LEON HESS

Chairman of the Board

"I'm 80 years old. I want results now," said New York Jets Chairman of the Board Leon Hess as he held only his 2nd press conference since becoming an owner of the Jets in 1963. "Rich Kotite, in my opinion, is one of those men who can make a winning team out of the Jets." With that forthright statement, Hess named Rich Kotite the 10th full-time head coach in franchise history and placed the results squarely on his own shoulders.

"The buck stops with me," Hess said. "I'm just one of those fans who's been disappointed for 25 years. Let's make a change. If it's wrong, it's my fault, but at least I'm doing something for the fans and trying to do something for myself. I'm entitled to some enjoyment out of this team and that means winning."

Hess has continuously sought the finest football facilities for both the players and the fans throughout the years. After citing Shea Stadium as "having the NFL's poorest facilities for players and spectators alike," Hess announced plans to move to the Meadowlands prior to the 1984 season. As a result, during the last 11 seasons, thousands of additional Jets fans have had the opportunity to watch NFL football in comfort and safety, in modern, clean surroundings, with proper facilities, adequate parking and good football sightlines.

In addition, Hess has continued to provide the Jets players and staff with outstanding facilities by building an ultra-modern locker room at the Meadowlands and by improving the Weeb Ewbank training complex at Hofstra University with a new AstroTurf field, a new locker room and weight room and additional offices.

This year, Hess was introduced by Joe Namath as he was inducted into the New Jersey Sports Hall of Fame along with Giants owner Wellington Mara, former Giants All-Pro tackle Al De Rogatis and former Rutgers FB Paul Robeson. In 1983, Hess was an honored recipient of the Distinguished American Award at the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame dinner. He joined an impressive list of past winners including Vince Lombardi, Bob Hope, Jimmy Stewart, Bill Carpenter and Fr. Theodore Hesburgh.

Hess, the long-time chairman of the board of the Amerada Hess Corporation, handed over the reins of the company to his son John this past May, and now holds the title of chairman of the executive committee. Hess started building Amerada Hess from his father's 2-truck heating oil delivery business during the 1930's, and took over daily operations of the company after a stint in the Army during World War II where he was responsible for supplying fuel to General George Patton's troops. From those humble beginnings he built a multi-billion dollar oil and gas company with refineries located around the world. He has been the sole owner of the Jets since 1984 and has been actively involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963.

STEVE GUTMAN President

As president of the Jets Steve Gutman has been a key figure in the team's return to respectability in the ranks of professional sports while helping to set the path for the future of the NFL. Not only has he been instrumental in the Jets pursuit of veteran players, but he also played a vital role in negotiating the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement as a member of the NFL Management Council's Work Group.

In 1989, he and Leon Hess led the search which resulted in the hiring of Dick Steinberg as general manager. That, and many subsequent moves that followed, helped the Jets reach the playoffs in 1991, their first postseason appearance since 1986.

In the past three seasons, under the rules of the NFL's collective bargaining agreement, the Jets have been one of the most aggressive teams in the free agent market, acquiring several veteran players including Nick Lowery, Tony Casillas, Donald Evans, Dexter Carter, Gary Jones and Todd Scott. The Jets also acquired Pro Bowl QB Boomer Esiason and RB Ronald Moore through trades, thus using every available avenue in acquiring the players that will lead the Jets into the 1990's.

Gutman, who works closely with Hess, was named president on June 14, 1988. He has been with the Jets since 1977. His first 11 seasons were spent serving as the corporate treasurer-secretary and administrative manager. In that role he supervised the daily operation of the club and served on the Board of Directors. He also directed all the Jets fiscal operations including player contract negotiations, tickets and marketing. Gutman has added the responsibilities of the presidency while still directing all of the fiscal and daily operations of the club.

Gutman has been a respected figure around NFL circles. In 1994 he was named to the NFL Properties Executive Committee, and in 1991, he was appointed by Paul Tagliabue to the Management Council Work Group. He served as an economic consultant to the NFLMC during the 1982 collective bargaining sessions with the NFLPA. He is also a member of the players pension plan committee. He has also been involved in community and charity projects, and his efforts were recognized in 1994 when the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation honored him as the recipient of the 65 Roses Award for his part in the Jets fight against CF.

Prior to joining the Jets in 1977, Gutman had extensive experience as a financial consultant in areas of securities, research, sales, underwriting, investment banking and management.

Gutman received his BS in accounting and MBA in corporate finance from New York University. He was born January 24, 1935 in the Bronx, NY. He and his wife Carol have three children, sons Fred and Rob and daughter Elise.

RICH KOTITE

Head Coach

"It is with great anticipation that I as a Jet fan, that I as part of the Jets, appoint Rich Kotite the leader, the coach to bring the Jets back to where I know he can bring them," said Chairman of the Board Leon Hess in announcing the hiring of Rich Kotite as the Jets new head coach on January 5, 1995. Kotite becomes the 10th full-time head coach in franchise history.

"Rich is a fighter. He's a builder. He's a leader. He's going to do a great job in bringing our New York Jets back to where we'll all be proud of them," said Hess in only the second news conference he has held since becoming an owner in 1963.

A native of Brooklyn, Kotite comes to the Jets after spending the past five seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, the last four as head coach. He was hired by Buddy Ryan as offensive coordinator in 1990, and was named Ryan's successor as head coach prior to the 1991 season, compiling a 36-28 regular season record in his four seasons at the helm.

In his rookie campaign, Kotite led the Eagles to a 10-6 record, only narrowly missing the playoffs despite a season-ending injury to QB Randall Cunningham on opening day. The following season the Eagles earned an 11-5 mark and an NFC playoff berth. Kotite's finest accomplishment came in those playoffs when he led the Eagles to a 36-20 come-from-behind win over New Orleans in the NFC Wild Card Game, the first postseason victory for an Eagles team since 1980.

"Rich Kotite is coach of the New York Jets and head of the New York Jets family," said Hess. "He, in my opinion, is one of those men who can make a winning team out of the Jets."

"My philosophy is very simple," said Kotite. "I don't have all the answers. But I do know one thing, with the way the NFL is today, if you have a team that is prepared and it plays for 60 minutes and plays as hard as it can, you always have a chance to succeed and most of the time you will.

"I believe in setting high standards for myself and for our football team and I believe you can't accept anything less. The only way to accomplish winning is for everybody to be on the same page, not just with the football team, but within an organization."

As offensive coordinator in 1990, Kotite headed a unit that led the NFL in rushing and time of possession and led the NFC in scoring and touchdown passes. Kotite's system enabled Cunningham to rank among the league leaders in passing and rushing, and rookie receivers Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett to combine for 17 TD catches.

This will be the second stint with the Jets for Kotite, 52, who served as the team's receivers coach from 1983-85 and offensive coordinator/receivers coach from 1986-1989 under head coach Joe Walton. The Jets attack was among the AFC leaders in total offense every year, including a 3rd place ranking in 1985. He is also credited with the development of Pro Bowlers, WR Al Toon and TE Mickey Shuler.

"I'm very rarely at a loss for words, but this is a dream come true," said Kotite. "To be able to come home and come home to the Jets family, because I really always felt like I was a part of it and the atmosphere that's created here. It starts with Mr. Hess and Steve Gutman and everybody else. It's something that you don't forget and sometimes when you're not here, you realize how much you cherish it."

Prior to joining the Jets, Kotite spent five seasons as the receivers coach for the Cleveland Browns under Sam Rutigliano after beginning his pro coaching career under head coach Hank Stram at New Orleans in 1977.

During his NFL playing career, Kotite played tight end and excelled on special teams with the Giants (1967, 1969-72) and the Pittsburgh Steelers (1968).

A graduate of Poly Prep High School in Brooklyn, he went on to a brief boxing career at the University of Miami where he became the school's heavyweight champ, and then earned Little All-America honors as a tight end at Wagner College in Staten Island.

Kotite and his wife Elizabeth have a daughter Alexandra, 17. The family was honored in 1992 by the New York Catholic Archdiocese as the "family of the year". Kotite has been very involved in civic and charitable activities in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Pennsylvania. An avid golfer, he has served as celebrity chairman of several tournaments, most notably, the annual New York Telephone/March of Dimes Golf Tournament in Staten Island for the past seven years, an event that has raised over $1,000,000.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT RICH KOTITE:

Former Eagles President Harry Gamble (now at the NFL): "I think it's a perfect marriage. Richie is a New York guy and he's going home, and the Jets are getting an outstanding football coach. You could say Richie has been snakebitten (with injuries, etc.). But the most important thing is he averaged nine wins a season. That shows you what kind of coach he is."

Giants Head Coach Dan Reeves: "I was elected coach of the year last year (1993), but if I had to vote for somebody, I would have voted for Rich because after what they (Philadelphia) went through last year (1993), to wind up at 8-8 was tremendous. Every time I've watched his team's play, they're always prepared. I think this is a good move by the Jets."

Former Eagles KR Vai Sikaheima: "I think the Jets are getting a good coach. I think Richie did a good job in Philadelphia under some tough circumstances. It was tough that he didn't have a lot of support, and it was tough that he lost so many players over the years. But somehow he was able to keep it together. I think he'll be able to do that with the Jets."

Jets LB Kyle Clifton: "I've always respected Richie and thought a lot of him. From all the players I knew in Philadelphia, they liked him and had high praise for him."

Eagles C David Alexander: "He's tough. He's a New Yorker. Everybody respects him for what he's been through, even off the field. He played in the NFL and wasn't a very talented football player. But he knows what it takes to play above your abilities and that's what he expects from his players."

Jets special teams coach and former Eagles LB Ken Rose: "Rich was one of the few coaches who stood by me the whole time I was at Philly. He's a great coach and as far as being a stand-up person, I don't think there's another person who deserves another chance more than he does."

Rose on Kotite's coaching style: "His style of coaching is about discipline. He doesn't motivate the way most coaches do. He has a different way of doing it. He treats each player individually and makes you understand your responsibilities. It works. He knows what buttons to push."

I like being surrounded by strong people like Leon Hess, Steve Gutman, Dick Steinberg, Dick Haley and everybody else, and I'm a firm believer that if you're going to get it done and you want to take it to the next level, you've got to do it together. You've got to respect each other and you've got to make tough decisions. There has to be an accountability factor, not just with the people up here, but with the players and everyone else. We're all a part of this thing and we're all professionals. This is a tough business.

—Head Coach Rich Kotite

HOW THEY BECAME THE JETS

On March 28, 1963 a five-man syndicate composed of David A. (Sonny) Werblin, Leon Hess, Townsend B. Martin, Donald C. Lillis and Philip H. Iselin purchased the New York Titans of the American Football League for the price of $1 million.

Less than a month later, on April 15, Werblin, the team's president and CEO renamed the team the "Jets". The reasons were twofold. At the time, the United States was entering the "space" or "Jet Age". Commercial airlines were filling the air and soon there would be men walking on the moon. Also, the Jets new stadium, Shea Stadium, would be located in Flushing Meadows, NY between LaGuardia and Idlewild (later renamed John F. Kennedy Airport) Airports. Hence the name, New York Jets.

DICK STEINBERG General Manager

"This is a great organization. From the front office to the training staff, the medical people and president Steve Gutman. We haven't shown it in wins and losses yet, but I think we're about to," said Jets vice president and general manager Dick Steinberg upon the hiring of Rich Kotite as head coach. "We have the greatest owner in the world and he certainly deserves a winning team. We have guys in place here, Dick Haley, James Harris and Pat Kirwan who are as fine a football people as there are. I want to help these guys and Richie (Kotite) in any way I can, and help get us back on the winning track."

Steinberg, who was diagnosed with stomach cancer at the end of the 1994 season, has had to take on a reduced daily workload and has delegated a portion of his responsibilities to Haley, Harris and Kirwan as he continues his gallant struggle. He still oversees the signing of free agents and draft choices and continues to be involved in the pursuit of football talent.

Working with Kotite and owner Leon Hess he has added a strong corp of veterans through free agency, including kicker Nick Lowery, defensive standouts Donald Evans, Tony Casillas, Gary Jones, Todd Scott, Erik Howard and Otis Smith, former 49ers RB-KR Dexter Carter, and former Eagles QB Bubby Brister. He has also been active on the trade market, acquiring Pro Bowl QB Boomer Esiason and this year brought aboard a 1,000-yard rusher in Cardinal's RB Ronald Moore.

"We have the commitment and the resources to improve through whatever avenues are available," said Steinberg. "Mr. Hess very badly wants the team to do well. The rules of the game have changed. You can no longer rely on just the draft to build your team. The advent of free agency has changed all that."

He has however, injected a strong dose of talent into the Jets nucleus of young players through the draft with players such as Mo Lewis, Johnny Mitchell, Siupeli Malamala, Marvin Jones and Aaron Glenn.

In his first full season with the team in 1990 the Jets had 23 players with one or fewer years of NFL experience. That team finished with a 6-10 record while having the lead at halftime in 11 games and after three quarters in seven games.

They learned from that experience and in 1991 they finished 2nd in the AFC East at 8-8 and made their first appearance in the playoffs in five years.

The Jets named Steinberg as vice president and general manager of the club on December 18, 1989, at that time, giving the former New England Patriots director of player development full control of the Jets' football operations.

Steinberg came to New York not only highly regarded by the Jets, but also well respected by others in the NFL.

"I just think he's one of the better people we have in this business," said Giants general manager George Young. "Does he have the background, knowledge, instincts, guts, work ethic? Has he been with winning teams and does he have ideas that give him a chance to win? It's yes to all those things. Nobody is a sure thing, but I'll take my chances with a guy like him. Dick knows what it takes to win."

"Dick is a hard worker with a terrific eye for talent," said Chargers general manager Bobby Beathard. "I think he has a good feel about the whole picture—coaching and the strengths and weaknesses of a team. He's not a guy who thinks he's some hot number. He's kind of laid back and easy to get along with."

Steinberg, who has selected the talent for two Super Bowl teams—the Patriots of Super Bowl XX in 1986 and the Rams of Super Bowl XIV in 1980—is considered one of the most knowledgeable minds in the NFL and a top talent hunter. He came to the Jets after nine years with the New England Patriots as director of player development. At New England, Steinberg acquired Pro Bowlers Andre Tippett, Brian Holloway, Tony Collins, Irving Fryar and Fred Marion and traded for Sean Farrell to solidify its offensive line.

Steinberg originally left the Patriots as a scout (1972-76) to become director of college scouting for the Rams in June, 1976. He remained in that post until being promoted to the position of director of player personnel, a job he held until June, 1980. In his first draft with the Rams in 1977 his first four picks were Bob Brudzinski, Nolan Cromwell, Wendell Tyler and Vince Ferragamo, all key figures in their Super Bowl season.

After his four-year stay with the Rams, Steinberg joined then general manager Steve Rosenbloom as vice president of player personnel with New Orleans. Steinberg later resigned that position on January 20, 1981 before rejoining the Patriots.

A native of Philadelphia, born August 9, 1935, Steinberg played football and majored in physical education and health at Temple University. In addition to serving a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Army in France, Steinberg was a high school coach at Philadelphia's Roman Catholic High School (1960-61) and at Staunton (VA) Military Academy (1961-64). He then entered the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant at Vanderbilt (1964-66) and Kansas State (1967-69).

Following a brief stint as a scout with the Dallas Cowboys in 1969, Steinberg spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi (1970-71) before joining the Patriots as a personnel scout under then director of player personnel Bucko Kilroy. Steinberg served with the Patriots from 1972-76 before departing for the Rams.

One of the priorities that we needed to address was to bring in a return man who has the ability to turn a game around, and that is exactly what Dexter Carter can do. He has the ability to shorten the field for the offense and can contribute as a running back in certain situations. He excited the people around him. Every time he puts his hands on the ball, you have a chance to score.

—head coach Rich Kotite on signing Carter

I'm excited about having Boomer as our starting quarterback. He fits in well with what we want to accomplish. He does an awful lot of things well. I've always known him as a great competitor, and he still has a burning desire to compete and achieve things in his life.
—head coach Rich Kotite on Boomer as the starting QB for '95

I have a lot of respect for Boomer. I think he'll do a great job this year. The whole team has great confidence in Boomer.
—C Cal Dixon on Boomer

The thing I like about Richie (Kotite) is that he's no-nonsense. He's said, 'This is the way it's going to be, and that's all there is to it.' It's nice to hear that type of rhetoric in that type of tone from the guy in charge.
—Esiason on Kotite's style

We're going to be a northeastern football team. The west-coast monogram isn't with us any longer.

—Esiason on the Jets new offensive philosophy

I don't want to play anywhere else. I don't want to go anywhere else. I'm not afraid of New York. It's tough, but I like it.

—Esiason on playing in his hometown

Donald does what you'd like all football players to do—he's made a commitment. He was out of football. The opportunity presented itself (to play again) and he wasn't going to let it get away. Whenever I came into my office in the mornings, Donald was already sitting there watching tapes. When I use the word 'dedicated' for Donald, it's not a word I use casually. He is truly dedicated. You like to have a lot of guys like Donald Evans on your team. He has a winner's attitude.

HOWARD (continued)

Signing Erik Howard definitely gives us experience and depth at the interior line. One of the concerns we have defensively is being able to stop the run. If you can't stop the run in this league, you're not going to stop anything. I think with getting Howard here and having Tony Casillas, we've improved ourselves.

—head coach Rich Kotite on acquiring Howard

I'm excited about continuing to play in a 4-3 defense. Last year (with GIA) was the first time I played defensive tackle and it was something I really came to enjoy. It allows you more freedom to make more plays. I feel I can continue to develop in that role.

Mo Lewis is the true heartbeat of our defense. It was important that all of us in the organization worked together to get Mo signed to a long term deal. This is a significant commitment to the future of our football team.—head coach Rich Kotite on signing Lewis

I want to be a quarterback's nightmare. I want to be in the backfield on every play. I don't want to ever come off the field for any situation. I want to give them so many dimensions they're going to have to worry about me every time they snap the ball.
—Lewis on being a versatile LB

I dream about rushing the quarterback all the time. I dream about defense all the time. —Lewis on being used as a pass rusher

I don't like any of those skill guys. Quarterbacks, running backs, wide receivers, I don' like 'em. I try not to even associate with 'em sometimes.

One of the reasons I came here is that the Chiefs saw me as a player who was getting older, but the Jets looked at me as someone who could still contribute. I feel I still have a lot to accomplish.
 —Lowery on playing for the Jets

Those were great experiences. I'd never change them for the world because they made me stronger and made me better. I think in life, it doesn't matter where you are, but where you've come from and what you have overcome.

IL...member of state championship team as a sophomore...also wrestled in high school and posted a record of 40-1 and finished 2nd in the state tournament...is ambidexterous.

I'm excited about having Johnny and Kyle Brady together on the team. On offense we'll be able to do a lot of things around them. When you play defense you defense formations and you defense people. With what we plan to do with our two tight ends, it's going to be hard to defend us. Mitchell is a player who can really be an impact on you offensively. He applies pressure to the defense.

—head coach Rich Kotite on Mitchell's role in the 2-TE offense

He's my Rodney Holman of the '90's. He's a diamond in the rough right now. Now it's just a matter of polishing that diamond. He's a veteran now, and we're going to be asking more of him.

—QB Boomer Esiason on Mitchell's talent

The coaches are giving me a leadership role. I can show these young receivers where they're supposed to go, and so forth. I look at it as a challenge.

—Mitchell on being given a leadership role in the offense

I think it's great. It makes the most use of my abilities. I may do some perimeter stuff, some motion. I may even be split out. I love it.

—Mitchell on his role in the new offense in OT victory at WAS...1993: had remarkable rookie season with 263-1018-3.9-9 TD rushing effort becoming the 1st Cardinal to rush for 1,000 yards since 1985 and the 1st Cardinal rookie to do it since Ottis Anderson in 1979...finished 3rd in rushing among NFL rookie RB behind LAR Jerome Bettis (1429) and WAS Reggie Brooks (1063)...9 TD ranked 2nd in NFC, led all NFL rookies and set a club rookie record held previously by Anderson (8, 1979)...was also named to the All-Madden Team...had a career day vs. PHI with 36-160 (23-113 in 1st half) rushing while playing on a sprained ankle...tied club record with 36 carries and his 160 yards were 11th in team annals...had more carries than any NFL back in the final 8 games of the season (191)...his 710 rushing yards in that span was 3rd in the NFL to Bettis and Emmitt Smith...was 8-47 rushing and scored his 1st NFL TD on an 18-yard run in win at WAS, all after learning of the death of an older brother 2 days earlier...was 13-80 rushing in 1½ vs. WAS when Garrison Hearst left with a knee injury in the 3rd quarter...had 126 rushing yards and a career-high 4 TD in 38-10 win vs. LAR...it was the 1st time a Cardinal had rushed for 4 TD in a game since 1977...became only the 5th rookie in NFL history to rush for 4 TD in a game (Jim Brown, Gale Sayers, Earl Campbell and Emmitt Smith)...was 23-135-5.9-0 TD vs. GIA, including 110 yards in the 2nd half.

PERSONAL: Wife, Tammy...majored in communications/broadcasting...visited with victims of Oklahoma City bombing this past offseason...was a standout LB and RB and wrestled at Star Spencer High School in his hometown and birthplace of Spencer, OK.

Getting Ronald Moore gives us a great situation. It gives us some flexibility in what we can do. I've had a lot of exposure to him the last two years. His rookie year, he was the Cardinal's premier guy and gained over 1,000 yards. Although he wasn't used much as a pass receiver, he has excellent hands and is an outstanding young player who is only going into his third year. It's going to create tremendous competition and that's what you're really trying to do.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in exercise and sports science...was Parade and USA Today All-America and the Gatorade Player of the Year in Pennsylvania as a senior TE-DE at Cedar Cliff High School...was also the winner of the Bobby Dodd Award given by the Touchdown Club of Atlanta to the country's outstanding lineman...also lettered in basketball and baseball...hometown is Harrisburg, PA...born in New Cumberland, PA.

I haven't seen a tight end like Kyle Brady come out in many, many years. He's so big. He's strong, he's got great agility, he's an excellent route runner, he's got great hands and he's a devastating blocker. He was so high on our board that we just couldn't pass him up.
—Jets head coach Rich Kotite

Kyle Brady is a guy who we feel has all the needed ingredients to be a Pro Bowl-type tight end in this league in a reasonably short period of time. He can run, catch and block and he'll be a guy who will contribute greatly to your running game and your passing game overall. He's as big and as strong and as athletic as any of the tight ends who have come out in quite a while, and he has no real impediment to keep him from being what you want.
—Jets director of player personnel Dick Haley

Kyle is probably the prototype tight end, and I think that's obvious. He's everything you'd want in an All-America player.
—Penn State head coach Joe Paterno

I think Kyle is the total package. His frame and body are outstanding, that's why he's such a great blocker. But at the same time, he's a very effective pass receiver. He runs well and he's got good technique.
—former Penn State teammate and Carolina Panthers QB Kerry Collins

I thought Brady was one of the top six players in the country. I like tight ends that look like Brady, that act like Brady, that play like Brady. He is a good, good player.
—New England Patriots head coach Bill Parcells

Just putting on a uniform sort of starts the whole transformation towards aggressiveness for me. I guess it's like Pavlov's dog. Putting on the uniform is like the bell sounding so you can relieve all your frustrations.
—Kyle Brady on his aggressiveness on the field

If you've got a great running back, he's not going to be a great one if he doesn't have people who can open the holes. After blocking for five years you learn to accept those responsibilities and learn to take pride in whatever you're asked to do. You still get a decent amount of attention by catching the ball in clutch situations, but you learn to take pride in how the team is doing.
—Kyle Brady on blocking and a team-first attitude

The fans here are tough. I've never been booed before in my life. I feel like I should go up there to shake some hands and make some friends.
—Brady on his selection being booed by draftniks on draft day at the Paramount

Tyrone Davis is a Herman Moore-type receiver who is very big and strong, who can run, jump up and make the big catches. He's been very productive. —Jets head coach Rich Kotite

Tyrone is a big receiver. He's 230 pounds, which is exceptionally big at that position. He has enough quickness. He ran well for a guy who is that big. He catches well and he has potential to get better. We think he can contribute fairly soon.

This man will be on the field an awful lot. With his instincts and his acceleration and his great nose for the ball, we think that he'll be successful for us coming in here. This guy is somebody I think will make a difference early. —Jets head coach Rich Kotite

One of the things that everybody believes to be missing around here is a pass rusher. This kid played at a lower level of competition but he is an exceptional pass rusher. He has got a great burst, he's got great strength and explosion and he's a natural at it. We think this guy can pressure the passer.

—Jets director of player personnel Dick Haley

Hugh Douglas played a position very much like Chris Slade played in college. You don't know whether he can play LB. If he does not play LB then he is probably going to be a one-down player. But, that may be a valuable one-down player, because he may be a good pass rusher there. The other thing they could do is put him in a position like John Randall in Minnesota. He has that kind of quickness.

—New England Patriots head coach Bill Parcells

He's a big, strong kid, comes off the ball real well and disrupts anything going on in the backfield.

—New Orleans Saints scout Carmen Piccone

I think I have a more mature attitude. I'm a little more relaxed. All the draft hype doesn't excite me. I'm here to take care of business.

—Douglas on his approach to professional football

—Jets head coach Rich Kotite

This guy, we really like. We thought he was certainly worthy of a little higher pick. He's big, strong, aggressive and smart and it's an area we needed to address. We needed to improve our depth there and to get a young guy who can come in and develop, and we think we did that. Bill Muir (O-Line coach) is very excited about him and thinks that by mid-season he's got a chance to be working his way into a lot of playing time.

—Jets director of player personnel Dick Haley

O'Dwyer is good. We had him very high. I think he is one of the toughest guys in this draft. I think he will play well for them for a long time. I think they did very well.

1994 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

September 4, Jets 23, at Buffalo 3 (79,460) - Partly sunny. The Jets opened the season by knocking off the 4-time defending AFC champion Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium. It was a complete team effort as the Jets dominated on offense, defense and special teams. The Bills opened the game with a 65-yard drive, but on 3rd and 2 from the J 11, the Jets defense held and forced Buffalo to settle for a FG. After that, the defense shut the Bills down the rest of the way, allowing just 151 more total yards. Of key importance was the fact that the Jets stymied the Bills on 3rd down conversions, holding them to 0-6 until late in the 3rd quarter, and just 3-11 on the day. The "D" recorded 3 sacks, 2 INT and held Thurman Thomas to 5 yards rushing on 7 carries. The Jets answered back the Buffalo FG with a 15-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a 1-yard TD run by Richie Anderson on 4th and Goal from the 1-yard line. The Jets offense put together another impressive 7-play, 75-yard drive that included an Esiason to Mitchell hook-up that set up a 9-yard TD run by Johnny Johnson to give the New Yorkers a 14-3 lead. Nick Lowery capped off the scoring by connecting on FG of 22, 27 and 42 yards.

September 11, at Jets 25, Denver 22 OT (73,436) - Mostly sunny, warm. The Jets started the season with a 2-0 record for the 1st time since 1987 with a thrilling overtime victory over Denver in the home opener at the Meadowlands. The New Yorkers got on the board first when Mo Lewis intercepted a John Elway pass and returned it 67 yards for a TD and a 7-0 Jet lead. Denver evened the score on a 40-yard scoring pass from Elway to Anthony Miller and then went ahead on Jason Elam's 42-yard FG. Esiason gave the Jets a 14-10 lead with a 1-yard TD pass to TE Fred Baxter that culminated a 6-play, 76-yard drive. Elam closed out the 1st half scoring with a 21-yard FG. The Broncos scored the only points of the 3rd quarter on a 3-yard TD run by Leonard Russell and the Denver defense held the Jets scoreless until the 4th quarter when Esiason hooked up with Rob Moore on a 35-yard post pattern for a TD with 5:22 remaining. Esiason then connected again with Moore on the 2-point conversion to give the Jets a 3-point lead. But Elway then led a 10-play drive that reached the Jets 12-yard line where Elam tied the game at 22-22 with 2:29 remaining, connecting on a 29-yard FG. The Jets won the coin toss at the beginning of the extra period and chose to receive. After Adrian Murrell's 24-yard kickoff return to the 33-yard line, the Jets moved 45 yards in 7 plays, including a 24-yard pass from Esiason to Art Monk that set up Nick Lowery's game winning 39-yard FG. Rob Moore was a catalyst with 9-147-1 TD receiving despite playing with broken wrist for the 2nd-straight week.

September 18, at Miami 28, Jets 14 (68,192) - Mostly sunny, hot, humid. The Jets suffered their 1st loss in the Pete Carroll era at the hands of Dan Marino and the Dolphins at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami thoroughly dominated the game with 444 total yards to the Jets 343, 155 rushing yards to the Jets 59 and converted on 55% of their 3rd down plays while holding the New Yorkers to just 2-9 on 3rd down. The Dolphins also controlled the clock right from the start, beginning the game with a 15-play drive that was squelched by Mo Lewis' INT in the endzone for a touchback. However, the damage had been done as the Jets defense was worn down quickly in the heat. After a short series for the Jets offense, Miami took the lead on their next possession when RB Terry Kirby scored from 1 yard out. The Dolphins then capitalized on a Jet INT and drove 69 yards for a 14-0 halftime lead on Marino's 11-yard pass to RB Keith Byars. The Jets pulled to within 14-7 in the 3rd with a 68-yard drive of their own that culminated in a 27-yard TD pass from Boomer Esiason to RB Richie Anderson. But, Miami answered right back, moving 60 yards in 3 plays and scoring on a 23-yard pass to Keith Jackson who then lateraled to Irving Fryar for the final 2 yards. Miami scored again on Bernie Parmalee's 5-yard TD run before the Jets capped off the scoring with a late 2-yard TD pass from Esiason to Johnny Johnson.

September 25, Bears 19, at Jets 7 (70,806) - Warm. Mostly cloudy. The Jets' record dropped to .500 for the season with a loss to the Bears at the Meadowlands in front of a national TV audience. The Bears were able to control the clock and capitalize on a number of Jet miscues, which included 3 turnovers that resulted in 10 points. The Jets started the game like a house on fire, taking the ball on the 1st possession of the game and moving it 67 yards on 9 plays, the last being a 5-yard TD run by Johnny Johnson. The defense shut down Chicago's ensuing possession after just 4 plays and it looked like the rout was on. However, on their next possession, the Bears took nearly 8 minutes off the clock and tied the game at 7-7 on a 2-yard Lewis Tillman TD run, the 15th play of a 58-yard drive. Kevin Butler then connected on a 44-yard FG attempt to give the Bears a 3-point lead at halftime. In the 3rd quarter, Chicago recovered Clifford Hicks' muff of a punt at the NY 21 and Butler kicked his 2nd FG of the night (30 yds) while the Jets Nick Lowery missed 2 (47, 41) attempts. QB Boomer Esiason left the game in the 3rd quarter with a sprained ankle, and on his 2nd series, backup QB Jack Trudeau fumbled on the NY 23 to set up Tillman's 2nd TD. The New Yorkers looked like they might come back when Johnson broke off a Jet record 90-yard run on 1st down from the Jets 3-yard line, but they were unable to score on 4 plays from inside the 10. Two Jets reached milestones in the game. Esiason became the 17th QB in history to pass for 30,000 yards, and Art Monk moved into 4th place on the all-time receiving yards chart passing Charlie Joiner with a 2-23 receiving effort.

October 2, at Cleveland 27, Jets 7 (76,188) - Sunny and clear. Cool. For the third consecutive week the Jets were on the losing end of a lopsided game. Although the game statistics were remarkably even at the end, there was no question about the Browns dominance of the game. They opened the scoring at the end of the first quarter on a 37-yard run by Eric Metcalf. A little more than five minutes later, Cleveland took advantage of a Jack Trudeau INT and added 3 points with a 23-yard Matt Stover FG. On the following possession the Jets moved the ball 53 yards on 7 plays, but were stopped in their tracks when the Browns forced a Johnny Johnson fumble at the C 24. They capitalized on the turnover again, this time with a 1-yard TD run by Earnest Byner. Leroy Hoard would run in another score from 18 yards out before the half ended to put the Jets in a 24-0 hole at halftime. In the 3rd quarter, Stover added a 45-yard FG to up the score to 27-0 before the Jets finally got on the board with a 24-yard scoring strike from Trudeau to Rob Moore, who made a great diving effort on the play. Trudeau, who made the start in place of the injured Boomer Esiason (ankle) was 46-28-288-1 TD- 2 INT in his 1st start as a Jet. He also surpassed the 10,000-yard mark for his career. Art Monk reached another milestone in the game. The NFL's all-time leading receiver surpassed 900 career receptions with a 6-55 receiving performance.

October 9, at Jets 16, Indianapolis 6 (66,244) - Warm, overcast. The Jets used the leg of Nick Lowery and some important help off the bench to defeat the Colts at the Meadowlands for the 1st time since 1988. The defense forced 4 turnovers in the game, 2 by rookie phenom Marshall Faulk who was held to just 20 total yards in the 2nd half after amassing 99 yards in the 1st stanza, and did not allow a TD for the 2nd time this season (at BUF 9/4). The offense returned to its' power running attack, gaining 150 yards on the ground, including 74 by Johnny Johnson and 65 from Adrian Murrell off the bench. A hobbled Boomer Esiason (ankle) also entered the game from the sidelines in the 2nd quarter, replacing the injured Jack Trudeau (hand), and engineered the offensive drive that resulted in the only TD of the day, a 1-yard pass to TE Johnny Mitchell. After trading a pair of FG in the 1st half, Lowery broke the 6-6 tie in the 4th quarter with a 37-yard FG, the 336th of his career, surpassing George Blanda for the 2nd spot on the all-time list behind Jan Stenerud. With that kick, he also became just the 3rd player to surpass 1500 points (1503). On the Colts ensuing possession, James Hasty forced a Floyd Turner fumble and recovered it at the 1 25, setting up the drive for the Mitchell TD.

October 16, at Jets 24, New England 17 (71,123) - Sunny, warm. The Jets raised their record at the Meadowlands to 3-1, shutting down the Patriots with a strong running game and an aggressive defense. The defense got things started when Ronnie Lott recovered a Drew Bledsoe fumble at the NE 10. It took the offense only 3 plays to capitalize on the turnover as Brad Baxter scored from 1 yard out. A turnover by the Jets (Esiason fumble) helped the Patriots get even when Bledsoe connected on a 3-yard scoring pass to Ray Crittenden in the 2nd quarter. The Jets answered right back, forcing a fumble, one of 4 NE turnovers on the day, on the punt after their next possession. Kyle Clifton recovered the ball at the NE 38, setting up Brad Baxter's 2nd TD of the day, a 2-yard run. The Jets defense held the Pats on the next possession, giving the offense the ball at the NE 39 where Johnny Mitchell caught a deflected pass for 19 yards and Johnny Johnson burst 16 yards to the NE 4 setting up an Esiason to Mitchell TD pass that gave the Jets a 21-7 halftime lead. The 3rd quarter belonged to the defense as it stopped the Patriots on 4 plays from inside the 8-yard line and snuffed out another drive when Lott sacked Bledsoe on 4th and 1 with a perfectly timed blitz. NE got a 4th quarter TD from former Jet Blair Thomas and Nick Lowery sealed the game for the Jets with a 37-yard FG before Matt Bahr rounded out the scoring with a 40-yarder for the Patriots. SS Brian Washington earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors with 12 tackles and an INT, which ties him for 10th (Johnny Lynn and Johnny Sample) on the Jets all-time INT list.

October 30, at Indianapolis 28, Jets 25 (44,350) - Indoors. The Jets fell to .500 in a sloppily played game at the RCA Dome. In a game that saw 6 turnovers and 12 penalties called, the Colts were able to ride a 14-0 1st quarter lead to hold off the New Yorkers. Indy took the opening drive 61 yards on 9 plays and scored on a 16-yard scoring pass from Don Majkowski to Floyd Turner. The Jets 1st possession was stopped short by a Boomer Esiason INT at the NY 29 where the Colts took over and scored 6 plays later on Majkowski's 3-yard run, taking a 14-0 lead 10 minutes into the game. The 2nd quarter belonged to the Jets, though. The Colts were driving for a 3rd score when Marvin Jones forced a Marshall Faulk fumble at the NY 2. The Jets had to punt, but Tuineau Alipate forced a fumble on the play that was recovered by James Thornton., setting up the Jets 1st score, a 22-yards scoring strike from Esiason to Art Monk. Later in the same period James Hasty intercepted a Majkowski pass leading to a Nick Lowery FG with :00 remaining in the half. The Colts extended their lead again on a 1-yard run by Faulk, but the Jets answered right back when Mo Lewis intercepted Majkowski at the I 18 and returned it for his 2nd TD of the season. After Esiason and Rob Moore connected on the 2-point play, the Jets were down by just 3. But Faulk ran 29 yards for another score before Esiason and Moore connected on a 41-yard scoring play. The defense held, but the offense was stopped on a 4th and 1 at the I 38 to end the Jets chances.

November 6, at Jets 22, Buffalo 17 (67,030) - Warm, overcast. Two gutsy and successful 4th and 1 calls and a hard-hitting, swarming defense helped lead the Jets to a 22-17 win over the defending AFC-champion Bills, marking their 1st sweep of Buffalo since 1986. The win moved the Jets into a tie for 2nd place in the AFC East with Buffalo and boosted their record at the Meadowlands to 4-1, their best home record since 1986. The Bills took a 14-3 2nd quarter lead on a 2-yard run by Thurman Thomas and a 37-yard pass from Jim Kelly to Don Beebe. After the Jets closed the gap to 14-10 on a 5-yard pass from Boomer Esiason to Johnny Johnson, the Bills were knocking on the door again when the Jets defense made the decisive play in the game--DE Marvin Washington deflected a Kelly pass and Mo Lewis intercepted at the J 11 to kill the scoring threat. In the 2nd half, the offense was sparked when Pete Carroll decided to go for it on 4th and 1 from the J 31. The attempt was successful and the Jets went on to complete a 79-yard, 15-play drive that ended with Esiason connecting on the 200th TD pass of his career, a 4-yard pass to Rob Moore that gave the Jets a 16-14 lead (PAT missed). The defense then stepped up, forcing the Bills to punt. The offense took advantage as Nick Lowery was true on a 45-yard FG attempt, giving the Jets a 5 point lead with 11 minutes remaining. The teams traded FG and the Jet defense held off 1 final advance by the Bills to seal the win with :38 left after a 4th and 7 pass attempt failed.

December 18, San Diego 21 at Jets 6 (48,213) - Cloudy, mild. The Jets were unable to capitalize on 3 early scoring opportunities, settling for 2 Nick Lowery FG in the 1st half, and couldn't hold off the Chargers who answered with a 64-yard TD drive and 2 TD bombs from Stan Humphries to Tony Martin of 44 and 60 yards. The loss eliminated the Jets from playoff contention and earned the Chargers the division crown in the AFC West. The Jets opened the game by driving to the SD 26, but fumbled the ball away at the SD 21. They then recovered a fumble and drove to the SD 20, but were forced to settle for a 38-yard FG. In the 2nd quarter, New York drove to the SD 13 but couldn't reach pay dirt, settling for another FG. The Jets also lost Boomer Esiason for the rest of the afternoon when he suffered a concussion on that drive after absorbing a jarring hit from LB Junior Seau. The Chargers answered back with a 64-yard drive that culminated with a 2-yard TD strike from Humphries to Mark Seay just before the half. San Diego struck again on it's 1st possession of the 2nd half when Humphries and Martin connected on a 44-yard score to give it a 14-6 lead. The score stayed that way until late in the 4th quarter when Humphries and Martin hooked up again, this time on a 60-yard bomb, sealing the Jets fate.

WILD CARD PLAYOFF—In their 1st playoff game in 5 years, several 2nd half mistakes prevented the Jets from registering an upset win at Houston as they fell, 17-10. A costly INT at the H3 in the 3rd quarter, along with not being able to convert 3rd and 1 and 4th and 1 at the H3 in the 4th quarter would eventually haunt the Jets (Dec. 29).

The streak extended to 5 games, the longest since the team won 9 straight games in 1986 (Nov. 14).

SUPER REUNION—The members of the Jets Super Bowl III championship team were reunited at the Jets-Bengals game to celebrate the 25th anniversary season of that historic victory. The Jets players wore their "original throwback" uniforms to honor the Super Bowl champions (Nov. 21).

HALL OF FAMERS

Weeb Ewbank is the only head coach to build 2 teams from their inception into world champions and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978. Upon his retirement, Ewbank ranked 4th on the all-time coaches victory list with 130. He is the only coach ever to win World Championships in both the NFL (Baltimore 1958-59) and AFL (New York 1968). Two of the most important games in NFL history were the sudden death victory in the 1958 championship, and the Super Bowl III win by the Jets.

Ewbank joined the Jets in 1963 as head coach and GM after serving as head coach of the Colts from 1954-1962. The New Yorkers shocked the world by defeating Ewbank's former team, the Colts 16-7 (the 1st victory for the AFL in the Super Bowl).

Ewbank coached the Jets through 1973 before retiring. He has worked with some of the game's greatest legends including Joe Namath, Don Maynard, Paul Brown, Otto Graham, Johnny Unitas and Raymond Berry.

JOE NAMATH QUARTERBACK (1965-76)

Joe Namath, "superstar", is an apt description for this Jets quarterback. He was a player who transcended the playing field to become a household name and put a whole league on the map, the AFL. Namath enjoyed a sparkling career and led the Jets to what experts call one of the greatest upsets in sport's history when he guided the team to a 16-7 win over the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III on Jan. 12, 1969.

Despite having five knee operations, Namath was one of the game's great quarterbacks and one of its most prolific passers. He was the first player to throw for more than 4,000 yards doing it in a 14-game season (1967). He still holds most of the Jets' passing records and for his pro career completed 1,886 of 3,762 passes for 27,663 yards and 173 TD.

Namath's 1965 signing gave the Jets and the AFL the credibility they needed and started the building to the Super Bowl championship. His legendary Alabama coach Bear Bryant said, "Joe Namath is the greatest athlete I have ever coached."

Namath was elected to the Hall of Fame on January 29, 1985.

DON MAYNARD WIDE RECEIVER (1960-72)

At the time of his retirement, Don Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. Maynard caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) for 88 TD. His yardage still ranks 4th all-time and his number of catches is 7th.

Maynard was a four-time AFL All-Star and is a member of the All-Time AFL team chosen by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He went over the 100-yard receiving mark in 50 games (still an NFL record). The El Paso, TX native joined the AFL in 1960 and was the first Titan to sign a contract.

His most memorable game was the 1968 AFL Championship in which he caught six passes for 118 yards and two TD (including the game-winner) to help put the Jets into the Super Bowl.

The Texas Western (now known as the Univ. of Texas at El Paso) alumnus was enshrined into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 8, 1987.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP DEC. 29, 1968—SHEA STADIUM NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Daryle Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III JAN. 12, 1969—MIAMI ORANGE BOWL NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17 1/2 point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

Dec. 20, 1969—SHEA STADIUM
KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jets 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only TD of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incompleteness and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

1981 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF
DEC. 27, 1981—SHEA STADIUM
BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out.

The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 50-yard TD to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left.

The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored 2 quick TD and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to go. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF
JAN. 9, 1983—CINCINNATI RIVERFRONT STADIUM
NEW YORK 44, CINCINNATI 17

The Jets mixed up solid and hard hitting football with a measure of razzle dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in round one of the NFL Super Bowl Tournament. The game was highlighted by Freeman McNeil's 202 yards rushing, the 3rd highest in playoff history, a TD pass from McNeil and a 98-yard INT for a TD by Darrol Ray to secure the win. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again, when the Jets' defense might have made the play of the day. Nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the J1 and with McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered. McNeil was the "cannon" being shot by Richard Todd 22 times for 202 yards and one TD.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF
JAN. 15, 1983—LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM
NEW YORK 17, L.A. RAIDERS 14

The Jets sprung upset number two in the 2nd round of the Super Bowl Tournament, beating the Raiders to enter the AFC championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard TD run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last 3 minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard TD pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy FG, but the Raiders came storming back in the 2nd half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Plunkett at the LA27 with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a Freeman McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Then Mehl made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP
JAN. 23, 1983—MIAMI ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI 14, NEW YORK 0

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0 to earn a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game, which saw a total of 12 turnovers, with three interceptions, returning the final one 35-yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries due to the footing. It was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0 at halftime. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.

DEC. 28, 1985—GIANTS STADIUM
NEW ENGLAND 26, NEW YORK 14

New England came out on top 26-14 in a game that saw the Jets self-destruct. The Jets committed 4 costly turnovers which led to 17 Patriots points. New England, which went on to win the AFC championship, played an almost flawless game with no turnovers and only 1 penalty. The Jets were ahead 7-6, and driving late in the 2nd quarter when Ken O'Brien was intercepted on the 7-yard line. New England came back with a TD pass from Tony Eason to Stanley Morgan on a blitz 6 plays later. O'Brien suffered a concussion on the final play of the half on an Andre Tippett sack and would only play the first series of the 2nd half. Before Pat Ryan could relieve him though, New England added a FG and then scored a TD when the ensuing kickoff was fumbled by Johnny Hector and returned 15-yards by Johnny Rembert. With the Jets trailing 23-7, Ryan came in and directed a TD drive.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF Dec. 28, 1986—GIANTS STADIUM NEW YORK 35, KANSAS CITY 15

Joe Walton started Pat Ryan to give the team an emotional lift and it got just that from Ryan plus a key running play and a 3-TD passing performance. The club also received Freeman McNeil's 135-yard rushing performance to spark the Jets' first home playoff win since 1968. Trailing 6-0, Ryan ran a QB draw for 24 yards from the KC33 on a 4th & 6 play to set up the Jets' go ahead TD. On the 1st down of the ensuing series, the Jets defense forced a KC fumble and Ryan concluded a 12-play, 47-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to McNeil. Just prior to the half, Ryan hit Al Toon with a TD pass for a 21-6 halftime edge. The Jets nailed the victory on the 1st play of the 2nd half when Kevin McArthur swiped a Todd Blackledge pass and dashed 21 yards for a 28-6 margin. The Jets' defense allowed a season low 241 yards total offense and had 2 sacks, 2 INT and 1 FR.

1986 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF Jan. 3, 1987—CLEVELAND STADIUM CLEVELAND 23, NEW YORK 20 (2 OTs)

In the 3rd longest game in NFL history (77:02), Cleveland staged an incredible comeback to send the game into OT before Mark Moseley's 27-yard FG advanced the Browns to the AFC Championship game. With Pat Ryan at QB, the Jets jumped on top 7-0 following a flea-flicker 42-yard TD pass from Ryan to Wesley Walker. Ryan was forced to leave the game in the 2nd quarter with a groin injury and was replaced by Ken O'Brien. Meanwhile, the Jets defense was outstanding holding the Browns to just 10 points and 302 total yards until late in the 4th quarter. Immediately after a Jerry Holmes interception, the Jets took a 20-10 lead on Freeman McNeil's 25-yard TD with 4:14 remaining in regulation. Kosar led the Browns 68 yards to set up Kevin Mack's one-yard run to make the score 20-17 with 1:57 left. Cleveland's defense forced the Jets to punt with :51 left before Kosar's 37-yard pass to Webster Slaughter to the 5-yard line set up the tying 22-yard FG. The Jets got a 2nd life when Moseley missed a 23-yard FG 6:06 into OT, but he redeemed himself by kicking the winning 27-yard FG on a first-and-goal play from the J9.

Dec. 29, 1991 - Houston Astrodome

HOUSTON 17, NEW YORK 10

The Jets returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1986 and came close to registering an upset win at Houston. Trailing 17-10 with only :20 left at the H47, the Jets were unsuccessful in their attempts to tie the game on 2 Hail Mary passes, the last of which was intercepted to end the game. The game started with Houston taking the opening drive 80 yards in 16 plays for a 7-0 lead. After Erik McMillan's INT halted the Oilers' next drive, the Jets tied the game on Al Toon's 1st TD of the season, a 10-yarder from Ken O'Brien. Warren Moon tossed his 2nd TD pass of the game to Earnest Givens to give the Oilers a 14-10 halftime lead. Three key plays would doom the Jets in the second half. After taking the opening drive of the third quarter down to the H7 in 12 plays, O'Brien's pass intended for Mark Boyer was picked off by Bubba McDowell at the H3. Houston then drove 62 yards in 14 plays for a 53-yard FG to go ahead 17-10. On the Jets' next drive attempting to tie the game from the H3, Brad Baxter was stopped on 3rd and 1 for no gain, and then Freeman McNeil was halted on 4th and 1. The Jets got another shot when Lonnie Young's hit forced Moon to fumble at the H34 with 4:59 left, but the Oilers' defense stopped the Jets on 4 downs. The Jets' defense played extremely well holding the high-powered Houston offense to just 17 points while registering 4 sacks (2 by Mo Lewis), 2 FF and 1 INT. Toon tied for the 2nd most catches by a Jets' WR in a playoff game with 8-96-1 TD.
