2013 TEAM GUIDE

KICKOFF

NEW VIKINGS STADIUM

Following the passage of stadium legislation in both the Minnesota House and Senate on May 10, 2012, the Vikings and the Minnesota Sports Facilities Authority (MSFA) immediately began the design and construction process in order to achieve a 2016 stadium opening. Through a public RFP process, the two parties jointly selected HKS Sports & Entertainment as the stadium architect and Minnesota-based Mortenson Construction as the construction manager. Both have extensive experience in their respective areas with professional sports facilities, with HKS having designed Cowboys Stadium and Lucas Oil Stadium, and Mortenson having built Target Field, TCF Bank Stadium, Xcel Energy Center and Target Center.

With the architect and builder on board, the Vikings and the MSFA unveiled the new stadium design on May 13, 2013, a fitting celebration almost exactly one year after Governor Mark Dayton signed the stadium bill into law on May 14, 2012. The bold, iconic design received high marks from the general public and state leaders for its progressive look and its openness to the surrounding neighborhoods.

Vikings fans also raved about the new design and the stadium's unique features, including the largest transparent ethylene tetraflouroethylene (ETFE) roof in the nation and five pivoting glass doors that will open to the downtown skyline. With the stadium's openness, fans will experience an outdoor feel in a climate-controlled environment. Vikings fans will also be as close to the action as any NFL stadium in the country, with the closest fans sitting just 44 feet from the sideline. Seven levels, including two general admission concourses with 360-degree circulation and various views into the bowl, will be connected with escalators, elevators, stairs and a continuous ramp. Two of the largest and highest-quality HD video boards in the NFL will be located in both the east and west end zones, and over 1,200 HD flat screen televisions will be distributed throughout the concourses.

Groundbreaking for the new 65,000-seat stadium will take place in late Fall 2013, and demolition of Mall of America Field will occur in early 2014 following the completion of the Vikings 2013 season.

ETFE Q&A

What is ETFE?
ETFE is a co-polymer resin that is extruded into a thin film. Originally created by the space industry, the plastic-like material is transparent but can be treated to be translucent, is extremely light-weight, very durable and resistant to corrosion.

What is the life/longevity of ETFE?
ETFE does not degrade with exposure to UV light, atmospheric pollution, harsh chemicals or extreme temperatures. The material has withstood extensive testing within extreme environments and is expected to have a 30-50 year life expectancy while requiring minimal maintenance.

How does ETFE handle weight/pressure?
Despite its weight (1/100 the weight of glass), ETFE handles snow/wind loads very well. In sheet form, it can stretch three times its length without losing elasticity.

How do you clean ETFE?
ETFE systems are extremely low maintenance. The surface of the foil is non-stick and non-porous, which allows the natural action of rain to clean the surface. Deposits of dirt, dust and debris remain unattached and are washed away with moisture, meaning ETFE effectively self-cleans with virtually no need to clean externally.

NEW STADIUM ETFE FACTS

* Largest translucent ETFE roof in North America, spanning 240,000 square feet.
* Only stadium in the nation with clear ETFE roof.
* ETFE will comprise 60% of the entire roof.
* ETFE will cover 60% of the field but angle of roof will allow sunlight over entire field.

VIKINGS CHILDREN'S FUND

There have been many changes on and off the field for the Minnesota Vikings since the team's inception, but the organization's steadfast commitment to children has always remained the same.

In light of the organization's commitment to community, the Vikings Children's Fund (VCF) was established in 1978 and has since raised over $10 million to give back to those in need. The VCF is a means for Vikings players, coaches, cheerleaders, staff and their families to focus their community support to help children. The VCF distributes grants to health, education and family services organizations benefiting children.

In 2012 the VCF provided nearly 80 grants to nonprofit organizations and has donated more than $5 million to support the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics, which boasts highly-skilled pediatricians and excels in break-through research.

To learn more about the VCF - or to make a donation - please call Patrick Leopold at (952) 828-6500. If your charitable organization is interested in applying for a VCF grant, log on to Vikings.com to download a grant application form. Grant applications need to be mailed by the end of March each year for fall awards.

The Vikings have played 253 regular season and playoff games at MOA Field, posting a 164-89 record in those contests. The Vikings first took the field under the dome on August 21, 1982 when Seattle visited in a preseason contest, a 7-3 Vikings win. The Vikings opened the 1982 regular season at home against Tampa Bay on September 12 and posted a 17-10 win over the visiting Bucs. A 5-4 record during the strike-shortened season resulted in the Vikings earning a playoff berth and hosting Atlanta in the first playoff game in the facility, a 30-24 Vikings win. Vikings RB Rickey Young scored the 1st TD in a regular season game at the Dome on a 3-yard run in the 2nd quarter of the 1982 opener against Tampa Bay.

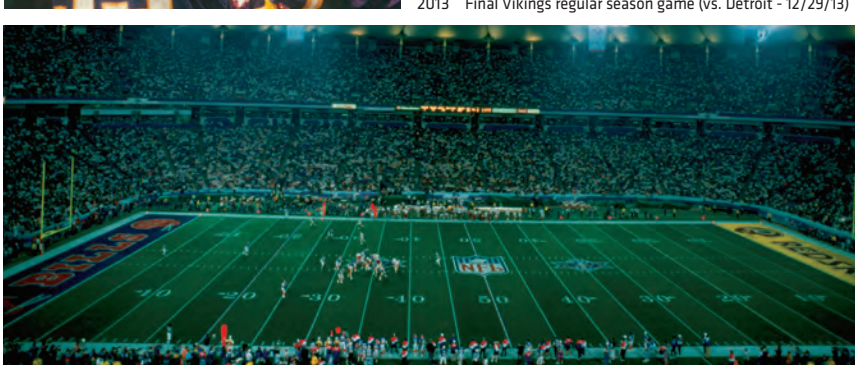

The venue went on to host some of the NFL's record-setting performances, including Adrian Peterson's 296 yards rushing to set the single-game record against San Diego on 11/4/07 and Dallas' Tony Dorsett posting a 99-yard rushing TD, the longest in NFL history against the Vikings on 1/3/83. Gus Frerotte tied an NFL record for the longest pass play with a 99-yard scoring strike to Bernard Berrian against Chicago on 11/30/08.

EXECUTIVES

OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Zygi Wilf's nine seasons leading the ownership group that has stewardship of the Vikings franchise has been highlighted by commitment to core values and building a strong foundation for the future.

The Vikings have made 3 playoff appearances and won 2 NFC North titles in the past 5 seasons behind the Wilf family leadership. The 2012 Vikings exceeded outside expectations by going 10-6 and earning a playoff berth. The club went 4-0 down the stretch and the team was led by NFL Most Valuable Player Adrian Peterson as he finished with 2,097 yards to post the 2nd-most rushing yards in League history. Peterson became only the 3rd Vikings player to earn MVP honors, joining Alan Page in 1971 and Fran Tarkenton in 1975.

Under the direction of the Wilf family ownership group, the Vikings have made strides for the long-term viability of the franchise, highlighted by the approval of a state-of-the art multi-use stadium project in downtown Minneapolis. The project, which gained state approval in May 2012, is set to open in 2016 and will give Vikings fans a premier venue while continuing the Vikings proud tradition of home-field advantage

The new stadium project will create thousands of jobs and will build generations of memories for Vikings fans. Providing a world-class sports and entertainment destination for Minnesota will result in a renewed energy surrounding the market and will capture the attention of fans worldwide.

Throughout their tenure, the Wilf's ownership has established success on the field and with civic and corporate leadership in the community. Over the last eight years, the team has enhanced its already strong reputation as an NFL leader in community relations activities and has raised its level of involvement in civic and business endeavors. Under the stewardship of the Wilfs, the franchise delivered a historic public-private partnership to build a state-of-the-art, multi-use stadium as the centerpiece of an economic development package for the state and region. The Vikings ownership is committed to investing in the state's economy and is dedicated to a world-class showcase for Minnesota's sporting future.

Wilf leads an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development. Joining Wilf in the Vikings venture are his brother, Mark, cousin, Leonard, and nephew, Jeffrey, along with associates from outside the family.

The journey for Wilf from avid New York Giants fan sitting in the bleachers of Yankee Stadium in the 1960s to taking over the leadership of one of the NFL's proudest franchises has been marked by bold and well-founded business decisions, commitment to family and employees, and dedication to community.

Throughout the Wilf family's rise to prominence in real estate development, the consistent focus on philanthropy and never losing touch with family roots has been a foundation and philosophy.

Building a championship team with character has been at the core of the Wilf ownership group's growth as NFL owners. The Wilf family has stayed close to their roots, donating generously to heart-felt causes at home and throughout the world.

Wilf, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Wilf, emigrated with his parents from Europe to the United States in the early 1950s and settled in New Jersey.

Zygi attended nearby Fairleigh Dickinson University, earning a bachelor's degree in economics and later graduated from New York Law School in Manhattan. Wilf, and wife, Audrey, have four children. Wilf was recognized in 2013 with the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Tank Younger Award in honor of his commitment to hiring and promoting minority candidates on the football and business side of the Vikings franchise.

Vikings owner Zygi Wilf helped engineer the team's rebound from a 3-13 season in 2011 to post the biggest turnaround in Vikings history in 2012, going 10-6 and earning a berth in the NFC Playoffs.

MARK WILF

OWNER/PRESIDENT

Vikings President Mark Wilf has played a key role in the development of the business aspects of the club and in organizing the leadership of the franchise to mirror the proven family model that the Wilf family has implemented in other successful ventures. As President, Mark manages day-to-day operations and directs all business departments of the Vikings. Mark also plays a leadership role in the stadium development process.

The Vikings enter 2013 with a leadership structure in place that will commit to the long-term success on the field and continue to enhance the civic and business involvement of the franchise in the region it calls home.

Under the direction of the Wilf family ownership group, the Vikings have made strides to establish the long-term viability of the franchise, highlighted by the approval of a state-of-the art multi-use stadium in downtown Minneapolis. The project, which gained state approval in May 2012, is set to open in 2016 and will give Vikings fans a premier venue while continuing the Vikings proud tradition of home-field advantage

The new stadium project will create thousands of jobs and opportunities and will build generations of memories for Vikings fans moving forward. Providing a world-class sports and entertainment destination for Minnesota will result in a renewed energy surrounding the market and will capture the attention of fans worldwide.

The Vikings have been a valuable part of the fabric of life in the region since beginning play in 1961. The Wilf family takes pride in building on the strong tradition of community involvement the franchise has been known for.

The Wilfs lead an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development.

An NFL franchise is a valuable commodity to a community and the Wilf ownership group recognizes and embraces the role as a civic leader. Under Mark Wilf's direction, the Vikings have enhanced their role as a business and community leader and have embraced their fans and partners locally and worldwide.

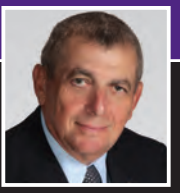

A lifelong fan of the NFL, Mark brings the same passion and desire to succeed in professional football as his elder sibling, Zygi. Throughout their professional lives, the brothers have worked tirelessly to involve everyone associated in their businesses as members of the family. THE EVOLVING SYMBOL OF THE NFL

The NFL shield, one of the most recognizable symbols in the sports world, underwent a stylistic upgrade during the 2008 offseason. The new font and design changes pay homage to the history of the League and the logo while turning an eye forward on the future. As the NFL enters its 94th season in 2013 the new shield symbolizes the progress of the league over those decades and the excellence that has laid the foundation for the modern NFL.

Adjustments to the logo include 8 stars representing the 8 Divisions in the NFL and the design of the football reflects the design of the football atop the Vince Lombardi Trophy. The blue color is darker and bolder than past shields and the shape has been refined over past versions.

RICK SPIELMAN

GENERAL MANAGER

In his 1st season as General Manager of the Vikings in 2012, Rick Spielman oversaw a dramatic roster overhaul and infusion of youth that paid off with a record-setting 7-win improvement over the previous season, a 10-6 record and a Wild Card playoff berth. Spielman enters his 23rd season as an NFL executive in 2013 and his 7th with the Vikings having assembled a solid foundation of talent through the draft, free agency and trades that will pave the way for future success.

Spielman assumed the Vikings' Vice President of Player Personnel role on May 30, 2006 and directed scouting, free agency and draft preparations for the club before taking on his new role for 2012. Spielman has climbed the ranks of NFL personnel departments with Detroit, Chicago and Miami, ascending to General Manager of the Dolphins for the 2004 season. Spielman's tenure with all 3 franchises has been highlighted by drafting impact players throughout the seven rounds and making key trades and free agency acquisitions. Spielman's teams have won 5 divisional titles and advanced to the playoffs 9 times.

The Vikings have drafted players who have made immediate impacts on the club under Speilman's direction. The team has used 5 picks in the 1st round since Spielman joined the club to select Adrian Peterson (2007), Percy Harvin (2008), Christian Ponder (2011), Matt Kalil (2012) and Harrison Smith (2012). All 5 were starters in their rookie seasons, 4-of-the-5 were All-Rookie selections, 3-of-the-5 were Pro Bowlers as rookies and Peterson and Harvin were each named Offensive Rookie of the Year.

The 2012 Vikings relied heavily on contributions from the rookie class and newly-acquired free agents. The Vikings rookies set a team record when 5 (Kalil, Smith, Robinson, Ellison, Wright) started vs. Chicago (12/9/12). Rookie 6th-rounder Blair Walsh kicked his way into the club and NFL record books en route to All-Pro, Pro Bowl and All-Rookie honors, setting an NFL record by hitting 10 FGs of 50+ yards and broke the Vikings rookie scoring record with 141 points. Free agent FB Jerome Felton earned 2nd-Team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and a Pro Bowl trip after clearing traffic for Peterson to post one a season for the ages as he ran for 2,097 yards to finish 9 yards short of the NFL single-season record.

Since Spielman began directing the Vikings drafts and personnel from 2007-12, the Vikings drafted 5 players (Peterson, Sidney Rice, Harvin, Kyle Rudolph, Walsh and Matt Kalil), signed 2 as free agents (Brett Favre, Felton) and acquired 1 in trade (Jared Allen) who have gone on to earn Pro Bowl honors.

In 2008 the Vikings engineered a pre-draft trade to land Allen from Kansas City, who has earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 2008 and 2009. The club signed Favre as a free agent entering 2009 and the veteran QB directed one of the most exciting seasons in team history and set career-bests in several offensive categories. The 2009 Vikings boasted an NFL-best 10 players who earned Pro Bowl honors.

The Vikings ability to identify talent throughout the draft was evidenced in 2009 when all 5 players selected went on to start a game during their rookie season, including All-Rookie honoree OT Phil Loadholt and Harvin.

He began his NFL career as a scout with Detroit in 1990 and worked with the club in college scouting for 5 seasons before adding pro scouting duties in 1995 and '96. He moved to Director of Pro Personnel for the Bears from 1997-99 before joining the Dolphins in 2000 as Vice President of Player Personnel. He was promoted in 2002 to Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel and eventually General Manager in 2004. Spielman left the Dolphins during the 2005 off-season and worked with ESPN as an NFL analyst before joining the Vikings. While with Miami for 5 seasons, the team had a winning record 4 times, won the AFC East in 2000 and went to the playoffs in 2000 and 2001 but missed the playoffs in 2002 and 2003 despite 9-7 and 10-6 records respectively.

Spielman got his first taste of NFL personnel analysis as a college scout with Detroit from 1990-94 and added pro scouting responsibilities for his final 2 seasons (1995-96) in the Motor City. The Lions enjoyed one of the finest stretches in franchise history in the early 1990s, winning a pair of NFC Central titles in 1991 and 1993 and the team advanced to the playoffs in 1991, '93, '94 and '95. The trio of consecutive post-season berths was a first for the team. The 1991 team set a franchise record with a 12-4 regular season mark, hosted and won a playoff game for the first time since 1957 and advanced to the NFC Championship Game against Washington, losing out on the chance to play in Super Bowl XXVI at the Metrodome.

Following Spielman's playing career at Southern Illinois from 1983-86 he was invited to training camp with the San Diego Chargers (1987) and Lions (1988). As a collegiate player, Spielman was a 1st-Team All-Gateway Conference honoree as a junior and part of the 1983 NCAA Division I-AA national championship team as a redshirt freshman. His younger brother, Chris, was a Pro Bowl LB and a 2nd-round pick of the Lions in 1988. He played 11 NFL seasons with Detroit (1988-95) and Buffalo (1996-98).

Spielman has a bachelor's degree from Southern Illinois and a master's from Ohio State. He and his wife, Michele, have been active with children's charities. The couple has adopted six children, Juan, Luis, Ronnie, J.D., Omie and Whitney.

LESTER BAGLEY

VICE PRESIDENT OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS & STADIUM DEVELOPMENT

Lester Bagley brings more than two decades of public affairs and communications experience to his role as the Vikings Vice President of Public Affairs and Stadium Development. Currently in his 9th year as vice president, Bagley oversees the team's public relations, public affairs, community relations and charitable giving initiatives.

This past spring, Bagley led the organization to its biggest victory off the field when he helped secure financing for a new publicly-owned and operated stadium for the State of Minnesota and the Vikings. In an extremely difficult political environment and economy, Bagley led the public discussion and advocacy effort on behalf of the Vikings. With Bagley's guidance, a coalition of elected officials, Vikings fans and business, labor and community leaders organized to advance the stadium issue at the Minnesota Capitol. On May 10, 2012, the House and Senate passed legislation to construct a $975 million multi-purpose stadium in Minneapolis. A few days later, Governor Mark Dayton signed the stadium bill into law.

A top priority for the Vikings and the NFL, passage of the stadium bill secures the team in Minnesota and gives Vikings fans a premier venue to watch their team moving forward. The multi-purpose facility will also host national and international events, including NCAA basketball, a Super Bowl and concerts, as well as high school and amateur sports and other community events. The stadium will provide Minnesota with a first-class sports and entertainment destination and will serve as a catalyst to redevelop the Downtown East neighborhood of Minneapolis.

With the stadium bill behind him, Bagley has turned his attention to the design and construction of the new facility. Over the next three-plus years, the Vikings will work closely with the Minnesota Sports Facilities Authority to ensure that a world-class facility is constructed for the State, the team and Vikings fans. Groundbreaking is expected in the fall of 2013, followed by nearly three years of construction, with the stadium opening in 2016.

In addition to his time spent on the team's stadium efforts, Bagley has been instrumental in the Wilf ownership group's efforts over the last several years to enhance the Vikings presence in the Twin Cities community and throughout the State. In addition to overseeing all Vikings communications efforts, Bagley plays a leadership role with the team's Community Relations and the Vikings Children's Fund. He developed the Vikings "You Made the Team" Community Tour, that has connected the team with Vikings fans and charitable causes throughout Minnesota. Bagley also serves as a co-chair of the Vikings London Task Force, as the organization works to strengthen its global brand by taking on the Pittsburgh Steelers in London's Wembley Stadium on September 29, 2013.

Before joining the Vikings, Bagley operated Bagley Public Affairs from 1999-2005. The Minneapolis firm specialized in issues management, public relations and public affairs. From 1993-99, Bagley served as associate director and helped lead the Minnesota Business Partnership, the public policy organization comprised off the chief executive officers of 100 of Minnesota's largest companies. He also spent five years working in public affairs and public relations in Washington D.C.

A native of Barron, WI, Bagley began college at the University of Minnesota before graduating from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) with a bachelor's degree in political science. He served as a White House intern and studied at Oxford University during his undergraduate days.

Bagley currently sits on the boards of the Public Affairs Council, Athletes Committed to Educating Students (ACES), the Minneapolis Regional Chamber of Commerce, Meet Minneapolis and the Vikings Children's Fund.

In his 13th season with the Vikings, Steve LaCroix serves as the team's Vice President of Sales and Marketing & Chief Marketing Officer. LaCroix oversees all aspects of Vikings-generated revenues, including corporate sales, sponsorships, media sales, ticket sales, suite sales and hospitality. He also leads the team's radio and television programming, web site, digital and social media initiatives, merchandise and e-commerce operations, community and special events, marketing partnerships, advertising, branding, promotions, fan relations and game day activities.

Following the passage of stadium legislation in 2012, LaCroix immediately began a significant role on the Vikings stadium team, assisting with the design and construction process. He will also direct all sales, marketing and revenue-generating initiatives for the new facility set to open in 2016, including pursuing naming rights, building partnerships and brand integration opportunities for the facility and overseeing multiple new offerings related to season tickets, premium seating, club seats and suites located in the stadium. LaCroix and the Vikings will explore all avenues to ensure the new stadium provides the premier fan experience for Vikings fans.

LaCroix has been involved in some historic moments for the Vikings organization over the years, including playing a major role in the franchise's 50th season in 2010. The 50th season campaign was highlighted with a weekend celebration event attended by 46 of the top 50 figures in team history followed by a Monday Night Football matchup against the Chicago Bears, the Vikings first outdoor home game in 29 years due to the unexpected collapse of the Metrodome roof.

In his Minnesota tenure, LaCroix has led a variety of additional new initiatives. This offseason the team introduced an enhanced Norseman logo and new uniforms that add a unique twist to the Vikings classic look. It is the second uniform change under LaCroix's leadership. The club has also brought radio and television broadcast rights in-house and started year-round weekly television and radio programming. The Vikings have had multiple full re-designs of vikings.com, opened Vikings Locker Room official retail stores across the Twin Cities and constructed two club seating offerings (Touchdown Club and Legends Club) that created the first premium seat offered at Mall of America Field. Fans have been treated to the introduction of Viktor the Viking, the official team mascot, and the Skol Line drum line. Several new fans events, including Inside the Vikings, State of the Vikings and Vikings Fan Forums further connect the club with its fan base. Under LaCroix, the Vikings sold out 144 consecutive games from 1998-2011 at Mall of America Field.

Also included in LaCroix's accomplishments is the launch of the Vikings Entertainment Network (VEN) in 2009. LESLIE FRAZIER

HEAD COACH
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 26TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 21ST SEASON (15 COACHING/6 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 7TH SEASON, 3RD AS HEAD COACH

Leslie Frazier led the Vikings to a 2012 Wild Card playoff berth in his 2nd full season coaching the club and shattered outside expectations for a team that underwent a significant roster overhaul and relied on a talented but young core group with veteran leadership at key positions. The 2012 team marked Frazier's 8th team in 14 seasons coaching in the NFL that advanced to the playoffs, 6 of those teams as division winners, and he has suffered only 3 losing seasons.

Since taking over the head coaching duties of the Vikings for the final 6 games of the 2010 season, Frazier has been committed to building a roster with talent and character that places value on playing smart, team-oriented football.

The 2013 Vikings will feature talented young players that will complement a core of veteran leaders. The 2013 draft class includes 3 picks in the 1st round for only the 2nd time in team history with DT Sharrif Floyd (#23 pick), CB Xavier Rhodes (#25) and WR Cordarrelle Patterson (#29).

With the unique perspective of a Super Bowl winner as a player and coach, Frazier has a proven track record of success. His 1st title came as a starting CB with the 1985 Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX and he followed it in Super Bowl XLI as a coach with Indianapolis against his old Bears squad.

The 2012 Vikings set a franchise record by improving by 7 victories over the season before, finishing 10-6 to earn the 6th seed in the NFC playoffs after a 3-13 campaign in 2011. The 2012 team was 1 of 4 participants in the 2012 playoffs that were not in the tournament the season before. The Vikings came together as a team when it mattered most, winning the final 4 games of the regular season, including wins over playoff-bound Houston on the road and against NFC North champion Green Bay at home in the regular season finale. The Vikings counted on several rookies and 2nd-year players making huge contributions.

The team started rookies LT Matt Kalil (1st round, #4) and S Harrison Smith (1st round, #29) in all 16 games while rookie kicker Blair Walsh had an NFL record-setting debut season. All 3 newcomers earned All-Rookie honors from the PFWA while 7 players earned Pro Bowl berths- Adrian Peterson, Jerome Felton, Kyle Rudolph, Matt Kalil and Jared Allen, Chad Greenway and Walsh. Peterson and Walsh were 1st-Team All-Pro selections by the Associated Press, Felton and Greenway were 2nd-Team selections and Rudolph was named Pro Bowl MVP. Peterson's remarkable NFL MVP and Offensive Player of the Year season was even more notable as he had recovered from a severe knee injury to end the 2011 season.

Peterson had a season for the ages in 2012, rushing for 2,097 yards and earning consensus All-Pro honors along with amassing the 2nd-highest yardage total in a single season in NFL history and shattering his own previous team rushing record of 1,760 yards. Even more remarkable, the Vikings offensive line featured new starters at 3 positions- LT, LG and RG- up front paving the way for Peterson, led by C John Sullivan, who earned All-Pro honors from the PFWA/Pro Football Weekly.

In his 2 full seasons coaching the Vikings in 2011 and 2012 the team has been witness to some of the top record-setting performances in franchise and NFL history. Adrian Peterson's remarkable comeback from a severe knee injury at the end of 2011 to post one of the most epic rushing seasons in NFL history was a story that captured the attention of the country. Peterson's 2,097 yards rushing ranks 2nd in NFL history. His play on the field and humility off it was an inspiration. If not for Peterson's performance, Walsh's record-setting debut season would have been the story of the team. He broke the NFL record for 50-yard FGs by going 10-of-10 and booted a game winner in the 1st game of the season and in the final regular season game of the season to seal a playoff berth. Walsh's 141 points set a Vikings rookie record and ranks 2nd in NFL history by a rookie. Jared Allen had a record-setting 2011 with 22.0 sacks, setting a new team record and falling just shy of the NFL record of 22.5 en route to finishing runner-up in Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors along with notching a sack in a team-record 13 games during the season.

Frazier notched a 3-3 record on an interim basis in the final 6 games of 2010, including winning his opening contest at Washington and an upset win over eventual NFC East champion Philadelphia on the road. His steady and consistent personality and coaching style helped the Vikings prepare weekly under unprecedented circumstances in a harrowing three-week span. The team endured the collapse of the roof on their home stadium, forcing the club to play consecutive "home" games at Detroit's Ford Field against the NY Giants and at TCF Bank Stadium on the campus of the University of Minnesota against the Chicago Bears. Following the chaotic two weeks, the team experienced a two-day weather delay of a Sunday Night Football game at Philadelphia to Tuesday night, turning a routine road trip into a three-night extended stay.

The Vikings 2010 defense ended the season ranked #8 in the NFL, the 3rd straight season the Vikings ranked in the top 10 in total defense for the first time since 1992-94. Offensively, the Vikings were stifled by injuries and started 3 QBs and centers during the season. The running game continued to excel as Pro Bowler Adrian Peterson notched 1,298 yards and 12 TDs. team was forced through injuries to turn to rookie QB Joe Webb to start the final 2 games of the season, winning his debut in an upset at Philadelphia.

Frazier's defense led the NFL in 2009 with 48.0 sacks and the team ranks 5th in the NFL with 162.0 sacks from 2007-10. The Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL in 2009, the 2nd straight season ranked #6 in total defense. The mark was the 1st time since 1993-94 the team ranked in the NFL's top 10 in consecutive seasons.

Frazier helped his players achieve at a high level during his tenure as Vikings Defensive Coordinator and had 4 players earn 5 NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. Frazier has also had 6 players (Allen, E.J. Henderson, Darren Sharper, Kevin Williams, Pat Williams and Antoine Winfield) earn a total of 13 Pro Bowl berths.

The 2009 Vikings used a dynamic front line to continue their tradition of stopping the run and put pressure on opposing QBs. The unit ranked #2 in the NFL against the run after leading the league for the previous 3 seasons. The Vikings tied for the NFL lead by allowing only 5 rushing TDs. The NFL-best 48 sacks posted by the Vikings was the 5th-most in team history and Allen led the way with 14.5. Allen and DT Kevin Williams were both recognized as Associated Press 1st Team All-Pros and were named to the Pro Bowl along with CB Antoine Winfield.

Frazier's 2008 defensive unit ranked #6 overall in the NFL and #1 in the league against the run, making the Vikings the 1st squad since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to lead the league in rushing defense for 3 straight seasons. The Vikings #6 rank in total defense was the highest since the 1994 season. Of the teams ranked in the top 6 in the NFL, the other 5 had ranked in the NFL's top 10 in 2007 while the Vikings were #20 in 2007, making a 14-position improvement in 2008. The 2008 Vikings defense featured 4 players earning Pro Bowl berths, including 3 defensive linemen with Allen, DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams and rounded out with 10th-year CB Winfield earning his 1st Pro Bowl honors. The Vikings dominant line showed prowess as pass rushers as well as against the run. Allen tied for 5th in the NFL with 14.5 sacks and the team total of 45 ranked 4th in the NFL. The Vikings ranked 3rd in the NFL in 2008 by allowing only a 33.5% conversion rate on 3rd down and were 5th in the NFL by allowing 15.8 offensive points per game.

The 2008 Vikings had to overcome the season-ending injury to emerging star E.J. Henderson at MLB in the 4th game and did not have the services of priority free agent signee Madieu Williams at FS until the 9th game of the year as he recovered from preseason injury. The club lost its top nickel back, Charles Gordon, for the 2nd half of the season and 3-time Pro Bowl DT anchor Pat Williams was sidelined the final 2 regular season games and Wild Card playoffs with a shoulder injury. The depth of the roster and the preparation of the coaching staff kept the team on track despite those setbacks.

In his debut season with the Vikings in 2007, the team maintained its dominance against the run, posting the #1 rush defense in the NFL and allowed a mere 3.1 yards per carry. The anchors of the Vikings defense, DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams, were joined by S Darren Sharper as Pro Bowl honorees, the most defensive Vikings to earn trips to Hawaii since 1992.

Frazier's defense was opportunistic, scoring on 6 interception returns to tie a Vikings record and added a pair of TDs on fumble recoveries. The Vikings' 6 scores by interception return ranks tied for 5th-most in a season in NFL history. The team scored on 3 interceptions in a key road game against the NY Giants to set a team record against the eventual Super Bowl XLII champions. The Vikings tied for 3rd in the NFL in 2007 by allowing only 7 rushing TDs and were 5th in the NFC in total offensive points allowed, an average of 17.8 points per game.

The Vikings defense responded to new faces and new positions with impressive performances in 2007. The team was led in tackles by E.J. Henderson's career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. Henderson added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-best 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors and garnering All-Pro votes. The Vikings LBs entered 2007 with only SLB Ben Leber playing his same position from the previous year. One of the most impressive individual performances came from 2nd-year WLB Chad Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury but came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, lead the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and have a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2007 Vikings rush defense was the envy of the NFL, allowing 74.1 yards per game on the ground and allowed only 1 opponent RB to break the 100-yard mark.

Frazier came to Minnesota after coaching DBs with Indianapolis and serving as Special Assistant to Head Coach Tony Dungy for 2 seasons. The 2006 Colts defense clamped down on opponents throughout the playoff run that brought the franchise its 1st Super Bowl title since 1970. The team notched 7 interceptions, 8 sacks and took away 6 fumbles. The Indy defense allowed only 2 second-half TDs in the 4 post-season games and held the Bears out of the end zone for the final 3 quarters of Super Bowl XLI en route to the win.

In his 1st season with Indianapolis in 2005, Frazier helped S Bob Sanders earn a berth in the Pro Bowl in his 1st season as a full-time starter and became the 1st Colts DB to play in the game since 1971. The Colts ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense after ranking 29th overall in 2004 and improved in yards allowed per game from 370.6 per game to 307.1.

Prior to his tenure with Indianapolis, Frazier served as defensive coordinator with Cincinnati in 2003 and '04 where he helped the Bengals go .500 in consecutive seasons for the 1st time in 12 seasons. Frazier's NFL coaching debut came from 1999-2002 with Philadelphia where he worked with the Eagles DBs. Frazier helped CB Troy Vincent earn 4 Pro Bowl berths, S Brian Dawkins went to the game 3 times and Bobby Taylor appear in the all-star game once. The trio all earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2002. Frazier was part of an impressive program-building project in Philadelphia that saw the team improve from a 5-11 record in 1999 to 11-5 in 2000, 11-5 in 2001 and 12-4 in 2002. The team advanced to the playoffs in each of Frazier's final 3 seasons with the Eagles, including winning the NFC East in 2001 and '02 and advancing to the NFC Championship game in both seasons.

Frazier spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level before returning to the NFL. In 1997 and '98 he worked with the DBs at Illinois on Ron Turner's staff, who Frazier would face 10 seasons later in the Super Bowl. The staff was part of an impressive rebuilding project with the Illini.

Building programs was not unusual for Frazier before going to Illinois and the Eagles. He started the Trinity College football program from the ground up as the school started a football team with Frazier as head coach in 1988. Frazier turned the team into a winner, claiming Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles twice. The school, now known as Trinity International University, named the football field in Frazier's honor in 1997 in tribute to his impact on the campus.

As a player, Frazier was part of the legendary Chicago Bears defense that keyed the Super Bowl XX win over New England. He was a starter at CB on the 1985 Super Bowl team and played for the Bears from 1981-86. He led Chicago in interceptions in 1983, '84 and '85 but his career was cut short by a severe knee injury suffered in the Super Bowl. During his career he had 20 INTs in 65 games and returned a pair for TDs. Frazier was an All-America DB and baseball standout at Alcorn State University. In 2007, Frazier was inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame and in 2012 he earned induction into the Alcorn State Hall of Fame. Frazier was honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance during its Salute to Excellence Awards during Super Bowl XLVII week activities in New Orleans.

Frazier was born (4/3/59) in Columbus, MS and attended S.D. Lee High. Frazier and wife, Gale, have 3 children- Kieron, Chantel and Corey, who plays DB at Rice. He holds a degree in business administration and was active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes throughout his playing career. Frazier works closely with All-Pro Dad, an organization that stresses fathers taking an active role and putting family first.

BILL MUSGRAVE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 17TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 21ST SEASON (15 COACHING/6 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

Bill Musgrave enters his 3rd season as Offensive Coordinator of the Vikings in 2013 and 21st NFL campaign overall as both a player and coach. The 2012 Vikings relied on a strong rushing offense to go 10-6 and earn an NFC Wild Card berth, highlighted by Adrian Peterson's record-setting 2,097 yards, the 2nd-best single-season mark in NFL history. Peterson earned the NFL's MVP and Offensive Player of the Year, becoming only the 3rd Viking to earn MVP, joining Alan Page in 1971 and Fran Tarkenton in 1975. The Vikings offense was represented at the Pro Bowl by Peterson, FB Jerome Felton, TE Kyle Rudolph and T Matt Kalil, with Rudolph taking home Pro Bowl MVP honors.

Peterson's remarkable season set team and NFL records along the way, matching the Vikings single-season mark with 2,634 team rushing yards. Peterson set a new franchise rushing record, tied the team record with 10 games of 100+ rushing yards, tied an NFL record with 7 runs of 50+ yards in a season and broke the 200-yard mark in a game twice. The 2012 Vikings entered the season with a re-tooled offense line that featured new starters at RG (Brandon Fusco, 2nd year) and LT (Kalil, rookie) and a re-positioned starter at LG (Charlie Johnson from LT). The line started all 16 games and the playoff contest with the same 5 players intact. Vikings 2nd-year QB Christian Ponder started all 16 regular season games and progressed throughout the season, culminating with his best career game in the regular season finale vs. Green Bay, throwing for 3 TDs and a career-best 120.2 passer rating in the must-win game to earn an NFC Wild Card berth. Ponder made strides forward in his 1st full season as the starter, improving his passer rating by 11 points (81.2) and his completion percentage by nearly 8 points (64.2) and threw only 12 INTs in 483 attempts, an INT percentage of 2.5, both ranking in the Vikings top 10 for a season in team history.

The 2012 Vikings passing game featured Rudolph hauling in 9 TDs to rank tied for 2nd in the NFL at his position and ranked 2nd in Vikings history by a TE. WR Percy Harvin led the team with 62 receptions despite missing the final 7 games of the season. Rookie WR Jarius Wright stepped into the lineup for the final 7 games of the season and hauled in the 2 longest pass plays for the Vikings all season- a 65-yarder vs. Green Bay (12/30/12) and a 54-yarder on his 1st career reception vs. Detroit (11/11/12).

The 2011 Vikings offense tallied 75 rushes of 10+ yards, keeping defenses off balance through creative personnel packages. Harvin's role in the offense was greatly enhanced as the 3rd-year player set a career-high with 87 receptions, the 6th-most in the NFL for the season and 4th-most among WRs. Harvin set a Vikings record with 52 carries for 345 yards and 2 TDs on the ground, ranking among the NFL's all-time leaders for rushing by a WR.

The Vikings moved 1st-round draft pick Ponder into the starting lineup for the final 10 games of the 2011 season and he immediately found a connection with fellow rookie Rudolph, who tied for 2nd on the club in TD catches and earned a spot on the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team. Ponder showed promise for the future by leading the NFL in red zone passing with a 114.3 passer rating and ranked among NFL leaders in 3rd-down accuracy. The Vikings turned to RB Toby Gerhart while Peterson recovered from injuries late in the season and the bruising back responded with his 1st career 100-yard day at Washington and rumbled for the Vikings longest run of the season with a 67-yarder in the game. The Vikings ground attack ranked #2 in yards per attempt in the NFL and #4 in the NFL in total yards rushing per game.

A former NFL signal-caller himself, Musgrave was a backup to Joe Montana and Steve Young in San Francisco from 1991-94, working under coaches Mike Holmgren, Mike Shanahan and Gary Kubiak. Musgrave was a member of the 49ers club that won Super Bowl XXIX over San Diego following the 1994 season. He played from 1995-96 with Denver where he backed up John Elway when Shanahan took over the reins as Broncos head coach. Musgrave was originally drafted in the 4th round by Dallas in 1991.

During Musgrave's coaching tenure with Atlanta from 2006-10, he helped mold the Falcons offense, highlighted by an impressive 2010 season, leading the way for a 13-3 regular season mark. QB Matt Ryan had a career-best 28 TDs, 91.0 passer rating, 3,705 yards and helped WR Roddy White lead the NFL with 115 catches and rank 2nd in the NFL with 1,389 yards. Ryan earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2010 and headed a group of 4 other Falcons offensive skill position players who were recognized as Pro Bowlers- White, RB Michael Turner, FB Ovie Mughelli and TE Tony Gonzalez.

Prior to coaching in Atlanta, Musgrave worked with the Redskins QBs in 2005 and tutored veteran Mark Brunell to a career-best 23 TD passes, helping Washington earn a playoff berth and road victory over NFC South Champion Tampa Bay. Musgrave worked with Jacksonville in 2003-04, serving as offensive coordinator as Fred Taylor broke the franchise rushing record with 1,572 yards on the ground in 2003 and followed in 2004 with 1,224 yards.

During the 1999 and 2000 campaigns, Musgrave worked with the QBs in Carolina and also served as offensive coordinator in 2000 under George Seifert. In 1999, Panthers QB Steve Beuerlein had a career-year, throwing for 36 TDs and 4,436 yards to finish with a passer rating of 94.6 and a Pro Bowl nod. The 1999 Carolina offense ranked 2nd in the NFL in passing and 4th in scoring. Musgrave's first NFL coaching experience came at Oakland in 1997 when Al Davis hired him to coach the Raider QBs. Oakland starter Jeff George led the AFC that season with 29 TDs. The next season in Philadelphia in 1998, Musgrave served as offensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season.

A 4-year starter at QB for Oregon from 1987-90, Musgrave was a 3-year team captain for the Ducks and led the team to consecutive bowl bids in 1989 and 1990. He established 15 school passing records and posted a 25-10 record as a starter. His 60 TD passes and 8,000+ passing yards made him the 2nd Pac-10 player behind John Elway to eclipse those numbers. After throwing for 382 yards and earning Anaheim Freedom Bowl MVP in 1990, Musgrave was selected to play in 3 post-season all-star games- the Japan Bowl, Hula Bowl and East-West Shrine Game in Palo Alto, CA. He was awarded the Joe Roth Memorial Outstanding Player Award after leading the West Squad to victory in the Japan Bowl. Musgrave was elected to the University of Oregon's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

A native of Grand Junction, CO, Musgrave was named Colorado High School Athlete of the Year for 1985-86 as well as being the recipient of the Denver Post's Gold Helmet Award as the prep football player of the year. He was inducted into the state of Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

MIKE PRIEFER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
NFL EXPERIENCE: 12TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

Mike Priefer enters his 3rd year with the Vikings organization as the Special Teams Coordinator. The 12-year NFL coaching veteran has held the same title with the Denver Broncos and Kansas City Chiefs in years past.

Priefer's special teams units are known for creating big-play opportunities. Since entering the League, Priefer has seen his units account for 15 scores (7 KOR, 5 PR, 1 blocked punt, 1 botched FG and 1 safety). He has also seen his squads block 19 kicks (7 punts, 8 FGs, 4 PATs) since 2002.

Since joining the NFL, Priefer has helped David Tyree (ST), Chris Hanson (P) and Blair Walsh (K) earn Pro Bowl nods. Priefer went to the playoffs with the Giants in 2005 (NFC East Champions), 2006 with Kansas City (Wild Card) and 2012 with the Vikings (Wild Card). In 2012, Priefer was named Special Teams Coach of the Year as voted on by his NFL counterparts and his units ranked #1 in the NFL by the acclaimed Dallas Morning News' special teams rankings.

The 2012 season saw the Vikings' special teams units reach new heights. The Vikings punt and kick return coverage units allowed 0 TDs on the season while ranking 3rd in the NFC with an opponent start average at the 20.8 yard line. His KOR unit ranked 2nd in the NFL with a 24.6 average start following kickoffs. Rookie kicker Blair Walsh made NFL history going 10-10 on FGs of 50+ yards while being selected to his first Pro Bowl along with being named 1st-Team All Pro by the AP. Walsh tacked on another NFL record with 3 50+ (50,51,53) FGs in a game (at St. Louis, 12/16/12). Walsh set a Vikings record with 53 touchbacks in 2012 and tied the longest FG in franchise history with a 56 yarder (at Houston, 12/23/12). Walsh's 53 touchbacks and 92.1 FG % (35-38) were NFL rookie records. To bookend the season, Walsh connected on game-tying (55) and game-winning (38) FGs in Week 1 vs. Jacksonville, the 1st rookie kicker in NFL history to hit game-tying and game-winning FGs in his 1st NFL game. In Week 17, Walsh sent the Vikings to the playoffs with a 29-yard FG against Green Bay (12/30) as time expired. Walsh was named ST Player of the Week 3 times in 2012 while being the NFC ST Player of the Month in December.

The return game shined in Week 4 at Detroit (9/30) where KR Percy Harvin took back the opening kickoff 105 yards for a TD. Not to be left out, PR Marcus Sherels returned a punt 77-yards for his 1st NFL TD in the victory over the Lions. As a unit, the Vikings committed the fewest turnovers (0), made the most FGs (35) and allowed the fewest points (0) in the NFL on special teams. The Dallas Morning News ranked the Vikings special teams as tops in the NFL.

Priefer could not have asked for a better start to the 2011 season, his 1st in Minnesota. Harvin took the opening kickoff, Week 1 at San Diego, 103 yards for a TD. Harvin later made NFL history in Week 12 at Atlanta when he returned a kickoff 104 yards before being stopped at the 3-yard line. It was the longest non-scoring play in League history. The Vikings set a team record in 2011 with a 26.9 average on KORs, good for 2nd in the NFL.

During the 2010 season Priefer had 3 players rank in the Top 10 in each of their respective categories. Eddie Royal was 6th in the NFL with an 11.9 punt return average. Rookie Eric Decker was 10th in KOR average at 25.3 per return. Kicker Matt Prater was tied for 6th in TBs with 20.

In his 1st year as the Broncos' special teams coordinator in 2009, Priefer led a unit that placed 3rd in the league in average opponent drive start after kickoffs (22.9-yard line) and featured 2 AFC Special Teams Player of the Month winners (K Matt Prater and WR Eddie Royal).

Royal in 2009 became only the 11th player in NFL history to have both a kickoff and punt return for a TD in the same game (at San Diego, 10/19/09) while placing 7th in the league in punt return average (11.2 yds.). Prater finished the year making 19 of his final 20 FG attempts and tied for the 3rd-most FGs for a season in club history (30).

Before joining the Broncos, Priefer coordinated Kansas City's special teams from 2006-08 following stints as an assistant special teams coach with the NY Giants (2003-05) and Jacksonville (2002). His coaching career began at his alma mater, the U.S. Naval Academy, as a GA in 1994, and he owns 18 years of experience at the professional and collegiate levels.

During his 3 seasons as the Chiefs' special teams coach from 2006-08, Priefer helped Dustin Colquitt register the 3rd-best net punting average (39.2 yds.) and the 6th-best gross average (44.8 yds.) in the NFL for that period. Colquitt's net averages for each of his 3 seasons under Priefer rank as the top-3 single-season performances in Chiefs history.

Kansas City also placed 5th in the AFC in opponent PR average (8.2 yds.) in Priefer's 3 seasons and blocked a total of 4 kicks (3 punts, 1 FG) during that period.

In 2008, Colquitt ranked 7th in the NFL in net average (39.2 yds.) under Priefer's guidance with the Chiefs, who also scored a TD that year on a botched opponent fake FG attempt. Priefer's kickoff coverage unit was one of the league's best a year earlier with Kansas City finishing the 2007 season 5th in the NFL in opponent average drive start after kickoffs (26.1-yd. line).

During Priefer's 1st year with the Chiefs in 2006, Colquitt set a franchise season record with a 39.3-yard net average that led the NFL. Priefer's special teams also tied for the NFL lead with 2 blocked punts, including 1 returned for a TD, and accounted for 1 PR TD (Dante Hall, 60 yds.).

As assistant special teams coach for the Giants from 2003-05, Priefer coached a unit that tied for 3rd in the league with 3 KOR TDs and adding 1 PR TD during that period. The Giants blocked 7 kicks (3 punts, 3 FGs and 1 PAT) with Priefer on staff, and the coach worked with David Tyree during the 2005 season when the WR earned Pro Bowl honors as a cover man.

The Giants' special teams in 2005 placed 2nd in the NFL in the comprehensive rankings compiled by The Dallas Morning News. Priefer worked with a unit that year that included a Pro Bowler (Tyree) and the league's top-scoring kicker (Jay Feely - 148 pts.) while ranking 4th in the league in average starting position after kickoffs (30.7-yard line).

In 2003, Priefer helped the Giants tie for 2nd in the NFL with 4 blocked kicks (2 punts, 1 FG, 1 PAT) during that campaign.

Priefer entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Jaguars in 2002 as their assistant special teams coach. That season, punter Chris Hanson earned the 1st Pro Bowl selection of his career after leading the AFC in both gross (44.2 yds.) and net (37.6 yds.) average. Jacksonville also posted 1 PR TD (Bobby Shaw, 69 yds.) and 2 blocked kicks (1 punt, 1 FG).

From 1994-2001, Priefer coached special teams at the collegiate level, working for Navy (1994-96), Youngstown State (1997-98), VMI (1999) and Northern Illinois (2000-01).

Priefer's instruction at Northern Illinois helped WR Justin McCareins earn MAC Special Teams Player of the Year honors. Along with coaching the Huskies' special teams, Priefer coached DTs during his 2 seasons at NIU.

He spent a season at VMI in 1999, coaching its special teams and inside LBs, after a 2-year stint at Youngstown State under Head Coach Jim Tressel. He worked with the special teams, tackles and tight ends at Youngstown State and was part of its Division I-AA National Championship squad in 1997.

Priefer began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Navy in 1994, instructing its special teams that season before coaching its LBs and defensive line from 1995-96. He also coached special teams and served as defensive coordinator for Navy's junior varsity team from 1995-96.

A QB and WR on Navy's junior varsity and lightweight teams from 1985-88, Priefer flew helicopters as a Naval officer for 6 years (1989-94) after his graduation. His work included tours of duty on the USS America in the Persian Gulf and the Mediterranean Sea.

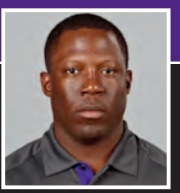

Priefer owns a bachelor's degree from Navy and received a master's degree from the University of Maryland in 1997. His father, Chuck, was a long-time coach who worked in the NFL (Detroit, Green Bay and San Diego) for 17 seasons and coached at the collegiate level for 12 years.

Priefer was born in Cleveland and moved frequently as a coach's son, graduating from high school in Green Bay. He is married to Debbie, and the couple has four children: Samantha, Michael Jr., Wilson and Katie.

ALAN WILLIAMS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 22ND SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON

Alan Williams enters his 13th season of NFL coaching in 2013 after setting a solid foundation for the Vikings defense in his 1st season with the club in 2012. Williams and Leslie Frazier served on the Indianapolis staff in 2005-06, working with the defensive backs, reaching the pinnacle of football following the 2006 season when the Colts won Super Bowl XLI over Chicago. Williams got his first taste of NFL coaching in 2001 with Tampa Bay as part of Tony Dungy's staff, and followed him to Indianapolis the following season. In Williams' previous 12 NFL seasons (2001-12), he has been a part of 11 playoff teams, 7 Division champions and advanced to Super Bowl XLI and XLIV.

In his 1st season with the Vikings, Williams worked with a unit that improved dramatically from the previous season and played well down the stretch as the team won its final 4 games to earn an NFC Wild Card berth after a two-year absence from the postseason. The Vikings jumped to the NFL's #16 team in total defense and leaped to #19 in the NFL in scoring defense at 21.3 points per game, an improvement from #21 and #30 respectively the season before. The 2012 Vikings allowed 64 points fewer to opposing offenses than the 2011 unit.

The Vikings got high-level performances from proven veterans in 2012 as DE Jared Allen earned his 5th career Pro Bowl berth and led the club with 12.0 sacks. Stalwart LB Chad Greenway led the team in tackles for the 5th straight season with a career-high 191 en route to his 2nd straight Pro Bowl berth. During 2012 the Vikings relied on starting rookie S Harrison Smith in 16 games, rookie DB Josh Robinson 6 times and newly added veteran CB A.J. Jefferson 7 times. Reserve DE Everson Griffen ranked 3rd on the team with 8.0 sacks, doubling his output from his previous 2 seasons with the club. Smith returned a pair of INTs for TDs during the season to match the Vikings rookie record and Griffen added another pick-6 score and notched a Vikings-best 3.0 sacks in the regular season finale vs. Green Bay to clinch a playoff berth.

In Williams' decade working with the Colts DBs, the club ranked in the top 6 in NFL passing defense 5 times and finished out of the top 15 only once. During Williams' tenure with Indianapolis he coached a pair of players, Antoine Bethea (2007, '09) and Bob Sanders (2005, '07), who each twice earned Pro Bowl honors. Sanders became the 1st Colts player to earn AP Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2007. In 2009 Colts CB Jacob Lacey earned All-Rookie honors after starting 9 games and grabbing 3 INTs, including a TD return.

The Colts' playoff success was in part due in part to the defense snaring interceptions at record rate. In the 9 straight Colts playoff appearances from 2002-10 the team snared 18

INTs, 2nd in the NFL over that span to only New England's 22. In regular season play in the same 9 seasons the Colts grabbed 140 INTs and scored 14 times on INT returns. From 2002-10 the Colts allowed the fewest TD passes in the NFL (159), the fewest pass completions of 25+ yards (159) and the 3rd-fewest passing yards (29,993), an average of 208 yards per game and 1.1 passing TDs per game in that span. From 2002-10 the Colts allowed 20+ TD passes only 2 times and had 10+ INTs each year.

The 2008 Colts set an NFL mark by allowing only 6 TD passes, the lowest number allowed in a 16-game season. The 2007 Colts ranked #3 in NFL total defense and #2 in passing defense while grabbing 22 INTs on the season, tied for the 2nd-most in the NFL on the season. The 2007 unit led the NFL in scoring defense, allowing 228 offensive points (14.3 points per game) and yielded 279.7 yards per game. During the Colts 2006 run to the Super Bowl XLI title the defense played at a high level. In the 4 postseason games the Indy defense snared 7 INTs and allowed only 2 second-half TDs in the playoffs, including holding Chicago out of the end zone for the final 3 quarters of the Super Bowl. The Colts DBs sealed the title when Kelvin Hayden returned an INT 56 yards early in the 4th quarter to break open a 22-17 game and provide the final margin in the 29-17 Colts win.

Williams got his break as an NFL coach in 2001 with Tampa Bay under head coach Tony Dungy where he joined a defensive staff that included Monte Kiffin and Mike Tomlin along with John Lynch, Ronde Barber and Donnie Abraham in the backfield. The Bucs went 9-7 and advanced to the NFC Wild Card playoffs.

Williams grew to pursue football as a career during 9 seasons as a player and coach at William & Mary. He was a standout RB from 1988-91, ending his career with over 2,500 yards of total offense and set a school record with 4 TDs in playoff action against Massachusetts. After graduation from the College in 1992 he coached prep football and track at Norview High in his home town of Norfolk, VA from 1992-95 before returning to his alma mater. From 1996-2000, the opening 2 seasons as RBs coach and the final 3 as DBs coach from 1998-2000. Williams and wife, Lisa, have 3 sons- Christian, Solomon and Nathan.

BRENDAN DALY

DEFENSIVE LINE
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 17TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 5TH SEASON

Brendan Daly enters his 8th season in the NFL in 2013 and is coming off a 2012 campaign that saw his linemen display depth and playmaking with 7 big men racking up sacks and the unit grabbing 5 fumble recoveries and an INT for a TD. The 2012 Vikings held opponents to 64 fewer offensive points than in 2011 and jumped to the 16th-ranked total defense in the NFL, a 5-spot jump from 2011.

The 2012 Vikings defense improved over the previous season and keyed the club's run to a 10-6 mark and playoff berth that was one of the NFL's biggest surprises. The Vikings held opponents to 14 points or less in 6 wins and helped the club win the 4 final games of the season to earn a postseason appearance.

Perennial Pro Bowler Jared Allen led the Vikings with 12.0 sacks while the LDE tandem of Brian Robison notched 8.5 and Everson Griffen had 8.0. Griffen showed his big-play ability with a 29-yard INT return TD at St. Louis (12/16) and had a career-best 3.0 sacks in the regular season finale vs. Green Bay (12/30). Robison notched his career-best 3.5 sacks vs. Arizona (10/21) and had a career-best 8 passes defensed on the season.

Daly returned to the Vikings in 2012, where he had served as an assistant along the defensive line from 2006-08, before spending 2009-11 leading the Rams defensive line.

During his tenure with St. Louis, Daly helped former 1st-round pick Chris Long fulfill his potential with a career-best 13.0-sack performance in 2011, ending the season ranked 7th in the NFL and ranked 4th among fellow DEs. Long was named a Pro Bowl alternate for 2011 and keyed a Rams defense that notched 82 sacks in 2010-11, the 6th-most in the NFL in that 2-season span. Long's 13.0-sack season in 2011 marked the 2nd straight season a Rams DE notched double-digit sacks, joining James Hall's 10.5 in 2010. Long's breakout 2011 came after he had 17.5 career sacks in his opening 3 seasons with the Rams.

The 2010 Rams notched 43 sacks as a team, the 7th-most in the NFL for the season. The defensive line got production and leadership from Hall's 10.5 sacks and added 11-year NFL vet Fred Robbins at DT where he garnered a career-best 6.0 sacks. Long's 8.5 sacks in 2011 was his career-best at the time after notching 9.0 sacks in his opening 2 seasons in 2008-09.

Daly started his NFL career on the Vikings staff from 2006-08 where he helped the Vikings defensive line build on their reputation as a run-stuffing juggernaut. The Vikings line featured DTs Pat Williams and Kevin Williams each making Pro Bowl appearances in each of the 3 seasons and Jared Allen earned a spot in the Pro Bowl in his 1st season with the team after being acquired in a trade with Kansas City in 2008.

Daly worked in the college ranks as the defensive line coach at Villanova in 2005 and TEs coach at Illinois State in 2004. From 2001-03 Daly was on the staff at Oklahoma State when Vikings All-Pro Kevin Williams played for the Cowboys and helped the squad earn bowl berths twice. Daly got his coaching start at Ridgewood High in New Port Richey, FL in 1997 before moving on to Drake in 1998 coaching TEs, at Villanova in 1999 and as a graduate assistant at Maryland in 2000.

A TE at Drake as a player, Daly earned his bachelor's degree in history from the Des Moines school. Daly and wife, Keely, have a son, Liam and daughters Ciara and Avelin.

JEFF DAVIDSON

OFFENSIVE LINE
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 18TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 22ND SEASON (18 COACHING/4 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

The Vikings offensive line became a model of consistency and production in 2012, the 2nd season under the tutelage of Jeff Davison. The unit started all 5 players as a group for all 16 regular season games and the Wild Card playoff contest, setting team and NFL records along the way with the 2nd-ranked rushing unit in the NFL. The Vikings ground game ranked #2 in the NFL and tied the Vikings record with 2,634 yards (164.6 per game), the 4th time in the past 5 seasons he has engineered a top-4 NFL rushing offense.

The line paved the way for a remarkable season by RB Adrian Peterson, who earned the 2012 NFL MVP and Offensive Player of the Year honors. Peterson posted the 2nd-highest single-season rushing total in NFL history with 2,097 yards and broke the 100-yard mark 10 times. Making the productivity more amazing was the fact that only C John Sullivan and RT Phil Loadholt returned to the positions they manned the season before. Rookie LT Matt Kalil and 2nd-year player RG Brandon Fusco were making their debuts as starters and LG Charlie Johnson had been reassigned after starting at LT in 2011.

The unit didn't skip a beat though, earning the Madden Most Valuable Protector's award 3 times during the season, an award presented by the Hall of Fame coach to the top offensive line each week of the season. Sullivan earned All-Pro honors from Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association and Kalil was a late addition to the Pro Bowl and an All-Rookie honoree. Kalil joined Todd Steussie (1994) as the only rookie OTs to start every game during the 16-game era. The line protected 2nd-year QB Christian Ponder as he made strides forward in his 1st full season as the starter, improving his passer rating by 11 points (81.2) and his completion percentage by nearly 8 points (64.2) and threw only 12 INTs in 483 attempts, an INT percentage of 2.5, both ranking in the Vikings top 10 for a season in team history.

Davidson's reputation as an instructor and technician were solidified in 2011 when he dealt with a shuffled line due to injury throughout the season but still led the unit to block for the #4 rushing offense in the NFL, a 6-spot jump from the 2010 Vikings. In his first season on the Vikings staff, Davidson inherited an offensive line that had limited time to work together due to the unusual circumstances of the 2011 offseason lockout.

Only LT Charlie Johnson and RT Phil Loadholt opened all 16 games during the 2011 season up front for the Vikings and Johnson joined the club during training camp, stepping in as the starter. The interior of the line was hampered by injuries that saw 4 different starting combinations between the center and guards. Center John Sullivan enjoyed a career year under Davidson's tutelage and was recognized with a vote in Associated Press All-Pro balloting. In 2011, Davidson's linemen paved the way to tie a Vikings record with 3 players breaking the 100-yard rushing mark during the season- Adrian Peterson, Toby Gerhart and Joe Webb. RB Peterson was stopped just short of his 5th straight 1,000-yard season when sidelined by a season-ending injury. Peterson ended the season with 970 yards in his 12 games played and notched 12 rushing TDs. Gerhart made the most of his opportunities, rushing for 531 yards on the season and had a career-best 109 yards on the ground at Washington, including 105 in the 2nd half of the game.

Davidson has a background as a versatile lineman who was a full-time starter at LT and LG for Denver in 1991 and 1992 respectively, winning the AFC West title in 1991 and advancing to the AFC Championship game. Davidson's been a part of winning programs throughout his career, claiming 5 Division titles as a coach with New England and Carolina, and helping New England take home the Lombardi Trophy in Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

During his 4 seasons in Carolina the team claimed the 2008 NFC South title with a 12-4 mark and established the Panthers ground game as one of the NFL's best. The Panthers were led on the ground by DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart, who powered their way into the record books in 2009 by both breaking the 1,000-yard mark, Stewart going for 1,133 and Williams posting 1,117. In 2008, Williams ran for a franchise-record 1,515 yards and 18 rushing TDs. Stewart set a franchise record with 206 yards rushing against the NY Giants in 2009 and Williams post 186 yards against Tampa Bay in 2008 for the 2nd-best mark in team history. The Panthers struggled for consistency at QB in 2009 and 2010, starting 4 different QBs over the 2-year span.

Davidson had a pair of offensive linemen earn Pro Bowl honors- Ryan Kalil at C in 2009 and Jordan Gross at T in 2008. Williams earned Pro Bowl trips in 2008 and 2009 and was joined by WR Steve Smith in 2008.

Prior to taking on the role of offensive coordinator, Davidson honed his skills as a position coach with Cleveland and New England. He coached the Browns offensive line in 2005-06 and oversaw a unit that paved the way for Reuben Droughns to rush for 1,232 yards, breaking a 20-year streak without a Browns 1,000-yard rusher. The shuffled offensive line also protected rookie QB Charlie Frye as he took over under center for veteran Trent Dilfer. During the 2006 season, Davidson was named the Browns offensive coordinator early in the season and his game plans helped TE Kellen Winslow and WR Braylon Edwards reel in 89 and 61 receptions respectively.

Davidson gained the most experience of his coaching career during 8 seasons with New England from 1997-2004, working under head coach Pete Carroll for the opening 3 seasons before Bill Belichick took over the team in 2000. Tutoring the Patriots TEs in 1997 he saw Ben Coates lead the team with 66 catches and earn a Pro Bowl berth. In 2001, in Belichick's 2nd year at the helm, the club won Super Bowl XXXVI over St. Louis, starting a remarkable streak of 3 Super Bowl wins in 4 seasons, claiming Super Bowl XXXVIII against Carolina after the 2003 season and Super Bowl XXXIX over Philadelphia after the 2004 campaign.

Following a 4-season NFL playing career that was cut short by injury, Davidson broke into coaching with New Orleans as a volunteer assistant and offensive assistant with the Saints in 1995-96. Davidson played his final NFL season for New Orleans in 1994 after beginning his career as a 5th-round draft pick by Denver in 1990. In 1991 and 1992 he was a 16-game starter for the Broncos as LT and LG respectively, helping the team advance to the AFC title game in 1991 while protecting Hall of Famer John Elway's blind side.

Davidson was an All-Big Ten honoree as a senior at Ohio

RYAN FICKEN

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 10TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 7TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 7TH SEASON

Ryan Ficken enters his 7th season with the Vikings in 2013 and will transition into a new role with the club's special teams, assisting Special Teams Coordinator Mike Priefer for the 1st time in his Vikings career. Previously, Ficken worked with the Vikings WRs, assisting WR coach George Stewart from 2009-12.

The 2012 Vikings battled injuries to the receiving corps throughout the season but helped 2nd-year QB Christian Ponder's development as a passer as the team went 10-6 to earn a Wild Card playoff berth. Leading receiver Percy Harvin missed the final 7 games of the season with injury but hauled in 62 receptions in the opening 9 games for a 6.9 reception per game average. Veteran Michael Jenkins ranked 3rd on the club with 40 catches and rookie Jarius Wright emerged as a threat after Harvin was sidelined. Wright snared the Vikings season-long catch with a 65-yarder vs. Green Bay (12/30) in the regular season finale and reeled in a 54-yarder on his 1st NFL catch vs. Detroit (11/11). His 54-yarder ranks behind only Adrian Peterson (60t) in Vikings history for the longest 1st catch of a players' career.

In 2011, Percy Harvin set career highs in receptions with 87, receiving yards with 967, and tied a career high with 6 receiving touchdowns. His 87 receptions was also ranked 6th in the NFL. First year wide receiver Devin Aromashodu also made 2011 a season to remember, setting career highs in receptions with 26 and receiving yards with 468.

Second-year receiver Percy Harvin improved on his rookie season in 2010. At just 21 years old, he became the youngest player in franchise history to lead the team in receiving with 871 yards on 71 catches and 5 TDs.

In 2009, WRs Sidney Rice and Harvin had breakout seasons for the Vikings. Both players were honored as Pro Bowlers and Harvin became the 2nd Viking in 3 seasons to be named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. Rice developed as a playmaker and became only the 3rd Vikings' WR to post a 1,300-yard receiving season. Harvin tied for the NFL lead among rookies in receptions and yards and ranked 2nd in team history with 60 catches as a rookie.

In 2007 and 2008, the Vikings RBs were able to showcase their skills and combine the talents of Adrian Peterson and Chester Taylor. In 2008, Peterson led the NFL with 1,760 yards rushing and Taylor led all NFL RBs with 25 catches on 3rd down. Peterson became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing and Taylor's 45 catches were a career high.

The 2007 Vikings offense ranked #1 in the NFL in rushing offense. Peterson had a legendary rookie year, including breaking the NFL's single game rushing record after going for 296 yards against San Diego on 11/4/07 and earning NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. Peterson finished with 1,341 yards, 12 TDs and was named the Pro Bowl MVP.

Ficken served as an offensive graduate assistant with UCLA in 2006. He worked extensively with Jim Colletto and the offensive line. Ficken broke down opponents' game film, gave opponent reports to the offensive staff and coached the defensive scout team.

Prior to his work with the offense, Ficken was a graduate assistant in the football operations department where he acted as the NFL scout liaison and tracked opponents' personnel during games. He was as an assistant to the recruiting coordinator, playing a big part in the 2006 recruiting class that ranked in the top 10 nationally. From 2004-2005, Ficken was a volunteer coach at UCLA, focusing primarily on the defense and the secondary.

Ficken earned his bachelor's in business administration from ASU. He was a member of the Sun Devils football team for 2 seasons and received the Scholar-Athlete Award and was a member of Gamma Beta Phi, the National Scholastic Honor Society.

Ficken is currently finishing graduate school to obtain a masters in comparative education at UCLA. Ficken and wife, Andrea, reside in Eden Prairie with their son, Wyatt.

JEFF IMAMURA

ASSSISTANT SECONDARY
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 15TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON

Jeff Imamura returns to the Vikings in 2013 for his 8th season on the coaching staff. His primary duties include working directly with Defensive Coordinator Alan Williams on day-to-day defensive operations and activities and assisting DBs coach Joe Woods with the secondary.

The 2012 Vikings defense made strides to improve from the previous season, allowing 64 fewer points to opposing offenses to rank 16th in the NFL, an 11-position improvement from 2011. The defense held opponenents to 14-or-less points in 6 games during 2012, winning all 6. The Vikings DBs received an influx of talent when rookie S Harrison Smith stepped into the starting lineup for every game, led the club with 3 INTs and tied the Vikings rookie record with 2 INT return TDs. Smith was honored as an All-Rookie choice for his performance. Fellow rookie Josh Robinson added a pair of INTs and started 6 games during the season.

2011 marked another season of solid linebacker play for the Vikings. Greenway set a then-career high in tackles, recording 174 over the course of the season and being selected to his 1st Pro Bowl. E.J. Henderson also had a big season, finishing 2nd on the team in tackles with 130 and 2nd on the team with 16 TFL.

The Vikings LBs were the most consistent unit for the defense in 2010 with Greenway leading the team in tackles for a 3rd-straight season and ranking 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL in total tackles. The defense finished in the NFL's top 10 in total defense (8th) for the 3rd year in a row and ranked in the top 10 against the run (9th) and the pass (10th).

In 2009, the Vikings LBs played at a high level and were a key part of the #6 ranking in total defense the club posted for the 2nd-straight year. The Vikings had not been in the NFL's top 10 for total defense in consecutive seasons since 1993-94. The LB unit had to overcome Henderson's season-ending injury, but were able to prepare rookie 5th-round draft pick Jasper Brinkley to start the final 4 regular season games and both playoff contests. Greenway led the team in tackles and joined Ben Leber in making plays against the run and pass. The duo combined for 4 INTs and 3.5 sacks during the regular season and playoffs.

The 2008 Vikings made dramatic strides from 2007 despite having to overcome the loss of key starters to injury, challenging the coaching staff to prepare backups to take on bigger roles. The Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL for total defense, the highest finish since 1994 for the team and a 14-position jump from the previous year. A key part of the 2008 Vikings defense taking a step forward was the emergence of Greenway as a total defender. In his 2nd year as a starter, Greenway led the team with 150 tackles and notched 5.5 sacks.

The 2007 Vikings LBs thrived in the NFL's #1 rushing defense as Henderson led the team with 155 total tackles and 4.5 sacks, while Greenway and Leber finished directly behind Henderson in total tackles with 130 and 88, respectively. Overall, the Vikings linebackers finished with 373 tackles, 9.5 sacks, 3 INTs, 6 FFs and 7 FRs.

The 2006 Vikings finished #8 in total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defenders became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game.

Before joining the Vikings, Imamura coached OLBs at Saginaw Valley (MI) State University in 2003. He helped build the Cardinals' defense into a national leader as the unit ranked 7th in the country in scoring defense, 12th in turnover margin and 22nd in the country in passing defense. The Cardinals' OLBs accounted for over 60 percent of the team's sacks on the season. SVSU won the Great Lakes Conference regular season title with an 11-0 record, finished the regular season ranked #1 in the nation and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals.

Imamura spent the previous 3 seasons (2000-02) at Northern Arizona University as the defensive line coach. NAU advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs in 2001 for only the 2nd time in school history.

A 1997 graduate of Texas Christian, Imamura got his start in the coaching profession at TCU as a defensive assistant from 1997-99, where he assisted the Horned Frogs' DBs coach and defensive coordinator. TCU beat USC in the 1998 Sun Bowl to earn the school's 1st bowl victory since the 1957 Cotton Bowl, and in 1999 earned a share of the WAC title and a bowl bid.

Imamura earned his degree in finance at TCU. Imamura and wife, Regan, reside in Eden Prairie.

CRAIG JOHNSON

QUARTERBACKS
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 31ST SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 14TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

Veteran coach Craig Johnson returns for his 14th season coaching in the NFL in 2013 and his 3rd with the Vikings as he continues to help Christian Ponder develop as the Vikings starter under center.

Ponder played the best of his career down the stretch in 2012 for the Vikings as the club went on a 4-game win streak to end the season and earn a Wild Card playoff berth with a 10-6 mark, far exceeding outside expectations for the team entering the season.

Ponder posted his career-best game when it mattered most, hosting border rival Green Bay in the regular season finale in a must-win scenario to make the playoffs. Ponder's 3-TD day and 120.2 passer rating were career-highs. Ponder did not throw an INT in the final 3 games and had 8 games during the season without throwing a pick. He notched a completion percentage of 70.0%+ in 5 games and had 4 games with a passer rating of 100+. Ponder became the 7th Vikings QB to win 10 games as the starter.

In Johnson's first season as quarterbacks coach in 2011, he worked with rookie Christian Ponder as he threw for 1,853 yards and 13 TDs in 11 games. Ponder also finished the season with 8 TDs and only 1 interception in the red zone, giving him a league leading 114.3 passer rating. Second-year quarterback Joe Webb also saw time under center. When Ponder went down in Week 14 at Detroit, Webb threw for 2 touchdowns as the Vikings almost overcame a 21-point deficit but fell short in the closing moments.

During his tenure as QBs coach with the Titans from 2000-10, he was able to guide Steve McNair, Vince Young and Kerry Collins all to Pro Bowl seasons.

Johnson was able to work with McNair as he earned NFL Co-MVP in 2003 and Young as he claimed 2006 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. In 2008, Collins was pressed into action after an injury in the season opener and responded with one of his career-best seasons, leading the team to a 12-3 mark as the starter and returning to the Pro Bowl. McNair earned Pro Bowl honors in 2000, '03 and '05 and was recognized as Co-MVP of the League, the 1st QB in franchise history to earn the award and the 2nd player in club history. Keeping backup QBs well-prepared was hallmark to the Titans success and Johnson was able to insert Billy Volek into the starting lineup in 2004 for 7 games where he posted an 18-10 TD-INT ratio and completed 61.1% of his passes with an 87.1 passer rating.

During his tenure with Tennessee the team won 3 AFC South titles and made the playoffs 5 times overall with 3 different starting QBs leading the team to the playoffs over those 5 seasons. In 2010 Johnson was promoted to Assistant Head Coach/RBs after a late-preseason staff shuffle. Perennial Pro Bowler Chris Johnson ran for 1,364 yards and led the team with 44 catches while backup 2nd-year man Javon Ringer averaged 4.7 yards per carry in a limited role.

Before he joined the Titans staff, Johnson honed his skills as a collegiate QBs and RBs coach from 1983-99, working at Maryland (1997-99), Northwestern (1992-96), Virginia Military Institute (1989-91), Rutgers (1986-88) and Army (1985). Johnson was a graduate assistant in 1983 (Wyoming) and 1984 (Arkansas). Johnson coached the Maryland QBs and for the 1997 and '98 seasons he served as offensive coordinator. During his 5 seasons at Northwestern he helped the Wildcats win consecutive Big Ten titles in 1995-96 for the first time in team history. The 1995 Wildcats posted the 1st winning season since 1971 and earned a trip to the Rose Bowl for the 1st time since 1949. Johnson's pupil, QB Steve Schnur was a 1st-Team All-Big Ten honoree and in 1992 and '93 QB Len Williams was a 2nd-Team choice.

Johnson came to Northwestern from VMI where he was Offensive Coordinator/QBs coach and helped the school lead the nation in rushing in 1991. Johnson coached RBs at Rutgers for 3 seasons after a 1-year stint at Army as a part-time assistant working with the FBs. Johnson broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wyoming, in 1983. Johnson and wife, Darlene, have daughters Shelby and Sydney.

JIMMIE JOHNSON

TIGHT ENDS
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 18TH SEASON (8 COACHING, 10 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON

Entering his 8th season with the Vikings' coaching staff in 2013, Jimmie Johnson brings a blend of NFL expertise as both a player and as a coach which has proved to be a valuable asset. During his decade in the NFL as a player, Johnson was committed to the art of blocking, helping pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in 8 of his 10 seasons.

The Vikings TE corps is highlighted by Kyle Rudolph, who led the team with 9 TDs in 2012 and has amassed 12 in his opening 2 seasons. Rudolph, veteran John Carlson and rookie Rhett Ellison helped provide the edge blocking that paved the way for Adrian Peterson to earn NFL MVP honors with 2,097 yards on the ground and the team to match the club record with 2,634 team rushing yards. Ellison started 7 games and showed his versatility, playing out of the backfield and at TE.

In 2012, the Vikings passing game relied heavily on Rudolph, who ranked tied for 2nd in the NFL among TEs with 9 TD catches, the 2nd-best performance in a season by a Vikings TE in team history. Rudolph ended the season garnering Pro Bowl MVP honors after a standout day in the All Star game. Rudolph tied a Vikings TE record by snaring 2 TD passes vs. San Francisco (9/23).

The Vikings TEs hauled in 13 TD passes in 2009, just 6 fewer TD passes than the Vikings WRs combined for during the season. The unit played a big part in blocking for Adrian Peterson as he ran for 1,383 yards and set a new Vikings record with 18 rushing TDs.

In 2008, Johnson saw Visanthe Shiancoe develop as a top-tier NFL TE. Shiancoe led the NFC and tied for 3rd among TEs in the NFL with 7 TD receptions. The 7 scores came up just 1 shy of the Vikings single-season record for TEs held by Joe Senser (8 in 1981).

In 2007, Jim Kleinsasser and Shiancoe assisted the Vikings record-setting rushing attack and contributed in the passing game.

In 2006, Johnson's TE corps helped newly-acquired Chester Taylor run for 1,214 yards in his 1st season as a full-time starter and TE Jermaine Wiggins tied for 2nd on the team with 46 receptions.

During his 10 NFL seasons as a tight end, Johnson spent time with Washington, Detroit, Kansas City and Philadelphia. Originally selected in the 12th round of the 1989 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins, he was a long-shot rookie who not only made the final squad, but also went on to play in all 16 games that year. While with the Redskins, Johnson played under the legendary Joe Gibbs and was part of teams that went 34-14 in regular season action and 4-1 in the playoffs. He was a member of the 1991 Redskins team that reached the pinnacle of the NFL, winning Super Bowl XXVI over Buffalo in the stadium he now calls home – the Metrodome. His best season statistically was 1990, when he caught 15 passes for 218 yards and a pair of TDs. That year he averaged 14.5 yards per catch, which trailed only Gary Clark's team-leading 14.8 average, and caught his 1st NFL TD on a 4-yard pass from Stan Humphries in a 41-38 OT win at Detroit (11/4/90). In 1991, Johnson caught 3 passes in the opening 6 games, including 2 for TDs from Mark Rypien in the 1st and 2nd games of the year vs. Detroit (9/1/91) and at Dallas (10/6/91) on Monday Night Football. A neck injury suffered at Chicago (10/6/91), however, placed Johnson on injured reserve for the rest of the Redskins championship season.

Following his 3 seasons with Washington, Johnson joined the Lions in 1992 as a Plan B free agent and went on to start 10 of the 22 games he played from 1992-93 under head coach Wayne Fontes. After his release by Detroit in November 1993, Johnson joined Kansas City and head coach Marty Schottenheimer for the 1994 season. That year the Chiefs played against the Vikings in the preseason game held in Tokyo and went on to ride Hall of Famers Joe Montana and Marcus Allen to a 9-7 record and a berth in the playoffs. Johnson played in 7 games and started 1 that season.

In 1995, Johnson moved on to Philadelphia where he enjoyed his most productive seasons as part of the 2-TE power running game employed by the Eagles. Johnson blocked for Ricky Watters as he earned Pro Bowl berths in 1995 and '96 while breaking the 1,000-yard mark each season from 1995-97. In 1996, Watters set the Eagles team record for attempts with 353, the 2nd-most yards in team history with 1,411, and the 2nd-most rushing TDs with 13. The Eagles took NFC east runner-up honors in 1995 and '96 while advancing to the playoffs both seasons under Ray Rhodes. During that time, Johnson started 18 of the 51 games he played and had a career best 18.1-yard receiving average in 1996, when he caught 7 passes for 127 yards. His final NFL TD came from QB Bobby Hoying vs. Cincinnati (11/30/97).

As a player, Johnson was durable, seeing action in all 16 games in 6 of his 10 seasons. He finished his career with 61 catches for 723 yards and 5 TDs while playing in 5 postseason games. He also blocked for 1,000 yards rushers in 8 of his 10 NFL seasons, helping Earnest Byner break the 1,000-yard mark and earn Pro Bowl honors in 1990 and 1991. Barry Sanders repeated the feats in Detroit in 1992 and '93, and in Philadelphia, Johnson helped Watters get over the 1,000-yard plateau in 1995, '96 and '97. Johnson finished his career clearing the way for Deuce Staley in 1998, who gained 1,000+ yards in only his 2nd NFL season.

After his playing days were over, Johnson entered coaching, beginning his career as the running backs coach at South Carolina State in 2001. He was offensive coordinator at Shaw University in 2002 before becoming offensive coordinator/QBs coach at Texas Southern in 2004-05.

Johnson attended Howard, where he earned his bachelor's degree in consumer studies. As a senior he was an All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference choice after hauling in 31 receptions for 546 yards and 9 TDs. For his college career, Johnson finished with 16 TDs and 1,229 receiving yards on 73 catches.

A native of Augusta, GA, Johnson attended T.W. Josey High School. He and his family reside in Shakopee.

FRED PAGAC

LINEBACKERS
NFL EXPERIENCE: 15TH SEASON (13 COACHING, 2 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON

In his 36th season of coaching and 13th teaching at the NFL level in 2013, Fred Pagac will continue to mentor the club's LBs. The Vikings most veteran coach has helped several Vikings to career-bests in his tenure with the team, including Chad Greenway earning 2nd-Team All-Pro honors in 2012 and 2 straight Pro Bowl berths in 2011 and '12.

The 2012 Vikings LBs played a big part in the defense jumping to #16 in the NFL in total defense and holding 6 opponents to 14-or-fewer points. The strength of the defense down the stretch keyed the club winning the final 4 regular season games to go 10-6 and earn a Wild Card playoff berth, far exceeding outside expectations for the team.

Greenway led the team in 2012 with a career-best 191 tackles, while fellow LBs Jasper Brinkley and Erin Henderson also notched career-highs with 117 and 112 tackles respectively. Greenway notched 2nd-Team All-Pro honors from Associated Press, the 1st Vikings LB since Matt Blair in 1980 to earn All-Pro acclaim. He has led the club in tackles for the 5th straight season, ranking only 2nd in team history behind Scott Studwell's 6.

Pagac led the Vikings' LBs for 5 seasons (2006-10) before taking over Defensive Coordinator duties for the 2011 season. During his 1st stint with the LBs the Vikings defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in total defense 4 times and 3 straight from 2008-10. The 2011 Vikings featured some impressive individual performances on defense, but were unable to achieve team success. Jared Allen broke the Vikings single-season sack record and came within grasp of the NFL record with a 22.0-sack assault on opposing offenses. Allen was honored as a 1st-Team Associated Press All-Pro and earned his 4th Pro Bowl berth. Chad Greenway set a new career-high with 174 tackles to lead the team in tackles for the 4th straight season and shattered his previous career-high of 150 tackles. Greenway was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl following the season.

The 2011 Vikings secondary was hampered by injuries and inexperience throughout the season but the defense did get starting performances from rookie S Mistral Raymond and fellow rookie DT Christian Ballard. In his 1st season as a full-time starter, DE Brian Robison held down the LDE spot opposite Allen and responded with 8.0 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries.

Pagac welcomed back MLB and defensive captain E.J. Henderson for the start of the 2010 season after his signal caller was sidelined late in the 2009 season with a broken femur. Henderson flourished under the direction of Pagac and highlighted his remarkable comeback with a berth to the 2010 Pro Bowl. Henderson became the first player under Pagac's tutelage to earn Pro Bowl honors and he was the 1st Vikings LB to be honored since Ed McDaniel in 1998.

Henderson snared 3 INTs which tied him for most among NFL LBs along with the Vikings team lead, tying safety Husain Abdullah. While Henderson earned a trip to the Pro Bowl, Greenway was leading the LB corps in tackles for the 3rd straight season. Greenway finished the season ranked 1st in the NFC in tackles and 4th in the NFL with 142 (according to league stats). Greenway led the team in tackles for loss with 10 while Henderson was 4th with 7.

Highlighted by a late-season upset win at Philadelphia, Pagac unleashed a blitz-heavy attack against the Eagles that rattled MVP-candidate QB Michael Vick and coralled the shifty QB for 6 sacks, snared an INT and returned a Vick fumble for a TD by CB Antoine Winfield, who was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for the game.

The Vikings defensive unit finished the season ranked 8th in the NFL in total yards allowed per game (312.6) and 1st downs allowed per game (17.25). Known as a run-stuffing defense, the Vikings' unit ranked 9th best in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game (102.1) and rushing yards per attempt (3.9). The defense finished the season 10th in the league in passing yards allowed per game (210.4).

During Pagac's coaching career he has built a reputation for helping players achieve at their highest levels and develop young talent within the defensive system. The 2009 LB unit was equally strong against the run and pass, helping the Vikings rank #6 in the NFL in total defense and #2 against the run after leading the NFL in run defense the previous 3 seasons. The #6 mark was a repeat of the 2008 defensive ranking and was the 1st time since 1993-94.

Pagac's crew in 2009 had to deal with adversity along with prosperity. Greenway led the team in tackles for the 2nd straight season and hauled in a career-best 3 INTs to raise his stature as one of the NFL's emerging defensive players. Fellow OLB Ben Leber led the Vikings with 9 passes defensed and added 2.5 sacks. Henderson was lost for the final 4 games of the regular season and the playoffs to a broken leg and rookie 5th-round draft pick Jasper Brinkley was pressed into duty.

The rapid development Brinkley showed helped keep the defense on track, highlighted by the dominant performances in the NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Dallas and the NFC Championship game at New Orleans. The Vikings defense faced the #1 (Saints) and #2 (Cowboys) offenses in the NFL during the playoffs and held the teams in check, limiting the teams a 3rd-down conversion rate of 24% (6-of-25) and allowed 248 and 257 total net yards to teams who averaged 399.4 and 403.8 respectively.

The 2008 Vikings LBs overcame adversity to solidify a defensive unit that finished the season ranked #6 in the NFL in total defense and #1 in rushing defense for the 3rd straight season, becoming the 1st team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to lead the League in rush defense 3 straight seasons. The unit had to overcome the loss Henderson to a season-ending injury in the 4th game. Greenway led the team in tackles with 150 and emerged as a blitz threat, notching 5.5 sacks, the 4th-most by a Vikings LB in team history.

When Henderson was lost for the season Pagac had to prepare undrafted 2nd-year man David Herron to step into the void as the team searched for a replacement, which was former Vikings starter Napoleon Harris. When Harris picked up a fumble and went 27 yards for a TD it marked the 4th score a Vikings LB has produced in the 3 seasons Pagac has coached the position.

In 2007 Henderson led the team with a career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. He added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-high 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors. Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury, came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, lead the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and have a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2006 Vikings finished #8 in NFL total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defense became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game. The Vikings LBs played a key role in the defensive dynamic by accounting for 9.5 sacks, 6 INTs and 2 TDs. Henderson led the team in tackles with 142 and posted with 3.0 sacks and 2 INTs under Pagac's watch, including a 45-yard TD on his 1st career INT. Leber made his impact on the team felt in his 1st season with the team with 3.0 sacks, an INT and scored a TD on a fumble recovery.

Pagac coached LBs for the Kansas City Chiefs for 2 seasons (2004-05) and with the Oakland Raiders for 3 seasons (2001-03) before coming to the Vikings. Prior to entering the professional ranks, Pagac spent 23 years on the coaching staff at Ohio State, where he aided in the development of several top players.

Under Pagac's direction in 2005, Chiefs 3rd-year LB Kawika Mitchell led the team with a career-high 135 tackles and 14 passes defensed as he started all 16 games at MLB for the 1st time in his career. Pagac also tutored rookie LB Derrick Johnson, who finished 3rd on the team with 110 tackles and added 2.0 sacks and 9 passes defensed on his way to being named the club's Mack Lee Hill Award winner, which is given to KC's top rookie. Johnson became the 1st rookie LB in Chiefs history to start all 16 games since LB Dino Hackett accomplished the feat in 1986. The Chiefs defense finished 7th in the NFL against the run in '05, and 6th in the NFL with 31 takeaways.

In 2004, 3rd-year LB Scott Fujita led the Chiefs for the 2nd consecutive season in tackles with 112. Kawika Mitchell bounced back from an early-season ankle injury to start 12 games and finished 2nd on the team with 85 tackles. The Chiefs defense finished 12th in the NFL against the run.

In 2002, Pagac helped the Raiders defense to a #11 overall NFL ranking and a #3 ranking against the run as Oakland won the AFC and faced Tampa Bay in Super Bowl XXXVII. Pagac tutored Napoleon Harris as he was named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie team and finished 3rd on the team in tackles. In 2001, MLB and former Viking Greg Biekert led the Raiders with 108 tackles and tied a career high with 3.0 sacks.

From 1978-2000, Pagac coached at his alma mater, Ohio State, and worked with 10 Buckeyes defensive performers who earned All-America honors, including Vikings CB Antoine Winfield. Winfield was a 2-time All-America pick and won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back in 1998. Pagac also tutored future Pro Bowl LBs Chris Spielman, Pepper Johnson and Mike Vrabel, as well as CB Shawn Springs, LB Na'ill Diggs, S Mike Doss, and CB Nate Clements. Andy Katzenmoyer won All-America accolades in 1997 and won the Butkus Award as the nation's top LB. During Pagac's 23 years on the Ohio State coaching staff, the Buckeyes played in 20 bowl games. As a player and coach, Pagac was part of 6 Rose Bowls with the Buckeyes.

Pagac was assistant head coach to John Cooper in 2000 in his final season at OSU. From 1996-99, Pagac served as defensive coordinator. In 1998, the Buckeyes led the nation in rushing defense, ranked 2nd in pass defense, and were 4th overall. Pagac was among 5 finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the NCAA's top assistant in '98.

In '97, Ohio State allowed 170 points to rank 2nd in the nation in scoring defense. That season the Buckeyes also ranked 2nd in the nation in pass defense. In 1996, Ohio State was 1st in the country in pass defense and ranked 2nd in scoring defense, allowing just 131 points, which was the fewest surrendered by Ohio State since 1979.

Prior to being named defensive coordinator in 1996, Pagac tutored Ohio State's LBs for 14 seasons (1982-95). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1978 before joining the staff on a full-time basis under Earle Bruce in 1982.

Pagac entered the NFL as a TE with Chicago in 1974 as a rookie free agent, where he was honored with the club's prestigious Brian Piccolo Award. Pagac also played 13 games for Tampa Bay in their 1976 inaugural season.

Pagac was a 3-year starter at TE for Ohio State from 1971-73. He was part of Buckeyes teams that compiled an impressive 25-6-2 record over his playing career, including a 19-3 mark in the Big Ten. During his senior season in '73, the Buckeyes posted a 10-0-1 record and finished 2nd in the final AP poll.

Pagac was born in Richeyville, PA. He and his wife, Bernie, have a daughter, Jennifer, and a son, Fred, Jr., who played LB at Ohio State and with the Frankfurt Galaxy.

NFL EXPERIENCE: 11TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 5TH SEASON

Diron Reynolds returns in 2013 for his 5th season working with the Vikings defensive line, a unit that has displayed consistent talent and improved depth in recent seasons.

The 2012 Vikings held opponents to 64 fewer offensive points than in 2011 and jumped to the 16th-ranked total defense in the NFL, a 5-spot jump from 2011. The Vikings held opponents to 14 points or less in 6 wins and helped the club win the 4 final games of the season to earn a Wild Card playoff berth.

Perennial Pro Bowler DE Jared Allen led the Vikings with 12 sacks while the LDE tandem of Brian Robison notched 8.5 and Everson Griffen had 8.0. Griffen showed his big-play ability with a 29-yard INT return TD at St. Louis (12/16) and had a career-best 3.0 sacks in the regular season finale vs. Green Bay (12/30). Robison notched his career-best 3.5 sacks vs. Arizona (10/21) and had a career-best 8 passes defensed on the season.

2011 was a record-setting year for the Vikings defensive front. All-Pro Jared Allen amassed 22.0 sacks, a new Vikings single season record and just a half-sack shy of tying the NFL record of 22.5. Brian Robison fared well in his first season as a starter on the defensive line, tallying 8.0 sacks and 3 forced fumbles. In all, the Vikings totaled 50.0 sacks in 2011, tied for the most in the NFL and the 3rd most in Vikings history. The Vikings ranked 11th in rushing yards allowed in 2011 and had 119 negative plays, tied for 2nd best in the NFL in 2011. The defense got its hands on the football often in 2011, recovering 15 fumbles, good for the most in the NFL.

Over the past few seasons the strength of the Vikings defense has been stopping the run, 2010 was no different as they held opponents to 102.2 rushing yards per game, ranking 9th in the NFL. The Vikings finished 8th in total defense, the 3rd year in a row that they finished in the NFL's top 10 after finishing 6th in both 2008 and 2009. It marked the first time since 1992-94 that the Vikings ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total defense for three-straight seasons.

In 2009, the Vikings led the NFL with 48.0 sacks and had breakout performances by several players. Along with perennial All-Pro performers Jared Allen and Kevin Williams, the team got a career-best performance from DE Ray Edwards and DT Jimmy Kennedy excelled in his role providing depth to the interior line. Edwards had a career-high 8.5 sacks in the regular season and tied a Vikings playoff record with 3.0 sacks vs. Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff win. The Vikings defense set a new team playoff record with 6.0 sacks against the Cowboys. Kennedy matched his career-high with 3.0 sacks in the regular season and added another in the playoffs.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Reynolds was the defensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins during the 2007 season. While with Miami, Reynolds' line created a pass rush that helped the Dolphins rank 4th in the league in passing yards allowed. Dolphin's DE Jason Taylor recorded his 6th double-digit sack season (11.0) and 6th trip to the Pro Bowl.

Reynolds spent 5 seasons (2002-2006) working as a defensive quality control coach for the Indianapolis Colts under current Vikings head coach Leslie Frazier (2005-2006) and former Vikings assistant Tony Dungy. During his time in Indy the team compiled a 60-20 record, captured the AFC South crown 4 out of his 5 seasons and won the Lombardi Trophy by defeating Chicago in Super Bowl XLI for the team's 1st title since 1970. The Colts defense twice ranked 2nd in the NFL in passing yards allowed (2002 and 2006).

Before moving to the NFL, Reynolds spent 5 seasons working in the collegiate ranks. He spent the 2001 season tutoring DTs at Indiana University following a 4-year stint with his alma mater Wake Forest (1997-2000).

In 2001, the Hoosiers saw significant improvement on the defensive side of the ball. The 2001 team improved by 2 wins and cut the number of games allowing 30+ points by more than half, from 9 in 2000 to just 4 in 2001.

Reynolds got his 1st taste of coaching on a major stage when he joined his alma mater as a graduate assistant for the 1997 and 1998 seasons. In 1997, the Demon Deacons set a school record for rushing yards allowed per game with just 96.1. The Deacons earned their 1st bowl berth since 1992, defeating Arizona State in the Aloha Bowl.

Before returning to Wake Forest, Reynolds spent 2 years coaching football, basketball, and track at Brooklyn-Cayce High School in South Carolina.

As a collegian, Reynolds played LB and was a key contributor on special teams for Wake Forest from 1990-1993. Reynolds was a member of the Deacons' 1992 campaign as they advanced, and won, their 1st bowl game (Independence Bowl) since the 1979 season and finished the season ranked in both the AP and Coaches Top 25 polls for the 1st time since 1979.

Reynolds grew up in Aiken, S.C., and earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Wake Forest along with a Master's in liberal studies. His brother Jamal played DE for the Green Bay Packers, where he was a 1st-round draft pick, and brother Rashad played LB at Rice. His father, William, was a DE at South Carolina State. He resides with his family in Eden Prairie.

JAMES SAXON

RUNNING BACKS
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 17TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 21ST SEASON (13 COACHING/8 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

James Saxon is in his 3rd season coaching the Vikings RBs in 2013, looking to build off a 2012 season when Adrian Peterson re-wrote the NFL and Vikings record books en route to Associated Press NFL MVP honors. Peterson is only the 3rd Vikings player to garner the MVP, joining DT Alan Page in 1971 and Fran Tarkenton in 1975

Peterson's remarkable 2012 season seemed unlikely when he suffered a severe knee injury to end the 2011 season at Washington (12/24/11). His comeback from the injury was as inspriational as it was groundbreaking. Peterson returned to the field for the season opener vs. Jacksonville (9/9) and ran for 2 TDs. Peterson ended the season with the 2nd-best rushing season in NFL history with 2,097 yards to garner NFL Offensive Player of the Year along with MVP honors. He matched his own team record with 10 games of 100+ yards and set a new NFL record for most rushing yards in a month when he went for 861 in December. He tied a pair of NFL records with 7 runs of 50+ yards , matching Barry Sanders in 1997 and had 7 games of 150+ yards , matching Earl Campbell's mark from 1980. Peterson had a pair of 200-yard games to set a Vikings record and recorded a career-long with an 82-yard run.

Peterson's record-setting season benefitted from the free agency addition of FB Jerome Felton, who enjoyed a career year by earning AP 2nd-Team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl berth for the 1st time in his 5-year career.

A former NFL RB himself, Saxon joined the Vikings in 2011 after spending time with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and most recently the Miami Dolphins. Saxon has guided RBs to 9 Pro Bowls during his 13 seasons coaching the position and has had a RB break the 1,000-yard mark 7 times.

The Vikings running game continued to be one of the best in the NFL in 2011, as the team rushed for 2,318 yards, good for 4th in the League. Leading the team in rushing for a 5th-consecutive season was running back Adrian Peterson with 970 yards. Peterson set a team record for most rushing touchdowns in a career with 64, passing Chuck Foreman (52). He also scored at least 1 rushing touchdown in 6 straight games in 2011, a streak that is tied for second longest in team history. When Peterson was forced out of play by injuries, second-year running back Toby Gerhart filled in admirably, rushing for a career-high 531 yards and a touchdown on the season. He tied a franchise record when he recorded 2 receiving touchdowns in Week 15 vs. New Orleans. The following week in Washington, Gerhart scored his 1st rushing TD from 5 yards out.

While in Miami for the 3 seasons prior to joining the Vikings, Saxon tutored Pro Bowlers Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams. In 2009, the Dolphins had the NFL's 4th ranked rushing attack with 139.4 yards per game. Williams and Brown added a wrinkle into the Dolphins offensive game plan by using the Wildcat formation as a change-of-pace. Williams posted 1,121 yard rushing to lead the team in 2009.

MILLENIUM MEN

James Saxon has mentored RBs that have posted 7 seasons with 1,000+ yards on the ground in his 13 NFL seasons.

Ricky Williams, 2009	1,121	11
Adrian Peterson, 2012	2,097	12

In Kansas City, Saxon found tremendous success with 3 of the franchises top backs. During Saxon's 7 years in KC he helped 3 players (Priest Holmes, Tony Richardson and Larry Johnson) to 7 total Pro Bowls. Holmes and Johnson combined to break the 1,000-yard mark 5 times during his tenure. Holmes and Johnson are ranked #1 and #2 in Chiefs career yardage at 6,070 and 6,015 yards respectively and the duo have the top 4 single-season rushing yardage totals in franchise history- led by Johnson's team-record 1,789 yards in 2006. Holmes holds the team mark for single-season TDs with 27 in 2003 and career TDs with 83 (76 rushing, 7 receiving). His 27 TDs set an NFL record at the time, which has since been topped. Holmes played his entire career, 2001-07, under Saxon with the Chiefs. Johnson set the franchise record for 100-yard rushing days with 30, edging Holmes' 24.

Saxon entered the NFL in 2000 and was a running backs coach with the Buffalo Bills. Saxon spent time with Menlo College (1999) and Rutgers University (1997-98) before making the leap to the NFL.

Saxon entered the NFL in 1988 as a 6th round draft choice by the Kansas City Chiefs. Saxon would suit up for the Chiefs (1988-91), Miami Dolphins (1992-94) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1995) during his 8-year playing career. The South Carolina native played in 111 career games and rushed for 533 yards with 5 touchdowns on 145 attempts. Saxon added 69 receptions for 515 yards during his career.

Saxon began his collegiate career at American River Junior College in California (1984-85). He would go on to spend the final two seasons at San Jose State (1986-87) where he compiled 609 rushing yards adding 9 TDs on 118 carries. He also collected 78 receptions for 732 yards and 4 TDs. While with the Spartans for 2 seasons Saxon also managed to throw 4 TD passes.

He attended Battery Creek High School in Burton, South Carolina. Saxon is married to his wife Shannon and their son, Devin, played football at Harvard.

RYAN SILVERFIELD

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 15TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 6TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 6TH SEASON

Ryan Silverfield returns for his 6th season with the Vikings in 2013 and will assist with the offensive line for the 3rd season as the unit continues to grow into one of the NFL's top units.

The 2012 Vikings followed the path paved by the powerful group up front to a record-breaking performance that set the tempo for a 10-6 team and Wild Card playoff berth. The Vikings offensive line featured only 2 starters returning in the same positions from 2011- C John Sullivan and RT Phil Loadholt- but came together quickly with new starters RG Brandon Fusco (2nd year) and LT Matt Kalil (rookie) and LG Charlie Johnson, who transitioned from LT to LG. The front made its mark on the NFL and team record book as Adrian Peterson ran for 2,097 yards, the 2nd-best performance in NFL history, including 10 games with 100+ yards, 2 games of 200+ and averaged 6.0 yards per carry to rank among the all-time NFL leaders.

As a team, the Vikings matched the club record with 2,634 yards rushing, averaging 164.6 yards per game. While fielding a run-first attack, the Vikings offense saw 2nd-year QB Christian Ponder continue to develop, throwing 18 TDs against 12 INTs, post an 81.2 passer rating, 62.1 completion mark and was sacked only 32 times after being sacked 30 times in 11 games in 2011. The Vikings offensive line in 2012 featured Sullivan earning All-Pro honors on the PFW/PFWA 1st Team and Kalil garnering All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly and earning a Pro Bowl berth.

In 2011, Silverfield moved over to the offensive side of the ball with the Vikings coaching staff to assist Jeff Davidson with the offensive line. He assisted the offensive line in helping the Vikings offense rush for 2,318 yards over the course of the season, ranking 4th in the NFL. The offensive line also helped WR Percy Harvin set the Vikings all-time record for rushing yards in a season by a WR with 345 and career rushing yards with 587. The line was hampered by injuries throughout the season with only OTs Loadholt and Johnson starting all 16 games up front.

Silverfield spent his first season with the Vikings focused on offensive quality control before assisting the defensive line in 2009 and 2010. During his 2 seasons with the Vikings defensive front the unit ranked in the NFL's top 10 both seasons and landed 2 players- DE Jared Allen and DT Kevin Williams on the Pro Bowl squad. The 2009 Vikings defensive unit led the NFL with 48.0 sacks.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Silverfield spent 2 seasons at the University of Central Florida where he worked under former Vikings defensive coordinator George O'Leary. In Silverfield's 2nd season at UCF in 2007, the Knights closed the regular season with a 7-game winning streak en route to winning the Conference USA crown, the 1st conference championship in school history.

In 2005, Silverfield served as the quarterbacks coach at Jacksonville University. Before working on the JU Dolphins staff and at the age of 23, he was the head coach at Memorial Day H.S. in Savannah, GA. That opportunity followed 4 seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia, where he began as an offensive assistant in 2000. At the age of 20, he became the DL coach, making him one of the younger position coaches in all of college football. He held that position for 2 seasons before moving to TEs and H-backs in 2003, a season in which the Tigers went 9-1 and had the #1-ranked scoring offense in the country, averaging over 47.0 points per game.

Silverfield's coaching career began as an assistant at The Bolles School in Jacksonville in 1999. During his playing days, Silverfield helped Bolles win 2 state championships and earn the title of the #1-ranked high school team in the country by USA Today. As a senior, Silverfield was a 1st-Team All-First Coast selection after leading his team to the Florida Class 3A state title.

Silverfield graduated Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in economics from Hampden-Sydney. He and his wife, Mariana, reside in Shakopee.

HOW THE VIKINGS GOT THEIR NAME

From the 1961 Minnesota Vikings Radio, TV and Press Guide

When Bert Rose was selected as General Manager, one of the first steps he took was to recommend to the Board of Directors that the club be nicknamed the "Vikings."

A nickname should serve a dual purpose, he said. First, it should represent an aggressive person or animal imbued with the will to win. Secondly, if possible, it is desirable to have it connote the region that the particular team represents.

The "Vikings" scores well on both points. Certainly, the Nordic Vikings were a fearless race. Following many years of victories in the British Isles and France, under Erik the Red, they sailed in open boats across the North Atlantic seeking new peoples to conquer. Their entire history is punctuated with the aggressive desire and will to win.

While Minnesota is populated by the descendants of settlers from many nations, the area has a rich Nordic lore, perhaps due to the mythology of Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, perhaps due to the preponderance of the "sons" and "sens" in the phone book. The Vikings, too, were Nordics; hence the name represents in a large part the solid stock of people who call Minnesota their home.

MIKE SINGLETARY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/LINEBACKERS
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 11TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 23RD SEASON (11 COACHING/12 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

When Mike Singletary and Leslie Frazier were rookie defenders for the Chicago Bears in 1981 neither could have thought their paths would eventually lead to working together on the coaching staff of the Minnesota Vikings 30 years later. But, fate and football are funny that way. The young Bears became roommates and friends in the early 1980s and are reunited now coaching an old Central Division rival. Singletary returns in 2013 to share Vikings LB coaching duties with veteran LBs coach Fred Pagac and serves the team as Assistant Head Coach.

In Singletary's 2nd season with the Vikings in 2012 he shared LB coaching duties with veteran Vikings staff member Fred Pagac. The Vikings defense clamped down on opponents in the crucial final month of the season when the team went 4-0 to finish 10-6 and earn an NFC Wild Card playoff berth. The unit was led by 2nd-time Pro Bowler Chad Greenway, who notched a career-high 191 tackles to lead the team for the 5th straight season and the LBs combined for 6.0 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and an INT. The Vikings LBs started the same core of Greenway, MLB Jasper Brinkley and OLB Erin Henderson throughout the season with only Henderson missing 2 games during the season. Brinkley rebounded from missing 2011 on injured reserve to start 15 games, rank 2nd on the team with 117 tackles and tied for 2nd on the club with 3 FFs.

During his 1st season with the Vikings in 2011, Singletary oversaw a crew that was led by Greenway as the 6th-year pro had a career season. Greenway earned his 1st Pro Bowl berth and set a then-career-high with 174 tackles. Greenway notched his career-best with 22 tackles in a game vs. Oakland, the 2nd-most single-game tackles in Vikings history.

Singletary prepared Erin Henderson to start at OLB alongside his older brother, E.J., in 2011 as the younger Henderson entered his 1st season as a regular starter.

Singletary understands the role Frazier is in better than most as both men started their head coaching careers on a difficult interim basis. Singletary replaced former boss Mike Nolan after 7 games during the 2008 season and led the 49ers to a 5-2 finish in the final 7 games of the season after going 0-2 to start his tenure. He was named 49ers Head Coach moving forward and led the club to an 8-8 mark in 2009, the best record since 2002. Singletary led the team for the opening 15 games of 2010 before ownership relieved him of his duties.

The 2010 49ers showcased a tough defense, ranking #13 in total defense, #6 against the run and were #7 in the NFL at forcing opposing offenses to go 3-and-out. The club dropped 4 games in the opening half of the season by a combined 11 points and rallied to a 5-5 mark in Singletary's final 10 games on the job, including a win over Denver in the NFL's International Series game played in London.

Singletary got his first taste of NFL coaching working with the inside LBs for Baltimore in 2003-04 before going with Nolan to serve as Assistant Head Coach/LBs coach for the 49ers in 2005. From 2006-08, Singletary served as Assistant Head Coach/Defense.

During his tenure in Baltimore, Singletary worked with future Hall of Famer Ray Lewis as he earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2003. The duo shared that unique bond as Singletary had been Defensive Player of the Year in 1985 and 1988.

Singletary's focus on defense helped the Ravens rank #3 and #6 in total defense during his two seaosns respectively. When he went to San Francisco with head coach Mike Nolan, the squad's defensive talent was depleted and ranked #32 in the NFL in total defense for the 2005 season. In the next 5 seasons the 49ers would climb to back-to-back #6 finishes against the run in 2009 and '10, ranking #15 and #13 in total defense respectively.

Singletary helped 49ers rookie LB Patrick Willis earn AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2007 and earn Pro Bowl honors in his opening 3 seasons, 2007-09.

Singletary's legend as a player is well chronicled over his 12-year career with the Bears. His 10 consecutive Pro Bowls stands as a franchise record and he earned 1st-Team All-Pro honors 8 times. He ranked #1 or #2 on the team in tackles in each of his final 11 seasons with the team and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1998, 3 years after he earned College Football Hall of Fame honors. During his career with Chicago, Singletary was part of 6 NFC Central Division title teams and made the playoffs 7 times, including playing in 3 NFC Championship games. From 1984-88 the Bears won 5 straight Division crowns, won Super Bowl XX, played in 3 NFC title games and amassed a 62-17 regular season record.

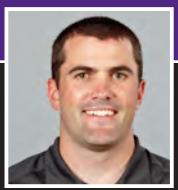

A man of deep faith, Singletary finds motivation and meaning from the scriptures he studies daily. Singletary and wife, Kim, have seven children, two sons-in-law and one grandchild.

KEVIN STEFANSKI

ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 9TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON

Kevin Stefanski begins his 5th season working with the QBs and offensive coaching staff in 2013 and enters his 8th season overall with the Vikings.

The Vikings 2012 season exceeded outside expectations by going 10-6 and earning a berth in the playoffs as a Wild Card. The team continued to develop throughout the season and QB Christian Ponder grew as a signal caller as the season went on. Ponder's improved play in the final month of the season was a key element of the Vikings going 4-0 down the stretch to earn a playoff spot. Ponder's career-best game came vs. Green Bay (12/30) in the regular season finale in a must-win situation to make the postseason. He set a career-best with a 120.2 passer rating and tied his career-high with 3 TD tosses. Ponder did not throw an INT in the final 3 games and had 8 games during the season without throwing a pick. He notched a completion percentage of 70.0%+ in 5 games and had 4 games with a passer rating of 100+. Ponder became the 7th Vikings QB to win 10 games as the starter.

The 2010 campaign was challenging to the Vikings as injuries derailed any consistency the team could build. The team started 3 different QBs, including rookie Joe Webb for the final 2 games of the regular season on the road. The team started Brett Favre for the opening 12 games of his 20th NFL season before injuries severely limited him to 1 more start in the final 4 games. Veteran backup Tarvaris Jackson started 1 game against the NY Giants but suffered a season-ending injury in that contest. Webb relieved Favre in the 1st half of the Monday Night Football game vs. Chicago (12/20) and started the final 2 outings, engineering an upset win over NFC East champion Philadelphia on the road. Webb became only the 2nd QB in team history to win his 1st start as a rookie and ran for TDs in consecutive weeks against Chicago and at Philadelphia.

In 2009, Stefanski had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offensive seasons in Vikings history. The team improved dramatically in the passing game and developed new playmakers in prominent roles. Stefanski and the offensive staff helped veteran free agent QB Brett Favre mesh with the offense despite reporting to the team in mid-August.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski became acquainted with Childress during Philadelphia Eagles training camp in 2005 while working with the team's operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, as Assistant Director of Football Operations. He coordinated all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations of the football team.

Before stepping off the field and into the administration of the team, Stefanski was a standout defensive back at Penn. A team captain as a senior in 2004, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won Ivy League titles in 2000, 2002 and 2003 and the squad went undefeated in league play during 2002 and 2003.

Twice honored as an Honorable Mention All-Ivy choice in 2002 and 2004, Stefanski ranked 3rd on the team in tackles as a senior. He was named Penn's Defensive Rookie of the Year as a freshman in 2000 when he had a career-high 4 interceptions. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy play. As a senior, the team went 10-0 to become the 1st undefeated Penn team in a decade.

Stefanski holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia. The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a standout in basketball at Penn and has held executive positions with the NBA's New Jersey Nets, Philadelphia 76ers and Toronto Raptors.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, reside in Edina with their sons, Will and Gabe.

VIKINGS WERE VISIONARY IN VISION PROTECTION

Long-time Vikings Equipment Manager Dennis Ryan has seen his fair share of changes in the NFL over his 37 years working with the team. He has also been on the cutting edge of some changes that have become commonplace in modern football. If necessity is the mother of invention, Ryan fathered his own invention to help former Vikings defensive lineman Mark Mullaney.

After suffering a poke to the eye in a 1984 game, Mullaney and Ryan came up with a solution to allow him back on the field and to play with confidence. Ryan formed a piece of plexiglass to fit into Mullaney's face mask and thus started a trend that would carry on to this day- the visor. Future Vikings would make the look standard, most famously future Hall of Famer Randall McDaniel.

GEORGE STEWART

WIDE RECEIVERS
NFL EXPERIENCE: 26TH SEASON (25 COACHING/1 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 7TH SEASON

George Stewart enters his 7th season on the Vikings staff in 2013 and his 25th season of NFL coaching.

The Vikings WR corps benefits from Stewart's decades of experience and ability to put players in the best situations to succeed.

The 2012 squad was forced to groom new talent to contribute to the passing game after leading receiver Percy Harvin was sidelined for the final 7 games. Stewart prepared rookie Jarius Wright to step into action in Harvin's absence and catch 22 passes in the final 7 games with a pair of TDs and reel in the longest Vikings pass plays of the season- a 65-yarder vs. Green Bay (12/30) and a 54-yard grab vs. Detroit (11/11) on his 1st career reception. Savvy veteran Michael Jenkins ranked 3rd on the team with 40 catches and had a pair of TDs.

Over the years, Stewart has been a part of successful programs, highlighted by 8 playoff appearances in the past 15 seasons and 3 NFC Championship games with San Francisco in 1997, Atlanta in 2004 and Minnesota in 2009. Recently, Stewart helped win 4 Division titles in the past 10 seasons – consecutive NFC North titles with Minnesota in 2008 and 2009, winning the NFC South with Atlanta in 2004 and an NFC West title in 2002 with San Francisco.

During his Vikings tenure, Stewart has coached Harvin to 2009 Rookie of the Year honors and Sidney Rice to a Pro Bowl berth in 2009. The 2011 season saw Harvin's production increase even more, as he set career-highs in receptions with 87 and receiving yards with 967. He also tied his career-high for receiving TDs with 6. His 87 receptions ranked 6th in the NFL. Harvin also set team-records for most rushing yards in a season by a WR with 345 and most career rushing yards by a WR with 587.

The 2009 Vikings became only the 2nd team in NFL history to have 6 players catch 40+ passes in a season. Rice enjoyed a breakout season and Harvin established himself as multi-talented offensive threat. Rice's 1,312 yards ranked 2nd in the NFC in 2009 and he became only the 4th Vikings WR in team history to eclipse the 1,300-yard mark. Rice's 201 yards vs. Detroit ranks as the 4th-best single-game mark in Vikings history.

Stewart was able to get Harvin acclimated to the pro game and spurred him to NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year. Harvin tied for the NFL rookie lead in receptions and yards. Harvin excelled on offense and special teams, earning a Pro Bowl berth as a return man and setting a new Vikings record with 2,081 total net yards. His 60 catches ranked 2nd only to Randy Moss' 1998 debut season when he had 69 receptions in Vikings history for rookie catches.

In 2008, the Vikings WRs contributed to much of the success of an improved passing attack. The Vikings led the NFL with 13 TDs through the air of 20+ yards. Berrian had a career year, setting highs in yards with 964 and TDs with 7.

Throughout Stewart's coaching career, he has been fortunate to learn from some of the game's all-time greats, beginning both his playing and early coaching careers under college legend Lou Holtz. Stewart went on to work in the NFL side-by-side with Chuck Noll, Sam Wyche, George Seifert and Dan Reeves, all men who led teams to the Super Bowl.

During Stewart's tenure in Atlanta, the team won the NFC South title in 2004 and advanced to the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia.

Prior to joining Atlanta, Stewart was an integral part of the San Francisco 49ers' success from 1996-2002, as the team advanced to the playoffs 5 times in those 7 seasons. In 1997, the 49ers won the NFC West with a 13-3 mark and eventually lost to Green Bay in the NFC Championship game. Stewart tutored Terrell Owens, J.J. Stokes and Tai Streets, with Owens making Pro Bowls and All-Pro in 3 straight seasons from 2000-02. Owens had 17 games over the 100-yard receiving mark and 5 games with 150+ yards. He broke a 50-year-old NFL record when he caught 20 passes for 283 yards against the Bears in 2000 en route to his career-best day.

Stewart's 1st taste of NFL coaching came in Pittsburgh from 1989-91, where he coached special teams on Noll's staff. In his debut season in 1989, he helped Rod Woodson to a Pro Bowl as a return man. Following Pittsburgh, Stewart went on to spend 4 years coaching Tampa Bay special teams, where he helped K Mike Husted earn All-Rookie honors in 1993.

Before making the move to the NFL, Stewart spent several years in the college ranks, making his final stop as the Notre Dame LBs coach from 1986-88. Under Holtz's tutelage, the Irish steadily improved from the coach's opening season in '86 to become national champions in 1988, a year in which the team finished 12-0 and defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl.

Stewart and Holtz began working together in 1983, when Stewart got his start in coaching as an Arkansas graduate assistant, working with the Razorbacks' TEs. When Holtz moved from Arkansas to Minnesota as the Golden Gophers head coach in 1984, Stewart accompanied him as the offensive line coach, his 1st exposure to the state where he would return in 2007. In 2 short seasons, Holtz and his staff quickly turned the Gophers program around, finishing 7-5 in 1985 and winning the Independence Bowl over Clemson, the 1st bowl victory for the Gophers since the 1962 Rose Bowl.

Stewart was a standout guard for the Razorbacks from 1977-80 and helped the squad share the 1979 Southwest Conference title. The team played in 4 straight bowl games during Stewart's playing tenure as Arkansas returned to national prominence under Holtz. Stewart was an All-SWC honoree as a junior in 1979, served as a team captain in 1980 and earned a spot on the Arkansas Team of the Decade for the 1970s. He signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1981 but spent the season on injured reserve.

Stewart has a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas and is a native of Little Rock, AR, where he graduated from Parkview High School in 1977.

JOE WOODS

DEFENSIVE BACKS
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 22ND SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 10TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON

Joe Woods enters his 8th season with the Vikings and 10th coaching in the NFL in 2013. The Vikings secondary improved by leaps and bounds in 2012 with the benefit of a healthy core group and infusion of young talent.

The 2012 Vikings defense raised its game down the stretch as the team won the final 4 games to finish 10-6 and earn a Wild Card playoff berth.

The Vikings DBs were led by veteran CB Antoine Winfield and rookie S Harrison Smith who tied for the team lead with 3 INTs each with Smith returning a pair of the picks for scores to tie the Vikings rookie record. Smith ranked 2nd on the team with 129 tackles and Winfield tied his career-best and Vikings CB-record with 110 stops. Smith earned All-Rookie honors and was joined by fellow rookie CB Josh Robinson who started 6 games during the year. Smith was the 1st Vikings DB to earn All-Rookie since Orlando Thomas in 1995.

The 2011 season tested the depth of the Vikings secondary, as injuries contributed to 11 different DBs starting throughout the year as Woods was forced with shuffling the lineup frequently. Third-year safety Jamarca Sanford finished with 2 INTs in a Week 5 win vs. Arizona, which tied him for 2nd in the NFL for most in a game by a safety in 2011. Sanford led Vikings DBs and finished 3rd on the team with 118 total tackles.

Leading the charge in 2010 for Woods' DBs was 3-time Pro Bowler Winfield. The 12-year veteran was selected to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl after setting the Vikings record for tackles by a cornerback with 110, which was good for 3rd on the team behind linebackers Chad Greenway and E.J. Henderson. The Vikings DBs accounted for 9 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 forced fumbles. The Vikings defense also limited big plays, allowing just 49 plays of 20+ yards which was 4th best in the NFL.

The Vikings toughness in the back end has been a contributing factor in the team building a reputation as one of the most opportunistic defenses in the NFL. The Vikings ranked #6 in total defense in 2009, the 2nd straight year achieving the mark. The back-to-back top 10 defensive rankings were the 1st time by a Vikings defense since 1993-94. The defense played a key part in the Vikings back-to-back NFC North titles and winning the most games (22) in the NFC over the 2008-09 seasons.

In 2009, the Vikings DBs had their depth tested when Winfield was sidelined by injury for 6 games and starting SS Tyrell Johnson missed a game. Sapp and Karl Paymah filled in for Winfield and the team went 4-2 without the emotional leader of the backfield. A pair of rookies, Allen and Sanford, started games at nickel back and in place of Johnson respectively and showed their talents for the future. In a breakout season, Griffin led the team with 4 INTs.

Winfield was honored in 2008 with his 1st Pro Bowl berth as a 10-year veteran, joining Darren Sharper in the backfield as recent Vikings to be named to the NFC all-star team. Winfield's career year in 2008 highlighted a group that produced INTs by 7 different players.

The 2008 DBs had to battle injuries and overcome adversity in helping the Vikings rank #6 in the NFL in total defense, the highest finish since 1994. Despite the personnel shuffling, the Vikings DBs helped the total defense jump from #20 in 2007 to #6 in 2008. Each of the 6 top Vikings DBs intercepted passes in 2008 and showed their value in run support.

In 2007, all 4 regular starters in the Vikings secondary scored TDs, 3 by INT return and 1 on a fumble recovery. Woods led a defensive backfield that featured Sharper earning his 4th career Pro Bowl trip. The rock of the unit, Winfield, built on his reputation as the best tackling CB in the NFL and scored on an INT-return in the season opener vs. Atlanta. Against the NY Giants, the Vikings set a team record as they returned 3 INTs for TDs, including a 93-yard return by Dwight Smith that ranks as the 4th-longest INT return in Vikings' history.

The Vikings ended the 2006 season ranked #8 in the NFL in total defense. The Vikings DBs had 3 players tie for the team lead with 4 INTs each- Smith, Sharper and Winfield. The trio also ranked 2nd, 4th and 5th on the team in tackles.

In 2006, Woods helped develop a trio of rookies- Griffin, S Greg Blue and CB Charles Gordon- who started a combined 10 games. Griffin earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Detroit (12/10/06), becoming the 5th Vikings CB to earn the award and only the 2nd since 1992.

In Tampa, Woods coached with 2006 Vikings defensive coordinator and current Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin, fielding top-5 defenses in each of Woods' 2 seasons.

In 2005, Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense, allowing 277.8 yards per game while CB Ronde Barber and LB Derrick Brooks earned Pro Bowl berths for the 2nd consecutive season. Barber set a Tampa Bay single-season record for most tackles by a CB with 120 and he led the team with 7 INTs. In 2004, Woods was part of a defensive staff that helped the Bucs finish 5th in the NFL in total defense and 1st in pass defense.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Woods was the DBs coach at Western Michigan for 3 seasons (2001-03) and spent 3 seasons (1998-2000) on the staff at Hofstra where the team made a pair of trips to the 1-AA playoff quarterfinals.

Woods spent a season at Kent State University (1997) as DBs coach prior to joining the staff at Hofstra. He also coached the DBs at Grand Valley State (1994-97), ILBs at Northwestern State University in the spring of 1994, and was a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan (1993-94). Woods entered coaching in 1992 at Muskingum College.

Woods was a 4-year letterman at safety and a captain as a senior at Illinois State. He earned 1st-team All-Gateway honors in 1991 and earned a degree in criminal justice in 1992.

Woods was born in North Vandergrift, PA. He and his wife, Ellen, have daughters, Brianna and Danari and son, Geno.

PART OF THE FABRIC OF MINNESOTA SINCE 1961

The following excerpt explains the early stages of the Vikings franchise as chronicled in the Minnesota Vikings 1961 Press, Radio, TV Guide.

Twin Cities football enthusiasts began their quest for professional football some 12 years ago, and it was on January 28, 1960, that their efforts were culminated with the announcement – from Miami, Florida, where the National Football League owners were in session- that Minnesota was being granted a franchise for 1961. At the same meeting, Dallas was accepted to start play in 1960.

The franchise was granted just ten days after E. William Boyer, president of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, had made an official presentation to the league on behalf of statewide Minnesota interests.

Besides Boyer in the founding group were: Max Winter, promoter and restauranteur, H.P. Skoglund, president of North American Life and Casualty Company; Ole Haugsrud, Duluth businessman, and the Northwest Publications, Inc., publishers of the St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press, through its president, Bernard H. Ridder. Jr.

They decided to start with an original outlay of one million dollars, of which the Minneapolis sources would put up $600,000; St. Paul $300,000 and Duluth, representing the rest of the state, $100,000.

Upon acquiring a franchise, the group hired Joe Thomas, former scout with the Los Angeles Rams, to scout the country in preparation for the 1961 draft meeting, and went on a nationwide search to find a general manager. This ended with the selection of Bert E. Rose, who was at the time the public relations director for the Rams. From September, 1960, when Rose reported, until July, 1961, such details as hiring a coaching and front-office staff, contracting for radio and television, establishing a ticket operation, drafting, selecting and signing players, and many more, have - or will be- accomplished in order to put the Vikings on the field in 1961.

GEORGE PATON

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

George Paton enters his 7th season with the Vikings in 2013, serving as the club's Assistant General Manager and working with General Manager Rick Spielman.

The duo have a long professional history together, having worked on the personnel staffs in Chicago and Miami before joining forces again in Minnesota.

The 2012 Vikings benefitted from an influx of young talent and spurred the squad to a Vikings-record 7-win improvement over the previous season, finishing 10-6 and earning a Wild Card playoff berth. The Vikings landed 3 draft picks on the All-Rookie team and a pair of rookies garnered Pro Bowl honors. Vikings FB Jerome Felton joined the team as a free agent in 2012 and went on to a career year, paving the way for Adrian Peterson to post the 2nd-best rushing mark in NFL history with 2,097 yards and earned his 1st career All-Pro and Pro Bowl recognition.

The Vikings roster development through free agency, trades and the draft built the foundation for the back-to-back NFC North Champions in 2008 and 2009. The Vikings tied a team record with 10 players earning Pro Bowl berths in 2009, 5 were acquired by the draft, 4 by free agency and 1 via trade.

The 2009 team tied the 2nd-most wins in franchise history with a 12-4 mark in the regular season and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 2000. The Vikings 22 wins over the 2008 and 2009 seasons leads the NFC over that span and ranks 2nd in the NFL.

Paton's primary focus is coordinate scouting and personnel functions within the Vikings Pro Scouting Department and lend his expertise to the College Scouting Department as they prepare for the annual NFL Draft.

Paton spent 6 seasons (2001-06) with the Miami Dolphins as Director of Pro Personnel. Paton began his NFL career in the college and pro scouting departments of the Chicago Bears, rising to the position of Assistant Director of Pro Personnel in 2000.

A 4-year letter winner as a DB at UCLA from 1988-91, Paton was a part of a pair of Bruin bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in history and went on to play in professional football leagues in Italy and Austria.

Paton (pronounced Payton) and wife, Barbara, have a daughter, Bella and son, Beau.

DENNIS RYAN

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

One of the veteran equipment managers in the NFL, Dennis Ryan enters his 38th season on service with the Vikings in 2013. A lifetime resident of St. Paul, Ryan joined the Vikings in 1976 as an assistant to Jim "Stubby" Eason, who spent 20 years as the Vikings Equipment Manager. Ryan was elevated to the position in June 1981. At a mere 21, Ryan became the youngest equipment manager in the NFL. He is only the second person in Vikings history to hold the job.

In 1984 Ryan designed the first eye shield to be worn by a player in an NFL game, creating a shield to protect defensive lineman Mark Mullaney, who had suffered an eye injury in a previous game. The revolutionary idea caught on and evolved into a common piece of football equipment. In March 1995 Ryan received the Whitey Zimmerman Award, recognizing the NFL's Equipment Manager of the Year.

Ryan attended the University of Minnesota (1978-79) and University of St. Thomas (1980-81). He and wife Laura, have three children, Ben, Maureen and Annie, and reside in St. Paul.

2013 SCHEDULE INCLUDES VISITS TO NEW VENUES

The Vikings face the AFC North and NFC East in interconferece and intraconference play during the 2013 season. The schedule alignment also includes a few unique matchups. The club will play at Dallas' new Cowboys Stadium (pictured below) for the 1st time on 11/3/13. The stadium holds special memories for newly-acquired Vikings free agents Greg Jennings and Desmond Bishop as it was the home to Super Bowl XLV when the duo helped Green Bay top Pittsburgh for the Lombardi Trophy. The Vikings open the season with a pair of road games for the 1st time since 2009 and return to Mall of America Field for the home opener against Cleveland. The Browns have not visited Minnesota since 2005. The Vikings play consecutive prime time games at NY Giants (10/21) on ESPN's Monday Night Football and follow up by hosting Green Bay (10/27) on NBC Sunday Night Football. The Sunday Night matchup against the Packers will mark the 5th consecutive season the Vikings and Packers have met on Sunday or Monday Night Football. The last time the Vikings played the Giants on the road on Monday Night Football dates back to 10/10/94. For the 4th consecutive season the Vikings will play Washington, the Redskins visit Minnesota on 11/7/13 for the 1st time since 2007 and the game will be broadcast on NFL Network. The last road trip of the regular season will take the Vikings to Cincinnati on 12/22/13, the 1st time at Cincinnati since 2005. The Vikings and Bengals will meet for only the 12th time in franchise history and the trip will be only the 2nd time the Vikings have played at FirstEnergy Stadium. The final regular season game in the 32-season tenure of the Vikings inside Mall of America Field will be the 2013 regular season finale vs. Detroit (12/29). The Vikings have won more games against Detroit than any other franchise, holding a 68-33-2 all-time regular season record against the Lions and have amassed a 37-13-1 record at home against their original division foes.

The Vikings travel to the new Cowboys Stadium for the 1st time on 11/3/13.

PP&K THE VIKINGS WAY

Building football skills and keeping kids involved in an active lifestyle makes Punt, Pass and Kick one of the Vikings longest-standing and most popular events. Every year, kids from across the Upper Midwest compete in local events with the hope of advancing to Mall of America Field for a chance to compete nationally for a PP&K title.

Punt, Pass and Kick was established in 1961, just like the Vikings. The competition is the oldest youth football activity sponsored by the NFL. The PPK program is a national skills competition for boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 15 to compete separately against their peers. Girls and boys in five separate age divisions (6-7, 8-9, 10-11, 12-13, and 14-15) compete against each other in punting, passing and place kicking in a fun and engaging forum. The PPK program is free – both to organizers who host a local competition and to every youngster who wants to participate. With more than three million boys and girls from around the country taking part in PPK competitions every year from July through January, it is one of the world's largest youth sports participation programs.

EXPANSION VIKINGS LAND 36 VETS TO START CLUB

From the 1961 Vikings Press, Radio and TV Guide, the following explanation described the Vikings 1961 expansion draft additions that would lay the personnel groundwork of the team:

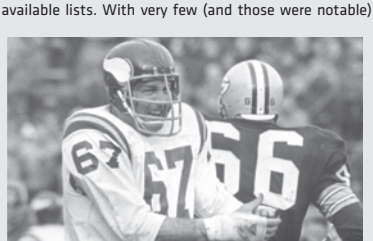

In an effort to assist the Vikings in stocking the nucleus of a playing roster, the National Football League established a program whereby Minnesota could select three veteran ball players from each team in the NFL, with the lone exception of Dallas.

Each club was allowed to "freeze" 30 of the 38 men on its roster. There were not available for selection by the Vikings. From the remaining eight, the Vikings chose three from each of the 12 clubs.

Minnesota purchased these players at a total cost of $600,000. Of this amount, $50,000 went to the league and the balance was divided 12 equal ways. The Vikings' philosophy as pre-determined by General Manager Bert Rose and Head Coach Norm Van Brocklin, was to accent youth in making the selections from the available lists. With very few (and those were notable) exceptions, the Viking choices were in line with that philosophy.

VIKINGS ORIGINAL STARTING LINEUP

The Vikings take the field for the 50th season in franchise history in 2010 and have seen the NFL change dramatically over the years. The players who started the upset win over Chicago in the 1961 opener were a mix of future stars and aging veterans who were embarking on a new adventure with the NFL's fledgling franchise. The team started veteran signal-caller George Shaw instead of rookie phenom Fran Tarkenton, a footnote in history to Tarkenton's Hall of Fame career. Tarkenton came off the bench late in the 1st quarter to spearhead the Vikings to a win over the same Bears club that posted a dominating 30-7 win only two weeks prior in a preseason game played in Cedar Rapids, IA.

Tarkenton threw 4 TDs passes and hit on 17-of-23 for 250 yards. The Vikings opened the scoring in the game with a Mike Mercer FG. Tarkenton connected with Bob Schnelker on the 1st TD pass of his career on a 14-yard toss. Tarkenton went on to throw TDs to Jerry Reichow from 29 yards, Hugh McElhenny from a yard out and ran for a 3-yard TD himself on a QB keeper. He rounded out the day with a 2-yard TD pass to Dave Middleton and the upstart Vikings notched a 37-13 win.

The Vikings-Bears rivalry date back to the 1st game in franchise history when the expansion Vikings topped the Bears 37-13. The teams have had some unique twists in the history of the series, both hosting home games at collegiate stadiums- the 2002 season opener at the University of Illinois and the 2010 home finale for the Vikings at TCF Bank Stadium on the Minnesota campus.

HOMES OF THE VIKINGS

The Vikings played their home games for 21 seasons (1961-81) at Metropolitan Stadium. The team has played its games for the last 31 seasons (1982-2012) at Mall of America Field at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 53-year history: Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, and Mall of America Field at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis. On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the LA Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over 21 seasons the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. On December 20, 1981, the Vikings played the last game at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year. The VIkings will enter their last season in the Metrodome in 2013 after the passage of a new stadium bill. The new Vikings stadium will be built on the current Metrodome site with an expected completion date in time for the 2016 NFL season. During construction the Vikings will play their home games on the University of Minnesota's campus at TCF Bank Stadium.

The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 63,725. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens and 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings. In 31 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have a 164-89 record, which includes a 6-4 mark in NFL playoff action. The 2013 season marks the Vikings 32nd campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome, 11 seasons longer than the Vikings played at Metropolitan Stadium. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1992 and 2001 NCAA Final Four basketball tournaments and the 1998 NFC Championship Game. The Metrodome also hosted an NCAA Men's Basketball Regional in 2000, 2003, and 2005.

The Vikings and Mall of America® announced a partnership on Oct. 1, 2009, for the naming rights to the team's home field. The agreement provided that the field will be called Mall of America Field at Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome and began on October 5, 2009

"Branding the field as Mall of America Field represents an opportunity to share our name and image with an even larger nationwide audience," said Maureen Bausch, Executive Vice President of Business Development at Mall of America. "It also connects two treasured Minnesota brands- Mall of America and the Minnesota Vikings- which adds value to both companies." As part of the agreement, Mall of America Field was branded with new exterior and interior signage, as well as various promotional materials.

"This was a great opportunity for the Vikings to uniquely partner with a very prominent business that has a deep commitment to the Minnesota community," said Steve LaCroix, Vikings Vice President of Sales and Marketing & Chief Marketing Officer. "As another step in re-branding the stadium for the short-term, we hope Mall of America Field continues to give the team an important home field advantage while providing many exciting memories for our fans."

VOICES OF THE VIKINGS

Entering his 12th season in 2013 as the Vikings radio play-by-play voice is KFAN radio mid-day personality Paul Allen. Joining Allen as the color commentator is former Vikings LB and coach Pete Bercich.

Allen served as the Vikings Internet web cast play-by-play voice during the 2000 season and called one Vikings game during the 2001 season.

Bercich returns for his 7th season with the broadcasts in 2013 and brings a decade of NFL experience from the field and sideline. A 7th-round draft pick by the Vikings in 1994, Bercich overcame the odds and played for the team from 1995-2000. A standout special teamer, Bercich parlayed his knowledge of the game into a job coaching with the team from 2002-05.

Joining Allen and Bercich from the sidelines and co-hosting the pre-game show will be former Vikings punter Greg Coleman. Coleman punted for the Vikings from 1978-87 and is the team's all-time leader in punts (721), punting yards (29,391) and ranks 2nd in punts inside the 20-yard line (154).

Pete Bercich, Paul Allen and Greg Coleman

KFAN-FM (100.3) and KTCN-AM (1130 AM) serve as the flagship stations for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in six states.
