PLAYING CAREER

COLLEGE: Won nine varsity letters — four in football, three in basketball and two in baseball — at the University of Minnesota from 1946-1949. Went to Minnesota after being in the Navy for a year. Played football and basketball at Great Lakes Naval Training Center where his coaches included Paul Brown (football) and Weeb Ewbank (basketball). At Minnesota he was named All-Big Ten twice in football, as an end.

PRO: Played basketball with the Minneapolis Lakers for two seasons (1949-50 and 1950-51), when they were World Champions. Finding, at 6-foot-3, he was one of “those little forwards” he signed with the Philadelphia Eagles, which had drafted him No. 1 in 1950. As a rookie he started as a defensive end. In his second season he moved to offense and was the No. 2-ranking receiver in the NFL with 57 catches. His first pass reception as a pro was good for 86 yards and a touchdown against Pittsburgh. After contractual difficulties with the Eagles, Grant signed with Winnipeg of the Canadian League and played four seasons as a wide receiver (216 receptions) and cornerback (holds record of five interceptions in one game). Led the league in receptions three times.

COACHING CAREER

PRO: After the 1956 season Grant, then 29, was named head coach at Winnipeg, moving out of the playing ranks to replace Allie Sherman. In 10 seasons his Winnipeg teams won 102 games and lost 56. The Blue Bombers, under Grant, won six divisional titles and four Grey Cup championships. He became head coach of the Vikings prior to the 1967 season and has a 65-30-3 NFL record. He has the third-best percentage (.679) among active NFL coaches. Only six active NFL coaches have more victories — and all have coached longer than Grant. His record of championships: Five Central Division, one Western Conference, one NFL, one NFC.

1st Year (D2-73)

PRO: Spent 1973 season on the inactive list. Reported late to training camp and thus was behind the other rookies last season. Good speed and good credentials so he deserves another look. Is punt return possibility.

COLLEGE: Intercepted 20 passes, a school record. MVP in the East-West game, where he intercepted two passes. Was named All-American. Also lettered in baseball. College study areas were math and accounting.

PERSONAL: Native of New Orleans and lives in Tucson, Arizona. Married, wife's name is Mary Janet.

NEW ROSTER DESIGNATIONS

All rookies in NFL rosters will carry the designation "R" under the heading of NFL experience. Rookies are players who have never attended an NFL training camp previously. Players with the "1" (one) designation are first-year players who have been at a training camp previously but did not play in three regular-season games and thus did not qualify as a second-year player. Only players with the "R" designation are eligible for rookie honors.

WARD, JOHN HENRY
Guard

Oklahoma State
Ht: 6-4, Wt: 250

Born: 5-27-48
5th Year (D1-70)

PRO: Suffered a broken leg and missed five games in 1973. Had taken over as starting right guard before the injury. After over six months in a cast, his status will remain a question right through training camp. Played offensive line in college and started out on defense with the Vikings before being shifted to offense in 1972.

COLLEGE: All-American offensive tackle and two-time Big Eight heavyweight wrestling champion. Finished third in NCAA tournament. Played in five post-season football games in 1969-70. Business major in college.

PERSONAL: Native of Enid, Okla., and resides in Disney, Okla., where he works as a fishing guide. Married, wife's name is Cheryl.

Quarterback

Illinois
Ht: 6-5, Wt: 225

Born: 6-18-51
1st Year (D4-73)

PRO: Spent 1973 on inactive squad, but took his turn in practice with the other quarterbacks and watched every game from the phone booth with the assistant coaches. Strong arm, good head ... definitely a prospect.

COLLEGE: Named All-Big Ten in 1972 and also All-Big Ten academic. Set records for passing yardage and total offense. College major was geography.

PERSONAL: Native of Normal, Ill., where he resides in the off-season.

Ht: 6-1, Wt: 197

Born: 8-31-46
7th Year (D2-68)

PRO: Missed most of 1973 season after having knee surgery prior to training camp. Played little at defensive back but returned three kickoffs for a 34.6-yard average in the regular season and six for 20.3-yard average in the playoffs. Definitely will be a plus for Vikings if he can return to his 1972 form ... when he was the starting left cornerback.

COLLEGE: All-American safety. Won four letters in football, four in baseball and one in basketball. Signed pro baseball contract after college and played briefly in Cincinnati system before joining Vikings.

PERSONAL: Native of Big Spring, Texas. Lives in Bloomington. He and his wife, Barb, have two children.
