ON THE COVER: The 1987 season will be a special year for the Miami Dolphins and for many reasons: coach Don Shula is celebrating his Silver Anniversary season (25th year) as an NFL head coach; quarterback Dan Marino enters '87 as the NFL's all-time top-ranked passer; and the '87 season marks the opening of the Dolphins' new home, Joe Robbie Stadium.

JOE ROBBIE
PRESIDENT

"The standing challenge in Miami always was, 'If Joe Robbie wants a new stadium, let him build it himself.' I suppose that's what first got my interest. I don't think I'd have done it if they hadn't told me it couldn't be done."

– JOE ROBBIE

When Joe Robbie first announced plans to build his own privately financed stadium at the Dolphins' 1984 awards banquet, the announcement was met with laughter and skepticism by many of those in attendance.

Today, the "dream" has come true. Joe Robbie Stadium is real, existing for all of South Florida to enjoy, and the joke is on those same people who laughed at plans for a new stadium only three-and-one-half years ago. What once was a sand dune where motorcyclists raced and refuse was dumped, now is a tropical garden. The $100-million facility will stand for decades to come as a lasting monument to the will and courage of the man whose name it carries.

If not for Joe Robbie's dedication to the cause, his will to oppose the bureaucrats of local government, the Dolphins would have had no choice other than to continue playing in the antiquated Orange Bowl or move to another city.

In order to avoid either of these two scenarios, Robbie was forced to put everything he had ever obtained – including the Dolphins franchise – up as collateral to assure completion of the stadium project. "I wouldn't fault anybody for not laying everything on the line to build a new stadium," he said. "This is just my perverse nature. I once figured it out on a little pocket computer. I'll have everything paid for by 2016 (he will be 100 that year)."

To be sure, many in the sports world have taken note of Robbie's tremendous accomplishment in getting the stadium built despite the adversity he faced.

"I think Joe Robbie is a trailblazer. This is a very exciting new development," said Chicago Bears president Michael McCaskey, who is using Joe Robbie Stadium as a model for a football stadium he would like to see built in the Windy City.

"Joe Robbie never bowed to the packs of bureaucrats and free-loading politicians who tried to bribe him into staying in the decaying Orange Bowl," said Norris Anderson, long-time columnist for Football News. "Name me another man in football today who could privately build a $100-million stadium without leaning on public funds. Joe Robbie did. He is the toughest man, pound for pound, I have ever met in football."

Joe Robbie is a man of iron will from a small town in South Dakota, whose character was born out of challenge and struggle in the early years of his life. The Robbie family was forced to overcome the Great Depression in the face of financial poverty. The struggle was difficult and the rewards few, but the challenge was met by young Joe through hard work, honesty and self-initiative.

The tone had been set for Joe Robbie's life.

By the time he was 50, Robbie already had made a significant contribution to society in the areas of politics, government administration, public service and trial law. Most men would have been satisfied with that much.

Not Joe Robbie.

In 1965, Robbie contacted AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, a former classmate at the University of South Dakota, about a client's interest in an expansion franchise for Philadelphia. Foss turned down the idea of Philadelphia, but suggested Miami as a possibility.

When his client was not interested in South Florida, Robbie himself took up the project. With only a successful trial lawyer's income and a family of 11 children to support, the odds were against his raising the $7.5-million franchise fee.

On top of the fee, Robbie had to overcome a virtual embargo on pro football imposed by the Orange Bowl Committee and the University of Miami, as well as adverse sentiment among AFL owners who preferred Atlanta for 1966 expansion.

Still, he remained undaunted and did the leg work and research in preparation for the franchise application. Robbie gained a powerful ally in then-Miami Mayor Robert King High, who had received a total endorsement of him from then-Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, and followed that by recruiting show business personality Danny Thomas to be his co-applicant.

The AFL awarded Robbie and Thomas the franchise on August 16, 1965. Robbie took over operation of the franchise as managing general partner, and turned himself to the next challenge – building a championship team from the ground up.

From the word go, things were a struggle for the league's budding franchise and its bright new mind. Disappointment abounded, on the field and in the stands, as the team had a losing record of 15-39-2 and an average attendance of less than 29,000 over the first four years.

Thomas had sold out his interest in the Dolphins in 1968, and additional problems later arose when one of the limited partners secretly negotiated to move the team to Seattle. Robbie was quick to respond, recruiting five Miami investors to buy out the dissident partner's share and ensure the franchise remained in the city. Robbie had saved professional football in Miami.

Still, there were many skeptics as Robbie continued to make assurances that the Dolphins were in Miami to stay and that they would be a championship team one day. Those who really knew Joe Robbie never doubted him for a minute.

He took strong action in 1970, releasing the team's head coach, George Wilson, and hiring Don Shula, who had taken Baltimore to two NFL championship games.

The following season, Shula took the players Robbie and personnel director Joe Thomas had acquired in the first four years and turned the Dolphins into 10-4 playoff qualifiers from 3-10-1 losers in 1969.

In the last 17 years, the Dolphins either have won or shared first place in the division 13 times. Since the merger of the two leagues in 1970, Miami has recorded the best regular-season won-lost record in the NFL, becoming one of the most recognized franchises in all of sports history.

Making his Dolphins into a championship team had been an obsession of Robbie. Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener recognized the importance of this, describing it in his book "Sports in America." Michener wrote:

> "The majority of owners I have met are like Joe Robbie of Miami, real devotees, men and women to whom the building of a respectable team becomes a passion, and they add luster to the sporting scene . . . In the end, they are willing to make extraordinary sacrifices in order to build a winner, and their loyalty to their team often exceeds that of their players."

One of the upcoming challenges for Robbie is to one day bring major league baseball to his new stadium. Compliments like the one recently paid him by New York Yankees owner George Steinbrenner should go a long way towards helping his chances. "I'm a Joe Robbie fan, and I've been one for quite a while," Steinbrenner said. "He's one of those guys who knows what sports is all about."

Robbie does not limit his energies to the area of sports, however. He involves himself personally in a number of civic endeavors. In addition, the Dolphins, under Robbie's direction, have given some $2 million to charitable organizations in the community that supports them.

Through the years, the awards presented to him and the positions of public service he has held reveal a side of Joe Robbie that can be lost in the shadow of the success of the Dolphins.

Presently, he serves Jackson Memorial Hospital of Miami in the high-profile positon of chairman of the board of trustees and Public Health Trust. In addition, he is chairman of the board of trustees of Pop Warner Little Scholars. In the past, he also has served on the board of governors as executive vice-chairman of St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, the board of governors of the annual Victor Awards for the benefit of the City of Hope National Medical Center, American Health Foundation and St. Leo College.

Robbie also has served on the board of directors of the United Way of Dade County, Catholic Service Bureau, Dade County Association for Retarded Citizens, Crippled Children's Society of Dade County and Miami Society of Autistic Children. In addition to previous work with the Heart Fund and Easter Seals, he also is an honorary member of the American Indian Scholarships, Inc.

In his native South Dakota, Robbie gives money for scholarships at all private colleges, in addition to sponsoring the Most Valuable Player awards for the state's high school football championships. For his many efforts in the Coyote state, Robbie was inducted into the South Dakota Hall of Fame in 1985.

In Florida, the Dolphin owner annually presents the Joe Robbie Award to the state's high school athletic director of the year.

In 1974, the Touchdown Club of Washington awarded Robbie the prestigious Timmie Award for "extraordinary achievement" by the Dolphins over a four-year period. He also has received the Gold Key Award from the National 4-H Congress as a distinguished alumnus, United States Jaycees Hall of Leadership Award, Order of the Knights of St. Gregory (a papal honor), the Humanitarian Award from the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Greater Miami, Owner of the Year Award by Minneapolis-St. Paul businessmen and the Football News' Man of the Year Award.

But perhaps no award sums up the challenge and struggle of Joe Robbie's lifetime better than the rare Horatio Alger Award, given to him in 1979. It is an honor bestowed on giants of the free enterprise system, as well as U.S. presidents, in recognition of outstanding careers developed through personal effort out of hardship."

"If I were asked to name the award that I would cherish most of any I know about," Robbie said in acceptance, "it would be this one. This to me represents struggle and achievement, and through my life, it has always been my opinion that the struggle itself is equally important and rewarding as the ultimate achievement."

Fellow NFL owners long have recognized Robbie's unique blend of astute business practices and human compassion, twice electing him to serve on the NFL Management Council. He served from 1972-77 and has been a member once again since 1983. He also has served on the NFL Properties Committee.

Said New England Patriots president Billy Sullivan, who has been in pro football as an owner since 1959:

"Joe Robbie gave to the fans of South Florida one of the truly great franchises in the NFL. He has put frosting on the cake with his state-of-the-art facility, which provides a superb stage for the presentation of the greatest show on earth, NFL football. His stadium project is the finest contribution that any owner in my lifetime has made. He is an All-Pro in any man's language and he has enriched our society in an unparalleled manner."

Born July 7, 1916 in Sisseton, South Dakota, Robbie got an early start in the business world. He was earning money as a by-lined sports editor of the local Sisseton Journal-Press by the time he was 14. In 1934, he interrupted his senior year of high school to enroll in the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) and went to work in the Black Hills area of South Dakota.

His education was not forgotten, though. Robbie had promised both his mother and himself that he would go back to school after CCC camp. He fulfilled that promise, graduating in 1935 and going on to college – the only one from his Depression-year class to do so.

Robbie entered Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S.D., with nothing more than a small amount of financial aid from a debate scholarship. The Dolphin owner has his own way of describing how he put himself through school.

"I was a hasher and a haberdasher; a college publicity director and a radio announcer; an adult education teacher and a law librarian," Robbie says. "In between, I handled odd jobs!"

The day after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Robbie volunteered as an enlisted man in the United States Navy. He rose through the ranks to become an officer and participated in five South Pacific theatre invasions. He received the Bronze Star for his service.

At war's end, Robbie returned to South Dakota to attend the University of South Dakota Law School, graduating with his juris doctorate in 1946.

While attending South Dakota, he was elected student body president. Coupled with his election to the same position at Northern State a few years earlier, Robbie may hold the distinction of being the only person ever chosen student body president at two different schools. Both schools subsequently have conferred an honorary doctorate degree upon him, as have four other colleges and universities.

Robbie also has served his alma mater by being national fund-raising chairman for the Dakota Dome, a $7.2-million arena at the University of South Dakota.

After being admitted to the South Dakota bar, Robbie started his law practice in Mitchell, South Dakota. Within two years time, he had been elected a representative to the South Dakota State Legislature, had served as State Democratic Chairman and was the candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket.

In 1951, his friend Hubert H. Humphrey encouraged Robbie to move his young family to Minneapolis. There, he was regional director of the Office of Price Stabilization for four states from 1952-53. He also became known as one of the best and most successful trial lawyers in the region.

That is not the full story, however. Not well publicized was the fact that Robbie always voluntarily gave a share of his practice to defend destitute defendants charged with serious crimes.

An associate described Joe Robbie the lawyer as, ". . . unrelenting in cross examination and eloquent in summation."

Robbie would go on to combine politics with his law practice. He ran against, and almost defeated, nationally-known and veteran Congressman Dr. Walter Judd in 1956 and 1958, despite the fact that Judd represented the solidly-Republican Fifth Congressional District.

Robbie received national recognition from legislators as chairman of the Minnesota Municipal Commission, which he presided over from 1959-65. He had drafted the bill, passed into law by the Minnesota Legislature, which created the commission. Other states subsequently have used that legislation as a model.

GRAND TOUR – Earlier this year a group from Milan, Italy traveled to Miami to visit Joe Robbie Stadium and were personally escorted on their tour of the new stadium by Joe Robbie. The group is interested in bringing World Cup soccer to Italy and would like to build a stadium like JRS in Milan.

A devoted family man, Robbie has found a way to remain close to his family despite the busy schedule he keeps. Wife, Elizabeth, is the active owner of the Minnesota Strikers of the Major Indoor Soccer League, while three sons and one daughter hold positions with the Dolphins. Mike oversees operation of the team's front office as executive vice president and general manager, Tim is vice president of public affairs, Dan sells executive suites and club seats in the new stadium and Lynn coordinated all interior decoration of the stadium's club level. Other Robbie children include sons Brian (who works on the Dolphins broadcast team of flagship station WIOD) and Kevin, and daughters Diane (Truly), Janet (Glode) and Deborah (Olson).

Many tributes have come Robbie's way because of all that he has accomplished in his 21 years as owner of the Dolphins. One fan of his is Miami Herald publisher Dick Capen, who gave this compliment:

"Despite past differences, South Florida owes a lot to Joe Robbie. After all, it was he who took substantial risks in the early years and parlayed an expansion franchise in the old American Football League into one of the top operations in major-league sports. It also was Joe Robbie who recruited Don Shula, one of pro football's most admired coaches. (Today) South Florida has the best stadium in the nation, thanks to Joe Robbie and his dogged determination. We are a better community because he brought the Dolphins here in 1966."

Well-known sports author Lou Sahadi wrote, "What Joe Robbie has done with his new stadium is just another example of his impressive accomplishments to professional sport."

In the coming years, it will be written that it was Joe Robbie who set the standard by building the first stadium financed entirely with private funds, a feat pulled off against the greatest of odds.

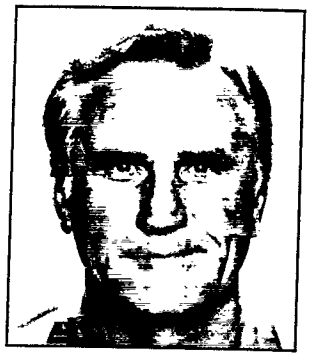

Because Joe Robbie will continue to meet the challenges of the day, who knows what more he might accomplish in the future.

DON SHULA
HEAD COACH

"I'm just a guy who rolls up his sleeves and goes to work. I don't have peace of mind until I know I've given the game everything I can.

"The whole idea is to somehow get an edge. Sometimes it takes just a little extra something to get that edge, but you have to have it."

– DON SHULA

This past August 8, Don Shula presented two of his former players, Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. While he was there, Shula should have stopped by the factory that produces the busts for each enshrinee – to be measured for his own. It is only a matter of time before pro football's greatest coach takes his place among the greats of the game.

Shula celebrates his silver anniversary (25th season) as an NFL head coach in 1987 and, although his career is filled with milestones and records, he doesn't live in the past, he works for the future.

"My goal in 1987 is to win the Super Bowl," he says, knowing his team was a disappointing 8-8 last season. "I've been around long enough to know that just getting there isn't good enough. Last year was a major disappointment. But rather than hang my head and make excuses or sit around and think back to some of our great years, I can't wait to go to work and make things happen."

Thoughout his NFL coaching career Shula "has made things happen" better than anyone in the game.

- Shula is pro football's winningest active coach with a 263-107-6 overall mark (.707 winning percentage)
- Shula is second only to the immortal George Halas (325) on the all-time NFL coaching win list
- Shula is the only coach to ever guide a team through an undefeated season (17-0 in 1972)
- Shula has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any coach ever
- Shula is the only coach to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 100 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 200 games
- Shula's career winning percentage (.707) is the best among the NFL's all-time top-10 coaches

Shula would measure a coach's success by yardsticks other than victories and championships, although he has miles of achievements in those ways. Of greater importance to pro football's most celebrated winner is something intangible. What matters most is one's integrity as a competitor.

"If I'm remembered for anything as a coach," Shula says, "I hope it's for playing within the rules. I also hope it will be said that my teams showed class and dignity in victory or defeat."

Last season was a disappointment for the players, Dolfans, the coaching staff and the head man himself. The year before, Miami came within one game of the Super Bowl. In '86, the team, plagued by injuries on defense (LB Hugh Green was lost for the season in game three), got off to the worst start in Shula's career (2-5). But the team regrouped, won six of its last nine, four of its last six and finished at 8-8 – and was not eliminated from the playoffs until the last week of the season. Included among the victories was a 45-3 Monday night thrashing of the then-10-1 N.Y. Jets on November 24 at the Orange Bowl and a Week 15 37-31 overtime triumph over the playoff-bound Rams in Anaheim.

Shula has become to coaching what his unbeaten 1972 Miami Dolphin are to team accomplishment: the standard of excellence by which all other are measured.

But there is an intriguing footnote to the record Shula has carved in hi 24 years of pacing the NFL sidelines. This statistic speaks volumes abou his coaching ability and his style – the Dolphins have been the leas penalized team in the NFL during Shula's seasons in Miami.

"We never let an error go unchallenged," says Shula, who drills fc precision in every practice. "Uncorrected errors will multiply. Someon once asked me if there wasn't benefit in overlooking one small flaw. I aske him, 'What is a small flaw?'"

Shula was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Footbe Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee, and his Dolphins hav reached the playoffs five more times in the 1980s.

His "ultimate" achievement was the NFL's first unbeaten, untied recor of 17-0 in 1972 in only the third season of Shula's transformation of th Dolphins from a struggling American Football League franchise to an NFi power. His incredible two-year record of 32-2, including Super Bowl cor quests in 1972 and 1973, probably never will be surpassed.

Maybe because Shula never regarded an unbeaten season as impossi ble, the feat became a reality.

"At the beginning of the season, you don't say to yourself, 'We can't wir every football game,'" he says. "I believe you go out every day trying tc win and every week trying to win. You set a goal to be the best, and then you work hard every hour of every day, striving to reach that goal. If you allow yourself to settle for anything less than Number One, then you are cheating yourself."

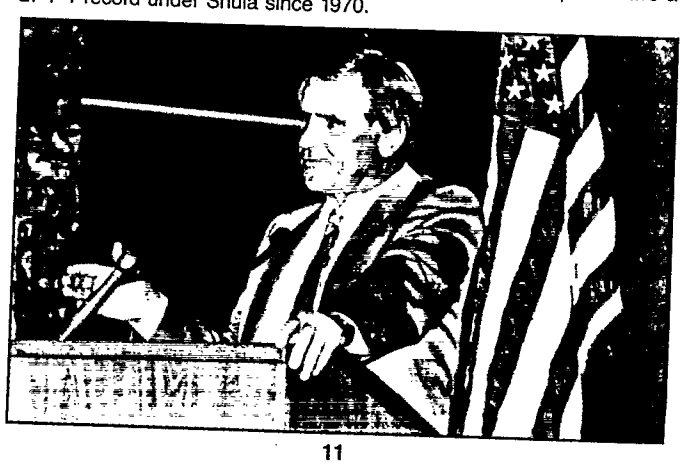

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built six unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has more than two 10-game streaks. His .700 winning mark in 17 seasons in Miami (190-81-2) parallels his .728 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

The Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the AFC East 13 times in the 17 years under Shula, and have reached the playoffs 12 times. His Dolphins were almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with an 111-26-1 record (.808), including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974. A remarkable 18 times in 24 seasons, Shula's teams have won at least 10 games.

Shula, 57, has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situational substitutions, and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and exhort their players to perform at peak. But Shula seems to surpass others in his skill as a teacher.

"The important thing is not what Don Shula knows or what any of my assistant coaches know," Shula says. "The important thing is that we can transmit to the people we're responsible for. They're going to be tested on Sunday afternoon, and the fact that we win on Sunday afternoon indicates that we're getting through to them. That's what coaching is – the ability to transmit information."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in the starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 27-7-1 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in pre-season success which reads 90-29-4 (.748), including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 58-25-3 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged almost 30 points per game offensively.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colt quarterbacks John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, and halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

Shula transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, the NFL's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts 21-0 on the same Orange Bowl field where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships – a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972 the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April, 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade. Later in his career, he was to accomplish the even more impressive feat of winning 200 games in his first 20 seasons as an NFL boss.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins 14-7 for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Another three-game surge in the playoffs, this time a 76-26 blitz, earned the AFC Championship in the strike-shortened 1982 season and landed the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. Miami held a four-point lead in the fourth quarter before Washington broke a long touchdown run that sparked a 27-17 Redskin victory.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930 in Grand River, Ohio, and was raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950, he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 (until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at mid-season). Shula and Taseff were involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under coach George Wilson – a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

"I've tried to learn from all and copy none," Shula says. "Everyone I played or coached under were different types, and I learned from them while still being myself. I've never gone out and tried to be Paul Brown or Blanton Collier or George Wilson. They satisfied my great thirst for knowledge, my searching and looking to find out the what, the how and the why. I tried to take all the things I've been exposed to, and if I can incorporate them into the framework of Don Shula, that's fine."

In 1963, Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 24 seasons which have followed he has reached the NFL's championship game seven times with two victories.

Today, he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select NFL Competition Committee which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules. Improved safety in pro football also has been a major concern of this committee.

Shula has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to several area charities. The Don Shula Scholarship Foundation was created in 1978 and has awarded scholarships at several Florida colleges. He also funds scholarships in the sports administration program at St. Thomas University, the location of the Dolphins' training complex. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll University in Cleveland, Shula helps to sponsor an academic chair of studies in his name at his alma mater. The chair, funded at $1 million through major private gifts added to Shula's own commitment, is in the University's Department of Philosophy.

During last year's post-season Shula drew rave reviews for his work as a studio analyst during the AFC playoffs for NBC's NFL '86. He also provided the color commentary on a live Super Bowl TV broadcast with Frank Gifford to England. Last January 17, Shula and his Dolphin staff (including son David, the team's assistant head coach) coached the winning South squad in the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Alabama. One of his quarterbacks in that game was son Mike, a QB from the University of Alabama.

Shula especially values his family life and his Catholic faith. He and the former Dorothy Bartish have been married 29 years (7/19/58) and have raised five children – two boys and three girls.

Oldest son David, 27, and his wife Leslie have two sons, Danny and Christopher. David joined the Dolphin coaching staff late in the '82 season. He starred collegiately at Dartmouth, where he set all of the pass receiving records for the Big Green. After earning his degree in history, David played for a season with the Baltimore Colts.

Mike, a former all-state quarterback at Columbus High School in Miami, completed an outstanding career as signal caller for the Crimson Tide of Alabama last year. Mike, who graduated in May with a degree in labor management, was selected by Tampa Bay in the 1987 NFL Draft.

The Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, was married in 1984 to Joe Jannach and they have two children, Alex and Lindsey. Another daughter, Sharon, graduated from the University of Miami and Florida State's College of Law, and is now an attorney in Ft. Lauderdale. Youngest daughter, Annie, graduated last May from St. Thomas University with a degree in elementary education and plans a career in teaching.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

J. MICHAEL ROBBIE

Executive Vice-President and General Manager

College: Notre Dame
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: 14th Season
Born: January 6, 1948

Entering his 10th year as the Dolphins' executive vice-president and general manager, Mike Robbie is responsible for the overall operation of the team's front office. His duties encompass all aspects of club operations from contract negotiations to financial management.

Robbie's initial endeavors for the Dolphins came when he served in the team's ticket department from 1971-75, including two seasons as ticket director. He then took a three-year leave of absence to obtain his law degree from the University of South Dakota. He returned to South Florida and in October, 1978, was named to his current position. Robbie's legal training and business background, coupled with his earlier grassroots experience in the Dolphin organization laid solid groundwork for his successful entrance as the team's day-to-day administrator.

Included among his Dolphin projects has been the implementation of a computer system for all club operations from ticket accounts to scouting. In addition, Robbie has represented the Dolphins at NFL meetings since 1979.

Robbie earned both his Juris Doctor and M.B.A. degrees from the University of South Dakota, and he has a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Notre Dame. He is a member of the South Dakota Bar. The fourth oldest of 11 Robbie children, he is a native of Mitchell, South Dakota, and a graduate of Minneapolis De LaSalle High School.

Mike and his wife Dwyn were married in Redondo Beach, California, in 1982 and live in Miami Shores.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DAVID SHULA

Assistant Head Coach, Receivers/Quarterbacks
College: Dartmouth
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: May 28, 1959

David Shula begins his sixth season with the Dolphins and serves Miami as its assistant head coach, in addition to being in charge of the receivers and quarterbacks. In a relatively short time, Shula has become one of the brightest and most respected young coaches in professional football. Two years ago he added the responsibility of assistant head coach and has become more involved in the overall football operation.

After three years as the Dolphins' receivers coach, Shula was given the added duties of working with Miami quarterbacks in 1985. He proved he takes after his famous father in two important characteristics – hard work and dedication.

Last year the Dolphins again enjoyed another successful season through the air as Miami was first in the league in passing as a team and Dan Marino was first in the AFC and second in the league in the individual rankings. In addition, Mark Duper (ninth), Lorenzo Hampton (15th), Mark Clayton (16th) and Bruce Hardy (20th) were ranked among the AFC's Top 20.

In 1983 (David's first full season), the results of his endeavors were very apparent. During the '82 off-season, Shula spent considerable time with wide receiver Mark Duper and incoming rookie quarterback Dan Marino. The results were that Duper, a seldom-used player in '82, emerged as the Dolphins' first-ever 1,000-yard receiver, and Marino emerged as perhaps the finest rookie QB in NFL history. In the '83 off-season, Shula redirected much of his energies toward another second-year receiver, Mark Clayton, while continuing to work with Duper and Marino. The results were again spectacular as Clayton set club records for receptions and yards with Duper close behind. Much of his energy this season will be directed toward the development of second-year wide receiver James Pruitt and rookie Scott Schwedes.

The 28-year-old Shula became a permanent member of the team's coaching staff in January, 1983, following a one month temporary assignment to replace Wally English. At the time of his hiring, Shula was a first-year law student, and thus had to decide whether to pursue a legal or a coaching career.

Shula spent one season (1981) as a return specialist/wide receiver for the Baltimore Colts. On September 27, 1981, Shula met Shula as son David's Colt club competed against father Don's Dolphin team. Miami won in Baltimore, 31-28.

Shula was a two-time All-Ivy League selection at Dartmouth (1978-80) and holds all major Big Green receiving records, including most career catches (133) and most career receiving yardage (1,822). He started every game during his varsity career, and as a senior caught 52 passes (school record) for 758 yards. Born on May 28, 1959 in Lexington, Kentucky, David graduated from Dartmouth in 1981 with a B.A. in history. Shula was also a four-sport letterman at Hollywood's Chaminade High School.

David and his wife Leslie (married 6/5/82) live in Miami Lakes with their sons Danny (10/9/83) and Christopher (2/5/86). Shula was very involved in the "Say No to Drugs" program in the off-season.

TOM OLIVADOTTI

Defense
College: Upsala
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: September 22, 1945

The newcomer to the Miami Dolphins coaching staff is Tom Olivadotti, who will be responsible for the overall defense with a concentration on the pass defense. Olivadotti came to the Dolphins after spending two seasons with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant.

The Long Branch, New Jersey, native made an impressive NFL coaching debut two years ago when he handled the Browns' outstanding linebacking corps. In 1986 he was in charge of Cleveland's defensive backs – one of the main reasons the Browns came within one game of the Super Bowl. Cleveland had the best record (12-4) in the AFC last season.

Olivadotti should be familiar with Miami – he spent four seasons as a defensive coach at the University of Miami, serving the last three years as defensive coordinator. The Hurricanes captured the national championship in Olivadotti's last season (1983). He then followed head coach Howard Schnellenberger (a former Dolphin assistant) to Louisville with the understanding that he could leave if a pro coaching job arose, which it did with the Browns.

Olivadotti played defensive end and receiver in four years as a starter at Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., and also participated in baseball and track. While coaching at New Jersey high schools Pope Pius (1967-68), Long Branch (1968-71) and Red Bank Catholic (1971-72), he also played semi-pro ball for five seasons.

He then moved on to Salesianum Prep School in Wilmington, Delaware, as head coach (1972-75) before moving up to the college ranks beginning at Princeton (1975-77) as tutor for linebackers and both offensive and defensive lines. Later (1978-79) he coached defensive ends and linebackers at Boston College and also organized the entire defense.

Olivadotti, who has a B.A. business degree and is a class "A" racquetball player, resides in Cooper City with his wife Karen (married 6/15/68) and their two children, Kari Anne (9/30/70) and Kirk (1/1/74).

MEL PHILLIPS

Defensive Backs
College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips moves into his third season as defensive backs coach for the Dolphins. Two years ago, in only his first season with Miami, Phillips saw his DBs tie for third place in the AFC in interceptions. A rash of injuries hurt the Miami secondary in '86 but Phillips has high hopes for the '87 campaign.

Before coming to Miami, the 45-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84).

Known for his outstanding rapport with his players, Phillips coached in Detroit under then-head coach (and former Dolphin assistant) Monte Clark. With Miami, Phillips works with a defensive backfield rich in experience that features quality veterans like Don McNeal, William Judson, Mike Kozlowski, Glenn Blackwood, Paul Lankford and Bud Brown. He also has some outstanding young talent in Donovan Rose, Reyna Thompson and Mike Smith.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, North Carolina, played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include 10 interceptions for 106 return yards (35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, Phillips rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife Patricia (married 1/23/65) live in Miami Lakes with their daughters Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73). He was born on January 6, 1942 in Shelby, North Carolina.

JOHN SANDUSKY

Offense, Offensive Line
College: Villanova
NFL: 29th Season
Dolphins: 12th Season
Born: December 28, 1925

Like many of the men who played for him, John Sandusky is regarded as "one of the best in the business." Sandusky – and his offensive line – just keeps getting better. A veteran of nearly three decades of NFL coaching (he begins his 29th campaign in '87), Sandusky starts his 12th year with the Dolphins looking for continued success.

In 1986, the Dolphin offensive line allowed the fewest QB sacks (17) in the NFL for the fifth straight season.

Under Sandusky's guidance the Dolphin offensive line has rewritten the NFL record book. In 1986 Miami increased its league-record string of consecutive seasons leading the NFL in fewest QB sacks to five (1982-86). The Dolphins also hold the record for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks – six. Miami also led the NFL in scoring in 86 with 430 points.

Despite his assistant coaching title, he is also quite knowledgeable about defense, having spent seven of his 29 seasons coaching the other side of the line of scrimmage. In three of the past four campaigns, seven Dolphin offensive linemen have been singled out for some type of post-season honors.

The 61-year-old Sandusky joined the Dolphins in 1976 after spending three seasons (1973-75) as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia

Eagles. Prior to that, he was a coach for the Baltimore Colts from 1959-72, including the 1963-69 seasons under then-Colt head coach Don Shula. When Shula moved to Miami in 1970, he attempted, but was unable, to bring Sandusky with him. Sandusky was on the Colt staff for their two Super Bowl appearances in games III and V.

When Don McCafferty was fired as Baltimore's head coach after winning only one of the first five games in 1972, Sandusky became the Colt boss and led his charges to four victories in their final nine games. Two of Sandusky's losses that season were to Shula's undefeated Dolphin team.

Sandusky was an All-America tackle at Villanova University (1946-49) before joining the NFL's Cleveland Browns in 1950. He played both offensive and defensive tackle in six seasons in Cleveland as the Browns made it to the NFL title game in all six of those campaigns (three wins). Sandusky then played one year (1956) with the Green Bay Packers before beginning his coaching career at Villanova (1957-58).

Sandusky has the unique distinction of having served in four different capacities in the now-defunct College All-Star game in Chicago. He played (1950) and coached (1958) for the All-Stars, and also played (1951, 1955) and coached (1969, 1971) for the NFL championship team that annually opposed the collegians.

John remarried this past June 6 to the former Shirley Petti and the couple resides in Hollywood with her three children (Georgina, Jason and Jennifer). John has two sons (Jack and James) living in Baltimore, and a daughter (Ruth) who resides in Silver Spring, Maryland. Another son, Gerry, covers the Dolphins as a sportscaster for WSVN-TV in Miami. Another son, Joe, died in '78 of complications from pneumonia while a sophomore at Tulsa University. John was married to his first wife, Ruth, for 34 years before her death in December, 1985.

DAN SEKANOVICH

Defensive Line
College: Tennessee
NFL: 11th Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: July 27, 1933

Dan Sekanovich, a veteran of a decade of NFL coaching, begins his second season as a member of the Miami Dolphins staff. The 54-year-old Sekanovich is in charge of the Dolphin defensive line. He recently spent three seasons (1983-85) as the assistant head coach/defensive line mentor of the Atlanta Falcons. While with Atlanta he helped develop two top young linemen in Rick Bryan and Mike Gann. With the Dolphins, he will be working with young prospects like T.J. Turner, George Little and top-draft choice John Bosa.

Prior to his Atlanta post, Sekanovich developed one of the NFL's most feared defensive units, "The New York Sack Exchange," while defensive line coach for the New York Jets from 1977-82. In 1981, the Sack Exchange led the NFL in sacks with the defensive line getting 59 of 66.

Before joining the Jets, the West Hazleton, Pennsylvania, native enjoyed his first professional coaching experience when he served on Marv Levy's staff (now head coach of the Buffalo Bills) for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League from 1973-76. Montreal captured the Grey Cup title in 1974 as Sekanovich coached both the offensive and defensive lines.

His collegiate coaching stops included: Kentucky (1971-72), Navy (1969-70), Pittsburgh (1968), Connecticut (1964-67) and Susquehanna (1961-63).

Sekanovich enjoyed a fine playing career (1951-53) at Tennessee under General Bob Neyland, where he played as a defensive end.

Dan and his wife, Delores, have a son, Dan, Jr., (11/23/66) and a daughter, Catherine (11/28/68). They reside in Cooper City.

CHUCK STUDLEY

Linebackers
College: Illinois
NFL: 19th Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: January 17, 1929

Chuck Studley, a veteran of nearly two decades of NFL coaching, moves into a new area of the Dolphin defense in '87 as he becomes the linebacker coach. For the previous three years Studley was in charge of the overall defense.

The Dolphin defense has had a proud tradition of linebackers with men named Buoniconti, Matheson and Duhe. Studley hopes to continue that trend with veterans like Hugh Green and Bob Brudzinski and young standouts like Mark Brown, John Offerdahl and Rick Graf. In 1986, Offerdahl became the first Dolphin LB named as a starter in the Pro Bowl.

Studley, who joined the Dolphins on December 27, 1983, had begun the '83 season as the defensive coordinator for the Houston Oilers. Following the team's 0-6 start, head coach Ed Biles resigned on October 10, with Studley being tabbed as interim head coach. He took over the undermanned Oilers, guiding them to upsets over Detroit and Cleveland, and nearly one over Miami. Studley's Oilers led Shula's Dolphins in the fourth quarter of their December 4 Astrodome encounter before the visitors finally prevailed, 24-17.

Prior to his service in Houston, Studley spent the 1979-82 seasons as the defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers. The '81 49er squad went all the way, capturing Super Bowl XVI with a victory over the Cincinnati Bengals. Before heading to California, Studley had been a Bengal assistant for 10 seasons (1969-78).

Studley, born in Maywood, Illinois, was an All-America guard at the University of Illinois (1949-51), captaining its undefeated 1951 team that went to the Rose Bowl. He began his coaching career at Alton (Ill.) High School (1952-54) before returning to his alma mater to coach the Fighting Illini (1955-59). As a head coach, he led the University of Massachusetts to a Yankee Conference championship in 1960, then spent six years at the helm of the University of Cincinnati, helping the Bearcats to a pair of Missouri Valley titles.

Chuck and his wife, Peggy, (married 6/24/50) live in Miami Lakes. They have six children (Carole, Doug, Susan, David, Mike and Steve) and five grandchildren.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs
College: John Carroll
NFL: 21st Season
Dolphins: 18th Season
Born: September 28, 1928

When Don Shula arrived in Miami in 1970, so too did Carl Taseff. Taseff and Shula's relationship dates back to their college days when they played in the same backfield together for coach Herb Eisele's John Carroll squad in Cleveland. They were also roommates in the NFL while both played for Cleveland (1951-52) and Baltimore (1953-56).

Taseff has coached the Dolphin offensive backs since coming to South Florida, and he's done it with great success. In fact, in the eight-year span from 1970-77, Taseff's backs ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing on seven occasions. More importantly, Taseff has been able to change with the times. During the 1970s, the Dolphins employed a grind-it-out style that featured powerful fullback Larry Csonka. Since Dan Marino's emergence as Miami's air-oriented quarterback, Taseff's charges have become more a part of the passing game (ie. Lorenzo Hampton was second on the team in receptions in '86). Hampton was also sixth in rushing and 15th in receiving in the AFC a year ago.

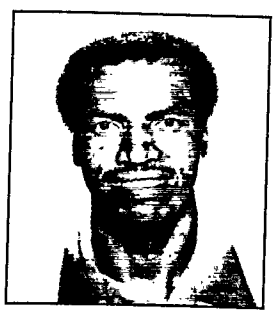

Taseff came to Miami after spending two years working for the CEPO scouting combine (1968-69). Prior to that, he had coaching stints with the AFL's Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL's Detroit Lions (1965-66).

As a player, Taseff was a star running back at Cleveland's John Carroll University, scoring 22 touchdowns in 1950. He began his pro career in 1951 with his hometown Cleveland Browns before beginning a nine-year term (1953-61) with the Baltimore Colts. A cornerback for the Colts, Taseff set a team record with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown against Green Bay (10/14/56). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field goal attempt against the Rams (12/12/59).

After the Colts, Taseff played the latter part of the '61 season for Philadelphia before winding up his playing career with Buffalo in 1962. Overall, Taseff's career stats show 112 punt returns for 826 yards and no fumbles.

Carl and his wife Lucy (married 11/18/78) live in Miami. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan (both married), by a previous marriage. He also has a granddaughter, Celia.

JUNIOR WADE

Strength and Conditioning
College: South Carolina State
NFL: 13th Season
Dolphins: 13th Season
Born: February 2, 1947

One of the key figures in the Dolphin program is veteran strength and conditioning coach Junior Wade.

In his fifth season as the Dolphins' strength and conditioning coach, Wade also administers the team's successful off-season conditioning program and assists with the Miami special teams. Previously, Wade had served eight years as the club's assistant trainer. The promotion to assistant coaching status was a well-deserved reward for the affable Wade. As a trainer, he long had held the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

Appointed to his present position on February 15, 1983, Wade first joined the Dolphins as training camp assistant for the 1973-74 pre-seasons. He was hired by the Dolphins on a full-time basis in time for the 1975 campaign. Wade's past job experience includes having worked as an athletic trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State and as the trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball farm team in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Wade was also the head baseball coach and assistant trainer at Davidson College. In 1975, he led the Wildcats to a 21-15 record, the best mark the school had ever posted. A three-year letterman himself at South Carolina State, Wade also earned his master's degree in education. Following his graduation from SCSU in 1969, he worked as head trainer at the school for three years.

Junior, a native of Bath, South Carolina, lives in Miami with his wife Constance (married 12/13/70) and sons Aaron (2/25/72) and Jason (2/24/80).

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams, Tight Ends
College: Wichita State
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his second year as a member of the Dolphins coaching staff concentrating on special teams and tight ends. Last season James Pruitt had a 71-yard punt return for a TD and Bruce Hardy turned in the best season ever by a Dolphin tight end.

Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year in the United States Football League with the Arizona Outlaws, where he was the offensive line coach for Frank Kush.

Before his one-year stint in the USFL, Westhoff spent three seasons under Kush with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84). While with the Colts, his responsibilities included tight ends, special teams and weight training.

The 39-year-old Westhoff began his collegiate playing career at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history. He was the team's MVP as a junior and served as captain during his senior campaign.

Westhoff started his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in '75 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Westhoff then took over as coach of the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. He then coached at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981), working with the offensive line.

Born in Pittsburgh, he was raised in Bethel Park, Pennsylvania. Mike and his wife, Marilyn (married 1/25/70), reside in Ft. Lauderdale with their son, John Thomas (4/27/81).

FOOTBALL STAFF

CHARLEY WINNER

Director of Pro Personnel, Administrative Assistant
College: Washington (Mo.)
NFL: 33rd Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: July 2, 1925

A veteran of 33 NFL coaching and front-office seasons, Charley Winner serves the Miami Dolphins as director of pro personnel and as an administrative assistant to Don Shula.

Three years ago, Winner was given the responsibility of negotiating most player contracts. That duty goes along with Winner's other tasks that include scouting upcoming Dolphin opponents, searching for free agent talent and handling waiver and trade transactions.

Winner joined the Dolphins in 1981 after working one year for a cable television company. Prior to that, he enjoyed a distinguished coaching career which began in 1948 as an assistant under future father-in-law Weeb Ewbank at his alma mater, Washington University in St. Louis. He moved to Case Tech in 1950 under head coach Lou Saban, remaining there for four seasons. In 1954, Winner began his professional coaching career at Baltimore, again with Ewbank at the helm. From 1954-65, he coached Colt ends, defensive backs, linebackers and served as defensive coordinator. During his Baltimore stint, he coached a defensive back named Don Shula, later serving on Shula's staff when he became the Colt boss.

In 1966, Winner accepted the head coaching position of the St. Louis Cardinals, a post he held for five seasons. His teams had a 35-30-5 record, including an outstanding 9-4-1 mark in 1968. From 1971-72, Winner coached defensive backs for George Allen's Washington Redskins, whose '72 squad lost to the Dolphins in the Super Bowl. He was again reunited in 1973 with Ewbank, this time as an assistant for the New York Jets. Winner took over as Jet head coach the following year, posting a 9-14 slate in two seasons. He then coached Cincinnati's defensive backfield from 1976-79. Under Winner's guidance, Bengal DBs had conference rankings of first (1976) and second (1978) during his tenure there.

A native of Somerville, New Jersey, Winner attended Southeast Missouri College for one year before being drafted into the service in 1942. A radio operator and gunner in the Air Force, he flew 17 missions over Germany, and once spent six weeks in a German POW camp. Following the war, he completed his education at Washington University, earning letters in football and track.

Charley and his wife, Nancy (married 6/23/50), live in Plantation. They have two daughters, Cinda and Lisa, and five grandchildren.

Wide receiver Mark Clayton holds the NFL record for most receiving touchdowns in one season. He had 18 TDs through the air in 1984.

CHUCK CONNOR

Director of Player Personnel
College: Cincinnati
NFL: 10th Season
Dolphins: 10th Season
Born: July 7, 1937

The man responsible for the scouting of college players and the Dolphins' preparation for the NFL draft is Chuck Connor. A veteran of nine years of service, Connor serves as director of player personnel for Miami and quietly has become one of the top men at his position in the league.

Preparing for the annual draft is Connor's primary concern, and he has done that well during his Dolphin tenure, boasting 34 players from his first nine drafts who remain on the team's roster heading into the '87 pre-season.

Two years ago, faced with no first-round selection and only the 24th pick (52nd overall) in the second round, Connor and his staff came up with a then-unknown linebacker from small Western Michigan, John Offerdahl. At season's end Offerdahl was the NFL Rookie of the Year. Five of last year's rookies made the '86 squad and four started on defense at season's end.

Since Connor's arrival, the Dolphins have slowly rebuilt several key areas, including the defensive backfield, the offensive line, running back and the kicking game. Connor's astute scouting and drafting has accomplished this without missing a competitive beat. The Dolphins won divisional titles in 1979, '81, '83, '84 and '85, and made it to the Super Bowl in '82 and '84.

The McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania, native joined the Dolphins in February, 1978, after spending the previous three years scouting for BLESTO, one of the NFL's two scouting combines. In his last year with BLESTO, Connor had been promoted from area to regional scout, responsible for a nine-state area in the southeastern United States.

Connor began his career as a coach on the high school level, spending 15 years (1960-74) at Montour High near Pittsburgh. Eight of those seasons were spent as a head coach, with his 1967 squad going undefeated. In '74, he continued as a teacher at Montour while becoming the defensive backfield coach at Carnegie-Mellon University. While at Montour, Connor had begun evaluating players from film for the Pittsburgh Steelers, which eventually led to his BLESTO position.

Chuck and his wife, Dorothy (married 6/27/59), live in Stone Mountain, Georgia. They have four children, Chuck (4/23/60), Mike (1/16/65), Karen (6/20/66) and Scott (7/29/76).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold the NFL record for most consecutive home games won. Miami won 27 straight regular-season games (31 overall) at the Orange Bowl from 1971-74.

Heading into 1987, Miami has not been shut out at home since October 25, 1970 against the Cleveland Browns (28-0), the second-longest such streak in the AFC. Denver has never been whitewashed in Mile High Stadium since the team began play in the AFL in 1960.

MILT DAVIS

College Scout
College: UCLA
NFL: 21st Season
Dolphins: 10th Season
Born: May 31, 1929

The veteran of the Miami Dolphins' collegiate scouting corps is Milt Davis, who since 1978 has been responsible for the 14-state western region. In addition to his scouting duties, Davis, who has over two decades of experience in the NFL, also assists the coaching staff during mini-camp and portions of summer training camp. He also finds time to serve as a counselor and biology professor at Los Angeles City College.

Davis began his scouting career in 1967 with the Baltimore Colts, continuing in that capacity until 1976. He spent the '77 season "beating the bushes" for the Los Angeles Rams before joining the Dolphins.

In four seasons as a Colt defensive back (1957-60), Davis twice tied for the NFL lead in interceptions and was an All-Pro selection in 1957. In his rookie season, Davis picked off 10 of his 27 career interceptions. He was a member of the Colts' 1958 and '59 teams that defeated the New York Giants for the league championship.

Richly educated, Davis received his undergraduate degree, a master's degree in zoology (he's an avid bird-watcher) and a doctorate in administrative education from UCLA.

Milt and his wife, Yvonne (married 1/18/58), live in Los Angeles. They have three children, Allison (2/19/59) and twins Brian and Hilary (5/21/62), and a grandson, Chance (4/3/84).

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout
College: Wyoming
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the Rocky Mountain and midwestern states fall on the shoulders of the capable Mike Cartwright. In his fifth Dolphin season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers, working for Pro-Line. From 1979 to '81, he served as a graduate assistant basketball coach and head baseball coach at Robert Morris College, where he pursued a master's degree in sports management. Before attending grad school, Colbert spent three months as an intern in the ticket office of the NBA's Detroit Pistons.

The Pittsburgh native earned his undergraduate degree in sports management from Robert Morris in 1979.

Kevin and his wife, Janis (married 11/21/81), reside in Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, with their two children, Kacie (5/22/83) and Jennifer 10/15/85).

BOB LUNDY

Head Trainer
College: Boston University
NFL: 23rd Season
Dolphins: 21st Season
Born: March 28, 1936

For two decades, the job of taking care of the Dolphin players' daily assortment of major and minor injuries has belonged to head trainer Bob Lundy. One of the most respected trainers in the NFL, Lundy is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins in coordination with team physicians. In conjunction with assistant coach Junior Wade, Lundy also oversees the team's off-season conditioning program.

Lundy keeps abreast of the latest advances in training technology through his regular attendance at NATA conventions. Perhaps his highest honor came in 1974 when Dolphin players awarded Lundy the game ball following Miami's fourth consecutive AFC Eastern Division title.

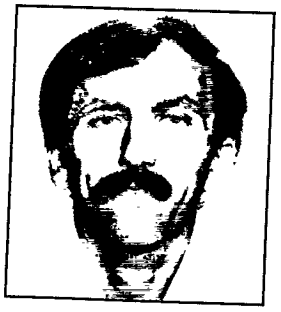

Lundy joined the Dolphins for their inaugural 1966 season under then-head coach George Wilson, and has been with the club for all but one of its campaigns (he sold real estate in 1973). When Don Shula took over as head coach in 1970, Lundy was retained and he has been manning the training room ever since.

A native of Wollaston, Massachusetts, Lundy is a 1958 graduate of Boston University. While a graduate student at Indiana University, he served as the Hoosiers' assistant trainer before becoming the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63). Lundy's first professional job came in 1964 when he served two seasons as the Detroit Lions' assistant trainer.

In May of 1986, Lundy was honored by the National Athletic Trainers Association with a "Twenty-Five Year Award," which is the most prestigious award in the training profession.

Bob and his wife, Alice (married 6/2/62), live in Miami. They have three sons, Bob, Jr. (3/30/63), Billy (6/30/66) and David (1/30.70).

He has been a full-time member of the Dolphin staff since May, 1983, after spending five pre-seasons (1975-79) as a summer training camp assistant to Lundy.

He aided current Dolphin assistant coach Junior Wade while Wade was baseball coach and assistant trainer for the Wildcats. Davis received his B.A. degree from Davidson in 1976, and earned his NATA certification the following year.

In 1978, Davis got his master's degree in health and physical education from Tennessee Tech. The following fall, he was named athletic trainer for men at the University of Tennessee-Martin, a position he held until accepting his current post.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

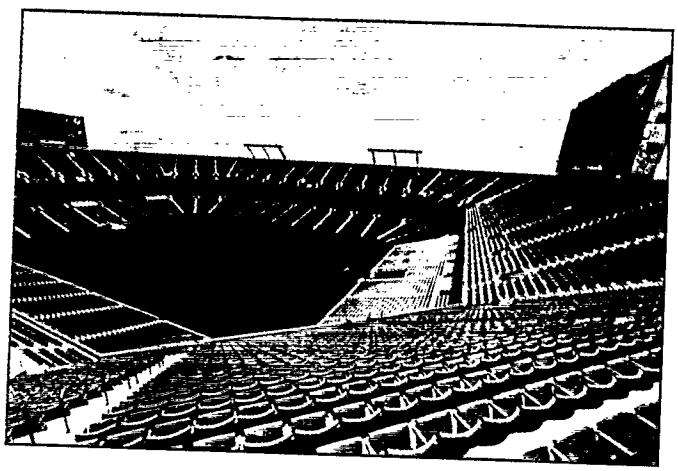

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American football leagues, the Miami Dolphins consistently have ranked in the top echelon of pro football. In fact, the Dolphins have a better winning percentage than any other team during that span. The Dolphins are also the only team in either the AFC or NFC to win three straight conference championships (1971-73).

DOLPHIN FACT

Heading into the 1987 season, the Dolphins have never lost to an NFC East team at home. Miami is a perfect 8-0 in home games with NFC East foes since the merger of the National and American Football Leagues in 1970. The Dolphins are 3-0 vs. Philadelphia, 2-0 vs. Dallas, 2-0 vs. St. Louis and 1-0 vs. Washington. Miami, which has never faced the N.Y. Giants at home except in the pre-season, will play host to both the Giants and Redskins in '87.

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM

The critics said it never could be done. But reality shows that the dream has come true.

The Miami Dolphins begin play in the new 75,000-seat Joe Robbie Stadium in the 1987 season. Built at a cost of $100 million, the state-of-the-art, open-air facility is the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds.

Located one mile south of the Dade-Broward county line, Joe Robbie Stadium sits on a 160-acre site. It is 16 miles northwest of downtown Miami and 14 miles north of the Orange Bowl, the Dolphins' former home.

The first game in Joe Robbie Stadium pits Miami against the Chicago Bears on August 16, 1987 (the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise) in a pre-season contest. Plans for the stadium first were announced on March 5, 1984. Clearing of the stadium site began on July 22, 1985, and groundbreaking ceremonies were held on December 1, 1985 – just 20½ months prior to the first game.

Financing for the stadium is based largely upon the leasing of executive suites and club seats on 10-year leases. Executive suites, which seat 10-16 people per box, range in price from $29,000 - $65,000 per year. Each executive suite is fully furnished, including air-conditioning, carpeting, refrigerator, icemaker, lockable liquor cabinet, lounge furniture, two TV monitors and optional telephone hookup and catered food and beverage service. A suiteholder also receives two free parking spaces as well as four guest passes.

Club seats, which are priced from $600-$1,400 per year on a 10-year lease, are 21" wide (two inches wider than other seats in the stadium) with chairback and armrest. Club seats, whose patrons are kept cool by overhead vents which blow cold air down on them, are the only grandstand-style seating in the stadium underneath the overhang of the upper deck. Club seat holders also are guaranteed a parking space.

Only executive suite and club seat lessees have access to the air-conditioned stadium club, located behind the suites. The stadium club, which features a better food and beverage service than that found at concession stands, runs around the entire stadium. Holders of executive suites and club seats, who have the option to renew their lease over the life of the stadium, also have the right of first refusal on their seats for all other events in the stadium except the Super Bowl.

General seating in Joe Robbie Stadium is a 19" chairback seat with armrest, which compares favorably with the 17" bench seat of the Orange Bowl. Each seat offers an excellent view of the playing field as there are no obstructed seats in the stadium.

The stadium is easily accessible by the fan. Eight 25' wide ramps (two per corner) lead up to the upper deck. Also located on each corner are two escalators, one rising to the upper deck, the other to the club level. Executive suite holders also may access their seats by any one of four designated elevators.

Parking at JRS is in abundance. There are a total of 14,970 parking spaces for cars and 254 for buses in the 140-acre on-site lot. There also is a helipad.

Comfort and convenience for the fan is the byword at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the general seating areas (100, 400 levels), there are 40 concession stands (each with a TV monitor so as not to miss a minute of the action). Throughout the stadium, there are a total of 80 restrooms (40 men, 40 women). For added enjoyment of the game, two giant scoreboards – each equipped with a color Sony JumboTRON video screen – are located on the ends of the stadium.

The playing field is Prescription Athletic Turf (natural grass). Its drainage capacity is such that there would be a firm playing surface within 30 minutes of a 1" per hour rain.

Field lighting is 150-plus foot candles. The field lights also have the added feature of instant restrike capability. This means that the lights will go right back on after a power failure because they do not need a 20-30 minute warmup period as with some stadium lights.

Originally named Dolphin Stadium, the facility was renamed by the Robbie children for the man who had been the driving force behind its construction on April 30, 1987. "We have seen our father lay everything he owns and everything he has accomplished on the line to build the stadium, putting himself in a real bind," said Tim Robbie, designated spokesman for the family. "If he had flunked the marketing test or the private financing test, the project would have been Joe Robbie's folly. So why not 'Joe Robbie Stadium?' Stadiums have been named in other places after people who have done a lot less to deserve it."

Joe Robbie Stadium will be the site of many great events in the coming years. Super Bowl XXIII is scheduled to be played at JRS on January 22, 1989. World Cup Soccer, open-air concerts and major league baseball all are future possibilities for stadium use.

Should major league baseball ever come to South Florida, Joe Robbie Stadium is readily adaptable. Precast concrete pieces located on the north side (what would be left field) would be replaced with movable seating at a cost of several million dollars. Home plate would be located in the southwest corner of the playing field and estimated seating is 50,000.

THE DOLPHIN NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns — none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irrresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame — it ended in a scoreless tie.

GAME 1

SAN DIEGO 50, DOLPHINS 28
September 7, 1986

San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, CA

The San Diego Chargers scored five of the first seven times they had the ball and recorded the second-highest point total ever allowed by a Dolphin team in a 50-28 win before 57,726 in the season's first game. The Chargers rolled up 500 yards in total offense – 309 in the first half alone. Charger QB Dan Fouts was 23 of 35 for 293 yards and three TDs on the day. Miami, which had only nine rushes for 45 yards, saw Dan Marino complete 23 of 36 for 290 yards and three TDs. Despite 71 pass attempts between them, neither Fouts nor Marino was intercepted. Miami's other score came on a 17-yard TD toss from Don Strock to Nat Moore in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins were hurt by four turnovers – three of which the Chargers converted into 21 points. San Diego did not suffer a turnover the entire game. Punter Reggie Roby enjoyed a fine afternoon, averaging 43.8 yards on four kicks. Free safety Bud Brown was the game's top tackler with 13 hits, while rookie LB John Offerdahl, in his NFL debut, added eight tackles.

GAME 2

DOLPHINS 30, INDIANAPOLIS 10
September 14, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphins, "playing well in all phases of the game" according to head coach Don Shula, earned their first victory of 1986 with a 30-10 triumph over the Colts before 51,848 in the Orange Bowl. After allowing the Colts to take the game's opening kickoff and drive 80 yards for a TD, the Dolphin defense stiffened, allowing only three points the rest of the way. The Miami defense recorded seven sacks (for minus 60 yards) – the most since it picked up eight vs. Houston in 1981. The defense also gave up only 75 yards rushing. John Offerdahl led the way with seven tackles, his first NFL interception, two passes defensed and a forced fumble. Offensively, the Dolphins picked up 388 total yards – 134 on the ground and 254 through the air. Dan Marino was 17 of 29 for 254 yards and one TD. Lorenzo Hampton led all rushers with 63 yards on 16 carries. Hampton and Mark Clayton paced the Dolphins' receiving corps with four catches apiece. Rookie James Pruitt excited the Orange Bowl crowd with two punt returns for 106 yards – including a 71-yard sprint for a TD.

GAME 3

N.Y. JETS 51, DOLPHINS 45 (OT)
September 21, 1986

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

In a game Don Shula said was "as disappointing as any loss I've ever been associated with," the Dolphins saw the Jets score the game's tying touchdown with no time remaining in regulation and then win it when N.Y. scored on the first possession of overtime. The 51 points are the second-highest ever scored against Miami and the most ever allowed by a Don Shula-coached team. The Dolphin "D" allowed 581 total net yards (449 through the air). Dan Marino, who needed eight attempts to qualify in the NFL's career ratings (he's now ranked number one), was 30 of 50 for 448 yards, six TDs and two INTs. His stats for attempts, completions and yards were all personal bests. His six TDs tied Bob Griese's team record. Marino and Jet QB Ken O'Brien (29 of 43 for 479 yards, four TDs) combined for 884 yards – an NFL single-game record. Mark Clayton (8-174) and Mark Duper (7-154) each went over 100 yards in receiving. Don McNeal had an interception for Miami, while LB John Offerdahl led all tacklers with 11.

SAN FRANCISCO 31, DOLPHINS 16
September 28, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphins lost their second straight game and saw their record drop to 1-3 – their worst start since 1969 (the year before Don Shula arrived). QB Dan Marino had his worst day in the NFL as he threw a career-high four INTs. Kicker Fuad Reveiz missed two FGs in one game for the first time in his career. The special teams suffered a rough afternoon with three fumbled punts, the missed FGs and a missed PAT. The Miami defense allowed only 16 first downs to the 49ers, along with 146 yards rushing and 314 total net yards. Dolphin Tony Nathan tied a team record with 10 receptions and punter Reggie Roby set a team mark for best average in a game. Roby's average was 58.5 (4-234), better than Larry Seiple's 52.0 mark vs. the Jets in 1973. Roby also had a 73-yard punt, which tied a team record held by Seiple. 49er QB Jeff Kemp, playing in place of injured Joe Montana, was 14 of 29 for 168 yards and two TDs.

GAME 5

NEW ENGLAND 34, DOLPHINS 7
October 5, 1986

Sullivan Stadium
Foxboro, MA

Off to the worst start in Don Shula's 24 years as an NFL coach, the Dolphins' record fell to 1-4 with a 34-7 loss at New England. Miami's offense was held to only 13 first downs, 47 plays, 167 passing yards and 251 total yards. It marked the fourth time in five games that Miami failed to go over 100 yards in team rushing. Miami's only score was a four-yard TD toss from Dan Marino to Lorenzo Hampton in the fourth quarter. Marino, who threw seven INTs in two weeks, was 13 of 23 for 167 yards, three INTs and the one TD. Mark Duper registered his third straight game with over 100 yards receiving but Mark Clayton was held to no catches for the first time since the fourth game of '84. LB John Offerdahl led all tacklers with 16 stops. Pats QB Tony Eason played only the first half before suffering a rib injury. Steve Grogan replaced Eason and was six of 10 for 106 yards and one TD. New England CB Ronnie Lippett had two INTs for the winners. It was the first meeting of the two teams since the AFC title game in January of '86.

While the Dolphin offense sputtered in the second half – no scoring for the final 30 minutes – the Miami defense rose to the occasion, holding the Colts to only a field goal in the final two quarters. Included in the fine defensive play was a gallant effort by Dolphin rookie LB John Offerdahl, who made a game-saving, one-on-one, open-field tackle of the Colts' Owen Gill on fourth down late in the game to preserve the victory. Lorenzo Hampton sparked the Miami offense with 58 yards on 13 carries and a TD along with four receptions for 47 yards. Hampton got the game's first score on a one-yard run in the first quarter. After the Colts answered with a 14-yard scoring jaunt by Randy McMillan, Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins back on top with a 29-yard FG in the second quarter. Dan Marino closed Miami's scoring a few minutes later with a seven-yard TD toss to Mark Duper. The only scoring in the second half was two FGs by Indy's Dean Biasucci. Marino tossed a TD pass for his 15th straight game – becoming the holder of the longest current streak in the NFL.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 28, HOUSTON 7
November 2, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphin defense played its best game of the year to date, allowing only a fourth-quarter touchdown, and the offense exploded on big plays for 28 points as Miami defeated the Oilers in the Orange Bowl to win its second straight game. Dan Marino, who completed only one of his first seven passes, pulled things together and ended the afternoon with four TD tosses and 220 yards. Marino and Mark Duper connected for an 85-yard TD reception early in the third quarter – the longest pass play in the NFL in '86. The completion also equaled the career long for each. Ron Davenport rushed for a personal season-high of 74 yards for Miami. Defensively, the Dolphins were led by John Offerdahl, who had a sack and a game-high 10 tackles. Glenn Blackwood recorded his first INT of '86 and the 25th of his career. Offerdahl, Mark Brown and Doug Betters each were credited with QB sacks in what defensive coordinator Chuck Studley called "our best defensive effort of the season."

GAME 10

CLEVELAND 26, DOLPHINS 16
November 10, 1986
Cleveland Stadium
Cleveland, OH

Cleveland QB Bernie Kosar enjoyed the finest game of his young career, completing 32 of 50 passes for 401 yards to lead the Browns to a 26-16 Monday Night Football win over Miami before a chilly crowd of 77,949 in Cleveland. In doing so, Kosar became the only QB in NFL history to pass for over 400 yards in a game and not throw a TD pass. Matt Bahr booted four field goals for the Browns. The Dolphins trailed 16-10 at halftime, but Curtis Dickey scored in the third quarter on a 13-yard run and Bahr added his final FG early in the fourth period to put the Browns comfortably ahead. Dan Marino, who earlier in the day had a 24-yard TD pass to Mark Duper, threw a 22-yard scoring strike to Mark Clayton on the game's final play. As a team, Miami managed only 58 yards rushing on 17 carries. On eight of its 10 drives, Cleveland advanced inside the Dolphin 20-yard line. But the Miami defense stiffened when the Browns got close to the goal line as those eight possessions resulted in only two TDs, four FGs, a blocked FG and a fumble. Overall, Miami's defense allowed 558 total yards (168 rushing, 390 passing), the fourth most in team history. Cleveland went on to record the best record (12-4) in the AFC.

GAME 11

DOLPHINS 34, BUFFALO 24
November 16, 1986
Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

Dolphin QB Dan Marino, playing in front of his parents who made the trip from Pittsburgh, set a team record with 39 completions (in 54 attempts) as Miami recorded a come-from-behind victory over the Buffalo Bills in dreary, misty weather in Buffalo. Marino went over the 300-yard mark for the 20th time in his career and over the 400-yard mark for the sixth time as he ended with 404 yards and four TDs. While Marino was leading the Miami offense, the Dolphin "D" – after allowing 21 points in the first half – came together and held Buffalo to three points and 60 total yards in the second half. Marino was 22 of 31 for 245 yards in the second half alone and completed passes to 10 different receivers on the afternoon. Mark Duper and TE Bruce Hardy each recorded the 200th reception of their careers in the game. Hardy also tied his personal high of seven catches in a game, while RB Lorenzo Hampton had nine receptions for his career-high. Kicker Fuad Reveiz booted a career-best 52-yard FG just before halftime to give the Dolphins a lift and bring Miami within 21-10 at intermission. The Dolphins played without LB John Offerdahl, who missed the only game of his rookie season with an arm injury.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 45, N.Y. JETS 3
November 24, 1986
Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphins reached the .500 mark for the first time since the season's second game with their highest total offensive figure in 30 games in a 45-3 triumph over the Jets in a Monday night game. The Jets entered the game with the league's best record (10-1) and the AFC's top-rated QB, Ken O'Brien, but saw their winning streak end at nine. The Dolphins rolled up 514 yards in total offense – the most since they earned 515 on Dec. 2, 1984 vs. the Raiders. Miami also saw its own streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) without a 100-yard rusher end as Lorenzo Hampton gained 148 yards on 19 carries. While Hampton (three TDs) led the ground attack, Dan Marino and Nat Moore reached milestones with the Dolphin air attack. Marino became the first NFL QB to throw 30-or-more TD tosses in three different seasons (and he did it in three straight years). Marino also set a career-best with his 80.6 completion percentage (29 of 36) for the game. Moore was the game's top receiver with seven catches for 99 yards and two TDs. He also caught the 500th pass of his career – a 21-yard reception from Don Strock in the fourth quarter. Miami's "D" held the NFL's hottest offensive unit to only 280 yards in total offense (89 rushing and 191 passing). The Dolphins had four take-aways and no give-aways. Miami scored on seven of its first eight drives in the game.

GAME 13

ATLANTA 20, DOLPHINS 14
November 30, 1986
Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Atlanta's Gerald Riggs became the first opposing rusher to gain over 100 yards on the ground vs. Miami in 1986 as he powered his way to 172 yards to lead the Falcons to a win over the Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It marked Miami's first loss ever to the Falcons after four straight wins. The loss also was Miami's third in the Orange Bowl in '86 – the most since 1980. The game saw Mark Duper go over 1,000 yards in receiving for the third time in his career and Dan Marino go over 15,000 yards passing in his career. On the negative side, Marino tied his personal record for most INTs in a game with four (he also threw four earlier in the season vs. San Francisco). Marino was 20 of 40 for 303 yards – the 21st time he's thrown for over 300 yards. Duper had 115 yards receiving on four catches, including a 54-yard scoring grab. Miami played without Mark Clayton, who missed the game with a shoulder injury. After picking up 189 yards on the ground the previous week, Miami was held to only 72 yards rushing by Atlanta. LB John Offerdahl led the Dolphin "D" with eight tackles, including the 100th of his career.

GAME 14

DOLPHINS 31, NEW ORLEANS 27
December 7, 1986
Louisiana Superdome
New Orleans, LA

Dan Marino passed for three TDs and the Dolphins rolled up 31 first-half points, but Miami had to hold on for a 31-27 victory over the Saints in New Orleans. Marino, who had been sacked only once in the previous five games, was 27 of 41 for 241 yards and three TDs with no INTs. He opened the game with 11 straight completions – the third-best streak in Dolphin history. The Dolphins scored four TDs (three Marino TD tosses and a Lorenzo Hampton run) to take a commanding 31-10 halftime lead. Rueben Mayes, the Saints' outstanding rookie RB, brought New Orleans back as he tied the Dolphin record for most yards rushing by an opponent with 203 yards (7.3 average). O.J. Simpson had gained 203 yards vs. Miami in 1976. The Saints scored 10 points in the third quarter and seven in the fourth to pull within 31-27 late in the game. New Orleans had four shots at a winning touchdown inside the Miami six-yard line in the last minute, but the Dolphins prevailed in the end.

GAME 15

DOLPHINS 37, L.A. RAMS 31 (OT)
December 14, 1986
Anaheim Stadium
Anaheim, CA

The Dolphins recorded their most impressive road victory of the 1986 season and went over the .500 mark (8-7) for the first time in '86 with a thrilling 37-31 overtime win over the Rams in Anaheim. Miami, which jumped out to a 21-7 halftime edge, saw the Rams come back and tie the game 31-31 with :50 to play, forcing the overtime. Miami won the coin toss to begin overtime and marched 75 yards in six plays, winning the game when Dan Marino and Mark Duper connected on a 20-yard TD toss 3:04 into the extra period. Marino set an NFL record for most 400-yard passing days in a career – seven – as he completed 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs with one INT. The five TDs gave Marino 41 on the year – the second highest single-season total in NFL history. He also holds the top spot at 48, set in 1984. Duper picked up his eighth 100-yard receiving game of the season – a Miami team record. Ron Davenport, who had 61 yards on eight carries, made a key 35-yard sprint on the game-winning overtime drive. L.A. Rams RB Eric Dickerson, the NFL's top rusher, gained 124 yards on 28 carries. With the victory, Miami is now 3-0 in games vs. the Rams on the West Coast.

GAME 16

NEW ENGLAND 34, DOLPHINS 27 — Orange Bowl
December 22, 1986 — Miami, FL

Veteran QB Steve Grogan came off the bench to replace injured starter Tony Eason and lead the Patriots to a come-from-behind 34-27 victory over the Dolphins in Miami's final game in the Orange Bowl. New England, which outscored Miami 14-0 in the fourth quarter, captured the AFC East title with the win. The loss was the Dolphins' fourth in the Orange Bowl in 1986 – the most home losses since '76 when Miami was 3-4. The win was only New England's third in 21 tries in the Orange Bowl. Dan Marino set two NFL single-season marks in the game – most completions (378) and attempts (623). Marino, who tossed three TD passes, also became the only NFL QB to throw a TD pass in all 16 games in '86. He now has thrown a TD toss in 23 straight regular-season contests. For the second time this season, Lorenzo Hampton gained over 100 yards rushing (109) for Miami. Eason was six of nine for 59 yards before being shaken up midway through the second quarter. After trailing 13-10 at halftime, the Dolphins took the lead at 20-13 on a 21-yard Fuad Reveiz FG and a 32-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Grogan, who also came off the bench in the season's first game between the two teams, scored on a seven-yard run late in the third quarter to tie the contest at 20-20. The teams exchanged TDs before Grogan found Stanley Morgan for a 30-yard game-winning TD with :44 to play.

DOLPHINS 16-0 VS. 5 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 16-0 regular-season record against five clubs in the National Football League through the 1986 season.

Those teams which never have beaten Miami arehicago (0-4), Green Bay (0-4), N.Y. Giants (0-1), St. Louis (0-5) and Seattle (0-2). The Dolphins face both the Giants and Seahawks during the 1987 season.

Nine other NFL teams have beaten Miami only once in the regular season. Those teams are Atlanta (1-4), Dallas (1-3), Detroit (1-2), L.A. Rams (1-4), Minnesota (1-3), New Orleans (1-4), San Francisco (1-4), Tampa Bay (1-2) and Washington (1-3). The Dolphins are scheduled to play the Cowboys and Redskins in '87.

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American football leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins). Only two other teams have even accomplished this feat — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins) and Chicago in 1985 (13 wins).

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

December 25, 1971

Kansas City Municipal Stadium
Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0
January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3
January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1972 — Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972 — Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7 — Memorial Coliseum
January 14, 1973 — Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16 — Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973 — Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlman booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10 — Orange Bowl
December 30, 1973 — Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7 — Rice Stadium
January 13, 1974 — Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26 — Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 21, 1974 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier, Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1978 — Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 — Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT) — Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 — Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13 — Orange Bowl
January 8, 1983 — Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13 — Orange Bowl
January 16, 1983 — Miami, FL

The Dolphins, on their way to a five-game victory roll, choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average – while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0 — Orange Bowl
January 23, 1983 — Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17 — Rose Bowl
January 30, 1983 — Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20 — Orange Bowl
December 31, 1983 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
December 29, 1984 — Orange Bowl, Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28
January 6, 1985 — Orange Bowl, Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16
January 20, 1985 — Stanford Stadium, Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21
January 4, 1986
Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns' first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
January 12, 1986
Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

DOLPHINS IN HALL OF FAME

Larry Csonka

Jim Langer

Paul Warfield

LARRY CSONKA

FB

1968-74, 1979

inducted: 1987

Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 10th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility.

1971-79

inducted: 1987

Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending a year on the taxi squad, made the active roster in 1971. The following season, 1972, he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter), a Dolphin record. He played in 134 straight games during his career and had a team-record 117 consecutive starts. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

PAUL WARFIELD

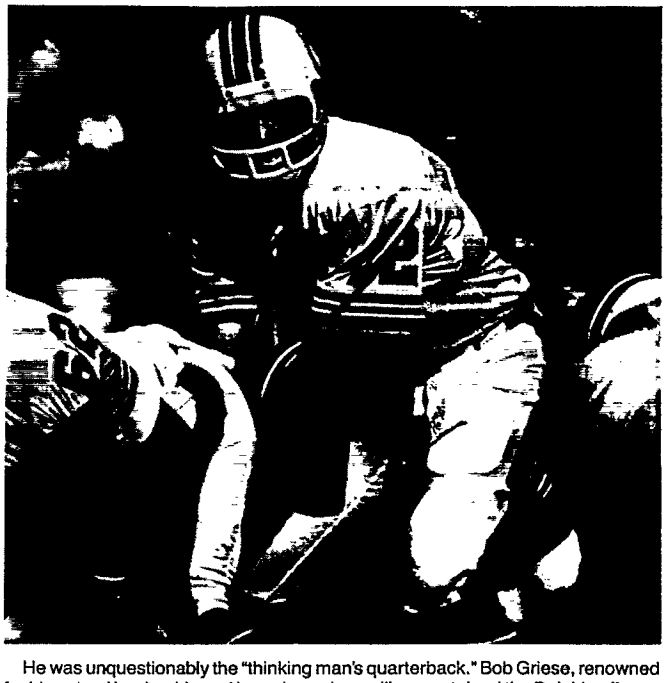

WR

inducted: 1983

Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs – good enough to place him ninth on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, the only Dolphin in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL, which place him 39th on the league's all-time receiving list, are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

RETIRED JERSEY #12

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982 in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin Owner Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame two years ago, Griese twice has been named as a finalist. It is only a matter of time before he joins the three other Dolphin players who hold a place in Canton.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula says. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WIOD

In 1987, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of 36 radio stations (81 markets) with Miami's WIOD (AM-610) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception. Known throughout South Florida as "Someplace Special for Sports," WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL.

WIOD begins its game-day coverage two hours before kickoff with "The Dolphin Express," including player features, key matchups in the upcoming game, plus other pertinent information from around the NFL. Also included in the pre-game package is "The Don Shula Show," featuring a preview of the day's contest by the Dolphin head coach.

Following the game, "The Locker Room Show" keeps listeners up-to-date on all other games around the league and also includes interviews from both the Dolphin and opposing locker rooms with key players from that day's game.

Handling the play-by-play will be "The Voice of the Dolphins," Rick Weaver, who enters his 17th season with the Dolphins. Weaver, who serves as Vice President of Sports at WIOD, is in his 24th year of calling NFL action. Weaver, who is famous for starting the "white handkerchief" in 1971, previously broadcast games for Dallas, Chicago and San Francisco. Weaver is a 10-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, he attended Ohio State University and started in broadcasting on the University of Mississippi radio network. He and his wife, Bobbie, reside in North Miami.

Joining Weaver in the broadcast booth will be color commentator Hank Goldberg. Barry Buetel begins his first year reporting from the Dolphin sideline, while Brian Robbie will coordinate post-game interviews from the locker room.

WQBA

For the sixth straight year, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team's fortunes on WQBA. The 1987 season marks the third year of the shift over to WQBA's AM station (1140).

Rene Giraldo will handle the play-by-play duties for his third season after three years as a color analyst. He will be assisted by veteran analyst Eduardo Lujan, who has served as the producer and color commentator on the Dolphins' Spanish broadcasts since their inception. Joining Giraldo and Lujan in the booth is Roly Martin, who handled sideline commentary during home games three years ago.

PRE-SEASON TELEVISION

WCIX (Channel 6) enters its fifth season of association with the Miami Dolphins in 1987. Channel 6 again will televise the Dolphins' pre-season games to South Florida football fans.

This year's package features two games: August 29 at Philadelphia and September 4 with Buffalo at home. The first pre-season game, August 16 at home with Chicago (Joe Robbie Stadium debut), will be televised nationally by ESPN, the cable network's first NFL broadcast. Miami's other pre-season contest, a Monday night (August 24) encounter at defending AFC Champion Denver, will be televised nationally by ABC.

Handling play-by-play for WCIX will be 30-year sportscasting veteran Jay Randolph. Randolph, who has been an NFL broadcaster for NBC for 19 years, is also the sports director for KSDK-TV in St. Louis. Joining Randolph will be former Dolphins Bob Griese and Bob Kuechenberg. Sideline reports will be furnished by WCIX sports director Walt Gray.

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other NFL clubs. During the procedure, the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so – thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of the won-lost standings. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the off-season and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances, a club is allowed another 24 hours to rescind its action (recall of waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (withdrawal of claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement which runs through August 31, 1987, from February 1 through October 14, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

ACTIVE LIST: The Active List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for pre-season, regular-season and post-season games. Clubs are allowed to open training camp with an unlimited number of players but thereafter must meet the mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener.

RESERVE LIST: The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Injured reserve is a Reserve List category that may be used by a club if a player is injured in a practice session or game of his club after having passed the club's physical examination in that year. If a player fails the club's initial physical examination, he is not available for "Reserve/Injured;" instead, the club may opt to use either the procedure of "Physically Unable to Perform" or "Non-Football Injury/Illness" as applicable to the individual case. Players in the category of "Reserve/Injured" who were physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks from the date of going onto IR may be re-activated by their club upon clearing procedural recall waivers. Each club will have eight free re-activations for players meeting the four-week requirement, but only three of the free re-activations can be used for a player placed on "Reserve/Injured" prior to or concurrent with the final cutdown date of September 7, 1987. Clubs participating in post-season competition will be granted an additional free re-activation. Players not meeting the four-week requirement may not return in the same season to the Active List of the club which originally placed them on IR, but may be assigned through the waiver system to another club. Players in the category of "Reserve/Retired," "Reserve/Did Not Report" or "Reserve/Veteran Free Agent Asked to Re-sign" may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season on through the post-season.

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed between clubs through the Tuesday following the sixth regular-season game (October 20, 1987) and does not resume again until February 8, 1988.

ROSTER SIZES: During the 1985-86 seasons, roster size was set at 45 players, the same number it stood at from 1978-81. Between 1982 and 1984, the roster limit was at 49. From 1975-77, each club was allowed to have 43 players on the active roster. The first roster limitation rule went into effect in 1925 (16 players) and rose gradually until it reached 47 in 1974.

ROSTER CUTDOWN DATES: All clubs must reduce their active roste to 60 players by 4:00 p.m. EDT on September 1, 1987, and to the fina total of 45 players by 4:00 p.m. on September 7, 1987.

For the second year in a row, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1986 with the exception that larger monitors will be used by Replay Officials. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 38 reversals for an average of one reversal in each six games. There were three other rulings (clarification of rules) by Replay Officials.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks – an independent system using cameras, replay machines and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a "no frills" approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised pre-season games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986 and 1987. A total of 28 plays were examined closely in 1985 (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

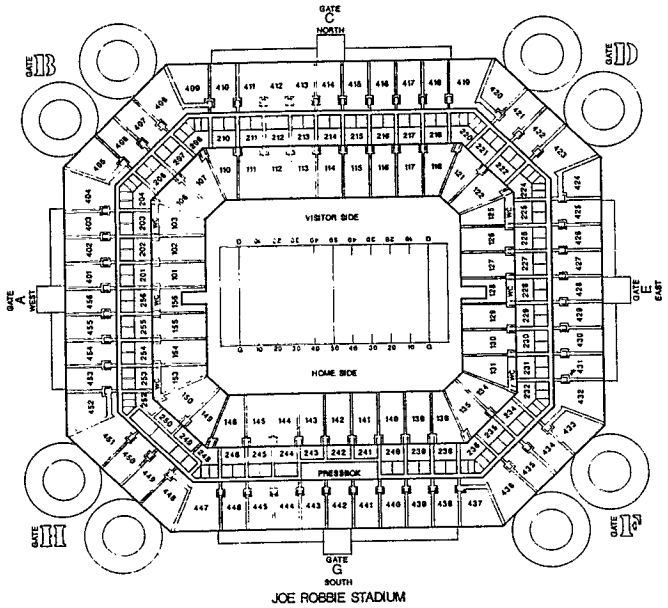

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking or kneeing; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.
