GIANTS ADMINISTRATION

WELLINGTON MARA

PRESIDENT & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on October 18, 1925 when the New York Giants played their first home game against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. It was on that day that the then nine-year old Wellington T. Mara began a lifetime that has been dedicated to the Giants and the National Football League.

Because of his extensive background in the development and growth of the National Football League, Mara is recognized as one of the league's leaders.

He has been instrumental in the outstanding accomplishments of the Giants: 17 NFL Divisional championships and six NFL championships, including the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV championship titles. Mara, whose entire lifetime has been dedicated to pro football, was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame last summer. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, are the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor.

Mara has been involved in every aspect of operating the Giants during his seven decades with the team, from his first job as a ballboy at training camp to the on-the-field operations to scouting and general organization, and eventually to the front office executive capacity where he now serves as President and Co-Chief Executive Officer. The only interruption in Mara's Giants career was World War II when he served with distinction for more than three years in the Navy, seeing action in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters aboard aircraft carriers and emerging as a Lieutenant Commander.

Mara has not only served the Giants admirably over the years, but he has also been a valuable contributor to league efforts, as a member of many ownership committees. From 1971 until 1977, he was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council, the labor arm of the NFL, and it was under his leadership that the league achieved five years of labor peace from 1977 to 1982. Wellington was elected President of the National Football Conference in 1984, succeeding the late George Halas in that role. Mara is currently a member of the Realignment, Hall of Fame and Player-Club Operations committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the Management Council. He was a member of the Competition Committee, replacing Vince Lombardi after his death, for one year before leaving to join the Management Council. He also serves as President of the National Football Conference.

In 1925, Wellington's father, Timothy J. Mara, purchased the Giants franchise to establish a New York entry in the fledgling National Football League. The Mara family's presence has been constant with the Giants since Timothy Mara's purchase of the team. In addition to Timothy's and Wellington's involvement, Wellington's older brother, the late Jack Mara, served as the club's President until his death in 1965. After Jack's death, his son Tim served as Vice President and Treasurer of the team until Bob Tisch purchased the Jack Mara holdings in 1991. Today, two of Wellington's sons are important members of the organization: John Kevin as Executive Vice President and General Counsel and Frank as Director of Promotions.

Until 1965, Mara was responsible for the franchise's football decisions, while his brother Jack handled the business side of the team. A key to the Giants' championships in the late-'50s and early-'60s were trades engineered by Mara that brought Y.A. Tittle, Andy Robustelli, Del Shofner, Dick Modzelewski, Pat Summerall, Joe Walton, Dick Lynch, Erich Barnes, Bill Svoboda, Harland Svare, Bob Schnelker, Herb Rich, Ed Hughes and Walt Yowarsky, among others, to the Giants. Draft choices Frank Gifford and Rosie Brown went on to become members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, as did Tuffy Leemans, whom Wellington recommended in 1936.

Wellington T. Mara, whose nickname is "Duke," was born on August 14, 1916 in New York City. He graduated from Loyola High School before matriculating to Fordham University where he earned his degree in 1937. His brother, Jack, preceded him to Fordham University where he earned a law degree, but Wellington was only interested in joining his father with the Giants and did so immediately after graduation. He has been with the organization ever since.

Wellington married the former Ann Mumm in 1954 and the Maras have 11 children: John Kevin, Susan Ann, Timothy Christopher, Stephen Vincent, Francis Xavier, Shelia Marie, Kathleen Mary, Maureen Elizabeth, Ann Marie, Meghan Ann, and Colleen Elizabeth. The Maras, who reside in Rye, New York, also have 30 grandchildren.

PRESTON ROBERT TISCH

CHAIRMAN & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

For Preston Robert Tisch, it was a dream come true in 1991, when he became Co-Owner of one of New York City's premier sports franchises, the New York Giants. It was following the Giants Super Bowl XXV victory that he completed negotiations with Tim Mara and his family for a 50% interest in the team. Thus he began his career as an owner of a professional sports franchise -- only one of many careers he simultaneously pursues.

At Loews Corporation, one of the country's most successful financial companies, Mr. Tisch serves as Co-Chairman, Co-Chief Executive Officer and a Director. The Company, with 1997 revenues of $20.1 billion and assets exceeding $69 billion, owns and operates hotels and resorts through Loews Hotels; 84% of CNA Financial Corporation; 97% of Bulova Corporation; 50.3% Lorillard Tobacco Company; and Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc.

The Company's history dates back to a summer camp in New Jersey run by Mr. Tisch and his brother Laurence, followed by the purchase of a hotel in Lakewood, New Jersey and the formation of Tisch Hotels, Inc.

In 1959, the Tisch brothers bought controlling interest in Loews Theaters, Inc., a real estate-rich theatre chain. In 1971, after Loews acquired Lorillard Tobacco, its name was changed to Loews Corporation.

Mr. Tisch served as Postmaster General of the United States from August 1986 until returning to New York in March 1988. Prior to his appointment as Postmaster, he served as President and Chief Operating Officer of Loews Corporation and its corporate predecessor, Loews Theatres, Inc., a position held from 1960 until his appointment as Co-Chairman and Co-CEO.

Throughout his career, Tisch has been active in civic affairs. Prior to being named Postmaster General, he served as Chairman of the New York Convention & Visitors Bureau for 19 years and currently serves as the Bureau's Chairman Emeritus. He was also founding Chairman of the New York City Convention and Exhibition Center Corporation and Chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Conventions held in New York City in 1976 and 1980.

In May 1990, Mayor David Dinkins appointed Tisch New York City's Ambassador to Washington. Through 1993, he served as a liaison between the City of New York and his friends and colleagues in both the national government in Washington and the business community in New York City.

From 1990-1993, Tisch served as Chairman of the New York City Partnership, Inc. and the New York Chamber of Commerce and Industry, where he was instrumental in developing a campaign to enhance New York's position as an international business center. He remains an active member of both organizations, where he continues to serve on their Boards of Directors. A founding Co-Chairman of Citymeals-on-Wheels, he became President of the Board of Directors in September 1993. He is chairman of Public Private Initiative, a public private partnership which raises funds for important community programs.

Tisch currently serves on the Board of Directors of Hasbro, Inc. He was also re-elected to the Board of Rite Aid Corporation, and renamed a Trustee of New York University. He also served on the organizing committee for the 1990 Economic Summit of Industrialized Nations held in Houston.

In addition to these involvements, Mr. Tisch makes considerable time for the Giants. In his role as Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, he visits his office at Giants Stadium each week, without fail, and attends every game, both home and away. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he's attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

Mr. Tisch was born in New York City. He attended Bucknell University before entering the Army in 1944. After military service in World War II, he earned a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Michigan in 1948. Mr. Tisch is married to the former Joan Hyman, and they have three children: Steven, Laurie and Jonathan, who is Treasurer for the Giants. Mr. Tisch lives with his wife in New York City and Rye, New York.

JOHN K. MARA

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL COUNSEL

John K. Mara, the oldest son of team President Wellington Mara, begins his eighth season with the Giants after joining the club in 1991 as Executive Vice President and General Counsel. In his present position, Mara is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization and reports directly to the Co-Chief Executive Officers, Wellington Mara and Preston Robert Tisch.

Mara was born in New York City on December 1, 1954, grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in Marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. John earned his Law Degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the firm of Shea & Gould in Manhattan where he continued until April 1991 when he joined the Giants.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincents Hospital in Harrison, NY, The School of the Holy Child, also in Harrison, NY, and Iona Preparatory School in New Rochelle, NY.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, 17; Courtney, 15; John Jr., 14; Christine, 12; and Erin, 8. The Mara family resides in Harrison, New York.

JONATHAN M. TISCH

TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch joined the Giants in February 1991 and immediately began his role as Treasurer. In addition to serving on the Giants Board of Directors, Tisch serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer for Loews Hotels.

During his tenure, Tisch has been instrumental in overseeing the company's growth and subsequent emergence as one of the leading luxury hotel chains. Blending a cutting edge approach to marketing and operations, with a conservative development philosophy, he has become recognized as one of the industry's leading authorities. As a result, he has received numerous honors and accolades, for both his dedication to the travel industry, as well as for his commitment to social responsibility and community outreach.

Most recently, he was inducted into the Convention Liaison Council's "Hall of Leaders," and was also named as one of the "25 Most Influential People in the Meetings Industry" by Meeting News Magazine. He has been named one of the "Business Travel Industry's Most Influential Executives" by Business Travel News four times, as well as one of Crain's New York business magazine's "All Stars."

Underscoring his presence as an industry leader, Tisch has served as an officer of the American Hotel & Motel Association for five years, culminating in his Chairmanship of the organization in 1997. In conjunction with the first-ever White House Conference on Travel and Tourism, held October 1995, Tisch co-chaired the Promotions Committee. Tisch is also Chairman of the "Travel Business Roundtable" -- a coalition of chief executives representing various sectors of the travel industry, and has been chairman of the New York University International Hospitality Investment Conference since 1995.

Actively involved in several community and philanthropic activities, Tisch serves on the Board of Directors for Tufts University, the Robert Steel Foundation for Pediatric Cancer Research at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, and the Pediatric AIDS Foundation. Previously, he had served on the Dean's Advisory Council for the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University.

A graduate of Tufts University, Tisch's affection for the television and film industry traces back to working as a Cinematographer/Producer at WBZ-TV in Boston where he received two Emmy Nominations.

ERNIE ACCORSI

VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Ernie Accorsi was named George Young's successor as General Manager on January 8, 1998 after Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President for Football Operations in the NFL office. Accorsi had served as the Giants Assistant General Manager since July 1994. In his new position with the Giants, Accorsi will be in charge of all player contract negotiations and will supervise the Giants player personnel department. Accorsi has managed two NFL franchises in the past. He served as General Manager with Baltimore (1982-83) and Cleveland (1985-92).

Since beginning his NFL career with the Baltimore Colts in 1970, Accorsi has worked in virtually every phase of the football business. Accorsi was brought to the Giants on July 6, 1994 to assist George Young with the football operations. Young was the Colts' offensive line coach when Accorsi first joined the Baltimore organization.

"Philosophically, I basically was molded by him. We have our roots in the same organization, the Baltimore Colts," said Accorsi about his mentor Young. "I feel this job is a privilege. For someone who first watched the Giants play in 1951 in Hershey, Pa., in an exhibition game against the Eagles, the dream that you could ever be in this position is really more than you could ever expect. I just hope when my time comes to leave, I can turn it over to the next person in the same condition it was given to me. We're going to use every avenue we can to make the team better."

Most recently in the NFL, Accorsi was Executive Vice President/Football Operations for the Cleveland Browns from 1985 until he resigned in 1992. During that time, the Browns made five straight playoff appearances, including four AFC Central titles and three appearances in the AFC Championship game. With the Browns, Accorsi shouldered most of the responsibility for player acquisitions, including the draft and trades. He handled the delicate and important supplemental draft trade that gave the Browns the rights to then sophomore Bernie Kosar in the spring of 1985. Kosar joined the team in the summer, and the Browns went on to win four AFC Central titles and made the playoffs a fifth time as a Wild Card Team.

Accorsi began his NFL career as the Baltimore Colts public relations director in 1970 where he served for five seasons. He then went to the NFL office where he worked on Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff as Assistant to the President of the National Football Conference in 1975 and 1976. He returned to the Colts organization in 1977 as the team's Assistant General Manager. Accorsi later became the Colts last general manager in Baltimore for two years, 1982 and 1983, prior to joining the Browns organization.

After leaving the Browns, Accorsi served as a special advisor to Maryland Governor William Donald Schaefer on NFL expansion. In that capacity, he was responsible for selling all 100 sky suites for the proposed NFL football stadium, as well as all 7,500 club seats. The sky suites were sold out in six weeks, while the club seating sold out in eight weeks. In addition, he also raised commitments of $51 million for Baltimore's Expansion Efforts Premium Seating Campaign. Immediately before joining the Giants, Accorsi was Executive Director of Business Affairs for the Baltimore Orioles of Major League Baseball.

Accorsi was born in Hershey, Pennsylvania, where he played baseball all the way to the American Legion level. A 1963 graduate of Wake Forest University, Accorsi has worked as a sports writer for the Charlotte News, Baltimore Sun and Philadelphia Inquirer. He has also worked in the Athletic Departments at St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia and Penn State University.

Accorsi has three children: Michael, a former graduate assistant under George Welsh at the University of Virginia and currently a teacher and assistant football coach at Bishop McNamara High School in Maryland; Patrick, a senior at the University of Maryland; and daughter Sherlyn, a graduate of Penn State University.

RICK DONOHUE

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Donohue took over as assistant general manager this past offseason following the departure of George Young to the NFL office and the promotion of Ernie Accorsi from assistant general manager to the general manager position.

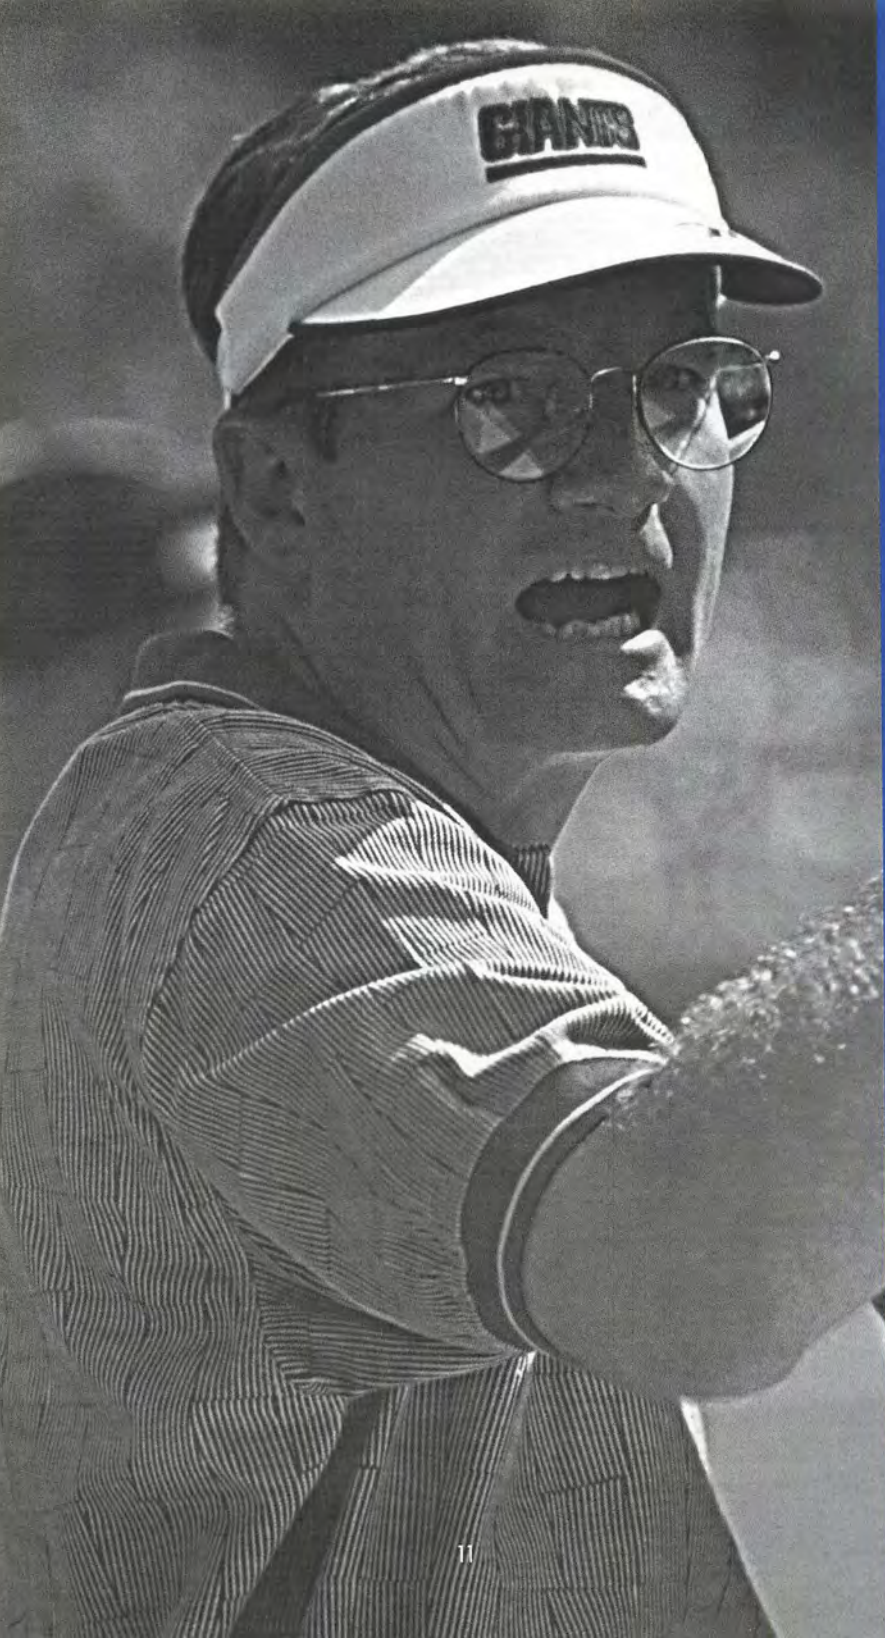

Donohue spent the last four seasons as assistant director of player personnel after spending 10 years as a scout. He originally joined the Giants in August of 1983 after serving in coaching capacities on both the collegiate and high school levels.

Donohue played his scholastic sports at Dewitt Clinton High School in the Bronx. He earned a B.S. degree in Education from the University of Dayton, then continued at Michigan State University in Educational Administration. He began his coaching career as a head football coach at Buckeye H.S. in Rushsylvania, Ohio, then was a coach and science teacher at Bellefontaine H.S. in Bellefontaine, Ohio before entering the collegiate ranks as a freshman football coach at Michigan State. He then served as a defensive coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, secondary coach at C.W. Post College, and freshman coach, assistant varsity coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University before joining the Giants as a scout.

Donohue and his wife Elaine reside in Washington Township, N.J.

COACHING STAFF

JIM FASSEL HEAD COACH

After being named the 15th head coach in Giants history on January 15, 1997, Jim Fassel led his squad to a 10-5-1 record and a berth in the playoffs while capturing the NFC East Championship. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous media outlets, including The Sporting News, after helping the Giants improve from a 6-10 record and a last place finish in the NFC East in 1996. The Sporting News bases its honor on voting by the coaches around the League. Under Fassel's guidance, the Giants became the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The worst-to-first turnaround has occurred 13 times, including the 1997 Giants, since the 1970 merger. Fassel's group finished with a 7-0-1 Division record and became the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The 1997 season marked Fassel's return to the Giants organization. He entered the NFL as an assistant coach with the Giants in 1991 as quarterbacks coach, then as offensive coordinator in 1992.

After hiring his 14 assistants, Fassel and his staff conducted the NFL maximum three veteran mini-camps prior to training camp. The Giants also held a rookie mini-camp following the draft. At the first meeting with his veteran players, Fassel asked a question.

Fassel asked, "Which of you believe that we can win?" A few hands went up. Then the coach asked, "Which of you just want to believe you could win?" Fassel kept asking the question until all of the players were raising their hands.

"The biggest thing we've done was getting these guys to have a mental toughness," said Fassel. "We changed our attitude into more of a can-do mode. I heard all of the negatives when I got here, that there was no talent and things like that."

Being consistent is another reason for Fassel's success. Fassel did not change his approach or threaten any jobs after the Giants started with a 1-3 record. It is his ability to adjust to things happening during a game that helped the Giants start to believe in the coach's approach.

"The other team might do something that surprises us or might unnerve some guys, and it just doesn't faze him," says quarterback Danny Kanell. "He goes: 'O.K., that's fine. Let them do that. Here's what we'll do.'"

"That little red panic button is always there if you want to reach up and push it," said Fassel. "But I would have lost them right then if I started making wholesale changes - cutting this guy and firing that guy. Everything I'd have told them about being consistent and staying the course would have gone out the window."

From the outset, some thought that Fassel was too easygoing. Fassel's politeness should not be misconstrued as a weakness.

"We saw him explode one day in training camp after a bad practice," said Jason Sehorn. "Everybody said he's a nice guy, he's mellow, easygoing, laid back. Well, when we didn't play too well that day he kind of snapped on us. He definitely has that other side when he needs to have it. You don't need to have it every day."

Fassel and the Giants faced their share of adversity throughout the 1997 campaign. Brian Williams, arguably the team's best player, sustained a season-ending eye injury during the first few days of training camp. First-round draft choice WR Ike Hilliard, who was expected to provide an instant spark to the offense, was lost in the second game of the season with a neck injury. Despite these early problems, the Giants overcame the 1-3 start and hit their stride and went 9-2-1 over the rest of the season.

Fassel came to the Giants labeled as a "quarterback guru" but quickly showed that he was a complete coach.

"Anybody who's a first-time head coach in this league and gets the job from the assistant ranks - and primarily it's from a coordinator's job - you're on one side of ball or the other, and you're labeled," said Fassel.

"You're either the defensive guy or the offensive guru. You have to establish yourself beyond that."

Fassel's attention to detail made an immediate impact on his players.

"He had a plan, and he knew what he wanted to do, and I knew he had the type of players to get his plan accomplished," said Charles Way. "I just wanted to see how he would do his first year and how he would handle himself in certain situations, and he handled himself well."

Following his service with the Giants in 1991-92, Fassel spent two campaigns as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos in 1993 and 1994. He spent the 1995 season as quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders and was the offensive coordinator and the quarterbacks coach for the Arizona Cardinals in 1996.

Before coming to the Giants as head coach, Fassel built a reputation for an ability to develop quarterbacks. Under Fassel's guidance, Broncos quarterback John Elway enjoyed his finest season as a pro in 1993, earning honors that included the AFC Player-of-the-Year and Most Valuable Player. Elway was the starting quarterback in the Pro Bowl and led the AFC in all six major passing categories. The Broncos offense ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL and scored 373 points to rank first in the conference and third in the league. In 1996 with the Cardinals, Fassel tutored Giants quarterback Kent Graham into a solid player and helped rejuvenate veteran Boomer Esiason. The Cardinals finished sixth in passing offense in 1996.

A former collegiate quarterback at Fullerton College, Fassel began coaching in 1973 at his alma mater, then was a player-coach for the Hawaii Hawaiians of the World Football League in 1974. He coached quarterbacks and receivers at Utah in 1976, then served seven seasons as offensive coordinator at both Weber State (1977-78) and Stanford (1979-83). At Stanford Fassel was credited with recruiting and coaching Elway, who finished second in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy as a senior in 1982. It was also at Stanford, that Fassel's offensive system began to take shape. Fassel adapted his offense from Stanford head coach Bill Walsh, who would later lead San Francisco to three Super Bowl titles.

Said Walsh about Fassel, "He reminds me in a sense of myself. Jim is not bombastic or animated or terribly quotable, but he knows that the essence of the job is to organize and direct and teach and implement a system. He is a true teacher and an organizer."

Fassel entered the pro arena in 1984 as offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Breakers of the USFL, then returned to Utah as the school's head coach from 1985-89 where he recruited and coached current Detroit Lions quarterback Scott Mitchell. En route to the NFL under Fassel's tutelage, Mitchell set 10 NCAA and five Western Athletic Conference records in addition to virtually every school passing record. Fassel's Utah experience taught him to be more hands-on in his approach to handling the team.

"The one thing I said when I took the Giants job that was very, very important to me, was that I'm going to be around, and I'm going to coach this football team, and I'm not going to be an aloof head coach," said Fassel. "I'm going to be active on the field, I'm going to be active in the meetings. That gives me a better sense for them."

A native of Anaheim, California, Fassel was a standout quarterback at Anaheim High School before leading Fullerton College to a 25-1 record over two seasons and winning the junior college national championship in 1967. He also spent one season with Green Bay Packers head coach Mike Holmgren at Southern California during the Trojans' Rose Bowl Championship season of 1969. Holmgren did not play in any games that year due to a shoulder injury. Fassel was a junior backup behind starter Jimmy Jones after transferring from Fullerton College.

He was drafted by Chicago in the seventh round of the 1972 NFL Draft and went to camp with the Chicago Bears, Houston Oilers and San Diego Chargers.

THE COACH AND HIS FAMILY

Fassel's arduous journey to the top of his profession includes 12 moves since he began coaching in 1973. Fassel and his family have made three stops in California and two in Utah. They lived in Hawaii, New Orleans, New Jersey, Colorado, Los Angeles and Arizona.

"Our family has always enjoyed new experiences," Fassel said. "For our kids, the world is not intimidating to them. They can go anywhere, talk about anything."

After his stint with the Hawaii Hawaiians, Fassel took a job as a salesman for an air-conditioning company in 1975. Miserable in the sales business, Fassel took his first full-time coaching job as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach at Utah, starting a career path that would culminate 22 years later when he was named head coach of the New York Giants.

Born August 31, 1949 in Anaheim, California, Fassel and his wife Kitty, have four children, John (1-10-74), Brian (12-22-75), Jana (10-31-78) and Mike (6-19-81). John is a senior quarterback at Weber State. Brian works with the video department at Northern Arizona University. Jana is a walk-on basketball player at Northern Arizona. Mike is a sophomore in high school (Don Bosco) where he is a member of the school's basketball team.

LESSONS FROM A FATHER

Jim Fassel's father, Bud, was the assistant fire chief in his native Anaheim until his neighbor Claire Van Hoorebeke, the Anaheim High School football coach who would become a legend in southern California, hired the elder Fassel as a full-time equipment manager. Bud Fassel wanted to be a coach but he had been in the war and did not go to college to get his teaching certificate.

"If some kid wanted to quit, the coach would tell him to go turn in his uniform to my dad," said Fassel. "Nobody ever quit. Guys didn't get past my dad. He talked them out of it.

"I learned everything about how to relate to people from him. How to observe and get along with them, too."

HAL SHERBECK, FASSEL'S COACH AT FULLERTON

The team concept that no single player is bigger than the whole is an important element of Fassel's motivational technique. It was a lesson he learned from Hal Sherbeck, who was Fassel's head coach at Fullerton Junior College.

"We were going to play for the 1967 national championship," said Fassel. "And we used to dress 100 guys for each game. It was a big team, but coach Sherbeck never excluded anyone. He told us we were one team. The week before the game the officials told us that the rules said no more than 60 players could dress.

"They wouldn't budge on that rule. Coach Sherbeck told the guy in charge: 'Fine. We forfeit. You go give them the trophy for winning right now.' But then we're playing the game anyway. And we are dressing all 100 guys."

Fullerton captured the junior college national championship with a 41-0 victory.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN FOX

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

John Fox enters his second season as defensive coordinator of the Giants. Fox is the architect of a Giants defense that led the NFL in take-aways with 44, a franchise record. The Giants led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished tied for third with 54 sacks. The 54 sacks rank 3rd in team history. The Giants defense finished second in the NFC against the run at 90.7 yards per game. In addition, the Giants defense held the opponent to 20 points or less in 12 of the 16 regular season games. The Giants held the opposition to 10 points or less in six of those games. Fox was honored as The Pro Football Weekly Assistant Coach of the Year.

Fox was named defensive coordinator by head coach Jim Fassel on January 22, 1997. Fox came to the Giants after spending two seasons as defensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders. Under Fox's guidance, the Raiders finished 10th in total defense in 1994 and 11th in 1995. Fox left the Raiders prior to the start of the 1996 season and worked as a consultant for the St. Louis Rams. Fassel worked with Fox in 1995 when Fassel was the quarterbacks coach for Oakland.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Fox was the defensive backs coach for the San Diego Chargers in 1992 and 1993. Fox entered the NFL as secondary coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989 through 1991. The Steelers had the NFL's top-ranked pass defense in 1990 under Fox's leadership.

Fox came to the Steelers after three years as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1986 through 1988. The Panthers' pass defense had a top-ten national ranking each of his three seasons there.

Fox began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at San Diego State in 1978 before becoming an assistant coach at United States International University in San Diego in 1979. He also coached the secondary at Boise State (1980), Long Beach State (1981), Utah (1982), Kansas (1983) and Iowa State (1984).

He entered the professional coaching ranks in 1985, coaching the defensive backs for the USFL's Los Angeles Express. He returned to the collegiate level that fall on the staff at Kansas before heading to Pittsburgh.

Fox was born on February 8, 1955 in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He grew up in the San Diego area and attended Castle Park High in Chula Vista. He went on to play two years at Southwestern Junior College in Chula Vista (1974-75) before finishing his career as a defensive back at San Diego State from 1976-1977. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a secondary education teaching credential in 1977.

Fox and his wife, Robin, have three sons, Mathew, Mark and Cody.

JIM SKIPPER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS

Jim Skipper was named offensive coordinator and running backs coach by Jim Fassel on January 23, 1997. Fassel runs offensive meetings when he is available, but as head coach he often is not, leaving Skipper in charge. He is intimately involved in gameplanning and has primary responsibility for the running backs.

Said RB Tyrone Wheatley about his coach, "He keeps you upbeat. He makes you want to come to work. He's somebody who's into it. He's not just here to pick up a paycheck. Give him a chance, he'll put on some shoulder pads to go out and play. That's the kind of guy I want to be coached by."

Skipper came to the Giants after spending the 1996 season as the Arizona Cardinals running backs coach. Prior to joining the Arizona staff, Skipper served as running backs coach for the New Orleans Saints for ten seasons (1986-95).

"In working with Jim, I am impressed with his overall feel for the offense," said Fassel. "He is a detailed, organized planner and we worked well together with the Cardinals. He knows the offensive system, and I am comfortable and confident in our relationship as it relates to the direction of the offense."

Skipper coached Pro Bowl FB Larry Centers in Arizona in 1996. While in New Orleans, Skipper tutored two Pro Bowlers, Reuben Mays and Dalton Hilliard. Skipper opened his coaching dossier with one season at the high school level in 1973 before stops at Cal Poly-Pomona (1974-76) and San Jose State (1977-78) as defensive backs coach. He moved to offense as running backs coach at Pacific in 1979 and then coached the running backs at Oregon from 1980-82. Skipper entered the professional coaching ranks as running backs coach for the USFL Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars from 1983-85.

Born January 23, 1949, Skipper and his wife, Elmarie, have three sons, Kelly, Timmy and Courtney. Kelly is the running back coach at UCLA. Timmy is the starting middle linebacker at Fresno State. Courtney is a junior at Clifton High School. Skipper and son Kelly both have coached Saints running back Lorenzo Neal.

Skipper holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from Whittier College.

DAVE BRAZIL

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dave Brazil joined the Giants staff in the spring of 1992 as the team's linebackers coach. When Dan Reeves came to the Giants in January of 1993, Brazil was retained as the defensive quality control coach. Head coach Jim Fassel retained Brazil in the same capacity. Brazil and Fassel coached together on Ray Handley's staff in 1992. Brazil and defensive coordinator John Fox also worked together for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989 to 1991.

Prior to coming to the Giants, Brazil was defensive coordinator of the Steelers in 1990 and 1991 after joining Chuck Noll's coaching staff in Pittsburgh as linebackers coach in 1989. Brazil's 1990 Steelers defense finished first in the NFL, allowing the fewest overall yards and fewest passing yards in the league. From 1984 through the 1988 season Brazil was a member of the Kansas City Chiefs coaching staff as secondary and then linebackers coach.

Before joining the NFL in 1984, Brazil was defensive coordinator at Kent State (1981-1982) and Boston College (1980). Brazil's first pro coaching experience was in the World Football League with the Detroit Wheels (1974) and the Chicago Wind (1975). Prior to joining the pro ranks, Brazil coached at Eastern Michigan (1971-1973), Tulsa (1969-1970) and Holy Cross (1968).

Brazil was born in Detroit, Michigan on March 25, 1936. He graduated from the University of Detroit with a business administration degree. He and his wife Bridget have six children: daughters Kathleen and Mary Ann and sons Michael, Daniel, Thomas and Patrick, who works with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Assistant Video Director.

ROD DOWHWOWER

QUARTERBACKS

Rod Dowhower joined the Giants staff as quarterbacks coach on January 29, 1997. His direct responsibility is the development of Danny Kanell and his understudies Kent Graham and Mike Cherry.

Dowhower spent 15 years coaching in the National Football League before taking over as head coach of Vanderbilt University for the 1995 and 1996 seasons.

Dowhower's coaching history includes stops with some of the NFL's most innovative coaches, such as Joe Gibbs, Bill Walsh and Don Coryell. He began his coaching career in 1973 as an assistant under Coryell with the St. Louis Cardinals and later had stints with Denver (1980-81) and Atlanta (1987-89) as offensive coordinator. He was head coach of the Indianapolis Colts from 1985-86.

On the collegiate level, Dowhower served as head coach at Stanford in 1979, where he worked with Jim Fassel, and had other college coaching assignments at San Diego State (1966-72), UCLA (1974-75), Boise State (1976) and Stanford (1977-78) with Walsh.

Dowhower was hired by Joe Gibbs in 1990 as quarterbacks coach of the Washington Redskins and helped shape the Redskins' offense into a 1991 Super Bowl champion when they scored a league-high 485 points. He served as quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns before taking the Vanderbilt job. Professionally, he has directed such quarterbacks as Craig Morton, Jim Hart, Neil Lomax, Mark Rypien and Vinny Testaverde.

Born April 15, 1943 in Ord, Nebraska, Dowhower played his collegiate ball as a quarterback at San Diego State. Dowhower and his wife Nancy have two sons, Brian and Deron. Brian is a Washington and Lee Law School graduate, while Deron is a University of Virginia graduate.

JOHN DUNN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

John Dunn joined Jim Fassel's coaching staff on January 23, 1997 as strength and conditioning coach. Dunn installed his offseason program immediately. Dunn's program uses shorter, higher-intensity workouts that put less stress on the body.

"We want to keep our players healthier and not wear down their joint systems," said Dunn. "It's taking a muscle group, putting a person in a safe position and trying to exhaust that muscle group."

Dunn came to the Giants after serving in the same capacity for the San Diego Chargers from 1990-96 and the Los Angeles Raiders from 1987-89. Dunn began his career in the NFL as an assistant strength coach with the Washington Redskins from 1984-86.

In 1994 Dunn was voted the National Football League's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by his peers.

Dunn graduated with a degree in health and physical education from Penn State University in 1978. He played defensive line his first two seasons (1974-75) before switching to offensive tackle as a junior and then to guard as a senior. He was named offensive co-captain for the Nittany Lions his senior season. Dunn signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978. He returned to Penn State as the team's assistant offensive line coach in 1979.

He operated "Mother Dunn's Nautilus Club" in York, Pa., and Goshen, New York, before coming to the NFL in 1984.

Dunn was born on July 22, 1956 in Hillsdale, New York. He was a three-sport star, including a nationally-ranked shot putter, for Taconic Hills High in Philmont, New York. Dunn and his wife, Julia, have two daughters, Jessica and Taylor. He was nicknamed "Mother Dunn" during his freshman season at Penn State.

MIKE GILLHAMER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Mike Gillhamer joined the Giants staff as offensive quality control coach on February 24, 1997. In addition to his offensive quality control responsibilities, Gillhamer assists with the running backs. He came to the Giants after spending the 1996 season as defensive backs coach at Rutgers University.

Prior to his stint with the Scarlet Knights, Gillhamer was defensive coordinator for the University of Nevada in 1995 after serving the 1994 season as Nevada's defensive backs coach. He also coached the defensive backs at San Jose State (1990-93), the University of Utah (1985-89) and Weber State (1984). Jim Fassel was head coach during Gillhamer's tenure at Utah. His collegiate coaching career began with a five-year stay at the College of the Sequoias (Visalia, CA) from 1979-83. In 1979 he coached the defensive line and from 1980-83 he was the defensive secondary coach. He received a degree in physical education from Humboldt State and a master's degree in special education in 1981. In 1988, he served as the "guest" assistant coach with the Ottawa Rough Riders in the Canadian Football League.

He was a player at Humboldt State and was named most valuable defensive back in 1975. He also played baseball and ran track at Humboldt State. Gillhamer and his wife, Tammy, have two daughters, Meagen (7) and Taylor (4).

MIKE HALUCHAK

LINEBACKERS

Mike Haluchak joined head coach Jim Fassel's staff as linebackers coach on January 31, 1997. Haluchak's prized pupil was Pro Bowl LB Jessie Armstead, who set a single-season personal high with 134 total tackles, eclipsing the 114 tackles he had in 1996. The 134 total tackles are one tackle higher than Lawrence Taylor's team record of 133 total tackles set during his rookie season in 1981.

Haluchak joined the Giants after serving three seasons (1994-96) as linebackers coach for the Washington Redskins. He joined the Redskins following two seasons in Cincinnati (1992-93), six seasons in San Diego (1986-91) and three years with the USFL's Oakland Invaders (1983-85).

Haluchak coached seven years at the collegiate level, coaching linebackers at North Carolina State (1982), California (1981) and Pacific (1979-80). He was the defensive backfield coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1978 and was a graduate assistant at USC in 1976 and 1977.

Haluchak had a four-year playing career at USC where he started at inside linebacker and later moved to strong safety. He played in the 1969 and 1970 Rose Bowl games against Ohio State and Michigan.

He received a degree in history from USC and a master's degree in secondary education from California Lutheran College.

Haluchak was born November 28, 1949 in Concord, Ca. His wife's name is Carol.

JOHNNIE LYNN

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Johnnie Lynn joined the Giants staff on January 31, 1997 as defensive backs coach. In his first season with the Giants, his unit led the NFL in interceptions with 27. Lynn also helped in the aide of CB Jason Sehorn, who received considerable postseason recognition after leading the team with six interceptions.

He came to the Giants following a stint with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach during the 1996 season. Lynn served in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and 1995.

Lynn spent seven seasons in the collegiate coaching ranks at Arizona, beginning as a graduate assistant in 1987, before tutoring the outside linebackers (1988-91) and defensive backs (1992-93).

Lynn was a standout defensive back at both safety and cornerback in the NFL for eight seasons as a member of the New York Jets (1979-86) following his fourth-round draft selection out of UCLA. He earned a starting position as a rookie and concluded his career No. 10 on the Jets career list with 17 interceptions. He was a letterman on four UCLA bowl teams and received All-Pac 10 Honors as a senior. Lynn earned a bachelor's degree in history from UCLA.

Born December 19, 1956 in Los Angeles, Lynn and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of three children, Ashley, Chazz and Cameron.

LARRY MAC DUFF

SPECIAL TEAMS

After serving as defensive coordinator for the University of Arizona since 1987, Larry Mac Duff was named special teams coach for the Giants on January 23, 1997.

Under Mac Duff's leadership, the Arizona defense was rated in the statistical top 10 four times. His units at Arizona produced five Pac-10 Defensive Players of the Year. In 1992, Arizona's defense led the nation in scoring defense (8.9 pts./game) and in 1993, it was No. 1 in rushing defense, allowing just 30.1 yards per game. During Mac Duff's tenure at Arizona, the Wildcats appeared in five Bowl games, including a 29-0 victory over Miami in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl. Mac Duff served as assistant head coach for three seasons in Arizona from 1994 through 1996.

Prior to joining Arizona, Mac Duff spent three seasons (1983-86) as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator for the University of Hawaii. Mac Duff coached linebackers at Fullerton JC in 1970, was line coach and defensive coordinator at Sunny Hills High in 1971-73 and was defensive line coach and linebackers coach at Fullerton from 1974-1979. He moved to Stanford as defensive line coach in 1980-81 and 1983, and was defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach in 1982.

Mac Duff was a two-time all-conference defensive end at Fullerton JC and led Fullerton to a 12-0 record and national title in 1967. He was conference player of the year in 1967 and earned All-America honors. Mac Duff was a starter at Oklahoma and helped the Sooners earn a Big Eight co-championship in 1968.

Mac Duff received a degree in physical education from Oklahoma in 1970 and a master's in physical education from Fullerton. He was born June 22, 1948, in Clinton, Iowa. He and his wife, Barbie have a son Justin.

DENNY MARCINI

DEFENSIVE LINE

Denny Marcini was named defensive line coach by Jim Fassel on February 10, 1997. Under Marcini, the Giants finished with two players with double-digit sack totals for the first time since 1986. DT Robert Harris had 10 sacks and DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14 sacks. Strahan was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad for his efforts.

Marcini joined the Giants staff after spending nine seasons (1988-96) as defensive line coach at the University of Illinois. In addition to his defensive line responsibilities, he spent four seasons (1992-95) as defensive coordinator before being named assistant head coach for the 1996 season.

Marcini served as defensive coordinator at North Carolina from 1978-1987, after which he also added the duties of assistant head coach. During his ten years at North Carolina, the Tar Heels had 24 defensive players move on to the National Football League, including former Giant Lawrence Taylor. At the conclusion of the 1981 season, North Carolina was ranked No. 1 in the nation in total defense.

Prior to his ten-year stay at North Carolina, Marcini was an assistant coach at Miami of Ohio from 1974-1977. He served as defensive coordinator in 1977.

A 1964 graduate of Miami of Ohio, Marcini earned a B.S. in education. He played on both the offensive and defensive lines for Miami of Ohio.

Marcin was instrumental in the development of two former Illinois players that were selected in the first round of the 1996 draft - Simeon Rice of the Arizona Cardinals and Kevin Hardy of the Jacksonville Jaguars. Marcin also aided in the development of Moe Gardner, a two-time All-American and a 1991 4th round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Marcin and his wife, Betsey, have four children, Jeff, Denny, Melinda and Susie, and four grandsons.

JOHN MATSKO

OFFENSIVE LINE

John Matsko was named offensive line coach by Jim Fassel on January 23, 1997. Matsko helped the Giants offensive line witness a +24 turnaround in quarterback sack ratio. In 1997 the Giants allowed 32 sacks, a vast improvement from the 1996 season when the Giants were sacked 56 times. Matsko was instrumental in the development of left tackle Roman Oben and helped the Giants overcome the loss of Brian Williams with the development of Derek Engler and Lance Scott as his replacements.

Prior to joining the Giants, Matsko served as offensive line coach for the New Orleans Saints for three seasons (1994-96), where he coached Pro Bowl T William Roaf. In the category of least amount of sacks allowed, Matsko's units finished seventh in 1994 and 1995 and third in 1996. He came to the Saints after a two-year stint with the Phoenix Cardinals (1992-93). Under Matsko, the Cardinals' rushing offense improved from a 26th NFL ranking in 1991, the year before his arrival, to 11th in 1993.

A graduate of Kent State, where he played fullback, Matsko started his coaching career in 1973 at his alma mater. He served as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio) for the next two seasons before taking a job as head coach at Danbury High School in Lakeside-Marblehead, Ohio in 1976. After one year in the high school ranks, Matsko returned to Miami in 1977 as offensive line coach.

Following his Miami tenure, Matsko spent the next seven seasons (1978-84) as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of North Carolina. After a stop at the Naval Academy (1985), Matsko went to the University of Arizona as offensive line coach in 1986, and followed head coach Larry Smith to USC the next year. He served with the Trojans through 1991 and spent his last three years as USC's offensive coordinator. Matsko coached NFL first-round draft choices Brian Blados (Cincinnati, 1984), Harris Barton (San Francisco, 1987), Dave Cadigan (Jets, 1988), Pat Harlow (New England, 1991) and Tony Boselli (Jacksonville, 1995).

Born February 2, 1951 in Cleveland, Ohio, Matsko earned his bachelor's degree in business education in 1973, and his master's from Miami, Ohio in 1976. Matsko and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Marie and Lizzi, and two sons, John and Michael.

DICK REHBEIN*TIGHT ENDS/ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Dick Rehbein originally joined the Giants staff in February 1992 as the team's tight ends coach. When Dan Reeves took over the team in January of 1993, Rehbein was given the assignment of coaching the wide receivers. Rehbein, who coached with Jim Fassel in 1992 under Ray Handley's regime, was retained when Fassel took over as head coach in 1997 and was assigned to coach the tight ends. He will take on a new responsibility of assisting with the offensive line in 1998.

Rehbein joined the Giants after spending eight seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (1984-91). While with Minnesota, Rehbein was a special assistant in 1984, receivers coach from 1985 through 1988 and assistant offensive coordinator/passing game coach from 1989 through 1991. Prior to his Minnesota experience, Rehbein was special teams coach and assistant offensive line coach of the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in 1984. Before that, he was special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1979 through 1983.

A four-year starter as a center at Ripon College in Wisconsin, Rehbein was a Division II All-American who went to training camp with the Green Bay Packers in 1977.

Rehbein was born on November 22, 1955 in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Rehbein and his wife Pam have two daughters, Betsy and Sarahbeth.

JIMMY ROBINSON*WIDE RECEIVERS

Jimmy Robinson was named wide receivers coach on February 13, 1998, replacing Milt Jackson, who left the Giants for a position with the Seattle Seahawks. Robinson previously served in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts from 1994-97 and the Atlanta Falcons from 1990-93. A Giants player from 1976-79, Robinson caught the first Giants touchdown in Giants Stadium history on a 30-yard pass from QB Craig Morton against Dallas on October 10, 1976.

While with the Colts, Robinson helped WR Sean Dawkins improve his receptions in each of his four seasons and helped WR Marvin Harrison become only the third rookie in Colts history to lead the club in receptions. He helped Falcons WRs Andre Rison and Michael Haynes lead the NFL in tandem touchdown receptions in 1991 and 1992 and Rison and Mike Pritchard in 1993.

Robinson entered the coaching ranks following an NFL playing career that included stops with Atlanta (1975), the Giants (1976-79), San Francisco (1980) and Denver (1981). His first role came as receivers/tight ends coach of the Memphis Showboats (USFL) from 1983-85. He moved to his alma mater, Georgia Tech, as receivers coach from 1987-89 before joining the Falcons in the same role.

Robinson was a standout receiver at Georgia Tech from 1971-74. He notched 101 career receptions for 1,633 yards and 13 touchdowns. He was added to the school's Hall of Fame in 1981 and named to the school's All-Time Team in 1992. He earned a bachelor's degree in industrial management at Georgia Tech.

Robinson was born January 3, 1953 in New York City. He is married to the former Karen Gresham of Rome, Ga. They have four children, Jamie (20), Jessica (17), Jim (12) and Katie (10).

CRAIG STODDARD*ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Craig Stoddard joined the Giants coaching staff on February 1, 1997 as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach. Stoddard came to the Giants after spending two seasons (1995-96) as a graduate assistant strength coach on Joe Paterno's staff at Penn State. The Nittany Lions advanced to the Outback Bowl in 1995 and the Fiesta Bowl in 1996 during his tenure at Penn State.

After graduating with a degree in Exercise Science from Springfield College in 1994, Stoddard interned under strength coach John Dunn with the San Diego Chargers during the 1994 season. He served as Fitness Director at New Canaan High School in Connecticut prior to joining the Penn State staff. Stoddard was a middle linebacker at Springfield College where he earned four varsity letters.

Originally from Brookfield, Connecticut, Stoddard was born in North Tarrytown, New York on February 8, 1972. Stoddard is married to the former Amanda Larrabee of Beverly, Ma.

Jimmy Robinson as a Giants player (1976).

PLAYER PERSONNEL

TOM BOISTURE
VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

After serving for 10 years as a scout, chief scout and in the personnel department for the New England Patriots, Tom Boisture joined the Giants in the spring of 1980 as Director of Player Personnel. Boisture was named Vice President of Player Personnel this past offseason.

Boisture began his coaching career at Austin Catholic H.S. in Detroit where he was head football coach, then continued as a head coach at St. Ambrose H.S. in Detroit. He moved into the collegiate ranks at the University of Houston as an assistant coach for offensive backs then moved on to Holly Cross College in 1966 as Defensive Coordinator. He was named head coach at Holy Cross in 1967 and upset Yale in his first game as head coach — the only defeat Yale was to suffer in three years. In 1969, Boisture moved on to Tulsa University as Defensive Coordinator, and in 1970 he moved into the NFL with New England as a scout.

Born March 23, 1931 in Detroit, Boisture played his high school sports at Holy Redeemer H.S. in Detroit then won three varsity letters as both an offensive and defensive lineman at Mississippi State where he earned a B.S. degree in Education and History.

Boisture is married to the former Dolores Ann Kenney of Detroit and has five children: daughters Susan Ann, Deborah Lynn and Nancy Ann, and sons David and Michael. He and his wife reside in Little Ferry, N.J.

MARV SUNDERLAND
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Marv Sunderland was appointed Director of Player Personnel on May 7, 1998 following the move of Tom Boisture to Vice President of Player Personnel. He is in charge of overseeing all aspects of college scouting, including primary responsibility for organizing the Giants drafts.

He is entering his 23rd season in the National Football League after spending time in the scouting departments for the New England Patriots and the New York Jets. He first joined the NFL in 1976 as a personnel assistant for the Patriots. Sunderland learned the evaluation system that is coveted by the Giants during his time with the Patriots. He joined the Jets organization as a talent scout in 1979 and served there until taking the Giants post. Prior to joining the NFL, Sunderland served as an assistant coach at North Dakota State from 1970 until 1975. North Dakota State won five conference titles during his tenure and finished undefeated in 1970.

Born June 22, 1944 in Chester, Montana, Sunderland was a three-time all-Conference full-back at Northern Montana from 1964 through 1966. He had a try out with the New Orleans Saints in 1967 and signed with the Calgary Stampedes for the 1968 season. Sunderland earned a master's degree in physical education from North Dakota State. Sunderland has a daughter, Shay Nicole, 23, and a son Brock, 18.

HARRY HULMES*SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

With over 40 years of professional football experience to his credit, Hulmes brings a wealth of NFL knowledge to the Giants. The veteran NFL executive joined the Giants in 1984 as the team's Assistant General Manager.

Prior to being named by the Giants, Hulmes had served as Chief Operating Officer for the Arizona Wranglers of the USFL, but virtually all of his previous experience was within the NFL where he served for 12 years with the Baltimore Colts and 13 years with the New Orleans Saints in a variety of positions.

Hulmes began his career in sports with the Baltimore Orioles as assistant business manager, then was the sports information director at Bucknell University before entering the NFL as business manager of the Colts in 1958. He subsequently served as public relations director and general manager of the Colts before moving to the Saints in 1970 as assistant general manager. Until he departed for the Wranglers in 1982, Hulmes also served the Saints as Director of Player Personnel and Vice President of Administration.

After graduating from Northeast High School in Philadelphia, Hulmes spent three years in the Navy as a radarman in the South Pacific and Persian Gulf theaters. Hulmes earned a B.A. degree in journalism and psychology at the University of Pennsylvania after returning from the service.

Born on July 20, 1927 in Philadelphia, Hulmes is married to the former Barbara Lockhart of Mount Holly, N.J. and is the father of two daughters, Linda Ann and Terry Ellen, both graduates of LSU, and a son, Richard Wayne, also a graduate of LSU.

TIM ROONEY*DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Rooney, a member of the highly-respected Rooney family from Pittsburgh, joined the Giants in February of 1985 as Director of Pro Personnel.

Prior to joining the Giants, Rooney spent six seasons as the Player Personnel Director for the Detroit Lions. He was the Director of Pro Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1972-1979 during the Steelers ascendancy to Super Bowl champion status.

Rooney earned a degree in Education and English from Duquesne University, then began a coaching career at Canevin High School in Pittsburgh. Four years later, he became an assistant coach at Villanova, moved to Rhode Island University, and then back to Villanova as an assistant coach and recruiting director before joining the Steelers.

A nephew of Art Rooney, the founder of the Steelers, Tim and his wife, Mary Ann are the parents of a son, Michael, 22, a senior at the University of Alabama, and a daughter, Sarah, 21, a senior at Boston College. The family resides in HoHokus, N.J.

DAVID GETTLEMAN*ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Gettleman begins his first season with the Giants after joining the organization as the Assistant Director of Pro Personnel where he will assist Tim Rooney with the pro scouting evaluation process. He comes to the Giants after spending the last four and one half seasons as an area scout for the Denver Broncos, concentrating on the East Coast region.

Gettleman, 47, became a full-time scout with Buffalo in 1987, was assigned as the Bills' representative to the BLESTO combine in 1988, and continued in that capacity through 1992. From June 1992 through December 1993 he worked as a regional scout for the BLESTO combine.

Gettleman began his coaching career at Spackenkill High School in Poughkeepsie, New York as head coach (1972-81), leading his team to a pair of league titles. He spent a year as a graduate assistant at Cal State Long Beach (1979-80), then joined the faculty at Kingston (N.Y.) High School as a teacher-coach in 1982. In 1984 he became the head football coach at Kingston High School and led his team to a playoff berth.

Born in Boston, Massachusetts on February 21, 1951, Gettleman earned a bachelor's degree from Springfield (Mass.) College in 1972 and was an offensive tackle for the football team for two seasons. He has two master's degrees: one in physical education from Southern Connecticut State (1978) and another in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami (1986).

Gettleman and his wife, Joanne, have three children, Aaron, Sam and Ana.

JERRY SHAY*DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Shay, a Giants tackle during the 1970 and 1971 seasons, was named Director of College Scouting in 1977 after serving as a scout for the team since 1972. While serving as a scout, Shay was responsible for the Western states area, including all of the West Coast as well as Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas.

Shay was an All-America star at Purdue University and was the number one draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1966. He was a starting defensive tackle for the Vikings for two years, then was traded to the Atlanta Falcons in 1968 where he again starred for two seasons before coming to the Giants in a trade in 1970 for a draft choice. Shay was a key performer that season as the Giants finished with a 9-5 record and missed the playoffs by one game. In that season's final game against the Rams, he suffered a broken leg and retired after the 1971 season after appearing in only six games. He became a scout the following season.

Born on July 10, 1944 in Gary, Ind. (family name Dzedzeji), Jerry is married to the former Cynthia Zajkowski, and has three daughters: Tiffany Lee, the 1995 recipient of the John V. Mara Scholarship awarded annually to the child of a former Giants player, Shannon Marie, and Jeri Lynn. The Shays reside in San Diego, California.

RAY WALSH, JR.*DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

Walsh has been with the Giants since 1973, initially as an Administrative Assistant before moving over to the scouting and player personnel department. As a youngster, Walsh worked at Giants preseason training camps from 1956-63.

Walsh, who is also known by his nickname "Whitey," earned a degree in Inter-American Relations at Fordham University in 1963 after graduating from Archbishop Stepinac H.S. in White Plains where he grew up.

After a tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he joined United Airlines in 1965 in the Passenger Service department and remained with United until April of 1973 when he joined the Giants.

Married to the former Judith Carey, Walsh is the father of two sons, David, 25, and Timothy, 10, and a daughter Susan, 23. The family resides in Ramsey, New Jersey. Aside from football, Walsh is an avid British history buff, particularly the medieval period, as well as a devotee of Hollywood movies from the 1930s and 1940s.

GREG GABRIEL*DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gabriel joined the Giants scouting department during the 1985 off-season after serving as an area scout for an NFL scouting combine in the Great Lakes area. Gabriel gained his first professional football experience working part-time in the scouting department of the Buffalo Bills, both in film grading and in player evaluation.

A native of Buffalo where he was born on May 4, 1951, Gabriel played his scholastic sports at Bishop Neumann High School in Williamsville, New York. He won three varsity letters as a running back at Canisius College where he earned a B.S. degree.

Prior to entering the football profession, Gabriel was an account executive with Prudential-Bache and later with Dean Witter Reynolds while working part-time with the Bills.

He played for eight seasons as a running back with the Buffalo Geminis, a semi-pro outfit, and was additionally the offensive backfield coach for one season there. Gabriel lives in Buffalo and is the father of three daughters, Liza, Ryan, and Kelsey.

ROSIE BROWN

After a Hall of Fame career as a tackle for the Giants from 1953-1965, Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout in 1971.

During his playing career, Brown ranked as one of the all-time great offensive linemen in the National Football League. The wide-ranging tackle earned All Pro honors eight times and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl on ten occasions. In 1956, Brown was voted Lineman of the Year in the NFL.

Brown was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966. In 1969, Brown replaced Jim Trimble as head line coach. In 1971, Brown, along with another coaching aide, Ken Kavanaugh, left Alex Webster's staff to assume new responsibilities under Jim Lee Howell, his one-time coach, in the scouting department.

Brown, now 66, is a resident of Scottsville, Va. but spends a good deal of his time on the road in search of fresh talent for the Giants.

JOHN CREA

Crea originally joined the Giants as a scout in the spring of 1992 after an impressive college coaching career.

After graduating from Monsignor Farrell High School in Staten Island, Crea began his collegiate days at the University of Utah. He then transferred to Albany State University where he won three varsity letters as a defensive back and wide receiver. He graduated from Albany State with a B.A. degree in English and Communications. Crea added a Master's degree in Physical Education from Arizona State University where he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant.

He continued his collegiate coaching career with stops at Albany State, Kean College, Frostburg State in Maryland, and Holy Cross. In 1982, Crea was named the head coach at William Paterson College in New Jersey. After six years in that position, he became the head coach at Methodist College in Fayetteville, North Carolina from 1987 through the 1991 campaign.

Married to the former Kathleen Coyle, John and his wife have a daughter, Kelly, 15, and he lists racquetball and golf as his favorite hobbies.

JEREMIAH DAVIS

Davis began his affiliation with the Giants in 1988 as a part-time scout after a career as a collegiate coach. In March of 1990, Davis was named to the Giants scouting department in a full-time capacity.

Davis graduated from Montclair High School in Montclair, New Jersey, then began his college football career at Washington State before receiving a B.A. degree in Criminal Law from the University of Wyoming in 1977. He subsequently earned a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Grambling University in 1981.

Davis began his college coaching career at Wyoming as a secondary assistant and strength coach and served in the same capacity at the University of Washington and at Grambling where he also worked with the linebackers. He moved on to Northern Iowa and to the University of Central Florida as an assistant coach, then moved into the recruiting arena with Purdue University in 1985. He was also at Tennessee-Martin for two years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before joining the Giants in 1988.

KEN KAVANAUGH

Kavanaugh, a member of the Chicago Bears all-time team, brought a wealth of experience as both a professional player and a coach to the Giants when he joined the scouting department in 1971. He moved into the scouting department from the coaching staff where he had been offensive ends coach from 1955-68 and offensive coach from 1969-70. Kavanaugh coached the Giants for a total of 16 years under three head coaches: Jim Lee Howell, Allie Sherman and Alex Webster.

Prior to joining the Giants coaching staff, the College Hall of Fame end spent one season (1951) as ends coach for the Chicago Bears and one season (1954) at Villanova College in his hometown of Philadelphia.

As a player, Ken starred for the Chicago Bears from 1940-41. He left the Bears for an Air Force tour of duty as a bomber pilot in World War II in Europe, then returned to the team to make All Pro in 1946 and 1947. Kavanaugh set four all-time Chicago records which still stand today: most touchdown passes caught (50); most TD passes caught one season (13); highest average gain, career (22.4); and highest average gain, season (25.6).

During his collegiate career, Kavanaugh was a three-year regular (1936-40), once earning All-America honors. Kavanaugh and his wife, Ann, now reside in Sarasota, Florida.

JERRY REESE

Jerry Reese was added to the Giants scouting department on December 15, 1994 after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is high on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions and still holds several punt return records. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant for one year and as a graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

Reese has his Bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education and earned his Master's degree in Education Administration and Supervision.

Reese is married to the former Gwen Moore, who is also a UT-Martin graduate. The couple has two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

STEVE VERDEROSA

The 1998 season marks Steve Verderosa's eleventh season with the New York Giants after joining the scouting staff in 1988. Verderosa came to the Giants after serving in the scouting department of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Verderosa began his collegiate career at Central Iowa as a wide receiver and punter after graduating from Melville High School in Setauket, N.Y. He then moved to New York Institute of Technology where he continued his dual roles, earning ECAC Player of the Week Honors for an eight-catch, 100-yard day vs. Western Connecticut in the 1975 season.

After receiving a degree in general architecture and a design award in his senior year, Verderosa had a tryout with the Washington Redskins as a wide receiver and punter in 1977 and also had a two-week stint with the Cleveland

Browns as a punter in the 1978 preseason.

Verderosa worked for one year as an architectural draftsman before getting the football urge and beginning a coaching career at his alma mater, New York Tech, as an offensive assistant. He then spent two seasons as a coach and teacher at St. Anthony's High School before landing a spot as defensive backfield coach at Columbia University. From there, he moved on to C.W. Post for four years as secondary coach and then joined the scouting department of the Buccaneers.

A native of Roslyn, Long Island where he was born on June 9, 1954, Verderosa is married to the former Lori Ann Felicetti. The Verderosas reside in Apex, North Carolina with two sons, Alex and Matthew Lucas.

RONNIE BARNES

HEAD TRAINER

Ronnie Barnes has compiled an impressive dossier of accomplishments since joining the Giants as a student intern in 1976.

A graduate of East Carolina University where he won distinguished student honors, Barnes was the school's first graduate of the Sports Medicine program and has since been elected to the East Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame and been named a winner of the Outstanding Alumni Award as well. He received a Master's degree from Michigan State University in Administrative Services and also served as trainer and assistant professor of health at MSU where he was the trainer for both Magic Johnson and Kirk Gibson during his tenure.

A native of Rocky Mount, North Carolina, where he was born on February 15, 1952, Barnes graduated from Fike Senior H.S. in Wilson, North Carolina. Since assuming his full-time capacity with the club in 1980, Barnes has twice been voted National Professional Trainer of the Year by the National Athletic Trainers Association, a 20,000-member organization, and he served on the NATA board of certification for 10 years. Barnes is the past president of the NATA Research and Education Foundation and is currently a board member. He serves on the Board of Directors for Honestly House, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation center and is a member of the NFL Sub Committee on Mild Brain Trauma. In June of 1995, Barnes was elected President of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. In June of 1996, he was awarded the NATA Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award.

Barnes has made State Department tours to Brazil and other countries and he has lectured nationally and internationally on sports medicine, including a German tour. Barnes is the Founder of Professional Sports Care Management, a public physical therapy company with facilities throughout the tri-state area. He was named the March of Dimes Man of the Year in 1994. Barnes resides in Cedar Grove, New Jersey.

JOHN JOHNSON

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Johnson, a graduate of the Swedish Institute of Physical Therapy, has been a trainer for the Giants for more than 40 years. During this period, he has also served as head trainer and instructor at Manhattan College where he is enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame.

After serving as an intern at Brooklyn Jewish and Long Island College Hospitals (1937-38), Johnson worked as a physical trainer for the Bedford YMCA and then was in charge of physical therapy and rehabilitation at a U.S. Air Force base hospital from 1942-46. His service hitch included duty as a physical therapy instructor, athletic trainer for post teams and as an air-sea rescue medic. From 1946-47, Johnson was a civilian athletic trainer at the U.S. Naval Preflight School in Otumwa, La.

A member of the Eastern and National Athletic Trainers Associations as well as the National Physical Therapy Association, Johnson has also served as a trainer for visiting teams at Madison Square Garden (1954-63). Johnson resides in Cresskill, N.J.

STEVE KENNELLY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Steve Kennelly, a native of Leonia, New Jersey, joined the Giants in July of 1992. He is responsible for assisting Ronnie Barnes in the overall injury prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of the Giants players. Kennelly earned a B.S. degree from Northeastern University in 1985 and an M.Ed. from the University of Virginia in 1987.

Prior to joining the Giants, Kennelly was the head athletic trainer for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League. He also served as the director of athletic training services for Professional Sports Care Meadowlands and as head athletic trainer for the New York Knights of the Arena League.

He began his career as the assistant athletic trainer at Hobart College in Geneva, New York before serving a graduate assistantship at Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va. Kennelly is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Society of New Jersey, where he serves as Secretary.

Born in Teaneck, New Jersey on September 26, 1962, Kennelly and his wife, Rita, have a son, Ryan Connor (6-29-95) and reside in Oakland, New Jersey.

BYRON HANSEN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Byron Hansen begins his first season with the Giants after spending the last 18 seasons on the athletic training staff at the University of Southern California, most recently serving as Head Assistant Athletic Trainer. Hansen replaces Michael Colello, who left the Giants organization to become Head Athletic Trainer for the Cleveland Browns. Hansen will coordinate the Giants rehabilitation program. He spent ten seasons assisting the Giants during training camp. Hansen is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Ord, Nebraska where he was born on December 11, 1955, Hansen grew up in Albany, Oregon. He earned a B.S. degree in Health Education from the University of Oregon in 1978 where he worked as a student assistant in the athletic department. Hansen worked as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Colorado's football program and earned a Master's degree in Exercise Science in 1981.

After graduation, Hansen began his career at USC, serving under five head coaches and working with athletes such as Tony Boselli, Marcus Allen, Junior Seau and Jason Sehorn. He served as an athletic trainer with the 1984 Olympic basketball team in Los Angeles. Hansen and his wife, Laurie, have two daughters, Kelly (12) and Christen (10).

DR. RUSSELL F. WARREN

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Warren joined the Giants medical staff in 1984. A graduate of Columbia College in New York and the Upstate Medical School in Syracuse, New York, he did his internship and residency in orthopedic surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City after a two-year tour of duty as a medical officer in the U.S. Navy.

He then completed a fellowship in shoulder surgery with Dr. Charles Neer at the Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. Dr. Warren is currently an Attending Orthopedic Surgeon for The New York Hospital and The Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City, and Professor of Orthopedic Surgery for the Cornell University Medical Center in New York. He is also Surgeon-in-Chief of the Hospital for Special Surgery, and President of the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine and past President of the Society for Sports Medicine Shoulder and Elbow Surgery and the American Orthopedic Association.

Born in Burlington, Vermont on June 18, 1939, Dr. Warren is the author of numerous publications on his specialties of knee and shoulder surgery. He is a resident of Greenwich, Connecticut. An outstanding halfback at Columbia, Warren had a tryout with the Giants in 1962. Warren and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of a son, Rusty, and a daughter, Lisa.

DR. ALLAN LEVY

ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Allan Levy joined the Giants prior to the 1976 season and brings impressive credentials with him to the job. In private practice for over 30 years in Westwood, New Jersey, Dr. Levy has been involved in sports medicine for most of those years, initially as the team physician for Westwood High School.

He moved into professional football as team physician for the Newark Bears and then with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the old Continental Football League. Dr. Levy continued in football as team physician for the Westchester Bulls, a Giant affiliate in the late 1960s, and was the first team doctor for the New Jersey Nets when they began play originally as the New Jersey Americans. He has also worked as the team doctor for the New York Islanders hockey team of the NHL. He is also the author of "The Sports Injury Handbook," professional advice for amateur athletes.

Born on May 28, 1927 in Saranac Lake, New York, Dr. Levy received his B.A. from Columbia University in 1947 and his M.D. from Cornell University in 1951. He and his wife Gail have three children.

DR. STEPHEN J. O'BRIEN
ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Stephen O'Brien originally joined the Giants prior to the start of the 1993 season. A graduate of Harvard University and the University of Virginia's School of Medicine, he did his internship at Yale University Medical Center and his Orthopedic Residency and Fellowship at The Hospital For Special Surgery in New York City.

He is currently the Chief Orthopedic Consultant at St. John's University and the Medical Director for the New York Racing Association. Dr. O'Brien is the author of numerous research articles and chapters and has participated in many scientific exhibits and presentations.

Among the awards Dr. O'Brien has received are the Charles S. Neer Award, given by the American Shoulder & Elbow Society to the top shoulder researcher in the USA, and the 1991 Optimate Society Award for Excellence in Medicine/Society.

Dr. O'Brien won varsity letters in both football and baseball while an undergraduate at Harvard. He and his wife, Kathleen Donnelly-O'Brien, reside in Garden City, New York with their four children.

DR. JOEL GOLDBERG
DIRECTOR OF CAREER COUNSELING

As one of the NFL teams in the forefront of encouraging the development of career counseling for players, the Giants added Dr. Joel Goldberg to the staff to oversee this function in February of 1981.

The object of his counseling is to help players through the transition from playing days to non-playing days and life adjustment and to stimulate interaction between the metropolitan community and the players. The program is designed to measure players' aptitudes, interests, abilities and career goals and put those qualities into practical application.

A native of Brooklyn, Dr. Goldberg earned a B.S. in Education from the University of Rhode Island, a Master's degree from New York University and a Doctorate degree in Counseling Psychology from Rutgers University.

During his career, Dr. Goldberg has been a counselor with the New York City Department of Labor; a professor at Kean College in New Jersey; a psychology consultant to boards of education; and President of Career Consultants, his own counseling business in Union, New Jersey.

Born on July 5, 1943, Dr. Goldberg and his wife, a high school history teacher, have a son and a daughter and reside in New Jersey.

DR. KEN EHRLMAN
TEAM CHIROPRACTORDR. MARK GARDY
EMERGENCY MEDICINE

DR. HUGH GARDY

TEAM DENTIST

Dr. Gardy joined the Giants during the 1977 season. He is nationally known as the Father of Sports Dentistry and has probably treated more professional athletes than any other dentist in the country. He is also currently the team dentist for the New Jersey Devils, New Jersey Nets, NY/NJ Metrostars and was the dental director for soccer's World Cup 1994.

Gardy was a dentist for the U.S. Olympic team in 1984. He was the founder and past president of the Academy for Sports Dentistry and was the only dentist on the New Jersey Governors Council on Sports and Physical Fitness. Dr. Gardy is a Fellow of the Academy of General Practice, Diplomate of the American Society of Osseointegration and a Fellow of the American College of Dentists. HEIDI SKOLNIK

NUTRITION CONSULTANT

Heidi Skolnik joined the Giants in May of 1992 to work throughout the year with the players on nutritional aspects of training and competition, providing dietary counseling for preventive health and rehabilitation. Skolnik brings a diversified background to the Giants.

A graduate of Ithaca College, she earned a B.A. degree in Exercise and Nutrition, a Master's degree in Sports Medicine for physical educators and a Master's in Nutrition. While at Ithaca, she devised and implemented conditioning plans for that school's football and baseball teams, then worked with Morgan Stanley & Co. in New York for seven years as Director of Exercise, Training and Health Promotion.

Skolnik has also been the New York Mets nutrition consultant since 1986, devising spring training camp menus and conducting presentations to the Majors as well the Minor League teams and providing individual nutrition coaching. Skolnik is the nutritionist for The American School of Ballet and does some work with the New Jersey Nets.

Additionally, Skolnik is the contributing nutrition advisor for Conte' Nast Sports for Women magazine. She lectures to corporations (Becton-Dickenson, Colgate-Palmolive, Meryl Lynch), colleges (Cornell, University of West Virginia, C.W. Post, Hofstra, Monmouth University) and professional organizations. She is affiliated with the American College of Sports Medicine, The National Strength and Conditioning Association, The American Dietetic Association and The International Association of Fitness Professionals. Skolnik acts as a resource for national media, including "G.Q.", "Rolling Stone", and "Women's Day", and has been seen on "NBC Live", "20/20" and "The TV Food Network". She is the founder of Nutrition Conditioning, Inc., a nutrition and fitness consulting practice based out of New York City.

VIDEO STAFF

TONY CEGLIO DIRECTOR OF TELEVISION PRODUCTIONS

Ceglie begins his 23rd season with the Giants and his fifth as the team's Director of Television Productions after joining the Giants in 1975 as the club's Film Director. Ceglie handles the broadcasting side of the Giants video operations, including producing, directing and roaming the sidelines shooting for the Giants TV shows, "Giants Today" and "Giants Online." Both shows are broadcast on the MSG Network. "Giants Today" was honored with an Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Sports Programming at the New York Emmy Awards ceremony in 1995 and 1996. In addition, "Giants Today" received an Emmy Award for Outstanding Editing and Outstanding Original Music Composition in 1996 and Best Audio and Outstanding Original Music Composition in 1997. The show was nominated for Outstanding Sports Programming, Outstanding Editing and Outstanding Original Music Composition following the 1997 season.

When the NFL officially switched from 16mm film to video in 1986, Ceglie designed the premier video tape editing system in the NFL, the Lake Sports Compiler. The Giants were the first team in the NFL to put this system on line, and since then many other teams have employed this system. Ceglie also co-authored the official NFL rules for the video taping of games and game tape exchange, and he was elected chairman of the NFL Video Directors for three years.

Ceglie is well-known in the freelance community as a producer, cameraman, documentaries, feature film promotions and sports.

Born on September 23, 1954 in Mount Vernon, New York, Ceglie is a graduate of Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and the New York School of Visual Arts where he earned a B.A. in Film and an outstanding student award. He teaches an undergraduate course in film and video at his alma mater. Married to the former Carolyn Trainor, the Ceglios reside in Montvale, New Jersey with their twin daughters, Dawn and Danielle. Ceglie is an avid skier who enjoys Colorado and the Jersey shore in the offseason.

JOHN MANCUSO VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mancuso begins his fifth season as Video Director after joining the Giants in a full-time capacity in 1978 as an assistant to Tony Ceglie in the team's film department.

Mancuso works closely with the coaching staff in the taping of all practices and games with the Sony Betacam video systems, as well as in the duplicating and editing of all video in the Giants' ultra-modern video offices. In addition, he assists Ceglie with the production of "Giants Today."

A native of Queens, Mancuso attended Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and then graduated from nearby Scarsdale High School. He then served as a Recreation Director for the Tibbits Nursing Home in Westchester for several years before working part-time for the Giants in the film department in 1977. Mancuso freelanced for two years as a cameraman, still photographer and videographer for the New Jersey Nets of the NBA before assuming his present full-time position with the Giants. Married to the former Reena Slatky, the couple has two sons, John and Julian, and resides in Tuxedo, New York. An accomplished musician, Mancuso has played guitar, bass and piano for various musical groups for the last 23 years.

DAVE MALTESE

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

A native of Rockaway, New Jersey, Maltese joined the Giants as a full-time assistant director in the spring of 1993 after serving as an intern in the team's video department during the 1991 season and working on a part-time basis in 1992.

Maltese works with John Mancuso in taping all of the Giants practice sessions and games and assists in the cutups of the coaching staff's game and opponent tapes. He is responsible for the taping and breakdown of the defense and special teams units. In addition, he assists Tony

Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today."

Maltese has worked extensively in cable television in New Jersey and has also served as a cameraman in the taping of music videos that have appeared nationally.

A resident of Wayne, New Jersey and a 1987 graduate of Kinnelon High School, he graduated from William Paterson College in 1993 with a degree in Radio and Television Communications. While at college, Maltese worked at WPSC Radio for five years. Maltese is an accomplished pianist who has been playing for over 21 years. He also won two Silver medals in the American Open Tae Kwon Do Championship in 1996. He was born on June 13, 1969.

CARMEN PIZZANO

VIDEO ASSISTANT

Pizzano begins his first seasons as a full-time member of the Giants video staff. He originally joined the Giants organization as an intern in the video department during the 1997 season.

In his current position, Pizzano's primary responsibility is to accommodate the filming and breakdown needs of special teams coach Larry Mac Duff. In addition, he assists the public relations department with the filming of all Giants press conferences that are distributed to the local and national television stations.

A native of Belleville, New Jersey, Pizzano is currently enrolled at William Paterson University where he is majoring in Communications with a concentration in Radio and Television.

JON BERGER*DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER SERVICES

Although he was named to his current position in February of 1987, Berger has been associated with the Giants since 1981 when he worked in the team's preseason training camp as an on-the-field assistant and later as an intern in the media services department.

After graduating from Stuyvesant High School, the Queens native attended Albany State University where he majored in Computer Science and Mathematics, earning a B.S. degree and graduating Cum Laude with Dean's list honors in 1985. He was also a member of the Purple & Gold honor and service society and while an undergraduate also served as a Computer Science teaching assistant. After graduation, he remained at Albany State for another year as the computer coordinator for the physical education department, producing programs for all of the men's and women's intercollegiate teams.

In addition to his full-time duties with the Giants, Berger has also been a familiar figure courtside at all New York Knicks home games at Madison Square Garden where he serves as computer statistician. Berger and his wife, Alicia Cassio, have a son, Justin, and reside in Kendall Park, New Jersey.

ED WAGNER LOCKER ROOM MANAGER

The overseer of the locker room operations and a much-decorated Army veteran, "Whitey" Wagner assumed his duties in 1976. Since that time, Whitey's domain has not only included all aspects of running the locker room, but also the care and feeding of the players during the week, as well as supervising the maintenance of the pressroom at Giants Stadium which houses all of the metropolitan area media. Wagner is in charge of the Giants' annual largescale moving operation from Giants Stadium to their preseason training camp, as well as the return move and the supervision of maintenance at the camp. During World War II, Wagner earned a Silver Star, Legion of Merit, two Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart.

A native of Staten Island, New York, Wagner and his wife, Gertrude, have a daughter, Patricia, and a son, Edward Jr.

ED WAGNER, JR. EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Ed Wagner Jr. was named to the position of Equipment Manager in June of 1979 and since that time has handled a myriad of details, including the purchase, upkeep and repair of all equipment and uniforms, the transportation of equipment and uniforms to and from all road trips and to and from training camp, the handling of all training camp duties and arrangements, as well as field maintenance.

A native of Staten Island, Wagner had served as assistant equipment manager for two seasons with the Giants prior to being named head equipment manager. Edward Kenneth Wagner was born on November 29, 1956 in Staten Island and graduated from Curtis High School in 1974. He and his wife, the former Andrea DeNonno, have a daughter, Donna, 14, and a son, Christopher, 10. The Wagners reside in River Edge, New Jersey.

STEVE SONGY

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Steve Songy begins his second season with the Giants as the team's assistant equipment manager. Songy joined the Giants after spending three seasons (1994-96) as assistant equipment manager for the University of Virginia. His role is to assist with the maintenance of the equipment room and the Giants day of game and travel operations.

A 1992 graduate of Louisiana State where he served as a student equipment manager, Songy spent the 1993 football season as assistant equipment manager for the Sacramento Goldminers of the Canadian Football League before serving as the assistant equipment manager for Tulane in 1994. Songy is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. A native of New Orleans, Louisiana, Songy was born May 16, 1969.

JOSEPH SKIBA

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

After serving as assistant locker room manager since joining the Giants prior to the 1994 season, Skiba began new responsibilities this past offseason when he was promoted to assistant equipment manager. In his current position, he assists Ed Wagner, Jr. and Steve Songy with the maintenance of the equipment room. Skiba handles the practice field setup and assists the coaches with the daily practice procedures.

Skiba is a senior at William Peterson University and is majoring in business management. He graduated from Bergen Catholic High School in 1994 where he was a member of the football team during the school's run of three consecutive state titles. Born November 19, 1976 in Ridgewood, New Jersey, Skiba resides in Paramus, New Jersey.

JOE MANSFIELD

FIELD SECURITY MANAGER

A retired White Plains Police Department detective, Mansfield joined the Giants in 1976. In addition to his field security duties, Mansfield also assists the club in locker room operations during the regular season and at the team's training camp site.

A native of New York City, he joined the United States Marine Corps in 1943 during World War II and was recalled during the Korean conflict in 1950. He spent nine years with the Fifth Avenue Coach Co. of New York and a short period of time with the Corrections Department at Sing Sing Prison before joining the White Plains Police Department in 1956, where he rose through the ranks to Detective, collecting numerous citations and commendations along the way until retiring in 1976.

Mansfield was re-introduced to his childhood sweetheart after a forty-year separation after each of them had been widowed. Shortly thereafter, he and Maggie were married and they now live in White Plains and together are enjoying their combined family of 10 children and 26 grandchildren.

MIKE MURPHY

TEAM SECURITY

Mike Murphy begins his ninth season in charge of team security for the Giants. Murphy was originally hired by former head coach Bill Parcells to accompany the team to San Francisco for the 1990 NFC Championship game and Tampa for Super Bowl XXV, as increased security was required during the Gulf War. After Parcells' departure, former general manager George Young retained Murphy's services. In his position, Murphy handles travel, game day and training camp security operations.

Murphy has been a police officer in Florham Park, New Jersey for 15 years and is in charge of the town's D.A.R.E. program and the Community Policy Committee. He is a 1983 graduate of the 180th New Jersey State Police Class. Prior to joining the police force, Murphy attended Iona College on a track scholarship under Tony Naclerio, the head coach for the USA track throwers in Atlanta during the 1996 summer games.

A native of Newark, New Jersey where he was born on May 14, 1957, Murphy grew up in Florham Park, New Jersey and was an all-league football player and all-league shot putter on the track team. Former Giant Bart Oates invited Murphy to be a speaker for the NFL's No Hope and Dope program, conducted during the Pro Bowl week in Honolulu, Hawaii. Murphy is a graduate of Fairleigh-Dickinson University.

JULIUS HORAI

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

A key man in the Giants' operation is Julius "Whitey" Horai, who has been associated with the club since 1954. Whitey handles a myriad of details as well as serving as the coordinator of transportation and film exchanges. A native of Richmond, Staten Island, Whitey graduated from Curtis High School, then went on to Wagner College where he worked for the athletic department as equipment and field maintenance man under Jim Lee Howell.

When Howell came to the Giants as head coach in 1954, Horai came too in a part-time capacity, then joined the club full-time in 1970. A bachelor, Whitey still resides in Staten Island.

TID BIT

Enjoys writing and working with youth programs. Wrote a story about his knee injury, which was published in the Miami game program during his junior season.

Transactions: Originally an eighth round (207th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: Earned his first Pro Bowl berth in 1997 after setting a team single-season record with 134 total tackles...Recorded his second consecutive 100-tackle season (114 in 1996)...Moved into the starting weakside linebacker spot in 1996 and, along with CB Jason Sehorn, was the Giants top defensive player that season...Proved to be a valuable member of the team as both a special teams player and middle linebacker in nickel and dime defensive packages during his first three NFL seasons...Named Giants Rookie of the Year for 1993 and Defensive MVP for his play in 1996...Kept the nickel linebacker responsibilities during his first year as a starter before passing on the duties to Marcus Buckley and Scott Galyon in 1997...Served as a game captain along with WR Chris Calloway, PK Brad Daluiso and FB Charles Way in 1997...Has not missed a game in his five professional seasons.

1997: Named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad following a season that saw him set a personal high with 134 total tackles, eclipsing the 114 tackles he had in 1996. The 134 total tackles are one tackle higher than LB Lawrence Taylor's team record of 133 set during his rookie season in 1981...Also set a career-mark with 3.5 sacks...Set a single-game high mark with 18 total tackles (12 solos) vs. Dallas (10-5) and equalled his career-high of 12 solo tackles at St. Louis (9-21). His previous career mark was 14 total tackles (9 solos) vs. Buffalo (9-1-96). Against the Cowboys, Armstead broke free from a block to chase down TE Eric Bjornson at the Giants 17-yard line, holding him out of the end zone and preserving the Giants 20-17 victory. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his efforts against Dallas...Made two big plays vs. Cincinnati (10-26) that helped turn the game in the Giants favor in the second half after falling behind 21-10. Helped get the Giants in position for their first touchdown in the second half when he stripped QB Jeff Blake of the ball after a third down scramble out of the pocket. S Percy Ellsworth recovered the loose ball at the 47-yard line and raced 24 yards to the 23-yard line. The Giants converted the turnover into a one-yard touchdown by FB Charles Way to close the gap to 21-16. In the fourth quarter, Armstead stopped a fourth down play by the Bengals. Blake faked a quarterback sneak on fourth-and-one, stopped and threw an overhand lateral to RB Ki-Jana Carter on the left side. Armstead read the play, pulled out of a blitz and stopped Carter for no gain. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against the Bengals...Set a career-high with his first two-sack performance vs. Arizona (11-16)...Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the NFL for his performance at Philadelphia (12-7). Against the Eagles, Armstead had a team-leading 10 tackles (8 solos), one sack, two interceptions and three passes defended. He ended the Eagles first drive of the game with an interception that he returned 57 yards for a touchdown. It was the second time in his career that he returned an interception for a touchdown. He scored the game-winning points in overtime vs. Arizona (10-8-95) when he returned an interception 58 yards to give the Giants a 27-21 victory. He recorded his second interception in the third quarter when he picked off a Hoyer pass at the Eagles 38-yard line. It marked the first two-interception game of his career. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff following the Eagles game...Started all 16 games at weakside linebacker for the second straight season.

1996: Led the team with 114 tackles (83 solos). Tied for first on the team with two fumble recoveries, tied for fourth on the team with three sacks and tied for fourth on the team with eight passes defended. Also intercepted two passes...Made his first start as a regular in the lineup when he started at the weakside linebacker position in the season-opener vs. Buffalo (9-1) -- his two previous starts were in 1995 in special schemes to stop the West Coast Offense at San Francisco (10-1) and vs. Philadelphia (10-15). Established a career-high in tackles with 14 tackles (nine solos) against the Bills. Sacked QB Jim Kelly when Buffalo was faced with a third-and-five situation to end a drive and force the Bills to punt. The Giants returned the ensuing punt 87 yards for a touchdown. Named Defensive MVP by the coaching staff. Played in 105 plays in the game (96 on defense)...Ended a Panthers drive at the Giants 22-yard line at Carolina (11-10) when he intercepted a QB Kerry Collins screen pass to preserve the Giants 14-10 halftime lead...Forced Arizona RB LeShon Johnson to fumble and S Percy Ellsworth recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 42-yard line at Arizona (11-17). The play helped set up the second Dave Brown-to-Tyrone Wheatley touchdown pass to cut the Arizona lead to 28-20...Led the team with 11 total tackles (six solos) vs. Dallas (11-24). The Giants defense limited the Cowboys to 33 yards rushing, including holding Emmitt Smith to 18 yards on 11 carries for a 1.6 average. Recovered the ball for the Giants at the 47-yard line after CB Jason Sehorn forced a fumble when he tackled Dallas FB Daryl Johnston late in the fourth quarter. Named Linebacker of the Game by the coaching staff.

1995: Played in all 16 games with two starts...Continued to excel as the team's middle linebacker in nickel and dime situations...Finished with 46 defensive tackles, one-half sack, a fumble recovery, one interception, two passes defended and six special teams tackles...The Giants took advantage of Armstead's speed and coverage ability and started him in place of Mike Croel at San Francisco (10-1) to help contain the 49ers passing attack. Marked his first NFL start. Coverage helped limit QB Steve Young to just 202 yards passing on 26 completions...Scored the game-winning points in overtime vs. Arizona (10-8) as he returned an interception 58 yards to give the Giants a 27-21 victory. Earned a game ball for his game-winning play...Started vs. Philadelphia (10-15) against the Eagles' West Coast offense. Helped hold the Eagles to just 66 net yards passing...Named Special Teams MVP by the coaching staff for neutralizing the play of return man Brian Mitchell at Washington (10-29).

1994: Played in all 16 games on special teams and in nickel and dime defensive packages...Finished third on the team with nine special teams tackles...Defensive playing time increased over the last four weeks of the season as he finished with 41 total tackles...Also had three sacks on the year, including one that forced a safety in season-finale vs. Dallas (12-24)...Recorded first career sack vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) when he dropped Neil O'Donnell for a seven-yard loss...Finished fifth on the team with nine passes defended...Also recorded an interception vs. Arizona (11-13)...Was Special Teams MVP at Houston (11-21) when he had two solo tackles.

1993: Played in all 16 games...Led team in special teams tackles with 13...Play in nickel defense increased throughout the season...Was named team's Special Teams MVP three times -- vs. Rams (9-19), vs. Washington (11-14) and vs. Indianapolis (12-12)...Giants overall MVP for his effort at New Orleans (12-20) that included his first career interception off Saints QB Mike Buck...Earned a game ball for his performance at Miami (12-5).

College: As a senior at Miami, started at weakside linebacker and recorded 81 tackles with five sacks and seven tackles for 22 yards in losses...Also had eight quarterback pressures and deflected eight passes...Finished third on team as a junior with 99 tackles, three sacks and nine tackles for minus 44 yards...Also deflected five passes...Sophomore season was cut short after four games by a knee injury...Played in every game as a freshman.

Personal: As a senior at Carter HS in Dallas, was Super Prep Player of the Year and a member of USA Today's Top 25 team...Led Carter to state Class 5A championship with 302 tackles, nine sacks and five interceptions...A Criminal Justice major at Miami as an undergraduate, attended graduate school during his final season of eligibility in 1992...Received his undergraduate degree in three years...Formed Jessie's Giant Hoop Team, a charity basketball team that plays in the tri-state area during the offseason to help raise funds for various charities...Born Jessie Armstead on October 26, 1970.

Transactions: Originally a second round (36th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Began his rookie season as the starting running back after beating out Tyrone Wheatley in the preseason. Injuries limited him to just six starts in 12 games...Effective all-purpose back, as he was used as a running back, third down back and kickoff returner throughout the year.

1997: Earned the starting running back spot in the preseason and finished the season with 511 yards on 136 carries and three rushing touchdowns, and 299 yards receiving on 34 receptions and one touchdown...Finished 3rd among NFC rookies in rushing yards and second among NFC rookies with 810 yards from scrimmage...Started at running back for the first five games of the season before he suffered a posterior cruciate ligament tear of his right knee vs. New Orleans (9-28), forcing him to miss four games and allowing RB Tyrone Wheatley to step in as a starter. Returned to the starting lineup for the last two regular season games when Wheatley left with an ankle sprain at Philadelphia (12-7)...Was one of five rookies (Barber, C Derek Engler, S Sam Garmes and WR Ike Hilliard with P Brad Maynard handling the punting) in the starting lineup vs. Philadelphia (8-31) in the season-opener. Gained 88 yards on 20 carries and one rushing touchdown for a 4.4-yard average against the Eagles. Helped set up the Giants second touchdown with under two minutes remaining in the first half. The Giants began at their own 40-yard line with 1:32 remaining. Barber took a handoff and raced up the middle for a 21-yard gain. On the next play, Barber streaked down the left sideline and made a leaping catch over LB William Thomas for a 28-yard gain to the Eagles 11-yard line. Two plays later, QB Dave Brown connected on a touchdown pass to WR Chris Calloway to extend the Giants lead to 14-3 at the half. Following WR Thomas Lewis' 84-yard kickoff return to open the second half, Barber ran up the middle for a seven-yard gain to the one-yard line, then scored his first NFL touchdown on a one-yard run up the middle to increase the Giants lead to 21-3...Scored on a four-yard touchdown run to give the Giants a 7-0 lead at Jacksonville (9-7). Left the game in the fourth quarter with a sprained left shoulder...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Baltimore (9-14) as the Giants opened in the double-tight end alignment. Scored on a one-yard touchdown run in the beginning of the second quarter to cap a six play, 49-yard drive. A Brown-to-Barber two-point conversion in the third quarter gave the Giants a 20-14 lead...Was knocked out of the game in the second series at St. Louis (9-21) when S Toby Wright made a big hit on Barber that forced a fumble. Barber, who was hit in the jaw on the play, was able to return...Left the game in the third quarter vs. New Orleans (9-28) after suffering a posterior cruciate ligament tear of his right knee and missed the next four games. The Giants second quarter touchdown drive against the Saints was highlighted by two third-down shuffle passes from Brown to Barber that resulted in big gains. A 14-yard pass-play helped the Giants convert a third-and-three situation, and a 15-yard play helped the Giants convert on third-and-seven...Returned to the field for the first time since his injury at Tennessee (11-9). Playing time was limited to a reserve role due to the solid play of Wheatley (13 carries for 94 yards)...Was used in the third down package vs. Arizona (11-16). Led the team with four receptions for 44 yards. Three of his four receptions resulted in Giants first downs...Had three first downs in one series in the second quarter at Washington (11-23). Converted on third-and-two with a four-yard run around the left end, caught a pass in the right flat and turned the play into a ten-yard gain to convert a third-and-ten situation, and followed that play with an 11-yard pass reception from QB Danny Kanell for another first down...Was forced to take the majority of the action at running back at Philadelphia (12-7) after RB Tyrone Wheatley left in the first quarter with a sprained left ankle. Recorded the first 100-yard rushing performance of his NFL career with 114 yards on 21 rushing attempts for a 5.4-yard average. Barber's 114 yards tied FB Charles Way, who had 114 yards rushing vs. Arizona (11-16), as the Giants best individual rushing output of the season. Helped set up the Giants final touchdown in the fourth quarter with a 42-yard run to the five-yard line on a fake reverse. Caught four pass-

TID BIT

Would like to coach high school football when he retires from pro football. Has an extensive library of offensive and defensive schemes that he has picked up from high school, college and the NFL.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (93rd pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: After starting all 16 games at left tackle in 1996, made a successful switch back to left guard where he started during the 1995 season...With the departure of John Elliott prior to the 1996 season, earned the starting left tackle position...Forced into starting left guard position after a season-ending knee injury to Scott Davis before the start of the 1995 season...Has played both tackle and guard during his five seasons as a pro...Spent first two seasons as Elliott's backup at left tackle...Can handle long snapping duties if needed.

1997: With the development of Roman Oben at left tackle, made the move back to left guard where he started during the 1995 season...Started all 16 regular season games and the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...The Giants offensive line allowed 32 sacks, a vast improvement from 1996 when the Giants were sacked 56 times...Despite a losing effort vs. Baltimore (9-14), offensive line allowed the Giants to gain more total yards in offense (390 to 273), more rushing yards (121 to 63) and more passing yards (269 to 210) than the Ravens...Against New Orleans (9-28), offensive line helped spring RB Tyrone Wheatley for 41 yards as the Giants ran off the final 3:38 of the game to preserve the win after the Giants were pinned at their own three-yard line...The Giants won the battle on the line at Arizona (10-12) as the Giants offensive line allowed the running game to chalk up 239 yards. Wheatley gained 103 yards on 22 carries, ending a Giants streak of 23 straight games without a 100-yard rusher. FB Charles Way added 91 yards on 13 carries. A sign of the Giants dominance occurred in the fourth quarter when the Giants marched 85 yards on eight straight running plays before RB Erric Pegram scored on an 18-yard run. The entire offensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for their performance against the Cardinals...Offensive line helped the Giants grind out 201 yards, including a 114-yard rushing performance by Way, vs. Arizona (11-16)...Helped lead the way for RB Tiki Barber's 114-yard rushing performance at Philadelphia (12-7)...Forced to leave the game vs. Washington (12-13) in the first quarter with a sprained ankle but did manage to return to action in the second quarter. Rob Zatechka took over at left guard while Bishop was out...Left the game at Dallas (12-21) in the second quarter after aggravating a sprained ankle injury that he originally suffered vs. Washington. Was replaced in the lineup by Zatechka.

1996: After starting all 16 games at left guard in 1995, moved to left tackle in 1996 and started every game...Play vs. Minnesota (9-29) helped the Giants control the ball for 37:43 of the game. Play of the line allowed the Giants to run out the final four minutes of the game to help preserve the 15-10 win...Offensive line helped RB Rodney Hampton gain 94 yards on 24 carries, his highest output of the season, vs. Arizona (11-3)...Helped the offense gain 292 yards in the second half at Washington (10-20) after gaining just 102 in the first half...The offensive line allowed just one sack against a Panthers defense that entered the game as the NFL's leader at Carolina (11-10). Bishop held the NFL's leading sacker, OLB Lamar Lathon, to no sacks and only one tackle...Did an outstanding job vs. Dallas (11-24) against the number one-rated defense in the Giants 20-6 victory.

1995: In his first season as a regular, started all 16 games at left guard...Came into camp looking to back up at tackle or guard, but a season-ending knee injury to Scott Davis in the preseason forced Bishop into the lineup...Play vs. New Orleans (9-24) allowed the Giants to roll up 474 total offensive yards, their highest output since gaining 487 yards in a 21-16 loss at Dallas on 9-29-91. Helped the Giants establish the running game, as the team gained 218 yards, which allowed the Giants to open up the offense...The Giants offensive line did not allow Dave Brown to be sacked against the Bears defense (11-26)...Sprained his left knee in the second quarter at Arizona (11-30). Tried to play despite a noticeable limp and was finally forced out of action late in the first half. Adam Schreiber replaced Bishop at left guard for the remainder of the game...At Dallas (12-17), did an outstanding job with the tough assignment of going against DE Leon Lett, as the offensive line controlled the line of scrimmage, allowing the Giants to rush for 244 yards. Rodney Hampton gained 187 yards to go over the 1,000-yard mark...Moved over to left tackle when John Elliott was forced to leave in the second quarter with a sore back vs. San Diego (12-23).

1994: Played in all 16 games as the long snapper on the punt team as well as other special teams units...Saw first NFL action on offensive line in the fourth quarter at Dallas (11-7) when he replaced Doug Riesenberger at right tackle...Made first career start at left tackle vs. Cincinnati (12-11) in place of the injured John Elliott (back)...Previous week at Cleveland (12-3) was forced into action at left tackle when Elliott injured his back in pregame warmups and came out of the game on the Giants' first series.

1993: Was on 53-man roster for first eight games but was inactive...Was active and backed up long snapper Bart Oates for last eight games of the season following the release of veteran LB and long snapper Steve DeOssie...Played on kickoff unit in each of the last eight games.

College: As a senior, was an All-America first team choice on special teams by The NFL Draft Report...Consensus All-Big West Conference first team choice...Started every game of final three collegiate seasons at left tackle after playing on the defensive line as a freshman...As a junior, was second team All-Big West as a starter on offense that led nation with 511.3 yards per game.

Personal: Married (Julie)...As a senior at Lodi (Calif.) HS, was San Joaquin Athletic Association Co-Player of the Year and All-Northern California...Father Larry, was a tight end at Pacific (1965-66)...Born Gregory Lawrence Bishop on May 2, 1971.

Transactions: Originally a fifth round (155th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1994.

NFL: Spent the offseason recovering from a knee and leg injury that sidelined him after the first ten games of the 1997 season...Earned starting right defensive end position during the 1996 training camp with injury to Jamal Duff (foot) and holdout and injuries to Cedric Jones and never relinquished the job...One of the most devoted members of the team to offseason conditioning...Can handle long snapping duties if needed.

1997: Started the first ten games of the season at right defensive end before suffering ligament damage in his left knee and an avulsion fracture to his left fibula in the fourth quarter at Tennessee (11-9). Was placed on injured reserve on November 12. Underwent successful surgery to repair the ligament damage on November 15 at The Hospital for Special Surgery/Cornell Medical Center in New York City...Finished the season with 35 total tackles (23 solos), 3.5 sacks, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries...Ended a drive in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) when he forced Eagles QB Rodney Peete to fumble on a three-yard sack. DT Keith Hamilton recovered the loose football for the Giants. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for its performance against the Eagles...Against St. Louis (9-1), recovered a Rams QB Tony Banks fumble for the Giants at midfield in the third quarter. Dropped Banks for a 13-yard sack on a third down play late in the third quarter that forced the Rams to punt from their own two-yard line. Beat Rams' No. 1 draft choice Orlando Pace to get to Banks...Started at right defensive end vs. Dallas (10-5) but switched to the left side with Michael Strahan moving to the right side during one stretch in the second half...Recovered a QB Stoney Case fumble at Arizona (10-12) on the 36-yard line after DT Robert Harris forced a fumble on a sack. The Giants converted the turnover into a touchdown for a 13-6 lead...Helped hold RB Barry Sanders to just 25 yards in the second half at Detroit (10-19) after surrendering 80 yards in the first half. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball for its performance against the Lions...Combined with DT Keith Hamilton on an eight-yard sack of QB Jeff Blake on a third down play in the first quarter at Cincinnati (10-26).

1996: Started all 16 games at right defensive end, finishing with 52 total tackles (43 solos), tied for first on team with five sacks and two fumble recoveries...Made first NFL start against Buffalo (9-1) in season-opener. Helped the Giants defense set the tone early when he combined with Michael Strahan for a four-yard sack of Jim Kelly on the second play of the game...Recovered a ball at midfield for the Giants vs. Minnesota (9-29) after Jason Sehorn blitzed on third down and forced Vikings QB Warren Moon to fumble on a sack in the third quarter. The Giants converted the turnover into a touchdown to take the lead. Helped limit a Minnesota offense that was averaging 351 yards in total offense to just 228 yards...Combined with Strahan for a sack of QB Ty Detmer vs. Philadelphia (10-13) to hold the Eagles on third-and-one and force them into a punting situation in the second quarter. The Giants returned the ensuing punt 65 yards for a touchdown to take a 10-6 lead...Hit Lions QB Don Majkowski as he released the ball at Detroit (10-27), allowing Corey Miller to tip the ball and Ray Agnew to intercept a pass and go 34 yards for a touchdown in the Giants 35-7 victory...Compiled his most productive game vs. Arizona (11-3) with two third-down tackles to stop Cardinals drives and a third quarter sack of QB Boomer Esiason...Helped limit the Cowboys to 33 yards rushing vs. Dallas (11-24). Named Defensive Lineman of the Game by the coaching staff...Led the defensive line with five total tackles (five solos) and one sack vs. New England (12-21). Dropped QB Drew Bledsoe for a nine-yard sack in the third quarter for his fifth sack of the season.

1995: Played in six games and was inactive for the other 10...Recorded five defensive tackles and three special teams tackles...Handled the long snapping duties in the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...With the injury to Keith Hamilton (back), was activated to give depth on the defensive line vs. Chicago (11-26)...Took over Jamal Duff's spot as a lineman in passing situations at Dallas (12-17). Duff started in place of the injured Michael Strahan (hamstring)...Vs. San Diego (12-23), used in passing situations in place of Duff. Duff started at left end in place of Robert Harris, who was inactive with a shoulder injury. 1994: Played in two games at end in passing situations...Appeared at Arizona (9-11) and vs. Arizona (11-13)...Was inactive for other 14 games...Had one special teams tackle.

An active speaker at his high school in Fort Worth, Tx. Would like to return there to teach and coach when his football career is over.

Transactions: Originally a third round (66th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: Solid backup at the strongside linebacker position...Started the 1997 season as the nickel linebacker before being replaced by Scott Galyon...After being a spot starter during his first two seasons, Buckley replaced Corey Miller in the starting lineup at strongside linebacker for five games in 1995 before handing the job back to Miller...Fine special teams player.

1997: Finished the season with 13 total tackles (8 solos), four special teams tackles, one fumble recovery and one pass defended...Played in 12 games with three starts...Started vs. Baltimore (9-14) when the Giants opened the game in the nickel defense to help combat the strong Ravens passing game...Replaced Corey Miller at strongside linebacker when Miller left in the second quarter at Tennessee (11-9) with a sprained ankle...Started vs. Arizona (11-16) and at Washington (11-23) in place of the injured Miller...Began the season as the Giants middle linebacker in nickel situations but was replaced by Scott Galyon following the Ravens game...Was inactive in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia due to a hip flexor injury...Returned to work the following week at Jacksonville (9-7) and was used in nickel situations. Filled in at weakside linebacker for Jessie Armstead late in the game against the Jaguars when Armstead left with heat cramps. Recovered a QB Steve Matthews fumble at the Jaguars 27-yard line that was caused on a three-yard sack by DT Keith Hamilton. Two plays later, the Giants took the early lead on a four-yard touchdown run by RB Tiki Barber...Was forced to leave the game at St. Louis (9-21) in the first quarter due to the hip flexor injury and was inactive vs. Dallas (10-5) and at Arizona (10-12)...Returned to action at Detroit (10-19) but playing time was limited to special teams...Saw his first action at linebacker since being replaced as the nickel linebacker before the St. Louis game when he entered the game in the first quarter at the Oilers in a special nickel package that had three down linemen and three linebackers...Saw limited action in a special nickel defensive package at Philadelphia (12-7).

1996: Had 22 tackles (12 solos), four special teams tackles and broke up two passes in 15 games. Started vs. Dallas (11-24) and at Philadelphia (12-1) in place of the injured Corey Miller (ankle)...Forced out of the New Orleans game (12-15) in the second half with back spasms and was unavailable for the season-finale vs. New England (12-21)...Tipped a QB Boomer Esiason pass that was intercepted by Jesse Campbell in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (11-3) to put the Giants in position for a Brad Daluiso field goal...Filled in for Miller at strongside linebacker after Miller left with an ankle sprain in the second quarter at Arizona (11-17)...Played the entire second half at Dallas (12-21) when head coach Jim Fassel called in the reserves.

1995: Played in all 16 games and replaced Corey Miller in the starting lineup at strongside linebacker in five games...Ended the season with 20 tackles, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, a pass defended and four special teams tackles...Was slated for his first starting assignment of the season vs. Philadelphia (10-15), but did not start because the Giants opened with the nickel defense. Played virtually the entire game and finished with three tackles. Recovered a Randall Cunningham fumble at the Giants 12-yard line to end an Eagle scoring threat...Made his first start at strong side linebacker since being named the starter at Washington (10-29)...Stint as a starter ended when Miller returned to the lineup at Arizona (11-30).

1994: Played in all 16 games with one start, vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) for the injured Corey Miller (knee) at strong side linebacker...Finished tied for third on the team with nine special teams tackles...Also forced a fumble on the punt team at New Orleans (10-2)...Recorded 15 defensive tackles and one pass defended on the year...Named Giants Special Teams MVP for leading team with three tackles vs. Philadelphia (9-4)...Defensive play increased over the last quarter of the season, beginning at Cleveland (12-4).

1993: Played in all 16 games of his rookie season, primarily on special teams and in nickel defense...Started at ILB at New Orleans (12-20) and at Phoenix (12-26) for injured Michael Brooks (foot)...Finished third on team with seven special teams tackles...Also recorded 11 tackles on defense.

College: Ranks fifth in Texas A&M record book with 29 career quarterback sacks...All-time school leader with 10 fumble recoveries, breaking old mark of nine by Jacob Green...As a senior, was named first team All-America by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, Associated Press, Walter Camp, Kodak, Football News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Sporting News, United Press International, and the Football Writers Association of America...Consensus All-Southwest Conference first team selection and the SWC's Defensive Player of the Year...Semifinalist for the Dick Butkus Award, given to the nation's top linebacker...In 1992 finished third on the team with 70 tackles and led the Aggies with 12 sacks and 21 tackles for 128 yards in losses...Also deflected four passes and had 18 quarterback pressures and four fumble recoveries...Despite missing two weeks of practice with an infected foot prior to '92 season-opener against Stanford, entered the game late in the first quarter and recorded three tackles, two quarterback sacks, a QB pressure, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

Personal: Three-time All-District choice at Eastern Hills HS in Fort Worth, Texas...Kinesiology major with an emphasis in Sports Management at A&M...Born Marcus Wayne Buckley on February 3, 1971.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (97th pick overall) draft choice by Pittsburgh in 1990. Signed by the Giants as a Plan B free agent from Pittsburgh on March 31, 1992.

NFL: Has started the past five seasons after moving into the starting position in 1993 for the injured Mike Sherrard (hip)...Moved past TE Mark Bavaro (266) into fifth place on the Giants all-time list with 272 receptions as a Giant. Kyle Rote is fourth on the list with 300 receptions...Ended a streak of 41 consecutive games with at least one reception in 1996 season-opener against Buffalo (9-1). Since that time, he has caught at least one pass in each game and enters the 1998 season with a streak of at least one reception in 31 consecutive regular-season games...Spent first two years of career with the Pittsburgh Steelers as a backup at wide receiver and special teams performer...Is a steady, solid, consistent player...Excellent downfield blocker....Served as a game captain during the 1997 season with Jessie Armstead, Brad Daluiso and Charles Way.

1997: Closed out the 1997 regular season with 58 receptions for 849 yards and eight touchdowns, all of which are personal single-season high marks. His previous bests were 56 receptions for 796 yards in 1995 and four touchdowns in 1996. The eight touchdown receptions are the most by a Giants player since TE Mark Bavaro had eight in 1987...Calloway led the Giants in receptions and yards for the third consecutive season. He is the first wide receiver to lead the Giants for three straight seasons since Del Shofner led the team from 1961-63. TE Bob Tucker is the last Giants player to lead the team in receiving for three straight years, finishing first from 1971-73...Capped a perfectly executed two-minute drill at the end of the first half in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) with a leaping one-handed grab in the left corner of the end zone on a nine-yard pass from QB Dave Brown. The touchdown gave the Giants a 14-3 halftime lead...At Jacksonville (9-7), the Giants narrowed the Jaguars lead to 20-13 with their only extensive drive of the day, a 72-yard drive that resulted in an eight-yard touchdown pass from Brown to Calloway...Led the team with four receptions for 63 yards vs. New Orleans (9-28), including a 14-yard touchdown pass from Brown that put the Giants in front 14-3 in the second quarter...Drew two pass interference penalties on CB Kevin Smith vs. Dallas (10-5) to help aid Giants scoring drives. On the Giants first drive in the third quarter, Smith was penalized 33 yards for pass interference, giving the Giants a first down at the Dallas seven-yard line where PK Brad Daluiso kicked a 22-yard field goal. In the fourth quarter, QB Danny Kanell attempted a long pass down the sideline to Calloway. Smith was penalized 26 yards for pass interference, setting up a Giants three-yard touchdown run by FB Charles Way...Put a move on Pro Bowl CB Aeneas Williams at Arizona (10-12) and broke free down the left side line where Kanell completed a pass for a 47-yard gain to the Arizona 10-yard line. Two plays later, Kanell completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to WR David Patten...Recorded his third 100-yard receiving game after finishing with five receptions for 145 yards at Detroit (10-19). The 145 yards is his single-game high mark, surpassing the 108 yards he had on 10-20-96 at Washington. The 100-yard performance was the Giants first since 10-20-96 when Calloway finished with 108 yards and WR Thomas Lewis finished with 125. It ended a Giants streak without a 100-yard receiver at 16 games, the longest in the NFL at the time. The 145 yards receiving is the Giants highest receiving total since TE Mark Bavaro had 148 yards receiving on 10-10-88 at Philadelphia. In overtime, Calloway made the call on the coin toss to give the Giants the ball. He ran a perfect out-and-up pattern down the right sideline for a 68-yard touchdown reception from Kanell on the third play in overtime to lift the Giants to a 26-20 victory. The 68-yard touchdown pass is the longest pass reception of Calloway's career, surpassing a 51-yard touchdown pass from Brown vs. Philadelphia 9-4-94. The 68-yard touchdown pass is the Giants longest offensive play since QB Phil Simms connected with WR Stephen Baker for an 80-yard touchdown pass at Washington 10-14-90. Helped set up the Giants first touchdown after Kanell's pass intended for TE Aaron Pierce was intercepted by Lions S Van Malone at the Detroit 21-yard line. Calloway stripped Malone of the ball during the return and Way recovered for the Giants. A roughing the passer penalty against Detroit during the play gave the Giants a first down at the eight-yard line, setting up Kanell's two-yard touchdown pass for a 7-0 Giants lead. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff and was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week by the NFL for his performance against the Lions...Drew two pass interference penalties against the Bengals to aid in Giants scoring drives vs. Cincinnati (10-26). Bengals CB Ashley Ambrose was penalized nine yards for a pass interference charge, giving the Giants a first down at the Bengals 15-yard line during the Giant opening field goal drive. Drew Bengals CB Tito Paul into a pass interference call in the third quarter, resulting in a Giants first down at the Bengals three-yard line to set up a one-yard touchdown run by Way. Recovered the Bengals onside kick attempt at the end of the game to secure the Giants a come-from-behind 29-27 victory...Picked up the blitz and made a key block that allowed Kanell enough time in the pocket to complete a 56-yard touchdown pass to WR Amani Toomer at the end of the second quarter to give the Giants a 10-0 lead vs. Arizona (11-16)...Set up the Giants only touchdown at Washington (11-23) by drawing a 20-yard pass interference penalty against CB Darrell Green to give the Giants a first down at the Redskins six-yard line. One play later, Calloway scored on a four-yard touchdown pass from Kanell...In the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27), the Vikings onside kick attempt with 1:30 left to play bounced off Calloway and into the hands of Vikings WR Chris Walsh. The Vikings took over and drove to the Giants five-yard line for the game-winning field goal.

GIANTS TID BIT

Spent the offseason as a Production Assistant for MTV's "MTV Live," a nightly television show broadcast from a second-floor studio overlooking Times Square in New York.

1996: Led the team for the second consecutive season in receiving. Tied for the team-lead (with Thomas Lewis) with 53 receptions. Led the team with 739 yards receiving. The last Giants receiver to lead the team for two consecutive seasons was Mark Bavaro in 1986-87. Also had one rush for two yards. Tied with Lewis for team-lead with four touchdowns...Had streak of 41 consecutive games with at least one reception come to an end in season-opener vs. Buffalo (9-1). Marked the first time since 10-31-94 vs. Jets that he did not catch a pass...Led the team with five receptions for 72 yards vs. Washington (9-15). Four of his five receptions resulted in Giants first downs...Scored his first touchdown of the season at Jets (9-22) when he capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a 17-yard scoring play...Had a career-day at Washington (10-20) with nine receptions for 108 yards. It marked his second 100-yard receiving performance. Six of his nine receptions went for greater than 10 yards. Was named Offensive Player of the Game by the coaching staff...Caught four passes for 92 yards, including a 24-yard touchdown pass from Tyrone Wheatley on the halfback option to give the Giants the lead in the second quarter at Detroit (10-27)...Led the team with seven receptions for 95 yards, including a 13-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown to cap the Giants first scoring drive at Carolina (11-10). Did not start against the Panthers as the Giants began the game with Brian Saxton at H-back...Led the team with six receptions for 95 yards at Arizona (11-17).

1995: Played in all 16 games with 15 starts as he led the team with 56 receptions for 796 yards and scored three touchdowns...Extended his streak to 41 consecutive games with at least one reception. Giants team record is 46 consecutive games, held by former RB David Meggett...After missing most of the preseason with a hamstring injury, had his first 100-yard receiving day (5-100) at Kansas City (9-10). Previous best was 93 yards vs. Pittsburgh on 10-23-94. Capped a 75-yard game-opening drive with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown to put the Giants in front of the Chiefs, 7-0...Had a big day receiving, finishing with five receptions for 95 yards that included a 38-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown from Brown vs. New Orleans (9-24). Head coach Dan Reeves credited Calloway with doing an outstanding job blocking downfield against the Saints as the Giants gained 218 yards rushing...Did not start due to the Giants opening with the double tight ends and H-back at San Francisco (10-1)...Ran a stop-and-go pattern and broke free for a 49-yard pass reception from Brown to give the Giants the ball inside the 10-yard line on the game-tying touchdown drive vs. Arizona (10-8)...Had a season-high seven receptions for 71 yards at Arizona (11-30)...Calloway ran a post pattern and was the recipient of a 40-yard touchdown pass from Brown with 1:18 left in regulation to give the Giants a 20-13 victory vs. Washington (12-10).

1994: Played in 16 games with 14 starts in his first season as a full-time starter...Finished with 43 receptions for 666 yards...Also scored two TDs receiving on the year...Carried the ball eight times for 77 yards...Caught a 51-yard TD reception from Dave Brown vs. Philadelphia (9-4)...Named Giants Offensive MVP and earned a game ball for his three receptions for 74 yards vs. Philadelphia (9-4)...His 93 yards receiving vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) was a personal single-game high...Caught a 26-yard pass from Dave Brown on third-and-15 at Cleveland (12-4) to keep Giants game-winning drive alive.

1993: Had 35 receptions (third on team) for 513 yards (second on team) and three TDs...Started last nine games of the season for Mike Sherrard (hip)...In first start of the season, his second as a Giant, had 87 yards receiving at Dallas (11-7)...Was used as team's third receiver through first seven weeks...Also returned six kickoffs for 89 yards.

1992: Caught 27 passes (tied for fourth on team) for 335 yards and a touchdown...Finished strong by catching eight passes for 110 yards and one touchdown in final two games of season...Caught four balls for 54 yards and one TD in game 15 vs. Kansas City (12-19)...Closed out season with four receptions for 56 yards at Philadelphia (12-27)...Started first game as a Giant in game 14 at Phoenix (12-12)...Responded with three receptions for 33 yards.

1991: Caught 15 passes for 254 yards and one TD for the Steelers...Played in first 12 games of the season before spending final four games of year on injured reserve with injured right knee...Had four receptions vs. Washington (11-17) and 71 yards receiving at Indianapolis (10-6).

1990: Playing mostly as the third receiver in passing situations, finishing his rookie season with 10 receptions for 124 yards and one TD...Scored first NFL TD on a 20-yard pass from Bubby Brister vs. Cleveland (12-23).

College: Finished collegiate career with 54 receptions for 793 yards and eight TDs...Honorable mention All-Big Ten as a senior after catching 29 passes for 392 yards and three TDs....Tied for second on the team as a junior with 18 catches for 272 yards and four TDs...Started five games as a sophomore.

Personal: Graduated from Michigan with a degree in Communications and Film...Caught 51 passes for 852 yards and eight TDs during scholastic career at Mt. Carmel HS in Chicago where he was All-City in football and as a guard in basketball...An avid Chicago Bulls fan whose favorite offseason activity is playing basketball...Nicknamed "Cab" by his college teammates after legendary musician Cab Calloway...Christopher Fitzpatrick Calloway was born March 29, 1968 in Chicago, Illinois.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (171st pick overall) draft choice, the first of two sixth round selections by the Giants, in 1996.

NFL: Fine special teams player who has led the team in tackles for the past two seasons...Contributor in the Giants goal line and short yardage defense as an extra linebacker...Named Giants Special Teams Player of the Year following his rookie season...Is expected to provide depth at middle linebacker.

1997: Led the team for the second straight season with 13 special teams tackles...Added five total tackles (4 solos) on defense...After seeing special teams action in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) was de-activated at Jacksonville (9-7) and vs. Baltimore (9-14)...Following the season-ending knee injury to Pete Monty against the Ravens, took over his role on the short yardage and goal line defense...Got credited with his first tackle of the season when he joined with DT Keith Hamilton to stop Rams RB Lawrence Phillips short of the first down on a fourth-and-one run in the first quarter at St. Louis (9-21)...Finished with four total special teams tackles (3 solos) vs. Dallas (10-5). Tackled Cowboys RB Herschel Walker after his 47-yard kickoff return to prevent a touchdown in the third quarter...Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff after his performance at Arizona (10-12)...Came in for one play at middle linebacker in the Giants short yardage defense at Detroit (10-19) in the third quarter when the Lions were faced with a third-and-one situation from their own 30-yard line. Tackled FB Tommy Vardell for no gain to end the Detroit drive and force the Lions into a punting situation, setting the stage for WR Amani Toomer's 53-yard touchdown return...Had three solo special teams tackles at Washington (11-23). Was in at linebacker in the short yardage defense in overtime when the Giants held the Redskins on a fourth-and-one-attempt...Fielded the opening kickoff vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game and returned it two yards before being stopped.

1996: Led the team with 14 special teams tackles and added three defensive stops in goal line and short yardage situations...Former head coach Dan Reeves credited Colman with doing an outstanding job with knockdowns and tackles on special teams vs. Minnesota (9-29). Was named Special Teams Player of the Game for his efforts against the Vikings...Recorded his first tackle on defense as part of the Giants goal line defense in the third quarter at Arizona (11-17). Stopped Cardinals FB Cedric Smith short of the goal line on a run up the middle to set up third-and-goal from the one. Registered four solo special teams tackles against the Cardinals...Combined with Chad Bratzke to stop Eagles RB Ricky Walters short of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line in the third quarter at Philadelphia (12-1)...Filled in for starter Corey Widmer at middle linebacker in the third quarter at Miami (12-8) after Widmer re-aggravated a hyperextended elbow.

College: A key contributor who split time at middle linebacker during his senior season in 1995...Finished fourth on the team with 46 tackles (19 solos)...He had one fumble recovery, an interception vs. Colorado and two sacks, both against Kansas State...He also had four quarterback hurries...Tied his career-best with eight tackles against Missouri (four solos)...As a junior in 1994 Colman started the first eight games at linebacker, then gave way to Phil Ellis, with whom he shared time at the position all season...Colman finished as the team's seventh-leading tackler with 51 stops (17 solos), including three for 16 yards lost (two sacks), one fumble caused, one fumble recovered, one pass breakup and four quarterback hurries...In the Kickoff Classic against No. 24 West Virginia, playing in front of family and friends, Colman led the team with a career-high eight tackles (four solo), including one 10-yard sack and one other tackle for loss. He also caused and recovered a fumble and was Nebraska's nominee for Big Eight Defensive Player of the Week...A backup to Mike Anderson and Daren Williams at middle linebacker as a sophomore, Colman played in every game in 1993 and recorded 11 tackles, including one tackle for a one-yard loss against Colorado State...After playing as a true freshman in 1991, Colman was redshirted...One of three true freshman (with safety Troy Dumas and wingback Abdul Muhammad) to letter for Nebraska in 1991, Colman was a reserve weakside linebacker behind Mike Anderson, Ed Stewart and Paul Wightman...He was also a member of NU's special teams...Colman played in five games and recorded six total tackles, including three unassisted stops...Four of his tackles came against Colorado State.

Personal: An All-State and All-South Jersey linebacker, Colman was named the South Jersey defensive player of the year by the Philadelphia Inquirer and the Atlantic City Press and a high school All-American by Super Prep magazine...He started at both linebacker and fullback, and was honored as the All-County offensive and defensive player of the year while playing for a team coached by his father, Wayne, a former NFL player for Philadelphia and New Orleans...Doug averaged 15 tackles a game (135 total) and intercepted two passes as a senior in 1990...He ran for 1,100 yards and scored 11 touchdowns to lead his conference in rushing, caught 12 passes for 185 yards and returned nine kickoffs for 280 yards to account for nearly 1,500 yards in offense...He also ran a 5.14 second 400 meters in track...Born June 4, 1973 at Somers Point, N.J. Interned this past off-season in the NFL League office in the Events Department. One of his many assignments was to help with C.I.T.Y. (Challenge and Inspire Today's Youth) football summer camps program, which are part of the Play Football efforts.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (158th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1989.

NFL: A regular in the Giants lineup for the past seven seasons...Had streak of 71 consecutive starts and 103 straight games played come to an end when he underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right knee and missed the Washington game on 10-29-95...Because of his blocking ability, a vital cog in the Giants rushing attack.

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Finished fourth on the team with 21 receptions for 150 yards with two touchdown passes...His blocking in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) helped minimize the strong Philadelphia pass rush which forced 27 sacks over the previous four Giants-Eagles matchups. The Eagles finished the game with just one sack...Had a 26-yard pass play from QB Dave Brown in the second quarter vs. Baltimore (9-14), his longest reception since recording a 26-yarder vs. Arizona (10-8-95). The play helped set up a Giants field goal. On the play, Cross caught a short pass and dragged several Ravens defenders to complete the 26-yard gain...Strong blocking at the end of the game vs. New Orleans (9-28) helped spring RB Tyrone Wheatley on outside rushes when he gained 41 yards on the final drive to kill the last 3:38...Part of an offense that helped open holes for a 239-yard rushing performance at Arizona (10-12). The entire offensive line, including TEs Cross and Aaron Pierce, was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff...Capped the Giants first touchdown drive at Detroit (10-19) with a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Danny Kanell to give the Giants a 7-0 first quarter lead...Caught a one-yard touchdown pass from Kanell in the back of the end zone for what proved to be the winning touchdown in the Giants 19-10 victory vs. Arizona (11-16)...Had a team-leading five receptions for 52 yards in the NFC East Division clinching game vs. Washington (12-13). The Giants were faced with a third-and-three situation from the Redskins 45-yard line during their second touchdown drive in the first quarter. Cross ran a slant pattern and turned the pass play into a 22-yard gain for a first down at the Redskins 23-yard line to keep the scoring drive alive.

1996: In his sixth season as a starter, finished fourth on the team with 22 receptions for 178 yards...Blocking helped Rodney Hampton gain a season-high 94 yards rushing on 24 carries vs. Arizona (11-3)...Registered a season-high five receptions for 23 yards at Miami (12-8). His previous best in 1996 was three receptions vs. Dallas (11-24). His one-yard touchdown catch that capped the Giants' 78-yard, second quarter drive against the Dolphins was his first touchdown reception since 12-11-94 vs. Cincinnati when he caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown.

1995: Despite playing with a sore knee most of the season, still managed to start 15 games as he caught 18 passes for 197 yards...Saw his streak of 71 consecutive starts and 103 straight games played come to an end when he underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right knee and missed the Washington game (10-29). It marked the first game in his career that Cross missed...Cross originally injured his knee in the Giants' final preseason game at Carolina...After catching at least one pass in every game in the 1994 season, Cross did not have any receptions at Kansas City (9-10). It was the first game he had been held without a reception since 12-26-93 at Phoenix...Blocking helped the Giants gain 218 yards on the ground and 258 yards in the air vs. New Orleans (9-24)...Returned to the starting lineup at Seattle (11-5).

1994: Started all 16 games for the fourth consecutive season...Had career-highs with 31 receptions for 364 yards...Previous highs were in 1992...Caught four TD passes...Had second two-TD game of his career at Arizona (9-11) when he caught two one-yard scoring passes from Dave Brown...Recorded longest reception of his career at New Orleans (10-2), a 40-yarder from Dave Brown...Led the team with five receptions for 47 yards at Rams (10-16)...Led the team with five receptions for 44 yards, including a nine-yard TD pass from Kent Graham in the fourth quarter, at Dallas (11-7)...Caught a 29-yard pass from Dave Brown at Washington (11-27) during 61-yard scoring drive in third quarter...Capped a 65-yard drive vs. Cincinnati (12-11) with an eight-yard TD pass from Dave Brown with :16 left in the first half.

1993: Started all 16 games and led team with a career-best five TD receptions after scoring two TDs in both the 1991 and 1992 seasons...Finished the season with 21 receptions for 272 yards and the five TDs...Had first two-TD game of his career at Washington (10-10)...Team's Offensive MVP at Miami (12-5) when he caught two passes for 34 yards, including 20-yard TD catch...Caught three passes for 26 yards, including 17-yard TD, at New Orleans (12-20)...Added four receptions for 43 yards in postseason play.

1992: Best statistical season of career to date with 27 catches for 357 yards and two TDs...Established personal single-game highs with six receptions for 77 yards vs. Dallas (9-13)...Scored TDs vs. Dallas (9-13) and at Chicago (9-21).

1991: After departure of Mark Bavaro, assumed the starting position...Finished season with 20 catches for 283 yards...Scored TDs at Pittsburgh (10-14) and vs. Houston (12-21)...Recorded a 30-yard reception, longest of his career at that time, vs. Phoenix (10-6).

1990: Started eight of the 16 regular season games he played in...Excelled in the postseason when he caught five passes for 44 yards and one TD...Scored on a five-yard pass from Jeff Hostetler in playoff victory vs. Chicago (1-13-91)...Had four receptions, including three for key first downs, for 39 yards in Super Bowl XXV victory over Buffalo (1-27-91).

1989: Made the team as a sixth round draft choice and played in all 16 games, with four starts when Mark Bavaro suffered a knee injury...First NFL start came vs. Minnesota (10-30)...First NFL reception was a six-yarder at Philadelphia (10-8)...First NFL TD was a 16-yarder vs. Seattle (11-19)...Rewarded for his efforts by being named to the All-Rookie team by United Press International.

Claimed off waivers by Denver on September 1, 1992. Waived by Denver on August 23, 1993. Signed by Giants as a free agent on September 1, 1993.

NFL: Entering his sixth season with the Giants, fourth as a full-time placekicker...Daluiso was given the opportunity to be the full-time placekicker in training camp of 1994 before giving way to David Treadwell at the start of the regular season...Regained the full-time role in the 13th week of the season in the second half of the Giants game at Cleveland...Was used primarily as a kickoff specialist through his first three NFL seasons...Ability to put the ball in the end zone makes him a valuable commodity...Is eighth on the Giants all-time scoring list with 316 points (78 field goals and 82 extra points)...Ended a streak of 39 consecutive field goals from inside the 40-yard line in the 1997 season-finale at Dallas...Daluiso's career field goal percentage with the Giants is 77.2 (78 of 101), best in team history. The previous best success rate was held by Matt Bahr (75.3 %, 55 of 73).

1997: Connected on 22 of 32 field goal attempts and 27 of 29 extra point attempts for a total of 93 points...After a 3-for-9 start, rebounded with 11 straight successful field goal attempts...In addition, his kickoffs averaged to the opponent's one-yard line, and he had 23 touchbacks in 67 kicks...His 93 points were eighth in the NFC...Ended the preseason a perfect nine-of-nine, including three-of-three from between 40-49 and two-of-two from 50 yards or greater...Extended his streak to 39 consecutive field goals from inside the 40-yard line before he missed on a 38-yard attempt at Dallas (12-21) in the regular season-finale. It was his first miss from inside the 40 since failing on a 37-yard attempt on 11-19-95 at Philadelphia...Missed on two field goals from 41 yards, and the Giants first extra point attempt in the second quarter was blocked in a 24-23 loss vs. Baltimore (9-14). It marked the first time in Daluiso's career that he had a PAT blocked...Missed on a 54-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter and a 42-yard attempt in the second quarter at St. Louis (9-21)...Was successful on field goals of 52 and 47 yards to help give the Giants a 26-20 overtime victory at Detroit (10-19). Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Lions...Missed the first extra point attempt of his career vs. Arizona (11-16) when his kick sailed wide left in the fourth quarter...His 54-yard game-winning field goal attempt at Washington (11-23) sailed wide left midway through the overtime period. Had another try at a 54-yard attempt on the Giants next drive, but his kick was blocked. The play was called back because the Redskins called a time out. Head coach Jim Fassel elected to punt rather than attempt another 54-yard field goal...Tied an NFL postseason record in the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27) with five field goals (43, 22, 41, 51 and 22). Chuck Nelson (Minnesota) kicked five vs. San Francisco in 1987, Matt Bahr kicked five in the Giants 15-13 NFC Championship victory at San Francisco in 1990 and Steve Christie (Buffalo) kicked five vs. Miami in 1992. Daluiso's four first half field goals established an NFL postseason record.

1996: Finished the season with 14 consecutive successful field goal attempts...On the season, his 88.9 conversion rate (24 field goals on 27 attempts) set a team record. The old mark was held by Ali Haji-Sheikh (83.3%, 35 of 42), set during the 1983 season...Connected on field goals of 25, 27 and 18 yards to help give the Giants a 15-10 victory over the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings (9-29)...His strong kickoffs helped limit the Eagles average start of possession to their own 19-yard line vs.

Philadelphia (10-13)...His 45-yard field goal in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (11-3) was his first successful kick between 40-49 yards of the 1996 season. Connected on a 31-yard field goal on the opening drive and a 32-yard field goal in the third quarter. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the National Football League...Connected on field goals of 45 and 46 yards in the second quarter vs. Dallas (11-24) to give the Giants a 6-3 lead. The 46-yarder was his longest of the season...Three of his four kickoffs went into the end zone for touchbacks, and he converted both of his extra point attempts and his only field goal attempt, a 37-yarder, at Miami (12-8). Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the NFL for the second time in 1996.

1995: In his first complete season handling full-time placekicking duties, played in all 16 games and finished 20-of-28 in field goal attempts and 28-of-28 on PATs...After going 11-of-11 in field goal attempts in 1994 and six-of-six in the preseason, missed his first attempt of the 1995 regular-season when his 42-yard attempt was blocked and sailed wide left in the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...His missed field goal was the Giants' only scoring opportunity of the evening...Kicked a 51-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to extend the Giants' lead to 24-17 vs. New Orleans (9-24). Was six-of-six on extra point attempts against the Saints...Did a good job of kicking the ball outside the numbers on kickoffs to limit return specialist Brian Mitchell's running room at Washington (10-29)...His 48-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right as time expired, capping a 30-28 Seattle Seahawks victory over the visiting Giants (11-5). Is now 3 of 4 lifetime for the Giants when attempting a field goal with the game in the balance. Prior to the missed 48-yard attempt against Seattle, Daluiso had connected from 54 yards with :32 left to defeat the Cardinals, 19-17 on Nov. 28, 1993, hit a 33-yarder with :19 left to defeat Cleveland, 16-13, on Dec. 4, 1994 and nailed an 18-yarder with :54 remaining to defeat Philadelphia, 16-13 on Dec. 18, 1994...Missed his first field goal inside the 40-yard line in 19 attempts when his 37-yard field goal try sailed wide right in the second quarter at Philadelphia (11-19). Was eight-of-eight inside the 40-yard line prior to the miss.

1994: Finished the season a perfect 11-of-11 in field goal attempts after taking over full-time kicking duties in the second half at Cleveland (12-4)...Led the league in touchbacks with 19...Of his 65 kickoffs, 26 went into the end zone, 19 for touchbacks...Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after the Cleveland game when he connected on field goals of 25, 30 and 33 yards, the kick that gave the Giants a 16-13 victory with :19 left in regulation...Awarded a game ball and named team Special Teams MVP vs. Cincinnati (12-11) when he kicked field goals of 52 and 33 yards...The 52-yarder is the second-longest field goal of Daluiso's career; his career-best is the 54-yarder that defeated Arizona on 11-28-93...Named Giants Special Teams MVP at Philadelphia (12-18) after kicking three field goals, including an 18-yard game-winning FG with :54 left in regulation.

1993: Played in 15 games...44 of his 64 kickoffs went into or through the end zone, 39 of those for touchbacks...Connected on a 54-yard FG with :32 left in the game to give Giants 19-17 victory vs. Phoenix (11-28) as he earned a game ball and Special Teams MVP honors...NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for performance at Miami (12-5) when all four of his kickoffs went for touchbacks.

1992: For the season he kicked off 65 times with 53 touchbacks, an .815 percentage, and had only 12 returned, by far the lowest in the NFL...Denver opponents scored just four times after starting their possessions with a Daluiso touchback kickoff...After Denver's starting P Mike Horan was injured following a blocked punt vs. Houston (10-18), Daluiso averaged 48.5 yards on four punts...Also punted in the season finale at Kansas City (12-27), punting six times for a 45.5 average, including a 67-yarder, the Broncos' longest of the season...Picked up off of waivers from Dallas, after signing there as a Plan B free agent, just prior to the beginning of the regular season.

1991: Attended Green Bay's training camp in 1991, but was traded to Atlanta...Waived by Atlanta and claimed by Buffalo where he spent the rest of the 1991 campaign...Posted season totals of 30 touchbacks on 84 kickoffs...Converted two of his three field goal attempts and both extra point attempts with Atlanta.

College: Daluiso was a second-team All-Pac 10 selection as a senior at UCLA...He hit 13 of 19 field goals and 32 of 33 PAT tries to lead the Bruins in scoring...He made the team as a walk-on in 1989 and handled 46 of the team's 48 kickoffs...Was a member of the Grossmont (Calif.) 1997: Suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee during practice in training camp on August 12...Placed on injured reserve on August 19...Underwent successful surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery/Cornell Medical Center to repair the knee on August 20.

1996: Placed on injured reserve on November 13 after dislocating his left thumb making a tackle on the opening kickoff at Carolina (11-10). Underwent successful surgery to insert a plate to repair the fractured thumb on November 11...Finished the season with one reception for eight yards and one kickoff return for 11 yards. Added three special teams tackles...Activated for the first time in 1996 at Dallas (9-8) due to the injury to Thomas Lewis (hamstring/back). Entered the game at wide receiver when Amani Toomer was forced to leave for a couple of plays in the first quarter after being hit in the knee by a helmet. Toomer returned to the game at wide receiver, but Douglas took Toomer's spot on the kickoff return team. Returned one kickoff for 11 yards...With the injury to Toomer (knee) was active as a reserve wide receiver at Detroit (10-27). Saw some action in three wideout sets but did not have any receptions...Active as a reserve wide receiver and special teams player vs. Arizona (11-3) and had his only reception of the season, an eight-yard pass from Danny Kanell in the fourth quarter. Added two solo special teams tackles against the Cardinals on the kickoff team in the second half.

1995: As a fourth receiver and part-time return man, played in eight games with one start...Finished the season with two receptions for 15 yards and returned a fumble on special teams for a touchdown...Started for first time in his NFL career in place of Mike Sherrard (ribs) at Kansas City (9-10) but did not have any receptions...With Tyrone Wheatley taking the majority of the load at running back vs. Arizona (10-8), Douglas took his spot on the kickoff return team. Returned one kick for 13 yards. Marked the first time that the second-year player touched the ball in a regular season game...Down 17-6 with under five minutes remaining in regulation vs. Philadelphia (10-15), the Giants got the big play that they needed to get back into the game. Keith Elias rushed the Eagles punter so quickly that Elias got to the ball before it was punted and forced a fumble that Douglas returned 41 yards for a touchdown to cut the Eagles lead to 17-14...Split time with Arthur Marshall as the third wide receiver at Philadelphia (11-19) as he caught his first professional pass in the fourth quarter, a four-yarder from Dave Brown...Caught an 11-yard pass from Brown during the Giants fourth quarter touchdown drive vs. Chicago (11-26).

1994: Played in six of last seven games after being inactive through first nine games of the season...Became the Giants fourth receiver after Thomas Lewis suffered season-ending knee injury at Dallas (11-7)...Did not catch a pass on the season but recorded two special teams tackles.

Earned a letter on the Virginia basketball team and helped the team advance to the NCAA Elite Eight during junior season...Named Defensive Player of the Week by The Sporting News after intercepting teammate Danny Kanell twice in Virginia's victory over Florida State during his senior season.

Transactions: Originally signed by the Giants as a free agent on April 27, 1996.

NFL: Made roster as a rookie free agent and has become a significant contributor as a part-time starter and in nickel and dime packages.

1997: Majority of his playing time was in nickel and dime situations...Registered 29 total tackles (20 solos) with four interceptions, two fumble recoveries and nine passes defended...Also added five special teams tackles...Played in all 16 games and the postseason game vs. Minnesota and made one start vs. Baltimore (9-14) when the Giants opened the game in the nickel defense. Against the Ravens, leaped over WR Ryan Yarbrough to intercept a QB Vinny Testaverde bomb at the Giants 21-yard line in the third quarter. The Giants took over and converted the turnover into a 27-yard field goal to take a 23-14 fourth quarter lead...Came in at strong safety in place of Sam Games for a series in the third quarter at St. Louis (9-21) when Games was getting his injured ankle retaped. Broke up a pass intended for Rams WR Torrance Small from QB Tony Banks on the goal line during a third down play, forcing St. Louis to settle for a field goal during their first scoring drive...Broke up a QB Heath Shuler pass intended for WR Andre Hastings on third-and-seven from the Giants 14-yard line vs. New Orleans (9-28), forcing the Saints to settle for a 32-yard Doug Brien field goal at the end of the second quarter...Finished with two interceptions that ended Cardinals drives inside the Giants 20-yard line at Arizona (10-12). In the second quarter, Ellsworth intercepted QB Kent Graham's pass intended for WR Rob Moore at the Giants 10-yard line. In the fourth quarter, he picked off a QB Stoney Case pass intended for WR Frank Sanders at the Giants two-yard line. The last time that Ellsworth had two interceptions in a game was against teammate Danny Kanell when Ellsworth played at Virginia and Kanell was at Florida State...Recovered QB Jeff Blake's fumble at the Bengals 47-yard line vs. Cincinnati (10-26) after

LB Jessie Armstead jarred the ball loose during a tackle out of the pocket in the third quarter. Ellsworth raced 24 yards to give the Giants a first down at the 23-yard line to help set up a Giants touchdown that closed the Bengals lead to 21-16...Entered the game at free safety in place of Tito Wooten when Wooten left for a couple of series in the fourth quarter with a sprained ankle at Washington (11-23)...Was forced into the game at free safety in place of Wooten in the fourth quarter after Wooten aggravated his sprained left ankle vs. Tampa Bay (11-30)...Recovered a fumble at Dallas (12-21) at the Cowboys 44-yard line following a fumbled exchange between QB Troy Aikman and C Clay Shiver in the third quarter...Replaced Wooten late in the fourth quarter vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game after Wooten left with an ankle injury.

1996: Had 45 tackles (36 solos), recovered a fumble and tied for second on the team with nine passes defended, including three interceptions. Added two special teams tackles...Saw his first regular season action vs. Washington (9-15) after being inactive for the Giants first two games. Finished with two tackles on defense...Rotated at strong safety with Jesse Campbell with Ellsworth seeing the majority of his playing in passing situations at the Jets (9-22). When Tito Wooten left in the third quarter with a fractured right fibula, Ellsworth entered the game at free safety...Started vs. Minnesota (9-29) and vs. Philadelphia (10-13) at free safety in place of Wooten (leg)...Coverage helped hold the Vikings to just 143 yards passing on 13 completions...Helped clear the path during Amani Toomer's 65-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second quarter against the Eagles, getting in front of P Tom Hutton, the last Eagles defender to have a chance at Toomer...Recorded his first NFL interception at Washington (10-20) when he stepped in front of RB Brian Mitchell and picked off a QB Gus Frerotte pass in the first quarter...Came in at free safety in place of Wooten, who left with an injured shoulder in the fourth quarter at Arizona (11-17). After the Giants closed the lead to 28-13, Ellsworth helped prevent the Cardinals from putting the game out of reach by intercepting QB Boomer Esiason in the end zone to end a scoring threat. Recovered a RB LeShon Johnson fumble caused by LB Jessie Armstead at the Cardinals 42-yard line to set up a Giants touchdown that cut the Arizona lead to 28-20...Picked off a Troy Aikman pass intended for Deion Sanders at the Giants five-yard line with 2:11 remaining vs. Dallas (11-24) to seal the Giants 20-6 victory.

Spent his first offseason as a substitute school teacher at his high school in Tennessee. Would like to teach and coach at the high school level after his playing career is over.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (182nd pick overall) draft choice, the second of two sixth round selections by the Giants, in 1996.

NFL: Took over as the Giants middle linebacker during nickel situations in his second NFL season...A reserve at the weakside linebacking spot who contributed on special teams during his rookie season in 1996.

1997: Started the season as a reserve linebacker and special teams performer...Replaced Marcus Buckley as the Giants middle linebacker in nickel and dime packages at St. Louis (9-21) and played extremely well throughout the rest of the season, finishing the season with 39 total tackles (31 solos), three sacks, two forced fumbles and three passes defended...Also finished tied for second on the team with 11 special teams tackles...Named special teams MVP by the coaching staff following his performance vs. Philadelphia (8-31) in the season-opener. Was used in the nickel defense against the Eagles due to an injury to Buckley (hip flexor)...With the return of Buckley at Jacksonville (9-7), Galyon's role was reduced to special teams duty. When Buckley filled in at weakside linebacker for LB Jessie Armstead, who was out with heat cramps in the fourth quarter, Galyon took over as the nickel linebacker...Suffered a concussion in the second half during a kickoff vs. Baltimore (9-14) and did not return to the game...Credited with his first career sack at Arizona (10-12) when he came in on a blitz and forced Cardinals QB Stoney Case to fumble in the third quarter. The Cardinals recovered the loose football after a 30-yard loss to put themselves in a third-and-40 situation...Combined with DT Robert Harris vs. Cincinnati (10-26) to stop Bengals RB Eric Bieniemy short of the first down on a third-and-four play in the fourth quarter. The Bengals tried a fourth down play on the next play and were stopped by the Giants defense...Came in on a third down blitz vs. Arizona (11-16) and sacked QB Jake Plummer for an eight-yard loss to end a Cardinals drive in the first quarter...Created a turnover that helped lead to a Giants score in the second quarter at Philadelphia (12-7) when he forced Eagles QB Bobby Hoyer to fumble on a nine-yard sack. DT Keith Hamilton recovered the ball at the Philadelphia 42-yard line, and the Giants moved to the 11-yard line before QB Danny Kanell completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to RB Tiki Barber for a 14-7 lead...Stopped QB Jeff Hostetler inches short of the first down on a third down scramble up the middle vs. Washington (12-13). On the next play, P Dan Turk mishandled the snap, allowing the Giants to take over at the Redskins 16-yard line...Used as the nickel linebacker in the first half at Dallas (12-21) before replacing Armstead at weakside linebacker in the second half when head coach Jim Fassel elected to go with the reserves. Led the team with six solo tackles. Also added two solo special teams tackles. Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cowboys....In the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27), finished with three solo tackles, one pass defended and one forced fumble. Hit QB Randall Cunningham and forced him to fumble in the third quarter. The Vikings managed to recover the loose football.

1996: Contributed nine special teams tackles (tied for third on team) and two defensive stops...Saw his first action at linebacker at Dallas (9-8) when he entered the game in place of Jessie Armstead at weakside linebacker in the fourth quarter. Had his first NFL tackle when he stopped Emmitt Smith at the line of scrimmage for no gain on a third-and-one play to help hold Dallas to a field goal...Helped force the Cowboys to start their first drive deep in their own territory by downing a Mike Horan punt at the Dallas two-yard line after Conrad Hamilton batted the ball back from the goal line vs. Dallas (11-24).

College: Leadership role was underscored when Vols elected him as one of four co-captains for 1995...Started every game at right outside linebacker during senior campaign in 1995...Was the team's leading tackler with 91 stops (62 solos), one sack and ten tackles for losses...Registered 10 tackles against Florida, including two for losses, and caused a fumble...Picked off his third career pass against Mississippi State...Led the team in tackles with 93 (67 solos) as a junior in 1994...Started season at middle linebacker, then moved to right side after Mississippi State game...Cracked starting lineup in Alabama game as a sophomore in 1993 and remained a regular for final six games, including bowl...Finished as Vols' fourth-leading tackler with 54 hits, 36 solo stops and 18 assists...As true freshman, he backed up former Giants teammate Ben Talley at right linebacker...Made key plays on special teams throughout the season.

Personal: First-team All-Star as defensive back...Honorable mention All-American by USA Today at Seymour High...Named to Tom Lemming's All-Southeast...Had 91 tackles, four interceptions and 10 passes broken up in senior...For career, he had 191 tackles and 14 interceptions...Averaged 38 yards as punter...Caught 21 passes for 500 yards as junior...Moved to quarterback as senior...Played quarterback, receiver, linebacker and safety during high school career...Led Seymour to 27-7 record and two playoffs during his three years...All-District in baseball and basketball...Born March 23, 1974.

Is an avid football card collector. The most prized cards in his collection are a rookie Deion Sanders and his Joe Montana and Jerry Rice cards.

Transactions: Originally a fifth round (136th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Established himself as a starter in his rookie season at strong safety...Will be counted on to hold his starting spot again this season.

1997: Earned the starting strong safety position in training camp and went on to start 15 of the 16 regular season games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Had 60 total tackles (40 solos), one interception that was returned for a touchdown vs. Philadelphia (8-31), five passes defended and 11 special teams tackles...Was replaced by Percy Ellsworth during nickel situations throughout the season...A 95-yard interception return for a touchdown against the Eagles in the season-opener ended a game-tying Eagles scoring drive with less than five minutes remaining and the Giants holding a 24-17 lead. Backup QB Rodney Peete moved the Eagles to the Giants 21-yard line and attempted to throw a pass to TE Jason Dunn over the middle, but Garnes stepped in front and intercepted the ball at the five-yard line and raced 95 yards untouched for the touchdown, the fifth longest interception return in Giants history. Named defensive MVP by the coaching staff following the game...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Baltimore (9-14) as the Giants opened the game in the nickel defense...Suffered a sprained ankle during practice on the Thursday prior to the game at St. Louis (9-21), but returned for the walk-through on Saturday and was in the starting lineup against the Rams. Missed one series in the third quarter to get his ankle re-taped...Late in the fourth quarter vs. New Orleans (9-28), the Saints recovered a Giants fumble that gave them a first down at the Giants 35-yard line. Garnes surprised the Saints with a safety blitz that took the focus off LB Corey Widmer, who sacked QB Heath Shuler to push the Saints into a third-and-long situation...Came in on a safety blitz in overtime at Washington (11-23) that forced QB Jeff Hostetler to hurry a pass that was intercepted by CB Phillippi Sparks at the Giants 49-yard line...Made a big impact on special teams vs. Washington (12-13) with a team-leading three solo tackles and one assist. Made tackles on the Giants first four kickoffs of the game...Was replaced by Rodney Young in the second half at Dallas (12-21) when head coach Jim Fassel elected to go with the reserves...Came up from his safety position against the Vikings and tackled RB Robert Smith for a five-yard loss in the second quarter of the Wild Card game.

College: Ranks fifth on the school's all-time chart with 318 total tackles...All-Independent first-team pick following his senior campaign in 1996...Started the season opener at free safety and then shifted to strong safety for the rest of the year...Recorded 69 tackles (47 solos) with a three-yard sack and five pass deflections...All-Conference USA first-team and Liberty Bowl Alliance All-Star pick as a junior in 1995...Ranked eighth in the nation with six interceptions for 101 yards in returns...His six pass thefts tied the school season-record first set by Don Polagyi in 1952 and matched by Bill Madeya (1965) and Ed Bolis (1970)...All-Independent first-team choice by the media in 1994 as a sophomore...Recipient of the Claude Rost Award, given to the team's Most Valuable Player...Started every game at strong safety...Led the team with a career-high 134 tackles (88 solos) and had three stops for losses of 15...Valuable performer for the Bearcats, playing in every game behind Latish Kinsler at strong safety as a freshman in 1993...Redshirted as a freshman in 1992.

Personal: All-Borough first-team and All-City honorable mention as a receiver and defensive back at DeWitt Clinton High School, Bronx, NY...Set school season and game records as he hauled in 27 passes for 492 yards (18.2 avg.) and three touchdowns as a senior...Also recorded 58 tackles with an interception that year...Led the team to the Bronx championship game as a sophomore...Added letters in track and golf...Honor Roll student...Criminal Justice major...One of three children (two sisters) of Sam and Carolyn Garnes...Avid football card collector...Born July 12, 1974 in the Bronx, New York.

NFL: With the departure of Doug Riesenberger, moved into the starting lineup at right tackle in 1996...Enters his third season as a starter...Solidly-built athlete with exceptional mobility for a player his size.

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27) at right tackle...The Giants offensive line allowed 32 sacks, a vast improvement from the 1997 season when the Giants were sacked 56 times...After allowing 27 sacks in the previous four Giants-Eagles matchups, the Giants offensive allowed just one sack in the season-opener against Philadelphia (8-31)...Blocking helped RB Tyrone Wheatley gain 41 yards on the final drive vs. New Orleans (9-28) as the Giants killed the last 3:38 of the game after being pinned at their own three-yard line...Vs. Dallas (10-5), held Cowboys DE Tony Tolbert without a sack for the first time in Tolbert's past ten games against the Giants...Helped spring the Giants ground game for 239 yards at Arizona (10-12). Line allowed Wheatley to gain 103 yards on 22 carries, breaking a Giants streak of 23 straight games without a 100-yard rushing performance. Against the Cardinals, RB Eric Pegrum read Gragg's block during his 18-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter that gave the Giants a 27-6 lead. The entire offensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for its performance against a respected Cardinals defensive front...Offensive line did a good job of combating the noisy Silverdome conditions at Detroit (10-19), opening holes for FB Charles Way to pound out 90 yards on 13 carries.

1996: Made his first NFL start in the season-opener vs. Buffalo (9-1)...Offensive line helped the Giants control the ball throughout the game vs. Minnesota (9-29). The Giants first drive took 8:32 off the clock. The team was able to run out the final four minutes of the game to preserve the victory...Blocked PK Greg Davis' 28-yard field goal attempt after the Cardinals reached the Giants 11-yard line in the first quarter vs. Arizona (11-3). Blocking helped Rodney Hampton gain 94 yards on 24 carries, his highest output of the season. Missed three plays in the third quarter after dislocating his finger...Named Offensive Player of the Game by the coaching staff at Carolina (11-10) for his role in limiting the Panthers, the NFL team with the most sacks in 1996, to just one sack. Held OLB Kevin Greene to no sacks and one tackle.

1995: Broke his foot in the first week of training camp and missed the entire preseason...Saw first regular-season action at Green Bay (9-17) when he lined up as an extra tight end in a short-yardage situation in the second quarter...Vs. New Orleans (9-24), made his first appearance at offensive tackle when he replaced Doug Riesenberger at right tackle for the final series...Replaced John Elliott at left tackle late in the fourth quarter at San Francisco (10-1) when Elliott left with a burner in both arms...Gragg and Riesenberger split time at right tackle at Philadelphia (11-19) with Gragg playing the second and fourth quarters...Gragg's blocking on the kickoff team helped Thomas Lewis return a second quarter kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown vs. Washington (12-10).

Played LB in grade-school and wasn't switched to QB until the 8th grade. He did not play football in 6th and 7th grade because he exceeded the weight limit. 175-pounds in 8th grade, he had to go to a different town to play due to weight restrictions.

Transactions: Originally an eighth round (211th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992. Waived by the Giants on August 30, 1995. Signed by Detroit as a free agent on September 5, 1995. Signed by Arizona as a free agent on March 7, 1996. Signed by the Giants as a free agent on February 17, 1998.

NFL: Originally an eighth round draft choice of the Giants in 1992, lost a quarterback battle to Dave Brown in training camp in 1994...Was waived by the Giants prior to the start of the 1995 season to make room on the roster for QB Tommy Maddox...After spending a season as Detroit's third quarterback, signed with Arizona where he was reunited with Jim Fassel, who was offensive coordinator for the Giants during Graham's first NFL season in 1992...Earned starting position for parts of the 1996 and 1997 seasons with the Cardinals.

1997: Began the year as the starting quarterback and started the first six games of the season before hurting his ankle against the Giants (10-12). QB Jake Plummer took over and became the Cardinals permanent starter...Completed 130 of 250 passes for 1,408 yards (52.0 percent) with four touchdowns and five interceptions for a 65.9 passer rating...After suffering through a frustrating first half (5-13-29 yards) with a sack and lost fumble that was returned for a score vs. Dallas (9-7), came back in the second half (21-23-220 yards) with two touchdowns for a 25-22 Cardinals victory...Connected on 22 of 38 passes for 293 yards vs. Minnesota (10-5), including long pass plays of 33 yards to TE Chris Gedney for a touchdown and 42 yards to WR Frank Sanders as the Cardinals forged a 19-10 lead with just 10 minutes left in the game...Suffered knee and ankle sprains with four minutes left in the first half when he became entangled in a pileup against the Giants...Came into the game vs. Philadelphia (11-2) in the fourth quarter in relief of Plummer. Completed just five of nine passes for 33 yards, but scored twice on quarterback sneaks...Again in the fourth quarter at Dallas (11-9) came on in relief of Plummer and completed five of 14 passes for 74 yards.

1996: Split time with Boomer Esiason in his first season in Arizona and earned a 4-4 record as a starter...Completed 146 of 274 pass attempts (53.3 percent) for 1,624 yards with 12 touchdowns, seven interceptions and had a 75.1 passer rating...Led the NFC and ranked third in the league in third-down passing with 45 completions in 80 attempts for 531 yards with six touchdowns and just one interception (96.4 rating)...Equalled two Cardinals records in 31-28 overtime win against St. Louis (9-29) -- 14 consecutive pass completions and 37 pass completions. Effort against the Rams earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors with 37 completions on 58 attempts for 366 yards and four touchdowns, all career single-game bests...Relieved Esiason at start of second half vs. Miami (9-8), completing 13 of 19 attempts for 133 yards and a one-yard scoring toss to FB Cedric Smith...After Esiason struggled again at New England (9-15) the next week, Graham came off the bench midway through the third quarter to thread nine of 19 pass attempts for 111 yards...Earned first starting Cardinals role the next week vs. New Orleans (9-22)...Twice brought club back from 14-point deficits in the second half vs. Rams. On two scoring drives in the second half, clicked on 11 of 12 pass attempts for 71 yards and two touchdowns...After a first half of six-of-10 for 79 yards vs. Jets (10-27), finished 17-of-32 for 255 with three touchdowns...Suffered a sprain of the posterior cruciate ligament in his left knee at the Giants (11-3), forcing him from the game after just nine plays and two completions in three attempts for 29 yards...Was inactive for the next three games...Did not play for two more games as Esiason won three consecutive contests...Was inserted back into the lineup with a healthy knee vs. Washington (12-15), rallying the Cardinals from deficits of 23-14 and 26-24 en route to 27-26 victory. Finished with 20 completions on 46 attempts for 232 yards and two touchdowns against the Redskins.

1995: Released by the Giants on August 31 at the conclusion of the preseason...Was signed by Detroit on September 5, two days after the opening of the regular season...Was inactive as the third quarterback for the Lions 15 remaining regular season games and their postseason loss at Philadelphia.

1994: Played in 13 games, including three at quarterback, with one start for the Giants...Served as holder on placements in other 11 games...Saw his first action of the season at quarterback at Dallas (11-7) when he relieved Dave Brown in the fourth quarter. Engineered the Giants only significant drive of the game at Dallas, a nine-play, 76-yard drive that culminated with a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Howard Cross. Finished the game nine-of-14 passing for 98 yards, one touchdown and one interception...Received the starting assignment the following week vs. Arizona (11-13) and was nine of 26 for 92 yards, one touchdown and one interception in the Giants 10-9 loss to the Cardinals. On the opening drive vs. Arizona, Graham led the team 82 yards for a touchdown. Graham threw a key 15-yard pass to RB David Meggett on third down to put the Giants inside the Cardinals 20-yard line...Entered the game at Houston (11-21) after Brown left with a concussion in the second quarter. Finished the game with six completions on 13 attempts, including a 40-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Sherrard. Connected with Sherrard on a 55-yard pass to set up PK David Treadwell's 26-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Graham was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for his effort against the Oilers as the Giants broke a seven-game losing streak.

1993: Played in nine games, mainly as a holder...Appeared at QB at Chicago (9-5), vs. Dallas (11-7) and at Phoenix (11-28)...Finished the season with eight completions on 22 attempts for 79 yards...After serving as the No. 2 QB for the first 13 games of the season, rotated with Brown as the No. 2 QB behind Phil Simms for the final five weeks of the season, including the two postseason games.

1992: Forced to start three games, replacing the injured Jeff Hostetler (concussion), who had taken on the starting job after Simms (elbow) was injured...Holder on placements late in the season...Saw action in six games, finishing his rookie season with a total of 42 completions in 97 attempts (43.3%) for 470 yards, one TD and four interceptions...Saw first NFL action at the Rams (10-18) in relief of Hostetler and was two of four for 39 yards and one interception...Relieved Hostetler again at Denver (11-15) and was two-of-two for 12 yards...When Hostetler suffered his concussion vs. Philadelphia (11-22), Graham came in and hit on 11-of-26 passes for 141 yards, one TD and one interception...First NFL start came on Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11-26), and Graham was 12-of-28 for 151 yards...Second start was vs. Washington (12-6) and resulted in effort of eight-of-16 for 73 yards...Third start was at Phoenix (12-12) and Graham hit on seven of 21 attempts for 54 yards with two interceptions...Carried the ball six times for 36 yards on the season with a long run of 15 yards vs. Philadelphia (11-22).

College: Started collegiate career at Notre Dame where he served as backup to Tony Rice and eventually transferred to Ohio State where he initially served as backup to Greg Frey before moving into starting role as a senior...Started 10 of 12 games for Buckeyes in 1991, missing the Washington State game with a concussion and the Hall of Fame Bowl game vs. Syracuse because of a bruised nerve in his left arm...Finished senior season with 79 completions in 153 attempts (51.6%) for 1,018 yards and four TDs...Also had 157 yards rushing on the option play...As a junior backup to Frey, Graham saw action in six games and was 15 of 26 passing for 195 yards and three TDs...During his two seasons at Notre Dame (1987-88), had one start as a freshman vs. Boston College and then saw action in 17 other games behind Rice.

Personal: Married (Courtney) with son Taylor and daughters Lauren and Cassidy...One of the most sought-after high school QBs after graduating from Wheaton (Ill.) North HS...Kent Graham was born on November 1, 1968 in Wheaton, Illinois.

GIANTS

TID BIT

Was one of three 1996 rookies to start in a game. The Giants opened the Detroit game in a special nickel package that included Hamilton to help hold the Lions passing game. Amani Toomer started at Dallas and Percy Ellsworth started vs. Minnesota.

Transactions: Originally a seventh round (214th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

NFL: A significant contributor in his first two seasons as a member of the nickel and dime packages and on special teams...Intense wrap-up tackler who is very physical when taking on blockers...Has a quick burst out of his backpedal and adjusts well to the receiver's move on deep routes...Also used as a return man at various times.

1997: Took over Thomas Randolph's spot in the nickel defense in the second half vs. Baltimore (9-14) and finished the season with 23 total tackles (21 solos), one interception, one forced fumble and 13 passes defended...Also added two special teams tackles...Was bothered by a knee injury following the Giants-Green Bay preseason game (8-22) and underwent arthroscopic surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery/Cornell Medical Center in New York City to repair a tear to the medial meniscus in his left knee on August 26...Missed the Philadelphia game (8-31) and the Jacksonville game (9-7) due to his injury...Made a key block during WR Amani Toomer's 44-yard punt return vs. New Orleans (9-28) that gave the Giants a first down at the Saints' 32-yard line to set up the Giants first touchdown...The Giants defense closed the gap to 14-8 in the fourth quarter vs. Tampa Bay (11-30) as a strong pass rush by Hamilton led to a safety when QB Trent Dilfer was called for grounding the ball in the end zone...Broke up a QB Bobby Hoying pass intended to WR Freddie Solomon at Philadelphia (12-7) when the Eagles attempted to convert on fourth-and-seven from the Giants 37-yard line in the third quarter...Intercepted a QB Jeff Hostetler pass vs. Washington (12-13) that deflected off RB Brian Mitchell at the Redskins 30-yard line and returned it 18 yards to the 12 with under two minutes remaining in the first half. The turnover set up a PK Brad Daluiso 28-yard field goal and a 20-3 Giants lead at the end of the first half. Hamilton suffered bruises to his ribs and knee during the return but did return to the game later in the second half. Robert Massey took Hamilton's spot in the nickel defense in his absence...Used in the nickel defense in the first half at Dallas (12-21) before spelling Jason Sehorn in the lineup when head coach Jim Fassel elected to go with the reserves in the second half.

1996: Finished his rookie campaign with 26 tackles (24 solos) and broke up three passes with one interception. Was second on the team with 12 special teams tackles...Took Amani Toomer's place as a kickoff returner after Toomer was lost for the season with a knee injury. Returned 19 kicks for 382 yards...The Giants started the game at Detroit (10-27) in the nickel defense with Hamilton in the starting lineup as the nickel back. Hamilton took over Thomas Randolph's nickel position because Randolph was forced into the starting lineup with the injury to Phillip Sparks (foot)...Had five kickoff returns for 115 yards at Carolina (11-10). Named Special Teams Player of the Game for his returns and his coverage on the kickoff and punt teams...Helped pin the Cowboys deep in their own territory on their first possession (11-24) when he chased a Mike Horan punt and batted it back from the goal line, allowing Scott Galyon to down the ball at the two-yard line. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff...Recorded his first NFL interception when he picked off a QB Dan Marino pass at the 38-yard line in the third quarter at Miami (12-8). The turnover set up Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal to give the Giants a 17-7 lead.

College: Little All-America first-team pick by The Poor Man's Guide To The NFL Draft...Associated Press and Football Gazette...All-Lone Star Conference first-team choice following his senior season in 1995...Started every game, recording 71 tackles (24 solos) with three stops for losses of 10 yards...Blocked four kicks and caused a fumble...Deflected 13 passes and picked off two others...Closed out his career with eight tackles (six solos), three pass deflections, two kickoff returns for 42 yards and blocked a 26-yard field goal attempt and a punt that set up the game-winning touchdown in a 10-7 victory over West Texas A&M...College Division I All-American first-team selection by the American Football Coaches Association, adding CoSIDA NCAA Division II All-American first-team honors and Little All-American third-team accolades from the Associated Press and Division II All-West Region first-team pick after junior year in 1994...Also first-team All-LSC choice and Co-Defensive Back of the Year...Led the team with 199 tackles (59 solos), four sacks for minus-16 yards and nine stops for losses of 32 yards...All-LSC honorable mention as a sophomore in 1993...NCAA Division II All-West Region second-team choice...Attended New Mexico Military Institute in 1992.

Personal: All-State and All-District selection as a defensive back and tailback at Alamogordo (N.M.) High...Added All-State honors as a centerfielder on the baseball team...Physical Education major...Named to ENMU's Athletic Honor Roll in the spring, 1994...4.6 in the 40-yard dash...Son of Paulette and Gordon Hamilton...Has a four-year old child, Jordin...Born November 5, 1974...Hometown is Alamogordo, New Mexico.

Was an outstanding Division I basketball prospect coming out of Heritage HS in Lynchburg, Va. where he averaged 26 ppg as a senior.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (99th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: Moved from end to tackle before the start of the 1995 season after the Giants acquired DE Robert Harris from the Minnesota Vikings...In 1996 switched from left tackle to right tackle due to injuries along the defensive line in training camp...In 1993, stepped into the starting lineup at end before making the switch inside...Has displayed pass rushing ability during his career.

1997: Part of a defensive line that helped contribute to a second place finish in the NFC against the run at 90.7 yards per game...Registered his highest sack total since the 1993 season with eight sacks...Started all 16 regular season games and the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) at right defensive tackle...Finished with 57 total tackles (40 solos), eight sacks, two forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and three passes defended...Dropped QB Ty Detmer for a four-yard sack on a second-and-two play in the second quarter vs. Philadelphia (8-31). Also against the Eagles, recovered the ball for the Giants following a QB Rodney Peete fumble that was caused on a three-yard sack by DE Chad Bratzke. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball for its performance against Philadelphia...Put the Giants in position for their first touchdown when he forced QB Steve Matthews to fumble on a three-yard sack at Jacksonville (9-7), allowing LB Marcus Buckley to recover at the Jaguars 27-yard line. The Giants reached the four-yard line where RB Tiki Barber ran up the middle for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead...Concluded a strong defensive effort by the Giants in the first quarter vs. Baltimore (9-14), an effort that saw them stop the Ravens on three consecutive plays behind the line of scrimmage, with a 13-yard sack of QB Vinny Testaverde...Joined with LB Doug Colman to stop Rams RB Lawrence Phillips for no gain in the first quarter at St. Louis (9-21) when the Rams elected to go for the first down on fourth-and-one. Sacked Rams QB Tony Banks for a ten-yard loss early in the second quarter...Ended a Saints drive at the 45-yard line vs. New Orleans (9-28) when he recovered a QB Heath Shuler fumbled snap from center in the third quarter...Was relieved by Ray Agnew at various times in the game vs. Dallas (10-5) due to cramping from the heat...Combined with DE Michael Strahan on an eight-yard sack of Cardinals QB Stoney Case at Arizona (10-12) in the fourth quarter...The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff at Detroit (10-19) after limiting Pro Bowl RB Barry Sanders to just 25 yards rushing in the second half after Sanders gained 80 yards in the first half...Combined with Bratzke on an eight-yard sack of QB Jeff Blake vs. Cincinnati (10-26) on a third down play to end a Bengals drive in the first quarter...Was ejected from the game in the second quarter vs. Arizona (11-16) for kicking Cardinals center Mike Devlin in retaliation to a cut block. Was replaced in the lineup by Agnew...Forced Redskins QB Jeff Hostetler to fumble on a DE Michael Strahan one-yard sack, allowing DT Robert Harris to recover for the Giants at the 40-yard line at Washington (11-23). Combined with Harris on a nine-yard sack of Hostetler to put Washington in a third-and-19 situation late in the third quarter. Had a third down sack of Hostetler for a loss of five yards late in the fourth quarter. Stopped Redskins RB Terry Allen for no gain on a fourth-and-one attempt from the Giants 41-yard line in the overtime period...Finished with a one-yard sack of Eagles QB Bobby Hoyer and half of a sack when he teamed with LB Jessie Armstead in the first quarter at Philadelphia (12-7). Also recovered a fumble for the Giants following a sack and forced fumble by LB Scott Galyon in the second quarter...Defensive line held the Redskins to just 45 yards on the ground and no first downs rushing vs. Washington (12-13). Teamed with LB Corey Widmer to stop Redskins RB Larry Bowie for no gain when the Redskins elected to go for the first down on fourth-and-one from the Giants 22-yard line in the fourth quarter...Sacked QB Randall Cunningham for a seven-yard loss in the second quarter vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game.

1996: Had 37 tackles (31 solos), including three sacks, as he made the move from left tackle to right tackle...Had a season-high eight tackles (six solos) vs. Washington (9-15), including a sack of QB Gus Frerotte on a third-and-long late in the first quarter...Injured his left knee at Washington (10-20) and underwent arthroscopic surgery on October 22 to remove torn cartilage. Returned to action vs. Arizona (11-3) just 12 days after surgery. Missed the Detroit (10-27) game due to his injury...Suffered a compound dislocation of his left thumb in the first quarter at Carolina (11-10). Had a corrective procedure to repair the tendon immediately after the game at Charlotte Memorial Hospital...Played with protective padding on his thumb at Arizona (11-17) and showed no signs of any problems...Led the defensive line with four solo tackles, including a six-yard sack of QB Dan Marino on a second down play in the third quarter to force the Dolphins into a third-and-12 situation at Miami (12-8). On the next play, Conrad Hamilton intercepted Marino to help set up a Giants field goal. Former head coach Dan Reeves said that the Dolphins game was Hamilton's best of the 1996 season...Sprained his right shoulder in the second half vs. New Orleans (12-15) and was not able to play in the season-finale against New England (12-21).

1995: Successfully switched from end to tackle and started 14 games, finishing with 42 tackles, including two sacks, three fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and four passes defended...At Kansas City (9-10), Hamilton chugged 87 yards with a Steve Bono fumble that was caused by a five-yard sack by Robert Harris at the Giants five-yard line. Hamilton was stripped of the ball at the Kansas City one-yard line and S Tito Wooten recovered for the touchdown to give the Giants a 17-3 lead...Recovered a fumble at the 30-yard line after Michael Strahan sacked and stripped Dave Krieg of the ball vs. Arizona (10-8). In overtime, Mike Croel forced Krieg to fumble on a sack and Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 38-yard line...Recorded his first sack since 12-11-94 vs. Cincinnati when he dropped Rick Mirer for a three-yard loss early in the first quarter at Seattle (11-5)...Missed the Chicago game (11-26) and Arizona game (11-30) due to a bulging lumbar disc that he suffered at Philadelphia (11-19)...Returned to the starting lineup at Washington (12-10) and dropped QB Heath Shuler for an eight-yard sack.

1994: Started 15 games...Was inactive at Washington (11-27) due to a sore knee...His 6.5 sacks on the season tied for team-lead with DT Erik Howard...Recorded the fourth two-sack game of his career at Arizona (9-11) and was awarded a game ball for his performance...Recovered a fumble vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) at the Steelers 26-yard line that set up PK Brad Daluiso's 49-yard FG...Also recovered a fumble at Cleveland (12-4) on the Browns 17-yard line to put the Giants in position for a FG in their 16-13 victory.

1993: Led team and tied for 6th in the NFC with 11.5 sacks...Finished with 51 total tackles...Had four games of two or more sacks: 3 vs. Tampa Bay (9-12), 2 at Dallas (11-7), 2 vs. Dallas (1-2) and 2 vs. Minnesota (1-9) in the NFC Wild Card game...Was the Giants Defensive MVP in victories vs. Phoenix (11-28), at Miami (12-5) and at New Orleans (12-20)...Awarded game balls for efforts vs. Tampa Bay (9-12) and at Miami (12-5)...Recorded a safety in Miami game when he sacked Dolphins QB Steve DeBerg in the end zone to give the Giants a 19-7 advantage with 5:19 left in the game.

GIANTS TID BIT

He was recruited by Miami, Auburn and Michigan after his senior year of high school but ended up at Southern after sitting out his first two years. Enjoys reading the Bible and spending time with his wife when he is away from football.

Transactions: Originally a second round (39th pick overall) draft choice by Minnesota in 1992. Signed by the Giants as a restricted free agent from Minnesota on March 20, 1995.

NFL: Became the first Giants defensive tackle ever to produce a double-digit sack total when he finished the 1997 season with 10...Moved from end to tackle during training camp in 1996...Stepped into the starting role for the first time in his career in 1995 after spending three seasons as a reserve defensive lineman with the Minnesota Vikings...In three years with the Vikings, Harris played in 34 games, including one start.

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and the postseason game and had his best statistical season to date with 60 total tackles (38 solos), including a single-season career-high mark of 10 sacks...Also added one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries...With his 10 sacks and DE Michael Strahan's 14 sacks, the Giants finished with two players with double-digit sack totals for the first time since 1986 when LB Lawrence Taylor had 20.5 and DE Leonard Marshall finished with 12...Combined with Strahan on a five-yard sack of Eagles QB Ty Detmer on third-and-seven vs. Philadelphia (8-31) to end an Eagles drive in the third quarter. Sacked backup QB Rodney Peete for a three-yard loss on the Eagles first offensive drive in the fourth quarter. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for its performance against the Eagles...Dropped QB Tony Banks for a six-yard sack at St. Louis (9-21)...Had a seven-yard sack of QB Troy Aikman vs. Dallas (10-5) on a third down play in the fourth quarter that pinned the Cowboys at their own 12-yard line. The Giants fielded the ensuing punt and returned it 37 yards to the Dallas 33-yard line, setting up a drive that ended with FB Charles Way's three-yard touchdown run for a 20-9 lead...Helped put the Giants in position for a score in the third quarter at Arizona (10-12) when he forced Cardinals QB Stoney Case to fumble on a sack that DE Chad Bratzke recovered for the Giants at their own 36-yard line. QB Danny Kanell fired a 12-yard pass and a 47-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway to move to the nine-yard line before connecting with WR David Patten for an eight-yard touchdown and a 13-6 lead. Play helped hold the Cardinals to just 27 yards rushing...Finished with five total tackles (3 solos), two sacks and a fumble recovery at Detroit (10-19). Had a ten-yard sack of QB Scott Mitchell on a third down play to end the Lions first drive of the game. Recorded his second sack when he dropped Mitchell in the fourth quarter for a six-yard loss. Ended a Lions drive at the Giants 28-yard line in the first quarter when he recovered the loose football after Mitchell fumbled the snap from center. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball for holding Pro Bowl RB Barry Sanders to just 25 yards in the second half after surrendering 80 yards in the first half...Led the team with 10 total tackles (6 solos) at Tennessee (11-9)...Combined on two of the Giants eight sacks of QB Jake Plummer vs. Arizona (11-16). Joined with Strahan on two one-yard sacks of Plummer...Recovered QB Jeff Hostetler's fumble following a hit by DT Keith Hamilton in overtime at Washington (11-23) to give the Giants the ball at their own 40-yard line. Combined with Hamilton on a nine-yard sack of Hostetler to put the Redskins in a third-and-19 situation in the third quarter...Play of the defensive line vs. Washington (12-13) helped hold the Redskins to just 45 yards rushing. Sacked Hostetler for a six-yard loss in the second quarter to put Washington in a third-and-13 situation...On the first play of the game at Dallas (12-21), sacked Aikman for an eight-yard loss. Followed up the sack by stopping RB Emmitt Smith dead in his tracks for no gain on the game's second play.

1996: Made a successful move from end to left tackle and recorded 45 tackles (27 solos) and finished third on the team with 4.5 sacks. Also broke up four passes and forced a fumble...Helped the Giants defense set the tone early vs. Buffalo (9-1) when he sacked QB Jim Kelly and forced him to fumble the ball on the game's third play from scrimmage...Named Defensive MVP by the coaching staff vs. Minnesota (9-29). Finished the game with four tackles (two solos). Former head coach Dan Reeves said that Harris was extremely active up front and was involved in a lot of plays...Had three tackles (two solos), including one sack in the Giants victory over Dallas (11-24)...Combined with Ray Agnew to drop Patriots QB Drew Bledsoe for a ten-yard loss in the third quarter vs. New England (12-21).

1995: In his first season as a regular, started 15 games at left end after arriving from Minnesota as a restricted free agent...Had a career-high 5.0 sacks...Had a total of 41 tackles, along with two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and one pass defensed...At Kansas City (9-10), forced QB Steve Bono to fumble on a five-yard sack. Keith Hamilton recovered the ball and raced 87 yards before being stripped of the ball at the one-yard line. S Tito Wooten recovered the ball in the end zone to give the Giants a 17-3 lead with 10:56 left in regulation...Sacked QB Gus Frerotte for a nine-yard loss in the second quarter on a third down play that forced the Redskins to punt at Washington (10-29)...Recovered a Ricky Watters fumble on the Eagles opening drive at the Giants 40-yard line at Philadelphia (11-19). The Giants converted the turnover into a 46-yard touchdown pass for an early 7-0 lead...De-activated with a shoulder injury vs. San Diego (12-23).

1994: Received his first NFL start in the season-finale against San Francisco (12-26)...Also started at left end in Minnesota's 35-18 loss to Chicago in the NFC playoffs...Recorded 13 tackles and two sacks in 11 games for the Vikings.

1993: Played in all 16 games and one playoff game in 1993, primarily rotating at left end with Roy Barker...Had his only sack of the season and the first of his NFL career vs. Tampa Bay (10-10)...Also saw action in goal line situations and on field goal and extra point block teams.

Transactions: Originally a first round (7th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Is expected to make a full recovery from successful posterior spine stabilization surgery after suffering a neck injury in the second game of his rookie season...Reported to training camp on time and earned a starting position at wide receiver coming out of his first NFL camp.

1997: One of five rookies (Hilliard, RB Tiki Barber, C Derek Engler, S Sam Gaines and P Brad Maynard) in the starting lineup on opening day vs. Philadelphia (8-31). The last time that a first round draft choice was in the starting lineup for his first Giants game was in 1982 when RB Butch Woolfolk started. Made a fabulous 19-yard catch on third-and-17 to give the Giants a first down at the Eagles 22-yard line. Hilliard came streaking across the middle, made the catch and managed to hold onto the ball despite a big hit by Eagles S Tim Watson...Made a 23-yard sliding reception from QB Dave Bown at Jacksonville (9-7) to give the Giants a first down at the four-yard line and set up a Barber four-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Hilliard was forced to leave the game after a hit by Jaguars S Chris Hudson on the reception. He was diagnosed with a sprained interspinous ligament between the sixth and seventh vertebrae. Underwent successful posterior spine stabilization surgery on September 16 at The Hospital for Special Surgery/Cornell Medical Center. The procedure fused the sixth and seventh vertebrae...Placed on injured reserve for the remainder of the year on September 30...Started two games and finished with two receptions for 42 yards.

College: Tied with Reidel Anthony (1994-96), 1997 first round draft choice by Tampa Bay, for seventh on the school's career-record list with 126 catches...Only Carlos Alvarez (2563, 1969-71), Jack Jackson (2266, 1992-94) and Anthony (2274) gained more yards receiving in Gator annals than Hilliard's 2214...His 29 touchdown grabs tied Jackson for second on Florida's all-time record chart behind Chris Doering (31, 1992-95)...First-team All-Southeastern Conference choice as a junior in 1996 after finishing second on the team with 47 receptions for 900 yards (19.1 avg.) and 10 touchdowns...Torchred the Seminoles' secondary as he hauled in 7 passes for 150 yards with touchdowns of 9, 31 and 8 yards in a 52-20 thrashing of Florida State as the Gators won the national championship...All-American second-team choice by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft as a sophomore in 1995...Shared team Outstanding Wide Receiver Award honors with Chris Doering after finishing second on the team with 57 receptions for 1008 yards (17.7 avg.) and 15 touchdowns...His 57 grabs rank eighth on the team's season-record list and joined Doering (1045 in 1995), Carlos Alvarez (1329 in 1969) and Reidel Anthony (1293 in 1996) as the only Gators to ever gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season...Only Doering (17 in 1995) and Anthony (18 in 1996) had more touchdown catches in school annals...Made 7 catches for 125 yards and a 29-yard score in a 34-3 romp over Arkansas in the SEC Championship Game...Gained 100 yards with a 35-yard touchdown on 6 grabs vs. Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl...SEC All-Freshman Team choice by the Knoxville News-Sentinel in 1994...Appeared in 11 games, catching 22 passes for 306 yards (13.9 avg.) and four touchdowns...In his first game for the Gators, he came up with 5 receptions for 65 yards with 6 and 7-yard scores in a 70-21 trouncing of New Mexico State...Made 3 catches for 199 yards (fifth-highest total by a Gator in a bowl game) and a Sugar Bowl record 82-yard touchdown vs. Florida State.

Personal: Blue Chip Illustrated All-American second-team selection, adding All-District and Most Valuable Player honors during his senior year at Patterson High School (La.)...Rated the Southeast's top free safety prospect by Blue Chip...Also lettered as a wingback, quarterback and split end...Rushed for

When Jones was 11, he played organized football for the first time, as a RB and DE for a team called the Baby Vikings. He so thoroughly dominated his first game that the opposing coach pulled his team off the field.

Transactions: Originally a first round (5th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

NFL: Slowed by injuries during his second NFL season...Showed potential in action as a starter in two games when Chad Bratzke (knee/leg) was forced out due to injury late in the season...A training camp holdout and injuries combined to limit Jones' impact in his first NFL season...Saw the majority of his playing time in short yardage and goal line situations.

1997: Limited to just nine games due to a sprained knee early in the year and a left leg injury that required surgery late in the season...Finished with nine solo tackles...Replaced starter Chad Bratzke at right defensive end following Bratzke's knee/leg injury at Tennessee (11-9). Started vs. Arizona (11-16) and at Washington (11-23). Left the Redskins game in the second quarter with a severe bone bruise to the femur, as well as some loose bone. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on December 2 to treat the defect and was placed on injured reserve on December 11...Left the season-opener against Philadelphia (8-31) in the second quarter with a sprained left knee following a chop block by Eagles G Joe Panos and missed the game at Jacksonville (9-7) and vs. Baltimore (9-14)...Returned to action at St. Louis (9-21) and recorded his first tackle of the season when he stopped Rams FB Craig Heyward short of the first down on a second-and-three play in the second quarter...Injured his left knee during the team portion of the Wednesday practice prior to the game at Arizona (10-12) and was inactive against the Cardinals...Returned to action the following week at Detroit (10-19)...Replaced Bratzke when he left with his knee injury in the fourth quarter against the Oilers. Stopped QB Steve McNair at the line of scrimmage on a quarterback scramble up the middle. McNair fumbled on the play but was able to recover the loose football. Later in the game, penetrated through the Oilers offensive line and tackled RB Eddie George for a one-yard loss.

1996: Rookie production was limited by hamstring and eye problems and the development of Chad Bratzke...Finished with 12 tackles (six solos) as a backup at right end...Had his first tackle at Dallas (9-8)...Played the entire final drive at left defensive end in place of Michael Strahan, who bruised his ribs earlier in the game at Washington (10-20)...Saw most of the action at right end during the fourth quarter in place of Bratzke at Arizona (11-17).

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (130th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

NFL: Filled in for the injured Dave Brown (pectoral strain) and led the Giants to a victory over Dallas in Week Six of last season. Started the remainder of the season and finished with a 7-2-1 record as a starter...Worked his way from third-string to the backup position after six games of his rookie season in 1996...Shows great poise under pressure and the ability to throw on the move when forced out of the pocket.

1997: Began the season as the backup quarterback and holder on place-kicks...Entered the game vs. Dallas (10-5) in the second quarter after Dave Brown was forced to leave after aggravating a strained pectoral muscle that he originally injured against New Orleans (9-28). Rallied the Giants to a 20-17 victory by completing 10-of-17 passes for 101 yards.

Made his first start the next week at Arizona (10-12) and finished the season with a 7-2-1 record as a starter in leading the Giants to the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record...Completed 156 of 294 passes (53.1 percent) for 1,740 yards, 11 touchdowns and nine interceptions for a 70.7 passer rating...Saw his first action of the season at quarterback at St. Louis (9-21) for two offensive series after Brown was knocked out of the game with a mild concussion on the Giants first offensive play from scrimmage. Overthrew a pass to WR Amani Toomer on his first snap. Fumbled the ball on a sack by Rams T Bill Johnson on the next play, allowing St. Louis to recover on the Giants 47-yard line...In the Cowboys game, threw two long passes to WR Chris Calloway in the second half that led to pivotal pass interference penalties against CB Kevin Smith, aiding in Giants scoring drives...In his first NFL start, at Arizona, Kanell completed 13 of 28 passes for 198 yards with one touchdown and one interception. In the second quarter, he underthrew an out pass to WR Chris Calloway and had it intercepted by CB Aeneas Williams, who raced 30 yards for the touchdown. Overcame the blunder and a first half that saw him complete just eight of 21 pass attempts for 73 yards and directed the Giants on three second half touchdown drives. Made three big plays in the second half that turned the game in the Giants favor. First, he connected with Calloway for a 47-yard gain to give the Giants a first down at the Arizona 10-yard line. Two plays later, Kanell took his time in the pocket and completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to WR David Patten for a 13-6 Giants lead. Kanell made his third big play at the beginning of the fourth quarter, hooking up with Patten for a 34-yard gain and a Giants first down at the Cardinals eight-yard line to set up a RB Tyrone Wheatley touchdown run...Connected with Calloway for a 68-yard touchdown on the third play in overtime at Detroit (10-19) to lift the Giants to a 26-20 victory. The touchdown pass was the Giants longest offensive play since QB Phil Simms connected with WR Stephen Baker for an 80-yard touchdown pass at Washington (10-14-90). Threw two touchdown passes against the Lions...Improved to 3-0 as a starter vs. Cincinnati (10-26) by completing two key fourth quarter passes that set up Giants touchdowns in their 29-27 come-from-behind victory. Completed a 23-yard pass to Calloway on third-and-five to get the Giants to the Bengals one-yard line and in position for FB Charles Way's one-yard run that pushed the Giants to a 22-21 lead in the fourth quarter. Read WR Kevin Alexander's adjustment and completed a 40-yard pass down the left sideline to give the Giants a first down at the Cincinnati 28-yard line during the Giants last touchdown drive...Had the second two-touchdown day of his career vs. Arizona (11-16) with a 56-yard touchdown pass to WR Amani Toomer in the second quarter and a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Howard Cross in the fourth quarter. Took advantage of the wind to his back, read the Cardinals blitz and connected on a 56-yard touchdown pass to Toomer on a fade route down the right sideline to lift the Giants to a 10-0 first half lead. During the Giants go-ahead touchdown drive in the fourth quarter, Kanell connected twice with RB Tiki Barber and then with WR David Patten for 26 yards to reach the Arizona 20-yard line. The Giants reached the one where Kanell connected with TE Howard Cross in the back of the end zone for what proved to be the game-winning touchdown...Completed 20 of 37 pass attempts for 168 yards with one touchdown and one interception at Washington (11-23). Redskins CBs Darrell Green and Chris Dishman limited Kanell to just six completions to his wide receivers. The Redskins only score was set up after LB Ken Harvey caused Kanell to fumble on a blind-side sack in the first quarter. The Redskins recovered the ball at the Giants 26-yard line to set up a one-yard touchdown run by QB Gus Frerotte. Took his time in the pocket and fired a four-yard touchdown pass to Calloway on the Giants only touchdown drive of the game in the third quarter to even the score at 7-7...The Giants offense failed to capitalize on two first half interceptions vs. Tampa Bay (11-30) when Kanell handed the ball back to the Buccaneers with two interceptions of his own...Led the Giants to victory at Philadelphia (12-7) with three touchdown passes. Kanell threw touchdown passes of 11 yards to Barber, 40 yards to Patten and five yards to Calloway. It was the first three-touchdown passing game by a Giant since Phil Simms had three in the Giants 41-7 victory at Washington (10-10-93). Rebounded from an early miscue after he lost the grip of the football while attempting a pass early in the game. The play resulted in a fumble that was returned to the three-yard line and set up a RB Ricky Watters one-yard touchdown run. Fired two touchdown passes within a 1:02 span in the second quarter to help turn two Eagles turnovers into Giants touchdowns. Following a Giant fumble recovery at the 42-yard line, the Giants moved to the 11-yard line where Kanell avoided a strong rush from the Eagles and found Barber open in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass. The Eagles next offensive series also ended in a fumble at their own 40-yard line. Kanell threw a 40-yard touchdown pass on a play-action fake to Patten on the next play for a commanding 21-7 Giants lead. Kanell opened the third quarter with an interception that was returned 64 yards for a touchdown by Eagles S Brian Dawkins. He rebounded once again in the fourth quarter when he completed a 70-yard drive by rolling to his right under heavy pressure before finding Calloway in the corner of the end zone for a five-yard scoring strike...In the NFC East title-clinching game vs. Washington (12-13), converted three third downs with passes, including a seven-yard third down touchdown pass between two Redskins defenders to Calloway to cap a 13-play, 76-yard drive in the first quarter that gave the Giants a 17-0 lead...Made three key passes to give the Giants an early 10-0 first quarter lead at Dallas (12-21). On the Giants first possession, Kanell completed a 33-yard pass to Patten on third down to give the Giants a first down at the Dallas 16-yard line. PK Brad Daaluiso culminated the drive with a 28-yard field goal for a 3-0 Giants lead. Kanell completed a 41-yard pass to Calloway for a first down at the Dallas 20-yard line to get the Giants in position on their next scoring drive. Faced with third-and-11 from the Dallas 21-yard line, Calloway beat S Brock Marion and hooked up with Kanell in the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cowboys.

1996: Appeared in four games and completed 23 of 60 passes for 227 yards, one touchdown and one interception...Elevated to backup quarterback during the week prior to the game at Washington (10-20)...Was inactive as the team's third quarterback for the first six games of the season...Saw his first NFL action when he came in to run out the clock for three plays at the end of the game at Detroit (10-27)...Entered the game vs. Arizona (11-3) in the first quarter when starting QB Dave Brown was forced out of action with a bruised back and back spasms after being sacked by Cardinals DE Simeon Rice during the Giants second possession. Responded with a solid effort, completing 14 of 27 passes for 128 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. Escaped a heavy blitz, bootlegged right and threw a 24-yard touchdown strike to Thomas Lewis on the run to extend the Giants lead to 16-0 in the fourth quarter. Overcame a rough start as his first four passes were incomplete and his first NFL completion resulted in a three-yard loss on a shovel pass to Tyrone Wheatley...Replaced Brown in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia (12-1) and finished with four completions on 13 attempts for 47 yards. Had trouble passing in the rain and 25 MPH wind that gusts to 50 MPH...Replaced Brown at the end of the first half and in the second half vs. New Orleans (12-15). Struggled against the Saints secondary and pass rush, finishing five-of-20 for 52 yards with no touchdowns. Kanell was sacked five times by the Saints.

NFL: Veteran cornerback who has Pro Bowl experience following his selection in 1992 with the Cardinals...Has played for the New Orleans Saints, Phoenix Cardinals, Detroit Lions and the Jacksonville Jaguars...Has started 79 games in nine seasons.

1997: Signed with the Giants after being released by the Jaguars in training camp to provide veteran leadership...Saw action in nickel situations during the Giants first two games due injuries to CB Phillippi Sparks (illness) and CB Conrad Hamilton (knee)...Played in all 16 regular-season games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) and finished with eight solo tackles on defense and eight solo special teams tackles...Entered the game at cornerback in place of Jason Sehorn vs. Philadelphia (8-31) after Sehorn left for a series of plays in the second quarter with a bruised knee...With the return of Sparks and Hamilton to the lineup vs. Baltimore (9-14), Thomas Randolph was moved from the starting position to the nickel spot and Massey's playing time was reduced to special teams for the majority of the season...Came in at cornerback late in the game at Arizona (10-12) and finished with two solo tackles...Filled in for Hamilton in the nickel defense vs. Washington (12-13) after Hamilton left at the end of the first half and part of the third quarter with a bruised rib and knee...Entered the game in the nickel defense in the second half at Dallas (12-21) when the Giants reserves were called into action.

1996: Signed with the Jaguars as a free agent...Backed up both cornerback positions and played extensively in nickel and dime defenses and on special teams...Played in all 16 games, making two starts in extra-DB packages, the fewest starts of his eight-year career...Tied for fourth on the team with 14 tackles on special teams...Defensive statistics were 34 tackles (30 solo) and two passes defended...Made first start of the season at left cornerback in nickel alignment vs. Baltimore (11-10), finishing with a season-high seven tackles...Started in the dime alignment in the season-finale vs. Atlanta (12-22)...Played in the nickel and dime defenses in the first two playoff games, then started at defensive back in the goal-line defense in the AFC Championship game at New England (1-12)...Finished the postseason with eight tackles (five solo).

1995: Saw increased time as Detroit's nickel back the last 10 games of the season...Finished season with 50 tackles (40 solo) and three passes defended...Started season-opener and made two other starts during the year...Totaled a game-high 11 tackles (one off his career high) at Atlanta (11-5)...Made the first start of his career at strong safety vs. Green Bay (10-29), recording seven tackles.

1994: Came to the Lions as an unrestricted free agent from Arizona...Suffered an ankle injury in the season-opener that bothered him all season, but still started 15 games at right cornerback...Only missed start was the second game of the season...Led the Lions with four interceptions...Also had 72 tackles (57 solo) and six passes defended.

1993: Was a holdout during training camp and did not sign a new contract with Phoenix until September 24...Missed the first four weeks of the season (three games) due to the NFL's five-day letter rule and was granted a roster exemption until October 19...Started the final 10 games of the season...Recovered two fumbles and made 47 tackles (41 solo), with four passes defended...Also forced a fumble that was returned for a touchdown.

1992: Scored three touchdowns on interception returns, setting a Cardinals record and becoming only the 11th player in NFL history to return three for scores in the same season (the NFL record is four, held by three players)...Played in the Pro Bowl following the season...Led the team with five interceptions...Started his first game of the season vs. Washington (10-4) and returned two interceptions for touchdowns on consecutive fourth quarter possessions. His two interceptions for touchdowns tied the NFL single-game record held by 15 other players (he was the first player to accomplish the feat since Kansas City's Lloyd Burruss in 1986). Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors...Scored his third touchdown of the season on an interception return at Atlanta (11-15)...Intercepted passes in consecutive games at Washington (11-29) and vs. San Diego (12-6)...Sprained his knee at Indianapolis (12-20) and missed the season-finale...Had season totals of 40 tackles (32 solo), five interceptions and six passes defended.

1991: Suffered from viral hepatitis in the middle of the season but still played in 12 games...Finished the season with 22 tackles (13 solo), two passes defended and one fumble recovery...Made his first start as a Cardinal at Washington (9-15) at left cornerback, replacing an injured Aeneas Williams, and started the next week vs. Dallas at right cornerback in place of Lorenzo Lynch...Played the following week against New England, then checked himself into a hospital emergency room because of severe headaches. Was diagnosed with viral hepatitis and was placed on injured reserve from October 2-30...Came to the Cardinals in a trade from the Saints during training camp.

1990: Played in all 16 games for New Orleans, leading the defensive backs and finishing third on the team with 78 tackles (67 solo), ranking second on the team with 12 passes defended...Blocked a punt that resulted in a safety vs. Cleveland (10-14).

1989: Was one of only six NFL rookies to start all 16 games...Earned several All-Rookie team honors...Was the first Saints rookie to start all 16 games since George Rogers and Rickey Jackson in 1981...Intercepted five passes, which was second on the team and tied for the league lead among rookies...Led team with 18 passes defended and finished fourth with a still-career-high 87 tackles (79 solo)...Knocked down four passes in his NFL debut vs. Dallas (9-10)...Recorded his first career interception at Tampa Bay (9-24)...Intercepted two passes vs. the Rams (11-26)...Gained 54 yards after taking a handoff on a punt return reverse in the season-finale vs. Indianapolis (12-24).

College: Intercepted 19 passes during his collegiate career... Earned NCAA Division II All-America honors following his senior campaign...Played in the East-West Shrine game and in the Senior Bowl...Doubled as a receiver his junior season, catching five passes for 157 yards and one touchdown...Intercepted a school-record four passes in one game as a sophomore...Graduated in 1990 with a degree in history.

Personal: Married (Adrienne)...Attended Garinger High in Charlotte, North Carolina...Born Robert Lee Massey on February 17, 1967 in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Transactions: Originally a third round (95th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two third round selections by the Giants, in 1997.

NFL: Set a Giants record and an NFL rookie record with 111 punts during the regular season as a rookie...Will look to get more consistent during his second pro season...One of the finest long-distance punters in the annals of collegiate football, drawing comparisons to Ray Guy (Oakland Raiders, 1973-86).

1997: Played in all 16 games and in the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Averaged 40.8 yards on 111 punts with an NFL-leading 33 punts placed inside the opponents 20-yard line with 14 touchbacks...Established a new Giants and NFL rookie record with the 111 punts. The Giants old mark was 104 set in 1979 by Dave Jennings. The old NFL rookie mark was 108 by John Teltschik of Philadelphia in 1986...Averaged 45.4 yards on eight punts with two inside the 20-yard line and a long of 57 yards vs. Philadelphia (8-31)...The Ravens returned only one of his punts for zero yards vs. Baltimore (9-14) in an effort that saw him average 42.8 yards on five punts with a long of 57...The Rams fielded two short punts of 29 and 33 yards by Maynard and turned them into scoring drives in a 13-3 loss at St. Louis (9-21)...Did a good job vs. Dallas (10-5), limiting dangerous return man Deion Sanders to four punt returns for 16 yards with a long return of eight yards. Biggest contribution came on his last punt in the fourth quarter. Got off a long, high punt of 51 yards, which allowed the coverage unit enough time to stop a reverse on the return and trap the Cowboys inside their own territory with :48 left to play and the Giants holding a 20-17 lead. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against the Cowboys...His fourth quarter punt was blocked at Arizona (10-12), marking the first time in his football career, including high school and college, that he had a punt blocked. The Cardinals blocked the punt at the Giants 18-yard line. Two plays later, QB Stoney Case scored on a one-yard touchdown run to close the Giants lead to 27-13 with :53 remaining...Had good enough hang time at Detroit (10-19) to allow the coverage units to get down the field and limit the Lions to just 11 return yards...Three of his six punts pinned the Bengals inside their own 20-yard line vs. Cincinnati (10-26). Punting from the Bengals 36-yard line, Maynard got off a pooch kick that was aimed at the left corner of the end zone. The ball went out of bounds at the one-yard line, forcing the Bengals to start a drive deep in their own territory. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Bengals...Punted 13 times for a 41.3 average, two touchbacks, three inside the 20-yard line and a long of 57 yards at Washington (11-23). The 13 punts are the second-most ever by a Giant in a single game. Carl Kinschef set the club record with 14 at Detroit on November 7, 1943...Punting from his own 14 in the third quarter vs. Washington (12-13), Maynard nailed a 55-yard punt that was muffed by PR Brian Mitchell and recovered by WR David Patten at the Washington 31-yard line for a huge field position turnaround in favor of the Giants.

College: His 44.22-yard average per punt ranks third in NCAA Division 1-A annals (minimum 200 punts), topped only by Bill Smith of Mississippi (44.33 avg., 1983-86) and Ray Guy of Southern Mississippi (44.67 avg., 1970-72)...His 242 punts for 10,702 broke Ball State's all-time record of 202 kicks for 7799 yards by Mark O'Connell (1976-80)...Averaged at least 40.0 yards per punt in 32 of 32 games...1996: Consensus All-American selection, All-Mid American first-team pick and Most Valuable Player following his senior campaign in 1996...Punted 59 times for 2705 yards (45.85 avg.)...Averaged at least 40.0 yards per game, except in the season finale vs. Toledo...First-team All-American choice by Associated Press, United Press International, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, The Sporting News and Football News and All-MAC first-team pick as a junior in 1995...Led the nation with a 46.53-yard average on 66 punts for 3071 yards...His 46.53 yard average ranks sixth in Division 1-A season

Spent the offseason running a Big and Tall men's store and opening a designer shoe store in his hometown of Columbia, SC.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (167th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1991.

NFL: A regular in the lineup over the last five years...Originally moved into the starting lineup in 1993 after backing up Lawrence Taylor and Carl Banks during his first two NFL seasons.

1997: Started 13 of 14 games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) at strongside linebacker...Finished with 24 total tackles (14 solos), one sack, one forced fumble and three passes defended...Forced Eagles QB Rodney Peete to fumble on an eight-yard sack in the fourth quarter of the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31). Philadelphia recovered the loose football...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Baltimore (9-14) due to the Giants opening in the nickel defense...Left the game in the second quarter at Tennessee (11-9) with a severely sprained right ankle and missed games vs. Arizona (11-16) and at Washington (11-23). Was replaced in the starting lineup by Marcus Buckley...Returned to the starting lineup vs. Tampa Bay (11-30).

1996: Finished with 50 tackles (40 solos) from his strong side position...Had two sacks, both in the opener vs. Buffalo (9-1)...Also forced a fumble and broke up a pass...Had the third two-sack game of his career in the opener against the Bills. Marked the first time that he recorded a sack since the 1993 season...Saw the majority of his action at Detroit (10-27) in the fourth quarter along the defensive line where he worked all week in special blitz packages. Deflected a Don Majkowski pass following a hit by Chad Bratzke that allowed Ray Agnew to score on a 34-yard interception return for the Giants final points in a 35-7 victory.

1995: Was replaced then re-inserted in the starting lineup as he played in 14 games with nine starts...Finished the season with 25 tackles and four passes defended...Started the game vs. New Orleans (9-24) but play was limited due to the Saints pass-oriented offense. The coaching staff replaced Miller with Marcus Buckley to help with the pass coverage and contain the Saints passing game...Did not start due to the Giants opening with a nickel defense that replaced Miller with S Tito Wooten at San Francisco (10-1)... Replaced in the starting lineup by Marcus Buckley vs. Philadelphia (10-15) and did not see any action in the game...Entered the game at linebacker in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia (11-19) for the first time since being replaced in the starting lineup...Returned to the starting lineup at Arizona (11-30)...Played solidly in the final four games of the season as he recorded 17 tackles.

1994: Played in 15 games with 13 starts at the strongside linebacker spot...Was inactive vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) with a knee sprain he suffered at the Rams (10-16)...Equalled his career single-season high with two interceptions; he also had two interceptions in 1992 and 1993...Had 42 tackles on the year and broke up six passes...Intercepted a John Friesz pass vs. Washington (9-18) on the first play of the game to set up a Giants score...Intercepted a Chris Miller pass at the Rams (10-16) at the Giants eight-yard line...Recovered a fumble at Cleveland (12-4).

1993: Finished sixth on the team with 61 total tackles, second on the team with 6.5 sacks, first on the team with four forced fumbles, tied for first with two fumble recoveries and tied for third with six passes defended...Named team's Defensive MVP for his efforts at Washington (10-10) when he recorded his first interception of the year and the first two-sack performance of his career...Earned game balls and Defensive MVP honors vs. Philadelphia (10-17) when he had two sacks and a key interception and vs. Indianapolis (12-12) when he totaled six tackles, one sack and two forced fumbles as the Giants clinched a playoff spot with the victory.

1992: Played in all 16 games and started season's final seven games after Lawrence Taylor suffered his Achilles tendon injury vs. Green Bay (11-8)...Finished the season with 34 tackles, two sacks, three passes defended and two interceptions...Added six special teams tackles...Intercepted passes vs. Phoenix (10-11) and vs. Kansas City (12-19)...Recorded a sack vs. Philadelphia (11-22) and at Philadelphia (12-27).

1991: Played in all 16 games as a reserve linebacker and special teams player and started the first game of his NFL career vs. Houston (12-21)...Finished with six tackles and 2.5 sacks...Also had four tackles and a forced fumble on special teams.

College: Played defensive end and inside linebacker at South Carolina where he was honorable mention All-American and school's Rex Enright Captain's Cup winner as a senior...Career stats were 187 tackles, 10 sacks, 39 QB pressures, three forced fumbles and two interceptions.

Personal: Married (Lisa) with sons, Corey Jr. (C.J.) and Christian...All-America and All-State player at Pageland (S.C.) HS where he was Division MVP, team captain and had 225 career tackles and seven interceptions as his team compiled a 31-5 record...Also placekicked, hitting four of six FG attempts and all 25 PAT attempts...School record holder in shot put...Corey Miller was born on October 25, 1968 in Pageland, S.C.

Transactions: Originally a third round (66th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

NFL: Emerged as one the most pleasant success stories of the Giants 1997 season. Grew into the starting left tackle position and became one of the most consistent performers on the offensive line...Saw limited duty in his rookie season as a reserve and on the PAT and field goal units.

1997: Earned the starting left tackle position in training camp and started all 16 regular season games and the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Held his own against Eagles DE Mike Mamula in his first professional start in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31). Did not allow Mamula, who had five sacks against the Giants in 1996, any sacks...Offensive line coach John Matsko credited Oben with doing a fine job against DE Tony Brackens and DE Clyde Simmons at Jacksonville (9-7)...Blocking vs. New Orleans (9-28) helped RB Tyrone Wheatley gain 41 yards on the Giants final drive that killed the last 3:38 to seal the victory after the Giants were pinned at their own three-yard line...Offensive line allowed the Giants to generate 426 yards in total offense at Arizona (10-12), including 239 yards on the ground. Wheatley gained 103 yards on 22 carries, ending a Giants streak of 23 straight games without a 100-yard rushing performance. Was matched up against DE Simeon Rice, who was held without a sack. The entire offensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for its performance against the Cardinals...Helped the Giants ground game produce 201 yards, including a 114-yard rushing performance by FB Charles Way, vs. Arizona (11-16)...In the postseason meeting with the Vikings, held DT John Randle, the 1997 NFL sack leader with 15.5, to one tackle and no sacks.

1996: Saw action in two games...Made his first regular-season appearance when he came in at right tackle in place of starter Scott Gragg in the fourth quarter after Gragg left with a sprained ankle at Philadelphia (12-1)...Only other appearance was at Miami (12-8). Only action in that game was on the extra point and field goal units...Was inactive for eight games and dressed but did not play in six games.

Was not drafted out of Western Carolina in 1995 and spent time working in the landscaping business, as an electrician and hauling 75-pound cases in a coffee bean factory until joining the Albany Firebirds of the Arena Football League.

Transactions: Originally signed by the Giants as a free agent on March 24, 1997. Waived by the Giants on August 24, 1997. Signed to the Giants practice squad on August 25, 1997. Signed to the Giants active roster on August 27, 1997.

NFL: A former Arena League wide receiver for the Albany Firebirds who made the Giants team as a free agent...Following injuries to Ike Hilliard (neck) and Thomas Lewis (toe), split time with Kevin Alexander before earning the starting wide receiver position for the last three regular season games...Also used as a return man on kickoffs.

1997: Played in all 16 games with three starting assignments...Caught 13 passes for 226 yards with two touchdowns, including a 40-yard touchdown pass at Philadelphia (12-7)...Returned eight kickoffs for 123 yards. Was replaced as the deep man on kickoffs at Arizona (10-12) so he could concentrate on taking reps at wide receiver... Patten took over for WR Thomas Lewis (toe) as the deep man on kickoffs in the second half at St. Louis (9-21)...Made an impact on special teams vs. Philadelphia (8-31) when he finished with three tackles as a gunner on the punt team. The last tackle may have prevented a touchdown. With the score 24-17, Eagles PR Mary Seay fielded a punt at the Philadelphia 12-yard line and raced 42 yards to the Giants 46-yard line before being tackled by Patten...Saw his first regular-season action from the line of scrimmage as the third wide receiver against the Rams after Lewis left the game in the second half with a toe injury. Kevin Alexander, who was the third receiver, was forced to move into the regular two-wideout role with the loss of Lewis, also assumed Lewis' position as the deep man on the kickoffs...After the Cowboys scored late in the game to make the score 20-17 vs. Dallas (10-5), Patten muffed the ensuing kickoff inside the Giants 10-yard line, but RB Tyrone Wheatley recovered for the Giants at their own 14-yard line. Redeemed himself as the gunner on the punt team when he flung himself at Deion Sanders and in the process tripped up Kevin Mathis who had taken a handoff on a reverse, trapping the Cowboys at their own 36-yard line with :48 left to play...Started splitting time with Alexander at wide receiver at Arizona (10-12). Finished with a team-high three receptions for 66 yards. His first NFL reception resulted in a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Danny Kanell for a 13-6 third quarter lead. Hooked up with Kanell on a short pattern that resulted in a 34-yard gain in the fourth quarter when he shrugged off Cardinals CB Tom Knight to give the Giants a first down at the eight-yard line to set up a Giants touchdown for a 20-6 Giants advantage...Had one solo special teams tackle at Detroit (10-19) following a third quarter PK Brad Daluiso kickoff when KR Glyn Milburn broke into the open field for a 36-yard gain before Patten made a touchdown-saving tackle...Drew a pass interference call vs. Cincinnati (10-26) against Bengals CB Tito Paul on a pass route early in the second quarter. The penalty gave the Giants a first down at the Cincinnati one-yard line to set up a Giants touchdown and a 10-7 lead...Caught a 26-yard pass from Kanell that gave the Giants a first down at the Cardinals 20-yard line during the game-winning touchdown drive in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (11-16)...Made his first NFL start when he was inserted into the starting lineup in place of Alexander at Philadelphia (12-7). Finished with three receptions for 54 yards, including a 40-yard touchdown pass from Kanell in the second quarter...Recovered a Brian Mitchell muffed punt vs. Washington (12-13) at the Redskins 31-yard line in the third quarter...Had five receptions for 86 yards vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game.

College: Played with the Albany Firebirds of the Arena Football League in 1996 where he was used as a defensive back and as a wide receiver...Four-year letterman at Western Carolina...Finished collegiate career tied for ninth on school's career touchdown pass reception list with 14...As a senior in 1995 was named All-Southern Conference and ranked among the nation's top ten receivers with 59 catches (No. 8) for 881 yards (No. 9)...Led the conference in receiving (5.9 per game) and receiving yards (88.7 yards per game)...Ranked sixth in the Southern Conference with 3.6 receptions per game as a junior in 1994.

Personal: Married (Galena) with son, Daquan Lamar (2-10-98)...Born August 19, 1974 in Hopkins, South Carolina.

Signed by Dallas off the Cincinnati practice squad on November 1, 1994. Waived by Dallas on August 27, 1995. Signed by the Giants as a free agent on August 31, 1995.

NFL: Was slated to compete for Brian Williams' (eye) job at center but was held back by a knee injury in training camp and lost out to rookie Derek Engler and Lance Scott when he returned...Saw the first action of his career in 1996 after failing to get playing time in his first two pro seasons...Young offensive lineman that will provide the Giants with needed depth...Is capable of playing tackle, guard and center.

1997: Saw action in five games, mostly on the field goal and extra point units...Saw his first action from the line of scrimmage in the second half at Dallas (12-21) when he replaced Ron Stone at right guard when head coach Jim Fassel elected to use the reserves in the second half...Dressed but did not play in 11 games...Was scheduled to battle for Brian Williams' job at center after he suffered his eye injury but suffered a tear to the lateral meniscus in his right knee. Returned to action after missing the first three preseason games and head coach Jim Fassel did not want to disrupt the offensive line continuity that had rookie Derek Engler at center. When Engler went down in the fifth game of the season with an ankle injury, he was replaced by Lance Scott.

1996: Appeared in eight games on the field goal and extra point units...Was inactive for eight games...Played in his first NFL game in the season-opener vs. Buffalo (9-1)...Saw his first NFL action from the line of scrimmage at Washington (10-20) when he replaced right tackle Scott Gragg for one play in the fourth quarter after Gragg was shaken up. Came in as an eligible receiver vs. Arizona (11-3) so the Giants could have an extra lineman when they were pinned at their own two-yard line late in the second quarter. Entered the game at left tackle in place of Gragg for three plays in the third quarter when Gragg left with a dislocated finger...Underwent surgery on December 12 to insert a screw in the fractured and dislocated middle finger in his right hand. Reynolds suffered the injury during practice prior to the Miami game (12-8) and missed the Giants final three games.

1995: Signed as a free agent by the Giants just prior to the start of the regular season...Was inactive for 12 games and did not play in the four games for which he dressed.

1994: Signed by the Cowboys off the Bengals practice squad after Erik Williams suffered a season-ending knee injury in an automobile accident...Reynolds was active, but did not play, against Washington (11-20).

College: A walk-on at Nevada-Las Vegas, Reynolds redshirted as a freshman in 1989 before seeing action in eight games in 1990 as a reserve...He was an honorable mention All-Big West Conference selection his sophomore year after starting 10 games, missing the season finale with a lower back bruise...He started 21 games at right tackle over his final two seasons and left school as one of the top tackles in UNLV history.

Personal: Married (Kelli) with son Jerry Don (5-29-97)...Raised in Fort Thomas, Ky...Was a Sportsman of the Year honoree at Highlands HS...Brother Rob played tackle for the University of Kentucky and at Murray State, and his other brother John was the 1993 team MVP as a safety at Highlands HS and plays baseball at Northern Kentucky University.

Transactions: Originally a second round (59th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two second round selections by the Giants, in 1994.

NFL: Turned in an outstanding season that warranted Pro Bowl consideration in his second season as a starter...Due in part to Thomas Randolph's limited participation in training camp, Sehorn moved into the starting right cornerback spot and proved to be the team's most improved player...Played both safety and cornerback during his first two seasons with the Giants...A fine athlete who only played two seasons of major college football before entering the NFL.

1997: Turned in his second straight solid season as he set a single-season personal best with six interceptions, the most by a Giant since Everson Walls had six in 1990...Started all 16 regular season games and the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) and finished third on the team with 86 total tackles (75 solos), six interceptions, 1.5 sacks, one fumble recovery and 20 passes defended...Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the NFL following his performance vs. Arizona (11-6) and vs. Washington (12-13). For his play at Philadelphia (12-7), vs. Washington and at Dallas (12-21), Sehorn was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month by the NFL for December. During that stretch, Sehorn held Eagles WR Irving Fryar to just two catches, shut out Redskins WR Michael Westbrook and returned an interception 35 yards for a touchdown, and shut out Cowboys WR Michael Irvin before being pulled to rest in the second half...Was credited with a two-yard sack of QB Rodney Peete in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31)...Blitzed into the Ravens backfield and stopped RB Jay Graham for a two-yard loss vs. Baltimore (9-14)...Came in on a blitz vs. New Orleans (9-28) and chased down RB Mario Bates across the field for a two-yard loss. Set a single-game personal-high with 12 total tackles against the Saints. Lined up as the deep man in the offensive formation against the Saints when QB Dave Brown knelt down on the final three plays to run out the clock...QB Troy Aikman tried to drill a pass to WR Michael Irvin in the third quarter vs. Dallas (10-5), but Irvin was covered by Sehorn to the outside, allowing S Tito Wooten to come from the inside and intercept the ball and race 61 yards for a touchdown that put the Giants in front, 20-9...Recorded his first interception of the season at Arizona (10-12) when he picked off a QB Stoney Case pass in the end zone to seal the Giants 27-13 victory with :18 left to play...After the Bengals closed the score to 29-27 vs. Cincinnati (10-26), the Giants needed a big-time play by Sehorn on a potential game-tying two-point attempt to seal the victory. Bengals QB Jeff Blake scored on a four-yard run on the quarterback keeper to bring Cincinnati within two points with 1:31 left in regulation. Blake attempted to complete a pass to WR Carl Pickens in the end zone on the two-point play but Sehorn shadowed Pickens on a fade pattern, leaped in front and came away with an interception to seal the Giants victory...Awarded a Game Ball for his performance vs. Arizona (11-16) that included 10 solo tackles, four passes defended, one interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Helped limit the Cardinals to just 49 yards rushing by taking away the outside run. Four times Sehorn tackled Cardinals runners after a short gain or for a loss. Set up the Giants first field goal when he blitzed from his right cornerback spot and knocked the ball free from RB Leeland McElroy at the Cardinals 44-yard line. The strip and recovery set up a 33-yard field goal in the second quarter. Blitzed on a third-down play in the second quarter and combined with DE Michael Strahan on an eight-yard sack of QB Jake Plummer. With the Giants clinging to a 16-10 lead and Arizona driving for a potential go-ahead score, Sehorn intercepted Plummer at the 39-yard line and raced 41 yards to the Cardinals 20-yard line to get in position for the game-clinching field goal. Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his role against the Cardinals...Ended the Redskins first drive in overtime at Washington (11-23) when he stepped in front of WR Henry Ellard and intercepted a QB Jeff Hostetler pass...Ended a Buccaneers scoring threat in the second quarter vs. Tampa Bay (11-30) when he deflected a QB Trent Dilfer pass intended for WR Robb Thomas that was intercepted by Wooten at the 19-yard line and returned 53 yards to the Tampa Bay 28-yard line to set up a field goal...Finished with his first two-interception game vs. Washington (12-23). Intercepted Hostetler in the end zone at the end of the first half. In the fourth quarter, was in perfect position to intercept a Hostetler pass intended to WR Michael Westbrook in the right sideline. Returned the interception 35 yards for a touchdown to seal the Giants 30-10 victory. Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the National Football League...Stepped in front of Irvin at Dallas (12-21) and recorded his sixth interception of the season when he picked off Aikman at the Giants 35-yard line in the second quarter. In the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27), Vikings QB Randall Cunningham attempted to go deep to WR Cris Carter in the second quarter. Sehorn was on the coverage and leaped in front of Carter for an interception that he returned 36 yards to the Minnesota 47-yard line to set up a Giants field goal.

1996: Moved into the starting right cornerback position, and along with, LB Jessie Armstead, was the team's most effective defensive player...Led the team with five interceptions, including one for a touchdown vs. New England (12-21), and 12 passes defended...Finished third on the team with 97 tackles (83 solos), including three sacks...Tied for third on team with nine special teams tackles...Made his first career start vs. Buffalo (9-1). Came on a third-down blitz during Buffalo's second offensive series and forced QB Jim Kelly to fumble on a 15-yard sack. Kelly threw the ball at Sehorn's side 11 times but completed just four of those passes...Recorded his first interception when he picked off a QB Gus Frerotte pass in the third quarter vs. Washington (9-15)...Led the team with nine total tackles (seven solos) at the Jets (9-22)...Came on a third down blitz in the third quarter vs. Minnesota (9-29) and forced Vikings QB Warren Moon to fumble on a sack. Also sacked Moon in the second quarter to finish the game with two sacks. Totaled six solo tackles. Earned a game ball from the Giants coaching staff for his performance...Led the team with a career-high 11 total tackles (eight solos) vs. Philadelphia (10-13)...Moved from the right corner to the left side due to the injury to Phillippi Sparks (foot) at Detroit (10-27). Matched up well against Lions WR Herman Moore, limiting him to just one reception for five yards in the first half and just four catches for 49 yards in the game...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Dallas (11-24) due to the Giants using an extra linebacker since they had the Cowboys pinned inside their own five-yard line to start the game. Led the secondary with eight total tackles, one interception and one forced fumble. Stepped in front of WR Michael Irvin and intercepted a Troy Aikman pass at the nine-yard line at the end of the first quarter. Returned the ball 24 yards to give the Giants a first down at the 33-yard line. The Giants converted the turnover into a 45-yard field goal. Ended a Cowboys drive in the fourth quarter when he forced Dallas FB Daryl Johnston to fumble and Jessie Armstead recovered...Intercepted Eagles QB Ty Detmer's pass intended for FB Kevin Turner in the end zone to end a drive in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia (12-1)...Led the team with seven tackles (five solos) and two passes defended at Miami (12-8). Named Defensive Player of the Game...Recorded his fourth interception of the season when he picked off a QB Jim Everett pass in the first quarter vs. New Orleans (12-15)...The Giants started their march to a 22-0 halftime lead vs. New England (12-21) when QB Drew Bledsoe, under pressure from Sehorn and Michael Strahan, intentionally grounded a ball in the end zone for a safety. Improved his team-leading interception total to five when he stepped in front of WR Terry Glenn to intercept a Bledsoe pass. Sehorn scored his first career touchdown on a 23-yard return to give the Giants a 22-0 lead. Led the team with nine total tackles (eight solos).

1995: Playing time increased in the nickel and dime situations as he appeared in 14 games...Finished with six tackles on defense and tied for fourth on the team with eight special teams tackles...Missed the Kansas City (9-17) and Green Bay (9-24) games due to a foot injury that bothered him for much of the season...Recorded the first two defensive tackles of his career vs. Oakland (11-12) as he lined up as part of the nickel defense...Helped spring Thomas Lewis on his 91-yard kickoff return for a touchdown vs. Washington (12-10).

1994: Played in eight games and was inactive for eight games...Worked at both safety and cornerback during his first professional season...Finished with one special teams tackle on the kickoff team at Cleveland (12-4).

College: Played both safety and cornerback during his two-year career at USC...Had seven interceptions as a senior...Also returned punts...Transferred to USC after a record-setting career as a receiver and tailback at Shasta Community College (Redding, Calif.).

Personal: Married (Whitney)...Only played football in his senior year at Mt. Shasta (Calif.) HS as he earned league MVP honors...Standout performer on basketball and track teams...Although he did not play high school or Little League baseball, spent two seasons in the minor leagues with the Chicago Cubs organization...Majored in Communications at USC...Born on April 15, 1971 in Sacramento, Calif.

A McDonald's high school All-America basketball player at Maryvale (Phoenix) HS when he averaged 15 ppg as a senior.

Transactions: Originally a second round (41st pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: Extremely physical corner who has been in the Giants starting lineup since the 1993 season...Has established himself as one of the top cover men in the NFL with five interceptions in two of the last three seasons...Missed 16 games over his first three seasons due to injury.

1997: Started 13 games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Missed the Giants first two games after being diagnosed with viral hepatitis of the non-infectious type following the preseason-finale against Green Bay (8-22)...Also missed the regular-season finale at Dallas (12-21) after suffering a mild lateral sprain of his left knee in the second quarter vs. Washington (12-21). Thomas Randolph replaced Sparks in the starting lineup in the first two games and at Dallas...Ended the year with 74 total tackles (64 solos), five interceptions, one sack, one forced fumble and 15 passes defended. The five interceptions equalled his career-high of five set in 1995...Returned to the starting lineup at left cornerback vs. Baltimore (9-14)...Broke up a QB Tony Banks pass intended for WR Torrance Small in the second quarter at St. Louis (9-21)...On the first drive of the game vs. Dallas (10-5), RB Emmitt Smith broke free for a 20-yard gain with a clear path to the end zone. Sparks was covering his man on the outside but broke free and ran Smith down from across the field with a touchdown-saving tackle. Forced WR Anthony Miller to fumble after catching a short pass from QB Troy Aikman. Miller was able to recover his own fumble. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cowboys...Helped hold WR Herman Moore to under 100 yards (7-88) at Detroit (10-19), snapping a Moore streak of five straight games with at least 100 yards receiving...Recorded his first interception of the season vs. Cincinnati (10-26) when he stepped in front of Bengals WR James Hixon and picked off QB Jeff Blake's pass at the Giants 30-yard line...Had the second two-interception game of his career at Washington (11-23) with two picks off Redskins QB Jeff Hostetler. Set up the Giants only touchdown when he intercepted Hostetler to end the Redskins first drive in the second half at the 46-yard line. In overtime, Sparks ended another Redskins drive when he fought off WR Henry Ellard to pick off another Hostetler pass at the Giants 49-yard line. Held WR Michael Westbrook one yard short of the first down marker to make the Redskins attempt a failed fourth down conversion in the overtime period. Recorded the first sack of his career when he stopped QB Gus Frerotte for a seven-yard loss at the end of the first quarter...Followed the Redskins game with another two-interception game vs. Tampa Bay (11-30). Play helped end the Buccaneers first three drives. Ended the Bucs first drive when he made a leaping play to break up a third down QB Trent Dilfer pass intended to WR Robb Thomas in the first quarter. Sparks' first interception ended the Bucs next possession when he picked off a Dilfer pass that deflected off the hands of WR Karl Williams and he returned it 68 yards down the left sideline to the Buccaneers 27-yard line. Ended the Bucs following possession after he intercepted Dilfer at the Giants 32-yard line...Came in on a corner blitz at Philadelphia (12-7) that forced Eagles QB Bobby Hoyer to hurry a pass that was intercepted by LB Jessie Armstead at the Eagles 38-yard line...Sprained his knee in the second quarter vs. Washington (12-13) and missed the final game at Dallas (12-21)...Returned to the starting lineup in the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27).

1996: Finished seventh on the team with 61 tackles (52 solos) and three interceptions...Tied for second on the team with nine passes defended...Also forced a fumble...Set up the Giants only points of the second half when he leaped to intercept QB Jim Kelly at the Bills 33-yard line vs. Buffalo (9-1). The interception gave the Giants a first down at the 14-yard line with a 19-yard return...Limited Redskins WR Henry Ellard to just one reception for 16 yards vs. Washington (9-15)...Helped clinch the victory vs. Minnesota (9-29) by intercepting QB Warren Moon at the Giants four-yard line on Minnesota's final possession in the fourth quarter to preserve the Giants 15-10 win...The Eagles stayed away from Sparks' side, completing just one of the two passes thrown his way vs. Philadelphia (10-13)...Missed the Detroit (10-27) and Arizona (11-3) games after suffering a rupture of the plantar fascia in his left foot on the Wednesday prior to the Lions game...Returned to the starting lineup at Carolina (11-10)...In the third quarter of the Dallas game (11-24), Sparks caught Deion Sanders from behind and stripped him of the football at the four-yard line after a 41-yard catch-and-run from Troy Aikman. Sanders beat Sparks on a deep pattern, but Sparks stayed with the play and caused a fumble that Jesse Campbell recovered for the Giants. Marked the first forced fumble of Sparks' career...Ended a New England (12-21) drive at the end of the first half by intercepting QB Drew Bledsoe at the three-yard line to preserve the Giants 22-0 halftime lead.

1995: In his second season as a starter, started in all 16 games at left corner...Finished fourth on the team in tackles with 76, tied for first in interceptions with five and broke up a team-leading 16 passes...Set a personal single-game high with 10 tackles against the Chiefs (9-10). His previous best was nine tackles at Philadelphia (12-27-92)...Giants secondary did a great job of covering the Packers receivers as QB Brett Favre completed just four passes for 11 net yards in the second half at Green Bay (9-17)...Covered Jerry Rice most of the afternoon at San Francisco (10-1). Afterwards Rice remarked that it was the most physical game that he has ever played...Recorded his first interception of the year vs. Philadelphia (10-15) when he picked off a Randall Cunningham pass in the third quarter...Sparks intercepted QB Gus Frerotte deep in Redskins territory at Washington (10-29) to give the Giants a first down at the 16-yard line...Equalled his previous single-season high when he recorded his third interception of the season at Seattle (11-5) when he picked off a QB Rick Mirer pass at the Seattle 46-yard line with :53 left in the first half to help put the Giants in scoring position...Vs. Oakland (11-12), established a personal single-season high mark with his fourth interception as Sparks ended the only Raider scoring threat in the third quarter when he intercepted QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone...With 3:31 left to play and the Giants ahead, 20-18, at Dallas (12-17), Sparks intercepted QB Troy Aikman to kill a Dallas drive at the Giants 35-yard line...Served as a team captain during the 1995 season.

1994: Started all 11 games played...Missed five games due to groin strain he suffered in practice during the week prior to the Detroit game (10-30)...Still picked off a career-high three interceptions, including the first two-interception game of his career at Arizona (9-11) when he earned a game ball and was named Giants Defensive MVP...Finished sixth on the team with 47 tackles...Also broke up seven passes...Against Philadelphia (9-4), started his first game since tearing ligaments in his foot vs. Rams (9-19-93) and led team in tackles with eight (six solos)...His first interception at Arizona was on the game's second play and set up the Giants first score...Thwarted a Pittsburgh (10-23) scoring drive by intercepting a Neil O'Donnell pass in the end zone...Returned to starting lineup at left corner at Washington (11-27) after missing four games with the groin injury...Helped hold Dallas (12-24) to 112 yards passing in season-ending victory.

1993: Earned starting right cornerback job over incumbent Perry Williams in training camp but missed 11 games with torn ligaments in his foot...Started first three games of season at RCB before tearing ligaments in his foot vs. Rams (9-19) and missing the next 11 games...Returned to play in final two regular season games on special teams and in nickel situations...Finished the season with 11 tackles.

1992: Played in all 16 games as a nickel back and started the final two games of the season at left cornerback when Mark Collins was unable to play because of a rib injury...First NFL start came vs. Kansas City (12-19)...Finished rookie year with 30 tackles and eight passes defended, which tied for third on the team...Also had 12 special teams tackles...Had an interception vs. Seattle (10-25).

Despite not playing any organized football until his junior year of high school, Stone served as team captain his senior year. Spends a considerable amount of time working with inner-city youth.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (96th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two fourth round selections by Dallas, in 1993. Signed by the Giants as a restricted free agent from Dallas on March 8, 1996.

NFL: Enters his third season as the Giants starting right guard...A solid reserve and spot starter through his first three pro seasons, stepped into the regular lineup at right guard in his first season with the Giants and has become a fixture at the right guard position...Has played every offensive line position but center at some point in his career.

1997: Was in the starting lineup at right guard for all 16 regular season games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Blocking helped RB Tyrone Wheatley gain 41 yards on the final drive vs. New Orleans (9-28) to kill the last 3:38 of the game to preserve the Giants victory...Named Offensive MVP by the coaching staff for his effort vs. Dallas (10-5). Made a key block as FB Charles Way plowed over the right guard during a three-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to give the Giants a 20-9 lead...Helped the Giants offense generate 426 yards in total offense at Arizona (10-12), including 239 yards on the ground. Wheatley gained 103 yards on 33 carries, ending a Giants streak of 23 straight games without a 100-yard rusher. Wheatley read Stone's block during an eight-yard touchdown run off the right guard in the beginning of the fourth quarter. The entire offensive line was awarded game balls by the coaching staff for their performance against the Cardinals...Made a key block that allowed Way to break free for a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter vs. Washington (12-13) to put the Giants in front, 10-0.

1996: Started all 16 games at right guard...Helped the Giants control the ball and establish the running game against Minnesota (9-29). Blocking allowed the Giants to take 8:32 off the clock during their first scoring drive...Offensive line limited the Panthers to just one sack at Carolina (11-10). The Panthers entered the game as the NFL's leader in sacks...Named Offensive Lineman of the Game vs. Dallas (11-24) by the coaching staff for what former head coach Dan Reeves said was his best performance of the season...Play of the line allowed the Giants to control the ball for 36:28 and allowed the running game to gain 131 yards at Miami (12-8). The Giants ground game held the ball for 10:33 of the final quarter to seal the 17-7 victory.

1995: Played in all 16 games with one start...Earned his first start of the season vs. Arizona (9-24), replacing Erik Williams who was out with a strained left calf. Stone helped the Cowboys gain 195 yards rushing and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack to the Cardinals...Was used as the third tight end in short yardage and goal line situations throughout the season...Filled in at right tackle for Williams on a few snaps at Arizona (12-25)...Saw action at both right guard and left guard due to injuries to Larry Allen and Nate Newton vs. Washington (12-3)...Took over at right tackle temporarily for Erik Williams in first half vs. Philadelphia (11-6) and moved to left tackle in the fourth quarter to rest Mark Tuinei...Saw action in all three of the Cowboys postseason games, including the victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Super Bowl.

1994: Although Stone saw most of his action on field goal and extra point attempts, he did receive significant amount of playing time all along the offensive line, usually due to a fallen teammate...Saw fourth quarter action at left guard in place of Nate Newton at Washington (10-2) and against Arizona (10-9)...Played the entire second half at Arizona (10-23) after replacing Newton in the second quarter...Replaced Derek Kennard at right guard against the Giants (11-7) when Kennard suffered a sprained toe midway through the first quarter...Started his first professional game at left guard against Green Bay (1-8-95) in a divisional playoff game for the injured Newton. Also saw action at right tackle in that game for the injured Larry Allen...Filled in at right tackle in the fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1-15-95).

1993: Was active for four games, but did not play in any contests...De-activated for 12 weeks when the Cowboys dropped to 45 players on game day.

College: Made a smooth and rapid adjustment to right tackle on the offensive line his senior year at Boston College after making 68 tackles as a defensive lineman for the Eagles in 1990 and 1991...Anchored an offensive line that ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 233.5 passing yards per game and finished 10th in total offense with an average of 438.4 yards per game....As a junior, started in all 11 games at right defensive tackle and finished with 49 tackles.

Personal: Married (Roxane) with daughters Ronnie and Ronna...Did not play high school football until his junior year at West Roxbury (Mass.) High...Served as team captain and blocked three punts his senior year...Also started at forward on the basketball team, despite only playing as a senior...A sociology major at Boston College...Spent the summer of 1992 working with inner-city youth in the Big East Conference's "Athletes Care" program.

Serves as a spokesman for H.E.L.P. (Housing Enterprise for the Less Privileged), the nation's largest provider of housing and services for the homeless. Hosts homeless children at his football camp, conducts a self-esteem workshop and serves Thanksgiving dinner.

Transactions: Originally a second round (40th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: Key ingredient on the Giants defensive front, Strahan established himself as one of the top players in the NFL with his first Pro Bowl season...Turned in the best season of his career in 1997 with a personal-high of 14 sacks...Moved into the starting lineup in his second NFL season in 1994 after missing seven games as a rookie due to a foot injury.

1997: Set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14 sacks, the most by a Giants player since Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989...Strahan's previous career-high was the 7.5 sacks he had in 1995...Started all 16 regular season games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) at left defensive end...Finished with 69 total tackles (50 solos), 14 sacks, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and two passes defended...Named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad...Had 2.5 sacks in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31). Combined with DT Robert Harris for a five-yard sack of Eagles QB Ty Detmer on a third down play in the first quarter, dropped backup QB Rodney Peete for a six-yard loss in the third quarter and followed that play with a five-yard sack of Peete. Head coach Jim Fassel credited Strahan with doing an outstanding job of getting pressure on the Eagles quarterbacks. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball by the Giants coaching staff...Dominated on three consecutive plays in the fourth quarter vs. Baltimore (9-14). First, he hammered QB Vinny Testaverde so hard that the ball popped out and sailed three yards to a running back. Next, he dropped into coverage and stopped a pass play. Then, a strong pass rush by him forced Testaverde to hurry a pass for an incompleteness...Sacked QB Tony Banks for a six-yard loss on a third down play at St. Louis (9-21) to end a Rams drive in the fourth quarter...Had a two-yard sack of Saints QB Heath Shuler vs. New Orleans (9-28)...Named Defensive MVP for his performance at Arizona (10-12) that helped the team hold the Cardinals to just 27 yards on the ground. Sacked Cardinals QB Stoney Case on a third down play from the Giants 48-yard line, resulting in an eight-yard loss to the Cardinals own 44-yard line. Combined with DT Keith Hamilton for an eight-yard sack of Case later in the fourth quarter...Stopped RB Barry Sanders for no gain at Detroit (10-19) on a play late in the second quarter. Sacked QB Scott Mitchell on the next play after chasing him on a scramble out of the pocket...Forced QB Jeff Blake to fumble on a four-yard sack in the third quarter vs. Cincinnati (10-26)...Participated in five of the Giants eight sacks vs. Arizona (11-16). Combined on four sacks and registered one solo sack for a total of three. It was his best sack performance since he had three solo sacks at Green Bay (9-17-95). Finished with six total tackles, including the three sacks, for a combined loss of 11.5 yards. Combined with DT Robert Harris for a one-yard loss in the second quarter, joined with CB Jason Sehorn on an eight-yard sack on a third-down play later in the second quarter, shared a sack with LB Corey Widmer on a three-yard sack in the third quarter before teaming up again with Harris for a one-yard sack in the fourth quarter. Finally got a solo sack with under five minutes remaining...Added a four-yard sack of QB Jeff Hostetler in the fourth quarter at Washington (12-23) and had a one-yard sack of Hostetler in the overtime period. After Strahan wrapped up Hostetler for the sack in overtime, DT Keith Hamilton forced a fumble that Harris recovered for the Giants...Recovered a fumble at the Eagles 40-yard line at Philadelphia (12-7) following a sack and forced fumble by DE Bernard Holsey. The Giants turned the turnover into a touchdown for a 21-7 lead...Hit Redskins P Dan Turk the moment after he mishandled a snap in the first quarter vs. Washington (12-13), preventing him from recovering the ball and getting the punt off...Finished with seven total tackles (4 solos), including a nine-yard sack and a fumble recovery vs.

Minnesota (12-27) in the postseason. Recovered a QB Randall Cunningham fumble at the Vikings 46-yard line in the first quarter.

1996: Due to injuries along the defensive line during training camp, switched from right end to left end and responded by tying for the team lead with five sacks...Was sixth on the team with 63 tackles (54 solos)...Also forced a fumble and broke up three passes...Helped set the tone early in the game vs. Buffalo (9-1) when he combined with Chad Bratzke for a two-yard sack of QB Jim Kelly on the game's second play...Named Defensive Player of the Game at Jets (9-22) after finishing with two sacks, seven solo tackles and one pass defended. His second sack of QB Neil O'Donnell on fourth-and-four with under two minutes left to play helped end the Jets comeback chances in a 13-6 win...Recorded his team-leading fifth sack in the third quarter at Miami (12-8) when he dropped QB Dan Marino for a three-yard loss on a third-and-five situation...The Giants started their march to a 22-0 halftime lead over New England (12-21) when QB Drew Bledsoe, under a strong pass rush from Jason Sehorn and Strahan, intentionally grounded a ball in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter.

1995: Started 15 games in his second season as a regular and finished with 58 total tackles (48 solos), 7.5 sacks and three forced fumbles...Made his first career interception at Kansas City (9-10) when the Chiefs drove to the Giants three-yard line before Strahan intercepted QB Steve Bono in the end zone to secure the Giants 10-3 halftime lead...Recorded the first three-sack game of his career at Green Bay (9-17). All three of the sacks came in the second half when the Giants defensive line put constant pressure on the Packers, limiting them to just 36 total yards in the second half. Ended one Packers series with two consecutive sacks of Packers QB Brett Favre...Vs. Arizona (10-8), forced Dave Krieg to fumble on an eight-yard sack and Keith Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 30-yard line. Provided a good pass rush that forced Krieg to hurry the ball into the waiting arms of Jessie Armstead, who raced 58 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Giants a 27-21 overtime victory...At Washington (10-29), the defense set up a Giants touchdown when rookie Jamal Duff deflected a Gus Frerotte pass and Strahan intercepted and raced 62 yards before being forced out of bounds at the Washington two-yard line. Tyrone Wheatley punched it in from one yard out to give the Giants a 14-3 lead...With 11:16 left in the game at Philadelphia (11-19), Strahan blocked a punt at the Eagles 40-yard line. Strahan chased the ball down to the Giants end zone, but an Eagles defender was able to swat the ball out of the back of the end zone for a safety...Forced Dave Krieg to fumble on a sack, and Robert Harris recovered for the Giants at the 40-yard line at Arizona (11-30)...Did not play at Dallas (12-17) because of a hamstring injury suffered vs. Washington (12-10).

1994: Started 15 games in his first year as a regular in the starting lineup...Was inactive at Dallas (11-7) because of a knee injury that he suffered vs. Detroit (10-30)...Finished third on the team with 4.5 sacks...Had 39 tackles on the year...Made his first professional start vs. Philadelphia (9-4) and recorded a sack of Eagles QB Randall Cunningham...Helped Giants defense hold Cardinals to 39 yards rushing at Arizona (9-11)...Recorded his second sack of the season when he dropped Chris Miller at Rams (10-16)...Got his third sack of the season at Houston (11-21) on QB Billy Joe Tolliver...Vs. Dallas (12-24) in season-finale, sacked QB Troy Aikman on third-and-three at Giants' 20 to force Cowboys to attempt a 37-yard FG, which hit the upright.

1993: Was limited to just nine games played due to foot injury...Missed first five games of the season after suffering torn ligaments in his foot in preseason-opener at Cincinnati (8-7)...Played in nine of last 11 games before injuring his ankle in season-finale vs. Dallas (1-2)...Finished season with three tackles, including one sack...Recorded first career sack in his first NFL game (QB Ken O'Brien, vs. Philadelphia, 10-17)...Was placed on IR on 1-13 because of ankle injury.

College: As a senior, selected All-America first team by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, Sheridan Network and Associated Press when he recorded 62 tackles with a school-record 19 quarterback sacks and 32 tackles totaling 142 yards in losses...Selected Division I-AA Defensive Player of the Year by The Poor Man's Guide...In 1992 was first team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference and SWAC's Player of the Year for the second consecutive season...Was named Black College College Defensive Player of the Year...As a junior in 1991, led SWAC with 14.5 quarterback sacks...41.5 career sacks is a Texas Southern school record.

Personal: Only lettered one year in football while attending Westbury (Tex.) HS...Graduated from Mannheim (Germany) American High, where his father, Gene, was stationed in the U.S. Army before retiring in 1985 to enter private business in that country...Business Management major at TSU...Uncle, Art, played in the NFL and CFL for parts of seven seasons...Michael Anthony Strahan was born on November 21, 1971 in Houston, Tex.

Transactions: Originally a second round (34th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

NFL: Used primarily as a punt returner and third and fourth wide receiver...Should challenge for significant action in the offense in his third NFL season...Promising rookie season was cut short by a knee injury...Showed immediately that he has the ability to be an impact player as he returned two punts for touchdowns, including a team-record 87-yard return vs. Buffalo in the season-opener during his rookie season.

1997: Continued his role as the Giants punt returner, finishing with 47 returns for 455 yards, including a 53-yard touchdown return at Detroit (10-19). Fielded a short punt in the third quarter against the Lions and raced 53 yards in and out of traffic for a touchdown and a 17-10 Giants lead. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff and was Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the National Football League for his efforts against the Lions...Saw action in all 16 regular season games and in the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Ended the year with 16 catches for 263 yards, including a 56-yard touchdown reception...At the end of the first half vs. Baltimore (9-14), Toomer drew a pass interference call on Ravens CB Dorian Brew in the end zone, giving the Giants a first down at the one-yard line. On the next play, QB Dave Brown completed a touchdown pass to FB Charles Way...Set up the Giants first touchdown vs. New Orleans (9-28) with a 44-yard punt return in the first quarter to give the Giants the ball at the Saints 32-yard line. Brown fired touchdown pass to WR Kevin Alexander on the next play for a 7-0 Giants lead...His 37-yard punt return in the fourth quarter vs. Dallas (10-5) gave the Giants a first down at the Dallas 33-yard line, setting the stage for the Giants only touchdown...During the Giants opening drive at Arizona (10-12), caught a key third down pass from QB Danny Kanell for a 24-yard gain into Cardinals territory at the 32-yard line...Chalked up his first NFL touchdown on a 56-yard pass from Kanell in the second quarter vs. Arizona (11-16) to put the Giants in front, 10-0. Toomer ran a deep pattern down the right sideline, fought off Cardinals CB Ty Howard for the ball and sprinted down the sideline for the touchdown...Caught a 14-yard pass from Kanell for a first down on a third-and-five play in the third quarter vs. Washington (12-13) to keep the Giants first scoring drive of the fourth quarter alive.

1996: Finished with 18 punt returns for 298 yards (16.6 avg.) and two touchdowns...Returned 11 kickoffs for 191 yards (17.4 avg.)...Caught just one pass for 12 yards...Toomer's 87-yard punt return for a touchdown vs. Buffalo (9-1) is the longest punt return in Giants history. The previous team mark was an 83-yard return set by Eddie Dove at Philadelphia on 9-29-63. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff...Started at wide receiver at Dallas (9-8) in place of the injured Thomas Lewis (back). Stumbled on a pass route on the first play from scrimmage that ended in an interception by the Cowboys. Had one reception for 12 yards...Returned a punt 65 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter vs. Philadelphia (10-13) to give the Giants a 10-6 lead. Joins former Giant David Meggett (1994) as the only other Giants player to return two punts for a touchdown in one season. Emlen Tunnell holds the Giants team mark for most punt returns for a touchdown in a season with three in 1951. Finished the Eagles game with five punt returns for 96 yards and one kickoff return for 12 yards...Injured the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee at the end of the first half at Washington (10-20). Played the rest of the that game and attempted to go through Wednesday's practice prior to the Detroit game (10-27) before the extent of his injury was diagnosed...Underwent successful reconstructive surgery to repair the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee on October 28...Placed on injured reserve on October 31.

College: Ranks second on Michigan's career lists with 143 receptions for 2657 yards, topped only by Anthony Carter (1612 for 3076, 1979-82)...Only Carter (37), Derrick Alexander (22, 1989-92) and Philadelphia Public League Player of the Year, as well as team's Best Offensive Player, Best Running Back, and Best Linebacker honors while serving as captain at Northeast High as a senior.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (206th pick overall) draft choice, third of three sixth round selections by the Giants, in 1995.

NFL: Established himself as one of the premier blocking backs in the NFL as he received considerable postseason recognition following the 1997 season...Became first rookie since Greg Jackson in 1989 to be in the Giants starting lineup on opening day...Powerful build makes him a very effective blocker...In addition to his blocking expertise, is outstanding as a receiver and ball-carrier...Served as a game captain in 1997 with LB Jessie Armstead, WR Chris Calloway and PK Brad Daluiso.

1997: Had a career year with 698 yards rushing on 151 carries with four rushing touchdowns. The 698 yards led the team...Recorded his first 100-yard rushing performance with 114 yards on 14 carries vs. Arizona (11-16), the first by a Giants fullback since 1983 (Rob Carpenter, 116 yards vs. Green Bay 9-26-83) and only the 10th time since 1960...Started all 16 regular season games and the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27) at fullback...Finished second on the team in receiving with 304 yards on 37 receptions with one touchdown and returned two kickoffs for 46 yards...Team leader in all-purpose yards with 1,048...The Giants first touchdown in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) was set up when QB Dave Brown faked a reverse and completed a short pass to Way for a 62-yard gain to the Eagles eight-yard line. Two plays later, Brown ran up the middle for a touchdown and a 7-0 Giants lead. The 62-yarder is the longest reception of Way's career. Also did an outstanding job blocking for RB Tiki Barber, who gained 88 yards on 20 carries for a 4.4 yard average. Named Offensive MVP by the coaching staff for his play against the Eagles...Capped a perfect two-minute drill with a one-yard touchdown pass from Brown at the end of the second quarter vs. Baltimore (9-14) to close the Ravens lead to 14-12 following a botched two-point play...Tied a career-high mark with his six receptions at St. Louis (9-21)...Blocking at the end of the game vs. New Orleans (9-28) helped RB Tyrone Wheatley gain 41 yards as the Giants ran out the final 3:38 of the game to seal the victory...Culminated the Giants only touchdown drive of the day vs. Dallas (10-5) in the fourth quarter with a three-yard touchdown run...Had 91 yards rushing on 13 attempts at Arizona (10-12). Blocking and key running ability against the Cardinals helped the Giants chalk up 239 yards on the ground...Followed his 91-yard rushing performance against Arizona with a 90-yard effort at Detroit (10-19). Carried the ball just 13 times for 90 yards for a 6.9-yard average. Had runs of 15, 16 and 28 yards. During the 28-yard run, Way dragged CB Corey Raymond for the last five yards. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against the Lions...Led the team in rushing with 75 yards on 20 carries vs. Cincinnati (10-26). Scored on two one-yard touchdown runs for his first two-touchdown day. The 20 rushing attempts set a new single-game high mark...Recorded the first 100-yard rushing performance in his NFL career with 114 yards on 14 carries for an 8.1-yard average vs. Arizona (11-16). His 42-yard run in the third quarter against the Cardinals is the longest run of his career. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cardinals...Gained 84 yards on 17 carries for a 4.9-yard average at Washington (11-23)...Lead blocking at Philadelphia (12-7) opened the holes for a 114-yard rushing performance by RB Tiki Barber. Made a pivotal block during Barber's 42-yard run to the five-yard line in the fourth quarter...His 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter vs. Washington (12-13) is the longest touchdown run of his career.

1996: Carried the ball 22 times for 79 yards and one touchdown...Caught 32 passes, third on the team, for 328 yards and a touchdown...Added seven special teams tackles and recovered a team-leading three fumbles on special teams and had two kickoff returns for 19 yards...Had a career-day with 78 yards on a team-leading four receptions vs. Buffalo (9-1). Way caught a short pass from Dave Brown in the right flat and turned the play into a 37-yard touchdown to extend the Giants lead to 17-0 in the second quarter...Named Offensive Player of the Game by the coaching staff for his excellent play against Detroit (10-27). Former head coach Dan Reeves said that Way did a good job on his cut blocks to help the running game and made some key blocks on pass protection. Tyrone Wheatley was scheduled to be the Giants third down back but when he got ejected in the second half, Way took over the third down back chores. Caught three passes for 22 yards coming out of the backfield...Made some key blocks vs. Arizona (11-3) that allowed Rodney Hampton to gain 94 yards on 24 carries, his highest output of the season...Recovered a PR Marcus Dowdell muffed punt at the Cardinals 14-yard line in the third quarter at Arizona (11-17). On the Giants first play from scrimmage following the recovery, Way came out of the backfield and caught a 13-yard pass from Brown to help the Giants reach the one-yard line. Three plays later, Brown connected with Wheatley on a touchdown pass...Sprained his ankle in the Giants punt coverage unit in the third quarter vs. Dallas (11-24). Came back on the Giants next series and caught a pass from Brown to help set up the Giants fourth quarter touchdown. The Giants were faced with a third-and-nine situation at the Dallas 14-yard line when Brown completed a pass to Way, who shook off three Dallas defenders to give the Giants a first down at the five-yard line. Two plays later, Brown executed a perfect play-action fake that resulted in a four-yard touchdown pass. Named Offensive Back of the Game by the coaching staff...Lined up on the line of scrimmage as a third wide receiver in a special offensive alignment for part of the game at Miami (12-8). Had a career-high six receptions for 56 yards. Played a big role in helping the Giants running game gain 131 yards and control the clock for 36:28 of the game, including 10:33 of the final quarter. Named Offensive Player of the Game...Stiff-armed one Patriots defender to break free for an 18-yard pass play that gave the Giants a first down at the one-yard line vs. New England (12-21). On the next play, Way scored his first NFL rushing touchdown to give the Giants an early 9-0 lead. Saw more action running the ball than usual due to the injuries to Rodney Hampton (bruised knee) and Tyrone Wheatley (ankle). Set a career-high with seven rushing attempts for 36 yards. Caught three passes for 50 yards.

1995: Played in all 16 games with four starts in his rookie season...Only carried the ball two times for six yards, but caught seven passes for 76 yards and a touchdown...Showed promise as a punishing blocker and special teams player...Became first Giants rookie since Greg Jackson in 1989 to appear in Giants opening-day lineup in the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...Blocking helped Rodney Hampton gain 70 yards in the first half at Kansas City (9-10)...Was replaced in the starting lineup by Herschel Walker at Green Bay (9-17)...His first NFL reception vs. Arizona (10-8) resulted in a two-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown in the third quarter to give the Giants a 14-13 lead...Returned to the starting lineup at fullback vs. Washington (12-10)...His six-yard run in the first quarter against the Redskins was his first run from scrimmage as an NFL player...At Dallas (12-17), did an excellent job as Rodney Hampton's lead blocker. Hampton had a career-day against the Cowboys as he set a personal single-game high mark with his 187-yard rushing performance, the fourth-best mark in team history.

College: Finished collegiate career ranked seventh on Virginia's career all-time list with 20 touchdowns...All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorable mention and recipient of the Ben Wilson Award, given to the team's Outstanding Offensive player following senior season...One of three team captains as a senior...Closed out his career with 90 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts in a 20-10 triumph over TCU in the Independence Bowl...All-ACC honorable mention and Academic All-ACC first-team pick as a junior in 1993...Named ACC Offensive Back of the Week as he exploded for 136 yards on 12 attempts and three touchdowns in a 49-29 victory over Maryland that season.

Personal: Married (Tahesha) with daughter Fallon (1-15-97)...Civil Engineering major...Philadelphia Public League Player of the Year as a senior, adding team Best Offensive Player, Best Running Back and Best Linebacker honors while serving as team captain at Northeast High...Also lettered in wrestling and track...School senator his senior year...One of two sons (brother, Cleveland) of Jacqueline and Cleveland Way...Born Charles Christopher Way on December 27, 1972 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Formed "TEAM WHEATLEY" a charitable organization that donates shoes to high school football teams and puts on a basketball tournament every year in the greater Detroit area to help raise funds.

Transactions: Originally a first round (17th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1995.

NFL: In 1997 started seven of 14 games and had his best season to date with 583 yards rushing...Shared the starting role with Tiki Barber...Role in offense expanded as he shared more time with Rodney Hampton and assumed third down duties in his second NFL season...A training camp holdout and injuries combined to limit Wheatley's play in his first NFL season...Prototype runner with an excellent combination of size, strength, stamina and speed.

1997: Played in 14 games with seven starting assignments...Finished second on the team behind FB Charles Way with 583 yards on 152 attempts and tied with Way for the team lead with four rushing touchdowns...Also caught 16 passes for 140 yards...Missed the final two games of the regular season and the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27) after leaving the game at Philadelphia (12-7) in the first quarter with a severely sprained left ankle...Played in a reserve role for the first five games of the season before filling in for Barber, who left in the third quarter after suffering a tear to the PCL of his right knee vs. New Orleans (9-28)...Started at running back in seven of the next nine games. Did not start vs. Cincinnati (10-26) and vs. Arizona (11-16) as the Giants opened the game with the double-tight end package...Had a nine-yard run followed by an eight-yard run to help bully the Giants deep into Ravens territory vs. Baltimore (9-14) to set up his one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter...Entered the game at running back at St. Louis (9-21) when Barber was knocked out of the game after taking a hit to the jaw in the first quarter. Barber returned to the game, but Wheatley split time with Barber for the rest of the game...Bailed the Giants out of a tough spot on the final possession vs. New Orleans (9-28) as the Giants were holding onto a 14-9 lead. The Saints pinned the Giants at their own three-yard line when Wheatley gained 41 yards to help the Giants kill the final 3:38 of the game and seal the victory...Made his second career NFL start vs. Dallas (10-5) in place of Barber (knee). Finished the game with 16 carries for 51 yards. Opened the Cowboys game with an 18-yard run on the first offensive play. After Dallas closed the gap to 20-17 late in the fourth quarter, WR David Patten muffed the ensuing kickoff inside the Giants ten-yard line. Wheatley broke free from a block across the field and recovered the loose football for the Giants. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against Dallas...Tallied his first career 100-yard rushing performance at Arizona (10-12) with 103 yards on 22 carries. Wheatley's performance ended a Giants streak of 23 games without a 100-yard rusher. His performance established a new personal single-game career-high in rushing attempts and rushing yards, breaking his old mark of 69 yards on 21 carries vs. Dallas (11-24-96). Capped the Giants first fourth quarter scoring drive with a tough eighty-yard touchdown run. Awarded an Offensive Game Ball by the coaching staff against the Cardinals...Production was limited at Detroit (10-19) due to a left shoulder injury that he suffered at Arizona the previous week...Had his second two-touchdown day vs. Cincinnati (10-26) with two fourth quarter touchdown runs in the Giants 29-27 victory. Scored on two touchdown passes at Arizona (11-17-96)...Finished with 94 yards on 13 carries for a 7.2-yard average at Tennessee (11-9)...His 38-yard run in the third quarter vs. Tampa Bay (11-30) is the longest run of his career. Gained 64 yards on nine carries for a 7.1-yard average against the Buccaneers.

1996: Gained 400 yards on 112 carries and caught 12 passes for 51 yards...Team's primary kick return man as he returned 23 kickoffs for 503 yards (21.9) average...Missed the Carolina game (11-10) and the New England game (12-21) due to injuries...Took over as the Giants third down back at the Jets (9-22). His 43-yard kickoff return to open the game was the longest kickoff return of his career, topping his 37-yarder against Washington in 1995...Saw more playing time than originally anticipated at Washington (10-20) due to his receiving skills as the Giants were forced to turn to the pass after falling behind 28-0 at half-time. Led the team in rushing with 54 yards on 11 carries for a 4.9 average. His one-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter pulled the Giants to within seven at 28-21...Split time with Hampton in the first half at Detroit (10-27), gaining 18 yards on five carries, but was ejected from the game after kicking a Lions player during the second half kickoff. Took a handoff from Dave Brown in the second quarter, swept right, pulled up and completed a 24-yard touchdown pass to Chris Calloway on the halfback option to give the Giants an 8-7 lead...Left the field late in the game on a backboard vs. Arizona (11-3) after being knocked unconscious on a third-down running play when Cardinals DE Michael Bankston went helmet-to-helmet with Wheatley. He lost consciousness and regained consciousness on the field. Gained 27 yards on 11 carries prior to his injury. Caught Danny Kanell's first NFL pass, a three-yard loss off the shuffle pass...Missed the Carolina game (11-10) due to his concussion...Returned to action at Arizona (11-17) and came in for a healthy Hampton in the second quarter and was effective enough for former head coach Dan Reeves to keep him in for the majority of the game. Finished with 13 carries for 50 yards for a 3.8 average. Caught the first touchdown pass of his NFL career in the third quarter, a four-yard pass from Brown. Added a nine-yard scoring pass in the fourth quarter...Had his career-day vs. Dallas (11-24) with 21 rushing attempts for 69 yards. Marked second consecutive game that he had a larger workload than Hampton...Combined with Hampton for 119 of the Giants 131 yards on the ground vs. Miami (12-8). Wheatley gained 59 yards on 13 carries. His 37-yard run in the fourth quarter was the longest of his career...On the first play of the second quarter vs. New Orleans (12-15), Wheatley sprained his left ankle and was unable to return to the game...Was inactive vs. New England (12-21) due to his ankle injury.

1995: Had an up-and-down, injury-plagued rookie season...Played in 13 games with one start...Finished second on the team with 245 yards on 78 carries...Rushed for three touchdowns...Also caught five passes for 27 yards...Returned 10 kickoffs for 186 yards...Made his regular-season debut at Green Bay (9-17) after being inactive for the first two games of the season with a rib injury suffered in the preseason game against the Jets (8-19)...Relieved Rodney Hampton in the fourth quarter vs. New Orleans (9-24) and finished the day with 10 carries for 54 yards, including his first NFL touchdown when he rolled over one Saints defender on a sweep to the right side for a 19-yard scoring run...Made his first NFL reception at San Francisco (10-1) when he caught an eight-yard pass from Dave Brown in the fourth quarter. His 12-yard run on the next play was the first run over 10 yards allowed by the 49ers defense in 1995...Made his first NFL start vs. Arizona (10-8) in place of Rodney Hampton, who played despite a broken hand, and gained 61 yards on 18 carries...Former head coach Dan Reeves began rotating Wheatley with Hampton every third series at Washington (10-29), a plan that was used for most of the rest of the season.

College: Only the third player in school history to rush for over 3,500 yards and gain over 4,000 all-purpose yards during a career, joining Jamie Morris (4,293 rushing; 6,201 all-purpose; 1984-87) and former Giant Butch Woolfolk (3,861 rushing; 4,126 all-purpose; 1978-81)...Ranks second on the Michigan career list with 4,186 yards on the ground, surpassed only by Morris (4,393)...Carried the ball 688 times, ranking behind Woolfolk (718) and Morris (809) on the school's career chart...His 47 rushing touchdowns broke the old Michigan record of 34 by Rick Leach (1975-78) and his 54 total scores topped the school career record of 40 by Anthony Carter (1979-82)...His 54 total touchdowns rank second behind Ohio State's Pete Johnson (58 scores, 1973-76) on the Big Ten Conference's career charts...6.08-yard average per rush ranks behind Jon Vaughn (6.29 avg, 226 carries) and his 673 yards in kickoff returns rank fourth on the school's all-time list...Average of 95.13 yards per game during career is surpassed only by Bill Taylor (102.4 avg) among Wolverine runners...His 20 games with over 100 yards rushing broke the old school career record of 18 by Morris...Scored multiple touchdowns in 17 regular season games, tying the NCAA Division 1-A record held by Steve Owens of Oklahoma (1967-69), Tony Dorsett of Pittsburgh (1973-76) and Glen Davis of Army (1943-46)...Ranks third in Big Ten history and set a school career scoring record with 326 points, topping the old Wolverine mark of 306 by placekicker Mike Gillette (1985-88).

Personal: Studied Kinesiology, majoring in Education...Consensus All-America selection as he played eight different positions at Robichaud High (Inkster, Mich.)...Was selected Michigan Player of the Year by USA Today...Standout track and basketball performer...Named Gatorade Circle of Champions Track and Field Athlete of the Year as he won titles in the 100 and 200 meters, long jump, and 100-meter high hurdles as a junior...Born January 19, 1972 in Inkster, Mich.

Composes piano music, which he says sounds like theme music to movies. Has plans to start recording some of his music.

Transactions: Originally a seventh round (180th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: Enters his third season as the starting middle linebacker...With the off-season departure of Michael Brooks prior to the 1996 season, entered the starting lineup at the middle linebacker position...Demonstrated his effectiveness on special teams and in short-yardage situations during his first four seasons...Moved into the starting lineup for the first time in his career in 1994 before handing the job back to Carlton Bailey...A former defensive lineman who worked extremely hard to master the linebacker position.

1997: Played in 16 games with 15 starts and finished second on the team with 90 total tackles (69 solos), 1.5 sacks and four passes defended...Also started in the Giants Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Baltimore (9-14) as the Giants opened the game in the nickel defense...Had a strong rush on QB Rodney Peete in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31), forcing Peete to hurry a pass that was intercepted by S Sam Gammon and returned 95 yards for a touchdown to end an Eagles game-tying scoring threat in the fourth quarter...The Giants seemed to escape a Jaguar scoring threat in the second quarter at Jacksonville (9-7) when LB Jessie Armstead deflected a QB Steve Matthews pass that was intercepted by Widmer in the end zone. CB Thomas Randolph was called for a pass interference penalty, giving the Jaguars a second chance at an eventual touchdown...The Saints were in position to win after recovering a QB Dave Brown fumble vs. New Orleans (9-28) that got returned to the Giants 35-yard line with 5:44 to go and the Giants in front, 14-9. On first down, CB Jason Sehorn came in on a corner blitz to knock RB Mario Bates for a two-yard loss. On the next play, Widmer sacked QB Heath Shuler for an eight-yard loss to put the Saints in a third-and-long situation...Stepped in front of FB Daryl Johnston vs. Dallas (10-5) and intercepted a QB Troy Aikman pass in the third quarter. Widmer was called for defensive pass interference on the play to cancel the interception...Played the option play perfectly in the first quarter at Tennessee (11-9), forcing Oilers QB Steve McNair to pitch the ball to RB Eddie George. McNair mishandled the pitch and S Tito Wooten recovered the loose ball for the Giants at the Oilers 46-yard line. Made a juggling interception of a McNair pass at the Giants 28-yard line to end an Oilers threat in the second quarter...Combined with DE Michael Strahan on a three-yard sack of QB Jake Plummer in the third quarter vs. Arizona (11-16) to force the Cardinals into a third-and-long situation...Set a personal single-game high mark with 12 total tackles vs. Tampa Bay (11-30). His previous high was ten vs. Buffalo (9-1-96)...Intercepted a QB Jeff Hostetler pass in the third quarter vs. Washington (12-13) when he dropped into coverage on a pass intended to TE Jamie Asher.

1996: For the first time in his career, was the starter for the entire season as he started all 16 games, finishing second on the team with 103 tackles (68 solos), including two sacks...Also intercepted two passes and forced two fumbles...Led the team with nine tackles (four solos) vs. Minnesota (9-29). Helped limit a Vikings offense that was averaging 351 yards in total offense to just 228 yards...Named Defensive Player of the Game at Washington (10-20) after finishing with five total tackles, including two big hits on Redskins RB Terry Allen. After allowing 252 yards in offense in the first half, the Giants defense responded by holding the Redskins to just 78 yards in the second half...Had the first of three Giants second quarter interceptions inside Lions territory at Detroit (10-27). Set up a 38-yard field goal after he recorded his first career interception to give the Giants a first down at the Lions 21-yard line. Widmer fumbled on the return but Jason Sehorn recovered for the Giants. Sacked QB Scott Mitchell on the next series for his first sack of the 1996 season. Finished with two solo tackles before being forced to leave at the end of the third quarter after re-aggravating the bruised sternum that he suffered at Washington. Helped hold RB Barry Sanders to just eight first half yards and only 47 in the game...Led the team with eight tackles (seven solos) at Arizona (11-17). Came on a third down blitz up the middle and sacked QB Boomer Esiason for an eight-yard loss to force a third-and-long situation.

Marked his second sack of the season, a career-high...Registered the first regular season forced fumble of his career vs. Dallas (11-24) when he hit WR Michael Irvin in the second quarter on the play that allowed Tito Wooten to race 54 yards for a Giants touchdown. Play helped hold the Cowboys to 33 yards rushing. RB Emmitt Smith had 18 yards on 11 carries for a 1.6 average...Helped preserve the Giants 17-7 lead in the fourth quarter at Miami (12-8) when he intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass that deflected off RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar and into Widmer's hands at the Giants nine-yard line.

1995: Played in all 16 games and led the team with 20 special teams tackles...Had eight defensive tackles as well...Had an outstanding game on special teams, according to Dan Reeves, vs. Arizona (10-8)...Helped hold return specialist Brian Mitchell to just five punt return yards at Washington (10-29)...Vs. Washington (12-10), the Redskins drove to the Giants three-yard line on their second possession and were faced with a first-and-goal situation. On their first play Widmer stuffed RB Terry Allen for a loss of two yards. The Giants held the Redskins to a field goal attempt, which fell short...Again was solid in short-yardage defense at Dallas (12-17), as he stuffed RB Emmitt Smith at the line of scrimmage on third-and-one from the Giants 10-yard line, forcing the Cowboys to settle for a field goal.

1994: Played in all 16 games with five starts at middle linebacker in the season's first six games...Shared ILB duties with Carlton Bailey the remainder of the season...Finished with 32 tackles on defense and led the team in special teams tackles with 15...Also broke up four passes on the year, including a crucial pass at end of the Cincinnati game (12-11) at the goal line that forced the Bengals to settle for a game-tying FG instead of allowing them a go-ahead TD...Made his first professional start vs. Philadelphia (9-4) and finished with five tackles and one pass defended...Started at middle linebacker at Arizona (9-11) but left the game in the first quarter with a sprained ankle...Recorded first sack of his career when he sacked QB John Friesz for a five-yard loss vs. Washington (9-18)...Was Giants special teams MVP with two solo tackles at Washington (11-27)...Teamed with S Jarvis Williams to stop Cincinnati (12-11) on fourth-and-one from the Giants 27-yard line in the third quarter of Giants 27-20 victory.

1993: Appeared in 11 games on special teams, finishing with six special teams tackles...Appeared at LB in playoff loss at San Francisco (1-15) and forced and recovered a fumble.

1992: Played in the season's final eight games after spending time on injured reserve with a back injury and then being placed on the practice squad during the first eight weeks of the season...Signed to 47-man roster on 11-7...Finished with five tackles on defense and four on special teams...Started rookie season on defensive line before being moved to LB.

College: A two-time All-Big Sky Conference performer at nose tackle for Montana State where he had 286 tackles, 66 for losses and 35 sacks, and six forced fumbles...As a senior, had 82 tackles, 20 for losses, and had seven sacks...As a junior, named Most Valuable Defensive Player of the conference after recording 93 tackles, 25 for losses, and 17 sacks...Also lettered in track as a record-setting field event performer.

Personal: An outstanding football player, wrestler and track athlete at Bozeman (Mont.) HS...While in high school, wrestled abroad on visits to Japan and China...Corey Widmer was born on December 25, 1968 in Alexandria, Virginia.

day against the Cowboys as he set a personal single-game high mark with his 187-yard rushing performance, the fourth-best in team history. Hampton's performance put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth consecutive season as the Giants gained 244 yards rushing against the Cowboys. Williams threw a key block on Tyrone Wheatley's one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter of the Dallas game.

1994: Started 14 games in his first season as a full-time starter...Was inactive vs. Arizona (11-13) and did not play at Houston (11-21) due to a rib injury...Started vs. Detroit (10-30) but suffered a blow to the abdomen and was forced to leave the game in the first quarter...Following layoff due to rib injury, returned to starting lineup as RB Rodney Hampton rushed for 106 yards at Washington (11-27)...Along with fellow linemen, helped Giants sustain three first half drives at Cleveland (12-4) that totalled 195 yards...Earned Giants overall MVP honors vs. Cincinnati (12-11) as he anchored a line that allowed no sacks as the offense compiled 304 yards...Giants held the ball for 23:17, including the final 9:18 of the game, in second half of victory over Dallas (12-24).

1993: Played in all 16 games for the first time since 1990...Made one start at center vs. Philadelphia (10-17) as Bart Oates recovered from a sprained ankle...Williams and Oates split the center duties 50-50 with Williams playing the second and fourth quarters.

1992: Played in 13 games and started at center vs. Washington (12-6) when he suffered a broken right foot and was lost for the remaining three games of the season.

1991: Played in 14 games as a backup at guard and center with most work coming in short-yardage situations.

1990: Played in all 16 regular season games and three postseason games primarily in short-yardage offense and on special teams...Did get one starting assignment, at guard, vs. San Francisco (9-2) in the season-opener.

1989: Late reporting to camp as the result of extended contract negotiations...Played in 14 games and started the final four games of the season at right guard when Damian Johnson was injured and the offensive line was shuffled...Threw a couple of key blocks at Denver (12-10) as David Meggett scored on a 57-yard game-winning run.

College: Started the final two seasons of his collegiate career at Minnesota...Started at center as a junior and guard as a senior after beginning as a tight end...In 1987, helped Gophers set a school record with 2,651 yards rushing for the season...Team captain as a senior...Played in East-West Shrine and Senior Bowl games.

season with just two career interceptions...He had his first two-interception game vs. Dallas (10-5). He returned his first interception against the Cowboys 61 yards for a touchdown...Part of a Giants secondary that limited the Rams to just 133 total net yards at St. Louis (9-21)...With 5:44 to play vs. New Orleans (9-28) and the Giants hanging onto a 14-9 lead, the Saints recovered a QB Dave Brown fumble and returned it to the Giants 35-yard line to get into scoring position. Wooten broke up a key third down pass from QB Heath Shuler that was intended to WR Andre Hastings. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against the Saints...In the third quarter vs. Dallas (10-5), QB Troy Aikman tried to drill a pass to WR Michael Irvin, who was covered by CB Jason Sehorn to the outside. Wooten broke on the ball from the inside, intercepted the ball and raced 61 yards for a touchdown that put the Giants in front, 13-9. The touchdown return was Wooten's first NFL interception returned for a touchdown. It was his third NFL touchdown, the other two having come on fumble returns. Intercepted Aikman again in the fourth quarter when he stepped in front of TE Eric Bjornson to pick off the ball at the Giants 38-yard line. Broke up an Aikman pass intended to Bjornson to force Dallas into a third-and-ten from their own 36-yard line with under one minute to play. Awarded a Game Ball for his effort against Dallas...Recorded his third interception of the season at Arizona (10-12) when he made a fine leaping grab late in the first quarter that gave the Giants a first down at the Cardinals 43-yard line. The Giants converted the turnover into a 48-yard field goal for a 6-0 second quarter lead...Recovered a fumbled pitch from QB Steve McNair to RB Eddie George at Tennessee (11-9)...The Cardinals reached the Giants 30-yard line with 1:06 remaining vs. Arizona (11-16) but Wooten intercepted QB Jake Plummer and the Giants ran out the clock to preserve the victory...Left for a couple of series in the fourth quarter at Washington (11-23) with a sprained left ankle but did return to the game...Was credited for an interception vs. Tampa Bay (11-30) that he returned 53 yards to the Buccaneers 28-yard line to end a scoring threat and set up a Giants field goal before the half to cut the Bucs lead to 7-3. With :25 seconds left in the half, QB Trent Dilfer's pass was broken up by CB Jason Sehorn. The ball was ruled to have deflected off Sehorn into the air and into Wooten's grasp. Left late in the game after aggravating his left ankle injury...Coverage by the secondary vs. Washington (12-13) helped force Hostetler to throw four interceptions...Injured his ankle on QB Randall Cunningham's 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the Giants lead to 22-20 vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game. Was replaced by S Percy Ellsworth for the remainder of the game.

1996: In first year as a starter, finished fifth on the team with 65 tackles (49 solos)...Added an interception, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a blocked punt...Missed the Minnesota game (9-29) after suffering a hairline fracture of his right fibula against the Jets (9-22)...Returned to action vs. Philadelphia (10-13) but did not start. Saw action in the nickel and dime defensive packages as well as in place of Jesse Campbell at strong safety for several plays. The Giants secondary helped limit the Eagles passing attack to 170 yards on 18 completions...Blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety to begin the Giants run of 35 consecutive points at Detroit (10-27). Picked off a Lions QB Scott Mitchell pass at mid-field and returned it to the Lions 23-yard line in the second quarter. On the next play, Dave Brown connected with Thomas Lewis on a touchdown pass to give the Giants a 25-7 lead. In the fourth quarter, Wooten hit Lions WR Johnnie Morton after he made a five-yard catch and forced a fumble that Thomas Randolph recovered. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff...Vs. Dallas (11-24) finished with two tackles (one solo) and a fumble recovery that he returned for a touchdown. The Cowboys drove into Giants territory late in the second quarter when Corey Widmer forced WR Michael Irvin to fumble the ball after a short gain. Wooten recovered the ball and raced 54 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Giants a 13-3 halftime lead. Marked his second career touchdown (recovered a fumble in the end zone at Kansas City in 1995)...Missed the game at Miami (12-8) and vs. New Orleans (12-15) with an ankle sprain that he suffered at Philadelphia (12-1)...Returned to the starting lineup in the season-finale vs. New England (12-21). Had six solo tackles.

1995: Saw increased playing time in nickel and dime coverages designed to inhibit the West Coast offense that the Giants faced six times in 1995...Played in all 16 games with three starting assignments...Finished with 48 tackles and seven passes defended and an interception...Was second on the team with ten special teams tackles...Recovered Keith Hamilton's fumble in the end zone to give the Giants a 17-3 lead with 10:56 left in regulation at Kansas City (9-10)...Entered the starting lineup in place of Corey Miller at San Francisco (10-1) in a special dime package that the Giants used to help contain the 49ers passing attack...Helped limit Steve Young to just 202 yards on 26 completions...Received his second starting assignment vs. Philadelphia (10-15) as the Giants opened in the nickel defense to try to contain the Eagles' West Coast offense. The defense limited the Eagles to just 66 net yards passing...Replaced Vencie Glenn at safety when Glenn was forced out of action with a burner in his neck at Seattle (11-5)...Made his first career start at free safety in place of the injured Glenn vs. Oakland (11-13). Responded by leading the team with 10 total tackles (seven solos)...At Arizona (11-30), broke through the Cardinals line and was in position to block a Jeff Feagles punt in the third quarter. Feagles was forced to run and was stopped short of the first down...Ended a drive vs. Washington (12-10) when he picked off a QB Heath Shuler pass in the second quarter and returned it 38 yards to the Washington 40 to set up Brad Daluiso's 42-yard field goal that gave the Giants a 13-3 halftime lead.

1994: After being chosen in the 1994 Supplemental Draft just prior to training camp, played in all 16 games and started vs. Minnesota (10-10) and at Washington (11-27) when the Giants opened in nickel defenses...Finished with 20 tackles on defense and five special teams tackles...In his first professional game, made a key block on David Meggett's 68-yard punt return for a TD vs. Philadelphia (9-4)...Played strong safety at Dallas (11-7) when starter Jarvis Williams was forced from the game in the fourth quarter with a knee injury...As Giants played mostly nickel and dime defenses at Houston (11-21), helped limit Oilers to just 112 yards passing.

College: A transfer from North Carolina, Wooten finished his senior year at N.E. Louisiana with 49 total tackles (33 solos) and two interceptions, one of which he returned for a touchdown...Also spent time working as a running back during his collegiate career.

Personal: Earned All-Conference, All-Area and All-State honors at Goldsboro HS in Goldsboro, N.C. as a free safety, cornerback and tight end...Born December 12, 1971.

GIANTS
TID BIT

A straight-A student in high school and college. Was a finalist for a Rhodes Scholarship at Oxford.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (128th pick overall) draft choice, first of two fourth round selections by the Giants, in 1995.

NFL: Contributor on the field goal and extra point units as well as in some short yardage situations...Earned starting left guard job in 1996 training camp and held spot for first six games before being replaced by veteran Lance Smith...Made a positive impression in his rookie season as he played in 16 games with three starting assignments at right guard...Although he primarily played tackle in college, began career with the Giants as a guard.

1997: Utilized throughout the season as an eligible receiver so the Giants could have an extra lineman in short yardage and goal line situations...Majority of his playing time was on the field goal and extra point units...Saw action in all 16 regular season games and in the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Entered the game vs. Cincinnati (10-26) as a third tight end in the goal line offense, and split out wide in an attempt to confuse the Bengals during the Giants first touchdown in the second quarter...Replaced Greg Bishop at left guard when he left in the first quarter vs. Washington (12-13) with a sprained ankle. Bishop returned in the second quarter. Made a key block that helped spring FB Charles Way on his 15-yard touchdown run...Replaced Bishop at left guard in the second quarter at Dallas (12-21) when Bishop left with a sore ankle.

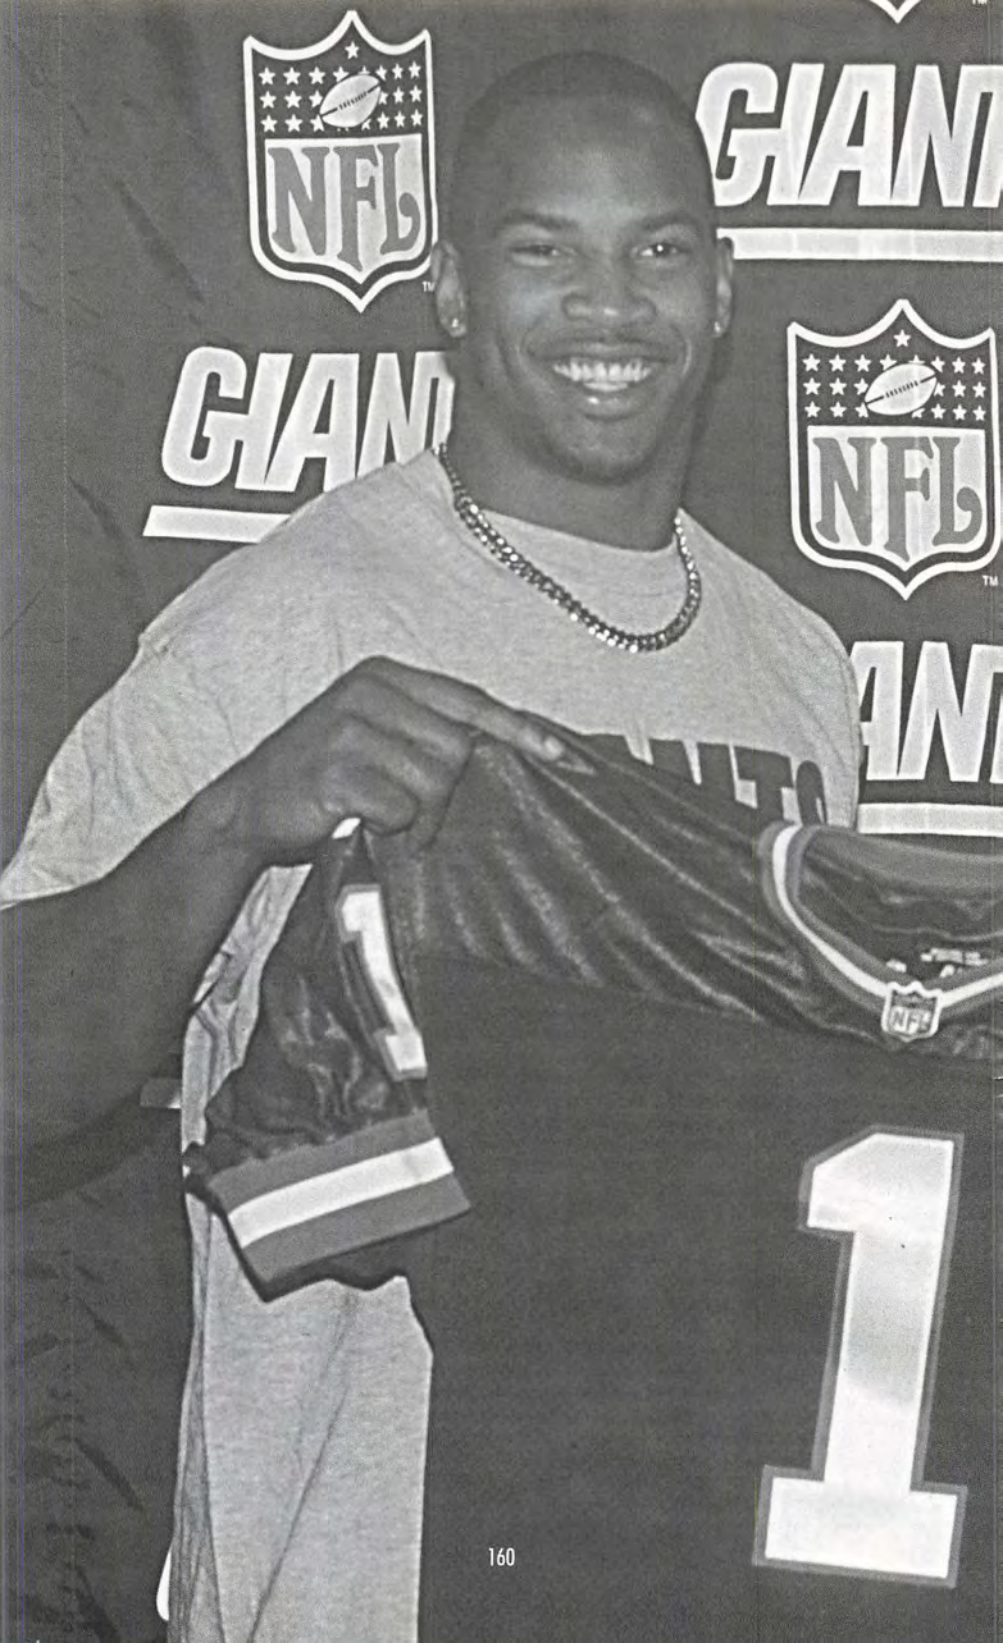

1996: Earned starting left guard position and held the spot for the first six games of the season before the coaching staff decided to replace him in the starting lineup with veteran Lance Smith...Did a great job with the tough assignment of blocking Vikings All-Pro tackle John Randle vs. Minnesota (9-29). The Giants offense established the running game and was able to control the clock. The offense had scoring drives of 8:32, 6:18 and 5:48. Rodney Hampton gained 82 yards rushing behind the play of the line, which helped the Giants run out the final four minutes to preserve the 15-10 victory...Was replaced in the starting lineup at Washington (10-20). Former head coach Dan Reeves said that he needed to make a move on the offensive line and felt that guard was the position at which the Giants had the most depth...Only playing time against the Redskins was on the field goal and extra point units...Active but did not play at Philadelphia (12-1). Part of the field goal and extra point units that did not see any action due to the 24-0 shutout...Vs. New Orleans (12-15) saw action at left guard for the first time since being replaced in the starting lineup. Rotated with Smith in the second quarter.

1995: Played in all 16 games with three starting assignments while regular Lance Smith recovered from elbow surgery...Did a nice job of blocking during Herschel Walker's 50-yard kickoff return that helped set up a Giants touchdown at Seattle (11-5)...Began rotating with Smith at right guard at Philadelphia (11-19) as Zatechka saw action in the second and fourth quarters...Made his first NFL start vs. Chicago (11-26) as he replaced Smith at right guard...Against the Bears, the Giants offensive line did not allow Dave Brown to be sacked.

College: All-America honorable mention and All-Big Eight Conference first-team pick by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft after senior season...Winner of the Honda Scholar-Athlete Award...Earned an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame...One of six Huskers to be chosen to the Phillips 66 Academic Big Eight team...Manned the left tackle position, paving the way as the Huskers led the nation in rushing, averaging 340.0 yards per game...First-team GTE Academic All-American as a junior in 1993...Moved to left guard in junior season, starting the team's first nine games until he suffered an ankle sprain vs. Colorado...Missed most of the Kansas and Iowa State games, but returned to the lineup vs. Florida State in the Orange Bowl...Second-team GTE Academic All-American selection and key reserve at both tackle positions as a sophomore in 1992...Redshirted as freshman in 1990...Recipient of school's Male Student Leader of the Year Award in 1993.

Personal: Married (Jennifer)...Biological Science Major, achieving a perfect 4.0 grade point average...Three-time GTE Academic All-American and four-time Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Conference choice...One of three sons of Dr. Douglas and Jane Zatechka...Father is the director of student housing at Nebraska...Brother, Steve, attends graduate school at Nebraska and another brother, Jon, played guard at Nebraska and signed a free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals...All-State and All-Class selection as a senior at East High (Lincoln, Neb.)...Selected Nebraska Lineman of the Year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club...Added All-America honors from Lindy's Recruiting Service...Lettered three times in football as an offensive tackle while also seeing action on the defensive front...Added three letters in track...Academic All-State choice...Born Robert Zatechka on December 1, 1971 in Lansing, Michigan.

WILLIAMS QUOTES

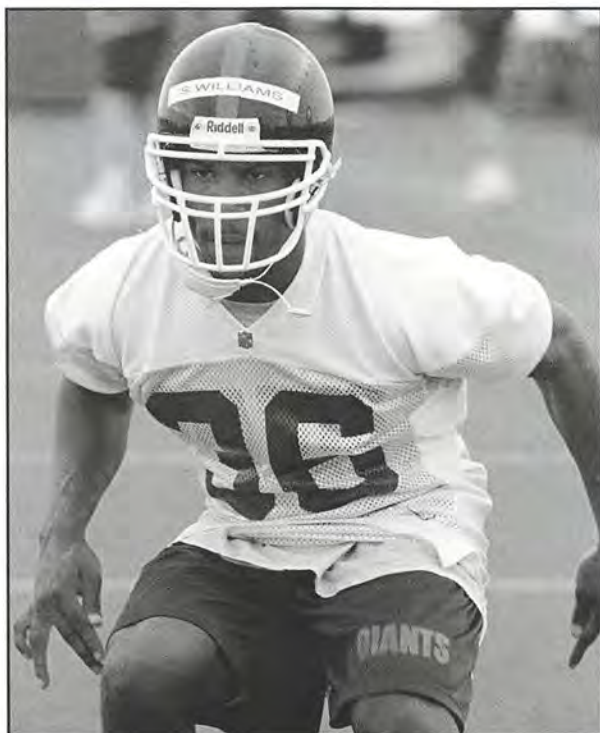

Ernie Accorsi on Williams: "He is a great athlete. He is a hitter. He is everything that you want. In every drill he displayed athleticism. The one thing that he does bring that everybody who evaluated him for us told us is that he can also line up and play a slot receiver, which is important because so much of the game is decided in passing situations when you have the nickel and dime defense on the field."

Jim Fassel on Williams: "I'm excited about Shaun Williams. He's a bright guy. He plays hard, and he loves to play the game of football. He is a very fierce competitor. We think that he can contribute in a lot of different ways for us. Initially he can come in and be an extra defensive back and play special teams. He was the best player on the board when we selected."

Williams on Williams: "I have no preference between free safety, strong safety or corner. I feel like I have the ability to play any of those positions, and I will do well for the Giants. Whatever the Giants need me to do, I am a team player and I am here to play for the team."

1997 GAME REVIEWS

Game 1

GIANTS 31, PHILADELPHIA 17

At East Rutherford, Aug. 31, 1997

The Giants ended a two-game streak of opening day losses by beginning the Jim Fassel era with a 31-17 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles at Giants Stadium. A 95-yard interception returned for a touchdown by rookie S Sam Garnes ended a game-tying Eagles scoring threat with less than five minutes remaining and the Giants holding a 24-17 lead. The Giants defense forced the Eagles to switch quarterbacks after starter Ty Detmer left in the third quarter with just nine completions on 25 attempts. His backup, Rodney Peete, did complete 17 of 23 passes for 268 yards, but he was sacked seven times, giving the Giants a total of nine sacks for the game. The Giants jumped in front, 7-0, after QB Dave Brown faked a reverse and completed a short pass to FB Charles Way for a 62-yard gain to the Eagles eight-yard line. Two plays later Brown ran up the middle for a three-yard touchdown run. The Eagles followed with a 13-play, 49-yard drive that resulted in a 48-yard field goal by PK Chris Boniol to make the score 7-3 at the end of the first quarter. The Giants used an effective two-minute drill at the end of the first half to extend the lead to 14-3. The Giants began at their own 40-yard line where rookie RB Tiki Barber took a handoff and raced up the middle for a 21-yard gain. On the next play, Brown found Barber down the left sideline for a 28-yard gain to the Eagles 11-yard line. Two plays later, WR Chris Calloway made a leaping one-hand grab in the end zone for a 14-3 Giants halftime lead. WR Thomas Lewis' 84-yard kickoff return to start the second half set up a Barber one-yard run up the middle to push the Giants in front, 21-3. After stopping the Eagles on their next two drives, the Giants drove to the Eagles 22-yard line. The Giants had a chance at the end zone after rookie WR Ike Hilliard put a move on Eagles defender Charles Dimry and broke free in the corner of the end zone. Hilliard bobbled the ball and was unable to hold on before losing the ball out of bounds. The Giants settled for a 39-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal and a 24-3 lead. On the Eagles ensuing drive, Peete completed a pass to WR Mark Seay on third-and-12 for a 38-yard gain and a first down at the Giants 20-yard line. The Eagles reached the Giants three-yard line before RB Ricky Watters punched it in to cut the Giants lead to, 24-10. On the Eagles next possession, Peete completed two third down passes to help put the Eagles in position for his 14-yard touchdown pass to FB Kevin Turner to close the Giants lead to 24-17. After stopping the Giants on three straight plays, Eagles PR Mark Seay fielded a punt at the 12-yard line and returned it 42 yards to the Giants 46-yard line. Peete moved the Eagles to the Giants 21-yard line and attempted to throw a pass to TE Jason Dunn over the middle, but Garnes stepped in front and intercepted the ball at the five-yard line and raced 95 yards untouched for the touchdown. The Giants had five rookies in the starting lineup (Barber, C Derek Engler, Garnes, Hilliard and P Brad Maynard), the most since the Giants had three rookies and a rookie punter in the lineup in 1974.

Game 2

JACKSONVILLE 40, GIANTS 13

At Jacksonville, Sept. 7, 1997

The Jacksonville Jaguars dominated the Giants in a 40-13 victory at Alltel Stadium in Jacksonville. The Jaguars defense held the Giants to just 39 yards rushing, and the Giants completed just 16 passes for 182 yards. In the first half, the Giants were held to just three completions on 13 attempts for 32 yards. The Jaguars held the Giants offense to six drives of three plays, forced two fumbles and an interception, and allowed just one Giants drive to last longer than two minutes. The Giants did take an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter before surrendering a 20-point second quarter. DT Keith Hamilton forced a fumble on a three-yard sack of Jaguars QB Steve Matthews, allowing the Giants to recover at the Jacksonville 27-yard line. A QB Dave Brown 23-yard pass to WR Ike Hilliard, who left the game with a neck injury following the play, pushed the Giants to the four-yard line where RB Tiki Barber scored for a 7-0 Giants advantage. The Jaguars scored on four out of their next five drives to take a commanding 20-7 lead at the end of the first half. A 43-yard pass from Matthews to WR Keenan McCardell set up a 23-yard field goal by PK Mike Hollis to open the second quarter. After recovering a Barber fumble at the Giants 16-yard line, the Jaguars drove to the Giants three-yard line. The Giants seemed to escape the Jaguar scoring threat when LB Jessie Armstead deflected a Matthews pass that was intercepted by LB Corey Widmer in the end zone. CB Thomas Randolph was called for a pass interference penalty, giving the Jaguars another chance at the end zone. Two plays later, RB James Stewart gave the Jaguars a 10-7 lead with a one-yard touchdown run up the middle. The Jaguars began their next scoring drive on their own 18-yard line and completed two third down plays to reach the Giants ten-yard line. The Giants held the Jaguars on a third down play at the ten, but the Jaguars elected to try to convert a fourth-and-two situation. RB Natrone Means took the handoff and broke outside around the end for a nine-yard touchdown and a 17-7 lead. The Giants stopped Jacksonville on their next series and got the ball back at the Jaguars 43-yard line with 1:30 left to play in the first half. The Giants reached the Jaguars 30-yard line before TE Howard Cross fumbled a reception away at the Jaguars 33 with 56 seconds left in the half. A 21-yard pass play from Matthews to WR Willie Jackson gave the Jaguars a first down inside Giants territory at the 46-yard line, setting up a 52-yard Hollis field goal to make the score 20-7 Jacksonville at the end of the first half. Following a 35-yard Hollis field goal that increased the Jacksonville lead to 23-7 in the third quarter, the Giants narrowed the lead to 23-13 with their only extensive drive of the day, a 72-yard drive that resulted in an eight-yard touchdown pass from Brown to WR Chris Calloway. The drive started at the Jaguars 28-yard line, and a 29-yard pass from Brown to Barber down the left sideline got the Giants inside Jaguars territory at the 39-yard line. A pass interference call against Jacksonville gave the Giants a first down at the eight-yard line. On the next play Brown found Calloway across the back of the end zone for the score. The Jaguars put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter with 17 unanswered points. A 41-yard pass from Matthews to WR Jimmy Smith set up another Hollis field goal. The Giants lost any chance of a come-from-behind victory when Calloway slipped on a Brown pass, resulting in an interception at the Jaguars 25 and another Jacksonville touchdown.

Game 3

BALTIMORE 24, GIANTS 23

At East Rutherford, Sept. 14, 1997

Baltimore PK Matt Stover connected on a 37-yard field goal with :34 left in the game to lift the Ravens to a 24-23 victory at Giants Stadium. The difference in the game was PK Brad Daluiso missing on two field goals from 41 yards, and the Giants miss firing on two extra point attempts. The first extra point attempt in the second quarter was blocked, and the Giants failed to convert a two-point play at the end of the first half that would have tied the game at 14-14. Both of Daluiso's missed attempts were converted into Ravens field goals. The Giants came back from a 14-6 deficit and were leading 23-21 with a chance to extend the lead after reaching the Ravens 24-yard line with just under three minutes remaining in the game. Baltimore stopped the Giants on a third-and-one play that forced a 41-yard field goal attempt. Daluiso's attempt sailed wide right, allowing the Ravens to take over at the 32-yard line. Baltimore QB Vinny Testaverde completed three straight passes in the two-minute drill to drive the Ravens to the Giants 20-yard line to get in position for Stover's game-winning field goal. Baltimore took their first offensive possession 56 yards in six plays, finishing the drive with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Testaverde to WR Derrick Alexander for an early 7-0 lead. A strong defensive effort that saw the Giants stop the Ravens behind the line of scrimmage on three consecutive plays allowed the Giants to field a Baltimore punt at the 49-yard line late in the first quarter. The Giants drove to the Ravens' one-yard line, setting up a one-yard touchdown run by RB Tiki Barber in the second quarter. The Giants failed to tie the game at 7-7 when Daluiso's extra-point attempt was blocked by DE Rob Burnett. The Giants drove as far as the Ravens' 19-yard line on their next possession, but were forced to attempt a 41-yard field goal that sailed wide right to end the scoring threat. The Ravens took the ball and reached the Giants one-yard line. The drive was helped when Ravens WR Michael Jackson drew a pass interference call on CB Thomas Randolph for 21 yards and beat Randolph for a 34-yard gain to set up a one-yard touchdown run by RB Jay Graham for a 14-6 Baltimore lead. The Giants took the ensuing kickoff and drove 67 yards in 10 plays before QB Dave Brown threw a one-yard touchdown pass to FB Charles Way. The Giants two-point play was stopped, and the Ravens kept a 14-12 lead at the end of the first half. The Giants took the lead in the third quarter when RB Tyrone Wheatley's one-yard touchdown run capped an 11-play, 61-yard drive. A successful two-point play on a Brown-to-Barber pass following the touchdown run and a 27-yard field goal by Daluiso in the fourth quarter extended the Giants lead to 23-14. The Ravens fought back with a 10-point fourth quarter to capture the franchise's first-ever road victory. The Giants won the battle on paper with more first downs (29 to 19), more total offense (390 to 273), more rushing yards (121 to 63) and more passing yards (269 to 210).

Game 4

ST. LOUIS 13, GIANTS 3

At St. Louis, Sept. 21, 1997

The Giants dropped to 1-3 on the season with a 13-3 defeat to the Rams at the Trans World Dome in St. Louis. Despite beginning three drives at midfield and three drives inside Rams territory, the Giants offense failed to run a single play inside the Rams' 20-yard line. The Rams held the Giants to just 45 yards rushing for a 1.9 yard average. The Giants had only three completions on six pass attempts for 39 yards at halftime and finished with just 16 completions for 147 net yards. After spotting the Rams a 6-0 first half lead, the Giants threatened by moving inside or beginning a drive inside Rams territory on their first five drives of the second half. The Rams defense and a series of costly penalties helped hold the Giants to just one field goal. The Giants failed on two scoring threats in the third quarter. First, the Giants reached the St. Louis 36-yard line where QB Dave Brown's pass intended to WR Kevin Alexander was intercepted by FS Keith Lyle at the 14-yard line. On the next offensive series, the Giants penetrated as far as the Rams 32-yard line. Two false start penalties and an illegal chop block penalty pushed the Giants back to their own 43-yard line and out of scoring range. The Rams finally put the game out of reach when FB Craig Heyward scored on a four-yard run with under three minutes remaining in the game to give the Rams a 13-3 lead. The Rams winning drive was set up when a 29-yard punt by P Brad Maynard gave St. Louis a first down at the Giants 36-yard line. After stopping the Rams on three straight plays to start the game, the Giants began their first offensive series at midfield. The Giants first offensive play was an indication of what kind of day the Giants had ahead of them. Brown was forced to scramble on a busted play and was knocked out of the game for two offensive series with a mild concussion. The Rams jumped in front 3-0 on a 23-yard field goal by PK Jeff Wilkins at the beginning of the second quarter. The scoring drive was set up after a 33-yard Maynard punt allowed the Rams to start the drive at the Giants 44-yard line. The Giants reached as far the St. Louis 25-yard line on their next series but failed to convert a third-and-three and were forced to attempt a 42-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Rams took over and converted two third down plays on their way to the Giants three-yard line. That drive was capped by a 21-yard field goal by Wilkins as the Rams closed the first half with a 6-0 led. PK Brad Daluiso missed on a 54-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter as well as the 42-yard attempt in the second. The Giants defense limited the Rams to just 225 yards in total offense and recorded five sacks. LB Jessie Armstead set a career-high mark with 12 solo tackles, including an eight-yard sack.

Game 5

GIANTS 14, NEW ORLEANS 9

At East Rutherford, Sept. 28, 1997

The Giants snapped a three-game losing streak as a strong defensive effort allowed the Giants to hold on to beat the Saints, 14-9, and improve to 2-3 on the year. New Orleans drove into Giants territory four out of five times in the second half but were held to just one field goal. Down 14-9 with 5:44 left to play in the fourth quarter, New Orleans CB Alex Molden forced QB Dave Brown to fumble on a 14-yard sack. DE Darren Mickell recovered the loose ball and raced 11 yards to give the Saints the ball at the Giants 35-yard line. LB Corey Widmer sacked QB Heath Shuler on a second down play and S Tito Wooten defended a pass intended to WR Andre Hastings on third down. The Saints elected to pin the Giants deep in their own territory with a punt rather than try a 51-yard field goal into the wind. The Giants took over at their own three-yard line where RB Tyrone Wheatley gained 41 yards to help the Giants run off the final 3:38 to seal the victory. Wheatley, who finished with 11 carries for 60 yards, filled in for RB Tiki Barber, who left in the third quarter after suffering a tear to the PCL of his right knee. The Giants jumped in front, 7-0, when Brown threw a perfect timing pass to WR Kevin Alexander for a 32-yard touchdown on a first down play midway through the first quarter. The touchdown play was set up by a 44-yard punt return by WR Amani Toomer that gave the Giants a first down at the Saints 32-yard line. Three long passes by Shuler on the Saints next series set up a 36-yard field goal by Doug Brien to cut the Giants lead to 7-3 at the end of the first quarter. The Giants increased their lead to 14-3 with their longest scoring drive of the season to date, a 12-play, 84-yard drive that took 4:55 off the clock. The drive concluded with a 14-yard touchdown pass from Brown to Calloway. The drive was highlighted by two third-down shot gun passes from Brown to Barber that resulted in big gains. A 14-yard pass-play helped the Giants convert a third-and-three situation, and a 15-yard play helped the Giants convert on third-and-seven. Brown hit on eight out of nine passes during the drive.

Game 6

GIANTS 20, DALLAS 17

At East Rutherford, Oct. 5, 1997

The Giants broke a four-year trend of losing big to Dallas in the first meeting of the season with a 20-17 victory at Giants Stadium. The victory improved the Giants record to 3-3. The Giants won despite being outgained in total yards 428-166 and possessing the ball for just 19:23. Two interceptions by the Giants defense, including one that was returned for a touchdown, and 119 penalty yards, including two pass interference penalties that aided in Giants scoring drives, helped the Giants to victory. The Giants defense limited the Cowboys to just one touchdown on five trips inside the Giants 20-yard line. The Cowboys closed the Giants lead to 20-17 on a touchdown and two-point conversion with 1:54 left to play. The Giants muffed the ensuing kickoff, which bounced off of a Dallas player inside the Giants 10-yard line before RB Tyrone Wheatley recovered the loose ball at the 14-yard line. The Giants failed to move the ball against the Dallas defense, and following a third-down sack after QB Danny Kanell tripped, were forced to punt from their own end zone with under one minute to play. The Giants coverage unit stopped a Dallas reverse on the punt, forcing the Cowboys to begin their last drive at the their own 36-yard line with :48 left. Dallas QB Troy Aikman completed a 15-yard pass and a 32-yard pass during the drive to move the Cowboys to the Giants 17-yard line where the clock ran out before Dallas, who was out of time outs, could attempt a game-tying field goal. Dallas opened the game by driving 61 yards in 10 plays before PK Richie Cunningham put the Cowboys on the board with a 38-yard field goal. Cunningham missed a 40-yard attempt on Dallas' next possession, but he put the Cowboys in front, 6-0, with a 31-yard field goal in the second quarter. The Giants gained just 55 yards on their first four drives before Kanell led the Giants 63 yards on 10 plays at the end of the second quarter, a drive that culminated with a 27-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal to cut the Dallas lead to 6-3 at the end of the first half. Kanell, playing in relief of starter Dave Brown who left after aggravating a pectoral strain in the second quarter, completed four of six passes for 55 yards on the scoring drive. The Giants received the second half kickoff and a 33-yard pass interference penalty against CB Kevin Smith on coverage of WR Chris Calloway gave the Giants a first down at the Dallas seven-yard line. Daluiso's 22-yard field goal tied the game at 6-6. Dallas took the kickoff and drove to the Giants nine-yard line where they were forced to settle for a 27-yard Cunningham field goal that put Dallas in front, 9-6. S Tito Wooten gave the Giants the lead after he stepped in front of WR Michael Irvin to intercept an Aikman pass and raced 61 yards for a touchdown at the end of the third quarter. The Giants increased their lead to 20-9 in the fourth quarter following a three-yard touchdown run by FB Charles Way. A 37-yard punt return to the Dallas 33-yard line by WR Amani Toomer and a 26-yard pass interference penalty on Smith helped the Giants reach the Dallas three-yard line to set up the touchdown. On the Cowboys last scoring drive, Aikman completed 10 of 12 passes for 64 yards and concluded the Cowboys 14-play, 75-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown pass to WR Anthony Miller, the Giants defense's second touchdown allowed in 12 quarters.

Game 7

GIANTS 27, ARIZONA 13

At Tempe, Oct. 12, 1997

The Giants climbed over the .500 mark with a 27-13 road victory over the Arizona Cardinals to improve their record to 4-3. QB Danny Kanell made his first NFL start, completing 13 of 28 passes for 198 yards with one touchdown and one interception, and RB Tyrone Wheatley had his first career 100-yard performance with 103 yards on 22 carries. The Giants offense produced 426 total yards, including 239 yards gained on the ground. FB Charles Way also had a big day, finishing with 91 yards on 13 carries, and set up the Giants last touchdown with a 37-yard run to the Cardinals 30-yard line. The Giants defense intercepted the Cardinals four times, recovered one fumble, had five sacks and limited the Arizona running game to just 27 yards. S Percy Ellsworth finished with two interceptions that ended Cardinals drives inside the Giants 20-yard line. In the second quarter, Ellsworth intercepted QB Kent Graham at the Giants ten-yard line. In the fourth quarter, he picked off a QB Stoney Case pass at the Giants two-yard line. After Kanell led the Giants to a pair of field goal drives for a 6-0 Giants advantage, his pass intended for WR Chris Calloway in the second quarter was intercepted by Cardinals CB Aeneas Williams at the Giants 30-yard line. Williams returned the interception for a touchdown, but PK Kevin Butler's extra point attempt hit the left upright for a 6-6 tie at the half. Kanell overcame the blunder and a first half that saw him complete just 8 of 21 pass attempts for 73 yards and directed the Giants on three second half touchdown drives. He made three big plays in the second half that turned the game in the Giants favor. The first big play occurred after DT Robert Harris put the Giants in position for their first score when he forced QB Stoney Case to fumble on a third quarter sack and DE Chad Bratzke recovered for the Giants at their own 36-yard line. Kanell connected with WR Chris Calloway for a 47-yard gain to give the Giants a first down at the Arizona 10-yard line. Two plays later, Kanell took his time in the pocket and completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to WR David Patten for a 13-6 Giants lead. Kanell made his third big play at the beginning of the fourth quarter, hooking up with Patten for a 34-yard gain and a Giants first down at the Cardinals eight-yard line. Wheatley punched it in on the next play to increase the Giants lead to 20-6. The Giants pulled in front 27-6 on their next possession by gaining 85 yards on eight straight running plays before newly acquired RB Eric Pegrum capped the drive with an 18-yard touchdown run. The drive was highlighted by a 37-yard run from Way that gave the Giants a first down at the Arizona 30-yard line. The Cardinals closed the gap to 20-13 following a blocked Brad Maynard punt that set up a one-yard touchdown run by Case. The Cardinals recovered an outside kick at their own 38-yard line on the ensuing kick with just :53 remaining. The Cardinals reached the Giants 38-yard line where Case's pass into the end zone was intercepted by CB Jason Sehorn to seal the Giants victory.

Game 8
GIANTS 26, DETROIT 20 (overtime)
At Pontiac, Oct. 19, 1997

QB Danny Kanell connected with WR Chris Calloway for a 68-yard touchdown on the third play in overtime to lift the Giants to a 26-20 victory over the Detroit Lions in the Pontiac Silverdome. The victory pushed the Giants into sole possession of first place in the NFC East with a 5-3 record. The Giants special teams units highlighted the Giants performance against the Lions, producing a touchdown on a punt return and field goals of 52 and 47 yards. Calloway, who finished the game with five receptions for 145 yards, helped set up the Giants first touchdown following Kanell's only major mistake during the Giants first touchdown drive in the first quarter. The Giants drive got off to an inauspicious start when Kanell's pass intended for TE Aaron Pierce was intercepted by Lions S Van Malone at the Detroit 21-yard line. Calloway stripped Malone of the football during the return and FB Charles Way recovered for the Giants at the 16-yard line. A roughing the passer penalty against Detroit during the play gave the Giants a first down at the eight-yard line, setting up Kanell's two-yard touchdown pass to TE Howard Cross for a 7-0 Giants lead. Detroit scored on two consecutive possessions to start the second quarter. The Lions took a 10-7 lead on a 22-yard field goal by PK Jason Hanson and an eight-yard touchdown run by RB Barry Sanders (80 yards in the first half and 105 yards in the game). The Giants tied the game at 10-10 before the end of the half by executing the two-minute drill. After taking over at their own 49-yard line, Kanell completed a key third-down pass to RB Eric Pegram for a first down inside Detroit territory at the 41-yard line with :44 left. Kanell led the Giants to the 35-yard line where PK Brad Daluiso connected on a 52-yard field goal to tie the game at 10-10. The Giants took the lead in the third quarter after a costly mistake by the Lions. The Giants defense had stopped the Lions and forced them to punt from their own 30-yard line, where they got off a 57-yard punt. Lions LB Scott Kowalkowski was penalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty, forcing the Lions to punt from the 15-yard line. WR Amani Toomer fielded a short punt on the run and raced 53 yards in and out of traffic for the touchdown and a 17-10 lead. The Lions drove to the Giants 10-yard line on the ensuing drive, but the Giants defense held the Lions to another field goal for a 17-13 score heading into the fourth quarter. The Giants pulled in front, 20-13, at the beginning of the fourth quarter when Daluiso connected on a 47-yard field goal. The Giants turned to Way, who gained 90 yards on 13 rushing attempts, to try to run out the clock and preserve the lead. However, the Lions tied the game by converting three third down attempts, including a third-and 16 situation, as they moved to the Giants four-yard line where QB Scott Mitchell fired a four-yard touchdown pass to WR Johnnie Morton with two minutes remaining. In overtime, Calloway made the call on the coin toss to give the Giants the ball. It took just three plays in overtime before Kanell connected with Calloway to give the Giants the victory.

Game 9

GIANTS 29, CINCINNATI 27

At East Rutherford, Oct. 26, 1997

The Giants overcame a 21-10 halftime deficit with a 19-point second half to complete a come-from-behind 29-27 victory over the visiting Cincinnati Bengals. After the Bengals closed the score to 29-27, the Giants needed a big-time play by CB Jason Sehorn on a potential game-tying two-point attempt to seal the victory. Bengals QB Jeff Blake scored on a four-yard run on the quarterback keeper to bring Cincinnati within two points with 1:31 left in regulation. Blake attempted to complete a pass to WR Carl Pickens in the end zone on the two-point play, but Sehorn leaped in front and came away with an interception. The Giants ran out the final 1:29 to remain in sole possession of first place in the NFC East with a 6-3 record. The Giants opened the game with four straight plays that resulted in first downs and took a 3-0 lead when PK Brad Daluiso connected on a 35-yard field goal. The Bengals responded with a 10-play, 66-yard drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Corey Dillon. The Giants took the lead again after FB Charles Way scored on a one-yard touchdown run for a 10-7 Giants advantage. The Giants lead did not last long due to a 102-yard kickoff return on the ensuing kick by Eric Bieniemy that gave the Bengals a 14-10 lead. With six seconds left in the first half and the Bengals faced with a fourth-and-five situation from the Giants 39, Blake burned the Giants with a 39-yard touchdown pass to WR David Dunn to give the Bengals an 11-point lead. LB Jessie Armstead set up the Giants first points in the second half when he forced Blake to fumble on a scramble out of the pocket. S Percy Ellsworth recovered the loose football for the Giants at the Cincinnati 47 and raced 24 yards to the 23-yard line. The Giants reached the one-yard line behind three Cincinnati penalties, including a pass interference call that gave the Giants a first down at the Bengals three-yard line. Way's second one-yard touchdown run made it 21-16 following a failed two-point conversion. The Giants took the lead early in the fourth quarter on the first of two RB Tyrone Wheatley touchdown runs. QB Danny Kanell set up the Giants touchdown with a key 23-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway on third down to give the Giants a first down at the Bengals one-yard line where Wheatley punched it in for a 22-21 lead. But again, the Giants failed on another two-point try. Wheatley's three-yard touchdown run later in the fourth quarter capped a seven-play, 69-yard drive and extended the Giants lead to 29-21 with under five minutes remaining. The drive was keyed by a 40-yard pass down the sideline from Kanell to WR Kevin Alexander (5 receptions for 100 yards). The Bengals moved 62 yards in less than two minutes before scoring on a four-yard run. Pickens ran a fade pattern, but Sehorn came away with the ball to clinch the win for the Giants.

Game 10
TENNESSEE 10, GIANTS 6
At Memphis, Nov. 9, 1997

The Tennessee Oilers snapped the Giants five-game winning streak with a 10-6 victory at the Liberty Bowl in Memphis. The win was the Oilers first victory ever against the Giants. After holding the Oilers to a 31-yard PK Al DelGreco field goal following a 12-play, 64-yard drive on Tennessee's opening series, the Giants had a key pass interference penalty against the Oilers negated by a face mask penalty. The play with the infraction was set up after Oilers QB Steve McNair fumbled the ball at his own 44-yard line, and S Tito Wooten recovered the loose ball for the Giants at the 46-yard line. On the next play, QB Danny Kanell attempted a pass to WR Kevin Alexander in the end zone. Alexander was tripped by Oilers S Marcus Robertson, who intercepted the ball and raced upfield before finally being pushed out of bounds. Robertson was called for the interference penalty, but G Greg Bishop was flagged for a face mask penalty and the Giants returned to the 46-yard line instead of having a first-and-goal from the goal line. Oilers RB Eddie George pounded out 122 yards on 32 carries and scored the game's only touchdown when he capped an 84-yard drive with a one-yard run with :55 left in the first half. The Giants executed a successful two-minute drill on the ensuing drive that resulted in a 42-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso. QB Danny Kanell set up the score with a 27-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway to the Oilers 25-yard line. In the third quarter, the Giants reached the 13-yard line and failed on two pass attempts into the end zone before settling for another Daluiso field goal for the final scoring of the game. The Giants last chance for victory was spoiled when Kanell, who suffered his first loss as the Giants starting quarterback, was intercepted by the Oilers at the 50-yard line with under two minutes remaining in the game.

Game 11

GIANTS 19, ARIZONA 10

At East Rutherford, Nov. 16, 1997

The Giants squandered a 10-0 first half lead before bouncing back in the fourth quarter to take a 19-10 victory over the visiting Arizona Cardinals. FB Charles Way paced the Giants running attack with 114 yards on 14 carries as the team amassed 201 yards on the ground. The Giants defense held the Arizona ground game to just 49 yards. Despite yielding 388 net yards passing, the Giants sacked QB Jake Plummer eight times and forced two interceptions, including one that led to a Giants field goal late in the game. The Giants culminated a 17-play, 80-yard drive in the fourth quarter with a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Danny Kanell to TE Howard Cross to pull ahead 16-10. PK Brad Daluiso missed the extra point attempt, but two Giants interceptions helped prevent Arizona from taking advantage of the Giants miscue. On the ensuing series, CB Jason Sehorn (10 tackles, a sack, four passes defended, one interception and a forced fumble and fumble recovery) intercepted Plummer at the Giants 39-yard line and returned it 41 yards to the Cardinals 20-yard line where Daluiso connected on a 34-yard field goal for a 19-10 lead with under five minutes remaining. The Cardinals reached the Giants 30-yard line with 1:06 remaining but S Tito Wooten intercepted Plummer, and the Giants ran out the clock to preserve the win. After playing to a scoreless first quarter, the Giants wasted a 79-yard drive inside the Arizona five-yard line at the beginning of the second quarter after being stopped on four straight running attempts. It was only the second time in 1997 that the Giants failed to score on a drive inside the 20-yard line. The Giants pulled in front 3-0 after taking advantage of a Cardinals turnover. Sehorn forced and recovered a RB Leeland McElroy fumble at the Arizona 42-yard line to set up a 33-yard field goal by Daluiso. The Giants took a 10-0 lead on the next series when WR Amani Toomer chalked up his first NFL touchdown reception on a 56-yard pass from Kanell. The Cardinals got on the board in the third quarter after Plummer escaped the grasp of Giants DT Robert Harris and completed a 70-yard touchdown pass on the scramble to WR Frank Sanders. A 34-yard field goal by PK Joe Nedney tied the game at 10-10 heading into the final quarter of play. A 17-play, 80-yard drive in the fourth quarter culminated with what proved to be the winning touchdown, a one-yard pass from Kanell to Cross in the back of the end zone. All of the points in the game were scored when the teams had the 15-mph wind at their backs.

Game 12

GIANTS 7, WASHINGTON 7 (overtime)

At Washington, Nov. 23, 1997

The Giants and Redskins played to a 7-7 tie in a defensive battle at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium in a Sunday Night Football matchup. The Giants, who failed to convert on three turnovers in the overtime period, had a chance to win the game midway through overtime after stopping Washington RB Terry Allen on a fourth-and-one play at the Giants 41-yard line. The Giants took over on downs and moved to the Redskins 36-yard line where PK Brad Daluiso's 54-yard attempt at the winning field goal sailed wide left. The Redskins ensuing drive lasted only one play as QB Jeff Hostetler's pass intended for WR Henry Ellard was intercepted by CB Phillippi Sparks at the Giants 49-yard line. The Giants moved to the Redskins 36-yard line again and Daluiso was sent out one more time to try a game-winning 54-yard field goal. Daluiso's attempt was blocked and the Redskins pounced on the ball at the Giants 40. Incredibly, the play was called back because the Redskins had called a timeout before the ball was kicked. This time head coach Jim Fassel elected to punt rather than attempt another field goal. The Redskins took over with 2:12 left in overtime and used an effective two-minute drill with no time outs to reach the Giants 36-yard line where PK Scott Blanton attempted a 54-yard field goal with eleven seconds remaining. His kick was short, giving the Giants the ball back with one second remaining. QB Danny Kanell's desperation pass was intercepted and the Giants played to their first tie since the 1983 season. Both teams scored their lone touchdowns following turnovers. The Redskins touchdown was set up when LB Ken Harvey, who finished with four sacks, forced Kanell to fumble on an eight-yard, blind-side sack. DE Kenard Lang recovered for Washington at the Giants 26-yard line. The Redskins moved to the one-yard line where QB Gus Frerotte scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Foreshadowing how bizarre the game would be, Frerotte injured his neck during a post-touchdown celebration when he head-butted the wall behind the end zone and jammed his neck. He played the rest of the first half before Hostetler took over. The Giants tied the game in the third quarter after Sparks intercepted Hostetler to end the Redskins first drive in the second half at the 46-yard line. A 20-yard pass interference penalty against the Redskins gave the Giants a first down at the Redskins four-yard line, setting up a four-yard touchdown pass from Kanell to WR Chris Calloway. Redskins CBs Darrell Green and Chris Dishman played a fine game, limiting Kanell to just six completions to his wide receivers. The Giants running game was effective as FB Charles Way produced 84 yards on 17 carries. The Giants defense limited Washington to an average of 2.6 yards per carry.

Game 13

TAMPA BAY 20, GIANTS 8

At East Rutherford, Nov. 30, 1997

The Giants offense failed to score a touchdown despite being handed key field position on three first half turnovers in a 20-8 loss to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The Giants opened the game with a 27-yard pass completion from QB Danny Kanell to WR Chris Calloway and moved to the Tampa Bay 25-yard line in the offense's only sustained drive of the game. Faced with a fourth-and-two situation, head coach Jim Fassel kept the offense on the field for a long count in an attempt to draw the Bucs offside. The Giants were pushed back five yards on a delay of game penalty, and PK Brad Daluiso missed on a 47-yard field goal attempt. The offense failed to capitalize on two first half interceptions by CB Phillippi Sparks, including one that he returned 68 yards to the Tampa Bay 27-yard line. Kanell killed both drives with two interceptions of his own. He ended the first drive when he was picked off at the Buccaneers 10-yard line. Another Kanell interception followed by a 16-yard return gave the Bucs a first down at their own 44-yard line. A 53-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to RB Warrick Dunn gave Tampa Bay a first down at the Giants two-yard line, setting up a one-yard touchdown pass from Dilfer to FB Mike Alstott for a 7-0 Buccaneers lead. The Buccaneers drove to the Giants 27-yard line on their next possession, but S Tito Wooten was ruled to have come up with an interception that he returned to the Giants 28-yard line with 25 seconds remaining in the first half. The Giants threw three incomplete passes before settling for a 45-yard field goal by Daluiso to cut the Bucs lead to 7-3 at the end of the first half. A 42-yard pass interference penalty against CB Jason Sehorn helped Tampa Bay build a 14-3 lead when the Bucs scored on a nine-yard touchdown run by Alstott to open the second half. A 17-yard run by FB Charles Way and a 38-yard run by RB Tyrone Wheatley, accompanied by two penalties against Tampa Bay S John Lynch, put the Giants in position for Daluiso's 30-yard field goal that narrowed the Bucs lead to 14-6 at the end of the third quarter. The Giants defense closed the gap even further as a strong rush by CB Conrad Hamilton led to a safety when Dilfer was called for grounding the ball in the end zone to make it 14-8. The Giants tried to generate some offense on the next possession and elected to attempt a fourth-and-one conversion from the Buccaneers 47-yard line but were stopped on a run up the middle. The Buccaneers put the game out of reach on their next series with a 52-yard scoring drive. A 30-yard pass interference penalty against Sparks helped the Bucs convert on third-and-18 and gave them a first down at the Giants 30-yard line. Led by Dunn, who finished with 120 yards on 24 carries, Tampa Bay moved to the Giants one-yard line where RB Errict Rhett scored on a one-yard run for the 20-8 final.

Game 14

GIANTS 31, PHILADELPHIA 21

At Philadelphia, Dec. 7, 1997

The Giants continued their pursuit of a spot in the NFC playoff field with a 31-21 victory over the NFC East rival Philadelphia Eagles at Veterans Stadium. The Giants defense dominated, forcing five turnovers (three interceptions and two fumbles) that led to 21 points. QB Danny Kanell's three touchdown passes and RB Tiki Barber's 114-yard rushing performance lifted the offense. LB Jessie Armstead set the tone early in the game when he intercepted QB Bobby Hoying on the Eagles first offensive drive and raced 57 yards untouched down the sideline for a touchdown. Philadelphia quickly tied the game at 7-7 after Kanell lost grip of the ball while attempting to pass. The play resulted in a fumble that was returned to the Giants three-yard line and set up a RB Ricky Watters one-yard touchdown run. The Giants defense forced two more turnovers within a 1:02 span in the second quarter that were converted into two touchdowns for a commanding 21-7 halftime advantage. First, LB Scott Galyon forced Hoying to fumble on a nine-yard sack and DT Keith Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Eagles 42-yard line. The Giants moved to the 11-yard line before Kanell completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to Barber for a 14-7 lead. The Eagles next offensive series ended when DE Bernard Holsey forced a fumble on a sack of Hoying that was recovered by DE Michael Strahan at the Eagles 40-yard line. Two plays later, Kanell fired a 40-yard touchdown pass to WR David Patten, who was making his first NFL start. The Eagles closed the gap to 21-14 in the third quarter after S Brian Dawkins intercepted a Kanell pass and scored a touchdown on a 64-yard return. The Giants ended the Eagles comeback hopes with an impressive 70-yard scoring drive in the fourth quarter. Barber helped set up the Giants score with a 42-yard run to the five-yard line on a fake reverse. Kanell scrambled to his right and found WR Chris Calloway in the back of the end zone for a five-yard touchdown and a 28-14 lead. A 19-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso increased the Giants lead to 31-14 with 3:40 left to play. The Eagles, who were held to just 70 yards on the ground and 186 net passing yards, capitalized on the Giants prevent defense when WR Irving Fryar and Hoying hooked up for a 72-yard touchdown play with just under three minutes remaining. The Eagles attempted an onside kick that was recovered by FB Charles Way, allowing the Giants to run out the clock and improve to 8-5-1 and notch their first winning season since the 1994.

Game 15

GIANTS 30, WASHINGTON 10

At East Rutherford, Dec. 13, 1997

The Giants clinched their first NFC East Division Championship since 1990 and their first playoff berth since 1993 with a 30-10 victory over the Washington Redskins at Giants Stadium. Before an all-time record crowd for a Giants game at Giants Stadium (77,571), the defense dominated for the second straight week, forcing six turnovers (four interceptions and two fumbles). The Redskins had two unforced fumbles on their first two drives and the Giants jumped to a 17-0 first quarter lead after scoring on their first three possessions. Redskins RB Stephen Davis fumbled a handoff from QB Jeff Hostetler on the first possession of the game and LB Jessie Armstead recovered for the Giants at the Washington 29-yard line. Three plays later, PK Brad Daluiso kicked a 41-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. Redskins P Dan Turk mishandled the snap on the next Washington drive, allowing the Giants to start at the Redskins 16-yard line. FB Charles Way scored on a 15-yard run to put the Giants in front, 10-0. The Redskins went three-and-out before the Giants fielded a punt at their own 24-yard line where they engineered a 13-play, 76-yard drive that was capped when QB Danny Kanell fired a perfect pass in between two defenders to WR Chris Calloway for a seven-yard touchdown and a 17-0 advantage. The Redskins responded with their only scoring drive of the first half, a 55-yard, 12-play drive that culminated with a 33-yard field goal. CB Conrad Hamilton intercepted a Hostetler pass that deflected off RB Brian Mitchell at the Redskins 30-yard line and returned it 18 yards to the 12 with under two minutes remaining in the first half. The turnover set up a Daluiso 28-yard field goal and a 20-3 Giants lead at the end of the first half. Washington did get the ball back with :26 to go and drove to the Giants 39-yard line before Hostetler was intercepted by CB Jason Sehorn in the end zone. The Redskins opened the second half with a 41-yard touchdown pass from Hostetler to WR Albert Connell to close the gap to 20-10, the closest the Redskins would get to the Giants. The rest of the third quarter was marked by four turnovers in a span of seven plays. First Kanell was intercepted by FS Stanley Richard at the Giants 46-yard line. On the next play, LB Corey Widmer gave the ball back to the Giants after intercepting Hostetler at the Giants 24-yard line. The Giants were stopped by the Redskins defense on three straight plays, but got the ball back when Mitchell muffed a punt that was recovered by WR David Patten at the Redskins 31-yard line. On the Giants next play, Kanell was intercepted by Richard again. The Giants finally put a scoring drive together at the end of the third quarter, which led to another Daluiso field goal to open the final quarter. Sehorn put the game out of reach when he returned a Hostetler interception 35 yards for a touchdown on the first Washington possession of the fourth quarter.

Game 16

GIANTS 20, DALLAS 7

At Irving, Dec. 21, 1997

With a 20-7 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium, the Giants closed out the 1997 regular season with a 10-5-1 record and an undefeated 7-0-1 mark in NFC East play. The Giants are the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants jumped out to a 10-0 first quarter lead and were ahead 20-0 at the end of the first half before head coach Jim Fassel pulled the regulars in favor of the backups. QB Danny Kanell made three key passes to give the Giants the early lead. On the Giants first offensive possession, Kanell completed a 33-yard pass to WR David Patten on third down to give the Giants a first down at the Dallas 16-yard line. PK Brad Daluiso culminated the drive with a 28-yard field goal for a 3-0 Giants lead. Kanell completed a 41-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway for a first down at the Dallas 20-yard line to get the Giants in position on their next scoring drive. Faced with third-and-11 from the Dallas 21-yard line, Calloway beat Dallas S Brock Marion and hooked up with Kanell in the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown and a 10-0 Giants advantage at the end of the first quarter. The Giants added 10 more points in the second quarter following a 42-yard Daluiso field goal and a one-yard touchdown run by RB Rodney Hampton, who kept the scoring drive alive when he converted a third-and-one situation from the Dallas six-yard line. Hampton's touchdown run made him the Giants all-time leader with 49 career rushing touchdowns. The Cowboys only points of the day came following a Giants turnover when C Bryan Stoltzberg and QB Dave Brown fumbled the exchange at the Giants 20-yard line on the first play of the second half. RB Emmitt Smith carried on three consecutive plays before scoring on a four-yard run. The Giants defense held the Cowboys to drives of three plays or less on 10 of the 15 Dallas possessions.

Wild Card Game

MINNESOTA 23, GIANTS 22

At East Rutherford, Dec. 27, 1997

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to the Minnesota Vikings in a Wild Card matchup at Giants Stadium. Through a combination of mistakes and big plays by the Vikings, Minnesota overcame a 19-3 halftime deficit to close out the Giants 10-5-1 NFC East Championship season. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead. The game started in the Giants favor as two Cunningham turnovers inside Vikings territory led to Giants field goals on consecutive drives for a 6-0 Giants first quarter lead. The Giants built a 19-3 halftime lead by limiting Minnesota to just 68 yards in total offense. The Giants appeared to survive a Vikings comeback in the second half that cut the Giants lead to 19-13. QB Danny Kanell completed six-of-six pass attempts for 74 yards, including two third down passes, to lead the Giants to the Minnesota five-yard line where PK Brad Daluiso kicked a 22-yard field goal for a 22-13 Giants lead with just over seven minutes remaining.

GIANTS 21, RAVENS 20 AT BALTIMORE, AUGUST 2, 1997

The Giants 1997 preseason debut against the Ravens got off to an inauspicious start after the Giants turned the ball over on fumbles twice in the first 2:12 of the game. The turnovers led to a PK Matt Stover field goal and a QB Vinny Testaverde-to-Derrick Alexander touchdown pass for a quick 10-0 Ravens lead with just over four minutes gone. PK Brad Daluiso's 29-yard field goal with 1:57 to play, followed by an aborted 37-yard field goal attempt by the Ravens with :06 to go, helped seal the Giants win. The Giants come-from-behind victory was highlighted by field goals of 47 and 54 yards by Daluiso, and a 42-yard catch-and-run touchdown pass from QB Danny Kanell to WR Kevin Alexander. WR Thomas Lewis fumbled the opening kickoff, allowing the Ravens to begin their first drive at the Giants 29-yard line. Six plays later Stover's 28-yard field goal gave Baltimore a 3-0 lead. On the next Giants possession, RB Tyrone Wheatley fumbled at the Giants 19-yard line, leading to a 21-yard Testaverde touchdown pass. The Giants got on the scoreboard late in the first quarter with a safety when a strong pass rush by DE Michael Strahan forced Testaverde to intentionally ground a ball in the end zone. The Giants took the free kick following the safety and drove to the Ravens 29-yard line before Daluiso's 47-yard field goal cut the Ravens lead to 10-5 at the end of the first quarter. After the Ravens increased their lead to 17-5 early in the second quarter, QB Dave Brown led the Giants to two scoring drives that ended in field goals. Brown, who completed 11-of-17 passes for 119 yards, looked comfortable in his first game under head coach Jim Fassel's new system. He completed a key 28-yard pass to 1997 first round draft choice WR Ike Hilliard to set up Daluiso's 54-yard field goal at the end of the first half to close the Ravens lead to 17-11. The Ravens extended their lead to 20-11 in the third quarter with a 41-yard Stover field goal. Kanell's touchdown pass to Alexander pulled the Giants to within 20-18 heading into the fourth quarter. In the final quarter, the Giants took over at their own 48 with 5:18 left. The Ravens held the Giants at the 44-yard line after stopping a third-and-one situation. Baltimore was called for a roughing the punter penalty, giving the Giants another chance at the Ravens 34-yard line. Kanell then hit Hilliard for 18 yards, setting up Daluiso's game-winning field goal. The Ravens drove to the Giants 19-yard line with six seconds left to play before the botched field goal attempt helped the Giants hold on for a 21-20 win.

JACKSONVILLE 38, GIANTS 16 AT GIANTS STADIUM, AUGUST 9, 1997

The Jacksonville Jaguars spoiled head coach Jim Fassel's Giants Stadium debut with a 38-16 victory. The Giants started the game in good fashion, driving into Jaguars territory on their first two possessions, which combined for 100 yards in total offense. The first drive was killed when QB Dave Brown's 35-yard pass attempt to WR David Patten was intercepted in the end zone. On the next possession, the Giants were forced to settle for a 19-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso after failing to capitalize on a first-and-goal from the three-yard line. After the Jaguars tied the game at 3-3 with a 23-yard field goal by PK Mike Hollis in the second quarter, the Giants recaptured the lead with a 49-yard field goal by Daluiso. Jaguars QB Mark Brunell injured his knee on the following drive, but backup QB Rob Johnson rallied the Jaguars with touchdown passes of 60 and 35 yards before the half to give Jacksonville a 17-6 halftime lead. Despite catching a break when CB Conrad Hamilton recovered a fumble on the third quarter kickoff at the Giants 20-yard line, all the Giants could manage was a 28-yard field goal by Daluiso. Johnson kept the pressure on the Giants secondary, hitting on a 60-yard pass to WR Reggie Barlow, to help set up a 16-yard touchdown run by RB James Stewart that pushed Jacksonville to a 24-9 lead. QB Danny Kanell hooked up with first round draft choice WR Ike Hilliard on two passes during the Giants only scoring drive in the fourth quarter. First he connected on a 38-yard catch-and-run to the Jaguars 38-yard line, then on third-and-11 he hit Hilliard for an 18-yard gain to help set up a two-yard touchdown run by RB Tyrone Wheatley. The Jaguars finished the game by adding a touchdown run and a touchdown pass for a 38-16 final. The Giants quarterbacks combined for 248 yards by completing 23 of 30 passes. Brown finished 12 of 17 for 125 yards with one interception and no touchdowns; Kanell finished 10 of 12 for 117 yards with no touchdowns and one interception; Mike Cherry finished one of one with no touchdowns and no interceptions. The Giants effort was marred by five turnovers.

JETS 27, AT GIANTS 17 AT GIANTS STADIUM, AUGUST 16, 1997

The Jets rallied from a 17-7 deficit to win the annual preseason meeting with the Giants, 27-17, before a Giants home crowd of 57,432. The Jets cut the Giants lead to 17-14 in the third quarter and scored on a pair of field goals and a touchdown for a 13-point fourth quarter to seal the victory. After the Giants defense stuffed the Jets on the opening series, QB Dave Brown directed the Giants to the Jets 23-yard line. The Giants could not move any closer and settled for a 41-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso to put the Giants up, 3-0. The Jets took the lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Neil O'Donnell to WR Jeff Graham, capping a seven-play, 80-yard drive in the second quarter. The Jets failed to take advantage of another scoring opportunity following a Brown muffed handoff to RB Tiki Barber that gave the Jets a first down at the Giants 25-yard line. The Jets were stopped on three consecutive plays and failed to convert on fourth-and-two. The Giants got a break later in the quarter when DT Robert Harris forced Jets RB Adrian Murrell to fumble at his own 32-yard line. S Tito Wooten recovered and raced 32 yards untouched for the score and a 10-7 Giants halftime lead. The Giants took advantage of another Jets fumble in the third quarter, converting the turnover into their only offensive touchdown of the evening. O'Donnell lost a snap from center, and LB Marcus Buckley recovered at the Jets five-yard line. Three plays later, Brown fired a bullet to WR Chris Calloway in the back of the end zone to push the Giants in front, 17-7. The Jets come-from-behind victory started with a lone-yard touchdown run by Murrell on a play that was set up by a 45-yard pass from O'Donnell to Graham. A QB Glenn Foley 40-yard touchdown pass to WR Dedric Ward and two PK John Hall field goals fueled the Jets to a 27-17 victory. Barber filled in for the injured RB Rodney Hampton (knee) and RB Tyrone Wheatley (knee/ankle) and responded by leading the Giants in rushing (17-77) and receiving (7-63).

GREEN BAY 22, GIANTS 17 AT MADISON, WISCONSIN, AUGUST 22, 1997

The Green Bay Packers overcame a 17-9 deficit in the fourth quarter last Friday night and pulled out a 22-17 victory over the Giants at Camp Randall Stadium in Madison, Wisconsin. Green Bay scored with 5:20 left in the fourth quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak by reserve QB Doug Pederson to close the Giants lead to 17-15. The Packers failed to tie the game on a missed two-point conversion, but the Giants punt coverage team gave the Packers another opportunity to take the lead. WR Bill Schroeder returned a punt 55 yards to the Giants seven-yard line with four minutes left. One play later, Pederson hit TE Jeff Thomason for the go-ahead touchdown. The Giants reached the Packers 16-yard line on their final drive, but backup QB Danny Kanell's pass to WR Amani Toomer on fourth-and-eight fell incomplete. The Packers ran the final 1:48 off the clock to seal the win and end the Giants preseason with a 1-3 record. After the Giants stopped the Packers on the first series of the game, QB Brett Favre led the Packers to the Giants 32-yard line where PK Ryan Longwell's 50-yard field goal put Green Bay in front, 3-0. The Giants missed two key scoring opportunities in the second quarter. First, CB Brandon Sanders intercepted a Favre pass to give the Giants the ball at their own 42-yard line. Four plays later, Kanell's pass intended to WR Ike Hilliard was intercepted by CB Craig Newsome at the Packers 14-yard line. The other failed opportunity occurred during a Giants punt when FB Charles Way forced a fumble that LB Doug Colman recovered at the Packers 27-yard line. The play was called back due to a holding penalty. An interception by S Rodney Young at the Giants 19-yard line helped hold off a possible Packers scoring threat on the next series. The Giants took over and drove to the Packers 35-yard line where PK Brad Daluiso hit a 53-yard field goal to tie the game at 3-3. The Giants had one other failed scoring chance in the second quarter. Way recovered a Packers muffed punt to give the Giants a first down at their own 45-yard line. The Giants reached the Packers 10-yard line but were stopped on a quarterback keeper on fourth-and-one. The Giants got the ball back with 1:50 left in the first half. It took two plays before Kanell threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Hilliard for a 10-3 Giants lead. The Packers answered back, taking the ensuing kick to the Giants 11 before settling for a field goal and a 10-6 Giants halftime advantage. S Percy Ellsworth helped hold off the Packers early in the third quarter by intercepting a deflected QB Steve Bono pass at the four-yard line. A 49-yard field goal by Longwell cut the Giants lead to 10-9 heading into the final quarter of play. The Giants opened the fourth quarter by forcing a fumble that was recovered and returned to the Packers one-yard line to set up a RB Tyrone Wheatley touchdown, extending the Giants lead to 17-9. LB Ryan Phillips and DT Bernard Holsey stripped RB Chris Darkins of the ball, and CB Conrad Hamilton recovered and raced 23 yards before being pushed out of bounds at the one-yard line. Second-round draft choice RB Tiki Barber started ahead of RB Tyrone Wheatley and in place of RB Rodney Hampton (knee). He led the team with 55 yards on 11 carries for a 5.0 yard average.

GIANTS HISTORY

HISTORY CAPSULE

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to knock their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "Sneakers Game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever was a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to teams like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s, the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East Division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces started to fall together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February of the Super Bowl year it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was brought to New York before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play.

The Giants have won 17 NFL Divisional Championships and six NFL Championships, including two Super Bowl championship titles. Their success has made them a fixture in the National Football League and the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area.

HISTORY OF THE GIANTS YEAR-BY-YEAR

WHY GIANTS?

After Tim Mara purchased the Giants in 1925, he decided to call his team the New York Football Giants since they played at the Polo Grounds, the same stadium as the heralded New York Giants baseball team. The baseball team got its name from all of the giant buildings that made up the city of New York. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, Mara believed that the name Giants would strike a chord with the people and help provoke interest in his football club.

Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after just the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds against the Frankford Yellow Jackets and lost their home debut, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926

Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927

Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the thirteen game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and only allowed a mere 20 points all year.

1928

After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929

Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930

For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931

After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932

Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a tough fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass reception champion with 21 catches.

1933

The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

1934

In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27 point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

1935

After beginning the season with a 3-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit.

1936

The first NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick in it was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, making only the third time in the teams twelve-year history that it finished without a winning record.

1937

Seventeen rookies helped make up the twenty-five man roster in 1937. The 1937 season also marked the debut of the now familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938

A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. Forty-eight thousand one hundred twenty fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants had the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939

On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940

The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing that for the tenth year in a row.

1941

With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942

After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and a third place finish in the NFL East. The tone for the season was set early when the Giants defeated the Washington Redskins in the first game of the season. What was so amazing about the 14-7 victory was that the Giants didn't make a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown and later the Giants would score on an intercepted return. The Giants handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943

With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944

Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945

The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946

Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

1947

The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

1948

The team's renovation movement was stepped up in 1948 when the team acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The Giants reached another milestone in their illustrious existence, yet it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949

Giants head coach Steve Owen's switch from the "A" formation to the "T" resulted in bringing the Giants back to .500 with a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950

The New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees with the Giants. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game. It marked the first time the Giants finished above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946.

1951

End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952

Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953

Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr., out of Morgan State was the Giants 27th draft pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954

Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955

On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956

Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

1957

The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958

After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record 1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959

On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

In February, defensive coach Tom Landry left the team to become the first ever head coach of the expansion Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished an injury-plagued 1960 season with a 6-4-2 record. Head coach Jim Lee Howell announced his retirement at the end of the season and Allie Sherman was promoted to the top slot.

1961

The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became the full-time defensive coach for the upcoming 1964 season. For the first time in seventeen years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. In addition to Tittle, offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record in the process of allowing 501 points, an NFL record at the time. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967

On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up its first and second-round picks in 1967, its number one pick for 1968, and its second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 passing touchdowns led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969

The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. Even with seven consecutive losses, the Giants finished with three straight wins to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970

After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the playoffs with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971

After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972

Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973

Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut. The Giants finished with a 2-11-1 record.

1974

Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975

The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for the scheduled open of Giants Stadium for the 1976 season. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976

Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977

Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978

The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of their final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979

Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980

A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, second worst in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. They did upset Dallas 38-35 after eight straight defeats. Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981

With the second selection in the draft, New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, but then obtained running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. A three-game losing streak dropped the club to 5-6, and then Simms was injured. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime victory over Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982

A wild, wooly and turbulent year which saw the NFL players' strike shorten the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night game from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout for most of the season, returning to play in just the final five games, and then on December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an all-time NFL record with 35 field goals during the year.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants won the NFC wild card playoff spot again, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second-place in the NFC East as Simms set three all-time single season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson—were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the Divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, by a 21-0 score, the toughest outing the Bears encountered in the entire playoffs. Five players—Taylor, Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall—were named to the Pro Bowl. All told, there were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set an all-time one season rushing mark with 1,336 yards plus an all-time mark for TDs in a season with 21 while Simms broke all-time club records with 40 completions in a game for 513 yards passing. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

1986

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set an all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the Super Bowl victory with an NFL all-time playoff mark of 88% passing accuracy with his 22-for-25 passing in the 39-20 title conquest of the Denver Broncos. Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and all-time attendance records were set for both home and away, as well as single game home attendance.

1987

Not exactly a year to remember. After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a final 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in this players' strike season and the replacement games which followed. Add to that a rash of injuries which sidelined no less than 11 starters at one time or another, and the fifth-place finish was the result. While the Giants had a 6-4 record after the players' strike had been settled, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

1988

The Giants bounced back from the debacle of '87 and after splitting their first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 mark into the final week-end of the season. Alas, an upset setback at the hands of the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth as well. With that final 10-6 record, the Giants' overall mark over the five past seasons reached 54-32 for a winning percentage of .628, and those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year consecutive span. RB Joe Morris set an all-time club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and WR Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' all-time rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants startled the experts by winning their second NFC East championship in four years with a final 12-4 record, after most of those experts had predicted no better than a .500 season for the club. Veteran RB Otis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set all-time club marks in punt returns with 582 yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards during the year. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equalled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990

The Giants began the year on a hot streak, winning their first 10 games for a solid NFC East lead, then held on to win the title with a final 13-3 record, despite losing QB Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including LB Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. The Giants also set all-time attendance records, both for season home and one-game home marks. Veteran RB Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the long-time Mara family ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, and in May, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting QB, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the rest of the campaign. Simms added his 15th all-time club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

1992

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6-10 campaign as injuries to key players hurt the team and the team's performance ultimately cost Handley his job following the season. Phil Simms regained his starting QB spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th passer in NFL history to surpass 30,000 yards passing. Jeff Hostetler then started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, LB Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, the Giants general manager George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

1993

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman did so in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a Wild Card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC Divisional Playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor will be eligible for election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame following the 1998 season.

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak to close out the season with a 9-7 record. The Giants came into week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoff field. The Giants defeated the Cowboys, 15-10, but the season officially ended when the Bucs failed to defeat the Packers in a 34-19 loss. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. RB Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in the team's history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The last time a Dan Reeves-coached team finished with a losing record was 1990 when the Denver Broncos went 5-11. Eight of the Giants' 11 losses arguably could have ended with a different result. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

1996

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. Fassel spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Giants, first as quarterbacks coach in 1991, then as offensive coordinator in 1992. Following his service with the Giants, Fassel spent time with Denver, Oakland and Arizona. Despite the inability to reach the .500 mark all season, the Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of six straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

1997

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The Giants season officially ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card matchup. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News which is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. LB Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

THE GIANTS STADIUMS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

YANKEE STADIUM (1956-1973)

Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

NEW YORK GIANTS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

WELLINGTON MARA - CO-OWNER -FORDHAM ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, made up the four-man class of the 1997 Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, are the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara, whose entire lifetime has been dedicated to pro football, has helped the Giants produce 17 NFL/NFC divisional titles and six NFL championships during his 61-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937.

TIM MARA - FOUNDER - NO COLLEGE - CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 (others claim it was $2,500) in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved on the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, showed up at the Polo Grounds as a Chicago Bear and helped draw a crowd of over 70,000 people to save the Giants. After seeing the crowd that formed, Mara decided that under the right circumstances, professional football could be a big success. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse with three NFL and eight divisional titles. He was honored in 1963 as one of seventeen charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MORRIS (RED) BADGRO - END - SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA - ENSHRINED IN 1981

Badgro joined the Giants in 1927 and played nine seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro was a part of the Giants championship team of 1927. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's first Championship game in 1933. He scored the first touchdown in NFL Championship game history in 1933. In the Championship game, the Giants spotted the Chicago Bears a 6-0 lead on two field goals at Wrigley Field. The Giants took a 7-6 halftime lead when Badgro caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from QB Henry Newman in the second quarter. He tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. Badgro was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1930, 1931 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees. He played pro baseball with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. Badgro was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

ROOSEVELT BROWN - TACKLE - MORGAN ST. - ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was an All-NFL eight straight seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the championship game, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was known as a big, fast blocker who could make the block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.

FRANK GIFFORD - HALFBACK, FLANKER - SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA - ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-60 and then again from 1962-64. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first pick in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,753 combined yards during his career.

Gifford's record includes 3,609 yards rushing, 367 receptions and 484 points. He was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL annals. Gifford played in seven Pro Bowls during his career and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. He holds three Giants team records - touchdowns (78), highest average gain (500 attempts) rushing (4.30) and most receiving yards (5,434). A real triple-threat in his halfback heyday, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and then decided to return in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including the 1956 World Championship team.

MEL HEIN - CENTER - WASHINGTON ST. - ENSHRINED IN 1963

Originally joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons for the Giants, a record of team service that is matched by only Phil Simms. He was named All-NFL eight straight years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. The Giants bid the highest at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years. He played in a Giants team record 172 games. Hein never missed a game in the National Football League or in college and high school. He took time out only in two games and was injured only once. Hein was named the League's Most Valuable Player after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the 1938 World Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers at the Polo Grounds.

CAL HUBBARD - TACKLE - GENEVA - ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-29, and then again in 1936. He was one of 17 charter enshrinees into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season the Giants defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He was acquired by the Green Bay Packers in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record in 1929, edging out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants a 20-6 loss, the Giants only loss of the season.

SAM HUFF - LINEBACKER - W. VIRGINIA - ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff was originally drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 after an All-America career at West Virginia and became an immediate star as middle linebacker. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. Huff was named Outstanding Lineman in the NFL for his play in 1959. He anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. Huff was traded to the Washington Redskins before the start of the 1964 season and is currently a color analyst during Redskins radio telecasts.

TOM LANDRY - COACH - TEXAS - ENSHRINED IN 1990

Landry played with the Giants from 1950-55 as a defensive back and was an assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-59. The Giants 1956 Championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually find their way to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had a Hall of Fame coaching staff. Head coach Jim Lee Howell's staff had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended that the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

VINCE LOMBARDI - COACH - FORDHAM - ENSHRINED IN 1971

Lombardi was head coach of the Green Bay Packers and the Washington Redskins after spending the 1954-58 seasons as an assistant with the Giants. Behind Lombardi's leadership running the offense, the Giants captured the League Championship in 1956. In 19 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record, including five NFL titles and victories in Super Bowl I and Super Bowl II. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS - HALFBACK, FULLBACK
GEORGE WASHINGTON/OREGON - ENSHRINED IN 1978

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was a second-round draft choice in the first-ever NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Leemans was personally scouted by Giants co-owner Wellington Mara. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

STEVE OWEN - COACH - PHILLIPS UNIVERSITY -
ENSHRINED IN 1966

A great defensive star of the 1920s, Owen played for the Giants from 1926-36. He captained the 1927 team which won the National Football League title and held their foes to a record low of 20 points. Owen coached the Giants for 23 years from 1930 to 1953 and had a coaching record of 150-100-17, including eight divisional and two NFL title teams. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system. Owen went to college at Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma. After a year coaching at his alma mater following his graduation in 1921, Owen joined the Kansas City Cowboys and came to the Giants in 1926 and was named All-NFL at tackle for four years.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI - DEFENSIVE END - ARNOLD COLLEGE - ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was originally drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams Championship teams. In 1956, Giants co-owner Wellington Mara orchestrated a trade for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants title drive that season. Robustelli played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. During his career, he played in eight NFL title games and seven Pro Bowls. He was named All-NFL seven years, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Was acknowledged as the field leader on a Giants defense that was largely responsible for the Giants participation in six championship games and the 1956 League Title. He also served as a defensive player-coach. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

KEN STRONG - HALFBACK - NEW YORK UNIVERSITY -
ENSHRINED 1967

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35 and then from 1939-47 and excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, place kicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants all-time leading scorer with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 title over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game" on the ice-covered Polo Grounds. Was named All-NFL in 1934 and scored 64 points to top the NFL in 1933. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in 14 NFL years.

Y.A. TITTLE - QUARTERBACK - LOUISIANA ST. -
ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the most profitable trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern division championship. Tittle spent 11 seasons in the NFL and two seasons in the All-American Conference before coming to the Giants. In 1962, Tittle completed 200 passes in 375 attempts for 3,224 yards. His 33 touchdowns that season set an NFL record and his seven touchdown passes against the Washington Redskins tied another league mark. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963. He led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes set an all-time one-season record, and his 202 career scoring aials also established a record. All told, Tittle had 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with over 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957 when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took the Giants to eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963 and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLLEN TUNNELL - DEFENSIVE BACK , TOLEDO/IOWA -
ENSHRINED 1967

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948. He also attended Toledo University. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a try out. The Giants reached a milestone in their illustrious existence by signing Tunnell as their first black player. He holds the Giants team-record with 74 interceptions and 257 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kick returns than the NFL rushing leader. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER - DEFENSIVE TACKLE - WASHINGTON -
ENSHRINED 1984

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950 through the 1953 season. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big, extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays. Weinmeister began his pro career in the All-American Football Conference with the New York Yankees in 1950, and moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. He played two ways in the AAFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

OTHER HALL OF FAME MEMBERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

LARRY CSONKA - FULLBACK - SYRACUSE -
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. He left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He shined in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 19th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs.

RAY FLAHERTY - END, COACH - GONZAGA -
ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. Flaherty introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. He played with the Los Angeles Wildcats and the New York Yankees in addition to the Giants. Suggested to coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1938 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

JOE GUYON - HALFBACK - CARLISLE -
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL Championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

WILBER (PETE) HENRY - TACKLE - WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON - ENSHRINED IN 1963

Henry played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. He was the largest player of his time at 250 pounds. Henry was the bulwark of the Canton Bulldogs' championship lines in the 1920s. He played for the Canton Bulldogs and the Pottsville Maroons in addition to the Giants.

ARNIE HERBER - QUARTERBACK - REGIS COLLEGE -
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber left retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40 and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.

DON MAYNARD - WIDE RECEIVER - TEXAS WESTERN -
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-72, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. At the time of his retirement, Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) and 88 touchdowns. Maynard's yardage still ranks fourth all-time and his number of catches is seventh. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.

HUGH McELHENNY - HALFBACK - WASHINGTON -
ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963 and helped the Giants advance to the championship game that season. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.

FRAN TARKENTON - QUARTERBACK - GEORGIA -
ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. Originally with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961, he moved to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in stunning trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.

JIM THORPE - HALFBACK - CARLISLE -

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter enshrinee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time that the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to the Minnesota Vikings in a Wild Card matchup at Giants Stadium. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

THE GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

* 1927 GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen was later to say. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Windy City crew. Hinkley Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain which set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara.

1933 Chicago Bears 23, GIANTS 21

Jack Manders opened the scoring for the Bears at Wrigley Field, before 26,000 with a 16-yard field goal in the first period to touch off 60 minutes of fireworks which kept fans standing on their chairs through most of the game. Manders kicked a 28-yard FG for a 6-0 lead in the second period before Harry Newman hit Red Badgro for a touchdown pass and a 7-6 Giant lead at the half. Manders' third FG regained the lead for the Bears, but Max Krause's TD and the conversion by Ken Strong put NY back in front 14-9. A pass from Bronko Nagurski to Bill Karr made it 16-14, Chicago, before Strong lateraled to Newman who then threw a TD pass back to Strong for a 21-16 Giant lead late in the game. The Bears bounced back to win, however, when Nagurski's jump pass to Bill Hewitt was lateraled to Karr for the game-winning touchdown.

1934 GIANTS 30, Chicago Bears 13

With the temperature at nine degrees and the Polo Grounds covered with a sheet of ice, this one became famous as the "sneakers" game when Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to open the second half with his club trailing 10-3. The Giants responded with four touchdowns which had a crowd of 35,059 roaring approval. The Bears had a string of 33 games without a defeat going into this one, but fell behind 3-0 on a 38-yard FG by Ken Strong. A TD by Nagurski and a field goal by Manders got the Bears in front 10-3 at the half, when Owen sent for the sneakers to take advantage of the slippery footing. Ahead 13-3 on another Manders' FG, the Bears were swamped in a fourth-period Giant uprising which saw Ed Danowski throw a 28-yard TD pass to Ike Frankian and Ken Strong race 42 yards for another TD just moments later for a 17-13 lead. Danowski and Strong raced for subsequent touchdowns against the stunned Bears to turn the game into a rout.

1935 Detroit Lions 26, GIANTS 7

With a crowd of about 15,000 looking on, the Lions took a 13-0 lead in the first period when Leroy "Ace" Gutowsky plunged over from the 2-yard line and Earl "Dutch" Clark shook loose on a 40-yard touchdown romp. The Giants closed the gap at 13-7 in the third period when Danowski connected with Strong for a 42-yard touchdown pass, but the Lions' defense accounted for two more scores in the final period on a blocked punt and intercepted pass. Ernie Caddel scored the first on a 4-yard slant and Buddy Parker the second on a 9-yard run.

1938 GIANTS 23, Green Bay Packers 17

A slam-bang, bruising thriller was staged for the largest crowd (48,120 at the Polo Grounds) to see a championship game up to that time. With the victory, the Giants became the first team to win the championship twice since the divisional splitup. The Giants blocked two punts early in the game, and capitalized on both with Ward Cuff kicking a 13-yard FG and Tuffy Leemans blasting over on a 6-yard plunge. Arnie Herber's 50-yard TD pass to Carl Mulleneaux got the Packers on the scoreboard, but Danowski hit Hap Barnard for a 20-yard TD pass and a 16-7 lead. The Packers closed to 16-14 at halftime on Clark Hinkle's 6-yard TD, then took the lead 17-16 on Engebretsen's third-period FG. New York then stormed back to the Packer 23 from where Danowski passed to Hank Soar for the game-winning TD.

1939 Green Bay Packers 27, GIANTS 0

The Packers came up with sweet revenge in a grudge match played before 32,279 at Milwaukee's State Fair Grounds. Cold weather and a 35-MPH wind made aerial sorties a bit dubious, but Green Bay scored quickly on a 7-yard pitch from Herber to Milt Gantenbein. Engebretsen kicked a 29-yard FG in the third period for a 10-0 lead, and the Packers wrapped it up with touchdowns by Joe Laws on a 20-yard pass from Cecil Isbell, a one-yard plunge by Jankowski and Ernie Smith's 42-yard field goal.

*Victory clinched the NFL Championship; there was no Championship game played at that time.

1941 Chicago Bears 37, GIANTS 9

Attendance was only 13,341 at Wrigley Field, just two weeks after Pearl Harbor Day. The Giants led 6-3 in the first period on a Tuffy Leemans to George Franck touchdown pass of 31 yards, but the Bears scored on a pair of field goals, then broke the game wide open in the second half on touchdowns by Norm Standlee (2), George McAfee and Ken Kavanaugh.

1944 Green Bay Packers 14, GIANTS 7

The Packers took a 14-0 lead at halftime before 46,016 at the Polo Grounds on touchdowns by Ted Fritsch – the first on a 2-yard plunge and the second on a 26-yard pass from Irv Comp with Don Hutson adding the conversions. Ward Cuff scored on a 1-yard plunge on the first play of the final period for the Giants, but the Packers hung on for the triumph.

1946 Chicago Bears 24, GIANTS 14

Sid Luckman was the big man for the Bears in this win before 58,346 at the Polo Grounds. He passed for a 21-yard TD to Ken Kavanaugh to open the scoring, then ran 19 yards for a score later in the game. Dante Magnani's 19-yard pass interception accounted for the third Bear score, while the Giants hit the scoring column on touchdown passes from Frank Filchock to Frank Liebel and Steve Filipowicz.

1956 GIANTS 47, Chicago Bears 7

Fullback Mel Triplett smashed 17 yards for a TD early in the game on an icy field before a big crowd, then Ben Agajanian added a brace of field goals for a 13-0 lead. It was 34-7 at halftime as Alex Webster crashed over for a pair of touchdowns from inside the 5-yard line. Charlie Conerly's aeri-als brought nothing but more woe to the Bears in the second half, with Kyle Rote snaring a 9-yard TD throw and Frank Gifford a 14-yarder to close out the scoring.

1958 Baltimore Colts 23, GIANTS 17 (OT)

Some people call this the greatest game ever played, and perhaps it was for drama and its sudden-death ending. With a crowd of 64,185 on hand at Yankee Stadium, the Giants led 3-0 on a 36-yard Pat Summerall FG in the first period, with the Colts taking over 14-3 at halftime on scores by Alan Ameche from the 2-yard line and Ray Berry on a 15-yard pitch from Johnny Unitas. The Giants scored in the third period on a 1-yard plunge by Mel Triplett after an 86-yard gainer from Conerly to Rote with Webster picking up Rote's fumble. The Giants went in front 17-14 on Conerly's 15-yard TD throw to Gifford, but the Colts tied it with seven seconds to play on Steve Myrah's 13-yard FG and won in the overtime on Ameche's 1-yard plunge, the 13th play of a Colt drive.

1959 Baltimore Colts 31, GIANTS 16

A sellout crowd of 57,577 was on hand at Baltimore's Municipal Stadium for the big rematch of the divisional champions. The home crowd had plenty to cheer about in the early going as Unitas hit Lenny Moore for a 60-yard TD bomb, but the Giants surged back to stop the Colt offense. With Summerall kicking three field goals (23, 26 and 23 yards), the Giants led 9-7 going into the final period. But the Colts stormed back with a furious final period onslaught as Unitas scored on a 4-yard run, threw a 12-yard TD pass to Richardson and Johnny Sample returned an interception for another score.

1961 Green Bay Packers 37, GIANTS 0

With a crowd of 39,029 looking on in Green Bay, Paul Hornung paced the Packers to a stunning 37-0 triumph by scoring 19 points on a touchdown, three field goals and four conversions. On leave from his Army duties in Fort Riley, Kan., Hornung scored on a 6-yard slant in the second period to break a scoreless deadlock and set off a Packer splurge which accounted for 24 points in that quarter. The Giants were unable to recover from this onslaught and suffered their first shutout in nine seasons. Bart Starr's touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and a pair of Hornung field goals closed out the scoring in the second half.

1962 Green Bay Packers 16, GIANTS 7

Bitter cold weather at Yankee Stadium was no deterrent to 64,892 fans who turned out for the year's big one. As things turned out, a trio of field goals by Packer guard Jerry Kramer made the difference in a game where both defensive units turned in superlative jobs. The only Giant score was a result of defensive work when Erich Barnes blocked a Max McGee punt and reserve end Jim Collier fell on the ball in the end zone.

1963 Chicago Bears 14, GIANTS 10

The Bear defense turned the tide in this championship game, played in 10 degree weather in Wrigley Field. Taking the early lead on a 14-yard Y.A. Tittle TD pass to Frank Gifford and Don Chandler's FG, the Giants were the victims of five pass interceptions thereafter, two of which set up the Bear scores. Larry Morris swiped the first one for a return of 61 yards, while Ed O'Bradovich's steal of a screen pass set up what turned out to be the winning score. Tittle suffered a knee injury in the first half, but gallantly returned to action in the second half, though he was hampered and hobbled by his injury.

1986 GIANTS 39, Denver Broncos 20

Led by the brilliant record-setting passing of Phil Simms, the Giants won their first Super Bowl with a 30-point second-half onslaught before 101,063 spectators at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Simms pitched 22-for-25 for 268 yards and three TDs, setting an all-time NFL playoff mark of 88.0% completion and winning the MVP honors in the game. Down 10-9 at halftime, the Giants rang up 24 unanswered points to take a commanding 33-10 lead in the fourth period with Simms' TD passes going to TEs Zeke Mowatt and Mark Bavaro and to WR Phil McConkey. Linebacker Carl Banks was a star on defense with 10 solo tackles as the Giants concluded their greatest season ever with a 17-2 record.

1990 GIANTS 20, Buffalo Bills 19

The Giants won their second Super Bowl championship before 73,813 at Tampa Stadium by battling back from a 12-3 deficit in what many considered to be the best of all Super Bowls. Ahead 20-19 in the final moments of play, the Giants prevailed when Buffalo kicker Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt in the final moments of the game. QB Jeff Hostetler, replacing the injured Phil Simms during the playoffs, hit 20-for-32 for 222 yards and one TD, while the veteran RB Ottis Anderson had 102 yards rushing and one TD and won the MVP honors. The Giants set an all-time Super Bowl record for time of possession with 40:33 in their ball-control offensive game plan.

GIANTS STADIUM HISTORY

After calling four different stadiums home in their first 50 years in the National Football League, the Giants moved into Giants Stadium in 1976. The idea of playing at a stadium built in the Meadowlands first attracted the Giants attention when they realized that they could provide 15,000 more seats and help meet the increasing demands of the fans without a major switch in location. Giants Stadium is only 6.9 miles from Times Square, compared to Yankee Stadium which is 6.6.

In May of 1967, a local New Jersey newspaper first proposed the idea of building a Sports Complex. The idea of the complex could not begin until a major sports franchise could be attracted to the concept. With an aging Yankee Stadium, the Giants and the Yankees became immediate targets. The original construction idea called for separate stadiums for football and baseball with convenient parking and easy highway access just miles from New York City.

In 1970, the William Cahill administration began serious efforts to lure the Giants. On August 27, 1971, the Giants signed a 30-year lease for a 75,000-seat Stadium to be built by the 1975 season. The New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority was established by an act of the state legislature on May 10, 1971 to finance, construct and administer the complex. It was also decided that the complex would include a stadium for football and a racetrack. The Authority was granted powers through legislature to lease property, borrow money, issue bonds and conduct horse racing. To finance the complex the state was authorized to issue revenue bonds backed by the state-run racetrack proceeds. The complex was built and operated with no expense to the taxpayers.

Prior to construction of the facility, the project was hit with many obstacles. First, there were legislative disputes that resulted from objections to the complex, then environmentalists were concerned about the issue of wildlife preservations and air pollution from the increase of cars. Despite these problems, the Authority pushed the project along, hiring real estate consultants, accountants, bond attorneys and brokerage firms.

In September of 1973, New Jersey Governor-elect Brendan Byrne negotiated a new lease with the Giants, and the sale of bonds began and was completed in 1974. Simultaneous construction of the racetrack and stadium began in 1972. September 1, 1976 marked the opening of the Meadowlands racetrack. The Giants made their debut in Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

GIANTS 1998 TRAINING CAMP THE UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

Founded in 1844 as the state's first school for the training of teachers and the oldest chartered public institution of higher education in New York, the University at Albany today is one of the top research universities in the nation. Designated as a University Center of the State University of New York, Albany has a broad mission of undergraduate and graduate education, research and public service.

Approximately 16,000 students are enrolled in eight degree-granting schools and colleges offering more than 135 academic programs from bachelor's degree through the doctorate.

Located three miles from the center of the city of Albany, the main 525-acre campus was designed by noted architect Edward Durell Stone and completed in the 1960s. Stone grouped the academic buildings in a series of quadrangles, essentially under one roof with colonnades to provide all-weather passage from one building to another. Dormitories for 6,000 students are arranged in four three-story quadrangles with a twenty-story tower in each quadrangle. The Carillon Tower, placed in a sunken plaza, is the centerpiece of the academic campus.

Albany students receive a top-quality education at a great price when they come to the University. Money Magazine has ranked Albany among the 25 "Best College Buys" in the nation.

Mission Statement

The Giants believe that the youth of today represent our communities' future. The Giants Foundation was created to act as a network for financial and social support for disadvantaged youth and their families throughout the greater metropolitan area. All grant recipients must be 501 (c) 3 charitable organizations involved in areas such as education, health and youth-related services or civic affairs. The Giants Foundation was founded by the New York Giants Football Club.

Programs

Fund Raising - The Giants raise funds through their annual Golf outing and through the sale of the Giants calendar, yearbook and other related fundraising efforts.

Giants Academy

Giants Academy is a branch of Cities in Schools, a nationally-recognized organization which is the nation's dropout prevention leader, serving over 100,000 students. Giants Academy is located in Newark, New Jersey. The Newark Public Schools and the Boys and Girls Clubs of Newark are partners with New Jersey Cities in Schools and the New York Giants. The Academy offers tutoring, mentoring, home visits, cultural and academic enrichment and other supportive services to fifty students in grades six, seven and eight. In September of 1996, the Giants Academy moved to a new home located at the Central Unit of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Newark. Giants players are invited to be role models, career mentors and tutors at the Boys and Girls Club in Newark, New Jersey.

Foundation Board

Wellington Mara (President and Co-Chief Executive Officer for the Giants), Preston Robert Tisch (Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer for the Giants), John K. Mara (Executive Vice President and General Counsel for the Giants) and Jonathan Tisch (Treasurer for the Giants).
