JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS FOUNDATION

MISSION STATEMENT

Believing that youth represent the community's future, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation is committed to serving the greater Jacksonville area through strategic financial, networking and volunteer support benefitting economically and socially disadvantaged youth and families. By building upon our city's strengths, we seek to realize the positive potential of our young people in need. In doing so, we aim to serve as a model to other sports franchises.

PROGRAMS:

GRANTMAKING: When the Jaguars were named as the 30th franchise in 1993, the Weavers' vision was to give back to the community in a substantive manner. The Foundation was announced on September 14, 1994 and awarded its first grants before the team played its first game. From March 1995 through June 2002, the Jaguars Foundation has allocated more than $5.1 million dollars in grants. This level of giving is among the top few in professional sports. Through a fair, objective evaluation process, grants have been allocated to serve the needs of youth, including a mobile health van, after-school enrichment programs, child-abuse prevention services, an arts program for youth recovering from drug addiction, and domestic violence education for children.

HONOR ROWS: In partnership with Reebok, this unique program, now in its eighth year, uses seats at Jaguars home games as incentives for youth to earn a seat to the game by setting and achieving ambitious but realistic goals for academic achievement, behavioral improvement and participation in community service projects. In addition, all Honor Rows youth pledge to remain drug-, alcohol-, and tobacco-free. For 2002, more than 4,000 seats are being awarded to 39 agencies. Each agency has the flexibility and creativity necessary to determine how best to use seats as motivational goals. A volunteer committee reviews all applications. At the game, participants receive a meal, an Honor Rows T-shirt and hat, and special recognition by the Weavers and fans as they are featured on the stadium's Jumbotron. The Honor Rows program is sponsored by Reebok, with additional support by ALLTEL, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Sports Philanthropy Project. The United Way of Northeast Florida provides volunteers who ensure the overall safety and enjoyment of the participants.

GENERAL CHARITABLE USE SEATS: In addition to the Honor Rows, Jaguars Foundation programs use home game seats for charitable purposes, including Habitat, for volunteer recognition, Sailors Aweigh, for youth whose parents are on deployment with the Navy, the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation, for families with children who have leukemia or other childhood cancers, youth football, and support for volunteerism and other charitable organizations. The Jaguars Foundation allocates 11,800 seats each season for charitable purposes, with a total in-kind value exceeding $400,000.

PLAYBOOKS READING INITIATIVE: This award-winning innovative program was begun in 1996 to inspire young people to read. In The Official Playbooks, Jaguars owners, players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff recommend books they found particularly motivating as youth or as adults today. Through a partnership with the Jacksonville and surrounding counties' public libraries, youth can pick up The Official Playbooks during the football season at local libraries. Playbooks can also be accessed year-round at the exciting interactive website: playbooks.org. The site includes timely updates of favorite books from new players. Children can e-mail book reports and are eligible to win prizes. In addition, players, cheerleaders and team mascot Jackson de Ville visit dozens of schools, libraries and youth-serving agencies encouraging youth and parental reading.

STRAIGHT TALK: Straight Talk is a unique partnership with local media and Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida to help prevent teen pregnancy, HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted infections. Under the leadership of Foundation Chair and CEO, and Jaguars co-owner, Delores Barr Weaver, all local television stations, along with area radio, newspaper, internet sites, and billboard companies collaborate to offer teens and their parents candid information on sex and the consequences faced by sexually active teenagers. A major feature of Straight Talk is a live prime-time television town hall forum "Teens & Sex... the Real Truth." Broadcast each May on all local television stations, the show helps open the lines of communication and education for teens, parents, and concerned citizens and encourages responsible behavior. This program first aired live in 1995, and beginning in 2000 has aired annually.

This year's host was Ananda Lewis, former host of BET's "Teen Summit" and MTV's "HotZone." The show also featured Jaguars tight end Kyle Brady and safety Donovan Darius, radio personal, Les Amadeus and DJ Dr. Doom, local broadcaster Jennifer Candelino, Delores Barr Weaver, a guest panel of medical and legal experts, and an all-teen studio audience. The Foundation's Straight Talk website at jacksonville.com, created in partnership with The Florida Times-Union, includes a question-and-answer section, Ask Dr. Linda, featuring Linda Dinerman M.D. The Straight Talk program also includes $500,000 in multi-year grants, awarded in partnership with the Weaver Family Foundation, to local programs specifically dealing with teenage pregnancy and STI prevention; TV and game day Jumbotron public service announcements featuring Jaguars players; and production of a teen pregnancy prevention videotape titled "Teen Sex... In Their Own Words," for distribution to local agencies and schools.

Straight Talk

ANTI-TOBACCO INITIATIVE: The team and the Foundation have taken a nationally recognized leadership position in the local and professional sports community against youth tobacco use. The stadium bowl is smoke-free and has never had tobacco advertising or product sales. The Jaguars set an exceptional precedent as the first team in the NFL to have tobacco advertising removed from the back cover of the Jaguars GameDay program, since followed by the entire league. The Jaguars Foundation has partnered with the nation's largest private health care supporter, The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, to reduce youth tobacco use, sending a clear message that smoking is neither "cool" nor conducive to athletic performance. This novel effort involves the "Jaguars Don't Smoke" logo, showing a vibrant color Jaguar squashing a pack of cigarettes under its paw, on the scoreboard and concourse signage at ALLTEL Stadium; autograph cards used by athletes, coaches and cheerleaders; and public address announcements during games, and on television.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION: The Jaguars Foundation's innovative programs have been nationally recognized, including articles in the New York Times, Forbes, Grantmanship Center Magazine, St. Anthony Messenger, and on the "Osgood File" radio program. Awards include the Governor's Community Investment Award (1998) for the Honor Rows program; WTLV 12 Top of the Class Award (1996) for Playbooks; Bridge Builder Award (1997); Grandmakers in Health (1995 and 1996); and Florida Department of Education's Commissioner's Business Recognition Award (2001). Also, in 2001 the Jaguars Foundation was asked by The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to serve as a national demonstration site for other professional teams' foundations in conjunction with a three-year initiative by the Sports Philanthropy Project to increase the level of philanthropy in professional sports.

DELORES BARR

WEAVER

CHAIR/CEO, JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Delores Barr Weaver, a native of Columbus, Ga. and co-owner/partner of the Jaguars, is a woman possessed by the opportunity to make a difference in her adopted hometown of Jacksonville. Delores has a sincere interest in many areas of need, and through the Weaver Family Foundation she and husband, Wayne, have supported the work of many local agencies. The Weavers have been married 47 years and have two children, Brad and Leigh, and a 12-year-old granddaughter, Morgan. Leigh is the artist of TOUCHDOWN, the 16-foot-long and six-foot-high bronze jaguar that stands outside the West Touchdown Club at ALTEL Stadium.

Delores is committed to helping families and young people in the Jacksonville community lead self-sufficient, meaningful lives. Under her leadership, all seven local television stations and their affiliates, as well as the local newspaper, have joined in partnership to address the problem of teen pregnancy, AIDS, and increased male responsibility. Teen pregnancy is a major personal concern for Delores and is being addressed by the Foundation and local media in the effort to develop a quality prevention program for teens and to heighten awareness of adults in Jacksonville.

When asked about being a member of the public speaking circuit, Delores laughs and says, "It is interesting to note that until November 30, 1990, no one seemed to care what I was interested in, what good work I might be doing or what I had to say." Then she gives the credit to the Jaguars who "open the doors, and I must walk through as many as I can." As to accomplishments, Delores is most proud of the Jaguars Foundation and the impact it has already made on behalf of economically and socially disadvantaged children in the greater Jacksonville area. For Delores, the Foundation was a dream come true in September 1994. In March 1995, six months before the Jaguars played their first game, the first grants to eight local agencies in the amount of $140,000 were made, and through June 2002, the Foundation had allocated more than $5.1 million in grants. When talking about the Foundation, she is quick to credit Jaguars partners for their generous financial support and staff for their commitment to supporting programs that will have a long-term impact.

In addition to her concerns for Jacksonville's children, Delores has set a personal goal to help level the playing field of life for women and minorities. She is dedicated to eliminating sexism, racism and classism from the hearts, minds and vocabulary of our society.

Locally, Delores serves on the Governing Boards of the Jacksonville Community Foundation, LaVilla Cultural and Heritage Association, USO Council, WJCT Public Broadcasting, and she serves as Trustee of Fresh Ministries and the United Way of Northeast Florida. She also serves on the Advisory Boards of Ronald McDonald House and The Bridge of Northeast Florida as well as the Honorary Board of Dreams Come True. Delores is a staunch supporter of the three local domestic violence shelters: Betsy Griffin House, Hubbard House and Guigley House, as well as Planned Parenthood and is a member of The International Women's Forum. She is Chair of the Delores Barr Weaver Golf Tournament benefiting Hablajax, Jacksonville's affiliate of Habitat for Humanity. Since 1996, the tournament has built 32 houses which represent a cash contribution of $1,085 million to Hablajax. In addition, she is the Founder of Friends of Hablajax. Through the Florida Sales Tax Refund Program to build low-income housing, 17 organizations are designated Charter Members of Friends and will build 70 houses by year's end, representing a $2.3 million cash contribution to Hablajax. Delores says, "We can build houses for children, but then we must pray they will have a family to make it a home."

Nationally, Delores is a member of the Governing Boards of Martha Graham Dance Company and NFL Charities, both of New York, and the Dana-Farber Marathon Challenge and the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute of Boston, where Delores and Wayne have created the Claudia Adams Barr Program in Basic Cancer Research in memory and honor of her mother who lost her battle with cancer in 1957. Delores refers to cancer as her only known enemy and believes the answer to cures, and the eventual elimination of that dreaded disease, will be found at the workbench of research. The Weavers were instrumental in creating the Marathon Challenge, which provides an opportunity for participants in the Boston Marathon to raise funds for the work of the Barr Program. Since its inception in 1990, the Challenge has raised over $15 million.

And, yes, Delores was a football fan long before the Jaguars. She attends every game, and is as excited and nervous as Wayne on game day.

PETER

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Peter Racine joined the Jaguars Foundation in 2000 as director of programs and assumed the position of executive director in 2001.

For the past 20 years, he has developed and administered programs for abused, neglected, homeless and runaway children, including eight years as executive director of the Northeast Florida Exchange Club Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse. From 1987 to 1992, as executive director for Covenant House in Honduras, he established the agency's programs for street children in that country. Prior to that, he worked at Covenant House in Houston, New York City and Toronto. Racine has been a partner in various national and international initiatives, including Community Partnerships for Protecting Children, sponsored by the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation; Early Childhood Violence Prevention Project, funded by the U. S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; Outreach to Urban Street Children, supported by the European Economic Community; and the Sports Philanthropy Project, in partnership with The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

Racine received a B.A. at Rutgers, and a M.T.S. at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. He and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Miriam.

MARJORIE SABIO PROGRAM OFFICER

Marjorie Sabio has been with the Jaguars Foundation since its inception in 1994. She served as coordinator of grants and special programs prior to being promoted to program officer in spring 2001. Her responsibilities include Straight Talk, the Foundation's teen pregnancy prevention initiative; Playbooks, the reading program; grantmaking and evaluation.

Sabio received a B.A. degree in English with a concentration in communication from Boston College in 1990.

TAREK TABET PROGRAM OFFICER

Tarek Tabet joined the Jaguars Foundation as a program officer in 2001. His responsibilities include grantmaking and evaluation, as well as management of the Honor Rows and General Charitable Use seating programs. Before joining the Foundation, he served as program director and community planner at the Jacksonville Community Council Inc., where he managed the Forward Initiative for emerging leaders.

Tabet was born in Beirut, Lebanon. He earned a B.S. degree from Syracuse and a M.A. from Regent University. He and his wife, Ionia, have two boys, Wesley and Christian.

CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Wayne Weaver is a man driven by a challenge, and that challenge has never been bigger than in 2002 when he attempts to guide the Jaguars back into the upper echelon of the NFL.

In seven years under Weaver's ownership, the Jaguars grew from an expansion team into one of the most successful franchises in the NFL. Thus, the club's losing records in each of the last two seasons have re-ignited Weaver's fire. The 2002 offseason saw many changes for the franchise. His stated goal to the organization is to guide the team back into playoff contention. He is a man who does not like to lose.

"It was a very difficult offseason. We had to make some decisions that, emotionally, were not easy. But, intellectually, they were the right decisions," Weaver says. "We had a strategy going into the offseason, and we knew that if it worked, it would give us a lot of ability to maneuver and reenergize this football team in 2002. I see an electricity and chemistry of guys competing for jobs. It's more of a team and not so much about 'me.' I think we're going to surprise a lot of people this year."

Surprising the skeptics is nothing new for the Jaguars. In 1993, Weaver surprised everybody by winning an NFL expansion franchise for the city of Jacksonville. In 1994, he hired a winning coach in Tom Coughlin. In 1995 he presided over the building of one of the NFL's showpiece stadiums and four victories for his inaugural team. In 1996 he watched his second-year dream team win two playoff games — the victory over the Denver Broncos is one of pro football's biggest upsets ever — and reach within one game of the Super Bowl. In 1997 Weaver saw his Jaguars win 11 games, more than any third-year NFL team has ever won. In 1998, the Jaguars won their first division championship and the franchise hosted its first-ever home playoff game. In 1999, the Jaguars finished with the NFL's best record, a 14-2 mark that is tied for the fourth-most victories ever in league history, as the Jaguars hosted the AFC Championship game. And in 2000, Weaver helped bring a Super Bowl to Jacksonville, as the city was selected by his fellow owners to host Super Bowl XXXIX on February 6, 2005.

As the Jaguars head into their eighth season, they are still the most successful expansion franchise in NFL history. Champions of the AFC Central Division in 1998 and '99, they qualified for the playoffs four straight seasons from 1996 to '99. Those kinds of milestones are the result of Weaver's commitment to winning. Every year a new mountain to climb. Every year a new success. Every year even higher dreams. One goal remains: a Super Bowl championship.

One of the nation's most successful entrepreneurs, Weaver brought his enthusiasm and business acumen to Jacksonville, a city that was yearning for professional football. He wanted a model franchise and a team that would contend for the playoffs in a short time. He also wanted success both on and off the field, with players whose character is the pride of the city and a charitable Foundation that was chosen by The Robert Wood Foundation as a beta site model for major league sports foundations.

Weaver serves as the Jaguars' chairman and chief executive officer, overseeing the day-to-day operations of the team while allowing his hand-picked staff the autonomy to do its jobs. That's the Weaver way, and it has long proven to be a winning way.

"It was a very difficult offseason. We had to make some decisions that, emotionally, were not easy. But, intellectually, they were the right decisions. I really believe if we can stay healthy that we can compete very well in the new AFC South Division. I think we're going to surprise a lot of people this year."

But if football is his passion, Weaver also takes pride and joy in his other businesses. He is chairman and the Weaver family is majority owner of Shoe Carnival, Inc., one of the nation's fastest-growing shoe retailers that is based in Evansville, Ind. He also serves as chairman and CEO of Liz Claiborne Shoes, a wholesale distributor to upscale department stores across the country that is headquartered in Jacksonville. Previously, Weaver was co-owner, president and CEO of Nine West Group, Inc., the leading designer and marketer of women's footwear.

Throughout his business career, Weaver has maintained a commitment to philanthropic endeavors. Since the awarding of the Jaguars franchise, Wayne and Delores Weaver have focused their charitable efforts through the Weaver Family Foundation and the Jaguars Foundation, in addition to their long-standing commitment to the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute in Boston. Wayne and Delores serve on the Institute's Board of Directors, and they support the Boston Marathon Challenge, which has raised over $15 million for the Claudia Adams Barr Program in Basic Cancer Research. The Barr Program is named in memory of Delores' mother.

Weaver is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Trustees and is active on many other league committees. He is past chairman of the Fashion Footwear Association of New York, and also serves on the boards of Stein Mart, the Cummer Museum of Arts and Gardens, the Jacksonville Zoo and the Alliance for World Class Education.

Weaver was born on January 14, 1935 in Columbus, Ga. A high-school graduate, he rose through the ranks of Brown Group, Inc., a major St. Louis-based shoe company. After serving as senior vice president, he departed in 1978 to become president and CEO of Nine West. Wayne and Delores live in Jacksonville. They have been married for 47 years and have a daughter, Leigh, a son Bradley, and a 12-year-old granddaughter, Morgan.

PAUL

VANCESENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/
GENERAL COUNSEL

Paul Vance was promoted to senior vice president of football operations on November 9, 2001 after serving for seven years as the Jaguars' general counsel. He oversees all football operations for the Jaguars, with primary responsibility for negotiating player contracts and administering the salary cap, as well as overall team budget and administration.

As the franchise's general counsel, he oversees all Jaguars legal matters, including business contracts, licensing and litigation. He also oversees the team's employee and human resource issues and policies, and he serves on the team's executive committee.

Vance has been with the Jaguars since July 1994, following 21 years with a large Stamford, Conn., law firm. While there, he represented Wayne Weaver and Touchdown Jacksonville during the expansion process. Since coming to Jacksonville, Vance has been of counsel with the Jacksonville office of Foley & Lardner, which serves as the primary law firm of the Jaguars. In private practice, Vance emphasized corporate and transactional work.

Vance did his undergraduate studies at the University of Rochester, where he received a bachelor's degree in economics in 1969. While at Rochester, he played varsity baseball and was captain of the varsity basketball team. He received his juris doctor degree in 1973 from Columbia, where he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar.

He serves on the board of Jacksonville's Museum of Science and History and the Mall/Vai Washington Kids Foundation. Vance is a member of the Business Advisory Council of the University of North Florida School of Business. He has served as a member of the steering committee of Downtown Visions, Inc., which successfully organized a business improvement district in downtown Jacksonville. He is admitted to practice law in Connecticut and Florida, and is a member of the Connecticut, Florida and Jacksonville Bar Associations. Vance was born November 12, 1947 in Buffalo, N.Y. He and his wife, Jane, live in Jacksonville. They have four children: daughters Kerry and Jamie and sons Jordan and Derek.

DAN

CONNELLSENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, SALES AND MARKETING

Dan Connell oversees all of the Jaguars' for-profit and marketing efforts, including corporate sponsorship, ticket operations and ticket sales, communications, broadcasting, creative services and special events, as well as interaction with the NFL office on marketing issues and city public relations. He is also a member of the team's executive committee.

Connell and the Jaguars' marketing department were featured in a 2000 issue of Sports Business Journal. "The integrated marketing approach the Jaguars have welded is a textbook description that any professional sports entity would be wise to emulate."

Connell joined the Jaguars on March 16, 1994, but his involvement with the team predated his hiring. As executive vice president of First Union Bank of Jacksonville, he was instrumental in rallying the Jacksonville business community in support of the city's expansion bid. His creativity and effort were instrumental in making possible Jacksonville's club seat drive in which NFL NOW! sold more than 10,000 premium seats in just 10 days in August 1993, a $75 million show of community support that the NFL expansion committee was not able to overlook.

During his 32 years as a resident of Jacksonville, Connell has been deeply involved in the community, serving on various boards. In 1997 he was chairman of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce and a commissioner on the Jacksonville Economic Development Commission. He presently serves as a member of the First Union National Bank Advisory Board and is a trustee of Longleaf Partners Fund Trust. He is director emeritus and past president of the University of North Florida Foundation, Inc.

Connell received a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Florida in 1970. He and his wife, Mary, have two sons, Andrew and Russell.

BILL

VICE PRESIDENT/ CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bill Prescott is the vice president/chief financial officer for the Jaguars. He oversees through a dedicated staff the financial operations and information technology of the team. He is responsible for managing the Jaguars' portion of ALLTEL Stadium year-round, as well as the relationships with SMG on facility and game day operations and Volume Services on concession operations. Prescott interacts with the NFL and city of Jacksonville on financial matters and is a member of the team's executive committee.

This year, Prescott was given the added responsibility of overseeing the design and construction of a $40 million renovation of ALLTEL Stadium, which will be completed in time for the 2003 season, as well as substantial renovations around the stadium and sports complex in preparation for Super Bowl XXXIX in February 2005.

Prescott is also responsible for the financial operations of other Wayne Weaver-related entities, such as Liz Claiborne Shoes, the DAR Group, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation and the Weaver Family Foundation. He has been involved with the Jaguars since their inception and has also handled the Weavers' finances since 1980. Prescott met Weaver while he worked as a tax manager for Deloitte & Touche. In 1989, Prescott joined Grill, Gilhuly, Prescott & Co. CPAs as a partner, where he continued to work with Wayne and Delores Weaver.

A native of the Bronx, N.Y., Prescott is a graduate of Pace University with a degree in accounting and a master's degree in taxation. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Connecticut Society of CPAs and the Financial Executive Institute. He holds CPA licenses in both Connecticut and Florida. His hobbies include tennis, sailing and skiing. Prescott was born May 7, 1956. He has two sons, Christopher and Michael. He and his wife, Kim, live in Ponte Vedra Beach.

DAN

EDWARDSEXECUTIVE DIRECTOR,
COMMUNICATIONS AND BROADCASTING

Hired more than a year before the team's first game, Dan Edwards is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Jaguars' internal and external communications, from media relations and publications to the content for the team's award-winning Internet site (www.jaguars.com). In 2001, his responsibilities were expanded, and he now also oversees the team's in-house broadcasting department.

Now in his 19th season in the NFL and his ninth year with the Jaguars, Edwards was named executive director of communications on May 4, 1994. Formerly the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1985-93), he brought to the Jaguars 10 years of NFL experience working with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Miami Dolphins and the league office.

After receiving a scholarship from NFL Charities and serving as a public relations intern in the NFL office in 1984, Edwards spent the 1984 season working in publicity for the Miami Dolphins, who played in Super Bowl XIX that year. In 1985 Edwards joined the Steelers as assistant public relations director, and in 1987 he was named director of public relations. In 1991, the Steelers' public relations department received the coveted Pete Rozelle Award, which is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the NFL's top PR staff. Edwards' Jaguars staff in both 1996 and '98 was voted one of three finalists for the award. He has also worked for the NFL Super Bowl staff at 15 Super Bowls in addition to the 1990 Pro Bowl.

Prior to entering the NFL, Edwards worked in professional baseball, spending one season as an administrative assistant with the Eugene (Ore.) Emeralds, a single-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. He played football and baseball for Montgomery College (Md.) before transferring to the University of Oregon. Edwards received his undergraduate degree in business administration/management from the Charles Lundquist College of Business at the University of Oregon in 1981 and a master's degree in sports administration/facility management from Ohio University in 1984.

Edwards is a member of the board of directors for the Florida Sports Awards, and he also serves on the Sport Management Advisory Council for Flagler College. He was born January 15, 1959 in Denver, and he grew up in the Washington, D.C. area. He and his wife Tricia have four children: sons Christian and Preston and daughters Danielle and Victoria.

TIMOTHY

BISHKODIRECTOR, TICKET OPERATIONS

Timothy Bishko was named director of ticket operations for the Jaguars on April 24, 2000. He is responsible for the overall operation of the ticket office, including customer service, ticket distribution and ticket policy implementation.

Bishko joined the Jaguars in September 1994 as a ticket specialist, and he worked his way up the ranks to his current position. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he was an intern in the athletic department at Jacksonville University.

Bishko received an associates degree in sports administration from Becker College in 1991 and a bachelor's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1994. He was born November 3, 1971 in Hadley, Mass. Bishko is single and lives in Jacksonville.

KIM

DIRECTOR, FINANCE

Kim Dodson was named director of finance for the Jaguars on August 1, 1995.

She oversees the team's financial department and is responsible for budgeting, financial audited statements, tax returns, collective bargaining agreement statements and special reports to the NFL. She is also responsible for the financial reporting of the Weavers' other companies, including the Jaguars Foundation, DAR Group Investments, Executive Flight Services and the Weaver Family Foundation. She is responsible for tax matters and filings for all of the Weavers' businesses, as well as their personal matters and filings. Dodson has been involved with the franchise since its inception while working as tax manager for Grill, Gilhuly, Prescott & Co.

Dodson has volunteered her time as a member of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce finance committee since 1999. She Dodson was born February 9, 1962 in Cleveland. She has a degree in accounting from Western Connecticut State University and earned her CPA in 1993. A native of Vail, Colo., she figure skated competitively for 10 years. She and her husband, Bill, live in Ponte Vedra Beach. She has a daughter, Nicole, who was born on April 15 (Tax Day), 1992.

JENNIFER

DIRECTOR, CREATIVE SERVICES

Jennifer Johnston was promoted to director of creative services on May 2, 2002. She had been the Jaguars' manager of creative services for the previous two years. She is responsible for advertising and marketing initiatives for ticket sales, corporate sponsorship and event promotion, as well as brand management for the team.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, she worked for Cook Marketing Communications for seven years. She was an account executive for the last four years and handled the Jaguars' account from 1997 to 2000 until joining the team.

Johnston graduated from Hollins College in Roanoke, Va. in 1993 with a degree in communications. She was born on July 24, 1971 in Rochester, Minn. and grew up in Jacksonville.

REEDDIRECTOR, SPECIAL EVENTS/PROMOTIONS

Bo Reed was promoted to director of special events and promotions on March 16, 2001. He is responsible for all Jaguars game enhancement, stadium Jumbotron, audio and matrix board operations, the team mascot and cheerleading programs, game day promotions, fan interactive areas and corporate and ticketing hospitality areas, as well as most non-game events.

He came to the Jaguars on June 30, 1997 and previously served as a coordinator (1997) and manager (1998-2001) in special events. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he worked as event services manager for SMG-Memphis (1995-1997) and SMG-Jacksonville (1995-1996). He has assisted with the pregame and postgame production of the last four Super Bowls.

Reed attended Virginia Tech before transferring to Illinois State and graduating in 1994 with degrees in commercial recreation and program management. He was born on September 16, 1971 in Virginia Beach, Va. He and his wife, Elizabeth, have twin sons Brooks and Davis.

SKIP*RICHARDSON*DIRECTOR,
FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

After serving four years as director of security for the Jaguars, Skip Richardson was named director of football operations in 1999. He oversees all administrative matters for the football operations department, including player programs, team travel and security, as well as coordination and management of the team's facilities. He is a member of the NFL security task force that was established after September 11, 2001.

In 2000, the Jaguars were honored with the "Most Outstanding Player Development Program" award at NFL meetings in San Diego.

A veteran of 23 years in law enforcement, Richardson joined the Jaguars on July 21, 1995. He still directs every phase of security for the team, as well as handling security matters involving the NFL office. He works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. Richardson was previously a police S.W.A.T. team supervisor for the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and planned security for all special events held in Jacksonville, such as the annual Florida-Georgia game, the Gator Bowl and the Jazz Festival. Richardson retired as a supervisor from the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office in 1995.

He received a degree in criminology from Florida State. A native of Jacksonville, Richardson is active in the Police Athletic League, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and the Jacksonville Symphony Guild. He is a member of the American Society for Industrial Security, National Association of Chiefs of Police, and the Florida Association of Licensed Investigators.

Richardson was born December 31, 1953. He and his wife, Ann, have a son, Brett, and a daughter, Kristen.

BRUCE

DIRECTOR, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

As director of information technology, Bruce Swindell is responsible for the development, procurement, implementation and management of computer-related technology and training within the Jaguars organization. This support extends to all facets of the organization, and includes database and application development and support, network administration, help desk support and hardware maintenance. Additionally, Swindell has guided the development of the team's award-winning website (www.jaguars.com) since it went online in 1996.

He serves as the AFC South Division representative on the NFL's technical advisory committee.

Swindell joined the Jaguars on November 29, 1994, following 21 years of service in the U.S. Navy. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he managed a software development and maintenance facility and served as a database administrator in Charleston, S.C. During his Naval career, he served in various locations throughout the United States and the world, including Iceland, Puerto Rico and the British Indian Ocean Territories.

Swindell was born December 1, 1954 in Woodbury, N.J., and received a degree in business administration from Limestone College in Gaffney, S.C. He and his wife, Jane, have a son, Wade, and a daughter, Erica.

MACKY

DIRECTOR, CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

Macky Weaver serves as the Jaguars' director of corporate sponsorship. He was named to his current position in December 1997 and is responsible for the development of new sponsor relationships, as well as service of existing partnerships for the team.

He originally joined the Jaguars on May 15, 1994 as an account executive in corporate sponsorship.

Previously, Weaver was a field underwriter for Mutual of New York from 1991 to '94 and a sales representative for Mac Papers in West Palm Beach and Atlanta from 1988 to '91.

Weaver was born May 21, 1965 in Atlanta and has lived in Jacksonville since 1976. He received a degree in economics from the University of Georgia in 1987. He and his wife, Reppard, have two sons, Jimmy and Evans.

ASSOCIATE GENERAL COUNSEL

Joe Pierce was named associate general counsel for the Jaguars in March 2002. Working under Paul Vance, he manages all legal matters, including business contracts, licensing and litigation, and provides strategic counsel to the Jaguars' business units.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Pierce was a corporate associate with the law firm of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati in Palo Alto, Calif., where he counseled technology clients on securities issuances, mergers and acquisitions and corporate governance matters.

He completed his undergraduate studies at Georgetown, where he received a bachelor's degree in finance in 1991. While at Georgetown, he participated in track and field and was a Big East Conference champion in the pentathlon and team captain. He received joint juris doctor and master of business administration degrees from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and Wharton School of Business in 1998 and is admitted to practice law in California. Pierce was born on February 24, 1969 and is a native of San Antonio, Texas. He and his wife, Kama, have three children: sons Marco and Julian and daughter Jasmine.

TOM

HEAD COACH

NFL: 15TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 8TH SEASON

Tom Coughlin enters his eighth season as head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars. He has the third-longest tenure with his team of any NFL head coach. He is the only head coach in franchise history, and the Jaguars are the only NFL team to have had just one head coach.

Coughlin enters the 2002 season with a tremendous challenge: Guide the Jaguars back to a winning season and the playoffs. And, to Coughlin, the goal of winning the Super Bowl is always foremost in his mind.

Coughlin spent the offseason planning and strategizing the return of the Jaguars to the forefront of the NFL. Anything less is unacceptable to the man who has guided the fortunes of the team since its inception. The Jaguars have a 62-50 record in seven NFL seasons — more victories and a higher winning percentage than any other NFL expansion team.

The Jaguars' success in Coughlin's first seven seasons as head coach have whetted the appetites of Jaguars fans and raised the level of expectations as Year Eight nears.

"We had five very good years and two poor years," says Coughlin. "But we know what the formula is to win football games; we've done it before. What we have to do is once again capture the energy and enthusiasm of a young football team, and have outstanding leadership from our our veteran players to show us the way to go forward and surprise a lot of people in this city. Our community and our team must move forward. We have players now who are not recognized who will come forward and make outstanding contributions. That's what I look forward to."

In seven seasons as head coach of the Jaguars, Coughlin has etched a record as impressive as anyone who has ever coached in the National Football League.

With 62 regular-season victories and 66 total wins in the franchise's short history, Coughlin has quickly moved into the elite of NFL head coaches — past and present.

■ His 62 victories rank ninth among current NFL head coaches (the eight above him have all coached at least one more season).

■ His winning percentage of .553 is higher than all but nine active coaches.

■ He's nearly two-thirds of the way to joining an impressive list of the 24 coaches who have at least 100 career regular-season victories in the NFL.

■ Including playoffs, he averages nearly 10 wins per season, more than all but five of the 24 coaches who have 100 career wins (Don Shula, Joe Gibbs, George Seifert, John Madden and Vince Lombardi).

And Coughlin won those 66 games while building the Jaguars from nothing into one of the NFL's most successful franchises and a team that played in the AFC Championship game twice in its first five seasons. The guiding force behind the success of the team is Coughlin. His quest for success permeates the organization, and his drive is embedded in his players. His standards are high; his goals are even higher.

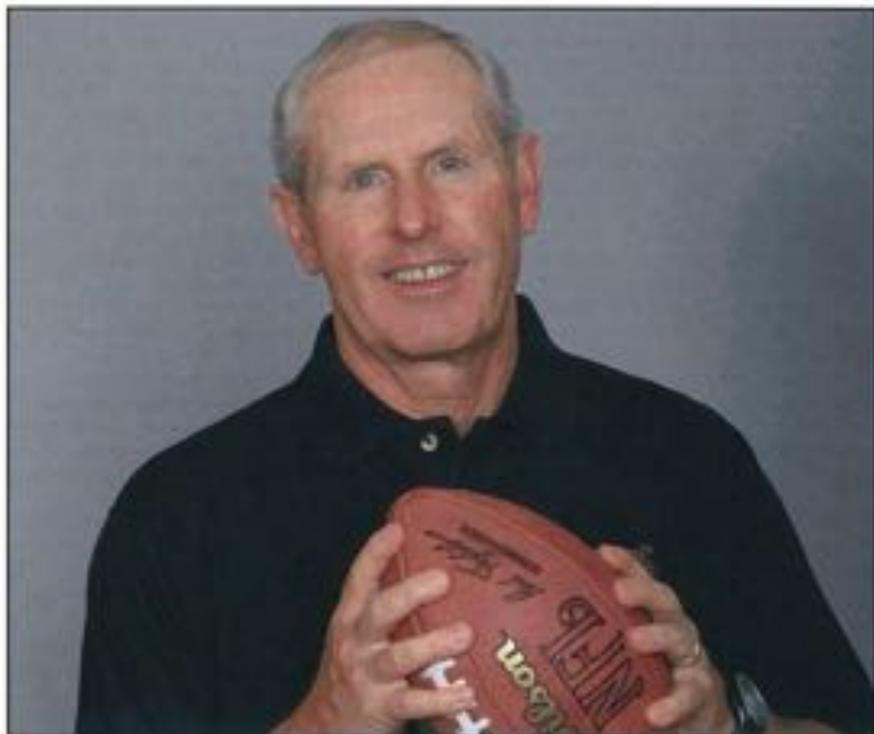

"I've never seen somebody who wants to win so badly as coach Coughlin," said All-Pro wide receiver Jimmy Smith, "but it carries over to us. And that's what you need to get to the ultimate plateau." And quarterback Mark Brunell adds, "If there is a guy that is responsible for our success here, it's obviously Tom."

In eight years since becoming the Jaguars' first and only head coach, Coughlin has quietly become the league's third-longest-tenured head coach among those with the same

"We've started from scratch before. I remember the days when we had no players. We certainly have a lot better football players here than we did in 1994. It is a time of change, but that is a positive. I am re-energized. I am very much aware of what has to be done, and we are all very willing to pay whatever price it will take to get us back to winning football games."

— Tom Coughlin

team. Only Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (10 seasons) and Tennessee's Jeff Fisher (eight-and-a-half seasons) have coached their current teams longer than Coughlin.

In 1995, the Jaguars won four games, more than any previous expansion team in NFL history. In 1996, they went to the playoffs and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship game. In 1997, they won a then-team-record 11 games. In 1998 they won 11 more games, including their first division championship in addition to their first home playoff game. And in 1999 the Jaguars had the NFL's best record, 14-2, and advanced to the AFC Championship game again. They slipped to 7-9 in 2000 and 6-10 in 2001. But that only seems to motivate Coughlin all the more.

Under Coughlin, who is known as an offensive mastermind, the Jaguars have compiled an impressive list of statistical accomplishments. They have led the NFL in both passing yards (4,367 in 1996) and rushing yards (2,091 in 1999). In fact, in 1999, the Jaguars not only were No. 1 in rushing, but they had the league's leading receiver, a feat that has only been accomplished by one other team in NFL history (the 1954 San Francisco 49ers).

Coughlin laid the foundation for a winning team in Jacksonville by preaching discipline and hard work, and his tenacity and determination quickly turned a new franchise into the most successful expansion team in NFL history.

Firm, fair, honest and demanding are the four words that describe Coughlin best. "I have very high levels of expectations, and I think players need that," he says. "Players want discipline; they want organization. We emphasize responsibility and accountability, and all the little things that help you win in the long run."

The proof is in the team's myriad of successes. In seven seasons, comparisons can be made against the elite teams of the NFL: The Jaguars are one of only eight NFL teams to qualify for the playoffs at least four times in the last six years. Since 1997, they have the fourth-best record in the NFL, a 49-31 mark that trails only Green Bay, Denver and Minnesota. Dating back to 1996, the Jaguars have the fifth-best record at home (35-13), and they have the third-best record on the road (23-19). Of active NFL coaches, Coughlin has the fifth-best record in division games and the seventh-best mark in home games.

With 14 victories during the 1999 season, the Jaguars tied for the fourth-most victories in NFL history, and they hosted the AFC Championship game. Three years earlier, in 1996, Coughlin's Jaguars won seven straight games and advanced to their first AFC Championship game, just one victory short of the Super Bowl in only the 35th game in the franchise's history. Jacksonville's 30-27 victory over Denver in that season's playoffs is widely acknowledged as one of the biggest upsets in pro football history. Coughlin was named the 1996 AFC Coach of the Year by United Press International.

Coughlin was named head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars on February 21, 1994, the hand-picked choice of owner Wayne Weaver. "One of the things I was tremendously impressed with was Tom's discipline, attitude and decisiveness of how he would build this franchise," Weaver said. "It was apparent to me that Tom was not only a brilliant football coach, but he's also an extraordinarily bright man who understands the organization, administration and detail that are needed to build something from the beginning."

A veteran of 33 years in the coaching profession, Coughlin had 25 years of coaching experience before he took over the Jaguars, including seven years as a college head coach and seven seasons as an NFL assistant coach.

He spent the 1984 and '85 seasons as the wide receivers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, and he was with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and '87 as the receivers coach. He served with the New York Giants from 1988 to '90 as the receivers coach, contributing to the Super Bowl XXV victory over Buffalo in his last season with the Giants. In 1993, Coughlin was offered the opportunity to return to the Giants as their head coach, but he declined the job so he could continue building the Boston College football program.

Coughlin's arrival in Jacksonville followed three seasons (1991-93) as head coach at Boston College, where he turned a struggling football program into a Top 20 team. Posting a 21-13-1 record in three seasons, Coughlin capped his Boston College tenure with a 9-3 record in 1993 which included eight consecutive wins, a 41-39 defeat of No. 1-ranked Notre Dame and a victory over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. His last Boston College team was ranked 13th in the Associated Press poll and 12th in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll, despite beginning the season with an 0-2 start. He led Boston College to an 8-2-1 record in 1992, including a Hall of Fame Bowl berth, after posting a 4-7 mark in his first season.

It was at Boston College where Coughlin met Jay McGillis, a special young player who died of leukemia at the age of 21. In 1996 Coughlin started the Jay Fund Foundation in honor of McGillis, and in the last seven years the annual Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic has donated a total of $627,000 to Jacksonville-area pediatric leukemia patients and their families, as well as patients of other childhood cancers.

"It's hard enough to undergo a family crisis of health. But on top of that to have the questions of whether or not the family can function as a unit because of impending bills, that has to be catastrophic," said Coughlin. "So I think whatever we can do along those lines is a great thing — and in Jay's name."

Coughlin began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, his alma mater. The next season he began a four-year stint at Rochester Institute of Technology, where he served as head coach from 1970 to '73, compiling a record of 16-15-2. Coughlin returned to Syracuse under Frank Maloney in 1974 and held the position of offensive coordinator from 1977 to '80, directing an offense that led the Orangemen to a berth and victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl, Syracuse's first postseason appearance in 13 years.

In 1981 Coughlin went to Boston College for the first time, as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Jack Bicknell. He helped the Eagles win their first bowl bid in 40 years while coaching Doug Flutie, the 1984 Heisman Trophy winner. In 1983, Coughlin's last season as a Boston College assistant coach, the team earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy as Eastern Champion, the first won by the Eagles since 1942.

Coughlin's playing career began as a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School in his hometown. He attended Syracuse University, where he was a three-year letterman for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965 to '67. A wingback for the Orangemen, Coughlin played alongside All-America backs Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. He played in the 1966 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville against Tennessee. As a senior in 1967, he broke the Syracuse single-season pass receiving record, which had stood since the 1950s. An excellent student, Coughlin also won Syracuse's Orange Key Award that year as the university's outstanding scholar athlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education, and in 1969 he received his master's degree in education.

The oldest of seven children, Thomas Richard Coughlin was born August 31, 1946 in Waterloo, N.Y. He and his wife, Judy, have two daughters, Keli and Katie, and two sons, Brian and Tim, and a daughter-in-law, Andrea (Tim's wife).

JOHN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL: 4TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 4TH SEASON

John Bonamego was promoted to special teams coordinator on January 31. He replaces Frank Gansz, who retired following an illustrious 37-year coaching career. Bonamego has big shoes to fill. However, the 38-year-old assistant coach has learned from the best, because both Gansz and Larry Pasquale — the special teams coordinators during Bonamego's first three seasons with the Jaguars — were considered two of pro football's best special teams coaches ever. Bonamego served as the Jaguars' assistant special teams coach from 1999 to 2001, assisting in all areas of special teams, including the preparation of game plans and sideline coaching. He also served as an administrative assistant to head coach Tom Coughlin. This year, he will attempt to guide the Jaguars' special teams back into the NFL's elite. The first priority is to find a new placekicker to replace Mike Hollis, who handled the duties for the franchise's first seven seasons.

Bonamego enters his 17th year of coaching. He joined the Jaguars in 1999 from the U.S. Military Academy, where he was an assistant coach for six years. At Army, Bonamego was the special teams coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994 to '96 after serving as an assistant outside linebackers coach in 1993. He coached running backs and assisted with special teams at Lehigh in 1992, and he served at Maine from 1988 to '91, two years as a graduate assistant and two years in charge of wide receivers and special teams. He was the head junior varsity coach at Mt. Pleasant (Mich.) High School in 1987, and he began his career as a player-coach with the Verona (Italy) Redskins in 1986.

Bonamego was born in Waynesboro, Pa. He received a degree in health fitness in 1987 at Central Michigan, where he lettered twice at wide receiver and quarterback. He earned a master's degree in physical education from Maine in 1992. A native of Paw Paw, Mich., he and his wife, Paulette, live in Jacksonville with their children Javier and Giovanni.

PERRY

SECONDARY COACH

NFL: 5TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 5TH SEASON

Perry Fewell returns for his fifth season as the Jaguars' secondary coach. In 2001, he coached a secondary that underwent considerable change, with seventh-round draft choice Marlon McCree starting most of the season at safety and Jason Craft taking over as a starter at cornerback. This year, McCree and Craft will be joined by two returning veteran starters in cornerback Fernando Bryant and safety Donovan Darius, the team's defensive leader. Kiwaukee Thomas is expected to be the nickel back.

In Fewell's first four seasons with the Jaguars, the team's pass defense ranking improved from 24th in 1997 to 23rd in '98, third in '99, 14th in 2000 and 22nd in 2001. The number of passing touchdowns allowed by the defense declined from 24 in 1997 to 23 in '98, 18 in '99, 23 in 2000 and a team-record-low 13 in 2001. Fewell's units have broken a number of team records. In addition, Darius and Bryant were named to All-Rookie teams in their first seasons, and in 1999 Carnell Lake was voted the team's first Pro Bowl defensive back and Aaron Beasley set the team's single-season interception record. That season, the Jaguars' secondary had 15 of the team's 19 interceptions.

Fewell was named the Jaguars' secondary coach on February 16, 1998. Now in his 18th year in coaching, the 39-year-old Fewell joined the Jaguars from Vanderbilt, where he served as secondary coach from 1995 to '97 and also as assistant head coach in 1997. That year, Vanderbilt had its best overall defense in school history and led the Southeastern Conference for the first time ever.

Fewell attended South Point High in Belmont, N.C., where he played football and participated in track. He was inducted into the Belmont Sports Hall of Fame in October 2001. He went to Lenoir-Rhyne College, graduating with a degree in business administration in 1985. He lettered four years in football and was named the team's Most Improved Player in 1983. Following his playing career he spent one year as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Fewell was a graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina in 1985 and '86. He was the defensive backs coach at Army in 1987, then he coached wide receivers at Kent State for four years before returning to Army as the defensive line coach from 1992 to '94. Fewell, 39, is a native of Gastonia, N.C. He and his wife, Kathleen, live in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1985-86 North Carolina, 1987 Army, 1988-91 Kent State, 1992-94 Army, 1995-97 Vanderbilt, 1998-2002 Jacksonville Jaguars

GREG

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

NFL: 5TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 5TH SEASON

Greg Finnegan is in his fifth season as the Jaguars' assistant strength and conditioning coach. He assists in the development and implementation of the Jaguars' speed, strength and conditioning program.

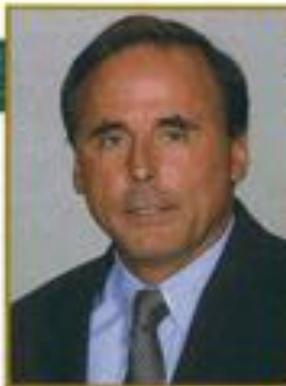

He was named to his position on February 10, 1998. Finnegan, 33, previously was the director of strength and conditioning at Boston College. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kansas State in 1992. In 1994, he moved on to become an assistant strength coach at Boston College.

Finnegan was born February 21, 1969 in Toledo, Ohio. He earned a degree in nutritional science in 1992 from Cornell University, where he was an All-Ivy League center and a captain of the football team. He earned a master's degree in exercise physiology in 1994 from Kansas State. Finnegan is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, as well as the American College of Sports Medicine. He has written several articles focusing on a variety of topics such as nutritional supplements and football training.

He and his wife, Lyn, live in Jacksonville and have a daughter, Abigail (2/22/95) and two sons, Benjamin (10/5/96) and William (2/29/00).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1992-93 Kansas State, 1994-97 Boston College, 1998-2002 Jacksonville Jaguars

JOHNHUFNAGEL*QUARTERBACKS COACH*NFL: 7TH SEASON*JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

John Hufnagel was named the Jaguars' quarterbacks coach on February 15. He will tutor Mark Brunell, who is the seventh-rated passer in NFL history, as well as David Garrard, the team's fourth-round draft choice.

Hufnagel, 51, brings an impressive background of having worked with some of the finest quarterbacks in professional football. He enters his 30th season in pro football, and he has coached in the NFL, Canadian Football League and Arena League, in addition to playing in the NFL and CFL following his playing days as a star quarterback at Penn State.

Hufnagel was the quarterbacks coach of the Indianapolis Colts in 2001, helping Peyton Manning, who was the fourth-ranked passer in the AFC, throw for an AFC-high 4,131 yards and 26 touchdowns. In 1999 and 2000, Hufnagel was the quarterbacks coach of the Cleveland Browns, where he played a major role in the development of Tim Couch, the No. 1 overall choice in the 1999 NFL draft who set team rookie passing records and led all NFL rookie passers in completions, attempts, yards, touchdowns and passer rating.

Prior to becoming an NFL assistant, Hufnagel served as head coach and general manager of the Arena Football League's New Jersey Red Dogs in 1997 and '98. In two seasons, his teams posted a 17-11 record in the regular-season and 1-2 in the playoffs. His 1997 team scored a league-record 91 points in a single game. His time in the Arena League followed a nine-year coaching career in the Canadian Football League. He was an assistant with the Saskatchewan Roughriders in 1988 before serving as offensive coordinator of the Calgary Stampeders from 1990 to '96, when he coached Doug Flutie and Jeff Garcia to All-CFL seasons.

Hufnagel was drafted in the 14th round of the 1973 draft by the Denver Broncos and played there for three seasons. He spent most of his playing career in the CFL, with Calgary (1976-79), Saskatchewan (1980-83, 1987) and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1984-86). He was a player-coach in his final year at Saskatchewan. Hufnagel played under legendary head coach Joe Paterno at Penn State from 1969 to '72 and quarterbacked the Nittany Lions to a Cotton Bowl win as a junior and to the Sugar Bowl as a senior, with teams that had a combined 21-3 record. His backfield included famed runners Franco Harris, Lydell Mitchell and John Cappelletti. In 1972, Hufnagel set Penn State's single-season record for passing yards (since broken). He still ranks among the top 10 in every career passing category and has two of the top four season passer ratings in school history. Hufnagel, who was sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting and an All-America selection as a senior, earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from Penn State.

He was born September 13, 1951 in Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Penny, have three children, daughters Neely (8/31/77) and Lindsey (10/9/78) and son Cole (5/16/82).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1988 Saskatchewan Roughriders (CFL), 1990-96 Calgary Stampeders (CFL), 1997-98 New Jersey Red Dogs (Arena League), 1999-2000 Cleveland Browns, 2001 Indianapolis Colts, 2002 Jacksonville Jaguars

INGRAM

RUNNING BACKS COACH

NFL: 8TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 8TH SEASON

COACHES

Jerald Ingram is one of only four assistant coaches who have been with the Jaguars since 1994, a year before the franchise's first game. Last year, with Fred Taylor sidelined with a serious groin injury, Ingram had only one choice, and that was to turn Stacey Mack, an undrafted rookie in 1999, into a workhorse back. And that's just what Ingram did. By season's end, Mack had gained 877 yards and scored 10 touchdowns, both fourth most in the team's record book. Mack, who also had three straight 100-yard games, had developed from a back with potential into a solid runner. Also in 2001, Ingram was forced to groom a new starting fullback, and he did so with Patrick Washington, another undrafted rookie who opened the holes for Mack.

This year, Ingram will have Taylor back, to join Mack and Elvis Joseph, still another undrafted player who showed impressive ability as a rookie in 2001. And at fullback, former Denver Broncos Pro Bowler Detron Smith will push Washington to give the team its deepest fullback duo yet.

The Jaguars were the only NFL team to rush for more than 2,000 yards for the three seasons from 1998 to 2000, and they have the league's sixth-most rushing yards over the last four years. Also, in the five seasons since 1997, the Jaguars have rushed for the second-most touchdowns in the NFL (88, behind St. Louis' 91).

The Jaguars were once known primarily as a passing team, but they led the NFL in rushing in 1999, totalling 2,091 yards behind the tandem of Fred Taylor and James Stewart. In 2000, Taylor, despite missing three-and-a-half games, rushed for a team-record 1,399 yards and had nine consecutive 100-yard games, tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history. In 1998, the Jaguars ran for a team-record 2,102 yards behind Taylor, who set 29 team records. Ingram is equally adept in coaching the total game for the team's running backs, notably blocking and pass receiving. In fact, running backs have two of the three longest touchdown receptions in team history.

Ingram was named to the Jaguars' coaching staff on March 3, 1994 after three seasons as running backs coach at Boston College under Tom Coughlin. Ingram, 41, is in his 19th year of coaching. Following his college days as a running back at the University of Michigan, Ingram was a graduate assistant at Michigan in 1984. In 1985 he joined the Ball State coaching staff as tight ends coach, followed by five seasons as running backs coach. In Ingram's last three seasons at Ball State, the team posted a 22-10-2 record, the best among the nine Mid-American Conference schools. In 1991, Ingram joined Tom Coughlin's Boston College staff.

Ingram earned three letters and was a member of five bowl teams as a fullback for Michigan from 1979 to '84. He played for the Wolverines' two Big Ten champion squads that advanced to the Rose Bowl, in addition to playing in the Sugar, Gator and Bluebonnet Bowls. Ingram graduated from Michigan in 1984 with a degree in general studies.

Ingram was born December 24, 1960 at Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio and grew up in Beaver, Pa. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Julian (7/27/97), and they live in Jacksonville.

TVKNOTT*OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH*NFL: 1ST SEASON*JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Ty Knott was named the Jaguars' offensive quality control coach on February 15, 2002. He assists the offensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, opponent breakdown and writing the playbook. He also assists coaching the quarterbacks.

Knott, 36, joined the Jaguars from Greenville (Ill.) College, where he was the defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2001. He had a minority fellowship coaching wide receivers with the Detroit Lions in 2001 and the Washington Redskins in 1998. Knott has served on coaching staffs at Mt. San Antonio Junior College (Calif.) in 2000, Indiana University (1997-1999) and Whittier (Calif.) College in 1994 and '95. He began his coaching career in 1992 at Ashland (Ore.) High School. In 1996, he was a juvenile probation officer in Medford, Ore., and in 1993 he was a counselor at Leroy Boys Home in La Verne, Calif.

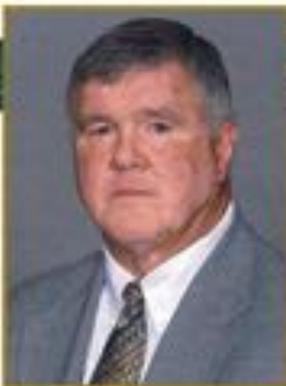

Knott was a defensive back at Oregon Tech in 1988 after playing junior college football at Mt. San Antonio J.C. He received a bachelor's degree at Southern Oregon State and a master's degree at Indiana. Knott was born December 9, 1965 in Los Angeles. He and his wife, Brandi, have two sons, Gavin (10/13/99) and Reece (10/18/01). They live in Jacksonville.

MIKE*MASER*OFFENSIVE LINE COACH*NFL: 8TH SEASON*JAGUARS: 8TH SEASON

For Mike Maser, as if the 2000 season wasn't hard enough, his worst fears were realized in 2001. Two years ago, all of Maser's abilities as an offensive line coach were put to the test, as a rash of injuries decimated the team's offensive line early in the season, forcing him to start two players who weren't even with the team in training camp, a third player who had never been a starter before, and a rookie. The only person he could count on was Tony Boselli. But that changed in 2001, when injuries to both of Boselli's shoulders forced the perennial All-Pro to be placed on injured reserve. Once again, Maser was forced to juggle his lineup.

Still, Maser looks ahead, knowing he has the makings of a very good offensive line to work with. Veteran Zach Wiegert can play both guard and tackle, Brad Meester has been the starting left guard for two seasons, and Maurice Williams will return for his second season at right tackle. The new right guard will be Chris Naeole, a No. 1 draft pick of the New Orleans Saints in 1997 who was the Jaguars' biggest free agent acquisition of the offseason. And Mike Pearson, this year's No. 2 pick, will quickly be assimilated into the lineup to replace Boselli at left tackle. There will be solid competition at center between John Wade and ex-Titan Kevin Long. And, for the first time in several seasons, Maser has solid depth in players such as Todd Fordham, Daryl Terrell and whomever doesn't win a starting job.

The Jaguars were the only NFL team to rush for more than 2,000 yards each of the three seasons from 1998 to 2000 (leading the league in 1999), and the club has the NFL's sixth-most rushing yards over the last four years, as well as the second-most rushing touchdowns in the last five years, all testament to Maser's abilities.

Maser, 55, joined the Jaguars' staff on March 3, 1994 following 13 seasons at Boston College, the last three under Tom Coughlin. Maser is a veteran of 33 seasons in coaching.

A guard in college, he began his coaching career in 1969 as a student assistant at the University of Buffalo. In 1970, he coached for one year at Darien High School in Darien, Conn. A service veteran, Maser coached at the U.S. Military Academy Prep School at Fort Belvoir, Va. in 1971 and '72. In 1973, he was the assistant offensive line coach at Marshall, and then he spent five years as offensive coordinator and head of recruiting for Bluefield State College in West Virginia. In 1979 and '80, Maser was an assistant under Jack Bicknell at Maine, and in 1981 he joined Bicknell's staff at Boston College. When Coughlin was named head coach at Boston College in 1991, he retained Maser as offensive line coach. During Maser's tenure at Boston College, the team played in six bowl games.

Maser attended the University of Buffalo, where he was a three-year starter at guard. He graduated in 1970 with a bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation. In 1974 he received a master's degree in physical education from Marshall University. Maser was born March 2, 1947 in Clayton, N.Y. He and his wife, Barbara, have three grown children, daughter Brigitte and sons Greg and Brian.

JOHN

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

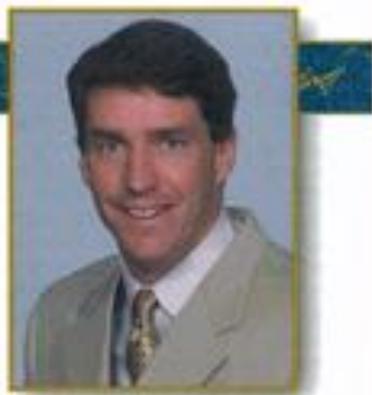

NFL: 5TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 5TH SEASON

In his two seasons working with the Jaguars' wide receivers, John McNulty was fortunate to work with Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell, the NFL's most prolific tandem ever in terms of receptions and receiving yardage. Smith returns in 2002, and McNulty will be filling McCardell's shoes with either Patrick Johnson or Bobby Shaw, whom the team signed as free agents in the offseason. But, no matter who starts, both Johnson and Shaw will have integral roles in the team's offense, not to mention the fact the team will have its best No. 3 wide receiver in years.

Over the last two seasons, Smith and McCardell combined to catch 390 passes for 4,903 yards. Smith, in fact, has more receptions for more receiving yards over the last six seasons than any player in NFL history other than Jerry Rice in any six-year span. He has been voted to the Pro Bowl each of the last five seasons.

McNulty, 34, was the Jaguars' quality control coach in 1998 and '99, and then was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2000. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan in 1991, and he worked with the team's defensive line in 1993 and the wide receivers in 1994. In 1994, he coached the Big Ten's leading receiving duo of Amani Toomer (New York Giants) and Mercury Hayes (former Atlanta Falcon). While at Michigan, the team won two Big Ten titles, earning trips to the Rose Bowl against Washington both years. In the 1991 game, the Wolverines were defeated by Mark Brunell's Huskies, while in 1992 Michigan earned the victory. McNulty also coached in the Holiday Bowl (1994) and the Hall of Fame Bowl (1993). In 1995, he joined the staff at the University of Connecticut, working with wide receivers and special teams. He coached 1,000-yard receivers in 1996 and '97 and an All-America player in 1997.

McNulty was born May 29, 1968 in Scranton, Pa. and was a high school standout at Abington Heights High in Clarks Summit, Pa. He graduated from Penn State in 1990 with a degree in business management and business law. He played strong safety and free safety at Penn State under Joe Paterno as a member of four bowl teams. McNulty and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Jacksonville Beach, with their daughter Abigail (4/24/02).

PALMIERI

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

NFL: 8TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 8TH SEASON

Jerry Palmieri has been the strength and conditioning coach of the Jaguars since they began play in 1995. Palmieri was selected by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society to receive the 1999 Coach of the Year Award, honoring his contributions to his profession.

Under Palmieri's guidance, the Jaguars have had nearly 100 percent attendance for their four-day-a-week offseason conditioning program over the last eight years. That has helped the team reap the benefits of his program, in which players have annually set personal bests for strength, speed and other conditioning aspects which ultimately produce more powerful athletes. In this year's offseason conditioning program, the team's average body fat decreased by 1.07 percent, vertical jump increased 1.47 inches, and the average player's bench and incline increased by 25 pounds. The Jaguars have 34 veteran players who can squat more than 600 pounds and 36 veterans who can power clean more than 300 pounds.

Palmieri's philosophy is two-fold. Intangibly, he uses a scriptural verse: "Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might ..." (Ecclesiastes 9:10). Each athlete is challenged to work hard and reach his fullest potential — tangibly, its strength and power. Palmieri's goal is to help each athlete increase in size, strength and speed, which ultimately produces a more powerful athlete. "Coach Coughlin wants our team to play physical on the field," says Palmieri. "Our job is to make our players more physical and more powerful, so that their play will be physical in competition."

Palmieri joined the Jaguars on January 11, 1995 after having served as director of strength and conditioning operations at Boston College since 1993, where he was hired by Tom Coughlin. Prior to his stint at Boston College, Palmieri spent six years overseeing the strength and conditioning program at Kansas State. He began his career as a strength coach in 1982 at North Carolina, followed by three years at Oklahoma State. In addition to his coaching experience, Palmieri has taught college physical education classes and written articles about strength and conditioning for national publications. He has also produced videos on strength and speed training and is active with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

A 1980 graduate of Montclair State, Palmieri received a master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of North Carolina in 1984. He is a three-time Golden Gloves champion (1976-78) and competed in international competition as a member of the 1978 and 1979 USA Boxing Teams. He was born October 30, 1958 in Englewood, N.J. Jerry and his wife, Ellen, have a son, Tony (12/18/85), and a daughter, Annamarie (10/2/87).

JOHN

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL: 17TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 8TH SEASON

John Pease became the fourth defensive coordinator in Jaguars history on January 29 following seven very successful seasons as the Jaguars' defensive line coach and the last year with the dual title of assistant head coach.

He takes over a defense that allowed the fourth-fewest points in the AFC last season, albeit one that lost six games in the final five minutes and 13 seconds. Pease and his outgoing personality bring a new enthusiasm to a defense that needs some fine-tuning and fine play from some new defensive players to help the Jaguars contend again. In taking over responsibility for the Jaguars' defense, Pease follows Gary Moeller, Dom Capers and Dick Jauron. Jauron is now the Chicago Bears' head coach, and Capers is the Houston Texans' head coach.

Pease has long been regarded as one of the top defensive line coaches in the NFL. In 2001, the Jaguars ranked 10th in the NFL in run defense and recorded 43 sacks to tie for 10th in the league in that category. Over the last six seasons, the Jaguars have allowed a total of 65 rushing touchdowns for the fifth-fewest in the league in that time. Under Pease, the Jaguars have always been among the league sack leaders, averaging more than 42 sacks per season since 1996. Two Jaguars defensive linemen recorded career-highs in sacks in 2001, with Renaldo Wynn and Seth Payne each getting five. The other two starters, Tony Brackens and Gary Walker, each recorded the second-highest sack total of his career, with Brackens leading the team with 11 and Walker finishing second with 7.5.

Pease, 58, is beginning his 17th season as an NFL coach, including nine years with the New Orleans Saints. His 33-year coaching career spans 13 seasons at the collegiate level and three years in the USFL.

As the Jaguars' assistant head coach, Pease's expanded duties include coordination of the team's offseason strength and conditioning program, as well as assisting Coughlin in the organization and logistics of the April minicamp and the June pre-camp. He also handles administrative assignments involving scheduling and training camp.

Pease was named the Jaguars' defensive line coach on January 12, 1995. He began his fulltime coaching career at Fullerton College in 1970, as linebackers coach (1970-72) and defensive line coach (1973). He also had stints at Long Beach State, Utah and Washington. From 1983 to '85, he was on the coaching staff of the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL along with Dom Capers under head coach Jim Mora. The Stars won the USFL championship in 1984 and '85. When Mora was named head coach of the Saints, Pease joined him in New Orleans, where he was from 1986 until joining the Jaguars in 1995. The Saints were a playoff team three of Pease's last five seasons.

A graduate of the University of Utah, Pease began college at Fullerton Junior College, where he was a two-time Junior College All-America selection. He was inducted into the California Community College Football Coaches Hall of Fame in 1999. He transferred to Utah and was named All-Western Athletic Conference as a senior wingback. From 1965 to '67, he served in the military in Puerto Rico and coached at Antilles High School. In 1968 and '69, he was a graduate assistant at Utah prior to moving to Fullerton the next year.

Pease was born October 14, 1943 in Pittsburgh. He was on the training camp roster of the Los Angeles Rams after his final collegiate season. He has two daughters, Tracy and Kristen, and four grandsons, Stephen, Greg, Ty and Kyle. He lives in Jacksonville with his wife, Chris.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1970-73 Fullerton (Calif.) College, 1974-76 Long Beach State, 1977 University of Utah, 1978-82 University of Washington, 1983-85 Philadelphia Stars (USFL), 1986-94 New Orleans Saints, 1995-2002 Jacksonville Jaguars

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

NFL: 1ST SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Mike Prierer was named the Jaguars' assistant special teams coach on February 5, assuming the responsibilities of John Bonamego, who was promoted to special teams coordinator. Prierer is directly involved in all areas of special teams, including the preparation of the game plans and sideline coaching. He also serves as an administrative assistant to head coach Tom Coughlin.

Prierer, 36, worked at the collegiate level for the past eight years. He spent the past two seasons at Northern Illinois, where he was defensive tackles coach and also assisted with special teams, working with the punters, punt block/return and field goal block teams. In 1999, Prierer served as inside linebackers/special teams coordinator at Virginia Military Institute. That followed a two-year stint at Youngstown State, where Prierer was tackles/tight ends coach and also assistant special teams coordinator.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Navy in 1994. In three seasons as a Navy coach, he worked with special teams, serving as the kickers, punter and snappers coach for the varsity squad in 1994, and the junior varsity defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator in 1995 and '96. He also worked with the linebackers and defensive line.

Prierer graduated from the Naval Academy in 1989 with a degree in economics. He played quarterback and wide receiver on Navy's junior varsity and lightweight teams from 1985 to '88 and later flew helicopters at NAS Jacksonville as a Naval Officer from 1991 to '94. He earned a master's degree in management from the University of Maryland in 1997. His father, Chuck, is in his sixth year as the special teams coach of the Detroit Lions.

Prierer was born August 21, 1966 in Cleveland. He and his wife, Debbie, have four children: daughters Samantha (7/10/93) and Katie (11/13/96) and sons Michael Jr. (12/13/94) and Wilson (12/21/97). They live in Orange Park.

LUCIOUS

SELMON

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 6TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 8TH SEASON

With the realignment of the Jaguars' defensive coaching staff in 2002, Lucious Selmon assumed responsibility for the team's defensive line. He had previously served as the Jaguars' outside linebackers coach since 1995. A former All-America defensive lineman for Oklahoma, he joined the Jaguars' coaching staff on January 17, 1995 after coaching the outside linebackers/defensive ends and the defensive line at the University of Oklahoma, where he coached for 19 years.

Selmon takes over the defensive line from John Pease, who was promoted to defensive coordinator. Selmon will have three new starters on the defensive line in 2002. The only holdover is defensive end Tony Brackens, the all-time leading sacker in franchise history. The interior of the line will be manned by Marcus Stroud and John Henderson, the team's first-round draft choices in 2001 and 2002, respectively. Contending at left defensive end are veterans Marco Coleman and Stalin Colinet and youngsters Paul Spicer and Rob Meier.

The oldest of the three famed Selmon brothers who were all consensus All-Americans at Oklahoma, Selmon graduated in 1974 with a degree in special education. He was a letterman from 1971 to '73 and was a teammate with his younger brothers, Dewey and Lee Roy, for one season. As a senior in 1973, Selmon served as team captain and was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, runner-up for the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award, Defensive Player of the Year in the Big Eight Conference and Chevrolet Player of the Year.

After his college career, Selmon played in the World Football League for the Memphis Southmen in 1974 and '75. He returned to Oklahoma in 1976 to begin his coaching career as an assistant on Barry Switzer's staff. From 1976 to '83 Selmon was the defensive line coach before serving as outside linebackers/defensive ends coach from 1984 to '94. Selmon coached under Switzer for 13 seasons and was retained on head coach Gary Gibbs' Oklahoma staff in '89. In 1989 and '90, Selmon spent training camps working with the coaching staff of the Denver Broncos. During that time he helped coach the Broncos' linebackers and defensive ends.

Selmon was born March 15, 1951 in Muskogee, Okla. and raised in Eufaula, Okla. He attended Eufaula High and was named All-State as a junior and senior.

TONY

TIGHT ENDS COACH

NFL: 4TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Tony Sparano was named the Jaguars' tight ends coach on January 28. He replaced Fred Hoaglin, who retired after spending 35 seasons in the NFL. Sparano spent the last three seasons in the NFL after coaching 15 years in college football. He was the tight ends coach for the Washington Redskins in 2001. In 1999 and 2000, he was an assistant with the Cleveland Browns, working under head coach Chris Palmer. He was the Browns' offensive quality control coach in 1999 and the offensive line coach in 2000.

From 1994 to 1998, Sparano was the head coach at the University of New Haven (Conn.), where his teams averaged 32.2 points per game and made two trips to the NCAA Division II playoffs, finishing second in 1997. He was named the New York Metropolitan Football Writers Division II Coach of the Year and was the New England Football Writers Division II/III Coach of the Year after the 1995 and 1997 seasons.

Sparano began his coaching career at New Haven in 1984, spending four seasons as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. He was the offensive line coach, recruiting coordinator and academic liaison at Boston University in 1988. From 1989 to 1993 he was BU's offensive coordinator, helping the Terriers to an 11-0 mark in 1993.

Sparano was a four-year letterman and starting center at New Haven. He earned a degree in criminal law from New Haven in 1982. He was born on October 7, 1961 in West Haven, Conn. He and his wife Jeanette, have two sons, Tony (10/22/86) and Andrew (8/28/89), and a daughter, Ryan Leigh (8/1/92).

CONTROL COACH

NFL: 1ST SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Mike Sullivan was named the Jaguars' defensive quality control coach on February 8, 2002. He assists the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, opponent breakdown and writing the playbook. He also assists coaching the secondary.

Sullivan, 35, joined the Jaguars after nine years coaching in college football. In 2001, he coached at Ohio University, handling the defensive backs and tutoring the kick blocking units on the special teams. He had previous coaching stints at Army (1995-96, 1999-2000), Youngstown State (1997-98), Humboldt State (1993-94) and Mt. San Jacinto (Calif.) College (1993). In 1997, Youngstown State won the Division I-AA national championship. Sullivan has played or coached on three bowl teams.

Sullivan was a defensive back at Army, where he received a degree in English in 1989. He also received a master's degree at Humboldt State in 1995. He is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Ranger and Air Assault Schools. Sullivan was born January 28, 1967 in Santa Maria, Calif. He and his wife, Julie, live in Jacksonville.

STEVESZABO*LINEBACKERS COACH*NFL: 8TH SEASON*JAGUARS: 8TH SEASON*COACHES

After seven years as the Jaguars' inside linebackers coach, Steve Szabo now coaches all of the team's linebackers. Szabo, 58, had been a fixture coaching the inside linebackers (middle and weakside) in the team's 4-3 "under" defense. With his new responsibilities, Szabo will also coach the team's outside (strongside) linebackers.

Szabo-coached linebackers have led the team in tackles each of the club's first seven seasons. In 2001, Hardy Nickerson made a team-record 230 tackles, and Kevin Hardy had previously led the team in tackles the previous seasons. Now, with the departure of both players, Szabo takes over a unit that will likely see new starters at all three positions. Wali Rainer, acquired from Cleveland in a Draft Day trade, will man the middle linebacker position, with T.J. Slaughter moving to the weakside. Darryl Clark, a seventh-round draft choice in 2000 who developed into a special teams star, is the favorite to start at strongside linebacker.

Szabo joined the Jaguars' coaching staff on March 3, 1994 after three seasons as defensive coordinator at Boston College. Now in his 34th year of coaching, Szabo spent 25 seasons at the college level, including three years as a college head coach. A former college running back and defensive back, he began his coaching career in 1969 at Johns Hopkins followed by stops at Toledo, Iowa, Syracuse, Iowa State, Ohio State, Western Michigan, Northern Iowa and Colorado State. From 1985 to '87 Szabo was head coach at Edinboro (Pa.) University. After serving two seasons as defensive coordinator under Earl Bruce at Colorado State, Szabo joined Tom Coughlin's Boston College staff in 1991. In all, Szabo coached in a total of nine bowl games representing five different colleges.

As a halfback and defensive back at the U.S. Naval Academy from 1961 to '64, Szabo was a teammate of Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach. As a junior in 1963, Szabo played on the Navy team that ranked second and played for the national championship in the Cotton Bowl. He also played lacrosse for three national championship teams at the Naval Academy. Szabo graduated in 1965 with a bachelor's degree in naval science. After graduation he was stationed at Quantico from 1965 to '69, where he continued playing football for the Marines (spending one year in Vietnam). He was inducted into the Chicago Catholic League Hall of Fame in 2002.

Szabo was born September 11, 1943 in Evergreen Park, Ill. He has two children from a previous marriage, Christine (5/12/72) and Mike (1/26/75), and he and his wife, Patti, have a son, Zack (7/26/88).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1969 Johns Hopkins, 1970 Toledo, 1971-73 Iowa, 1974-78 Syracuse, 1977-78 Iowa State, 1979-81 Ohio State, 1982-84 Western Michigan, 1984-87 Edinboro (head coach), 1988 Northern Iowa, 1989-90 Colorado State, 1991-93 Boston College, 1994-2002 Jacksonville Jaguars

RICKREIPRISH*DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Rick Reiprish is the Jaguars' top personnel executive, overseeing both the pro and college scouting departments as well as the annual college draft. He has been instrumental in the Jaguars' success in the draft since the team's inception and in veteran player procurement since he was promoted to director of player personnel in 1998.

Now in his 24th year in the NFL, Reiprish (pronounced RY-prish) has overseen the eight drafts that built the nucleus of a team that has been to the playoffs four times, with two trips to the AFC Championship game. In this offseason, Reiprish has guided the acquisition of players such as Chris Naeole, Marco Coleman, Patrick Johnson and Bobby Shaw, as the Jaguars set their goals once more for postseason play.

Reiprish was hired as the Jaguars' director of college scouting on May 15, 1994. He has been responsible for all of the team's drafts since its first draft in 1995. Those drafts have brought such players to the Jaguars as five-time Pro Bowler Tony Boselli, Tony Brackens, All-Rookie team members Fred Taylor and Donovan Darius in 1998, and cornerback Fernando Bryant, another All-Rookie choice, in 1999. His last two first-round picks were defensive tackles Marcus Stroud and John Henderson, who are expected to form the nucleus of the team's defensive line for years to come.

Of the Jaguars' 67 draft choices in the first seven years, 53 made the team (seven others played on other teams) and 27 of them have started games in Jacksonville. Of the team's seven first-round draft choices from 1995 to '99, every one became a starter (more than any other NFL team in that time).

Working under head coach Tom Coughlin, Reiprish has direct responsibility for the pro and college scouting departments, which are headed by Fran Foley and Gene Smith, respectively. Reiprish continues to direct the scouting of college players and the annual draft, as well as trades and the evaluation and procurement of veteran free agents.

He joined the Jaguars after serving 10 years with the Seattle Seahawks from 1984 to '94. Reiprish began his scouting career as a Southeast area scout with BLESTO from 1979 to '82. From 1982 to '84 he was a personnel scout for the Kansas City Chiefs before going to Seattle as an area scout. He was named the Seahawks' Eastern scout supervisor in 1989. Reiprish coached receivers and running backs at Austin Peay State University from 1973 to '76 before going to East Tennessee in 1977, where he coached the offensive backfield and quarterbacks. In 1978 he was the offensive line coach at North Alabama.

Reiprish received a degree in education from Villanova University in 1972 and earned a master's degree in education-administration and supervision from Austin Peay State University in 1974. He was born Sept. 14, 1950 in Shamokin, Pennsylvania. He and his wife Janet live in Ponte Vedra Beach and have a son, Andrew.

FRAN

DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Fran Foley was named director of pro scouting on May 12, 1998 following four years as the assistant director of pro personnel. He is responsible for the scouting and evaluation of the players on every NFL team, advance scouting of Jaguars opponents and player procurement during the NFL free-agent signing period and the regular season. Foley's offseason duties also include the evaluation of available NFL players, as well as those in the NFL Europe League, the Arena League and the CFL.

He joined the Jaguars on March 3, 1994 from Boston College and was one of Tom Coughlin's earliest staff hires. During his three years at BC, Foley coordinated the Eagles' recruiting efforts, one of the top ranked in the nation.

Foley began his stint at Boston College in 1991, serving as tight ends and kickers coach in addition to handling recruiting duties. He was the position coach for Jaguars tight end Pete Mitchell. His last two years were focused on personnel recruiting and team logistics. Prior to joining the coaching staff at Boston College, Foley had stints at Rutgers University as tight ends/specialists coach in 1986 and operations director from 1987 to '90. He also worked at The Citadel, coaching defensive ends in 1985 and at Colgate University as defensive line coach in 1984, when he began his college coaching career.

Foley attended Framingham (Mass.) State College, where he played offensive tackle from 1980 to '83. He graduated in 1984 with a bachelor's degree in English literature. His high school coach at Worcester (Mass.) Academy is current Green Bay Packers head coach and general manager Mike Sherman.

Foley is also director and treasurer of the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation, which, in the last seven years, has netted $976,000 for Jacksonville-area pediatric leukemia patients and their families, as well as patients with other childhood cancers. He was born April 18, 1961 in Worcester, Mass. He and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Paige Madison and a son, Sean Michael.

SCOUTS/STAFF

GENE

DIRECTOR, COLLEGE SCOUTING

After six years as a college scout for the Jaguars, Gene Smith was promoted to director of college scouting on May 8, 2000, and he has guided the team's NFL draft for the last two years. His responsibilities include the scouting and evaluation of hundreds of college players on an annual basis, as well as directing a staff of six college scouts.

Smith was previously the team's college scout responsible for the southeast United States. He joined the Jaguars on May 1, 1994 and was originally the team's scouting representative for the northeast with the BLESTO scouting combine, which he joined in February 1994. He was the southeast regional scout for BLESTO in 1995 before becoming a college scout for the Jaguars. Smith had previously been an assistant coach at the college level for eight years. He worked at Edinboro University from 1989 to 1994, serving as an assistant coach, recruiting coordinator, and strength and conditioning coordinator. From 1986 to '88 Smith worked at Ohio University, where he began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant and later served as an assistant coach.

Smith graduated from Heidelberg University, serving as captain of the football team while playing as a defensive lineman. He graduated in 1986 with a degree in education and in 1987 received his master's degree with emphasis in athletic administration from Ohio University. He has completed post-graduate work as well.

Born December 31, 1963, Smith is a native of Monroeville, Ohio. He and his wife, Debbie, have a daughter Alana Rose. They live in Fleming Island, Fla.

MATT

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Matt Littlefield was promoted to assistant director of pro scouting for the Jaguars on March 27, 2002. His responsibilities include some NFL advance scouting, as well as evaluating non-Jaguars NFL opponents. During the offseason, he coordinates the scouting of the NFL Europe League, the Arena Football League and the Canadian Football League.

Littlefield originally was hired as the Jaguars' scouting assistant on May 15, 2000, and for two years he assisted in the day-to-day operations of pro personnel and college scouting. Littlefield joined the Jaguars from the St. Louis Rams, where he was a football operations assistant for the 1997 through '99 seasons, including the team's championship in Super Bowl XXXIV. He started with the Rams as a defensive intern in February 1997. He began his career in the NFL as a public relations intern with the Kansas City Chiefs during the 1995 season, before becoming an intern in the scouting and marketing departments. He worked in public relations for Super Bowls XXX and XXXI.

A graduate of Gettysburg College, Littlefield was born on October 15, 1973. He and his wife, Cindy, live in Jacksonville.

LOUIS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Louis Clark was hired as a college scout on June 10, 1997. A former wide receiver for the Seattle Seahawks and Green Bay Packers, Clark is the only former NFL player scouting for the Jaguars. He covers the northeast United States from his home in Alpharetta, Ga.

Clark attended Mississippi State, where he played tight end from 1983 to '86. He graduated with a degree in educational psychology in 1994. Clark was selected in the 10th round of the 1987 college draft by the Seahawks. He played six seasons in Seattle, making 67 receptions for 798 yards and five touchdowns while starting 15 of 55 games played. In 1993, Clark signed with Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent and spent his final season with the Packers.

Following his playing career, he spent four years in private business. Clark was born July 3, 1964 in Tupelo, Miss. He and his wife, Carla, have a son, Antonio, and a daughter, Antonece.

ANDY

COLLEGE SCOUT

Andy Dengler has been a Jaguars college scout since 1998, scouting the western United States. He joined the Jaguars from the National Football Scouting combine, where he was an area scout in the northeast and mid-Atlantic regions the previous four years.

Previously, he was an assistant head coach, offensive line coach and defensive backfield coach at St. Joseph's College (Ind.) from 1992 to '95; offensive coordinator, interim head coach and offensive line coach at Tiffin University from 1990 to '92; a graduate assistant at Bowling Green (1988 to '90); and an assistant high school coach in Circleville, Ohio.

He received a degree in history at Heidelberg College and a master's in secondary education at Bowling Green. Dengler was born September 9, 1963 in Berea, Ohio. He and his wife, April, live in Boise, Idaho, with their daughter, Emily Mae.

DAVID

COLLEGE SCOUT

David Dougherty was hired on June 15, 2001 as the southeast region scout for the BLESTO scouting organization. He spent 2000 with the Philadelphia Eagles as a scouting administrative assistant, working with the team's scouts and covering five states, while also doing various research projects, attending college all-star games and the NFL combine, and participating in the NFL draft. He was the Eagles' draft representative in New York in both 1999 and 2000 and a training camp intern in 1998 and '99.

Dougherty taught at Annandale High in Fairfax County (Va.) from 1996 to 2000. He graduated from Indiana University (Pa.) in 1995. His father, Owen, was the head football coach at IUP from 1979 to '81. He was born July 25, 1967. He and his wife, Stephanie, live in Lake Ridge, Va.

CHRIS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Chris Driggers enters his fifth year in scouting with the Jaguars. He has been a college scout for three years following two years as a scouting assistant and four years in football operations. He scouts the south-west United States for the Jaguars.

Driggers joined the Jaguars on October 11, 1994 as the salary cap administrator, assisting in preparing player contract proposals, salary cap administration and negotiating player contracts. He became a scouting assistant in 1998, assisting in the evaluation of free agents and college and pro players.

Driggers graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in finance. He and his wife, Alyson, have two sons, Thomas and Travis. They live in Jacksonville.

TIM

COLLEGE SCOUT

Tim Minge is the Jaguars' college scout who covers the southeastern United States. He joined the team on May 12, 1994 after serving as administrative assistant and recruiting coordinator at the United States Military Academy.

After an 11-year career as a college assistant coach, Minge began his 10 years as a recruiting coordinator in 1984 at the United States Military Academy. He served there from 1984 to '87 and spent 1988 to '90 as recruiting coordinator at Tennessee. In 1991, Minge returned for three more years at the U.S. Military Academy.

Minge's college coaching career began in 1973 as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at St. Joseph College, where he had been a three-year varsity letterman as a defensive back. He was a graduate assistant at Western Michigan from 1974 to '75, then served as defensive coordinator at Loyola Academy in 1976 before returning to Western Michigan as an assistant coach from 1977 to '81. In 1982, Minge was coach of the secondary at East Carolina, and in 1983 he coached at Miami (Ohio) University as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach.

Minge received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from St. Joseph College in 1972 and a master of arts in physical education in 1976 from Western Michigan University. Minge was born January 1, 1950 in Chicago.

JOHN

COLLEGE SCOUT

John Wojciechowski was named a college scout by the Jaguars on June 1, 1998. He was the southeast region scout for the BLESTO scouting organization for three years until being promoted to scout the midwest United States for the Jaguars in 2001.

Previously he was a player personnel assistant for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1996 until joining the Jaguars. In Pittsburgh, he evaluated both college and pro talent and did quality control work for special teams.

Wojciechowski played football at Duquesne from 1992 to '95 and was on teams that won a conference championship and a bowl game. He was an All-Conference defensive end and a first-team All-America in non-scholarship Division I-AA. He also played baseball at Duquesne.

Wojciechowski received a degree in business administration at Duquesne. He was born January 4, 1974 in Pittsburgh. He lives in Pittsburgh.

MARTY

SCOUTING ASSISTANT

Marty Miller was hired as the Jaguars' scouting assistant on February 21, 2002. He assists in the day-to-day operations of the pro scouting department, including the evaluation of players in the NFL Europe League, as well as some advance scouting of NFL teams and their practice squads and players in the CFL and Arena League. He also works with and hosts unrestricted free agents in the spring.

He previously worked as director of football administration for the Los Angeles Xtreme of the XFL. He has also worked as an administrative assistant for the San Diego Chargers and as a staff assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs. He is the son of Les Miller, a longtime NFL personnel director, and he has a brother, Matt, who coaches at Kansas State. A graduate of Pacific Christian College, Miller was born on February 28, 1969. He and his wife, Kerinda live in Jacksonville.

MIKE

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mike Perkins is the Jaguars' video director, and his primary responsibilities include compiling and editing all game and practice tapes for coaches' analysis, cataloging NFL game tapes and producing "cut-ups." He also manages all video equipment and design of the Jaguars' video department, including implementing the team's state-of-the-art Pinnacle editing system.

Perkins was hired by the Jaguars on May 12, 1994, joining Tom Coughlin's staff after serving as video coordinator for three years at Syracuse. Prior to that, he served with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as assistant video director from 1987 to '90.

Perkins was born May 24, 1967 in Tuscaloosa, Ala. He lives in Jacksonville.

DREW

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Drew Hampton was named equipment manager on July 2, 1998 after serving one year as assistant equipment manager. His responsibilities include ordering, issuing and maintaining all uniforms and footwear, players' protective equipment, coaches' and support staff apparel, as well as ordering and maintaining all field equipment and supervising its transport for home and away games.

Before coming to Jacksonville, Hampton had worked in the New York Jets' equipment room on a part-time and full-time basis since he was 13 years old. His father, Bill Hampton, was the Jets' equipment manager for 39 years until retiring a year ago (he moved to Florida and now assists his son on game days). Drew's brother Bill Jr. is vice president of operations for the Cleveland Browns, and another brother, Clay, is the equipment manager for the Jets.

Hampton was born July 20, 1966 in Long Island, N.Y. He and his wife, Janine, have three daughters: Paige, Peyton and Haley.

MICHAEL

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER/ PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Michael Ryan has been the Jaguars' head athletic trainer since June 1, 1994, after serving as assistant athletic trainer/physical therapist for the New York Giants since May 1988. This is his 15th season in the NFL.

Ryan is chairman of the Professional Football Athletic Trainer's Society education committee and the author of numerous sports medicine articles. He also lectures on various sports medicine topics throughout the United States and in Mexico and Europe, and he was the keynote speaker at the grand opening of the Kennedy Space Center Rehab and Fitness Center. His career has included working as an athletic training intern with the Giants during preseason training camps from 1984 to '86, as well as brief stints at Columbia University (1983), Wesleyan University (1987) and Bloomfield College (1988).

Ryan attended Central Connecticut State, where he received a bachelor's degree in athletic training in 1985. He was a scholar-athlete, earning six varsity letters in cross country, indoor and outdoor track, as well as being named an All-East miler. He also earned a degree in physical therapy from the University of Connecticut in 1988.

An avid runner, Ryan has participated in countless unique races and triathlons, including the 1994 Ironman World Championship Triathlon in Hawaii, the 1996 New Zealand Ironman Triathlon, the 1998 Lanzarote Ironman Triathlon in the Canary Islands, the 2000 Brazil Ironman Triathlon and the 2001 Escape from Alcatraz Triathlon. This year he competed in the National Championship Duathlon in San Diego. Other races include the 1992 and '99 Running with the Bulls in Pamplona, Spain, and the Race Up the Empire State Building in New York in 1994, '96 and '97. He also ran in the 1996 Boston Marathon as a member of the Dana-Farber Marathon Challenge Team. Ryan was born February 5, 1963 in Framington, Mass. He is single and has a daughter, Erin.

DR. CARLOS

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Carlos Tandron is in his second season as the Jaguars' head team physician after serving as the Jaguars' associate orthopaedic surgeon from 1995 to 2000. He is responsible for all orthopaedic matters dealing with injuries to joints and muscles, as well as surgical procedures.

Dr. Tandron is a graduate of Georgia Tech University and Emory Medical School in Atlanta, and he did his internship and residency at Emory University Affiliated Hospitals. He maintains a private practice at Jacksonville Orthopaedic Institute and is a member of the active staff at Baptist Medical Center.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2002

- The Jaguars to have a winning season again for the fifth time in eight years in the NFL.
- Mark Brunell to lead the Jaguars in passing for the eighth consecutive season, which would be the longest streak of any NFL expansion team's quarterback.
- Jimmy Smith to reach the top 20 in all-time receptions and receiving yards. He enters the 2002 season with 584 career catches and 8,260 yards, ranking 31st in receptions and 42nd in yardage all time. Smith averages 94 receptions and 1,328 yards per year since 1996, and another season like that would put him at about 17th in catches and 20th in yards.
- Jimmy Smith can stay on top of the NFL in both receptions and receiving yards since 1996 (he leads the league with 562 catches and 7,972 yards the last six seasons). In addition, he can surpass the 600-reception mark with 16 catches in 2002 (he enters the season with 584 receptions). Smith can also be voted to his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl.
- Jimmy Smith to surpass 10,000 all-purpose yards for his career. He heads into the 2002 season with 8,846 yards receiving, rushing and on kick returns.
- Tony Brackens to lead the Jaguars in sacks for the fourth consecutive season. Brackens can also break the franchise record for career takeaways. He enters 2002 with 16, two behind record-holder Aaron Beasley.
- Fred Taylor to surpass 4,000 career yards rushing. He rushed for 3,470 yards in his first four pro seasons.
- Chris Hanson to lead the NFL in punting. In his first NFL season in 2001, Hanson ranked fourth in the NFL in net punting and sixth in gross punting.
- Kyle Brady to reach 250 receptions and 2,500 yards for his career. In his first seven seasons, he had 225 catches and 2,412 receiving yards.
- Jimmy Smith to have his seventh consecutive 1,000 yard season receiving and move into a tie for the fourth-longest streak in NFL history.
- Pete Mitchell to rebound and catch 42 passes, which would match his average number of receptions per season in his four-year tenure with the Jaguars from 1995 to 1998.
- Mark Brunell to surpass 25,000 yards in passing. He heads into the season with 22,521 yards. Brunell can also add to his team-record current streak of 12 consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass. And he will make his team-record 100th start in his first game of the season.
- Donovin Darius to lead the secondary in tackles for the fifth consecutive season.
- Brad Meester to start all 16 games for the third straight season, which would tie for the second-longest streak by any Jaguars player. He is the only Jaguar to start his first 32 games after being drafted by the team.
- T.J. Slaughter to continue averaging 100 tackles per year. He made 200 tackles in his first two NFL seasons.
- Bobby Shaw to reach 100 receptions and 2,000 yards receiving for his career. He joined the Jaguars with 92 catches for 1,468 yards.

Got his second sack Sept. 28 at Washington (of Gus Frerotte) ... Made his third sack a week later vs. Cincinnati (of Jeff Blake) and also blocked an extra point attempt following the Bengals' second TD to maintain a 14-13 Jaguars lead and earn a special teams game ball ... Earned a defense game ball Oct. 12 vs. Philadelphia when he had one sack (of Ty Detmer), one forced fumble, three passes batted down at the line of scrimmage and eight tackles (six solo). His forced fumble was the seventh of his career and broke Joel Smeenge's team record of six ... Had two sacks of Steelers QB Kordell Stewart, as well as two forced fumbles and 12 tackles (four for loss) Oct. 26 at Pittsburgh ... Made his first start since opening day Nov. 2 at Tennessee, highlighted by a pass deflection that was intercepted by Chris Hudson, setting up a first quarter field goal ... Made his second straight start Nov. 9 vs. Kansas City, sacking Rich Gannon and forcing and recovering a fumble. Suffered a sprained right ankle in the first quarter. ... Inactive the next game Oct. 16 vs. Tennessee, then saw limited action the next game ... Did not have a sack while limping through the remainder of the regular season ... 1996: Finished second on the team with seven sacks and was seventh in tackles with 65 (43 solo), despite starting only one game ... Led team with five forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries (both then-team records) and 10 tackles for loss and tied for team lead with 10 pass deflections ... Also had 13 QB pressures (tied for third on the squad) ... Named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for December after compiling 26 tackles, two sacks, one interception, three QB pressures, two tackles for loss, three passes blocked, six passes defended and one forced fumble in the final four regular-season games ... Played sparingly in the first four games, but made his first NFL start (and only one of the season) in nickel defense Sept. 8 vs. Houston ... Made the first fumble recovery of his NFL career at Jaguars' 1-yard line in the third quarter to halt a Raiders scoring threat on Sept. 15 ... Got his first two NFL sacks of ex-Jaguars QB Steve Beuerlein on Sept. 29 vs. Carolina, forcing a fumble on both to stop scoring threats and recovering two fumbles in the game ... Made sacks in three consecutive games, tying the team record: Oct. 27 at Cincinnati (Jeff Blake), Nov. 10 vs. Baltimore (Vinny Testaverde) and Nov. 17 at Pittsburgh (Mike Tomczak), forcing a fumble on the last two sacks ... Got his sixth sack of the season Dec. 8 at Houston (Steve McNair) and also forced a fumble in the game ... Had his best game of the season Dec. 15 vs. Seattle in nationally broadcast game on ESPN, making his first NFL interception and returning it 27 yards to set up a field goal, getting his seventh sack (of Rick Mirer), making 12 tackles, tipping three passes at the line of scrimmage and two QB pressures to earn a defense game ball. His 27-yard return was the longest by a Jaguars interceptor all season and he became the team's first defensive lineman to make an interception ... Played in all three playoff games, starting in the goal-line defense at New England in the AFC Championship game ... Made his first postseason sack Dec. 28 at Buffalo (of Todd Collins) to cement the team's first playoff win ... Forced fumbles — 3 (10/3/99 at Pittsburgh)

Fumbles recovered — 2 (9/29/96 vs. Carolina)

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT TONY BRACKENS

"You have to be aware of where he's at. If he's not rushing and causing fumbles in the air, he's picking off balls. He has a great feel for the game. You've just got to be aware and make sure you don't put him in position to make plays — and that's not always easy to do when he's at the center of attack."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"I see Tony breaking a lot of records. This is a guy that has all the ability in the world. He's going to make a lot of heads turn as his career goes on. He just needs to decide when he wants to be great. Once he decides, people are going to realize how talented this young man is."

— Longtime NFL defensive end Clyde Simmons (in 1996)

"You don't see many guys like him come into the league. He has some real gifts. He's like a race horse. He's got those wild eyes and he's chomping at the bit."

— Jaguars assistant head coach/defensive coordinator John Pease

"He's got it all and he's smart — extremely smart. He's more gifted than anybody I ever played with. The strange thing about what Tony Brackens has done is he still doesn't have any moves. He gets a lot of sacks on just his speed alone. A Clyde Simmons or myself, we have moves. Tony Brackens is just plain gifted."

— Former Jaguars defensive end Jeff Lageman (in 1997)

"He's probably the best athlete I face all year. He's such a good speed rusher that he helps me work on that part of my game."

— Former Jaguars offensive tackle Tony Boselli

"Tony Brackens is a great player. He creates big-time matchup problems for you."

— New York Giants head coach Jim Fassel

"Tony Brackens is one of the premier rushers in the league because he is so relentless."

— Former Raiders head coach Joe Bugel

"He makes a lot of plays other guys wouldn't have a chance to make. He adds a whole difference presence to the defense. He makes players around him better. And he makes other teams game-plan for him."

— Houston Texans defensive tackle Seth Payne

"Brackens is one of the toughest blocks an offensive tackle has because he has so much speed, so much change of direction. You throw out your natural orthodox way of blocking linemen with him."

— Washington Redskins offensive tackle Ben Coleman

"Brack has unbelievable ability. I believe he can put up some unbelievable numbers."

— Houston Texans defensive tackle Gary Walker

"Tony Brackens is an outstanding, skilled pass rusher who, because of his great quickness and strength, is also effective against the run."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"Tony has the kind of ability that can change the pace of the game instantly because he not only is quick off the ball, but he can beat tackles. A lot of times, when he gets a sack, he forces turnovers — he has a knack for stripping the ball out. Sometimes he demands to be double-teamed and he's going to free up some other guys."

— Dallas Cowboys linebacker Kevin Hardy

"Tony Brackens is an excellent football player. We had a good chance to see him at the University of Texas when he came out, what kind of potential and ability he had. He is such a quick and strong individual. He has a nose for the football and is a playmaker. There is no question, his play is very important to Jacksonville's defense. You have to be concerned about him."

— Dallas Cowboys head coach Dave Campo

"Tony's a guy who handles his business without a whole lot being said about it. I think he couldn't care less if he gets a lot of credit. He couldn't care less if his name is in the paper or if he's in the news. But he's going to get out there and he's going to get his job done. That's the kind of guy you like to play with because that's all he's worried about is playing and making plays. He's a playmaker, one of those guys who puts constant pressure on the passer and does an excellent job in the running game. Tony speaks louder with his play — he makes plays that speak for him."

— Green Bay Packers middle linebacker Hardy Nickerson

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT KYLE BRADY

"He is probably the second-fastest tight end in the NFL. A player who can block and be a vertical part of your offense is important, and Brady can do that. He's just going to get better and better. I think his best football is yet to come."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"Kyle is better than ever. I have always had confidence in him; I just haven't always gotten him the ball. We needed to change that, because he is too good not to catch the football."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"I think his blocking is very underrated. He's an exceptional blocker in the run game and he's a big target downfield. You can match up a skilled defensive back with him, but he's still going to out-jump him or out-fight him for the ball."

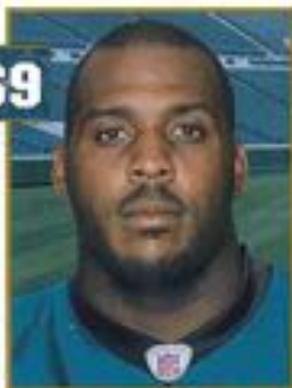

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

JAGUARS IN THE AIR

The Jaguars will travel approximately 15,000 miles to their 2002 road games (including pre-season). That is 4,000 less miles than in 2001.

PRO: Star player who is one of the top quarterbacks and most exciting players in the NFL ... Is the No. 6-ranked passer in NFL history, behind only Steve Young, Joe Montana, Brett Favre, Dan Marino and Peyton Manning ... Talented passer and runner who is one of league's best comeback quarterbacks ... Has led the Jaguars in passing each of the franchise's first seven seasons, tied for the longest streak of any expansion team's quarterback (Seattle's Jim Zorn 1976-82), and he can have the longest streak in 2002 ... Holds all Jaguars records for attempts, completions, TD passes and yards passing ... Is the only quarterback in the NFL who has been rated among the top 11 passers in each of the last six seasons ... Has played in three Pro Bowls, being named the game's MVP in 1997, starting in '98 and playing in 2000 (he was also an alternate to the Pro Bowl in 1999 and 2001) ... Has led the Jaguars to 62 of their 66 victories in franchise history (counting playoffs), including 16 comeback victories in the fourth quarter ... Holds 43 Jaguars records, more than any other player ... Has career totals of 1,896 completions in 3,145 attempts (60.3 percent) for 22,521 yards, 125 touchdowns and 79 interceptions for a passer rating of 84.9 ... Has one career 400-yard passing game and 21 300-yard games ... Enters 2002 season with a streak of at least one TD pass in 12 consecutive games ... Is 57-42 as a starter in the regular season and 4-4 in the postseason (his remaining victory came in a relief role of Steve Buechelein in the franchise's first-ever win in 1995) ... Against AFC Central teams was 35-18 in 53 regular-season games as a starter, the best division record of any active quarterback ... Led the AFC in passing in 1997 ... Owns team record for career starts with 99 ... His 102 games played is third in team history ... Has missed only 10 games in seven seasons ... Has surpassed 3,000 yards passing five of last six seasons ... Has 125 TD passes in seven seasons with Jaguars, fourth most in NFL in that time ... Mobile left-handed quarterback has always drawn comparisons to future Hall of Famer Steve Young ... Is still a threat as a runner at his age (he will turn 32 one week into the 2002 season) ... Led all NFL quarterbacks in rushing in both 1995 and '96 and is second among all quarterbacks with 1,993 rushing yards from 1995 to 2001 (Steve McNair has 2,594) ... Has played in 104 games with 99 starts over eight seasons ... His 89 starts the last six seasons is the second most among all quarterbacks behind only Green Bay's Brett Favre (96 starts) ... Was acquired by the Jaguars

"He is a warrior."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"Coach Coughlin coined the phrase 'warrior,' and Mark truly fits the bill. I admire that attitude. He will take off and run. He still has some spring in his step. He's just a competitor. He throws the ball well. He runs it. He sees the field. There's really not much he can't do."

— Jaguars tight end Kyle Brady

"I generally reserve the word 'brilliant' for just a few people. I think Mark is a brilliant quarterback. I think he is an outstanding player."

— San Diego Chargers head coach Marty Schottenheimer

"He's the man. Mark is getting better all the time. He has no limitations. Who knows how good he can be?"

— Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith

"I have a tremendous amount of respect for Mark Brunell. He doesn't care about the odds; just give him the football and he will make something happen. I consider him to be one of the top quarterbacks in the league."

— Denver Broncos defensive coordinator Ray Rhodes

"There's definite leadership there with Mark. There's physical toughness the other players can rally around. He's a great athlete. He's got size, speed, he's strong and courageous. You never want to take away his instincts and ability to make plays."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"He's left-handed, so he can see the rush coming, and he can get out of the way. He can scramble and throw on the run."

— Washington Redskins defensive end Bruce Smith

"I was very impressed with Mark even before what he did to Buffalo and to us (in 1996). He's just a very talented guy that will be one of the great quarterbacks ever to play the game, in my opinion, in years to come. He's the reason they're having the success that they are."

— Denver Broncos head coach Mike Shanahan

"There are definite similarities (between Brunell and Steve Young) — the way the players carry themselves, their movement abilities, how they throw the ball, their abilities to be spontaneous and make big plays. One player took his team to the Super Bowl and the other player is working to do that."

— Former San Francisco 49ers head coach George Seifert

"I call them twins. Same number [eight]. Same throwing arm [left]. Same ability to scramble. Every time I look at him, I think, 'That's Steve Young's twin.'"

— San Diego Chargers linebacker Sam Rogers

"There are some similarities (between Brunell and Young) because they are both left-handed, they're both very fast, they're both very mobile and creative. They are both strong, tough guys. They're like clones."

— San Francisco 49ers head coach Steve Mariucci

"Mark is a great football player. He's efficient, he's accurate and he throws the deep ball well. Those are the things you need to be successful in the NFL. He's a great playmaker, I enjoy watching him."

— Former San Francisco 49ers quarterback Steve Young

"Mark has his own style. He's always going to keep you in the game with his arm or his feet. He is just a defensive back's nightmare, because you don't know if he's going to run or throw, and he may do both."

— Green Bay Packers safety LeRoy Butler

"Brunell is kind of like Brett Favre — only thing is, Brunell is faster than Favre. We've never faced a guy who could do the things that he did to us."

— Former Denver Broncos defensive end Alfred Williams

"You have to try to keep Brunell in the pocket. This is tough. He can really frustrate defensive players. Just when they think they have him for a loss, he gets away and makes a big play. When he pulls the ball down, he's not looking to run out of bounds. And at the same time, he's pretty effective throwing it."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"I have no idea where he is (when I'm blocking). I just try to stay with my man as long as I can — and then I look up and he's running 20 yards downfield."

— Houston Texans offensive tackle Tony Boselli

"I studied players throughout the 1994 season, and I was excited about Mark's athleticism, his leadership, his toughness, his ability to move in the pocket and his arm strength. I just felt like this would be the guy that we would want to lead our team."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"I knew, as I'm sure as a lot of people did, that in time he would emerge as a premier player in this league."

— Green Bay Packers quarterback Brett Favre

"What he's done has been remarkable. Brunell has been much better than I expected. I thought he would be a good NFL quarterback, not what he has become. He's a lot better than good. He is a great kid with a great family, the kind of guy you pull for."

— Former Green Bay Packers general manager Ron Wolf

"He's only 6-1. You're supposed to be 6-4 or 6-5 today to get it done. Mark Brunell is short by NFL standards, but who can argue with the results?"

— CBS broadcaster Dan Dierdorf

"You have to be disciplined on your defensive line against Brunell. You have to be careful that you don't get three rushers on one side of the ball. You have to pick and choose the extent to which you're going to play man-to-man defense, because guys like Mark, when they recognize man-to-man and defenders' backs are turned, they're going to take off and run and make big plays."

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

"He's a threat as a passer and a runner. One of the main reasons why we structured the defense that we have is to try to be able to defend guys like Mark Brunell, who we have to face twice a year."

— Baltimore Ravens VP of player personnel Ozzie Newsome

"Outside of Brett Favre, Mark's the best in the game."

— ESPN analyst Joe Theismann

"Mark is one of the rare guys that beats you in and out of the pocket. You have a lot of guys that can run around outside that are trying to learn how to be pocket passers. You have some pocket passers that try to make something happen outside occasionally. If you keep Mark in the pocket, he will kill you. That makes him one of the best, if not the best, quarterback in the game right now. With every year Mark becomes more and more comfortable in the pocket. I think he is beginning to attain that level that Steve Young did. He is one of the dominant quarterbacks in the game."

— Baltimore Ravens head coach Brian Billick

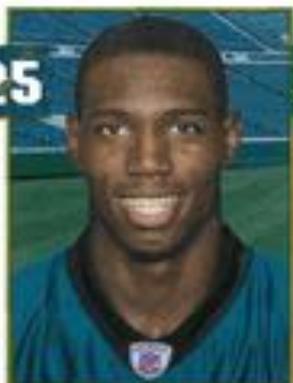

"I have great respect for him not only as a player, but as a young man. I always have."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"I don't care if you huddle up with him, don't huddle up, play in the single wing — whatever. If you have Brunell touching the ball, you have problems."

— Cincinnati Bengals head coach Dick LeBeau

... Named to every All-Rookie team in 1999 ... Two-year starter has three career interceptions in 39 starts ... Highest-drafted cornerback ever selected by Jaguars ... First-round draft choice was the second and is one of only four Jaguars to start every game as a rookie (Brian DeMarco in 1995, Brad Meester in 2000 and Maurice Williams in 2001) ... Was the sixth Jaguars rookie to start on opening day ... Short cover corner proved he can stick with tall receivers and play the run well ... Study player who had started 63 consecutive games in college and the NFL until missing two with minor injuries in 2000 ... Had career totals of 191 tackles (156 solo), one forced fumble, four fumble recoveries and three interceptions ... Was the fifth defensive back drafted in 1999, following Champ Bailey, Chris McAlister, Antonio Winfield and Antwan Edwards ...

2000: Played in 10 games with nine starts, missing six games with a foot injury ... Marked his most missed games in a season since he started playing football ... Finished with 56 tackles (50 solo), ranking 12th on the team and tops among team's cornerbacks. Added five passes defended and one tackle for loss but did not make any interceptions ... Started his third straight season opener Sept. 9 vs. Pittsburgh, making six tackles ... Suffered a foot injury on Sept. 30 vs. Cleveland after making nine tackles, tying his career high ... Inactive next game ... Did not start but played as nickel back when he returned Oct. 18 vs. Buffalo. Marked first time in 34 career games that he played but did not start ... Returned to starting lineup Oct. 28 vs. Baltimore and started next six games ... Re-injured his foot in Dec. 3 Monday night game vs. Green Bay after making season-high 10 tackles ... Inactive next four games, then was placed on injured reserve on Jan. 1 before season finale ... 2000: Started all 14 games played, leading team's cornerbacks with 57 tackles (42 solo), along with one interception, nine passes defended, one QB pressure and one fumble recovery ... Received a defense game ball along with 13 other players for team's first shutout on Sept. 17 vs. Cincinnati ... Tied for team lead with seven tackles (six solo) in Sept. 25 Monday night game at Indianapolis ... Made only interception of season (off Kordell Stewart) in Oct. 1 game vs. Pittsburgh ... Suffered hamstring injury in Oct. 16 Monday night game at Tennessee but was not removed from lineup ... Inactive for following game vs. Washington, missing his first game as a Jaguar and first football game since 1995, when he was a freshman at Alabama. ... Returned to starting lineup on Oct. 29 at Dallas, making four tackles and recovering a fumble to thwart a Dallas drive in the fourth quarter ... Started next four games, but suffered sprained left ankle in first quarter and left game on Dec. 3 vs. Cleveland ... Inactive next week vs. Arizona, but started season's final two games ... 1999: Named to every All-Rookie team (Pro Football Writers of America/Pro Football Weekly, Football News, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest) ... Started every game and led Jaguars cornerbacks and was second among defensive backs and fourth on team with 78 tackles (64 solo) ... Also made two interceptions, 13 passes defended, four tackles for loss, one forced fumble and three fumbles recovered ... Became sixth Jaguars rookie to start on opening day ...

NOTABLE

■ Has led team's cornerbacks in tackles each of his three seasons in the NFL

■ Highest-drafted cornerback ever by Jaguars was named to every All-Rookie team in 1999

■ Was the second Jaguars player to start every game as a rookie (joining Brian DeMarco in 1995; later joined by Brad Meester in 2000 and Maurice Williams in 2001)

Made his first NFL interception in his second pro game Sept. 19 at Carolina (off Steve Beuerlein) ... Got his first fumble recovery the next week vs. Tennessee (Sept. 26) to set up a touchdown ... Earned a defense game ball Oct. 31 at Cincinnati when he set up a TD with a recovery of a Corey Dillon fumble at Bengals' eight-yard line. Also made season-high nine tackles (seven solo) and team-leading four passes broken up ... Recovered his third fumble of the season Nov. 14 vs. Baltimore and returned it 23 yards ... Made his second interception of season Nov. 21 vs. New Orleans off Billy Joe Hoberl in the fourth quarter to set up a touchdown. Finished with seven solo tackles and two passes defensed to earn his second defense game ball ... Forced a fumble Nov. 28 at Baltimore ... Suffered a strained right hamstring in third quarter of Jan. 2 season finale vs. Cincinnati and did not return ... Started both playoff games ... Made the first postseason interception of his career off Steve McNair Jan. 23 vs. Tennessee in the AFC Championship game ... Selected with the 26th pick in the first round.

COLLEGE: Started his last 40 games ... Career statistics were 40 starts in 45 games, with 179 tackles (149 solo), three fumbles recovered and eight interceptions ... Also returned 17 kickoffs for 466 yards (27.4-yard average) ... Played in two bowl games: 1996 Outback and 1997 Music City ... Consensus All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection as a senior in 1998 ... Started every game and recorded a career-high 51 tackles (44 solo) with two interceptions and four pass deflections ... Closed out his career with an interception and a pass deflection in the Music City Bowl against Virginia Tech ... A broken jaw sustained in spring practice kept him from getting a lot of repetitions offensively (his coaches had planned to use him on offense in 1998, but scrapped that idea after his injury) ... All-SEC second-team choice in 1997 when he made 47 tackles (39 solo) with two tackles for loss, recovered two fumbles and forced one, deflected 10 passes and had three interceptions for 106 yards in returns and one touchdown ... Also returned 15 kickoffs for 416 yards (27.7 average) ... Second-team All-SEC selection in 1996 when he started every game, making 42 tackles (36 solo) with one fumble recovery, deflected 14 passes and blocked a kick ... Also had three interceptions for 13 yards and blocked an extra point attempt ... Knoxville News-Sentinel/SEC All-Freshman team pick in 1995 when he started the final six games, finishing with 39 tackles (30 solo) and deflected three passes ... Majored in physical education.

PERSONAL: Single with a son, Fernando II (7/27/01) ... Lives in Jacksonville ... All-American as a two-way starter at Riverdale High in Murfreesboro, Tenn. ... As a senior, recorded 82 tackles with six interceptions, averaged 30 yards per punt return and caught 48 passes for 798 yards with eight touchdowns ... As a junior, made 62 tackles and five interceptions on defense and caught 25 passes for 350 yards and one TD ... As a sprinter on the track team, finished third in the state 100-meter championships (10.1 seconds) ... One of Jaguars' most visible players in the community ... Established the 25-Sports Foundation in 2001 to help provide guidance and encouragement to inner-city children through a variety of programs ... Plans to promote and support organ donation programs in 2002 (brother, Larry, received a life-saving kidney transplant last year) ... Volunteers year-round at Jacksonville's Hubbard House, a shelter for battered women and their children. Filmed a public service announcement in 2000 and helped produce a brochure for their Men Against Violence Against Women Program (MAVAW) ... Hosts 15 disadvantaged youth, "Fernando's Commandos," during each Jaguars home game ... 2001 spokesman for the Wireless Foundation's national Call to Protect/Donate-a-Phone program, which provides refurbished wireless phones to benefit victims of domestic violence. Spearheaded a game day ALL-TEL Stadium collection last October when Jaguars fans donated over 650 wireless phones ... Volunteers with Jacksonville's I.M. Sulzbacher Center for the Homeless, annually supporting its holiday card fundraising program ... Leads Jaguars Thanksgiving-week food distribution efforts by way of Operation Blessing, which provides donated food items to over 3,000 Northside families ... 2000 recipient of the Jaguars/Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida Community Champion Award and another team-sponsored community leader award. Donated $3,000 from both awards to Hubbard House ... Serves meals at local homeless shelters, speaks at elementary schools, visits sick and injured children at Wolfson Children's Hospital and makes numerous other appearances to support the community and his teammates ... Uncle, Ray Griffin, was a defensive back for the Cincinnati Bengals (1978-83), and another uncle, Don Griffin, was a cornerback for the San Francisco 49ers and Cleveland Browns (1986-96) ... WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT FERNANDO BRYANT

"He's instinctive, he has good confidence in himself and he's made some outstanding plays up on the ball in the air. He's developed very well."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"A lot of times, Fernando is out there man-on-man on some of the top receivers in the league, and he does an excellent job."

— Dallas Cowboys linebacker Kevin Hardy

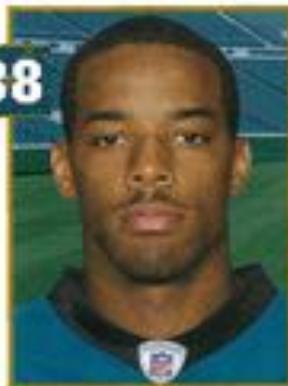

"It's great to have a corner on the other side like him. He inspired me with the energy he brings and as hard as he plays. A guy as small as he is (5-10) is not supposed to hit as hard as he does. He lets you know he is going to come up for every game. But he also has knowledge of the game. It is incredible how quickly he picks up things."

— New York Jets cornerback Aaron Beasley

"Fernando has great speed and he has great talent, he has a lot of ability to play at this level. But the best thing about Fernando is he's a competitor. He hates getting beat, and he just doesn't let it happen. He's a great guy to have in the lockerroom. I hope Fernando is here for 10 or 15 years — he's that kind of player. You couldn't ask for a better guy at that spot."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunel

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

The Jaguars went 7-1 at ALLTEL Stadium from 1996 to 1999 during the regular season and 3-5 last season, which gives them a 35-13 record, which is the fifth-best mark at home over that time. The Jaguars have lost only twelve home games since the second week of the 1996 season and have won 35 of their last 46 home games dating back to December 24, 1995, in their inaugural season. Here are the best regular-season home records in the NFL since the start of the 1996 season.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT DONOVIN DARIUS

"Donovin Darius is a very, very tough, hard-nosed football player. He loves the game, loves the physical part of the game. He understands it completely. He throws his body around. He is a physical force against the run. He exemplifies toughness, courage and loyalty. He is a great example."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"He's like a Ronnie Loft – he's aggressive and he'll pound up in there. He's a very hard worker. He takes his job seriously, and that's critical. That's all he wants. He's going to be one of the best."

— Former Jaguars safety Carnell Lake

"Donovin is a big hitter. When you see the punch he delivers, those are violent hits. He is a special player. He's very talented. He's a leader on the field, and he's a smart player. And he's not intimidated by anyone."

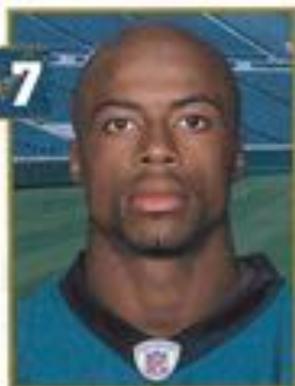

— Jaguars secondary coach Perry Fewell

"He does add a physical presence. He makes a running back realize, 'Hey, there's somebody back there looking for me.' He's going to lay a lick on him."

— Former NFL defensive tackle John Jurkovic

"He brings some violence to the secondary."

— Chicago Bears head coach Dick Jauron

PRO: Jaguars' surprise player of 2001 ... Training camp pickup beat out fifth-round draft choice David Leaverton for job to replace Bryan Barker ... In first full season, had 37.1-yard net punting average (fourth best in NFL) and 43.6-yard gross average (sixth best in NFL) ... Young left-footed punter has had previous stints with Cleveland Browns, Green Bay Packers and Miami Dolphins ... Had played in just one game in 1999 with Packers before catching on with Jaguars ... Also holds for placekicks ... 2001: Came out of nowhere to win team's punting job, superbly replacing Pro Bowler Bryan Barker, the only punter in franchise's first six seasons ... Signed as veteran free agent on Aug. 18 after release of Aron Langley to provide competition for David Leaverton, the team's fifth-round draft choice and clear favorite to win the job ... Punted in only two preseason games, but showed enough potential to get the nod ... Appeared in all 16 regular-season games, punting 82 times for 3,577 yards, a 43.6-yard average, with 12 touchbacks, 24 inside the 20 and 59 long ... Gross average was fifth in AFC and sixth in NFL ... His 37.1-yard net punting average was third in AFC and fourth in NFL ... Ranked ninth in AFC with 24 kicks inside the 20 ... Tied for second-most punts in a season in franchise history, and net average was fourth-highest ever ... Played in first NFL game on Sept. 9 vs. Pittsburgh, with six punts for 45.7 average ... Following game vs. Tennessee, received special teams game ball after punting five times for 48.0 average ... Made his first NFL tackle on Sept. 30 vs. Cleveland, when he kicked six times for a 47.8 average ... In year's first three games, opponents had 181 yards on punt returns, then they had only 114 yards in season's final 13 games ... On Nov. 4 at Tennessee, had season-high 44.4-yard net average on five punts ... Had stellar game on Nov. 11 vs. Cincinnati with eight punts for 44.9-yard average, with one touchback, season-high four kicks inside the 20 (had punts downed at Bengals' 7, 10, 6 and 3-yard lines) and a career-best 59 long. Held Bengals' Peter Warrick to no returns and three fair catches and received a special teams game ball ... Had another stellar game on Nov. 18 at Pittsburgh, punting seven times for 46.6 average and 43.0 net, with 0 TB, 3 in20 and 51 long. After game, moved up to first in AFC and second in NFL, with 39.2-yard net average ... Tied his career best with another 59-yard punt in Dec. 3 Monday night game vs. Green Bay ... Punted season-low one time for 53 yards on Dec. 23 at Minnesota (kick was returned for just one yard) ... In two preseason games with Jaguars, alternated punting duties with Leaverton, punting seven times for 36.3-yard average, 29.2 net, 43 long, 1 in20, 0 touchbacks and 1 kick blocked, but had superb hang time to impress coaches ... 2000: Signed by Miami Dolphins on Feb. 8 and allocated to NFL Europe League ... Played for Barcelona Dragons, punting 50 times for 42.8-yard average, with 15 inside the 20 and only two touchbacks ... Suffered a torn ACL in his right (non-kicking) knee in team's season finale while kicking off ... Placed on injured reserve by Dolphins on July 21 and missed entire NFL season ... 1999: Spent preseason with Cleveland Browns, playing in three games and averaging 43.7 yards on 10 punts (53 long, 4 in20, 0 TB) ... Waived on Aug. 31 and signed with Green Bay Packers on Sept. 1 after Josh Bidwell was diagnosed with testicular cancer ... Played in Green Bay's season opener against Oakland, with four punts for a 39.3-yard average (44 long) ... Waived on Sept. 14 by Packers, who signed Louie Aguir ... Originally signed as an undrafted rookie with Cleveland Browns on April 23.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT PATRICK JOHNSON

"Patrick Johnson, who has played and played well with outstanding speed, wants an opportunity for play time. When Keenan (McCardell) came here, he didn't have a big reputation, either. Patrick hasn't had the chance to be a full-time starter, so the opportunity is there."

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT MICAH ROSS

"It's important that he uses his size and his strength. He realizes that those are great advantages. Every chance he gets to be physical, he needs to be physical. In the red area, one-on-one, he ought to dominate. He needs to put that big body on defenders and just take the ball."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT BOBBY SHAW

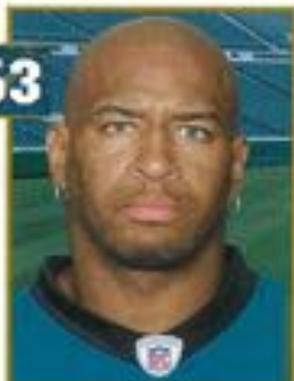

"Bobby Shaw is a very reliable, dependable, competitive and smart receiver who can play all of the positions. He catches the ball extremely well. He obviously has made his reputation on third downs. I think he can be that kind of football player (like Keenan McCardell). He's very intelligent, as Keenan was, and very competitive, but we'll have to see. Keenan had some great years and some tremendous statistics. Over time we will be able to tell, but I do think he has some of those attributes."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"He's probably the best route-runner nobody has really seen. If he ever gets a chance, he's going to be very tough for people to cover."

— Former Pittsburgh Steelers quarterback Kent Graham

Made his first NFL start Nov. 26 vs. Cincinnati for injured Willie Jackson and responded with his first NFL TD reception, a 31-yarder from Buearlein. Finished with four catches for 55 yards to rank second on the team ... Had a big game Dec. 3 at Denver, scoring three touchdowns three different ways — a 14-yard reception, an 80-yard kickoff return and on a blocked punt recovered in the endzone. Marked his second straight game with a TD while personally scoring the team's last four TDs. Scored the franchise's first TD off a blocked punt at end of the first half after Mike Dumas blocked Tom Rouen's kick into the endzone. Kickoff return TD came on a kick felled by Desmond Howard, who ran five yards, stopped and threw across the field to Smith, who ran up the left sideline to cover the final 89 yards for the first touchdown on a kickoff return in franchise history. His third TD was on a 14-yard pass from Buearlein ... Made his second start of the season Dec. 10 vs. Indianapolis and had a team-leading seven receptions for 79 yards and one TD, a four-yarder from Mark Brunell, which extended his streak to three consecutive games with a TD catch and gave him a total of five TDs in a three-game stretch ... Signed with Jacksonville as a veteran free agent on Feb. 26 ... 1994: Was waived by the Dallas Cowboys on July 11 and signed by Philadelphia on July 19 ... Spent the preseason with the Eagles, catching five passes for 68 yards and returning 13 kickoffs for 265 yards (20.4 average) ... Released by the Eagles Aug. 29, one day after the final cuts ... Out of football the rest of the year ... 1993: In the preseason, was Dallas Cowboys' receiving leader with 13 catches for 197 yards until undergoing an emergency appendectomy prior to the final preseason game ... Was placed on the reserve/non-football injury list on Sept. 2 for the entire season ... 1992: Suffered a broken right leg in training camp July 19 and spent the first five weeks of the regular

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT JIMMY SMITH

"In our opinion, he's the best receiver in football. His numbers speak for themselves."

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

"He's the No.1 receiver in the league by far. He's the only one who has the total combination — the perfect combination of speed and power."

— Former Carolina Panthers cornerback Doug Evans

"Jimmy Smith doesn't know how good Jimmy Smith is. Jimmy's incredible. He's a great athlete who makes great catches. If a team leaves him one-on-one outside, Jimmy is going to win those nine out of 10 times. Jimmy is just stronger and faster than most any cornerback he faces. He's strong in the hands and he uses them to defeat you at the line. When he comes off the line of scrimmage, everything is tight. He attacks the corner's shoulders. Most receivers take a wide angle to get up field. He keeps all his angles sharp. With a guy that big and that strong, it makes it hard for a DB to attack his shoulder, get in front of him, and use his hands. He has great escape moves."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"He is the top receiver in the league. With Minnesota's Randy Moss, all you have is the deep ball. But Jimmy can run every route in the book."

— Atlanta Falcons cornerback Ashley Ambrose

"Jimmy is 'the man' in this league."

— Indianapolis Colts wide receiver Marvin Harrison

"Jimmy has no weaknesses. He can play anyway he needs to. He can play the physical game. He can play the finesse game. Or he can run by you. That's why I think he's the best receiver in the league."

— Tennessee Titans cornerback Samari Rolle

"He has the ability to hit the other gear and make it happen. Jimmy has the size and speed and is difficult to tackle. He has power, he has force. He is able to use those things to his advantage."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"Jimmy's a lot like (former Viking) Cris Carter because he can do so much. He has very deceptive speed, and he has learned how to use his body and set up defensive backs."

— Former Washington Redskins cornerback Mark McMillian

"I remember when I came back from his workout when he was in college about to enter the draft and he did some things that I hadn't seen before. His ability to run routes, cut and get in and out of breaks reminded me of Henry Ellard, who is in the top 10 of all the records. Henry was a 180-pound guy, and here is Jimmy who can do these things, but Jimmy came into (Dallas') camp with injuries and appendicitis. We had quite a crew of people there, so it didn't work out. But I always thought Jimmy would be a heck of a player. You never know what a guy is going to go on and do. Jimmy is just phenomenal and has gone on to be one of, if not, the best player in the league. Sometimes when you have adversity it takes you a little bit longer and you appreciate it more."

— Miami Dolphins offensive coordinator Norv Turner

"In my opinion, Jimmy's the best and should be considered the best in this league. There's guys who are very fast, and that's all they are. But Jimmy's fast, and he's stronger than people think he is — he's incredibly strong. He's smart and he's a big-play maker. He does things on the field that I think, 'Wow! I've never seen him do that.' He's incredible. A lot of times, honestly, I'll just throw the ball up in the air, sometimes a lot farther than I think it should go, and Jimmy has the incredible ability to run under that thing every time. It's like he sees that the ball is a little farther downfield than it should be, and he just hits that extra gear that very few people have and he goes and gets it. He can adjust his body to where that ball lands perfect."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"That he's developed into arguably the NFL's best receiver is a testament to his determination."

— Jamett Bell, USA Today

"You look at some games he had against us (in Baltimore), you'd think he's unstoppable. But then, he does that to a lot of people."

— Arizona Cardinals cornerback Duane Starks (with the Baltimore Ravens 1998-2001)

"He has moved himself into that elite group of the Jerry Rice-, Cris Carter-level of receiver. He has really established himself as one of the elite receivers in the league."

— Baltimore Ravens head coach Brian Billick

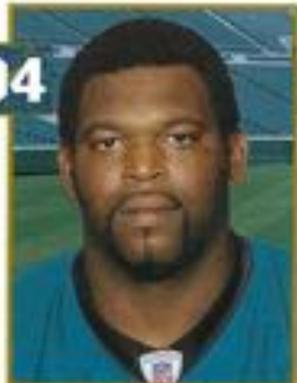

"I think he's the best receiver in football. That's not being said out of disrespect to anybody else — I have that much respect for him, I think he is the complete package. He runs tremendous routes. He has great hands. He has speed. He has great moves. We have to try to contain him."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"Jimmy is like a fine wine — he just keeps getting better with age."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 2001 (16/0)

PRO: Talented young defensive tackle who will assume a starting role in 2002 ... Jaguars first-round draft choice in 2001 is being counted upon to be one of several young players to take over a leadership role ... 13th selection in 2001 is second-highest-drafted defensive lineman ever by Jaguars and the second of three to be chosen in the first round (joining Ronaldo Wynn, 21st overall in 1997, and John Henderson, ninth in 2002) ... Played in every game in 2001, one of only four Jaguars rookies to do so ... Massive defensive tackle can clog middle and leave other defenders free to make tackles ...

NOTABLE

- Jaguars' No. 1 draft choice in 2001 did not start any games but had most tackles of any reserve player
- Blocked a field goal attempt as a rookie, team's first in four years
- Second-highest-drafted defensive lineman in Jaguars history (13th choice overall)

... Showed impressive ability to take on two blockers at a time, while still putting pressure on opposing passers ... Has very good speed for a defensive tackle (5.0 in the 40-yard dash) ... On special teams, is always a threat to block place kicks ... As a rookie, notched Jaguars' first blocked field goal in four years ... Only the third Jaguar drafted out of University of Georgia ... 2001: Played in all 16 games but did not start, as veterans Gary Walker and Seth Payne opened every game ... Ranked 10th on team with 62 tackles (24 solo), most of team's reserve defensive linemen and highest total of any Jaguars who did not start a game ... Added 11 QB pressure (fourth on team) and three passes defended ... Also blocked a field goal attempt ... In second half of season, played on 58 percent of defensive plays, rotating at defensive tackle with Gary Walker (70 percent) and Seth Payne (64 percent) ... In second half of season, made most of his 62 tackles, including 17 in the final two games ... Saw his first NFL action in Sept. 9 season opener vs. Pittsburgh, making three tackles ... In second NFL game on Sept. 23 vs. Tennessee, led team's defensive linemen with seven tackles and batted down pass from Neil O'Donnell on key play in final series ... On Nov. 11 vs. Cincinnati, saw action on 58 of 75 plays after injury to Gary Walker, making four assisted tackles, two QB pressures and one pass defended ... Added six tackles the next week at Pittsburgh ... In his first game ever on "Monday Night Football," Dec. 3 vs. Green Bay, blocked a field goal attempt by Ryan Longwell for the first of his career and Jaguars' first since Clyde Simmons on 9/22/97 vs. Pittsburgh. Added three tackles and two QB pressures ... Received defense game ball on Dec. 23 at Minnesota, when he played in DT rotation for 46 of 60 plays, making two assisted tackles and three QB pressures ... On Dec. 30 vs. Kansas City, played in DT rotation and took over when starter Gary Walker was ejected. Played on 52 of 68 plays, making eight tackles ... Led defensive linemen in tackles in last two games ... Played on 40 of 70 plays in Jan. 6 season finale at Chicago, making nine tackles ... Selected in the first round, the 13th choice overall ... Fourth defensive tackle drafted, following Gerard Warren, college teammate Richard Seymour and Damione Lewis.

COLLEGE: Joined Richard Seymour (No. 1 pick of New England in 2001) in giving school the premier defensive tackle tandem in college football in 1999 and 2000 ... Played in 43 games, with 29 starts at left defensive tackle ... Made 142 tackles (77 solo) with 6.5 sacks and 19 tackles for loss ... Despite seeing constant double coverage, registered 55 QB pressures during his career ... Known for his athletic ability, making 17 pass deflections ... Played in four bowl games: 2000 Oahu, 1999 Outback, 1998 Peach and 1997 Outback ... All-Southeastern Conference second-team pick by league's coaches and Associated Press as a senior in 2000 ... Started all year at left defensive tackle, recording 57 tackles (24 solo) with 1.5 sacks and six tackles for loss ... Led team with 24 QB pressures and recovered a fumble ... Ranked second on team with eight pass deflections ... Played in 10 games as a junior in 1999 at left defensive tackle, starting nine and missing one with an injury ... Finished with 37 tackles (28 solo), two sacks and seven tackles for loss ... Deflected four passes and forced a fumble, and had nine QB pressures ... In Dec. 3 rout of Cleveland, sat out the fourth quarter but still gained 181 yards on 30 carries, scoring three TDs to earn another offense game ball. Marked his seventh consecutive 100-yard game, breaking his own team record. His 181 yards marked the third-best rushing game in team history and gave him 1,100 yards for season, surpassing the 1,000-yard mark for the second time in three years. Surpassed James Stewart as team's career rushing leader with 3,055 yards (Stewart had 2,955 from 1995 to '99). Also was his third game with three rushing TDs, and 30 carries was his third most in a game ... Rushed 23 times for 137 yards on Dec. 10 vs. Arizona, scoring two TDs. Received his third offense game ball in four weeks. Marked his eighth consecutive 100-yard game. With 1,237 yards rushing for the season, broke team's single-season record of 1,223 he set in 1998. Scored a rushing TD in his fifth straight game, breaking the team record of four set five times previously (three times by Taylor, once each by James Stewart and Natrone Means) ... Had ninth consecutive 100-yard game on Dec. 17 at Cincinnati, rushing 32 times for 110 yards and one TD. Extended his team record for 100-yard games and led for the third-longest streak in NFL history with Walter Payton behind Barry Sanders (14) and Marcus Allen (11). Had 1,010 yards in those nine games, an average of 112.2 per game. Extended his team record for 100-yard games in a season with nine. His 32 carries tied his single-game mark set 12/6/98 vs. Detroit, and with 279 attempts through the game broke his season mark of 264 set in 1998. Marked his sixth straight game with a touchdown, extending another team record ... Had 100-yard game streak stopped in Dec. 23 season finale at N.Y. Giants. Started but was injured two plays into the second half (hip pointer) and did not return. Rushed 13 times for 52 yards, with a 44-yard TD run, scoring in his seventh straight game, extending his team record ... 1999: Started nine of 10 games played, missing six entirely with a hamstring injury and being limited in several others ... Finished the season second on the team with 732 yards on 159 carries (4.6-yard average, 52 long) and six touchdowns ... Ranked 12th in the AFC in rushing, and his 4.6 average was tied for fourth ... Also caught 10 passes for 83 yards (8.3 average, 41 long) ... Was healthy in the postseason, turning in two 100-yard games and finishing with 245 yards on 37 carries (6.6 average, 90 long) and one TD, as well as three receptions for 55 yards (18.3 average, 39 long) and one TD ... Had three 100-yard games during the regular season, in addition to two in the playoffs ... In Sept. 12 season opener vs. San Francisco, rushed for 74 yards on 24 carries ... Gained 27 yards on five carries on Sept. 19 at Carolina before suffering a strained left hamstring in the first quarter (did not return) ... Inactive next game (9/26 vs. Tennessee) ... Started Oct. 3 at Pittsburgh and ran eight times for 28 yards before aggravating his hamstring strain in the second quarter. Did not play in the second half ... Inactive next two games (10/11 at N.Y. Jets and 10/17 vs. Cleveland) ... Returned to the starting lineup Oct. 31 at Cincinnati and erupted for 128 yards on 15 carries (8.5 average), including 126 yards in the first half to earn the offense game ball. Scampered 35 yards on his first carry of the game and capped that drive with a one-yard TD plunge for his first score of the year. Later had a season-long 52-yard run to set up a TD. Ran just once for two yards in the third quarter before leaving the game with cramps. Marked the seventh 100-yard game of his career. Total of 128 yards were just one less than his season total entering the game ... Turned in his second-straight 100-yard game Nov. 7 at Atlanta, rushing for 124 yards on a season-high 27 carries. Also gained 54 yards on two receptions for 178 combined yards, then the fourth-best total of his career ... finishing with 116 yards and one TD on 25 carries (4.6 average) to earn the offense game ball for the second straight week. Broke loose on a 49-yard run on the first play of the second half to spark a TD drive to give the Jaguars a 21-19 lead, scoring on one-yard run ... Ran for 89 yards on only 12 carries (7.4 average) and scored two TDs in Monday night game Oct. 12 vs. Miami before suffering a sprained left shoulder in the third quarter and leaving the game (still earned an offense game ball). On the first play from scrimmage, broke free for a 77-yard TD run that is the longest run from scrimmage in team history. Added a two-yard TD run in the second quarter to break the team record for TDs by a rookie, eclipsing Stewart's previous mark (three) and rookie rushing TD mark (two) set in 1995 ... Inactive for Oct. 18 game at Buffalo ... Returned to the lineup Oct. 25 at Denver, but was sidelined early after taking a blow to the head on team's second possession. Returned to game later and scored his fifth TD and first receiving TD on a four-yard pass. Finished with 27 yards on six carries (long 25) and five receptions for 50 yards ... Scored two TDs for the second time with a franchise-best 78-yard receiving TD and a one-yard run, earning his fourth offense game ball Nov. 1 at Baltimore. Turned in 165 combined yards with 87 rushing on 22 carries and 78 receiving on his reception. The 78-yard catch topped the previous record 75-yard non-scoring catch by Jimmy Smith on 11/9/97 vs. Kansas City ... Posted his third 100-yard game Nov. 8 vs. Cincinnati, with 118 yards on 27 carries and his sixth rushing TD. Became the first player in Jaguars history to have three 100-yard rushing games in a season. Total of 27 carries tied for the second most in team history. Marked the sixth straight game in which he played that he scored a TD ... Broke free for a 70-yard game-winning TD run with 2:40 left to clinch a 29-24 comeback win on Nov. 15 vs. Tampa Bay, earning his fifth offense game ball. Finished with 128 rushing yards (fourth 100-yard game) to tie his own team record for rushing yardage and scored three TDs for the first time in his career (also scored on runs of six and three yards). Finished with 196 combined yards (128 rush, 68 receiving) for the then second most of his career and then third most in team history. Broke two team records: total TDs scored in a season (11, topping Stewart's 10 in 1996) and single-season rushing attempts by a rookie (142, topping Stewart's 137 in 1995). Tied two team records: rushing TDs in a season (nine, matching Natrone Means' in 1997) and consecutive games scoring a TD (four, matching Means in 1997). Marked the seventh straight game in which he played that he scored at least one TD ... On Nov. 22 at Pittsburgh, scored a team-record 10th rushing TD of the season on a two-yard run, breaking Means' record. Also broke Mean's team mark for consecutive games scoring a rushing TD, with five. Finished with 67 yards on 20 carries and 21 yards on four receptions. Marked the eighth straight game in which he played that he scored a TD ... Started Nov. 29 at Cincinnati but had just six carries for 16 yards before suffering a left shoulder contusion with 1:28 left in the first quarter (did not return) ... Had a breakout game Dec. 6 vs. Detroit with a then-franchise-record 183 rushing yards on a record 32 carries and scored two TDs, becoming the first 1,000-yard rusher in team history with 1,005 yards. Turned in his fifth 100-yard rushing game to earn another offense game ball. Finished with 206 combined yards, including 23 on three receptions. Had a 31-yard run for his eighth play of 30-plus yards on the season. On his first carry, broke Means' team record for single-season rushing yards (823 in 1997), and later broke Jimmy Smith's record for combined yards from scrimmage in a season (1,324 in 1997). Eclipsed his own previous team record of 128 rushing yards, as well as the rushing attempt record of 29 by James Stewart. Marked his fourth game with two or more TDs ... Scored his 15th TD Dec. 13 vs. Tennessee, but was held to 42 yards on 20 carries (long 18). Led team with seven receptions for 32 yards ... Got his sixth 100-yard game of the season Dec. 20 at Minnesota, rushing for 105 yards on 23 carries. Also led the team with four receptions for 25 yards to finish with 130 combined yards. With 42 receptions on the season broke the team's rookie record, topping Pate Mitchell's 41 catches in 1995. Was team's leading rusher as well as leader in receptions for the third time ... Scored two TDs in the Dec. 28 season finale vs. Pittsburgh and finished his rookie season with 17 total TDs to tie for third among rookies in NFL history, both for rushing TDs and total TDs. Rushed for 71 yards on 21 carries, with a 12-yard TD run, and caught two passes for 21 yards and a nine-yard TD. His 17 TDs tied Randy Moss for second in the NFL behind Terrell Davis (23).

JAGUARS ON THE RUN

In the last four seasons, the Jaguars have rushed for 7,825 yards, the sixth most in the NFL, and they were the only team to have more than 2,000 yards rushing each of the three seasons from 1998 to 2000. Here are the NFL's best rushing teams since 1998:

| RK | TEAM | 1998 | 1999 | 2000 | 2001 | TOTAL |

Received his seventh offense game ball. ... Started both playoff games ... Posted the third-best game by a rookie running back in NFL postseason history on Jan. 3 vs. New England with 162 yards on a career-high 33 carries. Also scored one touchdown and earned another offense game ball. Scored on 13-yard run in the second quarter for a 12-0 lead and had 46-yard run in the first quarter, which was the second-longest run in team's postseason history. Also turned in the third 100-yard rushing game by a Jaguar in postseason (Means had two), and his 162 yards were the second most in team postseason history to Means' 175 on 12/28/96 at Buffalo. His rushing total of 162 ranks third in NFL postseason history for a rookie, trailing only 204 by Washington's Timmy Smith (1/31/88 vs. Denver) and 165 by L.A. Chargers' Paul Lowe (1/16/51 vs. Houston). With 33 carries broke Means' team postseason record of 31 on 12/28/96 at Buffalo and topped Taylor's regular-season mark of 32 carries on 12/5/96 vs. Detroit. Named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Wild-Card weekend, becoming the first rookie to win in the three-year history of the award ... Limited by New York Jets defense to 86 yards on 20 carries in the Jan. 10 Divisional Playoff game ... His 248 rushing yards in two postseason games moved him to 58th in NFL history for rushing yards by a rookie in postseason behind Washington's Timmy Smith (342 in 1987), Dallas' Duane Thomas (313 in 1970), Cincinnati's Ickey Woods (307 in 1988) and Houston's Earl Campbell (264 in 1978) ... Drafted ninth overall and second running back picked after Curtis Enis ... Selected with a choice obtained from Buffalo (along with a fourth-round pick) in exchange for quarterback Rob Johnson.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT FRED TAYLOR

"There's not a lot of guys that can do what he does. He can change the course of a game on one play. He has the ability to score from anywhere on any given play."

— Jaguars' quarterback Mark Brunell

"He scares me because he is an explosive runner who can take it the distance at any time."

— Dallas Cowboys head coach Dave Campo

"Fred is one of those guys who can take it all the way at any time. He's an explosive back. He can do a lot of things from a lot of different places on the field. He does things that not a lot of backs in this league can do. He has the speed to go the distance. He can make people miss, and he has power, too."

— Houston Texans offensive tackle Tony Boselli

"I honestly think he is going to be the next 2,000-yard back. He's unbelievable. He has speed, he has power, he has a mixture of things that makes him successful."

— Houston Texans cornerback Aaron Glenn

"Year-in and year-out, minus the injuries, Fred is a Pro Bowl running back. Take away his injuries and Fred can do anything that any running back in the league can do."

— Tennessee Titans defensive end Jevon Kearse

"He hits holes quicker than anybody I've ever seen."

— Miami Dolphins defensive end Trace Armstrong

"Once he gets into the crease, Fred's looking to get to the sidelines. He has outstanding speed. I've been very impressed with Fred Taylor, what I have seen of him so far. You see defenders on video having good angles, suddenly disappearing. He's a very dangerous runner."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"This guy looks special to me. He really does. And I'm not just saying that because we're playing him. I'll say it after the game, and I'll probably be saying that next year, unfortunately, and the year after that."

— Former New York Jets head coach Bill Parcells

"He has very rare gifts. Anytime he touches the ball, he can go all the way. Without a doubt, his best football is yet to come."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"He's growing as a player. People think they've seen the best of Fred Taylor. I don't think Fred Taylor's even knows how good he is. You give him just a little blocking, and he's going to make big plays. I'm just happy to play with a guy like that. I've played with Emmitt Smith, but Fred Taylor ranks No. 1 in my heart."

— Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith

"Taylor is a very elusive back. He's almost like Barry (Sanders). He makes people miss."

— Former Detroit Lions wide receiver Herman Moore

"Fred's like a silent assassin — he's very soft spoken but he carries a big stick. There's nothing like blocking your man and looking up and seeing Fred 50 yards down the field. That creates a spark in an offense like nothing else can. At any given moment, he has game-breaking ability. You keep him in the game long enough, he's going to make something happen."

— Miami Dolphins offensive lineman Leon Searcy

"I know what kind of player Fred is. He's the complete package. He's a great player."

— Denver Broncos head coach Mike Shanahan

"He's a great back, a quality, quality back that is a franchise back."

— Arizona Cardinals head coach Dave McGinnis

"Anything that Fred Taylor does from here on out shouldn't surprise anybody. It doesn't surprise his teammates. Ask him. He says, 'I need a crack, just give me a crack.' He has the type of ability to turn a 30-yard run into a 60-, 70-yard run."

— Former Jaguars offensive tackle Ben Coleman

"Fred's one of the best backs there is. You give him a little bit of a hole and he's gone. He makes people miss. He's an all-around back. He's able to catch the ball. He can run the ball inside, he can run the ball outside."

— Jaguars guard Brad Meester

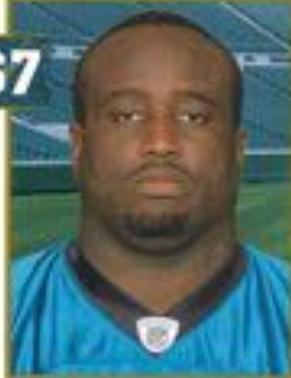

"He's the most dynamic runner in football, and it is tough to manage him. If you can't manage him — he rips off 20- or 30-yard runs — then the Jaguars can do pretty much whatever they want in the passing game."

— Former Steelers fullback and ESPN analyst Merrill Hoge

"Fred Taylor was one of those rare athletes who possess so much talent. Fred is such a powerful running back that, when he hits the hole, it takes more than one guy to take him down. He has the size and strength combined with amazing quickness that it is difficult to catch him from behind."

— Tennessee Titans guard Zach Piller

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT KIWAUKEE THOMAS

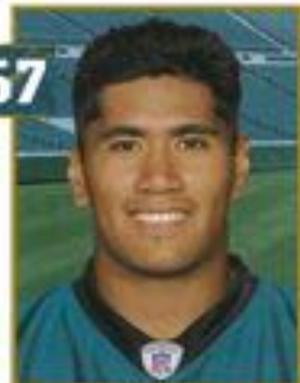

"He has all the physical tools, he's very bright and he's competitive. Those three traits usually turn out to be good for a cornerback. He's not afraid. You have to have a short memory to play corner, and he already has that. He forgets about it, comes back the next play and plays just as hard or harder."

— Former Jaguars safety Carnell Lake

"He's worked against Jimmy Smith for his entire time here. He's starting to have a little confidence in himself. I'm glad to see him have presence and poise. When you have the heart, when you play as hard as he does, and when you have the physical components, there's going to be a place for a guy like that."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

JAGUARS 21, STEELERS 3

SEPTEMBER 9, 2001

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|----|---|---|---|----|
| PITTSBURGH STEELERS (0-1) | 0 | 3 | 0 | 0 | — | 3 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-0) | 0 | 21 | 0 | 0 | — | 21 |

The Jaguars defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers 21-3 at ALLTEL Stadium to win their season opener for the sixth straight year. The Jaguars scored all 21 of their points in the second quarter, and then a strong defense took over, holding a Pittsburgh team without a touchdown for the fourth time in the last six games between the two teams. Mark Brunell threw three touchdown passes — two to Jimmy Smith and one to Damon Jones — and Fred Taylor rushed for 96 yards in the win. Smith and Keenan McCardell both started the game, each of them after making fast recoveries from abdominal surgeries. McCardell caught a pass on the first play of the game, and Smith had eight receptions for 126 yards. Kevin Hardy led the defense with 11 tackles, two sacks, a forced fumble and a pass defensed. Following a Steelers field goal on the second play of the second quarter, the Jaguars drove 74 yards in six plays, culminating in the first Brunell-Smith score, a 34-yard pass in the corner of the end zone after Smith broke off his route on a Brunell scramble. On Pittsburgh's next possession, Donovan Darius partially blocked Josh Miller's punt and the Jaguars took over at midfield. Eight plays later, Brunell threw 15 yards to Smith for a 14-3 lead. Hardy Nickerson then forced a fumble that was recovered by rookie Marlon McCree, and the Jaguars took over at the Pittsburgh 23-yard line. Brunell hooked up with Jones for 22 yards, then on the next play found Jones over the middle in the end zone for a one-yard score and the team's third TD of the period. The Jaguars went to ball control in the second half, when a steady downpour forced them to play conservative and not turn the ball over.

GAME NOTES

- Mark Brunell threw three touchdown passes in one half for only the second time ever. He had three TDs in the second half against Indianapolis on 12/10/95.
- The Jaguars extended the second-longest active streak with six consecutive season opening wins and a 6-1 record all-time. Miami has won 10 straight openers.
- Jimmy Smith tied Bryan Barker's record when he played in his 96th game as a Jaguar. With 126 yards receiving, Smith hit the 100-yard mark for the 30th time in his career.

GAME 2
JAGUARS 13, TITANS 6
 SEPTEMBER 23, 2001
 ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| TENNESSEE TITANS (0-2) | 3 | 3 | 0 | 0 | — | 6 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-0) | 3 | 7 | 3 | 0 | — | 13 |

The Jaguars' defense stepped to the forefront, holding the Tennessee Titans without a touchdown and stopping them on fourth down three times in the final six minutes of the game, as Jacksonville won 13-6 and went to 2-0 for the season. The Jacksonville defense had yet to allow a touchdown, and two of the fourth-down stops of the Titans were inside the red zone, as Tennessee tried in vain to tie the game. Stacey Mack stepped in for an injured Fred Taylor and rushed for 80 yards and the game's only touchdown, and Mike Hollis kicked two field goals for the Jaguars. Taylor suffered a groin injury in the second quarter, and Mack — who had one more yard rushing than Tennessee's Eddie George — scored on his first series after replacing Taylor. George rushed for 79 yards, but he gained only three of them in the second half after the Jaguars' defense stiffened. In addition to the fourth-down failures, Tennessee converted only 1 of 14 third-down opportunities. Mark Brunell passed for 235 yards and Jimmy Smith caught seven passes for 87 yards to complement Mack's running. But the Jacksonville defense was the star of the day, holding the Titans to 254 yards, their fewest against the Jaguars in the last five games of the series.

GAME NOTES

■ The Jaguars held an opponent without a touchdown for the second consecutive game. It marked only the second time that had been accomplished. The first time was in 1999 against Pittsburgh and the New York Jets.

■ Jimmy Smith broke Bryan Barker's record of having played in 97 games, the most of any player in Jaguars history.

■ Stacey Mack, who filled in for an injured Fred Taylor, had 18 carries for 80 yards, the most yards in his career to date. His previous high was 74 yards on 23 carries at Cleveland on Sept. 3, 2000. His 22-yard touchdown run was the longest of his career and his second NFL touchdown.

GAME 3 BROWNS 23, JAGUARS 14

SEPTEMBER 30, 2001

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|----|----|----|---|----|

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-1) | 0 | 0 | 14 | 0 | — | 14 |

The Jaguars suffered their first loss of the season and were defeated by the Cleveland Browns for the first time ever, losing 23-14 at ALLTEL Stadium. The loss snapped a streak of six straight wins over Cleveland. Jacksonville went into the game without OT Tony Boselli, RB Fred Taylor, DE Tony Brackens and SS Donovan Darius, and they lost CB Mark Brunell and TE Kyle Brady before the first half was over. Cleveland led 13-0 at halftime, as the Jaguars' defense allowed its first touchdown of the season. Jonathan Quinn replaced Brunell and led the Jaguars to a touchdown on the first series of the second half, and less than a minute later CB Aaron Beasley picked up a fumble and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. But that was the only scoring for Jacksonville. Mike Hollis missed a 42-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter that would have given Jacksonville a four-point lead. Late in the game, with the Browns up 16-14 after a Phil Dawson field goal, the Jaguars drove to the Cleveland 36-yard line, but four straight incomplete passes ended the drive. Quinn was intercepted on the next drive, with the ball returned for a touchdown and the final score. Substituting for Taylor, Stacey Mack rushed for a career-high 93 yards. But Quinn passed for only 136 yards on 30 passes, as the Jaguars' offense gained a season-low 259 yards in the loss (their lowest total in 52 weeks).

GAME NOTES

- The Jaguars held an opponent without a touchdown for nine consecutive quarters until they allowed one to Cleveland in the second quarter. The streak tied the Jaguars' record set in 1999.
- Aaron Beasley recorded his 15th career takeaway, tying the team record held by Tony Brackens. His 40-yard fumble return was his third career touchdown. The defensive touchdown was the first for the Jaguars since Nov. 28, 1999 at Baltimore.

GAME 4 SEAHAWKS 24, JAGUARS 15

OCTOBER 7, 2001

HUSKY STADIUM, SEATTLE, WASH.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|----|---|---|---|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-2) | 3 | 9 | 3 | 0 | — | 15 |
| SEATTLE SEAHAWKS (2-2) | 14 | 7 | 0 | 3 | — | 24 |

The Jaguars were defeated by the Seattle Seahawks 24-15, dropping to 2-2 for the season. Playing without five injured starters, the Jaguars fumbled three times and failed to stop Shaun Alexander, who was making only his second NFL start in place of injured Ricky Waters. Alexander rushed for 176 yards on 31 carries and scored two touchdowns. Meanwhile, with Fred Taylor out, the Jaguars gained only 57 yards rushing behind starter Stacey Mack and Elvis Joseph, two undrafted players. Mack gained only 17 yards on eight carries and was benched after his second fumble. Joseph, who had made his NFL debut only a week earlier and had never touched ball in a regular-season game, led the team with 39 yards and scored Jacksonville's only touchdown on a 18-yard pass from Brunell. Mike Hollis kicked a season-high three field goals on four attempts for the rest of the Jaguars' scoring. Jacksonville took a 3-0 lead on their opening possession, culminating in a 32-yard field goal by Hollis. But Seattle struck right back with a one-yard TD pass to Iula Mill from Trent Diller, the Super Bowl-winning quarterback from a year ago who was making his first start as a Seahawk. Alexander got his first touchdown on Seattle's next possession, and Jacksonville answered in the second quarter with Hollis' second field goal. On the ensuing kickoff, Danny Clark forced a fumble that was recovered by Kwaakae Thomas on the 18-yard line, and one play later the Jaguars were trailing only 14-12 after a failed two-point conversion attempt. However, Seattle answered with Alexander's second score and took a 21-12 halftime lead. Both teams managed solitary field goals in the second half, but the Jaguars were not without chances. Twice in the fourth they failed to convert 4th-and-1 attempts at Seattle's 35- and 36-yard lines, once fumbling the ball. The Jaguars managed only 80 yards and four first downs in the second half.

GAME 5 BILLS 13, JAGUARS 10

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| BUFFALO BILLS (1-4) | 0 | 3 | 7 | 3 | — | 13 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-3) | 0 | 0 | 7 | 3 | — | 10 |

The Jaguars lost their third consecutive game of the season 13-10 to the Buffalo Bills when Jake Ariens hit on a 46-yard field goal with 1:03 remaining. It marked the team's second straight home loss and dropped them to 2-3 for the year. The Jaguars' offense scored its fewest points of the season and was held below 16 points for the fourth consecutive game. The team's only points came on a 20-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Kyle Brady and a 41-yard field goal by Mike Hollis. Both scores came in the second half following a first half in which Jacksonville gained only 69 yards on offense. The Jaguars' defense allowed only one touchdown and 317 yards. But the Jacksonville offense gained a season-low 247 yards. Trailing 3-0 at halftime (the Bills missed two field goals), the Jaguars scored a touchdown on the first possession of the third quarter. However, Buffalo, quarterbacked by former Jaguar Rob Johnson, struck back with a TD to maintain a 10-7 lead. Early in the fourth quarter, the Jaguars faced a 4th-and-1 at the Buffalo 10-yard line but decided to attempt a game-tying field goal. However, Joe Zelenka's high snap was mishandled by holder Chris Hanson and Jacksonville lost a scoring opportunity. Minutes later, a Hanson punt backed the Bills to their own four-yard line and they went three-and-out and kicked a 28-yard punt. The Jaguars gained only six yards on three plays and Hollis kicked a 41-yard field goal to tie the game with 4:00 remaining. The Bills then drove 48 yards for the game-winning points. On Jacksonville's final possession, Brunell was intercepted with 44 seconds left.

GAME NOTES

- Stacey Mack had a career-long 29 yard run in the game as well as a 28-yarder for the second-longest of his career. His previous long was a 22-yard run against Tennessee on September 23, 2001.
- Mark Brunell threw for 150 yards and increased his career total to 20,062 passing yards (19,967 yards as a Jaguar, in addition to 95 yards passing in 1993 and '94 when he played for the Green Bay Packers).
- Jimmy Smith extended his streak of having played in 100 games, the most in Jaguars history.

GAME 6

RAVENS 18, JAGUARS 17

OCTOBER 28, 2001

PSINET STADIUM, BALTIMORE, MD.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|---|----|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-4) | 0 | 3 | 7 | 7 | — | 17 |
| BALTIMORE RAVENS (4-3) | 0 | 3 | 3 | 12 | — | 18 |

The Jaguars lost their fourth consecutive game, 18-17 to Baltimore. The Ravens scored two touchdowns in the final 9:48 of the game, including the winning score on a pass that was reviewed, although the replay was found to be inconclusive. The Ravens failed on two-point conversion attempts following each touchdown. Jacksonville took a 17-6 lead early in the fourth quarter on Mark Brunell touchdown passes to Jimmy Smith and Stacey Mack on successive drives before the Ravens scored their only two touchdowns of the game. The Jacksonville offense somewhat broke out of its slump, with 365 total yards, the most so far in the season. Brunell accounted for 361 yards of total offense. He had 306 yards passing (the 20th 300-yard game of his career and first of the year) and a team-high 55 yards rushing (his third most ever and most since 1996). Keenan McCardell and Smith both had 100-yard receiving games. The game was tied 3-3 at halftime, and Baltimore added a field goal to take a 6-3 lead at the start of the second half. The Jaguars notched their first touchdown late in the third quarter when Brunell hooked up with Smith for a 35-yard score and a 10-6 lead. On Baltimore's second play following the Jacksonville touchdown, Hardy Nickerson intercepted Ravens quarterback Randall Cunningham, and two plays later Brunell connected with Mack for a 17-6 lead. But the Super Bowl champs struck back for two quick scores, the first on a two-yard run by Jason Brookins (a former Jacksonville practice squad player) to cap a 71-yard drive, and then a two-yard pass from Cunningham to Cedry Ismail to complete a 56-yard drive. The Jaguars had two more possessions but failed to get past Baltimore's 44-yard line.

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-5) | 0 | 17 | 7 | 3 | — | 24 |
| TENNESSEE TITANS (3-4) | 7 | 0 | 7 | 14 | — | 28 |

The Jaguars lost their fifth straight game of the season 28-24 to the Tennessee Titans in Nashville when the Titans scored the winning touchdown with 44 seconds left to play. Jacksonville led 17-7 at halftime and scored its most points to date. But the Jaguars were outscored 21-7 in the second half and allowed their most points in a game to that point of the season. Steve McNair scored two TDs rushing and passed for two more to account for all of Tennessee's scores, and Eddie George, who was questionable going into the game, rushed for 74 yards and gained 45 more yards on six receptions. The Jaguars' five-game losing streak tied for the second-longest losing streak in franchise history. Following a Tennessee touchdown in the first period, the Jaguars struck back with 17 unanswered points in the second quarter. Stacey Mack scored on a one-yard run, Kyle Brady caught a three-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell and Mike Hollis added a 38-yard field goal on the last play of the first half. Tennessee opened the second half with a touchdown, then took a 21-17 lead in the fourth quarter. The Jaguars responded with an 84-yard drive capped by Frank Moreau's four-yard TD run and a 24-21 lead with 3:05 remaining. But the Titans drove 59 yards in 10 plays, with McNair scoring a one-yarder. Brunell was sacked twice in the final 44 seconds. Jacksonville had only 22 plays in the second half and just 22:12 time of possession for the game. The Titans, who were held to 118 yards in the first half, responded with 244 yards in the second half.

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-5) | 7 | 0 | 21 | 2 | — | 30 |

The Jaguars snapped a five-game losing streak by defeating the Cincinnati Bengals 30-13 at ALLTEL Stadium. Mark Brunell threw two touchdown passes and Stacey Mack rushed for two scores, as the Jaguars scored their most points of the season to date and won for the first time since September 23. Trailing 13-7 at halftime and having gained only 70 yards on offense in the first half, the Jaguars scored on their first three possessions of the second half. Switching to a balanced attack following a first half in which they ran the ball just seven times, the Jaguars scored 21 unanswered points and gained 204 yards in the third quarter. 59 of them on the ground while Brunell completed all 10 of his passes in the quarter. The Bengals, meanwhile, gained only eight yards in the period. Following the second half kickoff, Brunell connected with Jimmy Smith on a five-yard scoring pass. The Jaguars held the Bengals, and then marched downfield again, this time Mack scoring from two yards out. The Jaguars forced Cincinnati three-and-out and scored five plays later, with Brunell hitting Keenan McCardell with a 20-yard scoring pass. Mack got his first touchdown of the day in the first quarter on a one-yard run, giving the Jaguars their first touchdown in the first quarter all season. The Bengals then struck back for 13 points in the second period, a time in which the Jaguars had only 14 plays. In the game, Mack rushed 15 times for 71 yards — 70 of them in the second half. Meanwhile, the Jaguars held Cincinnati's Corey Dillon to 58 yards on 17 carries.

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-6) | 0 | 0 | 7 | 0 | — | 7 |
| PITTSBURGH STEELERS (7-2) | 3 | 3 | 7 | 7 | — | 20 |

The Jaguars lost to the Pittsburgh Steelers 20-7 at new Heinz Field in Pittsburgh. Jonathan Quinn started at quarterback in place of Mark Brunell, who was sidelined with a strained quadriceps. But Quinn fumbled three times when sacked in the second half, and the Jacksonville offense failed to score a touchdown in a game for the first time since November 14, 1999. The Jaguars' only score came on a 95-yard kickoff return by Elvis Joseph. Quinn completed 17 of 31 passes for 225 yards and ran for 39 yards. But two of his fumbles were costly, coming at the Steelers' 20- and 18-yard lines, thwarting possible scoring drives. Jacksonville running backs gained only 12 yards on the ground, and the team's 48 rushing yards was the fifth-lowest total in franchise history. The Jacksonville defense played well, holding Pittsburgh's Jerome Bettis to only 52 yards rushing on 21 carries, 40 of those yards on one run on the Steelers' final scoring drive of the game following Quinn's second fumble. But Kordell Stewart accounted for 316 total yards (50 rushing and 266 passing), scored a touchdown and was not intercepted. On the first drive of the game, Quinn drove the Jaguars into field goal range, but Mike Hollis was wide left on a 47-yard attempt. After that drive, however, the Jaguars' final 11 possessions ended with seven punts, three fumbles and an incomplete pass on the final play of the first half. The Steelers converted field goals in both the first and second quarters and held a 6-0 lead at halftime and then scored touchdowns in both the third and fourth quarters.

| BALTIMORE RAVENS (4-7) | 3 | 7 | 7 | 7 | — | 24 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-7) | 0 | 0 | 7 | 14 | — | 21 |

The Jaguars lost for the seventh time in their last eight games, when Shannon Sharpe caught a three-yard touchdown pass from Elvis Grbac with nine seconds left in the contest to give the Baltimore Ravens a 24-21 victory at ALLTEL Stadium. The Ravens jumped out to a 17-0 lead, before the Jaguars struck back with three touchdowns in the final 17 minutes. However, the Ravens drove 74 yards in nine plays and 1:23 for the winning score. Stacey Mack scored two touchdowns on short runs and Jimmy Smith scored on a 12-yard pass from Mark Brunell, who returned to the lineup after missing one game. The Jaguars started slowly, gaining only 71 yards in the first half before getting untracked late in the third quarter. The Ravens won their fourth straight game over the Jaguars, following eight consecutive losses to start the series. The Jaguars lost a game in the final five minutes for the fifth time for the season.

GAME NOTES

- Kevin Hardy had his team-record of 58 consecutive starts snapped after suffering a knee injury in a Thanksgiving Day practice three days before the game.
- The Jaguars lost their third game on the season when they had had a fourth-quarter lead (they also lost one game when they were tied in the fourth quarter).
- Keenan McCardell had a reception in his 43rd consecutive game, which was the second-longest streak in team history behind Jimmy Smith's 60 straight games.

GAME 11

PACKERS 28, JAGUARS 21

DECEMBER 3, 2001

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|----|----|---|---|----|
| GREEN BAY PACKERS (8-3) | 0 | 7 | 14 | 7 | — | 28 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-8) | 3 | 10 | 8 | 0 | — | 21 |

The Jaguars were defeated by the Green Bay Packers 28-21 when Brett Favre scored on a six-yard run with 1:30 remaining, as the Packers scored the final 21 points of the game. The loss dropped the Jaguars to 3-8 for the season and marked the sixth time this season the Jaguars allowed the winning score in the final 5:13 of a game. The Jaguars led 13-0 before Favre threw the first of his three touchdown passes just before halftime to cut the margin to 13-7. In the third quarter, the Jaguars blocked a field goal and followed that with a 60-yard fumble return for a touchdown by Ainsley Battles (and two-point conversion) for a 21-7 lead. But Green Bay struck right back with two touchdowns in less than two minutes to tie the score, as Favre threw for 179 yards in the third period. Mark Brunell drove the Jaguars downfield in the fourth quarter but was intercepted in the end zone, and the Jaguars never got another drive going. Favre took over with 2:00 to play and scored in four plays. Jacksonville's final drive ended in a fumble, one of four Jaguars turnovers for the game. Brunell passed for 311 yards, his highest total of the season, and Jimmy Smith caught eight passes for 116 yards. Even though the Jaguars held Green Bay's Ahman Green to 31 yards on 17 carries, the Jaguars managed just 62 yards rushing. They also were penalized 13 times for 111 yards, their most penalties in a game since 1996.

The Jaguars defeated the Bengals 14-10 at Paul Brown Stadium, coming from behind in the fourth quarter to snap a three-game losing streak and win their first road game in 13 months. QB Mark Brunell threw touchdown passes to both Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell, and the Jacksonville defense held the Bengals to only 200 yards, the lowest allowed by the Jaguars in one year. The Jaguars jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 17-yard TD pass from Brunell to Smith, who caught nine passes for 119 yards and surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the sixth straight season. But the Jaguars were kept from scoring again until the final quarter, as Cincinnati took a 10-7 lead. Brunell hooked up with McCardell on an 11-yard scoring pass on the third play of the quarter, and then the Jacksonville defense took over, stopping the Bengals on three straight possessions. Cincinnati drove into Jacksonville territory on its final drive but was stopped on fourth down at the 36-yard line. The Jaguars took over with 3:23 remaining and ran out the clock to win the game.

GAME NOTES

■ The Jaguars ended a six-game road losing streak which started at Cincinnati in the 2000 season.

■ Jimmy Smith surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the sixth consecutive season, becoming only the fifth player in NFL history to accomplish that feat.

■ The Bengals sacked Mark Brunell eight times, breaking the previous record of seven sacks allowed in a game by the Jaguars set twice in 1995 and once in 2000.

GAME 13

JAGUARS 15, BROWNS 10

DECEMBER 16, 2001
CLEVELAND BROWNS STADIUM, CLEVELAND, OHIO

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-8) | 9 | 0 | 0 | 6 | — | 15 |
| CLEVELAND BROWNS (6-7) | 0 | 0 | 7 | 3 | — | 10 |

Playing in their final AFC Central game, the Jaguars defeated the Cleveland Browns 15-10, winning their second straight road game and improving to 5-8 for the season. The game was completed more than 30 minutes after both teams had gone to the lockerrooms, following the throwing of bottles onto the field by Cleveland fans who objected to an instant replay reversal that stopped a Browns drive on the Jaguars' 12-yard line with 48 seconds remaining. The ruling reversed a completed pass that would have given the Browns a first down on the nine-yard line. Stacey Mack led the Jacksonville attack with a career-high 115 yards rushing, as the Jaguars got their strongest ground game of the season, with 128 yards. However, the Jaguars allowed a team-record-tying eight sacks for the second straight game, as Mark Brunell was under constant pressure. Brunell connected with Jimmy Smith on a four-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter, as the Jaguars scored a TD on their first possession for the first time in more than two years. Mike Hollis missed the extra point but later connected on three field goals for the rest of Jacksonville's points. Although Jacksonville played without starting cornerbacks Aaron Beasley and Fernando Bryant and had backups at three other positions, the Browns gained only 220 yards (the second fewest allowed all year) and held the ball for just 22:47 (lowest for a Jaguars opponent). Cleveland scored its only touchdown on a 97-yard interception return of a Brunell pass by Anthony Henry, who intercepted Brunell twice. The Jaguars' offense accounted for 330 yards but lost 48 yards on sacks, and the team was penalized for 85 yards.

GAME NOTES

■ Stacey Mack rushed 28 times for 115 yards — both career highs — and became the fourth Jaguars player to register 100 rushing yards in a game (joining James Stewart, Natrone Means and Fred Taylor).

■ The Jaguars scored a touchdown on their opening drive for the first time since Nov. 11, 1999 (they also did so in in the 1999 AFC Championship game).

■ The Jaguars completed their final season in the AFC Central Division at 5-5 and improved their overall record to 39-23, including 17-14 on the road.

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-8) | 10 | 6 | 7 | 10 | — | 33 |
| MINNESOTA VIKINGS (5-9) | 0 | 3 | 0 | 0 | — | 3 |

The Jaguars defeated the Minnesota Vikings 33-3 at the Metrodome, winning their third consecutive road game and improving to 6-8 for the season. Stacey Mack had his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game and scored two touchdowns, as the Jaguars gained a season-high 214 yards on the ground. Mark Brunell threw a touchdown pass in leading an offense that allowed only one sack and did not turn the ball over, and Mike Hollis kicked a season-high four field goals. The Jaguars scored on their first four possessions and seven of eight possessions before a kneel-down to end the game. Jacksonville scored in all four quarters in their most decisive victory in more than a year, and the 33 points was their most all season. The defense gave up only one field goal on the final play of the first half and held the Minnesota offense to only 214 yards — just 28 of them on the ground, the fewest ever allowed by a Jaguars team. The Jaguars forced Vikings starting QB Todd Bouman out of the game with a sprained thumb on Minnesota's first series, and the Vikings had only two drives of more than 25 yards behind third-string QB Spergon Wynn. The victory marked the first time the Jaguars won three road games in three weeks and gave them their first three-game winning streak since December 2000.

GAME NOTES

■ Mark Brunell threw a 10-yard TD pass to Keenan McCardell, his 10th consecutive game with at least one TD pass, breaking the team record of nine that he set in 2000

■ Tony Brackens recorded a sack in his seventh consecutive game, extending his team record. He improved to 9.5 sacks in 10 games since returning from injury.

■ Jimmy Smith led the team with eight catches for 122 yards. His season total increased to 100 receptions and he became only the sixth player in NFL history to catch 100 or more passes in two different seasons (others: Sterling Sharpe, Jerry Rice, Cris Carter, Herman Moore and Marvin Harrison). It marked Smith's sixth 100-yard game of the season and 35th of his career.

GAME 15

CHIEFS 30, JAGUARS 26

DECEMBER 30, 2002

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|----|----|---|---|----|
| KANSAS CITY CHIEFS (6-9) | 7 | 10 | 10 | 3 | — | 30 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-9) | 7 | 10 | 0 | 9 | — | 26 |

The Jaguars were defeated 30-26 by the Kansas City Chiefs at ALLTEL Stadium, as two drives inside the red zone in the final two minutes of the game failed to produce the winning touchdown. The loss dropped the Jaguars to 6-9 for the year, guaranteeing them their second straight losing season, a first in franchise history. The loss also gave the Jaguars a 3-5 record at home, their first losing season at home since 1995, their inaugural season. Stacey Mack had his third straight 100-yard game, rushing for a career-high 125 yards, and Keenan McCardell caught seven passes for 132 yards, as the Jaguars had a season-high 431 yards on offense. However, the defense — playing without five starters — gave up its most points in a year and a half, even though the Jaguars forced four turnovers. On their final two drives, the Jaguars drove 56 yards to the 8-yard line and 46 yards to the 13-yard line. But a fourth-down pass on the first series was two yards short of a first down, and a third-down pass on the second series was incomplete in the end zone as time ran out. The Jaguars failed to capitalize on four takeaways and had three turnovers themselves, leading to 10 points for Kansas City.

GAME NOTES

■ Stacey Mack had his third consecutive 100-yard rushing game. His 125 rushing yards were a career high. He also had his career-long run of 54 yards. With his 125 yards, Mack went to 811 yards for the season, moving into fifth place on the Jaguars' single-season rushing list.

■ Keenan McCardell hit the 1,000-yard mark for the season, and he and Jimmy Smith became the second tandem in NFL history to do so four times, tying the NFL record held by Minnesota's Cris Carter and Jake Reed.

BEARS 33, JAGUARS 13

JANUARY 6, 2002

SOLDIER FIELD, CHICAGO, ILL.

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|----|----|----|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-10) | 0 | 0 | 6 | 7 | — | 13 |
| CHICAGO BEARS (12-4) | 3 | 10 | 10 | 10 | — | 33 |

The Jaguars lost their season finale to the Chicago Bears 33-13 at Soldier Field, finishing the season 6-10. It marked the first back-to-back losing seasons in franchise history and the team's worst record since its inaugural season of 1995. The loss was the Jaguars' worst in 28 games, as they dropped their final two games of the season. The Bears' Anthony Thomas rushed for 160 yards and a touchdown in leading Chicago, which allowed the fewest points in the NFL and held the Jaguars to two second-half touchdowns. Mark Brunell was intercepted three times and the Jaguars lost a fumble, as the Bears scored 13 points off turnovers, 10 of them in the first half as they took a 13-0 halftime lead. The Jaguars had their opportunities, though. On their second possession, they drove to Chicago's 8-yard line but Brunell was sacked on third down and then Mike Hollis' field goal attempt was blocked. Then, on the first drive of the second half, the Jaguars recovered a Chicago fumble in Bears' territory, but three plays later Brunell was intercepted by Keith Traylor, a 350-pound lineman, who rumbled 67 yards with the ball. The Bears scored in two plays and were up 20-0. Brunell later hooked up with Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell for touchdowns.

HISTORY

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1989

Aug. 17 — Touchdown Jacksonville, a partnership to lead the community effort to win an NFL franchise is formed. The group, led by Tom Pebey, includes Jeb Bush, Hamilton Jordan, and Arthur "Chick" Sherret.

1990

April 4 — National Football League commissioner Paul Tagliabue announces that the League will expand by two teams no later than the 1993 season.

July 26 — The NFL Realignment and Expansion Committee recommends that the League expand by two teams for the 1993 season.

Feb. 12 — In a unanimous vote, the Jacksonville City Council votes to commit $60 million to renovate the Gator Bowl contingent upon the City being awarded an expansion football team.

May 15 — The NFL Realignment and Expansion Committee recommends that the League expand by two teams for the 1994 season, contrary to the July 26, 1990 vote.

May 22 — At the owners' meeting in Minneapolis, a plan is approved that will add two expansion teams to the League for the 1994 season.

May 30 — Florida Governor Lawton Chiles signs into law the Professional Sports Facilities Program, a state statute that provides state funding of up to $2 million for 30 years for funding new sports facilities that operate in the state of Florida.

June 25 — The lease that includes the recently approved $60 million package to renovate the Gator Bowl is approved by City Council.

July 17 — The NFL announces that it will accept applications for expansion teams.

Sept. 16 — The City of Jacksonville files an expansion application with the League, one of 11 cities to apply.

Oct. 1 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. submits its ownership application to the League. The nine-member partnership includes local businessman and Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. general partner Tom Pebey. J. Wayne Weaver is one of the eight limited partners, along with Jeb Bush, Lawrence DuBow, Earl Hadlow, Preston Haskell, Sandy McArthur, Charles Towers and Ron Weaver.

Oct. 24 — David Seidin is named president and chief operating officer of Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd.

Dec. 6 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. announces that the team name will be the Jacksonville Jaguars if an expansion team is awarded.

Dec. 10 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. and City officials make the group's first presentation to commissioner Tagliabue and other NFL officials in New York.

March 17 — At the League's annual winter meeting in Phoenix, the list of expansion candidate cities is cut from 11 to seven. Jacksonville is one of the seven; Nashville, San Antonio, Raleigh-Durham, and Honolulu are eliminated.

May 19 — The five finalists in the expansion race are named: Jacksonville, Charlotte, Baltimore, Memphis, St. Louis. Sacramento and Oakland are eliminated.

Oct. 20 — Citing complications surrounding the ongoing labor situation, the NFL votes to delay the expansion announcement to its 1993 fall meeting in Chicago and for expansion teams to begin play in 1995.

Jan. 6 — A seven-year Collective Bargaining Agreement is reached between the League and its players. With the labor situation resolved, a new expansion timetable is expected in March.

March 18 — J. Wayne Weaver is introduced as managing general partner of Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd.

March 23 — The expansion race is officially resumed by the NFL.

April 12 — After a tour with Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. representatives, NFL officials indicate that additional renovations beyond those already planned would be necessary to renovate the Gator Bowl to NFL standards.

June 25 — Negotiations for a new lease between Jacksonville Mayor Ed Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. break down.

July 1 — Mayor Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. resume negotiations and agree on a plan that caps stadium renovation costs at $112 million and protects the city from cost overruns. Mayor Austin sends the lease to City Council for approval.

July 21 — The Jacksonville City Council fails to approve the newly negotiated $112 million stadium proposal. As a result, Weaver announces that Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. is ending its bid for an NFL expansion franchise.

July 22 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. closes offices and club seat and executive suite deposits are returned.

Aug. 20 — The Florida Times-Union reports that negotiations between Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. and the City have resumed, encouraged by the NFL and at the request of Times-Union publisher Carl Cannon and Chamber of Commerce chairman Adam Herbert.

Aug. 21 — Mayor Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville reach an agreement on a new stadium lease capping stadium renovation costs at $121 million, $53 million to come from City funds and $68 million from team and team related sources. As project manager, Touchdown Jacksonville assumes responsibility for any cost overruns.

Aug. 22 — Facing the challenge of selling 9,000 club seats, a committee of civic and business leaders is formed called NFL Now!, headed by Carl Cannon and Adam Herbert.

Aug. 23 — The City Council votes 14-4 to approve the new lease.

Aug. 24 — With the new public/private partnership, Weaver and Mayor Austin meet with commissioner Tagliabue, who welcomes Jacksonville back into the expansion race.

Aug. 25 — NFL Now! begins a 10-day drive to sell the required club seats.

Aug. 26 — Former Kansas City Chiefs defensive back Deron Cherry joins Touchdown Jacksonville as the ninth member of the ownership group.

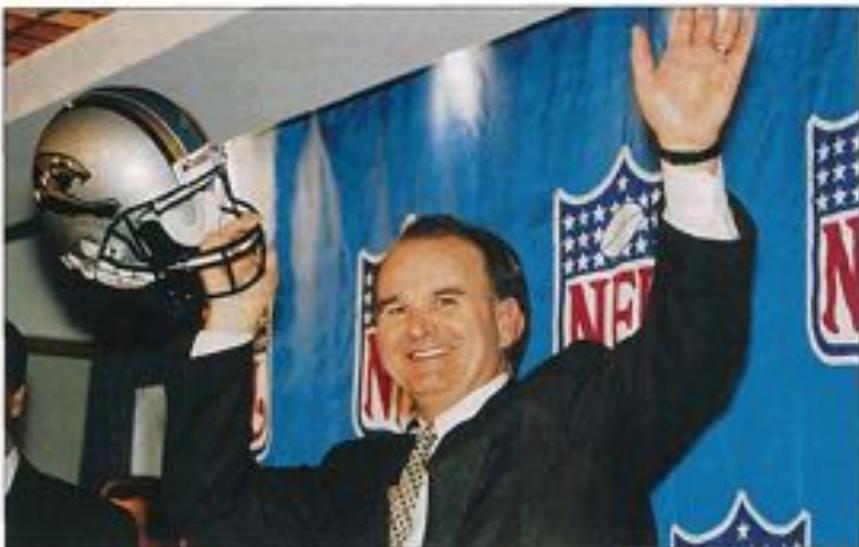

Sept. 3 — Carl Cannon of NFL Now! announces that 9,737 club seats have been sold, a number that rises to 10,112 once all the applications are processed.

Sept. 21 — Weaver and other Touchdown Jacksonville officials make their presentation to the NFL finance and expansion committees.

Oct. 26 — In Chicago, League owners select the Carolina Panthers for an expansion team but delay the announcement of the second expansion city.

Nov. 30 (4:12 p.m. ET) — In Chicago, Jacksonville is awarded the 30th franchise in the National Football League.

Dec. 1 — A victory celebration in the Gator Bowl, as 25,000 Jaguars fans battle cold and rain to welcome Wayne Weaver, Jaguars officials, city officials and community leaders upon their return from Chicago.

Wayne Weaver was all smiles on November 30, 1993 when Jacksonville was awarded the 30th franchise in the National Football League.

Jan. 3 — Demolition of the Gator Bowl begins.

Jan. 6 — The Jaguars announce a season ticket sellout for their first three seasons. Over 56,000 season tickets are sold through Dec. 31, just one month after the awarding of the team.

Feb. 21 — Tom Coughlin is hired as head coach of the Jaguars. The former Boston College head coach and assistant with the New York Giants brings six of his assistants with him.

Aug. 24 — The Jaguars announce that they will hold their first training camp in 1995 at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

Sept. 14 — The Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation, Inc. is established, under the direction of Delores Barr Weaver and Dr. Gregory S. Gross.

Sept. 28 — The NFL announces specific plans to stock the expansion teams.

Nov. 1 — The Jaguars hold their first official workout at Bishop Kenny High School. Thirteen offensive linemen work out in front of 1,500 fans.

Nov. 2 — The NFL announces its plans for division alignment, putting the Jaguars in the AFC Central Division along with the Cincinnati Bengals, Cleveland Browns, Houston Oilers and Pittsburgh Steelers. The Carolina Panthers will join the NFC West Division.

Dec. 15 — The Jaguars sign the first 10 players in team history: WR Shannon Baker, LB Hillary Butler, DE Ferric Collins, OL Greg Huntington, RB Randy Jordan, DE Ernie Logan, OT Rickie Shaw, DE Jason Simmons, DE Ricky Sutton, DE Chris Williams.

Jan. 12 — Dick Jauron is hired as defensive coordinator. Jauron had spent nine years with the Green Bay Packers as an assistant coach in charge of defensive backs.

Jan. 14 — Kevin Gilbride is introduced as the Jaguars' offensive coordinator. He had previously been the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator of the Houston Oilers.

Jan. 20 — The Jaguars unveil their new logo and team uniform.

Jan. 21 — Larry Pasquale is hired as the team's special teams coordinator.

Feb. 14 — The Jaguars draft 31 players in the expansion draft. The first player selected is Arizona quarterback Steve Beuerlein. During the draft, the Jaguars acquire such veteran players as Desmond Howard, Keith Gogginous, Damen Carrington, Reggie Cobb, Eugene Chung and Derek Brown.

Feb. 28 — The Jaguars sign their first unrestricted free agents: guard Shawn Bouvens and defensive linemen Joel Smeenge and Don Davey. Within 15 days, six more unrestricted free-agents are signed: cornerback Vinnie Clark, punter Bryan Barker, cornerback Mickey Washington, defensive tackle Kelvin Pritchett, defensive end Jeff Lageman and center Dave Widell.

March 23 — The Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation awards its first grants to eight local organizations totaling $130,850.

April 21 — The first trade in Jaguars history: Jacksonville acquires quarterback Mark Brunell from the Green Bay Packers in exchange for draft picks in the third and fifth rounds of the 1995 draft.

April 22 — Southern California offensive tackle Tony Boselli becomes the Jaguars' first-ever selection in the college draft, the second overall pick. Later in the first round, running back James Stewart is chosen 19th overall after the Jaguars trade up in the round. The Jaguars select a total of 10 players during the two-day draft.

April 28-30 — The first minicamp is held on the practice fields adjacent to the new stadium.

June 1 — The Jaguars sign their entire first class of draft choices at the same time, an event unprecedented in NFL history.

June 2-8 — The second minicamp is held, with one practice session being conducted in front of 2,500 fans at Bishop Kenny High School.

June 10 — "The Roar of the Jaguars," the team's cheerleaders squad, is introduced at The Landing in downtown Jacksonville. The squad includes 36 cheerleaders.

July 8 — The Jaguars' first-ever training camp opens at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

July 29 — The Jaguars play their first preseason contest in the Pro Football Hall of Fame game in Canton, Ohio, but lose to the Carolina Panthers 20-14 when a last-minute drive ends at the Panthers' two-yard line.

Aug. 18 — Jacksonville Municipal Stadium opens, as the Jaguars host their first home preseason game. However, they lose to the St. Louis Rams 27-10.

Sept. 3 — The Jaguars play their inaugural game in front of 72,363 fans but lose to the Houston Oilers 10-3.

Oct. 1 — The Jaguars get their first win 17-16 at Houston in the fifth week of the regular season — the third-fastest first victory in NFL expansion history and the fastest to earn a win on the road.

Oct. 8 — The Jaguars defeat AFC Central rival Pittsburgh Steelers 20-16 for their first home victory, the only time in NFL history an expansion team has ever defeated a team that would go on to play in the Super Bowl the same season.

A missed field goal by Atlanta's Morten Andersen on December 22, 1996 propelled the Jaguars into the playoffs for the first time ever.

Oct. 22 — The Jaguars record their third win of the season at Cleveland with a 23-15 victory.

Dec. 3 — Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith scores a team-record three touchdowns three different ways at Denver — on a blocked punt, off a lateral on a kickoff return and on a pass reception — an extreme rarity in NFL history.

Dec. 24 — The Jaguars break the previous record for victories by an expansion team with a last-second 24-21 win over Cleveland in the Browns' final game before a three-year absence.

Feb. 18 — Pittsburgh Steelers offensive tackle Leon Searcy becomes the first unrestricted free agent to sign with the Jaguars in 1996.

March 1 — Free agent Eddie Robinson signs from Houston, bolstering a young linebacker corps.

March 2 — Keenan McCardell, Cleveland's leading wide receiver in 1995, signs a free agent contract with the Jaguars.

April 20 — Illinois outside linebacker Kevin Hardy is selected with the Jaguars' first pick in the 1996 college draft, the second overall player chosen. By the early third round, the Jaguars also draft defensive end Tony Brackins, center Michael Cheever and defensive back Aaron Beasley.

July 19 — The Jaguars open their second training camp, their first at Ferrell Fields at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium. The practice fields were named in memory of Roger Ernest Ferrell Sr. in a morning dedication.

Sept. 1 — The Jaguars open their second season with a 24-9 victory over the defending AFC champion Pittsburgh Steelers. It marks the first game the Jacksonville defense does not allow a touchdown.

Sept. 22 — Mark Brunell throws for a team-record 432 yards and three touchdowns, but the Jaguars lose their first-ever overtime game 28-25 at New England.

Sept. 29 — In the first regular-season game between the two 1995 expansion teams, Jacksonville beats Carolina 24-14 as James Stewart runs for two TDs and the Jaguars rush for a team-record 179 yards.

Oct. 20 — Keenan McCardell catches 16 passes — tied for the third-highest total in pro football history — for a team-record 232 yards. However, despite breaking or tying 28 team records for single-game performances, the Jaguars lose at St. Louis 17-14.

Nov. 24 — The Jaguars win at Baltimore 30-27 for their first overtime victory on a 34-yard field goal by Mike Hollis.

Dec. 12 — Keenan McCardell becomes the first Jaguar voted to the Pro Bowl. Mark Brunell and Tony Boselli are later added as replacements, and Brunell goes on to win MVP honors in the Feb. 2 game in Honolulu.

Dec. 22 — The Jaguars clinch their first playoff berth in franchise history with a 19-17 victory over the Atlanta Falcons, as Morten Andersen's 30-yard field goal attempt goes wide left.

Dec. 28 — The first second-year expansion franchise in NFL history to play a postseason game, the Jaguars become the first team to defeat the Buffalo Bills in a playoff game in Rich Stadium. Natrone Means leads the way in the 30-27 victory by running for 175 yards.

1997

Jan. 4 — The Jaguars post the biggest upset in the NFL since Joe Namath led the Jets to victory in Super Bowl III, as they stun the football world and the Denver Broncos with a 30-27 victory. After flying back to Jacksonville, the team finds 40,000 fans waiting for them at 1:30 a.m. in Jacksonville Municipal Stadium.

Jan. 12 — The Jaguars' Cinderella season ends short of the Super Bowl, as Jacksonville is defeated by the New England Patriots 20-6 in the AFC Championship game. Jaguars turnovers led to 17 of the Patriots' 20 points in a game played in a wind chill of 0 degrees.

Jan. 23 — David Seldin resigns as Jaguars president but remains as a partner.

Feb. 5 — Chris Palmer is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kevin Gilbride who had become head coach of the San Diego Chargers.

March 5 — The Jaguars sign their only 1997 unrestricted free agent, Pittsburgh cornerback Deon Figures.

April 18 — ALLTEL Stadium becomes the new name for Jacksonville Municipal Stadium in a sponsorship agreement with the information technology and communications provider.

April 19 — Jacksonville selects defensive tackle Renaldo Wynn of Notre Dame with the 21st pick of the first round of the NFL draft. In all, the Jaguars draft seven players.

Aug. 9 — Quarterback Mark Brunell suffers a knee injury in a preseason game against the New York Giants and misses the next four games, including the first two of the regular season.

Aug. 31 — In his first NFL start, Rob Johnson leads the Jaguars to a 28-27 victory at Baltimore in the season opener. Johnson displayed incredible courage in returning twice from a severe ankle sprain, setting a team record with 20 completions in 24 attempts (83.3 percent), 2 TD passes and a 25-yard TD rushing.

Sept. 7 — The Jaguars win their home opener 40-13 over the New York Giants as Steve Matthews makes his first NFL start for an injured Rob Johnson. The Jaguars started 2-0 for the first time in team history and set a franchise record with 40 points. It marked the first time in 30 years that a team won twice with two different quarterbacks making their first start in consecutive games.

Sept. 22 — Mark Brunell returns and leads the Jaguars to a 30-21 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in their first appearance on "Monday Night Football." Brunell threw for 306 yards, but the victory wasn't clinched until the final play, when Clyde Simmons blocked a 40-yard game-winning field goal attempt and Chris Hudson returned the ball 58 yards for a touchdown as time expired.

Oct. 12 — James Stewart rushes for five touchdowns in the Jaguars' 38-21 victory over the visiting Philadelphia Eagles. It marks only the fourth time in NFL history that a player scored five TDs rushing in a game and the first time since 1963, and Stewart became one of only 12 NFL players with five or more touchdowns in one game.

Dec. 11 — Five Jaguars are named to the AFC squad for the Pro Bowl: Tony Boselli, Bryan Barker and Mike Hollis as starters, and Mark Brunell and Jimmy Smith as backups.

Dec. 14 — The Jaguars clinch a playoff berth for the second straight year after defeating the Bills 20-14 in Buffalo one week before the end of the regular season. Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith both went over the 1,000-yard mark, becoming the eighth tandem in NFL history to have back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Dec. 21 — The Jaguars win their team-record 11th game of the season by defeating the Oakland Raiders. The victory gave the team a 4-4 mark on the road for the first time ever, and matched division-winner Pittsburgh's 11-5 record. It takes five tie-breaker steps to determine that the Steelers were the division champion.

Dec. 27 — The Jaguars' third season comes to an end in Denver, with the eventual Super Bowl-champion Broncos winning the Wild-Card playoff 42-17.

Feb. 13 — Quarterback Rob Johnson is traded to the Buffalo Bills for the ninth pick in the first round and a fourth-round choice in the 1998 NFL draft.

Feb. 16 — The Jaguars sign Buffalo Bills linebacker Bryce Paup, an unrestricted free agent.

April 18-19 — The Jaguars draft 11 players, their most ever, in the NFL draft. Two players are selected in the first round: running back Fred Taylor from the University of Florida with the ninth pick, and safety Donovan Darius, from Syracuse, with the 25th choice.

May 12 — Rick Reiprich, who had been responsible for the Jaguars' first four successful drafts, is promoted to director of player personnel. Fran Foley is named director of pro scouting, and Rick Mueller is named director of college scouting.

Sept. 20 — Running back James Stewart is injured on the Jaguars' second play of the game and lost for the season. But first-round draft choice Fred Taylor takes over and runs 52 yards for a touchdown on his first carry. The Jaguars defeat the Baltimore Ravens 24-10 for their third win of the season.

Oct. 12 — The Jaguars post a franchise-best 5-0 start, beating the visiting Miami Dolphins 28-21 on "Monday Night Football" when Mark Brunell and Keenan McCardell hook up for two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter. Fred Taylor ran for a 77-yard TD on the game's first play from scrimmage.

Nov. 1 — The Jaguars explode for a team-record number of points in a 45-19 victory at Baltimore. Jacksonville scored six TDs in the first half — the seventh most ever in a half in NFL history — as they jumped out to a 42-7 lead. Fred Taylor's 78-yard TD reception becomes the longest play from scrimmage in team history.

Dec. 13 — Mike Hollis becomes the most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history by making two attempts, giving him an 81.45 percentage in four seasons (101 of 124), dethroning Philadelphia's Chris Boniol.

Dec. 20 — The Jaguars clinch their first-ever AFC Central Division championship prior to kickoff of a Sunday night game at Minnesota, dethroning the Pittsburgh Steelers after a four-year run.

Dec. 28 — With a 21-3 victory over the Steelers on "Monday Night Football," the Jaguars win their 11th game for the second straight year and becomes the NFL's first expansion team to qualify for the playoffs three times in its first four seasons. Fred Taylor finishes the year with 17 touchdowns, tied for the third-most ever by a rookie in NFL history.

Jan. 3 — In their first-ever home playoff game, the Jaguars defeat the New England Patriots 25-10. Mark Brunell returns after missing three games with an ankle injury to throw a TD pass and Mike Hollis kicks four field goals, as Jacksonville claims its first postseason win in two years.

Jan. 10 — The Jaguars' fourth season ends with a 34-24 loss to the New York Jets in the divisional playoffs.

Jan. 13 — Head coach Tom Coughlin is rewarded with a contract extension through the 2003 season.

Jan. 26 — Dom Capers, the former head coach of the Carolina Panthers, is named defensive coordinator, replacing Dick Jauron, who became head coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 12 — On the first day of free agency, the Jaguars sign two unrestricted free agents: DT Gary Walker of the Tennessee Titans and S Cornell Lake of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Feb. 16 — The Jaguars sign TE Kyle Brady, a transition free agent from the New York Jets, to an offer sheet. The next day, the Jets decline to match the offer, making Brady a Jaguar.

April 24-25 — The Jaguars draft eight players in the NFL draft, including Fernando Bryant, a cornerback selected in the first round from Alabama.

Sept. 12 — The Jaguars open their fifth season with a 41-3 victory over the San Francisco 49ers at ALLTEL Stadium.

Nov. 7 — Jacksonville makes a team-record nine sacks and forces four turnovers in a 30-7 win at Atlanta.

Nov. 28 — The Jaguars score 23 points (three touchdowns, two two-point conversions) in the fourth quarter at Baltimore and leave with a 30-23 victory.

Dec. 11 — The Jaguars win their 11th consecutive game, setting a team record, as they defeat the Cleveland Browns 24-14.

Jan. 2 — The Jaguars conclude the regular season with a 14-2 mark — the best record in the NFL — and head into the playoffs as the No. 1 seed in the AFC. Jimmy Smith catches 14 passes to finish the year with 116 receptions, the most in the league and the sixth-highest total in NFL history. The defense allows only 217 points, the 12th-lowest allowed since the 16-game schedule began in 1978.

Jan. 15 — The Jaguars trounce the Miami Dolphins 62-7 in the Divisional Playoffs in what would be the last game for Dan Marino and Jimmy Johnson. Jacksonville's 62 points and 55-point margin are the second most ever in NFL postseason history, and Fred Taylor's 90-yard run is the longest ever in an NFL playoff game.

Jan. 23 — Tennessee claims its third win of the season over the Jaguars in the AFC Championship game. Jacksonville led 14-10 at halftime before losing 33-14.

Feb. 10 — Tony Brackens is designated as a franchise player before the start of free agency.

Feb. 22 — Jacksonville signs middle linebacker Hardy Nickerson, an unrestricted free agent from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

April 15-16 — The Jaguars select wide receiver R. Jay Soward from Southern California in the first round of the draft. Altogether, 11 players are drafted by Jacksonville.

Sept. 10 — Jimmy Smith catches 15 passes for 291 yards — the fifth-highest receiving total in NFL history in a game against the Baltimore Ravens, who would go on to win the Super Bowl and set an NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game season.

Sept. 17 — The Jaguars win their home opener 13-0 over Cincinnati, the first shutout in team history.

Oct. 29 — The Jaguars defeat the Dallas Cowboys 23-17 in overtime on a 37-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell to Alvis Whitted to snap a five-game losing streak.

Nov. 1 — At their annual fall meeting in Atlanta, NFL owners award Super Bowl XXXIX to the city of Jacksonville. The game will be played at ALLTEL Stadium on February 6, 2005.

Nov. 19 — Fred Taylor rushes for 234 yards, setting a Jaguars record and at the time what was the 12th-most rushing yards in a game in NFL history (and the most ever at Three Rivers Stadium), as the Jaguars beat the Steelers 34-24. Taylor scored four touchdowns in the game.

Nov. 26 — Jacksonville defeats Tennessee 16-13 on a last-second 38-yard field goal by Mike Hollis, ending a five-game losing streak to the Titans.

Dec. 3 — The Jaguars shut out the Browns 48-0 in the most dominating game in team history. Cleveland has only two first downs and 53 yards on offense. For the Jaguars, Fred Taylor runs for 181 yards and three TDs to pass the 1,000-yard rushing mark, Jimmy Smith surpasses 1,000 yards receiving for the fifth straight season and Mark Brunell reaches the 3,000-yard mark passing.

Dec. 17 — Fred Taylor rushes for more than 100 yards in his ninth consecutive game, tying Walter Payton for the third-longest streak in NFL history. However, the Jaguars lose on the road to the Bengals 17-14 after allowing 10 points in the final 1:15 of the game.

Dec. 23 — The Jaguars lose their season finale 20-25 to the Giants, finishing 7-9 and marking their first losing season since 1995.

Jan. 12 — Bob Petrino, who had been the team's quarterbacks coach the previous two seasons, is promoted to offensive coordinator.

Feb. 6 — Gary Moeller is named defensive coordinator, replacing Dom Capers, who became head coach of the Houston Texans.

Feb. 15 — John Pease, who had been the Jaguars' defensive line coach since 1995, is promoted to assistant head coach.

March 30 — The Jaguars sign quarterback Mark Brunell to a new four-year contract.

April 20-21 — The Jaguars select defensive tackle Marcus Stroud from Georgia in the first round of the draft. A total of 10 players are drafted by Jacksonville.

May 22 — NFL owners approve a realignment plan which will place the Jaguars into a new AFC South Division — along with the expansion Houston Texans, Indianapolis Colts and Tennessee Titans — beginning with the 2002 season.

Sept. 9 — The Jaguars win their sixth straight season opener, 21-3 over the Pittsburgh Steelers at ALLTEL Stadium. It is the second-longest active streak in the NFL.

Sept. 16 — The NFL postpones all games for the weekend due to the terrorist attacks in New York and Washington.

Dec. 9 — The Jaguars win at Cincinnati, only their second victory in 11 games. Jimmy Smith surpasses 1,000 yards receiving for the sixth straight season, only the fifth player in NFL history to do so.

Dec. 16 — The Jaguars play their final AFC Central Division game, defeating the Cleveland Browns 15-10 in a game marred by bottle throwing in the final minutes. The Jaguars' intradivision record in the AFC Central closes out at 39-23.

Dec. 23 — The Jaguars defeat the Minnesota Vikings in the Metrodome, completing a sweep of three road victories in three consecutive weeks, a first in the NFL since 1997. Jimmy Smith gets his 100th reception of the season, making him one of only six players in NFL history to do so twice.

Jan. 6 — The Jaguars complete their seventh season with a 6-10 record, losing six games in the final 5 minutes and 13 seconds.

Jan. 29 — John Pease is promoted to assistant head coach/defensive coordinator, and the defensive staff is realigned, with Lucious Selmon coaching the defensive line and Steve Szabo coaching the linebackers. All three coaches have been with the Jaguars since 1995.

Feb. 18 — OT Tony Boselli and DTs Gary Walker and Seth Payne are selected in the expansion draft by the Houston Texans.

April 20-21 — The Jaguars select nine players in the draft, including John Henderson, a defensive tackle from Tennessee in the first round.

June 13 — The Jaguars sign their sixth unrestricted free agent of the offseason, their most since 1995. Joining the club as UFAs are WR Patrick Johnson, WR Bobby Shaw, G Chris Naeole, G Raleigh Roundtree, FB Debron Smith and C Kevin Long. The team also signed veteran free agents DE Marco Coleman, TE Pete Mitchell and DLs Stalin Colinet and Tim Morabito and acquired MLB Wali Rainer in a draft day trade.

July 25 — The Jaguars open their eighth training camp with nearly 50 new players on the roster.

September 22, 1996 — at New England 28, Jacksonville 25

After spotting New England a 22-0 lead, the Jaguars rallied in the second half, scoring three touchdowns on 51-, 41- and 61-yard receptions from Mark Brunell and a Mike Hollis field goal, to tie the score at 25-25. The Patriots had the only possession in overtime and won on a 40-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri.

November 24, 1996 — Jacksonville 28, at Baltimore 25

The Ravens led at the end of the first half 16-10, and built a 25-10 lead going into the fourth quarter. After a touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Pete Mitchell, the defense recovered a fumble at the Raven's 19-yard line. Brunell found Willie Jackson six plays later and Brunell ran in for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 25-25 with 1:24 remaining. The Jaguars won the toss, but were forced to punt. The Ravens fumbled, and Jacksonville drove down the field, with Mike Hollis winning the game with a 34-yard field goal.

October 26, 1997 — at Pittsburgh 23, Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars took a 10-0 lead into the second half, but Pittsburgh came back to take a 14-10 lead in the fourth-quarter. After a Brunell TD pass to Pete Mitchell, the Jaguars took a 17-14 lead. The Steelers scored a 19-yard field goal at the end of the fourth quarter to tie the game 17-17. The Steelers won the toss and scored on a 17-yard shovel pass from Kordell Stewart to Jerome Bettis.

October 29, 2000 — Jacksonville 23, at Dallas 17

The Jaguars ended a five-game losing streak with a 23-17 overtime road victory over the Cowboys, with Alvis Whitted scoring on a 37-yard pass from Mark Brunell on the first series of overtime for his second touchdown of the game. Brunell threw for three TDs and tied a team record for passing accuracy, as he completed 20 of 24 passes. Kyle Brady caught 10 of those passes for 134 yards, both career highs, as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the second straight week.

September 24, 1995 — Green Bay 24, at Jacksonville 14 — Sunday night (TNT)

The Jaguars lost their fourth straight game at the beginning of their inaugural season. They fell behind 17-0 before getting on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter with two touchdown passes from Mark Brunell to Willie Jackson. It was Brunell's second start at quarterback and the first time he had played against his former team.

December 15, 1996 — at Jacksonville 20, Seattle 13 — Sunday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars battled back from a 13-7 deficit by scoring on three consecutive fourth-quarter possessions to win their eighth game of the season. Jimmy Smith scored his second touchdown of the game on a pass from Mark Brunell, and Mike Hollis kicked two field goals. Tony Brackens starred with 12 tackles, a sack, an interception, three tipped passes and his fourth takeaway of the season.

September 22, 1997 — at Jacksonville 30, Pittsburgh 21 — Monday night (ABC)

In the Jaguars' first appearance on "Monday Night Football," Mark Brunell returned from a pre-season knee injury to lead the Jaguars to the win. The Jaguars had a 17-7 lead at the half. After a Steelers touchdown and a Mike Hollis field goal, the Jaguars held on to a 20-14 lead. The Steelers scored in the fourth quarter to take a 21-20 lead, but the Jaguars regained the lead with a Hollis field goal with 4:14 left. With six-seconds remaining in the game, the Steelers 40-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Clyde Simmons and returned by Chris Hudson 58 yards for a touchdown to end the game.

October 12, 1998 — at Jacksonville 28, Miami 21 — Monday night (ABC)

The Jaguars took a 14-0 lead on two Fred Taylor touchdowns — including a 77-yard run on the game's first play from scrimmage. Miami scored the game's next three touchdowns before Mark Brunell and Keenan McCardell hooked up for two TD passes in the fourth quarter. With just under 2:00 remaining and Miami driving, Tony Brackens stripped Dan Marino of the ball and fell on it to give Jacksonville its fifth victory to start the season.

December 20, 1998 — at Minnesota 50, Jacksonville 10 — Sunday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars clinched their first AFC Central Division title earlier in the day when the Oilers lost, but they were unable to celebrate after getting trounced by the Vikings. Rookie Jonathan Quinn made his first NFL start in the Metrodome, and the Jaguars played a solid first half, trailing only 12-3 at the break. But Minnesota scored 38 straight points in the second half before a late Jaguars touchdown. The 50 points was the most ever allowed by Jacksonville in a game.

December 28, 1998 — at Jacksonville 21, Pittsburgh 3 — Monday night (ABC)

The Jaguars closed out the 1998 regular season with a convincing win over Pittsburgh in front of a record crowd of 74,143. Rookie quarterback Jonathan Quinn got his first NFL victory and scored the game's first touchdown on a 15-yard run. Fred Taylor added two TDs (his 16th and 17th of the season), as the Jaguars held the Steelers to three points, the lowest ever allowed by Jacksonville in a game.

October 11, 1999 — Jacksonville 16, at New York Jets 6 — Monday night (ABC)

In their first-ever road appearance on "Monday Night Football," the Jaguars defeated the Jets behind three field goals by Mike Hollis and a touchdown and 96 yards rushing by James Stewart. The Jacksonville defense kept the Jets out of the end zone and held them to 230 total yards.

November 21, 1999 — at Jacksonville 41, New Orleans 23 — Sunday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars rolled up 494 yards and 41 points and pulled away in the second half with 24 consecutive points after a 17-17 tie. James Stewart scored twice, Mark Brunell threw two TD passes, Jimmy Smith caught nine passes for 220 yards and Reggie Barlow returned a punt for a score.

December 2, 1999 — at Jacksonville 20, Pittsburgh 6 — Thursday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars swept the Steelers for the first time behind Mark Brunell's 306 yards passing, James Stewart's career-high 145 yards rushing and 100-yard receiving games by Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell. Pittsburgh managed just 225 total yards (63 on the ground).

December 13, 1999 — at Jacksonville 27, Denver 24 — Monday night (ABC)

Mike Hollis kicked a 23-yard field goal on the final play of the game as the Jaguars came from behind to beat the Broncos for their 10th consecutive win of the season. Denver jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, before James Stewart and Fred Taylor combined for 153 yards and three TDs to lead the comeback.

September 25, 2000 — at Indianapolis 43, Jacksonville 14 — Monday night (ABC)

The Jaguars were defeated by the Colts 43-14 at the RCA Dome, losing their first game ever on "Monday Night Football." The Jaguars allowed 440 yards passing by Peyton Manning and 533 total yards by Indianapolis — both single-game records by a Jaguars opponent — as they were outscored 22-0 in the second half. Jimmy Smith caught two first-half TD passes, but the Jacksonville offense gained only 52 yards in the second half.

October 8, 2000 — Baltimore 15, at Jacksonville 10 — Sunday night (ESPN)

The Ravens were held to 193 yards and no touchdowns, but Matt Stover kicked five field goals for all of Baltimore's points. The Jaguars fumbled a team-record eight times (losing three of them) and were intercepted three times, in addition to having a wind-aided kickoff recovered by the Ravens and an apparent TD by Tony Brackens overruled. Mark Brunell failed to lead the Jaguars to a touchdown for the second consecutive game and was replaced by Jamie Martin in the fourth quarter.

October 16, 2000 — at Tennessee 27, Jacksonville 13 — Monday night (ABC)

In a rematch of the 1999 AFC Championship game, the Jaguars jumped out to a 3-0 lead, then saw Tennessee score the next 24 points in beating Jacksonville for the fifth straight time. Eddie George gained 165 yards on 30 carries and scored one TD, and TE Frank Wycheck continued to haunt the Jaguars, with five catches and a TD. The Jaguars' lone touchdown came on their final possession.

November 19, 2000 — Jacksonville 34, at Pittsburgh 24 — Sunday night (ESPN)

Fred Taylor rushed for a team-record 234 yards and scored four touchdowns, marking the then-12th-best rushing performance in NFL history, as well as the most ever against the Steelers and the most by a Jaguar. Jacksonville had five takeaways and five sacks, with a 34-10 lead in the fourth quarter, after scoring 24 points off Pittsburgh turnovers.

October 18, 2001 — Buffalo 13, at Jacksonville 10 — Thursday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars lost their third consecutive game 13-10 to the Bills when Jake Ariens hit on a 46-yard field goal with 1:03 remaining. Mike Hollis had tied the game 10-10 with 4:00 left before the Bills — led by former Jaguars QB Rob Johnson — drove 48 yards for the winning score. On Jacksonville's final possession, Mark Brunell was intercepted with 44 seconds left.

December 3, 2001 — Green Bay 28, at Jacksonville 21 — Monday night (ABC)

The Jaguars lost to the Packers 28-21 when Brett Favre scored on a six-yard run with 1:30 remaining, as Green Bay scored the final 21 points of the game. The Jaguars led 21-7 in the third quarter. But Green Bay scored two quick touchdowns to tie the score, as Brett Favre threw for 179 yards in the third quarter. Tied late in the fourth quarter, Mark Brunell was intercepted in the end zone. Favre took over with 2:03 to play and scored in four plays. Jacksonville's final drive ended in a fumble.

1996 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF ● JAGUARS 30, BILLS 27 DECEMBER 28, 1996, RICH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (10-7) 10 7 3 10 — 30
BUFFALO BILLS (10-7) 14 3 3 7 — 27

The Jaguars won their first-ever playoff game with a come-from-behind victory over Buffalo and became the first road team to win a postseason game at Rich Stadium. Natrone Means rushed for 175 yards and a touchdown, and Mike Hollis kicked three field goals, the game-winner with 3:07 to play. Buffalo jumped out to a 7-0 lead, but Clyde Simmons intercepted Jim Kelly and ran 20 yards for a score to tie the game. Simmons also had two sacks. Buffalo took a 27-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Mark Brunell found Jimmy Smith for a 2-yard TD pass to tie the score, and Aaron Beasley recovered a fumble prior to Hollis' field goal.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-7) 0 13 7 10 — 30
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4) 12 0 0 15 — 27

The Jaguars won their seventh straight game as they shocked the football world with their upset victory over the 13-3 Broncos. After falling behind 12-0, the Jaguars scored on their next six possessions, all on drives of 50 yards and longer, taking a 30-20 lead. Denver had not lost at home all season and had not lost a playoff game at Mile High Stadium since 1984. Natrone Means rushed for 140 yards, and Mark Brunell threw TD passes to Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith. The Jaguars dominated in yards, first downs and time of possession.

In just their second season, the Jaguars' saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl ended in the AFC Championship game on a cold day in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series, when Bryan Barker feided a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. Mistakes haunted the Jaguars throughout the game, with a total of four turnovers - three on their last four possessions - including an end zone interception and a fumble that was returned for a touchdown. The Jaguars held the ball for 34:43 and held the Patriots to just 234 yards, but Jacksonville could manage only two field goals by Mike Hollis.

The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier, but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter, however the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble, but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense, 310 of them on the ground, and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01, their lowest time of possession ever.

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high ankle sprain, but for the Patriots, Scott Zolak started for the injured Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second-most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first half score was a 52-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a Donovan Darius interception of Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

MIAMI DOLPHINS (10-8)

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-2)

0 7 0 0 — 7

24 17 14 7 — 62

Scoring on their first five possessions, the Jaguars advanced to their second AFC Championship game in four seasons with a record-setting defeat of Miami, in what would be Dan Marino's final game. The 62 points scored were the second most in NFL postseason history and the most scored in an AFC playoff game, and the 55-point margin of victory was the second largest in NFL postseason history. Mark Brunell returned to action after missing the season finale with a knee injury. Fred Taylor ran 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest in NFL postseason history. The 41 points in the first half also tied the NFL postseason record. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown to take a 48-7 lead. The Jaguars scored twice more in the game, on a touchdown catch by Alvis Whitted, and a five-yard run by Chris Howard. The 62 points scored were the Jaguars' most ever.

TENNESSEE TITANS (16-3)

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-3)

7 3 16 7 — 33

7 7 0 0 — 14

The Jaguars' season came to a sudden end, as Tennessee defeated Jacksonville for the third time in the season. A record crowd of 75,206 saw the Jaguars get off to a fast start, with Kyle Brady scoring a touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Mark Brunell. The Titans responded with a nine-yard touchdown catch by Yancey Thigpen. Then the Jaguars took a 14-7 lead on a 33-yard TD run by James Stewart. But Reggie Barlow fumbled a punt that was recovered by the Titans and converted to a 34-yard field goal. The second half was all Tennessee, as the Titans scored 23 unanswered points and shut out the Jaguars. The Titans got a one-yard touchdown run by Steve McNair. Then came a safety of Mark Brunell safety, and on the free kick, Derrick Mason returned the ball 80 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars could not recover, as they had three turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game. Tennessee scored once in the fourth quarter for the 33-14 final score.

JAGUARS

RADIO BROADCASTERS

The Jaguars' radio team: Matt Robinson and Brian Sexton

Returning for their eighth year of broadcasting Jacksonville Jaguars football on the Jaguars Radio Network are Brian Sexton and Matt Robinson. Sexton again handles the play-by-play, while Robinson adds analysis.

Sexton, 33, is the voice of the Jaguars. He is the host of several of the Jaguars' television and radio shows, including "Jaguars Reporters" (6:00 p.m. Mondays on WOKV), "Jaguars this Week" (6:00 p.m. Wednesdays on WOKV) and both the radio and television versions of "The Tom Coughlin Show" (6:00 p.m. Thursdays on WOKV and 7:30 p.m. Saturdays on WJXT-TV Channel 4). Formerly sports director at WOKV, Sexton came to Jacksonville from Wichita, Kan., where he served as assistant sports director at KNSS in 1993 and hosted various pregame and postgame shows in addition to handling play-by-play for the Wichita State University Radio Network. In 2000, Sexton was a participant on the highly rated ABC-TV show "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?," walking away with $32,000. Sexton is chairman of the Ronald McDonald Discovery Board and is on the Board of Directors of the Grove House of Jacksonville, which serves adults with disabilities. He is also a member of the volunteer committee of the River Bend District of Boy Scouts of America as well as on the volunteer committee of the Northeast Council of the Boy Scouts of America. In 2002, he was named as one of the Jacksonville Business Journal's "Up and Comers," which recognizes young leaders in the Jacksonville community. He and his wife, Jennifer, who live in Atlantic Beach, have a two-year-old son, Keegan.

Robinson, 47, a former NFL and USFL quarterback, has expertise on the other side of the microphone. A former University of Georgia star, he played six seasons in the NFL for the New York Jets, Denver Broncos and Buffalo Bills. Robinson came to Jacksonville in 1984 as captain and quarterback for the Bulls of the USFL. After his retirement in 1995, he remained in Jacksonville with several business interests in the area. In 1997, he broadcast two World League games for Fox Sports. Robinson, who was host and co-host of Jaguars television and radio programming through the team's first six seasons, is now the vice president of business development for Summit Contractors in Jacksonville, promoting new business, managing current business and marketing. Robinson sits on the board of trustees of the North Florida Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, the St. Johns County United Way and Men for the Moment Ministry and is a member of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce Sports Council. Robinson is a single father with six-year-old daughter Mattison.

Joining Sexton and Robinson on Jaguars radio broadcasts are Cole Pepper and Vic Ketchman, who also appear on the pregame show. Pepper joins former Oakland Raiders star Pete Banaszak on the postgame show.

ALLTEL STADIUM

They said it couldn't be done. They said it wouldn't be ready. But on August 18, 1995, when the Jacksonville Jaguars played their first game in their new stadium, it marked the first time in sports history that an expansion team had played its first home game in a new stadium or arena. Not only that, but it was built faster than any major-league stadium had ever been built in North America.

In the short period of 19 1/2 months, the old Gator Bowl was demolished and a new stadium arose on the shores of the St. Johns River. And, very quickly, it was called the best stadium in the country. Just seconds before the Jaguars kicked off their first regular-season game on September 3, 1995, NBC broadcaster Don Criqui said, "There isn't a better football facility in America." Now in its eighth year of operation, ALLTEL Stadium is still drawing raves.

And, in less than three years, on February 6, 2005, ALLTEL Stadium will be the host site of Super Bowl XXXIX, the biggest single-day sporting event in the world. The city of Jacksonville was awarded the game on November 1, 2000 in a vote among NFL owners.

To ensure that Jacksonville has the finest venue in the NFL, ALLTEL Stadium is undergoing a $40 million renovation that will be finished in time for the 2003 season. Among the additions are a sports bar, two new super suites (for 180 and 700 people), a 20,000-square-foot terrace, 20 new escalators and five new elevators, and a new state-of-the-art press box.

Most of the additions will be on the south end of the stadium. On the main concourse level will be a 25,000-square-foot sports bar themed by Budweiser that will be open to the field and available to all fans attending games. Above that will be a terrace suite that can accommodate 700 people with outdoor seating, and it will have a 20,000-square-foot-enclosed private bar and dining area with a view to the field. And, above that will be a 20,000-square-foot terrace, easily accessible to the upper deck, with food and beverage carts that will allow fans to gather and watch games from that site. Also new to the South End Zone will be eight escalators to carry fans to every level of the stadium, as well as four elevators to serve the club, main concourse and terrace levels. In the North End Zone will be an escalator tower to the main concourse and upper level for the east and west sides of the stadium, as well as a platform connecting the east and west upper decks. A new state-of-the-art press box will be situated in the North End Zone, complete with high-tech audio visual for media covering events at ALLTEL. The current press box on the west side of the stadium will be converted into a 180-seat super suite.

And, with the Super Bowl approaching, future plans call for additional enhancements to the sports complex area. The Jaguars' practice fields are planned to be relocated to where Wolfson Park now stands, and bleachers will be retained from the old ballpark to seat 1,800 fans, which will double the capacity for fans to watch Jaguars training camp every July and August. The current practice fields, as well as the perimeter of the east and west sides of the stadium, are being developed to provide a 500,000-square-foot entertainment zone adjacent to the stadium and available for other events in the sports and entertainment complex. For Jaguars game days, this area will include the current Adams Street Experience, a corporate hospitality area to accommodate tailgate parties for as few as 20 and as many as 2,500 people, a tailgate zone for ticket holders that can accommodate 5,000 people, a bandshell for pregame and postgame entertainment, a mini-football field, and several other locations for unique entertainment.

ALLTEL Stadium features two unique "signature" features, both of them state-of-the-art. The first are the two Touchdown Clubs, which are located on both sides, and the enormous twin 60-by-156-foot scoreboards with 24 by 32-foot Sony JumboTron screens. The Touchdown Clubs and all 10,000 Club Seats are located at midfield, rather than being spread out horizontally through the stadium. Each Club — with entrances that are glass-enclosed, 100-foot-high atriums — provides more than 65,000 square feet of air-conditioned comfort with a variety of food and beverage selections. In all, 75 percent of the seats in ALLTEL Stadium are located on the sides, with just 25 percent behind the end zones.

ALLTEL Stadium seats 73,000, but additional temporary seats are added behind the South End Zone — expanding the capacity from 73,000 to well over 80,000 — for the annual Florida-Georgia game. A permanent deck for the temporary seats will be part of the $40 million renovation.

In 1997, Jacksonville Municipal Stadium was re-named ALLTEL Stadium after the Little Rock, Ark.-based wireless telecommunications and information services company that is listed in Forbes 500 and Fortune 500. ALLTEL also has a regional office in Jacksonville that employs more than 1,000 employees. Revenue from the 10-year grant of naming rights is shared equally between the Jaguars and the city of Jacksonville.

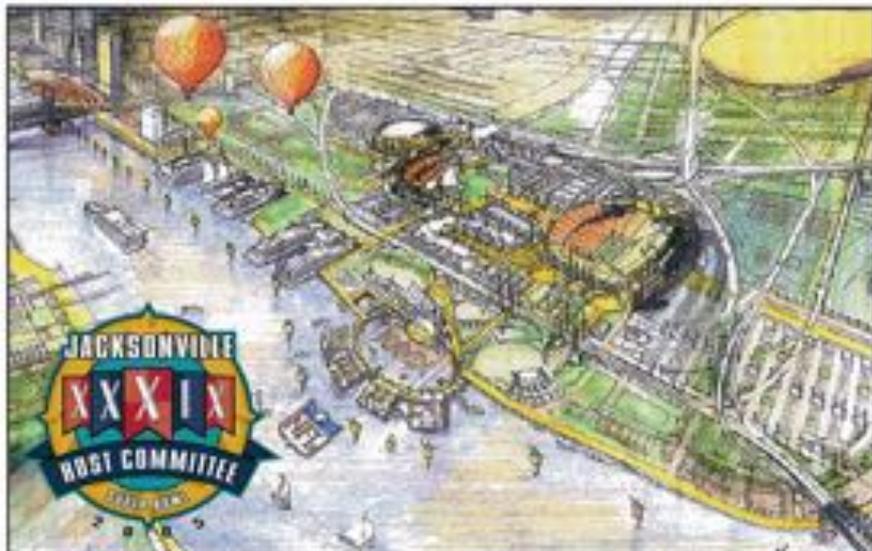

In addition to hosting at least a dozen football games every year, ALLTEL Stadium is quickly developing into a popular venue for some of the world's top concerts. In the past few years, U2, Shania Twain, George Strait and *NSYNC have performed at the stadium, and the Billy Graham Crusade had four days of sold-out shows at ALLTEL in 2000.

The construction of ALLTEL Stadium in the record 19 1/2 months was unprecedented. Twelve different consulting companies shaped the construction. Demolition began on the old Gator Bowl on January 3, 1994, with approximately 90 percent of the old stadium torn down. In fact, the only portion salvaged was the west upper deck, which had been added in 1982. A total of 121 sub-contractors had a hand in the job ... all in all, thousands of people worked on the stadium from start to finish. And on Friday, August 18, 1995, ALLTEL Stadium opened its doors to more than 70,000 Jaguars faithful.

A $40 million renovation to ALLTEL Stadium will include a sports box, two super suites, an open-air terrace, a new pressbox, 20 new escalators and five new elevators.

SUPER BOWL COMING TO JACKSONVILLE

Artist's rendering of aerial view of Jacksonville's "Super Bowl on the River" on February 6, 2005

Jacksonville will truly be a Super City on February 6, 2005 when it hosts Super Bowl XXXIX. The NFL's championship game will conclude the 2004 season with a unique "Super Bowl on the River," featuring the largest land and water football tailgate party ever conceived.

The area near ALLTEL Stadium will be transformed into Super Bowl Landing, a hub of activities and festivities where, for one week, 100,000 people will find parties, events and lodging within a compact and convenient two-mile area that can be easily walked. The most unique feature of Jacksonville's Super Bowl will be cruise ships that serve as floating hotels on the St. Johns River near downtown and ALLTEL Stadium. The cruise ships will provide 10,000 rooms for NFL guests and out-of-town fans.

The NFL's showcase game was awarded to Jacksonville on November 1, 2000, when NFL owners voted Jacksonville to host the game over Miami and Oakland, which were also vying for the game. The Super Bowl is always coveted by community leaders as a badge of membership in the top tier of American cities, and it promises a local economic impact of $300 million, as the city houses, feeds and hosts parties for as many as 100,000 game-week fans. The game will be televised worldwide, exposing Jacksonville to an audience of nearly one billion people in more than 200 countries. Thus, when Jacksonville was awarded Super Bowl XXXIX, the city took another step toward becoming a major-league player on the national scene.

Awarding the Super Bowl to Jacksonville helped spur a $40 million renovation of ALLTEL Stadium. And the total of 82,000 seats in the stadium for Super Bowl XXXIX gives ALLTEL the biggest capacity of any stadium in the current rotation of Super Bowl cities.

Key players to the vote were Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver; Mike Weinstein, then the city's director of economic development who is now running for mayor; Peter Rummell, CEO of the St. Joe Co.; Jaguars partner and insurance magnate Tom Petway; and Mayor John Delaney.

Only 10 cities have ever hosted the Super Bowl, and Jacksonville's Super Bowl host committee hopes that a successful game will secure a spot for Jacksonville in the NFL's rotation of cities that host the Super Bowl. As Wayne Weaver told his fellow owners on November 1, 2000 when Jacksonville was awarded the game: "We're going to make you very proud of your vote."

THE ROAR

"The Roar" of the Jaguars was formed in 1995 and has been an integral part of the Jaguars' entertainment package during all home games. Under the direction of manager and choreographer Robin Valetutto and coordinator Christy Stechman-Zynda, these professional cheerleaders captivate Jaguars fans with their explosive, high-energy routines and cheerful personalities. When not on the playing field, members of The Roar serve as goodwill ambassadors for the Jaguars by participating in various corporate, community and charitable events throughout Florida and even around the world.

JAXSON DE VILLE

JAXSON DE VILLE MASCOT

Height: 8.5 paws (about 7 feet)

Weight: 403

College: Denied admission due to size, but is working on his MBA, just in case Wayne Weaver needs any business advice

Birthdate: Not sure, but he celebrates it the second week of the pre-season every year

Birthplace: Jacksonville (where else would a cat have teal spots?)

First Appearance: August 18, 1996, Jaguars vs. 49ers preseason game

How Acquired: He was a stray cat found during the building of ALLTEL Stadium

NFL Experience: 7th year

SEASON: Has never seen action in an actual game ... Holds the distinction of riding more pine than a lumberjack in a saw mill ... Almost played against the Dolphins in a 1999 playoff game, but he pulled his hamstring getting off the bench when coach Coughlin called him into the game ... Still plays on the practice squad at his All-Pro position, "Left Out"

STATS: Still holds the self-proclaimed title of "NFL's Top Mascot!" ... Led the league last year in numerous stats, none of which are official stats of the league. They include such feats as: most pizzas consumed in one sitting and highest rapell off a scoreboard before a game (175 feet) ... Never been tackled, sacked, intercepted or blocked, mostly because he never plays ... Has soaked more than 15,000 people with his "Super Soakers" ... Shot enough silly string to cover the road from Jacksonville to the Super Bowl in New Orleans ... Has made entrances on his Harley-Davidson motorcycle, a four-wheeler and via parachute ... Hugged and kissed more than 25,000 people last year during his 400-plus appearances.

OFFSEASON: Jaxson de Ville does not have an "offseason," as he does appearances in the community year-round ... He will appear at any event you want, just give him a call and find out why everyone loves JAXSON!
