GIANTS ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION

WELLINGTON MARA

PRESIDENT & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on October 18, 1925 when the New York Giants played their first home game against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. It was on that day that the then nine-year old Wellington T. Mara began a lifetime that has been dedicated to the Giants and the National Football League.

Wellington Mara has been involved in every aspect of operating the Giants during his seven decades with the team, from his first job as a ballboy at training camp to the on-the-field operations to scouting and general organization, and eventually to the front office executive capacity where he now serves as President and Co-Chief Executive Officer. The only interruption in Mara's Giants career was World War II when he served with distinction for more than three years in the Navy, seeing action in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters aboard aircraft carriers and emerging as a Lieutenant Commander.

Because of his extensive background in the development and growth of the National Football League, Wellington Mara is recognized as one of the league's leaders. He has been instrumental in the outstanding accomplishments of the Giants: 16 NFL Divisional championships and six NFL championships, including the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV championship titles.

Wellington Mara has not only served the Giants admirably over the years, but he has also been a valuable contributor to league efforts, having served on many ownership committees. From 1971 until 1977, he was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council, the labor arm of the NFL, and it was under his leadership that the league achieved five years of labor peace from 1977 to 1982. Wellington was elected President of the National Football Conference in 1984, succeeding the late George Halas in that role. Mara is currently a member of the Realignment, Hall of Fame and Player-Club Operations committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the Management Council.

In 1925, Wellington's father, Timothy J. Mara, purchased the Giants franchise to establish a New York entry in the fledgling National Football League. The Mara family's presence has been constant with the Giants since Timothy Mara's purchase of the team. In addition to Timothy's and Wellington's involvement, Wellington's older brother, the late Jack Mara, served as the club's President until his death in 1965. After Jack's death, his son Tim served as Vice President and Treasurer of the team until Bob Tisch purchased the Jack Mara holdings in 1991. Today, two of Wellington's sons are important members of the organization: John Kevin as Executive Vice President and General Counsel and Frank as Director of Promotions.

Until 1965, Wellington Mara was responsible for the franchise's football decisions, while his brother Jack handled the business side of the team. A key to the Giants' championships in the late-'50s and early-'60s were trades engineered by Wellington that brought Y.A. Tittle, Andy Robustelli, Del Shofner, Dick Modzelewski, Pat Summerall, Joe Walton, Dick Lynch, Erich Barnes, Bill Svoboda, Harland Svare, Bob Schnelker, Herb Rich, Ed Hughes and Walt Yowarsky, among others, to the Giants. Draft choices Frank Gifford and Rosey Brown went on to become members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, as did Tuffy Leemans, whom Wellington personally scouted and recommended in 1936.

Wellington T. Mara, whose nickname is "Duke," was born on August 14, 1916 in New York City. He graduated from Loyola High School before matriculating to Fordham University where he earned his degree in 1937. His brother, Jack, preceded him to Fordham University where he earned a law degree, but Wellington was only interested in joining his father with the Giants and did so immediately after graduation. He has been with the organization ever since.

Wellington married the former Ann Mumm in 1954 and the Maras have 11 children: John Kevin, 41; Susan Ann, 40; Timothy Christopher, 39; Stephen Vincent, 37; Francis Xavier, 36; Shelia Marie, 34; Kathleen Mary, 33; Maureen Elizabeth, 31; Ann Marie, 29; Meghan Ann, 25; and Colleen Elizabeth, 23. The Maras, who reside in Rye, New York, also have 29 grandchildren.

PRESTON ROBERT TISCH

CHAIRMAN & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

For Preston Robert Tisch, it was a dream come true in 1991, when he became Co-Owner of one of New York City's premier sports franchises, the New York Giants. It was following the Giants Super Bowl XXV victory that he completed negotiations with Tim Mara and his family for a 50% interest in the team. Thus he began his career as an owner of a professional sports franchise -- only one of many careers he simultaneously pursues.

At Loews Corporation, one of the country's most successful financial companies, Mr. Tisch serves as Co-Chairman, Co-Chief Executive Officer and a Director. The Company, with 1995 revenues of $18.7 billion and assets exceeding $65 billion, owns and operates hotels and resorts through Loews Hotels; owns 84% of CNA Financial Corporation; and owns Bulova Corporation, Lorillard Tobacco Company and Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc.

The company's history dates back to a summer camp in New Jersey run by Mr. Tisch and his brother Laurence, followed by the purchase of a hotel in Lakewood, New Jersey and the formation of Tisch Hotels, Inc.

In 1959, the Tisch brothers bought controlling interest in Loews Theaters, Inc., a real estate-rich theatre chain. In 1971, after Loews acquired Lorillard Tobacco, its name was changed to Loews Corporation.

Mr. Tisch served as Postmaster General of the United States from August 1986 until returning to New York in March 1988. Prior to his appointment as Postmaster, he served as President and Chief Operating Officer of Loews Corporation and its corporate predecessor, Loews Theatres, Inc., a position held from 1960 until his appointment as Co-Chairman and Co-CEO.

Throughout his career, Tisch has been active in civic affairs. Prior to being named Postmaster General, he served as Chairman of the New York Convention & Visitors Bureau for 19 years and currently serves as the Bureau's Chairman Emeritus. He was also founding Chairman of the New York City Convention and Exhibition Center Corporation and Chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Conventions held in New York City in 1976 and 1980.

In May 1990, Mayor David Dinkins appointed Tisch New York City's Ambassador to Washington. Through 1993, he served as a liaison between the City of New York and his friends and colleagues in both the national government in Washington and the business community in New York City.

From 1980-1993, Tisch served as Chairman of the New York City Partnership, Inc. and the New York Chamber of Commerce and Industry, where he was instrumental in developing a campaign to enhance New York's position as an international business center. He remains an active member of both organizations, where he continues to serve on their Boards of Directors. A founding Co-Chairman of Citymeals-on-Wheels, he became President of the Board of Directors in September 1993.

In addition to these involvements, Mr. Tisch makes considerable time for the Giants. In his role as Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, he visits his office at Giants Stadium each week, without fail, and attends every game, both home and away. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he's attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

Mr. Tisch was born in New York City. He attended Bucknell University before entering the Army in 1944. After military service in World War II, he earned a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Michigan in 1948. Mr. Tisch is married to the former Joan Hyman, and they have three children: Steven, Laurie and Jonathan, who is Treasurer for the Giants. Mr. Tisch lives with his wife in New York City and Rye, New York.

JOHN K. MARA
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL COUNSEL

John K. Mara, the oldest son of team President Wellington Mara, begins his sixth season with the Giants after joining the club in 1991 as Executive Vice President and General Counsel. In his present position, Mara is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization and reports directly to the Co-Chief Executive Officers, Wellington Mara and Preston Robert Tisch.

Mara was born in New York City on December 1, 1954, grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in Marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. John earned his Law Degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the firm of Shea & Gould in Manhattan where he continued until April 1991 when he joined the Giants.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, 15; Courtney, 13; John Jr., 12; Christine, 10; and Erin, 6. The Mara family resides in Harrison, New York.

JONATHAN M. TISCH
TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch joined the Giants in February 1991 and immediately began his role as Treasurer. In addition to serving on the Giants Board of Directors, Tisch serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer for Loews Hotels.

During his tenure, Tisch has been instrumental in overseeing the company's growth and subsequent emergence as one of the leading luxury hotel chains. Blending a cutting edge approach to marketing and operations, with a conservative development philosophy, he has become recognized as one of the industry's leading authorities. As a result, he has received numerous honors and accolades, for both his dedication to the travel industry, as well as for his commitment to social responsibilty and community outreach.

Most recently, he was inducted into the Convention Liaison Council's "Hall of Leaders," and was also named as one of the "25 Most Influential People in the Meetings Industry" by Meeting News Magazine. He has twice been named as one of the "Business Travel Industry's Most Influential Executives" by Business Travel News, as well as one of Crain's New York business magazine's "All Stars."

Underscoring his presence as an industry leader, Tisch currently serves as Vice Chairman of the American Hotel & Motel Association. In conjunction with the first-ever White House Conference on Travel and Tourism, held October 1995, Tisch co-chaired the Promotions Committee. He currently serves on The White House Conference on Travel and Tourism Implementation Team, a public/private partnership that will spearhead the development of a new National Tourism Organization to replace the United States Travel and Tourism Administration (USTTA).

Actively involved in several community and philanthropic activities, Tisch serves on the Board of Directors for Tufts University, the Robert Steel Foundation for Pediatric Cancer Research at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, and the Pediatric AIDS Foundation. He is also a member of the New York Convention & Visitors Bureau's Executive Committee, and the Dean's Advisory Council for the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University.

A graduate of Tufts University, Tisch's affection for the television and film industry traces back to working as a Cinematographer/Producer at WBZ-TV in Boston where he received two Emmy Nominations.

GEORGE YOUNG
VICE-PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

George Young has created a lasting impact on the Giants since being named General Manager on Valentine's Day, 1979. Prior to his assuming the stewardship, the Giants had not been in NFL postseason play since the 1963 season, a 15-year famine at the time. Since he instituted his reconstruction policies, the Giants have now won two Super Bowl championships and have been to the NFL playoffs seven times while missing out on an eighth playoff season in the final game of the strike-shortened 1982 campaign and again in 1988 and 1994. The Giants' back-to-back winning playoff seasons in 1984 and 1985 also marked the first time that the club had achieved postseason play in consecutive years in 22 seasons. Young, who is heading into his 18th season at the helm of the Giants football operation, has been named the National Football League's Executive of the Year an unprecedented four times, winning the award in 1984, 1986, 1990 and 1993. Young currently serves as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee.

In building the Giants, Young has placed special emphasis on the draft. From his inaugural draft in 1979 through the 1995 selection process, Young has succeeded in signing every player drafted over that span, and from those drafts, a total of 112 players made the club at one time or another. Young's Giants draft list includes Pro Bowlers Lawrence Taylor, Phil Simms, Leonard Marshall, Mark Bavaro, Rodney Hampton and John Elliott. Over that same span, 22 of those drafted players were named to the All-NFL Rookie team, including 1993's eighth round draft choice LB Jessie Armstead and 1994 second round pick CB Thomas Randolph.

Prior to being named GM by the Giants, Young had spent 11 years in the NFL with the Baltimore Colts and Miami Dolphins. During his tenure with those two clubs, Young had been closely associated with Don Shula at both franchises and had served in a variety of capacities. He was initially brought into the Colts organization in 1968 by Shula as an assistant in the Personnel Department, then two years later was named offensive line coach with that Colts team going all the way to the Super Bowl and scoring a 16-13 win over the Dallas Cowboys. In 1971, Young was named Director of Player Personnel and then in 1973 was named Offensive Coordinator of the Colts by Howard Schnellenberger. A year later, Young rejoined Shula with the Miami Dolphins as Director of Personnel and Pro Scouting.

George Bernard Young was born on September 22, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland, and was an outstanding football player at Calvert Hall High School in Baltimore. He went on to Bucknell University where he was a starting defensive tackle for three seasons, team captain in 1951 and was named to the Little All-America first team and All-East first team in his senior year. Selected to play in the Blue-Gray game, he was then drafted by the Dallas Texans and played in professional football for one year.

Young then began a coaching career in the Baltimore school system at Calvert Hall and City College High School and over a 15-year span won six Maryland state championships and had a 60-11-2 record during one stretch. Additionally, Young was an educator while coaching in Baltimore, teaching History and Political Science. During that teaching career, George also earned two Master's degrees from John Hopkins University and Loyola College. He was further honored in May, 1987 when he was awarded an honorary Doctorate in Humane Letters from Western Maryland College. George and his wife, Mary Love, reside in Upper Saddle River, New Jersey.

DAN REEVES
HEAD COACH

Head coach Dan Reeves suffered through a losing season in 1995 for only the third time in his 30 years in professional football. It was a frustrating season for Reeves and the Giants. The 1995 Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter.

Reeves followed each of his previous two losing seasons with playoff berths. The last time that a Reeves-coached team finished with a losing record was 1990 when the Denver Broncos went 5-11. Reeves helped the Broncos rebound the following year by leading them to a 12-4 record and a berth in the AFC Championship game.

With the retirement of Miami's Don Shula, Reeves, with 143 career victories, is now the winningest active coach in the NFL. Shula retired with 347 career victories. Buffalo's Marv Levy is the second-winningest active coach with 138 victories.

In three seasons with the Giants, Reeves has compiled a 25-23 regular season record and a 1-1 postseason mark to push his career record to 143-103-1, the 10th-most victories in NFL history. The Giants' win over Arizona on 10-8-95 was Reeves' 132nd regular season victory, which gave him sole possession of 10th place in NFL history. Reeves had been tied with Hank Stram for 10th place in regular season victories at 131. Former Giants head coach Steve Owen is in 9th place with 151.

General Manager George Young named Reeves the 14th head coach of the New York Giants on January 27, 1993. Reeves quickly proved to Giants followers just what kind of winner he is when he was named the Associated Press Coach of the Year after helping turn the Giants 1992 record of 6-10 into a playoff-qualifying 11-5 mark in 1993, the best-ever record for a first-year Giants coach. He became just the second head coach in Giants history to lead his team to the playoffs in his first season with the Giants. Allie Sherman was the other Giants head coach to do so in 1961.

Reeves and his staff were faced with many questions before the start of the 1994 season, not the least of which was what kind of production they would get from a young, inexperienced quarterback. Following a 3-0 start, Reeves' Giants suffered through a seven-game losing streak, the longest of Reeves' NFL career. In what many say may have been his best coaching job ever, Reeves and his coaching staff managed to keep the team together as the Giants won their final six games to get back into playoff contention and finish the year with a 9-7 record.

Reeves came to the Giants after spending 12 years as head coach of the Denver Broncos, where he produced five first place finishes in the American Football Conference Western Division, three Super Bowl appearances and four AFC Championship Game appearances. From 1981-1991 Reeves' record at home was 65-20, the best in the NFL during that stretch of time. He was the only AFC coach in the decade of the 1980s to lead his team to consecutive Super Bowl appearances and he led Denver to seven 10-victory seasons in his 12 years. Under Reeves, the Broncos put together winning streaks of 10 games once, eight games once and four games nine times.

Reeves' record of success dates back to his playing days with the Dallas Cowboys. He has participated in 45 NFL postseason games, 15 games as a head coach, 16 as an assistant, six as a player-coach and eight as a player. Reeves has played or coached in a record eight Super Bowls, including the three Super Bowl appearances as head coach of the Broncos (Super Bowls XXI, XXII and XXIV).

Reeves was the youngest head coach in the NFL when he assumed command of the Broncos in 1981 at the age of 37. Denver finished that first season with a 10-6 record and narrowly missed a playoff berth. In 1983, a 9-7 mark and a Wild Card berth earned Reeves a second place finish in the AFC Coach of the year balloting by UPI, following a 2-7 record in the strike-shortened 1982 season.

In 1986, Reeves' Broncos won the AFC Championship with a team that featured a high-powered passing game that took care of the ball as it established a team record for lowest interception percentage (.029). Even though the Broncos compiled an 11-5 mark in 1985, Denver did not make the playoffs. The performance came on the heels of a 13-3 record in 1984, which gave Denver its highest victory total ever and Reeves was recognized as Coach of the Year.

In 1987, Reeves led an injury-riddled team to a 10-4-1 record, best in the AFC, and its second straight AFC West title. Even though the 1987 season was only 15 games, Denver set or tied numerous single-season team records, including most touchdowns scored (tied team mark with 45), most yards total offense (5,624), most games scoring 20 or more points (12) and most consecutive games scoring 20 or more points (seven). Also, the Broncos tied a team mark with six games of 30 or more points.

In 1989, Reeves led the Broncos back from an 8-8 mark in 1988 to their third Super Bowl appearance in four years while garnering AFC Coach of the Year honors. Reeves' record of Super Bowl appearances in that four-year span was the first time an AFC coach had taken his team to the league's championship game with such frequency since Don Shula led the Dolphins to three Super Bowls in 1971, 1972 and 1973.

In 1991, Reeves was named AFC Coach of the Year by the Kansas City 101 Club, the first time the club has ever honored a coach three times while he was coaching the same team, as the Broncos finished with a 12-4 record and earned a spot in the AFC Championship Game. It was the best turnaround effort in the NFL that season after the Broncos had finished with a 5-11 mark in 1990.

Even though his 1992 Denver team finished 8-8, his ballclub was still in the hunt for a Wild Card berth on the season's final weekend when the Broncos lost to the Kansas City Chiefs.

Until taking the Denver post in 1981, Reeves had been a member of the Dallas coaching staff since 1970, when he spent two seasons as a player-coach. In 1972 he was a full-time assistant coach in charge of the offensive backfield. Reeves was in private business in 1973 before returning to the coaching ranks in 1974 as the backfield coach for the Cowboys. He remained in that position until 1977 when he was named offensive coordinator on Tom Landry's staff.

Reeves began his professional playing career as a free agent running back for Dallas after having been an outstanding collegiate quarterback at the University of South Carolina where he is a member of the school's Hall of Fame. Reeves was an all-purpose player during his eight seasons (1965-72) with Dallas (1,990 yards rushing with 25 TDs and 129 pass receptions for 1,693 yards and 17 TDs), and he finished his playing career as the fifth all-time rusher in Dallas history. In addition, he completed 30 passes, including two for touchdowns, on the the halfback option, and he also returned punts and kickoffs at various times.

Reeves was born in Rome, Georgia on January 19, 1944. Reeves and his wife Pam, who celebrated their 32nd wedding anniversary on June 27, have three children- daughters Dana and Laura, and a son Lee. They also have three granddaughters, Caitlin, Ashley, and Morgan.

DAN REEVES' OPENING DAY RECORD

After joining the Dallas Cowboys as a free agent in 1965, Reeves was not involved in an opening day loss until 1982, his second season as head coach of the Denver Broncos. Reeves' record in opening day games in the NFL is 25-5 (.833), 16-3 at home and 9-2 on the road. His best mark against all opening day opponents is 4-0 vs. Philadelphia. Reeves' teams have made 21 postseason appearances, including eight in the Super Bowl, in those 30 seasons. Five of the nine seasons in which a Reeves' team has not made the playoffs began with a loss on opening day.

ASSISTANT COACHES

GEORGE HENSHAW

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

George Henshaw begins his fourth season with the Giants after being named offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on February 2, 1993. In his first season, the 1993 Giants offense featured a running game that led the NFL with 138.1 yards per game. In 1994, Henshaw's biggest achievement was tutoring quarterback Dave Brown, who finished with a 9-6 record in his first season as a starter. The addition of Steve DeBerg to the staff prior to the 1995 season allowed Henshaw more time to concentrate on his coordinator duties.

Before coming to the Giants, Henshaw spent five years with the Denver Broncos (1988-1992), including the 1992 season as Denver's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Prior to that position, Henshaw coached Denver's wide receivers in 1991, and from 1988 until 1990 he coached the Broncos offensive line. During Henshaw's tenure in Denver, the Broncos won two AFC West titles and appeared in Super Bowl XXIV.

Henshaw, 48, was head coach at the University of Tulsa in 1987. Before that, he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Alabama from 1983 until 1986. In 1983, Alabama led the Southeastern Conference in scoring offense (30.7 points per game) and total offense (424.1 yards per game). Prior to going to Alabama, Henshaw was on the coaching staff at Florida State from 1976 until 1982. For three years, he served as defensive line coach. Henshaw was the Seminoles' offensive coordinator and offensive line coach during his final four years at Florida State. In 1982, Florida State ranked second in the nation in scoring offense, averaging 30.7 points per game, and third in total offense with an average of 465.7 yards per game.

Henshaw was born on January 22,1948 in Richmond, Va. and is a 1970 graduate of West Virginia University. He coached at West Virginia from 1970 until 1976. Henshaw and his wife Kathleen have three children: Michael, Matthew and Kerry.

MIKE NOLAN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Nolan begins his fourth season with the Giants after being named defensive coordinator by Dan Reeves on February 2, 1993. Nolan worked on Reeves staff for six seasons in Denver (1987-1992), the last four as the Broncos linebackers coach.

In his first season at the helm of the Giants defense in 1993, the team allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205 points). In 1994, Nolan made the adjustments for a successful switch from the 3-4 to the 4-3 defensive scheme. The Giants defense fell to 11th in the NFL but was fourth in the league and second in the NFC during the Giants season-ending six-game winning streak.

Nolan, 37, was Denver's special teams coach in 1987 and 1988, and he assisted the defensive coaching staff in 1988 before assuming the linebackers assignment. Nolan joined the Denver staff after serving as linebackers coach at Louisiana State in 1986. He was secondary coach at Rice in 1984 and 1985. Prior to joining the Rice staff, Nolan spent two years at Stanford, coaching the secondary in 1982 and the linebackers in 1983.

The son of former NFL head coach and former Giants defensive back, Dick Nolan, Mike was a four-year letterman at free safety at the University of Oregon, graduating in 1981. He went to the Denver Broncos training camp in 1981 as a free agent and then spent a year at Oregon as a graduate assistant coach.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland on March 7, 1959, Nolan and his wife Kathy have four children: Michael, Laura, Jennifer and Christopher.

DON BLACKMON

LINEBACKERS

Don Blackmon, a seven-year standout linebacker for the New England Patriots, was named the Giants linebackers coach on February 10, 1993. Blackmon came to the Giants from the Browns organization where he served as linebackers coach during the 1991 season. He coached the outside linebackers for the Patriots for three seasons (1988-1990) after retiring as a player in 1987.

Blackmon was a fourth-round draft choice of the New England Patriots out of Tulsa in the 1981 draft. He recorded 541 tackles, 30.5 quarterback sacks, six fumble recoveries, 19 pass deflections, two safeties, 10 forced fumbles and five interceptions during his NFL career. He started 72 of 89 games for the Patriots before being forced to retire after a neck injury in a game against the Raiders in 1987.

Blackmon, 38, was a three-time all-conference selection at the University of Tulsa. As a senior, he was named the Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year and was named to the school's Hall of Fame.

Don and his wife Jacqueline have two daughters, Candice and Tiffany, and a son, Don II.

DAVE BRAZIL

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dave Brazil joined the Giants staff in the spring of 1992 as the team's linebackers coach. When Dan Reeves came to the Giants in January of 1993, Brazil was retained as the defensive quality control coach.

Prior to coming to the Giants, Brazil was defensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1990 and 1991 after joining Chuck Noll's coaching staff in Pittsburgh as linebackers coach in 1989. Brazil's 1990 Steelers defense finished first in the NFL, allowing the fewest overall yards and fewest passing yards in the league. From 1984 through the 1988 season Brazil was a member of the Kansas City Chiefs coaching staff as secondary and then linebackers coach.

Before joining the NFL in 1984, Brazil was defensive coordinator at Kent State (1981-1982) and Boston College (1980). Brazil's first pro coaching experience was in the World Football League with the Detroit Wheels (1974) and the Chicago Wind (1975). Prior to joining the pro ranks, Brazil coached at Eastern Michigan (1971-1973), Tulsa (1969-1970) and Holy Cross (1968).

Brazil was born in Detroit, Michigan on March 25, 1936. He graduated from the University of Detroit with a business administration degree. He and his wife Bridget have six children: daughters Kathleen and Mary Ann and sons Michael, Daniel, Thomas and Patrick, who works with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Assistant Video Director.

JAMES DANIEL

TIGHT ENDS

James Daniel began his professional coaching career when Dan Reeves named him tight ends coach of the Giants on February 16, 1993. Daniel came to the Giants after spending 12 years on the coaching staff at Auburn University (1981-1992) where he was offensive line coach. During his tenure at Auburn, the Tigers made nine postseason bowl game appearances.

Prior to going to Auburn, Daniel was an assistant coach at Enterprise High School in Enterprise, Alabama from 1974 through 1980. During his time at Enterprise, 11 of his offensive linemen received college scholarships.

Daniel's only NFL coaching experience before coming to the Giants was in 1988 when he received a coaching fellowship to spend training camp working with the New Orleans Saints coaching staff and then in 1992 when he served the same fellowship with Reeves' staff in Denver.

Daniel, a three-year starter and four-year letterman at Alabama State from 1970 to 1973, was born in Wetumpka, Alabama on January 17, 1953 and is married to the former Myrtis Burton.

STEVE DEBERG

QUARTERBACKS

Steve DeBerg joined Dan Reeves staff on February 15, 1995 as the team's quarterbacks coach. In his first season, DeBerg helped Dave Brown cut down on his interception percentage. Brown threw just ten interceptions in 456 passing attempts for an interception percentage of 2.2%. This season DeBerg will work to improve Brown's passing accuracy as well as develop Tommy Maddox, Stan White and Danny Kanell.

DeBerg, who stepped in for the Miami Dolphins in 1993 when Dan Marino injured his achilles tendon early in the season, played in the National Football League for 17 years. DeBerg, 42, played on five different teams during his career, finishing with the Miami Dolphins in 1993 when he was the oldest player in the league. A 10th-round draft choice by the Dallas Cowboys out of San Jose State in 1977, DeBerg played with San Francisco (1978-1980), Denver (1981-1983), Kansas City (1988-1991), Miami (1993) and had two stints with Tampa Bay (1984-1987, 1992). He played for Reeves in Denver from 1981 through 1983.

DeBerg compiled some of the most impressive passing statistics in NFL history. He ranks 11th on the NFL's all-time passing yardage chart with 33,872 yards, eighth on the league's all-time completion list with 2,844, and ninth on the all-time attempt list with 4,965.

Born January 19, 1954 in Oakland, California, DeBerg has a daughter, Amy, 16, and a son, Drew, 13.

JOE DECAMILLIS

SPECIAL TEAMS

Joe DeCamillis joined Dan Reeves and the Giants staff on February 9, 1993 as special teams coach. DeCamillis spent five years (1988-1992) with the Denver Broncos. He spent the 1992 season as the Broncos defensive quality control coach as well as an assistant special teams coach.

DeCamillis, 31, was an All-America wrestler as a senior at the University of Wyoming where he received a degree in secondary education in 1987. He wrestled for Wyoming from 1983 through 1987 and was a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference performer.

Born on June 29, 1965 in Arvada, Colorado, DeCamillis was an all-state quarterback and wrestler at Arvada High School. Joe and his wife Dana have two daughters, Caitlin and Ashley.

KERRY GOODE

ASST. STRENGTH & CONDITIONING/ OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Kerry Goode joined the Giants coaching staff on March 1, 1993 as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach. In addition to assisting Al Miller with the team's strength and conditioning responsibilities, he serves as the Giants offensive quality control coach. Goode joined the Giants staff after spending the 1992 season as regional manager for Sportplex fitness centers in Alabama and 1991 as assistant to the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance at the University of Alabama.

Goode was a tailback for Alabama from 1983 through 1987. During his playing career, Goode was the team's co-captain as a senior and the SEC Freshman of the Year in 1983. He was a seventh-round draft choice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1988. In his rookie campaign, Goode gained 231 yards rushing on 63 attempts. Goode signed with Dan Reeves' Denver Broncos in 1989 before being released prior to the start of the season. Goode signed with Miami later in the season and appeared in one game for the Dolphins.

Goode was born on July 28, 1965 in Town Creek, Alabama. He and his wife,the former Pamela Fending, have a son, Brooks (1). Goode's brother Chris spent eight seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, and his cousin Antonio Langham was the first pick of the Cleveland Browns in 1994.

EARL LEGGETT

DEFENSIVE LINE

After spending 13 seasons as a coach with the Raiders and Broncos, Earl Leggett joined the Giants staff as defensive line coach on February 2, 1993.

Leggett was with the Raiders staff from 1980 through 1988 and then again in 1991 and 1992. During his tenure with the Raiders, the franchise won two Super Bowl titles. He spent the 1989 and 1990 seasons on Dan Reeves' staff in Denver. In his first year with Denver, the Broncos captured the AFC championship. Prior to his first stint with the Raiders, Leggett coached the defensive line for the San Francisco 49ers in 1978 and for the Seattle Seahawks in 1976 and 1977. Leggett began his coaching career at Nicholls State in 1971 before moving to Texas Christian in 1972 and 1973. His first professional coaching experience was with the Southern California Sun of the World Football League in 1974 and 1975.

Leggett was an All-America defensive tackle at Louisiana State University before being chosen by the Chicago Bears in the first round of the 1957 draft. He was traded to the Los Angeles Rams in 1966 and later taken in the 1967 veteran allocation draft by the New Orleans Saints, for whom he played two seasons (1967-1968).

Leggett and his wife Bobbie have two sons and two daughters.

PETE MANGURIAN

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pete Mangurian spent five years on Dan Reeves staff in Denver (1988-1992), including the 1989 Super Bowl season, before coming to the Giants on February 2, 1993 as offensive line coach. Mangurian heads an offensive line that has helped Rodney Hampton record his third, fourth and fifth consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons over the past three years.

He was Denver's offensive line coach during the 1991 and 1992 seasons after spending three seasons as the Broncos tight ends and H-backs coach. Prior to joining Dan Reeves coaching staff in Denver, Mangurian served as offensive line coach at Louisiana State University from 1984 through 1987. During those four years, LSU made four consecutive bowl game appearances and established a school record for total offense in a season three times. Mangurian began his coaching career at Southern Methodist in 1979 and 1980. He was on the staff at New Mexico State in 1981 and at Stanford in 1982 and 1983.

Mangurian was a defensive tackle at LSU from 1975-78. He earned a political science degree from LSU in 1978.

A native of Los Angeles, California, Mangurian and his wife Amy have two daughters, Lauren and Katie.

AL MILLER
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Al Miller begins his fourth season with the Giants after being named the strength and conditioning coach on February 2, 1993. Miller came to the Giants from the Broncos after spending eight seasons (1985-1992) in Denver in the same capacity. Miller is the driving force behind the Giants successful offseason conditioning program.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Miller was the strength coach for the University of Alabama from 1982 through 1984. Before that, he was strength and conditioning coach at Northeast Louisiana in 1981 and Mississippi State in 1980. From 1974 through 1978, Miller was linebackers and strength coach at Northwestern Louisiana. He was a high school and junior high school coach from 1970 through 1973.

Miller was born in El Dorado, Arkansas on August 29, 1947 and is a 1970 graduate of Northeast Louisiana. He was a four-year letterman at Northeast Louisiana as a wide receiver and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1992. He earned a Master's degree from Louisiana Tech in 1974. Al and his wife Janis have a son, Carey Brian, and a daughter, Lisa.

DICK REHBEIN
WIDE RECEIVERS

Dick Rehbein originally joined the Giants staff in February 1992 as the team's tight ends coach. When Dan Reeves took over the team in January of 1993, Rehbein was given the assignment of coaching the wide receivers.

Rehbein joined the Giants after spending eight seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (1984-1991). While with Minnesota, Rehbein was a special assistant in 1984, receivers coach from 1985 through 1988 and assistant offensive coordinator/passing game coach from 1989 through 1991. Prior to his Minnesota experience, Rehbein was special teams coach and assistant offensive line coach of the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in 1984. Before that, he was special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1979 through 1983.

A four-year starter as a center at Ripon College in Wisconsin, Rehbein was a Division II All-American who went to training camp with the Green Bay Packers in 1977.

Rehbein, 40, was born on November 22, 1955 in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Rehbein and his wife Pam have two daughters, Betsy and Sarah.

GEORGE SEFCIK

RUNNING BACKS

George Sefcik enters his 24th year in the NFL coaching ranks and his sixth season as a coach with the Giants. Sefcik originally joined the Giants as receivers coach in May of 1991. When Dan Reeves was named head coach of the Giants in January of 1993, Sefcik was assigned to coach the team's running backs and he has helped Rodney Hampton produce three of his five career 1,000-yard seasons. In 1993, Sefcik coached a unit that led the NFL in rushing yardage with 138.1 yards per game.

Sefcik's first NFL job was as offensive backfield coach for the Baltimore Colts in 1973. He moved to the Cleveland Browns as running backs coach in 1975. Following the 1977 season, Sefcik coached the running backs for six years for the Cincinnati Bengals (1978-1983), helping guide the Bengals to Super Bowl XXVI. He was running backs and quarterbacks coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1984 through the 1987 season before serving as offensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988. From 1989 through 1990, Sefcik coached the running backs for Cleveland.

Sefcik was born on December 27, 1939 in Cleveland, Ohio, where he helped lead Benedictine High School to the state championship as a halfback in 1958. He was a three-year letterman as a two-way halfback for Notre Dame from 1959 through 1961. Sefcik began his coaching career by spending six years at Notre Dame and was on the staff at the University of Kentucky for four seasons before joining the NFL.

Sefcik and his wife Lorie have three children.

ZAVEN YARALIAN

DEFENSIVE BACKS

After spending three seasons on Mike Ditka's staff with the Chicago Bears as defensive backs coach (1990-1992), Zaven Yaralian joined the Giants on February 4, 1993 in the same capacity. His 1990 Bears secondary led the NFL with 31 interceptions. In his first season with the Giants, he helped direct a unit that allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205 points). In 1994 the Giants were the second-best defense against the pass over the final six weeks of the season. Under Yaralian, the Giants secondary has ranked 10th in 1993, 8th in 1994 and fourth in 1995.

Yaralian began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, in 1975. He then coached the defensive backs at Washington State in 1976 and 1977 before moving on to the University of Missouri in the same role from 1978 through 1983. Yaralian served as the secondary coach at the University of Florida from 1984 through 1987 and was the Gators defensive coordinator as well from 1985 through 1987. He coached the defensive backs at the University of Colorado in 1988 and 1989 before joining the Bears staff prior to the 1990 season. Yaralian was a member of the coaching staff at Colorado during their National Title game against Notre Dame in the 1989 Orange Bowl.

Yaralian was a two-year starter at cornerback for Nebraska before a short stint with the Green Bay Packers in 1974 and the Philadelphia Bell of the World League in 1975.

Born on February 5, 1952, Yaralian grew up in California where he was the state's high school player of the year in football at Ingelwood High in 1969. Yaralian and his wife Lorraine have two sons, Blake and Garrett.

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Since beginning his NFL career with the Baltimore Colts in 1970, Ernie Accorsi has worked in virtually every phase of the football business. Accorsi, who was Executive Director of Business Affairs for the Baltimore Orioles from February 25, 1994 until being hired by the Giants on July 6, 1994, was brought to the Giants to assist George Young with the football operations.

Most recently in the NFL, he served as Executive Vice President/Football Operations for the Cleveland Browns from 1984 until he left the team in 1992. During that time, the Browns made five consecutive playoff appearances, including three appearances in the AFC Championship Game. With the Browns, Accorsi was responsible for player acquisitions and player-related movements. He handled all player contract negotiations and managed the Browns player personnel department.

After serving as the Colts public relations director for five years, Accorsi worked in the NFL office as Assistant to the President of the National Football Conference in 1975 and 1976. He returned to the Colts in 1977 as the team's assistant general manager. He later became the Colts general manager for two years, 1982 and 1983, prior to joining the Browns organization.

Since leaving the Browns and prior to joining the Orioles, Accorsi served as a special advisor on the committee to attract an NFL expansion franchise to the city of Baltimore. In that capacity, he was responsible for selling all 100 sky suites for the proposed football stadium, as well as all 7,500 club seats. The sky suites were sold out in six weeks, while the club seating sold out in eight weeks. In addition, he also raised commitments of $51 million for Baltimore's Expansion Efforts Premium Seating Campaign.

While with the Orioles, Accorsi oversaw the team's stadium operations, media relations, community relations and coordination of TV and radio operations, including Major League Baseball Network.

A 1963 graduate of Wake Forest University, Accorsi has worked as a sports writer for the Charlotte News, Baltimore Evening Sun and Philadelphia Inquirer. He has also worked in the sports information departments at St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia and Penn State University. Accorsi has three children: sons Michael (27), a former graduate assistant under George Welsh at the University of Virginia and currently an Administrative Assistant at the University of Maryland, and Patrick (22), a student at the University of Kentucky; and a daughter Sherlyn (26), a graduate of Penn State University.

HARRY HULMES

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

With 39 years of professional football experience to his credit, Hulmes brings a wealth of NFL knowledge to the Giants. The veteran NFL executive joined the Giants in 1984 as the team's Assistant General Manager.

Prior to being named by the Giants, Hulmes had served as Chief Operating Officer for the Arizona Wranglers of the USFL, but virtually all of his previous experience was within the NFL where he served for 12 years with the Baltimore Colts and 13 years with the New Orleans Saints in a variety of positions.

Hulmes began his career in sports with the Baltimore Orioles as assistant business manager, then was the sports information director at Bucknell University before entering the NFL as business manager of the Colts in 1958. He subsequently served as public relations director and general manager of the Colts before moving to the Saints in 1970 as assistant general manager. Until he departed for the Wranglers in 1982, Hulmes also served the Saints as Director of Player Personnel and Vice President of Administration.

After graduating from Northeast High School in Philadelphia, Hulmes spent three years in the Navy as a radarman in the South Pacific and Persian Gulf theaters. Hulmes earned a B.A. degree in journalism and psychology at the University of Pennsylvania after returning from the service.

Born on July 20, 1927 in Philadelphia, Hulmes is married to the former Barbara Lockhart of Mount Holly, N.J. and is the father of two daughters, Linda Ann and Terry Ellen, both graduates of LSU, and a son, Richard Wayne, also a graduate of LSU.

TOM BOISTURE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

After serving for 10 years as a scout, chief scout and in the personnel department for the New England Patriots, Tom Boisture joined the Giants in the spring of 1980 as Director of Player Personnel.

Boisture began his coaching career at Austin Catholic H.S. in Detroit where he was head football coach, then continued as a head coach at St. Ambrose H.S. in Detroit. He moved into the collegiate ranks at the University of Houston as an assistant coach for offensive backs then moved on to Holly Cross College in 1966 as Defensive Coordinator. He was named head coach at Holy Cross in 1967 and upset Yale in his first game as head coach — the only defeat Yale was to suffer in three years. In 1969, Boisture moved on to Tulsa University as Defensive Coordinator, and in 1970 he moved into the NFL with New England as a scout.

Born March 23, 1931 in Detroit, Boisture played his high school sports at Holy Redeemer H.S. in Detroit then won three varsity letters as both an offensive and defensive lineman at Mississippi State where he earned a B.S. degree in Education and History.

Boisture is married to the former Dolores Ann Kenney of Detroit and has five children: daughters Susan Ann, Deborah Lynn and Nancy Ann, and sons David and Michael. He and his wife reside in Little Ferry, N.J.

TIM ROONEY

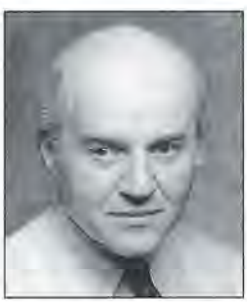

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Rooney, a member of the highly-respected Rooney family from Pittsburgh, joined the Giants in February of 1985 as Director of Pro Personnel.

Prior to joining the Giants, Rooney spent six seasons as the Player Personnel Director for the Detroit Lions. He was the Director of Pro Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1972-1979 during the Steelers ascendancy to Super Bowl champion status.

Rooney earned a degree in Education and English from Duquesne University, then began a coaching career at Canevin H.S. in Pittsburgh. Four years later, he became an assistant coach at Villanova, moved to Rhode Island University, and then back to Villanova as an assistant coach and recruiting director before joining the Steelers.

A nephew of Art Rooney, the founder of the Steelers, Tim and his wife, Mary Ann, are the parents of a son, Michael, 20, a junior at the University of Alabama, and daughter, Sarah, 19, a sophomore at Boston College, and reside in HoHoKus, N.J.

RICK DONOHUE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Donohue begins his third season as Assistant Director of Player Personnel after spending 10 years as a scout. He originally joined the Giants in August of 1983 after serving in coaching capacities on both the collegiate and high school levels.

Donohue played his scholastic sports at Dewitt Clinton High School in the Bronx. He earned a B.S. degree in Education from the University of Dayton, then continued at Michigan State University in Educational Administration. He began his coaching career as a head football coach at Buckeye H.S. in Rushsylvania, Ohio, then was a coach and science teacher at Bellefontaine H.S. in Bellefontaine, Ohio before entering the collegiate ranks as a freshman football coach at Michigan State. He then served as a defensive coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, secondary coach at C.W. Post College, and freshman coach, assistant varsity coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University before joining the Giants as a scout.

Donohue and his wife Elaine reside in Washington Township, N.J.

JERRY SHAY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Shay, a Giants tackle during the 1970 and 1971 seasons, was named Director of College Scouting in 1977 after serving as a scout for the team since 1972. While serving as a scout, Shay was responsible for the Western states area, including all of the West Coast as well as Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas.

Shay was an All-America star at Purdue University and was the No. 1 draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1966. He was a starting defensive tackle for the Vikings for two years, then was traded to the Atlanta Falcons in 1968 where he again starred for two seasons before coming to the Giants in a trade in 1970 for a draft choice. Shay was a key performer that season as the Giants finished with a 9-5 record and missed the playoffs by one game. In that season's final game against the Rams, he suffered a broken leg and retired after the 1971 season after appearing in only six games. He became a scout the following season.

Born on July 10, 1944 in Gary, Ind. (family name Dzedzeji), Jerry is married to the former Cynthia Zajkowski, and has three daughters: Tiffany Lee, the 1995 recipient of the John V. Mara Scholarship awarded annually to the child of a former Giants player, Sharon Marie, and Jeri Lynn. The Shays reside in San Diego, California.

RAY WALSH, JR.

RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

Walsh has been with the Giants since 1973, initially as an Administrative Assistant before moving over to the scouting and player personnel department. As a youngster, Walsh worked at Giants preseason training camps from 1956-63.

Walsh, who is also known by his nickname "Whitey," earned a degree in Inter-American Relations at Fordham University in 1963 after graduating from Archbishop Stepinac H.S. in White Plains where he grew up. After a tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he joined United Airlines in 1965 in the Passenger Service department and remained with United until April of 1973 when he joined the Giants.

Married to the former Judith Carey, Walsh is the father of two sons, David, 23, and Timothy, 8, and a daughter Susan, 21. The family resides in Ramsey, New Jersey. Aside from football, Walsh is an avid British history buff, particulary the medieval period, as well as a devotee of Hollywood movies from the 1930s and 1940s.

GREG GABRIEL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gabriel joined the Giants scouting department during the 1985 offseason after serving as an area scout for an NFL scouting combine in the Great Lakes area. Gabriel gained his first professional football experience working part-time in the scouting department of the Buffalo Bills, both in film grading and in player evaluation.

A native of Buffalo where he was born on May 4, 1951, Gabriel played his scholastic sports at Bishop Neumann High School in Williamsville, New York. He won three varsity letters as a running back at Canisius College where he earned a B.S. degree.

Prior to entering the football profession, Gabriel was an account executive with Prudential-Bache and later with Dean Witter Reynolds while working part-time with the Bills.

He played for eight seasons as a running back with the Buffalo Geminis, a semi-pro outfit, and was additionally the offensive backfield coach for one season there. Gabriel lives in Buffalo and is the father of three daughters, Liza, Ryan, and Kelsey.

GIANTS TID BIT

Former Giants DE George Martin (1975-88) holds the NFL record for most career touchdowns by a defensive lineman with seven. Following are Martin's seven career TDs:

10-23-77	vs. Washington	30-yard interception return

11-24-85	at St. Louis	56-yard interception return
11-23-86	vs. Denver	78-yard interception return

ROSIE BROWN

After a Hall of Fame career as a tackle for the Giants from 1953-1965, Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout in 1971.

During his playing career, Brown ranked as one of the all-time great offensive linemen in the National Football League. The wide-ranging tackle earned All Pro honors eight times and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl on ten occasions. In 1956, Brown was voted Lineman of the Year in the NFL.

Brown was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966. In 1969, Brown replacd Jim Trimble as head line coach. In 1971, Brown, along with another coaching aide, Ken Kavanaugh, left Alex Webster's staff to assume new responsibilities under Jim Lee Howell, his one-time coach, in the scouting department.

Brown, now 64, is a resident of Scottsville, Va. but spends a good deal of his time on the road in search of fresh talent for the Giants.

JOHN CREA

Crea originally joined the Giants as a scout in the spring of 1992 after an impressive college coaching career.

After graduating from Monsignor Farrell High School in Staten Island, Crea began his collegiate days at the University of Utah. He then transferred to Albany State University where he won three varsity letters as a defensive back and wide receiver. He graduated from Albany State with a B.A. degree in English and Communications. Crea added a Master's degree in Physical Education from Arizona State University where he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant.

He continued his collegiate coaching career with stops at Albany State, Kean College, Frostburg State in Maryland, and Holy Cross. In 1982, Crea was named the head coach at William Paterson College in New Jersey. After six years in that position, he became the head coach at Methodist College in Fayetteville, North Carolina from 1987 through the 1991 campaign.

Married to the former Kathleen Coyle, John and his wife have a daughter, Kelly, 13, and he lists racquetball and golf as his favorite hobbies.

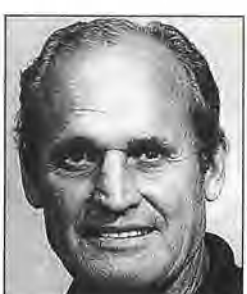

JEREMIAH DAVIS

Davis began his affiliation with the Giants in 1988 as a part-time scout after a career as a collegiate coach and recruiting specialist. In March of 1990, Davis was named to the Giants scouting department in a full-time capacity.

Davis graduated from Montclair High School in Montclair, New Jersey, then began his college football career at Yakima Junior College in Yakima, Washington before receiving a B.A. degree in Criminal Law from the University of Wyoming in 1977. He subsequently earned a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Grambling University in 1981.

Davis began his college coaching career at Wyoming as a secondary assistant and strength coach and served in the same capacity at the University of Washington and at Grambling where he also worked with the linebackers. He moved on to Northern Iowa and to the University of Central Florida as an assistant coach, then moved into the recruiting area with Purdue University in 1985. He was also at Tennessee-Martin for two years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before joining the Giants in 1988.

KEN KAVANAUGH

Kavanaugh, a member of the Chicago Bears all-time team, brought a wealth of experience as both a professional player and a coach to the Giants when he joined the scouting department in 1971. He moved into the scouting department from the coaching staff where he had been offensive ends coach from 1955-68 and offensive coach from 1969-70. Kavanaugh coached the Giants for a total of 16 years under three head coaches: Jim Lee Howell, Allie Sherman and Alex Webster.

Prior to joining the Giants coaching staff, the College Hall of Fame end spent one season (1951) as ends coach for the Chicago Bears and one season (1954) at Villanova College in his hometown of Philadelphia.

As a player, Ken starred for the Chicago Bears from 1940-41. He left the Bears for an Air Force tour of duty as a bomber pilot in World War II in Europe, then returned to the team to make All Pro in 1946 and 1947. Kavanaugh set four all-time Chicago records which still stand today: most touchdown passes caught (50); most TD passes caught one season (13); highest average gain, career (22.4); and highest average gain, season (25.6).

During his collegiate career, Kavanaugh was a four-year regular (1936-40), twice earning All-America honors.

Kavanaugh and his wife, Ann, now reside in Sarasota, Florida.

JERRY REESE

Jerry Reese was added to the Giants scouting department on December 15, 1994 after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is high on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions and still holds several punt return records. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant for one year and as a graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

Reese has his Bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education and earned his Master's degree in Education Administration and Supervision.

Reese is married to the former Gwen Moore, who is also a UT-Martin graduate. The couple has two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II (3/12/96). This past season, Reece was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

STEVE VERDEROSA

The 1996 season marks Steve Verderosa's ninth season with the New York Giants after joining the scouting staff in 1988. Verderosa came to the Giants after serving in the scouting department of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Verderosa began his collegiate career at Central Iowa as a wide receiver and punter after graduating from Melville High School in Setauket, N.Y. He then moved to New York Institute of Technology where he continued his dual roles, earning ECAC Player of the Week Honors for an eight-catch, 100-yard day vs. Western Connecticut in the 1975 season.

After receiving a degree in general architecture and a design award in his senior year, Verderosa had a tryout with the Washington Redskins as a wide receiver and punter in 1977 and also had a two-week stint with the Cleveland Browns as a punter in the 1978 preseason.

Verderosa worked for one year as an architectural draftsman before getting the football urge and beginning a coaching career at his alma mater, New York Tech, as an offensive assistant. He then spent two seasons as a coach and teacher at St. Anthony's High School before landing a spot as defensive backfield coach at Columbia University. From there, he moved on to C.W. Post for four years as secondary coach and then joined the scouting department of the Buccaneers.

A native of Boslyn, Long Island where he was born on June 9, 1954, Verderosa is married to the former Lori Ann Felicetti. The Verderosas reside in Apex, North Carolina with two sons, Alex and Matthew Lucas.

VIDEO STAFF

TONY CEGLIO
DIRECTOR OF TELEVISION PRODUCTIONS

Ceglio begins his 21st season with the Giants and his third as the team's Director of Television Productions after joining the Giants in 1975 as the club's Film Director. Ceglio handles the broadcasting side of the Giants video operations, including producing, directing and roaming the sidelines shooting for the Giants TV shows, "Giants Today" and "Giants Online." Both shows are broadcast on the MSG Network. "Giants Today" was honored with an Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Sports Programming at the New York Emmy Awards ceremony in 1995 and 1996. In addition, "Giants Today" received an Emmy Award for Outstanding Editing and Outstanding Originial Music Composition in 1996.

When the NFL officially switched from 16mm film to video in 1986, Ceglio designed the premier video tape editing system in the NFL, the Lake Sports Compiler. The Giants were the first team in the NFL to put this system on line, and since then many other teams have employed this system. Ceglio also co-authored the official NFL rules for the video taping of games and game tape exchange, and he was elected chairman of the NFL Video Directors for three years.

Ceglio is well-known in the freelance community as a producer, cameraman, documentaries, feature film promotions and sports.

Born on September 23, 1954 in Mount Vernon, New York, Ceglio is a graduate of Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and the New York School of Visual Arts where he earned a B.A. in Film and an outstanding student award. He teaches an undergraduate course in film and video at his alma mater. Married to the former Carolyn Trainor, the Ceglios reside in Washington Township, New Jersey with their twin daughters, Dawn and Danielle. Ceglio is an avid skiier who enjoys Colorado and the Jersey shore in the offseason.

JOHN MANCUSO
VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mancuso begins his third season as Video Director after joining the Giants in a full-time capacity in 1978 as an assistant to Tony Ceglio in the team's film department.

Mancuso works closely with the coaching staff in the taping of all practices and games with the Sony Betacam video systems, as well as in the duplicating and editing of all video in the Giants' ultra-modern video offices. In addition, he assists Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today."

A native of Queens, Mancuso attended Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and then graduated from nearby Scarsdale High School. He then served as a Recreation Director for the Tibbits Nursing Home in Westchester for several years before working part-time for the Giants in the film department in 1977. Mancuso freelanced for two years as a cameraman, still photographer and videographer for the New Jersey Nets of the NBA before assuming his present full-time position with the Giants. Married to the former Reena Slatky, the couple has two sons, John and Julian, and resides in Tuxedo, New York. An accomplished musician, Mancuso has played guitar, bass and piano for various musical groups for the last 21 years.

DAVE MALTESE
ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

A native of Rockaway, New Jersey, Maltese joined the Giants as a full-time assistant director in the spring of 1993 after serving as an intern in the team's video department during the 1991 season and working on a part-time basis in 1992.

Maltese works with John Mancuso in taping all of the Giants practice sessions as well as assisting in the cutups of the coaching staff's game and opponent tapes. He is responsible for the taping and breakdown for the defense and special teams units. In addition, he assists Tony Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today."

Maltese has worked extensively in cable television in New Jersey and has also served as a cameraman in the taping of music videos that have appeared nationally.

A resident of Wayne, New Jersey and a 1987 graduate of Kinnelon High School, he graduated from William Paterson College in 1993 with a degree in Radio and Television Communications. While at college, Maltese worked at WPSC Radio for five years. Maltese is an accomplished pianist who has been playing for 20 years. He also won two Silver medals in the American Open Tae Kwon Do Championship in 1996. He was born on June 13,1969.

DAVE DESPOSITO

Desposito begins his second season as a full-time member of the Giants video team. He originally joined the Giants in 1993 as an intern and then served as an assistant producer on the "Giants Today" staff during the 1994 season.

In his current position, Desposito's primary responsibility is to accommodate the filming and breakdown needs of special teams coach Joe DeCamillis. In addition, he assists Tony Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today."

Desposito is a 1993 graduate of William Paterson College in Wayne, New Jersey. He majored in Communication with a concentration in Radio and Television.

JON BERGER
DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER SERVICES

Although he was named to his current position in February of 1987, Berger has been associated with the Giants since 1981 when he worked in the team's preseason training camp as an on-the-field assistant and later as an intern in the media services department.

After graduating from Stuyvesant High School, the Queens native attended Albany State University where he majored in Computer Science and Mathematics, earning a B.S. degree and graduating Cum Laude with Dean's list honors in 1985. He was also a member of the Purple & Gold honor and service society and while an undergraduate also served as a Computer Science teaching assistant. After graduation, he remained at Albany State for another year as the computer coordinator for the physical education department, producing programs for all of the men's and women's intercollegiate teams.

In addition to his full-time duties with the Giants, Berger has also been a familiar figure courtside at all New York Knicks home games at Madison Square Garden where he serves as computer statistician. Berger and his wife, Alicia Cassio, have a son, Justin, and reside in Staten Island.

Dr. O'Brien won varsity letters in both football and baseball while an undergraduate at Harvard. He and his wife, Kathleen Donnelly-O'Brien, reside in Garden City, New York with their four children.

DR. JOEL GOLDBERG

DIRECTOR OF CAREER COUNSELING

As one of the NFL teams in the forefront of encouraging the development of career counseling for players, the Giants added Dr. Joel Goldberg to the staff to oversee this function in February of 1981.

The object of his counseling is to help players through the transition from playing days to non-playing days and life adjustment and to stimulate interaction between the metropolitan community and the players. The program is designed to measure players' aptitudes, interests, abilities and career goals and put those qualities into practical application.

A native of Brooklyn, Dr. Goldberg earned a B.S. in Education from the University of Rhode Island, a Master's degree from New York University and a Doctorate degree in Counseling Psychology from Rutgers University.

During his career, Dr. Goldberg has been a counselor with the New York City Department of Labor; a professor at Kean College in New Jersey; a psychology consultant to boards of education; and President of Career Consultants, his own counseling business in Union, New Jersey for the past 17 years.

Born on July 5, 1943, Dr. Goldberg and his wife, a high school history teacher, have a son and a daughter and reside in New Jersey.

HUGH GARDY
TEAM DENTIST

Dr. Gardy joined the Giants during the 1977 season. He is nationally known as the Father of Sports Dentistry and has probably treated more professional athletes than any other dentist in the country. He is also currently the team dentist for the New Jersey Devils, New Jersey Nets, and was the dental director for soccer's World Cup 1994.

Gardy was a dentist for the U.S. Olympic team in 1984. He was the founder and past president of the Academy for Sports Dentistry and was the only dentist on the New Jersey Governors Council on Sports and Physical Fitness. Dr. Gardy is a Fellow of the Academy of General Practice, Diplomate of the American Society of Osseointegration and a Fellow of the American College of Dentists.

Dr. Gardy received his A.B. and D.D.S. from New York University. He and his wife Sandy reside in River Vale, N.J., and have three children.

HEIDI SKOLNIK
NUTRITION CONSULTANT

Heidi Skolnik joined the Giants in May of 1992 to work throughout the year with the players on nutritional aspects of training and competition, providing dietary counseling for preventive health and rehabilitation. Skolnik brings a diversified background to the Giants.

A graduate of Ithaca College, she earned a B.A. degree in Exercise and Nutrition, a Master's degree in Sports Medicine for physical educators and a Master's in Nutrition. While at Ithaca, she devised and implemented conditioning plans for that school's football and baseball teams, then worked worked with Morgan Stanley & Co. in New York for seven years, initially as a director of exercise and training and eventually as director of corporate programs there, overseeing staff and facility operations for the firm's entire health promotion endeavors.

Skolnik has also been the New York Mets nutrition consultant since 1986, devising spring training camp menus and general nutrition outlines. She has lectured on nutrition and fitness at Cornell University, Ithaca College and at the New York City PSAL conferences. Skolnik sits on the executive committee of the American College of Sports Medicine's Greater New York Chapter and is affiliated with the National Strength and Conditioning Association and IDEA: The International Association of Fitness Professionals. She currently serves as the Vice President and Director of Nutrition for Plus One Fitness, a New York-based sports medicine firm and does work with the New Jersey Nets.

EQUIPMENT & SECURITY

ED WAGNER
LOCKER ROOM MANAGER

The overseer of the locker room operations and a much-decorated Army veteran, "Whitey" Wagner assumed his duties in 1976. Since that time, Whitey's domain has not only included all aspects of running the locker room, but also the care and feeding of the players during the week, as well as supervising the maintenance of the pressroom at Giants Stadium which houses all of the metropolitan area media. Wagner is in charge of the Giants' annual largescale moving operation from Giants Stadium to their preseason training camp, as well as the return move and the supervision of maintenance at the camp.

A native of Staten Island, New York, Wagner and his wife, Gertrude, have a daughter, Patricia, and a son, Edward Jr.

ED WAGNER, JR.
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Ed Wagner Jr. was named to the position of Equipment Manager in June of 1979 and since that time has handled a myriad of details, including the purchase, upkeep and repair of all equipment and uniforms, the transportation of equipment and uniforms to and from all road trips and to and from training camp, the handling of all training camp duties and arrangements, as well as field maintenance.

A native of Staten Island, Wagner had served as assistant equipment manager for two seasons with the Giants prior to being named head equipment manager. Edward Kenneth Wagner was born on November 29, 1956 in Staten Island and graduated from Curtis High School in 1974. He and his wife, the former Andrea DeNonno, were married in June of 1979 and have a daughter, Donna, 11, and a son, Christopher, 8. The Wagners reside in River Edge, New Jersey.

JIM PHELAN
ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

After serving as assistant equipment manager, Phelan began new responsibilities in 1988 as an administrative assistant. During his collegiate years, Phelan worked at the Giants training camps as an on-the-field assistant. He graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a degree in general business.

Born on January 29, 1964 in Providence, Rhode Island, Phelan graduated from King Phillip Regional H.S. in Wrentham, Massachusetts where he won varsity letters in football, basketball, hockey and track and was an All-League wide receiver, setting a school record for most receptions (43) in an eight-game season. Phelan, who lists golf and skiing as his favorite hobbies, has a daughter, Lauren (5). Phelan is engaged to Lori Lacatena of Wayne, N.J.

BRIAN BOIGNER
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Brian Boigner enters his fifth season with the Giants as the team's assistant equipment manager. After serving as an intern for the Giants during 1992, Boigner was promoted to his current position in March of 1993. His role is to assist with the maintenance of the equipment room and the Giants day of game and travel operations.

A graduate of Kent State where he was a student manager, Boigner has served as the head equipment manager at his alma mater as well as having been the assistant equipment manager for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League. A native of Brooklyn, Ohio, Boigner was born on November 26, 1965. Boigner and his wife, the former Lizabeth Bandola, were married this past offseason.

GIANTS TID BIT

General Manager George Young taught history and political science and coached football at two Baltimore high schools before joining Don Shula's Colts as a scout in 1968.

JOE MANSFIELD
FIELD SECURITY MANAGER

A retired White Plains Police Department detective, Mansfield joined the Giants in 1976. In addition to his field security duties, Mansfield also assists the club in locker room operations during the regular season and at the team's training camp site.

A native of New York City, Mansfield graduated from Mount St. Michael's H.S. in New York, then joined the United States Marine Corps in 1943 during World War II and was recalled during the Korean conflict in 1950. He spent nine years with the Fifth Avenue Coach Co. of New York and a short period of time with the Corrections Department at Sing Sing Prison before joining the White Plains Police Department in 1956, where he rose through the ranks to Detective, collecting numerous citations and commendations along the way until retiring in 1976.

Mansfield was re-introduced to his childhood sweetheart after a forty-year separation after each of them had been widowed. Shortly thereafter, he and Maggie were married and they now live in White Plains and together are enjoying their combined family of 10 children and 22 grandchildren.

JULIUS HORAI

A key man in the Giants' operation is Julius "Whitey" Horai, who has been associated with the club since 1954. Whitey handles a myriad of details as well as serving as the coordinator of transportation and film exchanges. A native of Richmond, Staten Island, Whitey graduated from Curtis High School, then went on to Wagner College where he worked for the athletic department as equipment and field maintenance man under Jim Lee Howell. When Howell came to the Giants as head coach in 1954, Horai came too in a part-time capacity, then joined the club full-time in 1970. A bachelor, Whitey still resides in Staten Island.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN '96

WR CHRIS CALLOWAY to improve his streak of 41 consecutive games with a reception. The Giants team record is 46 consecutive games, held by former RB David Meggett.

RB RODNEY HAMPTON, the Giants all-time leading rusher (5989), will attempt to rush for 1,000 yards for the sixth consecutive season.

HAMPTON has 17 career regular season 100-yard rushing games and needs three 100 yard games to move past Joe Morris (19) to become the Giant with the most career 100-yard games.

HAMPTON has 47 rushing touchdowns and needs one more to move into a first place tie with Joe Morris (48) on the Giants all-time list.

Bishop into the lineup...Play vs. New Orleans (9-24) allowed the Giants to roll up 474 total offensive yards, their highest output since gaining 487 yards in a 21-16 loss at Dallas on 9-29-91. Helped the Giants establish the running game, as the team gained 218 yards, which allowed the Giants to open up the offense...The Giants offensive line did not allow Dave Brown to be sacked against the Bears defense (11-26)...Sprained his left knee in the second quarter at Arizona (11-30). Tried to play despite a noticeable limp and was finally forced out of action late in the first half. Adam Schreiber replaced Bishop at left guard for the remainder of the game...At Dallas (12-17), did an outstanding job with the tough assignment of going against DE Leon Lett, as the offensive line controlled the line of scrimmage, allowing the Giants to rush for 244 yards. Rodney Hampton gained 187 yards to go over the 1,000-yard mark...Moved over to left tackle when John Elliott was forced to leave in the second quarter with a sore back vs. San Diego (12-23).

1994: Played in all 16 games as the long snapper on the punt team as well as other special teams units...Saw first NFL action on offensive line in the fourth quarter at Dallas (11-7) when he replaced Doug Riesenberg at right tackle...Made first career start at left tackle vs. Cincinnati (12-11) in place of the injured John Elliott (back)...Previous week at Cleveland (12-3) was forced into action at left tackle when Elliott injured his back in pregame warmups and came out of the game on the Giants' first series.

1993: Was on 53-man roster for first eight games but was inactive...Was active and backed up long snapper Bart Oates for last eight games of the season following the release of veteran LB and long snapper Steve DeOssie...Played on kickoff unit in each of the last eight games.

College: As a senior, was an All-America first team choice on special teams by The NFL Draft Report...Consensus All-Big West Conference first team choice...Started every game of final three collegiate seasons at left tackle after playing on the defensive line as a freshman...As a junior, was second team All-Big West as a starter on offense that led nation with 511.3 yards per game.

Transactions: Originally drafted by the Giants in the first round (16th position) of the Supplemental Draft on July 9, 1992.

NFL: Begins his third season as the Giants starting quarterback...Last season, Brown cut down on his interception ratio and will be looking to increase his accuracy for the 1996 season. Brown threw ten interceptions in 456 passing attempts for an interception percentage of 2.2%...After playing in just three games through the first two seasons of his professional career, Brown earned the starting position in training camp in 1994 and led the Giants to a winning record (9-7) that season.

1995: In his second season as a regular, started all 16 games...Finished the season completing 254 of 456 passes (55.7%) for 2,814 yards, 11 touchdowns and 10 interceptions...Also rushed for 228 yards on 45 carries and scored four touchdowns rushing...Set the following personal single-game high marks: 50 pass attempts (sixth-most in Giants history) and 23 pass completions (9-17 at Green Bay), 299 yards passing (11-5 at Seattle)...Brown also tied his personal single-game high mark with two two-touchdown games: 10-8 vs. Arizona and 11-5 at Seattle...Completed the longest pass of his career, a 57-yard touchdown to Mike Sherrard at Washington on 10-29. His longest completion prior to the 57-yarder was a 51-yarder to Chris Calloway vs. Philadelphia (9-4-94)...The 456 pass attempts by Brown is the fifth-most in Giants history and the most since Phil Simms threw 479 in 1988...The 254 passes completed is the fifth-best in Giants history, the best since Simms completed 263 in 1988...Vs. New Orleans (9-24), Brown completed 19 of 27 pass attempts for 258 yards, including one touchdown pass and one interception. His 258 yards passing was the third-best day of his career. Brown gave the Giants the lead for good when he connected on a 38-yard scoring play to Chris Calloway to give the Giants a 21-17 lead in the second quarter. Awarded a game ball by the coaching staff...Was 9-of-18 for 82 yards vs. Philadelphia (10-15) before head coach Dan Reeves replaced him with Tommy Maddox in the second half. Reeves said after the game that the protection up front was partly to blame for the poor play at quarterback...Set his personal-high with 299 yards passing at Seattle (11-5) and equalled his best day with two touchdown passes...At Arizona (11-30), the Giants took the second half kickoff and went 83 yards in 12 plays before Brown connected with Sherrard for a 12-yard touchdown pass to give the Giants a 10-6 lead. Brown kept the drive alive with an 11-yard completion to Calloway on third-and-eight...Vs. Washington (12-10), the Giants broke a 13-13 tie with a 40-yard touchdown pass from Brown to Calloway with 1:18 left in regulation to give the Giants a 20-13 victory...Equalled his career single-game high with 47 yards rushing at Dallas (12-17). Four of his five rushing attempts netted the Giants a first down...In a vote by his teammates was elected as one of the Giants 1995 captains.

1994: Earned the starting job prior to the team's third preseason game against San Diego in Berlin, Germany...In his first year as a regular, started 15 games...Giants were 9-6 in the games Brown started...Did not play vs. Arizona (11-13) as head coach Dan Reeves turned to Kent Graham as Giants were mired in a six-game losing streak...Completed 201 of 350 pass attempts (57.4%) for 2,536 yards, 12 touchdowns and 16 interceptions...Led Giants to final-minute victories in three of the last four games of the season (at Cleveland, vs. Cincinnati and at Philadelphia)...Was the team's offensive MVP at Arizona (9-11) when he completed 11 of 17 passes for 119 yards, two TDs and one interception; vs. Washington (9-18) when he was 14 of 19 for 221 yards, one TD; at Washington (11-27) when he was 10 of 17 for 161 yards and two TDs; and at Philadelphia (12-18) when he completed 18 of 27 for 264 yards, no TDs and one interception...Orchestrated the game-winning drive at Cleveland (12-4) by completing four of seven passes for 53 yards. Kept the winning drive alive by completing a 26-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway on a third-and-15 situation, a 13-yard pass to WR Mike Sherrard on third-and-nine and by rushing for seven yards on a quarterback keeper on third-and-one...In the final two minutes vs. Cincinnati (12-11), completed three-of-three passes for 45 yards in the process of taking the Giants 66 yards for Rodney Hampton's game-winning three-yard TD run...Kept the game-winning drive alive at Philadelphia (12-18) when he completed a 34-yard pass-and-run play to RB David Meggett on third-and-16 as the Giants moved into position for PK Brad Daluiso's game-winning 18-yard field goal...Was knocked out of the game at Houston (11-21) in the second quarter with a concussion following a helmet-to-the-chin hit by Oilers LB Lamar Lathon. Was four of seven passing for 19 yards.

1993: Rotated with Graham as the team's No. 2 quarterback for the final five games of the season, including two postseason games...Appeared at New Orleans (12-20) but did not attempt a pass...Also finished up in playoff loss at San Francisco (1-15) as he completed six of 10 passes for 56 yards and one interception.

1992: After signing with just five days remaining in training camp, appeared in only two games during his rookie season, completing a total of four of seven passes for 21 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions...Saw first action of the season at Dallas (11-26) when he relieved Graham...Was two of three for six yards in relief...Also suffered three sacks in Thanksgiving Day game vs. Cowboys...Only other appearance of the season came two weeks later in relief of Graham at Phoenix (12-12) when he completed two of four pass attempts for 15 yards before suffering a broken thumb.

College: As a redshirt junior at Duke in 1991, completed 230 of 470 passes for an ACC-leading 2,794 yards and 20 TDs...Recorded four 300-yard passing games and led the ACC with 2,851 yards in total offense and 25 total TDs...ACC Offensive Player of the Week after throwing four TD passes against Rutgers...Earned honor again when he completed 32 of 50 passes with two TDs against South Carolina...Started four games as a sophomore in 1990 when he passed for 1,444 yards and eight TDs...In 1989, as a redshirt freshman, started final three games of season, averaging 432 yards passing per game and tossing a total of 11 TDs, to lead Blue Devils to All-America Bowl berth...Set a school record with 479 yards passing vs. North Carolina that freshman season when he had a 161.0 passing efficiency rating...First play collegiately resulted in a 76-yard TD pass vs. Wake Forest...Also threw a 97-yard TD pass that same game.

Personal: Honorable mention All-America and All-State, All-County and All-Conference choice at Westfield (N.J.) HS where he threw for more than 2,000 yards as a senior...Team MVP as a junior and senior...Outstanding basketball and lacrosse player, earning team MVP honors in basketball and first-team All-State recognition in lacrosse...A season ticket holder for the New York Knicks...David Brown was born February 25, 1970 in Summit, New Jersey.

Transactions: Originally a third round (66th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: After being a spot starter during his first two seasons, Buckley replaced Corey Miller in the starting lineup at strongside linebacker for five games last year before handing the job back to Miller...Is expected to compete for the starting spot again this year...Fine special teams player.

1995: Played in all 16 games and replaced Corey Miller in the starting lineup at strongside linebacker in five games...Ended the season with 20 tackles, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, a pass defensed and four special teams tackles...Was slated for his first starting assignment of the season vs. Philadelphia (10-15), but did not start because the Giants opened with the nickel defense. Played virtually the entire game and finished with three tackles. Recovered a Randall Cunningham fumble at the Giants 12-yard line to end an Eagle scoring threat...Made his first start at strong side linebacker since being named the starter at Washington (10-29)...Stint as a starter ended when Miller was returned to the lineup at Arizona (11-30).

1994: Played in all 16 games with one start, vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) for the injured Corey Miller (knee) at strong side linebacker... Finished tied for third on the team with nine special teams tackles...Also forced a fumble on the punt team at New Orleans (10-2)...Recorded 15 defensive tackles and one pass defensed on the year...Named Giants special teams MVP for leading team with three tackles vs. Philadelphia (9-4)...Defensive play increased over the last quarter of the season, beginning at Cleveland (12-4).

1993: Played in all 16 games of his rookie season, primarily on special teams and in nickel defense...Started at ILB at New Orleans (12-20) and at Phoenix (12-26) for injured Michael Brooks (foot)...Finished third on team with seven special teams tackles...Also recorded 11 tackles on defense.

College: Ranks fifth in Texas A&M record book with 29 career quarterback sacks...All-time school leader with 10 fumble recoveries, breaking old mark of nine by Jacob Green...As a senior, was named first team All-America by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, Associated Press, Walter Camp, Kodak, Football News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Sporting News, United Press International, and the Football Writers Association of America...Consensus All-Southwest Conference first team selection and the SWC's Defensive Player of the Year...Semifinalist for the Dick Butkus Award, given to the nation's top linebacker...In 1992 finished third on the team with 70

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (97th pick overall) draft choice by Pittsburgh in 1990. Signed by the Giants as a Plan B free agent from Pittsburgh on March 31, 1992.

NFL: Looking to extend his streak of 41 consecutive games with at least one reception dating back to the 1993 season...Enters fourth season as a starter after moving into the starting position in 1993 for the injured Mike Sherrard (hip)...Spent first two years of career with the Pittsburgh Steelers as a backup at wide receiver and special teams performer...Is a steady, solid, consistent player...Excellent downfield blocker.

1995: Played in all 16 games with 15 starts as he led the team with 56 receptions for 796 yards, both career-highs...Scored three touchdowns, equalling his personal high...Extended his streak to 41 consecutive games with at least one reception. Giants team record is 46 consecutive games, held by former RB David Meggett. The last time that Calloway did not have at least one reception in a game was 10-31-93 vs. Jets...After missing most of the preseason with a hamstring injury, set a personal single-game high with 100 yards receiving on five receptions at Kansas City (9-10). Previous best was 93 yards vs. Pittsburgh on 10-23-94. Capped a 75-yard game-opening drive with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown to put the Giants in front of the Chiefs, 7-0...Had a big day receiving, finishing with five receptions for 95 yards that included a 38-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown from Brown vs. New Orleans (9-24). Head coach Dan Reeves credited Calloway with doing an outstanding job blocking downfield against the Saints as the Giants gained 218 yards rushing...Did not start due to the Giants opening with the double tight ends and H-back at San Francisco (10-1)...Ran a stop-and-go pattern and broke free for a 49-yard pass reception from Brown to give the Giants the ball inside the 10-yard line on the game-tying touchdown drive vs. Arizona (10-8)...Set a single-game high with seven receptions for 71 yards at Arizona (11-30)...Calloway ran a post pattern and was the recepient of a 40-yard touchdown pass from Brown with 1:18 left in regulation to give the Giants a 20-13 victory vs. Washington (12-10).

1994: Played in 16 games with 14 starts in his first season as a full-time starter...Finished with 43 receptions for 666 yards...Also scored two TDs receiving on the year...Carried the ball eight times for 77 yards...His 51-yard TD reception from Dave Brown vs. Philadelphia (9-4) is the longest of his career...Named Giants offensive MVP and earned a game ball for his three receptions for 74 yards vs. Philadelphia (9-4)...His 93 yards receiving vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) was a personal single-game high...Caught a 26-yard pass from Dave Brown on third-and-15 at Cleveland (12-4) to keep Giants game-winning drive alive.

Was a member of the Grossmont (Ca.) Junior College soccer team before becoming a kick-off specialist on the football team in 1988.

Transactions: Originally signed by Green Bay as a free agent on May 2, 1991. Traded by Green Bay to Atlanta for an undisclosed 1992 draft choice on August 26, 1991. Waived by Atlanta on September 9, 1991. Claimed off waivers by Buffalo on September 10, 1991. Signed by Dallas as a Plan B free agent on February 18, 1992. Waived by Dallas on August 31, 1992. Claimed off waivers by Denver on September 1, 1992. Waived by Denver on August 23, 1993. Signed by Giants as a free agent on September 1, 1993.

NFL: Entering second season as full-time placekicker...Daluiso was given the opportunity to be the full-time placekicker in training camp of 1994 before giving way to David Treadwell at the start of the regular season...Regained the full-time role in the 13th week of the season in the second half of the Giants game at Cleveland...Was used primarily as a kickoff specialist through his first three NFL seasons...Ability to put the ball in the end zone makes him a valuable commodity.

1995: In his first complete season handling full-time placekicking duties, played in all 16 games and finished 20-of-28 in field goal attempts and 28-of-28 on PATs...After going 11-of-11 in field goal attempts in 1994 and six-of-six in the preseason, missed his first attempt of the 1995 regular-season when his 42-yard attempt was blocked and sailed wide left in the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...His missed field goal was the Giants only scoring opportunity of the evening...Kicked a 51-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to extend the Giants lead to 24-17 vs. New Orleans (9-24). Was six-of-six on extra point attempts against the Saints...Did a good job of kicking the ball outside the numbers on kickoffs to limit return specialist Brian Mitchell's running room at Washington (10-29)...His 48-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right as time expired, capping a 30-28 Seattle Seahawks victory over the visiting Giants (11-5). Is now 3 of 4 lifetime for the Giants when attempting a field goal with the game in the balance. Prior to the missed 48-yard attempt against Seattle, Daluiso had connected from 54 yards with :32 left to defeat the Cardinals, 19-17 on Nov. 28, 1993, hit a 33-yarder with :19 left to defeat Cleveland, 16-13, on Dec. 4, 1994 and nailed an 18-yarder with :54 remaining to defeat Phialdelphia, 16-13 on Dec. 18, 1994...Missed his first field goal inside the 40-yard line in 19 attempts when his 37-yard field goal try sailed wide right in the second quarter at Philadelphia (11-19). Was eight-of-eight inside the 40-yard line prior to the miss.

1994: Finished the season a perfect 11-of-11 in field goal attempts after taking over full-time kicking duties in the second half at Cleveland (12-4)...Led the league in touchbacks with 19...Of his 65 kickoffs, 26 went into the end zone, 19 for touchbacks...Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after the Cleveland game when he connected on field goals of 25, 30 and 33 yards, the kick that gave the Giants a 16-13 victory with :19 left in regulation...Awarded a game ball and named team special teams MVP vs. Cincinnati (12-11) when he kicked field goals of 52 and 33 yards...The 52-yarder is the second-longest field goal of Daluiso's career; his career-best is the 54-yarder that defeated Arizona on 11-28-93...Named Giants special teams MVP at Philadelphia (12-18) after kicking three field goals, including an 18-yard game-winning FG with :54 left in regulation.

1993: Played in 15 games...44 of his 64 kickoffs went into or through the end zone, 39 of those for touchbacks...Connected on a 54-yard FG with :32 left in the game to give Giants 19-17 victory vs. Phoenix (11-28) as he earned a game ball and special teams MVP honors...NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for performance at Miami (12-5) when all four of his kickoffs went for touchbacks.

1992: For the season he kicked off 65 times with 53 touchbacks, an .815 percentage, and had only 12 returned, by far the lowest in the NFL...Denver opponents scored just four times after starting their possessions with a Daluiso touchback kickoff...After Denver's starting P Mike Horan was injured following a blocked punt vs. Houston (10-18), Daluiso averaged 48.5 yards on four punts...Also punted in the season finale at Kansas City (12-27), punting six times for a 45.5 average, including a 67-yarder, the Broncos' longest of the season...Picked up off of waivers from Dallas, after signing there as a Plan B free agent, just prior to the beginning of the regular season.

1991: Attended Green Bay's training camp in 1991, but was traded to Atlanta...Waived by Atlanta and claimed by Buffalo where he spent the rest of the 1991 campaign...Posted season totals of 30 touchbacks on 84 kickoffs...Converted two of his three field goal attempts and both extra point attempts with Atlanta.

College: Daluiso was a second-team All-Pac 10 selection as a senior at UCLA...He hit 13 of 19 field goals and 32 of 33 PAT tries to lead the Bruins in scoring...He made the team as a walkon in 1989 and handled 46 of the team's 48 kickoffs...Was a member of the Grossmont (Calif.) JC soccer team before becoming a kickoff specialist on the football team in 1988...He attended San Diego State in 1986 but did not play football.

GIANTS TID BIT

Was an outstanding Division I basketball prospect coming out of Heritage HS in Lynchburg, Va. where he averaged 26 ppg as a senior.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (99th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.
NFL: Moved from end to tackle before the start of last season after the Giants acquired DE Robert Harris from the Minnesota Vikings...In 1993, stepped into the starting lineup at end before making the switch inside...Has displayed pass rushing ability during his career.
1995: Successfully switched from end to tackle and started 14 games, finishing with 42 tackles, including two sacks, three fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and four passes defensed...At Kansas City (9-10), Hamilton chugged 87 yards with a Steve Bono fumble that was caused by a five-yard sack by Robert Harris at the Giants five-yard line. Hamilton was stripped of the ball at the Kansas City one-yard line and S Tito Wooten recovered for the touchdown to give the Giants a 17-3 lead...Recovered a fumble at the 30-yard line after Michael Strahan sacked and stripped Dave Krieg of the ball vs. Arizona (10-8). In overtime, Mike Croel forced Krieg to fumble on a sack and Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 38-yard line...Recorded his first sack since 12-11-94 vs. Cincinnati when he dropped Rick Mirer for a three-yard loss early in the first quarter at Seattle (11-5)...Missed the Chicago game (11-26) and Arizona game (11-30) due to a bulging lumbar disc that he suffered at Philadelphia (11-19)...Returned to the starting lineup at Washington (12-10) and dropped QB Heath Shuler for an eight-yard sack.
1994: Started 15 games...Was inactive at Washington (11-27) due to a sore knee...His 6.5 sacks on the season tied for team-lead with DT Erik Howard...Recorded the fourth two-sack game of his career at Arizona (9-11) and was awarded a game ball for his performance...Recovered a fumble vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) at the Steelers 26-yard line that set up PK Brad Daluiso's 49-yard FG...Also recovered a fumble at Cleveland (12-4) on the Browns 17-yard line to put the Giants in position for a FG in their 16-13 victory.
1993: Led team and tied for 6th in the NFC with 11.5 sacks...Finished with 51 total tackles...Had four games of two or more sacks: 3 vs. Tampa Bay (9-12), 2 at Dallas (11-7), 2 vs. Dallas (1-2) and 2 vs. Minnesota (1-9) in the NFC Wild Card game...Was the Giants defensive MVP in victories vs. Phoenix (11-28), at Miami (12-5) and at New Orleans (12-20)...Awarded game balls for efforts vs. Tampa Bay (9-12) and at Miami (12-5)...Recorded a safety in Miami game when he sacked Dolphins QB Steve DeBerg in the end zone to give the Giants a 19-7 advantage with 5:19 left in the game.
1992: Played in all 16 games, finishing with 3.5 quarterback sacks...Played primarily in passing situations...Recorded a sack vs. Seattle (10-25) and at Phoenix (12-12)...Had 1.5 sacks vs.

Philadelphia (11-22)...Also had three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and a pass defensed on the season.

College: Primarily an outside speed rusher at Pitt where he compiled 95 tackles, 27.5 sacks, four fumble recoveries, and nine passes defensed in his three-year career...Slowed by a knee injury during the latter part of his final collegiate season but still managed to earn All-Big East and All-East honors as he recorded 33 tackles, including 10 for losses, eight sacks, and five passes defensed...Started at left end as a sophomore and was named to sophomore All-America and All-East teams with 52 tackles, 18 for losses, and a team high 10.5 sacks...Started 10 games as a freshman in 1989 and had nine sacks and 14 tackles for losses and was named Freshman Defensive Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

Personal: A scholastic All-America performer after recording 18 sacks as a senior at Heritage HS in Lynchburg, Va., where he also earned All-State honors in basketball and lettered in track...Keith Lamarr Hamilton was born on May 25, 1971 in Paterson, New Jersey.

Transactions: Originally a first round (24th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1990.

NFL: Turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing for his fifth straight 1,000-yard season...Only Giants player to record more than three 1,000-yard seasons. Joe Morris (1982-89) had three 1,000-yard seasons during his career...Is the Giants all-time leader in rushing yards (5,989), rushing attempts (1,547) and 1,000-yard seasons (five)...Now has 17 career regular season 100-yard rushing games. Morris is the Giants all-time leader with 19...The Giants are 12-5 when Hampton rushes for 100 yards or more...Hampton has 47 career rushing touchdowns, one behind Joe Morris (48), the Giants all-time leader.

Host of Rodney Hampton Basketball Classic during offseason in Houston, benefitting the Sickle Cell Foundation.

1995: Best statistical season of his career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries...Scored 10 touchdowns...On the Giants second possession in the first quarter at Kansas City (9-10), Hampton lost his first fumble in 495 touches (471 rushes, 24 receptions). It was his first fumble lost since 11-21-93 at Philadelphia. It marked the first time that Hampton had fumbled in 489 touches (465 rushes, 24 receptions), the last time being on 11-28-93 vs. the Cardinals...Became just the second Giants rusher in history to go over 5,000 career yards when he gained 86 yards at Green Bay (9-17)... With his 149 yards rushing on 33 carries and four rushing touchdowns against the Saints (9-24), continued his assualt on the Giants record book as he became the Giants all-time rushing attempt leader moving past Joe Morris (1,318). He also tied a team record with four touchdowns in a game and most points in a game with 24. Earnest Gray and Ron Johnson also scored 24 points in a game during their careers. His 32-yard run in the first quarter was his longest run from scrimmage in the regular season since 11-1-92 at Washington when he had a 32-yard carry. Awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for his efforts...After reaching the 49ers three-yard line late in the third quarter at San Francisco (10-1) Dave Brown pitched the ball to Hampton, who lost control of the ball before recovering it for a 14-yard loss. Hampton, it was later learned, was playing with a broken bone in his right hand... Did not start vs. Arizona (10-8) but did play despite a borken hand... On his third carry of the game at Washington (10-29), a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down, Hampton moved past Joe Morris (5,287) to become the Giants all-time leading rusher. Named offensive MVP along with Mike Sherrard for his performance (83 yards on 17 carries for a 4.9 average)...Gained 69 yards on 22 attempts and scored on a one-yard touchdown run and a two-yard touchdown run vs. Chicago (11-26). Marked the third time in 1995 that Hampton recorded at least two rushing touchdowns and marked the ninth time in his career that he had two or more rushing touchdowns in a game...On the Giants game-winning drive vs. Washington (12-10), head coach Dan Reeves elected to go for it on fourth-down-and-one from the Giants own 41-yard line. Hampton followed John Elliott's block and gained two yards for the first down to keep the drive alive...Hampton had a career day against the Cowboys (12-17) as he set a personal single-game high mark with his 187-yard rushing performance, the fourth-best mark in team history...Hampton's 28-yard run in the third quarter pushed him over the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth consecutive season.

1994: Finished seventh in the NFL and third in the NFC with 1,075 yards rushing...Played in 14 games with 13 starts...Was injured (bruised back/kidney) at Arizona (9-11) and did not play vs. Washington (9-18) or at New Orleans (10-2) because of the injuries...Still recorded his fourth consecutive season of rushing for more than 1,000 yards...Established a career-high with 327 rushing attempts; previous high was 292 in 1993...Also caught 14 passes for 103 yards...In a vote by his teammates, was selected as one of team's captains prior to the season...Was Giants overall MVP at Houston (11-21) after gaining 122 yards rushing and team's offensive MVP at Washington (11-27) after gaining 106 yards on the ground...Earned a game ball vs. Cincinnati after gaining 76 yards rushing...Earned a game ball vs. Dallas (12-24) after gaining 93 yards on the ground and helping the Giants control the ball in the second half, including the last 9:18 of the game.

1993: With 1,077 yards rushing, became the first Giant ever to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons...Only Joe Morris (1985 and 1986) had rushed for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons prior to Hampton...Finished seventh in the NFL and fifth in the NFC with 1,077 rushing yards...Was eighth in the NFC with 1,287 total yards (1,077 rushing, 210 receiving)...Earned a game ball vs. Indianapolis (12-12) when he established a personal best with 173 yards rushing on 33 carries...On the season, had six 100-yard games, including one in the postseason...In addition to Indianapolis, Hampton's regular season 100-yard days were: 134 yards-29 carries vs. Tampa Bay (9-12), 134-41 vs. Rams (9-19), 101-24 at Philadelphia (11-21) and 114-30 vs. Dallas (1-2)...Recorded his first postseason 100-yard game with 33 carries for 161 yards and two TDs against Minnesota (1-9) in the NFC Wild Card game, tying the Giants' all-time individual postseason marks...Rob Carpenter carried the ball 33 times for 161 yards at Philadelphia (12-27-81)...Ken Strong (12-9-34 vs. Chicago), Alex Webster (12-30-56 vs. Chicago) and Joe Morris (1-4-87 vs. San Francisco) all rushed for two TDs in a postseason game...Hampton's 51-yard scoring run against Minnesota is the longest postseason rushing TD in Giants' history; the previous long was 45 yards by Joe Morris vs. San Francisco (1-4-87)...Missed four games: at Washington (10-10), vs. Philadelphia (10-17), vs. Jets (10-31) and at Dallas (11-7) due to knee and ankle injuries suffered at Buffalo (10-3)...Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his knee on October 7 to remove a portion of the lateral meniscus in his left knee...Returned to action vs. Washington (11-14)...Earned second straight trip to the Pro Bowl.

1992: Led team with 1,141 yards rushing and earned a spot on NFC squad in the Pro Bowl...Three rushing touchdowns vs. Kansas City (12-19) tied a team single-game record and his 14 rushing touchdowns for the season ties for second-best in club history...Had two 100-yard games in '92...On 21 carries, rushed for a career-high 167 yards, including the longest run of his career, a 63-yard touchdown, vs. Phoenix (10-11)...Three weeks later, had 138 yards on 23 carries at Washington (11-1)...For the season, caught 28 passes for 215 yards...Equalled a career-high with six receptions at Raiders (10-4)...Had a 31-yard catch vs. Phoenix (10-11).

1991: Missed first two games of the season with a shoulder injury, but bounced back to start final 14 games and become only the fourth Giants player in history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season...Finished with 1,059 yards after picking up 140 in the season-finale vs. Houston (12-21)...Had two other 100-yard games during the season, with 104 yards on 17 carries vs. Cleveland (9-22) and 137 yards on 22 carries vs. Phoenix (10-6)...Scored two rushing TDs at Chicago (9-15)...Established single-game highs with six receptions at Chicago (9-15) and then again vs.

Washington (10-27)...Had a single-season high 43 receptions for 283 yards.
1990: Amassed 1,069 all-purpose yards as he played in 15 games with two starts but was limited for five games at midseason because of a sore ankle...Second on team for the season with 455 yards rushing and the third-leading receiver with 32 catches for 274 yards...Also had 340 yards on 20 kickoff returns...First NFL TD was a 12-yard pass reception in season-opening victory vs. Philadelphia...First NFL start came at the Rams (11-11) when he also scored his first rushing TD on a 19-yard run...Regained form from ankle injury down the stretch and led team with 78 yards rushing in victory vs. Minnesota (12-9)...Came back a week later to record first 100-yard game vs. Buffalo (12-15) with 105 yards on 21 carries...In playoffs, suffered a fractured fibula vs. Chicago (1-13-91) that knocked him out of action for the rest of the Giants' Super Bowl title run.
College: An All-America and All-SEC choice in his final season at Georgia in 1989 when he rushed for 1,059 yards and 12 TDs...For his career, Hampton scored 25 TDs overall and caught 46 passes and returned kickoffs for total of 476 yards...As a sophomore in 1988 was named National Player of the Week when he rushed for 196 yards and two TDs in a victory over Tennessee...During his freshman season, he broke Herschel Walker's school single-game all-purpose yardage record of 283 yards by totaling 290 yards vs. Mississippi with 227 yards rushing, 28 yards receiving and 35 yards in kickoff returns.
Personal: A three-sport letterman at Kasmere HS in Houston, Hampton was All-District as a halfback and safety when he rushed for 1,310 yards and 19 TDs as a senior...Rodney Hampton was born on April 3, 1969 in Houston, Texas.

A McDonald's high school All-America basketball player at Maryvale (Phoenix) HS when he averaged 15 ppg as a senior.

Transactions: Originally a second round (41st pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: Established himself as a top-flight cover man with his best NFL season last year...Missed 16 games over his first three seasons due to injury...Will be counted on to anchor the left corner spot again this season.

1995: In his second season as a starter, started in all 16 games at left corner...Finished fourth on the team in tackles with 76, tied for first in interceptions with five and broke up a team-leading 16 passes...Set a personal single-game high with 10 tackles against the Chiefs (9-10). His previous best was nine tackles at Philadelphia (12-27-92)...Giants secondary did a great job of covering the Packers receivers as QB Brett Favre completed just four passes for 11 net yards in the second half at Green Bay (9-17)...Covered Jerry Rice most of the afternoon at San Francisco (10-1). Afterwards Rice remarked that it was the most physical game that he has ever played...Recorded his first interception of the year vs. Philadelphia (10-15) when he picked off a Randall Cunnngham pass in the third quarter...Sparks intercepted QB Gus Frerotte deep in Redskins territory at Washington (10-29) to give the Giants a first down at the 16-yard line...Equalled his previous single-season high when he recorded his third interception of the season at Seattle (11-5) when he picked off a QB Rick Mirer pass at the Seattle 46-yard line with :53 left in the first half to help put the Giants in scoring position...Vs. Oakland (11-12), established a personal single-season high mark with his fourth interception as Sparks ended the only Raider scoring threat in the third quarter when he intercepted QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone...With 3:31 left to play and the Giants ahead, 20-18, at Dallas (12-17), Sparks intercepted QB Troy Aikman to kill a Dallas drive at the Giants 35-yard line...Served as a team captain during the 1995 season.

1994: Started all 11 games played...Missed five games due to groin strain he suffered in practice during the week prior to the Detroit game (10-30)...Still picked off a career-high three interceptions, including the first two-interception game of his career at Arizona (9-11) when he earned a game ball and was named Giants defensive MVP...Finished sixth on the team with 47 tackles...Also broke up seven passes...Against Philadelphia (9-4), started his first game since tearing ligaments in his foot vs. Rams (9-19-93) and led team in tackles with eight (six solos)...His first interception at Arizona was on the game's second play and set up the Giants first score...Thwarted a Pittsburgh (10-23) scoring drive by intercepting a Neil O'Donnell pass in the end zone...Returned to starting lineup at left corner at Washington (11-27) after missing four games with the groin injury...Helped hold Dallas (12-24) to 112 yards passing in season-ending victory.

1993: Earned starting right cornerback job over incumbent Perry Williams in training camp but missed 11 games with torn ligaments in his foot...Started first three games of season at RCB before tearing ligaments in his foot vs. Rams (9-19) and missing the next 11 games...Returned to play in final two regular season games on special teams and in nickel situations...Finished the season with 11 tackles.

1992: Played in all 16 games as a nickel back and started the final two games of the season at left cornerback when Mark Collins was unable to play because of a rib injury...First NFL start came vs. Kansas City (12-19)...Finished rookie year with 30 tackles and eight passes defensed, which tied for third on the team...Also had 12 special teams tackles...Had an interception vs. Seattle (10-25).

College: A two-year starter at Arizona State where he was All-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-America as a junior and senior...As a senior, was a finalist for Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the nation's top defensive back, when Sparks had 46 tackles, two forced fumbles, six passes defensed and two interceptions in spite of missing two games...Played in every game as a junior when he led ASU secondary with 73 tackles and returned 22 kickoffs for a 21.7-yard average...A JC All-America and Conference Defensive Player of the Year at Glendale (Ariz.) Community College.

Personal: Married (Jodi) with a son P.J. and a daughter Jordin...An All-America football player and standout in basketball and track at Maryvale HS in Phoenix, Ariz....Phillippi Dwaine Sparks was born on April 15, 1969 in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (96th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two fourth round selections by Dallas, in 1993. Signed by the Giants as a restricted free agent from Dallas on March 8, 1995.

NFL: A solid reserve and spot starter through his first three pro seasons, will be looking to challenge for a starting position on the Giants offensive line...Has played every offensive line position but center at some point in his career.

1995: Played in all 16 games with one start...Earned his first start of the season vs. Arizona (9-24), replacing Erik Williams who was out with a strained left calf. Stone helped the Cowboys gain 195 yards rushing and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack to the Cardinals...Was used as the third tight end in short yardage and goal line situations throughout the season...Filled in at right tackle for Williams on a few snaps at Arizona (12-25)...Saw action at both right guard and left guard due to injuries to Larry Allen and Nate Newton vs. Washington (12-3)...Took over at right tackle temporarily for Erik Williams in first half vs. Philadelphia (11-6) and moved to left tackle in the fourth quarter to rest Mark Tuinei...Saw action in all three of the Cowboys postseason games, including the victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Super Bowl.

1994: Although Stone saw most of his action on field goal and extra point attempts, he did receive significant amount of playing time all along the offensive line, usually due to a fallen teammate...Saw fourth quarter action at left guard in place of Nate Newton at Washington (10-2) and against Arizona (10-9)...Played the entire second half at Arizona (10-23) after replacing Newton in the second quarter...Replaced Derek Kennard at right guard against the Giants (11-7) when Kennard suffered a sprained toe midway through the first quarter...Started his first professional game at left guard against Green Bay (1-8-95) in a divisional playoff game for the injured Newton. Also saw action at right tackle in that game for the injured Larry Allen...Filled in at right tackle in the fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1-15-95).

1993: Was active for four games, but did not play in any contests...De-activated for 12 weeks when the Cowboys dropped to 45 players on game day.

College: Made a smooth and rapid adjustment to right tackle on the offensive line his senior year at Boston College after making 68 tackles as a defensive lineman for the Eagles in 1990 and 1991...Anchored an offensive line that ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 233.5 passing yards per game and finished 10th in total offense with an average of 438.4 yards per game....As a junior,

Transactions: Originally a second round (40th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.
NFL: Key ingredient on the Giants defensive front, Strahan turned in the best season of his career in 1995 with a personal-high of 7.5 sacks...Moved into the starting lineup in his second NFL season in 1994 after missing seven games as a rookie due to a foot injury.
1995: Turned in the best season of his three-year career with a personal-high 7.5 sacks...In his second season as a regular, started 15 games...Made his first career interception at Kansas City (9-10) when the Chiefs drove to the Giants three-yard line before Strahan intercepted QB Steve Bono in the end zone to secure the Giants 10-3 halftime lead...Recorded the first three-sack game of his career at Green Bay (9-17). All three of the sacks came in the second half when the Giants defensive line put constant pressure on the Packers, limiting them to just 36 total yards in the second half. Ended one Packers series with two consecutive sacks of Packers QB Brett Favre...Vs. Arizona (10-8), forced Dave Krieg to fumble on an eight-yard sack and Keith Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 30-yard line. Provided a good pass rush that forced Krieg to hurry the ball into the waiting arms of Jessie Armstead, who raced 58 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Giants a 27-21 overtime victory...At Washington (10-29), the defense set up a Giants touchdown when rookie Jamal Duff deflected a Gus Frerotte pass and Strahan intercepted and raced 62 yards before being forced out of bounds at the Washington two-yard line. Tyrone Wheatley punched it in from one yard out to give the Giants a 14-3 lead...With 11:16 left in the game at Philadelphia (11-19), Strahan blocked a punt at the Eagles 40-yard line. Strahan chased the ball down to the Giants end zone, but an Eagles defender was able to swat the ball out of the back of the end zone for a safety...Forced Dave Kreig to fumble on a sack, and Robert Harris recovered for the Giants at the the 40-yard line at Arizona

Transactions: Originally a first round (18th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1989.

NFL: Turned in an All-Pro type season in his second full season as a regular...Moved into the starting lineup in 1994 after serving as an important backup and spot starter at center and guard through the first five years of his career.

1995: The leader of the Giants offensive line...Started all 16 games despite ankle and thumb problems...Returned to action in time for the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4) after suffering an ankle sprain in a preseason game against the Saints...Anchored an offensive line that helped the Giants gain 474 total yards (including 218 on the ground) vs. New Orleans (9-24), their highest output since gaining 487 yards on 9-29-91 at Dallas...After offense gave up eight sacks at Philadelphia (11-19), offensive line helped nullify Chicago attack (11-26) as Bears did not sack Dave Brown once...Helped lead the way at Dallas (12-17) when line allowed Rodney Hampton to have a career day against the Cowboys as he set a personal single-game high mark with his 187-yard rushing performance, the fourth-best in team history. Hampton's performance put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth consecutive season as the Giants gained 244 yards rushing against the Cowboys. Williams threw a key block on Tyrone Wheatley's one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter of the Dallas game.

1994: Started 14 games in his first season as a full-time starter...Was inactive vs. Arizona (11-13) and did not play at Houston (11-21) due to a rib injury...Started vs. Detroit (10-30) but suffered a blow to the abdomen and was forced to leave the game in the first quarter...Following layoff due to rib injury, returned to starting lineup as RB Rodney Hampton rushed for 106 yards at Washington (11-27)...Along with fellow linemen, helped Giants sustain three first half drives at Cleveland (12-4) that totalled 195 yards...Earned Giants overall MVP honors vs. Cincinnati (12-11) as he anchored a line that allowed no sacks as the offense compiled 304 yards...Giants held the ball for 23:17, including the final 9:18 of the game, in second half of victory over Dallas (12-24).

1993: Played in all 16 games for the first time since 1990...Made one start at center vs. Philadelphia (10-17) as Bart Oates recovered from a sprained ankle...Williams and Oates split the center duties 50-50 with Williams playing the second and fourth quarters.

1992: Played in 13 games and started at center vs. Washington (12-6) when he suffered a broken right foot and was lost for the remaining three games of the season.

1991: Played in 14 games as a backup at guard and center with most work coming in short-yardage situations.

GIANTS TID BIT

Father, the late Dr. Bob Williams, was a star QB at Notre Dame who led Irish to 7-0 victory over Oklahoma in 1957 to end Sooners' 47-game winning streak.

PERSONAL: Sociology major...4.67 in the 40-yard dash...Son of Annette Jones...Born April 30, 1974 in Houston, Texas.

JONES QUOTES

George Young on Jones: "I think that he can be an outstanding pass rusher. He's shown the ability to do it over a period of time. He's just not a one-year flash."

Mike Nolan on Jones: "I think that he will add something to our pass rush. He is a very athletic defensive end. I thought that he was the most athletic guy at that position."

Cedric Jones on Jones: "I thought I was different than all of the rest of the so-called pass rushers in the draft. I weigh in at 275 and run a 4.6 in the 40, and I put up big numbers rushing the passer, but I also stop the run. I think that sets me aside."

HAMILTON QUOTES

Dan Reeves on Hamilton: "Hamilton is an exciting guy. He's a kickoff return guy as well as a safety, but we do think he has some ability and we'll probably look at him at corner first. He made an awful lot of plays at Eastern New Mexico. He had a productive college career, so he's got some things that he brings that will help him compete."

George Young on Hamilton: "He is a cornerback who we had good speed on. He is also a very fine kickoff returner. He is good on the special teams."

Game 1

DALLAS 35, GIANTS 0

at East Rutherford, Sept. 4, 1995

The Giants suffered their worst loss ever at Giants Stadium in front of a record crowd of 77,454 as they were shut out by the Dallas Cowboys, 35-0, in a Monday Night Football matchup. The 1995 season got off to an inauspicious start when RB Emmitt Smith scored on a 60-yard run on a draw up the middle on his first rushing attempt of the season. The Cowboys took control of the game with all of their offensive weapons, gaining 459 yards in total offense and scoring touchdowns on four of their first six possessions. Smith gained 163 yards rushing, including four touchdown runs; QB Troy Aikman completed 15 of 20 passes for 228 yards and one touchdown; and WR Michael Irvin gained 109 yards on seven receptions, including a seven-yard touchdown reception that put the Cowboys up 14-0 early in the second quarter. Smith's one-yard touchdown run with 6:52 left in the first half put the Cowboys up 21-0 at the half. The Giants only significant penetration into Dallas territory was a 5:46 drive that ended when PK Brad Daluiso's 42-yard field goal attempt was blocked and sailed wide left late in the second quarter. The Giants only drove into Dallas territory three times in the game, reaching the 24-yard line on the missed field goal attempt and then losing possession on downs twice at the Dallas 45-yard line. Dallas scored on Smith one-yard touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters to seal the victory. The only bright moment for the Giants was the halftime ceremony that honored the retirement of Phil Simms' jersey number 11.

Game 2

KANSAS CITY 20, GIANTS 17 (OT)

at Kansas City, Sept. 10, 1995

The Kansas City Chiefs overcame a 17-3 fourth quarter deficit and pulled out a 20-17 victory in overtime to drop the Giants record to 0-2. In overtime, the Chiefs drove to the Giants 11-yard line where RB Greg Hill fumbled the ball. The ball bounced through the hands of S Maurice Douglass and was recovered by the Chiefs at the Giants six-yard line, setting up PK Lin Elliott's 23-yard game-winning field goal. The Giants ran only 14 offensive plays, including three in overtime, made only one first down and netted 30 yards in the entire second half. The Chiefs were held to just 88 total yards in offense in the first half but gained 256 yards on 60 offensive plays in the second half. The Giants took the opening kickoff 75 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. QB Dave Brown threw a 37-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway to get into Kansas City territory and followed with a 26-yard scoring pass to Calloway. The Chiefs got on the scoreboard in the middle of the first quarter after converting a RB Rodney Hampton fumble, his first turnover in 495 touches, into a 42-yard field goal. The Giants took the ensuing kickoff and had an impressive 5:47 drive that culminated with a 23-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso. After recovering a Brown fumble at the Giants 37-yard line with 4:07 left in the half, the Chiefs drove to the Giants three-yard line before DE Michael Strahan intercepted QB Steve Bono in the end zone to secure the Giants 10-3 halftime lead. The Chiefs mounted a 9:41 drive that ended in the fourth quarter when Bono fumbled after being sacked by DE Robert Harris. DT Keith Hamilton recovered the ball for the Giants and raced 87 yards before being stripped of the ball at the Chiefs one-yard line. S Tito Wooten recovered the ball in the end zone for a 17-3 Giants lead with 10:56 left in regulation. RB Marcus Allen cut the Giants lead to 17-10 when he capped a 73-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown. And after the Giants went three-and-out, the Chiefs tied the game 17-17 when WR Danan Hughes caught a three-yard pass from Bono with 1:22 left in the fourth quarter to finish off a 14-play, 67-yard drive.

Game 3

GREEN BAY 14, GIANTS 6

at Green Bay, Sept. 17, 1995

The Giants record fell to 0-3 after their 14-6 loss to the Packers at Lambeau Field. The Packers jumped out to a 14-0 lead behind two Brett Favre touchdown passes in the first and second quarters. Favre led the Packers 59 yards on the game's opening drive before hitting WR Mark Ingram for an 11-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay opened the second quarter with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Favre to WR Robert Brooks. The Giants took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Packers 19-yard line where PK Brad Daluiso nailed a 37-yard field goal to cut the lead to 14-3 at the half. The Giants defense kept constant pressure on the Packers in the second half, limiting them to just 36 total yards. Favre was sacked four times and completed just four passes in the entire second half. Defensive end Michael Strahan led the defense with his first career three-sack game. The Giants offense netted 120 passing yards, compared to the Packers' 11 in the second half. After a scoreless third quarter the Giants used 7:30 of the final quarter and went 75 yards on 16 plays. The drive ended at the Packers 14-yard line where Daluiso connected on a 32-yard field goal with 3:21 left to play. The Giants followed the score with an onsides kick attempt that was recovered by the Packers at the Giants 41-yard line. The Giants defense stopped the Packers on three straight plays, setting up the Giants final drive. The Giants started their final drive with 2:14 left in regulation. Needing a touchdown and a two-point conversion to send the game into overtime, the Giants reached the Green Bay 30-yard line with :35 left to play. A penalty by T John Elliott brought the ball back to the 40-yard line where QB Dave Brown was intercepted with :15 left two plays later. RB Rodney Hampton had a big day, gaining 86 yards on 16 carries, but the Giants were forced to switch to the passing game in the second half. Brown threw the ball 50 times but was only able to generate 199 yards. The game marked the regular season debut of first round draft choice RB Tyrone Wheatley. Wheatley returned one kickoff for 17 yards and gained seven yards on his only rushing attempt.

Game 4

GIANTS 45, NEW ORLEANS 29

at East Rutherford, Sept. 24, 1995

The Giants snapped a three-game losing streak and earned their first victory of the season by defeating New Orleans, 45-29. The Giants offense rolled up 474 total yards and scored six touchdowns behind a big day by RB Rodney Hampton and timely passing by QB Dave Brown. Hampton gained 149 yards and set a team record with four rushing touchdowns. Brown completed 19-of-27 passes for 258 yards, including a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Calloway. Hampton capped an eight-play, 58-yard opening drive with a five-yard touchdown. The Saints answered by tying the game on a three-yard touchdown run by RB Mario Bates to finish a 77-yard drive. The Saints took a 14-7 second quarter lead after converting a Brown interception into a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Jim Everett to TE Wesley Walls. After the Giants tied the game on another Hampton touchdown run, Saints WR Tyrone Hughes returned the kickoff 54 yards and Brad Daluiso added a 15-yard face masking penalty to give the Saints the ball at the Giants 25-yard line. The Giants defense held the Saints to a 20-yard PK Chip Lohmiller field goal. The Giants managed 10 more points in the second quarter to gain a 24-17 halftime advantage. First Brown connected with Calloway on a catch-and-run that resulted in a 38-yard touchdown, and after holding the Saints on their next posssession the Giants drove to the Saints 32-yard line where Daluiso connected on a 51-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the first half. The 24 first half points by the Giants were one more than the the Giants had scored in the three previous games. Hampton added a two-yard touchdown run and a three-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to give the Giants a comfortable 38-17 lead. S Vencie Glenn intercepted Everett twice in the third quarter to prevent the Saints from sustaining any drives. Glenn's first interception gave the Giants the ball at the Saints 33-yard line, setting up Hampton's two-yard touchdown run. The Saints did score two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, but first round draft choice Tyrone Wheatley fought his way to a 19-yard touchdown run to seal the Giants victory.

Game 5

SAN FRANCISCO 20, GIANTS 6

at San Francisco, Oct. 1, 1995

The Giants record fell to 1-4 after dropping a 20-6 decision to the defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park. Despite the loss, the Giants defense limited the powerful 49ers offense to just two touchdowns. The Giants started two of their first three offensive series inside 49ers territory but managed just three points. After stopping the 49ers on the game-opening drive, the Giants took advantage of a 14-yard punt and began their first drive at the 49ers 44-yard line. A 16-yard pass from QB Dave Brown to HB Aaron Pierce put the Giants in position for PK Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead. The 49ers drove 76 yards on the ensuing kickoff and reached the Giants four-yard line before tying the game, 3-3, on a 22-yard field goal by PK Doug Brien. In the second quarter, S Vencie Glenn forced San Francisco RB Derek Loville to fumble and LB Jessie Armstead recovered the ball for the Giants at the San Francisco 48-yard line. The 49ers defense held the Giants offense, and the scoring threat was killed when Daluiso's 45-yard field goal attempt was blocked. The 49ers scored two touchdowns in the final two minutes of the first half to jump to a 17-3 halftime lead. First, QB Steve Young took the 49ers 64 yards with FB William Floyd scoring on a one-yard touchdown run to put the 49ers in front, 10-3. After stopping the Giants on the next set of downs, the 49ers drove to the 16-yard line where Young caught the Giants in-between coverages and connected with WR Jerry Rice for a 16-yard touchdown pass. A late pass interference penalty on S Jesse Campbell on fouth-down-and-three with :58 left in the first half helped set up the Niners touchdown. The Giants started the second half with an 11-play, 40-yard drive that ended at the San Francisco 35-yard line when Brown's pass intended for WR Mike Sherrard was intercepted by LB Ken Norton Jr., who raced 46 yards before being stopped at the Giants 23-yard line. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-6 on a 46-yard field goal by Brien. On the Giants next possession, Brown completed five of six passes for 78 yards, giving the Giants a first-and-goal from the 49ers three-yard line. Brown pitched the ball to RB Rodney Hampton, who lost control of the ball before recovering it for a 14-yard loss. Hampton, it was later learned, was playing with a broken bone in his right hand. The Giants were forced to settle for a 32-yard Daluiso field goal. Neither team managed to score in the fourth quarter for a 20-6 final. Prior to being forced from the game, Hampton was limited to just 13 yards on 12 carries. Rookie RB Tyrone Wheatley replaced him and gained 16 yards on five carries.

Game 6

GIANTS 27, ARIZONA 21 (OT)

at East Rutherford, Oct. 8, 1995

LB Jessie Armstead scored on a 58-yard interception return to give the Giants a 27-21 overtime victory over the visiting Arizona Cardinals. There were eight fumbles, three interceptions, and the lead changed hands five times. The Giants offense turned the ball over four times inside Arizona territory, twice inside the Cardinals 20-yard line. The Giants managed a win despite yielding 431 total yards and big days from QB Dave Krieg (23 of 38 for 305 yards), RB Garrison Hearst (23-122) and WR Frank Sanders (6-108, 2 tds). The Giants committed four penalties for 44 yards on the Cardinals opening drive and fell behind 3-0 on a 23-yard field goal by PK Greg Davis. QB Dave Brown hit TE Howard Cross on a 26-yard catch-and-run to push the Giants into Arizona territory, where they moved to the six-yard line before Brown threw a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Sherrard to give the Giants a 7-3 first quarter lead. After recovering a Krieg fumble at the Cardinals 30-yard line on the next series, the Giants reached the Arizona 11-yard line before Brown's pass deflected off of RB Herschel Walker's hands and was intercepted by LB Seth Joyner. The Cardinals converted the turnover into an 11-yard touchdown pass from Krieg to Sanders and took a 10-7 lead. Brown ended another Giants drive when a Cardinals blitz forced him to hurry a pass that was intercepted at the Cardinals 22-yard line late in the first half. The Cardinals drove into Giants territory, but Davis' 57-yard field goal attempt was short as time expired in the first half. The Cardinals took the second half kickoff down field and extended their lead to 13-7 on a 36-yard field goal by Davis. Walker returned the ensuing kickoff to the 50-yard line, and Brown converted a third-and-14 situation with a 17-yard pass to WR Arthur Marshall to give the Giants a first-and-goal from the Arizona two-yard line. Two plays later Brown fired a two-yard touchdown pass to FB Charles way to give the Giants a 14-13 lead. Krieg hit big-play passes of 27 yards and 26 yards and helped the Cardinals recapture the lead, 21-14, on an 11-yard touchdown pass to Sanders, who also caught a Krieg pass for the two-point conversion. A 49-yard pass completion from Brown to WR Chris Calloway put the Giants inside the Cardinals ten-yard line where Brown scrambled into the end zone to even the score at 21-21. Both teams had an opportunity to win the game in regulation. First, behind RB Rodney Hampton the Giants moved to the Cardinals four-yard line before Hampton was ruled to have lost a fumble. Arizona could have won the game with 18 seconds left in regulation, but Davis' 50-yard field goal attempt was wide left. In overtime, LB Mike Croel forced Krieg to fumble on a sack and DE Keith Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 35-yard line. Then, the Cardinals sacked Brown and recovered his fumble at their own 38-yard line. DE Michael Strahan provided a good pass rush that forced Krieg to hurry the ball into the waiting arms of Armstead as the Giants improved their record to 2-4.

Game 7

PHILADELPHIA 17, GIANTS 14

at East Rutherford, Oct. 15, 1995

The Giants record fell to 2-5 with a 17-14 loss to NFC East rival Philadelphia. Down 17-6 with under five minutes remaining in regulation, the Giants got the big play that they needed to get back into the game. RB Keith Elias rushed Eagles P Tom Hutton so quickly that Elias got to the ball before it was punted and forced a fumble that WR Omar Douglas returned 41 yards for a touchdown. RB Rodney Hampton converted the two-point conversion to cut the Eagles lead to 17-14. The Giants stopped the Eagles on the next series and reached the Eagles 43-yard line with :53 left to play before QB Tommy Maddox, in relief of starter QB Dave Brown, threw his third interception of the day to seal the victory for the Eagles. After a scoreless first quarter, the Eagles jumped out to a 14-0 lead. First, RB Ricky Watters gained 44 of his 122 rushing yards on a 10-play, 80-yard drive that ended on an eight-yard touchdown run by Watters. The Giants reached the Eagles 45-yard line on the next series, but the Eagles forced a Hampton fumble and S Michael Zordich raced 58 yards untouched for a touchdown to make it 14-0. The Giants drove inside the Eagles five-yard line two times before halftime but were forced to settle for a pair of PK Brad Daluiso field goals. Brown, who finished the day 9 of 18 for 82 yards, was replaced by Maddox early in the second half. Maddox completed just six of 23 pass attempts for 49 yards and three interceptions, including two within a span of five minutes. Despite the Giants offensive problems, the special teams units gave the Giants a chance to win. RB Herschel Walker set up the Giants first field goal with a 67-yard kickoff return that gave the Giants the ball at the Eagles 32-yard line. The Giants second field goal was set up after S Maurice Douglass recovered a Kelvin Martin muffed punt return at the Eagles 31-yard line.

Game 8

GIANTS 24, WASHINGTON 15

at Washington, Oct. 29, 1995

The Giants jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead and held on in the second half to take a 24-15 victory over the Washington Redskins. Despite losing two fumbles deep in Washington territory, the Giants were able to control the first half thanks to a defense that overpowered the Redskins. The Giants defense forced four first half turnovers that were converted into 17 points. On the fifth play from scrimmage, Redskins QB Gus Frerotte's pass intended for FB Marc Logan deflected into the hands of S Vencie Glenn, who raced 75 yards for the touchdown. After holding the Redskins to a 47-yard field by PK Eddie Murray on the ensuing drive, the Giants drove back into Redskins territory before RB Rodney Hampton fumbled at the two-yard line. Two plays later, the Giants got the ball back when rookie DE Jamal Duff hit Frerotte as he was releasing the ball, allowing CB Phillippi Sparks to come away with an interception and give the Giants the ball at the Washington 16-yard line. On the Giants first snap, QB Dave Brown hit backup TE Brian Kozlowski for a five-yard gain before Kozlowski was stripped of the ball. The defense set up another Giants score when Duff deflected a Frerotte pass and DE Michael Strahan intercepted and raced 62 yards before being forced out of bounds at the Washington two-yard line. First round draft choice RB Tyrone Wheatley punched it in from one yard out to give the Giants a 14-3 lead. The Giants extended their lead to 21-3 when Brown connected with WR Mike Sherrard on a 57-yard touchdown pass. The Giants defense stopped the Redskins on their next drive when Glenn forced and recovered a Redskins fumble at the Giants 43-yard line. The Giants offense, led by Hampton, who became the Giants all-time leading rusher behind his 83-yard performance, reached the Redskins 14-yard line before settling for a PK Brad Daluiso field goal. The Redskins dominated the second half, yet managed just nine points. The Giants gained just 57 total yards in the second half compared to the Redskins 183 total yards. The Redskins closed the Giants lead to 24-15 behind the passing of Frerotte, who completed 22 of 44 pass attempts for 345 yards despite throwing four interceptions. A potential Redskins' comeback was thwarted when CB Thomas Randolph intercepted Frerotte with 4:44 left in the game. The Giants ran out the clock to clinch the victory and improve their record to 3-5.

Game 9

SEATTLE 30, GIANTS 28

at Seattle, Nov. 5, 1995

PK Brad Daluiso's 48-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right as time expired, capping a 30-28 Seattle Seahawks victory over the visiting Giants. The Giants fell behind, 21-3, in the first quarter but scored 19 unanswered points in the second to take a 22-21 halftime lead. The Seahawks scored on two Rick Mirer-to-WR Brian Blades touchdown passes and an 89-yard punt return for a touchdown by WR Joey Galloway to take the early lead. The Giants first half comeback was led by QB Dave Brown, who completed 16 of 25 passes for 221 yards, including an eight-yard touchdown pass to RB Herschel Walker and a 28-yard strike to WR Mike Sherrard with 1:55 left in the first half. Following a CB Phillippi Sparks interception at the Seahawks 46-yard line, Brown put the Giants in position for another touchdown by completing a 15-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway and a 30-yard pass to Sherrard, giving the Giants a first-and-goal from the one-yard line. RB Rodney Hampton scored the first of his two one-yard TD runs to erase the Seahawks lead. The Giants failed on the two-point conversion two times in the first half when they trailed by five points and led by one point. The Seahawks took the second half kickoff and regained the lead on a 23-yard field goal by PK Todd Peterson. Peterson connected on a 41-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to extend the Seahawks lead to 27-22. Walker returned the ensuing kickoff 50 yards, and rookie RB Tyrone Wheatley and Hampton led the Giants on an 11-play, 48-yard drive that was capped by the second Hampton one-yard touchdown run. The Giants pulled ahead 28-27 despite failing on the two-point conversion. With 5:19 left to play, the Seahawks started at their own nine-yard line and drove 77 yards in 13 plays before Peterson hit a 32-yard field goal to put Seattle in front, 30-28, with 1:32 left to play. The Giants, starting at their own 13-yard line, reached the Seahawks 30-yard line behind the timely passing of Brown. Brown threw a 14-yard pass to WR Arthur Marshall, a 16-yarder to Sherrard and a 27-yarder to Marshall before stopping the clock at the 30-yard line with five seconds left in regulation.

Game 10

at East Rutherford, Nov. 12, 1995

The Raiders erased a 13-10 fourth quarter deficit and escaped with a 17-13 victory over the Giants. The Giants comeback chances ended at the Raiders 28-yard line with 1:55 left in regulation when QB Dave Brown's fourth down pass intended for WR Arthur Marshall was tipped at the line of scrimmage nullifying a pass interference call that would have kept the drive alive. Oakland marched 61 yards on 13 plays on their opening drive of the game before being stopped at the 12-yard line where PK Jeff Jaeger kicked a 30-yard field goal for a 3-0 Raiders lead. The Giants held onto the ball for 6:47 on their next possession and reached the Raiders 34-yard line before LB Pat Swilling sacked Brown and forced a fumble that the Raiders recovered at the 40-yard line. Three plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler, playing against his old team for the first time since signing with the Raiders as an unrestricted free agent prior to the 1993 season, completed a 40-yard touchdown pass into the wind to WR Raghib Ismail to extend the Raiders lead to 10-0. The Giants started their next drive at their own 41-yard line, and Brown completed a nine-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway and a 34-yard pass to RB Herschel Walker to help the Giants reach the Raiders 16-yard line, setting up a 32-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso to cut the Raiders lead to 10-3. The Giants appeared to take control of the game in the third quarter by scoring 10 unanswered points to take a 13-10 lead. Brown completed four-of-seven passes for 46 yards as the Giants took the second half kickoff to the Raiders 15-yard line. Marshall failed to hold onto a Brown pass in the end zone, and the Giants were forced to settle for a 32-yard field goal by Daluiso. DE Coleman Rudolph ended the Raiders first drive in the third quarter with a big third down sack of Hostetler, forcing the Raiders to punt into the wind, allowing the Giants to begin their drive at the 47-yard line. Brown's efficient passing pushed the Giants to the 11-yard line where he scored on a quarterback draw to give the Giants a 13-10 lead. The only Raider scoring threat in the third quarter was ended when CB Phillippi Sparks intercepted Hostetler in the end zone. In the fourth quarter, Raiders RB Harvey Williams, who finished the day with 85 yards rushing on 21 attempts, carried the Raiders to the Giants 20-yard line. Faced with a third-and-six situation, the Giants forced Hostetler out of the pocket. Hostetler attempted to slide short of the first down, but Sparks was called for unnecessary roughness for an apparent hit to the quarterback's head. The penalty gave the Raiders a first down at the eight-yard line. Two plays later, Williams ran the ball in standing up from the six-yard line for a 17-13 Raiders lead.

Game 11

PHILADELPHIA 28, GIANTS 19

at Philadelphia, Nov. 19, 1995

The Philadelphia Eagles converted two Giants turnovers into 14 points as they completed a season sweep with a 28-19 victory at Veterans Stadium. After recovering an Eagles fumble at the 40-yard line to stop the Eagles opening drive, QB Dave Brown handed the ball to RB Rodney Hampton, who pitched the ball back to Brown and turned the flea-flicker into a 46-yard touchdown pass to WR Thomas Lewis for a 7-0 Giants lead. It took the Eagles just three plays to tie the game at 7-7. RB Ricky Watters set up QB Rodney Peete's 13-yard touchdown pass to WR Fred Barnett by racing 57 yards before being knocked out of bounds at the Giants nine-yard line. On the Giants next series, Brown's pass intended for WR Chris Calloway was intercepted by CB Mark McMillian at the Giants 38-yard line. The Eagles reached the three-yard line where Watters punched it in for a 14-7 advantage. Hampton, who gained 84 yards on 21 attempts, carried the Giants to the Eagles 20-yard line, but PK Brad Daluiso missed his first field goal inside the 40-yard line in 19 attempts when his field goal try sailed wide right. Brown was intercepted for the second time in the first half on the next possession, setting up the Eagles third touchdown. LB William Thomas returned the interception 29 yards to the Giants 12-yard line. The Giants got a break when S Vencie Glenn recovered a Peete fumble at the one-yard line, but on the Giants first play a fumbled handoff between Brown and RB Tyrone Wheatley gave the ball back to the Eagles at the Giants four-yard line. Peete connected with WR Fred Barnett for a four-yard touchdown pass and a 21-7 halftime lead. A Daluiso field goal in the third quarter and Watters' second touchdown of the day made the score 28-10 heading into the final quarter of play. The Giants most impressive drive of the day was a 12-play, 66-yard drive that took 6:18 off of the clock and resulted in a one-yard touchdown run by Hampton to cut the Eagles lead to 28-17. With 11:16 left, DE Michael Strahan blocked an Eagles punt at the Eagles 40-yard line. Strahan chased the ball down to the Giants end zone, but an Eagle defender was able to swat the ball out of the back of the end zone for a safety. The Giants got the ball back at the 50-yard line following the punt, but the offense was unable to take advantage of the good field position.

Game 12

CHICAGO 27, GIANTS 24

at East Rutherford, Nov. 26, 1995

PK Kevin Butler kicked a 37-yard field goal with seven seconds remaining in regulation to lift the Chicago Bears to a 27-24 victory over the Giants. With the game tied, 24-24, the Giants drove to the Bears 32-yard line with 55 seconds remaining. Faced with a head wind, the Giants elected to try for a first down on fourth-and-four rather than attempt a game-winning 49-yard field goal. QB Dave Brown's shotgun pass to Howard Cross fell incomplete as the Giants turned the ball over to the Bears on downs. With just 48 seconds left on the clock, QB Erik Kramer completed four of five pass attempts for 36 yards to lead the Bears to the Giants 20-yard line to set up Butler's game-winning field goal. The Bears opened the game with a 7:26 drive that resulted in a six-yard touchdown run on a reverse by WR Michael Timpson. The Giants took the ensuing kickoff and for the second consecutive week opened the game with the flea-flicker. Brown handed the ball to RB Rodney Hampton, who pitched it back to Brown and turned the play into a 38-yard completion to WR Thomas Lewis. Hampton pushed the Giants to the five-yard line before Brown tied the game, 7-7, with a touchdown strike to WR Arthur Marshall. The Giants gained the lead in the second quarter when they put together a 14-play, 80-yard drive that took 8:11 off the clock before Hampton ran it in from one yard out for a 14-7 Giants lead. A 15-yard punt by P Mike Horan gave the Bears the ball at the Giants 44-yard line with 1:44 left in the first half. Kramer completed four of five passes for 44 yards, including a six-yard touchdown to Jeff Graham, for a 14-14 score at halftime. Both teams exchanged field goals in the third quarter for a 17-17 tie headed into the final quarter of play. On the Bears first drive in the fourth quarter, Timpson scored his second touchdown of the afternoon on a nine-yard pass from Kramer to give the Bears a 24-17 advantage. On the next series, Brown helped the Giants reach Bears territory with a 31-yard completion to Lewis. The Giants reached the two-yard line and Hampton scored his second touchdown of the day to knot the score at 24-24.

Game 13

at Tempe, Nov. 30, 1995

With just 18 seconds left in regulation, QB Dave Krieg's fourth down pass intended for TE Oscar McBride fell incomplete in the end zone to preserve a 10-6 Giants victory in a Thursday Night matchup at Sun Devil Stadium. The Cardinals drove into Giants territory four times in the first half but were held to a pair of PK Greg Davis field goals. The Cardinals took the opening kickoff to the Giants four-yard line and were faced with a fourth-down-and-goal situation. Krieg's pass intended for WR Rob Moore in the end zone was defended by CB Thomas Randolph to give the Giants possession on downs. Arizona started their next drive at the Giants 36-yard line following a 28-yard punt by Mike Horan. On the Cardinals first play from scrimmage, DE Michael Strahan forced Krieg to fumble on a sack, and DE Robert Harris recovered for the Giants. A Giants muffed punt gave the Cardinals the ball at the Giants 34-yard line to start their next drive, and they converted the turnover into a 44-yard field goal by Davis. The Giants first scoring chance resulted in a 46-yard field goal attempt by PK Brad Daluiso that sailed wide right. The Cardinals took over at the Giants 36-yard line and drove to the 10-yard line before being held to a 28-yard Davis field goal for a 6-0 lead. A 13-yard completion on third-and-13 from QB Dave Brown to WR Chris Calloway helped the Giants reach the 34-yard line where Daluiso's 51-yard field goal closed the gap to 6-3 at the half. The Giants took the second half kickoff and went 83 yards in 12 plays before Brown connected with WR Mike Sherrard for a 12-yard touchdown pass. Brown kept the drive alive with an 11-yard completion to Calloway on third-and-eight. A Cardinals failed fake punt attempt gave the Giants the ball inside Arizona territory, but the Cardinals defense forced the Giants to try a 47-yard field goal attempt which was blocked by DT Eric Swann at the line of scrimmage. The Cardinals opened the final quarter of play with an 11-play, 73-yard drive that saw them reach the 12-yard line before S Vencie Glenn intercepted backup QB Stoney Case to kill a Cardinals scoring threat. A 53-yard Horan punt pinned the Cardinals at their own 11-yard line with 1:50 left in regulation. The Cardinals drove 76 yards to the Giants eight-yard line where they had three tries to get the ball in the end zone.

Game 14

at East Rutherford, Dec. 10, 1995

QB Dave Brown broke a 13-13 tie with a 40-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Calloway with 1:18 left in regulation to give the Giants a 20-13 victory over the Washington Redskins. The Giants defense held the Redskins on their next drive to clinch the win. After Calloway's touchdown, RB Brian Mitchell returned the ensuing kickoff 53 yards and a 15-yard face masking penalty on PK Brad Dalusio gave Washington the ball at the Giants 23-yard line. Faced with a fourth down with 0:47 left to play, QB Heath Shuler's pass intended for WR Henry Ellard was broken up by CB Thomas Randolph at the one-yard line to seal the victory. After being stopped on the opening drive of the game, the Redskins failed to take advantage of a muffed WR Thomas Lewis punt return when PK Eddie Murray's 36-yard field goal attempt fell short. The Giants took over at the 27-yard line and drove 54 yards to the Redskins 19-yard line where Daluiso kicked a 36-yard field goal to give the Giants a 3-0 first quarter lead. A 34-yard Murray field goal capped the Redskins' next possession to tie the game at 3-3 in the second quarter. Lewis returned the ensuing kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown to give the Giants a 10-3 advantage. It marked only the second kickoff return for a touchdown ever by a Giants player at Giants Stadium. A 44-yard field goal by Daluiso extended the Giants lead to 13-3 before the half. S Tito Wooten picked off a Shuler pass at the Giants 22 and raced 38 yards to the Redskins 40-yard line to help set up Daluiso's kick. A 30-yard field goal by Murray closed the gap to 13-6 early in the fourth quarter. RB Terry Allen, who gained 120 yards on 30 carries, led the Redskins 80 yards on 16 plays and took 9:10 off the clock before scoring from one-yard out to tie the game at 13-13. On the Giants game-winning drive, head coach Dan Reeves elected to go for it on fourth-down-and-one from the Giants own 41-yard line. RB Rodney Hampton, who gained 78 yards rushing on 18 carries, followed T John Elliott's block and gained two yards for the first down to keep the drive alive. Although the Giants defense yielded 306 yards in total offense, the unit limited the Redskins to just one touchdown in eight drives into Giants territory.

Game 15

at Irving, Dec 17, 1995

RB Rodney Hampton's career-high 187 yard rushing performance could not help the Giants hold onto a 20-18 lead over the Dallas Cowboys. PK Chris Boniol's 35-yard field goal at the final gun lifted the Cowboys to a 21-20 victory. The Giants overcame a rough first minute of play to jump out to a 14-6 halftime lead. On the game's first play from scrimmage, QB Dave Brown's pass intended for TE Howard Cross was intercepted by S Brock Marion at the Dallas 48-yard line. On Dallas' first play from scrimmage, CB Phillippi Sparks was called for pass interference while covering WR Michael Irvin, giving the Cowboys a first down inside Giants territory. The Giants defense held the Cowboys to a field goal for a 3-0 Dallas lead. The Giants drove deep into Dallas territory in each of their next three drives. Following a missed 40-yard field goal attempt by PK Brad Daluiso, the Giants got the ball back at their own 48-yard line. Brown completed a 19-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway and then scrambled 23 yards to give the Giants a first down at the three-yard line to help set up RB Tyrone Wheatley's one-yard touchdown run for a 7-3 Giants lead in the second quarter. The Giants defense prevented the Cowboys from reaching the end zone on their next series and the Cowboys were forced to settle for a 27-yard field goal by Boniol. The Giants put together their most impressive drive of the afternoon on the next series. The Giants converted three third-down plays as Brown capped a 17-play, 73-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown run to extend the Giants lead to 14-6 as time expired in the first half. Dallas drove deep into Giants territory on their first two series in the second half, but the Giants defense kept them out of the end zone, forcing the Cowboys to settle for two field goals. On the first play in the fourth quarter, with the Giants faced with third-and-two and looking to extend their 14-12 lead, rookie FB Charles Way failed to hold onto a Brown pass in the end zone. Daluiso kicked a 20-yard field goal for a 17-12 Giants lead. On the Cowboys next series a 39-yard pass interference call on S Vencie Glenn helped set up a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmitt Smith that gave Dallas an 18-17 lead. Hampton, who reached his fifth consecutive 1,000 yard season, powered the Giants to the Dallas four-yard line on their next series. Wheatley, in relief of Hampton, raced around the right end for an apparent touchdown. Way was called for holding on the play and the Giants were forced to settle for a Daluiso field goal that put them in front, 20-18. With 3:31 left to play, Sparks intercepted QB Troy Aikman to kill a Dallas drive at the Giants 35-yard line. The Giants failed to convert on third-and-five and Dallas began their game-winning drive at the Giants 25-yard line with 2:59 left in regulation. Aikman completed three third-down passes in the final moments to help move the Cowboys into position for their victory. Aikman completed a 13-yard pass to Williams on third-and-seven, an 11-yard pass to Irvin on third-and-10 and an 11-yard pass to Williams on third-and-10, to set up Boniol's game-winner.

Game 16

SAN DIEGO 27, GIANTS 17

at East Rutherford, Dec. 23, 1995

The San Diego Chargers took advantage of four Giants second half turnovers and overcame a 17-3 deficit to clinch a playoff berth with a 27-17 victory. The Giants scored on three of their first half possessions to secure a 17-3 halftime advantage. On the Giants first possession, RB Rodney Hampton powered the Giants to the San Diego 13-yard line before settling for a 30-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal and a 3-0 lead. TE Brian Kozlowski recovered a Chargers muffed punt by Chargers WR Andre Coleman at the San Diego 23-yard line early in the second quarter, and rookie RB Tyrone Wheatley helped the Giants reach the three-yard line before QB Dave Brown scrambled in for a touchdown to give the Giants a 10-0 second quarter lead. The Chargers recovered a WR Arthur Marshall muffed punt at the Giants 16-yard line setting up a 30-yard field goal by PK John Carney. The Giants took the ensuing kickoff 71 yards to the San Diego one-yard line and Hampton scored on a one-yard run with :17 left in the half. The Giants opened the second half with a costly turnover at their own 39-yard line. WR Mike Sherrard caught a pass from Brown for a first down on third-and-two but was stripped of the ball when trying to gain extra yardage. RB Aaron Hayden cut the Chargers lead to 17-10 with an eight-yard touchdown run. The Chargers tied the game, 17-17, by putting together a 55-yard, 12-play drive in the fourth quarter that resulted in an eight-yard touchdown run by RB Rodney Culver. The Giants proceeded to drive to the San Diego 12-yard line on the following possession, but Brown's arm was hit by LB Junior Seau while attempting a pass to the end zone and S Shaun Gayle intercepted the pass and ran 99 yards for the touchdown. The Chargers added another field goal after recovering a Brown fumble at the Giants 32-yard line to drop the Giants 1995 record to 5-11.

1995 PRESEASON REVIEW

GIANTS 19, CLEVELAND 13 • August 6, at Cleveland
The Giants opened the preseason with a 19-13 victory over the Browns at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. The Giants set the tone by driving 64 yards on the opening drive before settling on a 33-yard field goal by Brad Daluiso. Daluiso connected on three more field goals to give the Giants a 12-0 lead going into the fourth quarter. Second-year RB Keith Elias led the team with 46 yards rushing on 12 carries, including a 12-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter that put the Giants in front, 19-0. Elias' scoring run was set up by a 32-yard punt return by first-year WR Gary Harrell, who finished with 55 yards on three returns. The Browns scored 13 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to cut the Giants lead to just six points with 3:50 left to play. Third-team QB Stan White, who finished four-of-four for 66 yards passing, helped run out the clock with a key 17-yard pass to TE Brian Kozlowski on third-and-five. While the offense scored on three of its first four possessions, the Giants first team defense held the Browns to just 16 rushing yards in the first half.

GIANTS 14, NEW ORLEANS 13 • August 11, at East Rutherford
The Giants overcame a 13-7 fourth quarter deficit and pulled out a 14-13 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Giants Stadium. Third-string QB Stan White connected with WR Gary Harrell for a 39-yard touchdown with 5:12 left in the game to give the Giants the win. The Giants first offensive unit struggled early in the game as QB Kent Graham, who started in place of the injured Dave Brown (bruised elbow), completed only two of 13 passes in first half action. After taking a 7-0 lead on a RB Rodney Hampton 10-yard run in the second quarter, the Saints scored on a field goal and converted a Graham interception into a touchdown for a 10-7 halftime lead. The Saints added a field goal in the third quarter before White engineered the winning drive. The Saints had a chance to win at the end of the game, but PK Cary Blanchard's 52-yard FG attempt was short. Giants RB Keith Elias had another big day rushing, gaining 77 yards on 12 carries.

GIANTS 32, JETS 31 • August 19, at East Rutherford
The Giants pulled out a 32-31 victory over the in-stadium rival New York Jets with a wild last-minute of football. The Jets overcame a 14-0 first quarter deficit and appeared to have the game won when they scored and converted a two-point play to take a 31-24 lead with just :44 left in regulation. On the ensuing drive, WR Omar Douglas scored on an 80-yard pass from QB Kent Graham with :22 left in the ballgame, and RB Keith Elias converted the two-point play to seal the victory for the Giants. Douglas showed great concentration when Graham's desperation pass was tipped by a Jets defender and he was able to make the catch and run the final 45 yards untouched. QB Dave Brown returned to action after missing the Saints game the previous week due to a bruised elbow that he suffered in the preseason-opener in Cleveland. First round draft choice RB Tyrone Wheatley made his Giants debut with a 39-yard kickoff return in the third quarter. Wheatley had three carries for two yards before leaving the game with a rib injury.

CAROLINA 6, GIANTS 3 • August 26, at Clemson, S.C.
The Giants suffered their first defeat of the preseason as the expansion Carolina Panthers prevailed, 6-3, in the rain at Clemson's Memorial Stadium. There were a total of 19 penalties, eight fumbles, five turnovers and 17 punts in the game. The Giants scored the only points in the first half when PK Brad Daluiso, who finished the preseason a perfect six-of-six on field goal attempts, connected on a 37-yarder. Giants LB Michael Brooks intercepted a QB Frank Reich pass early in the second quarter and returned it to the Carolina 37-yard line to help set up Daluiso's kick. The Giants defense held the Panthers to just 58 total yards and two first downs in the first half, but the Giants offense failed to sustain any drives. QB Stan White replaced QB Dave Brown in the middle of the second quarter after Brown was forced to leave the game with a concussion. PK John Kasay connected on field goals of 24 and 42 yards in the fourth quarter to give the Panthers the victory. Kasay's second FG was set up when DE Chad Bratzke snapped the ball over P Mike Horan's head. The Panthers recovered the ball at the Giants 30-yard line to set up the Carolina game-winning FG. RB Keith Elias led the Giants in rushing for the fourth straight game, gaining 45 yards on eight carries.

GIANTS HISTORY

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

WHY GIANTS?

After Tim Mara purchased the Giants in 1925, he decided to call his team the New York Football Giants since they played at the Polo Grounds, the same stadium as the heralded New York Giants baseball team. The baseball team got its name from all of the giant buildings that made up the city of New York. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, Mara believed that the name Giants would strike a chord with the people and help provoke interest in his football club.

Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. More than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season. Folwell left, and was replaced by Dr. Joe Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Mara lost $40,000. Earl Potteiger replaced Alexander in 1927, and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. In 1929 the 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans and turned a small profit.

1930

Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder.

1931

Center Mel Hein was signed. Steve Owen was named head coach.

1932

Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass reception champion with 21 catches.

1933

The Giants easily won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL. In the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Bears 23-21.

1934

In what has come to be known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Some of the New York players wore basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf.

1935

The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to Detroit 26-7.

1936

The first NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants' first pick in it was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finsihed with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it finished without a winning record.

1937

Seventeen rookies helped make up the twenty-five man roster in 1937. The 1937 seson also marked the debut of the now familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938
A 23-17 victory over Green Bay produced the Giants' third NFL title.

1939
Green Bay avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940
The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Tuffy Leemans was lost for the season midway through the season with a back injury. C Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing that for the tenth year in a row.

1941
In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the NFL title game.

1942
After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and a third place finish in the NFL East.

1943
With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the NFL title game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944
Luring Arnie Herber and Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern title, but lost the NFL championship game to Green Bay 14-7.

1945
The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946
Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000, but was suspended indefinitely along with teammate Merle Hapes for alleged gambling involvement.

1947
The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including an eight-game losing streak.

1948
The team's renovation movement was stepped up in 1948 when the team acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The Giants reached another milestone in their illustrious existence, and it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, Emlen Tunnell.

1949
Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the A formation to the T and it resulted in bringing the Giants back to .500 with a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with Charlie Conerly.

1950
The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference Playoff Game. It marked the first time the Giants finished above .500 since the Eastern Division Championship season of 1946.

1951
Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants' bonus pick in the draft, but was injured in the preseason and saw little action. Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952
Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894) of Los Angeles.

1953
Owens retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants' head coach.

1954
Former Giants' end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach.

1955
After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956
Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff was rookie of the year.

1957
The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games.

1958
Advancing to the NFL championship game with a playoff win over Cleveland, the Giants lost to Baltimore 23-17 in sudden death overtime.

1959
Baltimore exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960
The Giants finished an injury-plagued 1960 season with a 6-4-2 record. Head coach Jim Lee Howell announced his retirement at the end of the season and Allie Sherman was promoted to the top slot.

1961
The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained Y.A. Tittle and Del Shofner in trades. Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for Green Bay, losing 37-0.

1962
Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, Tittle, Shofner and Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Packers. Green Bay prevailed, 16-7.

1963
Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, 14-10 to Chicago's Bears.

1964
For the first time in seventeen years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965
Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 in Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York. In addition to Tittle, Andy Robustelli and Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years.

1966
The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record in the process of allowing 501 points, an NFL record at the time. Pete Gogolak became the first AFL player to cross to the NFL.

1967
Quarterback Fran Tarkenton was obtained from Minnesota.

1968
The Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as Giants coach.

1969
The Giants lost 37-14 to the New York Jets in a preseason contest. Webster replaced Sherman as head coach.

1970
Ron Johnson became the Giants' first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971
After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead. Bob Tucker became the first TE to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972
Norm Snead, obtained in the Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years.

1973
Prior to the final game of the season, Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to Minnesota to close out the year at 2-11-1. They played their late-season home games at Yale Bowl.

1974

Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants' ninth head coach. Snead was traded to San Francisco. Craig Morton was obtained from Dallas.

1975

The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for the scheduled open of Giants Stadium for the 1976 season. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976

Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977

Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978

The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of their final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979

Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980

A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, second worst in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. They did upset Dallas 38-35 after eight straight defeats. Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981

With the second selection in the draft, New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, but then obtained running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. A three-game losing streak dropped the club to 5-6, and then Simms was injured. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime victory over Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982

A wild, wooly and turbulent year which saw the NFL players' strike shorten the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night game from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout for most of the season, returning to play in just the final five games, and then on December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an all-time NFL record with 35 field goals during the year.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants won the NFC wild card playoff spot again, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second-place in the NFC East as Simms set three all-time single season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson–were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the Divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, by a 21-0 score, the toughest outing the Bears encountered in the entire playoffs. Five players—Taylor, Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall—were named to the Pro Bowl. All told, there were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set an all-time one season rushing mark with 1,336 yards plus an all-time mark for TDs in a season with 21 while Simms broke all-time club records with 40 completions in a game for 513 yards passing. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

1986

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set an all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the Super Bowl victory with an NFL all-time playoff mark of 88% passing accuracy with his 22-for-25 passing in the 39-20 title conquest of the Denver Broncos. Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and all-time attendance records were set for both home and away, as well as single game home attendance.

1987

Not exactly a year to remember. After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a final 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in this players' strike season and the replacement games which followed. Add to that a rash of injuries which sidelined no less than 11 starters at one time or another, and the fifth-place finish was the result. While the Giants had a 6-4 record after the players' strike had been settled, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

1988

The Giants bounced back from the debacle of '87 and after splitting their first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 mark into the final weekend of the season. Alas, an upset setback at the hands of the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth as well. With that final 10-6 record, the Giants' overall mark over the five past seasons reached 54-32 for a winning percentage of .628, and those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year consecutive span. RB Joe Morris set an all-time club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and WR Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' all-time rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants startled the experts by winning their second NFC East championship in four years with a final 12-4 record, after most of those experts had predicted no better than a .500 season for the club. Veteran RB Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set all-time club marks in punt returns with 582 yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards during the year. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equalled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990

The Giants began the year on a hot streak, winning their first 10 games for a solid NFC East lead, then held on to win the title with a final 13-3 record, despite losing QB Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including LB Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. The Giants also set all-time attendance records, both for season home and one-game home marks. Veteran RB Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the long-time Mara family ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, and in May, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting QB, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the rest of the campaign. Simms added his 15th all-time club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

1992

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6–10 campaign as injuries to key players hurt the team and the team's performance ultimately cost Handley his job following the season. Phil Simms regained his starting QB spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th passer in NFL history to surpass 30,000 yards passing. Jeff Hostetler then started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, LB Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, the Giants general manager George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

1993

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman did so in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league.The Giants earned a Wild Card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC Divisional Playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor will be eligible for election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame following the 1998 season.

1994

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak to close out the season with a 9-7 record. The Giants came into week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoff field. The Giants defeated the Cowboys, 15-10, but the season officially ended when the Bucs failed to defeat the Packers in a 34-19 loss. Dave Brown won the starting quaterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. RB Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in the team's history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The last time a Dan Reeves-coached team finished with a losing record was 1990 when the Denver Broncos went 5-11. Eight of the Giants' 11 losses arguably could have ended with a different result. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

GIANTS TID BIT

The Giants' first regular season game ever was played on October 11, 1925 at the Providence, R.I., Cycledrome. The Providence Steamrollers defeated the Giants, 14-0.

THE GIANTS' STADIUMS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

THE POLO GROUNDS (1925-1955)

YANKEE STADIUM (1956-1973)

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

NFC Championship
Jan. 20, 1991 at Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun... Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons which set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana which knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries to say nothing of a classic headache.

Super Bowl XXV
Jan. 27, 1991 at Tampa Stadium (73,813)

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever... Gutty Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period, leaked for a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt on the last play of the game... Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an all-time Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

'93 GIANTS 17, VIKINGS 10

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Reveiz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

THE GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

 1927 GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen was later to say. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Windy City crew. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain which set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara.

1933 Chicago Bears 23, GIANTS 21

Jack Manders opened the scoring for the Bears at Wrigley Field, before 26,000 with a 16-yard field goal in the first period to touch off 60 minutes of fireworks which kept fans standing on their chairs through most of the game. Manders kicked a 28-yard FG for a 6-0 lead in the second period before Harry Newman hit Red Badgro for a touchdown pass and a 7-6 Giant lead at the half. Manders' third FG regained the lead for the Bears, but Max Krause's TD and the conversion by Ken Strong put NY back in front 14-9. A pass from Bronko Nagurski to Bill Karr made it 16-14, Chicago, before Strong lateraled to Newman who then threw a TD pass back to Strong for a 21-16 Giant lead late in the game. The Bears bounced back to win, however, when Nagurski's jump pass to Bill Hewitt was lateraled to Karr for the game-winning touchdown.

1934 GIANTS 30, Chicago Bears 13

With the temperature at nine degrees and the Polo Grounds covered with a sheet of ice, this one became famous as the "sneakers" game when Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to open the second half with his club trailing 10-3. The Giants responded with four touchdowns which had a crowd of 35,059 roaring approval. The Bears had a string of 33 games without a defeat going into this one, but fell behind 3-0 on a 38-yard FG by Ken Strong. A TD by Nagurski and a field goal by Manders got the Bears in front 10-3 at the half, when Owen sent for the sneakers to take advantage of the slippery footing. Ahead 13-3 on another Manders' FG, the Bears were swamped in a fourth-period Giant uprising which saw Ed Danowski throw a 28-yard TD pass to Ike Frankian and Ken Strong race 42 yards for another TD just moments later for a 17-13 lead. Danowski and Strong raced for subsequent touchdowns against the stunned Bears to turn the game into a rout.

1935 Detroit Lions 26, GIANTS 7

With a crowd of about 15,000 looking on, the Lions took a 13-0 lead in the first period when Leroy "Ace" Gutowsky plunged over from the 2-yard line and Earl "Dutch" Clark shook loose on a 40-yard touchdown romp. The Giants closed the gap at 13-7 in the third period when Danowski connected with Strong for a 42-yard touchdown pass, but the Lions' defense accounted for two more scores in the final period on a blocked punt and intercepted pass. Ernie Caddel scored the first on a 4-yard slant and Buddy Parker the second on a 9-yard run.

1938 GIANTS 23, Green Bay Packers 17

A slam-bang, bruising thriller was staged for the largest crowd (48,120 at the Polo Grounds) to see a championship game up to that time. With the victory, the Giants became the first team to win the championship twice since the divisional splitup. The Giants blocked two punts early in the game, and capitalized on both with Ward Cuff kicking a 13-yard FG and Tuffy Leemans blasting over on a 6-yard plunge. Arnie Herber's 50-yard TD pass to Carl Mulleneaux got the Packers on the scoreboard, but Danowski hit Hap Barnard for a 20-yard

Victory clinched the NFL Championship; there was no championship game at that time.*

TD pass and a 16-7 lead. The Packers closed to 16-14 at halftime on Clark Hinkle's 6-yard TD, then took the lead 17-16 on Engebretsen's third-period FG. New York then stormed back to the Packer 23 from where Danowski passed to Hank Soar for the game-winning TD.

1939 Green Bay Packers 27, GIANTS 0
The Packers came up with sweet revenge in a grudge match played before 32,279 at Milwaukee's State Fair Grounds. Cold weather and a 35-MPH wind made aerial sorties a bit dubious, but Green Bay scored quickly on a 7-yard pitch from Herber to Milt Gantenbein. Engebretsen kicked a 29-yard FG in the third period for a 10-0 lead, and the Packers wrapped it up with touchdowns by Joe Laws on a 20-yard pass from Cecil Isbell, a one-yard plunge by Jankowski and Ernie Smith's 42-yard field goal.

1941 Chicago Bears 37, GIANTS 9
Attendance was only 13,341 at Wrigley Field, just two weeks after Pearl Harbor Day. The Giants led 6-3 in the first period on a Tuffy Leemans to George Franck touchdown pass of 31 yards, but the Bears scored on a pair of field goals, then broke the game wide open in the second half on touchdowns by Norm Standlee (2), George McAfee and Ken Kavanaugh.

1944 Green Bay Packers 14, GIANTS 7
The Packers took a 14-0 lead at halftime before 46,016 at the Polo Grounds on touchdowns by Ted Fritsch – the first on a 2-yard plunge and the second on a 26-yard pass from Irv Comp with Don Hutson adding the conversions. Ward Cuff scored on a 1-yard plunge on the first play of the final period for the Giants, but the Packers hung on for the triumph.

1946 Chicago Bears 24, GIANTS 14
Sid Luckman was the big man for the Bears in this win before 58,346 at the Polo Grounds. He passed for a 21-yard TD to Ken Kavanaugh to open the scoring, then ran 19 yards for a score later in the game. Dante Magnani's 19-yard pass interception accounted for the third Bear score, while the Giants hit the scoring column on touchdown passes from Frank Filchock to Frank Liebel and Steve Filipowicz.

1956 GIANTS 47, Chicago Bears 7
Fullback Mel Triplett smashed 17 yards for a TD early in the game on an icy field before a big crowd, then Ben Agajanian added a brace of field goals for a 13-0 lead. It was 34-7 at halftime as Alex Webster crashed over for a pair of touchdowns from inside the 5-yard line. Charlie Conerly's aerials brought nothing but more woe to the Bears in the second half, with Kyle Rote snaring a 9-yard TD throw and Frank Gifford a 14-yarder to close out the scoring.

1958 Baltimore Colts 23, GIANTS 17 (OT)
Some people call this the greatest game ever played, and perhaps it was for drama and its sudden-death ending. With a crowd of 64,185 on hand at Yankee Stadium, the Giants led 3-0 on a 36-yard Pat Summerall FG in the first period, with the Colts taking over 14-3 at halftime on scores by Alan Ameche from the 2-yard line and Ray Berry on a 15-yard pitch from Johnny Unitas. The Giants scored in the third period on a 1-yard plunge by Mel Triplett after an 86-yard gainer from Conerly to Rote with Webster picking up Rote's fumble.The Giants went in front 17-14 on Conerly's 15-yard TD throw to Gifford, but the Colts tied it with seven seconds to play on Steve Myrah's 13-yard FG and won in the overtime on Ameche's 1-yard plunge, the 13th play of a Colt drive.

1959 Baltimore Colts 31, GIANTS 16
A sellout crowd of 57,577 was on hand at Baltimore's Municipal Stadium for the big rematch of the divisional champions. The home crowd had plenty to cheer about in the early going as Unitas hit Lenny Moore for a 60-yard TD bomb, but the Giants surged back to stop the Colt offense. With Summerall kicking three field goals (23, 26 and 23 yards), the Giants led 9-7 going into the final period. But the Colts stormed back with a furious final period onslaught as Unitas scored on a 4-yard run, threw a 12-yard TD pass to Richardson and Johnny Sample returned an interception for another score.

1961 Green Bay Packers 37, GIANTS 0
With a crowd of 39,029 looking on in Green Bay, Paul Hornung paced the Packers to a stunning 37-0 triumph by scoring 19 points on a touchdown, three field goals and four conversions. On leave from his Army duties in Fort Riley, Kan., Hornung scored on a 6-yard slant in the second period to break a scoreless deadlock and set off a Packer splurge which accounted for 24 points in that quarter. The Giants were unable to recover from this onslaught and suffered their first shutout in nine seasons. Bart Starr's touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and a pair of Hornung field goals closed out the scoring in the second half.

1962 Green Bay Packers 16, GIANTS 7
Bitter cold weather at Yankee Stadium was no deterrent to 64,892 fans who turned out for the year's big one. As things turned out, a trio of field goals by Packer guard Jerry Kramer made the difference in a game where both defensive units turned in superlative jobs. The only Giant score was a result of defensive work when Erich Barnes blocked a Max McGee punt and reserve end Jim Collier fell on the ball in the end zone.

1963 Chicago Bears 14, GIANTS 10
The Bear defense turned the tide in this championship game, played in 10 degree weather in Wrigley Field. Taking the early lead on a 14-yard Y.A. Tittle TD pass to Frank Gifford and Don Chandler's FG, the Giants were the victims of five pass interceptions thereafter, two of which set up the Bear scores. Larry Morris swiped the first one for a return of 61 yards, while Ed O'Bradovich's steal of a screen pass set up what turned out to be the winning score. Tittle suffered a knee injury in the first half, but gallantly returned to action in the second half, though he was hampered and hobbled by his injury.

1986 GIANTS 39, Denver Broncos 20
Led by the brilliant record-setting passing of Phil Simms, the Giants won their first Super Bowl with a 30-point second-half onslaught before 101,063 spectators at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Simms pitched 22-for-25 for 268 yards and three TDs, setting an all-time NFL playoff mark of 88.0% completion and winning the MVP honors in the game. Down 10-9 at halftime, the Giants rang up 24 unanswered points to take a commanding 33-10 lead in the fourth period with Simms' TD passes going to TEs Zeke Mowatt and Mark Bavaro and to WR Phil McConkey. Linebacker Carl Banks was a star on defense with 10 solo tackles as the Giants concluded their greatest season ever with a 17-2 record.

1990 GIANTS 20, Buffalo Bills 19
The Giants won their second Super Bowl championship before 73,813 at Tampa Stadium by battling back from a 12-3 deficit in what many considered to be the best of all Super Bowls. Ahead 20-19 in the final moments of play, the Giants prevailed when Buffalo kicker Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt in the final moments of the game. QB Jeff Hostetler, replacing the injured Phil Simms during the playoffs, hit 20-for-32 for 222 yards and one TD, while the veteran RB Ottis Anderson had 102 yards rushing and one TD and won the MVP honors. The Giants set an all-time Super Bowl record for time of possession with 40:33 in their ball-control offensive game plan.

GIANTS STADIUM HISTORY

After calling four different stadiums home in their first 50 years in the National Football League, the Giants moved into Giants Stadium in 1976. The idea of playing at a stadium built in the Meadowlands first attracted the Giants attention when they realized that they could provide 15,000 more seats and help meet the increasing demands of the fans without a major switch in location. Giants Stadium is only 6.9 miles from Times Square, compared to Yankee Stadium which is 6.6.

In May of 1967, a local New Jersey newspaper first proposed the idea of building a Sports Complex. The idea of the complex could not begin until a major sports franchise could be attracted to the concept. With an aging Yankee Stadium, the Giants and the Yankees became immediate targets. The original construction idea called for separate stadiums for football and baseball with convenient parking and easy highway access just miles from New York City.

In 1970, the William Cahill administration began serious efforts to lure the Giants. On August 27, 1971, the Giants signed a 30-year lease for a 75,000-seat Stadium to be built by the 1975 season. The New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority was established by an act of the state legislature on May 10, 1971 to finance, construct and administer the complex. It was also decided that the complex would include a stadium for football and a racetrack. The Authority was granted powers through legislature to lease property, borrow money, issue bonds and conduct horse racing. To finance the complex the state was authorized to issue revenue bonds backed by the state-run racetrack proceeds. The complex was built and operated with no expense to the taxpayers.

Prior to construction of the facility, the project was hit with many obstacles. First, there were legislative disputes that resulted from objections to the complex, then environmentalists were concerned about the issue of wildlife preservations and air pollution from the increase of cars. Despite these problems, the Authority pushed the project along, hiring real estate consultants, accountants, bond attorneys and brokerage firms.

In September of 1973, New Jersey Governor-elect Brendan Byrne negotiated a new lease with the Giants, and the sale of bonds began and was completed in 1974. Simultaneous construction of the racetrack and stadium began in 1972. September 1, 1976 marked the opening of the Meadowlands racetrack. The Giants made their debut in Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

GIANTS 1996 TRAINING CAMP
THE UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

Founded in 1844 as the state's first school for the training of teachers and the oldest chartered public institution of higher education in New York, the University at Albany today is one of the top research universities in the nation. Designated as a University Center of the State University of New York, Albany has a broad mission of undergraduate and graduate education, research and public service.

Approximately 16,000 students are enrolled in eight degree-granting schools and colleges offering more than 135 academic programs from bachelor's degree through the doctorate.

Located three miles from the center of the city of Albany, the main 525-acre campus was designed by noted architect Edward Durell Stone and completed in the 1960s. Stone grouped the academic buildings in a series of quadrangles, essentially under one roof with colonnades to provide all-weather passage from one building to another. Dormitories for 6,000 students are arranged in four three-story quadrangles with a twenty-story tower in each quadrangle. The Carillon Tower, placed in a sunken plaza, is the centerpiece of the academic campus.

Albany students receive a top-quality education at a great price when they come to the University. Money Magazine has ranked Albany among the 25 "Best College Buys" in the nation.

1996 GIANTS LOGOS

1996 marks two important anniversaries in Giants history- the 40th anniversary of the 1956 championship in which the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears, 47-7, and the 10th anniversary of the Giants win over the Denver Broncos, 39-20 in Super Bowl XXI.

The anniversary logo at left was created to commemorate these two important years in Giants history.
