DEDICATION

The 2012 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memory of former Dolphins team President Eddie Jones, offensive lineman Mike Current, guard Billy Neighbors, linebacker Jesse Powell, linebacker Junior Seau and wide receiver Freddie Solomon, each of whom passed away within the past year.

Jones (June 18, 1938-June 27, 2012) oversaw the daily operations for the Dolphins for 18 seasons from 1988-2005, including ten years as team President. He originally joined the Dolphins in 1988 as Vice President of Administration and Finance before being named as Executive Vice President and General Manager in 1990. He was promoted to President of the organization in 1996, a position he held until his retirement following the 2005 season. Jones served as the team's representative at all National Football League meetings and was a member of the NFL's Employee Benefits Committee and a trustee of the Bert Bell Player Pension Plan. Following the 1991 season, Jones spearheaded the successful effort to construct a new training facility at Nova-Southeastern University. He also was a key player in the international expansion of the Dolphins brand as Miami played games in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997) during his tenure with the team. Jones received numerous honors for his contributions to both the Dolphins organization and the South Florida community. In 1999, Jones, in a unanimous selection by the Dolphins players, was recognized with a special courage award from the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation, which recognizes individuals in the NFL who display courage in the face of adversity. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Jones was President and Chief Operating Officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

Current (September 17, 1945 - January 16, 2012) spent 13 seasons in the NFL and had two tours with the Dolphins. Current was drafted in the third round of the 1967 AFL/NFL common draft by the Denver Broncos. He was traded to the Dolphins in 1967 where he played for two games before being traded back to the Broncos. Current played with the Broncos from 1967 through 1975. He was picked up by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1976 veteran allocation draft, and returned to play with the Dolphins from 1977-79.

Neighbors (February 4, 1940 - April 30, 2012) played with the Dolphins from 1966-69. He joined the Dolphins in the team's expansion draft from the Boston Patriots in 1966, where he played with the Patriots from 1962-65. Neighbors played in a total of 56 games in Miami with 42 starts. Born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, he played college football at the University of Alabama where he was an All-American, and would later be inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003.

Powell (April 14, 1947 - June 14, 2012) was selected by the Dolphins in the ninth round of the 1969 draft and played five seasons (1969-73) in the NFL. He was a contributor to Miami's Super Bowl winning teams in 1972 and 1973. The former West Texas A&M football star was born in Matador and grew up in Spur. He played defensive line/linebacker for then-West Texas State from 1966 to 1968. Powell was inducted into the WT Hall of Champions in 1988. After his playing carer, Powell was a longtime State Farm Insurance agent in Lubbock, Texas.

Seau (January 19, 1969 - May 2, 2012) played 20 seasons in the NFL and was selected to 12 consecutive Pro Bowls, all with the San Diego Chargers, where he played from 1990-2002. He spent the next three seasons (2003-05) in Miami playing alongside Zach Thomas and Jason Taylor on the Dolphins' dominant defenses of that time. Seau played his last four seasons (2006-09) in New England with the Patriots. During those three seasons in Miami, Seau started 28 of the 30 games he played in and racked up 115 tackles (74 solo) and five sacks.

Solomon (January 11, 1953 - February 13, 2012) was a second-round draft choice of the Dolphins in 1975 out of the University of Tampa. He spent three seasons (1975-77) in Miami. where he caught 61 passes for 973 yards and five touchdowns before getting traded to San Francisco prior to the 1978 season. Solomon won two Super Bowls with the 49ers with Hall-of-Famer Joe Montana as his quarterback. Solomon retired from football after the 1985 seasons and moved back to Tampa, where he immersed himself in the community through his community relations outreach programs with the Hillsborough County Sherriff's Office.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

For more than 45 years, the Miami Dolphins franchise has been part of the fabric of South Florida that extends well beyond our field of play. We are committed to being "the team of the community" both through the Miami Dolphins Foundation and the efforts of our entire organization, including our players, coaches and staff. The Miami Dolphins Foundation is devoted to providing and supporting signature education, health, youth athletic programs and volunteer activities that inspire and engage communities throughout Florida.

In 2011, we continued and expanded our long-time community educational efforts such as our Most Valuable Reader Program as well as our youth programs with a multitude of fitness, junior cheerleader and youth football camps.

In conjunction with our stadium's naming rights partner, Sun Life Financial, the Sun Life Rising Stars Grant program awarded $220,000 for four individual college scholarships and four grants to non-profit organizations which demonstrate a commitment to success in the classroom.

To assist in the research that will one day help tackle cancer, the Dolphins Cycling Challenge, a 170-mile bike ride across South Florida, drew more than 800 riders of all ages and raised more than $1,000,000 for the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Miami. This event will continue to be a trademark of our Foundation in coming years and we believe will raise millions for cancer research and treatment.

Assisting the Dolphins is our amazing volunteer organization, the Miami Dolphins Special Teams. This one-of-a-kind program provides volunteer service both in South Florida as well as other regions in and outside of the United States. These volunteers, wearing their bright orange Special Teams shirts, have donated their time for projects including neighborhood cleanups, food giveaways, school beautifications and manning community events sponsored by the Dolphins.

FOUNDATION CORNERSTONE INITIATIVES

– HEALTH –

DOLPHINS CYCLING CHALLENGE: Although the Dolphins family lost alumnus and radio voice Jim "Mad Dog" Mandich to cancer, his energy and spirit live on through the Dolphins Cycling Challenge. The organization responded to his initial diagnosis by creating this unique event to bring South Florida together to tackle this disease and assist an innovative and expanding Florida medical institution, the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Miami. More than 800 adult riders, including Dolphins legends Nat Moore, Bob Griese, Mark Duper, Zach Thomas, Kim Bokamper and Dick Anderson, pedaled routes ranging from 30 to 170 miles throughout South Florida. Additionally, kids ages three through 13 demonstrated their support for cancer research by riding several courses located on the grounds of Sun Life Stadium. One hundred percent of every dollar raised by riders in the Dolphins Cycling Challenge stays in the South Florida community to tackle cancer and is donated to the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center. Since 2010, the DCC has donated more than $1.6 million to Sylvester. DCC III will take place on November 3-4, 2012. For more information, please visit RideDCC.com.

– EDUCATION –

SUN LIFE RISING STAR AND MOST VALUABLE READER PROGRAMS: The Dolphins organization is dedicated to making sure that our kids are equipped with the tools necessary to instill the joy of reading and learning at an early age. The team enthusiastically supports several education and literacy programs throughout Florida, highlighted by the Sun Life Rising Stars and Most Valuable Reader programs. Through the Rising Stars in 2011, the Dolphins and Sun Life Financial gave four area education programs $50,000 grants and also rewarded four area students with $5,000 college scholarships. Through our Most Valuable Readers program, the Dolphins made a $60,000 annual commitment to state libraries in which children exchange reading credits for the opportunity to attend Dolphins games or receive other incentives.

Offensive linemen Mike Pouncey and John Jerry presented a $5,000 college scholarship through the Sun Life Rising Star program.

– YOUTH FITNESS –

DOLPHINS YOUTH ATHLETIC PROGRAMS: The importance of education, physical fitness and positive choices are the principles taught by Director of Youth Programs and former Dolphins linebacker, Twan Russell, and his staff, including former Dolphins tight end Troy Drayton, through the Dolphins Academy, Dol-Fit program, Gatorade Junior Training Camp program, Girl's Flag Football, High School Player Development 7-on-7 program, Summer Football/Cheer Camp and various other Dolphins Academy programs. In 2011, more than 110,000 children's lives were transformed by our Dolphins Academy athletic and school programs. Since 2006, more than 800,000 children have pledged to become Dol-Fit and more than 450,000 of those children have participated in our athletic programs.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill instructs a group of kids at a Dolphins youth football clinic in the practice bubble at the team's training facility.

– VOLUNTEERISM –

SPECIAL TEAMS: In its first two years, The Miami Dolphins Special Teams Driven by Chevy program has lent their services to more than 200 local South Florida nonprofit organizations and completed more than 100,000 hours of community services. Special Teams signature community service events include the National Day of Service, where more than 400 care packages were packed and shipped to Troops overseas, the National Family Volunteer Day, a family friendly community service project at Zoo Miami, the Martin Luther King Day of Service, the Dolphins Cycling Challenge, managing the more than 13 different water stops for the 170 mile bike ride which raises money for cancer research, and the Special Teams Day of Service, just to name a few. For more information on the Dolphins Special Teams program, please visit miamidolphins.com/specialteams.

ADDITIONAL COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

TOUCHDOWN FOR LIFE BLOOD DRIVE: The Dolphins held the 3rd Annual "Touchdown For Life" blood drive at Sun Life Stadium in 2011 and broke their own state-record for a single-site, one-day blood drive in Florida with more than 1,100 registered participants. Recent natural disasters like the earthquakes in Haiti and Chile, and Hurricane Katrina five years ago have increased people's awareness about the importance of having a large enough supply of blood to treat patients.

Rachel Ireland, wife of Dolphins G.M. Jeff Ireland, is among the many who participated in the team's annual Turkey Meal Giveaway.

COMBATING HUNGER & POVERTY: The Dolphins work with partners such as Publix Supermarkets to provide 200,000 meals each year to community programs including Feeding South Florida and LifeNet4Families. The largest of these events is the annual Thanksgiving Meal Giveaway, in which Dolphins players and coaches donate and deliver complete meals to area families and serve food at local soup kitchens. In 2011, the Thanksgiving Food Giveaway single event fed more than 24,000 deserving people throughout our region.

Tight ends Jeron Mastrud and Anthony Fasano and linebacker Austin Spitler visit the USS Gettysburg and the USS WASP.

A CELEBRATION OF GIVING: The team's annual Fins Weekend Fishing and Golf Tournaments allow generous Dolphins fans to spend a weekend with the organization, including their favorite players, while raising money for Miami Dolphins Foundation programs. In 2012, the 16th annual weekend had more than 1,100 people gather to interact with players, coaches and alumni while competing for golf, fishing and auction prizes. In 2012, FinsWeekend raised more than $600,000, allowing the Foundation to fund its signature programs in the areas of health, education, youth fitness and volunteerism.

MIAMI DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Miami Dolphins take great pride in playing an active role in the South Florida community. By lending support to both civic and community based charitable causes, the Dolphins are able to make an impact in the lives of those who need it the most. The assistance that the Dolphins are able to provide comes from the teamwork of coaches, players, alumni, cheerleaders, T.D. (the Dolphins' mascot), staff and members of the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization working together toward the common goals of helping those in need and supporting the community that has always been there to support the Dolphins.

When the final chapter of 2011 was written, members of the Dolphins organization made more than 800 community appearances totaling more than 2,600 hours and reaching 524,500 of our fellow Floridians. The team said yes to more than 99-percent of the requests it received from charitable organizations and distributed 2,700 donations throughout the state.

The Miami Dolphins Woman's Organization is comprised of the wives/girlfriends of staff and players and has participated in charitable events such as the Lauren's Kids Foundation 3rd annual Walk in My Shoes

– EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS –

The Miami Dolphins understand that the education of the youth of South Florida is of utmost importance. For this reason, the Dolphins have partnered with both Broward and Miami-Dade County Public Schools on several extensive programs. In 2008, the Miami Dolphins received the Commissioner of Education Awards for their partnerships with Miami-Dade and Broward County Public Schools.

Punter Brandon Fields and mascot, T.D., serve Papa John's pizza to school kids at Lorah Park Elementary School.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK PROGRAM: The Miami Dolphins honor a selected student from each of their 20 partner schools at all of the team's regular season home games. The students are selected by their principals and teachers for their citizenship and classroom achievements. In recognition of their accomplishments, they are presented with a plaque during an on-field presentation. Publix also donates a $25 gift certificate to each Student of the Week.

CEO Mike Dee hands out a plaque to a Children's Book Week winner prior to a home game.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARDS: One teacher from each partner school is selected as a Teacher of the Year and is recognized for their accomplishments during a pregame, on-field presentation.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP: A $2,000 scholarship is awarded annually to both a Miami Carol City High School and Miramar High School senior who demonstrates strong community service along with a solid academic performance. A $1,000 honorable mention scholarship is also awarded.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM AT THE LIBRARIES: The Miami Dolphins are the first team to partner with the entire State of Florida Library System for a Summer Reading

Cornerback Sean Smith reads to area school children as part of the Dolphins Most Valuable Reader program.

Program. The Miami Dolphins also partner locally with the libraries in Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties. Each year, the club extends its support which includes funding reading incentives such as posters, signed hats and footballs and Miami Dolphins teddy bears signed by the Dolphins players. Prizes are also distributed state-wide to kids for summer reading prizes sponsored by the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

Dolphins players, alumni and cheerleaders make appearances at local libraries in Broward, Miami-Dade, Palm Beach and Southwest Florida counties in conjunction with their summer reading programs. In addition, the Dolphins offer prizes to the kids including tickets and a VIP experience for the top winners to attend training camp practice. The team also sponsors Broward's summer reading game, which is distributed to 20,000 children.

MOST VALUABLE READER: The Miami Dolphins have joined forces with local libraries and schools in encouraging South Florida's youth to read by developing the Most Valuable Reader Program. This year-round initiative provides incentives for children to read. Kids have the chance to read books in exchange for the opportunity to attend a Dolphins home game. Other events at the libraries include Teen Read Week, Children's Book Week and the Books & Bears program.

COMMIT 2B FIT: The Miami Dolphins have teamed up with the Commit 2B Fit Program, which promotes physical activity and healthy eating to more than 45,000 students and their families in South Florida. Dolphins players, alumni and cheerleaders visit schools to speak to children. Kids also receive incentives such as Dolphins charms and rulers.

EMPTY BOWLS: The Miami Dolphins work with Broward County Public Schools on the Empty Bowls Program, which gives students an opportunity to fight hunger and poverty. Dolphins players make visits to schools to make bowls with the children. More than 82 schools have signed up for the program each year, helping to raise more than $32,000 annually for a variety of charities, including the Cooperative Feeding Program and Broward Partnership for the Homeless.

KIDS AND FINS PUBLIX SHOPPING SPREE: One hundred kids are given the opportunity to shop with a player, alumni, cheerleader or military personnel with a $100 Publix gift certificate for a Thanksgiving meal. The event includes a party prior to their shopping experience.

BACKPACK AND SCHOOL SUPPLY GIVEAWAY: 150 children from Miami-Dade and Broward schools and additional local charities are invited to the Dolphins Practice Bubble for a party to receive backpacks and school supplies. The event also includes dance contests for the kids judged by the players for prizes.

– FEEDING THOSE IN NEED –

The Miami Dolphins have an ongoing relationship with Feeding South Florida, an organization that provides food to the needy throughout South Florida. The Miami Dolphins team up with Feeding South Florida on the following projects:

THANKSGIVING TURKEY GIVEAWAY: The Dolphins, along with the coaches, players and staff, contribute monetary donations to purchase more than 1,800 Thanksgiving meals to feed underprivileged people in South Florida. Dolphins players join volunteers from Feeding South Florida to distribute turkeys to various agencies affiliated with Feeding South Florida.

Tackle Nate Garner is greeted by the students at Nova Blanche Forman Elementary School as he helped make bowls at the school for the Empty Bowls Program.

Wide receiver Brian Hartline and a Miami Dolphins Cheerleader help hundreds of students get ready for the new school year at the Dolphins Backpack Giveaway.

Quarterback Matt Moore shops with a military member and kids during the Kids and Fins Publix Shopping Spree.

SHOP WITH A FIN: Ten Dolphins players each shop at Publix with a family selected by the Cooperative Feeding Program. The families also attend a Dolphins home game.

HOMELESS SHELTERS: Dolphins players and members of the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization serve food on Good Friday at the Broward Outreach Center in Hollywood as well as on Valentine's Day at the COSAC Foundation in Hollywood, Fla.

– COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT –

NFL TUESDAYS: NFL Tuesdays are the traditional day off for NFL players during the season, but many players use the day off to go to work in their communities. Visiting children in the hospital, speaking to high school football teams or reading books to children are just a few of the activities Miami Dolphins players participate in on their day off during the season.

DOLPHINS COMMUNITY BLITZ: The Tuesday before Christmas, Dolphins players, alumni, cheerleaders and members of the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization invited 20 teenagers from HANDY to shop at Dick's Sporting Goods with a $300 gift card.

HOLIDAY HOSPITAL VISITS: Each year during the holiday season, Dolphins players, cheerleaders and mascot, T.D., visit area hospitals to brighten the spirits of sick children and military veterans who are not able to go home for the holidays. While at the hospitals, the players, cheerleaders and mascot visit with the children and veterans, take pictures with them, sign autographs and give out Dolphins souvenirs. In 2011, the Miami Dolphins visited Broward Health, Doctor's Hospital, Jackson, Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital and Miami Children's Hospital. The Miami Dolphins players and Miami Dolphins Women's Organization visited kids at the hospital on Christmas Day.

HOLIDAY TOY EVENT: Dolphins players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff make toy donations during the holidays to various organizations in the community that are in need. More than 175 kids from Miami-Dade and Broward County Public Elementary schools as well as kids from Alternative Family Care and Cooperative Feeding are invited to a holiday celebration at the Miami Dolphins Training Facility.

REBUILDING TOGETHER: Miami Dolphins players, members of the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization and staff worked with Rebuilding Together to make improvements on the house of a military family. The house was in serious need of repair due to roof leaks and other property hazards.

NFL STUDENT ALL-STAR PROGRAM: The NFL Student All-Star Program is an NFL initiative that awards small level grants to help finance student-initiated proposals on how to better the community. The goal of the program is to promote community investment and volunteerism in children. Five winning organizations receive a grant of $400 to help fund their service projects.

NFL JUNIOR COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK: The NFL Junior Community Quarterback Award recognizes student-initiated projects focusing on community betterment. The program awards a $3,000 grant to a student partnered with a 501(c)(3) organization for their project.

Running back Reggie Bush shops with a child from HANDY, a local foster care center, during the Holiday Dick's Sporting Goods Shopping Spree.

Defensive lineman Jared Odrick and teammates help distribute food as part of the Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway in conjuction with Feeding South Florida.

Head Coach Joe Philbin, safety Tyrone Culver as well as the entire team and coaching staff helped beautify Larkdale Elementary in Lauderhill, Fla.

Katie Fields, Kaela Carpenter and other members of the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization, help Plantation Middle School cheerleaders prepare healthy snacks at the Publix Apron's Cooking School in Plantation.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS: In 2011, the Miami Dolphins Foundation made a donation to the Susan G. Komen For The Cure. In addition, the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization participated in the Susan G. Komen for the Cure Walk in Miami. The Miami Dolphins Women's Organization held a Silent Auction of signed NFL Pink items at the Breast Cancer Awareness game which raised funds for Susan G. Komen.

UNITED WAY: Along with the NFL, the Miami Dolphins actively support the United Way. The Dolphins also work closely with the United Way of Miami-Dade and Palm Beach counties on several projects throughout the year. Dolphins players also participate in the NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle Day, a national day of community service.

MAKE-A-WISH FOUNDATION: The Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Miami Dolphins have developed a close relationship over the years in granting wishes of terminally-ill children. Make-A-Wish children were given the opportunity to attend a home game and meet with coaches and players.

– STADIUM INVOLVEMENT –

WALKABOUT AUTISM: The 2nd Annual Dan Marino Foundation WalkAbout Autism event attracted an estimated 17,000 walkers to Sun Life Stadium and raised more than $500,000 for numerous local autism organizations. Leading the way was Marino, his wife Claire and 23-year-old autistic son, Michael. They were joined by Dolphins General Manager Jeff Ireland, his wife Rachel and their twin 16-year-old daughters, Haley and Hannah, both of whom are autistic.

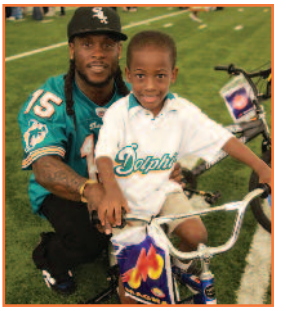

CANNED FOOD DRIVE: Each year the "Fins and Fans Tackle Hunger" canned food drive is held at a Dolphins home game prior to Thanksgiving. Fans are encouraged to deposit canned goods and other non-perishable food items in collection containers located at each entrance to the stadium.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS: As part of Breast Cancer Awareness month, the wives and girlfriends of Dolphins players, coaches and staff pass out pink ribbons to fans. In addition, the team, cheerleaders and staff all wear pink in support of the cause. The players' jerseys were auctioned off after the game to support the battle against breast cancer.

FAMILY FALL FESTIVAL: The Family Fall Festival was created to provide an entertaining, educational and safe event for children and families seeking a more family-oriented celebration of fall. The Festival provides entertainment, carnival rides, face painting, food and candy bags for children.

SICKLE CELL WALK: The Stadium plays host to an annual walk/run in support of The Sickle Cell Disease Association of America, Miami-Dade County Chapter, Inc. to help improve the quality of life for people with the Sickle Cell disease.

TOYS FOR TOTS: Each year, at a Miami Dolphins home game in December, the team sponsors an annual toy drive for underprivileged children in the South Florida community. Finatics are encouraged to drop off new, unwrapped toys at entry gates on their way into the stadium. The toys are then distributed through the United States Marine Corps to the less fortunate families in the local area.

COMMUNITY QUOTE SHEET

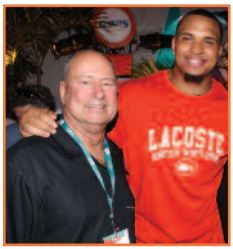

"I have never been more proud to be affiliated with the Miami Dolphins than I was during the DCC. This event demonstrates how a beloved sports team can transcend the field of play and have an impact on thousands of families, including mine, for generations to come."

Late Dolphins Tight End and Broadcaster Jim Mandich

"The Miami Dolphins' Student of the Week Program is a phenomenal program which showcases some of the best attributes of our students in front of thousands of fans at each home game. Students are given a behind the scenes tour of the stadium, get to meet Dolphins alumni, are provided with catered lunches, and receive a goody bag and t-shirt. Dolphins CEO Mike Dee and other dignitaries give each of the Students of the Week a plaque. It is truly a once in a life time experience!!!"

Mark Zaher, Director of Miami Dade Schools Operations

"I opened this stadium in 1987 and there have been a lot of great memories and this will be a special memory, too. I think this is something that we have started that I think we can build on and make an incredible impact over the years throughout South Florida. To have it here is great. It's our place."

Hall of Fame Quarterback Dan Marino (on the WalkAbout event)

"We greatly appreciate our partnership with the Miami Dolphins. Together, we've been able to impact over 160,000 children in South Florida, giving them the tools and education needed to create healthier lifestyles."

Michelle Schect, Co-Founder of Commit 2B Fit

"The partnership with the Miami Dolphins, Publix and the school board has just been fantastic. It breaks your heart to hear some of these kids' stories, but anything we can do to help put a smile on their face is extremely worthwhile and for a great cause."

Bill Fauerbach, V.P. of Retail Operations for Publix Supermarkets, Miami Division

"It's a special day when we get to serve dinners and thank our fans for their support. It also gives us a perfect platform to draw attention to the needs in our community and remind people that we can all find a way to help our neighbors."

Pro Bowl Tackle Jake Long

The Dolphins' commitment to the underserved knows no boundaries. Through the generosity of the players and coaches and the hard work of the Special Teams volunteer force, the impact that the Miami Dolphins and their players have on those who need it most is truly beyond words."

Brian Phelan, Feeding South Florida

"I know I'll never carry a football on a Sunday afternoon on national television or score a Dolphins touchdown, but when we come into a community with our orange T-shirts, people know we're there to help. It makes me proud to be a part of the Dolphins' team and give back like I never have before."

Jessica Haider, Special Teams Participant

"We're here to put a smile on their faces. At the end of the day the only thing that matters is spending some time with the kids, especially the young ones, the small ones, because they're probably not even going to remember what you say. They'll just remember that they hung out with a Dolphins player. If we can put a smile on their face and help their day go by a little bit easier, that's really what it's all about."

Dansby's Difference Makers

For the seventh straight season in 2011, many Miami Dolphins players and coaches made the dreams of underprivileged children come true through the team's All-Community Team program.

The Dolphins "All-Community Team" program allows players and coaches to purchase a block of tickets to all Miami Dolphins regular season home games and donate them to a charitable organization of their choice. Their chosen charities then distribute the tickets to youth groups or others associated with their organization so the recipients have the chance to experience a Dolphins game at Sun Life Stadium.

Players and coaches who participate in the Legacy All Community Team program provide 100 game tickets, T-shirts and food vouchers, good for a hot dog, popcorn and a soft drink, for charitable organizations for each of the Dolphins eight regular season home games.

All-Community Team participants treat each of the 20 members of their chosen charities with a game day ticket and a food voucher for each of the Dolphins regular season home games.

The following are current Dolphins players and coaches who participated in the "All-Community Team" in 2011:

THREE FUNDAMENTAL COMMITMENTS TO OUR FANS

1. To assemble a sound, smart, and tough football team that consistently competes for championships

2. To consistently strive to enhance the fan experience at Sun Life Stadium and aggressively market the team to a broad region and diverse fan base.

3. To be active participants in the community.

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and Founder of Related Companies, an international real estate firm, began his ownership interest in the Miami Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50% partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, Sun Life Stadium, and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95% ownership of the team and the stadium on January 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of Managing General Partner of both the Dolphins and the stadium, which culminated one of his long-held dreams; Mr. Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Under Mr. Ross' leadership, the Dolphins have become one of the most fan-friendly teams in the National Football League. They have significantly expanded the Miami Dolphins Foundation's presence in the South Florida community with a host of new civic and charitable initiatives. The team also has improved the game-day experience for their fans by upgrading all facets of stadium operations and by introducing amenities and events that have made Dolphins home games the place to be during the fall. On the football side, Mr. Ross has lived up to his pledge to provide the coaches, staff and players all of the necessary resources to build a winning team, including a multi-million dollar renovation of the club's training facility this past off-season.

Mr. Ross, a resident of Palm Beach and New York, formed Related in 1972. Today, the company is considered the most prominent privately owned real estate firm in the United States, with expertise in fund management, development, acquisitions, property management, marketing and sales. Related has real estate assets valued at $15 billion and has developed $22 billion in real estate assets including the landmark Time Warner Center in New York City and CityPlace in West Palm Beach.

Mr. Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011 the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

Mr. Ross is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Equinox Holdings, Inc., serves on the Executive Committee and is a trustee of Lincoln Center and is a trustee of New York Presbyterian Hospital, the Guggenheim Foundation, the Urban Land Institute and the NY Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International. He is also a director of the World Resources Institute and the Jackie Robinson Foundation and chairperson emeritus of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY), the city's leading real estate trade association.

Over the years, Mr. Ross has received numerous honors for his business, civic, and philanthropic activities. Mr. Ross' alma mater, Miami Beach High School, named its football field Ross Field, in recognition of his work to spearhead the refurbishment of that facility. Most recently, he was a New York Power Player by the New York Times, the Most Powerful Person in New York Real Estate by the New York Observer, Multi-Family Property Executive of the Year by Commercial Property News, and Housing Person of the Year by the National Housing Conference. He also received The National Building Museum Honor Award, REBNY's Harry B. Helmsley Distinguished New Yorker Award and the Jack D. Weiler Award from UJA. Crain's New York named Mr. Ross one of the 100 Most Influential Leaders in Business and he was recognized by NYC & Company with their Leadership in Tourism Award.

Mike Dee was named Chief Executive Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium by Stephen M. Ross on May 3, 2009. Dee came to South Florida and the NFL after a distinguished 15-year career in Major League Baseball, where he played a lead role in the resurgence of two franchises and was a member of two World Series Championship teams.

Since joining the Dolphins, Dee has laid out the three fundamental commitments that guide the franchise during the Ross ownership era: 1) To assemble a sound, smart, and tough football team that consistently competes for championships; 2) To consistently strive to enhance the fan experience at Sun Life Stadium and aggressively market the team to a broad region and diverse fan base; and 3) To be active participants in the community.

Dee has spearheaded the team's efforts to live up to these commitments. In order to grow the club's fan base, he created a series of programs in the western and central regions of the state and worked tirelessly to improve the game-day experience for the team's fans by implementing a host of technological, entertainment, and culinary innovations that has made the atmosphere at Dolphins home games unique in the NFL. On the business side, Dee finalized a ground-breaking naming rights deal for the stadium with Sun Life Financial, revamped and improved the club's broadcast and internet platforms, and developed a series of customized programs designed to enhance the team's relationship with its business partners. Dee also places a strong emphasis on the club's community relations efforts, having introduced a host of new charitable initiatives, including the team's annual blood drive and the Dolphins Cycling Challenge, which raised more than $1 million for South Florida's Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center in just two years.

After beginning his sports career in San Diego with the Padres (1995-2002), Dee followed his mentor, CEO Larry Lucchino, to Boston and assumed the role of Executive Vice President of Business Affairs for the Red Sox. He was promoted to Chief Operating Officer in 2004, a position he held until his departure to join the Dolphins. During his tenure in Boston, the Red Sox won two World Series titles and set franchise records for attendance and revenue each year – including an MLB record for consecutive sellouts dating back to 2003. Other noteworthy achievements while in Boston include bringing annual concerts to Fenway Park and directing the expansion of the team's business and real estate interests that stemmed from the eight-year renovation of Fenway Park and the surrounding neighborhood. Dee also has a history of working in the Sunshine State, having consummated a 30-year agreement with Lee County Florida to build the Red Sox a publicly-financed Spring Training facility that opened in 2012.

Dee also served as President of Fenway Sports Group, a company that he created in 2004 under the direction of Red Sox owners John Henry and Tom Werner. An enterprise charged with diversifying the business interests of the Red Sox beyond baseball, FSG developed a wide array of endeavors across the sports and media landscape. In February, 2007, FSG acquired a 50% interest in Roush Racing and formed what is known today as Roush Fenway Racing, NASCAR's largest race team. Dee served on the board of Roush Fenway as a Managing Director, during which time the team won two notable championships: Carl Edwards' 2007 Busch Series Championship and Matt Kenseth's Daytona 500 victory in February 2009.

Outside of his work for the Dolphins, Dee is active in the philanthropic community, serving on the board of the Miami Children's Museum, the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center, and the Pan Mass Challenge. To date, the Pan Mass Challenge – an annual Boston-based cycling event – has raised more than $260 million for cancer research. Dee is an avid cyclist and rides in the event each August.

Dee attended Franklin & Marshall College in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where he played basketball and earned a degree in government. He currently serves on the Advisory Board at F&M.

Dee and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Spencer (12) and Tommy (10).

Jeff Ireland was named as the Dolphins' General Manager on January 2, 2008. He joined the club after a seven-year stint (2001-07) with the Dallas Cowboys, including his last three seasons there as the team's Vice President of College and Pro Scouting.

In his role with the Dolphins, Ireland is not only responsible for overseeing and coordinating the college and pro personnel departments, but also helps manage the team's salary cap and player contracts. He supervises all scouting efforts that relate to the college draft, free agency, the Canadian Football League, and personnel of the other 31 NFL teams. Ireland works hand in hand with Head Coach Joe Philbin in implementing a personnel plan to build the Dolphins into a championship caliber team.

In Ireland's four seasons in Miami, he has built a nucleus of talented young players that have the Dolphins positioned for long-term success. This past season, Jake Long made the Pro Bowl for the fourth consecutive year, Reggie Bush helped give the Dolphins a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season for the first time in team history, Karlos Dansby and Kevin Burnett were part of a trio of players that surpassed 100 tackles each (another team first), while Matt Moore recorded the sixth-best quarterback rating in the NFL over the season's final nine games while leading the Dolphins to a 6-3 record in that span. Following the 2011 season, Ireland significantly upgraded the team on both sides of the ball through free agency and the college draft.

In 2010, Cameron Wake and Randy Starks blossomed into Pro Bowl performers for the first time, while newcomers like Richie Incognito and rookie Koa Misi were major contributors to the team. A season earlier in 2009, three rookies also made an immediate impact as Vontae Davis and Sean Smith excelled as starters together in the team's defensive backfield while Brian Hartline made important contributions offensively.

Inheriting a 1-15 team in 2008, Ireland's first season in Miami, he helped overhaul the team's roster. Those efforts resulted in an 11-5 mark, the AFC East title and a playoff berth, a turnaround unprecedented in NFL annals. Ireland replaced almost half of the roster, bringing on board 27 new faces, including nine new starters. One of those newcomers, quarterback Chad Pennington, went on to win the NFL Comeback Player of the Year award and finished tied for second in voting for the league's Most Valuable Player award. Also among the new faces Ireland brought on board in 2008 were 11 rookies who made the team, including eight draft choices, three of whom were in the opening day starting lineup. Long, the team's first pick of the draft, went on to earn Pro Bowl honors at the conclusion of the season. Ireland added rookie talent beyond the draft, as Davone Bess had the second-highest single-season reception total in the last 40 years among undrafted college free agents in their rookie season, while rookie free agent kicker Dan Carpenter led the Dolphins in scoring.

In 2007, Ireland's last season in Dallas, the Cowboys went 13-3 and won the NFC East title. Of the 53 players on the active roster, 38 had been acquired over the three years (2005-07) Ireland served as the team's Vice President of Scouting. Seven of those players made the Pro Bowl during that time, including DeMarcus Ware (Ireland's first pick as the team's lead scout), fellow 2005 fourth round selections Chris Canty and Marion Barber, 2007 draft choice Nick Folk and two free agent acquisitions that season, Leonard Davis and Ken Hamlin. In addition, since Ireland arrived in Dallas, seven other Cowboys made their Pro Bowl debuts.

Ireland began his tenure with the Cowboys as the team's national scout in 2001, evaluating all of the top collegiate prospects in the country. In his four years in that role, his skill as a talent evaluator helped lead to the drafting of four Pro Bowl performers, Roy Williams (who was selected five straight years), Terence Newman, Andre Gurode and Jason Witten.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ireland spent four years in Kansas City as an area scout helping the Chiefs draft players like Dante Hall in the fifth round and Greg Wesley in the third round. Ireland started his NFL career evaluating talent as an area scout for the National Football Scouting Combine from 1994-1996.

Before becoming a full-time talent evaluator, Ireland helped coach special teams at the University of North Texas from 1992-1993. He was a four-year starter as a placekicker at Baylor University from 1988-1991, finishing his collegiate career third on Baylor's all time scoring list with 213 points. His 45 career field goals, which included a 58-yard effort against Rice in 1991, established a school record for field goals made. Following his senior season he was selected as the South team's kicker in the 1992 Senior Bowl.

Ireland, an Abilene, Texas native, is the stepson of Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Fame linebacker/center E.J. Holub and the grandson of former Philadelphia Eagles player and longtime Chicago Bears personnel executive Jim Parmer.

Jeff and his wife, Rachel, have three daughters, Annie and twins Haley and Hannah, and a son, Riley. The Irelands, working closely with the Dolphins and the Dan Marino Foundation, have helped spearhead WalkAbout Autism, an annual event at Sun Life Stadium which has raised more than a million dollars over the past two years. The Irelands also co-chair the Autumn Moonlight Event each October since 2008 to help raise awareness and money to benefit the Nova Southeastern University/University of Miami Center for Autism and Related Disorders (CARD).

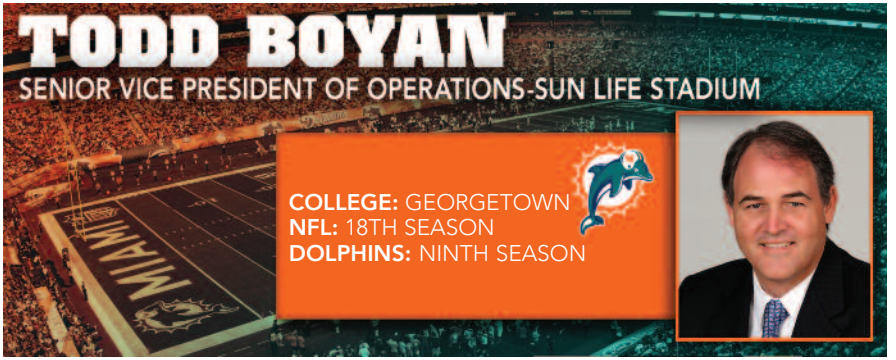

Dawn Aponte, entering her third season with the Miami Dolphins, joined the team on February 1, 2010, bringing with her a wealth of football experience at the team and league level. She was promoted to Executive Vice President of Football Administration in July 2012 after serving as the club's Senior Vice President of Football Operations from 2010-11. Aponte works closely with General Manager Jeff Ireland and Head Coach Joe Philbin on football administrative matters and serves as the team's chief contract negotiator. She is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Dolphins salary cap, negotiating and drafting player contracts and overseeing the football operations budgets. Aponte also serves as the team's liaison on league affairs.

A veteran football executive, Aponte joined the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season as Vice President of Football Administration for the Cleveland Browns. In her role with the Browns, Aponte's primary responsibilities included player contract negotiations, salary cap management, player cost budgeting, league compliance and assisting in other legal matters.

Aponte joined the Browns organization in 2009 after spending the previous three years at the NFL office, where she served on the League's Management Council as the Vice President of Labor Finance. In her position at the NFL Management Council, Aponte represented the 32 clubs in dealings with the NFL Players Association and Class Counsel on salary cap and other labor related matters. She also dealt with the clubs on CBA, salary cap and player contract matters. Aponte served on the Management Council Working Club Executive Committee and worked with the ten-member owner committee (Management Council Executive Committee) on collective bargaining issues and labor related matters.

Prior to joining the league office, Aponte worked for the New York Jets for nearly 15 years in various capacities, most recently as the club's Senior Director of Football Administration. In this role, she worked closely with the Assistant General Manager on matters pertaining to the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, player contract negotiations and salary cap management. Aponte graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Delaware in 1993 and passed the C.P.A. exam shortly thereafter. She went on to receive her Master's degree in Finance and Management from Wagner College in 1999, then continued on to earn her Juris Doctorate from New York Law School and is a member of the New York State Bar.

Dawn and her husband, Kevin, have four children, Matthew, Madison, Caroline and Thomas.

Todd Boyan is Senior Vice President of Operations-Sun Life Stadium and has been in the NFL for the past 17 years. Sun Life Stadium is the home of the Miami Dolphins (NFL), Orange Bowl (BCS), University of Miami Hurricanes (NCAA) and other world-class events. Boyan is responsible for all aspects of stadium operations and oversees engineering, grounds, guest services, housekeeping, operations, parking, and security, and coordinates event logistics with various local, state and federal governmental agencies. He is highly regarded within the facility industry and is regularly called upon by the NFL and others to consult or provide expertise.

During Boyan's tenure, Sun Life Stadium has hosted numerous national and international sporting events including Super Bowl XLI in 2007, the BCS National Championship game in 2009 and again this year, the 2010 Pro Bowl, and Super Bowl XLIV in 2010. The stadium had the distinction of being the first to host the Pro Bowl before the Super Bowl was played, and the first to host the Pro Bowl on the US mainland in 30 years. Sun Life Stadium is recognized throughout the industry as one of the finest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to the stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Since Boyan joined Sun Life Stadium in 2006, he has played an integral role in securing some of the biggest music artists to perform at the venue including The Police (2007), Madonna (Sticky and Sweet Tour in 2008), Paul McCartney, U2 (360 Tour in 2011) and the Black Eyed Peas (2011). In addition to these high profile concerts, the stadium hosts other special events that include Wrestle Mania 28, Monster Jam, Jazz in the Gardens and international soccer that include powerhouse clubs FC Barcelona, Chelsea, AC Milan and the Mexican national team, as well as more than 200 other events that are held on stadium grounds.

Boyan came to Sun Life Stadium after a nine year career as the Vice President of Operations for the Washington Redskins. He joined FedEx Field in Washington upon its opening in 1997. Boyan was responsible for stadium operations for Redskins games, college football games, security, team travel arrangements, and training camp. He also assisted NFL Transportation with the development and implementation of traffic plans with Super Bowl XXIX through Super Bowl XXXVII.

Boyan was familiar with South Florida prior to his career with the Redskins. He had worked for the Florida Marlins Baseball Club from 1992-1995 in ticketing. He also managed ticket operations for the Marlins Spring Training site, Space Coast Stadium in Melbourne, when it first opened.

Boyan graduated from Georgetown University in 1992 where he also played varsity baseball. Boyan and his wife, Christine, live in Plantation with their two children, Rachel and Jack.

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four-year stretch from 1971-74, they compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of 1971, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98 before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998.

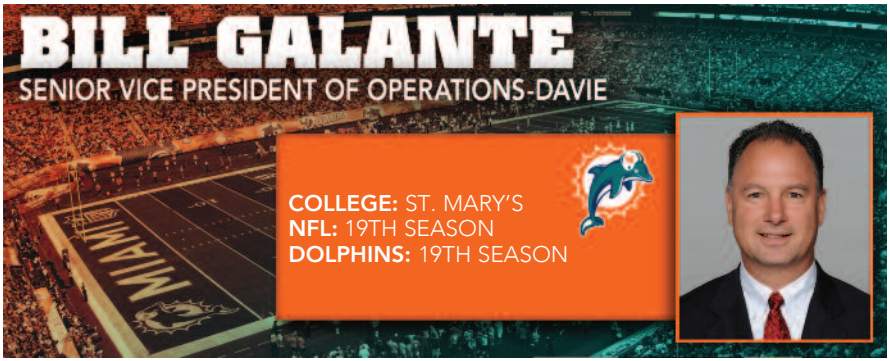

Mark Brockelman was named as Senior Vice President/Chief Financial and Administrative Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium in 2011. He oversees all aspects of the financial and administrative departments within the organization, including finance and human resources. In this capacity, Brockelman reports directly to Dolphins Chief Executive Officer Mike Dee.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Brockelman served as the Chief Financial Officer at eScreen, Inc. eScreen develops, manufactures and markets employment screening products for hiring and maintaining an efficient workforce. He also served as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Ascend Media, LLC for four years, culminating in the ultimate sale of the company. Ascend was a leading business-to-business, media-focused enterprise specializing in directories, professional magazines and journals, conferences and trade shows, continuing medical education, and Internet properties and databases serving the medical, dental, healthcare, food, beverage, packaging, gaming and business services industries.

This is Brockelman's second stint in South Florida. He previously spent five years at American Media, Inc. (AMI), a Boca Raton based company that publishes enthusiast publications such as the National Enquirer, Star, Globe, Shape, Men's Fitness, Fit Pregnancy and Natural Health. Mark was AMI's Vice President of Finance and Chief Accounting Officer. In his early career, Brockelman spent seven years at Arthur Andersen LLP in Chicago and West Palm Beach as a Senior Audit Manager.

Brockelman is a graduate of Marquette University, where he earned a Bachelor's degree in accounting and finance. He is also a Certified Public Accountant.

Bill Galante is in his 19th season with the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. As Senior Vice President of Operations-Davie, Galante is responsible for the supervision of the Dolphins facility operations at the Davie training headquarters, while overseeing several business aspects, including game operations, team travel and ticket operations. In 2007, those duties included managing all of the logistics involved in hosting the NFL's first-ever regular season game overseas in London, and he handled those same challenges in 2008 when the Dolphins traveled to Canada to play the Bills in Toronto.

Galante spent his first six years in Miami overseeing the stadium's ticket sales, including the last three seasons as Vice President - Ticket Sales and Operations. During that time, he also oversaw the ticket operations of the Florida Marlins, including their inaugural season in 1993 and their World Championship season in 1997. He began his career with the Chicago Cubs in 1983.

Bill and his wife, Barbara, are members of the ALS Association, which works toward finding a cure for Lou Gehrig's Disease. They live in Plantation with their son, Christian.

Harvey Greene is in his 24th season with the Miami Dolphins and his 11th as the club's Senior Vice President of Media Relations. He and his staff are responsible for the strategic planning and implementation of the team's media policy on both a local and a national level.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, Greene and his staff twice were recipients of the Pete Rozelle Award, an annual honor awarded by the Professional Football Writers of America to the NFL's best public relations department, and were finalists again in 2011. In addition, Greene also has worked on the NFL PR staff at all but one of the past 23 Super Bowls and at two Pro Bowls.

Before joining the Dolphins, Greene spent almost four seasons as the Director of Media Relations for the New York Yankees (1986-89), where he served as the main spokesman for principal owner George Steinbrenner. Prior to that, he spent three years as Director of Public Relations and Broadcasting for the Cleveland Cavaliers (1983-86), twice winning the McHugh/Splaver Award as the outstanding PR Director in the NBA. During his tenure with the Yankees he was part of Major League Baseball's PR staff for the World Series and served in a similar capacity at the NBA Finals when he was with the Cavs. He also worked for three years (1980-83) as the PR Director for the Madison Square Garden Network, the country's largest regional sports television network.

Internationally, Greene has worked three Olympic Games in a media relations role. He served as an Assistant Venue Press Chief for the men's and women's basketball competition at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles and supervised media center operations for figure skating and short-track speed skating at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City and for the men's ice hockey competition at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver. He also was an Assistant Venue Press Chief for the 1994 Soccer World Cup and for the World Baseball Classic in 2006 and 2009.

On a civic level, Greene was a press officer at the 2004 Democratic Convention in Boston and was a press advance lead for President Bill Clinton and Senator Hillary Clinton during portions of her 2007-08 presidential campaign. Since then, he has continued to serve periodically in an advance capacity for President Clinton and on White House trips for Vice President Joe Biden, including his visit to Italy in 2011.

Greene received his B.A. with honors in Chemistry from the University of Pennsylvania and an M.S. in Sports Administration from the University of Massachusetts. He resides in Parkland with his wife, Cathy.

DOLPHINS AMONG LEAST PENALIZED TEAMS

In 2011, the Dolphins committed just 85 penalties, the fourth fewest total in the NFL that season. In fact, over the past five NFL seasons from 2007-11, the Dolphins committed just 407 penalties, the fourth lowest total in the NFL over that time span, behind only Indianapolis (382), New England (386) and Atlanta (405).

Tery Howard is entering her 14th season with the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium as Senior Vice President-Chief Technology Officer. She joined the Dolphins after 15 years with Carnival Cruise Lines, where she gained experience managing all of Carnival's shipboard technologies.

As the CTO, Howard is responsible for managing and directing the technology initiatives and strategic direction of business operations at the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. Her primary focus includes infrastructure, telecommunications, business systems and broadcast media, converging the technologies and services to position Sun Life Stadium and the Miami Dolphins at the forefront of the industry.

After successfully deploying FanVision at Sun Life Stadium for the Miami Dolphins, Howard was tapped by owner Stephen Ross in 2010 to lead the company's deployment, distribution and activation of FanVision to twelve NFL and two NCAA stadiums. Howard also oversaw the expansion of the program at Sun Life Stadium to 25,000 devices, the largest deployment of any stadium.

Respected throughout the industry, Howard is frequently called upon to contribute to IT presentations, panel discussions and workshops. Under her leadership, Sun Life Stadium and the Miami Dolphins were recognized by InfoWorld as one of the "Top 100" companies who have made the best use of technology to enhance their business, and was also recognized by PC Magazine as one of the "Top 10" companies that are using technology in intelligent ways to improve their business. Howard was also recognized by Sports Business Journal in 2011 as a Game Changer in Sports for her innovation and impact to the sports industry. Howard was also a finalist for the Technology Leader of the Year Award at the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to her responsibilities within the Dolphins' organization, Howard is also actively involved in various community initiatives and advisory boards, providing guidance and a leadership role in the community and beyond.

Howard earned a Bachelor of Science and a Masters in Business Administration from Florida International University (FIU), and resides in Miami Beach with her husband Eric Howard and three children, Natalie, Charlie and Monica.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Three Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season. The most recent Dolphins player named Pro Bowl MVP was wide receiver Brandon Marshall, as he caught six passes for 176 yards and a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns as the AFC used a second-half surge to beat the NFC, 59-41, in the 2012 Pro Bowl.

Entering her first season as the team's Senior Vice President-Chief Marketing Officer, Claudia Lezcano del Campo oversees the organization's marketing, community relations, events and entertainment and digital and print media departments. She also heads up the Miami Dolphins Foundation, which is devoted to providing and supporting signature education, health, youth athletic programs and volunteer activities that inspire and engage communities throughout Florida.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Lezcano del Campo worked for eight years with the Burger King Corporation, most recently serving as Vice President, North America Marketing Communications. In that capacity, she led the marketing strategy and communications for the corporation's North American market inclusive of media, advertising, digital/social, merchandising and public relations. Previous she had served as the corporations Sr. Director, Latin America Marketing where she was responsible for the strategic planning, sales forecasting, budgeting, marketing, performance analysis, consumer insights public relations, new product development and franchise relations for more than 1,100 restaurants in Mexico, Central and South America and the Caribbean.

A graduate of the University of Miami where she earned a Bachelor's degree in marketing, Lezcano del Campo is a life-long Dolphins fan with strong ties to South Florida community. She has spent countless hours working in the community with the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Miami.

Lezcano del Campo resides in South Miami, with her husband, Ed, and stepdaughters, Alexandra and Sophia.

Longtime Miami Dolphins player and executive Nat Moore was named as the team's Senior Vice President/Special Advisor on April 1, 2012. Moore oversees the Dolphins alumni activities and in an expanded senior advisory role works closely with Dolphins Chief Executive Officer Mike Dee on a variety of special projects.

One of the most celebrated players in Dolphins history, Moore was drafted in the third round of the 1974 draft (78th overall) out of the University of Florida. Moore spent his entire 13-year NFL career as one of the most productive offensive players in Dolphins' history. Moore ranks among the top three players in team history in seven major statistical categories. He is second in team history in career touchdowns (75), receiving touchdowns (74) and combined yardage (8,950) and third in receptions (510), receiving yards (7,547), total yards from scrimmage (7,795) and receiving touchdowns (12) in a season.

Moore earned All-Pro recognition and was a Pro Bowl selection in 1977 and was named the team's Most Outstanding Receiver in six straight years (1974-79). On December 5, 1999, the Dolphins organization honored Moore as the 12th honoree and second receiver to be inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. He also is one of 15 former Dolphins to be inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame.

Establishing a positive reputation on and off the field led Moore to be named the 1984 NFL "Man of the Year," an honor bestowed on the player who gives outstanding service to his community, and earned him the 1986 Byron White Humanitarian Award for his service to his team, community and country. In recognition of Moore's impact in South Florida, in 2005 the Dolphins renamed their community service award to The Nat Moore Community Service Award. This award is given each year to a Miami Dolphins player recognized for his involvement in the South Florida community.

The former wide receiver founded the Nat Moore Foundation in 1998 to improve the quality of life for disadvantaged Miami Dade County youth and their communities by focusing on education, sports development and youth health needs. The foundation has granted funds to area non-profit organizations that offered services to enrich the lives of disadvantaged youth. Since its founding, the Nat Moore Foundation has dispersed more than $1,800,000 to South Florida-based programs and initiatives.

In addition, Moore has represented the Dolphins franchise at countless charitable and civic activities. He handled alumni, youth and special projects for the team starting in 2006, serving as a key organizational liaison to former Dolphins players and coaches nationwide. He represents the alumni on the team's Honor Roll selection committee and is a major contributor to all of the organization's activities honoring the great teams and individuals in Dolphins history.

Jim Rushton is the Chief Revenue Officer, Senior Vice President, of Tickets, Corporate Partnerships and Integrated Media for the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. In this capacity, he is responsible for all revenue associated with the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium, including tickets (suite, club, season and individual game); corporate partnerships (exclusive and non-exclusive sponsorships and intellectual property rights); and integrated media (television, radio, print, digital, mobile and social media); as well as all audio, video and text media distribution partnerships.

Rushton joined the Dolphins from Entercom Communications where he spent 16 years, lastly as Vice President Sports of Sales and Marketing for Entercom and Entercom New England. He was responsible for all revenues associated with WEEI Sports Radio Network including the Boston Red Sox and Boston Celtics radio networks and the New England Patriots Monday/Friday radio network.

During his tenure with Entercom, Rushton helped establish WEEI as one of the most successful all-sports stations in the United States. In this time, the Red Sox radio network grew to become the highest grossing play-by-play franchise in all of Major League Baseball. Rushton has also been a pioneer in integrating the radio businesses for which he was responsible into a multi-media platform that activated advertising/sponsorship campaigns utilizing audio, visual, text/mobile, experimental and sports media assets. This included the launch and development of WEEI.com

Rushton re-located to South Florida in mid-November 2009 and since then has been part of the team that renamed the stadium Sun Life Stadium, hosted the Orange Bowl, Pro Bowl, and Super Bowl, and negotiated a new multi-media broadcast agreement with Clear Channel Communications, Univision Radio / Interactive, and CBS Television. He also integrated the Dolphins audio, video and text media assets, established the Dolphins "3 Stadiums," "Content First, Media Device Second" and "Dolphins Business Alliance" sponsorship and integrated media strategies; and launched new integrated media programming including Dolphins 5th Quarter Post-Game Show, "The Finsiders" Game Day and Non-Game Day Programming, "Finsiders Final Drive" on NFL Network in South Florida, and "Juntos Con Los Dolphins" Hispanic Programming.

Rushton has a track record of community involvement through the development and support of a variety of charity initiatives including the WEEI Hot Dog Safari to support Cystic Fibrosis, the Worcester Cold Storage Fire Radio-thon to support the families of the six fallen Worcester Firefighters, the Jimmy Fund WEEI / NESN Radio-Telethon to support Dana Faber Cancer Institute, the Dolphins Special Teams Unit Community Volunteer Organization, and the Dolphins Cycling Challenge to support the University of Miami Sylvester Cancer Center.

Jim has completed five Boston Marathons, two Ragnar Relay Runs from Miami to Key West and two 170-mile Dolphins Cycling Challenge bike rides.

Bob Lynch is entering his third season with the Dolphins and first season as Vice President of Corporate Partnerships and Integrated Media. He originally joined the organization on March 19, 2010, as Vice President, Integrated Media.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Lynch oversaw sales for the Eastern region for Westwood One's Metro Networks, based in New York. Previously, Lynch held sales management roles as Clear Channel Media Entertainment in New York City, and business development positions with Z100, the country's largest radio station, as well as with Entercom Communications' Red Sox Radio Network and WRKO in Boston.

Lynch grew up in Stamford, Conn. and played college football at Temple University and the University of Delaware, where he graduated in 2002. His father, Bob, was a former college football coach and NFL scout with the Philadelphia Eagles. He and his wife, Gillian, reside in Hollywood Beach, Fla.

DOLPHINS DRAFT FROM FLORIDA COLLEGES

The Dolphins have selected a player from a Florida university in 24 of the team's 46 college drafts. Overall, the Dolphins have drafted 43 players from a Florida school, most recently defensive end Olivier Vernon in the third round and running back Lamar Miller in the fourth round, both out of the University of Miami, in 2012. With the selection of center Mike Pouncey out of the University of Florida in 2011, the Dolphins have selected a player from the state of Florida seven times in the first round. The University of Miami leads the way with 17 Dolphins draftees, followed by 11 from the University of Florida, eight from Florida State University, four from the University of Tampa, two from Bethune-Cookman and one from Florida A&M.

George Torres enters his seventh season with the Dolphins and first in his current role as Vice President of Ticket Sales and Retention. Torres oversees ticket sales for general and premium seating, executive suites and specialty products as well as the member retention department. Previously, Torres oversaw the team's marketing and communications department. In that capacity, he was responsible for the organization's marketing and corporate public relations, Hispanic outreach strategies, fan database, e-marketing programs and the overall advertising campaign.

Torres joined the Dolphins organization in 2006 following 23 years with The Miami Herald Media Company. During his tenure at The Miami Herald and El Nuevo Herald, he held a variety of positions including Director of Marketing & Community Affairs, with responsibility for media partnerships, consumer marketing, sports sponsorships, public relations and community programs. Key among the community programs was the Athletic Awards, Silver Knight Awards, Spelling Bee and the annual Wish Book philanthropic campaign. Torres developed the Herald's consumer and sports marketing departments which established strong partnerships with all of the major sports teams in South Florida. He also formed strategic media alliances and oversaw the implementation across the organization. Earlier in his career, Torres led the sales and retention departments for the newspapers where he introduced database marketing and produced all-time subscription sales for the company.

An alumnus and Hall of Fame member of Miami Dade College, Torres graduated from Florida International University. He also completed the NFL Leadership Program at the Graduate School of Business at Stanford University.

His deep roots in South Florida led Torres to serve on the board of Hands On Miami, Neighbors4Neighbors and The Education Fund. Torres has been lauded for his public service, receiving accolades from the Miami-Dade County Commission and the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. He received the prestigious Silver Knight Award from The Miami Herald and the Education Champion Award from The Ed Fund of Miami-Dade. Torres also is called upon regularly to be a speaker on sports and Hispanic marketing.

Torres is married to Carmen Chediak and they have two children, Anthony and Natalie.

A PLAYER'S COACH

When Bryan Cox was named the team's pass rush coach in 2011, he became the ninth person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. Cox was chosen by Miami in the fifth round of the 1991 Draft and played the first five years of his career with the Dolphins at linebacker (1991-95). The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others who followed Matheson and preceded Cox are Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004), Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007) and James Saxon (RB, 1992-94; Coach, 2008-10). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's 3rd quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06 as the team's quarterbacks coach.

COACHING STAFF

Joe Philbin was named the tenth head coach in Miami Dolphins team history by Chairman of the Board/Managing General Partner Stephen Ross and General Manager Jeff Ireland on January 20, 2012. Philbin joined Miami with 28 years of coaching experience, including 19 in the college ranks.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Philbin served as the Green Bay Packers' offensive coordinator from 2007-11. He originally joined the Packers on February 10, 2003 as assistant offensive line coach. He was promoted to tight ends/assistant offensive line on February 27, 2004 and was promoted by Head Coach Mike McCarthy to offensive line coach on January 17, 2006, and then to offensive coordinator on January 15, 2007.

From 2007-11, Philbin directed an offensive unit which ranked in the top 10 in both total yards and total points, one of only two teams in the league (New England) to accomplish that feat during the period. Green Bay's point total (2,263) was third in the league over that five-year span, trailing only New England (2,457) and New Orleans (2,283):

NFL OFFENSIVE LEADERS FROM 2007-11

New Orleans	32,935
New England	32,253
GREEN BAY	30,964
Philadelphia	30,844
Houston	30,665

Green Bay reached the playoffs in four of Philbin's five seasons as offensive coordinator. In three of those appearances, the Packers set team postseason records for most points in a game, with 42 vs. Seattle in 2007, 45 at Arizona in 2009, and 48 at Atlanta in 2010.

During his five seasons as offensive coordinator, a total of 12 Packers were selected to the Pro Bowl, including wide receiver Greg Jennings (second appearance), fullback John Kuhn (first), quarterback Aaron Rodgers (second) and center Scott Wells (first), in 2011.

In 2011, the Packers set single-season franchise records for regular-season games won (15), total points (560), average points per game (35.0), total points at home (321), average points per game at home (40.1), touchdowns (64), net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14). The 2011 season marked the third straight campaign (2009-11) that the Packers averaged at least 250.0 net passing yards. Prior to that three-year span, Green Bay had never accomplished that feat in consecutive seasons.

Rodgers established himself as one of the league's elite passers in 2011 as he posted a 122.5 passer rating, the best single-season mark in NFL history. He also set an NFL single-season record with 13 games with a 100-plus quarterback rating and 12 games with 110-plus rating. He also set franchise marks with 4,643 passing yards and 45 TDs while becoming the only quarterback in NFL history to pass for 4,000+ yards and have six or fewer INTs.

Green Bay's 6,482 total net yards in 2011 ranks first in franchise history, besting the 2004 total of 6,357 yards. The Packers' 560 points for the 2011 season ranks second in NFL single-season annals behind only the 2007 New England Patriots (589). With 70 total touchdowns in 2011, Green Bay tied the 1984 Miami Dolphins for the second-most TDs in a season in NFL history, behind only the 2007 New England Patriots (75 TDs). The Packers' turnover differential of plus-24 in 2011 tied for the second-best in franchise history behind only the plus-26 margin in 1943.

In 2010, en route to the franchise's 13th world championship, the Packers finished with the NFL's fifth-ranked passing offense at 257.8 yards per contest. It was the first time in franchise history that the Packers averaged 250.0 net passing yards in back-to-back seasons. Rodgers finished in the top 10 in nearly every passing category, falling just 78 yards short of his third straight 4,000-yard season despite missing one-and-half games due to a concussion. The Packers also posted two 45-point games during the regular season, the first time Green Bay had accomplished that feat since 1983.

From 2008-09, the Packers became the first team in league history to have a 4,000-yard passer (Rodgers), a 1,200-yard rusher (Ryan Grant) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver) in back-to-back seasons. The 2009 unit was particularly prolific, compiling a then-franchise-record 461 points and gaining 6,065 total net yards, which at the time was the third-most in team history. The 2009 offense also led the league in time of possession (33:03) and in fewest turnovers (16), both franchise bests.

In 2007, behind quarterback Brett Favre's MVP-caliber season, the offense ranked second in the NFL in total yards. That ranking was Green Bay's highest since 1983, while the 5,931 net yards and 435 total points both rank fourth on the franchise's single-season list. Favre's 4,155 yards passing that year combined with Rodgers' 4,038 yards in 2008 marked the first time in league history a team had different 4,000-yard passers in consecutive years.

Philbin's move from offensive line coach to offensive coordinator helped maintain continuity with the young offensive linemen and zone-blocking scheme. In 2006, Philbin oversaw a line that had three rookies (Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll) combine for 38 starts. Despite injuries that led to five different starting combinations, the Packers allowed only 24 sacks and improved their run production by a half-yard per carry.

In 2005, Philbin's tight ends contributed to a passing game hampered by injuries. Green Bay joined Tennessee as one of only two NFL teams to have three tight ends record at least 25 receptions each that season, as Philbin effectively blended Donald Lee into the offense despite the tight end's late-preseason arrival.

Philbin's group in 2004 contributed to an offense that racked up more total yards (6,357) and passing yards (4,449) than any team in franchise history to that point. As proved in 2003, the line played an integral role in the NFL's third-ranked offense, including team marks for first downs (354), completions (382) and fewest sacks (14). In 2003, Philbin's teaching played a role in a rushing offense that improved from 12th the year before to third in the NFL, proving to be one of the best lines in team history.

Philbin came to Green Bay after four seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Iowa (1999-2002). Under Philbin's stewardship, Iowa fielded one of college football's finest offensive lines in 2002, helping the Hawkeyes finish second in the Big Ten Conference in rushing (214.2 yards per game). Philbin pupils Eric Steinbach, Robert Gallery and Bruce Nelson earned three of the five first-team All-Big Ten linemen spots, while Steinbach earned consensus All-America honors. Over the next two years, all three were selected in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Prior to coaching at Iowa, Philbin served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Harvard University (1997-98). Under his direction in 1997, the Crimson established 15 offensive records. Five members of his offensive squad earned All-Ivy League honors, including Matt Birk, a 1998 draft choice and six-time Pro Bowl selection.

Philbin was offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Northeastern University (1995-96) and offensive line coach at Ohio University (1994). He also spent four seasons (1990-93) at Allegheny College, highlighted by two undefeated regular seasons and an NCAA Division III national championship in 1990.

Born in Springfield, Mass., Philbin is a 1984 graduate of Washington & Jefferson College (Pa.), where he played tight end (1980). He also possesses a master's degree in education from Tulane University (1986). He is married to Diane, and the couple have five children, Matthew, John, Kevin, Tim, Colleen and a deceased son, Michael.

Blue Adams enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named assistant defensive backs coach on February 10, 2012.

Adams joins the Dolphins after spending the 2011 season at the University of Northern Iowa working with the school's defensive backs. In 2010, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Purdue University, working with the secondary.

A seventh-round selection of the Detroit Lions in the 2003 NFL Draft, Adams played for the Lions and Jacksonville Jaguars in 2003. In 2004, he played for NFL Europe's Rhein Fire. From 2005-08, Adams returned to the NFL seeing action with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Cincinnati Bengals and Atlanta Falcons. Adams tallied 51 tackles in his 50 career NFL games. He closed his professional playing career in 2009 as a defensive back for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

Adams played four years as a defensive back at the University of Cincinnati, recording a school-record 12 interceptions in his career. He was a second-team All-Conference USA selection as a senior. A 1997 graduate of Miami (Fla.) Senior High School, Adams earned honorable mention All-State and first-team All-County honors as a senior. He finished the year with 69 tackles, four interceptions, four sacks, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

DOLPHINS PICK SIX IN 2011

Cornerback Vontae Davis' second quarter interception at Buffalo on December 18, 2011 marked the sixth straight game in 2011 that the Dolphins recorded an interception. It was the seventh time in team history that the Dolphins have had a streak of six consecutive games with an interception. The last six-game interception streak began December 12, 1995 and went through September 15, 1996 and consisted of 11 interceptions. The longest streak in Dolphins history of consecutive games with an interception is 13 straight games, which began on October 28, 1984 and ended on October 6, 1985.

Lou Anarumo enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named defensive backs coach on February 4, 2012.

Anarumo joins the Dolphins after spending eight seasons (2004-11) as defensive backs coach at Purdue University. With four new starters in 2010, the Boilermaker secondary featured true freshman cornerback Ricardo Allen, who finished with three interceptions, returning two of them for touchdowns, and led the Big Ten in interception return yardage en route to earning freshman All-America honors. Cornerbacks Brandon King and David Pender were named second team All-Big Ten in 2009, while safety Torri Williams was an honorable mention selection. Pender finished his career ranked tied for second in school history with 33 pass breakups. From 2005 to 2006, the Boilermakers rebuilt their secondary and improved from 287.3 passing yards allowed per game to 241.2 yards. In 2008, they ranked third overall in the Big Ten, surrendering just 183.2 yards per game. That figure dropped to 152.5 yards in conference games and was tops in the Big Ten. Safety Bernard Pollard was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (54th overall pick) of the 2006 NFL draft, becoming the highest-drafted Purdue defensive player since linebacker Fred Strickland (47th overall) by the Los Angeles Rams in 1988.

Anarumo came to the Boilermakers from Marshall, where he coached the defensive backs from 2001-03. He also served as special teams coordinator in 2003. The Thundering Herd ranked 10th in the nation in passing defense in 2003, allowing 177.4 yards per game. They were sixth in 2002 at 161.5 yards after ranking 37th in 2001 at 198.7 yards. Marshall compiled a 30-8 record over the three seasons and won the GMAC Bowl in 2001 and 2002. Strong safety Chris Crocker was a third-round selection of the Cleveland Browns in the 2003 Draft.

Prior to his stint at Marshall, Anarumo was assistant head coach at Harvard from 1995-2000, working with the defensive backs and coordinating the special teams. During his tenure, he helped build a pass defense regarded among the finest in the Ivy League. The Crimson led the league in pass efficiency defense in 1999 and ranked second in interceptions in 2000.

From 1992-94, Anarumo was defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. He also served as the admissions liaison to the athletics department.

Anarumo was a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse during the 1990-91 seasons. He was assistant defensive backs coach under Phil Elmassian - whom Anarumo replaced on the Boilermaker staff - and was responsible for film breakdown and organization of the scout teams.

From January to June 1990, Anarumo was a part-time running backs coach at Wagner College. He filled that same role at the United States Merchant Marine Academy from September 1989 to January 1990.

Anarumo and his wife, Fran, have three children: Madison, Louis and Christopher.

Charlie Bullen enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named defensive assistant on February 10, 2012.

Bullen joins the Dolphins after spending the 2009-11 seasons as a graduate assistant coach working with the defense at the University of Iowa. Bullen also served as a student assistant for two seasons, working with then offensive coordinator and current Dolphins wide receivers coach Ken O'Keefe and the Hawkeye quarterbacks while completing work towards his bachelor's degree.

Bullen served as a volunteer assistant coach at Iowa City High School in 2006, working with the quarterbacks. City High posted a 9-2 record in 2006 and reached the state quarterfinals.

Prior to attending Iowa, Bullen played quarterback at Harper College in Palatine, Illinois. Bullen was also a member of the Harper College program that won a non-scholarship national title in 2003. Bullen earned an associate degree in business administration from Harper College in 2005 and his bachelor's degree in finance from Iowa in 2008. He is pursuing his master's degree in sports management.

A member of the American Football Coaches Association, Bullen is a native of Palatine, Illinois.

Dan Campbell enters his second season as Miami's tight ends coach in 2012. He originally joined the Dolphins prior to the 2010 season as a coaching intern/offense. In 2011, Campbell tutored a young group led by a reliable veteran Anthony Fasano who had 32 receptions for 451 yards and five touchdowns.

Campbell joined the Dolphins after 11 years of playing experience with the New York Giants (1999-2002), Dallas Cowboys (2003-05), Detroit Lions (2006-08) and New Orleans Saints (2009). A third-round selection of the Giants in the 1999 NFL draft, the former tight end appeared in a total of 114 games with 75 starts and caught 91 passes for 934 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Campbell attended Texas A&M where he was a four-year letterwinner and agricultural development major. A native of Clifton, Texas, Campbell and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody and a daughter, Piper.

David Corrao is entering his fifth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff in 2012. He currently assists the defensive staff in all facets of game preparation including breaking down opposing offenses, identifying specific formations and the use various personnel groupings by opponents.

Corrao joined the Dolphins after coaching the linebackers at the University of Mississippi in 2007. He served as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Ole Miss the previous two years (2005-06), when he worked with linebacker Patrick Willis, a first-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers and the 2007 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Prior to joining the Ole Miss staff, Corrao tutored the tight ends at Northeastern University in 2004. After several years coaching in the high school ranks, he served as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University from 2000-03.

Corrao attended the University of San Diego, where he was a member of the football team as a freshman in 1992. He earned his bachelor's degree in creative writing from the University of Arizona in 1997 and a master's in instructional design development and evaluation from Syracuse in 2003. He is a graduate of Trabuco Hills High School in Mission Viejo, Calif.

DOLPHINS SEND 168 PLAYERS TO PRO BOWL

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, the Dolphins have sent a total of 168 players to the Pro Bowl, including three following the 2011 season. Over the course of those 41 seasons, 96 offensive players, 64 defensive players and eight special teams players have been chosen. The position that has been represented the most is guard, which has occurred on 19 occasions. The only seasons since 1970 that the Dolphins did not have a player selected to the Pro Bowl were 1980 and 1997.

Entering his 35th season as a coach, Kevin Coyle begins his first season with the Dolphins after being named defensive coordinator on January 27, 2012.

Coyle joins Miami from the Cincinnati Bengals, where he served the previous nine seasons (2003-11) as defensive backs coach after serving as cornerbacks coach from 2001-02.

In 2011, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense, which included a pass defense that finished ninth by allowing just 211.6 passing yards per game. Coyle's secondary helped Cincinnati score a defensive touchdown in three straight games, with each of the scores initiated through a turnover created by a member of the defensive backfield. That feat had not been accomplished by the Bengals in nearly 30 years.

The 2010 season saw five veteran defensive backs due for starting jobs or significant reserve roles being placed on the Reserve/Injured list. The five players, safety Chris Crocker, cornerback Adam Jones, safety Chinedum Ndukwe, cornerback Morgan Trent and safety Gibril Wilson, missed a combined total of 46 games. Three other members of the defensive backfield saw their seasons end prematurely by injuries or illness, bringing the total to eight. Also hampered by injuries, though not placed on a reserve list, were starting cornerback Johnathan Joseph and starting strong safety Roy Williams. With spots open to fill, Coyle guided solid performances out of newcomers Reggie Nelson and Jonathan Wade, while continuing the development of second-year pro Rico Murray. The continuing standout for Coyle's stable was cornerback Leon Hall. Also during the 2010 season, Coyle helped guide a productive return to the NFL for cornerback Adam Jones, prior to Jones's season-ending injury after five games. Jones proved to be an explosive force and a solid team influence after sitting out the 2009 season.

In 2009, working with a healthier unit, Coyle directed a group that helped fuel the team's capture of the AFC North Division title. The Bengals finished sixth in the NFL in net pass defense and fourth in overall defense.

In 2005, Coyle oversaw a 10 interception season by Pro Bowl cornerback Deltha O'Neal, the highest individual total in Bengals history. Overall, Bengals defensive backs had 23 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 31 interceptions on the year. O'Neal was the second defensive back under Coyle to make the Pro Bowl, as cornerback Tory James earned the honor in 2004, when he had eight interceptions.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Coyle served as defensive coordinator at Fresno State from 1997-2000, where his defenses produced three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference players in both '99 and '00, best in the league both years. Six players from Coyle's Fresno State defenses went on to play in the NFL, including three defensive backs.

As Maryland's defensive coordinator from 1994-96, Coyle oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Terrapins defense, steadily guiding a program that had struggled prior to his arrival and coaching future NFL cornerbacks Chad Scott and Lewis Sanders.

Serving as defensive coordinator at Syracuse from 1991-93, Coyle's 1992 defense led the nation in interceptions (24) and set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,007) in an 11-game season. He also coached future NFL standout safety Donovin Darius.

Coyle was at Holy Cross from 1982-90. During his five years as defensive coordinator (1986-90), the school was the winningest Division I-AA team in the nation (49-5-1).

He began his college tenure in 1978 as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati.

Coyle was born in Staten Island, N.Y. He and his wife, Louise, have a daughter.

George Edwards enters his second tour of duty with the Dolphins after being named linebackers coach on January 30, 2012.

Edwards returns to the Dolphins following a two-year stint (2010-11) with the Buffalo Bills where he served as the team's defensive coordinator. While with the Bills, Edwards implemented a base 3-4 defense, however the unit was versatile and played out of multiple fronts throughout his tenure. During his time with the Bills, defensive tackle Kyle Williams emerged as a defensive anchor and was named to his first Pro Bowl and produced career numbers in sacks (5.5) and fumble recoveries (two) in 2010. Also under Edwards' watch in 2010, the Bills' pass defense yielded an average of 192.0 passing yards per game to rank third in the AFC, while producing nine fumble recoveries to tie for fourth in the AFC and forcing 12 fumbles to tie for fifth in the AFC.

Prior to joining the Bills, Edwards spent five seasons (2005-09) as a linebackers coach for the Dolphins. His first three years with Miami were spent tutoring the linebackers before focusing on the inside linebackers in 2008. Under Edwards, Zach Thomas was selected to the Pro Bowl following both the 2005 and '06 seasons and was named as the NFL Alumni Linebacker of the Year for the 2006 season.

Before joining the Dolphins, Edwards served as the linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2004. That followed a two-year stint (2002-03) with the Washington Redskins, including 2003 as the team's defensive coordinator. Following the '03 season, linebacker LaVar Arrington and cornerback Champ Bailey were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad. In 2002, Edwards served as the Redskins' assistant defensive coordinator/linebackers coach, as Arrington accounted for the most productive season of his NFL career with 107 tackles and 11 sacks and earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth. In addition, each of the team's starting linebackers, which also included Jesse Armstead and Jeremiah Trotter, surpassed the 100-tackle plateau.

Edwards began his NFL coaching career with a four-season stint (1998-2001) with the Dallas Cowboys, where he tutored the team's linebackers. Under Edwards' guidance, Dexter Coakley, a third-round draft choice in 1997, was selected to the Pro Bowl twice over this four-year span (1999, 2001), as he was Dallas' second-leading tackler all four years.

Before embarking on his NFL coaching career, Edwards held collegiate assistant posts at Florida (1991), Appalachian State (1992-95), Duke (1996) and Georgia (1997). During his one-year tenure at Georgia, Edwards tutored a defensive line which included a pair of freshmen in Richard Seymour and Marcus Stroud, both of whom would be selected in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft.

A four-year letterman at Duke University, Edwards was a two-year special teams captain and an honorable mention All-ACC selection at linebacker in 1989.

A native of Siler City, N.C., Edwards and his wife, Jami, have a son, B.J.

Dave Fipp enters his second season with the Dolphins after being named assistant special teams coach on January 26, 2011.

The special teams units, headed by kicker Dan Carpenter and punter Brandon Fields, showed the biggest improvement in the NFL from 2010 to 2011, according to the annual special teams report compiled by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from a 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011, finishing just behind the special teams units of the San Francisco 49ers. The 22-place advancement was aided by Carpenter's 13 of 16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards. The annual analysis compiled by Gosselin is widely thought of as the most accurate assessment of the NFL's special teams as it judges 22 elements of the kicking game and ranks them from 1 to 32, with the lowest scoring unit accounting for the best score. In 2011, the Dolphins ranked in the top 10 in 14 of those categories.

Fipp joined Miami after spending three seasons (2008-10) with the San Francisco 49ers as their assistant special teams coach. He played a substantial role in taking the 49ers special teams unit to new heights. In 2009, punter Andy Lee earned his second Pro Bowl selection after ranking second in the NFL in gross punting average (47.6) and net punting average (41.0). Known as a special teams ace, running back Michael Robinson was named a Pro Bowl alternate as a specialist for his work in all phases of special teams, marking the second consecutive season he had earned the recognition.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Fipp worked with the San Jose State Spartans for three seasons. He served as defensive coordinator during his final year and previously held the title of co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach for the Spartans.

Fipp joined the Spartan staff after spending the 2004 season at the University of Nevada as the co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He also served as the defensive coordinator at Cal Poly from 2002-03 after starting out as the Mustangs' defensive backs coach in 2001.

Prior to the 2000 season, Fipp returned to his alma mater, the University of Arizona, as a graduate assistant and coached the safeties. Fipp began his coaching career at College of the Holy Cross as a secondary coach and special teams coordinator in 1998.

A 1997 graduate from the University of Arizona, Fipp played for the Wildcats from 1994 to 1997. He led Arizona's special teams unit in tackles as a sophomore in 1995 and was the Wildcats' starting free safety in 1996 and 1997. The 1997 Wildcats were among the top defensive units in the Pac-10 Conference and ranked 12th nationally in rushing defense.

He and his wife, Jenny, have two daughters, Ashlee and Lilly, and a son, Tyler.

Ben Johnson enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named offensive assistant on February 10, 2012.

Johnson joins the Dolphins after spending three years (2009-11) at Boston College. He spent his final two seasons as the offensive graduate assistant after spending his first season as the team's video graduate assistant.

Prior to his time at Boston College, Johnson spent a year working as a software developer for eTeleNext, Inc. in Durham, N.C. He also worked as a math tutor for University of North Carolina student-athletes.

Johnson played four seasons as a quarterback for UNC after walking on to the team in 2004. He graduated from North Carolina in 2008 with a B.S. in mathematics and a B.S. in computer science.

MONDAY NIGHT MADNESS IN MIAMI

In their history, the Dolphins have appeared on Monday Night Football a total of 76 times, the most of any NFL team, and four games ahead of the Dallas Cowboys, whose 72 games are second-most in the history of MNF. In those 76 contests, the Dolphins have compiled a record of 40-36; including a home record of 33-19 and a road register of 7-17. Entering 2012, the Dolphins' 40 victories are the third-most in Monday Night Football history, trailing only the 43 by the Cowboys and the 41 by the San Francisco 49ers. Since MNF's inception in 1970, the only four years in which the Dolphins did not make an appearance was 1989, 2005, 2008 and 2012.

Darren Krein enters his second season with the Dolphins after being named the head strength and conditioning coach on January 20, 2011. He was retained by Head Coach Joe Philbin on January 30, 2012.

Prior to his arrival in Miami, Krein spent 11 years in the NFL in various strength and conditioning capacities, having been a part of the Seattle Seahawks staff on two different occasions (1997-98 and 2001-09). He originally joined the Seahawks as a member of Dennis Erickson's staff on March 1, 1997, for two seasons and re-joined the team in 2001 in the same capacity under Mike Holmgren. Krein holds the distinction of being the first-ever assistant strength and conditioning coach hired by the Seattle Seahawks.

While in Seattle he assisted in the coordination of the players' weight training, along with the team's offseason conditioning program. He also played an integral role in the designing and implementation of the rehabilitation process, working with players that were previously injured to help build strength and flexibility to become game ready. A notable Krein achievement was the physical development of Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Hasselbeck, who after injuries cut short his first season in Seattle (2001) and serving as the primary backup in 2002, Hasselbeck's offseason training, under the supervision of Krein, allowed him in 2003, 2005 and 2007 to become the first Seahawks quarterback since Rick Mirer in 1993 to start all 16 games as well as being named a member of the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Krein was a 1994 fifth-round (150th overall) draft choice of the San Diego Chargers. He missed his rookie season due to a knee injury. Claimed off waivers by the Green Bay Packers on June 17, 1995, he did not see game action. Krein played the 1996 World League season with the Barcelona Dragons, but re-injured his knee and retired.

A four-year letterman as a defensive end at the University of Miami (1989-93), Krein was a unanimous first-team All-Big East selection as a senior and left the Hurricanes with 190 career tackles and 17.5 sacks after beginning his career as a middle linebacker. Krein earned his degree in business management from the University of Miami.

A native of Aurora, Colorado, where he attended Smoky Hill High School, Krein and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter Ella and two sons Aiden and Kellen.

DOLPHINS BEFORE AND AFTER BYES

Since the NFL first instituted the open week in 1990, the Dolphins are 11-11 in games preceding the bye week, including a 26-16 loss at the San Diego Chargers on October 2, 2011. Miami owns a 13-10 record in games following a bye week, including a 24-6 loss at the N.Y. Jets on October 17, 2011.

Phil McGeoghan enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named assistant wide receivers coach on February 4, 2012.

McGeoghan joins Miami after spending three seasons (2009-11) as the wide receivers coach at the University of South Florida. In 2011, three Bulls' receivers, Sterling Griffin (43), Victor Marc (33) and Deonte Welch (31) each tallied more than 30 receptions. In 2010, senior Dontavia Bogan produced one of the best seasons in USF history with 685 yards (second on the Bulls' single-season list) and six touchdowns (tied for second) on 47 receptions (fifth). In his first season with the Bulls, USF wide receivers were constant big play threats, as both Carlton Mitchell and A.J. Love each averaged more than 17 yards per catch, with Love's 18.8 clip ranking third all-time at USF.

In 2008, McGeoghan worked as the offensive coordinator for the Naval Academy Prep School, which oversees the professional and athletic development of midshipmen and cadet candidates. McGeoghan returned to his alma-mater, Maine, in 2007 as an assistant coach with responsibilities over the tight ends and wide receivers.

McGeoghan (pronounced muh-GAY-gehn) played in the NFL for four seasons with the New Orleans Saints, Denver Broncos, Oakland Raiders and the New York Jets, in addition to playing in NFL Europe for the Berlin Thunder after a successful career as a wide receiver at the University of Maine (1998-2000).

Chris Mosley enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named assistant offensive line coach on February 10, 2012.

Mosley joins the Dolphins after spending the 2011 season as the offensive line coach at Saint Anselm. Mosley's additional duties included video coordinator and director of football operations. Mosley spent two seasons (2009-10) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, working with the offensive line in 2009 and then with the defensive line in 2010. Mosley served as the tight ends coach at Princeton University in 2008 after working with the offensive line at Boston College in 2007. In 2006, he was a cornerbacks coach at Villanova University. He also served as a graduate assistant at the University of Akron in 2005, where he worked with the tackles and tight ends. Mosley served as the Director of Strength and Conditioning as well as the offensive line coach at Washington & Jefferson College in 2004.

Mosley was a running back, playing his first two collegiate seasons at Southeast Missouri State, before finishing out his collegiate career at Washington & Jefferson, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology in 2001.

Jeff Nixon returns for his second season with the Dolphins after being named running backs coach on January 20, 2011.

In his first season with the team, Reggie Bush rushed for a career-high 1,086 yards and Daniel Thomas led all AFC rookie rushers with 581 yards.

Nixon came to the Dolphins after spending four seasons (2007-10) with the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff. Nixon was an assistant coach with the Eagles working with the special teams and the offense, along with a focus on the running back position.

Nixon joined the Eagles coaching staff after serving as the running backs coach at Temple University in 2006. Following the season, he was named wide receivers coach at Temple before accepting his new post with the Eagles. From 2003-05, Nixon coached at Tennessee-Chattanooga, where he worked with the running backs, tight ends, and as a special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. From 1999-2002, he coached the running backs at Shippensburg. Nixon coached at Princeton in 1998 as the school's running backs coach. Nixon began his coaching career in 1997 as a student assistant coach at Penn State.

Nixon played running back for West Virginia from 1993-94 before transferring to Penn State, where he earned spots on both the Dean's List and the Big Ten Conference All-Academic Team.

Born in Rochester, Penn., and a product of State College (Penn.) High School, Nixon earned a degree in elementary education from Penn State in 1998 before receiving his master's degree in education administration from Shippensburg in 2003.

Nixon and his wife, Laura, have four children: William, twin daughters Faith and Hope, and Jasmine.

Ken O'Keefe enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named wide receivers coach on February 4, 2012.

O'Keefe joins the Dolphins after spending the previous 13 seasons (1999-2011) as offensive coordinator at the University of Iowa. In 2011, Iowa's offense was led by senior wide receiver Marvin McNutt, Jr., junior quarterback James Vandenberg and sophomore running back Marcus Coker. McNutt set single-season and career records for receiving yards (1,315 and 2,861) and touchdowns (12 and 28). His 82 receptions tied the single-season record. Vandenberg threw for 3,022 yards and 25 touchdowns, completing 58.7-percent of his pass attempts. Coker rushed for 1,384 yards (fourth best for a single season at Iowa) with 15 touchdowns in 2011. Under O'Keefe's direction, Vandenberg passed for more than 3,000 yards and had 25 touchdown passes in his first year as a starter.

O'Keefe was the head coach at Fordham University in 1998. He served as head coach at Allegheny College for eight seasons (1990-97). His career head coaching record of 83-17-1 included a 79-10-1 mark at Allegheny, where his team won five North Coast Athletic Conference titles and the 1990 NCAA Division III national title. O'Keefe led Allegheny to four undefeated regular seasons (1990, 1991, 1994 and 1996) and six NCAA playoff appearances. For his outstanding first year at Allegheny in 1990, O'Keefe was named NCAA Division III Coach of the Year. He was also named conference Coach of the Year four times (1990, 1991, 1993 and 1996) while at Allegheny. All eight of his teams ranked among the nation's top 12 at the end of the season and he coached 38 All-Americans. Prior to becoming head coach at Allegheny, O'Keefe served as offensive line coach (1986-87) and offensive coordinator (1988-89) there.

In 1985, O'Keefe coached Fort Worth (Texas) Country Day School. From 1978-84, he led Worcester (Mass.) Academy to a 37-11 record and three New England Class A prep championships. O'Keefe started his coaching career as an assistant coach at the University of New Haven from 1976-77.

Dave Puloka begins his fifth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having been named to his current post on January 28, 2008 and then being retained by Head Coach Joe Philbin on February 2, 2012.

Puloka came to the club after spending the 2007 season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Atlanta Falcons, his first year in the NFL. Prior to embarking on his NFL stint, Puloka served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Virginia from 2005-06.

Puloka went to training camp with the Cincinnati Bengals as an undrafted college free agent in 2001. He lettered in football and track at Holy Cross College (1997-2000), where he played defensive end. His career totals in football included 19 sacks. He served as a team captain on the football team each of his final two years while he was also a first-team All-Patriot League and All-New England performer. Puloka earned his degree in psychology.

A product of Arlington (Mass.) High School, Puloka first started his coaching career as an assistant track coach at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. and as a strength and conditioning coach in the Austrian Football League. He is a former high school state record holder in the discus. For several years growing up, Puloka lived on the island of Tonga in the South Pacific.

Darren Rizzi enters his second season as special teams coordinator, having been promoted to the position on January 26, 2011. He joined the Dolphins as assistant special teams coach in 2009 and was promoted to special teams coach after week five of the 2010 season.

In his tenure with the Dolphins, two members of the special teams (kicker Dan Carpenter and long snapper John Denney) were named to the Pro Bowl. Under his leadership, the special teams units showed the biggest improvement in the NFL from 2010 to 2011, according to the annual special teams report compiled by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from a 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011, finishing just behind the special teams units of the San Francisco 49ers. The 22-place advancement was aided by Carpenter's 13 of 16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and punter Brandon Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards. The annual analysis compiled by Gosselin is widely thought of as the most accurate assessment of the NFL's special teams as it judges 22 elements of the kicking game and ranks them from 1 to 32, with the lowest scoring unit accounting for the best score. In 2011, the Dolphins ranked in the top 10 in 14 of those categories.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a college head coach, including the 2008 season at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams unit. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years there and the linebackers for his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at RU, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his stint at Rutgers, Rizzi was the head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. Rizzi was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998. He coached at New Haven from 1994-97, where he was UNH's defensive coordinator in his final year there, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All America selection in 1992. Following his time at Rhode Island, Rizzi was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career. A native of Hillsdale, N.J. and a graduate of Bergen Catholic High School in New Jersey, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992.

He and his wife, Tracey, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Alexandra, and three sons, Christian, Casey and Cameron.

DOLPHINS AT HOME AGAINST DOMED TEAMS

In their history, the Dolphins own a 34-14 (.701) record at home in regular season games against teams who play their home games indoors. The last time they faced a team who plays its home game indoors in South Florida was October 25, 2009 when they lost 46-30 to the New Orleans Saints. Miami will play host to the St, Louis Rams, who play their home games inside the Edward Jones Dome, on October 14.

Kacy Rodgers enters his fifth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having joined the club after a five-year stint with the Dallas Cowboys (2003-07), the final three of which he tutored that team's defensive line.

In 2011, Rodgers' line anchored a defense that finished third in the NFL against the run, with nose tackle Paul Soliai earning his first Pro Bowl recognition. Miami finished seventh in rush defense and third in fewest rushing yards per carry at 3.6 in 2010 as defensive end Randy Starks earned Pro Bowl honors.

Rodgers' first two years with the Cowboys (2003-04) were spent coaching the club's defensive tackles. Under Rodgers, defensive tackle La'Roi Glover was selected to the Pro Bowl each year from 2003-05. In four of Rodgers' five seasons with Dallas, the team ranked in the top ten in the NFL in rush defense, including a No. 6 finish in 2007 when they allowed an average of just 94.6 yards rushing per game.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Rodgers was an assistant at the collegiate level, including posts at Tennessee-Martin (1994-97), Louisiana-Monroe (1998), Middle Tennessee State (1999-2001) and Arkansas (2002). He tutored the defensive line at all four stops, while having also been assistant head coach at Tennessee-Martin (1997) and Middle Tennessee (2000-01).

Rodgers went to training camp with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992 as a college free agent. He also played with the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian League in 1994.

A four-year letterman at the University of Tennessee (1988-91), Rodgers played linebacker and defensive end on teams that won a pair of Southeastern Conference championships (1990, 1991) and appeared in three New Year's Day bowl games. He earned his degree in political science from the school in 1993. Rodgers is a native of Humboldt, Tennessee where he starred at Humboldt High School.

He and his wife, Marcella, have a son, Kacy II, who is a junior at the University of Miami.

	– Defensive Line Coach (2005-07)

STOFA TRADED TWICE BY DOLPHINS

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on December 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first- and second-round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on November 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

Mike Sherman enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named offensive coordinator on January 27, 2012.

Sherman joins Miami after four years (2008-11) at the helm of Texas A&M University after being named the school's 28th head coach on November 26, 2007. While leading the Aggies, Sherman's teams made three bowl appearances (Independence Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Meineke Car Care Bowl), as well winning as the 2010 Big 12 South Division title. During his time with the Aggies, the school accumulated 500 yards in total offense 18 times, while prior to his arrival, the team had hit the 500-yard plateau only 18 times in the previous 116 games over 10 seasons. Led by current Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill, Texas A&M was the only team in the NCAA FBS with an offense that ranked in the top 20 in rushing, passing, total and scoring offense during the 2011 season.

Sherman came to Texas A&M after spending two seasons (2006-07) with the Houston Texans. He served as the assistant head coach/offense in 2006 before being named as the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator in 2007. In 2006, the Texans offense was led by All-Pro receiver Andre Johnson, who set franchise marks with 103 receptions for 1,147 yards and quarterback David Carr, who led the NFL with a 68.3 completion percentage. During the 2007 season, the Texans set franchise records with 43 touchdowns, 5,337 total net yards and 3,751 passing yards.

Prior to joining the Texans, Sherman spent six seasons (2000-05) as the head coach of the Green Bay Packers, including five serving as the team's executive vice president along with being the head coach. From 2001-04, Sherman assumed the duties of general manager as well after being named to the position following the retirement of the general manager Ron Wolf. Sherman guided the team to five winning seasons and from 2002-04 the team won three consecutive NFC North titles. His .663 winning percentage (53-27) over his first five years at the time was second only to the great Vince Lombardi in Packers history.

Under Sherman, the Packers offense produced two of the four highest-scoring seasons in franchise history at that time. In 2003, Green Bay totaled 442 points, which was just 14 points shy of the franchise record of 456 set in the team's world championship season of 1996. The 2003 squad ranked third at the time in Packer history with 5,798 yards and set a franchise record with 2,558 rushing yards, thanks in large part to running back Ahman Green's franchise-record 1,883 rushing yards. Green Bay also set a franchise record by averaging 5.05 yards per rush attempt that year. Sherman's troops followed that up with a 424-point season in 2004, which was good for fourth-best all-time at the time. Sherman's 2004 team set team records with 6,357 total net yards and 4,449 net passing yards. That year, the team surrendered just 14 sacks in 598 attempts, another franchise record.

Before be named the head coach in Green Bay, Sherman served as the offensive coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks in 1999. The Seahawks finished the 1999 campaign atop the AFC West with a 9-7 record and made the playoffs for the first time since 1988. The 1999 season saw a balanced offensive attack with running back Ricky Watters rushing for 1,210 yards and five touchdowns while quarterback Jon Kitna finished third in the AFC with 23 touchdown passes and fifth in the conference with 3,346 passing yards.

Sherman's first NFL coaching experience came with the Packers from 1997-98, when he was the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach. Sherman tutored All-Pro tight end Mark Chmura, who was selected to the Pro Bowl in both 1997 and 1998.

Prior to making the jump to the NFL ranks, Sherman spent seven years (1989-93 and 1995-96) in College Station as Texas A&M's offensive line coach. During his time at Texas A&M, Sherman helped develop future Dolphins All-Pro Richmond Webb. Between his time in College Station, Sherman spent the 1994 season as the offensive line coach for the UCLA Bruins, where he coached future Pro Bowl tackle Jonathan Ogden.

Sherman coached the offensive line at Holy Cross from 1985-87 before being named offensive coordinator in 1988. He served as offensive line coach at Tulane from 1983-84. Sherman's collegiate coaching career began in 1981, when he was a part-time coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

Sherman played defensive end and offensive tackle at Central Connecticut State University. A native of Norwood, Mass, he and his wife, Karen, have five children: daughters Sarah, Emily, and Selena, and sons Matthew and Benjamin and well as one grandson, Brooks.

Jim Turner enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named offensive line coach on February 2, 2012.

Turner joins the Dolphins after having spent the previous four seasons (2008-11) in the same position at Texas A&M under then-head coach and current Dolphins offensive coordinator Mike Sherman. While with the Aggies, Turner molded one of the best offensive lines in college football. In 2011, his group led the nation in fewest sacks allowed as the Aggie line surrendered only eight over the course of the 12-game regular season. The offensive line also paved the way for the Aggies to boast the nation's 21st-ranked rushing attack.

Turner worked with the Boston College staff as offensive line coach in 2007. Prior to his stop in Chestnut Hill, he served two years (2005-06) as the offensive line coach at the University of Delaware. In the 2006 season, Turner added the title of assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator for the Fightin' Blue Hens. In the 2006 season, he helped tackle Mike Byrne earn All-Atlantic 10 honors as the Blue Hens were among the Division I-AA leaders in several offensive categories. The 2005 Delaware offensive line allowed only 13 sacks and Brian Sims earned second-team All-Atlantic 10 honors.

Turner's background includes stops at Temple in 2003-04 as the offensive line coach as well as three years (2000-02) as the offensive line and run game coordinator for Harvard. In 2001, the Crimson posted an undefeated 9-0 record and won the Ivy League crown. The 2000 Crimson offense broke 17 school offensive records. Turner spent the 1999 season as the offensive line coach for Louisiana Tech. From 1994-98, Turner coached at Northeastern University in Boston working with the offensive line and tight ends in 1994-95, before switching to running backs and special teams in 1996, and ending his tenure there as the defensive line and special teams coach in 1997 and 1998.

After earning his degree in sociology from Boston College, Turner began his coaching career at his high school alma mater of Braintree in 1988. He spent the 1989 season in London, England, as the offensive coordinator of the Kent Rams before serving in the United States Marine Corps as an infantry officer in Europe, the Middle East and Japan from 1990-94.

A native of Braintree, Mass., Turner was a three-year letterman and two-year starter at Boston College as a fullback, playing in three bowl games, the Liberty, Cotton and Hall of Fame. His senior season he was named a team captain.

Turner is married to Patricia. They have one son, Michael.

Jay Kaiser enters his first season as Assistant to the Head Coach with the Dolphins in 2012. He is responsible for assisting Head Coach Joe Philbin in organizing football operations for the club. Kaiser manages several elements of Philbin's off-field agenda, including the day-to-day schedule, player and staff communications and the football calendar, including the offseason programs, mini-camps and training camp.

In the three previous years (2009-11) before coming to the Dolphins, Kaiser served in a similar capacity for Raheem Morris, the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including the Bucs' 10-6 season in 2010.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kaiser spent seven seasons (2002-08) on the Kansas State football staff. In 2008, he served as the director of recruiting operations for the Wildcats. In addition to organizing Kansas State's recruiting efforts, he assisted with day-to-day operations and oversaw the Powercat Pride program.

Kaiser served as a graduate assistant at Toledo before working for Kansas State, where he spent one year as the Rockets' assistant quarterbacks and receivers coach. He also coached tight ends and special teams at Northern Iowa as an assistant coach in 1999 following a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at Northwest Missouri State. While on staff with the Bearcats, Kaiser helped the program win an NCAA Division II national title.

Kaiser received his start as a student coach at Bethany College from 1993 through 1996. He earned a bachelor's degree from Bethany and later added a master's degree from Northwest Missouri State.

A native of Liberal, Kansas, Kaiser is married to the former Camille Base. The couple has two children, Karson and Payton.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

Brian Gaine enters his 14th year in the NFL and his first season as the Dolphins' Assistant General Manager after being named to that position on June 27, 2012. Gaine spent the 2011 season as the team's Director of Player Personnel. He served his first three seasons (2008-10) with Miami as the Assistant Director of Player Personnel after joining the team on January 15, 2008. In his current role, Gaine will continue to work closely with General Manager Jeff Ireland on the evaluation of players at the professional and collegiate levels as well as be responsible for administrative and scouting responsibilities in both of those areas and continue to oversee the Player Personnel Department. He will also have a more active role in the organization with Head Coach Joe Philbin and his staff, the football administration staff as well as other football operations related business.

In his previous roles in Miami, Gaine was responsible for directing pro scouting operations for the Dolphins, including player evaluations on all levels of professional football, advance scouting, free agency and tracking player movement. Gaine also participated in the evaluation of collegiate prospects in preparation of the NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Miami, Gaine spent the previous three seasons as the Dallas Cowboys' Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2005-07), where he worked with former Dolphins Executive Vice President of Football Operations Bill Parcells (2005-06), Ireland (2005-07) and Head Coach Tony Sparano (2005-07).

With Dallas, Gaine contributed to the Cowboys' player acquisition process by managing pro scouting operations and evaluating players and rosters from the NFL and all other levels of professional football. Additional responsibilities included advance scouting, free agency preparation, tracking of player movement and directing the development of the Cowboys' pro scouting database.

Gaine went to Dallas after spending six years (1999-2004) in the New York Jets' Scouting Department, including serving as the Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in 2004. Prior to that promotion, he functioned as a pro scout for the Jets from 2001-03. In 2000, he was the Jets' Manager of Pro Development/NFC where his duties included pro player evaluation and advance scouting as well as the scouting and tracking of players in other professional leagues such as NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League and the Arena League. Gaine began his personnel career as a member of the Jets' college scouting department in 1999.

Prior to joining the Jets in a front office capacity, he served as a member of the team's practice squad in 1996, followed by a stint with the Giants' practice squad in 1997. He then signed and spent the 1998 offseason with the Kansas City Chiefs, but was waived prior to the start of training camp.

Gaine attended the University of Maine from 1991-95 where he played tight end. He served as the Black Bears' captain his senior season and earned his degree in public administration from the Orono, Maine school. Gaine grew up in Pearl River, N.Y., and attended Don Bosco Prep High School in Ramsey, N.J. He and his wife, Tricia, have a daughter, Kelsey, and sons, Ryan and Connor.

Chris Grier begins his 13th season with the Dolphins and his fourth as the team's Director of College Scouting. He served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02 before being promoted to National Scout/Assistant Director of College Scouting in 2003. He joined the club after spending the previous five years in the personnel department with the New England Patriots.

Grier started with the Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000.

Grier is a 1994 graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Grier is the son of Bobby Grier, the former Vice President-Player Personnel with the New England Patriots who currently is the Associate Director of Pro Scouting with the Houston

Texans. Chris' brother, Michael, played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier resides in Weston, Fla. with his wife, Paige, and their two sons, Landon and Jackson.

Chris Shea enters his 14th season in the NFL, fifth with the Dolphins, and 27th overall in the sport. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in May 2011, and is entering his 12th season as an NFL talent evaluator. Shea directs the club's pro scouting operations, supervises the pro scouting staff, evaluates players at all levels of professional and college football, advance scouts upcoming opponents, performs analyses of league-wide player personnel/salary cap trends, and oversees development of all player-personnel related technology. Shea has a diverse background in coaching, recruiting, scouting, the salary cap, and is an attorney. He has worked for four NFL teams, the NFL Management Council, and two NCAA football programs.

Shea previously served as the Dolphin's Player Personnel Administrator (2010-11) and Player Personnel Coordinator (2008-10). In his previous roles, he combined scouting, legal, and salary cap administration duties. He managed the team's NFL Draft preparations, scouted NFL and college players, and worked closely with senior management in player contract analysis, negotiations and drafting. Shea also serves as a member of the NFL Competition Committee's Subcommittee on Statistics.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Shea spent 17 years working on various levels of football. During 2007-08, he was employed by the NFL Management Council, initially as a Law Clerk focusing on player grievances and litigation, then as Coordinator of Labor Operations. At the NFL, Shea reviewed all player contracts to ensure compliance with League policies and the NFL CBA, advised club executives on player contract and salary cap issues, and was a speaker at the NFL Labor Seminar. He also performed as an Instant Replay Communicator for the NFL Officiating Department in 2007. While attending law school in 2005-06, Shea was a Scouting Consultant with the Dallas Cowboys overseeing the development of the team's scouting database. From 2000-04, he was the New York Jets' Pro Personnel Assistant. At the Jets, Shea managed the operations of the pro scouting department, scouted pro and college players, directed the development the pro scouting database, and performed player contract research. He broke into the NFL in 1995 as an operations/equipment intern for the Carolina Panthers. Shea worked in college football from 1992-2000 as the Football Recruiting Assistant at Boston College (1998-2000), the Asst. Offensive Line Coach for Harvard University (1997-98), and a Student Football Manager at Boston College (Head 1994-96, Varsity 1992-93). While at Harvard, he coached four future NFL players including Pro Bowl center Matt Birk. In 1991, Shea was as an assistant coach at Belmont (Mass.) High School.

In addition to his football experience, Shea has also been employed as a Law Clerk at the New York law firm of Colleran, O'Hara and Mills, and as a Temporary Corrections Officer in Middlesex County (Mass.) Sheriff's Department.

A native of Belmont, Mass., Shea was a varsity lineman at Belmont High School. He is also a graduate of Northfield Mount Hermon prep school. Shea received a B.A. in History from Boston College (which included classes at Harvard University). A member of the New York State Bar, Shea earned his J.D., with a concentration in labor and employment law, from the Hofstra University School of Law. He was President of the Hofstra Entertainment & Sports Law Society.

Shea and his wife, Kirsten, reside in Broward County.

Ryan Herman is entering his fifth season in the NFL and third with the Dolphins. He was promoted to Manager of Football Administration in July 2012 after serving as the club's Football Administration Coordinator from 2010-11. Herman's primary responsibilities include draft choice negotiations, assisting with the club's salary cap planning and management, and assisting in all veteran player contract negotiations. Herman is also responsible for daily NFL player contract and marketplace analysis, assisting with the club's player payroll management, conducting various statistical and salary cap related studies, providing strategic legal insight and analysis, and coordinating with the League regarding CBA compliance, player contracts and grievances.

While attending Cornell University's School of Industrial and Labor Relations, Herman served as a legal intern in the Labor Law Department of Proskauer Rose, L.L.P., where he provided litigation support to numerous Major League Baseball Clubs during player salary arbitration hearings. Upon graduating from Cornell in 2004, Herman enrolled at Hofstra University School of Law, where he focused on labor and employment law, and served as a law clerk for the NFL Management Council from 2006 to 2007. During his tenure at the NFLMC, Herman assisted League attorneys in all aspects of the grievance process, drafted various legal pleadings and memoranda, conducted numerous League-wide analyses and legal studies, and provided litigation support to League attorneys during arbitration hearings. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Herman was as an attorney with the firm Solferino & Solferino, L.L.P., and practiced commercial litigation in Mineola, New York.

Herman was born and raised in Northport, New York, where his mother (Kate) and two brothers (Taylor and Kyle) currently reside. He received a B.S. in industrial and labor relations from Cornell University, and earned his J.D., cum laude, from Hofstra University School of Law in 2007. He became a member of the New York State Bar in November 2008.

Ron Brockington is entering his seventh season as a member of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending the previous nine years in the player personnel department of the New York Jets, including the last seven as a scout. In his role with the Dolphins, Brockington is responsible for scouting the Mid-States portion of the United States.

Brockington started full-time with the Jets in 1997 when he worked in the team's personnel department. After two years as an assistant in player personnel, he was elevated to a scout for the 1999 season.

Brockington is a 1997 graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he lettered as a running back for three seasons (1994-96). He had his best year as a senior when he led the team with 776 yards rushing and six touchdowns on 123 attempts. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports management. During the summers while he was in college (1993-96), Brockington worked in the Jets' operations department where he served in a myriad of roles. From 1991-93, he worked in the club's equipment room as a student assistant. As a high school student, he also helped in the team's marketing department in the summer of 1990.

Brockington is a native of Hempstead, N.Y., where he was a two-time All-Long Island linebacker (1990-91) at Hempstead High School. He resides in Indianapolis with his wife, Aixa, daughters, Dajanae and Savaya, and son, Christopher.

Adam Engroff is entering his 14th season with the team and his ninth as a college scout after spending 2001 as the club's college scouting coordinator. In his current role, Engroff covers the western portion of the country in the team's scouting system.

Engroff first joined the Dolphins in 1999 in the team's college scouting department. During that time, he performed a myriad of functions, including college scouting and draft preparation. Prior to his tenure with the Dolphins, Engroff worked in football operations for the Orange Bowl Committee from 1998-99. He also worked for the Prep Recruiting Network from 1997-98, where he scouted high school football players.

A native of Topeka, Kansas, Engroff received his undergraduate degree from Kansas State in 1997. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration from Lynn University in Boca Raton, Fla., in 2000.

Engroff and his wife, Beth, reside in Boise, Idaho, with their sons, Austin and Brody.

Anthony Hunt is in his 19th season with the Dolphins and his 13th as a college scout. As one of the team's national scouts, Hunt oversees the Eastern half of the United States in the Dolphins' system. Hunt has covered the Southeast, Southwest, Northeast and parts of the Midwest as a regional scout in previous years. He was also the team's BLESTO representative his first few seasons as a college scout.

Hunt joined the Dolphins in 1994 following his graduation from St. Thomas University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports administration. Hunt served as a scouting assistant in both the college and pro personnel departments during his first six years with the club.

A Miami native, Hunt attended Archbishop Curley-Notre Dame High School. Hunt and his wife, Suzy, reside in Flemington, N.J., with their two sons, Keaton and Marshall and daughter, Jolie.

Ron Labadie enters his 23rd year of service with the Dolphins in 2011. He spent his first 11 years with the club (1990-2000) as a college scout before spending the next six (2001-06) as the team's Director of College Scouting. As one of the team's regional scouts, Labadie focuses on the East Coast with regional responsibilities in the states of Ohio and Michigan.

Labadie joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. In his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, the team posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and 1989, as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

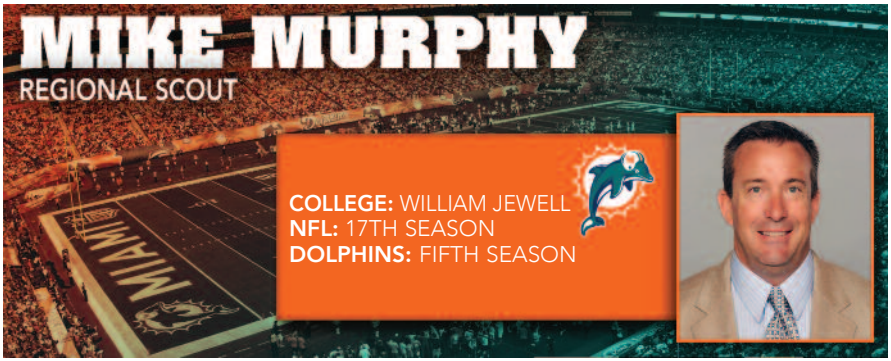

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall (Mich.) High School (1974-81), where he compiled a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and 1977.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilynn, have three children, Lisa (34), Brad (32) and Ben (27), and three grandsons, Gabe, Turner and Mason, and two granddaughters, Lucy and Grace.

THE LONGEST YARDS

Miami's 21-play, 92-yard drive vs. the New York Jets on January 1, 2012 was the longest scoring drive in terms of plays in franchise history. The previous team-long for a scoring drive was 18 plays, which happened three times (December 11, 2007 vs. Buffalo, September 17, 2008 at Arizona and December 27, 2009 vs. Houston). The drive against the Jets was also the longest scoring drive in team history in terms of time possession with 12 minutes and 29 seconds. The previous high was 10 minutes and 30 seconds vs. the Los Angeles Raiders on October 16, 1994.

Mike Murphy is entering his fifth season as a member of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending the previous three seasons as a national scout with the Dallas Cowboys (2005-07). Murphy is responsible for scouting the South in the Dolphins' system.

Murphy got his start in the NFL as a pro personnel assistant in the scouting department of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1996-99. He moved on to the role as Midwest scout with the Seattle Seahawks in 2000 and served five years in that post before joining the Cowboys in 2005.

Before entering the NFL scouting ranks, Murphy was a coach at both the professional and collegiate levels. He first served on the staff at Iowa State as a graduate assistant from 1990-91, while pursuing his master's degree in higher education. He moved on to Arizona Western for one season (1992) prior to a two-year stint at Bethel College in Tennessee (1993-94), where he was that school's offensive coordinator. Two years as linebackers and special teams coach with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian League (1995-96) preceded his move into NFL scouting. He also spent one year (1989) assisting in the personnel department of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers, where his father, Cal, was the General Manager and Head Coach. In fact, Mike's father was inducted into the CFL Hall of Fame in 2004 following a 26-year career as both a coach and general manager in the CFL (1974-99) during which time he led teams that claimed nine Grey Cup championships.

A native of Vancouver, British Columbia, Murphy earned his degree in physical education from William Jewell College. He and his wife, Camille, were married on May 3, 2008. They have two girls, Tyler and Morgan, and make their home in Sarasota, Fla.

Joe Schoen begins his fifth season as a part of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending his first seven years in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers.

Schoen joined the Panthers in May of 2001 as a scouting assistant and was promoted to Southeast National Combine Scout one year later. In 2003, he began to scout the Southwest in Carolina's system. Prior to joining the Panthers on a full-time basis, he interned in the team's ticket office in January of 2000 while also having worked in the club's training camp later that same year in football operations.

Schoen was a three-year letterman at DePauw University (1997-2000) where he played quarterback as a freshman and wide receiver his final three years. As a senior he was named the Thomas Mount Offensive Player of the Year while also being selected as a first-team All-Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference choice as he set the school single-season record for receptions with 80 (now 2nd). Overall in his collegiate career he amassed 153 receptions for 1,861 yards and 14 touchdowns. He ranks fifth in school history in receptions and sixth in receiving yards. Schoen, who earned his degree in communications from the Greencastle, Indiana school, also was named to the SCAC Academic Honor Roll his senior year.

A graduate of Elkhart (Ind.) Memorial High School, Schoen and his wife, Marie, have a daughter, Sydney Burke and a son Carson William.

Matt Winston enters his fifth season with the Dolphins and second in his current role as a regional scout. Winston will focus on the Southwest Region of the country under the Dolphins scouting system.

In 2010, he served as a pro scout and spent his first two seasons in Miami working in the player personnel department as a scouting assistant, where he performed a variety of functions to aid in the day-to-day operations of the department.

Prior to joining the Dolphins in 2008, Winston was the Director of Football Operations at Florida International University in 2007 and worked as a college scouting intern for the Houston Texans in 2006.

A native of Midland, Texas, Winston is a graduate of Texas A&M and earned his MBA at Florida Atlantic University. Winston and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Avery and Gracyn, and live in Frisco, Texas.

Adam Howe enters his fourth season with the Dolphins and first in his current role as a pro scout. Howe originally joined the Dolphins in 2009 as a scouting assistant. In that role, he monitored personnel moves throughout the NFL, evaluated college and professional players and managed player databases. Howe also performed advance scouting, managed league-wide depth charts and coordinated player workouts.

Howe earned a Bachelor of Science degree in finance at Bridgewater State. A four-year starter and two-year captain as a defensive back, Howe left the school ranked second all-time in interceptions with 14. He was also named the winner of the Bridgewater State Lee Harrington Unsung Hero Award as a senior. Howe moved to the sidelines to coach as a graduate assistant at Maine Maritime Academy in 2006. Howe then returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach in 2007 before his last collegiate stop at Springfield College as a graduate assistant wide receivers coach for the Pride during the 2008 season.

A native of Raynham, Mass., Howe is a graduate of Bridgewater-Raynham Regional High School. He resides in Davie, Fla.

Nate Sullivan is in his 16th season with the Dolphins and the tenth in his current role as a pro scout. He spent his first four seasons with the club (1997-2000) working in the team's pro personnel department, where he performed a variety of functions, including advance scouting and player evaluation.

A 1996 graduate of the University of California-Santa Barbara, Sullivan earned his master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami in 1998.

A native of Pleasant Hill, Calif., Sullivan and his wife, JoAnne, reside in Edgewater, Fla.

Kaleb Thornhill enters his third season as a member of the Dolphins in the role of Director of Player Engagement after spending an internship season in a similar capacity with the Detroit Lions. In his role, Thornhill assists players in a variety of off the field areas, while also helping the players in the transition process both into and out of the NFL through continuing education, financial education and providing assistance in dealing with family matters through player programs.

Thornhill joined the Dolphins from the Detroit Lions where he worked in the team's football operation and player development departments.

Prior to his time in Detroit, Thornhill served as graduate assistant to the athletics director at Michigan State University while earning his master's degree. During his time he created player development/mentor presentations that were shown to the athletics director and head director of student athlete support services and helped to develop a transition program for student-athletes.

Since joining the Dolphins, Thornhill has completed the NFL Athlete Develop Professional Certification Program conducted by the Wharton School Executive Education program.

Thornhill received his bachelor's degree from Michigan State in inner disciplinary studies in human resources in 2007 and his master's degree from the university in kinesiology, with a concentration in sports administration in 2009. A four-year letterman with the MSU Spartan football team, Thornhill started three years at middle linebacker. A team captain in 2007, he was also named as a four-time All-Academic Big Ten selection. Thornhill recorded 227 career tackles with 20.5 yards for losses in his collegiate career. He was named Michigan State's Potsy Ross Scholar/Athlete Award in 2007, an award is given to the team's top senior scholar-athlete.

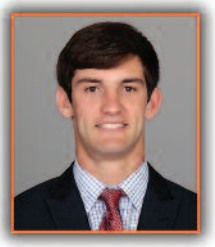

A native of Lansing, Michigan, Thornhill's late father, Charlie, played on Michigan State's back-to-back Big Ten championship teams in 1965-66, while his brother, Josh, was a four year starter at linebacker for the Spartans from 1998-2001.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

Kevin O'Neill joined the Dolphins on March 1, 1996, as Head Athletic Trainer after serving seven seasons in a similar capacity with the Dallas Cowboys. Along with Troy Maurer, Noahisa Inoue and Jon Andino, O'Neill is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of Dolphins players in coordination with the club's medical staff.

In 2006, O'Neill and his staff were recognized by their peers as the "Athletic Training Staff of the Year" by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

With the Cowboys, O'Neill was a part of three Super Bowl Championship teams. He was also a member of a National Championship club during his four years (1985-89) as head athletic trainer at the University of Miami.

O'Neill spent three years as the assistant athletic trainer at the University of Tennessee, three years as the head athletic trainer at Oregon State, and one year at the University of Central Florida prior to joining the University of Miami.

Ahter graduating from the University of Pittsburgh, O'Neill earned his master's degree in athletic training from the University of Arizona while serving as the athletic trainer for Catalina High School in Tucson, Ariz.

A Pittsburgh native, O'Neill and his wife, Anne, have two daughters, McKenzie and Kaitlyn, and live in Fort Lauderdale.

Troy Maurer is entering his 21st season as Assistant Trainer with the Dolphins, having joined the organization in 1992. Along with Jon Andino, Naohisa Inoue and under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Kevin O'Neill, he assists with the day-to-day training room operation and the rehabilitation of injured Dolphins players.

Following the 2011 season, Maurer was named as the AFC Tim Davey Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. Maurer is the second recipient of the honor, which recognizes one assistant athletic trainer from each conference.

As voted by the members of the PFATS, this award is emblematic of the commitment, dedication and high level of integrity that Tim Davey brought to the field of athletic training and is representative of his level of service which he dedicated to his surrounding community.

In 2006, Maurer was part of the staff that was recognized by their peers as the "Athletic Training Staff of the Year" by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

A graduate of Purdue University, Maurer began his NFL career by serving undergraduate internships with both the Indianapolis Colts and New York Jets. Upon graduation from Purdue, he accepted a seasonal athletic trainer position with the Colts in 1989 before being hired by Doctors' Hospital in Coral Gables as an athletic trainer in the physical therapy department in 1990. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Maurer was Head Basketball Athletic Trainer and Assistant Football Athletic Trainer at Kansas State University during the 1990-91 and 1991-92 seasons.

A native of Lafayette, Indiana, Maurer and his wife, Jill, live in Coral Springs with their son, Luke, and daughter, Laura.

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor, and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals, and various other functions.

An eight-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. has also performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, and he was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score a "T.D." at your next event, please e-mail JQuadrozzi@dolphins.com.

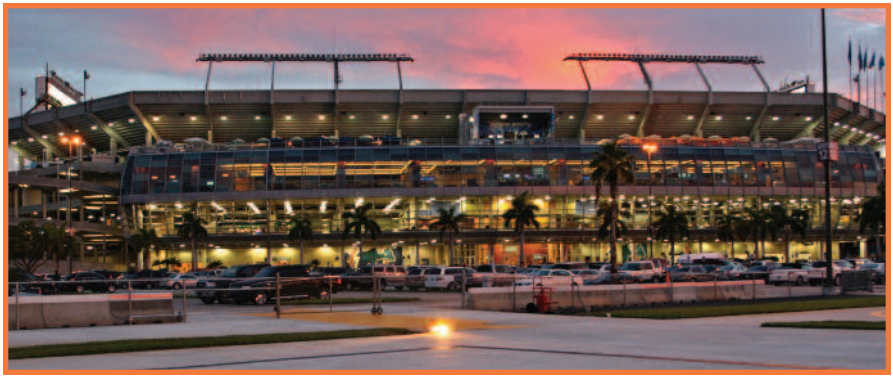

FLIPPER

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins score a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dan Marino.

SUN LIFE STADIUM

With 25 years as one of the nation's premier sports facilities, Sun Life Stadium is South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins, University of Miami Hurricanes, Discover Orange Bowl game, the 2013 BCS National Championship, and other world-class events. This multi-purpose, open-air complex hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to five Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

In 2007, the stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, new leading edge technology and superior amenities. Additional enhancements were made in 2009 with the refurbishment of concession stands, installation of flat-screen TV's, renovation of the end zone executive suites, and the creation of the sideline club and lounge among many others. In 2010, new corporate offices were built on the east side of the Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972, was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the new offices.

HISTORY

Now in its 26th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, multi-purpose, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing 115 million dollars when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. Since 1991, more than 80 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls staged at Land Shark Stadium are Super Bowl XXIX (January 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (January 31, 1999) and Super Bowl XLI (February 4, 2007).

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers. On September 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at Sun Life Stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins drop a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on October 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Sun Life Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm, dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rainfall.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in January 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by owner Wayne Huizenga. In April 2006, Dolphins Enterprises CEO Joe Bailey announced and unveiled the new stadium logo and modified name. The stadium was named Dolphin Stadium and a new modern looking dolphin in orange, teal, blue and platinum colors with the words Dolphin Stadium was unveiled as the new stadium logo. Also unveiled were the two hi-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006. The installation of the new technology was just the beginning of a historic transformation.

Working with HOK Sport and Stiles Construction, both renowned in their respective fields of venue design and construction, the stadium completed a $250 million improvements and innovations project that included the addition of 360,000 square feet of enclosed space, new casual sitting and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new Club Level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities.

In 2008, H. Wayne Huizenga sold fifty percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of the Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Mr. Huizenga remained the Managing General Partner of the franchise until he sold another forty-five percent of the team and stadium to Ross in January, 2009. Ross becomes General Managing Partner with 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retains a five percent share of both and remains a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May, 2009, Mr. Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announce that Dolphin Stadium will be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brings Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performs three songs and unveils the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS", written expressly for the team.

On January 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the leading international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation. The partnership's impact will be felt beyond the stadium and into the South Florida community. The two organizations have teamed up to bring the Sun Life Rising Star Awards program to South Florida through an annual donation to the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 347 Don Shula Drive in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160-acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Sun Life Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football, University of Miami college football, the stadium is home to the Discover Orange Bowl (which played host to the national championship game following the 1997, 2000, 2004 and 2008 seasons). The stadium has hosted five Super Bowls, including Super Bowl XLIV and the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003.

The stadium also hosted the Florida high school class 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A state championship football games in 2005, 2006 and 2007, international soccer, Monster Jam, lacrosse competition as well as various festivals and trade shows.

Numerous concerts have also been performed at the stadium, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2, 'N Sync, The Police, the Black Eyed Peas and Madonna.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Sun Life Stadium's 190 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The 10, 12, 16, 20, 24 and 32-seat suites offer air conditioning and DirecTV access with NFL Sunday Ticket, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Suite attendants provide personal service in each suite during the games. Centerplate caters the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 Club Level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars, a variety of concession areas, sit-down restaurants and a Sports Fantasy Lounge. The protective overhang is also a unique element of the Club Level seats.

LIV SUN LIFE STADIUM

The South Beach experience made its way to Sun Life Stadium and Dolphins football games in 2010. More than 400 seats and 17 suites in the 300 and 200 levels of the stadium were cleared out to create the 10,000 square foot LIV Sun Life Stadium that has the look and feel of the LIV nightclub at the Fontainebleau Miami Beach hotel. Complete with a pair of bars, private cabanas and tables, dance floor and DJ booth, the space overlooks the west end zone and created a nightclub experience for the fan before, during and after the game.

DUFFY'S HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Located in the east end zone area of the Club Level, the Duffy's Hall of Champions allows groups of 50 to 150 to experience a Miami Dolphins football or other event in style. In addition to Club Level amenities and entertainment, the Hall of Champions offers luxurious oversized seats, an exquisite buffet, a full bar with bartender, a private elevator, 21 televisions and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities, managed by Centerplate, are available on all levels and include the Everglades BBQ, Papa Johns and Edy's Ice Cream. On the Club Level, premium food stations feature delicacies such as sushi, coal-fire pizza, hand-carved sandwiches, sauté dishes, fresh baked desserts and much more.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Sun Life Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience through its commitment to technology, entertainment and customer service. Additional improvements and innovations will take place every year to maintain the stadium as the premier showplace of the Americas.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years there, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

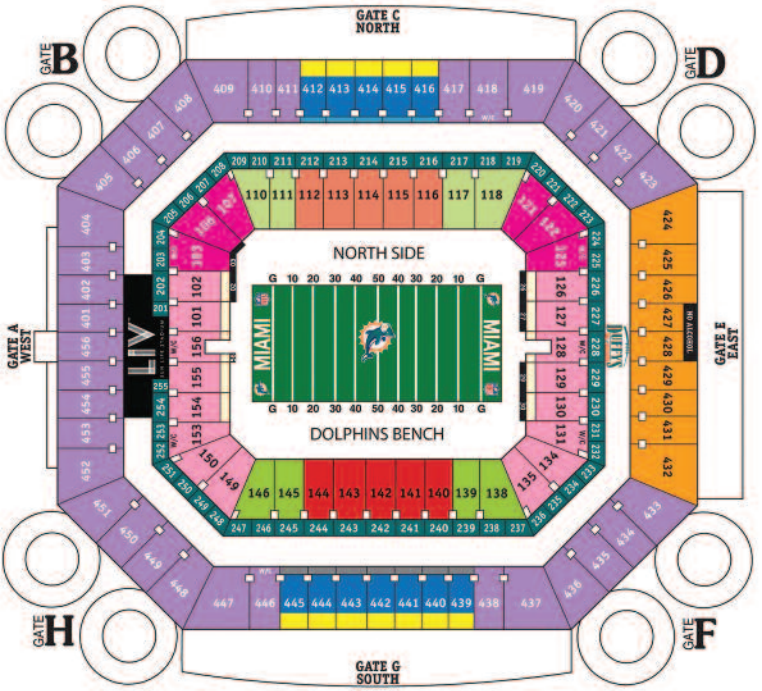

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the OB home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on November 10, 2007, when they dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on December 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on January 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

DOLPHINS TRAINING FACILITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University in Miami.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 98,452 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include a full-size kitchen and dining lounge, player lounge, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Sun Life Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

The Dolphins also now have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of a "Twenty-Four/Seven" grass-like synthetic turf, manufactured by The Motz Group.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Sun Life Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova Southeastern can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop, ticket windows and rest rooms.

K DAN CARPENTER . . .
– With 443 points, he needs 67 points to join kickers Uwe von Schamann (540 points), Pete Stoyanovich (774), Garo Yepremian (830) and Olindo Mare (1,048) as the only players in Dolphins history with 500 career points.

LB KARLOS DANSBY . . .
– With 822 tackles, he needs 78 tackles to record 900 tackles in his NFL career.

LS JOHN DENNEY . . .
– Having played in 112 consecutive games, needs to play in all 16 games to reach 128 consecutive games played and tie Jim Langer (128 straight games) for the second-longest streak in Dolphins history, surpassing Olindo Mare (116), Richmond Webb (118), Bob Baumhower (125), Garo Yepremian (127), behind only Jason Taylor (130).

TE ANTHONY FASANO . . .
– With 1,772 receiving yards as a member of the Dolphins, he needs 228 yards to become just the third tight end in Dolphins history to surpass 2,000 career receiving yards, joining Bruce Hardy (2,455 yards) and Keith Jackson (3,096).
– With 18 receiving touchdowns as a member of the Dolphins, he needs eight TDs to become the team's all-time leader among Dolphins tight ends, surpassing Jim Mandich (23) and Bruce Hardy (25).

WR CHAD JOHNSON . . .
– With 766 career receptions, needs 34 catches to become just the 25th player in NFL history to record 800 career catches.
– With 11,059 career receiving yards, needs 941 yards to become just the 20th player in NFL history to record 12,000 career receiving yards.
– With 67 career receiving touchdowns, needs three scores to record 70 career receiving touchdowns.

T JAKE LONG . . .

– With a Pro Bowl selection, he would have five selections for his career and join center Dwight Stephenson (5, 1983-87), guard Bob Kuechenberg (6, 1974-75, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (6, 1973-78) and tackle Richmond Webb (7, 1990-96) as the only offensive linemen in team history to have five or more career Pro Bowl selections.

– With a Pro Bowl selection, he would have earned Pro Bowl recognition for the fifth consecutive season and join linebacker Zach Thomas (5, 1999-2003), linebacker John Offerdahl (5, 1986-90), quarterback Dan Marino (5, 1983-87), center Dwight Stephenson (5, 1983-87), safety Jake Scott (5, 1971-75), wide receiver Paul Warfield (5, 1970-74) and fullback Larry Csonka (5, 1970-74) as the only other players with five consecutive Pro Bowl selections, behind only center Jim Langer (6, 1973-78) and tackle Richmond Webb (7, 1990-96).

QB DAVID GARRARD . . .

– With 89 career touchdown passes, needs 11 passing TDs to record 100 touchdowns in his NFL career.

CB RICHARD MARSHALL . . .

– With 96 career games played, needs to play in four games to reach 100 game played for his career.

DOLPHINS ARE AMONG THE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are third, behind the Pittsburgh Steelers, for highest regular season winning percentage in the NFL with a record of 385-261-2 (.596). In addition, the Dolphins have the third-highest overall winning percentage over that time span (behind the Pittsburgh Steelers and Dallas Cowboys) with an overall mark of 407-284-2 (.589).

FINS FACT

Ryan and his wife, Susanah, established the Ryan Baker Foundation in the spring of 2010. With a focus on health, education, sports and mental well being, the foundation works to provide programs and opportunities that make a positive impact on every participant. "The Ryan Baker Foundation is my way of giving back," Ryan said. "We exist, solely, to generate funds and create opportunities for children less fortunate, with every single dime that we raise going to those kids. We have recently teamed up with a foster center where we will be working with foster children that are aging out of the system. It has been so rewarding to look back and see the progress and impact we have made in just three years, it's makes me really excited about the future."

FINS FACT Dan and his wife, Kaela, helped organize "A Prom To Remember," this past off-season which allowed for young cancer patients to experience the thrill of attending a prom. Dan and some of his Dolphins teammates served as escorts to the young ladies at The Ritz-Carlton on Fort Lauderdale Beach, walking down the red carpet in the Ritz lobby with their dates. After some time posing for pictures, the star-struck teens headed inside the ballroom for hours of dancing, dinner and entertainment. "It's a great chance for kids who are going through so much more than most of us can imagine to have some fun and dance a little bit," Dan said. "They get to really experience a prom atmosphere."

PRO CAREER CAREER PRO BOWL SELECTIONS: 1 (2009)

Hit from 50, 35, and 27 yards out before missing from 48 yards which ended a streak of 14 straight field goals made, which tied the NFL record for most consecutive FGs made by a rookie . . . His 50-yard field goal was the fourth 50-yard field goal by a Dolphins rookie in the regular season and the fifth overall, including playoffs . . . For his efforts against Buffalo he was named as AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the games of Dec. 7-8 . . . In the AFC Wild Card Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/4/09), accounted for three of the nine Dolphins points with a 19-yard field goal . . .

ROOKIE MARKS: Starting with the game vs. Buffalo on Oct. 26 and continuing until a miss on Dec. 7 against Buffalo in Toronto, Carpenter made 14 consecutive field goals, eight of which came from longer than 40 yards out . . . His 14 straight field goals are the longest consecutive field goals made streak by a rookie in Dolphins history, surpassing the previous record of ten straight FGs, set by Uwe von Schamann in his rookie season in 1979:

LONGEST FIELD GOAL STREAK, DOLPHIN ROOKIE

PLAYER	CONSECUTIVE FGS	YEAR	GAMES
1. DAN CARPENTER	14	2008	7-13
2. Uwe von Schamann	10	1979	9-15
3. Pete Stoyanovich	8	1989	5-9

His 14 straight field goals also is tied for the longest consecutive field goal streak by a rookie in NFL history, tying the previous record of 14 straight FGs, set by Ali Haji-Sheikh in his rookie season of 1983 with the New York Giants:

MOST CONSECUTIVE FIELD GOALS BY AN NFL ROOKIE

FINS FACT

Nolan's discipline, both on and of the field, comes from his parents who were both members of the military. Nolan's father, Nolan, Sr., served in the Air Force, where he earned the rank of senior master sergeant. His mother, Jennifer, served in the Navy, where she became a lieutenant commander. Mrs. Carroll turned in 20 years of military service and left the Navy with a long list of achievements which includes a Meritorious Service Medal; two Navy Commendation Medals; two Navy Achievement Medals; a National Defense Service Medal; an Overseas Ribbon; two Coast Guard Special Operation Ribbons; and finally an Expert Pistol Medal. Adding to her resume, she is now Florida's lieutenant governor after spending seven years as a state legislator and also serving as executive director of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs. "My parents take pride in that they served their country," Carroll said. "It's something they taught me as well, to respect your country, respect other people that put you in a position that you are today because (if not) for those people that have been in the military, that are fighting for us right now, we wouldn't be here right now."

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

Dwight Stephenson

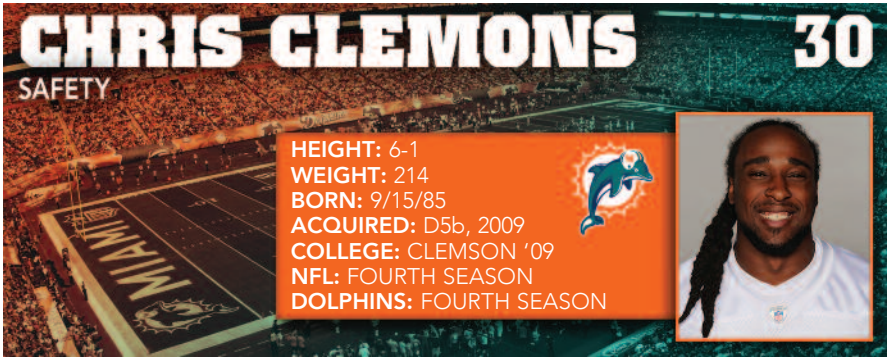

Dan Marino

Jason Taylor

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only six teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. Kansas City has had five players win the award, while Chicago, Pittsburgh and San Diego have each had four players recognized as the NFL Man of the Year, while Miami and Cincinnati both boast three award winners.

FINS FACT

One of the fastest Dolphins, Chris ran a 4.4 in the 40-yard dash at the NFL Scouting Combine in 2009. However, it was years earlier on his hometown streets of Arcadia, Fla., that he earned the nickname that still sticks to this day. Following a race when he beat a local speedster multiple times, Chris was given the nickname "'deer'" when an onlooker complimented him following his victory by exclaiming, "You run like a deer," and the name has stuck from that day on.

Vontae, along with his brother, San Francisco 49ers tight end, Vernon, recently formed their own charity foundation, The Davis Family Foundation, with proceeds going to support the arts, mothers and fathers that are battling addiction and to encouraging kids to stay healthy and active. This past offseason, the brothers travelled on a relief trip to the war-torn countries of Uganda and Rwanda on the continent of Africa. They went along with several fellow NFL players representing Pros For Africa, to provide much needed food, clean drinking water, hearing aids, shoes and clothes, medical and dental care, financial assistance and more to women and children who've been victimized and orphaned. "You have to look back and recognize the people that don't have the opportunity that we had," Vontae said. "As a kid I used to see those shows on Africa and how they needed help and supplies and I always wanted to be one of those people to actually go there and help them out."

FINS FACT

After graduating from high school in 1997, John spent two years serving a Spanish-speaking Church mission to Morristown, New Jersey. That experience taught him one major lesson in life. "Rejection," he says. "Day after day, you try to do your best. Some days go smoother than others, but sometimes people don't open their doors to you. You can't blame them. You've got to understand and do all you can do to just control what you can control, and the rest will fall into place."

Pat umpired little league baseball games in Happy Valley, Pa. during his free time while at Penn State. He always had to be on his toes as several of the kids had parents who were involved with Penn St. football in some capacity. If he made a questionable call there was a chance he'd hear about it on the way to practice. "I got to umpire some of the kids of the Penn St. coaching staff," Pat said. "The head strength coach was at a couple of the games, so that was pretty intense when you have to strike out his son. But it was a lot of fun."

This past season as part of the Anthony Fasano Foundation, Anthony booked "30 Rock" star Tracy Morgan for a comedy show, which benefited the non-profit organization Rebuilding Together: Veterans Housing. The organization was created to meet the growing needs of veterans from past and present wars and works to preserve affordable home ownership and revitalize communities. It also provides home repair services for retired and active service members by increasing the home's accessibility, enabling veterans to live independently and safely in their own homes. "I have always wanted to do an event that benefits military families," Anthony said. "I am so happy that I can accomplish this goal with the first of my Foundation's events being held in Miami."

	ANTHONY FASANO	VS. N.Y. JETS	SEPT. 7, 2008	8

 Playoff game*

In that contest against the Jets, Fasano combined with fellow tight end David Martin, who recorded four catches for 53 yards and one TD, for a total of 12 catches for 137 yards and two touchdowns . . . The 12 receptions were the second-most ever by a Dolphins tight end tandem, behind only the 14 combined of Jensen (12) and Ferrell Edmunds (2) at New England on Nov. 6, 1988 . . . With Fasano and Martin each catching a touchdown pass, it was the first time two Dolphins tight ends caught at least one TD pass apiece in the same game since October 29, 2005 at Buffalo when McMichael and Will Heller each had a TD catch . . . Recorded three catches for team-high 66 yards and one touchdown at New England (9/21), with the touchdown coming on a 19-yard option pass from Ronnie Brown . . . His TD reception from Brown was the first completion by a non-quarterback for the Dolphins since Marty Booker tossed a 48-yard completion to Chris Chambers vs. St. Louis on Oct. 24, 2004 . . . It was the first touchdown pass by a non-quarterback for the Dolphins since Terry Kirby tossed a 31-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar at New England on Sept. 19, 1995 . . . Hauled in two catches for 17 yards and one touchdown vs. Buffalo (10/26), his touchdown came on a two-yard TD grab from Chad Pennington . . . Continued to be a reliable receiver as he had three catches for 36 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass, vs. Buffalo in Toronto (12/7) . . . Recorded three catches for 47 yards and a career-high two touchdown receptions, coming on two 14-yard TD passes from Chad Pennington, at Kansas City (12/21) . . . It was the first time a Dolphins tight end had two touchdown catches in the same game since Oct. 14, 2007 when David Martin had TD receptions of 14 and four yards . . . Overall, Fasano became the eighth Dolphins tight end to have two TD catches in a game, a feat which has happened 12 times in the regular season and 16 times overall, including playoffs . . . With David Martin also catching a touchdown pass in the Chiefs game, it was the third time two Dolphins tight ends caught at least one TD pass apiece in the same game in 2008 . . . Had three catches for 39 yards and one touchdown at N.Y. Jets (12/28), as the Dolphins captured the AFC East Division title . . . His touchdown reception, coming on a 20-yard pass from Chad Pennington, was Fasano's seventh of the year, tying Keith Jackson (1994) for the team record for most TD catches by a Dolphins tight end in a season . . . Started and played but did not record a reception vs. Baltimore (1/4/09) during the AFC Wild Card playoff game . . .

AMONG DOLPHINS TIGHT ENDS: With seven touchdown receptions in 2008, Fasano is tied for the highest single-season total of touchdown catches by a tight end in Dolphins history, along with Keith Jackson, who had seven TD catches in 1994:

MOST SINGLE-SEASON TD RECEPTIONS BY A DOLPHIN TIGHT END

	PLAYER	YEAR	TD RECEPTIONS
1.	Keith Jackson	1994	7
	ANTHONY FASANO	2008	7
3.	Jim Mandich	1974	6
	Keith Jackson	1993	6

In addition, with Fasano's seven scoring catches, along with three by David Martin and one by Joey Haynos, the 11 total TD receptions the trio accounted for is tied for the highest total of TD receptions by Dolphins tight ends in a single season:

2007 - Played in all 16 regular season games, including six starts with Dallas . . . Caught 14 passes for 143 yards and a touchdown . . . Blocking was critical as the Cowboys averaged 4.2 yards per rush attempt, including a 4.8-yard mark by Marion Barber (204-975) . . . Of his 14 catches on the year, six were good for a first down . . . Accounted for a season-long 26-yard reception vs. New England (10/14) . . . Tied that season-long vs. Green Bay (11/29), as his 26-yarder that day was good for his first career touchdown as the Cowboys went on for a 37-27 victory over the Packers . . . In finale at Washington (12/30) had three receptions for 15 yards . . . Started Divisional Playoff game vs. N.Y. Giants (1/13/08) and caught one pass for five yards.

2006 - Played in all 16 regular season games with five starts . . . Totaled 14 receptions for 126 yards . . . Blocking proved key as Julius Jones rushed for 1,084 yards . . . Started opener at Jacksonville (9/10), becoming just the third rookie tight end in club history to start in the opener . . . In second career outing, vs. Washington (9/17), tallied his first NFL receptions with three catches for 39 yards . . . Also had three catches (11 yards) at Carolina (10/29) . . . Had a season-long 22-yard reception vs. Indianapolis (11/19) . . . Played in a reserve role in First-Round Playoff game at Seattle (1/6/07) . . . Did not have any receptions.

COLLEGE

Played three years at Notre Dame (2003-05) during which time he tallied 92 receptions for 1,112 yards and eight touchdowns . . . Ranks second among tight ends on the Notre Dame all-time list for both receptions and receiving yards . . . As a senior, he was one of three finalists for the John Mackey Award as college football's top tight end . . . That year, he put together career-high figures of 47 catches and 576 yards . . . Had a reception in each of his final 20 collegiate appearances . . . Did not play as a freshman in 2002 . . . Graduated with a degree in marketing.

DOLPHINS POST THREE PLAYOFF SHUTOUTS

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the seven AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the New York Jets (41-0 over the Indianapolis Colts on January 4, 2003), Oakland Raiders (27-0 over the Miami Dolphins on January 6, 2001), the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

FINS FACT

In 2004, after experiencing severe stomach and chest pains, David was diagnosed with Crohn's disease, an inflammatory bowel disease. He founded the David Garrard Foundation in 2009, a non-profit organization that encourages local youth to live an active and healthy lifestyle in addition to supporting research and awareness of Crohn's disease and colitis. David partnered with the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America in 2005 to help raise awareness for the disease and he started the "In the Zone for Crohn's" program in conjunction with Centocor, which donated $10,000 to CCFA on his behalf for every touchdown he accounted for from 2008-10 which has helped raise more than $350,000 to CCFA. "When I learned how many children suffer from Crohn's disease I decided I had to speak out more to raise awareness and prove to them we can fight this and win," David said. "When a kid feels like they have been defeated, I try to inspire them to keep working towards their dreams. If I won't let Crohn's get the best of me, then I certainly won't let it get the best of these kids."

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005 to Friday, October 21 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma, it was not the first time the club had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons. In fact, that marked the third straight year and fourth time in five seasons this occurred.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game six times, and the Dolphins are 3-3 in such games. The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

Original Date, Venue	Opponent	New Date, Venue	Reason	Result
9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stadium	New England	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17
10/26/97, Pro Player Stadium	Chicago	10/27/97, PPS	World Series	Bears, 36-33, OT
9/16/01, Pro Player Stadium	Buffalo	1/6/02, PPS	9/11	Dolphins, 34-7
10/27/03, Qualcomm Stadium	San Diego	10/27/03, Sun Devil	California Wildfires	Dolphins, 26-10
9/12/04, Pro Player Stadium	Tennessee	9/11/04, PPS	Hurricane Ivan	Titans, 17-7
10/23/05, Dolphins Stadium	Kansas City	10/21/05, DS	Hurricane Wilma	Chiefs, 30-20

FINS FACT

Clyde took an unusual route to the NFL. He quit football after his freshman year at Vernon (Texas) High School to concentrate on basketball, where he was a standout point guard. He walked on the basketball team at Tyler Junior College, but he left school after not appearing in any games in 2004-05. His high school coach set up tryouts for him with Georgia Tech and Georgetown, but Clyde could not afford the airfare and he returned home to Vernon. While home, he met the secondary coach at Abilene Christian, a Division II school, and he enrolled there in 2007 with his cousin and an old junior college friend, Johnny Knox, who now plays receiver for the Chicago Bears. Gates walked on the football team despite not having played for six years, and became a full-time starter in 2009, his junior year. "It's a blessing," Gates said. "It's just part of a plan. I really had no control over (my situation)," Gates said. "I was just trailing my cousin. They talked me into it, and I just went for it, and it kind of worked out for the better."

PRO CAREER

FINS FACT

Gary was host of the third Annual Coastal Georgia Pro Sports Festival, which was held on June 24-25, 2012 in his hometown of Hinesville, Ga. The weekend consisted of the Great Amazing Race, which provided kids with an opportunity to pair up with a parent, grandparent, sibling or mentor and experience the thrill of running in a fun and exciting environment, as well as a free football and cheerleader camp, that featured Gary and his friends from around the NFL. "This was my opportunity to give back to the kids in Coastal Georgia," Gary said. "Along with teaching skills, we also focused on encouraging kids to work hard in the classroom and to say no to negative influences."

BROTHERS FIRST

Dolphins center Mike Pouncey (2011, 15th overall) and his brother, center Maurkice (2010, 18th overall, Pittsburgh), are just the fourth pair of siblings to both be drafted in the first round. The Pounceys join cornerback Vontae (2009, 25th overall, Miami) and tight end Vernon (2006, sixth overall, San Francisco) Davis; quarterback Eli (2004, 1st overall, San Diego/Traded to New York Giants) and quarterback Peyton (1998, 1st overall, Indianapolis) Manning and defensive end Jerome (2003, 15th overall, Philadelphia) and tackle Stocker (2000, 20th overall, Detroit) McDougle.

FINS FACT

Brian brings an successful track background to his play as a wide receiver with the Dolphins. While at GlenOak High School in Canton, Ohio, he ran track for three years and won state titles in both the 110-meter and the 300-meter hurdles as a senior. Brian followed his prep success by participating in both indoor and outdoor track in 2008 at Ohio State, finishing seventh at Big Ten 2008 indoor championships in the 60-meter hurdles. Brian uses basic track concepts in his current job, applying running techniques to route running. "The more you master the smallest details," Hartline said, "the better you can be. It's amazing what goes into it."

* - Overtime

FINS FACT Versatility has been a key to Artis' nine NFL seasons, which has seen him start games at every offensive line spot except center, including left guard for Philadelphia in Super Bowl XXXIX. "When I came into the league, I could only play left tackle," Hicks said. "I learned how to play left guard, and then when I moved to Minnesota, I learned how to play right guard and right tackle. It wasn't always the easiest at times, but it was a blessing in disguise. Wherever I line up, I just try to go out there and do the best that I can."

FINS FACT

Chad, a star soccer player in his youth and an avid fan of powerhouse Real Madrid, announced on March 16, 2011 that he would have a four-day trial for Sporting Kansas City of Major League Soccer. His trial began on March 23 and he was asked to play in a reserve game against the Kansas City Brass, a local development team on March 25. It was his first organized soccer outing since the 10th grade. While he was not offered a contract by the team, he was given the chance to train with the reserve side to stay in shape. "It's been a dream come true for me to be on the pitch with so many of these guys who are elite athletes at the top of their game," Chad said. "I'm satisfied. My dream has been answered, to be able to come onto the pitch and play for an MLS team. It didn't have to be against someone professional. Just to be out there was enough for me. I can go home. I can die tomorrow and be satisfied. I can go to heaven and tell God, 'Man, I played professional soccer and I'm good.'"

FINS FACT

After being drafted in the sixth round of the 2009 draft by the Chiefs as a wide receiver, Quinten did a little of everything as a rookie, spending about a month on the practice squad but appearing in six games with one start at receiver. In all, he totaled one catch for nine yards, two rushes for 42 yards, 16 kickoffs for 317 yards (19.8 avg.) and five special-teams tackles. But it was during the 2010 season while on Kansas City's practice squad that Quinten began his transformation to playing cornerback. By the 2011 training camp, Quinten had been fully converted to cornerback and totaled 10 tackles in the preseason. "When you play receiver it's a little different, but learning cornerback has made me more aggressive," Quinten said. "I have a different mindset and mentality on defense."

This past off-season, Jake and teammates took part in a special Valentine's Day for the homeless residents of the COSAC Foundation in Hollywood, Fla. Jake stood behind a counter and picked up hamburgers with his spatula and answered occasional football questions along the way. "Whenever we can do something like this it's great," Jake said. "I really wanted to do this just to help the people going through hard times and to spend a day like Valentine's Day with them and give them a little bit of our time and give them some food. They're so appreciative and the smiles on their faces shows just how much enjoyment they are getting out of us being here."

LONG IMPACT

In 2008, Jake Long became just the fourth overall No. 1 selection, since 1970 when the AFL and NFL merged, to play in the Pro Bowl following his rookie campaign. He was the first since New Orleans Saints running back George Rogers, who accomplished the feat in 1981. Long joins the exclusive company of Rogers, Houston Oilers running back Earl Campbell (1978) and Detroit Lions running back Billy Sims (1980), who were each selected to the annual NFL all star game after being the top selection. Long has started all 47 games at left tackle for the Dolphins since becoming the first overall pick in the 2008 NFL draft, and joins Richmond Webb (1992-1995) as the only Dolphins offensive tackles to be named a Pro Bowl starter. Long becomes the first Dolphins offensive lineman selected to four straight Pro Bowls since Webb was named to seven straight Pro Bowls (1990-96).

FINS FACT

Ryan was successful both on the football field and in academics both at Grinnell (Iowa) High School as well as at University of Northern Iowa. He graduated high school with a 4.0 grade point average and was the recipient of the Academic Excellence Award all four years. In college, Ryan was recognized on the "ESPN The Magazine" Academic All-District team in 2009 and was a Missouri Valley Football Conference All-Academic pick in 2010. "I never thought about playing in the NFL when I was in high school, all I cared about was getting good grades - and that dedication and hard work eventually paid off on the football field," Ryan said. "You may be a good athlete, but the skills you hone in the classroom will help you achieve success for the rest of your life."

FINS FACT

Richard has been known for making the big play throughout his NFL career as witnessed by his 17 interceptions, the tenth most in the NFC from 2006-11, nine fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and two touchdowns during his six NFL seasons. But it is a play from a 2008 preseason game that has garnered Richard the most notoriety. While with Carolina, he intercepted a fake field goal flick from the holder to the kicker and ran it back for a touchdown as the NFL Network voted that play as the number one play of the 2008 preseason.

DOLPHINS PRO BOWL TOUCHDOWNS

In the 2012 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Brandon Marshall caught a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns and was named as the game's MVP. Prior to that, the most recent Dolphin to have accounted for a touchdown in the Pro Bowl was wide receiver Chris Chambers, who scored on a 16-yard reception from Peyton Manning in the first quarter to open the 2006 game's scoring. Other Dolphins scoring Pro Bowl touchdowns include running back Ricky Williams, who scored on a pair of one-yard runs as he was named the MVP in the AFC's 45-20 route of the NFC in the 2003 game, wide receiver Mark Clayton, who caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Buffalo's Jim Kelly in the 1991 game, tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who had a five-yard scoring reception from Seattle's Dave Krieg in the 1989 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest.

FINS FACT

NFL players need motivation and sometimes it comes when you least expect it. Such was the case for Tony, an undrafted free agent in training camp with the Jaguars in 2006. "In high school, I wasn't one of the top players in the nation," Tony said. "In college, I wasn't really one of the top players. I've always been a guy that people say has potential. So when the head coach at the time, Jacksonville's Jack del Rio, comes and says 'You're a good player' and 'You can do all this if you just work on a couple of things,' to a guy who hadn't even made the team yet, it was kind of the confidence booster that made me believe that I can do this."

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005-10) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy (1968) and fullback Kantroy (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to both be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, quarterback George Wilson, Jr., played with the Dolphins in 1966 under his father, George, Sr., who was the team's head coach. Also, there have been two father-son coaching tandems in franchise history, as both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don.

FINS FACT

Koa and Dolphins assistant strength and conditioning coach Dave Puloka are third cousins, yet they had no idea of their connection until Koa returned from a celebratory dinner back in Utah with some distant relatives he'd barely even met when they were able to connect the dots. As best the families can establish, the connection dates back to Melenaite Misi, Koa's paternal grandmother, and Latu Puloka, the coach's late grandfather. "I don't give him any special treatment or anything," Puloka said. "If anything I might be harder on him. I joke with him a little bit. I'll say, 'If you slack off, I might call up your grandmother and tell on you.'"

FINS FACT

Marlon understands the hard work it takes to make it onto an NFL roster. Originally signed by the Dolphins as an undrafted college free agent out of Fresno State on April 30, 2010, Marlon still uses that status as a motivation to improve in all aspects of his game. "It's a long journey, knowing that you have to come from the bottom to the top," Marlon said. "Sometimes you don't even make it to the top. You make it to the mid-level. It's a journey that helps you in the long run. It makes you tenacious and gives you a chip on your shoulder when you know you have to outperform everybody else, whether they are a draft pick or a veteran. I still play like I have a chip on my shoulder trying to better myself everyday."

A PERFECT MOMENT IN TIME

On January 31, 2010, prior to kickoff of the Pro Bowl game played at Sun Life Stadium, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment In Time" statue in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula. The 10-foot tall bronze sculpture of Shula riding on the shoulders of Hall-of-Fame linebacker Nick Buoniconti and reserve guard Al Jenkins after winning Super Bowl VII to complete the Perfect Season was unveiled in front of the team's new corporate headquarters at Gate E at Sun Life Stadium. The event marked the return of the Dolphins front office to Miami-Dade County after 16 years. Additionally on that day, the stadium new address was announced as 347 Don Shula Drive in honor of the head coach's career victory total.

FINS FACT During the 2011 season, Jared celebrated his quarterback sacks with his own version of the Pee-Wee Herman "Tequila" dance that the comedian made famous a quarter century ago. The dance was something his family requested as Jared did something similar as a young player and decided to put it back into heavy rotation. "It was something I enjoyed doing when I was young," Jared said. "I thought I'd bring that back. My mom actually told me to start doing it."

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

FINS FACT

Mike and his twin brother, Maurkice, who plays with the Pittsburgh Steelers, in coordination with Deshea Townsend's "Pay It Forward" Foundation, held a free youth football camp for boys and girls ages 7-14 on June 25, 2010 on their former prep football fields at Lakeland High School. The Pouncey Twins, along with former teammates and coaches, taught local children fundamental football skills, with an emphasis on good sportsmanship, academic success, respect and leadership. "Guys used to come back and talk to us when we were in these same situations as some of these kids are," Mike said. "It meant the world to us. So that's basically what we want to do. If we only got one guy's attention in that classroom, just to change a life, to us, meant a lot."

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first-round draft choice (15th overall) of Miami in the 2011 NFL Draft.

2011 - Started at center all 16 games . . . Made his Dolphins and NFL debut in a start at center vs. New England (9/12) . . . Was part of an offensive line that helped the Dolphins rush for more than 200 yards twice in a three-game stretch (209 yards vs. Oakland (12/4) and 254 yards at Buffalo (12/18)).

COLLEGE

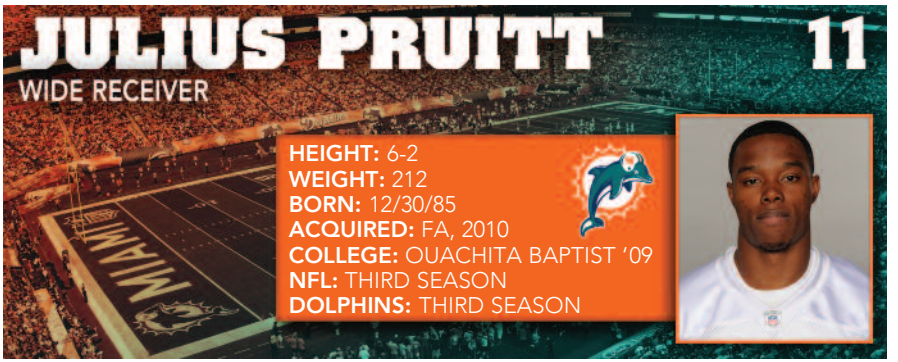

Played in 54 games with 45 career starts at the University of Florida . . . A versatile player, saw action at right offensive guard (28 games), center (13) and weak-side defensive tackle (four) . . . FINS FACT

While at Ohio State, Austin was considered to be one of the hardest working members of the team. He believes that his work ethic came from the values he was raised with from his family. "It came from my parents and especially my grandpa (Kenny Spitler)," Austin said. "The best way to put it is they never let me do anything the easy way. They always wanted me to work for what I got. I was always an outdoors person, and my grandpa taught me how to build things. I never really got into video games and all that. I really just enjoyed the outdoors and working with my grandpa, and we always had a project."

FINS FACT

Daniel's journey to the NFL is a story of persistence, spanning hundreds of miles and no less than three junior colleges. After starring at Hilliard (Fla.) High School, he was recruited by Kansas State, Florida and Mississippi, among others, but that's where schoolwork got in the way. Failing to qualify, Daniel attended Northwest Mississippi Community College. Over the next two years, Daniel played option quarterback, earning junior college All-America honors. He did just enough to receive a degree, but not enough to satisfy NCAA requirements. He then took on another year of junior college, this time in Kansas with no football, just studying. He finished his required courses - even took a summer class at Manhattan Christian College, across from Kansas State - and qualified. "The door was closing," Thomas said. "I had to buckle down. It was a very long trip. I could write a movie or a book about it."

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Originally drafted by Miami in the second round (62nd overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

FINS FACT

On May 14, 2012, Jamaal hosted the Jamaal Westerman Golf Classic at Jumping Brook Country Club in Neptune, N.J. to benefit the Ashley Lauren Foundation. The Ashley Lauren Foundation is a non-profit, charitable organization whose mission is to provide hope and help for New Jersey children and their families when facing pediatric cancer. "Any time you think about pediatric cancer, it's something that breaks your heart," Jamaal said "The Ashley Lauren Foundation since they started in 2005, has helped over 300 families in the New Jersey area. It's not only for the kids but also for the families because life doesn't stop. These families are fighting so hard. If it's a two-parent family, one parent has to quit their job to take them to that appointment and make sure they're ok when their child is going through that recovery process. It's just something I wanted to be involved with. I wanted to help support something in the New Jersey area because I played at Rutgers and spent all that time with the Jets."

LIGHTS, CAMERA, SUN LIFE STADIUM

Marley And Me

Sun Life Stadium has not only been host to championship sporting events, the venue has also served as a backdrop to some of the most popular films of the past quarter century. Those motion pictures shot at Sun Life Stadium include Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, which starred Jim Carrey and Courteney Cox and featured Dolphins great Dan Marino as himself; Marley and Me, starring Owen Wilson and Jennifer Aniston; the Oliver Stone-directed Any Given Sunday starring Al Pacino, Jamie Foxx and Dennis Quaid, and Rock of Ages, in which the scene filmed at the stadium included actors Tom Cruise, Julianna Hough, Russell Brand and Alec Baldwin.

The stadium served as a backdrop to an episode of the television show Seinfeld titled The Label Maker in which Jerry and Newman attend Super Bowl XXIX. Additionally, parts of the opening of the HBO television series Arli$$ were shot on the field during a Dolphins game. The Stadium also played a role in episodes of television shows Man Caves, with former NFL defensive tackle Tony Siragusa and Designing Spaces, the Big Game Bubba Burgers edition.

Commercials for products such as Pepsi, Bud Light, Omega Watches, Just for Men, Margaritaville products, Gatorade, Papa Johns and Equinox (featuring Dolphins running back Reggie Bush), were also filmed at Sun Life Stadium.

FINS FACT The youngest of nine children, Michael knew how to keep his family in suspense during the NFL Draft. Seeing his cellular phone ring, Michael grabbed it and walked out of the room. Being the second night of the NFL Draft, he had a feeling what the call meant. His family had been watching television for hours, waiting to hear Michael's name called. On the line was Dolphins General Manager Jeff Ireland, who told Michael they planned to pick him - which happened about five minutes later. Michael wasn't about to spoil the surprise, though. "I just kind of walked out of the room, and when my name came on the screen everybody exploded," Michael said. "It was cool."

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO

The most recent modification to the Dolphins' logo was made prior to the 1997 season. This marked just the third logo change in franchise history, and the first since 1972.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1972, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

FINS FACT

Josh was one of nine members of the Oregon Ducks who had a two-hour adventure prior to the 2012 Rose Bowl at the Hyatt Regency Century Plaza in Century City, Calif. The players left the 11th floor of the hotel and were headed down when the elevator came to an abrupt stop between the 7th and 8th floors. There it sat, no matter what buttons the players pushed. Finally, they reached the hotel staff on the elevator intercom, and settled back to wait for help. After a while, the players became tired of standing, but there wasn't enough room for all to sit. So they organized. Some players sat down. When one of the standing players became too leg-weary, he traded places with one of those seated. "That wasn't the most pleasant experience," Josh told The Oregonian. "We just tapped out. When somebody was tired, he tapped somebody, and he would get up. It was teamwork."

1972 DOLPHINS ONE OF 12 TO LEAD NFL IN POINTS SCORED AND ALLOWED

En route to their perfect 17-0 season, the 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL that year in both points scored and points allowed. During the regular season, they averaged 27.5 points per contest while yielding an average of only 12.2. They are one of only 12 teams in NFL history to achieve this feat, and of the other 11, only the 1996 Green Bay Packers went on to win the Super Bowl.

Kheeston is a large individual, but that has nothing to do with how he got his nickname of "Big Money." Kheeston hails from the Golden Triangle in Texas from a town that he said helped shape his personality and civic pride. "I'm originally from Beaumont and everybody in Beaumont they call it 'Big Money.' So they just felt like calling me that. It's nothing really to do with money at all. I am really proud of where I am from. When I first got to the University of Texas to play football, everyone asked where I was from and I said Big Money, Texas. They just start calling me that. It just grew from there and stayed with me throughout my career."

FINS FACT Ryan grew up a Texas Tech fan as his father, Tim, played football there from 1985-87. His mother also attended Tech. Growing up, Ryan went to watch Tech games each year and even sported a small Tech uniform as a child. Although Ryan aspired to play quarterback for Texas Tech, the school did not recruit him. "I grew up a Tech fan," Ryan said. "Mom and dad both went to Tech, and dad played at Tech. I went to a lot of games growing up, all the way up to high school. I'm thankful for my opportunity to be here at Texas A&M, and my parents have been supportive the whole way. There's not much Tech stuff in our house anymore. It's all maroon. I think we have some converts." In storybook fashion, Ryan's first start at quarterback came against his former dream school, Texas Tech, as he led the Aggies to a 45-27 win by throwing four touchdown passes and set a school record of 449 passing yards on Oct 30, 2010.

When Olivier was a sophomore at American High School in Miami he worked at a nearby Publix Supermarkets grocery store so he could have some extra money in his pockets. He and his best friend bagged groceries at the front of the store. "We were like the two biggest guys inside Publix bagging groceries asking if you wanted paper or plastic," Olivier said. Because of his size, Olivier often was asked by the ladies both young and old to help them to their car with their groceries. Now with Publix as one of the Dolphins' largest corporate partners, Olivier sees himself as having come full circle.

LONG TWICE NAMED AMONG NFL'S TOP 100 PLAYERS

During the past two off-seasons, the NFL Network has run a series called The Top 100: Players, which featured a listing of the top 100 players currently in the NFL as voted on by the players themselves. Dolphins four-time Pro Bowl tackle Jake Long ranked in top 100 both seasons, finishing 28th overall in 2011 (ranking first among each of the 13 offensive linemen also on the list) and 59th in 2012. In addition, former Dolphins wide receiver Brandon Marshall ranked 61st on the 2011 list, just ahead of then-teammate and Pro Bowl linebacker Cameron Wake, who was voted number 63.

JOE ROBBIE ALUMNI PLAZA

On September 12, 2011, just hours before the season opener against the Patriots, Dolphins owner Steve Ross was accompanied by Tim Robbie and Hall-of-Famers Dan Marino, Bob Griese, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson as Ross re-dedicated a statue of team founder Joe Robbie on the newly named Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza, located at Gate C of Sun Life Stadium.

Later during the 2011 season on December 4, a little more than an hour before the Dolphins and Raiders game at Sun Life Stadium, Joe Robbie and nine Dolphins legends took their place on the newly minted Walk of Fame. The shrine surrounds a statue of the late Robbie as the centerpiece of the Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza. Hall-of-Famers Don Shula, Marino, Griese, Nick Buoniconti, Jim Langer, Little, Larry Csonka and Stephenson and Paul Warfield joined Robbie in having their names immortalized in bronze.

September 12, 2011 Miami Gardens, FL

The Miami Dolphins couldn't find an answer for Tom Brady in a 38-24 season opening loss to the New England Patriots at Sun Life Stadium on Monday Night Football. Quarterback Chad Henne completed 30-of-49 passes for a career-high 416 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. However, the other ex-Michigan quarterback in the game, Brady, also had a career night, completing 32-of-48 for 517 yards, four touchdowns and one interception. The two set an NFL record for combined passing yards in one game with 906 yards, surpassing the 884 yards the Dolphins and N.Y. Jets had combined for on September 21, 1986. Additionally, the Dolphins and Patriots offenses combined for 1,110 total net yards, which is the second-most in NFL history behind the 1,133 total net yards put up by the L.A. Rams at N.Y. Yanks game in 1950.

September 18, 2011 Miami Gardens, FL

The Miami Dolphins dropped a 23-13 decision to the visiting Houston Texans. Rookie running back Daniel Thomas broke the 100-yard barrier on the ground in his NFL debut as he became only the second Dolphins rookie runner to do that in his first career game joining Karim Abdul-Jabbar on September 1, 1996.

The Texans took advantage of quarterback Chad Henne's costly interception to start the second quarter and created all the cushion they needed. Quarterback Matt Schaub hit tight end Owen Daniels from 4 yards out for a touchdown that gave the Texans a 10-point lead at 13-3 and Schaub sealed the game early in the fourth quarter with a 23-yard scoring pass to Andre Johnson.

BROWNS 17, DOLPHINS 16
September 25, 2011

Cleveland Browns Stadium
Cleveland, OH

The Miami Dolphins fell to the Cleveland Browns, 17-16, to drop to 0-3 on the season. Browns quarterback Colt McCoy engineered a 13-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in the final three minutes, capping it off with a 14-yard scoring pass to Mohamed Massaquoi. Henne hit on 12 of his first 13 passes and finished completing 19-of-29 for 255 yards, one touchdown and an interception. He had a chance at the end after two 15-yard penalties on Cleveland set him up at the Browns' 47, but he threw three straight incompletions and then his fourth-down pass for Brandon Marshall was high and picked off by Mike Adams with 21 seconds left. Wide receiver Brian Hartline proved to be Henne's big-play target, hauling in passes of 31 and 38 yards and finishing with four catches for 87 yards. Tight end Anthony Fasano had a key 26-yard reception on the offense's lone touchdown drive in the first quarter. Rookie running back Daniel Thomas had another solid performance, following up his 107-yard debut the previous week against Cleveland with 95 yards on 23 carries. He also caught the 10-yard touchdown pass from Henne on a screen in the first quarter to give Miami a 7-0 lead. Defensively, the Dolphins hassled the Browns second-year quarterback all afternoon, picking him off early with rookie Jimmie Wilson's first career interception, but McCoy came through in that final drive to complete the comeback.

CHARGERS 26, DOLPHINS 16
October 2, 2011

Qualcomm Stadium
San Diego, CA

Just like in two of the previous three games in 2011, the Dolphins drew first blood, only to watch their opponent bounce back and keep them out of the win column. This time it was the host San Diego Chargers erasing an early touchdown deficit to pull out a 26-16 victory, dropping Miami to 0-4. The Dolphins lost more than just another game as starting quarterback Chad Henne went down with an injury to his left shoulder in the first quarter and did not return. Qualcomm Stadium was the same place where Henne assumed the starting job in Week 3 of 2009 after Chad Pennington suffered a season-ending shoulder injury. Backup Matt Moore was effective as soon as he entered the game, finishing off an 11-play, 92-yard touchdown drive by completing a 31-yard pass to rookie H-back Charles Clay on his first play. Five plays later, which included an 8-yard pass for a first down to tight end Jeron Mastrud, Moore had the offense in the end zone on Lex Hilliard's 1-yard leap. That gave Miami a short-lived 7-0 lead as Philip Rivers connected with Vincent Jackson on a 55-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. Fullback Mike Tolbert scored the other touchdown for San Diego on a 1-yard leap in the third quarter to make it a 20-10 ballgame. The Dolphins could only muster three fields goals the rest of the way while the Chargers found the endzone twice. Nick Novak's four field goals proved to be the difference in the end. Any hope for a comeback after his team went down by 10 points late in the fourth quarter disappeared when Moore's 3rd-and-18 pass down the middle for tight end Anthony Fasano sailed on him and was picked off by Chargers free safety Eric Weddle.

JETS 24, DOLPHINS 6

MetLife Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

Three previous trips to the Meadowlands under this current Miami Dolphins regime all ended with wins, but the fourth time proved not to be quite as fruitful. One game-turning interception return by New York Jets Pro Bowl cornerback Darrelle Revis fueled the home team to a 24-6 victory at MetLife Stadium and dropped Miami to 0-5 on the season. Quarterback Matt Moore, making his first start for Miami after Chad Henne was placed on injured reserve with a shoulder injury, moved the offense deep into scoring territory twice in the first quarter. The first trip into scoring territory ended as Revis batted away a third-down pass to Brandon Marshall in the left corner of the end zone. That led to Dan Carpenter's 23-yard field goal and a brief 3-0 lead. Things looked to be going Miami's way after that as Carpenter's high and spiraling kickoff bounced off of a Jets player and was recovered by Austin Spitler at the New York 18. Rookie running back Daniel Thomas ripped off a 15-yard run to the 3 but two plays later disaster struck as Revis picked off Moore's pass intended for Marshall at the goal line and took it back 100 yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins never really recovered, despite cutting the deficit to one point at 7-6 on a 21-yard field goal by Carpenter. Moore threw a little behind Marshall in the end zone on a third-down on that drive, forcing the field goal, and when Sanchez scored on a five-yard quarterback draw in the closing minutes of the first half to make it 14-6 the home fans got even more into the action. A 28-yard field goal by Nick Folk in the third quarter and a 38-yard touchdown pass from Sanchez to Santonio Holmes early in the fourth quarter sealed the win for New York, with Revis' second interception of the game with less than five minutes left the final exclamation point.

BRONCOS 18, DOLPHINS 15

Miami Gardens, FL

Defense had ruled the day for the Miami Dolphins as they battered and confused Denver Broncos quarterback Tim Tebow for most of four quarters – but the former Heisman Trophy winner somehow got it together and helped pull out an improbable 18-15 overtime victory. The Dolphins dropped to 0-6 on the season and lost for the seventh consecutive time at Sun Life Stadium. Outside linebacker Cameron Wake had two of Miami's six sacks as the defense was amped up from the beginning, but it wasn't enough to prevent the loss. Former Dolphins kicker Matt Prater drilled a 52-yard field goal on Denver's second possession in overtime that was set up by a Matt Moore fumble that was forced and recovered by D.J.Williams Running backs Reggie Bush and Daniel Thomas led a balanced ground attack that helped kill some time off the clock late in the game. Tebow led a quick 80-yard scoring drive after Dan Carpenter's third field of the game from 43 yards stretched the lead to 15-0, and a successful onside kick by Broncos kicker Matt Prater gave Tebow one last chance to tie the game. Miami's defense tried to answer the call by putting more pressure on Tebow knowing he had to throw the ball. He converted two third downs and then completed a huge 28-yard pass to Daniel Fells at the 3 with 33 seconds left. Fells made a diving catch that stood upon review and then Tebow hit Fells again on a throwback screen with 17 seconds left, setting up a dramatic finish with a two-point conversion try. Tebow kept it himself to tie the game at 15-15 and send it to overtime. Quarterback Matt Moore, making his second start, went 22-of-33 for 197 yards and a touchdown with a 92.6 passer rating. His 13-yard touchdown pass to tight end Anthony Fasano on the first play of the fourth quarter seemingly put the game out of reach as Denver's offense was being stymied.

GAME 7

GIANTS 20, DOLPHINS 17 MetLife Stadium
October 30, 2011 East Rutherford, NJ

It was a promising start to a tough road game for the Miami Dolphins at MetLife Stadium as they put the host New York Giants on their heels early. Unfortunately, the Giants recovered to pull out a tight 20-17 victory and drop Miami to 0-7 on the season. Reggie Bush had his best rushing performance up to that point in a Miami uniform with 103 yards on 15 carries, including a couple of long runs that showed off his open field moves. Miami opened the scoring on Steve Slaton's one-yard touchdown run, his first as a member of the Dolphins. Bush's 35-yard run early in the second quarter set up quarterback Matt Moore's 1-yard bootleg run that gave the Dolphins a surprising 14-3 lead with 5:40 left in the first half. That's when Giants quarterback Eli Manning found his rhythm with the no-huddle offense and drove his team 84 yards on 13 plays to make it 14-10 with eight seconds left in the half. His 7-yard touchdown pass to Mario Manningham gave the home crowd some life. Miami knew it was getting the ball to start the second half so Moore took a knee. Bush ripped off a nice 28-yard run through a gigantic hole on the left side on the opening drive of the half and that led to Dan Carpenter's 40-yard field goal. But the 7-point lead was too precarious, and Manning led the Giants back with two scoring drives late. His 25-yard touchdown pass to Victor Cruz with 5:58 remaining was the game-winner. The Dolphins were hurt by a controversial offensive pass interference penalty on wide receiver Brandon Marshall that drastically changed field position on the drive before that score. It negated a 26-yard pass reception by Marshall and they could not recover as Corey Webster's interception of a Moore pass on 4th-and-24 sealed the win for the Giants.

GAME 8

DOLPHINS 31, CHIEFS 3
November 6, 2011

Arrowhead Stadium
Kansas City, MO

Eight weeks of pent up frustration was unleashed by the Miami Dolphins at Arrowhead Stadium as they rolled to their first win of the season, 31-3, over the Kansas City Chiefs. Riding the accurate arm of quarterback Matt Moore and a suffocating defense, Miami put together a complete performance from start to finish to stop Kansas City's four-game winning streak. The defense sacked Chiefs quarterback Matt Cassel five times and could have had at least three more had Cassel not escaped. Running back Reggie Bush took over in the second half as he showed flashes of his college days at USC with some nifty moves on some big runs, none bigger than his 28-yard touchdown midway through the third quarter. That run for all intents and purposes put the game away. But it was Moore, who finished 17-of-23 for 244 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions, showing confidence and vision early on who really set the tone. He completed 6-of-7 passes on the Dolphins' first two touchdown drives for 119 yards and both of his touchdown passes went to tight end Anthony Fasano, one from 3 yards out and the second one from 35. His passer rating was an impressive 147.3 Wide receiver Brandon Marshall caught eight passes for 106 yards and a touchdown and Bush and rookie H-back Charles Clay each caught three passes for 50 yards. Bush added 92 rushing yards on 13 carries for a 7.1 average.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 20, REDSKINS 9

Miami Gardens, FL

This time it took a little longer to create some breathing room, but the Miami Dolphins held off the Washington Redskins, 20-9, for its second consecutive victory to improve to 2-7 on the season. It was Miami's first home win at Sun Life Stadium in a year going back to November 14, 2010 when the Dolphins beat the Tennessee Titans, 29-17. Running back Reggie Bush got things started with a 1-yard scamper as he reached the end zone untouched on the opening drive, and then he capped it off with an 18-yard end around with 6:07 left in the game. That last run by Bush was almost identical to his 28-yard touchdown run the previous week at Kansas City that put that game out of reach. He came in motion from the left, took the handoff from quarterback Matt Moore and followed rookie running back Daniel Thomas and an army of blockers into the end zone. Miami's defense answered the call again by extending its streak of quarters without giving up a touchdown to eight. Redskins kicker Graham Gano accounted for all of his team's scoring with field goals of 26, 47 and 23 yards. That unit also forced two turnovers and sacked quarterback Rex Grossman three times. Moore completed 20-of-29 passes for 209 yards with one interception and rushed twice for 14 yards.

GAME 10

November 20, 2011 Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins (3-7) won their third consecutive game, defeating the Buffalo Bills (5-5) 35-8 at Sun Life Stadium. The win made the Miami the first team ever to go from 0-7 to 3-7 and just the third team in NFL history to start off at least 0-7 and then have a three-game winning streak (1978 Cardinals & 1986 Colts).Miami dominated from the start and had a 28-6 halftime lead–their largest through two quarters since Week 1 of 2002 and never even thought about looking back. It was a first half that featured three Matt Moore touchdown passes, two interceptions of Ryan Fitzpatrick, another Reggie Bush touchdown run, and a lot of cheering at Sun Life Stadium. The Dolphins also got their first non-offensive touchdown of the season as Chris Clemons blocked a third quarter punt, which was recovered in the endzone by Lex Hilliard - the first punt block touchdown for the Dolphins since October 18, 1990 when Mark Higgs did it against New England. The defense continued to dominate, as well, extending their streak of not allowing a touchdown to 12 quarters - a streak that included a goal line stand when the Bills started first and goal at the two towards the end of the third quarter. Bills running back Fred Jackson, the NFL's rushing leader coming into the weekend, was a total non-factor, rushing for just 17 yards on seven carries. Moore finished the day 14-20 for 160 yards and the three touchdowns, though he was just 3-6 for 12 yards in the second half, when the Dolphins were basically putting the game away.

GAME 11

COWBOYS 20, DOLPHINS 19 Cowboys Stadium
November 24, 2011 Arlington, TX

Tony Sparano's holiday homecoming to Texas ended in heartbreak as his Miami Dolphins fell to the Dallas Cowboys, 20-19, on a last-second field goal. Miami's three-game winning streak came to an end despite a valiant effort on both sides of the ball and the team fell to 3-8 overall on the season. Four trips inside the red zone could only yield four Shayne Graham field goals and that proved to be the difference at Cowboys Stadium. Quarterback Matt Moore completed 19-of-32 for 288 yards and one touchdown, a 35-yarder to wide receiver Brandon Marshall that Marshall reeled in despite having cornerback Terence Newman draped all over him. He caught five passes for 103 yards and the score on the afternoon. If Moore could have one play back it would be his fumble of a shotgun snap late in the first half that was recovered by Dallas at the Miami 5. Cowboys quarterback Tony Romo completed a 5-yard touchdown pass to Laurent Robinson on the next play, the first of two touchdown passes to Robinson, and Moore did manage to get the Dolphins into field goal territory at the end of the first half to make it a 10-6 ballgame.

December 4, 2011 Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins placed longtime tight end and broadcaster Jim Mandich in the team's Honor Roll and won their third straight home game and their fourth overall game of the season, dominating the first-place Oakland Raiders, 34-14. Reggie Bush paced the Dolphins on the ground with 100 rushing yards and a touchdown, his second 100-yard game of the season. Overall, Miami rushed for 209 yards, the first 200-yard rushing game as a team since October 4, 2009 vs. Buffalo. Kevin Burnett intercepted a Carson Palmer pass and ran it back for a touchdown – the first Dolphin to do so since Vontae Davis against Buffalo in 2009 - to cap the Miami scoring. Matt Moore threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Davone Bess and also ran one in from six yards, as he continued to perform at a high level. He finished his day 13-of-25 for 162 yards and the two TDs. On the other side, Palmer did all of his damage in garbage time, throwing two late touchdown passes to finish his day 20-41 for 273 yards with the two TDs and the pick-six. The Raider rushing attack, spearheaded by Michael Bush, was near-silent, as he ran for just 18 yards on 10 carries as the Dolphins' dominant rush-defense continued as they had not allowed a running back to run for a score since Week 4 at San Diego.

EAGLES 26, DOLPHINS 10

Miami Gardens, FL

In an injury and turnover-filled game, the Dolphins (4-9) saw their three-game home winning streak come to an end thanks to a 26-10 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles (5-8). Quarterback Matt Moore, left tackle Jake Long, cornerback Vontae Davis and left guard Vernon Carey were each lost for at least part of the game after suffering injuries as the previously relatively healthy Dolphins couldn't overcome those injuries or three turnovers in a game that took far longer than the average NFL contest. Moore suffered a head injury and left for good towards the tail end of the third quarter after going 11-of-19 for 95 yards, a touchdown, an interception, and a fumble lost. He was replaced by JP Losman, who threw for 60 yards on 6-of-10 passing and was also sacked in the endzone for a safety. The final score doesn't show it, but the Dolphins got off to a great start in this game. They blocked a Chas Henry punt on the first possession of the game, which set them up in good field position and led to Moore's 16-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Marshall. Additionally, Jason Taylor picked up two early sacks to move ahead of Richard Dent and John Randle on the all-time list and into sixth place with 138.5 in his career. The Eagles, though, would score 24 unanswered points in the second quarter and three of their four scores immediately followed Dolphins' turnovers–which tells the story of the second 15 minutes of this game. In the second half, the Dolphins were only able to muster a 22-yard Dan Carpenter field goal as both Moore and Losman spent much of the later parts of the long afternoon trying to avoid a Philadelphia pass rush that was relentless. With under five minutes to go, down 16, the Dolphins reached the Eagles' 11-yard line but after a holding penalty, a series of incompletions and a fourth down sack, Miami turned it over on downs.

GAME 14

DOLPHINS 30, BILLS 23

Ralph Wilson Stadium
Buffalo, NY

Reggie Bush cemented his status not only as an every-down back, but as one of the stars of the 2011 NFL season, as the Dolphins (5-9) completed the season sweep of the Bills (5-9) thanks to a 30-23 win at Ralph Wilson Stadium. Bush finished the day with 203 yards rushing, the most of his career, the most by a Dolphin since 2002 (Ricky Williams 216 vs. the Bears), and the third most in a regular season game in franchise history (Williams, 228 at Buffalo in 2002). The final score ended up being closer than it probably should have after the Bills mounted a late game mini-rally that included a recovered onside kick that was sandwiched between a Ryan Fitzpatrick TD pass and a Dave Rayner field goal. Rayner played a notable role in this one, too–he missed a 25-yard chip shot right before halftime that could have made things far more interesting down the stretch. QB Matt Moore returned from the concussion he suffered the previous week vs. Philadelphia to complete just 10 passes - but two of the ten were for touchdowns (22 yards to Anthony Fasano in the 2nd quarter and 65 yards to Brandon Marshall in the 3rd). Marshall's three catches for 84 yards means put him over 1,000 yards receiving (1,021) for the second straight season - the first Dolphins receiver to have back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons since Irving Fryar in 1993 and 1994. Bush, meanwhile, closed to within 27 yards away from his first-career 1,000-yard rushing season. The Dolphins defense contributed three takeaways in the game, as Vontae Davis picked Fitzpatrick off twice and Reshad Jones added another as the secondary responded to their former position coach, Todd Bowles, who won his first game as an NFL head coach.

GAME 15

December 24, 2011 Foxboro, MA

Every time the Miami Dolphins and New England Patriots meet lately it seems like two football games in one, and that was the case as New England pulled out a 27-24 win in this contest. In the first half it was all Miami as the Dolphins' offense bruised and battered Patriots quarterback Tom Brady for 30 minutes and did not allow his offense to cross midfield until the closing minute. Brady was sacked three times and had his worst completion percentage of any half in 2011 at 36.8. On the other side of the ball, Dolphins quarterback Matt Moore was an efficient 10-of-19 for 179 yards and two touchdowns of 19 yards to Brandon Marshall and one yard to Charles Clay. Running back Reggie Bush shredded the Patriots' defense for 81 yards on 16 carries and Marshall had five catches for 102 yards by intermission. When Moore took a knee to kill the clock after New England's Stephen Gostkowski missed a 51-yard field goal he carried a 17-0 lead into the locker room. The home crowd at Gillette Stadium had been quieted and was waiting for something to cheer about. Unfortunately for Miami, Brady delivered with 27 unanswered points in the second half with a near flawless third quarter that turned the tide. He completed 12-of-16 passes for 97 yards and a touchdown and rushed for another touchdown to tie the game at 17-17 and finished 27-of-46 for 304 yards and a touchdown. New England's offensive line somehow figured out how to contain Miami's pass rush while its defensive front seven found ways to get more pressure on Moore. Brady's second rushing touchdown, also from a yard out with 2:56 left in the game seemed to seal the victory. Miami did not give up, however, as Moore engineered a late 80-yard scoring drive on seven plays, capping it off with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Davone Bess in the back left of the end zone to cut the deficit to 27-24 with 1:49 left in the game. Dan Carpenter's squib kick went into the end zone and Brady and the offense picked up enough first downs to kill the clock and end the game.

GAME 16

January 1, 2012 Miami Gardens, FL

Jason Taylor's inspired play spearheaded a 19-17 victory over the rival New York Jets at Sun Life Stadium and knocked them out of the playoffs in the process. Led by Kendall Langford and Paul Soliai, Taylor was carried off the field by his teammates after the game ended, knowing how big of a role he had in Miami's 6-3 finish down the stretch. Taylor's stat line may not have been typical of his stellar career (one tackle and one quarterback hit), but his teammates were not about to let him head off into retirement with a loss. Three turnovers by Miami's defense proved to be the undoing of the Jets and all of them were interceptions – two by defensive end Randy Starks and the dagger by inside linebacker Marvin Mitchell. After the Dolphins had erased a 10-3 deficit with a 58-yard field goal by Dan Carpenter as the clock expired in the first half and quarterback Matt Moore's 1-yard touchdown pass to rookie tight end Charles Clay, they did not let off the gas. Starks' second interception, forced by Taylor's hit on Jets quarterback Mark Sanchez, set up Carpenter's 40-yard field goal to make it 16-10. Mitchell stepped in front of Sanchez's intended receiver on New York's next drive and returned his interception 55 yards. That led to Carpenter's third field goal of the day from 44 yards and put the game virtually out of reach. Sanchez desperately led his offense down the field to close the gap with a 10-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Patrick Turner with 1:15 left in the game. The quick 80-yard drive took just one minute and 17 seconds and seven plays, giving the Jets a chance to try an onside kick. Brandon Marshall recovered it and went out of bounds at his own 47 to seal the deal as the Jets finished 8-8. Taylor was sent out on the field on offense for the final kneel-downs by Moore and heard the "JT, JT" chants from the crowd as the clock wound down. He lined up as the I-back for the last one and was mobbed by the cameras. Moore was 22-of-32 for 135 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions and he got decent run support in the absence of leading rusher Reggie Bush from Steve Slaton. Slaton rushed for 55 yards on 11 carries, with rookie Daniel Thomas adding 28 yards on 12 carries.

1972 DOLPHINS ONE OF FOUR TO BOAST PAIR OF 1,000-YARD RUSHERS

The 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL by averaging an astounding 211.4 yards rushing per game that year. They were led by running backs Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris, who rushed for 1,117 and 1,000 yards, respectively. The '72 Dolphins are one of only four teams in NFL history to have two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season. They are joined by the 1976 Pittsburgh Steelers (Franco Harris – 1,128; Rocky Bleier – 1,036), the 1985 Cleveland Browns (Kevin Mack – 1,104; Earnest Byner – 1,002) and the 2006 Atlanta Falcons (Warrick Dunn – 1,140; Michael Vick – 1,039).

2011 PRESEASON GAME SUMMARIES

PRESEASON GAME 1

DOLPHINS 28, FALCONS 23
August 12, 2011

Georgia Dome
Atlanta, GA

There was only one true bottom line to the preseason opener between the Miami Dolphins and the Atlanta Falcons – football was being played following the NFL lockout during the offseason. In the end the final score didn't really matter, but the Dolphins did pull out a 28-23 victory after falling behind 17-0 in the first quarter. Quarterbacks Chad Henne and Matt Moore each connected on long touchdown passes, Henne to Brian Hartline for 44 yards and Moore to Roberto Wallace for 28 yards. Wallace had a big first half, catching three passes for 60 yards. Miami recovered from those early miscues on offense and two productive scoring drives led by Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan to turn the tables a bit, especially on defense. Cornerback Benny Sapp killed one Atlanta drive with a diving interception and rookie cornerback Jimmy Wilson set up Moore's touchdown pass to Wallace with a sack and strip of John Parker Wilson. Linebacker Austin Spitler recovered the fumble. Spitler and Wilson highlighted a second team defensive unit that really stepped it up with a slew of players out to prove something, including linebacker A.J. Edds and defensive end Jared Odrick, who were both returning from injuries that cost them the bulk of their rookie campaigns. Moore delivered again in the third quarter after Miami's third team defense forced the Falcons to settle for yet another short Matt Bryant field goal. He put together a 13-play, 65-yard scoring drive, converting a pivotal 4th-and-7 to keep the drive alive. Rookie Clyde Gates was on the receiving end of that 17-yard strike and then made it count a few plays later with a 6-yard touchdown reception in the back of the end zone, giving Miami a 21-20 lead headed into the fourth quarter. Moore finished 11-of-18 for 123 yards, two touchdowns and one interception on the night. Undrafted rookie Phillip Livas, brought a smile to the face of Sparano and special teams coordinator Darren Rizzi moments later. The speedy but diminutive Livas broke free on a 75-yard punt return for a touchdown, keeping his balance after Falcons punter Ken Parrish tried to trip him up once he got past midfield. The 5-foot-7, 179-pound Livas dove into the end zone for the score that put Miami ahead 28-20. Miami's defense stiffened one more time late in the fourth quarter with the Falcons driving for the tying touchdown and forced them to settle for a 33-yard field goal by Bryant. Vincent Agnew's interception with 50 seconds remaining secured the win.

PRESEASON GAME 2

August 19, 2011 Miami Gardens, FL

Quarterback Chad Henne was the triggerman behind an unpredictable unit that had Carolina's defense on its heels throughout the first half. Henne engineered three scoring drives, each one with a different look as the Dolphins took a 17-0 lead into the locker room. He completed 15-of-24 passes for 194 yards and even scrambled twice for 20 yards, displaying confidence, poise and a strong and accurate arm. Of course the debut of Reggie Bush was as advertised as he rushed eight times for 48 yards, an average of 6.0 yards per carry. He also caught two passes for 33 yards and put on some electrifying moves on both his 17-yard reception that set up the first touchdown and his 17-yard run earlier on the same drive for a first down. Running back Lex Hilliard finished off the first touchdown drive with a 1-yard dive into the end zone on fourth down. That drive covered 80 yards on 12 plays in 6:41, and Henne followed that up with a 13-play, 54-yard drive resulting in Dan Carpenter's 39-yard field goal, and Bush also displayed some power running between the tackles. Perhaps the most entertaining play of the evening, considering who was starting at quarterback for the Panthers, was Henne's 17-yard scramble late in the first half. He didn't hesitate to pull the ball down, and one play later rookie running back Daniel Thomas carried the ball over from the 4 for a touchdown. Henne also completed a 38-yard pass to tight end Anthony Fasano on the first play of the drive, throwing it on the run and had a couple of other scrambles called back due to penalties. Meanwhile, Miami's defense picked up where it left off in 2010, pitching a shutout through three quarters. New linebacker Kevin Burnett was everywhere, breaking up passes and stuffing the run, while Cameron Wake and Jason Taylor did their fair share of harassing Newton. Both starting quarterbacks took a seat in the second half and former Panthers quarterback Matt Moore had some early success against his old team. After Carolina was forced to punt for the sixth time, he drove the Dolphins 29 yards on eight plays to set up Carpenter's 44-yard field goal that increased the lead to 20-0. Unfortunately for Moore, his first possession of the fourth quarter did not go quite as well as he was sacked and stripped of the ball at his own 15. Four plays later the Panthers made him pay as Tyrell Sutton capped off the 15-yard scoring drive with a 2-yard touchdown run that cut the deficit in half at 20-10. Moore bounced back with an 18-yard completion to tight end Dedric Epps on the next drive to get the Dolphins across midfield and then let Hilliard, Sheets, rookie running back Nic Grigsby and the ground game pound away and work on the clock. A perfectly placed 31-yard punt by Fields that was downed at the Carolina 6 sealed the deal for the Dolphins as the defense forced another three-and-out with 2:23 remaining.

PRESEASON GAME 3

August 27, 2011 Tampa Bay, FL

The Dolphins bid to go to 3-0 in the preseason came up short in a 17-13 loss to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Raymond James Stadium. Rudy Carpenter's 7-yard scoring pass to tight end Nathan Overbay with 3:11 remaining completed the comeback for Tampa Bay. Quarterback Chad Henne came out firing against on his opening possession after getting sacked for a 5-yard loss on the very first play. He put Miami in the end zone on just two plays – a 22-yard strike to tight end Anthony Fasano and then a 60-yard scoring pass to Brandon Marshall and finished the night 10-of-13 for 175 yards with a 143.9 passer rating. What the Tampa Bay defense saw on those two throws was the best of Henne's growth as his first pass to Fasano was a bullet, showing off his arm strength. The back shoulder throw to Marshall was made with touch and allowed Marshall to go up and make the catch and then run the last 31 yards into the end zone. Later in the first half, Henne engineered a more methodical drive, grinding out 77 yards on 13 plays and chewing 8:20 off the clock. He was 6-of-7 on the drive for 55 yards and he and Marshall helped draw two critical pass interference penalties on the Bucs that led to Dan Carpenter's 21-yard field goal. Even the one turnover by the Dolphins late in the second quarter was not for lack of effort or efficiency. Henne floated a perfect sideline pass to Marshall that allowed Marshall the freedom to shake his defender and run for extra yards. Unfortunately, at the end of the 30-yard play Marshall was stripped by Tampa Bay's E.J. Biggers and the Bucs recovered at their own 46. Marshall ended the night with two catches for 90 yards and the touchdown. Fasano led the Dolphins with three catches for 39 yards and Marlon Moore caught two passes for 41 yards with a long of 23. Tampa Bay quarterback Josh Freeman led a six-play, 54-yard touchdown drive, setting up Earnest Graham's 2-yard run into the end zone with his own 17-yard scramble. He took the second half off, while Henne returned to lead two more drives before giving way to backup Matt Moore. Henne was sacked three times for a total loss of 24 yards and was stripped of the ball once. Reggie Bush alertly dove on the loose ball to prevent a turnover, but there were other tackles for loss in the backfield by the Bucs defense. Punter Brandon Fields dramatically helped Miami's defense with an awesome punting display as kick after kick went over 50 yards. He finished the night averaging 59 yards on seven punts. The rest of Miami's defense had a satisfactory evening by its own standards. Cornerback Vontae Davis had an interception in the first quarter negated by an offsides call. Davis finished tied for second on the team with four tackles, all solo, with cornerback Nolan Carroll. Inside linebacker Kevin Burnett led with six tackles (five solo).

PRESEASON GAME 4

DOLPHINS 17, COWBOYS 3
September 1, 2011

Miami Gardens, FL

Miami finished the 2011 preseason with a 17-3 preseason victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Sun Life Stadium. Head Coach Tony Sparano saw solid performances from more than a handful of candidates on both sides of the ball. The offense delivered two nice touchdown drives, one of 79 yards in the first quarter on just seven plays and the second one even shorter – 59 yards on four plays. Even though they were outgained 389-278, the Dolphins were more efficient and capitalized more when it counted. Veteran running back Larry Johnson flashed some of the form that landed him in consecutive Pro Bowls back in 2005 and 2006 with a nifty 22-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter. He bounced off defenders and outran the secondary into the end zone for the score. Rookie running back Daniel Thomas also looked good rushing eight times for 36 yards on the evening. Early in the second half, backup quarterback Matt Moore aired it out 42 yards on the first play after a missed field goal by Dallas to rookie speedster Clyde Gates. The fourth-round pick out of Abilene Christian got so far behind his defender that he actually had to slow down ever so slightly to make the catch. Three plays later Moore hit a wide open tight end Jeron Mastrud over the middle for an 18-yard touchdown that stretched Miami's lead to 14-3. Veteran Will Allen played with a sense of urgency, forcing an interception in the first quarter with a nice play in the right corner of the end zone and running step-for-step on a deep ball that ended up being overthrown out of the end zone. The defense, while allowing Cowboys quarterback Stephen McGee to move the ball in between the 20s, clamped down when Dallas got into the red zone. Backup defensive linemen Phillip Merling and Tony McDaniel came up big near the goal line with stops of running back DeMarco Murray and McGee on a quarterback draw to force a field goal by Dallas. Other defensive players that served notice against Dallas were rookie linebacker Quinton Spears, who had one sack and another near sack and forced fumble. That one was reversed by a Cowboys challenge to an incompletion. Ryan Baker and rookie Frank Kearse looked good up front as well, along with Robert Rose, who got a late sack. Offensively, rookie Nic Grigsby ran hard late in the game and Mastrud and Mickey Shuler held their own in the passing game. Kevin O'Connell and Pat Devlin got a chance to run the offense in the fourth quarter. Kicker Dan Carpenter drilled a 50-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to provide the final scoring margin and punter Brandon Fields had another strong night with a 62-yard punt and some good directional punts pinning the Cowboys deep in their own end.

DON SHULA'S COACHING LONGEVITY

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only five coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed 26 seasons with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

Sept. 21 – NFLPA calls players strike with games not resuming until November 21.

Dec. 12 – In one of the most bizarre incidents in Miami Dolphin history, a work release parolee (Mark Henderson) cleared a space on the snow-frozen turf at New England's Sullivan Stadium that enabled the Patriots to kick a late fourth-quarter field goal and win the game, 3-0, before 25,716 fans.

Dec. 27 – The incredible record of not having won in 16 years in the Orange Bowl continues as the Dolphins score 20 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Buffalo

Jan. 8 – For the first time in nine years, the Dolphins win a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots, 28-13, before 68,842 fans at the Orange Bowl.

Jan. 16 – The Dolphins choke off the San Diego Chargers famed offense and defeat them, 34-13, before 71,383 fans. The Chargers were held to only 247 yards in total offense, 203 yards below their league-leading average. The win enabled the Dolphins to reach their fourth conference title game in team history and the first since the 1973 season.

Jan. 23 – A.J. Duhe sets an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one for a 35-yard touchdown romp, as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets for the third time in one season to win the AFC crown, 14-0.

Jan. 30 – In Pasadena, California, the Dolphins appear in their fourth Super Bowl, and in spite of leading with only 10 minutes to play, they lose, 27-17, to Washington before a sell-out crowd of 103,667 at the Rose Bowl and a TV audience estimated at 115 million. Fulton Walker sets a Super Bowl record with a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown as he returns four kickoffs for a total of 190 yards.

June 25 – Starting linebacker Larry Gordon dies of a rare heart disease while jogging in Arizona at the age of 28. Gordon had been the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1976 out of Arizona State.

Oct. 9 – Quarterback Dan Marino and wide receiver Mark Duper make their first-ever starts for the Miami Dolphins, with Marino passing for 322 yards and Duper netting seven catches for 202 yards. The offensive explosion produces 971 total yards between the Dolphins and Bills, with Buffalo winning the Orange Bowl encounter, 38-35 in overtime.

Nov. 28 – Dolphin Owner Joseph Robbie announces the signing of Head Coach Don Shula to a multi-year contract.

Dec. 2 – Bill Arnsparger, the Dolphins' Assistant Head Coach and mastermind of the team's defense, resigns to become the head coach at Louisiana State University. His resignation is effective at the end of the season.

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins name 54-year-old Chuck Studley as their Defense Coach to replace Bill Arnsparger. Studley had spent the 1983 season as defensive coordinator and then interim head coach of the Houston Oilers.

March 5 – Miami Dolphin Owner Joseph Robbie announces plans to build a new multi-purpose stadium in north Dade County. Mr. Robbie also announces acquisition of the land and discusses possible stadium funding.

June 24 – Running back David Overstreet is killed in an automobile accident in Winona, Texas.

Oct. 21 – Wide receiver Nat Moore catches a 19-yard TD pass from QB Dan Marino for the 58th touchdown of his Dolphin career, surpassing Larry Csonka's all-time club record of 57.

Nov. 11 – The Dolphins remain the NFL's only unbeaten team as they improve their record to 11-0 (16 straight regular-season wins) with a 24-23 victory over Philadelphia. DE Doug Betters' block of an Eagle PAT with 1:52 remaining in the game seals the win.

Dec. 2 – The Dolphins lose a 45-34 decision to the Raiders, but QB Dan Marino breaks the all-time NFL record for TD passes in a season with his 37th. His record-breaking touchdown pass, which came on a four-yard toss to Jimmy Cefalo in the first quarter, was the first of four on the day for Marino as he reached the 40-touchdown plateau. He also shatters Dolphin single-game records for most yards passing (470), most completions (35) and most attempts (57).

Dec. 17 – Miami ends the regular season with the best record in the AFC (14-2) following a 28-21 victory over Dallas. WR Mark Clayton catches three touchdown passes to give him 18 for the season as he eclipses the all-time NFL mark in that category. Dan Marino becomes the first-ever NFL quarterback to pass for over 5,000 yards in a season as he ends up with 5,084. The most prolific passing season in NFL history also consists of 48 touchdown passes, 564 attempts, 362 completions and only 17 interceptions for a franchise record passer rating of 108.9. Both Clayton (73-1,389) and WR Mark Duper (71-1,306) surpass prior Dolphin records for receptions and reception yardage in one season.

Dec. 20 – QB Dan Marino is named as the NFL's Most Valuable Player by the Associated Press.

Feb. 19 – Miami appoints Receivers and Quarterbacks Coach David Shula to the position of Assistant Head Coach. In addition, the club names Mike Westhoff as the Special Teams/Tight Ends Coach.

June 3 – Owner Joseph Robbie plants a ceremonial 30-foot Royal Palm tree to begin a million dollar beautification project near Dolphin Stadium.

Sept. 6 – Dan Marino signs a multi-year contract to remain as quarterback of the Dolphins. Two days before, Marino's wife, Claire, had given birth to the couple's first child – Daniel Charles.

Sept. 21 – Miami suffers a heart-breaking 51-45 overtime loss to the N.Y. Jets in the Meadowlands as Dan Marino reaches 1,500 career attempts to qualify as the NFL's top-ranked passer of all-time. Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game.

Oct. 12 – In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.

Nov. 24 – The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average) including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.

Nov. 25 – Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.

Dec. 14 – Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl – a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

Jan. 10 – John Offerdahl is named Old Spice NFL Rookie of the Year

Jan. 20 – Tom Olivadotti, an assistant for the Cleveland Browns, is named Defensive Coach for Miami. He is put in charge of the overall defense with the prime responsibility of pass defense. Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.

Jan. 27 – Former Dolphin greats Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.

Sept. 22 – NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is canceled because of strike.

Oct. 4 – The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.

Oct. 11 – Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defensed) is named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y Jets at the Meadowlands.

Oct. 25 – After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses, 34-31, in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team at the time.

Nov. 1 – Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 29 – The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 – the famous snowplow game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.

Dec. 30 – RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press.

Feb. 29 – Former Dolphin Larry Seiple is named receivers coach. Seiple, who had been out of pro coaching for a year, had been receivers coach at Detroit (1980-84) and Tampa Bay (1985-86).

July 31 – The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the preseason.

Oct. 9 – The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.

Oct. 23 – Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y Jets defeat the Dolphins, 44-30, at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Oct. 30 – Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.

Dec. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

Jan. 22 – Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. San Francisco comes back in the final minutes of the game to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16. The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XIII (January 21,1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.

Jan. 23 – Dolphin Linebackers Coach Chuck Studley resigns after five seasons with Miami.

Jan. 25 – Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.

Feb. 27 – David Shula, the Dolphins' assistant head coach and passing game coordinator, and Dave Wannstedt, the team's linebackers coach, resign their respective positions to accept new posts with the Dallas Cowboys.

March 1 – George Hill is named the new linebackers coach for the Dolphins, while John Sandusky, the Dolphins' offensive line coach, is promoted to assistant head coach.

March 6 – Gary Stevens, formerly of the University of Miami, is named quarterbacks/pass offense coach for the Dolphins.

May 15 – Chuck Connor, the Dolphins director of player personnel for 11 seasons, announces his resignation to join the Atlanta Falcons as director of pro scouting.

June 12 – Tom Heckert, formerly a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Cleveland Browns, is named Miami's Director of College Scouting.

Sept. 17 – In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Oct. 8 – In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.

Nov. 12 – Pete Stoyanovich kicks a then-team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history at the time.

Nov. 19 – Miami defeats Dallas, 17-14, in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys.

Dec. 3 – Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40-degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

Jan. 7 – Joseph Robbie, founder and owner of the Dolphins and the driving force behind the construction of Joe Robbie Stadium, dies of respiratory failure at age 73.

Jan. 12 – The Miami Dolphins and Robbie Stadium Corporation undergo an organization realignment to ensure continued administration of both entities by the Robbie family. Tim Robbie becomes President of the Dolphins, Dan and Janet Robbie are named Executive Vice Presidents of the team, while Eddie Jones is named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the club. In addition, J. Michael Robbie is named Executive Vice President of Robbie Stadium Corporation.

Jan. 19 – Dolphin President Tim Robbie announces that the Dolphins have signed Don Shula to a three-year contract to remain as head coach.

Jan. 27 – Former Dolphins great Bob Griese is among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Griese becomes the fourth player in Miami history to earn the honor with induction scheduled for August 4.

Sept. 9 – Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season openers with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.

Sept. 16 – Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins record a 30-7 triumph over the Buffalo Bills, marking Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as the team's head coach.

Oct. 18 – In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.

Nov. 19 – During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."

Nov. 25 – Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Dec. 9 – The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.

Dec. 16 – In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.

Dec. 19 – Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle – and second rookie offensive lineman overall – to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

Jan. 5 – The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.

Jan. 12 – Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The teams combine for 78 points – the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff game was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.

Jan. 24 – Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.

Jan. 27 – Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.

Feb. 2 – Richmond Webb is named NFL Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News.

March 8 – Mike Shula joins the Dolphins as a Coaches' Assistant.

March 26 – The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.

May 23 – At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).

Aug. 3 – The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to battle the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.

Aug. 20 – Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Sept. 22 – Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.

Nov. 10 – In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 18 – During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 1 – Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.

Dec. 9 – Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino sets an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.

Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just 44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

Feb. 1 – Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.

Feb. 3 – Hall of Fame defensive tackle Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. Greene replaced Dan Sekanovich, who announced his resignation.

May 20 – Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.

June 1 – Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.

June 4 – Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

June 12 – Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

July 17 – Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil.

Aug. 31 – Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.

Sept. 29 – The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson, a week after a federal-court ruling in Minneapolis made a free agent of Jackson, in addition to Garin Veris, Webster Slaughter and D.J. Dozier.

Oct. 4 – In a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.

Oct. 18 – Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.

Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.

Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Feb. 11 – Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 22 – Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.

May 21 – Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.

June 1 – Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.

June 4 – Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.

July 11 – Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

Sept. 12 – Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.

Oct. 10 – Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn right Achilles) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.

Oct. 24 – Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

Oct. 31 – Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Nov. 14 – The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.

Nov. 25 – The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 13 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.

Jan. 24 – The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.

Feb. 8 – Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.

March 16 – John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.

March 23 – The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.

May 6 – Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970, announces his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner.

June 28 – H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.

July 21 – H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.

Sept. 4 – After missing the final 11 games of the 1993 season with a torn right Achilles' tendon, Dan Marino returns to action as he throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.

Oct. 2 – Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player as the Dolphins earn a 23-7 win over the Bengals.

Nov. 13 – Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.

Nov. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino makes history once again with his famous "Clock Play". With the Dolphins trailing the Jets by 18 points in the second half at the Meadowlands, Marino orchestrates a 28-point second-half outburst, including 22 straight to close the contest, as Miami claims a 28-24 victory. All four scores in the second half occur on Marino to Mark Ingram touchdown passes. The game winning points come on first-and-goal with just 22 seconds to play, when Marino approaches the line of scrimmage, appearing poised to clock the ball. However, he takes everyone in the stadium by surprise as he receives the snap, drops back and tosses an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ingram, who ties the Paul Warfield's single-game record of four touchdowns and 24 points, which Warfield achieved against Detroit on December 15, 1973.

Dec. 7 – Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.

Dec. 12 – Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.

Dec. 25 – The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

Dec. 27 – Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.

Dec. 31 – Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 9 – Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.

Jan. 18 – Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

Feb. 6 – Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.

Feb. 9 – Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.

May 19 – The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.

Sept. 3 – The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.

Oct. 1 – The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.

Oct. 8 – Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 26 – Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.

Dec. 11 – Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during half-time ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record. The team clinches a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration. Miami's win marks the 347th and final victory in the illustrious head coaching career of Don Shula.

Dec. 30 – Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards. The game marks the final contest in Head Coach Don Shula's career.

Jan. 5 – Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.

Jan. 11 – Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (University of Miami, 1987).

Jan. 16 – Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

Jan. 17 – The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette, who replaces Joe Greene, had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.

Jan. 19 – Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach, replacing Tony Nathan. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).

Jan. 24 – Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).

Feb. 16 – The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).

March 1 – The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

April 23 – Dan Marino, who broke every significant career passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Aug. 26 – Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a 10-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.

Sept. 1 – The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24-10, at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.

Sept. 10 – Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.

Sept. 15 – On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history.

Oct. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.

Oct. 29 – WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM beginning in the 1997 season and through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.

Oct. 31 – At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 10 – A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 25 – At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Jan. 14 – Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.

Jan. 25 – Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

March 11 – At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.

March 21 – Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.

April 17 – Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.

April 18 – The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.

June 3 – Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.

June 4 – "T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.

June 13 – Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.

July 26 – Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.

Aug. 4 – The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

Aug. 31 – The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in the month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.

Oct. 5 – The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.

Oct. 27 – After the Dolphins built a 33-18 fourth-quarter lead, the Chicago Bears storm back for 18 unanswered points, including a Jeff Jaeger 35-yard field goal with 5:35 remaining in overtime, to come away with a 36-33 victory on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium. It equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game originally was scheduled to be played on Sunday, October 26, but was pushed back due to Game 7 of the Marlins-Indians World Series.

Dec. 14 – The Dolphins are shut out, 41-0, by the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome. The shutout snaps a streak of 162 consecutive games - the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time - in which the Dolphins had scored. The last time Miami had been held scoreless was on November 29, 1987, in a 27-0 loss at the Buffalo Bills.

Dec. 22 – In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer. The Patriots win the game, 14-12, giving New England the AFC East title. A win by the Dolphins would have made them AFC East champions, but instead they enter the playoffs as a Wild Card team where they must go on the road to face the Patriots the following week, a 17-3 Dolphins loss on December 28.

Jan. 24 – Former Dolphins center Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Feb. 11 – Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.

March 23 – Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins General Manager and Head Coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.

Aug. 1 – Center Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Muñoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.

Nov. 29 – In a 30-10 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium, quarterback Dan Marino throws three touchdown passes, all to O.J. McDuffie. The second one, a seven-yard strike in the fourth quarter, the 400th TD pass of Marino's career, the first quarterback in NFL history ever to reach that plateau.

Dec. 21 – The Dolphins record a 31-21 victory over the Denver Broncos at Pro Player Stadium in front of an ABC Monday Night Football audience. The win is Miami's 34th on Monday night, as they surpass Oakland as the winningest team in MNF history.

Dec. 27 – In a season-ending 38-16 loss to the Falcons in Atlanta, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie catches five passes for 82 yards. His second reception of the afternoon, a 28-yard catch in the second quarter, is his 87th of the season, surpassing Mark Clayton (86 in 1988) as the Dolphins' single-season reception leader. McDuffie finishes the year with an NFL-high 90 receptions, the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in this category.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills, 24-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It represents Miami's first playoff win since December 31, 1994, when they posted a 27-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in a First-Round contest at Pro Player Stadium.

Jan. 14 – Dave Wannstedt, head coach with the Chicago Bears from 1993-98, is named the Dolphins' assistant head coach.

Jan. 21 – Paul Boudreau is named offensive line coach.

March 2 – Eddie Jones signs a three-contract to remain as the team's President and Chief Operating Officer.

June 15 – Dan Marino signs a two-year contract extension through 2001.

Sept. 13 – The Dolphins defeat the two-time defending Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos, 38-21, in a season-opening Monday night game at Mile High Stadium. The win was the 300th during the regular season in Dolphins history.

Oct. 10 – The Dolphins set a franchise record by posting 25 fourth-quarter points, and in the process erase a pair of nine-point deficits to earn a 34-31 triumph over the Colts at the RCA Dome. Quarterback Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdowns in the final period, including a two-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden with 27 seconds to play, lifting Miami to victory. It marks the 35th time in Marino's career that he has led the Dolphins back from a fourth-quarter deficit for a win.

Oct. 17 – Dan Marino completes an eight-yard pass to Tony Martin in the first quarter against the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. The completion, the first and only one of the game for Marino, puts him over the 60,000-yard passing plateau for his career, the only quarterback in NFL history to attain that mark. Marino leaves the game following the next series with a shoulder injury, forcing him to miss the next five contests. Damon Huard relieves Marino with the Dolphins trailing 7-0. After his first attempt in picked off and returned for a touchdown by Ty Law, Huard goes on to complete 24 of 42 passes for 240 yards with two touchdowns in leading the Dolphins to a 31-30 victory. The game-winning points occur on a five-yard TD pass to Stanley Pritchett with 23 seconds remaining in the game. The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win back-to-back road games when trailing by seven or more points after the third quarter.

Dec. 5 – Former wide receiver Nat Moore becomes the 12th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium.

Dec. 12 – Kicker Olindo Mare accounts for two field goals against the Jets at the Meadowlands. His first field goal of the game, a 24-yarder, was his 32nd of the season, breaking Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season records of 31, which Stoyanovich had set in 1991.

Dec. 21 – Cornerback Sam Madison, kicker Olindo Mare and linebacker Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first selection for all three. Madison becomes the first cornerback in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl squad.

Dec. 27 – Kicker Olindo Mare boots a 37-yard field goal against the Jets in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium. The field goal was his 38th of the season, as he became the NFL's single-season field goal leader, surpassing John Kasay, who had amassed 37 field goals with Carolina in 1996. Mare would finish the season with 39 field goals.

Jan. 9 – The Dolphins defeat the Seattle Seahawks, 20-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at the Kingdome, the final football game at the stadium. The win is Miami's first road playoff victory since they defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1972 AFC Championship Game at Three Rivers Stadium. Quarterback Dan Marino completes 17 of 30 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the victory, in which he guides a late drive that leads to the game-winning touchdown with 4:48 remaining.

Jan. 15 – The Dolphins drop a 62-7 decision to the Jacksonville Jaguars in an AFC Divisional Playoff game at ALLTEL Stadium. The contest is the final one in the playing career of quarterback Dan Marino and coaching career of Jimmy Johnson.

Jan. 24 – Jim Bates is named defensive coordinator, replacing George Hill. Clarence Brooks is named defensive line coach, replacing Cary Godette.

Feb. 1 – Chan Gailey, the Head Coach with the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kippy Brown. Randy Shannon, a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1998-99, is promoted to linebackers coach.

Feb. 7 – Mike Shula, the offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-99, re-joins the Dolphins as quarterbacks coach, replacing Larry Seiple. Shula previously had served as an assistant on Miami's coaching staff from 1991-92. Judd Garrett is named as an offensive assistant, and Robert Nunn is named as a defensive assistant.

Feb. 10 – Quarterback Dan Marino, the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1983 and the NFL's all-time leading passer, voids the final two years of his contract, thus becoming a free agent.

Mar. 13 – Dan Marino announces his retirement from professional football.

Apr. 14 – The Dolphins unveil Dan Marino's permanent encased locker at the team's Nova Southeastern University training facility, the first of its kind in club history.

May 3 – The Dolphins name Rick Spielman as Vice President-Player Personnel. Spielman had served as Director of Pro Personnel with the Chicago Bears since 1997.

June 12 – Huizenga Holdings, Inc., the private company that represents many of the non-publicly traded business interests of the Huizenga family, announces that it retained the investment banking firm of Morgan Stanley Dean Whitter to explore strategic alternatives regarding the financial structure of the Miami Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. Alternatives include the potential of additional investors in the team and the stadium, as well as naming rights for the stadium.

Aug. 21 – The portion of N.W. 199 Street in front of Pro Player Stadium is re-named "Dan Marino Boulevard". The new address for the Dolphins' home becomes 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard.

Aug. 23 – More than 50,000 fans show up at Pro Player Stadium for the public tribute to Dan Marino. The night's festivities include appearances by the five other members of the famed quarterback "Class of '83" – John Elway, Jim Kelly, Todd Blackledge, Tony Eason and Ken O'Brien – as well as former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula and former Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw. The band "Hootie and the Blowfish" provide the musical entertainment, while the four-hour event concludes with a gala fireworks display.

Sept. 3 – Jay Fiedler opens at quarterback in the Dolphins' season-opener against Seattle at Pro Player Stadium. Fiedler is the first quarterback to start on opening day for the Dolphins other than Dan Marino since 1983. Fiedler completes 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the Dolphins' 23-0 win, the third shutout victory on opening day in franchise history and the first since 1983.

Sept. 17 – The Dolphins defeat the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens, 19-6, in a game that was played through a steady rain at Pro Player Stadium. At halftime of the game, former quarterback Dan Marino has his jersey No. 13 retired, the second Dolphin ever to receive that honor. He also becomes the 13th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Oct. 23 – On a Monday night at the Meadowlands, the Dolphins hold a commanding 30-7 fourth-quarter lead over the New York Jets. The Jets, however, post 30 of the 37 points scored in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime, where John Hall ends the four hour, ten minute epic with a 40-yard field goal, 6:47 into the extra period. It is the largest comeback win ever against the Dolphins, while it also marks the longest game in the history of Monday Night Football.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins earn a 27-24 victory over the Patriots on Christmas Eve at Foxboro Stadium to claim the 12th AFC East title in club history and the first since 1994. Thirty-five minutes following the apparent conclusion of the game, both teams are summoned back onto the field after it is determined that three seconds still remain with the Patriots having the ball at their own 40. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt of the game falls incomplete at about the Dolphins' 25.

Dec. 30 – The Dolphins erase a 14-0 third-quarter deficit by scoring 23 of the next 26 points en route to a 23-17 overtime win against the Colts in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It marks the second-largest comeback win in Dolphins postseason annals. The winning points are scored on a 17-yard run by running back Lamar Smith with 3:34 to play in the first overtime. It caps a day in which Smith set an NFL playoff record with 40 rushing attempts. His 209 rushing yards is the second-highest figure in NFL playoff history and the most-ever by a Dolphin (regular season or postseason) at the time.

Jan. 6 – The Raiders defeat the Dolphins, 27-0, in a Divisional Playoff game in Oakland. It is the first time that Miami has been shutout in 38 postseason contests.

Jan. 15 – Keith Armstrong is named special teams coach and Tony Wise is hired as offensive line coach.

Jan. 27 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti, who anchored Miami's "No-Name" defense, leading the Dolphins to two straight Super Bowl victories, becomes the eighth former Dolphin to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and the first defensive player.

Feb. 2 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season.

Mar. 1 – Bob Sanders is named linebackers coach, replacing Randy Shannon, who became the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami.

May 9 – Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season. In addition, Ron Labadie is promoted to Director of College Scouting, after serving as the Dolphins' midwest scout since 1990. Tom Braatz, the team's Director of College Scouting since 1992, is named as a scout, and John Crea is named as the Dolphins' midwest area scout.

June 4 – George Paton is named Director of Pro Personnel, replacing Tom Heckert, Jr., who was named Director of Player Personnel with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Aug. 4 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the eighth Dolphin and first defensive player to earn that honor.

Sept. 13 – In the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks, the NFL announces that it will cancel games for the weekend of September 16-17. The Dolphins game against the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium is re-scheduled for Sunday, January 6.

Dec. 10 – The Dolphins earn a resounding 41-6 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium, the last game that these two teams would play as AFC East opponents, prior to realignment in 2002. For the Dolphins, it is their 36th victory on Monday Night Football, as they surpass San Francisco as the winningest team in MNF history.

Dec. 16 – The Dolphins are handed a 21-0 shutout by the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park. Coupled with their 24-0 loss to the Jets at Pro Player Stadium on November 18, it marks just the third time in franchise history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins suffer two shutout losses in the same season.

Dec. 22 – Playing their third game in 13 days, the Dolphins drop a 20-13 decision to the New England Patriots in the last regular season game ever played at Foxboro Stadium.

Dec. 30 – With a 21-14 win over Atlanta at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins clinch their fifth playoff appearance in a row, as they become the only NFL team to reach the postseason in each of these five years, a span ranging from 1997-01.

Jan. 6 – In a game that was originally scheduled to be played on September 16, but cancelled because of terrorist attacks, the Dolphins clinch a home First-Round Playoff game with a 34-7 season ending win over Buffalo, just the fourth time in team history that the Dolphins have played a regular season game in the month of January. On the game's final play, Brock Marion picks off a Travis Brown pass and races 100 yards for a touchdown, as the Dolphins establish a club single-season record for interception returns for touchdowns (five) and defensive touchdowns (six).

Jan. 28 – Bryan Wiedmeier is promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Rick Spielman is promoted to Senior Vice President – Football Operations/Player Personnel.

Feb. 5 – The Dolphins name Norv Turner as their Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator, taking over from Chan Gailey, who had been named Head Coach at Georgia Tech. In addition to serving as Head Coach with the Washington Redskins from 1994-00, Turner also was the offensive coordinator with both Dallas (1991-93) and San Diego (2001).

Feb. 13 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2004 season.

March 14 – The Dolphins and WQAM Radio sign a new two-year contract for the station to continue to serve as the team's flagship through 2003.

June 5 – At the team's annual Kickoff Banquet, President Eddie Jones announces that former running back Larry Csonka will have his uniform jersey No. 39 retired during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' December 9 game against Chicago at Pro Player Stadium. Csonka will become the third player to receive this honor, joining QB Bob Griese (No. 12 on May 6, 1982) and QB Dan Marino (No. 13 on September 17, 2000).

Sept. 8 – The Dolphins record their 11th consecutive opening day victory with a 49-21 decision over the Detroit Lions at Pro Player Stadium. Making his Dolphins debut, RB Ricky Williams rushes for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries, the fifth-highest rushing total by a player in his initial appearance as a Dolphin.

Sept. 22 – The Dolphins snap an eight-game losing streak to the Jets with a convincing 30-3 win at Pro Player Stadium. The victory also marks the Dolphins' 17th straight at home during the regular season in the months of August/September. Ricky Williams rushes for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, becoming the first player in team history to amass three straight 100-yard rushing games. Coupled with his 132-yard effort the previous week at Indianapolis, his two-game rushing total of 283 yards sets a new Dolphins record, surpassing the old mark of 273, which had been held by Bernie Parmalee since 1994. Williams will go on to break this two-game record three subsequent times during the course of the season.

Oct. 13 – In their first of four prime-time appearances of the year, the Dolphins register a 24-22 win over the Denver Broncos in their first-ever visit to INVESCO Field at Mile High. Jason Elam's 55-yard field goal with 45 seconds to play gives Denver a 22-21 lead. Olindo Mare counters with a 53-yarder with six seconds remaining to lift the Dolphins to the victory. It marks the first time in NFL history that a kicker from each team has accounted for a field goal of 50 yards or longer with less than a minute to play in a game.

Nov. 24 – Ricky Williams establishes a new club single-season standard with his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season with a 143-yard, two-touchdown effort in a 30-3 victory over San Diego at Pro Player Stadium. He breaks the old mark of five, which was first set by Delvin Williams in 1978.

Dec. 1 – Ricky Williams further etches his name into the Dolphins' record book when he rushes for 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries in a 38-21 loss to the Bills in Buffalo. This single-game total surpasses the previous record of 209 yards, set by Lamar Smith in a 2000 First-Round Playoff victory over Indianapolis. In the process, Williams also surpasses Delvin Williams' club single-season record of 1,258 yards, achieved in 1978. In addition, with Williams overtaking the 1,200-yard rushing mark, the conditional third-round draft choice in 2003 that the Dolphins sent to the Saints in the trade for Williams on March 8, now becomes a second-round pick.

Dec. 9 – In a 27-9 victory over the Chicago Bears in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium, Ricky Williams becomes just the third player (fourth time) in NFL history to amass back-to-back 200-yard rushing games, as he runs for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries. He joins Hall of Famers O.J. Simpson (1973, 1976) and Earl Campbell (1980) as the only players to achieve this feat. His two-game rushing total of 444 yards is the fourth-most in NFL annals, while his 587 yards over the three-game span is third-most in league history. In the process, he breaks his own club record with his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance. It also represents his fourth straight game with a pair of rushing scores. His total for the game gives him 1,500 yards for the season, as the second-round draft choice that the Saints get from the Dolphins as part of the trade now becomes a first-rounder in '03. At halftime of the game, former FB Larry Csonka has his jersey No. 39 retired, just the third Dolphin ever to receive that honor, joining quarterbacks Bob Griese (No. 12) and Dan Marino (No. 13).

Dec. 21 – Jason Taylor is credited with 1.5 sacks as he ties Bill Stanfill's club single-season record for sacks with 18.5, during the game against the Vikings at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Taylor also extends his streak of consecutive games with a sack to eight. That streak will come to an end in the season finale the following week as he is shut out by the Patriots. Taylor's sack total leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to achieve that feat.

Dec. 29 – Ricky Williams rushes for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts against the Patriots in Miami's first-ever visit to Gillette Stadium. His second score of the game occurs on a 14-yard run in the second quarter, his 16th rushing score of the season and establishes a new Dolphins single-season record for rushing touchdowns, surpassing the previous mark of 15 set by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997. Williams also finishes the year as the team's single-season leader for rushing yards (1,853), attempts (383), 100-yard rushing games (10) and total yards from scrimmage (2,216). His rushing yardage total also leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to earn that distinction.

Feb. 2 – Ricky Williams rushes for 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 attempts, catches three passes for 18 yards while also forcing a fumble on special teams in the AFC's 45-20 victory over the NFC in the Pro Bowl in Honolulu. For his efforts, Williams is named the game's MVP, just the second Dolphin ever to win that honor, joining kicker Garo Yepremian who came away with the award in the 1974 game.

Feb. 13 – The Dolphins name Glenn Pires as assistant defensive line coach, replacing Robert Nunn, who left to become defensive line coach with the Washington Redskins. Pires had spent the previous two seasons as linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions.

May 2 – Tom Braatz, a veteran of 38 seasons as an NFL front office executive, announces his retirement. Braatz had joined the Dolphins in 1992 as Director of College Scouting and spent his final two years with the club as a college scout. Chris Grier, the team's southeast college scout the past three years, is promoted to national scout.

May 4 – Former Dolphin David Woodley (1980-83), an eighth-round draft choice in 1980 who started at quarterback for the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII against Washington, passes away in his hometown of Shreveport, La.

May 9 – Quarterbacks Coach Mike Shula, who played quarterback at the University of Alabama from 1983-86, is introduced as the school's head coach.

Oct. 27 – The Dolphins record a 26-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers in a Monday night game at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona. The game originally was scheduled to be played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, but is moved because of wildfires that devastate Southern California. After arriving in San Diego Sunday evening, the Dolphins board a flight to Phoenix the morning of the game, at approximately 11:00 a.m. (PT).

Nov. 23 – In a Sunday night game against Washington at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins don orange jerseys in a 24-23 win over the Redskins. It is the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua.

Nov. 27 – The Dolphins improve their Thanksgiving Day record to 4-1 with a 40-21 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The Dolphins wear their "throwback" jerseys, commemorating the 30th anniversary of the 1973 team that captured the club's second straight Super Bowl title.

Dec. 15 – At halftime ceremonies against the Philadelphia Eagles at Pro Player Stadium, former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton become the 14th and 15th members of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 21 – In a 20-3 win over the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium, DE Jason Taylor registers three sacks, and in the process becomes the Dolphins' all-time sack leader, surpassing Bill Stanfill, whose mark of 67.5 had stood since 1976.

Dec. 29 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that the Dolphins will restructure their football operations for the 2004 season, including the search for a General Manager who will be responsible for all personnel matters on both the professional and college levels, as well as the makeup of the Dolphins roster. Head Coach Dave Wannstedt is given a two-year contract extension through the 2006 season.

Jan. 12 – Rick Spielman is promoted to General Manager from Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel, a position in which he had served since 2002. He first joined the club as Vice President-Player Personnel since 2000. In addition, Dan Marino is named Senior Vice President/Football Operations.

Jan. 26 – Joel Collier is promoted to offensive coordinator from running backs coach. He takes over the spot which became vacant when Norv Turner was named Head Coach with he Oakland Raiders. Marc Trestman, who had been with the Raiders each of the previous three seasons, including the last two as offensive coordinator, is named assistant head coach/quarterbacks. Miami native Jerry Sullivan is appointed wide receivers coach after spending each of the previous three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, including 2003 as the team's offensive coordinator.

Feb. 2 – Bernie Parmalee is promoted to running backs coach from assistant special teams/offensive assistant, while Chris Foerster is named tight ends coach after handling that same position with the Indianapolis Colts each of the previous two seasons.

Feb. 3 – Dan Marino resigns as Senior Vice President/Football Operations, saying, "I knew it would involve a significant lifestyle change but after further reflection, it became clear that those adjustments were ones that my family and I are not prepared to make at this time. As a result, I have decided that it would not be in the best interests of either my family or the Miami Dolphins to assume the role as the team's Senior Vice President of Football Operations."

May 10 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt announces several adjustments to the coaching staff for the 2004 season. Chris Foerster, who was hired earlier in the offseason to coach the team's tight ends, was named offensive coordinator. Joel Collier will return to coaching the running backs, a position that he had held since 1998. Bernie Parmalee, who had been named running backs coach in the offseason following two years as an offensive assistant, will tutor the Dolphins' tight ends. These changes were necessitated because of health-related reasons on the part of Collier.

July 25 – Running back Ricky Williams informs the Miami Herald of his intention of retiring from professional football.

July 30 – On the day the Dolphins report for the 39th training camp in franchise history, the club places Ricky Williams on its Reserve/Did Not Report list.

July 21 – Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Stephen M. Ross announces that Grammy Award-winning singer/songwriter Marc Anthony is joining the organization as a limited partner of the franchise.

Aug. 7 – Miami Dolphins owner Stephen Ross announces that world-renowned artist Romero Britto will bring Land Shark Stadium alive through his iconic art. The stadium's helixes and gate entrances will be adorned by Britto's high-energy and vibrant art, adding life and a touch of South Florida to the venue. In connection with the Dolphins celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, children from various community organizations under the Brazilian artist's direction help paint the helixes with Britto's pulsating colors and pop themes.

Aug. 25 – Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Stephen M. Ross announces that Venus and Serena Williams, who have 18 Grand Slam tennis singles titles combined and are residents of Palm Beach Gardens, are joining the organization as limited partners of the franchise. The Williams sisters are the first female African-Americans to hold an ownership stake in a NFL franchise and one of the few African-Americans league-wide to hold this unique distinction.

Sept. 21 – The Dolphins open the 2009 home schedule with a prime time Monday night ESPN contest against the Indianapolis Colts, marking the team's first prime time home opener since a Thursday night against the Pittsburgh Steelers on September 10, 1981 and the first home opener on Monday night since September 22, 1975 against the Oakland Raiders.

Oct. 12 – For the third time in team history (all in home prime time games), the Dolphins wear orange jerseys and defeat the New York Jets, 31-27, at Land Shark Stadium in a Monday Night contest. The win gives the Dolphins a perfect 3-0 record in those contests, having defeated the Washington Redskins, 24-23, on Nov. 23, 2008, and the New England Patriots, 29-28, on Dec. 20, 2004.

Oct. 13 – The National Football League approves Stacy Ann Ferguson as a proposed limited partner of the franchise during the NFL Fall Meetings that were held in Boston. Ferguson, who is better known by the stage name 'Fergie', the female vocalist of the hip hop/pop group the Black Eyed Peas, is the sixth celebrity partner approved by the NFL and added to the franchise by Owner and Managing General Partner, Stephen M. Ross.

Nov. 1 – In the Dolphins' 30-25 victory over the New York Jets at Giants Stadium, Ted Ginn, Jr. becomes the first player in NFL history with two touchdowns of 100 yards or more in the same game, running kickoffs back 100 and 101 yards for touchdowns, both in the third quarter. The third-year veteran also becomes the eighth player in NFL history with two kick return touchdowns in a game. Additionally, Ginn becomes the first player to record two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter since Green Bay's Travis Williams accomplished the feat November 12, 1967 vs. the Cleveland Browns in Milwaukee County Stadium. Ginn also records the second most kickoff return yards in a game in NFL history with 299 yards, which is second to Tyrone Hughes of the New Orleans Saints who registered 304 yards against the L.A. Rams on October 23, 1994.

Dec. 20 – Ricky Williams has 19 carries for 80 yards at Tennessee, eclipsing the 1,000-yard mark for the season. Williams finishes the season with 1,121 rushing yards and breaks the NFL record for longest span between 1,000-yard seasons. Williams' last

1,000-yard season came in 2003, six seasons earlier. He finished second to Ernest Byner by 98 yards for the most yards in a single season between 1,000 yard rushing seasons.

Jan. 19 – Bill Sheridan is named linebackers coach. Sheridan joins the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season as the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants.

Jan. 20 – Mike Nolan is named defensive coordinator, replacing Paul Pasqualoni, after spending the 2009 season as the defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos.

Jan. 20 – The Miami Dolphins and the U.S. division of Sun Life Financial Inc. (NYSE: SLF, TSX: SLF) announce a multi-dimensional partnership that results in the team playing in what is now called "Sun Life Stadium." In addition to acquiring naming and sponsorship rights, which go into effect for the upcoming Pro Bowl and Super Bowl, Sun Life Financial, a leading international financial services organization, makes Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through an annual partnership with the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

Jan. 31 – The Miami Dolphins unveil the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula. The bronze statue adorns the entrance of the new Dolphins corporate headquarters at Sun Life Stadium, marking the return of the Dolphins front office to Miami-Dade County after 16 years. In addition, the stadium address is announced as 347 Don Shula Drive in honor of the head coach's career victory total.

Jan. 31 – The 2010 Pro Bowl, the first contested prior to the Super Bowl and only the second Pro Bowl played in the same city as the Super Bowl, is staged at Sun Life Stadium. Houston Texans quarterback Matt Schaub is named the games' MVP while leading the AFC to a 41-34 win.

Feb. 7 – The New Orleans Saints rally with 15 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, to win Super Bowl XLIV. It is the tenth Super Bowl held in Miami at the home stadium of the Miami Dolphins: the newly named Sun Life Stadium had hosted four previous Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, and XLI) and five were played in the Miami Orange Bowl (II, III, V, X, XIII).

Feb. 24 – Joe Danna is named assistant defensive backs coach. Danna joins the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season with the Atlanta Falcons as a defensive assistant.

Mar. 1 – The Dolphins announce a six-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that results in WBGG (105.9 FM) and WINZ (940 AM) becoming the Dolphins flagship stations.

May 20 – In an emotional press conference, Zach Thomas announces his retirement after signing a free agent contract with the Dolphins. It allows him to finish his career with the team that he played for in his first 12 seasons in the league (1996-2007), making seven Pro Bowls and registering 100 or more tackles in all but one season in that span.

Oct. 5 – Darren Rizzi is promoted to special teams coach. He had served as the team's assistant special teams coach since 2009.

Oct. 19 – The Dolphins break their own record for the largest total for a single-site, one-day blood drive in Florida history during the Second Annual Touchdown for Life Blood Drive at Sun Life Stadium. A record 1,567 participants registered, exceeding last year's record in which there were 1,003 blood donors.

Nov. 14 – The Miami Dolphins honor long-time Miami Herald columnist Edwin Pope by naming the press box at Sun Life Stadium the "Edwin Pope Press Box."

Nov. 18 – During halftime ceremonies of the team's game against the Chicago Bears, former Dolphins safety Jake Scott and defensive end Bill Stanfill become the 20th and 21st members to be inducted into the Dolphins Honor Roll. The pair were also teammates at the University of Georgia prior to joining the Dolphins.

Nov. 20-21 – More than 400 cyclists take part throughout two days of the inaugural Dolphins Cycling Challenge. DCC riders cycle across three South Florida counties and raised $533,106 to support cancer research and treatment for the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.

Dec. 5 – Dan Carpenter kicks a 60-yard field goal against the Cleveland Browns at Sun Life Stadium, which breaks the record for longest field goal in team history. The record had been set by Pete Stoyanovich who booted a 59-yard kick on November 12, 1989 at the New York Jets.

Jan. 2 – With six carries at New England, Ricky Williams sets the team record for most career rushing attempts with 1,509. Williams passes Hall of Famer Larry Csonka, who held the record with 1,506 attempts.

Jan. 8 – Head Coach Tony Sparano signs a contract extension through the end of 2013 season.

Jan. 19 – Brian Daboll is named offensive coordinator. Daboll spent the previous two seasons in the same position with the Cleveland Browns. Prior to his experience in Cleveland, Daboll spent seven years on Bill Belichick's coaching staff with the New England Patriots, the first two as a defensive assistant and the last five (2002-06) as wide receivers coach.

Jan. 20 – The Dolphins name Jeff Nixon as running backs coach and Darren Krein as head strength and conditioning coach.

Jan. 22 – General Manager Jeff Ireland signs a multi-year contract extension.

Jan. 24 – Dan Campbell is named tight ends coach. Campbell originally joined the staff prior to the 2010 season, serving as a coaching intern/offense.

Jan. 26 – The Dolphins announce several changes to their coaching staff. Special teams coach Darren Rizzi is promoted to special teams coordinator, Karl Dorrell is now the quarterbacks coach after directing the team's wide receivers, former offensive quality control coach Steve Bush is now the wide receivers coach, Dave Fipp is named as the assistant special teams coach, Tony Sparano, Jr. is named offensive quality control coach and Ike Hilliard joins the team as assistant wide receivers coach.

Feb. 21 – Former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker Bryan Cox returns to the organization as the team's pass rush coach. Cox spent the previous two seasons as the defensive line coach for Cleveland Browns (2009-10). He began his NFL coaching career as an assistant defensive line coach for the New York Jets (2006-08).

May 4 – A public memorial service to celebrate the life and achievements of former Dolphins tight end and long-time broadcaster Jim "Mad Dog" Mandich, who passed alway on April 26 after a battle with bile-duct cancer, is held in front of a crowd of several thousand fans at Sun Life Stadium. At the celebration it is announced that Mandich will be the inducted to the Dolphin Honor Roll as a "Special Contributor."

Aug. 1 – Jason Taylor re-signs with the Dolphins for the third stint with the team. A veteran of 15 seasons, the former NFL Defensive Player of the Year (2006) and NFL Man of thre Year (2007) has played with the Dolphins (1997-2007, 2009), Redskins (2008) and N.Y. Jets (2010).

Aug. 19 – Hall of Fame quarterback Bob Griese is added to the Dolphins radio booth, replacing Jim Mandich, who had passed away earlier that year in April. Griese rounds out the radio broadcast crew of play-by-play voice Jimmy Cefalo and color analyst Joe Rose. Griese has been a member of the television broadcast crew at CBS-4 broadcasting Miami's preseason games for the past 21 years. He also worked as a color analyst on college football games for ABC for almost 30 years.

Sept. 12 – Hours before the season opener against the Patriots, Dolphins owner Steve Ross is accompanied by Tim Robbie and Hall-of-Famers Dan Marino, Bob Griese, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson as he re-dedicates a statue of team founder Joe Robbie on the newly named Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza, located at Gate C of Sun Life Stadium. The plaza will be the place where Dolphins legends from the player side and the fan side will be honored going forward.

Dec. 4 – A little more than an hour before the Dolphins and Raiders game at Sun Life Stadium, original owner Joe Robbie and nine Dolphins legends took their place on the newly minted Walk of Fame. The shrine surrounds a statue of the late Robbie as the centerpiece of the Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza. Hall-of-Famers Don Shula, Dan Marino, Bob Griese, Nick Buoniconti, Jim Langer, Larry Little, Larry Csonka and Dwight Stephenson and Paul Warfield joined Robbie in having their names immortalized in bronze. At halftime, former Dolphins tight end and broadcaster Jim Mandich became the 22nd member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 12 – Todd Bowles, who had served as Miami's Assistant Head Coach/Secondary since joining the organization prior to the 2008 season, is named as the team's interim head coach, replacing Tony Sparano.

Dec. 18 – Reggie Bush gains a career high 203 rushing yards in Miami's 30-23 win. The performance marks the fourth time in team history that a Dolphins running back surpasses the 200-yard rushing mark, joining Ricky Williams (228 yards at Buffalo on December 1, 2002 and 216 yards vs. Chicago on December 9, 2002) and Lamar Smith (209 yards vs. Indianapolis in an AFC Playoff contest on December 30, 2000). Bush scores on a 76-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter at Buffalo. It is the third-longest rush from scrimmage in team history, behind 77-yard touchdown runs by Leroy Harris (December 5, 1977 vs. Baltimore) and Keith Byars (November 25, 1993 at Dallas).

Dec. 24 – Reggie Bush tops the 100-yard rushing mark for the fourth consecutive game with 113 yards at the Patriots and surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing mark. It marks the 12th time in team history that a Dolphins runner has posted a 1,000-yard rushing season. In the game, Bush and wide receiver Brandon Marshall become first 1,000-yard rushing and receiving tandem in a single season in franchise history.

Jan. 1 – Jason Taylor is carried off the field by his teammates in the final game of his record-setting career following Miami's 19-17 season-ending victory over the New York Jets. Taylor, who announced his retirement on December 28, 2011, finishes his career 139.5 sacks (sixth-most in NFL history), an NFL-record six fumble returns for touchdown and six Pro Bowl appearances. The win is the 400th regular season triumph in Dolphins history.

Jan. 20 – Joe Philbin is named as the tenth head coach in Miami Dolphins team history. Philbin joins Miami from the Green Bay Packers, where he originally joined the team on February 10, 2003 as assistant offensive line coach. He was promoted to tight ends/assistant offensive line on February 27, 2004 and was promoted by Head Coach Mike McCarthy to offensive line coach on January 17, 2006, and to offensive coordinator on January 15, 2007.

Jan. 27 – Mike Sherman is named as offensive coordinator and Kevin Coyle joins the organization as defensive coordinator, bringing a combined 68 years of coaching experience. Sherman most recently was a college head coach at Texas A&M, where he spent four years (2008-11) and was the head coach of the Green Bay Packers for six seasons (2000-05). Coyle comes to Miami after more than a decade with the Cincinnati Bengals, the last nine (2003-11) as their defensive backs coach.

Jan. 29 – Brandon Marshall catches six passes for 176 yards and four touchdowns in the Pro Bowl and is named as the game's MVP following a 59-41 AFC victory. Marshall joins kicker Garo Yepremian (1974) and running back Ricky Williams (2003) as the only Dolphins to be named as the MVP of the NFL's annual all-star game.

Jan. 30 – George Edwards is named as Miami's linebackers coach and Zac Taylor as assistant quarterbacks coach. The team also announces that tight ends coach Dan Campbell, strength coach Darren Krein and special teams coordinator Darren Rizzi have been retained on Head Coach Joe Philbin's staff.

Feb. 2 – Jim Turner is named as team's offensive line coach. The Dolphins also announce that defensive quality control coach David Corrao, assistant special teams coordinator Dave Fipp, assistant strength coach Dave Puloka and defensive line coach Kacy Rodgers have been retained on the coaching staff.

Feb. 4 – The Dolphins name Lou Anarumo as defensive backs coach, Phil McGeoghan as assistant wide receivers coach and Ken O'Keefe as the wide receivers coach.

Feb. 10 – Coach Joe Philbin completes his coaching staff by naming Blue Adams as assistant defensive backs coach, Charlie Bullen as defensive assistant, Ben Johnson as offensive assistant, Chris Mosley as assistant offensive line coach and announcing that running backs coach Jeff Nixon has been retained.

April 3 – The Miami Dolphins, Nike and the NFL reveal the team's new jersey at a special event in New York City. The primary change to the Dolphins uniform is performance-based with a new uniform material as well as cut of the jersey. The most noticeable design change is the "flywire technology" on the collar.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has had 15 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This total of 15 is the second-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, trailing only George Halas, who had 25 players enshrined.Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was Head Coach with the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while eight were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95).

Hall of Famers who played under Shula in Baltimore include DE Gino Marchetti (Class of 1972), WR Raymond Berry (1973), OT Jim Parker (1973), RB Lenny Moore (1975), QB Johnny Unitas (1979), LB Ted Hendricks (1990) and TE John Mackey (1992)

The Dolphins contingent includes WR Paul Warfield (1983), FB Larry Csonka (1987), Jim Langer (1987), QB Bob Griese (1990), G Larry Little (1993), C Dwight Stephenson (1998), LB Nick Buoniconti (2001) and QB Dan Marino (2005).

PLAYOFF HISTORY

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14 — Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 27, 1970 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 24 (2 OTs) — Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971 — Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0 Orange Bowl
January 2, 1972 Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. “My eyes were popping as I ran,” Anderson said. “I’ve never seen so many people land on their heads.” Before Anderson’s convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins’ 9 in the second quarter. Jim O’Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

January 16, 1972 New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

December 24, 1972 Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

December 31, 1972 Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

January 14, 1973 Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16 Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973 Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

December 30, 1973 Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

January 13, 1974 — Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

December 21, 1974 Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

STEELERS 34, DOLPHINS 14 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 — Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT) Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

January 8, 1983 Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

January 16, 1983 Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

January 23, 1983 Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

January 30, 1983 — Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

December 31, 1983 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

December 29, 1984 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

January 6, 1985 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

January 20, 1985 Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21 — Orange Bowl
January 4, 1986 — Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

January 12, 1986 — Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

January 5, 1991 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

January 12, 1991 Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

January 10, 1993 Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 17, 1993 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

December 31, 1994 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21 Jack Murphy Stadium
January 8, 1995 San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

December 30, 1995 Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3 Foxboro Stadium
December 28, 1997 Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17 Pro Player Stadium
January 2, 1999 Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

1998 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

January 9, 1999 Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17 Kingdome
January 9, 2000 Seattle, WA

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7 ALLTEL Stadium
January 15, 2000 Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovin Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT) Pro Player Stadium
December 30, 2000 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2000 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 27, DOLPHINS 0 Network Associates Coliseum
January 6, 2001 Oakland, CA

The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The score occurred after the Dolphins were at the Raiders' 16. The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 46-yard drive. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The 12-play, 78-yard drive was highlighted by a 32-yard catch-and-run by Terry Kirby to midfield. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. Of the 43 yards on the march, Gannon scrambled for 19 yards. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock. Gannon threw for 32 yards on the march, including a 12-yard completion to Tim Brown on third-and-seven, one play prior to the touchdown.

2001 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

RAVENS 20, DOLPHINS 3 Pro Player Stadium
January 13, 2002 Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grabc hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

2008 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

January 4, 2009 Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their third straight playoff decision, and their second in a row to the Ravens. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead on their opening series of the game when Dan Carpenter connected on a 19-yard field goal, eight plays after Joey Porter recovered a Le'Ron McClain fumble and returned it five yards to the Dolphins' 49. Patrick Cobbs accounted for 41 yards on the drive, on a pair of receptions. The Ravens knotted the score on their ensuing series when a Matt Stover 23-yard field goal capped an 11-play, 59-yard drive. The key play was a 31-yard completion from Joe Flacco to Todd Heap, giving the Ravens a first-and-goal from the 4. The Ravens claimed their initial lead of the afternoon with 2:30 to play in the first half when Ed Reed intercepted a Chad Pennington pass and weaved his way 64 yards for a touchdown. Baltimore added three points, 16 seconds before the half on a 31-yard field goal by Stover, culminating a seven-play, 46-yard drive. The score came four plays after Flacco connected with Derrick Mason for a 31-yard hookup to the Dolphins' 17. The Ravens opened a 17-point advantage 7:27 into the second half on an 8-yard TD run by Le'Ron McClain, four plays after Terrell Suggs recovered a Cobbs fumble at the Dolphins' 19. The Dolphins tallied their first touchdown of the day 1:51 into the fourth period on a 2-yard TD pass from Pennington to Ronnie Brown, two plays after Pennington and Davone Bess combined for a 45-yard completion to the Ravens' 5. The PAT was blocked. Flacco finished the scoring on a 5-yard TD run with 3:53 remaining in the contest, as the he crossed the goal line three plays after Willis McGahee broke loose for a 48-yard run to the Dolphins' 4.

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London and Toronto as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on December 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto.

On October 28, 2007, the Dolphins battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America.

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

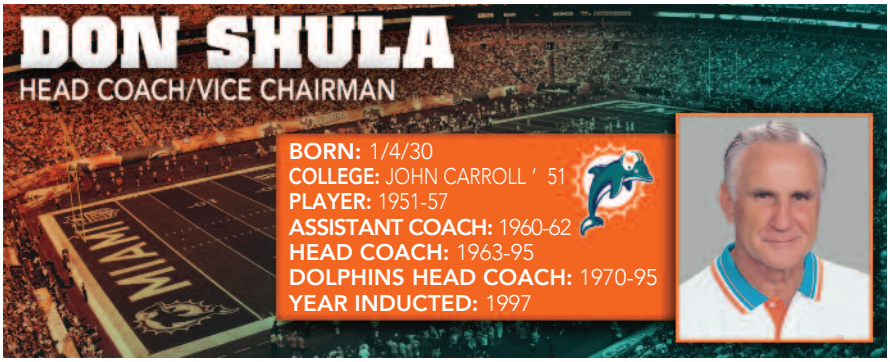

On August 4, 1997, the Dolphins traveled to Mexico City and earned a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance was the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983 in the Rose Bowl.

The Dolphins traveled 9,908 round-trip miles and earned a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos on August 16, 1992 before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marked the second consecutive season that the Dolphins traveled abroad to play a preseason contest.

On August 3, 1991, the Dolphins made the longest road trip in team history as they traveled 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to battle the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami came from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.

The Dolphins made their first-ever trip abroad on July 31, 1988 to take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami came from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the preseason.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For the past 17 years, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 43rd season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium on November 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day.

Coach Shula was further honored on January 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Coach Shula Award" – that honors each NFL season a football coach that displays the integrity, achievement and positive impact on others that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The ten-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Sun Life Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP.

Shula's oldest son, David, 53, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 47, currently is in his second season as the quarterbacks coach for the Carolina Panthers, after serving the previous four years in the same role for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. Most recently, in 2009 they visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on October 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children, 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

DUAL 100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 18 dual 100-yard receiving games, 20 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two receivers attain the 100-yard mark occurred on November 25, 2001 when Oronde Gadsden accumulated 118 yards on eight receptions and Chris Chambers totaled 101 yards and two scores on five catches against the Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium. It marked the third time that Gadsden had been a part of a dual 100-yard receiving game, with the first two occasions coming in 1999. The Dolphins are 8-10 in regular season games when they have had a pair of 100-yard receivers and 9-11 overall, including playoffs.

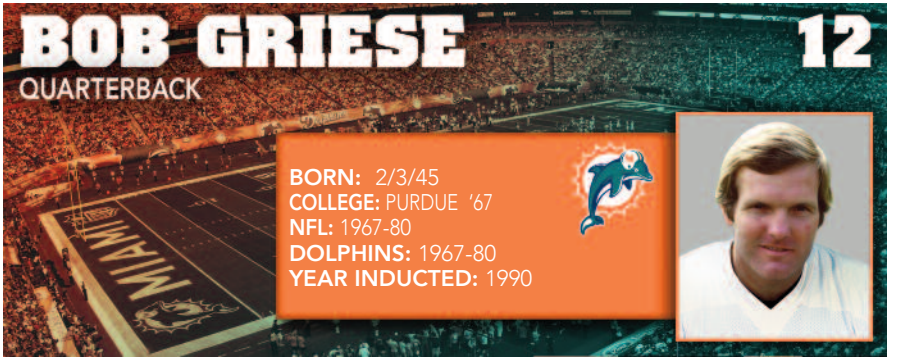

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL when he retired following the 1979 season are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. At the time of his retirement, he ranked fifth in NFL history for most total rushing attempts and sixth for most career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on December 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team's annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

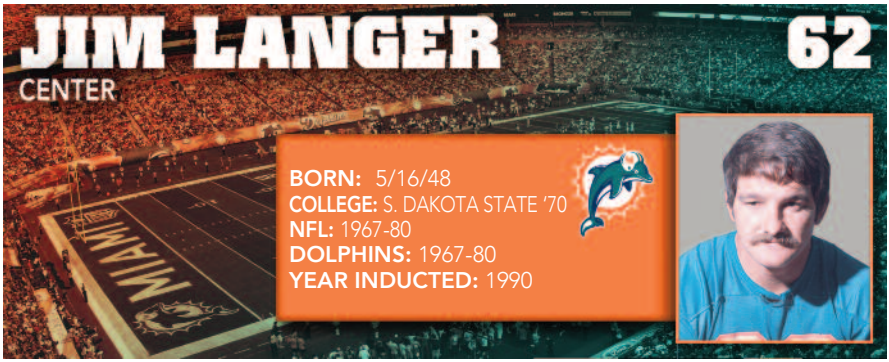

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

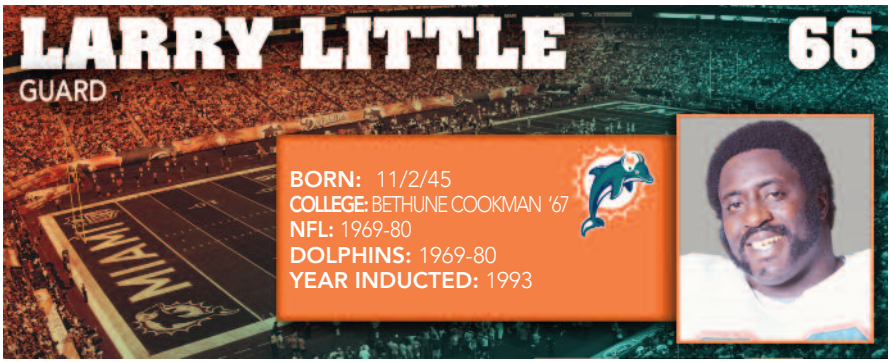

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On December 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium and was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 5, 2005 and enshrined on August 7, 2005 . . . Others included in the Class of 2005 were Steve Young, Benny Friedman and Fritz Pollard . . . Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphins uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Sun Life Stadium . . . He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date . . . The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975 . . . Was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011 . . . He announced his retirement on March 13, 2000 . . . Marino ranks among the NFL's all-time top ranked passers . . . In his 17-year career, Marino played in 242 games (240 starts) and he was 4967-8358 (59.4%) for 61,361 yards, 420 touchdowns and 252 interceptions for an 86.4 passing efficiency rating, which ranked fourth among the all-time passing leaders when he retired . . . Marino holds 31 Dolphins regular season team records (42 overall, including playoffs) and is tied for three others (five, including playoffs) . . . He holds seven NFL regular season records and is tied for five others . . . .

AMONG NFL LEADERS: With a career passing efficiency of 86.4, Marino currently ranks 16th on the all-time list of passers . . . Marino also is among the winningest quarterbacks in NFL regular season history, ranking third in all time regular season victories as a starter:

Marino reached the 40,000 and 30,000 yards passing plateaus faster than any quarterback in NFL history . . . In 1984, Marino set an NFL record for most yards passing in a single season with 5,084 yards . . . He broke the former record of 4,802 yards passing, which was set by Dan Fouts of the San Diego Chargers in 1981 . . . Marino's record was broken by Drew Brees od the New Orleans Saints in 2011 (5,576 yards passing) . . . Brees (2008, 2011), Marino, Aaron Rodgers of the Green Bay Packers (2011) and Matthew Stafford of the Detroit Lions (2011) are the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 5,000 or more yards . . . Marino (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994), Peyton Manning (1999-2004, 2006-10) and Brett Favre (1995, 1998-99, 2004, 2007, 2009) are the only quarterbacks in NFL history to have six or more 4,000-yard seasons . . . Marino passed for 3,000 or more yards 13 times (1984-92, 1994-95, 1997-98) in his 17 seasons in the NFL and is tied for second with Peyton Manning (1998-2010) behind Brett Favre (1992-2009) for the most 3,000-yard seasons in NFL history . . . Favre broke Marino's record in 2005 . . . Marino led the NFL in passing yards five times during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino had 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins were 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) . . . Marino had 63 career regular season 300-yard games (67, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 37-26 in those 63 300-yard games (38-29 overall, including playoffs) . . . Marino's 63 career 300-yard passing games extended his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games until it was broken by Manning in 2010 . . . Marino owns the top 11 and 36 of the top 50 passing yardage games in Dolphins history as well as 67 of the 96 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes until Brett Favre broke his record in 2007 . . . Marino recorded 420 touchdown passes in his career, ranking second in NFL history:

Marino reached the 200 touchdown passes plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history and is tied with Peyton Manning for the fastest to reach 300 TD passes . . . In his career Marino threw at least one TD pass in 203 of his 242 regular-season games as well as in 16 of his 18 playoff games (219 of 260 overall) . . . Marino had six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins were 4-2 in those contests . . . Marino had 21 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he was 16-5 in those 21 contests . . . Overall in his career he threw three or more touchdowns in 62 games (67, including playoffs), and he was 41-21 in those contests (44-23 including post-season games) . . . Marino threw for 20 or more TD passes in 13 of his 17 years in the NFL . . . The only seasons when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1999, 1997, 1996 and in 1993, a season when he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1998, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 13 seasons, a record that Favre broke in 2008 . . . Marino and Peyton Manning are the only players in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in their first ten NFL seasons and is one of three players (along with Manning and Brett Favre) to throw 20 or more TD passes in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino threw for 30 or more touchdowns, and he is tied for third along with Drew Brees (2008-11) behind Manning (six, 2000, 2004, 2006-07, 2009-10) and Brett Favre (nine, 1994-98, 2001, 2003-04, 2009) for the NFL record of most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more touchdowns in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . . In 1984, Marino threw for 48 touchdown passes, breaking the former NFL record of 36 TD passes that was set by George Blanda of the Houston Oilers in 1961 and tied by Y.A. Tittle of the New York Giants in 1963 . . . Marino's record was broken by Peyton Manning of the Indianapolis Colts, who threw for 49 touchdown in 2004 . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds seven NFL regular season records and is tied for five others . . . In addition to the above records, Marino holds NFL single-season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, 1992, and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (five) . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988, 1992 and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (six) . . . Marino and George Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . .

COMEBACKS: Over the course of Marino's 17-year career with the Dolphins, he brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 37 times, with 21 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 16 on the road . . . Included in that total were three playoff games in which Marino led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . With 37 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second in that category: Denver's John Elway has 43 final period come-from behind wins . . . In Marino's 37 career fourth quarter comebacks, he completed 280 of 441 passes (63.5%) for 3,710 yards with 29 touchdowns and eight INTs in the final stanza for a rating of 104.4 . . .

MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD: On January 28, 1999, Marino was named as the 1998 Sprint/NFL Man of the Year . . . It is the only league-sponsored award that recognizes player community service as well as excellence on the field . . . Off the field, Marino established the Dan Marino Foundation, which was created to benefit children's charities in South Florida . . . Marino became the second Dolphin player to win the NFL Man of the Year Award; Dwight Stephenson won that honor in 1985 and Jason Taylor became the third Dolphin to win that award in 2007 . . .

PRO BOWL: Marino was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994-95), including seven as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994-95), but due to injuries he was able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's nine Pro Bowl selections set a Dolphins record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl starts set a Dolphins record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that had previously been set by Langer (1973-77) . . . Marino was first selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad following his rookie season of 1983.

PERSONAL Married to Claire (1/30/85), Marino and his wife have six children, Daniel Charles (9/4/86), Michael Joseph (5/18/88), Joseph Donald (7/26/89), Alexandra Claire (5/13/92), Niki Lin (12/15/96) and Lia (7/12/95) and reside in Fort Lauderdale . . . GALLERY OF LEGENDS

On Wednesday, November 2, 2005, the "Gallery of Legends" made its public debut at Dolphin Stadium. Located at Gate D on the Club Level of the stadium, the Gallery is a tribute to the history of Miami Dolphins football. Special exhibits were created to track the team's history, from its inception in 1966 to the present. Features include Dolphins memorabilia and photographs, as well as elements of life in South Florida and a Dan Marino timeline through those years. It also consists of such artifacts as the chairs the players used for meetings at St. Thomas University, in addition to the office desk utilized by Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula.

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns (1964-69 and 1976-77) around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns, Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs. When he left Miami following the 1974 season, Warfield ranked first on the team's career receiving yards and receiving touchdowns lists, while he was third on the Dolphins all-time record for receptions. His 21.5 average per reception is still the highest in Miami history. His career receiving totals in the NFL are 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. At the time of his retirement following the 1977 season, Warfield's career catches were tied for the 17th most in NFL history, his career receiving yards were the sixth-most and his 85 touchdown catches were tied for the third-highest total in the league's history. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

THURMAN THOMAS

RUNNING BACK YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
NFL CAREER: 1988-2000 DOLPHINS: 2000

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 1988, Thurman Thomas went on to enjoy a stellar 13-year NFL career (1988-2000), the first 12 with the Bills. He was a critical component that catapulted Buffalo to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowl appearances, following the 1990-93 seasons.

Thomas concluded his career as a Dolphin after signing with the team as a free agent on March 7, 2000. He played in nine games that season and rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries and caught 16 passes for 117 yards and a TD. He sustained a career-ending knee injury in a game at San Diego on November 12, 2000.

Thomas' career regular season statistics include 12,074 rushing yards and 65 touchdowns on 2,877 attempts, and 472 receptions for 4,458 yards and 23 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, his rushing yardage total ranked ninth in NFL annals while his 16,532 total yards from scrimmage were sixth-most and fifth among running backs. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, was selected as a first- or second-team All-Pro five times and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. His election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame was announced on February 2, 2007 in Miami.

A native of Houston, Texas, Thomas played collegiately at Oklahoma State.

DOLPHINS RETIRED JERSEYS

BOB GRIESE #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

For a full bio of Griese, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

DAN MARINO #13

Dan Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphin uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Sun Life Stadium. He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date. Marino was furthered honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975.

For a full bio of Marino, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

LARRY CSONKA #39

Larry Csonka's jersey No. 39 became the third number in club history to be retired, during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' game against the Chicago Bears at Sun Life Stadium on December 9, 2002.

No player other than Csonka ever wore No. 39 in regular season play. Csonka wore that number in his eight years with the Dolphins, from 1968 through 1974 and again in 1979.

Csonka also was honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

For a full bio of Csonka, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

Mrs. Robert Swanson with Dolphins founder Joe Robbie.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WINZ (940 AM) and WBGG (105.9 FM)

Flagship Stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network

WINZ (940 AM) and WBGG (105.9 FM) are in their third year as the flagship stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

On March 1, 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that resulted in WBGG-FM (Big 105.9) and WINZ-AM (940 – The Sports Animal) being the Dolphins flagship stations. All Dolphin preseason, regular season and playoff games are broadcast exclusively in South Florida on those two outlets and throughout South and Central Florida on The Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

In addition to the game broadcasts, a two-hour pregame and a two-hour postgame show rounds out "Dolphins Game Day Live" coverage on WBGG, WINZ, The Miami Dolphins Radio Network, Dolphins.com, FanVision, the In-Stadium Television Network, the Dolphins Television Network and the Dolphins mobile app.

In May 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year partnership with Univision Radio in Miami to be the new Spanish language flagship of the Miami Dolphins. Univision Radio's WQBA AM and the Miami Dolphins Spanish Radio Network broadcasts every preseason, regular season and post-season Dolphins game. This season marks the 31st consecutive year that Dolphins games will be broadcast in Spanish.The radio and TV broadcasts are part of the Dolphins' fully integrated multimedia assets that include websites (Dolphins.com, TheFinsiders.com, MiamiDolphinsCheerleaders.net and SunLifeStadium.com); social media platforms (Dolphins Facebook page, Dolphins Facebook Live (video stream) and Dolphins Twitter); radio programming (the Finsiders daily radio show on 940 AM, Dolphins Game Day radio on 940 AM, 105.9 FM and 1140 AM as well as Juntos Con Los Dolphins Daily on 1140 AM); television programming (The Joe Philbin Show, Dolphins Weekly and "The Finsiders 5th Quarter" shows on CBS4 and My33); video programming (the In-Stadium Television Network; FanVision (handheld in-stadium device); video boards; video streaming on Dolphins.com and TheFinsiders.com; print platforms (Dolphin Digest and Finsiders Playbook game day publication) and moble platforms (Dolphins Mobile App including live video streaming, updates and images).

Jimmy Cefalo begins his eighth season as part of the Dolphins' radio team, and is certainly well-known as both a broadcaster and a former Dolphins player. For many years he served as the sports anchor for WPLG-TV (Channel 10), first joining that station in October of 1992 as the host of Sports Monday. Since then he became the sports anchor for Local 10 News Monday through Friday and anchored the station's popular "Sports Jam Live," which aired on Sunday nights.

Before joining WPLG, Cefalo assembled a long list of impressive broadcast credentials. He is best known for his work as a color analyst on NBC's network telecasts of the NFL and also served as a correspondent for NBC News on the "Today Show," sports anchor for "NBC News at Sunrise" and co-host of NBC's broadcast of the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul. Cefalo also co-hosted "PM Magazine" and "AM South Florida" on WTVJ-TV and hosted the "Trump Card" game show, nationally distributed by Warner Brothers Television.

In 1988, Cefalo snared an Emmy for his writing on NBC's Olympic telecasts. In addition, the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association named him Florida Sportscaster of the Year six times (1998, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005).

Prior to his broadcasting career, Cefalo played seven seasons with the Dolphins (1978-84) as a wide receiver, and finished with 93 catches for 1,739 yards and 13 touchdowns. His best season came in 1981, when he caught 29 passes for 631 yards (21.8 yards per catch) and three touchdowns. He also was a member of two Dolphins Super Bowl teams, and in Super Bowl XVII against the Washington Redskins, he caught a 76-yard touchdown pass from David Woodley, which at the time was the second-longest reception in Super Bowl history. Cefalo originally joined the Dolphins as a third-round draft choice in 1978 following a stellar collegiate career at Penn State.

Joe Rose again joins Cefalo on the team's radio broadcasts, and like Cefalo he built a broadcast career after his playing days ended. He is in his eighth season as a Dolphins radio analyst and also serves as the Sports Director for WTVJ-TV (Channel 6), joining that station in 1992. In past years he has hosted "The Coaches Show" on that outlet and is featured on the station's successful "Sunday Sports Final" as well. Along with his television work, Rose is well-known locally for his popular 6:00-10:00 a.m. weekday show on WQAM.

Rose was a Dolphins tight end from 1980-85, and in that time caught 112 passes for 1,493 yards and 13 touchdowns. He had his best year in 1983, when he had 29 catches for 345 yards and three touchdowns. He is best known for catching Dan Marino's first regular season touchdown pass, a six-yard reception on September 19, 1983 in Los Angeles versus the Raiders. Rose originally was a seventh-round draft pick of the Dolphins in 1980 after playing at the University of California.

Joining Rose and Cefalo in the booth for the regular season is former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Bob Griese, who is in his second year as a member of Miami's radio team after a long tenure on ABC and ESPN's broadcast teams for college football.

On the Spanish brodcasts, Raul Striker, Jr. returns for his seventh season. In addition to those duties, he is well-known for his extensive sports reporting on Spanish radio and television outlets in South Florida.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Three of the four Miami Dolphin preseason games will be broadcast on WFOR-TV (Channel 4) in Miami, the 17th consecutive season WFOR has served as the preseason home of the Dolphins. Miami's game at the Dallas Cowboys on August 29 will be broadcast in South Florida on WBFS (Channel 33). In addition, the games can also be seen on WBBH/NBC Ch. 2 and WBBH-D2/Comcast Ch. 216 (Spanish) in Naples/Ft Myers; WTVX-CW Ch. 34 and WWHB Ch. 48 (Spanish) in West Palm Beach/Treasure Coast and WRDQ Ch. 27 in Orlando.

The Dolphins' 2012 preseason marks the second season in a row, and just the eighth time in franchise history, that the Dolphins will only face NFC teams in the preseason.

The schedule gets underway as they host a familiar foe, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on Friday, August 10th at Sun Life Stadium. It will be the 13th consecutive season and the 21st time in 22 years two teams have faced each other in the preseason. It also will be the seventh time that the Dolphins have opened the preseason with their in-state rival. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 PM and the game will be televised live on WFOR, WBBH, and WTVX if it is sold out 72 hours before kickoff; otherwise it will be shown on a delayed basis.

The road portion of the preseason will begin on Friday, August 17th when the Dolphins travel to Carolina to face the Panthers at Bank of America Stadium. It will be Miami's first preseason game in Carolina since the 2006 preseason, and it marks just the fourth time overall the two teams have played in the preseason. The game will be at 8:00 PM and will be televised live on WFOR, WBBH, and WTVX.

The home portion of the preseason concludes on Friday, August 24th when the Dolphins host the Atlanta Falcons. The meeting will mark the third consecutive season that Atlanta and Miami have played in the preseason and the second time in three years that their encounter will take place at Sun Life Stadium. It will be televised live at 7:30 PM WFOR, WBBH, and WTVX if it is sold out 72 hours before kickoff; otherwise it will be shown on a delayed basis.

The Dolphins will then close out the 2012 preseason with a trip to Dallas to face the Cowboys in a rare Wednesday night game. The matchup between the two franchises marks the third straight year the two teams will meet to conclude the preseason, but just the sixth time overall the two teams have met in preseason play. The contest will be televised live on WBFS, WBBH, and WTVX at 8:30 PM.

Dick Stockton begins his third season handling the play-by-play for the games on WFOR. Stockton has a long history of covering almost every major sports event on a national level. Currently he is a member of FOX's NFL broadcast team and also handles national telecasts of Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association on both FOX and Turner Sports. Joining Stockton as a color analyst will be former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Bob Griese. In addition, Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver and one of the most popular players in club history, again will handle color commentary. Kim Bokamper, sports anchor of WFOR and a former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker, will continue in his role on WFOR's broadcast team as a sideline reporter.

Dick Stockton was the play-by-play caller for Dolphins games against New England on October 4, 2010 and Chicago on November 18, 2010

* Goldberg was replaced following the season opener in Cleveland by Mandich

Mel Allen and Red Barber also did play-by-play for the Miami Dolphins' inaugural season in 1966

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least one week in advance to: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press will call booth, located outside Gate H of Sun Life Stadium, on the day of the game. ALL members of the media picking up credentials at the will call window must present a valid photo identification. In addition, all media members must show a valid photo identification upon entering the stadium. The media entrance is at Gate H.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area. ALL photographers are required to wear a vest that must be obtained prior to the game in the photo lounge located adjacent to the press box elevator inside Gate H. All photographers must kneel when shooting in either the East or West end zone.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHY: till photography of any kind is NOT permitted at any time in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week.

VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHY: Video photography is limited to just interviews in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week. B-roll footage is NOT permitted at any time.

EDWIN POPE PRESS BOX: To get to the Edwin Pope Press Box, enter at Gate H. Go through a set of double doors and turn right to access the press elevator. Exit the elevator on the second floor and the press box is to your left on both the second and third floors. Individuals with "Press Box A" credentials should exit the main press box doors on the third level and proceed right. Walk through the Club Level to the Press Box A doors on the right. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins will be honored for admittance to Sun Life Stadium.

PHOTO WORK ROOM: To access the new photo work room in Sun Life Stadium enter at Gate H. Go through a set of double doors and turn right, follow the hallway towards the Press Elevator and enter the double doors adjacent to the elevator. To enter the field from the Photo Work Room proceed through the work room to the inner ring of the stadium, turn right and follow the inner ring about 200 feet to the baseball dugout which will located on your left.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with a number "3" will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on the ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator, bear right and go through the double doors to the corridor. Go straight to the main corridor and turn left. The Dolphins' locker room will be on your left, and the interview room will be about 20 yards further, also on the left. Continue straight past the Gate A tunnel, and the visitor's interview room, as well as the visitor's locker room, will be on the left.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Head Coach Joe Philbin will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium.

PARKING: Press parking at Sun Life Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Joe Curbelo of the Miami Dolphins Information Technology department, (305/943-6586). Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

WIRELESS ACCESS: Sun Life Stadium offers wireless internet access in all areas of the press boxes. The access is free of charge and works with all wi-fi enabled computer equipment. For those computers that do not have wi-fi capabilities, every seat is equipped with a "Cat 5" ethernet network jack to which members of the media can connect using a Cat 5 ethernet patch cable.

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper, network TV photographers, club/stadium officials and a limited number of local TV photographers are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, unless authorized by the Miami Dolphins.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations; Fitz Ollison, Director of Communication;

Jason Jenkins, Senior Director of Media Relations; and Gayle Baden, Executive Assistant. Office phone number is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova Southeastern University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

DIRECTIONS

FT. LAUDERDALE TO TRAINING CAMP: From the north, take I-95 South to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO TRAINING CAMP: From the airport, take 836 West to 826 North. Follow 826 North to exit for Florida Turnpike North. Take Turnpike North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

FROM THE SOUTH TO TRAINING CAMP: From the south, take I-95 North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO SUN LIFE STADIUM: Take I-595 West to Florida Turnpike South. Upon approaching stadium, follow signs for "Stadium via I-95" (DO NOT take turnpike extension -exit 47 Homestead). Get off at Exit 2X (Dan Marino Blvd./199th St.). Proceed off exit and make a right onto Dan Marino Blvd. Enter through Parking Gate 4, which is on the right.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO SUN LIFE STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street/Dan Marino Blvd.) and stadium is on right. Enter parking Gate 4.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.
Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.
Achilles' Tendon – The tendon at the back of the heel.
Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.
Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).
Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.
Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.
Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
Anteriogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.
Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.
Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
Articular Cartilage – Cartilage lining the opposing surfaces of bones.
Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.
Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.
Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.
Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.
Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.
Burner – Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.
Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.
Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.
Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.
Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.
Chondral Fracture – Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.
Chondromalacia – A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavical – The collar bone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.
Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.
Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.
Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.
Cortisone – An anti- inflammatory medication.
Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.
Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.
Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.
Debridement – The removal of foreign material and dead or damaged tissue.
Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.
Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.
Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.
Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.
Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.
Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.
Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.
Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.
Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.
Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.
Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.
Fascia – A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.
Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.
Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.
Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.
Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.
Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.
Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.
Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacar-pophalangeal joint of the thumb.
Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.
Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.
Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.
Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.
Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.
Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.
Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.
Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.
Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.
Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.
Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.
Illiotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.
Impingment Syndrome – Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue inthe shoulder, which is common in throwing.
Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.
Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) – Ligamament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.
Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.
Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.
Malleolus – Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle and to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.
Medial Retinaculum – The band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and patellar tendon.
Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.
Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.
Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Myosistis – Inflammation of a muscle.
Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.
Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.
Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.
Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.
Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.
Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."
Patellar Femoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.
Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.
Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.
Plantar – Pertaining to the sole of the foot.
Plantar Fascia – The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.
Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
Pneumothorax – A collection of air or gas that enters the cavity surrounding the lungs as a result of a perforation through the chest wall or the cavity wall.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.
Radiography – Taking of X-rays.
Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.
Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.
Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.
Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.
Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.
Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum - Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.
Scapula – Shoulder blade.
Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.
Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.
Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.
Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.
Spasm (Theory) - Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.
Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.
Spondylitis– Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.
Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.
Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
Sternum – The breast bone.
Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.
Stinger – Common term for plexus trauma in the neck.
Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.
Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.
Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.
Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.
Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.
Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.
Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.
Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.
Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.
Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.
Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.
Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.
Trachea – The windpipe.
Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.
Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.
Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.
Turf Toe – Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.
Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.
Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.
Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.
Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.
Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.
Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.
Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.
"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.
Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).
Zygoma – The cheekbone.
