INDIANAPOLIS COLTS OFFICERS

ROBERT IRSAY

President and Treasurer

"The greatest thrill I've had in football was on April 2, 1984, when I walked into the Hoosier Dome with Mayor (Bill) Hudnut in front of all those fans," says Robert Irsay of the 20,000 people who showed up to welcome the Colts to Indianapolis. "It is my intention," Irsay continues, "for the Colts to be a vital contributing member of the greater Indianapolis community."

Irsay became owner of the Colts on July 26, 1972, when he traded his recently-acquired Los Angeles Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colt franchise. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of Dan Reeves.

Irsay was born on March 5, 1923, in Chicago's northern "Bucktown" section. He worked his way through the University of Illinois, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering. (While attending Illinois, he was an Illini football teammate of former Colt Alex Agase.)

From 1941 to 1945, he served in the United States Marine Corps., after which he worked for a mechanical contracting company in Chicago.

In 1952 he formed the Robert Irsay Company of Skokie, Ill. After building the business into one of the largest and most respected heating, ventilating and air conditioning companies in the world, Irsay sold his company to a firm listed on the New York Stock Exchange in 1971. He remained associated with the firm until 1978 when he formed Colt Construction and Development Co., and its affiliate, Colt Developers, Co., which are diversified construction and development companies.

Irsay is an active supporter of many charitable organizations. Among these are: Big Brothers, Little Sisters of the Poor, the Noble Center, Christamore House, Black Expo, the Mental Health Association and Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in Indianapolis; Foundation for Children with Learning Disabilities, New York, New York; Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in Chicago; and the Troubled Children's Foundation Center in Hialeah, Fla. He makes further donations through the Colts as a member of NFL Properties which dedicates a major portion of its earnings to NFL Charities.

Irsay has two sons, Tom (35) and Jim (30), the club's general manager.

JIM IRSAY

Vice President and General Manager

Dedication: The best description of Jim Irsay's commitment to bringing winning football to the City of Indianapolis. Irsay has been involved in all aspects of the day-to-day operation of the Colts since joining the club in January of 1982. Jim was added to the personnel department in 1983 and took over as general manager in early 1984, following the Colts move to Indianapolis. The 30-year old Irsay was instrumental in the hiring of Ron Meyer as the Colts' head coach.

This past year, Irsay was chosen to serve on the National Football League's Pro-College Relations Committee.

Irsay received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Southern Methodist University, where he played linebacker for a year and a half as a walk-on, before an ankle injury ended his career. Jim was born on June 13, 1959 in Lincolnwood, Ill. He attended Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Ill., where he played golf, boxed and became an avid weight-conditioner.

Jim is an active member of the Indianapolis community and is involved with Big Brothers of Indianapolis. He is a corporate member of the Indiana Sports Corporation and he serves on the Board of Directors of the Noble Center for Retarded Citizens in Indianapolis. Jim and his wife, Meg, have three daughters, Carlie (8), Casey (6) and Kalen (2).

MICHAEL G. CHERNOFF

Vice President and General Counsel

Since March of 1975, Michael Chernoff has been vice president and general counsel for Robert Irsay's various business concerns including the Colt football team.

The Glencoe, Ill. native received his bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago in 1956 and then stayed on at Chicago to receive his Doctor of Law degree in 1959. Chernoff was in private practice until 1974 when he became vice president and general counsel to a Fortune 500 company, one year before joining Irsay. Chernoff's legal background includes extensive work in corporate law, securities, real estate and taxes. He has also played a key role in negotiating commercial, player and other contracts, including the contract which put the Colts in Indianapolis.

Chernoff, who resides in Chicago with his wife, Eunice, has three children, Susan, Steven and Robert.

RON MEYER

Head Coach

Looking for the final touch to cap a commitment of bringing winning football to Indianapolis, the Colts hired Ron Meyer as head coach on December 1, 1986.

What many believed would be a major overhauling of a talented, but struggling team turned out quite the opposite. Instead, Meyer stressed intangibles such as unity, spirit and attitude. He used his tactician's knowledge of the game. The result was three consecutive victories to close the 1986 season.

In becoming the first coach in Colts history to win his first three games, Meyer established a winning foundation which produced an AFC Eastern Divisional title in 1987 and a 9-7 mark in 1988.

Meyer has guided Indianapolis to a 21-13 regular season record since his arrival. Only one other AFC club has achieved a better record over that span. The divisional title for the club was its first in a decade, and Meyer gleaned recognition for his efforts by being selected AFC Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Writers Association, UPI, the Football News and the Kansas City Committee of 101.

Indianapolis opened the 1988 season slowly with a 1-5 record, but Meyer directed the Colts to eight wins in their last 10 games. The 8-2 mark was the best finish of any team in the league. Among the wins were six consecutive triumphs in the Hoosier Dome, the team's longest home winning streak in 13 seasons. The team also sported a 5-3 divisional mark for the second straight year.

That winning came under Meyer's leadership was not surprising. He has resurrected every football program he has led during a 15-year coaching career.

Meyer entered the coaching ranks following his career as a defensive back at Purdue. He assumed his first post as the head coach at Penn High School in Mishawaka, Indiana in 1964. His team produced a 5-4 mark that year.

In 1965, Meyer returned to Purdue as an offensive assistant in charge of the backfield, receivers and overall passing game. While on the staff of Jack Mollenkopf, the Boilermakers notched an overall mark of 44-16-1. Purdue won the 1967 Rose Bowl, 14-13, over Southern California, in Meyer's second year, and shared the Big Ten Championship with Minnesota the following season.

Meyer accepted his first professional position as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys upon leaving Purdue. Meyer's two years with Dallas were highlighted by a Super Bowl VI Championship, a 24-3 win over Miami. Dallas boasted a 21-7 record during Meyer's time with the club.

Meyer obtained his first collegiate head coaching position at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, a school which had finished 1-10 immediately prior to his arrival. Meyer applied the winning touch to the Rebel program and led his teams to a 27-8 record over a three-year period from 1973-75. His 1974 Rebel unit posted an 11-0 regular season record. A testament of his leadership at UNLV was the program sporting a 25-6 mark over the three seasons following his departure.

Meyer took charge of a struggling Southern Methodist University program in 1976, and soon transformed it into a powerful national contender. Building a foundation during his first four years, Meyer's teams went 8-4 in 1980 and 10-1 in 1981. SMU won the Southwest Conference Championship in 1981 and came within two points of a perfect season. Meyer ascended to the NFL with New England following that season, but the winning continued at SMU as the three subsequent Mustang teams amassed a 31-4-1 combined record.

The task Meyer faced at New England was no different than those at UNLV or SMU. Nor were the results.

Meyer took a Patriots club which was 2-14 in 1981 to the playoffs with a 5-4 record during the strike-shortened 1982 season. The Patriots lost a playoff duel to Miami, 28-13. He then guided his injury-riddled club to an 8-8 record in 1983, staying in playoff contention until the final weekend of the campaign. During his career with New England, Meyer posted a 18-15 regular season mark.

Meyer was born on February 17, 1941 in Westerville, Ohio. He earned ten prep letters in football, basketball and baseball, and won all-conference honors in each as a senior.

Meyer entered Purdue as a football walk-on in 1959 and quickly won a scholarship in the second semester of his freshman year. As a defensive back he led the Boilermakers in minutes played as a junior and senior. Meyer was selected to the Big Ten All-Academic Team and won the Big Ten Medal of Honor. In addition, he was tabbed for Purdue's Nobel Kizer Award for athletic and academic achievement in 1963.

Meyer and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Kathryn and Elizabeth. Ron's two sons, Ron, Jr. and Ralph, reside in Dallas.

GREG BRINER, Offensive Assistant

Greg Briner enters his first season as offensive assistant with the Colts. Briner was elevated to this position after working from 1986-88 with the Colts coaching staff in a research and quality control capacity. He will work exclusively with the club's quarterbacks.

Briner came to Indianapolis after three seasons at Oregon State as running backs coach. Prior to his stint there, he served as a graduate assistant coach for receivers at Oregon from 1976-79. Following a year at the prep level, Briner moved to Portland State, where he was the quarterback and receivers coach.

Briner graduated from California Western after attending Southern Cal for three years. He was born on December 28, 1950 in Gardena, Calif.

LEON BURTNETT, Running Backs

Leon Burtnett enters his third season as Colts running back coach. This is his first professional coaching post.

Burtnett spent five seasons (1982-86) as the head coach at Purdue. He joined the Boilermakers in 1977 as defensive coordinator and was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 1979, the capacity he remained in until being tabbed head coach.

Burtnett landed his first collegiate post as secondary coach at Montana State in 1970. He held the same position at Washington State in 1971 and at Wyoming in 1972. He was elevated to defensive coordinator with Wyoming in 1973. Burtnett moved to San Jose State (1974-75) as linebacker coach, then entered the Big Ten at Michigan State to tutor Spartan linebackers in 1976.

Burtnett graduated from Southwestern (Kansas) University in 1965 with degrees in business and physical education. He was a fullback who earned honorable mention All-America honors.

Burtnett was born May 30, 1943 in Fresno, Calif. He is married to the former Cecilia Johnson of Sonora, Texas. They have three children, Kyle (13), Ryan (10) and Brooke (7).

GEORGE CATAVOLOS, Secondary

George Catavolos joined the Colts in May of 1984 as the defensive secondary coach, his first professional position after a successful collegiate career.

Catavolos moved to the Colts after serving as the secondary coach under Johnny Majors at Tennessee (1982-83). Prior to 1982, Catavolos worked as the secondary coach at Kentucky (1977-81). He was part of the staff which guided Kentucky to a 10-1 record (6-0 in the Southeastern Conference) in 1977.

Catavolos began coaching as a graduate assistant at Purdue in 1967, under Jack Mollenkopf. He worked there for two years before taking his first full-time assistantship at Middle Tennessee State in 1969. Catavolos joined the Louisville staff as a defensive back coach in 1970, then landed the same position at Purdue in 1971. He coached at Purdue for six years under head coaches Bob DeMoss and Alex Agase.

Catavolos received his bachelor's and master's degree from Purdue, where he starred as a defensive back. He was co-captain for the 1967 Purdue squad which defeated USC, 14-13, in the Rose Bowl. He also received that year's Nobel E. Kizer Award for academic excellence.

Catavolos was born May 8, 1945 in Chicago. He is married to the former Tona Jones of Royal Center, Ind. They have two daughters, Lindsay Marie (6) and Stephanie Lynn (5).

MILT JACKSON, Wide Receivers

Milt Jackson enters his first season as receivers coach of the Colts. He joins Indianapolis from Houston, where he finished his third year in the same capacity. It was his ninth season in the NFL.

Jackson first entered the NFL with San Francisco (1980-82) as receivers/special teams coach. He moved on to tutor the same position with Buffalo (1983-84), then joined Philadelphia as running backs coach for the 1985 season.

Jackson, 45, was selected in the seventh-round of the NFL draft by the 49ers and the first-round of the baseball draft by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1967. He spent the 1967 season on the 49ers' taxi squad. Jackson gained his first coaching position as a graduate assistant at Oregon State (1973), where he earned his master's degree in education. He joined Rice (1974) as running backs coach, then moved to Cal-Berkeley (1975-76) as linebackers coach. Jackson served as defensive backs coach at Oregon (1977-78) and as tight end coach with UCLA (1979).

Jackson was born October 16, 1943 in Groesbeck, Texas. He played baseball and football at Tulsa University. He is married to the former Brenda Gibson of Sacramento, Ca. They have three children, Shelley Ann (16), Garrett (7) and Milton Stephen II.

LARRY KENNAN, Offensive Coordinator

Larry Kennan enters his first season as offensive coordinator of the Colts. Kennan, 44, is a 23-year coaching veteran on the professional, collegiate and high school levels. He joined Denver in 1988 as wide receivers coach after serving as the quarterback coach of the Los Angeles Raiders from 1982-87. Kennan was part of the coaching staff which directed the Raiders to a 38-9 Super Bowl XVIII Championship over Washington following the 1983 season.

Kennan entered the NFL after serving as head coach at Lamar University from 1979-81. He previously held offensive coordinator positions at Nevada-Las Vegas (1973-75) and Southern Methodist (1976-78) under Ron Meyer.

Kennan graduated from LaVerne (Ca.) College with a degree in history. He quarterbacked his collegiate teams from 1962-65. He served assistantships at LaVerne (1966) and Garden Grove (Ca.) High School (1967-68) before moving to the University of Colorado as an assistant. Kennan worked in the Colorado program from 1969-71, then during 1972 as offensive coordinator at Arvada (Co.) West High School, before joining Meyer at Nevada-Las Vegas.

Kennan was born June 13, 1944 in Pomona, Calif. He is married to the former Pat Clark of LaVerne. They have three sons, Steve (18), Ryan (16) and Kyle (11).

BILL MUIR, Defensive Coordinator

Bill Muir enters his first season as defensive coordinator of the Colts. Muir, 46, joins Indianapolis after serving four years as offensive line coach with Detroit. Muir is a veteran of eleven NFL seasons, having spent time with New England (1982-84) as offensive line coach under Ron Meyer. He was a scout with Tampa Bay in 1978 before spending 1979-81 as the Bucs' Director of Pro Personnel.

Prior to entering the NFL, Muir was an assistant coach as Susquehanna (1965), Delaware Valley (1966-67), Rhode Island (1970-71), Idaho State (1972-73) and Southern Methodist (1976-77). He was associated with Meyer in the Mustang program. Muir also served as offensive coordinator with Orlando in the Continental Football League (1968-69) and with Houston-Shreveport in the World Football League (1974-75).

Muir played collegiately at Susquehanna as an offensive tackle from 1962-64. He was all-conference as a junior and senior.

Muir was born October 25, 1942 in Pittsburgh. He is married to the former Barbara Waddell of Munhall, Pa. They have two children, Kellan (19) and Brady (17).

DANTE SCARNECCHIA, Offensive Line

Dante Scarnecchia enters his first season as offensive line coach of the Colts. He joins Indianapolis from New England, where he served as special teams/tight end coach for seven seasons, including 1982-84 under Ron Meyer.

Scarnecchia's collegiate background includes five assistantships. He first served as offensive line coach at his alma mater, California Western (now U.S. International), from 1970-72. He moved to Iowa State (1973-74) where he was an offensive line and defensive backfield coach under Earle Bruce. Scarnecchia joined Southern Methodist from 1975-76, serving the latter year under Meyer, before moving to the University of Pacific (1977-78) as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. After holding the offensive line coaching position in 1979 at Northern Arizona, he returned to SMU in 1980 under Meyer in the same capacity. In his second stint at SMU, the club notched a 19-5 record and a Southwest Conference title (1981).

Scarnecchia, 41, was an all-conference guard. He earned all-NAIA District III honors as a senior. Scarnecchia holds a master's degree in physical education from U.S. International.

Scarnecchia was born February 15, 1948 in Los Angeles, Ca. He is married to the former Susan Grauman of Los Angeles. They have two children, Steve (11) and Lisa (8).

BRAD SEELY, Special Teams

Brad Seely enters his first season with Indianapolis, after having spent the past five seasons as offensive line coach at Oklahoma State. Seely managed blocking schemes which allowed running back Barry Sanders to set 23 NCAA rushing records and win the Heisman Trophy in 1988. This is his first professional coaching position.

Seely landed his first duty as a graduate assistant at South Dakota State in 1978. He moved to Colorado State as a graduate assistant in 1979, then was elevated to offensive line coach in the program for 1980. Seely joined Ron Meyer at Southern Methodist in 1981 as offensive line coach. The Mustangs posted a 10-1 mark that season. Seely took the offensive line coaching positions at North Carolina State in 1982 and at the University of Pacific in 1983 before entering his stint at Oklahoma State.

Seely, 32, was an all-state grid performer as a senior at South Dakota State in 1976. He was an all-academic choice for his final two seasons. Seely was an all-state prep pick in football and basketball.

Seely was born September 6, 1956 in Vinton, Iowa. He is married to the former Patricia Racine of Holyoke, Massachusetts. They have one daughter, Sarah (2).

RICK VENTURI, Linebackers

Rick Venturi joined the Colts in 1982 as the linebacker coach, making him the senior member of the coaching staff in terms of service to the club. While with the Colts in 1984, he served additionally as defensive coordinator.

During the past four seasons each of the Colts' top three tacklers have been linebackers. Venturi instructs Pro Bowlers Duane Bickett and Fredd Young, while tutoring future impact players like O'Brien Alston and Jeff Herrod.

Venturi entered the coaching ranks as a freshman coach for Northwestern from 1968-69. He took charge of the defensive secondary there from 1970-72. Venturi spent 1973-76 handling the linebacking coaching chores at Purdue, working along with George Catavolos, the Colts' secondary coach. Venturi left his Purdue post for the same position at Illinois in 1977. In 1978, Venturi landed the head coaching job at his alma mater, Northwestern, where he coached for three seasons.

Venturi was born February 23, 1946 in Taylorville, Ill. He is married to the former Cheri Rotello of Rockford, Ill. They have two children, Marin (18) and Jason (16).

TOM ZUPANCIC, Strength and Conditioning

Tom Zupancic joined the Colts staff in 1984 as the strength and conditioning coach. A fixture in Indianapolis for years as the owner and operator of his own gymnasium, he came to the club after being a finalist in the 1984 U.S. Olympic Wrestling Trials.

A hometown product of Cathedral High School (1973) and Indiana Central University (1978), Zupancic was a three-time Indiana State College wrestling champion and a four-year grid letterman. As a power lifting competitor since 1974, he owns an undefeated record in 48 state, regional and national exhibitions to date.

Zupancic has been a part of four USA National Wrestling Teams to Europe. He was a member of two USA World Teams, while also winning Canadian, AAU and USWF National Wrestling Championships. In 1980, he was an alternate to the USA Greco Roman Wrestling Olympic Team.

In addition, Zupancic ranks 14th in the world among alltime super heavyweights with a 600-pound bench press (set in 1988).

Zupancic is one of the most active staffers for charities and public appearances. Along with lifting demonstrations, he gives talks on goal-setting and positive thinking. He was also a feature subject on HBO's "Inside the NFL" during the 1986 season.

Zupancic was born September 14, 1955. He is married to the former Carrie Oldham of Shelbyville, Ind.

The Colts' home is located on 32 acres of land just west of I-465 on 56th Street. Built at a cost of over $4 million, the complex features three practice fields including two natural-turf fields and one AstroTurf surface.

The 43,500 square foot structure includes: spacious locker rooms; a steam room; a sauna; a 12' × 12' sunken hydrotherapy tank; a 24' × 78' training room; a 34' × 23' vestibule and lobby; and a 20' X 17' working press area. Three racquetball courts and a quarter-mile outdoor running track provides for cardiovascular exercise. The Colts moved into the facility in August of 1985.

BOB TERPENING, Assistant General Manager

Bob Terpening, whose association with the Colts goes back to 1970, was promoted to assistant general manager of the club in May of 1984.

Terpening, 46, began working with the Colts in 1970 grading films during his tenure as the head football coach at Baltimore City College H.S. In 1971 he joined the New England Patriots' scouting department. In 1977 Terpening returned to the Colts as a college scout and in January of 1982 was named Director of Pro Personnel. He held that position until his elevation to assistant general manager.

Terpening received his bachelor's degree from Shepherd College in West Virginia and then earned his master's degree from the University of West Virginia. He also did additional graduate study at Johns Hopkins.

Terpening and his wife, Virginia, have two sons, Chris (17) and Matt (13). The family resides in Carmel.

JACK BUSHOFSKY, Player Personnel Director

Jack Bushofsky was named the Colts Player Personnel Director in June, 1983 and is responsible for directing the college scouting aspects of the Colts personnel department. Bushofsky served the previous four years as a college and pro personnel scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Before joining the Bucs in 1979, he worked two years as a BLESTO combine scout. The 51-year old Pittsburgh native has had an extensive career in football serving as head coach at his alma mater, Austin Peay (1973-76), assistant coach at Villanova (1968-72), and several years in the Pittsburgh high school system. After serving in the Marine Corps, he earned Little All-America honors as a guard and linebacker at Austin Peay from 1959-61 where he received a bachelor's degree in health and education and a master's degree in administration. Born October 8, 1937 in Pittsburgh, he and his wife, Mary Ann, have three children, Danielle (21), Jeffery (19) and Bryne Marie (14).

PETE WARD, Director of Operations

Entering his eighth year with the Colts, Pete Ward is responsible for various operational and administrative functions. Ward joined the Colts in 1981 as an intern in the public relations department, and was named Administrative Assistant in 1982 following his graduation from the University of Virginia. He was named Director of Operations shortly after the Colts' arrival in Indianapolis in April, 1984. Born in New Orleans, Louisiana, Ward is single and resides in Zionsville.

HUNTER SMITH, Head Trainer

In his seventh year with the Colts, Hunter Smith was named the club's head athletic trainer in June of 1984. He served as the Colts' assistant trainer during the 1983 season following a one-year stint as the head trainer at William and Mary in 1982.

Prior to joining the staff at William and Mary, Smith served 10 years as an assistant professor in physical education and head athletic trainer at Salisbury State College. A Certified Athletic Trainer, he was one of the founding leaders of the Maryland State Certified Athletic Trainers Association. Smith earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State University in 1971 and a master's degree in physical education and health from Tennessee Technological University one year later. He served on the Board of Directors of the National Athletic Trainers Association from 1982 to 1984. Born August 5, 1949, in Salisbury, Md., he and his wife, Susan, have three children, Kelly (7), Brian (5) and Kevin (5).

DAVE HAMMER, Assistant Trainer

Dave Hammer is entering his sixth season as assistant trainer, having joined the club in July of 1984. Hammer earned a master's degree in Physical Education at Syracuse in 1984, and served as a graduate assistant trainer. He also attended West Virginia University from 1977-82, as a member of the undergraduate athletic training curriculum. Hammer spent the 1981 training camp as a member of the Colts' summer staff, along with serving with the club during parts of the 1981-83 seasons. Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. on May 10, 1959, Dave and his wife, Sharon, reside with their son, Christopher, in Indianapolis.

JON SCOTT, Equipment Manager

Jon Scott joined the Colts in March, 1982 as assistant equipment manager and was elevated to head of the club's equipment staff in November of the same year. Before joining the Colts on a full-time basis, Scott worked as assistant equipment manager at Arizona State University for two years. His association with the Colts began when he worked as an assistant to the equipment manager during the club's 1979 and 1980 summer training camps. Scott received a bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Michigan State University in 1980 where he served as a student equipment manager for six years (1975-80). Born on December 18, 1956, Scott is a native of East Lansing, Michigan. He is single and resides in Indianapolis.

He served from 1982 to 1985 as a College Scout before being named Director of Pro Personnel on May 31, 1985. He remained in that capacity until 1987. As Director of Pro Personnel, Powers was responsible for personnel assessment within the league and assisting Jack Bushofsky in collegiate scouting. Powers joined the Colts after six years in the NFL as a defensive back with the New York Giants and Kansas City. He was a fifth round 1974 draft pick of the Giants. He played four seasons with the Giants and briefly for the Chiefs in 1978. Powers lettered three years at Oklahoma and earned All-Big Eight honors at safety as a senior. He was born August 19, 1951 in Pascagoula, Mississippi.

PAT MONDOCK, College Scout, West

Pat Mondock enters his fourth season as a College Scout for the Colts. He joined the organization in that capacity in June of 1986. Mondock possesses a wealth of scouting experience. He was named BLESTO Western Regional Scout in 1983 and served in the Rocky Mountain area prior to working with Indianapolis. His coaching career spans 22 years on the high school and collegiate level. He was the head coach at Washington and Jefferson College in Washington, Pa. from 1972-82. He was a prep head coach at Southern Columbia County and Ridgeway High Schools in Western Pennsylvania from 1962-70. Mondock holds an undergraduate degree in health and physical education from Lock Haven (Pa.) State College and a master's degree in the same concentration from West Virginia University. He was born March 17, 1938 in Morrisdale, Pa. He is married to the former Kathleen Marra of Washington, Pa.

MIKE BUTLER, College Scout, Midwest and East

Mike Butler is entering his third season with the Colts. He joined the club in 1987 from the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he was a member of the personnel department since 1983. Butler was a fullback and defensive end at Massanutten Academy and West Virginia, where he was converted to center. He also attended Villanova and received his bachelor's degree in fine arts at Indiana University (Pa.) in 1983. Butler, 30, is the son of Jack Butler, a former Pittsburgh Steelers defensive back and current director of the BLESTO Scouting Combine.

JOHN GOELLER, College Scout, South

John Goeller joined the Colts in June of 1985 as college scout after serving as a regional scout for BLESTO since 1983. Goeller entered scouting after serving eight years as a coach on the high school and collegiate level. He was an assistant at Austin Peay (1976-78) where he was associated with Jack Bushofsky, now the Colts' Director of Player Personnel. Goeller served a graduate assistantship at Florida State in 1978, then moved to Monroe (N.C.) High School as head football coach from 1979-83. Goeller, 35, was a three-year starter at defensive tackle at North Carolina State. He was tabbed defensive MVP in the 1973 Liberty Bowl against Kansas. Goeller is married to the former Caryl Schratz of Pittsburgh.

*Hoosier Dome Record

WEEK ONE: Houston 17, Colts 14 (OT)
September 4, 1988 Hoosier Dome 3:00 p.m.

Before a soldout Hoosier Dome audience, the Colts dropped an overtime 17-14 decision to Houston. The Colts failed to capitalize on Oilers miscues throughout the game, while two of their own spelled defeat. CB-Steve Brown returned a QB-Gary Hogeboom pass 44 yards for the score, then a RB-Eric Dickerson fumble on the first play of overtime set Houston up for the winning tally, a 35-yard Tony Zendejas field goal 3:51 into the extra period.

WEEK THREE: Cleveland 23, Colts 17
September 19, 1988 Cleveland Stadium 7:00 p.m.

The Colts failed to avenge a playoff loss to Cleveland as they fell, 23-17, to the Browns at Cleveland Stadium. The club fell to 0-3 and lost the services of QB-Jack Trudeau, who suffered a knee injury. RB-Eric Dickerson rushed for 117 yards and PR-Clarence Verdin raced 73 yards with a punt to record the club's first scoring return since the 1985 season. Browns QB-Mike Pagel hit 23 of 38 passes for 255 yards and two scores.

WEEK FOUR: Colts 15, Miami 13
September 25, 1988 Hoosier Dome 12:00 p.m.

The Colts rode the right toe of K-Dean Biasucci, who booted a club record-tying five field goals for a 15-13 win. Two of Biasucci's kicks were from the 50+ range, making him one of 14 kickers in NFL history to hit twice from that distance in a game. Rookie QB-Chris Chandler won his initial start, while RB-Eric Dickerson (30-125) posted his 47th career 100-yard game (tying Franco Harris for third place in league history). The Colts defense sacked Miami QB-Dan Marino four times.

WEEK SEVEN: Colts 35, Tampa Bay 31
October 16, 1988 Hoosier Dome 12:00 p.m.

Indianapolis recorded its second win of the season, 35-31, over Tampa Bay. The Colts struck for a 21-10 halftime lead which later expanded to 35-10, before QB-Vinny Testaverde (25-42-469, 2 TDs) led a late charge. Testaverde riddled the Colts' defense for 340 yards in the second half, but it was CB-Eugene Daniel's 41-yard scoring interception return which provided the winning points.

WEEK NINE: Colts 55, Denver 23
October 31, 1988 Hoosier Dome 9:00 p.m.

The Colts rolled to a Monday Night-record 55 points in a 55-23 defeat of the Denver Broncos. Indianapolis tallied on three first-period RB-Eric Dickerson touchdowns to gain control early. Dickerson totaled a club-record four rushing scores on the evening, while the Colts set a team record with 45 first-half points before a Hoosier Dome record crowd of 60,544. Dickerson's TD total set a personal high in Indianapolis' first home Monday Night appearance. The point total was the third-highest in Colts history.

WEEK TEN: Colts 38, New York Jets 14
November 6, 1988 Hoosier Dome 4:00 p.m.

Indianapolis knotted its record at 5-5 with a 38-14 victory over the New York Jets. Rookie QB-Chris Chandler hit 14 of 22 passes for 178 yards and a TD, while rushing five times for 33 yards and one TD (29 yards). The Colts did not allow a QB sack for a club-record fourth consecutive game, and K-Dean Biasucci tied an NFL mark with his fifth FG from the 50+ range on the season.

WEEK ELEVEN: Colts 20, Green Bay 13
November 13, 1988 Lambeau Field 1:00 p.m.

Indianapolis posted its fifth consecutive victory, 20-13, at Green Bay. The Colts did not have victory assured until NT Harvey Armstrong batted down a Packers pass at the Indianapolis two on the game's final play. The Colts produced 17 of their points off Green Bay fumbles, forcing five on the day. The five-game streak was the club's first since 1977.

WEEK TWELVE: Minnesota 12, Colts 3
November 20, 1988 Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome 1:00 p.m.

Minnesota snapped the Colts' five-game winning streak and limited Indianapolis to 213 net yards and without a touchdown in a 12-3 victory. The loss dropped the Colts' record to 6-6. RB-Eric Dickerson had 72 yards on 22 carries, while QB-Chris Chandler (5-14-45 yards) lost for only the third time in nine rookie starts. Minnesota totaled only 275 net yards, but K-Chuck Nelson booted four field goals, the last with 1:44 remaining for the win.

WEEK THIRTEEN: Colts 24, New England 21
November 27, 1988 Hoosier Dome 4:00 p.m.

Indianapolis rallied for 10 fourth-quarter points and survived a late New England scoring threat for a 24-21 victory. K-Dean Biasucci booted a 28-yard field goal with 2:22 remaining, then Patriots K-Jason Staurovsky misfired on a 27-yarder at the gun. The win was the Colts' fifth home triumph of the season, the club's best total since 1977, while the sellout was the team's sixth in seven Hoosier Dome appearances.

WEEK FIFTEEN: Jets 34, Colts 16
December 10, 1988 Giants Stadium 12:30 p.m.

Suffering five sacks and totaling just 109 rushing yards, Indianapolis lost a crucial divisional battle to the New York Jets, 34-16. The Jets rallied for 21 third quarter points after the Colts had gained their only lead just prior to the half. QB-Chris Chandler suffered a bruised shoulder and was relieved by Gary Hogeboom. Indianapolis controlled the ball for only 8:12 of the second half.

WEEK SIXTEEN: Colts 17, Buffalo 14
December 18, 1988 Hoosier Dome 1:00 p.m.

QB-Gary Hogeboom relieved an injured Chris Chandler and conducted fourth quarter scoring drives of 80 and 75 yards to lead Indianapolis to a 17-14 win over Buffalo. The win assured the Colts of consecutive winning seasons for the first time since 1976-77. Hogeboom hit WR-Matt Bouza and RB-Albert Bentley on scoring passes, the final one with 1:18 remaining for the win. RB-Eric Dickerson rushed for 166 yards on 36 carries and won his fourth league rushing title. He became the first Colt since Alan Ameche (1955) to be the NFL's top rusher. K-Dean Biasucci nailed a 52-yard field goal, his NFL-record sixth field goal from the 50-yard range on the season.

Indianapolis COLTS

HISTORY OF THE COLTS

Professional football came to Indianapolis March 28, 1984, when Colts owner Robert Irsay moved the historic NFL franchise from Baltimore to Indianapolis—the friendly heart of the midwest.

The roots of the franchise go back to December 28, 1946, when the bankrupt Miami Seahawks of the All-America Football Conference were purchased and relocated in Baltimore by a group headed by Bob Rodenberg. As the result of a contest in Baltimore, won by Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., the team was renamed the "Colts."

On September 7, 1947, wearing green and silver uniforms, the Colts under Head Coach Cecil Isbell (formerly an All-American player and coach at Purdue University) won their initial AAFC game, 16-7, over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The team concluded its inaugural season before a record Baltimore crowd of 51,583 losing to the New York Yankees, 21-7. The Colts finished the year with a 2-11-1 record good for a fourth place finish in the Eastern Division.

The Colts completed the 1948 season with a 7-8 record, tying the Buffalo Bills for the division title. The Colts compiled a 1-11 slate in 1949. The All-America Football Conference and the National Football League merged in 1950 and the Colts became a member of the NFL. After posting a 1-11 record for the second consecutive year, the franchise was dissolved by the league on January 18, 1951 because of its failing financial condition.

After two full seasons without professional football, NFL Commissioner Bert Bell challenged the franchise in December of 1952 to sell 15,000 season tickets within six weeks in order to re-enter the NFL. That 15,000-ticket quota was reached in four weeks and three days.

On January 23, 1953, under the principal ownership of Carroll Rosenbloom, the NFL's Dallas Team franchise was moved to Baltimore where, keeping the "Colts" nickname, the Texan team colors of blue and white were inherited.

Before their first NFL season, the "new" Baltimore Colts engineered one of the biggest trades in sports history. In a deal with the Cleveland Browns involving 15 players, Baltimore received 10 Browns in exchange for five Colts. Among the players who came to Baltimore in the deal were Don Shula, Bert Rechichar, Carl Taseff and Art Spinney. These players helped the Colts open the 1953 NFL season with a 13-9 upset of the Chicago Bears in a game where Bert Rechichar set a then-NFL record with a 56-yard field goal.

In 1954, the Colts hired Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Ewbank would guide the Colts for the next nine seasons (the longest tenure of any Colt head coach) and lead the club to its first divisional and world championships.

On November 30, 1958, the Colts clinched their first Western Division title with a 35-27 win over San Francisco before a record home sellout crowd of 57,557. Four weeks later, Baltimore won its first World Championship, downing the New York Giants, 23-17, in the fabled "sudden-death" overtime contest at Yankee Stadium. The Colts repeated as champion in 1959, clinching their second Western Division crown and defeating the Giants, 31-16 in Baltimore for the World Title.

In January 1963, Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as the team's third head coach since 1953. During the 1963 campaign, quarterback John Unitas led the Colts offense to eight team records and set a then-NFL individual passing mark of 237 completions. The Colts won a club record eleven consecutive games in 1964, enroute to clinching their third Western Conference title and first under Shula. During that campaign, Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and Lenny Moore scored 20 touchdowns, both NFL records at the time. The following year, Baltimore tied Green Bay for the Western Conference title. With halfback Tom Matte quarterbacking the club because of injuries to John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, the Colts lost a controversial 13-10 "sudden-death" playoff contest to the Packers.

Under Shula, Baltimore made its first Super Bowl appearance in 1968. The club finished first in the Coastal Division with a 13-1 mark, then defeated Minnesota, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship game and blanked Cleveland, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. The team went on to face the American Football League Champion New York Jets in Super Bowl III, losing a 16-7 upset.

In May of 1969, the NFL merged with the AFL and Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Cleveland joined the old AFL teams to form the American Football Conference of the NFL. For the 1970 season, the Colts were situated in the Eastern Division of the AFC and on September 20, the club won its first AFC game, 16-14, over San Diego. In mid-December, Baltimore clinched its first Eastern Division Championship with a 20-14 win at Buffalo, then defeated Cincinnati and Oakland in the playoffs to win the AFC Championship. On January 17, 1971, the Colts defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, 16-13, on Jim O'Brien's 32-yard field goal with five seconds remaining in the game.

In July, 1972, the Colts came under new ownership as Robert Irsay acquired the club from Carroll Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1974, two young Colt stars established NFL records as running back Lydell Mitchell carried the ball 40 times against the New York Jets at Shea Stadium and quarterback Bert Jones completed 17 consecutive passes against the same Jet club later in the season. Mitchell set another mark that season, winning the league pass receiving title with 72 receptions.

In 1975, Mitchell would continue his record-setting pace by becoming the first running back in Colt history to rush for 1,000 yards, gaining 1,193 yards on 289 carries.

After posting a 2-12 record in 1974, Baltimore's fortunes began to change with the hiring of Ted Marchibroda as head coach in February, 1975. Marchibroda led the Colts to three consecutive Eastern Division titles before posting back-to-back 5-11 seasons in 1978-79.

The Colts named Mike McCormack to replace Marchibroda as head coach in January, 1980. The Colts improved to a 7-9 record in 1980 before recording the worst record in Club history with a 2-14 slate in 1981.

On December 21, 1981, the Colts named Frank Kush to replace McCormack as Head Coach. In addition, Club owner Robert Irsay announced the appointment of Ernie Accorsi as General Manager on May 16, 1982.

Under Kush's guidance, the Colts recorded their first winning preseason record (3-2) since 1970. After two weeks of regular season play, a players' strike resulted in the loss of seven games per team from the 1982 schedule and each team played a nine game schedule. The Colts finished the season with a record of 0-8-1.

The Colts received the first selection in the April 26, 1983 NFL draft and selected Stanford quarterback John Elway. Six days later on May 2, the Colts traded Elway to Denver in exchange for the Broncos' 1983 first round choice, offensive tackle Chris Hinton, along with quarterback Mark Herrmann and Denver's first round choice in the 1983 NFL draft.

In 1983, the Colts forged the biggest turnaround in NFL history for a team that had gone winless the previous season. The 1983 Colts were 6-4 after week 10 and then went 7-9 on the season. The Chris Hinton acquisition proved successful as the rookie earned a starting berth at offensive guard for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. The Colts' running game came together as Curtis Dickey and Randy McMillan combined for just shy of 2,000 yards rushing to rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

Following the 1984 season, President Robert Irsay and General Manager Jim Irsay appointed Rod Dowhower as Head Coach on January 28, 1985. Dowhower posted a 5-11 mark that season with a club which rushed for a conference-leading 2,439 yards, fifth-best in the NFL. The team averaged 5.0 yards per attempt to lead the NFL, while marking the first time in a decade that an AFC team achieved that feat.

On December 1, 1986, Ron Meyer succeeded Dowhower as Head Coach. Meyer was instrumental in the Colts winning their final three games of the season to finish with a 3-13 record. He then led the Colts to the AFC Eastern Division title with a 9-6 record in 1987, and to a 9-7 mark in 1988.

In more than 30 years of National Football League competition, the Colts have achieved a 262-250-7 record, including three World Championships and 10 Conference or Division titles. The Colts' regular season victory total of 251 is among the highest of any NFL club over the last three decades.

The success of the Colts franchise is exemplified by the number of Colts who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A total of six players have been selected for enshrinement including Raymond Berry, Art Donovan, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker, John Unitas and Head Coach Weeb Ewbank.

The regular season returned on Sunday and Monday, November 20-21. Eight weekends of the 16-week regular season were not played as scheduled. A ninth weekend of 14 games was rescheduled and played on Sunday and Monday, January 2-3, 1983. A total of 98 games were erased by the strike.

April 26, 1983—Colts select Stanford QB-John Elway with the first pick in the 1983 NFL draft.

May 2, 1983—Colts trade John Elway to Denver in exchange for Broncos' 1983 number one draft choice, OT-Chris Hinton, along with QB-Mark Herrmann and Denver's first round selection in the 1984 NFL draft.

December 18, 1983—Colts complete season at 7-9, marking the biggest turnaround in NFL history for a team that had gone winless the previous season.

March 28, 1984—Colts in Indianapolis

April 18, 1984—Indianapolis Colts tickets offered for sale. Overwhelming response yeilds 143,000 season ticket requests in two weeks.

April 26, 1984—Jim Irsay named general manager.

December 13, 1984—Hal Hunter named interim head coach.

January 28, 1985—Rod Dowhower named head coach.

August 23, 1985—Colts moved into new training complex in Indianapolis.

April 19, 1986—More than 10,000 fans visit Colts training complex during first-ever public open house.

December 1, 1986—Ron Meyer named head coach.

September 22, 1987—As in 1982, two weeks into the regular season the NFL Players Association called a players strike. The strike lasted 24 days, from September 22 to October 15. The 14 NFL games scheduled for the weekend of September 27-28 were canceled because of the strike. The League schedule resumed October 4-5 with replacement teams. Replacement teams played for three weekends (October 4-5, October 11-12, October 18-19) before regular players resumed play late weekend of October 25-26.

December 27, 1987—Colts clinch AFC Eastern Division title with 24-6 home victory over Tampa Bay.

October 31, 1988—Colts defeated Denver, 55-23, in first Monday Night Game in Indianapolis. Eric Dickerson rushed for a club-record four touchdowns.

Ron Meyer led Colts to division title in 1987.

JOHN UNITAS, QB, 6-1, 196, Louisville

1973 was the end of an era in the NFL. John Unitas, the greatest quarterback ever to put on shoulder pads, retired. After 18 years, Unitas left the game with a helmet full of records.

He was the first quarterback to pass for more than 40,000 yards. His NFL records include most consecutive seasons leading the league in touchdown passes (4) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (47), a feat that rivals Joe DiMaggio's 56 game hitting streak.

He ended his career ranked number one in NFL history in six categories: most passes attempted (5,186), most passes completed (2,830), most yards gained passing (40,239), most seasons 3,000 yards or more passing (3), most games with 300 yards or more passing (26) and most touchdown passes (290).

He also set several post-season marks including highest career completion percentage (62.9) and most yards gained in championship play (1,177).

In his 17 seasons with the Colts, he established 22 records. During his stay in Baltimore, Unitas was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player three times and played in 10 Pro Bowls, the most ever by a Colt. He was 5 times named All-Pro.

With Unitas calling signals, the Colts won World Championships in 1958 and 1959 and the Super Bowl title in 1970.

Unitas opened his quarterbacking career with the Colts throwing an interception for a TD to J.C. Caroline of the Bears on October 21, 1956. He ended his career with the Colts by throwing a TD to Eddie Hinton on December 3, 1972. Between those two passes he provided an entire generation of football fans with memories and moments that they will never forget.

1956 Called the "Cinderella Kid" sets NFL mark for completion percentage by a rookie 55.6%

1957 Throws for 2,550 yds and 24 TDs and is named NFL MVP.

1958 Led Colts to 23-17 overtime win against N.Y. Giants for World Championship.

1959 Throws record 32 TDs and leads team to second World Championship

1960 Streak of 47 consecutive games with a TD pass ends. Sets an NFL record of 3,099 yds passing.

1963 Completes 237 passes for NFL record.

1964 Named the NFL's MVP, had only 6 of 305 pass attempts intercepted.

1966 Tops NFL record for career TDs with 232 and most yards gained passing 29,539.

1967 Leads the team to a 11-1-2 record and wins his third MVP award in the NFL.

1969 Named the NFL's greatest quarterback in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the league. Named the player of the decade by the Associated Press.

1970 Leads the team to its first AFC championship. Suffers a rib injury in the first half of the Colts 16-13 Super Bowl win over the Dallas Cowboys.

1973 Career ends with 40,239 yds passing on 5,186 attempts and 2,830 completions with 290 TDs, all NFL records.

DEC. 28, 1958 YANKEE STADIUM

BALTIMORE 23, NEW YORK 17—Quarterback Johnny Unitas took the Colts 80 yards in 13 plays, the last a one-yard carry by Alan Ameche through the right side of the Giant line at 8 minutes, 15 seconds of sudden death overtime. The regulation game ended 17-17 when Baltimore's Steve Myhra booted a 20-yard field goal seconds from the gun. It has been called "the greatest game ever played" and the 64,185 who watched it at Yankee Stadium agree.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP
DEC. 27, 1964 CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Both teams drew blanks in the first half but the Browns nailed down the World Championship with a 17-point third quarter. Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jim Brown made the Cleveland attack click, as it rolled up 20 first downs to Baltimore's 11 and outgained the Colts, 339 to 171 yards. Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns—all to end Gary Collins from distances of 18, 42 and 51 yards, while the brilliant Brown bulled for 114 yards on 27 shots as Cleveland controlled the ball. Attendance was 79,544.

NFL WESTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF
DEC. 26, 1965 LAMBEAU FIELD

GREEN BAY 13, BALTIMORE 10—A courageous effort by the undermanned Colts was doomed by a pair of Don Chandler field goals—one with 1:58 remaining from 22 yards to tie the score and a second of 25 yards to conclude 13:39 of "sudden-death" action. The Colts had jumped ahead 7-0, after 21 seconds of play when Don Shinnick scooped up Bill Anderson's fumble and trudged 25 yards to the end zone. They protected their edge tenaciously until the finish as Tom Matte went the route at quarterback, rushing for 57 yards and passing for 40. Zeke Bratkowski, subbing for the injured Bart Starr, completed 22 of 39 aerials for 248 yards. The Packers ran 80 plays to the Colts' 59 and led in first downs, 23-9. Attendance was 50,484.

NFL PLAYOFF
DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14—It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Bill Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him. Attendance was 60,238.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

AFC PLAYOFF

BALTIMORE 17, CINCINNATI 0—Attendance 51,127. John Unitas connected with TD passes to Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters and led the Colts into the AFC title game by defeating Cincinnati. The Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day and limited Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 yards passing. Norm Bulaich, Colts' rookie rusher, picked up 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, Colts' rookie kicker and leading scorer, connected with a 44-yard FG, missed one from the same distance. A 49-yard FG try by Horst Muhlmann was blocked by Ray May. Mike Curtis, Colts' middle linebacker, made the game's only interception, picking off one of Virgil Carter's fourth-period passes, to set up an eventual final Colt score.

BALTIMORE 27, OAKLAND 17—At Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md., attendance 56,368. Johnny Unitas' passing and play calling, and the running of rookie Norm Bulaich, powered the Colts to the first AFC Championship. Bulaich scored twice and Unitas picked up 245 yards on 11 completions, with his key one coming in the fourth quarter on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Ray Perkins out of a formation of four wide receivers. George Blanda (who at 43 became the oldest player to perform in a title game when he replaced injured Daryle Lamonica in the second period) threw TD passes to Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells, but was intercepted three times. Ed Hinton caught five passes for the Colts for 115 yards.

SUPER BOWL V

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 79,204. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the Orange Bowl uprights with five seconds left in regulation time to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two in five plays. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke punctured into the end zone and after O'Brien's PAT it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left in the game and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

DEC. 26, 1971 CLEVELAND STADIUM

BALTIMORE 20, CLEVELAND 3—Attendance 74,082. Don Nottingham, playing for the injured Norm Bulaich, scored two TDs and rushed for 92 yards while Baltimore's strong defense dominated play in a 20-3 Colt victory over the Cleveland Browns that sent Baltimore into the AFC finals. Jim O'Brien added two field goals for the Colts and Don Cockroft, who had two kicks blocked by Bubba Smith, produced the Brown's only points. Rick Volk intercepted two of Bill Nelsen's passes and Charlie Stukes picked off a third. John Unitas went all the way, blending the strong running of Nottingham with passes to his favorite target, tight end Tom Mitchell, who caught 5 for 73 yards.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 2, 1972 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0—At Orange Bowl, attendance 75,629. The Colts, playing without their starting running backs Norm Bulaich and Tom Matte, still managed to compile 302 total yards to Miami's 286 but were damaged by the Dolphins' big plays—Bob Griese to Paul Warfield 75-yard pass for TD in first period and Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for a TD in the third quarter. Larry Csonka carried five yards to a fourth quarter touchdown for Miami. John Unitas completed 20 of 36 passes for 224 yards but Colts were shutout for the first time since Dec. 5, 1965 (0-13 by Chicago Bears). Another big play for Miami was stopping Colts fourth and one attempt at Dolphins' nine-yard line when lead was 7-0.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1975 THREE RIVERS STADIUM

PITTSBURGH 28, BALTIMORE 10—Attendance 49,053. The Colts were able to keep the game close with the defending Super Bowl champions until the final period even without the services of starting QB Bert Jones. Jones sustained a severe bruise to his throwing arm on the Colts first offensive series and was unable to return to action until the fourth quarter. Backup QB Marty Domres generated a second quarter score with a 5-yard TD toss to Glenn Doughty. The Colts trailed 14-10 after three quarters before Pittsburgh QB Terry Bradshaw scored on a 2-yard run midway through the final period. Steelers LB Andy Russell iced the victory in the final two minutes when he returned a Jones fumble 93 yards for a score.

DEC. 19, 1976 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

PITTSBURGH 40, BALTIMORE 14—Attendance 60,020. The Colts were playing "catch-up" ball all afternoon as the Steelers struck early and often. On the third play of the game, Pittsburgh stunned the Colts defense with a 76 yard TD bomb from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis. Baltimore countered with a first quarter Bert Jones TD pass to Roger Carr covering 17 yards but it would be the Colts only score until the final period. A 60 yard kickoff return by Theo Bell and a 50 yard Franco Harris burst from scrimmage were key plays in building the Steelers 26-7 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh offense amassed 526 total yards as Bradshaw threw for 264 and Harris picked up 132 on the ground.

DEC. 24, 1977 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

OAKLAND 37, BALTIMORE 31—Attendance 60,763. In one of the longest football games ever played, the Colts and Raiders needed six quarters to decide the winner of their AFC playoff game. An Errol Mann 22 yard FG with only 26 seconds left in regulation time put the game into overtime tied at 31. After a scoreless fifth quarter, Oakland ended the game when Ken Stabler hit TE Dave Casper for a 10 yard score. The lead changed hands nine times throughout the game. The Colts had some outstanding individual efforts in all facets of the game. On offense, Ron Lee came off the bench to rush for 46 yards on 11 carries and two TDs. Defensively, Bruce Laird intercepted two passes and returned one 61 yards for a TD. On special teams, Marshall Johnson raced 87 yards with a kickoff for a score.

COLTS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

National Football League records are indicated by an asterisk. Every attempt has been made to compile as complete a table of records as possible. Errors will be corrected if documented. Since the Colts joined the NFL in 1953, the league has increased the number of games played each season from 12 in 1953 to the current 16 in 1978. Here are the dates that the league increased the number of games played each season:
1953-60 12 games 1961-77 14 games 1978-89 16 games
Note: The 1982 NFL regular season was reduced from 16 games to nine games because of a players' strike. The 1987 season was 15 games due to a players' strike.
