THE GIANTS FOUNDATION

Mission Statement

The Giants believe that the youth of today represent our communities' future. The Giants Foundation was created to act as a network for financial and social support for disadvantaged youth and their families throughout the greater metropolitan area. All grant recipients must be 501 (c) 3 charitable organizations involved in areas such as education, health and youth-related services or civic affairs. The Giants Foundation was founded by the New York Giants Football Club.

Programs

Fund Raising - The Giants raise funds through their annual Golf outing and through the sale of the Giants calendar, yearbook and other related fundraising efforts.

Giants Academy

Giants Academy is a branch of Cities in Schools, a nationally-recognized organization which is the nation's dropout prevention leader, serving over 100,000 students. Giants Academy is located in Newark, New Jersey. The Newark Public Schools and the Boys and Girls Clubs of Newark are partners with New Jersey Cities in Schools and the New York Giants. The Academy offers tutoring, mentoring, home visits, cultural and academic enrichment and other supportive services to fifty students in grades six, seven and eight. In September of 1996, the Giants Academy moved to a new home located at the Central Unit of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Newark. Giants players are invited to be role models, career mentors and tutors at the Boys and Girls Club in Newark, New Jersey.

Foundation Board

Wellington Mara (President and Co-Chief Executive Officer for the Giants), Preston Robert Tisch (Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer for the Giants), John K. Mara (Executive Vice President and General Counsel for the Giants) and Jonathan Tisch (Treasurer for the Giants).

GIANTS ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION

WELLINGTON MARA

PRESIDENT & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on October 18, 1925 when the New York Giants played their first home game against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. It was on that day that the then nine-year old Wellington T. Mara began a lifetime that has been dedicated to the Giants and the National Football League. Mara, along with Mike Haynes, Don Shula and Mike Webster, make up the 1997 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, are the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor.

Mara has been involved in every aspect of operating the Giants during his seven decades with the team, from his first job as a ballboy at training camp to the on-the-field operations to scouting and general organization, and eventually to the front office executive capacity where he now serves as President and Co-Chief Executive Officer. The only interruption in Mara's Giants career was World War II when he served with distinction for more than three years in the Navy, seeing action in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters aboard aircraft carriers and emerging as a Lieutenant Commander.

Because of his extensive background in the development and growth of the National Football League, Mara is recognized as one of the league's leaders. He has been instrumental in the outstanding accomplishments of the Giants: 16 NFL Divisional championships and six NFL championships, including the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV championship titles.

Mara has not only served the Giants admirably over the years, but he has also been a valuable contributor to league efforts, as a member of many ownership committees. From 1971 until 1977, he was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council, the labor arm of the NFL, and it was under his leadership that the league achieved five years of labor peace from 1977 to 1982. Wellington was elected President of the National Football Conference in 1984, succeeding the late George Halas in that role. Mara is currently a member of the Realignment, Hall of Fame and Player-Club Operations committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the Management Council. He also serves as President of the National Football Conference.

In 1925, Wellington's father, Timothy J. Mara, purchased the Giants franchise to establish a New York entry in the fledgling National Football League. The Mara family's presence has been constant with the Giants since Timothy Mara's purchase of the team. In addition to Timothy's and Wellington's involvement, Wellington's older brother, the late Jack Mara, served as the club's President until his death in 1965. After Jack's death, his son Tim served as Vice President and Treasurer of the team until Bob Tisch purchased the Jack Mara holdings in 1991. Today, two of Wellington's sons are important members of the organization: John Kevin as Executive Vice President and General Counsel and Frank as Director of Promotions.

Until 1965, Mara was responsible for the franchise's football decisions, while his brother Jack handled the business side of the team. A key to the Giants' championships in the late-'50s and early-'60s were trades engineered by Mara that brought Y.A. Tittle, Andy Robustelli, Del Shofner, Dick Modzelewski, Pat Summerall, Joe Walton, Dick Lynch, Erich Barnes, Bill Svoboda, Harland Svare, Bob Schnelker, Herb Rich, Ed Hughes and Walt Yowarsky, among others, to the Giants. Draft choices Frank Gifford and Rosie Brown went on to become members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, as did Tuffy Leemans, whom Wellington recommended in 1936.

Wellington T. Mara, whose nickname is "Duke," was born on August 14, 1916 in New York City. He graduated from Loyola High School before matriculating to Fordham University where he earned his degree in 1937. His brother, Jack, preceded him to Fordham University where he earned a law degree, but Wellington was only interested in joining his father with the Giants and did so immediately after graduation. He has been with the organization ever since.

Wellington married the former Ann Mumm in 1954 and the Maras have 11 children: John Kevin, 42; Susan Ann, 41; Timothy Christopher, 40; Stephen Vincent, 38; Francis Xavier, 37; Shelia Marie, 35; Kathleen Mary, 34; Maureen Elizabeth, 32; Ann Marie, 30; Meghan Ann, 26; and Colleen Elizabeth, 24. The Maras, who reside in Rye, New York, also have 30 grandchildren.

PRESTON ROBERT TISCH

CHAIRMAN & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

For Preston Robert Tisch, it was a dream come true in 1991, when he became Co-Owner of one of New York City's premier sports franchises, the New York Giants. It was following the Giants Super Bowl XXV victory that he completed negotiations with Tim Mara and his family for a 50% interest in the team. Thus he began his career as an owner of a professional sports franchise -- only one of many careers he simultaneously pursues.

At Loews Corporation, one of the country's most successful financial companies, Mr. Tisch serves as Co-Chairman, Co-Chief Executive Officer and a Director. The Company, with 1996 revenues of $20 billion and assets exceeding $67 billion, owns and operates hotels and resorts through Loews Hotels; owns 84% of CNA Financial Corporation; and owns Bulova Corporation, Lorillard Tobacco Company and Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc.

The company's history dates back to a summer camp in New Jersey run by Mr. Tisch and his brother Laurence, followed by the purchase of a hotel in Lakewood, New Jersey and the formation of Tisch Hotels, Inc.

In 1959, the Tisch brothers bought controlling interest in Loews Theaters, Inc., a real estate-rich theatre chain. In 1971, after Loews acquired Lorillard Tobacco, its name was changed to Loews Corporation.

Mr. Tisch served as Postmaster General of the United States from August 1986 until returning to New York in March 1988. Prior to his appointment as Postmaster, he served as President and Chief Operating Officer of Loews Corporation and its corporate predecessor, Loews Theatres, Inc., a position held from 1960 until his appointment as Co-Chairman and Co-CEO.

Throughout his career, Tisch has been active in civic affairs. Prior to being named Postmaster General, he served as Chairman of the New York Convention & Visitors Bureau for 19 years and currently serves as the Bureau's Chairman Emeritus. He was also founding Chairman of the New York City Convention and Exhibition Center Corporation and Chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Conventions held in New York City in 1976 and 1980.

In May 1990, Mayor David Dinkins appointed Tisch New York City's Ambassador to Washington. Through 1993, he served as a liaison between the City of New York and his friends and colleagues in both the national government in Washington and the business community in New York City.

From 1990-1993, Tisch served as Chairman of the New York City Partnership, Inc. and the New York Chamber of Commerce and Industry, where he was instrumental in developing a campaign to enhance New York's position as an international business center. He remains an active member of both organizations, where he continues to serve on their Boards of Directors. A founding Co-Chairman of Citymeals-on-Wheels, he became President of the Board of Directors in September 1993.

Tisch currently serves on the Board of Directors of Hasbro, Inc. He was also re-elected to the Board of Rite Aid Corporation, and renamed a Trustee of New York University. Tisch serves as Chairman of the United States Capitol Preservation Commission which raises funds for the restoration and renovation of the Capitol. He also served on the organizing committee for the 1990 Economic Summit of Industrialized Nations held in Houston.

In addition to these involvements, Mr. Tisch makes considerable time for the Giants. In his role as Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, he visits his office at Giants Stadium each week, without fail, and attends every game, both home and away. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he's attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

Mr. Tisch was born in New York City. He attended Bucknell University before entering the Army in 1944. After military service in World War II, he earned a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Michigan in 1948. Mr. Tisch is married to the former Joan Hyman, and they have three children: Steven, Laurie and Jonathan, who is Treasurer for the Giants. Mr. Tisch lives with his wife in New York City and Rye, New York.

JOHN K. MARA
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL COUNSEL

John K. Mara, the oldest son of team President Wellington Mara, begins his seventh season with the Giants after joining the club in 1991 as Executive Vice President and General Counsel. In his present position, Mara is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization and reports directly to the Co-Chief Executive Officers, Wellington Mara and Preston Robert Tisch.

Mara was born in New York City on December 1, 1954, grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in Marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. John earned his Law Degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the firm of Shea & Gould in Manhattan where he continued until April 1991 when he joined the Giants.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, 16; Courtney, 14; John Jr., 13; Christine, 11; and Erin, 7. The Mara family resides in Harrison, New York.

JONATHAN M. TISCH
TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch joined the Giants in February 1991 and immediately began his role as Treasurer. In addition to serving on the Giants Board of Directors, Tisch serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer for Loews Hotels.

During his tenure, Tisch has been instrumental in overseeing the company's growth and subsequent emergence as one of the leading luxury hotel chains. Blending a cutting edge approach to marketing and operations, with a conservative development philosophy, he has become recognized as one of the industry's leading authorities. As a result, he has received numerous honors and accolades, for both his dedication to the travel industry, as well as for his commitment to social responsibilty and community outreach.

Most recently, he was inducted into the Convention Liaison Council's "Hall of Leaders," and was also named as one of the "25 Most Influential People in the Meetings Industry" by Meeting News Magazine. He has been named one of the "Business Travel Industry's Most Influential Executives" by Business Travel News three times, as well as one of Crain's New York business magazine's "All Stars."

Underscoring his presence as an industry leader, Tisch has been an officer of the American Hotel & Motel Association since 1992, culminating in his Chairmanship of the organization in 1997. In conjunction with the first-ever White House Conference on Travel and Tourism, held October 1995, Tisch co-chaired the Promotions Committee. He currently serves on The White House Conference on Travel and Tourism Implementation Team, a public/private partnership that is spearheading the development of a new United States National Tourism Organization (USNTO) to replace the United States Travel and Tourism Administration (USTTA). Tisch is also Chairman of the "Travel Business Roundtable" -- a coalition of chief executives representing various sectors of the travel industry, and a member of the Travel Industry Association of America (TIA) Government Affairs Council.

Actively involved in several community and philanthropic activities, Tisch serves on the Board of Directors for Tufts University, the Robert Steel Foundation for Pediatric Cancer Research at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, and the Pediatric AIDS Foundation. Previously, he had served on the Dean's Advisory Council for the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University.

A graduate of Tufts University, Tisch's affection for the television and film industry traces back to working as a Cinematographer/Producer at WBZ-TV in Boston where he received two Emmy Nominations.

GEORGE YOUNG
VICE-PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

George Young has created a lasting impact on the Giants since being named General Manager on Valentine's Day, 1979. Prior to his assuming the stewardship, the Giants had not been in NFL postseason play since the 1963 season, a 15-year famine at the time. Since he instituted his reconstruction policies, the Giants have won two Super Bowl championships and have been to the NFL playoffs seven times while missing out on an eighth playoff season in the final game of the strike-shortened 1982 campaign and again in 1988 and 1994. The Giants' back-to-back winning playoff seasons in 1984 and 1985 also marked the first time that the club had achieved postseason play in consecutive years in 22 seasons. Young, who is heading into his 19th season at the helm of the Giants football operation, has been named the National Football League's Executive of the Year an unprecedented four times, winning the award in 1984, 1986, 1990 and 1993. Young currently serves as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee.

In building the Giants, Young has placed special emphasis on the draft. From his inaugural draft in 1979 through the 1995 selection process, Young has succeeded in signing every player drafted over that span, and from those drafts, a total of 119 players made the club at one time or another. Young's Giants draft list includes Pro Bowlers Lawrence Taylor, Phil Simms, Leonard Marshall, Mark Bavaro, Rodney Hampton and John Elliott. Over that same span, 22 of those drafted players were named to the All-NFL Rookie team, including 1993's eighth round draft choice LB Jessie Armstead and 1994 second round pick CB Thomas Randolph.

Prior to being named GM by the Giants, Young had spent 11 years in the NFL with the Baltimore Colts and Miami Dolphins. During his tenure with those two clubs, Young was closely associated with Don Shula at both franchises and served in a variety of capacities. He was initially brought into the Colts organization in 1968 by Shula as an assistant in the Personnel Department, then two years later was named offensive line coach with that Colts team going all the way to the Super Bowl and scoring a 16-13 win over the Dallas Cowboys. In 1971, Young was named Director of Player Personnel and then in 1973 was named Offensive Coordinator of the Colts by Howard Schnellenberger. A year later, Young rejoined Shula with the Miami Dolphins as Director of Personnel and Pro Scouting.

George Bernard Young was born on September 22, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland, and was an outstanding football player at Calvert Hall High School in Baltimore. He went on to Bucknell University where he was a starting defensive tackle for three seasons, team captain in 1951 and was named to the Little All-America first team and All-East first team in his senior year. Selected to play in the Blue-Gray game, he was then drafted by the Dallas Texans and played in professional football for one year.

Young then began a coaching career in the Baltimore school system at Calvert Hall and City College High School and over a 15-year span won six Maryland state championships and had a 60-11-2 record during one stretch. Additionally, Young was an educator while coaching in Baltimore, teaching History and Political Science. During that teaching career, George also earned two Master's degrees from John Hopkins University and Loyola College. He was further honored in May, 1987 when he was awarded an honorary Doctorate in Humane Letters from Western Maryland College. George and his wife, Mary Love, reside in Upper Saddle River, New Jersey.

COACHING STAFF

JIM FASSEL
HEAD COACH

Jim Fassel was introduced by general manager George Young on January 15, 1997 as the 15th head coach in Giants history. Fassel spent two seasons as an assistant coach here, first as quarterbacks coach in 1991, then as offensive coordinator in 1992.

In explaining the hiring at a crowded Giants Stadium press conference, Young explained how Fassel was the best man for the job.

"I feel very confident that we have the right coach for the right spot in the right town," Young said. "It addresses an obvious concern for our team. We've been having trouble with offense; we feel our material is a little stronger in that spot. He brings us great experience in that area."

Following his service with the Giants, Fassel spent two campaigns as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos in 1993 and 1994. He spent the 1995 season as quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders and was the offensive coordinator and the quarterbacks coach for the Arizona Cardinals last season.

Fassel, who brings 24 years of coaching experience to the Giants, has been credited with an ability to develop quarterbacks. Under Fassel's guidance, Broncos quarterback John Elway enjoyed his finest season as a pro in 1993, earning honors that included the American Football Conference player-of-the-year and most valuable player. Elway was the starting quarterback in the Pro Bowl and led the AFC in all six major passing categories. The Broncos offense ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL and scored 373 points to rank first in the conference and third in the league. Last season with the Cardinals, Fassel helped tutor former Giants quarterback Kent Graham into a solid player and helped rejuvenate veteran Boomer Esiason. The Cardinals finished sixth in passing offense in 1996.

"I am excited and honored about this opportunity," said Fassel on his arrival to the Giants. "This is an organization that I know a lot about and have a great deal of respect for. I think this is one of the better run organizations in professional sports."

A former collegiate quarterback, Fassel began coaching in 1973 at his alma mater,

Fullerton College, then was a player-coach for the Hawaii Hawaiians of the World Football League in 1974. He coached quarterbacks and receivers at Utah in 1976, then served seven seasons as offensive coordinator at both Weber State (1977-78) and Stanford (1979-83). At Stanford, Fassel was credited with recruiting and coaching Elway, who finished second in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy as a senior in 1982.

Fassel entered the pro arena in 1984 as offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Breakers of the USFL, then returned to Utah as the school's head coach from 1985-89 where he recruited and coached current Detroit Lions quarterback Scott Mitchell. En route to the NFL under Fassel's tutelage, Mitchell set 10 NCAA and five additional Western Athletic Conference records in addition to virtually every school passing record.

A native of Anaheim, California, Fassel was a standout quarterback at Anaheim High School before leading Fullerton College to a 25-1 record over two seasons and winning the junior college national championship in 1967. He also played collegiately at Southern California with Green Bay Packers head coach Mike Holmgren and at Long Beach State.

He was drafted by Chicago in the seventh round of the 1972 NFL Draft and played briefly with the Chicago Bears, Houston Oilers and San Diego Chargers.

Born August 31, 1949 in Anaheim, California, Fassel and his wife, Kitty, have four children, John (1-10-74), Brian (12-22-75), Jana (10-31-78) and Mike (6-19-81). John is a junior quarterback at Weber State.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN FOX

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

John Fox was named defensive coordinator by head coach Jim Fassel on January 22, 1997. Fox comes to the Giants after spending two seasons as defensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders. Under Fox's leadership, the Raiders finished 10th in total defense in 1994 and 11th in 1995. Fox left the Raiders prior to the start of the 1996 season and worked as a consultant for the St. Louis Rams last season. Fassel worked with Fox in 1995 when Fassel was the quarterbacks coach for Oakland.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Fox was the defensive backs coach for the San Diego Chargers in 1992 and 1993. Fox entered the NFL as secondary coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989 through 1991. The Steelers had the NFL's top-ranked pass defense in 1990 under Fox's leadership.

Fox came to the Steelers after three years as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1986 through 1988. The Panthers' pass defense had a top-ten national ranking each of his three seasons there.

Fox began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at San Diego State in 1978 before becoming an assistant coach at United States International University in San Diego in 1979. He also coached the secondary at Boise State (1980), Long Beach State (1981), Utah (1982), Kansas (1983) and Iowa State (1984).

He entered the professional coaching ranks in 1985, coaching the defensive backs for the USFL's Los Angeles Express. He returned to the collegiate level that fall on the staff at Kansas before heading to Pittsburgh.

Fox was born on February 8, 1955 in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He grew up in the San Diego area and attended Castle Park High in Chula Vista. He went on to play two years at Southwestern Junior College in Chula Vista (1974-75) before finishing his career as a defensive back at San Diego State from 1976-1977. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a secondary education teaching credential in 1977.

JIM SKIPPER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS

Jim Skipper was named offensive coordinator and running backs coach by Jim Fassel on January 23, 1997. Skipper comes to the Giants after spending the 1996 season as the Arizona Cardinals running backs coach. Prior to joining the Arizona staff, Skipper served as running backs coach for the New Orleans Saints for ten seasons (1986-95).

"In working with Jim in Arizona, I am impressed with his overall feel for the offense," said Fassel. "He is a detailed, organized planner and we worked well together with the Cardinals. He knows the offensive system we are going to install, and I am comfortable and confident in our relationship as it relates to the direction of the offense."

Skipper coached Pro Bowl FB Larry Centers in Arizona last season. While in New Orleans, Skipper tutored two Pro Bowlers, Reuben Mays and Dalton Hilliard. Skipper opened his coaching dossier with one season at the high school level in 1973 before stops at Cal Poly-Pomona (1974-76) and San Jose State (1977-78) as defensive backs coach. He moved to offense as running backs coach at Pacific in 1979 and then coached the running backs at Oregon from 1980-82. Skipper entered the professional coaching ranks as running backs coach for the USFL Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars from 1983-85.

Born January 23, 1949, Skipper and his wife, Elmarie, have three sons, Kelly, Timmy and Courtney. Kelly, currently running backs coach at Fresno State, remains the school's fifth-ranked all-time leading rusher. Timmy, a linebacker, accepted a scholarship offer at Fresno State. Skipper and son Kelly both have coached Saints running back Lorenzo Neal.

Skipper holds a bachelor 's degree in physical education from Whittier College.

DAVE BRAZIL

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dave Brazil joined the Giants staff in the spring of 1992 as the team's linebackers coach. When Dan Reeves came to the Giants in January of 1993, Brazil was retained as the defensive quality control coach. Head coach Jim Fassel retained Brazil in the same capacity. Brazil and Fassel coached together on Ray Handley's staff in 1992. Defensive coordinator John Fox served as secondary coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers while Brazil was the Steelers' defensive coordinator in 1990 and 1991.

Prior to coming to the Giants, Brazil was defensive coordinator of the Steelers in 1990 and 1991 after joining Chuck Noll's coaching staff in Pittsburgh as linebackers coach in 1989. Brazil's 1990 Steelers defense finished first in the NFL, allowing the fewest overall yards and fewest passing yards in the league. From 1984 through the 1988 season Brazil was a member of the Kansas City Chiefs coaching staff as secondary and then linebackers coach.

Before joining the NFL in 1984, Brazil was defensive coordinator at Kent State (1981-1982) and Boston College (1980). Brazil's first pro coaching experience was in the World Football League with the Detroit Wheels (1974) and the Chicago Wind (1975). Prior to joining the pro ranks, Brazil coached at Eastern Michigan (1971-1973), Tulsa (1969-1970) and Holy Cross (1968).

Brazil was born in Detroit, Michigan on March 25, 1936. He graduated from the University of Detroit with a business administration degree. He and his wife Bridget have six children: daughters Kathleen and Mary Ann and sons Michael, Daniel, Thomas and Patrick, who works with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Assistant Video Director.

ROD DOWHOWER

QUARTERBACKS

Rod Dowhower joined the Giants staff as quarterbacks coach on January 29, 1997. Dowhower spent 15 years coaching in the National Football League before taking over as head coach of Vanderbilt University for the 1995 and 1996 seasons.

Dowhower's coaching history includes stops with some of the NFL's most inovative coaches, such as Joe Gibbs, Bill Walsh and Don Coryell. He began his coaching career in 1973 as an assistant under Coryell with the St. Louis Cardinals and later had stints with Denver (1980-81) and Atlanta (1987-89) as offensive coordinator. He was head coach of the Indianapolis Colts from 1985-86.

On the collegiate level, Dowhower served as head coach at Stanford in 1979, where he worked with Jim Fassel, and had other college coaching assignments at San Diego State (1966-72), UCLA (1974-75), Boise State (1976) and Stanford (1977-78) with Walsh.

Dowhower was hired by Joe Gibbs in 1990 as quarterbacks coach of the Washington Redskins and helped shape the Redskins' offense into a 1991 Super Bowl champion when they scored a league-high 485 points. He served as quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns before taking the Vanderbilt job. Professionally, he has directed such quarterbacks as Craig Morton, Jim Hart, Neil Lomax, Mark Rypien and Vinny Testaverde.

Born April 15, 1943 in Ord, Nebraska, Dowhower played his collegiate ball as a quarterback at San Diego State. Dowhower and his wife Nancy have two sons, Brian and Deron. Brian is a Washington and Lee Law School graduate, while Deron is a pitcher in the Minnesota Twins organization.

JOHN DUNN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

John Dunn joined Jim Fassel's coaching staff on January 23, 1997 as strength and conditioning coach. Dunn comes to the Giants after serving in the same capacity for the San Diego Chargers from 1990-96 and the Los Angeles Raiders from 1987-89. Dunn began his career in the NFL as an assistant strength coach with the Washington Redskins from 1984-86.

In 1994 Dunn was voted the National Football League's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by his peers.

Dunn graduated with a degree in health and physical education from Penn State University in 1978. He played defensive line his first two seasons (1974-75) before switching to offensive tackle as a junior and then to guard as a senior. He was named offensive co-captain for the Nittany Lions his senior season. Dunn signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978. He returned to Penn State as the team's assistant offensive line coach in 1979.

He operated "Mother Dunn's Nautilus Club" in York, Pa., and Goshen, New York, before coming to the NFL in 1984.

Dunn was born on July 22, 1956 in Hillsdale, New York. He was a three-sport star, including a nationally-ranked shot putter, for Taconic Hills High in Philmont, New York. Dunn and his wife, Julia, have two daughters, Jessica and Taylor. He was nicknamed "Mother Dunn" during his freshman season at Penn State.

MIKE GILLHAMER

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Mike Gillhamer joined the Giants staff as offensive quality control coach on February 24, 1997. He came to the Giants after spending the 1996 season as defensive backs coach at Rutgers University.

Prior to his stint with the Scarlet Knights, Gillhamer was defensive coordinator for the University of Nevada in 1995 after serving the 1994 season as Nevada's defensive backs coach. He also coached the defensive backs at San Jose State (1990-93), the University of Utah (1985-89) and Weber State (1984). Jim Fassel was head coach during Gillhamer's tenure at Utah. His collegiate coaching career began with a five-year stay at the College of the Sequois (Visalia, CA) from 1979-83. In 1979 he coached the defensive line and from 1980-83 he was the defensive secondary coach. He received a degree in physical education from Humboldt State and a master's degree in special education. In 1988, he served as the "guest" assistant coach with the Ottawa Rough Riders in the Canadian Football League.

He was a four-year player at Humbolt State and was named most valuable defensive back in 1975. Gillhamer and his wife, Tammy, have two daughters, Meagen (6) and Taylor (3).

MIKE HALUCHAK

LINEBACKERS

Mike Haluchak joined head coach Jim Fassel's staff as linebackers coach on January 31, 1997. Haluchak joins the Giants after serving three seasons (1994-96) as linebackers coach for the Washington Redskins. He joined the Redskins following two seasons in Cincinnati (1992-93), six seasons in San Diego (1986-91) and three years with the USFL's Oakland Invaders (1983-85).

Haluchak coached seven years at the collegiate level, coaching linebackers at North Carolina State (1982), California (1981) and Pacific (1979-80). He was the defensive backfield coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1978 and was a graduate assistant at USC in 1976 and 1977.

Haluchak had a four-year playing career at USC where he started at inside linebacker and later moved to strong safety. He played in the 1969 and 1970 Rose Bowl games against Ohio State and Michigan.

He received a degree in history from USC and a master's degree in secondary education from California Lutheran College.

Haluchak was born November 28, 1949 in Concord, Ca. His wife's name is Carol.

MILT JACKSON

WIDE RECEIVERS

Head coach Jim Fassel named Milt Jackson wide receivers coach on January 29, 1997. Jackson joins the Giants staff after serving three seasons (1994-96) as assistant head coach and wide receivers coach for the Atlanta Falcons. Jackson served as wide receivers coach for the Rams (1992-93), Colts (1989-91), Oilers (1986-88), running backs coach for the Eagles (1985), wide receivers coach for the Bills (1983-84) and wide receivers and special teams coach for the 49ers (1980-82).

Under Jackson's leadership, the 1995 Falcons boasted three wide receivers that gained over 1,000 yards. The '95 Falcons are joined by the 1980 Chargers and the 1989 Redskins as the only teams to ever accomplish this feat.

Jackson spent seven seasons in the college ranks, beginning with Oregon State (1973) and Rice (1974). He then moved to the University of California (1975-76), University of Oregon (1977-78), and UCLA (1979) before joining the 49ers.

Jackson, who attended Tulsa University, was drafted in the seventh round by the 49ers as a defensive back and in the first round by baseball's Philadelphia Phillies as a pitcher in 1967. He opted for football and spent the 1967 season on the 49ers taxi squad.

Jackson and his wife, Brenda, have three children, Garrett, Stephen II, and Jeremy. He earned his B.A. degree from Sacramento State University and his master's from Oregon State University.

JOHNNIE LYNN

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Johnnie Lynn joined the Giants staff on January 31, 1997 as defensive backs coach. He comes to the Giants following a stint with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach. Lynn served in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and 1995.

Lynn spent seven seasons in the collegiate coaching ranks at Arizona, beginning as a graduate assistant in 1987, before tutoring the outside linebackers (1988-91) and defensive backs (1992-93).

Lynn was a standout defensive back at both safety and cornerback in the NFL for eight seasons as a member of the New York Jets (1979-86) following his fourth-round draft selection out of UCLA. He earned a starting position as a rookie and concluded his career No. 10 on the Jets career list with 17 interceptions. He was a letterman on four UCLA bowl teams and received All-Pac 10 Honors as a senior. Lynn earned a bachelor's degree in history from UCLA.

Born December 19, 1956 in Los Angeles, Lynn and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of three children, Ashley, Chazz and Cameron.

LARRY MAC DUFF

SPECIAL TEAMS

After serving as defensive coordinator for the University of Arizona since 1987, Larry Mac Duff was named special teams coach for the Giants on January 23, 1997.

Under Mac Duff's leadership, the Arizona defense has been rated in the statistical top 10 four times. His units at Arizona have produced five Pac-10 Defensive Players of the Year. In 1992, Arizona's defense led the nation in scoring defense (8.9 pts./game) and in 1993, it was No. 1 in rushing defense, allowing just 30.1 yards per game. During Mac Duff's tenure at Arizona, the Wildcats appeared in five Bowl games, including a 29-0 victory over Miami in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl.

Prior to joining Arizona, Mac Duff spent three seasons (1983-86) as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator for the University of Hawaii. Mac Duff coached linebackers at Fullerton JC in 1970, was line coach and defensive coordinator at Sunny Hills High in 1971-73 and was defensive line coach and linebackers coach at Fullerton from 1974-1979. He moved to Stanford as defensive line coach in 1980-81 and 1983, and was defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach in 1982.

Mac Duff was a two-time all-conference defensive end at Fullerton JC and led Fullerton to a 12-0 record and national title in 1967. He was conference player of the year in 1967 and earned All-America honors. Mac Duff was a starter at Oklahoma and helped the Sooners earn a Big Eight co-championship in 1968.

Mac Duff received a degree in physical education from Oklahoma in 1970 and a master's in physical education from Fullerton. He was born June 22, 1948, in Clinton, Iowa. He and his wife, Barbie have a son Justin.

DENNY MARCIN

DEFENSIVE LINE

Denny Marcin was named defensive line coach by Jim Fassel on February 10, 1997. Marcin joins the Giants staff after spending the last nine seasons as defensive line coach at the University of Illinois. In addition to his defensive line responsibilities, he spent four seasons (1992-95) as defensive coordinator before being named assistant head coach for the 1996 season.

Marcin served as defensive coordinator at North Carolina from 1978-1987, after which he also added the duties of assistant head coach. During his ten years at North Carolina, the Tar Heels had 24 defensive players move on to the National Football League, including former Giant Lawrence Taylor. At the conclusion of the 1981 season, North Carolina was ranked No. 1 in the nation in total defense.

Prior to his ten-year stay at North Carolina, Marcin was an assistant coach at Miami of Ohio from 1974-1977. He served as defensive coordinator in 1977.

A 1964 graduate of Miami of Ohio, Marcin earned a B.S. in education. He was a member of the Redskins, playing on both the offensive and defensive lines.

Marcin was instrumental in the development of two former Illinois players that were selected in the first round of the 1996 draft - Simeon Rice of the Arizona Cardinals and Kevin Hardy of the Jacksonville Jaguars. Marcin also aided in the development of Moe Gardner, a two-time all-american and a 1991 4th round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Marcin and his wife, Betsey, have four children, Jeff, Denny, Melinda and Susie, and a grandson, Carlton.

JOHN MATSKO

OFFENSIVE LINE

John Matsko was named offensive line coach by Jim Fassel on January 23, 1997. Matsko served as offensive line coach for the New Orleans Saints for the last three seasons (1994-96), where he coached Pro Bowl T William Roaf. In the category of least amount of sacks allowed, Matsko's units finished seventh in 1994 and 1995 and third in 1996. He came to the Saints after a two-year stint with the Phoenix Cardinals (1992-93). Under Matsko, the Cardinals' rushing offense improved from a 26th NFL ranking in 1991, the year before his arrival, to 11th in 1993.

A graduate of Kent State, where he played fullback, Matsko started his coaching career in 1973 at his alma mater. He served as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio) for the next two seasons before taking a job as head coach at Danbury High School in Lakeside-Marblehead, Ohio in 1976. After one year in the high school ranks, Matsko returned to Miami in 1977 as offensive line coach.

Following his Miami tenure, Matsko spent the next seven seasons (1978-84) as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of North Carolina. After a stop at the Naval Academy (1985), Matsko went to the University of Arizona as offensive line coach in 1986, and followed head coach Larry Smith to USC the next year. He served with the Trojans through 1991 and spent his last three years as USC's offensive coordinator. Matsko coached NFL first-round draft choices Brian Blados (Cincinnati, 1984), Harris Barton (San Francisco, 1987), Dave Cadigan (Jets, 1988), Pat Harlow (New England, 1991) and Tony Boselli (Jacksonville, 1995).

Born February 2, 1951 in Cleveland, Ohio, Matsko earned his bachelor's degree in business education in 1973, and his master's from Miami, Ohio in 1976. Matsko and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Marie and Lizzi, and two sons, John and Michael.

Dick Rehbein originally joined the Giants staff in February 1992 as the team's tight ends coach. When Dan Reeves took over the team in January of 1993, Rehbein was given the assignment of coaching the wide receivers. Rehbein, who coached with Jim Fassel in 1992 under Ray Handley's regime, will be retained and assigned to coach the tight ends.

Rehbein joined the Giants after spending eight seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (1984-91). While with Minnesota, Rehbein was a special assistant in 1984, receivers coach from 1985 through 1988 and assistant offensive coordinator/passing game coach from 1989 through 1991. Prior to his Minnesota experience, Rehbein was special teams coach and assistant offensive line coach of the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in 1984. Before that, he was special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1979 through 1983.

A four-year starter as a center at Ripon College in Wisconsin, Rehbein was a Division II All-American who went to training camp with the Green Bay Packers in 1977.

Rehbein, 41, was born on November 22, 1955 in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Rehbein and his wife Pam have two daughters, Betsy and Sarah.

CRAIG STODDARD

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Craig Stoddard joined the Giants coaching staff on February 1, 1997 as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach. Stoddard comes to the Giants after spending the last two seasons as a graduate assistant strength coach on Joe Paterno's staff at Penn State. The Nittany Lions advanced to the Fiesta Bowl in 1995 and the Outback Bowl in 1996 during his tenure at Penn State.

After graduating with a degree in Exercise Science from Springfield College in 1994, Stoddard interned under strength coach John Dunn with the San Diego Chargers during the 1994 season. He served as Fitness Director at New Canaan High School in Connecticut prior to joining the Penn State staff. Stoddard was a middle linebacker at Springfield College where he earned four varsity letters.

Originally from Brookfield, Connecticut, Stoddard was born in North Terrytown, New York on February 8, 1972.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

ERNIE ACCORSI

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Since beginning his NFL career with the Baltimore Colts in 1970, Ernie Accorsi has worked in virtually every phase of the football business. Accorsi was brought to the New York Giants on July 6, 1994 to assist George Young with the football operations.

Most recently in the NFL, Accorsi was Executive Vice President/Football Operations for the Cleveland Browns from 1985 until he resigned in 1992. During that time, the Browns made five consecutive playoff appearances, including three appearances in the AFC Championship Game. With the Browns, Accorsi was responsible for player acquisitions through the draft and trades and player-related movements. He handled all player contract negotiations and supervised the Browns player personnel department.

After serving as the Colts public relations director for five years, Accorsi worked on Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff in the NFL office as Assistant to the President of the National Football Conference in 1975 and 1976. He returned to the Colts in 1977 as the team's assistant general manager. He later became the Colts last general manager in Baltimore for two years, 1982 and 1983, prior to joining the Browns organization.

After leaving the Browns, Accorsi served as a special advisor to Maryland Governor William Donald Schaefer on NFL expansion. In that capacity, he was responsible for selling all 100 sky suites for the proposed NFL football stadium, as well as all 7,500 club seats. The sky suites were sold out in six weeks, while the club seating sold out in eight weeks. In addition, he also raised commitments of $51 million for Baltimore's Expansion Efforts Premium Seating Campaign.

Immediatly before joining the Giants Accorsi was Executive Director of Business Affairs for the Baltimore Orioles.

A 1963 graduate of Wake Forest University, Accorsi has worked as a sports writer for the Charlotte News, Baltimore Sun and Philadelphia Inquirer. He has also worked in the sports information departments at St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia and Penn State University. Accorsi has three children: sons Michael, a former graduate assistant under George Welsh at the University of Virginia and currently a member of the athletic staff at the University of Maryland, and Patrick, a student at the University of Kentucky; and a daughter Sherlyn, a graduate of Penn State University.

HARRY HULMES

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

With 40 years of professional football experience to his credit, Hulmes brings a wealth of NFL knowledge to the Giants. The veteran NFL executive joined the Giants in 1984 as the team's Assistant General Manager.

Prior to being named by the Giants, Hulmes had served as Chief Operating Officer for the Arizona Wranglers of the USFL, but virtually all of his previous experience was within the NFL where he served for 12 years with the Baltimore Colts and 13 years with the New Orleans Saints in a variety of positions.

Hulmes began his career in sports with the Baltimore Orioles as assistant business manager, then was the sports information director at Bucknell University before entering the NFL as business manager of the Colts in 1958. He subsequently served as public relations director and general manager of the Colts before moving to the Saints in 1970 as assistant general manager. Until he departed for the Wranglers in 1982, Hulmes also served the Saints as Director of Player Personnel and Vice President of Administration.

After graduating from Northeast High School in Philadelphia, Hulmes spent three years in the Navy as a radarman in the South Pacific and Persian Gulf theaters. Hulmes earned a B.A. degree in journalism and psychology at the University of Pennsylvania after returning from the service.

Born on July 20, 1927 in Philadelphia, Hulmes is married to the former Barbara Lockhart of Mount Holly, N.J. and is the father of two daughters, Linda Ann and Terry Ellen, both graduates of LSU, and a son, Richard Wayne, also a graduate of LSU.

TOM BOISTURE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

After serving for 10 years as a scout, chief scout and in the personnel department for the New England Patriots, Tom Boisture joined the Giants in the spring of 1980 as Director of Player Personnel.

Boisture began his coaching career at Austin Catholic H.S. in Detroit where he was head football coach, then continued as a head coach at St. Ambrose H.S. in Detroit. He moved into the collegiate ranks at the University of Houston as an assistant coach for offensive backs then moved on to Holly Cross College in 1966 as Defensive Coordinator. He was named head coach at Holy Cross in 1967 and upset Yale in his first game as head coach — the only defeat Yale was to suffer in three years. In 1969, Boisture moved on to Tulsa University as Defensive Coordinator, and in 1970 he moved into the NFL with New England as a scout.

Born March 23, 1931 in Detroit, Boisture played his high school sports at Holy Redeemer H.S. in Detroit then won three varsity letters as both an offensive and defensive lineman at Mississippi State where he earned a B.S. degree in Education and History.

Boisture is married to the former Dolores Ann Kenney of Detroit and has five children: daughters Susan Ann, Deborah Lynn and Nancy Ann, and sons David and Michael. He and his wife reside in Little Ferry, N.J.

TIM ROONEY

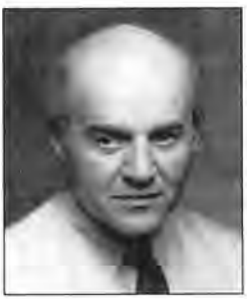

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Rooney, a member of the highly-respected Rooney family from Pittsburgh, joined the Giants in February of 1985 as Director of Pro Personnel.

Prior to joining the Giants, Rooney spent six seasons as the Player Personnel Director for the Detroit Lions. He was the Director of Pro Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1972-1979 during the Steelers ascendancy to Super Bowl champion status.

Rooney earned a degree in Education and English from Duquesne University, then began a coaching career at Canevin H.S. in Pittsburgh. Four years later, he became an assistant coach at Villanova, moved to Rhode Island University, and then back to Villanova as an assistant coach and recruiting director before joining the Steelers.

A nephew of Art Rooney, the founder of the Steelers, Tim and his wife, Mary Ann, are the parents of a son, Michael, 21, a senior at the University of Alabama, and daughter, Sarah, 20, a junior at Boston College, and reside in HoHoKus, N.J.

RICK DONOHUE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Donohue begins his fourth season as Assistant Director of Player Personnel after spending 10 years as a scout. He originally joined the Giants in August of 1983 after serving in coaching capacities on both the collegiate and high school levels.

Donohue played his scholastic sports at Dewitt Clinton High School in the Bronx. He earned a B.S. degree in Education from the University of Dayton, then continued at Michigan State University in Educational Administration. He began his coaching career as a head football coach at Buckeye H.S. in Rushsylvania, Ohio, then was a coach and science teacher at Bellefontaine H.S. in Bellefontaine, Ohio before entering the collegiate ranks as a freshman football coach at Michigan State. He then served as a defensive coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, secondary coach at C.W. Post College, and freshman coach, assistant varsity coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University before joining the Giants as a scout.

Donohue and his wife Elaine reside in Washington Township, N.J.

JERRY SHAY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Shay, a Giants tackle during the 1970 and 1971 seasons, was named Director of College Scouting in 1977 after serving as a scout for the team since 1972. While serving as a scout, Shay was responsible for the Western states area, including all of the West Coast as well as Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas.

Shay was an All-America star at Purdue University and was the No. 1 draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1966. He was a starting defensive tackle for the Vikings for two years, then was traded to the Atlanta Falcons in 1968 where he again starred for two seasons before coming to the Giants in a trade in 1970 for a draft choice. Shay was a key performer that season as the Giants finished with a 9-5 record and missed the playoffs by one game. In that season's final game against the Rams, he suffered a broken leg and retired after the 1971 season after appearing in only six games. He became a scout the following season.

Born on July 10, 1944 in Gary, Ind. (family name Dzedzeji), Jerry is married to the former Cynthia Zajkowski, and has three daughters: Tiffany Lee, the 1995 recipient of the John V. Mara Scholarship awarded annually to the child of a former Giants player, Sharon Marie, and Jeri Lynn. The Shays reside in San Diego, California.

RAY WALSH, JR.

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

Walsh has been with the Giants since 1973, initially as an Administrative Assistant before moving over to the scouting and player personnel department. As a youngster, Walsh worked at Giants preseason training camps from 1956-63.

Walsh, who is also known by his nickname "Whitey," earned a degree in Inter-American Relations at Fordham University in 1963 after graduating from Archbishop Stepinac H.S. in White Plains where he grew up. After a tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he joined United Airlines in 1965 in the Passenger Service department and remained with United until April of 1973 when he joined the Giants.

Married to the former Judith Carey, Walsh is the father of two sons, David, 24, and Timothy, 9, and a daughter Susan, 22. The family resides in Ramsey, New Jersey. Aside from football, Walsh is an avid British history buff, particulary the medieval period, as well as a devotee of Hollywood movies from the 1930s and 1940s.

GREG GABRIEL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gabriel joined the Giants scouting department during the 1985 offseason after serving as an area scout for an NFL scouting combine in the Great Lakes area. Gabriel gained his first professional football experience working part-time in the scouting department of the Buffalo Bills, both in film grading and in player evaluation.

A native of Buffalo where he was born on May 4, 1951, Gabriel played his scholastic sports at Bishop Neumann High School in Williamsville, New York. He won three varsity letters as a running back at Canisius College where he earned a B.S. degree.

Prior to entering the football profession, Gabriel was an account executive with Prudential-Bache and later with Dean Witter Reynolds while working part-time with the Bills.

He played for eight seasons as a running back with the Buffalo Geminis, a semi-pro outfit, and was additionally the offensive backfield coach for one season there. Gabriel lives in Buffalo and is the father of three daughters, Liza, Ryan, and Kelsey.

GIANTS TID BIT

Former Giants DE George Martin (1975-88) holds the NFL record for most career touchdowns by a defensive lineman with seven. Following are Martin's seven career TDs:

10-23-77	vs. Washington	30-yard interception return
10-1-78	at Atlanta	11-yard return of a lateral off a blocked punt
11-9-80	vs. Dallas	4-yard pass from Phil Simms
9-13-81	at Washington	8-yard fumble return
12-13-81	at St. Louis	20-yard fumble return
11-24-85	at St. Louis	56-yard interception return
11-23-86	vs. Denver	78-yard interception return

SCOUTING

ROSIE BROWN

After a Hall of Fame career as a tackle for the Giants from 1953-1965, Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout in 1971.

During his playing career, Brown ranked as one of the all-time great offensive linemen in the National Football League. The wide-ranging tackle earned All Pro honors eight times and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl on ten occasions. In 1956, Brown was voted Lineman of the Year in the NFL.

Brown was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966. In 1969, Brown replaced Jim Trimble as head line coach. In 1971, Brown, along with another coaching aide, Ken Kavanaugh, left Alex Webster's staff to assume new responsibilities under Jim Lee Howell, his one-time coach, in the scouting department.

Brown, now 65, is a resident of Scottsville, Va. but spends a good deal of his time on the road in search of fresh talent for the Giants.

JOHN CREA

Crea originally joined the Giants as a scout in the spring of 1992 after an impressive college coaching career.

After graduating from Monsignor Farrell High School in Staten Island, Crea began his collegiate days at the University of Utah. He then transferred to Albany State University where he won three varsity letters as a defensive back and wide receiver. He graduated from Albany State with a B.A. degree in English and Communications. Crea added a Master's degree in Physical Education from Arizona State University where he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant.

He continued his collegiate coaching career with stops at Albany State, Kean College, Frostburg State in Maryland, and Holy Cross. In 1982, Crea was named the head coach at William Paterson College in New Jersey. After six years in that position, he became the head coach at Methodist College in Fayetteville, North Carolina from 1987 through the 1991 campaign.

Married to the former Kathleen Coyle, John and his wife have a daughter, Kelly, 14, and he lists racquetball and golf as his favorite hobbies.

JEREMIAH DAVIS

Davis began his affiliation with the Giants in 1988 as a part-time scout after a career as a collegiate coach and recruiting specialist. In March of 1990, Davis was named to the Giants scouting department in a full-time capacity.

Davis graduated from Montclair High School in Montclair, New Jersey, then began his college football career at Yakima Junior College in Yakima, Washington before receiving a B.A. degree in Criminal Law from the University of Wyoming in 1977. He subsequently earned a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Grambling University in 1981.

Davis began his college coaching career at Wyoming as a secondary assistant and strength coach and served in the same capacity at the University of Washington and at Grambling where he also worked with the linebackers. He moved on to Northern Iowa and to the University of Central Florida as an assistant coach, then moved into the recruiting area with Purdue University in 1985. He was also at Tennessee-Martin for two years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before joining the Giants in 1988.

KEN KAVANAUGH

Kavanaugh, a member of the Chicago Bears all-time team, brought a wealth of experience as both a professional player and a coach to the Giants when he joined the scouting department in 1971. He moved into the scouting department from the coaching staff where he had been offensive ends coach from 1955-68 and offensive coach from 1969-70. Kavanaugh coached the Giants for a total of 16 years under three head coaches: Jim Lee Howell, Allie Sherman and Alex Webster.

Prior to joining the Giants coaching staff, the College Hall of Fame end spent one season (1951) as ends coach for the Chicago Bears and one season (1954) at Villanova College in his hometown of Philadelphia.

As a player, Ken starred for the Chicago Bears from 1940-41. He left the Bears for an Air Force tour of duty as a bomber pilot in World War II in Europe, then returned to the team to make All Pro in 1946 and 1947. Kavanaugh set four all-time Chicago records which still stand today: most touchdown passes caught (50); most TD passes caught one season (13); highest average gain, career (22.4); and highest average gain, season (25.6).

During his collegiate career, Kavanaugh was a three-year regular (1936-40), once earning All-America honors.

Kavanaugh and his wife, Ann, now reside in Sarasota, Florida.

JERRY REESE

Jerry Reese was added to the Giants scouting department on December 15, 1994 after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is high on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions and still holds several punt return records. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant for one year and as a graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

Reese has his Bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education and earned his Master's degree in Education Administration and Supervision.

Reese is married to the former Gwen Moore, who is also a UT-Martin graduate. The couple has two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

STEVE VERDEROSA

The 1997 season marks Steve Verderosa's tenth season with the New York Giants after joining the scouting staff in 1988. Verderosa came to the Giants after serving in the scouting department of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Verderosa began his collegiate career at Central Iowa as a wide receiver and punter after graduating from Melville High School in Setauket, N.Y. He then moved to New York Institute of Technology where he continued his dual roles, earning ECAC Player of the Week Honors for an eight-catch, 100-yard day vs. Western Connecticut in the 1975 season.

After receiving a degree in general architecture and a design award in his senior year, Verderosa had a tryout with the Washington Redskins as a wide receiver and punter in 1977 and also had a two-week stint with the Cleveland Browns as a punter in the 1978 preseason.

Verderosa worked for one year as an architectural draftsman before getting the football urge and beginning a coaching career at his alma mater, New York Tech, as an offensive assistant. He then spent two seasons as a coach and teacher at St. Anthony's High School before landing a spot as defensive backfield coach at Columbia University. From there, he moved on to C.W. Post for four years as secondary coach and then joined the scouting department of the Buccaneers.

A native of Roslyn, Long Island where he was born on June 9, 1954, Verderosa is married to the former Lori Ann Felicetti. The Verderosas reside in Apex, North Carolina with two sons, Alex and Matthew Lucas.

VIDEO STAFF

TONY CEGLIO

DIRECTOR OF TELEVISION PRODUCTIONS

Ceglio begins his 22nd season with the Giants and his fourth as the team's Director of Television Productions after joining the Giants in 1975 as the club's Film Director. Ceglio handles the broadcasting side of the Giants video operations, including producing, directing and roaming the sidelines shooting for the Giants TV shows, "Giants Today" and "Giants Online." Both shows are broadcast on the MSG Network. "Giants Today" was honored with an Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Sports Programming at the New York Emmy Awards ceremony in 1995 and 1996. In addition, "Giants Today" received an Emmy Award for Outstanding Editing and Outstanding Originial Music Composition in 1996 and Best Audio and Outstanding Original Music Composition in 1997.

When the NFL officially switched from 16mm film to video in 1986, Ceglio designed the premier video tape editing system in the NFL, the Lake Sports Compiler. The Giants were the first team in the NFL to put this system on line, and since then many other teams have employed this system. Ceglio also co-authored the official NFL rules for the video taping of games and game tape exchange, and he was elected chairman of the NFL Video Directors for three years.

Ceglio is well-known in the freelance community as a producer, cameraman, documentaries, feature film promotions and sports.

Born on September 23, 1954 in Mount Vernon, New York, Ceglio is a graduate of Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and the New York School of Visual Arts where he earned a B.A. in Film and an outstanding student award. He teaches an undergraduate course in film and video at his alma mater. Married to the former Carolyn Trainor, the Ceglios reside in Washington Township, New Jersey with their twin daughters, Dawn and Danielle. Ceglio is an avid skiier who enjoys Colorado and the Jersey shore in the offseason.

JOHN MANCUSO

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mancuso begins his fourth season as Video Director after joining the Giants in a full-time capacity in 1978 as an assistant to Tony Ceglio in the team's film department.

Mancuso works closely with the coaching staff in the taping of all practices and games with the Sony Betacam video systems, as well as in the duplicating and editing of all video in the Giants' ultra-modern video offices. In addition, he assists Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today."

A native of Queens, Mancuso attended Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and then graduated from nearby Scarsdale High School. He then served as a Recreation Director for the Tibbits Nursing Home in Westchester for several years before working part-time for the Giants in the film department in 1977. Mancuso freelanced for two years as a cameraman, still photographer and videographer for the New Jersey Nets of the NBA before assuming his present full-time position with the Giants. Married to the former Reena Slatky, the couple has two sons, John and Julian, and resides in Tuxedo, New York. An accomplished musician, Mancuso has played guitar, bass and piano for various musical groups for the last 22 years.

DAVE MALTESE
ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

A native of Rockaway, New Jersey, Maltese joined the Giants as a full-time assistant director in the spring of 1993 after serving as an intern in the team's video department during the 1991 season and working on a part-time basis in 1992.

Maltese works with John Mancuso in taping all of the Giants practice sessions and games and assists in the cutups of the coaching staff's game and opponent tapes. He is responsible for the taping and breakdown of the defense and special teams units. In addition, he assists Tony Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today."

Maltese has worked extensively in cable television in New Jersey and has also served as a cameraman in the taping of music videos that have appeared nationally.

A resident of Wayne, New Jersey and a 1987 graduate of Kinnelon High School, he graduated from William Paterson College in 1993 with a degree in Radio and Television Communications. While at college, Maltese worked at WPSC Radio for five years. Maltese is an accomplished pianist who has been playing for over 20 years. He also won two Silver medals in the American Open Tae Kwon Do Championship in 1996. He was born on June 13,1969.

DAVE DESPOSITO
ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

Desposito begins his third season as a full-time member of the Giants video team. He originally joined the Giants in 1993 as an intern and then served as an assistant producer on the "Giants Today" staff during the 1994 season.

In his current position, Desposito's primary responsibility is to accommodate the filming and breakdown needs of special teams coach Lary Mac Duff. In addition, he assists Tony Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today."

Desposito is a 1993 graduate of William Paterson College in Wayne, New Jersey. He majored in Communication with a concentration in Radio and Television.

JON BERGER

DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER SERVICES

Although he was named to his current position in February of 1987, Berger has been associated with the Giants since 1981 when he worked in the team's preseason training camp as an on-the-field assistant and later as an intern in the media services department.

After graduating from Stuyvesant High School, the Queens native attended Albany State University where he majored in Computer Science and Mathematics, earning a B.S. degree and graduating Cum Laude with Dean's list honors in 1985. He was also a member of the Purple & Gold honor and service society and while an undergraduate also served as a Computer Science teaching assistant. After graduation, he remained at Albany State for another year as the computer coordinator for the physical education department, producing programs for all of the men's and women's intercollegiate teams.

In addition to his full-time duties with the Giants, Berger has also been a familiar figure courtside at all New York Knicks home games at Madison Square Garden where he serves as computer statistician. Berger and his wife, Alicia Cassio, have a son, Justin, and reside in Kendall Park, New Jersey.

JOHN JOHNSON

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Johnson, a graduate of the Swedish Institute of Physical Therapy, has been a trainer for the Giants for more than 40 years. During this period, he has also served as head trainer and instructor at Manhattan College where he is enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame.

After serving as an intern at Brooklyn Jewish and Long Island College Hospitals (1937-38), Johnson worked as a physical trainer for the Bedford YMCA and then was in charge of physical therapy and rehabilitation at a U.S. Air Force base hospital from 1942-46. His service hitch included duty as a physical therapy instructor, athletic trainer for post teams and as an air-sea rescue medic. From 1946-47, Johnson was a civilian athletic trainer at the U.S. Naval Preflight School in Ottumwa, La.

A member of the Eastern and National Athletic Trainers Associations as well as the National Physical Therapy Association, Johnson has also served as a trainer for visiting teams at Madison Square Garden (1954-63). Johnson resides in Cresskill, N.J.

STEVE KENNELLY
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Steve Kennelly, a native of Leonia, New Jersey, joined the Giants in July of 1992. He is responsible for assisting Ronnie Barnes in the overall injury prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of the Giants players. Kennelly earned a B.S. degree from Northeastern University in 1985 and an M.Ed. from the University of Virginia in 1987.

Prior to joining the Giants, Kennelly was the head athletic trainer for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League. He also served as the director of athletic training services for Professional Sports Care Meadowlands and as head athletic trainer for the New York Knights of the Arena League.

He began his career as the assistant athletic trainer at Hobart College in Geneva, New York before serving a graduate assistantship at Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va. Kennelly is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Society of New Jersey, where he serves as Secretary.

Born in Teaneck, New Jersey on September 26, 1962, Kennelly and his wife, Rita, have a son, Ryan Connor (6-29-95) and reside in Oakland, New Jersey.

MICHAEL COLELLO
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Michael Colello enters his fourth season with the Giants after spending the 1993 season on the athletic training staff at UCLA. Colello is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and Athletic Trainers Society of New Jersey.

A native of Middletown, New York, where he was born on June 29, 1960, Colello earned a B.S. degree in Education with an Athletic Training emphasis in 1983 from the University of Nevada at Las Vegas. Colello served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Syracuse University where he earned a Master's of Science degree in Physical Education with an Athletic Training Emphasis in June of 1985.

After graduating, Colello served as the head athletic trainer at Diablo Valley Junior College. He then served as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Southern California for six years, where his primary responsibility was the football team. From June of 1982 until August of 1984, Colello was an athletic trainer in the NewYork Mets organization, serving in Lynchburg, Va. with the Class A team of the Carolina League. Colello and his wife, Jeanmarie, are the parents of a son, Michael James.

DR. RUSSELL F. WARREN
TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Warren joined the Giants medical staff in 1984. A graduate of Columbia College in New York and the Upstate Medical School in Syracuse, New York, he did his internship and residency in orthopedic surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City after a two-year tour of duty as a medical officer in the U.S. Navy.

He then completed a fellowship in shoulder surgery with Dr. Charles Neer at the Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. Dr. Warren is currently an Attending Orthopedic Surgeon for The New York Hospital and The Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City, and Professor of Orthopedic Surgery for the Cornell University Medical Center in New York. He is also Surgeon-in-Chief of the Hospital for Special Surgery, and President of the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine and past President of the Society for Sports Medicine Shoulder and Elbow Surgery and the American Orthopedic Association.

Born in Burlington, Vermont on June 18, 1939, Dr. Warren is the author of numerous publications on his specialties of knee and shoulder surgery. He is a resident of Greenwich, Connecticut. An outstanding halfback at Columbia, Warren had a tryout with the Giants in 1962. Warren and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of a son, Rusty, and a daughter, Lisa.

DR. ALLAN LEVY
ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Allan Levy joined the Giants prior to the 1976 season and brings impressive credentials with him to the job. In private practice for over 30 years in Westwood, New Jersey, Dr. Levy has been involved in sports medicine for most of those years, initially as the team physician for Westwood High School.

He moved into professional football as team physician for the Newark Bears and then with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the old Continental Football League. Dr. Levy continued in football as team physician for the Westchester Bulls, a Giant affiliate in the late 1960s, and was the first team doctor for the New Jersey Nets when they began play originally as the New Jersey Americans. He has also worked as the team doctor for the New York Islanders hockey team of the NHL. He is also the author of "The Sports Injury Handbook," professional advice for amateur athletes.

Born on May 28, 1927 in Saranac Lake, New York, Dr. Levy received his B.A. from Columbia University in 1947 and his M.D. from Cornell University in 1951. He and his wife Gail have three children.

DR. STEPHEN J. O'BRIEN

ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Stephen O'Brien originally joined the Giants prior to the start of the 1993 season. A graduate of Harvard University and the University of Virginia's School of Medicine, he did his internship at Yale University Medical Center and his Orthopedic Residency and Fellowship at The Hospital For Special Surgery in New York City.

He is currently the Chief Orthopedic Consultant at St. John's University and the Medical Director for the New York Racing Association. Dr. O'Brien is the author of numerous research articles and chapters and has participated in many scientific exhibits and presentations.

Among the awards Dr. O'Brien has received are the Charles S. Neer Award, given by the American Shoulder & Elbow Society to the top shoulder researcher in the USA, and the 1991 Optimate Society Award for Excellence in Medicine/Society.

Dr. O'Brien won varsity letters in both football and baseball while an undergraduate at Harvard. He and his wife, KathleenDonnelly-O'Brien, reside in Garden City, New York with their four children.

DR. JOEL GOLDBERG

DIRECTOR OF CAREER COUNSELING

As one of the NFL teams in the forefront of encouraging the development of career counseling for players, the Giants added Dr. Joel Goldberg to the staff to oversee this function in February of 1981.

The object of his counseling is to help players through the transition from playing days to non-playing days and life adjustment and to stimulate interaction between the metropolitan community and the players. The program is designed to measure players' aptitudes, interests, abilities and career goals and put those qualities into practical application.

A native of Brooklyn, Dr. Goldberg earned a B.S. in Education from the University of Rhode Island, a Master's degree from New York University and a Doctorate degree in Counseling Psychology from Rutgers University.

During his career, Dr. Goldberg has been a counselor with the New York City Department of Labor; a professor at Kean College in New Jersey; a psychology consultant to boards of education; and President of Career Consultants, his own counseling business in Union, New Jersey.

Born on July 5, 1943, Dr. Goldberg and his wife, a high school history teacher, have a son and a daughter and reside in New Jersey.

HUGH GARDY
TEAM DENTIST

Dr. Gardy joined the Giants during the 1977 season. He is nationally known as the Father of Sports Dentistry and has probably treated more professional athletes than any other dentist in the country. He is also currently the team dentist for the New Jersey Devils, New Jersey Nets, and was the dental director for soccer's World Cup 1994.

Gardy was a dentist for the U.S. Olympic team in 1984. He was the founder and past president of the Academy for Sports Dentistry and was the only dentist on the New Jersey Governors Council on Sports and Physical Fitness. Dr. Gardy is a Fellow of the Academy of General Practice, Diplomate of the American Society of Osseointegration and a Fellow of the American College of Dentists.

Dr. Gardy received his A.B. and D.D.S. from New York University. He and his wife Sandy reside in River Vale, N.J., and have three children.

HEIDI SKOLNIK
NUTRITION CONSULTANT

Heidi Skolnik joined the Giants in May of 1992 to work throughout the year with the players on nutritional aspects of training and competition, providing dietary counseling for preventive health and rehabilitation. Skolnik brings a diversified background to the Giants.

A graduate of Ithaca College, she earned a B.A. degree in Exercise and Nutrition, a Master's degree in Sports Medicine for physical educators and a Master's in Nutrition. She is also a certified nutritionist in New York State. While at Ithaca, she devised and implemented conditioning plans for that school's football and baseball teams, then worked with Morgan Stanley & Co. in New York for seven years, initially as an exercise specialist and eventually as director of exercise and training, and health promotion.

Skolnik has also been the New York Mets nutrition consultant since 1986, devising spring training camp menus and conducting presentations to players and staff. She has lectured on nutrition and fitness at Cornell University, Ithaca College and at the New York City PSAL conferences. Skolnik sits on the executive committee of the American College of Sports Medicine's Greater New York Chapter and is affiliated with the National Strength and Conditioning Association and IDEA: The International Association of Fitness Professionals. She is currently president of Nutrition Conditioning, Inc., a fitness and nutrition consulting practice based in New York City.

ED WAGNER
LOCKER ROOM MANAGER

The overseer of the locker room operations and a much-decorated Army veteran, "Whitey" Wagner assumed his duties in 1976. Since that time, Whitey's domain has not only included all aspects of running the locker room, but also the care and feeding of the players during the week, as well as supervising the maintenance of the pressroom at Giants Stadium which houses all of the metropolitan area media. Wagner is in charge of the Giants' annual largescale moving operation from Giants Stadium to their preseason training camp, as well as the return move and the supervision of maintenance at the camp.

A native of Staten Island, New York, Wagner and his wife, Gertrude, have a daughter, Patricia, and a son, Edward Jr.

ED WAGNER, JR.
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Ed Wagner Jr. was named to the position of Equipment Manager in June of 1979 and since that time has handled a myriad of details, including the purchase, upkeep and repair of all equipment and uniforms, the transportation of equipment and uniforms to and from all road trips and to and from training camp, the handling of all training camp duties and arrangements, as well as field maintenance.

A native of Staten Island, Wagner had served as assistant equipment manager for two seasons with the Giants prior to being named head equipment manager. Edward Kenneth Wagner was born on November 29, 1956 in Staten Island and graduated from Curtis High School in 1974. He and his wife, the former Andrea DeNonno, have a daughter, Donna, 12, and a son, Christopher, 9. The Wagners reside in River Edge, New Jersey.

JIM PHELAN
ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

After serving as assistant equipment manager, Phelan began new responsibilities in 1988 as an administrative assistant. In addition to assisting in the equipment room, he assumed the responsibility of planning the team's mini-camps and assisting with the regular season travel. He graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a degree in general business.

Born on January 29, 1964 in Providence, Rhode Island, Phelan graduated from King Phillip Regional H.S. in Wrentham, Massachusetts where he won varsity letters in football, basketball, hockey and track and was an All-League wide receiver, setting a school record for most receptions (43) in an eight-game season. Phelan lists golf and skiing as his favorite hobbies. Phelan is married to the former Lori Lacatena of Wayne, NJ and has a daughter Lauren (6).

STEVE SONGY
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Steve Songy begins his first season with the Giants as the team's assistant equipment manager. Songy joins the Giants after spending the last three seasons (1994-96) as assistant equipment manager for the University of Virginia. His role is to assist with the maintenance of the equipment room and the Giants day of game and travel operations.

A 1992 graduate of Louisiana State where he served as a student equipment manager, Songy spent the 1993 football season as assistant equipment manager for the Sacramento Goldminers of the Canadian Football League before serving as the assistant equipment manager for Tulane in 1994. Songy is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. A native of New Orleans, Louisiana, Songy was born May 16, 1969.

JOE MANSFIELD
FIELD SECURITY MANAGER

A retired White Plains Police Department detective, Mansfield joined the Giants in 1976. In addition to his field security duties, Mansfield also assists the club in locker room operations during the regular season and at the team's training camp site.

A native of New York City, Mansfield graduated from Mount St. Michael's H.S. in New York, then joined the United States Marine Corps in 1943 during World War II and was recalled during the Korean conflict in 1950. He spent nine years with the Fifth Avenue Coach Co. of New York and a short period of time with the Corrections Department at Sing Sing Prison before joining the White Plains Police Department in 1956, where he rose through the ranks to Detective, collecting numerous citations and commendations along the way until retiring in 1976.

Mansfield was re-introduced to his childhood sweetheart after a forty-year separation after each of them had been widowed. Shortly thereafter, he and Maggie were married and they now live in White Plains and together are enjoying their combined family of 10 children and 22 grandchildren.

MIKE MURPHY

TEAM SECURITY

Mike Murphy begins his eighth season in charge of team security for the Giants. Murphy was originally hired by former head coach Bill Parcells to accompany the team to San Francisco for the 1990 NFC Championship game and Tampa for Super Bowl XXV, as increased security was required during the Gulf War. After Parcells' departure, general manager George Young retained Murphy's services. In his position, Murphy handles travel, game day and training camp security operations.

Murphy has been a police officer in Florham Park , New Jersey for 14 years and is in charge of the town's D.A.R.E. program and the Community Policy Committee. He is a 1983 graduate of the 180th New Jersey State Police Class. Prior to joining the police force, Murphy attended Iona College on a track scholarship under Tony Naclerio, the head coach for the USA track throwers in Atlanta during the 1996 summer games.

A native of Newark, New Jersey where he was born on May 14, 1957, Murphy grew up in Florham Park, New Jersey and was an all-league football player and all-league shot putter on the track team. Former Giant Bart Oates invited Murphy to be a speaker for the NFL's No Hope and Dope program, conducted during the Pro Bowl week in Honolulu, Hawaii. Murphy is continuing his education in management at Fairleigh-Dickinson University.

JULIUS HORAI

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

A key man in the Giants' operation is Julius "Whitey" Horai, who has been associated with the club since 1954. Whitey handles a myriad of details as well as serving as the coordinator of transportation and film exchanges. A native of Richmond, Staten Island, Whitey graduated from Curtis High School, then went on to Wagner College where he worked for the athletic department as equipment and field maintenance man under Jim Lee Howell. When Howell came to the Giants as head coach in 1954, Horai came too in a part-time capacity, then joined the club full-time in 1970. A bachelor, Whitey still resides in Staten Island.

Transactions: Originally signed by the Giants as a free agent on April 27, 1996. Waived by the Giants on August 19, 1996. Signed to the Giants practice squad on August 28, 1996. Signed to the Giants active roster on October 25, 1996.

NFL: Was signed to the active roster from the practice squad as an extra wide receiver after Amani Toomer was lost for the season with a knee injury...Versatile player who can be used as a return man.

1996: Finished with four receptions for 88 yards and two kickoff returns for 27 yards...Active for five games and saw playing time in four after being signed to the active roster. Was listed on the Giants inactive list for four games...Made his NFL debut in his home state of Arizona against the Cardinals (11-17). Entered the game after Thomas Lewis left in the third quarter with a strained right hamstring. Had a 33-yard catch-and-run from Dave Brown for his first NFL reception in the fourth quarter. The reception helped set up Brown's nine-yard scoring pass to Tyrone Wheatley that cut the Arizona lead to 28-20...With Lawrence Dawsey filling in for starter Thomas Lewis (hamstring), Alexander took over as the Giants third receiver vs. Dallas (11-24). Had a nine-yard reception that helped the Giants reach the 28-yard line to set up a 45-yard field goal by Brad Daluiso...Caught a 35-yard pass from Brown on third-and-two to give the Giants a first down at the Patriots 24-yard line to set up a 30-yard field goal by Daluiso vs. New England (12-21). Replaced the injured Tyrone Wheatley (ankle) as one of the Giants kickoff returners in that game.

College: Set Utah State single-season records for receptions (92) and receiving yards (1,400) as a senior...Ranked among the NCAA leaders in both receptions (second at 8.4 per game) and receiving yards (third at 127.3)...Also finished senior season 29th nationally in all-purpose yards at 142.2 per game...Was a first-team All-Big West pick as a return specialist and second-team All-Big West at wide receiver as a junior in 1994...Averaged nearly 17 yards every time he touched the ball as a junior...Transferred from Glendale (Ariz.) Community College where he was first-team All-Western State League pick as a sophomore.

Personal: Earned first-team all-region honors as a running back at Goldwater High School in Phoenix, Arizona...Rushed for a school record 1,200 yards as a senior...Born on January 23, 1975.

Transactions: Originally an eighth round (207th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: Moved into the starting weakside linebacker spot in 1996 and, along with CB Jason Sehorn, was the Giants top defensive player of the season...Proved to be a valuable member of the team as both a special teams player and middle linebacker in nickel and dime defensive packages during his first three NFL seasons...Has not missed a game in his four professional seasons.

1996: Led the team with 114 tackles (83 solos). Tied for first on the team with two fumble recoveries, tied for fourth on the team with three sacks and tied for fourth on the team with eight passes defensed. Also intercepted two passes...Made his first start as a regular in the lineup when he started at the weakside linebacker position in the season-opener vs. Buffalo (9-1) -- his two previous starts were in 1995 in special schemes to stop the West Coast Offense at San Francisco (10-1) and vs. Philadelphia (10-15). Established a career-high in tackles with 14 tackles (nine solos) against the Bills. Sacked QB Jim Kelly when Buffalo was faced with a third-and-five situation to end a drive and force the Bills to punt. The Giants returned the ensuing punt 87 yards for a touchdown. Named Defensive MVP by the coaching staff. Played in 105 plays in the game (96 on defense)...Ended a Panthers drive at the Giants 22-yard line at Carolina (11-10) when he intercepted a QB Kerry Collins screen pass to preserve the Giants 14-10 halftime lead...Forced Arizona RB LeShon Johnson to fumble and S Percy Ellsworth recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 42-yard line at Arizona (11-17). The play helped set up the second Dave Brown-to-Tyrone Wheatley touchdown pass to cut the Arizona lead to 28-20...Led the team with 11 total tackles (six solos) vs. Dallas (11-24). The Giants defense limited the Cowboys to 33 yards rushing, including holding Emmitt Smith to 18 yards on 11 carries for a 1.6 average. Recovered the ball for the Giants at the 47-yard line after CB Jason Sehorn forced a fumble when he tackled Dallas FB Daryl Johnston late in the fourth quarter. Named Linebacker of the Game by the coaching staff.

1995: Played in all 16 games with two starts...Continued to excel as the team's middle linebacker in nickel and dime situations...Finished with 46 defensive tackles, one-half sack, a fumble recovery, one interception, two passes defensed and six special teams tackles...The Giants took advantage of Armstead's speed and coverage ability and started him in place of Mike Croel at San Francisco (10-1) to help contain the 49ers passing attack. Marked his first NFL start. Coverage helped limit QB Steve Young to just 202 yards passing on 26 completions...Scored the game-winning points in overtime vs. Arizona (10-8) as he returned an interception 58 yards to give the Giants a 27-21 victory. Earned a game ball for his game-winning play...Started vs. Philadelphia (10-15) against the Eagles' West Coast offense. Helped hold the Eagles to just 66 net yards passing...Named Special Teams MVP by the coaching staff for neutralizing the play of return man Brian Mitchell at Washington (10-29).

1994: Played in all 16 games on special teams and in nickel and dime defensive packages...Finished third on the team with nine special teams tackles...Defensive playing time increased over the last four weeks of the season as he finished with 41 total tackles...Also had three sacks on the year, including one that forced a safety in season-finale vs. Dallas (12-24)...Recorded first career sack vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) when he dropped Neil O'Donnell for a seven-yard loss...Finished fifth on the team with nine passes defensed...Also recorded an interception vs. Arizona (11-13)...Was Special Teams MVP at Houston (11-21) when he had two solo tackles.

1993: Played in all 16 games...Led team in special teams tackles with 13...Play in nickel defense increased throughout the season...Was named team's Special Teams MVP three times -- vs. Rams (9-19), vs. Washington (11-14) and vs. Indianapolis (12-12)...Giants overall MVP for his effort at New Orleans (12-20) that included his first career interception off Saints QB Mike Buck...Earned a game ball for his performance at Miami (12-5).

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (93rd pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: With the departure of John Elliott prior to the 1996 season, earned the starting left tackle position...Forced into starting left guard position after a season-ending knee injury to Scott Davis before the start of the 1995 season...Has played both tackle and guard during his four seasons as a pro...Spent first two seasons as Elliott's backup at left tackle...Can handle long snapping duties if needed.

1996: After starting all 16 games at left guard in 1995, moved to left tackle in 1996 and started every game...Play vs. Minnesota (9-29) helped the Giants control the ball for 37:43 of the game. Play of the line allowed the Giants to run out the final four minutes of the game to help preserve the 15-10 win...Offensive line helped RB Rodney Hampton gain 94 yards on 24 carries, his highest output of the season, vs. Arizona (11-3)...Helped the offense gain 292 yards in the second half at Washington (10-20) after gaining just 102 in the first half...The offensive line allowed just one sack against a Panthers defense that entered the game as the NFL's leader at Carolina (11-10). Bishop held the NFL's leading sacker, OLB Lamar Lathon, to no sacks and only one tackle...Did an outstanding job vs. Dallas (11-24) against the number one-rated defense in the Giants 20-6 victory.

1995: In his first season as a regular, started all 16 games at left guard...Came into camp looking to back up at tackle or guard, but a season-ending knee injury to Scott Davis in the preseason forced Bishop into the lineup...Play vs. New Orleans (9-24) allowed the Giants to roll up 474 total offensive yards, their highest output since gaining 487 yards in a 21-16 loss at Dallas on 9-29-91. Helped the Giants establish the running game, as the team gained 218 yards, which allowed the Giants to open up the offense...The Giants offensive line did not allow Dave Brown to be sacked against the Bears defense (11-26)...Sprained his left knee in the second quarter at Arizona (11-30). Tried to play despite a noticeable limp and was finally forced out of action late in the first half. Adam Schreiber replaced Bishop at left guard for the remainder of the game...At Dallas (12-17), did an outstanding job with the tough assignment of going against DE Leon Lett, as the offensive line controlled the line of scrimmage, allowing the Giants to rush for 244 yards. Rodney Hampton gained 187 yards to go over the 1,000-yard mark...Moved over to left tackle when John Elliott was forced to leave in the second quarter with a sore back vs. San Diego (12-23).

1994: Played in all 16 games as the long snapper on the punt team as well as other special teams

GIANTS TID BIT

Avid New York Knicks fan and season ticket holder...Owns a home in Florida in the same development as Phil Simms and Bill Parcells.

Transactions: Originally drafted by the Giants in the first round (16th position) of the Supplemental Draft on July 9, 1992.

NFL: Begins his fourth season as the Giants starting quarterback...Reunited with head coach Jim Fassel, who was offensive coordinator during Brown's first season with the Giants in 1992...After playing in just three games through the first two seasons of his professional career, Brown earned the starting position in training camp in 1994 and led the Giants to a winning record (9-7) that season.

1996: Finished his third year as a starter by completing 214 of 398 passes (53.8%) for 2,412 yards, 12 TDs and 20 interceptions. Had a passer efficiency rating of 61.3...Sold the Bills on the play-action fake vs. Buffalo in the season-opener (9-1) and was able to drop a short pass to FB Charles Way, who dodged the Bills defense on his way to a 37-yard touchdown en route to the Giants 17-0 second quarter lead...In the second game of the season at Dallas (9-8), the Cowboys defensive assault began when CB Kevin Smith picked off a Brown pass intended for Amani Toomer on the game's first play from scrimmage. It marked the second consecutive season that Brown was intercepted on the first play from scrimmage at Texas Stadium...Threw a career-high four interceptions vs. Washington (9-15). His previous high was the three vs. Minnesota (10-10-94)...Completed 18 of 29 pass attempts for 167 yards in the Giants 15-10 victory over Minnesota (9-29). Brown completed five-of-five passes for 49 yards, including a seven-yard pass to Thomas Lewis on fourth-and-two to keep the Giants opening scoring drive alive. Completed a 20-yard pass to Chris Calloway on third-and-ten, allowing the Giants to run the final four minutes off the clock. Earned a game ball and was named Offensive MVP for his performance...Brown, who had 82 yards passing in the entire first half, completed five of seven passes for 82 yards on the Giants first drive in the second half, culminating a 10-play, 91-yard drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to Lewis. Brown finished with 26 completions on 43 attempts for 298 yards, just missing his first 300-yard day. The 26 completions established a new career-high..Was forced out of the game vs. Arizona (11-3) with a bruised back and back spasms after being sacked by Cardinals DE Simeon Rice during the Giants second possession of the game. Attempted to return at halftime but his back started acting up during warmups...Was limited during the week prior to the Carolina game (11-10) due to his back injury but did start against the Panthers. Completed six-of-seven passes for 91 yards during the Giants first two possessions of the game, culminating both with touchdown passes. Threw two interceptions in the fourth quarter to end the Giants comeback chances in a 27-17 loss...Completed a key third-down pass to Charles Way vs. Dallas (11-24) to get the Giants a first down at the five-yard line in the fourth quarter. Two plays later, Brown executed a perfect play-action fake, rolled right on a bootleg and completed a four-yard touchdown pass to a wide open Brian Kozlowski to give the Giants a 20-6 lead with 6:01 remaining...Completed just three of 11 passes for 31 yards with no touchdowns and two interceptions before being replaced by Danny Kanell in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia (12-1)...Directed the Giants on scoring drives of 80 yards and 78 yards to help them take a 14-7 halftime lead at Miami (12-8). Helped set the tone on the first series by completing four-of-five passes for 51 yards, including a six-yard pass to Chris Calloway on fourth-and-two to keep the drive alive at the Dolphins 22-yard line. Re-aggravated a bruised left shoulder when he was sacked and driven to the turf by CB Calvin Jackson on a corner blitz. Needed special padding under his shoulder pads to continue...Completed eight-of-18 pass attempts for 42 yards and two interceptions in the first half vs. New Orleans (12-15) before being replaced by Danny Kanell in the second half.

1995: In his second season as a regular, started all 16 games...Finished the season completing 254 of 456 passes (55.7%) for 2,814 yards, 11 touchdowns and 10 interceptions...Also rushed for 228 yards on 45 carries and scored four touchdowns rushing...Set the following personal single-game high marks: 50 pass attempts (sixth-most in Giants history) and 23 pass completions (9-17 at Green Bay), 299 yards passing (11-5 at Seattle)...Brown also had two two-touchdown games: 10-8 vs. Arizona and 11-5 at Seattle...Completed the longest pass of his career, a 57-yard touchdown to Mike Sherrard at Washington on 10-29. His longest completion prior to the 57-yarder was a 51-yarder to Chris Calloway vs. Philadelphia (9-4-94)...The 456 pass attempts by Brown is the fifth-most in Giants history and the most since Phil Simms threw 479 in 1988...The 254 passes completed is the fifth-best in Giants history, the best since Simms completed 263 in 1988...Vs. New Orleans (9-24), Brown completed 19 of 27 pass attempts for 258 yards, including one touchdown pass and one interception. His 258 yards passing was the third-best day of his career. Brown gave the Giants the lead for good when he connected on a 38-yard scoring play to Chris Calloway to give the Giants a 21-17 lead in the second quarter. Awarded a game ball by the coaching staff...Was 9-of-18 for 82 yards vs. Philadelphia (10-15) before head coach Dan Reeves replaced him with Tommy Maddox in the second half. Reeves said after the game that the protection up front was partly to blame for the poor play at quarterback...Set his personal-high with 299 yards passing at Seattle (11-5) and equalled his best day with two touchdown passes...At Arizona (11-30), the Giants took the second half kickoff and went 83 yards in 12 plays before Brown connected with Sherrard for a 12-yard touchdown pass to give the Giants a 10-6 lead. Brown kept the drive alive with an 11-yard completion to Calloway on third-and-eight...Vs. Washington (12-10), the Giants broke a 13-13 tie with a 40-yard touchdown pass from Brown to Calloway with 1:18 left in regulation to give the Giants a 20-13 victory...Equalled his career single-game high with 47 yards rushing at Dallas (12-17). Four of his five rushing attempts netted the Giants a first down...In a vote by his teammates was elected as one of the Giants 1995 captains.

1994: Earned the starting job prior to the team's third preseason game against San Diego in Berlin, Germany...In his first year as a regular, started 15 games...Giants were 9-6 in the games Brown started...Did not play vs. Arizona (11-13) as head coach Dan Reeves turned to Kent Graham as Giants were mired in a six-game losing streak...Completed 201 of 350 pass attempts (57.4%) for 2,536 yards, 12 touchdowns and 16 interceptions...Led Giants to final-minute victories in three of the last four games of the season (at Cleveland, vs. Cincinnati and at Philadelphia)...Was the team's offensive MVP at Arizona (9-11) when he completed 11 of 17 passes for 119 yards, two TDs and one interception; vs. Washington (9-18) when he was 14 of 19 for 221 yards, one TD; at Washington (11-27) when he was 10 of 17 for 161 yards and two TDs; and at Philadelphia (12-18) when he completed 18 of 27 for 264 yards, no TDs and one interception...Orchestrated the game-winning drive at Cleveland (12-4) by completing four of seven passes for 53 yards. Kept the winning drive alive by completing a 26-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway on a third-and-15 situation, a 13-yard pass to WR Mike Sherrard on third-and-nine and by rushing for seven yards on a quarterback keeper on third-and-one...In the final two minutes vs. Cincinnati (12-11), completed three-of-three passes for 45 yards in the process of taking the Giants 66 yards for Rodney Hampton's game-winning three-yard TD run...Kept the game-winning drive alive at Philadelphia (12-18) when he completed a 34-yard pass-and-run play to RB David Meggett on third-and-16 as the Giants moved into position for PK Brad Daluiso's game-winning 18-yard field goal...Was knocked out of the game at Houston (11-21) in the second quarter with a concussion following a helmet-to-the-chin hit by Oilers LB Lamar Lathon. Was four of seven passing for 19 yards.

1993: Rotated with Graham as the team's No. 2 quarterback for the final five games of the season, including two postseason games...Appeared at New Orleans (12-20) but did not attempt a pass...Also finished up in playoff loss at San Francisco (1-15) as he completed six of 10 passes for 56 yards and one interception.

1992: After signing with just five days remaining in training camp, appeared in only two games during his rookie season, completing a total of four of seven passes for 21 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions...Saw first action of the season at Dallas (11-26) when he relieved Graham...Was two of three for six yards in relief...Also suffered three sacks in Thanksgiving Day game vs. Cowboys...Only other appearance of the season came two weeks later in relief of Graham at Phoenix (12-12) when he completed two of four pass attempts for 15 yards before suffering a broken thumb.

College: As a redshirt junior at Duke in 1991, completed 230 of 470 passes for an ACC-leading 2,794 yards and 20 TDs...Recorded four 300-yard passing games and led the ACC with 2,851 yards in total offense and 25 total TDs...ACC Offensive Player of the Week after throwing four TD passes against Rutgers...Earned honor again when he completed 32 of 50 passes with two TDs against South Carolina...Started four games as a sophomore in 1990 when he passed for 1,444 yards and eight TDs...In 1989, as a redshirt freshman, started final three games of season, averaging 432 yards passing per game and tossing a total of 11 TDs, to lead Blue Devils to All-America Bowl berth...Set a school record with 479 yards passing vs. North Carolina that freshman season when he had a 161.0 passing efficiency rating...First play collegiately resulted in a 76-yard TD pass vs. Wake Forest...Also threw a 97-yard TD pass that same game.

Personal: Married (Katy)...Honorable mention All-America and All-State, All-County and All-Conference choice at Westfield (N.J.) HS where he threw for more than 2,000 yards as a senior...Team MVP as a junior and senior...Outstanding basketball and lacrosse player, earning team MVP honors in basketball and first-team All-State recognition in lacrosse...A season ticket holder for the New York Knicks...David Brown was born February 25, 1970 in Summit, New Jersey.

GIANTS TID BIT

An active speaker at his high school in Fort Worth, Tx. Would like to return there to teach and coach when his football career is over.

Transactions: Originally a third round (66th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: After being a spot starter during his first two seasons, Buckley replaced Corey Miller in the starting lineup at strongside linebacker for five games in 1995 before handing the job back to Miller...Fine special teams player.

1996: Had 22 tackles (12 solos), four special teams tackles and broke up two passes in 15 games. Started vs. Dallas (11-24) and at Philadelphia (12-1) in place of the injured Corey Miller (ankle)...Forced out of the New Orleans game (12-15) in the second half with back spasms and was unavailable for the season-finale vs. New England (12-21)...Tipped a QB Boomer Esiason pass that was intercepted by Jesse Campbell in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (11-3) to put the Giants in position for a Brad Daluiso field goal...Filled in for Miller at strongside linebacker after Miller left with an ankle sprain in the second quarter at Arizona (11-17).

1995: Played in all 16 games and replaced Corey Miller in the starting lineup at strongside linebacker in five games...Ended the season with 20 tackles, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, a pass defensed and four special teams tackles...Was slated for his first starting assignment of the season vs. Philadelphia (10-15), but did not start because the Giants opened with the nickel defense. Played virtually the entire game and finished with three tackles. Recovered a Randall Cunningham fumble at the Giants 12-yard line to end an Eagle scoring threat...Made his first start at strong side linebacker since being named the starter at Washington (10-29)...Stint as a starter ended when Miller was returned to the lineup at Arizona (11-30).

1994: Played in all 16 games with one start, vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) for the injured Corey Miller (knee) at strong side linebacker... Finished tied for third on the team with nine special teams tackles...Also forced a fumble on the punt team at New Orleans (10-2)...Recorded 15 defensive tackles and one pass defensed on the year...Named Giants Special Teams MVP for leading team with three tackles vs. Philadelphia (9-4)...Defensive play increased over the last quarter of the season, beginning at Cleveland (12-4).

1993: Played in all 16 games of his rookie season, primarily on special teams and in nickel defense...Started at ILB at New Orleans (12-20) and at Phoenix (12-26) for injured Michael Brooks (foot)...Finished third on team with seven special teams tackles...Also recorded 11 tackles on defense.

College: Ranks fifth in Texas A&M record book with 29 career quarterback sacks...All-time school leader with 10 fumble recoveries, breaking old mark of nine by Jacob Green...As a senior, was named first team All-America by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, Associated Press, Walter Camp, Kodak, Football News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Sporting News, United Press International, and the Football Writers Association of America...Consensus All-Southwest Conference first team selection and the SWC's Defensive Player of the Year...Semifinalist for the Dick Butkus Award, given to the nation's top linebacker...In 1992 finished third on the team with 70 tackles and led the Aggies with 12 sacks and 21 tackles for 128 yards in losses...Also deflected four passes and had 18 quarterback pressures and four fumble recoveries...Despite missing two weeks of practice with an infected foot prior to '92 season-opener against Stanford, entered the game late in the first quarter and recorded three tackles, two quarterback sacks, a QB pressure, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

Personal: Three-time All-District choice at Eastern Hills HS in Fort Worth, Texas....Kinesiology major with an emphasis in Sports Management at A&M...Born Marcus Wayne Buckley on February 3, 1971.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (97th pick overall) draft choice by Pittsburgh in 1990. Signed by the Giants as a Plan B free agent from Pittsburgh on March 31, 1992.

NFL: Has started the past four seasons after moving into the starting position in 1993 for the injured Mike Sherrard (hip)...Spent first two years of career with the Pittsburgh Steelers as a backup at wide receiver and special teams performer...Is a steady, solid, consistent player...Excellent downfield blocker...Ended streak of 41 consecutive games with at least one reception in 1996 season-opener against Buffalo (9-1).

1996: Led the team for the second consecutive season in receiving. Tied for the team-lead (with Thomas Lewis) with 53 receptions. Led the team with 739 yards receiving. The last Giants receiver to lead the team for two consecutive seasons was Mark Bavaro in 1986-87. Also had one rush for two yards. Tied with Lewis for team-lead with four touchdowns, a new career high-mark...Had streak of 41 consecutive games with at least one reception come to an end in season-opener vs. Buffalo (9-1). Marked the first time since 10-31-94 vs. Jets that he did not catch a pass...Led the team with five receptions for 72 yards vs. Washington (9-15). Four of his five receptions resulted in Giants first downs...Scored his first touchdown of the season at Jets (9-22) when he capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a 17-yard scoring play...Had a career-day at Washington (10-20) with nine receptions for 108 yards. It marked his second 100-yard receiving performance. Six of his nine receptions went for greater than 10 yards. Was named Offensive Player of the Game by the coaching staff...Caught four passes for 92 yards, including a 24-yard touchdown pass from Tyrone Wheatley on the halfback option to give the Giants the lead in the second quarter at Detroit (10-27)... Led the team with seven receptions for 95 yards, including a 13-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown to cap the Giants first scoring drive at Carolina (11-10). Did not start against the Panthers as the Giants began the game with Brian Saxton at H-back...Led the team with six receptions for 95 yards at Arizona (11-17).

1995: Played in all 16 games with 15 starts as he led the team with 56 receptions for 796 yards, both career-highs...Scored three touchdowns, equalling the second-best season total of his career...Extended his streak to 41 consecutive games with at least one reception. Giants team record is 46 consecutive games, held by former RB David Meggett...After missing most of the preseason with a hamstring injury, had his first 100-yard receiving day (5-100) at Kansas City (9-10). Previous best was 93 yards vs. Pittsburgh on 10-23-94. Capped a 75-yard game-opening drive with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown to put the Giants in front of the Chiefs, 7-0...Had a big

Waived by Atlanta on September 9, 1991. Claimed off waivers by Buffalo on September 10, 1991. Signed by Dallas as a Plan B free agent on February 18, 1992. Waived by Dallas on August 31, 1992. Claimed off waivers by Denver on September 1, 1992. Waived by Denver on August 23, 1993. Signed by Giants as a free agent on September 1, 1993.

NFL: Entering third season as full-time placekicker...Daluiso was given the opportunity to be the full-time placekicker in training camp of 1994 before giving way to David Treadwell at the start of the regular season...Regained the full-time role in the 13th week of the season in the second half of the Giants game at Cleveland...Was used primarily as a kickoff specialist through his first three NFL seasons...Ability to put the ball in the end zone makes him a valuable commodity...Enters the 1997 season with a streak of 26 consecutive successful attempts from inside 40 yards....Daluiso's career field goal percentage with the Giants is 81.2 (56 of 69), best in team history. The previous best success rate was held by Matt Bahr (75.3 %, 55 of 73).

1996: Finished the season with 14 consecutive successful field goal attempts...On the season, his 88.9 conversion rate (24 field goals on 27 attempts) set a team record. The old mark was held by Ali Haji-Sheikh (83.3%, 35 of 42), set during the 1983 season...Connected on field goals of 25, 27 and 18 yards to help give the Giants a 15-10 victory over the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings (9-29)...His strong kickoffs helped limit the Eagles average start of possession to their own 19-yard line vs. Philadelphia (10-13)...His 45-yard field goal in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (11-3) was his first successful kick between 40-49 yards of the 1996 season. Connected on a 31-yard field goal on the opening drive and a 32-yard field goal in the third quarter. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the National Football League...Connected on field goals of 45 and 46 yards in the second quarter vs. Dallas (11-24) to give the Giants a 6-3 lead. The 46-yarder was his longest of the season...Three of his four kickoffs went into the end zone for touchbacks, and he converted both of his extra point attempts and his only field goal attempt, a 37-yarder, at Miami (12-8). Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the NFL for the second time in 1996.

1995: In his first complete season handling full-time placekicking duties, played in all 16 games and finished 20-of-28 in field goal attempts and 28-of-28 on PATs...After going 11-of-11 in field goal attempts in 1994 and six-of-six in the preseason, missed his first attempt of the 1995 regular-season when his 42-yard attempt was blocked and sailed wide left in the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...His missed field goal was the Giants only scoring opportunity of the evening...Kicked a 51-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to extend the Giants lead to 24-17 vs. New Orleans (9-24). Was six-of-six on extra point attempts against the Saints...Did a good job of kicking the ball outside the numbers on kickoffs to limit return specialist Brian Mitchell's running room at Washington (10-29)...His 48-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right as time expired, capping a 30-28 Seattle Seahawks victory over the visiting Giants (11-5). Is now 3 of 4 lifetime for the Giants when attempting a field goal with the game in the balance. Prior to the missed 48-yard attempt against Seattle, Daluiso had connected from 54 yards with :32 left to defeat the Cardinals, 19-17 on Nov. 28, 1993, hit a 33-yarder with :19 left to defeat Cleveland, 16-13, on Dec. 4, 1994 and nailed an 18-yarder with :54 remaining to defeat Phialdelphia, 16-13 on Dec. 18, 1994...Missed his first field goal inside the 40-yard line in 19 attempts when his 37-yard field goal try sailed wide right in the second quarter at Philadelphia (11-19). Was eight-of-eight inside the 40-yard line prior to the miss.

1994: Finished the season a perfect 11-of-11 in field goal attempts after taking over full-time kicking duties in the second half at Cleveland (12-4)...Led the league in touchbacks with 19...Of his 65 kickoffs, 26 went into the end zone, 19 for touchbacks...Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after the Cleveland game when he connected on field goals of 25, 30 and 33 yards, the kick that gave the Giants a 16-13 victory with :19 left in regulation...Awarded a game ball and named team Special Teams MVP vs. Cincinnati (12-11) when he kicked field goals of 52 and 33 yards...The 52-yarder is the second-longest field goal of Daluiso's career; his career-best is the 54-yarder that defeated Arizona on 11-28-93...Named Giants Special Teams MVP at Philadelphia (12-18) after kicking three field goals, including an 18-yard game-winning FG with :54 left in regulation.

1993: Played in 15 games...44 of his 64 kickoffs went into or through the end zone, 39 of those for touchbacks...Connected on a 54-yard FG with :32 left in the game to give Giants 19-17 victory vs. Phoenix (11-28) as he earned a game ball and Special Teams MVP honors...NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for performance at Miami (12-5) when all four of his kickoffs went for touchbacks.

1992: For the season he kicked off 65 times with 53 touchbacks, an .815 percentage, and had only 12 returned, by far the lowest in the NFL...Denver opponents scored just four times after starting their possessions with a Daluiso touchback kickoff...After Denver's starting P Mike Horan was injured following a blocked punt vs. Houston (10-18), Daluiso averaged 48.5 yards on four punts...Also punted in the season finale at Kansas City (12-27), punting six times for a 45.5 average, including a 67-yarder, the Broncos' longest of the season...Picked up off of waivers from Dallas, after signing there as a Plan B free agent, just prior to the beginning of the regular season.

1991: Attended Green Bay's training camp in 1991, but was traded to Atlanta...Waived by Atlanta and claimed by Buffalo where he spent the rest of the 1991 campaign...Posted season totals of 30 touchbacks on 84 kickoffs...Converted two of his three field goal attempts and both extra point attempts with Atlanta.

College: Daluiso was a second-team All-Pac 10 selection as a senior at UCLA...He hit 13 of 19 field goals and 32 of 33 PAT tries to lead the Bruins in scoring...He made the team as a walkon in 1989 and handled 46 of the team's 48 kickoffs...Was a member of the Grossmont (Calif.) JC soccer team before becoming a kickoff specialist on the football team in 1988...He attended San Diego State in 1986 but did not play football.

Personal: Married (Kahle)...Makes his offseason home in Del Mar, California...Attended Valhalla HS in El Cajon, earning varsity letters in tennis and soccer...Led his soccer team to the CIF soccer championship...Majored in Sociology at UCLA...Brad Daluiso was born on December 31, 1967 in San Diego, Calif.

Established a Big-10 and Minnesota school record with 5 TDs vs. Purdue during his senior season.

Transactions: Originally signed by the Giants as a free agent on April 29, 1994.

NFL: A quick receiver who could challenge for playing time at the fourth wide receiver slot this season...Also can be used as a return man.

1996: Placed on injured reserve on November 13 after dislocating his left thumb making a tackle on the opening kickoff at Carolina (11-10). Underwent successful surgery to insert a plate to repair the fractured thumb on November 11...Finished the season with one reception for eight yards and one kickoff return for 11 yards. Added three special teams tackles...Activated for the first time in 1996 at Dallas (9-8) due to the injury to Thomas Lewis (hamstring/back). Entered the game at wide receiver when Amani Toomer was forced to leave for a couple of plays in the first quarter after being hit in the knee by a helmet. Toomer returned to the game at wide receiver, but Douglas took Toomer's spot on the kickoff return team. Returned one kickoff for 11 yards...With the injury to Toomer (knee) was active as a reserve wide receiver at Detroit (10-27). Saw some action in three wideout sets but did not have any receptions...Active as a reserve wide receiver and special teams player vs. Arizona (11-3) and had his only reception of the season, an eight-yard pass from Danny Kanell in the fourth quarter. Added two solo special teams tackles against the Cardinals on the kickoff team in the second half.

1995: As a fourth receiver and part-time return man, played in eight games with one start...Finished the season with two receptions for 15 yards and returned a fumble on special teams for a touchdown... Started for first time in his NFL career in place of Mike Sherrard (ribs) at Kansas City (9-10) but did not have any receptions...With Tyrone Wheatley taking the majority of the load at running back vs. Arizona (10-8), Douglas took his spot on the kickoff return team. Returned one kick for 13 yards. Marked the first time that the second-year player touched the ball in a regular season game...Down 17-6 with under five minutes remaining in regulation vs. Philadelphia (10-15), the Giants got the big play that they needed to get back into the game. Keith Elias rushed the Eagles punter so quickly that Elias got to the ball before it was punted and forced a fumble that Douglas returned 41 yards for a touchdown to cut the Eagles lead to 17-14...Split time with Arthur Marshall as the third wide receiver at Philadelphia (11-19) as he caught his first professional pass in the fourth quarter, a four-yarder from Dave Brown...Caught an 11-yard pass from Brown during the Giants fourth quarter touchdown drive vs. Chicago (11-26).

1994: Played in six of last seven games after being inactive through first nine games of the season...Became the Giants fourth receiver after Thomas Lewis suffered season-ending knee injury at Dallas (11-7)...Did not catch a pass on the season but recorded two special teams tackles.

College: Was second-team GTE Academic All-America as a senior in 1993 when he led the Big Ten in receiving yards (880) and receptions (60), a national ranking of 14th and 15th, respectively...Established Big 10 and school record with five TDs vs. Purdue his senior season.

Personal: Earned a 3.21 GPA while majoring in Minnesota's Bachelor's of Individualized Studies program with an emphasis in Business/Afro-American Studies and Sociology...Born June 3, 1972.

1996: Finished the season with 827 yards rushing on 254 carries (3.3 avg.)...Scored just one rushing touchdown. Did not score a touchdown through the season's first 13 games, the longest such streak of his seven-year career. The longest scoreless streak for Hampton prior to this season was five games (in 1994 and the last two games of '94 and the first three of '95)...Caught 15 passes for 82 yards, no touchdowns....Rushed for 81 yards on 27 rushing attempts at the Jets (9-22). Gained 59 of those yards in the first half. Fumbled for the first time in 231 rushing attempts on his first carry of the second half. It was Hampton's first fumble since the first quarter at Washington (10-29-95)...Gained 82 yards on 24 rushing attempts vs. Minnesota (9-29). Had just 16 yards in the first half before gaining 66 in the second. Tough running at the end of the game helped the Giants run out the final four minutes to preserve the win. Had runs of 12 yards and 13 yards during the final drive. Named Offensive MVP by the coaching staff for his performance...Had his highest output of the season, 94 yards on 24 carries, vs. Arizona (11-3)...Started the game at Arizona (11-17) but former head coach Dan Reeves elected to use Tyrone Wheatley from the second quarter on. Finished with just three yards on seven carries and rushed just once after intermission...Scored his first touchdown of the season on a four-yard run in the first quarter at Miami (12-8) to push into a tie with Joe Morris on the Giants all-time list with 48 rushing touchdowns. The Giants ground game helped control the ball for 36:28 of the game and 10:33 of the final period to help seal the victory...Left the New Orleans (12-15) game with a bruised right knee and did not dress for the season-finale against New England (12-21).

1995: Best statistical season of his career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries...Scored 10 touchdowns...On the Giants second possession in the first quarter at Kansas City (9-10), Hampton lost his first fumble in 495 touches (471 rushes, 24 receptions). It was his first fumble lost since 11-21-93 at Philadelphia. It marked the first time that Hampton had fumbled in 489 touches (465 rushes, 24 receptions), the last time being on 11-28-93 vs. the Cardinals...Became just the second Giants rusher in history to go over 5,000 career yards when he gained 86 yards at Green Bay (9-17)... With his 149 yards rushing on 33 carries and four rushing touchdowns against the Saints (9-24), continued his assualt on the Giants record book as he became the Giants all-time rushing attempt leader moving past Joe Morris (1,318). He also tied a team record with four touchdowns in a game and most points in a game with 24. Earnest Gray and Ron Johnson also scored 24 points in a game during their careers. His 32-yard run in the first quarter was his longest run from scrimmage in the regular season since 11-1-92 at Washington when he had a 32-yard carry. Awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for his efforts...After reaching the 49ers three-yard line late in the third quarter at San Francisco (10-1) Dave Brown pitched the ball to Hampton, who lost control of the ball before recovering it for a 14-yard loss. Hampton, it was later learned, was playing with a broken bone in his right hand... Did not start vs. Arizona (10-8) but did play despite a broken hand... On his third carry of the game at Washington (10-29), a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down, Hampton moved past Joe Morris (5,287) to become the Giants all-time leading rusher. Named offensive MVP along with Mike Sherrard for his performance (83 yards on 17 carries for a 4.9 average)...Gained 69 yards on 22 attempts and scored on a one-yard touchdown run and a two-yard touchdown run vs. Chicago (11-26). Marked the third time in 1995 that Hampton recorded at least two rushing touchdowns and marked the ninth time in his career that he had two or more rushing touchdowns in a game...On the Giants game-winning drive vs. Washington (12-10), head coach Dan Reeves elected to go for it on fourth-down-and-one from the Giants own 41-yard line. Hampton followed John Elliott's block and gained two yards for the first down to keep the drive alive...Hampton had a career day against the Cowboys (12-17) as he set a personal single-game high mark with his 187-yard rushing performance, the fourth-best mark in team history...Hampton's 28-yard run in the third quarter pushed him over the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth consecutive season.

1994: Finished seventh in the NFL and third in the NFC with 1,075 yards rushing...Played in 14 games with 13 starts...Was injured (bruised back/kidney) at Arizona (9-11) and did not play vs. Washington (9-18) or at New Orleans (10-2) because of the injuries...Still recorded his fourth consecutive season of rushing for more than 1,000 yards...Established a career-high with 327 rushing attempts; previous high was 292 in 1993...Also caught 14 passes for 103 yards...In a vote by his teammates, was selected as one of team's captains prior to the season...Was Giants overall MVP at Houston (11-21) after gaining 122 yards rushing and team's offensive MVP at Washington (11-27) after gaining 106 yards on the ground...Earned a game ball vs. Cincinnati after gaining 76 yards rushing...Earned a game ball vs. Dallas (12-24) after gaining 93 yards on the ground and helping the Giants control the ball in the second half, including the last 9:18 of the game.

1993: With 1,077 yards rushing, became the first Giant ever to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons...Only Joe Morris (1985 and 1986) had rushed for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons prior to Hampton...Finished seventh in the NFL and fifth in the NFC with 1,077 rushing yards...Was eighth in the NFC with 1,287 total yards (1,077 rushing, 210 receiving)...Earned a game ball vs. Indianapolis (12-12) when he established a personal best with 173 yards rushing on 33 carries...On the season, had six 100-yard games, including one in the postseason...In addition to Indianapolis, Hampton's regular season 100-yard days were: 134 yards-29 carries vs. Tampa Bay (9-12), 134-41 vs. Rams (9-19), 101-24 at Philadelphia (11-21) and 114-30 vs. Dallas (1-2)...Recorded his first postseason 100-yard game with 33 carries for 161 yards and two TDs against Minnesota (1-9) in the NFC Wild Card game, tying the Giants' all-time individual postseason marks...Rob Carpenter carried the ball 33 times for 161 yards at Philadelphia (12-27-81)...Ken Strong (12-9-34 vs. Chicago), Alex Webster (12-30-56 vs. Chicago) and Joe Morris (1-4-87 vs. San Francisco) all rushed for two TDs in a postseason game...Hampton's 51-yard scoring run against Minnesota is the longest postseason rushing TD in Giants' history; the previous long was 45 yards by Joe Morris vs. San Francisco (1-4-87)...Missed four games: at Washington (10-10), vs. Philadelphia (10-17), vs. Jets (10-31) and at Dallas (11-7) due to knee and ankle injuries suffered at Buffalo (10-3)...Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his knee on October 7 to remove a portion of the lateral meniscus in his left knee...Returned to action vs. Washington (11-14)...Earned second straight trip to the Pro Bowl.

1992: Led team with 1,141 yards rushing and earned a spot on NFC squad in the Pro Bowl...Three rushing touchdowns vs. Kansas City (12-19) tied a team single-game record and his 14 rushing touchdowns for the season ties for second-best in club history...Had two 100-yard games in '92...On 21 carries, rushed for a career-high 167 yards, including the longest run of his career, a 63-yard touchdown, vs. Phoenix (10-11)...Three weeks later, had 138 yards on 23 carries at Washington (11-1)...For the season, caught 28 passes for 215 yards...Equalled a career-high with six receptions at Raiders (10-4)...Had a 31-yard catch vs. Phoenix (10-11).

1991: Missed first two games of the season with a shoulder injury, but bounced back to start final 14 games and become only the fourth Giants player in history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season...Finished with 1,059 yards after picking up 140 in the season-finale vs. Houston (12-21)...Had two other 100-yard games during the season, with 104 yards on 17 carries vs. Cleveland (9-22) and 137 yards on 22 carries vs. Phoenix (10-6)...Scored two rushing TDs at Chicago (9-15)...Established single-game highs with six receptions at Chicago (9-15) and then again vs. Washington (10-27)...Had a single-season high 43 receptions for 283 yards.

1990: Amassed 1,069 all-purpose yards as he played in 15 games with two starts but was limited for five games at midseason because of a sore ankle...Second on team for the season with 455 yards rushing and the third-leading receiver with 32 catches for 274 yards...Also had 340 yards on 20 kickoff returns...First NFL TD was a 12-yard pass reception in season-opening victory vs. Philadelphia...First NFL start came at the Rams (11-11) when he also scored his first rushing TD on a 19-yard run...Regained form from ankle injury down the stretch and led team with 78 yards rushing in victory vs. Minnesota (12-9)...Came back a week later to record first 100-yard game vs. Buffalo (12-15) with 105 yards on 21 carries...In playoffs, suffered a fractured fibula vs. Chicago (1-13-91) that knocked him out of action for the rest of the Giants' Super Bowl title run.

College: An All-America and All-SEC choice in his final season at Georgia in 1989 when he rushed for 1,059 yards and 12 TDs...For his career, Hampton scored 25 TDs overall and caught 46 passes and returned kickoffs for total of 476 yards...As a sophomore in 1988 was named National Player of the Week when he rushed for 196 yards and two TDs in a victory over Tennessee...During his freshman season, he broke Herschel Walker's school single-game all-purpose yardage record of 283 yards by totaling 290 yards vs. Mississippi with 227 yards rushing, 28 yards receiving and 35 yards in kickoff returns.

Personal: A three-sport letterman at Kasmere HS in Houston, Hampton was All-District as a halfback and safety when he rushed for 1,310 yards and 19 TDs as a senior...Rodney Hampton was born on April 3, 1969 in Houston, Texas.

Transactions: Originally a first round (24th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1994.

NFL: With the departure of Mike Sherrard in the 1996 offseason, stepped into a starting role...Was slowed by injuries in his first two NFL seasons, missing a total of 15 games...Has displayed outstanding speed as a return man and wide out.

1996: Finished first season as a starter tied for team-lead with Chris Calloway in receptions with 53 and touchdowns with four...Was second on team with 694 receiving yards...Also returned 10 punts for 36 yards and four kickoffs for 107 yards...Became the first Giants player since Mark Bavaro in 1987 to put together a streak of four straight games with at least one touchdown reception...Replaced Tyrone Wheatley as a kickoff returner after Wheatley was forced out of the game with a cut to his thumb vs. Minnesota (9-29). Set up the Giants second field goal with a 47-yard kickoff return that gave the Giants a first down at the Minnesota 43-yard line...Recorded his second career 100-yard receiving performance with nine receptions for 125 yards at Washington (10-20). Set a single-game high mark with nine receptions...Led the team with five receptions for 76 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown to give the Giants a 25-7 halftime lead, at Detroit (10-27). All five of his receptions went for over ten yards...Named Offensive Player of the Game by the coaching staff vs. Arizona (11-3) for making some key blocks to help the running game and for making some tough receptions. Led the team with seven receptions for 77 yards and one touchdown, a 24-yard score...Caught four passes for 76 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown from Brown in the first quarter at Carolina (11-10) that extended the Giants lead to 14-7.

GIANTS TID BIT

Dreams of becoming a pilot and owning his own plane. Has held controls of a plane in flight.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (167th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1991.

NFL: A regular in the lineup over the last four years...Originally moved into the starting lineup in 1993 after backing up Lawrence Taylor and Carl Banks during his first two NFL seasons.

1996: Finished with 50 tackles (40 solos) from his strong side position...Had two sacks, both in the opener vs. Buffalo (9-1)...Also forced a fumble and broke up a pass...Had the third two-sack game of his career in the opener against the Bills. Marked the first time that he recorded a sack since the 1993 season...Saw the majority of his action at Detroit (10-27) in the fourth quarter along the defensive line where he worked all week in special blitz packages. Deflected a Don Majkowski pass following a hit by Chad Bratzke that allowed Ray Agnew to score on a 34-yard interception return for the Giants final points in a 35-7 victory.

1995: Was replaced then re-inserted into the starting lineup as he played in 14 games with nine starts...Finished the season with 25 tackles and four passes defensed...Started the game vs. New Orleans (9-24) but play was limited due to the Saints pass-oriented offense. The coaching staff replaced Miller with Marcus Buckley to help with the pass coverage and contain the Saints passing game...Did not start due to the Giants opening with a nickel defense that replaced Miller with S Tito Wooten at San Francisco (10-1)... Replaced in the starting lineup by Marcus Buckley vs. Philadelphia (10-15) and did not see any action in the game...Entered the game at linebacker in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia (11-19) for the first time since being replaced in the starting lineup...Returned to the starting lineup at Arizona (11-30)...Played solidly in the final four games of the season as he recorded 17 tackles.

1994: Played in 15 games with 13 starts at the strongside linebacker spot...Was inactive vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) with a knee sprain he suffered at the Rams (10-16)...Equalled his career single-season high with two interceptions; he also had two interceptions in 1992 and 1993...Had 42 tackles on the year and broke up six passes...Intercepted a John Friesz pass vs. Washington (9-18) on the first play of the game to set up a Giants score...Intercepted a Chris Miller pass at the Rams (10-16) at the Giants eight-yard line...Recovered a fumble at Cleveland (12-4).

1993: Finished sixth on the team with 61 total tackles, second on the team with 6.5 sacks, first on the team with four forced fumbles, tied for first with two fumble recoveries and tied for third with six passes defensed...Named team's Defensive MVP for his efforts at Washington (10-10) when he recorded his first interception of the year and the first two-sack performance of his career...Earned game balls and Defensive MVP honors vs. Philadelphia (10-17) when he had two sacks and a key interception and vs.

Indianapolis (12-12) when he totaled six tackles, one sack and two forced fumbles as the Giants clinched a playoff spot with the victory.

1992: Played in all 16 games and started season's final seven games after Lawrence Taylor suffered his Achilles tendon injury vs. Green Bay (11-8)...Finished the season with 34 tackles, two sacks, three passes defensed and two interceptions...Added six special teams tackles...Intercepted passes vs. Phoenix (10-11) and vs. Kansas City (12-19)...Recorded a sack vs. Philadelphia (11-22) and at Philadelphia (12-27).

1991: Played in all 16 games as a reserve linebacker and special teams player and started the first game of his NFL career vs. Houston (12-21)...Finished with six tackles and 2.5 sacks...Also had four tackles and a forced fumble on special teams.

College: Played defensive end and inside linebacker at South Carolina where he was honorable mention All-American and school's Rex Enright Captain's Cup winner as a senior...Career stats were 187 tackles, 10 sacks, 39 QB pressures, three forced fumbles and two interceptions.

Personal: Married (Lisa) with sons, Corey Jr. (C.J.) and Christian...All-America and All-State player at Pageland (S.C.) HS where he was Division MVP, team captain and had 225 career tackles and seven interceptions as his team compiled a 31-5 record...Also placekicked, hitting four of six FG attempts and all 25 PAT attempts...School record holder in shot put...Corey Miller was born on October 25, 1968 in Pageland, S.C.

Transactions: Originally a second round (47th pick overall) draft choice, the first of two second round selections by the Giants, in 1994.

NFL: Was unseated as the starter at right cornerback in training camp by Jason Sehorn. Was slowed in training camp with a groin injury...Earned the starting job during his rookie season in 1994 and was a regular in the lineup until the 1996 season...Key member of the Giants nickel defense.

1996: Performed as the nickel back with two starting assignments when Phillippi Sparks (foot) was injured...Had 37 tackles (31 solos)...Tied for fourth on the team with eight passes defensed and added a defensive fumble recovery and six special teams tackles...Entered the starting lineup for the first time at Detroit (10-27) at right corner as Jason Sehorn was moved to the left side due to the injury to Sparks. Strong play of the secondary helped force five interceptions. Led the team with nine total tackles (eight solos), one pass defensed and one fumble recovery. Set up a Giants field goal in the fourth quarter after recovering a Lions fumble that was caused when Tito Wooten hit WR Johnnie Morton after a five-yard pass reception. Recovered the ball at the Giants 43-yard line and returned it 17 yards to give the Giants a first down at the Lions 40-yard line...Started for the second straight week vs. Arizona (11-3). Broke up two passes and had five tackles (four solos).

1995: In his second season as a regular, started all 16 games at right corner, finishing sixth on the team with 58 tackles and tied for second with nine passes defensed...Added two interceptions and a fumble recovery...After missing most of the preseason with a groin injury, started in season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...Giants secondary did a great job of covering the Packers receivers as QB Brett Favre managed just four completions in the second half at Green Bay (9-17)...A potential Redskins' comeback was thwarted when Randolph intercepted Gus Frerotte with 4:44 left in the game at Washington (10-29)...Displayed his speed when he raced across the field to push Eagles RB Ricky Watters out of bounds at the nine-yard line after a 57-yard run; reminiscent of a play Randolph made on Barry Sanders in 1994...At Arizona (11-30), faced with a first down at his own 46-yard line Dave Krieg tried to find Rob Moore deep in Giants territory, but Randolph intercepted Krieg's pass to end a Cardinal scoring threat...Sealed the Giants victory vs. Washington (12-10) when he broke up a QB Heath Shuler pass intended for WR Henry Ellard at the one-yard line with :47 left to play.

1994: Played in all 16 games with 10 starts as the most productive member of the Giants '94 draft class...Replaced starter Corey Raymond at the right corner spot at New Orleans (10-2) when Raymond was forced out of the game in the second half because of a concussion...Earned his first NFL start vs. Minnesota (10-10) when Giants opened in a nickel defense...Started at right corner vs. Detroit (10-30) due to Phillippi Sparks' groin injury...Displayed his speed against the Lions when he caught Barry Sanders from behind on a 62-yard run...Limited Carl Pickens to 59 yards receiving vs. Cincinnati (12-11), snapping a Pickens' streak of four consecutive 100-yard receiving games...Moved into the starting lineup vs. Detroit (10-30) and remained there for the balance of the season...Finished with 39 tackles, tied for second on the team with 10 passes defensed...Was team's Defensive MVP after breaking up three passes and recording his first career interception at Philadelphia (12-18) to set up game-tying TD.

College: A two-year starter for the Jayhawks...Recorded nine career interceptions...Second team All-America choice by AP following senior season...Three-time NCAA track All-America in 55 meter dash. Ran a 6.17 and finished third in '93 NCAAs.

Signed by Minnesota as a Plan B free agent on March 22, 1990. Signed as a free agent by the Giants on August 16, 1994.

NFL: Solid veteran who is capable of playing center or either guard spot as well as deep snap for kicks...Looks to continue in that role in 1997.

1996: Continued to perform well in his role as backup to Brian Williams and as the team's long snapper...Did not play at Dallas (15-2) due to the shutout...Started at center in place of Williams, who was out with back spasms, at Philadelphia (12-1). Marked his first start since replacing Williams at Houston in 1994...Started at center in place of Williams for the second consecutive week at Miami (12-8). Play of the line allowed the Giants to gain 131 yards on the ground and control the clock for 36:28 of the game, including 10:33 of the final quarter to seal the Giants 17-7 victory over the Dolphins...Resumed his backup role with the return of Williams to the starting lineup vs. New Orleans (12-15). Filled in at center for a couple of plays in the third quarter when Williams left after a blow to the head.

1995: Played in all 16 games as the long snapper on punts and kicks...Proved his versatility by filling in at center and guard throughout the season...Filled in for center Brian Williams at Washington (10-29) and at Philadelphia (11-19) when Williams was forced to miss some action due to injuries...At Arizona (11-30), entered the game at left guard for Greg Bishop, who suffered a sprained knee at the end of the first half...When John Elliott left the game vs. San Diego (12-23) in the second quarter with a back injury, Greg Bishop moved from left guard to left tackle and Schreiber entered the game at left guard.

1994: Played in all 16 games as the snapper on the extra point/field goal unit...Entered game at New Orleans (10-2) at left guard when William Roberts was forced to leave with a sprained ankle...Entered Dallas game (11-7) at center for the injured Brian Williams (ribs)...Started two games for Williams (ribs), vs. Arizona (11-13) and at Houston (11-21)...A member of the offensive line that was awarded a game ball for its performance against Oilers when Giants snapped seven-game losing streak.

1993: Started all 16 games for the Vikings at center...Marked the first time in his career that he started in all 16 games...Was used throughout the season as a backup snapper.

1992: Played in all 16 games and started the first game of the season vs. Green Bay at right guard...Also saw time in short yardage situations.

1991: Played in 15 games, mostly as a special teams player and a backup snapper...Missed the Detroit game (11-24) due to a lower leg injury.

1990: For Minnesota, played in all 16 games for the first time in his career, primarily as a long snapper for punts...Was also used as a backup guard and in short yardage situations...Finished the season with five special teams tackles and had one kickoff return for five yards vs. the Raiders (12-22).

1989: Played in 15 games for the Jets as a backup at all of the offensive line positions.

1988: Played the final seven games of the year for the Jets as the deep snapper...Was cut by the Eagles after playing in six games, mostly as a snapper.

1987: Began training camp as a backup guard/center for Eagles but took over the starting left guard role just prior to the final preseason game...Went on to be one of four Philadelphia offensive linemen to start all 12 non-strike games...Earned a game ball, along with his linemates, when the Eagles rushed for 161 yards in a victory over the Saints in Week 2.

1986: Saw action in final nine games with Philadelphia, mostly on special teams...Used by Eagles as long snapper for placekicks and backup snapper for punts...Spent the preseason with the Saints before being waived on final cutdown on (9-1).

1985: Appeared in one game for the Saints.

1984: Played in six games as a reserve right guard and special teams performer for Seattle...Was released by Seattle in final cutdown and resigned in the seventh week of the regular season.

College: Four-year letterman and two-year starter for the Longhorns...Became a starter at offensive guard as a junior...Suffered two broken bones in his hand midway through the season against Southern Methodist and was out of the lineup until the final game of the year against Arkansas...Played guard, tackle and center during his career...Majored in Communications.

Personal: Married (Dalene) with a son, Zachary (10)...Earned All-State and honorable mention All-America honors as an offenive lineman at S.R. Transactions: Originally a second round (59th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two second round selections by the Giants, in 1994.

NFL: Due in part to Thomas Randolph's limited participation in training camp, Sehorn moved into the starting right cornerback spot and proved to be the team's most improved player...Has played both safety and cornerback during his Giants career...A fine athlete who only played two seasons of major college football before entering the NFL.

1996: Moved into the starting right cornerback position, and along with, LB Jessie Armstead, was the team's most effective defensive player...Led the team with five interceptions, including one for a touchdown vs. New England (12-21), and 12 passes defensed...Finished third on the team with 97 tackles (83 solos), including three sacks...Tied for third on team with nine special teams tackles...Made his first career start vs. Buffalo (9-1). Came on a third-down blitz during Buffalo's second offensive series and forced QB Jim Kelly to fumble on a 15-yard sack. Kelly threw the ball at Sehorn's side 11 times but completed just four of those passes...Recorded his first interception when he picked off a QB Gus Frerotte pass in the third quarter vs. Washington (9-15)...Led the team with nine total tackles (seven solos) at the Jets (9-22)...Came on a third down blitz in the third quarter vs. Minnesota (9-29) and forced Vikings QB Warren Moon to fumble on a sack. Also sacked Moon in the second quarter to finish the game with two sacks. Totaled six solo tackles. Earned a game ball from the Giants coaching staff for his performance...Led the team with a career-high 11 total tackles (eight solos) vs. Philadelphia (10-13)...Moved from the right corner to the left side due to the injury to Phillippi Sparks (foot) at Detroit (10-27). Matched up well against Lions WR Herman Moore, limiting him to just one reception for five yards in the first half and just four catches for 49 yards in the game...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Dallas (11-24) due to the Giants using an extra linebacker since they had the Cowboys pinned inside their own five-yard line to start the game. Led the secondary with eight total tackles, one interception and one forced fumble. Stepped in front of WR Michael Irvin and intercepted a Troy Aikman pass at the nine-yard line at the end of the first quarter. Returned the ball 24 yards to give the Giants a first down at the 33-yard line. The Giants converted the turnover into a 45-yard field goal. Ended a Cowboys drive in the fourth quarter when he forced Dallas FB Daryl Johnston to fumble and Jessie Armstead recovered...Intercepted Eagles QB Ty Detmer's pass intended for FB Kevin Turner in the end zone to end a drive in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia (12-1)...Led the team with seven tackles (five solos) and two passes defensed at Miami (12-8). Named Defensive Player of the Game....Recorded his fourth interception of the Transactions: Originally a third round (72nd pick overall) draft choice by St. Louis in 1985. Signed as an unrestricted free agent by the Giants on April 4, 1994.

NFL: Started his 12th NFL season as a reserve before replacing second-year man Rob Zatechka at left guard...Was Giants starting right guard during his first two years with the team...Known for his dedication and work ethic...After starting 121 consecutive games at right guard, was slowed by injuries in first two seasons with the Giants ...Played the first two years of his career at tackle before being switched to the guard position...Has performed solidly at guard since 1987.

1996: Started last ten games of the season at left guard when second-year man Rob Zatechka struggled...Was inserted into the starting lineup to provide veteran leadership for the game at Washington (10-20). Former head coach Dan Reeves said that Smith adjusted well to the move from right to left guard. After generating 102 yards in offense in the first half against Washington, the offense rolled up 292 yards in the second half. The Giants averaged 3.8 yards per rush and netted 287 yards in the air...Started at left guard vs. New Orleans (12-15) but rotated with Zatechka in the second quarter.

1995: Started 13 games at right guard in his 11th NFL season...Offensive line led the way for Rodney Hampton's 149-yard performance vs. New Orleans (9-24)...Split time at right guard with Rob Zatechka with Smith playing the first and third quarters at Philadelphia (11-19)....Suffered an elbow injury in that game...Underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove bone chips from his right elbow and did not play vs. Chicago (11-26), at Arizona (11-30) and vs. Washington (12-10)...Returned to the starting lineup at Dallas (12-17) and was part of a unit that chalked up 244 rushing yards against the Cowboys.

1994: Started 13 games at right guard in first season with Giants...Streak of 121 consecutive starts at right guard was snapped at Dallas (11-7) when he was forced to be inactive with ankle and knee injuries...The Dallas contest was the first game he had missed since 1986...Was inactive the following week vs. Arizona (11-13) and did not play at Houston (11-21) before starting last five games of the season, all Giants victories...Sprained his knee following Washington game (9-18) when his friend, Redskins C Raleigh McKenzie, collided with him as he approached to offer Smith congrat-

1993: Started at right guard in all 16 games for the Cardinals...Play allowed rookie running back Ron Moore to gain 1,000 yards rushing.

1992: Again displayed consistency and reliability...Played every snap in 15 games...Missed only a handful of plays due to sprained elbow at Philadelphia (10-25).

1991: Lined up for every offensive snap (993 plays) for the first time in his career.

1990: Played every snap in 15 games and missed just three plays all season...Prominent ingredient in success of rookie Pro Bowl running back Johnny Johnson.

1989: Only Cardinal offensive player to start in all 16 games.

1988: Started every game at right guard for second consecutive year...Played every down in nine contests and was integral cog in the Cardinals offensive line...Suffered knee sprain vs. Dallas (10-31), then aggravated it the next week vs. San Francisco (11-6) but did not miss a play in either game.

1987: Stepped into veteran Joe Bostic's right guard spot during training camp when Bostic signed late...Started the entire season with solid results.

1986: Started all five preseason games and first 11 games of regular season at right tackle before ankle injury limited him to only two starts in last five contests...Started last two games of season at right guard when Bostic was sidelined with injury...Worked in practice at guard periodically.

1985: Received starting nod five of the last eight contests at right tackle for injured Tootie Robbins (hamstring)...In NFL debut vs. Dallas (11-4) faced national television audience and Ed "Too Tall" Jones...Survived challenge in 21-10 Cardinals' win on Monday night.

College: Received scattered All-American mention as freshman...Became "blue-chip" success story as senior at LSU in 1984...Dropped from 295 to 260 pounds in 1984 to win several All-American honors at LSU.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (96th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two fourth round selections by Dallas, in 1993. Signed by the Giants as a restricted free agent from Dallas on March 8, 1995.
NFL: A solid reserve and spot starter through his first three pro seasons, stepped into the regular lineup at right guard in his first season with the Giants...Has played every offensive line position but center at some point in his career.
1996: Started all 16 games at right guard...Helped the Giants control the ball and establish the running game against Minnesota (9-29). Blocking allowed the Giants to take 8:32 off the clock during their first scoring drive...Offensive line limited the Panthers to just one sack at Carolina (11-10). The Panthers entered the game as the NFL's leader in sacks...Named Offensive Lineman of the Game vs. Dallas (11-24) by the coaching staff for what former head coach Dan Reeves said was his best performance of the season...Play of the line allowed the Giants to control the ball for 36:28 and allowed the running game to gain 131 yards at Miami (12-8). The Giants ground game held the ball for 10:33 of the final quarter to seal the 17-7 victory.

1995: Played in all 16 games with one start...Earned his first start of the season vs. Arizona (9-24), replacing Erik Williams who was out with a strained left calf. Stone helped the Cowboys gain 195 yards rushing and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack to the Cardinals...Was used as the third tight end in short yardage and goal line situations throughout the season...Filled in at right tackle for Williams on a few snaps at Arizona (12-25)...Saw action at both right guard and left guard due to injuries to Larry Allen and Nate Newton vs. Washington (12-3)...Took over at right tackle temporarily for Erik Williams in first half vs. Philadelphia (11-6) and moved to left tackle in the fourth quarter to rest Mark Tuinei...Saw action in all three of the Cowboys postseason games, including the victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Super Bowl.

1994: Although Stone saw most of his action on field goal and extra point attempts, he did receive significant amount of playing time all along the offensive line, usually due to a fallen teammate...Saw fourth quarter action at left guard in place of Nate Newton at Washington (10-2) and against Arizona (10-9)...Played the entire second half at Arizona (10-23) after replacing Newton in the second quarter...Replaced Derek Kennard at right guard against the Giants (11-7) when Kennard suffered a sprained toe midway through the first quarter...Started his first professional game at left guard against Green Bay (1-8-95) in a divisional playoff game for the injured Newton. Also saw action at right tackle in that game for the injured Larry Allen...Filled in at right tackle in the fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1-15-95).

1993: Was active for four games, but did not play in any contests...De-activated for 12 weeks when the Cowboys dropped to 45 players on game day.

College: Made a smooth and rapid adjustment to right tackle on the offensive line his senior year at Boston College after making 68 tackles as a defensive lineman for the Eagles in 1990 and 1991...Anchored an offensive line that ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 233.5 passing yards per game and finished 10th in total offense with an average of 438.4 yards per game....As a junior, started in all 11 games at right defensive tackle and finished with 49 tackles.

Personal: Married (Roxane)...Did not play high school football until his junior year at West Roxbury (Mass.) High...Served as team captain and blocked three punts his senior year...Also started at forward on the basketball team, despite only playing as a senior...A sociology major at Boston College...Spent the summer of 1992 working with inner-city youth in the Big East Conference's "Athletes Care" program.

NFL: Key ingredient on the Giants defensive front, Strahan continued to emerge as one of the top bright young players in the NFL...Turned in the best season of his career in 1995 with a personal-high of 7.5 sacks...Moved into the starting lineup in his second NFL season in 1994 after missing seven games as a rookie due to a foot injury.

1996: Due to injuries along the defensive line during training camp, switched from right end to left end and responded by tying for the team lead with five sacks...Was sixth on the team with 63 tackles (54 solos)...Also forced a fumble and broke up three passes...Helped set the tone early in the game vs. Buffalo (9-1) when he combined with Chad Bratzke for a two-yard sack of QB Jim Kelly on the game's second play...Named Defensive Player of the Game at Jets (9-22) after finishing with two sacks, seven solo tackles and one pass defensed. His second sack of QB Neil O'Donnell on fourth-and-four with under two minutes left to play helped end the Jets comeback chances in a 13-6 win...Recorded his team-leading fifth sack in the third quarter at Miami (12-8) when he dropped QB Dan Marino for a three-yard loss on a third-and-five situation...The Giants started their march to a 22-0 halftime lead over New England (12-21) when QB Drew Bledsoe, under a strong pass rush from Jason Sehorn and Strahan, intentionally grounded a ball in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter.

1995: Turned in the best season of his three-year career with a personal-high 7.5 sacks...In his second season as a regular, started 15 games...Made his first career interception at Kansas City (9-10) when the Chiefs drove to the Giants three-yard line before Strahan intercepted QB Steve Bono in the end zone to secure the Giants 10-3 halftime lead...Recorded the first three-sack game of his career at Green Bay (9-17). All three of the sacks came in the second half when the Giants defensive line put constant pressure on the Packers, limiting them to just 36 total yards in the second half. Ended one Packers series with two consecutive sacks of Packers QB Brett Favre...Vs. Arizona (10-8), forced Dave Krieg to fumble on an eight-yard sack and Keith Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 30-yard line. Provided a good pass rush that forced Krieg to hurry the ball into the waiting arms of Jessie Armstead, who raced 58 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Giants a 27-21 overtime victory...At Washington (10-29), the defense set up a Giants touchdown when rookie Jamal Duff deflected a Gus Frerotte pass and Strahan intercepted and raced 62 yards before being forced out of bounds at the Washington two-yard line. Tyrone Wheatley punched it in from one yard out to give the Giants a Philadelphia Public League Player of the Year, as well as team's Best Offensive Player, Best Running Back, and Best Linebacker honors while serving as captain at Northeast High.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (206th pick overall) draft choice, third of three sixth round selections by the Giants, in 1995.

NFL: Established himself as one of the premier blocking backs in the NFL during his second season...Became first rookie since Mark Bavaro in 1985 to be in the Giants starting lineup on opening day...Powerful build makes him a very effective blocker...In addition to his blocking expertise, has displayed ability as a receiver and ballcarrier.

1996: Carried the ball 22 times for 79 yards and one touchdown...Caught 32 passes, third on the team, for 328 yards and a touchdown...Added seven special teams tackles and recovered a team-leading three fumbles on special teams and had two kickoff returns for 19 yards...Had a career-day with 78 yards on a team-leading four receptions vs. Buffalo (9-1). Way caught a short pass from Dave Brown in the right flat and turned the play into a 37-yard touchdown to extend the Giants lead to 17-0 in the second quarter...Named Offensive Player of the Game by the coaching staff for his excellent play against Detroit (10-27). Former head coach Dan Reeves said that Way did a good job on his cut blocks to help the running game and made some key blocks on pass protection. Tyrone Wheatley was scheduled to be the Giants third down back but when he got ejected in the second half, Way took over the third down back chores. Caught three passes for 22 yards coming out of the backfield...Made some key blocks vs. Arizona (11-3) that allowed Rodney Hampton to gain 94 yards on 24 carries, his highest output of the season...Recovered a PR Marcus Dowdell muffed punt at the Cardinals 14-yard line in the third quarter at Arizona (11-17). On the Giants first play from scrimmage following the recovery, Way came out of the backfield and caught a 13-yard pass from Brown to help the Giants reach the one-yard line. Three plays later, Brown connected with Wheatley on a touchdown pass...Sprained his ankle in the Giants punt coverage unit in the third quarter vs. Dallas (11-24). Came back on the Giants next series and caught a pass from Brown to help set up the Giants fourth quarter touchdown. The Giants were faced with a third-and-nine situation at the Dallas 14-yard line when Brown completed a pass to Way, who shook off three Dallas defenders to give the Giants a first down at the five-yard line. Two plays later, Brown executed a perfect play-action fake that resulted in a four-yard touchdown pass. Named Offensive Back of the Game by the coaching staff...Lined up on the line of scrimmage as a third wide receiver in a special offensive alignment for part of the game at Miami (12-8). Had a career-high six receptions for 56 yards. Played a big role in helping the Giants running game gain 131 yards and control the clock for 36:28 of the game, including 10:33 of the final quarter. Named Offensive Player of the Game...Stiff-armed one Patriots defender to break free for an 18-yard pass play that gave the Giants a first down at the one-yard line vs. New England (12-21). On the next play, Way scored his first NFL rushing touchdown to give the Giants an early 9-0 lead. Saw more action running the ball than usual due to the injuries to Rodney Hampton (bruised knee) and Tyrone Wheatley (ankle). Set a career-high with seven rushing attempts for 36 yards. Caught three passes for 50 yards.

1995: Played in all 16 games with four starts in his rookie season...Only carried the ball two times for six yards, but caught seven passes for 76 yards and a touchdown...Showed promise as a punishing blocker and special teams player...Became first Giants rookie since Mark Bavaro in 1985 to appear in Giants opening-day lineup in the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...Blocking helped Rodney Hampton gain 70 yards in the first half at Kansas City (9-10)...Was replaced in the starting lineup by Herschel Walker at Green Bay (9-17)...His first NFL reception vs. Arizona (10-8) resulted in a two-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown in the third quarter to give the Giants a 14-13 lead...Returned to the starting lineup at fullback vs. Washington (12-10)...His six-yard run in the first quarter against the Redskins was his first run from scrimmage as an NFL player...At Dallas (12-17), did an excellent job as Rodney Hampton's lead blocker. Hampton had a career day against the Cowboys as he set a personal single-game high mark with his 187-yard rushing performance, the fourth-best mark in team history.

College: Finished collegiate career ranked seventh on Virginia's career all-time list with 20 touchdowns...All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorable mention and recipient of the Ben Wilson Award, given to the team's Outstanding Offensive player following senior season...One of three team captains as a senior...Closed out his career with 90 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts in a 20-10 triumph over TCU in the Independence Bowl...All-ACC honorable mention and Academic All-ACC first-team pick as a junior in 1993...Named ACC Offensive Back of the Week as he exploded for 136 yards on 12 attempts an three touchdowns in a 49-29 victory over Maryland that season.

Personal: Married (Tahesha) with daughter Fallon (1-15-97)...Civil Engineering major...Philadelphia Public League Player of the Year as a senior, adding team Best Offensive Player, Best Running Back and Best Linebacker honors while serving as team captain at Northeast High (Philadelphia, Pa)...Also lettered in wrestling and track...School senator his senior year...One of two sons (brother, Cleveland) of Jacqueline and Cleveland Way...Born Charles Christopher Way on December 27, 1972 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Composes piano music, which he says sounds like theme music to movies. Has plans to start recording some of his music.

Transactions: Originally a seventh round (180th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: With the offseason departure of Michael Brooks prior to the 1996 season, entered the starting lineup at the middle linebacker position...Demonstrated his effectiveness on special teams and in short-yardage situations during his first four seasons...Moved into the starting lineup for the first time in his career in 1994...A former defensive lineman who worked extremely hard to master the linebacker position.

1996: For the first time in his career, was the starter for the entire season as he started all 16 games, finishing second on the team with 103 tackles (68 solos), including two sacks...Also intercepted two passes and forced two fumbles...Led the team with nine tackles (four solos) vs. Minnesota (9-29). Helped limit a Vikings offense that was averaging 351 yards in total offense to just 228 yards...Named Defensive Player of the Game at Washington (10-20) after finishing with five total tackles, including two big hits on Redskins RB Terry Allen. After allowing 252 yards in offense in the first half, the Giants defense responded by holding the Redskins to just 78 yards in the second half...Had the first of three Giants second quarter interceptions inside Lions territory at Detroit (10-27). Set up a 38-yard field goal after he recorded his first career interception to give the Giants a first down at the Lions 21-yard line. Widmer fumbled on the return but Jason Sehorn recovered for the Giants. Sacked QB Scott Mitchell on the next series for his first sack of the 1996 season. Finished with two solo tackles before being forced to leave at the end of the third quarter after re-aggravating the bruised sternum that he suffered at Washington. Helped hold RB Barry Sanders to just eight first half yards and only 47 in the game...Led the team with eight tackles (seven solos) at Arizona (11-17). Came on a third down blitz up the middle and sacked QB Boomer Esiason for an eight-yard loss to force a third-and-long situation. Marked his second sack of the season, a career-high...Registered the first regular season forced fumble of his career vs. Dallas (11-24) when he hit WR Michael Irvin in the second quarter on the play that allowed Tito Wooten to race 54 yards for a Giants touchdown. Play helped hold the Cowboys to 33 yards rushing. RB Emmitt Smith had 18 yards on 11 carries for a 1.6 average...Helped preserve the Giants 17-7 lead in the fourth quarter at Miami (12-8) when he intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass that deflected off RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar and into Widmer's hands at the Giants nine-yard line.

1995: Played in all 16 games and led the team with 20 special teams tackles...Had eight defensive tackles as well....Had an outstanding game on special teams, according to Dan Reeves, vs. Arizona (10-8)...Helped hold return specialist Brian Mitchell to just five punt return yards at Washington (10-29)...Vs. Washington (12-10), the Redskins drove to the Giants three-yard line on their second possession and were faced with a first-and-goal situation. On their first play Widmer stuffed RB Terry Allen for a loss of two yards. The Giants held the Redskins to a field goal attempt, which fell short...Again was solid in short-yardage defense at Dallas (12-17), as he stuffed RB Emmitt Smith at the line of scrimmage on third-and-one from the Giants 10-yard line, forcing the Cowboys to settle for a field goal.

1994: Played in all 16 games with five starts at middle linebacker in the season's first six games...Shared ILB duties with Carlton Bailey the remainder of the season...Finished with 32 tackles on defense and led the team in special teams tackles with 15...Also broke up four passes on the year, including a crucial pass at end of the Cincinnati game (12-11) at the goal line that forced the Bengals to settle for a game-tying FG instead of allowing them a go-ahead TD...Made his first professional start vs. Philadelphia (9-4) and finished with five tackles and one pass defensed...Started at middle linebacker at Arizona (9-11) but left the game in the first quarter with a sprained ankle...Recorded first sack of his career when he sacked QB John Freisz for a five-yard loss vs. Washington (9-18)...Was Giants special teams MVP with two solo tackles at Washington (11-27)...Teamed with S Jarvis Williams to stop Cincinnati (12-11) on fourth-and-one from the Giants 27-yard line in the third quarter of Giants 27-20 victory.

1993: Appeared in 11 games on special teams, finishing with six special teams tackles...Appeared at LB in playoff loss at San Francisco (1-15) and forced and recovered a fumble.

1992: Played in the season's final eight games after spending time on injured reserve with a back injury and then being placed on the practice squad during the first eight weeks of the season...Signed to 47-man roster on 11-7...Finished with five tackles on defense and four on special teams...Started rookie season on defensive line before being moved to LB.

College: A two-time All-Big Sky Conference performer at nose tackle for Montana State where he had 286 tackles, 66 for losses and 35 sacks, and six forced fumbles...As a senior, had 82 tackles, 20 for losses, and had seven sacks...As a junior, named Most Valuable Defensive Player of the conference after recording 93 tackles, 25 for losses, and 17 sacks...Also lettered in track as a record-setting field event performer.

Father, the late Dr. Bob Williams, was a star QB at Notre Dame who led Irish to 7-0 victory over Oklahoma in 1957 to end Sooners' 47-game winning streak.

Transactions: Originally a first round (18th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1989.

NFL: The leader of the Giants offensive line...Charged with holding together an offensive line that included three new starters for much of the 1996 season...Turned in another season that warranted Pro Bowl consideration...Moved into the starting lineup in 1994 after serving as an important backup and spot starter at center and guard through the first five years of his career.

1996: Did an outstanding job of helping the Giants establish the running game and control the clock vs. Minnesota (9-29). The Giants put together scoring drives of 8:32, 6:18 and 5:48...Blocking vs. Arizona (11-3) helped Rodney Hampton gain 94 yards rushing on 24 attempts, his highest output of the 1996 season. Offense averaged 3.9 yards per play...The Giants offensive line limited the Panthers to just one sack at Carolina (11-10). Carolina entered the game as the NFL's leader in sacks...Offensive line allowed just one sack against the number one-rated defense vs. Dallas (11-24)...Due to a bulging disk, missed his first game after 33 consecutive starts at Philadelphia (12-1)...Was also forced to miss the game at Miami (12-8)...Returned to the starting lineup vs. New Orleans (12-15).

1995: Started all 16 games despite ankle and thumb problems...Returned to action in time for the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4) after suffering an ankle sprain in a preseason game against the Saints...Anchored an offensive line that helped the Giants gain 474 total yards (including 218 on the ground) vs. New Orleans (9-24), their highest output since gaining 487 yards on 9-29-91 at Dallas...After offense gave up eight sacks at Philadelphia (11-19), offensive line helped nullify Chicago attack (11-26) as Bears did not sack Dave Brown once...Helped lead the way at Dallas (12-17) when line allowed Rodney Hampton to have a career day against the Cowboys as he set a personal single-game high mark with his 187-yard rushing performance, the fourth-best in team history. Hampton's performance put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth consecutive season as the Giants gained 244 yards rushing against the Cowboys. Williams threw a key block on Tyrone Wheatley's one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter of the Dallas game.

1994: Started 14 games in his first season as a full-time starter...Was inactive vs. Arizona (11-13) and did not play at Houston (11-21) due to a rib injury...Started vs. Detroit (10-30) but suffered a blow to the abdomen and was forced to leave the game in the first quarter...Following layoff due to rib injury, returned to starting lineup as RB Rodney Hampton rushed for 106 yards at Washington (11-27)...Along with fellow linemen, helped Giants sustain three first half drives at Cleveland (12-4) that totalled 195 yards...Earned Giants overall MVP honors vs. Cincinnati (12-11) as he anchored a line that allowed no sacks as the offense compiled 304 yards...Giants held the ball for 23:17, including the final 9:18 of the game, in second half of victory over Dallas (12-24).

1993: Played in all 16 games for the first time since 1990...Made one start at center vs. Philadelphia (10-17) as Bart Oates recovered from a sprained ankle...Williams and Oates split the center duties 50-50 with Williams playing the second and fourth quarters.

1992: Played in 13 games and started at center vs. Washington (12-6) when he suffered a broken right foot and was lost for the remaining three games of the season.

1991: Played in 14 games as a backup at guard and center with most work coming in short-yardage situations.

1990: Played in all 16 regular season games and three postseason games primarily in short-yardage offense and on special teams...Did get one starting assignment, at guard, vs. San Francisco (9-2) in the season-opener.

1989: Late reporting to camp as the result of extended contract negotiations...Played in 14 games and started the final four games of the season at right guard when Damian Johnson was injured and the offensive line was shuffled...Threw a couple of key blocks at Denver (12-10) as David Meggett scored on a 57-yard game-winning run.

College: Started the final two seasons of his collegiate career at Minnesota...Started at center as a junior and guard as a senior after beginning as a tight end...In 1987, helped Gophers set a school record with 2,651 yards rushing for the season...Team captain as a senior...Played in East-West Shrine and Senior Bowl games.

Personal: Married (Rochelle) with daughter Danielle (5) and son Maxx (3)...A football and baseball star at Mt. Lebanon (Pa.) HS...Brian Scott Williams was born on June 8, 1966 in Mount Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

(9-22)...Returned to action vs. Philadelphia (10-13) but did not start. Saw action in the nickel and dime defensive packages as well as in place of Jesse Campbell at strong safety for several plays. The Giants secondary helped limit the Eagles passing attack to 170 yards on 18 completions...Blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety to begin the Giants run of 35 consecutive points at Detroit (10-27). Picked off a Lions QB Scott Mitchell pass at midfield and returned it to the Lions 23-yard line in the second quarter. On the next play, Dave Brown connected with Thomas Lewis on a touchdown pass to give the Giants a 25-7 lead. In the fourth quarter, Wooten hit Lions WR Johnnie Morton after he made a five-yard catch and forced a fumble that Thomas Randolph recovered. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff...Vs. Dallas (11-24) finished with two tackles (one solo) and a fumble recovery that he returned for a touchdown. The Cowboys drove into Giants territory late in the second quarter when Corey Widmer forced WR Michael Irvin to fumble the ball after a short gain. Wooten recovered the ball and raced 54 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Giants a 13-3 halftime lead. Marked his second career touchdown (recovered a fumble in the end zone at Kansas City in 1995)...Missed the game at Miami (12-8) and vs. New Orleans (12-15) with an ankle sprain that he suffered at Philadelphia (12-1)...Returned to the starting lineup in the season-finale vs. New England (12-21). Had six solo tackles.

1995: Saw increased playing time in nickel and dime coverages designed to inhibit the West Coast offense that the Giants faced six times in 1995...Played in all 16 games with three starting assignments...Finished with 48 tackles and seven passes defensed and an interception...Was second on the team with ten special teams tackles...Recovered Keith Hamilton's fumble in the end zone to give the Giants a 17-3 lead with 10:56 left in regulation at Kansas City (9-10)...Entered the starting lineup in place of Corey Miller at San Francisco (10-1) in a special dime package that the Giants used to help contain the 49ers passing attack...Helped limit Steve Young to just 202 yards on 26 completions...Received his second starting assignment vs. Philadelphia (10-15) as the Giants opened in the nickel defense to try to contain the Eagles' West Coast offense. The defense limited the Eagles to just 66 net yards passing...Replaced Vencie Glenn at safety when Glenn was forced out of action with a burner in his neck at Seattle (11-5)...Made his first career start at free safety in place of the injured Glenn vs. Oakland (11-13). Responded by leading the team with 10 total tackles (seven solos)...At Arizona (11-30), broke through the Cardinals line and was in position to block a Jeff Feagles punt in the third quarter. Feagles was forced to run and was stopped short of the first down...Ended a drive vs. Washington (12-10) when he picked off a QB Heath Shuler pass in the second quarter and returned it 38 yards to the Washington 40 to set up Brad Daluiso's 42-yard field goal that gave the Giants a 13-3 halftime lead.

1994: After being chosen in the '94 Supplemental Draft just prior to training camp, played in all 16 games and started vs. Minnesota (10-10) and at Washington (11-27) when the Giants opened in nickel defenses...Finished with 20 tackles on defense and five special teams tackles...In his first professional game, made a key block on David Meggett's 68-yard punt return for a TD vs. Philadelphia (9-4)...Played strong safety at Dallas (11-7) when starter Jarvis Williams was forced from the game in the fourth quarter with a knee injury...As Giants played mostly nickel and dime defenses at Houston (11-21), helped limit Oilers to just 112 yards passing.

College: A transfer from North Carolina, Wooten finished his senior year at N.E. Louisiana with 49 total tackles (33 solos) and two interceptions, one of which he returned for a touchdown...Also spent time working as a running back during his collegiate career.

GIANTS TID BIT

A straight-A student in high school and college. Was a finalist for a Rhodes Scholorship at Oxford.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (128th pick overall) draft choice, first of two fourth round selections by the Giants, in 1995.
NFL: Earned starting left guard job in 1996 training camp and held spot for first six games before being replaced by veteran Lance Smith...Made a positive impression in his rookie season as he played in 16 games with three starting assignments...Although he primarily played tackle in college, began career with the Giants as a guard.
1996: Earned starting left guard position and held the spot for the first six games of the season before the coaching staff decided to replace him in the starting lineup with veteran Lance Smith...Did a great job with the tough assignment of blocking Vikings All-Pro tackle John Randle vs. Minnesota (9-29). The Giants offense established the running game and was able to control the clock. The offense had scoring drives of 8:32, 6:18 and 5:48. Rodney Hampton gained 82 yards rushing behind the play of the line, which helped the Giants run out the final four minutes to preserve the 15-10 victory...Was replaced in the starting lineup at Washington (10-20). Former head coach Dan Reeves said that he needed to make a move on the offensive line and felt that guard was the position at which the Giants had the most depth...Only playing time against the Redskins was on the field goal and extra point units...Active but did not play at Philadelphia (12-1). Part of the field goal and extra point units that did not see any action due to the 24-0 shutout...Vs. New Orleans (12-15) saw action at left guard for the first time since being replaced in the starting lineup. Rotated with Smith in the second quarter.
1995: Played in all 16 games with three starting assignments while regular Lance Smith recovered from elbow surgery...Did a nice job of blocking during Herschel Walker's 50-yard kickoff return that helped set up a Giants touchdown at Seattle (11-5)...Began rotating with Smith at right guard at Philadelphia (11-19) as Zatechka saw action in the second and fourth quarters...Made his first NFL start vs. Chicago (11-26) as he replaced Smith at right guard...Against the Bears, the Giants offensive line did not allow Dave Brown to be sacked.
College: All-America honorable mention and All-Big Eight Conference first-team pick by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft after senior season...Winner of the Honda Scholar-Athlete Award...Earned an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame...One of six Huskers to be chosen to the Phillips 66 Academic Big Eight team...Manned the left tackle position, paving the way as the Huskers led the nation in rushing, averaging 340.0 yards per game...First-team GTE Academic All-American as a junior in 1993...Moved to left guard in junior season, starting the team's first nine games until he suffered an ankle sprain vs. Colorado...Missed most of the Kansas and Iowa State games, but returned to the lineup vs. Florida State in the Orange Bowl...Second-team GTE Academic All-American selection and key reserve at both tackle positions as a sophomore in 1992...Redshirted as freshman in 1990...Recepient of school's Male Student Leader of the Year Award in 1993.

Personal: Married (Jennifer)...Biological Science Major, possessing a perfect 4.0 grade point average...Three-time GTE Academic All-American and four-time Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Conference choice...One of three sons of Dr. Douglas and Jane Zatechka...Father is the director of student housing at Nebraska...Brother, Steve, attends graduate school at Nebraska and another brother, Jon, is a senior offensive lineman at Nebraska...All-State and All-Class selection as a senior at East High (Lincoln, Neb.)...Selected Nebraska Lineman of the Year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club...Added All-America honors from Lindy's Recruiting Service...Lettered three times in football as an offensive tackle while also seeing action on the defensive front...Added three letters in track...Academic All-State choice...Born Robert Zatechka on December 1, 1971 in Lansing, Michigan.

HILLIARD QUOTES

George Young on Hilliard: "I feel that he is a complete receiver. He can make all the catches that you need. He makes adjustments on the poorly thrown balls. One of the things that struck me was that he was very consistent in college."

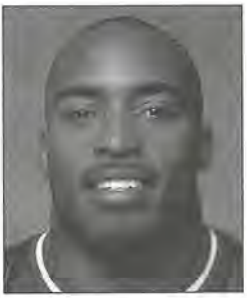

Jim Fassel on Hilliard: "I think that this guy brings what I call fluid speed. He can adjust to the ball around him. This guy can take the ball in different areas and run with it after he catches it."

Hilliard on Hilliard: "We pride ourselves at the University of Florida as far as running after the catch. We try to make something happen every time that we touch the ball."

BARBER QUOTES

Jim Fassel on Barber: "He can bring a lot to help this football team next year. He will play regular downs, but he is a third down guy because he is big enough and aggressive enough to block. When I looked at him on film, the only thing that kept flashing in my eyes was David Meggett and Larry Centers."

George Young on Barber: "He runs back kickoffs and punts and catches passes and does everything effortlessly, so I think that is something that will help us tremendously on third down. He's a very strongly-built fellow."

Tom Boisture on Barber: "He is an all-purpose guy. His production speaks for itself. He can return punts and kickoffs. If he had to, he's been durable enough on the college level, he could play fulltime."

MAYNARD QUOTE

Jim Fassel on Maynard: "Maynard has tremendous hang time. To me he is a guy that is a tremendous team player. Not a special teams player but a team player. If you can't move the ball offensively, he can change field position to help the defense tremendously. You know the guy is special when he is named the player of the year in the MAC. It doesn't happen very often that the punter is the player of the year."

Game 1

BUFFALO 23, GIANTS 20 (OT)

at East Rutherford, Sept. 1, 1996

The Buffalo Bills overcame a 17-7 halftime deficit and a 20-17 fourth quarter deficit to escape Giants Stadium with a 23-20 overtime victory. The Giants defense set the tone early in the game by recording two of the team's seven sacks of QB Jim Kelly during the game's first series. After fielding a punt inside Bills territory on their first offensive series, the Giants reached the Bills' four-yard line before settling for a 22-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso for a quick 3-0 lead. Rookie WR Amani Toomer extended the Giants lead to 10-0 in the second quarter when he set a team record with an 87-yard punt return for a touchdown. After stopping Buffalo on the ensuing drive, QB Dave Brown threw a short pass to FB Charles Way in the right flat. Way turned the play into a 37-yard touchdown for a 17-0 Giants lead. Kelly fooled the Giants defense with a play-action pass that resulted in a 31-yard pass to WR Andre Reed, helping set up a one-yard touchdown run by RB Thurman Thomas to cut the Giants lead to 17-7 at the end of the first half. The Giants went three-and-out in six out of eight series in the the second half and gained just four first downs to aid the Bills second half comeback. The Giants only points in the second half came after taking advantage of a CB Phillippi Sparks interception that gave the Giants offense the ball at the Bills 14-yard line. Three plays later the Giants converted the turnover into a 34-yard Daluiso field goal to extend their lead to 20-7. After a 28-yard field goal by Bills PK Steve Christie closed the gap to 20-10, the Bills found the end zone when Kelly found Reed over the middle on a slant pattern. Reed put on a burst of speed and ran 60 yards for the touchdown. The Bills converted on third-and-18 to put themselves in position for a 39-yard Christie field goal with 7:14 remaining in regulation to tie the game at 20-20. In overtime, Bills DE Bruce Smith sacked Brown and forced a fumble that LB Chris Spielman recovered for the Bills at the Giants 33-yard line. Once the Bills reached the 16-yard line, Christie was in position for his game-winning 34-yard field goal for the finishing touch to the Bills comeback.

Game 2

DALLAS 27, GIANTS 0

at Irving, Sept. 8, 1996

The Giants record fell to 0-2 after being shutout by the Dallas Cowboys, 27-0, at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys defense completely stopped the Giants offense. Heading into the final quarter of play, the Giants had minus-six net yards passing, just four first downs and had not crossed into Cowboys territory. The Giants finished with 42 net yards passing and just 105 net yards in total offense. Dallas CB Kevin Smith started the Cowboys assault by intercepting a QB Dave Brown pass on the game's first play to give Dallas a first down at the Giants 12-yard line. The Cowboys reached the one-yard line, but the Giants goal line defense stopped the Cowboys on a fourth-and-one to force a turnover on downs. The Cowboys jumped ahead 7-0 on their ensuing drive when a 31-yard pass interference call on CB Thomas Randolph enabled Dallas to convert on a third down-and-22 situation. Three plays later, QB Troy Aikman lofted a perfect timing pass to WR/CB Deion Sanders for an eight-yard touchdown. The Cowboys jumped ahead 14-0 on their next set of downs when a 19-yard touchdown pass from Aikman to WR Kevin Williams culminated an 81-yard scoring drive. Dallas added another touchdown with seven seconds remaining in the first half to pull ahead, 21-0. The Giants offense ran more than three plays before punting on only three of their 11 offensive series.

Game 3

WASHINGTON 31, GIANTS 10

at East Rutherford, Sept. 15, 1996

Washington captured its first victory at Giants Stadium since 1992 with a 31-10 decision that dropped the Giants season record to 0-3. The Giants offense struggled, and the defense failed to control Redskins RB Terry Allen, who gained 146 yards rushing, including a one-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter to give the Redskins a 14-point lead. The Redskins jumped out to a 17-0 lead before the Giants finally got on the board with a touchdown pass in the final minute of the second quarter. Down 10-0 early in the second quarter, QB Dave Brown threw an incomplete pass to RB Rodney Hampton on third-and-two from the Redskins 26-yard line, forcing a 43-yard field goal attempt by PK Brad Daluiso that sailed wide right. Washington took over at their own 34-yard line and jumped in front, 17-0, on a fake field goal attempt that resulted in a 30-yard touchdown pass from QB Gus Frerotte to TE Scott Galbraith. On the ensuing drive, Brown completed four of five passes for 44 yards, including a seven-yard touchdown pass to HB Aaron Pierce for the Giants first score in 23 offensive series. The Giants cut the Redskins lead to 17-10 on their second possession in the second half, but were forced to settle for a 19-yard Daluiso field goal after failing to convert on a third-and-one situation from the Redskins two-yard line. The Redskins put the game away in the fourth quarter by intercepting Brown three times. The first two were by Redskins CB Tom Carter in the end zone, both on pass attempts from the Redskins 34-yard line.

Game 4

GIANTS 13, JETS 6

at East Rutherford, Sept. 22, 1996

The Giants notched their first victory of 1996 with a 13-6 decision over the Jets. The Giants defense gave a great effort, holding off the Jets offensive weapons and preventing big plays. Jets QB Neil O'Donnell did complete 22 of 38 pass attempts but gained just 149 yards and did not complete a pass over 14 yards. The Giants also did a great job of limiting the Jets field position. The Jets had only one drive that started past their own 31-yard line. That drive came after the Jets recovered a fumble at their 47-yard line. After spotting the Jets a 3-0 lead on a PK Nick Lowery 46-yard field goal early in the first quarter, the Giants took the lead for good in the second quarter when they capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a 17-yard touchdown pass from QB Dave Brown to WR Chris Calloway. RB Rodney Hampton, who finished with 81 yards rushing on 27 attempts, converted on third-and-one from the Jets 25-yard line to help keep the scoring drive alive. Brown connected with Calloway at the seven-yard line, and Calloway turned up field and dove into the corner of the end zone for the score. On the ensuing drive, the Giants missed a scoring opportunity after LB Jessie Armstead intercepted an O'Donnell pass at the Jets 36-yard line and raced 23 yards to the Jets 13 before fumbling the ball back to the Jets. The Jets cut the Giants lead to 7-6 in the third quarter after converting a Hampton fumble into a 39-yard field goal by Lowery. S Maurice Douglass recovered a muffed punt by PR Wayne Chrebet at the Jets 16-yard line late in the third quarter to get the Giants back into scoring position. Hampton was stopped on three consecutive tries at the goal line to force PK Brad Daluiso's 20-yard field goal attempt to put the Giants in front, 10-6. On the Giants final scoring drive, Brown completed an 11-yard catch-and-run to WR Lawrence Dawsey on third-and-11 for a first down inside Jets territory. That play was followed by two Jets' personal fouls as the Giants reached the three-yard line to set up another Daluiso 20-yard attempt that gave the Giants a 13-6 lead. DE Michael Strahan sacked O'Donnell on fourth-and-four with under two minutes left to play to end the Jets comeback chances.

Game 5

GIANTS 15, MINNESOTA 10

at East Rutherford, Sept. 29, 1996

The Giants picked up their second victory of the season with a 15-10 win against the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings, who entered the game with a 4-0 record. The Giants defense held the Vikings to just 10 total first downs and limited Minnesota's offense to just one field goal. CB Phillippi Sparks helped clinch the victory by intercepting Vikings QB Warren Moon at the Giants four-yard line on Minnesota's final possession in the fourth quarter. A key third down pass from QB Dave Brown and the tough running of RB Rodney Hampton allowed the Giants to run out the final four minutes to preserve the win. The Giants took an early 3-0 lead following a 15-play, 67-yard drive that took 8:32 off the clock. Brown completed five-of-five passes for 49 yards, including a seven-yard pass to WR Thomas Lewis on fourth-and-two to keep the drive alive. The Vikings jumped in front, 7-3, when PR David Palmer scored on a 69-yard punt return to open the second quarter. Lewis ran back the ensuing kick 47 yards to give the Giants a first down at the Vikings 43-yard line. The Giants reached the Vikings 10-yard line before settling for a 27-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal. In the third quarter, CB Jason Sehorn came in on a third down blitz and forced Moon to fumble on a sack that DE Chad Bratzke recovered for the Giants. The Giants reached the one-yard line where they scored their first rushing touchdown of the season on a reverse by HB Aaron Pierce. The Vikings reached the Giants 10-yard line on their next drive, but the Giants defense held them to a field goal and held onto a 12-10 lead. The Giants took 5:48 off the clock and reached the Vikings one-yard line late in the fourth quarter, but a stingy Vikings defense forced the Giants to settle for another Daluiso field goal.

Game 6

PHILADELPHIA 19, GIANTS 10

at East Rutherford, Oct. 13, 1996

The Giants were leading 10-6 heading into the final quarter before the Eagles scored 13 unanswered points to escape Giants Stadium with a 19-10 victory. The Giants defense did the job, holding the Eagles out of the end zone and allowing Philadelphia to get inside the red zone just once. The Giants special teams units also did their job, producing a 65-yard punt return for a touchdown by rookie WR Amani Toomer in the second quarter. The Giants offense struggled against a stingy Eagles defense that limited the Giants to 150 total yards and just nine first downs. The Giants led despite heading into the fourth quarter with just five first downs and only four pass completions. PK Brad Daluiso capped the Giants only serious offensive drive with a 39-yard field goal to give the Giants a 3-0 first quarter lead. The Eagles tied the game, 3-3, in the second before Toomer's 65-yard punt return for a touchdown gave the Giants a 10-3 halftime lead. Eagles PK Gary Anderson converted a 46-yard field goal and a 45-yard field goal to cut the Giants lead to 10-9 early in the fourth quarter. Philadelphia took the lead with 2:12 left after Anderson connected on a 29-yard attempt for his fourth field goal of the day. On the Giants first play of the ensuing drive, QB Dave Brown attempted to throw the ball away as he was being brought down by Eagles DE Mike Mamula. The play resulted in a fumble that Eagles LB William Thomas returned 23 yards for a touchdown.

Game 7

WASHINGTON 31, GIANTS 21

at Washington, Oct. 20, 1996

After spotting the Redskins a 28-0 halftime lead, the Giants fought back to pull within seven in the fourth quarter before falling to Washington, 31-21. The loss dropped the Giants record to 2-5 for the season and 0-4 against NFC East opponents. Redskins RB Terry Allen scored on three touchdown runs, capping drives of 68, 80 and 80 to lift the Redskins to a 21-0 lead. With three minutes left in the first half, QB Dave Brown's slant pass to WR Thomas Lewis deflected into the hands of Redskins CB Darrell Green, who raced 68 yards to put Washington in front, 28-0, at the intermission. Brown, who had 82 yards passing in the entire first half, completed five of seven passes for 82 yards on the Giants' first drive in the second half, culminating a 10-play, 91-yard drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to Lewis. Brown completed a key third down pass and gained a first down on a quarterback keeper on fourth-and-one to help keep the drive alive. Seven plays after the defense forced a three-and-out, Brown connected with WR Chris Calloway on a 13-yard scoring pass to cut the Redskins lead to 28-14 heading into the final quarter. The Giants put together a strong 14-play, 80-yard drive that took 7:48 off the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Tyrone Wheatley to pull within seven at 28-21. The Redskins responded by marching from their 25-yard line to the Giants 28-yard line where K Scott Blanton nailed a 45-yard field goal. The Giants reached the Redskins 24-yard line on their next series and failed on three straight attempts at the end zone, setting up a 41-yard field goal attempt for PK Brad Daluiso. Daluiso's attempt sailed wide right with 1:39 left to play to end the Giants chances of a comeback.

Game 8

GIANTS 35, DETROIT 7

at Pontiac, Oct. 27, 1996

The Giants defense forced six turnovers that resulted in 27 points as the Giants improved their record to 3-5 with a 35-7 victory over Detroit. After the Lions scored on their opening drive, following a 65-yard kickoff return that gave them a first down at the Giants 40-yard line, the Giants defense yielded only 41 more yards in the first half. S Tito Wooten blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety on Detroit's next possession to begin the Giants run of 35 consecutive points. RB Tyrone Wheatley connected with WR Chris Calloway for a 24-yard touchdown pass on the halfback option to make it 8-7 as the Giants began a 23-point second quarter. Lions QB Scott Mitchell was intercepted three times inside Giants territory on three consecutive drives in the second quarter. LB Corey Widmer's first NFL interception set up a 38-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso. Three plays later, S Maurice Douglass picked off a Mitchell pass and raced 32 yards for a touchdown. On the next series, Wooten picked off a Mitchell pass to give the Giants a first down at the Lions' 23-yard line. On the Giants first play, QB Dave Brown threw a 23-yard pass to WR Thomas Lewis to give the Giants a 25-7 halftime lead. Lions RB Barry Sanders was held to eight yards in the first half and just 47 yards on 16 carries in the game. The Giants defense limited the Lions to just two trips inside the red zone. The Giants added ten points in the fourth quarter as the result of Detroit turnovers. Daluiso kicked a 32-yard field goal after the Giants recovered a fumble at the Lions 40-yard line. The Giants' final points came when DT Ray Agnew picked off a QB Don Majkowski pass and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown.

GIANTS 16, ARIZONA 8

at East Rutherford, Nov. 3, 1996

The Giants pushed to within one game of .500 after improving their record to 4-5 with a 16-8 victory over the visiting Arizona Cardinals. The pregame focus of Dave Brown vs. former Giant Kent Graham turned into the battle of the backups as both teams lost their starting quarterbacks due to injury. Brown was forced out of the game with a bruised back and back spasms after being sacked by Cardinals DE Simeon Rice during the Giants second possession. Graham was lost for the game late in the first quarter with a knee injury. Backup QB Danny Kanell, whose NFL experience consisted of three kneel downs against Detroit, responded with a solid effort, completing 14 of 27 passes for 128 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. Kanell inherited a 3-0 Giants lead after Brown directed a scoring drive that resulted in a 31-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal on the opening drive of the game. The Giants stayed in front, 6-0, in the third quarter after S Jesse Campbell's interception off a QB Boomer Esiason pass gave the Giants a first down at the Cardinals' 48-yard line. Kanell completed a third down pass to WR Thomas Lewis to help set up a 32-yard Daluiso field goal. Kanell escaped a heavy blitz to complete a 24-yard scoring pass to Lewis, and Campbell's second interception of the day helped set up a 45-yard Daluiso field goal to extend the Giants lead to 16-0 in the fourth quarter. The Cardinals had only two legitimate scoring drives against a stingy Giants defense that held them to 29 yards rushing. Arizona reached the Giants' 11-yard line in the first quarter, but T Scott Gragg blocked PK Greg Davis' 28-yard field goal attempt. Arizona finally scored with 45 seconds left in the game when Esiason completed a seven-yard touchdown pass to WR Frank Sanders. The Giants lost HB Aaron Pierce to a sprained knee early in the game, and RB Tyrone Wheatley left the game on a backboard after being knocked unconscious late in the game.

Game 10

CAROLINA 27, GIANTS 17

at Charlotte, Nov. 10, 1996

The Carolina Panthers turned two third quarter turnovers into 10 points as they wiped out a 14-10 halftime deficit for a 27-17 victory over the visiting Giants. The loss prevented the Giants from reaching the .500 mark, dropping their 1996 record to 4-6. Carolina jumped in front early on a WR Raghib Ismail 35-yard touchdown run off the reverse on the game's opening drive. QB Dave Brown, who returned to action following a back injury that forced him out of the Arizona game, completed six-of-seven passes for 91 yards during the Giants first two possessions that culminated with touchdown passes. Brown led the Giants on an eight-play, 60-yard drive on their first possession and hit WR Chris Calloway with a 13-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 7-7. On the Giants next possession, Brown's 23-yard touchdown pass to WR Thomas Lewis lifted the Giants to a 14-7 first quarter lead. Carolina PK John Kasay's 42-yard field goal in the second quarter cut the Giants lead to 14-10 at halftime. The Giants took the second half kickoff and marched to the Carolina four-yard line. The Giants failed to reach the end zone on three tries from the four-yard line and had to settle for a 22-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal that extended the Giants lead to 17-10. The Giants offense gained 62 yards and had just two first downs the rest of the game. The Giants first turnover in the third quarter occurred when Brown's pass intended for Calloway was deflected into the hands of S Pat Terrell, who returned the ball to the Giants' 30-yard line. RB Anthony Johnson's one-yard touchdown run tied the game at 17-17. Carolina NT Greg Kragen forced and recovered a RB Rodney Hampton fumble at the Giants' 14-yard line on the Giants next series, setting up a Kasay 28-yard field goal for a 20-17 Panthers lead. QB Kerry Collins' 17-yard touchdown pass to FB Howard Griffith and Brown's two fourth quarter interceptions helped secure the Carolina victory.

Game 11

ARIZONA 31, GIANTS 23

at Tempe, Nov. 17, 1996

Despite falling behind 21-3 in the first half, the Giants closed the gap to 28-20 with 9:56 to go in the game. The defense held the Cardinals and the offense was ready to get the ball back, but P Jeff Feagles' punt bounced off S Jason Sehorn and was recovered by the Cardinals for a first down at the Giants six-yard line. PK Kevin Butler's 18-yard field goal made it 31-20 with 4:26 remaining. The Giants kicked a field goal to cut the Arizona lead to 31-23 with 1:25 to go but watched their comeback chances end when they failed to convert the ensuing onside kick attempt. Arizona scored on three of its first four possessions in building a 21-6 halftime advantage. The Giants reached the Arizona seven-yard line and four-yard line on two consecutive drives in the second quarter but were held to a pair of PK Brad Daluiso field goals. QB Dave Brown, who finished 22 of 41 for 262 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, completed 12 of 15 passes for 147 yards in the first half but was intercepted twice. FB Charles Way recovered a PR Marcus Dowdell muffed punt at the Cardinals 14-yard line in the third quarter. Four plays later Brown connected with RB Tyrone Wheatley for a four-yard touchdown pass to make it 21-13. The Giants defense could not hold the Cardinals on the ensuing drive as RB LeShon Johnson's one-yard touchdown run capped a 12-play, 75-yard drive to push the Cardinals in front, 28-13. S Percy Ellsworth helped prevent the Cardinals from putting the game out of reach by intercepting QB Boomer Esiason in the end zone to end a scoring threat after a Brown fumble gave the Cardinals a first down at the Giants 24-yard line to start the fourth quarter. LB Jessie Armstead forced Johnson to fumble on the Cardinals next series and Ellsworth recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 42-yard line. A 33-yard pass from Brown to WR Kevin Alexander helped set up a nine-yard scoring pass from Brown to Wheatley to trim the Arizona lead to 28-20. The Giants had five trips inside the red zone but managed only two touchdowns.

Game 12

GIANTS 20, DALLAS 6

at East Rutherford, Nov. 24, 1996

The Giants defense held the Cowboys to 33 yards rushing and forced five turnovers in a 20-6 victory that improved the Giants record to 5-7. The Giants defense ended three Cowboys drives deep in Giants territory. At the end of the first quarter, CB Jason Sehorn stepped in front of WR Michael Irvin and intercepted a QB Troy Aikman pass at the nine-yard line. In the third quarter, CB Phillippi Sparks caught Deion Sanders from behind and stripped him of the football at the four-yard line after a 41-yard catch-and-run from Aikman. On the Cowboys final drive of the game, Aikman's pass intended for Sanders from midfield was intercepted by S Percy Ellsworth at the Giants five-yard line. After spotting Dallas an early 3-0 lead, the Giants set the tone by using a balanced offensive attack and an opportunistic defense. Following Sehorn's interception, RB Tyrone Wheatley, who had a career-best day with 21 rushing attempts for 69 yards, pushed the Giants to the Dallas 28-yard line to set up a 45-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso to tie the game at 3-3. After stopping the Cowboys on the next series, the Giants took over at their own 48-yard line and reached the 28-yard line where Daluiso's 46-yard field goal gave the Giants a 6-3 lead. The Cowboys drove into Giants territory on their next set of downs, but LB Corey Widmer forced Irvin to fumble after a short gain and S Tito Wooten recovered the ball and raced 54 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Giants a 13-3 lead at halftime. The Cowboys had their chance in the third quarter when Sanders beat Sparks on a deep pattern, but Sparks stayed with the play and caused a fumble after a 41-yard reception and S Jesse Campbell recovered for the Giants at the four-yard line. PK Chris Boniol's 37-yard field goal in the fourth quarter cut the Giants lead to 13-6, but QB Dave Brown directed the Giants on a scoring drive on the ensuing drive to give the Giants a comfortable cushion. The Giants were faced with a third-and-nine at the Dallas 14-yard line when Brown completed a pass to FB Charles Way, who shook off three Dallas defenders to give the Giants a first down at the five-yard line. Two plays later, Brown executed a perfect play-action fake and completed a four-yard scoring pass to a wide open TE Brian Kozlowski. The Cowboys' final two drives ended in turnovers. First, Sehorn forced FB Daryl Johnston to fumble on a tackle after an eight-yard completion that LB Jessie Armstead was able to recover. Then Ellsworth's interception on the final drive sealed the victory by giving the Giants a first down at the 34-yard line with 2:11 remaining.

Game 13

PHILADELPHIA 24, GIANTS 0

at Philadelphia, Dec. 1, 1996

The Eagles dominated in every phase of the game in a 24-0 shutout over the visiting Giants at Veterans Stadium. The loss dropped the Giants 1996 record to 5-8 and mathematically eliminated them from the playoffs. Philadelphia scored on four of its first six drives to take a 24-0 halftime lead. The Giants offense was ineffective against a stingy Eagles defense that forced four turnovers and held the Giants to 121 yards in total offense. The Giants only scoring opportunity occurred at the end of the first quarter after FB Charles Way recovered PR Mark Seay's muffed punt at the Eagles nine-yard line. The Giants' scoring chance ended two plays later when QB Dave Brown fumbled the ball back to the Eagles after being sacked by LB Ray Farmer. The Eagles took the opening kickoff to the Giants' 12-yard line before QB Ty Detmer fumbled a snap that LB Jessie Armstead recovered. Two plays later, Brown's pass intended for Way was intercepted by Farmer at the 34-yard line. The turnover set up PK Gary Anderson's 44-yard field goal to give the Eagles a 3-0 lead and all the points that they needed for the victory. A 36-yard catch-and-run up the middle by RB Ricky Watters helped the Eagles march 77 yards on their next possession, and Detmer made it 10-0 when he found TE Jason Dunn alone in the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown pass. RB Tyrone Wheatley's fumble in the second quarter gave the Eagles a first down at the Giants' 19-yard line, and two plays later Detmer threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to WR Irving Fryar to push the Eagles in front, 17-0. Detmer completed a 15-play, 80-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris T. Jones with :33 left in the half to give Philadelphia its 24-0 advantage. Brown, who finished three-of-11 for 31 yards, had trouble passing in the rain and 25-MPH wind that gusted up to 50 MPH. He was replaced in the fourth quarter by QB Danny Kanell, who finished with four completions on 13 attempts for 47 yards.

Game 14

GIANTS 17, MIAMI 7

at Miami, Dec. 8, 1996

The Giants took a step towards avoiding a second-straight non-winning season by improving to 6-8 with a 17-7 victory over the Miami Dolphins at Pro Player Stadium. The Giants scored on an 80-yard drive and a 78-yard drive in the first half to take a 14-7 halftime lead. QB Dave Brown, who finished 21-of-28 for 169 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions, helped the Giants set the tone on the first series. Brown completed four-of-five passes for 51 yards, including a six-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway on fourth-and-two to keep the drive alive at the Dolphins 22-yard line. RB Rodney Hampton culminated the opening drive with a four-yard touchdown run to give the Giants a 7-0 lead. A 66-yard pass play from QB Dan Marino to WR Fred Barnett helped set up Marino's three-yard touchdown pass to FB Robert Wilson to tie the game at, 7-7, at the end of the first quarter. Brown completed eight-of-nine passes for 49 yards and finished off a 78-yard drive in the second quarter with a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Howard Cross to put the Giants in front, 14-7. The drive consumed 9:13 of the game clock. Rookie CB Conrad Hamilton intercepted Marino at the 38-yard line and raced 29 yards before being pushed out of bounds at the Dolphins 33-yard line in the third quarter. The turnover set up PK Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal to give the Giants a 17-7 lead. LB Corey Widmer intercepted Marino at the Giants nine-yard line in the fourth quarter, and the Giants ground game helped control the ball for 10:33 of the final quarter to help seal the victory. Hampton (20-60) and Wheatley (13-59) combined for 119 of the Giants 131 yards on the ground.

Game 15

NEW ORLEANS 17, GIANTS 3

at East Rutherford, Dec. 15, 1996

The Giants 17-3 loss to the Saints dropped the Giants record to 6-9 on the year and ensured them of their second consecutive losing season. The Giants defense held the Saints to 11 first downs and 106 net yards passing, but four costly turnovers and the failure to stop Saints RB Mario Bates, who gained 129 yards on 32 carries, helped lead the Saints to victory. New Orleans' defense overpowered the Giants and completely shut down the offense. The Giants were sacked seven times and were limited to 138 total net yards, including 36 net yards in the second half. With injuries to RB Rodney Hampton (bruised knee) and RB Tyrone Wheatley (ankle sprain) in the first half, third-year RB Gary Downs was forced to take the load at running back. QB Dave Brown completed eight-of-18 for 42 yards with two interceptions in the first half before head coach Dan Reeves elected to go with rookie Danny Kanell in the second half. Kanell struggled against the Saints secondary and pass rush, finishing five-of-20 for 52 yards and one interception. Brown did suffer a sprain to the AC joint in his left shoulder but could have returned to the game. The Giants reached the Saints 20-yard line in the first quarter and were in position to score, but Brown's pass intended for WR Chris Calloway in the end zone was intercepted by S Anthony Newman at the goal line. New Orleans stopped the Giants on fourth-and-one at the Saints' 47-yard line to start the second quarter, and the Saints took over and drove to the Giants one-yard line where FB Lorenzo Neal scored on a one-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Giants finally got on the board in the third quarter after LB Corey Widmer forced Bates to fumble at the Saints 12-yard line. DE Chad Bratzke recovered the ball at the 10-yard line, but the Giants were forced to settle for a 30-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso. The Saints scored 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach. PK Doug Brien connected on a 51-yard field goal for a 10-3 lead. On the Saints next offensive series, Bates went off the left tackle and culminated a 63-yard drive with a 22-yard touchdown run. The Saints final touchdown was set up when Downs was stripped of the ball at the Saints' 46-yard line following a 13-yard pass play. The Saints recovered the ball at their own 37-yard line.

Game 16

NEW ENGLAND 23, GIANTS 22

at East Rutherford, Dec. 21, 1996

The Giants jumped out to a 22-0 first half lead but failed to hold on as the Patriots scored 20 points in the fourth quarter for a 23-22 victory. The Giants outgained New England 212 total yards to 74 in the first half but were outgained 234-84 in the second half. The Giants stopped the Patriots running game, limiting the ground attack to just 26 yards. Rookie WR Terry Glenn was held to only three receptions for eight yards in the first half but exploded in the second half with five receptions for 116 yards for a total of eight receptions for 124 yards. The Giants started their march to a 22-0 halftime lead on a safety when QB Drew Bledsoe intentionally grounded a ball in the end zone in the first quarter. The Giants took the ensuing kick 44 yards and scored on a one-yard run by FB Charles Way to begin a 20-point second quarter. PK Brad Daluiso kicked field goals of 30 yards and 27 yards on the Giants following two possessions to make it, 15-0. CB Jason Sehorn intercepted Bledsoe on the Patriots next series and raced 27 yards untouched for the score. The Patriots drove to the Giants' eight-yard line at the end of the first half, but CB Phillippi Sparks intercepted Bledsoe at the three-yard line to end the scoring threat. New England scored 17 points in an eight-minute span of the late third and early fourth quarters. PK Adam Vinatieri nailed a 40-yard field goal for the Patriots first points of the game midway through the third quarter. Bledsoe connected with Glenn for a 26-yard touchdown on the next series to close the gap to 22-10 early in the fourth quarter. Former Giants RB David Meggett scored on a 60-yard punt return, and the Patriots went ahead when Bledsoe, on fourth-and-7, drilled a pass to TE Ben Coates, who fought his way into the end zone. The Giants got the ball back with 1:17 remaining but saw the season end when they failed to get into field goal position.

GAME NOTES

• RB Gary Downs made his first start due to injuries to RB Rodney Hampton and RB Tyrone Wheatley. Downs set career marks with 22 carries for 52 yards.

• CB Jason Sehorn improved his team-leading interception total to five. His 23-yard TD return was the first of his career.

1996 PRESEASON REVIEW

GIANTS 24, JAGUARS 17 - at Jacksonville, August 2, 1996
RB Keith Elias' three-yard touchdown run with 27 seconds left in regulation lifted the Giants to a 24-17 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars in the preseason opener at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium. Backup QB Tommy Maddox helped move the Giants into scoring position during the game-winning drive with a 15-yard pass to WR Lawrence Dawsey to give the Giants the ball at the Jaguars 20-yard line. Dawsey had an impressive evening in his Giants debut with four receptions for 64 yards. First-year RB Jeremy Burkett scrambled for nine-yards to the Jaguars 11-yard line before Elias carried the rest of the way to set up his touchdown run. After a scoreless first quarter, the Jaguars jumped out to a 3-0 lead on a 34-yard field goal by PK Mike Hollis. RB Tyrone Wheatley, who finished with 54 yards on nine carries for a 6.0 average, helped set up the Giants first touchdown with four carries for 41 yards. Wheatley's 23-yard run during that drive gave the Giants a first down at the Jaguars 15-yard line. The Giants moved the ball to the Jaguars two-yard line before Elias ran off tackle for the touchdown. On the Giants next possession, Dawsey caught a five-yard pass from QB Dave Brown and turned it into a 17-yard gain to give the Giants the ball inside Jaguars territory. A 22-yard completion from Brown to Dawsey followed by a five-yard run by Wheatley set up a Brown five-yard run up the middle for a touchdown and a 14-3 halftime lead. The Jaguars cut the Giants lead to 14-10 after converting a Maddox fumble into a 24-yard scoring pass from QB Mark Brunell to WR Andre Rison. The Giants took the ensuing kickoff and drove 47 yards in 12 plays before PK Bard Daluiso's 43-yard field goal extended the Giants lead to 17-10. A 42-yard pass from Brunell to Rison set up a two-yard touchdown run from RB Natrone Means to tie the game, 17-17, headed into the fourth quarter. The Jaguars missed on two scoring opportunities in the fourth quarter when Hollis missed a 38-yard field goal attempt and PK Craig Fayak missed-from 52-yards out. Brown completed nine of 15 pass attempts for 93 yards in action in the first half, while Maddox came in for the second and finished with nine completions on 13 attempts for 118 yards.

RAVENS 37, GIANTS 27 - at East Rutherford, August 10, 1996
The Giants struggled in every phase, as the Baltimore Ravens ended the Giants 1996 home debut with a 37-27 victory. Baltimore outgained the Giants, 427-241, outrushed them 177-48, out-possessed them 40:40-19:20, and had 29 first downs compared to the Giants 12. In the first half alone, the Giants gained just one first down and just 30 total yards in offense. The Giants special teams units were responsible for allowing 9 points: a DE Chad Bratzke snap sailed over P Mike Horan's head and out of the end zone in the first quarter, and the punt return team allowed an 84-yard return in the third quarter. However, it was the special teams units of the Giants that helped keep them in the game after falling behind, 12-0, early in the second quarter. Second round draft choice, WR Amani Toomer fielded a kick at the Giants six-yard line and raced 94 yards for the touchdown. The Giants forced the Ravens into a punting situation deep in their own territory on the next series, and S Rodney Young's strong rush forced P Greg Montgomery to throw a fourth down incompletion that gave the Giants the ball at the Ravens' 23-yard line. QB Tommy Maddox (10-5-42 1 td, 1 int.), who started in place of Dave Brown, took advantage of the good field position and completed a 21-yard touchdown pass to WR Thomas Lewis to give the Giants a 13-12 lead. The Ravens closed out the first half with a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Vinny Testaverde to WR Michael Jackson for a 19-13 lead. The Ravens scored twice early in the third quarter and jumped out to a 34-13 lead. First RB Earnest Hunter culminated a 7:04 drive with a three-yard touchdown run, and then WR Ray Ethridge returned a punt 84 yards for a touchdown on the next series. QB Stan White took over at quarterback on the next series and finished a 72-yard drive with a 37-yard scoring pass to Toomer to cut the Ravens lead to 34-20. White finished a respectable five of nine for 83 yards and the touchdown. Rookie QB Danny Kanell (13-8-79 1 td, 0 int.) made his NFL debut on the final drive and led the team 88-yards before he found WR Arthur Marshall in the end zone for a six-yard touchdown pass to end the game, 37-27.

at JETS 13, GIANTS 6 - at East Rutherford, August 17, 1996
CB Carl Greenwood stripped WR Lawrence Dawsey of the football and raced 40 yards for the deciding touchdown at the end of the third quarter to help the Jets defeat the Giants, 13-6. The Giants offense rebounded from its poor performance against the Ravens. In the first series alone, the Giants gained 29 yards, which was one yard less than what they gained in the entire first half against the Ravens. Despite the improvement, the offense had trouble putting the ball into the end-zone and was forced to settle for a pair of field goals in the first half. QB Dave Brown returned to the starting lineup and finished 10 of 22 for 120 yards, including an interception deep in Jets territory. The Giants took a 3-0 lead on the first play of the second quarter, culminating a 16-play, 8:54 drive. The Jets tied the game on the ensuing drive with a 8:58 drive that ended with a PK Nick Lowery field goal. In the final minute of the first half, DE Chad Bratzke raced past former Giant T John Elliott and blindsided QB Neil O'Donnell, who fumbled the ball to the Giants on the play. The Giants converted the turnover into a 33-yard field goal by PK Olindo Mare to take a 6-3 halftime lead. With the score tied, 6-6, in the third quarter, Dawsey caught a two-yard pass from backup QB Tommy Maddox. As Dawsey turned to run upfield, Greenwood reached in when trying to make the tackle, stripped the ball and raced 40 yards untouched for the touchdown. The Giants had a chance to tie the game in the middle of the third quarter. Brown executed a perfect play-action fake but over shot a wide open WR Amani Toomer deep in Jets territory.

PANTHERS 34, GIANTS 7 - at East Rutherford, August 23, 1996
The Panthers converted four Giants turnovers into 24 points as Carolina dropped the Giants preseason record to 1-3 with a 34-7 victory at Giants Stadium. After a scoreless first quarter, Carolina jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead. The period began when Carolina QB Kerry Collins caught the Giants in the wrong coverage and found TE Wesley Walls wide open for a four-yard touchdown. On the Giants ensuing drive, LB Sam Mills intercepted QB Dave Brown's pass intended for HB Aaron Pierce in the flat and raced 36-yards for the touchdown. Seven snaps later, Brown was intercepted again when a strong Panthers rush forced him to hurry a pass that was intercepted by DE Mark Thomas who raced 40 yards down the sideline before fumbling the ball out of bounds at the Giants 14-yard line. Four plays later, RB Dino Philyaw scored from two-yards out for a 21-0 Panthers lead. The Giants scored their only points of the evening in the third quarter when RB Rodney Hampton culminated a 46-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run. The Panthers converted two fourth quarter interceptions off backup QB Stan White into 10 points. White's first interception came on the Giants goal line when he threw a desperation pass to avoid a safety into the hands of NT J.C. Price, who ran three-yards for the score. The Panthers intercepted White three snaps later to give them the ball at the Giants 30-yard line. Carolina converted the turnover into a 41-yard field goal without even getting a first down.

GIANTS HISTORY

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

HISTORY CAPSULE

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to knock their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "sneakers" game. With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever was a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosey Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to teams like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s, the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces started to fall together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February of the Super Bowl year it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was brought to New York before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach.

The Giants have won 16 NFL Divisional Championships and six NFL Championships, including two Super Bowl championship titles. Their success has made them a fixture in the National Football League and the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area.

HISTORY OF THE GIANTS YEAR-BY-YEAR

WHY GIANTS?

After Tim Mara purchased the Giants in 1925, he decided to call his team the New York Football Giants since they played at the Polo Grounds, the same stadium as the heralded New York Giants baseball team. The baseball team got its name from all of the giant buildings that made up the city of New York. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, Mara believed that the name Giants would strike a chord with the people and help provoke interest in his football club.

Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after just the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds against the Frankford Yellow Jackets and lost their home debut, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926

Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927

Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the thirteen game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and only allowed a mere 20 points all year.

1928

After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929

Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930

For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931

After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932

Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a tough fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass reception champion with 21 catches.

1933

The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

1934

In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27 point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

1935

After beginning the season with a 3-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit

1936

The first NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick in it was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, making only the third time in the teams twelve-year history that it finished without a winning record.

1937

Seventeen rookies helped make up the twenty-five man roster in 1937. The 1937 season also marked the debut of the now familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938

A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. Forty-eight thousand one hundred twenty fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants had the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939

On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940

The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing that for the tenth year in a row.

1941

With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942

After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and a third place finish in the NFL East. The tone for the season was set early when the Giants defeated the Washington Redskins in the first game of the season. What was so amazing about the 14-7 victory was that the Giants didn't make a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown and later the Giants would score on an intercepted return. The Giants handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943

With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944

Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945

The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946

Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

1947

The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

1948

The team's renovation movement was stepped up in 1948 when the team acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The Giants reached another milestone in their illustrious existence, yet it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949

Giants head coach Steve Owen's switch from the "A" formation to the "T" resulted in bringing the Giants back to .500 with a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950

The New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees with the Giants. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game. It marked the first time the Giants finished above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946.

1951

End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952
Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953
Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr., out of Morgan State was the Giants 27th draft pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954
Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955
On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956
Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

1957
The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958
After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record 1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959

On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

In February, defensive coach Tom Landry left the team to become the first ever head coach of the expansion Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished an injury-plagued 1960 season with a 6-4-2 record. Head coach Jim Lee Howell announced his retirement at the end of the season and Allie Sherman was promoted to the top slot.

1961

The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became the full-time defensive coach for the upcoming 1964 season. For the first time in seventeen years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. In addition to Tittle, offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record in the process of allowing 501 points, an NFL record at the time. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967

On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up its first and second-round picks in 1967, its number one pick for 1968, and its second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 passing touchdowns led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969

The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. Even with seven consecutive losses, the Giants finished with three straight wins to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970

After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the playoffs with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971

After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972

Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973

Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut. The Giants finished with a 2-11-1 record.

1974

Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975

The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for the scheduled open of Giants Stadium for the 1976 season. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976

Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977

Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978

The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of their final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979

Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980

A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, second worst in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. They did upset Dallas 38-35 after eight straight defeats. Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981

With the second selection in the draft, New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, but then obtained running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. A three-game losing streak dropped the club to 5-6, and then Simms was injured. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime victory over Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982

A wild, wooly and turbulent year which saw the NFL players' strike shorten the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night game from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout for most of the season, returning to play in just the final five games, and then on December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an all-time NFL record with 35 field goals during the year.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants won the NFC wild card playoff spot again, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second-place in the NFC East as Simms set three all-time single season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach

Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson–were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the Divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, by a 21-0 score, the toughest outing the Bears encountered in the entire playoffs. Five players—Taylor, Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall—were named to the Pro Bowl. All told, there were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set an all-time one season rushing mark with 1,336 yards plus an all-time mark for TDs in a season with 21 while Simms broke all-time club records with 40 completions in a game for 513 yards passing. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

1986

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set an all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the Super Bowl victory with an NFL all-time playoff mark of 88% passing accuracy with his 22-for-25 passing in the 39-20 title conquest of the Denver Broncos. Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and all-time attendance records were set for both home and away, as well as single game home attendance.

1987

Not exactly a year to remember. After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a final 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in this players' strike season and the replacement games which followed. Add to that a rash of injuries which sidelined no less than 11 starters at one time or another, and the fifth-place finish was the result. While the Giants had a 6-4 record after the players' strike had been settled, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

The Giants bounced back from the debacle of '87 and after splitting their first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 mark into the final weekend of the season. Alas, an upset setback at the hands of the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth as well. With that final 10-6 record, the Giants' overall mark over the five past seasons reached 54-32 for a winning percentage of .628, and those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year consecutive span. RB Joe Morris set an all-time club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and WR Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' all-time rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants startled the experts by winning their second NFC East championship in four years with a final 12-4 record, after most of those experts had predicted no better than a .500 season for the club. Veteran RB Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set all-time club marks in punt returns with 582 yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards during the year. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equalled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990

The Giants began the year on a hot streak, winning their first 10 games for a solid NFC East lead, then held on to win the title with a final 13-3 record, despite losing QB Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including LB Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. The Giants also set all-time attendance records, both for season home and one-game home marks. Veteran RB Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the long-time Mara family ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, and in May, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting QB, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the rest of the campaign. Simms added his 15th all-time club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6–10 campaign as injuries to key players hurt the team and the team's performance ultimately cost Handley his job following the season. Phil Simms regained his starting QB spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th passer in NFL history to surpass 30,000 yards passing. Jeff Hostetler then started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, LB Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, the Giants general manager George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman did so in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league.The Giants earned a Wild Card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC Divisional Playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor will be eligible for election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame following the 1998 season.

1994

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak to close out the season with a 9-7 record. The Giants came into week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoff field. The Giants defeated the Cowboys, 15-10, but the season officially ended when the Bucs failed to defeat the Packers in a 34-19 loss. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. RB Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in the team's history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

1995

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The last time a Dan Reeves-coached team finished with a losing record was 1990 when the Denver Broncos went 5-11. Eight of the Giants' 11 losses arguably could have ended with a different result. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. Fassel spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Giants, first as quarterbacks coach in 1991, then as offensive coordinator in 1992. Following his service with the Giants, Fassel spent time with Denver, Oakland and Arizona. Despite the inability to reach the .500 mark all season, the Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of six straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

GIANTS TID BIT

The Giants' first regular season game ever was played on October 11, 1925 at the Providence, R.I., Cycledrome. The Providence Steamrollers defeated the Giants, 14-0.

THE GIANTS' STADIUMS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

THE POLO GROUNDS (1925-1955)

YANKEE STADIUM (1956-1973)

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

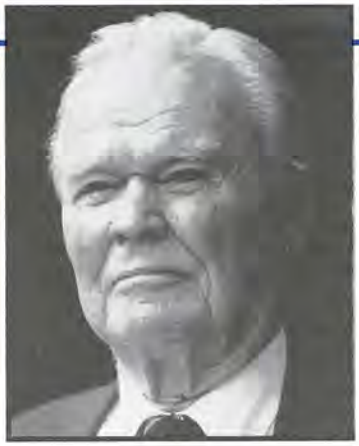

THE YALE BOWL (1973-1974)

SHEA STADIUM (1975)

NEW YORK GIANTS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, make up the four-man class of the 1997 Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, are the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara, whose entire lifetime has been dedicated to pro football, has helped the Giants produce 16 NFL/NFC divisional titles and six NFL championships during his 60-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT GIANTS OWNER WELLINGTON MARA

FRANK GIFFORD

"He has devoted his whole life to the game in a most unselfish way. Through his contributions to the league, he has helped make the game what it is today. On top of that, he has been involved with an organization that has won six NFL titles and has 25 former players, many of whom he drafted, in the Hall of Fame.

"He was one of the first people in the league to study personnel and use film as part of that study. He started doing that even while he was in college at Fordham University. He scouted me in a couple of games when we played Army and at the East-West game.

"People do not remember how Wellington and his family offered the idea of equal distribution of the television rights money, one of the key moments in the history of professional sports. And they did it so the league would be competitive and balanced, so a team like Green Bay would be on common footing with a team from New York."

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

"Anybody who has been involved with the National Football League from its early days until now knows what his contributions have been. You can measure the contributions of a lot of people to the NFL, but there is no way to measure what Wellington has meant to the league. He has always been unselfish when it comes to what is best for the entire league, and Wellington could have been selfish when it came to the league's interests as opposed to the city's. He was adamant in always keeping the best interests of the league first.

"If anyone should be in the Hall of Fame, Wellington should."

'90 GIANTS 31, BEARS 3

NFC Semifinal Game
Jan. 13, 1991 at Giants Stadium (77,025)

After jumping to an early 10-0 lead, the Giants' defense did a strangulation job on the Bears' vaunted rushing attack, limiting the visitors to just 27 total rushing yards and zero first downs... Jeff Hostetler hit on just 10 pass completions for 112 yards, but two went for TDs and he scored another on a 3-yard run in his first-ever playoff action... Giants also had a pair of interceptions by Mark Collins and Everson Walls to complete the rout.

'90 GIANTS 15, 49ers 13

NFC Championship
Jan. 20, 1991 at Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun... Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons which set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana which knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries to say nothing of a classic headache.

'90 GIANTS 20, BILLS 19

Super Bowl XXV
Jan. 27, 1991 at Tampa Stadium (73,813)

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever... Gutty Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period, leaked for a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt on the last play of the game... Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an all-time Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

'93 GIANTS 17, VIKINGS 10

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Reveiz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

'93 49ers 44, GIANTS 3

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

THE GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

 1927 GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7
Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen was later to say. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Windy City crew. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain which set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara.

1933 Chicago Bears 23, GIANTS 21
Jack Manders opened the scoring for the Bears at Wrigley Field, before 26,000 with a 16-yard field goal in the first period to touch off 60 minutes of fireworks which kept fans standing on their chairs through most of the game. Manders kicked a 28-yard FG for a 6-0 lead in the second period before Harry Newman hit Red Badgro for a touchdown pass and a 7-6 Giant lead at the half. Manders' third FG regained the lead for the Bears, but Max Krause's TD and the conversion by Ken Strong put NY back in front 14-9. A pass from Bronko Nagurski to Bill Karr made it 16-14, Chicago, before Strong lateraled to Newman who then threw a TD pass back to Strong for a 21-16 Giant lead late in the game. The Bears bounced back to win, however, when Nagurski's jump pass to Bill Hewitt was lateraled to Karr for the game-winning touchdown.

1934 GIANTS 30, Chicago Bears 13
With the temperature at nine degrees and the Polo Grounds covered with a sheet of ice, this one became famous as the "sneakers" game when Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to open the second half with his club trailing 10-3. The Giants responded with four touchdowns which had a crowd of 35,059 roaring approval. The Bears had a string of 33 games without a defeat going into this one, but fell behind 3-0 on a 38-yard FG by Ken Strong. A TD by Nagurski and a field goal by Manders got the Bears in front 10-3 at the half, when Owen sent for the sneakers to take advantage of the slippery footing. Ahead 13-3 on another Manders' FG, the Bears were swamped in a fourth-period Giant uprising which saw Ed Danowski throw a 28-yard TD pass to Ike Frankian and Ken Strong race 42 yards for another TD just moments later for a 17-13 lead. Danowski and Strong raced for subsequent touchdowns against the stunned Bears to turn the game into a rout.

1935 Detroit Lions 26, GIANTS 7
With a crowd of about 15,000 looking on, the Lions took a 13-0 lead in the first period when Leroy "Ace" Gutowsky plunged over from the 2-yard line and Earl "Dutch" Clark shook loose on a 40-yard touchdown romp. The Giants closed the gap at 13-7 in the third period when Danowski connected with Strong for a 42-yard touchdown pass, but the Lions' defense accounted for two more scores in the final period on a blocked punt and intercepted pass. Ernie Caddel scored the first on a 4-yard slant and Buddy Parker the second on a 9-yard run.

1938 GIANTS 23, Green Bay Packers 17
A slam-bang, bruising thriller was staged for the largest crowd (48,120 at the Polo Grounds) to see a championship game up to that time. With the victory, the Giants became the first team to win the championship twice since the divisional splitup. The Giants blocked two punts early in the game, and capitalized on both with Ward Cuff kicking a 13-yard FG and Tuffy Leemans blasting over on a 6-yard plunge. Arnie Herber's 50-yard TD pass to Carl Mulleneaux got the Packers on the scoreboard, but Danowski hit Hap Barnard for a 20-yard

Victory clinched the NFL Championship; there was no championship game at that time.*

TD pass and a 16-7 lead. The Packers closed to 16-14 at halftime on Clark Hinkle's 6-yard TD, then took the lead 17-16 on Engebretsen's third-period FG. New York then stormed back to the Packer 23 from where Danowski passed to Hank Soar for the game-winning TD.

1939 Green Bay Packers 27, GIANTS 0
The Packers came up with sweet revenge in a grudge match played before 32,279 at Milwaukee's State Fair Grounds. Cold weather and a 35-MPH wind made aerial sorties a bit dubious, but Green Bay scored quickly on a 7-yard pitch from Herber to Milt Gantenbein. Engebretsen kicked a 29-yard FG in the third period for a 10-0 lead, and the Packers wrapped it up with touchdowns by Joe Laws on a 20-yard pass from Cecil Isbell, a one-yard plunge by Jankowski and Ernie Smith's 42-yard field goal.

1941 Chicago Bears 37, GIANTS 9
Attendance was only 13,341 at Wrigley Field, just two weeks after Pearl Harbor Day. The Giants led 6-3 in the first period on a Tuffy Leemans to George Franck touchdown pass of 31 yards, but the Bears scored on a pair of field goals, then broke the game wide open in the second half on touchdowns by Norm Standlee (2), George McAfee and Ken Kavanaugh.

1944 Green Bay Packers 14, GIANTS 7
The Packers took a 14-0 lead at halftime before 46,016 at the Polo Grounds on touchdowns by Ted Fritsch – the first on a 2-yard plunge and the second on a 26-yard pass from Irv Comp with Don Hutson adding the conversions. Ward Cuff scored on a 1-yard plunge on the first play of the final period for the Giants, but the Packers hung on for the triumph.

1946 Chicago Bears 24, GIANTS 14
Sid Luckman was the big man for the Bears in this win before 58,346 at the Polo Grounds. He passed for a 21-yard TD to Ken Kavanaugh to open the scoring, then ran 19 yards for a score later in the game. Dante Magnani's 19-yard pass interception accounted for the third Bear score, while the Giants hit the scoring column on touchdown passes from Frank Filchock to Frank Liebel and Steve Filipowicz.

1956 GIANTS 47, Chicago Bears 7
Fullback Mel Triplett smashed 17 yards for a TD early in the game on an icy field before a big crowd, then Ben Agajanian added a brace of field goals for a 13-0 lead. It was 34-7 at halftime as Alex Webster crashed over for a pair of touchdowns from inside the 5-yard line. Charlie Conerly's aerials brought nothing but more woe to the Bears in the second half, with Kyle Rote snaring a 9-yard TD throw and Frank Gifford a 14-yarder to close out the scoring.

1958 Baltimore Colts 23, GIANTS 17 (OT)
Some people call this the greatest game ever played, and perhaps it was for drama and its sudden-death ending. With a crowd of 64,185 on hand at Yankee Stadium, the Giants led 3-0 on a 36-yard Pat Summerall FG in the first period, with the Colts taking over 14-3 at halftime on scores by Alan Ameche from the 2-yard line and Ray Berry on a 15-yard pitch from Johnny Unitas. The Giants scored in the third period on a 1-yard plunge by Mel Triplett after an 86-yard gainer from Conerly to Rote with Webster picking up Rote's fumble.The Giants went in front 17-14 on Conerly's 15-yard TD throw to Gifford, but the Colts tied it with seven seconds to play on Steve Myrah's 13-yard FG and won in the overtime on Ameche's 1-yard plunge, the 13th play of a Colt drive.

1959 Baltimore Colts 31, GIANTS 16
A sellout crowd of 57,577 was on hand at Baltimore's Municipal Stadium for the big rematch of the divisional champions. The home crowd had plenty to cheer about in the early going as Unitas hit Lenny Moore for a 60-yard TD bomb, but the Giants surged back to stop the Colt offense. With Summerall kicking three field goals (23, 26 and 23 yards), the Giants led 9-7 going into the final period. But the Colts stormed back with a furious final period onslaught as Unitas scored on a 4-yard run, threw a 12-yard TD pass to Richardson and Johnny Sample returned an interception for another score.

1961 Green Bay Packers 37, GIANTS 0
With a crowd of 39,029 looking on in Green Bay, Paul Hornung paced the Packers to a stunning 37-0 triumph by scoring 19 points on a touchdown, three field goals and four conversions. On leave from his Army duties in Fort Riley, Kan., Hornung scored on a 6-yard slant in the second period to break a scoreless deadlock and set off a Packer splurge which accounted for 24 points in that quarter. The Giants were unable to recover from this onslaught and suffered their first shutout in nine seasons. Bart Starr's touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and a pair of Hornung field goals closed out the scoring in the second half.

1962 Green Bay Packers 16, GIANTS 7
Bitter cold weather at Yankee Stadium was no deterrent to 64,892 fans who turned out for the year's big one. As things turned out, a trio of field goals by Packer guard Jerry Kramer made the difference in a game where both defensive units turned in superlative jobs. The only Giant score was a result of defensive work when Erich Barnes blocked a Max McGee punt and reserve end Jim Collier fell on the ball in the end zone.

1963 Chicago Bears 14, GIANTS 10
The Bear defense turned the tide in this championship game, played in 10 degree weather in Wrigley Field. Taking the early lead on a 14-yard Y.A. Tittle TD pass to Frank Gifford and Don Chandler's FG, the Giants were the victims of five pass interceptions thereafter, two of which set up the Bear scores. Larry Morris swiped the first one for a return of 61 yards, while Ed O'Bradovich's steal of a screen pass set up what turned out to be the winning score. Tittle suffered a knee injury in the first half, but gallantly returned to action in the second half, though he was hampered and hobbled by his injury.

1986 GIANTS 39, Denver Broncos 20
Led by the brilliant record-setting passing of Phil Simms, the Giants won their first Super Bowl with a 30-point second-half onslaught before 101,063 spectators at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Simms pitched 22-for-25 for 268 yards and three TDs, setting an all-time NFL playoff mark of 88.0% completion and winning the MVP honors in the game. Down 10-9 at halftime, the Giants rang up 24 unanswered points to take a commanding 33-10 lead in the fourth period with Simms' TD passes going to TEs Zeke Mowatt and Mark Bavaro and to WR Phil McConkey. Linebacker Carl Banks was a star on defense with 10 solo tackles as the Giants concluded their greatest season ever with a 17-2 record.

1990 GIANTS 20, Buffalo Bills 19
The Giants won their second Super Bowl championship before 73,813 at Tampa Stadium by battling back from a 12-3 deficit in what many considered to be the best of all Super Bowls. Ahead 20-19 in the final moments of play, the Giants prevailed when Buffalo kicker Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt in the final moments of the game. QB Jeff Hostetler, replacing the injured Phil Simms during the playoffs, hit 20-for-32 for 222 yards and one TD, while the veteran RB Ottis Anderson had 102 yards rushing and one TD and won the MVP honors. The Giants set an all-time Super Bowl record for time of possession with 40:33 in their ball-control offensive game plan.

GIANTS STADIUM HISTORY

After calling four different stadiums home in their first 50 years in the National Football League, the Giants moved into Giants Stadium in 1976. The idea of playing at a stadium built in the Meadowlands first attracted the Giants attention when they realized that they could provide 15,000 more seats and help meet the increasing demands of the fans without a major switch in location. Giants Stadium is only 6.9 miles from Times Square, compared to Yankee Stadium which is 6.6.

In May of 1967, a local New Jersey newspaper first proposed the idea of building a Sports Complex. The idea of the complex could not begin until a major sports franchise could be attracted to the concept. With an aging Yankee Stadium, the Giants and the Yankees became immediate targets. The original construction idea called for separate stadiums for football and baseball with convenient parking and easy highway access just miles from New York City.

In 1970, the William Cahill administration began serious efforts to lure the Giants. On August 27, 1971, the Giants signed a 30-year lease for a 75,000-seat Stadium to be built by the 1975 season. The New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority was established by an act of the state legislature on May 10, 1971 to finance, construct and administer the complex. It was also decided that the complex would include a stadium for football and a racetrack. The Authority was granted powers through legislature to lease property, borrow money, issue bonds and conduct horse racing. To finance the complex the state was authorized to issue revenue bonds backed by the state-run racetrack proceeds. The complex was built and operated with no expense to the taxpayers.

Prior to construction of the facility, the project was hit with many obstacles. First, there were legislative disputes that resulted from objections to the complex, then environmentalists were concerned about the issue of wildlife preservations and air pollution from the increase of cars. Despite these problems, the Authority pushed the project along, hiring real estate consultants, accountants, bond attorneys and brokerage firms.

In September of 1973, New Jersey Governor-elect Brendan Byrne negotiated a new lease with the Giants, and the sale of bonds began and was completed in 1974. Simultaneous construction of the racetrack and stadium began in 1972. September 1, 1976 marked the opening of the Meadowlands racetrack. The Giants made their debut in Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

GIANTS STADIUM DIAGRAM

GIANTS ADD NEW TURF FIELD

The Giants will be playing on a new artificial turf field that was installed this offseason. The new field is called Astroturf System 2000 consisting of Synthetic Astroturf 12, a second layer called closed cell shock pad and a sub base called E-Layer.

The Sub Base E-Layer is made of recycled rubber and Polyurthane. Its porous characteristics better resist effects of water, freeze-thaw and compression. The second layer is a closed cell shock pad, which is a 3/8 inch shock pad that is glued to the sub base. The Astroturf 12 is glued to the closed cell shock pad. The Astroturf-12 is less abrasive and more player-friendly than the old surface, providing better footing in wet conditions and less "foot-lock" in dry weather.

GIANTS 1997 TRAINING CAMP
THE UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

Founded in 1844 as the state's first school for the training of teachers and the oldest chartered public institution of higher education in New York, the University at Albany today is one of the top research universities in the nation. Designated as a University Center of the State University of New York, Albany has a broad mission of undergraduate and graduate education, research and public service.

Approximately 16,000 students are enrolled in eight degree-granting schools and colleges offering more than 135 academic programs from bachelor's degree through the doctorate.

Located three miles from the center of the city of Albany, the main 525-acre campus was designed by noted architect Edward Durell Stone and completed in the 1960s. Stone grouped the academic buildings in a series of quadrangles, essentially under one roof with colonnades to provide all-weather passage from one building to another. Dormitories for 6,000 students are arranged in four three-story quadrangles with a twenty-story tower in each quadrangle. The Carillon Tower, placed in a sunken plaza, is the centerpiece of the academic campus.

Albany students receive a top-quality education at a great price when they come to the University. Money Magazine has ranked Albany among the 25 "Best College Buys" in the nation.

UNITED AIRLINES
RISING
WHO'S RESPONSIBLE FOR ME WHEN I FLY?
In a word, us. That's why United Airlines is initiating training programs for all of our employees. We will empower them to solve problems and make the decisions that will help make your flying experience a better one. This is going to be a different United Airlines. An even more professional United Airlines. Compared to the rest of the airline industry, we're heading in a different direction.
