KICKOFF

VIKINGS STADIUM VISION

With the Metrodome lease set to expire after this season, the Vikings are working with elected officials, business, labor and community leaders in an effort to construct a new publicly-owned facility as part of a broader economic development proposal.

In May 2011, the team announced its partnership with Ramsey County to build a new multi-purpose stadium on the former Twin Cities Army Ammunitions Plant (TCAAP) property in Arden Hills. The site – just 10 miles from both the Minneapolis and St. Paul downtown districts – offers tremendous benefits to the State, the County, the Vikings and the fans.

The 260 acres for the stadium and parking will bring the return of tailgating and result in an enhanced game-day experience that is so important to Vikings fans. The stadium will host national and international events, including NCAA basketball, a Super Bowl and concerts, as well as high school and amateur sports and other community events.

Despite the Vikings partnership with Ramsey County and the team's patience over the last several years, legislators chose not to address the stadium situation during the 2011 Legislative Session. The Vikings have done everything State leaders have asked, including finding a strong local partner, identifying the best stadium site, and contributing signficant private money into the project. The team continues to stand ready to complete the deal for a new stadium.

Stadium:
* Publicly-owned
* Multi-purpose, retractable-roof
* 1.6 million square feet
* Artificial turf
* Designed collaboratively by team and county
* Accommodations for NCAA basketball, amateur baseball, major league soccer and other community uses

Site:
* Arden Hills, MN
* Former Twin Cities Army Ammunitions Plant (TCAAP)
* 260 acres for stadium and parking
* 170 acres for potential future development
* Access from I-35W, Hwy 10, and CR 96

Seating:
* 65,000 seats, expandable to 72,000 to host Super Bowl
* Optimal football sight lines in lower and upper bowls
* Up to 120-150 suites
* Bunker suites at field level
* Up to 7,500 club seats
* Club lounges at field and concourse levels
* Includes affordable seating

Fan Amenities:
* Tremendous game-day experience
* 21,000 parking spaces for tailgating
* Optimized sideline seating
* Wider concourses
* More restrooms
* Increased and enhanced concessions
* Increased handicapped accessibility
* Ability to provide outdoor football in the fall with protection from the elements in the winter

VIKINGS STADIUM VISION

BENEFITS TO THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

* The State of Minnesota will collect approximately $19 million annually from stadium-related sales and player income taxes upon stadium opening. This does not account for annual inflationary increases.
* The construction alone will support 7,500 full and part-time construction jobs with nearly $300 million in wages during the three-year building period.
* Approximately 95% of the labor and subcontract value is estimated to go back to Minnesotans.
* The "People's Stadium" will be publicly-owned and will host high school and amateur sports and other community events.
* Stadium will have the ability to host large-scale events - NCAA Final Fours, Super Bowl, Major League Soccer, political conventions, etc.

BENEFITS TO ARDEN HILLS AND RAMSEY COUNTY

* A new stadium and surrounding development will dramatically accelerate the cleanup and revitalization of the largest Superfund site in the State.
* The off-site transportation improvements to State highways and interstates will benefit the community and the region on a daily basis.
* With a $350 million investment, Ramsey County is securing a billion-dollar redevelopment of a grossly underutilized site and accelerating the construction of needed metro highway improvements.
* The new facility will draw one million-plus event attendees to Ramsey County and Arden Hills on an annual basis.
* Private development should spur additional economic activity in the area.

FAQs

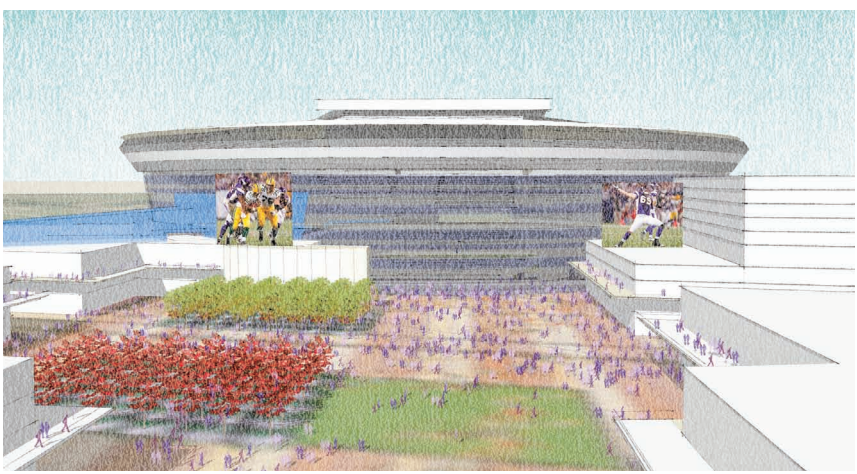

Why did the Vikings choose Ramsey County to be their local partner?
For more than a year, the Vikings had discussions with the City of Minneapolis, Hennepin County and Ramsey County. During the process, Ramsey County was a willing and strong partner, and both the team and the County are excited about this stadium vision. The vision for a retractable-roof stadium at the former Twin Cities Army Ammunitions site in Arden Hills provides a tremendous game-day experience for our fans, meets the needs of the Vikings and the NFL, allows for a year-round multi-purpose facility for all Minnesotans to use, and is supported by a workable finance plan.

What are the amenities for fans?
Along with the tailgating opportunities, a new stadium in Arden Hills will include wider concourses, more restrooms, concessions with better food options, increased handicapped accessibility, optimized sideline seating and a tremendous game-day experience. There will be ample space for pre-game events and activities, as well as a potential Vikings Hall of Fame and team store. The Vikings goal is to make the stadium a destination for fans to enjoy the entire NFL experience.

What are the specifics of the agreement and financing plan?
The retractable-roof stadium at the TCAAP site will cost $884 million, and the total on-site project costs are $1.057 billion. Per the May 12, 2011, agreement, the Vikings will commit $407 million (39% of project costs), the County will commit $350 million and the State will be responsible for $300 million. The Vikings and the County are working with State legislative leaders, the Minnesota Department of Transportation and transportation experts on identifying final costs for off-site road improvements.

What about the transportation needs and costs of this site?
The Vikings and Ramsey County are working with State legislative leaders, the Minnesota Department of Transportation and transportation experts to determine the required transportation needs and costs.

What are the environmental/cleanup concerns?
Ramsey County and the Vikings have concluded that the environmental remediation at the site can be accomplished safely and at a reasonable cost to allow for the stadium to open in 2015 and surrounding development at the site thereafter.

VIKINGS CHILDREN'S FUND

There have been many changes on and off the field for the Minnesota Vikings since the team's inception, but the organization's steadfast commitment to children has always remained the same.

In light of the organization's commitment to community, the Vikings Children's Fund (VCF) was established in 1978 and has since raised over $9 million to give back to those in need. The VCF is a means for Vikings players, coaches, cheerleaders, staff and their families to focus their community support to help children. The VCF distributes grants to health, education and family services organizations benefiting children.

In 2009 the VCF provided more than 120 grants to nonprofit organizations, including $205,000 to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. In total, the VCF has donated more than $5 million to support the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics, which boasts highly-skilled pediatricians and excels in break-through research.

To learn more about the VCF - or to make a donation - please call Patrick Leopold at (952) 828-6500. If your charitable organization is interested in applying for a VCF grant, log on to Vikings.com to download a grant application form. Grant applications need to be mailed by the end of March each year for fall awards.

ZYGI WILF

OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Zygi Wilf's seven seasons leading the ownership group that has stewardship of the Vikings franchise has been highlighted by commitment to core values and building a strong foundation for the future. The 2011 season will mark a new era for the NFL and the Vikings and promises an exciting new direction.

During a season punctuated by highs and lows and an offseason of historical proportions, the Wilf family ownership group responded with steady leadership and decision making that stressed fundamental strength and long-term vision.

Throughout their tenure, the Wilf's ownership has established success on the field and with civic and corporate leadership in the community. Over the last six years, the team has enhanced its already strong reputation as an NFL leader in community relations activities and has raised its level of involvement in the region. Under the stewardship of the Wilfs, the franchise has taken strides forward on the initiative for a state-of-the-art, multi-use stadium as the centerpiece of an economic development package for the state and region. The Vikings ownership is committed to investing in the state's economy and is dedicated to a world-class showcase for Minnesota's sporting future.

Wilf leads an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development. Joining Wilf in the Vikings venture are his brother, Mark, cousin, Leonard, and nephew, Jeffrey, along with several associates from outside the family.

The journey for Wilf from avid New York Giants fan sitting in the bleachers of Yankee Stadium in the 1960s to taking over the leadership of one of the NFL's proudest franchises has been marked by bold and well-founded business decisions, commitment to family and employees, and dedication to community.

Throughout the Wilf family's rise to prominence in real estate development, the consistent focus on philanthropy and never losing touch with family roots has been a foundation and philosophy.

Building a championship team with character has been at the core of the Wilf ownership group's growth as NFL owners. The Wilf family has stayed close to their roots, donating generously to heart-felt causes at home and throughout the world.

Wilf, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Wilf, emigrated with his parents from Europe to the United States in the early 1950s and settled in New Jersey.

Zygi attended nearby Fairleigh Dickinson University, earning a bachelor's degree in economics and later graduated from New York Law School in Manhattan. Wilf, 61, and wife, Audrey, have four children.

Vikings owner Zygi Wilf presented 2010 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee John Randle to the home crowd at halftime of the Vikings-Packers game on November 21, 2010. As the Wilf Family enters their 7th season as stewards of the Vikings franchise, the connection between the team and the fans has never been stronger.

MARK WILF

OWNER/PRESIDENT

Vikings President Mark Wilf has played a key role in the development of the business aspects of the club and organizing the leadership of the franchise to mirror the proven family model that the Wilf family has implemented in other successful ventures. As President, Mark manages day-to-day operations and directs all business departments of the Vikings.

During a quickly-evolving 2011 offseason, the Vikings franchise renewed a dedication to building a winner on the field and earning the trust of the fans and business community in the region. The 2011 season will mark a new direction for the NFL and the Vikings as both reach unparalleled heights of popularity and profile.

Along with dramatic facility upgrades at Winter Park since taking over the team, the ownership group has prided itself on improving the identity and atmosphere associated with the franchise. The Vikings have been a valuable part of the fabric of life in the region since beginning play in 1961. The Wilf family takes pride in building on the strong tradition of community involvement the franchise has been known for.

The Wilfs lead an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development.

An NFL franchise is a valuable commodity to a community and the Wilf ownership group recognizes and embraces the role as a civic leader. Under Mark Wilf's direction, the Vikings have taken a more prominent role as a business and community leader and have embraced their fans and partners locally and worldwide.

Another lifelong fan of the NFL, Mark brings the same passion and desire to succeed in professional football as his elder sibling, Zygi. Throughout their professional lives, the brothers have worked tirelessly to involve everyone associated in their businesses as members of the family. The Minnesota Vikings are especially close to the family's heart with the opportunity to be actively engaged in the game they grew up passionately following. Mark Wilf has been actively involved with the Wilf family's Garden Homes Development enterprises and has served as a principal in the family business.

A long-time fan of college and professional football, Wilf is no stranger to the game or the thrill of competition. During his collegiate years, Mark served as the radio voice of Princeton Tigers football and basketball. Wilf earned his bachelor's degree from Princeton University and later graduated from the New York University School of Law. The Wilf family tradition of generous philanthropy and advancing causes with special meaning has been passed through the generations.

Wilf, 49, and wife, Jane, have four children. The couple is actively involved in several causes close to the heart of the Wilf family.

After taking over as interim head coach for the final six games of the 2010 season, the Wilfs officially announced the hiring of Leslie Frazier as the franchise's eighth head coach on January 3, 2011.

LEONARD WILF

OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN

Leonard Wilf joins cousins Zygi and Mark Wilf with the Vikings ownership group as Vice Chairman of the team for the seventh season in 2011. Away from the Vikings, Wilf also serves as President of family-owned Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development based in New Jersey and New York.

Wilf earned his bachelor's degree, Cum Laude, from Boston University. Following his undergraduate work, Wilf graduated with a law degree from Georgetown University.

During his tenure at Georgetown, Wilf was editor of the Georgetown Law Review. Wilf went on to receive a Master of Law in Taxation from New York University.

Active with several professional and civic groups, Wilf is Vice Chairman on the Board of Trustees of NYU and the NYU Law School. Wilf serves as Chairman of the American Society of Yad Vashem, a Board Member of New York Presbyterian Hospital and Allen-Stevenson School. The 50th season campaign was highlighted with a weekend celebration event that featured 46 of the top 50 figures in team history in attendance and then a Monday Night Football matchup against the Chicago Bears that was the Vikings first home game in 29 years to be played outdoors. Thanks in part to LaCroix's efforts, the Vikings made the successful transition to the University of Minnesota's TCF Bank Stadium for the season finale that capped three homes in three locations over 16 days due to the unexpected collapse of the Metrodome's roof. In 2010, the Vikings continued their home game sellout streak as it now sits at 134 consecutive games at Mall of America Field.

RICK SPIELMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

With two decades of NFL personnel experience, Rick Spielman begins his 21st season as an NFL executive with his 4th franchise in 2011. During an offseason marked by labor uncertainty, Spielman has kept the Vikings scouting and personnel staffs prepared for different scenarios and contingencies.

Spielman assumed the Vikings' Vice President of Player Personnel role on May 30, 2006 and is responsible for overseeing the Vikings' pro and college scouting departments.

From 2007-10, the Vikings have drafted 3 players and signed 1 as a free agent and acquired 1 in trade who have gone on to earn Pro Bowl honors. Since Spielman began directing the Vikings drafts and personnel the club has drafted a pair of NFL Offensive Rookies of the Year in the 1st round- Adrian Peterson in 2007 and Percy Harvin in 2009- and selected Pro Bowl WR Sidney Rice in the 2nd round of 2007. In 2008 the Vikings engineered a pre-draft trade to land DE Jared Allen from Kansas City, who has earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 2008 and 2009. The club signed Brett Favre as a free agent entering 2009 and the veteran QB directed one of the most exciting seasons in team history and set career-bests in several offensive categories. The 2009 Vikings boasted an NFL-best 10 players who earned Pro Bowl honors.

The Vikings ability to identify talent throughout the draft was evidenced in 2009 when all 5 players selected went on to start a game during their rookie season, from All-Rookie honorees Phil Loadholt and Harvin on to 3rd-round CB Asher Allen, 5th-round LB Jasper Brinkley and 7th-round S Jamarca Sanford. The Vikings selected 10 players in the 2011 Draft, including 1st-rounder Christian Ponder, only the 3rd QB drafted by the Vikings in the 1st round in team history.

Spielman has climbed the ranks of NFL personnel departments with Detroit, Chicago and Miami, ascending to General Manager of the Dolphins for the 2004 season. Spielman's tenure with all 3 franchises has been highlighted by drafting impact players throughout the seven rounds and making key trades and free agency acquisitions. Spielman's teams have won 5 divisional titles and advanced to the playoffs 8 times.

He began his NFL career as a scout with Detroit in 1990 and worked with the club in college scouting for 5 seasons before adding pro scouting duties in 1995 and '96. He moved to Director of Pro Personnel for the Bears from 1997-99 before joining the Dolphins in 2000 as Vice President of Player Personnel. He was promoted in 2002 to Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel and eventually General Manager in 2004. Spielman left the Dolphins during the 2005 off-season and worked with ESPN as an NFL analyst before joining the Vikings. While with Miami for 5 seasons, the team had a winning record 4 times, won the AFC East in 2000 and went to the playoffs in 2000 and 2001 but missed the playoffs in 2002 and 2003 despite 9-7 and 10-6 records respectively. The team drafted its top WR, Chris Chambers, in 2001 and traded for RB Ricky Williams in 2002. Williams posted the top two single-season rushing marks in Miami history with 1,853 yards in 2002 and 1,372 in 2003.

During his 3 seasons with Chicago the team amassed some of the talent that has propelled the team to the top of the NFC North and found gems late in the draft. The 2000 draft class featured the core of the Bears defense in future years with 6-time Pro Bowler and NFL Defensive Player of the Year LB Brian Urlacher selected in the 1st round and Pro Bowl S Mike Brown, the Bears all-time leader in defensive TDs, drafted in the 2nd round. The team selected perennial Pro Bowl C Olin Kreutz in the 3rd round of the 1998 draft.

Spielman got his first taste of NFL personnel analysis as a college scout with Detroit from 1990-94 and added pro scouting responsibilities for his final 2 seasons (1995-96) in the Motor City. The Lions enjoyed one of the finest stretches in franchise history in the early 1990s, winning a pair of NFC Central titles in 1991 and 1993 and the team advanced to the playoffs in 1991, '93, '94 and '95. The trio of consecutive post-season berths was a first for the team. The 1991 team set a franchise record with a 12-4 regular season mark, hosted and won a playoff game for the first time since 1957 and advanced to the NFC Championship Game against Washington, losing out on the chance to play in Super Bowl XXVI at the Metrodome. The Lions drafted well during Spielman's tenure, selecting the core talent for the team and several players who earned regular Pro Bowl accolades. The club drafted WR Herman Moore in the 1st round of the 1991 draft and he went on to four Pro Bowl berths while defensive linemen Robert Porcher and Luther Elliss were 1st-round picks in 1992 and 1995 respectively and each earned multiple trips to Hawaii. The team drafted Lions career scoring leader K Jason Hanson in 1992 (2nd round), who has earned a reputation as one of the top kickers of his era.

Following Spielman's playing career at Southern Illinois from 1983-86 he was invited to training camp with the San Diego Chargers (1987) and Lions (1988). As a collegiate player, Spielman was a 1st-Team All-Gateway Conference honoree as a junior and part of the 1983 NCAA Division I-AA national championship team as a redshirt freshman. His younger brother, Chris, was a Pro Bowl LB and a 2nd-round pick of the Lions in 1988. He played 11 NFL seasons with Detroit (1988-95) and Buffalo (1996-98).

Spielman has a bachelor's degree from Southern Illinois and a master's from Ohio State. He and his wife, Michele, have been active with children's charities. The couple has adopted six children, Juan, Luis, Ronnie, J.D., Omie and Whitney.

KEVIN WARREN

VICE PRESIDENT OF LEGAL AFFAIRS & CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Kevin Warren's extensive background in athletics and unique perspective in both law and business have been instrumental to the Wilf family ownership group for the entire 7 seasons of their stewardship of the Minnesota Vikings.

Warren enters his 13th season in the NFL and his 7th with the Vikings in 2011. Warren is the Vikings' Vice President of Legal Affairs & Chief Administrative Officer with responsibility for various day-to-day business, operational and administrative issues, special projects, legal affairs, human resources and strategic planning, while also serving as the Vikings' primary liaison with the NFL.

The 2010 season contained multiple challenges as the club was forced to play a pair of games away from their home field, moving a home game to Detroit and the regular season home finale was played outdoors at the University of Minnesota's TCF Bank Stadium. Both games were logistical and facility challenges the Vikings met head-on.

Off the field, the club has gained legions of new fans and business partners. The club entered into a new naming rights partnership for Mall of America Field at HHH Metrodome during the season and launched naming rights deals for individual gates at the stadium.

Prior to joining the Vikings, during 2003-05, Warren worked with the international law firm of Greenberg Traurig, including working with the Wilf ownership group during their acquisition of the Vikings. Warren spent 2001-03 with the Detroit Lions as Senior Vice President of Business Operations & General Counsel. While working with the Lions, he was recognized by Crain's Detroit Business on their "40 Under 40" list, recognizing the top 40 Detroit business leaders under the age of 40. Prior to joining the Vikings' NFC North rivals in Detroit, Warren worked from 1997-2001 with the St. Louis Rams, including the Rams' Super Bowl XXXIV championship over the Tennessee Titans. During his tenure with St. Louis, Warren served as Vice President of Football Administration in 2001 after working as Vice President of Player Programs & Football Legal Counsel from 1997-2000.

Following his graduation from law school, Warren's first exposure to sports law came when he worked with Mike Slive and Mike Glazier at Bond, Schoeneck & King law firm specializing in representing universities charged with NCAA violations. Warren also worked as a sports and entertainment attorney/agent, representing various professional athletes and entertainers.

Warren's involvement in athletics helped pave the way for his future career. As a freshman on the University of Pennsylvania basketball team, Warren was a part of the Quakers' Ivy League championship team in 1982. A native of Tempe, AZ, Warren enrolled at Grand Canyon University in Phoenix where he earned his undergraduate degree. While at Grand Canyon, he excelled both in the classroom and on the basketball court. Warren scored over 1,100 points during his career at Grand Canyon and earned GTE/CoSida Academic All-America as a senior along with NAIA Academic All-America honors as both a junior and senior.

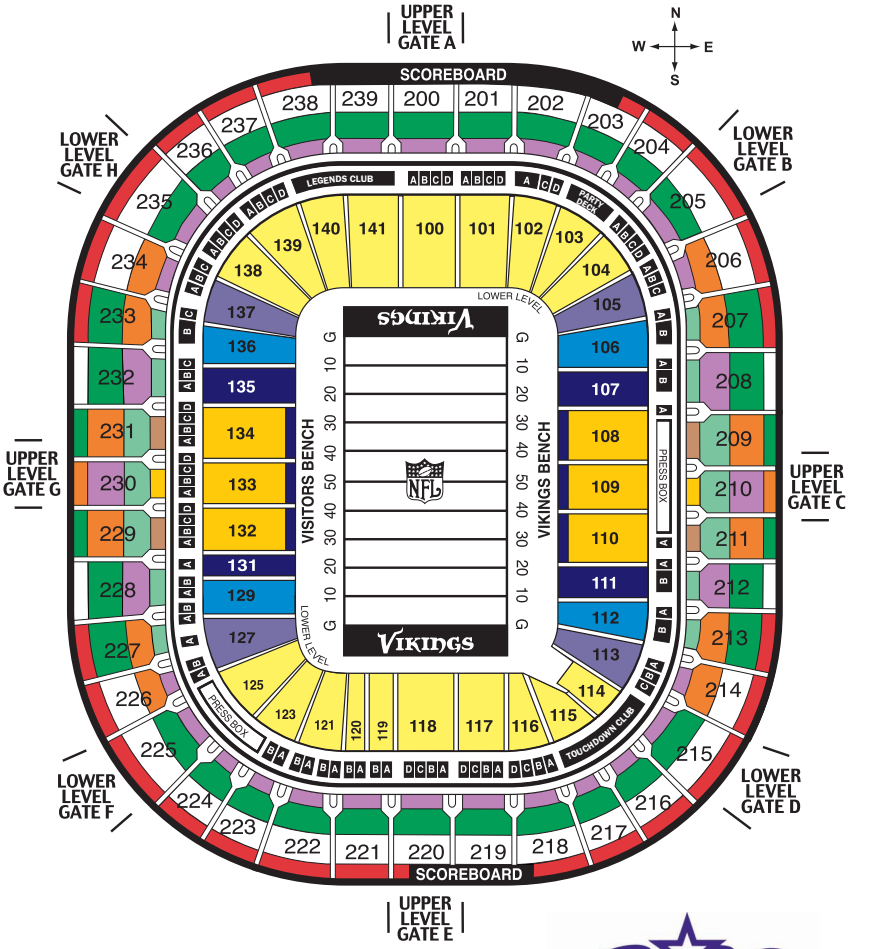

Warren earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Grand Canyon University in 1986, his master's degree in business administration from Arizona State University in 1988, and his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Notre Dame School of Law in 1990. Warren is a member of the Kansas and Michigan Bar Associations.

Several members of Warren's family have helped fuel his lifelong passion for sports, including his father, the late Dr. Morrison Warren, Sr., who played professional football for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948 during the era of the All-American Football Conference, before the league was merged with the NFL. The senior Warren would go on to be the first African-American President of a major college bowl game when he was named President of the 1982 Fiesta Bowl. Warren's oldest brother, Morrison, Jr., was one of the first African-American scholarship athletes at Stanford, playing football for the Cardinal in the early 1960s, before a severe knee injury cut short his promising athletic career.

An active member of the Twin Cities community, Warren served on the United Way Board of Directors from 2007-10, has served on the University of Minnesota's Medical Foundation Board of Directors since 2010, the Page Education Foundation Board of Directors since 2006 and was recognized by Twin Cities Business Journal in 2006 as a Minority Business Leader. Frazier notched a 3-3 record on an interim basis, including winning his opening contest at Washington and an upset win over eventual NFC East champion Philadelphia on the road. His steady and consistent personality and coaching style helped the Vikings prepare weekly under unprecedented circumstances in a harrowing three-week span. The team endured the collapse of the roof on their home stadium, forcing the club to play consecutive "home" games at Detroit's Ford Field against the NY Giants and at TCF Bank Stadium on the campus of the University of Minnesota against the Chicago Bears. Following the chaotic two weeks, the team experienced a two-day weather delay of a Sunday Night Football game at Philadelphia to Tuesday night, turning a routine road trip into a three-night extended stay.

The Vikings 2010 defense ended the season ranked #8 in the NFL, the 3rd straight season the Vikings ranked in the top 10 in total defense for the first time since 1992-94. The Vikings defense scored touchdowns on turnovers in the final 2 games of the season on a fumble return and interception return. Vikings DE Jared Allen led the team with 11.0 sacks and anchored a defensive line that allowed only 10 rushing TDs. Allen also tied a team record with a pair of interceptions by a defensive lineman in a season. Offensively, the Vikings were stifled by injuries and started 3 QBs and centers during the season. The running game continued to excel as Pro Bowler Adrian Peterson notched 1,298 yards and 12 TDs. Peterson's 1,298 yards rank as the 5th-best total in team history and gives him 4 of the top 5 yardage totals in Vikings history in his 4 seasons. Peterson's 12 rushing TDs ranked tied for 4th in the NFL and he tied the Vikings career rushing TDs record with 52 in only 4 seasons. The team was forced through injuries to turn to rookie QB Joe Webb to start the final 2 games of the season, winning his debut at Philadelphia.

Frazier's defense led the NFL in 2009 with 48.0 sacks and the team ranks 5th in the NFL with 162.0 sacks from 2007-10. The Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL in 2009, the 2nd straight season ranked #6 in total defense. The mark was the 1st time since 1993-94 the team ranked in the NFL's top 10 in consecutive seasons.

Frazier has also helped his players achieve at a high level and has had 4 players earn 5 NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in the past 4 seasons. Frazier has also had 6 players (Allen, E.J. Henderson, Darren Sharper, Kevin Williams, Pat Williams and Antoine Winfield) earn a total of 13 Pro Bowl berths.

The 2009 Vikings used a dynamic front line to continue their tradition of stopping the run and put pressure on opposing QBs. The unit ranked #2 in the NFL against the run after leading the league for the previous 3 seasons. The Vikings tied for the NFL lead by allowing only 5 rushing TDs. The NFL-best 48 sacks posted by the Vikings was the 5th-most in team history and Allen led the way with 14.5. Allen and DT Kevin Williams were both recognized as Associated Press 1st Team All-Pros and were named to the Pro Bowl along with CB Antoine Winfield.

Frazier's 2008 defensive unit ranked #6 overall in the NFL and #1 in the league against the run, making the Vikings the 1st squad since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to lead the league in rushing defense for 3 straight seasons. The Vikings #6 rank in total defense was the highest since the 1994 season. Of the teams ranked in the top 6 in the NFL, the other 5 had ranked in the NFL's top 10 in 2007 while the Vikings were #20 in 2007, making a 14-position improvement in 2008. The 2008 Vikings defense featured 4 players earning Pro Bowl berths, including 3 defensive linemen with Allen, DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams and rounded out with 10th-year CB Winfield earning his 1st Pro Bowl honors. The Vikings dominant line showed prowess as pass rushers as well as against the run. Allen tied for 5th in the NFL with 14.5 sacks and the team total of 45 ranked 4th in the NFL. The Vikings ranked 3rd in the NFL in 2008 by allowing only a 33.5% conversion rate on 3rd down and were 5th in the NFL by allowing 15.8 offensive points per game.

The 2008 Vikings had to overcome the season-ending injury to emerging star E.J. Henderson at MLB in the 4th game and did not have the services of priority free agent signee Madieu

STOP THE RUN

Williams at FS until the 9th game of the year as he recovered from preseason injury. The club lost its top nickel back, Charles Gordon, for the 2nd half of the season and 3-time Pro Bowl DT anchor Pat Williams was sidelined the final 2 regular season games and Wild Card playoffs with a shoulder injury. The depth of the roster and the preparation of the coaching staff kept the team on track despite those setbacks.

In his debut season with the Vikings in 2007, the team maintained its dominance against the run, posting the #1 rush defense in the NFL and allowed a mere 3.1 yards per carry. The anchors of the Vikings defense, DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams, were joined by S Darren Sharper as Pro Bowl honorees, the most defensive Vikings to earn trips to Hawaii since 1992.

Frazier's defense was opportunistic, scoring on 6 interception returns to tie a Vikings record and added a pair of TDs on fumble recoveries. The Vikings' 6 scores by interception return ranks tied for 5th-most in a season in NFL history. The team scored on 3 interceptions in a key road game against the NY Giants to set a team record against the eventual Super Bowl XLII champions. The Vikings tied for 3rd in the NFL in 2007 by allowing only 7 rushing TDs and were 5th in the NFC in total offensive points allowed, an average of 17.8 points per game.

The Vikings defense responded to new faces and new positions with impressive performances in 2007. The team was led in tackles by E.J. Henderson's career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. Henderson added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-best 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors and garnering All-Pro votes. The Vikings LBs entered 2007 with only SLB Ben Leber playing his same position from the previous year. One of the most impressive individual performances came from 2nd-year WLB Chad Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury but came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, lead the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and have a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2007 Vikings rush defense was the envy of the NFL, allowing 74.1 yards per game on the ground and allowed only 1 opponent RB to break the 100-yard mark.

Frazier came to Minnesota after coaching DBs with Indianapolis and serving as Special Assistant to Head Coach Tony Dungy for 2 seasons. The 2006 Colts defense clamped down on opponents throughout the playoff run that brought the franchise its 1st Super Bowl title since 1970. The team notched 7 interceptions, 8 sacks and took away 6 fumbles. The Indy defense allowed only 2 second-half TDs in the 4 post-season games and held the Bears out of the end zone for the final 3 quarters of Super Bowl XLI en route to the win.

In his 1st season with Indianapolis in 2005, Frazier helped S Bob Sanders earn a berth in the Pro Bowl in his 1st season as a full-time starter and became the 1st Colts DB to play in the game since 1971. The Colts ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense after ranking 29th overall in 2004 and improved in yards allowed per game from 370.6 per game to 307.1.

Prior to his tenure with Indianapolis, Frazier served as defensive coordinator with Cincinnati in 2003 and '04 where he helped the Bengals go .500 in consecutive seasons for the 1st time in 12 seasons. Frazier's NFL coaching debut came from 1999-2002 with Philadelphia where he worked with the Eagles DBs. Frazier helped CB Troy Vincent earn 4 Pro Bowl berths, S Brian Dawkins went to the game 3 times and Bobby Taylor appear in the all-star game once. The trio all earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2002. Frazier was part of an impressive program-building project in Philadelphia that saw the team improve from a 5-11 record in 1999 to 11-5 in 2000, 11-5 in 2001 and 12-4 in 2002. The team advanced to the playoffs in each of Frazier's final 3 seasons with the Eagles, including winning the NFC East in 2001 and '02 and advancing to the NFC Championship game in both seasons.

Frazier had spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level before returning to the NFL. In 1997 and '98 he worked with the DBs at Illinois on Ron Turner's staff, who Frazier would face 10 seasons later in the Super Bowl. The staff was part of an impressive rebuilding project with the Illini.

Building programs was not unusual for Frazier before going to Illinois and the Eagles. He started the Trinity College football program from the ground up as the school started a football team with Frazier as head coach in 1988. Frazier turned the team into a winner, claiming Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles twice. The school, now known as Trinity International University, named the football field in Frazier's honor in 1997 in tribute to his impact on the campus.

As a player, Frazier was part of the legendary Chicago Bears defense that keyed the Super Bowl XX win over New England. He was a starter at CB on the 1985 Super Bowl team and played for the Bears from 1981-86. He led Chicago in interceptions in 1983, '84 and '85 but his career was cut short by a severe knee injury suffered in the Super Bowl. During his career he had 20 INTs in 65 games and returned a pair for TDs. Frazier was an All-America DB and baseball standout at Alcorn State University. In 2007, Frazier was inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame.

Frazier was born (4/3/59) in Columbus, MS and attended Columbus High. Frazier and wife, Gale, have 3 children- Kieron, Chantel and Corey, who plays DB at Rice. He holds a degree in business administration and was active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes throughout his playing career. Frazier works closely with All-Pro Dad, an organization that stresses fathers taking an active role and putting family first.

VOICES ON FRAZIER

"In Leslie I see a guy who is very, very grounded, and his Christian faith is going to guide the way that he coaches. I think he's a very strong person in lot of ways and especially when things are tough. He's a guy I believe the players are going to be able to count on and the assistant coaches, too. If people say they see some of me in him, I take that as a great compliment because I look at him and he's the type of person that I would want to be." Tony Dungy

"Faith, family and football is a great recipe for success. It worked for some of the great coaches and Leslie is well-versed in all three areas. Leslie's temperament is low-key and he doesn't get too up or down, he's got a very even personality and is able to stay calm in the middle of chaos. Leslie was probably the most under-rated player we had with the Bears in the 1980s. We would match Leslie up against the best receiver from the other team and just let it go. He was outstanding." Mike Ditka

Leslie Frazier is part of exclusive company in the NFL, part of a Super Bowl champion as a player and as a coach. Frazier was a starter on the record-setting 1985 Bears defense and helped the team win Super Bowl XX over New England. Two decades later Frazier was coaching the defensive backs in Indianapolis and helped the Colts win Super Bowl XLI over his old Chicago team.

BILL MUSGRAVE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
Coaching Experience 15th Season
NFL Experience 19th Season (13 Coaching, 6 Playing)
Vikings Experience 1st Season

Bill Musgrave enters his first season as the Vikings Offensive Coordinator in 2011 with a solid offensive background and impressive on-field results. In his past 6 seasons, Musgrave has been a part of 3 playoff teams and helped Falcons QB Matt Ryan adjust quickly to the pro game, earning 2008 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. While in Atlanta, Musgrave served on the staff with WRs coach George Stewart, who holds the same position with the Vikings.

A former NFL signal-caller himself, Musgrave was a backup to Joe Montana and Steve Young in San Francisco from 1991-94, working under coaches Mike Holmgren, Mike Shanahan and Gary Kubiak. Musgrave was a member of the 49ers club that won Super Bowl XXIX over San Diego following the 1994 season. He played from 1995-96 with Denver where he backed up John Elway when Shanahan took over the reins as Broncos head coach.

In his most recent coaching position with Atlanta from 2006-10, Musgrave helped mold the Falcons offense, highlighted by an impressive 2010 season, leading the way for a 13-3 regular season mark. Ryan had a career-best 28 TDs, 91.0 passer rating, 3,705 yards and helped WR Roddy White lead the NFL with 115 catches and rank 2nd in the NFL with 1,389 yards. Ryan's development into one of the NFL's top passers has been helped by Musgrave's guidance. Ryan has a 66-34 TD-INT ratio in his 3 NFL seasons and has gone 33-13 as a starter in the regular season. Ryan earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2010 and headed a group of 4 other Falcons offensive skill position players who were recognized as Pro Bowlers- White, RB Michael Turner, FB Ovie Mughelli and TE Tony Gonzalez.

Prior to coaching in Atlanta, Musgrave worked with the Redskins QBs in 2005 and tutored veteran Mark Brunell to a career-best 23 TD passes and helped Washington earn a Wild Card playoff berth at 10-6, snapping a 5-season playoff drought for the franchise. Musgrave worked with Jacksonville in 2003-04, serving as offensive coordinator/QBs coach in 2004 when Jimmy Smith posted 1,172 receiving yards and Fred Taylor gained 1,224 on the ground. Byron Leftwich was the Jaguars regular starter at QB and Musgrave worked with youngster David Garrard, a 2nd-year pro in 2003, keeping him prepared as he played in 6 games and started 2 during Musgrave's tenure with the Jaguars. During the 1999 and 2000 campaigns, Musgrave worked with the QBs in Carolina and also served as offensive coordinator in 2000 under George Seifert. In his first season with the Panthers, QB Steve Beuerlein had a career-year throwing for 36 TDs and 4,436 yards to finish with a passer rating of 94.6 and a Pro Bowl nod. Musgrave's first NFL coaching experience came at Oakland in 1997 as QBs coach and he worked at Philadelphia under Ray Rhodes in 1998, serving as offensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season.

A standout QB at Oregon from 1987-90, Musgrave was a 3-year team captain for the Ducks and led the team to consecutive bowl bids in 1989 and 1990. When he left UO he was the all-time passing leader in school history, held 15 school records and his 60 TD passes ranked behind only John Elway in PAC-10 history. A native of Grand Junction, CO, Musgrave and wife, Neely, have 4 children.

PASSING FANCY

Prior to joining the Vikings, Musgrave helped the Atlanta Falcons become one of the most effective passing units in the league. QB Matt Ryan finished 2010 with a 91.0 passer rating, ranking 11th in the NFL. Over the past four years, the Falcons improved their touchdown-to-interception ratio, posting as Ryan posted an impressive 28-9 TD-INT ratio in 2010.

FRED PAGAC

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
Coaching Experience 34th Season
NFL Experience 13th Season (11 Coaching, 2 Playing)
Vikings Experience 6th Season

The 34th year in Fred Pagac's coaching career will bring a new challenge as he has been named defensive coordinator for the first time in his 11-year NFL coaching career. Pagac served as the interim defensive coordinator for the final 6 games of the 2010 season replacing then Interim Head Coach Leslie Frazier

Pagac led the Vikings' linebackers for the past 5 seasons (2006-10) and his 34 seasons of coaching experience between Ohio State and the NFL make him the Vikings senior staff member. During his 5 seasons with the Vikings, the defense has ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in total defense 4 times and 3 straight from 2008-10.

Pagac welcomed back MLB and defensive captain E.J. Henderson for the start of the 2010 season after his signal caller was sidelined late in the 2009 season with a broken femur. Henderson has flourished under the direction of Pagac and highlighted his remarkable comeback with a berth to the 2010 Pro Bowl. Henderson became the first player under Pagac's tutelage to earn Pro Bowl honors and he was the 1st Vikings LB to be honored since Ed McDaniel in 1998.

Henderson snared 3 INTs which tied him for most among NFL LBs along with the Vikings team lead, tying safety Husain Abdullah. While Henderson earned a trip to the Pro Bowl, rising star Chad Greenway was leading the LB corps in tackles for the 3rd straight season. Greenway finished the season ranked 1st in the NFC in tackles and 4th in the NFL with 142 (according to league stats). Greenway led the team in tackles for loss with 10 while Henderson was 4th with 7.

Highlighted by a late-season upset win at Philadelphia, Pagac unleashed a blitz-heavy attack against the Eagles that rattled MVP-candidate QB Michael Vick and corralled the shifty QB for 6 sacks, snared an INT and returned a Vikc fumble for a TD by CB Antoine Winfield, who was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for the game.

The Vikings defensive unit finished the season ranked 8th in the NFL in total yards allowed per game (312.6) and 1st downs allowed per game (17.25). Known as a run-stuffing defense, the Vikings' unit ranked 9th best in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game (102.1) and rushing yards per attempt (3.9). The defense finished the season 10th in the league in passing yards allowed per game (210.4).

During Pagac's coaching career he has built a reputation for helping players achieve at their highest levels and develop young talent within the defensive system. The 2009 LB unit was equally strong against the run and pass, helping the Vikings rank #6 in the NFL in total defense and #2 against the run after leading the NFL in run defense the previous 3 seasons. The #6 mark was a repeat of the 2008 defensive ranking and was the 1st time since 1993-94.

Pagac's crew in 2009 had to deal with adversity along with prosperity. Greenway led the team in tackles for the 2nd straight season and hauled in a career-best 3 INTs to raise his stature as one of the NFL's emerging defensive players. Fellow OLB Ben Leber led the Vikings with 9 passes defensed and added 2.5 sacks. Henderson was lost for the final 4 games of the regular season and the playoffs to a broken leg and rookie 5th-round draft pick Jasper Brinkley was pressed into duty.

The rapid development Brinkley showed helped keep the defense on track, highlighted by the dominant performances in the NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Dallas and the NFC Championship game at New Orleans. The Vikings defense faced the #1 (Saints) and #2 (Cowboys) offenses in the NFL during the playoffs and held the teams in check, limiting the teams a 3rd-down conversion rate of 24% (6-of-25) and allowed 248 and 257 total net yards to teams who averaged 399.4 and 403.8 respectively.

The 2008 Vikings LBs overcame adversity to solidify a defensive unit that finished the season ranked #6 in the NFL in total defense and #1 in rushing defense for the 3rd straight season, becoming the 1st team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to lead the League in rush defense 3 straight seasons. The unit had to overcome the loss Henderson to a season-ending injury in the 4th game. Greenway led the team in tackles with 150 and emerged as a blitz threat, notching 5.5 sacks, the 4th-most by a Vikings LB in team history.

When Henderson was lost for the season Pagac had to prepare undrafted 2nd-year man David Herron to step into the void as the team searched for a replacement, which was former Vikings starter Napoleon Harris. When Harris picked up a fumble and went 27 yards for a TD it marked the 4th score a Vikings LB has produced in the 3 seasons Pagac has coached the position.

In 2007 Henderson led the team with a career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. He added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-high 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors. Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury, came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, lead the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and have a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2006 Vikings finished #8 in NFL total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defense became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game. The Vikings LBs played a key role in the defensive dynamic by accounting for 9.5 sacks, 6 INTs and 2 TDs. Henderson led the team in tackles with 142 and posted with 3.0 sacks and 2 INTs under Pagac's watch, including a 45-yard TD on his 1st career INT. Leber made his impact on the team felt in his 1st season with the team with 3.0 sacks, an INT and scored a TD on a fumble recovery.

DEFENSE GETS OFFENSIVE

Since Fred Pagac joined the Vikings staff in 2006 the defensive unit has made the most out of turnovers, scoring 18 TDs over the 5-season span and has added 5 safeties. The Vikings are 9-5 in games scoring a defensive TD since 2006.

Pagac coached LBs for the Kansas City Chiefs for 2 seasons (2004-05) and with the Oakland Raiders for 3 seasons (2001-03) before coming to the Vikings. Prior to entering the professional ranks, Pagac spent 23 years on the coaching staff at Ohio State, where he aided in the development of several top players.

Under Pagac's direction in 2005, Chiefs 3rd-year LB Kawika Mitchell led the team with a career-high 135 tackles and 14 passes defensed as he started all 16 games at MLB for the 1st time in his career. Pagac also tutored rookie LB Derrick Johnson, who finished 3rd on the team with 110 tackles and added 2.0 sacks and 9 passes defensed on his way to being named the club's Mack Lee Hill Award winner, which is given to KC's top rookie. Johnson became the 1st rookie LB in Chiefs history to start all 16 games since LB Dino Hackett accomplished the feat in 1986. The Chiefs defense finished 7th in the NFL against the run in '05, and 6th in the NFL with 31 takeaways.

In 2004, 3rd-year LB Scott Fujita led the Chiefs for the 2nd consecutive season in tackles with 112. Kawika Mitchell bounced back from an early-season ankle injury to start 12 games and finished 2nd on the team with 85 tackles. The Chiefs defense finished 12th in the NFL against the run.

In 2002, Pagac helped the Raiders defense to a #11 overall NFL ranking and a #3 ranking against the run as Oakland won the AFC and faced Tampa Bay in Super Bowl XXXVII. Pagac tutored Napoleon Harris as he was named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie team and finished 3rd on the team in tackles. In 2001, MLB and former Viking Greg Biekert led the Raiders with 108 tackles and tied a career high with 3.0 sacks.

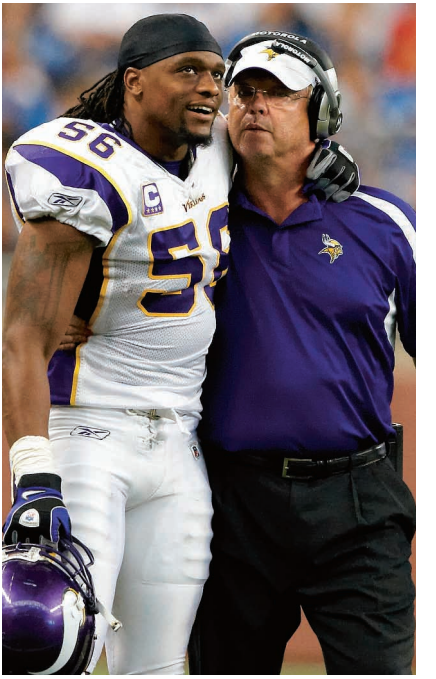

From 1978-2000, Pagac coached at his alma mater, Ohio State, and worked with 10 Buckeyes defensive performers who earned All-America honors, including Vikings CB Antoine Winfield. Winfield was a 2-time All-America pick and won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back in 1998. Pagac also tutored future Pro Bowl LBs Chris Spielman, Pepper Johnson and Mike Vrabel, as well as CB Shawn Springs, LB Na'ill Diggs, S Mike Doss, and CB Nate Clements. Andy Katzenmoyer won All-America accolades in 1997 and won the Butkus Award as the nation's top LB. During Pagac's 23 years on the Ohio State coaching staff, the Buckeyes played in 20 bowl games. As a player and coach, Pagac was part of 6 Rose Bowls with the Buckeyes.

Pagac was assistant head coach to John Cooper in 2000 in his final season at OSU. From 1996-99, Pagac served as defensive coordinator. In 1998, the Buckeyes led the nation in rushing defense, ranked 2nd in pass defense, and were 4th overall. Pagac was among 5 finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the NCAA's top assistant in '98.

In '97, Ohio State allowed 170 points to rank 2nd in the nation in scoring defense. That season the Buckeyes also ranked 2nd in the nation in pass defense. In 1996, Ohio State was 1st in the country in pass defense and ranked 2nd in scoring defense, allowing just 131 points, which was the fewest surrendered by Ohio State since 1979.

Prior to being named defensive coordinator in 1996, Pagac tutored Ohio State's LBs for 14 seasons (1982-95). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1978 before joining the staff on a full-time basis under Earle Bruce in 1982.

Pagac entered the NFL as a TE with Chicago in 1974 as a rookie free agent, where he was honored with the club's prestigious Brian Piccolo Award. Pagac also played 13 games for Tampa Bay in their 1976 inaugural season.

Pagac was a 3-year starter at TE for Ohio State from 1971-73. He was part of Buckeyes teams that compiled an impressive 25-6-2 record over his playing career, including a 19-3 mark in the Big Ten. During his senior season in '73, the Buckeyes posted a 10-0-1 record and finished 2nd in the final AP poll.

Pagac (4/26/52) was born in Richeyville, PA. He and his wife, Bernie, have a daughter, Jennifer, and a son, Fred, Jr., who played LB at Ohio State, with the Frankfurt Galaxy and has coached at Ohio State, with the UFL's Florida Tuskers and is currently coaching at Texas A&M-Commerce.

MIKE PRIEFER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
Coaching Experience 18th Season
NFL Experience 11th Season
Vikings Experience 1st Season

Mike Priefer joins the Vikings organization and will serve as the Special Teams Coordinator in 2011. The 10-year NFL coaching veteran has held the same title with the Denver Broncos and Kansas City Chiefs over the past 5 seasons.

Priefer's special teams units are known for creating big-play opportunities. Since coming in the league, Priefer has seen his units account for 12 scores (5 kick returns, 4 punt returns, 1 blocked punt, 1 botched field goal and 1 safety). He has also seen his squads block 15 kicks (7 punts, 6 field goals, 2 extra points) since 2002.

Since joining the NFL, Priefer has helped David Tyree (ST) and Chris Hanson (P) earn Pro Bowl nods. Priefer went to the playoffs with the Giants in 2005 (NFC East Champions) and in 2006 with Kansas City (Wild Card).

During the 2010 season Priefer had 3 players rank in the Top 10 in each of their respective categories. Eddie Royal was 6th in the NFL with an 11.9 punt return average. Rookie Eric Decker was 10th in kickoff return average with 25.3 per return. Kicker Matt Prater was tied for 6th in touchbacks with 20.

In his first year as the Broncos' special teams coordinator in 2009, Priefer led a unit that placed 3rd in the league in average opponent drive start after kickoffs (22.9-yard line) and featured two AFC Special Teams Player of the Month winners (K Matt Prater and WR Eddie Royal).

Royal in 2009 became only the 11th player in NFL history to have both a kickoff and punt return for a TD in the same game (at San Diego, 10/19/09) while placing 7th in the league in punt return average (11.2 yds.). Prater finished the year making 19 of his final 20 FG attempts and tied for the 3rd-most field goals for a season in club history (30). Prater owns the best field goal percentage in Broncos history.

Before joining the Broncos, Priefer coordinated Kansas City's special teams from 2006-08 following stints as an assistant special teams coach with the New York Giants (2003-05) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2002). His coaching career began at his alma mater, the U.S. Naval Academy, as a graduate assistant in 1994, and he owns 17 years of coaching experience at the professional and collegiate levels.

During his 3 seasons as the Chiefs' special teams coach from 2006-08, Priefer helped punter Dustin Colquitt register the 3rd-best net punting average (39.2 yds.) and the 6th-best gross punting average (44.8 yds.) in the NFL for that period. Colquitt's net punting averages for each of his 3 seasons under Priefer rank as the top-3 single-season performances in Chiefs history.

Kansas City also placed 5th in the AFC in opponent punt return average (8.2 yds.) in Priefer's 3 years as special teams coach and blocked a total of 4 kicks (3 punts, 1 field goal) during that period.

In 2008, Colquitt ranked 7th in the NFL in net punting average (39.2 yds.) under Priefer's guidance with the Chiefs, who also scored a TD that year on a botched opponent fake field goal attempt. Priefer's kickoff coverage unit was one of the league's best a year earlier with Kansas City finishing the 2007 season 5th in the NFL in opponent average drive start after kickoffs (26.1-yd. line).

During Priefer's 1st year with the Chiefs in 2006, Colquitt set a franchise season record with a 39.3-yard net punting average that led the NFL. Priefer's special teams also tied for the NFL lead with 2 blocked punts, including 1 returned for a TD, and accounted for 1 punt return TD (Dante Hall, 60 yds.).

As assistant special teams coach for the Giants from 2003-05, Priefer coached a unit that had the 6th-best kickoff return average (22.9 yds.) in the NFL while tying for 3rd in the league with 3 kickoff return TDs and adding 1 punt return TD during that period. The Giants blocked 7 kicks (3 punts, 3 FGs and 1 PAT) with Priefer on staff, and the coach worked with David Tyree during the 2005 season when the WR earned Pro Bowl honors for his play on special teams coverage units.

The Giants' special teams in 2005 placed 2nd in the NFL in the comprehensive rankings compiled by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News. Priefer worked with a unit that year that included a Pro Bowler (Tyree) and the league's top-scoring kicker (Jay Feely - 148 pts.) while ranking 4th in the league in average starting position after kickoffs (30.7-yard line).

In 2003, Priefer helped the Giants tie for 2nd in the NFL with 4 blocked kicks (2 punts, 1 FG, 1 PAT) during that campaign.

Priefer entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Jaguars in 2002 as their assistant special teams coach. That season, punter Chris Hanson earned the first Pro Bowl selection of his career after leading the AFC in both gross (44.2 yds.) and net (37.6 yds.) punting average. Jacksonville also posted 1 punt return TD (Bobby Shaw, 69 yds.) and 2 blocked kicks (1 punt, 1 FG).

From 1994-2001, Priefer helped coach special teams at the collegiate level, working for Navy (1994-96), Youngstown State University (1997-98), Virginia Military Institute (1999) and Northern Illinois University (2000-01).

Priefer's instruction at Northern Illinois helped WR Justin McCareins earn Mid-American Conference Special Teams Player of the Year honors in his 1st year at the school in 2000. In addition to assisting the Huskies' special teams, Priefer coached DTs during his 2 seasons at NIU.

He spent a season at Virginia Military Institute in 1999, coaching its special teams and inside LBs, after a 2-year stint at Youngstown State under Head Coach Jim Tressel. He worked with the special teams, tackles and tight ends at Youngstown State and was part of its Division I-AA National Championship squad in 1997.

Priefer began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Navy in 1994, instructing its special teams that season before coaching its LBs and defensive line from 1995-96. He also coached special teams and served as defensive coordinator for Navy's junior varsity team from 1995-96.

A QB and WR on Navy's junior varsity and lightweight teams from 1985-88, Priefer flew helicopters as a Naval officer

BIG PLAY SPECIAL TEAMS

Since Priefer entered the NFL in 2002, his special teams' units have accounted for 12 scores. His squads have also blocked 15 kicks (7 punts, 6 field goals, 2 extra points) over a nine-year period.

for 6 years (1989-94) after his graduation. His work included tours of duty on the USS America in the Persian Gulf and the Mediterranean Sea.

Priefer owns a bachelor's degree from Navy and received a master's degree from the University of Maryland in 1997. His father, Chuck, was a long-time coach who worked in the NFL (Detroit, Green Bay and San Diego) for 17 seasons and coached at the collegiate level for 12 years.

Priefer was born in Cleveland and moved frequently as a coach's son, graduating from Abbot Pennings High School in suburban Green Bay. He is married to Debbie, and the couple has four children: Samantha, Michael Jr., Wilson and Katie.

JEFF DAVIDSON

OFFENSIVE LINE
Coaching Experience 16th Season
NFL Experience 20th Season (16 coaching, 4 playing)
Vikings Experience 1st Season

Jeff Davidson brings a wealth of offensive experience to the 2011 Vikings as both a player and coach in the NFL, rising through the ranks to serve as offensive coordinator for the Carolina Panthers the past 4 seasons.

Davidson's teams have been dedicated to the running game, a strength the Vikings will continue to build upon with a backfield featuring Adrian Peterson, Toby Gerhart and a veteran offensive line. In his past 6 seasons of coaching, Davidson's teams have had 4 performances of 1,000+ yards on hte ground. Davidson has a background as a versatile lineman who was a full-time starter at LT and LG for Denver in 1991 and 1992 respectively, winning the AFC West title in 1991 and advancing to the AFC Championship game. Davidson's been a part of winning programs throughout his career, claiming 5 Division titles as a coach with New England and Carolina, and helping New England take home the Lombardi Trophy in Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

During his 4 seasons in Carolina the team claimed the 2008 NFC South title with a 12-4 mark and established the Panthers ground game as one of the NFL's best. The Panthers were led on the ground by DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart, who powered their way into the record books in 2009 by both breaking the 1,000-yard mark, Stewart going for 1,133 and Williams posting 1,117. In 2008, Williams ran for a franchise-record 1,515 yards and 18 rushing TDs. Stewart set a franchise record with 206 yards rushing against the NY Giants in 2009 and Williams post 186 yards against Tampa Bay in 2008 for the 2nd-best mark in team history. The Panthers struggled for consistency at QB in 2009 and 2010, starting 4 different QBs over the 2-year span.

Davidson had a pair of offensive linemen earn Pro Bowl honors- Ryan Kalil at center in 2009 and Jordan Gross at tackle in 2008. Williams earned Pro Bowl trips in 2008 and 2009 and was joined by WR Steve Smith in 2008.

Prior to taking on the role of offensive coordinator, Davidson honed his skills as a position coach with Cleveland and New England. He coached the Browns offensive line in 2005-06 and oversaw a unit that paved the way for Reuben Droughns to rush for 1,232 yards, breaking a 20-year streak without a Browns 1,000-yard rusher. The shuffled offensive line also protected rookie QB Charlie Frye as he took over under center for veteran Trent Dilfer. During the 2006 season, Davidson was named the Browns offensive coordinator early in the season and his game plans helped TE Kellen Winslow and WR Braylon Edwards reel in 89 and 61 receptions respectively.

Davidson gained the most experience of his coaching career during 8 seasons with New England from 1997-2004, working under head coach Pete Carroll for the opening 3 seasons before Bill Belichick took over the team in 2000. Tutoring the Patriots TEs in 1997 he saw Ben Coates lead the team with 66 catches and earn a Pro Bowl berth. In 2001, in Belichick's 2nd year at the helm, the club won Super Bowl XXXVI over St. Louis, starting a remarkable streak of 3 Super Bowl wins in 4 seasons, claiming Super Bowl XXXVIII against Carolina after the 2003 season and Super Bowl XXXIX over Philadelphia after the 2004 campaign.

Following a 4-season NFL playing career that was cut short by injury, Davidson broke into coaching with New Orleans as a volunteer assistant and offensive assistant with the Saints in 1995-96. Davidson played his final NFL season for New Orleans in 1994 after beginning his career as a 5th-round draft pick by Denver in 1990. In 1991 and 1992 he was a 16-game starter for the Broncos as LT and LG respectively, helping the team advance to the AFC title game in 1991 while protecting Hall of Famer John Elway's blind side. Davidson was part of the 1990 Broncos draft class that included 7th-round TE Shannon Sharpe.

Davidson was an All-Big Ten honoree as a senior at Ohio State when he served as a team captain. Davidson was a player for the Buckeyes when Vikings assistant coach Fred Pagac served on the OSU staff and was teammates with Chris Spielman, brother of Vikings Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman. A member of a strong football family, Davidson's father was an All-America and team captain at OSU and his brother was a LB for the Buckeyes, coached by Pagac. Jeff and wife, Judi, have sons, Nick and A.J.

KARL DUNBAR

DEFENSIVE LINE
Coaching Experience 16th Season
NFL Experience 12th Season (7 coaching, 5 playing)
Vikings Experience 6th Season

Traditionally a strength of the Vikings defense, the defensive lines of the past 5 seasons under Karl Dunbar have earned a place in team lore for being equally as tough against the run as they are at rushing the passer. The foundation of the Vikings defense has been recognized annually with All-Pros and Pro Bowlers.

One of the keys to a successful defense is stopping the run, and the Vikings have been very good at that over the past 5 seasons. They led the NFL in rushing defense from 2006-08, ranked 2nd in 2009 and 9th in 2010. The Vikings finished 8th in total defense in 2010, the 3rd year in a row finishing in the NFL's top 10 after finishing 6th in both 2008 and 2009, marking the first time since 1992-94 that the Vikings ranked in the NFL's top 10 for three-straight seasons.

Under Dunbar's direction, the Vikings have had 3 different linemen, Pat Williams, Kevin Williams and Jared Allen, earn Pro Bowl honors. Kevin Williams and Allen were both named Associated Press All-Pros in 2009.

Dunbar's tenure with the Vikings is his 2nd as a coach in the NFL after he worked as a defensive line coach for the Chicago Bears in 2004. An 8th-round draft choice by the Pittsburgh Steelers and legendary head coach Chuck Noll in 1990, Dunbar went on to play with New Orleans (1992-93) and Arizona (1994-95). He also spent a season each with Orlando and Rhein in the World League.

The Vikings defensive line flexed its muscle in 2009, leading the NFL in sacks with 48 and ranking #2 against the run. The Vikings allowed only 5 rushing TDs, tied for the best total in the NFL. The line benefitted from the emergence of DE Ray Edwards, who ranked 2nd on the team with 8.5 sacks and set a Vikings playoff record with 3.0 sacks against Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff win. Allen became only the 2nd player in NFL history, joining Hall of Famer Reggie White, to post at least 14.0 sacks in 3 straight seasons.

The 2008 Vikings became the 1st NFL club since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to rank #1 in rushing defense for 3 straight seasons. By acquiring Allen via trade, the standout DT tandem of Kevin Williams and Pat Williams became even more effective. The trio all earned Pro Bowl honors in 2008, the 1st trio of Vikings defensive linemen to be recognized since 1969 and the days of the Purple People Eaters.

The Vikings pass rush in 2008 was keyed by Allen's 14.5 sacks, the most by a Viking since 1997. Kevin Williams tied for the sack lead among NFL DTs with 8.5, his best total since 2004. The benefit was seen in the Vikings total defense ranking #6 in the NFL, the highest mark for the club since the 1994 season.

In 2007, the Vikings held opponents to 1,185 yards on the ground, or an average of 74.1 yards per game. The Vikings' tough interior was anchored by DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams, who both earned Pro Bowl honors for the 2nd-consecutive season. Kevin Williams notched his 4th career interception, setting a team record for the most career INTs by a defensive lineman.

The outstanding 2007 performance came on the heels of a record-setting 2006 season when the Vikings defense allowed just 985 rushing yards, or 61.6 yards per game. That total set a team record and ranked 2nd in the NFL since the 1970 merger behind only the Baltimore Ravens' 970 yards allowed in 2000.

As the assistant head coach/defensive line coach in 2005 for his alma mater, LSU, Dunbar was reunited with head coach Les Miles, whom he worked under at Oklahoma State in 2002-03. The Tigers won the SEC West in 2005 and upset Miami in the Peach Bowl to end the season.

The 2005 season was Dunbar's 2nd tour of duty at LSU, as he had previously worked with the Tigers' strength and conditioning program in 2000-01. He returned to the Tigers in 2000 under head coach Nick Saban and helped kick-start the team to an 8-4 finish and a win in the Peach Bowl. The following season the squad went 10-3, won the SEC title for the 1st time since 1986 when Dunbar was a freshman defensive lineman, and won the Sugar Bowl. In 7 seasons as a player and coach with LSU, Dunbar helped amass a 60-24-1 record, win a pair of SEC titles and play in 6 bowl games.

During Dunbar's 1st stint in the NFL with the Bears in 2004, he helped tutor a young and talented line that included rookie 1st-round pick Tommie Harris and 2nd-rounder Tank Johnson. Harris started all 16 games, the first Bears DT to accomplish the feat since 1975. The Bears' ranked #2 in the NFL in total defense in 2005 and saw Harris earn a Pro Bowl berth.

Dunbar tutored Vikings' All-Pro DT Kevin Williams at Oklahoma State during his senior season and helped him become the 1st OSU defensive lineman to be a 1st-round draft pick (9th in 2003) since Leslie O'Neal (8th in 1986).

A standout player at LSU, Dunbar was a starter for his final 3 seasons and earned 2nd-Team All-SEC acclaim as a senior in 1989. Dunbar was part of Tiger teams that won or shared a pair of SEC titles in 1986 and 1988, posted a 31-15-1 record and played in the Sugar, Gator and Hall of Fame bowls. As a senior in 1989, Dunbar was LSU's co-captain with QB Tommy Hodson. He was also a linemate at LSU with former Vikings Pro Bowler Henry Thomas.

Dunbar (5/18/67) graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. He and wife, Pamela, have 3 children – Karmichael MacKenzie II, Mickel Angelle and Nickolette Alyse.

CREATING TURNOVERS

The Vikings defensive line has shown a knack for creating turnovers, as evidenced by current linemen Jared Allen and Kevin Williams sharing the team record for interceptions by a defensive lineman. Allen had two INTs in 2010, including a 36-yard interception returned for a TD at Detroit.

RYAN FICKEN

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS
Coaching Experience 8th Season
NFL Experience 5th Season
Vikings Experience 5th Season

Ryan Ficken enters his 5th season with the Vikings offense in 2011 and will continue to assist veteran WRs coach George Stewart.

Second-year receiver Percy Harvin improved on his rookie season in 2010. At just 21 years old, he became the youngest player in franchise history to lead the team in receiving with 871 yards on 71 catches and 5 TDs.

In 2009, WRs Sidney Rice and Harvin had breakout seasons for the Vikings. Both players were honored as Pro Bowlers and Harvin became the 2nd Viking in 3 seasons to be named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. Rice developed as a playmaker and became only the 3rd Vikings' WR to post a 1,300-yard receiving season. Harvin tied for the NFL lead among rookies in receptions and yards and ranked 2nd in team history with 60 catches as a rookie.

In 2007 and 2008, the Vikings RBs were able to showcase their skills and combine the talents of Adrian Peterson and Chester Taylor. In 2008, Peterson led the NFL with 1,760 yards rushing and Taylor led all NFL RBs with 25 catches on 3rd down. Peterson became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing and Taylor's 45 catches were a career high.

The 2007 Vikings offense ranked #1 in the NFL in rushing offense. Peterson had a legendary rookie year, including breaking the NFL's single game rushing record after going for 296 yards against San Diego on 11/4/07 and earning NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. Peterson finished with 1,341 yards, 12 TDs and was named the Pro Bowl MVP.

Ficken served as an offensive graduate assistant with UCLA in 2006. He worked extensively with Jim Colletto and the offensive line. Ficken broke down opponents' game film, gave opponent reports to the offensive staff and coached the defensive scout team.

Prior to his work with the offense, Ficken was a graduate assistant in the football operations department where he acted as the NFL scout liaison and tracked opponents' personnel during games. He was as an assistant to the recruiting coordinator, playing a big part in the 2006 recruiting class that ranked in the top 10 nationally. From 2004-2005, Ficken was a volunteer coach at UCLA, focusing primarily on the defense and the secondary.

Ficken earned his bachelor's in business administration from ASU. He was a member of the Sun Devils football team for 2 seasons and received the Scholar-Athlete Award and was a member of Gamma Beta Phi, the National Scholastic Honor Society.

Ficken is currently finishing graduate school to obtain a masters in comparative education at UCLA. Ficken and wife, Andrea, reside in Eden Prairie.

HOW THE VIKINGS GOT THEIR NAME

From the 1961 Minnesota Vikings Radio, TV and Press Guide

When Bert Rose was selected as General Manager, one of the first steps he took was to recommend to the Board of Directors that the club be nicknamed the "Vikings."

A nickname should serve a dual purpose, he said. First, it should represent an aggressive person or animal imbued with the will to win. Secondly, if possible, it is desirable to have it connote the region that the particular team represents.

The "Vikings" scores well on both points. Certainly, the Nordic Vikings were a fearless race. Following many years of victories in the British Isles and France, under Erik the Red, they sailed in open boats across the North Atlantic seeking new peoples to conquer. Their entire history is punctuated with the aggressive desire and will to win.

While Minnesota is populated by the descendants of settlers from many nations, the area has a rich Nordic lore, perhaps due to the mythology of Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, perhaps due to the preponderance of the "sons" and "sens" in the phone book. The Vikings, too, were Nordics; hence the name represents in a large part the solid stock of people who call Minnesota their home.

JEFF IMAMURA

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS
Coaching Experience 13th Season
NFL Experience 6th Season
Vikings Experience 6th Season

Jeff Imamura returns to the Vikings in 2011 for his 6th season on the coaching staff. His primary duties include working directly with Defensive Coordinator Fred Pagac on day-to-day defensive operations and activities, assisting in coaching the LBs and generating comprehensive scouting reports on opponents.

The Vikings LBs were the most consistent unit for the defense in 2010. Chad Greenway led the team in tackles for the 3rd-straight season and ranked 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL in total tackles. Captain E.J. Henderson returned from a gruesome leg injury that ended his 2009 season to start all 16 games and earn a trip to the Pro Bowl. The defense finished in the NFL's top 10 in total defense (8th) for the 3rd year in a row and ranked in the top 10 against the run (9th) and the pass (10th).

In 2009, the Vikings LBs played at a high level and were a key part of the #6 ranking in total defense the club posted for the 2nd-straight year. The Vikings had not been in the NFL's top 10 for total defense in consecutive seasons since 1993-94. The LB unit had to overcome Henderson's season-ending injury, but were able to prepare rookie 5th-round draft pick Jasper Brinkley to start the final 4 regular season games and both playoff contests. Greenway led the team in tackles and joined Ben Leber in making plays against the run and pass. The duo combined for 4 INTs and 3.5 sacks during the regular season and playoffs.

The 2008 Vikings made dramatic strides from 2007 despite having to overcome the loss of key starters to injury, challenging the coaching staff to prepare backups to take on bigger roles. The Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL for total defense, the highest finish since 1994 for the team and a 14-position jump from the previous year. A key part of the 2008 Vikings defense taking a step forward was the emergence of Greenway as a total defender. In his 2nd year as a starter, Greenway led the team with 150 tackles and notched 5.5 sacks.

The 2007 Vikings LBs thrived in the NFL's #1 rushing defense as Henderson led the team with 155 total tackles and 4.5 sacks, while Greenway and Leber finished directly behind Henderson in total tackles with 130 and 88, respectively. Overall, the Vikings linebackers finished with 373 tackles, 9.5 sacks, 3 INTs, 6 FFs and 7 FRs.

The 2006 Vikings finished #8 in total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defenders became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game.

Before joining the Vikings, Imamura coached OLBs at Saginaw Valley (MI) State University in 2003. He helped build the Cardinals' defense into a national leader as the unit ranked 7th in the country in scoring, 12th in turnover margin and 22nd in the country in passing. The Cardinals' OLBs accounted for over 60 percent of the team's sacks on the season. SVSU won the Great Lakes Conference regular season title with an 11-0 record, finished the regular season ranked #1 in the nation and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals for only the 2nd time in the school's history.

Imamura spent the previous 3 seasons (2000-02) at Northern Arizona University as the defensive line coach. In 2002, the Lumberjacks ranked 15th in the nation in rushing defense and 2nd in the conference with 39.0 sacks. NAU advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs in 2001 for only the 2nd time in school history.

A 1997 graduate of Texas Christian University, Imamura got his start in the coaching profession at TCU as a defensive assistant from 1997-99, where he assisted the Horned Frogs' DBs coach and defensive coordinator. TCU beat USC in the 1998 Sun Bowl to earn the school's 1st bowl victory since the 1957 Cotton Bowl, and in 1999 earned a share of the WAC title and another bowl bid.

Imamura earned his degree in finance at TCU. Imamura and wife, Reagan, reside in Eden Prairie.

GOPHERS THE STANDARD IN PRODUCING PLAYERS

In the history of the Vikings franchise, a pair of schools have led the way in producing the most players to suit up for the team. Since the inception of the team, 28 University of Minnesota Golden Gophers have played for the Vikings, matched only by USC. Some of the Vikings early stalwarts were products of the UofM, including future Hall of Famer Carl Eller, who was taken in the 1964 Draft with the #6 overall choice by the Vikings. The 1964 draft class also yielded another building block of the great Vikings teams that excelled under Bud Grant, who earned his place in Gophers legend as a 3-sport star. The Vikings selected Bloomington, MN product Milt Sunde in the 20th round of the 1964 draft, the final player taken by the team (#271) that season. Sunde beat the odds from a 20th-round pick to become a key component of the Vikings lines. He went on to play in 146 games for the Vikings from 1964-74.

Not only have Minnesota, USC and Ohio State produced the most Vikings players, but they have also been among the best of the best on the field. Of the 13 players in the Vikings Ring of Honor, 5 have come from those schools- Eller (Minnesota) and Ron Yary (USC) join Jim Marshall (OSU), Korey Stringer (OSU) and Cris Carter (OSU).

QUARTERBACKS
Coaching Experience 29th Season
NFL Experience 12th Season
Vikings Experience 1st Season

Veteran coach Craig Johnson will mentor the Vikings QBs in 2011 and brings 20 seasons of experience working with veteran and rookie QBs and elevating their performances. Johnson enters his 12th season on an NFL sideline in 2011 and has coached QBs for 20 seasons, most recently on staff with the Tennessee Titans from 2000-10. During his tenure as QBs coach with the Titans he was able to guide Steve McNair, Vince Young and Kerry Collins all to Pro Bowl seasons.

Johnson was able to work with McNair as he earned NFL Co-MVP in 2003 and Young as he claimed 2006 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. In 2008, Collins was pressed into action after an injury in the season opener and responded with one of his career-best seasons, leading the team to a 12-3 mark as the starter and returning to the Pro Bowl. McNair earned Pro Bowl honors in 2000, '03 and '05 and was recognized as Co-MVP of the League, the 1st QB in franchise history to earn the award and the 2nd player in club history. Keeping backup QBs well-prepared was hallmark to the Titans success and Johnson was able to insert Billy Volek into the starting lineup in 2004 for 7 games where he posted an 18-10 TD-INT ratio and completed 61.1% of his passes with an 87.1 passer rating.

During his tenure with Tennessee the team won 3 AFC South titles and made the playoffs 5 times overall with 3 different starting QBs leading the team to the playoffs over those 5 seasons. In 2010 Johnson was promoted to Assistant Head Coach/RBs after a late-preseason staff shuffle. Perennial Pro Bowler Chris Johnson ran for 1,364 yards and led the team with 44 catches while backup 2nd-year man Javon Ringer averaged 4.7 yards per carry in a limited role.

Before he joined the Titans staff, Johnson honed his skills as a collegiate QBs and RBs coach from 1983-99, working at Maryland (1997-99), Northwestern (1992-96), Virginia Military Institute (1989-91), Rutgers (1986-88) and Army (1985). Johnson was a graduate assistant in 1983 (Wyoming) and 1984 (Arkansas). Johnson coached the Maryland QBs and for the 1997 and '98 seasons he served as offensive coordinator. During his 5 seasons at Northwestern he helped the Wildcats win consecutive Big Ten titles in 1995-96 for the first time in team history. The 1995 Wildcats posted the 1st winning season since 1971 and earned a trip to the Rose Bowl for the 1st time since 1949. Johnson's pupil, QB Steve Schnur was a 1st-Team All-Big Ten honoree and in 1992 and '93 QB Len Williams was a 2nd-Team choice.

Johnson came to Northwestern from VMI where he was Offensive Coordinator/QBs coach and helped the school lead the nation in rushing in 1991. Johnson coached RBs at Rutgers for 3 seasons after a 1-year stint at Army as a part-time assistant working with the FBs. Johnson broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wyoming, in 1983. Johnson and wife, Darlene, have daughters Shelby and Sydney.

THE EVOLVING SYMBOL OF THE NFL

The NFL shield, one of the most recognizable symbols in the sports world, underwent a stylistic upgrade during the 2008 offseason. The new font and design changes pay homage to the history of the League and the logo while turning an eye forward on the future. As the NFL enters its 91st season in 2010 the new shield symbolizes the progress of the league over those decades and the excellence that has laid the foundation for the modern NFL.

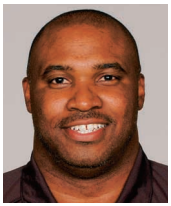

Adjustments to the logo include 8 stars representing the 8 Divisions in the NFL and the design of the football reflects the design of the football atop the Vince Lombardi Trophy. The blue color is darker and bolder than past shields and the shape has been refined over past versions.

JIMMIE JOHNSON

TIGHT ENDS
Coaching Experience 11th Season
NFL Experience 16th Season (6 Coaching, 10 Playing)
Vikings Experience 6th Season

Entering his 6th season with the Vikings' coaching staff in 2011, Johnson brings a blend of NFL expertise as both a player and as a coach which has proved to be a valuable asset. During his decade in the NFL as a player, Johnson was committed to the art of blocking, helping pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in 8 of his 10 seasons.

The position will benefit in 2011 from the addition of rookie Kyle Rudolph, the #43 overall pick in the Draft and the 1st TE drafted this season. He becomes the 2nd-highest drafted TE in team history.

The Vikings TEs have shown their versatility in recent years with Visanthe Shiancoe's performance moving him into 4th in the NFL among TEs with 20 TDs from 2008-10 and he's ranked 2nd in Vikings history by a TE with 21 career scores. Jim Kleinsasser responded in 2010 with 17 receptions, his most since 2005 and both TEs rank in the top 5 in team history for career receiving yards at the positionos- Shiancoe 2nd with 2,015 and Kleinsasser 4th with 1,684.

The Vikings emergence as a passing force in 2009 was helped greatly by Shiancoe taking on a bigger role in the offense and proving his value by setting a new Vikings record for TEs and ranked 2nd in the NFL among TEs with 11 TD catches.

Along with Shiancoe's value in the passing game, the TE group features a rugged run blocker in Jim Kleinsasser and the versatile Jeff Dugan, who sees time in the backfield and at TE.

The Vikings TEs hauled in 13 TD passes in 2009, just 6 fewer TD passes than the Vikings WRs combined for during the season. The unit played a big part in blocking for Adrian Peterson as he ran for 1,383 yards and set a new Vikings record with 18 rushing TDs.

In 2008, Johnson saw Shiancoe develop as a top-tier NFL TE. Shiancoe led the NFC and tied for 3rd among TEs in the NFL with 7 TD receptions. The 7 scores came up just 1 shy of the Vikings single-season record for TEs held by Joe Senser (8 in 1981). Shiancoe set new career highs in all major statistical categories with 42 receptions for 596 yards to go along with his 7 TDs. He also had a day for the records books, when he tied the Vikings single-game scoring mark for a TE with 2 TDs and matched the 2nd best effort by a Vikings TE with 136 yards vs. Atlanta (12/21/08). While Shiancoe racked up the accolades through the air, Kleinsasser continued to show his value in the running game as he helped pave the way for Adrian Peterson to finish the year as the NFL's rushing king and earn in his 2nd Pro Bowl berth in as many seasons. Peterson set records for single-season rushing yards (1,760) and games of 100+ yards (10) en route to becoming the 1st Viking to lead the NFL in rushing.

In 2007, Kleinsasser and Shiancoe assisted the Vikings record-setting rushing attack and contributed in the passing game. In Shiancoe's 1st season with the Vikings, he finished with career highs in every category as he hauled in 27 receptions for 323 yards and 1 TD. He caught the longest pass by a Vikings' TE in team history, a 79-yarder on a reverse by WR Sidney Rice. Kleinsasser, who was recognized for his unselfish blocking with a spot on the USA Today's All-Joe Team, added 4 catches for 43 yards and a TD.

In 2006, Johnson's TE corps helped newly-acquired Taylor run for 1,214 yards in his 1st season as a full-time starter. Taylor's total ranked as the 4th-highest single-season mark in Vikings' history. Jermaine Wiggins tied for 2nd on the team with 46 receptions.

During his 10 NFL seasons as a tight end, Johnson spent time with Washington, Detroit, Kansas City and Philadelphia. Originally selected in the 12th round of the 1989 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins, he was a long-shot rookie who not only made the final squad, but also went on to play in all 16 games that year. While with the Redskins, Johnson played under the legendary Joe Gibbs and was part of teams that went 34-14 in regular season action and 4-1 in the playoffs. He was a member of the 1991 Redskins team that reached the pinnacle of the NFL, winning Super Bowl XXVI over Buffalo in the stadium he now calls home – the Metrodome. His best season statistically was 1990, when he caught 15 passes for 218 yards and a pair of TDs. That year he averaged 14.5 yards per catch, which trailed only Gary Clark's team-leading 14.8 average, and caught his 1st NFL TD on a 4-yard pass from Stan Humphries in a 41-38 overtime win at Detroit (11/4/90). In 1991, Johnson caught 3 passes in the opening 6 games, including 2 for TDs from Mark Rypien in the 1st and 2nd games of the year vs. Detroit (9/1/91) and at Dallas (10/6/91) on Monday Night Football. A neck injury suffered at Chicago (10/6/91), however, placed Johnson on injured reserve for the rest of the Redskins championship season.

Following his 3 seasons with Washington, Johnson joined the Lions in 1992 as a Plan B free agent and went on to start 10 of the 22 games he played from 1992-93 under head coach Wayne Fontes. After his release by Detroit in November 1993, Johnson joined Kansas City and head coach Marty Schottenheimer for the 1994 season. That year the Chiefs played against the Vikings in the preseason game held in Tokyo and went on to ride Hall of Famers Joe Montana and Marcus Allen to a 9-7 record and a berth in the playoffs. Johnson played in 7 games and started 1 that season.

In 1995, Johnson moved on to Philadelphia where he enjoyed his most productive seasons as part of the 2-TE power running game employed by the Eagles. Johnson blocked for Ricky Watters as he earned Pro Bowl berths in 1995 and '96 while breaking the 1,000-yard mark each season from 1995-97. In 1996, Watters set the Eagles team record for attempts with 353, the 2nd-most yards in team history with 1,411, and the 2nd-most rushing TDs with 13. The Eagles took NFC east runner-up honors in 1995 and '96 while advancing to the playoffs both seasons under Ray Rhodes. During that time, Johnson started 18 of the 51 games he played and had a career best 18.1-yard receiving average in 1996, when he caught 7 passes for 127 yards. His final NFL TD came from QB Bobby Hoying vs. Cincinnati (11/30/97).

As a player, Johnson was durable, seeing action in all 16 games in 6 of his 10 seasons. He finished his career with 61 catches for 723 yards and 5 TDs while playing in 5 postseason games. He also blocked for 1,000 yards rushers in 8 of his 10 NFL seasons, helping Earnest Byner break the 1,000-yard mark and earn Pro Bowl honors in 1990 and 1991. Barry Sanders repeated the feats in Detroit in 1992 and '93, and in Philadelphia, Johnson helped Watters get over the 1,000-yard plateau in 1995, '96 and '97. Johnson finished his career clearing the way for Deuce Staley in 1998, who gained 1,000+ yards in only his 2nd NFL season.

After his playing days were over, Johnson entered coaching, beginning his career as the running backs coach at South Carolina State in 2001, where he helped the Bulldogs finish 6-5. He then held the offensive coordinator position at Shaw University in 2002 before becoming offensive coordinator/QBs coach at Texas Southern in 2004 and 2005. Johnson had an immediate impact in both positions. In 2005 at TSU, Johnson helped develop sophomore RB Brent Wilson into a 1st-Team All-SWAC performer with 1,032 rushing yards, 10 rushing TDs and 1 receiving TD. Wilson became the 1st TSU player to break the 1,000-yard mark since 1998 and was the lone sophomore on offense to earn 1st-Team honors after making a dramatic improvement over his freshman season when he finished with 16 rushing yards. At Shaw, Johnson helped resurrect the Bears football program that had been discontinued since 1978.

Johnson attended Howard, where he earned his bachelor's degree in consumer studies. As a senior he was an All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference choice after hauling in 31 receptions for 546 yards and 9 TDs. For his college career, Johnson finished with 16 TDs and 1,229 receiving yards on 73 catches.

A native of Augusta, GA, Johnson attended T.W. Josey High School. He and his family reside in Shakopee.

DIRON REYNOLDS

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE
Coaching Experience 15th Season
NFL Experience 9th Season
Vikings Experience 3rd Season

Diron Reynolds returns in 2011 for his 3rd season working with the Vikings defensive line and will attempt to build on the progress made the past few seasons.

Over the past few seasons the strength of the Vikings defense has been stopping the run, and 2010 was no different as they held opponents to 102.2 rushing yards per game, ranking 9th in the NFL. The Vikings finished 8th in total defense, the 3rd year in a row that they finished in the NFL's top 10 after finishing 6th in both 2008 and 2009. It marked the first time since 1992-94 that the Vikings ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total defense for three-straight seasons.

In 2009, the Vikings led the NFL with 48.0 sacks and had breakout performances by several players. Along with perennial All-Pro performers Jared Allen and Kevin Williams, the team got a career-best performance from DE Ray Edwards and DT Jimmy Kennedy excelled in his role providing depth to the interior line. Edwards had a career-high 8.5 sacks in the regular season and tied a Vikings playoff record with 3.0 sacks vs. Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff win. The Vikings defense set a new team playoff record with 6.0 sacks against the Cowboys. Kennedy matched his career-high with 3.0 sacks in the regular season and added another in the playoffs.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Reynolds was the defensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins during the 2007 season. While with Miami, Reynolds' line created a pass rush that helped the Dolphins rank 4th in the league in passing yards allowed. Dolphin's DE Jason Taylor recorded his 6th double-digit sack season (11.0) and 6th trip to the Pro Bowl. Reynolds took part in the 1st regular season NFL game played away from North America when the Dolphins took on the Giants in London on 10/28/07.

Reynolds spent 5 seasons (2002-2006) working as a defensive quality control coach for the Indianapolis Colts under current Vikings head coach Leslie Frazier (2005-2006) and former Vikings assistant Tony Dungy. During his time in Indy the team compiled a 60-20 record (.750), posting double-digit wins every season, and captured the AFC South crown 4 out of his 5 seasons. The Colts tallied the most wins in franchise history with 14 in 2005. They also went 7-4 in the post-season during Reynolds' tenure, capturing the Lombardi Trophy by defeating the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI for the team's 1st title since 1970. The Colts defense twice ranked 2nd in the NFL in passing yards allowed (2002 and 2006) and recorded the 4th-best sack total in the NFL in 2004.

Before moving to the NFL, Reynolds spent 5 seasons working in the collegiate ranks. He spent the 2001 season tutoring DTs at Indiana University following a 4-year stint with his alma mater Wake Forest (1997-2000).

In 2001, the Hoosiers saw significant improvement on the defensive side of the ball. The 2001 team improved by 2 wins and cut the number of games allowing 30+ points by more than half, from 9 in 2000 to just 4 in 2001.

Reynolds got his 1st taste of coaching on a major stage when he joined his alma mater as a graduate assistant for the 1997 and 1998 seasons. In 1997, the Demon Deacons set a school record for rushing yards allowed per game with just 96.1 while also holding opponents to only 23.0 points per game. After being hired on full-time as the OLB coach for the Deacons in 1999, Reynolds helped Wake Forest produce one of the top defenses in the nation and the best in school history since the 1976 season. The Deacons defense finished the year ranked in the top 35 nationally in every statistical category and earned their 1st bowl berth since 1992, defeating Arizona State in the Aloha Bowl.

Before returning to Wake Forest, Reynolds spent 2 years coaching football, basketball, and track at Brooklyn-Cayce High School in South Carolina.

As a collegian, Reynolds played LB and was a key contributor on special teams for Wake Forest from 1990-1993. Reynolds was a member of the Deacons' 1992 campaign as they advanced, and won, their 1st bowl game (Independence Bowl) since the 1979 season and finished the season ranked in both the AP and Coaches Top 25 polls for the 1st time since 1979.

Reynolds grew up in Aiken, S.C., and earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Wake Forest along with a Master's in liberal studies. His brother Jamal played DE for the Green Bay Packers, where he was a 1st-round draft pick, and brother Rashad played LB at Rice University. His father, William, was a DE at the South Carolina State. He resides with his family in Eden Prairie.

JAMES SAXON

RUNNING BACKS
Coaching Experience 15th Season
NFL Experience 19th Season (11 Coaching, 8 Playing)
Vikings Experience 1st Season

In charge of the Vikings' running backs this year will be NFL coaching veteran James Saxon, entering his 11th season in the League. A former NFL RB himself, Saxon joins the Vikings after spending time with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and most recently the Miami Dolphins. Saxon has guided RBs to 8 Pro Bowls during his 11 seasons coaching the position and has had a RB break the 1,000-yard mark 6 times.

While in Miami for the past 3 seasons Saxon tutored Pro Bowlers Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams. In 2009, the Dolphins had the NFL's 4th ranked rushing attack with 139.4 yards per game. Williams and Brown added a wrinkle into the Dolphins offensive game plan by using the Wildcat formation as a change-of-pace. Williams rushed for a team-best 1,121 yards in 2009.

In Kansas City, Saxon found tremendous success with 3 of the franchises top backs. During Saxon's 7 years in KC he helped 3 players (Priest Holmes, Tony Richardson and Larry Johnson) to 7 total Pro Bowls. Holmes and Johnson combined to break the 1,000-yard mark 5 times during his tenure. Holmes and Johnson are ranked #1 and #2 in Chiefs career yardage at 6,070 and 6,015 yards respectively and the duo have the top 4 single-season rushing yardage totals in franchise history- led by Johnson's team-record 1,789 yards in 2006. Holmes holds the team mark for single-season TDs with 27 in 2003 and career TDs with 83 (76 rushing, 7 receiving). His 27 TDs set an NFL record at the time, which has since been topped. Holmes played his entire career, 2001-07, under Saxon with the Chiefs. Johnson set the franchise record for 100-yard rushing days with 30, edging Holmes' 24.

Saxon entered the NFL in 2000 and was a running backs coach with the Buffalo Bills. Saxon spent time with Menlo College and Rutgers before making the leap to the NFL.

Saxon entered the NFL in 1988 as a 6th round draft choice by the Kansas City Chiefs. Saxon would suit up for the Chiefs (1988-91), Miami (1992-94) and the Philadelphia (1995) during his 8-year playing career. The South Carolina native played in 111 career games and rushed for 533 yards with 5 TDs on 145 attempts. Saxon added 69 receptions for 515 yards.

Saxon began his collegiate career at American River Junior College in California (1984-85). He would go on to spend the final two seasons at San Jose State (1986-87) where he compiled 609 rushing yards adding 9 TDs on 118 carries. He also collected 78 receptions for 732 yards and 4 TDs. While with the Spartans for two seasons Saxon also managed to throw 4 TD passes.

He attended Battery Creek High School in Burton, South Carolina. Saxon is married to his wife Shannon and their son, Devin, attends Harvard University and plays football.

MATT SHELDON

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS
Coaching Experience 14th Season
NFL Experience 11th Season
Vikings Experience 2nd Season

Matt Sheldon returns for his 2nd season with the Vikings and will continue to work with the Minnesota defensive backs in 2011, his 11th season in the NFL as an assistant coach.

Before joining the Vikings, Sheldon spent the last 4 seasons coaching LBs with the Buffalo Bills. In Sheldon's debut season with the Vikings in 2010 he was able to assist veteran CB Antoine Winfield reach his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl. The Vikings DBs were challenged to find a consistent lineup due to injuries and the coaching staff prepared young players to step into starting roles on a regular basis. The veteran savvy Winfield brought the group provided the most steadying force in the unit that had to overcome the loss of CB Cedric Griffin to another season-ending knee injury in just his 2nd game of the season after returning from off-season knee surgery. His position opposite Winfield was filled by 2nd-year man Asher Allen and rookie Chris Cook. The development of S Husain Abdullah, a 3rd-year man who came to the Vikings as a rookie free agent was a bright spot for the club as he started 15 games and tied for the team-high in interceptions.

The Vikings defense ranked #8 in total defense and #10 against the pass. The club also limited big plays allowing just 49 plays of 20+ yards which was 4th best in the NFL.

Sheldon will work with veteran coaches Joe Woods and Fred Pagac with the Vikings defense, bringing his experience from previous stops in Buffalo and St. Louis.

With Buffalo, the Bills LBs were instrumental to the team ranking #2 in the NFL in passing defense, led by MLB Paul Posluszny who emerged as a playmaking force. Posluszny led the Bills in tackles in 2008 and 2009 after having a promising rookie season cut short by injury. In 2009, he notched a career-best 3 INTs along with 3 forced fumbles and a sack.

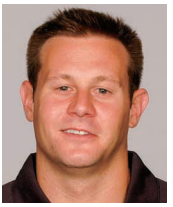

All 3 of the Bills regular starting LBs- Bryan Scott, Chris Draft and Posluszny- recorded at least a sack and an INT during the season after veteran Kawika Mitchell was sidelined by injury. Scott made the transition from S to LB following Mitchell's injury and ranked 3rd on the team with 78 tackles.

In 2007, under Sheldon's guidance, Posluszny entered the season as a starter at MLB, the 1st Bills rookie MLB to start a season opener since Shane Conlan in 1987.

Prior to his stint in Buffalo, Sheldon spent 2001-05 with the St. Louis Rams. His duties there were varied as he assisted special teams, defense, as well as special projects. Defensively, he assisted with both the secondary and the LBs. Prior to St. Louis, Sheldon served as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Wisconsin (1997-99). At Wisconsin he assisted with the defensive secondary. Wisconsin's defense led the nation in 1998 and the Badgers were the first team in Big Ten history to win Rose Bowls in consecutive seasons (1998-99).

Returning to Minnesota is a homecoming for Sheldon, who played DB for the University of Minnesota after prepping at D.C. Everest High School in Schofield, WI. Sheldon and wife, Kari, have a son, Theodor and a daughter, Lillian.

RYAN SILVERFIELD

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE
Coaching Experience 13th Season
NFL Experience 4th Season
Vikings Experience 4th Season

In 2011, Ryan Silverfield will move over to the offensive side of the ball in his 4th season with the Vikings coaching staff. He will assist Jeff Davidson coaching the offensive line.

Silverfield spent his first three seasons with the Vikings working with the defensive linemen and coach Karl Dunbar. During his 3 seasons with the Vikings defensive front the unit set the stage for top-10 defensive rankings each season from 2008-10 and landed 3 players- DE Jared Allen, DT Kevin Williams and DT Pat Williams- as regulars on All-Pro and Pro Bowl squads. The 2009 unit led the NFL with 48.0 sacks.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Silverfield spent 2 seasons at the University of Central Florida where he worked under former Vikings defensive coordinator George O'Leary. In Silverfield's 2nd season at UCF in 2007, the Knights closed the regular season with a 7-game winning streak en route to winning the Conference USA crown, the 1st conference championship in school history.

In 2005, Silverfield served as the quarterbacks coach at Jacksonville University. Before working on the JU Dolphins staff and at the age of 23, he was the head coach at Memorial Day H.S. in Savannah, GA. That opportunity followed 4 seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia, where he began as an offensive assistant in 2000. At the age of 20, he became the DL coach, making him one of the younger position coaches in all of college football. He held that position for 2 seasons before moving to TEs and H-backs in 2003, a season in which the Tigers went 9-1 and had the #1-ranked scoring offense in the country, averaging over 47.0 points per game.

Silverfield's coaching career began as an assistant at The Bolles School in Jacksonville in 1999. During his playing days, Silverfield helped Bolles win 2 state championships and earn the title of the #1-ranked high school team in the country by USA Today. As a senior, Silverfield was a 1st-Team All-First Coast selection after leading his team to the Florida Class 3A state title.

Silverfield graduated Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in economics from Hampden-Sydney.

MIKE SINGLETARY

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH/LBs
Coaching Experience 9th Season
NFL Experience 21st Season (9 Coaching, 12 Playing)
Vikings Experience 1st Season

When Mike Singletary and Leslie Frazier were rookie defenders for the Chicago Bears in 1981 neither could have thought their paths would eventually lead to working together on the coaching staff of the Minnesota Vikings 30 years later. But, fate and football are funny that way. The young Bears became roommates and friends in the early 1980s and are reunited now coaching an old Central Division rival.

Singletary joins the Vikings staff in 2011 as the Special Assistant to the Head Coach and will coach the LBs. Singletary's long background with Frazier during their playing days and their continued friendship will benefit the club as the Vikings enter a new era under Frazier's direction in 2011. The duo were starters and key components of the Bears legendary defense that claimed Super Bowl XX following the 1985 season.

Singletary inherits a LB unit with the Vikings that features 2010 Pro Bowl choice E.J. Henderson and returns former 1st-round pick Chad Greenway, who has led the club in tackles for the past 3 straight seasons. Greenway was recognized by teammates as the 2010 Vikings Defensive Player of the Year and Henderson served as a team captain in 2010 after making a remarkable comeback from a broken leg that ended his 2009 season. Singletary's wealth of experience as a position coach working with some of the best defenders in the game and as a standout player will continue to elevate the Vikings LBs level of performance.

Singletary understands the role Frazier is in better than most as both men started their head coaching careers on a difficult interim basis. Singletary replaced former boss Mike Nolan after 7 games during the 2008 season and led the 49ers to a 5-2 finish in the final 7 games of the season after going 0-2 to start his tenure. He was named 49ers Head Coach moving forward and led the club to an 8-8 mark in 2009, the best record since 2002. Singletary led the team for the opening 15 games of 2010 before ownership relieved him of his duties.

The 2010 49ers showcased a tough defense, ranking #13 in total defense, #6 against the run and were #7 in the NFL at forcing opposing offenses to go 3-and-out. The club dropped 4 games in the opening half of the season by a combined 11 points and rallied to a 5-5 mark in Singletary's final 10 games on the job, including a win over Denver in the NFL's International Series game played in London.

Singletary got his first taste of NFL coaching working with the inside LBs for Baltimore in 2003-04 before going with Nolan to serve as Assistant Head Coach/LBs coach for the 49ers in 2005. From 2006-08, Singletary served as Assistant Head Coach/Defense.

During his tenure in Baltimore, Singletary worked with future Hall of Famer Ray Lewis as he earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2003. The duo shared that unique bond as Singletary had been Defensive Player of the Year in 1985 and 1988.

Singletary's focus on defense helped the Ravens rank #3 and #6 in total defense during his two seaosns respectively. When he went to San Francisco with head coach Mike Nolan, the squad's defensive talent was depleted and ranked #32 in the NFL in total defense for the 2005 season. In the next 5 seasons the 49ers would climb to back-to-back #6 finishes against the run in 2009 and '10, ranking #15 and #13 in total defense respectively.

Singletary helped 49ers rookie LB Patrick Willis earn AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2007 and earn Pro Bowl honors in his opening 3 seasons, 2007-09.

Singletary's legend as a player is well chronicled over his 12-year career with the Bears. His 10 consecutive Pro Bowls stands as a franchise record and he earned 1st-Team All-Pro honors 8 times. He ranked #1 or #2 on the team in tackles in each of his final 11 seasons with the team and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1998, 3 years after he earned College Football Hall of Fame honors. During his career with Chicago, Singletary was part of 6 NFC Central Division title teams and made the playoffs 7 times, including playing in 3 NFC Championship games. From 1984-88 the Bears won 5 straight Division crowns, won Super Bowl XX, played in 3 NFC title games and amassed a 62-17 regular season record, winning an average of 12 games per season.

A man of deep faith, Singletary finds motivation and meaning from the scriptures he studies daily. Sports and religion have been the foundation of Singletary's life and have led him through the toughest of times. Singletary and wife, Kim, have seven children.

SOLIDFYING THE DEFENSE

From the time that Singletary joined the 49ers staff in 2005, the defense showed steady improvement, becoming a solid top-15 defense in the NFL in his final three seasons.

KEVIN STEFANSKI

ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS
Coaching Experience 7th Season
NFL Experience 6th Season
Vikings Experience 6th Season

Kevin Stefanski begins his 3rd season working with the QBs and offensive coaching staff in 2011 and enters his 6th season overall with the Vikings. Stefanski will assist QBs coach Craig Johnson and work with new Offensive Coordinator Bill Musgrave, who has a strong background coaching QBs himself.

The 2011 Vikings will welcome 1st-round pick Christian Ponder to the club, only the 3rd QB drafted by the Vikings in the 1st round in team history.

The 2010 campaign was challenging to the Vikings as injuries derailed any consistency the team could build. The team started 3 different QBs, including rookie Joe Webb for the final 2 games of the regular season on the road. The team started Brett Favre for the opening 12 games of his 20th NFL season before injuries severely limited him to 1 more start in the final 4 games. Veteran backup Tarvaris Jackson started 1 game against the NY Giants but suffered a season-ending injury in that contest. Webb relieved Favre in the 1st half of the Monday Night Football game vs. Chicago (12/20) and started the final 2 outings, engineering an upset win over NFC East champion Philadelphia on the road. Webb became only the 2nd QB in team history to win his 1st start as a rookie and ran for TDs in consecutive weeks against Chicago and at Philadelphia.

In 2009, Stefanski had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offensive seasons in Vikings history. The team improved dramatically in the passing game and developed new playmakers in prominent roles. Stefanski and the offensive staff helped veteran free agent QB Brett Favre mesh with the offense despite reporting to the team in mid-August.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski became acquainted with Childress during Philadelphia Eagles training camp in 2005 while working with the team's operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, as Assistant Director of Football Operations. He coordinated all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations of the football team.

Before stepping off the field and into the administration of the team, Stefanski was a standout defensive back at Penn. A team captain as a senior in 2004, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won Ivy League titles in 2000, 2002 and 2003 and the squad went undefeated in league play during 2002 and 2003.

Twice honored as an Honorable Mention All-Ivy choice in 2002 and 2004, Stefanski ranked 3rd on the team in tackles as a senior. He was named Penn's Defensive Rookie of the Year as a freshman in 2000 when he had a career-high 4 interceptions. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy play. As a senior, the team went 10-0 to become the 1st undefeated Penn team in a decade.

Stefanski (5/8/82) holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia. The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a standout in basketball at Penn and is the General Manager of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, reside in Minneapolis with their son, William.

GEORGE STEWART

WIDE RECEIVERS
Coaching Experience 29th Season
NFL Experience 24th Season (23 Coaching, 1 playing)
Vikings Experience 5th Season

Entering his 5th season on the Vikings staff, George Stewart oversees a talented group of WRs in 2011 highlighted by playmaker Percy Harvin. Stewart enters his 24th season in the NFL and has earned the reputation as a teacher and mentor to some of the top receivers in the game.

Over the years, Stewart has been a part of several successful programs, highlighted by 8 playoff appearances in the past 15 seasons and 3 NFC Championship games with San Francisco in 1997, Atlanta in 2004 and Minnesota in 2009. Recently, Stewart helped win 4 Division titles in the past 9 seasons – consecutive NFC North titles with Minnesota in 2008 and 2009, winning the NFC South with Atlanta in 2004 and an NFC West title in 2002 with San Francisco.

During his Vikings tenure, Stewart has coached Harvin to 2009 Rookie of the Year honors and Sidney Rice to a Pro Bowl berth in 2009. The 2010 Vikings were hobbled by injuries throughout the season that especially affected the passing game. Rice was limited to 6 games in 2010 and Harvin saw time in 14 while the team started 3 different players at QB. Harvin's productivity increased in his 2nd pro season, leading the team with 71 receptions for 868 yards and added 18 rushes, including a TD. The dynamic Harvin scored by kickoff return, reception and rush, only the 5th player in Vikings history to accomplish the feat in a season.

The 2009 Vikings became only the 2nd team in NFL history to have 6 players catch 40+ passes in a season and the WR unit stepped up to play at their highest level in recent memory. Rice enjoyed a breakout season and Harvin established himself as multi-talented offensive threat. Rice blossomed into a game-changer in his 3rd season and left his mark on the record book. He tied an NFL playoff record and set a new Vikings post-season mark with 3 TD catches in the NFC Divisional game vs. Dallas. Rice's 1,312 yards ranked 2nd in the NFC in 2009 and he became only the 4th Vikings WR in team history to eclipse the 1,300-yard mark. Rice's 201 yards vs. Detroit ranks as the 4th-best single-game mark in Vikings history and his 2 catches of 50+ yards vs. Baltimore tied for the 2nd-best mark in team history.

Stewart was able to get Harvin acclimated to the pro game and spurred him to NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year. Harvin tied for the NFL rookie lead in receptions and yards. Harvin excelled on offense and special teams, earning a Pro Bowl berth as a return man and setting a new Vikings record with 2,081 total net yards. His 60 catches ranked 2nd only to Randy Moss' 1998 debut season when he had 69 receptions in Vikings history for rookie catches.

In 2008, the Vikings WRs contributed to much of the success of an improved passing attack. Led by priority free agent signing Bernard Berrian, the Vikings led the NFL with 13 TDs through the air of 20+ yards. Berrian had a career year, setting highs in yards with 964 and TDs with 7. Berrian was on the receiving end of 2 of the 3 longest receptions in Vikings' history with an 86-yard TD reception vs. Detroit (10/12/08) and a 99-yard TD catch vs. Chicago (11/30/08). The 99-yard strike tied an NFL mark for the longest reception in history and set a Vikings record as the longest play from scrimmage.

Throughout Stewart's coaching career, he has been fortunate to learn from some of the game's all-time greats, beginning both his playing and early coaching careers under college legend Lou Holtz. Stewart went on to work in the NFL side-by-side with Chuck Noll, Sam Wyche, George Seifert and Dan Reeves, all men who led teams to the Super Bowl.

During Stewart's tenure in Atlanta, the team won the NFC South title in 2004 and advanced to the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia.

Prior to joining Atlanta, Stewart was an integral part of the San Francisco 49ers' success from 1996-2002, as the team advanced to the playoffs 5 times in those 7 seasons. In 1997, the 49ers won the NFC West with a 13-3 mark and eventually lost to Green Bay in the NFC Championship game. During that time, Stewart tutored the 49ers WRs and helped elevate each of Terrell Owens, J.J. Stokes and Tai Streets performances, with Owens making Pro Bowls and All-Pro in 3 straight seasons from 2000-02. Owens had 17 games over the 100-yard receiving mark and 5 games with 150+ yards. Before working with Stewart, Owens' career-highs for season receptions was 67, a mark he shattered with 97, 93 and 100 respectively in 2000, '01 and '02. Owens set his career-high in receiving yards with 1,451 in 2000 and TDs with 16 in 2001. He broke a 50-year-old NFL record when he caught 20 passes for 283 yards against the Bears in 2000 en route to his career-best day.

Stewart's 1st taste of NFL coaching came in Pittsburgh from 1989-91, where he coached special teams on Noll's staff. In his debut season in 1989, he helped Rod Woodson to a Pro Bowl as a return man. Following Pittsburgh, Stewart went on to spend 4 years coaching Tampa Bay special teams, where he helped K Mike Husted earn All-Rookie honors in 1993.

Before making the move to the NFL, Stewart spent several years in the college ranks, making his final stop as the Notre Dame LBs coach from 1986-88. Under Holtz's tutelage, the Irish steadily improved from the coach's opening season in '86 to become national champions in 1988, a year in which the team finished 12-0 and defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. The stingy Irish defense allowed opponents to score over 20 points only twice during the season. Stewart's unit, which included Arnold Ale and Andre Jones highlighted by consensus All-America choice Frank Stams played a prominent role in the defensive success.

Stewart and Holtz began working together in 1983, when Stewart got his start in coaching as an Arkansas graduate assistant, working with the Razorbacks' TEs. When Holtz moved from Arkansas to Minnesota as the Golden Gophers head coach in 1984, Stewart accompanied him as the offensive line coach, his 1st exposure to the state where he would return in 2007. In 2 short seasons, Holtz and his staff quickly turned the Gophers program around, finishing 7-5 in 1985 and winning the Independence Bowl over Clemson, the 1st bowl victory for the Gophers since the 1962 Rose Bowl.

Stewart was a standout player as an offensive guard for the Razorbacks from 1977-80 and helped the squad share the 1979 Southwest Conference title. The team played in four straight bowl games during Stewart's playing tenure as Arkansas returned to national prominence under Holtz. Stewart was an All-SWC honoree as a junior in 1979, served as a team captain in 1980 and earned a spot on the Arkansas Team of the Decade for the 1970s. He signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1981 but spent the season on injured reserve.

Stewart has a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas and is a native of Little Rock, AR, where he graduated from Parkview High School in 1977.

PART OF THE FABRIC OF MINNESOTA SINCE 1961

The following excerpt explains the early stages of the Vikings franchise as chronicled in the Minnesota Vikings 1961 Press, Radio, TV Guide.

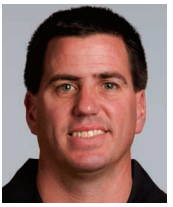

Twin Cities football enthusiasts began their quest for professional football some 12 years ago, and it was on January 28, 1960, that their efforts were culminated with the announcement – from Miami, Florida, where the National Football League owners were in session- that Minnesota was being granted a franchise for 1961. At the same meeting, Dallas was accepted to start play in 1960.

The franchise was granted just ten days after E. William Boyer, president of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, had made an official presentation to the league on behalf of statewide Minnesota interests.

Besides Boyer in the founding group were: Max Winter, promoter and restauranteur, H.P. Skoglund, president of North American Life and Casualty Company; Ole Haugsrud, Duluth businessman, and the Northwest Publications, Inc., publishers of the St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press, through its president, Bernard H. Ridder. Jr.

They decided to start with an original outlay of one million dollars, of which the Minneapolis sources would put up $600,000; St. Paul $300,000 and Duluth, representing the rest of the state, $100,000.

Upon acquiring a franchise, the group hired Joe Thomas, former scout with the Los Angeles Rams, to scout the country in preparation for the 1961 draft meeting, and went on a nationwide search to find a general manager. This ended with the selection of Bert E. Rose, who was at the time the public relations director for the Rams. From September, 1960, when Rose reported, until July, 1961, such details as hiring a coaching and front-office staff, contracting for radio and television, establishing a ticket operation, drafting, selecting and signing players, and many more, have - or will be- accomplished in order to put the Vikings on the field in 1961.

CHRIS WHITE

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
Coaching Experience 22nd Season
NFL Experience 3rd Season
Vikings Experience 3rd Season

Chris White enters his 3rd season with the Vikings after spending 16 years coaching at the collegiate level. He will assist new special teams coordinator Mike Priefer in 2011.

The Vikings 2010 special teams units had several standouts. Kicker Ryan Longwell led the NFL in field goal percentage (94.4%), converting on 17-of-18 FG attempts. It was the highest mark of his career and the 2nd-consecutive season that he finished with a percentage over 90. Punter Chris Kluwe ranked 10th in the NFL in net punting and earned Special Teams MVP as voted by his teammates. Percy Harvin continued his torrid pace, returning his 3rd kickoff return for a TD in 2010, extending his own team mark for career KO return TDs and matching David Palmer for career combined special teams return TDs with 3- Palmer scored twice via punt return and once on a KO. Harvin now owns 3 of the 9 longest KO returns in Vikings history in only 2 seasons.

After joining the Vikings in 2009, White helped oversee a special teams unit that sent a pair of members to the Pro Bowl and made an impact on the Vikings record book along the way. The Vikings special teams were instrumental in the team winning a 2nd consecutive NFC North title and winning 12 games in the regular season, tied for the 2nd-best total in Vikings history.

The 2009 special teams were represented at the Pro Bowl by cover man Heath Farwell and Harvin. That tandem led the unit all season and were joined by savvy vets and emerging playmakers to give the Vikings a strong foundation for the future. Longwell enjoyed one of his best seasons, scoring a career-high 132 points and hitting 26-of-28 FGs. Harvin set a Vikings record by returning a pair of kickoff returns for TDs during the season, including a 101-yarder that tied the 2nd-longest in Vikings history. The coverage units were led by Farwell and 1st-year LB Kenny Onatolu, who was pulled from the Canadian Football League and made a smooth transition to the NFL.

White joined the Vikings after a 9-year stint at Syracuse University where, at different times throughout his tenure, he coached WRs, TEs, was the special teams' coordinator and the recruiting coordinator. White's 9 seasons at Syracuse were highlighted by a 2001 Insight Bowl victory, a share of the Big East championship in 2004, and a combined 7 units that ranked in the nation's top 20 while working as the school's special teams coordinator from 2000-2003.

White served as the Orange's WRs coach as well as their recruiting coordinator, a post he moved to prior to the 2005 season. White worked to bring in young talent and rebuild Syracuse's program. His efforts showed as 5 different underclassmen WRs caught TD passes for the Orange in 2008, with sophomore WR Donte Davis leading the team in catches and yards, and tied for the lead in TD receptions. Prior to moving on to the WRs coach/recruiting coordinator position, White spent the 2004 season coaching the team's TEs to go along with his duties as recruiting coordinator. While he guided former New York Jets TE Joe Kowalewski, the 2004 Orange went on to capture a share of the Big East crown and a victory in Champs Sports Bowl.

White spent his opening 3 years at Syracuse working with the TEs and as the special teams' coordinator. From the start of the 2000 season until he left his post as special teams coordinator in 2003, only 7 teams in the country blocked more kicks than the Orange (22), 5 coming from future NY Giants Super Bowl hero David Tyree. Syracuse also scored 8 TDs on special teams during the same time frame. In 2000, the team ranked 13th and 14th in kickoff return yardage and kickoff return yardage allowed, respectively. The following season the Orange had their best overall finish since 1992, complete with a victory in the Insight Bowl, aided by the 18th ranked punt return unit in the nation. In 2002, White led the nation's top punt coverage unit, while his punter ranked 7th in yardage and his punt returners ranked 20th in return yards. The 2003 campaign ended with both his kicker and punter being named to the All-Big East 2nd team.

In 1999, White served a dual-role as Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo's defensive and special teams' coordinators, where he helped a number of his players into the school's record books. DB Vaugh Jarrett, a freshman at the time, went on to record the 5th-most INTs in Mustang history, while DE Steve Prejean, then a junior, finished the season ranked 12th all time in school annals with 8.0 sacks that season and LB Brett Baker posted the 11th best single-season mark with 98 tackles. White's kicker that season, Sal Rivas, finished the season with the school's 2nd-best field goal percentage.

White spent the 3 seasons prior to his arrival with the Mustangs with UNLV as the LBs coach and special teams' coordinator. The lone head coaching job of White's career came as a 3-year stint with Bishop Manogue High School from 1994-1996, where he was named the Northern Nevada Coach of the Year in 1996.

White's 1st full-time role in coaching came as the assistant QBs coach for the College of the Holy Cross (Mass.) from 1993-1994. In his 2 years at that post both of the Crusaders starters ended their respective seasons with QB efficiency ratings over 100.0, and in 1993 Dave Harrington wrote himself into the school's record book with the 10th best single-season completion percentage.

White paid his dues in the coaching world working for 5 seasons as a graduate assistant, for 3 years at Syracuse (1990-92) and then with Arkansas State (1992-1993). In his 2 seasons with Arkansas State, he saw former Vikings punter, Kyle Richardson, secure 2nd place in school history with 3,285 punting yards in the 1993 season. In the same season, the Red Wolves also had the 4th best mark in school history with 14 FGs made.

In his 1st stint at Syracuse, White worked with current Vikings QB coach, Kevin Rogers, and under current Miami Dolphins defensive coordinator, Paul Pasqualoni. The team posted a 27-8 record in the three years and won the 1990 Aloha Bowl and 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl.

As a collegian, White was a 4-year starter at QB for Colby College and was named a captain his senior year. The Mules won consecutive CBB championships in his final 3 seasons.

White grew up in Haverhill, MA and graduated from Philips Exeter Academy in 1986. He majored in government while at Colby College. His brother, Brian, is the RBs coach for the University of Florida. He and his wife, Angel, reside in the Minneapolis area with their daughters, Payton and Riley.

JOE WOODS

DEFENSIVE BACKS
Coaching Experience 20th Season
NFL Experience 8th Season
Vikings Experience 6th Season

Entering his 6th season as the Vikings' defensive backs coach, Joe Woods is hoping a mixture of veteran and young palyers can build off a 2010 season that saw several fresh faces gain valuable experience.

Leading the charge in 2010 for Woods' DBs was 3-time Pro Bowler Antoine Winfield. The 12-year veteran was selected to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl after setting the Vikings record for tackles by a cornerback with 110, which was good for 3rd on the team behind linebackers Chad Greenway and E.J. Henderson. Winfield once again showed the knack for the big play when sacking, forcing and recovering a fumble against Michael Vick at Philadelphia (12/28) and racing 45 yards for the longest fumble return TD of his career. The Vikings DBs accounted for 9 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 forced fumbles. A string of injuries depleted the unit and forced Woods' young DBs into early action. Former rookie free agent Husain Abdullah earned the starting job opposite Madieu Williams and started 15 games, finishing with 98 tackles and 3 interceptions which tied him for the team lead with E.J. Henderson. Second-year man Asher Allen made 11 starts while 2010 top draft pick Chris Cook started 5 games before being placed on injured reserve with knee injuries. The Vikings defense also limited big plays allowing just 49 plays of 20+ yards which was 4th best in the NFL.

The Vikings toughness in the back end has been a contributing factor in the team building a reputation as one of the most opportunistic defenses in the NFL. The Vikings ranked #6 in total defense in 2009, the 2nd straight year achieving the mark. The back-to-back top 10 defensive rankings were the 1st time by a Vikings defense since 1993-94. The defensive unit has played a key part in the Vikings back-to-back NFC North titles and winning the most games (22) in the NFC over the 2008-09 seasons.

In 2009, the Vikings DBs had their depth tested when 2-time Pro Bowler Antoine Winfield was sidelined by injury for 6 games and starting SS Tyrell Johnson missed a game. Benny Sapp and Karl Paymah filled in for Winfield and the team went 4-2 without the emotional leader of the backfield. A pair of rookies, CB Asher Allen and S Jamarca Sanford, started games at nickel back and in place of Johnson respectively and showed their talents for the future. In a breakout season, CB Cedric Griffin led the team with 4 INTs and the DBs racked up 3.0 sacks on the year with- Winfield, Allen and Husain Abdullah all getting to the QB.

Winfield was honored in 2008 with his 1st Pro Bowl berth as a 10-year veteran, joining Darren Sharper in the backfield as recent Vikings to be named to the NFC all-star team. Winfield's career year in 2008 highlighted a group that produced INTs by 7 different players.

The 2008 DBs had to battle injuries and overcome adversity in helping the Vikings rank #6 in the NFL in total defense, the highest finish since 1994. Despite the personnel shuffling, the Vikings DBs helped the total defense jump from #20 in 2007 to #6 in 2008. Each of the 6 top Vikings DBs intercepted passes in 2008 and showed their value in run support.

In 2007, all 4 regular starters in the Vikings secondary scored TDs, 3 by INT return and 1 on a fumble recovery. Woods led a defensive backfield that featured Sharper earning his 4th career Pro Bowl trip. The rock of the unit, Winfield, built on his reputation as the best tackling CB in the NFL and scored on an INT-return in the season opener vs. Atlanta. Against the NY Giants, the Vikings set a team record as they returned 3 INTs for TDs, including a 93-yard return by Dwight Smith that ranks as the 4th-longest INT return in Vikings' history.

The Vikings ended the 2006 season ranked #8 in the NFL in total defense. The Vikings DBs had 3 players tie for the team lead with 4 INTs each- Smith, Sharper and Winfield. The trio also ranked 2nd, 4th and 5th on the team in tackles.

In 2006, Woods helped develop a trio of rookies- CB Cedric Griffin, S Greg Blue and CB Charles Gordon- who started a combined 10 games. Griffin earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Detroit (12/10/06), becoming the 5th Vikings CB to earn the award and only the 2nd since 1992.

In Tampa, Woods coached with 2006 Vikings defensive coordinator and current Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin, fielding top 5 defenses in each of Woods' 2 seasons.

In 2005, Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense, allowing 277.8 yards per game while CB Ronde Barber and LB Derrick Brooks earned Pro Bowl berths for the 2nd consecutive season. Barber set a Tampa Bay single-season record for most tackles by a CB with 120 and he led the team with 7 INTs. In 2004, Woods was part of a defensive staff that helped the Bucs finish 5th in the NFL in total defense and 1st in pass defense.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Woods was the defensive backs coach at Western Michigan for 3 seasons (2001-03) and spent 3 seasons (1998-2000) on the staff at Hofstra where the team made a pair of trips to the 1-AA playoff quarterfinals.

Woods spent a season at Kent State University (1997) as defensive backs coach prior to joining the staff at Hofstra. He also coached the secondary at Grand Valley State (1994-97), ILBs at Northwestern State University in the spring of 1994, and was a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan (1993-94). Woods entered coaching in 1992 at Muskingum College.

Woods was a 4-year letterman at safety and a captain during his senior year at Illinois State University. He earned 1st-team All-Gateway Conference honors in 1991 and earned a degree in criminal justice in 1992.

Woods (6/25/70) was born in North Vandergrift, PA. He and his wife, Ellen, have daughters, Brianna and Danari and son, Geno.

Kanavy joined the Vikings' staff in 2006 and among his first responsibilities was to transform the Vikings strength and conditioning facilities. The willingness of ownership to provide the tools to succeed allowed for the addition of the best in strength and conditioning equipment and a staff with valuable NFL experience.

Kanavy oversees the planning and implementation of all aspects of the Vikings' program, which is tailored to each individual player in order to prevent injury and to improve body composition, flexibility, speed, strength, power and stamina. A unique combination of free weights, machines and metabolic and resisted conditioning is used to address the training needs of veteran players, as well as the physical development of the younger players. Kanavy has also enlisted the services of Carrie Peterson, a registered dietician from the University of Minnesota faculty, in order to optimize team nutrition.

Kanavy came to Minnesota from the Philadelphia Eagles where he helped in the dramatic turnaround of the franchise while serving as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

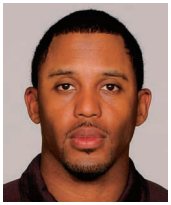

Kanavy received a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from Penn State University in 1993 and earned his master's in sport management from Temple University in 1996.

Kanavy began his professional career working as a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Miami (FL) with the football program. He returned to his alma mater, Penn State, from 1993-95 working as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Nittany Lions football program. In 1994, in only their 2nd season as members of the Big Ten Conference, the squad notched a 12-0 season to win the Big Ten title and brought a Rose Bowl championship to Happy Valley after a 38-20 win over Oregon.

From Penn State, Kanavy joined the Eagles in head coach Ray Rhodes' debut in 1995. The new staff notched a 10-6 regular season, qualified for the playoffs in the first season and went 1-1 in post-season play. In 1999 the Eagles hired Andy Reid as head coach and from 2000-05 the team won 4 NFC East titles, qualified for the playoffs in 5 of 6 seasons and represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX. Kanavy worked on the same staff with Vikings head coach Leslie Frazier , who was defensive backs coach in Philadelphia for four seasons (1999-2002).

A native of Archibald, PA, Kanavy and wife, Kim, reside in suburban Minneapolis with their daughters, Caroline and Kristen.

Eric Sugarman enters his 15th NFL season in 2011 and his 6th with the Vikings. In 2009, Sugarman was part of his 6th Division championship team since 2000 and 7th playoff-bound team. During his tenure with the Vikings, Sugarman and his staff have been instrumental in helping several players return from severe injury by creating or enhancing rehabilitation protocols- notably helping E.J. Henderson come back from a broken leg in 2009 to start the entire 2010 season and earn a Pro Bowl berth.

With the Vikings, Sugarman supervises the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained. He and his staff implement and maintain proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs.

He has also established a strong working relationship with Starkey Hearing of Eden Prairie, allowing him to bring state-of-the-art hearing enhancement and ear protection to the team and staff.

VIKINGS WERE VISIONARY IN VISION PROTECTION

Long-time Vikings Equipment Manager Dennis Ryan has seen his fair share of changes in the NFL over his 36 years working with the team. He has also been on the cutting edge of some changes that have become commonplace in modern football. If necessity is the mother of invention, Ryan fathered his own invention to help former Vikings defensive lineman Mark Mullaney.

After suffering a poke to the eye in a 1984 game, Mullaney and Ryan came up with a solution to allow him back on the field and to play with confidence. Ryan formed a piece of plexiglass to fit into Mullaney's face mask and thus started a trend that would carry on to this day- the visor. Future Vikings would make the look standard, most famously future Hall of Famer Randall McDaniel.

SCOTT STUDWELL

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

A key part of the Vikings for 35 seasons in different capacities, Scott Studwell enters the 2011 season as Director of College Scouting for the 10th season. Studwell is in his 4th decade with the team and is one of the most enduring figures in Vikings history.

Studwell enters his 20th year in the team's Player Personnel department. He retired from his 14-year playing career after the 1990 season (1977-1990) and spent a year as the Vikings Assistant to the President/Player Relations in 1991 before being named the Player Personnel Coordinator from 1992-2001. Studwell was named to his current post as Director of College Scouting in April 2002. His responsibilities include overseeing all college scouting efforts and preparation for the annual NFL Draft.

Studwell has been a part of successful drafts that have included Pro Bowlers or Pro Bowl alternates Robert Smith (1st round, '93), Todd Steussie (1st, '94), Randy Moss (1st, '98), Matt Birk (6th, '98), Daunte Culpepper (1st, '99), Michael Bennett (1st, '01), Bryant McKinnie (1st, '02), Kevin Williams (1st, '03), Adrian Peterson (1st, '07), Sidney Rice (2nd, '07) and Percy Harvin (1st, '09). The Vikings have drafted the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2007 (Peterson) and 2009 (Harvin) with their 1st-round selections.

Studwell's place in team history was immortalized in 2009 when he was inducted into the Vikings Ring of Honor. A member of the Vikings' 25th, 40th and 50th Anniversary All-Time Teams, Studwell holds team records for tackles in a career (1,981), season (230 in '81) and game (24 vs. Detroit in '85), as well as solo tackles in a career (1,308). No other player in Vikings history has over 1,500 career tackles. According to team media guides Studwell has more tackles with one organization than any other player in NFL history. In addition, Studwell is one of only five Minnesota players to participate in over 200 games during his career. PP&K THE VIKINGS WAY

Building football skills and keeping kids involved in an active lifestyle makes Punt, Pass and Kick one of the Vikings longest-standing and most popular events. Every year, kids from across the Upper Midwest compete in local events with the hope of advancing to Mall of America Field for a chance to compete nationally for a PP&K title.

Punt, Pass and Kick was established in 1961, just like the Vikings. The competition is the oldest youth football activity sponsored by the NFL. The PPK program is a national skills competition for boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 15 to compete separately against their peers.

Girls and boys in five separate age divisions (6-7, 8-9, 10-11, 12-13, and 14-15) compete against each other in punting, passing and place kicking in a fun and engaging forum. The PPK program is free – both to organizers who host a local competition and to every youngster who wants to participate!

With more than three million boys and girls from around the country taking part in PPK competitions every year from July through January, it is one of the world's largest youth sports participation programs.

Vikings kicker Mike Mercer shows a youngster the ropes as part of the Punt, Pass and Kick program in 1962.

VIKINGS ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD WINNERS

Since 1984 the Ed Block Courage Awards annually honors one player from every NFL team who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Recipients are selected by a vote of their teammates to recognize both on and off the field extra efforts and their ability to overcome great adversity, whether it be personal or professional. The Ed Block Courage Award is named in honor of Ed Block, the longtime head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts. Winners travel to Baltimore every March to receive their trophy at a gala in their honor, but the experience does not end there. During their stay, the recipients spend time at the local Courage House at St. Vincent's Center, a facility specializing in working with abused children. This visit, and the time spent with the children, allows each recipient to fully comprehend the true meaning of the award. Cedric Griffin's dedication to return from a knee injury suffered in the NFC Championship game at New Orleans and return to the field early in the 2010 season inspired his teammates, who voted him the Vikings 2010 Ed Block Courage Award winner.

KLEINSASSER OUTLASTS EM ALL

Entering his 13th season with the Vikings in 2011, Jim Kleinsasser is the Vikings senior statesman and the longest-tenured athlete with their team in the Twin Cities. As a 2nd-round pick out of North Dakota in 1999, Kleinsasser overcame the small-school stigma to become an integral part of the Vikings offense. Kleinsasser cracked the starting lineup in the 2nd game of his rookie season and has been a fixture ever since. Kleinsasser enters 2011 with 119 career starts and 165 games played, trailing only legendary Vikings TE Steve Jordan for career starts by a TE.

Kleinasser started his 1st career game in Week 2 of his rookie season vs. Oakland (9/19/99). The Vikings lost the game 22-17 but Kleinsasser lined up next to some of the iconic players in team history, including future Hall of Famers Randall McDaniel and John Randle along with Cris Carter and Randy Moss. Kleinsasser, Moss and Matt Birk are the only 3 players from the Vikings roster in that 1999 game against Oakland still playing in the NFL. Kleinsasser has played under 4 head coaches with the Vikings and has played on 5 teams that advanced to the playoffs.

EXPANSION VIKINGS LAND 36 VETS TO START CLUB

From the 1961 Vikings Press, Radio and TV Guide, the following explanation described the Vikings 1961 expansion draft additions that would lay the personnel groundwork of the team:

In an effort to assist the Vikings in stocking the nucleus of a playing roster, the National Football League established a program whereby Minnesota could select three veteran ball players from each team in the NFL, with the lone exception of Dallas.

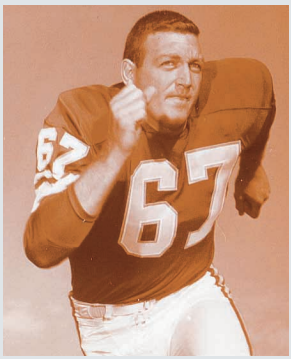

Each club was allowed to "freeze" 30 of the 38 men on its roster. There were not available for selection by the Vikings. From the remaining eight, the Vikings chose three from each of the 12 clubs.

Minnesota purchased these players at a total cost of $600,000. Of this amount, $50,000 went to the league and the balance was divided 12 equal ways. The Vikings' philosophy as pre-determined by General Manager Bert Rose and Head Coach Norm Van Brocklin, was to accent youth in making the selections from the available lists. With very few (and those were notable) exceptions, the Viking choices were in line with that philosophy.

At the upper end of the strata was Don Joyce, the Baltimore Colt defensive end, with his 10 years of NFL experience. One of the six "real vets" was Red Stephens, chosen from Washington. Stephens passed up the opportunity to play additional years in order to accept a coaching position with Notre Dame University.

UPSTART VIKINGS UPSET BEARS IN 1961 OPENER

The players who started the upset win over Chicago in the 1961 opener were a mix of future stars and aging veterans who were embarking on a new adventure with the NFL's fledgling franchise. The team started veteran signal-caller George Shaw instead of rookie phenom Fran Tarkenton, a footnote in history to Tarkenton's Hall of Fame career. Tarkenton came off the bench late in the 1st quarter to spearhead the Vikings to a win over the same Bears club that posted a dominating 30-7 win only two weeks prior in a preseason game played in Cedar Rapids, IA.

Tarkenton threw 4 TDs passes and hit on 17-of-23 for 250 yards. The Vikings opened the scoring in the game with a Mike Mercer FG. Tarkenton connected with Bob Schnelker on the 1st TD pass of his career on a 14-yard toss. Tarkenton went on to throw TDs to Jerry Reichow from 29 yards, Hugh McElhenny from a yard out and ran for a 3-yard TD himself on a QB keeper. He rounded out the day with a 2-yard TD pass to Dave Middleton and the upstart Vikings notched a 37-13 win.

A FORMIDABLE 50

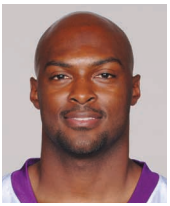

The 50 Greatest Vikings were recognized as the pinnacle of a season-long celebration of the club's 50th season in 2010. The Vikings legends took part in a weekend of activities leading up to the regular season home finale vs. Chicago on Monday Night Football. The game took on a nostalgic feel when the weather-related collapse of the Metrodome room caused the game to be played outdoors at TCF Bank Stadium on a snowy evening, waking the echoes of Vikings football of days gone by.

HOMES OF THE VIKINGS

The Vikings played their home games for 21 seasons (1961-81) at Metropolitan Stadium. The team has played its games for the last 29 seasons (1982-2010) at Mall of America Field at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 51-year history: Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, and Mall of America Field at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis. On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the LA Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over 21 seasons the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. On December 20, 1981, the Vikings played the last game at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year.

The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 63,731. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens and 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings. In 29 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have a 156-81 record, which includes a 6-4 mark in NFL playoff action. The 2011 season marks the Vikings 30th campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome, 9 seasons longer than the Vikings played at Metropolitan Stadium. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1992 and 2001 NCAA Final Four basketball tournaments and the 1998 NFC Championship Game. The Metrodome also hosted an NCAA Men's Basketball Regional in 2000, 2003, and 2005.

The Vikings and Mall of America® announced a partnership on Oct. 1, 2009, for the naming rights to the team's home field. The agreement provided that the field will be called Mall of America Field at Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome for a 3-year period beginning October 5, 2009, and ending February 28, 2012.

"Branding the field as Mall of America Field represents an opportunity to share our name and image with an even larger nationwide audience," said Maureen Bausch, Executive Vice President of Business Development at Mall of America. "It also connects two treasured Minnesota brands- Mall of America and the Minnesota Vikings- which adds value to both companies." As part of the agreement, Mall of America Field was branded with new exterior and interior signage, as well as various promotional materials.

"This was a great opportunity for the Vikings to uniquely partner with a very prominent business that has a deep commitment to the Minnesota community," said Steve LaCroix, Vikings Vice President of Sales and Marketing & Chief Marketing Officer. "As another step in re-branding the stadium for the short-term, we hope Mall of America Field continues to give the team an important home field advantage while providing many exciting memories for our fans."

2011 VIKINGS PRESEASON TELEVISION

Ari Wolfe

Mike Mayock

The 2011 Vikings Preseason TV broadcasts return veteran voices Ari Wolfe and Mike Mayock to the booth for the 5th season. The veteran crew will bring Vikings fans 4 games in the preseason- August 13 at Tennessee, August 20 at Seattle, August 27 vs. Dallas and September 1 vs. Houston.

Wolfe joined the Vikings in 2007 after establishing himself as a fast-rising and versatile broadcasting voice in professional and college sports. Wolfe worked as the football and basketball voice of the University of Louisville Cardinals. In 2005 Wolfe's work was recognized with an Emmy Award for Outstanding Achievement in Play-by-Play for his work with Louisville.

Wolfe has more than a decade of experience in pro sports as a play-by-play man in the Arena Football League. Wolfe has served as a sideline reporter for NFL football, called NFL Europa games on Fox and NFL Network and in 2005 handled preseason TV for the Philadelphia Eagles. Wolfe is a native of Madison, WI and earned his bachelor's degree at Emory University. He went on to finish a master's degree at Southern California where he handled play-by-play and color for USC football, basketball and baseball as a student at KSCR radio in Los Angeles.

Mayock brings the unique perspective of a former NFL player and seasoned broadcaster to the Vikings booth again in 2011. Mayock is a fixture on NFL Network and has established himself as an expert voice on the NFL Draft. He was recently named as a game analyst for NFL Network's Thursday Night Football telecasts. Mayock has climbed the ranks in the broadcasting business starting in the early 1990s at ESPN covering college and Canadian Football League action. He moved to CBS to work on college football and basketball coverage for the network from 1996-99. Mayock called college football games on Fox Sports Net in 2000 and moved to ABC Sports as a college football analyst in 2001. In 2010, Mayock became the color commentator for NBC's Notre Dame Football.

Mayock brings the knowledge of the game and perspective from the field he gained as an NFL DB with the NY Giants from 1982-83 and a standout at Boston College where he was inducted to the Eagles Hall of Fame. As a Giant, Mayock played under the legendary Bill Parcells in his 1st season with the club in '83. Mayock entered the NFL as a 10th-round draft pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers and head coach Chuck Noll in 1981. Mayock's father, Mike, was a 1955 draft pick of the Steelers as an end out of Villanova.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS RADIO NETWORK

VOICES OF THE VIKINGS

Entering his 10th season in 2011 as the Vikings radio play-by-play voice is KFAN-AM radio mid-day personality Paul Allen. Joining Allen as the color commentator is former Vikings LB and coach Pete Bercich.

Allen served as the Vikings Internet web cast play-by-play voice during the 2000 season and called one Vikings game during the 2001 season.

Bercich returns for his 5th season with the broadcasts in 2011 and brings a decade of NFL experience from the field and sideline. A 7th-round draft pick by the Vikings in 1994, Bercich overcame the odds and played for the team from 1995-2000. A standout special teamer, Bercich parlayed his knowledge of the game into a job coaching with the team from 2002-05.

Joining Allen and Bercich from the sidelines and co-hosting the pre-game show will be former Vikings punter Greg Coleman. Coleman punted for the Vikings from 1978-87 and is the team's all-time leader in punts (721), punting yards (29,391) and ranks 4th in career average (40.8 yards per punt).

Pete Bercich, Paul Allen and Greg Coleman

KFAN-FM (100.3 FM) and News Talk (1130 AM) serve as the flagship stations for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in six states.
