LAMAR HUNT

FOUNDER

The National Football League and the American sports community lost a true treasure on December 13, 2006 when Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt passed away in Dallas, Texas, at the age of 74. Hunt was originally diagnosed with prostate cancer in 1998 and quietly underwent many treatments and surgeries over the next eight years. He maintained his active schedule until entering the hospital for the final time on Nov. 22, 2006.

Hunt is universally recognized as one of the greatest sportsmen in American history. No one would have savored the 50th anniversary celebrations for the American Football League and the Chiefs franchise in 2009 or the celebration of the team's 50th season in Kansas City during 2012 more than Hunt, the individual who served as the guiding force behind the formation of both football entities. Hunt served as a positive influence on the game for 47 years dating back to his inception of the American Football League in 1959. He was the first AFL figure to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972, a remarkable feat considering he became involved in the game just 13 years earlier. As the catalyst who brought together the whimsically named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners, Hunt's "impossible dream" became a reality when his fledgling league took the field for the 1960 season.

On June 8, 1966, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, and on Jan. 15, 1967, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl. "Before there was a player, coach or a general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," late Patriots owner William Sullivan remarked at Hunt's Hall of Fame induction ceremony. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

Despite his many accomplishments, Hunt's humility was one of his most unwavering and endearing traits. While he modestly declined to take credit for his efforts, he truly played an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League. Whether it was serving as the central figure behind the formation of the AFL, playing a key role in the AFL-NFL merger talks in the 1960s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise over five decades, few individuals helped change the face of America's favorite game for the better as much as this quiet Texan.

In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late 1960s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is also credited with unintentionally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." It was Hunt who not only recommended enumerating each Super Bowl with Roman numerals, but he also suggested that the league's iconic championship trophy bear the name of Vince Lombardi. For years, he was an advocate of the two-point conversion — a college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in 1994. Hunt had also lobbied for many years that an additional Thanksgiving game be added to the NFL schedule, efforts that were rewarded when the Chiefs hosted the first-ever Thanksgiving contest at Arrowhead in 2006.

Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt holds for his son, future Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt.

When Arrowhead Stadium re-opened in 2010, Hunt's legacy was honored in Founder's Plaza, an expansive outdoor area that forms a dramatic entrance to the north side of the facility. A nine-foot heroic statue of Hunt stands as a tribute to the Chiefs late founder. In addition, eight fountains for the original eight AFL franchises symbolize Lamar's innovation and dedication to growing the game of football. Perhaps Hunt's biggest influence on the league was his quiet, yet persuasive voice of reason. Hunt's name is rightfully mentioned alongside other legendary family surnames in pro football history such as Halas, Mara and Rooney for his commitment to putting the betterment of the league ahead of any potential individual gain. His AFL model for the equal sharing of television revenue has helped maintain competitive balance in the NFL for many years. As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of pro football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference. The franchise hoisted the Lamar Hunt Trophy for the first time following the 2019 season, and retained it as AFC Champions following the 2020 season.

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled and often tenuous, but Hunt saw his Dallas Texans achieve on-field success.

In 1962, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-OT victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by his franchise during the league's 10-year existence. Hunt moved his team to Kansas City in 1963, where the organization was renamed the Chiefs.

His team truly put Kansas City on the "big-league" map, thanks to a star-studded squad that was the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL. The Chiefs were among the first teams to scout and sign players from historically black colleges and universities, a progressive approach that yielded key performers such as DT Buck Buchanan, LB Willie Lanier, WR Otis Taylor and CB Emmitt Thomas. Hunt's team repeated as league champions in both 1966 and 1969. The Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating Minnesota in Super Bowl IV.

In the late 1960s, Hunt was closely involved in the original plans for what is now GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been demolished, the stadium continues to serve as a point of pride for Kansas City. Thanks in large part to the vision and lobbying efforts of Hunt, Jackson County (Missouri) voters approved a 3/8 cent sales tax in April of 2006. That measure raised $250 million for renovation efforts. Hunt's longtime dream of hosting a Super Bowl in Kansas City appeared to become a reality when NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue announced on November 16, 2005 that NFL owners had passed a proposal to bring the NFL's championship game to Kansas City in February of 2015.

Unfortunately, a provision in the April 2006 election that would have resurrected the "rolling roof" concept for the stadium did not pass. The "rolling roof" was part of Hunt's initial vision for Arrowhead in the 1960s. In its 21st century incarnation, the "rolling roof" would have provided a climate-controlled facility suitable for hosting the Super Bowl, the Final Four and other major events. Hunt also worked diligently to bring college football to Kansas City. Arrowhead hosted the Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Championship Game for the fifth time in 2008. In addition to numerous other college football games, the stadium also served as a venue for international soccer matches thanks to Hunt.

During the 1990s, Hunt took great pride in his franchise's on-field resurgence as Kansas City compiled a 102-58 (.638) regular season record. Under Hunt's stewardship, the Chiefs developed an intensely-loyal fan following, not just in mid-America, but across the country and around the globe. Kansas City represented the NFL in four American Bowl contests — Berlin, Germany (1990), Tokyo, Japan (1994, 1998) and Monterrey, Mexico (1996) and has since gone on to host a game in London (2015) and play in Mexico City (2019).

Nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports was his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which led to his involvement in six different professional sports leagues and seven sports franchises. Hunt was involved in the development of both NASL and World Championship Tennis.

Hunt was inducted into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (1982) and International Tennis (1993). He was also honored by the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Texas (1984) and Missouri (1995). In total, Hunt has been selected to 11 "Halls of Fame."

In 2008, Hunt's bust was added to the "Hall of Famous Missourians" at the state capitol in Jefferson City, Missouri. In 1981, Hunt was inducted into the NFL Alumni Association's prestigious Order of the Leather Helmet. He also received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Club in 1993.

In August of 2009, the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery officially opened at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This 4,000-square foot exhibit showcases the greatest moments in Super Bowl history and is appropriately named after the individual who gave the world's biggest single-game sporting spectacle its current moniker. In October of 2009, the Missouri DOT officially designated a stretch of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex as the "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway."

Truly a sportsman for all seasons, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" in 1999 after the 95-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup." That same year he also received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor, joining former U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg as the only other individual to earn that prestigious distinction. In 2005, the U.S. Soccer Foundation honored Hunt with its Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Hunt family served as the Investor/Operators of the Kansas City Wizards (Sporting KC) franchise of Major League Soccer from 1995-2006 and claimed the 2000 MLS Cup. They also founded and operated the Columbus Crew for 18 years, eventually selling the operating rights of the Crew in 2013. The Hunt family still oversees the operations of FC Dallas. Hunt was also one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. In total, the Hunt family owns 16 championship rings from five different professional sports associations (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA, NASL and the U.S. Soccer "Open Cup").

A highly-successful businessman outside of sports, one of Hunt's most notable innovations was SubTropolis, the world's largest underground business complex, located just north of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Hunt also envisioned and developed Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in 1973, as well as the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun, which was completed in 1982. While both of those entities were sold in 1995, Hunt Midwest Enterprises continues to oversee a diverse range of business interests.

Hunt was born on Aug. 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Ark., and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in 1956. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the varsity football team. Hunt was an avid supporter of his alma mater and was an annual fixture at the Cotton Bowl. In May of 2008, he was posthumously inducted as one of four inaugural members of the SMU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Hunt's wife, Norma, continued to be involved in numerous philanthropic and civic efforts in Texas and in Kansas City until her passing on June 4, 2023. She will be remembered as a loyal wife, loving mother and passionate football fan.

On Thursday, September 7, the Kansas City Chiefs announced plans to honor the life and legacy of Norma Knobel Hunt.

During the 2023 season, players will don a commemorative patch on home and road Chiefs jerseys featuring Norma's initials – "NKH" – at the center of a football. The patch will be worn on the right side of the jersey, serving as a perfect partner to the patch on the jersey's left side honoring Lamar Hunt and the American Football League.

In addition, the NFL and the Kansas City Chiefs announced the creation of the Norma Hunt Super Bowl Champion of Education program. Beginning with Super Bowl LVIII in Las Vegas, each year one female educator will be selected to attend the game and be honored for their commitment to education, their dedication in the classroom and their selfless service to the next generation of students.

The program honors Norma's passion for education, her lifelong love of football and her renowned Super Bowl attendance streak. Norma was the only woman to attend every Super Bowl – from Super Bowl I when the Chiefs faced the Green Bay Packers, to Super Bowl LVII when the Chiefs hoisted the third Lombardi Trophy in franchise history. Additionally, she was selected to preside over the coin toss at Super Bowl XLI (February 4, 2007) along with Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino.

Norma began her career as a high school teacher. After earning a degree in secondary education from North Texas State University in 1960, she returned to her alma mater at Richardson High School (Richardson, Texas) to serve as an American history teacher.

"My family and I are so proud to honor our mother's life and legacy this season," Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt said. "My mom loved football, and she loved the Chiefs. She also believed in the power of sports to unite communities, and the impact sports can have on young people. While it will be difficult to begin football season without her, we look forward to continuing her legacy of attending every Super Bowl with the creation of the Norma Hunt Super Bowl Champion of Education program."

CLARK HUNT

CHAIRMAN & CEO

Clark Hunt has been the driving force behind the resurgence of the Kansas City Chiefs, transforming the iconic franchise into one of the most successful teams in the National Football League.

Since Hunt became CEO of the Chiefs in 2010, the club has earned nine AFC West Division championships, including eight consecutive division titles (2016-present). Hunt has hoisted the award that bears his father's name – the Lamar Hunt Trophy – four times in the past five years as the club claimed AFC championships and earned Super Bowl appearances following the 2019, 2020, 2022 and 2023 seasons. By winning Super Bowl LVIII following the 2023 season, the Chiefs became just the second team this century to win back-to-back world championships, and became one of just seven NFL franchises to hold at least four Super Bowl titles (IV, LIV, LVII, LVIII).

In January 2013, Hunt modified the leadership structure of the organization, announcing that for the first time in club history, the head coach, general manager and team president would all report directly to the Chairman and CEO. Hunt hired Head Coach Andy Reid in 2013, and Reid has since become the winningest head coach in franchise history. In 11 seasons under Reid, the Chiefs have won 128 regular season games, the most in the NFL during that span. The club has qualified for the postseason 10 times (2013, 2015-23), winning eight consecutive AFC West titles (2016-23), competing in six consecutive AFC Championship Games (2018-23), and winning three Super Bowls (2019, 2022-23).

Hunt extended the contracts of Reid, General Manager Brett Veach and Team President Mark Donovan in April 2024, ensuring the leadership of the club's football and business operations will remain in place for years to come.

In addition to his leadership of the Chiefs and his standing as one of the most respected leaders in the NFL, Hunt has also been instrumental in bringing football to the world – and bringing the world of international football to the United States. From 2011-18, Hunt served as chairman of the NFL International Committee, and significantly expanded the league's international efforts and investment overseas. Before Hunt's chairmanship, the league had played four regular season games internationally. Since Hunt was named committee chairman in 2011, the league has hosted 44 regular season games across the United Kingdom, Mexico and Germany, with every NFL team playing at least once internationally. Hunt continues to serve as a member of the committee, and in 2024 the NFL will host five international regular season games, including one in Sao Paulo, Brazil, the first NFL game to be played in South America.

Hunt has also been instrumental in bringing FIFA World Cup 2026 to the United States, and specifically to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. He served as co-chair of the Kansas City bid to host the World Cup, a process that began in 2015. In 2022, FIFA announced Kansas City as one of eleven World Cup host sites in the United States, and in 2024 it announced that GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium will host six tournament matches, including four group fixtures and two knockout matches. Kansas City will host a quarterfinal match alongside Los Angeles, Miami and Boston.

Hunt's leadership in the NFL extends beyond his ability to grow the game. In 2019, he was named Chairman of the influential NFL Finance Committee after serving as a member for seven years. In addition to the International and Finance committees, Hunt is also a current member of three other League committees: the NFL Personal Conduct Committee, the Management Council Executive Committee (CEC) and the Commissioner's Special Committee on Ownership Policy. He was a member of the Commissioner Search Committee in 2006 which recommended Roger Goodell as the successor to then-Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, and previously served on the NFL Digital Media Committee which was restructured in 2019.

A long-time member of the Management Council Executive Committee (CEC), Hunt was instrumental in securing the NFL's last two collective bargaining agreements in 2011 and 2020.

Hunt is also a founding investor-operator in Major League Soccer, serving as Chairman and CEO of FC Dallas. Hunt and his family originally founded two other MLS clubs, the Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting Kansas City) and the Columbus Crew, before acquiring FC Dallas in 2003. Hunt remains actively involved in the continued growth of MLS, serving as a member of the MLS Board of Governors, co-chair of the Product Strategy Committee and member of the Labor Committee.

The son of legendary American sports pioneer and Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, Clark Hunt has built upon his father's legacy by ensuring the Chiefs organization remains focused on its core mission: Honor Tradition, Unite our Community, Win with Character and Inspire our Fans.

As part of that mission, the organization has made significant investments in the fan experience, including major upgrades to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The Hunt family committed $125 million to the $375 million renovation of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium completed in 2010, which provided Chiefs fans with first-class amenities while maintaining the distinct soul and mystique that makes the venue one of the most iconic stadiums in the NFL. Since then, the club has invested tens of millions of dollars in the stadium to enhance fan experience and maintain the venue's standing as one of the best in the league. This includes replacing every seat in the seating bowl, upgrading scoreboard and video board technology, revamping the team store, renovating the locker room complex, installing stadium-wide Wi-Fi, launching the Chiefs Mobile app, and introducing additional premium club and suite options for fans in all areas of the stadium. The club has also reinvigorated the Chiefs Hall of Honor, turning it into a fully enclosed, modern, digital experience that celebrates the past, present and future of the franchise.

Under the Hunt family's leadership, GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium has become a cultural cornerstone for Kansas City. In 2013, Hunt and his family debuted the first phase of the Arrowhead Art Collection, a seven-figure community investment highlighting regional artwork and culture and providing educational opportunities for students throughout the Chiefs Kingdom. In total, more than 50 pieces of art have been installed at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, combining two pieces of the cultural fabric of Kansas City – sports and the arts – inside a regional architectural masterpiece. Arrowhead Events, a division of the club's business operation started under Hunt, has brought numerous musical acts to the stadium, including Taylor Swift, Billy Joel, U2, George Strait, Garth Brooks and Beyoncé.

Hunt is a native of Dallas, Texas, and he graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in 1987 with a degree in Business Administration and a concentration in finance. He was a captain and four-year letterman on the Mustangs' nationally ranked soccer team. Hunt has received numerous awards and recognitions from his alma mater, including the SMU Cox School of Business Outstanding Young Alumni Award in 2004 and the SMU Cox School of Business Distinguished Alumni Award in 2018. In 2020 he received the SMU Distinguished Alumni Award – the highest honor the university can bestow upon its graduates – for outstanding leadership in philanthropy, business and civic life. Hunt currently serves on the Board of Trustees for SMU and for the St. Mark's School of Texas. Hunt was also enshrined in the Dallas Business Hall of Fame in February 2022.

He and his wife, Tavia, are actively involved in numerous philanthropic initiatives in both Kansas City and Dallas. In 2023, the Chiefs recorded the largest charitable footprint in the history of the organization, with $3.7 million delivered to Chiefs Kingdom and beyond. One of the Hunt family's lasting legacies is the Chiefs Charity Game, which has raised more than $15.6 million for local youth-focused charities since its inception in 1985. In 2017, the Chiefs and the Hunt Family Foundation were selected as a finalist for the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Sports Award, recognizing the influence of sports in inspiring healthy change in communities through innovation and collaboration. The Chiefs were named 2016 Business Philanthropist of the Year in Kansas City by Nonprofit Connect, an association linking the nonprofit community to education, resources and networking opportunities. Nonprofit Connect also awarded the Chiefs/Hunt Family Foundation and GEHA their "Stronger Together" Award in 2023 for their collaboration on the Joe Delaney Learn to Swim Program.

The Hunts have three children - Gracie, Knobel and Ava.

MARK DONOVAN

PRESIDENT

26TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 16TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Entering his 26th season in the National Football League and his 16th season in Kansas City in 2024, Mark Donovan is the fifth president in Chiefs history. As president, Donovan is responsible for all aspects of the club's business operations and reports directly to Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt.

Donovan brings unique experience and perspective to the team. He is one of only a few executives league-wide who has worked both at the NFL league office and multiple clubs, with valuable perspective and strong relationships both in the Kansas City area and on a national level.

In addition to serving as the President of the Chiefs, Donovan also serves as the President of Arrowhead Events, the special events arm of the organization that is responsible for bringing concerts and major events like the 2026 FIFA World Cup to GEHA Field at Arrowhead. Mark is also a partner with the Hunt family in Arrowhead Equity Ventures, a partnership that funds strategic investments.

Under Donovan's leadership, the Chiefs returned to their place as a model franchise in professional sports. Building on the direction of the Hunt family and Founder Lamar Hunt, Donovan has led a talented team that has transformed the business operation and achieved unprecedented success across all measurable areas.

The city of Kansas City, along with support from the Chiefs, hosted the 2023 NFL Draft in the downtown area surrounding historic and iconic Union Station and the National WWI Museum and Memorial. The NFL Draft delivered more than $164 million in economic impact over its three days in Kansas City. In addition, the Chiefs, alongside several local business and civic leaders, were part of a successful bid campaign for Kansas City to host 2026 FIFA World Cup matches, with GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium serving as match site. Recently, FIFA announced that Kansas City would have the honor of hosting six matches, including four group matches and two knockout matches, being one of only four cities to host a prestigious quarterfinal match. The club has also opened two Chiefs Fit locations – one in Overland Park, Kansas, and one on the historic Country Club Plaza in Kansas City, Missouri – in partnership with M6 Football.

After introducing ticketless technology in 2012-13 and expanding to mobile ticketing for the 2015 season, the club became one of the first in the NFL to move to an all-digital ticketing platform in 2018 and an all-mobile ticketing platform in 2020 to ensure efficiency and security, as well as delivering a contactless entry process for all ticketholders. Fans are able to manage their accounts and tickets from their phones while having access to membership benefits such as exclusive content and a points-based rewards program.

Donovan has consistently focused on expanding the brand and presence of the Chiefs. The club's fanbase has grown to be the second-largest and most-avid in the league in NFL rankings, while YouGov reports that more people in the U.S. identify as a Chiefs fan than any other NFL franchise. The club continues to engage with fans through content across social platforms and digital channels, reaching more than 15 million fans, making the club the fifth-most followed team in the league. The club currently ranks first in TikTok followers and YouTube subscribers and is third in the league in Instagram following. Donovan has continued to be a leader by taking a modern and multi-media approach to engage with fans. Led by the marketing team and their award-winning production group, 65 Toss Power Trap Productions, the club's storytelling is unparalleled. The Franchise, the team's annual multi-episode behind-the-scenes content series provides fans a look at the season through the eyes of the coaches, players and front office.

In addition to connecting Chiefs fans to the team they love, Donovan has overseen a period of tremendous business growth, re-establishing GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium as a popular venue for sports and entertainment. Arrowhead Events has seen exponential growth over the past decade, bringing several major events to Kansas City, including concerts, college football games, motorsports, as well as food and drink festivals. After a record-setting special events season in terms of events and revenue in 2023, GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium hosted an MLS match between Sporting Kansas City and Lionel Messi's Inter Miami CF with 72,610 fans in attendance, marking the third-largest attendance for a standalone regular season match in MLS history. The stadium will also host a CONMEBOL Copa America match between the United States and Uruguay in July. In addition, the home of the Chiefs will host three concerts across two national tours, including Kenny Chesney and two nights of Morgan Wallen, as well as the return of Monster Jam. The University of Kansas has also selected GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium for four college football games while KU's David Booth Memorial Stadium undergoes significant renovations, signaling the return of NCAA Division I football to the stadium for the first time since 2015.

In his time in Kansas City, Donovan has also created a new approach to sponsorships, setting a strategy to partner with companies which share the vision, qualities and values of the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2017, the Chiefs were recognized by the Kansas City Business Journal as a Champion of Business for leadership within industry, innovation and commitment to giving back to the community. In 2019 the Chiefs announced a partnership with Government Employees Health Association, Inc. (GEHA) and in 2021, Donovan helped the club expand that partnership and secure the first stadium naming rights agreement in the history of the franchise for GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

Donovan continues to target global brand growth and international fan expansion for the club. In December 2021, the NFL awarded the Chiefs International Home Marketing Area (IHMA) rights for both Germany and Mexico, followed by expansion to Austria and Switzerland as part of the league's Global Markets Program. The club was designated to play the Miami Dolphins on Sunday, Nov. 5, 2023, the first of two NFL Germany games in Frankfurt last season. The club activated the "Chiefs ChampionShip," a yacht fan activation on the banks of the Main River in central Frankfurt throughout the week and weekend, with 7,000 fans learning about and experiencing Chiefs Kingdom. The Chiefs earned a 21-14 victory, becoming the first team to win an NFL regular season game in four different countries (United States, United Kingdom, Mexico and Germany).

Since the launch of the Chiefs rights in Germany and Mexico, the brand has become a leader in both markets – ranking within the top five and top ten respectively for fanbase size. The Chiefs are engaged year-round in both markets through content, activations, media, youth programming and Chiefs Flag Football to ensure that awareness of, and engagement with, the club is consistent. This approach has positioned the Chiefs as the top team in social following on Instagram in both Germany and Mexico out of all teams with rights in those markets. The club developed multi-year partnerships with numerous companies in Germany leading up to the Frankfurt game in 2023 and continues business development conversations in the market. In addition, the club has signed a broadcast agreement with RTL Germany to air multiple preseason games as well as The Franchise presented by GEHA to fans in the DACH (Germany, Austria and Switzerland) region.

Locally, the Chiefs continue to be a major economic leader in the Kansas City community. Chiefs games and other events at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium generate more than $993 million annually in the metro area. Team operations and spending support nearly 6,000 full- and part-time jobs, contributing more than $473 million in wages and benefits in the Kansas City region. They also provide more than $28 million in annual tax revenue for the State of Missouri.

For the club's recent efforts and on-field success, the Chiefs were awarded the 2023 ESPY for "Best Team" and were nominated for the 2024 "Sports Team of the Year" Sports Business Award presented by Sports Business Journal. Donovan was invited to speak at SBJ's 2024 World Congress of Sports on the topic of "Keeping Ahead of the Field: Staying Competitive in an Ever-Changing Industry." He was also recognized as the 2021 Executive of the Year by the Kansas City Sports Commission, largely for his leadership in safely navigating the organization, the stadium and Chiefs fans through the COVID-impacted 2020 football season.

Donovan's leadership extends to the community where he sits on the Board of Directors for the Hunt Family Foundation. He has helped establish a more strategic approach to the Chiefs charitable giving and community involvement, better enabling the club to carry out its vision to focus resources for greater impact. This approach has prioritized a handful of causes: children's health and wellness, children and families in crisis, civic responsibility and legacy of the Chiefs and the NFL. The Chiefs Charity Game, one of the many Kansas City traditions started by the Hunt family, is the longest-running and most successful charity game in the National Football League. In 2023, the club recorded the largest charitable footprint in organization history with $3.7 million delivered to Chiefs Kingdom and beyond.

Donovan and his wife Kathy are also personally committed to the community, serving in numerous civic and charitable leadership roles. He served two terms as the Founding Board Chair for City Year Kansas City beginning in 2016 and remains on the board. For his support of City Year, AmeriCorps and the national service community, Donovan was awarded the Citizen Service Award by Voices for National Service in February of 2019. In the past few years, the couple has chaired the 2020 Angel Gala for The Children's Place, the 2019 City Year Gala as well as Treads and Threads 2019 to benefit The University of Kansas Health System. Kathy Donovan serves on United WE's Board of Directors. They served as keynote speakers for the United WE Champion Breakfast in 2021 and 2023 as allies to raise funds and awareness for the advancement of women's economic and civic leadership.

Donovan arrived in Kansas City after six years with the Philadelphia Eagles as Senior Vice President of Business Operations (2003-08). Prior to joining the Eagles, Donovan held leadership roles as the NFL's Senior Director of Sales and Marketing (1999-2003) and the Director of Sales and Marketing for the National Hockey League (1997-99). He also brings seven years of experience in the private business sector.

The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native graduated from Brown University with a double major in political science and organizational behavior/management. He captained the Brown football squad as the team's quarterback and signed with the New York Giants as a free agent upon graduation.

He and his wife, Kathy, have two children and reside in Kansas City.

Andy Reid enters his 12th season at the helm of the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024. He was hired as the club's 13th head coach in franchise history on January 7, 2013.

Entering his 26th season as an NFL head coach, Reid owns a 258-144-1 regular season record and adds a 26-16 postseason record, giving him 284 total wins, which ranks fourth in NFL history and first among active head coaches. Reid is a three-time Super Bowl Champion. In 2019, his squad beat the San Francisco 49ers 31-20 in Super Bowl LIV. Just three seasons later, he led his team to back-to-back Super Bowl victories in 2022 and 2023, marking the first time a club has won back-to-back Super Bowls in two decades. The Chiefs beat the Philadelphia Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII followed by a 25-22 overtime victory over the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LVIII.

Reid joined the Chiefs after 14 seasons as Head Coach/Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Philadelphia Eagles where he compiled a 130-93-1 (.583) regular season record. Including his years as an assistant coach, Reid's teams have made the playoffs 25 times (35-21 record). He has coached in seven Super Bowls and 14 Championship Games (8 NFC, 6 AFC), including being the first coach in NFL history to coach in five-consecutive home Conference Championship Games (2018-22). He owns three NFL Coach of the Year honors.

Since his arrival in Kansas City, Reid's teams have made it to the playoffs 10 out of 11 seasons and played in six-straight AFC Championship games (2018-23). He has led his squad to the Super Bowl four times in five seasons (2019, 2020, 2022, 2023), winning three championships, including back-to-back titles. In 11 seasons under Reid, the Chiefs have recorded 10 10-plus win seasons, logging a .715 (128-51) winning percentage, which is the top mark in franchise history.

Reid led the 2023 Kansas City Chiefs to an 11-6 record, extending the club's franchise record streak to eight-straight AFC West Championships. Entering the playoffs as the No. 3 seed, the Chiefs beat the Miami Dolphins 26-7 in the Wild Card Round at home before QB Patrick Mahomes had to play a playoff game on the road for the first time in his six-year career as a starter. The club beat the No. 2 seed Buffalo Bills 27-24 in the Divisional Round and the No. 1 seed Baltimore Ravens 17-10 in the AFC Championship Game before taking down the San Francisco 49ers 25-22 in overtime in Super Bowl LVIII. Mahomes earned his third Super Bowl MVP honor as the club secured its third Super Bowl title (LIV, LVII, LVIII) in five seasons. Earlier that season in a Week 5 win over the Minnesota Vikings, Reid surpassed Pro Football Hall of Fame Coach Tom Landry to sit in the fourth spot on the NFL's all-time wins list.

In 2022, Reid led his team to a 14-3 record, securing the club's seventh-consecutive AFC West title and a No. 1 seed in the playoffs. The Chiefs defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars 27-20 in the Divisional Round and beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20 in an AFC Championship Game rematch, extending the club's NFL record to five championship games hosted at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs went on to beat the Philadelphia Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII. Under Reid's tutelage, QB Patrick Mahomes added his second NFL MVP (2019, 2022) honor and second Super Bowl MVP (LIV, LVII) award to his resume after leading the NFL in several statistical categories, including passing yards (5,250), touchdowns (41) and 25+ yard passes (49).

Reid's 2021 squad recorded a 12-5 record in the NFL's first 17-game season, won a sixth-straight AFC West title and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. Kansas City defeated Pittsburgh 42-21 in the wild card round and Buffalo 42-36 in the divisional round en route to hosting the AFC Championship Game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs fell to Cincinnati 27-24. In Week 4, Reid recorded his 100th victory with Kansas City (postseason included), becoming the first head coach in NFL history to tally 100-plus wins with two franchises.

The 2020 Kansas City Chiefs tallied a franchise-record 14 wins (14-2 record), won their fifth-straight AFC West titles and secured the No. 1 seed in the AFC for the second time in three years (2018, 2020). Kansas City defeated Cleveland 22-17 in the divisional round and Buffalo 38-24 in its third-consecutive AFC Championship Game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City hoisted the Lamar Hunt Trophy as AFC Champions for the second-straight year en route to its second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. After just three years as starting QB, Reid-mentored Mahomes was the fastest player to throw 100 touchdown passes, doing so in just 40 games.

In 2019, Reid's 12-4 Chiefs finished the regular season as AFC West Champs for a fourth-straight season and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. The club defeated Houston 51-31 in the divisional round and Tennessee 35-24 in the AFC Championship Game on it's way to returning to the Super Bowl for the third time in franchise history, marking the first Super Bowl appearance since the club won Super Bowl IV following the 1969 season. In Super Bowl LIV in Miami, Florida, Reid's Chiefs fell behind 20-10. Entering the fourth quarter, Mahomes rallied the offense, putting up 21-unanswered points to secure a 31-20 win over the San Francisco 49ers. Mahomes' performance earned him Super Bowl MVP honors.

In 2018, Reid's team notched a 12-4 record and third-straight AFC West title. Mahomes became the first player in Chiefs history to be named NFL MVP. The club earned a No. 1 seed in the playoffs and defeated the Indianapolis Colts 31-13 in the divisional round. The win marked Kansas City's first home playoff win since Jan. 8, 1994. The Chiefs hosted their first AFC Championship Game in franchise history, falling 37-31 in overtime to the eventual Super Bowl LIII Champion New England Patriots. Following the season, Reid was named Coach of the Year from the Maxwell Football Club for the fourth time in his career (2000, 2002, 2010, 2018). That season, following the club's Week 7 win over the Cincinnati Bengals, Reid became just the ninth head coach in NFL history to log 200 wins (regular and postseason).

In 2017, Reid led the Chiefs to a 10-6 record en route to the club's second-consecutive AFC West title, the first time in franchise history the club had won the division in back-to-back years.

In 2016, Reid led the Chiefs to a 12-4 record and an AFC West title for the first time since 2010. The team finished a perfect 6-0 against its division foes. It was the club's best record since going 13-3 in 2003. The Chiefs earned a first-round bye in the NFL playoffs and hosted a home AFC Divisional Game.

In 2015, Reid's Chiefs rattled off 10 consecutive regular season wins to finish 11-5 and earn a playoff berth. The Chiefs defeated the Houston Texans 30-0 in an AFC Wild Card game in Houston, marking the team's first playoff win in 22 years. Reid and company advanced to the AFC Divisional Round. The club's 10-straight wins after starting just 1-5 marked the greatest turnaround in a single season in NFL history. Reid's efforts earned him AFC Coach of the Year honors.

In his first year with the club, Reid was named the 2013 AFC Coach of the Year by the 101 Committee after his squad recorded the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history. Reid's team finished with an 11-5 record, a nine-game turnaround from the previous season and qualified for the postseason for the first time since 2010. Additionally, Reid mentored 10 players who earned Pro Bowl honors, more than any other team in the NFL that season.

One of the most successful coaches in professional sports, Reid utilizes a passionate, yet workmanlike approach as an NFL head coach. A former offensive lineman at BYU, Reid still lives and works with those humble principles he learned during his time in the trenches.

 Bold Denotes Active NFL Coaches*

"Kansas City is just going to get better. This is just the start of it," the late Pro Football Hall of Fame Head Coach John Madden said upon Reid joining the Chiefs. "He has a plan. And he's very thorough, very smart. He's a good coach, always has been."

His vision, his dedication and his organizational skills have been impeccable during his coaching career. Reid joined Philadelphia as head coach in 1999 and remained in that role through the 2012 season, becoming one of just 11 first-time NFL head coaches to lead 12-or-more seasons with the same club. Reid assumed the additional role of Executive Vice President of Football Operations in 2001.

While compiling his 10-9 postseason record with Philadelphia, Reid led the Eagles franchise to one Super Bowl appearance, a game that saw Philadelphia fall by a mere field goal to the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XXXIX following the 2004 season. Reid guided Philadelphia to nine playoff appearances (2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2010) during his 14-year tenure in the City of Brotherly Love. During that time period, only Indianapolis (12) and New England (10) had more postseason appearances than the Eagles.

The Eagles captured their sixth NFC East division title under Reid in 2010. Along the way, Reid played a vital role in the rebirth of QB Michael Vick, who earned Comeback Player of the Year honors as well as a Pro Bowl berth. Reid, himself, earned Coach of the Year honors from the Maxwell Football Club.

In 2008, Reid became the 37th coach to reach the 100-win plateau and the 22nd to win 100 games with one franchise. He overcame a 5-5-1 start to reach the NFC Championship Game.

In 2006, the Eagles lost six of their first 11 games and two of their most explosive players in QB Donovan McNabb and DE Jevon Kearse, but Reid led a five-game win streak to close out the season, capturing the NFC East division title.

The 2004 Eagles clinched the NFC East title with five games remaining in the regular season and the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs. Along the way, Reid passed Greasy Neale for the most wins in franchise history as the Eagles earned their first trip to the Super Bowl since 1980.

In 2003, Philadelphia overcame an 0-2 start and a slew of injuries to post its second consecutive 12-win season. A year earlier, Reid was the overwhelming choice as the NFL's Coach of the Year as the Eagles thrived without the services of McNabb to still capture home-field advantage in the playoffs.

After a 5-11 mark in his first season, Reid led the 2000 Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing second in the NFC East at 11-5 and earning a trip to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. For his efforts, Reid was named the NFL's Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest.

Throughout his time in the NFL, Reid has continuously evaluated what is best for the game of football, serving on the NFL Competition Committee's Coaches Subcommittee. The subcommittee is instrumental in providing feedback to the NFL Competition Committee for potential rule changes and ways to improve the game.

"I am a huge fan of Coach Reid," NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell said. "He is a person I have tremendous respect for as a coach and family man. Andy has been very helpful to me as Commissioner. He has tremendous insight into our game, and we are fortunate to have him in the NFL."

Reid was originally introduced as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles on Jan. 11, 1999, after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers under Head Coach Mike Holmgren. During his seven years with the Packers, Reid served as the tight ends coach and assistant offensive line coach (1992-96) and as quarterbacks coach (1997-98). In his span with the Packers, the team reached the playoffs six times and represented the NFC twice in back-to-back Super Bowls, defeating New England in Super Bowl XXXI and falling to Denver in Super Bowl XXXII.

During his two-year stint as quarterbacks coach, Reid worked with Pro Football Hall of Fame QB Brett Favre. While tutoring Favre, Reid and the Packers won their second straight NFC title, and Favre garnered league MVP honors for the third-consecutive season.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Reid's final collegiate stop was in Columbia, Missouri, as he coached the offensive line at the University of Missouri (1989-91). Prior to his stint with the Tigers, Reid spent two years working with the offensive line at the University of Texas – El Paso, and before that, he held the same position with Northern Arizona. In 1983, Reid took the position of offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at San Francisco State, helping the Gators lead the nation in passing and total offense for three consecutive years (1983-85).

A tackle and guard at Brigham Young University from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at BYU under Head Coach LaVell Edwards in 1982. It was in that time at BYU that Reid began his association with Holmgren, who served as the quarterbacks coach for the Cougars. While at BYU, Reid earned both a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics. While playing for the Cougars, Reid was also a columnist for the Provo Daily Herald.

A native of Los Angeles, Reid prepped at John Marshall High School in Los Angeles and went on to go to Glendale (Calif.) Junior College before attending BYU. Reid has been inducted into the Marshall High School Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as the Glendale Junior College Hall of Fame.

Education: Brigham Young University (B.A. 1981). Born: Los Angeles Family: Wife - Tammy; Children - Sons Spencer, Britt and the late Garrett, and daughters Drew Ann and Crosby. He has 13 grandchildren - Maverick, Somers, Saylor, Blake, Reid, Brigitte, Canyon, Ryker, Rylen, Garrett, Ford, Levi and Deacon Andrew.

BRETT VEACH

GENERAL MANAGER

VEACH'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1998-03	Delaware	Wide Receiver ('98-01)
		Graduate Assistant Coach ('02-03)
2007-12	Philadelphia Eagles	Asst. to HC ('07-09)
		Pro & College Scout ('10)
		Southeast Regional Scout ('11-12)
2013-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Pro & College Analyst ('13-14)
		Co-Director of Player Personnel ('15-16)
		General Manager ('17-24)

Brett Veach enters his eighth season as the Kansas City Chiefs General Manager and his 18th year in the National Football League in 2024. Veach was named the seventh general manager in Kansas City Chiefs history on July 10, 2017, reporting directly to Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt on all player personnel matters.

"After a comprehensive search process, I am pleased to announce that we have hired Brett Veach to serve as the next General Manager of the Kansas City Chiefs," Hunt said in a statement upon his hire. "Brett has a sharp football mind, a tremendous work ethic and a keen eye for finding talent. Over the last four seasons, he's played a critical role in building our football team. I look forward to working with him to continue to build on the strong foundation we have in place."

Veach enters his 12th season with the Chiefs after originally joining the club in 2013. He was promoted to Co-Director of Player Personnel prior to the 2015 season after serving two seasons as the club's Pro and College Personnel Analyst (2013-14).

During Veach's seven seasons as general manager, the club has won the AFC West every year. The club has played in six-straight AFC Championship Games, including hosting an NFL record five-straight at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. In that span, the club has also played in four Super Bowls in five years, hoisting the Lombardi trophy three times (LIV, LVII & LVIII), including back-to-back championship seasons.

The 2023 Kansas City Chiefs recorded an 11-6 record, extending the club's streak to eight-straight AFC West Championships. Entering the playoffs as the No. 3 seed, the Chiefs beat the No. 6 seed Miami Dolphins 26-7 in the Wild Card Round at home before QB Patrick Mahomes had to go on the road for the first time in his six-year career as a starter. The club beat the No. 2 seed Buffalo Bills 27-24 and the No. 1 seed Baltimore Ravens 17-10 before taking down the San Francisco 49ers 25-22 in overtime in Super Bowl LVIII. Mahomes earned his third Super Bowl MVP honor as the club secured its third Super Bowl title (LIV, LVII, LVIII) in five seasons.

In 2022, the Chiefs recorded a 14-3 record, securing a franchise-record seventh-consecutive AFC West title and a No. 1 seed in the playoffs. Kansas City defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars 27-20 in the divisional round and beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20 in an AFC Championship Game rematch, extending the club's NFL record to five championship games hosted at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. QB Patrick Mahomes added his second NFL MVP and second Super Bowl MVP to his resume after leading the NFL in several statistical categories, including passing yards (5,250), touchdowns (41) and 25+ yard passes (49).

The 2021 Kansas City Chiefs recorded a 12-5 record in the NFL's first 17-game season, extended the franchise record to six-straight AFC West titles and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. Kansas City defeated Pittsburgh 42-21 in the wild card round and Buffalo 42-36 in the divisional round en route to hosting an NFL-record fourth-consecutive AFC Championship Game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs fell to Cincinnati 27-24.

The 2020 squad went 14-2, earning a fifth-straight AFC West title and the No. 1 seed in the AFC. Kansas City defeated Cleveland 22-17 in the divisional round and Buffalo 38-24 in the third-consecutive AFC Championship Game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City hoisted the Lamar Hunt Trophy as AFC Champions for the second-straight year en route to its second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. The club fell to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31-9 in Super Bowl LV.

In 2019, the Chiefs finished 12-4 in the regular season, notched a fourth-consecutive AFC West Championship and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. The club defeated the Houston Texans 51-31 in the divisional round and the Tennessee Titans 35-24 in the AFC Championship Game on its way to returning to the Super Bowl for the third time in franchise history and first time since the club won Super Bowl IV following the 1969 season.

In Super Bowl LIV in Miami, Florida, the Chiefs fell behind 20-10. Entering the fourth quarter, Mahomes rallied his offense, putting up 21-unanswered points to secure a 31-20 win over the San Francisco 49ers. Mahomes' performance earned Super Bowl MVP honors. At 41 years old, Veach became the second-youngest general manager to win a Super Bowl.

In 2018, the team notched a 12-4 record and third-straight AFC West title. The club earned a No. 1 seed in the playoffs and defeated the Indianapolis Colts 31-13 in the divisional round. The win marked Kansas City's first home playoff win since Jan. 8, 1994. The Chiefs hosted the first AFC Championship Game in franchise history, falling 37-31 in overtime to the eventual Super Bowl LIII Champion New England Patriots. Following the season, Mahomes became the first player in Chiefs history to be named NFL MVP as he became just the second quarterback (QB Peyton Manning in 2013) in NFL history to throw for 50 touchdowns and 5,000 passing yards in a single season.

In 2017, the club compiled a 10-6 record and led the division for the second-consecutive season, marking the first time in franchise history the Chiefs had won the division in back-to-back seasons.

The 2024 NFL Draft marked the seventh draft that Veach was at the helm of the personnel department. In seven drafts, he has made five first-round selections, including two in 2022. Veach has a reputation for being aggressive in the draft, especially in the first round. He has initiated a trade with the first-round selection in five of his seven drafts as general manager. In 2024, Veach traded up four spots from No. 32, selecting WR Xavier Worthy (Texas) with the 28th overall pick. He drafted DE Felix Anudike-Uzomah (Kansas State) with the 31st pick in 2023. In the 2022 NFL Draft, Veach traded up to select CB Trent McDuffie (Washington) with the 21st overall selection, and at No. 30, he selected DE George Karlaftis (Purdue). Veach traded the club's first round pick in 2021 as part of a deal acquiring T Orlando Brown from the Baltimore Ravens. The 2022 NFL Draft marked the first draft during Veach's tenure as GM that he made a first-round selection, picking RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire at No. 32. Veach traded the 2018 and 2019 first-round picks to Buffalo and Seattle, respectively. The 2018 first-round pick was part of the package to trade up in 2017 to select QB Patrick Mahomes, and the 2019 first-round selection was part of the deal to acquire DE Frank Clark.

Prior to being promoted to general manager, Veach played an integral role in the scouting process of QB Patrick Mahomes. The club's 22nd overall selection in the 2018 NFL Draft was traded to Buffalo in 2017 in order to move up and draft Mahomes 10th overall. In his first seven NFL seasons, Mahomes is a two-time NFL MVP (2018, 2022), as well as a three-time Super Bowl MVP (LIV, LVII, LVIII). Entering the 2024 NFL season, Mahomes owns 28,424 passing yards, 219 touchdowns and 63 INTs in his career and became the fastest player in NFL history to throw 20,000 passing yards, doing so in just 67 games.

Since Veach was elevated to general manager, he has proven his competitive approach to building the roster is ongoing. Prior to the 2022 NFL Draft, Veach traded WR Tyreek Hill to the Miami Dolphins in exchange for five draft picks, including three in the 2022 NFL Draft, giving the club 12 total picks that year, which was the most amount of picks Veach has had entering the draft. Ten of the 12 picks started at least one contest in the 2022 season. All but three of Veach's 23 draft picks from the 2021, 2022 and 2023 NFL Drafts are currently on the club's roster, and 10 of them started in one or both of the club's back-to-back Super Bowl Championship games.

Veach also has proven his due diligence in evaluating veteran talent both currently on the Chiefs roster or elsewhere around the NFL. During his time as General Manager, Veach has worked with players and their representatives to extend, re-sign or acquire several players. QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce and DE Chris Jones are the most notable players drafted by the club prior to Veach's time as GM that he has made a priority to keep in the red and gold. Similarly, his ability to evaluate and recruit veteran free agents has been proven as he's signed key contributors that have come in and played a significant role on the club's Super Bowl teams including - S Tyrann Mathieu (2019), DE Frank Clark (2019), S Justin Reid (2022), WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (2022), WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling (2022), T Jawaan Taylor (2023), T Donovan Smith (2023), LB Drue Tranquill (2023) and S Mike Edwards (2023).

DAN CRUMB

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

15TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 15TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Dan Crumb was named Kansas City's Chief Financial Officer on September 17, 2010, and added the title of Executive Vice President in March 2021. He enters his 15th season in the National Football League in 2024, working with Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and President Mark Donovan in directing the club's financial operations and supporting the team's business operations.

Since joining the Chiefs, Crumb has been instrumental in instituting changes that have improved the team's business performance and efficiency, employing the use of pricing models in a variety of business facets to ensure the club is planning for a future of growth across its football and business ventures. He also oversaw the implementation of new forecasting and budgeting, financial reporting, human resources/payroll and CRM systems along with the development of a company-wide internal business planning system complete with dashboarding and benchmarking tools to maximize efficiency in the business planning process.

Along with the club's finance, strategy and data analytics and accounting departments, Crumb also oversees the team's information technology department, which serves the technology needs of both the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises. For his work, Crumb was recognized as a 2016 CFO of the Year by the Kansas City Business Journal.

Throughout 2021, Crumb and the club's information technology department continued to strategically outsource software as a service partner while maintaining closer control on the internal systems needed to facilitate gameday and other major events at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. New solutions in payment processing as well as customer data, marketing and loyalty were introduced to improve the fan experience. Additionally, enhanced protective controls were added at both GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and the team's practice facility. Lastly, the technology team digitized many of the processes and displays in the club's player personnel department, including the evolution to dynamic scouting systems to allow more streamlined processes.

Crumb worked closely with the information technology department throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, ensuring that the team's e-commerce structure was sustainable while emphasizing vendor satisfaction. Crumb also led the charge on the club's transition to a virtual work environment, ensuring that many of the club's practices would be transferable to a post-pandemic environment.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Crumb, a New Orleans native, worked for the New Orleans Hornets of the National Basketball Association as the team's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. During his time with the Hornets, he led the club's finance, human resources and information technology departments. He oversaw the transition of the finance department from Oklahoma City to New Orleans following Hurricane Katrina. In addition to financial leadership, Crumb was responsible for compliance with league standards and policies.

Before joining the Hornets, Crumb served as the Chief Financial Officer of Abita Springs Water Company, Inc. He guided the company's rebuilding efforts through Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, which included adjusting the company's business model, procuring product from alternate sources and preparing business interruption and property and casualty claims related to Hurricane Katrina. He also managed the company's finance, information technology and human resources departments for the organization's multi-state operation. Crumb began his professional career at KPMG, an international audit, tax and advisory firm.

An active member of the New Orleans community, Crumb served on the Board of Directors for The Salvation Army, Café Hope and Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater New Orleans and Acadiana. He was also a guest lecturer at the Tulane University Law School Sports Law Program and has authored a number of articles for national and state CPA society journals.

Crumb has brought that same community involvement to the Midwest and is part of numerous philanthropic organizations in Kansas City. He sat on the Board of Trustees for the National World War I Museum and Memorial for nearly a decade and served as chairman of their Gallery Refresh Task Force for three years. He is a member of the Board of Directors for the Truman Library Institute and the United Way of Greater Kansas City and been involved with Harvesters Community Food Network since 2011, having served as a past chair. He also brings his expertise to colleges across the country with yearly sports finance presentations to business students at Tulane University and the Universities of Alaska, Nebraska, Oregon, San Francisco and Wyoming.

In addition to his community service, Crumb is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants. He also served on the Board of Directors of the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Education: University of New Orleans (B.S. Finance 1987); Tulane University (M.B.A. 1989). Family: Wife - Janet; Children - Pat and Ally.

Lara Krug was hired as Kansas City's Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer on June 29, 2021 and begins her fourth season in the National Football League in 2024.

As the first CMO in franchise history, Krug oversees all club marketing functions, including brand marketing; community outreach; digital, social and website operations; influencer activation; event entertainment; content production and the Hunt Family Foundation. Krug is also responsible for all consumer products as well.

Reporting directly to team President Mark Donovan, she strategically and proactively works across the organization to identify opportunities to help internal and external stakeholders achieve key growth objectives. Employing short- and long-term strategies, Krug and the marketing team are focused on brand extensions and loyalty with current and new fans; engaging with Chiefs Kingdom through original content across all the club's social, digital and mobile channels; as well as creating once-in-a-lifetime experiences domestically and globally in an effort to welcome all to Chiefs Kingdom.

In addition to managing all domestic marketing efforts for the team, Krug is leading the club's international growth in both Germany and Mexico as part of the NFL's IHMA (International Home Marketing Area) announcement in 2021. This league initiative grants clubs access to international territories for marketing, fan engagement and commercialization, enabling the Chiefs to build a more robust global brand while driving NFL fan growth internationally. Krug and her team helped secure the club's first ever game in Germany in the 2023 season and activated the "Chiefs ChampionShip," a yacht fan activation on the banks of the Main River in central Frankfurt that served as a fan hub for new and loyal fans to experience Chiefs Kingdom.

Krug also played a role in the city hosting the 2023 NFL Draft with historic and iconic Union Station and the National WWI Museum and Memorial serving as the backdrop to one of the event's largest footprints. Fans of all teams attending the NFL Draft got to take a peak into the unique experience of Chiefs Kingdom through the "Chiefs Kingdom Experience," which combined the rich history of the franchise with the immersive experience that can only be found at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Krug spent more than seven years in multiple marketing roles with Anheuser-Busch InBev, eventually taking over as Vice President of U.S. Marketing for Stella Artois (2018-21). Before leading the national marketing efforts for Stella Artois, she served as the Vice President of U.S. Marketing for Anheuser-Busch InBev's Regional Brands, including Estrella Jalisco, Landshark, Presidenté, Beck's and Kirin. Those roles saw her develop and lead experiential platforms and campaigns around Super Bowl LIV (2020) and the FIFA World Cup (2018). She also held positions as the Director of Global Experiential Marketing and Director of Global Digital and Media Operations at Anheuser-Busch InBev.

Before joining A-B InBev, she spent three years with L'Oréal USA, where she finished her time as Associate Vice President of Global Digital Marketing, overseeing the creation of digital and social content toolkits, CRM and data capture strategy. Prior to L'Oréal, Krug was the Manager of Online Marketing for Avon Inc. and Avon.com and was a Media Strategist for multiple national clients at PHD Media.

Krug became a board member for EarlyStart in 2024 and is also on Future Council for the Effie's, an organization that drives education and awards programs for effective marketing campaigns and platforms.

Education: Miami University (B.A. 2007). Family: Husband - Colin; Children - Blake and Carter.

MATT KENNY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF ARROWHEAD OPERATIONS AND EVENTS

8TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 8TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Matt Kenny was promoted to Kansas City's Executive Vice President of Operations and Events on March 23, 2021 after originally joining the team as the Vice President of Stadium Services and Events in September 2017. He is entering his eighth season with the club in 2024.

Kenny oversees the security, operations, and fan experience of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and the University of Kansas Health System Training Complex. His purview includes capital planning, facilities, maintenance, grounds parking and logistics, event operations, guest services, concessions and merchandise partners. He also oversees Arrowhead Events, the non-football revenue-generating arm of the Chiefs, the team's training camp and is the club's main point of contact with the Jackson County Sports Complex Authority.

Kenny is also leading the evolution of the club's retail and hospitality experience. With the guiding principles of speed of service, quality product, customer value and optionality, the advancements include the transition to frictionless and cashless payments, introduction and expansion of mobile ordering, kiosk order and payment and grab-and-go concessions stands. Additionally, Kenny has spearheaded the introduction of six new all-inclusive club spaces inside the stadium, the development of the Ford Tailgate District, the repositioning of the Tailgate Suites presented by Tickets for Less and the redesign and renovation of the retail experience at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

Arrowhead Events continues to drive the event calendar and utilization of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium throughout the calendar year with regional and world class events including biggest touring artists, motor sports, NCAA, Division I Football and international soccer.

Kenny is part of a group of team and civic leaders, which included the Kansas City Sports Commission, who successfully secured the bid for Kansas City to host the 2023 NFL Draft, and he was a member of the committee that successfully won Kansas City's bid to host 2026 FIFA World Cup Matches at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Kenny serves as the Chiefs representative on the board of KC2026, the entity responsible for planning and executing Kansas City's obligations to the six FIFA matches which includes a quarterfinal match.

Kenny joined the Chiefs after five years as Senior Director of Event Operations for the Chicago Cubs and Wrigley Field in Chicago. While in Chicago, he was responsible for leading event operations and transforming the guest experience. In addition, he led the development and operations of the enterprise-wide events business and served as an executive project manager and decision maker for the Wrigley Field restoration and related real estate developments.

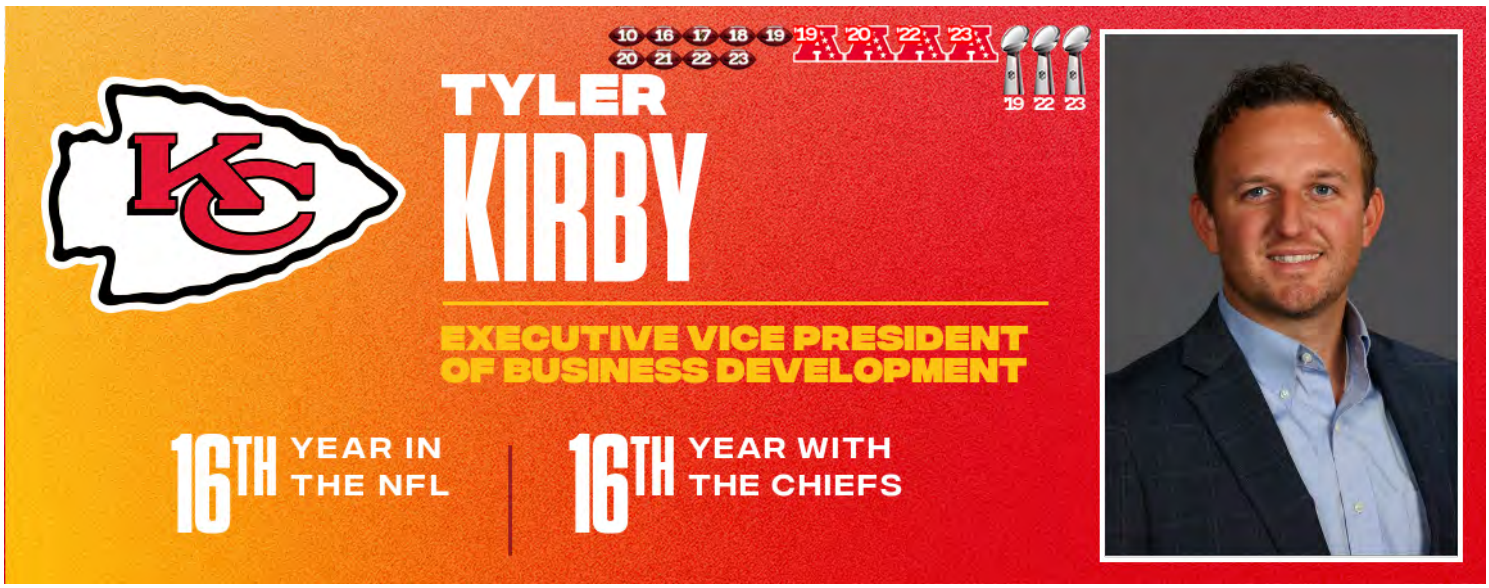

Prior to his time at Wrigley Field, Kenny served as Senior Director of Security and Event Services for the Milwaukee Brewers and Miller Park in Milwaukee. In his role, he oversaw all events and the guest experience at Miller Park, including food and beverage and parking partners, and supported the procurement of non-baseball event opportunities. In addition, he maintained relationships with the City of Milwaukee and the Stadium District.

Before joining the Major League Baseball ranks, Kenny worked for the Metropolitan Entertainment and Convention Authority in Omaha, Nebraska, serving as House Manager for Omaha Civic Auditorium. While there, he coordinated and managed all aspects of facilities and events at the venues, including the group's arena, convention center and theater.

He currently sits on the Board of Directors for the Kansas City Sports Commission, the Stadium Managers Association and serves on the aforementioned KC2026 board.

Kenny studied finance at Miami University's Richard T. Farmer School of Business in Oxford, Ohio, and continued his training at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management Executive Education Program.

Education: Miami University; Northwestern University. Family: Wife - Ann; Children - Charlie and Graham.

Tyler Kirby enters his 16th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 and is in his third season as the club's Executive Vice President of Business Development, having been promoted to the position in May 2022.

In his current position, Kirby oversees all aspects of the team's ticketing, premium and hospitality sales, client services and performance marketing efforts. Kirby's team focuses on growing fans through a fully digital and data-driven approach and a modernized ticketing operation and fan experience.

Over the years, Kirby has been integral in launching innovative ticketing initiatives at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium as well as strengthening the club's digital marketing efforts, using data and technology to transform the way the club connects with individuals, markets to fans and grows Chiefs Kingdom. Kirby's team has led sales efforts to create and enhance premium hospitality and experiences around the Chiefs and GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The club has consistently been an NFL leader in ticketing, digital marketing, premium hospitality and innovation during Kirby's tenure.

Prior to being elevated to his current position, Kirby served as the Vice President of Business Development for one year (2021), Vice President of Ticketing for four years (2017-20), Director of Ticket Sales and Operations for four years (2013-16) and spent two seasons as Ticket Sales Manager (2011-12) after originally being hired by the club as a Ticket Sales Representative in April of 2009.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, he spent time with the Illinois State University Athletic Department and as the Marketing Coordinator at U.S. Cellular Coliseum in Bloomington, Illinois.

Kirby received his bachelor's degree in marketing and business administration from Illinois State University in 2007 and received his MBA in marketing from the Bloch School of Management at the University of Missouri - Kansas City in 2011.

In 2024, Kirby was named to Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 class and is an alumni of the KC Chamber's Centurions Leadership Program after serving his two year term from 2017 to 2018.

Education: Illinois State University (B.A. 2007); University of Missouri - Kansas City (MBA 2011). Family: Wife - Ashley; Children – Colin, Emma and Addison.

Kirsten Krug enters her 15th season with the Chiefs in 2024 and her fourth year as the club's Executive Vice President of Administration after being promoted to the position on March 23, 2021. In her current role, Krug is responsible for overseeing all facets of human resources for the club, including benefits administration, recruiting, employee relations, compensation analysis, training and special projects.

She also oversees the club's Player Services Department, which includes the team's Player Engagement staff as well as the Vice President of Player Services and Assessment. Those departments are designed to assist players, coaches and staff members in making positive contributions to the Chiefs and the NFL as well as using various resources to help prepare individuals for life after football, including career placement and financial guidance. In addition, the team historian role reports to her.

In 2024, Krug accepted an invitation to join the inaugural steering committee for the NFL Women's Community to connect women across the National Football League. The NFL Women's Community will streamline communication and amplify resources available to women in the league and serve as a platform for resources, events, program and initiatives. As a member of the steering committee, Krug is tasked with implementing many new initiatives and providing input while representing the broader interests of the women of the National Football League.

In 2022, Krug was appointed to serve on the NFL Employee Benefit Committee which is responsible for administering club and league benefit plans. The NFL Investment Committee was established in 2003 as a separate entity to oversee the assets of retirement plans. The committee is responsible for all other areas including plan design and amendment, benefit and administrative expense payments and employee eligibility issues.

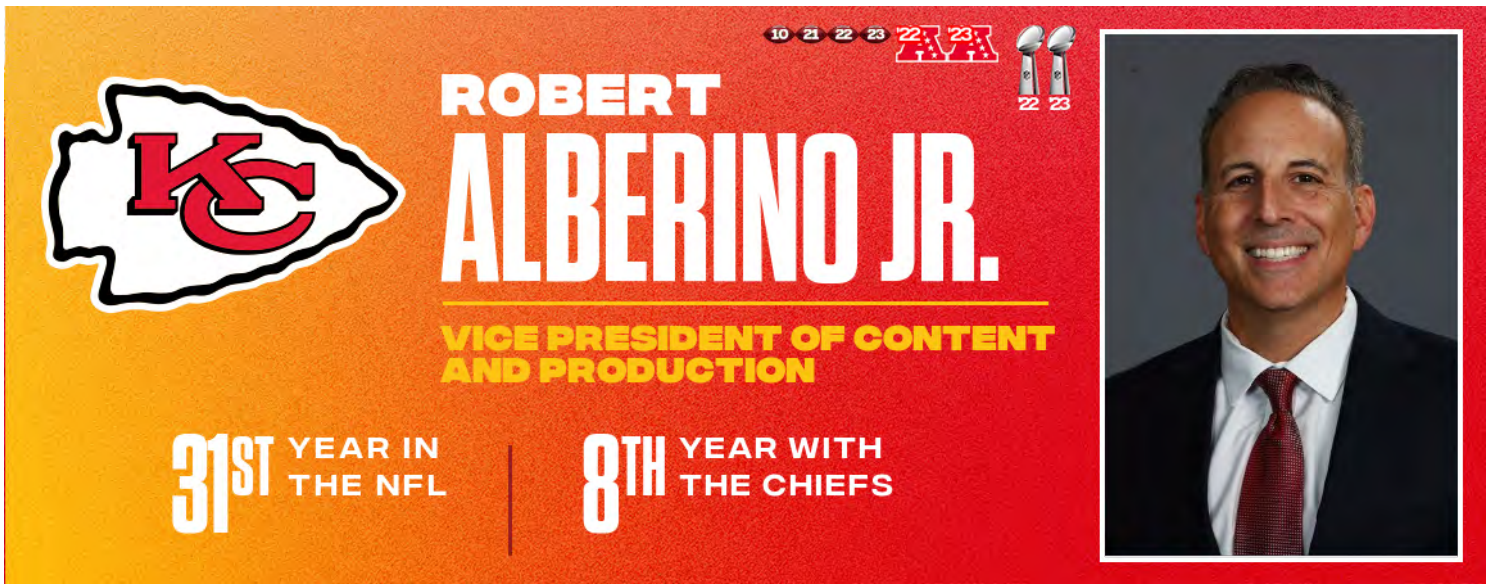

In 2020 and 2021, Krug served as one of two Infection Control Officers (ICOs) for the club during the pandemic-impacted football season, playing a vital role in the health and safety of staff members, coaches and players inside and outside of team facilities.

Prior to being named the Executive Vice President of Administration, Krug served as the Vice President of Administration for nine years (2012-20) and as Director of Human Resources for two years (2010-11). Before beginning her NFL career, she spent more than 13 years as the Director of Human Resources and Training for Amarr Garage Doors, one of the nation's largest manufacturers of residential and commercial garage doors. While there, she managed all aspects of human resources and training for the more than 600 employees that made up Amarr's workforce.

Prior to her stint at Amarr, Krug served as the Vice President of Business Development at the KU Credit Union and as a Quality Control Supervisor at Kemper Financial Services. The Lawrence, Kansas, native was a letter winner on the University of Kansas tennis team.

Krug currently sits on the Board of Directors for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City. She was appointed by the mayor of Lawrence, Kansas, to serve on the Lawrence Human Rights Commission for two consecutive terms. Her role with the commission includes overseeing the human rights code for Douglas County.

Education: University of Kansas (B.A. 1989). Family: Husband - Robin; Children - Ainsley and Payton.

Rob Alberino re-joined the Chiefs in 2021 as the Vice President of Content and Production after originally serving as the club's Vice President of Media and Marketing for four years (2010-13). He enters his eighth season with the club and his 31st season in the NFL in 2024.

Alberino leads all content efforts, including creation and distribution across the club's traditional, digital, social and over-the-top platforms. He also oversees all aspects of game production, presentation and entertainment elements at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

The 2022 season was the first time that Alberino oversaw a new division of production which helped launch the team and the brand into new international markets, as well as complete special projects and new long-form concepts. These efforts were delivered with best-in-class content to Chiefs fans in Germany and Mexico, helping grow Chiefs Kingdom overseas as well as expand the NFL's international fanbase.

In his first stint with the franchise, Alberino oversaw the club's media partnerships and creation of the in-house production team, 65 Toss Power Trap Productions, as well as the team's digital operations on Chiefs.com while playing a key role in the club's marketing initiatives. Under Alberino's direction, 65TPT garnered the franchise's first 18 Emmy Awards, as well as became the first NFL club to win a prestigious New York Festival Award.

He spent eight seasons (2013-20) as Vice President/Executive Producer for the San Francisco 49ers between his stops in Kansas City. With San Francisco, Alberino oversaw all marketing, creative and design, as well as the launch and direction of 49ers Studios, the team's in-house production division. His group created all multimedia and broadcasts across all platforms, while he managed branding, events, social media and new media efforts.

Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2010, Alberino spent 13 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (1997-2009) as Vice President of Broadcasting where he helped launch the Eagles Television Network, earning 38 Regional Emmys and more than 100 Tellys and other regional accolades. He spent three years (1995-97) as a filmmaker/producer with NFL Films where he was a writer/director for HBO's "Inside the NFL."

In 2012, while with the Chiefs, Alberino was bestowed an honorary enlistment in the United States Army and continues to pay forward the honor by continually working alongside all branches of the military. He sits on the Board of Directors for The First Twenty, a non-profit dedicated to improving the performance, health and safety of the American First Responder.

Education: Duquesne University (B.A. 1992). Family: Wife - Lisa; Children - Jordan, Angelina and Stella GiGi.

Kellen Begnoche enters his 14th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 and enters his second season as the club's Vice President of Partnership Strategy after being promoted to the role on May 16, 2023.

In his current role, Begnoche oversees all aspects of the club's current corporate partnership portfolio and manages all client relationships. Reporting to and working alongside the team's vice president of partnership strategy and development, he is responsible for securing long-term commitments and driving revenue growth within the club's existing client base, as well as discovering new revenue streams and identifying growth opportunities for current partners. In addition, he focuses on creating and executing brand activations that advance the brand's objectives, drive engagement and increase brand exposure.

He has more than a decade of experience serving in client service and activation roles for the club, most recently holding the title of Director of Service and Activation (2016-23). He also served as Client Services Manager (2015-16), Suite Services Manager (2014-15) and Suite Services Coordinator (2011-14).

Prior to joining the Chiefs in a full-time capacity, Begnoche completed marketing internships with both the Chiefs and Major League Baseball's Houston Astros in 2011 and was a marketing intern for Hallmark Cards in Kansas City from 2008-09.

Education: Kansas State University (B.S. 2009), Wichita State University (M.Ed. 2011). Family: Wife - Rachel; Children - three sons.

Nick Capo was promoted to Vice President of Event Operations on September 9, 2021 and enters his seventh season with the club in 2024 after originally joining the Chiefs in 2018 as the Director of Event Operations.

Reporting to the Executive Vice President of Arrowhead Operations and Events, Capo plans, directs and manages the day-to-day operations for all events at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, including football games, concerts and other special events. His team is responsible for the advance alignment and dissemination of all game and event-day details across the operation of the stadium.

In addition, Capo has provided operational support for key internal initiatives and special projects, including the team's four Super Bowl appearances following the 2019, 2020, 2022 and the 2023 seasons. Capo also served on the internal committee that launched Chiefs Fit, the team's two state-of-the-art fitness, health and wellness centers. He also oversees a staff of full-time managers in event services and event operations who support the sourcing, hiring and training of more than 500 seasonal union and non-union event staff members.

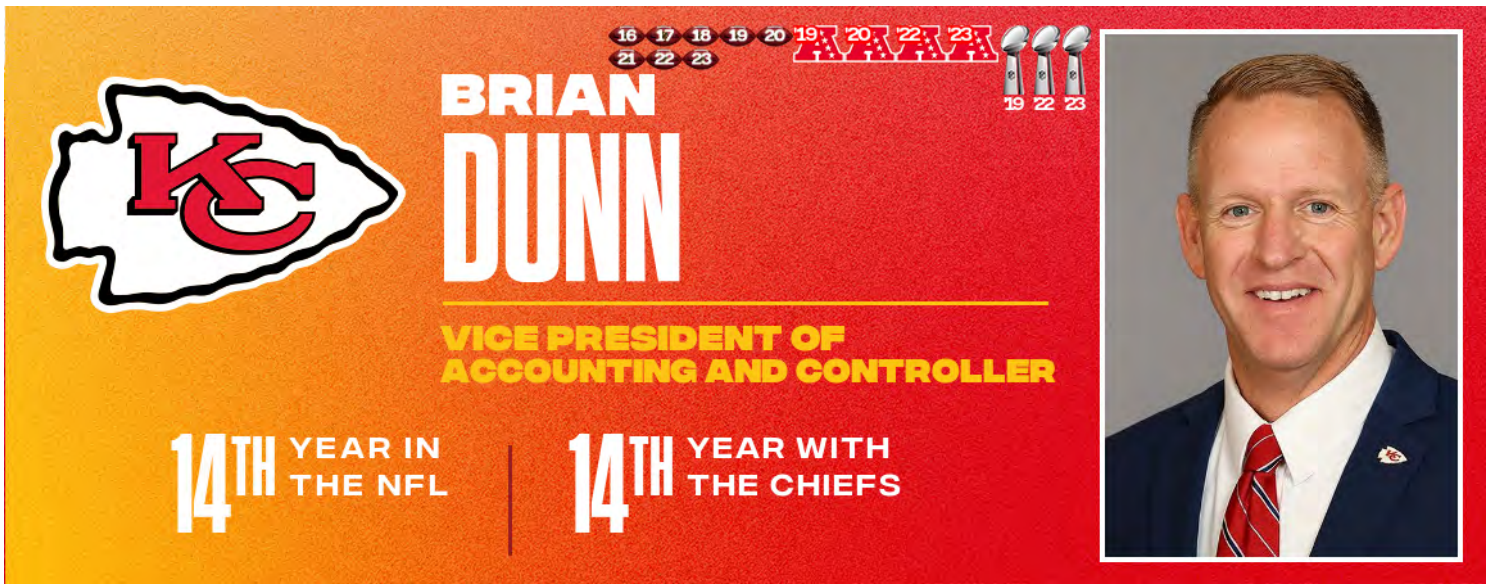

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Capo spent four years as the Senior Director of Ballpark Operations and Events for the San Diego Padres and Petco Park (2014-17). While in San Diego, he oversaw multiple departments, including security, event operations, guest services, groundskeeping, special events and ticket operations, and supported an event calendar that featured more than 150 baseball games and other special events. He served as the primary lead for operations and logistical planning for the 2016 Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Petco Park and was the club's primary contact with the City of San Diego related to the venue's event schedule.

Before making the jump to baseball, he spent 10 years (2005-14) in various managerial and director-level roles with both the Miami Dolphins and what is now Hard Rock Stadium. While in Miami, Capo served as the Executive Director of the Dolphins Cycling Challenge (2011-14), the Miami Dolphins premier fundraising event. He also served as Senior Director of Stadium Operations and Events (2010-12), Senior Manager of Stadium Operations (2008-10) and Manager of Event Operations (2005-07), handling many facets of operations for the football team and stadium, including event set-up and conversion, as well as staffing. He also completed two separate year-long internships with the Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium in 1999 and 2002.

Over the course of his professional career, Capo has worked a number of notable events, including 11 Super Bowls, an MLB All-Star Game, WrestleMania and multiple major stadium concert tours.

Capo graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management from Fort Hays State University in Hays, Kan.

Education: Fort Hays State University (B.A. 2002). Family: Wife – Kollisa; Children – Chloe, Cole and Cash.

Entering his 14th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024, Brian Dunn was promoted to Vice President of Accounting and Controller in May 2022.

In his position, Dunn oversees the club's financial and NFL reporting, payroll, cash management and all aspects of the club's accounting activities. Additionally, he assists in the team's annual budgeting process and oversees the operations of the Hunt Family Foundation 50/50 Raffle at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, which has raised more than $6 million for local charities since it was first introduced in 2013.

Dunn originally joined the Chiefs in 2011 as the team's controller. During his tenure, he has spearheaded efforts to improve the club's financial reporting systems, internal controls and processes. These improvements included the implementation of a variety of information technology solutions to automate processes and streamline reporting.

Prior to arriving at the Chiefs, Dunn served as Director of SEC Reporting and Compliance for CVR Energy (2008-11) focusing on external financial reporting, Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and technical accounting research. He also spent nearly nine years (1999-08) with KPMG LLP, one of the world's leading accounting and financial services firms, reaching the level of Senior Manager, serving clients in several industries, including financial services, professional sports and engineering.

He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Education: University of Kansas (B.S. Business/Accounting 1998; Master of Accounting and Information Systems 1999). Family: Wife – Mandi; Children – Mason, Sarah and Henry.

Brad Gee enters his 17th NFL season and 16th season with the Chiefs in 2024 and embarks on his fourth season as Vice President of Football Communications after being promoted to the position on September 9, 2021.

He originally joined the club as a public relations intern in 2009 before being hired full-time that same year. In 2011 he was promoted to Manager of Football Communications and has since continued his rise in shaping the club's football communications efforts as Assistant Director of Football Communications (2014-15) and most recently as Director of Football Communications (2016-20).

Gee works closely with the team's players, coaches, personnel executives and football operations departments on numerous projects and initiatives, including interviews, feature sit-downs, media preparation, team partnership obligations, internal and external player asks and special projects.

Over the last six seasons, Gee has been a part of the communications efforts for 17 postseason games over the past five years, a full additional season, which included the Chiefs hosting an NFL record five-straight AFC Championship Games, while appearing in six, and four Super Bowl appearances in five years. The three-time Super Bowl champion organized player and coach media responsibilities, schedules and preparations for Super Bowls LIV, LV, LVII and LVIII.

Gee oversees the club's day-to-day media operations and logistics, serving as the lead point of contact for media regularly assigned to cover the team. He is also the main liaison for the club's internal content teams.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Gee served as a communications intern with the Denver Broncos (2008) and was a training camp intern with the Broncos (2006-07), giving him a total of 17 NFL seasons and 19 NFL training camps.

He has worked nine Super Bowls, two Pro Bowls and one AFC Championship Game as a member of the NFL's public relations staff.

The Des Moines, Iowa, native graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications from Iowa State University in Ames, Iowa, where he spent three years working in the Iowa State Athletics Communications office. In 2024, Gee was honored for his continued dedication to young sports professionals and his commitment to Iowa State as he was selected as the 2024 Kansas City Cyclone of the Year. Gee was also honored with the 2024 Greenlee School of Journalism Professional Achievement award for a Greenlee graduate who exemplifies leadership, impact and achievement in the field.

Education: Iowa State University (B.A. 2008). Family: Wife – Megan; Children – Henry and Charlie.

Brandon Hamilton was named Kansas City's Vice President of Stadium Operations and Facilities on May 4, 2017 and is entering his 15th season with the Chiefs in 2024.

In his current role, Hamilton oversees all aspects of stadium systems, stadium maintenance and the stadium grounds for both GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and The University of Kansas Health System Training Complex.

Hamilton contributed to a team that successfully won the bid for the 2026 FIFA World Cup that is currently in the first phase of construction for a significant renovation at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium to ensure the field meets strict FIFA guidelines.Hamilton is a member of the NFL Green Initiatives program that plans and hosts discussion webinars for other NFL teams. He is also a member of the Stadium Managers Association where he sits on the Seminar Planning Committee.

In addition to regular maintenance of facilities and systems, Hamilton has overseen a number of stadium construction and renovation projects over the past 15 years, including a three-year seat replacement project, technology upgrades to the end zone scoreboards, suite upgrades and a complete Chiefs Team Store remodel. Hamilton helped manage the complete reimagination of the Chiefs Hall of Honor in the stadium's lower level concourse, as well as the renovation of the club's home locker room complex at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, both of which were unveiled prior to the start of the 2021 campaign.

With the coronavirus pandemic forcing the adoption of new COVID-19 protocols across the National Football League, Hamilton was appointed as a member of the club's Stadium Emergency Response Team, serving as the stadium's Infection Control Officer in 2020 and 2021. His team was a critical component in the successful relocation of training camp to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and The University of Kansas Health System Training Complex due to NFL COVID-19 policies in 2020.

In addition, Hamilton and the stadium operations staff were heavily involved in planning for the return of staff and fans to the venue, including the ordering and maintaining of cleaning products, equipment and PPE, as well as enhanced cleaning and sanitization plans for both the stadium and practice facility. Under his guidance, both the stadium and the practice facility achieved GBAC STAR Facility Accreditation from the Global Biorisk Advisory Council after demonstrating the proper cleaning protocols, disinfection techniques and work practices to combat biohazards and infectious disease.

Prior to being named Vice President of Stadium Operations and Facilities, Hamilton served as the club's Director of Facilities for seven seasons (2010-16). As the Director of Facilities, he was responsible for facility management of both the stadium and the club's practice facility and office complex.

Hamilton also directs the club's Extra Yard for the Environment program; a sustainability initiative designed to devise and implement new environmentally friendly policies. The program currently focuses on waste diversion, energy efficiency and recycling at both GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and The University of Kansas Health System Training Complex. He encourages fans to examine their sustainability efforts at home. Hamilton continues to work with national supply chain members to transform back-of-the-house concession waste into compostable products that can be diverted.

In May 2021, Hamilton was named to the Board of Directors of the Green Sports Alliance, an environmentally focused 501c(6) trade organization that convenes stakeholders from around the sports world to promote healthy, sustainable communities. Within the board, he is on the strategic planning committee and chair of a working group that is focused on improving the Play to Zero platform - a web application used to track sustainability performance.

Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2010, Hamilton served as Program Manager at The Konrath Group. During his time there he worked on the Arrowhead Stadium renovation that took place between 2007-10. Before that he spent a decade working in residential construction as a builder and superintendent.

Hamilton majored in geology and geography at Northwest Missouri State and completed studies at IAVM Venue Management School in 2014.

Education: Northwest Missouri State University (B.S. 1995).
Family: Wife - Cyndi; Children - Miranda, Kyle, Luke and Aiden.

Kevin Higgins begins his eighth season with the club in 2024 and is in his fourth season as the Vice President of Information Technology/CISO after being promoted to the position on Sept. 8, 2021.

Reporting to the club's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Higgins originally joined the franchise in 2017 as the Director of Information Technology and in 2019, added the title of Club Information Security Officer to his duties.

In his role he oversees the operations, management and security of information assets and technology resources for the club as well as Hunt Midwest. He and his staff handle all technology-related needs for the club, including device security and management, network security, product management, software development and help desk support. For his efforts, Higgins was recognized as a CIO Award recipient by the Info-Tech Research Group in 2020 and 2022 for extraordinary technology leadership. This award recognizes CIOs who have achieved a world-class level of business leadership satisfaction.

Throughout 2021, Higgins and his team continued to strategically outsource software-to-software as a service partner while maintaining closer control on the internal systems needed to facilitate a game day or other major events at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. New solutions in payment processing as well as customer data, marketing and loyalty were introduced to improve the fan experience. Additionally, enhanced protective controls were added for both building access and event credentialing. Lastly, the technology team digitized many of the processes and displays for the player personnel department, minimizing their dependence on paper and magnet boards.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Higgins held multiple director-level and executive roles in the information technology space focusing on data-informed technical and operational solutions to meet a variety of business needs. These stops included three years as the Chief Technology Officer at Ad Astra Information Systems in Overland Park, Kansas (2015-17), three years as IT Director for the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine in Leawood, Kansas (2013-15), and nearly seven years as Director of E-Commerce and Marketing Solutions at Collective Brands, Inc. in Topeka, Kansas (2007-13).

In addition, he made three professional stops in Atlanta, Georgia, in various IT capacities, including as the Director of Product Development at PRGX Inc. (2006-07) and Vice President of IT and E-Commerce at Anderson Press Inc. (2003-06). He also served as Chief Architect and Owner for Digital Research Enterprises, Inc., a family-owned professional services, software development and business consulting firm (1995-03).

Higgins graduated with a bachelor's degree in computer science from Kennesaw State University in Kennesaw, Ga.

Education: Kennesaw State University (B.S. 1994). Family: Wife - Heather; Children - John, Erin and Kathryn.

KIMBERLY HOBBS

VICE PRESIDENT OF PARTNERSHIP STRATEGY AND DEVELOPMENT

8TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 8TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Kimberly Hobbs enters her eighth season with the Chiefs in 2024 after being hired as Kansas City's Vice President of Partnership Strategy and Development on October 23, 2017.

In her role with the Chiefs, Hobbs oversees all new business, renewals, activation and service for corporate partnerships and media rights revenue streams and has helped the team generate record-setting results over the past few seasons. With the announcement of NFL IHMA (International Home Marketing Area) rights for the Chiefs in Germany and Mexico beginning in 2022, Hobbs is also leading the club's international revenue efforts as the team focuses on expanding brand awareness to fans in Germany and Mexico.

Hobbs was instrumental in securing the first stadium naming rights agreement in franchise history, which was announced in March 2021. The agreement with GEHA (Government Employees Health Association, Inc.) expanded on the existing, robust relationship between the Chiefs and GEHA, creating GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The long-term agreement preserves Arrowhead Stadium as part of the venue's identity and runs through the end of the stadium lease agreement with the Jackson County Sports Complex Authority.

Hobbs joined the Chiefs after seven years (2011-17) with the T-Mobile Center and its parent company, Anshutz Entertainment Group. Most recently, she spent four years as Vice President of Corporate Sales and Services/Partnerships and Premium Services (2014-17) after three years (2011-13) as Director of Corporate Sales and Services. In her roles, she generated and developed new lines of business while providing strategic direction to the sales team to develop, grow and sell suite leases and premium club memberships.

Prior to her time at the T-Mobile Center, Hobbs served as the Director of Marketing and Activation at Silver Chalice, a Boulder, Colorado-based digital-focused marketing agency with an emphasis on new media assets in online and mobile platforms.

Early in her career, Hobbs spent a decade as the Group Manager for Corporate Sponsorship Marketing at Sprint Nextel Corporation in Overland Park, Kansas, focusing her time on sports and entertainment marketing. In her role, she developed sponsorship marketing strategy and property selection in the NFL, NASCAR, the United States Ski and Snowboard Association, as well as for the Tony Awards and the then Sprint Center.

Hobbs graduated from the University of Kansas in Lawrence, Kansas, with a bachelor's degree in journalism and earned a master's in education and athletic administration from Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. She is a board member of the Women's Intersport Network (WIN for KC), is the Board Chair for the Young Professional Alliance at The University of Kansas Health System, has been involved with Girls on the Run of Greater Kansas City and is on the board for the University of Kansas Alumni.

Education: University of Kansas (B.A. 1994); Ohio University (M.S. 1996).

Neale Hood enters his third season in the NFL and with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 after joining the club in June 2022 as the club's Vice President of Partnership Development. In his role he helps direct all new sales efforts, as well as assists in renewal efforts for the organization.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Hood spent more than a decade in partnership activation, business development and revenue generation at multiple stops in the motorsports industry. He was responsible for helping secure tens of millions of dollars in partnership and sponsorship agreements in that time.

He most recently served as the Senior Director of Partnerships for John Force Racing (2021-22), running the day-to-day sales operation and building out the racing team's initial commercial division. Prior to that stop, Hood spent three years (2018-20) as the Senior Director of Partnerships for Indianapolis Motor Speedway/INDYCAR, the premier level of open-wheel racing in North America.

He spent six years (2012-17) with two separate NASCAR teams, serving as the Director of Business Development and Marketing for Furniture Row Racing for three years (2015-17) and as the Director of Business Development for Michael Waltrip Racing (2012-15).

Hood had an initial stint at INDYCAR from 2010-12, serving as the Manager of Partner Strategy, running the INDYCAR Discover Card program and building a business-to-business platform for sales generation.

Education: Indiana University (B.A. 2008), Valparaiso University (M.S. 2010). Family: Wife - Amanda; Children - Holden.

Jayne Martin begins her 23rd season with the Chiefs in 2024 and her third as the club's Vice President of Fan Experience after being promoted to the role in May 2022.

Throughout her two decades with the Chiefs, Martin has focused her efforts on elevating guest service for the club. She originally joined the franchise as the Hospitality and Volunteer Programs Coordinator (2002-05) and went on to serve as the Hospitality and Volunteer Programs Manager (2005-09), Premium Services Manager (2009-10), Customer Relations Manager (2010-13) and most recently spent nine years as the Director of Fan Experience (2013-21).

In 2022, Martin took the reigns of the event services team which includes working with more than 750 event staff members to deliver "Championship Service", aligning with vendor partners to create one service team, and focusing on staff experiences. Martin was voted the 2023 City Year Idealist of the Year.

In her position, she leads a full-time, fan-facing guest services team that is committed to enhancing the fan experience, managing fan and Season Ticket Member communication, as well as providing year-round Season Ticket Member programs and experiences. In addition, she oversees fan conduct initiatives, tracks fan insights and sentiment, and serves on the NFL Guest Services Committee.

She was instrumental in the development and expansion of the club's "Championship Service" platform for GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and has developed and coordinated the execution of numerous Season Ticket Member events and gifts, including a celebration of the club's 50th anniversary in Kansas City and a STM anniversary recognition program.

In addition to her guest service roles with the Chiefs, she also spent a number of years managing alumni player and Kansas City Ambassador relationships, as well as coordinated the unique Chiefs Red Coater Program.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Martin worked as the Marketing Coordinator (1998-00) and Marketing Manager (2001) for Polo Ralph Lauren.

Education: Ole Miss (B.S. 1998). Family: Husband – Mike Carroll; Children – Tag, Merit and Gray Martin; Cade, Ellie, Mollie and Max Carroll.

ANTHONY MATTHIES

VICE PRESIDENT OF PREMIUM SALES

17TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 16TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Anthony Matthies enters his 16th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 and is in his second stint with the club. Matthies first joined the Chiefs in 2008 as a Suite Sales Manager before departing the team in 2012. He rejoined the Chiefs in 2014 as Manager of Suite Sales and was promptly promoted in 2015 to Director of Suite Sales.

Matthies oversees all premium sales offerings, working directly with and further securing corporate partners and suite holders. Matthies and his team prioritize strong execution of experiences while also offering innovative and fresh experiences collaborating frequently with the club's partnerships team to offer the best fit to each premium space holder.

From 2022 to 2024, Matthies served as the Senior Director of Premium Sales, focusing on developing and implementing sales and marketing business plans and strategies to deliver premium offerings and profitability opportunities for corporate partners and suite holders. During his time as Senior Director of Premium Sales, Matthies utilized unique spaces such as Chiefs Tailgate Suites to make each experience unique.

Matthies' time in San Francisco with the 49ers was spent as the Manager of New Stadium Suite Sales for Legends Sales and Marketing (2012-13). His two years with the 49ers focused on the business development ahead of the opening of Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif. In his first season with the 49ers (2012), Matthies experienced a unique sales landscape as the 49ers reached Super Bowl XLVII.

Once promoted to Director of Suite Sales in 2015 after his return to Kansas City in 2014, Matthies focused on local and regional corporate prospects. In May 2018, Matthies added corporate partnership responsibilities to his plate, being elevated to Director of Partnerships and Suite Sales. In his first stint with the Chiefs (2008-12), Matthies joined the Chiefs in the midst of the GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium's renovations, creating unique, new premium space opportunities.

Prior to his time with Kansas City, Matthies had several other sports stops along the way including a role in premium seats and sales with the Phoenix Coyotes of the NHL and at Cricket Pavilion in the Phoenix area. Matthies originally entered the sports space with time at Louisiana State University (1999-00) and Arizona State University (2000) after gaining premium space sales experience in the concert and entertainment industry.

Matthies is in his 11th year on the Board of Directors for the Kansas and Missouri Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF) and has contributed his time to the Kansas City community as a youth sports coach over the years. Matthies graduated from Wayne State College in Wayne, Neb. with a degree in sport management and later earned his MBA from Park University in Parkville, Mo.

Education: Wayne State College (B.A. 1999), Park University (MBA 2020). Family: Wife – Jennifer; Children - Cecilia and Dominick.

Michael Ragsdale enters his 18th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 and was promoted to Vice President of Finance, Strategy and Analytics in May 2022.

In his role, Ragsdale is responsible for all areas of finance, including budgeting, forecasting and reporting, as well as the club's data science efforts, including analytics and business intelligence. Over his tenure, he has also been involved in helping revamp the club's financial systems and also serves as the lead analyst for Arrowhead Events, the team's dedicated special events business that brings concert, college football, motorsports and other events to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

Ragsdale originally joined the Chiefs in 2007 as a staff accountant and worked in that capacity until 2016 when he was promoted to Director of Financial Planning and Analysis (2016-18). He most recently served as Director of Strategy and Analytics (2019-21).

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Ragsdale spent nearly three years at the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City. He received his Bachelor of Science in accounting and finance from Rockhurst University in Kansas City and went on to earn a Master of Business Administration in accounting and finance from Rockhurst while with the Chiefs.

He is a member of both the Missouri Society of Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and has been a CPA since 2016. He currently serves on the American Cancer Society Charmen's Circle. He previously served as a Young Alumni Trustee for the Rockhurst University Board of Trustees and was a member of the board for the Young Professional Association at The University of Kansas Health System.

Education: Rockhurst University (B.S. 2007; MBA 2009).
Family: Wife – Kelsey; Children – Rose, Tessa and Benson.

Anne Scharf has served as Vice President of Community Impact and Civic Affairs since May 2022, and she enters her 16th season with the Chiefs and her 22nd season with the NFL in 2024.

In her role, she is responsible for the community engagement strategy for the Chiefs organization, including philanthropy, community impact, community partnerships and community activations. She oversees the Hunt Family Foundation which provides wide-ranging support for local children facing barriers to opportunity and is also responsible for the Chiefs organization's governmental and civic affairs. She also provides support for club ownership and team executives as it relates to civic engagement and responsibility.

The Hunt Family Foundation serves as a separate non-profit entity that supports the team's community outreach efforts and provides vital support to more than 100 local agencies annually. Signature community partnerships include the Chiefs Charity Game, which has raised more than $15.5 million for local charities, an education-based partnership with City Year Kansas City supporting the Kansas City Public School District and a collaboration with MOCSA to expand their programs that prevent sexual violence and increase awareness about victim services in Kansas City. In 2023, the Chiefs and Hunt Family Foundation provided more than $4 million in financial support to over 100 organizations in the greater Kansas City area. Over the past 10 years, the Chiefs and Hunt Family Foundation philanthropic footprint has surpassed $30 million.

Scharf has also been instrumental in several of the club's community focused efforts, including education, food insecurity, children's health and wellness and Inspire Change efforts to help support historically under resourced communities. This work has included voter registration efforts and overseeing the effort for GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium to serve as a polling location for the November 2020 general election.

Since 2013, Scharf has been responsible for all government relations and civic affairs for the Chiefs organization in Kansas City and across Missouri. She represents the Chiefs organization with lobbying efforts in Jefferson City and works in partnership with other local civic groups to advocate for the Chiefs organization and the Kansas City region.

Scharf originally joined the Chiefs in December of 2009 as the club's Manager of Business Operations, spending more than four years supporting business development and strategic planning for the organization. In February of 2014, she was promoted to Director of Foundation and Development, eventually taking on the title of Director of Foundation and Civic Affairs in May of 2017, when she began overseeing the club's community outreach efforts.

She joined the Chiefs after six years with the National Football League office in New York City where she worked in the International Media and Events departments, with a focus on business development efforts for special events, including the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl, Draft and International Series.

Scharf currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Metropolitan Organization to Counter Sexual Assault (MOCSA), the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Kansas City and Visit KC. She is also a graduate of the Kansas City Civic Council's Kansas City Tomorrow program. Previously she served on the Board of Directors for The Children's Place, the Jewish Community Center of Greater Kansas City and has participated in the Governance Academy for the United Way of Greater Kansas City.

She earned her bachelor's degree in history from Yale University, where she was captain of the Yale field hockey team and was a member of both the Yale College Council and the Yale Community Outreach Committee.

Education: Yale University (B.A. 2001). Family: Husband - Brian; Children - Charlie and Tommy.

Luke Shanno enters his 16th season with the Kansas City Chiefs and first as the Vice President of Corporate Communications in 2024.

Prior to being elevated to his current position, Shanno held various titles after arriving in Kansas City in 2009 as a Communications Seasonal Assistant. After two internship seasons, he served as the Communications Coordinator for three seasons (2011-13), Corporate Communications Manager for seven seasons (2014-20) and Sr. Director of Corporate Communications for three seasons (2021-23). Shanno entered the NFL with the Green Bay Packers in 2008 as a training camp intern.

In 2014, Shanno became the first communications staff member dedicated to corporate communications, and since then he has worked with key executives, including ownership, the team president, and the executive leadership team on media planning, event planning, presentation and speaking engagement preparation, internal communication strategy, award nominations, story pitching, crisis communications, and other special projects. Shanno focuses on developing and maintaining relationships with members of the media. He serves a vital role within the organization working with various departments, pitching club campaigns, lifestyle, entertainment, and off-field storylines to help the organization drive earned media value across the business portfolio each year.

In his role, Shanno serves as the main communications representative for Arrowhead Events, the club's special events arm that secures major stadium events, including concerts, college football games, international soccer matches, and other events. Shanno has also served as the club's main communications representative for various events involving the organization, including preparations for the 2023 NFL Draft in Kansas City, 2024 Copa America and 2026 FIFA World Cup planning.

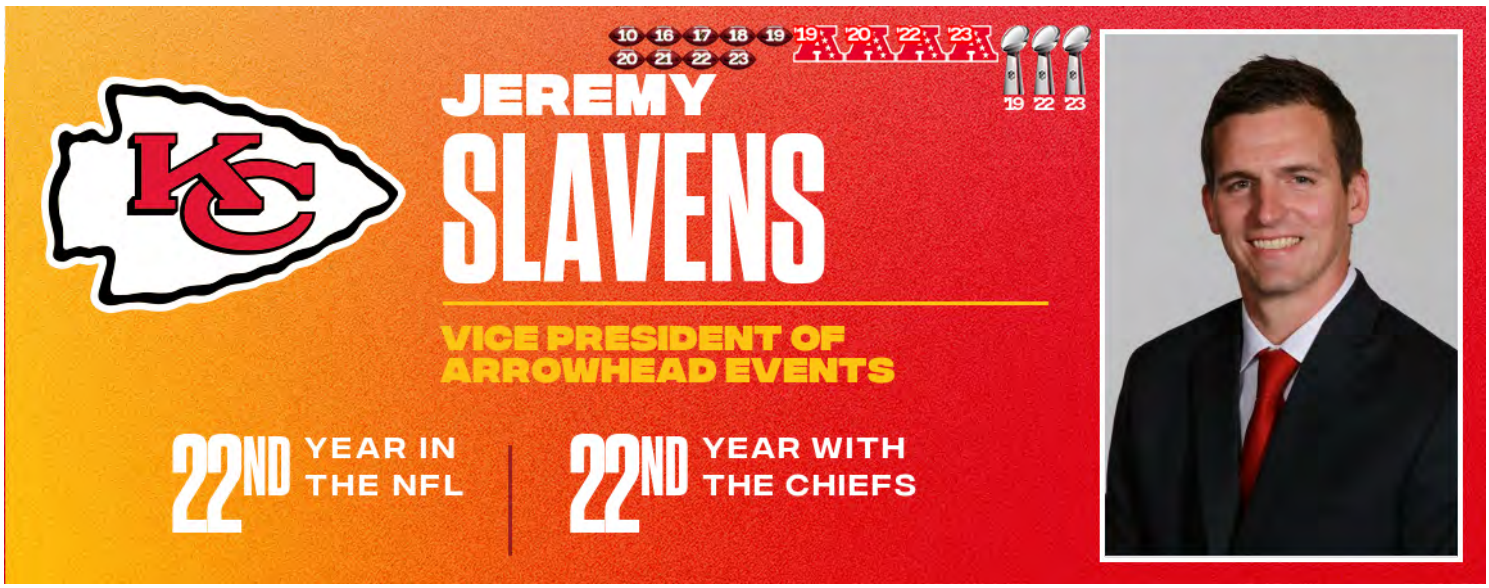

Shanno leads the organization's international communications efforts which began in 2014 when he served as the communications representative to the Chiefs London Committee as the team prepared for a 2015 NFL International Series game in the United Kingdom. His role expanded in 2021 as the club announced its International Home Marketing Area rights for Germany and Mexico, and now also includes Austria and Switzerland. He was a member of the team's Germany Game Committee in 2023, working closely with a cross-functional team of internal staff, NFL staff and multiple in-market agencies to support communications and media operations needs for the NFL's first International Series game in Frankfurt, Germany.

During Shanno's tenure in Kansas City, the club has played in four Super Bowls (LIV, LV, LVII, LVIII), winning three championships (LIV, LVII, LVIII). Prior to each game, Shanno sat on an internal working group supporting the planning and execution of potential Super Bowl trips.

He also consistently offers communications insights and assistance to the club's roster of business partners to ideate around joint opportunities and unique storylines, including two separate naming rights agreements at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and The University of Kansas Health System Training Complex. In 2021, Shanno led the communications efforts promoting Chiefs Fit, the club's multi-location team-themed fitness center concept developed in partnership with M6 Football. He has served as the communications representative to the Chiefs Green Initiative beginning in 2011 to help roll out a multi-step, multi-year sustainability program focused on increasing recycling efforts and decreasing the carbon footprint at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

A native of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Shanno graduated in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in public relations and a minor in business from Wartburg College where he spent four years working in the sports information department and served two years as student assistant to the Sports Information Director.

Education: Wartburg College (B.A. 2009).

Jeremy Slavens enters his 22nd season with the Chiefs in 2024 and his fourth as the club's Vice President of Arrowhead Events after being promoted to the newly created position on September 8, 2021. He previously served seven seasons (2014-20) as the team's Director of Events.

Reporting to the Executive Vice President of Arrowhead Operations and Events, Slavens is responsible for all aspects of Arrowhead Events, the team's non-football revenue-generating events business that works to make GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium a year-round entertainment destination that serves the entire Midwest region. This includes the development and fostering of local and national relationships with promoters of all types across the sports and entertainment industry.

These efforts account for many of the organization's largest events, including major concert tours, motorsports, international soccer matches, college football games, stadium festivals, 5K runs and corporate events. In addition, Slavens directs the franchise's training camp operations at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri, serving as the key liaison between the team's football operations and the college, as well as overseeing a staff responsible for the daily operation of the fan-facing elements of training camp.

In 2023, Slavens and his team helped create a record setting year for Arrowhead Events. Seven large scale events were hosted in the venue, which included six concerts, the most in one year in venue history. Together, this accumulated a local economic impact of over $55 million across the Arrowhead Events line of business. In 2024, they have already hosted a Sporting KC soccer match which held the largest attendance in Missouri history and the third largest attendance for a standalone MLS regular season match. The event season is not slowing down as more concerts, soccer matches and events are being welcomed back to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, including college football for the first time since 2015.

Slavens also oversees the corporate event sales staff, the corporate event operations staff and the stadium tour staff, with the group typically selling and operating more than 300 events at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium annually.

Additionally, he served on the bid committee that secured the 2023 NFL Draft for Kansas City and was a member of KC2026, Kansas City's Executive Committee that was successfully awarded host city status for the 2026 FIFA World Cup, with matches slated for GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

He originally joined the Chiefs in 2000 as a sponsorship intern and went on to spend three years (2001-03) as a Sponsorship Coordinator with the Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting KC), which was under Hunt family ownership at the time. In 2004, Slavens was hired by the Chiefs as a Sponsorship Coordinator and went on to become the club's Marketing Manager (2006-09) and eventually the Manager of Special Events and Marketing (2009-10). During that time he worked on integrated marketing and media plans for sales and special events, as well as performing customer and market research.

In 2011, he was named Director of Marketing and Special Events where he spent three full seasons focusing on marketing campaigns that encompassed a wide range of team initiatives and fan-facing events before being named Director of Events (2014-2020), where his sole focus became attracting and creating events to generate a sustained annual revenue source for the club.

Slavens graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Westminster College in Fulton, Mo., and is a 2018 graduate of the Venue Management School at the International Association of Venue Managers.

Education: Westminster College (B.A. 2000). Family: Wife - Tammy; Son - Henry.

JUSTIN SAUSER

VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKETING

14TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 14TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

DR. SHAUN TYRANCE

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER SERVICES AND ASSESSMENT

6TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 6TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Shaun Tyrance originally joined the Kansas City Chiefs in 2019 as the franchise's first in-house clinician and enters his sixth season with the club in 2024. He was promoted to Vice President of Player Services and Assessment in May 2022.

In the newly developed role as Vice President of Player Services and Assessment, Tyrance focuses on all aspects of behavioral health, wellness and performance psychology for all club employees, including players, coaches and staff. Tyrance also provides special programming for the team's rookies and players on injured reserve, as well as spearheads the organization's Inspire Change initiative, Kingdom United. The mission of Kingdom United is to use inclusion-themed books to teach elementary school students to appreciate each other's differences and embrace everyone for who they are. Kingdom United has donated over 65,000 books to more than 12,000 students, and the program has generated over 4,000 hours of diversity, equity and inclusion conversations in the classroom.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Tyrance had opened a successful private practice in Charlotte, N.C., in 2010, where he provided mental health counseling, leadership development and mental skills training to college and professional athletes. In addition to working with athletes and coaches, Tyrance has consulted with Fortune 500 companies to help them hire and develop top talent within their organizations.

Tyrance also spent a decade working in collegiate and professional athletics, serving as the Director of Sport Psychology for the University of North Carolina at Charlotte (2007-10), the Director of Sport Psychology for Chip Ganassi Racing, a multi-car NASCAR team (2006-07), and as the Academic Coordinator for football at North Carolina State University (2003-06).

In addition to being a licensed clinical mental health counselor, Tyrance is certified in multiple psychometric tools, including the Hogan Personality Assessments, 16PF, Birkman First Look, and Saville Wave Assessment. In 2023, Tyrance also earned his certification as a mental performance consultant (CMPC). He has been published in periodicals and is the co-author of Winning at the College Level: Thriving as a First-Year Student-Athlete and The Career Game Plan: Preparing Student-Athletes to Compete and Win in the World of Work.

DAVE TOUB

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

TOUB'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1980-81	Springfield College	Offensive Lineman
1983-84	Texas-El Paso	Offensive Lineman
1986-88	Texas-El Paso	Grad. Assistant ('86)

2001-03	Philadelphia Eagles	Asst. ST/Asst. DL
2004-12	Chicago Bears	Special Teams Coord.
		Asst. Head Coach/Special Teams Coord. ('18-24)

Dave Toub enters his 12th season in Kansas City in 2024. He added assistant head coach to his title in 2018 after serving five seasons (2013-17) as the club's special teams coordinator.

In his 12 seasons, the Chiefs have won a franchise-record eight-straight AFC West titles, appeared in six straight AFC Championship Games, hosted an NFL-record five-consecutive AFCCGs, appeared in four Super Bowls in five years (LIV, LV, LVII and LVIII) and added a third Super Bowl ring to his collection in 2023 (LIV, LVII and LVIII). In 11 seasons under Toub, the Chiefs special teams units have led the league in several categories. Since 2013, the club ranks first in punt return yards (3,962), first in return touchdowns (14 total - eight PR, six KR), third in punt return average (9.7) and tied for first in return touchdowns allowed (one). The Chiefs are second all-time for single-season kick return average in NFL history from their 2013 performance of 29.9 yards per return. Toub will see a product of his coaching cemented into the 2024 Pro Football Hall of Fame in August when WR and return specialist Devin Hester is inducted. Toub coached Hester from 2006-12 which included three of his four Pro Bowl selections (2006-07, 2010), an AP All-Pro Selection (2010), three PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team selections (2006-07, 2010) and his 92-yard kickoff return to open Super Bowl XLI – the only time in SB history that has occurred.

Toub coached a highly productive Chiefs kicking unit (K Harrison Butker, LS James Winchester, P/H Tommy Townsend) for four years and remains the coach of Butker and 10-year veteran, Winchester. Butker joined the Chiefs in 2017 and has rewritten the Chiefs history book. He ranks third in career points scored (900) and has made 197 of his 221 FGs (89.1%) – 28 of which are 50+ yards, another franchise record. Butker converted four field goals in Super Bowl LVIII - tied for the most in a Super Bowl - and set a Super Bowl record for longest made FG in Super Bowl history (57 yards). His 57-yarder was his sixth 50+ yard field goal in the postseason, surpassing Adam Vinatieri (five) for the most 50+ yarders in NFL postseason history. In just four years as a Chief, Townsend made a name for himself, averaging 47.4 yards per punt with 82 punts inside the 20-yard line – the third-most in Chiefs history.

The 2023 season was Butker's best of his career, going 33-for-35 (94.3%) on field goals and a perfect 38-for-38 on PATs. Butker totaled 137 points throughout the season, tying his second-most points in a season (147 in 2019). Butker converted five regular season field goals of 50+ yards and two in the postseason. In the postseason, Butker did not miss a field goal or PAT and set new single-postseason records for himself with 41 points and 11 field goals, helping propel the team to their second-straight Super Bowl title (LVII, LVIII). Townsend had single-season records of 59 punts and 2,469 net yards, flipping the field in key moments. Toub utilized newcomer WR Richie James at punt and kick return who went on to average 20.8 yards on kick return (nine returns) and 10.0 yards on punt return (20 returns).

In 2022, Toub faced injuries and youth with Butker experiencing a Week 1 ankle injury and having to fulfill both the kick and punt return positions. Butker missed four games due to his early injury but returned to make 17-of-23 regular season FGs and nailed a 62-yard FG (Week 6 vs. Buffalo), the longest in Chiefs history. Townsend also had a standout year, recording two of the top five longest punts in franchise history (Week 2 vs. L.A. Chargers, 74-yards and Week 14 at Denver, 76-yards). He led the league in net punting average (45.58) and was second in the league for punting average (50.42) - both of which were Chiefs single season records. Toub mentored rookie RB Isiah Pacheco to average 20.6 yards per return to fill the kick return role and utilized WR Kadarius Toney throughout the season who recorded a Super Bowl record-setting punt return of 65 yards.

In 2021, Butker made 25 of his 28 field goals and hit 47-of-49 PAT's on the season, his second best percentage of his career (95.9). The special teams unit ranked third in punt return average (12.0 yards) and tied for third in punt returns over 20 yards with four.

In 2020, Toub's special teams units ranked in the top 10 in field goal percentage (92.6%) and average starting field position after kickoff (25.8) en route to a second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. Butker converted 25 of his 27 field goal attempts and converted two 58-yard field goals in the Week 2 win over the Chargers to secure Week 2 AFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Townsend set a Chiefs single-game record 60.8 yards punting average in Week 4 vs. New England.

The 2019 Super Bowl Champion Chiefs special teams ranked in the top 10 in kick returns, kick return coverage and punt return coverage. To close out the regular season, rookie WR Mecole Hardman took one to the house, returning a kick 104 yards, the third-longest kickoff return in franchise history. He was named second-team All-Pro as a kick returner and named to his first Pro Bowl as a return specialist. Butker set a franchise record for most points by a kicker in a single season with 147 points.

In 2018, the Chiefs special teams ranked in the top 10 in punt return, punt return coverage and kickoff return. Butker had a strong second season, making 24-of-27 kicks and P Dustin Colquitt placed 21 kicks inside the 20-yard line, moving him to third all-time in NFL history (441).

In 2017, the Chiefs led the NFL with 41 field goals, 38 of those FGs were made by rookie Butker who exceeded expectations since joining the team in Week 4.

Prior to arriving in Kansas City, Toub's special teams units in Chicago finished in the top third of the league for eight straight seasons (2004-11) according to the Dallas Morning News ranking system, including a No. 1 overall finish in 2006 and 2007. Toub was named Special Teams Coach of the Year in 2006 as voted on by his NFL coaching peers.

Toub guided five different Bears players to eight Pro Bowl berths, including PFHOF WR Devin Hester's three selections (2006-07 and 2010), WR Johnny Knox (2009), LB Brendon Ayanbadejo (2006-07), K Robbie Gould (2006) and S Corey Graham (2011).

During Toub's tenure, Chicago had an NFL-high 22 kick return touchdowns compiled by six different players. The Bears also added a touchdown return on two missed field goals and a 92-yard kickoff return touchdown in Super Bowl XLI. Toub helped Hester develop into the NFL's all-time leader in kick return touchdowns (17) while compiling the fifth-best punt return average (12.1 avg.).

During his stint with Philadelphia (2001-03), Toub helped Eagles Special Teams Coordinator John Harbaugh earn 2001 NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year honors.

Toub spent 15 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, most recently at Missouri where he coached the defensive line (1998-00) after nine years (1989-97) as the school's head strength coach. Toub began his coaching career in 1986 at his alma mater, Texas-El Paso, as a graduate assistant, and one year later was named the school's head strength and conditioning coach.

Toub was selected in the ninth round of the 1985 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles as a center. He also spent time with the Los Angeles Rams in 1986. At the University of Texas-El Paso, Toub was a two-time All-WAC selection and earned two Academic All-WAC nominations (1983-84). He was a two-time team captain and was named the program's most outstanding offensive lineman during his junior and senior seasons. He began his collegiate playing career as an offensive lineman at Springfield College in Springfield, Mass. (1980-81). He earned his Bachelor of Science and Master of Education degrees from UTEP.

Education: University of Texas - El Paso (B.S. 1986, M.E.1988). Born: Ossining, N.Y. Family: Wife - Cheryl; Children - Shane and Nicolette.

Matt Nagy enters his eighth season with the Chiefs in 2024 and fourth as the team's offensive coordinator. Nagy was promoted to offensive coordinator after rejoining the club in 2022 as senior offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach after four years as head coach for the Chicago Bears (2018-21). During Nagy's first stint in KC, he led the offense in QB Patrick Mahomes' rookie season (2017) after serving as co-offensive coordinator alongside Brad Childress in 2016. He spent his first three seasons with the Chiefs as the quarterbacks coach (2013-15).

Nagy marked his first season back at offensive coordinator with a Super Bowl LVIII victory, notching back-to-back Super Bowl victories for Nagy. Nagy led QB Patrick Mahomes to produce another strong season with 401 completions on 597 attempts, marking his sixth-consecutive season with 4,000+ (4,183) passing yards and 25+ touchdown passes (27). Mahomes tacked on his third career Super Bowl MVP to his career. The 2023 offense was highlighted by the playing of TE Travis Kelce, RB Isiah Pacheco and rookie WR Rashee Rice. Kelce, in his 11th season, was the team's leading receiver with 984 yards with five touchdowns and had a historic postseason run with 355 receiving yards with 32 receptions and three touchdowns. Nagy helped guide Rice to a standout rookie year, rewriting many of the team's rookie records including receptions (79) and receiving touchdowns (seven) and was second on the team in receiving yards (938). Pacheco bested his rookie performance with 205 rushes for 935 yards and seven touchdowns in his second season. He added 244 receiving yards and two touchdowns.

Nagy returned to Kansas City in 2022, reuniting with sixth-year MVP QB Mahomes. Under Nagy's tutelage, Mahomes completed 435 of his 638 passes en route to his second Super Bowl championship. His 67.1 completion percentage was the highest of his career. The sixth-year quarterback set franchise records for passing yards (5,250) and 300-yard games with 16 300-yard performances in 2022. He tacked on 358 rushing yards, the fifth most rushing yards by a Chiefs quarterback in a season, with four trips to the end zone. Mahomes led the league in many categories: passing yards (5,250), passing touchdowns (41), passing touchdown percentage (6.3%), passing first downs (272) and pass plays of 25+ yards (49). Following the season, Mahomes was named NFL MVP for the second time in his career. Mahomes added a second Super Bowl MVP title to his resume, along with a second AP All-Pro first-team selection. He was also selected to his fifth Pro Bowl and awarded AFC Offensive Player of the Year. Nagy also helped keep backup QB Chad Henne ready for the field and it paid off. When Mahomes was injured in the divisional matchup versus Jacksonville, Henne took the field and drove 98-yards for an eventual touchdown pass to TE Travis Kelce to send the Chiefs to their fifth-straight AFC Championship Game.

Nagy, the 2018 Associated Press and PFWA Coach of the Year, compiled a 34-31 record with one division championship and two playoff appearances in four seasons (2018-21) as the head coach of the Chicago Bears.

The 2017 Chiefs ranked first in the division for the second-straight season. QB Alex Smith had 341 completions on 505 attempts for 4,042 passing yards and 26 touchdowns. As a rookie, Mahomes saw his first NFL action in the Week 17 game at Denver as the starters were resting for the playoffs. Mahomes recorded 22 passes for 284 yards in the game.

In 2016, he tutored Smith to a 12-4 regular-season record, the club's first AFC West title since 2010, the No. 2 overall seed in the AFC and a first-round bye. In 2015, the Chiefs won their first playoff game in 22 years, led by Smith. In his first four seasons, all under Nagy, Smith had a combined 41 wins, marking the most wins by a Chiefs quarterback in their first four seasons with the club, at the time.

In his first year with the Chiefs, Nagy worked with Smith in a season that brought him five 100.0 plus quarterback ratings, one of which was a perfect rating of 158.3 at Oakland (12/15/13). Focusing on ball protection, he coached Smith to a league-low seven interceptions with a minimum of 300 attempts and a 1.4 interception percentage, also the lowest in the NFL. Smith also earned his first Pro Bowl selection following his first season with the Chiefs in 2013.

Before joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Nagy spent three years on the offensive staff of the Philadelphia Eagles, spending two seasons as the franchise's offensive quality control coach (2011-12). He was promoted to that role after he served as a coaches assistant during the 2010 campaign. His initial experience with the Eagles came in 2008 and 2009 when he served as a coaching intern during Eagles training camp.

A former quarterback for the Arena Football League, Nagy played six seasons for the New York Dragons (2002), Carolina Cobras (2004), Georgia Force (2005-06) and Columbus Destroyers (2007-08). During his career, Nagy completed 65.5 percent of his passes for 18,866 yards, 374 touchdowns and a quarterback rating of 115.1.

He played collegiately at Delaware, setting more than 20 career passing records at the time, including career marks for passing yards (8,214) and touchdowns (58). He ranked second for most career attempts (895) and most career completions (502) behind former Delaware star and NFL QB Joe Flacco. Nagy earned All-America honors as a senior for the Blue Hens after setting single-season records in attempts (379), yards (3,436) and touchdowns (29).

After graduating from Delaware with a degree in health and physical education, Nagy gained coaching experience at several local high schools, as he served as an assistant coach at Manheim Central (2001), the quarterbacks coach at Cedar Crest (2002-03) and the offensive coordinator at Palmyra Area High School (2008-09).

Born on April 24, 1978, in Plainfield, N.J., the Lancaster, Pa., native attended Manheim Central High School, earning all-state honors as a senior.

Education: University of Delaware (B.S. 2001). Born: Plainfield, N.J. Family: Wife - Stacey; Sons - Brayden, Tate, Jaxon and Jett.

Steve Spagnuolo enters his sixth season as the Chiefs defensive coordinator in 2024. In his career, he owns four Super Bowl rings (XLII, LIV, LVII and LVIII) as a defensive coordinator making him the only coordinator in NFL history to win four Super Bowls and sole coordinator to win a Super Bowl with two different franchises (Giants XLII, Chiefs LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is a part of one of just eight teams in NFL history to win back-to-back Super Bowl titles (LVII and LVIII).

Spagnuolo's defense was a powerhouse in 2023, continually providing game-changing production en route to the club's second-consecutive Super Bowl title. Spagnuolo and his unit allowed the fewest 20+ yard plays allowed (46), second-fewest total points per game (17.3), second-fewest offensive points (271), second-fewest opponent yards per game (289) and the third-fewest yards per pass attempt (6.03). Spagnuolo consistently shut teams out in the second half, ranking first in second-half points allowed (126) and including three second-half shutouts. His defense did not allow more than 27 points the entire season, including the postseason. Through the playoffs in 2023, the Chiefs defense held the top three ranked offenses in the AFC to an average of 15.7 points per game.

For the second-straight year, Spagnuolo's defense recorded the second-most sacks (57.0) across the league, which was also the second-most sacks in a single season in Chiefs history. Much of the defense's production was spurred from DT Chris Jones who recorded his second-straight season of double-digit sacks with 10.5 (-71.5 yards). Alongside him was second-year DE George Karlaftis who matched Jones' 10.5 sacks (-55.5 yards). Jones was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl, and second AP All-Pro Team (first-team) and was voted by his teammates to be a postseason team captain. As one of the top duos in the NFL, CB Trent McDuffie and CB L'Jarius Sneed consistently locked up the league's top receivers. McDuffie was the team's second-leading tackler with 80 tackles (60 solo) and added 3.0 sacks (-24.0 yards), five forced fumbles, seven passes defensed and nine QB pressures. McDuffie was selected to his first AP All-Pro Team (first-team) following the season. Sneed led the team with two interceptions, totaled 78 tackles (60 solo), had 14 passes defensed and made a key play during the AFC Championship Game, knocking the ball out of WR Zay Flowers' hands for a touchback. The defense also featured newcomer LB Drue Tranquill who quickly made an impact with 4.5 sacks (-19.0 yards) and seven tackles for loss while LB Nick Bolton and S Justin Reid continued to be defensive leaders. Reid topped the defense with 95 tackles (74 solo) and showed his versatility with 3.0 sacks (-16.0 yards) while adding seven passes defensed and five QB pressures.

Spagnuolo's 2022 defense achieved a top three ranking in four critical categories: QB hits (1st, 198), sacks (2nd, 55.0 sacks, -388 yards), QB pressures (2nd, 241) and third downs of more than two yards (3rd). With Spagnuolo's guidance, the team's eight total defensive rookies handled 25 percent of the defensive snaps - the third most in the league - and set the second highest snap percentage in NFL history for a team to reach the Super Bowl. All eight took the field for Super Bowl LVII which were the most defensive rookies in Super Bowl history and included three starters (DE George Karlaftis, CB Trent McDuffie and CB Jaylen Watson). As a rookie, Karlaftis made an immediate impact and recorded 6.0 sacks (-40 yards), seven passes defensed and 11 quarterback hits. CB L'Jarius Sneed and S Juan Thornhill led the team with three interceptions a piece. Sneed showcased his versatility as he notched a career-high 3.5 sacks. Second-year LB Nick Bolton broke the Chiefs record for single season tackles with 180 tackles and recovered a fumble for a touchdown in Super Bowl LVII. In his seventh year, DT Chris Jones had one of his most productive seasons with 15.5 sacks, tying his career-high and bringing his career total to 65.0, which tied for third in the NFL amongst active DTs. Jones was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl, 2022 AFC Defensive Player of the Year Award and was named to the AP All-Pro (first-team). Jones and Bolton were both voted by their teammates to be 2022 playoff captains.

In 2021, the Chiefs defense went on a 10-game stretch allowing only 14.3 points per game, which led the NFL and held five opponents to 10 points or fewer, ranking ninth in total points allowed. For the third year in a row, Spagnuolo's defense ranked in the top 10 in takeaways, finishing fifth in the NFL. Jones logged a team-high 9.0 sacks (-65.5 yards) and his inside presence helped the defense to rank ninth in the NFL for QB hurries and earned him Pro Bowl recognition. As a rookie, Bolton led the team with 112 tackles, including 11 for a loss as he was named the club's Mack Lee Hill award winner as the team's best rookie or first-year player, an award voted on by his teammates.

The 2020 Chiefs defense held opponents to 22.6 points per game and allowed 20 points or fewer in nine contests en route to the team's second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. As a unit, the defense forced 16 interceptions and six fumble recoveries enabling 67 points off 22 takeaways. S Tyrann Mathieu led the team with six interceptions, and Jones led the team in sacks for the third-straight season with 7.5 sacks. Mathieu, Jones and DE Frank Clark earned Pro Bowl honors. Jones also was named first-team All-Pro.

In his first season as defensive coordinator of the eventual Super Bowl Champion Chiefs, Spagnuolo oversaw a defense that ranked in the top 10 in several categories: points allowed (7th, 19.3), takeaways (T-10th, 23), red zone touchdown percentage (T-9th, 50.9), QB passer rating (5th, 80.8), yards per pass attempt (6th, 6.67) and 20+ yard plays (T-10th, 55). In 2019, the defense logged five-consecutive games holding teams to no more than 17 points and in the final five games, allowed no more than 10.4 points from their opposition. In Super Bowl LIV, Spagnuolo's defense stopped three consecutive drives, allowing just 58 total yards, which gave QB Patrick Mahomes the field position to score the final 21 points, sealing a Chiefs 31-20 victory over the San Francisco 49ers. Two members of the Chiefs 2019 defense were nominated for the Pro Bowl following the season, DT Chris Jones and DE Frank Clark.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Spagnuolo served as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants for three seasons (2015-17) and was named the Giants interim head coach for the final four weeks of the 2017 season. In 2016, the Giants fielded the NFL's most-improved defense, one that was a catalyst behind the team's 11-5 record and first postseason berth in five years. Spagnuolo's defense achieved top-10 rankings in 12 statistical categories, including a top-five ranking in eight critical statistical categories during the 2016 season: touchdowns allowed (1st), red zone efficiency (1st), points allowed per game (2nd), opposing quarterback rating (2nd), yards allowed per rush (2nd), third-down efficiency (3rd), completion percentage (3rd) and first downs allowed per game (5th). His three years coordinating New York's defense marked his second stint in that role as he served as the Giants defensive coordinator from 2007-08. Spagnuolo's defense helped lead the Giants to a 17-14 victory over the previously undefeated New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII following the 2007 season holding Tom Brady and the NFL's top offense to 274 total yards, including just 45 yards rushing and no completion greater than 19 yards.

After his first stop with the Giants (2007-08), Spagnuolo was hired as head coach of the St. Louis Rams, where he spent three seasons at the helm (2009-11) and led the Rams to a six-game turnaround between 2009-10. Spagnuolo also had a stint as defensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints (2012) where he led a unit that finished with 15 interceptions, including four that were returned for touchdowns, and forced 11 fumbles to help the Saints finish with a plus-two turnover differential. Following New Orleans he spent two seasons on the defensive staff of the Baltimore Ravens, first as a senior defensive assistant (2013) and then as assistant head coach/secondary coach (2014).

Spagnuolo broke into the NFL under Kansas City Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid when Reid held the same position with the Philadelphia Eagles (1999-2012). Spagnuolo spent eight seasons (1999-2006) working on the defensive coaching staff in Philadelphia under the late Jim Johnson, holding the positions of defensive assistant/quality control coach (1999-2000), defensive backs coach (2001-03) and linebackers coach (2004-06). While with the Eagles, Spagnuolo was part of four consecutive NFC East titles, reached four straight conference title games and earned a Super Bowl appearance following the 2004 season.

A native of Whitinsville, Massachusetts, he attended Grafton (Mass.) High School, where he is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield College (Springfield, Mass.), where he was a two-year starter at wide receiver. He earned a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts.

Spagnuolo and his wife, Maria, have a passion for philanthropy and maintain a strong commitment to giving back to both their Philadelphia and Kansas City communities. The Spagnuolos have a particular passion for supporting under privileged youth and annually support causes that provide physical and emotional aid to youth and people with disabilities, including the Northern Children Home (Philadelphia), Inglis House (Philadelphia) and the Salvation Army (Kansas City and Philadelphia).

Education: Springfield College (B.S. 1982); University of Massachusetts (M.S. 1983). Born: Whitinsville, Mass. Family: Wife - Maria.

RICK BURKHOLDER

VICE PRESIDENT OF SPORTS MEDICINE AND PERFORMANCE

32ND YEAR IN THE NFL | 12TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

BURKHOLDER'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1986	New England Patriots	Summer Intern AT
1988-90	University of Arizona	Graduate Assistant ('88-89) Asst. Athletic Trainer ('90)
1991-93	University of Pittsburgh	Asst. Athletic Trainer
1994-98	Pittsburgh Steelers	Asst. Athletic Trainer
1999-12	Philadelphia Eagles	Head Athletic Trainer
2013-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Head Athletic Trainer ('13-17) VP of Sports Medicine & Performance ('18-24)

Known as one of the top athletic trainers in the National Football League, Rick Burkholder enters his 12th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 and his seventh serving as the club's Vice President of Sports Medicine and Performance. Following his promotion in 2018, he continued to oversee the athletic training staff and added the team's strength and conditioning and equipment departments to his responsibilities.

Burkholder and his staff were instrumental to the health of the team as the Chiefs claimed back-to-back Super Bowl titles (LVII and LVIII). In 2023, several key players including LB Nick Bolton (ankle and wrist) and RB Isiah Pacheco (shoulder) faced injuries. Burkholder and his staff were able to develop rehab plans conducive to a return to the field as both players finished the regular season and had strong postseason performances. In his 10th season, RB Jerick McKinnon was sidelined with a groin injury, eventually undergoing surgery in January. McKinnon was able to return in time for the Super Bowl after a rigorous rehab. In 2022, five key players, including QB Patrick Mahomes and WR JuJu Smith-Schuster, experienced injuries during the AFC Championship Game win. Under Burkholder's direction, including the development and execution of their individual treatment plans, and with the aid of the athletic training staff, four of the five injured players were able to return to action for Super Bowl LVII. Smith-Schuster went on to be the team's second-leading receiver in the victory and Mahomes threw for 182 yards and three touchdowns as he was named Super Bowl MVP.

On Feb. 19, 2014, Burkholder received one of the highest honors in his profession as he was elected to a three-year term as president of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS), which serves the players of the NFL, the member clubs and other members of the community, while ensuring the highest quality of health care provided to the NFL. During his term, he focused on two specific initiatives – emphasizing the need for gender equality in athletic training and the importance of athletic trainers at youth levels. During his three-year presidency, Burkholder spearheaded the implementation of a $1,000 league-wide scholarship specifically for a female training camp fellowship. Since its inception in 2015, this yearly scholarship has now contributed nearly $300,000 to advancing women in athletic training.

After his term, Burkholder has continued to be recognized for his service to both the Chiefs and the field. In 2023, Burkholder was honored for his work with his induction into the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) Hall of Fame. He was also inducted into the Pennsylvania Athletic Training Hall of Fame (2016).

Burkholder is actively involved in the Kansas City community, particularly with youth sports, and in 2022, he added two more honors to his resume. The first being his NATA Service Award as recognition for his contributions to the athletic training profession as a volunteer at the local and state levels. Burkholder has given educational presentations on concussions and heat and hydration as part of The University of Kansas Health System Sports Medicine and Performance Center and currently sits on the athletic trainers advisory group and served on the head, neck and spine committee and the return to play task force, all of which address the treatment and prevention of concussions in the sport. ATSA recipients have been involved in professional associations, community organizations, grassroots public relations efforts and service as a volunteer athletic trainer.

In February 2022, he earned the Fain-Cain Memorial Award for 2021 Outstanding NFL Athletic Trainer of the Year. The Fain-Cain award is named for Dr. Thomas E. Cain and Dr. Robert H. Fain, both long time team physicians for the then-Houston Oilers. The award was established shortly after Dr. Cain's death and Dr. Fain's retirement. Both physicians exhibited long term commitments to the NFL and exemplary performances. The award is given annually to an NFL athletic trainer who manifests these traits and is presented to the PFATS member who best reflects the virtues of a certified athletic trainer and displays the highest level of professionalism.

In back-to-back years, Burkholder received prestigious awards for his work on the field. First in 2017 he became just the second person and first athletic trainer to receive the NATA's President's Award, honoring his contribution to the profession after earning the NATA Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award in 2016. He and his staff were recognized by their peers following the 2010 season, being named the NFL's top training staff for the year.

In 2020, the NFL and the world faced a public health crisis, the coronavirus pandemic, forcing the adoption of new COVID-19 protocols across the National Football League. Burkholder became the team's Infection Control Officer (ICO), a leading member of the club's Infection Response Team (IRT). As the local ICO, Burkholder was integral in the development and execution of the club's IDER (infectious disease emergency response) plan, a document detailing how the club adapted its operations to mitigate risk, cleaning protocols, how the team complied with state and local guidelines, as well as an action plan for positive COVID-19 tests or symptoms within the staff or locker room, among other topics. Burkholder's plan was the first among all clubs to be reviewed and approved by the NFL, the NFLPA and jointly appointed infectious disease experts.

Having spent 26 years with Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid, including 14 in Philadelphia as Reid held the same position with the Eagles (1999-2012), Burkholder became well known for his expertise in his rehabilitation programs. In 2004, an aggressive rehabilitation program allowed WR Terrell Owens to return from a surgically-repaired ankle in seven weeks to play in Super Bowl XXXIX with the Eagles. He also helped RB Duce Staley return to the field in 2001, who suffered a severe Lisfranc sprain in his foot. The process went so well that Burkholder was published and has spoken nationally on the Lisfranc injury and its rehabilitation process. In addition, Burkholder designed a rehab program for Steelers CB Rod Woodson in 1995 after he suffered a torn ACL in the season opener. Woodson returned just four and a half months after surgery to play in Super Bowl XXX. Burkholder has created specialized rehab programs for several Chiefs over the years, including several Achilles tendon injuries: LB Derrick Johnson (2014 & 2016), DE Mike DeVito (2014), WR Chris Conley (2017) and S Eric Berry (2017). He also played a major role in Berry's return to the field in 2015 after battling Hodgkin's lymphoma.

Before joining the Eagles training staff, he spent five seasons as an assistant athletic trainer with the Pittsburgh Steelers and three seasons as an assistant football athletic trainer at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh. A 1987 Pittsburgh graduate, Burkholder went on to earn his master's degree in athletic training from the University of Arizona where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant and another as an assistant athletic trainer.

Burkholder is a certified athletic trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society, in addition to his membership in PFATS. While with Philadelphia, he served as the NFC head athletic trainer representative on the PFATS executive committee.

Burkholder first gained NFL experience serving as a summer intern with the New England Patriots training staff in 1986. He was influenced by his father, Richard, a long-time athletic trainer at Carlisle High School, and his mother, Nancy, a registered nurse. In 2003, Burkholder and his father were named distinguished alumni of Carlisle High School, and in 2013, Burkholder was honored with the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society Distinguished Merit Award.

Education: Pittsburgh (B.S. 1987), Arizona (M.S. 1989). Born: Carlisle, Pa. Family: Wife - Kristine; Children - Quinn Taylor and Carly Ann.

LOUIE ADDAZIO

1ST YEAR IN THE NFL

1ST YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

ADDAZIO'S FOOTBALL CAREER
2011-12	Syracuse	Tight End
2013-15	Boston College	Tight End
2016-18	Ohio State	Coaching Staff Intern ('16) Graduate Assistant ('17-18)
2019	Bowling Green State	Tight Ends
2020-21	Colorado State	Offensive Line
2022-23	Texas A&M	Offensive Line Analyst
2024	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Quality Control

Louis Addazio joins the Chiefs for his first season with the club in 2024 as a defensive quality control coach. This season marks his first in the NFL.

Addazio joins the Chiefs after two seasons (2022-23) at Texas A&M University as an offensive line analyst. While at Texas A&M, he assisted in coordinating the run game plan for the 2022 and 2023 seasons. In 2023, he coached freshman All-American OL Chase Bisontis, while in 2022 he coached LT Trey Zuhn to Mid-Season Freshman All-American. In his time with the Aggies, he coached four freshman All-Americans, two freshman All-SEC players and one All-SEC first-team selectee. With Addazio's assistance, the 2023 offensive line allowed 2.0 or fewer sacks in nine games and the 2022 squad allowed just 25.0 sacks all season. Among his coaching responsibilities, he directed recruiting efforts in nine states and secured commitments from three of the nation's top 10 offensive linemen for the 2024 class.

Prior to his two seasons at Texas A&M, Addazio spent two seasons at Colorado State (2020-21) as the offensive line coach working with players and game planning the run game each week. While in Fort Collins, he coached OL Elijah Johnson (2020), OL Cam Reddy (2020-21) and OL Barry Wesley (2020-21) to All-Mountain West honors. In addition to his coaching duties, he oversaw recruiting efforts for several east coast states. He spent one season at Bowling Green State (2019) as the tight ends coach where he coached current NFL TE Quintin Morris to an All-MAC selection. He also assisted in the teams' recruiting efforts.

Addazio got his first coaching experience at the Ohio State University as a graduate assistant for the offensive line while earning his master's degree in sports coaching (2017-18). Prior to his time as a graduate assistant, he interned with the coaching staff for one year (2016). Addazio played tight end for Boston College for three seasons (2013-15) after spending two seasons as a tight end at Syracuse (2011-12). While at Boston College, Adazzio was the recipient of the 2015 Gridiron Club award which is given annually to the student-athlete who displays the determination, enthusiasm and spirit expected from a Boston College football player.

Education: Ohio State University (2018, M.A.) Boston College (2015, B.A.). Born: Gainesville, Fla. Family: Wife - Courtney; Children - Camryn and Callie.

JOE BLEYMAIER

BLEYMAIER'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2006-07	Wauwatosa East	High School Asst. Coach
2007-09	Philadelphia Eagles	FB Ops./Summer Intern
2013-15	Colorado	Offensive Quality Control
2016-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive QC ('16-17)
		Passing Game Analyst/Asst. QBs ('18-20)
		Wide Receivers ('21-22)
		Pass Game Coordinator ('23-24)

Joe Bleymaier enters his ninth season with the Chiefs and in the NFL in 2024. This season marks his second as the team's pass game coordinator. His time with the club has also included two seasons as the wide receivers coach (2021-22), three seasons as the pass game analyst/assistant quarterbacks coach (2018-20) and two seasons as an offensive quality control coach (2016-17).

In 2023, Bleymaier worked closely with the wide receivers as the pass game coordinator helping to develop an offense with another year of high productivity. With Bleymaier's guidance, the offensive passing game was again top five in several categories including red zone passing touchdowns (25, 2nd), completions (421, 3rd) and passing first downs (216, 5th). The Chiefs offense and QB Patrick Mahomes had the third-most completions in team history with 421, short of only the 2021 (448) and 2022 (435) offensive units. Bleymaier's guidance in the passing game helped Mahomes reach his third Super Bowl MVP performance in his career after going 34-for-46 for 333 yards and two touchdowns en route to the team's Super Bowl LVIII victory – back-to-back Super Bowl victories for the Chiefs (LVII and LVIII). TE Travis Kelce and rookie WR Rashee Rice led the receiving charge with 984 and 938 yards, respectively and the two combined for 12 regular season receiving touchdowns (Rice, seven; Kelce, five). Rice broke the team's rookie record for receptions (79) and receiving touchdowns (seven), earning him the Mack Lee Hill award (101 Awards) as voted on by his teammates.

As the club's wide receivers coach in 2022, Bleymaier was tasked with developing a new group of receiver talent with newcomer WRs Marquez Valdes-Scantling, JuJu Smith-Schuster, Kadarius Toney, Justin Watson and rookie Skyy Moore. Chemistry was quickly developed between the Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes, the newcomers and returning WR Mecole Hardman, who played in just eight games due to injury but managed to score four TDs. Mahomes found 11 different receivers throughout the season, the second most in the league, producing a historic passing performance in which they led the league in receiving yards (5,250), touchdowns (41), passing first downs (272), passes of 25+ yards (49) and points per game (29.2). Smith-Schuster led the receiver group with 78 receptions for 933 yards and three trips to the end zone.

In 2021, Bleymaier led one of the most explosive passing games in the NFL with Mahomes at the helm. Bleymaier assisted the Chiefs offense to rank fourth in net passing yards per game (281.8) and third in net yards per game (396.8). WR Tyreek Hill recorded 1,239 receiving yards, ranking seventh in the NFL, en route to his sixth Pro Bowl selection.

In 2020, the Chiefs offense ranked first in the league in passing yards per game (303.4) and net passing yards (4,854), third in average gain per pass play (7.48) and tied for third in passing touchdowns (40). As assistant quarterbacks coach, Bleymaier aided Mahomes to his third-straight Pro Bowl (2018-2020), and an AP All-Pro (second-team) selection after Mahomes threw for 4,740 yards and 38 passing touchdowns.

In 2019, Bleymaier emphasized the passing game and worked closely with Mahomes to help the Chiefs passing game rank fifth in passing yards per game (281.1) and second in average gain per pass play (7.48). In the fourth quarter of Super Bowl LIV the payoff was clear as Mahomes and the offense rallied to score 21 points, coming back from a 10-point deficit to defeat the 49ers.

In 2018, Bleymaier worked with a Chiefs offense that featured the NFL MVP QB Mahomes, as he threw for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns, which was only the second time in NFL history that a player has thrown for 5,000 yards and 50 touchdowns.

Prior to his time at Colorado where he served as an offensive quality control coach (2013-15), Bleymaier spent two seasons as the assistant coach at Wauwatosa East High School in Milwaukee, Wis., while he was attending law school (2006-07).

Additionally, Bleymaier spent three summers as a football operations intern with Andy Reid and the Philadelphia Eagles (2007-09) while Reid was the Head Coach and Executive Vice President of Football Operations in Philadelphia.

Bleymaier was a four-year letterman as a wide receiver at Delaware (2002-05), where he hauled in 74 career receptions for 864 yards (11.7 avg.) with 11 total offensive touchdowns. In his sophomore season, Bleymaier was a member of the Blue Hens 15-1, I-AA National Championship team.

Education: University of Delaware (B.A. 2005); Marquette University (J.D. 2009). Born: Boise, Idaho. Family: Wife - Stephanie; Son - Calvin; Daughter - Hayden.

TERRY BRADDEN

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

BRADDEN'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2009-11	Howard University	Quarterback
2011-13	Tuskegee University	Quarterback
2014	Florida Atlantic University	QC Special Teams
2015	Inlet Grove HS	Athletic Dir. & Head Coach
2016	Bethune Cookman	QB Graduate Asst.
2017-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Assistant ('17)
		Defensive Quality Control ('18-20)
		Asst. Defensive Line ('21-24)

Terry Bradden enters his eighth season with the Chiefs and his fourth as the assistant defensive line coach in 2024. Bradden spent his first three seasons as the defensive quality control coach (2018-20), followed by one season as a defensive assistant (2017).

In 2023, Bradden assisted the defensive line who helped the defense finish top two in the NFL in sacks for the second-straight year (57.0; -351 yards). The defense's 57.0 sacks were the second-most in a single season in Chiefs history. The defensive line was led by DT Chris Jones and DE George Karlaftis, who both led the team in sacks with 10.5 each. Jones recorded his second-consecutive season with double-digit sacks and added 29 quarterback pressures, 13 tackles for loss and four passes defensed. He was voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain for the second-straight year, an AP All-Pro first-team selection and earned his fifth Pro Bowl. In just his second year, Karlaftis had 17 quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss and one forced fumble. Bradden helped lead the defense to allow just 17.3 points per game which was second-fewest in the league, allowed the fewest second-half points in the league (126), had three second-half shutouts and allowed no more than 27 points in a game during the season – including the postseason. With Bradden's assistance, the dominant defensive line helped the Chiefs secure back-to-back Super Bowl titles (LVII and LVIII).

Bradden worked closely with Joe Cullen and the defensive line in 2022, helping guide the defensive front to 55.0 sacks (-388 yards), which was the second-most in the league en route to the club's eventual Super Bowl LVII victory. DT Chris Jones tied his own season-high sack number of 15.5, which he previously notched in 2018 and secured his fourth-consecutive Pro Bowl nomination. Jones highlighted his season when he took down elusive Bengals QB Joe Burrow in the AFC Championship Game (1/29/23) for 2.0 sacks. His performance through the 2022 season earned him AFC Defensive Player of the Year (101 Awards), an AP All-Pro first-team selection and was voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain. Bradden also helped mentor rookie DE George Karlaftis to 6.0 sacks (-40.0 yards) with seven passes defensed and 11 quarterback pressures. Karlaftis' 6.0 sacks was the fifth-most for a rookie in franchise history.

In 2021, Bradden worked alongside Brendan Daly overseeing the defensive line. DT Chris Jones led the team with 9.0 sacks (-65.5 yards), including a single-game career-high of 3.5 sacks of Cowboys QB Dak Prescott (11/21/21), en route to his third Pro Bowl selection. DE Frank Clark ranked second on the team with 4.5 sacks (-23.5 yards). Both DE Mike Danna and DT Derrick Nnadi posted career highs in sacks that season with 3.0 each.

In 2020, as a defensive quality control coach Bradden worked mostly with a defensive line that included Pro Bowlers DT Chris Jones and DE Frank Clark. Jones and Clark ranked first and second on the team in sacks with 7.5 and 6.0, respectively. Jones was named to the AP All-Pro (second-team) and named to the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career.

In 2019, Bradden primarily worked with the defensive backs. He worked with S Tyrann Mathieu who was nominated to the AP All-Pro Team for the second time and CB Charvarius Ward who had a productive season, recording 74 tackles (56 solo), 10 passes defensed and two interceptions.

Bradden spent the 2018 season working with the defensive line including third-year DT Chris Jones who led the team with 15.5 sacks (-122.0 yards), ranking third in the NFL. He spent the 2017 season working closely with the defensive backs unit under the tutelage of Pro Football Hall of Famer and Chiefs Hall of Famer Emmitt Thomas.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Bradden served as a quarterback graduate assistant at Bethune Cookman University for the 2016 season. He was named to the first American Football Coaches Association Top 30 Under 30 class that year.

Before his season in Daytona Beach, Bradden spent the 2014 season at Florida Atlantic University as the quality control special teams coach before returning to his alma mater, Inlet Grove High School as the head football coach and athletic director for the 2015 season. During the 2015 season, he claimed the title of the youngest head football coach and athletic director in the state of Florida at the age of 24. Bradden played two seasons at Inlet Grove, leading the Hurricanes to consecutive Class 2A regional semifinal berths as a junior and senior (2008-09).

The Riviera Beach, Fla., native played quarterback for three seasons at Howard University (2009-11) in Washington, D.C., before transferring to Tuskegee University (2011-13), where he also played quarterback and graduated with a degree in social work.

Education: Tuskegee University (B.S. 2014). Born: Riviera Beach, Fla. Family: Wife - Kendall; Sons - Christopher and Carter.

2012-18	Missouri Western State University	GA ('12-13) Director of Sports Performance ('14-18)
2019-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Strength & Cond.

Greg Carbin enters his sixth NFL season with Kansas City in 2024 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Since Carbin joined the strength and conditioning staff in 2019, the team has won every AFC West title, has been in the AFC Championship Game each season, appeared in four Super Bowls (LIV, LV, LVII, LVIII) and added three Super Bowl banners (LIV, LVII and LVIII) including back-to-back Super Bowl championships (LVII, LVIII).

Prior to working for the Chiefs, Carbin served as the director of sports performance at Missouri Western State University, his alma mater and the home of Chiefs training camp. During his seven years at MWSU, Carbin developed and conducted the student-athletes' workouts during the school year and built the Griffon Strength and Conditioning program from the ground up. He returned to MWSU after working at North Kansas City High School as a football and track coach. He began his career at MWSU as a graduate assistant in strength and conditioning for one year (2013) before being promoted to director of sports performance in 2014.

The Jefferson City, Mo., native played defensive back at MWSU where he was a four-year letter winner (2003-06) for the Griffon football team and helped guide the Griffons to their first ever NCAA Playoff appearance in 2006. Carbin totaled 128 tackles (88 solo), five interceptions and has 35 kickoff returns for 794 yards and averaged 22.6 yards per return. He was a member of the MWSU Athletic Director's Honor Roll and the MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll, as well as a member of the MWSU Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

Education: Missouri Western State University (B.F.A. 2007), (MASc 2016); Concordia University (MS 2022). Born: Jefferson City, Mo. Family: Wife - Marian; Children – Graham and Adelis.

NICK CASSETTA

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

2ND YEAR IN THE NFL | 2ND YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

CASSETTA'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2016	University of Buffalo	Strength & Conditioning Intern
2016-17	UCLA	Strength & Conditioning Intern ('16) Strength & Conditioning GA ('17)
2018	Ohio University	Strength & Conditioning GA
2019-21	New Mexico State	Asst. Strength & Conditioning
2022	Rice University	Asst. Strength & Conditioning
2023-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Strength & Conditioning

Nick Cassetta returns for his second season with the Chiefs as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2024. Cassetta joined the club in 2023 after a season at Rice University where he assisted the football strength program as the assistant strength and conditioning coach.

As part of the staff in 2023, he helped prepare the Chiefs for a long season resulting in the team's eighth consecutive AFC West title, sixth-straight AFC Championship game appearance and third Super Bowl title in five seasons (LIV, LVII and LVIII) giving them back-to-back Super Bowl Championships (LVII, LVIII).

While at Rice University (2022), Cassetta coordinated all aspects of the nutrition program as well as assisted with the design and implementation of the strength and conditioning plan for the team. He also managed all of the sports science technology including SPT GPS, Nordbord and Force Plates.

Cassetta spent three seasons (2019-21) at New Mexico State as the director of Olympic sports and exercise prescription/nutrition manager. In this role, Cassetta acted as the assistant director of the design and implementation of the football strength and conditioning program, overseeing the development of the offensive and defensive lines, quarterbacks, specialists and redshirts. Cassetta was the bridge between the sports medicine and sports performance staffs, working closely with the athletic training staff while overseeing the Olympic strength and conditioning program. Cassetta also oversaw the baseball and women's track and field programs helping the women's team earn its first ever Indoor Conference Championship in 2020. Cassetta furthered his experience with nutrition, overseeing all aspects of the nutrition program of NMSU.

In 2018, he spent time at his alma mater, Ohio University, as a graduate assistant for the strength and conditioning department. While at Ohio University, Cassetta assisted in all aspects of the football strength and conditioning program and was responsible for the design and supervision of the training programs for a variety of the school's sports including men's and women's golf and women's swimming and diving.

Prior to his arrival at Ohio University, he spent time at UCLA as an intern (2016) and as a graduate assistant (2017). As a graduate assistant, Cassetta was responsible for the implementation of the developmental lifting group and worked alongside the sports medicine staff to oversee the progression of injured student-athletes. Cassetta began his coaching career in 2016 with a short stint at the University of Buffalo as an intern of the strength and conditioning staff, working directly with the football team.

Cassetta earned his bachelors in exercise science from Monclair State in 2015 and went on to get his masters in coaching education from Ohio University in 2019 while serving as a graduate assistant for strength and conditioning.

Education: Montclair State (B.S. 2015), Ohio University (M. Coaching Ed. 2019). Born: Lodi, N.J.

Joe Cullen returns for his third season as defensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024, marking his 18th year in the National Football League.

In 2023, the defensive line helped lead the charge to back-to-back Super Bowl titles for Cullen and the Chiefs (LVII and LVIII). Cullen again had a top performing defensive line which was highlighted by DT Chris Jones and DE George Karlaftis. Jones recorded his second-consecutive season with double-digit sacks with 10.5 (-71.5 yards) with four passes defensed, 29 quarterback pressures and 13 tackles for loss. Jones was voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain for the second-straight year, earned an AP All-Pro team (first-team) selection and was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl. In just his second year, Karlaftis recorded 10.5 sacks (-55.5 yards). In total, the defensive line had the second-most sacks in the league for a second-straight year with 57.0 (-351.0 yards) and the second-most in a single season in Chiefs history. With Cullen's direction, the defense allowed the fewest second half points in the league (126), including three second half shutouts and allowed no more than 27 points in a game in both the regular season and postseason.

In his first year with the club, Cullen made an immediate impact on the organization, coaching the 2022 defensive line as a component of a top producing defense. In 2022, the Chiefs defense ranked in the top 10 in many categories: first in QB hits (198), second in sacks (55.0 sacks, -388 yards), second in QB pressures (241), fifth in rushing plays of 20+ yards (seven) and eighth in rushing yards allowed (107.2). The defensive line's success culminated in the Super Bowl LVII victory where they held a highly regarded Eagles run game to just 28 rushing yards in the second half. Cullen mentored veteran DT Chris Jones to another Pro Bowl season with 15.5 sacks, tying his career-high (2018). Jones was the AFC Defensive Player of the Year (101 Awards), selected to AP All-Pro (first-team) and voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain. Fellow 2022 Pro Bowler DE Frank Clark brought his postseason sack total to 13.5 en route to Super Bowl LVII, which ranked him third all-time in the NFL. Cullen quickly developed rookie DE George Karlaftis who started all 17 regular season games and recorded 6.0 sacks, 11 quarterback pressures and seven passes defensed. His 6.0 sacks were the fifth most for a rookie in franchise history.

In 2021, Cullen served as the defensive coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars. Cullen helped lead the defense to improvements in all major categories, including yards per game allowed, points per game allowed, yards per carry allowed and passing yards per game. Jacksonville's sack total improved from 18.0 to 32.0 in one season with Cullen leading the defense. Under his tutelage, DE Josh Allen led the defensive line in total tackles with 71, four passes defensed and 7.5 sacks.

The 2021 season marked his second stint with the Jaguars after spending three seasons (2010-12) as their defensive line coach where he assisted the Jaguars to a No. 6 finish in the NFL in yards allowed (313.0 ypg) in 2011.

Prior to arriving in Jacksonville the second time, Cullen spent five seasons as the defensive line coach in Baltimore (2016-20). In 2020, Baltimore allowed the NFL's second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8) per game. The Ravens also owned the No. 2 third-down defense (34.0 pct.) and produced a league-high 25 forced fumbles. That season, Cullen oversaw DT Calais Campbell to his sixth Pro Bowl selection, as well as LB Matt Judon to his third-straight Pro Bowl (2018-20). In 2019, the Ravens finished with the NFL's No. 4 defense (300.6 ypg) and allowed the third-fewest points per game (17.6). In 2018, Baltimore boasted the league's top-ranked defense (292.9 ypg) and permitted the league's second-fewest points per game (17.9), en route to winning the AFC North title. That season, Cullen tutored DT Brandon Williams to his first Pro Bowl selection. In 2017, Cullen led Baltimore's defensive line, which was part of a defensive unit that led the league in takeaways (34) and finished tied for 11th with 41.0 sacks, including 11.0 sacks coming from DE Terrell Suggs en route to his seventh Pro Bowl selection. The Ravens defense ranked sixth in points allowed (18.9 ppg).

Cullen spent two seasons (2014-15) as the defensive line coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Over those two seasons, the Bucs ranked fifth in tackles for loss (173), totaled 74.0 sacks and allowed just 4.9 yards after catch per reception, which tied for second in the NFL. He tutored DT Gerald McCoy to back-to-back Pro Bowl selections.

In 2013, Cullen helped guide one of the best defensive turnarounds in team history as the Cleveland Browns finished ninth in total defense (332.4 ypg) after ranking 23rd the previous season.

In 2009, Cullen left the NFL to be the defensive line coach at Idaho State. His first NFL coaching job came in 2006 where he was the defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions for three seasons (2006-08). Under Cullen, four different Lions players recorded career-high sack numbers, including Shaun Rogers (7.0 in 2007) and Cory Redding (8.0 in 2006).

Prior to his time as an NFL coach, Cullen was a defensive assistant at Illinois in 2005. He spent two seasons (2002-03) with Indiana University as their defensive line coach, before transitioning to their defensive coordinator in 2004. Cullen spent four seasons (1992-96) with the University of Richmond as their defensive line coach before becoming their defensive coordinator (1997-98). After doing a year at Louisiana State University (1999) as their defensive line coach, he returned to Richmond to be their defensive coordinator in 2000.

In college at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, Cullen was a four-year starting nose tackle. He was a three-time All-Yankee Conference selection and was the Minutemen's team MVP in 1989. He graduated in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in sports management. He got his first collegiate coaching job at his alma mater, where he started as a graduate assistant there before becoming a position coach.

Education: University of Massachusetts Amherst (1990). Born: Quincy, Mass. Family: Wife - Andrea; Daughters - Julia, Justina, and Jenna.

DONALD D'ALESIO

D'ALESIO'S FOOTBALL CAREER
2010-14	Youngstown State	Defensive Back ('10-14) Defensive QC ('15) Defensive Line ('16-17) Co-DC/Defensive Line ('18) Defensive Coordinator/DL ('19)
2020	LSU	Defensive Analyst
2021-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Assistant ('21) Safeties ('22-24)

Donald D'Alesio enters his fourth season with Kansas City and third as the team's safeties coach in 2024. D'Alesio served as a defensive assistant his first season with the Chiefs in 2021.

In 2023, D'Alesio and his unit helped the club secure back-to-back Super Bowl titles (LVII and LVIII). The safeties room was led by S Justin Reid who was the team's leading tackler with 95 tackles (74 solo). Reid was also utilized getting to the quarterback, totaling 3.0 sacks (-16.0 yards) and added seven passes defensed, five quarterback pressures and five tackles for loss. Newcomer S Mike Edwards was a quick contributor with 51 tackles (32 solo), 1.0 sack (-10.0 yards) and two tackles for loss. The safeties contributed three of the defense's eight total interceptions with Reid, Edwards and S Bryan Cook all snagging one. In the club's matchup against Miami in Germany, Cook took a fumble, forced by CB Trent McDuffie, 59 yards to the house for his first career touchdown. Edwards had himself a 97-yard fumble return as well in the final game of the regular season, before going on a postseason run that culminated in a 25-22 overtime victory in Super Bowl LVIII over the 49ers. D'Alesio also helped to develop rookie DB Chamarri Conner who logged 28 tackles (24 solo), an interception, a pass defensed and two tackles for loss.

The 2022 season was D'Alesio's first working exclusively with the safeties. His unit was led by veteran S Juan Thornhill and newcomer S Justin Reid who was acquired via free agency from Houston. Thornhill tied with CB L'Jarius Sneed to lead the team with three interceptions while totaling 71 tackles (43 solo) with nine passes defensed, four tackles for loss and 1.0 sack in regular season play. Reid stepped into a large defensive role becoming the fourth leading tackler on the team with 81 tackles (59 solo), seven passes defensed and two tackles for loss. In the postseason, Reid maintained productivity with 20 tackles (17 solo), which was second amongst Chiefs defenders. D'Alesio also developed rookie S Bryan Cook who ended up playing 16 games and totaled 27 tackles (19 solo), 1.0 sack and two passes defensed. The rookie had a standout moment in the AFC Championship Game with a pass break up that led to an interception by fellow rookie CB Joshua Williams. D'Alesio's safeties were part of a defensive backs unit that after recording just three interceptions in the season's first 10 weeks, went on to have 10 interceptions in the final 10 games, including the postseason.

In 2021, D'Alesio worked closely with the defensive backs as a defensive assistant. He worked alongside S Tyrann Mathieu as he was selected to his third Pro Bowl following the season. Mathieu recorded three interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown.

D'Alesio spent the 2020 season as a defensive analyst at Louisiana State University after spending five seasons on the Youngstown State football coaching staff (2015-19). During his time at Youngstown State, D'Alesio spent time as the Penguins defensive coordinator, defensive line coach and defensive quality control coach.

Prior to D'Alesio's promotion to defensive coordinator in 2019, he served as the Penguins co-defensive coordinator in 2018 alongside Richard McNutt while also acting as the defensive line coach. In 2019, D'Alesio led a defensive unit that ranked seventh in passes defensed, 10th in sacks and 24th in total defense in the FCS. Under his tutelage, standout player DE Justus Reed was named to AP All-Pro first-team, All-MVFC and second-team All-American after logging 13.0 sacks and 19 tackles for loss during the 2019.

D'Alesio spent two seasons as the team's defensive line coach (2016-17). With D'Alesio's guidance in 2017, DE Justus Reed earned Missouri Valley All-Newcomer Team selection. In 2016, D'Alesio had two standout defensive ends in NFL Draft picks Derek Rivers and Avery Moss. Rivers was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the New England Patriots with the 83rd overall pick while Moss was selected in the fifth round by the New York Giants as pick No. 167. In his first season with his alma mater (2015), D'Alesio held the role of defensive quality control working primarily with the defensive line.

The Youngstown, Ohio native was a defensive back at YSU from 2010-14, where he totaled 274 career tackles while starting 44 contests and playing in 48. His best year came during his senior campaign in 2014 when he was second on the team with 91 total tackles, including 45 solo tackles while adding a pair of interceptions.

Education: Youngstown State University (B.S. 2014). Born: Youngstown, Ohio.

2019-24	Kansas City Chiefs	DL/Run Game Co. ('19-21) Linebackers ('22-24)

Brendan Daly begins his sixth season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 and his 19th season in the league. He spent his first four seasons in Kansas City coaching the defensive line. In 2022, he transitioned to linebackers coach.

Daly's linebackers unit had one of its most impactful years in 2023, helping the club to their second-straight Super Bowl title (LVII and LVIII). Daly's unit helped the defense to allow no more than 27 points the entire season (including postseason) and allowed the fewest second-half points league wide (126) with three second-half shutouts. LB Nick Bolton again was a dominant force. Despite playing in just eight regular season games due to injury, Bolton was the defense's fifth-leading tackler with 60 tackles (38 solo) and was the leading tackler in Super Bowl LVIII with 13 (five solo). Daly welcomed LB Drue Tranquill to the unit and tutored him to the third-most tackles on the defense with 79 (54 solo). Tranquill had the most sacks of any non-defensive line position with 4.5 (-19.0 yards) and added seven quarterback hits, seven tackles for loss and two forced fumbles, putting the exclamation point on his first year as a member of the Chiefs. Daly continued to develop second year LB Leo Chenal who made big plays in key moments, adding 3.0 sacks himself (-17.0 yards) with 57 tackles (22 solo). LB Willie Gay and LB Nick Bolton both added an interception to their seasons.

In his first year as linebackers coach in 2022, Daly helped further develop second-year LB Nick Bolton. Bolton took over as the team's defensive green dot and went on to lead the team in tackles and break the Chiefs single season tackle record with 180 tackles. Under Daly's direction, Bolton recorded nine games with 10+ tackles, the most 10+ tackle games in a single season in team history. Bolton highlighted his historic season with a fumble recovery in Super Bowl LVII that he took 36-yards to the house to tie the Chiefs and Eagles 14-14 in the eventual Chiefs victory. He was voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain. LB Willie Gay ranked third on the team with 88 tackles (51 solo). Gay notched career highs in sacks (2.5), passes defensed (eight) and quarterback hits (four). With Daly's guidance, rookie LB Leo Chenal also developed throughout the year playing in all 17 games (eight starts) and logged 29 tackles (16 solo), three quarterback hits and three tackles for loss. Bolton and Gay also accounted for three of the team's 11 interceptions in the regular season (Bolton - 2; Gay - 1).

In his third year with the Chiefs, Daly oversaw a defensive line led by DT Chris Jones and DE Frank Clark. Jones led the team in sacks with 9.0 en route to his third Pro Bowl selection. Clark ranked second on the team with 4.5 sacks. Both DE Mike Danna and DT Derrick Nnadi posted career highs in sacks during the 2021 season with 3.0 each. Under Daly's direction, the Chiefs defensive line tied for eighth in quarterback hurries.

In 2020, Daly led the Chiefs defensive front featuring Pro Bowlers Jones and Clark who were ranked first and second on the team in sacks with 7.5 and 6.0, respectively helping them reach their second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. Jones was named to the AP All-Pro (second-team) and the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career.

In his first season with the Chiefs in 2019, Daly oversaw a defensive line unit who ranked first in the NFL in passes defensed with 16. During Week 7, the Chiefs defense tallied 9.0 sacks against the Denver Broncos with 5.0 of the 9.0 sacks coming from the defensive line (DE Alex Okafor - 2.0; Clark - 2.0 & DE Emmanuel Ogbah - 1.0). Daly helped Jones and Clark to their first Pro Bowl nominations.

Daly spent four seasons as the defensive line coach (2015-18) for the New England Patriots. In those four seasons, his defensive line was a part of a defense that was top 10 in stopping the run. He was hired in New England in 2014 as a defensive coaching assistant before being promoted to defensive line coach in 2015.

Before his time with the Patriots, Daly had two stints with the Minnesota Vikings as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2006-08) and defensive line coach (2012-13) and made the playoffs two times (2008, 2012). During his first tenure, the Vikings became the first team in NFL history to lead the league in rushing defense for three consecutive seasons (2006-08), holding opponents to under 75 yards rushing per game.

Daly also spent three seasons (2009-11) with Chiefs Defensive Coordinator and then-Rams Head Coach Steve Spagnuolo as the defensive line coach in St. Louis. In 2011, he coached DE Chris Long to a career-best 13.0 sacks. Under Daly's leadership in 2010, the Rams had 43.0 sacks as a team, which ranked seventh-most in the NFL.

Before breaking into the NFL ranks, Daly had multiple stops at the collegiate level (1998-05). He was the defensive line coach at Villanova in 2005 and the tight ends coach at Illinois State in 2004. He was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State in 2003 after serving as a graduate assistant from 2001-02. In 2000, Daly was a graduate assistant at Maryland after coaching tight ends at Villanova in 1999. He had his first collegiate coaching job at his alma mater, Drake University, where he coached tight ends in 1998. He began his coaching career at Ridgewood High School in New Port Richey, Fla., in 1997 after graduating from Drake, where he played tight end.

Education: Drake University (1997). Born: Chicago, Ill. Family: Wife - Keely. Son - Liam and Daughters - Ciara and Avelin.

PORTER ELLETT

ASSISTANT RUNNING BACKS

ELLETT'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2010-14	BYU	Equipment Room Attendant
2016	SMG Stadium	Graduate Assistant
2017-24	KC Chiefs	Senior Asst. to the HC ('17-19)
		Offensive Quality Control ('20-22)
		Asst. Running Backs ('23-24)

Porter Ellett enters his eighth season with the Chiefs and second as assistant running backs coach in 2024. Prior to his promotion, Ellett spent three seasons as an offensive quality control coach (2020-22) after serving three seasons as the senior assistant to the head coach (2017-19).

Ellett worked closely with Running Backs Coach Todd Pinkston in 2023, helping RB Isiah Pacheco to a strong second-year performance. Pacheco led the team's rushing charge with 205 rushes for 935 yards and seven touchdowns, besting his rookie numbers in all three categories. Pacheco also recorded three games with 100+ rushing yards (Weeks 4, 13 and 17). With Ellett's assistance, the rushing attack by Pacheco and veteran RBs Jerick McKinnon and Clyde Edwards-Helaire helped earn the Chiefs a second-consecutive Super Bowl title (LVII and LVIII).

In 2022, Ellett worked closely with the tight ends, running backs and QB Patrick Mahomes. The Chiefs offense led the league in many categories: yards per game (413.6), points per game (29.2), passing yards (5,250), passing touchdowns (41), passing first downs (272) and pass plays of 25+ yards (49). Ellett assisted with the development of rookie RB Isiah Pacheco who went on to rush for 830 yards and five touchdowns and TE Travis Kelce recorded his seventh-consecutive 1,000-yard season, passing former TE Rob Gronkowski in career receiving yards with 10,344. With Ellett's assistance, Mahomes completed 435 of his 648 passes for a 67.1 completion percentage, the highest of his career, as he set franchise records for passing yards (5,250) and single-season passing first downs (272). Mahomes' 2022 performance earned him his second NFL MVP and Super Bowl MVP after the Chiefs beat the Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII.

For the 2021 season, Ellett continued to work closely with the tight end group. Kelce recorded his sixth-consecutive 1,000-yard season, extending his NFL record for tight ends. Kelce recorded two game-winning touchdowns in overtime in 2021, his first coming against the Chargers in LA and second in the Divisional Round Game against Buffalo. Following the season, Kelce earned his seventh Pro Bowl nomination.

In 2020, Ellett worked with an offense that finished first in total net yards per game (415.8) and passing yards per game (303.4). He also assisted with the tight ends group which featured first-team AP All-Pro, PFWA All-NFL and Pro Bowler Kelce who recorded over 1,000 receiving yards for the fifth-consecutive season, extending his previously established NFL record for tight ends. He became the first tight end in NFL history with multiple seasons of 100+ receptions in his career (2018 and 2020), while his 1,416 receiving yards were the most-ever by a tight end in NFL history, passing 49ers TE George Kittle's previous record of 1,377 yards set in 2018.

During his time as senior assistant to the head coach (2017-19), Ellett worked closely with Head Coach Andy Reid and Offensive Coordinator Eric Bieniemy organizing the day-to-day operations of the team, player and staff communications with the head coach and the football calendar. In this role, Ellett also assisted with the development of the quarterbacks.

Prior to his arrival, Ellett served as a graduate assistant at SMG McLane Stadium at Baylor University while pursuing his Masters of Sport Management. While completing his undergraduate degree at Brigham Young University, he served as an equipment room attendant for the football team.

Outside of athletics, Ellett has a long history of service work under his belt. Since 2007, he has partnered with Coolspeak as a motivational speaker and facilitator, delivering over 1,000 keynotes across the country.

Additionally, Ellett owns Camp Overcome, a youth development program that implements positive attitudes through sports. When he isn't volunteering, Ellett trains and competes in Paralympic swimming and triathlons.

Education: Brigham Young University (B.S. 2014); Baylor University (M.S. Sports Management). Born: Loa, Utah. Family: Wife - Carlie; Children – Porter Brigham, Griffin Kole and Piper Joan.

CONNOR EMBREE

WIDE RECEIVERS

EMBREE'S FOOTBALL CAREER
2010	UNLV	Wide Receiver
2011-13	University of Kansas	Wide Receiver
2014	Blue Valley West High School	Offensive Coord.
2015-16	University of Kansas	Graduate Assistant
2018	Fairview High School	Wide Receivers Coach
2019-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Assistant ('19-20) Off. Quality Control ('21-22) Wide Receivers ('23-24)

Connor Embree returns for his sixth season with the Chiefs and second as the team's wide receivers coach in 2024. Prior to taking over the wide receivers room, he spent two seasons as an offensive quality control coach (2021-22) and two seasons as a defensive assistant (2019-20). Embree has coached in four Super Bowls in five seasons (LIV, LV, LVII and LVIII), coming away with three victories (LIV, LVII and LVIII), including back-to-back wins in Super Bowl LVII and LVIII.

In 2023, Embree marked his first year as wide receivers coach. With Embree's leadership, the offense was top five in several categories including red zone passing touchdowns (25, 2nd), receptions (421, 3rd) and passing first downs (216, 5th). Embree had the task of developing rookie WR Rashee Rice, who went on to be the offense's leading receiver and trailed only TE Travis Kelce in receptions and yardage. Rice totaled 79 receptions for 938 yards and seven regular season touchdowns – the most on the team. His receptions and receiving touchdowns were both Chiefs rookie records, earning him the Mack Lee Hill award for being the most outstanding rookie or first-year player as voted on by his teammates. Rice showed steady development throughout the season, coming up big in the final games of the regular season with two 100+ receiving yard games after Week 11 and one in the postseason (Wild Card vs. Miami). WR Justin Watson also had a career year with 27 catches for 460 yards and three touchdowns. WR Mecole Hardman returned to the Chiefs sideline after being acquired via trade with the New York Jets. Hardman came up big in Super Bowl LVIII with three catches for 57 yards including the three-yard touchdown reception from QB Patrick Mahomes that secured the 25-22 victory in overtime.

Embree again worked closely with the wide receiver corps in 2022 as an offensive quality control coach assisting an offense that led the league in receiving yards (5,250), touchdowns (41) passing first downs (272), receptions of 25+ yards (49) and points per game (29.2). Embree helped develop a new group of veteran receivers (JuJu Smith-Schuster, Kadarius Toney, Marquez Valdes-Scantling and Justin Watson) who accounted for over 20 percent of the Chiefs receiving touchdowns. Smith-Schuster led the team's wide receiver group with 78 receptions for 933 yards and three trips to the end zone.

In 2021, Embree worked primarily with the wide receivers group. WR Tyreek Hill recorded a then career high 111 receptions for 1,239 yards en route to his sixth Pro Bowl nomination. WR Mecole Hardman ranked third on the team, recording career highs in catches (59) and yards (693).

In 2020, Embree primarily worked with the defensive backs who featured AP All-Pro S Tyrann Mathieu who led all safeties in the NFL with six interceptions and rookie CB L'Jarius Sneed who showed a lot of potential in the nine games he saw action (six starts). He snagged three interceptions, 2.0 sacks (-19.0 yards) and seven passes defensed.

In his first season with the Chiefs (2019), Embree primarily worked with a linebacking group that accounted for 5.5 sacks and 275 tackles in his role as a defensive assistant. LB Anthony Hitchens led the team in tackles with 88 and was responsible for 2.0 of the unit's 5.5 sacks.

Before jumping to the professional ranks, he spent two seasons on Coach David Beaty's staff at the University of Kansas as a graduate assistant where he gained experience working with the offense and special teams.

He also spent time in the high school ranks as the offensive coordinator at Blue Valley West High School and as the wide receivers coach at Fairview High School.

Embree played wide receiver for the Kansas Jayhawks (2011-13). He also spent one season at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (2010).

Education: University of Kansas (B.S. 2013). Born: Superior, Colorado. Family: Wife – Alex; Son - Hudson.

2014-16	Northwestern	Offensive Quality Control ('14) Defensive Graduate Asst. ('15-16)
2018-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Quality Control ('18-20) Pass Game Analyst/Asst. QBs ('21-22) Quarterbacks ('23-24)

David Girardi enters his seventh season with the Chiefs and second season as the Chiefs quarterbacks coach in 2024. Girardi has worked with the offense since QB Patrick Mahomes' first season as a starter (2018). Prior to his promotion he spent two seasons as the pass game analyst/assistant quarterbacks coach (2021-22) and three seasons as the offensive quality control coach (2018-20).

In 2023, Girardi led QB Patrick Mahomes to another standout season en route to back-to-back Super Bowl victories (LVII and LVIII) and his fourth Super Bowl appearance in five years (2019-23), coming away with three victories (LIV, LVII and LVIII). Mahomes and the offense were top five in several categories including red zone passing touchdowns (25, 2nd), completions (401, 3rd) and passing first downs (206, 5th). Mahomes recorded his sixth-consecutive season of 4,000+ passing yards (4,183), tying him with former QB Tom Brady and PFHOF QB Peyton Manning for the sixth-longest streak of such kind. With Girardi's leadership, Mahomes had another historic postseason run, playing on the road for the first time in his career in both the Divisional Round and AFC Championship Game before an eventual 25-22 overtime victory against the 49ers in Super Bowl LVIII. His Super Bowl LVIII performance earned him his third career Super Bowl MVP honors (LIV, LVII and LVIII). Mahomes had his fourth postseason campaign with a passer rating greater than 100.0 and recorded 104 completions - the most in his postseason career - for 1,051 yards and six touchdowns. Mahomes was honored with the Derrick Thomas Award (101 Committee) as voted on by his teammates, as well as his sixth Pro Bowl selection. Girardi also tutored newcomer backup QB Blaine Gabbert who saw action in two games this season.

In 2022, Girardi assisted the quarterbacks room with a focus on the pass game. He worked closely with Super Bowl MVP QB Mahomes en route to his second Super Bowl victory and another prolific season. The Chiefs offense led the league in yards per play (6.43), yards per game (413.6), points per game (29.2) and net passing yards per game (297.8). Mahomes led the league in many pass-game categories: passing yards (5,250), passing touchdowns (41), passing TD percentage (6.3%), passing first downs (272) and pass plays of 25+ yards (49) on his way to earning his second NFL MVP recognition. The sixth-year QB became one of four quarterbacks in NFL history (Tom Brady, Drew Brees and Peyton Manning) to have at least four seasons of 35 or more touchdown passes and more than 4,500 passing yards. He found 11 different receivers throughout the regular season, the second most in the league. Mahomes added his second league MVP ('18, '22) and Super Bowl MVP ('19, '22) honors to his resume along with the Derrick Thomas award and AFC Offensive Player of the Year (101 Awards). Mahomes was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl selection.

In 2021, Girardi helped the Chiefs offense win their sixth-straight division title and fourth-straight AFC Championship game appearance. He worked closely with the quarterbacks as Mahomes posted 4,839 yards and 37 touchdowns, completing 66.3 percent of his passes en route to his fourth Pro Bowl nomination.

In 2020, Girardi worked with a Chiefs offense that finished first in total net yards per game (415.8) and passing yards per game (303.4). He primarily worked with the wide receivers which featured first-team AP All-Pro and Pro Bowl WR Tyreek Hill. Hill finished the season tied for the most receiving touchdowns in a single season (15) in franchise history, adding two more on the ground.

In 2019, he primarily assisted the quarterbacks room helping the Chiefs offense finish in the top 10 in total yards per game (379.2), pass yards per game (281.1), yards per play (6.22) and total points scored (28.2). This offensive performance earned the Chiefs a Super Bowl LIV title.

Girardi joined the Chiefs as an offensive quality control coach in 2018. He worked closely with the quarterbacks and helped guide the Chiefs to their first ever home AFC Championship game. The Chiefs offense was number one in the NFL in points per game (35.3), yards per game (425.6) and yards per play (6.84) in 2018.

Prior to coming to Kansas City, Girardi spent the 2017 season as the quarterbacks coach at Lafayette College. During his time he coached a true freshman who went on to start 11 games and break the school record for completions.

Prior to Lafayette, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Northwestern University during the 2015-16 seasons, where he helped coach the secondary and ran the offensive scout team. He served as an offensive quality control coach during his initial season at Northwestern in 2014, assisting the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

During the 2013 season, Girardi served as an assistant football coach at Geneva College where he coached the quarterbacks. The Golden Tornadoes broke numerous single-game and single-season school passing records during his time in charge of the passing game. Before Geneva College, he spent two seasons (2011-12) at Seton Hill University as a graduate assistant, focusing on the defensive secondary.

Girardi played quarterback at Geneva College from 2007 to 2010 and was named an NCCAA All-American twice. He led his team to a Victory Bowl win in 2009 and was named captain twice (2009-10).

Education: Geneva College (B.S. 2011), Seton Hill (M.B.A. 2013), Northwestern (M.S.A. 2016). Born: New Kensington, Pa. Family: Wife - Kristen; Son - Joseph.

ANDY HECK

2004-12	Jacksonville Jaguars	Off. Asst./Asst. OL ('04) Assistant Offensive Line ('05) Offensive Line ('06-12)
2013-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Line

Andy Heck enters his 33rd year in the NFL in 2024, including a 12-year career as an offensive lineman. He begins his 21st season as an NFL coach and 12th leading the offensive line in Kansas City in 2024. Heck has now led offensive line units for six-consecutive seasons that have allowed at least the top five fewest sacks through the regular season in the NFL (2018-23). Over the past five years (2019-23), Heck and his units have been to four Super Bowls, coming away with three rings (LIV, LVII and LVIII), including back-to-back wins (LVII and LVIII).

Heck's unit had some new faces in 2023 with LT Donovan Smith and RT Jawaan Taylor joining the Chiefs. The line had consistency with C Creed Humphrey, G Trey Smith and G Joe Thuney all returning to the lineup. With Heck's leadership, there were just 28.0 allowed sacks, the second-fewest in the league. In the postseason, the offensive line allowed no sacks in the Wild Card and Divisional Round Games and just five through the AFC Championship game and Super Bowl LVIII. The offensive front led the way for the team's rushing attack, clearing the way for RB Isiah Pacheco's 935 yards on 205 attempts for seven rushing touchdowns. Pacheco totaled three 100+ yard rushing games (Weeks 4, 13 and 17). Humphrey and Thuney were both selected to the Pro Bowl while Thuney was also selected to the PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team and the AP All-Pro Team (first-team). Heck also tutored rookie OL Wanya Morris to play meaningful minutes in 14 games, showing promise throughout his opportunities.

The 2022 season was a standout for Heck's line that culminated in the Chiefs third Super Bowl title. Behind Heck's front, the offense found rhythm leading the league in passing yards (5,250), yards per play (6.43), yards per game (413.6) and points per game (29.2). With Heck's assistance, the Chiefs offense was second in both third down percentage (48.7%) and red zone touchdown percentage (69.4%). Familiar faces returned in 2022 with C Creed Humphrey and G Trey Smith both back for their second seasons and T Orlando Brown and G Joe Thuney also returned to the squad. The chemistry was evident, as they allowed just 26.0 sacks through the regular season, the third fewest in the NFL, and allowed just 3.0 in the postseason. Heck's offensive front recorded six games with no sacks allowed, including Super Bowl LVII against an Eagles defense that led the league in sacks during the regular season. With help in the trenches, rookie RB Isiah Pacheco totaled the fifth most rushing yards in a Chiefs rookie campaign with 830 yards and five touchdowns. Humphrey, Brown and Thuney were all named to the 2022 Pro Bowl. Humphrey and Thuney were both selected to the AP All-Pro (second-team).

In 2021, Heck had an offensive line full of new faces, including T Orlando Brown, G Joe Thuney, G Kyle Long and C Austin Blythe, in addition to draft picks C Creed Humphrey and G Trey Smith. Rookies Humphrey and Smith started all 17 regular season games in 2021, becoming the 17th and 18th players in franchise history to start all regular season games in their rookie season. Humphrey and Smith are the third pair of teammates to both start all regular season games in their rookie campaign. The group ranked tied for third in the NFL allowing just 28.0 sacks all season. Following the season, Brown earned his third Pro Bowl selection.

In 2020, Heck led an offensive line that was marred by injuries, seeing 12 different starters at various positions along the line throughout the season while still ranking fifth in sacks allowed with 24.0. Chiefs T Eric Fisher was selected to his second-career Pro Bowl (2018), while enjoying one of the top seasons of his career. He was even able to get into the end zone, scoring on a two-yard pass from QB Patrick Mahomes, joining Mark Adickes and Joe Valerio as the only offensive linemen to catch touchdown passes in team history.

In 2019, Heck led an offensive line unit that finished third in the NFL in sacks allowed with 25.0 in the regular season. T Mitchell Schwartz started every game at RT, extending his streak of the most straight starts for an offensive tackle to 128. Schwartz was named second-team All-Pro at right tackle.

The 2018 season featured Heck's offensive line protecting NFL MVP QB Mahomes who threw for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns, which is only the second time in NFL history that a QB threw for 4,000+ yards and 25+ passing touchdowns. On the way to an AFC Championship berth, the offensive line only gave up 34.0 sacks (regular and post season), which ranked tied for sixth in the league. First-year OL Andrew Wylie was awarded the Mack Lee Hill Award, which is annually presented to the Chiefs' top rookie or first-year player in remembrance of the late Mack Lee Hill.

During the 2017 season, Heck coached seven different starting offensive linemen with six different combinations, paving the way for the running backs group to record a combined 1,903 yards. With Heck's leadership, rookie RB Kareem Hunt led the league with 1,327 rushing yards. QB Alex Smith threw for a career-high 4,042 and both Smith and Hunt made the Pro Bowl in 2017.

In 2016, the offensive line proved its versatility once again as eight different linemen filled a starting role throughout the season. Behind a Heck-coached offensive line, RB Spencer Ware had 921 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns while RB Charcandrick West rushed for 293 yards and one touchdown.

In 2015, nine different offensive line combinations including eight different offensive linemen made up the starting lineup. Rookie Mitch Morse started all but one game at center, and Fisher solidified the left tackle spot during the club's 11-game winning streak.

During the 2014 season, the line helped RBs Jamaal Charles and Knile Davis carry the scoring load for the Chiefs. The two scored 22 of the Chiefs 40 total touchdowns, which ranked first among a pair of teammates across the NFL. Charles' 1,033 rushing yards in 2014 was his third consecutive year over 1,000 yards and second consecutive behind Heck's line.

In 2013, Heck led Kansas City's offensive line to help Rb Jamaal Charles reach 1,287 rushing yards, enough for third-most in the NFL. T Branden Albert made his first appearance in the Pro Bowl under Heck's guidance.

Prior to joining the Chiefs staff, Heck served nine years on the Jacksonville Jaguars coaching staff as the assistant offensive line coach (2005) and offensive assistant/assistant offensive line coach (2004) before being promoted to offensive line coach (2006-12).

In 2011, Jacksonville's offensive line paved the way for RB Maurice Jones-Drew to rush for 1,606 yards to earn the NFL rushing title. In 2010, the Jaguars boasted the third-ranked rushing offense in the NFL, averaging 149.7 yards per game, including 4.7 yards per carry to rank fifth in the league.

In 2006 and 2007, the offensive line led the offense to the two highest single-season rushing totals in franchise history to date and two of the three lowest sack totals. The Jaguars set the single-season franchise record for rushing yards (2,541) in 2006 and allowed only 30.0 sacks, the second-fewest in team history.

Prior to Jacksonville, Heck served three seasons on the University of Virginia coaching staff, the first two seasons as a graduate assistant and the final year as tight ends coach. He tutored All-American tight end Heath Miller, who set numerous Atlantic Coast Conference tight end records for receiving and scoring. Miller was a first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2005.

Heck played in the NFL for 12 seasons (1989-2000) as an offensive lineman. He finished his playing career with Washington, where he played for two seasons (1999-00). As the starting left tackle in 1999, he blocked for an offense that ranked second in the NFL. From 1994 to 1998, Heck was a five-year starter for the Chicago Bears. In 1995, he gave up no sacks as part of an offensive line that yielded the fewest sacks in the NFL (15.0). Heck was drafted in the first round (15th overall) by the Seattle Seahawks, where he was a unanimous All-Rookie selection in 1989. A starter for all five years with the Seahawks, he played three seasons without missing a snap.

A 1989 graduate of Notre Dame, Heck was a first-team All-American and a tri-captain of the 1988 national championship team that finished 12-0. He was a tight end for his first three seasons at Notre Dame before moving to tackle in spring drills in his senior season. Heck's son, Charlie, is a tackle in the NFL drafted in the fourth round (126th overall) in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Education: Notre Dame (B.A. 1989). Born: Fargo, N.D. Family: Wife - Jennifer; Children - Jonathan, Charlie, Molly and Evelyn.

		Assoc. HC/WRs ('16-17)
		Assoc. HC/Special Teams Coord. ('18-19)
2020-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Special Teams

Andy Hill enters his fifth season as the assistant special teams coach with the Chiefs in 2024. Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, he had a successful collegiate coaching career spanning 30 years.

Hill assisted the 2023 special teams unit en route to back-to-back Super Bowl wins after the Chiefs defeated the 49ers 25-22 in Super Bowl LVIII. Hill assisted K Harrison Butker to his best season of his career, going 33-for-35 (94.3%) on field goals and a perfect 38-for-38 on PATs. He totaled 137 points throughout the season, tying his second-most points in a season (147 in 2019). Butker converted four field goals in Super Bowl LVIII - tied for the most in a Super Bowl - and set a Super Bowl record for longest made FG in Super Bowl history (57 yards). Hill also tutored P/H Tommy Townsend to single-season records of 59 punts and 2,469 net yards. Butker and Townsend were both voted on by their teammates to be 2023 playoff captains. WR Richie James led the team both in kick and punt return, averaging 20.8 yards on kick return (nine returns) and 10.0 yards on punt return (20 returns).

With Hill's assistance, the 2022 special teams unit was able to rally from a Week 1 injury to K Harrison Butker. After missing four games due to his ankle injury, Butker converted a 62-yard FG (Week 6 vs. Buffalo), which was the longest in Chiefs history. Butker capped off his season with a 45-yard field goal with three seconds left in the AFC Championship Game and a game sealing field goal in Super Bowl LVII. Third-year P Tommy Townsend also had a career year ranking first in the league for net punting average (45.58) and second for punting average (50.42), both of which were Chiefs single-season records. He was named to the AP All-Pro team (first-team), his first Pro Bowl and was a 2022 playoff captain by vote of his teammates. Early in the season, the return game saw some adversity and rookie RB Isiah Pacheco was mentored to fill the kick return role, averaging 20.6 yards per return. WR Kadarius Toney was utilized at punt return and had a Super Bowl record-setting return of 65 yards.

In 2021, the special teams unit ranked first in punt return yards allowed per return (4.9) and fifth in average kickoff yards allowed (19.4). P Tommy Townsend won AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 9) and AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November. In the Week 9 game versus Green Bay, Townsend landed five of six punts inside the 20 for an average of 56.8 yards. During the Week 11 game at Las Vegas, Townsend completed a pass for 16 yards to WR Marcus Kemp in the fourth quarter on a punt fake.

In his first NFL season, Hill assisted with a special teams unit that finished fourth in the NFL in kick return average (25.8). He also mentored rookie P Tommy Townsend who finished the year with 20 punts inside the 20.

Prior to the NFL, he previously spent 24 seasons (1996-2019) at the University of Missouri, making him the second longest tenured assistant coach in MU football history. In 2018, Hill became Mizzou's first-ever special teams coordinator, after 19 seasons working with the receivers and three seasons with the quarterbacks.

During his final season at Mizzou, Hill mentored senior WR/PR Richaud Floyd who finished fourth in the country in punt return yards logging 15 punt returns for 206 yards with a 13.7 yard average.

Mizzou's 2018 Liberty Bowl appearance marked the 17th bowl game he has been part of as a player or coach with the Tigers – meaning Hill has had a hand in more than half of MU's 33-game bowl game history. In his first season as special teams coordinator in 2018, his unit produced three blocked kicks on the season, which ranked as 19th-best in the nation, and third-best in the Southeastern Conference. The punt team's net punting average of 39.43 yards per kick ranked 27th in the NCAA in 2018, and senior P Corey Fatony ranked 16th nationally in the individual punting stats with his 44.4 average per attempt. During his time with the receivers, he coached seven out of Mizzou's eight 1,000-yard receiving seasons in school history. He spent 2013-15 coaching Mizzou's quarterbacks, including mentoring NFL QB Drew Lock as a freshman starter in 2015.

Prior to his tenure at Missouri, Hill was the head football coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College (1994-95). Hutchinson went 18-6 under Hill, including a 10-2 record in 1995 when it won its first conference title since 1969 and ranked ninth in the final NJCAA national poll. He was named the conference Coach of the Year. Hill was the offensive coordinator at Hutchinson in 1992 and 1993 after serving as a graduate assistant at SMU in the spring of 1992.

Hill is a Mizzou economics grad who walked on to the Tiger football team in 1980 and eventually earned a scholarship as a wide receiver. He lettered in 1980, '81, '83 and '84 and played on Missouri teams that earned trips to the Liberty, Tangerine and Holiday Bowls. In his career, Hill caught 51 passes for 946 yards and scored seven touchdowns. As a senior, he caught 25 passes for 445 yards and three scores. Following his playing days at Missouri, he spent time in the training camps of the Kansas City Chiefs and Calgary Stampeders in 1985 and '86.

Education: Missouri (B.A. 1985). Born: Trenton, Mo. Family: Wife - Sarah; Children - Tricia and Andrew; Grandchild - Margot.

COREY MATTHAEI

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

MATTHAEI'S FOOTBALL CAREER
2003-07	Willamette University ..... Offensive Lineman ('03-06) Offensive Assistant ('07)
2008-12	Philadelphia Eagles ..... Coaching Asst. ('08-09) Assistant to the Head Coach ('09-12)
2013-24	Kansas City Chiefs ..... Offensive QC ('13-14) Assistant Quarterbacks ('15-17) Assistant Offensive Line ('18-24)

Corey Matthaei enters his 12th season with the Chiefs and seventh as the team's assistant offensive line coach in 2024.

In 2023, Matthaei assisted the offensive line to another productive year with two key new faces in LT Donovan Smith and RT Jawaan Taylor. The line continued their strong interior with C Creed Humphrey, G Trey Smith and G Joe Thuney. The unit allowed just 28.0 sacks, the second fewest in the league and allowed no sacks in the Wild Card and Divisional Round Games en route to their second-consecutive Super Bowl win (LVII and LVIII). With Matthaei's assistance, the front cleared the way for RB Isiah Pacheco's standout season with 205 rushes for 935 yards and seven endzone trips. Pacheco had three 100+ rushing yard games (Weeks 4, 13 and 17). Humphrey and Thuney were both selected to the Pro Bowl while Thuney was also selected to the PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team and the AP All-Pro Team (first-team). Matthaei continues to coordinate the team's screen game and is responsible for preparing the opponent blitz package. He also works closely with Offensive Line Coach Andy Heck to formulate the short-yardage and goal line run and pass game.

In 2022, Matthaei worked closely with the Chiefs offensive line that helped the Chiefs offense lead the league in passing yards (5,250), yards per play (6.43), yards per game (413.6) and points per game (29.2). With a line highlighted by second-year linemen C Creed Humphrey and G Trey Smith and returners T Orlando Brown and G Joe Thuney, the 2022 offensive front allowed just 26.0 sacks through the regular season (third in NFL), recorded six games with no sacks and despite the Eagles leading the league in sacks in 2022, the Chiefs front allowed no sacks during the Super Bowl LVII win. With Matthaei's guidance, the offensive line helped rookie RB Isiah Pacheco total the fifth-most rushing yards in a Chiefs rookie campaign with 830 yards and five touchdowns. Three offensive linemen (Humphrey, Brown and Thuney) were named to the 2022 Pro Bowl. Matthaei coordinated the Chiefs screen game and was responsible for preparing the opponent blitz package, and also worked closely with offensive line coach Andy Heck to formulate the short-yardage and goal line run game.

For the 2021 season, Matthaei helped a group of veterans and rookies merge into an offensive line that only allowed 28.0 sacks on QB Patrick Mahomes, which was tied at third for the season. Prior to the season, Brown joined the club via trade with the Ravens, and following the season, he earned his third Pro Bowl nomination. Rookie offensive linemen Humphrey and Smith started all 17 regular season games in 2021, becoming the 17th and 18th players in franchise history to start all regular season games in their rookie season.

In 2020, Matthaei helped lead an offensive line that was marred by injuries, seeing 12 different starters at various positions along the line throughout the season while still ranking fifth in sacks allowed with 24.0.

In 2019, Matthaei assisted an offensive line unit that finished tied for third in the NFL in sacks allowed with 25.0 in the regular season on their way to defeating the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV.

In his first year as the assistant offensive line coach, he helped lead a group that blocked for NFL MVP QB Patrick Mahomes. The offensive line only allowed 26.0 sacks in the regular season and paved the way for 1,855 yards rushing as a team.

Prior to the 2018 season, Matthaei served as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach from 2015 to 2017. In addition to tutoring the quarterbacks, Matthaei assisted Offensive Line Coach Andy Heck. Before being promoted in 2015, Matthaei was an offensive quality control coach for two seasons with the team (2013-14). In the five seasons Matthaei worked alongside QB Alex Smith (2013-17), Smith recorded five consecutive seasons passing for 3,000 yards and became the franchise's all-time leading rusher among QBs after the 2017 season (1,672 yards). In 2013, Matthaei assisted an offensive staff that propelled the Chiefs to the single best season turnaround in franchise history, winning 11 games after a 2-14 season.

Prior to his move to Kansas City, Matthaei served three seasons under Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid with the Philadelphia Eagles as the assistant to the head coach from 2009-12 after completing two seasons with the Eagles as a coaching assistant (2008-09). He spent 2006-07 as Philadelphia's football operations intern for training camp.

Before embarking on his NFL career, Matthaei played on the offensive line at Willamette University in Salem, Ore., (2003-06). Upon graduating, he spent one season as the offensive assistant at his alma mater.

Education: Willamette University (B.A. 2007). Born: Fircrest, Wash. Family: Wife - Cari; Children - Taylor, Brayden and Kacey.

TOM MELVIN

TIGHT ENDS

MELVIN'S FOOTBALL CAREER
1982-85	San Francisco State	Offensive Lineman ('82-83) Graduate Assistant ('84-85)
1986-87	Northern Arizona	RB/OL/TE
1988-90	UC Santa Barbara	Off. Coord./OL
1991-98	Occidental	Off. Coord./OL
1999-12	Philadelphia Eagles	Off. Asst./QC ('99-01) Tight Ends ('02-12)
2013-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Tight Ends

Tom Melvin enters his 12th season as Kansas City's tight ends coach and his 26th season as an NFL coach in 2024.

Melvin joined the Chiefs in 2013 - the same year Chiefs TE Travis Kelce was drafted in the third round (63rd overall) - making him Kelce's position coach for the entirety of his 12-year career. Entering 2024, Kelce holds a streak of 158 games with a reception, the longest in franchise history and second-longest active streak in the National Football League. His 74 receiving touchdowns are the second most in team annals and his 77 total touchdowns (74 rec., 2 rush, 1 fum.) are also the second most in Chiefs history. Under Melvin's tutelage, Kelce recorded seven-straight seasons of 1,000 receiving yards (2016-22) and was the fastest tight end in NFL history to reach the 6,000, 7,000; 8,000; 9,000; 10,000 and 11,000 receiving yard plateaus. Since QB Patrick Mahomes took over at QB, the two have had an obvious chemistry that has paid off on the field, connecting 51 times for touchdowns which ties former QB Drew Brees and TE Jimmy Graham for the third-most QB-TE TD connections in NFL history. Kelce's been a vital player in the Chiefs eight-straight AFC West Titles, six-consecutive AFC Championship Game appearances and three Super Bowl wins (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He now also owns back-to-back Super Bowl rings (LVII and LVIII). Kelce has also cemented himself as a prolific postseason player, tied for the most postseason game appearances (22) in Chiefs history, second-most points in Chiefs history (114), with 19-career postseason receiving touchdowns, 165 receptions and 1,903 receiving yards – all the most in franchise history. His 165 career postseason receptions are the most in NFL history and his 1,903 postseason receiving yards top all tight ends in league history. With 19 postseason receiving touchdowns, he is second to only PFHOF WR Jerry Rice for the most all time amongst pass catchers. Since 2015, Kelce has not missed a Pro Bowl nomination, and since 2016, he has made the All-Pro Team for seven-straight seasons (first-team: '16, '18, '20, '22; second-team: '17, '19, '21). Kelce has been voted by his teammates to be an offensive postseason captain every year since 2017, helping to lead the team to three Super Bowl victories in five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). Due to injury, Kelce only played in one game in his rookie season (2013) but since his return in 2014 he has been the team's leading receiver each season except 2015 (second to WR Jeremy Maclin) and 2021 (second to WR Tyreek Hill).

Melvin again had a productive tight end room in 2023 with Kelce leading the charge and bolstered by TE Noah Gray and TE Blake Bell. Kelce had a standout postseason performance with 32 receptions, the most in his postseason career and 355 receiving yards which were the second-most in his postseason career. He added three touchdown receptions to his performance. He had back-to-back 100+ receiving yard games (Weeks 5 and 6) and added a postseason 100+ receiving yard performance in the AFC Championship Game in Baltimore (11 rec., 116 yards). Gray set a new single-season high for himself with 305 receiving yards (28 catches) and two touchdowns.

The 2022 season proved to be another record setting year for Kelce and further development of TEs Noah Gray and Blake Bell. After Kelce recorded 92 yards against Tampa Bay (10/2/2022) he passed former NFL TE Rob Gronkowski for fifth-most receiving yards in league history (tight ends) with 9,328. Following the season, Kelce's 10,344 career receiving yards trailed only TE Tony Gonzalez for the most receiving yards in team history and fourth-most by a TE in league history. Back for his second year, Gray recorded 28 receptions for 299 yards and one touchdown.

In 2021, Melvin coached Kelce to another 1,000-yard season as he recorded 1,125 receiving yards and nine touchdowns en route to his seventh Pro Bowl nomination. With 9,006 career receiving yards, he became just the sixth tight end in NFL history to reach 9,000 career receiving yards and is the quickest tight end to do so.

In 2020, Melvin's coaching helped Kelce set two NFL records in Week 15. Kelce became the first tight end in NFL history with multiple seasons of 100+ receptions in his career (2018 and 2020), while his 1,416 receiving yards were the most-ever by a tight end in NFL history, passing 49ers TE George Kittle's previous record of 1,377 yards set in 2018. His 105 receptions in 2020 set a franchise record and marked the fourth-most single season receptions by a tight end in NFL history.

In 2019, Melvin helped Kelce become the first tight end in NFL history to record back-to-back 1,200+ yard receiving seasons. In the Week 16 game against the Chicago Bears in 2019, Kelce finished the game with 504-career receptions becoming the fastest tight end in NFL history to record 500-career receptions, doing so in just 95 games played.

Under Melvin's tutelage in 2018, Kelce was a key component to Mahomes' breakout season as Mahomes took the starting quarterback role. Mahomes threw for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns, earning Mahomes NFL MVP.

Melvin has developed well-rounded tight ends including TE Demetrius Harris. Harris entered the league in 2013 as an undrafted free agent, spending the season on the club's practice squad after playing college basketball at UW-Milwaukee. In 2017, he recorded 18 catches for 224 yards and one touchdown.

Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2013, Melvin spent 14 seasons on the offensive coaching staff in Philadelphia, including the last 11 years of his tenure as the Eagles tight ends coach. During his time overseeing the tight ends, Melvin played a key role in the development of Brent Celek, who caught 280 passes for 3,473 yards and 20 touchdowns in his six-years playing for Melvin and the Eagles. He had 684 receiving yards in 2012 after registering 811 yards in 2011 with six touchdowns in those two seasons. Celek turned in one of the finest seasons ever by an Eagles tight end in 2009 with 76 receptions for 971 yards and eight touchdowns. Prior to being elevated to tight ends coach, Melvin was the club's offensive assistant/quality control coach from 1999-01.

Melvin joined the Eagles after an eight-year stint at Occidental College, where he served as the school's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. In 1993, he led the Tigers to a then-school record 326 points and 2,526 rushing yards on the way to an 8-1 record.

Prior to his time at Occidental, he served as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of California—Santa Barbara. At UCSB, Melvin directed the nation's fifth-ranked offense in 1989 while coaching five All-America selections.

From 1982-83, Melvin played on the offensive line at San Francisco State University. During the 1983 season, his position coach at San Francisco State was current Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid.

Following his playing career at SFSU, Melvin began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, serving on the same staff with Reid. He then moved on to Northern Arizona, where he mentored TE Shawn Collins, a first-round draft pick of Atlanta in the 1989 NFL Draft.

Melvin attended Cubberley High School in Palo Alto, Calif. Today, he holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from San Francisco State and a master's degree in educational administration from Northern Arizona.

Melvin's cousin, Bob Melvin, is a former major league catcher and current manager of the San Francisco Giants.

Education: San Francisco State University (B.A. 1984, M.E. 1987). Born: Redwood City, Calif. Family: Wife - Kathy; Children - Justin, Joshua, J.T., Heather; Grandchildren - Haylee, Noa, Travis and Lorelei.

DAVE MERRITT

DEFENSIVE BACKS

MERRITT'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1989-92	NC State	Linebacker
1993	Miami Dolphins	Linebacker
1993-96	Phoenix/Arizona Cardinals	Linebacker
1997	Rhein Fire (NFL Europe)	Linebacker
1997	UT-Chattanooga	Outside Linebackers
1998-00	VMI	Def. Ends/Outside LBs ('98) Defensive Line ('99-00)
2001-03	New York Jets	Def. Assistant/Linebackers
2004-17	New York Giants	Def. Assistant/QC ('04) Def. Assistant ('05) Secondary/Safeties ('06-17)
2018	Arizona Cardinals	Defensive Backs
2019-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Backs

Dave Merritt enters his sixth season as the defensive backs coach with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 and his 28th season in the NFL, including a four-year playing career as a linebacker.

In 2023, Merritt and the defensive backs contributed to a defense that was keen on second half shutdowns. In fact, the Chiefs defense allowed the fewest second-half points across the league (126), had three second-half shutouts and allowed no more than 27 points in any game this season – including the postseason. Much of the unit's production was due to CB L'Jarius Sneed and CB Trent McDuffie who became one of the league's top cornerback duos. Sneed had a career-year, locking up many of the NFL's top receivers and leading the defense in interceptions (two) and passes defensed (14). He was the team's fourth-leading tackler with 78 tackles (60 solo) and added five tackles for loss. He had a key forced fumble in the AFC Championship Game, knocking the ball out of Ravens WR Zay Flowers' hands in the endzone for a touchback en route to the team's 17-10 victory. McDuffie was the second-leading tackler with 80 tackles (60 solo) and tied with S Justin Reid with 3.0 sacks (-24.0 yards) while adding nine quarterback pressures, seven passes defensed and five forced fumbles. McDuffie was voted to his first AP All-Pro (first-team) selection. Merritt was also tasked with developing rookie DB Chamarri Conner who logged 28 tackles (24 solo), an interception, a pass defensed and two tackles for loss.

With five defensive back rookies in 2022, no other playoff team had more rookie defensive backs. Under Merritt's tutelage, rookie CBs Jaylen Watson and Joshua Williams both snagged a regular and postseason interception. CB L'Jarius Sneed and S Juan Thornhill led the team with three interceptions a piece, contributing to the defense's 10 interceptions in the final 10 games – including playoffs. Back for his third year, Sneed showed his versatility as a blitzer and recorded a career-high 3.5 sacks en route to the team's Super Bowl LVII victory. Another rookie standout was 2022 first-round draft pick (21st overall) CB Trent McDuffie who battled back from a hamstring injury in Week 1. McDuffie returned after six games, starting the remaining 13 games of the season, and recorded 44 tackles (28 solo), 1.0 sack (-12 yards) and seven passes defensed. The Chiefs acquired S Justin Reid via free agency in 2022. Reid racked up 81 tackles (59 solo), 1.0 sack and seven passes defensed. Rookie CB Jaylen Watson made a name for himself after a momentum-shifting interception during the Week 2 victory over the Chargers. His 99-yard pick-six was the longest go-ahead fourth-quarter touchdown scored by a rookie in NFL history. Through the season, Merritt developed rookie S Bryan Cook who ended up playing 16 games and totaled 27 tackles (19 solo), 1.0 sack and two passes defensed. In the AFC Championship Game his progress showed as he broke up a pass which led to an interception by fellow rookie CB Joshua Williams. The defensive backs helped to allow just 18 opponent plays of 20+ yards in the final eight games, the second fewest in the league.

In 2021, Merritt coached S Tyrann Mathieu to his third Pro Bowl. Mathieu led the team in interceptions with three, including a pick-six. S Dan Sorensen followed up close behind with two interceptions and a pick-six.

In 2020, Merritt coached S Tyrann Mathieu to his second-consecutive first-team AP All-Pro nomination and third of his career, first at the safety position. Mathieu led all NFL safeties with six interceptions in the regular season, adding one in the postseason. Merritt also mentored rookie CB L'Jarius Sneed who showed a lot of potential in the nine games he saw action (six starts), snagging three interceptions, 2.0 sacks (-19.0 yards) and seven passes defensed.

In 2019, Merritt helped coach Mathieu to two AP All-Pro Team nominations, first-team as a defensive back and second-team as a safety. He was also voted by his teammates as the team's most valuable player with the Derrick Thomas award after ranking fourth in the NFL in passes defended amongst safeties with 12. He paired that with 75 tackles (63 solo), four interceptions and 2.0 sacks en route to the Chiefs Super Bowl LIV victory.

Merritt joined Kansas City after spending the 2018 season with the defensive backs at the Arizona Cardinals, where he coached CB Patrick Peterson to his eighth career Pro Bowl. Before the Cardinals, he spent 14 seasons with the New York Giants with stints as a defensive assistant (2004-2005) and secondary/safeties coach (2006-2017). Merritt worked there with the Chiefs current Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo, where they led a defense that helped win Super Bowl XLII. He also went on to win Super Bowl XLVI, both teams under Head Coach Tom Coughlin.

With the Giants, he coached multiple Pro Bowlers: All-Pro S Antrel Rolle, S Landon Collins, CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and CB Janoris Jenkins; Collins and Rolle both leading tacklers. During his tenure with the secondary/safeties, the Giants backfield recorded 198 interceptions, which was tied for sixth in the NFL during that time frame.

His coaching career in the NFL began as a defensive assistant/linebacker coach for three seasons with the New York Jets (2001-2003) under Head Coach Herm Edwards and Defensive Coordinator Ted Cottrell. Prior to the Jets, he had two stops at the collegiate level, outside linebacker coach at Tennessee-Chattanooga (1997) and the same position along with defensive ends and defensive line at Virginia Military Institute (1998-2000).

While earning his political science degree, Merritt was a linebacker for the North Carolina State Wolfpack (1989-1992) and was named first-team All-ACC (1992) after leading the conference in tackles. He was then drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the seventh round (1993), and also played three seasons for the Arizona Cardinals. In his last season before transitioning to coaching, he played for NFL Europe's Dusseldorf Rhein Fire, who competed in the World Bowl Championship that year (1997).

A standout player from Millbrook High School in Raleigh, North Carolina, he was inducted to the school's first Hall of Fame class (2012).

Education: North Carolina State (1994). Born: Raleigh, N.C. Family: Wife - Yolonda; Sons - David Jr., Devin, Dawson and Daughters - Drayah and Kiki.

TODD PINKSTON

RUNNING BACKS

10TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 2ND YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

PINKSTON'S FOOTBALL CAREER
1995-99	Southern Mississippi	Wide Receiver
2000-06	Philadelphia Eagles	Wide Receiver
2006-07	Vikings/Commanders	Wide Receiver
2009	Philadelphia Eagles	Training Camp Intern
2010	Minnesota Vikings	Training Camp Assistant
2009-16	Petal High School	Wide Receivers
2017-19	Austin Peay	Wide Receivers
2019-22	Stockbridge High School	Associate HC/STC/WRs
2023-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Running Backs

Todd Pinkston joins Kansas City for his second season as running backs coach in 2024. Pinkston's 10 years in the NFL includes a seven-year playing career with the Philadelphia Eagles.

In 2023, Pinkston guided the running backs room to a standout season with RB Isiah Pacheco leading the charge. In his inaugural season leading the running backs, the offense leaned on the run game en route to the club's eventual overtime Super Bowl LVIII victory over the San Francisco 49ers. RB Isiah Pacheco returned for his second year on the team and led the rushing attack with 205 rushes for 935 yards and seven touchdowns, career highs in each category. Pacheco had three games with 100+ rushing yards (Weeks 4, 13 and 17). With Pinkston's guidance and background as a wide receiver, Pacheco added 44 receptions for 244 yards and two touchdowns. Pacheco added on three postseason rushing touchdowns on 81 rushes for 313 yards and had a postseason high of 97 rushing yards and a touchdown at Buffalo in the Divisional Round Game. RB Jerick McKinnon was also used as a weapon out of the backfield with 21 rushes for 60 yards and a touchdown. McKinnon added 25 catches for 192 yards and four touchdowns.

Pinkston arrives in Kansas City after spending time at Stockbridge High School as associate head coach, special teams coach and wide receivers coach (2019-22). He also had stints as the wide receivers coach at Austin Peay (2017-19) and Petal High School (2009-16). Under Pinkston's tutelage at Austin Peay WR Kyran Moore had a standout senior season, leading the team in catches (29) and yards (529), and tied for the team lead in receiving touchdowns with three. With Pinkston's direction, WR DJ Montgomery also emerged, catching 19 passes for 228 yards and three scores.

Following his playing career in the National Football League (2000-06, Eagles; 2006-07, Vikings/Commanders), Pinkston began his coaching career as a training camp assistant, working primarily with the Eagles wide receivers in 2009 under his former coach, Andy Reid. In 2010 he took a role as a training camp assistant for the Vikings where he also worked with the receivers.

Pinkston spent seven of his eight years playing professionally in Philadelphia under Reid as a second-round draft pick out of Southern Mississippi. Pinkston became a primary target during the Donovan McNabb era in Philadelphia, catching 184 passes for 2,816 yards and 14 touchdowns from 2000-04. Pinkston led the Eagles for the second year in a row in receiving yards (575) in 2003. In 2004 Pinkston hauled in 676 receiving yards on a career-best 18.8 yards per catch. In 2002, Pinkston set career highs in receptions (60), yards (798) and touchdowns (seven). As a rookie in 2000, Pinkston registered 10 catches for 181 yards before breaking out in his second season with 42 catches, 586 yards and four touchdowns through his 15 games. During his time in Philadelphia, Pinkston appeared in the playoffs five times, reached the NFC Championship Game four times and reached the 2004 Super Bowl (XXXIX) in Jacksonville, Florida, after defeating Atlanta in the 2004 NFC Conference Championship Game. Pinkston had four catches for 82 yards in Super Bowl XXXIX against the Patriots, but the Eagles fell 24-21 to New England.

After an injury cost him all of the 2005 season, Pinkston went to training camp with Philadelphia, Minnesota and Washington over the next two seasons.

Pinkston received his bachelor's degree in coaching and sports administration from Southern Mississippi in 1999. A second-team All-Conference USA choice in 1999, Pinkston was elected to the M-Club Hall of Fame in 2011 and at the time was second in Golden Eagle history in receiving yards (2,366) and third in both receptions (149) and touchdown receptions (22).

In addition to coaching at Stockbridge High School, Pinkston served as a co-teacher for the special education department teaching primarily science and math. Pinkston remains an active member of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, which he became a member of while at Southern Mississippi. Since 2013, Pinkston has also spent time as a USA Heads Up Youth Football Ambassador for the State of Mississippi.

Education: Southern Mississippi (B.S. 1999) Born: Forest, Miss. Family: Wife – Tamara; Children - Aaden, Bryce, Chase, Jonathan and Lauren.

SPENCER REID

REID'S FOOTBALL CAREER
2017	University of Utah	Strength & Conditioning Intern
2018-19	Kansas City Chiefs	Strength & Conditioning Intern
2020-21	Colorado State ...	Assoc. Strength & Conditioning Coach
2022	BYU	Asst./Interim Head Strength & Cond.
2023-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Strength & Conditioning

Spencer Reid enters his second season with the Chiefs in 2024 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. Reid joined the Chiefs coaching staff in 2023 after spending the 2022 season at Brigham Young University as an assistant strength and conditioning coach before being promoted to interim head strength and conditioning coach in December. Reid had a previous stint with the Chiefs as a strength and conditioning intern for the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

As part of the staff in 2023, he helped prepare the Chiefs for a long season resulting in the team's eighth-consecutive AFC West title, sixth-straight AFC Championship game appearance and third Super Bowl title in five seasons (LIV, LVII and LVIII) giving them back-to-back Super Bowl Championships (LVII, LVIII).

As interim head strength and conditioning coach at BYU, Reid designed and assigned the weight room responsibilities for the coaching staff as well as oversaw the sprinting and weightlifting sessions and overall program design. Reid worked closely with the rest of the coaching staff including nutritionists and athletic trainers to coordinate the rehabilitation and return of players to the field.

Reid spent the 2020 and 2021 seasons at Colorado State as an associate strength and conditioning coach while also earning his masters in sports management. He helped to plan and conduct the strength and conditioning sessions for all football position groups while also being an active part of the recruiting process, answering all inquiries related to the strength and conditioning program. During his time at Colorado State, Reid focused on working with student-athletes on acceleration, sprinting and change of direction techniques.

Prior to his time at Colorado State, Reid spent one season at Boston College (2019) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. In this role, he worked directly with Boston College's dietician to examine the nutritional needs of student-athletes and worked closely with the athletic training staff to design and execute strength programs for injured student-athletes.

Reid started his coaching career as a strength and conditioning intern for the Chiefs during portions of the 2018 season through the 2019 season. Reid gained experience in the field assisting in the planning and execution of workout sessions and preparing the weight room each day after spending the majority of 2017 as a strength and conditioning intern for football and women's tennis at the University of Utah.

Reid's father, Andy Reid, is the head coach of the Chiefs. Reid attended Temple University for undergrad (2011-13) where he was awarded a scholarship to play football after completing a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. Upon finishing his mission, Reid transferred to the University of Utah where he earned his kinesiology degree before earning his Master of Sports Management at Colorado State.

Education: University of Utah (B.S. 2017), Colorado State (M. Sports Management 2022) Born: Green Bay, Wis. Family: Wife – Maggie; Children – Garrett, Ford and Levi.

KEVIN SAXTON

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

SAXTON'S FOOTBALL CAREER
2013	Appalachian State	Quarterback
2014-20	Emory & Henry	Quarterback ('14-17) Running Backs ('18) Co-Offensive Coordinator/QBs ('19-20)
2021	Cuthbertson	Off. Coord./Recruiting Coord.
2022	Benedict College	Co-Offensive Coordinator/QBs
2023-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Assistant

Kevin Saxton returns to the Chiefs coaching staff for his second season in 2024 as an offensive assistant. Saxton originally joined Kansas City as the Chiefs Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellow during the Chiefs 2022 training camp working closely with the quarterbacks and offense. Before returning to the Chiefs staff, Saxton served as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Benedict College for the 2022 season.

In his first season on the Chiefs staff (2023), Saxton mainly worked with the quarterbacks. With Saxton's assistance, QB Patrick Mahomes earned his third career Super Bowl MVP (LIV, LVII and LVIII) after defeating the 49ers 25-22 in overtime in Super Bowl LVIII. Mahomes also recorded his sixth consecutive season with 4,000+ passing yards after throwing 401 completions for 4,183 yards and 27 touchdowns. Saxton also oversaw many of the team's day-to-day operations, working directly with Head Coach Andy Reid to oversee player and staff communication with Reid and managing the football calendar to coordinate the offseason program, mini-camp and in-season schedules.

In 2022, Saxton was Benedict College's co-offensive coordinator and also acted as the quarterbacks coach leading the offense to top the SIAC in scoring, passing touchdowns and rushing yards. Under Saxton's tutelage, the Tigers went 11-1 earning them an SIAC Conference Championship and SIAC East Division Championship. The Tigers offense averaged 35.6 points per game averaging 160.3 rushing yards per game and 228.2 passing yards a game. Saxton mentored Tigers QB Eric Phoenix to a 64.2% completion percentage, passing for 15 touchdowns and rushing for four more in 2022. Saxton also oversaw recruiting efforts for the Tigers, managing the Pee Dee region of South Carolina and the Charlotte region of North Carolina.

Prior to his time at Benedict, Saxton was the offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Cuthbertson High School (Waxhaw, NC) for the 2021 season. During his one season with Cuthbertson, the Cavaliers made their first playoff appearance since 2019, while winning their way to the Sweet 16. The Cavalier offense topped the conference in total yards (4,154), passing yards (2,550) and rushing yards (1,604).

Saxton started his coaching career at his alma mater, Emory & Henry College. He spent two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2019-2020) and one season as the running backs coach (2018). Saxton was responsible for the offensive play calling that led to the Wasps offense to rank in the top 25 nationally. In 2020, the Wasps led the ODAC in total offense as Saxton mentored nine All-ODAC selections. Saxton was assigned recruiting territories of Northern Virginia, Charlotte and South Carolina.

Saxton played one season for Appalachian State in 2013 but transferred to Emory & Henry in 2014, where he became a four-year starter for the Wasps (2014-17). He finished his playing career as the all-time leader in passing yards and total offense in school history. Saxton earned an All-ODAC selection, ODAC Freshman of the Year and VaSID Offensive Rookie of the Year. While at Emory & Henry, Saxton was a member of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee and the NCAA Division III Immersion Program which he became an alumnus of in 2017. Saxton received a Bachelor's degree in Sports Management.

Education: Emory & Henry College (B.S. 2018) Born: Indian Trail, N.C. Family: Wife – Lauren; Son – Tre.

ALEX WHITTINGHAM

WHITTINGHAM'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2013-17 University of Utah ..... Linebacker
2018-24 Kansas City Chiefs ..... Defensive Assistant ('18)
Defensive Quality Control ('19-24)

Alex Whittingham enters his seventh season with Kansas City in 2024 and sixth season as a defensive quality control coach after serving a single season as defensive assistant in 2018.

Whittingham primarily assisted the linebackers unit in 2023. The unit was highlighted by LB Nick Bolton and LB Drue Tranquill, who were acquired in the offseason. Bolton, despite playing just eight games due to injury, was still the defense's fifth-leading tackler with 60 tackles (38 solo) and added an interception, three passes defensed, a quarterback pressure and a tackle for loss. With Whittingham's assistance, Tranquill quickly integrated into the unit and emerged as the defense's third-highest tackler with 79 (54 solo). He showed his versatility with 4.5 sacks (-19.0 yards) and added seven quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss and two forced fumbles to his production. The linebacker unit helped propel the Chiefs to their second-straight Super Bowl (LVII and LVIII) and third Super Bowl title in five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII).

In 2022, Whittingham worked closely with the linebackers unit led by new green dot and second-year LB Nick Bolton. Bolton had a historic season totaling 180 tackles (108 solo) which not only led the team but broke the Chiefs single-season tackle record en route to the Chiefs Super Bowl LVII victory. Bolton paired his high caliber tackling with 2.0 sacks, two interceptions, seven quarterback pressures and nine tackles for loss. The linebacking unit was also highlighted by LB Willie Gay who posted career highs in tackles (88), sacks (2.5), passes defensed (eight), quarterback pressures (four) and tackles for loss (nine). Whittingham also assisted with the development of rookie LB Leo Chenal, who took snaps in all 17 games logging 29 tackles (16 solo) and 1.0 sack.

The 2021 season marked Whittingham's second year working closely with the linebacking unit. With his assistance, this unit accounted for 2.5 sacks on the season and a fumble recovery for a touchdown versus the Broncos in Week 18. The defense's top two tacklers were rookie LB Nick Bolton who recorded 112 tackles (70 solo) and 11 for loss and fellow LB Anthony Hitchens who totaled 80 tackles with four for loss. Bolton was voted by his teammates as the team's Mack Lee Hill award winner as the best rookie or first-year player.

In 2020, Whittingham primarily worked with a linebacking group that accounted for 3.0 sacks and 244 tackles. LBs Hitchens and Damien Wilson were the second and third leading tacklers with 78 (44 solo) and 70 (43 solo), respectively, and five tackles for loss between them.

Whittingham stepped into a new role as defensive quality control in 2019, working closely with new Chiefs Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo. He worked with the defensive line including Pro Bowl DT Chris Jones and DE Frank Clark who were ranked first and second on the team in sacks with 17.0 regular season sacks between them. Clark's 5.0 postseason sacks helped lead the Chiefs to a Super Bowl LIV victory over the 49ers.

Following his playing career at Utah, Whittingham jumped directly to the professional coaching ranks in 2018. He joined the Chiefs as a defensive assistant working closely with the outside linebackers including Pro Bowl selection fifth-year LB Dee Ford who was tied-first in the NFL with seven forced fumbles with All-Pro DE J.J. Watt and had a career-high 13.0 sacks. Whittingham worked closely with LB Justin Houston who had 9.0 sacks on the season and five forced fumbles.

The Salt Lake City native was a walk-on for the Utes earning four letters (2013-17) appearing in 45 games as a special teams contributor. During the 2017 season, he was responsible for short snaps and spent time on both the kick and punt return team. He was a three-time honorable mention Pac-12 All-Academic selection. While at Utah, Whittingham played under his father, Kyle, who remains the Utes head coach and his uncle, Freddie Whittingham, who still serves as the tight ends coach.

Prior to attending Utah, Whittingham spent two years (2011-13) after high school serving as a missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Auckland, New Zealand.

Education: University of Utah (B.S. 2017). Hometown: Salt Lake City, Utah. Family: Wife - Gabi; Daughters - Eleanor and Amelia.

WILLIAMS' FOOTBALL CAREER

2015-18 Stevenson University ..... Quarterback
2019-24 Kansas City Chiefs ..... Coaching Intern ('19)
Assistant to the HC ('20-21)
Offensive Quality Control/Asst. QBs ('23-24)

Dan Williams enters his sixth season with the Chiefs in 2024, and his second as the offensive quality control/assistant quarterbacks coach after serving one season as an offensive assistant in 2022. Williams spent his first two seasons with the Chiefs as the assistant to the head coach (2020-21) and spent the 2019 season as a coaching intern.

In 2023, Williams worked closely with Quarterback's Coach David Girardi and the rest of the quarterback room. Williams worked closely with QB Chris Oladokun throughout the season and assisted QB Patick Mahomes to earn his third Super Bowl MVP (LIV, LVII and LVIII) after defeating the 49ers 25-22 in overtime in Super Bowl LVIII. Mahomes had another standout year throwing for 4,183 yards on 401 completions with 27 touchdowns. Williams has now been a part of three Super Bowl wins (LIV, LVII and LVIII) in five years, including back-to-back championships (LVII and LVIII).

Williams worked closely with the quarterbacks in 2022 in his sole season as an offensive assistant. With Williams' assistance, QB Patrick Mahomes and the Chiefs offense produced a historic season en route to their second Super Bowl victory in four years (LIV, LVII). Mahomes and the offense led the league in many categories: passing yards (5,250), passing touchdowns (41), passing TD percentage (6.3%), passing first downs (272) and pass plays of 25+ yards (49). Mahomes completed 435 of his 648 passes and his 67.1 completion percentage was the highest of his career. The sixth-year quarterback set franchise records for passing yards (5,250) and single-season passing first downs (272) in 2022. Mahomes' 2022 performance earned him his second NFL MVP and Super Bowl MVP after the Chiefs took down the Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII.

In 2019, Williams worked closely with the quarterbacks and tight ends, gaining experience as a coaching intern of Super Bowl LIV Champion Chiefs before moving to his role as assistant to the head coach. During his time as assistant to the head coach, Williams worked directly with Head Coach Andy Reid in organizing the day-to-day operations of the team. His responsibilities included overseeing player and staff communications with the head coach and managing the football calendar, which includes the offseason program, minicamp and in-season schedules.

The Sicklerville, N.J., native spent four seasons (2015-18) at Stevenson University where he served as the starting quarterback and team captain. Williams left the Mustangs as the school's all-time leader in career completions (482), attempts (755), completion percentage (64%), passing yards (6,812) and passing touchdowns (57).

Williams' father, Ted Williams, spent 20 years on the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff working with the tight ends (1995-96; 2013-14) and running backs (1997-2012). He also spent two years as a pro scout with the Eagles in 2015-16. Ted Williams spent 14 seasons under Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid while Reid was the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles (1999-2012).

Education: Stevenson University (B.S. 2018; M.Comm. 2019). Hometown: Sicklerville, N.J. Family: Wife - Ashley; Daughter - Kaia.

ROD WILSON

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

WILSON'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2001-04	South Carolina	Linebacker
2005-08	Chicago Bears	Linebacker
2009	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	Linebacker
2010	Chicago Bears	Linebacker
2013-16	Charleston Southern	Safeties ('13) Inside Linebackers ('14-16)
2017-19	Kansas City Chiefs	Assistant Special Teams
2020	South Carolina	Linebackers
2021	Coastal Carolina	Inside Linebackers
2022-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Assistant ('22-23) Outside Linebackers ('24)

Rod Wilson enters his sixth season with the Chiefs and enters his first season as outside linebackers coach in 2024 after spending two seasons as a defensive assistant (2022-23). Wilson returned to Kansas City after spending the 2021 season coaching inside linebackers at Coastal Carolina following the 2020 season where he coached linebackers at his alma mater, South Carolina. Wilson spent his first three seasons (2017-19) in Kansas City as the assistant special teams coach. His 12 years in the NFL includes a six-year playing career.

Wilson spent the 2023 season primarily working with the defensive backs as a defensive assistant. Working closely with defensive backs coach Dave Merritt, Wilson helped CB L'Jarius Sneed and CB Trent McDuffie become one of the league's most lockdown corner duos. Sneed led the team with two interceptions, was the fourth-leading tackler totaling 78 tackles (60 solo) and added 14 passes defensed. McDuffie showed his versatility with 3.0 sacks (-24.0 yards), tallied the second-most tackles on the team with 80 tackles (60 solo) and added nine quarterback pressures, seven passes defensed and was selected to the AP All-Pro first-team. Wilson also helped to develop DB Chamarri Conner who snagged an interception in his 17 games of action and showed promise with his 28 tackles (24 solo) and two tackles for loss. The defense played a major role in the club's second-straight Super Bowl title (LVII and LVIII), allowing the fewest second half points across the league.

In 2022, Wilson returned to Kansas City as a defensive assistant working closely with the defensive backs. The defensive backs unit was full of youth with five rookies on the roster, the most of all playoff teams. With Wilson's assistance, two rookies who shined were CBs Jaylen Watson and Joshua Williams who both snagged a regular and postseason interception. Watson made league history during the Week 2 Chiefs win over the Chargers, returning an interception 99-yards for the longest go-ahead fourth-quarter touchdown by a rookie. Third year CB L'Jarius Sneed and S Juan Thornhill led the team with three interceptions a piece en route to Wilson's second Super Bowl ring (LIV, LVII). Sneed also tacked on a career-high 3.5 sacks while rookie CB Trent McDuffie returned from a hamstring injury sustained in Week 1 to total 44 tackles (28 solo), 1.0 sack and seven passes defensed.

In 2021, Wilson assisted Coastal Carolina to an 11-2 record en route to a 47-41 win over NIU in the Cure Bowl. He mentored a defense that was ranked in the top 25 nationally, tutoring LB Silas Kelly to earn first-team All-Sun Belt and second-team PFF All-Sun Belt honors, as well as ranking third in the conference in tackles. He also tutored LB Teddy Gallagher to earn a Sun Belt honorable mention.

At the University of South Carolina in 2020, Wilson oversaw the linebackers, mentoring LB Ernest Jones to lead the team in tackles (86) and a 2020 Phil Steele All-SEC fourth-team selection. Jones went on to be selected by the Los Angeles Rams with the 40th pick in the third-round of the 2021 NFL Draft. Wilson also coached LB Mohamed Kaba who returned from an ACL injury to total 13 tackles in nine games, earning him an SEC All-Freshman selection.

The 2019 Super Bowl Champion Chiefs special teams ranked in the top 10 in kick returns, kick return coverage and punt return coverage. Rookie WR Mecole Hardman scored on a touchdown on a 104-yard kickoff return in the final game of the regular season against the Los Angeles Chargers which ranked as the third-longest kickoff return in Chiefs history. He was named second-team All-Pro as a kick returner and named to his first Pro Bowl as a return specialist. K Harrison Butker set a franchise record for most points by a kicker in a single season with 147 points.

In 2018, the Chiefs special teams ranked tied for third in punt returns, fourth in punt return coverage and tied for eighth in kickoff returns. With Wilson's assistance, Butker had a strong second season, making 24-of-27 kicks and P Dustin Colquitt placed 21 kicks inside the 20-yard line, moving him to third all-time in NFL history (441).

In 2017, Wilson assisted Special Teams Coordinator Dave Toub, helping guide Butker to a decorated rookie season. Butker recorded a franchise record of 23 consecutive FGs, ranking first at the time for most FGs made in a single season in franchise history and tied for first at the time for the most 50-plus yard FGs made in a season with four. During the 2017 season, Wilson also assisted with the return and coverage units helping the Chiefs lead the NFL in kick returns (47) for 1,051 yards. This special teams performance helped earn WR/PR Tyreek Hill his second Pro Bowl selection after he recorded 25 punt returns for 204 yards and a touchdown.

Prior to his first stint with the Chiefs, Wilson spent four seasons (2013-16) at Charleston Southern coaching the safeties (2013), inside linebackers (2014-16) and assisting with special teams, after the conclusion of his six-year NFL playing career. While still coaching at CSU, Wilson made a brief stop in Kansas City as the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellow for the club's 2015 training camp. As the Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellow, Wilson assisted with the linebackers and special teams units, working closely with the rest of the coaching staff to further develop his coaching techniques.

In 2015, CSU ranked atop the league in total defense (292.0 yards per game) and held opponents to the second-fewest rushing yards per game (147.1) which helped earn an outright Big South title and the program's first-ever berth into the FCS Playoffs. Under Wilson's tutelage, CSU landed at least one linebacker on the Big South's All-Conference squad each of his four seasons. In 2016, Wilson helped guide the Buccaneers defense to top rankings within the league, limiting opponents to the fewest rushing touchdowns (15) and fewest total rushing yards (1,488).

Prior to his collegiate coaching career, Wilson enjoyed a six-year playing career in the National Football League. Originally selected in the seventh round of the 2005 NFL Draft (220th overall) by the Chicago Bears, Wilson appeared in 51 games during his five seasons playing for the Chicago Bears (2005-08; 2010) and sole season playing for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2009). Wilson tallied 47 tackles and one forced fumble while primarily playing a special teams role under then-Special Teams Coach Dave Toub. Wilson's career highlights include four playoff appearances, which included two NFC Championship appearances and a trip to Super Bowl XLI.

The Cross, S.C., native attended the University of South Carolina, where he played five different positions for the Gamecocks (quarterback, wide receiver, spur, safety and linebacker) and put together an outstanding senior year as one of USC's captains. Wilson led the team in tackles (68) while earning All-SEC honors and SEC Academic Honor Roll accolades.

Education: South Carolina (B.S. 2004). Born: Cross, S.C. Family: Wife - Megan; Sons - Jaylen and Ryan; Daughter - Nova.

MIKE BORGONZI

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

BORGONZI'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1998-01	Brown	Fullback
2002	Amherst College	Tight Ends
2007-08	Boston College	Asst. Recruiting Coordinator
2009-24	Kansas City Chiefs	College Scouting Admin. ('09)
		Manager of Football Ops ('10)
		Pro Personnel Scout ('11-12)
		Asst. Director of Pro Scouting ('13-14)
		Co-Director of Player Personnel ('15-16)
		Director of Player Personnel ('17)
		Director of Football Operations ('18-20)
		Assistant General Manager ('21-24)

Mike Borgonzi enters his 16th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024. He was promoted to Assistant General Manager in 2021 after serving three seasons as the club's Director of Football Operations (2018-20) and three seasons as the club's Director of Player Personnel (2017)/Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16).

In his current capacity, Borgonzi supervises and directs the club's college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising General Manager Brett Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, NFL free agency, street free agency, waiver claims and trades. Borgonzi has now played a role in putting together three Super Bowl winning rosters, including back-to-back Super Bowl teams (LVII and LVIII). He has been instrumental in curating Chiefs teams that have participated in four of the last five Super Bowls (LIV, LV, LVII and LVIII) while winning eight-straight AFC West titles and appearing in six AFC Championship Games – hosting a record breaking five AFC Championship Games.

The 2023 draft class was called upon and they did not disappoint. Rookie WR Rashee Rice developed steadily throughout the year into the team's second-leading receiver, trailing just TE Travis Kelce in receiving yards with 938 and a team-high seven touchdown receptions. Rookie OL Wanya Morris stepped up when injuries took down LT Donovan Smith and showed promise in his 14 games played. On the defensive side, rookie DB Chamarri Conner showed his versatility and managed to haul in one interception, a pass defensed and 24 solo tackles. The 2022 draft class also had a lot of young talent that made an immediate impact – most notably when the Chiefs faced the Eagles in Super Bowl LVII with four rookies in the starting lineup (Isiah Pacheco, George Karlaftis, Trent McDuffie and Jaylen Watson). The Chiefs played a total of eight rookies in the Super Bowl victory, which included a touchdown by rookie RB Isiah Pacheco and a forced fumble from CB Trent McDuffie.

Prior to his current role, Borgonzi spent one year as Director of Football Operations. Before then, he took on the entirety of the Director of Player Personnel position in 2017 after serving alongside current Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach as Co-Director of Player Personnel for two years (2015-16).

Borgonzi served as the club's Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14) and as the club's Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) where he evaluated all professional players, recommended free agents, oversaw free agent workouts, evaluated college players and assisted the coaching staff with advance scouting reports for the teams' upcoming opponents.

In 2010, he served as the club's Manager of Football Operations where he coordinated team logistics, assisted in budget planning for various departments, oversaw day-to-day operations on the football side and wrote player evaluation reports on a weekly basis for the club's advance scouting.

Borgonzi joined the Chiefs in 2009, serving as the club's College Scouting Administrator where he worked closely with the College Director and college scouts to ensure proper planning of the college department while assisting in player evaluation reports on both the college and pro side.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Borgonzi served two seasons as the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator at Boston College (2007-08) where the team played in the ACC Championship twice and won the 2007 Champs Bowl. Before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years, he served as the tight ends coach at Amherst College in 2002.

The Everett, Mass., native was a four-year starter as a fullback on the Brown University Football Team, earning All-Ivy League honors three times. Borgonzi's brother, Dave, is currently the linebackers coach for the Chicago Bears.

Education: Brown University (B.A. 2002). Family: Wife - Jill; Son, Joseph; Daughter, Nina.

		Football Ops Counsel & Personnel Exec. ('18-20)
		VP of Football Operations/Team Counsel ('21-23)
		Senior VP of FB Ops & Strategy (2024)

Chris Shea enters his eighth season with the Kansas City Chiefs and first season as Senior Vice President of Football Operations and Strategy. He previously served as the club's Vice President of Football Operations/Team Counsel (2021-23), Football Operations Counsel and Personnel Executive (2018-20), and originally joined the Chiefs as the Salary Cap and Legal Executive (2017). Since joining the Chiefs, Shea has served in a multi-faceted role as a salary cap executive, legal counsel, and scouting evaluator. He has been significantly involved in all roster decisions, trades and player contact negotiations, including those for QB Patrick Mahomes, DT Chris Jones and TE Travis Kelce.

In his new role, Shea supports Head Coach Andy Reid and General Manager Brett Veach in all aspects of the club's football operation, including development and implementation of the team's roster building and resource allocation strategies. He directly oversees the departments responsible for the organization's football administration and roster related analytics efforts. Shea is the club's lead negotiator for player contracts and trades, oversees management of the club's salary cap and player contracts, and is the team's primary liaison to the NFL for player personnel, league policy, and collective bargaining related matters. He provides scouting evaluations of top college and NFL talent and plays a significant role in the club's preparations for the NFL draft and veteran free agency. Shea also works closely with senior leadership to help manage football staff budgets and employment agreements.

Entering his 26th season in the NFL, Shea has diverse leadership experience in all aspects of football operations, including coaching, scouting, salary cap management, labor law, NFL legal matters, analytics, and instant replay officiating. In addition to being an attorney, Shea is a seasoned college and pro talent evaluator with 20 years of scouting experience, including 10 seasons as a full-time pro/advance scout. He has 13 seasons of experience managing the salary cap for the league or teams. He contributed to building Super Bowl champion teams with two different organizations (Philadelphia 2017, Kansas City 2019, 2022 and 2023) and has helped build the rosters of teams who have competed in five of the last seven Super Bowls (Philadelphia 2017, Kansas City 2019, 2020, 2022 and 2023). He has worked for the NFL Management Council, six NFL clubs, two NCAA football programs, a high school football team, and a law firm specializing in labor and employment law. Shea has worked under several Super Bowl winning head coaches (Tom Coughlin, Bill Parcells, Doug Pederson, and Andy Reid) and front office executives (including Terry Bradway, Dick Haley, Bill Polian, Howie Roseman, and Brett Veach).

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Shea spent the previous three seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (2015-17), serving as the Director of Scouting Administration/Personnel Scout in 2016-May 2017 after initially joining the Eagles as Director of Scouting Administration/Strategic Management in May 2015. In Philadelphia, he helped develop the team's roster-building strategy, scouted pro and college players, advance scouted opponents, oversaw daily operations of the player personnel department, coordinated data research for player personnel, and managed development of the club's scouting-related technology. Shea coordinated all administrative aspects of the Eagles 2016 draft and contributed to building the 2017 Eagles roster that went on to win Super Bowl LII.

Shea spent seven seasons with the Miami Dolphins (2008-14), including his final four as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. In that capacity, he served as the Dolphins primary advance scout, was a senior evaluator of all pro players, performed year-round analysis of the other NFL rosters, and oversaw the daily operations of Miami's pro scouting department. He was promoted in May 2011 after previously serving as the Dolphins Player Personnel Administrator (2010-11) and Player Personnel Coordinator (2008-10). In those roles, he combined scouting, legal, salary cap management, information technology and analytics duties. From 2008-11, he coordinated all aspects of the Dolphins draft efforts.

During 2007-08, he was employed by the NFL Management Council. Initially, Shea served as a law clerk focusing on player grievances and litigation. Shea was later hired as the Coordinator of Labor Operations. In that capacity, he reviewed all player contracts to ensure compliance with league policies and the NFL CBA, advised club executives on player contract and salary cap issues and was a speaker at the NFL's annual Labor Seminar. He was also an Instant Replay Communicator for the NFL Officiating Department in 2007.

Shea was a scouting consultant with the Dallas Cowboys in 2005-06. From 2000-04, he was the New York Jets Pro Personnel Assistant. Shea broke into the NFL in 1995 as operations/equipment intern for the Carolina Panthers.

Shea worked in college football from 1992-2000 spending time as the Football Recruiting Assistant at Boston College (1998-2000), the Assistant Offensive Line Coach for Harvard University (1997-98) and a Student Football Manager at Boston College (Head 1994-96, Varsity 1992-93). While at Harvard, he coached four future NFL players including Pro Bowl center Matt Birk. In 1991, Shea was an assistant coach at Belmont High School (Mass.).

Shea is licensed to practice law in New York and is a member of the New York and American Bar Associations. The Belmont, Mass., native has also been employed outside of the football industry as a law clerk at the New York law firm of Colleran, O'Hara and Mills, and as a Temporary Corrections Officer in Middlesex County (Mass.) Sheriff's Department.

Education: Hofstra University School of Law (J.D. 2007), Boston College (B.A. 1998). Family: Wife – Kirsten; Daughter – Caitlin.

		Asst. Director of College Scouting ('17)
		Director of College Scouting ('18-20)
		Senior Director of College Scouting ('21)
		Dir. of Player Personnel/College Scouting ('22-24)

Ryne Nutt enters his 15th season in the NFL and with Kansas City in 2024. He was named Director of Player Personnel/College Scouting in 2022 after serving one season as Senior Director of College Scouting (2021), three seasons as the Director of College Scouting (2018-20) and one season as the Assistant Director of College Scouting (2017).

In his current role with the Chiefs, he assists General Manager Brett Veach with organizing and managing areas in both the college and pro sides of scouting. He helps oversee the college scouting department while crossing over to support work on the pro scouting side, collaborating with Director of Player Personnel/Pro Scouting Tim Terry and Senior Director of Player Personnel Mike Bradway.

Nutt was promoted to Assistant Director of College Scouting in 2017 after serving five seasons as an area scout (2012-16), covering the West/Northwest, Northeast and Southeast parts of the country. Prior to being promoted to an area scout in 2012, Nutt spent his first two NFL seasons as a scouting assistant with Kansas City (2010-11).

Nutt spent one season as the tight ends coach at Wagner College (2009) before joining the club. In 2008, he served as the defensive line coach at Iona College.

After spending four seasons playing offensive line for Central Connecticut State and graduating Summa Cum Laude, Nutt served as a summer camp volunteer coach for the Blue Devils. Nutt was a Mid-Major All-American on the field, as well as an academic All-American his junior and senior year.

Education: Central Connecticut State (B.A. 2007).

TIM TERRY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL/ PRO SCOUTING

21ST YEAR IN THE NFL | 8TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

TERRY'S FOOTBALL CAREER
1993-97	Temple	Defensive Lineman
1997-98	Cincinnati Bengals	Defensive Lineman
1999	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Lineman
1999	Hamilton Tiger-Cats	Defensive Lineman
2000-03	Seattle Seahawks	Outside Linebacker
2004-17	Green Bay Packers	Dir. of Player Development ('07) Assistant Director of Pro Personnel ('08-17)
2017-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Dir. of Pro Personnel ('17-20) Senior Dir. of Pro Personnel ('21) Dir. of Player Personnel/Pro Scouting ('22-24)

Tim Terry enters his eighth season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 and his third as the club's Director of Player Personnel/Pro Scouting.

In his current capacity, Terry oversees the team's pro department, prioritizing the advance scouting efforts for upcoming Chiefs opponents and scouting efforts of collegiate and professional prospects. Terry works closely with the entire pro department to coordinate the identification of free agents throughout the year, with his primary scouting focus being the AFC West.

In 2023 and 2022, Terry was voted by his peers to the BART List, named after former Rams scout Danton Barto, for Pro Scout of the Year at the Inside the League Draft Awards. Terry also earned his League of Leaders certificate from the Stanford School of Business in 2023. He has been an Ozzie Newsome General Manager Forum presenter and participant. While in Kansas City, Terry has been a part of the NFL Accelerator program twice (2021 and 2023).

Prior to his current position, he spent one year as the club's Senior Director of Pro Personnel (2021) and four seasons as the Director of Pro Personnel (2017-20), where his primary duties included scouting professional prospects in the NFL, CFL, XFL, USFL and Arena Football League. He was also involved with in-season advance scouting of upcoming Chiefs opponents.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Terry spent 13 seasons in the Packers pro personnel department, most recently serving as Green Bay's Assistant Director of Pro Personnel.

In 2008, Terry was named Assistant Director of Pro Personnel after serving as a pro personnel assistant the previous three years. During his time as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel, he helped assemble the Packers teams that went on to win seven NFC North Division Titles, an NFC Conference Championship and Super Bowl XLV. In his role with the Packers, Terry focused on identifying free agents to add to the roster and advance scouting of opponents. During the 2007 season, he continued to work in the personnel department while also serving as the director of player development.

Terry originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent out of Temple with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1997. As a rookie, he saw action in five games, logging three stops and five special teams tackles. Terry spent the 1998 season on the team's practice squad.

In 1999, he went to camp with the Kansas City Chiefs, but was released and subsequently signed with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the CFL, helping that club to a Grey Cup championship.

Terry then joined the Seattle Seahawks practice squad in early 2000 before being signed to the active roster, playing in six games, collecting two special teams stops and forcing a fumble on a kickoff return.

Terry saw action in all 16 games for Seattle each of the following two seasons (2001-02), with his best professional campaign coming in 2002. That year, Terry posted a career-high 42 tackles, including 1.0 sack, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. His NFL career included 43 games played (eight starts), 55 tackles, 3.5 sacks and 19 special teams stops.

At Temple, Terry played in all 44 games (43 starts) as a defensive lineman during his four seasons and finished his career with 208 tackles. Terry graduated with a degree in political science and a minor in African-American studies. He obtained his master's degree in management at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in the winter of 2011. Terry was also a recipient of The Network Journal's 40 Under Forty achievement award in 2012. Terry has been a prominent leader in each community he has worked, staying active in Big Brothers Big Sisters of America while he was in Green Bay and working with Journey House in Milwaukee. Terry also served as a chaplain for the Brown County Jail (Wisc.).

An all-state selection at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School, he also lettered in track, basketball and lacrosse.

Education: Temple (B.S. 1997), University of Wisconsin-Green Bay (M.S. 2011). Family: Wife - Andrea; Children - Zoe, Timothy II, Jayden, Tyson and Reese.

Perrigo worked closely with the events staff to plan and execute internal events such as the Chiefs Christmas Party, 101 Awards and the club's 2022 training camp.

During her time as a seasonal assistant, Perrigo began shadowing in the personnel department and at the conclusion of her year as a seasonal assistant, she spent several months with the Kansas City Current as the team's Player Care Coordinator (March-June). In her time with the Current, she worked closely with players and the front office to create synergy between the needs of the players and the demands of the club.

Perrigo first began her work with the Chiefs as a training camp operations intern, spending the summer of 2021 in St. Joseph at Missouri Western State University assisting fans and the day-to-day operation.

A graduate of University of Miami, Perrigo spent time in the Miami Athletic Office as a Facility and Event Operations intern in 2021 and has had various stints with ESPN with freelance work as a production runner (2020-22) and as a production coordinator (2022).

She graduated from University of Miami in 2022 with a bachelors degree in communications and media studies.

Education: University of Miami (2022) Hometown: Charlotte, N.C.

MARC RICHARDS

FOOTBALL RESEARCH ANALYST

3RD YEAR IN THE NFL | 3RD YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

RICHARDS' FOOTBALL CAREER
2021	Oklahoma City Thunder	Data Science Intern
2022-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Football Research Analyst

Marc Richards enters his third season with the Chiefs as a Football Research Analyst in 2024.

In his current position, Richards assists the Chiefs coaching and personnel staffs by developing metrics and processes for player and team performance, decision making, trade valuations, and in-game situational analysis.

Prior to arriving in Kansas City, Richards spent time with the Oklahoma City Thunder working with the Thunder's Strategic Planning Group in Basketball Operations.

In 2021, Richards took home the grand prize in the Big Data Bowl. His team used Next Gen Statistics to develop a framework for accessing individual defensive performance in coverage. Richards was also a finalist in the 2022 NFL Big Data Bowl as his team used Next Gen Statistics to explore punter's optimal aiming location and hang time.

As he worked on a Ph.D. in Statistics at the University of Pittsburgh, Richards TA'd and taught undergraduate and graduate level courses in statistics. Advised by Dr. Lucas Mentch, his main research areas involved using classical statistical inference to understand modern machine learning algorithms as well as spatial-temporal modeling of crime such as quantifying the impact of COVID-19 on crime across US Cities. Prior to graduate school, he spent nearly four years working in the reinsurance industry helping model, assess and evaluate insurance companies' risk to natural and man-made disasters.

The Wayzata, Minn., native also has a background in hockey. On the ice, Richards played right defense at St. Olaf and was elected team captain for the 2015-16 season. Off the ice, he won the RITSAC Data Competition in 2019 and was a finalist in the Big Data Cup in 2021.

Education: St. Olaf College (B.A. 2016); Pittsburgh (M.A. 2021). Born: Wayzata, Minn. Family: Wife - Kate.

ALLEN WRIGHT

EQUIPMENT DIRECTOR

42ND YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Allen Wright enters his 42nd season with the Chiefs and his 41st in the equipment department after joining the Chiefs in 1983 as a training camp courier. Wright joined the equipment staff in 1984 as an equipment assistant and served in that role for 27 seasons until being promoted to Head Equipment Manager in 2011. Wright was named Director of Equipment in 2016.

Wright oversees all facets of the equipment operation, ensuring each player is equipped with properly fitted and safe equipment each practice and gameday as well as oversees all logistics, purchasing and inventory for players, coaches and the football staff. Wright and his staff are responsible for preparing the sideline every game day, anticipating any and all needs of the players and coaches. Wright works closely with Head Coach Andy Reid, ensuring that the team's practices and walk-throughs run seamlessly and that the proper practice equipment is prepared prior to each time the team takes the field.

Wright has worked with Head Coach Andy Reid for his entirety of his Chiefs career (2013-current) and has worked with nine different head coaches while with the club, including former Chiefs Head Coaches Marty Schottenheimer and Dick Vermeil.

Over the past decade, Wright has ensured the team's preparedness for a historic run with six AFC Championship Games, including hosting an NFL record five-straight, and four Super Bowl appearances in five years with three rings (LIV, LVII and LVIII). In Wright's tenure, he has led the equipment operation for seven international games, taking the team's equipment operations to four different countries and managing the logistics of equipment needs through each trip.

Wright also oversees the team's move each summer to training camp. For the past 14 seasons, Wright has moved the team's equipment needs to Missouri Western State in St. Joseph, Mo. for the team's training camp securing everything the team could need for the month they are away at camp. Wright also helped in the efforts of moving the team to William Jewell College (1983-90) and the University of Wisconsin – River Falls (1991-2009) for camp each summer.

A key component to the success of his department is his dedication to safety. Wright became the first NFL equipment manager to take and pass the AEMA Certification Test, despite being eligible to be grandfathered in, noting the importance of all equipment managers passing the certification. Wright went on to conduct two workshops at the Annual AEMA Equipment Managers Convention on the fitting of helmets and shoulder pads.

Wright earned NFL's Equipment Manager of the Year in 2018 while working his fourth-straight Pro Bowl and was runner-up for the award in 2014. In 2017, Wright was awarded the Innovation in Safety Award by the Maxwell Football Club and co-sponsor, VICIS, a developer of high-tech football helmets. Wright's rigorous and detail-oriented helmet fitting protocol, which aims to optimize the fit of every player's helmet prior to every week's game, earned him the honor. Wright was also named Equipment Manager of the Year from New Era in 2015. In Wright's career, he has worked four Senior Bowls (1990-91, 1997 and 2000) and five Pro Bowls (1993, 2014-17).

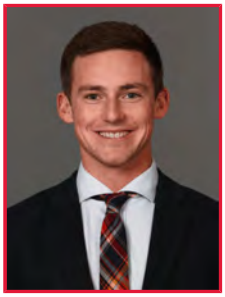

Off the field, Wright has emphasized giving back to the community. He has served on the board of directors for Kansas City's FOX 4 Love Fund and has been heavily involved with Mother's Refuge, an organization that supports local teenage mothers with housing, clothing and other necessities. Wright also lends his expertise to the community, helping Blue Spring Athletic Association Little League Football with their equipment fittings.

The Sugar Creek, Mo., native is a graduate of Longview College and Willliam Crisman High School in Independence, Mo.

Education: Longview College. Family: Wife – Lisa; Children – Andrew.

PAT BRAZIL

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

34TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 19TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Pat Brazil enters his 19th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2024 as the club's Director of Video Operations. This year will mark Brazil's 34th season in the National Football League.

Brazil and his staff are responsible for videotaping and editing all the Chiefs games and practices. His team also works closely with the coaching staff to help breakdown opponents' tendencies by creating game film "cut-ups" and reports each week. The video department is also tasked with maintaining a vast digital archive of NFL and college game footage. Brazil's department also manages the club's mobile digital playbook and video solution across multiple electronic platforms for players, coaches and scouts.

For the past 11 seasons, Brazil has served as a member of the NFL's Video Directors Committee. This committee of Video Directors works closely with NFL Football Operations, NFL Information Technology and other League departments to help devise and implement the latest in gameday technology.

In addition, Brazil currently serves on the first-ever six-person committee of current and former NFL video directors who select luminaries in their profession for the "Awards of Excellence". This committee just completed its second year of selecting inductees who annually get recognized by the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Brazil started his NFL journey working as a Chiefs video assistant for five years from 1986 to 1990. In 1991, Brazil joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for 15 seasons as Assistant Video Director, prior to becoming the Chiefs Director of Video Operations in 2006.

Family: Wife – Dana; Sons – Jason and Connor.

2024 CHIEFS TRAINING CAMP

The Kansas City Chiefs returned to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri, for the 14th time to host 2024 Chiefs Training Camp presented by Mosaic Life Care. With the exception of a one-year hiatus caused by the coronavirus pandemic in 2020, the Chiefs have hosted training camp in St. Joseph every year since 2010.

In February 2020, the Chiefs and MWSU reached a three-year agreement to keep St. Joseph the summer home of the Chiefs through the 2022 season, and in March 2023, the parties exercised the agreement's two-year option to stay through 2024. As part of the agreement, Missouri Western made a number of updates to better serve Chiefs fans, the club, the community and Missouri Western students. Most notably, this included the development of a new seating area on the north end of the existing practice fields.

This, along with other improvements, were completed through a collaboration with the city of St. Joseph and Buchanan County. In addition, the university renovated Scanlon Hall in order to provide a better experience for Chiefs players, coaches and staff who use that dorm throughout the duration of training camp.

"We are thrilled to announce that we will return to Missouri Western State University and the St. Joseph community for another two years...We look forward to starting our 2023 season at Missouri Western again this summer," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said at the time of the announcement.

St. Joseph and Missouri Western are located approximately an hour north of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and roughly 35 minutes north of Kansas City International Airport. The community of 72,000 and Missouri Western have embraced the Chiefs since camp returned to the Show-Me State in 2010.

The Chiefs enjoy a number of amenities at the climate-controlled Griffon Indoor Complex, including state-of-the-art locker rooms, training rooms, meeting rooms, weight room facilities and a 120-yard indoor field. In addition to the indoor practice area, two 120-yard regulation NFL grass fields have been installed. The team also has access to the artificial surface of Craig Field at Spratt Memorial Stadium. Blum Union houses the team's dining hall and serves as the club's media headquarters.

The Missouri Development Finance Board approved a $25 million tax credit in June of 2009 to help bring Chiefs Training Camp back to Missouri. Through the Hunt family's additional contributions to the GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium renovation project, the family and the Chiefs organization made a $10 million investment toward the Griffon Indoor Complex at Missouri Western.

CHIEFS PRESEASON TV -- A 65TPT PRODUCTION

Chiefs All-Pro QB Trent Green and NFL Network's Ari Wolfe are joined by NFL Network's Kimmi Chex and Chiefs Senior Team Reporter Matt McMullen as they headline the Chiefs Television Network preseason broadcasts. Chiefs 2024 preseason television broadcasts can be found on KSHB, the Home of the Chiefs and KMCI. Chiefs preseason broadcasts will be seen in 15 different markets across seven states and two international markets. Produced by the award-winning Chiefs in-house production team, 65 Toss Power Trap Productions, and aired by KSHB and KMCI in Kansas City, all preseason games will be available in high definition. All games will be streamed live on Chiefs.com and through the Chiefs Mobile app in-market only.

Green will serve as a color commentator, Wolfe will handle play-by-play and Chex will serve as a sideline analyst alongside McMullen.

Trent Green joined CBS Sports as a game analyst for CBS Television Network's coverage of THE NFL ON CBS in April 2014. Green concluded his 16-year NFL playing career in 2008 and launched his broadcasting career with FOX Sports in 2009. In six seasons with Kansas City (2001-06), Green established then-franchise career records for passer rating (87.3), completion percentage (61.9) and 300-yard games (24). A two-time winner of the Derrick Thomas Award as Kansas City's MVP (2003-04), Green threw for 21,459 yards and 118 TDs in a Chiefs uniform.

Ari Wolfe calls events for ESPN, Stadium Network, Tennis Channel, Pac-12 Network and NBC Sports. Additionally, he served as an anchor and reporter for NFL Network from 2009-2021. Wolfe is a two-time NBC Sports Olympic broadcaster and a two-time Emmy award winner for his work in college sports. Beginning in 2019, Wolfe became the play-by-play announcer for the Kansas City Chiefs preseason games, working alongside Trent Green. He previously called preseason games for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005 and for the Minnesota Vikings from 2007-2011. For the 2014 NFL preseason, Wolfe called games with Kurt Warner for NFL Network broadcasts. His work in the NFL began in 2003, where he served as a sideline reporter for Fox Sports for three seasons.

Kimmi Chex is entering her third season on the club's preseason broadcast team in 2024. An on-air personality for NFL Media, Chex can be seen across multiple NFL platforms as a regular contributor and host for various shows and projects. Her work has focused extensively on fantasy football as well as entertainment coverage of NFL events, such as the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl and the NFL Draft. A Kansas City, Missouri, native, she originally joined the NFL as part of the league's junior rotational program, working in both the league's New York and Los Angeles offices as a business analyst after graduating from the University of Iowa with a degree in journalism and mass communication.

Matt McMullen joined the Chiefs in 2017 as an in-house reporter with a multimedia focus, contributing as a written, video and social content producer in addition to serving as an on-camera host and commentator. McMullen has assisted behind-the-scenes with the Chiefs preseason productions over the years and 2024 will mark his fourth season as a sideline reporter for the broadcast.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

The Chiefs Radio Network is one of the largest and highest rated in the National Football League, boasting more than 100 affiliates throughout 14 states. Anchored by the flagship station, 106.5 The Wolf (WDAF-FM), the Chiefs Radio Network will broadcast all 2024 Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live.

One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus handles the play-by-play duties for the 30th-straight year, giving him more years of service than any other "Voice of the Chiefs" in team history. Entering 2024, Holthus has called a franchise-record 513 regular and postseason contests for Kansas City.

Holthus is a past president of the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, an eight-time winner of the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year Award, a winner of the Missouri Sportscaster of the Year Award, was named the 2024 Kansan of the Year by the Kansas Society of Washington, D.C. and has been inducted into both the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame (2008) and the Missouri Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame (2022). The Smith Center, Kansas, native also served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from 1983-96. In addition to his Chiefs duties, he began his duties as the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for FOX Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference in 1995. In 2008, Holthus added TV play-by-play coverage of Big 12 basketball to his resume and continued to broadcast select Missouri Valley basketball contests.

Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt celebrates Holthus' 500th career game, called on Oct. 12, 2023 as the Chiefs take on the Broncos at Empower Field at Mile High Stadium.

Former Chiefs wide receiver and current Ambassador Danan Hughes enters his fifth campaign as the network's color commentator alongside Holthus in the booth in 2024. Hughes has been broadcasting football and baseball as part of the Big Ten Network since 2008, as well as Chiefs pregame and postgame shows on local television since 2014.

Entering his fifth season as the network's sideline reporter is Josh Klingler, a morning show host on 610 Sports Radio (KCSP-AM) who has been broadcasting collegiate athletics as a sideline reporter for the University of Kansas for more than 17 years and has been part of the local sports talk radio landscape for more than 19 years.

Dan Israel enters his 35th season serving as the Executive Producer of the Chiefs Radio Network. Israel can also be heard co-hosting pre-game and post-game segments and was inducted into the Kansas Association of Broadcaster's Hall of Fame in 2022.

"Voice of the Missouri State Bears" Art Hains enters his 16th season as anchor for the pre-game show, halftime and in-game reports. Hains' voice and talent have been an integral role in the highly rated programs since 2008. Hains was inducted to the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2016 and the Missouri State University Hall of Fame in 2022.

TICO SPORTS - CHIEFS SPANISH FOOTBALL RADIO NETWORK

In 2024, the Tico Sports Spanish broadcast team enters its ninth season as the Spanish broadcast partner of the Kansas City Chiefs. Oscar "El Tico" Monterroso enters his ninth season as executive producer and his first full season on play-by-play. Oscar has produced and called the Tico Sports broadcasts of Super Bowl LIV, LV, LVII and LVIII. Oscar earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Southern Nazarene University in Bethany, Oklahoma, and a master's degree in communications from Incarnate Word University in San Antonio, Texas. Oscar is an accomplished veteran mass media journalist and owner of a multi-media production company, Tico Productions, LLC | Tico Sports.

Hannah Bassham enters her ninth season with the crew and enters her first season as the broadcast's color commentator. Hannah covered Super Bowl LIV, LV & LVII as a sideline reporter and halftime show host, and most recently covered Super Bowl LVIII as the color commentator for the Tico Sports | Chiefs Spanish broadcast. Hannah received her undergraduate degree from Texas Christian University and her J.D. from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. She remains one of the few Spanish-speaking female reporters in professional sports.

Adan Manzano joins the broadcast for his first season as the production's sideline reporter. Adan, originally from Toluca, Mexico, is currently a reporter for Telemundo Kansas City and previously worked for Sky Sports Mexico. He has over eight years of sports journalist experience, calling games for the NFL, MLB and NWSL. Adan received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas.

Executive Director CiCi Rojas brings 20-plus years of corporate client cultivation and media engagement experience to the broadcast. CiCi serves on several local and national boards that positively contribute to the Kansas City region.

The Kansas City Chiefs Spanish broadcasts can be heard on the Audacy app ("Chiefs en Español") within the Kansas City DMA and KSSA "La Ke Buena" (105.9 FM & 1470 AM) in Garden City, Kansas, and Liberal, Kansas. All games are streamed on the Chiefs Mobile app (restrictions apply), the Tico Sports website (www.tico-sports.com) and NFL+ (membership required).

NICK BOLTON

MISSOURI

4TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT:	5'11"
DRAFTED:	D2A-21
BIRTHDAY:	3/10/00

- Bolton enters his fourth season with the Chiefs in 2024.
- Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (58th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2021 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Finished second overall league wide in total tackles made in 2022 (180) and recorded the franchise's single-season best.
- Had nine games with 10 or more tackles in 2022, marking the most 10+-tackle games in a single-season in Chiefs history.
- Against the Denver Broncos (1/8/22), Bolton scooped up a fumble and returned it 86 yards for a touchdown. The fumble return ties for the fourth-longest fumble return for a touchdown in franchise history. It marked Bolton's first-career fumble recovery and his first career defensive touchdown.
- Led the team with 112 total tackles (70 solo, 42 assisted) and 11 tackles for loss in 2021.
- Moved into fifth place for most tackles in a season (112) by a rookie player in franchise history, passing S Greg Wesley (101, 2000).

Postseason Career Highlights:

- In Super Bowl LVII in Arizona, Bolton returned a fumble 36 yards for a touchdown that tied the Chiefs 14-14 with the Eagles. Bolton had a similar play later in the game that was called back. His touchdown made him the first Missouri Tiger to score in the Super Bowl.

Honors:

- Was voted by teammates as a defensive team captain prior to the club's 2022 playoff games.
- 2021 Mack Lee Hill Award winner, voted by teammates as best rookie.
- 2021 PFWA All-Rookie Team.
- October 2021 Defensive Rookie of the Month.

Transactions:

Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (58th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2021 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

Appeared in 35 games at Mizzou over three seasons (2018-20) ... Totaled 224 tackles (147 solo), 16.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks, two interceptions, 15 passes defensed and one fumble recovery ... Was a two-time first-team All-SEC and second and third-team All-American ... Led Missouri in tackles in each of his last two seasons - racking up 202 total tackles since 2019 while averaging more than nine tackles per game ... During his final season at Mizzou, a ten-game season due to COVID-19, he tallied 95 tackles (61 solo), 7.5 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, five passes defensed and his first-career fumble recovery ... In 2019, his 107 tackles were the SEC's top-mark during the regular season and only LSU's Jacob Phillips, who played in 15 games vs. Bolton's 12, finished ahead of Bolton on the SEC tackle chart (113 in 15 games) ... His 8.92 tackles per game were far-and-away the best mark in the league, beating Arkansas De'Jon Harris (8.42 per game) ... His 74 solo tackles were 15 more than any other defender in the SEC and ranked 31st nationally in tackles per game while his 74 solo tackles the fifth-most in the nation.

PERSONAL

- Was a proven leader at Frisco Lone Star, earning District MVP honors twice.
- As a senior, he was named District 13-5A Defensive MVP for the second consecutive season after totaling 130 tackles, with 16 tackles for loss and five interceptions.

HARRISON BUTKER

KICKER #7
GEORGIA TECH

8TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 8TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT:	6'4"
DRAFTED:	FA-17
BIRTHDAY:	7/14/95

- Butker enters his eighth season with the Chiefs in 2024.
- Originally entered the NFL as a seventh-round pick (233rd overall) by the Carolina Panthers in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- His 900 points are the third-most all-time points in franchise history. He is only the third player in franchise history with 900 or more career points. His 221 field goal attempts and 197 makes are the third most in Chiefs history.
- Passed the 100-point plateau for five-consecutive seasons (2017-21). He was eight points shy in 2022 due to a high ankle sprain that forced him to sit for four games. Butker's five seasons with 100 or more points are tied for the second-most in franchise history with PFHOF K Jan Stenerud (1967-71). He recorded his sixth season with 100+ points in 2023 (137), giving him the second-most seasons with such a mark in NFL history.
- Passed K Nick Lowery (20) for first in franchise history for most field goals made of 50+ yards in a Chiefs kicker's career with 28. He is tied with Chris Boswell for the fifth-most 50+ yard field goals since 2017 in league history.
- Against Cincinnati (12/31/23), recorded career single-game highs for field goals made (6), field goal attempts (6) and points (19).
- Did not miss a single PAT in the 2023 season and missed just two field goals all season for a conversion percentage of .943.
- Made 24 consecutive field goals from 2022 to 2023, the most in Chiefs history.
- Tallied 844 points in his first 100 games, second only to Justin Tucker's 850 points.
- During his return in Week 6 of the 2022 season, Butker kicked the longest field goal recorded at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium with a 62-yard boot. His 62-yard field goal against the Buffalo Bills is his longest field goal of his career and is also the longest field goal in franchise history.
- Butker kicked two field goals and a point after to force three overtime games in the 2021 season. The point after came against the Chargers (12/16/21). The two field goals were versus the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Divisional Round Game (1/23/22) and versus the Cincinnati Bengals in the AFC Championship Game (1/30/22).
- In the game vs. the L.A. Chargers (9/20/20), Butker converted two former career-long 58-yard field goals (one in the third quarter and one in overtime) to tie Lowery for the longest-made field goal in Chiefs history, at the time. During this game Butker also notched his 16th-consecutive game with a made field goal setting the franchise record for most consecutive games with a made field goal, passing K Lawrence Tynes who scored a field goal in 15-consecutive games from Week 15 of 2004 to Week 13 of 2005.
- During the 2019 season, Butker reached 147 points setting a new record for the most points by a kicker in a single season. It trailed only Priest Holmes' 162 points in 2003 for most in franchise history.
- Butker converted a field goal in 14-straight games in 2019, tying for the longest individual streak in a single-season in franchise history with Jan Stenerud with 14.
- In the game vs. Minnesota (11/3/19), Butker converted 54- and 44-yard field goals in the final three minutes of the game allowing the Chiefs to tie and then win the game. The last kicker in NFL History to kick a game tying FG of 50+ yards and a FG of 40+ yards to put his team ahead for good with both coming in the final three minutes of the fourth quarter was Buccaneers K Martin Gramatica on Oct. 27, 2002.
- With 38 made field goals during the 2017 season Butker holds the franchise record for most field goals made in a single season.
- Butker tallied 426 career points in his first three NFL seasons, the most by any player in NFL history in their first three seasons.
- During his rookie season he recorded 142 points for the 2017 season, ranking first in franchise history, at the time, for most points by a kicker in a single season, passing Lowery's previous mark of 139 set in 1990.
- In the game vs. the Buffalo Bills (11/26/17), Butker converted a 45-yard field goal, giving him 23 consecutive made field goals, which ranked first at the time for the most consecutive field goals made in franchise history.

Postseason Career Highlights:

One of six players to have been on the active roster for all three of the club's Super Bowl victories over the past five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is joined by G Nick Allegretti, DT Chris Jones, TE Travis Kelce, QB Patrick Mahomes and LS James Winchester.

- Has played in 19 postseason games for the Chiefs, tying him with teammate DT Chris Jones for the third-most in franchise history.
- In seven postseasons, Butker owns 158 career postseason points, extending his franchise record. He has 62 career PATs to go along with 32 made field goals, both sitting as the top marks in franchise history.
- With 158 points in the postseason, Butker has the fifth-most points scored in the postseason by any player in NFL history. He ranks fifth amongst kickers as well.

- Converted two 50+ yard field goals in the 2023 postseason giving him six career postseason 50+ yard field goals, the most in NFL history passing K Adam Vinatieri.
- Butker did not miss a single kick in the 2023 postseason and recorded career postseason highs for made field goals (11) and attempts (11). He added eight extra points.
- In his first four postseason campaigns, Butker scored 65 points, passing RB Damien Williams (60) for the most playoff points scored in franchise history, at the time.
- In Super Bowl LVIII in Las Vegas, Butker converted a 57-yard field goal, the longest field goal in Super Bowl history, helping propel the club to their 25-22 victory.
- In Super Bowl LVIII against the 49ers, Butker converted a 29-yard field goal to send the game into overtime tied at 19-19. He converted four field goals in Super Bowl LVIII, tying his postseason career high that he had set just a few weeks before against Miami in the Wild Card Game for made field goals in a game.
- In Super Bowl LVII in Arizona, Butker kicked a 27-yard field goal giving the Chiefs a 38-35 advantage with eight seconds left. His kick gave the Chiefs their third Super Bowl win in franchise history.
- In Super Bowl LV in Tampa Bay, Butker scored three field goals giving him 11 made field goals in the postseason passing Stenerud (nine) for the most playoff field goals made in franchise history. His three field goals in the game tied for the most field goals made in a single postseason game in team history, at the time.
- In Super Bowl LV, Butker connected on a 52-yard field goal, marking the longest made field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He topped the previous franchise-long kick of 50 yards, which he set in the 2020 AFC Divisional matchup against the Cleveland Browns.

LSU

5TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT:	5'7"
DRAFTED:	D1-20
BIRTHDAY:	4/11/99

- Edwards-Helaire enters his fifth season with the Chiefs in 2024.
- Originally entered the NFL as a first-round pick (32nd overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Posted back-to-back games of 100 rushing yards or more for the first time in his career in 2022. Edwards-Helaire had 100 rushing yards versus the L.A. Chargers (9/26/21) and 102 yards against the Eagles (10/3/21).
- In his NFL debut vs. the Texans (9/10/20), Edwards-Helaire tallied 138 rushing yards on 25 attempts (5.5 avg.) and scored his first NFL touchdown on a 27-yard run. He became the first player with 100+ rushing yards and a rushing TD in an NFL debut since NY Giants RB Saquon Barkley in Week 1 of 2018 vs. the Jacksonville Jaguars. Edwards-Helaire's 138 yards rushing are eighth-best in an NFL debut in the Super Bowl era.
- With 803 rushing yards and 297 receiving yards during his rookie campaign in 2020, Edwards-Helaire finished the season with 1,100 scrimmage yards. He became the third Chiefs rookie to hit 1,000 scrimmage yards in franchise history, joining RBs Joe Delaney (1,367 in 1981) and Kareem Hunt (1,782 in 2017).
- His 1,100 scrimmage yards in 2020 were the fourth-most among all rookies in the NFL.
- In Week 6 of his rookie campaign against Buffalo, Edwards-Helaire rushed for a career-high 161 rushing yards, marking his second-career 100+-rushing yard game. His 161 rushing yards tied for the third-most rushing yards in a game by a rookie in Chiefs history. It marked the eighth time in franchise history that a rookie RB rushed for more than 150 yards in a game and he became the seventh different rookie RB to accomplish the feat. His two 100+-rushing yard games during the 2020 season tied for the fourth-most by any Chiefs rookie in franchise history.

Honors:

- 2020 Mack Lee Hill Award winner, voted by teammates as best rookie.

Transactions:

Re-signed with the Chiefs (4/8/24) ... Originally entered the NFL as a first-round pick (32nd overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2020 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

CHRIS JONES

DEFENSIVE TACKLE #95

MISSISSIPPI STATE

9TH YEAR IN THE NFL

9TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT:	6'6"
DRAFTED:	D2-16
BIRTHDAY:	7/3/94

- Jones enters his ninth season with the Chiefs in 2024.
- Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (37th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2016 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Tied with DE George Karlaftis to lead the defense in sacks for sixth-consecutive season with 10.5 sacks (-71.5 yards). Led the team in sacks with 15.5 sacks (-105.5 yards) in 2022, tying his career-high set in 2018. Recorded double-digit sacks in back-to-back seasons (15.5, 2022; 10.5, 2023). It was his third season with double-digit sacks (2023, 2022 and 2018).
- Jones and Karlaftis led the defense to 57.0 sacks in 2023, the second-most sacks by a defensive unit in Chiefs history.
- Jones has tallied 75.5 career sacks (-528.5 yards), which is the second-most in the NFL amongst DTs since entering the league in 2016 and the eighth-most amongst all defenders since 2016.
- Jones' 75.5 sacks are the fifth-most sacks in franchise history since sacks became an official stat in 1982. His 528.5 sack yards are the third-most in franchise history.
- Established a single-game career-high with 3.5 sacks (-20.0 yards) of Dallas QB Dak Prescott in Week 11 (11/21/21), including sacks on back-to-back plays in the second quarter with a forced fumble on the second of the two sacks. In addition to a single-game career-high, it marked the club's first time having a player record 3.5 or more sacks in a game since OLB Dee Ford recorded 3.5 sacks at Indianapolis on Oct. 30, 2016. It tied for the ninth-best single-game sack performance in team history. For Jones, it marked his 11th-career multi-sack performance and his first multi-sack game since recording 2.0 sacks vs. Cleveland (9/12/21) to open the 2021 season.
- In 2018, he recorded at least one sack in 11-consecutive games becoming the first player to do so in NFL history.
- Logged a career-high 15.5 sacks during the 2018 season, leading the Chiefs defense and ranking third in the NFL.

Postseason Career Highlights:

- Is one of six players to have been on the active roster for all three of the club's Super Bowl victories over the past five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is joined by G Nick Allegretti, K Harrison Butker, TE Travis Kelce, QB Patrick Mahomes and LS James Winchester.
- Helped propel the Chiefs to their third Super Bowl title in five years (LV, LVII and LVIII) with six quarterback pressures, two passes defensed and .5 sacks in the 2023 postseason.
- Recorded his first postseason sack in the 2022 AFC Championship Game against the Cincinnati Bengals. He sacked Bengals QB Joe Burrow twice.

Honors:

- Selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023 seasons.
- Named an AP All-Pro following the 2023 (first-team), 2022 (first-team), 2018 (second-team), 2020 (second-team) and 2021 (second-team) seasons.
- Received PFWA All-AFC Team honors in 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021.
- Received PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team honors following the 2022 and 2023 seasons.
- Received TSN All-NFL Team honors in 2020 and 2021.
- Was voted by teammates as a defensive team captain prior to the club's 2022 and 2023 playoff campaigns.
- 2022 AFC Defensive Player of the Year Award (101 Awards).
- 2021 Week 11 AFC Defensive Player of the Week.
- November 2018 AFC Player of the Month.
- 2017 Week 2 AFC Defensive Player of the Week.
- 2016 PFW All-Rookie Team.

Transactions:

Re-signed with the Chiefs (3/10/24) ... Re-signed with the Chiefs (9/12/23) ... Re-signed with the Chiefs (7/15/20) ... Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (37th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2016 NFL Draft.

+ - Overtime

- Kelce enters his 12th season with the Chiefs in 2024.
- Spent the majority of the 2013 season on the club's injured reserve list.
- Originally entered the NFL as the first of two third-round picks (63rd overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Kelce has caught a pass in 158 consecutive games, marking the longest streak in franchise history and besting PFHOF TE Tony Gonzalez's 131 consecutive games. He is three consecutive games behind WR DeAndre Hopkins (161) to be the active streak holder outright.
- His 11,328 receiving yards are the most by any Chiefs player and the fourth-most by an NFL tight end. Passed 11,000 total yards Week 12 (11/26/23) in Las Vegas and finished the season with 11,342 combined yards. He is only the second player in Chiefs history to record more than 11,000 combined yards and is second only to Dante Hall (12,356).
- Kelce owns 74 career receiving touchdowns, good for second in team history. He needs three more receiving touchdowns to best PFHOF TE Tony Gonzalez (76).
- Between Kelce and QB Patrick Mahomes, the pair has 51 touchdown connections. Their 51 touchdown connections passed PFHOF QB Len Dawson and former WR Otis Taylor for most QB-pass catcher connections in Chiefs history. They are now tied with PFHOF QB Drew Brees and TE Jimmy Graham for the third-most QB-tight end touchdown connections in league history.
- Kelce holds the record for most receptions by any NFL tight end in their first 10 seasons with 814 catches.
- Kelce has caught 600 first down receptions, the fourth-most first down receptions by a tight end in NFL history.
- Currently has 37 regular season games of 100 receiving yards or more, which is the most such games in team history and is the most 100-yard games by a tight end in league history.
- His 157 receptions of 20 or more yards is a franchise best for all pass catchers. Has tallied 86 receptions of 25+ yards which is the third-most for a tight end in NFL history since 1994.
- Kelce's ten consecutive seasons with 50+ receptions is tied for the top spot with WR Mike Evans for the most consecutive seasons among all active pass catchers in the league. With a 50+ reception season in 2024, Kelce would tie TE Tony Gonzalez for the most such seasons in Chiefs history. He currently holds the fourth-most 80+ reception seasons in the NFL (eight) and is tied for the second-most 90+ reception seasons with six. He trails only former WR Larry Fitzgerald with eight seasons.
- Kelce's three seasons of 100+ receptions is a franchise best for any pass catcher and a league best for all tight ends. He is the only tight end in NFL history with multiple 100+ reception seasons.
- With 5,359 yards after catch, Kelce is ranked at the top amongst all tight ends in NFL history. With 5,359 career YAC after recording 463 in 2023, Kelce now owns the seventh-most YAC, regardless of position, in the NFL.
- Kelce was the fastest player to reach 900 career receptions, doing so against the Raiders (12/25/23) in just 158 games. The previous record was held by TE Jason Witten in 181 games. Kelce is just one of four tight ends to snag 900 receptions. In 154 games, Kelce became the eighth-fastest player to do so in NFL history, regardless of position. Became the fastest tight end in NFL history to reach the 800-reception plateau, doing so in 142 career games played. He tied with PFHOF WR Torry Holt for seventh-fewest games to record 800 receptions by any NFL pass catcher.
- Surpassed the 11,000 receiving yard mark Week 12 (11/26/23) at Las Vegas, eclipsing the mark in 154 games. Kelce was the fastest tight end to reach 11,000 receiving yards and the 17th fastest of any NFL pass catcher after also being the fastest tight end in NFL history to record 6,000, 7,000, 8,000, 9,000 and 10,000 receiving yards. Kelce was the fifth tight end to ever reach 10,000 receiving yards and tied with WR A.J. Green as the 16th-fastest to do so of any NFL pass catcher.
- For the seventh-straight season in 2022, Kelce eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards, extending his previously established NFL record for tight ends and franchise pass catcher record of seven such seasons. Was just 16 yards short of his eighth 1,000 receiving yard season in 2023. He opted to rest Week 18 (1/7/24) in Los Angeles against the Chargers as there were no playoff implications.
- His 2022 season was one for the record books as he recorded the most receptions by any Chiefs tight end in a single-season with 110 catches.
- In Week 3 against Indianapolis Colts (9/25/22), successfully completed his fifth-career two-point conversion setting a Chiefs record for the most two-point conversions in a career.
- Week 15 against the Chargers (12/16/21), Kelce recorded a career-high 191 yards on 10 receptions with two receiving touchdowns, including a fourth-quarter seven-yard score and the game-winning 34-yard catch-and-run touchdown in overtime.
- Recorded 105 receptions in 2020, setting the franchise record for most receptions in a single-season by any pass catcher, at the time. He also became the first Chiefs player to record multiple seasons with 100 or more receptions (2018, 2020, 2022).

- Finished the 2020 season with 1,416 receiving yards. Kelce and former Chiefs WR Tyreek Hill (1,276) both recorded 1,000+ receiving yards and 10+ receiving touchdowns in 2020. It marked the second time in franchise history that the club had a pair of players accomplish this feat, with Hill and Kelce also doing so in 2018. It marks the 16th time in NFL history that a team had at least two players with 10+ receiving touchdowns and 1,000+ receiving yards in the same season. Kelce and Hill are just the third pair of teammates to accomplish the feat in multiple seasons with the same team, joining Cris Carter and Randy Moss (Minnesota, 1998 and 1999) and Demaryius Thomas and Eric Decker (Denver, 2012 and 2013).
- With 1,416 receiving yards in 2020, he set the NFL record for the most receiving yards in a single season by a tight end in NFL history, passing 49ers TE George Kittle's previous record of 1,377 yards set in 2018. He finished the 2020 season with 1,643 receiving yards in the regular and postseason, also the most by a tight end in NFL history.
- Recorded his first-career rushing touchdown on a four-yard carry in Week 14 against New England (12/8/19).
- During the 2018 season recorded 1,336 receiving yards the most by a tight end in a single-season in Chiefs history, at the time. He also briefly broke the NFL single-season receiving yards record before San Francisco TE George Kittle broke the record later that same day.

Postseason Career Highlights:

- Is one of six players to have been on the active roster for all three of the club's Super Bowl victories over the past five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is joined by G Nick Allegretti, K Harrison Butker, DT Chris Jones, QB Patrick Mahomes and LS James Winchester.
- His 19 career receiving touchdowns, 165 receptions, 1,903 receiving yards and 1,910 scrimmage yards in the postseason are all the most in franchise history.
- Kelce's 19 receiving touchdowns are a league best for tight ends and second-most amongst all NFL pass catchers in the postseason, behind PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (22).
- His 165 receptions are a league best amongst all NFL pass catchers in the postseason, passing PFHOF WR Jerry Rice's 151 receptions.
- Kelce's 1,903 receiving yards are a league best for tight ends and second-most amongst all NFL pass catchers in the postseason, behind PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (2,245).
- His eight career 100-yard receiving games in the postseason are the most in franchise history.
- Appeared in his 22nd career postseason game with the club versus the San Francisco 49ers (2/11/24) in Super Bowl LVIII establishing a new franchise record for most postseason games played with LS James Winchester.
- Has recorded at least three receptions in each of his 22 postseason appearances, marking the longest streak of consecutive games with at least three receptions in postseason play.
- Has recorded five-straight postseasons with 150+ receiving yards and six total seasons reaching the mark, tied for the most such seasons with PFHOF WR Jerry Rice. With 165 receptions and 19 touchdowns, he is one of two players to record 100+ receptions and 10+ receiving touchdowns in their postseason career. He joins PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (151, 22).
- Caught two touchdowns from QB Patrick Mahomes in the Divisional Round Game (1/21/24) in Buffalo in 2023, giving the duo 17 postseason touchdown connections. Mahomes' three-yard pass to Kelce for his second touchdown in the game surpassed QB Tom Brady and TE Rob Gronkowski for the most QB-pass catcher postseason touchdown connections in NFL history.
- Recorded his third-most postseason receptions in a single game in Baltimore in the 2023 AFC Championship Game (1/28/24) in 2023 with 11 receptions. Also tallied 116 receiving yards, his fifth-highest single postseason game performance. His 116 yards in the AFC Championship Game brought his career receiving yards in Conference Championship Games to 460, the third-most in Conference Championship Game history.
- Kelce owns the fourth-most receiving yards in Super Bowl history with 350 yards in his four appearances. He owns the second-most receptions in Super Bowls with 31 and trails only PFHOF WR Jerry Rice.
- Caught game-winning pass from QB Patrick Mahomes in the 2021 AFC Divisional Round Game to beat the Buffalo Bills in overtime (1/23/22).
- Became the second tight end in NFL history to throw a touchdown pass in the postseason after throwing a two-yard pass to WR Byron Pringle in the 2021 AFC Wild Card game versus the Steelers (1/16/22). The only other tight end to throw a postseason touchdown pass is Trey Burton, who completed a one-yard touchdown pass to QB Nick Foles for the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl LII (2/4/18).
- With 133 yards in Super Bowl LV recorded his third-consecutive postseason game with 100+ receiving yards. He became the first TE in NFL history to record three-consecutive 100-yard games in a single postseason. He joined former WR Larry Fitzgerald, who recorded four-consecutive 100-yard games in the 2008 postseason, as the only two players in NFL history with at least three-consecutive 100-yard games in the same postseason.
- Led the Chiefs with four receiving touchdowns in the 2019 postseason, including a one-yard score in Super Bowl LIV against San Francisco.
- In the 2019 AFC Divisional Round against Houston (1/12/20), he scored three receiving touchdowns, the most receiving touchdowns scored in a postseason game in Chiefs history. All three scores came in the second quarter, making him the first player in the Super Bowl era to record three receiving touchdowns in a single quarter in a postseason game.

- Mahomes enters his eighth season with the Chiefs in 2024 and his seventh year as the starter (2018-24).
- Mahomes is the youngest player ever to win both a league MVP and a Super Bowl title.
- He is the first player in the 21st century to win both the league MVP and the Super Bowl MVP in the same season (2022).
- Originally entered the NFL as a first-round pick (10th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2017 NFL Draft.
- The Chiefs traded the No. 27 overall pick, a third-round pick and their 2018 first-round selection to the Buffalo Bills in order to move up to the 10th spot to select Mahomes.

Career Highlights:

- Mahomes tops the franchise's career passing charts in multiple categories, ranking first in passer rating (103.5), completions (2,386), completion percentage (66.5%), 300-yard passing games (45), 100.0 passer rating games (52), yards-per-attempt average (7.92), 20-yard completions (375), passing yards in a single-season (5,250 in 2022), passing yards in consecutive seasons (10,089; 2021-22) and rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (12). He also finds himself in the top two for attempts (3,590), yards (28,424) and touchdowns (219). He trails only PFHOF QB Len Dawson in all three categories.
- He currently holds the second-highest passer rating in NFL history amongst people with 1,500 passing attempts (103.5). He trails Aaron Rodgers (103.6).
- Owns 98 career touchdown passes at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, passing QB Trent Green (62) for the most career touchdown passes in the stadium's history.
- With 5,250 passing yards in 2022, Mahomes recorded his fifth-consecutive season (2018-22) with 4,000 or more passing yards. He joins PFHOF QB Peyton Manning as the only two players to have five such seasons in their first six years in the league.
- Mahomes threw for 4,500+ yards and 35+ touchdowns in four of his first six seasons in the league (2018, 2020, 2021, 2022). He is one of eight players in NFL history to have multiple seasons throwing for 4,500+ yards and 35+ touchdowns and one of just four quarterbacks in NFL history to have at least four such seasons, joining Tom Brady (five), Drew Brees (four) and PFHOF QB Peyton Manning (four).
- Starting his 75th game against the Cincinnati Bengals in Week 13 of 2022 (12/4/22), Mahomes holds the record for most touchdown passes (181), passing yards (22,799) and wins (59) in any NFL quarterback's first 75 games.
- With 4,183 yards in 2023, Mahomes now owns 28,424 passing yards, surpassing the 25,000 yard plateau in just 83 games, the fastest in NFL history to surpass that mark.
- Mahomes was already the fastest quarterback in NFL history to reach 15,000 career passing yards, but he officially became the fastest one to reach 20,000 career passing yards, doing so in 67 games. His 67 games outpaced QB Matthew Stafford's 71 games.
- Between Mahomes and TE Travis Kelce, the pair has 51 touchdown connections. Their 51 touchdown connections passed PFHOF QB Len Dawson and former WR Otis Taylor for most QB-pass catcher connections in Chiefs history.
- After being named the NFL MVP for the 2018 season as voted on by the Associated Press, he became the youngest recipient of the award since PFHOF QB Dan Marino in 1984.
- Mahomes threw a touchdown pass in 31 straight regular season games between the 2019 and 2021 seasons, establishing a new franchise record and ranking as the ninth-longest streak in NFL history (regular season only). He also owns a streak of 14 consecutive regular season games spanning from 2018 to 2019 with at least two touchdown passes, the second-longest streak in NFL history behind only PFHOF QB Peyton Manning's streak of 15 such games.
- Owns 45 career 300-yard games, marking the most 300-yard games in franchise history and the most in the NFL since 2017. Twenty-six of those performances came in his first four seasons (2017-20), tying PFHOF QB Kurt Warner (26) for the most games of at least 300 passing yards in a player's first four seasons in league annals.
- Recorded 1,831 passing yards with no interceptions in the first five games of the 2019 season, passing PFHOF Peyton Manning (1,744 passing yards in 2013) for the most passing yards without an interception to begin a season in NFL history.
- Threw for 278 yards in the second quarter in Week 2 at Oakland (9/15/19), the second-most passing yards in any single quarter in a game in NFL history, trailing only former QB Drew Brees who threw for 294 yards in the fourth quarter at Atlanta on Nov. 9, 2008.
- During the 2018 season, became just the second quarterback (Peyton Manning in 2013) in NFL history to throw for 50 touchdowns and 5,000 passing yards in a single-season.
- In his first season as the full-time starter in 2018, he broke the Chiefs single-season passing touchdown record by Week 10, passing Len Dawson (30) with 31 touchdown passes. Went on to finish the 2018 season with 50 touchdown passes, tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history with former Tom Brady (50 in 2007).
- Has recorded six touchdown passes in a game twice in his career against the Steelers (9/16/18) and the Rams (11/19/18), tying Chiefs and PFHOF QB Len Dawson for most touchdown passes in one game in team history. Mahomes is one of ten quarterbacks in league history to record multiple six-touchdown games.

- Threw 29 touchdown passes in his first 10 career NFL games, more TD throws than any QB in NFL history in their first 10 games.
- First quarterback in Chiefs history to throw for 300+ yards in eight consecutive games in a single season (2018). His streak is tied for second-most consecutive games with 300+ yards.
- Made his NFL debut and first start during the Chiefs 2017 regular season finale at the Denver Broncos (12/31/17), completing 22-of-35 passes (62.9%) for 284 yards. His 284 passing yards in the game are the second-most by a rookie passer in a single-game in franchise history.

Postseason Career Highlights:

- Is one of six players to have been on the active roster for all three of the club's Super Bowl victories over the past five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is joined by G Nick Allegretti, K Harrison Butker, DT Chris Jones, TE Travis Kelce and LS James Winchester.
- Has started 18 career postseason games for the Chiefs, the fifth-most in Chiefs history, carrying an 15-3 record. His 18 starts and 83.3 winning percentage are the top marks by a quarterback in franchise history.
- As he started his fourth Super Bowl in 2023, Mahomes became just the eighth quarterback in NFL history to start in four or more Super Bowls. Only former QBs Tom Brady (10) and John Elway (5) have more. After defeating the 49ers for back-to-back Super Bowl titles in Super Bowl LVIII, Mahomes now has three Super Bowl titles, the fourth most in NFL history. He trails only Brady (7), Joe Montana (4) and Terry Bradshaw (4).
- Mahomes owns the franchise's postseason records for passing yards (5,135), touchdown passes (41), completions (456), attempts (672), completion percentage (67.9), passer rating (105.8) and rushing yards (524).
- Mahomes' 41 postseason touchdown passes are the fifth-most in NFL history amongst players with at least 150 attempts.
- His 105.8 passer rating in the postseason is the highest passer rating by any NFL quarterback in playoff history.
- Mahomes has recorded seven games of a 120.0+ passer rating in the postseason, marking a league-best.
- In his first seven NFL seasons, Mahomes ranks at the top in the following postseason categories: touchdown passes (41), passes completed (456), passes attempted (672) and passing yards (5,135).
- Mahomes threw two touchdowns in Super Bowl LVIII, giving him seven career Super Bowl touchdown passes, the fifth-most in Super Bowl history. He has now also thrown for 1,071 yards in his four Super Bowl appearances, giving him the fifth-most passing yards in Super Bowl history and making him one of just six players to throw more than 1,000 yards in Super Bowls.
- Has thrown five touchdown passes in a postseason game twice, joining PFHOF QB Kurt Warner (twice) and former QB Daryle Lamonica (twice) as the only players in NFL history to have multiple playoff games with five or more passing touchdowns.
- Became the 13th starting quarterback to win multiple Super Bowls with his victory over the Eagles in Super Bowl LVII.
- After receiving the Super Bowl MVP, Mahomes became the fifth player in history to win multiple Super Bowl MVP titles and 11th player ever to receive both the Super Bowl MVP and league MVP in the same season.
- In Super Bowl LVII in Arizona, Mahomes threw three touchdown passes, marking his eighth postseason game of three or more touchdown passes. Having eight such games puts him in a tie for third-most postseason games of three or more touchdown passes with QB Aaron Rodgers. PFHOF QB Joe Montana (nine) and former QB Tom Brady (13) are the other two ahead of Mahomes.
- Finished the 2021 postseason with 11 passing touchdowns, tying Joe Flacco (2012) and PFHOFs Kurt Warner (2008) and Joe Montana (1989) for the most touchdown passes in a single postseason in NFL history, at the time.
- Threw three touchdown passes in the 2021 AFC Championship Game vs. Cincinnati (1/30/22), giving him seven postseason games with three or more touchdown passes, ranking as the fourth-most by a quarterback in NFL history, at the time.
- Orchestrated one of the most exciting finishes to a playoff game in the 2021 AFC Divisional Round Game against the Buffalo Bills, leading the Chiefs to 19 fourth-quarter and overtime points, including setting up the game-tying field goal with just 0:13 remaining on the clock in regulation and connecting with TE Travis Kelce for an eight-yard game-winning touchdown in OT. Completed a franchise record 33 passes and tied for the second-most yards in a single game in franchise postseason history wth 378 yards in the win to set up an NFL record fourth-consecutive home conference title game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.
- With his start in Super Bowl LV following the 2020 season, Mahomes became the youngest quarterback in NFL history (25 years and 143 days old) to start in two Super Bowls, surpassing Russell Wilson, who was 26 years and 64 days old at the time of his second Super Bowl start (SB XLIX) with the Seattle Seahawks.
- With his start in the AFC Championship Game against Buffalo (1/24/21) during the 2020 season, he became the 12th quarterback since the 1970 merger to start in three-consecutive conference championship games and was the first player to accomplish the feat prior to his 26th birthday. He also became the first quarterback ever to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons in the league.
- At 24 years and 138 days, Mahomes became the third-youngest player and youngest quarterback in NFL history to be named Super Bowl MVP, earning the honors for his performance in Super Bowl LIV vs. the San Francisco 49ers.
- In the AFC Championship Game against Tennessee (1/19/20) became the first player in Chiefs franchise history to ever record multiple passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown (three passing, one rushing) in a postseason game.
- Became the first player in NFL history to record 300+ passing yards, five or more passing touchdowns and 50+ rushing yards in a playoff game in the AFC Divisional Round against Houston (1/12/20).
- Threw five touchdown passes in the 2020 AFC Divisional Round, the most in a single-game in Chiefs postseason history and tied for the fourth-most in NFL history. Four of his five touchdowns came in the second quarter, making him just the second player in NFL postseason history (QB Doug Williams in Super Bowl XXII) with four passing touchdowns in a single quarter.

HISTORY

AFL ORIGINS

1958 — Lamar Hunt's efforts to acquire an expansion NFL franchise for his hometown of Dallas were rebuked by the league. However, his desire to secure a professional football franchise was further heightened after watching the historic '58 NFL Championship Game between the Baltimore Colts and the N.Y. Giants, which later became known as "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959 — After another attempt at landing an NFL expansion franchise for Dallas was spurned, NFL officials suggested that Hunt contact the Wolfner family, owners of the Chicago Cardinals franchise. Violet Bidwell Wolfner, mother of current Cardinals owner William Bidwell, and her husband Walter eventually agreed to sell Hunt 20 percent of the Cardinals franchise. Hunt declined the opportunity. He then conceived the concept of forming a second league. "Why wouldn't a second league work?" Hunt recalled. "There was an American and National League in baseball, why not football?" Hunt contacted several other individuals who had expressed interest in the Cardinals franchise – Bud Adams (Houston), Bob Howsam (Denver), Max Winter and Bill Boyer (Minneapolis) – and gauged their interest in forming a second league. Adams quickly signed on and the young league, albeit still very much in its infancy stages, already had its first rivalry.

With four teams in the ranks including Hunt's Dallas franchise, he sought franchises in New York and Los Angeles. Before ownership in those cities was secured, Hunt sought the NFL's blessing for his endeavor, hoping that NFL Commissioner Bert Bell would oversee both leagues. "I told myself I didn't want to go into this if it meant some kind of battle," Hunt remembered. "Of course, this was one of the more naive thoughts in the history of pro sports." Although the NFL wanted no part of Hunt's new league, Hunt gave his blessing for Bell to mention it in the course of his testimony before a Congressional committee on July 28th. "At that point, no one had put up a penny, and I had no commitments from New York or Los Angeles," Hunt continued. "But Bert Bell had announced it. We were in business."

Within weeks, Barron Hilton (Los Angeles) and Harry Wismer (New York) agreed to enter the six-team league. On August 14th, the first meeting of the new league was held in Chicago. Charter memberships were issued to six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis. The league was officially christened the American Football League on August 22nd. Ralph Wilson (Buffalo) was awarded the league's seventh franchise on October 28th and William Sullivan (Boston) became the league's eighth owner on November 23rd, the date of the inaugural AFL draft, which lasted 33 rounds. All eight original owners agreed to contribute $25,000 and to post a performance bond of $100,000. "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

In November, the league nearly disbanded before it even played a single game. Winter announced that he was withdrawing from the league to accept an NFL franchise for Minneapolis. The NFL now envisioned an expansion franchise for Dallas, as well, but Hunt declined that offer. "It (the AFL) was so important to me," Hunt said. "I had a lot of money in it, a lot invested in it. Emotionally, I spent a lot of time, effort and energy on it. I felt an obligation. A guy like Billy Sullivan had everything he had in it. It wouldn't have been the right thing to do."

The AFL forged forward as former World War II hero and two-term South Dakota governor Joe Foss was named commissioner on November 30th. A second, 20-round AFL draft was held on December 2nd. Hunt pursued both legendary University of Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson and N.Y. Giants defensive assistant Tom Landry to lead his Texans franchise. Wilkinson opted to stay at Oklahoma, while Landry was destined to coach the NFL's franchise in Dallas. Hunt settled on a relatively unknown assistant coach from the University of Miami (Florida), Hank Stram. "One of the biggest reasons I hired Hank was that he really wanted the job," Hunt explained. "It turned out to be a very lucky selection on my part."

1960 — Hunt was elected President of the AFL on January 26th. Minneapolis officially withdrew from the AFL on January 27th. An ownership group from

THE FOOLISH CLUB

The whole idea of the AFL seemed so far-fetched, the eight team owners were whimsically named "The Foolish Club." Lamar Hunt credited Wayne Valley of the Oakland ownership group for coining that moniker. "I was an amateur photographer and had taken some color pictures of the '64 season," Hunt explained. "I sent out a montage as Christmas gifts one year. At the top was the hand-lettered phrase, The Foolish Club." Both the name and the league would stick.

Dallas was awarded an expansion NFL franchise on January 28th to begin play that season in direct competition with the Texans. That same day, AFL owners approved the two-point conversion rule which was utilized for the AFL's 10-year existence, a rule that wouldn't resurface in the NFL for 34 more years. On January 30th, Oakland replaced Minneapolis as the eighth AFL outpost. In another ironic twist, the Chicago Cardinals franchise, which Hunt had attempted to purchase a year earlier, received permission from the NFL to transfer to St. Louis on March 13th. Perhaps the most important moment in the AFL's formative years came on June 9th when the league signed a five-year television contract with ABC that paid each club $112,000 during the '60 season.

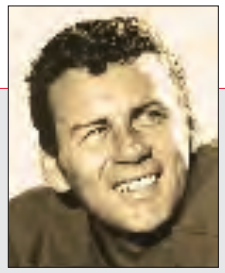

The Texans set up offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, while Foss headquartered the AFL offices out of Dallas, as well. The Texans shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons with the NFL's Cowboys. Reserved seats were $4, general admission $2 and high school students paid $.90 that initial season. Don Rossi served as the team's General Manager until November when he was succeeded by Jack Steadman. The Texans conducted their inaugural training camp at the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, N.M. The club embarked on a whirlwind preseason barnstorming tour that featured road games in Oakland, Tulsa, Boston, Abilene and Little Rock. An announced crowd of 51,000 at the Cotton Bowl witnessed a 24-3 victory vs. Houston (9/2) as the club concluded a perfect 6-0 preseason record.

The initial regular season victory in team history came by a 34-16 count at Oakland (9/16) thanks to 88 rushing yards, a TD and two FGs from FB Jack Spikes (TCU). In addition to Spikes, the Texans also had a strong home-state identity with QB Cotton Davidson (Baylor), LB Sherrill Headrick (TCU) and RB Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league with 875 rushing yards and nine TDs, as well as combined net yards (2,100) and punt return average (15.4). Haynes' combined net yardage mark remained a franchise record until 2001. Thanks to Haynes, the Texans had a flashy, high-scoring club, which finished the year at 8-6 as three close losses kept the squad from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 fans for their home games, the highest average attendance in the league.

Stram

1961 — Don Klosterman joined the franchise as Director of Player Personnel and a wealth of college talent was infused into the franchise's veins. The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted LB E.J. Holub (Texas Tech), described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers – DT/DE Jerry Mays (SMU), TE Fred Arbanas (Michigan State) and T Jim Tyrer (Ohio State) – as part of the club's draft class. The club moved its training camp to Hunt's alma mater of SMU and started the regular season at 3-1 before hitting a six-game losing skid, the longest such streak of Stram's tenure with the franchise. One of those losses was a 28-21 decision in a Friday night contest at Boston (11/3), which featured a bizarre ending as a raincoat-clad fan knocked down a potential game-tying TD from Davidson to Chris Burford on the game's final play. The team rebounded to claim wins in three of its final four contests to finish 6-8, marking the club's second straight finish behind the Chargers in the AFL West standings.

LENNY THE COOL

A pivotal moment in franchise history took place on July 2, 1962 when Hank Stram signed free agent QB Len Dawson. Dawson entered the NFL as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, but was waived by Cleveland on June 12th. After spending five uneventful years in the NFL with the Steelers and Browns, Dawson received his final shot at pro football redemption from Stram. Convinced that Dawson was the man to lead the franchise on the field, the only trade personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt in team history occurred after the season's first game. The Chiefs sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland in exchange for the Raiders first-round pick in '63, a pick that was used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan with the first overall selection. As for Dawson, he didn't disappoint in '62, throwing 29 TD passes to earn AFL Player of the Year honors.

1962 — Stram was named Coach of the Year and RB Curtis McClinton (Kansas) was named the '62 AFL Rookie of the Year. Haynes became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, concluding the season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 rushing TDs.

The Texans clinched their initial AFL Western Division Championship in November and finished with an 11-3 regular season record. Dallas won the '62 AFL Championship when K Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory at Houston (12/23). Spanning an elapsed time of 77:54, the game still stands as the second-longest contest in pro football history as the franchise claimed its first of three AFL titles.

TEXANS WILL MOVE HERE

Lamar Hunt, Owner of Professional Football Team, Flies to Kansas City to Begin Preparations for Shifting the Club—Ahead on the Stadium Plans.

GOIN' TO KANSAS CITY

1963 — Despite the Texans championship season in '62, the Dallas market simply could not sustain two professional football franchises. Kansas City Mayor H. Roe Bartle learned of Hunt's interest in a new home for the Texans and extended an invitation for Hunt and Jack Steadman to move the franchise to Mid-America. After the duo visited Kansas City on an incognito basis, an ambitious campaign took shape to deliver on Bartle's guarantee to Hunt of tripling the season-ticket base the Texans had enjoyed in Dallas. Kansas City's mayor, nicknamed "The Chief," also promised to add 3,000 permanent seats to Municipal Stadium, as well as 11,000 temporary bleacher seats. Along with Bartle, a number of other prominent Kansas Citians stepped forward to aid in the efforts, putting together more than 1,000 workers to sell season tickets. On May 22nd, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City. Hunt and Stram jested at one point about calling the relocated team the Kansas City Texans, but thanks to the insistence of Steadman and a "name-the-team" contest, the Chiefs were officially christened on May 26th, in part to honor the efforts of Bartle. During their inaugural season in Kansas City, the Chiefs charged $7 for box seats and $6 for reserved seats at Municipal Stadium.

Three highly-touted draft choices began their tenures with the club in '63. Hunt's trade of Davidson landed the number one overall selection in the AFL Draft, which Kansas City used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling). Ironically, the Raiders would later draft Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 for the express purpose of blocking Buchanan. The Chiefs tabbed G Ed Budde (Michigan State) with their own number one selection, while stealing another future Hall of Fame inductee, LB Bobby Bell (Minnesota) in the seventh round. Buchanan, Budde and Bell all became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team. The first appearance of the Chiefs in Municipal Stadium attracted just 5,721 fans for a 17-13 preseason victory vs. Buffalo (8/9). Tragedy struck the club when rookie RB Stone Johnson (Grambling), who was a sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game vs. Houston (8/30) in Wichita, Kan. He died 10 days later on September 8th and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory at Denver (9/7), a contest that remains the highest-scoring effort in team history. On October 1st, the club moved into its new Swope Park practice facility on East 63rd Street, where the team's headquarters remained until the opening of Arrowhead Stadium in '72. The Chiefs managed just one win and two ties in their next nine games before racking up three consecutive wins to close the year at 5-7-2.

1964 — On January 29th, the AFL and NBC signed a landmark five-year, $36-million television contract beginning with the '65 season. The Chiefs began the year with a 2-1 mark before dropping three consecutive games as several of the team's best players, including LB E.J. Holub, TE Fred Arbanas and S Johnny Robinson, missed numerous games with injuries. Arbanas missed the final two games of the year after undergoing surgery to his left eye, in which he suffered almost total loss of vision. RB Mack Lee Hill (Southern), who signed with the club as a rookie free agent and received a $300 signing bonus, muscled his way into the starting lineup and earned a spot in the AFL All-Star Game. The club finished the season with two consecutive wins to close the season at 7-7, finishing second in the AFL West behind San Diego (8-5-1). An average of 18,126 fans attended each home game at Municipal Stadium, prompting talks at the AFL owners' meeting about the future of the franchise in Kansas City.

BIDDING WARS, MERGER TALKS & GLORY DAYS

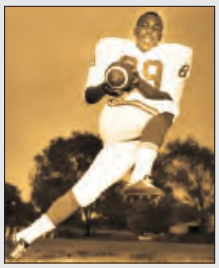

1965 — The AFL and NFL had been openly competing for talent for years, but that bidding war for players heated up for the Chiefs in '65. Kansas City made RB Gale Sayers (Kansas) their first-round draft pick, but Sayers eventually signed with the Chicago Bears.

The club suffered a devastating blow when RB Mack Lee Hill suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in the next-to-last regular season game of the year at Buffalo (12/12). Following what was expected to be a routine surgery on December 14th at Menorah Hospital in Kansas City, Hill died from what was termed "a sudden and massive embolism." Hunt called Hill's death "the worst shock possible." Beginning the following year, the club annually bestowed the Mack Lee Hill Award on its top rookie or first-year performer in honor of this fallen young star. Just days after Hill's unexpected death, the mourning Chiefs defeated Denver (12/19) to finish the year with a 7-5-2 record.

1966 — The escalation in player salaries paid by the two leagues eventually led to a series of clandestine meetings between Hunt and Tex Schramm of the Cowboys that began in April at Love Field in Dallas. While merger groundwork was being laid, the Chiefs engaged in more subterfuge during the '66 draft. DE Aaron Brown (Minnesota) was highly coveted by many clubs, including the NFL's Steelers. The Steelers couldn't locate Brown on draft day since he was already aboard a flight with Hunt, who carried out the first mid-air signing in team history. Despite being drafted in the 20th round of the AFL Draft, the Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy RB Mike Garrett (USC), who earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors. Plans for the AFL-NFL merger were officially announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle on June 8th. The Chiefs started the season at 3-0, including a 32-10 win at Oakland (9/18) in the first contest played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. A crowd of 43,885 attended the Chiefs home opener vs. defending AFL Champion Buffalo (10/2), the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City at the time. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but after the contest, Stram and Buffalo Head Coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got K Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Dawson led the league in passing, while Taylor became the first 1,000-yard receiver in franchise history, registering 1,297 yards. The Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland to claim an AFL West title with an 11-2-1 record, setting the stage for the franchise's second trip to the AFL Championship Game.

THE OTIS ACQUISITION

One of the more colorful tales in franchise lore transpired days before the '65 draft. The Cowboys had WR Otis Taylor (Prairie View A&M) sequestered at the Continental Hotel in Dallas. Chiefs scout Lloyd Wells, who was instrumental in the signing of many key players during the '60s, thought he had Taylor's services secured for the Chiefs when he learned of the Cowboys chicanery. After ascertaining the receiver's location from Taylor's mother, Wells posed as a reporter from Ebony magazine and slipped his phone number to Taylor unbeknownst to a Cowboys "bodyguard" watching Taylor's hotel door. At 3:00 AM one of the greatest "escapes" in franchise history was consummated as the receiver climbed out a bathroom window and into an awaiting Cadillac. Taylor and Wells boarded a flight for Kansas City later that morning and Taylor, with a shiny new vehicle in his possession, was subsequently drafted by the Chiefs in the fourth round, beginning an illustrious Kansas City career.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs claimed a dominating 31-7 victory in the AFL title game at Buffalo (1/1) on the same day that future Chiefs star Derrick Vincent Thomas was born in Miami, Fla. That victory propelled Kansas City to the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. The term "Super Bowl" was coined by Hunt during a committee meeting, inspired by a "Super Ball" owned by each of his three children. Although not officially adopted until the third such AFL-NFL World Championship Game, the name Super Bowl was seized upon by the media and quickly became a part of the worldwide sports lexicon. At the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers (1/15). The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10.

The club's special teams got a boost with the addition of K Jan Stenerud (Montana State), who originally enrolled in school on a skiing scholarship, and KR Noland "Super Gnat" Smith (Tennessee State). Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. In June, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of The Truman Sports Complex.

CHIEFS SMASH N.F.L. BEARS, 66-24

Striking for 32 Points in Second Quarter, Kansas City Rolls Up Record Score in Exhibition Before 33,041 Fans in the Municipal Stadium

The first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City resulted in a commanding 66-24 Chiefs victory vs. Chicago at Municipal Stadium (8/23). Injuries again hit the club hard during the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — A debate raged in Kansas City whether the club's new stadium should be built downtown or at a "remote" location. A location in Eastern Jackson County was chosen as the site and groundbreaking ceremonies took place in July with plans calling for a unique "rolling roof" design. The '68 Chiefs boasted one of the finest defenses ever assembled by the club, allowing a franchise-low 170 points (12.1 ppg). The nucleus of the defensive unit was clearly in its prime, producing six AFL All-Stars, including all three of the squad's linebackers. Offensively, Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time. The Chiefs began the season with a 7-1 record and rattled off five straight victories to close the regular season at 12-2, sharing the AFL West crown with the Raiders and setting up an AFL Western Division Playoff Game. Kansas City lost a 41-6 decision at Oakland (12/22) in the club's first postseason outing since Super Bowl I as the Raiders advanced to the AFL Championship Game against the N.Y. Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs continued the momentum they built during the '68 campaign by posting a perfect 6-0 record during preseason play. Kansas City began the regular season with four consecutive road games for the only time in team history. After a decisive 27-9 win at San Diego (9/14), the club posted a 31-0 shutout at Boston (9/21), but Dawson sustained a knee injury against the Patriots. The once-optimistic picture for the Chiefs went from bad to worse the following week when backup QB Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (9/28). That injury left the team's most crucial position in the hands of second-year QB Mike Livingston, who took just five snaps as a rookie in '68. However, Livingston engineered a five-game winning streak, while getting plenty of help from the club's defense. The team's home opener at Municipal Stadium was played in a daylong deluge referred to as a "frog-strangler" by Chiefs radio broadcaster Bill Grigsby. The Chiefs and Oilers combined for 14 fumbles in a 24-0 Kansas City victory (10/12). Dawson returned to the starting lineup in a 27-3 win vs. San Diego (11/9) and guided the club to three wins in the season's next four games. Broncos coach Lou Saban was infuriated following the Chiefs 31-17 win vs. Denver (11/27). Trailing 24-17 late in the game, Denver attempted an onside kick that was recovered by LB Bobby Bell, who promptly returned that kick for a 53-yard TD. Livingston started the following week vs. Buffalo (12/7) for an again-injured Dawson, who returned for the regular season finale at Oakland (12/13). A 10-6 loss vs. the Raiders gave the Chiefs an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland (12-1-1). In an AFL Divisional Playoff Game at the N.Y. Jets (12/20), Kansas City rode its dominating defense which produced a crucial goal-line stand en route to a 13-6 win over the defending Super Bowl champion. The victory set up a rematch with the Raiders in the final AFL Championship Game.

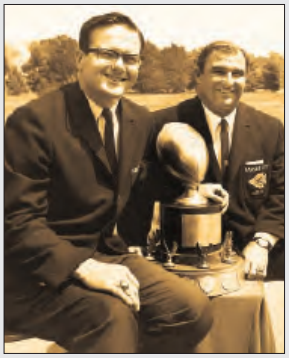

LEGENDARY LINEBACKERS

The Chiefs found a pair of linebacking gems in the second round of the '67 draft in #51 Jim Lynch (Notre Dame) and #63 Willie Lanier (Morgan State). That duo joined #78 Bobby Bell to form one of the most legendary linebacker trios in pro football annals.

THREE-TIME AFL CHAMPIONS

With a 17-7 win over the Oakland Raiders in the '69 AFL Championship Game, Kansas City became the only team in AFL history to claim three league titles. The club also won AFL Championships in '62 and in '66. During the AFL's 10-year existence, the Chiefs compiled a league-best 87-48-5 (.639) regular season record under head coach Hank Stram.

Hunt and Stram

1970 — In the final game in AFL history, the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions, defeating the Raiders by a 17-7 count at Oakland (1/4). Making the victory even more satisfying for the Chiefs was the fact that the Raiders players had to sheepishly walk out of the stadium with the luggage they had packed for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV. During the days preceding Kansas City's clash with the heavily-favored Vikings, unsubstantiated media reports associating Dawson with a known gambler hounded the Chiefs quarterback. The night before the game, Ed Sabol of NFL Films approached Vikings coach Bud Grant about being mic'd for the game. Grant declined, but Stram accepted. As both the Chiefs and the cameras rolled, Stram clamored for his team to run "65 toss power trap" and to "keep matriculating the ball down the field." The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League and wore "AFL-10" patches which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The Chiefs used three Stenerud FGs and a Garrett TD run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard TD pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory as Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Perhaps the grittiest performance of the day came from S Johnny Robinson, who registered two interceptions and a fumble recovery despite playing with three broken ribs. At approximately 5:20 p.m., the final seconds ticked off the clock at Tulane Stadium as the biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs were crowned World Champions by claiming a 23-7 victory in Super Bowl IV (1/11). A victory parade ensued upon the club's triumphant return to Kansas City the following day.

Replicating the success of '69 proved a difficult task for Stram and company. RB Mike Garrett, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, was traded to San Diego and replaced in the lineup by RB Ed Podolak. Despite a 44-24 win at Baltimore (9/28) in just the second-ever telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football package, the Chiefs owned a 3-3-1 record at the season's midpoint. One of the season's pivotal junctures came in a 17-17 tie vs. Oakland (11/1). The Chiefs were ahead 17-14 when Dawson apparently sealed the win, running for a first down which would have allowed Kansas City to run out the clock. While on the ground, Dawson was speared by Raiders DE Ben Davidson in an infamous incident that cost the Chiefs a victory and further inflamed the already heated Chiefs-Raiders rivalry. WR Otis Taylor retaliated and a bench-clearing brawl ensued. Offsetting penalties were called, nullifying Dawson's first down. The Chiefs were forced to punt and Raiders K George Blanda eventually booted a game-tying FG with 0:08 remaining. That tie ultimately cost the Chiefs a tie with Oakland for the division crown as Kansas City finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, while the Raiders went 8-4-2.

1971 — The '71 Chiefs were regarded by many as the finest squad ever assembled by the franchise, including Lamar Hunt. "I always thought that was the peak of our best team, our '71 squad," Hunt recalled. The '71 Chiefs fielded perhaps the most complete squad in franchise history, featuring a team-record 11 Pro Bowl performers. Offensively, WR Otis Taylor led the league with 1,110 receiving yards. The longstanding linebacking trio of Willie Lanier, Bobby Bell and Jim Lynch was the league's best. The offensive line was headlined by G Ed Budde and T Jim Tyrer, while the defensive front featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp. Both K Jan Stenerud and P Jerrel Wilson represented the squad in the Pro Bowl, as well. The '71 squad became the first in team annals to register two Monday Night Football wins. After bolting to a 5-1-1 start, the club went 5-2 during the second half of the season to finish the year at 10-3-1. A 16-14 home victory vs. Oakland (12/12) gave the franchise its initial AFC West title.

The great promise of the '71 campaign ended dramatically in the longest game in NFL history, an AFC Divisional Playoff Game played on Christmas Day. It took 82:40, but a 37-yard FG from Dolphins K Garo Yepremian finally ended the game as Miami claimed a 27-24 double OT win in the final football contest played at Municipal Stadium. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 combined net yards, a figure that remains an NFL postseason record. The baton of power in the AFC was officially passed to the Dolphins, who went on to appear in three consecutive Super Bowls. It would be the Chiefs last playoff appearance for 15 years, effectively signaling the conclusion of the franchise's original glory days.

FOND FAREWELLS

ARROWHEAD OPENS

After two different construction strikes and a myriad of other delays, Arrowhead Stadium was officially dedicated on August 12, 1972 when the Chiefs registered a 24-14 victory vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. RB Ed Podolak scored the first TD in the facility. "It was supposed to be finished on July 1st and it wasn't even close," recalled Jack Steadman. In fact, seats weren't even installed yet in some areas of the stadium, including Hunt's private suite, where guests sat on folding chairs that inaugural year. Regular season ticket prices for the team's first season in Arrowhead were $8 for box seats and $7 for reserved seating. Mayor H. Roe Bartle is shown at right trying out the first seat installed in Arrowhead.

The Chiefs lost a 20-10 decision vs. Miami (9/17) on Opening Day at Arrowhead in front of a crowd of 79,829. Municipal Stadium hosted its final pro sporting event as the Royals defeated the Rangers by a 4-0 count (10/4). A standing-room-only crowd of 82,094 fans was in attendance for a 27-14 victory vs. Oakland (11/5), the largest "in-house" attendance total for an NFL contest in Arrowhead's history. After a 5-3 start, a three-game losing streak effectively eliminated the club from playoff contention. An 8-6 record was good enough for only a second-place finish in the AFC West behind Oakland. LB Willie Lanier became the first Chiefs player to receive the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award.

1973 — The defense kept the club in virtually every game thanks to a nucleus that still included the bulk of the squad's Super Bowl IV starters. QB Mike Livingston started in a 23-13 Opening Day loss vs. Los Angeles (9/16), but Dawson returned to rally the club for three consecutive wins to get the team off to a 3-1 start for a third straight year. Inconsistency and injuries took their toll down the stretch, though. Dawson made his final start of the year in a 23-14 loss at Buffalo (10/29) and was replaced for the remainder of the year by Livingston, beginning a string of three straight seasons in which both players split time at the position. Livingston led the club to three straight wins, putting the team in first place in mid-November with a 6-3-1 record. A 1-2-1 ledger over the season's final month ended the club's postseason aspirations as the team finished the year in a second-place tie with Denver at 7-5-2. Dawson became the second Chiefs player in as many years to win the NFL Man of the Year Award.

1974 — The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl was held at Arrowhead on January 20th with the AFC claiming a 15-13 win thanks to five FGs from Miami K Garo Yepremian.

While the club's sparkling new facility was drawing rave reviews, the Chiefs roster was beginning to show its age. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years as the club was unable to string together consecutive victories during the season, a first in Chiefs franchise history. Many of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, T Jim Tyrer was 35, LB Bobby Bell, DT Buck Buchanan and G Ed Budde were 34, T Dave Hill was 33 and WR Otis Taylor was 32. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was CB Emmitt Thomas, who led the league with a franchise-record 12 INTs. The final game of the '74 campaign marked the final time all six of Kansas City's Pro Football Hall of Fame players from the club's Super Bowl era took the field together with Stram. Including Lamar Hunt and five future Vikings Hall of Famers, an amazing total of 13 Hall of Fame inductees were involved in that '74 game. That 35-15 loss vs. Minnesota (12/14) provided an anti-climactic conclusion to Stram's illustrious coaching career in Kansas City and was also the final game in a Chiefs uniform for eight-time All-Pro LB Bobby Bell. Three days later, on December 27th, the only head coach in franchise history was relieved of his duties after compiling a 124-76-10 regular season record with the club.

1975 — San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Paul Wiggin was named the second head coach in franchise history on January 23rd. A former Pro Bowl defensive end for the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin inherited the unenviable task of rebuilding a squad whose pool of talent had been largely depleted due to age and a number of ill-fated trades that had left the club devoid of first-round draft choices in '73 and '75. After an 0-3 start to the season, Wiggin directed the Chiefs to three straight wins, beginning with a convincing 42-10 victory vs. Oakland (10/12). The highlight of the season was a 34-31 upset win at Dallas (11/10) on Monday Night Football. But the club could not maintain that success. Owning a 5-5 record heading into the homestretch of the season, injuries to a number of key players crippled the team. The Chiefs dropped its final four contests of the year to finish at 5-9 for the second consecutive season. The regular season finale at Oakland (12/21) marked the final games in the Hall of Fame careers of Dawson and Buchanan.

1976 — Buck Buchanan officially hung up his spikes in February, while Dawson announced his retirement on May 1st. Off the field, Jack Steadman was promoted to President and Jim Schaaf was named General Manager in August. On the field, Kansas City's fortunes didn't improve in the second year of the Wiggin regime. The club dropped three straight home games before suffering a 50-17 setback at Buffalo (10/3), opening the season at 0-4 for the first time in team history. The team registered a 3-1 record during a successful midseason stretch but could not maintain that momentum. After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, QB Mike Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starter, becoming the first signal-caller to start every regular season game since Dawson in '68. Even though he played well and rallied the squad for wins in two of the season's final three games, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record. RB Ed Podolak surpassed RB Abner Haynes as the all-time leading ground gainer in team history in the final game of the year vs. Cleveland (12/12). RB MacArthur Lane was another offensive threat, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the league in receptions (66). One of the club's final ties to its glory days was severed when the dismantling of Municipal Stadium began on April 13th. A portion of the site was later developed into a community garden.

1977 — On the field, the Chiefs suffered their worst season to date, winning just twice and undergoing a midseason coaching change. An 0-5 start doomed the squad with a 44-7 loss at Cleveland (10/30) effectively sealing Wiggin's fate. Despite the club's record, Wiggin was still a popular figure in Kansas City, but was nonetheless relieved of his duties on Halloween, marking the first in-season coaching switch in team history. Wiggin concluded his tenure with an 11-24 record. Defensive backs coach Tom Bettis was named interim coach and claimed a 20-10 victory vs. Green Bay (11/6) in the club's initial contest under his direction, but it was the only victory of his brief head coaching tenure. The team endured a six-game losing streak to conclude the season at 2-12. Bettis and the remainder of the coaching staff assembled by Wiggin were released on December 19th, one day after a 21-20 loss at Oakland (12/18) in the regular season finale. Marv Levy, the former head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes, was named the fourth head coach in franchise history on December 20th. The heart and soul of the Chiefs once-vaunted defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, who both joined the club together as second-round draft picks in '67, retired following the '77 campaign. Baltimore later acquired Lanier's rights in a trade, but failed to lure him out of retirement.

"GIVE A CHEER FOR KANSAS CITY"
by Marv Levy
Give a cheer for Kansas City,
Loud and clear for the Red and Gold,
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old.
(Refrain)
Rah, Rah, Rah, for Kansas City
Rah, Rah, Rah for Red and Gold
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old
Beat the drum, here they come
Warriors, brave and strong.
In the stands, loyal fans
Cheer our team along

THE LEVY ERA

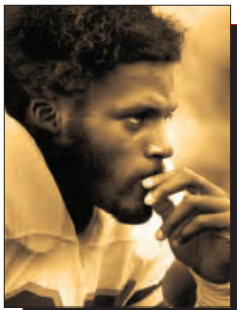

1978 — Levy's systematic restocking of a relatively barren defensive roster began with a '78 draft class that included a pair of future Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrinees in DE Art Still (Kentucky) and LB Gary Spani (Kansas State). Another tie to the club's Super Bowl IV team was cut when RB Ed Podolak, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, retired on June 15th. Perhaps Levy's most unconventional tactic in rebuilding the Chiefs was installing the Wing-T offense. "It was a situation where we took over a team that had the worst defensive record in the history of the National Football League," Levy later explained. "We wanted to keep that defense off the field, so we ran the ball 60 times a game." The '78 Chiefs ran and ran often, posting franchise records with 663 rushing attempts and 2,986 ground yards. Levy's squad ran the ball a staggering 69 times in a 24-23 Opening Day win at Cincinnati (9/3), the most rushing attempts in an NFL contest since '48. Five different players had 100-yard rushing games during the year, including RB Tony Reed who finished the season with 1,053 yards to become the team's first 1,000-yard back since '67. Despite the squad's Opening Day success, the club lost 10 of its next 11 games, including a pair of OT decisions. However, the team showed signs of improvement with the defense recording a 23-0 shutout vs. San Diego (11/26) as the club concluded its first 16-game schedule with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — Kansas City owned a pair of picks in the first round of the draft, selecting DE Mike Bell (Colorado State) and QB Steve Fuller (Clemson). By the season's third game, Fuller had supplanted QB Mike Livingston as the club's starter. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs owned a 4-2 record after six games, but a five-game midseason losing stretch sullied that effort. Despite finishing fifth in the AFC West for a second straight season, Kansas City's 7-9 record was a notable accomplishment considering the fact that the division's other four clubs all posted winning records for a second consecutive season. The Chiefs lost a 3-0 decision at Tampa Bay (12/16) in one of the most water-logged contests in franchise annals. As both clubs struggled to move the ball under monsoon-like conditions, a late fourth-quarter FG by the Buccaneers averted the NFL's first scoreless tie since '43.

1980 — An infusion of new talent continued at Arrowhead. G Brad Budde (USC), the son of Chiefs Hall of Fame G Ed Budde, was selected as the club's first-round draft choice, making the Buddes the first father-son combination to become first-round draftees of the same team in NFL history. In a then-controversial move on August 26th, the Chiefs released K Jan Stenerud, who at the time was the club's all-time leading scorer. He was replaced by journeyman K Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. He finished his career with the club in '93 as the franchise's all-time leading scorer with 1,466 points. After enduring an 0-4 start, the club rebounded to post a four-game victory streak. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, former Miami 12th-round draft choice QB Bill Kenney entered the lineup. He was so anonymous that when he appeared in that contest, the name on the back of his jersey was inadvertently misspelled "Kenny." Kenney went on to lead the club to a 31-14 victory vs. Denver (12/7) in his initial NFL start. The defense continued to evolve as DE Art Still and S Gary Barbaro became the first Chiefs defensive players to be elected to the Pro Bowl in five seasons. The Chiefs finished the year at 8-8, the club's highest victory tally since '72.

1981 — Kenney supplanted Fuller as the club's starting quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers at Pittsburgh (9/6) on Opening Day. Second-round draft choice RB Joe Delaney (NW Louisiana) electrified the club's offense by rushing for 1,121 yards, a team single-season record at the time. He was named the AFC's Rookie of the Year and became the first running back to represent the franchise in the Pro Bowl. Delaney registered a 193-yard performance in a 23-10 win vs. Houston (11/15), the best single-game total ever amassed by a Kansas City rookie RB. "I've played against the best – O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Walter Payton and (Delaney) ranks right up there with them," remarked Oilers Hall of Fame DE Elvin Bethea. "He is great with a capital 'G.'" Owning an 8-4 record with four games remaining, the Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before hitting a three-game losing skid. Kenney missed the club's final three contests due to injury. Fuller guided the club to a 10-6 win at Minnesota (12/20) in the final contest played at Metropolitan Stadium as Vikings fans began dismembering the stadium in the second half, taking seats, pieces of the scoreboard and even chunks of sod as souvenirs. The victory assured the Chiefs of a 9-7 record, the club's first winning mark since '73 as Levy increased the club's victory total for a third consecutive year. Inspired by Washington's fight song, Levy penned a fight song of his own for the Chiefs, but much like the Wing-T offense, the concept never really caught on.

Tragedy struck the club on June 29, 1983 when Delaney drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. An overflow crowd that included the Hunt family, prominent members of the Chiefs administration and head coach John Mackovic attended a memorial service held in Delaney's high school gymnasium in Haughton, Louisiana on July 4th. Delaney was posthumously awarded the Presidential Citizen's Medal by Ronald Reagan on July 13th.

1982 — RB Joe Delaney underwent surgery in May to repair a detached retina in his eye, a radical procedure at the time. Optimism abounded at Arrowhead thanks to the club's promising 9-7 record from '81, but swelling labor unrest spelled doom for both the Chiefs and Levy in '82. The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before a 57-day strike by the NFL Players Association began at midnight on September 20th. The strike concluded on November 17th after six games were cancelled and one was rescheduled, but the Chiefs would never recover, dropping four straight games after their return to the field. C Jack Rudnay, who had been one of the franchise's most durable and decorated offensive performers over the past decade, announced on December 20th that the '82 campaign would be his last. Despite wins in two of the season's final three games, the Levy era concluded as the club finished the strike-shortened season at 3-6.

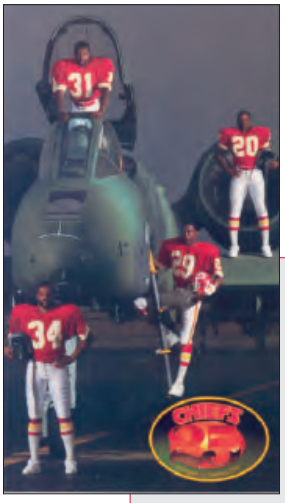

TRAGEDY, TRIUMPHS AND TRANSITIONS

1983 — Marv Levy was released as the club's head coach on January 4th. Dallas Cowboys QBs coach John Mackovic was named the fifth head coach in Kansas City history on February 2nd. The 39-year-old Mackovic became the youngest individual ever to hold that post for the club. The Chiefs held the seventh overall pick in the quarterback-laden '83 NFL Draft and selected QB Todd Blackledge (Penn State). The five other signal-callers selected in the first round that year included John Elway (1st – Baltimore), Jim Kelly (Buffalo – 14th), Tony Eason (New England – 15th), Ken O'Brien (N.Y. Jets – 24th) and Dan Marino (Miami – 27th). LB Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 30th, providing some solace to the franchise which was still mourning the death of RB Joe Delaney.

With Kenney and Blackledge both on the roster, QB Steve Fuller was traded to the L.A. Rams on August 19th. Kenney earned a Pro Bowl berth after racking up a franchise-record 4,348 passing yards, while WR Carlos Carson hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying aerial game, Mackovic had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney on the ground. The highest scoring contest in franchise history (at the time) took place as the Chiefs and Seahawks combined for 99 points in a wild, 51-48 OT loss at Seattle (11/27). A meager crowd of 11,377 attended the club's season-ending 48-17 win vs. Denver (12/18), the smallest attendance ever for a Chiefs game at Arrowhead, as the club finished at 6-10.

1984 — Wayne Rudy, the only head trainer the team had ever known, retired and passed the reins to his assistant Dave Kendall in February. Pro Bowl S Gary Barbaro became the most notable Chiefs player to defect to the rival USFL, signing with the New Jersey Generals on February 2nd after sitting out the entire '83 campaign in a contract dispute. All-America NT Bill Maas (Pitt) and T John Alt (Iowa) were both tabbed in the first round of the draft. Maas was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while Alt eventually became the cornerstone of the club's offensive line later in the decade. Kansas City's defense registered a team-record 11.0 sacks in a 10-6 win vs. Cleveland (9/30), coming 1.0 sack shy of the NFL single-game record. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Blackledge opened the first six contests of the season and had the club at 3-3.

THE INTERCEPTORS

S Gary Barbaro's departure and the trade of Pro Bowl CB Gary Green in '84 began a youth movement that produced the most vaunted secondary in team history. CB Kevin Ross (#31), S Deron Cherry (#20), CB Albert Lewis (#29) and S Lloyd Burruss (#34) accounted for a combined 13 Pro Bowl appearances with the Chiefs.

Kenney returned to the starting lineup at the N.Y. Jets (10/21), but the club dropped four of its first five contests after his return. However, the team rattled off three consecutive wins to conclude the year at 8-8.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start with a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8), while Cherry tied an NFL record by registering four interceptions in a 28-7 win vs. Seattle (9/29) as the club boasted a 3-1 record four games into the season. Kansas City was then confronted with a seven-game losing streak that was not snapped until Blackledge was installed as the starter vs. Indianapolis (11/24). The team rebounded to win three of its final five contests of the season with Blackledge under center, further inflaming a quarterback controversy that continued into the '86 campaign. One of the few remaining bright spots in a disappointing 6-10 season came in the regular season finale vs. San Diego (12/22) when WR Stephone Paige set an NFL record with 309 receiving yards in a 38-34 win, breaking the previous mark of 303 yards set by Jim Benton (Cleveland) in '45. Paige's mark was subsequently surpassed by a 336-yard effort by WR Willie Anderson (L.A. Rams) in '89.

1986 — LB Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. On the field, the pieces started coming together for Mackovic. His offense displayed plenty of scoring punch, while the club's defense and special teams became increasingly effective. With the team sitting at 3-3, Kenney replaced Blackledge for the second half vs. San Diego (10/19), guiding the club to a 42-41 victory. That win was the first of four consecutive triumphs with Kenney at the helm, the club's longest winning streak since '80. Poised with a 7-3 record after 10 games, three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy. Two December wins gave Kansas City a 9-6 mark, putting the Chiefs tantalizingly close to their first postseason berth in 15 years.

The defining moment of the '86 campaign came in the regular season finale at Pittsburgh (12/21). Despite being outgained in total yardage by a 515-to-171-yard margin, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came via special teams: a blocked punt return, a FG, a kickoff return and a blocked FG return. With a 10-6 record the Chiefs earned an AFC Wild Card berth, winning a tiebreaker with Seattle. Kenney was injured in the fourth quarter of the Steelers contest, meaning Blackledge drew the starting assignment for the club's first playoff contest since '71, a 35-15 loss at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Little did anyone know at the time that it would be the final contest of the Mackovic era.

1987 — One of the most tumultuous weeks in franchise history took place following the club's playoff loss vs. the Jets. Assistant head coach and special teams coach Frank Gansz, who had been an integral figure in the club's remarkable '86 campaign, resigned his position on January 7th in order to pursue opportunities as an NFL offensive coordinator. It was announced in an impromptu press conference that Mackovic was relieved of his duties on January 8th. A popular figure among Chiefs players, Gansz was reinstated on January 10th and was named the sixth head coach in franchise history.

QB Len Dawson became the third Chiefs player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8th, while injuries forced the retirement of the club's then all-time leading tackler LB Gary Spani. A duo of rookies made a splash in a 20-13 win on Opening Day vs. San Diego (9/13) as RB Paul Palmer returned a kickoff for a TD and RB Christian Okoye dashed for 105 yards. A 24-day NFLPA strike began on September 22nd. The club's contest vs. Minnesota (9/27) was cancelled before replacement games were conducted the next three weeks. Much like Marv Levy five years earlier, Gansz's grip on the club's coaching reins was crippled by the labor unrest.

The Kansas City replacement squad was constructed primarily of players cut in training camp. One of the few bright spots was RB Jitter Fields, who remained on the active roster following the strike. The Chiefs strike squad received an ominous welcome in Los Angeles when in the early morning hours prior to a contest vs. the Raiders (10/4), an earthquake rattled Southern California. The visibly shaken Chiefs lost a 35-17 decision later that day. The low point of the year came the following week at Miami (10/11) in the first regular season game played at what then was known as Joe Robbie Stadium. Chiefs QB Matt Stevens was injured early in the contest, forcing into duty QB Alex Espinoza, a player who had never taken an NFL snap. The result was a 42-0 Dolphins victory, setting the stage for an 0-3 performance by Kansas City's replacement unit, giving the Chiefs a 1-4 record before the club's regular roster returned at San Diego (10/25). Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game losing skid. For the only time in team history, five different players started games at quarterback for the club. Behind Kenney, Kansas City won two of its last three games to conclude the strike-shortened 4-11 campaign.

1988 — The spring was marked by several notable trades as the club jockeyed to improve on its 4-11 finish in '87. Blackledge was traded to Pittsburgh on March 29th and 12-year veteran QB Steve DeBerg was acquired from Tampa Bay on March 31st. The Chiefs moved up one spot in the first round of the draft to select DE Neil Smith (Nebraska) with the third overall pick. Kenney opened the team's initial two games, but was replaced by DeBerg at halftime at Seattle (9/11). In his initial start as a member of the Chiefs, DeBerg guided the team to a 20-13 win vs. Denver (9/18). However, six losses and a tie ensued as Kenney and DeBerg jostled for the QB job. As the season drew to a close, it became apparent the winds of change were blowing across the organization. President Jack Steadman resigned on December 8th, while General Manager Jim Schaaf was relieved of his duties the same day. Steadman was later named Chairman of the Board. On the field, the Chiefs finished the year at 4-11-1 as questions swirled regarding Gansz's future and who would fill the club's leadership void. Those winds of change became a full-fledged gale one day after the season's conclusion when former Philadelphia Eagles and USFL executive Carl Peterson was named the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer on December 19th.

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE: CARL PETERSON AND MARTYBALL

1989 — After compiling an 8-22-1 record in two seasons, Gansz was relieved of his duties as head coach on January 5th. Peterson's selection as Gansz's successor was former Cleveland Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer, who was named the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24th. The first draft choice of the Peterson era set the tone for the next decade as the club selected Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas (Alabama) with the fourth overall selection. Thomas paired with Smith to form one of the most feared pass-rushing duos in NFL history, compiling a combined 212.5 sacks during their illustrious Chiefs careers. The Peterson-Schottenheimer era got off to an inauspicious start in a 34-20 loss at Denver (9/10) as DeBerg's first pass attempt was intercepted and returned for a TD. The club won just four times in its next 10 games as former Eagles QB Ron Jaworski and QB Steve Pelluer, who was acquired in a trade from Dallas, each opened three games apiece during that span. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs just out of postseason qualification at 8-7-1. A 34-0 shutout win vs. Houston (11/26) highlighted the club's stretch run. RB Christian Okoye became the first Chiefs player to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — The foundation for the club's formidable offensive line of the '90s gathered two key ingredients when C Tim Grunhard (Notre Dame) and G Dave Szott (Penn State) were acquired in the draft. Construction began on the club's indoor practice facility at the Truman Sports Complex, giving the Chiefs an 80-yard indoor field and weight room facilities upon its completion. DT Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4th. The Chiefs made their initial overseas appearance, losing a 19-3 American Bowl decision vs. the L.A. Rams at Olympic Stadium in Berlin, Germany (8/11). Schottenheimer's club got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of its first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six contests.

Free agent RB Barry Word produced a 200-yard rushing outburst in a 43-24 victory vs. Detroit (10/14), becoming the first player in team history to top the 200-yard plateau. Kansas City led the NFL with a franchise-record 60.0 sacks, including a team-record 20.0 by LB Derrick Thomas. Thomas established an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks in an inspiring Veterans Day performance vs. Seattle (11/11), a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second, 25-yard TD pass to WR Paul Skansi by future Chiefs QB Dave Krieg. That loss brought on the furious stretch run which saw the club record victories in six of its last seven outings. Behind DeBerg's offensive leadership (23 TD passes with just four INTs), Kansas City finished the year with a franchise-best +26 turnover differential. The Chiefs clinched their first postseason berth since '86 with a 24-21 win at San Diego (12/23) and finished the year at 11-5, marking the franchise's best finish since '69.

1991 — The Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking 17-16 loss at Miami (1/5) in an AFC Wild Card Game as K Nick Lowery's potential game-winning 52-yard FG fell short with 0:56 remaining. On July 27th, K Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs became members of Wisconsin's "Cheese League," moving their training camp to the University of Wisconsin - River Falls after spending the previous 28 summers at William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo. The club's 14-3 win vs. Atlanta (9/1) on Opening Day initiated the 141-game sellout streak at Arrowhead that carried into the 2008 campaign. The Chiefs were featured on Monday Night Football three times, including a 33-6 victory over the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills before a raucous crowd of 76,120 fans at Arrowhead (10/7), marking the club's first home MNF contest in eight years. Kansas City finished the regular season at 10-6, marking the first time since '68-69 that the franchise had qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons. A 27-21 victory at the L.A. Raiders (12/22) in the regular season finale gave the Chiefs the right to host the Silver and Black just six days later in the inaugural postseason game in Arrowhead's history. Thanks to six takeaways, the Chiefs registered their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 win in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/28).

1992 — The Chiefs lost a 37-14 decision at Buffalo (1/5) in an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup as the Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs. A longtime nemesis with Seattle, "Plan B" free agent QB Dave Krieg was signed as the club's starter on March 19th. A melancholy offseason awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 11th and Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan on July 16th. Both Dovell and Buchanan lost courageous battles with cancer. Six-time Pro Bowl S Deron Cherry who originally joined the club as a free agent punter, announced his retirement in July after registering 50 interceptions in 11 seasons with the franchise. The Chiefs retired the jerseys of Buchanan (86), LB Willie Lanier (63) and K Jan Stenerud (3) in a ceremony prior to a preseason contest vs. Buffalo (8/24).

First-round draft pick CB Dale Carter (Tennessee) won the Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year. The very first time Carter touched the ball in an NFL contest, he registered a 46-yard punt return TD in a 24-10 win at San Diego (9/6). RB Christian Okoye surpassed RB Ed Podolak as the then all-time leading rusher in team history vs. Seattle (9/13). Injuries eventually made the '92 campaign Okoye's last with the Chiefs after he compiled 4,897 rushing yards with the franchise. The club got off to a 3-1 start, but was faced with a 4-4 record at the season's midpoint. Despite four consecutive victories, the club's postseason hopes still came down to the season's final contest. Owning a 9-6 record and needing one more victory to secure a playoff berth, the Chiefs defense tallied three TDs, while Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as Kansas City claimed a 42-20 win vs. Denver (12/27) to finish the season with a 10-6 record.

1993 — The Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as Krieg was sacked 7.0 times in a 17-0 AFC Wild Card loss at San Diego (1/2). The Chiefs spent the off-season installing the "West Coast" offense under the direction of new offensive coordinator Paul Hackett, who at one time served as the QBs coach to Joe Montana in San Francisco. On April 20th, the Chiefs traded for Montana, who directed the 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. G Will Shields (Nebraska) was selected with the club's third-round draft choice, rounding out the "law firm" of Grunhard, Szott and Shields which anchored the interior of the Chiefs offensive line for most of the decade. On June 9th, the club signed another future Canton enshrinee, inking unrestricted free agent RB Marcus Allen, who had spent 11 seasons tormenting the Chiefs as a member of the Raiders. Montana and Allen made their debuts in a 27-3 win at Tampa Bay (9/5), marking Montana's first Opening Day appearance since '90. Shields initiated a franchise-record streak of 223 consecutive starts the following week at Houston (9/12). Thanks to a pair of Monday Night Football wins at Arrowhead, the club owned a 6-2 midseason mark. Before taking the field in a Sunday night contest at Minnesota (12/26), the team learned it had clinched its first AFC West title since '71 thanks to a Raiders loss earlier in the day. The team finished the season with an 11-5 regular season record, marking the club's fourth consecutive year with a double-digit victory tally. LB Derrick Thomas was named the NFL's Man of the Year following the season. Thomas, who founded "The Third and Long Foundation," received the honor in large part due to his efforts in promoting children's literacy.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the Hall of Fame passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a 27-24 OT win in an AFC Wild Card thriller vs. Pittsburgh (1/8). Next up was a red-hot Oilers squad that had won 11 straight games to conclude the regular season. Heavily-favored Houston opened up a 13-7 lead in the fourth quarter, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind, guiding the club to a 28-20 victory at Houston (1/16). The Chiefs playoff journey ended in their initial AFC Championship Game appearance at Buffalo (1/23). Montana was knocked out of the contest early in the second half as Buffalo claimed its fourth straight AFC title by a score of 30-13.

While the previous off-season saw the Chiefs stockpile several key free agents, a number of familiar faces departed following the '93 season, most notably CBs Albert Lewis (Raiders) and Kevin Ross (Falcons), as well as K Nick Lowery (Jets). QB Steve Bono was acquired in a trade with San Francisco on May 2nd to serve as Montana's backup. The most dramatic change in Arrowhead's appearance occurred as a grass playing field was also installed, replacing the previous AstroTurf surface. The club made its second American Bowl appearance, meeting Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan (8/7).

The Chiefs home opener was one of the most ballyhooed regular season contests in team history as Montana made his only career appearance vs. San Francisco (9/11). The Chiefs prevailed over the 49ers and Montana's replacement, QB Steve Young, by a 24-17 count before a crowd of 79,907, the second-largest "in-house" attendance in Arrowhead history. After starting the season 3-0, the Chiefs dropped back-to-back games before snapping an 11-game losing streak at Denver's Mile High Stadium (10/17) in a memorable Monday night contest. Montana orchestrated a masterful comeback, connecting with WR Willie Davis for a five-yard TD with 0:08 remaining to give the Chiefs a 31-28 triumph. A late-season, three-game losing skid put the club's playoff hopes in jeopardy. The Chiefs found themselves at 8-7 faced with a do-or-die regular season finale vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/24) in the final NFL contest played at the L.A. Coliseum for 22 seasons. Marcus Allen had his finest game in a Chiefs uniform, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. At 9-7, Kansas City qualified for the playoffs for a fifth straight season. However, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs in Montana's final professional contest at Miami (12/31). Montana and Dolphins QB Dan Marino conducted a masterful first-half duel that ended deadlocked at 17-17, but Miami eventually prevailed by a 27-17 count.

1995 — Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL on April 18th and Bono was promoted to the starting job. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs, leading Schottenheimer to quip during training camp that his club had been picked "sixth in a five-team division." Led by Bono, who merited a Pro Bowl berth, Kansas City posted an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and at Arrowhead. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense (138.9 ypg), scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and turnover ratio (+12). A 24-3 win at Arizona (10/1) featured a surreal 76-yard TD run on a bootleg by Bono as the Chiefs initiated a seven-game winning streak, the franchise's longest since '69. In a Monday Night Football classic vs. San Diego (10/9), WR Tamarick Vanover returned a punt for an 86-yard TD to provide the winning points in a 29-23 victory, the team's third straight home win in overtime. The club's defense began to flex its muscle, beginning with a 21-7 win at Denver (10/22). The contest, played in a Rocky Mountain snowstorm, featured the 100th rushing TD of Marcus Allen's career. The Chiefs won a home game for the third time on a last-second return score that concluded in Arrowhead's west end zone when CB Mark Collins scooped up a fumble for a 20-13 win vs. Houston (11/19). Kansas City clinched a division title with a 29-23 victory at Oakland (12/3) en route to a 13-3 regular season record and a team-record sixth consecutive postseason berth. The Chiefs were represented by seven players in the Pro Bowl, more than any other AFC team.

HALLELUJAH CORNER

The term "Hallelujah Corner" was coined in '95 after Kansas City won three separate contests via return scores culminating in Arrowhead's west end zone. The first of those hallowed victories was a 23-17 OT decision vs. Oakland (9/17) that culminated when CB James Hasty returned an interception for a 64-yard TD, prompting head coach Marty Schottenheimer to plant a celebratory postgame kiss on the cornerback.

1996 — The Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/7) on a blustery afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9. Three INTs and a trio of missed FGs contributed to the 10-7 loss at Arrowhead. The Chiefs entered the '96 campaign with essentially the same lineup as the club boasted in '95 and were featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated along with Green Bay as preseason Super Bowl favorites.

Kansas City made its third American Bowl appearance, this time vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico (8/5). The club started the season with a 4-0 record for the first time in team history, but the season's lofty expectations came crashing down as the squad lost three of its next four games. A three-game winning streak, including a victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers, put the club back in postseason contention at 8-3.

That rosy picture quickly crumbled in a 28-14 loss vs. San Diego (11/24) as Bono was relieved in the second half by QB Rich Gannon. Gannon assumed the starting reins for a 28-24 win in a Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/28) as Allen registered his 111th career rushing TD to surpass Walter Payton as the NFL's all-time leader in that department at that time. Needing just one more win to qualify for the playoffs, the Chiefs dropped their next two games as an injury-hampered Gannon was sidelined for good in the second quarter of a 24-19 loss vs. Indianapolis (12/15). Faced with a must-win situation in a frigid regular season finale at Buffalo (12/22), the club's postseason hopes hinged on Bono. Despite a 20-9 loss to the Bills, the Chiefs still had a shot to slip into the playoffs if Atlanta could secure a win at Jacksonville. However, Atlanta K Morten Andersen's 30-yard FG attempt went wide left with 0:04 remaining, preserving a 19-17 win and the AFC's final Wild Card spot for the Jaguars, who won a tiebreaker with Kansas City. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, missing the postseason for the first time since '89.

1997 — Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97, beginning with free agent QB Elvis Grbac, who signed with the club on March 17th. In addition to Grbac, the Chiefs lineup featured 11 new starters, including WR Andre Rison, who won team MVP honors after becoming the club's first Pro Bowl receiver in a decade. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft, S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards, all emerged as starters. T John Alt announced his retirement at training camp in River Falls, Wis., on July 21st. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record, an 8-0 Arrowhead mark and their second AFC West title in three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came in a Monday Night Football thriller at Oakland (9/8) when Grbac connected with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with just 0:03 remaining to cap a 28-27 win. Six days later, Kansas City's defense produced a remarkable goal-line stand to preserve a 22-16 victory at Arrowhead vs. Buffalo (9/14).

After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune appeared to run out vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, Gannon led the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings.

K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG as time expired to give Kansas City a 24-22 win vs. Denver (11/16). San Francisco entered Arrowhead boasting an 11-game winning streak and departed after suffering a 44-9 defeat (11/30), while the Chiefs vaunted defensive unit pitched a 30-0 shutout vs. Oakland (12/7). The Chiefs led the NFL in scoring defense, allowing a mere 14.5 points per game. The 232 total points permitted by the Chiefs in '97 were the lowest tally ever allowed in a 16-game season in team history. Kansas City also broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half TD in 10 consecutive games. Grbac returned for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans (12/21) as the squad finished the year with six consecutive victories, a first in team history.

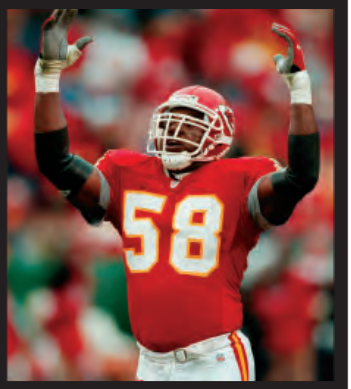

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off when Denver (12-4) visited Kansas City (13-3) for an AFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/4). Grbac started the contest for Kansas City and despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foe. On April 9th, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career. A whirlwind preseason saw the Chiefs play another American Bowl contest, this time vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan (8/1), as well as a preseason game vs. Tampa Bay in Norman, Okla. (8/8).

A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory vs. Oakland (9/6) that featured 6.0 sacks from LB Derrick Thomas. Grbac was lost for four games due to a shoulder injury, while All-Pro G Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injuries. Gannon led the team to a 4-1 start that included a water-logged, 17-6 Sunday night win vs. Seattle (10/4), a contest that was delayed for 54 minutes due to torrential rains. However, the club would never recover from an ensuing six-game losing streak, the longest of Schottenheimer's tenure. The low point of that stretch came in a penalty-marred 30-7 loss vs. Denver (11/16) on Monday Night Football. The club was hampered by crucial penalties throughout the season, setting dubious NFL records at the time for penalties (158) and penalty yardage (1,304). Despite registering wins in three of the season's final five games, the club finished the year at 7-9, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons.

GUN'S RUN & A FALLEN HERO

1999 — On January 11th, Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history, a number that has since been surpassed by Andy Reid. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles and qualified for the playoffs seven times. Schottenheimer also produced a remarkable 18-3 (.857) record against the Raiders. Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22nd. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Cunningham produced a 9-7 record, the best mark of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver (12/5). Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the decade with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Under Cunningham, Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. The Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg). After a three-game midseason losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string, setting up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

DERRICK VINCENT THOMAS (1967-2000)

On January 23, 2000 nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7th. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8th, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11th was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lay in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15th at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19th, Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4th, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas was honored prior to the club's 2000 season opener vs. Indianapolis (9/3). A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009, Thomas also had his #58 officially retired by the Chiefs in 2009.

2000 — The Chiefs needed a win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead (1/2) in the regular season finale to seal the AFC West title, while a loss would mean postseason elimination. Kansas City leapt out to a 17-0 lead, but a blocked punt turned the momentum in the game which was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in OT. That loss provided an ominous start to a year which turned tragic on January 23rd when nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in an auto accident and died shortly after.

Despite an 0-2 start, Kansas City bounced back to win its next three contests. Despite trailing 22-14 midway through the fourth quarter, Cunningham's squad rallied for a 23-22 victory at Denver (9/24), giving the Chiefs a win in their final visit to Mile High Stadium. The Chiefs faced Seattle (10/2) in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The 24-17 win against the Seahawks marked Kansas City's third victory in a row.

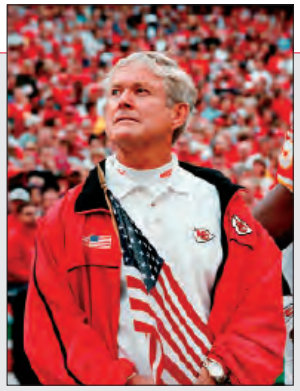

The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis (10/22), a contest which featured the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. Combined with a 24-19 victory at Seattle (10/29) in a game played at Husky Stadium, the Chiefs record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span took its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

THE VERMEIL YEARS

2001 — After compiling a 16-16 record in two seasons, Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5th. Dick Vermeil, who guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season, was named the ninth head coach in franchise history on January 12th. On April 20th, the club acquired QB Trent Green in a trade with St. Louis and also signed unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes.

The initial regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington (9/30) when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and Washington by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of its final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, becoming just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing, amassing 1,555 yards to break Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480.

SEPTEMBER 11TH

On September 11, 2001, Americans watched with horror as terrorist attacks shocked the nation. Commissioner Paul Tagliabue suspended play for the weekend of September 16th. The Chiefs game at Seattle scheduled for that date was postponed until January 6th. The NFL made a patriotic return in Kansas City when the Chiefs hosted the N.Y. Giants (9/23). Tagliabue delivered a pregame address to the Arrowhead crowd, which greeted the Giants with a rousing ovation. Via a fireman's boot collection that was matched by the Chiefs and the Hunt family, a total donation of $451,413.88 was raised for relief efforts in New York City, an amount believed to be the largest single-day outpouring of spontaneous support by a group of fans and a pro sports team.

2002 — The club initiated a season-long series to commemorate the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City in 2002. On April 15th, the Chiefs Honor Grove of over 40 stately Giant Redwoods was established in the southeast corner of the Truman Sports Complex to epitomize the deep and lasting roots the organization has developed in Mid-America. Hunt's inspiration for the honor grove was a quote from Vikings QB Joe Kapp, who was knocked out of Super Bowl IV. "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest," Kapp said after the game. On April 25th, members of the Chiefs coaches, players, staff and cheerleaders visited numerous locations throughout the greater Kansas City community, thanking them for their support of the franchise.

In a season filled with wild comebacks and fantastic finishes, the Chiefs pulled out a remarkable 40-39 Opening Day win at Cleveland (9/8). Starting with that contest, virtually every game was a nail-biter with all but one of the club's eight losses being decided by seven points or less. But despite leading the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with 467 points and setting a franchise record with 6,000 yards of total offense, the club finished 8-8 to miss the postseason in Vermeil's second season. The team remained in playoff contention until the season's final game thanks to its explosive offense that broke nine team records. The Chiefs also set NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing just two of those loose balls. Holmes continued the torrid pace he began in 2001, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from the AP and surpassing his own team record with 1,615 rushing yards. The club's special teams were bolstered by WR Dante Hall, who produced three kick returns for TDs and became the first Chiefs return man to earn a Pro Bowl berth since J.T. Smith following the '80 season.

2003 — Hank Stram and RB Marcus Allen were enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthus broadcast his 151st game as the club's play-by-play announcer at Houston (9/21), breaking Kevin Harlan's previous record (150). The Chiefs started the regular season with a 9-0 record for the first time in team history, becoming just the ninth team since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat. That hot start to the season was sparked by Hall, who tied an NFL single-season record by registering four kick return TDs over that span. Hall also became the first player in league annals to accomplish that feat in four consecutive games. The Chiefs overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit for the first time in team history, pulling out an improbable 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12). Kansas City's winning streak came to an end in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (11/16).

The Chiefs clinched their first AFC West title since '97 with a 45-17 win vs. Detroit (12/14) as QB Trent Green became the first player in team history to register a "perfect" 158.3 passer rating in a game. Kansas City concluded its 13-3 regular season with a 31-3 victory vs. Chicago (12/28), marking a perfect 8-0 record at home and the club's 13th consecutive regular season victory at Arrowhead Stadium. In that win, Holmes set a trio of TD records. He finished the season with 27 rushing scores, establishing NFL single-season records for both rushing TDs and total TDs. Holmes (61) also bypassed WR Otis Taylor (60) for the most career TDs scored by a player in Chiefs history. The Chiefs five-game improvement in the win column from the previous season tied as the best mark in franchise history. Kansas City became the first AFC team to lead the NFL in scoring in consecutive seasons since San Diego in '81-82 as the club produced a then franchise-best 484 points (now third all time). The team also led the NFL with a +19 turnover differential. Nine Chiefs players received Pro Bowl recognition, the fourth-highest total in team history, while the club's six offensive Pro Bowlers marked the most in club annals.

2004 — The Chiefs hosted an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11) in which neither team was forced to punt. Sensational performances by Holmes (176 rushing yards, two TDs) and Hall (208 kickoff return yards, 1 TD) weren't enough as the Colts recorded a 38-31 victory. Defensive Coordinator Greg Robinson resigned on January 13th. Vermeil agreed to a two-year contract extension on January 16th. On January 20th, Vermeil hired Gunther Cunningham, who returned to Kansas City as the club's defensive coordinator. On January 30th, G Will Shields was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year.

The Chiefs got into the victory column with a 27-24 win on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4) after an 0-3 start quickly dampened the club's high expectations. Kansas City's offensive line emerged as one of the NFL's finest units, producing a trio of Pro Bowl performers in Shields, T Willie Roaf and G Brian Waters. Thanks to that offensive front, the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24). The following week Kansas City continued its offensive onslaught with a convincing 45-35 victory vs. Indianapolis (10/31), snapping a seven-game losing streak to the Colts. After surpassing RB Christian Okoye as the all-time leading rusher in franchise history vs. Houston (9/26), Holmes' year came to an abrupt halt when he suffered a season-ending knee injury at Tampa Bay (11/7).

A four-game winning streak in December included a wild 49-38 Monday Night Football road triumph at Tennessee (12/13). That late-season surge was sparked by second-year RB Larry Johnson who accounted for 11 TDs and produced three straight 100-yard rushing efforts in the season's final six contests. Offensively, the Chiefs established a league record with 398 first downs. Kansas City also led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 yards per game. That offense was triggered by Green, who set single-season team marks for passing yards (4,591) and 300-yard games (8). The Chiefs were also the first team in NFL history to have three different RBs boast a 150-yard rushing game in the same season – Holmes, Johnson and Derrick Blaylock. Defensively, fourth-round draft choice DE Jared Allen provided a bright spot with 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in team history.

2005 — TE Tony Gonzalez earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth and finished the season with a flourish, setting a single-game franchise record with a 14-catch performance in the regular season finale at San Diego (1/2). Gonzalez led the league in receptions (102), the highest total ever amassed by a member of the Chiefs at the time. Despite Gonzalez's record-setting performance, a 24-17 loss to the Chargers brought a disappointing 7-9 campaign to a close.

A daunting early-season 2005 schedule featured a pair of prime time road contests in the season's first four weeks. Kansas City finished that stretch at 2-2 after claiming a 27-7 home win vs. the N.Y. Jets (9/11) and winning a 23-17 decision at Oakland (9/18). However, the club would suffer a 30-10 loss at Denver (10/26) and was handed a 37-31 loss vs. Philadelphia (10/2) as the Eagles erased an 18-point Chiefs lead.

Hurricane Wilma forced the Chiefs to play their first regular season Friday night game since '64 as a game originally slated for October 23rd was hastily rescheduled. Kansas City actually flew to Miami on the day of the game and defeated the Dolphins by a 30-20 margin. Two weeks later, trailing by three points with only five seconds left and the ball on the one-yard line, Head Coach Dick Vermeil eschewed a potential game-tying FG attempt and went for broke, putting the game in the hands of RB Larry Johnson vs. Oakland (11/6). Johnson burst into the end zone to give the Chiefs a memorable 27-23 win as Kansas City's record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

The Raiders contest marked the initial start of the season for Johnson, who opened the final nine games of the year in place of RB Priest Holmes, who was lost for the year following a head/neck injury at San Diego (10/30). Johnson topped the 100-yard barrier in the season's final nine contests and finished the season with 1,750 rushing yards, a franchise record at the time.

Shields continued his assault on the record book, as well. The club's contest at Buffalo (11/13) marked the 200th consecutive start of Shields' career, making him just the fourth player since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish such a feat. In addition to pushing his string of consecutive starts to 207 games by season's end, he was also rewarded with his 11th consecutive Pro Bowl berth, extending another franchise record.

A three-game late-season winning streak boosted the club's postseason hopes, beginning with a 45-17 win at Houston (11/20). Johnson established a then franchise record of his own with 211 rushing yards against the Texans en route to earning his initial Pro Bowl berth. Kansas City then registered convincing home victories against a pair of playoff-bound teams with wins vs. New England (11/27) and vs. Denver (12/4), putting the club at 8-4 with four games remaining. However, a pair of road losses put the club's postseason hopes in peril. A 20-7 win in a Christmas Eve quagmire vs. San Diego (12/24) meant the club would need a win in its regular season finale and some help in order to qualify for the AFC playoff field.

A FAREWELL TO THE FOUNDER

2006 — After registering a convincing 37-3 win vs. Cincinnati in the club's first-ever regular season New Year's Day contest, the winds of change blew into Kansas City. Head Coach Dick Vermeil publicly announced his retirement following the win over the Bengals, ending season-long speculation about his future. Kansas City finished the season at 10-6, becoming just the fourth team since '90 to miss the postseason with a double-digit victory total.

Vermeil conducted a final farewell press conference on January 3rd. He concluded his five-year run as Kansas City's head coach with a 44-36 (.550) record, giving him the third-highest victory tally in team history at the time. Under his guidance, the Chiefs established 34 single-season team records and 14 single-game team records, leading the NFL in total offense by averaging 380.9 yards per game from 2001-05.

On January 9th, Herm Edwards was appointed the 10th head coach in franchise history. Edwards returned to Kansas City after serving as both a scout and an assistant coach with the Chiefs during the '90s. He rejoined the Chiefs organization after a five-year stint as head coach of the N.Y. Jets, leading that franchise to five postseason game appearances. He initially left the Chiefs to serve with former Kansas City assistant coach Tony Dungy in Tampa Bay, where that duo helped restore the Buccaneers franchise to NFL prominence.

On January 24th, the Chiefs and Royals both signed 25-year leases with Jackson County officials to keep both clubs at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4th, Jackson County voters approved a 3/8 cent tax measure that was anticipated to raise $425 million in improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead while the State of Missouri contributed $37.5 million. Those renovation plans also included a new practice facility and office complex for the Chiefs, thanks to contributions from the Hunt family.

The Edwards era got off to an inauspicious start on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10). QB Trent Green suffered a severe head trauma in the third quarter when he scrambled and went into a hook slide. Bengals DE Robert Geathers delivered a blow to the Chiefs signal caller, whose head violently bounced off the turf. Green lay motionless on the field for several minutes before he was taken to a local hospital. The Chiefs would lose the contest by a 23-10 count.

For the first time since 2000, a quarterback other than Green started a contest for Kansas City as backup QB Damon Huard served as field general the following week at Denver (9/17). Kansas City would drop a tough 9-6 OT decision to the Broncos as the club fell to 0-2.

After an early bye week, Kansas City got its intial victory of the Edwards era in convincing fashion with a 41-0 win at Arrowhead vs. San Francisco (10/1). Huard guided the club to a 23-20 comeback win the following week at Arizona (10/8), but a 45-7 drubbing at Pittsburgh (10/15) left the club's record at 2-3 entering a pivotal two-game homestand.

K Lawrence Tynes drilled a game-winning 53-yard FG to give Kansas City a 30-27 victory vs. San Diego (10/22). That triumph sparked a three-game winning streak to put the club's record at 5-3 at the season's halfway point.

Huard compiled a 5-3 record as a starter in Green's absence, throwing 10 TDs and just one INT over that eight-game span. After several weeks of practice and countless medical tests, Green finally made his return to the lineup in a 17-13 home win vs. Oakland (11/19) in what would be the final game witnessed in person by Founder Lamar Hunt, who was admitted to Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas on November 22nd.

Hunt had long lobbied the NFL for a third game on Thanksgiving and those persistent efforts were rewarded as the fifth-largest paid crowd in Arrowhead history (79,484) packed the stadium for a holiday spectacle. Kansas City won its second contest at Arrowhead in five days as the Chiefs defense turned in a masterful performance in a 19-10 primetime

REMEMBERING OUR FOUNDER

On December 19, 2006 over 2,500 individuals gathered at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri to pay their final respects to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. Pastor Paul Brooks presided over a two-hour service that was attended by the entire Chiefs team and administrative staff, as well as countless dignitaries and fans. Three of the Hunt children – Clark (above), Daniel and Sharron – shared remembrances of their father, while Lamar Hunt Jr. paid a special musical tribute to the patriarch of the Chiefs family. Other eulogists included Carl Peterson, Rev. Emanuel Cleaver, Len Dawson, Bobby Bell, Willie Lanier, Trent Green and head coach Herm Edwards. Four former Chiefs head coaches were also in attendance – Dick Vermeil, Gunther Cunningham, Marty Schottenheimer and Paul Wiggin. A moving video tribute celebrating Hunt's vibrant life was also shown during the ceremony.

win vs. Denver (11/23), a contest that also marked the initial live game telecast by the NFL Network.

Owning a 7-4 record, Kansas City appeared poised to make a serious run at the postseason, but a three-game losing streak that began with an unlikely 31-28 OT loss at Cleveland (12/3) put those hopes in serious jeopardy. The month of December proved particularly gloomy for the Chiefs as the health of the franchise's patriarch steadily declined.

After originally being diagnosed with prostate cancer in '98, Lamar Hunt quietly and bravely underwent many treatments and surgeries in the ensuing years without complaint. On December 13th, he peacefully passed away in Dallas, surrounded by his family. Memorial services celebrating the life of Hunt were conducted on the SMU campus in Dallas on December 16th and at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Mo., on December 19th.

A mourning team would return to the field the following Sunday and capture a 20-9 win at Oakland (12/23) to keep the Chiefs playoff hopes afloat entering the regular season finale vs. Jacksonville (12/31). The Chiefs prevailed by a 35-30 count against the Jaguars as RB Larry Johnson established an NFL record with 416 rushing attempts on the season and broke his own franchise single-season record with 1,789 rushing yards. After Cincinnati and Tennessee lost earlier in the day, the Chiefs officially got their ticket to the postseason punched when San Francisco won an unlikely 26-23 OT decision at Denver (12/31).

2007 — The Chiefs made their first postseason appearance on the road since '94 in an AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/6). Despite enjoying the support of a throng of Kansas City fans who made the trek to the RCA Dome and a valiant first-half performance from the Chiefs defense, Kansas City lost a 23-8 decision.

An artist's rendering for the club's new office complex and practice facility was unveiled in March, while design work and plans for Arrowhead's rehabilitation continued. On June 2nd, the club announced that it was partnering with HBO Sports and NFL Films to produce Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Kansas City Chiefs - a five-hour documentary series. On June 6th, QB Trent Green was traded to Miami. Green concluded his successful six-year run with the franchise owning a then team-record 87.3 passer rating.

The summer months were highlighted by a pair of ground breaking ceremonies at the Truman Sports Complex. A private, staff-only ground breaking session for the Chiefs new office and practice headquarters was conducted by Clark Hunt on July 25th. In addition, the Hunt family, Chiefs officials, Senator Kit Bond, Jackson County Executive Mike Sanders and other county legislators participated in a ground breaking ceremony for the "New Arrowhead" on August 22nd.

On the field, Kansas City overcame an 0-2 start to register a 4-3 record at the bye week, securing sole possession of first place in the AFC West standings. That early-season turnaround was highlighted by a 30-16 comeback win at San Diego (9/30). WR Dwayne Bowe set a Chiefs single-game rookie record with 164 receiving yards in that contest, including a 51-yard TD catch. Bowe would shatter the franchise's single-season rookie receiving records with 70 catches for 995 yards, figures that led all NFL rookies. Meanwhile, TE Tony Gonzalez became the NFL's all-time TD catch leader among tight ends at the time in a 27-20 win vs. Cincinnati (10/14).

However, Kansas City could not maintain any of that positive momentum after the bye week. The downward spiral began when RB Larry Johnson suffered a season-ending right foot injury in a 33-22 loss vs. Green Bay (11/4). That setback began a nine-game losing streak to conclude the regular season. Second-year QB Brodie Croyle supplanted QB Damon Huard in the second half the following week vs. Denver (11/11).

Croyle enjoyed a solid debut in his initial NFL start in the club's next contest at Indianapolis (11/18). That game would mark the final chapter in the illustrious career of RB Priest Holmes, who announced his retirement on November 21st. The all-time leading rusher in franchise history with 6,070 yards made a remarkable comeback after missing almost a season-and-a-half of action. He returned to play four games in 2007, including two starts, before eventually hanging up his cleats for good. DE Jared Allen was a defensive bright spot, leading the league with 15.5 sacks.

After suffering a thumb injury at Detroit (12/23), Croyle returned for the season finale at the N.Y. Jets (12/30) as Kansas City suffered a 13-10 OT setback. Gonzalez recorded his 820th career reception in the game, the most catches of any tight end in NFL history. Gonzalez earned his ninth straight Pro Bowl berth and finished the year with 1,172 receiving yards.

2008 — Head Coach Herm Edwards named Chan Gailey his offensive coordinator on January 16th. CB Emmitt Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 2nd and was officially enshrined in Canton on August 3rd.

Kansas City and Minnesota orchestrated a major trade on April 23rd as the Chiefs sent Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen and a sixth-round pick to the Vikings. In exchange, Kansas City received a first-round selection, two third-round picks and a sixth-round selection. Upon the team's return from training camp in August, the club's football operations moved into the organization's new practice facility. The rest of the franchise's administrative staff completed the move from Arrowhead by season's end.

On the field, the Chiefs owned the dubious distinction of becoming just the fourth team since the AFL-NFL merger to start three different quarterbacks in the season's first three weeks in a non-strike season. TE Tony Gonzalez surpassed TE Shannon Sharpe (10,060) for the most receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history at Carolina (10/5).

After QBs Brodie Croyle and Damon Huard both suffered season-ending injuries vs. Tennessee (10/19), the club eventually turned to QB Tyler Thigpen for good for the season's final nine games. The Coastal Carolina product showed flashes of promise and set a then single-season franchise record for QBs with 386 rushing yards. Thigpen outplayed QB Brett Favre, but the Jets signal-caller rallied his club as the Chiefs dropped a 28-24 decision at the N.Y. Jets (10/26).

That Jets contest marked the first in a series of excruciating losses. Kansas City squandered a 21-point lead in a 30-27 OT loss vs. Tampa Bay (11/2) and lost a 20-19 decision at San Diego (11/9) as a botched PAT and a failed two-point try doomed the club.

Thigpen's lone victory of the season was a 20-13 win at Oakland (11/30), but the losses continued to mount, including a second one-point setback vs. San Diego (12/14) as the Chargers overcame an 18-point deficit, scoring the game's final 19 points.

On December 15th, President/General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson announced his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The Chiefs dropped a 38-31 decision vs. Miami (12/21). Based on wind chill of -12 at kickoff, it was the second-coldest contest in Arrowhead history. A four-game losing streak to end the season closed out with a 16-6 loss at Cincinnati (12/28) as the Chiefs finished the year at 2-14.

A NEW ERA AT ARROWHEAD

2009 — Peterson officially concluded his 20-year tenure with the franchise on January 6th with a farewell press conference. Under Peterson's tenure, Kansas City amassed a 176-143-1 (.552) regular season record, made nine playoff appearances, won the AFC West four times and reached the AFC Championship Game in '93.

On January 13th, longtime New England Patriots executive Scott Pioli was named by Chairman of the Board Clark Hunt as the fifth General Manager in franchise history. During his tenure in New England, the Patriots won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC Champion and won six AFC East titles. During Pioli's time from 2000-08, the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record.

On January 23rd, Herm Edwards was relieved of his duties as head coach. He produced a 15-33 regular season record in three seasons guiding the franchise. The late LB Derrick Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009 on January 31st. Thomas became the 10th member of the Chiefs to be enshrined in Canton. He joined LBs Bobby Bell (Class of '82) and Willie Lanier (Class of '86) as the third linebacker in that esteemed group.

Hunt and Pioli introduced former Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator Todd Haley as the 11th head coach in franchise history on February 6th. He helped the Cardinals reach Super Bowl XLIII, marking the franchise's first NFL title game since '47. The son of longtime NFL personnel executive Dick Haley, the younger Haley oversaw an Arizona offense that registered a franchise-record 427 points in 2008. The first major move of the Chiefs new leadership team came on February 28th when the club acquired QB Matt Cassel and LB Mike Vrabel in a trade with New England.

The club unveiled its 50th anniversary logo on April 14th as the team began a year-long commemoration of the franchise's 50th season, as well as the 50th anniversary of the creation of the American Football League by Lamar Hunt. On April 23rd, the Chiefs traded 10-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez to Atlanta. Gonzalez finished his Chiefs career with the most receptions (916), receiving yards (10,940) and TD catches (76) in franchise history.

On May 8th, Hunt named Denny Thum as the fourth President of the Chiefs. Thum owned the distinction of being one of just three employees in team history to serve the club during the tenure of every head coach in franchise history. On May 21st, Mark Donovan was hired as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer after spending six seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles.

On June 18th, the Chiefs announced the return of training camp to the state of Missouri, beginning in 2010. The Chiefs and Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo., agreed to the university's plans for a training facility including a climate-controlled, 120-yard indoor field, as well as two 120-yard grass fields. The Chiefs officially ended their 19-year training camp tenure at the University of Wisconsin - River Falls, conducting their final practice at that facility on August 20th.

The Chiefs began the regular season on the road at Baltimore (9/13) with QB Brodie Croyle at the helm after QB Matt Cassel was injured vs. Seattle (8/29). Kansas City tied the game at 24-24 with 5:21 left to play in Head Coach Todd Haley's regular season debut, but couldn't pull out the victory.

For the first time since the '62 AFL Championship Game, the club wore its Dallas Texans uniforms in a contest billed as "The Game That Never Was" vs. Dallas (10/11). Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt had longed for a head-to-head duel between his AFL squad and the NFL's Cowboys during their three-year co-existence in Dallas, and that contest finally came to fruition. However, the Cowboys would prevail by a 26-20 margin in OT, sending the Chiefs record to 0-5.

Haley recorded his initial NFL win the following week, as Kansas City produced a 14-6 victory at Washington (10/18). It would be one of three road wins for the Chiefs on the season.

On October 23rd, a major section of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex was designated as "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway" by the Missouri General Assembly and the Missouri Department of Transportation. In October, the club also mourned the death of longtime assistant coach Darvin Wallis, whose 19-year tenure with the Chiefs ranked as the second-longest stint in franchise history, trailing only Tom Pratt (21 years).

The Chiefs improved in 25 different statistical categories during the season's final eight games, including total points, total offense, passing yards per game, rushing yards per game, third-down percentage and sacks allowed. Kansas City began that eight-game stretch with a 16-10 win at Oakland (11/15) as the Chiefs became the first NFL club to register seven straight road wins against the Raiders. The Chiefs followed that up with a thrilling 27-24 OT victory vs. Pittsburgh (11/22) as Haley exacted some retribution against a Steelers squad that defeated his Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

RB Jamaal Charles helped spearhead the Chiefs second-half resurgence. Only Tennessee RB Chris Johnson (1,047) rushed for more yards over the final eight games of the year than Charles (968). Charles finished the season with 1,120 yards on 190 carries, becoming the first player in league annals to top the 1,100-yard plateau on less than 200 carries. He also was the youngest player to ever win the Derrick Thomas Award as the club's MVP.

2010 — The Chiefs saved their best performance of the season for the regular season finale at Denver (1/3). Charles racked up a franchise-record 259 rushing yards, while LB Derrick Johnson became just the third linebacker in NFL history to return two INTs for TDs in a single game. Kansas City registered a 44-24 win, marking the club's first-ever win at INVESCO Field and the most points scored by the Chiefs in Denver since '72.

Despite finishing the year with a 4-12 record, the Chiefs led the NFL in red zone scoring percentage (89.5%) and improved in 30 categories compared to 2008. Only three clubs made more dramatic jumps in the comprehensive special teams rankings compiled by the Dallas Morning News, as the Chiefs went from 29th to 12th.

Haley began reshaping his coaching staff almost immediately after the season. Charlie Weis was named offensive coordinator on January 8th, while Romeo Crennel was hired as defensive coordinator on January 14th. Haley also added a number of coaches with playing experience, including Hall of Fame CB Emmitt Thomas, who returned to the Chiefs as defensive backs coach on February 1st after registering a franchise-record 58 INTs from '66-78.

Commissioner Roger Goodell introduced four-time Pro Bowl G Brian Waters as the winner of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award prior to the kickoff of Super Bowl XLIV on February 6th. Waters became the fifth member of the Chiefs to win that prestigious accolade. Super Bowl IV MVP QB Len Dawson – winner of the '73 Man of the Year Award – was on hand to present the Lombardi Trophy to the victorious New Orleans Saints.

On February 12th, Ann Roach announced her retirement after 44 seasons with the club. The second-longest tenured employee in Chiefs history, Roach served as an assistant to the first 10 head coaches in franchise annals. Roach and longtime Chiefs broadcaster Bill Grigsby were both acknowledged at the 40th annual 101 Awards on March 6th. Grigsby announced his retirement after a distinguished 63-year career in broadcasting.

The National Football League announced on April 20th that Monday Night Football would return to Kansas City on September 13th as the Chiefs officially celebrate the grand opening of the New Arrowhead vs. San Diego.

Chairman Clark Hunt led dozens of media members on an exclusive tour of the New Arrowhead on July 23rd, giving a behind the scenes look at the stadium and all its amenities before the first event was open to the public.

In an event reminiscent of Lamar Hunt's founding of the MLS and the Kansas City Wizards, the Wizards hosted English Premier League powerhouse Manchester United in a friendly match on July 25th, marking the first event held inside the New Arrowhead.

Clark Hunt was joined by the entire Hunt family and NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell on July 30th for the unveiling of Founder's Plaza, an engaging outdoor area that serves as a tribute to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and recognizes his contributions to the founding of the American Football League.

That afternoon, Chiefs Training Camp made it's debut on the campus of Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, marking the first time in 20 years that the Chiefs held their summer practices in the state of Missouri.

Upon returning to the Arrowhead Training Facility, Kansas City held a free night practice on August 25th that was open to the public at Arrowhead Stadium, giving 22,142 Chiefs fans the opportunity to see the newly renovated stadium and watch the team practice before the start of the regular season. In conjunction with the open practice, the Chiefs dedicated the Chiefs Hall of Honor, presented by Time Warner Cable on the Lower Concourse of the stadium.

On September 13th, Kansas City celebrated the grand opening of the New Arrowhead with a 21-14 rain-soaked victory over the AFC West rival San Diego Chargers on ESPN's Monday Night Football. The victory signaled the culmination of the three-year, $375 million renovation project.

Hunt assumed the title of Chairman and CEO of the Kansas City Chiefs on Tuesday, September 14th.

The Chiefs started the season 3-0 for the first time since 2003 on their way to a 10-6 record and the club's first AFC West title since 2003 and first playoff appearance since following the 2006 season. Kansas City registered a 7-1 record at home, restoring the Arrowhead advantage. The Chiefs went 4-0 against the NFC West, the second straight time they've swept that division (2006). WR Dwayne Bowe tallied 15 TD receptions to pace the league in scoring catches. RB Jamaal Charles gained 1,467 yards on 230 carries, finishing second behind Houston RB Arian Foster for the NFL's individual rushing title. LB Tamba Hali led all AFC defenders and was second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks on the season.

2011 — On January 9th, Kansas City hosted it's first NFL playoff game since 2003 when the Chiefs fell to the Baltimore Ravens in a 30-7 final. Six Chiefs players were selected to the 2011 Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii: S Eric Berry, WR Dwayne Bowe, QB Matt Cassel, RB Jamaal Charles, DE Tamba Hali and G Brian Waters, marking the most Pro Bowl performers for the Chiefs since KC sent six players to the NFL's version of the all-star game in 2006.

Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt named Mark Donovan president of the Kansas City Chiefs on January 20th.

Head Coach Todd Haley made two moves related to his coaching staff, naming Bill Muir offensive coordinator/offensive line coach on February 3rd and hiring Jim Zorn as quarterbacks coach on February 15th. Haley garnered two post-season coaching awards for leading the Chiefs to a 10-6 record in only his second year at the helm, earning the NFL Alumni Coach of the Year award and also the AFC Coach of the Year award from the Committee of 101.

The Chiefs were saddened at the loss of a pair of treasured Kansas City icons in 2011 as longtime trumpeter and TD Pack Band leader Tony DiPardo passed away in February at the age of 98. Only a few weeks later, longtime voice of the Chiefs Bill Grigsby passed away at the age of 89. Thousands of Kansas Citians helped celebrate the lives of these two Chiefs legends at open memorial services.

During the offseason, Arrowhead Stadium returned to prominence as a Midwest entertainment destination as country music star Kenny Chesney played the venue as a stop on his 'Goin' Coastal Tour' along with the Zac Brown Band, Billy Currington and Uncle Kracker. Taylor Swift's 'Speak Now Tour' also made a stop at Arrowhead.

For the second year in a row, the Chiefs held training camp at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. After returning to their Kansas City facility for the home portion of training camp, the Chiefs hosted a free practice for fans at Arrowhead Stadium as part of the team's Back to Football Bash.

After dropping three straight contests to open the season, Kansas City rebounded with four straight victories. That stretch of four straight wins included a 28-24 victory at Indianapolis (10/9) in which the Chiefs tied a then club record by overcoming a 17-point defecit and a 28-0 shutout at Oakland (10/23) in which Kansas City recorded six interceptions.

Kansas City appeared in three prime time contests in 2011, including two at Arrowhead Stadium. For the second year in a row, the Chiefs topped AFC West rival San Diego (10/31) at home on ESPN's Monday Night Football, this time, using a 30-yard K Ryan Succop field goal in overtime for the win.

QB Matt Cassel was placed on injured reserve with a hand injury suffered vs. Denver (11/13). Kansas City claimed QB Kyle Orton off waivers from Denver on Nov. 23. Kansas City was one of two teams to have three different starting quarterbacks open an eventual victory in 2011, with Houston being the other team to accomplish that feat.

With a 5-8 record after 13 games, Todd Haley became the second coach in team history to be relieved of his duties during the season. Defensive Coordinator Romeo Crennel assumed the head coaching duties. The Chiefs upset the previously undefeated Green Bay Packers by a 19-14 final at Arrowhead (12/18) in Crennel's first game at the helm.

In the final three contests with Crennel serving as both head coach and defensive coordinator, the Chiefs defense ranked third in the NFL in total yards per game allowed, second in net passing yards per game allowed and second in points per game allowed.

The final game of the 2011 season marked the 227th career game for C Casey Wiegmann and was his 200th career start. Dating back to a contest vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01), Wiegmann had started 175 consecutive games at center and played 11,162 straight offensive snaps, marking the longest streak by any NFL offensive lineman. Dating back to a contest vs. Carolina (11/20/05), RB Thomas Jones had appeared in 102 consecutive games.

2012 — Crennel was named the 12th head coach in franchise history by Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and General Manager Scott Pioli on Jan. 9, 2012.

Although the team finished with a 7-9 record, the Chiefs were one win shy of repeating as the AFC West Division champions and earning an automatic berth in the playoffs.

Crennel started making changes to his coaching staff in the weeks following the regular season. Tom McMahon was named special teams coach on Jan. 30 while Brian Daboll was named offensive coordinator on Feb. 6. On Feb. 14, Nick Sirianni was promoted to wide receivers coach, while Jack Bicknell was named offensive line coach, Jim Bob Cooter was hired as offensive quality control coach and Derius Swinton was named special teams quality control coach. Crennel rounded out his coaching staff by hiring Steven Smith as assistant offensive line coach on March 9.

Former Chiefs T Willie Roaf was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the class of 2012, announced Saturday, Feb. 4, the day before Super Bowl XLVI in Indianapolis.

On April 14, the Kansas City Chiefs announced that every Chiefs Season Ticket Account Holder would receive one personalized Chiefs Nike jersey as a thank you in celebration of the club's 50 years in Kansas City. On May 15, Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt further outlined multiple plans and initiatives to thank Chiefs fans and the Kansas City community for their support through the years in a special press conference at Union Station in downtown Kansas City.

On June 10, Kansas City welcomed back Kenny Chesney to Arrowhead Stadium as a stop in the 'Brothers of the Sun' tour along with Tim McGraw.

For the third consecutive year, the Chiefs returned to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. for training camp.

The Chiefs went 2-14 in 2012, picking up their first win in a 27-24 overtime battle at New Orleans (9/23) with the help of RB Jamaal Charles, who registered a 91-yard rushing touchdown, the longest rush from scrimmage in team history. On Dec. 2, Kansas City picked up its second victory of the season a day after tragedy struck the organization. The Chiefs rallied to beat the Carolina Panthers 27-21 on the shoulders of 127 rushing yards from Charles and two passing touchdowns from QB Brady Quinn.

Despite having struggled in 2012, the Chiefs had six players elected to the play in the annual Pro Bowl in Hawaii. S Eric Berry, RB Jamaal Charles and LBs Tamba Hali and Derek Johnson all earned their second trip, while P Dustin Colquitt and LB Justin Houston earned their first trip to the Pro Bowl.

On Dec. 31, Romeo Crennel was relieved of his head coaching duties.

REID, DORSEY TEAM UP IN KANSAS CITY

2013 — The Kansas City Chiefs and General Manager Scott Pioli parted ways on Jan. 4, 2013. On Jan. 7 Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt introduced Andy Reid as the Chiefs 13th head coach, and one week later on Jan. 14, he named John Dorsey as the team's sixth general manager in franchise history. Soon after Reid arrived in Kansas City, he started assembling his coaching staff, which consisted of several coaches he brought in from his staff in Philadelphia, including former NFL quarterback Doug Pederson as offensive coordinator. Reid named Bob Sutton defensive coordinator and Dave Toub special teams coordinator, and he hired former NFL head coach Brad Childress as a spread game analyst/special projects coach.

Former Chiefs DT Curley Culp was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the class of 2013, announced Saturday, Feb. 2, the day before Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans.

On March 13, the Chiefs announced a trade with the San Francisco 49ers to acquire QB Alex Smith. Kansas City used the first overall pick of the 2013 NFL Draft by selecting T Eric Fisher. Fisher played collegiately at Central Michigan.

During the 2013 offseason, the Chiefs unveiled the Chiefs Kingdom Pass, a personalized experience just for Season Ticket Holders to manage their relationship with the Kansas City Chiefs. There is a website, ChiefsKingdomPass.com, that lets Season Ticket Holders manage their accounts, view exclusive video from Emmy award winning 65 Toss Power Trap Productions and earn and redeem points for unique prizes.

On May 18, the Chiefs hosted the inaugural Chiefs 5K at Arrowhead Stadium featuring a one-of-a-kind finish on the 50yard line. Fans were able to feel the rush of excitement as they ran out of the Chiefs tunnel and onto the field for a dramatic finish in front of a cheering section.

SETTING A GUINNESS WORLD RECORD

On Sunday, Oct. 13, 2013, Chiefs fans inside Arrowhead Stadium set a new Guinness World Record for Loudest Crowd Roar at an Outdoor Sports Stadium. A grassroots initiative led by a group of fans and supported by the Chiefs organization, all Kansas City fans inside Arrowhead rallied around the team as the Chiefs topped AFC West foe Oakland 24-7. The group hit recording a peak decibel reading of 137.5 decibels during a fourth-quarter play that saw LB Derrick Johnson sack Oakland QB Terrelle Pryor with just under one minute left in the game. With Guinness Book of World Records adjudicator Philip Robertson monitoring the sound levels on a specially designed decibel meter, Chiefs fans inside Arrowhead broke the old Guinness World Record of 136.6 set by the fans of the Seattle Seahawks at CenturyLink Field on Sept. 15 in Seattle.

On June 15, Kansas City welcomed Kenny Chesney back to Arrowhead Stadium as a stop in the 'No Shoes Nation' tour along with Eric Church.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Chiefs returned to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. for training camp.

Following training camp in St. Joseph, Head Coach Andy Reid's team shot out of the gate at a blistering pace, winning nine consecutive games to start the 2013 campaign. The nine-game winning streak to open the season tied the club's longest win streak at that time and tied the Chiefs 2003 squad who also opened its campaign 9-0 as the most wins to start a season, at the time.

The Chiefs defense pitched a shutout in the season opener at Jacksonville (9/8) as the Chiefs won 28-2, setting the tone for what would be a dominant defensive performance throughout the first half of the season.

The team debuted in red-on-red uniforms in the home opener against Dallas (9/15) among other new gameday elements, including pyrotechnics for individual player introductions during pregame.

Reid returned to the city and stadium that he called home for the previous 14 years as the Chiefs traveled to Philadelphia (9/19) and earned a 26-16 victory in prime time on Thursday Night Football.

Kansas City hosted a three-game homestand in the month of October, starting with a game against AFC West foe, the Oakland Raiders. In that game, Chiefs fans established a Guinness World Record for the loudest crowd roar at an outdoor stadium, reaching 137.5 decibels and breaking the old record of 136.6 decibels set by Seattle Seahawks fans. Seahawks fans eventually broke the record again at CenturyLink Field on Dec. 2.

With a win at Buffalo (11/3), the Chiefs entered the bye week unbeaten at 9-0 just one year removed from the team's 2-14 record. The seven-game improvement by the bye marked the best single-season turnaround in franchise history.

After a three-game skid marked by a pair of losses to the eventual Super Bowl contending Denver Broncos and a loss to the San Diego Chargers who advanced to the AFC Divisional playoffs, the Chiefs rebounded with statement victories on the road at Washington and in Oakland as the offense turned up the heat in the second half of the season, posting 101 combined points in back-to-back weeks (45 at Washington, 56 at Oakland).

With a fifth seed guaranteed in the AFC playoffs and no chance for improving playoff seeding, Reid rested a number of starters and key players in the season finale at San Diego to give extra rest heading into the postseason. The team, led by QB Chase Daniel, took the San Diego Chargers to overtime in San Diego, but eventually fell short of a victory after a 36-yard K Nick Novak field goal marked the difference in the extra period.

2014 — The Chiefs finished the regular season with an 11-5 record, marking the best finish since the club went 13-3 in 2003. It was the first playoff appearance for the team since the 2010 season, and Andy Reid became just the second coach in franchise history to lead the Chiefs to the playoffs in his first season at the helm, joining Herm Edwards who accomplished the feat in 2006.

In the AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/4), the Chiefs offense picked up where it left off in the second half of the season. With Charles lost to injury on the game's opening drive, Smith put the team on his shoulders, setting a number of franchise postseason records. He finished the game completing 30 of 46 passes for 378 yards with four touchdowns and a 119.7 passer rating. WR Dwayne Bowe hauled in eight passes for 150 yards and a touchdown in the game. In the end, 44 total points was not enough as the Indianapolis Colts overcame a 21-point first-half deficit to win the game 45-44 and advance to the AFC Divisional round at New England.

Following the 11-5 season, the Chiefs sent a total of 10 players to the Pro Bowl in Hawaii, more than any other team in 2013: T Branden Albert, S Eric Berry, RB Jamaal Charles, CB Brandon Flowers, LB Tamba Hali, LB Justin Houston, LB Derrick Johnson, PR Dexter McCluster, DT Dontari Poe and QB Alex Smith.

Charles and Berry were named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press following the season, while DT Dontari Poe, LB Tamba Hali and WR/PR Dexter McCluster were named second-team All-Pro.

Under the direction of Special Teams Coordinator Dave Toub, the team set an NFL record for kickoff return average, posting 29.9 yards per return, leading the league by more than 3.0 yards per return and breaking the old NFL record of 29.4 yards per return set by the 1972 Chicago Bears.

Following their first year leading the club, Reid was named the 2013 AFC Coach of the Year by the 101 Committee and Dorsey was named Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America.

In late July, the Chiefs returned to St. Joseph, Mo., for their fifth straight year of training camp at Missouri Western State University.

SETTING A GUINNESS WORLD RECORD AGAIN

On Monday, Sept. 29, 2014, Kansas City defeated the New England Patriots 41-14, and Chiefs fans set a Guinness World Record for Loudest Crowd Roar at a Sports Stadium (Outdoors). Chiefs fans reached a peak decibel reading of 142.2 as Guinness World Records adjudicator Philip Robertson monitored the sound levels. The mark was set early in the contest while the club was on defense. The Arrowhead Stadium record passed the old record of 137.5 decibels and broke Seattle's record of 136.6.

BE BOLD, BE BRAVE, BE BERRY

Before the Chiefs game at Arizona on Sunday, Dec. 7, 2014, a number of Cardinals players and coaches wore the "Be Bold. Be Brave. Be Berry." T-shirt in support of Chiefs safety Eric Berry, who was put on the non-football illness list after being diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians (below) was one of the many who wore the shirt in support of the Chiefs Pro Bowl safety. In addition, Cardinals president Michael Bidwill made a $10,000 donation

The club opened up the 2014 sesaon 1-2 before hosting New England on Monday Night Football (9/29) to close out the month of September. The team featured its red-on-red uniforms for only the second time in team history. The Chiefs dominated the eventual Super Bowl Champions 41-14 in a game that featured a Guinness World Record for the loudest outdoor stadium, reaching 142.2 decibels and breaking the old record of 137.5 decibels set by Seattle Seahawks fans at CenturyLink Field in 2013. Three touchdowns in the contest from Charles garnered him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors.

Kansas City went into the bye week with a 2-3 record before a victory at San Diego (10/19) in which Charles broke Priest Holmes' franchise career rushing record of 6,070 yards on a 16-yard touchdown run. The win over the Chargers also began a five-game winning streak, culminating with a 24-20 victory at Arrowhead Stadium over the defending Super Bowl Champion Seattle Seahawks to improve to 7-3.

Following the Chiefs Week 12 game at Oakland, Berry was diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's lymphoma and was placed on the NFL list for the remainder of the season in order to begin his treatments. To support Berry's fight, Chiefs teammates designed Be Bold, Be Brave, Be Berry T-shirts for public purchase, with all proceeds going to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. In addition, Chiefs players and other players around the league also supported Berry's battle by wearing the T-shirts during pre-game warm-ups.

Heading into the final game of the regular season against San Diego (12/28), the club still had postseason aspirations. Chiefs starting QB Alex Smith was ruled out prior to the game with a spleen injury, which allowed QB Chase Daniel to start his first game with the club since the season finale in San Diego in 2013. Daniel completed 16-of-27 passes for 157 yards and led the Chiefs to a 19-7 victory to end the regular season. However, a Baltimore victory over Cleveland eliminated the Chiefs from playing in the postseason for the second consecutive season.

Off the field, the Chiefs made headlines when the NFL announced (11/6) that the club was selected to host a regular-season game overseas for the first time in franchise history. The Chiefs would take on the Detroit Lions in London on Nov. 1, 2015. The Week 8 contest was part of the NFL's International Series played at Wembley Stadium, one of three NFL games taking place in the United Kingdom in 2015.

Arrowhead Stadium played host to three college football games in 2014. Langston University took on Lincoln University on Sept. 6, while the NAIA Gridiron Challenge doubleheader (10/11) featured MNU (Kan.) vs. Missouri Valley and Baker University vs. Benedictine.

In the second year of the Reid-Dorsey era, the Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, their second straight winning season. With 11 wins in 2013 and nine wins in 2014, Reid's 20 total wins gave him the most wins by a coach in his first two seasons in team history, passing Marty Schottenheimer's 19-win total in 1989 and 1990. Reid's .625 (20-12) winning percentage also marks the best by a head coach in team history through his first two seasons.

After the season, a total of four Chiefs were voted and participated in the annual Pro Bowl: RB Jamaal Charles, LB Tamba Hali, LB Justin Houston and DT Dontari Poe. All four players made return trips to the NFL's All-Star game after participating in 2013.

LB Justin Houston had one of the best single season performances in team history in 2014. Houston recorded 22.0 sacks, which led the league and also fell one sack short of passing Michael Strahan (22.5 sacks) for the most sacks in a single season in NFL history. The total also surpassed former Chiefs great Derrick Thomas' 20 sacks in 1990, a record that stood for more than 20 years. Houston was named to the 2014 AP All-Pro first team after the season.

The Chiefs went 4-0 against the AFC East in 2014, the third time in the last five years that the Chiefs had swept a division in one season (2010 - NFC West, 2013 - NFC East).

2015 — On Jan. 15, the Board of Governors at Missouri Western State University announced they had approved a contract amendment that will keep the summer training camp of the Kansas City Chiefs at the school in St. Joseph for three more years, through 2017.

It was announced on Jan. 31 that former Chiefs G Will Shields would be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Shields became the 11th longtime member of the Kansas City Chiefs to be enshrined.

On the final day of February, the Committee of 101 hosted the 45th 101 Awards at the Westin Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City. It was announced that former cornerback Gary Green would be the 2015 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Green, who earned All-Pro honors three consecutive years with the club (1981-83), was the 45th player to earn the coveted honor. The Committee also recognized Justin Houston as the winner of the Derrick Thomas Award, given to the team's most valuable player, and De'Anthony Thomas as the winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, granted to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

The Chiefs began free agency on Mar. 11 when they signed WR Jeremy Maclin. The former Eagles wide receiver spent the first four years of his career with Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid in Philadelphia. The Chiefs also signed veteran free agents G Paul Fanaika and S Tyvon Branch and acquired G Ben Grubbs in a trade with New Orleans.

Arrowhead Stadium hosted its first non-Chiefs event in 2015 by holding an international friendly soccer match between Mexico and Paraguay on Mar. 31. Arrowhead Events LLC also hosted three concerts in the summer of 2015: The Rolling Stones – June 27; One Direction – July 28; Kenny Chesney – Aug. 1. The American Royal's World Series of Barbecue also moved to Arrowhead Stadium from Oct. 1-4, making it the biggest barbecue in Kansas City history. On Nov. 14, Arrowhead served as the site for the Missouri-BYU college football game. It was the first Division I college football game at Arrowhead since Missouri defeated Kansas in the Border Showdown in 2011.

The 2015 Chiefs got off to a hot start, winning all four of its preseason games for the first time since the four-game preseason schedule was installed in 1978. It was also first time the club went undefeated in the preseason since 1969, when the team went 6-0 en route to winning Super Bowl IV.

After opening the season with a 27-20 victory in Houston (9/13), which saw rookie CB Marcus Peters record an interception on the very first pass and very first play he saw in his NFL career, the Chiefs and the NFL community received an enormous boost on Thursday Night Football when Berry made his Arrowhead Stadium return vs. Denver (9/17) for the first time since being diagnosed with Hodgkin's Lymphoma during the previous season. Additionally,Peters returned Denver QB Peyton Manning interception 55 yards for a touchdown, marking his second interception in as many weeks in his rookie season. However, the contest against the Broncos was the first in a five-game losing streak for the Chiefs - with four of Kansas City's opponents advancing to the postseason.

Kansas City turned its season around against Pittsburgh (10/25) at Arrowhead, with the help of RB Charcandrick West, who was filling in for Jamaal Charles, who was lost for the season with a torn ACL, who rushed for 110 yards and a touchdown on the afternoon. The victory against the Steelers would turn out to be the beginning of a franchise-record 10-game single season winning streak for the Chiefs.

The Chiefs victory over the Steelers was followed up by a trip across the pond to face the Lions (11/1) at London's Wembley Stadium. Kansas City's 45-10 victory tied an International Series record for most points scored by one team. Following the bye week, Kansas City traveled to Denver (11/15) to face the Broncos, where they would secure the team's first victory in Denver since the final week of the 2011-12 season. Peters continued his stellar rookie campaign, picking off Manning's first attempt of the game. The lone bright spot for the Broncos came in the first quarter when Manning broke the NFL's record for career passing yards. Following the stoppage of play, Chiefs defenders intercepted Manning and backup quarterback Brock Osweiler four more times in the game, including an interception by Berry, adding another great note to his already storybook return from Hodgkin's Lymphoma.

Kansas City's defeat of Denver was the third of 10-consecutive wins that would turn the season around after a rocky start. The 10-straight victories also set a franchise record for most victories to end a season, surpassing the previous mark of six, set in 1997. The streak helped the Chiefs finish 11-5 and earn a spot in the playoffs for the second time under Reid.

The Chiefs regular season saw players set numerous team and NFL records. Smith threw 312 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, the second-longest streak in NFL history at the time. In a Week 3 matchup at Green Bay, Johnson broke Gary Spani's team record for most career tackles. Newcomer Jeremy Maclin set the then Chiefs single-season record for most receptions by a wide receiver with 87 and rookie Peters set numerous records, including most interceptions by a rookie in a season (eight) and most passes defensed (26). His two interception returns for touchdowns tied a Chiefs rookie record and his 280 INT return yards were the most in franchise history and the ninth-most in NFL history. Additionally, Peters became the 14th rookie in club history to start all 16 games.

2016 — The Chiefs returned to Houston where they faced the Texans (1/9) in the first round of the AFC playoffs. The game got off to a blistering start when RB Knile Davis ran the opening kickoff back 106 yards for a touchdown. The 106-yard return was the longest in AFC Wild Card postseason history and the second-longest in NFL postseason history. Kansas City's defense forced five Houston turnovers in the game, en route to a 30-0 victory. Not only was it the first postseason victory by the Chiefs since 1994, it was the first shutout in the franchise's postseason history.

Kansas City then traveled to New England (1/16), where it fell to the Patriots 27-20, ending the most successful season in the Reid-Dorsey era in Kansas City.

Following the season, the Chiefs had six players - S Eric Berry, LB Tamba Hali, LB Justin Houston, LB Derrick Johnson, TE Travis Kelce and CB Marcus Peters - in addition to the entire coaching staff, participate in the Pro Bowl. The team also saw two of its defenders take home postseason honors, with Marcus Peters taking home the AP's Defensive Rookie of the Year Award, as well as Eric Berry's courageous season and story being acknowledged with the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year award.

On March 5th, the Committee of 101 hosted the 46th 101 Awards at the Westin Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City. It was announced that former fullback Tony Richardson would be the 2016 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Richardson, spent 11 years on Kansas City's roster and rushed for 1,576 yards and recorded 1,298 receiving yards and tallied 24 total touchdowns during his tenure. The Committee also recognized S Eric Berry and QB Alex Smith as the first co-winners of the Derrick Thomas Award, given to the team's most valuable player, and CB Marcus Peters as the winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, granted to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

In the offseason the Chiefs continued to improve the team by resigning their own players, including TE Travis Kelce, T Eric Fisher, RB Spencer Ware and RB Charcandrick West. The Chiefs also signed veteran T Mitchell Schwartz to anchor the right side of the offensive line.

Arrowhead Events LLC also hosted two concerts in the summer of 2016: Guns and Roses – July 29; Kenny Chesney – July 16.

After a 2-2 preseason record, the Chiefs openend their season at home with an overtime victory vs. the San Diego Chargers (9/11). After trailing 21-3 at halftime, the Chiefs stormed back scoring 17 points in the fourth quarter capped by a five yard touchdown run by RB Spencer Ware with 1:11 left on the clock to tie the game at 27. The Chiefs forced overtime, took the ball and on a 3rd-and-2, Smith ran the ball two yards up the middle to win the game 33-27. In Week Two the Chiefs fell to Houston (9/18), but rebound in a big way Week Three vs. the Jets (9/25). The Chiefs intercpeted six passes from QB Ryan Fitzpatrick en route to a 24-3 victory as Peters (2), Berry, Johnson, S Daniel Sorensen and CB D.J. White tallied picks. After losing to Pittsburgh in week four (9/10), Kansas City went into the bye week 2-2 before winning their next 10 of 12 games. Along the way, the Chiefs beat the defending NFC Champion Carolina Panthers (11/13) on a game-winning field goal by K Cairo Santos. Santos' heroics were set up by a forced fumble by Peters after stripping WR Kelvin Benjamin with 29 seconds remaining. In Week 12 , the Chiefs beat the defending Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos (11/27). K Cairo Santos again connected on an overtime game-winning field goal off the crossbar with five seconds left to win in dramatic fashion.

2017 — The Chiefs began the year and closed the season with a chance to capture their first AFC West division title since 2010 with a win against the San Diego Chargers (1/1). In the third quarter, WR Tyreek Hill put the game out of reach by returning a P Drew Kaser punt 95 yards for a touchdown. With the Week 17 win, the Chiefs finished with a 12-4 record, going 6-0 vs. divisional opponents and earned a first round bye in the playoffs.

For the second straight year, earning the Chiefs competed in the AFC Divisional round of the playoffs, this time, hosting the Pittsburgh Steelers at Arrowhead Stadium (1/15). The Chiefs and Steelers battled, trading points throughout the game, but ultimately the Chiefs fell, 18-16.

Following the season, the Chiefs had seven players - P Dustin Colquitt, S Eric Berry, TE Travis Kelce, WR Tyreek Hill, LB DJ Alexander, QB Alex Smith and CB Marcus Peters - in addition to the entire coaching staff, selected to participate in the Pro Bowl.

On February 26th, the Committee of 101 hosted the 47th 101 Awards at the Westin Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City. It was announced that former wide reciever Carlos Carson would be the 2017 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Carson spent 10 years on Kansas City's roster recording 6,360 receiving yards, 352 career receptions and 33 total touchdowns during his tenure. The Chiefs also recognized S Eric Berry as the winner of the Derrick Thomas Award, given to the team's most valuable player, and WR Tyreek Hill as the winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, granted to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

In the offseason, the Chiefs continued to improve the team by resigning their own veteran players such as Berry, S Daniel Sorensen and G Laurent Duvernay-Tardif, while adding free agents RB CJ Spiller and DL Bennie Logan.

On June 22, 2017, the Chiefs agreed to part ways with General Manager John Dorsey. On July 10, 2017, the Chiefs hired General Manager Brett Veach, becoming the seventh General Manager in franchise history.

At the end of July, the Chiefs attended training camp at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph for the eighth year in a row.

U2 was hosted by Arrowhead Events LLC, performing at Arrowhead Stadium on September 12.

After going .500 in the preseason, the club opened its season against the defending Super Bowl champions, New England Patriots, in the opening game of the NFL season (9/7). Rookie RB Kareem Hunt scored three touchdowns (two receiving, one rushing) as the Chiefs defeated the Patriots 42-27. This sparked a 5-0 start to the season behind the leagues No. 1 offense in points scored.

Kansas City entered its bye week in Week 9 at 6-3. After close losses to the Giants (11/9), Bills (11/26) and Jets (12/3), the club hosted Oakland in a crucial divisional match up (12/10). The Chiefs scored 26 unaswered points with rushing touchdowns from running backs Kareem Hunt and Charcandrick West and four field goals from K Harrison Butker. Kansas City defeated Oakland 26-15 and carried that momentum with a 30-13 victory over the Chargers the following week. Going into Week 16 against Miami, the Chiefs needed one win to clinch the AFC West. QB Alex Smith threw for over 300 yards for the fifth time and the defense forced two fumbles on the way to a 29-13 victory and a second-straight AFC West title. In the final game of the regular season, Kansas City rested several players, which allowed players like rookie QB Patrick Mahomes to see the field. The rookies shined against Denver, as Mahomes threw for 284 yards, Hunt clinched the league rushing title and Butker hit the game-winning field goal as time expired.

Several Chiefs players stood out during the season, including QB Alex Smith who led the league in passer rating with 104.7, rookie RB Kareem Hunt led the league in rushing with 1,327 yards and rookie K Harrison Butker led the team in scoring with 142 points.

2018 — Kansas City hosted the Tennessee Titans in the Wild Card round of the playoffs (1/7). After a hard-fought game, the Chiefs lost in a close contest, 22-21.

At the end of the season, three Chiefs players were selected to the Pro Bowl: QB Alex Smith, RB Kareem Hunt and WR/KR Tyreek Hill.

On February 24th, the Committee of 101 hosted the 48th 101 Awards at the Westin Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City. It was announced that former TE Tony Gonzalez would be the 2018 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Gonzalez spent 12 years on Kansas City's roster recording 10,940 receiving yards, 916 career receptions and 76 total touchdowns during his tenure. The Chiefs also recognized QB Alex Smith as the winner of the Derrick Thomas Award, given to the team's most valuable player, and RB Kareem Hunt as the winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, granted to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

The club started its offseason fast, signing WR Sammy Watkins and LB Anthony Hitchens on the first day of free agency. QB Alex Smith was traded to Washington for CB Kendall Fuller and a 2018 third-round draft pick. CB Marcus Peters and a 2018 sixth-round pick were also moved to the Los Angeles Rams for 2018 fourth-round and 2019 second-round draft picks.

The Chiefs began the year with victories in each of their first five matchups on the season slate, starting with a 38-28 victory in Los Angeles over the AFC West Division-rival Chargers (9/9). The win marked the ninth-consecutive victory over the Chargers, as Hill ignited the scoring output with his fourth career punt return TD after the defense forced a Chargers three-and-out to start the contest. Hill continued his contributions on the offensive end, accounting for two of Mahomes' four passing TDs on the day.

Taking the show on the road in Week 2, Kansas City traveled to Pittsburgh to battle the Steelers in the team's first road contest of the season (9/16). Capitalizing off of his Week 1 offensive output, Mahomes threw for a franchise-tying record six TDs in a 42-37 win in the Steel City. Mahomes connected with five different pass-catchers to accumulate the half-dozen passing scores, calculating a career-high 154.8 passer rating on 23 completions for 326 yards and zero INTs. With 10 passing scores within the team's first two games of the season, Mahomes broke and re-set the club record to commence his sophomore season.

Over the subsequent three weeks, Kansas City advanced to a 5-0 record through the first five weeks of the 2018 season, including a three passing TD performance by Mahomes in Week 3 vs. San Francisco and the Chiefs defense accumulating a four INT outing in a Week 5 win against the Jaguars (10/7) at Arrowhead Stadium.

The Chiefs traveled to Foxborough, Mass. in Week 6 to take on the New England Patriots (10/14). On Sunday Night Football, Kansas City suffered its first loss of the 2018 by a 43-40 final. The offense's 40-point outburst helped break the franchise record for total points scored (215) through the first six games of a single season. Mahomes threw for four TDs in the contest and logged his fifth consecutive 300-plus passing yard output, the latter of which set another franchise record at the time.

The Chiefs rebounded by ripping off four wins in a row from Weeks 7-10, accumulating a win at home over the AFC West Division-rival Denver Broncos and two 35-plus point offensive performances against a pair of AFC North foes in Cincinnati and Cleveland.

The Week 7 win over the Bengals on Sunday Night Football marked Head Coach Andy Reid's 200th career victory, becoming only one of two active coaches in the NFL (Bill Belichick) to have hit the 200-win threshold.

Mahomes' two passing TDs in the Week 10 victory over Arizona (11/11) set the franchise record for passing TDs in a single season, as the quarterback's first full season at the helm broke Pro Football HOF QB Len Dawson's record of 30 passing TDs set in 1964.

The Week 11 matchup pitted the 9-1 Kansas City Chiefs against the 9-1 Los Angeles Rams (11/19). The setting for the Monday Night Football contest was moved to the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum from Estadio Azteca in Mexico City, Mexico. The two offensive juggernauts combined to score 105 total points, a Monday Night Football record, with the Rams taking the de facto home victory, 54-51. QB Patrick Mahomes tied his own career and franchise-tying record by tossing for six scores, adding a career-high 478 passing yards for a 117.6 passer rating.

Kansas City returned to the field in Week 13 following a Week 12 bye week and avenged the Week 11 loss to the Rams by posting 40 points on the scoreboard and defeating the division-rival Oakland Raiders (12/2). The Chiefs offense rode on the shoulders of Mahomes' four passing TDs and 295 passing yards, which helped Mahomes become the fastest QB (13 games) in NFL history to eclipse 4,000 passing yards.

Returning to Arrowhead Stadium in Week 14 (12/9) to take on the eventual AFC North Division champion Baltimore Ravens, the Chiefs used a K Harrison Butker 35-yard game-winning FG to gain an overtime win over the visitor to secure the ninth home victory in a row for the Chiefs and Reid, dating back to 2017.

The following week, a quick turnaround at Arrowhead Stadium for a Thursday Night Football showdown ensued for the hosting of AFC West foe, the Los Angeles Chargers (12/13). Though Kansas City put 28 total points on the scoreboard and set the then franchise record for most points scored in a single season (499), Los Angeles rallied from seven points down on the final drive of the fourth quarter to score a TD with 13 seconds remaining in regulation. With a share of the lead in the AFC West on the line, the Chargers attempted and successfully converted a two-point conversion to claim victory over the Chiefs for the first time since 2013.

Week 16 subsequently presented the final road game of the 2018 regular season slate for Kansas City, traveling to Seattle to battle the Seahawks on Sunday Night Football (12/23). Down seven points entering the final quarter of play, the Chiefs and Mahomes accounted for 14 fourth-quarter points behind a TD pass to WR Demarcus Robinson, a successful two-point conversion rush for Mahomes and a pair of FGs by K Harrison Butker. But, being matched by Seattle's 14 fourth-quarter points, the Seahawks topped the Chiefs, 38-31, to grant Kansas City their fourth loss of the season. On the defensive side for Kansas City, DT Chris Jones logged 1.5 sacks to set the NFL record for most consecutive games with at least one sack (11 games).

In the regular season finale at home against the Oakland Raiders (12/30), the Chiefs put together a combined effort to defeat the divisional foe, 35-3, en route to winning the AFC West Division for the third consecutive season. With the win, the Chiefs also secured the top-seed in the AFC earning a first-round playoff bye and home field advantage throughout the postseason.

With the outing in Week 17, Mahomes totaled 50 passing TDs and 5,000-plus passing yards for the first time in franchise history. The achievement was also accomplished for just the second time in NFL history (Peyton Manning, 2013). The offense totaled 565 points over the length of the regular season, ranking third in NFL history in total scoring output.

Tied along with Mahomes' passing spree, several Chiefs benefitted on the receiving end. Kelce set the then franchise record with 103 receptions, accumulating a career-high 1,336 receiving yards, as Hill set the current franchise record with 1,479 receiving yards. The trio of Mahomes, Hill and Kelce all earned first-team All-Pro honors following the regular season.

2019 — In the AFC Divisional round of the NFL Playoffs, the Indianapolis Colts rode into a snowy Arrowhead Stadium for a Saturday afternoon contest (1/12). Behind an impressive showing by the Chiefs' rushing offense, Kansas City put in four scores on the ground and added a Butker FG, while the defense held the visiting Colts to 13 total points, to claim the first home playoff victory at Arrowhead Stadium since 1994 and advance to the AFC Championship game for the first time in 25 years.

The Kansas City Chiefs and Arrowhead Stadium hosted the New England Patriots the following week (1/20) for the first AFC Championship at Arrowhead Stadium in franchise history. Following a 14-0 halftime deficit, the Chiefs rallied to score 31 second-half points behind a three-TD performance by RB Damien Williams. QB Patrick Mahomes threw for three TDs in the second half to help the scoring output, as the 31-31 draw took the contest into overtime. The Patriots won the coin toss, orchestrated an offensive drive and scored a rushing TD on the opening possession to defeat the Chiefs and advance to Super Bowl LIII.

Following the loss in the AFC Championship Game, six Chiefs players participated in the 2019 Pro Bowl the following week. Mahomes was named 2019 Pro Bowl MVP following the AFC's victory over the NFC. One week later at NFL Honors, Mahomes was presented with the AP NFL MVP Award and it was announced that Chiefs Hall of Famers S Johnny Robinson and TE Tony Gonzalez would be inducted into the 2019 Class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August. Prior to the 2019 NFL Draft, it was announced that Mahomes would appear on the cover of EA Sports' Madden NFL 20, and in July, Mahomes was awarded the ESPY for Best NFL Player.

As an organization, the Kansas City Chiefs bolstered their roster with a pair of significant acquisitions on the defensive side of the football. Former first-team All-Pro S Tyrann Mathieu signed with the club in the early phases of unrestricted free agency, and former Seattle Seahawks DE Frank Clark was acquired by the Chiefs via a trade that sent Kansas City's first-round draft pick to the Seahawks prior to the annual NFL Draft.

The Chiefs marked a decade of training camp at Missouri Western State University with record crowds flocking to see the team train in St. Joseph.

The 2019 campaign marked the franchise's 60th season, and the 57th in Kansas City. The 60th theme was celebrated throughout the offseason, training camp and throughout the season as the club honored its rich tradition and history. The season began with four consecutive wins, including three victories coming on the road.

Week 2 marked the franchise's last scheduled game against the Raiders (9/15) in the Oakland Coliseum as the AFC rival prepared for it's move to Las Vegas in 2020. It also marked the NFL's last game to feature a dirt infield as part of the playing surface for a football game.

The Week 3 home opener against the Baltimore Ravens (9/22) featured gold end zones and throwback field markings for the club's 60th season, an homage to the club's original Kansas City home, Municipal Stadium.

The club won a tightly-contested game in Detroit (9/29) before dropping two-consecutive home games to AFC South teams, the Indianapolis Colts (10/6) and the Houston Texans (10/13).

Kansas City went to Denver for a Thursday Night Football matchup with the Denver Broncos (10/17) and saw Mahomes go down with a dislocated kneecap that kept him out for the remainder of the game. QB Matt Moore saw his first meaningful snaps with the club, helping lead the team to a 30-6 win over the Broncos. The win marked Head Coach Andy Reid's 200th career regular season win, making him just the eighth coach in NFL history to accumulate at least 200 career victories.

Moore got his first of two starts in a Chiefs uniform in Week 8 (10/27) against the Green Bay Packers on Sunday Night Football as Mahomes was sidelined with the knee injury. Despite being tied 24-24 in the fourth quarter, the Chiefs could not hold off the eventual NFC runner-up Packers, falling 31-24.

Moore again started in place of the recovering Mahomes in Week 9 (11/3) as the Chiefs hosted the Minnesota Vikings. Williams scored a 91-yard rushing touchdown, tying Jamaal Charles for the franchise record longest-run from scrimmage. Butker converted four field goals on the day, including what tied a then career-long 54-yard field goal with less than three minutes left on the clock to tie the game at 23-23. After a quick defensive stop, Moore led the Chiefs down the field, with Butker converting a 44-yard game-winning field goal as time expired to secure the 26-23 victory. During the game, the team's helmets featured gray facemasks as a nod to the design of the helmet during the club's Super Bowl IV win against Minnesota following the 1969 season.

Mahomes returned to the field in Week 10 at the Tennessee Titans (11/10), but despite throwing for three touchdowns and the then second-highest yardage output of his career, the Chiefs surrendered a nine-point fourth-quarter lead and had a potential game-tying 52-yard field goal blocked to fall to the Titans 35-32, pushing the team's record to 6-4.

After seeing its scheduled Mexico City game vs. the Rams in 2018 get moved to Los Angeles (11/18), the Chiefs headed to Estadio Azteca in Mexico's capital city for a Week 11 divisional matchup against the Los Angeles Chargers on Monday Night Football. Behind a four-interception performance from the Chiefs defense, the club returned to the United States with a 7-4 record heading into the bye weekend.

Following the bye, the club secured a 40-9 win in the final contest against the Oakland Raiders in Week 13 (12/1), committing zero penalties in a game for just the third time in franchise history.

After falling to the New England Patriots in both the regular season and in the AFC Championship Game in 2018, the 2019 Chiefs traveled to Foxborough for a Week 14 (12/8) revenge game against the Patriots. The game had historical significance for the two head coaches as Head Coach Andy Reid (203) and Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick (271) had at that point combined for 474 career regular season victories, marking the second-most combined regular season wins between two head coaches in NFL history. Their 474 combined wins trailed only Don Shula (251) and Tom Landry (245) who combined for 496 regular season wins when the Dolphins and Cowboys met on November 22, 1987. Behind three Butker field goals, a trio of sacks against QB Tom Brady and Kelce's first-career touchdown run, the Chiefs escaped with a 23-16 win, snapping a 21-game Patriots winning streak at Gillette Stadium that stretched over the regular season and the postseason.

The Chiefs returned to a snowy Arrowhead for a 23-3 victory over the Denver Broncos in Week 15 (12/15), moving the Chiefs to 10-4 on the season. It marked the fifth-consecutive season under Reid that the club accumulated double-digit wins, passing the previous club record of four-straight 10-win seasons from 1990-93 under Chiefs Hall of Fame Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer. In the win, TE Travis Kelce became the first tight end in NFL history to record 1,000+ receiving yards in four consecutive seasons. He also joined PFHOF TE Tony Gonzalez, TE Jason Witten and TE Rob Gronkowski for the most career 1,000-yard seasons by a tight end in league annals.

The Chiefs claimed veteran DE Terrell Suggs off waivers from the Arizona Cardinals, bringing in additional veteran leadership and a championship resume for the final weeks of the season. The move shored up a defensive line position that had seen two regular contributors - Alex Okafor and Emmanuel Ogbah - suffer season-ending injuries.

The club's Week 16 (12/22) matchup pitted Head Coach Andy Reid vs. one of his pupils, Chicago Bears Head Coach Matt Nagy, who spent five seasons on the Chiefs coaching staff under Reid, including two years as Offensive Coordinator. The club left the Windy City with a 26-3 win, extending its winning streak to five games. It marked the seventh-consecutive year that the club had a minimum of a five-game winning streak under Head Coach Andy Reid. It was also the seventh road win of the season for the Chiefs, a total that hadn't been reached since a 7-0 road record during the 1966 AFL campaign.

Kansas City wrapped the season with a 31-21 Week 17 (12/29)win against the Los Angeles Chargers at Arrowhead, giving the club a 6-0 record against AFC West foes for the second time under Reid (2016). RB Damien Williams added an 84-yard touchdown run, while rookie WR Mecole Hardman returned a kickoff 104 yards for a touchdown, the third-longest kick return score in franchise history. A Chiefs win, paired with a Miami Dolphins win over the New England Patriots secured the No. 2 seed and a first-round bye for the Chiefs in the playoffs.

LAMAR HUNT TROPHY COMES HOME

Norma Hunt, late wife of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, kisses the Lamar Hunt Trophy on stage following the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium as Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt looks on. Since the trophy for the AFC champions was renamed 2020 — In the AFC Divisional round of the playoffs against the Houston Texans (1/12), the Chiefs overcame a 24-point deficit to earn a 51-31 victory, setting numerous franchise records and tying for the fourth-largest comeback in NFL postseason history at the time. QB Patrick Mahomes threw five touchdown passes, tying for the fourth-most scoring throws in a postseason game in NFL history at the time. Both Kelce and Williams found the end zone three times in the game. DE Clark recorded 3.0 sacks and the Chiefs defense tallied 5.0 total sacks. Sorensen was responsible for two momentum-altering plays in the game's second quarter, stopping a fake punt attempt on 4th-and-4, and forcing a fumble on Houston's next kickoff return, with both plays resulting in Kansas City touchdowns.

For the second-consecutive season, the club played for the Lamar Hunt Trophy in Kansas City, hosting the Tennessee Titans in the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium (1/19). The five degree wind chill at kickoff tied for the sixth-coldest game at Arrowhead since 1994. After falling behind 10-0 early, the Chiefs overcame two separate 10-point first-half deficits behind two Mahomes touchdown passes to WR Tyreek Hill, as well as a 27-yard touchdown run by the quarterback, giving the Chiefs a 21-17 halftime advantage. A three-yard touchdown rush by RB Damien Williams and a 60-yard touchdown reception by WR Sammy Watkins put the game out of reach, giving the Chiefs a 35-24 victory. The Hunt family raised the Lamar Hunt Trophy as AFC Champions for the first time in franchise history, doing so in front of Chiefs Kingdom inside Arrowhead Stadium.

Six Chiefs players were named to the AFC Pro Bowl roster, but could not attend due to Super Bowl LIV. Clark, DT Chris Jones and rookie KR Mecole Hardman each earned their first Pro Bowl nods, while Mahomes earned his second Pro Bowl appearance. Hill was named to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time and Kelce was selected for the fifth time.

When the club got to Miami, Florida, to prepare for Super Bowl LIV against the NFC champion San Francisco 49ers, the team practiced at The Baptist Health Training Facility in Davie, Florida, the practice facility for the Miami Dolphins. As the home team, the Chiefs wore their traditional red tops with white pants, and like had been the case in the home opener and the club's two postseason contests at Arrowhead, the team's end zone in Super Bowl LIV was painted gold to honor the club's 60th season.

LOMBARDI TROPHY IS KANSAS CITY'S AGAIN

Kansas City jumped out to a 10-3 lead in the second quarter of Super Bowl LIV against the 49ers on Sunday, Feb. 2, but the teams went into halftime tied at 10. San Francisco scored 10 third-quarter points, taking a 20-10 lead into the fourth quarter. Facing 3rd-and-15 with approximately seven minutes left in the game, Mahomes found Hill for a 44-yard reception, shifting the game's momentum and setting up an eventual one-yard touchdown pass to Kelce with just over six minutes left in the game.

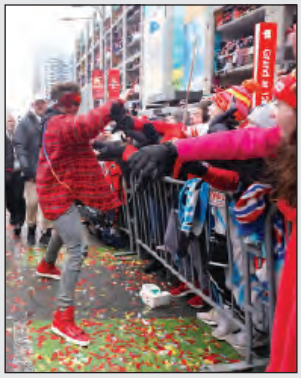

Kansas City's defense forced a three-and-out, and took a 24-20 lead on a five-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to Williams. On the following defensive series, Clark sacked 49ers QB Jimmy Garoppolo on 4th-and-10 to give Kansas City the ball back with less than two minutes to play. Williams broke a 38-yard touchdown run to give the Chiefs 21-unanswered points and a 31-20 lead, while DB Kendall Fuller clinched the game with an interception, allowing the Chiefs to run out the clock for the club's second Super Bowl championship, and first since the 1969 season.

QB Patrick Mahomes earned the Pete Rozelle Trophy after being named the game's MVP on 26 of 42 passing for 286 yards with two passing touchdowns to go along with a rushing touchdown. Mahomes became the youngest quarterback and third-youngest player to win the Super Bowl MVP award. The 10-point comeback tied for the second-largest comeback in Super Bowl history, while the Chiefs became the first team to record three comebacks of at least 10 points in a single postseason in NFL history.

It marked the first Super Bowl victory as a head coach for Andy Reid, whose Eagles played in Super Bowl XXXIX following the 2004 season during his tenure in Philadelphia. As an assistant coach, Reid appeared in two Super Bowls with Green Bay following the 1996 and 1997 seasons, earning an NFL championship with the Packers in Super Bowl XXXI following the 1996 season.

KC TURNS RED FOR PARADE AND RALLY

On Wednesday, Feb. 5, Kansas Citians and Chiefs fans from all over lined Grand Boulevard in downtown Kansas City and packed together in front of Union Station for the Chiefs Kingdom Champions Parade and Rally as the entire team and city celebrated the club's first championship in 50 years. At right, QB Patrick Mahomes celebrates with fans along the parade route, as well as the view of Chiefs fans in front of Union Station and on the north lawn at Liberty Memorial at the National World War I Museum.

The club's Super Bowl celebration tour was short-lived as the global coronavirus pandemic halted traditional offseason activities and moved OTAs and the 2020 NFL offseason to virtual platforms.

The club retained a number of regular contributors in free agency, including FB Anthony Sherman, WR Demarcus Robinson, DT Mike Pennel, CB Bashaud Breeland and back-up QB Chad Henne, while also signing a few veteran players for depth, such as OL Mike Remmers and TE Ricky Seals-Jones.

Due to NFL policy during COVID-19, the club was unable to host training camp at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, instead holding camp practices at The University of Kansas Health System Training Complex and Arrowhead Stadium.

There were no preseason games in the 2020 NFL season due to the pandemic, but the Chiefs held two Season Ticket Member Days at Arrowhead during training camp with capacities of 2,000 and 5,000 fans.

Before the start of the season, the Chiefs agreed to notable contract extensions with three key members of the Super Bowl LIV championship team: Patrick Mahomes, Chris Jones and Travis Kelce.

On Sept. 1, players, coaches and staff received their Super Bowl rings at a ceremony held inside Arrowhead Stadium.

The Chiefs opened the 2020 season at Arrowhead Stadium against the Houston Texans, a rematch of the AFC Divisional round game the previous season, in the NFL Kickoff game on Thursday, Sept. 10. A new array of stadium health and safety policies were implemented in response to the ongoing global pandemic and stadium capacity was limited to approximately 22 percent for all Chiefs home games for the entirety of the 2020 season. Before the game, the Chiefs celebrated the franchise's second Super Bowl title with a short on-field ceremony that concluded with the unveiling of a new championship banner inside the stadium.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS BANNER REVEALED

The Chiefs picked up where they left off the previous season and defeated the Texans, 34-20, behind 138 rushing yards and a score from rookie RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire in his first career game in a Chiefs uniform.

The Chiefs won the subsequent three games, becoming the first team in NFL history with four-consecutive seasons starting 4-0. Their victory against the Patriots in Week 4 (10/5) also marked the club's 13th-consecutive win (regular and postseason), the most consecutive wins in franchise history.

Kansas City suffered its first loss of the season in Week 5 (10/11) against the Raiders, 40-32, in a hard-fought contest that came down to the wire.

The club rebounded with four-consecutive victories to head into the Week 10 bye with a record of 9-1. During that span, the Chiefs made a splash by signing two-time first-team All-Pro RB Le'Veon Bell to a one-year contract on Oct. 17. Bell played his first game as a Chief in Week 7 (10/25) against the Broncos, recording six carries for 39 yards.

For the first time ever, Arrowhead Stadium was also used as a polling location for the 2020 General Election on Nov. 3, successfully providing another site for residents of Jackson County to exercise their right to vote.

The Chiefs kept on rolling after the bye, winning their next six games in a row. Their 10-game win streak tied for the longest such streak in a single regular season in franchise history.

Most notably during that stretch, the Chiefs defeated the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Week 12 (11/29) on the road behind historic performances from Mahomes and Hill. Hill tallied a single-game career-high 269 receiving yards on a career-high 13 receptions (20.7 avg.) with three touchdowns in the game. His 269 receiving yards are the second-most in a single-game in franchise history, trailing only WR Stephone Paige (309). Hill recorded 203 receiving yards in the first quarter of the game, becoming the third player since 1980 with at least 200 receiving yards in a single quarter, joining Qadry Ismail (210, 3rd quarter, Dec. 12, 1999) and Lee Evans (205, 1st quarter, Nov. 19, 2006). Mahomes' 462 passing yards in the game are the second-most single-game passing yards in his career and the fourth-most single-game passing yards in franchise history. His 359 first-half yards are the most by any quarterback in the first half of a regular season game since at least 1991.

Against another formidable NFC South opponent, the Chiefs battled to a 32-29 victory on the road in a showdown with the New Orleans Saints in Week 15 (12/20) to cap off the first perfect 8-0 road record in club history. Edwards-Helaire suffered a high ankle sprain in the contest which would keep him sidelined through the Divisional round (12/27) of the playoffs.

With a victory in Week 16 against the Atlanta Falcons, the Chiefs clinched the No. 1 seed in the AFC and earned a bye in the first round of the playoffs for the third-consecutive season. The win also improved Kansas City to a record of 14-1, marking the first-ever 14-win regular season in franchise history.

2021 — With the first-round bye already locked up, many of the team's starters rested in a Week 17 home matchup with the Los Angeles Chargers (1/3). The Chargers came away with the win, but many of Kansas City's backups, such as QB Chad Henne, got valuable playing time in the game which would prove to be helpful in the postseason.

At the conclusion of the regular season, seven Chiefs were selected to the Pro Bowl: QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce, WR Tyreek Hill, T Eric Fisher, DT Chris Jones, S Tyrann Mathieu and DE Frank Clark. Kelce, Hill and Mathieu were also each named first-team AP All-Pro while Mahomes and Jones earned second-team All-Pro honors.

Several Chiefs finished among the league's best statistically for the regular season. Mahomes was second in the league in passing yards with 4,740. Mathieu was third in the NFL with six interceptions, and ranked first among all safeties. The two primary pass-catchers for the Chiefs, Kelce (1,416) and Hill (1,276) ranked second and eighth in the league, respectively, in receiving yards. Overall, Kelce and Hill each had historic seasons in 2020. With then career-highs in receptions (105) and receiving yards (1,416), Kelce became the first tight end in NFL history with multiple seasons of 100+ receptions in his career (2018 and 2020), while his 1,416 receiving yards were the most-ever by a tight end in NFL history, passing 49ers TE George Kittle's previous record of 1,377 yards set in 2018. He became the first Chiefs player to record multiple seasons with 100 or more receptions. His 105 receptions in 2020 were the most receptions by a player in a single-season in franchise history, breaking his own record of 103 receptions set in 2018. His 1,416 receiving yards were the second-most receiving yards by any pass catcher in Chiefs history. Then, with a career-high 15 receiving touchdowns, Hill tied Dwayne Bowe's franchise record for most single-season touchdown receptions.

Following the bye in the first round of the playoffs, the Chiefs hosted the Cleveland Browns in the AFC Divisional round at Arrowhead Stadium (1/17). Cleveland was coming off a victory against the No. 3-seeded Pittsburgh Steelers on Wild Card Weekend.

The Chiefs looked dominant early on in the contest, taking a 19-3 lead into halftime. However, with 7:27 remaining in the third quarter, Mahomes took a hit which sent him into the concussion protocol and took him out for the remainder of the game, shifting the momentum toward Cleveland. Mahomes was replaced by QB Chad Henne, who was making the first postseason appearance of his career. The Browns cut the lead to 22-17 in the fourth quarter and had a chance to retain possession and go for the win if they could stop the Chiefs offense one more time. However, Henne stepped up with some late-game heroics on the final drive of the game. With a 13-yard scramble on a 3rd-and-14 with under two minutes remaining followed by a 4th-and-1 conversion on pass to Hill to seal the win for Kansas City, Henne sent them to their third-consecutive AFC Championship Game at home. Henne's performance prompted Mahomes to tweet after the game: "#HenneThingIsPossible."

Over the course of the next week, Mahomes passed the concussion protocol and became eligible to start in the AFC Championship Game at home against the Buffalo Bills (1/24). The Chiefs became the first team in NFL history to host three-consecutive AFC Championship Games with the only other being the 2002-04 Philadelphia Eagles, also coached by Reid. With his start, Mahomes became the 12th quarterback since the 1970 merger to start in three-consecutive conference championship games and the first to accomplish the feat prior to his 26th birthday. He also became the first quarterback ever to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons in the league.

The Bills started fast, getting out to a 9-0 lead to open the game. But an offensive explosion by the Chiefs in the second quarter with three unanswered touchdowns by Hardman, Williams and Edwards-Helaire would put them ahead 21-9. Behind two touchdown receptions by Kelce and some solid defensive play in the second half, Kansas City would ultimately win the game by a final score of 38-24, hoisting the Lamar Hunt Trophy and advancing to the Super Bowl for the second season in a row.

Although Kansas City was victorious, they lost a key component of the offense in the AFC Championship Game as Fisher suffered a torn Achilles tendon which would force him to miss Super Bowl LV.

LAMAR HUNT TROPHY STAYS IN KANSAS CITY

The Kansas City Chiefs hoist the Lamar Hunt Trophy during the postgame celebration following the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium. This marked the first time in franchise history that the Chiefs won back-to-back AFC Championships. This game also marked the first time in NFL history that the AFC Championship Game was held at the same stadium for three consecutive years.

The Chiefs would face off against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Super Bowl LV on Feb. 7, 2021 in a rematch of the Week 12 regular season matchup. With the game being played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team would play a Super Bowl in its home stadium.

Due to COVID-19 protocols, the events leading up to the Super Bowl were held virtually and the Chiefs did not arrive in Tampa until the day before the game.

Although the Chiefs won the regular season matchup, the Buccaneers controlled the majority of the contest. Tampa Bay, led by Brady and a stout defensive front, limited the Chiefs to just nine points on three field goals by Butker en route to claiming the Lombardi Trophy and preventing a Kansas City repeat with a final score of 31-9.

A few weeks into the offseason on March 4, the Kansas City Chiefs and GEHA announced that GEHA will be the exclusive naming rights partner for Arrowhead Stadium. Beginning with the 2021 NFL season, the home of the Chiefs would become known as GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

The top players and coaches of the 2020 NFL season were honored at the annual 101 Awards on March 6 in a virtual event. Clyde Edwards-Helaire was named the Mack Lee Hill Award winner for the team's top rookie or first year player while Travis Kelce was the recipient of the Derrick Thomas Award as the team's Most Valuable Player.

On March 11, the club announced that they had released tackles Fisher and Schwartz, leaving holes along the offensive line.

The Chiefs immediately worked to solve that problem and bolster the offensive line by signing guards Joe Thuney and Kyle Long on the first day of free agency a week later, followed by C Austin Blythe at the end of the month. The club also signed DT Jarran Reed as a new addition to the defensive line.

The week of the 2021 NFL Draft, the Chiefs made a splash with a trade to acquire two-time Pro Bowl offensive tackle Orlando Brown from the Baltimore Ravens. The Chiefs traded their 2021 first-round pick (31st overall), third-round pick (94th overall) and a fourth-round pick (136th overall), along with a 2022 fifth-round pick in exchange for Brown, a second-round pick in 2021 (58th overall) and a sixth-round pick in 2022.

Kansas City Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt announced on May 1 that former center Tim Grunhard is the 2021 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Grunhard was the 50th individual and 46th player to earn this coveted honor. Grunhard, a Pro Bowl center, spent 11 years with the Kansas City Chiefs (1990-2000), appearing in 169 games with 164 starts, including a streak of 120 straight starts from Sept. 5, 1993 - Oct. 29, 2000, the fourth-longest starting campaign in franchise history. His toughness and grit helped pave the way for Marty Schottenheimer's physical running attack that was a staple of Chiefs football in the 1990s.

After a year away due to Covid, on July 23, rookies and quarterbacks reported to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. for Chiefs training camp. This marks the first season in NFL history where teams played 17 regular season games and only one team had first-round bye for the playoffs.

The Chiefs went 3-0 in preseason games against San Franscisco, Arizona and Minnesota, with the first two being road games.

Kansas City began the 2021 regular season in a divisional round rematch at home against the Cleveland Browns. After the Browns took an early lead going into half time, the Chiefs ended up winning 33-29. They sealed the win on a late interception by CB Mike Hughes, a 197 yard game from Hill and two touchdowns from Kelce.

The team struggled early in the season. After seven games, the Chiefs were 3-4 and sat at the bottom of the AFC West for the first time in the Patrick Mahomes era.

The club played in Philadelphia in Week 4 of the regular season (10/3). With a 42-30 win over his former team in his return to the City of Brotherly Love, Head Coach Andy Reid earned his 100th total win with the Chiefs (93 regular season, seven postseason). When paired with his 140 total victories at the helm of the Philadelphia Eagles from 1999-2012, he became the first head coach in NFL history to accumulate 100 total victories with two separate franchises.

The Chiefs went on an eight game win-streak, winning nine of their last 10 games of the season after the 3-4 start.

During that win streak, Kansas City played the Raiders twice with a combined total 89-23. In the first matchup, Mahomes threw for five touchdowns, Williams posted 144 scrimmage yards and a touchdown, while Kelce had 119 yards on eight receptions. P Tommy Townsend completed an 18-yard pass to WR Marcus Kemp on a fake punt to extend a fourthdown play in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs ended up winning 41-14. In the second matchup, in Kansas City, the Chiefs ran away with the win scoring 48 points to the Raiders nine. Mahomes went 20 for 24 on completions for 258 yards and two touchdowns while Edwards-Helaire added two rushing touchdowns. The Kansas City defense completely dominated, not letting Las Vegas get into field goal range until the end of the second quarter. The defense sacked Raiders QB Derek Carr four times for a total loss of 17 yards.

Kansas City played the Dallas Cowboys (11/21) at home right before the bye week, making it their fourth win in a row. Jones established a single-game career-high with 3.5 sacks (-20.0 yards) of Dallas QB Dak Prescott, including sacks on back-to-back plays in the second quarter with a forced fumble on the second of the two sacks. In addition to a single-game career-high, it marked the club's first time having a player record 3.5 or more sacks in a game since OLB Dee Ford recorded 3.5 sacks at Indianapolis on Oct. 30, 2016. It ties for the ninth-best single-game sack performance in team history. For Jones, it marked his 11th-career multi-sack performance and his first multi-sack game since recording 2.0 sacks vs. Cleveland (9/12/21) to open the 2021 season. For the fourth game in a row, the Chiefs defense allowed 17 or fewer points while also allowing 350 or fewer total yards to the opposing offense.

The Chiefs won both of their games against the Denver Broncos during this season, registering their 13th-consecutive victory against the Broncos dating back to the 2015 season. That extended the club's record for longest winning streak against a single opponent in franchise history, and tied for the sixth-longest winning streak against a single opponent in NFL history (since 1970). In the second matchup versus the Broncos (1/8), Hardman recorded his career first 103-yard game on eight receptions. At halftime, the Chiefs were down 14-10. RB Jerick McKinnon caught a 14-yard pass from Mahomes to put Kansas City up 17-14. The Broncos came back with a touchdown and Butker netted a field goal, making the score 21-20 Broncos in the fourth quarter. With 7:42 left in the fourth, DE Melvin Ingram forced a fumble of Broncos RB Melvin Gordon and rookie LB Nick Bolton took the ball to the house on a 86-yard fumble recovery to give the Chiefs the lead at 28-21. The Broncos scored a field goal with four minutes left to make the final score 28-24, Chiefs.

After losing to the Chargers earlier in the season during Week 15, Kansas City traveled to LA to take on the Chargers for the second time this season. The Chiefs extended their win streak in an overtime thriller to beat the Chargers 34-28. Kelce recorded a career-high 191 yards on 10 receptions with two receiving touchdowns, including a fourth-quarter seven-yard score and the game-winning 34-yard catch-and-run touchdown in overtime. The contest marked Kelce's franchise-record-extending 29th career 100-yard receiving game, ranking as the third-most by a tight end in NFL history. Hill finished the game with 12 receptions for 148 yards and a touchdown. It marked his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and his 18th-career 100-yard performance. Per ESPN Stats and Info, for the second time in their careers, Kelce and Hill each had at least 10 receptions and 100 receiving yards. They're the first duo in NFL history with multiple such games. The first time they did it was Week 11 (11/19/18) at the Los Angeles Rams.

Throughout the last five home games of the year, the Chiefs defense held teams to 10 or less points, outscoring teams in a combined score of 98-44. The Chiefs are tied for fifth in the most consecutive home games allowing 10 or fewer points, regular and postseason, since 1970. During this stretch, the defense registered 314 total tackles, 15 sacks and nine interceptions, including a 75 yard interception returned for a touchdown against Denver by S Daniel Sorensen (12/05/21).

Kansas City won at least 12 games in each of the past four seasons, becoming the fifth team in NFL history to record at least 12 victories in four consecutive seasons. The Chiefs join the New England Patriots (8, 2010-17), Indianapolis Colts (7, 2003-09), Denver Broncos (4, 2012-15) and Dallas Cowboys (4, 1992-95). This season also marked the third time since 1990 that a team won 12+ games after winning no more than three of their first seven contests in the same season.

2022 — Kansas City closed out the regular season with a loss to the Cincinnati Bengals (1/2), breaking their eight game win streak and with a win at Denver (1/8).

The Chiefs set a number of new franchise records during the 2021 regular season, including most passes completed (448), most passes attempted (675), most passes completed in consecutive seasons (868), most passes attempted in consecutive seasons (1,305), most net passing yards in consecutive seasons (9,645), most first downs (419) and most passing first downs (267). The team also moved into top-five spots in a number of statistical categories, including most net yards (6,746), most net passing yards (4,791), most total touchdowns (57), most offensive touchdowns (53), most points scored (480) and most first-quarter points scored (130).

Defensively, rookie Bolton led the team in tackles with 112 total tackles and 11 tackles for loss. Jones led the team in sacks with 9.0 for a loss of a total 65.5 yards. Mathieu led the team in interceptions with three, while LB Willie Gay, CB L'Jarius Sneed, Sorensen and CB Charvarius Ward tied for second most with two interceptions. Both Mathieu and Sorensen returned interceptions for touchdowns.

After not receiving the first round bye, Kansas City hosted the AFC Wild Card against the Pittsburgh Steelers, a team they just played three weeks prior. The first time the two teams played, the Chiefs clinched the AFC West division title for a record setting sixth-consecutive time, breaking the previous three-way tie for the longest streak of consecutive division titles in AFC West history (5; Oakland, 1972-76; Denver 2011-15). The sixth-consecutive division title in 2021 tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history dating back to 1970. Reid won his 102nd regular season game in Kansas City, passing Chiefs Hall of Fame coach Marty Schottenheimer (101) for sole possession of second place in franchise history. Reid now only trails PFHOF coach Hank Stram's franchise record of 124 regular season victories.

The Chiefs beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 42-21 in the Wild Card round, scoring the third-most points in a postseason game in franchise history, trailing behind only performances of 51 points vs. Houston in the 2019 AFC Divisional round (1/12/20) and 44 points at Indianapolis in the AFC Wild Card round (1/4/14). Kelce recorded five receptions for 108 yards with a touchdown reception and adding a two-yard touchdown pass to WR Byron Pringle. Kelce also recorded his seventh-career 100-yard postseason receiving game, which ranks as the second most 100-yard receiving games in NFL history, trailing only PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (8). The game was Kelce's fourth-straight 100-yard postseason game, tied for longest such streak in NFL postseason annals with WR Larry Fitzgerald (1/3/09 – 2/1/09) and WR Antonio Brown (1/3/15 – 1/15/17). With his two-yard touchdown pass to Byron Pringle in the fourth quarter of the game, Kelce became just the second tight end in NFL history to throw a touchdown pass in the postseason, joining Trey Burton, who completed a one-yard touchdown pass to QB Nick Foles for the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl LII (2/4/18).

For the second time in the season, Kansas City hosted the Buffalo Bills, but this time it was for the AFC Divisional round. The game ended in stellar fashion with an eight yard overtime touchdown grab by Kelce for the Chiefs to win 42-36. Kansas City recorded 552 total net yards of offense in the win, setting a new franchise record for a postseason game. Mahomes finished the game completing 33 of 44 passes (75.0%) for 378 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions, good for a 123.1 passer rating. His 33 completions are the most in a single postseason game in franchise history, his 44 attempts are the fourth most in a single postseason game in franchise history and his 75.0 completion percentage is the fourth-best single-game mark in franchise postseason history. Mahomes added seven carries for a game-high 69 yards (9.9 avg.) and added an eight-yard touchdown rush. His 69 rushing yards are the most by a quarterback in a single postseason game in franchise history. Hill caught 11 passes for 150 yards (13.6 avg.) with a 64-yard touchdown in the game. His 11 receptions are the second-most by a player in a single postseason game in franchise history.

The Chiefs won six consecutive playoff games at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, extending the club's franchise record and tying for the 10th-longest home playoff winning streak in NFL history, dating back to the 1970 merger. The win over the Bills and a Tennessee Titans loss allowed the Chiefs to host a fourth-consecutive AFC Championship game. Kansas City became the first team in NFL history to host three home playoff games.

The Chiefs hosted the Cincinnati Bengals in the AFC Championship game (1/30). Kansas City started off hot taking a 21-10 lead going into halftime. Mahomes threw three touchdowns (10 yards to Hill, five yards to Kelce and three yards to Hardman) on 26 of 39 passing, with 275 passing yards. The Bengals quickly caught up as the Chiefs offense stalled in the second half, making the game 24-21. Butker tied the game at 24-24 to advance into overtime for a second game in a row. The Chiefs lost 27-24 on a field goal made by Bengals kicker Evan McPherson.

Kelce, Sorensen and LS James Winchester all appeared in their 15th career postseason game with the club, establishing a new franchise record for most postseason games played. With his 10 catches in the Bengals game, Kelce owns 106 career postseason receptions, passing Rob Gronkowski for the most by a tight end in NFL history and the third-most by any player in league history.

The top players and coaches of the 2021 NFL season were honored at the annual 101 Awards on March 26 in a virtual event. LB Nick Bolton was named the Mack Lee Hill Award winner for the team's top rookie or first year player while S Tyrann Mathieu was the recipient of the Derrick Thomas Award as the team's Most Valuable Player.

Throughout the offseason, the Chiefs lost more than two dozen contributors from the 2021 season, many of whom were also core players for the club's back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in 2019 and 2020. Between free agency and trades, General Manager Brett Veach was able to re-stock the Chiefs roster with players at key positions of need on both sides of the ball.

Defensively, the Chiefs orchestrated two key transactions in March. First, Clark restructured his contract and on March 17, the Chiefs agreed to terms with former Houston Texans S Justin Reid. With the loss of Mathieu in free agency, Reid brought veteran experience and quickly emerged as a new leader on defense.

During the month of March, the Chiefs also made major moves to their wide receiver room. On March 20, the Chiefs signed WR JuJu Smith-Schuster as a free agent. Three days later, the Chiefs traded Hill to the Dolphins for five draft picks: a 2022 first-round pick (29th overall), second-round pick (50th overall) and fourth-round pick (121st overall), along with fourth- and sixth-round picks in the 2023 NFL Draft. A couple of days later, on March 24, the Chiefs signed wide receiver Marquez Valdes-Scantling to continue transforming the receiver position.

Other offensive offseason moves the Chiefs made included signing RB Ronald Jones II in free agency and re-signing McKinnon. Between the two, the Chiefs added 12 years of NFL experience and six playoff berths. Both had also been a part of Kansas City's two recent Super Bowls appearances, although sporting the opposing teams' colors (Jones II with the Buccaneers in 2020 and McKinnon with the 49ers in 2019).

Through late April into early May, the Chiefs drafted 10 players and signed 11 players in college free agency. The Chiefs 2022 draft class was loaded with defensive talent. In the first round, the Chiefs picked up CB Trent McDuffie and DE George Karlaftis. The Chiefs added more talent to the receiver room with the addition of Skyy Moore in the second round.

Kansas City Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt announced on April 30 that former fullback Kimble Anders would be the 2022 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Anders was the 51st individual and 47th player to earn this coveted honor. Anders spent his entire 10-year NFL career with the Kansas City Chiefs (1991-2000), appearing in 125 games with 94 starts. His 125 games played for the team are tied for the second most by a running back or fullback in franchise history. Anders was named to three-straight Pro Bowls following the 1995-97 seasons, becoming the first running back or fullback in franchise history to earn three consecutive trips to the NFL's annual all-star game.

On May 12, the National Football League announced the regular season schedule for the 2022 season. The Chiefs were slated to play in five prime time contests in the announcement, including three nationally televised games at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. No other team has more than five prime time slots. The regular season schedule featured nine games versus eight playoff teams from 2021.

On June 16, Kansas City was named one of 11 U.S. host cities for the 2026 FIFA World Cup. The Kansas City Sports Commission, along with the Chiefs, Sporting KC, the Royals and elected officials had been working on the city's bid for seven years before FIFA made its announcement. Any 2026 World Cup matches in Kansas City will be contested at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Renovations will have to be made to convert the American football stadium into a regulation FIFA fútbol pitch. Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt was a known soccer fan and played an integral role in the popularization of soccer in the U.S. Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt said his father would be "over the moon" to have the honor to host World Cup games at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

Coaches, rookies and quarterbacks reported to Missouri Western State University for Chiefs Training Camp presented by Mosaic Life Care on July 22, while camp opened to fans on Wednesday, July 27. This marked the club's 12th training camp at MWSU in St. Joseph, Mo.

Arrowhead Events closed out the summer with country stars Kenny Chesney and George Strait (with Chris Stapleton) performing at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium on July 2nd and July 30th, respectively, before turning attention to the preseason. The Chiefs kicked off August and their preseason slate by taking on the Chicago Bears on the road, falling 19-14. The team rallied to defeat their final two preseason opponents, taking down Washington 24-14 and Green Bay 17-10 at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. General Manager Brett Veach and his personnel staff evaluated the roster making a move to acquire DE Carlos Dunlap and keeping all 10 draft picks on the roster to head into the regular season.

On August 24th, Chiefs Kingdom suffered the loss of Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson. Dawson was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame both as a player and a broadcaster, and was a figurehead of the Kansas City community. Dawson helped lead the Chiefs to their first two Super Bowl appearances, and first Super Bowl win. Dawson earned seven All-Star/Pro Bowl accolades and was twice a first-team All-Pro in his career. To honor Dawson, many players, coaches and staffers donned Len Dawson tribute hoodies as the Chiefs took the field against the Green Bay Packers. The team also unveiled a No. 16 helmet decal on their helmets which the team would wear for the entirety of the 2022 season. After taking a moment of silence to honor Dawson, Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes, along with many other starters who typically would not have played in this preseason game, took the field in a "choir huddle" formation – a signature of Dawson's.

The club's 2022 regular season start was marked by four major events for the Chiefs organization, including the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce and the Chiefs hosting The Kickoff Luncheon. The excitement continued when for the first time in Kansas City history, the Chiefs worked alongside the First Fridays committee to create "First Fridays with the Chiefs" in anticipation of the team's season opener in Arizona. On Sept. 8th, the Kansas City Chiefs opened their second Chiefs Fit flagship location which opened just in time for Red Friday, a day of giving, on Sept. 9th, with net proceeds benefiting the Ronald McDonald House. The Chiefs sold Red Friday flags at participating McDonalds locations, bringing Chiefs Kingdom together for good. In the past nine years, these efforts have raised more than $4.6 million dollars for families in the Kansas City area who are supporting children suffering from an illness.

The 2022 season opened on the road against the Arizona Cardinals (9/11) at State Farm Stadium, the host site of Super Bowl LVII in February 2023. Despite the youth on the team, the Chiefs had a dominant performance. Mahomes threw for 360 yards and five touchdowns with a quarterback rating of 144.2. Mahomes' performance marked the sixth time in his career in which he's had five or more touchdown passes. Rookie running back Isiah Pacheco rushed for 62 yards with a long of 22 yards and one touchdown. The Chiefs foreshadowed their return to State Farm Stadium with a 44-21 victory over the Cardinals. It was the club's eighth straight season-opening victory.

The Chiefs had their home opener and hosted the inaugural Thursday Night Football on Amazon Prime game (9/15). The club started its season at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium with a close match against the Los Angeles Chargers. Chiefs rookie CB Jaylen Watson had a 99-yard pick-six to put the Chiefs up 24-17 in the fourth quarter in the eventual 27-24 win. Jones was able to get to Chargers QB Justin Herbert for 2.0 sacks (-8.0 yards) which moved him into the top five for career sacks in Chiefs history with 51.5.

In Week 4 of the regular season, the Chiefs took on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (10/2) led by QB Tom Brady in what would be his final season. Against a defense that had not allowed more than 14 points to an opponent and had allowed just 27 points through the first three weeks, the Chiefs offense put up 41 points.

Mahomes made a quick trip to Lubbock, Texas, in October where he became the eighth player to be enshrined in Texas Tech's most prestigious group of athletes, the Ring of Honor, before the Chiefs took on the Las Vegas Raiders in Week 5 (10/10) for the Crucial Catch game which aims to raise awareness and funds for diagnosing and treating cancers. The Chiefs were able to pull off a 30-29 win with a historic performance from Kelce as he found the end zone for all four of Mahomes' touchdown passes. With just 25 receiving yards, Kelce tied the franchise record for most receiving touchdowns in a game (RB Jamaal Charles 12/15/13). The team then took on the Buffalo Bills (10/16) at home suffering a 24-20 loss against their foe before going back on the road to San Francisco to take on the 49ers (10/23) and close out October. The Chiefs walked away with a win after putting up 44 points against San Francisco's defense who had previously averaged just 14.8 points allowed per game and no more than 28 points all season.

The Chiefs Week 9 matchup against Tennessee went into overtime, marking the first overtime game and overtime victory of the Chiefs 2022 season. Butker connected on a 28-yard go-ahead field goal giving the Chiefs the 20-17 lead in overtime. During the Titans matchup, the Chiefs honored Chiefs legend and former fullback Kimble Anders with his induction into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Finally, the Titans game marked the first game in a Chiefs uniform for WR Kadarius Toney after Veach and company acquired Toney in a trade with the New York Giants.

In Week 10, the Chiefs returned to the GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium to defeat Trevor Lawrence and the Jacksonville Jaguars (11/13) 27-17 after a scrappy matchup in which Mahomes had 331 yards passing for four touchdowns to four different receivers (TE Travis Kelce, WR Kadarius Toney, WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling and TE Noah Gray). This also marked the Chiefs Salute to Service game honoring active military service members and veterans.

DT Chris Jones during the Chiefs 44-23 victory over San Francisco.

While hosting the Los Angeles Rams on November 27th, the Chiefs celebrated American Indian Heritage Month in a variety of ways. Prior to kickoff, the Blessing of the Four Directions was conducted by Alan Fletcher, Chief/Spokesman of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma and Chief of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma Chief Gary Batton. Many other members of Native tribes were honored throughout the game. The Chiefs defeated the Rams 26-10 before embarking on a three-game road stretch.

The Chiefs started their time on the road with an AFC Championship rematch against the Cincinnati Bengals. The two teams met on December 4th with the Bengals barely outscoring the Chiefs, 27-24. Over 20 Chiefs players participated in the Week 13 League initiative, My Cause My Cleats, in which players had the opportunity to pick a cause important to them and represent their chosen organization on custom-designed cleats.

Upon returning to Kansas City, Mahomes hosted the third-annual 15 and the Mahomies Gala where his charity gave out nearly $400,000 in charity grants. Many of his Chiefs teammates came to support the event which supports initiatives focusing on health, wellness and communities in need specifically for children. Mahomes was announced as the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year Nominee presented by Nationwide.

On the second week of the team's three-week road stretch, the Chiefs secured their first of two wins over the Broncos (12/11). Mahomes found Smith-Schuster for a four-yard pass to the end zone to put the Chiefs up by 12 heading into the fourth quarter after the Broncos scored 21 unanswered points. The game also marked a historic point in Kelce's career. With 71 receiving yards against the Broncos, Kelce eclipsed 10,000 career receiving yards, making him the fifth tight end in NFL history to surpass 10,000 receiving yards. The Chiefs won 34-28.

With just one victory and one tie before facing the Chiefs, the Texans put up a fight forcing the Chiefs into overtime but ultimately falling to the Kansas City offense. RB Jerick McKinnon sealed the game with a 26-yard rush into the end zone, rushing for 52 total yards and putting the Chiefs up 30-24 for the win. The victory over Houston also clinched the Chiefs seventh consecutive AFC West title.

On December 21st, seven Chiefs players were named to the 2023 Pro Bowl. The seven players selected from the Chiefs made them one of two teams with seven selections, with only the Eagles sending more (eight). The selections included: QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce, T Orlando Brown, G Joe Thuney, C Creed Humphrey, DT Chris Jones and P Tommy Townsend.

The Chiefs faced frigid temperatures on their Christmas Eve game versus the Seattle Seahawks but the holiday spirit helped propel them to a 24-10 win to close out 2022. With the victory over Seattle, the Chiefs completed another sweep of their NFC opponents, going 4-0 for the third consecutive season (NFC South, 2022; NFC East, 2021). RB Jerick McKinnon scored on a nine-yard pass from Mahomes, marking his sixth total touchdown over four weeks. McKinnon earned AFC Offensive Player of the Month for his performances.

2023 - To start the new year, the Chiefs took on the Broncos at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The 27-24 win over the team's AFC West rival extended their win streak over Denver to 15; the franchise record for most consecutive wins against a single opponent. It is the third-longest win streak against a single opponent in NFL history and the longest active streak. QB Patrick Mahomes started his 2023 making history. With 328 passing yards, Mahomes surpassed the 5,000-yard mark for the season with 5,048 passing yards. This was his second season with 5,000+ passing yards (5,097 in 2018), making him just the third player in NFL history to record multiple seasons with 5,000+ passing yards. The only other players to do so are QB Drew Brees (five seasons) and QB Tom Brady (two seasons). Mahomes also became one of two players, joining Brees, with two career seasons of 5,000+ passing yards and 40+ touchdown passes. Only four other quarterbacks have managed the feat once.

To close out the regular season and divisional play, the Chiefs faced the Raiders (1/7) in Week 18, walking away with a 31-13 victory and going 6-0 against the AFC West. The club has now gone 6-0 against the AFC West three times under Reid (2016, 2019). With their 14th win of the season, it marked the second time in franchise history the club posted a 14-win season. Mahomes added to his records, breaking the NFL record for total yardage in a season with 5,614 yards, passing QB Drew Brees' previous mark of 5,562 yards from 2011. McKinnon stayed hot, recording another receiving touchdown, his ninth of the season. His touchdown extended his streak to six consecutive games with a touchdown reception. Bolton also rewrote history to close out the regular season. With 16 tackles against Denver, his season total moved to 180 tackles (108 solo), the most in Chiefs history in a single season. The previous record was held by LB Derrick Johnson with 179 tackles in 2011. Bolton also set a new record for 10+ tackle games in a season with 10 games.

The Chiefs earned the No. 1 seed, giving them a first-round playoff bye. The Chiefs had several more players honored for their performance through the 2022 regular season. QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce, DT Chris Jones and P Tommy Townsend all earned AP first-team All-Pro honors. G Joe Thuney and C Creed Humphrey earned second-team All-Pro selections. On January 19, 2023, the NFL announced that the Kansas City Chiefs had been designated to play one of two international games in Germany during the 2023 season.

On January 21st, the Chiefs started their postseason journey against the Jacksonville Jaguars. Kelce opened the game with an eight-yard touchdown reception from Mahomes before the Jaguars tied it back up. In the second quarter, GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium held their breath as Mahomes limped off the field with an injured ankle. Backup QB Chad Henne was put into the game and went on to drive 98 yards down the field sealing the scoring drive with a one-yard pass to Kelce. Both teams struggled to score in the third quarter, but Chiefs Butker converted a 50-yard field goal putting the Chiefs up 20-10. The Chiefs were able to hold off the Jaguars to advance to the AFC Championship Game after winning 27-20. On January 23rd, four Chiefs were named to the PFWA "All-NFL Team" including Mahomes, Kelce, DT Chris Jones and P Tommy Townsend.

The Chiefs faced the Cincinnati Bengals in the AFC Championship Game (1/29), a rematch of the 2021 AFC Championship Game in which the Bengals kept the Chiefs from going to their third straight Super Bowl. The game marked the fifth straight AFCCG game hosted at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The speculation about Mahomes' ankle injury was a key storyline leading up to the highly anticipated matchup. Injuries plagued the Chiefs during the AFCCG with key receivers Smith-Schuster and Hardman both sustaining injuries making them unable to finish the game. Rookie WR Skyy Moore stepped up alongside WR Valdes-Scantling and practice squad receiver Marcus Kemp. Valdes-Scantling ended the day with 116 receiving yards and a touchdown deep in the back of the end zone. The Chiefs defense knew they had to step up and posted 5.0 sacks with DT Chris Jones leading the way with 2.0, which marked his first career postseason sacks. The rookies on the Chiefs defense didn't back down from the challenge. Rookie CB Jaylen Watson had a second-quarter interception only to be followed up in the fourth quarter with a pass deflection from rookie S Bryan Cook into the hands of fellow rookie CB Joshua Williams. With the game tied, Moore was called upon for punt returns after injuries sidelined the other punt returners. In the moment Chiefs Kingdom needed him, he delivered, returning it 27 yards and helping position

Butker for a 45-yard field goal to send the Chiefs to their third Super Bowl in four years.

The Chiefs returned to State Farm Stadium where they started their 2022 season in Glendale, Arizona. Super Bowl LVII held many emotions for those involved and two Chiefs members in particular. Reid would be facing the Philadelphia Eagles where he served as head coach for 12 years (1999-2012). Kelce and his family made history and headlines throughout the Super Bowl week as Kelce and his older brother, Eagles C Jason Kelce, would be the first set of brothers to face each other in a Super Bowl. Jason has played for Philadelphia for his entire 12-year career which included time being coached by Reid.

On February 12, 2023, the Chiefs kicked off against the Eagles for Super Bowl LVII. The Chiefs started four rookies, tying the record for most rookies to start in the Super Bowl. The Chiefs and the Eagles exchanged trips to the end zone but the momentum of the Eagles was slowed when Eagles QB Jalen Hurts fumbled and Bolton was able to pull off a scoop and score, returning it 36 yards to tie the game 14-14. It was the first Eagles' turnover of the postseason. The Eagles then had two unanswered scores, a touchdown and a field goal, putting them up 24-14 as the Chiefs trotted into the locker room for halftime.

Despite having re-aggravated his ankle injury in the first half, Mahomes kept the Chiefs opening second-half drive alive with a 14-yard rush helping to set up rookie Pacheco's rushing touchdown putting the Chiefs back within three points. The Eagles came back with a long drive taking time off the clock, but a crucial tackle from Bolton forced the Eagles to settle with a field goal, putting the Eagles back up by six points. Mahomes and Smith-Schuster connected four times to help get the Chiefs down the field before setting up for 'Corn-Dog,' a play in which misdirection allowed WR Kadarius Toney to walk into the end zone for a touchdown. The Chiefs took the lead for the first time in the game 28-27 just a few minutes into the fourth quarter.

With a third-down pressure from Gay, the defense was able to force the Eagles into a three-and-out for the first time that evening. Toney had one of the biggest plays of the game – a 65-yard punt return to put the Chiefs at the Philadelphia five-yard line. Toney's 65-yard return was the longest punt return in Super Bowl history. The Chiefs offense quickly made their way to the end zone,this time with a four-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to rookie Moore, giving the Chiefs their largest lead of the night at 35-27. Eagles QB Jalen Hurts and company made their way back down the field and found the end zone for six points before converting a two-point attempt tying the game up for the second time with just over five minutes to play. The Chiefs managed the clock over the next five minutes best displayed by the heads up play by McKinnon when he stopped short of the end zone to keep the clock running. With 11 seconds left, Butker converted a 27-yard field goal for the final score of the game. The Chiefs defeated the Eagles in Super Bowl LVII 38-35.

Travis Kelce celebrates Super Bowl LVII win

On February 15th, the Chiefs brought the Lombardi trophy back to Kansas City for their second parade in four years. Fans filled the streets as buses made their way to Union Station where the team and staff members celebrated their accomplishment. Mahomes capped off his 2022 season accomplishments with being named Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. He was named AP NFL MVP prior to the Super Bowl.

On the heels of a Super Bowl victory, Kansas City was host to the 53rd Annual 101 Awards. Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes was voted as the AFC Offensive Player of the Year while Philadelphia Eagles QB Jalen Hurts was voted NFC Offensive Player of the Year. Chiefs DT Chris Jones was voted to AFC Defensive Player of the Year and rookie RB Isiah Pacheco was voted the Mack Lee Hill Award winner for the most outstanding rookie voted on by his Chiefs teammates.

Just a few weeks after his Super Bowl victory, Kelce hosted Saturday Night Live making him part of a small group of NFL players to be a host. His monologue impressed fans and critics alike and his episode featured cameos from his brother Eagles C Jason Kelce and teammate C Creed Humphrey. He is the only active Chiefs player to ever host SNL.

As the Chiefs continued to relish in their Super Bowl victory, Veach and his staff prepared for the 2023 NFL Combine in Indianapolis while also making free agency moves. The Chiefs signed T Jawaan Taylor, DE Charles Omenihu and S Mike Edwards. Coaching changes were also made as Chiefs quarterbacks coach Matt Nagy was promoted to offensive coordinator and former NFL WR Todd Pinkston was added to the mix as running backs coach. Additional promotions and additions were also announced. On March 21st, the Chiefs signed LB Drue Tranquill through free agency and the city continued to prepare to host the 2023 NFL Draft in April.

Veach and his staff continued free agency by signing WR Richie James and QB Blaine Gabbert. On April 25th, the club announced they had been granted IHMA Rights for Austria and Switzerland, further extending the club's international footprint. On April 28, 2023, Kansas City hosted the 2023 NFL Draft welcoming hundreds of thousands of people to Union Station as the Chiefs once again hoisted the Lombardi Trophy and made a first-round pick. With pick number 31, the Chiefs selected DE Felix Anudike-Uzomah who has been a life-long fan of the Chiefs and a Kansas City native. The Chiefs added six additional players to the roster via draft picks. During the Draft festivities, Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt announced that former Chiefs KR/WR Dante Hall will be the 2023 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

As May began, the Chiefs began to acclimate their rookies with rookie mini-camp. The NFL also announced that the Chiefs would be playing the Miami Dolphins in Frankfurt for the 2023 Germany Game before announcing the rest of the 2023 schedule on May 11th.

On June 4, 2023 the Chiefs mourned the loss of the Hunt family matriarch, Norma Hunt.

"Mom was steadfastly devoted to her family and fiercely passionate about her family's sports teams. She was by our father Lamar's side every step of the way -- from the merger of the AFL and the NFL to the formation of Major League Soccer, World Championship Tennis, the North American Soccer League, and their founding investment in the Chicago Bulls," the Hunts said in their statement. "She was the only person we knew who rivaled his love of sports. The two of them found such joy together, whether at home, or in stadium stands around the world.'

Norma attended every Super Bowl and a few months before her passing, watched the team she loved hoist the Lombardi Trophy for the third time in franchise history.

To mark the last day of 2023 OTAs, the team celebrated their Super Bowl LVII victory one more time with the ring ceremony on June 15. The ring encompassed many facets of the team's history, paying homage to Chiefs Founder, Lamar Hunt, with his quote, "Arrowhead Stadium is my favorite place on Earth." The ring, made by Jostens, is 16 carats, features a removable top that can convert to a pendant and shines with over 600 diamonds.

The team reported to Missouri Western State University on July 17 to begin their defense of their Super Bowl title.

CHIEFS LOGO HISTORY

An Inspiration

Texans Helmet

During the team's three-year stint as the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62, the club's helmet logo featured the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on the club's home base in Dallas. Founder Lamar Hunt "borrowed" that concept from the '52 Dallas Texans, a totally-unrelated NFL franchise that spent one undistinguished season playing in the Lone Star State before resurfacing as the Baltimore Colts in '53.

Prior to the inaugural AFL season in '60, Hunt's Texans were represented by a whirling, spur-clad, 10-gallon-hat-wearing character that was featured on various promotional items. That logo eventually gave way to a more polished football-toting gunslinger set over the state of Texas, a design created by Bob Taylor, a cartoonist for the now-defunct Dallas Times-Herald. Although never part of the club's uniform, Taylor's updated Texans logo adorned everything from the club's stationery to the billboard outside the team's offices.

When the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63, Taylor was commissioned to produce a new logo that remained strikingly similar to his original incarnation. Taylor's new rendition featured a Native American figure running with the same stride and holding the pigskin in the same manner as the gunslinger with the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Iowa and Arkansas serving as his backdrop. This logo was utilized prominently during the '60s and was affixed to the club's Swope Park headquarters on 63rd Street before the club moved to Arrowhead in '72.

A new design for the Chiefs helmet logo was also in order upon the franchise's move to Mid-America. Hunt went back to the drawing board, seeking to give his franchise a logo that would once again provide an easily-recognizable link to its home locale. Hunt's initial sketches, some of which were done on a napkin on a flight from Dallas to Kansas City, began with an interlocking "KC" inside a circle or an oval. That look was eventually refined to feature those intertwined letters inside an arrowhead. The resulting finished product remains one of the most distinctive logos in all of sports and has been proudly utilized by the team for nearly 60 years.

CHIEFS UNIFORM HISTORY

1959 – At one of the initial organizational meetings of the American Football League in late '59 – before the teams even had any players or coaches – the AFL owners choose their team colors. Lamar Hunt desires Columbia Blue and Orange for his Dallas Texans franchise. But before Hunt or any other owner can make a selection, Houston's Bud Adams claims Columbia Blue for his Oilers franchise. Hunt reverts to Red and Gold for the Texans, which remains the primary color scheme for the Chiefs to this day.

Lamar Hunt greets Bud Adams - sporting a "Columbia Blue" blazer - prior to the '62 AFL Championship Game. Hunt would lose the battle for "Columbia Blue," but his Texans would beat the Oilers in double OT for the '62 AFL title.

Texans Helmet

1960-62 – The Texans take the field for the AFL's inaugural season in '60 sporting red helmets with gray facemasks. The helmet features the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on Dallas. Home jerseys are solid red featuring white numerals, white "TV" numerals on the sleeves and white lettering, all trimmed in gold. Road jerseys are white with red numerals, red "TV" numerals on the sleeves and red lettering, all of which are bordered by thin gold trim. Both jerseys are a cloth design, featuring three-quarter sleeves with stitched "tackle twill" numerals and letters. The team wears white pants featuring vertical stripes of red, gold and red. Socks are red on top, white on the bottom with alternating stripes at the calf of white, red, gold, red and white. Although several minor changes are made to the stripe width over the years, the primary sock design remains relatively consistent to the present day.

Texans DT Jerry Mays (75) and QB Len Dawson (16) pose along with head coach Hank Stram in '65 sporting the home jerseys the club wore from '60-67. Note the rolled-up sleeves and the barely visible gold trim.

1963-67 – The Texans moved to Kansas City in '63. Hunt and Head Coach Hank Stram initially plan on calling the relocated team the "Kansas City Texans." However, General Manager Jack Steadman wisely convinces the duo to change the franchise's nickname to "Chiefs." The club's uniform remains virtually unchanged, with the exception of the helmet logo. The state of Texas is replaced on the headgear by a design originally sketched by Hunt on a napkin. Hunt's inspiration for the interlocking "KC" design was the "SF" inside of an oval on San Francisco's helmets. Kansas City's overlapping initials appear inside a white arrowhead instead of an oval and are surrounded by a thin black outline. The result is one of the most distinctive helmets in all of football.

1968 – The most dramatic changes to the Chiefs uniform come in '68. Head Coach Hank Stram prefers more red in the club's road attire and orders red pants to go with the team's white road jerseys. Stram asserts that the red pants will match the red numerals on the white road jerseys. While Stram's fashion sense is never in question, some in the organization theorize that the superstitious Stram really wants to part ways with the white pants because the club lost Super Bowl I while wearing them. No matter the logic, the white pants are not seen again during the Stram era. The club's new red pants feature alternating vertical stripes of white, red, gold, red and white and are paired with predominantly white socks that feature striping of red, gold and red at the calf. Alterations are also made to the club's jerseys at this time. Sleeves are shortened from three-quarter length to their present-day short-sleeve status. Stripes are also introduced on the bottom of the sleeves, where they still reside. Red jerseys feature white, gold and white stripes on the sleeves, while the club's white jerseys receive red, gold and red stripes.

AFL-10 Patch

1970 – Following Super Bowl IV, the team's cloth jerseys dating back to the franchise's days in Dallas give way to a more breathable mesh fabric. Heat-transfer numerals and letters replace sewn-on "tackle twill" characters. The style of the numerals and letters changes slightly. The characters decrease in size, while the gold trim around both the numerals and letters expands to become more visible. Jersey numerals remain this size before eventually returning to larger proportions in the early '80s.

DT Buck Buchanan displays the club's road uniform of the '70s. Note the white facemask, red pants and heat-transfer numerals.

1974 – The club's facemask changes from gray to white. A change in manufacturers results in a slightly smaller arrowhead logo on the helmet with a thicker black border compared to the design of the '60s.

1979-80 – During the Marv Levy era, the club experiments with white jerseys and red pants at home. Several other NFL teams - most notably Dallas - had adopted the practice of wearing white at home. The fact that Lamar Hunt's hometown team had popularized the practice may have led the Chiefs Founder to depart from the club's traditional home uniform configuration. However, the trial is short-lived and by '81, the club reverts back to its traditional red jersey, white pants arrangement at Arrowhead.

QB Steve Fuller was part of a Chiefs squad that wore white jerseys at home for a brief stretch during the Marv Levy era.

Joe Delaney Patch

Silver Anniversary Patch

1984 – The original eight American Football League teams all wear circular "Silver Anniversary" patches on the upper left chest of their jerseys commemorating the 25th anniversary of the AFL and their respective franchises. Kansas City's patch features the Chiefs helmet and the AFL logo.

1989 – The arrival of Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer signals the club's most dramatic uniform change in over 20 years. Schottenheimer asks and receives permission from Hunt to revert back to white pants on the road, a "white-on-white" look that had not been utilized by the Chiefs since '67. White belts also return to the club's pants after using red belts at various periods of the '70s and '80s. Kansas City reintroduces the white pants at Denver (9/10/89) and maintains this look on the road through the '99 season.

1991 – A sticker bearing the American Flag adorns the back of all NFL helmets to honor troops fighting in the Gulf War. The NFL Shield becomes a standard part of all NFL uniforms, appearing on the back of helmets, on the "v" of jerseys and on the left hip of pants.

1992 – The club wears a black panel with the white initials "WWD" on the upper left chest of its jersey in memory of Director of Player Personnel Whitey Dovell, who passed away on May 11th. The team also paints the number "86" on the field at Arrowhead Stadium to honor the memory of Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan, who passed away on July 16th.

WWD Patch

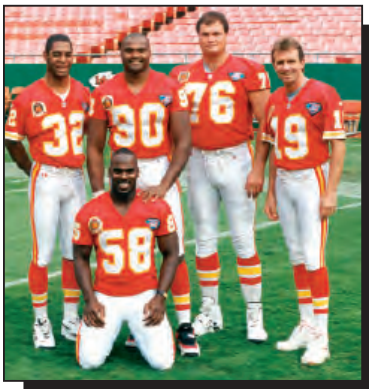

1994 – Solid fabric jerseys complete with "tackle twill" numerals and letters return, taking the place of mesh jerseys and heat-transfer characters. All NFL teams wear "NFL Diamond Anniversary" patches on their left upper chest in honor of the league's 75th season. The Chiefs also wear a "35th Anniversary" patch on their right upper chest in celebration of the franchise's 35th season. The patch features the AFL, Texans and Chiefs logos. It marks the first time in team history the club has worn two different patches in the same season. Kansas City also wears "Throwback" uniforms – replicas of the club's '63 attire – for games at Atlanta (9/18/94) and vs. St. Louis (9/25/94).

75th Anniversary Patch

35th Anniversary Patch

RB Marcus Allen (32), DE Neil Smith (90), T John Alt (76), QB Joe Montana (19) and LB Derrick Thomas (58) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '93 season. These '94 jerseys were the first uniforms in team history to feature a pair of commemorative patches. Note that Smith, Alt and Thomas have made their own "fashion statements" by rolling up their sleeves. Three members of this quintet (Allen, Montana and Thomas) are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, while Alt and Smith are all enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

1999 – The club wears a "40th Anniversary" patch in honor of the franchise's 40th season. The patch features the AFL and Chiefs logos.

40th Anniversary Patch

2000 – The Chiefs wear a circular sticker bearing the number "58" on the back of their helmets in memory of LB Derrick Thomas, who passed away on February 8th. Ever mindful of Stram's legacy and the franchise's glory days, Head Coach Gunther Cunningham receives Hunt's blessing to revert back to the red pants on the road. The resurrected red pants debut in a 23-22 win at Denver (9/24/00) and remain part of the club's road attire.

58 Sticker

U.S. Flag Sticker

2001 – A sticker bearing the American Flag returns to the back of all NFL helmets following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. The flag reappears on Chiefs helmets vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01) and remains there to this day.

2002 – The Chiefs wear a "40th Anniversary in Kansas City" patch vs. Oakland (10/27/02), commemorating the franchise's 40th season in Mid-America. "The Scout" - Kansas City's most recognizable civic icon - is prominently featured on the patch along with Kansas City's downtown skyline. The NFL Equipment Shield replaces the NFL Shield on jerseys and pants.

40th Anniversary in KC Patch

Pat Tillman Sticker

2004 – The Chiefs wear a "40" decal on their helmets vs. Carolina (9/19/04) in honor of former Arizona Cardinals S Pat Tillman. Tillman left the Cardinals prior to the 2002 season and became a member of the elite Army Ranger unit. He was killed in the line of duty serving his country in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

2005 – The Chiefs wear a circular sticker on their helmets all season bearing the initials "HS" in honor of Hall of Fame Head Coach Hank Stram who passed away on July 4th. Stram compiled a 124-76-10 regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Texans and the Kansas City Chiefs from '60-74. He guided the franchise to four AFL titles, two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl IV. One of the most distinguished gentlemen and unique personalities in pro football history, Stram's legacy was remembered all season with the "HS" decal. All NFL teams wear a "Fútbol Americano" decal on their helmets on the weekend of October 2nd to mark the NFL's first regular season game played outside of the United States. Arizona defeated San Francisco by a 31-14 margin in that contest played at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca.

2006 – The Chiefs wear white jerseys and white pants on opening day vs. Cincinnati (9/10/06) in an effort to make the Bengals wear their dark uniforms on a potentially hot and muggy day. It marks the first time that even Founder Lamar Hunt can recall the club wearing the white-on-white uniform combination at home. The most recent time the club had dressed in such attire was in a road contest at Seattle (12/26/99). It was also the first time that the Chiefs had donned white jerseys at home since '80. While the premise is sound, the weather conditions aren't a factor in the contest with a kickoff temperature of 67 degrees under cloudy skies.

After the passing of Hunt on December 13th, the Chiefs utilize a helmet decal for the remainder of the season bearing the initials "LH" to honor the franchise's Founder. Kansas City first wears the helmet decal at San Diego (12/17/06). The club also reverts to the white jersey/white pants combination for its final two regular season road games and its postseason contest at Indianapolis (1/6/07). The move is in part to honor Hunt, who appreciated the "classic" look of that uniform combination.

Lamar Hunt Patch

2007 – Clark Hunt commissions a patch that the Chiefs wore on their uniforms in 2007 to honor his father's memory. The design of the patch is historically significant. The patch prominently features the American Football League logo to serve as a reminder of Hunt's formation of the AFL and the lasting impact the American Football League has made on the game of professional football. True to Hunt's humble spirit, the letters "LH" are subtly displayed on the patch, symbolizing the fact that the Chiefs Founder always put the best interests of the league ahead of his own. The patch is affixed on the left chest of both Kansas City's home and away jerseys, meaning this piece of woven symbolism will always be over the heart of every Chiefs player. Beginning with a game vs. San Diego (12/2/07), the Chiefs and other NFL teams wear a number 21 decal on their helmets for the final five games of the season to honor Washington S Sean Taylor. Taylor, who was coming off a Pro Bowl season in 2006 was killed in his home in Miami on November 26th.

2008 – On January 31st, Clark Hunt announces that the Lamar Hunt patch will become a permanent part of the Chiefs uniform, beginning with the 2008 NFL season. All NFL teams wear a patch to honor the late Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw on Kickoff Weekend. The former Executive Director of the NFL Players Association passed away on August 20th. Beginning with the Chiefs contest the following week vs. Oakland (9/14/08), a decal bearing Upshaw's initials is worn on all helmets for the remainder of the season.

50th Anniversary Patch

2009 – On April 14th, the Chiefs unveil their "50th Anniversary" patch that was worn on the club's jerseys for 13 games in 2009. The patch features a gold 50, as well as a Chiefs logo and an outline of the State of Texas, representing the only two logos that have ever appeared on the franchise's helmets. Kansas City wears replicas of the club's '62 Dallas Texans attire for AFL Legacy Games vs. Dallas (10/11/09), vs. San Diego (10/25/09) and at Oakland (11/15/09). The look is completed with replica Texans helmets that feature gray facemasks and a Texas-shaped decal with a gold star on Dallas. Jerseys for these three AFL Rivalry games feature a special "AFL 50th Anniversary" patch, featuring the original American Football League logo.

2012 – On April 3rd, Nike became the National Football League's exclusive maker of licensed on-field apparel. With the transition to Nike, the club made a few changes to the looks of the traditional Chiefs uniforms. The numbers on the new uniforms moved from the jersey sleeve to the top of the shoulder while the traditional stripe on the sleeve increased in thickness.

2013 – As a sign of new energy at Arrowhead Stadium, Head Coach Andy Reid receives permission from Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt to have the team wear red pants with its home red tops in the 2013 home opener against Dallas (9/15/13). It marks the first time in franchise history that the team wore the red-on-red uniform combination. For the team's postseason game at Indianapolis (1/4/14), the Chiefs captains donned "C" patches on their jerseys.

2015 – For the team's final four regular season games, the Chiefs wore white jerseys with white pants and red socks for the first time since 1994. It was the first time the team wore white pants and white jerseys in the regular season since Week 10 in 2012. The Chiefs also brought back the "C" patches for the two postseason games, following the tradition established in the 2013 postseason.

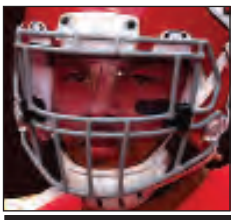

60th Season Helmet Sticker

2019 – In honor of the club's 60th season, the franchise introduced a special 60th season logo that was featured prominently in the team's branding, as well as a helmet sticker throughout the entire year. The logo features a combination of the Lamar Hunt patch, "60 seasons" text, the traditional arrowhead "KC" logo, along with six stars, each representing a decade of Chiefs football. The 2019 campaign also marked the NFL's centennial season, and the league replaced the standard NFL shield on jersey collars with a metallic/reflective NFL100 logo. The league also replaced NFL shield stickers on the back of helmets with NFL100 stickers. On November 3, as the Chiefs took on the Minnesota Vikings at Arrowhead Stadium, the Chiefs replaced their traditional white facemasks in favor of gray facemasks as a tribute to the club's victory over the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV and in celebration of the club's 60th season. The team's helmets featured gray facemasks from 1960 until the change to white facemasks in 1974.

Social Justice Decals

2020 – In response to an unprecedented offseason and to honor the historic social justice movement and community engagement of NFL players and clubs, all NFL players, coaches and officials were given the opportunity to honor victims of systemic racism, victims of police brutality, as well as social justice heroes with helmet stickers and patches. More than 1,400 players and 300 coaches and officials, including dozens of Chiefs players and coaches, selected names or phrases to participate. Players also had the opportunity to wear warmup t-shirts with the unifying messages "Injustice Against One of Us, Is Injustice Against All of Us" and "END RACISM."

2021 – For the December 16 game (Week 15) the Chiefs wore white-on-white uniforms with gray facemasks in their overtime win at Los Angeles versus the Chargers. The team's helmets featured gray facemasks from 1960 until the change to white facemasks in 1974. It is believed the last time Kansas City wore white-on-white with gray facemasks was Week 16 (12/17/67) at Denver in 1967.

Rare Combination of White on White Uniforms with Gray Facemasks

2022 - The Chiefs honored former Chiefs and Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson by wearing a number 16 helmet decal after Dawson passed before the Chiefs preseason game against the Packers (8/25/22). Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes and the team opened the preseason game with Dawson's signature choir huddle as a tribute. The team wore the number 16 decal for the remainder of the 2022 season. In Weeks 4 and 5 of the 2022 season, the NFL set in motion an initiative to celebrate the growing number of nationalities and cultures that are included in the NFL. Players and coaches were able to select a helmet decal to represent the country or territory's flag that holds meaning to them or their heritage. Over 200 players, coaches and executives participated, including five Chiefs players: George Karlaftis (Greece), Derrick Nnadi (Nigeria), JuJu Smith-Schuster (Somoa), Prince Tega Wanogho (Nigeria) and Joshua Williams (St. Kitts & Nevis). Many Chiefs players joined in throughout the remainder of the season to represent their heritage.

Norma Hunt Patch

ORIGIN OF THE TERM "SUPER BOWL"

Lamar Hunt left an indelible mark on professional football. While Hunt made many lasting contributions to the game, part of his legacy will be his "accidental" naming of pro football's most important contest, the Super Bowl. As the story has been told and retold over the years, some of the facts have gotten lost along the way. Here are some of the most important elements of the tale in how the Super Bowl got its name...

- After the AFL-NFL merger was announced in June of 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle appointed a committee consisting of himself, Lamar Hunt (Kansas City), Tex Schramm (Dallas) and two other owners from each league (AFL & NFL) to firm up the details of the merger agreement.

Pete Rozelle and Lamar Hunt both played pivotal roles in shaping professional football.

- At one of those initial merger meetings, there was a discussion about the date of the game. As the committee discussed the championship game (which ultimately became referenced as the Super Bowl), there was some confusion on whether the parties were discussing the respective AFL and NFL title games or the game between the two leagues. It was then that Hunt first recalled saying, "You know, the last game, the final game . . . the Super Bowl."

- The "inspiration" for Hunt's whimsical suggestion was the high-bouncing "Super Ball" produced by the Wham-O company. Lamar's wife, Norma, had previously purchased one for each of the Hunt children (Lamar Jr., Clark and Sharron) and the toy had become somewhat of a craze in the Hunt household and many other homes across the country.

- Hunt was later quoted as saying, "Nobody ever said let's make that the name of the game. Far from it, we all agreed it was far too corny to be the name of the new title game."

- In a letter from Hunt to Rozelle on July 25, 1966, Hunt urged the commissioner to "coin a phrase" for the title game between the two leagues. In the letter, Hunt said, "I have kiddingly called it the Super Bowl, which can obviously be improved upon."

- Rozelle agreed with Hunt's suggestion since he had a particular disdain for the term "super." According to longtime NFL executive Don Weiss, Rozelle was a former PR man who had a keen appreciation of grammar. In Rozelle's book, "super" was the equivalent of "gee whiz" or "neat." He believed that the term "Super Bowl" had no sophistication whatsoever.

- Rozelle was initially inclined to call the game the "Pro Bowl," but that moniker was already assigned to the NFL's annual all-star contest.

- In the years leading up to the merger, many members of the media had billed a possible championship match-up between the two rival leagues as a "World Series of Football," but Rozelle clearly did not want to have his game associated with baseball.

- After much consternation and debate, Rozelle eventually dubbed the title contest between the two leagues as "The AFL-NFL World Championship Game." However, Hunt's whimsical, off-the-cuff comment had taken root. In the weeks leading up to the game, headline writers had already adapted Hunt's two-word title over the much more verbose official moniker for the game. The TV networks billed the game as "Super Sunday" and even NFL Films tagged their film reels as being designated for the "Super Bowl."

- After the first two "AFL-NFL World Championship Games," the term "Super Bowl" was officially adopted by Commissioner Rozelle and the NFL. The first game to officially be designated as the Super Bowl at the time it was played was Super Bowl III between the AFL's Jets and the NFL's Colts. The first two championship games were retroactively named Super Bowls I & II.

SUPER BALLS WITH SUPER BOWL CHAMPS

The influence of Lamar Hunt on the naming of the Super Bowl took center stage in December, 2022 as Peyton Manning and the crew of ESPN's mini-show "Peyton's Places" joined Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt, Head Coach Andy Reid, QB Patrick Mahomes and former Chiefs Offensive Coordinator Eric Bieniemy to bring the story to life.

The jovial episode aired on December 24, 2022, and featured the show's host and PFHOF QB Peyton Manning. Mahomes and Manning were seen throwing the Super Balls that inspired the name of the Super Bowl off of the top of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, testing their bouncing ability and jokingly hitting Reid and Bieniemy's golf cart. Bieniemy remarked, "Are those some teenage pranksters?" To which Reid replied with a smile, "That's our franchise quarterback and a 46-year-old retiree," before driving away from the shenanigans of Mahomes and Manning.

The two quarterbacks then upped the ante by dropping 10,000 Super Balls from a helicopter and igniting a cacophony of bouncing and fun.

The Christmas themed episode also featured Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt retelling the story of his father's legacy of naming the Super Bowl as Hunt, Mahomes and Manning gathered around the Christmas tree in Hunt's stadium apartment, all

2023 NFL DRAFT IN KANSAS CITY

NATIONAL ATTENTION

Over the last weekend in April, the NFL took the 2023 Draft to Kansas City. In conjunction with the NFL, the Kansas City Chiefs, Union Station, Visit KC, the Kansas City Sports Commission and local event partners were proud to welcome the 2023 NFL Draft to Kansas City's historic Union Station, the National WWI Museum and Memorial and the downtown Kansas City area. The main stage sat in front of Union Station and was the largest stage built for any NFL Draft to date. The NFL Draft Experience took place on the south side of the National WWI Museum and Memorial, featuring interactive exhibits, autograph sessions, photo opportunities with the Vince Lombardi Trophy and more.

According to the NFL, the 2023 Draft footprint was roughly 3.1 million square feet. The area contained 7.5 miles of temporary fence lines and 1.5 miles of concrete barrier. It took more than 500 semi-trailer loads to transport all the gear, which included 168 loudspeakers and subwoofer enclosures, 10,018 square feet of screens and 1,433 LED panels. This was the largest footprint to date for an NFL Draft.

During the three-day event, 312,000 fans were in attendance -- the second-biggest crowd in NFL Draft history at the time. On top of the hundreds of thousands of fans watching in person, there were 54 million viewers across the three platforms that were broadcasting the 2023 NFL Draft -- ABC, ESPN and NFL Network. Viewership was up 13% from the previous year's Draft on the first night with approximately 11.29 million viewers tuning in at home.

Since taking the Draft to football cities, the NFL has also engaged with the local community. According to Director, NFL Environmental Program Jack Groh, the league's four community greening projects that took place in Kansas City around the Draft were the most they have done in a host city to date. On top of the community greening projects, the league hosted a plethora of other community events from character-building initiatives to youth football events and food distribution. The NFL aimed to leave a lasting, positive legacy in Kansas City and throughout the state of Missouri.

CHIEFS FLARE

As reigning Super Bowl champions, the Chiefs got the unique distinction of being able to continue their victory celebration while hosting the NFL Draft. Since the Draft became a traveling event in 2015, no host city was able to showcase the Lombardi Trophy the home team won only a couple of months before. Kansas City became the first, hence getting the privilege to bring in a couple of stars to bask in the glory.

To help NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell kick off the 2023 NFL Draft, comedian Heidi Gardner and actor Eric Stonestreet -- both Kansas City natives and life-long Chiefs fans -- stepped to the podium to address the crowd. Gardner and Stonestreet were then followed by franchise QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce and the Lombardi Trophy. Chiefs legends Dante Hall and Will Shields were also a part of the opening festivities. Later in the night, Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt brought the Lombardi out for one last good measure to announce the club's first-round pick, DE Felix Anudike-Uzomah. Ironically, Anudike-Uzomah grew up in Kansas City, played collegiately at Kansas State and has been a die-hard Chiefs fan his entire life.

CHIEFS KINGDOM EXPERIENCE

Uniquely positioned with a view of the NFL Draft Theater that was built in front of the iconic Union Station, the Chiefs Kingdom Experience offered fans the chance to explore Kansas City's rich football culture, while also offering immersive experiences. The largest on-site, club-sponsored Draft activation in NFL history, the space had a distinct Chiefs feel, with flags recreating the architectural styling of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and experiences that brought gameday to life for fans throughout the weekend.

2023 NFL DRAFT IN KANSAS CITY

The Chiefs had a handful of friends help announce the club's draftees to the world. As previously mentioned, Eric Stonestreet was in attendance and was on stage to announce a pick on the third day. The first -- and only -- father-son duo both to be selected in the first round by the same team, Chiefs Legends Ed and Brad Budde, also announced a selection for the team. Other announcers included: Influencer James Droz, City Year Reps Nicole Matos and Madison Wilson, Chiefs German Fan Pascal Lippert and Chiefs Season Ticket Members the Deghand's Family.

The club was also able to invite other local partners to take part in larger league initiatives surrounding the NFL Draft such as handing out hats to draftees before they walked out on stage and assisting Commissioner Goodell on stage when he was announcing a pick. Some of those partners included: Chiefs High School Girls FLAG student-athletes Anneliesse Murphy (Leavenworth High School), Bethany Uribe (North Kansas City High School) and Cora Westebrook (Lee Summit West HS) along with high school student-athletes Mac Armstrong (Bishop Miege), Kendrick Bell (Park Hill), Mikey Bergeron (Mill Valley), Chandavian Bradley (Platte County), Isaiah Coppage (Bishop Miege), Melvin Laster (Liberty North), Joshua Manning (Lee's Summit), Logan Reichert (Raytown) and Dirac Tsafack (Center).

LOCAL IMPACT

Kansas City had never held a sports-related event that attracted as many as 100,000 spectators, much less one that would average that figure over a three-day period. The 2023 NFL Draft brought thousands of football fans across the country -- and across the world -- to the epicenter of Chiefs Kingdom. There was no surprise at the comments made about Kansas Citians' hospitality. NFL spokesman Brian McCarthy said in a statement:

"The sights and smells of the Kansas City Draft will forever be remembered by the fans in attendance, but also by those of us in the league office who are so thankful to the members of the local community for their hard work and hospitality. The success of the 2023 Draft was a testament to the collaboration and cooperation of thousands of people, led by the Chiefs, Kathy Nelson and the Kansas City Sports Commission, sponsors and local law enforcement officials and organizers. Kansas City took advantage of what has become one of the most-anticipated events of the year and the most-watched sporting event of the week and showcased not only its planning capabilities, but its people and passion."

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular season schedule was reduced from 16 to nine games. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based on their records during the season.

AFC Championship: Miami 14, N.Y. Jets 0
NFC Championship: Washington 31, Dallas 17
Super Bowl XVII: Washington 27, Miami 17

CHIEFS ON MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

RECORD: 30-21 (.588)

The second-ever regular season telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football featured the defending World Champion Kansas City Chiefs at the Baltimore Colts (9/28/70). While Don McCafferty's Colts eventually went on to defeat the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, the Chiefs would get a convincing 44-24 win in this primetime showdown. Four of QB Len Dawson's pass attempts on the night went for TDs. The Chiefs forced seven Baltimore turnovers, including three interceptions by S Johnny Robinson and two by CB Emmitt Thomas, allowing RB Ed Podolak to grind out the game.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAMES

Lamar Hunt's longtime efforts to secure a Thanksgiving Day game at Arrowhead Stadium became a reality when the club defeated Denver 19-10 in Arrowhead's first-ever Thanksgiving contest (11/23/06). The holiday match-up between two longtime AFC West rivals marked the NFL Network's first live regular season game broadcast and drew a paid attendance of 79,484, the fifth-largest crowd for a regular season game in Arrowhead history. Kansas City hosted a trio of Thanksgiving Day games at Municipal Stadium, including a 31-17 victory vs. Denver (11/27/69) that included a 53-yard return of an onside kick for a TD by LB Bobby Bell. On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/28/96), Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen became the NFL's all-time leader in rushing TDs, registering his 111th ground score on a one-yard run to bypass RB Walter Payton's previous record, a mark that was later bypassed by RB Emmitt Smith.

GOVERNOR'S CUP SERIES

From the '68 preseason through the 2015 preseason, the Chiefs faced their in-state rivals from St. Louis in 46 "Governor's Cup" contests. From '68-87, Kansas City faced the St. Louis Cardinals every preseason and also met the Cardinals in regular season play four times while that franchise was stationed on Missouri's "Eastern Shore" before it moved to Arizona for the start of the '88 campaign. After the Rams moved to St. Louis in '95, the "Governor's Cup" series was renewed during the '96 preseason. Following the 2015 season, the Rams relocated back to Los Angeles, giving the Chiefs a winning record versus their "Show-Me State" rivals.

CHIEFS IN INTERNATIONAL CONTESTS

NFL INTERNATIONAL GAMES

In 2005, the NFL held its first regular season game outside the United States when the Arizona Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers met at Estadio Azteca in Mexico City. In 2007, the league introduced its International Series with regular season games taking place at Wembley Stadium in London. The London Series expanded to two additional stadiums, Twickenham Stadium - the home of England Rugby, and Tottenham Hotspur Stadium - a joint partnership between the NFL and the Premier League's Tottenham Hotspur. In 2016, the NFL returned to Mexico with the start of the NFL Mexico Series.

The Chiefs have played in two regular season International Series games, taking on the Detroit Lions in London in 2015 and playing against the Los Angeles Chargers in Mexico City in 2019. The club was scheduled to play against the Los Angeles Rams in Mexico City during the 2018 season, but the game was moved back to the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum due to field conditions that did not meet NFL standards at Estadio Azteca. The club holds a 2-0 record in regular season International Series games.

On Thursday, January 19, 2023, the NFL announced that the Chiefs were designated to play one of two international games in Germany during the 2023 season. It was confirmed on Wednesday, May 10 that the Chiefs would face the Miami Dolphins on Sunday, November 5, 2023 at Frankfurt Stadium in Frankfurt, Germany. The contest was the first of two 2023 Germany NFL games and the second overall NFL game hosted in Germany since the league awarded International Home Marketing Area rights for the country in December of 2021.

"We are incredibly excited to put the Kansas City Chiefs and all of Chiefs Kingdom on the international stage with a Germany game in 2023," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said at the time of the NFL's announcement that the club would play in Germany. "We've aggressively pursued this opportunity because we know how passionate German fans are about NFL football and we're committed to the international growth of the game as well as our brand. We think we'll be able to provide the right mix of opportunities for our existing Season Ticket Members and domestic fans while also creating unique experiences that will make this memorable for German fans as well."

Wembley Stadium • London, England

Detroit Lions	3	0	0	7	—	10
Kansas City Chiefs	7	17	7	14	—	45

Kansas City's first regular season international contest featured an offensive explosion and stifling defense. The Chiefs had four different players score rushing touchdowns and had over 200 total rushing yards as a team, while the defense forced two QB Matthew Stafford interceptions. Just prior to landing in Kansas City following the game, the Chiefs learned that the Kansas City Royals beat the New York Mets in Game 5 to win the 2015 World Series.

Kansas City Chiefs	0	10	14	0	—	24
Los Angeles Chargers	3	6	8	0	—	17

After missing out on the NFL's Mexico game in 2018 due to poor field conditions, the Chiefs competed in an AFC West matchup at Estadio Azteca in 2019. The Chiefs defense forced four QB Philip Rivers interceptions and recorded 2.0 sacks, while TE Travis Kelce was the bright spot for the Chiefs offense with seven receptions for 92 yards with a touchdown. RBs Darrel Williams and LeSean McCoy each added a rushing touchdown.

Miami Dolphins	0	0	14	0	—	14
Kansas City Chiefs	7	14	0	0	—	21

Kansas City started off hot scoring 21 unanswered points in the first half, six coming from a defensive touchdown after stripping Dolphins WR Tyreek Hill. In the second half, the offense slowed down. However, Kansas City's defense held their own and allowed only 14 points the whole game, which was enough for KC to hold on to the win.

THE AMERICAN BOWL

Between 1986 and 2005, the NFL held a series of preseason games at sites outside the United States under the American Bowl banner. Designed to promote American football in other countries, the series eventually featured games in England, Japan, Canada, Germany, Spain, Mexico, Ireland and Australia. The Chiefs appeared in four American Bowl games, the first in 1990, and the last in 1998, playing in Berlin, West Germany; Monterrey, Mexico; and twice in Tokyo, Japan. The Chiefs hold a 1-3 record in American Bowl contests.

Kansas City's initial American Bowl expedition featured heavy doses of culture but little offense as the Rams prevailed by a 19-3 margin. RB Barry Word made his first appearance in a Kansas City uniform, pairing with the league's leading rusher in '89, RB Christian Okoye to form the quintessential "Martyball" backfield. However, the Chiefs only points would come on a 19-yard FG by K Bjorn Nittmo.

Kansas City's first appearance on Japanese soil was a rematch of Super Bowl IV, but Minnesota prevailed in this contest thanks to a pair of interceptions. Chiefs QB Matt Blundin accounted for the club's only TD when he connected with rookie WR Lake Dawson for a 40-yard score. Kansas City then attempted a two-point conversion for the first time since '69 as the NFL finally implemented the old AFL two-point rule in '94.

The Chiefs defense stifles the defending Super Bowl champions, allowing the Cowboys just five first downs. Kansas City's offense piles up 514 yards of total offense, including 173 rushing yards, while Dallas manages 214 total yards on the day as the Chiefs convert the partisan crowd of Cowboys fans into supporters of the "Jefes de Kansas City" or Kansas City Chiefs.

Kansas City's roster features Japanese national players TE Nachi Abe and WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai.

CHIEFS EXPAND THE KINGDOM

In December 2021, the NFL - under the leadership of the International Committee - announced that 19 teams were granted access to 10 International Home Marketing Areas (IHMA). The groundbreaking, new initiative granted clubs access to international territories for marketing, fan engagement and commercialization as part of an important, long-term, strategic effort to enable clubs to build their global brands while driving NFL fan growth internationally. Now known as the Global Markets Program in its second year in 2023, the NFL has expanded to 21 teams across 14 international markets.

As part of the Global Markets Program, clubs have access to international markets for at least a five-year term, during which a club will have rights to pursue activities in that international market that are consistent with what they can do in their domestic HMA (home marketing area). This includes in-person and digital marketing, corporate sponsorship sales, fan events and activations, youth football activities, merchandise sales and co-marketing relationships with other sports and entertainment properties in the market.

As part of the announcement, it was confirmed that the Chiefs bid on and received Global Markets Program rights for Germany and Mexico as part of the global growth of professional football. Beginning on January 1, 2022, the club could begin activating elements of its marketing plans in both countries, including posting on new localized Chiefs social media channels to engage fans, unveil market/language-specific digital properties (Chiefs.com and Chiefs Mobile app), begin paid advertising campaigns, sign local sponsorship deals, extend domestic sponsors internationally and align with local agencies with on-the-ground knowledge and expertise.

"We are thrilled with the league's announcement today that the Chiefs have secured the international marketing rights to both Germany and Mexico," Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt said at the time. "My father, Lamar, founded the Chiefs and the American Football League in 1960 to introduce pro football to new fans in new regions of the country. Over the last three decades, the Chiefs have been at the forefront of the NFL's global growth initiatives – building on the legacy of our founder to bring America's game to new fans in new places. We look forward to building relationships with fans in Germany and Mexico and continuing to share the best of Chiefs Kingdom around the world."

Longer-term, the club plans to invest in growing its fanbase in both markets through on-site activations and fan events, support and grow local youth FLAG Football participation, launch local merchandise sales initiatives, establish partnerships with existing fan clubs, create local community and social initiatives, as well as explore opportunities to play regular season games in the markets as part of the NFL's new rotation of International Series games.

"We are currently enjoying the most successful period in franchise history, with some of the top players and coaches on the field as well as the support of a talented and dedicated business operations staff, and we believe we are uniquely positioned to be a leader in the NFL's global growth," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said. "We have an internal committee which has been leading our international efforts for multiple years and today's announcement not only recognizes the hard work that went into this bid process, but it also signals the start of an exciting challenge for our team and opportunity for our fan base in the coming years."

In April 2023, the NFL granted the Chiefs the ability to expand their Global Markets Program presence beyond Germany to include Austria and Switzerland as part of the DACH region.

The Chiefs and the Hunt family have been involved in numerous international initiatives over the past three decades, investing in growing the game and its fanbase globally and helping showcase the best of the sport on the international stage. In addition to appearing in two International Series regular season games since 2015, as well as playing in four American Bowl preseason contests, Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt currently sits on the NFL's International Committee. From 2011-18, he served as the Chairman, advocating for the expansion of the league's international efforts and the NFL's footprint overseas. At the conclusion of the 2022 season, all 32 teams had played at least once internationally since 2011.

INAUGURAL INTERNATIONAL EXPANSION ADVISORY BOARD

After securing Global Markets Program rights for Germany and Mexico in December 2021, the Kansas City Chiefs announced six members appointed to the club's inaugural International Expansion Advisory Board in Germany. The club has plans to develop a complementary advisory board for the Mexico market in the future.

The group of professionals comes from varied backgrounds across Germany and provides market-specific subject matter expertise as the club eyes continued growth and expansion of Chiefs Kingdom in the country. The advisory board evaluates and provides feedback on club marketing, business development and communications plans, as well as helps the team forge deeper relationships with key stakeholders among brands, media, sports federations, fan groups and non-profit organizations.

"This is a proud day for the Chiefs franchise and the Hunt family as the club has supported and invested in the global growth of American football and its fanbase for more than 30 years," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said at the time of the advisory board announcement. "Our club's goals for international expansion require a thoughtful, long-term commitment to Germany and its football fans. We are thrilled to introduce this group of dedicated, innovative leaders who will help advise us on our current and future efforts in the market to reach and exceed those goals. We have much to learn and look forward to getting started."

The board members include, in alphabetical order: Jana Bernhard, Chief Executive Officer, S20; Holger Blask, Managing Director, Marketing and Sales, Deutscher Fußball Bund; Andreas Jung, Executive Board Member, FC Bayern Munich; Marco Klewenhagen, Managing Director, SPONSORs; Wolfram Kons, Head of Charity and Vice President, RTL Foundation – We help children; and Karsten Petry, Chief Marketing and Sales Officer, Deutsche Sporthilfe.

"The Kansas City Chiefs have shown great commitment to the growth of American football in Germany. FC Bayern understands the value of having an international presence to learn and advise on how to better connect with local fans, which can be seen with our offices in New York, Shanghai and Bangkok. I look forward to working with the Chiefs Advisory Board, offering strategic guidance and support," Andreas Jung, FC Bayern Munich Executive Board Member, said.

"I am delighted to join the Chiefs Advisory Board in Germany along with some great leaders in sport to support the global growth of American football and the NFL," Jana Bernhard, S20 Chief Executive Officer, said.

The board meets quarterly, with a focus on aligning around key events in both the NFL calendar and in Germany.

GEHA FIELD AT ARROWHEAD STADIUM

1972 - PRESENT / FULLY RENOVATED IN 2010

GEHA FIELD AT ARROWHEAD

On March 4, 2021, the Kansas City Chiefs and GEHA (Government Employees Health Association, Inc., pronounced G.E.H.A.) jointly announced a historic naming rights agreement that made the nonprofit medical and dental plan provider the first - and exclusive - naming rights partner for Arrowhead Stadium. Beginning with the 2021 season, the home of the Chiefs became GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

The announcement expanded on the already robust partnership between GEHA and the Chiefs, which had grown significantly since the relationship was first announced in July 2019, when GEHA became the club's Exclusive Health, Dental and Vision Plan Partner. The agreement also highlighted the commitment of both GEHA and the Chiefs to ensuring Arrowhead Stadium remained part of the identity of the stadium.

"We are extremely proud and excited to announce our naming rights agreement with GEHA. When we set out to find a partner for the field at Arrowhead, it was critical to identify a national leader that shares our core values, as well as a deep connection to the local community and respect for Chiefs Kingdom," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said at the time of the announcement. "Our relationship with GEHA over the last few years has only served to reinforce the alignment between our two organizations and proven their strong, long-standing relationship with the local community. This expanded partnership will continue to build lasting health and wellness programs that support the team, GEHA and our community."

GEHA is a national leader in providing medical and dental plans to more than two million federal employees, retired military and their families worldwide. Both GEHA and the Chiefs are deeply committed to promoting their missions of driving and supporting health and wellness and this naming rights agreement provides a highly visible platform to support GEHA's efforts to empower its members to be healthy and well.

"Expanding our commitment to the team and community with naming rights for GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium is the natural extension of the partnership we first put in place with the Chiefs in 2019," Shannon Horgan, GEHA's chief growth officer, said at the time of the announcement. "Through our relationship with the Chiefs, we have been able to accelerate awareness of GEHA's mission, the breadth of our provider networks, and the quality of our health plans. The opportunity to grow our brand helps us reinvest in the families and individuals we serve and will be an invaluable benefit to current and future GEHA members. Expanding this partnership will help GEHA do what we do best – serve those who serve us."

Throughout the 2021 offseason, team and stadium staff worked with GEHA and Kansas City-based architecture and design firm Populous on the development of a signage package that was in place for the 2021 season. The most notable sign is likely one that most fans will never have seen in person – a 147-foot wide sign comprised of 18-foot tall illuminated letters on top of the press box – offering unique aerial visuals for network TV coverage.

Municipal Stadium served as the original home of the Chiefs in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the 1967 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the 1971 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of 1971, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

Municipal Stadium was demolished in 1976 and was originally replaced by a municipal garden. Today, much of the site has been redeveloped with new single-family homes. Although the stadium is no longer standing, its history and significance to the Kansas City sports scene has been commemorated in Monarch Plaza, which stands at the corner of E. 22nd and Brooklyn Ave. In 2019, as part of the Chiefs celebration of 100 years of the National Football League and 60 seasons in franchise history, the club replaced an aging Municipal Stadium marker at Monarch Plaza with a brand new historical marker highlighting the teams that called the former stadium home.

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in 1963 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys. The facility served until 1999 as a home field for SMU, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

Situated on the site of the State Fair of Texas, the stadium was also the longtime home of the annual college football bowl game known as the Cotton Bowl Classic, and also hosts the Red River Showdown, the annual college football game between the Oklahoma Sooners and the Texas Longhorns. In addition, the venue has been the home stadium for professional soccer's Dallas Tornado (NASL), the Dallas Burn and FC Dallas (MLS), and it was one of nine venues to host the 1994 FIFA World Cup.

ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, originally known as Arrowhead Stadium, opened its doors for the first time on Aug. 12, 1972 as the Kansas City Chiefs hosted the St. Louis Cardinals in front of 78,190 fans for a preseason game. Since that initial contest, much has changed at the iconic venue. Several innovative concepts have been discussed over the years, with some concepts put into action during multiple renovations and upgrades to the facility. While many modernizations have taken place, the spirit of the stadium remains the same as it was for that first preseason football game in 1972.

Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

1967: In the late 1960s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in 1967, which included plans for a revolutionary concept – the world's first rolling stadium roof. Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold.

1984: The Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome – this time made of fabric – but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

1994: Under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time.

1999: The stadium saw its first seat upgrade, replacing all 33,975 seats in the upper level and all 35,277 seats in the lower level.

2000: Prior to the 2000 season, all 10,199 club level seats were replaced.

2006: On April 4, 2006, Jackson County, Mo., taxpayers approved a 3/8 cent sales tax that was expected to raise $425 million for improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead. The State of Missouri also contributed $37.5 million. In addition, the Hunt family contributed $125 million to the project.

2010: Upgrades were officially done prior to the start of the 2010 season and included Founder's Plaza, the Ford Fan Zone, the Chiefs Sports Lab, the Chiefs Hall of Honor, the Founder's Club, the CommunityAmerica Club Level and a new team store. Other improvements included an upgraded sound and scoreboard system, a 360-degree video ribbon board and concourses that were doubled in size.

2013: The club introduced a stadium-wide Wi-Fi network at Arrowhead, installing 600 high-density wireless access points as part of a seven-figure investment to create a more fully integrated mobile experience for Chiefs fans. Arrowhead Wi-Fi changed the way fans consume Chiefs content in-stadium, and also changed the way fans interact with the team and each other. The Wi-Fi network received an upgrade over two years in 2017 and 2018.

2019: Prior to the 2019 season, the Chiefs committed more than $10 million in upgrades to the stadium, including concrete repairs and new waterproofing measures in the stadium's upper level. In addition, the club replaced most seats in the upper deck with a newer version that includes cupholders, and in some cases, wider seats. The club also upgraded the technology in the west scoreboard to state-of-the-art LED technology that offers an enhanced screen image for fans in Arrowhead. The team introduced the GEHA Drum Deck, moving the club's pregame drum tradition from field-level to a more prominent location in the upper deck in the west endzone.

2020: In the week following Kansas City's AFC Championship Game victory on Jan. 19, 2020, the club announced multiple offseason projects to get Arrowhead ready for the 2020 season, including new seats in the lower bowl and a few sections in the upper bowl that weren't replaced in 2019; a technology upgrade to the east end zone scoreboard; enclosing multiple open-air field box suites; and an expanded Team Store. Additional offseason work that was scheduled, including a renovation to the home locker room was put on hold due to the coronavirus pandemic.

2021: The club finished the third phase of the three-year seat replacement project by installing all new seats on the CommunityAmerica Club Level. The team also completed a massive renovation to the home locker room complex inside the stadium, including not only the Chiefs locker room, but the equipment room, athletic training room and the coaches' locker rooms as well. After a decade as the preeminent space dedicated to Chiefs and AFL history, the Chiefs Hall of Honor on the lower level concourse of the stadium received a substantial upgrade, providing a more upscale, fully enclosed, temperature-controlled museum experience while creating a new special events space.

To this day, GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium remains one of the most iconic stadiums in the NFL, and these improvements ensure it is not only one of the nation's top venues for fans to experience the excitement of the NFL, but is also a year-round entertainment destination serving the entire Midwest region.

ARROWHEAD'S FOOTBALL TRADITION

GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium has been a destination for football afficionados since it opened in 1972. In addition to serving as the "Home of the Chiefs," the stadium has hosted or is scheduled to host a number different college football contests. The first college game played at the facility was a SWAC contest on October 14, 1972 in which Grambling defeated Mississippi Valley State in front of a crowd of 9,833. The Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship, an annual Missouri vs. Kansas "Border Showdown" and "The Fall Classic" between Division II powers Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State have all been past regular events at GEHA Field at Arrowhead. On January 30, 2024 the Kansas Jayhawks announced they would play their four conference home games at GEHA Field at Arrowhead stadium in 2024 while upgrades are made to their stadium complex. The facility also served as the site of the 1974 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

AFC	3	3	3	6	—	15

In conditions that were described as cold, but humid, coaches Tom Landry of Dallas (NFC) and John Madden of Oakland (AFC) watched their teams combine for 15 fumbles and four interceptions in the 1974 Pro Bowl at Arrowhead Stadium.

K Garo Yepremian of the Dolphins kicked a Pro Bowl-record five field goals, accounting for all 15 of the AFC's points en route to earning MVP honors. Yepremian's fourth field goal gave the AFC a 12-10 fourth-quarter lead, but RB O.J. Simpson's fumble minutes later would set up a 21-yard field goal for a 13-12 NFC lead with less than two minutes to play. Miami QB Bob Griese answered by driving the AFC into position for the winning score. Yepremian would split the uprights with just 0:21 remaining to give the AFC a 15-13 win.

THE BORDER SHOWDOWN
Missouri vs. Kansas

The Missouri-Kansas football series was at one point, the second-most played rivalry in college football history. This football rivalry originated in Kansas City on October 31, 1891 with a 22-10 Kansas win. Missouri leads the all-time series 57-54-9. A total of 26 contests in this 120-year rivalry have been played in Kansas City, including 19 of the first 20 games. In 2007, the clash once again called Kansas City home as GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium played host to the storied traditions of MU and KU for a five-year series.

KANSAS STATE VS. IOWA STATE

Kansas State University and Iowa State University reached an agreement to play regular season Big 12 Conference contests between the two schools at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium in 2009 and 2010. In the initial game of the series at Arrowhead, Kansas State blocked an Iowa State extra point attempt with 0:32 left on the clock to seal the Wildcats 24-23 victory. The 2010 contest resulted in a seven-point Kansas State victory as RB Daniel Thomas registered 34 carries for 189 yards and two TDs.

MIAA CONFERENCE SHOWDOWNS

First tabbed "The Clash of Champions," the original Fall Classic at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium paired perennial NCAA Division II powerhouses Pittsburg State and Northwest Missouri State in a Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association regular season contest from 2002-2013. After 12 consecutive contests against Pittsburg State, Northwest Missouri State faced Central Missouri in two MIAA matchups at Arrowhead in 2016-17. The inaugural contest in 2002 drew 26,695 fans, an unofficial NCAA Division II single-game attendance record. Northwest Missouri and Pittsburg State returned to the stadium in 2019 to renew the original "Fall Classic" matchup.

Only includes starts dating back to '68.*
Regular kicker or punter during that period.*

Notes: The Chiefs All-Time Roster includes all players who were on the active roster for at least one regular season game or playoff contest. Games Played/Games Started reflects regular season games only. It also includes players who accrued at least one season as a member of a reserve or injury list. The one exception to this criteria is RB Stone Johnson, who had his number 33 retired after suffering a fatal injury in a 1963 preseason contest. Jersey numbers refer to those numbers worn only in regular season or postseason play.

Notes: No assistant coaches were designated as coordinators during Hank Stram's tenure as head coach from 1960-74. The first assistants in Chiefs history to hold the title of coordinator or special teams coach came under head coach Paul Wiggin in 1975. Although subsequent staffs did not always specifically denote coordinators, every attempt has been made to indicate the offensive and defensive play-callers if it was an individual other than the head coach. Beginning with Frank Gansz's staff in 1987, three separate individuals have carried the titles of offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as special teams coach each subsequent season except for 2009 under Todd Haley. In 2016, Brad Childress and Matt Nagy were named Co-Offensive Coordinators.

HOUSTON	0	0	7	10	0	0	— 17

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's charges as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers. The game still ranks as the second-longest pro contest ever played, coming in at a lengthy 77:54, but is best remembered for RB Abner Haynes' choice to "kick to the clock" at the beginning of the initial overtime session.

Following second-place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West title in '62. Dallas (11-3) was then matched in this title bout with Houston (11-3), which had won the first two AFL titles in '60 and '61 over the Chargers.

The Texans grabbed the game's first break when LB E.J. Holub picked off QB/K George Blanda at the goal line and returned the ball 43 yards, sparking a drive that resulted in a 16-yard FG by K Tommy Brooker. Blanda would miss a 47-yard kick on the Oilers next possession and Haynes scored on a 28-yard pass from QB Len Dawson. An interception by CB Dave Grayson would set up Haynes' second TD of the half, this time on a two-yard run to give the Texans a 17-0 halftime advantage.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda – then a "young" 35 years old – passed 15 yards to TE Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before RB Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. Houston had a shot to win the game late in regulation, but LB Sherrill Headrick blocked a 42-yard Blanda field goal to leave the score deadlocked.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Chiefs Head Coach Hank Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick-to-the-clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, DE Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson passed to RB Jack Spikes for 10 yards. Spikes – the game's Most Valuable Player – then ran for 19 yards and the Texans were in field goal range.

At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in '71.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967 • War Memorial Stadium • 42,080

KANSAS CITY	7	10	0	14	— 31
BUFFALO	7	0	0	0	— 7

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. Kansas City's defense had stifled opponents all season long and didn't disappoint in this contest, forcing four turnovers, while limiting Buffalo to just nine first downs and 40 rushing yards as the Chiefs rolled to a 31-7 victory and their second AFL title.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff when P Jerrel Wilson recovered a fumble by DE Dudley Meredith on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, QB Len Dawson found TE Fred Arbanas for a 29-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City an early 7-0 lead.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Buffalo tied the game in the opening period when All-Star QB Jack Kemp hit WR Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play evening the score at 7-7. Few thought it would be the Bills last score of the day, but Kansas City would eventually outscore Buffalo 24-0 in the final three quarters.

While the Chiefs defense clamped down on the Bills, Dawson led the Kansas City offense to 10 second-quarter points. A 28-yard punt return by RB Mike Garrett set the Chiefs up at the Buffalo 45-yard line and six plays later the Kansas City signal-caller found WR Otis Taylor for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

The game's decisive play then came just before halftime. Kemp had marched the Bills to the Chiefs eight-yard line, but was picked off at the goal line by S Johnny Robinson, who raced 72 yards with the interception before being brought down at the Buffalo 28-yard line. K Mike Mercer then hit a 32-yard FG with 0:03 left in the half to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead heading into the locker room.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive tussle as the two teams each exchanged a pair of punts. Kansas City would get to the Buffalo 42-yard line late in the period, but a 49-yard kick by Mercer fell short, leaving the score at 17-7 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kansas City then broke the game wide open as Garrett applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs, scoring on runs of one and 18 yards to make the count 31-7. A 47-yard Dawson pass to E Chris Burford set up Garrett's first TD which came on fourth-and-goal. Buffalo fumbled on its next offensive snap and S Bobby Hunt fell on the loose ball at the Bills 21. Three plays later, Garrett started left and then reversed his field to get into the end zone for a second time.

Kemp couldn't move the Bills on their next possession and was picked off by CB Emmitt Thomas on Buffalo's final drive of the day as Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum • 63,036

KANSAS CITY	0	10	0	0	— 10
GREEN BAY	7	7	14	7	— 35

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers. Vince Lombardi's Packers – one of the greatest pro football teams of all time – won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring on its second possession when the game's Most Valuable Player, QB Bart Starr, passed 37 yards to TE Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for a touchdown. McGee, who had caught just four passes during the regular season, became an unlikely hero for the Packers after starter Boyd Dowler was injured on the game's opening series. McGee finished the game with seven catches for 138 yards and two TDs.

Behind QB Len Dawson, the Chiefs marched into Green Bay territory on their next drive, but K Mike Mercer misfired on a 40-yard FG to leave the score 7-0 after one quarter. However, Kansas City would tie the game on its next possession after a 31-yard completion to WR Otis Taylor set up a seven-yard scoring pass to RB Curtis McClinton.

Green Bay would go right back on top when RB Jim Taylor scored from 14 yards out on the Packers vaunted sweep. Kansas City's next drive featured a 27-yard completion to E Chris Burford and culminated with a 31-yard Mercer FG as the Chiefs narrowed Green Bay's lead to a 14-10 margin.

The Chiefs momentum carried over to the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play – one that doomed the underdog Chiefs – unfolded when S Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for TE Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where RB Elijah Pitts ran for the first of his two touchdowns as Green Bay would establish a 21-10 lead.

The Packers defense forced Kansas City to punt on its next two possessions, setting up another Starr-to-McGee touchdown pass. That duo would connect on completions of 11 and 16 yards on a 10-play, 56-yard drive before McGee hauled in a 13-yard score to up the Packer advantage to 28-10.

Kansas City dodged a scoring threat when CB Willie Mitchell picked off a Starr pass at the Chiefs 11-yard line in the fourth quarter, but it would be Green Bay's only miscue of the day. The Packers defense would stifle the AFL Champions for the remainder of the game as the Chiefs crossed midfield just once in the fourth quarter.

A 37-yard pass to McGee would set up the Packers final score, a one-yard Pitts TD run. That score put the finishing touch on a 35-10 victory as Green Bay claimed the first of two straight Super Bowl titles, while Kansas City would have to wait until Super Bowl IV for redemption on football's biggest stage.

1968 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Raiders 41, Chiefs 6

December 22, 1968 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

OAKLAND	21	7	0	13	— 41

Oakland jumped out to an early 21-0 lead and picked off QB Len Dawson four times, posting a convincing 41-6 victory in the initial postseason meeting between the Chiefs and Raiders. The two teams had both finished 12-2 and split a pair of regular season contests, setting up this playoff meeting for the right to advance to the AFL Championship Game.

The Chiefs defense had allowed a franchise-record 170 points during the regular season, but QB Daryle Lamonica and WR Fred Biletnikoff made play after play against Kansas City. Lamonica finished the day with 345 passing yards and five TD passes, the highest postseason totals ever amassed against Kansas City. Biletnikoff also had a record-setting day, registering 180 receiving yards and three scores, the best individual receiving day produced versus the Chiefs in the playoffs at the time.

The Lamonica-Biletnikoff connection clicked early and often, accounting for three plays and 60 yards on Oakland's opening possession, including a 24-yard TD pass to put the Raiders ahead 7-0.

With the Chiefs backed up at their own two-yard line, P Jerrel Wilson's punt would go off the side of his foot, giving the Raiders the ball at the Kansas City 25-yard line. Three plays later, a 23-yard scoring grab by WR Warren Wells made the score 14-0. The two teams would exchange punts before Lamonica lofted a 44-yard aerial to Biletnikoff to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Kansas City's offense showed some life to open the second quarter. Dawson hit WR Otis Taylor for a 55-yard gain to put the Chiefs in scoring position, but Kansas City could not crack the end zone on three tries from inside the five-yard line as the club would settle for a 10-yard K Jan Stenerud FG to make the count 21-3.

Two possessions later, the Chiefs got excellent field position at the Oakland 38-yard line. A 31-yard pass to WR Ron Pitts moved Kansas City to the seven-yard line, but again the offense couldn't cross the goal line, resulting in an eight-yard Stenerud FG. The Raiders responded with a 54-yard Lamonica-to-Biletnikoff TD to close the first half, giving Oakland a commanding 28-6 lead.

The Chiefs defense forced a punt on Oakland's first drive of the second half and then held the Raiders out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one on their next possession to keep the contest within reach. But Kansas City's offense couldn't put points on the board despite getting deep into Oakland territory twice as a missed 37-yard FG and an interception haulted those drives.

The Raiders slammed the door shut in the fourth quarter as Wells caught his second TD of the day and K George Blanda tacked on a pair of FGs to up the Oakland lead to 41-6. Dawson was unable to rally the Chiefs as each of the club's final three possessions ended with interceptions and Oakland advanced to its second straight AFL Championship Game.

1969 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 13, Jets 6

December 20, 1969 • Shea Stadium • 62,977

KANSAS CITY	0	3	3	7	— 13
NEW YORK	3	0	0	3	— 6

Kansas City had throttled the Jets in the regular season, but getting a playoff victory against the reigning World Champions would prove much more difficult. The Chiefs defense would rise up for a monumental goal line stand, while the offense would get into the end zone when it mattered most as Kansas City claimed a 13-6 victory.

New York was led by QB Joe Namath, but throwing the ball accurately in the swirling winds of Shea Stadium would prove difficult for the charismatic MVP of Super Bowl III. The Jets passer connected on just 14 of 40 attempts for 164 yards and was picked off three times.

New York got on the board first with a 27-yard K Jim Turner field goal to go up 3-0. QB Len Dawson then started Kansas City's next drive with a 13-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor, a 12-yard connection to TE Fred Arbanas and a 17-yard screen to RB Wendell Hayes. After missing a 47-yard FG on Kansas City's first drive, this time K Jan Stenerud connected on a 23-yard FG to knot the score at 3-3.

Neither club could muster much offense for the remainder of the first half. Stenerud would misfire on a 44-yard kick on Kansas City's only other legitimate scoring shot, leaving the score deadlocked at intermission.

Kansas City's defense would turn up the pressure in the third quarter. CB Emmitt Thomas would register the Chiefs first interception of the day, setting up a 47-yard FG attempt that sailed wide left in the blustery conditions. New York's next possession would be terminated by the first of two interceptions on the day by CB Jim Marsalis. After the Jets were penalized for running into P Jerrel Wilson, a 27-yard pass to Arbanas put Kansas City in New York territory. A 25-yard Stenerud FG then gave the Chiefs a slim 6-3 advantage.

Namath responded by moving the Jets into scoring position early in the fourth quarter. A pass interference call in the end zone would give the home squad first-and-goal at the one, setting the stage for the biggest goal-line stand in Chiefs history.

RB Matt Snell gained half a yard on first down before S Johnny Robinson arrived on the scene, while RB Bill Mathis was stuffed for no gain by LB Willie Lanier on second down. Namath attempted a bootleg on third down, but was hit by LB Jim Lynch and threw the ball away, forcing the Jets to settle for a seven-yard Turner field goal to tie the contest at 6-6.

Dawson and the Chiefs would immediately strike back. A 61-yard bomb to Taylor would set up the game's only TD. WR Gloster Richardson made the biggest grab of his career, hauling in a 19-yard scoring strike from Dawson on the next play. Marsalis would then record his second interception of Namath on the Jets final possession to ensure a tightly-contested 13-6 playoff win, sending Kansas City to the AFL's final title game at Oakland.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

January 4, 1970 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY	0	7	7	3	— 17
OAKLAND	7	0	0	0	— 7

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the AFL's only three-time champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played Oakland for the league's last title. The Raiders had won the AFL West and owned a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, including a slim 10-6 victory in the regular season finale.

The Raiders, who arrived at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum already packed for a potential trip to Super Bowl IV, suffered the indignity of carrying those suitcases out of the stadium past the Chiefs busses after a 17-7 defeat.

The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece with Oakland's coming on a four-yard run by RB Charlie Smith. Kansas City responded with a one-yard plunge by RB Wendell Hayes after QB Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to WR Otis Taylor and 41 yards to WR Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, QB/K George Blanda was wide right on field goals of 39 and 40 yards, attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City began its second TD drive from its own six-yard line. A potential disaster was averted when the Chiefs fell on a fumble at their own two-yard line. On the next play, Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass play. FB Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass, while a 25-yard pass interference call gave the Chiefs first-and-goal at the three. Holmes plowed in for the go-ahead TD from five yards out on third down, giving the Chiefs a 14-7 advantage.

The game then became a defensive struggle, which played right into Kansas City's hand. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of DEs Aaron Brown and Jerry Mays and DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders QB Daryle Lamonica, forcing the Oakland signal caller to throw a trifecta of fourth-quarter interceptions.

K Jan Stenerud came up short on a 52-yard FG to begin the final frame, which would be marked by a myriad of turnovers. S Jim Kearney registered Kansas City's first interception of Lamonica at the Chiefs 18-yard line. Two plays later, a Chiefs fumble would put the ball back in the hands of the "Mad Bomber," who was subsequently picked off by CB Jim Marsalis on Oakland's very next snap.

Inexplicably, Kansas City would fumble again two plays later, setting Lamonica up deep in Chiefs territory. But three snaps later CB Emmitt Thomas recorded his second pickoff of the day, ending a third straight Oakland possession with an interception. Thomas returned the ball 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line, setting up a 22-yard field goal that provided a 17-7 lead with 4:48 remaining.

Kansas City would actually fumble one more time, but the Silver and Black could not capitalize as the victorious Chiefs would return home to pack bags of their own for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

MINNESOTA	0	0	7	0	— 7
KANSAS CITY	3	13	7	0	— 23

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon on Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, in Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in '70, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson – who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award – the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Chiefs took an early lead when K Jan Stenerud booted a 48-yard first quarter field goal, a kick that was the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He would later follow with field goals of 32 and 25 yards to give Kansas City a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when Vikings S Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and G Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Dawson handed off to RB Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, RB Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for a five-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 16-0 halftime lead and stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when RB Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly throughout that season. Dawson hit the Chiefs wideout on a short hitch pattern, and when CB Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 23-7 lead after three quarters.

As was so often the case in '69, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. LB Willie Lanier picked off a QB Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, S Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. Following the game, Kapp would pay tribute to Kansas City's massive defensive front: "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest."

QB Gary Cuozzo would replace Kapp, but suffered similar results. In the game's closing minutes, CB Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1971 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 24 (2 OT)

December 25, 1971 • Municipal Stadium • 50,374

MIAMI	0	10	7	7	0	3	— 27
KANSAS CITY	10	0	7	7	0	0	— 24

The longest game in NFL history signaled the end of a glorious era in Chiefs history as Kansas City and Miami dueled for 82:40 in a double-overtime epic on Christmas Day '71. The final game ever played at Municipal Stadium featured 11 future Hall of Fame players, Hall of Fame head coaches Hank Stram and Don Shula, as well as one of the greatest individual efforts in NFL postseason annals by RB Ed Podalok. But in the end, it was the Dolphins who prevailed when K Garo Yepremian's 37-yard FG at 7:40 of the second OT gave Miami a 27-24 victory.

Widely regarded as the finest Chiefs team ever assembled – the '69 Super Bowl IV squad included – Kansas City took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to a 24-yard FG and a seven-yard TD catch by Podolak. Miami countered with 10 unanswered points to leave the score deadlocked at halftime.

The unquestioned star of the contest was Podolak, who accounted for an NFL-playoff record 350 combined net yards (85 rushing yards, 110 receiving yards and 153 on kick returns). With the score knotted at 17-17 after three quarters, Podalak capped a 91-yard drive with a three-yard TD run to give the Chiefs a 24-17 lead with 6:46 left in regulation. However, a five-yard pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Marv Fleming put the count at 24-24 with 1:25 remaining in regulation.

Podolak almost ended the game with a 78-yard return on the ensuing kickoff, but Miami CB Curtis Johnson maintained his angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the 22-yard line. With 35 seconds left, K Jan Stenerud's would-be game-winning 31-yard FG attempt sailed wide right. Miami could not move the ball on its final possession of regulation, sending the game to its first overtime session.

Kansas City won the toss and after taking a lateral from DT Buck Buchanan, Podolak returned the kickoff to the Chiefs 46-yard line. Four plays later, Kansas City was at the Miami 35-yard line as Stenerud lined up for another attempt at a game-winning kick, this time from 42 yards out, but Stenerud's attempt was blocked by LB Nick Buoniconti, giving the Dolphins new life.

Both teams would exchange punts before a 52-yard FG attempt by Yepremian came up short. The first overtime session would come to a close when Dawson was intercepted by Miami S Jake Scott. The Dolphins took over at their own 46 to start overtime number two, but were smothered by Kansas City's fierce defense.

Miami's defense forced the Chiefs to punt, setting up Griese and the Dolphins for one final drive. RB Larry Csonka broke off a 29-yard run to move Miami into Kansas City territory. Four plays later, Yepremian ended the NFL's longest day with his 37-yard game-winner. The Dolphins would eventually advance to Super Bowl VI, while the Chiefs would have to wait 15 years before their next postseason appearance after falling in one of the most storied battles in pro football history.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Jets 35, Chiefs 15

December 28, 1986 • Giants Stadium • 69,307

KANSAS CITY	6	0	0	9	— 15
NEW YORK	7	14	7	7	— 35

Kansas City finished the regular season with a 10-6 record to earn the club's first playoff berth in 15 years, but that adulation would be short-lived. After taking an early lead against the N.Y. Jets, three Kansas City turnovers combined with 135 rushing yards and two scores from New York RB Freeman McNeil led to 28 unanswered points and a 35-15 Jets victory.

The Chiefs only offensive scoring drive of the day came on Kansas City's initial possession when QB Todd Blackledge led Kansas City to paydirt. A pass interference call in the end zone set the stage for a one-yard scoring plunge by RB Jeff Smith. However, a missed PAT would begin a downward spiral for the Chiefs, who took a brief 6-0 lead.

Jets head coach Joe Walton then made the biggest call of the game on New York's next drive. Facing fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 33-yard line, Walton kept his offense on the field. QB Pat Ryan faked a pitch to McNeil and took the ball up the gut for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later, McNeil was in the end zone, giving the Jets a lead they would not relinquish.

Disaster would strike on Kansas City's next offensive snap when RB Larry Moriarty had the ball jarred loose after catching a swing pass. LB Kyle Clifton recovered for the Jets. Twelve plays later, a one-yard TD toss to McNeil put the Jets ahead 14-6.

After Kansas City failed to gain a first down on its next two possessions, a 30-yard pass to WR Al Toon put New York in Chiefs territory. Ryan then found Toon kneeling in the end zone for an 11-yard TD on third down to give the Jets a commanding 21-6 advantage with 0:59 left in the second quarter.

New York outgained the Chiefs 191 to 58 after 30 minutes and Kansas City's situation would go from bad to worse on the opening snap of the second half. Blackledge was intercepted by LB Kevin McArthur, who raced down the sideline for a 21-yard score, putting the Jets ahead 28-6 just 13 seconds into the third quarter.

Blackledge would guide the Chiefs to the Jets 15-yard line on Kansas City's next possession, but the club's comeback hopes were effectively over when RB Boyce Green was stuffed on fourth-and-one in the third quarter, turning the ball back over to the Jets.

Kansas City's special teams would account for the club's only touchdown of the second half as CB Albert Lewis blocked a Dave Jennings punt and recovered it in the end zone to close the gap to 28-13. A six-yard Ryan TD pass to TE Billy Griggs made it 35-13 before QB Bill Kenney replaced Blackledge in the fourth quarter. Kenney guided Kansas City inside the Jets 10-yard line twice to no avail.

The Chiefs final points of the afternoon came when Jennings stepped out of the end zone for a self-imposed safety to make the final score 35-15 as Kansas City's hopes expired.

Dolphins 17, Chiefs 16

January 5, 1991 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,276

KANSAS CITY	3	7	6	0	— 16
MIAMI	0	3	0	14	— 17

The Chiefs were in control for the majority of their first playoff game since '86, but could not answer a late comeback bid by QB Dan Marino as the Dolphins pulled out a 17-16 victory. Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg – who had guided Kansas City to an 11-5 regular season record – had the club in scoring position, but a 52-yard FG attempt by K Nick Lowery fell just inches short with 0:56 remaining.

Had Kansas City fully capitalized on a number of scoring opportunities earlier in the game, the outcome may have been different. CB Charles Washington blocked a punt on Miami's first possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 37-yard line. However, Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 27-yard FG. Miami would answer on its next possession as K Pete Stoyanovich nailed an at the time NFL postseason-record 58-yard FG to even the count at 3-3.

However, Stoyanovich would come up short on a 57-yard attempt later in the second quarter, setting the Chiefs up with good field position. Kansas City capitalized as DeBerg floated a 26-yard scoring aerial to WR Stephone Paige putting the Chiefs ahead 10-7 with 1:54 left in the half. Paige would finish the day with 142 receiving yards, the highest postseason total in team history at the point. Meanwhile, DE Neil Smith – who had 1.5 sacks on the day – preserved the lead by stripping Marino on Miami's next possession.

Kansas City dominated the third quarter, but only managed to extend its lead to 16-3. Poised with second-and-goal at the Miami three-yard line, DeBerg was flagged for intentional grounding and the club settled for a 25-yard FG. S Deron Cherry blasted the ball loose from WR Mark Duper on Miami's next play, giving Kansas City the ball at the Dolphins 29-yard line. But once again, the Chiefs could not strike paydirt and would leave Miami territory with only a 38-yard Lowery FG to show for their efforts.

Marino then began his comeback bid. A 10-play, 66-yard march culminated with a one-yard TD toss to FB Tony Paige as the Dolphins moved the count to 16-10. After a 33-yard connection between DeBerg and WR Emile Harry moved Kansas City back into Miami territory, the Chiefs were forced to punt, setting up the Dolphins go-ahead drive which began with a key 37-yard pass over the middle to TE Ferrell Edmunds. Marino then capped the march with a six-yard TD pass to WR Mark Clayton that was nearly intercepted by CB Albert Lewis as the Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 17-16 with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter.

A 20-yard pass to Paige and a 26-yard run by RB Christian Okoye helped put the Chiefs at the Miami 26-yard line at the 2:00 warning. A controversial holding call on G Dave Szott nullified a 12-yard Okoye run on the next play, halting the club's momentum and setting the stage for Lowery's final field goal attempt, which came tantalizingly close to the crossbar.

KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3	— 10

It took 19 years, but the Chiefs finally had an opportunity to officially christen Arrowhead Stadium with a playoff game. Fittingly, that contest came against Kansas City's most heated rival, the Raiders. The Chiefs had defeated the Raiders 27-21 just six days earlier at the L.A. Coliseum in the final regular season game for the right to play at home in the first week of the playoffs. Kansas City made the most of that opportunity by recording a 10-6 win over the Raiders, marking the club's first playoff victory since Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs imparted a familiar recipe for success – solid defense and a bruising ground game. Kansas City's defense forced six turnovers and limited the Silver and Black to just two field goals, while RB Barry Word pummeled the Raiders with 33 carries for a then team postseason-record 130 yards.

Word pounded away at the Raiders all day, a trend that began early. Kansas City won the toss and consumed 11:56 off the clock, thanks to a drive that featured 12 runs by Word. The Chiefs drove as deep as the 15-yard line, but K Nick Lowery's 33-yard FG was wide left, leaving the scoreboard empty.

S Deron Cherry registered the first of his two INTs on the game on the Raiders first possession. QB Todd Marinovich would be picked off four times by the Kansas City defense and his first errant throw would give Kansas City possession at the Raiders 24-yard line. But again, Lowery would misfire, this time on a 47-yard FG attempt.

A wild barrage of turnovers then ensued. Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas stripped Marinovich, but QB Steve DeBerg promptly threw an INT on Kansas City's next possession. After a Raiders punt, RB Harvey Williams put the ball on the ground for Kansas City, but Cherry registered another INT which he returned to the 11-yard line. DeBerg would hit WR Fred Jones for the game's only touchdown on the next play as the Chiefs took a 7-0 lead.

Raiders RB Nick Bell finished the game with 107 ground yards and was the club's primary weapon on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard K Jeff Jaeger FG that closed the gap to 7-3 just before intermission.

The first half passing numbers for both squads were equally unimpressive. Marinovich completed just three passes for 47 yards, while DeBerg hit on seven passes for 71 yards. Wisely, both clubs turned to the ground game in the second half. The Raiders gave the ball to Bell eight times on their initial possession of the third quarter, but would have to settle for a 26-yard FG to close the gap to 7-6.

Kansas City then capitalized on a Raiders fumble by handing the ball to Word nine times on a 13-play drive that netted an 18-yard FG to make the score 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs would pick off Marinovich on each of the Raiders final two drives to seal the franchise's first-ever home playoff victory.

BUFFALO	7	10	7	13	— 37

Kansas City was coming off its first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV, but that triumph proved quite irrelevant as Buffalo pounded the Chiefs into submission early in a 37-14 win. The Bills raced out to a 17-0 halftime lead and salted the game away behind RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis, who combined for 41 carries and 175 rushing yards. Defensively, Buffalo picked off back-up QB Marc Vlasic four times and held the Chiefs to just 213 yards of total offense as the Bills marched to their second-straight AFC Championship Game.

After both teams traded a pair of punts to open the game, QB Jim Kelly hit a pair of completions to WR Don Beebe to put the Bills in scoring position. Kelly then fired a 25-yard pass to WR Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 7-0 advantage. Kansas City caught the game's first break when CB Eric Everett picked off Kelly early in the second quarter. But the Chiefs offense would go three-and-out. Four plays later, Kelly found Reed for a 53-yard scoring strike to make the count 14-0. Despite throwing three interceptions himself, Kelly would finish the contest with 273 passing yards and three TDs.

S Deron Cherry picked off Kelly on Buffalo's next possession, but again, the Chiefs could not capitalize. The Bills would tack on a 33-yard K Scott Norwood field goal to end the first half with a 17-0 lead.

The second half wouldn't start much better for Kansas City. RB Harvey Williams fumbled on the club's first snap of the third quarter, but TE Jonathan Hayes would recover. The Chiefs wouldn't be as fortunate on the next play as Vlasic – who entered the game in the second quarter when starting QB Steve DeBerg was knocked out of the game with a hand injury – suffered the first of four second-half interceptions. Buffalo took over on the Chiefs 36-yard line and six plays later Kelly had the Bills ahead 24-0 after finding WR James Lofton for a 10-yard TD.

Vlasic would be picked off again on the Chiefs next drive, but LB Lonnie Marts returned the favor with an interception of his own to give Kansas City a ray of hope late in the third quarter. This time the Chiefs would get on the board as RB Barry Word bulled into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Buffalo margin to 24-7.

Thomas and Davis took it from there as the Bills methodically began grinding down the clock. After a Buffalo FG made it 27-7, Vlasic was picked off twice on his next three attempts. The Bills would turn those two miscues into 10 points as Buffalo took a commanding 37-7 lead with 4:57 left in the game.

Vlasic would hit WR Fred Jones on a 20-yard TD with 2:07 remaining to make it 37-14, but it was too little, too late as Buffalo recovered Kansas City's onside kick attempt and ran out the clock, ending the Chiefs postseason aspirations.

Bills QB Jim Kelly throws a pass against the Chiefs, finishing the game with three TDs and three INTs.

Chargers 17, Chiefs 0

January 2, 1993 • Jack Murphy Stadium • 58,278

SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	7 —	17

Kansas City had defeated San Diego twice during the '92 regular season. However, that mattered little to the Chargers, who promptly dispatched the Chiefs from the playoffs by a 17-0 margin, marking the only shutout Kansas City has ever suffered in postseason play.

The two sides bludgeoned one another throughout a scoreless first half, but early on it appeared the game may feature its share of offensive fireworks. San Diego QB Stan Humphries hit WR Nate Lewis for a 39-yard gain on the game's first play from scrimmage. Then, after a pair of penalties, the Chargers were knocking on the door, but DE Neil Smith fell on a San Diego fumble at the 13-yard line to halt the scoring threat.

The Chiefs couldn't mount a serious scoring threat in the first half and couldn't move past the San Diego 40-yard line on their first five possessions. The Chargers didn't fare much better with only a fumble, a punt and a missed 52-yard FG to show on three trips into Kansas City territory. Still, San Diego did hold a slight 130-to-122 edge in total yardage heading into the locker room.

Kansas City's offensive struggles continued in the second half, as the club punted on its first two possessions. San Diego then broke the stalemate midway through the third quarter when the team's battering ram – RB Marion Butts – burst into the secondary en route to a 54-yard score, giving the Chargers a 7-0 lead. Butts finished the game with 15 carries for 119 yards.

Things went downhill from there for the Chiefs. On Kansas City's next offensive play, QB Dave Krieg had a pass tipped by DE Blaise Winter. Fellow DE Leslie O'Neal picked off the ball at the Kansas City 29-yard line, setting up a 34-yard FG from K John Carney to give San Diego a 10-0 advantage with 3:33 left in the third quarter.

While Kansas City's defense was good, forcing 5.0 sacks – including 1.5 by LB Derrick Thomas – San Diego's defense was even better, harassing Krieg all day and finishing the game with 7.0 sacks. Krieg got the Chiefs into Chargers territory on each of the next two drives, but was sacked 3.0 times on those two series, stifling any scoring possibilities.

San Diego then delivered an offensive blow on its next possession. Behind a steady diet of RB Eric Bieniemy, the Chargers mounted an 11-play, 91-yard drive that ate 5:32 off the clock. H-back Steve Hendrickson got a rare carry and bulled his way into the end zone from five yards out to give the home team a 17-0 lead with 4:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The knockout punch quickly followed when Chargers DT Shawn Lee stripped Krieg on Kansas City's next possession. San Diego recovered and took over with 3:52 remaining. The Chiefs would get the ball back one last time, but the results were the same as they had been all day as San Diego sacked Krieg one last time and secured a 17-0 victory.

Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 (OT)

January 8, 1994 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,515

PITTSBURGH	7	10	0	7	0	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	14	3	—	27

It took an extra session to settle the score in the initial postseason match-up between Kansas City and Pittsburgh, but the Chiefs would eventually prevail, 27-24. A blocked punt and the last-minute heroics of QB Joe Montana – who was making his first playoff appearance with Kansas City – helped the Chiefs send the game to overtime where K Nick Lowery's 32-yard FG was the difference in the franchise's first OT playoff contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game.

Pittsburgh head coach Bill Cowher had previously served as both a player and assistant coach under Marty Schottenheimer before taking over the fortunes of the Steelers. Early on, the pupil appeared to have the upper hand as Pittsburgh held a 17-7 halftime lead thanks to a pair of TD passes from QB Neil O'Donnell. WR Andre Cooper hauled one in from 10 yards out and WR Ernie Mills caught a 26-yarder with just 0:18 left in the first half.

Kansas City's lone score of the first half came when QB Dave Krieg – who made a brief appearance for an injured Montana – delivered a 23-yard TD completion to WR J.J. Birden in the first quarter. A 23-yard FG in the third quarter would cut the Pittsburgh lead to 17-10, setting the stage for a fantastic finish.

Montana guided the squad on a nine-play, 80-yard drive to open the fourth quarter, culminating with a two-yard TD trot by RB Marcus Allen, who was also making his initial postseason appearance with the Red and Gold. With the score tied at 17-17, O'Donnell answered with a nine-play, 74-yard drive, hitting TE Eric Green for a 22-yard score to put Pittsburgh back ahead with 4:11 left in regulation.

After Kansas City went three-and-out on its next possession, the Steelers had a chance to run out the clock when they got the ball back with 3:00 remaining. However, the Chiefs defense would hold, setting the stage for Kansas City's special teams to swing the momentum back in favor of the home squad. TE Keith Cash swatted down P Mark Royals' punt, which was recovered by WR Fred Jones who returned the ball to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

Facing fourth-and-goal from the seven with 1:48 left, the ever-cool Montana found WR Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone to even the count at 24-24. Kansas City's defense would force Pittsburgh three-and-out once again, giving Montana and the Chiefs one final shot in regulation, but a 43-yard FG attempt from Lowery sailed wide right with 0:13 remaining, sending the game to overtime.

Kansas City won the toss, but was unable to move the ball. Pittsburgh got to midfield before it was forced to punt, setting up one final drive by Montana. After starting on their own 20-yard line, Kansas City moved to midfield and was deep in Pittsburgh territory after Montana hit Cash on an 18-yard strike. Five plays later, Lowery took the field on third down and drove the game-winning 32-yard FG through the uprights with 3:57 showing on the clock.

Chiefs 28, Oilers 20

January 16, 1994 • Astrodome • 64,011

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	21	— 28
HOUSTON	10	0	0	10	— 20

Kansas City pulled a huge upset over heavily-favored Houston to advance to its first-ever AFC Championship Game with a 28-20 victory at the Astrodome. The contest marked the Chiefs first road playoff win since claiming a 17-7 triumph at Oakland in the '69 AFL Championship Game.

Houston was the NFL's hottest team heading into the playoffs, owning 11 consecutive wins to close the regular season and showed no signs of cooling down after jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter over the Chiefs. An interception by CB Steve Jackson on Kansas City's first drive set up a 49-yard FG by K Al Del Greco, while an 11-play, 80-yard Oilers scoring march was capped by a two-yard RB Gary Brown TD run.

Houston's defense had proclaimed the Astrodome as "The House of Pain," but it was Kansas City's defense which began to inflict some damage, registering three sacks and forcing three fumbles in the second quarter alone. While the Chiefs offense couldn't capitalize, it would be a sign of things to come. Kansas City finished the game with a team playoff-record 9.0 sacks and seven forced fumbles, including a pair of sacks apiece by CB Albert Lewis, LB Derrick Thomas, S Bennie Thompson and DT Joe Phillips. Thomas and DE Neil Smith each had two forced fumbles, as well.

The Chiefs finally got on the board in the third quarter when QB Joe Montana threw a seven-yard TD pass to TE Keith Cash, who emphatically spiked the ball into a banner bestowed with the likeness of Oilers defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan. But Cash's exclamation point was nothing compared to the mayhem that would ensue in the fourth quarter.

Another interception by Houston led to a 43-yard FG that put the Oilers ahead 13-7. But the Chiefs grabbed their first lead of the day just three plays later with an 11-yard TD catch by WR J.J. Birden. On the Oilers next play from scrimmage, Thomas unleashed his patented sack-and-strip maneuver on RB Warren Moon with Chiefs DT Dan Saleaumua scooping up the loose ball at the Houston 20-yard line. This time Montana – who finished the contest with 299 yards – found WR Willie Davis for an 18-yard TD to push the Chiefs advantage to 21-13.

The Oilers wouldn't relent. Moon – who compiled 306 yards on the day – promptly responded with a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Ernest Givins to keep Houston in it with the score 21-20. Kansas City would produce a one-two knockout combination on its next drive. Cash snared a 41-yard pass from Montana on a third-and-one situation from the Kansas City 30-yard line. Then, faced with third-and-two at the Houston 21-yard line, RB Marcus Allen burst through the middle of the line for a 21-yard TD dash to make the score 28-20.

A final sack from Thomas would all but seal the Oilers fate as the Chiefs turned "The House of Pain" into a house of horrors for Houston in the final NFL postseason game ever played in the Astrodome.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 • Rich Stadium • 76,642

KANSAS CITY	6	0	7	0	— 13
BUFFALO	7	13	0	10	— 30

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to dethrone the reigning three-time AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on their home turf. Unfortunately, the 229 rushing yards amassed by the Bills provided all that was necessary in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback at Rich Stadium. Although the Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), they allowed RB Thurman Thomas to gain 186 of Buffalo's 229 rushing yards.

Kansas City was in uncharted territory as the club was playing in its first-ever AFC title game and vying for its first Super Bowl appearance since '69, while the Bills were playing in an unprecedented fourth straight AFC Championship Game.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame though, Thomas would start to get on track as his easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead.

Kansas City would answer as QB Joe Montana orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard FG by K Nick Lowery. S Bennie Thompson then forced Bills WR Russell Copeland to fumble on the ensuing kickoff. WR Fred Jones scooped up the loose ball, setting the stage for another 31-yard FG to cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and FGs of 23 and 25 yards from K Steve Christie. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by Montana slipped through the hands of FB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills took a 20-6 lead into the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays into the third quarter Montana was slammed to the turf by S Matt Darby and LB Darryl Talley, suffering a concussion on the play. Montana was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon as QB Dave Krieg came off the bench.

With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. But Buffalo countered with an 18-yard FG and a three-yard TD run by Thomas to make the count 30-13.

Kansas City's last legitimate comeback hope evaporated when Krieg was picked off at the goal line by CB James Williams with 3:23 left. Krieg would get the club as close as the Buffalo one-yard line on the Chiefs final drive, but it would not matter as time expired on Kansas City and its Super Bowl aspirations.

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 17

December 31, 1994 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,487

KANSAS CITY	14	3	0	0	— 17
MIAMI	7	10	10	0	— 27

In a game that proved to be the final contest of QB Joe Montana's legendary career, the Chiefs signal-caller provided a dramatic first-half showdown with fellow Western Pennsylvania native, Dolphins QB Dan Marino. But after these two legendary passers dueled to a 17-17 halftime tie, Miami pulled away in the second half behind Marino for a 27-17 victory.

The Chiefs outgained Miami by a 414 to 381 margin in total yardage, but a pair of second-half turnovers and a staunch Dolphins defense was too much to overcome. Neither club was able to mount a substantial pass rush as Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas recorded the game's only sack in his return to his hometown.

Both quarterbacks were nearly flawless in the first 30 minutes as Montana completed 12-of-15 passes for 178 yards and two TDs, while Marino hit on 14-of-16 attempts for 162 yards and one score as the two squads each scored on their first three possessions.

Montana started the shootout by guiding an exquisite 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a one-yard play-action TD toss to TE Derrick Walker. Marino immediately answered with a nearly-identical, 10-play, 72-yard march that ended with a one-yard plunge by RB Bernie Parmalee to tie the score at 7-7.

Kansas City struck quickly on its next possession as Montana found FB Kimble Anders on a 67-yard screen pass that hit paydirt. The two clubs then traded field goals before Marino produced a monster 13-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:50 off the clock. A one-yard TD pass to TE Ronnie Williams with 0:22 remaining in the second quarter ended an exquisite half of football with the score deadlocked at 17-17.

Marino picked up right where he left off on the opening possession of the second half, putting the Dolphins ahead 24-17 on a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Irving Fryar. This time the Chiefs and Montana could not answer, going three-and-out on their next two drives. Meanwhile, Miami tacked on a 40-yard FG from K Pete Stoyanovich to go up 27-17.

The Dolphins defense then clamped down in the fourth quarter. CB J.B. Brown picked off a Montana pass in the end zone to thwart a golden scoring opportunity, while S Michael Stewart forced a rare fumble by RB Marcus Allen as Kansas City crossed into Miami territory on its next possession.

Miami was then content to grind it out on the ground, consuming over five minutes off the clock before the Chiefs could regain possession. Montana managed to get Kansas City as close as the Dolphins 19-yard line before his final professional pass fell incomplete on fourth down as he attempted to find WR Willie Davis. He finished the game with 314 yards going 26-of-37 passing with two TDs and one interception, while Marino ended the day by completing 22 of 29 attempts for 257 yards with two TD passes and no interceptions.

Colts 10, Chiefs 7

January 7, 1996 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,594

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	3	0	— 10
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	— 7

Frigid conditions, four turnovers and three missed field goals contributed to one of the most shocking upsets in Chiefs history as Kansas City (13-3) suffered a 10-7 loss to Indianapolis (9-7) at Arrowhead.

A kickoff temperature of 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9 seemingly did little to faze the dome-dwelling Colts. Indianapolis didn't lose any of its four fumbles and despite missing two field goals, the Colts still made one when it counted as Kansas City squandered a solid effort from its league-leading scoring defense.

The Chiefs got off to a promising start, putting together a five-play, 62-yard TD drive on their third possession of the game. That march culminated with a 20-yard scoring pass from QB Steve Bono to WR Lake Dawson to give Kansas City its only score of the day and a 7-0 lead.

Colts QB Jim Harbaugh then made arguably the biggest play of the game on Indianapolis' next possession. Facing third-and-11 at his own 22-yard line, Harbaugh scrambled for an 18-yard gain. The Colts would convert six times on either third or fourth down on the drive, including a five-yard TD catch by WR Floyd Turner on third down which capped an 18-play, 77-yard drive that ate 8:40 off the clock and tied the count at 7-7.

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard was short on a 47-yard FG after a Kansas City fumble. Chiefs K Lin Elliott had a shot to put his team ahead with 0:12 left in the first half, but he was wide right from 35 yards out as the contest remained tied at halftime.

Kansas City boasted an NFL-best +12 turnover differential during the regular season and forced its only takeaway of the day when CB Mark Collins picked off Harbaugh, but just two plays later, Bono was intercepted by CB Ashley Ambrose, setting up a 30-yard Blanchard FG to put Indianapolis ahead 10-7 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

Kansas City's defense kept it close in the final 15 minutes, but it was not enough. Elliott was wide right on a 39-yard FG to open the fourth quarter and Bono was picked off by LB Quentin Coryatt on the Chiefs next possession. Kansas City still appeared to have a shot when Blanchard's 49-yard FG fell short with 5:44 left in the game, but three plays later Bono was picked off by CB Eugene Daniel. However, the Chiefs defense held once again, setting the stage for one final drive with 4:12 remaining in the contest.

QB Rich Gannon came on in relief of Bono and took over at the Chiefs 18-yard line. He methodically moved the club downfield, converting three third downs, including a 14-yard scramble that put Kansas City at the Colts 25-yard line with 0:56 left. Gannon narrowly missed WR Lake Dawson in the end zone on third down, setting the stage for a final field goal attempt by Elliott from 42 yards out. The kick sailed wide left as Indianapolis claimed a 10-7 victory and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

CHIEFS — Dawson, 20-yard pass from Bono (Elliott kick) (5-62, 2:28).
COLTS — Turner, 5-yard pass from Harbaugh (Blanchard kick) (18-77, 8:40).
COLTS — Blanchard, 30-yard FG (9-35, 4:35).

Broncos 14, Chiefs 10

January 4, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium • 76,965

DENVER	0	7	0	7	— 14
KANSAS CITY	0	0	10	0	— 10

The two teams with the AFC's best regular season records squared off as Kansas City (13-3) and Denver (12-4) met for the first time in postseason play. The Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring defense (14.5 ppg), while the Broncos owned the league's number one scoring offense (29.5 ppg), but it was Denver that claimed a 14-10 victory in what would be the final contest of RB Marcus Allen's storied Hall of Fame career.

Kansas City outgained Denver by 303 to 272 total yards and held a +2 edge in the turnover column, but an inability to put points on the board in several key situations cost the Chiefs a chance to host the AFC Championship Game. After the two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, Kansas City appeared to get on the board first, but was flagged for holding on a 34-yard FG by K Pete Stoyanovich, who had missed just one FG during the regular season. However, Stoyanovich's ensuing 44-yard attempt went wide left to leave the count at 0-0.

Denver QB John Elway then marched the Broncos on an eight-play, 65-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by RB Terrell Davis, who would finish the game with 25 carries for 101 yards. Kansas City could not get back into scoring range, as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into the intermission.

Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac opened the second half with a 34-yard pass to WR Andre Rison, who finished the day with 110 receiving yards. The game's most pivotal sequence would follow. Facing third-and-goal at the Denver three, Grbac connected with rookie TE Tony Gonzalez, who appeared to be forced out of the end zone by Broncos CB Darrien Gordon. However, the play was ruled an incompletion, forcing the Chiefs to settle for a 20-yard FG to cut the gap to 7-3.

With Denver poised at the Kansas City 11-yard line on its next drive, Chiefs DE John Browning forced a fumble by RB Derek Loville to thwart a Broncos scoring opportunity. After both squads exchanged punts, Grbac found WR Joe Horn on a 50-yard strike to set up a 12-yard TD pass to Gonzalez, giving the Chiefs a short-lived 10-7 advantage. However, Davis found paydirt from one-yard out on the Broncos ensuing drive to retake the lead at 14-10.

Kansas City got as deep as the Denver 31-yard line on its next possession and lined up in field goal formation on fourth-and-six, but holder P Louie Aguiar ran with the ball and was tackled three yards short of a first down. Kansas City began its last possession with 4:04 left. Grbac found Rison for a 23-yard gain to move Kansas City to the Broncos 28 with 1:51 left as the Chiefs used their final time out. Facing fourth-and-two at the Denver 20-yard line with 0:19 remaining, Grbac's final pass into the end zone was batted down by Gordon as Denver held on to claim the 14-10 victory.

BRONCOS — T. Davis, 1-yard run (Elam kick) (8-65, 4:51).
CHIEFS — Stoyanovich, 20-yard FG (11-67, 5:18).
CHIEFS — Gonzalez, 12-yard pass from Grbac (Stoyanovich kick) (4-65, 1:35).

2003 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 38, Chiefs 31

January 11, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 79,159

INDIANAPOLIS	14	7	10	7	— 38
KANSAS CITY	3	7	14	7	— 31

The NFL's top two scoring offenses and two of the game's brightest stars battled in an offensive shootout at Arrowhead in which Indianapolis prevailed by a 38-31 margin. RB Priest Holmes finished the game with a Chiefs single-game postseason record with 176 rushing yards and tied a club playoff record with two rushing TDs. Colts QB Peyton Manning was just as good, throwing for 304 yards with three scores and posting an impeccable 138.8 rating.

In a game that featured no punts, just one turnover and only five total penalties, Manning's nearly-perfect performance kept the Colts one step ahead of Kansas City all afternoon. It marked just the third time in NFL postseason history that neither team was forced to punt and was the first time it had occurred since the '82 NFL Playoffs. Kansas City would draw within seven points three times in the second half, but Manning always had an answer.

Manning, the NFL's Co-MVP, opened the game with a 29-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Stokley. Kansas City would answer with a 22-yard field goal from Morten Andersen when Holmes was stopped on third-and-goal from the three. However, Manning and company kept the pressure on with an 11-yard TD run from RB Edgerrin James for a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs rallied back as Chiefs QB Trent Green found WR Dante Hall on a nine-yard TD, cutting the deficit to 14-10. However, the Colts put together another impressive march, as Manning again capped it with a two-yard TD strike to FB Tom Lopienski for a 21-10 lead.

The scoring torrent finally abated as the Chiefs failed to score on their final first-half possession, thanks to a 31-yard touchdown that was called back on an offensive pass interference call on TE Tony Gonzalez and a missed 31-yard field goal.

Holmes ripped off a 48-yard dash on the second play of the third quarter, but had the ball ripped loose by CB David Macklin who recovered the fumble at the Colts 22-yard line. Indianapolis would cash the turnover in with a 45-yard FG from K Mike Vanderjagt for a 24-10 lead.

Holmes would exact revenge on the Chiefs next drive as he accounted for 44 yards rushing and a one-yard TD dive. After a Manning-to-Reggie Wayne TD pass boosted the Colts margin to 31-17 late in the third quarter, WR Dante Hall responded by returning the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for his second TD of the game. Hall's 208 kickoff return yards on the day set a Chiefs single-game postseason record and were the third-highest total in NFL postseason history (now fifth most).

Indianapolis would answer with a one-yard TD from James, building an insurmountable 38-24 lead. The Chiefs made it interesting though as Holmes scored on a one-yard TD run with 4:22 remaining to make the score 38-31. Kansas City's defense couldn't get the ball back until just 0:08 remained on the clock, leaving the Chiefs out of time for a comeback.

RB Priest Holmes rushed for a team record 176 yards and tied the franchise record with two rushing touchdowns.

Colts 23, Chiefs 8

January 6, 2007 • RCA Dome • 57,215

KANSAS CITY	0	0	8	0	— 8
INDIANAPOLIS	6	3	7	7	— 23

The Chiefs fell behind 16-0 in an AFC Wild Card contest at Indianapolis and never could find the offensive rhythm to get back into the game, falling by a score of 23-8 at the RCA Dome. The Colts outgained the Chiefs by a 435 to 126 margin in total yards and limited Kansas City to just one-of-11 on third downs.

Despite a valiant defensive effort by Kansas City that held the Colts third-ranked offense out of the end zone for over 40 minutes, Indy shut down the Chiefs offensive attack. The Colts dominated nearly every category of the first half, but Kansas City's defense kept them in the game by forcing three QB Peyton Manning interceptions and relinquishing three first-half FGs, instead of TDs.

The Chiefs went three and out on each of their six first-half possessions and the Colts capitalized on three of their ensuing drives. On Indianapolis' first drive, rookie RB Joseph Addai ripped off runs of 10 and nine yards to set up a 48-yard field goal.

On the Colts second drive, Manning and WR Marvin Harrison converted on third-and-eight with a 42-yard pass to the Chiefs 25-yard line. Indianapolis would reach the Kansas City one-yard line, but like they did on the first drive, the Chiefs defense forced them to settle for a 19-yard K Adam Vinatieri field goal and a 6-0 lead.

The Chiefs squandered a golden opportunity to take the lead in the second quarter. CB Ty Law – who was no stranger to the playoffs with 13 postseason starts – intercepted Manning for his fifth postseason interception and returned it to the Colts nine-yard line. RB Larry Johnson ran the ball to the two, setting up third-and-goal. However QB Trent Green fell on third down after being stepped on as he pulled from center. Things got worse for Kansas City when K Lawrence Tynes' 23-yard field goal try hit the left upright, leaving the score at 6-0.

Kansas City dodged another bullet when rookie S Jarrad Page picked off Manning at the Kansas City two-yard line with 1:50 left in the first half. However, once again, the Chiefs offense couldn't move the ball and the Colts were able to sneak in a third field goal, this time from 50 yards out, to make it 9-0 at intermission.

Manning would throw his third interception of the game on the opening possession of the second half, as Law snared his sixth postseason interception, his fifth career playoff pickoff of Manning. The Chiefs couldn't convert the turnover into points and instead watched Indianapolis rattle off a 12-play, 89-yard TD drive. Manning completed four passes before Addai scored on a six-yard TD run to increase the Colts lead to 16-0.

With 3:38 remaining in the third quarter, the Chiefs finally notched their initial first down of the game on a six-yard pass from Green to TE Tony Gonzalez. That jump-started the offense as they would rattle off 60 yards en route to a Green-to-Gonzalez six-yard TD. A successful two-point conversion from Green to TE Kris Wilson cut the Colts lead to 16-8 after three quarters.

The one-possession deficit would not last long however as the Colts engineered a back-breaking, nine-play, 71-yard scoring drive that finished with a Manning-to-WR Reggie Wayne five-yard TD and moved Indianapolis ahead by a 23-8 margin.

The Chiefs still had hope with 4:00 left when they moved the ball to the Indy 26-yard line, but Green was sacked and stripped by DE Robert Mathis. Indianapolis would register its third turnover of the game on Kansas City's final possession, clinching the Colts 23-8 win.

Ravens 30, Chiefs 7

January 9, 2011 • Arrowhead Stadium • 72,190

BALTIMORE	3	7	13	7	— 30
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	— 7

The Chiefs were within striking distance at halftime, trailing by only a 10-7 margin, but four second-half turnovers doomed Kansas City as Baltimore pulled away for a 30-7 victory. The Chiefs defense registered 4.0 sacks, including 2.0 from LB Tamba Hali.

The Chiefs won the toss, deferred to the second half and kicked off to open the game. Baltimore promptly moved down field and was poised with first and goal at the Chiefs one-yard line, but Kansas City's defense made a goal-line stand, rebuffing the Ravens on three-straight plays. QB Joe Flacco's third-down pass was broken up by S Eric Berry, setting up a 19-yard K Billy Cundiff FG that gave Baltimore a 3-0 lead.

Kansas City went three-and-out on its opening drive. On Baltimore's ensuing possession, Hali recorded a sack and strip of Flacco and jumped on the ball, giving the Chiefs great field position at the Baltimore 46-yard line. Two plays later, RB Jamaal Charles reeled off a 41-yard TD scamper, the longest postseason TD run in team history, to put the Chiefs up 7-3 with 2:09 left in the first quarter.

On Kansas City's next possession, a fumble by Charles set up Baltimore at their own 45, but Kansas City's defense held. The teams exchanged punts before Flacco and company again moved into Chiefs territory. A nine-yard TD pass from Flacco to RB Ray Rice put the Ravens up 10-7 with 0:19 left to play before halftime, capping an 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive.

On the third play of the third quarter, QB Matt Cassel's pass intended for TE Tony Moeaki was batted into the air and intercepted by S Haruki Nakamura. However, a hustling Charles stripped and recovered the ball at the Kansas City 32-yard line, giving the Chiefs a fresh set of downs.

Kansas City moved the ball to the Baltimore 33-yard line, but Charles was thrown for a four-yard loss on fourth and one. Cundiff knocked through a 29-yard FG on the Ravens ensuing drive, extending their lead to 13-7 with 6:36 left in the third quarter.

Chiefs WR Dexter McCluster fumbled the ball on Kansas City's ensuing possession, setting up Baltimore at the Chiefs 17-yard line. Cundiff connected on another 29-yard FG, putting the Ravens up 16-7 with 4:20 left in the third quarter.

Two plays later, Cassel's pass for Moeaki was intercepted by S Dawan Landry, putting the Ravens at the Kansas City 21-yard line. Flacco then hit WR Anquan Boldin in the back of the end zone for a four-yard TD pass, pushing the Ravens advantage to 23-7.

On the first play of Kansas City's next drive, Cassel fumbled the ball and it was recovered by the Ravens. Head Coach Todd Haley challenged the play and the ruling on the field was overturned to an incomplete pass. The Chiefs were eventually forced to punt. Ravens RB Willis McGahee delivered the game's final score as he broke free for a 25-yard TD, extending Baltimore's lead to 30-7 with 4:26 left in the game.

Kansas City took over at the 40-yard line after the Ravens kickoff went out of bounds. Cassel was sacked twice on the drive and his fourth-down pass was intercepted by CB Josh Wilson at the Baltimore 34-yard line. Baltimore was able to run out the clock to seal the victory.

Colts 45, Chiefs 44

January 4, 2014 • Lucas Oil Stadium • 63,551

KANSAS CITY	10	21	10	3	— 44
INDIANAPOLIS	7	3	21	14	— 45

The Chiefs fell one point short of the Colts in a 45-44 loss in Indianapolis, eliminating them from the playoffs. Kansas City broke numerous then club postseason records including most points scored in a game with 44 (now second most), most net yards with 513 (now second most), most touchdown passes with four (record is now six TDs) and most passing yards with 378 (record is now 406 yards), but the record-setting statistics were still not enough to top the Colts.

Kansas City came out of the gate with a 14-play, 6:49 drive that included a 16-yard Chiefs QB Alex Smith scramble from the pocket and resulted in a six-yard pass to WR Dwayne Bowe, putting the Chiefs up 7-0. RB Jamaal Charles suffered a concussion on the game's opening drive and would not return. The Colts answered with a quick push down the field and a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB Andrew Luck to WR T.Y. Hilton to tie the game at 7-7.

On the ensuing drive, Smith and Bowe connected on a 63-yard pass to land the Chiefs on the Indianapolis two-yard line. After not being able to convert on the first three attempts, Kansas City was forced to settle for a K Ryan Succop field goal to make the score 10-7.

The second quarter kicked off with a huge 79-yard touchdown pass on third-down from Smith catching Chiefs WR Donnie Avery in stride, increasing the Kansas City lead to 17-7. After the score, Chiefs LB Tamba Hali forced an Indianapolis fumble on first down and LB Justin Houston recovered it for seven yards to the Colts 17-yard line. This set Kansas City up for another score after Smith found FB Anthony Sherman for a five-yard shovel pass that was good for a 24-7 lead in favor of the Chiefs.

Indianapolis moved swiftly down the field on the next drive as Luck scrambled for 21 yards on fourth-and-one. K Adam Vinatieri booted a 37-yard field goal to make the score 24-10.

The next drive proved to be a slow and steady one for the Chiefs. Picking up six first downs, four of which were third-down conversions, the drive was capped off by a RB Knile Davis four-yard touchdown run up the middle to increase the Chiefs lead to 31-10. Before the first half came to a close, Kansas City CB Brandon Flowers picked off a Luck pass and returned it for 17 yards, the second takeaway by the Chiefs.

Indianapolis opened the second half with another Luck interception as S Husain Abdullah jumped a pass on the first play of the half, putting the ball at the Colts 18-yard line. Smith found Davis for a 10-yard touchdown pass, putting the Chiefs up 38-10.

The Colts' next drive included a 10-yard completion to Hilton, an 11-yard pass to RB Donald Brown and a 46-yard completion to WR Da'Rick Rogers with Luck bringing them to the Kansas City 10-yard line and Brown punching it in for 10 yards to bring the point total to 38-17.

After the Chiefs got the ball back, Colts LB Robert Mathis had a sack and strip on Smith with LB Kelvin Sheppard recovering the ball on Kansas City's only turnover of the day. Indianapolis was able to turn the fumble recovery into points after another Brown touchdown off of a three-yard connection with Luck, making the score 38-24.

After a Chiefs three-and-out, Abdullah picked off Luck for the second time, setting up a 42-yard Succop field goal, with the Chiefs' lead increasing to 41-24. The Colts fired right back with a drive that included a 25-yard pass to Brown, a 30-yard completion to WR LaVon Brazill and a 13-yard run by Brown to get them to the Chiefs 12-yard line. Luck then connected with TE Coby Fleener for a 12-yard touchdown to narrow the score to 41-31.

On the Colts first drive of the fourth quarter, Luck recovered a fumble by his own team on the Kansas City five-yard line and dove into the end zone for an unconventional touchdown, narrowing the Chiefs lead to 41-38. Kansas City responded with another Succop field goal, this one from 43 yards, making the score 44-38.

On the ensuing drive, Luck hit Hilton for a 64-yard touchdown on third-and-five, putting the Colts ahead 45-44 with 4:29 left to play. Kansas City moved down the field but was unable to convert on fourth down. Indianapolis was able to kneel for the last 1:55 of the game to move on to the divisional playoffs.

Chiefs 30, Texans 0

January 9, 2016 • NRG Stadium • 71,800

Kansas City's first postseason victory in 22 years began with a bang. Before many people at NRG Stadium were in their seats, RB Knile Davis returned the opening kickoff 106 yards for a touchdown - those seven points ended up being the only score the Chiefs would need. Davis' return was the longest kickoff return in AFC Wild Card history.

Prior to the 2015 season, the Chiefs most recent playoff victory came across the street from NRG Stadium in Houston, when the Chiefs defeated the Oilers in the 1993 Divisional Round at the Astrodome.

In the next three possessions, the two teams alternated turnovers, beginning with S Eric Berry intercepting a Brian Hoyer pass. Two plays later, Texans LB Brian Cushing picked off Alex Smith. As Houston was driving into Kansas City territory, DL Allen Bailey forced and recovered a Brian Hoyer fumble, making that two turnovers in three Texans possessions to begin the game.

Sandwiched on either side of a P Shane Lechler punt, K Cairo Santos booted two 49-yard field goals to push the Chiefs lead to 13-0 midway through the second quarter. Santos' 49-yard field goals marked the longest field goals in franchise postseason history at the time.

Following Santos' second field goal, Houston was inside the Kansas City red zone for the only time on the afternoon. After a direct snap to DE J.J. Watt at the Chiefs two-yard-line lost a yard on first down, Hoyer threw his second interception of the day, this time to LB Josh Mauga on second-and-goal from the Kansas City three-yard line.

Houston's ensuing possession ended the same way the previous possession did. On the second play of the drive, and the first play following the two-minute warning, Hoyer's pass was intercepted by Marcus Peters - who, four weeks later, would go on to be named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. Peters' interception was the fourth forced turnover of the half for the Kansas City defense. The Chiefs would go into halftime with a 13-0 lead on the AFC South Champions.

After forcing a Houston punt to open the second half, QB Alex Smith got the offense on the board for the second half, capping an 11-play, 89-yard drive with a nine-yard touchdown pass to rookie WR Chris Conley. The score was Smith's 10th career postseason touchdown.

Following another of Lechler's five punts, the Chiefs got in the end zone for the final time in the game. On the first play of the fourth quarter, FB/RB Spencer Ware took a handoff from five yards out to give the Chiefs a 27-0 lead.

The Texans subsequent drive ended in Kansas City territory after Hoyer recovered his own fumble on fourth down. Following a Chiefs punt seven plays later, Hoyer threw his fourth interception of the day, this time to CB Sean Smith at the Houston 34-yard-line.

Three plays later, Santos capped the Chiefs scoring on the afternoon, knocking in a 33-yard field goal to increase the Chiefs lead to 30-0.

The four interceptions by Kansas City was tied for the second-most interceptions ever recorded in a playoff game and the fourth time the Chiefs have recorded four or more interceptions in a single postseason contest.

The 30-0 shutout marked the first time in franchise history that the club had shut out an opponent in the postseason.

2015 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Patriots 27, Chiefs 20

January 16, 2016 • Gillette Stadium • 66,829

KANSAS CITY	3	3	7	7	— 20
NEW ENGLAND	7	7	7	6	— 27

The Chiefs most successful season in more than a decade came to an end in Foxborough, Mass., at the hands of the New England Patriots, falling 27-20.

QB Alex Smith's performance included a franchise postseason record 50 pass attempts, and his sixth postseason touchdown pass with Kansas City moved him into a tie, at the time, for second place in the club's record book.

New England opened the game by taking the opening kickoff and driving 80 yards, ending the possession with an eight-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Brady to TE Rob Gronkowski.

Kansas City answered back right away, taking 8:31 off the clock on a 17-play, 64-yard drive, culminating in a 34-yard K Cairo Santos field goal, bringing the score to 7-3 after the first two possessions of the game.

Both teams alternated punts on the next four possessions. After a pass that resulted in a three-yard loss, Brady scrambled for 10-yards, ending at the Kansas City one yard line. New England challenged the ruling on the field, believing Brady broke the plane of the goal line. The ruling was upheld, but a quarterback sneak on the next play resulted in a touchdown, putting New England up 14-3.

As was the case following the Patriots first touchdown, the Chiefs answered back right away. A 17-yard run from RB Charcandrick West and a 26-yard pass from Smith to WR Jason Avant put the Chiefs in field goal range, where Santos booted a 32-yard field goal with 0:12 remaining in the half.

The second half began for the Chiefs with a consistent mixture of Smith completions and West and Knile Davis rushes, moving the team into Patriots territory. On the 10th play of the drive, New England LB Chandler Jones forced a Davis fumble, recovered by LB Dont'a Hightower for the only turnover of the game by either team. Kansas City's momentum was stopped once Brady hit Gronkowski for the duo's second touchdown of the night, pushing the Chiefs deficit to 21-6.

Smith accounted for 72 of the team's 80 yards on the next drive, culminating in a 10-yard touchdown pass to WR Albert Wilson.

K Stephen Gostkowski kicked two field goals on New England's next two possessions - with a Chiefs punt in between - resulting in a 27-13 Patriots lead with 12:26 remaining in the game.

After a turnover on downs on Kansas City's next drive, New England punted, giving the ball back to the Chiefs at the 20-yard-line. Smith went six-of-11 for 60 yards on the drive, eventually marching the team to the one-yard-line where West ran into the end zone to bring the score to 27-20.

Kansas City failed to recover the ensuing onside kick, and on the second play of the possession, Brady completed a 12-yard pass to WR Julian Edelman, giving the Patriots a first down that would wrap up the game.

PATRIOTS — Gronkowski, 8-yard pass from Brady (Gostkowski kick) (11-80, 4:37).

PITTSBURGH	6	6	3	3	— 18
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	6	— 16

The Chiefs had a successful season in 2016, finishing with a 12-4 record and an AFC West Championship. Unfortunately, it came to an end at the hands of the Pittsburgh Steelers, falling 18-16 in the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

Pittsburgh won the coin toss and took the opening kickoff. The Steelers would go on an 11-play, 66-yard drive, aided by 25 rushing yards from RB Le'Veon Bell, that would end in a 22-yard Chris Boswell field goal.

Kansas City immediately answered back, taking only six plays to respond. QB Alex Smith went four-for-four during the drive, hitting TE Travis Kelce for a 21-yard gain before finding WR Albert Wilson for a five-yard touchdown pass to bring the score to 7-3.

The Chiefs and the Steelers would alternate possessions during the half, with Pittsburgh connecting field goal drives of seven and 14 plays, with the Steelers leading 9-7. Midway through the second quarter, S Eric Berry intercepted a pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger, intended for WR Antonio Brown in the end zone, halting a scoring threat.

As the second half began, the Chiefs received the ball after a 19-yard kick return by WR Tyreek Hill. The opening drive for the Chiefs was a three-and-out and on the Steelers ensuing possession Bell proved to be a key component. He began the drive with a 38-yard run bringing the Steelers into Chiefs territory. Bell carried the ball four times in the seven-play drive leading to the first score of the half, a 43-yard field goal by K Chris Boswell to extend the lead to 15-7.

Both teams traded punts on the next two possessions toward the end of the third quarter. On the Chiefs final possession of the third quarter, the offense strung together a seven-play drive with the help of QB Alex Smith's arm to get within field goal range. K Cairo Santos nailed a 48-yard field goal to bring the Chiefs closer, ending the quarter with a 15-10 score.

With the Chiefs trailing to begin the fourth quarter the Steelers opened with a 10-play, 45-yard drive. Roethlisberger threw for 43 yards to get the Steelers in field goal range. Boswell fired a 43-yard field goal, stretching the lead to 18-10 with 9:49 remaining.

Following Pittsburgh's score, the Chiefs got the ball and responded Smith would start the drive with a 24-yard completion to Kelce. Over the 13-play drive Smith would pass for 62 yards, leading to a one-yard touchdown run by RB Spencer Ware, bringing the Chiefs within two points. The Chiefs converted their first attempt at the two-point conversion, however the play was called back after a holding call on the offensive line. The Chiefs would fail the second attempt and kick off with 2:43 left, hoping to stop the Steelers from collecting a first down for a final chance to take the lead.

On third-and-three from their own 12-yard line, Roethlisberger connected with Brown on a seven-yard reception that would effectively end the game. The Steelers would kneel, running out the clock and winning by a final score of 18-16.

Titans 22, Chiefs 21

January 6, 2018 • Arrowhead Stadium • 73,319

TENNESSEE	0	3	7	12	— 22
KANSAS CITY	14	7	0	0	— 21

After a 10-6 season and another AFC West title, Kansas City hosted a playoff game for the second-straight year. It was the first time in franchise history the Chiefs won back-to-back division titles.

The Chiefs hosted the Tennessee Titans at Arrowhead Stadium for an AFC Wild Card matchup. Kansas City would fall in a close contest, 22-21.

Tennessee won the coin toss and deferred to Kansas City with the Chiefs choosing to receive the opening kickoff. TE Travis Kelce managed a first down on the opening drive, but the Chiefs ended the possession in a punt.

In Tennessee's first possession, the Chiefs forced a three-and-out after an incomplete pass. Kansas City improved on its next drive, ending in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Kareem Hunt.

After another three and out by the Chiefs defense, Kansas City started with the ball at its own 24 yard line. Three completions by QB Alex Smith and a penalty resulted in a 13-yard touchdown pass to Kelce. The Chiefs led at the end of the first quarter 14-0.

The Titans took their next drive to midfield, but stalled and were forced to punt. The Chiefs and Titans would trade punts for the next two possessions.

With a little over 10 minutes remaining in the first half, Titans QB Marcus Mariota marched the offense down into Kansas City territory for the first time, but at the Kansas City 21-yard line, CB Marcus Peters intercepted Mariota and returned the ball 28 yards. However, the Chiefs offense was not able to capitalize on the interception and punted to the Titans 21 yard line.

The Titans again chewed up yards, this time with several big runs from RB Derrick Henry. On third-and-four at the Chiefs 22-yard line, LB Derrick Johnson sacked Mariota on a blitz up the middle. The Titans still came away with a field goal, cutting the lead to 11.

Smith would then lead a masterful two-minute-drill, taking the Kansas City offense down the field in 1:52 and ending with a 14-yard touchdown pass to WR Demarcus Robinson. The Chiefs headed into halftime with a 21-3 lead.

The Titans received the ball to begin the third quarter and marched 91 yards for a touchdown where Mariota caught a tipped ball from himself and ran into the end zone.

With the Titans back within 11 points at 21-10, Kansas City could not get its offense back to form. The Chiefs gained life after recovering a Tennessee muffed punt, but missed the ensuing field goal attempt.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Henry scored a 35-yard rushing touchdown and Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid called for a two-point conversion attempt. However, the attempt was no good, keeping the score to 21-16 Chiefs.

After another Kansas City punt, the Titans ran the ball down the field and gained the lead with a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Eric Decker.

With their season on the line, the Chiefs drove into Titans territory but could not convert on fourth down at the Tennessee 44 yard line.

The Titans took the ball into the two-minute warning and managed to run the clock out to end the game, with the Chiefs falling 22-21.

Chiefs 31, Colts 13

January 12, 2019 • Arrowhead Stadium • 76,765

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	0	6	— 13
KANSAS CITY	14	10	0	7	— 31

The Kansas City Chiefs culminated the regular season with a Week 17 home victory over the AFC West Division rival Oakland Raiders to claim a division title for the third consecutive season. They also secured the top-overall seed in the AFC, earning them home field advantage throughout the playoffs.

The Chiefs hosted the Indianapolis Colts in the Divisional Round of the postseason on a snowy Sunday afternoon at Arrowhead Stadium. Indianapolis had defeated Houston in a road contest in the Wild Card Round of the playoffs one week prior, advancing them to the second round of the playoffs to take on the Chiefs.

Kansas City won the coin toss and deferred. This proved to be smart as Indianapolis received the opening kickoff and was met with a three-and-out offensive halt by the Chiefs defense. On the unit's first possession of the contest, the eventual AP NFL MVP, QB Patrick Mahomes led the Chiefs offense on a five-play, 90-yard scoring drive, capped off by a 10-yard rushing TD by RB Damien Williams to take an early lead.

The Chiefs defense executed a copy-and-paste on the following drive, as Indianapolis' second offensive possession ended the same as the first. The Chiefs offense stayed consistent as they drove the ball 70 yards in eight plays, ending with a WR Tyreek Hill 36-yard rush around the left end to give Kansas City a two-score lead in the first quarter.

After the defense stepped up again, Kansas City went on a 15-play, 6:54 drive that covered nearly seven minutes of action completed by a 39-yard FG by K Harrison Butker to take a 17-0 lead.

Looking for a spark, Indianapolis vigorously pursued a Chiefs punt. Colts LB Najee Goode blocked a P Dustin Colquitt punt and Colts WR Zach Pascal recovered the ball at the Kansas City two-yard line and stumbled into the end zone to put the Colts on the scoreboard.

For the fourth time of the contest, Kansas City's offense then orchestrated a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive, in which Mahomes scrambled around the right end and dove for the pylon. Mahomes' rushing score gave the gave the home team a 24-7 lead heading into the intermission.

After a failed fourth-down conversion attempt by Kansas City, copious exchanges of punts and a pair of lost fumbles, one by each team, the third quarter culminated with zero total points scored.

On Indianapolis' second possession of the final quarter, QB Andrew Luck found WR T.Y. Hilton on a 29-yard passing score to give the Colts their first offensive TD of the game. K Adam Vinatieri's ensuing PAT failed wide right, but Hilton's receiving score still narrowed the margin to 24-13.

Per game-long trend, Kansas City answered on the team's final offensive possession with a rushing score from six yards out by RB Darrel Williams. Butker connected on the PAT to draw the final score of 31-13, in favor of the Chiefs.

Kansas City nearly doubled the Colts in first downs, total net yards and time of possession and with the dominant win, the Chiefs advanced to their first AFC Championship Game since 1994 and Arrowhead Stadium would be set to host the annual bout for the first time in franchise history.

Patriots 37, Chiefs 31 (OT)

January 20, 2019 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,034

NEW ENGLAND	7	7	3	14	6	—	37
KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	24	0	—	31

Following the Chiefs performance featuring four rushing TDs in the Divisional Round against the Indianapolis Colts, the Chiefs turned around one week later to welcome the five-time Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots to Arrowhead Stadium with an opportunity to go to Super Bowl LIII on the line. This game marked the Chiefs first appearance in the American Football Conference's annual championship showdown in 25 years (1994), and their first time hosting the contest.

New England was coming off of an impressive Divisional Round victory of their own, scoring five TDs in the first half to beat the Los Angeles Chargers. The well-deserved win earned the Patriots a spot in the AFC Championship for the fifth-consecutive season and a chance to appear in their third-straight Super Bowl.

The visiting Patriots received the opening kickoff and put on an impressive display of offensive matriculation. New England's 15-play, 80-yard opening drive spanned 8:05 and was capped by RB Sony Michel punching it in from one yard out. New England's defense managed to hold Kansas City to a less than three-minute possession before being punted the ball and taking their second drive into the second quarter. The Chiefs benefited from a LB Reggie Ragland interception, only to have an exchange of punts ensue.

The Patriots regained possession with 3:08 remaining in the opening half, scoring on a WR Phillip Dorsett receiving TD from QB Tom Brady with 0:33 remaining in the first half, eventually drawing the halftime tally to a 14-0 advantage in favor of the visiting Patriots. Coming out of the intermission, the Chiefs answered.

Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes hit WR Sammy Watkins on a 54-yard catch on third-and-two to set up a TE Travis Kelce 12-yard TD reception to open the scoring for the Chiefs. Two possessions later, New England K Stephen Gostkowski connected on a 47-yard FG to advance the visitor's lead to double digits, 17-7 with 4:07 in the third quarter. 10 plays later, RB Damien Williams hit paydirt from one yard out for his second rushing TD of the postseason, pulling Kansas City to within a three-point margin. Two possessions after that, Williams' lightning struck twice, this time on a 23-yard TD pass from Mahomes, to give Kansas City a 21-17 lead with under eight minutes remaining in regulation.

On the following possession, Brady and the Patriots put together a 10-play, 75-yard drive that covered 4:13 to regain the lead off a Michel 10-yard TD rush, leaving 3:35 on the clock.

Mahomes and the Chiefs responded with a scoring drive of their own. RB Damien Williams capped off the series with his third TD of the game and fourth of the postseason to put the Chiefs back on top.

The Patriots used the two-minute warning and assembled a six-play drive capped with a rushing TD to regain the lead for the third time. With 0:39 remaining in regulation, Mahomes used two deep passes to set up a game-tying Harrison Butker FG and extend the contest into overtime.

New England won the toss and elected to receive, orchestrating a 13-play, 75-yard drive capped by RB Rex Burkhead punching it in from one yard out to defeat the Chiefs and advance to Super Bowl LIII.

Chiefs 51, Texans 31

January 12, 2020 • Arrowhead Stadium • 73,503

HOUSTON . . . . . .21 3 7 0 — 31
KANSAS CITY. . . . . .0 28 13 10 — 51

Kansas City entered the 2019 postseason as the conference's second seed, earning a first-round bye for the second consecutive year. In a rematch of a 2019 regular season game that saw the Texans leave Arrowhead Stadium with a 31-24 win, Houston picked up where they left off taking an early lead in the AFC Divisional Game. By the start of the second quarter, the Texans had accumulated 24 points and left Kansas City scoreless.

Sparked by a 58-yard kickoff return by WR Mecole Hardman, QB Patrick Mahomes connected with RB Damien Williams for a 17-yard touchdown to get the Chiefs on the board. On the next defensive series, S Daniel Sorensen made a game-changing tackle on a fourth-down fake punt to set up the first of three consecutive touchdown passes to TE Travis Kelce. On the ensuing kickoff return, Sorensen and CB Alex Brown combined to force a Houston fumble, setting up Kelce's second TD of the quarter. After a 51-yard Houston field goal sailed wide right as the clock expired on the first half, the Chiefs offense dominated the second quarter. After another Mahomes to Kelce TD, the Chiefs had put up 28 unanswered points in less than five minutes of game time. Kansas City took a 28-24 lead into halftime.

In the third quarter, RB Damien Williams rattled off a pair of rushing touchdowns to cap off 85- and 77-yard drives, extending Kansas City's lead to 41-24. The Texans scored their final points of the day on a five-yard touchdown run by QB Deshaun Watson at the end of the third quarter.

Mahomes drove the Chiefs right down the field and found TE Blake Bell for an eight-yard TD to ignite the fourth quarter. The Chiefs defense forced a Houston turnover on downs, setting up a 24-yard field goal from K Harrison Butker to extend the lead to 51-31.

The Chiefs etched themselves in the NFL and Chiefs record books, setting franchise records for most points scored in a postseason game in Chiefs history, as well as the franchise record for most touchdowns (seven). The 24-point deficit the Chiefs overcame tied for the fourth-largest comeback in a playoff game in NFL history, while the 28 unanswered points in the second quarter were tied for the third-most points scored by a team in the second quarter of a playoff game in NFL history at the time.

With five touchdown passes in the game, Mahomes set a new single-game franchise record and tied for the fourth-most touchdown throws in a postseason game in NFL history, behind the record of six. Kelce became the first player in the Super Bowl era to record three receiving touchdowns in a single quarter in a postseason game.

DE Frank Clark recorded 3.0 sacks in the game, tying for the most career postseason sacks in a game in franchise history, and tying for the fourth-most sacks in a single postseason game in NFL history.

TE Travis Kelce catches one of three touchdown passes in the second quarter against the Texans.

2019 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 35, Titans 24

TENNESSEE	10	7	0	7	— 24
KANSAS CITY	7	14	0	14	— 35

For the second-consecutive season, the Chiefs hosted the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium for the opportunity to secure the Lamar Hunt Trophy in front of the team's home fans. In another rematch against an AFC South opponent that ended in a 2019 regular season loss, the Tennessee Titans visited Arrowhead and jumped out to a 10-0 lead behind a 30-yard field goal and a four-yard touchdown rush from RB Derrick Henry.

QB Patrick Mahomes found WR Tyreek Hill for the club's first score of the day on an eight-yard pass. The Chiefs fell behind by double digits for the second time in the game when Tennessee QB Ryan Tannehill found T Dennis Kelly for a one-yard touchdown pass on a tackle-eligible play.

Despite another double-digit first-half deficit, Mahomes connected with Hill for the second time, this time from 20 yards out to narrow the margin to 17-14 midway through the second quarter. After the Chiefs defense forced a Tennessee three-and-out and the offense took over inside the two-minute warning, Mahomes found TE Travis Kelce and WR Sammy Watkins for two 3rd-down conversions. Down by three and facing second-and-10 with 23 seconds left in the first half, Mahomes scrambled for a 27-yard touchdown to put the Chiefs up 21-17 going into halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Chiefs opened up the fourth quarter with a three-yard touchdown run from RB Damien Williams, giving him three rushing touchdowns in the 2019 postseason and four overall touchdowns.

DE Tanoh Kpassagnon recorded one of his 2.0 sacks on the ensuing drive, forcing a punt to give the Chiefs offense the ball back with just under 12 minutes left in the game. Facing third-and-six, Mahomes connected with WR Sammy Watkins for a 60-yard touchdown pass that pushed the Chiefs lead to 35-17.

Tennessee went on to score a touchdown on a 22-yard pass from Tannehill to TE Anthony Firkser to cut into the Chiefs lead. After a Kansas City drive that took two minutes off the clock, the Chiefs defense applied heavy pressure on the Titans final drive as S Tyrann Mathieu broke up a third-down pass and DE Frank Clark sacked Tannehill for a 17-yard loss on fourth-and-six.

For the first time in franchise history, the Chiefs secured the Lamar Hunt Trophy as the AFC Champions and the club punched its ticket to the franchise's third Super Bowl, the first since the 1969 season.

With Hill's two first-half touchdown receptions, he and TE Travis Kelce became the first pair of teammates to each record a playoff game with multiple first-half receiving touchdowns in a single postseason since Colts wide receivers Marvin Harrison and Brandon Stokley accomplished the feat in 2003.

QB Patrick Mahomes dives across the goal line to cap his 27-yard touchdown rush at the end of the first half.

SUPER BOWL LIV

Chiefs 31, 49ers 20

February 2, 2020 • Hard Rock Stadium • 62,417

SAN FRANCISCO	3	7	10	0	— 20
KANSAS CITY	7	3	0	21	— 31

The Kansas City Chiefs squared off against the NFC Champion San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV at Hard Rock Stadium, the home of the Miami Dolphins, in Miami Gardens, Florida, on Sunday, February 2, 2020. It marked the club's third Super Bowl appearance (I, IV and LIV), but the first appearance for the club since winning Super Bowl IV against the Minnesota Vikings following the 1969 season.

The Chiefs went three-and-out on the game's opening drive and San Francisco got on the scoreboard first with a 38-yard K Robbie Gould field goal. The Chiefs then marched down the field and after a QB Patrick Mahomes scramble left the offense with a fourth-and-one, the Chiefs drew inspiration from the 1948 Rose Bowl between Michigan and USC, calling "Shift to Rose Bowl Right Parade" for RB Damien Williams to pick up four yards and a first down on the one-yard line. After being stopped on first down, Mahomes ran a speed option to the right and took the ball into the end zone to take the 7-3 lead.

On the following drive, CB Bashaud Breeland intercepted San Francisco QB Jimmy Garoppolo, setting up the chance for the Chiefs to extend their lead at the start of the second quarter. After reaching the red zone, Kansas City's drive stalled and K Harrison Butker connected on a 31-yard field goal to go up 10-3.

San Francisco evened the score at 10-10 in the second quarter after a string of five-consecutive plays that gained 10 or more yards, including a 15-yard touchdown pass from Garoppolo to FB Kyle Juszczyk. The Chiefs followed up with a punt on their next possession, and an offensive pass interference call against the 49ers stalled a late first-half drive, sending the teams to the locker room tied at 10-10.

San Francisco started the second half much the same way it started the game, taking its opening drive 60 yards before the Chiefs defense forced a 42-yard field goal. Facing third-and-12 on the next drive, Mahomes threw an interception as LB Fred Warner picked off a pass intended for WR Tyreek Hill. The 49ers converted that into points as RB Raheem Mostert scored on a one-yard rush, giving San Francisco the 20-10 lead. With under three minutes left in the third quarter, the Chiefs were facing their third-straight double-digit postseason deficit.

As the Chiefs were driving to start the fourth quarter, a nine-yard sack set the offense back, and Mahomes threw a pass on third-and-six intended for Hill that was intercepted by S Tarvarius Moore.

The Kansas City defense stepped up and forced a San Francisco punt after the interception, and the offense got to work. Facing second-and-15, Mahomes completed a 16-yard pass to Hill that was eventually overturned to an incomplete pass after a 49ers challenge. On third-and-15, Mahomes completed a 44-yard pass to Hill on the now-fabled "Gun Trey Right 3 Jet Chip Wasp Y Funnel," or "Wasp" for short. On third-and-10, Mahomes threw a pass to TE Travis Kelce that drew a defensive pass interference penalty, putting the ball on the one-yard line. Mahomes found Kelce for a one-yard touchdown pass on the next play to narrow the deficit to 20-17.

After a San Francisco three-and-out, the Chiefs took possession with just over five minutes left in the game. Highlighted by a 38-yard pass to WR Sammy Watkins, the drive was capped with a five-yard touchdown pass to RB Damien Williams, giving the Chiefs a lead they would not relinquish.

With San Francisco moving the ball in an attempt to take the lead, DE Frank Clark sacked Garoppolo for a nine-yard loss on fourth-and-10 with 1:25 left on the clock. Williams broke through the San Francisco defense on second down for a 38-yard touchdown run to extend the Chiefs lead to 31-20. DB Kendall Fuller then put the game on ice as he intercepted a last-ditch Garoppolo pass. The Chiefs were able to run out the clock to secure the club's second Super Bowl championship.

The 10-point fourth-quarter comeback tied for the second-largest comeback in Super Bowl history and the Chiefs became the first team to record three comebacks of at least 10 points in a single postseason in NFL history.

QB Patrick Mahomes was awarded the Pete Rozelle Trophy as MVP of the game. At 24 years and 138 days old, Mahomes became the youngest QB and the third-youngest player (Marcus Allen and Lynn Swann) to win the Super Bowl MVP award.

Chiefs 22, Browns 17

January 17, 2021 • Arrowhead Stadium • 16,730

*Reduced capacity due to COVID-19

CLEVELAND	3	0	7	7	— 17
KANSAS CITY	6	13	3	0	— 22

Kansas City entered the 2020 postseason as the AFC's top seed, earning a first-round bye for the third-consecutive year. The Chiefs jumped out to an early 6-0 lead on a 10-play, 75-yard opening drive capped off by a one-yard rushing touchdown by QB Patrick Mahomes.

After a failed Chiefs PAT attempt, the Browns were able to cut the lead in half on the ensuing possession with a 46-yard field goal by K Cody Parkey. The drive stalled largely due to the first-career postseason sack by Chiefs rookie CB L'Jarius Sneed.

The Kansas City offense continued its hot start with a second-straight 75-yard drive, this time capped off by a 20-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to TE Travis Kelce to give the Chiefs a 13-3 lead.

Chiefs K Harrison Butker was able to convert a 50-yard field goal later in the quarter to extend Kansas City's lead to 13 points with a score of 16-3. The 50-yarder marked what was at the time the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history.

The Browns looked to gain momentum by making it a one-score game before the half as they marched down the field on the following possession. The drive ended with a huge swing in Kansas City's favor as S Daniel Sorensen made one of the biggest defensive plays of the season for the Chiefs. Browns QB Baker Mayfield connected with WR Rashard Higgins on a deep pass near the goal line, but as Higgins reached the ball out in attempt to break the plane, Sorensen delivered a strong hit to pop the ball out and force a fumble through the back of the end zone for a touchback and change of possession, preserving the 16-3 lead for the Chiefs.

The Chiefs offense worked efficiently on the next drive, going 70 yards in just over a minute and a half, setting up Butker to tack on another field goal to make the score 19-3 heading into halftime.

The Kansas City defense continued their strong performance after the intermission as S Tyrann Mathieu recorded his first-career postseason interception on the first drive of the second half.

However, just as everything seemed to be going Kansas City's way, the trajectory of the game changed dramatically. After a missed Chiefs field goal following the interception, Mayfield connected with WR Jarvis Landry on a touchdown pass to cap off a 77-yard drive for the Browns and cut the Chiefs lead to 19-10.

On the ensuing possession for the Chiefs, Mahomes took a hit around the head and neck area with 7:27 remaining in the third quarter. He came up off-balance and was forced to exit for the remainder of the contest as he entered the concussion protocol.

Mahomes was replaced by 35-year-old backup QB Chad Henne who was making his first-career postseason appearance. On Henne's first drive, he was able to move the Chiefs into field goal range and allow Butker to convert his third field goal of the day to give Kansas City a 22-10 lead.

The momentum fully swung in Cleveland's direction on the next possession as the Browns put together a long touchdown drive to close out the third quarter. The 18-play drive spanned 75 yards in over eight minutes, ending with RB Kareem Hunt punching it in from three yards out to make it a one-score game, 22-17, going into the final quarter.

Henne was picked off in the end zone by Browns S Karl Joseph on the following drive, setting Cleveland up with a touchback and a chance to take the lead late in the game.

The Kansas City defense stepped up to the plate and came up with a huge stop to preserve the lead and force Cleveland to punt the ball away with just over four minutes remaining in the game.

Henne and the Chiefs offense needed to come up with two first downs on the final drive to ice the game and advance to the AFC Championship Game. After moving the sticks once, Henne was sacked on the second set of downs to set up a 3rd-and-14 at the two-minute warning.

Following the pause in the action, it was Henne's turn to rise to the challenge as he made a play that will be remembered in Chiefs Kingdom forever. As he dropped back to pass on third down, the pocket collapsed and Henne escaped out to the left, scrambling toward the marker and diving head-first for the line to gain. After a measurement, the ball was marked less than one yard shy of the first down and the Chiefs were faced with a fourth down with 1:14 remaining.

The Chiefs came out in a shotgun formation with three receivers split out wide to the right for the fourth down. After letting the play clock wind down, the ball was snapped and Henne connected with WR Tyreek Hill on a short out-route from the slot, good for five yards and the first down. After that, Henne was able to line up in victory formation and take a knee to send Kansas City to its third-consecutive AFC Championship Game.

Notably, Hill (110) and Kelce (109) both tallied 100+ receiving yards in the game, marking only the second time in franchise history that the Chiefs have had two 100+-yard receivers in a postseason game.

By completing 21-of-30 passes (70.0%) for 255 yards in the game, Mahomes (1,729) passed QB Len Dawson (1,497) for the most postseason passing yards in franchise history. But it was the late-game heroics by Henne that will be remembered and left Mahomes to write on Twitter following the game: "#HenneThingIsPossible."

2020 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 38, Bills 24

January 24, 2021 • Arrowhead Stadium • 16,993

*Reduced capacity due to COVID-19

BUFFALO	9	3	3	9	— 24
KANSAS CITY	0	21	10	7	— 38

The Chiefs became the first team in NFL history to host three-consecutive AFC Championship Games as they took on the Buffalo Bills in front of their home crowd with a chance to hoist the Lamar Hunt Trophy for the second year in a row. The only other team in NFL history to host three-straight conference championship games were the 2002-04 Philadelphia Eagles, also led by Head Coach Andy Reid.

The major storyline throughout the week leading up to the game was whether QB Patrick Mahomes would be eligible to play, but he was able to clear the concussion protocol and make the start, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to start three-consecutive conference championship games in his first four seasons in the league.

The Bills got out to an early lead, with a 51-yard field goal by K Tyler Bass and a three-yard touchdown reception by TE Dawson Knox following a muffed punt by the Chiefs to put Buffalo ahead 9-0.

No strangers to postseason deficits after their Super Bowl run the year before, Kansas City responded on their next drive as WR Mecole Hardman, who had muffed the punt earlier, quickly redeemed himself by taking a three-yard pass in for the score to cut the lead to 9-7.

After the defense forced a punt, Hardman took a handoff around the left end for 50 yards down to the Buffalo 32-yard line. The 50-yard carry marked the longest run from scrimmage in postseason franchise history. This set up a quick scoring drive capped off by a six-yard touchdown run by RB Darrell Williams to put the Chiefs ahead 14-9.

After forcing a three-and-out on the next possession, the Chiefs were able to punch it into the end zone one more time before the half on a one-yard rush by rookie RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire. Returning from a high ankle sprain suffered in Week 15, it was his first-career postseason touchdown. Buffalo responded with a field goal to make the score 21-12 heading into halftime.

After both teams traded field goals to open up the second half, the Chiefs offense continued its hot streak with a quick 75-yard drive ending with a one-yard touchdown reception by TE Travis Kelce. The drive was highlighted by a short pass to WR Tyreek Hill on the second play in which Hill was able to elude several Bills defenders and use a burst of speed to stretch it into a 71-yard gain. The 71-yard reception was the second-longest catch in Chiefs postseason history. Hill finished the game with 172 yards, the most receiving yards by any Chiefs player in postseason history.

A 30-yard interception return by CB Rashad Fenton set up yet another scoring drive for Kansas City, this time closed out with a five-yard pass to Kelce to push the lead to 38-15. With two touchdowns on the day, Kelce increased his career total to nine postseason receiving touchdowns, the most in Chiefs history and the second-most by a tight end in NFL history, trailing only Tampa Bay TE Rob Gronkowski. Kelce finished with 118 yards on 13 receptions, the most receptions by any player in a Conference Championship Game in the Super Bowl era.

The Chiefs defense held the Bills to only nine points in the fourth quarter. Chiefs DE Frank Clark recorded 2.0 sacks in the final quarter, bringing his career postseason total to 10.0 sacks, including a franchise record 7.0 postseason sacks with the Chiefs in just two seasons with the team.

Notably, Chiefs T Eric Fisher suffered a torn achilles tendon in the fourth quarter of the game which would force him to miss the remainder of the postseason.

With a final score of 38-24, Kansas City advanced to the Super Bowl for the fourth time in franchise annals and earned back-to-back appearances for the first time in team history.

With three touchdown passes in the game, Mahomes (17) passed Seahawks QB Russell Wilson (16) for the most postseason passing touchdowns by a player in his first four seasons in NFL history.

The win gave Reid 17 postseason victories on his career, moving him into a tie for fourth place with PFHOF coach Joe Gibbs on the NFL's all-time list.

SUPER BOWL LV

Buccaneers 31, Chiefs 9

February 7, 2021 • Raymond James Stadium • 24,835

*Reduced capacity due to COVID-19

KANSAS CITY	3	3	3	0	— 9
TAMPA BAY	7	14	10	0	— 31

The Chiefs faced off with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Super Bowl LV in a rematch of a Week 12 contest in the regular season that the Chiefs won 27-24. With the game being held at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Fla., home to the Buccaneers, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team would play a Super Bowl in its home stadium.

Entering the game with a record of 16-2 (regular and postseason), the Chiefs stellar season would come to a disappointing close as Tampa Bay controlled the contest from nearly start to finish.

It was a defensive start to the game with both teams trading punts on the first three drives. On Tampa Bay's second drive, Chiefs DE Frank Clark notched his third sack of the 2020 postseason by taking down Buccaneers QB Tom Brady for a loss of six yards to force a fourth down. This brought Clark's total to 11.0 career postseason sacks and 8.0 postseason sacks since joining the Chiefs, the most in franchise history. On the ensuing possession, the Chiefs were finally able to put points on the board with a 49-yard field goal by K Harrison Butker to take a 3-0 lead.

The Buccaneers responded on the next possession, with an eight-yard pass from Brady to TE Rob Gronkowski to put them ahead 7-3 at the end of the first quarter.

The Bucs opened up the lead in the second quarter. Butker converted another field goal for Kansas City, but Tampa Bay answered with two more touchdowns on a 17-yard pass to Gronkowski and a one-yard pass to WR Antonio Brown to make the score 21-6 at halftime.

The third quarter opened with a 52-yard Butker field goal, marking the longest made field goal in Chiefs postseason history, topping the previous franchise-long kick of 50 yards, which Butker set in the 2020 AFC Divisional matchup against the Cleveland Browns. But field goals wouldn't be enough as the Bucs came back with another touchdown and a field goal to increase their lead to 31-9, which would ultimately be the final score.

Although Kansas City was denied in its attempt to become the first team since the 2003-04 Patriots to win back-to-back Super Bowls, several Chiefs still made history in the contest.

For the third-consecutive postseason game, Chiefs TE Travis Kelce tallied 100+ receiving yards, recording 133 yards in Super Bowl LV. Kelce became the first TE in NFL history to record three-consecutive 100-yard games in a single postseason. He joined Arizona WR Larry Fitzgerald, who recorded four-consecutive 100-yard games in the 2008 postseason, as the only the only two players in NFL history with at least three-consecutive 100-yard games in the same postseason. Kelce's six career 100-yard receiving games in the postseason were the most in franchise history at the time.

Furthermore, with 10 receptions in Super Bowl LV, Kelce set the NFL record for the most receptions by any player in a single postseason with 31. He passed Fitzgerald who recorded 30 receptions during the 2008 postseason. The previous high mark by a tight end was 22 receptions, set by Cincinnati TE Dan Ross in the 1981 postseason.

With his start in Super Bowl LV, Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes became the youngest quarterback in NFL history (25 years and 143 days old) to start in two Super Bowls, surpassing Seattle's Russell Wilson, who was 26 years and 64 days old at the time of his second Super Bowl start (SB XLIX). Mahomes and Brady (43 years and 188 days old) had the largest age differential (18 years and 45 days) between opposing starting quarterbacks in Super Bowl history.

By completing 26 passes for 270 yards in Super Bowl LV, Mahomes brought his totals to 191 completions for 2,324 yards in his postseason career. He passed Seattle QB Russell Wilson (167) and PFHOF QB Kurt Warner (169) for most postseason completions in a quarterback's first four seasons and moved past Warner (2,221) for second-most postseason passing yards by a quarterback in their first four seasons.

2021 AFC Wild Card Playoff Game

Chiefs 42, Steelers 21

January 16, 2022 • GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium • 73,253

PITTSBURGH	0	7	7	7	— 21
KANSAS CITY	0	21	14	7	— 42

Following Kansas City's sixth-consecutive AFC West Title, the Chiefs hosted the Pittsburgh Steelers in a primetime Super Wild Card Weekend showdown on NBC's Sunday Night Football. The game marked Pittsburgh's second trip to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium in three weeks as it was a rematch of a Week 16 regular season matchup, which the Chiefs won, 36-10.

Both offenses sputtered at the start of the game as the two teams combined for seven punts in the first quarter, along with an interception by Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes.

Kansas City looked for a spark by turning to the Wildcat formation on the first drive of the second quarter with a direct snap to WR Mecole Hardman. However, the offensive woes continued as a handoff between Hardman and RB Darrel Williams was fumbled and then recovered by Steelers DE T.J. Watt and returned 26 yards for the first score of the game.

After the Steelers capitalized on the Chiefs miscue, Kansas City rattled off five straight touchdowns - all coming on passes from QB Patrick Mahomes. RB Jerick McKinnon and WR Byron Pringle each recorded touchdown receptions, and Mahomes connected with TE Travis Kelce for a 48-yard catch-and-run touchdown with less than 15 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-7 lead into the break.

The offense picked up where it left off in the third quarter with Mahomes finding G Nick Allegretti for a one-yard touchdown pass on a tackle-eligible play. On Pittsburgh's first play from scrimmage after the touchdown, Chiefs LB Willie Gay forced a RB Najee Harris fumble that was recovered by Chiefs DE Frank Clark. Two plays later, Mahomes connected with WR Tyreek Hill on a 31-yard touchdown pass to go up 35-7.

Pittsburgh would tally its first offensive touchdown of the day on a 13-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Diontae Johnson to cap its longest drive of the day - a 10-play, 75-yard scoring effort. Kansas City answered with another highlight play as Kelce took a direct snap and found Pringle in the end zone for a one-yard touchdown, marking the Kansas State product's second touchdown reception of the game to extend the lead to 42-14.

Pittsburgh would add a fourth-quarter touchdown on a 15-yard pass from Roethlisberger to WR James Washington to narrow the final score gap to 42-21. Kansas City's second win against the Steelers in three weeks set up another 2021 rematch in the AFC Divisional Round as the Chiefs would play host to the Buffalo Bills for the second time in 2021.

The AFC Wild Card Game would prove to be the final professional game of Roethlisberger's 18-year career as he announced his retirement from the NFL less than two weeks after the playoff game in Kansas City.

QB Patrick Mahomes and QB Ben Roethlisberger meet postgame after what would become Roethlisberger's final NFL game after an 18-year career in Pittsburgh.

STEELERS — Watt, 26-yard fumble return (Boswell kick).
CHIEFS — McKinnon, 4-yard pass from Mahomes (Butker kick) (8-76, 4:56).

2021 AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Chiefs 42, Bills 36 (OT)

January 23, 2022 • GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium • 73,242

BUFFALO	7	7	7	15	0	—	36
KANSAS CITY	7	7	9	13	6	—	42

The 2021 AFC Divisional Round matchup against Buffalo was a rematch of the 2020 AFC Championship Game that propelled the Chiefs to a spot in Super Bowl LV, and it was also a rematch from Week 5 of the 2021 regular season in which the Bills handed Kansas City a 38-20 loss. The storylines around the game made it one of the most highly anticipated matchups of the entire season.

Buffalo opened the game with a 13-play, 71-yard drive that saw the Bills convert two fourth-down attempts, including a one-yard TD rush by RB Devin Singletary to get out to an early 7-0 lead. Kansas City would quickly answer with an eight-yard TD rush by QB Patrick Mahomes to cap an 11-play, 74-yard drive. The clubs traded second-quarter touchdowns as Mahomes found WR Byron Pringle for a two-yard score, and Buffalo QB Josh Allen answered on the next drive with an 18-yard touchdown pass to WR Gabriel Davis to knot the game at 14-14 at halftime.

Kansas City jumped out to a two-score lead in the third quarter on a 39-yard K Harrison Butker field goal and a 25-yard jet sweep touchdown rush by WR Mecole Hardman, although Butker's PAT bounced off the left upright. Allen and the Bills wasted no time answering as Allen connected with Davis for a 75-yard touchdown to narrow the Chiefs lead to 23-21 entering the fourth quarter.

The game's fourth quarter alone lived up to the hype generated prior to the game as the teams combined for an explosion of 28 fourth-quarter points. Butker converted a 28-yard field goal to start the scoring. Then Allen connected with Davis for a 27-yard touchdown to cap a 17-play, 75-yard drive that took more than seven minutes off the clock. The Bills had the 29-26 lead with less than two minutes remaining. Kansas City retook a 33-29 lead after a five-play, 75-yard drive that lasted 52 seconds and was capped by a 64-yard pass to WR Tyreek Hill. Allen led the Bills down the field in short order, finding Davis for his NFL-postseason record fourth touchdown reception of the game, this time a 19-yarder that put the Bills up 36-33 with just 13 seconds left on the clock. What happened in those ensuing 13 seconds is now etched in franchise lore as Mahomes first found Hill for 19 yards before taking a timeout with eight seconds left. Mahomes then found TE Travis Kelce for a 25-yard gain, followed by another timeout with three seconds left. That set up a game-tying 49-yard field goal from Butker to push the game into overtime.

Kansas City won the overtime coin toss and never looked back as the Chiefs marched down the field in seven plays and found themselves in a first-and-goal situation. On the next play, Mahomes found Kelce for the game-winning eight-yard touchdown to win 42-36 and advance to the club's fourth-consecutive home AFC Championship Game. The Chiefs became just the seventh team in NFL history to reach four-straight Conference Title Games and the first team to host four consecutive Conference Title Games.

The win gave the Chiefs a franchise record six consecutive home postseason victories, tying for the 10th-longest home winning streak in the NFL dating back to 1970.

TE Travis Kelce hauls in the game-winning eight-yard TD pass to send Kansas City to its fourth consecutive home AFC Championship Game.

2021 AFC Championship Game

Bengals 27, Chiefs 24 (OT)

January 30, 2022 • GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium • 73,377

CINCINNATI	3	7	11	3	3	—	27
KANSAS CITY	7	14	0	3	0	—	24

The Kansas City Chiefs made history as the first team in NFL annals to host four consecutive conference championship home games when the franchise welcomed the Cincinnati Bengals to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

The Kansas City defense opened the game by forcing a quick three-and-out against the Bengals, and converted that into points behind an 11-play, 84-yard drive that was capped by a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB Patrick Mahomes to WR Tyreek Hill, putting the Chiefs up 7-0. Cincinnati would answer with a 14-play drive of its own that resulted in a 32-yard field goal from rookie K Evan McPherson.

Mahomes then quickly found WR Mecole Hardman for a 44-yard connection, eventually setting up a five-yard touchdown pass to TE Travis Kelce to extend Kansas City's lead to 14-3. After forcing another Bengals punt, Kansas City added to its lead on a three-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to Hardman to go up 21-3. The Bengals narrowed the gap before halftime as QB Joe Burrow connected with RB Samaje Perine for a 41-yard catch-and-run touchdown with less than two minutes to go in the first half of the game. Kansas City would push down the field in the waning moments of the first half, but were stopped at the goal line attempting to extend the lead with a touchdown with just five seconds left in the first half.

The two teams traded punts to open the third quarter before McPherson connected on a 31-yard field goal for the Bengals. After a Mahomes interception early on the ensuing drive, Cincinnati converted the turnover into points as Burrow found rookie WR Ja'Marr Chase for a two-yard touchdown. With a successful two-point conversion pass, the Bengals pulled even at 21-21 heading into the fourth quarter.

Kansas City was forced to punt, but immediately got the ball back as CB L'Jarius Sneed intercepted Burrow near midfield. The Chiefs offense could not capitalize on the turnover though and punted the ball back to the Bengals. Cincinnati then used 11 plays to cover 46 yards and took a 24-21 lead on a 52-yard McPherson field goal with just over six minutes remaining in the game.

Kansas City covered 49 yards in 14 plays, including converting two separate third downs before K Harrison Butker connected on a 44-yard field goal as time expired to send the game into overtime tied at 24-24.

After winning the coin toss, Kansas City's only drive of overtime stalled when a Mahomes' pass intended for Hill on third-and-10 was tipped and intercepted near midfield. Cincinnati then used nine plays to cover 42 yards and converted a 31-yard field goal from McPherson on third-and-11 to thwart Kansas City's bid for a third-straight trip to the Super Bowl.

WR Tyreek Hill opened the game's scoring with a 10-yard touchdown reception.

Chiefs 27, Jaguars 20

January 21, 2023 • GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium • 73,220

JACKSONVILLE	7	3	0	10	— 20
KANSAS CITY	7	10	3	7	— 27

With a 14-3 regular season record, the Kansas City Chiefs secured the AFC playoff's only first-round bye, welcoming the Jacksonville Jaguars to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium for the Divisional Round. It was a rematch of a Week 10 matchup in Kansas City, and the Chiefs jumped on the board first with an eight-yard TD pass from QB Patrick Mahomes to TE Travis Kelce.

Jacksonville would pull even on the ensuing drive after a 63-yard kickoff return by WR Jamal Agnew set the Jaguars up with a short field. QB Trevor Lawrence connected with WR Christian Kirk for a 10-yard touchdown to tie the game.

Mahomes injured his right ankle at the end of the first quarter, with K Harrison Butker giving the Chiefs a 10-7 lead with a 50-yard field goal less than a minute into the second quarter. After Jacksonville got inside Kansas City's 30-yard line, a Jaguars penalty and a DE Frank Clark sack pushed the Jaguars out of field goal range and forced a punt that was downed at the Chiefs two-yard line.

With Mahomes sidelined with the ankle injury, QB Chad Henne entered the game and orchestrated a 12-play, 98-yard touchdown drive to extend the Chiefs lead to 17-7. Henne completed five of seven passes for 23 yards on the drive, capping it with a one-yard connection to Kelce, his second receiving touchdown of the game.

Jacksonville narrowed the Chiefs lead to 17-10 with a 41-yard field goal from K Riley Patterson with just under 30 seconds left to go in the first half.

Coming out of halftime, Mahomes re-entered the game and the two teams each traded a pair of punts in the third quarter before Mahomes found TE Noah Gray for a 27-yard strike to get into Jacksonville territory. After the drive stalled, Butker converted on his second 50-yard field goal of the day, becoming the first Chiefs kicker, and the ninth kicker in NFL history, to record multiple 50+ yard field goals in a single postseason game.

Jacksonville made it a single-score game again at the beginning of the fourth quarter as Lawrence found WR Zay Jones for a 37-yard gain to get into Chiefs territory. Kirk then recorded an 18-yard rush around the right end, setting up a four-yard touchdown run by RB Travis Etienne, making the score 20-17 in favor of Kansas City.

The Chiefs answered back immediately with a 10-play, 75-yard drive that was punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling. Mahomes found Kelce for passes of 11 yards and 15 yards, as well as connected with WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for 16 yards on the drive. WR Kadarius Toney took an end-around for 14 yards as well.

Jacksonville would add a late 48-yard field goal to narrow the margin to 27-20, but the Jaguars ensuing onside kick was recovered by Toney, sealing the 27-20 victory.

Kelce finished the game with a franchise postseason game record 14 receptions, tying for the third-most receptions by a player in a single game in NFL postseason history.

TE Travis Kelce recorded 14 total receptions, including two touchdown catches in the game. He caught touchdowns from both QBs Patrick Mahomes and Chad Henne.

CHIEFS — Kelce, 8-yard pass from Mahomes (Butker kick) (12-83, 6:00).

2022 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 23, Bengals 20

January 29, 2023 • GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium • 73,426

CINCINNATI	0	6	7	7	— 20
KANSAS CITY	3	10	7	3	— 23

For the fifth-consecutive season, the Kansas City Chiefs hosted the AFC Championship Game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, extending an NFL record for most consecutive home conference championship games. The 2022 version featured a rematch of the 2021 AFC title tilt with the Cincinnati Bengals visiting with a trip to Super Bowl LVII on the line.

Cincinnati opened the game on offense but after a nine-yard sack of QB Joe Burrow by DE Frank Clark, the Bengals punted to the Chiefs. QB Patrick Mahomes connected on 16-yard passes to rookie RB Isiah Pacheco and TE Travis Kelce before the drive stalled, setting up a 43-yard K Harrison Butker field goal to put the Chiefs on top 3-0.

The Kansas City defense forced a three-and-out on the heels of a six-yard DT Chris Jones sack. The Chiefs then went on a 12-play, six-minute drive, getting inside Cincinnati's 10-yard line. An offensive holding penalty nullified a Pacheco touchdown rush, eventually leading to a 24-yard Butker field goal, giving Kansas City a 6-0 lead at the start of the second quarter.

The Bengals got on the scoreboard in the second quarter, with Burrow connecting with WR Tyler Boyd twice for 40 total yards. Kansas City's defense forced the drive to stall in the red zone, with K Evan McPherson connecting on a 30-yard field goal to narrow the Chiefs lead to 6-3.

On the ensuing drive, Mahomes found WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling on back-to-back passes for 11 and 29 yards. Facing fourth-and-one after a zero-yard sack of Mahomes, the quarterback connected with Kelce for a 14-yard touchdown, putting Kansas City up 13-3 with under four minutes left in the first half.

Rookie CB Jaylen Watson recorded an interception of a Burrow pass that was intended for WR Tee Higgins. The Cincinnati defense forced a three-and-out, getting the ball back around the two-minute warning. Burrow then connected with Higgins for gains of 11 and 21 yards to get to Kansas City's five-yard line with 0:11 left on the clock. Kansas City's defense rose to the occasion, forcing back-to-back incompletions. The Bengals then converted a 23-yard field goal from McPherson to narrow the Kansas City lead to 13-6 as the clock expired on the first half.

The Chiefs were forced into a three-and-out to start the second half, with the Bengals tying the game at 13-13 on a 27-yard connection from Burrow to Higgins. The Chiefs answered on their next drive, with Mahomes finding Valdes-Scantling for 25 yards to get into Bengals territory. On third-and-seven, Mahomes found Valdes-Scantling again for seven yards and a first down. Facing third-and-10 from just inside the red zone, Mahomes again connected with Valdes-Scantling for a 19-yard touchdown to put the Chiefs up 20-13.

The Bengals converted a fourth-and-six with a 35-yard pass from Burrow to WR Ja'Marr Chase to open the fourth quarter, moving the ball to the Kansas City five-yard line. RB Samaje Perine scored an equalizing touchdown on a two-yard rush, tying the game at 20-20 with 13:35 left in regulation.

After a Kansas City punt, rookie S Bryan Cook tipped a Burrow pass intended for Higgins into the air, and fellow rookie CB Joshua Williams intercepted the ball, thwarting a potential Bengals scoring drive mid-way through the fourth quarter. Although the Chiefs were forced to punt back to the Bengals, shortly after on a third-and-eight, DT Chris Jones recorded his second sack of the day, dropping Burrow for a seven-yard loss. On the ensuing Cincinnati punt, rookie WR Skyy Moore recorded a 29-yard return. After a six-yard Pacheco carry, a five-yard Mahomes scramble paired with a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on Cincinnati, the stage was set for a field goal. Butker connected on what would become the game-winning 45-yard field goal to send the Chiefs back to the Super Bowl for the third time in four years.

With the win, Head Coach Andy Reid earned his 21st career postseason victory as a head coach, passing PFHOF Tom Landry (20) for the second-most playoff victories in NFL history.

SUPER BOWL LVII

Chiefs 38, Eagles 35

February 12, 2023 • State Farm Stadium • 67,827

KANSAS CITY	7	7	7	17	— 38
PHILADELPHIA	7	17	3	8	— 35

Kansas City returned to the Super Bowl stage for the third time in four seasons, with a number of national storylines driving interest in the game - two Black quarterbacks facing off in the Super Bowl for the first time, the Kelce brothers becoming the first siblings to face each other in the big game, and Head Coach Andy Reid taking on his former team.

Philadelphia jumped out to the early lead with an 11-play, 75-yard drive that was capped by a one-yard touchdown run by QB Jalen Hurts. The Chiefs offense matched on a six-play, 75-yard drive of its own that saw an 18-yard TD connection between QB Patrick Mahomes and TE Travis Kelce.

The teams traded punts to close out the first quarter, but on the first play of the second quarter, the Eagles struck paydirt on a 45-yard touchdown pass from Hurts to WR A.J. Brown to go up 14-7. After a Chiefs third-and-out, LB Nick Bolton recovered a Hurts fumble and returned it 36 yards for a Kansas City touchdown to tie the game at 14-14. The Eagles retook the lead on Hurts' second TD run of the game, this time from four yards out to go up 21-14.

With just over two minutes left in the first half, the Kansas City offense took over, but the drive stalled after a three-yard rush by Mahomes on third-and-15 that left the quarterback hobbling back to the sideline in pain after re-aggravating his ankle injury from the Divisional Round. Following a Kansas City punt, Philadelphia added a 35-yard FG from K Jake Elliott as time expired in the first half to go up 24-14.

Kansas City opened the second half with a one-yard touchdown run by rookie RB Isiah Pacheco, narrowing the margin to 24-21. Philadelphia then went on a 17-play, 60-yard drive that took 7:45 off the clock and ended with a 33-yard FG from Elliott to extend their lead to 27-21.

Entering the fourth quarter down six and with the ball, Mahomes found WR JuJu Smith-Schuster four times as Kansas City marched down the field. Facing third-and-three from the Philadelphia five-yard line, Mahomes found WR Kadarius Toney for a five-yard touchdown pass on the play call that was dubbed "Corn Dog," giving the Chiefs their first lead of the game at 28-27.

Kansas City's defense rose to the occasion by forcing a Philadelphia three-and-out on the Eagles next drive. On the ensuing punt, Toney fielded a short kick from Eagles P Arryn Siposs and recorded a Super Bowl-record 65-yard punt return, setting the Chiefs up with first-and-goal from the Philadelphia five-yard line. After a rush on first down and an incomplete pass on second down, Mahomes found rookie WR Skyy Moore for a four-yard touchdown, marking the rookie's first-career NFL touchdown in the regular season or the postseason. It extended the Chiefs lead to 35-27.

On Philadelphia's next drive, Hurts led them down the field, capitalizing on a 45-yard pass to WR DeVonta Smith to get to the Kansas City two-yard line. On the next play, Hurts took the ball two yards to record his third rushing touchdown of the game. Hurts then added a two-point conversion run to tie the game 35-35 with 5:15 left on the clock.

Kansas City took possession and Mahomes found Smith-Schuster for 10 yards and a first down. Mahomes also found Kelce for seven yards and Pacheco rattled off a 10-yard carry to convert a third-and-one. In Philadelphia territory, Mahomes scrambled for a 26-yard run to move into the red zone with under three minutes left in the game. Facing third-and-eight, Mahomes looked for Smith-Schuster but a defensive holding penalty committed against Smith-Schuster kept the Chiefs drive alive. RB Jerick McKinnon took a handoff at the Philadelphia 11-yard line and carried it nine yards before sliding down short of the end zone to maintain possession and force the Eagles to burn their final timeout. After two QB kneels from Mahomes, K Harrison Butker converted a 27-yard FG with :08 left on the clock to go up 38-35.

After a squib kick, Philadelphia's last-second Hail Mary effort fell incomplete, giving the franchise its third Lombardi Trophy and the second in the past four seasons.

2023 AFC Wild Card Playoff Game

Chiefs 26, Dolphins 7

January 13, 2024 • GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium • 71,492

MIAMI	0	7	0	0	— 7
KANSAS CITY	7	9	3	7	— 26

After winning the AFC West for an eighth-consecutive season the Chiefs hosted the Miami Dolphins in what would rank as one of the coldest NFL games ever during Super Wild Card Weekend. At kickoff, the temperature came in at -4 degrees Fahrenheit with a wind chill of -27 degrees making it the fourth coldest contest in NFL history. Despite the frigid conditions, Chiefs Kingdom showed up in force with an announced attendance of 71,492.

After receiving the opening kickoff, QB Patrick Mahomes led a surgical opening drive highlighted by a 23-yard run by RB Isiah Pacheco that set up an 11-yard touchdown strike to rookie WR Rashee Rice giving the Chiefs a 7-0 lead. The touchdown was just the start of a huge day for Rice. He would go on to finish the game with eight receptions for 130 yards, both single-game postseason rookie franchise records.

S Mike Edwards intercepted Dolphins QB Tua Tagovailoa near the end of the first quarter giving the Chiefs another possession. Rice got the ensuing drive rolling with a 23-yard catch-and-run eventually setting up K Harrison Butker for his first field goal of the day to make the score 10-0.

On the next drive, the Dolphins got themselves back in the game. Playing at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium for the first time as a visitor, Dolphins WR Tyreek Hill adjusted to a deep pass from Tagovailoa and took the pass all the way to the endzone for a 53-yard touchdown. The score knocked the Chiefs lead down to 10-7.

From there, Butker would slowly put the game away three points at a time. Butker capped off a 12-play, 72-yard drive with a 26-yard field goal. With under two minutes to play in the first half, the Chiefs moved the ball 47-yards highlighted by their longest play of the day – a 39-yard catch from Rice – in just 1:25 to set up a 32-yard field goal giving the Chiefs a 16-7 halftime lead.

Out of halftime, the Chiefs forced a three-and-out and then put together a methodical 13-play drive for 69 yards. Butker put through a 21-yard field goal, his fourth of the day, to push the lead to 19-7. His four field goals and 14 points were both single-game Chiefs playoff records.

The Chiefs put the final points on the board in the fourth quarter. Rice had another big play, a 28-yard catch, to move the ball into the red zone setting up Pacheco for a three-yard touchdown run to secure the win, 26-7.

The defense left their stamp on the game executing a second-half shutout and holding the league's number two scoring offense in the regular season to their lowest scoring output of the year at just seven points. They gave up 264 total yards to the Dolphins, their second-lowest yardage total of the year, helping the Chiefs advance to the Divisional Round.

QB Patrick Mahomes and teammates prepare to play in one of the coldest games in NFL history. The temperature was -4 degrees with a -27 windchill at kickoff.

Chiefs 27, Buffalo 24

January 21, 2024 • Highmark Stadium • 70,808

KANSAS CITY	3	10	7	7	— 27
BUFFALO	3	14	7	0	— 24

For the first time in QB Patrick Mahomes' career, the Chiefs headed on the road for a playoff game. Despite these two teams matching up in three playoff games over the past four seasons, this was the first time the Chiefs and Bills had met for a playoff game in Highmark Stadium since 1994.

The Bills took the opening kickoff and embarked on a 14-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a field goal from K Tyler Bass to open the scoring. The Chiefs responded with a field goal of their own, tying the game at 3-3 on their only drive of the opening quarter.

The Bills took their next drive and scored the first touchdown of the game on a five-yard run by QB Josh Allen to go up 10-3. In response, the Chiefs came back with another field goal from K Harrison Butker, igniting a back and forth battle with the Chiefs trailling 10-6.

After forcing a quick punt, the Chiefs put together a five-play, 65-yard drive that included a 28-yard rush from RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire. The drive culminated in a 22-yard touchdown pass from QB Patrick Mahomes to TE Travis Kelce giving the Chiefs their first lead of the day at 13-10.

The Bills took a 17-13 lead into halftime after Allen scored his second touchdown of the game on a two-yard rush.

Mahomes found WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a 30-yard pass on the first play of the second half. Just five plays later, Mahomes hit Kelce on a three-yard screen pass for a touchdown. It was the 16th time Mahomes has connected with Kelce for a postseason touchdown, passing QB Tom Brady and TE Rob Gronkowski for the most TD connections between a QB-pass catcher duo in playoff history and giving the Chiefs a 20-17 lead.

The Bills once again recaptured the lead, this time from the arm of Allen, who hit WR Khalil Shakir for a 13-yard touchdown. The lead was short lived as the Chiefs got the ball back and punched in another go ahead score when Pacheco took the ball in on a four-yard run to capture a 27-24 lead.

Heading into the fourth quarter the defense stepped up for both teams. Facing a fourth-and-five from their own 30 yard-line the Bills ran a fake punt, but the Chiefs were ready, stopping up the run for a gain of just two yards. Following the turnover on downs, the Chiefs moved the ball down to the Bills three-yard line. However, the drive ended when Bills S Jordan Poyer punched the ball out of WR Mecole Hardman's hands and through the endzone, giving the Bills a touchback.

Both teams traded punts and the Bills got the ball back one final time. They went on a 16-play drive ultimately lining up for a 44-yard field goal attempt to tie the game, but Bass pushed the kick wide right, keeping the score at 27-24.

The Chiefs were able to run out the clock on a 27-24 victory thanks to a first down run by Pacheco propelling the club to their sixth-straight AFC Championship Game.

QB Patrick Mahomes connected with TE Travis Kelce for two touchdowns. As of this victory, the two have now connected on 16 postseason touchdowns, the most by a duo in NFL postseason history.

2023 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Ravens 10

January 28, 2024 • M&T Bank Stadium • 71,439

KANSAS CITY	7	10	0	0	— 17
BALTIMORE	7	0	0	3	— 10

For the sixth-consecutive season, the Chiefs were on the field for the AFC Championship Game, the second-longest streak of championship game appearances in NFL history. For the first time in that span they were the road team and took on the Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium.

The game was largely about the Chiefs defense and they started off right, forcing a quick three-and-out to set up Kansas City's first offensive possession. The Chiefs methodically moved down the field with the two biggest plays going to TE Travis Kelce. First, a 13-yard catch on fourth-and-two followed by a 19-yard touchdown grab in the front corner of the endzone putting the Chiefs up 7-0.

The touchdown grab was part of a historic day for Kelce. He finished the game with 116 receiving yards, his eighth postseason game with at least 100 yards tying PFHOF WR Jerry Rice for the most such games in postseason history. Kelce also had 11 receptions on the day pushing his career postseason total to 156, passing Rice (151) for the most receptions in playoff history.

On the Ravens next possession, Ravens QB Lamar Jackson evaded pressure and hit Ravens WR Zay Flowers for what would be Baltimore's only touchdown of the day on a 30-yard strike.

On their second drive of the game, the Chiefs ran 16 plays and ate up over nine minutes of game clock. They slowly moved into position and RB Isiah Pacheco finished the job punching in the score on a two-yard run. It was Pacheco's fourth-straight postseason game scoring a touchdown on the ground.

The final score of the first half came off the foot of K Harrison Butker. He hit a 52-yard field goal leaving just four seconds in the first half. It was Butker's fifth field goal of 50+ yards in postseason play tying K Adam Vinatieri for the most in playoff history.

In the second half, the Chiefs defense stood strong and no play was bigger than the very first play of the fourth quarter. With Baltimore inside the Chiefs 10-yard line Jackson completed a pass over the middle to Flowers. As Flowers extended the ball towards the endzone, CB L'Jarius Sneed punched the ball out of his hands and CB Trent McDuffie fell on the ball in the endzone for a touchback denying the Ravens of a scoring opportunity.

Ravens K Justin Tucker got the Ravens within one score with their only points of the second half on a 43-yard field goal. On the ensuing possession, the Chiefs faced a third-and-nine just before the two-minute warning. Mahomes dropped back and threw a deep-pass over the middle, hitting WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a game-sealing 32-yard catch.

The Chiefs knelt out the clock on a 17-10 victory sealing the team's fourth trip to the Super Bowl in just five years and the club's second opportunity to raise the Lombardi in back-to-back years.

CB L'Jarius Sneed forced a fumble from Ravens WR Zay Flowers creating a Ravens turnover at the goal line.

CHIEFS — Kelce, 19-yard pass from Mahomes (Butker kick) (10-86, 5:45).
RAVENS — Flowers, 30-yard pass from Jackson (Tucker kick) (6-75, 2:43).

SUPER BOWL LVIII

Chiefs 25, 49ers 22 (OT)

February 11, 2024 • Allegiant Stadium • 61,629

SAN FRANCISCO	0	10	0	9	3	—	22
KANSAS CITY	0	3	10	6	6	—	25

For the fourth time in five seasons the Chiefs represented the AFC in the Super Bowl. Super Bowl LVIII was a rematch of Super Bowl LIV with a familiar venue – AFC West rival Raiders home Allegiant Stadium.The 49ers took the opening kickoff getting the game underway, but were shut down when LB Leo Chenal forced a fumble of 49ers RB Christian McCaffrey that was recovered by DE George Karlaftis.

It wasn't until early in the second quarter when the first points went on the board via a Super Bowl record 55-yard field goal off the foot of 49ers K Jake Moody. Now down 3-0, the Chiefs threatened to take the lead after QB Patrick Mahomes connected with WR Mecole Hardman for a 52-yard reception moving the ball down to the San Francisco nine-yard line. However, a fumble from RB Isiah Pacheco, recovered by San Francisco, put an end to the drive.

After a trick play featuring a 21-yard touchdown pass by 49ers WR Jauan Jennings, the Chiefs trailed 10-0 with 4:32 to play in the first half. The Chiefs took advantage of their final first half possession getting three points on the board with a 28-yard field goal by K Harrison Butker making it a 10-3 49ers lead going into the extended half time.

Kansas City continued to chip into the San Francisco lead with the first points of the second half. Butker converted a 57-yard field goal, breaking the Super Bowl record for longest field goal - a record that was set in the first half by Moody.

The Chiefs found themselves punting on their next possession, but a muffed catch set the Chiefs up just 16-yards from the goal line. Mahomes quickly put the Chiefs on top, throwing a 16-yard strike to WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling giving the Chiefs their first lead of the game at 13-10.

The game swung back in San Fran's direction a few plays later when 49ers QB Brock Purdy found Jennings over the middle for a 10-yard touchdown pass. Chenal came up big on the extra point attempt, getting his hand up and blocking the kick to keep it a three-point game.

The blocked extra point allowed the Chiefs to lock the game up at 16-16 with a field goal on their next possession. San Francisco followed by driving down into field goal range and faced a massive third-and-five at the two-minute warning. Needing a stop to keep the Chiefs in the game, Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo dialed up a blitz that sent CB Trent McDuffie straight into the back field blowing up the play and forcing the 49ers to settle for a field goal.

Using just a minute and 50 seconds, the Chiefs executed a drive all the way down to the San Francisco 11-yard line. The biggest play came on a short pass to TE Travis Kelce who ran 22-yards to set up a 29-yard field goal try. Butker converted, sending the Super Bowl into overtime for just the second time ever tied 19-19.

It was the first time the NFL's new playoff overtime rules were in effect guaranteeing both teams an offensive possession, barring a defensive score. The 49ers won the coin toss and elected to receive the opening overtime kickoff. A promising drive stalled at the Chiefs nine-yard line when DT Chris Jones quickly got into the back field on a third-and-four play forcing an incompletion and a field goal try. Moody put the 49ers up 22-19 and the Chiefs took over needing a touchdown to win the game.

Quickly, the Chiefs faced a fourth-and-one but Mahomes kept the game alive with an eight-yard run. Mahomes went back to his legs on a third-and-one, scrambling for 19 more. To secure the 25-22 Super Bowl LVIII win, Mahomes connected with Hardman on a three-yard touchdown pass play coined "Tom and Jerry" and for the second-straight year, red and gold confetti fell.

The Chiefs hoisted the Lombardi Trophy for the third time in five seasons and became the seventh team to win the Super Bowl in back-to-back years, the first since the Patriots 20 seasons prior. QB Patrick Mahomes was named Super Bowl MVP for the third time in his career. He joined QB Tom Brady (five) and PFHOF QB Joe Montana (three) as the only three-time winners of the award.

HONORS

LAMAR HUNT

Founder • 1960 - 2006

Southern Methodist
Foolish Club (1959)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1970)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1972)

Founded the American Football League in '59 and served as the league's first President ... Was the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1972 ... Described as the "architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream" by his Hall of Fame presenter, William Sullivan ... His Dallas Texans took the field as one of the AFL's charter franchises in '60 and became the Kansas City Chiefs in '63 ... Served as a principal figure in the negotiations that resulted in the AFL-NFL merger which was announced in '66 and fully completed in '70 ... Played a pivotal role in designing the league's current playoff format, as well as the adoption of the old AFL two-point conversion rule into NFL play in '94 ... Held the post of President of the American Football Conference ... Since '84, the AFC Championship Game trophy has carried his name ... Saw the Chiefs win three AFL titles ('62, '66 and '69), as well as a Lombardi Trophy from Super Bowl IV ... Was credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game ... Graduated from Southern Methodist University in '56 with a B.S. in Geology ... Was a reserve end on SMU's football team ... He was survived by his wife, Norma until her passing in 2023 and his four children, Lamar Jr., Sharron, Clark and Daniel, as well as 15 grandchildren ... Born August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Ark. ... Died December 13, 2006 in Dallas, Texas.

THE LAMAR HUNT TROPHY

The winning team in the American Football Conference receives the Lamar Hunt Trophy, named in honor of Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Lamar Hunt, the founder of the American Football League and the Kansas City Chiefs. First presented following the 1984 season, the 2010 season marked the debut of its redesign by Tiffany & Co. The new trophy reflects the sterling silver material of the Vince Lombardi Trophy, awarded each year to the Super Bowl champions. The Lamar Hunt Trophy is designed to depict the journey of the playoffs leading into the Super Bowl. The trophy's shape is based on the football shape used on the Vince Lombardi Trophy. It features an etched conference logo and the NFL Shield.

78 BOBBY BELL

Minnesota
Draft (No. 7 - 1963)

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1983)

Considered by many as the greatest outside linebacker to ever play the game ... Became the first Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on July 30, 1983 ... Was just the fifth American Football League performer to be immortalized in Canton ... Superb athlete began his pro career as a defensive end because the Chiefs needed help at that position when he joined the club as a seventh-round draft choice in '63 ... Was moved to linebacker in '65, where he earned a spot in the AFL All-Star game or the Pro Bowl each of the next nine years ... Was named to the AFL's All-Time Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Starred on two AFL Championship teams, playing in Super Bowls I and IV ... Did not miss a contest during his 12-year career, playing in 168 consecutive games ... Intercepted 26 passes and recovered 15 fumbles ... Scored nine career TDs, including a 53-yard kickoff return ... His eight defensive touchdowns are the most of any player in franchise annals ... Versatile performer handled deep snapping on punts and kicks for the Chiefs ... Began his collegiate career as a quarterback at Minnesota ... Switched to defensive tackle as a sophomore and earned All-America honors at that position as both a junior and senior ... Received the Outland Trophy as college football's outstanding lineman in '62 ... Played on the College All-Star team that defeated the Green Bay Packers in '63 ... Is enshrined in the College Football (1991) and Missouri Sports Halls of Fame (1995) ... Was an all-state QB at Cleveland High School in Shelby, N.C. ... Resides in Kansas City and is currently retired after previously doing marketing for Factory Motor Parts ... Born June 17, 1940 in Shelby, N.C.

16 LEN DAWSON

Purdue
Free Agent (1962)

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1987)

Heart and soul of the Texans/Chiefs franchise during his illustrious career ... Presented by Hank Stram during Canton enshrinement ceremonies on August 8, 1987 ... During his tenure as the team's field general, he helped make the Chiefs one of pro football's premier teams and wound up among the elite passers in the game's history ... Under his guidance, the Chiefs were perennial contenders and won AFL Championships in '62, '66 and '69 ... Was MVP of Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a 23-7 win over the heavily-favored Minnesota Vikings ... Won the AFL passing title four times and still holds Chiefs career marks for pass attempts (3,696), passing yards (28,507) and touchdowns (237) ... Started his pro career as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, then landed with Cleveland before being cut by the Browns on June 12, 1962 ... Was signed by the Texans as a free agent on July 2, 1962 ... Named to six AFL All-Star teams and one Pro Bowl squad ('71) ... Named AFL Player of the Year in '62 ... Started 157 regular season games for Kansas City, by far the most of any signal-caller in franchise history ... Led the AFL in passing four different seasons ('62, '64, '66 and '68) ... Paced the AFL in completion percentage eight times, including a string of six straight seasons from '64-69, the longest streak in NFL history ... Named the '73 NFL Man of the Year as pro football's outstanding player-citizen ... Retired on May 1, 1976 ... Was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in '94 ... Led the Big Ten in passing and total offense for three seasons at Purdue ... Spent 35 years as a color commentator for the Chiefs Radio Network ... Worked as Sports Director and analyst of KMBC-TV in Kansas City ... Nicknamed "Lenny the Cool" ... Born June 20, 1935 in Alliance, Ohio... Died on August 24, 2022 in Kansas City, Missouri.

86 BUCK BUCHANAN

Grambling
Draft (No. 1 - 1963)

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1990)

Became the third member of the Chiefs feared defense of the '60s and '70s to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on August 4, 1990 ... The first overall selection in the '63 AFL Draft, the pick utilized to select Buchanan was acquired in the only trade ever personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt as the Texans sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland ... The Raiders later drafted Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 with the express purpose of blocking Buchanan, who became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen ... Combined perfect size (6-7, 270) with outstanding strength and deceptive speed (10.2 in the 100) ... Worked briefly as a defensive end during his rookie campaign before becoming a fixture at right defensive tackle ... Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl following the '69 season ... Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star Game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ... Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from '66-69 ... His teammates named him Chiefs MVP in '65 and '67 ... In '67 alone he batted down 16 passes at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Played in 182 career regular season games, including a stretch of 166 in a row ... Eddie Robinson, the legendary coach at Grambling where Buchanan was an NAIA All-America choice in '62, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." ... Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Grambling ... Enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in '96 ... Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City ... Was captain of both the football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham, Ala. ... Given name was "Junious," but was known as "Buck" ... Born September 10, 1940 in Gainesville, Ala. and died July 16, 1992 in Kansas City. Survived by his wife, Georgia, who lives in Kansas City.

"The first time I met him, I was impressed with his awesome size, speed and agility, but underneath it all, you came away impressed with a tremendous person, a great competitor and a terrific leader. He loved what he represented, his family and the Chiefs."

- Hank Stram • July 1992

Kicker • 1967-79

Montana State
Draft (Redshirt No. 3 - 1966)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1992)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1991)

The first and only pure placekicker to be inducted into the Hall of Fame through 2015 ... Hank Stram presented Stenerud at enshrinement ceremonies in Canton on July 27, 1991 ... Stenerud's number 3 has been retired by the club ... Regarded by many as the best placekicker in pro football history ... Named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team in '94 and the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team in '90 ... Played 19 NFL seasons with Kansas City ('67-79), Green Bay ('80-83) and Minnesota ('84-85) ... At the time of his retirement he led the NFL in most career field goals and was second in scoring in the NFL behind the fabled George Blanda ... Ranks 20th on the league's all-time scoring list with 1,699 points and is 20th in career field goals made with 373 ... Played in 186 regular season games with Kansas City, the sixth-highest tally in team history ... Still owns or shares five Chiefs records, including field goals attempted in a career (436) and season (44), as well as consecutive games scoring field goals in a single season (14) ... Hit three field goals with a long of 48 yards in Super Bowl IV victory over the Vikings ... Played in 263 pro games and never missed one because of injury or illness ... Played in six Pro Bowls, including two AFL All-Star games ... Named the Outstanding Offensive Player in the '72 Pro Bowl ... Was selected by the Chiefs in the third round of the '65 AFL "Redshirt" Draft ... Attended Montana State University on a skiing scholarship ... Was an outstanding ski jumper in his native Norway ... Was also inducted into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame (1991) and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (1996) ... Served as director of business development for HNTB Architecture, Inc., a Kansas City architectural firm, from 1989-2011 ... Born November 26, 1942 in Fetsund, Norway.

Linebacker • 1989-99

Alabama
Draft (No. 1 - 1989)

Pro Football Hall of Fame (2009)

Pass rusher extraordinaire became the third Chiefs linebacker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Served as the heart and soul of the Chiefs franchise for 11 glorious seasons ('89-99) ... Was not only a bona fide star in terms of his contributions on the field, but also illuminated countless lives through his charitable efforts ... Received the '93 NFL Man of the Year Award, the '95 Byron "Whizzer" White Award and was named former President George H. W. Bush's "832nd Point of Light" ... On the field, was one of the most dominant defensive players of his day thanks to his patented sack-and-strip maneuver ... Established Chiefs career records for sacks (126.5), safeties (3), fumble recoveries (19) and forced fumbles (45) ... His 126.5 sacks were the fourth-highest total ever by a linebacker at the time of his death and still rank 17th, regardless of position, overall in NFL history ... Produced a then club-record 20.0 sacks in '90, including an NFL-record 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle (11/11/90) ... A member of the Hall of Fame's All-Decade Team of the '90s, no player could top his 116.5 sacks during that decade ... The lone player in Chiefs history to see action in three different decades with his final contest coming vs. Oakland (1/2/00) ... Saw duty in 169 games (157 starts) and owns a share of another franchise mark with 10 career playoff appearances ... Won the Mack Lee Hill Award as a rookie in '89 ... Produced nine consecutive Pro Bowl berths following the '89-97 seasons, the second-highest total recorded by a player in Chiefs history ... Was the initial two-time winner ('91, '94) of the club's MVP trophy which now bears his name ... Known simply as "D.T." ... Was born January 1, 1967 in Miami, Fla., the same day the Chiefs won the '66 AFL Championship to advance to Super Bowl I. Died on February 8, 2000 in Miami, Fla., following a serious auto accident on January 23, 2000 in Kansas City, Mo.

The only individual other than Lamar Hunt who was involved with the Texans/Chiefs franchise every year from '60 until the time of Hunt's passing ... Joins Hunt as the only individual other than a player or coach to be inducted in the Chiefs Hall of Fame ... "Jack's contributions to the American Football League, Arrowhead Stadium and the Chiefs franchise have helped positively define the sport in Mid-America," Hunt remarked ... Served in the club's top management position for 29 years as both General Manager from November of '60 to '76 and President from '77 to '88 ... Was instrumental in the franchise's move from Dallas to Kansas City in '63 ... His lobbying efforts for a dual-stadium concept eventually evolved into the Truman Sports Complex, a lasting reminder of his foresight and a project whose design, development and construction he oversaw ... The Chiefs captured three AFL titles as he and Head Coach Hank Stram guided the franchise's fortunes with the club's finest hour coming with a victory in Super Bowl IV ... Noted for his many charitable and philanthropic efforts, was honored as the "Kansas Citian of the Year" in '88 by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City ... Recognized as an innovative and successful businessman, held the post of Chairman of the Board for the franchise from '89-04 and served as Vice Chairman of the Board from 2005-07... Inducted 2006

Was one of the bedrocks upon which the Chiefs defensive dominance of the '90s was built ... Paired with LB Derrick Thomas to forge one of the most feared pass rushing duos in NFL history ... Served as a foundation for a franchise-record string of six-straight postseason appearances from '90-95, making nine playoff starts over that span ... Possessed an imposing seven-foot wingspan that helped wreck havoc on opponents and allowed him to make a myriad of momentum-changing plays ... Accumulated 85.5 sacks and 29 forced fumbles in Kansas City – totals that both rank third in Chiefs history – in addition to blocking five FGs ... Will forever be intrinsically linked with his "little buddy" Thomas, but his individual accomplishments clearly stand on their own merit ... Registered double-digit sacks for four straight seasons from '92-95, leading the team or tying for the team lead with Thomas each of those years ... Voted team MVP following the '92 campaign when he had 14.5 sacks and followed up that performance with a career-high 15.0 sacks in '93 ... Played in 138 regular season games for Kansas City, accumulating 546 tackles (403 solo), three INTs with one TD, 13 fumble recoveries with one TD and 22 passes defensed ... Departed Kansas City following the '96 campaign and won a pair of Super Bowl rings with Denver, but it was in Kansas City where his legacy as one of the NFL's most dominant defensive performers of the '90s was clearly solidified ... The Chiefs traded up with Detroit to select Smith with the second overall pick in the '88 NFL Draft ... Was an All-America performer at the University of Nebraska ... Born April 10, 1966 in New Orleans, La.

Inducted 2019

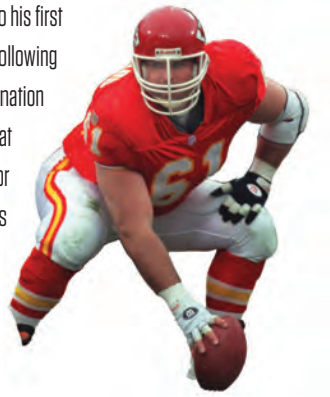

Over 13 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (2000-10), the New England Patriots (2011) and the Dallas Cowboys (2013), Waters played in 186 games with 170 starts, earning six Pro Bowl selections and two first-team All-Pro recognitions by the Associated Press ... He became the first offensive lineman to be named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week, which occurred following Kansas City's 56-10 win over the Atlanta Falcons on October 24, 2004 when the team rushed for an NFL record eight touchdowns in the game ... During Waters' time with the Chiefs, he helped pave the way for each of the top three individual single-season rushing performances in franchise history ... He was also on the field for three of the top five individual single-game rushing efforts in club annals, including RB Jamaal Charles' franchise-record 259-yard performance at Denver (1/3/10) ... In 2004, he teamed with Pro Football Hall of Fame G Will Shields to form the first tandem of Pro Bowl guards from the same team since Larry Allen and Nate Newton did it for Dallas following the 1995 season ... He and Shields also became the first guard duo from the same team to be named to three-consecutive Pro Bowls (2004-06) ... In 2009, the entire National Football League community honored Waters as the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year winner for his on-field accomplishments, as well as his commitment to community outreach ... Waters became the fifth member of the Chiefs to receive this honor, tying the Chiefs for the most award winners in the NFL ... Waters was signed by Dallas as an undrafted free agent and released after training camp in 1999 ... Following his release from Dallas, he arrived in Kansas City for a free agent workout in March of 2000 when the Chiefs convinced him to make the move to offensive line, a position he had never played ... He spent the spring of 2000 playing for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe where he started every game at center ... The Waxahachie, Texas, native played in 44 games at North Texas, starting at tight end for three years before switching to defensive end prior to his senior season ... Waters hauled in 86 receptions for 975 yards and nine touchdowns in three years as a tight end ... As a senior defensive end, he recorded 45 tackles (32 solo) and 5.0 sacks, earning him first-team All-Big West Conference honors. He also caught four passes for 66 yards with one touchdown as a senior ... Born February 18, 1977 in Waxahachie, Texas.

Tim Grunhard, Center 1990-2000

Inducted 2021

Grunhard spent 11 years with the Kansas City Chiefs (1990-2000), appearing in 169 games with 164 starts, including a streak of 120 straight starts from Sept. 5, 1993 - Oct. 29, 2000, the fourth-longest starting campaign in franchise history ... His 164 starts with the team are the fifth-most among any player in Chiefs annals ... Following the 1999 season he was named to his first career Pro Bowl becoming the first Kansas City center to make a Pro Bowl appearance since fellow Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Jack Rudnay was nominated following the 1977 season ... Grunhard took over the role of starting center for the Chiefs during just his third game of his rookie year in 1990 and was rewarded with a nomination to the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside teammate Dave Szott ... Known for his effort and intensity on the field, Grunhard spearheaded a Chiefs offensive line that helped the Kansas City rushing offense rank among the NFL's top five during four of his final six seasons (1995-97 & '99) with the team ... He was also a key factor in the Chiefs allowing 22.0 or fewer sacks four times during the '90s, including a franchise-low 19.0 QB takedowns during the 1994 season ... During Grunhard's time with the Chiefs, the team reached the NFL playoffs seven times in the 1990s, one of just three clubs to accomplish this feat in that timespan, including reaching the AFC Championship Game in January 1994 ... Grunhard was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (40th overall) of the 1990 NFL Draft after an illustrious career playing under legendary head coach Lou Holtz at Notre Dame where he was a four-year starter and All-American ... During his junior and senior campaigns, the Fighting Irish tallied a 24-1 record and brought home a National Championship in 1988 ... Inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2016 ... Born May 17, 1968 in Chicago.

Kimble Anders, Fullback 1991-2000

Inducted 2022

Anders spent the entirety of his ten-year career with the Kansas City Chiefs starting 94 of his 125 games with the club...His 94 starts remain tied for second most by a running back or fullback in franchise history... Anders was named to three-straight Pro Bowls (1995-97) and became the first running back or fullback in franchise history to earn three consecutive trips to the NFL's annual all-star game...Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1990 but never suited up for the team... Went on to accumulate 2,261 career rushing yards on 495 carries totaling nine touchdowns and 369 career receptions for 2,829 yards and an additional nine trips to the end zone... His 2,829 receiving yards are the most by a running back or fullback in team annals...He's one of only eight running backs or fullbacks in franchise history with more than 5,000 career scrimmage yards... Anders played collegiately at the University of Houston where he was named second-team All-Southwest Conference following his sophomore season (1987) ... Tallied 261 carries, 1,359 rushing yards with 16 rushing touchdowns... Earned his Bachelor of Science in Management and Human Administration from Williams Woods University in Fulton, Missouri... Described as versatile, durable and consistent on the field, he was heavily philanthropic off the field... The Texas native founded his Running Back Giving Back (RBGB) Foundation, a charitable organization dedicated to the creation of healthier lives for children ages 6-16 in the greater Kansas City metropolitan area... He has remained involved in the Chiefs franchise as a member of the Kansas City Ambassadors... Also served a variety of high school coaching roles before being named the athletic director for the Kansas City (Missouri) Public School District, serving in that role until 2013... Anders currently resides in Galveston, Texas where he remains involved in football and leadership camps while pursuing coaching and outside business ventures.... Born on Sept 10, 1966 in Galveston, Texas.

Inducted 2023

Hall spent seven seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (2000-06), appearing in 97 games (10 starts) which is tied for the seventh most by a wide receiver in franchise history...Hall was named to two-straight Pro Bowls and All-Pro teams following the 2002-03 seasons, becoming the second player in Chiefs history to garner a Pro Bowl selection as a return specialist...Hall was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week seven times, the most of any player in Chiefs history...He was also named first-team NFL 2000s All-Decade Team as a punt returner and second-team NFL 2000s All-Decade Team as a kick returner...He returned 360 kicks for 8,644 yards with six touchdowns and 188 punts for 1,882 yards with five touchdowns...His 11 total return touchdowns are a franchise best, and he sits at – or near the top – of virtually every Chiefs career, season and single-game record list as a return specialist...His 12,356 combined yards ranks first in franchise history...Hall recorded five seasons with 1,000+ kickoff return yards, ranking as the sixth-most such seasons in NFL history...In 2003, Hall recorded four-consecutive games with a kick return touchdown which was the first time in league history such a feat was accomplished...He played collegiately at Texas A&M where he played in 43 games and started 25, rushed 522 times for 2,818 yards with 22 touchdowns, caught 22 passes for 260 yards, returned 78 punts for 943 yards with two touchdowns and returned 32 kickoffs for 686 yards...Off the field, Hall participated in a myriad of philanthropic events and continued giving back in retirment...He is an active out-of-town Kansas City Ambassador and was part of the Big Brothers Big Sisters Kansas City Most Wanted Auction in 2022...Hall has also played an active role in expanding the Chiefs brand internationally by participating in multiple marketing and goodwill trips to Germany as well as regularly working with Sky Sports out of the United Kingdom...Born on Sept. 20, 1978 in Houston, Texas.

91 Tamba Hali, Linebacker/Defensive End 2006-2017

Hali spent his entire 12-year career in Kansas City (2006-17), appearing in 177 games, the fourth-most by any Chiefs defender in franchise history...He made 157 starts, tied for the sixth-most by any player in Chiefs history...Hali was named to the 2006 NFL All-Rookie Team, selected to the Pro Bowl five straight seasons from 2011-15 and was named to the AP All-Pro second-team twice (2011 and 2013)...He was also named AFC Defensive Player of the Week four times in his career, tied for the second-most by any Chiefs defender. ..His 89.5 sacks for -591.5 yards are both second only to PFHOF LB Derrick Thomas in Chiefs history...He totaled 8.0 sacks his rookie season, the third-most for a rookie in franchise history. He was also relentless when it came to punching the ball out of the opponent's grasp...With 33 career forced fumbles he is second, again to only Thomas, for the most forced fumbles in Chiefs history...His six forced fumbles in his rookie season were a franchise rookie record and are tied for fourth-most in a season in Chiefs history...After recording 8.0 sacks his rookie year, he would go on to match or exceed that total six times in his career, tied for the second-most seasons with 8.0 or more sacks in franchise history...He reached double-digit sacks three times in his career (2010, 2011 and 2013), a mark only Thomas and Chiefs Hall of Fame DE Neil Smith have reached more times...He recorded 3.0 sacks in a game on three separate occasions, one of just five Chiefs to reach that mark three or more times...Hali entered the NFL as a first-round pick of the Chiefs (20th overall) in 2006...He played collegiately at Penn State University from 2002-05 where he was selected as a First-Team All-Big Ten defensive lineman and became the 13th consensus All-American in Nittany Lions history his senior year....As impactful as Hali was on the field, his influence reached even further in his off-the-field efforts...Hali, the Chiefs 2014 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee, was born in Liberia, a country that was thrown into civil war while he was a child...He fled the country and came to the United States when he was 10 years old but has never forgotten his roots in West Africa...In 2014 he donated $50,000 to construct a 70-bed Ebola treatment unit as the disease devastated communities in the region..In Kansas City he partnered with the Bishop Sullivan Center to purchase and serve meals...Hali's contributions to the community didn't stop with his retirement, he currently serves on the board of directors at Literacy KC and is also an active member of the Kansas City Ambassadors...Born on Nov. 3, 1983 in Gbarnga, Liberia.

MACK LEE HILL & DERRICK THOMAS AWARDS

Each year since 1966, Chiefs players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill. This year's recipient is WR Rashee Rice who broke the Chiefs rookie records in receptions (79) and receiving touchdowns (seven). He was the team's second leading receiver with 938 regular season yards en route to the team's Super Bowl LVIII victory.

Since 1979, the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and soul of the Kansas City defense from 1989-99.

One of the most popular figures in Chiefs history, Thomas was posthumously enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009. A member of the Hall of Fame's NFL All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was the cornerstone around whom the Chiefs franchise was rebuilt. QB Patrick Mahomes was honored for the third time in 2023.

WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Willie Lanier (1972) – Following his selection as the '72 Man of the Year, five $4,000 college scholarships were presented in Lanier's name ... Was actively involved in a campaign to prevent drug abuse and attended the President's Drug Abuse Council in Washington, D.C. in '71 ... "Drugs are one of the worst things that could happen to a potential genius or a mind of someone who could offer a lot to society," Lanier said in '72 ... Played a prominent role with the American Cancer Society in Kansas City and was Chairman of a $100,000 capital campaign for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City ... Has awarded over $550,000 in scholarships to Morgan State University and public school students in Richmond, Virginia dating back to '86.

Len Dawson (1973) – Selected by a vote of NFL fans as the '73 Man of the Year ... Said Dawson at the time, "If we have the opportunity, we can't turn our backs on people. We can do two things with children – help them or hinder them. I want to help." ... Was actively involved in numerous charitable endeavors, including the March of Dimes and the Missouri Driving Safety Program ... Served as the '72 Missouri Chairman for the "I Quit" anti-smoking campaign sponsored by the American Cancer Society ... Was also a longtime chairman of the Chiefs Huddle Club which sponsored various youth activities ... Every year since '77 he has awarded the "Len Dawson Scholarship" to a Kansas City area high school senior.

Derrick Thomas (1993) – Through his "Third and Long Foundation" helped promote children's literacy in Kansas City ... Started an inner-city reading program and read to children at local libraries each Saturday prior to home games ... Was designated by President George H.W. Bush as the "832nd point of light" ... Also selected as the winner of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in '95 by the NFL Players Association ... Thomas' father Air Force Captain Robert Thomas was shot down on a B-52 mission in Vietnam, leading Thomas to become an avid supporter of veterans and military personnel ... He was the recipient of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame Award in '99.

Will Shields (2003) – Formed the "Will to Succeed Foundation" with his wife Senia in '93. To date, the foundation has benefited more than 100,000 individuals ... Primary foundation benefactors include children's agencies, centers for abused and neglected women and children ... The foundation also promotes literacy and creativity initiatives ... Was the inaugural winner of Pro Football Weekly's Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award in '99 and was named the 2001 NFL Good Guy of the Year by The Sporting News ... The Shields are also members of the Mid-America Education Hall of Fame and were the first NFL couple recognized for their charitable efforts by The Citizenship Through Sports Alliance.

Brian Waters (2009) – Four-time Pro Bowler became Kansas City's fifth NFL Man of the Year honoree after forming the "Brian Waters 54 Foundation" in 2004 ... Since its inception, tens of thousands of children and families in the Greater Kansas City area as well as the state of Texas have been positively impacted ... To date, his foundation has awarded 82 college scholarships to low-income students ... His back-to-school program provides backpacks full of school supplies, as well as haircuts, uniforms, shoes, immunizations and dental care, benefitting thousands of children ... The 54 Foundation partners with more than 20 different agencies annually.

MAN OF THE YEAR CHARITY CHALLENGE

NFL players are known for their competitiveness and for their community service, and every season since the 2014 campaign, Nationwide - the presenting sponsor of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award - has also run the annual Charity Challenge. During the six-week social media campaign, all 32 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominees - one from every team - earn mentions from fan social media support, with the most-mentioned player earning an additional contribution to their designated charity from Nationwide.

In the 10-year history of the Man of the Year Charity Challenge, four Kansas City Chiefs Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominees have walked away with the top spot in fan voting, earning a contribution to their charity of choice. The four Chiefs honorees are the most by a single team in the short history of the challenge, with three of them earning the Charity Challenge title in consecutive seasons from 2020-22.

USA TODAY ALL-JOE TEAM

The USA Today All-Joe Team takes its name from former Chiefs DT Joe Phillips who played 14 seasons for Kansas City, San Diego, St. Louis and Minnesota before retiring following the 1999 season. According to USA Today's Larry Weisman, the All-Joe Team is represented by "hard-working, overlooked, underappreciated players who do the dirty work simply because that's their lot in life." This honor was awarded from 1992-2014 and through those years, 35 Chiefs players were acknowledged for their performances.

RETIRED JERSEYS

JAN STENERUD • KICKER • 1967-79
The first pure placekicker inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, K Jan Stenerud played 19 NFL seasons, including 13 with Kansas City.

LEN DAWSON • QUARTERBACK • 1962-75
The standard-bearer for Chiefs signal callers for decades, QB Len Dawson retired as the franchise's all-time leading passer. The Pro Football Hall of Fame QB led the club to three AFL titles and the franchise's first world championship in Super Bowl IV.

EMMITT THOMAS • CORNERBACK • 1966-78
The Chiefs career leader with 58 interceptions, CB Emmitt Thomas played in 181 games over his Hall of Fame career with Kansas City.

ABNER HAYNES • RUNNING BACK • 1960-64
One of the offensive stars during the Texans/Chiefs first five years, RB Abner Haynes led the club in rushing four times.

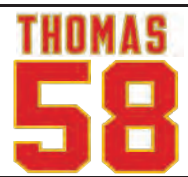

STONE JOHNSON • RUNNING BACK • 1963
A sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome and a QB at Grambling State, RB Stone Johnson's athletic career came to a tragic end during his rookie season of '63. Johnson suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game against the Houston Oilers in Wichita, Kansas and died just 10 days later on Sept. 8, 1963.

MACK LEE HILL • RUNNING BACK • 1964-65
An AFL All-Star as a rookie in '64, RB Mack Lee Hill rushed for 1,203 yards in just 27 games with the Chiefs. Hill tragically died on the operating table after suffering a knee injury late in the '65 season.

DERRICK THOMAS • LINEBACKER • 1989-99
The most prolific pass rusher in Chiefs history, Pro Football Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas was the heart and soul of the club's dominating defense throughout the '90s and owns the NFL's single-game sack record (7.0 vs. Seattle - 11/11/90).

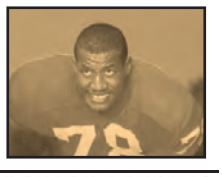

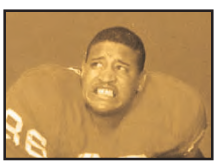

WILLIE LANIER • LINEBACKER • 1967-77
A Pro Football Hall of Famer, LB Willie Lanier played 11 seasons for the Chiefs and was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team.

BOBBY BELL • LINEBACKER • 1963-74
Perhaps the greatest outside linebacker to ever play the game, LB Bobby Bell was the first Chiefs player to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '83.

BUCK BUCHANAN • DEFENSIVE TACKLE • 1963-77
A pivotal member of the great Chiefs defense of the '60s and '70s, DT Buck Buchanan was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Game-Winning Field Goals

Chiefs kickers have connected on 21 game-winning field goals as time expired or in sudden death overtime situations throughout the franchise's history. The biggest was a 25-yard kick by K Tommy Brooker that ended the second-longest game in pro football history. Brooker's FG concluded the 1962 AFL Championship Game with an elapsed time of 77:54 as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 win at Houston (12/13/62). Brooker received a celebratory postgame escort off the field from TE Fred Arbanas (#84) and DB Bobby Hunt (#20). Among the nine kickers to hit a game-winning kick for Kansas City, K Ryan Succop booted a team-record four game-winning FGs, while K Harrison Butker owns the longest kick to ever win a game for the Chiefs, a 58-yard effort at the Los Angeles Chargers (9/20/20), which occurred after making a 53-yard FG that was nullified by a false start, and after making a 58-yard FG that was nullified by a Chargers timeout prior to the attempt.
