MEDIA GUIDE
1981

WHEN YOU JOIN THE TEAM COLORS HUDDLE, YOU START PLAYING WITH THE BIG KIDS.

Ahmad Rashad, for example, swears by Team Colors gear. (We have to admit, though, that he also swears by never missing practice, running lots of laps and doing pushups.) Ahmad is going to be around a lot this season, talking about Dayton's Team Colors Shop, your official headquarters for NFL licensed gear. Watch your local newspapers for a listing of the dates and times. And when you go to see Ahmad, go wearing this T-shirt and carrying this pennant. Both come in your choice of team logos. (We think it will take you about 3 seconds to decide). Polyester/cotton shirt, boys' sizes 8 to 20, 6.00. Pennant, 2.00. NFL cap, embroidered with helmet logo, 8.00. Dayton's Team Colors Shop.

MAX WINTER
President

Naming the Vikings new office / practice facility "Winter Park" was as deserved as it was appropriate.

It was Max Winter's dogged persistence that resulted in a National Football League franchise for Minnesota; and it was the stability of ownership under Max Winter that helped create the strong foundation that made the Vikings' organization one of the most successful in the National Football League.

"I'm honored that the Vikings organization chose to name the new facility after me" Winter said, "because it represents just exactly what we have tried to accomplish here in Minnesota — and that is to be the best in the NFL . . . to have the best facility, the best coaches, the best staff and the best team."

And, judging by Max Winter's track record, there is no reason to question his aims — because being "best" has been a standard of his for many years.

Winter brought the first big league team to the Twin Cities, building the Minneapolis Lakers into one of the most solid and successful franchises in sports history, winning five NBA championships in seven years (from 1947-1954.)

It was when he still was president and general manager of the Lakers, in 1955, that Winter saw an NFL game in Chicago. He followed up almost immediately, writing to the NFL for a franchise in Minnesota. And he kept at it, with the same persistence that made him successful as a businessman of varied interest. He continued to write letters to the NFL owners and the commissioner and he attended league meetings regularly.

Finally, it came to pass. In 1960, a franchise was awarded to Winter for the 1961 season. At that time, he added four other Minnesotans as co-owners — H.P. Skoglund, Bill Boyer, Bernard Ridder, Jr. and Ole Haugsrud. And thus, a new vista opened for Max Winter, but still in the area of sports that he had enjoyed for so many years.

Winter was born in the Austrian village of Mahrishostrau and was a gymnast and ice skater as a youth. His family emigrated to the United States in 1913 and settled in Minneapolis where Max attended North High School, graduating in 1922 after playing football and captaining the basketball team. His basketball talents won him a scholarship at Hamline University in St. Paul.

From college he went on to a number of business endeavors including his promotion work for the Harlem Globetrotters and the Auto Show and then graduated to the Lakers.

One of the players he signed for the team was a University of Minnesota all-around athlete named Bud Grant. That was in 1949 and it was Grant's first job in pro sports.

Winter's Lakers won championships the two years Grant was with the team (before moving to the NFL.) And the Winter-Grant Viking alliance hasn't done badly either — the team has won 11 division titles and four conference championships in the last 12 years and the organization is recognized as one of the NFL's best-run franchises

Winter and his wife, Helen, have three daughters, Mrs. Sue Diamond, Mrs. Nancy Ditlove and Mrs. Diane Cohen, and nine grandchildren.

MIKE LYNN

Vice President-General Manager

When Mike Lynn joined the Minnesota Vikings in 1974, his intention was to be a general manager who was involved with all aspects of the operation of a National Football League team.

His achievements certainly would indicate he has taken that plan to full implementation. An indication of that is the design of the administrative offices in the Vikings' new Winter Park office/training facility: Lynn's office is right at the hub of the operation, easily accessible to all departments — tickets, administration, coaching, player personnel and public relations.

Lynn's diversity as a general manager probably is best illustrated by some of his accomplishments since he joined the Vikings in 1974: He was the club's "ramrod" in the effort to build a new stadium . . . and the domed, Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome will be ready for the 1982 season; he joined in the move to bolster the club's scouting department, and hired Ralph Kohl and Don Deisch, two of BLESTO's premier scouts; he supervised the financing and planning of the Vikings' new Winter Park facility, which is being called among the best in the NFL; he recently was named to the executive committee of National Football League Properties.

And, during his tenure, the Vikings' success on the field has not deteriorated: In his seven years with the club, the Vikings have won six Central Division titles and have gone to two Super Bowls.

Mike Lynn's involvement with the National Football League started in 1965 when he formed a group that sought an NFL franchise for Memphis, Tenn. He formed a group to make the purchase, the newly constructed stadium was ready and he was to serve as either president or managing general partner.

But Memphis chose instead to cast its lot with the World Football League and Lynn was hired as assistant to Vikings president Max Winter from among 50 applicants.

Lynn was born in Scranton, Pa., on May 18, 1936. At age 17, while attending Morris Hills Regional High School in New Jersey, Lynn became the youngest manager of a theater in the history of the Walter Reade chain of theaters. He spent three years with the Army Security Agency — one year in Korea— and ran a chain of movie theaters in Delaware and Maryland after he was discharged.

In 1963, at the age of 27, Lynn became a general manager of a department store in East St. Louis — becoming, according to a national trade publication, the youngest man of that title working for a store that did over $10 million of business annually. In 1964 he became a group executive of Dixiemart-Corondolet in Memphis, a chain of stores that did $50 million in business annually.

In 1965 Lynn became interested in an NFL franchise and formed Mid-South Sports, Inc., which sponsored eight NFL pre-season games, including a Vikings-St. Louis game in 1969. He founded the Chamber of Commerce Sports Committee and was chairman of the Mayor's NFL Committee. At the same time, he served as chief executive officer of the Memphis ABA team.

Lynn attended Pace University in New York City. He and his wife, Jorja, live on Lake Minnetonka, in a Minneapolis suburb, with their four children — Louisa, 17, Robert, 16, Michael IV, 12, and Lucia, 4 — and Mike's mother.

BUD GRANT
Head Coach

As Bud Grant enters his 25th year as a head coach, only one man has compiled more victories in the history of professional football — the legendary George Halas.

Grant's teams have won a total of 262 regular-season and post-season games — 122 as coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League from 1957 to 1966 and 140 as coach of the Minnesota Vikings from 1967 to the present. Only Halas — with 326 victories — has won more professional football games.

In Grant's 14 years as head coach of the Vikings, his teams have compiled a regular-season record of 131-66-5 and have won 15 championships: 11 Central Division (every year but 1967, 1972 and 1979), one NFL (1969) and three NFC (1973, 1974 and 1976.) The Vikings, under Grant, have been in four Super Bowl games.

Going into the 1981 season, those 131 regular-season Viking victories ranked Grant in a tie for seventh with Hank Stram on the NFL's list of all-time coaching victories. Only two active NFL coaches are ahead of Grant — Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys with 184 victories and Don Shula of the Miami Dolphins with 183. Landry, with 21 years in Dallas, is the only active head coach with more years of service with his present team than Grant.

Bud Grant's coaching career began in 1957 when, at age 29, he moved directly from the player ranks to the head coaching job with Winnipeg. He led the Blue Bombers' in receptions three times and also was a starting cornerback.

In 10 years at Winnipeg, Grant's team won six Western Conference titles and four Grey Cup championships. He was the first pro football coach ever to win 100 regular-season games in his first 10 years.

Born May 20, 1927, in Superior, Wis., Grant graduated from Superior Central High School. From the time he was a 6-foot-3, 14-year-old freshman, Grant played football and basketball at Central and also pitched in American Legion baseball. He went on to win nine varsity letters at the University of Minnesota from 1946-1949. Included were four letters in football (an All-Big-Ten end twice, playing both ways), three in basketball and two in baseball. He went to Minnesota after a year in the Navy at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, where he played football under Paul Brown and basketball under Weeb Ewbank. His athletic skills earned him the honor of Minnesota's Athlete of the Half Century, as voted by a panel of sportswriters and sportscasters in 1950.

In 1949, current Vikings president Max Winter (then president of the Minneapolis Lakers) signed Grant to play basketball in the NBA. After two seasons in which the Lakers won World Championships, Grant signed with Philadelphia, which had drafted him No. 1 in 1950. A defensive end as a rookie, he then moved to offense and was the second-ranking receiver in the NFL in 1952 with 57 catches. Grant signed with Winnipeg in 1953 after experiencing contractual difficulties with the Eagles.

Grant is an avid hunter, fisherman and naturalist. He still spends as much free time as possible with his family at their lake home in Northern Wisconsin. Bud and his wife, Pat, have six children — Kathy (8-6-51), Laurie (7-26-53), Pete (3-4-55), Mike (4-15-57), Bruce (12-31-60) and Danny (2-16-67). The family home is in Bloomington.

PLAYER PERSONNEL/SCOUTING

JERRY REICHOW, Director of Football Operations

Jerry Reichow was director of player personnel for the Vikings for nine years until being named director of football operations in 1975. Reichow was an All-Big Ten quarterback at Iowa and started his pro football career at Detroit. He played on the Philadelphia Eagles' 1960 championship team, quarterbacked by Norm Van Brocklin. When Van Brocklin became Vikings coach in 1961, he engineered a trade that brought Reichow to the Vikings. Reichow played wide receiver and tight end for the Vikings from 1961 until his retirement as a player in 1964. He holds the Vikings record for touchdown pass receptions in a season (11 in 1961) and led the club in receptions in 1961 and 1962. Reichow is a native of Decorah, Iowa. He is married to the former Carolyn Verret and has three children — Alan, Lori and Jimmie.

FRANK GILLIAM, Director of Player Personnel

Frank Gilliam joined the Vikings in 1970 as scouting director and was named director of player personnel in 1975. Gilliam played college football at Iowa, where he was a teammate of Jerry Reichow's and an All-Big Ten end in 1956. He played pro football with Winnipeg and Vancouver of the Canadian Football League and was an assistant coach at Iowa from 1966-1970. Gilliam's brother, Joe, is assistant head coach at Tennessee State. He is a native of Steubenville, Ohio. Frank and his wife, Velma, have three children — Frank Jr., Gayle and Michelle.

RALPH KOHL, Head Scout

Ralph Kohl joined the Vikings in 1978 as head scout after working for the Blesto scouting combine for the past 14 years. Kohl first worked as an area scout for Blesto (the combine of which the Vikings are members). He then moved up to regional scout and finally national scout, with the job of grading the top college players in the country. Kohl played on two national championship teams at Michigan in the late 1940s and signed with the Baltimore Colts before suffering a knee injury that ended his career. He coached in high school and college before becoming head coach at Eastern Illinois and then moving on to Blesto. Ralph and his wife, Dorothy, have one daughter — Jackie.

DON DEISCH, Assistant Head Scout

Don Deisch joined the Vikings in 1980 as assistant head scout, responsible primarily for the West Coast. Deisch had been with the Blesto scouting organization from 1976 until he was hired by the Vikings. He played quarterback and defensive back at Southern Oregon and coached at Portland State and Stanford before joining Blesto. He and his wife, Marlene, have one daughter — Kim — and live in Aloha, Ore.

RASHAD, AHMAD / 28

Wide Receiver | Oregon | Born: 11-19-49
Ht: 6-2 | Wt: 200 | 9th Year (T-76)

PRO: No other wide receiver in pro football has caught more passes than Rashad in the last five years (319) and only one NFL player — Viking running back Rickey Young — has been able to equal that number of catches in five years. Has led the Vikings in receiving in three of his five years with the club (1977, 1979, 1980) and holds the club records for single-season receiving yards (1,156 in 1979), career receiving yards (4,372) and touchdown receptions in one game (four against the 49ers in 1979.) Needs just 18 catches to surpass Chuck Foreman's Viking career reception record of 336. In 1980, Rashad ranked second in the NFC and fifth in the NFL in reception yards (1,095) and fourth in the NFL in receptions (69). Ranks 26th on the NFL's All-time reception list and could get close to the top 10 this year. Has played in three straight Pro Bowl games and was MVP in his first appearance. Was named All-NFC last year. Came to the Vikings just before the 1976 season in a trade with Seattle (the Seahawks wound up with Bob Lurtsema and a fourth-round draft choice) and became a starter in the fourth game that year. Has started every Viking game since — a string of 73 straight regular-season starts. Also has caught at least one pass in 61 straight Viking games. Originally was a first-round draft choice of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972, and was traded to Buffalo for quarterback Dennis Shaw after the 1973 season. Missed the 1975 season with a knee injury, played out his option, and signed with Seattle in 1976.

COLLEGE: Set 14 Oregon records as a running back, and was named All-American. Also was All-Conference three times. Majored in education and has credits toward his master's degree.

PERSONAL: Born Bobby Moore in Portland, Ore., and graduated from Mt. Tacoma (Wash.) High School. Lives in Lakeville, Minn. Spent the off-season working as a reporter for WCCO-TV and as vice president of special events for Jeno's. ROSTER DESIGNATIONS

All Rookies in NFL rosters will carry the designation "R" under the heading of NFL experience. Rookies are players who have never attended an NFL training camp previously. Players with the "1" (one) designation are first-year players who have been at a training camp previously but did not play in three regular-season games and thus did not qualify as a second year player. Only players with the "R" designation are eligible for rookie honors.
