ROBERT IRSAY

President and Treasurer

Borrow $800 from your husband or wife, and that'll get you through the Harbor Tunnel toll gates more than 1,000 times.

For not much more than $800, your friendly neighborhood travel agent will see to it that you are swept away from Baltimore-Washington International to the sun and sand of Waikiki, first-class round trip complete with stereo, in-flight movies, champagne, leis and appropriate jet lag.

You could outfit your favorite football player in the best of equipment from head to toes twice.

And —aah—you could buy 266 of Maryland's finest crabcakes for $800.

But if you were a particular young man in Skokie, Illinois, in the early 1950's you'd go into the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning business, work it into a multimillion-dollar operation, purchase the Los Angeles Rams and trade them within days for the Baltimore Colts.

. . . and that's what Robert Irsay did with $800.

Since he and former Colt owner Carroll Rosenbloom made sports history by trading entire teams in 1972, the former "walk-on" football player at Illinois has directed the Baltimore Colts as owner, president and treasurer.

"I could have stopped with the purchase of the Rams," says Irsay, "but I didn't. I wanted the Colts."

Among his rewards have been two straight American Conference Eastern Division championships and a current contender which shapes up as one of the most dramatic, exciting, young and talented teams in the National Football League.

The Robert Irsay Company became known and respected in the business and contracting fraternity throughout the world with impressive contractural assignments which have included Disney World, Detroit's Cobo Hall, and Chicago's First National Bank Building, a number of nuclear power stations and a wide range of office, residential and industrial complexes.

The Irsay Company was so successful that in June 1971 it attracted the attention of Zurn Industries, Inc., a New York Stock Exchange Company, which purchased the company and retained Irsay in a management capacity.

"I really didn't have enough money to start a company," Irsay recalls, "but my wife, Harriet, loaned me the $800 to get started." Today Mrs. Irsay serves as a vice president of the Colts.

Irsay was raised in the rugged "Bucktown" section of Chicago's North Side and worked his way through the University of Illinois. Irsay eventually quit football to concentrate on his studies.

He served in the Marine Corps until his discharge in 1945 when he became employed in the mechanical contracting business.

Since he acquired the Baltimore Colts—officially on July 26, 1972—he has seen every Colt game, both home and away and both preseason and regular season. And he has directed the club through some of the franchise's more stormy hours.

"Professional football is one of the most exciting things in my life," says the 54-year old Chicagoan who had already once ventured into the world of pro sports prior to becoming owner of the Baltimore Colts.

He was one of the original partners in the Montreal Expos baseball franchise which joined the National League in 1968.

Irsay also is active in business and civic affairs and under his guidance, the Colts have participated in various charitable activities. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Eye Research Institute and raises funds for the Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in Chicago. He also is active in a number of other charitable efforts.

He was born March 5, 1923, and has remained active in golf and water sports. He and his wife have two sons, Tom, 23, and Jimmy, 18.

RICHARD F. SZYMANSKI

Executive Vice President and General Manager

At 44, Richard Frank Szymanski is a product of "the old days," and he's proud of it, thank you.

When Szymanski became Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Baltimore Colts last January with a commitment to ". . . make the fans feel like they own part of the Colts like they did in the old days," he was speaking from experience.

For just more than half his years, the Toledo, Ohio, native has been a Baltimore Colt. For 13 seasons, he was a player earning three appointments to the Pro Bowl and three times playing key roles in Colt championships as the center on the line charged with the responsibility of protecting John Unitas and opening holes for the likes of Lenny Moore and Tom Matte and as middle linebacker on the 1959 title team.

Retiring after the 1968 season, Szymanski has since served as Assistant Personnel Director and Director of Pro Personnel, jobs in which he concentrated in talent searches. And he spent most of the 1974 season as offensive line coach on the staff of Howard Schnellenberger.

Collegiately, Szymanski was a starter for four seasons at Notre Dame as both a center and linebacker and became the Colts' second-round draft choice in 1955.

He was the starting center on the college all-star team which defeated the Cleveland Browns in the Chicago Tribune Charities game and in less than an autumn won his first Pro Bowl berth as a rookie.

His football experience, therefore has been a colorful one from the Frank Leahy years at South Bend, through the golden years with the Colt chjmpionship teams and through changes in ownership and general managers since he joined the Colts' front office following his retirement as a player.

"I have learned a lot from a lot of people," says the man who oversees the day-to-day operation of the Baltimore Colts. "I think I've learned what to do and what not to do."

"When I came down that Pennsylvania Turnpike in 1955," he told Bill Tanton of the Evening Sun on the day he became General Manager, "this would have been the furtherest thing from my mind."

The road that has taken Szymanski from that first training camp at Westminster to the executive suite at Hunt Valley has left him with certain basic thoughts about certain basic aspects of his duties as General Manager. Examples:

On player negotiations: "I won't be an easy mark for anybody. Agents will find I know what I'm doing. The same agents represent No. 1 draft choices as represent fifth, twelfth and seventeenth-round draft choices, and so I know most of them.

"I know what's happening on the outside and if I don't, I'll find out. When I negotiate with a player, I'll make sure we're going in right. I'll make sure the player is well informed. The more information a player has, the easier he is to negotiate with."

On building and maintaining the Colts at a contending level: "Five new faces should make our club each year for us to have a blend of youth and experience."

On option playouts: "I'm not concerned about players playing out their options. I'm concerned rather in making him an offer that will make him not want to play out his option."

On the Colts and their fans: "I want fans to feel like they own part of the Baltimore Colts like they did in the old days. I want them to look forward to going to that stadium on Sunday afternoon. And we're going to do everything we can to make those feelings possible."

Szymanski, and wife, Patricia Ann, and their children, Debra Ann and Michael Patrick, make their home in Lutherville.

TED MARCHIBRODA
Head Coach

Quickie Quiz: Which head coach in Baltimore Colts' history has the highest winning percentage?

A. Don Shula
B. Ted Marchibroda
C. Weeb Ewbank
D. Don McCafferty

An off-season ago, Marchibroda was hailed by such authorities as The Associated Press, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest and the Washington Touchdown Club as the Coach of the Year in the NFL because he had directed a resurgent Colt team from the depths to the AFC's Eastern Division championship in dramatic rags-to-riches fashion.

His team underscored that success of 1975 by improving its record from 10-4 to 11-3 and another Eastern Division title in 1976. Nobody was calling them the Cinderella Colts in 1976, but it was a year which for Marchibroda had its own unique moments and hours of drama.

It began six weeks deep into the preseason with his resignation . . . and his subsequent re-instatement, an event which was precipitated in great degree by the loyalty of a Colt team which had just completed a second straight 2-4 preseason schedule.

In the ensuing 14 weeks, the Colts lost just three times, retained the Eastern Division title though they were to lose to Pittsburgh in the Divisional Playoffs, and ran Marchibroda's record as head coach to 21-7. And, to answer the quiz, that places him squarely at the head of the class with a .750 percentage. Shula's impressive credentials, spanning seven seasons with the Colts, calculate at .735.

To place his 21-7 record into its proper perspective, consider that the Baltimore entry into the NFL wars resulted in only a 2-12 record in the autumn prior to Marchibroda's arrival.

It is thus that he enters his third season as an NFL head coach, but his status as an NFL veteran runs far deeper for he served his internship by orchestrating the offensive units for George Allen for nine seasons in both Los Angeles and Washington.

With that background, Marchibroda has personally directed the efforts of Colt quarterbacks and running backs and, therefore, has played a direct and personal role in the development of Bert Jones as one of the league's finest talents.

Jones' is a position with which Marchibroda has his own personal affinity. Marchibroda was Pittsburgh's first-round draft choice in 1953 after a collegiate career which was split between St. Bonaventure and the University of Detroit.

Although he lost most of his first two seasons to military duty, he saw action for the Steelers as a backup quarterback to Jim Finks in 1955 before moving into the starting assignment in 1956 in which he became the second leading passer in the league with 124 completions in 275 attempts. A year later, his playing career ended, shortened by an arm injury which sent him into private business for four years.

It was during the training camp of 1955, however, that Marchibroda played a role in one of the league's most remarkable stories. With four quarterbacks in camp, the Steelers staff elected to go with three at the position selecting Finks to start with Marchibroda and Vic Eaton waiting in the wings.

A young kid with the rifle arm, the fourth quarterback, was to be banished to the sandlots of the Bloomfield Rams—a Pittsburgh semipro team—and later to things far greater.

His name was Johnny Unitas.

Marchibroda was born March 15, 1931, in Franklin, Pa., and is married to the former Henrietta Schossler of Oil City, Pa. They have four children, daughters Jodi and Lonni, and sons Robert and Ted, Jr., who plays football for the University of Virginia.

ERNIE ACCORSI, Assistant General Manager

After an absence of almost exactly two years, Ernie Accorsi returned to the Baltimore Colts late in January to become assistant to new General Manager Dick Szymanski. The native of Hershey, Pa., had served for five seasons as Colts Public Relations Director until his appointment in January, 1975, to the league office as Assistant to the President of the National Football Conference. Accorsi is a graduate of Wake Forest and is a former sports writer for the Charlotte, N.C., News, the Philadelphia Inquirer and the Baltimore Evening Sun and has served in sports information capacities at both St. Joseph's College and Penn State University. Athletically, Accorsi was a 5-9 basketball star at Hershey and played varsity golf at Wake Forest during his collegiate career. "He went to Wake Forest University hoping to be another Arnold Palmer," wrote Baltimore American Sports Editor John Steadman recently, "but he played like Accorsi." Accorsi, his wife, Judy, and their three children, Michael, Sherlyn and Patrick, live in Timonium.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MAXIE BAUGHAN, Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers

Maxie Baughan, four times an All-Pro linebacker during his 14-year career, joined the Colts staff in 1975. He retired as an active player in 1971 and spent the 1972-73 seasons as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Georgia Tech. He rejoined the Redskins in 1974 as a player-coach, before coming to Baltimore. The 38-year old Alabama native was the second draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1960. He gained All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors nine times and served as defensive captain there, before being traded to Los Angeles in 1966, where he gained like honors. He was traded to Washington in 1971. An All-American at Georgia Tech as a center and linebacker, Baughan is a member of the school's Hall of Fame and has been selected as a member of the all-time teams at Georgia Tech, Philadelphia and Los Angeles. He and his wife, Dianne, have three sons.

DICK BIELSKI, Receivers

In his fourteenth season as coach in the NFL, Dick Bielski had formerly spent nine years as receiver coach with the Baltimore Colts. After being with the Redskins since February 1973, he rejoined the Colts in February of this year. He starred as fullback and place kicker with the University of Maryland for four years (1951-54). He was a member of coach Jim Tatum's National Championship team at Maryland (1953). Selected in the first round of the 1955 college draft by the Philadelphia Eagles, he played tight end for the Eagles for five years (1955-59). He was traded to the Dallas Cowboys where he started at tight end for two years before being traded to Baltimore where he also played tight end for two years before joining the Colt coaching staff in 1964. As a pro, Bielski caught 107 passes for 1,305 yards and 12 touchdowns while kicking 58 extra points and 26 field goals. He played in the 1952 Sugar Bowl and the 1954 Orange Bowl. He and his wife, Jo, have four children and reside in Timonium, Maryland.

GEORGE BOUTSELIS, Special Teams

George Boutselis is in his third year with the Colts and the NFL as the team's first special teams coach. He attended the University of North Carolina, where he played quarterback and began his coaching career. He served as a graduate assistant (1963) and as offensive (1964) and defensive backfield coach (1965-66). He was defensive backfield coach at the University of Cincinnati in 1967-68, before returning to the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1969 as defensive coordinator at Maryland. He moved to Iowa State in 1972 as defensive line coach and to Virginia as defensive coordinator in 1973. In 1974, he was defensive backfield coach of the Charlotte Hornets of the WFL. Boutselis, 36 years old, is a native of Harrisburg, Pa., and is single.

WHITEY DOVELL, Offensive Line

Whitey Dovell, a ten-year NFL coaching veteran, is in his third year with the Colts. His past professional coaching experience was gained at Chicago (1972-74) and Denver (1967-71). Whitey served 15 years at the University of Maryland, his alma mater, before joining the professional ranks. Following his graduation in 1951 with a degree in physical education, he remained at Maryland as freshman coach. In 1955, he moved to the varsity, where he coached the offensive line, receivers, defensive line and linebackers during the next 12 years. The 50-year old Newark, N.J., native played offensive guard for the late Jim Tatum at Maryland. He graduated in 1947 from Newark Central High School after interrupting his high school education to serve with the Seabees in World War II from 1944-46. He and his wife, Claire, have three daughters.

ED KHAYAT, Defensive Line

One of the ringleaders of Philadelphia's 1960 NFL championship defensive unit, Ed Khayat joined the Baltimore Colts this February, after having been with the Falcons for the past two years. A Tulane University graduate, Khayat played 10 seasons in the NFL. He was signed by Washington as a free agent in 1957; played with the Eagles from 1958-61; was traded to Washington for 1962-63; returned via trade to Philadelphia in 1964-65; and, then ended his career with Boston of the old AFL in 1966. Since 1967, his NFL coaching positions have been defensive line, New Orleans, 1967-70; defensive line until promoted to head coach, Philadelphia (three games into the season) 1971 (finishing 6-4-1) and 1972 (2-11-1); defensive line, Detroit, 1973-74, and, Atlanta since January, 1975. The 42-year old Khayat is a native of Moss Point, Miss. He and his wife, Deborah, have two children, Eddie, Jr., 8, and Bill, 4.

FRANK LAUTERBUR, Defensive Secondary

Frank Lauterbur began his professional coaching career in Baltimore in 1955, and after working in the collegiate ranks, returned to the Colts in 1974 as linebackers coach. This is his third year as defensive secondary coach. Lauterbur was one of the nation's most successful coaches from 1963-70 at Toledo, where he guided his teams to two straight perfect seasons—11-0, 1969 and 12-0, 1970—and a 23-game winning streak. He was named Coach of the Year in the Mid-American Conference three times and led Toledo to two Tangerine Bowl appearances (1969-70) and its highest national ranking ever—12th in 1970. Lauterbur is a native of Sidney, O. He attended the University of Detroit High School and Mt. Union College in Alliance, O., and is a World War II Marine veteran. In 1955-56, he served as defensive line coach of the Colts, before joining Earl Blaik's Army staff, where he served from 1957-61. In 1962, he was defensive coordinator at Pitt, in 1963 was named head coach and athletic director at Toledo, and from 1971-73 was head coach at Iowa. Frank and his wife, Mary, have four children.

PERSONNEL STAFF

FRED SCHUBACH, Player Personnel Director

Fred Schubach has been with the Baltimore Colts since the club's inception in 1953, serving the past four years as Player Personnel Director. A Philadelphia native, Schubach joined the Colts as equipment manager, after working for his father, Fred, who served 27 years as the Philadelphia Eagles equipment manager. In 1967, he was asked to join the personnel staff on a part-time basis, while continuing his equipment duties. He became a full-time member of the personnel department in 1971, and in 1973 was named director. Schubach also has spent time in professional baseball, as a catcher in the Philadelphia Athletics farm system and as batting and bull pen catcher for the A's. He served in the Army Medical Corps during the Korean War and was stationed at the Osaka Army Hospital. Fred and his wife, Hazel, have two sons, Fred, Jr., and Richard, and reside in Lutherville, Md.

BOB TERPENING, College Scout

Bob Terpening, head coach at Mount Hebron High School in Howard County the past three years, and newest member of the Colt Personnel Staff, joined the organization officially on February 1 of this year. He played for former personnel director George Young, now with the Miami Dolphins, at City College and then followed in Young's footsteps to Bucknell University. While serving as head coach at Baltimore City College in 1969 and 1970, he helped Fred Schubach, present Colt Player Personnel Director, grade films of college talent and was recommended by the Colts to the New England Patriots, where he served as talent scout from 1971 through 1973. A native Baltimorean, he is married and has two children.

MARTIN DALY, Equipment Manager

Martin Daly joined the Colts organization in June 1976. Daly came to Baltimore after serving four years as equipment manager at Michigan State University. He began his work with the equipment staff at Michigan State in 1965 and was named equipment manager in 1972. Daly, a Lansing, Mich., native attended Lansing Community College and was employed by the Michigan Department of State Highways prior to joining the university. He is single and was born September 28, 1944.

TRAINING STAFF

ED BLOCK, Head Trainer

"Ed Block of the Colts," he says with pride. But, for 24 years he's been much more than just "Ed Block of the Colts." To Colt players and coaches since 1954, he's been a respected friend, confidant, and healer, a man respected throughout his field and in April 1974 named to the Citizens Savings Athletic Trainers' Hall of Fame. Also in November 1974 he was honored by Baltimore's Advocate Club.

"The real secret of training is something every mother knows," he confides. "It's an observation thing. How did your mom know when you lied to her? It's the same thing in training—a feeling."

That's been his philosophy for 24 years as "Ed Block of the Colts."

Block, the youngest of 10 children, was raised in St. Louis and attended the University of Missouri, where he earned bachelor and master's degrees in physical education. He was active in many sports —baseball, wrestling, gymnastics, pistol, where he was a gold medal winner, and football. It was following a football injury that he "fell" into the position of assistant trainer.

Upon his graduation, he was appointed basketball, baseball and track coach at Hancock High School in St. Louis. He taught and coached there until drafted into the Army in 1941. He rose to executive officer of his tank outfit and earned a Purple Heart, after being wounded in action. He then did work in convalescent hospitals in France and Germany as chief of physical training and corrective exercises. When discharged, he joined the physical education staff at Washington University in St. Louis and later earned his doctorate from Columbia. It was at Washington University that he worked with Weeb Ewbank, who asked him to come to Baltimore. During the off-season he has worked for various programs and hospitals. For seven years he worked in the in-space conditioning program for the U.S. astronauts. He also has worked at Kernan's Children's Hospital and is currently associated with Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Ed is a lifetime bachelor, who enjoys fishing in his spare time.

MIKE O'SHEA, Assistant Trainer

Mike O'Shea joined the Colt training staff in 1973 as assistant to Ed Block. The 32-year old O'Shea had served the previous four years on active duty in the Air Force as assistant trainer at the U.S. Air Force Academy. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Texas in 1968, where he worked under Frank Medina as a student assistant trainer. In 1975, he received a master's degree from Kent State. In February 1976 he served as head trainer of the U.S. AAU Indoor Men's and Women's track and field team, which competed in Leningrad, Russia. In March 1977 appointed team's strength coach and calisthenic-stretch instructor. O'Shea, born May 15, 1945 in Brenham, Texas, and his wife, Annette, son, Chad, and daughter, Julie Marie, reside in Parkville, Md.

THE PLAYERS

MIKE BARNES (63) 5 Yr. DT 6-6 260 Miami (Fla.)
No. 2 '73 Birthdate: Dec. 24, 1950

RAYMOND CHESTER (87) 8 Yr. TE 6-4 236 Morgan State Trade-Oakland '73 Birthdate: June 28, 1948

PRO: The eight-year veteran had one of his best seasons in 1976, according to Colt coaches, with 24 catches but with a long list of big plays. Witness the Colts' first encounter of the season against the Dolphins, a game in which Chester had five catches for 106 yards. Four of the cathes went for first downs and two of them, a 48-yarder and another for 18, put the Colts into scoring positions enroute to a 21-point second quarter and a 21-7 halftime lead. "He didn't catch as many balls as he did the year before," said Coach Ted Marchibroda, "but he had more big plays. I would rather have a tight end who makes the big plays than one who catches a lot of balls." . . . He had four games of five receptions each in 1975 and once caught at least one pass in 22 consecutive games for the Colts. He had a 30-game string while a member of the Oakland Raiders and caught passes in 39 of the 41 games in which he appeared as a Raider . . . is one of the most devastating blockers among NFL tight ends . . . acquired from the Raiders in exchange for Bubba Smith on July 16, 1973 . . . alternated with Tom Mitchell at tight end in his first year with Baltimore . . . was Oakland's number one draft choice in 1970 . . . finished ninth in receiving in the AFC and named winner of the Bert Bell Trophy as rookie of the year . . . played in the Pro Bowl following the 1970 and 1972 seasons . . . also named to AFC all-star teams in 1971-72 . . . missed final regular season and 1972 Pittsburgh playoff game with foot injury . . . set Oakland record for tight ends with eight catches for 110 yards against Washington in 1970.

COLLEGE: Twice earned All-America and all-conference honors . . . played tight end, wide receiver, running back, linebacker and defensive end . . . also returned punts and kickoffs, including a 95-yard kickoff return for touchdown against Grambling . . . career statistics totaled 1137 yards and nine touchdowns on 45 receptions . . . was hampered his senior year by shin splints, but still selected for College All-Star squad . . . played in Football Coaches Foundation Bowl twice, being named most valuable player in 1968 game . . . set school records for career receptions and yardage . . . also lettered twice in track as a shotputter and discus thrower . . . studied physical education and therapy.
PERSONAL: Born in Cambridge, Md., but attended Baltimore's Douglass High School . . . was a football tackle and also participated in wrestling and track . . . held MSA records in shot-put and discus . . . lives in Oakland, Calif., with his wife, Sharon, daughters, Sheryl and Shellie, and son, Raymond . . . business interests include a liquor store.

1976 Game-By-Game

BALTIMORE 27, NEW ENGLAND 13 (1-0)
September 12 Schaefer Stadium Att: 43,512

THE KUCNER REPORT—"We felt like somebody had pulled a weight off our chest when we won," said middle linebacker Jim Cheyunski. "The pressure was really on us to win." And Baltimore won, 27-13, in what was probably the most pressure-packed season opener in Colt history. The intense pressure came in the aftermath of Ted Marchibroda's return as head coach. The players demanded him back and they got him. . . . Bert Jones, Lydell Mitchell and Glenn Doughty showed the way against a rugged New England outfit that always gives the Colts a physical beating. Jones again looked like a superman quarterback, hitting 17 of 23 passes for 190 yards. He fired a pair of scoring strikes to Doughty, and didn't have any passes intercepted. Mitchell, a notoriously slow starter, had the best opening game of his career. He slashed his way to 73 yards on 18 carries and caught six passes for 72 yards. Each of his six receptions produced a first down.

BALTIMORE 28, CINCINNATI 27 (2-0)
September 19 Memorial Stadium Att: 50,374

THE STEADMAN REPORT—Take the films of the Baltimore Colts-Cincinnati Bengals football game, played on Sept. 19, 1976, put them in a sealed time capsule and attach a note that reads, "Don't open for 100 years." What happened in this truly spectacular confrontation between two teams with talent and title aspirations should be recorded for posterity. Those 50,621 witnesses won't soon forget the show they watched. There was every ingredient that makes for a pleasurable afternoon in a football stadium . . . the long distance touchdown connection, not once but three times from Bert Jones to Roger Carr; awesome pressure put on by both defensive lines; tough, gruelling running by Lydell Mitchell, who absorbs punishment like a sponge, and a 51-yard field goal by Chris Bahr. . . . It was the Colts' second successive win and this is the first time since 1968, when John Unitas was injured and Earl Morrall was the quarterback, that they opened the schedule with two straight triumphs. For Jones it was the fourth time in four years he has gone over the 300-yard mark in passing. And for his leading receiver, Carr, who had six catches for 198 yards, including three touchdowns, it was his finest performance in three seasons with the Colts.

DALLAS 30, BALTIMORE 27 (2-1)
September 26 Texas Stadium Att: 64,23

THE FARABAUGH REPORT—Disappointing. Frustrating. Heartrending. Perhaps no better words described the Colts' 30-27 loss to the Cowboys yesterday. "It's a damn shame," said big Joe Ehrmann softly. The Colt defensive tackle had just played the best game of his life, but it mattered little. His team had failed to stop Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach from having the best day of his eight-year pro career. No alibis were offered. None were needed. Staubach completed 22 of 28 passes for a career high 339 yards and two touchdowns. Wide receiver Drew Pearson contributed a tricky 39-yard reverse option pass to Golden Richards for a third touchdown and made two last-gasp clutch catches. And Efren Herrera added three field goals from 37, 18 and 32 yards, the last coming with only three seconds remaining for the victory. . . . Coach Ted Marchibroda was gracious in defeat. "Anything I say makes no difference" he said. "We lost by three points to a better ball club. We played a great game and they played a great game. They just scored last."

BALTIMORE 42, TAMPA BAY 17 (3-1)
October 3 Memorial Stadium Att: 40,053

THE SNYDER REPORT—A 24-point second quarter by the Colts removed all doubt and took the play away from the flag-waving officials, but the Tampa Bay Buccaneers did register their first-ever National Football League touchdown to gain some solace in a 42-17 loss yesterday at Memorial Stadium. . . . If no penalties had been called, the Colts would have gained nearly 600 total yards, and the Buccaneers a semi-respectable 150. As it was the Colt defense and the handkerchief-dropping officials combined for a new Baltimore club record of allowing only 13 net yards passing by the Bucs. The Colt "Sack Pack," helped by numerous linebacking blitzes, tied a club record with eight tackles of the quarterback attempting to pass.

BALTIMORE 28, MIAMI 14 (4-1)
October 10 — Memorial Stadium — Att: 58,832

THE ESKRIDGE REPORT—It was the kind of day Raymond Chester used to have for the Oakland Raiders and it finally happened with the Baltimore Colts on Sunday at the Stadium. Five catches for 106 yards in a 28-14 victory over the Miami Dolphins got Chester the first game ball he ever earned in football, but it got him something else, the recognition that he's possibly as good as any tight end in the National Football League. For a long time, Baltimore fans have thought of Chester as something less. First, he was the guy for whom Joe Thomas traded the celebrated defensive end with the catchy name, Bubba Smith. Second, he was the pass receiver who was even money not to hold onto a pass. And then, he seemed to fade into anonymity as an offensive blocker and non-receiver. But on Sunday, he didn't even have to score a touchdown to get the recognition of a game ball from the Colt team. His catches were the big plays as the Colts rang up a 21-point second quarter. . . . "Tight end is not catching the ball and spiking it in the end zone," Chester said. "It's a funky job—like all day, it was me and (Miami defensive end Vern) Den Herder. That's what it's all about." . . . "Anybody that plays us knows they've gotta take away Roger Carr down the side and Glenn on the other side. And I haven't caught many balls this season. Maybe they went to sleep on me."

BALTIMORE 31, BUFFALO 13 (5-1)
October 17 — Rich Stadium — Att: 71,009

THE BROWN REPORT—Never a man to mince words, Glenn Doughty spread his arms, as if to embrace the Colts' entire passing attack, and stated as he saw it: "They can't stop us." He was not so audacious as to include the Colts as a team, although a case could be made for that, too. Certainly the Buffalo Bills couldn't stop them yesterday, losing, 31-13. Indeed, only one team, Dallas, has stopped them in six games this season. What Doughty was referring to was the delightful distribution of quarterback Bert Jones' passes. He has no favorite receiver. He has no Raymond Berry. If an opponent decides that Roger Carr is the Colts' most formidable pass catching threat and assigns two men to him, that will leave tight end Raymond Chester open. Or halfback Lydell Mitchell. Or Mr. Doughty. . . . Doughty didn't know it was his most productive day in his five Colt seasons—it wasn't, but six catches matched his high against the same Bills last

BALTIMORE 20, N.Y. JETS 0 (6-1)
October 24 Shea Stadium Att: 49,768

THE KUCNER REPORT—Vaudeville may be dead, but that "Bert and Roger Show" that made the New York Jets look like baggy-pants comedians is some kind of winner. . . . Playing their own special version of pitch and catch, the two ole country boys from the Louisiana hills wowed 'em in The Big Apple, combining for five pass completions that produced 210 yards and two touchdowns. The net result: the Colts grounded the Jets, 20-0, pumping their record to 6-1. . . . Carr's 210 yards in one game is the best any Baltimore receiver has done since Raymond Berry set the club record with 224, and that was 19 years ago. . . . "The key to it all is Bert," explained Carr. "Could you believe that last touchdown pass? It was perfect. He threw the ball 65 yards in the air and put it on a dime. You can just imagine what a special kind of quarterback it takes to do that. That's the finest pass I've ever caught." . . . Jones and Carr combined on one in the first quarter that wasn't a bad piece of work, either. That one was 41 yards for a touchdown.

BALTIMORE 38, HOUSTON 14 (7-1)
November 1 Memorial Stadium Att: 60,020

THE SNYDER REPORT—Houston's impenetrable defense, which had allowed only two touchdowns by rushing in seven previous games, gave up five to the Colts on national television last night, and the Colts waltzed to a 38-14 victory before a sellout crowd of 60,020 at Memorial Stadium. . . . No one seeing the game in person or on television could downgrade the Colts' performance on this chilly night as Roosevelt Leaks and Don McCauley scored twice, each from close in, and substitute Ron Lee reeled off a 69-yard scoring jaunt in the last quarter. Toni Linhart added the other points with 5 extra points and a 25-yard field goal. Bert Jones, bothered for the last several days with a touch of the flu, and filled with antibiotics, made the Oiler defense look sick, using running back Lydell Mitchell as the tongue depressor to diagnose Houston's ailment. Mitchell gained 136 yards rushing in 28 carries and picked up 46 more yards as the top Colt receiver with seven catches. . . . As good as the Colt offense was, the Colt de-

BALTIMORE 37, SAN DIEGO 21 (8-1)
November 7 San Diego Stadium Att: 42,827

THE KUCNER REPORT—Dan Fouts may be short on talent, but he isn't a fool. "He saved himself," Colt defensive end Fred Cook said of the San Diego quarterback. "He wasn't interested in standing back there looking for a receiver. He just wanted to dump the ball off to the nearest receiver. He was afraid of our rush." While the defensive line pressured Fouts into dumping the ball, the Colts dumped San Diego 37-21 Sunday, running their season record to 8-1. . . . Baltimore's Sack Pack ran its casualty count to 44 for the year by dropping Fouts and replacement Clint Longley five times. They completed 22 of 36 passes, but most of their completions were just as Cook described. Short stuff, to avoid the pass rush. . . . Bert Jones, meanwhile, wasn't having the same problem. He got good protection, not getting sacked a single time, but he nevertheless threw many of his passes into the short zones. Many of them didn't stay short, however. Lydell Mitchell caught eight passes for 125 yards, most of the mileage coming on runs after the catch. Jones, the league's leading passer, added to his totals by hitting 18 of 25 for 275 yards and three touchdowns, two to Roger Carr and one to Mitchell.

NEW ENGLAND 21, BALTIMORE 14 (8-2)
November 14 Memorial Stadium Att: 58,226

THE TANTON REPORT—Sure the Colts look bad, losing to New England, and, of course, that setback changes the picture regarding next month's NFL playoffs. But I think the many people who have asked me this week, with a note of panic in their voices, "What's wrong"? should be informed of at least one thing: The Colts themselves are unshaken. The players—and they are the ones who are going to have to play these four remaining games and the playoffs—are confident as ever that they still are an excellent team, and good enough to do the job in the playoffs. "Against New England, everybody was just a little off," says running back Don McCauley, who, as a six-year veteran is an old pro on this young team. "A lot of guys made little mistakes they don't ordinarily make, like Timmy Baylor running into the man on that field goal. But in spite of all the mistakes, despite the off-day, against a pretty good club, we still only lost, 21-14."

BALTIMORE 17, MIAMI 16 (9-2)
November 22 Orange Bowl Att: 62,104

THE STEADMAN REPORT—Most of the game, Mike Barnes was out of his head. But he made the play that was "out of this world" for the Baltimore Colts and that's why they are still kicking their heels on top of the Eastern Division of the American Football Conference. . . . Quiet and reserved, he's more apt to be found in a museum rather than a saloon. The hand Barnes used to block an extra-point attempt by Garo Yepremian saved the game for the Colts and gave them a 17-16 story-book victory over the Miami Dolphins. Barnes doesn't remember much about what transpired in the first half of the Colts' pressurized encounter with the Dolphins because he got hit in the head and didn't know what was happening around him. At halftime, he suffered from hyper-ventilation, a condition that can lead to serious problems, and was administered to in the locker room by a team doctor and the trainers, Eddie Block and Mike O'Shea. The Colts were already out on the field playing the second half when Barnes decided the cob-webs had cleared and he was able to see the moon over Miami. That's when he returned to the game and relieved his replacement and roommate, Ron Fernandes, at left defensive tackle. It turned out that Barnes was in the right place at the vital moment. With 12 seconds left on the clock and the Dolphins bidding to tie the score and send the proceedings into overtime, Barnes blocked the conversion attempt with the heel pad of his right thumb. "I made one play all night," he said later. "That's the way it goes. I never blocked one like that before. It was a 'game killer'.". . . "The only thing that hurts me now is my hand where I blocked the ball."

done a good job of place-kicking the last couple of years. And don't mess around with the man in the fog. That's game-ball day. Remember last December 14, in the next-to-last game of the season, when Linhart hit on the field goal which gave the Colts that 10-7 sudden-death victory over Miami in the dense fog at Memorial Stadium to clinch a playoff spot? Toni got his first game ball that day. His next one came yesterday, also in Memorial Stadium, also in the fog, mist and drizzle. What he did yesterday was hit on four of six attempts, missing from the 44 and 38, hitting two from 34, one from 41, another from 31, in the 33-16 victory over the Jets. And this one also assured the Colts of a spot in the playoffs. . . . The Colts gave away enough game balls yesterday to run Bob Irsay into the red. In addition to Linhart, they voted balls to Lydell Mitchell, Ed Simonini for his work on the special teams, which had their best day of the year, and Spencer Thomas, the free agent pickup who filled in capably in the second half when Ray Oldham had his "bell rung." All were deserving, but you could easily have thrown Bert Jones in there with them because you'll seldom see a quarterback throw better. He threw bullets, and put them on target, taking the short stuff under the zone when the Jets dropped into deep coverages, going long when it was there. In the second quarter he threw touchdown passes to Mitchell, Roger Carr and Don McCauley as the Colts put 24 points on the board and put things under control.

ST. LOUIS 24, BALTIMORE 17 (10-3)
December 4 Busch Memorial Stadium Att: 48,282

THE KUCNER REPORT—The Colts lost the fumbles and St. Louis found them—as a result, Baltimore is still looking for a pennant-clincher. Three Colt fumbles led directly to Cardinal scores as St. Louis battled its way to a 24-17 victory Saturday in a battle of offensive powerhouses. The loss dropped the Colt record to 10-3 and left Baltimore in need of a victory to repeat as AFC Eastern Division champion. . . . It's amazing that the Colts were able to stay within seven points of St. Louis. Not only did the Cards get three "gift" scores by recovering Colt fumbles at the Baltimore 37, 41 and 35, but they also hogged the ball most of the game. St. Louis had possession for 41 minutes, Baltimore only 19. The Cards ran 73 plays; the Colts only 46. And yet, the Colts were in it all the way. Amazing. . . . The Cards rolled up 117 yards rushing on 51 carries, most of that by fullback Jim Otis, who had 107 yards on 29 attempts. Hart had only 13 completions, but he made them count for 206 yards, running the St. Louis total offense count to 375 yards. The Colts, meanwhile, were making sensational use of the meager 19 minutes they had the ball, rolling up 279 yards, most of it on passes. Bert Jones hit 13 of 23 for 241 yards, but the Colt ground attack added just 62 yards, 54 of them by Lydell Mitchell on 15 carries.

BALTIMORE 58, BUFFALO 20 (11-3)
December 12 Memorial Stadium Att: 50,451

THE SNYDER REPORT—The Colts shot down the hapless Buffalo Bills, 58-20, yesterday at Memorial Stadium behind Bert Jones, whose rifle arm helped produce a 28-point third period, and won their second straight American Football Conference Eastern Division title and the right to be the host team in the divisional playoff next Sunday with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Despite the offensive and defensive scoring by the Colts, who finished 11-3 for the regular season, Baltimore will have to play much better defense against the Steelers than it displayed in the first half with the Bills, who concluded their disappointing season with a 2-12 record. If, as Colt coach Ted Marchibroda said, O. J. Simpson was the man to stop on the Buffalo offense, then the Colts failed in their assignment. The fleet back gained 171 yards, including 44 on a touchdown sprint, on 28 rushes to capture his fourth rushing title in five years. . . . Lydell Mitchell broke his own Colt rushing mark of 1,193, set last year. Although held to only 34 yards yesterday, Mitchell on the season wound up with 1,200.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

PITTSBURGH 40, BALTIMORE 14

December 19 Memorial Stadium Att: 60,020

THE KUCNER REPORT—The Colts never expected what happened to them at Memorial Stadium Sunday. "We fully expected to be going out to Oakland next weekend to play for the AFC championship," said Stan White, part of the shell-shocked defensive platoon. "Last year everybody on the team had made tentative plans concerning what they'd do if we lost the first playoff game. I don't think anybody really believed we could win then. But this time, we not only thought we could win, we expected it. Nobody was prepared for what happened." What happened was that the Colts were humiliated, 40-14, by the Pittsburgh Steelers, who appear on their way to a third consecutive Super Bowl. "We found out we're not a Super Bowl team yet," said Ted Marchibroda. "We got beat by a better football team." What will it take for the Colts to become a Super Bowl team? "We need some more players," said Marchibroda. What had the head coach most upset was that his team was knocked on its heels so early. "We didn't give ourselves a chance to win," he said. "We were never in it. I thought the team was ready to play, but we couldn't get into our game-plan. We never did stop them, and right from the start, we were having to play catch-up. We never got to find out if our game-plan would work."

EVOLUTION OF THE COLTS

Contrary to popular belief the Baltimore Colts have always been members of the National Football League.

In 1944, Ted Collins and singer Kate Smith established a National Football League team in Boston called the Yanks. After four seasons, the club was moved to the Polo Grounds in New York and renamed the Bulldogs.

The National Football League and the All-America Football Conference merged following the 1949 season, with the New York Yankees of the AAFC dissolving. The Bulldogs moved into vacated Yankee Stadium and played there as the Yanks for the 1950 and 1951 seasons.

The Yanks moved to Dallas for the 1952 season and were called the Texans. Finally, in 1953, the franchise was awarded to Baltimore and the Texans became the Baltimore Colts.

The original Baltimore Colts of the AAFC (1947-49) and the NFL (1950) evolved from the Miami Sea Hawks. The Miami franchise of the AAFC was transferred to Baltimore in 1947. In 1950, after being accepted into the NFL in the merger, the franchise was dissolved and Baltimore was without professional football until the Texans moved to town in 1953.

The 1947-50 Baltimore Colts wore green and silver uniforms, which were the inherited colors of the Miami Sea Hawks. Beginning in 1953, the Colts' colors were blue and white, the same colors which were worn by the Bulldogs, Yanks and Texans. While in Boston, the forerunners of the Colts wore green and yellow.

HALL OF FAME COLTS

RAYMOND BERRY, End, 6-2, 187, SMU

Retired in 1967 as the leading pass receiver in NFL history (now ranks second) with 631 receptions ... selected as a "future" choice in the 20th round of the 1954 draft by the Colts ... named all-pro three times (1958-60) and played in five Pro Bowl games ... led NFL in receiving in 1958-60 ... holds NFL championship game records for yardage (178) and receptions (12), which he set in the 1958 "sudden death" title game against the New York Giants ... last career touchdown reception came against Dallas at Memorial Stadium on December 3, 1967 and covered five yards ... born February 27, 1933 in Corpus Christi, Texas ... attended Paris (Texas) High School ... now coaching with the Cleveland Browns ... inducted in the Hall of Fame, July 28, 1973.

ART DONOVAN, Defensive Tackle, 6-3, 265, Boston College

The first Colt to enter the Hall of Fame, Donovan was inducted August 3, 1968 ... played from 1953-61 with the current Colt franchise and with Baltimore in 1950, the New York Yanks, 1951, and Dallas Texans, 1952 ... all-pro 1954-57 and played in the Pro Bowl game five times ... one of the most popular Colts of all time ... attended Notre Dame for one year, entered the Marines during World War II, and switched to Boston College after his service discharge ... lettered four years (1946-49) as a tackle and was named All-East in 1948-49 ... reported to training camp in 1962, but announced his retirement at age 37, before the season opened ... he was honored and his jersey number, 70, retired in an emotional ceremony at Memorial Stadium on September 16, 1962 ... attended St. Michael High School in New York City, where he was born June 5, 1925 in the Bronx ... lives with his family in Towson, Maryland.

GINO MARCHETTI, Defensive End, 6-4, 245, San Francisco

Marchetti, acclaimed as the greatest defensive end in pro football history during the 1969 NFL 50th anniversary, was inducted into the Hall of Fame on July 29, 1972 ... named all-pro nine consecutive seasons (1956-64) and played in every Pro Bowl game from 1954 through 1964, with the exception of the 1958 game, which he missed with a broken ankle suffered in the "sudden death" championship game against the New York Giants ... announced retirement after the 1963 season, in which he also served as an assistant coach, but reconsidered and played in 1964 ... retired again following the 1964 season, but returned to play in four games in 1966, when the Colts suffered heavy injuries in the defensive line ... played his final game on December 18, 1966 in San Francisco ... fought in the "Battle of the Bulge" during World War II at the age of 18, after graduating from Antioch (Calif.) High School ... was a 1951 All-West Coast tackle selection at San Francisco and played in the East-West and College All-Star games ... born January 2, 1927 in Smithers, West Virginia ... makes his home with his family in Devon, Pa.

LENNY MOORE, Running Back & Flanker, 6-1, 190, Penn State

Moore is the last Colt to enter the Hall of Fame with his induction August 2, 1975 ... retired in 1967 with 11,213 combined net yards in a 12-year career, including 5174 rushing and 363 pass receptions for 6039 yards ... scored 678 points on 113 touchdowns with stretches of 18 straight games scoring at least one touchdown and 11 straight scoring at least one touchdown rushing; both are NFL records ... gained All-America honors at Penn State and was the number one draft pick of the Colts in 1956 ... was named 1956 Rookie of the Year ... selected Comeback Player of the Year and Most Valuable Player in 1964, when he scored 20 touchdowns, after many thought his career had ended ... born November 25, 1933 in Reading, Pa., and attending Reading High School ... lives with his children in Baltimore and is Promotions Director of the Colts.

JIM PARKER, Guard and Tackle, 6-3, 273, Ohio State

A member of both the Professional and National Football Foundation Halls of Fame ... the Colts first draft pick in 1957, after twice being named All-America (1955-56) as a guard at Ohio State ... winner of the 1956 Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding lineman ... also played linebacker collegiately ... his 1954 team won the Rose Bowl and the national championship ... named to the modern all-time All-America college football team in 1969, which was selected as part of the 100th anniversary of college football ... was all-pro eight consecutive seasons (1958-65) and played in the Pro Bowl following each of those seasons ... started as the left tackle for the Colts, was moved in 1962 to left guard, and back to tackle in 1966 ... announced retirement near end of the 1967 season in which he only played in three games because of a leg injury ... played in 139 consecutive games, the second longest string in Colt history ... streak ended when he missed the Colts game with San Francisco at Memorial Stadium on Oct. 10, 1967 ... born April 3, 1934 in Macon, Georgia and attended Scott High School in Toledo, Ohio ... lives with his family in Baltimore.

COLT CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP
DEC. 28, 1958 YANKEE STADIUM

BALTIMORE 23, NEW YORK 17—Quarterback Johnny Unitas took the Colts 80 yards in 13 plays, the last a one-yard carry by Alan Ameche through the right side of the Giant line at 8 minutes, 15 seconds of sudden death overtime. The regulation game ended 17-17 when Baltimore's Steve Myhra booted a 20-yard field goal seconds from the gun. It has been called "the greatest game ever played" and the 64,185 who watched it at Yankee Stadium agree.

BALTIMORE 31, NEW YORK 16—The Giants led 9-7 after three periods by virtue of three field goals by Pat Summerall, but Baltimore's crack defensive backfield took charge in the final quarter, three times making interceptions that resulted in scores. Colt quarterback Johnny Unitas scored one TD and passed for two before a home crowd of 57,545 in Memorial Stadium.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP
DEC. 27, 1964 CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Both teams drew blanks in the first half but the Browns nailed down the World Championship with a 17-point third quarter. Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jim Brown made the Cleveland attack click, as it rolled up 20 first downs to Baltimore's 11 and outgained the Colts, 339 to 171 yards. Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns—all to end Gary Collins from distances of 18, 42 and 51 yards, while the brilliant Brown bulled for 114 yards on 27 shots as Cleveland controlled the ball. Attendance was 79,544.

NFL WESTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF
DEC. 26, 1965 LAMBEAU FIELD

GREEN BAY 13, BALTIMORE 10—A courageous effort by the undermanned Colts was doomed by a pair of Don Chandler field goals—one with 1:58 remaining from 22 yards to tie the score and a second of 25 yards to conclude 13:39 of "sudden-death" action. The Colts had jumped ahead 7-0, after 21 seconds of play when Don Shinnick scooped up Bill Anderson's fumble and trudged 25 yards to the end zone. They protected their edge tenaciously until the finish as Tom Matte went the route at quarterback, rushing for 57 yards and passing for 40. Zeke Bratkowski, subbing for the injured Bart Starr, completed 22 of 39 aerials for 248 yards. The Packers ran 80 plays to the Colts' 59 and led in first downs, 23-9. Attendance was 50,484.

NFL PLAYOFF

DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14—It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Billy Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him. Attendance was 60,238.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1970 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 17, CINCINNATI 0—Attendance 51,127. John Unitas connected with TD passes to Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters and led the Colts into the AFC title game by defeating Cincinnati. The Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day and limited Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 yards passing. Norm Bulaich, Colts' rookie rusher, picked up 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, Colts' rookie kicker and leading scorer, connected with a 44-yard FG, missed one from the same distance. A 49-yard FG try by Horst Muhlmann was blocked by Ray May. Mike Curtis, Colts' middle linebacker, made the game's only interception, picking off one of Virgil Carter's fourth-period passes, to set up an eventual final Colt score.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 3, 1971 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 27, OAKLAND 17—At Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md., attendance 56,368. Johnny Unitas' passing and play calling, and the running of rookie Norm Bulaich, powered the Colts to the first AFC Championship. Bulaich scored twice and Unitas picked up 245 yards on 11 completions, with his key one coming in the fourth quarter on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Ray Perkins out of a formation of four wide receivers. George Blanda (who at 43 became the oldest player to perform in a title game when he replaced injured Daryle Lamonica in the second period) threw TD passes to Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells, but was intercepted three times. Ed Hinton caught five passes for the Colts for 115 yards..

SUPER BOWL V

JAN. 17, 1971 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 79,204. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the Orange Bowl uprights with five seconds left in regulation time to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two in five plays. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke punctured into the end zone and after O'Brien's PAT it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left in the game and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1971 CLEVELAND STADIUM

BALTIMORE 20, CLEVELAND 3—Attendance 74,082. Don Nottingham, playing for the injured Norm Bulaich, scored two TDs and rushed for 92 yards while Baltimore's strong defense dominated play in a 20-3 Colt victory over the Cleveland Browns that sent Baltimore into the AFC finals. Jim O'Brien added two field goals for the Colts and Don Cockroft, who had two kicks blocked by Bubba Smith, produced the Brown's only points. Rick Volk intercepted two of Bill Nelsen's passes and Charlie Stukes picked off a third. John Unitas went all the way, blending the strong running of Nottingham with passes to his favorite target, tight end Tom Mitchell, who caught 5 for 73 yards.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 2, 1972 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0—At Orange Bowl, attendance 75,629. The Colts, playing without their starting running backs Norm Bulaich and Tom Matte, still managed to compile 302 total yards to Miami's 286 but were damaged by the Dolphins' big plays—Bob Griese to Paul Warfield 75-yard pass for TD in first period and Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for a TD in the third quarter. Larry Csonka carried five yards to a fourth quarter touchdown for Miami. John Unitas completed 20 of 36 passes for 224 yards but Colts were shutout for the first time since Dec. 5, 1965 (0-13 by Chicago Bears). Another big play for Miami was stopping Colts fourth and one attempt at Dolphins' nine-yard line when lead was 7-0.

RADIO-TV OUTLETS

The Baltimore Colts have continued their radio affiliation with WCBM in Baltimore for the 1977 season while WMAR-TV, Baltimore's Channel 2, will return as the team's television flagship station for preseason games.

All games, both preseason and regular season, will be aired by WCBM.

Meanwhile, three of the Colts' six preseason games are scheduled for national television with CBS airing Baltimore's August 14 game at Houston with NBC carrying the Colts' first home game, the August 19 encounter with the Minnesota Vikings. And NBC's cameras also will be on the scene on August 27 when Baltimore meets the Cowboys in Dallas.

Tom Brookshire will call the play-by-play with Johnny Unitas adding the color on preseason games televised this season by WMAR-TV.

Chuck Thompson and Vince Bagli will form the WCBM radio team again in 1977.

Thompson, who will handle the radio play-by-play descriptions, came to Baltimore in the late 1940s from Philadelphia to broadcast the International League Orioles and All-America Football Conference Colts. He is recognized as one of the nation's outstanding broadcasters and has won many major broadcasting honors.

Thompson has worked World Series and National Football League championship games nationally, on both radio and television. Among his more memorable broadcasts are the 1958 Colts-Giants "sudden death" NFL championship game and the dramatic seventh game of the 1960 Pirates-Yankees World Series won by Pittsburgh on Bill Mazeroski's home run.

Bagli, the popular sports director for WBAL-TV, will handle the color commentary. He was a sports writer for the Baltimore News-American before moving to the electronic media and WBAL in 1963.

He also is widely honored having twice won the National Sportscaster Award for Maryland.

TRAINING CAMP

For the third consecutive season, the Baltimore Colts will use the facilities at Goucher College in Towson, just inside the Beltway north of the city, as their training location.

Rookies are scheduled to report July 16 with veterans checking in a week later, on July 23. The camp will close in late August.

THE BALTIMORE COLTS MARCHING BAND

The Baltimore Colts Marching Band is observing its 31th anniversary this season. Founded in 1947 for the All-America Football Conference Colts, the band remained active in 1951-52, when Baltimore was without football, and aided in the campaign to return football to the city in 1953.

The band, composed of volunteer musicians, performs annually at regular season and preseason games and prior to every kickoff. The 160 members begin rehearsals in late spring and make appearances at parades and other special events throughout the year, including the Preakness at Pimlico Race Track, where the band recently played for the 15th consecutive year.

The band is represented in the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, O., by its first bass drum (donated in 1966) and a number of other original band items (1971). The band is recognized as the first in professional football to incorporate a cheerleader unit (1954).

The 1976 band staff includes: Arthur H. Schmersal, Director; Richard E. DiStefano, Business Manager; Sam Orofino, Personnel Director; Bonnie Peddicord, Choreographer and Head Majorette; Carol Amoss, Assistant Choreographer; H. Erich Koch, Librarian; Ed Thomas, Photographer; John Ziemann, Publicity Director; Richard E. Otto, Drum Major; and Richard I. Hill, Assistant Director.

COLTS FIGHT SONG

(Words and music by Jo Lombardi and Benjamin Klasmer)

Let's go you Baltimore Colts,
And put that ball across the line.
So, drive on you Baltimore Colts,
Go in and strike like lightning bolts.
Fight, Fight, Fight.
Rear up you Colts and let's fight.
Crash through and show them your might.
For Baltimore and Maryland
You will march on to victory.

COLTS CORRALS

Perhaps the most unique fan group in professional sports is the Colts' Corrals, a group of associated fan clubs with a total membership in excess of 1800. They started as a single club, Corral #1, 19 years ago, and have expanded continually, with Corrals 30 and 31 being added this year.

In addition to attending all the Colts' home games and many of the road contests, the Corrals engage in numerous activities, which promote the Colts and football in the Maryland-Delaware area. They also are active in charity fund raising and for the past eight years have conducted a Veterans Day program at one of the Colt home games.

The Corrals have participated in the enshrinement of four Colts—Gino Marchetti, 1972; Jim Parker and Raymond Berry, 1973; and Lenny Moore, 1975—into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Probably the best known activities of the Corrals are their off-season banquets, at which they honor Colt players and coaches and the annual convention and mammoth parade.

The coordinating body of the Corrals is the Council, which meets monthly. Chairman of the 1977 Council is John Hoffman; Vice Chairman, Bill Murray; Treasurer, Dale Bupp; Secretary, "Loudy" Loudenslager; and Sergeant at Arms, Jack Hurst.

Persons desiring more information about the Corrals, should write: Colts Corrals, P.O. Box 8409, Parkville, Maryland 21234.

HARRY R. SHRIVER, P.A. Announcer

"Good afternoon, Ladies and Gentlemen. This is Harry Shriver, your Stadium announcer . . . ." These are familiar words to every Colt fan in Baltimore. For over a decade now these words have rung through Memorial Stadium and christened every Colt home game.

This will be Harry Shriver's 14th year as the Colts' Public Address Announcer. He became the Colts' "Stadium Voice" in 1964 when he was Sports Director of WFBR Radio.

Shriver is now President and General Manager of WFBR and WBKZ-FM. He is a panelist on WFBR's award-winning "Conference Call" public affairs program and for many years has served as master of ceremonies at the weekly dinner meetings of the Quarterback Club of Baltimore. Shriver was President of the Maryland-District of Columbia-Delaware Broadcasters' Association (1975-76) and served two terms as Chairman of the Baltimore Broadcasters' Coalition.

Active in civic affairs, Shriver served two years as President of The Baltimore Association for Retarded Children, two terms on the Board of Directors of the Maryland Cancer Society, and was Chairman of a State committee to study the problems of mental retardation in Maryland. He has also been actively involved with the United Fund of Central Maryland.

Shriver, whose public address job is his last remaining connection with sports, has called every home game since 1964 except one. A virus kept him from the Colts' home opener against St. Louis in 1972.

Shriver and his wife Pat and their two children live in the Pikesville area.

BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

Baltimore Memorial Stadium was completed in 1954. Construction began in 1949, the final season of Baltimore's play in the All-America Football Conference, on the same site as the original Baltimore Stadium. Work continued through 1949 and the 1950 National Football League season without the Colts missing a home game.

Construction was suspended following the dissolution of the Baltimore NFL franchise in 1950, and did not resume until 1952. Work continued through the 1953 season, when the current Colt team moved to the city from Dallas.

The stadium, in its present form, was completed prior to the 1954 season with a capacity of 52,000. Additions brought the capacity up to a high of 60,240 in 1970. Comfort refinements have reduced the current capacity to 56,626 for Colt games played before conversion from the baseball configuration, and 60,763, when the football configuration is completed.

The original Baltimore Stadium was built of wood on mounds of dirt beginning in 1922. It was completed in 1924 with a seating capacity of 80,000 and officially dedicated on November 29, 1924, when 80,150 persons attended the Army-Navy game. Capacity later was reduced to 66,000.

THE QUARTERBACK CLUB OF BALTIMORE

The Quarterback Club of Baltimore meets each Monday evening after Colt home games. Every meeting is attended by a Colt player or coach, who speaks to the members and answers their questions about the past game.

Founded in 1959, the club serves to promote football in the Baltimore metropolitan area. Each year it conducts its annual Scholarship Awards Night dinner at which is presented its John Unitas Football Man of the Year, High School Coach of the Year, Most Valuable Colt Player of the Year, and Greater Baltimore High School Player of the Year, who receives a $1000 scholarship.

The 1977 officers for the Quarterback Club include: Jack Lawrence, president; Robert Pivec, vice president; Frank Just, treasurer; and Herb Wright, secretary.
