IN MEMORIAM

TIMOTHY J. MARA
1935-1995

Timothy J. Mara, the former co-owner, vice president and treasurer of the New York Football Giants, died of cancer on May 31, 1995 in Jupiter, Florida at the Jupiter Medical Center. He was 59.

Mr. Mara was the grandson of the late Timothy J. Mara, founder of the Giants, and the son of John V. Mara, who died in 1965. Upon his father's death, Mr. Mara joined his uncle Wellington Mara as co-owner of the team until he negotiated the sale of his family's half of the franchise to Preston Robert Tisch in March of 1991.

Mr. Mara was associated with the Giants from his earliest years, attending his first training camp at age six. Throughout his scholastic career, he served an apprenticeship in all the departments of the team's front office and joined the organization on a full-time basis after his graduation from Iona College in 1957.

Mr. Mara was a key figure in the Giants' move from Yankee Stadium to New Jersey and in the construction of Giants Stadium. Working closely with the design architects, contractors and New Jersey state officials, he was involved in every aspect of the new stadium's design and completion. He was also instrumental in the 1979 reorganization that brought George Young, the team's current vice president and general manager, to the Giants.

Mr. Mara was buried from St. Ignatius Loyola Church in Manhattan on June 5.

WELLINGTON MARA

PRESIDENT & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on October 18, 1925 when the New York Giants played their first home game against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. It was on that day that the then nine-year old Wellington T. Mara began a lifetime that has been dedicated to the Giants and the National Football League.

Wellington Mara has been involved in every aspect of operating the Giants during his seven decades with the team, from his first job as a ballboy at training camp to the on-the-field operations to scouting and general organization, and eventually to the front office executive capacity where he now serves as President and Co-Chief Executive Officer. The only interruption in Mara's Giants career was World War II when he served with distinction for more than three years in the Navy, seeing action in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters aboard aircraft carriers and emerging as a Lieutenant Commander.

Because of his extensive background in the development and growth of the National Football League, Wellington Mara is recognized as one of the league's leaders. He has been instrumental in the outstanding accomplishments of the Giants: 16 NFL Divisional championships and six NFL championships, including the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV championship titles.

Wellington Mara has not only served the Giants admirably over the years, but he has also been a valuable contributor to league efforts, having served on many ownership committees. From 1971 until 1977, he was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council, the labor arm of the NFL, and it was under his leadership that the league achieved five years of labor peace from 1977 to 1982. Wellington was elected President of the National Football Conference in 1984, succeeding the late George Halas in that role. Mara is currently a member of the Realignment, Hall of Fame and Player-Club Operations committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the Management Council.

In 1925, Wellington's father, Timothy J. Mara, purchased the Giants franchise to establish a New York entry in the fledgling National Football League. The Mara family's presence has been constant with the Giants since Timothy Mara's purchase of the team. In addition to Timothy's and Wellington's involvement, Wellington's older brother, the late Jack Mara, served as the club's President until his death in 1965. After Jack's death, his son Tim served as Vice President and Treasurer of the team until Bob Tisch purchased the Jack Mara holdings in 1991. Today, two of Wellington's sons are important members of the organization: John Kevin as Executive Vice President and General Counsel and Frank as Director of Promotions.

Until 1965, Wellington Mara was responsible for the franchise's football decisions, while his brother Jack handled the business side of the team. A key to the Giants' championships in the late-'50s and early-'60s were trades engineered by Wellington that brought Y.A. Tittle, Andy Robustelli, Del Shofner, Dick Modzelewski, Pat Summerall, Joe Walton, Dick Lynch, Erich Barnes, Bill Svoboda, Harland Svare, Bob Schnelker, Herb Rich, Ed Hughes and Walt Yowarsky, among others, to the Giants. Draft choices Frank Gifford and Rosey Brown went on to become members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, as did Tuffy Leemans, whom Wellington personally scouted and recommended in 1936.

Wellington T. Mara, whose nickname is "Duke," was born on August 14, 1916 in New York City. He graduated from Loyola High School before matriculating to Fordham University where he earned his degree in 1937. His brother, Jack, preceded him to Fordham University where he earned a law degree, but Wellington was interested only in joining his father with the Giants and did so immediately after graduation. He has been with the organization ever since.

Wellington married the former Ann Mumm in 1954 and the Maras have 11 children: John Kevin, 40; Susan Ann, 39; Timothy Christopher, 38; Stephen Vincent, 36; Francis Xavier, 35; Shelia Marie, 33; Kathleen Mary, 32; Maureen Elizabeth, 30; Ann Marie, 28; Meghan Ann, 24; and Colleen Elizabeth, 22. The Maras, who reside in Rye, New York, also have 26 grandchildren.

PRESTON ROBERT TISCH

CHAIRMAN & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Preston Robert Tisch, a lifelong New Yorker and one of the country's most successful businessmen, realized a dream come true in February, 1991. It was at that time that he purchased 50% interest in the New York Giants and became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer of the organization.

Bob Tisch brings to the Giants an unparalleled business sense. In addition to his duties with the football club, Tisch is Co-Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer and a Director of Loews Corporation, one of the nation's largest and most successful financial companies. Tisch served as Postmaster General of the United States from August 1986 until returning to New York in March 1988. Prior to his appointment as Postmaster, he served as President and Chief Operating Officer of Loews Corporation and its corporate predecessor, Loews Theatres, Inc., a position he held since 1960.

Throughout his career Tisch has been active in civic affairs. He served as Chairman of the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau for 19 years and currently serves as the bureau's Chairman Emeritus. He was also founding Chairman of the New York Convention and Exhibition Center Corporation and Chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Conventions held in New York City in 1976 and 1980. In May 1990, New York City Mayor David N. Dinkins appointed Tisch New York City's Ambassador to Washington, a newly-created, unpaid position. In June 1990, Tisch was elected Chairman of the New York City Partnership, Inc. and the New York Chamber of Commerce and Industry. He was previously a Director of the Chamber.

Since his return to New York in 1988, Tisch has been elected to the Board of Directors of CBS Inc. and to the Board of Hasbro, Inc. He was re-elected to the Board of Rite Aid Corporation, renamed a Trustee of New York University, and as a founding co-chairman of Citymeals-on-Wheels, he now serves as President of the Board of Directors. Tisch serves as Chairman of the United States Capitol Preservation Commission, which raises funds for the restoration and renovation of the Capitol. He also was a member of the organizing committee for the 1990 Economic Summit of Industrialized Nations held in Houston. Tisch was recently honored by the Touchdown Club of America as he received the first David "Sonny" Werblin Award for his contributions to the sport of football and for his contributions to society.

The Loews company's history dates back to a summer camp in New Jersey, run by Tisch and his brother, Laurence, followed by the purchase of a hotel in Lakewood, New Jersey and the formation of Tisch Hotels, Inc. In 1959, the Tisch brothers bought controlling interest in Loews Theatres, Inc., a real estate-rich theater chain, which was sold in 1985. In 1971, after Loews acquired Lorillard tobacco, its name was changed to Loews Corporation. Since 1974, Loews has acquired controlling interests in CNA Financial Corporation and Bulova Corporation. Tisch has played an integral role in restructuring the management and market repositioning of both companies which has led to their continued growth and profitability. With 1994 revenues of $13.5 billion and assets exceeding $50 billion, Loews Corporation is a major factor in four diverse industries: operation of hotels and resorts through Loews Hotels; property, casualty and life insurance through 83% owned CNA Financial Corporation; production and sale of watches and timing devices through 97% owned Bulova Corporation; and production and sale of cigarettes through Lorillard Tobacco Company. In addition, Loews Corporation owns approximately 18% of the common stock of CBS Inc.

Tisch was born in New York City. He attended Bucknell University before entering the Army in 1944. After military service in World War II, he earned a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Michigan in 1948. Tisch is married to the former Joan Hyman, and they have three children: Steven, Laurie and Jonathan, who is Treasurer for the Giants. Tisch lives with his wife in New York City and Rye, New York.

JOHN K. MARA

EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT & GENERAL COUNSEL

John K. Mara, the oldest son of team President Wellington Mara, begins his fifth season with the Giants after joining the club in 1991 as Executive Vice President and General Counsel. In his present position, Mara heads all administrative and financial aspects of the organization and reports directly to the Co-Chief Executive Officers, Wellington Mara and Preston Robert Tisch. Mara spent more than a decade as a distinguished attorney with two prominent New York City law firms prior to joining the Giants.

Mara was born in New York City on December 1, 1954 and grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and then Harrison where he graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He continued his education at Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in Marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. John then entered the Fordham University Law School in that same year and earned his Law Degree in 1979. He then began his career as an attorney with the law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation, then two years later moved to the prestigious firm of Shea & Gould in Manhattan while working in his area of specialization. He continued with Shea & Gould until April 1991 when he joined the Giants.

Throughout his early and formative years, Mara was a familiar fixture at Giants training camps, initially as a ballboy, then as an on-the-field assistant to the coaching staff as well as an assistant in the public relations and media services offices. He also was in attendance at every home and away game, and during that span worked as a production assistant for the major television networks — CBS, NBC and ABC — during telecasts of Giants games in various capacities. He continued these affiliations while at Boston College.

John married the former Denise Walter on July 12, 1980 in Rye, New York. John and his wife are the parents of five children: Lauren, 14; Courtney, 12; John Jr., 11; Christine, 9; and Erin, 5. The Mara family resides in Harrison, New York. John's favorite hobbies include golf and coaching Little League baseball.

JONATHAN M. TISCH

TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch joined the Giants in February 1991 and immediately began his role as Treasurer. In addition to serving on the Giants Board of Directors, Tisch serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer for Loews Hotels.

During his tenure at Loews, Tisch has been instrumental in overseeing the company's growth and subsequent emergence as one of the leading luxury hotel chains. He has received numerous honors and accolades for his dedication and hard work. Most recently he was honored as the recipient of the "New Yorker for New York Award" given by the Citizen's Committee for New York City. He has also been named as one of the Business Travel Industry's Most Influential Executives by Business Travel News, as well as one of Crain's New York Business magazine's "All-Stars." Underscoring his presence as an industry leader, he serves as Treasurer of the American Hotel & Motel Association. Tisch also serves on the Commerce Department's Advisory Board, which provides guidance for the United States Travel & Tourism Administration (USTTA).

and also helps direct the National Tourism Policy. He is also a member of the Travel Industry Association of America's (TIA) Government Affairs Council.

Tisch is actively involved in several community philanthropic activities, such as the Pediatric AIDS Foundation and the Robert Steel Foundation for Pediatric Cancer Research at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center. He has also been instrumental in the efforts to bring the Grammy Awards to New York City and has served as Chairman of the Host Committee in 1988, 1991-92 and 1994.

A graduate of Tufts University, Tisch's affection for the television and film industry traces back to working as a Cinematographer/Producer at WBZ-TV in Boston where he received two Emmy Nominations.

GEORGE YOUNG

VICE-PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

George Young has created a lasting impact on the Giants since being named General Manager on Valentine's Day, 1979. Prior to his assuming the stewardship, the Giants had not been in NFL postseason play since the 1963 season, a 15-year famine at the time. Since he instituted his reconstruction policies, the Giants have now won two Super Bowl championships and have been to the NFL playoffs seven times while missing out on an eighth playoff season in the final game of the strike-shortened 1982 campaign and again in 1988 and 1994. The Giants' back-to-back winning playoff seasons in 1984 and 1985 also marked the first time that the club had achieved postseason play in consecutive years in 22 seasons. Young, who is heading into his 17th season at the helm of the Giants football operation, has been named the National Football League's Executive of the Year an unprecedented four times, winning the award in 1984, 1986, 1990 and 1993.

In building the Giants, Young has placed special emphasis on the draft. From his inaugural draft in 1979 through the 1994 selection process, Young has succeeded in signing every player drafted over that span, and from those drafts, a total of 105 players made the club at one time or another. Young's Giants draft list includes Pro Bowlers Lawrence Taylor, Phil Simms, Leonard Marshall, Mark Bavaro, Rodney Hampton and John Elliott. Over that same span, 22 of those drafted players were named to the All-NFL Rookie team, including 1993's eighth round draft choice LB Jessie Armstead and 1994 second round pick CB Thomas Randolph.

Prior to being named GM by the Giants, Young had spent 11 years in the NFL with the Baltimore Colts and Miami Dolphins. During his tenure with those two clubs, Young had been closely associated with Don Shula at both franchises and had served in a variety of capacities. He was initially brought into the Colts organization in 1968 by Shula as an assistant in the Personnel Department, then two years later was named offensive line coach with that Colts team going all the way to the Super Bowl and scoring a 16-13 win over the Dallas Cowboys. In 1971, Young was named Director of Player Personnel and then in 1973 was named Offensive Coordinator of the Colts by Howard Schnellenberger. A year later, Young rejoined Shula with the Miami Dolphins as Director of Personnel and Pro Scouting.

George Bernard Young was born on September 22, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland, and was an outstanding football player at Calvert Hall High School in Baltimore. He went on to Bucknell University where he was a starting defensive tackle for three seasons, team captain in 1951 and was named to the Little All-America first team and All-East first team in his senior year. Selected to play in the Blue-Gray game, he was then drafted by the Dallas Texans and played in professional football for one year.

Young then began a coaching career in the Baltimore school system at Calvert Hall and City College High School and over a 15-year span won six Maryland state championships and had a 60-11-2 record during one span. Additionally, Young was an educator while coaching in Baltimore, teaching History and Political Science. During that teaching career, George also earned two Master's degrees from John Hopkins University and Loyola College. He was further honored in May, 1987 when he was awarded an honorary Doctorate in Humane Letters from Western Maryland College. George and his wife, Mary Love, reside in Upper Saddle River, New Jersey.

COACHING STAFF

DAN REEVES
Head Coach

At the end of last season, head coach Dan Reeves told the New York writers, "If you take away the seven-game losing streak, we would have been undefeated." That statement was made after the Giants up-and-down year ended on an up note. Reeves and his staff were faced with many questions before the start of the 1994 season, not the least of which was what kind of production they would get from a young, inexperienced quarterback and secondary. Following a 3-0 start, Reeves' Giants suffered the seven-game losing streak, the longest of Reeves'

29-year NFL career. In what many say may have been his best coaching job ever, Reeves and his coaching staff managed to keep the team together as the Giants won their final six games to get back into playoff contention and finish the year with a 9-7 record.

Reeves is a winner, something that General Manager George Young already knew when he named Reeves the 14th head coach of the New York Giants on January 27, 1993. Reeves quickly proved to Giants followers just what kind of winner he is when he was named the Associated Press Coach of the Year after helping turn a 6-10 Giants 1992 season into a playoff qualifying 11-5 mark in 1993, the best-ever record for a first-year Giants coach. He became just the second head coach in Giants history to lead his team to the playoffs in his first season with the Giants. Allie Sherman was the other Giants head coach to do so in 1961.

Reeves came to the Giants after spending 12 years as head coach of the Denver Broncos (1981-1992). Reeves' 138 career victories going into the 1993 season, his 30th NFL season, gives him the eleventh-most victories in league history. His 138 victories is the second-best among active head coaches in the NFL, behind Miami's Don Shula (337). Reeves has only had two losing seasons in his 14 seasons as a head coach.

Reeves' record of success dates back to his playing days with the Dallas Cowboys. He has participated in 45 NFL postseason games, 15 games as a head coach, 16 as an assistant, six as a player-coach and eight as a player. Reeves has played or coached in a record eight Super Bowls, including leading Denver to three Super Bowl appearances as head coach (Super Bowls XXI, XXII and XXIV). In his 12 seasons in Denver, he produced five first place finishes in the American Football Conference Western Division, the three Super Bowl appearances and four AFC Championship Game appearances. From 1981-1991 Reeves' record at home was 65-20, the best in the NFL during that stretch of time. He was the only AFC coach in the decade of the 1980s to lead his team to consecutive Super Bowl appearances and he led Denver to seven 10-victory seasons in his 12 years. Under Reeves, the Broncos put together winning streaks of 10 games once, eight games once and four games nine times.

Reeves was the youngest head coach in the NFL when he assumed command of the Broncos in 1981 at the age of 37. Denver finished that first season with a 10-6 record and narrowly missed a playoff berth. In 1983, a 9-7 mark and a Wild Card berth earned Reeves a second place finish in the AFC Coach of the Year balloting by UPI, following a 2-7 record in the strike-shortened 1982 season.

In 1986, Reeves' Broncos won the AFC Championship with a team that featured a high-powered passing game that took care of the ball as it established a team record for lowest interception percentage (.029). Even though the Broncos compiled an 11-5 mark in 1985, Denver did not make the playoffs. That performance came on the heels of a 13-3 record in 1984, which gave Denver its highest victory total ever and Reeves was recognized as Coach of the Year.

In 1987, Reeves led an injury-riddled team to a 10-4-1 record, best in the AFC, and its second straight AFC West title. Even though the 1987 season was only 15 games, Denver set numerous single-season team records, including most touchdowns scored (tied team mark with 45), most yards total offense (5,624), most games scoring 20 or more points (12) and most consecutive games scoring 20 or more points (seven), which tied a mark from three other seasons. Also, the Broncos tied a team mark with six games of 30 or more points.

In 1989, Reeves led the Broncos back from an 8-8 mark in 1988 to their third Super Bowl appearance in four years while garnering AFC Coach of the year honors. Reeves' record of Super Bowl appearances in that four-year span was the first time an AFC coach had taken his team to the league's championship game with such frequency since Don Shula led the Miami Dolphins to three Super Bowls in 1971, 1972 and 1973.

In 1991, Reeves was named AFC Coach of the Year by the Kansas City 101 Club, the first time the club has ever honored a coach three times while he was coaching the same team, and Football News when the Broncos finished with a 12-4 record and earned a spot in the AFC Championship Game. It was the best turnaround effort in the NFL that season after the Broncos had finished with a 5-11 mark in 1990.

Even though his 1992 Denver team finished 8-8, his ballclub was still in the hunt for a Wild Card berth on the season's final weekend when the Broncos lost to the Kansas City Chiefs.

Until taking the Denver post, Reeves had been a member of the Dallas coaching staff since 1970, when he spent two seasons as a player-coach. In 1972 he was a full-time assistant coach in charge of the offensive backfield. Reeves was in private business in 1973 before returning to the coaching ranks in 1974 as the backfield coach for the Cowboys. He remained in that position until 1977 when he was named offensive coordinator on Tom Landry's staff.

Reeves began his professional playing career as a free agent running back for Dallas after having been an outstanding collegiate quarterback at the University of South Carolina where he is a member of the school's Hall of Fame. Reeves was an all-purpose player during his eight seasons (1965-1972) with Dallas (1,990 yards rushing with 25 TDs and 129 pass receptions for 1,693 yards and 17 TDs) and he finished his playing career as the fifth all-time rusher in Dallas history. In addition, he completed 30 passes, including two for TDs, on the halfback option, and he also returned punts and kickoffs at various times.

Reeves was born in Americus, Georgia on January 19, 1944. Reeves and his wife Pam, who celebrated their 31st wedding anniversary on June 27, have three children — daughters Dana and Laura, and a son Lee. They also have two granddaughters, Caitlin and Ashley.

GIANTS TID BIT

Under Dan Reeves, the Giants are 17-7 when they rush for 100 or more yards; the Giants are 3-5 when they rush for less than 100.

ASSISTANT COACHES

GEORGE HENSHAW OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

George Henshaw enters his third season with the Giants after being named offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on February 2, 1993. In his first season, the 1993 Giants offense featured a running game that led the NFL with 138.1 yards per game. In 1994, Henshaw's biggest achievement was tutoring quarterback Dave Brown, who finished with a 9-6 record in his first season as a starter.

Before coming to the Giants, Henshaw spent five years with the Denver Broncos (1988-1992), including the 1992 season as Denver's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Prior to that position, Henshaw coached Denver's wide receivers in 1991, and from 1988 until 1990 he coached the Broncos offensive line. During Henshaw's tenure in Denver, the Broncos won two AFC West titles and appeared in Super Bowl XXIV.

Henshaw, 47, was head coach at the University of Tulsa in 1987. Before that, he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Alabama from 1983 until 1986. In 1983, Alabama led the Southeastern Conference in scoring offense (30.7 points per game) and total offense (424.1 yards per game). Prior to going to Alabama, Henshaw was on the coaching staff at Florida State from 1976 until 1982. For three years, he served as defensive line coach. Henshaw was the Seminoles' offensive coordinator and offensive line coach during his final four years at Florida State. In 1982, Florida State ranked second in the nation in scoring offense, averaging 30.7 points per game, and third in total offense with an average of 465.7 yards per game.

Henshaw was born on January 22, 1948 in Richmond, Va. and is a 1970 graduate of West Virginia University. He coached at West Virginia from 1970 until 1976. Henshaw and his wife Kathleen have three children: Michael, Matthew and Kerry.

GIANTS TID BIT

On October 28, 1962 Y.A. Tittle set an NFL record when he threw seven TD passes in a 49-3 Giants victory over the Redskins. Following are the seven scoring passes Tittle threw that day:

First Quarter	Second Quarter	Third Quarter	Fourth Quarter
22 yards to Joe Morrison	5 yards to Joe Walton 2 yards to Morrison	32 yards to Del Shofner 26 yards to Walton 63 yards to Frank Gifford	5 yards to Walton

MIKE NOLAN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Nolan begins his third season with the Giants after being named defensive coordinator by Dan Reeves on February 2, 1993. Nolan worked on Reeves staff for six seasons in Denver (1987-1992), the last four as the Broncos linebackers coach.

In his first season at the helm of the Giants defense, the team allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205 points). In 1994, Nolan made the adjustments for a successful switch from the 3-4 to the 4-3 defensive scheme. The Giants defense fell to 11th in the NFL but was fourth in the league and second in the NFC during the Giants season-ending six-game winning streak.

Nolan, 36, was Denver's special teams coach in 1987 and 1988, and he assisted the defensive coaching staff in 1988 before assuming the linebackers assignment. Nolan joined the Denver staff after serving as linebackers coach at Louisiana State in 1986. He was secondary coach at Rice in 1984 and 1985. Prior to joining the Rice staff, Nolan spent two years at Stanford, coaching the secondary in 1982 and the linebackers in 1983.

The son of former NFL head coach and former Giants defensive back, Dick Nolan, Mike was a four-year letterman at free safety at the University of Oregon, graduating in 1981. He went to the Denver Broncos training camp in 1981 as a free agent and then spent a year at Oregon as a graduate assistant coach.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland on March 7, 1959, Nolan and his wife Kathy have four children: Michael, Laura, Jennifer and Christopher.

GIANTS TID BIT

Former Giants DE George Martin (1975-88) holds the NFL record for most career touchdowns by a defensive lineman with seven. Following are Martin's seven career TDs:

10-23-77	vs. Washington	30-yard interception return
10-1-78	at Atlanta	11-yard return of a lateral off a blocked punt
11-9-80	vs. Dallas	4-yard pass from Phil Simms
9-13-81	at Washington	8-yard fumble return
12-13-81	at St. Louis	20-yard fumble return
11-24-85	at St. Louis	56-yard interception return
11-23-86	vs. Denver	78-yard interception return

LINEBACKERS

Don Blackmon, a seven-year standout linebacker for the New England Patriots, was named the Giants linebackers coach on February 10, 1993. Blackmon came to the Giants from the Browns organization where he served as linebackers coach during the 1991 season. He coached the outside linebackers for the Patriots for three seasons (1988-1990) after retiring as a player in 1987.

Blackmon was a fourth-round draft choice of the New England Patriots out of Tulsa in the 1981 draft. He recorded 541 tackles, 30.5 quarterback sacks, six fumble recoveries, 19 pass deflections, two safeties, 10 forced fumbles and five interceptions during his NFL career. He started 72 of 89 games for the Patriots before being forced to retire after a neck injury in a game against the Raiders in 1987.

Blackmon, 37, was a three-time all-conference selection at the University of Tulsa. As a senior, he was named the Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year and was named to the school's Hall of Fame.

Don and his wife Jacqueline have two daughters, Candice and Tiffany, and a son, Don II.

DAVE BRAZIL

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dave Brazil joined the Giants staff in the spring of 1992 as the team's linebackers coach. When Dan Reeves came to the Giants in January of 1993, Brazil was retained as the defensive quality control coach.

Prior to coming to the Giants, Brazil was defensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1990 and 1991 after joining Chuck Noll's coaching staff in Pittsburgh as linebackers coach in 1989. Brazil's 1990 Steelers defense finished first in the NFL, allowing the fewest overall yards and fewest passing yards in the league. From 1984 through the 1988 season Brazil was a member of the Kansas City Chiefs coaching staff as secondary and then linebackers coach.

Before joining the NFL in 1984, Brazil was defensive coordinator at Kent State (1981-1982) and Boston College (1980). Brazil's first pro coaching experience was in the World Football League with the Detroit Wheels (1974) and the Chicago Fire (1975). Prior to joining the pro ranks, Brazil coached at Eastern Michigan (1971-1973), Tulsa (1969-1970) and Holy Cross (1968).

Brazil was born in Detroit, Michigan on March 25, 1936. He graduated from the University of Detroit with a business administration degree. He and his wife Bridget have six children: daughters Kathleen and Mary Ann and sons Michael, Daniel, Thomas and Patrick.

JAMES DANIEL

TIGHT ENDS

James Daniel began his professional coaching career when Dan Reeves named him tight ends coach of the Giants on February 16, 1993. Daniel came to the Giants after spending 12 years on the coaching staff at Auburn University (1981-1992) where he was offensive line coach. During his tenure at Auburn, the Tigers made nine postseason bowl game appearances.

Prior to going to Auburn, Daniel was an assistant coach at Enterprise High School in Enterprise, Alabama from 1974 through 1980. During his time at Enterprise, 11 of his offensive linemen received college scholarships.

Daniel's only NFL coaching experience before coming to the Giants was in 1988 when he received a coaching fellowship to spend training camp working with the New Orleans Saints coaching staff and then in 1992 when he served the same fellowship with Reeves staff in Denver.

STEVE DeBERG

QUARTERBACKS

Steve DeBerg joined Dan Reeves staff on February 15, 1995 as the team's quarterbacks coach. DeBerg will help develop the Giants three young quarterbacks. In addition, the hiring of DeBerg will allow offensive coordinator George Henshaw, who also served as the team's quarterbacks coach for the past two seasons, more time for his coordinator duties.

DeBerg, who stepped in for the Miami Dolphins in 1993 when Dan Marino injured his achilles tendon early in the season, comes to the Giants after a 17-year National Football League career. DeBerg, 41, played on five different teams during his career, finishing with the Miami Dolphins in 1993 when he was the oldest player in the league. A 10th-round draft choice by the Dallas Cowboys out of San Jose State in 1977, DeBerg played with San Francisco (1978-1980), Denver (1981-1983), Kansas City (1988-1991), Miami (1993) and had two stints with Tampa Bay (1984-1987, 1992). He played for Reeves in Denver from 1981 through 1983.

DeBerg compiled some of the most impressive passing statistics in NFL history. He ranks ninth on the NFL's all-time passing yardage chart with 33,872 yards, seventh on the league's all-time completion list with 2,844, and ninth on the all-time attempt list with 4,965.

Born January 19, 1954 in Oakland, California, DeBerg and his wife, Marcia have a daughter, Amy, 15, and a son, Drew, 12.

JOE DeCAMILLIS

SPECIAL TEAMS

Joe DeCamillis joined Dan Reeves and the Giants staff on February 9, 1993 as special teams coach. DeCamillis spent five years (1988-1992) with the Denver Broncos. He spent the 1992 season as the Broncos defensive quality control coach as well as an assistant special teams coach.

DeCamillis, 30, was an All-America wrestler as a senior at the University of Wyoming where he received a degree in secondary education in 1987. He wrestled for Wyoming from 1983 through 1987 and was a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference performer.

Born on June 29, 1965 in Arvada, Colorado, DeCamillis was an all-state quarterback and wrestler at Arvada High School. Joe and his wife Dana have two daughters, Caitlin and Ashley.

KERRY GOODE

ASST. STRENGTH & CONDITIONING/ OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Kerry Goode joined the Giants coaching staff on March 1, 1993 as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach. In addition to assisting Al Miller with the team's strength and conditioning responsibilities, he serves as the Giants offensive quality control coach. Goode joined the Giants staff after spending the 1992 season as regional manager for Sportplex fitness centers in Alabama and 1991 as assistant to the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance at the University of Alabama.

Goode was a tailback for Alabama from 1983 through 1987. During his playing career, Goode was the team's co-captain as a senior and the SEC Freshman of the Year in 1983. He was a seventh-round draft choice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1988. In his rookie campaign, Goode gained 231 yards rushing on 63 attempts. Goode signed with Dan Reeves' Denver Broncos in 1989 before being released prior to the start of the season. Goode signed with Miami later in the season and appeared in one game for the Dolphins.

Goode, was born on July 28, 1965 in Town Creek, Alabama. He and his wife, the former Pamela Fending, have a son, Brooks (5-6-95). Goode's brother Chris spent eight seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, and his cousin Antonio Langham was the first pick of the Cleveland Browns in 1994.

EARL LEGGETT

DEFENSIVE LINE

After spending the previous 13 seasons as a coach with the Raiders and Broncos, Earl Leggett joined the Giants staff as defensive line coach on February 2, 1993.

Leggett was with the Raiders staff from 1980 through 1988 and then again in 1991 and 1992. During his tenure with the Raiders, the franchise won two Super Bowl titles. He spent the 1989 and 1990 seasons on Dan Reeves' staff in Denver. In his first year with Denver, the Broncos captured the AFC championship. Prior to his first stint with the Raiders, Leggett coached the defensive line for the San Francisco 49ers in 1978 and for the Seattle Seahawks in 1976 and 1977. Leggett began his coaching career at Nicholls State in 1971 before moving to Texas Christian in 1972 and 1973. His first professional coaching experience was with the Southern California Sun of the World Football League in 1974 and 1975.

Leggett was an All-America defensive tackle at Louisiana State University before being chosen by the Chicago Bears in the first round of the 1957 draft. He was traded to the Los Angeles Rams in 1966 and later taken in the 1967 veteran allocation draft by the New Orleans Saints, for whom he played two seasons (1967-1968).

Leggett and his wife Bobbie have two sons and two daughters.

PETE MANGURIAN

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pete Mangurian spent five years on Dan Reeves staff in Denver (1988-1992), including the 1989 Super Bowl season, before coming to the Giants on February 2, 1993 as offensive line coach. Mangurian heads an offensive line that has helped Rodney Hampton record his third and fourth consecutive 1,000 yard rushing seasons the past two years.

He was Denver's offensive line coach during the 1991 and 1992 seasons after spending three seasons as the Broncos tight ends and H-backs coach. Prior to joining Dan Reeves coaching staff in Denver, Mangurian served as offensive line coach at Louisiana State University from 1984 through 1987. During those four years, LSU made four consecutive bowl game appearances and established a school record for total offense in a season three times. Mangurian began his coaching career at Southern Methodist in 1979 and 1980. He was on the staff at New Mexico State in 1981 and at Stanford in 1982 and 1983.

Mangurian was a defensive tackle at LSU from 1975-78. He earned a political science degree from LSU in 1978.

Mangurian was born in Los Angeles, California on June 17, 1955 and was raised in Sherman Oaks, California. He and his wife Amy have two daughters, Lauren and Katie.

AL MILLER

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Al Miller begins his third season with the Giants after being named the strength and conditioning coach on February 2, 1993. Miller came to the Giants from the Broncos after spending eight seasons (1985-1992) in Denver in the same capacity. Miller is the driving force behind the Giants successful off-season conditioning program.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Miller was the strength coach for the University of Alabama from 1982 through 1984. Before that, he was strength and conditioning coach at Northeast Louisiana in 1981 and Mississippi State in 1980. From 1974 through 1978, Miller was linebackers and strength coach at Northwestern Louisiana. He was a high school and junior high school coach from 1970 through 1973.

Miller was born in El Dorado, Arkansas on August 29, 1947 and is a 1970 graduate of Northeast Louisiana. He was a four-year letterman at Northeast Louisiana as a wide receiver and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1992. He earned a Master's degree from Louisiana Tech in 1974. Al and his wife Janis have a son, Carey Brian, and a daughter, Lisa.

DICK REHBEIN

WIDE RECEIVERS

Dick Rehbein originally joined the Giants staff in February 1992 as the team's tight ends coach. When Dan Reeves took over the team in January of 1993, Rehbein was given the assignment of coaching the wide receivers.

Rehbein joined the Giants after spending eight seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (1984-1991). While with Minnesota, Rehbein was a special assistant in 1984, receivers coach from 1985 through 1988 and assistant offensive coordinator/ passing game coach from 1989 through 1991. Prior to his Minnesota experience, Rehbein was special teams coach and assistant offensive line coach of the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in 1984. Before that, he was special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1979 through 1983.

A four-year letterman as a center at Ripon College in Wisconsin, Rehbein was a Division II All-American who went to training camp with the Green Bay Packers in 1977.

Rehbein, 39, was born on November 22, 1955 in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Rehbein and his wife Pam have two daughters, Betsy and Sarah.

GEORGE SEFCIK

RUNNING BACKS

George Sefcik enters his 23rd year in the NFL coaching ranks and his fifth season as a coach with the Giants. Sefcik originally joined the Giants as receivers coach in May of 1991. When Dan Reeves was named head coach of the Giants in January of 1993, Sefcik was assigned to coach the team's running backs and he has helped Rodney Hampton produce two of his four career 1,000-yard seasons. In 1993, Sefcik coached a unit that led the NFL in rushing yardage with 138.1 yards per game.

Sefcik's first NFL job was as offensive backfield coach for the Baltimore Colts in 1973. He moved to the Cleveland Browns as running backs coach in 1975. Following the 1978 season, Sefcik coached the running backs for six years for the Cincinnati Bengals (1979-1983), helping guide the Bengals to Super Bowl XXVI. He was running backs and quarterbacks coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1984 through the 1987 season before serving as offensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988. From 1989 through 1991, Sefcik coached the running backs for Cleveland.

Sefcik was born on December 27, 1939 in Cleveland, Ohio, where he helped lead Benedictine High School to the state championship as a halfback in 1958. He was a three-year letterman as a two-way halfback for Notre Dame from 1959 through 1961. Sefcik began his coaching career by spending six years at Notre Dame and was on the staff at the University of Kentucky for four seasons before joining the NFL.

Sefcik and his wife Lorie have three children.

ZAVEN YARALIAN

DEFENSIVE BACKS

After spending three seasons on Mike Ditka's staff with the Chicago Bears as defensive backs coach (1990-1992), Zaven Yarialian joined the Giants on February 4, 1993 in the same capacity. In his first season with the Giants, he helped direct a unit that allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205 points). Yarialian's coaching was a key reason that the Giants were the second-best defense against the pass over the final six weeks of the 1994 season. In 1990, Chicago led the NFL with 31 interceptions.

Yarialian began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, in 1975. He then coached the defensive backs at Washington State in 1976 and 1977 before moving on to the University of Missouri in the same role from 1978 through 1983. Yarialian served as the secondary coach at the University of Florida from 1984 through 1987 and was the Gators defensive coordinator as well from 1985 through 1987. He coached the defensive backs at the University of Colorado in 1988 and 1989 before joining the Bears staff prior to the 1990 season. Yarialian was a member of the coaching staff at Colorado during their National Title game against Notre Dame in the 1989 Orange Bowl.

Yaralian was a two-year starter at cornerback for Nebraska before a short stint with the Green Bay Packers in 1974 and the Philadelphia Bell of the World League in 1975.

Born on February 5, 1952, Yaralian grew up in California where he was the state's high school player of the year in football at Ingelwood High in 1969. Yaralian and his wife Lorraine have two sons, Blake and Garrett.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

ERNE ACCORSI

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Since beginning his NFL career with the Baltimore Colts in 1970, Ernie Accorsi has worked in virtually every phase of the football business. Accorsi, who was Executive Director of Business Affairs for the Baltimore Orioles from February 25, 1994 until being hired by the Giants on July 6, 1994, was brought to the Giants to assist George Young with the football operations.

Most recently in the NFL, he served as Executive Vice President/Football Operations for the Cleveland Browns from 1984 until he left the team in 1992. During that time, the Browns made five consecutive playoff appearances, including three appearances in the AFC Championship Game. With the Browns, Accorsi was responsible for player acquisitions and player-related movements. He handled all player contract negotiations and managed the Browns player personnel department.

After serving as the Colts public relations director for five years, Accorsi worked in the NFL office as Assistant to the President of the National Football Conference in 1975 and 1976. He returned to the Colts in 1977 as the team's assistant general manager. He later became the Colts general manager for two years, 1982 and 1983, prior to joining the Browns organization.

Since leaving the Browns and prior to joining the Orioles at the beginning of last year, Accorsi served as a special advisor on the committee to attract an NFL expansion franchise in the city of Baltimore. In that capacity, he was responsible for selling all 100 sky suites for the proposed football stadium, as well as all 7,500 club seats. The sky suites were sold out in six weeks, while the club seating sold out in eight weeks. In addition, he also raised commitments of $51 million for Baltimore's Expansion Efforts Premium Seating Campaign.

While with the Orioles, Accorsi oversaw the team's stadium operations, media relations, community relations and coordination of TV and radio operations, including Major League Baseball Network.

A 1963 graduate of Wake Forest University, Accorsi has worked as a sports writer for the Charlotte News, Baltimore Evening Sun and Philadelphia Inquirer. He has also worked in the sports information departments at St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia and Penn State University. Accorsi has three children: sons Michael (26), a former graduate assistant under George Welsh at the University of Virginia and currently an Administrative Assistant at the University of Maryland, and Patrick (21), a student at the University of Kentucky; and a daughter Sherlyn (25), a graduate of Penn State University.

HARRY HULMES

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

With 38 years of professional football experience to his credit, Hulmes brings a wealth of NFL knowledge to the Giants. The veteran NFL executive joined the Giants in 1984 as the team's Assistant General Manager.

Prior to being named by the Giants, Hulmes had served as Chief Operating Officer for the Arizona Wranglers of the USFL, but virtually all of his previous experience was within the NFL where he served for 12 years with the Baltimore Colts and 13 years with the New Orleans Saints in a variety of positions.

Hulmes began his career in sports with the Baltimore Orioles as assistant business manager, then was the sports information director at Bucknell University before entering the NFL as business manager of the Colts in 1958. He subsequently served as public relations director and general manager of the Colts before moving to the Saints in 1970 as assistant general manager. Until he departed for the Wranglers in 1982, Hulmes also served the Saints as Director of Player Personnel and Vice President of Administration.

After graduating from Northeast High School in Philadelphia, Hulmes spent three years in the Navy as a radarman in the South Pacific and Persian Gulf theaters. Hulmes earned a B.A. degree in journalism and psychology at the University of Pennsylvania after returning from the service.

Born on July 20, 1927 in Philadelphia, Hulmes is married to the former Barbara Lockhart of Mount Holly, N.J. and is the father of two daughters, Linda Ann and Terry Ellen, both graduates of LSU, and a son, Richard Wayne, also a graduate of LSU.

TOM BOISTURE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

After serving for 10 years as a scout, chief scout and in the personnel department for the New England Patriots, Tom Boisture joined the Giants in the spring of 1980 as Director of Player Personnel.

Boisture began his coaching career at Austin Catholic H.S. in Detroit where he was head football coach, then continued as a head coach at St. Ambrose H.S. in Detroit. He moved into the collegiate ranks at the University of Houston as an assistant coach for offensive backs then moved on to Holly Cross College in 1966 as Defensive Coordinator. He was named head coach at Holy Cross in 1967 and upset Yale in his first game as head coach — the only defeat Yale was to suffer in three years. In 1969, Boisture moved on to Tulsa University as Defensive Coordinator, and in 1970 moved into the NFL with New England as a scout.

Born March 23, 1931 in Detroit, Boisture played his high school sports at Holy Redeemer H.S. in Detroit then won three varsity letters as both an offensive and defensive lineman at Mississippi State where he earned a B.S. degree in Education and History.

Boisture is married to the former Dolores Ann Kenney of Detroit and has five children: daughters Susan Ann, Deborah Lynn and Nancy Ann, and sons David and Michael. He and his wife reside in Little Ferry, N.J.

TIM ROONEY

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Rooney, a member of the highly-respected Rooney family from Pittsburgh, joined the Giants in February of 1985 as Director of Pro Personnel.

Prior to joining the Giants, Rooney spent six seasons as the Player Personnel Director for the Detroit Lions. He was the Director of Pro Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1972-1979 during the Steelers ascendancy to Super Bowl champion status.

Rooney earned a degree in Education and English from Duquesne University, then began a coaching career at Canevin H.S. in Pittsburgh. Four years later, he became an assistant coach at Villanova, moved to Rhode Island University, and then back to Villanova as an assistant coach and recruiting director before joining the Steelers.

A nephew of Art Rooney, the founder of the Steelers, Tim and his wife, Mary Ann, are the parents of a son, Michael, 19, a sophomore at the University of Alabama, and daughter, Sarah, 18, and reside in HoHoKus, N.J.

JERRY SHAY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Shay, a Giants tackle during the 1970 and 1971 seasons, was named Director of College Scouting in 1977 after serving as a scout for the team since 1972. While serving as a scout, Shay was responsible for the Western states area, including all of the West Coast as well as Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas.

Shay was an All-America star at Purdue University and was the No. 1 draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1966. He was a starting defensive tackle for the Vikings for two years, then was traded to the Atlanta Falcons in 1968 where he again starred for two seasons before coming to the Giants in a trade in 1970 for a draft choice. Shay was a key performer that season as the Giants finished with a 9-5 record and missed the playoffs by one game. In that season's final game against the Rams, he suffered a broken leg and retired after the 1971 season after appearing in only six games. He became a scout the following season.

Born on July 10, 1944 in Gary, Ind. (family name Dzedzej), Jerry is married to the former Cynthia Zajkowski, and has three daughters: Tiffany Lee, the 1995 recipient of the John V. Mara Scholarship awarded annually to the child of a former Giants player, Sharon Marie, and Jeri Lynn. The Shays reside in San Diego, California.

RICK DONOHUE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Donohue begins his second season as Assistant Director of Player Personnel after spending 10 years as a scout. He originally joined the Giants in August of 1983 after serving in coaching capacities on both the collegiate and high school levels.

Donahue played his scholastic sports at Dewitt Clinton High School in the Bronx. He earned a B.S. degree in Education from the University of Dayton, then continued at Michigan State University in Educational Administration. He began his coaching career as a head football coach at Buckeye H.S. in Rushsylvania, Ohio, then was a coach and science teacher at Bellefontaine H.S.

in Bellefontaine, Ohio before entering the collegiate ranks as a freshman football coach at Michigan State. He then served as a defensive coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, secondary coach at C.W. Post College, and freshman coach, assistant varsity coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University before joining the Giants as a scout.

RAYMOND WALSH, JR.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Ray has been with the Giants since 1973, initially as an Administrative Assistant before moving over to the scouting and player personnel department. As a youngster, Walsh worked at Giants preseason training camps from 1956-63.

Walsh, who is also known by his nickname "Whitey," earned a degree in Inter-American Relations at Fordham University in 1963 after graduating from Archbishop Stepinac H.S. in White Plains where he grew up. After a tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he joined United Airlines in 1965 in the Passenger Service department and remained with United until April of 1973 when he joined the Giants.

Married to the former Judith Carey, Ray is the father of two sons, David 21, and Timothy, 7, and a daughter Susan, 19. The family resides in Ramsey, New Jersey. Aside from football, Ray is an avid British history buff, particularly the medieval period, as well as a devotee of Hollywood movies from the 1930s and 1940s.

SCOUTING

ROSEY BROWN

After a Hall of Fame career as a tackle for the Giants from 1953-1965, Roosevelt "Rosey" Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout in 1971.

During his playing career, Brown ranked as one of the all-time great offensive linemen in the National Football League. The wide-ranging tackle earned All Pro honors eight times and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl on ten occasions. In 1956, Brown was voted Lineman of the Year in the NFL.

Brown was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966. In 1969, Brown replaced Jim Trimble as head line coach. In 1971, Brown, along with another coaching aide, Ken Kavanaugh, left Alex Webster's staff to assume new responsibilities under Jim Lee Howell, his one-time coach, in the scouting department.

Brown, now 63, is a resident of Charlottesville, Va. but spends a good deal of his time on the road in search of fresh talent for the Giants.

JOHN CREA

Crea originally joined the Giants as a scout in the spring of 1992 after an impressive college coaching career.

After graduating from Monsignor Farrell High School in Staten Island, Crea began his collegiate days at the University of Utah. He then transferred to Albany State University where he won three varsity letters as a defensive back and wide receiver. He graduated from Albany State with a B.A. degree in English and Communications. Crea added a Master's degree in Physical Education from Arizona State University where he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant.

He continued his collegiate coaching career with stops at Albany State, Kean College, Frostburg State in Maryland, and Holy Cross. In 1982, Crea was named the head coach at William Paterson College in New Jersey. After six years in that position, he became the head coach at Methodist College in Fayetteville, North Carolina from 1987 through the 1991 campaign.

Married to the former Kathleen Coyle, John and his wife have a daughter, Kelly, 12, and he lists racquetball and golf as his favorite hobbies.

JEREMIAH DAVIS

Davis began his affiliation with the Giants in 1988 as a part-time scout after a career as a collegiate coach and recruiting specialist. In March of 1990, Davis was named to the Giants scouting department in a full-time capacity.

Davis graduated from Montclair High School in Montclair, New Jersey, then began his college football career at Yakima Junior College in Yakima, Washington before receiving a B.A. degree in Criminal Law from the University of Wyoming in 1977. He subsequently earned a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Grambling University in 1981.

Davis began his college coaching career at Wyoming as a secondary assistant and strength coach and served in the same capacity at the University of Washington and at Grambling where he also worked with the linebackers. He moved on to Northern Iowa and to the University of Central Florida as an assistant coach, then moved into the recruiting area with Purdue University in 1985. He was also at Tennessee-Martin for two years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before joining the Giants in 1988.

GREG GABRIEL

Gabriel joined the Giants scouting department during the 1985 offseason after serving as an area scout for an NFL scouting combine in the Great Lakes area. Gabriel gained his first professional football experience working part-time in the scouting department of the Buffalo Bills, both in film grading and in player evaluation.

A native of Buffalo where he was born on May 4, 1951, Gabriel played his scholastic sports at Bishop Neumann High School in Williamsville, New York. He won three varsity letters as a running back at Canisius College where he earned a B.S. degree.

Prior to entering the football profession, Gabriel was an account executive with Prudential-Bache and later with Dean Witter Reynolds while working part-time with the Bills.

He played for eight seasons as a running back with the Buffalo Geminis, a semi-pro outfit, and was additionally the offensive backfield coach for one season there. Gabriel is married to the former Suzanne Kallay, is the father of three daughters, Liza, Ryan, and Kelsey, and resides in Grand Island, New York.

KEN KAVANAUGH

Kavanaugh, a member of the Chicago Bears all-time team, brought a wealth of experience as both a professional player and a coach to the Giants when he joined the scouting department in 1971. He moved into the scouting department from the coaching staff where he had been offensive end coach from 1955-68 and offensive coach from 1969-70. Kavanaugh coached the Giants for a total of 16 years under three head coaches: Jim Lee Howell, Allie Sherman and Alex Webster.

Prior to joining the Giants coaching staff, the College Hall of Fame end spent one season (1951) as end coach for the Chicago Bears and one season (1954) at Villanova College in his hometown of Philadelphia.

As a player, Ken starred for the Chicago Bears from 1940-41. He left the Bears for an Air Force tour of duty as a bomber pilot in World War II in Europe, then returned to the team to make All Pro in 1946 and 1947. Kavanaugh set four all-time Chicago records which still stand today: most touchdown passes caught (50); most TD passes caught one season (13); highest average gain, career (22.4); and highest average gain, season (25.6).

During his collegiate career, Kavanaugh was a four-year regular (1936-40), twice earning All-America honors.

Kavanaugh and his wife, Ann, now reside in Sarasota, Florida.

JERRY REESE

Jerry Reese was added to the Giants scouting department on December 15, 1994 after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is high on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions and still holds several punt return records. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant for one year and as a graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming a fulltime coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

Reese has his Bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education and earned his Master's degree in Education Administration and Supervision.

Married to the former Gwen Moore, a UT-Martin graduate, the couple had their first child, Jasmyne Danielle, on June 13, 1992.

STEVE VERDEROSA

The 1995 season marks Steve Verderosa's eighth season with the New York Giants after joining the scouting staff in 1988. Verderosa came to the Giants after serving in the scouting department for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Verderosa began his collegiate career at Central Iowa as a wide receiver and punter after graduating from Melville High School in Setauket, N.Y. He then moved to New York Institute of Technology where he continued his dual roles, earning ECAC Player of the Week Honors for an eight-catch, 100-yard day vs. Western Connecticut in the 1975 season.

After receiving a degree in general architecture and a design award in his senior year, Verderosa had a tryout with the Washington Redskins as a wide receiver and punter in 1977 and also had a two-week stint with the Cleveland Browns as a punter in the 1978 preseason.

Verderosa worked for one year as an architectural draftsman before getting the football urge and beginning a coaching career at his alma mater, New York Tech, as an offensive assistant. He then spent two seasons as a coach and teacher at St. Anthony's High School before landing a spot as defensive backfield coach at Columbia University. From there, he moved on to C.W. Post for four years as secondary coach and then joined the scouting department of the Buccaneers.

A native of Boslyn, Long Island where he was born on June 9, 1954, Verderosa is married to the former Lori Ann Felicetti. The Verderosas reside in Apex, North Carolina with two sons, Alex and Matthew Lucas (1/13/95).

VIDEO

TONY CEGLIO DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Ceglie begins his 20th season with the Giants and his second as the team's Director of Video Operations after joining the Giants in 1975 as the club's Film Director. Ceglie handles the broadcasting side of the Giants video operations, including producing and directing the Giants TV show, "Giants Today," while still coordinating the video department. This past offseason, "Giants Today" was honored with an Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Sports Programming at the 38th Annual New York Emmy Awards ceremony.

When the NFL officially switched from 16mm film to video in 1986, Ceglie designed the premier video tape editing system in the NFL, the Lake Sports Compiler. The Giants were the first team in the NFL to put this system on line, and since then several other teams have employed this system. Ceglie also co-authored the official NFL rules for the video taping of games and game tape exchange, and he has been elected chairman of the NFL Video Directors for three years.

Currently, Tony roams the sidelines shooting for the "Giants Today" show, which he produces and which airs on the MSG Network. Ceglie is well-known in the freelance community as a producer, cameraman, editor on music videos, documentaries, feature film promotions and sports.

Born on September 23, 1954 in Mount Vernon, New York, Ceglie is a graduate of Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and the New York School of Visual Arts where he earned a B.A. in Film and an outstanding student award. He teaches an undergraduate course in film and video at his alma mater. Married to the former Carolyn Trainor, the Ceglios reside in Washington Township, New Jersey and Tony is an avid skier who enjoys Colorado in the offseason. The Ceglios have twin daughters, Dawn and Danielle.

JOHN MANCUSO VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mancuso begins his second season as Video Director after joining the Giants in a full-time capacity in 1978 as an assistant to Tony Ceglie in the team's film department.

Mancuso works closely with the coaching staff in the taping of all practices and games with the Sony Betacam video systems, as well as in the duplicating and editing of all video in the Giants' ultra-modern video offices. In addition, he assists Ceglie with the production of "Giants Today".

A native of Queens, Mancuso attended Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and then graduated from nearby Scarsdale High School. He then served as a Recreation Director for the Tibbits Nursing Home in Westchester for several years before working part-time for the Giants in the film department in 1977. Mancuso freelanced for two years as a cameraman, still photographer and videographer for the New Jersey Nets of the NBA before assuming his present full-time position with the Giants.

Married to the former Reena Slatky, the couple has two sons, John and Julian, and resides in Tuxedo, New York. An accomplished musician, Mancuso has played guitar, bass and piano for various musical groups for the last 20 years.

DAVE MALTESE

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

A native of Rockaway, New Jersey, Maltese joined the Giants as a full-time assistant director in the spring of 1993 after serving as an intern in the team's video department during the 1991 season and working on a part-time basis in 1992.

Maltese works with John Mancuso in taping all of the Giants practice sessions as well as assisting in the cutups of the coaching staff's game and opponent tapes. He is responsible for the taping and breakdown for the defense and special teams units. In addition, he assists Tony Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today".

Maltese has worked extensively in cable television in New Jersey and has also served as a cameraman in the taping of music videos that have appeared nationally.

A resident of Wayne, New Jersey and a 1987 graduate of Kinnelon High School, he graduated from William Paterson College in 1993 with a degree in Radio and Television Communications. While at college, Maltese worked at WPSC Radio for five years. He was born on June 13, 1969.

JON BERGER

DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER SERVICES

Although he was named to his current position in February of 1987, Berger has been associated with the Giants since 1981 when he worked in the team's preseason training camp, initially as an on-the-field assistant and later as an intern in the media services department.

After graduating from Stuyvesant High School, the Queens native attended Albany State University where he majored in Computer Science and Mathematics, earning a B.S. degree and graduating Cum Laude with Dean's list honors in 1985. He was also a member of the Purple & Gold honor and service society and while an undergraduate also served as a Computer Science teaching assistant. After graduation, he remained at Albany State for another year as the computer coordinator for the physical education department, producing programs for all of the men's and women's intercollegiate teams.

In addition to his full-time duties with the Giants, Berger has also been a familiar figure court-side at all New York Knicks home games at Madison Square Garden where he serves as computer statistician. Berger and his wife, Alicia Cassio, have a son, Justin, and reside in Staten Island.

TRAINING & MEDICAL

RONNIE BARNES
HEAD TRAINER

Ronnie Barnes has compiled an impressive dossier of accomplishments since joining the Giants as a student intern in 1976.

A graduate of East Carolina University where he won distinguished student honors, Barnes was the school's first graduate of the Sports Medicine program and has since been elected to the East Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame and been named a winner of the Outstanding Alumni Award as well. He received a Master's degree from Michigan State University in Administrative Services and also served as trainer and assistant professor of health at MSU where he was the trainer for both Magic Johnson and Kirk Gibson during his tenure.

A native of Rocky Mount, North Carolina, where he was born on February 15, 1952, Barnes graduated from Fike Senior H.S. in Wilson, North Carolina. Since assuming his full-time capacity with the club in 1980, Barnes has twice been voted National Professional Trainer of the Year by the National Athletic Trainers Association, a 20,000-member organization, and he served on the NATA board of certification for 10 years. Barnes is currently the President of the NATA Research and Education and serves on the Board of Directors for Honestly House, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation center. He has published several scientific research articles and books on sports medicine.

Barnes has made State Department tours to Brazil and other countries and he has lectured nationally and internationally on sports medicine, including a German tour. He is currently chairman of the NATA Research and Education Foundation. Barnes is the Founder of Professional Sports Care Management, a public physical therapy company with facilities throughout the tri-state area. He was named the March of Dimes Man of the Year in 1994. Barnes resides in West Orange, New Jersey.

JOHN JOHNSON
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Johnson, a graduate of the Swedish Institute of Physical Therapy, has been a trainer for the Giants for more than 40 years. During this period, he has also served as head trainer and physical instructor at Manhattan College.

After serving as an intern at Brooklyn Jewish and Long Island College Hospitals (1937-38), Johnson worked as a physical trainer for the Bedford YMCA and then was in charge of physical therapy and rehabilitation at a U.S. Air Force base hospital from 1942-46. His service hitch included duty as a physical therapy instructor, athletic trainer for post teams and as an air-sea rescue medic. From 1946-47, Johnson was a civilian athletic trainer at the U.S. Naval Preflight School in Ottumwa, La.

A member of the Eastern and National Athletic Trainers' Associations as well as the National Physical Therapy Association. Johnson has also served as a trainer for visiting teams at Madison Square Garden (1954-63). Johnson resides in Cresskill, N.J.

STEVE KENNELLY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Steve Kennelly, a native of Leonia, New Jersey, joined the Giants in July of 1992. He is responsible for assisting Ronnie Barnes in the overall injury prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of the Giants players. Kennelly earned a B.S. degree from Northeastern University in 1985 and M.Ed. from the University of Virginia in 1987.

Prior to joining the Giants, Kennelly was the head trainer for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League. He also served as the director of athletic training services for Professional Sports Care Meadowlands and as head trainer for the New York

Knights of the Arena League.

He began his career as the assistant trainer at Hobart College in Geneva, New York before serving a graduate assistantship as at Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va. Kennelly is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Training Society of New Jersey.

Born in Teaneck, New Jersey on September 26, 1962, Kennelly and his wife, Rita, live in Oakland, New Jersey.

MICHAEL COLELLO

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Michael Colello enters his second season with the Giants after spending the 1992 season on the training staff at UCLA. Colello is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Middletown, New York, where he was born on June 29, 1960, Colello earned a B.S. degree in Education with an Athletic Training emphasis in 1983 from the University of Nevada at Las Vegas. Colello served as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University where he earned a Master's of Science degree in Physical Education with an Athletic Training Emphasis in June of 1985.

After graduating, Colello served as the Head Athletic Trainer at Diablo Valley Junior College. He then served as an assistant trainer at the University of Southern California for six years, where his primary responsibility was the football team. From June of 1982 until August of 1984, Colello was a trainer in the New York Mets organization, serving in Lynchburg, Va. with the Class A team of the Carolina League. Colello and his wife, Jeanmarie, are the parents of a son, Michael James.

DR. RUSSELL F. WARREN

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Warren joined the Giants medical staff in 1984. A graduate of Columbia College in New York and the Upstate medical School in Syracuse, New York, he did his internship and residency in orthopaedic surgery at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City after a two-year tour of duty as a medical officer in the U.S. Navy.

He then completed a fellowship in shoulder surgery with Dr. Charles Neer at the Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. Dr. Warren is currently an Attending Orthopaedic Surgeon for The New York Hospital and The Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City, and Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery for the Cornell University Medical Center in New York. He is also Surgeon-in-Chief of the Hospital for Special Surgery, and President of the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine.

Born in Burlington, Vermont on June 18, 1939, Dr. Warren is the author of numerous publications on his specialties of knee and shoulder surgery. He is a resident of Greenwich, Connecticut. An outstanding halfback at Columbia, Warren had a tryout with the Giants in 1962. Warren and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of a son, Rusty, and a daughter, Lisa.

DR. ALLAN LEVY

ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Allan Levy joined the Giants prior to the 1976 season and brings impressive credentials with him to the job. In private practice for over 30 years in Westwood, New Jersey, Dr. Levy has been involved in sports medicine for most of those years, initially as the team physician for Westwood High School.

He moved into professional baseball as team physician for the Newark Bears and then into football with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the old Continental Football League. Dr. Levy continued in football as team physician for the Westchester Bulls, a Giant affiliate in the late 1960s, and was the first team doctor for the New Jersey Nets when they began play originally as the New Jersey Americans. He has also worked as the team doctor for the New York Islanders hockey team of the NHL.

Born on September 28, 1927 in Saranac Lake, New York, Dr. Levy received his B.A. from Columbia University in 1947 and his M.D. from Cornell University in 1951. He and his wife Gail have three children.

DR. STEPHEN J. O'BRIEN

ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Stephen O'Brien originally joined the Giants prior to the start of the 1993 season. A graduate of Harvard University and the University of Virginia's School of Medicine, he did his internship at Yale University Medical Center and his Orthopedic Residency and Fellowship at The Hospital For Special Surgery in New York City.

He is currently the Chief Orthopedic Consultant at St. John's University and the Medical Director for the New York Racing Association. Dr. O'Brien is the author of numerous research articles and chapters and has participated in many scientific exhibits and presentations.

Among the awards Dr. O'Brien has received are the Charles S. Neer Award, given by the American Shoulder & Elbow Society to the top shoulder researcher in the USA, and the 1991 Optimate Society Award for Excellence in Medicine/Society.

Dr. O'Brien won varsity letters in both football and baseball while an undergraduate at Harvard. He and his wife, Kathleen Donnelly-O'Brien, reside in Garden City, New York with their four children.

DR. JOEL GOLDBERG

DIRECTOR OF CAREER COUNSELING

As one of the NFL teams in the forefront of encouraging the development of career counseling for players, the Giants added Dr. Joel Goldberg to the staff to oversee this function in February of 1981.

The object of his counseling is to help players through the transition from playing days to non-playing days and life adjustment and to stimulate interaction between the metropolitan community and the players. The program is designed to measure players' aptitudes, interests, abilities and career goals and put those qualities into practical application.

A native of Brooklyn, Dr. Goldberg earned a B.S. in Education from the University of Rhode Island, a Master's degree from New York University and a Doctorate degree in Counseling Psychology from Rutgers University.

During his career, Dr. Goldberg has been a counselor with the New York City Department of Labor; a professor at Kean College in New Jersey; a psychology consultant to boards of education, and President of Career Consultants, his own counseling business in Union, New Jersey for the past 17 years.

Born on July 5, 1943, Dr. Goldberg and his wife, a high school history teacher, have a son and a daughter and reside in New Jersey.

HUGH GARDY

TEAM DENTIST

Dr. Gardy joined the Giants during the 1977 season. He is nationally known as the Father of Sports Dentistry and has probably treated more professional athletes than any other dentist in the country. He is also currently the team dentist for the New Jersey Devils, New Jersey Nets, and was the dental director for soccer's World Cup 1994.

Gardy was a dentist for the U.S. Olympic team in 1984. He was the founder and past president of the Academy for Sports Dentistry and was the only dentist on the New Jersey Governors Council on Sports and Physical Fitness. Dr. Gardy is a Fellow of the Academy of General Practice, Diplomate of the American Society of Osseointegration and a Fellow of the American College of Dentists.

Dr. Gardy received his A.B. and D.D.S. from New York University. He and his wife Sandy reside in River Vale, N.J., and have three children.

HEIDI SKOLNIK

NUTRITION CONSULTANT

Heidi Skolnik joined the Giants in May of 1992 to work throughout the year with the players on nutritional aspects of training and competition, providing dietary counseling for preventive health and rehabilitation. Skolnik brings a diversified background to the Giants.

A graduate of Ithaca College, she earned a B.A. degree in Exercise and Nutrition and a Master's degree in Sports Medicine for physical educators. While at Ithaca, she devised and implemented conditioning plans for that school's football and baseball teams, then worked with Morgan Stanley & Co. in New York for seven years, initially as a director of exercise and training and eventually as director of corporate programs there, overseeing staff and facility operations for the firm's entire health promotion endeavors.

Skolnik has also been the New York Mets nutrition consultant since 1986, devising spring training camp menus and general nutrition outlines. She has lectured on nutrition and fitness at Cornell University, Ithaca College and at the New York City PSAL conferences. Skolnik sits on the executive committee of the American College of Sports Medicine's Greater New York Chapter and is affiliated with the National Strength and Conditioning Association and IDEA: The International Association of Fitness Professionals. She currently serves as the Vice-President and Director of Nutrition for Plus One Fitness, a New York based sports medicine firm.

EQUIPMENT & SECURITY

ED WAGNER
LOCKER ROOM MANAGER

The overseer of the locker room operations and a much-decorated Army veteran, "Whitey" Wagner assumed his duties in 1976. Since that time, Whitey's domain has not only included all aspects of running the locker room, but also the care and feeding of the players during the week, as well as supervising the maintenance of the pressroom at Giants Stadium which houses all of the metropolitan area media. Wagner is in charge of the Giants' annual largescale moving operation from Giants Stadium to their preseason training camp, as well as the return move and the supervision of maintenance at the camp.

A native of Staten Island, New York, Wagner is a graduate of Dorp High School. He and his wife, Gertrude, have a daughter, Patricia, and a son Edward Jr., and live in Rutherford, New Jersey.

ED WAGNER, JR.
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Ed Wagner Jr. was named to the position of Equipment Manager in June of 1979 and since that time has handled a myriad of details, including the purchase, upkeep and repair of all equipment and uniforms, the transportation of equipment and uniforms to and from all road trips and to and from training camp, the handling of all training camp duties and arrangements, as well as field maintenance.

A native of Staten Island, Wagner had served as assistant equipment manager for two seasons with the Giants prior to being named head equipment manager. Edward Kenneth Wagner was born on November 29, 1956 in Staten Island and graduated from Curtis High School in 1974. He and his wife, the former Andrea DeNonno, were married in June of 1979 and have a daughter, Donna, 10, and a son, Christopher, 7. The Wagners reside in River Edge, New Jersey.

JIM PHELAN

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

After serving as assistant equipment manager, Phelan began new responsibilities in 1988 as an administrative assistant. During his collegiate years, Phelan worked at the Giants training camps as an on-the-field assistant. He graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a degree in general business.

Born on January 29, 1964 in Providence, Rhode Island, Phelan graduated from King Phillip Regional H.S. in Wrentham, Massachusetts where he won varsity letters in football, basketball, hockey and track and was an All-League wide receiver, setting a school record for most receptions (43) in an eight-game season. Phelan, who lists golf and skiing as his favorite hobbies, has a daughter, Lauren (4).

BRIAN BOIGNER

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Brian Boigner enters his fourth season with the Giants as the team's assistant equipment manager. After serving as an intern for the Giants during 1992, Boigner was promoted to his current position in March of 1993. His role is to assist with the maintenance of the equipment room and the Giants day of game and travel operations.

A graduate of Kent State where he was a student manager, Boigner has served as the head equipment manager at his alma mater as well as having been the assistant equipment manager for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League. A native of Brooklyn, Ohio, Boigner was born on November 26, 1965.

JOE MANSFIELD

FIELD SECURITY MANAGER

A retired White Plains Police Department detective, Mansfield joined the Giants in 1976. In addition to his field security duties, Mansfield also assists the club in locker room operations during the regular season and at the team's training camp site.

A native of New York City, Mansfield graduated from Mount St. Michael's H.S. in New York, then joined the United States Marine Corps in 1943 during World War II and was recalled during the Korean conflict in 1950. He spent nine years with the Fifth Avenue Coach Co. of New York and a short period of time with the Corrections Department at Sing Sing Prison before joining the White Plains Police Department in 1956, where he rose through the ranks to Detective, collecting numerous citations and commendations along the way until retiring in 1976.

Mansfield was re-introduced to his childhood sweetheart after a forty-year separation after each of them had been widowed. Shortly thereafter, he and Maggie were married and they now live in White Plains and together are enjoying their combined family of 10 children and 22 grandchildren.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

JULIUS HORAI

A key man in the Giants' operation is Julius "Whitey" Horai who has been associated with the club since 1954. Whitey handles a myriad of details as well as serving as the coordinator of transportation and film exchanges. A native of Richmond, Staten Island, Whitey graduated from Curtis High School, then went on to Wagner College where he worked for the athletic department as equipment and field maintenance man under Jim Lee Howell. When Howell came to the Giants as head coach in 1954, Horai came too in a part-time capacity, then joined the club full-time in 1970. A bachelor, Whitey still resides in Staten Island.

GIANTS TID BIT

Giants co-owner Wellington Mara has been associated with the team since his father Tim purchased the franchise for $500 in 1925.

Pro Bowl - 1992 (Denver)

Transactions: Originally a third round (86th pick overall) draft choice by Denver in 1987. Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent from Denver on June 7, 1993.

NFL: With the offseason acquisition of free agent LB Mike Croel from Denver and the departure of ILB Carlton Bailey, Brooks will be the man in the middle of the Giants linebacking corps this season, which is where he played during the entire 1994 preseason as the Giants defense made the switch to the 4-3 alignment...Was moved to the weakside spot prior to the season-opener, a move that was made to take advantage of Brooks' big-play ability...Two years ago, teamed with Bailey as the team's two inside linebackers in 3-4 setup...Spent the first three years of his career at outside linebacker and played the next four years on the inside where he earned a berth on the AFC Pro Bowl squad in 1992...Led Denver in tackles in each of his last three seasons there.

1994: Started all 16 games at weakside linebacker and led team in tackles with 118 as he broke the 100-tackle mark for the fifth time in his eight-year career...Was named one of team's captains in a vote of his teammates prior to the season...Led the Giants with three fumble recoveries on the season...Also broke up four passes...Had a sack vs. Arizona (9-11) as he dropped Jim McMahon to stop the Cardinals on their last drive of the game and preserve the Giants victory...Recorded his first interception as a Giant and his first since 1992 at Cleveland (12-4)...Giants defensive MVP vs. Washington (9-18) and at Washington (11-27) and the team's overall MVP vs. Cincinnati (12-11).

1993: Earned second team mention on Associated Press All Pro team as he started 13 of 16 games...Missed games vs. Indianapolis (12-12), at New Orleans (12-20) and at Phoenix (12-26) because of strained ligaments in his foot suffered at Miami (12-5)...Finished second on team in total tackles with 92...Was team's overall MVP vs. Phoenix (11-28) when he recorded eight tackles (seven solos) and was Giants' defensive MVP vs. Tampa Bay (9-12) when he led the Giants with nine tackles and helped hold the Bucs to 45 yards rushing...Team's defensive MVP at Philadelphia (11-21) when the Giants held the Eagles to just three points in a victory that marked the Giants first season sweep of Philadelphia since 1987.

1992: Earned his first Pro Bowl trip and was named the Colorado Pro Athlete of the Year by the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame...Led Denver's defense in tackles for the third straight year, finishing with 170 total tackles, an interception, two passes defensed, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries...Missed a start vs. Kansas City (10-4) with a bruised thigh but still had nine tackles...Denver's MVP vs. the Raiders (9-6) when he had 15 total tackles, a pass defended and two fumble recoveries, one of which was returned 54 yards for Denver's first points of 1992.

1991: Led Bronco defense with 153 tackles despite missing two games with a sprained foot...Had 10 or more tackles in 10 games, including 18 vs. Kansas City (10-20)...Had first pro interception at Kansas City (11-17)...Had second one the following week at Seattle (11-24).

1990: Led team with 175 tackles...Had four of Denver's top 10 high tackle games for the season, including a high of 20 vs. Seattle (9-23) and 18 at Minnesota (11-4)...Also had two sacks, two passes defended and two forced fumbles.

1989: First season as a regular, starting all 16 games...Responded with 123 tackles, two passes defended, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and a sack...Had a team single-game high of 16 tackles vs. Philadelphia (10-29)...Tackled fullback Jamie Mueller in end zone for a safety at Buffalo (9-18).

1988: Started final four games of season at right outside linebacker...Had 10 knockdown blocks on special teams to lead team.

1987: Played primarily on special teams...Had a sack vs. Seattle (9-13) in his only play from scrimmage.

College: Suffered a season-ending knee injury in the third game of his senior year after earning preseason All-America status...As a junior, was a first team All-America performer and finished third in voting for Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top collegiate linebacker...Became a starter in the fourth game of his freshman season.

Personal: Only played two years of high school football at Ruston (La.) HS, but earned All-State honors in each of those seasons...Youngest of 13 children...Michael Brooks was born on October 2, 1964 in Ruston, Louisiana.

Transactions: Originally drafted by the Giants in the first round (16th position) of the Supplemental Draft on July 9, 1992.

NFL: After playing in just three games through the first two seasons of his professional career, Brown earned the starting position in training camp last season and led Giants to a winning record...Is expected to show significant improvement based on last season's experience.

1994: Earned the starting job prior to the team's third preseason game against San Diego in Berlin, Germany...In his first year as a regular, started 15 games...Giants were 9-6 in the games Brown started...Did not play vs. Arizona (11-13) as head coach Dan Reeves turned to Kent Graham as Giants were mired in a six-game losing streak...Completed 201 of 350 pass attempts (57.4%) for 2,536 yards, 12 touchdowns and 16 interceptions...Led Giants to final-minute victories in three of the last four games of the season (at Cleveland, vs. Cincinnati and at Philadelphia)...Was the team's offensive MVP at Arizona (9-11) when he completed 11 of 17 passes for 119 yards, two TDs and one interception; vs. Washington (9-18) when he was 14 of 19 for 221 yards, one TD; at Washington

(11-27) when he was 10 of 17 for 161 yards and two TDs; and at Philadelphia (12-18) when he completed 18 of 27 for 264 yards, no TDs and one interception...Orchestrated the game-winning drive at Cleveland (12-4) by completing four of seven passes for 53 yards. Kept the winning drive alive by completing a 26-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway on a third-and-15 situation, a 13-yard pass to WR Mike Sherrard on third-and-nine and by rushing for seven yards on a quarterback keeper on third-and-one...In the final two minutes vs. Cincinnati (12-11), completed three-of-three passes for 45 yards in the process of taking the Giants 66 yards for Rodney Hampton's game-winning three-yard TD run...Kept the game-winning drive alive at Philadelphia (12-18) when he completed a 34-yard pass-and-run play to RB David Meggett on third-and-16 as the Giants moved into position for PK Brad Daluiso's game-winning 18-yard field goal...Was knocked out of the game at Houston (11-21) in the second quarter with a concussion following a helmet-to-the-chin hit by Oilers LB Lamar Lathon. Was four of seven passing for 19 yards.

1993: Rotated with Graham as the team's No. 2 quarterback for the final five games of the season, including two postseason games...Appeared at New Orleans (12-20) but did not attempt a pass...Also finished up in playoff loss at San Francisco (1-15) as he completed six of 10 passes for 56 yards and one interception.

1992: After signing with just five days remaining in training camp, appeared in only two games during his rookie season, completing a total of four of seven passes for 21 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions...Saw first action of the season at Dallas (11-26) when he relieved Graham...Was two of three for six yards in relief...Also suffered three sacks in Thanksgiving Day game vs. Cowboys...Only other appearance of the season came two weeks later in relief of Graham at Phoenix (12-12) when he completed two of four pass attempts for 15 yards before suffering a broken thumb.

College: As a redshirt junior at Duke in 1991, completed 230 of 470 passes for an ACC-leading 2,794 yards and 20 TDs...Recorded four 300-yard passing games and led the ACC with 2,851 yards in total offense and 25 total TDs...ACC Offensive Player of the Week after throwing four TD passes against Rutgers...Earned honor again when he completed 32 of 50 passes with two TDs against South Carolina...Started four games as a sophomore in 1990 when he passed for 1,444 yards and eight TDs...In 1989, as a redshirt freshman, started final three games of season, averaging 432 yards passing per game and tossing a total of 11 TDs, to lead Blue Devils to All-America Bowl berth...Set a school record with 479 yards passing vs. North Carolina that freshman season when he had a 161.0 passing efficiency rating...First play collegiately resulted in a 76-yard TD pass vs. Wake Forest...Also threw a 97-yard TD pass that same game.

Personal: Honorable mention All-America and All-State, All-County and All-Conference choice at Westfield (N.J.) HS where he threw for more than 2,000 yards as a senior...Team MVP as a junior and senior...Outstanding basketball and lacrosse player, earning team MVP honors in basketball and first-team All-State recognition in lacrosse...A season ticket holder for the New York Knicks...David Brown was born February 25, 1970 in Summit, New Jersey

Games Played-Started - '92 (16-0), '93 (16-16), '94 (15-15)

Career Totals - 47-31

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (99th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: Has primarily lined up at end during his career, but with the offseason acquisition of DE Robert Harris of Minnesota, will move inside...Has displayed superior pass rush ability during his career.

1994: Started 15 games...Was inactive at Washington (11-27) due to a sore knee...His 6.5 sacks on the season tied for team-lead with DT Erik Howard...Recorded the fourth two-sack game of his career at Arizona (9-11) and was awarded a game ball for his performance...Recovered a fumble vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) at the Steelers 26-yard line that set up PK Brad Daluiso's 49-yard FG...Also recovered a fumble at Cleveland (12-4) on the Browns 17-yard line to put the Giants in position for a FG in their 16-13 victory.

1993: Led team and tied for 6th in the NFC with 11.5 sacks...Finished with 51 total tackles...Had four games of two or more sacks: 3 vs. Tampa Bay (9-12), 2 at Dallas (11-7), 2 vs. Dallas (1-2) and 2 vs. Minnesota (1-9) in the NFC Wild Card game...Was the Giants defensive MVP in victories vs. Phoenix (11-28), at Miami (12-5) and at New Orleans (12-20)...Awarded game balls for efforts vs. Tampa Bay (9-12) and at Miami (12-5)...Recorded a safety in Miami game when he sacked Dolphins QB Steve DeBerg in the end zone to give the Giants a 19-7 advantage with 5:19 left in the game.

1992: Played in all 16 games, finishing with 3.5 quarterback sacks...Played primarily in passing situations...Recorded a sack vs. Seattle (10-25) and at Phoenix (12-12)...Had 1.5 sacks vs. Philadelphia (11-22)...Also had three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and a pass defended on the season.

College: Primarily an outside speed rusher at Pitt where he compiled 95 tackles, 27.5 sacks, four fumble recoveries, and nine passes defended in his three-year career...Slowed by a knee injury during the latter part of his final collegiate season but still managed to earn All-Big East and All-East honors as he recorded 33 tackles, including 10 for losses, eight sacks, and five passes defended...Started at left end as a sophomore and was named to sophomore All-America and All-East teams with 52 tackles, 18 for losses, and a team high 10.5 sacks...Started 10 games as a freshman in 1989 and had nine sacks and 14 tackles for losses and was named Freshman Defensive Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

Personal: A scholastic All-America performer after recording 18 sacks as a senior at Heritage HS in Lynchburg, Va., where he also earned All-State honors in basketball and lettered in track...Keith Lamarr Hamilton was born on May 25, 1971 in Paterson, New Jersey.

How Acquired - Draft (1st Rd., 1990)

NFL Exp. - 6th Year

Games Played-Started - '90 (15-2), '91 (14-14), '92 (16-16), '93 (12-10), '94 (14-13)

Career Totals - 71-55

Pro Bowl - 1992, 1993

Transactions: Originally a first round (24th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1990.

NFL: Only running back in Giants team history to record four 1,000-yard rushing seasons, a feat he has accomplished over the past four years...Joe Morris (1982-89) had three 1,000-yard seasons during his career...Hampton enters 1995 in second place on the Giants all-time rushing list with 4,807 yards and needs just 490 yards to move past Morris (5,296) into the top spot...Only the third player in team history to rush for 4,000 or more yards in a career along with Morris and Alex Webster (4,638)...Hampton enters this season without a lost fumble in the last 472 times he has touched the ball (451 rushes, 21 receptions). Hampton last lost a fumble on 11-21-93 at Philadelphia. He has not fumbled the last 466 times (445 rushes, 21 receptions) he has touched the ball. The last time Hampton fumbled was vs. Phoenix on 11-28-93...Now has 16 100-yard rushing games in his career (including postseason), and the Giants are 12-4 when Hampton rushes for 100 or more yards...With 37 career rushing TDs, needs three more to move past Alex Webster (39) into second place on team's all-time list behind Morris (48)...With 1,241 career rushing attempts, Hampton trails only Morris (1,318) on the Giants all-time list...With 15 career regular season 100-yard games, needs five more to move past Morris (19) as the Giants all-time leader.

1994: Finished seventh in the NFL and third in the NFC with 1,075 yards rushing...Played in 14 games with 13 starts...Was injured (bruised back/kidney) at Arizona (9-11) and did not play vs. Washington (9-18) or at New Orleans (10-2) because of the injuries...Still recorded his fourth consecutive season of rushing for more than 1,000 yards...Established a career-high with 327 rushing attempts; previous high was 292 in 1993...Also caught 14 passes for 103 yards...In a vote by his teammates, was selected as one of team's captains prior to the season...Was Giants overall MVP at Houston (11-21) after gaining 122 yards rushing and team's offensive MVP at Washington (11-27) after gaining 106 yards on the ground...Earned a game ball vs. Cincinnati after gaining 76 yards rushing...Earned a game ball vs. Dallas (12-24) after gaining 93 yards on the ground and helping the Giants control the ball in the second half, including the last 9:18 of the game.

GIANTS TID BIT

Host of Rodney Hampton Basketball Classic during offseason in Houston, benefitting the Sickle Cell Foundation.

1993: With 1,077 yards rushing, became the first Giant ever to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons...Only Joe Morris (1985 and 1986) had rushed for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons prior to Hampton...Finished seventh in the NFL and fifth in the NFC with 1,077 rushing yards...Was eighth in the NFC with 1,287 total yards (1,077 rushing, 210 receiving)...Earned a game ball vs. Indianapolis (12-12) when he established a personal best with 173 yards rushing on 33 carries...On the season, had six 100-yard games, including one in the postseason...In addition to Indianapolis, Hampton's regular season 100-yard days were: 134 yards-29 carries vs. Tampa Bay (9-12), 134-41 vs. Rams (9-19), 101-24 at Philadelphia (11-21) and 114-30 vs. Dallas (1-2)...Recorded his first postseason 100-yard game with 33 carries for 161 yards and two TDs against Minnesota (1-9) in the NFC Wild Card game, tying the Giants' all-time individual postseason marks...Rob Carpenter carried the ball 33 times for 161 yards at Philadelphia (12-27-81)...Ken Strong (12-9-34 vs. Chicago), Alex Webster (12-30-56 vs. Chicago) and Joe Morris (1-4-87 vs. San Francisco) all rushed for two TDs in a postseason game...Hampton's 51-yard scoring run against Minnesota is the longest postseason rushing TD in Giants' history; the previous long was 45 yards by Joe Morris vs. San Francisco (1-4-87)...Missed four games: at Washington (10-10), vs. Philadelphia (10-17), vs. Jets (10-31) and at Dallas (11-7) due to knee and ankle injuries suffered at Buffalo (10-3)...Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his knee on October 7 to remove a portion of the lateral meniscus in his left knee...Returned to action vs. Washington (11-14)...Earned second straight trip to the Pro Bowl.

1992: Led team with 1,141 yards rushing and earned a spot on NFC squad in the Pro Bowl...Three rushing touchdowns vs. Kansas City (12-19) tied a team single-game record and his 14 rushing touchdowns for the season ties for second-best in club history...Had two 100-yard games in '92...On 21 carries, rushed for a career-high 167 yards, including the longest run of his career, a 63-yard touchdown, vs. Phoenix (10-11)...Three weeks later, had 138 yards on 23 carries at Washington (11-1)...For the season, caught 28 passes for 215 yards...Equalled a career-high with six receptions at Raiders (10-4)...Had a 31-yard catch vs. Phoenix (10-11).

1991: Missed first two games of the season with a shoulder injury, but bounced back to start final 14 games and become only the fourth Giants player in history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season...Finished with 1,059 yards after picking up 140 in the season-finale vs. Houston (12-21)...Had two other 100-yard games during the season, with 104 yards on 17 carries vs. Cleveland (9-22) and 137 yards on 22 carries vs. Phoenix (10-6)...Scored two rushing TDs at Chicago (9-15)...Established single-game highs with six receptions at Chicago (9-15) and then again vs. Washington (10-27)...Had a single-season high 43 receptions for 283 yards.

1990: Amassed 1,069 all-purpose yards as he played in 15 games with two starts but was limited for five games at midseason because of a sore ankle...Second on team for the season with 455 yards rushing and the third-leading receiver with 32 catches for 274 yards...Also had 340 yards on 20 kickoff returns...First NFL TD was a 12-yard pass reception in season-opening victory vs. Philadelphia...First NFL start came at the Rams (11-11) when he also scored his first rushing TD on a 19-yard run...Regained form from ankle injury down the stretch and led team with 78 yards rushing in victory vs. Minnesota (12-9)...Came back a week later to record first 100-yard game vs. Buffalo (12-15) with 105 yards on 21 carries...In playoffs, suffered a fractured fibula vs. Chicago (1-13-91) that knocked him out of action for the rest of the Giants' Super Bowl title run.

College: An All-America and All-SEC choice in his final season at Georgia in 1989 when he rushed for 1,059 yards and 12 TDs...For his career, Hampton scored 25 TDs overall and caught 46 passes and returned kickoffs for total of 476 yards...As a sophomore in 1988 was named National Player of the Week when he rushed for 196 yards and two TDs in a victory over Tennessee...During his freshman season, he broke Herschel Walker's school single-game all-purpose yardage record of 283 yards by totaling 290 yards vs. Mississippi with 227 yards rushing, 28 yards receiving and 35 yards in kickoff returns.

Personal: A three-sport letterman at Kasmere HS in Houston, Hampton was All-District as a half-back and safety when he rushed for 1,310 yards and 19 TDs as a senior...Rodney Hampton was born on April 3, 1969 in Houston, Texas.

WHEATLEY QUOTES

Wheatley on Wheatley: "I don't think I have one strength that sticks out more than another. I am athletic. I can run the ball and catch the ball. We used the old philosophy at Michigan, 'three yards and a cloud of dust.' I might carry the ball three times and get negative yards or one yard. The fourth time, I might go 60 or 70. You never know what is going to happen when I touch the ball."

Dan Reeves on Wheatley: "I think Tyrone's career at Michigan speaks for itself. He is an exciting runner. He has breakaway speed. He has the size. I think he has the ability to step in and play his first year."

Tom Boisture on Wheatley: "Tyrone runs a little high like Rodney (Hampton). He is going to take some hits, but Rodney hasn't been too bad for us. I don't think Rodney is going to be too bad for us this year either. You can't pass up talent. We go by the value board."

GIANTS TID BIT

The Giants did not lose a fumble in 10 of their 16 games in 1994 and lost just two fumbles in the last seven games when the team was 6-1.

GRAGG QUOTES

Dan Reeves on Gragg: "I think Scott is going to develop into an outstanding player. He held his own at the Senior Bowl. The thing that impressed us, other than his physical tools, is that he is a tough, mean son-of-a-gun. He came to the Senior Bowl from Montana, and he wasn't in awe of anybody."

Tom Boisture on Gragg: "He is a giant of a man who is going to get bigger. He is a tough guy. He has the will and the talent."

Pete Mangurian on Gragg: "You have to be physical, big and willing to work. He is all of those things."

TALLEY QUOTES

George Young on Talley: "Ben Talley had the misfortune in college of having to play a lot of positions. They kept moving him around because they thought he was one of their best defensive players. He played up and down. He has a good motor. He can get up the field and get after the passer and he has enough athletic ability to cover."

Dan Reeves on Talley: "We feel he can play the outside linebacker position, probably on the strong side. He has the talent to come in here and compete because he has the speed, size and quickness you want."

Tom Boisture on Talley: "We got a size and speed guy that everybody liked."

Round 5 (153rd overall)

MULLEN QUOTES

Dan Reeves on Mullen: "Mullen has the size and everything you look for at the safety position. He played corner in college, and everybody thinks it is easy to project a corner at safety, but it isn't. He has produced at the corner position, and we think he can play safety. He certainly has the athletic ability."

DUFF QUOTES

Dan Reeves on Duff: "Earl Leggett (Giants defensive line coach) really liked Duff when he worked him out. He's a guy you hope is going to continue to put on weight. He is about 260 pounds now, but he has the tools to run a 4.8 40, which is really good for a defensive lineman. You hope he is going to be like a (Tony) Tolbert or a Sean Jones."

GIANTS 1994 GAME REVIEWS

GIANTS 28, PHILADELPHIA 23

at East Rutherford, Sept. 4, 1994

The Giants kicked off the 1994 season with a 28-23 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles at Giants Stadium. Midway through the first quarter, CB Willie Beamon forced the Eagles Jeff Sydnor to fumble a Giants punt that was recovered by RB David Meggett at the Eagles' 21. On the next play WR Chris Calloway's 20-yard run put the Giants at the one-yard line, where RB Rodney Hampton punched it in to give the Giants a 7-0 lead. After stopping the Eagles on the next series, Meggett returned a punt 68 yards for his fifth career touchdown on a punt return to give the Giants a 14-0 advantage. The Eagles mounted a drive that ultimately gave them a first-and-goal situation from the Giants one-yard line. The stingy Giants defense held the Eagles to a 21-yard PK Eddie Murray field goal. On the Giants' next possession, QB Dave Brown threw his first career touchdown, a 51-yarder to Calloway to put the Giants up 21-3. The Eagles closed the gap to 21-10 before the half on a 3-yard touchdown pass from QB Randall Cunningham to TE Mark Bavaro. A 93-yard completion from Cunningham to RB Herschel Walker put the Eagles in position for the score. In the second half, the Eagles drove inside the Giants 20-yard line three times, but the Eagles had to settle for a pair of field goals on two of those drives. The Giants scored their last touchdown on a 26-yard run by Meggett. Meggett's effort was the second two-touchdown game of his career. His first was when he had two receiving touchdowns vs. Philadelphia on December 8, 1991. After recording just four sacks in the five preseason games, the Giants defense had five sacks of Randall Cunningham (Erik Howard (2), Michael Strahan (1.5), Keith Hamilton (1), Stacey Dillard (.5)), Dave Brown finished his first professional start with 10 completions on 20 attempts for 171 yards and one touchdown.

Game 2

GIANTS 20, ARIZONA 17

at Tempe, Sept. 11, 1994

The Giants broke their two-game losing streak at Sun Devil Stadium and spoiled Buddy Ryan's home debut by defeating the Cardinals, 20-17. CB Phillip Sparks intercepted Cardinals' QB Steve Beuerlein on the first play of the game to set up the Giants' first score. The interception put the Giants at the Arizona 16-yard line. Five plays later, QB Dave Brown hit TE Howard Cross for a one-yard touchdown. On the ensuing drive, the Cardinals held onto the ball for 10:07, but the Giants defense held Arizona to a field goal and held onto a 6-3 lead. After recovering a Dave Brown fumble at the Giants' 10-yard line, RB Fred McAfee scored from two yards out to give the Cardinals a 10-6 advantage. The Giants stopped the Cardinals on the next series and drove 60 yards in four plays before RB Rodney Hampton scored on a three-yard run to put the Giants back on top, 13-10. The Giants got the ball back with 1:03 left in the first half and were faced with a third-down-and-ten situation from the Cardinals' 23-yard line with :25 left in the half. Arizona was called for a pair of defensive pass interference penalties which gave the Giants the ball at the one-yard line. On the next play, Dave Brown once again hit Cross for a one-yard touchdown. The score gave the Giants a 20-10 halftime lead. The Cardinals held the ball for only 7:04 in the second half and did not gain a single yard on the ground as the Giants defense held them to a total of 39 yards rushing for the game. The Cardinals cut the Giants lead to 20-17 after CB Aeneas Williams blocked a P Mike Horan punt that gave the Cardinals the ball at the Giants' 17-yard line. QB Jim McMahon, who came in to relieve Beuerlein, threw a two-yard touchdown pass to RB Ron Moore. DT Keith Hamilton finished the night with two sacks. The game marked Hamilton's fourth career two-sack game. The Cardinals were penalized 10 times for 150 yards in the game, while the Giants defense limited Arizona to 174 total yards in 46 plays.

Game 3

GIANTS 31, WASHINGTON 23

at East Rutherford, Sept. 18, 1994

The Giants beat the Washington Redskins, 31-23, for their third straight win and their third straight victory over an NFC East opponent, as the Giants and Redskins celebrated the National Football League's 75th anniversary with "Throwbacks Weekend." For the second consecutive week, the Giants recorded an interception on the first play of the game. LB Corey Miller intercepted QB John Friesz to give the Giants the ball at the Redskins' 32-yard line. QB Dave Brown helped convert two fourth-and-one situations to set up RB David Meggett's two-yard run that gave the Giants a 7-0 lead. The lead changed hands five times during the remainder of the game. The Giants came out on top despite giving up 456 total yards, including 381 passing yards from Friesz, thanks to the performances of Brown and Meggett. Meggett, filling in for the injured Rodney Hampton (kidney and back), helped lead the Giants with a career day. Meggett set personal single-game highs with 26 carries for 82 yards. In addition to scoring the Giants' first touchdown, Meggett ran for a one-yard fourth quarter touchdown to put the game out of reach for the Redskins. It was the first game in Meggett's career in which he rushed for two touchdowns and marked the third two-touchdown game of his career. After trailing, 20-17, at the half, Meggett gave the Giants a 24-20 lead when he threw a 16-yard touchdown pass on the halfback option to H-back Aaron Pierce. The pass was Meggett's third career touchdown pass, all of which have come against Washington (42 yards to WR Mike Sherrard at Washington, 10-10-93; 21 yards to WR Chris Calloway vs. Washington, 11-14-93; 6 yards to Pierce vs. Washington 9-18-94). Brown had the best day of his young career, completing 14 of 19 passes for 221 yards and a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Sherrard in the second quarter. The Redskins got the ball back with 1:52 left to play and had a chance to tie the game with a touchdown and a two-point conversion. Friesz led the 'Skins to the Giants' 25-yard line where he attempted a pass to the end zone on the game's final play that was intercepted by S John Booty.

Game 4

NEW ORLEANS 27, GIANTS 22

at New Orleans, Oct. 2, 1994

The Giants suffered their first defeat of the season as the Saints prevailed, 27-22, at the Louisiana Superdome. The Giants drove inside the Saints' 20-yard line four times, yet were only able to manage 19 points. The Giants scored first on a 41-yard PK David Treadwell field goal that was set up by a 25-yard punt return by WR Thomas Lewis. Following a QB Dave Brown interception, the Saints drove to the Giants' 11-yard line where PK Morten Anderson tied the score, 3-3, with a 29-yard field goal. In the second quarter the Giants scored 10 points and appeared to have the game in their control with a 13-3 lead with 1:56 left in the first half. The Giants scored their first touchdown of the game when Brown threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Sherrard. The scoring drive was set up by a 35-yard punt return by Lewis that gave the Giants the ball at the Saints' 11-yard line. S John Booty intercepted Saints QB Jim Everett and returned it 34 yards to the Saints' 12-yard line where Treadwell connected for a 32-yard field goal. The Saints took the game into their hands before the half by scoring two touchdowns in the final two minutes. First, Everett drove the Saints 80 yards in eight plays and threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to WR Quinn Early to cut the Giants lead to 13-10. Then, LB James Williams intercepted a Brown pass and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown to give the Saints a 17-13 half time lead. The Saints opened the second half by driving to the Saints' 15-yard line and scored on a 32-yard kick by Anderson. The Saints scored their final touchdown on a 3-yard run by RB Derek Brown to give the Saints a 27-13 lead. The Giants comeback was stopped short by a series of damaging penalties and missed opportunities. A holding penalty nullified a 75-yard kickoff return by Lewis that would have given the Giants the ball at the Saints' 25-yard line. After the Giants recovered a fumble by Saints' CB Tyrone Hughes, Brown completed a pass to WR Chris Calloway, who managed to catch the ball despite defensive pass interference. The reception would have given the Giants a first down inside the Saints' five-yard line. Instead the play was called back by offsetting penalties after Calloway was penalized for unsportsmanlike conduct for spiking the ball. After recovering an Everett fumble at the Saints' 15-yard line, the Giants failed to get the ball in the end zone and had to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Treadwell. The Giants cut the Saints' lead to 27-22 when Brown threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Sherrard with only two minutes left to play. The Giants tried an onside kick that was recovered by the Saints, who were able to run out the clock.

Game 5

MINNESOTA 27, GIANTS 10

at East Rutherford, Oct. 10, 1994

The Giants record fell to 3-2 with a 27-10 loss to the Minnesota Vikings on Monday Night Football. On a night when Lawrence Taylor's jersey number was retired, the Giants were hoping that Rodney Hampton, who was playing in his first game since suffering back/kidney injuries against Arizona on September 11, would help spark the Giants to a victory. Instead, the Vikings stopped the Giants' rushing attack, holding the Giants to just 37 yards on the ground. The Vikings won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind in the first quarter. After falling behind, 10-3, the Giants got the ball at their own six-yard line with 1:27 left in the first half. QB Dave Brown completed six of eight passes for 91 yards and scored on a three-yard quarterback draw to tie the game at 10-10. In the third quarter, the Vikings took advantage of the wind and scored 14 points. Whatever momentum the Giants gained before the half was killed when Brown threw a pass that was intercepted by CB Anthony Parker, who returned it 44 yards for a touchdown to give the Vikings a 17-10 lead at the 13:16 mark of the third quarter. Minnesota scored again in the third quarter when QB Warren Moon drove his team 71 yards in five plays and hit WR Cris Carter for a 20-yard touchdown to give the Vikings a 24-10 lead. On their next series, the Vikings drove 62 yards in seven plays before settling for a 24-yard field goal by PK Fuad Reveiz. The Giants comeback was stopped when a Brown to WR Thomas Lewis touchdown pass with a little less than 10 minutes left in the game was called back because of a holding penalty. Moon picked apart the Giants' secondary, completing 23 of his 36 pass attempts for 299 yards and one touchdown.

Game 6

RAMS 17, GIANTS 10

at Anaheim, Oct. 16, 1994

The Giants suffered their third straight defeat by losing, 17-10, to the Los Angeles Rams in Anaheim. The only bright spot for the Giants was RB Rodney Hampton, who returned to his old form, rushing 27 times for 112 yards, including a 27-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Hampton's touchdown run was his first rush over 20 yards in his last 471 attempts. The Rams scored first after LB Joe Kelly intercepted a QB Dave Brown pass and returned it 31 yards to the Giants 21-yard line. Two plays later, QB Chris Miller threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to WR Isaac Bruce to give the Rams a 7-0 lead. The Giants tied the game at 7-7 on their fourth possession of the game on Hampton's 27-yard run. The Rams took the ensuing kick and drove to the Giants 12-yard line where Miller threw his second touchdown pass, a 12-yarder to TE Troy Drayton to put the Rams in front, 14-7, at the end of the first quarter. The Giants mounted their most impressive drive of the day on the first series of the second quarter by driving 69 yards in 13 plays, but they were forced to settle for a 24-yard field goal by PK David Treadwell to close the gap to 14-10. The Rams scored the game's final points on a 22-yard field goal by PK Tony Zendejas to give the Rams a 17-10 halftime lead. The Giants had a scoring opportunity in the third quarter when they drove to the Rams 35-yard line where they faced a fourth down-and-one situation. The Giants elected to go for the first down and were stopped by the Rams defense. The Rams took 11:05 off the clock on two drives in the fourth quarter. The Giants did manage to get the ball back with 1:06 left, but Brown's pass intended for WR Mike Sherrard was intercepted by FS Anthony Newman to seal the Rams' victory.

Game 7

PITTSBURGH 10, GIANTS 6

at East Rutherford, Oct. 23, 1994

In a mistake-filled game that was played in a steady rain, the Pittsburgh Steelers handed the Giants their fourth straight defeat with a 10-6 victory. There were a total of nine fumbles, seven turnovers and 17 punts in the ballgame. On their first possession of the game, the Giants drove to the Steelers 29-yard line and appeared to be in position to score before C Brian Williams' shot gun snap to QB Dave Brown resulted in a 26-yard loss that pushed the team out of scoring range. The Giants took advantage of a RB Bam Morris fumble when Brown connected on a 44-yard pass to WR Chris Galloway to give the Giants the ball at the Steelers 11-yard line. A dropped pass in the end zone by TE Howard Cross forced the Giants to settle for a PK David Treadwell field goal that put the Giants in front, 3-0. The Giants drove 74 yards in nine plays and reached the Steelers three-yard line at the beginning of the second quarter, but the scoring opportunity ended when the officials ruled Brown fumbled on the one-yard line on a quarter-back draw. The Steelers recovered the fumble and ran two plays before Morris fumbled for the second time. The Giants recovered Morris' fumble and reached the Steelers 31-yard line to set up PK Brad Daluiso's 49-yard field goal that gave the Giants a 6-0 lead. After a 22-yard punt by P Mike Horan the Steelers got the ball at the Giants 45-yard line and drove to the Giants 11-yard line where PK Gary Anderson hit on a 29-yard field goal to cut the Giants lead to 6-3 at the end of the first half. Pittsburgh took the lead in the fourth quarter when CB Rod Woodson intercepted a Brown pass and returned it 25 yards to the Giants 34-yard line. The Steelers drove to the six-yard line where Morris ran it in for the score to give the Steelers a 10-6 lead. Although the Giants defense forced three turnovers, they failed to stop Morris, who ended the day with 146 yards rushing. The Giants offense could not capitalize on the turnovers, as they had only one first down in the entire second half, converted only one of 14 third down plays, lost one fumble on the one-yard line and had two passes intercepted. The Steelers managed the clock for 10:19 of the fourth quarter to clinch the victory.

Game 8

DETROIT 28, GIANTS 25 (OT)

at East Rutherford, Oct. 30, 1994

The Giants watched their losing streak extend to five straight games with a 28-25 overtime loss to the Detroit Lions. Although the Giants ran for 195 yards and intercepted QB Scott Mitchell three times, the Giants were once again plagued by mistakes, suffering 14 penalties for 120 yards. Detroit scored first on a high snap by C Brian Williams that was tossed out of the back of the end zone by QB Dave Brown for a safety. In the second quarter, S Jesse Campbell intercepted a Mitchell pass that gave the Giants the ball at the Lions 20-yard line. RB Rodney Hampton, who finished the day with 138 yards rushing, ran the ball on four consecutive plays and scored on a four-yard run that gave the Giants a 7-2 lead. On the Giants next series, they converted two third down plays and drove to the Lions three-yard line but were forced to settle for a 25-yard field goal by PK David Treadwell. The kick gave the Giants a 10-2 lead. The Lions got the ball back with 1:15 left in the half and a 26-yard pass interference call on CB Willie Beamon gave the Lions the ball at the Giants 14-yard line. Mitchell threw a 14-yard touch-down pass to WR Herman Moore to cut the Giants lead to 10-8. With just :25 left in the first half, Brown engineered a 41-yard drive that put the Giants in position for a 40-yard field goal attempt by Treadwell. Treadwell's kick sailed wide left as time expired in the first half. The Lions took an 18-10 lead in the third quarter on two scores. On their first possession of the second half, the Lions drove to the Giants 13-yard line before settling for a 31-yard field goal by PK Jason Hanson. On the next series, Brown's pass intended for WR Mike Sherrard was intercepted by LB Mike Johnson and returned 48 yards for a touchdown. The Giants got the big play that they needed in the fourth quarter when RB David Meggett scored on a 56-yard punt return. Hampton ran for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 18-18. The Giants held RB Barry Sanders to just 42 yards rushing after three quarters, but Sanders finally broke loose in the fourth quarter with a 62-yard run that set up a one-yard pass from Mitchell to Moore to give the Lions a 25-18 lead. The Giants tied the game at 25-25 on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Brown to HB Aaron Pierce after driving 74 yards in 15 plays. Detroit stopped the Giants on the first possession in overtime and then drove to the Giants six-yard line where Hanson kicked his 24-yard game winning field goal.

DALLAS 38, GIANTS 10

at Irving, Nov. 7, 1994

The Dallas Cowboys defeated the Giants, 38-10, in a Monday Night Football matchup. The loss dropped the Giants record to 3-6 and extended their losing streak to six games. The Cowboys dominated in every phase of the game. The Giants were able to cross midfield on only two drives and were held to just 55 yards rushing. After a scoreless first quarter, Dallas went up 7-0 on the first play of the second quarter when QB Troy Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper with a 22-yard touchdown pass. The Giants got a break when PR Kevin Williams fumbled a punt return that was recovered by TE Derek Brown at the Dallas 43-yard line. Dallas forced the Giants to settle for a 23-yard field goal by PK David Treadwell to cut the Dallas lead to 7-3. Dallas took a 14-3 halftime lead on a one-yard touchdown run by RB Emmitt Smith, as the Cowboys drove 80 yards in 13 plays. The Giants held the ball for just 4:37 in the third quarter and watched the Cowboys score 21 points to put the game out of reach. The Cowboys were led by Smith, who ran for 162 yards, and Aikman, who completed 19 of 24 passes for 241 yards. QB Kent Graham came in for QB Dave Brown in the fourth quarter and led the Giants on their only significant drive of the game, nine plays and 76 yards, culminating with a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Howard Cross.

Game 10

ARIZONA 10, GIANTS 9

at East Rutherford, Nov. 13, 1994

The Arizona Cardinals snapped their ten-game losing streak at Giants Stadium with a 10-9 victory. The loss dropped the Giants record to 3-7 after opening the season with three straight wins. Behind RB Rodney Hampton, who ended the day with 93 yards rushing, the Giants offense started off successfully and scored on their opening drive. During the 82-yard scoring drive, QB Kent Graham, who made his first start of the season, completed a 15-yard pass to RB David Meggett on third down to put the Giants inside the Cardinals 10-yard line. Three plays later, Graham threw a four-yard touchdown pass to HB Aaron Pierce to give the Giants a 7-0 lead. On their next possession, the Giants drove to the Cardinals 13, but PK David Treadwell's 30-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. The only other scoring in the first half occurred after a P Mike Horan punt pinned the Cardinals inside their own five-yard line. The Cardinals were called for a holding penalty in the end zone and the Giants were awarded a safety that gave them a 9-0 lead. The Giants had a chance to get back into scoring position on the ensuing punt, but the drive was stopped when LB Seth Joyner intercepted a Graham pass at the Cardinals 39-yard line. The Cardinals defense prevented the Giants from sustaining any drives in the second half. Graham completed only five passes in the second half, and the Giants offense managed just three first downs. The Cardinals kicked a 45-yard field goal in the third quarter to cut the Giants lead to 9-3. In the beginning of the fourth quarter, the Giants defense staged a goal line stand that stopped the Cardinals on three straight tries from the one-yard line. The Cardinals possessed the ball for 12:05 of the final quarter and pulled ahead on a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Steve Beuerlein to WR Bryan Reeves with 1:39 left to play. Beuerlein was held to just three completions in the first half but came on strong in the second half to finish with a respectable 180 yards on 17 completions. The Cardinals stopped the Giants on their next series, but the Cardinals mismanaged the clock and the Giants got the ball back with :03 left in the game. Graham's desperation pass to WR Chris Calloway was incomplete as the Giants dropped their seventh straight.

Game 11

GIANTS 13, HOUSTON 10

at Houston, Nov. 21, 1994

PK David Treadwell's 37-yard field goal with two seconds left in regulation lifted the Giants to a 13-10 victory over the Houston Oilers and ended a seven-game losing streak. The Oilers scored only 10 points despite RB Lorenzo White's 156-yard rushing performance. After a scoreless first half, the Oilers got on the board first after QB Billy Joe Tolliver drove the Oilers 62 yards and scored on a one-yard quarterback sneak. The Giants took the ensuing kickoff 73 yards and scored on a 40-yard touchdown pass from QB Kent Graham to WR Mike Sherrard, who recorded his fifth career 100-yard day as he finished with six receptions for 109 yards. Graham, who replaced QB Dave Brown after Brown left in the second quarter with a concussion, connected with Sherrard for a 55-yard gain to help set up a 26-yard field goal by Treadwell, which gave the Giants a 10-7 lead early in the fourth quarter. On their next possession, the Oilers drove to the Giants 26-yard line before settling for PK Al Del Greco's 43-yard field goal and a 10-10 tie. The Giants, led by RB Rodney Hampton's 25 yards rushing, moved into position for Treadwell's game winner. Hampton finished the night with 122 yards rushing, the 15th 100-yard game of his career.

Game 12

GIANTS 21, WASHINGTON 19

at Washington, Nov. 27, 1994

Behind a ball-control offense and the efficient passing of QB Dave Brown, the Giants completed a season sweep of the Washington Redskins with a 21-19 victory. Brown threw for two touchdown passes and ran for another as he completed 10 of 17 passes for 161 yards. Trailing 3-0 in the first quarter, Brown guided the Giants on a 65-yard drive and ran the ball in for a one-yard touchdown to give the Giants a 7-3 lead. The Redskins cut the Giants lead to 7-6 before Brown connected on a 34-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Calloway in the second quarter to put the Giants in front, 14-6. The Giants opened the second half with a 61-yard drive that ended in a six-yard touchdown pass from Brown to WR Mike Sherrard. The Giants relied on the running of RB Rodney Hampton, who carried the ball 34 times for 106 yards in the game, to control the ball the rest of the way. Washington ran just four offensive plays in the fourth quarter. The Giants defense held the Redskins out of the end zone, limiting them to four PK Chip Lohmiller field goals. The Redskins only touchdown of the day came on a 60-yard fumble return by S Martin Bayless late in the fourth quarter.

GIANTS 16, CLEVELAND 13

at Cleveland, Dec 4, 1994

PK Brad Daluiso kicked a 33-yard game-winning field goal with 19 seconds left in regulation to lift the Giants past the Cleveland Browns, 16-13. The victory improved the Giants record to 6-7 and marked their third consecutive victory on the road. QB Dave Brown completed 17 of 33 passes for 226 yards and a 10-yard touchdown pass to HB Aaron Pierce on the Giants opening drive. The Browns took an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 41-yard field goal by PK Matt Stover to cap a 60-yard opening drive. The Giants responded by marching 87 yards on 11 plays before Brown hit Pierce in the end zone to give the Giants a 7-3 lead. On that drive, Brown completed four of five passes for 75 yards, including a 44-yard pass to WR Mike Sherrard. The Browns opened the second quarter with a 23-yard field goal by Stover to cut the Giants lead to 7-6. The Giants drove into Cleveland territory on their next two possessions of the first half but failed to come away with any points. Despite forcing four turnovers in the second half, the Giants offense could only manage six points against a stingy Cleveland defense. LB Michael Brooks and S Jesse Campbell both intercepted QB Vinny Testaverde to stop Browns' drives. Campbell also forced a fumble that was recovered by the Giants at the Browns 31-yard line. Five plays later, Daluiso kicked a 25-yard field goal to extend the Giants lead to 10-6. After the Giants recovered a Testaverde fumble at the Browns 26-yard line, Daluiso kicked a 30-yarder to put the Giants ahead, 13-6, with a little more than eight minutes left in the game. On the Browns next series, Testaverde threw a 60-yard pass to WR Derrick Alexander to give Cleveland the ball at the Giants five-yard line. On the next play, RB Leroy Hoard scored on a five-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 13-13. The Giants took the ensuing kick-off and drove 59 yards to set up Daluiso's game winning field goal. The drive was orchestrated by Brown, who completed four of seven passes for 53 yards. Brown kept the drive alive by completing a 26-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway on third-and-15, a 13-yard pass to Sherrard on third-and-nine and gaining seven yards on a quarterback keeper on third-and-one.

GIANTS 27, CINCINNATI 20

at East Rutherford, Dec. 11, 1994

RB Rodney Hampton scored on a three-yard run with :40 left in regulation to give the Giants a 27-20 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals. After a scoreless first quarter, the Giants built a 17-7 half-time lead. The Giants first score was set up by a 53-yard completion from QB Dave Brown to WR Mike Sherrard. Hampton scored on the next play on a one-yard run. On their next possession, PK Brad Daluiso connected on a 52-yard field goal to put the Giants in front, 10-0. The Bengals cut the lead to 10-7 after capitalizing on a 40-yard punt return by CB Corey Sawyer that gave them the ball at the Giants 12-yard line. Cincinnati scored on a five-yard touchdown pass from QB Jeff Blake to WR Carl Pickens. The Giants got the ball back with 1:05 left in the half and Brown led the Giants 65 yards before finding TE Howard Cross in the end zone for a touchdown and a 17-7 lead. The Bengals controlled the ball for 17:29 of the second half and closed a 20-10 Giants lead to a 20-20 tie with 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter. The Bengals' tying field goal came with 1:47 left in the game. On the ensuing drive Brown completed three passes on three attempts for 45 yards in the process of taking the Giants 66 yards in the two-minute drill. The drive was helped when Sawyer was called for pass interference while covering Sherrard. The penalty gave the Giants the ball at the Bengals three-yard line. On the next play, Hampton scored the game-winning touchdown. With 76 yards rushing on 23 attempts, Hampton moved past Alex Webster (4,638) into second place on the Giants all-time rushing list.

Game 15

at Philadelphia, Dec. 18, 1994

The Giants overcame a 13-6 fourth quarter deficit with less than four minutes left in regulation to keep their playoff hopes alive with a 16-13 victory over the Eagles in Philadelphia. RB David Meggett tied the game at 13-13 with a five-yard touchdown run with 3:54 left in the game, and PK Brad Daluiso kicked an 18-yard field goal with :54 left to help the Giants improve to 8-7. The Eagles scored first when QB Bubby Brister connected with TE Mark Bavaro on a 27-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter. PK Eddie Murray extended the Eagles lead to 10-0 early in the second quarter on a 32-yard field goal. The Giants drove to the Eagles 23-yard line on their next series, but the scoring drive was ended when Meggett was stripped of the ball at the Eagles nine-yard line. The Giants cut the Eagles lead to 10-3 when Daluiso nailed a 47-yard field goal with :04 left in the first half. The teams exchanged field goals in the third quarter to give Philadelphia a 13-6 lead. Midway through the final quarter of play, CB Thomas Randolph intercepted Brister at the Eagles 44-yard line. The Giants took advantage of the turnover when Meggett rolled into the end zone from five yards out. On the ensuing kickoff, Jeff Synder fumbled the ball when he ran into his own player and CB Willie Beamon recovered the ball at the Philadelphia 36-yard line. QB Dave Brown kept the game-winning drive alive when he completed a 34-yard pass-and-run to Meggett on third-and-16. Meggett ran the ball to the eight-yard line as the Giants moved into position for Daluiso's field goal that put the Giants in front, 16-13. With only :47 left in the game, Brister took the Eagles to the Giants 27-yard line and gave Murray a chance to tie the game with a 44-yard field goal. The Giants completed a season sweep of the Eagles when Murray's kick sailed wide left as time expired.

Game 16

GIANTS 15, DALLAS 10

at East Rutherford, Dec. 24, 1994

The New York Giants came into week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoff field. The Giants earned their sixth straight victory with a 15-10 win over the Cowboys as they overcame a 3-7 record to close out the season with a 9-7 mark. The Giants 1994 season officially ended when the Bucs failed to defeat the Packers in a 34-19 loss. After spotting the Cowboys a 3-0 first quarter lead, the Giants got the big play that they needed when QB Dave Brown connected with WR Mike Sherrard for a 49-yard touchdown pass early in the second quarter. The Giants recovered a QB Troy Aikman fumble at the Dallas 25-yard line on the next series and extended their lead to 10-3 on a 38-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso three plays later. After stopping the Giants on the first series in the second half, WR Kevin Williams returned a punt 52 yards to give the Cowboys the ball at the Giants 11-yard line. RB Blair Thomas scored from one yard out two plays later to tie the game at 10-10. After a quick kick by Dave Brown pinned the Cowboys inside their own 10-yard line, the Giants took a 12-10 lead when LB Jessie Armstead forced QB Rodney Pete to fumble out of the end zone for a safety. RB Rodney Hampton, who gained 91 yards to finish the 1994 season with 1,075 yards, helped the Giants control the ball in the second half as Dallas had the ball for just 6:43. Daluiso added a 30-yard field goal in the fourth quarter for a 15-10 final, and the Giants mounted a 16-play, 68-yard drive as they maintained the ball for the final 9:18 of the game.

1994 PRESEASON REVIEW

MIAMI 20, GIANTS 19

July 30, at East Rutherford

The Giants opened their preseason with a solid effort but came up short as they dropped a 20-19 decision to Miami. The Giants committed four turnovers (three fumbles and an interception) in the second half as Miami came back from a 14-6 halftime deficit. Dave Brown started the game for the Giants and played the first half and the first series of the second half. Brown completed eight of 12 passes for 107 yards and a touchdown. On the Giants' first series possession, the Brown guided offense moved 62 yards in 12 plays as FB Kenyon Rasheed scored on a three-yard run. On the Giants' third possession Brown connected with WR Chris Calloway on a 54-yard bomb to give the Giants a 14-3 advantage. The four second half turnovers by the Giants resulted in 11 Miami points, including the season's first two-point conversion.

CLEVELAND 24, GIANTS 15

August 6, at East Rutherford

For the second consecutive week, the Giants paid dearly for their mistakes in dropping a 24-15 decision to Cleveland. The Browns got on the board first when Eric Turner intercepted a Kent Graham pass intended for David Meggett. Turner returned the pick 68 yards for a TD. The Giants tied the game 8-8, but the Browns built a 15-8 halftime advantage with a 71-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard Vinny Testaverde-to-Michael Jackson TD pass. The Giants scored when tackle Greg Bishop recovered a Graham fumble in the end zone. PK Matt Stover kicked two more field goals in the fourth quarter for the final margin of 24-15. Graham started the game at QB for the Giants and played the first three quarters. Dave Brown relieved Graham in the fourth quarter. Graham finished 12 of 23 passing for 122 yards and an interception. Brown was 9 of 15 for 88 yards and an interception.

GIANTS 28, SAN DIEGO 20 (American Bowl)

August 13, at Berlin, Germany

The Giants played in their first NFL American Bowl series game and defeated San Diego, 28-20, in Berlin. In his first game after being named the starting quarterback, Dave Brown was 15 of 21 passing for 187 yards and one touchdown. Brown also rushed for 30 yards on six carries, including a nine-yard TD run. The Giants controlled the ball for 19 of the game's first 30 minutes. After playing to a 14-14 tie in the first half, rookie RB Keith Elias scored on a six-yard run late in the third quarter for a 21-14 Giants advantage. The Chargers scored a touchdown on a Gale Gilbert to Shannon Mitchell 11-yard TD pass in the fourth quarter but failed on a two-point conversion. The final margin came on a Kent Graham-to-Omar Douglas five-yard TD pass following a Chargers' muffed punt that was recovered by Jessie Armstead.

JETS 13, GIANTS 10

August 20, at East Rutherford

The Giants fell victim to their own second half mistakes in dropping a 13-10 decision to the Jets. The two teams exchanged field goals for a 3-3 tie early in the second quarter. Following a LB Corey Miller interception of QB Boomer Esiason on the Jets' first possession of the second quarter, the Giants moved 18 yards in four plays as TE Howard Cross caught a five-yard scoring pass from QB Dave Brown for a 10-3 Giants' advantage. The Giants thwarted another drive late in the first half when CB Willie Beamon picked off Esiason at the Giants three-yard line as the Giants took a 10-3 lead into the half. In the fourth quarter, the Giants secondary got caught in between coverages and QB Jack Trudeau hit WR Stevie Anderson for an 80-yard TD to tie the score at 10-10. After three plays the Giants punted and Trudeau then marched the Jets 45 yards in 10 plays before PK Nick Lowery knocked down a 38-yard FG attempt for the winning points.

CHICAGO 27, GIANTS 21

August 27, at Chicago

The Giants closed out their preseason by traveling to Chicago and dropping a 27-21 decision to the Bears. It was a mixed performance by the Giants. In the first quarter the Giants cranked up their running game and put together an 80-yard drive that culminated with an eight-yard scoring pass from QB Dave Brown to WR Chris Calloway. Two Steve Walsh TD passes gave the Bears a 14-7 halftime advantage. The Giants ran just five offensive plays in the third quarter as the Bears extended their lead to 21-7 on a Shane Matthews TD pass. Kevin Butler booted two fourth quarter FGs for the Bears, while QB Kent Graham engineered a couple of Giants' scores. On the first, the Giants moved 69 yards in eight plays with RB Keith Elias scoring from one-yard out. Following a Bear fumble on their next possession, Graham hit Calloway with a 20-yard scoring pass. The game ended when the Giants turned the ball over on downs at the Chicago 19-yard line with four seconds remaining.

GIANTS* TID BIT

In 1994 Brad Daluiso (11 of 11) and David Treadwell (11 of 17) combined to give the Giants a 78.6 field goal percentage. That mark is the second-highest field goal percentage in team history behind the 83.3 percent that was set in 1983.

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

1925-29 Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. More than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season. Folwell left, and was replaced by Dr. Joe Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Mara lost $40,000. Earl Potteiger replaced Alexander in 1927, and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. In 1929 the 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans and turned a small profit.

1930 Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder.

1931 Center Mel Hein was signed. Steve Owen was named head coach.

1932 Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass reception champion with 21 catches.

1933 The Giants easily won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL. In the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Bears 23-21.

1934 In what has come to be known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Some of the New York players wore basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf.

1935 The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to Detroit 26-7.

1936 The first NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants' first pick in it was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it finished without a winning record.

1937 Seventeen rookies helped make up the twenty-five man roster in 1937. The 1937 season also marked the debut of the now familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938 A 23-17 victory over Green Bay produced the Giants' third NFL title.

1939 Green Bay avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940 The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Tuffy Leemans was lost for the season midway through the season with a back injury. C Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing that for the tenth year in a row.

1941 In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the NFL title game.

1942 After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and a third place finish in the NFL East.

1943 With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the NFL title game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944 Luring Arnie Herber and Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern title, but lost the NFL championship game to Green Bay 14-7.

1945 The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946 Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000, but was suspended indefinitely along with teammate Merle Hapes for alleged gambling involvement.

1947 The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including an eight-game losing streak.

1948 The team's renovation movement was stepped up in 1948 when the team acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The Giants reached another milestone in their illustrious existence, and it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, Emlen Tunnell.

1949 Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the A formation to the T and it resulted in bringing the Giants back to .500 with a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with the Charlie Conerly.

1950 The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference Playoff Game. It marked the first time the Giants finished above .500 since the Eastern Division Championship season of 1946.

1951 Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants' bonus pick in the draft, but was injured in the preseason and saw little action. Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952 Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894) of Los Angeles.

1953 Owens retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants' head coach.

1954 Former Giants' end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach.

1955 After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956 Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff was rookie of the year.

1957 The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games.

1958 Advancing to the NFL championship game with a playoff win over Cleveland, the Giants lost to Baltimore 23-17 in sudden death overtime.

1959 Baltimore exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960 The Giants finished an injury-plagued 1960 season with a 6-4-2 record. Head coach Jim Lee Howell announced his retirement at the end of the season and Allie Sherman was promoted to the top slot.

1961 The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained Y.A. Tittle and Del Shofner in trades. Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for Green Bay, losing 37-0.

1962 Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, Tittle, Shofner and Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Packers. Green Bay prevailed, 16-7.

1963 Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, 14-10 to Chicago's Bears.

1964 For the first time in seventeen years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965 Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 in Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York. In addition to Tittle, Andy Robustelli and Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years.

1966 The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record in the process of allowing 501 points, an NFL record at the time. Pete Gogolak became the first AFL player to cross to the NFL.

1967 Quarterback Fran Tarkenton was obtained from Minnesota.

1968 The Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as Giants coach.

1969 The Giants lost 37-14 to the New York Jets in a preseason contest. Webster replaced Sherman as head coach.

1970 Ron Johnson became the Giants' first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971 After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead. Bob Tucker became the first TE to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972 Norm Snead, obtained in the Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years.

1973 Prior to the final game of the season, Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to Minnesota to close out the year at 2-11-1. They played their late-season home games at Yale Bowl.

1974 Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants' ninth head coach. Snead was traded to San Francisco. Craig Morton was obtained from Dallas.

1975 The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for the scheduled open of Giants Stadium for the 1976 season. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976 Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977 Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978 The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of their final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979 Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980 A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, second worst in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. They did upset Dallas 38-35 after eight straight defeats. Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981 With the second selection in the draft, New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, but then obtained running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. A three-game losing streak dropped the club to 5-6, and then Simms was injured. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime victory over Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982 A wild, wooly and turbulent year which saw the NFL players' strike shorten the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night game from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout for most of the season, returning to play in just the final five games, and then on December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the play-offs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983 After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an all-time NFL record with 35 field goals during the year.

1984 With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants won the NFC wild card playoff spot again, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second-place in the NFC East as Simms set three all-time single season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional play-off. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson—were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985 With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the Divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, by a 21-0 score, the toughest outing the Bears encountered in the entire playoffs. Five players—Taylor, Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall—were named to the Pro Bowl. All told, there were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set an all-time one season rushing mark with 1,336 yards plus an all-time mark for TDs in a season with 21 while Simms broke all-time club records with 40 completions in a game for 513 yards passing. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

1986 The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set an all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the Super Bowl victory with an NFL all-time playoff mark of 88% passing accuracy with his 22-for-25 passing in the 39-20 title conquest of the Denver Broncos. Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP. Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and all-time attendance records were set for both home and away, as well as single game home attendance.

1987 Not exactly a year to remember. After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a final 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in this players' strike season and the replacement games which followed. Add to that a rash of injuries which sidelined no less than 11 starters at one time or another, and the fifth-place finish was the result. While the Giants had a 6-4 record after the players' strike had been settled, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

1988 The Giants bounced back from the debacle of '87 and after splitting their first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 mark into the final weekend of the season. Alas, an upset setback at the hands of the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth as well. With that final 10-6 record, the Giants' overall mark over the five past seasons reached 54-32 for a winning percentage of .628, and those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year consecutive span. RB Joe Morris set an all-time club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and WR Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' all-time rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989 Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants startled the experts by winning their second NFC East championship in four years with a final 12-4 record, after most of those experts had predicted no better than a .500 season for the club. Veteran RB Otis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set all-time club marks in punt returns with 582 yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards during the year. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equalled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990 The Giants began the year on a hot streak, winning their first 10 games for a solid NFC East lead, then held on to win the title with a final 13-3 record, despite losing QB Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including LB Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. The Giants also set all-time attendance records, both for season home and one-game home marks. Veteran RB Otis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the long-time Mara family ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, and in May, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991 In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting QB, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the rest of the campaign. Simms added his 15th all-time club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

1992 Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6-10 campaign as injuries to key players hurt the team and the team's performance ultimately cost Handley his job following the season. Phil Simms regained his starting QB spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th passer in NFL history to surpass 30,000 yards passing. Jeff Hostetler then started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, LB Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, the Giants general manager George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

1993 Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman did so in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a Wild Card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC Divisional Playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor will be eligible for election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame following the 1998 season.

1994 After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak to close out the season with a 9-7 record. The Giants came into week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoff field. The Giants defeated the Cowboys, 15-10, but the season officially ended when the Bucs failed to defeat the Packers in a 34-19 loss. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. RB Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in the team's history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

 Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun... Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons which set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana which knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries to say nothing of a classic headache.

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever... Giddy Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period leaked for a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt on the last play of the game... Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an alltime Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

NFC Wild Card Game
 Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Revez 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team post-season marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL post-season single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

THE GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

1927 GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen was later to say. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Windy City crew. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain which set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara.

1933 Chicago Bears 23, GIANTS 21

Jack Manders opened the scoring for the Bears at Wrigley Field, before 26,000 with a 16-yard field goal in the first period to touch off 60 minutes of fireworks which kept fans standing on their chairs through most of the game. Manders kicked a 28-yard FG for a 6-0 lead in the second period before Harry Newman hit Red Badgro for a touchdown pass and a 7-6 Giant lead at the half. Manders' third FG regained the lead for the Bears, but Max Krause's TD and the conversion by Ken Strong put NY back in front 14-9. A pass from Bronko Nagurski to Bill Karr made it 16-14, Chicago, before Strong lateraled to Newman who then threw a TD pass back to Strong for a 21-16 Giant lead late in the game. The Bears bounced back to win, however, when Nagurski's jump pass to Bill Hewitt was lateraled to Karr for the game-winning touchdown.

1934 GIANTS 30, Chicago Bears 13

With the temperature at nine degrees and the Polo Grounds covered with a sheet of ice, this one became famous as the "sneakers" game when Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to open the second half with his club trailing 10-3. The Giants responded with four touchdowns which had a crowd of 35,059 roaring approval. The Bears had a string of 33 games without a defeat going into this one, but fell behind 3-0 on a 38-yard FG by Ken Strong. A TD by Nagurski and a field goal by Manders got the Bears in front 10-3 at the half, when Owen sent for the sneakers to take advantage of the slippery footing. Ahead 13-3 on another Manders' FG, the Bears were swamped in a fourth-period Giant uprising which saw Ed Danowski throw a 28-yard TD pass to Ike Frankian and Ken Strong race 42 yards for another TD just moments later for a 17-13 lead. Danowski and Strong raced for subsequent touchdowns against the stunned Bears to turn the game into a rout.

1935 Detroit Lions 26, GIANTS 7

With a crowd of about 15,000 looking on, the Lions took a 13-0 lead in the first period when Leroy "Ace" Gutowsky plunged over from the 2-yard line and Earl "Dutch" Clark shook loose on a 40-yard touchdown romp. The Giants closed the gap at 13-7 in the third period when Danowski connected with Strong for a 42-yard touchdown pass, but the Lions' defense accounted for two more scores in the final period on a blocked punt and intercepted pass. Ernie Caddel scored the first on a 4-yard slant and Buddy Parker the second on a 9-yard run.

1938 GIANTS 23, Green Bay Packers 17

A slam-bang, bruising thriller was staged for the largest crowd (48,120 at the Polo Grounds) to see a championship game up to that time. With the victory, the Giants became the first team to win the championship twice since the divisional splitup. The Giants blocked two punts early in the game, and capitalized on both with Ward Cuff kicking a 13-yard FG and Tuffy Leemans blasting over on a 6-yard plunge. Arnie Herber's 50-yard TD pass to Carl Mulleneaux got the Packers on the scoreboard, but Danowski hit Hap Barnard for a 20-yard

Victory clinched the NFL Championship; there was no championship game at that time.*

TD pass and a 16-7 lead. The Packers closed to 16-14 at halftime on Clark Hinkle's 6-yard TD, then took the lead 17-16 on Engebretsen's third-period FG. New York then stormed back to the Packer 23 from where Danowski passed to Hank Soar for the game-winning TD.

1939 Green Bay Packers 27, GIANTS 0

The Packers came up with sweet revenge in a grudge match played before 32,279 at Milwaukee's State Fair Grounds. Cold weather and a 35-MPH wind made aerial sorties a bit dubious, but Green Bay scored quickly on a 7-yard pitch from Herber to Milt Gantenbein. Engebretsen kicked a 29-yard FG in the third period for a 10-0 lead, and the Packers wrapped it up with touchdowns by Joe Laws on a 20-yard pass from Cecil Isbell, a one-yard plunge by Jankowski and Ernie Smith's 42-yard field goal.

1941 Chicago Bears 37, GIANTS 9

Attendance was only 13,341 at Wrigley Field, just two weeks after Pearl Harbor Day. The Giants led 6-3 in the first period on a Tuffy Leemans to George Franck touchdown pass of 31 yards, but the Bears scored on a pair of field goals, then broke the game wide open in the second half on touchdowns by Norm Standlee (2), George McAfee and Ken Kavanaugh.

1944 Green Bay 14, GIANTS 7

The Packers took a 14-0 lead at halftime before 46,016 at the Polo Grounds on touchdowns by Ted Fritsch – the first on a 2-yard plunge and the second on a 26-yard pass from Irv Comp with Don Hutson adding the conversions. Ward Cuff scored on a 1-yard plunge on the first play of the final period for the Giants, but the Packers hung on for the triumph.

1946 Chicago Bears 24, GIANTS 14

Sid Luckman was the big man for the Bears in this win before 58,346 at the Polo Grounds. He passed for a 21-yard TD to Ken Kavanaugh to open the scoring, then ran 19 yards for a score later in the game. Dante Magnani's 19-yard pass interception accounted for the third Bear score, while the Giants hit the scoring column on touchdown passes from Frank Filchock to Frank Liebel and Steve Filipowicz.

1956 GIANTS 47, Chicago Bears 7

Fullback Mel Triplett smashed 17 yards for a TD early in the game on an icy field before a big crowd, then Ben Agajanian added a brace of field goals for a 13-0 lead. It was 34-7 at halftime as Alex Webster crashed over for a pair of touchdowns from inside the 5-yard line. Charlie Conerly's aeriels brought nothing but more woe to the Bears in the second half, with Kyle Rote snaring a 9-yard TD throw and Frank Gifford a 14-yarder to close out the scoring.

1958 Baltimore Colts 23, GIANTS 17 (OT)

Some people call this the greatest game ever played, and perhaps it was for drama and its sudden-death ending. With a crowd of 64,185 on hand at Yankee Stadium, the Giants led 3-0 on a 36-yard Pat Summerall FG in the first period, with the Colts taking over 14-3 at halftime on scores by Alan Ameche from the 2-yard line and Ray Berry on a 15-yard pitch from Johnny Unitas. The Giants scored in the third period on a 1-yard plunge by Mel Triplett after an 86-yard gainer from Conerly to Rote with Webster picking up Rote's fumble. The Giants went in front 17-14 on Conerly's 15-yard TD throw to Gifford, but the Colts tied it with seven seconds to play on Steve Myrah's 13-yard FG and won in the overtime on Ameche's 1-yard plunge, the 13th play of a Colt drive.

1959 Baltimore Colts 31, GIANTS 16

A sellout crowd of 57,577 was on hand at Baltimore's Municipal Stadium for the big rematch of the divisional champions. The home crowd had plenty to cheer about in the early going as Unitas hit Lenny Moore for a 60-yard TD bomb, but the Giants surged back to stop the Colt offense. With Summerall kicking three field goals (23, 26 and 23 yards), the Giants led 9-7 going into the final period. But the Colts stormed back with a furious final period onslaught as Unitas scored on a 4-yard run, threw a 12-yard TD pass to Richardson and Johnny Sample returned an interception for another score.

1961 Green Bay Packers 37, GIANTS 0

With a crowd of 39,029 looking on in Green Bay, Paul Hornung paced the Packers to a stunning 37-0 triumph by scoring 19 points on a touchdown, three field goals and four conversions. On leave from his Army duties in Fort Riley, Kan., Hornung scored on a 6-yard slant in the second period to break a scoreless deadlock and set off a Packer splurge which accounted for 24 points in that quarter. The Giants were unable to recover from this onslaught and suffered their first shutout in nine seasons. Bart Starr's touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and a pair of Hornung field goals closed out the scoring in the second half.

1962 Green Bay Packers 16, GIANTS 7

Bitter cold weather at Yankee Stadium was no deterrent to 64,892 fans who turned out for the year's big one. As things turned out, a trio of field goals by Packer guard Jerry Kramer made the difference in a game where both defensive units turned in superlative jobs. The only Giant score was a result of defensive work when Erich Barnes blocked a Max McGee punt and reserve end Jim Collier fell on the ball in the end zone.

1963 Chicago Bears 14, GIANTS 10

The Bear defense turned the tide in this championship game, played in 10 degree weather in Wrigley Field. Taking the early lead on a 14-yard Y.A. Tittle TD pass to Frank Gifford and Don Chandler's FG, the Giants were the victims of five pass interceptions thereafter, two of which set up the Bear scores. Larry Morris swiped the first one for a return of 61 yards, while Ed O'Bradovich's steal of a screen pass set up what turned out to be the winning score. Tittle suffered a knee injury in the first half, but gallantly returned to action in the second half, though he was hampered and hobbled by his injury.

1966 GIANTS 39, Denver Broncos 20

Led by the brilliant record-setting passing of Phil Simms, the Giants won their first Super Bowl with a 30-point second-half onslaught before 101,063 spectators at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Simms pitched 22-for-25 for 268 yards and three TDs, setting an all-time NFL playoff mark of 88.0% completion and winning the MVP honors in the game. Down 10-9 at halftime, the Giants rang up 24 unanswered points to take a commanding 33-10 lead in the fourth period with Simms' TD passes going to TEs Zeke Mowatt and Mark Bavaro and to WR Phil McConkey. Linebacker Carl Banks was a star on defense with 10 solo tackles as the Giants concluded their greatest season ever with a 17-2 record.

1990 GIANTS 20, Buffalo Bills 19

The Giants won their second Super Bowl championship before 73,813 at Tampa Stadium by battling back from a 12-3 deficit in what many considered to be the best of all Super Bowls. Ahead 20-19 in the final moments of play, the Giants prevailed when Buffalo kicker Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt in the final moments of the game. QB Jeff Hostetler, replacing the injured Phil Simms during the playoffs, hit 20-for-32 for 222 yards and one TD, while the veteran RB Ottis Anderson had 102 yards rushing and one TD and won the MVP honors. The Giants set an all-time Super Bowl record for time of possession with 40:33 in their ball-control offensive game plan.
