CLIMBING THAT LAST "SUPER" STEP

By Andy Cohen
(Pro Football writer for the Fort Lauderdale News/Sun Sentinel)

The lopsided loss to the New England Patriots in last January's AFC Championship game convinced Don Shula that the Miami Dolphins, "have to get a lot better to win it all."

It is with that in mind that he approaches the 1986 season.

The task ahead is imposing, but not impossible. Shula sees a tremendous amount of talent, but he also sees a defense that has major cracks in its foundation and a running game that needs to develop some consistency. Improvement in both areas is essential if the Dolphins are going to make it back to the Super Bowl for the third time in five years.

Even as defending AFC East champions, the Dolphins have reached a pivotal point in their development. Changes must be made. Work habits must improve. Several key rookies, most notably linebacker John Offerdahl and defensive end T.J. Turner, must step forward.

"What we have to do is get people to line up and play without worrying about making errors," Shula says. "Just line up and turn it loose. That's what the objective will be." "We're in the ideal situation to improve. Now all we have to do is go out and do it."

The Dolphins once again are blessed with one of the top passing attacks in NFL history. Returning for his fourth season, quarterback Dan Marino is still getting better, which might be difficult to believe considering the accomplishments he has already added to his resume. Don Strock, as always, is the back-up every coach would love to have. Smart, dependable and unselfish.

Look for Marino to be more patient in 1986, to have a better grasp of the running game and to take advantage of defensive tendencies he couldn't pick out during this first few seasons in the league.

But what would Air Marino be without his talented corp of receivers? Mark Clayton and Mark Duper are brimming with confidence and, if both can stay healthy, the records could once again fall. But they aren't alone out there waiting for Marino's soft spirals to fall from the sky.

Back for a 13th season, Nat Moore continues to prove that some things do get better with age. Coming off one of this finest seasons, Moore is an outstanding possession receiver who can also deliver a mean block. Line him up with Duper and Clayton in the same formation and who do you double team? Precisely what Miami's opponents have been trying to figure out.

Then throw in, or throw at, tight ends Joe Rose, Bruce Hardy and Dan Johnson and the prospects for success continue to grow. Rose is the most sure-handed receiver on the team, Hardy had his best season in 1985 and Johnson is a star waiting to happen. Rookie wide receiver James Pruitt could also prove to be a factor.

The other key component in Miami's bombs away attack is the offensive line. Marino's personal bodyguards did a remarkable job last season, giving up only 19 quarterback sacks despite one injury after another.

Anchoring that line is center Dwight Stephenson, perhaps the most dominating lineman in the game and a player who was selected the NFL Man of the Year in 1985 for his many off-the-field contributions. When Stephenson is on, he is a one man highlight film. When he is off, he still usually wins most of his battles, just not as convincingly.

The left side of the line is set with Roy Foster at guard and Jon Giesler at tackle, two players who are consistently good. Foster played in his first Pro Bowl last year and Giesler would have as well if not for a knee injury that kept him hobbling most of the season. If Giesler can rid himself of his knee problems, the Dolphins could have one of the strongest left sides in the league.

Ronnie Lee and Cleveland Green will probably share time at right tackle while second-year player Jeff Dellenbach and veteran Steve Clark have both played well, at times, at guard. If veteran Jeff Toews can recover from a knee injury sustained late last season, he will give the line an additional dose of experience. Center/guard Mark Dennard, back for his second stint in Miami, gives assistant coach John Sandusky another insurance policy to turn to.

While the line has been excellent protecting Marino, there is some concern over its ability to open holes for the running game. Only once since 1982 has a Dolphin running back gained 100 yards in a game, that by Joe Carter two years ago against Houston. This is a cause of great concern for Shula who would like to take some of the heat off Marino.

Tony Nathan at halfback and Woody Bennett at fullback have performed consistently well, but they can't do it alone. Shula is banking on at least one young running back to step forward and add some spice to the ground game. The leading candidates are Carter and second-year players Lorenzo Hampton and Ron Davenport.

Hampton had a disappointing rookie season and Carter missed time with some minor injuries. Davenport proved outstanding in short yardage situations, rushing for 11 touchdowns in the regular season, but what Shula needs is a breakaway threat. Finding that threat was a major goal heading into training camp.

There were many goals on defense, most notably improving a defensive line that has "many more questions than answers.

Can nose tackle Bob Baumhower bounce back from a knee injury that kept him sidelined for the entire 1985 season? Will nose tackle Mike Charles lose weight and gain consistency? Is defensive end Kim Bokamper finally healthy and can he make up for the problems he encountered last season? What about defensive end Doug Betters and his contract problems? Does Mack Moore and George Little have what it takes to make an impact? On and on they go.

Defensive coach Chuck Studley, who says "I have no idea what to expect from the defensive line" is hoping third-round pick, defensive end T.J. Turner, can make a difference. There are no guarantees.

The situation at linebacker appears much better, especially on the outside where Hugh Green is no longer tentative about his assignments and seems ready to take charge. Bob Brudzinski is coming off another fine season while free

Bob Kuechenberg

"Those cars you're looking at behind me make up one of the best 'front fours' I've ever faced. But what's even more awesome is the all pro team Warren Henry fields behind that line. From the salespeople to the parts department to the mechanics, nothing gets by these guys. I can tell you this from personal experience. I became a Warren Henry fan by being a Warren Henry customer."

NEW DOLPHIN STADIUM

Early aerial view of new stadiu

It'll be a $100-million, 73,000-seat stadium. It'll be a state-of-the-art facility which promises to be the most modern of its kind. It'll be privately financed through the lease of some 230 executive suites and 10,000 luxury club seats.

It'll be an awesome structure.

It'll be special. It'll be something.

It'll be the new home of the Miami Dolphins!

The inaugural game in Dolphin Stadium is slated for August 16, 1987 when the Chicago Bears visit Miami. The game, which will be nationally televised, will be the ceremonial example of promises kept by Dolphin owner Joe Robbie to all sports fans of South Florida.

In the spring of 1984, before a packed house at the Dolphin Awards Banquet in Miami, Robbie announced his marketing plan for Dolphin Stadium, to be built at Lake Lucerne, south of Calder Race Track in north Dade county.

As South Florida sports fans have seen over the years, it was just another dream that Joe Robbie had worked, and worked hard, into reality.

When the Bears and Dolphins kickoff on that August 16, 1987 date, it'll mark still another fulfillment of promises made by Robbie and his Dolphin Stadium Corp. What Robbie did was take a vacant, litter-filled area covered with brush and turn it into a stadium that will be the talk of the sports world.

When Robbie spoke that May evening in 1984 he knew that more than $9-million in security deposits, accompanied by bonafide 10-year leases which would translate into $90-million over the decade, would have to be marketed before the financing with major banks could be arranged.

In addition, a veritable maze of governmental procedures, studies and hearings loomed over the coming months before the $100-million project could even begin.

Cynics abounded.

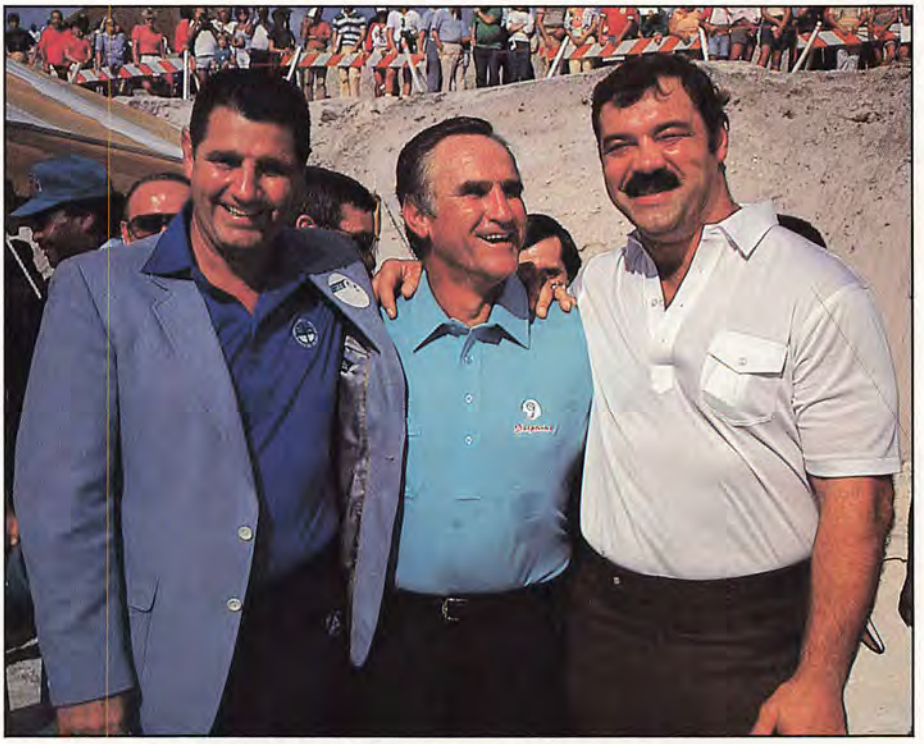

The cynics were wrong!

They were proven wrong by the fans and friends of the Dolphins who backed their faith with their money. They were proven wrong by Robbie himself, who matched the faith exhibited by the Dolfans by expending $3-million of his own money to clear the Lake Lucerne site and prepare for full-scale construction BEFORE being assured of full financing and full governmental clearance.

If the project had failed, the $3-million loss would have been Robbie's alone.

But the project didn't fail. Did anyone who knows Robbie's track record really think it would? Certainly not!

The new Dolphin Stadium will be America's premier open stadium, designed for comfort, convenience and complete enjoyment. It'll be the toast of South Florida. The stadium will remain for decades as a standing legacy giving testimony of the faith and loyalty of not only Joe Robbie, but of the Dolfans themselves!

MIAMI DOLPHINS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

The year was 1965. In Minneapolis, lawyer Joe Robbie talked of gaining a franchise in the five-year-old American Football League. Robbie planned to play in Philadelphia — home of the National Football League Eagles. AFL Commissioner Joe Foss suggested Miami during a meeting in March.

Five months later, for a price of $7.5 million, Robbie and entertainer Danny Thomas were awarded the franchise. Mrs. Robert Swanson, in a contest with 20,000 entries, suggested the team name "Dolphins;" George Wilson was named head coach and Kentucky quarterback Rick Norton with Illinois fullback Jim Grabowski were the new team's first-round draft picks.

The year was 1966. Training camp opened on a gravel field in St. Pete and the Dolphins flew in a prop plane to San Diego and lost their first pre-season game, 30-10.

In September 1966, the Dolphins opened at home in their first regular-season game, before 26,776 fans in the Orange Bowl – against Oakland. Joe Auer returned the opening kickoff 95 yards for a Miami touchdown. The Dolphins lost 23-14. Two months later, against Denver, the Dolphins recorded their first win, 24-7, with Wilson's son, George Jr., at quarterback. "Flipper" leaped in a pool in the Orange Bowl end zone to celebrate the win.

Jim Kiick and Larry Csonka.

The years were 1967, 1968 and 1969. Danny Thomas sold his interest in the team. The Dolphins draft picks included quarterback Bob Griese (1967) and Larry Csonka, Jim Kiick and Dick Anderson (1968). In 1968 Griese set a club record with 2,473 yards passing, 186 completions and 21 touchdowns. In 1969 Miami obtained Nick Buoniconti from Boston and Larry Little from San Diego.

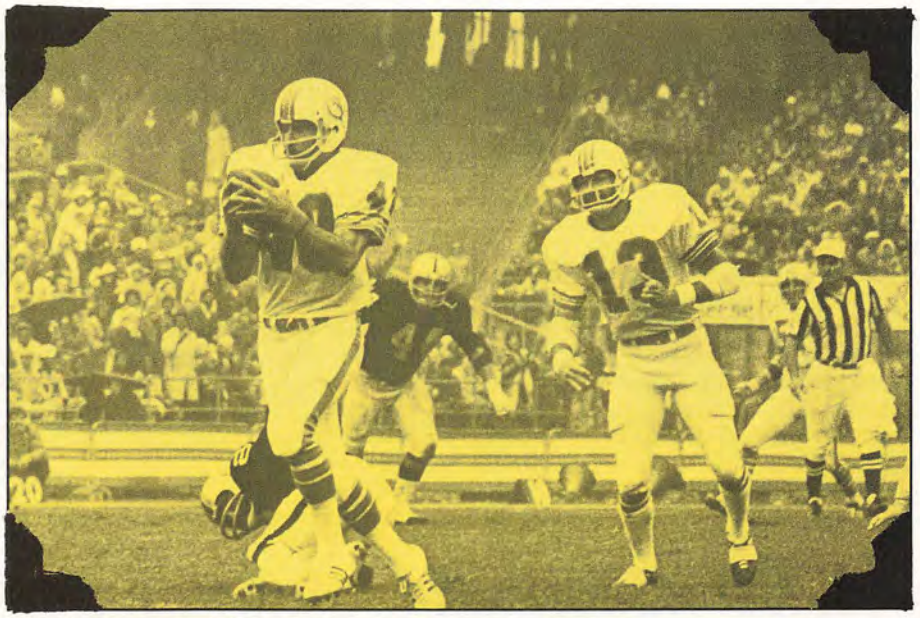

The year was 1970. AFL merged into NFL. Don Shula, then with the Colts, replaced Wilson as the Dolphins head coach. Paul Warfield came to the Dolphins in trade with Cleveland.

Camp Shula opened in July with a 7 a.m. two-mile run. Norton, the Dolphins first draftee, was cut. The Dolphins won four pre-season games, including a 20-13 triumph over Baltimore that was witnessed by a record Orange Bowl crowd of 76,712. The Dolphins posted first-ever regular season wins over the New York Jets (20-6 and Oakland (20-13) and won a playoff berth.

The year was 1971. Former University of Miami quarterback George Mira signed as a free agent. Griese set an NFL record by throwing three consecutive passes for touchdowns; Csonka became the club's first 1,000-yard rusher and Garo Yepremian led NFL with 117 points. The team won the longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) in pro-football history when Garo Yepremian kicked a 37-yard field goal in the second overtime of the AFC semi-final playoff against Kansas City.

The year was 1972. The Dolphins beat Baltimore, 21-0, for their first AFC championship, but ended the season with a 24-7 loss to Dallas in Superbowl VI at Tulane.

The Dolphins claimed 16-year veteran Earl Morrall on waivers and Shula passed the 100-game win mark when Miami whipped New England, 52-0, in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins achieved NFL's first undefeated regular season with 14 wins, as Morrall quarterbacked 10 games and replaced the injured Griese. Griese came off the bench after a 10 game absence and led the Dolphins to a 21-17 victory over Pittsburgh for the AFC championship.

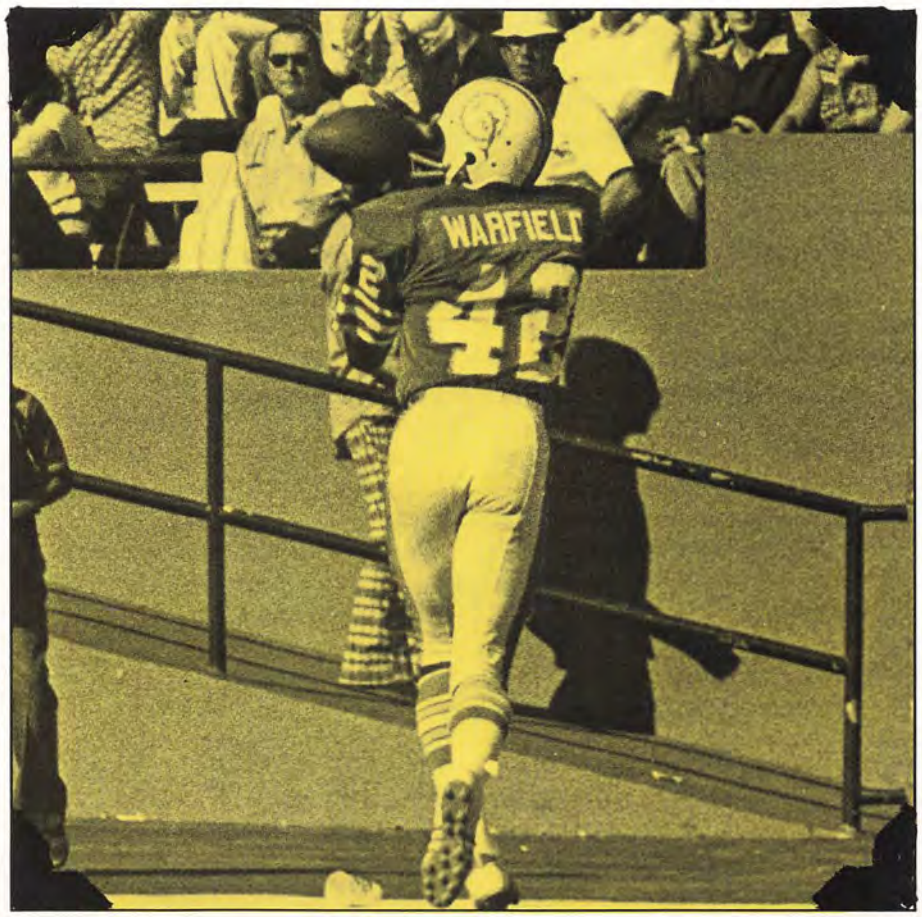

The year was 1973. The Dolphins capped a perfect season with a 14-7 victory over Washington in Super Bowl VII in Los Angeles.

The Dolphins sold 74,961 season tickets; Mercury Morris set a single game rushing record (197 yards) against New England; Paul Warfield caught four touchdown passes from Griese against Detroit and the team won an unprecedented third straight AFC title by defeating Oakland 27-10.

Csonka, Warfield and Kiick signed a $3.3 million deal to jump to the new World Football League; defensive coordinator Bill Arnsparger became head coach of the Giants; the NFL players struck for seven weeks; the Dolphins won their 31st consecutive game in the Orange Bowl, but lost in the AFC semi-final game at Oakland, 28-26.

The years were 1975, 1976 and 1977. The Dolphins intercepted Jets' quarterback Joe Namath six times in 43-0 win; prescription athletic turf was installed in the Orange Bowl and cost $244,500; Morrall retired; A. J. Duhe and Bob Baumhower were drafted and Griese, changing from contact lenses to eyeglasses, threw six touchdowns in a Thanksgiving Day, 55-14 win over St. Louis.

The year was 1978. Griese was injured during the pre-season, but quarterback Don Strock led the team to a 5-2 start. The Dolphins finished 11-5, the club's best record since 1974, hosted the AFC wildcard game, but lost (17-9) to Houston.

The year was 1979. Csonka returned and the Dolphins began the season with four victories. The Dolphins lost to Pittsburgh, 34-14, in the 1979 AFC divisional playoff game.

The year was 1980. Griese, Strock and rookie David Woodley played musical chairs at quarterback. Griese passed for 222 yards in the first half, against Baltimore, then suffered a career-ending shoulder injury.

The year was 1981. Bob Griese and Larry Little retire. The Dolphins started the season with four victories and Woodley at Quarterback. Shula won his 200th game as a head coach. Miami finished in first place (11-4-1).

The year was 1982. In a classic overtime game, the Dolphins lost, 41-38, to San Diego, despite more than 400 yards passing by Strock.

The NFL players struck for two months. In snow-frozen New Fngland, 25,716 fans watched as a prison parolee used a tractor to clear kicking space for a fourth-quarter, game winning Pats field goal. Miami scored 20 unanswered, second-half points to overtake Buffalo and continue their winning streak against the Bills in the Orange Bowl.

The year was 1983. In the playoffs, the Dolphins beat the Pats (28-13), and the Chargers (34-13), and the Jets (14-0). A. J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions as the Dolphins defeat the Jets for the third time in one season to win the AFC crown.

Before 103,667 fans in Pasadena, Fulton Walker set a Super Bowl record with a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, but Washington wins Super Bowl XVII (27-17).

Three months later, the Dolphins drafted Dan Marino, an All-American quarterback from Pittsburgh. Marino, as a first-time starter, passed for 322 yards, and rookie Mark Duper caught seven passes for 202 yards, against Buffalo. Arnsparger resigned; Chuck Studley was hired as defensive coordinator. Seattle upset Miami in the AFC playoff game (27-20).

The year was 1984. Robbie announced plans to build a new football stadium in Northwest Dade. The Dolphins opened the season with 11 wins and clinched the AFC East with a 28-17 win over the Jets Nov. 26. Marino set a single-season record with 37 TD passes and Mark Clayton caught a record 18 TD passes. Eight Dolphins were Pro Bowl selections.

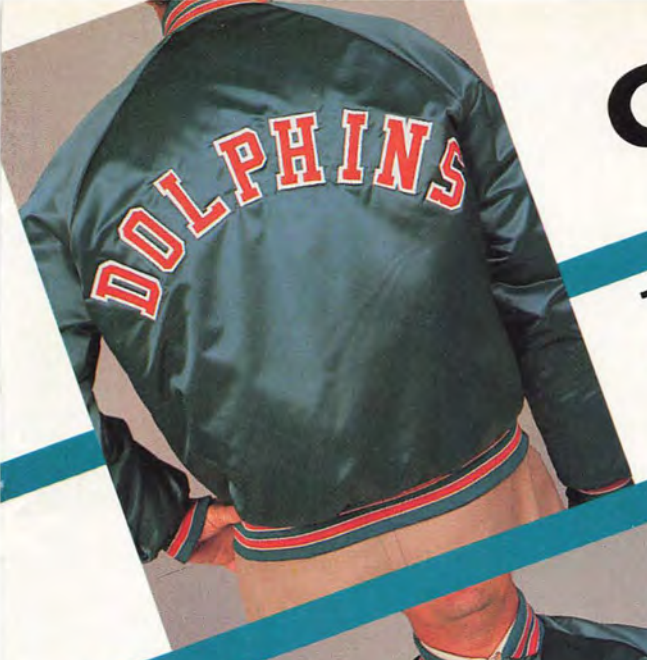

The year was 1985. The Dolphins won the AFC championship, defeating the Steelers 45-28, but lost to San Francisco, 38-16, in Super Bowl XIX in Palo Alto.

Miami was selected as the site of Superbowl XXIII (1989).

The Dolphins started the season 3-1 after Marino passed for 390 yards in a 30-26 shootout with Denver quarterback John Elway in Mile High Stadium. All-Pro linebacker Hugh Green was traded from Tampa to Miami. The Dolphins topped the Bears, 38-24 in the Orange Bowl, ending Chicago's dream of a perfect season, and won the AFC East title for the third consecutive time. The Dolphins defeated Cleveland, 24-21, before dropping the AFC title game to New England, 31-14.

COUNTDOWN TO KICKOFF

By Bill Herman

The fans are cheering, the sun is shining, and the television cameras are ready. It's kickoff time at Miami's Orange Bowl, and the Miami Dolphins are trying to clear another hurdle toward the Super Bowl.

The excitement is in the air just moments before the game is to begin. But what happens after the game is over? What is the rest of the week like for these human giants that enormous crowds come to see each week?

Most people just see the glamour life of these physical specimens known as football players. The big game at the stadium, mass media attention, commercial endorsements and constant autograph-signings. Well, there's more to being a pro football player than that.

An average week for a football player is quite astonishing. "Many people are not aware of the long hours we put in each week," says veteran wide receiver Nat Moore. "It is hard work both mentally and physically."

So, what is an average week like for a Miami Dolphins player? For the fortunate players who are not battered and bruised after the game, Monday is a day they can spend as they please. The not-so-lucky injured players are required to come to the Dolphins' training camp (St. Thomas University) and receive treatment.

From whirlpools to ultrasound to icebags, these players endure quite a lot on Monday. "Most of the injuries are sprains, bruises and pulled muscles," explains Bob Lundy, the head trainer for the Dolphins. "We have to work fast to rehabilitate these players for the following week."

Tuesday is the first day back to work for the players. It starts with a 9:30 a.m. meeting. This 2½-hour session goes over films from the previous game. After a short break for lunch, it's back for more films until the 1:30 p.m. practice. The players wear shorts and jerseys for the 90-minute workout, and after practice, most players stay and lift weights.

David and Don Shula reviewing game films.

Wednesday is offensive day and the team receives the game plan. It starts with a 10:30 a.m. meeting. There is a 90-minute review of film before a 45-minute lunch break. Then it's another hour of looking at films before the 2 p.m. practice. Players are dressed in full gear, from helmets down to cleats. "This is the most physical practice of the week," says offensive line coach John Sandusky."

This and every practice starts with 15 minutes of stretching exercises. After that, the team breaks into individual groups and starts to hit tackling dummies. The full team comes together for practice, which usually covers more than 80 plays. Again, it's more weightlifting for players before going home.

Thursday is a special day at the Dolphins' training facility. Players must report in at their assigned weight. If they fail to do so, there is a $25 fine for each pound they are over their weight.

After weigh-in, it's defensive day for the team. This covers both special teams as well as defensive work. There is a 90-minute meeting before the special teams practice at 11:30 a.m. The 45-minute workout covers punts, kickoffs and field goals.

Following the lunch break, there's a one-hour meeting prior to the 2 p.m. practice. Work covered in the practice includes pass defense, pass rush, and run defense. Offensively, the team works on short-yardage situations.

Friday is combination day which includes both offensive and defensive work. There are four hours of meetings and 90 minutes of practice. The meetings start at 11 a.m. (no lunch break) and after a 2 p.m. practice and 3:30 shower, another one hour meeting gets under way at 4:30.

Saturday is a light day for the team. There is a one-hour meeting at 11 a.m. before the 45-minute walk-through practice. Players work in shorts and T-shirts and run at half-speed. This is a brush-up practice to review the game plan and work on special teams. After practice ends at 12:45 p.m., players are off until an 8:30 p.m. meeting. The players stay together the night before the game and are required to be in their hotel rooms by the 11:00 p.m. curfew.

Countdown to kickoff; It is now the day of the game. There are many things to do before the game is to begin.

8:30 a.m. — Taping begins, and players get their ankles taped for extra support. Trainers Bob Lundy and Bill Davis wrap, unwind and tear tape to each player's liking. "We use approximately 1,800 feet of tape per game," Lundy says.

9 a.m. — Pre-game meal. Players are served the pre-game meal four hours before the kickoff. All food is the same for each game. It includes scrambled eggs, pancakes, steak, baked potato, orange juice and milk.

According to Lundy, this food is used because it has a large amount of carbohydrates. "Carbohydrates are good because it gives an energy boost and is also digested through the body very quickly," Lundy explains.

11 a.m. — Players arrive at the Orange Bowl and begin suiting up for the game two hours before kickoff. Shoulder pads, knee and thigh pads, cleated shoes, helmets, pants and jerseys. "An average player wears between 14 to 18 pounds of equipment," says Dolphin equipment manager Bob Monica.

12:05 p.m. — Players go onto the field for stretching and pre-game warmups. According to Junior Wade, strength and flexibility coach, stretching helps prepare muscles for game conditions and also increases blood circulation. "Stretching helps prevent muscle pulls and strains," Wade explains.

Eye-ful tower: Nothing escapes the camera's eye.

Dan Marino working out.

12:55 p.m. — The crowd is anxious as it awaits the Dolphins to come out of the locker room. Suddenly, there is a loud ovation. The Dolphins are emerging from the aqua tunnel and onto the field.

The excitement is in the air as it is minutes before kickoff. What is it that brings thousands of people to stadiums around the country each week? What is it that makes grown men chase a pigskin around an enormous field? The answer is obvious – it's football. NFL style.

Bill Herman, a graduate of Florida International University has been with the Dolphins for six seasons and is presently assistant equipment manager.

Dolfans, vote for Dwight & Kim!

Each of the 28 NFL teams have representatives for the 1986 MILLER LITE OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE LINEMEN OF THE YEAR AWARD, and Dwight Stephenson and Kim Bokamper have been nominated for the Miami Dolphins. This honor is due to their outstanding achievements in community charity work.

Dolfans can cast their ballots and vote for Dwight and Kim at the Dolphin-L.A. Raider game at The Orange Bowl on Sunday, October 19. (Or you may pick up a ballot at any participating Miller Lite retailer.)

The winner in each category will be determined by the most fan votes, so come out and show your support for Dwight and Kim!

CLIMB THAT LAST "SUPER" STEP

agent John Corker could make a big difference with his pass rushing skills. Alex Moyer and Robin Sendlein could also see increased playing time.

Progress at inside linebacker depends largely on the play of draft choices John Offerdahl and Larry Kolic. Offerdahl, the second-round pick out of Western Michigan, is smart enough to step in right away and seems to possess outstanding skills. Shula wasn't pleased with the play of veterans Mark Brown, Jackie Shipp and Jay Brophy last season, but still believes they have the potential to improve signficantly.

How well Miami's linebackers play could be the key to the defense. The defensive backfield should be strong if cornerback Don McNeal can put together an injury-free season after all those disappointments of past seasons. William Judson provides excellent support on the other side. Veteran Paul Lankford, rookie Kevin Wyatt and free agent Donovan Rose will also challenge for playing time.

Safety appears safe with Glenn Blackwood and Bud Brown the returning starters and Mike Kozlowski ready to take over if one of them falters. Veteran Lyle Blackwood adds much-needed depth.

The kicking game proved to be one of Miami's strong suits in 1985 and there's no reason to expect anything different this season. Punter Reggie Roby gets his kicks sending a football to amazing heights while place-kicker Fuad Reveiz was the model of consistency as a rookie, converting 22 of 27 field goal attempts.

"I'm excited about the new season," Shula said. "We've got a lot of potential, but we know there are some big challenges ahead."

Those challenges include a difficult early season schedule that will see the Dolphins play San Diego, the New York Jets, San Francisco and New England in the first five weeks of the season.

1985 GAME SUMMARIES

#1 HOUSTON 26, MIAMI 23

HOUSTON (SEPT. 8) – The Miami Dolphins opened the 1985 regular season with a 26-23 loss to the Houston Oilers before 47,656 fans in the Astrodome. The defeat was Miami's first on opening day since a 1980 17-7 loss to the Buffalo Bills. The Dolphins scored on their initial possession as Fuad Reveiz converted a 33-yard field goal to culminate a 14-play, 64-yard drive. Key plays in the drive included Dan Marino's 19-yard completion to Mark Clayton and Don Strock's 29-yard toss to Clayton (Marino was temporarily out with arm injury). Miami soon extended its lead to 10-0 when CB William Judson intercepted a Warren Moon pass and returned it 61 yards down the sideline for a touchdown. Midway through the second quarter, the Dolphins again increased their lead when rookie FB Ron Davenport's 26-yard run led to a 36-yard field goal by Reveiz. On the first play following the ensuing kickoff, Moon hooked up with Butch Woolfolk on an 80-yard TD play (PAT blocked by Doug Betters). Following an interception by Houston's Steve Brown, the Oilers got into position for a 35-yard field goal by Tony Zendejas to cut Miami's halftime margin to 13-9. After a 45-yard pass from Marino to Clayton, Reviez connected on his third three-pointer of the day (23 yards). The Oilers trimmed their deficit to 16-12 when Zendejas made a 46-yard field goal following a 37-yard Moon to Woolfolk pass play. Houston later gained possession on the Dolphin 16-yard line, and three plays later, Mike Rozier scored the touchdown from three yards out. Strock came in at QB following Marino's second interception and promptly connected with Mark Duper for a 67-yard TD on the first play following an Oiler fumble. Trailing 23-19, Houston then moved 80 yards in 10 plays for the winning score, aided by a 48-yard Moon to Drew Hill pass and a fourth-down end zone pass interference penalty on Miami's Fulton Walker (Rozier scored from the one).

#2 MIAMI 30, INDIANAPOLIS 13

MIAMI (SEPT. 15) – The Miami Dolphins won their first game of the 1985 regular season, defeating the Indianapolis Colts 30-13 before 53,693 fans in the Orange Bowl. Miami scored on its first offensive series as Fuad Reveiz connected on a 22-yard field goal, his first of three three-pointers on the day. The two key plays in the 79-yard drive included a pair of Dan Marino completions to Mark Clayton (26 yards) and Tony Nathan (25 yards). Twelve-yard completions to Nat Moore and Clayton then helped set up a 25-yard FG by Reveiz. The Colts took a 7-6 second quarter lead when QB Mike Pagel hit TE Pat Beach with a two-yard TD toss. Miami, however, regained the lead for good on its next possession, moving 80 yards in nine plays as Clayton made a spectacular six-yard catch for the touchdown to put the Dolphins ahead 13-7. Long plays in that scoring march included a 16-yard reception by TE Joe Rose and a 27-yard pass interference penalty (intended for Rose). The third quarter opened with a 40-yard Reveiz field goal as a pair of 11-yard Marino passes to Vince Heflin and Moore led to those points. Miami extended its lead to 23-7 when Nathan broke several tackles and scored on a 21-yard run. Another 80-yard Dolphin TD drive culminated with a three-yard Marino to Moore pass. The Colts closed out the scoring when George Wonsley went in from one yard out.

#3 MIAMI 31, KANSAS CITY 0

MIAMI (SEPT. 22, 1985) – The Miami Dolphins, led by a defense that limited Kansas City to just 284 yards, shutout the Chiefs 31-0 before 69,791 fans in the Orange Bowl. The shut out was Miami's first in 26 games (including playoffs) dating back to the Dolphins' 37-0 whitewashing of the Colts on November 20, 1983. After a scoreless first half that included a Dolphin goal-line stand after Kansas City had a first down at the Miami one-yard line, the Dolphins exploded in the second half. On their first possession of the third quarter, the Dolphins moved 53 yards in five plays with Dan Marino hitting TE Bruce Hardy for a nine-yard touchdown. A 42-yard kickoff return (Lorenzo Hampton for 10 yards, handoff to Mike Kozlowski for 32 more) and a 23-yard reception by Nat Moore set up that score. The next time the Dolphins had the ball, they scored again as an 11-play, 80-yard drive culminated in a 27-yard TD catch by Woody Bennett, just the third touchdown reception in his seven-year career. Miami scored the first of its 17 fourth-quarter points when rookie FB Ron Davenport scored from one-yard out following a Glenn Blackwood interception (17 yard return) and Marino completions to Davenport (14 yards) and Bennett (19 yards). Miami extended its lead to 28-0 when Kozlowski's 17-yard punt return and Tony Nathan's 21-yard run led to Davenport's three-yard touchdown. Linebacker Jay Brophy's first NFL interception and 41-yard return set up the game's final score which came on a 37-yard field goal by Fuad Reveiz.

#4 MIAMI 30, DENVER 26

DENVER (SEPT. 29) – The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's 390 yards passing and running back Tony Nathan's 158 combined yards, defeated the Denver Broncos 30-26 before 73,614 fans in Mile High Stadium. Denver got on the scoreboard first when Gene Lang scored on a 10-yard run. The Broncos had to move just 25 yards for the TD following a fumble by Miami rookie Ron Davenport. It took the Dolphins just three plays to tie the game as Marino connected with Nat Moore on a 69-yard pass play. Miami edged ahead early in the second quarter when good field position (Denver 47) plus a personal foul on the Broncos allowed Fuad Reveiz to kick a 40-yard field goal. The see-saw scoring continued as Denver embarked on an eight-play, 82-yard drive that put the Broncos ahead 14-10. John Elway completions to Butch Johnson (29 yards) and Lang (24 yards) preceded Sammy Winder's seven-yard touchdown run. The Dolphins immediately trimmed the Denver advantage to a single point when a 73-yard Marino to Nathan pass play set up Reveiz's 24-yard field goal. That was to be the first of three scores in the final three minutes of the half. After stopping the Broncos, Miami took over with 1:53 remaining and drove 75 yards in 78 seconds (seven plays). A 30-yard completion to Mark Clayton was the big play before Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 24-yard touchdown to put Miami ahead 20-14. On the ensuing series, Rich Karlis kicked a 43-yard field goal on the final play of the half. The Broncos scored on the first possession of the third quarter to take a 23-20 lead. A 10:11 drive covered 82 yards in 10 plays with Winder scoring from one yard out (PAT failed). Late in the quarter, WR Vince Heflin caught a Marino pass at the Denver 25 and eluded two tacklers to score on a 46-yard play that gave the Dolphins a 27-23 advantage. Miami extended that lead on Reveiz's 27-yard field goal that was set up by two Bronco pass interference penalties (28, 5 yards). A 29-yard Elway to Johnson pass paved the way for Karlis' 34-yard three-pointer that closed out the scoring. An interception by Miami's Bud Brown thwarted the Broncos' final drive.

#5 MIAMI 24, PITTSBURGH 20

MIAMI (OCT. 6) – The Miami Dolphins, led by a defense that limited the opposition to just 282 yards of total offense, defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers 24-20 before 72,820 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first possession of the game as they took advantage of excellent field position (Miami 47) to move 53 yards in nine plays. Tony Nathan's one-yard plunge was set up by Mark Clayton's 15-yard catch. Pittsburgh tied the game early in the second quarter when Walter Abercrombie scored from one yard out after Nathan's fumble had given the Steelers possession at the Dolphin 18-yard line. Pittsburgh edged ahead later in the period when a 16-yard reception by Frank Pollard and a 14-yard run by Abercrombie paved the way for Gary Anderson's 48-yard field goal. The Dolphins immediately came back, marching 80 yards in nine plays with Marino hitting Johnson for the two-yard score. Key plays in that series included a 16-yard Marino completion to Clayton and a 15-yard run by Nathan. With just 12 seconds remaining in the half, the Steelers took a 17-14 lead on Malone's one-yard TD throw to Weegie Thompson that had been set up by a 29-yard pass interference penalty on Miami's John Swain. Again, Miami scored on its initial series of the half as Nat Moore's 26-yard catch helped the Dolphins get in position for Fuad Reveiz's 35-yard field goal. With the score knotted at 17-17 in the fourth quarter, Marino was intercepted by LB Robin Cole, giving the Steelers possession at Miami's 17-yard line and leading to Anderson's 33-yard field goal. With 4:10 remaining in the game, the Dolphins put together a nine-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in Lorenzo Hampton's first regular season NFL touchdown with 47 seconds left.

EAST RUTHERFORD (OCT. 14) – The Miami Dolphins, held to just 200 total yards while giving up 476 yards, were defeated by the New York Jets 23-7 before 73,807 fans at Giants Stadium. The defeat snapped Miami's seven game winning streak over New York. After a scoreless first quarter, the Jets moved 68 yards in 11 plays with Pat Leahy kicking a 22-yard field goal. The two key plays in the series featured a 20-yard Ken O'Brien to Mickey Shuler pass and a 20-yard run by Freeman McNeil. With one second remaining in the first half, Leahy booted an 18-yard field goal to give the Jets a 6-0 advantage. Four O'Brien completions for 54 yards helped set up the three-pointer. Both teams scored on their first possession of the third quarter. New York's 11-play, 80-yard march included a pair of McNeil receptions (13, 20 yards) before O'Brien connected with Kurt Sohn for a 15-yard touchdown. The Dolphins promptly shaved their deficit to 13-7 when Ron Davenport scored on a three-yard run. That 73-yard drive was highlighted by Dan Marino passes to Mark Clayton (14 yards) and Tony Nathan (25 yards). However, the Jets came right back, utilizing an 18-yard O'Brien to Sohn pass and a 17-yard McNeil run to set up Leahy for an 18-yard field goal. New York closed out the scoring in the fourth quarter on Tony Paige's one-yard TD.

#7 MIAMI 41, TAMPA BAY 38

MIAMI (OCT. 20) – The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's pinpoint passing and the last-second heroics of placekicker Fuad Reveiz, defeated the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 41-38 before 62,335 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored points on their first four possessions of the game. On the Bucs' first series, Frank Garcia's punt was tipped by Jim Jensen, thus giving Miami excellent field position at the Tampa Bay 48-yard line. On the sixth play of the drive, Marino hit WR Nat Moore for a 16-yard touchdown. The Dolphins extended their first quarter lead to 14-0 when a four-yard Marino to Jensen scoring toss capped an 11-play, 58-yard drive. Tampa Bay cut into Miami's lead early in the second quarter when Jerry Bell's 27-yard catch and James Wilder's 20-yard run helped set up Wilder's 10-yard TD. However, the Dolphins came right back to make it 21-7 on FB Ron Davenport's one-yard touchdown (11 plays, 80 yards). Hugh Green's interception and 28-yard return to the Buccaneer two-yard line preceded Reveiz's 20-yard field goal that was actually blocked by Tampa Bay's Karl Morgan. The Bucs sliced their deficit to 24-14 with 12 seconds left in the half when QB

Steve DeBerg connected with TE Jimmie Giles for the first of the duo's four touchdowns on the afternoon. Miami again started quickly in the third quarter as the team drove 80 yards in just six plays with Tony Nathan getting the six points on a one-yard run. Joe Rose's 42-yard catch was the key play in that march that put the Dolphins ahead 31-14. The Bucs retaliated immediately, moving 82 yards in six plays with Giles scoring on a 39-yard pass. The see-saw scoring continued as Miami charged back to reestablish its 17-point lead (38-21) on a 10-play, 79-yard drive that culminated with a three-yard Marino to Bruce Hardy TD toss. In the fourth quarter, Marino's fumbled snap gave the Bucs the ball at the Miami 21, and four plays later, DeBerg threw to Giles for a seven-yard score. Tampa Bay then closed the gap to 38-35 when Marino was intercepted by Jeremiah Castille, and the Buccaneers moved 38 yards for the touchdown which came on a 16-yard Giles reception. The Bucs finally got even when Donald Igwebuike kicked a 38-yard field goal. Taking over on his own 29-yard line with 37 seconds remaining, Marino hooked up with Nathan for gains of 19 and 15 yards. With six seconds left, Reveiz then kicked a 43-yard field goal to win the game.

Miami got on the scoreboard late in the first quarter when Fuad Reveiz connected on a 45-yard field goal. The Dolphins had gotten into position for that score thanks to a Glenn Blackwood interception. Miami got even at 10-10 early in the second period when a 10-play, 63-yard drive culminated in a four-yard TD by Hampton. Each team then Miami went ahead 20-13 in the third quarter when another Glenn Blackwood interception gave the Dolphins the ball at the Colt 32-yard line. Following a Marino to Bruce Hardy pass for 31 yards, Davenport scored the remaining yard for the touchdown. The Dolphins then caught the Colts off guard with a Reveiz onsides kick that was recovered for Miami by Alex Moyer. Miami then moved 54 yards in just five plays that included a 37-yard connection from Marino to Moore. The TD came on Hampton's second six-pointer of the day from one yard out. Indianapolis immediately shaved Miami's advantage to 27-20 when QB Mike Pagel's pass to Wayne Capers was caught at the Dolphin 48 and run in for the touchdown (80-yard play). Miami returned the favor by getting points on its next series to close out the scoring as Marino moved the Dolphins 77 yards in eight plays with the score coming on a 17-yard Marino to Davenport toss. On each of the Colts' last two possessions of the game, they fumbled into the Dolphin end zone with Glenn Blackwood (William Judson forced) and Bud Brown (Paul Lankford forced) recovering.

#13 MIAMI 38, CHICAGO 24

MIAMI (DEC. 2) – The Miami Dolphins, led by a total offensive and defensive team effort, defeated the Chicago Bears 38-24 before 75,594 fans in the Orange Bowl. The win prevented the Bears from a possible undefeated season and preserved the 1972 Dolphins as the only "perfect" team in NFL history. The Dolphins scored points on all five of their first half possessions against Chicago's #1 rated defense. Miami opened the scoring when a 30-yard pass from Dan Marino to Mark Duper helped set up Nat Moore's 33-yard catch and run for a touchdown. The Bears tied the game on the ensuing possession on QB Steve Fuller's one-yard run that came two plays after Fuller had connected with Willie Gault for a 69-yard pass play. Miami went ahead 10-7 when Lorenzo Hampton's season-high 46-yard kickoff return led to Fuad Reveiz's 47-yard field goal. Bob Brudzinski's interception paved the way for the Dolphins' next TD that came on FB Ron Davenport's one-yard run. Key plays in that drive included Marino throws to Moore (22 yards) and Duper (17 yards). Chicago's Keven Butler trimmed the Miami lead to 17-10 with a 30-yard field goal before Davenport scored another one-yard touchdown thanks to a 52-yard catch by Duper and a 26-yarder by Mark Clayton. The Dolphins made it 31-10 at halftime when William Judson blocked Maury Buford's punt (Robin Sendlein recovered at the Bear 6) and Marino hit Moore for the six-yard score. The Bears scored first in the second half when they recovered a Clayton fumble at the Dolphin 27-yard line and subsequently got the TD on another one-yard dive by Fuller. Miami jumped to a 38-17 lead when a Marino pass was deflected by Chicago's Dan Hampton, but caught by Clayton for a 42-yard touchdown play. Dennis Gentry's 50-yard kickoff return led to the last score of the evening as Fuller threw to Ken Margerum for a 19-yard TD. The scoreless fourth quarter featured a pair of Dolphin QB sacks, an interception by Judson and a fumble recovery by Hugh Green (Bill Barnett forced).

Regaining possession at their own 46 with 69 seconds left in the half, Marino completed four of five throws with the last one going for a 16-yard score to Nat Moore to put Miami ahead 20-3. The Pack came back in the third quarter, scoring touchdowns on their first two possessions to trim Miami's lead to 20-17. On their first series of the period, Zorn moved the team 66 yards in just seven plays including a 29-yard TD toss to Preston Dennard. The Dolphins immediately retaliated, driving 67 yards in 10 plays with important third down conversions coming on Marino completions to Moore (15 yards) and Nathan (17 yards). The go-ahead score that gave Miami a 27-24 lead came on a leaping two-yard TD grab by Rose. Following a Paul Lankford interception, the Dolphins scored again when Marino audibled a third-and-one call and connected with Dan Johnson on a 61-yard pass and run play. Rookie LB Alex Moyer's first NFL interception sealed the Dolphin victory.

#15 MIAMI 30, NEW ENGLAND 27

MIAMI (DEC. 16) – The Miami Dolphins, led by safety Glenn Blackwood's two clutch interceptions and Fuad Reveiz's three field goals (all from 40+ yards), defeated the New England Patriots 30-27 before 69,489 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins recorded the first points of the night when Dan Marino connected with TE Joe Rose for a six-yard touchdown. Miami had to move just 39 yards for the score following S Bud Brown's recovery of a Tony Collins fumble. However, the Patriots retaliated on their next possession when QB Tony Eason's 40-yard hook-up with Stephen Starring paved the way for a 10-yard scoring reception by Irving Fryar. Miami again went ahead midway through the second quarter when Fuad Reveiz converted a 44-yard field goal following receptions by Mark Duper (15 yards) and Moore (19 yards). The Dolphins increased their lead to 17-7 when Joe Carter's 19-yard run helped set up Ron Davenport's one-yard scoring run. Glenn Blackwood's interception at the Dolphin nine-yard line preserved Miami's 10-point halftime lead. The Patriots made it 17-10 early in the third quarter when Tony Nathan's fumble gave New England the ball at the Miami 20 and led to Tony Franklin's 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins came right back to re-establish their 10-point margin (20-10) on Reveiz's season-high 49-yard field goal. Again, the Pats answered right back with a field goal of their own as Franklin also converted a 49-yarder. The Dolphins stretched their lead to 27-13 early in the final period when a 30-yard pass interference penalty on Ernest Gibson (intended for Nat Moore) led to Davenport's second one-yard TD of the evening. New England then embarked on a seven-play, 72-yard drive that culminated when Mosi Tatupu got the TD from one yard out. The Patriots tied the game at 27 when Carter's fumble on the ensuing kickoff was recovered by Cedric Jones ,who ran 15 yards for the TD. The Dolphins got the winning points on Reveiz's 47-yard gamer. The victory was sealed when Glenn Blackwood intercepted an Eason pass at the Miami 11-yard line.

#16 MIAMI 28, BUFFALO 0

MIAMI (DEC. 22) – The Miami Dolphins, led by two touchdown catches by tight end Bruce Hardy and the solid play of linebacker Jackie Shipp, defeated the Buffalo Bills 28-0 before 64,811 fans in the Orange Bowl. The win was Miami's seventh in a row and gave the Dolphins the undisputed AFC Eastern Division championship, marking the 13th time in Head Coach Don Shula's 16 Miami seasons that the Dolphins have won or shared that crown. Miami scored on its first possession, moving 76 yards in 11 plays with the touchdown coming on a spectacular one-handed catch by Hardy (19 yards). The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 in the second quarter when Shipp's first NFL interception gave them the ball at the Bills' 32-yard line. Miami scored the TD in just three plays as a 23-yard Dan Marino to Mark Clayton pass preceded Marino's five-yard scoring strike to Hardy. The Dolphins' defense then stopped Bills' RB Joe Cribbs on two consecutive plays from the Miami one-yard line. The third quarter was scoreless as each team committed two turnovers. Early in the final period, Bruce Mathison's fumble was recovered by Dolphin lineman Bill Barnett at the Bills' 26-yard line. Five plays later, Nathan scored on a one-yard dive. After Buffalo turned the ball over on downs at its own 43, the Dolphins embarked on the final scoring drive of the day. A nine-yard reception by Tom Vigorito was the series' longest play before FB Ron Davenport scored on a 13-yard run. On Miami's last possession of the game, Davenport added a 33-yard run that was the Dolphins' longest of the season.

#17 MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21

MIAMI, JAN. 4 – Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns' first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later, and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

#18 NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14

MIAMI, JAN. 12 The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-of-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. Pat fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard jaunt midway in the fourth quarter.
