the 2013 season. Despite the changes, the Jets finished the season sixth in the league in rushing, gaining 134.9 yards per game on the ground including four 100-yard rushing efforts. Mangold earned his fifth Pro Bowl selection while LT D'Brickashaw Ferguson became the first Jets player to begin his career with 125 consecutive starts.

In 2012, his final season as tight ends coach, Devlin helped TE Jeff Cumberland bounce back from a season-ending Achilles injury the previous year to achieve then-career highs with 29 receptions, 359 yards receiving and three touchdowns.

Under Devlin's direction, TE Dustin Keller led the team in receptions for two consecutive seasons, catching 65 passes in 2011 and 55 passes in 2010.

Devlin joined the Jets after two seasons as the offensive line coach at the University of Toledo (2004-05). In 2005, his line paved the way for the 11th-ranked offense in the country (459.2 yards/game) as T Nick Kaczur developed into a third-round draft pick (2005) of the New England Patriots.

Devlin began his coaching career as the offensive quality control coach with the Arizona Cardinals in 2000 before being promoted to assistant offensive line coach in 2001.

Selected in the fifth round of the 1993 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills, Devlin went on to play in 101 regular season games over seven years in the NFL, from 1993-95 with the Bills and from 1996-99 with the Cardinals. He appeared in Super Bowl XXVIII with Buffalo.

Devlin earned All-America honors at the University of Iowa and was a semifinalist for the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman in 1992. He was named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year that same year, in addition to being tabbed Big Ten MVP by the Chicago Tribune.

Devlin and his wife, Julie, have started multiple charities, including The Devlin Football Camp, The John S. Devlin Golf Tournament and Devlin's Helping Hands. The Devlin Football Camp provides kids with an opportunity to work with NFL coaches and players at a low cost while raising money and giving assistance to local youth programs, high school programs and various charitable organizations. The Devlin Golf Tournament and silent auction raises money for the Coach John S. Devlin Jr. Bloomsburg Football Scholarship Fund, which is named after Devlin's father and given to an underprivileged high school player every year.

The Devlins have four children, sons Zachary and Matthew and daughters Hallie and Carlie.

Mike Devlin's offensive lines have blocked for top-10 rushing offenses in three of the last four seasons. He spent 2013-14 with the New York Jets.

TIM KELLY

TIGHT ENDS

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 4TH NFL SEASON

Tim Kelly is in his first season as tight ends coach with the Houston Texans after spending the previous three campaigns as offensive quality control coach.

He also assisted Mike Devlin with the offensive line in 2016.

Kelly helped the Texans win back-to-back AFC South division championships in 2015-16 and post three straight winning seasons – both firsts in franchise history. In Kelly's first three years with the team, the Texans ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in rushing.

Last season, the offensive line paved the way for RB Lamar Miller to become just the fourth player in team history to eclipse 1,000 yards on the ground despite starting six different combinations and playing just one full game with both starting tackles. After finishing 9-7, the Texans won their Wild Card matchup with the Oakland Raiders and advanced to the Divisional Round for the third time in franchise history.

Tim Kelly will transition from offensive quality control/offensive line to coaching tight ends in 2017.

In 2015, Houston claimed its first AFC South division championship since 2012 and became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game.

The 2014 Texans ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (135.1) and eighth in average time of possession (30:53). QB Ryan Fitzpatrick started 12 games and posted single-season career highs in passer rating (95.3) and completion percentage (63.1).

Kelly came to Houston from Penn State, where he served as a graduate assistant under Head Coach Bill O'Brien, having held the same position at Ball State in 2011.

Before he went to Ball State, Kelly was the defensive coordinator, defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Minnesota State-Moorhead for the 2010 season.

Kelly spent the 2008-09 seasons at Illinois-Wesleyan, where he was the defensive line coach for the 2009 CCIW Championship team that ranked ninth among all defenses at the NCAA Division-III level. He also coached two first-team all-conference selections.

Kelly played defensive tackle at Eastern Illinois, starting all 48 games in his collegiate career and serving as the team's captain in 2007. He was named to the Capital One Academic All-District V Team in 2006 and 2007.

A native of Chicago Heights, Ill., Kelly starred at Marian Catholic High School, where he is a member of the East Suburban Catholic Conference Hall of Fame. He received his bachelor's degree in sports administration from Eastern Illinois in 2008 and his master's degree in sport management from Illinois State in 2010.

Kelly and his wife, Katie, have two daughters, Norah and Quinn.

BOBBY KING

LINEBACKERS

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 8TH NFL SEASON

Bobby King enters his first season as linebackers coach with the Houston Texans in 2017. This is his second stint with the team after spending 2011-13 on staff.

The 2017 season will be his eighth year coaching in the NFL.

King spent the last three seasons as the assistant linebackers coach for the San Diego Chargers (now the Los Angeles Chargers). In 2016, rookie ILB Jatavis Brown led the Chargers with 76 total tackles (63 solo) to go along with 3.5 sacks, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, six passes defended and eight tackles for loss in 12 games (seven starts). Second-year ILB Denzel Perryman also set his single-season career-high with 71 total tackles (55 solo), 2.0 sacks, one interception and eight tackles for loss in 12 games (11 starts). As a unit, Chargers linebackers forced the third-most fumbles in the NFL with 11 total in 2016.

In 2015, Chargers OLB Melvin Ingram led the team and tied for 12th in the NFL with 10.5 sacks to go along with 65 total tackles (52 solo), six passes defended, 20 quarterback hits, 14 tackles for loss, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Additionally, ILB Manti Te'o led the team in total tackles with a single-season career-high 82 in 12 games. Chargers linebackers combined for 49 tackles for loss in 2015, second most in the NFL.

Before joining the Chargers, King spent three seasons in Houston, including two years (2012-13) as the assistant linebackers coach. During the 2013 season, Texans ILB Darryl Sharpton led the team in tackles with a single-season career-high 87. Additionally, OLB Brooks Reed posted single-season career highs in tackles (56) and tackles for loss (nine). That season, Texans linebackers comprised three of the team's top five leading tacklers (Sharpton, Reed and ILB Joe Mays).

In 2012, despite numerous injuries, Texans linebackers were an integral part of the NFL's seventh-ranked defense. ILB Bradie James led the unit with 105 tackles, while veterans Tim Dobbins, Darryl Sharpton and Barrett Ruud helped shore up the middle of the defense. On the outside, rookie Whitney Mercilus tied Brooks Reed's rookie sack record with 6.0 on the season, while Reed totaled 42 tackles and 2.5 sacks despite missing four games with a groin injury. Reed also tied for the team lead with 1.5 sacks in the postseason.

King started with the Texans in 2011 as a defensive assistant coach. That season, he was part of the third-largest defensive turnaround since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger as the Texans finished the year ranked second in the league in total defense, giving up 285.7 yards per game, after giving up 376.9 yards per game and ranking 30th in 2010.

A native of Louisville, Ky., King was a three-year letter-winner and a two-year starter on the defensive line at the University of Texas-El Paso from 1998-2000. It's also where he made his start in coaching, serving as a student assistant working with the defensive line from 2002-03.

In 2005, King landed his first full-time job as a defensive line coach at West Texas A&M, where he was part of a team that captured the Lone Star Conference championship and earned the school's first-ever NCAA Division II playoff appearance. King coached for two seasons at Baylor from 2006-07, where he worked with the defensive line as a graduate assistant before returning to West Texas A&M in 2008 as the defensive line coach for two seasons. In 2009, the Buffaloes reached their first bowl game since 1967.

King secured his first NFL job with Dallas in 2010 as the defensive quality control coach and assistant linebackers coach. He spent one season with the Cowboys where he worked directly under Reggie Herring and Wade Phillips before joining the Texans.

King and his wife, Elizabeth, have two children, son Jackson Robert and daughter Chloe Elizabeth.

WILL LAWING

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT / OFFENSIVE LINE

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 4TH NFL SEASON

Will Lawing is in his first season as offensive assistant/offensive line with the Houston Texans after three years on the defensive side of the ball.

With Lawing serving as defensive quality control coach from 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in net yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards allowed per game (218.4). The team also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6 percent), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8).

Will Lawing helped the Texans finish with the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2016.

Houston is coming off back-to-back AFC South division championships and has put together three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Houston's 7-1 record at home and 5-1 record in the division in 2016 both tied franchise records. The team also advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012.

The Texans finished last season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. They also gave up the fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards (201.6) per game. From Weeks 8-17, Houston allowed an average of 71.9 net rushing yards per game and opponents only scored three rushing touchdowns during that span, both of which led the league.

Houston finished the 2015 season ranked third in net yards (310.2) and net passing yards (210.4) allowed per game, fifth in opponent completion percentage (59.0) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). The Texans also set franchise single-season records for sacks (45) and opponent third-down percentage (28.5) in 2015. That percentage led the league in 2015 and was the lowest mark by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

The Texans won their first AFC South crown since 2012 and only allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and is tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six times). On the season, the Texans didn't allow the opposing team to score a touchdown in four of their games.

In 2014, the Texans led the NFL in takeaways with a franchise-record 34 and became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways after finishing last the previous season. They also led the NFL with 35 points scored against opposing offenses and set a franchise record with five defensive touchdowns.

Lawing came to Houston from Penn State, where he served as a graduate assistant under Head Coach Bill O'Brien for the 2013 season.

Prior to Penn State, Lawing spent four seasons with Juniata College as the program's offensive coordinator (2011-12), passing game coordinator (2010) and tight ends coach (2009). In addition to his coaching duties, Lawing was also Juniata's recruiting coordinator.

A 2008 graduate of the University of North Carolina with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science, Lawing was a four-year member of the UNC football team.

CHARLES LONDON

RUNNING BACKS

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 9TH NFL SEASON

Charles London is in his fourth season as running backs coach with the Houston Texans and ninth overall season in the NFL.

The Texans' ground game was instrumental in the team winning back-to-back AFC South crowns in 2015-16 and posting three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. In London's first three years with the team, the Texans ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in rushing.

Last season, Houston featured the eighth-best rushing attack in the NFL, averaging 116.2 yards per game and rushing for 1,859 yards as a team. In RB Lamar Miller's first season with the Texans, he set career highs in carries (268) and 100-yard games (4), and topped 1,000 rushing yards for the second time in his five-year career, becoming just the fourth player in Texans history to accomplish the feat.

The 2015 Texans ranked fifth in the AFC in rushing yards per game at 108.2. London's group topped 100 rushing yards in six of the last seven games of the season, as their 135.1-yard rushing average from Weeks 11-17 ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. RB Alfred Blue led the team with a career-high 698 rushing yards and eclipsed the 100-yard mark on the ground in three contests. Veteran RB Arian Foster started only four games before being placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 27.

In 2014, the Texans ran the ball a league-high 51.9 percent of the time and posted an AFC-best eight individual 100-yard rushing performances. Houston also rushed for 100 yards or more in 13-of-16 regular season games during London's first season. The Texans' 135.1 yards rushing per game ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest mark in franchise history. Foster, who earned his fourth Pro Bowl honor, rushed for 1,246 yards, scored 13 total touchdowns and topped the 100-yard mark in seven of the 13 games he played in.

London also played a big role in the development of Blue. During his first season, the sixth-round pick out of LSU posted the highest single-game rushing total by a rookie in the NFL in 2014 and tied a franchise rookie record with 156 yards rushing on a team-record 36 carries against Cleveland in Week 11. Blue became the third rookie running back drafted in the sixth round or later in NFL history to rush for 150-plus yards on 35-plus carries.

Prior to the Texans, London spent two seasons (2012-13) at Penn State as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator for Head Coach Bill O'Brien. London was key in the progression of RB Zach Zwinak, who rushed for 1,989 yards from 2012-13, good for the third-most rushing yards by a running back in the Big Ten in that time. Zwinak's 12 rushing touchdowns in 2013 tied for the fourth-most rushing scores in the conference.

In 2011, London served as offensive assistant and quality control coach for the Tennessee Titans. He helped lead the Titans to a three-win improvement from 6-10 to 9-7, narrowly missing the playoffs due to a tiebreaker. That season, the Titans passing offense improved 13 spots to 12th in the NFL (245.2 yards per game) from 25th (194.2 yards per game).

London spent the 2010 season as a pro scout for the Philadelphia Eagles, helping them gain a playoff berth. Before Philadelphia, he worked three years as an offensive assistant with the Chicago Bears (2007-09). His first year with the Bears was as a quality control coach on offense and his final two years were as offensive assistant/assistant wide receivers coach.

London also has three years of coaching experience at his alma mater, Duke (2004-06). He started as a graduate assistant in his first two years and was elevated to running backs coach in his final season. During the summer of 2005, as part of the NFL's Minority Internship program, he did a coaching internship with the New England Patriots.

Before entering the coaching world, London gained experience as an events manager for Disney's Wide World of Sports from 1998-99, stadium assistant manager for the Cleveland Browns from 1999-2001 and director of stadium operations for Gillette Stadium from 2001-04.

In Charles London's three years (2014-16) with the team, the Texans rank third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in rushing.

As a player at Duke (1994-96), London saw action in 34 games at running back over three years for the Blue Devils and also lettered as a sprinter for the track team. Duke's 1994 team earned a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl. He also earned the football team's Trinity Teammate Award and Carmen Falcone Award for excellence in athletics and academics in 1996 and the College Football Hall of Fame Foundation Award in 1997. Additionally, he was a member of the ACC Honor Roll in 1996-97. London earned an undergraduate degree in political science from Duke in 1997 and a master's degree in humanities in 2006.

ANTHONY MIDGET

ASSISTANT SECONDARY

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 4TH NFL SEASON

Anthony Midget is in his fourth season as assistant secondary coach with the Houston Texans.

During his first three years in Houston (2014-16), the Texans ranked third in net passing yards allowed per game (218.4), third in net yards allowed per game (319.9), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). Houston also ranked first in the league in third-down defense with a 33.6 opponent conversion percentage during that span.

The Texans are coming off back-to-back AFC South division championships and have put together three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Houston's 7-1 record at home and 5-1 record in the division in 2016 both tied franchise records. The team also advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012.

The Texans finished the 2016 season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. They also gave up the fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards (201.6) per game. Houston was the only team in the NFL to not allow a 300-yard passer in 2016 and has given up just one 300-yard passer in the last 32 regular season games.

S Quintin Demps led all NFL safeties in 2016 with a career-high six interceptions, which also tied for the second-most in a single season in Texans history. CB A.J. Bouye set single-season career highs with 62 total tackles and 16 passes defended while starting 11 games. Bouye also notched two interceptions in the playoffs and became the first player in team history with a pick in back-to-back postseason games.

In 2015, the Texans defense finished third in the NFL in net yards (310.2) and net passing yards (210.4) allowed per game, tied for third in passes defended (90) and tied for seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). The Texans also allowed the fifth-lowest opponent completion percentage (59.0) in the league.

The Texans led the NFL in third-down defense, as opponents converted only 28.5 percent (61-of-214) of their opportunities. That percentage is the lowest single-season mark in franchise history by 4.5 percent and the lowest opponent third-down percentage by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

Houston won its first AFC South division championship since 2012 and only allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and is tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six times). On the season, the Texans didn't allow the opposing team to score a touchdown in four of their games.

In 2014, the Texans secondary was involved in 22 of Houston's 34 takeaways and had seven players with either a forced fumble, fumble recovery or interception. The group accounted for nine forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, 16 interceptions and three interceptions returned for touchdowns. As a team, the Texans set a franchise record with 11 different players recording interceptions, four interception returns for touchdowns, and an NFL-best 483 yards on interception returns.

Prior to joining the Texans, Midget spent one season at Penn State where he held the role of safeties coach for Head Coach Bill O'Brien in 2013. In his lone year, Penn State's pass defense efficiency ranked fifth in the Big Ten and the secondary joined Ohio State as the only two teams to have three players rank in the top 20 of passes defended in the conference.

From 2008-12, Midget served as secondary coach and special teams coordinator (2008-11) before becoming defensive coordinator (2012) at Georgia State. During his tenure, he worked with kick returner Albert Wilson, who led the Colonial Athletic Association with a 25.9 kick-off return average en route to being selected CAA Co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2012. Midget was also instrumental in the development of P Laine Vance, who was a third-team All-American in 2010.

Midget joined the collegiate coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech, his alma mater, helping the Hokies win the 2007 Atlantic Coast Conference title. He began his coaching career at Lake Worth (Fla.) High School, where he served as an assistant coach for four seasons (2003-06).

Midget was a four-year letterman and a three-year starter at cornerback at Virginia Tech. As a senior in 1999, he earned third-team All-American honors and first-team All-Big East honors, helping the Hokies reach the BCS National Championship Game. He also was named to the Big East All-Academic team and the Athletic Director's Honor Roll. Midget was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the fifth round (134th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft.

Midget and his wife, Tresica, have two daughters, Anaiya and Kaylin, and one son, Jalen.

Since Anthony Midget joined the Texans (2014-16), the team ranks third in the NFL in net passing yards allowed.

COACHING STAFF

PAT O'HARA

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT / QUARTERBACKS

3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

Pat O'Hara enters his third season with the Houston Texans in 2017, serving as an offensive assistant coach. He also assists Sean Ryan with the quarterbacks.

With O'Hara on staff, Houston has won back-to-back AFC South championships and has posted three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. The Texans' 7-1 record at home and 5-1 record in the division in 2016 both tied franchise records. The team also advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012.

In his first season with the team in 2015, Houston earned its first AFC South title since 2012 and became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game.

Pat O'Hara helped guide the Texans to the postseason in 2015 despite starting four different quarterbacks.

O'Hara's professional playing career spanned over 16 years, playing quarterback in the NFL, the World League and the Arena Football League (AFL). He spent 10 years coaching in the AFL, including stints as a head coach for the Tri-Cities Fever (AF2, 2009), Orlando Predators (2010-11) and New Orleans Voo-Doo (2012-14). Before joining the Texans, O'Hara spent the 2014 AFL offseason as the director of player personnel for the Jacksonville Sharks. He began his AFL career as a quarterback for Orlando in 1995 and he helped his teams win three of the five ArenaBowls he played in.

While still a quarterback with the Predators in 1996, O'Hara began his coaching career as the quarterbacks coach at Point Loma High School in California. Two years later, he became the quarterbacks coach for New Smyrna Beach High School in Florida and was eventually named offensive coordinator at Olympia High School in 2001. O'Hara got his first AFL job as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Storm in 2005 and held the unique position of a player-coach. Eventually, O'Hara retired as a player in 2007 and landed his first head coaching job with the Los Angeles Avengers (AFL) in 2009.

O'Hara attended the University of Southern California, where he played quarterback for the Trojans under Head Coach Larry Smith. After Heisman Trophy candidate Rodney Peete left in 1989, O'Hara was expected to take over as USC's starting quarterback until a gruesome knee injury ended his junior season just 10 days before the first game.

O'Hara's arm was impressive enough that he was still drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 10th round of the 1991 NFL Draft.

Following the 1991 season, O'Hara was allocated to the World League of American Football's Ohio Glory. He then spent the 1992 and 1993 seasons with the San Diego Chargers before heading to training camp with the Washington Redskins in 1994.

In 1995, O'Hara signed with the Orlando Predators and began his AFL playing career. He played in Orlando for six seasons and helped lead the Predators to wins in ArenaBowls XII and XIV. He then joined the Toronto Phantoms in 2001 and the Tampa Bay Storm in 2003 where he led the Storm to a win in ArenaBowl XVII.

O'Hara worked as a television football analyst for Bright House Sports Network covering Florida High School football. He also served as the color analyst for the UCF IMG Radio Network covering UCF Football.

O'Hara also has done consulting work, coordinating and choreographing football action scenes in movies. Some of his credits include "The Longest Yard," "Invincible," "We Are Marshall" and "The Game Plan". He has also coached actors such as Adam Sandler, Mark Wahlberg and Dwayne Johnson to better help them portray their characters. In addition, O'Hara has appeared in several movies including "The Waterboy," "Any Given Sunday" and "The Game Plan".

O'Hara attended Santa Monica (Calif.) High School, where during his junior and senior seasons he threw at least one touchdown pass in every game. He was a two-time Los Angeles Times All-Westside selection and the "Westside Back of the Year" in 1984 and 1985. As a junior in 1984, O'Hara passed for nearly 2,000 yards and 23 touchdowns. During his senior season, he passed for nearly 2,000 yards and 21 touchdowns in 10 games which earned him "Bay League Player of the Year" honors and selection to the Long Beach Press-Telegram's "Best in the West" team.

O'Hara graduated from USC with a degree in public administration in 1991. He and his wife, Billie, have two sons, Tyler and Trace.

JOHN PERRY

WIDE RECEIVERS

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 4TH NFL SEASON

John Perry is in his first season as wide receivers coach with the Houston Texans after spending three seasons coaching tight ends.

Perry helped the Texans win back-to-back AFC South division championships in 2015-16 and post three straight winning seasons – both firsts in franchise history. Houston's 7-1 record at home and 5-1 record in the division in 2016 both tied franchise records. The team also advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012.

Texans tight ends had the most productive season in franchise history in 2016. C.J. Fiedorowicz, Ryan Griffin and Stephen Anderson, an undrafted rookie, combined for 115 receptions and 1,094 yards, both single-season franchise highs, and tallied the fourth-most touchdowns in team history with seven. Perry's unit improved by NFL bests of 74 receptions and 4.6 receptions per game over its 2015 totals and finished with second-best increases in receiving yards (646) and receiving yards per game (40.4).

Under Perry's tutelage, Fiedorowicz blossomed into one of the best all-around tight ends in the league. In addition to blocking for the NFL's eighth-best rushing offense, the third-year tight end shattered his previous career highs with 54 receptions, 559 receiving yards, 10.4 yards per reception and four touchdowns. Griffin also enjoyed the best season of his career, as he set personal bests in receptions (50) and yards (442) while matching his high in touchdowns (2).

John Perry will coach wide receivers in 2017 after turning tight ends C.J. Fiedorowicz and Ryan Griffin into one of the NFL's most productive tandems last season.

From 2014-15, Fiedorowicz, Griffin and Garrett Graham combined for 73 receptions for 764 yards and seven touchdowns. The group also helped Houston rank fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL with 121.6 rushing yards per game over those two seasons. Griffin missed seven games due to injury in 2015, but scored a then-career-high two receiving touchdowns.

Before joining the Texans, Perry was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Delaware, where he mentored Trent Hurley, who led all Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) quarterbacks in passing rating (155.2) and ranked among the league leaders with 2,207 passing yards and 22 touchdowns. Delaware's offense ranked second in the CAA in scoring (32.8 points per game), third in passing (240.0 yards per game) and fourth in passing efficiency (143.84).

Prior to Delaware, Perry served as head coach at NCAA Division II Merrimack College for five seasons (2008-12), where he led the squad to a record of 29-21 and the 2009 Northeast-10 title. During his tenure, Merrimack produced six All-Americans and two Northeast-10 Conference Players of the Year.

Perry's up-tempo, high-scoring offense was one of the best in the league for all five of his seasons on campus, as Merrimack won the Northeast-10 Championship in 2009. The team ranked second in the nation in total offense in 2012 at 525.8 yards per game and finished in the top 10 nationally in that category in 2009 (fourth), 2010 (ninth) and 2011 (seventh).

Perry also helped elevate the program to new heights, guiding former All-American LB Shawn Loiseau to the NFL, making him the first Merrimack alum to sign an NFL contract with Houston in 2012.

Perry began his coaching career as running backs coach at Northeastern in 1993, and later served as receivers coach at Brown (1994-96). He also had stops as receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at New Hampshire (1997-98), offensive coordinator at Dartmouth (1999-2004), associate head coach and quarterbacks coach at Georgetown (2005), offensive coordinator at Hofstra (2006) and associate head coach and quarterbacks coach at New Hampshire (2007). He coached numerous All-Americans and NFL signees along the way, including QB Ricky Santos.

A 1992 graduate of New Hampshire, Perry enjoyed a standout career as a football and basketball player for the Wildcats. He was a four-year starter in football, served as team captain as a senior, and was a two-time All-Yankee Conference selection while setting several receiving records.

Perry and his wife, Jen, have three children, Caitlin, John and Elizabeth.

SEAN RYAN

QUARTERBACKS

2ND SEASON WITH TEXANS / 11TH NFL SEASON

Sean Ryan enters his first season as quarterbacks coach for the Houston Texans after spending last year coaching wide receivers.

In his first season with the Texans in 2016, Ryan served as the wide receivers coach and oversaw one of the youngest wideout corps in the NFL. WR DeAndre Hopkins, the lone receiver on the roster with more than one year of experience entering the season, led the team with 78 receptions for 954 yards and four touchdowns en route to passing Andre Johnson for the most receiving yards by a Texans player in the first four years of his career (4,487).

Under Ryan's tutelage, Texans rookie receivers started an NFL-high 19 games in 2016 and amassed 66 receptions for 809 yards and three touchdowns – all of which marked the second-highest totals by rookie wideouts in franchise history. WR Will Fuller V debuted with five receptions for 107 yards and a touchdown in the season opener, making him the first rookie first-round draft choice since 1984 to post 100 yards in a season opener. Fuller V's 47 receptions and 635 receiving yards were the third-highest season totals by a rookie receiver in franchise history, and his yardage total marked the third-most in the NFL among rookie wideouts.

Prior to joining the Texans, Ryan spent nine years (2007-15) with the New York Giants and helped them to victories in Super Bowl XLII (2007) and Super Bowl XLVI (2011). During his time in New York, he served as an offensive quality control (2007-09), wide receivers (2010-11, 2014-15) and quarterbacks coach (2012-13).

Under Ryan in 2015, Giants wide receivers combined for 211 receptions for 2,855 yards and 26 touchdowns. WR Odell Beckham Jr. was named to the Pro Bowl for the second straight year after tying a franchise single-season record with 13 receiving touchdowns. He finished with the second-most receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,450) in a season in team history. In addition, Rueben Randle set a single-season career-high with eight receiving touchdowns.

In 2014, Ryan was instrumental in the rapid development of Beckham, who became the first Giants player selected as the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year in the 58-year history of the award. In just 12 games, Beckham caught 91 passes for 1,305 yards and 12 touchdowns – all franchise rookie records. He also set NFL records for most catches and yards in the first 12 games to start a career. Beckham's 91 receptions are tied with Denver's Eddie Royal (2008) for the third-highest total in NFL history for a rookie.

Ryan was the Giants' quarterbacks coach in 2012-13. In his first season working with Ryan, Eli Manning was selected to play in his third Pro Bowl after completing 321-of-536 passes (59.9%) for 3,948 yards, 26 touchdowns, 15 interceptions and a passer rating of 87.2. He threw a then career-high five touchdown passes in the 2012 season-ending victory over Philadelphia.

Giants wide receivers were productive in their first two seasons under Ryan (2010-11). In 2011, the unit helped the Giants set a franchise record with 4,734 net passing yards. WR Victor Cruz, who did not have a career reception entering the season, caught 82 passes for a franchise-record 1,536 yards and nine touchdowns. WR Hakeem Nicks caught 76 passes for a career-high 1,192 yards and seven touchdowns. Cruz and Nicks became the first receivers in team history to have more than 1,000 yards in the same season.

The wide receivers played impressively in 2010, their first season with Ryan as their coach. Nicks led the Giants with 79 receptions for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns despite missing three games due to injury. WR Mario Manningham added 60 receptions for 944 yards and nine touchdowns as he and Nicks became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches in a season since 1967.

Ryan joined the Giants coaching staff in 2007 and served his first three seasons with the team as the offensive quality control coach.

In 2006, Ryan was the recruiting coordinator, running backs coach and junior varsity head coach at Harvard University.

Prior to his year at Harvard, Ryan was an assistant coach at Columbia University for three seasons (2003-05). In 2003 and 2004, he was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The following season, he coached the quarterbacks.

Before coaching at Columbia, Ryan spent two years (2001-02) as a graduate assistant at Boston College, where he worked primarily with the wide receivers. The Eagles won bowl games in each of those seasons, beating Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl and Toledo in the 2002 Motor City Bowl.

Ryan was the running backs coach at Colgate University in 2000, a graduate assistant at the University at Albany in 1998-99 and the quarterbacks coach at Siena College for a season in 1997.

Ryan played defensive back and linebacker at Hamilton College, where he graduated in 1994. He also earned a master's in higher education administration from Albany.

A native of Hudson Falls, N.Y., Ryan was a standout football, basketball and baseball player at Hudson Falls High School.

Sean Ryan guided Will Fuller V to one of the best seasons by a rookie wideout in Texans history.

ANTHONY WEAVER

DEFENSIVE LINE

2ND SEASON WITH TEXANS / 13TH NFL SEASON

Anthony Weaver enters his second season as defensive line coach for the Houston Texans in 2017. He is in his sixth season as an NFL coach after a seven-year playing career, including three seasons with the Texans (2006-08).

The Texans, who won their second straight AFC South division championship and advanced to the Divisional Round for the first time since 2012, finished the 2016 season with the NFL's top-ranked defense for the first time in franchise history, surrendering an average of only 301.3 total net yards per game. They also gave up the fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards (201.6) per game. From Weeks 8-17, Houston allowed an average of 71.9 net rushing yards per game and opponents only scored three rushing touchdowns during that span, both of which led the league.

Weaver assisted with DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney's transition to playing defensive line in 2016. The former No. 1 overall pick earned Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after posting personal bests in tackles (52), sacks (6.0), tackles for loss (16), quarterback hits (17) and games played/started (14).

Despite the absence of DE J.J. Watt, the Texans received strong play from multiple young players along the defensive line, as it was the first time in franchise history three rookie defensive lineman started at least one game (NT D.J. Reader, DE Joel Heath and DE Ufomba Kamalu).

Reader, who appeared in all 16 games, made seven starts, which was the fifth-most by a rookie defensive lineman in franchise history and the most since Watt in 2011. Against Oakland in the Wild Card Round, Reader became the third rookie in franchise history to record a sack in the postseason, joining Watt and OLB Brooks Reed.

Heath appeared in 12 games for the Texans last year and his six starts were the most by an undrafted rookie defensive lineman in team history. In Week 17 vs. Tennessee, Heath became the first undrafted rookie in franchise history and only undrafted rookie in the NFL in 2016 with 2.0 sacks in a game.

Before joining the Texans, Weaver spent the previous two years (2014-15) in the same role with the Cleveland Browns, where he helped develop multiple players. Weaver worked with DE Desmond Bryant, who led the team in sacks with a career-high 6.0 in 2015 after finishing second on the team with 5.0 in 2014. Bryant had only recorded 5.0-or-more sacks in a season once before. Additionally, Weaver helped with the development of Browns rookie first-round pick DT Danny Shelton and undrafted rookie DT Jamie Meder.

In 2014, the Browns defensive line was plagued by injuries with starters Phil Taylor (11 games missed), Armonty Bryant (11 games missed) and John Hughes (nine games missed) missing significant action, which forced the team into 10 different starting lineup combinations. Despite being hindered by injuries, Weaver's unit contributed to a defense that led the league in opposing quarterback passer rating (74.1) and finished tied for fourth in the NFL in takeaways (29).

In 2013, Weaver served as the defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, where his defensive linemen accounted for 47 of the Bills' 57 sacks, a franchise record and the second most in the NFL in 2013. Buffalo was the only team to have three players record double-digit sacks, including DE Mario Williams leading the team and finishing fourth in the NFL with 13.0. DT Kyle Williams registered a career-high 10.5 sacks and DE Jerry Hughes added 10.0. DT Marcell Dareus posted a career-best 7.5 sacks and was selected to the Pro Bowl along with Mario and Kyle Williams.

Prior to Buffalo, Weaver spent the 2012 season as the assistant defensive line coach with the New York Jets. He also spent the 2011 campaign as the linebackers coach at the University of North Texas after beginning his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Florida in 2010.

Before his coaching career, Weaver played seven seasons (2002-08) as a defensive end in the NFL, including four with the Baltimore Ravens (2002-05) and three with the Texans at the end of his career (2006-08). After being drafted in the second round (52nd overall) by the Ravens in 2002, Weaver appeared in 103 career regular season games (98 starts) and recorded 260 tackles, 15.5 sacks, three interceptions, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries.

A native of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., Weaver was a four-year starter at Notre Dame and earned All-American honors as a standout college player.

Weaver and his wife, Kristin, have a son, Anthony Weaver Jr.

WES WELKER

OFFENSIVE / SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

1ST SEASON WITH TEXANS / 13TH NFL SEASON

Wes Welker enters his first season as an offensive and special teams assistant coach with the Houston Texans in 2017. It will be his first year coaching in the NFL.

Welker played 12 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2004), Miami Dolphins (2004-06), New England Patriots (2007-12), Denver Broncos (2013-14) and St. Louis Rams (2015). One of the most decorated undrafted players of all time, Welker was elected to the Pro Bowl five times (2008-12) and led the NFL in receptions three times (2007, 2009 and 2011). He also holds the record for most receptions by an undrafted player in NFL history (903) to go along with 9,924 career receiving yards and 50 career receiving touchdowns.

Welker was selected to the Pro Bowl or All-Pro Team in every season of his Patriots career, including in 2008 when Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien was his position coach. Welker holds numerous franchise records for New England, including the five highest single-season reception totals in Patriots history (2007-09, 2011-12) and the franchise record for receiving yards in a season (1,569 in 2011). Additionally, he holds the franchise records for most receptions in a single game (16), most receiving yards in a single game (217), longest reception (99 yards) and most career receptions (672). Welker was the first player in NFL history to put together five 100-reception seasons and still the only player in NFL history with five 110-reception seasons.

To begin his NFL career (2004-06), Welker put up the second most all-purpose yards (6,216) in NFL history in a player's first three seasons, trailing only Gale Sayers, and still holds the Dolphins all-time records for total kickoff returns (166), kickoff return yardage

(3,756) and total punt returns (127). Welker spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons with the Broncos, where he participated in his third Super Bowl, and then played eight games for the Rams in 2015 before retiring from the NFL.

Over his four-year career at Texas Tech University, Welker totaled 259 receptions for 3,019 yards and 21 touchdowns to go along with 79 rushes for 456 yards and two touchdowns. He also scored eight touchdowns returning punts in his college career, which is still tied for the NCAA record. In 2003, Welker won the Mosi Tatupu Award, given annually to the best special teams player in college football, and was named to the Sports Illustrated All-Decade Team as a punt returner.

Welker and his wife, Anna, have one son, Carter, and one daughter, Caroline.

Wes Welker played for Bill O'Brien in New England from 2007-11 and was Patriots teammates with Mike Vrabel and Larry Izzo from 2007-08.

CRAIG FITZGERALD

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

4TH SEASON WITH TEXANS / 4TH NFL SEASON

Craig Fitzgerald is in his fourth season as head strength and conditioning coach with the Houston Texans.

In 2016, Houston advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012. It was the second year in a row the Texans won the AFC South division championship and the team has now put together three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. In Fitzgerald's first year with the team, the Texans led the NFL with a seven-win improvement from 2013 and became the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a year in which it won two-or-less games.

Fitzgerald served as Penn State's director of strength and conditioning from 2012-13 after spending the previous three seasons (2009-11) overseeing the University of South Carolina strength and conditioning program for football.

Prior to his time at South Carolina, Fitzgerald held the title of director of strength and conditioning at Harvard, where the football team won back-to-back Ivy League titles over his final two years. While at Harvard, he oversaw the training of all 41 NCAA teams – the largest number in the country.

From 2000-05, Fitzgerald served as the assistant director of strength and conditioning at his alma mater, the University of Maryland, where he directed the training for men's basketball, men's lacrosse, women's volleyball and wrestling, while assisting with the training for football.

He began his professional career at The Catholic University of America as its first director of strength and conditioning from 1997-99. He then logged a six-month stint as a graduate assistant at Arizona State University before returning to his alma mater.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Fitzgerald holds a double degree in political science and history from Maryland, graduating in 1997. He was a three-time letter winner (1994-96) for the Terrapin football team.

Fitzgerald is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through both the National Strength & Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa).

In May 2010, Fitzgerald earned the certification of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the CSCCa, the highest honor given in the strength and conditioning profession.

Fitzgerald and his wife, Mary, have three sons: Mac, Joe and Luke.

Craig Fitzgerald was on staff at South Carolina in 2011 while Texans DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney played there.

BRIAN BELL

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

Brian Bell enters his third season as assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Houston Texans.

In his first two years with the team, the Texans won back-to-back AFC South division championships and advanced to the AFC Divisional Round for the first time since 2012.

Bell worked on Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Craig Fitzgerald's staff at Penn State from 2012-13. Prior to accepting his position with the Texans, Bell was co-owner of The Athletic Factory, a sports performance center in Bowie, Md. From 2011-12, Bell served as the head football strength and conditioning coach at his high school alma mater, DeMatha Catholic, in Hyattsville, Md.

Bell was a tight end and fullback at Kent State from 2002-06. In 2007, Bell signed with the Washington Redskins as an undrafted free agent and played on the team's practice squad.

Bell and his wife, Crystal, have one daughter, Logan, and one son, Brian Jr.

FOOTBALL

ROB KISIEL

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Rob Kisiel is in his 13th season with the Houston Texans and first as the director of pro personnel. The 2017 campaign will be his 20th season in the NFL.

In his role as director of pro personnel, Kisiel works closely with Vice President of Player Personnel/Assistant General Manager Jimmy Raye III and supervises all pro player evaluation, the advance scouting process, free agency and the monitoring of player transactional movement in all professional leagues.

Kisiel re-joined the Houston Texans in 2012 as a college scout, after spending five years as the director of operations for BLESTO. He previously worked in the Texans personnel department for seven years as a pro scouting assistant (2000-01), college scout (2002-03) and pro scout (2004-07).

Kisiel was tabbed as BLESTO's director of operations in 2007, replacing legendary scout Jack Butler and helping lead the scouting service's move to Jacksonville, Fla. from Pittsburgh, Pa.

Kisiel first came to the Texans after serving as the draft room coordinator for the Washington Redskins from August 1999 through April 2000. He got his start in the NFL as a training camp intern with the Redskins from 1995-97 before serving as a scouting intern with the team from July 1998 until June 1999. In addition, Kisiel interned for the World League's London Monarchs during the 1997 season and was a labor relations intern at the NFL Management Council in 1999.

A native of Clearwater, Fla., Kisiel earned his bachelor's degree in business communications from Florida State University, where he served as a student assistant for Head Coach Bobby Bowden in the football office for four years.

Kisiel and his wife, Liz, have three daughters, Alexandra, Gabrielle and Ivy.

JON CARR

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Jon Carr is in his 11th season with the Houston Texans and third as the director of college scouting. He spent eight years as a college scout and three as a national scout before taking over as director in 2015.

In his current role, Carr manages the college scouting department and assigns responsibilities to the team's area scouts. He works directly with Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Rick Smith and Vice President of Player Personnel/Assistant General Manager Jimmy Raye III on evaluating college prospects around the country and organizing the college free agency process. Carr also organizes and helps manage the personnel meetings leading up to the NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Texans, Carr coached wide receivers at the University of Toledo from 2005-06 and helped the Rockets win the 2005 GMAC Bowl.

Before joining Toledo's staff, Carr was offensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois from 2003-04. He began his collegiate coaching career at Tennessee State in 1997, working with tight ends, wide receivers and quarterbacks, and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000. In 2001, Carr's offense ranked third in I-AA (now NCAA FCS) passing (302 yards per game), sixth in total offense (465 yards per game) and 14th in scoring (35.4 points per game). He also participated in the 2006 NCAA Expert Coach's Academy in Miami and the NFL Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business in 2012.

During the summer of 2002, Carr was a member of the Oakland Raiders' preseason coaching staff as part of the NFL's Minority Internship Program. He has also worked with the National Football League Properties as the program coordinator for Chicago and Detroit summer youth inner-city football camps.

Carr was a quarterback at Southeast Missouri State from 1987-89 before he transferred to Purdue, where he earned a degree in law and society in 1991.

Carr has one son, Corbyn, and he and his wife, Shenikwa, are parents of two girls, Kennedy and Kayla.

LARRY WRIGHT JR.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Larry Wright Jr. enters his eighth season with the Houston Texans and fourth as assistant director of pro personnel.

In his role, Wright is responsible for evaluating players on the Texans roster, other NFL rosters, street free agents and players in the Arena and Canadian Football Leagues. He also assists in coordinating college free agent scouting and works on advance scouting of Texans opponents.

Wright was first hired by the Texans in May 2010. From 2007-09, Wright was assistant director of pro personnel with the Jacksonville Jaguars after serving as a pro scout with the team from 2004-07. He began his NFL career as a scouting assistant with Jacksonville in 2003. Wright spent 2009 coaching running backs at West Monroe (La.) High School.

Wright was the head coach at Ringgold (La.) High School from 2001-02, and was a graduate assistant at Grambling State University in 2000, where he coached running backs while earning his master's degree in sport administration. In the summer of 2000, he was a scouting intern with the Baltimore Ravens and a volunteer strength and conditioning coach for the Grambling basketball team.

Wright earned a degree in sociology at Louisiana Tech, where he was a three-year letterman and special teams captain his senior season. He and his wife, Vincincia, have two daughters, Victoria and Lauryn, and one son, Larry III.

MIKE MARTIN

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Mike Martin is in his first season as assistant director of college scouting with the Houston Texans. He owns 16 years of NFL personnel experience, including 13 years as a scout.

Martin enters his 11th season with the Texans after serving 10 years (2007-16) as a college scout. He was hired by the Texans in the spring of 2007 after four seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers personnel department.

Martin joined the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 2003 before becoming a pro scout in 2004. He spent his last two seasons in Tampa Bay as the southeast region and national combine scout. Martin got his start in the NFL as an intern with the Tennessee Titans in 2002.

Martin was a four-year letterman at Vanderbilt University (1999-2002), playing defensive back and on special teams. He also was a finalist for the 2003 Male SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Martin graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in human and organizational developmental studies. He also earned his master's degree in organizational leadership from Vanderbilt in 2003.

He and wife, Cari, reside in Houston with their son, Maddon, and daughter, Malone.

FRANTZY JOURDAIN

NATIONAL SCOUT

Frantzy Jourdain enters his first season as a national scout with the Houston Texans after serving as a college scout in 2016. The 2017 campaign will be his 15th season in the NFL.

Before coming to Houston, Jourdain spent 13 years (2003-15) with the New England Patriots personnel department, including the last 11 years as an area scout. He was originally hired by New England as a player personnel assistant in 2003.

Jourdain spent the 2002 season as the secondary coach and co-special teams coordinator at Duquesne University, a season during which the Dukes led Division I-AA in interceptions, scoring defense and fewest total yards allowed per game.

Jourdain attended the University of Rhode Island (1993-97), where he was a three-year starter for the Rams at running back and strong safety. He also attended North Carolina Central University, where he coached running backs and worked on a master's degree in criminology from 1998-2000.

RYAN CAVANAUGH

COLLEGE SCOUT

Ryan Cavanaugh was hired by the Houston Texans in the spring of 2009 as an area scout and covers the Midwest for Houston. The 2017 season will be his ninth year with the team.

Prior to joining the Texans, Cavanaugh spent eight seasons with the Indianapolis Colts' scouting department, including six as an area scout. He joined the Colts organization in January 2001 after spending the 2000 mini-camp and training camp in the club's operations department.

Cavanaugh graduated from Appalachian State in December 2000 with a bachelor's degree in commercial recreation management.

Cavanaugh was born in Raleigh, N.C. He is married to the former Melissa Anne Searls of Greensboro, N.C., where they reside with their daughters, Mallory Anne and Samantha Lee.

BRAD MATHEWS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Brad Mathews is in his first season as a college scout for the Houston Texans and covers the Northeast region. He is in his third season with the team.

As a pro personnel assistant from 2015-16, Mathews managed the team's online scouting database, evaluated players across the NFL and assisted with advance scouting reports on upcoming opponents. He also ran local pro days and cross-checked college prospects leading up to the NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Texans, Mathews worked at his alma mater, Tulane University. He started as a volunteer intern for the 2013 season and was promoted to recruiting/player personnel graduate assistant for the 2014 campaign and again to assistant director of player personnel shortly before joining Houston in July 2015.

Before Tulane, Mathews served as a football operations intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers during training camp in 2013.

Mathews graduated from Tulane in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in finance. Originally from Atlanta, he now resides in Houston.

MOZIQUE McCURTIS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Moziq McCurtis is in his third season as a college scout for the Houston Texans, covering the Southeast region. He is entering his eighth year with the Texans and ninth season in the NFL.

Prior to transitioning to college scout, McCurtis worked the 2014 season as a pro scout, where he was responsible for evaluating players on the Texans roster, other NFL rosters and street free agents. He also worked on advance scouting of Texans opponents.

McCurtis originally joined the Texans as a pro scouting assistant from 2010-11 before being elevated to player personnel scout from 2012-13.

Before coming to Houston in 2010, McCurtis was a pro scouting assistant for the Seattle Seahawks.

McCurtis was a three-year letterman as a defensive back at the University of Southern California, where he and current Texans ILB Brian Cushing teamed up to help the Trojans win three conference titles and two Rose Bowl titles while playing for current Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll. He graduated from USC in 2008 with a degree in history.

McCurtis, a San Diego native, resides in Austin, Texas.

NATHAN TROTT

COLLEGE SCOUT

Nathan Trott is in his 11th year with the Houston Texans and ninth as a college scout covering the West Coast region. Trott previously served as the pro scouting intern for the Texans during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

Trott grew up around the game with his father, Bob Trott, being a longtime coach in both the NFL and college ranks. Nathan served as an intern with the Cleveland Browns during the summers of 2005 and 2006, assisting in youth development, the equipment room and coaching.

Trott played football at Midway High School in Waco, Texas and earned second-team all-district honors. He was also named to the Central Texas Top 25 list and earned Special Teams MVP as a senior. Trott went on to play cornerback for Elon University from 2003-07, where he earned his degree in sports management.

Born in Fayetteville, Ark. when his father was the defensive coordinator at the University of Arkansas, Trott now resides in Phoenix.

SETH TURNER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Seth Turner is in his third season as a college scout with the Houston Texans and covers the Southwest region. The 2017 campaign will be his 18th season in the NFL and 16th as a college scout.

Before joining the Texans in July 2015, Turner served one season as a scout for the New York Jets, where he was responsible for the midwest region.

Prior to his time in New York, Turner spent 14 seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he also was responsible for scouting the midwest region after spending four seasons as Tampa Bay's national combine scout. During his time with the Buccaneers, Turner was part of five playoff appearances, three division titles and a Super Bowl championship.

Turner joined the Buccaneers in July 2000 as an intern in the college and pro scouting department. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Turner was an intern for the NFL's player personnel department as well as a summer intern for the Buffalo Bills' player personnel staff in 1999.

Turner graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education from Baker University in Baldwin City, Kan. in 1997 and earned a master's degree in sports management in 1999 from Indiana State. He was a four-year letterman at linebacker and defensive end at Baker.

A native of Lansing, Kan., Turner now resides in Columbia, Mo., with his wife, Ariana. The couple has three children: sons, Graham and Heath, and daughter, Belén.

TOLU LASAKI

PRO SCOUT

Tolu Lasaki enters his third season as a pro scout with the Houston Texans and his ninth season in the NFL.

In his role, Lasaki evaluates professional players from the NFL and other leagues in addition to college prospects from various regions. He also does advance scouting of Texans opponents, assists with player workouts, attends college pro days and conducts positional cross-check evaluations for the NFL Draft.

Before joining the Texans, Lasaki spent six seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, assisting the pro and college scouting departments in various capacities.

From 2005-08, Lasaki worked as a graduate assistant coach at Southern Methodist University. He worked primarily with the defensive backs at SMU and earned his Master's of Business Administration in 2006.

Prior to SMU, Lasaki spent two seasons coaching cornerbacks at the Colorado School of Mines, where he also played cornerback and graduated with a degree in engineering. As a four-year letterman, Lasaki earned all-conference honors and was the team's Defensive Player of the Year in 2001.

Born and raised outside of Denver, Lasaki now resides in Houston with his wife, Jenna.

CHRIS BLANCO

PLAYER PERSONNEL SCOUT

Chris Blanco enters his sixth season with the Houston Texans and fourth as a player personnel scout. Blanco worked as the interim pro scout from February to May 2014 after serving as the pro personnel assistant since June 2012. In his current role, he is responsible for evaluating players on NFL rosters, free agents and collegiate prospects across the country.

Blanco was a two-year starter at cornerback at Dartmouth College from 2003-07, where he earned his degree in sociology. In addition to playing football for the Big Green, Blanco also was a member of the Dartmouth boxing team.

Blanco also is a graduate of the University of Iowa College of Law, where he was the co-founder and co-president of the Sports Law Society and served as a recruiting assistant for the Hawkeyes football team.

Blanco, a native of La Mirada, Calif., resides in Houston.

BLAISE TAGGART

NFS AREA SCOUT

Blaise Taggart enters his first season as an NFS scout for the Houston Texans. He is in his third year with the team after serving as a college scouting assistant from 2015-16.

In his current role, Taggart is one of 11 scouts in the NFL contracted to National Football Scouting (NFS) and provides reports for NFS member teams as well as the Texans. He primarily covers the Northeast region.

As a college scouting assistant from 2015-16, Taggart managed the team's online scouting database, cross-checked college prospects and conducted scouting visits to local schools and multiple collegiate all-star games. He also evaluated players across the NFL.

Before joining the Texans, Taggart served as a recruiting assistant at his alma mater, the University of Cincinnati, in 2014. He broke into the NFL as a football video assistant with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2013.

Taggart graduated from Cincinnati in 2013 with a degree in sport administration and minor in business administration. As an undergraduate, he worked for the UC football program as a recruiting department volunteer before earning a scholarship as a student video manager.

A native of Mars, Pa., Taggart and his wife, Alyx, reside in Pittsburgh.

MATT JANSEN

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Matt Jansen enters his third season as the college scouting coordinator for the Houston Texans. He is in his seventh season in the NFL.

Jansen works with Director of College Scouting Jon Carr and Vice President of Player Personnel/Assistant General Manager Jimmy Raye III on the day-to-day operations of the college scouting department, which includes preparing for college all-star games, the NFL Combine and the NFL Draft. Jansen also evaluates college players, visits schools to see prospects and attends pro days across the country. He organizes the Texans' local workout with top college prospects from the Houston area and schedules the team's college player visits during the month of April.

From 2013 to 2014, Jansen served as a player personnel assistant with the Baltimore Ravens, where he had responsibilities in both pro personnel and college scouting. As a player personnel assistant, he worked on scouting advances of upcoming opponents and evaluated street free agents. He also scouted pro teams, evaluated players on other rosters and kept track of player movement throughout the league.

Jansen started with the Texans as a college scouting intern in 2011 under current New York Jets General Manager and former Texans College Scouting Director Mike Maccagnan. Jansen was in Houston for two division championship years (2011, 2012) doing various projects in both college scouting and pro personnel, along with weekly special teams evaluations and game recaps of the Texans roster.

Jansen is a 2011 graduate of Texas Tech University with a degree in exercise and sports science. While at Texas Tech, he also spent five seasons as a student coach, working with the Red Raiders defensive staff.

Jansen is from Cypress, Texas and graduated from Langham Creek High School in 2006. He currently lives in Houston.

GEOFF KAPLAN

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE / HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Geoff Kaplan is in his ninth season with the Houston Texans, where he serves as senior director of sports medicine/head athletic trainer. He spent his first eight years with the team as the director of sports medicine/head athletic trainer after 14 seasons with the Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers as an assistant athletic trainer. The 2017 season marks Kaplan's 25th year in the NFL.

Kaplan and his staff were recognized by the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society as the 2013 Athletic Training Staff of the Year, an annual award voted on by all NFL athletic trainers. It was the second time Kaplan has won the award, first doing so following the 2000 season as a member of the Tennessee Titans training staff.

Kaplan joined the Houston Oilers full-time in 1995 after serving as a season-long intern in 1994. Prior to joining the Oilers, Kaplan was a season-long intern with the Green Bay Packers in 1993.

A native of Parsippany, N.J., Kaplan earned his degree in physical therapy and a certificate in athletic training from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He continued his education by becoming a certified strength and conditioning specialist in 1997 and completed his master's degree from Tennessee State University in the summer of 2003.

In 2005, Kaplan was certified as a clinical specialist in sports physical therapy by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists. Kaplan frequently lectures on a variety of sports medicine topics, including the rehabilitation of athletic injuries, to local and national organizations, hospitals and universities.

Kaplan has continued to advance his education, becoming certified in Graston soft tissue mobilization (2009) and Functional Dry Needling (2013).

Geoff and his wife, Shelly, have two sons, Everett and Sawyer. They reside in Missouri City, Texas.

ROLAND RAMIREZ

DIRECTOR OF REHABILITATION / ASSOCIATE HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Roland Ramirez is in his 10th season with the Houston Texans and first as director of rehabilitation/associate head athletic trainer after spending nine years as rehabilitation coordinator/assistant athletic trainer.

Before joining the Texans, he held the same position with the Atlanta Falcons during the 2007 season and served as a contract athletic trainer for the Tennessee Titans during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. Ramirez also served as an assistant athletic trainer for the Nashville Kats Arena Football team (AFL) during the 2006 season.

In 2016, Ramirez was the recipient of the AFC Tim Davey Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year Award, which is presented annually at the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society meeting at the NFL Combine in Indianapolis. The recipient is nominated by the membership and selected by a committee that includes past honorees. This award is emblematic of the commitment, dedication and high level of integrity that Tim Davey, an employee of the New York Jets and the NFL for 33 years (1969-2002), brought to the profession of athletic training and is representative of his level of service he dedicated to his surrounding community.

In 2013, Ramirez and the Texans sports medicine staff were recognized by the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society as the Athletic Training Staff of the Year, an annual award voted on by all NFL athletic trainers.

Prior to entering the ranks of the NFL, Ramirez worked as a physical therapist in an orthopedic and sports medicine clinic while completing his graduate work in athletic training. He earned a dual master's degree in physical therapy and athletic training from the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in 2004 and 2005, respectively. Ramirez completed his undergraduate work at Texas Tech, where he played football from 1998-99.

As a graduate student, Ramirez served as an athletic trainer for the baseball teams at Wayland Baptist University and Lubbock Christian University. He also worked with the Texas Tech football team during the 2004 season and served as a strength and conditioning coaching intern prior to the 2004 season.

Ramirez is board certified as a clinical specialist in sports physical therapy by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists. He also holds a certification as a strength and conditioning specialist and is a member of the NATA, APTA, NSCA and PFATS.

Ramirez and his wife, Misty, live in Missouri City, Texas with their two children, Kade and Tessa.

JEREMY BAXTER

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremy Baxter is in his second season as assistant athletic trainer for the Houston Texans. In his role, he works directly with Senior Director of Sports Medicine/Head Athletic Trainer Geoff Kaplan.

Before joining the Texans, Baxter worked as a physical therapist and athletic trainer at Northwestern University (2012-16). He also served as a physical therapist at OrthoSport Physical Therapy (2010-12) and as an assistant instructor for Kinetacore Physical Therapy Education (2012-present), where he still works. He started as a student athletic trainer at the University of Oklahoma (2002-05).

In 2012, Baxter was certified as a clinical specialist in sports physical therapy by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists. He also is a certified athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainer's Association and a certified CPR/AED specialist by the American Heart Association.

Baxter earned his master's degree in athletic training from the Texas Tech Health Sciences Center in 2010. He graduated from the University of Oklahoma with a bachelor's degree in health studies (2006) and then a master's degree in physical therapy (2008) from the OU Health Sciences Center.

Originally from Norman, Okla., Baxter now lives in Houston.

URIAH MYRIE

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Uriah Myrie joins the Houston Texans in 2017 as an assistant athletic trainer, working under Senior Director of Sports Medicine/Head Athletic Trainer Geoff Kaplan on daily athletic training operations.

Myrie most recently worked with the Arizona State football team in 2016, serving as a program assistant athletic trainer, specifically working with player rehabilitation.

Prior to his time at ASU, Myrie spent a season interning for the Buffalo Bills in 2015, was a graduate assistant with the University of Utah football program from 2012-14 and assisted Hudson Valley Community College in 2011-12. He broke into the NFL as a summer intern with the Carolina Panthers in 2009 and 2010.

The Albany, N.Y. native earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from University of Delaware in 2011 before obtaining his master's degree in exercise and sport science from Utah in 2014.

TRAVIS TURNER

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Travis Turner is in his third season as assistant athletic trainer for the Houston Texans after serving as an intern his first two years with the team (2013-14).

Turner assists Senior Director of Sports Medicine/Head Athletic Trainer Geoff Kaplan with all athletic training operations, including rehab, assessment, taping and treatment of injuries. Turner also supervises the staff's numerous interns, manages inventory and orders supplies.

In 2013, Turner and the Texans sports medicine staff were recognized by the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society as the Athletic Training Staff of the Year, an annual award voted on by all NFL athletic trainers.

Before joining the Texans in 2013, Turner was an intern with the St. Louis Rams during the 2012 season and a graduate assistant at West Virginia University from 2010-12. In 2012, he was named Most Outstanding Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer for his work with the Mountaineers. He started as a graduate assistant at HealthWorks Rehab and Fitness from 2010-12.

Turner graduated from Texas Lutheran University with a degree in athletic training in 2010. In 2015, he was recognized as a distinguished young alumni by TLU. He later earned a master's degree in athletic training from WVU.

Turner, a native of La Vernia, Texas, lives in Houston and is the son of Frank and Nancy Turner. He has two brothers, Dustin and Chance.

ERIK KOREM

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS SCIENCE

Erik Korem is in his second season with the Houston Texans as the director of sports science. His role is designed to further advance the team's player development and performance model.

Before joining the Texans, Korem served as the high performance coach at the University of Kentucky (2013-16), where he oversaw the program's player development model. Korem also worked as director of sports science and football operations at Florida State University (2010-12) and as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Mississippi State (2007-09).

Korem started as head strength and conditioning coach at Fort Valley State in 2006 before spending two years at the University of the Pacific, where he served as the director of athletic performance (2006-07).

Korem played college football at Texas A&M, where he earned his bachelor's degree in applied exercise physiology. He also earned a master's in exercise science at the University of Arkansas and served as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant (2004-06).

Currently, Korem is working on his Ph.D. in biomechanics and exercise science, where he is researching how sleep is associated with the performance of football players.

Korem also has served on the Nike Performance Council since 2014 and has been a track and field coach/consultant for numerous International Champions in sprint events. He was the strength and conditioning coach and sports scientist for 13 years for Veronica Campbell-Brown, who was a two-time Olympic gold medalist in the 200m. Korem was also a featured speaker at the Sloan MIT Sports Analytics Conference in 2015.

Originally from Dallas, Korem and his wife, Hayle, now live in Houston with their two sons, Cooper and Connor.

STEVE SMITH

SPORTS PERFORMANCE COORDINATOR / NUTRITIONIST

Steve Smith is in his fourth season with the Houston Texans, where he serves as the sports performance coordinator and team nutritionist. In his role, Smith assists Director of Sports Science Erik Korem in performance monitoring and intervention while also managing the nutrition needs for the team.

Smith previously worked as a performance dietitian for the IMG Performance Institute in Bradenton, Fla. and served as the team chef and dietitian for the Oklahoma City Thunder of the NBA. Smith also has spent time as a performance dietitian for the Army's 5th Special Forces Group.

Smith is a registered dietitian nutritionist licensed in the state of Texas and a certified specialist in sports dietetics. He graduated from Johnson & Wales University with a bachelor's degree in culinary nutrition and played Division I soccer at Appalachian State University.

Originally from Plano, Texas, Smith now lives in Houston.

JEFF POPE

SECURITY COORDINATOR

Jeff Pope joins the Houston Texans as security coordinator in 2017 after serving as an intern in 2016. He assists Vice President of Security Emmett Baylor III in implementing security policies and procedures for all club-related events, including practices, team travel, stadium security and all aspects of gameday.

Before joining the Texans, Pope worked as a recruiting assistant for the University of Houston football team (2015-16) and helped the Cougars win the American Athletic Conference Championship and Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl in 2015. He also spent time as an account executive/ticket sales (2015) and athletics intern (2014-15) at Rice University.

Pope played wide receiver at Bethune-Cookman University (2005-08) in Daytona Beach, Fla., where he was co-captain for the 2007 and 2008 teams. He graduated from Bethune-Cookman with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 2009 and earned his master's degree in sports management from Lasell College in 2014.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

TIM BROG

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Tim Brog is in his third season as the director of video operations for the Houston Texans. The 2017 season will mark his 10th year with the team.

Brog began his tenure as an intern with the Texans in July 2008. He was then hired as a video operations assistant in June 2009 before becoming assistant director of video operations in August 2011 and serving in that role for four years.

Prior to joining the Texans, Brog was the video coordinator for the Grand Rapids Rampage of the Arena Football League in his home state of Michigan during the 2008 season.

Brog is a graduate of Grand Valley State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in broadcasting in 2008. While a student, Brog worked for the sports department at WOOD-TV 8 in Grand Rapids, Mich., filming high school and college athletic events.

Brog is from Middleville, Mich., and graduated from Thornapple Kellogg High School. He and his wife, Bianca, reside in Houston and have a daughter, Grace.

DUSTIN KADRI

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Dustin Kadri is in his third season as assistant director of video operations for the Houston Texans. He is primarily responsible for importing practice and game film into the team's video system.

Prior to joining the Texans, Kadri was a support manager and developer for DVSport. From 2011-13, Kadri was the director of video operations for the University of Southern Mississippi football team.

Kadri spent one year as a video intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers (2009) and one year with the Arizona Cardinals (2010). With both teams, he was responsible for importing practice film and managed the still-shot machine on gamedays.

Kadri graduated from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio with a bachelor's degree in management and organizations. Originally from Crooksville, Ohio, he currently resides in Houston.

TYRELL LYNCH

VIDEO OPERATIONS ASSISTANT

Tyrell Lynch is in his third season as video operations assistant with the Houston Texans. He assists coaches, players and staff in all aspects of video operations, including filming, editing and updating equipment. Lynch also works closely with college scouts during the NFL Draft to help with their video needs.

Lynch served as a video operations intern with the Texans from 2012-15. He also worked as a football operations training camp intern with the team in July 2012.

Lynch attended Concord University on a football scholarship and earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in marketing. He was a three-year starter for the Concord football team and served as team captain during his last season.

Lynch was born in Woodbridge, Va., where he was a three-year starter and captain for the Hylton High School football team. Lynch also won a District Championship in wrestling his senior year.

Lynch and his wife, Sydney Smith, currently live in Houston.

MIKE PARSON

DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT SERVICES

Mike Parson is in his third season as director of equipment services for the Houston Texans. He handles all equipment needs for the organization and team. He is in his 10th season with the Texans after serving as an equipment assistant for seven years.

Parson joined the Texans equipment staff in 2008 after several internships with the New Orleans Saints and five years of experience at the collegiate level.

Parson worked minicamps and training camps for the Saints in 2001-02 and worked the full season with the team in 2005. That year, the staff overcame extraordinary challenges in the forced evacuation from New Orleans due to Hurricane Katrina. After departing New Orleans, the club's base of operations moved three times, including a last stop at a high school baseball stadium in San Antonio. The staff was awarded the Whitey Zimmerman Memorial Award, given annually to the NFL equipment staff that exceeds the usual demands of the position with excellent service.

Parson was the equipment manager for four years at the University of New Orleans, where he oversaw the equipment operations for the entire athletic department. He also was equipment manager for Benedict College during the 2003 season.

Parson, a 2003 graduate of Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in physical education, was born in Vicksburg, Miss., and now resides in Houston.

RYAN GOWENS

EQUIPMENT SERVICES COORDINATOR

Ryan Gowens is in his third season as equipment services coordinator with the Houston Texans. This will be his 10th year in the NFL.

Gowens works with Director of Equipment Services Mike Parson to fit and order equipment for all Texans coaches and players. He also helps manage team equipment during practices and road games.

Before joining the Texans, Gowens worked seven years as an assistant equipment manager with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2005-06 & 2010-15). In 2007, he served as head equipment manager at Murray State University.

Gowens was an associate football equipment manager and the head baseball equipment manager at Texas A&M from 2008-10. He obtained a degree in business management and served as a student manager in College Station from 1999-2005.

Originally from Austin, Texas, Gowens now resides in Sugar Land, Texas with his wife, Tiffany, who was a three-time All-American swimmer at Texas A&M. They have been married over 11 years and have a three-year-old daughter, Quinn.

KYLE KAMAU

EQUIPMENT SERVICES ASSISTANT

Kyle Kamau is in his third season as equipment services assistant with the Houston Texans. He is in charge of fitting and maintaining the players' helmets and shoulder pads, as well as facilitating team practices by setting up drills and spotting balls.

Kamau also served as an equipment staff intern for the Texans in 2012. Kamau was an assistant equipment manager for the Philadelphia Eagles for the 2013-14 seasons.

Kamau graduated from the University of Hawai'i at Manoa where he studied sociology. As a student at Hawai'i, he served as the football team's equipment manager.

Originally from El Cajon, Calif., Kamau and his wife, Nicki, currently live in Pearland, Texas. He has one brother, Brad, and his parents are Keoki and Barbara. Keoki was an athletic trainer in the NFL for 18 years with the Washington Redskins and San Diego Chargers.

SEAN WASHINGTON

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Sean Washington enters his 11th season with the Houston Texans and first as the senior director of player engagement. He spent the previous 10 seasons as the team's director of player engagement.

Washington is responsible for supporting players and their families with making a smooth transition from college to the NFL. He strives to raise players' awareness and increase their education to keep them thinking proactively. He is responsible for establishing and maintaining relationships and promoting high standards of professionalism for the club's players both during and beyond their years in the NFL.

In 2016, Washington oversaw the implementation of the team's first annual rookie experience program, which introduces Texans rookies to the organization's stance on leadership, domestic violence, sexual assault and social responsibility. He has excelled in supporting players by assisting with team dynamics, developing internal leaders, facilitating off-the-field training and development and fostering a culture of high performance.

Prior to joining the Texans, Washington worked for a decade with high school students, mentoring, teaching and coaching around the Houston area. Washington previously coached at Burbank Middle School as well as Sam Houston, Angleton and Alief Elsik High Schools.

Washington played defensive back for the New Orleans Saints in 1994 as an undrafted free agent and then played in the World Bowl with the Amsterdam Admirals in 1995.

Washington, a Houston native, attended Waltrip High School and earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Rice University in 1994. He was an All-Southwest Conference cornerback from 1991-93 and a member of the Sporting News All-American team in 1993 with the Owls.

He resides in Richmond, Texas with his wife, Eanisha, and his two sons, Lake and Cruz.

JASON LOWREY

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Jason Lowrey is in his fourth season as director of football operations and eighth season overall with the Houston Texans.

In his role, Lowrey oversees all aspects of team travel, including the planning, lodging and transportation needs of the organization. He is responsible for maintaining the day-to-day football operations budget and assists the Texans coaching staff in the coaches' booth on game days.

Lowrey joined the Texans in August 2010 as the football operations manager after running his own local business. He served on active and reserve duty in the military as a Navy corpsman from 1992-2004.

A native of Kerville, Texas, Lowrey has two daughters, Ella and Aubree. He and his wife, Dana, reside in Richmond, Texas.

KHALIL REED

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS MANAGER

Khalil Reed enters his 10th season with the Houston Texans and second as football operations manager. Before being promoted to his current role, Reed spent six seasons as the team's security and player engagement manager. This will mark his 11th season in the NFL.

Reed assists Vice President of Security Emmett Baylor and Senior Director of Player Engagement Sean Washington in promoting high standards of professionalism while being actively involved in the off-the-field development of each Houston Texans player. Among his many responsibilities, Reed promotes security and player development initiatives with players, spouses, coaches, club executives and local police agencies. He also serves as a co-facilitator and manager for club-level programming, such as the Rookie Development program, the Rookie Success program, the Professional Development program and the newly implemented Rookie Transition Program.

In his role as operations manager, Reed aids in the day-to-day operations of the team and works with Director of Football Operations Jason Lowrey on all aspects of team travel, including the planning, lodging and transportation needs of the organization.

Before joining the Texans, Reed was an events and operations summer intern with the Cleveland Browns in 2006. He also served as a media relations student assistant at Liberty University from 2004-07, where he earned his bachelor's degree in sports management.

A native of Jersey City, N.J., Reed resides in Houston with his wife, Phylicia.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

KEVIN KRAJCOVIC

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION COORDINATOR

Kevin Krajcovic enters his third season as the football administration coordinator for the Houston Texans. He spent the previous seven seasons as a football administration analyst with the team after serving as an intern for two years.

Krajcovic assists Vice President of Football Administration Chris Olsen on negotiating player contracts and managing the Texans' salary cap.

Krajcovic graduated from Ohio University with two master's degrees in sports administration and business administration while earning his bachelor's degree in sports sciences.

Krajcovic, a Cleveland native, resides in Houston with his wife, Rachel.

RUSSELL JOYNER

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Russell Joyner is in his seventh season with the Houston Texans and serves as the director of football information systems.

Joyner is responsible for designing, developing and supporting information systems for the Texans personnel department, football administration and coaching staff. He was promoted to his role in February 2012 after serving as a football administration developer.

Before joining the Texans, Joyner served as a programmer analyst with the Atlanta Falcons (2007-10) and a support specialist with Virtual Systems (2005-07).

Originally from Lufkin, Texas, Joyner earned his Bachelor of Science in business computer information systems from the University of North Texas. He also played two seasons of collegiate tennis at Henderson State University.

Joyner and his wife, Dusti, currently live in Missouri City, Texas with their two girls, Taylor and Sadie.

MICHAEL DORE

FOOTBALL APPLICATIONS PROGRAMMER

Michael Dore is in his third season as a football applications programmer with the Houston Texans. He assists Director of Football Information Systems Russell Joyner in building, maintaining and enhancing football-related applications utilized by the football operations staff.

Before joining the Texans, Dore performed analytics and programming in the healthcare industry for two years. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Notre Dame and majored in science-business.

Originally from Orlando, Fla., Dore currently lives in Houston.

WELLER ROSS

FOOTBALL ANALYTICS COORDINATOR

Weller Ross joins the Houston Texans in 2017 as football analytics coordinator.

In his role, Ross is responsible for developing methods to analyze data relating to sport science, scouting, coaching and football administration.

As a football analytics intern with the Buffalo Bills from June 2015 to May 2016, Ross implemented statistical tools to analyze different aspects of football. He also served as an event logistics coordinator for three Super Bowls.

Ross graduated magna cum laude from the University of Tennessee with a degree in sport management in 2014 and earned his master's degree in sport management at Brock University in St. Catharines, Ont., Canada in 2017.

Ross and his wife, Gabrielle, reside in Houston.

WEEK 1 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 1: Houston 23 vs. Chicago 14 71,933 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 11, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

Brock Osweiler's first start as a Texan ended in a 23-14 victory in front of a record home crowd. Osweiler was steady, completing 22-of-35 for 231 yards, two touchdowns, and one interception. He was assisted by 100-yard performances rookie Will Fuller V and running back Lamar Miller.

Fuller led the wide receivers with five catches for 107 yards and a touchdown. Miller rushed for 106 yards on 28 carries. Eight different Texans player had a catch on the day, including four rookies: Fuller, Braxton Miller, Stephen Anderson, and Tyler Ervin. DeAndre Hopkins caught five passes for 54 yards and a touchdown, scoring in Texans season opener for the third-straight year.

J.J. Watt returned to the starting lineup for his 81st consecutive career start. The Texans defense sacked Jay Cutler five times in the win: Whitney Mercilus (2), Jadeveon Clowney (1), John Simon (1), and A.J. Bouye (1). Safety Andre Hal had the lone interception of the day. Cutler was 16-of-29 for 216 yards, one touchdown, one interception and 76.2 passer rating.

The Texans offense struggled early, as Osweiler threw an interception on the opening drive of the game. Osweiler's pass, intended for Hopkins, was picked off by Bears cornerback Tracy Porter. Eight plays and 75 yards later, Jeremy Langford scored on a one-yard touchdown run to give the Bears an early 7-0 lead.

Houston scored ten unanswered points in the second quarter on back-to-back drives. After Nick Novak's 28-yard field goal, the Texans added their first touchdown of the day. Hopkins caught a 23-yard touchdown pass to cap off a 10-play, 61-yard drive that took 4:49 off the clock. The Texans led 10-7 with 3:14 left in the first half.

The Bears fired back with a short 0:31 drive. Cutler's deep 54-yard pass to Alshon Jeffery was followed by a 19-yard touchdown throw to Eddie Royal on the next play. Chicago took a 14-10 lead heading into halftime.

Hal intercepted Cutler on the second play of the third quarter. Novak added another 28-yard field goal and the Texans trailed 14-13.

Houston regained its lead early in the fourth quarter when Osweiler threw his second touchdown of the day after a nine-play, 64-yard drive. Fuller V caught the short pass on third-and-7 to score an 18-yard touchdown. Novak added his third field goal, a 38-yard kick, and the Texans led 23-14 with 6:10 left in the game.

WEEK 2 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 2: Houston 19 vs. Kansas City 12 71,890 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 18, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans defense dominated in the 19-12 win over the Kansas City Chiefs, forcing three turnovers and recording four sacks on Alex Smith. Houston, who recorded three defensive fumble recoveries in the first half for the first time in franchise history, did not allow a touchdown the victory.

J.J. Watt notched his first sacks (1.5) of 2016, as well as five tackles, two quarterback hits, and a fumble recovery. Two other players had sacks, John Simon (1.5) and Benardrick McKinney (1.0), who also had a team-high eight tackles with one for a loss and a quarterback hit.

The Texans held Smith to just 186 yards through the air. Charcandrick West and Spencer Ware rushed for 61 and 57 yards, respectively. Jeremy Maclin led the Chiefs receivers with six catches for 68 yards.

The Texans posted 351 yards of total net offense in the win, 254 yards passing and 97 yards rushing. Rookie Will Fuller V had his second 100-yard performance in as many weeks, with four catches for 104 yards. DeAndre Hopkins led all Houston wide receivers with seven receptions 113 yards, including one touchdown. Lamar Miller rushed for 83 yards on 25 carries. Brock Osweiler was 19-of-33 for 268 yards, one touchdown, but was picked off twice by the Chiefs.

Both quarterbacks committed turnovers on their opening offensive series. Osweiler's pass, intended for Braxton Miller, was picked off at the goal line by Marcus Peters. Six plays later, the Texans would regain possession after Watt recovered a fumbled snap. Hopkins caught a 27-yard touchdown pass on the next play to give Houston an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Chiefs were held to just one field goal in the first half. Watt's sack on Smith for a loss of four yards led to the 53-yard kick to cap off a four-play drive, minus-2 yard drive. The Chiefs trailed 7-3 at the start of the second quarter.

Lamar Miller's nine-yard gain extended a Texans' drive on fourth-and-1. Nick Novak added a 32-yard field goal as Houston took a 10-3 lead with 4:16 left in the second quarter.

Houston's defense forced fumbles on the final two Kansas City drives of the first half. With less than two minutes remaining, Quintin Demps forced a fumble on running back Charcandrick West. Kevin Johnson scooped up the ball and returned it 52 yards to the Chiefs 14-yard line. Novak's 32-yard kick extended the Texans lead to ten points.

On the following drive, Simon sacked Smith causing a third fumble. Whitney Mercilus recovered and Novak attempted a career-long 57-yard field goal but missed. The Texans led 13-3 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, both teams settled for a pair of field goals in the fourth quarter. Osweiler's pass, intended for Hopkins, was picked off a second time by Peters. Santos added a 43-yard field goal and one from 35 yards. Novak successfully made kicks from 31 and 43 yards. The Texans took a 19-9 lead with 2:56 left in the game.

Santos kicked a 30-yard field goal after a 10-play drive with 0:52 left in the game, to get within one score. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by the Texans.

WEEK 3 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 3: Houston 0 at New England 27 66,829 • Gillette Stadium • Foxborough, Mass. • Sept. 22, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans were defeated 27-0, as the New England Patriots handed them their first loss of the 2016 season.

Turnovers plagued the Texans, who fumbled on two kickoff returns. The Patriots scored 14 points off Texans giveaways.

Brock Osweiler and the offense struggled as the Texans were shutout in the regular season for the first time in 13 years (Jacksonville, 12/7/03). Osweiler completed 24-of-41 passes for 196 yards and threw one interception. DeAndre Hopkins led all Texans receivers with four catches for 56 yards. Lamar Miller contributed 107 yards from scrimmage, (80 yards rushing, 27 yards receiving).

Rookie Jacoby Brissett made his first career start for the Patriots and was 11-of-19 for 103 yards, while also running for 48 yards and one touchdown. LeGarrette Blount rushed for 105 yards on 24 carries and scored two touchdowns, both in the second half.

The Texans defense was led by linebacker Benardrick McKinney who had a team-high 16 tackles, one sack, one quarterback hit, and one tackle for loss.

New England scored first on a 24-yard field goal by Stephen Gostowski with 2:07 left in the first quarter. A fumble on the ensuing kickoff return by Charles James II gave the Patriots possession at Houston's 22-yard line. Two plays later, Brissett scored on a 27-yard touchdown run and New England took a 10-0 lead.

The Texans offense was driving down the field when Osweiler's pass, intended for Hopkins, was intercepted by linebacker Jamie Collins who returned it 18 yards. McKinney's sack on third down provided a key stop.

On the first offensive drive of the second half, Gostowski added his second field goal of the day on a 25-yard kick. Tyler Ervin fumbled the return on the ensuing kick, giving New England possession at Houston's 21-yard line. Blount scored on a 1-yard touchdown run after two defensive pass interference calls on the drive. The Patriots extended their margin to 20-0 with 5:46 left in the third quarter.

Two drives later, Blount added his second score of the night on a 41-yard touchdown run.

WEEK 4 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 4: Houston 27 vs. Tennessee 20 71,815 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 2, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans bounced back with a 27-20 divisional win against the Tennessee Titans at NRG Stadium. After an early 14-0 start in the first quarter, Houston was tied or within one score for the remaining three quarters of a close game.

Houston's defense, without J.J. Watt for the first time since Week 17 of the 2010 season, faced Marcus Mariota for the first time in the series matchup. Mariota was limited to just 13 completions on 29 attempts, passing for 192 yards while throwing one interception. Running back DeMarco Murray rushed for 95 yards on 25 carries and scored both Titan touchdowns.

Jadeveon Clowney, who started opposite defensive end opposite Christian Covington, had two tackles, one for a loss, one sack, and two quarterback hits. Brian Cushing returned to the starting lineup after missing the past three games. Cushing finished with four tackles.

Brock Osweiler was 25-of-37 for 254 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. Rookie Will Fuller V led all Texans receivers with seven catches with 81 yards receiving. Fuller scored two touchdowns, one on offense and the other on a 67-yard punt return. Lamar Miller had 19 carries for 82 yards rushing and also caught three passes for 26 yards.

The Texans opened the game with scoring drives on their first three possessions to take a 17-3 lead over the Titans. After struggling to find the endzone in Week 3, Osweiler responded with touchdown passes to C.J. Fiedorowicz and Fuller on the first two drives. Houston's offense recorded 178 net yards in the first quarter and tied a franchise-high 10 first downs in its fast start.

Osweiler led the offense on a third scoring drive to start the second quarter. Nick Novak, who connected on 2-of-3 field goal attempts on the day, successfully booted a 53-yarder.

The Titans responded with a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter, both scoring runs by Murray. Quintin Demps picked off Mariota in the second quarter to give Houston possession at its 41-yard line, but the Texans turned it over on the next play. Osweiler's pass, intended for DeAndre Hopkins, was picked off by cornerback Jason McCourty. Murray rushed for his second touchdown on the ensuing drive. The Texans and Titans were tied 17-17 with 2:32 left in the first half. Novak added a 45-yard field goal with 0:11 remaining and the Texans took a 20-17 lead heading into halftime.

Ryan Succop kicked a 26-yard field goal to cap off a drive that took 7:56 off the clock in the third quarter. Osweiler threw his second interception of the day on Houston's following possession, but the Titans were unable to convert the takeaway into points. On the ensuing punt return, Fuller displayed his speed on a 67-yard return for a touchdown. The Texans took a 27-20 lead with 1:12 left in the third quarter.

WEEK 5 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 5: Houston 13 at Minnesota 31 66,683 • U.S. Bank Stadium • Minneapolis, Minn. • Oct. 9, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans lost their second road game of the season, falling 31-13 to the Minnesota Vikings at U.S. Bank Stadium. After falling into an early 24-0 deficit, Houston struggled to find the endzone until a late score by DeAndre Hopkins in the fourth quarter. Starting left tackle Duane Brown made his first start of the season in the Week 5 matchup.

Brock Osweiler was 19-of-42 for 184 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Hopkins scored the lone touchdown for Houston and caught five passes for 56 yards. C.J. Fiedorowicz led the team with 61 yards receiving on four catches.

Benardrick McKinney led the Texans defense with 10 tackles. Jadeveon Clowney recorded eight tackles and four tackles for a loss. Whitney Mercilus had 1.5 sacks, while Antonio Smith had 0.5 sacks in his second game of the season.

Sam Bradford completed 22-of-30 passes for 271 yards and two touchdowns. Adam Thielen led the Vikings receivers with seven receptions, 127 yards receiving, and a touchdown.

The Texans fell behind 24-0 before halftime. Sam Bradford led the Vikings on back-to-back touchdown drives to open the game. Thielen scored on a 36-yard pass, which was followed by a Matt Asiata one-yard run.

Houston moved into scoring range just once in the first quarter, but missed a 51-yard field goal.

The Vikings scored ten more points in the second quarter, adding a 19-yard field goal and a special teams touchdown. Cornerback Marcus Sherels returned a punt 79 yards for a touchdown. Minnesota took a 24-0 lead with 8:46 left in the second quarter.

The Texans, held without a first down until their first scoring drive, added their first points of the day on back-to-back drives. Novak successfully kicked field goals from 38 and 30 yards, respectively.

Houston trailed 24-6 at halftime.

Osweiler's pass, intended for Jaelen Strong, was picked off by safety Andrew Sendejo on third-and-9 with 9:55 left in the third quarter. The Vikings were unable to convert on the Texans only turnover of the game.

The Vikings extended their lead in the fourth quarter after Cordarrelle Patterson caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Bradford. Houston trailed 31-6 with 14:14 left in the game.

Osweiler led the Texans on a 12-play, 75-yard scoring drive. Alfred Blue added 39 yards rushing on six carries while a 22-yard catch-and-run by Fiedorowicz gave Houston a first down near the goal line. Hopkins caught the one-yard touchdown catch with 3:48 remaining.

WEEK 6 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 6: Houston 26 vs. Indianapolis 23 (OT)

71,891 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 16, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans defeated the Indianapolis Colts in an exhilarating 26-23 overtime win to improve to 4-2 and maintain their lead in the AFC South. Despite trailing 23-9 with seven minutes remaining, Houston rallied with a late fourth-quarter comeback scoring two touchdowns on back-to-back drives to send the game into overtime. Nick Novak's 33-yard field goal gave the Texans the win over their division rival.

Lamar Miller rushed for 149 yards on 24 carries and added three catches for 29 yards. He also scored two touchdowns, one rushing and one receiving in the win.

Brock Osweiler completed 25-of-39 for 269 yards for two touchdowns and one interception on the night. C.J. Fiedorowicz led all receivers with six catches for 85 yards and one touchdown.

Houston's defense was led by Benardrick McKinney with 12 tackles, one sack, one tackle for loss, and two quarterback hits. Whitney Mercilus and Andre Hal also recorded sacks. Robert Nelson Jr., recently promoted from the practice squad, intercepted Andrew Luck.

Luck was 21-of-32 for 252 yards for one touchdown and one interception. Frank Gore rushed for 106 yards on 22 carries.

In the first half, Texans struggled to move the ball offensively and were held to just a field goal. Houston was forced to punt on its first four drives, while the Colts scored 13 unanswered points to take an early lead.

Houston's defense held the Colts to a three-and-out on their opening offensive series. After beginning their second possession at the 50-yard line, the Colts scored first with a 41-yard field goal. Luck followed up with a 22-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jack Doyle on the Colts next drive. Viniatieri's 37-yard field goal gave the Colts a 13-0 lead with 6:55 left in the second quarter.

Novak's 27-yard field goal capped off the Texans lone scoring drive of the first half, an 11-play, 66-yard drive. The Texans trailed 13-3 at halftime.

On Houston's first possession of the third quarter, Miller scored on a one-yard run, his first rushing touchdown of his Texans career. The tandem of Miller and Alfred Blue rushed for three consecutive first downs on the drive. Novak missed the extra point attempt on the 10-play, 82-yard drive. Houston trailed 13-9 with 7:06 left in the third quarter.

A key third-quarter sack by Mercilus on fourth-and-1 stopped the Colts drive in the red zone. The Texans took over at their 13-yard line but the drive was short-lived after a holding call on Hopkins followed by an interception by Osweiler. The pass, intended for Hopkins, was picked off by Vontae Davis.

Two plays later, Luck rushed for a 14-yard touchdown to extend the Colts lead to two scores. Viniatieri added a 36-yard field goal on the next series. Houston trailed 23-9 in their biggest deficit of the game with 7:12 left in the game.

Late in the fourth quarter, Houston's offense gained momentum with three consecutive passes from Osweiler to Hopkins. Miller scored on a 10-yard catch-and-run to end a 12-play, 75-yard drive. The Texans trailed 23-16 with 2:37 left in the game.

Houston's defense held the Colts to three-and-out on their ensuing possession. A sack by Hal followed by a tackle for loss by Mercilus gave the Texans another chance with less than two minutes remaining.

Houston picked up two first downs after Miller rushed for 16 yards and Fiedorowicz added an 11-yard reception. Fiedorowicz scored on a 26-yard touchdown just three plays later. The Texans tied the game 23-23 with 0:49 left in regulation.

The Texans defense held the Colts offense on third down after a quarterback hit by Jadeveon Clowney to send the game into overtime. Indianapolis won the coin toss and received the ball first. On third-and-3, McKinney's sack on Luck ended the drive and forced the overtime punt.

Jaalen Strong's first catch of the game came on the Texans first and only possession of overtime. Strong hauled in a 36-yard reception from Osweiler to get the Texans into field goal range. Novak kicked the game-winner just two plays later from 33 yards.

WEEK 7 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 7: Houston 9 at Denver 27

76,865 • Sports Authority Field at Mile High • Denver, Colo. • Oct. 24, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

In Brock Osweiler's return to Denver on Monday Night Football, the Texans fell 27-9 to the Broncos.

Despite remaining within one score until late in the third quarter, Houston's offense struggled to gain momentum and was limited to just three field goals. The Texans committed two costly fumbles that contributed to 10 unanswered points by the Broncos in the second half.

Running backs Lamar Miller and Alfred Blue each had 11 carries on the night. Blue rushed for 63 yards, with Miller adding 61 yards. Osweiler was 22-of-41 for 131 yards. DeAndre Hopkins led Texans receivers with five catches for 36 yards.

The Texans defense held Denver to three-and-out on six of their 12 possessions. The Texans held the Broncos to 3-of-11 on third down but struggled against the run. The Denver duo of C.J. Anderson and rookie Devontae Booker rushed for 190 yards and each scored a touchdown. A.J. Bouye had a team-high 11 tackles, nine solo, and two passes defensed.

Denver quarterback Trevor Siemian completed 14-of-25 passes for 157 yards and one touchdown.

The Texans took an early 6-0 lead in the first quarter with a pair of field goals, both from 43 yards. Houston's defense allowed just one first down and 15 net yards of passing through the first quarter.

Denver scored 14 unanswered points on back-to-back drives in the second quarter relying heavily on the ground game.

A pair of turnovers would end the next two Texans drives and lead to 10 Broncos points. After a fumble by Blue, Booker scored on a one-yard touchdown run to cap a 7-play, 72-yard scoring drive with 0:45 left in the third quarter.

The Broncos added a pair of field goals in the fourth quarter. On the Texans first offensive series, Osweiler's fumble led to a 22-yard Broncos field goal. Denver pulled away with a 24-9 lead with 11:36 left in the fourth quarter. Brandon McManus added a 32-yard field goal after the Texans failed to convert fourth-and-10 from its own 34-yard line, late in the fourth quarter.

WEEK 8 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 8: Houston 20 vs. Detroit 13 71,882 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 30, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans defeated the Detroit Lions, 20-13, and head into the bye week with a 5-3 record. Houston has won all five games at home this season, where they remain undefeated.

Houston's defense kept a red-hot Matthew Stafford and Lions offense scoreless until the fourth quarter. Despite orchestrating two scoring drives late in the game, Stafford was unable to lead a comeback effort at NRG Stadium. The Texans run defense held Detroit to just 58 yards on the ground in the win.

The Texans never trailed as Brock Osweiler led two touchdown drives to give the team a 14-0 lead in the first half. Osweiler was 20-of-29 for 186 yards, one touchdown, and one interception. DeAndre Hopkins caught four passes for 44 yards, while C.J. Fiedorowicz added 43 yards and a touchdown. Lamar Miller, who entered the game with a shoulder injury, rushed for 56 yards and a score. Alfred Blue contributed nine carries for 41 yards.

Stafford completed 27-of-41 passes for 240 yards and one touchdown. The Texans defense was stout on third down, as the Lions covered just 3-of-11 attempts. Jadeveon Clowney recorded a sack, one quarterback hit, and one tackle for loss, while John Simon had a team-high 8 tackles.

After a scoreless first quarter where Matt Prater missed a 49-yard kick for the Lions, the Texans took an early 14-0 lead, scoring on back-to-back drives. Ryan Griffin converted two third downs, catching passes for 23 and 12 yard gains on the possession. Osweiler was 5-of-7 for 56 yards on the scoring drive, which ended in a 6-yard touchdown pass to Fiedorowicz.

On Houston's next offensive series, a key Blue run on fourth down extended the drive. Hopkins' amazing one-handed grab moved the Texans down to the 1-yard line. Miller would then punch it in, giving Houston a 14-0 lead with 7:04 left in the first half.

The Texans were deep in Lions territory with 0:39 seconds remaining in the first half, but Osweiler's pass, intended for Hopkins, was intercepted by cornerback Johnson Bademosi. The Lions would capitalize, as Stafford orchestrated a five-play, 52-yard scoring drive that ended in a 47-yard field goal. The Texans headed into halftime with a 14-3 lead over Detroit.

Nick Novak kicked a 33-yard field goal with 5:51 left in third quarter to extend the Texans lead 17-3.

After three plays to Theo Riddick to start the drive, Stafford orchestrated his first touchdown drive of the game. After a defensive pass interference flag, the Lions gained 13 yards and a fresh set of downs. One play later, Riddick caught a one-yard touchdown pass and Detroit moved within one score, trailing 17-10 with 14:50 left in the game.

The Texans would respond, ripping off a nine-play drive that took 6:05 off the clock. That drive ended in Novak's second field goal of the day, giving Houston a 20-10 lead.

Despite starting their ensuing possession at their own 45-yard line, the Lions were unable to add another touchdown. Houston's defense held the Lions to a 34-yard field goal. The Lions trailed 20-13 with 2:57 remaining in the game.

Detroit attempted an onside kick after the score, but cornerback Robert Nelson Jr. recovered for the Texans at the Lions 44-yard line.

WEEK 10 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 10: Houston 24 at Jacksonville 21 62,091 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla. • Nov. 13, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans earned their first road win of the 2016 season, defeating the Jaguars, 24-21.

Houston scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, including one on defense. Brock Osweiler threw two touchdown passes in the win, finding tight ends Ryan Griffin and Stephen Anderson. Osweiler completed 14-of-27 for 99 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions, and added 23 rushing yards. DeAndre Hopkins led all Texans receivers with five catches for 48 yards.

Houston's offense collectively ran for 181 yards, led by Lamar Miller, who had 15 carries for 83 yards, including a long of 45. Akeem Hunt, who moved up from the practice squad this week, contributed 52 yards on eight attempts.

The Texans defense forced two turnovers and scored its first touchdown of the season on a pick-six by Kareem Jackson. Whitney Mercilus had a fumble recovery while Benardrick McKinney had a team-high seven tackles and also added two tackles for loss. Jaguars quarterback Blake Bortles completed 32-of-49 for 265 yards, two touchdowns, and one interception. John Simon and rookie D.J. Reader each had a sack on Bortles.

Houston took an early 7-0 lead as Jackson intercepted Bortles and returned it 43 yards for a score on the Jaguars opening offensive series. Bortles responded with a five-yard touchdown pass to Julius Thomas on the Jaguars next drive.

The Texans regained their lead on their next possession. Miller's 45-yard run to the goal line set up Osweiler's one-yard touchdown pass to Griffin. It capped off a 10-play, 75-yard drive that lasted 4:55. Houston took a 14-7 lead with 0:19 remaining in the first quarter.

The Texans led 14-10 at halftime.

After Reader's sack for a loss of eight yards and a tackle for loss by Eddie Pleasant, the Texans defense forced a three-and-out with 4:29 left in the third quarter. Tyler Ervin returned the ensuing punt 57 yards to give Houston possession at the Jacksonville seven-yard line. One play later, Osweiler threw his second touchdown of the day to Anderson. The Texans took a 21-10 lead.

Both teams added field goals in the fourth quarter. Nick Novak, having previously missed from 49 and 50 yards, was successful from 51 yards on this third kick of the day. The Texans extended the lead to 24-13 with 8:32 left in the game.

After a defensive pass interference call moved the ball 41 yards, Bortles orchestrated a scoring drive late in the fourth quarter. Bortles threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Allen Robinson on a 14-yard touchdown to cap off an 8-play, 92-yard drive. Robinson also scored the ensuing two-point conversion with 2:17 left in the fourth quarter but the comeback would fall short.

WEEK 11 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 11: Houston 20 at Oakland 27
76,473 • Estadio Azteca • Mexico City • Nov. 21, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans dominated for most of the Monday Night game in Mexico City but ultimately fell 27-20 after a fourth-quarter comeback by the Oakland Raiders.

The Raiders scored 14 unanswered points in the final quarter to come from behind in a closely-contested game at Estadio Azteca. Despite two turnovers in the first half, the Texans were tied 10-10 heading into the lockerroom. Houston allowed just three points off those turnovers, and added a takeaway of its own on the night, and held Oakland to just seven net yards of rushing in the first half.

On the night, Brock Osweiler was 26-of-39 for 243 yards, one touchdown, and one interception. He also added two carries for 19 yards.

Both Millers, Lamar and Braxton, scored touchdowns in the loss. Lamar Miller rushed for 104 yards on 24 carries while Braxton Miller caught five passes for 25 yards and his first career NFL score. C.J. Fiedorowicz led the receivers with six receptions and 82 yards receiving.

Raiders quarterback Derek Carr completed 21-of-31 for 295 yards and had three touchdowns and one interception. The Texans defense held the Raiders to just 30 net yards rushing and 4-of-11 on third down conversions. Benardrick McKinney led the defense with eight tackles and a tackle for loss.

On the opening drive of the game, DeAndre Hopkins had a catch-and-run that was ruled a touchdown but later overturned. The Texans would settle for a 32-yard field goal after converting 3-of-4 third downs on the drive. Houston took an early 3-0 lead after the 13-play, 61-yard drive that lasted 6:26.

The Raiders offense got on the board later in the first half. Running back Jalen Richard caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Carr, giving the Raiders a 7-3 lead with 14:54 left in the second quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Raiders regained possession after a muffed return by Tyler Ervin. Oakland took over at the Houston 19-yard line. The Texans defense held Oakland to a 19-yard field goal after two consecutive goal-line stops. The Raiders extended their lead, 10-3.

The Texans would respond, putting together a nine-play, 75-yard drive that ended with the first NFL touchdown scored by rookie Braxton Miller on a 12-yard pass from Osweiler. The Texans and Raiders tied 10-10 with 7:59 left in the second quarter.

The Texans and Raiders were all tied at 10 at halftime.

On the first play of the third quarter, A.J. Bouye intercepted Carr's pass, intended for Amari Cooper. It was just Carr's fourth interception on the season. Osweiler and the offense capitalized, adding a one-yard touchdown run by Lamar Miller to cap off a 13-play, 65-yard drive.

The Raiders were held to a field goal in the third quarter. Janikowski kicked a 20-yard field goal and the Raiders trailed 17-13.

Nick Novak added his second kick of the day, a 19-yard field goal, and to give the Texans a 20-13 lead, but it was short-lived. Carr threw a deep pass to fullback Jamize Olawale who scored on a 75-yard touchdown pass just one play later.

The Texans were within scoring range to take the lead at the Oakland 15-yard line, but were unable to convert a fourth-and-inches. After a short pass to Latavius Murray on second down that led to a 39-yard gain, Carr threw a 35-yard touchdown pass to Amari Cooper. Oakland took a 27-20 lead with 4:43 remaining.

WEEK 12 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12: Houston 13 vs. San Diego 21

71,897 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Nov. 27, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell 21-13 to the San Diego Chargers for their first home loss of the 2016 season. Despite a late comeback, Houston dropped its second consecutive game as it came off a short week following the Monday night game in Mexico City.

Four turnovers and penalties plagued the Texans. Houston, flagged eight times in the first half, committed nine penalties for 58 yards on the day.

Brock Osweiler was 22-of-37 for 246 yards with one rushing touchdown and three interceptions. DeAndre Hopkins had a team-high five catches for 70 yards. The Texans rushed for 114 yards, led by Lamar Miller who had 19 carries for 57 yards. Miller also added three receptions for 18 yards.

San Diego quarterback Philip Rivers completed 22-of-30 passes for 242 yards, three touchdowns, and one interception. Dontrelle Inman led all San Diego receivers with six catches for 119 yards and one touchdown.

The Texans defense held the Chargers to 67 yards rushing. Benardrick McKinney led the team with 12 tackles, including eight solo, one sack, two quarterback hits, and one tackle for loss. Quintin Demps' interception was Houston's lone takeaway of the day.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Texans took an early lead after a one-yard quarterback plunge by Osweiler. Will Fuller's 33-yard catch on third down was the key play of the drive, giving Houston the ball on the six-yard line. Osweiler's run capped off a 10-play, 72-yard drive. Houston led 7-0 with 11:11 remaining in the second quarter.

The Chargers scored touchdowns on back-to-back drives in the second quarter. Rivers responded with a 52-yard touchdown pass to Inman, tying the game at seven.

A turnover ended Houston's next offensive series. Osweiler's pass, intended for Hopkins, was picked off by cornerback Casey Hayward. Gordon rushed for a 19-yard gain on third-and-1 to set up the Chargers next score. Rivers threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Tyrell Williams on the next play.

After missing a 54-yard field goal, the Chargers headed into halftime with a 14-7 lead.

Both teams had turnovers in the third quarter. On the Texans second possession after halftime, Lamar Miller's 20-yard gain was negated after a fumble. San Diego took over at its 21-yard line but the drive was cut short when the Texans forced a takeaway of their own. Demps intercepted Rivers on third down.

Nick Novak added a 19-yard field goal and the Texans trailed 14-10 with 14:09 in the fourth quarter.

Rivers added his third touchdown of the day as he connected with Hunter Henry.

With less than two minutes remaining, the Texans looked to mount their comeback. On fourth-and-three from deep in Houston territory, Osweiler scrambled 21 yards for a first down. Novak added his second field goal of the day, a 45-yarder, to finish a nine-play, 60-yard drive that took just 2:03.

Jonathan Grimes recovered the ensuing onside kick for Houston. With 0:12 remaining, Osweiler attempted two Hail Mary passes but did not succeed as the final play of the game ended in an interception.

WEEK 13 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 13: Houston 13 at Green Bay 21 77,867 • Lambeau Field • Green Bay, Wis. • Dec. 4, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell 21-13 to the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field.

Despite Aaron Rodgers leading the Packers on two fourth-quarter scoring drives, the Texans responded with a touchdown of their own late in the game, a DeAndre Hopkins catch-and-run score, but it wouldn't be enough to emerge victorious at Lambeau.

Brock Osweiler threw two touchdown passes and was 22-of-35 for 202 yards in the loss. Seven different receivers caught a pass, with Hopkins and Ryan Griffin scoring touchdowns. The Texans rushed for 123 yards, led by Jonathan Grimes who had five carries for a team-high 43 yards on the ground.

Outside linebacker Whitney Mercilus had the lone sack of the day as well as four tackles, one quarterback hit, two tackles for loss, and a fumble recovery. The Texans defense was without Jadeveon Clowney, who didn't travel with the team to Green Bay.

Rodgers completed 20-of-30 passes for 209 yards and two touchdowns. Jordy Nelson led the Packers receivers with eight catches for 118 yards and a touchdown.

Both teams exchanged fumbles in the first quarter, but neither was able to convert the takeaway into points. After a scoreless first quarter, Green Bay converted a short field into the first score of the day. The Texans turned the ball over on downs near mid-field after an unsuccessful fourth-and-1 attempt.

After Rodgers threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to Randall Cobb, Green Bay took a 7-0 lead with 8:02 left in the second quarter.

The score held and the the Texans headed into halftime trailing 7-0.

On the first possession of the second half, Osweiler's 24-yard pass to Will Fuller V on third-and-9 kept the Texans drive alive. Osweiler also connected on throws to C.J. Fiedorowicz and Hopkins. On fourth-and-1, Osweiler's six-yard pass to Griffin resulted in Houston's first touchdown of the day. Houston and Green Bay were tied 7-7 with 7:32 left in the third quarter.

Green Bay scored 14 unanswered points on back-to-back drives in the fourth quarter. The Texans pinned the Packers deep in their own territory, forcing them to start their drive at the 2-yard line. Rodgers orchestrated a 12-play, 98-yard drive that ended in a 32-yard touchdown to Jordy Nelson. The Packers followed up with a three-yard touchdown run by fullback Aaron Ripkowski on their next possession.

Green Bay took a 21-7 lead with 4:18 left in the fourth quarter.

Osweiler and the Texans marched down the field with completions to Fuller V, Grimes, and Griffin. Hopkins caught a 44-yard touchdown pass to move the Texans within one score again. After a missed extra point attempt, the Texans trailed 21-13.

Houston attempted an onside kick with less than two minutes remaining, but Green Bay recovered.

WEEK 14 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 14: Houston 22 at Indianapolis 17 65,250 • Lucas Oil Stadium • Indianapolis, Ind. • Dec. 11, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

In a game featuring two teams tied for first place in the AFC South, the Texans responded with a key 22-17 win to snap their three-game losing streak and sweep the Indianapolis Colts for the first time in franchise history.

Houston's defense forced three turnovers and had 13 quarterback hits on Andrew Luck. Both safeties, Quintin Demps and Andre Hal, intercepted the Colts quarterback. Jadeveon Clowney recorded a strip sack while Whitney Mercilus had the ensuing fumble recovery. Nick Novak was 5-for-5 on field goals, including three converted off of Indianapolis turnovers.

Lamar Miller scored a touchdown and rushed for 107 yards on 21 carries, eclipsing the 1,000 yard mark on the season for just the second time in his career. The Texans rushed for 185 net yards as a team in the win and dominated time of possession, holding the ball for 36 minutes to the Colts 23. Brock Osweiler completed 14-of-24 passes for 147 yards on the day. He threw passes to eight different receivers in the win.

Indianapolis took an early 3-0 lead after Adam Vinatieri's 32-yard field goal on their first offensive series of the day.

Houston responded with a field goal of its own after the Texans defense forced its first turnover of the game. The Colts second offensive drive ended when Demps intercepted Luck's pass, intended for tight end Dwayne Allen. Demps added a 15-yard return and Novak's 21-yard kick tied the game 3-3 with 4:00 remaining in the first quarter.

On the next offensive series, Osweiler responded with a scoring drive extended by three big conversions on third down: a 22-yard catch by DeAndre Hopkins, a 19-yard run by Akeem Hunt, and then 6-yard sliding catch by C.J. Fiedorowicz for a first-and-goal. Lamar Miller's two-yard touchdown run capped off a 12-play, 80-yard drive. The Texans took a 10-3 lead with 2:26 left in the first half.

After Adam Vinatieri missed a 55-yard field goal late in the second quarter, allowing the Texans to take over on downs at their own 45-yard line. After a short drive, Novak added his second field goal of the day, connecting from 52 yards.

The Texans headed into halftime with a 13-3 lead.

Luck threw his second interception of the day on the Colts on the opening drive of the second half. Hal picked off Luck after pressure by Clowney on the Colts quarterback. Novak added his second field goal of the day off a turnover. Houston extended its lead 16-3.

The Colts scored their first touchdown of the day on the next drive. After a defensive pass interference call, Frank Gore scored on an 18-yard touchdown catch.

Luck and the Colts, looking to score on back-to-back drives, turned the ball over at the Texans 3-yard line. Clowney's strip sack resulted in a fumble recovery for Mercilus and a big stop for the Texans defense late in the third quarter. Novak successfully added a 41-yard field goal, to give Houston a 19-10 lead with 11:58 left in the final quarter.

On the ensuing possession, Luck found T.Y. Hilton for a 14-yard catch on a tipped pass. Two plays later, Hilton caught a 35-yard touchdown pass to get the Colts within two points of the Texans.

Vince Wilfork's big stop on fourth-and-1 ended the Colts final drive. The Texans offense took over on downs and Osweiler ended the game in victory formation.

Houston took sole possession of the AFC South, improving to 7-6 on the season, and a perfect 4-0 in the division.

WEEK 15 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 15: Houston 21 vs. Jacksonville 20

71,803 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Dec. 18, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans, led by backup quarterback Tom Savage, rallied from a 13-point deficit to defeat the Jacksonville Jaguars 21-20 at NRG Stadium.

The Texans, who trailed for most of the game, took the lead with a late fourth-quarter touchdown run by Lamar Miller, who had 22 carries for 63 yards on the day. Savage completed 23-of-36 passes for 260 yards. DeAndre Hopkins had a season-high eight catches and led the Texans with 87 yards receiving. Nick Novak was a perfect 4-of-4 with field goals from 39, 45, 43 and 27 yards.

The Texans defense, playing without injured starters Whitney Mercilus and Johnathan Joseph, held Jacksonville to just 150 net yards of offense. Benardrick McKinney led the team with seven tackles, one sack, two quarterback hits, and one tackle for loss. Jadeveon Clowney also recorded one sack, two quarterback hits, three tackles for loss, and one pass defended. Houston defensive unit held Blake Bortles to just 12-of-28 through the air for 92 yards and one interception.

The Jaguars took an early 13-0 lead, after Brock Osweiler threw interceptions on back-to-back possessions. Osweiler was then replaced by Savage in the second quarter. Osweiler completed 6-of-11 for 48 yards before exiting the game.

The Jaguars scored ten points off Osweiler's two interceptions, including a one-yard touchdown run by Bortles. Savage then entered the game with 8:31 left in the second quarter. His first offensive series stalled after an unsuccessful fourth-and-goal attempt.

Houston's first points of the game came on a safety when Jacksonville was called for offensive holding enforced from its own endzone.

With less than two minutes remaining in the first half, Savage led the Texans on a six-play, 40-yard scoring drive with back-to-back passes to Ryan Griffin and Hopkins. Novak's 39-yard field goal cut the Jaguars lead to one possession.

The Texans trailed 13-5 at halftime.

Novak added a 45-yard field goal in the third quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, Marquise Lee returned it 100 yards for the score, giving the Jaguars a 20-8 lead.

The Texans pulled ahead with 2:51 remaining in the fourth quarter. Savage completed passes to Will Fuller V, Griffin, and Lamar Miller for 10, 8, and 10 yards, consecutively, on the scoring drive. Miller's one-yard touchdown run capped off a 8-play, 52-yard drive, giving Houston a one point lead.

Houston's defense kept Bortles and the Jaguars offense scoreless in the final quarter. Safety Quintin Demps intercepted Bortles on Jacksonville's final possession of the game. Savage ended the Week 15 win in victory formation as the Texans improved to 8-6 on the season.

WEEK 16 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 16: Houston 12 vs. Cincinnati 10
71,836 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Dec. 24, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

Christmas came early for the Texans, who locked up the AFC South with a 12-10 win over the Cincinnati Bengals on Saturday night at NRG Stadium. A missed last-second field goal sealed the victory in front of a home crowd.

With the Titans falling to the Jaguars on the road earlier in the afternoon, Houston needed to win to earn their second-consecutive division title and playoff appearance.

Tom Savage made his first career NFL start against Cincinnati. The third-year quarterback and the Texans offense didn't gain much momentum until after halftime. After a scoreless first half, Savage led the Texans on three scoring drives, two field goals and one touchdown. Savage completed 18-of-29 for 176 yards and threw no interceptions. DeAndre Hopkins caught three passes for 43 yards, while C.J. Fiedorowicz made four catches for 42 yards.

Alfred Blue also got his first start of the season with Lamar Miller out with an ankle injury. Blue scored his first touchdown of the year on a 24-yard run in the fourth quarter. He finished the night with 21 carries for 73 yards in the win.

The Texans defense was led by A.J. Bouye with nine tackles and three passes defended. Andy Dalton, sacked three times, was 28-of-41 for 268 yards, one touchdown, and one interception. Whitney Mercilus recorded two sacks, two quarterback hits, and two tackles for loss. Jadeveon Clowney had one sack, one quarterback hit and one tackle for loss. Quintin Demps had the lone takeaway for the Texans, picking off Dalton's for his third interception in as many weeks.

Nick Novak was 2-for-2, connecting on field goals from 25 and 22 yards. Novak has now made 16 consecutive field goals, tying the second-longest streak in Texans history.

It was a battle of the defenses in the first half, with each team punting six times. The Bengals took a 3-0 lead heading into the locker room after Bengals kicker Randy Bullock connected on a 43-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter.

After a scoreless first half, the Texans scored on back-to-back possessions to start the third quarter.

Savage orchestrated an 11-play, 68-yard drive resulting in a field goal to open the second half. Novak's 25-yard kick tied the game 3-3 with 9:05 remaining in the third quarter.

Three defensive penalties resulted in first downs for Houston's offense, two defensive pass interference calls on Adam Jones and a roughing the passer call for first down. Akeem Hunt's 24-yard catch-and-run moved the Texans to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Novak's 22-yard field goal gave Houston its first lead with 13:31 left in the fourth quarter, but it would be short-lived.

Dalton, after being intercepted by Demps, returned to the field and threw his first touchdown pass of the day. On third-and-five, Dalton's pass to Brandon LaFell resulted in an 86-yard touchdown. The Bengals took a 10-6 lead with 10:45 left in the game.

Savage kicked off the ensuing drive with three consecutive first downs: Will Fuller V had a 19-yard gain followed by an 11-yard run by Savage, and then a 21-yard catch by Hopkins to move the Texans to the Cincinnati 24-yard line. On the next play, Blue's 24-yard touchdown run gave Houston a lead they would never relinquish.

Bullock missed the 43-yard field goal attempt as time expired and Houston earned the 2016 AFC South title in back-to-back seasons.

WEEK 17 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 17: Houston 17 at Tennessee 24

65,205 • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • Jan. 1, 2017

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell 24-17 to the Tennessee Titans in the final game of the 2016 regular season.

Tom Savage started the game but left early in the second quarter, and was ruled out with a concussion at halftime. He was 5-of-8 for 25 yards. Brock Osweiler, who finished the game, was 21-of-40 for 253 yards, passing for one touchdown and rushing for another. DeAndre Hopkins led all Texans receivers with seven catches for 123 yards.

The Texans defense, which was without starters Jadeveon Clowney, Johnathan Joseph, Brian Cushing, and John Simon, was led by cornerback Denzel Rice with a team-high nine tackles. Rookie Joel Heath recorded his first two career NFL sacks.

On the Texans opening series, a sack on Savage resulted in a fumble recovery in the endzone by Titans defensive end Daquan Jones. Tennessee took an early 7-0 lead with 9:57 left in the first quarter.

With 7:19 left in the second quarter, Quintin Demps intercepted Matt Cassel and added a 19-yard return to knock the Titans out of field goal range. This was Demps fourth straight game with an interception.

Cassel threw his first touchdown pass with 0:23 left in the first half. Richard Mathew's two-yard catch gave the Titans a 14-0 lead heading into halftime.

Osweiler orchestrated the Texans first touchdown drive of the day on the opening drive of the second half. On fourth-and-goal, C.J. Fiedorowicz caught a four-yard touchdown pass to cap off a 13-play, 81-yard drive. The Texans converted five first downs, including two on big plays to Hopkins and Will Fuller V. Houston trailed 14-7 with 10:39 left in the third quarter.

Tennessee responded with a two-yard touchdown run by Derrick Henry on the next drive to extend the Titans lead, 21-7.

With 3:11 left in the game, Osweiler ended a 14-play, 75-yard drive with a one-yard scramble into the endzone. Houston cut the Titans advantage to 24-17, but were unable to complete the comeback.

AFC WILD CARD GAME SUMMARY

AFC Wild Card: Houston 27 vs. Oakland 14

71,790 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Jan. 7, 2017

GAME SUMMARY

In front of a home crowd of 71,790, the Houston Texans defeated the Oakland Raiders 27-14 in the AFC Wild Card game to advance to the next round of the NFL playoffs.

In his return to the starting lineup, Brock Osweiler completed 14-of-25 passes for 168 yards, throwing one touchdown, and rushing for another. DeAndre Hopkins led all receivers with five catches for 67 yards and caught Osweiler's lone TD throw.

The Texans rushed for 124 net yards, led by Lamar Miller's 73. This was Miller's first game back since Week 15.

Houston's defense had another dominant performance, forcing three turnovers on rookie quarterback Connor Cook and holding the Raiders to just 203 total yards of offense. The Texans also forced eight-consecutive Oakland punts through the second and third quarters.

Whitney Mercilus recorded two sacks, two quarterback hits and three tackles for loss. Jadeveon Clowney, in his playoff debut, had an interception along with Corey Moore and A.J. Bouye. Johnathan Joseph led the defense with 10 tackles (all solo) and three passes defended.

The Texans took an early 10-0 lead after a 50-yard Nick Novak field goal and an early takeaway. Clowney tipped and intercepted Cook's pass, intended for Latavius Murray, deep in Oakland territory. One play later, Miller scored on a 4-yard touchdown run.

After a 37-yard punt return by Jalen Richard, the Raiders responded with a scoring drive of their own. Murray rushed for a two-yard touchdown to cap off a five-play, 38-yard drive. Oakland trailed 10-7 with 1:06 left in the first quarter.

Novak added his second field goal of the day with a 38-yard kick to finish off a 10-play, 75-yard drive. The Texans took a 13-7 lead in the second quarter.

With less than two minutes remaining in the first half, Osweiler threw two deep passes to Will Fuller V and Hopkins to move the Texans offense down the field. Hopkins' 38-yard catch gave Houston a first-and-goal at the three-yard line. Two plays later, Hopkins caught a two-yard touchdown pass, his first career postseason score, to cap off a four-play, 60-yard drive. The Texans led 20-7 with 1:24 left in the second quarter.

Fuller's 19-yard catch-and-run extended a Texans drive late in the third quarter. Osweiler's deep pass to Hopkins in the endzone drew a defensive pass interference call on Oakland, giving Houston first-and-goal at the one-yard line. Osweiler would then rush for a one-yard touchdown run to give the Texans a 27-7 lead.

On the next drive, a defensive pass interference call on Houston moved the ball 25 yards down the field to give Oakland possession with first-and-goal. Cook connected with Andre Holmes on an eight-yard touchdown pass. Oakland trailed 27-14.

The Raiders final two possessions ended in interceptions. Moore picked off a pass intended for Amari Cooper and returned it 20 yards. On Oakland's final offensive play, Bouye picked off Cook on fourth-and-10. The Texans finished the game in victory formation.

AFC DIVISIONAL GAME SUMMARY

AFC Divisional: Houston 16 at New England 34

66,829 • Gillette Stadium • Foxborough, Mass. • Jan. 14, 2017

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell 34-16 to the New England Patriots in the Divisional Round of the NFL playoffs. In a closely contested game, Houston was within one score of the Patriots in the fourth quarter, but fell behind after two turnovers in the final period.

The Texans defense forced three turnovers of its own, including two interceptions of Tom Brady. A.J. Bouye and Andre Hal picked off the Patriots quarterback, who had just two interceptions all season. Houston scored 13 points off takeaways. Whitney Mercilus and Brian Cushing each had a sack and combined for four quarterback hits on Brady.

Houston's defense held New England under 100 yards rushing, but big plays plagued the Texans, including a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Dion Lewis. Lewis scored three touchdowns, one receiving, one rushing, and the aforementioned return. Brady completed 18-of-38 for 287 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions and had a passer rating of 68.6.

Brock Osweiler completed 23-of-40 for 198 yards, throwing one touchdown and three interceptions. DeAndre Hopkins led all Texans receivers with six catches for 65 yards. C.J. Fiedorowicz scored the lone touchdown and had three receptions for 36 yards. Nick Novak was 3-of-3 on field goals from 33, 27, and 46 yards.

After a defensive pass interference call, Tom Brady threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Dion Lewis. The Patriots took an early 7-0 lead with 9:27 left in the first quarter.

The Texans responded, moving the ball down the field into scoring range. Nick Novak kicked a 33-yard field goal to give Houston its first points of the game.

The ensuing kickoff resulted in a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Lewis. Patriots took a 14-3 lead with 1:00 left in the first quarter.

The Texans then scored 10 points off two takeaways in the second quarter.

On the Patriots next offensive series, Bouye picked off Brady, giving the Texans possession at the New England 27-yard line. Six plays later, Novak added a 27-yard field goal.

The Texans scored again after recovering the ensuing kickoff in the red zone. Akeem Dent forced a fumble on Lewis' return, which was recovered by Eddie Pleasant at the Patriots 12-yard line. Two plays later, Osweiler connected with Fiedorowicz on a 10-yard touchdown pass. The Texans trailed 14-13 with 10:49 left in the second quarter.

Brady threw a deep 48-yard pass to Julian Edelman to move the Patriots into Houston territory. The Texans defense put up a goal-line stand to hold New England to a field goal. Gostkowski's 19-yard field goal gave the Patriots a 17-13 lead heading into halftime.

After the Texans defense forced a three-and-out on the opening drive of the second half, Brady orchestrated a scoring drive with back-to-back first downs to Edelman. James White caught a 19-yard touchdown pass to cap off the nine-play, 90-yard drive to extend the Patriots lead to 11.

Hal picked off Brady later in the quarter, which lead to a Novak's 46-yard field goal.

Osweiler threw his second interception of the game when Logan Ryan picked off his pass. Brady and the Patriots took over at the Houston 6-yard line following Ryan's 23-yard return. Lewis scored on a one-yard rushing touchdown. The Patriots took a 31-16 lead with 12:16 left in the fourth quarter. Gostkowski added a 43-yard field goal as New England pulled away 34-16.

TRAINING CAMP

The Texans will start 2017 Training Camp presented by XFINITY at The Greenbrier in White Sulphur Springs, W.V. This will be the first time in franchise history that the Texans hold training camp outside of the city of Houston. The full Greenbrier training camp schedule can be found on the next page.

Houston Texans Training Camp presented by XFINITY will begin on Wednesday, July 26 as the Texans take the field in preparation for the 2017 season. This year's camp will start at The Greenbrier in White Sulphur Springs, W.V. and will be the first time in franchise history that the Texans hold training camp outside of the city of Houston.

Fifteen training camp practice sessions will be open to the media and public at The Greenbrier: Wed.-Sun., July 26-30; Tues.-Sat., Aug. 1-5; Fri.-Sat., Aug. 11-12; and Mon.-Wed., Aug. 14-16. The practices from Aug. 15-16 will be joint practices with the New England Patriots. The practices on Mon., Aug. 7 and Thurs., Aug. 17 are open to the media only.

Tickets and parking information for the general public can be found online at The Greenbrier website: www.greenbrier.com/texans.

The Texans will also hold two open practices at the Houston Methodist Training Center when they return to Houston on August 21-22 following their second preseason game.

THE GREENBRIER FAST FACTS

- Founded in 1778, the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway purchased the resort in 1910 and embarked on a major expansion that was completed in 1913
- In 1942, the U.S. Army purchased The Greenbrier and turned it into a 2,000 bed hospital that treated 25,000 patients before closing in 1946. It was then sold back to the railroad
- The Greenbrier is now owned by the Governor of West Virginia, Jim Justice
- In the event that the United States came under nuclear attack, The Greenbrier has an underground bunker that served as an emergency shelter for the United States Congress during the Cold War. The bunker was kept fully stocked for over 30 years and was never used but it wasn't revealed to the public until 1992
- The Greenbrier is a U.S. National Historic Landmark
- More than 55 unique activities are offered at the 11,000-acre resort, including four championship golf courses, one of the world's most celebrated spas, shopping, gaming, equestrian sports, fishing, off-road driving and more
- The guest list includes 26 of our country's 45 Presidents
- Offers over 20 dining and lounging areas
- Has more than 2,000 employees
- Has 710 hotel rooms
- Hosted the New Orleans Saints' training camp from 2014-16 and the Spring League (semi-pro football) in 2017

MARC VANDERMEER

🐦 @TEXANSVOICE

VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING & PLAY-BY-PLAY VOICE

Marc Vandermeer has been a team fixture since it began play in 2002, calling every snap the Houston Texans have ever taken as the team's play-by-play announcer. Vandermeer officially joined the Texans as the director of radio broadcasting in June 2012 and was promoted to senior director of broadcasting in June 2013 before being named vice president of broadcasting in 2016.

In his role, Vandermeer serves as the "Voice of the Texans" and oversees the programs and content on HoustonTexans.com, Texans Radio on the flagship station KILT SportsRadio 610 AM and Texans television programming on ABC-13/KTRK and Fox Sports Southwest. Since the Texans began play, Vandermeer is the only current team employee to attend every single game in franchise history. Vandermeer was also co-host of the morning drive show for SportsRadio 610 until May 2012.

Vandermeer came to the Texans following a successful three-year run as the play-by-play voice for the Miami Hurricanes on 560 WQAM. He called the action for the Hurricanes' football and baseball national championship teams in 2001, hosted the athletic program's weekly show, Hurricane Hotline and filled in on the WQAM Morning Show.

From 1995-99, Vandermeer was the play-by-play voice for the UMass Minutemen and served as the UMass Radio Network Director for WHMP AM/FM. He was promoted to station manager his final year with WHMP.

Vandermeer has called NCAA Basketball Tournament games for Westwood One Radio and was the play-by-play voice for Central Michigan University from 1992-95. He also serves on the Junior Achievement Board of Directors.

The Boston University alumnus and his wife, Corinne, have two sons, 11-year old Luke, and Liam, who was born in January of 2013.

DREW DOUGHERTY

🐦 @DOUGHERTYDREW

TEXANS TV HOST, SENIOR INTEGRATED MEDIA MANAGER

Drew Dougherty is the host of Texans TV and the team's senior integrated media manager. Dougherty is the on-air talent for video on the team's website and can be heard and seen on all team-related shows. The 2017 season will be his ninth with the team.

At 6:30 p.m. on Saturdays in the fall, Dougherty hosts 'Texans Extra Points', which can be seen locally on ABC-13/KTRK. In the offseason at 11 p.m. on the same channel, he is the host of 'Texans 360'.

He also interviews players and coaches on Texans TV on the team's website. Gamedays at NRG Stadium are busy, as he is on the videoboards hosting the pre- and postgame shows, as well as all in-game score updates and community features. On a weekly basis, he answers fan questions in his offbeat web segment, which is called "Dear Drew".

In addition to his duties in front of the camera in English, Dougherty also hosts a weekly segment in Spanish called "Puntos Extra" with "La voz de los Texans" Enrique Vasquez.

From 2005 to 2009, Dougherty was the sports director at FOX34 and Telemundo46 in Lubbock. He was one of just a handful of journalists nationwide who broadcasted in both English and Spanish on a daily basis. He also hosted a few weekly coaches shows for the Texas Tech football, baseball and women's basketball teams, including Red Raider Sports with Mike Leach. Dougherty handled the TV play-by-play duties when the Lady Raiders and the baseball team were on the air and he also was the play-by-play voice for the Tech Red vs. Black spring football games as well as the ASCO West Texas High School Football All-Star games each June.

Dougherty's start in television began at Texas Cable News in Dallas. During his four years at TXCN, he produced Ford Sports Talk and Cadillac's Texas Legends in Sports. The latter show featured in-depth profiles of Bum Phillips, Darrell Royal, Ty Murray, Mary Lou Retton, Nolan Ryan and Don Meredith, to name a few. He also filled in as an anchor for the nightly, half-hour long Chevy SportsDay as well as the weekend sportscasts.

He triple-majored in Spanish, Latin American studies and print journalism at Southern Methodist University and also wrote for The Daily Campus and the Park Cities People during his time in college.

Dougherty grew up in Houston rooting for the Oilers, Astros and Rockets and graduated from Strake Jesuit College Preparatory. Drew and his wife, Vita, are the proud parents of Marie, Robert and Oliver.

DEEPI SIDHU

@DEEPSLANT

INTEGRATED MEDIA MANAGER & TEXANS INSIDER

As the Texans Insider, Deepi Sidhu is a co-host on Texans Radio, Texans TV and daily contributor to HoustonTexans.com.

Sidhu, a co-host and associate producer on 'Texans Late Night,' co-hosts the newest addition to the Texans TV lineup, 'Texans Buzz,' which airs on Saturday nights in the fall on ABC-13/KTRK following the late local news. With a background in radio, Sidhu also assists on the programming and production side for all of the offseason and in-season Texans radio shows, which air on SportsRadio 610.

Prior to joining the Texans organization, Sidhu worked for the flagship station, SportsRadio 610. She wrote for CBS Houston and SportsRadio 610 websites, covering local professional and college sports. From the age of 15, Sidhu has been involved in radio broadcasting. She also had a weekly radio show on KPFT Houston, GenerAsian Radio, which she co-hosted and produced for 11 years. Sidhu also has been a freelance writer for multiple outlets including CNN.com and CNN's Headline News site, HLN.com.

Sidhu graduated from Purdue University with a bachelor's in electrical engineering and then attained her Master of Business Administration from the University of Houston in 2002.

Sidhu has resided in Houston for over 20 years. She and her husband, Sham, have three sons and live in Bellaire.

JOHN HARRIS

@JHARRISFOOTBALL

TEXANS ANALYST, INTEGRATED MEDIA MANAGER

John Harris joined the organization as a football analyst and sideline reporter in April 2014 and was hired full-time in April 2015. In addition to his sideline duties on game day, he writes articles for HoustonTexans.com and contributes to Texans Radio and Texans TV on a regular basis.

Harris has spent his time around the game as a coach's son, player, coach, writer, radio host, television guest and all-around football historian. He provides a perspective not many can - a thorough understanding of X's and O's with the ability to communicate that love and understanding to readers and listeners.

After graduating as valedictorian and three-sport star at Lamar Consolidated High School in Rosenberg, Texas, Harris played four years at Brown University, earning the 1993 Eugene C. Swift Award for determination, hard work and courage. He earned two varsity letters in his time at Brown and played on the same defense as Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien. Harris also added a master's degree in accounting from the University of Virginia in 2002.

In 1994, Harris started his coaching career at the Episcopal School of Jacksonville (Fla.). In 1998, at the age of 26, Harris took over as the head coach of the school's varsity program. In three short years, he led them to the FHSAA playoffs for the first time in the 35-year history of the school. As such, he was voted District 6 Coach of the Year in 2000 after the team finished with the school's best record in 11 years.

While coaching, Harris also started his radio career as a college football expert on SportsRadio 610 in Houston. He provided analysis for the morning show for three years and eventually did so on the "John and Lance Morning Show" starting in 2002. He was a fixture on Thursday mornings for the next five years, discussing college football and the NFL Draft. Over the past 18 years, Harris has done numerous guest radio appearances throughout the country, from Portland, Ore. to Miami, Fla., not to mention guest spots on local and national television as well.

In 2007, Harris returned to Houston to start his full-time radio career, co-hosting the Sean and John show on 1560 The Game. He then transitioned to national radio, hosting the Overnight Takeover for the next three years. As a writer, his work has been featured on the front pages of YahooSports.com, FoxSports.com and collegefootballnews.com. In addition to his Texans duties, he provides NFL draft analysis for the Washington Post, football analysis for TexAgs.com and TexAgs radio and does color commentary for television broadcasts of select Southeastern Conference games.

Harris has been a member of the Executive Leadership Team for the Paul Bear Bryant College Coach of the Year Award for the past 10 seasons.

He is married to Paige and the couple lives in Houston with their children, Jack (17) and Maye (15).

Sideline Reporter

ABC-13/KTRK-TV is the official television home of the Houston Texans and the flagship station of the Houston Texans Television Network. Beginning his fourth season as preseason TV play-by-play announcer for the Texans is Kevin Kugler. Kugler is the national voice of Westwood One's NFL Sunday Night Football broadcasts and does TV work for the Big Ten Network.

Former San Francisco 49er and Houston Oiler, Spencer Tillman, is back as color commentator. Tillman is a TV analyst for FOX Sports' coverage of college football. On the sideline, Drew Dougherty of Texans TV and HoustonTexans.com, is in his fourth season with the pre-season broadcast crew.

Two in-house produced programs air weekly during the season and one during the offseason on KTRK. "Texans Extra Points" is a weekly preview of the upcoming game with guest analysts. The show is hosted by Drew Dougherty and airs Saturdays at 6:30 p.m.

"Texans Buzz" airs Saturdays at 11 p.m. and features, among many player guests, Drew Dougherty and Deepi Sidhu of HoustonTexans.com.

ABC-13's Eyewitness News Sports Director Greg Bailey will continue to host "Houston Texans: Inside the Game" Sundays at 10:35 p.m. with Spencer Tillman. The show features interviews with Texans players, one-on-one interviews with Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien and a recap of each Texans game.

"Texans Game Day" airs each Sunday morning at 8:30 a.m. on KPRC Local 2 with Sports Director Randy McIlvoy and a conversation with Head Coach Bill O'Brien. All Texans TV shows are rebroadcast each week on FOX Sports Southwest.

Marc Vandermeer
Play-By-Play

Andre Ware
Analyst

John Harris
Sideline Reporter

The Houston Texans and CBS Radio Houston reached a multi-year agreement in October 2011 to ensure SportsRadio 610 and 100.3 KILT-FM remained the radio home of the Houston Texans through the 2021 NFL season and the home of Texans Radio ancillary programming. SportsRadio 610 AM and 100.3 KILT-FM have been the flagship stations of the Houston Texans since the team entered play in 2002.

Texans Radio broadcasts three-hour pregame and postgame shows on SportsRadio 610 before and after every Texans game. The Texans Radio Network broadcast team of Marc Vandermeer and Andre Ware will continue to provide play-by-play and game analysis as they have done for the past 15 years. John Harris begins his fourth season handling sideline reporting duties, contributing to various Texans Radio and TV shows and writing for HoustonTexans.com. Harris also contributes to FootballTakeover.com and has previously hosted national shows for Yahoo! Sports Radio.

Texans fans are guaranteed 14 hours of dedicated Houston Texans programming every week during football season, including in excess of five hours on Mondays as part of "Texans Monday", a two-hour "Texans All Access" show every weeknight from 6-8 p.m. on SportsRadio 610 and streaming online at TexansRadio.com and via the Texans app for a variety of mobile devices.

Texans Radio on SportsRadio 610 is the best place to find team information on the airwaves. Exclusive shows with Head Coach Bill O'Brien (Mondays at 5 p.m.) and a player (Tuesdays at 6 p.m.) have drawn record ratings. Texans Radio also broadcasts a 60-minute condensed version of every game on Tuesdays from 8-9 p.m. on SportsRadio 610 called "Texans Replay." Additionally, "Texans All Access" airs from 6-7 p.m. on weekdays throughout the offseason.

Texans Radio also exclusively airs Houston Texans NFL Draft coverage, with 16 hours of live on-site coverage from NRG Stadium throughout the draft, and of Houston Texans Training Camp, with daily broadcasts from The Greenbrier throughout training camp.

TEXANS SPANISH-LANGUAGE RADIO

Mega 101 FM kicks off its first season as the flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Houston Texans and is the home of "The Texans Show" on Tuesdays at 6 p.m. CT during the season.

Enrique Vasquez is in his 16th season on the Texans Spanish radio broadcast and will serve as the play-by-play for the fourth straight season. Vasquez had served on the broadcast as color commentator since the team's inaugural season in 2002.

Vasquez began his career in sports radio and television in 1992 as a color analyst on the Houston Oilers Spanish Radio broadcast where he remained through the 1995 season. He has handled play-by-play duties for Fox Sports Americas on the network's international coverage of the NFL game of the week as well as Super Bowl XXXI and XXXII.

From 1998-2001, Vasquez served as play-by-play announcer on the Dallas Cowboys Spanish radio broadcast on select preseason game broadcasts as well as color commentator during the 2000 and 2001 seasons. He is also a regular contributor on HoustonTexans.com in both English and Spanish.

Gustavo Rangel begins his fourth season as color analyst for the Texans Radio Spanish broadcasts. Rangel is the chief editor at La Prensa de Houston and was previously a television reporter for Multimedios. He started as a sideline reporter with the Texans in the team's first two seasons in Houston and has covered every season of Texans football since then.

TEXANS SHOWS

TEXANS EXTRA POINTS

Host Drew Dougherty discusses the weekly state of affairs and previews the upcoming game with Texans experts. The show also provides the 'Keys to a Texans' win. Head Coach Bill O'Brien and Texans Analyst John Harris break down the X's and O's of a specific play in 'The Telestrator'.

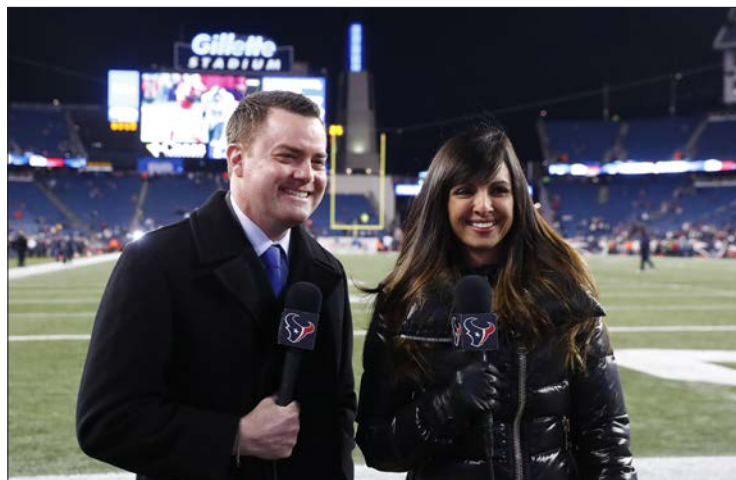

TEXANS 360

In the offseason, this news magazine show runs the gamut from Xs and Os to light-hearted interviews by the 'Kid Reporters'. Host Drew Dougherty takes you inside the locker room, under the helmet and everywhere in between to keep you up-to-date on your favorite football team.

TEXANS BUZZ

Texans Buzz is a look at the lighter side of Texans players from inside NRG Stadium. Hosted by Deepest Sidhu and Drew Dougherty, the weekly television program features a unique side of Texans football, including the popular 'Kid Reporter' and 'Player Reporter' segments. Texans Buzz airs during the regular football season on Saturday nights on ABC-13 after the late local news.

NRG STADIUM

The Texans have sold out 154 consecutive games at NRG Stadium. The indoor HD video boards were installed in 2013 at NRG Stadium. In addition to hosting Super Bowl LI in 2017, the stadium has played host to the Texas Bowl since 2006, the 2007 East-West Shrine Game, the 2011 & 2016 NCAA Men's Final Four, Super Bowl XXXVIII, Wrestlemania XXV, the 2016 Copa America Centenario Tournament and Rodeo Houston among other large-scale events.

The city of Houston has always been on the cutting edge of stadium development. Houston first introduced the Astrodome, which opened in 1965 as the world's first domed stadium. The trend continued in 2002 with the debut of NRG Stadium.

The first NFL stadium with a retractable roof, NRG Stadium (formerly known as Reliant Stadium) opened for business on Aug. 24, 2002, as the Texans hosted the Miami Dolphins in a preseason game. Houston's regular-season debut against the Dallas Cowboys on Sept. 8 was nationally televised on ESPN. The Texans stunned the Cowboys 19-10 before a raucous crowd, unveiling a gameday atmosphere that would become a staple throughout the Texans' inaugural campaign.

In 2013, the indoor high-definition video boards were installed at the north and south ends of the stadium. The Mitsubishi Electric Diamond Vision System boards are 14,549 square feet apiece and have a display resolution of 1,000 x 5,280 pixels in HD 1080i format.

Counting preseason and playoff games, the Texans have played to 154 consecutive sell-outs. They set a team record in 2016 with 574,947 fans during the regular season, an average of 71,868 per game. The Texans' largest crowd through 15 seasons was 71,933 for their season opener against the Chicago Bears on Sept. 11, 2016, the largest non-Super Bowl football crowd in the city's history.

Speaking of the Super Bowl, the world's largest sports spectacle took place in NRG Stadium for a second time in February 2017. The New England Patriots defeated the Atlanta Falcons, 34-28, in the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history after the Patriots trailed 28-3 at halftime. Super Bowl LI also was the first NFL championship game to be decided in overtime in league history and Lady Gaga headlined the halftime show in front of a crowd of 70,807. The city of Houston was awarded Super Bowl LI following a vote by NFL owners in May 2013 after a strong push from Texans Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Robert C. McNair and President Jamey Rootes.

The Super Bowl also was played in Houston for the first time in 30 years in 2004, when NRG Stadium hosted a memorable Super Bowl XXXVIII between the Patriots and Carolina Panthers. The Patriots won 32-29 on Adam Vinatieri's 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining before a crowd of 71,525. The event also featured elaborate pregame and halftime shows featuring the likes of Aerosmith, Beyoncé, Kid Rock, P. Diddy, Nelly, Toby Keith and Willie Nelson.

NRG Stadium has hosted numerous college football games, including the Texas Bowl since 2006, three Houston Bowls, the 2002 and 2005 Big 12 Championship Games, the 2007 East-West Shrine Game, the Bayou Bucket (Rice vs. Houston) and the annual AdvoCare Texas Kickoff since 2013. NRG Stadium housed the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Sweet 16 in 2008 and 2010 and hosted the Final Four in 2011 and 2016.

NRG Stadium also has become one of the nation's leading soccer venues. The U.S. Men's National Soccer Team hosted Mexico in May 2003 in the two teams' first match since their 2002 World Cup meeting. In 2005, NRG Stadium hosted the championship matches of the Mexican League's InterLiga qualification competition. The stadium hosted another U.S. vs. Mexico match (2008), a Mexico vs. Belize World Cup qualifier (2008) and hosted matches in the CONCACAF Gold Cup (2005, 2007 and 2009), as well as the Gold Cup semifinals (2011) and MLS All-Star Game (2010) featuring Manchester United. In July 2015, NRG Stadium hosted Mexico vs. Honduras as part of the 2015 Mexican National Team U.S. Tour. It also hosted three matches in the 2016 Copa America Centenario Tournament and will play host to the Manchester Derby between Manchester United and Manchester City in July 2017, which marks the first time the teams have met outside of the United States.

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo continued to play to a packed house in 2016, boasting such acts as The Band Perry, Jason Aldean, Jason Derulo, Miranda Lambert, Pitbull, Darius Rucker, Keith Urban and Kid Rock. NRG Stadium has also played host to concerts by Beyoncé, U2, The Rolling Stones, Metallica, One Direction, Ariana Grande, George Strait and Kenny Chesney, as well as premier events including WrestleMania XXV, Disney on Ice, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Ground broke on NRG Stadium on March 9, 2000. The stadium, covering 1.9 million square feet, features 44,000 seats on the sideline. There are 8,400 club seats and 195 suites, along with 10 party suites on the 300 level.

With the innovation of the retractable roof, Houston returned to outdoor NFL action in 2002 for the first time since Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974. The roof is made of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass fabric and takes 10 minutes to open and close. When it opens, the roof splits at the 50-yard line and docks in the end zones.

NRG Stadium features an open view of the playing field from the main concourse and on the club level. The main concourse is 40 feet wide, which makes it one of the largest in the NFL. Each concession stand has multiple televisions that enable Texans fans to stay on top of the action.

The Texans' front office is located on the south end of the stadium, enabling the club's day-to-day operations to be under one roof. Players report to the stadium to take part in film sessions, practice, treatment and training. The 10,000-square-foot weight room is among the largest in the league. The players can also take advantage of a three-lane lap pool.

Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien conducts his postgame press conferences in the team's media auditorium on the ground level. The stadium's press box is located on the eighth level of the stadium's west side, flanking Kirby Drive.

Across the street, the Houston Methodist Training Center features three outdoor grass practice fields. One field is lit for night sessions during training camp. The Houston Methodist Training Center also features an indoor practice field outfitted with FieldTurf. The air-supported structure offers the team a seamless transition from outdoor to indoor practice in case of inclement weather.

VIDEO BOARD QUICK FACTS

- When they were installed in 2013, they were the largest in-stadium HD video displays in the world and the widest display in professional sports.
- Image area is 52.49' (H) x 277.17' (W), totaling 14,549 square feet of display surface compared to 2,592 square feet of display surface on the old, standard definition boards that were used from 2002-12. That is a 561 percent increase in area.
- Display resolution of 1,000 x 5,280 pixels in HD 1080i format with 4.4 trillion colors and 960 Hz refresh rate for jitter-free HD images.
- Manufactured by Mitsubishi Electric's Diamond Vision Systems Division (Cowboy Stadium; Yankee Stadium; Lambeau Field; Fenway Park; Century Link Field).
- Second-largest end zone video display in the NFL.
- Wider than the wing span of a 747 plane and equal to roughly 3,050 40" LCD displays.

VIDEO BOARD FEATURES

- Texans fans experienced high definition video images in 2013 for the first time in NRG Stadium thanks to the video displays. The old video boards displayed standard definition images.
- Replays are further enhanced thanks to an additional slow-motion instant replay machine from EVS that captures four additional camera angles and the capability of network television replay footage to be shown.
- The 277-foot wide displays are the second-largest in the NFL or MLB. The portion of the displays that show game action are larger than all but four video boards in the NFL at 115 feet wide and 52.5 feet tall.
- A digital clock and down & distance have replaced the matrix displays that served the same purpose.
- In-game statistics are presented on the videoboard displays, as are out-of-town scores and fantasy football updates.
- All of the space on the displays is digital and can be changed out with graphics to enhance fan experience.

J.J. WATT

- Made four solo tackles at Dallas (10/5) in Week 5
- Scored his third touchdown of the season on a 45-yard fumble return in the fourth quarter vs. Indianapolis (10/9) in Week 6. Now has the most touchdowns by a defensive lineman in a single season since William "Refrigerator" Perry had three in 1985. Finished the game with seven tackles, 2.0 sacks, three tackles for loss, four quarterback hits and three passes defended. Set a franchise record for sacks through the first four seasons of a career with 40.5
- Became the franchise all-time leader in fumble recoveries when he recovered his ninth career fumble in the first quarter on Whitney Mercilus' sack-fumble of Ben Roethlisberger at Pittsburgh (10/20) in Week 7. Recorded his fifth sack of the season, dropping Roethlisberger for a 9-yard loss in the second quarter. Finished the game with three tackles, a tackle for loss and two quarterback hits to go along with his sack and fumble recovery
- Had the 12th multi-sack game of his career and second this season with 2.0 sacks at Tennessee (10/26) in Week 8. Also recorded his first forced fumble of the season on the third play of the second half, dropping Titans QB Zach Mettenberger for an 8-yard loss. Also had three tackles, two tackles for loss, two quarterback hits and a pass defended
- Recorded 1.5 sacks and tied a season high with seven tackles vs. Philadelphia (11/2) in Week 9. Also had five quarterback hits, including one that led to CB A.J. Bouye's 51-yard interception return for touchdown. Has at least one sack in four straight games
- Caught his second touchdown pass of the season on a 2-yard pass from QB Ryan Mallett in the first quarter at Cleveland (11/16). It was Watt's fourth overall touchdown of the season. He became the first defensive lineman since 1948 to have four touchdowns in a season. N.Y. Giants DE Ray Poole and Los Angeles Rams DE Jack Zilly both had four overall touchdowns in 1948. Became the first player since Chicago Bears DB J.C. Caroline in 1956 to score multiple touchdowns on offense and defense in the same season. Finished the game with five tackles, a season-high three tackles for loss, a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance
