LEON HESS, Chairman of the Board

"It all starts at the top."

That's a common phrase when talking about the success of any professional operation, and it particularly holds true with the steps taken to bring about the resurgence of the New York Jets.

Chairman of the Board Leon Hess showed his desire to return the club to the forefront of the NFL in 1977 when he revamped the club's administration and overall operation of the team.

Hess has shown patience and commitment towards building a solid foundation. He has been rewarded as the Jets returned to the playoffs again last year for the fourth time in six years, a feat matched by the Raiders and bettered only by Miami in the AFC. In the process, he has seen the club remain successful with a mix of veterans and young players to mold for the present and future.

Hess has also fought long and hard to achieve first-class conditions for both the players and fans throughout the years. For a decade the Jets were never allowed to play home games before their fans during the baseball season but that all changed in 1978 when the Jets were guaranteed at least four early season home games.

After citing Shea Stadium as "the NFL's poorest facility for athletes and spectators alike", Hess announced plans to move to the Meadowlands prior to the 1984 season. As a result, the last three seasons, thousands of additional Jets' fans had the opportunity to watch NFL football in comfort and safety, in modern, clean surroundings, with proper facilities, adequate parking and good football sight-lines.

In addition, Hess continued to provide the Jets' players and staff with outstanding facilities by building an ultra-modern lockerroom at the Meadowlands and by improving the Weeb Ewbank training complex at Hofstra University with a new Astro Turf field, a new weightroom and additional offices.

In 1983, Hess was an honored recipient of the Distinguished American Award at the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Dinner. Past winners of that award have included Vince Lombardi, Bob Hope, Jimmy Stewart, Bill Carpenter and Fr. Theodore Hesburgh.

Hess, the sole owner, has been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963. He is chairman of the board of the Amerada Hess Corporation.

JIM KENSIL, President

Progress in pro football depends greatly on stability and direction. The Jets believe that in Jim Kensil they have the man at the top to provide these essential elements for success.

In his ten seasons with the Jets, Kensil has stressed communication within the organization and has exhibited strong leadership. Under his guidance, the Jets returned to the playoffs in 1986, the fourth time in the past six years, an accomplishment equalled only by the Raiders and bettered only by Miami (five times) in the AFC.

Kensil has worked closely with Leon Hess, Joe Walton, Jim Royer and Mike Hickey to keep the Jets a playoff caliber team by making trades and drafting wisely to bolster the club for the present and future.

During Kensil's tenure as president, the organization has emphasized the building of the club through the draft. Entering 1987 training camp, the draft has provided 39 players including 19 starters, 9 of whom have been named to the Pro Bowl during their careers.

Kensil, who was named the Jets' president and chief operating officer on June 6, 1977, was an administrator for the NFL for 16 years, nine as executive director and seven as director of public relations. Commissioner Pete Rozelle called Kensil, "my offensive and defensive coordinator."

Kensil succeeded Leon Hess, who had served as acting president of the Jets following the death of Phil Iselein in December, 1976. Hess now has the responsibilities of chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters. Kensil also serves as a member of the board of directors.

Kensil is a member of the executive committee of NFL Properties and is on the board of the Bert Bell NFL Retirement Plan.

While in the NFL office, Kensil made many innovative contributions and was one of the chief architects of the present NFL scheduling format.

Kensil began his sportswriting career as a student stringer at the University of Pennsylvania. In 1952 he joined the AP in New York prior to serving in the Army in Germany as editor of the Seventh Army newspaper.

He returned to the AP in 1954 where he covered sports, edited the wire and wrote a weekly column about sports on TV and radio. He left the AP in 1961 to join the NFL as P.R. director.

Kensil was born Aug. 19, 1930, in Philadelphia, PA. He and his wife, Catherine, have four children and reside in Massapequa, Long Island. Their oldest son, Mike 31, is director of operations for the Jets. They also have two other sons, Joe 29 and Danny 25, and a daughter, Mary Jo 27.

JOE WALTON, Head Coach

Joe Walton doesn't like to dwell on "last year". He likes to get on to the "new year", but he uses the past season as a history lesson as he prepares the team for 1987.

"The most important thing last year was the effort the team made," said Walton entering his fifth season as head coach. "One of the things you look and strive for is to get your team to play hard and I was very proud of the fact that for the most part our team played hard. We overcame a lot of things. To me, one of the toughest things in coaching is to get the team to play hard every week regardless of what is taking place. That's something to be proud of.

"We regrouped for the playoffs and that was definitely a plus. We proved that we belonged in the playoffs. The biggest thing for us now is to get our injured people healthy. We have several question marks, especially on defense, but we have the type of people who have strong desires to work and come back. The work ethic is strong among our players. Now we have to turn our attention to 1987. It's a new season," said Walton who will continue to emphasize his philosophy of the game — hard work, dedication and enthusiasm breeding success.

Walton, who is the only winning coach in Jets' history with a career record of 35-29, led the Jets to a 10-6 record in 1986 and a playoff berth for the second straight year. During the season the team won a club record nine straight games to post a league best 10-1 mark before injuries struck. The team rebounded in the playoffs to defeat Kansas City before dropping a heartbreaking double overtime contest in Cleveland. With Walton running the offense, the Jets have been in the playoffs four times in the last six years, a feat matched only by the Raiders and bettered by Miami (five) in the AFC. For his efforts, Walton was rewarded with a new contract this past offseason.

"Joe and his staff have done an outstanding job overcoming adversity while guiding the Jets to the playoffs the past two years," said team president Jim Kensil. "Our goal is to earn a championship for our fans and we feel Joe has shown the ability to help us reach that goal".

Walton has made several moves in the past which have proved successful. Prior to the 1985 season he made a bold move to get a more aggressive defense and hired Bud Carson, who installed an attacking 3-4 defense. And it was Walton who realized that young QB Ken O'Brien needed a personal tutor and brought in veteran QB coach Zeke Bratkowski for the job. To improve the offensive line, it was Walton who decided to switch Dan Radakovich, who had coached the powerful Steeler offensive line in the 70's, from linebacker coach to offensive line. All decisions paid off as the Jets' defense has become one of the AFC's best, O'Brien has emerged as one of the NFL's top passers and the offensive line showed improvement in 1986.

"Joe wants a more physical football team," said center and team captain Joe Fields. "He wants us to play 60 minutes for 16 games—scratch, bite, kick. Whatever we have to do."

"He's a very sensitive man," said running back Freeman McNeil. "He might say somethings in the heat of battle, but after things are over, after he explodes, you see just how caring a man he is."

"Every coach has certain types of people he likes. Joe's type are hard workers and tough guys," added quarterback Pat Ryan. "We've got guys on this team whose skills aren't the greatest, but they find a way to win. Joe's strengths are organization and consistency."

"The Jets started to win again after Joe got rid of cocky people, and got people who will work," said nose tackle Joe Klecko.

Walton took over as head coach in February, 1983, after serving as the Jets' offensive coordinator the previous two seasons, where he played a major role in the club's successive appearances in the playoffs. With Walton calling the plays, the Jets' offense ranked third in the NFL in the 1982 regular season and produced 454.0 yards per game in playoff victories against Cincinnati and the Raiders.

"Joe Walton brought stability to our offense," said Fields. "He has the knack of patting you when you need it and kicking you in the butt when you need it. He seems to know who to do it to and whom not."

Walton's value is recognized by not only the Jets, but others in the world of professional football.

"I remember Pat Summerall (Walton's teammate on the 1961-63 Giants) telling me that Joe Walton was the smartest player on the field," said CBS color commentator and former NFL coach John Madden. "He said that Joe knew what every player was doing on every play. You had to have him in the huddle."

"I always felt Joe had one of the most creative minds in football," said Hall of Fame QB Y.A. Tittle. "He was trying things way before others did. He was one of the first people to use men in motion. In 1970, he was way ahead of most of the passing theorists in the NFL, the way he dictated what a defense had to do."

Walton joined the Jets in 1981 after coaching with Washington from 1974 and serving as its offensive coordinator since 1978. He is credited with the development of Redskin QB Joe Theismann. Under Walton, Theismann was the second highest rated passer in the NFL in 1979 behind Roger Staubach. Washington experienced only one losing season during his seven years there while compiling a 61-43 record.

"Joe Walton is a special kind of guy," said Theismann. "We became two bodies in one mind while he was here. In his last three years here, I spent more time with Joe than I had with any one member of my own family. I consider the time I was with him an invaluable experience."

Walton was in charge of the receivers and passing game for the Giants from 1969-73. He tutored both Fran Tarkenton and Norm Snead during that era. Snead won the NFL passing championship and went to the Pro Bowl in Walton's last season with the Giants, 1973. Tarkenton went to the Pro Bowl under Walton in 1969 and 1970. Walton did some radio work before joining the Giants' staff as a scout from 1967-68.

Walton was Washington's second round draft choice in 1957 and played four seasons before being traded to the Giants in 1961. He played tight end for the Giants, who won championships in all three seasons he played there. Walton caught 95 passes for 1,321 yards and 17 TDs during that time.

In his overall career he caught 178 passes for 2,623 yards and 26 TDs. Walton was called by Y.A. Tittle "the best third down receiver in the game, bar none", while Walton claims that "Tittle was probably the most influential man in my ideas about the passing game and total offensive picture".

Walton, despite standing only 5 feet 10 inches and weighing 185 pounds, played tight end and linebacker for three years at the University of Pittsburgh and won All-America ranking.

As a rookie with the Redskins in 1957, Walton was originally tried at left cornerback (Don Shula was the right cornerback) before being moved to his natural position, tight end.

His introduction to football came a lot earlier than that, though. Walton's father, Frank, was an All-America guard at Pittsburgh, played in the first College All-Star game in 1934 and went on to play for the Redskins when they were still the Boston Redskins. Walton's father, nicknamed "Tiger", served as a player/assistant coach when the team moved to Washington in 1944-45. In 1946, at the age of 11, Joe Walton started week-ending at Pittsburgh Steeler camps, where his father served as their offensive line coach.

The grandson of Italian immigrants, Walton's family came to this country with the surname Tataseo. "My grandfather, who came over when he was 17, changed our name," said Walton. "He was working on the railroad and I guess he wanted a name that was easier to pronounce. I heard he used Wilson first, but that was too common, and he kind of settled on Walton."

Although football is a very important part of Walton's life, he is a strong family man who enjoys spending time in his East Islip, NY home. Walton relaxes by working out and playing golf.

Walton was born Dec. 15, 1935 in Beaver Falls, PA. He and his wife, Ginger, have three children: daughters Jodi 24, Stacy 22 and son Joseph Jr. (Tiger) 15.

I think the strength comes more from timing and tempo. Take Jack Nicklaus. He's in his 40s and still hits a long ball. I'm sure he's not physically as strong as he was in his 20s, but he's probably just as smooth in his swing and timing. Kicking is the same theory.

Hey, he's Irish, which means he's a little tough and a little crazy. I call him Kenny 'Timex', because he takes a lickin' and keeps on lickin'.

— Jets T Jim Sweeney

In the past we've had some success, but we've never had anyone who could throw like O'Brien. He hangs in there, looks off defenders, he never takes chances. I've been here 10 years and we've never had a QB of that caliber chucking that rock.

— Jets' WR Wesley Walker

You can not believe how tough that guy is. He's fearless. He stands in the pocket trying to make something happen. He appears to be oblivious to all the noise going on around him. The big thing with Kenny is his tremendous confidence. He just doesn't expect to lose, he expects to win, to make the big play.

— Joe Walton

Al's got that little magic about him. Once he catches the ball he's like poetry in motion. He shakes people off and becomes strong as a bull and makes things happen.

— Jets QB Ken O'Brien

Al's got great balance. His center of gravity is always underneath him. He always lands on his legs and is able to position himself in such a manner that he's always in a position for positive yardage. Al doesn't let outside distractions bother him.

— Jets Offensive Coordinator Rich Kotite

He can catch in as big an area as a tight end's. Al has a knack of getting his body to the ball. The key is to catch balls other people can't catch, and to catch them time and time again. He does.

— Jets TE Mickey Shuler

Toon reminds me so much of Otis Taylor it's almost unreal. He's got those long legs and a tremendous gait. He's got such a long stride that he gobbles up yardage. It's a classic style. And he can catch the ball in traffic. He's just very gifted.

— CBS Broadcaster and former KC coach Hank Stram

1986 JETS GAME-BY-GAME

Sept. 7, JETS 28, at BUFFALO 24 (79,951) — Partly cloudy. It might have been the beginning of the Jim Kelly era at Buffalo, but for the Jets it was the continuation of the play of their own Irish QB, Ken O'Brien, as they opened their NFL season with a 28-24 win over the Bills. Kelly made a great NFL debut with 3 TD passes and had the Bills up, 17-14 in the first minute of the 4th quarter, but O'Brien answered the call by leading the Jets to a pair of TDs in a 4:30 span for what proved to be the winning margin. He drove the Jets 64-yards, mixing the passing and running game, for the go-ahead TD, and then hit the clincher with a 71-yard pass and run play to Wesley Walker. Kelly gave the Bills leads of 7-0 and 17-14 and narrowed the final margin to 4 points with his 3rd TD pass but O'Brien and the Jets wouldn't give up the ball at the end running out the clock with a 3:55 drive. O'Brien was 18-25-318-0-2 TD and Kelly 20-33-292-0-3 TD. Freeman McNeil was 21-72 and Al Toon 6-119-1 TD (46-yards). The Jets defense held Buffalo to 28-79 rushing.

Sept. 11, NEW ENGLAND 20, at JETS 6 (72,422) — Overcast, warm. "We played a good football team, we played them close into the 3rd quarter but it kind of got away from us," said Joe Walton following the 20-6 loss to the Patriots on Thursday night national TV. "We didn't move the ball and we didn't make the 4th down play. That touchdown look a lot stuffing out of us." Walton was referring to NE's 4th and 1 TD pass from RB Craig James to RB Tony Collins when the Jets were geared to stop the run at the NY10. That play increased the Patriot margin from 7-6 to 14-6 and 2 Tony Franklin FGs of 45 and 42 yards provided the final score. NE's defense shut down the Jets' offense in the 2nd half limiting it to 6 1st downs and 95 yards of total offense. The Jets lost RB Freeman McNeil with a dislocated elbow and saw three starting DBs leave the game — Johnny Lynn, Bobby Humphery and Harry Hamilton. Stanley Morgan led the Pat attack with 8-104.

Sept. 20, at JETS 51, MIAMI 45 OT (71,025) — Sunny. Zany, spectacular, miracle — those were some of the words used to try to describe the Jets 51-45 win over the Dolphins in OT at the Meadowlands. Joe Walton said: "this was the best game I've ever been in — the most exciting. We saw two great quarterbacks playing football today." When it was all over and done with — the two teams had put up some incredible numbers: Ken O'Brien and Dan Marino had combined for an NFL record 884 net yards passing, the teams totaled 1066 yards of total offense and 96 points. With Miami leading 45-35, the Jets stopped Marino & Co. from making a first down and forced a punt. The Jets took over with 1:04 and 80 yards to go. O'Brien completed 5 of 6 passes (the only miss was to throw out of bounds to stop the clock with the ball on the M21 and 5 seconds remaining). Then he threw a perfect strike to Wesley Walker on the one and Walker squeezed into the end zone for the tying score with no time left. In OT, Miami lost the coin toss and the Jets drove 78 yards for the winner. O'Brien hit all 3 passes in OT, the winner being a 43-yard bomb to Walker for a TD at the 2:35 mark — the 4th time Walker and O'Brien had teamed for a TD that day. Marino became the all-time NFL passing rating leader on this day as he reached a personal high with 6 TD passes completing 30-50-448-2 int. O'Brien set a personal best of 479 yards with 29-43-1-4 TD passes of 65, 50, 21 and 43 yards to Walker. Walker was 6-194-32-3-4 TD. Al Toon was 7-111 and Johnny Hector, replacing the injured Freeman McNeil, was 22-82 rushing and 3-46 receiving. Mark Duper: 7-154-2 and Mark Clayton: 8-174-1. NY's 581 yards total offense tied the club record.

Sept. 28, JETS 26, at INDIANAPOLIS 7 (56,075) — Indoors. Defense and the foot of Pat Leahy helped lead the Jets to a 26-7 win over the Colts in the Hoosier Dome as the New Yorkers improved their record to 3-1. The defense came within 14 seconds and one play of posting a shutout. The Colts scored on a 4th down pass at the 14:46 mark from 3-yards out to spoil a strong effort by the NY defense. The Jets' "D" came back from last week's 45-point showing by Miami and picked off 1 pass and recovered 3 fumbles. It held the Colts to 52 yards rushing and 3 times turned them back without points inside the J30. Leahy increased his consecutive FG streak to 19 with kicks of 34, 48, 47 and 24. Ken O'Brien was 19-32-184-2int-1TD 17-yards (Kurt Sohn). Only healthy RB was FB Tony Paige, and the Jets also lost C Joe Fields for 8 weeks with a sprained knee.

Oct. 5, at JETS 14, BUFFALO 13 (69,504) — Sunny. The Jets' offense almost overslept, but the 2-minute warning woke it up and it came back to produce another heart-stopping victory — this time 14-13. With 1:58 remaining and the Jets trailing 13-7 and the Buffalo end zone 80-yards away, Ken O'Brien, playing on an injured left knee, completed 4 of 5 passes including the game winning bomb of 36-yards to Mickey Shuler. Pat Leahy's PAT provided the final winning margin. O'Brien had put the Jets in front with only 1:26 remaining in the 1st half with a 4-yard TD pass to Al Toon, but Buffalo and Jim Kelly tied it with a 40-yard TD pass to Greg Bell with only 26 seconds left in the 1st half. The Bills marched 91 yards in 17 plays, but the New York defense stiffened and Buffalo had to settle for a 23-yard FG and a 10-7 lead. Then after a 41-yard int. return, the Bills boosted their lead to 13-7 with a 32-yard FG. NY's defense kept the Bills from running out the clock and forced a punt into the end zone and the Jets "O" did the rest. Kyle Clifton's int. ended the Bills' final threat at the B30. O'Brien hit his last 25 of 29 passes including 15 in a row (tying a club record) and wound up 29-39-188-1-2 TDs. Johnny Hector pulled off a double with career highs in rushing and receiving with 18-117 and 9-100. Al Toon was 10-86.

Oct. 12, JETS 31, at NEW ENGLAND 24 (60,342) — Cloudy. "I was proud of the way we gathered ourselves and hung in there in the 4th quarter. These guys play 60 minutes and don't quit," said Joe Walton after the Jets 31-24 win. "Our defense stopped them in the 4th quarter and our offense was able to go get a touchdown when we needed it." New York marched to a 24-0 halftime lead as Pat Ryan, subbing for the injured Ken O'Brien, directed the Jets for scores on their first 4 possessions. Starting his first game since week 11 of the 1984 season, Ryan moved the Jets 89 and 76 yards for TDs, then 35-yards for a 47-yard Pat Leahy FG and then 76-yards and a TD pass to Mickey Shuler. NE came back as Steve Grogan passed for 3 2nd half TDs and a game total of 401 yards after only 62 in the 1st half. The Pats got to 24-17 in the 3rd quarter, but the Jets put together what proved to be their most important drive, an 11-play, 63-yard march culminated by Johnny Hector's club record tying 3rd TD run for 31-17 bulge. Grogan took only 2:23 to bring the Pats to within 7, but the Jets defense held and ended the final threat with a fumble recovery at the J22. On the day Ryan was 14-25-148-0-1TD. Hector set a club record for most carries with 40 and reached a personal high with 143 yards in addition to tying a club record for TD rushing with 3. Grogan set a career high with 401 yards on 23-42-0-3 TD. Stanley Morgan was 7-162-1 and Irving Fryar 3-126-1. NE, which lost RB Craig James (knee) was only 10-17 rushing, all-time low marks against the Jets defense.

Oct. 20, at JETS 22, DENVER 10 (73, 759) — Clear. "We played our most complete game of the season," said Joe Walton following the Jets emotional 22-10 win on Monday night football. "We played well on offense, defense and special teams and we played for a full 60 minutes." The Jets scored on their first 4 possessions and chased QB John Elway from sideline to sideline and shut down the Bronco running attack in the first half. Elway was 3-11-29 (net of 13) in the 1st half and the Bronco running game produced only 11 yards on 7 carries. The NY offense controlled the ball for 21:22 and got a solid performance from its offensive line and a triple TE formation that produced 167 yards and 14 1st half 1st downs. Pat Ryan started at QB and directed the Jets to a Johnny Hector TD run and a pair of Pat Leahy FGs of 25 and 27 yards before leaving the game with bruised ribs. Ken O'Brien took over with 3:02 remaining in the 1st half and on his 2nd play hit Wesley Walker for a 23-yard TD and a 20-0 lead. The defense boosted the margin to 22-0 with a safety by Bobby Humphery. Denver tried to get back into the game but produced only a 47-yard FG until Gary Kubiak, subbing for Elway, who left the game with 9:59 remaining with a concussion, threw a 20-yard TD on a pass deflected into the hands of Sammy Winder. For the night, the Jets had the ball for 38:38 and held Denver to 12-38 rushing. The 6-1 start was the best in club history.

and Toon started their TD splurge. A Lester Lyles int. set up the Jets 62-yard drive culminated by Freeman McNeil's 1-yard TD run. O'Brien and Toon hooked up on a 62-yard TD catch and spectacular run for 21-6 lead. A fumble recovery set up the final O'Brien to Toon TD, a 6-yard pass for a 28-6 lead. Nov. 9, JETS 28, at ATLANTA 14 (53,476) — Partly cloudy. The bomb and defense blew the Falcons away as the Jets won their 8th straight, 28-14 to go 9-1 for the season. The Jets turned a 0-0 2nd quarter game into a 28-0 lead scoring on 4 consecutive possessions. Ken O'Brien hit Al Toon on a 59-yard go-pattern and came back on the next series to connect with Wesley Walker for a 46-yarder on another fly pattern. The next time the Jets had the ball they mixed the run and pass, but O'Brien and Walker hooked up again for the scoring play, a 16-yard pass. When the Falcons fumbled the 2nd half kickoff, New York took advantage and moved 26-yards with Freeman McNeil scoring from the A3 for a 28-0 margin. During that burst, O'Brien completed 17 straight for 229 yards and 3 TDs to tie for the 3rd most completions in a row in NFL history. Nov. 16, at JETS 31, INDIANAPOLIS 16 (65,149) — Partly cloudy. A solid defensive performance and the deadly combo of Ken O'Brien to Wesley Walker earned the Jets their 9th straight win, a hard-fought 31-16 victory. "We just made too many mistakes on offense. It was the first time in 4 or 5 weeks that we made the turnovers and they put a crimp in our offense, but our defense made some big plays," said Walton. The 0-11 Colts put a scare into the Jets and the final score was not an indication of how close the game was. NY took advantage of the 4 interceptions and 2 FRs and produced 2 TDs and 1 FG. O'Brien and Walker combined 5 times for 110 yards and 3 TDs of 19, 5 and 5 yards. Jack Trudeau kept the Colts in the game with 27-57-359-1 TD and Billy Brooks was 9-177-1 TD. Freeman McNeil led the NY running game with 18-104 and his 40-yard run set up Johnny Hector's 17-yard TD run which gave the Jets some breathing room at 24-16. NY lost Mark Gastineau for the regular season with a sprained knee.

Nov. 24, at MIAMI 45, JETS 3 (70,206) — Partly cloudy. "We got beat pretty bad...we got beat in all phases. They were the better team tonight, said Joe Walton following the Jets 45-3 drubbing on national TV. The New Yorkers suffered their first loss in 10 weeks and it was the worst defeat for the Jets since the 2nd week of the 1979 season at New England, when they were crushed by the Patriots, 56-3. Miami managed a running attack for the first time this year (189) to combine with the ever-present passing of Dan Marino (29-36-288-0-4 TD). Offensively, the Jets uncharacteristically turned the ball over 4 times, twice early in the game when they were driving for possible scores. Miami got on top quickly with a 54-yard TD run by Lorenzo Hampton on the Dolphins' 1st possession. On Miami's 3rd possession, it scored again, but the TD that might have taken the Jets out of their game plan and the ball game, was a Marino to Hampton pass at the 0:02 mark of the 1st half from the NY1 making the score, 21-0. The Dolphins scored the next 3 times they had the ball while the Jets were only able to manage a 45-yard FG. Ken O'Brien was 11-21-168-0-1 int. Hampton was 19-148-2 and became the 1st runner to go over 100-yards against the Jets this season.

Nov. 30, LOS ANGELES 17, at JETS 3 (70,539) — Sunny. The Rams cashed in on their opportunities and the Jets didn't. It pretty well told the story of the game as the Rams sent the Jets to their 2nd straight loss, 17-3. The Jets picked off 2 of the first 3 passes by Jim Everett, but couldn't produce anything. They missed their best chance when Ken O'Brien teamed with Wesley Walker on a 31-yard pass to the LA3, but Walker fumbled away a possible TD when hit hard by Jerry Gray. Then the Rams moved to their own 40 when Kevin House made a leaping catch of an Everett pass beating a NY blitz and sped 60-yards for a TD. Minutes later the Rams added a 38-yard FG when they recovered a Freeman McNeil fumble at the J23. LA upped the lead to 17-0 on a 4-yard TD run by Eric Dickerson and NY didn't get on the board until a 25-yard FG with 8:48 remaining. The Jets drove to the LA5, but came up empty when O'Brien's pass was tipped and intercepted in the EZ with only 1:06 left. Dickerson was limited to 31-107, but he helped LA control the ball and took the pressure off of Everett, who survived a shaky start and wound up 9-17-155-2 int-1 TD. O'Brien was 28-47 (a career high in atts.) 272 yards-0-2int. LA shut down the Jets' long ball offense limiting Al Toon to 4-60 and Walker 3-57. McNeil was 20-74 rushing and 7-53 receiving.

Dec. 7, JETS 10, at SAN FRANCISCO 24 (58,091) — Clear, cool. The Jets struggled offensively and defensively against the 49ers and suffered their 3rd straight loss at SF, 24-10. Joe Montana led the SF passing attack with 23-37-245-0 TD-1 int., but the 49ers posted the best rushing numbers against the Jets this year with 41-198 on the ground and controlled the ball and the clock for 38:11. After SF went up 7-0 the Jets cut the margin to 7-3 on Pat Leahy's 22-yard FG. Then SF moved it to 14-3 and upped the lead to 21-3 in the 3rd quarter on Tom Rathman's 29-yard run. The Jets ended their 11-quarter TD schneid with a Ken O'Brien to Freeman McNeil 10-yard pass at the 11:35 mark of the 4th quarter. SF added a 33-yard FG for the final score. Dec. 13, PITTSBURGH 45, at JETS 24 (58,044) — Cold and windy. The Jets' losing streak was extended to 4 and they fell to 10-5 as the Steelers defeated them at the Meadowlands, 45-24. The game was on the line and tied at 17-17 in the 4th quarter when the Steelers took control and rolled for 28 points and the victory. The Jets came back from a 17-7 deficit and appeared to be ready to take the lead. They tied it at 17, but Ken O'Brien was pressured into an interception which Pittsburgh turned into a TD. Moments later Pittsburgh added another score following a 40-yard punt return. A 67-yard int. return for a TD left the Steelers holding a commanding 38-17. The Steelers defense put constant pressure on O'Brien and sacked him 5 times and made 3 int. O'Brien was: 30-20-197-1 TD and 3 int. and Pat Ryan, who took over when O'Brien was momentarily injured, was 7-10-65-1 TD. EWBANK, NAMATH & MAYNARD — HALL OF FAMERS

Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets for more than a decade, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978. Joe Namath, his QB, joined him in the Hall on Aug. 3, 1985 and Don Maynard, his top WR, entered on Aug. 8, 1987.

The former Jets' and Colts (1954-62) head coach achieved a distinction that will never be matched — the only coach to win world championships in both leagues. Weeb led the NFL champion Colts team in 1958-59. He joined the Jets in 1963 and developed the team that shocked the Colts in Super Bowl III.

Namath, the Jets' all-time passing leader with 1,886 of 3,762 for 27,663 and 173 TDs, was a Pro Bowl selection 5 times and first QB to pass for more than 4,000 yards (1967 in 14-game season). He was MVP in Super Bowl III victory.

Maynard (633-11, 834-88 TDs) has the 2nd most yardage and TD catches in NFL history and still holds the NFL mark for 100-yard games with 50. A 4-time All-Star pick, his most memorable game was his 6-118-2 TDs in the 1968 AFC Championship over Oakland to put the Jets in the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two, Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF
DEC. 20, 1969 — SHEA STADIUM
KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only TD of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incompleción and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

1981 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1981 — SHEA STADIUM

BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out.

The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 50-yard TD to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left.

The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored 2 quick TDs and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to go. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 9, 1983 — CINCINNATI RIVERFRONT STADIUM
NEW YORK 44, CINCINNATI 17

The Jets mixed up solid and hard hitting football with a measure of razzle dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in round one of the NFL Super Bowl tournament. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again, when the Jets' defense might have made the play of the day. Nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the J1 and with Freeman McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered. McNeil was the "cannon" being shot by Richard Todd 21 times for 202 yards and one TD.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 15, 1983 — LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM
NEW YORK 17, L.A. RAIDERS 14

The Jets spring upset number two in the 2nd round of the Super Bowl tournament, beating the Raiders to enter the AFC championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard TD run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last 3 minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard TD pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy FG, but the Raiders came storming back in the 2nd half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Plunkett at the LA27 with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Then Mehl made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP
JAN. 23, 1983 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI 14, NEW YORK 0

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0 to earn a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game which saw a total of 12 turnovers, with three interceptions, returning the final one 35-yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries due to the footing. It was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0 at halftime. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.

1985 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF
DEC. 28, 1985 — GIANTS STADIUM
NEW ENGLAND 26, NEW YORK 14

New England came out on top 26-14 in a game that saw the Jets self-destruct. The Jets committed 4 costly turnovers which led to 17 Patriots points. New England, which went on to win the AFC championship, played an almost flawless game with no turnovers and only 1 penalty. The Jets were ahead 7-6, and driving late in the 2nd quarter when Ken O'Brien was intercepted on the 7-yard line. New England came back with a TD pass from Tony Eason to Stanley Morgan on a blitz 6 plays later. O'Brien suffered a concussion on the final play of the half on an Andre Tippett sack and would only play the first series of the 2nd half. Before Pat Ryan could relieve him though, New England added a FG and then scored a TD when the ensuing kickoff was fumbled by Johnny Hector and returned 15-yards by Johnny Rembert. With the Jets trailing 23-7, Ryan came in and directed a TD drive.

1986 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

Dec. 28, 1986 — GIANTS STADIUM

NEW YORK 35, KANSAS CITY 15

Joe Walton started Pat Ryan to give the team an emotional lift — they got just that from Ryan plus a key running play and a 3-TD passing performance along with Freeman McNeil's 135-yard rushing to spark the Jets' first home playoff win since 1968. Trailing 6-0, Ryan ran a QB draw for 24 yards from the KC33 on a 4th & 6 play to set up the Jets' go ahead TD. On the ensuing series 1st down, the Jets defense forced a KC fumble and Ryan concluded a 12 play, 47-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to McNeil. Just prior to the half, Ryan hit Al Toon with a TD pass for a 21-6 halftime edge. The Jets nailed the victory on the 1st play of the 2nd half when Kevin McArthur swiped a Todd Blackledge pass and dashed 21 yards for a 28-6 margin. The Jets' defense allowed a season low 241 yards total offense and had 2 sacks, 2 INTs and 1 recovered fumble.

1986 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Jan. 3, 1987 — CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 23, NEW YORK 20 (2 OTs)

In the 3rd longest game in NFL history (77:02), Cleveland staged an incredible comeback to send the game into OT before Mark Moseley's 27-yard FG advanced the Browns to the AFC Championship game. With Pat Ryan at QB, the Jets jumped on top 7-0 following a flea-flicker 42-yard TD pass from Ryan to Wesley Walker. Ryan was forced to leave the game in the 2nd quarter with a groin injury and was replaced by Ken O'Brien. Meanwhile, the Jets defense was outstanding holding the Browns to just 10 points and 302 total yards late in the 4th quarter. Immediately after a Jerry Holmes interception, the Jets took a 20-10 lead on Freeman McNeil's 25-yard TD with 4:14 remaining in regulation. Kosar led the Browns 68 yards to set up Kevin Mack's one-yard run to make the score 20-17 with 1:57 left. Cleveland's defense forced the Jets to punt with :51 left before Kosar's 37-yard pass to Webster Slaughter to the 5-yard line set up the tying 22-yard FG. The Jets got a 2nd life when Moseley missed a 23-yard FG 6:06 into OT, but he redeemed himself by kicking the winning 27-yard FG on a first-and-goal play from the J9.

INSTANT REPLAY APPROVED FOR 1987

For the second year in a row, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1986 with the exception that larger monitors will be used by Replay Officials. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 38 reversals for an average of one reversal in each six games. There were three other rulings (clarification of rules) by Replay Officials.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a "no frills" approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986 and 1987. A total of 28 plays were examined closely in 1985 (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed, and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking, or kneeling; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.
