JETS DIRECTORS

"It all starts at the top."

That's a common phrase when talking about the success of any professional operation, and it particularly holds true with the steps taken to bring about the resurgence of the New York Jets.

Directors Leon Hess, Townsend B. Martin and Mrs. Helen Dillon showed their desire to return the club to the forefront of the National Football League last year when they selected Walt Michaels to be their leader on the field and Jim Kensil to assume the full responsibility of administering the overall operation of the club.

In between naming Michaels and Kensil, the directors fought long and hard to secure early home dates. For the past decade, the Jets had been "orphans" of the NFL, never being allowed to play preseason or regular season games before its fans during the baseball season.

That all changed this year. Beginning with their regular season opener at Shea Stadium on Sept. 3 against Miami, the Jets will play five home games during September and October. For the remaining five years of their lease with the city at Shea, the Jets have been guaranteed at least four early season home games.

Hess and Martin have been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963. Mrs. Dillon, daughter of former club president Donald C. Lillis, assumed the post of vice president and secretary in 1968 upon the death of her father and has been an active member ever since.

LEON HESS, chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate affairs, is chairman and chief executive officer of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He is a respected member of the board of directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, vice president and treasurer, is an internationally known owner and breeder of thoroughbred horses and also an honored member of the Jockey Club. He is engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he is now a member of the board of directors.

MRS. HELEN DILLON, vice president, is a vivacious and enthusiastic fan who is in regular attendance at every Jets' game and function. She has become one of the most respected and knowledgeable woman executives in sports and is the first woman on the board of directors of the Pop Warner Football Association. Mrs. Dillon was honored in 1977 by that organization for her contributions to football. She resides in Cos Cob, Conn., with her husband, Dr. Thomas F. Dillon.

JIM KENSIL, President

Progress in pro football depends greatly on stability and direction. The Jets believe that in Jim Kensil, they have the man at the top to provide these essential elements for success.

In his first season with the Jets last year, Kensil stressed communication within the organization. "I'm interested in working with people. That's how you achieve things."

Kensil acheived a great deal working with people as an administrator in the National Football League for 16 years. He had to move only several blocks from Park to Madison Avenue when he was named the Jets' president and chief operating officer on June 6, 1977.

For nine years prior to joining the Jets, Kensil had been executive director of the National Football League, the man Pete Rozelle called "my offensive and defensive coordinator." For seven years before that, he was the NFL's public relations director.

"Jim Kensil has had a wide-ranging background," said Jets' owners Mrs. Helen Dillon, Leon Hess and Townsend Martin when Kensil was appointed. "He fully understands and is superbly equipped to take on the tough job of administering a pro football team. He will have full responsibility...."

Kensil succeeded Hess, who had served as acting president following the death of Phil Iselin in December, 1976. Hess now has the responsibilities of chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters.

While in the NFL office, Kensil made many innovative contributions to pro football. He was one of the chief architects of the new NFL scheduling format that has been introduced this season.

Kensil began his sportswriting career as a student stringer at the University of Pennsylvania. After graduating in 1952, he went to work for the Associated Press in New York City on the sports and news desk before being drafted. He served in Germany and edited the Seventh Army newspaper.

He returned to the AP in 1954 and worked nearly two years in Columbus, Ohio, before coming back to the New York bureau where he covered general sports assignments, edited the teletypesetter Sports Wire and wrote a weekly column about sports on radio and television called "The Sports Dial." He left the Associated Press in 1961 to join the NFL as public relations director.

Kensil was born Aug. 19, 1930 in Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Catherine, have four children and reside in Massapequa, Long Island. Their oldest son, Mike 22, is an administrative assistant for the Jets. They also have two other sons, Joe 20 and Danny 16, and a daughter, Mary Jo 18.

WALT MICHAELS, Head Coach

The bottom line for Walt Michaels in his first season as head coach of the New York Jets last year was not the team's won-lost record. His contribution to the second youngest club in the NFL in 1977 came as much off the field as on it.

"Michaels' tough, no-nonsense professionalism has left the Jets with promise," wrote Steve Serby, the Jets' beat writer for the New York Post. "His players are young, hungry, spirited and bad losers....Order and reason have replaced chaos and panic. And that really was the bottom line for Walt Michaels...."

The 48-year-old Michaels demanded discipline. He remained patient while his youthful team went through growing pains, and his early show of confidence in Richard Todd helped the second-year quarterback build faith in himself and mature as a leader.

"Michaels is a professional," said linebacker Greg Buttle. "He knows how to get the most out of you without killing you and without bull. He motivates people."

Under Michaels' firm and careful guidance, the young Jets regained respect throughout the NFL with their aggressive, hard-hitting style of play, particularly against some of the toughest teams in the league. The Jets upset New England in the closing seconds to give Michaels his first head coaching win. They dropped a one-point decision to the defending Super Bowl champion Raiders, fell by three points to AFC Central titleholder Pittsburgh and lost twice to Miami by four points.

"The Jets have some big, strong people on defense, some real hitters...," said Dolphin coach Don Shula. "It's a pretty good way to get on sound footing, just tough, hard-nosed football, which is the kind of player Michaels was."

The son of Polish immigrants, Michaels' football philosophy was molded in the coal mine country of Swoyersville, Pa. "My father died when he was 54 and he only understood two things about football," Michaels said. "If you hit, you win. And if you won you were successful."

Michaels did a lot of hitting and winning as a linebacker for the Cleveland Browns from 1952-61. He played on two NFL championship teams, five divisional winners and made the Pro Bowl four straight years from 1957-60.

He was drafted seventh by Cleveland in 1951 out of Washington & Lee, where he played fullback, guard and linebacker and earned a B.A. in psychology and education. The Browns traded

Michaels that same year to Green Bay for Dan Orlich and then reacquired him in 1952 for Richard Logan, Elmer Costa and Forrest Grigg. Michaels became a starting linebacker and missed only two games in his 10-year career with Cleveland.

"You played tough," Michaels recalled. "Physicals? I never had one in my life. No facemasks. Then they came along with that one-bar mask. You always played with a scab on your nose."

The toughness of Michaels was transplanted into the defenses he coached in the pro ranks. He began as the defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders in 1962 and joined the Jets the following year in a similar position under Weeb Ewbank.

For 10 years Michaels masterminded the growth of the Jets' defense, which became one of the most respected in the old AFL and AFC. Under his tutelage, such players as Gerry Philbin, John Elliott, Verlon Biggs, Al Atkinson, Larry Grantham and Ralph Baker were developed.

In 1976 when Michaels returned to New York after three years (1973-75) as defensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles, the weakest point of the Jets was linebacking. At the end of the year, the strongest unit was linebacking despite the fact that three of the starters were rookies and only one, Buttle, was a high draft choice.

When Michaels first joined the Jets' staff, he came out of retirement for the 1963 opener at Boston when the squad's linebacking corps was decimated by injuries. He played the entire game after not practicing for two years.

Michaels devoted all his energy to coaching after his one-game "comeback." In 1967 he took over the secondary and linebackers and helped mold the Jets' 1968 defense into the number-one unit in the AFL against the rush and in total defense. In 1970, the unit again ranked on top in total defense as well as first against the rush in the AFC.

Michaels' finest hour came in Super Bowl III. Although the Jets' defense received little of the glamour in the stunning 16-7 upset victory, Michaels' men played a significant role by holding Baltimore scoreless until less than four minutes remained. The often-maligned secondary of four free agents intercepted four Colts' passes.

The game created an unusual situation for Walt's mother, Mary, who was chosen NFL mother of the year in 1966. On the Baltimore side was Walt's brother, Lou, a standout placekicker who played in the NFL from 1958-69 after earning All-America honors as a tackle at Kentucky.

Michaels remained with the Jets until 1973 when, with Charley Winner designated as the next head coach, he left to join the Eagles. Two of the Jets' assistant coaches Michaels hired for his staff last year, John Idzik and John Mazur, also were aides with Philadelphia at that time.

When Lou Holtz was selected as the Jets' head coach in 1976, Michaels was brought back as defensive coordinator. Holtz resigned after the 13th game that season, and Michaels became the eighth head coach in Jets' history in January, 1977.

Michaels is another in the line of Paul Brown products to become a head coach in the pros. Presently there are three others: Don Shula, Bill Johnson and Chuck Noll.

Last year Michaels was named to the Commonwealth of Virginia and Long Island (N.Y.) sports halls of fame. Early this year, he was inducted into the ODK honorary fraternity at Washington & Lee for outstanding achievement and also was honored by the New York Press Photographers Association for his cooperation.

Michaels was born Oct. 16, 1929 in Swoyersville, Pa. He and his wife, Betty, have four children: Mary Ann 22; Walter, Jr., 19, a standout linebacker at Kutztown (Pa.) State; Mark 14 and Paul 10. They make their home in West Islip, N.Y.

STEVE Gutman

Secretary and Administrative Manager
2nd Season

Steve Gutman was appointed to the newly created position of administrative manager on April 1, 1977, and also assumed the duties of secretary of the club. In his role, he oversees the Jets' fiscal and marketing operations.

Prior to joining the Jets, Gutman was executive director of the Westchester County Guidance Center of New Rochelle. He has had extensive experience as a financial consultant in areas of securities, research sales, underwriting, investment banking and management.

Gutman received both a B.S. in accounting and a master's in business administration from New York University.

He was born Jan. 24, 1935 in New York City. He and his wife, Carol, have two sons, Fred 21 and Rob 16, and a daughter, Lisa 20. They reside in New Rochelle, N.Y.

MIKE
Hickey

Director of Player Personnel
2nd Season

Mike Hickey, 31, is the youngest director of player personnel in the NFL. He joined the Jets in May, 1977, replacing director of scouting Mike Holovak. Prior to coming to New York, Hickey was a personnel assistant for the Patriots under Bucko Kilroy for six years.

His father, Red Hickey, was head coach of the 49ers from 1959-63 and has been a scout with the Cowboys since 1965. Hickey played under three present and former NFL coaches: Dick Vermeil (high school in San Mateo, Calif.) plus John Madden and Don Coryell (both at San Diego State).

Hickey went to the University of Texas on a track scholarship and won the Southwest Conference discus championship in 1965. He transferred to San Diego State, where he was a reserve tight end before a knee injury ended his career.

Hickey was born Nov. 18, 1946 in Santa Monica, Calif. He and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Kim 6 and Kelly 3.

JIM
Royer

Pro Personnel Coordinator
1st Season

Jim Royer was promoted to the newly created position of pro personnel coordinator in March after serving as a talent scout for five years. For the past three seasons, Royer scouted exclusively for the Jets. Prior to that, he was with the Galaxy combine in 1974 and the Washington Redskins in 1973.

Royer, who started his new duties after the draft, works with Walt Michaels on the Jets' player personnel needs and in evaluating pro talent. He also is involved in signing players.

A 1957 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy where he earned a degree in electrical engineering, Royer has been active in coaching or scouting since 1958 when he started as head coach of the U.S. Marine football team in Okinawa. He spent the next 11 years in the college ranks coaching offensive lines at Navy (1959-60, 1964-65), Buffalo (1961), Tulane (1962-63) and Pittsburgh (1966-68).

Royer served as defensive coordinator of the Richmond Roadrunners in the Atlantic Coast League in 1969. He joined the New Orleans Saints midway through the 1970 season as offensive line coach and remained there through 1972.

He was born on Sept. 15, 1932 in Baltimore, Md.

Ages as of Sept. 1, 1978

DAN
Alexander

G 6-4 245
Louisiana State
D 8a, 1977 23 (6/17/55) 2

PRO: "Dan was one of our most pleasant surprises last year," Michaels said. "He was drafted as a defensive player and made a difficult adjustment to the offensive line. He graded higher than any other rookie on the team. Dan is a good run blocker but needs work on his pass blocking."...played in all 14 games, starting eight at right guard...took over for injured Darrell Austin in the third game of the season and held the starting spot for the next six games before hurting his shoulder...alternated with Austin as messenger guard for four games and started finale at Philadelphia...had one of his best games in his starting debut when Jets upset New England...quick for his size.

COLLEGE: Started two years in LSU defensive line with A.J. Duhe, Dolphins' number-one pick who was AFC Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1977...had 74 solo tackles, 10 QB sacks and two fumble recoveries as a senior...played in Hula and Japan bowls..."The pro scouts told me I'd probably play offense," Alexander said. "The Jets' scout, Jim Royer, came to LSU and showed me some blocking techniques to work on."

PERSONAL: Single...majored in law enforcement and would like to work for FBI some day...spent off-season studying at LSU and working in sheriff's office...soft-spoken...twice all-city at Houston Lamar High...birthplace and hometown: Houston, Tex.

DARRELL
Austin

G-C 6-4 252
South Carolina
W, 1975 26 (11/5/51) 4

PRO: Missed five games last season (New England twice, at Buffalo, Oakland, Miami) with an elbow injury...had off-season surgery and should be ready to go...fits the coach's traditional description of "hard-nosed"...strong, versatile blocker who has switched positions to fill in for injured teammates...started six games at right guard and one at tackle (for injured Marvin Powell at Miami) in 1977...started four games at center and seven at guard in 1976...a good pass blocker...acquired on waivers from Denver in 1975...originally drafted 16th by Broncos in 1974 but was released.

COLLEGE: Started every game for three years...played offensive tackle as sophomore and senior and defensive tackle as junior...played in East-West Game...named most valuable lineman as senior.

PERSONAL: Wife, Karen, is president of Jets' Wives Club...holds B.S. in physical education...nicknamed "Colonel" after Colonel Steve Austin, television's "Six Million Dollar Man"...has a plastic small finger prompting nickname...did some cattle farming in off-season...father is a deputy sheriff...birthplace and hometown: Union, S.C.

PRO CAREER STATS: Games played-1975 (12), 1976 (11), 1977 (9).

JEROME
Barkum

TE 6-4 217
Jackson State
D 1a, 1972 28 (7/18/50) 7

PRO: "Jerome made the transition from wide receiver to tight end very well," Michaels said. "He's a clutch receiver with great hands, and his blocking improved as the season progressed."... after five seasons as a wide receiver, switched to tight end after first preseason game in 1977 when Rich Caster moved out wide...tied a personal record with six TD catches and had another one nullified by penalty at Miami...caught TD passes in three successive games against Oakland, New England and Miami... was third on Jets with 26 receptions... started every game...longest catch was 40-yard TD from Richard Todd in win at New Orleans...moved up to sixth among Jets' all-time receiving leaders in yardage with 2,691...ranks eighth in catches with 168...led Jets in receiving in 1973 when he made the Pro Bowl and topped the team again in 1974...signed late in his rookie year but still managed best average gain per catch in his career (19.0)... missed first 10 games of 1976 season with severely pulled hamstring.

COLLEGE: Caught 128 passes for 2,130 yards and 27 TDs in four-year career at Jackson State...had 10 TDs as a senior... played with Rich Caster...played in Senior Bowl and East-West Game...AP Little All-America, Pittsburgh Courier All-America... All-SWAC for two years.

PERSONAL: Wife Linda...daughter Laiysha 2...earned degree in health and physical education...nicknamed "Gee"...cousin of Lem Barney of Detroit Lions...brother Melvin was RB, QB at Mississippi State...holds his high school record with 30 rebounds in basketball game...enjoys working with kids...happy personality...relaxes by fishing and swimming...birthplace and hometown: Gulfport, Miss.

At first when Walt (Michaels) moved me to tight end I had some doubts. Not about my ability, but I hadn't played the position. Now I'm catching balls in the middle and up the chute and it's nice. It's fun, too. I get to hit people now before they hit me.

GREG Buttle

LB 6-3 229
Penn State
D 3, 1976 24 (6/20/54) 3

PRO: "Although he wasn't as visible as he was as a rookie or didn't make as many spectacular plays, Greg continued to improve as a linebacker," said Michaels. "You have to remember that he had better help surrounding him than a year ago and also that he was bothered by a nagging hand injury. Greg has good football intelligence and a burning desire to excel. He's gradually coming into his own and should become a team leader."...started 13 games in 1977 at left linebacker...missed first Miami game with a calf injury...finished fourth on the club in tackles (70 solos, 30 assists)...his 44-yard interception return for a TD in upset win over Patriots was first by a Jet since 1974...also picked off a pass against Pittsburgh...was third on the team with eight passes defensed...one of the hardest hitters on the squad...very quick reactions...made every NFL all-rookie team two years ago when he led the Jets in tackles, intercepted two passes and returned a fumble 23 yards for a TD against New England... was chosen Jets' rookie of the year by New York writers.

COLLEGE: "Buttle is as fine a linebacker as any prospect produced by this school, including Jack Ham, Dave Robinson, Doug Allen and Jim Laslavic," said Penn State coach Joe Paterno...consensus All-America...named first team by AP, UPI, NEA, Football Writers, Walter Camp, The Sporting News and Football News...played in last Chicago College All-Star Game vs. Pittsburgh...also appeared in Sugar, Cotton, Orange, Japan and Hula bowls...was defensive captain as a senior when he was named New Jersey college athlete of the year.

PERSONAL: Single...earned degree in arts and sciences... articulate...did public service television spot for the United Way in 1977...enjoys paddleball, fishing, scuba diving and rowing...sang in barbershop quartet at Penn State...makes home year-round in Point Lookout, L.I....father is FBI agent...brother Toby played football at Navy...birthplace: Atlantic City, N.J....hometown: Linwood, N.J.

BUTTLE CAREER STATS: Interceptions—4, 74 yards, 18.5 avg., 1 TD (2-54-27.0-1 TD in 1977). Returned one fumble 23 yards for TD, recovered own fumble once, 1976. QB sacks—2½ (1 in 1977). Rushing—1-26 in 1976. Games played—1976 (14), 1977 (13).

RICH
Caster

WR 6-5 230
Jackson State
D 2, 1970 29 (11/16/48) 9

PRO: "The timing just wasn't right for Rich last season," Michaels said. "He was our leading receiver in preseason but broke his hand in the last game at Washington. Just when he was getting back into form, Richard Todd hurt his knee. There's no question that Rich is feared and respected by everyone in the league. He gives us a great deep threat. Every time he catches the ball it's a potential touchdown. By moving outside, he eliminated double coverage on both sides and helped make Barkum a better receiver."...switched to wide receiver after first preseason game when Jerome Barkum moved to tight end...is a step faster than Barkum...caught 57-yard pass from Todd on first play at new position against Philadelphia...broke left hand against Redskins.. missed first four regular season games and saw limited action in the fifth...caught his only TD of season against Oakland and also had a 58-yard grab...finished year with 10 catches for 205 yards...ranks third behind Don Maynard and George Sauer in Jets' career catches (245) and yards receiving (2,733)...his 36 TD catches are second to Maynard's 88...is sixth among Jets' all-time scoring leaders with 216 points...tied third longest run in Jets' history with 60-yard end-around against Washington in 1976... started career as a wide receiver in 1970 but switched to tight end in 1972 and did so well he earned a Pro Bowl berth...also gained Pro Bowl honors after 1974 and 1975 seasons...led all AFC receivers in yardage (833) and TDs (10) in 1972...topped all NFL tight ends in yardage in 1974 and 1975...holds club record for longest gain on passing play (91) from Joe Namath against Baltimore in 1975...that also was AFC record until broken by Cincinnati's Ken Anderson last year with a 94-yard pass to Billy Brooks...best day came in 1972 at Baltimore when he caught TDs of 80, 79 and 10 yards and had 204 yards on just six receptions... was only NFL receiver to surpass 200 yards that season...has 10 100-yard or better games to his credit.

COLLEGE: Wide receiver and tight end at Jackson State, where he played with Jerome Barkum...caught 160 passes for 3,638 yards and 28 TDs...averaged 27.5 yards per catch as a senior when he was named second team All-America by the Pittsburgh Courier...played in Chicago College All-Star Game... also a track standout.

PERSONAL: Wife America...daughter Shannon 1...has degree in mathematics...very active in community projects... served as chairman of the March of Dimes Walk-a-Thon in New York City in 1976 and 1977...received Gordon's Good Guy Award for his efforts...also was honored by B'nai B'rith Max Kase-Bill Corum Sports Lodge...makes many personal appearances for the Jets... enjoys playing tennis and basketball...has year-round home in Westbury, N.Y., near Jets' training complex...birthplace and hometown: Mobile, Ala.

Both of us (Barkum and Caster) are happy with the adjustment. I just think of being a receiver, period, when I think of my natural position.—Rich Caster

SCOTT
Dierking

RB 5-10 215
Purdue
D 4, 1977 23 (5/24/55) 2

PRO: "Scott ended the season very strongly after switching from fullback to halfback," Michaels said. "His blocking improved tremendously, and he became a big asset leading plays for the fullback. He gives us good inside running and is learning to find open spots on his pass patterns."...finished second to Clark Gaines in rushing with 315 yards on 79 carries (4.0 avg.)...played in all 14 games and started last five...appeared almost exclusively on special teams in first seven games of the season before changing positions...did not carry ball until eighth game against Miami...started next game vs. Seattle and led Jets in rushing for three straight contests...had Jets' season high of 107 yards on the ground against Pittsburgh...also caught three passes vs. Steelers, including a TD from Matt Robinson...finished sixth among special team statistical leaders...returned six kickoffs for 91 yards...runs 40 in 4.6...build and style of running are similar to that of former Jet Mike Adamle...was first running back selected by Jets in 1977 draft.

COLLEGE: Second leading career rusher at Purdue behind Otis Armstrong...gained 2,863 yards, including 1,000 as a senior (only third Purdue player to do it)...only runner besides Armstrong to lead Boilermakers in rushing three straight years... chosen second team All-America by AP and Football News...first team All-Big Ten, team MVP and co-captain as a senior...led Purdue to upset of number-one ranked Michigan with 162 yards rushing...played in East-West Game plus Hula and Japan bowls.

PERSONAL: Single...earned degree in economics...member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes...loves hunting and fishing... All-America at West Chicago High where he gained 2,725 yards and scored 42 TDs...state wrestling champ as a senior...father, Ed, who runs a sporting goods store, also wore No. 25 when he starred at West Chicago High and won same MVP award in 1951 that his son received in 1972...participated in Punt, Pass & Kick program...birthplace: Great Lakes Naval Base, Ill....hometown: West Chicago, Ill....PRONOUNCED: DIR-king.

If I score on a long run, I'll just drop the ball and go to the bench. I'd never spike it or anything like that. I'm not the crowd-pleasing kind. I want to be the 'bread and butter' kind of runner. When we need four yards, I want the coaches to say, 'Give it to Dierking.'

SHELTON
Diggs

WR 6-1 190
Southern California
W, 1977 23 (4/22/55) 2

PRO: Acquired on waivers from Atlanta on Sept. 16...drafted in fifth round in 1977 by Falcons...played in first seven games of season primarily on special teams before suffering Achilles tendon injury...was on inactive list for next four contests and then placed on injured reserve...made key play in upset win over New England when he and Billy Hardee forced a fumble that led to winning field goal in closing seconds...ran 16 yards on an end-around at Buffalo.

COLLEGE: Played with Jets' tackle Marvin Powell at Southern Cal...enjoyed outstanding senior year, leading Trojans in receptions (37), receiving yardage (655) and TD catches (8), including eight receptions for 98 yards in victory over Michigan in Rose Bowl...hampered by injuries in first three years when he had only 16 catches...was hero in 1975 Rose Bowl when he made diving catch of Pat Haden's two-point conversion pass to beat Ohio State (18-17) and give Trojans the national title.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in speech communication...studied at Southern Cal in the off-season...three-sport standout at San Bernardino High...rushed for 380 yards and scored 5 TDs in one game, including a 100-yard kickoff return...birthplace and hometown: San Bernardino, Calif.

JOHN
Ebersole

LB 6-3 235
Penn State
D 4, 1970 29 (11/5/48) 9

PRO: "John has been a consistent performer for us," Michaels said. "Last year he was bothered by injuries but still played. His biggest strength is his pass defense."...elected defensive co-captain in 1977 and called signals...appeared in 13 games and started 12 at middle linebacker...did not play at Philadelphia when Michaels started several reserves...finished third on club in tackles with 68 solo stops and 35 assists...tied for fourth on team with seven passes defensed...had one interception and a fumble recovery against Oakland...also recovered fumble at Baltimore...has more experience than anyone on Jets' defensive unit...very tough competitor who will play while hurt...has missed only four games in eight years...tied for team lead with three interceptions in 1974... picked off two in 1975...has tied for team lead in fumble recoveries the last two years (2 in 1977, 3 for 29 yards in 1976).

COLLEGE: Started career in offensive line and switched to defensive line as a senior when Penn State finished second in the national defense rankings...was named All-East...earned game ball vs. Kansas State when he played with dislocated shoulder... played in Gator and Orange (twice) bowls.

PERSONAL: Wife Janice...daughter Lauren Michelle 5 and son Lee Andrew 3...has degree in health and physical education...one of the busiest Jets in off-season...owns a beverage distributorship and gas station in his hometown, Altoona, Pa., and just opened a sporting goods store...works with many charitable organizations and is active in community affairs...sponsors a Little League team...birthplace: Altoona, Pa....PRONOUNCED: EB-er-soul.

PRO CAREER STATS: Interceptions—8, 69 yards, 8.6 avg., 0 TD (1-0 in 1977). Fumbles recovered: 11 (2 in 1977). Games played—1970 (14), 1971 (14), 1972 (14), 1973 (13), 1974 (14), 1975 (13), 1976 (13), 1977 (13).

JOE
Fields

C-G 6-2 245
Widener
D 14, 1975 24 (11/14/53) 4

PRO: "Joe made very few mental errors last season and graded high," Michaels said. "He works hard on the field and has worked hard off it improving his lean body weight. He's a good long snapper on punts and placements."...young, baby-faced "sleeper" draft choice has played in every game (the last 24 as a starter) since being picked in the 14th round three years ago...has one of the fastest snaps in the NFL (between .7 and .8 seconds to the punter)...has good quickness and fine attitude...can also play guard.

COLLEGE: Never missed a play at Widener (Chester, Pa.) despite contused shoulder and sprained ankle as a senior...all-conference in 1974...called blocking assignments for offensive line...played with Billy "White Shoes" Johnson...gained 25 pounds between his junior and senior years because he wanted to be pro center...originally enrolled at Rutgers-Camden, which didn't have a football team, but was persuaded to transfer by Widener coach Bill Manlove.

PERSONAL: Wife Kay...her sister, Cindy, is married to Jets' tackle Garry Puetz...has B.S. in accounting...sells real estate in off-season in Woodbury Heights, N.J....started three years at Gloucester (N.J.) Catholic High...birthplace: Woodbury, N.J.... hometown: Deptford, N.J.

PRO CAREER STATS: Games played—1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14).

After I was drafted, I practiced snapping every night to my dad and my girlfriend (now his wife). Kay couldn't really catch the snaps, so we set up one of those tackling dummies and I'd try to hit it. The others she just knocked down. She broke her fingernails a lot.—Joe Fields, who still practices snapping to his father and wife in the off-season.

CLARK
Gaines

RB 6-1 201
Wake Forest
FA, 1976 24 (2/1/54) 3

PRO: "Clark had a good season in 1977. My hat's off to him," Michaels said. "He's grown up and become a man. Clark is as fine a receiver coming out of the backfield as anyone, and he is as dependable a back as there is when you want to control the ball. He has total concentration during the game and seldom fumbles. His blocking is great...he rarely misses blitzing linebackers. Clark is a good inside runner with adequate speed to bounce outside. He's a 100 per cent football player."...led Jets in rushing and receiving for the second straight year, becoming the first Jet to top the squad in both categories twice...John Riggins was only other Jet to accomplish the feat once in 1971...finished third in the NFL in receiving with 55 catches, which was third best in AFC, better than anyone in the NFC, the second best ever by a Jet back (Matt Snell had 56 in 1964) and the most by a Jet since George Sauer caught 66 in 1968...wound up 13th in the AFC in rushing with 595 yards...earned game ball in win at Buffalo when he ran for 94 yards, including the winning 14-yard TD spurt with 2:04 remaining...had career high nine catches in second Miami game... played a key role in win at New Orleans when he rushed for 103 yards on 22 carries, including a pair of crucial third down runs that enabled the Jets to keep possession for the final three minutes of the game...was a Horatio Alger story in 1976 when he became the first rookie ever selected as the Jets' MVP after signing as a free agent and barely making the club...led all NFL rookie runners with 724 yards despite not starting until the seventh game when Ed Marinaro was injured...set a Jets' season record with four 100-yard rushing games, including a career high 119 yards at Buffalo...also topped the 100-yard mark against Baltimore (102), Tampa Bay (103) and Washington (109)...made every NFL all-rookie team and was selected as the AFC Offensive Rookie of the Year by the NFL Players Association...until he became the starting fullback in 1976, he led the Jets in special teams statistics...started every game but the last one in 1977... moved up to fifth on the Jets' all-time rushing list with 1,319 yards...his great desire and second-effort make up for lack of outstanding speed.

COLLEGE: Might have been overlooked in draft because of injuries...gained 1,258 yards on 336 carries (3.7 avg.) in two years at Wake Forest...was All-Atlantic Coast Conference and captain as a senior...outstanding junior college runner at Lees-McRae (Banner Elk, N.C.)...rushed for 1,105 yards as a sophomore, second in the nation...named NJCAA All-America.

PERSONAL: Wife Katherine...daughter Leslie Kia 2...has B.S. in physical education...lives in Winston-Salem in the off-season and is doing some fund-raising for Lees-McRae JC...held two jobs in college while supporting his wife and daughter...father died of lung disease from working in granite quarry when Clark was in high school...was one of 13 blacks to volunteer to integrate the previously all-white Elbert County High...birthplace and hometown: Elberton, Ga.

LOUIE
Giammona

RB-KR 5-9 180
Utah State
D 8b, 1976 25 (3/3/53) 2

PRO: Suffered knee injury in sixth preseason game against the Giants and was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 14...was second leading rusher for the Jets when he was hurt...had successful operation and is expected to be ready to go this year...a hard-hitting little runner who played in all 14 games and started three as a rookie...was fourth on the club in rushing in 1976 with 150 yards, fifth in receiving with 15 catches and second in kickoff returns with 22.9 avg....also returned 12 punts for team-leading 9.8 avg....played with sprained ankle and broken wrist that was supposed to keep him out three weeks...a good situation player who excels on special teams and gives an all-out effort... his 146 yards on six kickoff returns against Cincinnati was fourth best single game performance in Jets' history.

COLLEGE: Led nation in rushing in 1974 with 1,534 yards on 329 carries (4.7 avg.)...finished fifth in country in running in 1975 with 1,454 yards on 303 attempts (4.8 avg.)...topped NCAA in all-purpose running in both 1974 (198.4 avg. per game) and 1975 (185.9)...career rushing totals: 756 carries for 3,499 yards, 4.6 avg., 21 TDs...averaged 116 yards per game on the ground...holds virtually every Utah State rushing record, including 247 yards against Idaho as a junior when he named "national back of the week."

PERSONAL: Wife, Kathy, fixed Italian dinners for offensive line at Utah State every time Louie went over 100 yards (17 times)... Philadelphia Eagles' coach Dick Vermeil is his uncle... led Calistoga High to 15 championships in five sports... gregarious... answers with "yes, sir," "no, sir" attitude...born and raised in Napa Valley wine country...birthplace: St. Helena, Calif...hometown: Calistoga, Calif....PRONOUNCED: GEE-ah-MOAN-ah.

BILLY
Hardee

CB 6-0 185
Virginia Tech
W, 1977 24 (8/12/54) 2

PRO: Acquired on waivers from Denver on Aug. 10...played in all 14 games and started nine at left cornerback...replaced Mo Tyler in starting lineup at Miami and held spot until final game when Michaels started several reserves...tied Ed Taylor for team lead with nine passes defensed...finished ninth in tackles with 32 solo stops and 19 assists and seventh on club in special teams statistics...averaged 21.1 yards on seven kickoff returns and ran back one punt for 17 yards...had one interception at Baltimore... made key play in upset win over New England when he and Shelton Diggs forced a fumble that led to winning field goal in closing seconds...originally signed as free agent with Seattle two years ago but was waived just before start of regular season... signed with Denver late in 1976 season and played in last two games...has good speed (4.6 in 40).

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman...as a sophomore, caught 29 passes at wide receiver when he was coached by Jets' assistant Dan Henning, who was an aide at Virginia Tech in 1973...was switched to defensive back as a junior and had seven interceptions in his senior year...played in American Bowl...also was on baseball team for a year.

PERSONAL: Single...has a degree in distributive education... brother, Ray, plays football at Iowa State...three-sport letterman at Mulberry High...birthplace: Lakeland, Fla....hometown: Mulberry, Fla....PRONOUNCED: har-DEE (like in Jack Pardee).

PRO CAREER STATS: (All in 1977) Interceptions—1-0. Kickoff returns—7, 148 yards, 21.1 avg., 0 TD. Punt returns—1, 17 yards. Games played—1976 (Den-2), 1977 (JETS-14).

BRUCE
Harper

RB-KR 5-8 174
Kutztown (Pa.) State
FA, 1977 23 (6/20/55) 2

PRO: "The big colleges said Bruce was too small. The pros said he was too small. He's always proved everyone wrong," Michaels said. "He makes things happen every time he touches the ball whether he's returning punts and kickoffs or running out of the backfield. Bruce has excellent instinctive reactions to offensive blocks and gets the most out of his size with his great speed and balance, quick feet and good hands. He had problems with fumbling last year, but that's a matter of improving his concentration, which I'm confident he'll do this season."...an exciting, versatile performer who led the AFC in all-purpose yardage (rushing, receiving, punt and kickoff returns) with 1,867...only Walter Payton and Terry Metcalf topped Harper... broke the late Dick Christy's team punt return record of 383 yards with 424...bettered Lou Piccone's kickoff return mark of 961 yards with 1,035 on 42 returns, also a Jets' season record...was fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in kickoff returns (24.6 avg.)... finished sixth in AFC and NFL in punt returns (12.5)...was third on club in rushing (198 yards) and fourth in receiving with 21 catches...played in all 14 games and started at halfback in first New England game and at Miami...also saw action at wide receiver late in the season...first gained attention with rushing-receiving-return total of 171 yards in 10-0 preseason win over Giants...accounted for 142 total yards in opener at Houston...almost completed a pass to David Knight in that game...13-yard spurt with less than a minute remaining set up Pat Leahy's winning field goal against Patriots...had combined offense of 183 yards in win at Buffalo, including 55-yard reception that set up TD...his longest kickoff return of the season, 60 yards, was key play in win at New Orleans...had spectacular 92-yard punt return nullified by penalty in first game against Colts...named pro rookie of the year by New Jersey Sportswriters Association.

COLLEGE: Honorable mention AP Little All-America as senior when he was first back in Kutztown (Pa.) State history to rush for over 1,000 yards...gained 1,132 yards in 10 games, including 216 in one contest...twice all-conference...three-year career rushing of 2,169 yards...played with Walt Michaels' son, Walter, Jr., who recommended Bruce to his father...nobody has ever been drafted out of Kutztown...only other Kutztown player in pros, Doug Dennison of Cowboys, was also a free agent.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in social welfare...studied at Kutztown in off-season...nicknamed "Smidget," short for small midget, minute man and june bug...even ball boys called him "Junior" in preseason camp...football and track standout at Dwight Morrow High in his birthplace and hometown: Englewood, N.J...was high school friend of John Travolta, star of "Saturday Night Fever"...has large cheering section of family and friends at every home game.

I can't imagine being any bigger 'cause I'm not. I'm not the first small person from a small college to make it in pro football; but I think I've shown that it doesn't matter where you go to school, you can make it with a lot of drive, hard work, talent and luck....

JOHN
Hennessy

DE 6-3 246
Michigan
D 10, 1977 23 (3/12/55) 2

PRO: "John was the most pleasant surprise of last year's draft for us," Michaels said. "He works hard and really enjoys the game. He needs to improve his upper body strength and his pass rushing techniques, but he's got a lot of potential."... will get a good look at right defensive end this year after playing primarily on special teams in 1977...his progress was one reason the Jets traded veteran Richard Neal to New Orleans last February... played in all 14 games as a rookie, starting at Miami and Philadelphia...had a QB sack and a fumble recovery against the Eagles...finished eighth on the Jets in special teams statistics... had 17 solo tackles and five assists for the season.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman...started at defensive tackle as a senior when Michigan won Big Ten title and played in Rose Bowl...had 58 solo stops in 1976 and was named Wolverines' top defensive player in wins over Minnesota and Ohio State...played in Orange Bowl as a junior.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in business administration...finished courses at Michigan during off-season and also helped coach spring football practice...has helped with March of Dimes' projects...worked at Ypsilanti (Mich.) MIKE
Hennigan

LB 6-2 215
Tennessee Tech
FA, 1976 26 (10/24/51) 6

PRO: "Mike was our special teams leader last year," Michaels said. "He can fill in at any linebacker position and we don't lose anything in performance. Mike has great football intelligence. He's light but very active."...played in all 14 games last year after off-season shoulder operation...started at New England and Philadelphia...had 28 solo tackles and 10 assists in 1977...was claimed on waivers following Detroit's final cut in 1976 but failed physical...signed again on Sept. 14 as free agent and played in 12 of remaining 13 games...finished third in Jets' special teams rankings in 1976...was special teams leader and fourth linebacker on passing downs at Detroit...injured knee in fourth game of 1975 season...had surgery and was placed on injured reserve...also had shoulder operation...first of three Detroit picks in fourth round of 1973 draft.

COLLEGE: Played two years at Parsons College in Iowa before transferring to Tennessee Tech...was all-conference and honorable mention Little All-America in 1972 when his team won Ohio Valley Conference title...played in the American Bowl.

PERSONAL: Wife Cindy...has B.S. in health and physical education...vice president of Hennigan, Inc. IH Sales in his hometown of Washington, Iowa...participated in Punt, Pass & Kick program...birthplace: Davenport, Iowa.

PRO CAREER STATS: Kickoff returns (Det)—2, 35 yards, 17.5 avg., 0 TD. Games played—1973 (Det-8), 1974 (Det-14), 1975 (Det-4), 1976 (JETS-12), 1977 (JETS-14).

LARRY
Keller

LB 6-2 225
Houston
W, 1976 24 (10/2/53) 3

PRO: "Larry is a 'big play' kind of player," Michaels said. "He's very good against the run and a great special teamer."...played in all 14 games and started nine...took over for injured LLB Greg Buttle at Miami...started next eight contests at RLB for injured Bob Martin...finished sixth on the Jets in tackles with 66 solos and 28 assists...has tied for team lead in fumble recoveries the past two years with three in 1976 and two (both in second Buffalo game) in 1977...also returned an interception 36 yards against Bills at Shea...blocked a punt in win over Patriots...had one QB sack at Miami and against Pittsburgh...tied for fourth on club with seven passes defensed...ran 26 yards on a fake punt at New England...played in 14 games in 1976, starting three at three different linebacker spots...was leader in special teams statistics...earned game balls in both Buffalo victories in 1976...recovered two fumbles in first win and blocked a punt, intercepted a pass and caused a fumble in second triumph (all three plays led to scores)... drafted ninth by San Diego in 1975 but didn't sign... played with Hamilton of CFL and Memphis of WFL before joining Chargers in 1976 preseason...Jets acquired him on waivers from San Diego following final cut.

JOE
Klecko

DT 6-3 256
Temple
D 6, 1977 24 (10/15/53) 2

PRO: "Joe had a better rookie year than John Elliott (three-time AFL/AFC all-star with Jets), and John became the best pass rush tackle I've ever been involved with," Michaels said. "Joe is my type of player. He has great speed and quickness for a defensive down lineman and can change directions very well. He plays with a lot of enthusiasm. For most of last year, we didn't have the big play like a great catch, a great run or a real important sack. But we started to get it towards the end of the season from Joe. All he needs now is experience."...led team with eight QB sacks (all in the last six games), more than any other rookie in the NFL and the most by a Jet since Mark Lomas had 10 in 1973...played in 13 games and started the last six...had a hand in at least one sack in each of his starts...filled in for injured RE Abdul Salaam against Seattle and replaced injured Carl Ban- lauskas at LDT for next five contests...had three sacks against Buffalo...came through with key sack of Archie Manning late in game at New Orleans...finished seventh on the squad in tackles with 58 solos and 32 assists...blocked a field goal at Baltimore... also led Jets with five sacks in preseason...Jets drafted Klecko right before Philadelphia Eagles, who had planned to pick him.

COLLEGE: Played middle guard at Temple when he was both All-East and AP honorable mention All-America twice... made 58 solo tackles as a senior...was scouted by Michaels when Owls almost upset Penn State...was two-time ECAC club heavyweight boxing champion...lost only once in 35 amateur bouts.

PERSONAL: Wife Debbie...son Michael 2...majored in history ...passed up college for two years to drive a truck after graduating from St. James High in Chester, Pa., where he played football only as a senior...also was a drag racer...was discovered playing sandlot ball by Temple's equipment man, John DiGregorio, who persuaded coach Wayne Hardin to offer Klecko a scholarship... worked as truck broker this past off-season...once sparred with Joe Frazier..."One of his punches that missed was enough to convince me not to become a professional boxer," Klecko said... had to round up close to 200 tickets for his friends from Chester when Jets played at Philadelphia last year...birthplace and hometown: Chester, Pa.

PAT Leahy

KEVIN
Long

RB 6-1 205
South Carolina
D 7c, 1977 24 (6/8/54) 2

PRO: "Kevin is still very green, but he did show us that he could run the ball last year," Michaels said. "A foot injury slowed him down in the early part of the season. He made the adjustment from fullback to tailback, and I think he could be a two-way threat for us this year."...played in all 14 games and started four (Oakland, at New England, Miami, Seattle)...finished fourth on the squad with 170 yards rushing...best effort was 46 yards in 13 carries vs. Dolphins at Shea...Jets obtained his draft pick in Ca Garrett trade to Oakland in 1976.

GARRY
Puetz

G-T 6-4 265
Valparaiso
D 12, 1973 26 (3/14/52) 6

PRO: "Gary is a consistent, durable player whose biggest asset is that he can play any position in the offensive line," Michaels said. "He missed his assignment only four times on running plays and just once on pass plays last year."...has started 56 consecutive games...played 12 games at LT and filled in for injured Marvin Powell at RT against Oakland and at New England...intelligent and experienced...played guard, tackle and center in 1976...made surprising entrance as 12th round draft choice in 1973 when he started ahead of veteran Dave Herman at right guard...broke bone in foot and wound up on inactive list for seven of last nine games...had signed a WFL contract in 1974 but it was breached.

COLLEGE: Two-time Coaches College Division All-America...three-time All-Indiana Collegiate Conference...also an outstanding placekicker...made 10 of 13 FG attempts as senior (16 of 22 in career) and 34 of 37 PAT attempts in two years...earned two letters as first baseman on baseball team.

RANDY
Rasmussen

G 6-2 255
Kearney (Neb.) State
D 12, 1967 33 (5/10/45) 12

PRO: "Randy once again graded the highest among the offensive linemen," Michaels said. "He makes very few mental errors and has always been very consistent for us. He's a good leader. His age and experience give our young offensive line stability."...was the first offensive linemen ever selected as Jets' most valuable player by his teammates...also picked all-pro by the New York Daily News and by the New York Post's Paul Zimmerman,...was chosen offensive captain for the first time in his career last season...also helped coach the offensive line the week before the second Miami game when assistant coach Bob Fry was hospitalized with phlebitis...the last player on the team left from the Super Bowl III squad...played a key role in that historic win with his blocking against Billy Ray Smith...started at right guard in both the AFL championship and Super Bowl III...has started at left guard ever since...ranks fourth among all Jets in regular season games played (152)...passed Ralph Baker (141) last year and trails Winston Hill (195), Larry Grantham (173) and Don Maynard (168)...has started 108 straight games since missing 1970 Miami contest at Shea with a sprained ankle...only Hill (195), John Schmitt (114) and Curley Johnson (110) have played in more consecutive games for the Jets...only other game he missed in his career was at Miami in 1969...became a starter as a rookie...one of the best pulling guards in Jets' history...rarely has a bad game.

PERSONAL: Wife LaWana...daughter Ericka Leigh 5...has a degree in mathematics...serves as Jets' fund-raising representative for a Ronald McDonald House (where families of children stricken with cancer, leukemia and other diseases can stay while their children undergo treatment) to be built near Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital in New York City...grew up on a farm...makes year-round home in Elmsford, N.Y....in great demand as off-season banquet speaker...birthplace: St. Paul, Neb....hometown: Elba, Neb....PRONOUNCED: RAZZ-mus-sen.

PRO CAREER STATS: Jets' fumbles recovered—9 (0 in 1977). Recovered Jets' fumble for TD in 1972. Games played—1967 (14), 1968 (14), 1969 (13), 1970 (13), 1971 (14), 1972 (14), 1973 (14), 1974 (14), 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14).

If we improve this season as much as we did last year, we should win a lot of those close games we lost. I was encouraged by last year. It's never good unless you win, but it is better to be competitive like we were last year than the way we were before that. Last year was like a half smile...we didn't quite get the whole smile...."—Randy Rasmussen

MATT
Robinson

QB 6-2 196
Georgia
D 9, 1977 23 (6/8/55) 2

PRO: "Matt showed a lot of promise last season," Michaels said. "He has a strong arm, quick release and he can scramble when he has to. He displayed good leadership at Baltimore and against Pittsburgh. With the schedule expanded to 16 games this year, it's good to have a capable backup quarterback like Matt."...played in four games last season...saw his first NFL regular season action as a holder against Miami at Shea...made his debut at quarterback the following week against Seattle when he replaced Marty Domres, who started for injured Richard Todd...came in for Domres again the next game against the Colts...after early jitters, he settled down and threw for 198 yards (9 of 26 passes, 3 int.), including an 18-yard TD to Jerome Barkum...also completed a 58-yarder to Rich Caster and ran once for 19 yards in that game...got his first pro start against the Steelers a week later...moved the team well in first half but threw two straight interceptions in the third period and was replaced by Todd...finished Steeler game with 80 yards passing (7 of 19, 3 int., 1 TD) and 26 yards rushing on four attempts...did not play in the final three games of the year...had an impressive preseason...led Jets to win at New Orleans with two TD passes.

COLLEGE: Noted for his passing at Georgia, where he split QB duties in veer offense...led Southeastern Conference in passing as a sophomore when he threw for 1,317 yards and set Bulldog record for average gain per completion (21.9)...played less as a junior...saw quite a bit of action as senior backup QB for Sugar Bowl team...career totals: 125 of 247, 2,295 yards, 20 int., 17 TDs...played in Tangerine Bowl as soph and Cotton Bowl as junior.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in business education...football and baseball captain at North Springs High in his hometown of Atlanta, Ga....earned 10 varsity letters in four sports...participated in Punt, Pass & Kick program...birthplace: Farmington, Mich.

ABDUL Salaam

DT 6-3 260
Kent State
D 7b, 1976 25 (2/12/53) 3

PRO: "Abdul is great for the team," Michaels said. "He's vocal and enthusiastic. He's a 'Soldier of Peace' (meaning of his name) except on the football field. Abdul is very physical, quick and active. He's a hustler with great pursuit and is especially tough against the run. He needs to improve his pass rush, but he's still learning all the time."...played in all 14 games and started 13 at right defensive tackle...did not start against Seattle because of neck injury but still played most of the game after Carl Barzilauskas was injured...finished fifth on the squad in tackles with 67 solos and 30 assists...tied Lawrence Pillers for second on club with four QB sacks...recovered a fumble at Miami...played in all 14 games as a rookie and started three at DT and one at DE...was drafted with possibility of playing LB but added a solid 25 pounds by training camp.

SHAFER
Suggs

SS 6-1 200
Ball State
D 2, 1976 25 (4/28/53) 3

PRO: "Shafer has good size and range and is one of the hardest hitters on the squad," Michaels said. "He missed valuable preseason playing time for the second year in a row and then was hurt by injuries during the regular season. A healthy Shafer Suggs will be a big plus for us this year."...played in nine games in 1977 and started eight at strong safety...progress was hampered for the second straight year by injuries...separated his shoulder in a car accident en route to training camp last July...missed first four preseason games...started first two regular season contests but missed New England game with knee injury...was on inactive list with shoulder injury for Oakland and second Patriots' game...returned to starting lineup against Miami and Seattle but shoulder problems again sidelined him at Baltimore and against Pittsburgh...did not start at New Orleans but came in late in game and made key tackle... started final two contests...had 23 solo stops and 17 assists...has found home at strong safety after starting nine games at cornerback as a rookie...sat out first five preseason games in 1976 with sprained ankle...slew of injuries forced him out of three regular season contests...has outstanding speed and jumping ability.

COLLEGE: Named Mid-American Conference defensive player of the year as senior...AP second team All-America...first Ball State player in 17 years to earn four football letters...stood out in East-West and Senior Bowl games...set school career interception record with 14, including eight in 1975...three-year basketball starter, averaging 10.7 points and 7.9 rebounds per game...played in last College All-Star Game in Chicago...kicked nine straight FGs as sophomore and junior.

RICHARD
Todd

QB 6-2 200
Alabama
D 1, 1976 24 (11/19/53) 3

PRO: "I think Richard silenced his critics last year. He showed he has the strong arm and the leadership necessary to become a top quarterback in the NFL," said Michaels. "Richard was having a great year until he got hurt against Miami. I think the knee injury was on his mind when he came back. He tried to fight through it, but he was rusty. Richard has been given a clean bill of health and will be ready to go this year. He's just now beginning to understand the pro passing game. He's learning how to read defensive coverages and can only improve."...one of Michaels' first decisions as head coach before preseason was to name Todd as his starting QB until "someone took it away from him or he proved he couldn't do the job"...neither happened...progressed steadily in preseason and developed rapidly during the regular campaign until a sprained right knee sidelined him in the eighth game of the year against the Dolphins...was fourth in the AFC in passing at the time and had guided the Jets to number-one in passing in the conference...missed the next two games against Seattle and Baltimore...returned for last quarter against Pittsburgh...started final three contests but never regained pre-injury form...his mobility was very limited...in the first eight games, Todd completed 100 of 181 (55.2), 1,449 yards, 8 TDs and 8 int...after the injury he was 33 of 84 (39.3), 414 yards, 3 TDs and 9

int...wound up 10th in AFC in passing...had best passing day in NFL last year against Oakland when he was named NFL Offensive Player of Week by AP...completed career high 17 passes in 29 attempts for 396 yards and four TDs, all the TDs coming in first half...one was 87-yarder to Wesley Walker that tied third longest pass play in Jets' history...Todd's passing yardage against Raiders was sixth best in Jets' history...threw two TDs and ran for one in 30-27 win over Patriots...picked up safety blitz and hit Walker with 25-yard TD that put Jets ahead 27-20...received one of the game balls the following week at Buffalo when he went 10-15 for 194 yards and one TD and ran for a score himself...bettered his yardage a week later at Miami with 203 passing and 40 rushing...started six games and was QB of record in two of Jets' three wins as a rookie when competing against his boyhood idol, Joe Namath...hurt by fact that he signed and reported late...missed basic offensive philosophy of first three weeks of training camp...had best statistical day in 1976 against Miami in Shea with 12 of 24 for 183 yards.

COLLEGE: Named All-Southeastern Conference by AP and UPI...honorable mention All-America...selected MVP by teammates...led Crimson Tide to three straight SEC titles...MVP in 1975 Sugar Bowl...also played in Sugar Bowl as soph and Orange Bowl as junior...completed 101 of 189 for 1,642 yards, 16 TDs in career...rushed for 1,254 yards on 304 carries (4.1 avg.), 16 TDs...MVP in Senior Bowl, passing for 332 yards and two TDs as dropback passer after running wishbone attack for Alabama...picked for Chicago College All-Star Game but did not participate.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in physical education...built beach house on Gulf Coast of Alabama in off-season...biggest thrill in college was playing for Bear Bryant...polite and soft-spoken...father is Dean of Education at University of South Alabama...three-sport standout at Davidson High in his hometown of Mobile, Ala...birthplace: Birmingham, Ala.

I have a lot of respect for Todd. I've always said he's learning real fast as a quarterback. It's a matter of time before he turns into another great quarterback in this league.—New England Pro Bowl cornerback Mike Haynes.

RANDY
Sidler

LB 6-4 235
Penn State
D 5, 1978 22 (2/4/56)

COLLEGE: "Randy is a late bloomer," Michaels said. "He played around 213 pounds last season and now he's up to 231. He's not only gotten bigger, but he's improved his speed (4.85 in 40). Randy is an unselfish person who played where he was needed at Penn State. We have him projected as a linebacker, but the fact that he's been a down lineman means he could play that way for us. He's a versatile performer who can also play on special teams."...first team All-America middle guard (AP) in 1977...also first team All-East (AP, UPI)...he and Jimmy Cefalo (drafted by Miami) were the first four-year letterwinners at Penn State since 1954...played four different positions in four years...became first Penn State freshman in 23 years to start a game when he played tight end (10 catches for 200 yards in 1974)...moved to defensive end as a sophomore, defensive tackle as a junior and middle guard as a senior...also can make the long snap...defensive co-captain in 1977 when he had four sacks, four passes batted down, two blocked punts and a blocked field goal...played in Japan and Hula bowls as well as Cotton, Sugar, Gator and Fiesta bowls...hit .275 as starting centerfielder for Penn State baseball team as a junior but did not play this spring...one of three players from Penn State drafted by Jets this year.

"He was the most consistent performer week in and week out that I saw at any line position."...consensus first team All-America in 1976 and 1977 and first team All-Big Ten three straight seasons...named Offensive Lineman of the Year by Downtown Athletic Club during Heisman Trophy ceremonies...four-year letterman, three-year starter...played 1,049 minutes in 44 games, the most of any player in Buckeye history...offensive co-captain as a senior..."Chris has the finest work habits of any player I've coached at Ohio State," said Woody Hayes. "He never quits working and trying to improve."..."He is awesome on the run block," said personnel director Mike Hickey. "He overpowers people. Strength, intelligence, balance, recovery, quick feet, explosiveness, competitiveness, versatility — he has everything you look for. He can play either tackle or guard and be outstanding at either position. The last guy to have this versatility was Jerry Sisemore (Eagles)."...played on run-oriented offense and must learn pass blocking techniques..."We look for the physical qualities in a player to make him a good pass protector, and Chris has them all," Michaels said...played in Rose Bowl twice plus Orange, Sugar and Hula bowls...earned three varsity letters for Buckeye track team as discus and shot put specialist...runs 40 in 4.9...fourth player chosen in first round of draft.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in finance...an honor student throughout college...very quiet and serious in whatever he does...went to Patterson Cooperative High in his hometown of Dayton...still holds Ohio high school discus record...was junior

(Attendance figures are turnstile counts)

Sept. 18, AT HOUSTON 20, JETS 0 (39,488)—The Oilers held the Jets to 179 yards in total offense and quarterback Dan Pastorini engineered scoring drives of 90 and 88 yards (both aided by New York pass interference penalties at the goal line) as Houston spoiled Walt Michaels' regular season coaching debut, 20-0, at the Astrodome. The only bright spot for the Jets was rookie Bruce Harper, who accounted for 142 yards on a combination of rushing, receiving and returns. After taking a 7-0 halftime lead, Houston increased it to 14-0 early in the fourth quarter and then clinched it when Curley Culp returned a fumble to the Jet two-yard line to set up a final score. New York limited Houston to 239 yards in total offense.

Sept. 25, BALTIMORE 20, AT JETS 12 (43,439)—Rainy and windy. The Jet defense came through with its best performance of the season, limiting the Colts to 214 yards in total offense and Bert Jones to 78 yards passing; but costly errors thwarted New York's comeback hopes as Baltimore took a 20-12 decision at Giants Stadium. Jones completed his first seven passes to push the Colts ahead, 14-0, before Pat Leahy's 25-yard field goal cut it to 14-3 at halftime. Early in the third period, Bruce Harper's 92-yard punt return was nullified by a clipping penalty. The Jets made another mistake in the next sequence when punter Duane Carrell fumbled the snap and downed the ball on his one-yard line. The Colts scored on the next play to make it 20-3. The Jets closed the gap when Colt punter David Lee took an intentional safety and Charlie White plunged over from the one late in the fourth quarter.

Oct. 2, AT JETS 30, NEW ENGLAND 27 (38,277)—Partly cloudy and wet. Pat Leahy booted a 32-yard field goal with 23 seconds remaining to give Walt Michaels his first head coaching victory, 30-27, over the New England Patriots. In one of the wildest and most exciting games at Shea Stadium in the last several years, Al Palewicz recovered a fumble on a Patriot punt return to set up the winning score. Richard Todd tossed a three-yard TD pass to Charlie White and ran seven yards himself for another score in the first half, but the Patriots countered with a pair of touchdowns and a field goal to take a 17-14 edge at intermission. John Smith's second field goal made it 20-14 before linebacker Greg Buttle returned an interception 44 yards for the go-ahead TD. Todd fired a 25-yard scoring strike to Wesley Walker, but the Pats stayed within striking distance when Leahy missed the PAT. Steve Grogan's 22-yard pass to Darryl Stingley with 1:27 left and Smith's PAT knotted the score, but Leahy redeemed himself at the end.

Oct. 9, JETS 24, AT BUFFALO 19 (32,046)—Rainy and windy. Clark Gaines' 14-yard TD run following Richard Neal's fumble recovery at the Bills' 17 gave the Jets their second straight win, 24-19, at Buffalo. The Bills went ahead 7-0 on Joe Ferguson's TD pass to ex-Jet Lou Piccone, but the Jets came back with 17 straight points on a QB sneak by Richard Todd, Pat Leahy's 35-yard field goal and Todd's five-yard TD pass to Jerome Barkum. Todd had the best passing day of his career to date with 10 of 15 for 194 yards, one TD and no interceptions. The Jets were driving for another TD which would have put the game out of reach, but Buffalo recovered a fumble by Charlie White and came back with a TD and field goal to tie it at 17. Gaines' TD scamper with 2:04 remaining pushed the Jets on top again, and New York took an intentional safety to make the final, 24-19. O.J. Simpson had his first 100-yard rushing day of the season (23 attempts for 122) while Gaines paced the Jets with 94 yards on 20 carries. Bruce Harper had a combined rushing-receiving-return total of 183 yards.

Oct. 16, AT MIAMI 21, JETS 17 (43,446)—Sunny and hot. The Dolphins built up a 21-0 lead in the first half and then fought off a Jet rally to hold on for a 21-17 victory. Paced by the running of Benny Malone, who finished with 105 yards on 22 carries, Miami took a 7-0 lead after recovering a fumble deep in Jets' territory. Bob Griese added two TD passes in the second quarter before Pat Leahy's 30-yard field goal at the end of the first half made it 21-3. Richard Todd directed second half scoring drives of 73 and 78 yards which were both capped by Clark Gaines' one-yard plunges. Todd passed for over 200 yards for the first time in his career (16 of 26 for 203 and no interceptions) and added 40 yards on eight rushes. He also had a 41-yard TD pass dropped in the first half and a 20-yard scoring strike to Jerome Barkum in the fourth quarter nullified by a penalty. The Jets lost starting linebacker Bob Martin for the season with a shoulder separation.

Oct. 23, OAKLAND 28, AT JETS 27 (56,734)—Sunny. The Jets almost pulled off the upset of the NFL season before a sellout crowd at Shea, but the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders overcame a 13-point halftime deficit to nip New York, 28-27. Richard Todd came through with the best passing performance in the NFL in 1977 (396 yards on 17 of 29 passes), firing four TD passes in the first half, but his effort fell just short. Kenny Stabler (19 of 26 for 230 yards) rallied the Raiders with a pair of TD passes in the fourth quarter. Pat Leahy missed a crucial PAT after the Jets' second TD and then failed on field goal attempts of 26 and 32 yards in the second half. After Oakland took a 7-0 lead, Todd tied it with an 18-yard TD to Jerome Barkum. Stabler put the Raiders on top with a 19-yard TD strike to Dave Casper, but Todd came back with three straight scoring passes, including an 87-yarder to Wesley Walker, who caught four passes for 178 yards. Mark van Eeghen complemented Stabler's passing with 143 yards on 36 attempts, the best rushing performance against the Jets in 1977. New York moved up to No. 1 in the AFC in passing.

Oct. 30, AT NEW ENGLAND 24, JETS 13 (61,042)—Sunny. The Patriots used the arm of Steve Grogan and the hands and speed of Darryl Stingley to win their fourth straight game since their 30-27 loss to the Jets earlier in the season. Grogan completed 16 of 23 for 228 yards and 3 TDs, two of them in the third quarter that put New England out of reach. Stingley caught eight passes for 121 yards, including an 11-yard TD that gave the Patriots a 10-3 lead in the second period. Richard Todd's 30-yard TD pass to Jerome Barkum a minute later made it 10-10 at halftime. The key play in the contest was Grogan's 52-yard TD bomb to Stanley Morgan early in the third quarter. The Jets never recovered as they failed on several short yardage situations and could only come up with a 21-yard field goal by Pat Leahy in the second half.

Nov. 6, MIAMI 14, AT JETS 10 (51,582)—Cloudy. The Dolphin defensive line knocked Richard Todd out of the game in the second period, and Bob Griese threw a pair of TD passes to Duriel Harris as Miami gave coach Don Shula his 150th regular season victory, 14-10. Todd was forced to leave the contest with a sprained knee after being sacked four times. Marty Domres replaced him and completed 14 of 24 passes for 93 yards, including a 16-yard TD to Jerome Barkum with less than a minute left in the game. Pat Leahy put the Jets ahead the first time they had the ball with a 37-yard field goal, but Griese and Harris combined for a 20-yard TD in the second quarter and a 24-yard score in the third to put the Dolphins on top, 14-3. Domres then engineered an 18-play, 53-yard drive that consumed 8:25 at the end of the third period and beginning of the fourth but failed on a fourth and goal at the Miami one. Griese completed 12 of 15 for 132 yards. The Jet defense matched their best effort of the season (Baltimore) by holding the Dolphins to 214 yards in total offense. Clark Gaines led the Jets with nine receptions, his career best.

Nov. 13, SEATTLE 17, AT JETS 0 (43,973)—Cloudy, cold and windy. With Richard Todd sidelined by a knee injury, the Jets were unable to muster any offense behind Marty Domres or rookie Matt Robinson and fell to Seattle, 17-0. Jim Zorn led the Seahawks' offense, which netted 445 yards, by completing 16 of 37 passes for 219 yards and a pair of TDs. Domres started and connected on just 2 of 9 for 20 yards with one interception. Robinson, making his pro debut, hit 4 of 9 for 32 yards and threw a pair of interceptions. Seattle held the Jets to their lowest offensive output of the season, 124 total yards and a net of 27 passing. The Seahawks' 232 yards rushing were the most against New York in 1977. The Jets lost starting defensive tackle Carl Barzilauskas for the season with a knee injury.

Nov. 20, AT BALTIMORE 33, JETS 12 (50,957)—Sunny. Bert Jones threw for 322 yards (23 of 36) and three touchdowns to lead the Colts to a 33-12 victory over the Jets, who once again played without injured Richard Todd. New York got on the scoreboard first when Tom Newton recovered Howard Stevens' fumble on the opening kickoff to set up a 24-yard field goal by Pat Leahy. Baltimore, which finished with the most total yards against the Jets all season (455), came back with 19 straight points on two field goals by Toni Linhart and Jones' TD passes of 53 yards to Raymond Chester and 33 to Glenn Doughty. Rookie Matt Robinson took over for Marty Domres in the second period and finished with 198 yards passing (9 of 26), including an 18-yard TD to Jerome Barkum that cut the Colt lead to 26-12 early in the fourth period. Robinson drove the Jets to the Colt 31 moments later, but Lyle Blackwood grabbed his second of three interceptions off Robinson to halt New York's comeback. Each team committed six turnovers in the game.

Nov. 27, PITTSBURGH 23, AT JETS 20 (47,385)—Sunny and windy. The Jets held the Steelers, ranked first in the AFC in total offense, to just 238 net yards; but New York turned the ball over six times (five on interceptions) as Pittsburgh escaped with a 23-20 win. Terry Bradshaw completed only 10 of 28 passes, but two of them were for touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann that gave the Steelers a 13-6 lead in the second quarter. Making his first pro start, Matt Robinson tied it with a five-yard TD pass to fellow rookie Scott Dierking, who became the first Jet in 1977 to rush for over 100 yards with 107 in 23 carries against the "Steel Curtain" defense. But Robinson and Dierking fumbled an exchange late in the first half, and the Steelers recovered on the Jet 19 and scored four plays later to take a 20-13 advantage. Roy Gerela's field goal in the fourth period made it 23-13 before Richard Todd, making his first appearance since being injured three weeks earlier, cut the lead with 1:49 remaining on a four-yard TD pass to Bruce Harper. The Steelers held on to the ball the rest of the way. The Jets lost a chance to tie the game in the third period when they blocked a punt and returned it for a TD only to have it nullified by an offsides penalty. The Steeler secondary picked off four Jet passes in a row, the last two thrown by Robinson and the first two by Todd.

Dec. 4, JETS 16, AT NEW ORLEANS 13 (40,464)—Pat Leahy booted three field goals, including a 27-yard game winner with 6:33 left, as the Jets snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 16-13 victory over the Saints in the Superdome. Richard Todd, making his first start since injuring his knee against Miami a month earlier, hit Jerome Barkum with a 40-yard scoring strike to put the Jets on top in the first quarter. Archie Manning tied it with a nine-yard TD to Henry Childs, but Leahy booted his longest field goal ever, 48 yards, with two seconds left in the second period to give the Jets a 10-7 halftime advantage. New Orleans regained the lead on a 17-yard run by Chuck Muncie, who gained 107 yards in 20 carries, but the PAT failed. Leahy knotted the score early in the fourth period with a 29-yarder that was set up by Bruce Harper's 60-yard kickoff return following the Saints' second TD. Clark Gaines, who had 103 yards in 22 attempts, provided the late-game heroics with a pair of crucial third down runs that

Dec. 11, BILLS 14 AT JETS 10 (31,929)—Sunny, cold and windy. Quarterback Joe Ferguson marched the Bills 92 yards in 73 seconds, capping it with an 11-yard TD pass to Bob Chandler with 40 seconds to go, as Buffalo came from behind for a 14-10 win. New York had gone ahead, 10-7, with 1:57 remaining on a nine-yard TD pass from Richard Todd to Wesley Walker that was set up by Bruce Harper's 31-yard punt return. The Bills outgained the Jets, 390 to 197, including a 174-57 rushing advantage. Ferguson completed 17 of 32 for 238 yards and two TDs. His first TD strike was a five-yarder in the second period to Chandler, who grabbed seven for 108 yards. New York's only scoring in the first half was a 25-yard field goal by Pat Leahy. Larry Keller stood out for the Jets defensively with two fumble recoveries and an interception while Joe Klecko sacked Ferguson three times. The Bills picked off three Todd passes in the second half, two of them inside their own two-yard line.

Dec. 18, AT PHILADELPHIA 27, JETS 0 (19,241)—Heavy rain and windy. Coach Walt Michaels made a major shakeup in the Jets' starting lineup, but it didn't help as the Eagles took a 27-0 decision under miserable weather conditions. Philadelphia jumped to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter with quarterback Ron Jaworski directing a 50-yard scoring drive the first time the Eagles had the ball. Randy Logan returning an interception 45 yards to the Jet five to set up the second TD, and Nick Mike-Mayer adding a 39-yard field goal. The Eagle defense, which held the Jets to 150 yards in total offense, gave Richard Todd trouble all afternoon, sacking him seven times and picking off three interceptions. Rookie Wilbert Montgomery led the Eagles with 103 yards rushing on 22 carries and two TDs.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW YORK JETS

ORGANIZED—First organizational meeting held in Chicago under the leadership of Lamar Hunt of Dallas. Charter franchises granted to New York and Harry Wismer; Dallas, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Denver and Houston (Aug. 14).
FIRST DRAFT—Player selection through first 33 rounds. Draft was by position. New York took George Izo, quarterback, Notre Dame (Nov. 22).
SECOND DRAFT—Twenty extra rounds completed to make 53 for first year (Dec. 2).
DIVISIONS—Eastern Division set up with Boston, Buffalo, Houston and New York; Western—Dallas, Denver, Los Angeles and Oakland.
BAUGH TO COACH—Wismer hires Sammy Baugh as the first coach of the N.Y. Titans at $28,000 a year (Dec. 18).

SEBO NAMED—Steve Sebo, Penn football coach, hired as general manager.
COACHES—George Sauer, Bones Taylor, Dick Todd, John Steber and John Dell Isola named as assistant coaches.
MAYNARD SIGNS—Don Maynard, flanker from Texas Western, becomes the first Titan to sign a contract. He came as a free agent from Canada.
HOME FIELD—Wismer gains access to the Polo Grounds for home Titan games.
TV PACT—Wismer completes five-year pact with ABC to televise AFL games. First year fee was $1,785,000 (June 9).
TRAINING CAMP—Over 100 players reported to first Titan training camp at the University of New Hampshire, Durham, N.H. (July 9).
PRESEASON GAMES—Titans break camp July 31 for their first preseason game. Los Angeles wins 27-7 before 27,778 in the Coliseum (Aug. 2).
FIRST WIN—Titans won their first game of any kind 52-31 at Buffalo in the final exhibition game (Sept. 3).
FIRST LEAGUE GAME—Titans open championship play at Polo Grounds, beating Buffalo in the rain, 27-3. Titans' colors were blue and gold. Attendance was 9607 (5727 paid) (Sept. 10).
FIRST SEASON—Titans break even at 7-7 (second place), drawing 221,285 for 14 games.
DRAFT FOR 1961 SEASON—Titans pick Tom Brown, G, Minnesota, as their number one.

1961 SEASON—Titans finished at 7-7 again, good for third place.
DRAFT FOR 1962—Sandy Stephens, QB, Minnesota, drafted first by Titans (Dec. 2).

SEBO RESIGNS—Steve Sebo quits job as general manager to become athletic director at Virginia.
NEW COACH—Clyde (Bulldog) Turner named by Harry Wismer to succeed Sammy Baugh.
COACHING CONFLICT—Harry Wismer agrees to pay off Baugh's contract and keep Turner as the coach.
NEW QB—Wismer signs Lee Grosscup just before opening game. He directed a 27-17 victory over Oakland (Sept. 9).
FINANCIAL TROUBLE—Wismer unable to meet his payroll and the AFL assumed the costs of running the club until the end of the season (Nov. 8).
ATTENDANCE—Team drew only 36,161 for seven home games, finished last at 5-9.

NEW OWNERSHIP—A five-man syndicate composed of David A. (Sonny) Werblin, Townsend B. Martin, Leon Hess, Donald C. Lillis and Philip H. Iselin purchased the New York franchise for $1-million (March 28).

EWBANK CHOSEN & TITANS TO JETS—Weeb Ewbank, who had been released by Baltimore, was named head coach of the team. On the same day the new owners changed the name from Titans to Jets (April 15).

ASSISTANT COACHES—Ewbank designated Clive Rush, Walt Michaels, J.D. Donaldson and Chuck Knox as his assistant coaches. George Sauer, Sr., retained as head talent scout.

TRAINING CAMP—Jets move to Peekskill, N.Y., for their first training camp.

QB TROUBLES—Still needing a quarterback and the opening day less than a week away, Ewbank picked up Dick Wood as a free agent.

OPENING GAME—Boston upended Jets 38-14 in the opener at Boston College (Sept. 8)

FIRST VICTORY—Jets won first game under new ownership as they defeated Houston 24-17 at the Polo Grounds in the home opener. Marshall Starks set AFL record with 97-yard TD return of a missed field goal (Sept. 22).

CANCELLED GAMES—AFL calls off games on day of national mourning for President John F. Kennedy (Nov. 24).

SNELL DRAFTED—The Jets made Matt Snell, RB, Ohio State, their number one draft choice. Snell also drafted by the Giants. Snell became the first number one to sign with the N.Y. team. Also signing were Dave Herman and Mike Taliaferro, both drafted by Jets and Giants, and high draft choices Gerry Philbin and Ralph Baker.

SHUTOUT—Jets record first shutout in their history, a 17-0 blanking of Kansas City at the Polo Grounds (Dec. 1).

THE SEASON—The Jets finished last (5-8-1) but were successful at the box office, drawing 103,550 for seven games.

1964

TRADE—Jets and Denver complete historic nine-player deal. Jets sent Dick Guesman, Ed Cooke, Charlie Janerett, Jim Price and Sid Fournet to Denver for Gene Prebola, Wahoo McDaniel, Gordy Holz and Bob Zeman (January).

TV PACT—AFL and NBC announced a five-year television contract calling for $36,000,000 starting with the 1965 season (Jan. 29).

NEW HOME—Jets moved into Shea Stadium, beating Denver 30-6, before an AFL record crowd of 45,665. Jets' Gene Heeter scored the first Shea TD (Sept. 12).

SNELL RECORD—Matt Snell rushes for 180 yards, a club record, as Jets topple Houston 24-21 at Shea (Oct. 17).

FIRST SELLOUT—60,300 sat in at Shea to see Buffalo stop the Jets 20-7 (Nov. 8).

TRADE RIGHTS—Jets trade rights to Jerry Rhome to Houston in return for a number one draft choice.

NAMATH DRAFTED—Using their pick gained from Houston, the Jets drafted Alabama QB Joe Namath.

SNELL HONORED—Matt Snell was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year. Snell gained 948 yards on 215 carries and caught 56 passes (Dec. 17).

1965

NAMATH SIGNS—The day after the Orange Bowl game, Joe Namath signed a Jets' contract reported to be worth $427,000 (Jan. 2).

HUARTE SIGNS—Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte of Notre Dame signed a Jets' contract estimated to be worth $200,000, giving the Jets over one-half million dollars worth of QB talent within a week (Jan. 9).

NAMATH OPERATION—Twenty-three days after signing, Joe Namath entered Lenox Hill Hospital to undergo an operation for cartilage and ligament damage in his right knee (Jan. 25).
ROOKIE GAME—Joe Namath plays in his first professional game as the Jets' rookies beat the Patriot rookies at Lowell, Mass. (July 28).
FIRST APPEARANCE—After sitting on the bench for the opener, Namath entered the second quarter vs. Kansas City (Sept. 18).
FIRST START—Joe Namath starts his first game (third of the year for Jets) and throws 19 for 40 for 287 yards and 2 TDs, but Jets lose 33-21 to Bills (Sept. 26).
FIRST WIN—After going 0-5-1, the Jets stopped Denver 45-10 at Shea (Oct. 31).
DRAFT FOR 1966—Jets draft Bill Yearby, Carl McAdams, Emerson Boozer and Pete Lammons.
NAMATH HONORED—Joe Namath was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year. Namath completed 164 of 340 for 2220 yards with 18 TDs and only 15 interceptions.

1966

ALL-STAR GAME—With Joe Namath at the helm, the AFL all-stars beat Buffalo 30-19. Namath named MVP (Jan. 15).
EXPANSION DRAFT—Jets lose Wahoo McDaniel, Willie West, Mike Hudock and LaVerne Torczon to Miami Dolphins in the expansion draft (Jan. 16).
AFL-NFL MERGER—Representatives of the AFL and NFL agreed to merge and play a world championship game following the 1966 season. Pete Rozelle named commissioner of both leagues (June 8).
WIDEST MARGIN—Jets open home season, beating Houston 52-13. The 52 points and margin of 39 set records for the Jets (Sept. 18).
SPOILERS—Jets close season at Shea, whipping the Patriots 38-28 to knock Boston out of the Eastern Division title (Dec. 17).
NAMATH UNDER KNIFE—Ten days after the close of the season, Joe Namath entered the hospital for a tendon transfer and cartilage removal in his right knee (Dec. 28).

SUPER BOWL—In the first Super Bowl at Los Angeles, Green Bay beats Kansas City 35-10 for the first world crown (Jan. 15).
AFL-NFL DRAFT—Jets tab Paul Seiler as their first choice in the first combined AFL and NFL draft. Jets rotated, drafting 12, 13 and 11 (March 14).
BUFFALO JINX—Ignoring a 17-0 deficit, Buffalo stormed back in the second half to defeat the Jets 20-17 in the season opener. Matt Snell and Cornell Gordon sidelined with knee injuries (Sept. 10).
A TIE—Joe Namath and Don Maynard tackled Larry Carwell at the four-yard line after time was over to preserve a 28-28 tie with Houston. Had the Jets won, they would have been well in front for the Eastern Division title.
BOOZER HURT—The other member of the Jet backfield, Emerson Boozer, was lost to the team with torn ligaments in his knee in a loss to Kansas City. Boozer was on his way to a pro TD record with 10 rushing and 3 receiving at the time (Nov. 5).
WINNING CAMPAIGN—Jets beat Boston 29-24 to clinch their first winning season in history (Nov. 19).
ELUSIVE TITLE—Jets lost to Oakland 38-29 on the West Coast and saw their chances for a title evaporate. Houston beat Miami the next Saturday to clinch the crown (Dec. 24).
RECORD PERFORMANCE—Joe Namath passes for 343 yards to finish season with 4007 yards, the only pro to go over the 4000-yard mark in a year (Dec. 24).
ATTENDANCE—Jets set AFL attendance record with 437,036 for seven games. All home games were sold out.

1968

EXPANSION DRAFT—Solomon Brannan, Jim Waskiewicz, Pete Perreault and John Matlock go to help stock the fledgling Cincinnati Bengals.

NAMATH OPERATION—Joe Namath enters the hospital and his left knee is operated on for repair of small tear in the tendon (March 20).

WERBLIN LEAVES—Jet partners Don Lillis, Leon Hess, Townsend Martin and Phil Iselin bought out Sonny Werblin for a reported $1.6 million and Lillis assumed the presidency (May 21).

TRAINING CAMP—Jets relocate their camp at Hofstra University in Hempstead, L.I.

ANOTHER LEADERSHIP CHANGE—On July 23 Don Lillis passed away, leaving the Jets without a president. Shortly afterwards, Philip Iselin was appointed president and Mrs. Helen Springborn, Lillis' daughter, joined the board of directors (Aug. 6).

SEASON OPENER—Namath controls the ball for the final 5:56 of the game as the Jets defeat Kansas City 20-19 in the opener (Sept. 15).

HOME OPENER—Jets come home after three road games and defeat San Diego 23-20 on Boozer's last minute touchdown. An AFL record crowd of 63,786 sat in (Oct. 5).

STORYBOOK TALE—"Heidi" became a part of the nation's sporting vocabulary when decisive last few minutes of key Jet-Oakland game were cut off the air to permit children's special to begin on time. Raiders scored twice in last 42 seconds to win, 43-32 (Nov. 17).

NINTH VICTORY—Jets set a club record with their ninth win, 35-17 over Miami. Previous high was eight in 1967 (Dec. 1).

ALL-PROS—Joe Namath, George Sauer and Gerry Philbin named to the combined AFL-NFL all-pro team. Thirteen Jets named to the AFL all-star squad.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME—Joe Namath engineers late rally to defeat Oakland 27-23 for the Jets' first AFL title before 62,627 at Shea Stadium. Two passes to Don Maynard late in the game gave the Jets the victory (Dec. 29).

1969

SUPER BOWL III—Jets become the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl, pounding out a 16-7 victory over the Baltimore Colts at Miami's Orange Bowl. Weeb Ewbank becomes first coach to win world title in both leagues. Namath chosen Super Bowl MVP (Jan. 12).

NAMATH HONORS—Joe Namath reaped a harvest of awards. AFL MVP, Hickok Belt winner, George Halas Award as the Most Courageous Pro Player, Pro Player of the Year.

COACHING SHUFFLE—Clive Rush, chief assistant to Weeb Ewbank, leaves the Jets to become head coach of the Boston Patriots (Jan. 30).

FRONT OFFICE RE-ALIGNMENT—George Sauer, head talent scout, leaves to become Boston's general manager (Feb. 11).

RE-ALIGNMENT—Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh join the AFL clubs to complete the merger of the two leagues. Jets placed in Eastern Division with Baltimore, Boston, Buffalo and Miami (May 17).

MONDAY TV—ABC signs a four-year contract for a series of Monday night TV games. First time regularly scheduled sports events would be seen in prime time (May 26).

NAMATH RETIRES—Joe Namath announces his retirement from pro football in dispute over his ownership of Manhattan night spot Bachelors III (June 6).

TRAINING CAMP—Jets reports to Hofstra without Joe Namath (July 8).

RETIREMENT ENDED—Joe Namath announces sale of Bachelors III and comes out of retirement (July 18).

ALL-STAR GAME—Jets defeat College All-Stars 26-24, becoming the first AFL team to play in the Chicago classic (Aug. 1).

CROSSTOWN RIVALS—Jets beat Giants 37-14 in first meeting between the two New York teams. Namath throws three TD passes and Mike Battle returns a punt 86 yards for a score (Aug. 17).
JINX BROKEN—Jets defeat Buffalo 33-19 to record their first victory at Buffalo since becoming Jets. Weeb Ewbank gets his 100th victory as a head coach (Sept. 14).
WINNING STREAK—Jets defeat Buffalo 16-6 to extend their winning streak to six, a club record (Nov. 9).
RECORD CROWD—The third record crowd of the year at Shea, 63,865, sets AFL mark as Oakland upends the Jets 27-14 (Nov. 30).
SECOND DIVISION CROWN—Jets defeat Houston 34-26 in Houston to win their second Eastern Division title (Dec. 6).
PLAYOFF GAME—Kansas City takes its first step toward the Super Bowl crown by beating New York 13-6 in the interdivisional AFL playoffs (Dec. 20).
ALL-PRO—Joe Namath voted the all-pro (NFL-AFL) quarterback by league coaches for the second year in a row. Joining him on all-pro squads were Winston Hill and Matt Snell (Dec. 22).
ALL-TIME AFL TEAM—Weeb Ewbank named the all-time coach of the AFL and Joe Namath, Don Maynard and Gerry Philbin chosen to the all-time AFL team selected by the Hall of Fame.

PLAYERS STRIKE—NFL Players Association strikes pro football camps, leaving the Jets with only rookies as full training camp was supposed to open (July 19).
STRIKE SETTLED—Veterans report to camp after missing three weeks due to the strike (Aug. 3).
OPENER—Jets open up the 1970 season against new AFC rival, Cleveland, losing 31-21 in Monday night TV inaugural (Sept. 21).
SNELL LOST—The Buffalo jinx claimed not only the game with the familiar fourth-quarter comeback, but also Matt Snell, who was lost for the season with a ruptured Achilles tendon (Oct. 4).
BLACKOUT LIFTED—The Jets agreed to lift the TV blackout of the New York area for the Jets-Giants game (October).
NAMATH EXITS—In the first meeting between the Colts and Jets since 1969 Super Bowl, Joe Namath fractured his right wrist and was sidelined for the year (Oct. 18).
NEW YORK RIVALS—The Jets and Giants met in the first regular season game between the two intracity squads. The Giants came back in the second half for a 22-10 win before a Shea Stadium record crowd of 63,903 (Nov. 1).
UPSETS—Behind Al Woodall's quarterbacking and the top AFC defense, the Jets upset the powerful Rams and Vikings within a three-week span, toppling two of the NFC's leading contenders (Nov. 15, Nov. 29).

SAUER RETIRES—The Jets all-pro wide receiver, George Sauer, a five-year veteran, announced his retirement from football (April 16).
BIGGS DEPARTS—Weeb Ewbank had a player exercise his option for the first time ever as Verlon Biggs, DE, signed with Washington. The Redskins sent two draft choices as compensation (June 10).
NAMATH HURT—For the second time in as many seasons, Joe Namath was forced out of the lineup. This time he was hurt in first preseason game trying to make a tackle on a fumble runback and underwent surgery on his left knee immediately (Aug. 7).
OPENER—Al Woodall opens the season in place of injured Joe Namath, but the Jets suffer their first shutout since 1963 at the hands of Baltimore 20-0 (Sept. 19).
NAMATH RETURNS—Joe Namath, on the sidelines for 19 straight games, made his return in the second quarter against San Francisco and tossed three TD passes and for 358 yards as the Jets barely fell to the 49ers, 24-21 (Nov. 28).

ATTENDANCE RECORD—Jets close out with a 35-21 win over Cincinnati and set a one-season home attendance mark of 441,099 (Dec. 19).

1972

NAMATH SIGNS—Joe Namath signed a two-year contract for a reported $250,000, becoming the highest paid player in the game (Aug. 1).

NAMATH SPARKLES—Joe Namath had his finest day as a pro, throwing for 496 yards and six touchdowns as the Jets defeated Baltimore 44-34. Namath and John Unitas set an NFL combined record for passing yardage—872 (Sept. 24).

RUSHING MARK—Jets set club rushing record of 333 yards as team defeated Patriots 41-13. John Riggins (168 yards) and Emerson Boozer (150) became first tandem in history to hit the 150-yard mark in a game (Oct. 15).

MAYNARD MARK—Don Maynard became pro football's all-time receiving leader with his 632nd career catch. The historic grab came in the fourth quarter at Oakland. Namath passed for 403 yards, but Jets were eliminated from race (Dec. 11).

1973

WINNER HIRED—Charley Winner, former head coach of St. Louis, is named to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the Jets, starting with the 1974 season. Winner serves as an assistant coach under Ewbank for 1973 (Feb. 1).

JETS EVICTED FROM HOME—Due to World Series games, the Jets were forced to play their first six games on the road, including moving the Pittsburgh game to Three Rivers Stadium. This left the Jets with only six games for the home fans (Oct. 21).

CONTROVERSIAL LOSS—Joe Namath returned to action after seven weeks and nearly directed a win over Cincinnati, but two controversial calls by the officials denied the Jets and the game ended on the Bengals' one-yard line (Nov. 18).

EWBANK-O.J.—Weeb Ewbank's last game after 11 years as Jets' head coach, but Buffalo's O.J. Simpson provided the fireworks as the Jets finished out at 4-10. Simpson broke the NFL season rushing mark with a 200-yard afternoon and wound up with 2003 for the year (Dec. 16).

1974

PLAYER STRIKE—Jets open training camp with 31 rookies and one veteran as the NFLPA strike begins (July 9).

FREE AGENT SIGNINGS—Jets hold open tryout day and sign 19 free agents to add depth to the training camp squad (July 10).

PRESEASON OPENS—Playing with a team composed mainly of rookies, the Jets defeated Denver 41-19 in the opening preseason game. John Jones was at QB (Aug. 3).

TRAINING CENTER—Jets took occupancy of their new training center in Hempstead, N.Y. The center contains coaches' offices, players' quarters and full practice facilities (Sept. 3).

NEW HAVEN VICTORY—After going 1-7 over the first part of the year, the Jets snapped their slump with a tingling 26-20 overtime victory over the Giants at Yale Bowl. Joe Namath threw six yards to Emerson Boozer for the winning points (Nov. 10).

EWBANK RESIGNS AS VP—Weeb Ewbank announces that he will retire as vice president of the Jets at the end of the season (Nov. 12).

VICTORY BINGE—Jets close out the season with six consecutive victories to provide a 7-7 season. Included in the streak were upsets over playoff-bound Miami and Buffalo and contender New England.

1975

DRAFT—Jets traded their number one pick for DE Billy Newsome of New Orleans (Jan. 28).

GENERAL MANAGER NAMED—Al Ward, vice president of the Dallas Cowboys, was named Jets' general manager to succeed Weeb Ewbank who had retired (Feb. 13).
NAMATH SIGNS—Joe Namath turned down a reported multi-million dollar WFL contract to sign a two-year contract with Jets (July 30).
GAME STRUCK—The final preseason game between the Jets and New England Patriots was canceled when the Patriots' players went on strike (Sept. 14).
JETS STRIKE—The New York Jets' players voted to support the New England players' strike and walked out of camp the week of the opener against Buffalo (Sept. 16).
PLAYERS RETURN—Jets' players returned to camp as strike was settled (Sept. 18).
EMPEROR HIROHITO—His Majesty, Emperor Hirohito of Japan, attends home opener and watches Jets defeat Patriots 36-7 (Oct. 5).
WINNER FIRED—Charley Winner was dismissed as head coach after the Jets lost six games in a row and were in the AFC East cellar with a 2-7 record. Ken Shipp, the offensive coordinator, was named interim head coach (Nov. 19).
RIGGINS 1000 YARDS—John Riggins became the first Jet in history to gain 1000 yards as he reached 1005 vs. Dallas in season finale (Dec. 21).

1976

HOLTZ NAMED COACH—Lou Holtz, who had a successful four years at North Carolina State, was named head coach. He signed a five-year contract (Feb. 10).
DRAFT—Jets tab another Alabama quarterback as their number one pick, selecting Richard Todd (April 8).
ISELIN CARDIAC ARREST—Jets' president Phil Iselin suffered a cardiac arrest while attending the Jets-Broncos game at Denver (Sept. 19).
HOLTZ RESIGNS—Lou Holtz, deciding that he wasn't right for the pros, resigns with one game to go and soon returns to college coaching job. Mike Holovak was named interim coach for final game (Dec. 9).
NAMATH LAST GAME—Joe Namath started what was to be his final game as a Jet against Cincinnati (Dec. 12).
ISELIN DIES—Phil Iselin, who led the Jets for eight years, suffered a fatal heart attack while at his office (Dec. 28).

1977

MICHAELS HEAD COACH—Veteran defensive coach Walt Michaels was named head coach, signing a three-year contract. Leon Hess was named acting president. (Jan. 5)
PLAYER AGREEMENT—The NFL and the NFL Players Association agreed on a contract for the first time in three years. The contract extends five years and contains a modified draft. (March 1).
NAMATH WAIVED—Joe Namath, symbol of the Jets for 12 years, was granted his freedom as he was placed on waivers when a special trade attempt with Los Angeles was unsuccessful (April 1, became final April 12).
DRAFT—Marvin Powell, offensive tackle from Southern California, was Jets' first pick (May 3).
NAMATH SIGNS WITH RAMS—Joe Namath signs with the Los Angeles Rams as a free agent (May 12).
JETS WIN EARLY ACCESS TO SHEA—After a two-month court struggle, the Jets were guaranteed two September games in Shea Stadium, one on either the first or second date of the NFL season, plus two games in October. The agreement was for each of the remaining six years of the Jets' lease with the city, beginning in 1978. State Supreme Court Justice Harold Baer also allowed the Jets to play two preseason games plus their 1977 home opener at Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands (May 26).

KENSIL NAMED PRESIDENT—Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL since 1968, was named president and chief operating officer of the Jets. Leon Hess, who had served as acting president, became chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters (June 6).

TODD HAS BEST PASSING DAY IN NFL—Second-year quarterback Richard Todd came through with the best passing performance in the NFL in 1977, throwing for 396 yards and four TDs in a 28-27 loss to the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders at Shea (Oct. 23).

WARD RESIGNS—Al Ward, Jets' general manager since 1975, resigned (Dec. 30). He became assistant to the president of the AFC (April, 1978).

1978

EWBANK NAMED TO HALL OF FAME—Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets from 1963-73 and was the only coach to win world championships in both the NFL and AFL, was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Joining Ewbank were Larry Wilson, Ray Nitschke, Tuffy Leemans and Lance Alworth, the first player from the AFL to be enshrined (Jan. 23).

NAMATH RETIRES—Joe Namath announced his retirement from pro football (Jan. 25).

JETS CHANGE LOGO AND UNIFORM—For the first time since 1963, the Jets changed their uniform design. The team also adopted a new logo and changed the helmet to green (Feb. 27).

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP
DEC. 29, 1968 — SHEA STADIUM

NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (two to Don Maynard, one to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who passed for 401 yards. Its running attack was blunted by the Jets' league-leading defense which held Hewritt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection by the Jets' line was superb.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

AFL PLAYOFF
DEC. 20, 1969 — SHEA STADIUM
KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

For the second year in a row, the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969, the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incompletion and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

WEEB SELECTED TO HALL OF FAME

Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets for more than a decade, will be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29.

The former Jets' and Colts' (1954-62) head coach will be joined by Lance Alworth, the first player from the AFL to be enshrined, plus Ray Nitschke, Larry Wilson and Tuffy Leemans.

Weeb achieved a distinction that will never be matched — the only coach to win world championships in both leagues.

The Colts were dismal losers when Weeb took over in 1954. He built them up to the NFL champions in 1958 when they beat the Giants in a memorable sudden death overtime and they won the title again in 1959. Weeb joined the Jets in 1963 and developed them to the team that shocked the Colts in Super Bowl III.

Weeb joins impressive company. Paul Brown, George Halas and Vince Lombardi are the only coaches in the Hall of Fame who were contemporaries of Weeb during his head coaching career.
