METLIFE STADIUM

On August 23, 2011 the home of the New York Jets became MetLife Stadium. The insurance company was the first of the four cornerstone partners in the new stadium, which opened in the spring of 2010. MetLife Stadium is one of the highest-profile stadiums in the country with more than 2 million fans attending events every year and it will host Super Bowl XLVIII in February 2014.

From the lighting and LED signage to the massive video boards to the plaza and tailgating options, the stadium bleeds green on Jets gamedays. Travelling to the home of the Jets is quick and easy with three times the number of roadways and a rail stop just outside the stadium.

Once at MetLife Stadium, fans have many options for entertainment and tailgating before the game. The 1050 ESPN New York pregame radio show broadcasts live from the west plaza area. Fans can enjoy activities for kids and a vast array of food and beverage. Also, fans can find the latest gear at the team's 10,000 square foot flagship plaza store. MetLife and the cornerstone partners – Bud Light, Pepsi and Verizon – are integrated into the game experience with ample space to engage and entertain fans.

Inside there is more food variety and concessions stands all adding up to a “Home Food Advantage” for fans. The intimate seating bowl, uncompromised sightlines, cutting-edge video boards, LED signage and state-of-the-art sound system all enhance the game-watching experience.

One of the biggest upgrades in MetLife Stadium is the availability of club seats. There are four clubs – Coaches, MetLife, Lexus and Touchdown – that offer access to VIP reserved parking, a private club entrance as well as a host of other amenities and benefits.

Notable Achievements & Awards:

- In the stadium's inaugural year, it has hosted 37 major events

ATLANTIC HEALTH TRAINING CENTER

The Atlantic Health Jets Training Center in Florham Park, N.J. is the headquarters of the New York Jets. The team moved into the facility in a formal ribbon-cutting ceremony on September 2, 2008. Located at One Jets Drive, this 224,000 square-foot complex is surrounded by nearly 100 acres of open space and provides players, coaches and staff of the Jets with a state-of-the-art learning, practice and working environment. The facility is a short drive to MetLife Stadium and to Newark Liberty International Airport and Morristown Medical Center.

Woody Johnson hired world-renowned architecture firm, Skidmore Owings + Merrill and outlined three key objectives in the design of the training facility. First, as the first true corporate headquarters for the team, the new training center needed to represent the beginning of a new era for the Jets. Previously, the Jets business and football operations were located in separate multi-tenant buildings more than 30 miles apart. The Atlantic Health Jets Training Center is a modern, glass and steel building that seamlessly combines the operations of football and business departments. Serving as the home base for the entire Jets organization, it is equipped with open-concept workstations and state-of-the-art technology to create an efficient and friendly work environment. The training center was a major contributing factor in the team being named one of Inc. Magazine's Top Small Company Workplaces in 2010. An outdoor terrace, which overlooks the practice fields, provides a business entertainment area for both the team and its corporate partners.

Second, the training and medical facilities had to be state-of-the-art, combining the latest advances in rehabilitation pools, high-performance equipment and nutrition. The complex has five full-size football fields; three natural grass, one Sportex synthetic turf field outdoors, and another in the Field House, each with a permanent scoreboard. The goalposts on two of the natural grass fields can be repositioned 90 degrees in order to minimize wear on the grass. Inside the complex, the first floor is dedicated to one-hundred yards of football along the "Players Gallery", consisting of a life-size super-panoramic photo of cheering Jets fans that serves as a daily reminder of the tremendous support the Jets receive from our faithful fans. In addition, the first level features a 5,500-square-foot locker room, an 11,000-square-foot weight room, and a 10,000 square foot cafeteria.

Third, the training center needed to be a "graduate school for football." Players and coaches actually spend more time in the classrooms than on the football fields themselves. To that end, there is over 25,000 square feet of space dedicated to classrooms and instruction space – including 10 classrooms and two individual study rooms for video study. The classroom atrium is located at just steps from the practice fields, with direct access to either the indoor or outdoor fields.

In June of 2011, the team announced that Atlantic Health Jets Training Center would be the site of the team's 2011 Training Camp, the first time the headquarters has hosted training camp activities. The Atlantic Health Jets Training Center is evidence of the team's commitment to excellence, providing the organization with a new competitive advantage and a new community to call home.

THE NEW YORK JETS IN YOUR COMMUNITY

MISSION

The New York Jets take great pride in playing an active role in making a year-round commitment to the tri-state community.

Programs funded by the New York Jets Foundation touch the lives of countless young men and women in the tri-state area. Over the past eleven years, the Jets and their charitable foundation have raised or contributed more than $11 million to promote youth health, fitness and education, particularly in disadvantaged communities.

From fighting childhood obesity through the Generation Jets: Be Lean & Green initiative to launching a football team in an urban high school, urging students to eat right and move more, and supporting the efforts of the Alliance for Lupus Research, the New York Jets invest in programs that make a difference in the lives of others. In addition to the Jets Foundation, which supports our own extensive youth initiatives, the Jets partner with numerous established charitable organizations and participate in causes sponsored by the NFL.

GENERATION JETS
Be Lean & Green

Eat Right, Move More

Launched in 2006, the Eat Right, Move More campaign is a joint effort between the Jets and the New Jersey Department of Agriculture to encourage New Jersey school children to take advantage of healthy foods in their school cafeterias and become more active. The campaign also challenges schools to submit their meal menus to determine the five schools with the most creative meal selections each year. One of the five winning schools will be awarded the grand prize of a $5,000 grant for a cafeteria makeover and be recognized on field at a Jets home game.

Alliance for Lupus Research

The New York Jets organization is deeply committed to supporting the Alliance for Lupus Research (ALR)—a national voluntary health organization based in New York City, founded in 1999 and chaired by Robert Wood Johnson IV, a member of the founding family of Johnson & Johnson and owner of the New York Jets. The ALR's mission is to find better treatments and ultimately prevent and cure systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE, or lupus), a debilitating autoimmune disease, by supporting the most promising and innovative lupus research. To date, the ALR has committed over $65 million to lupus research projects at the most prestigious universities, medical schools and hospitals throughout the world.

Since 2001, the New York Jets have increased awareness of lupus and raised more than $7.5 million for research through the ALR Walk with Us to Cure Lupus program, proceeds from the annual New York Jets Kickoff Luncheon and other events in the tri-state area. To learn more, visit www.lupusresearch.org or call toll free, (800) 867-1743. Together, we will find a cure!

PREVENT. TREAT. CURE

Heads Up!

In 2001 the New York Jets formed a community partnership with the PSAL to provide support to New York City public school football programs. The Jets and the PSAL expanded this partnership in 2005 and titled it Heads Up!.

Through an annual matching grant from the NFL's Youth Football Fund, the New York Jets now donate $150,000 to the PSAL's football programs. This grant has helped to create eleven new and developmental football teams, recondition every helmet in the PSAL, provide two Play Like a Jet $5,000 college scholarships and expand the C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Flag Football League to over 75 programs throughout the New York City public school system. Beyond these grants, the Jets continue to support the PSAL in a variety of other ways including honoring the PSAL football champions at a home game during the NFL season.

C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Flag Football League

The New York Jets have teamed up with the New York City Department of Education (NYC DOE) to support their C.H.A.M.P.S. middle school flag football program. The program provides over 75 middle schools with afterschool opportunities for their students to learn the skills and techniques of football from qualified coaches. Each participant receives a T-shirt uniform provided by the Jets.

In 2005, the NYC DOE and the New York Jets created the Heads Up! program to support New York City public school football. The Jets commitment to the C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Flag Football League falls under the Heads Up! umbrella.

Through the NYC DOE's C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Sport and Fitness League, students are empowered to become Cooperative, Healthy, Active, Motivated, Positive Students—for life. Regardless of athletic ability, student participants in C.H.A.M.P.S. are provided with opportunities to engage in a wide variety of physical activities before and after school, including traditional sports, non-traditional sports and fitness activities. The C.H.A.M.P.S. program promotes health-related fitness and sports skills that can be maintained long after school days are over.

Be a Champion

In the fall of 2008, the New York Jets along with the New York City Department of Education (NYC DOE) and Lime Connect, an organization that promotes employment for people with disabilities, launched “Be a Champion”, an annual writing essay contest for students with disabilities. The contest, open to grades six through twelve, is designed to encourage students with disabilities to reflect on concepts of achievement and success as they prepare for the challenges of the last years of secondary education and think about their options beyond high school. The contest also provides a valuable instructional opportunity for teachers to address transition with their students. Authors of winning essays are invited to attend a wrap-up event hosted by the Jets.

Play 60

Designed to tackle childhood obesity, NFL PLAY 60 brings together the NFL’s long-standing commitment to health and fitness with an impressive roster of partner organizations— Action for Healthy Kids, Ad Council, American Heart Association, National Dairy Council, Cartoon Network, United Way, The Cooper Institute, and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. NFL PLAY 60: The NFL Movement for an Active Generation focuses on the health and wellness of young fans by encouraging them to be active for at least 60 minutes a day. In addition to national PSAs and online programs, PLAY 60 is also implemented locally, as part of the NFL’s in-school, after-school and team-based programs, from youth football to the PLAY 60 Challenge. The PLAY 60 Challenge is an in school curriculum created by the National Football League and the American Heart Association. For more information on how become involved with the PLAY 60 Challenge go to www.americanheart.org/nflplay60challenge or go to www.nflrush.com/play60 for all things PLAY 60.

SchoolFood

Beginning in 2004 the New York Jets partnered with the New York City Department of Education’s SchoolFood program in an effort to encourage all New York City public school students to eat healthy and take advantage of the nutritious meals that are served throughout the schools.

SchoolFood
Feed your mind

The New York Jets specifically support SchoolFood’s Feed Your Mind campaign. Feed Your Mind is an outreach campaign to encourage parents to submit school meal applications and help increase the amount of students who take advantage of free and reduced-price meals in New York City’s public schools. The campaign also aims to educate parents and children about the nutritional reforms taking place in public school cafeterias, where a variety of healthy meals now are included on the menu. The campaign includes posters encouraging students to eat healthy foods and stay fit as well as a Jets-sponsored sweepstakes trip to the National Football League Pro Bowl.

Generation Jets Academy

Generation Jets Academy has served as the linchpin of the New York Jets community relations program since its inception in 2002. An education initiative, the primary goal of Generation Jets Academy is to provide elementary school students with enjoyable learning experiences that enhance their literacy, math skills, creativity, community awareness and self-esteem. The program provides students with personalized attention from caring and creative teachers, and a 50% increase in learning time each day. Generation Jets Academy is operated by the Gary Klinsky Children’s Centers of the Brooklyn Bureau of Community Service.

Throughout the year Jets players make appearances at the school as well as attending field trips with the students. Generation Jets Academy is located at the Ethan Allen School (P.S. 306) in East New York, Brooklyn.

NFL Auction

The New York Jets offer fans numerous exclusive auction items throughout the year, ranging from game-worn items to VIP Gameday Experiences, Training Camp Experiences, private Quarterback Clinics and more. Fan can visit www.nflauction.nfl.com to place their bids. All proceeds from the auctions benefit the extensive work of the New York Jets Foundation.

Atlantic Health Jets Women’s Organization

In 2008 the Jets Women’s Organization and Atlantic Health partnered to form the Atlantic Health Jets Women’s Organization (AHJWO). Through this partnership the AHJWO can accomplish their mission of working together to build goodwill in the tri-state community through active volunteer participation. The AHJWO is an organization comprising the wives, fiancées and significant others of New York Jets players, coaches and select football support staff members. The Jets Community Relations Department oversees this organization with the assistance of Michelle Ryan, wife of the Jets head coach, and Michelle Tannenbaum, wife of the Jets general manager.

The AHJWO seeks to team up with select charities to assist in maximizing the impact of their events. The AHJWO serves as a unique and positive outlet in the community on behalf of the New York Jets. All members of the organization are encouraged to get involved and maximize their role to benefit others. The work the wives, fiancées and significant others of New York Jets players, coaches and select football support staff would not be possible without the partnership with Atlantic Health.

United Way & Tix for Kids

Since 1973, United Way, the NFL and the New York Jets have had the most visible and longest-running charitable collaboration of its kind. Each year, thanks to community service projects and public service announcements, millions of Americans learn about United Way's vital work and the volunteer spirit of the NFL.

Combining their rich histories of active community involvement, United Way of New York City and the New York Jets have teamed up to drive home the importance of community involvement. Our community outreach efforts include the Hometown Huddle, an annual hands-on volunteer project with players; the Gridiron Gala, New York City's premier charity event, and Tix for Kids, a charitable ticket turn-back program.

Tix for Kids provides a vehicle for season ticket holders to release unused game tickets, which are then made available to underprivileged children throughout the New York region. The United Way has an extensive network of mentoring agencies such as Mentoring USA, The Mentoring Partnership of New York, The Children's Aid Society, Boys and Girls Clubs and Big Brothers–Big Sisters to name a few. Season ticket holders can donate tickets online through My Jets Account at www.newyorkjets.com or by mail to the following address:

Hometown Huddle

The NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle is an NFL-wide day of service that provides NFL players, coaches, wives and staff from each team the opportunity to participate in a variety of community-service activities, including such projects as building playgrounds, serving food to the homeless, visiting local military bases and funding after-school programs for underserved children. Started in 1999 by the NFL and United Way, Hometown Huddle continues to help make a difference in local NFL communities.

High School Coach of the Week

2011 marks the sixteenth season that the Jets will participate in the High School Coach of the Week Program. Locally, the Jets' award is given weekly during the season to a coach in the tri-state area who serves the best interests of the game through the teaching of sound football fundamentals, the motivation of young players to achieve, and the promotion of youth football by way of dedication to his community, his school and his student-athletes. High school football reporter Mike Quick of the television show High School Weekly and the New York Jets' Community Relations department select the winner. Each winner is recognized on Tuesday night as well as being awarded $1,000 for his high school's football program from NFL Charities. At the end of the high school football season, a Coach of the Year is selected. The winner of the Coach of the Year is awarded $2,000 for his high school's football program.

A League wide initiative, the High School Coach of the Week Program aids in the development of youth football. It gives high school coaches the recognition they deserve, and provides high schools with financial assistance in maintaining and upgrading their football programs.

Stadium Drives

Each season the New York Jets host several stadium drives to collect donations and help create awareness for important issues facing our community. In 2011 the Jets will hold food, toy and coat drives. In addition, the Jets will host what is considered to be the only ALR Lupus Awareness Day at the Meadowlands on October 23 vs. San Diego, where approximately $35,000 has been collected over three years. The annual food drive on November 12 vs. New England benefits the Interfaith Nutrition Network which addresses issues of hunger and homelessness on Long Island. The annual toy drive on December 11 vs. Kansas City supports the U.S. Marine Reserve Corps Toys for Tots program which distributes toys to needy kids during the Christmas season and the coat drive on December 24 vs. New York Giants supports Jersey Cares which provides New Jersey's neediest citizens with coats during the winter months.

Marty Lyons Award

Marty Lyons, a former All-American defensive tackle from the University of Alabama, played his entire 12 year NFL career with the New York Jets as a member of the feared "Sack Exchange". Early in his career, Marty befriended and became a surrogate father to a 3 year-old boy suffering from an advanced illness. Three years later in the spring of 1982, the youngster's death coincided with the sudden death of Marty's father and the birth of his first child, a healthy son. These experiences profoundly affected Marty's outlook towards life, fame and his fellow human being. With the encouragement and the assistance of his family and friends, he established a foundation dedicated to granting wishes of seriously ill children.

The Marty Lyons Foundation helps lift children's spirits and lets the magic of hope lead their thoughts and dreams for the future. More than 3,000 wishes to children suffering from life threatening or terminal illnesses have been granted since it was incorporated in 1982. Lyons was named National Football League's Man of the Year in 1984 for this work with the foundation and his efforts also led the New York Jets to name the Outstanding Community Service Award, the Marty Lyons Award, which is presented to the player who gives from the heart through charity and community involvement (as voted by Jets staff).

Walter Payton Man of the Year

Since 1970, the NFL has awarded the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award to recognize a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. The New York Jets named Fullback Tony Richardson as the club's 2010 Walter Payton Man of the Year. Through his Rich In Spirit Foundation and the New York Jets Community Relations Department, Richardson has impacted many lives throughout the tri-state area. As the Jets' award winner, Richardson will receive $1,000 from NFL Charities to donate to the Rich in Spirit Foundation, his 501(c)(3) organization of choice. Richardson was eligible to win the national Walter Payton Man of the Year Award and be recognized at a press conference during Super Bowl week in South Florida. The national winner will receive $25,000 to donate to the 501(c)(3) organization of his choice. The Jets have had two national winners, Marty Lyons in 1984 and Boomer Esiason in 1995.

Jets Sports Wrap

The New York Jets have partnered with Rock and Wrap it Up!, a national think tank working to reduce poverty. Using greening tactics, Rock and Wrap it Up! recovers food and other assets to be given to agencies fighting poverty, increasing their operating budgets. This allows the agencies to hire more services such as tutors, social workers, job placement counselors and mental health counselors to attack the root cause of poverty.

Rock and Wrap It Up! recovers food and other assets in Sports, Music, Schools, Film, T.V. and Hotels. In 2008, The Federal Food Donation Act was written and passed with Rock and Wrap it Up!'s help. The Law encourages all federal buildings to donate food in their cities to feed the poor and keep it out of land fill. All donors are protected from liability by the Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Act of 1996.

Rock and Wrap it Up! accomplishes its goals of feeding the hungry through food recovery using local volunteers and delivering to neighborhood pantries and kitchens. The concept is simple: Once a band goes on stage, whatever food is left over that has been prepared but not served is picked up by Rock and Wrap it Up! volunteers and delivered to a local food shelter. Along the same premise, Rock and Wrap it Up! works with the Jets to pick up food from our home games that has been prepared and not served and deliver it to food shelters Mount Vernon Missionary Baptist and St. Rocco's Outreach - Project Solution in Newark, NJ.

NEW YORK JETS

CHAIRMAN & CEO

Woody JOHNSON

NY Jets Media Guide 2011

Robert Wood Johnson IV is a fourth-generation member of the founding family of Johnson & Johnson, a businessman, civic leader and philanthropist. As owner of the New York Jets, Johnson is committed to a culture of success built on three key elements: passionate players, supportive fans, and a new home field. His improvements to the franchise include: building a competitive team each season, a world-class training complex, and a 21st-century sports stadium. Under his leadership, the Jets posted eight winning seasons, appeared in 12 postseason games, played in the last two AFC championship games, and captured an AFC East title.

Johnson's philosophy of a successful team celebrates the crucial role of fans, as well as the significant role the team plays in enriching the greater community. In this spirit, the New York Jets Foundation funds programs such as Eat Right Move More to help teach children the importance of good health habits, enhance educational experiences, and support the region's disabled and disadvantaged residents.

Johnson serves as a Trustee Emeritus of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the nation's largest philanthropic organization devoted exclusively to promoting health and advancing healthcare. The Foundation aims to prompt new public policy, inspire action from the private sector, and improve the delivery of the best health care to the most people.

Johnson's healthcare initiatives also include support for lupus research. In 1999, Johnson founded the Alliance for Lupus Research (ALR), an organization devoted exclusively to finding new methods to prevent, treat, and ultimately cure lupus. The ALR-funded International SLE Genetics Initiative recently uncovered several of the genes associated with lupus. ALR-funded research laid the foundation for development of 30% of all lupus drugs currently in the clinical-trial pipeline.

In Washington, D.C., Johnson has been a strong advocate for increased government spending for medical research. He helped initiate the campaign "The Only Remedy Is a Cure," transforming the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF) from a small, non-profit group into the largest private medical entity focused on finding a cure for diabetes. Today he serves as Chairman of JDRF International.

Johnson is active in local philanthropy and civic affairs, serving as a director of Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg's Fund to Advance New York City and a board member of the National September 11 Memorial & Museum at the World Trade Center. He also lends his time and talents to the Council on Foreign Relations, and is an Honorary Trustee of the Wildlife Conservation Society.

Matt HIGGINS

NY Jets Media Guide 2011

Matt Higgins is entering his eighth season with the Jets and fourth as executive vice president of business operations. Higgins reports directly to Jets Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson.

Initially hired as vice president of strategic planning in 2004, he was elevated to senior vice president of business operations in 2007. In his current role, Higgins oversees all elements of business operations, including marketing, sponsorships, legal, human resources, public affairs, communications, merchandising, internet and broadcasting.

Higgins has built and led a social media effort that has made the Jets both innovators and leaders in the NFL in this space. Active on Twitter himself, Higgins has helped grow the Jets fan base and increase engagement with the team through sweepstakes, contests and promotions for social Jets fans year-round. While the team was recognized in a Sports Business Journal 2010 reader survey as the second most innovative team in sports, Higgins believes the team holds the top spot.

On the sales front, Higgins is committed to pushing the envelope in new categories and developing meaningful and dynamic relationships with the team's partners. In 2010, the team introduced a wine, Jets Uncorked, a commemorative Cabernet Sauvignon to celebrate the opening of the new home of the Jets. Jets Uncorked produced very strong sales both at retail and at the stadium.

Mike TANNENBAUM

NY Jets Media Guide 2011

“I want to have sustainable success.”

Since being named general manager of the New York Jets on Feb. 7, 2006, Mike Tannenbaum has led the Green & White to four winning seasons, three playoff entries, a quartet of playoff wins and AFC Conference Championship appearances the past two years.

“There are a lot of great organizations and it would be great if we were known as one of those teams that year in, year out, Player A or Player B might not be there, we’re still going to put on a really good product on the field,” he said.

During the NFL’s offseason work stoppage, Tannenbaum and his staff worked on a multitude of possible scenarios for once the free agency/trading period commenced.

“‘Let’s just leave this plan in pencil’ is the attitude,” he said. “Let’s be prepared and then we’ll go from there. It’s so fluid. What’s best for the Jets? I say to Rex all the time, ‘If we’re going to draft a team, who’s a have-to-have, who’s a nice-to-have, what’s a replaceable part?’”

The Jets, who improved their regular-season win total by two in 2010 and captured a pair of road playoff contests for the second consecutive January, added six players in the 2011 Draft. Before a quartet of offensive talents were acquired on Day 3, the early theme was the defensive front as New York’s AFC representative selected Temple DL Muhammad Wilkerson and Hampton DT Kenrick Ellis in the first and third rounds respectively.

“Over the 16-game season, we felt like the depth there was a little thin. We feel like these two guys can really give the group a shot in the arm,” Mr. T said. “For a number of years, we got by with Sione [Pouha], Mike [DeVito], Shaun [Ellis] and Kris [Jenkins], but there wasn’t as much depth as we had hoped for.”

ALWAYS IMPROVING

Delivering a staff mandate to “rest and improve” in the offseason, Tannenbaum went outside football circles later in the spring to enhance his own professional development. His first stop was SAP America headquarters in Newtown Square, Pa., and he instantly connected with co-CEO Bill McDermott.

“With Bill, we talked a lot about virtuous ecosystems. As a leader, you want to empower people and not control people — give them ownership in the process,” he said. “I think that really resonated in his company in terms of not just building people up but allowing them to manage the whole process and giving them ownership. With that comes accountability. What came through over and over is the importance of giving people leashes to do their jobs and supporting them in their effort to get the job done.”

Not done on his journey, Tannenbaum headed south and arrived at Under Armour headquarters in Baltimore. He was impressed not only with CEO/chairman Kevin Plank and his enthusiasm but with the entire Under Armour staff.

“Plank in two words was ‘dynamic energy.’ I think what resonated is that was the culture he created,” Tannenbaum said. “I was picked up by the driver, who worked for Under Armour, and from the driver to the CEO, there wasn’t anyone in that organization who didn’t know what Under Armour was trying to be or what their culture is.”

Plank also stressed shared ownership. Every individual was critical in the collective outcome.

“His leadership was lead by example and with passionate energy,” Tannenbaum said. “All the employees have ownership. When they went over $1 billion in sales, they celebrated and made a big deal of it. They made everyone feel like they all had a big role in it.”

Tannenbaum annually has all Jets football employees participate in the professional development campaign and staff members are encouraged to think outside the box.

“We’ve had people go from the barber shop to Howard Stern to everybody in between. The feedback has been great. Everybody stays local,” he said. “You sit down with somebody for a day, you pick their brain and everyone has come back and not felt like it wasn’t worth their doing.”

When visits wrapped up, Tannenbaum gathered the group together and people exchanged their findings.

“We take one day a year to do it, and then we’ll have a working lunch where we’ll go around the room and exchange the experiences and try to benefit from everyone else doing it,” he said. “It’s made us better and it’s been great for morale. I think it’s what it’s really what we’re all about as well, knowing how fortunate we are here and trying to always improve ourselves.”

EVERY ROCK, EVERY DAY

Searching under every rock for talent, Tannenbaum appeared to have the boulders lined up against him after the Jets advanced to the AFC Championship game in 2009 and no new Collective Bargaining Agreement was reached between the NFL and the NFL Players Association. As a “Final Four” team, the Green & White were not expected to make any offseason splashes because they were only permitted to sign an unrestricted free agent if they lost one of their own UFAs.

Intent on improving his club outside of unrestricted free agency, Tannenbaum traded for CB Antonio Cromartie, signed free agent RB LaDainian Tomlinson, returned to the trade route to bring in WR Santonio Holmes, then dipped back into free agency to land the NFL’s active sack leader in Jason Taylor. The cost for a Pro Bowl corner, a Hall of Fame RB, a Super Bowl MVP and a Hall of Fame pass rusher was a fifth-round pick in 2010 (Holmes) and a second-round selection in 2011 (Cromartie).

“The Jets will not be defined by the challenges we faced in a single season, but how we overcome them, by embracing change and taking calculated risks,” said Jets owner Woody Johnson upon his hiring of Tannenbaum.

After again embracing the changes and taking calculated risks, Tannenbaum’s investments in the spring of 2010 led to exceptional dividends throughout last fall and into the winter. Holmes was a game-changer with eight touchdowns in 15 games (including the postseason) and was responsible for key plays in four regular-season victories. Tomlinson led the Jets with 914 rush yards in the regular season and three postseason touchdowns. Cromartie tied for the team lead with three interceptions and his 47-yard kickoff return against the Colts in wild card action propelled the visitors to a thrilling comeback. Taylor pitched in with five regular-season sacks and a safety.

“There was a lot of production there and I’m proud of that,” Tannenbaum said. “There was a lot of brainpower, a lot of effort, a lot of hustling, a lot of blood, sweat and tears, a lot of emotion, a lot of selling, a lot of everything, and that’s what you feel good about.”

The Jets also have high hopes for their four-player 2010 draft class. Both FB John Conner and OL Vladimir Ducasse are expected to challenge for starting positions in 2011, RB Joe McKnight will have greater roles on offense and special teams, and first-round CB Kyle Wilson is one to keep an eye on the in the defensive backfield.

Tannenbaum, who added the title of executive vice president on June 17, 2008, and has become one of the most respected architects in football, has acquired eight players who’ve gone on to play in the NFL’s Pro Bowl.

Reporting directly to Johnson, he is responsible for managing all football operations, including the coaching staff, overseeing pro and college scouting, and supervising salary cap management and contract analysis, video and football technologies, equipment, operations, training and medical personnel, training camp and turf management.

He is also charged with establishing and implementing policies and practices, and is involved in all areas of financial planning with respect to personnel decisions in the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the college draft, trades and waivers.

“VERY GOOD AT MAKING DEALS”

In April 2009, Mr. T put together two packages to go up and draft USC quarterback Mark Sanchez in the first round and Iowa RB Shonn Greene in the third. Sanchez, 24, passed for 3,291 yards last season and is already tied among all QBs in NFL history for most road playoff victories, and Greene has led the Jets in rushing the past two postseasons. Both figure to be cornerstones of the offense for years to come.

Said ESPN’s John Clayton, “As a cap guy, Mike was a great dealmaker. As a GM, he’s a dealmaker. He loves making deals, he gets a rush making deals, and he’s very good at making deals. When you think about what he’s done, he’s consolidated draft choices to get better players.”

Under Tannenbaum, the Jets have mined the draft for players that have started a combined (229 - New total games?). In 2008, the Green & White led the league with seven Pro Bowl players, all seven acquired through trades, free agency or the draft since Tannenbaum assumed the GM role. They followed up with five Pro Bowlers in February 2010 as LT D’Brickashaw Ferguson made his first all-star appearance and DE Shaun Ellis was selected for the first time since 2003 while C Nick Mangold and CB Darrelle Revis were return invitees. Ferguson, Mangold and Revis all were asked back last February, but only Ferguson and Revis could participate as Mangold missed due to injury.

Tannenbaum’s belief in developing players within the Jets’ system mirrors his own ascent to the position of general manager. He was first hired by the Jets on Feb. 19, 1997, by Bill Parcells as director of player contract negotiations, which emphasized his expertise and knowledge of the salary cap.

Before coming to the Jets, the Needham, Mass., native graduated from the University of Massachusetts with his degree in accounting, worked as an intern with the Pittsfield (N.Y.) Mets of the Class A New York-Penn League in 1991, then worked as a player personnel assistant with the Browns in 1995 and, while graduating cum laude and earning his certificate in sports law from Tulane Law School, with the Saints in 1996.

Tannenbaum was selected to the NFL General Managers Advisory Committee in 2008, appointed to the Board of Directors of the Sports Lawyers Association in 2008, and is also a member of the American Bar Association in the Sports and Entertainment division. He has been a longtime supporter of numerous charitable endeavors and has served as a chairman for the Alliance for Lupus Research’s Walk. Born in New York City, he and his wife, Michelle, reside in New Jersey with their daughter and son.

Steve YARNELL

NY Jets Media Guide 2011

Steve Yarnell is in his 15th season with the Jets and fourth season as the Vice President, Security. He joined the Jets after serving as a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in the FBI's New York Office. In his current position, Yarnell directs security at training camp, all home and away games, and provides valuable assistance to the General Manager and Head Coach during the period prior to the NFL Draft with regard to draft-eligible players. He also acts as the Jets' liaison for security-related matters with the NFL, federal, state and local law enforcement agencies.

While with the FBI, Yarnell worked on criminal and terrorism matters, including the investigation of the 1993 World Trade Center bombing, the crash of TWA Flight 800 and in 1995 was responsible for the security of the then highest-paid terrorism informant in the history of the FBI while serving in the National Security Division from 1980-1997.

Rex RYAN

NY Jets Media Guide 2011

Rex Ryan enjoyed an offseason for the books.

The Jets' now third-year head coach became something of a pop-culture icon for a while. He teamed up with co-author Don Yeager to write his first book, "Play Like You Mean It: Passion, Laughs, and Leadership in the World's Most Beautiful Game." The book tour began in May and made a number of stops for signings with throngs of green-and-white-clad fans of Rex and the J-E-T-S.

The tour also included several big-media interludes, none bigger than a chat with David Letterman on the CBS "Late Night" set.

Then on Friday night, April 29, Ryan made his non-football small-screen debut when he and general manager Mike Tannenbaum played themselves for a scene with Gary Sinise and Eddie Cahill on "CSI: NY."

He may have qualified as the Rex of All Media this spring and summer, but Ryan was never in danger of going Hollywood. For his day job, he continued to work tirelessly with his staff and other members of the organization on the biggest task of all for the 2011 season: Getting over the AFC Championship Game hump.

And identifying one of the hurdles to make that Super leap wasn't hard. Rex knows one of the themes for the Jets' season ahead is "Bringing It Home."

"We've got to play better at home," he said in the offseason. "We were 5-3 last year and the fans deserve better. We're going to figure it out.

"That would be great if we could get a bye. Playing a game at home, I think we need to grasp that this is our home field. We're going to have to find a way to make this a huge part of what we are, that you don't come in here and beat us at home. Certainly that's the way we want to play our playoff games, where you don't have to travel, you can sleep in your own bed, you know where the restaurants are, you can get in your routine. The whole deal about staying at home is something that I think is huge."

It is one of those football riddles. There's no question Ryan's program has quickly moved into the NFL's stratosphere. His and D-coordinator Mike Pettine's defenses in 2009 and '10 have finished first and third respectively in total yardage allowed, eighth and third in rushing yardage, first and sixth in pass defense, first and sixth in scoring defense. His and OC Brian Schottenheimer's offenses have finished first and fourth in rushing yards.

His teams have won nine games, then 11, good for two playoff berths and in fact two runs all the way to the AFC title games before losses at Indianapolis early in '10 and at Pittsburgh this past January.

Yet the Ryan Jets' record in the Meadowlands is a combined 9-7.

But on the flip side, as Rex plainly states, "We can win on the road ...

if that's the road we have to travel, then we have to find a way to get it done."

They almost did that both seasons. With QB Mark Sanchez showing his greatest growth spurts away from home, the Jets have gone 11-5 combined on the road, then posted four "at" wins in the playoffs — the Green & White, in fact, are the first NFL team in history to win four road games in back-to-back postseasons.

The overall product has lifted the Jets into the NFL's elite, one measure of which is the number of primetime games they've been assigned by the league. Last year it was a franchise-record five. This year it's five again, equaling the most by any team in NFL history in consecutive regular seasons.

Ryan has no plans of letting up or of letting down his team's national audiences and his Sunday afternoon crowds.

"Here we go, no excuses — you know we never make excuses," he said in a recorded message to fans a month before 2011 training camp opened. "Get ready to have an unbelievable season. We think we made some improvements on our team. I don't know if any other team got better, but we got better. The ground-and-pound offense is ready to roll, Sanchez is going into his third year and I can't wait to see his improvements, and we're going to let it fly a little more than we have in the past. And our defense is getting nasty."

Before landing into the white hot spotlight as the Jets' head coach, Ryan spent 10 seasons in Baltimore. From 1999-2008 the Ravens ranked first in the NFL for fewest points allowed (17.1 per game), fewest rushing yards allowed (87.3 per game), most shutouts (9), most takeaways (337), most interceptions (212), most interceptions returned for touchdowns (29) and third-down conversion defense (33.9 percent). They also ranked second in total defense (280.7 ypg) and fourth in sacks (416) in that span.

Ryan began his Baltimore career as the defensive line coach for Brian Billick in 1999, when the Ravens defense finished second in the NFL in total defense and second against the run. In 2000, that defense allowed the fewest points in a 16-game season in NFL history (165) en route to winning Super Bowl XXXV.

He was promoted to coordinator in 2005. During his four seasons in that role, the Ravens finished fifth (2005), first (2006), sixth (2007) and second (2008) in total defense. In 2006, the "D" allowed only 201 points and 264 yards per game and he was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers Association.

In 2008, new Baltimore head coach John Harbaugh named Ryan assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. The Ravens' defense that season led the league with 34 takeaways, 26 interceptions, a 60.6

opponents' passer rating, and four rushing TDs allowed.

Before joining the Ravens, Ryan was a defensive coordinator in college at Oklahoma (1998) and Cincinnati (1996-97). His first NFL coaching stint was with Arizona under father Buddy Ryan, when he oversaw the Cardinals' defensive line in 1994 and linebackers in 1995 (on the same staff with his twin brother, Rob, now the Dallas Cowboys' defensive coordinator). Rex also coached at Morehead State (1990-93), New Mexico Highlands (1989) and Eastern Kentucky (1987-88).

Before Ryan became a coach himself, he had a chance to see some great defense up close and personal. Buddy brought him along to practices when he became the Jets' defensive line coach for the 1968 season — the Jets' Super Bowl III season, of course. Then Rex watched his dad coach the 1985 Chicago Bears. He was a ballboy for those Bears teams early in his father's tenure as the defensive coordinator, then he was off in college during that 1985 season but was on the sidelines during Super Bowl XX, when the Bears finished their 18-1 run with a 46-10 victory over New England and Buddy was carried off on his defenders' shoulders.

Now Rex, 47, is getting closer to being carried off the field by his own players. And he knows one of the most important ingredients to make that happen and make the Jets the stars of the big and small screen, books and magazines, and Twitter and Facebook to boot.

"We need you in those seats," he told the fans, "and let's make this a super season, all right? Let's get it on."

Mike PETTINE

NY Jets Media Guide 2011

- ◇ Mike Pettine has fielded a unit that has allowed the third fewest points (16.9), the lowest quarterback rating (51.2) and least yards per game (287.2) since 2009.
- ◇ During the last two seasons, the Jets defense has recorded 61 takeaways, the second most in the AFC. The same unit recorded only 51 in the two seasons prior to Pettine's arrival, which ranked as the fifth-fewest in the conference.
- ◇ In 2009, his first season as a defensive coordinator in the NFL, Coach Pettine installed a completely new defense and fielded a unit that ranked first in points allowed, total defense and pass defense.
- ◇ Under coach Pettine, CB Darrelle Revis recorded what coach Ryan referred to as: "...the best year a corner has ever had (and) the most impact a corner has ever had in the National Football League." Revis earned first-team honors for his performance in 2009. LB David Harris also excelled under Pettine and earned second-team All-Pro honors in 2009 after leading the NFL's number-one defense with 142 tackles, 5.5 sacks, two interceptions, three passes defended and two forced fumbles.
- ◇ Pettine's background in football is similar to coach Ryan's background. While Rex learned from his legendary coaching father, Buddy, Pettine's coaching roots trace to his father, Mike, Sr., the head coach for 33 years at Central Bucks West HS in Doylestown, PA. Pettine played for his dad before graduating in 1984, and assisted him for five seasons (1988-92). When Mike Sr. retired as head coach after the 1999 season, he was the winningest coach in the history of Pennsylvania high school football with a career record of 326-42-4.
- ◇ Pettine spent the previous four seasons coaching the outside linebackers for the Baltimore Ravens and was a part of the Ravens organization from 2002 to 2008. During his four seasons as the outside linebackers coach, the Ravens defense finished fifth (2005), first (2006), sixth (2007) and second (2008) in the NFL. In 2006, the defense allowed only 201 points and 264 yards per game.
- ◇ The Ravens 2008 defense allowed 261.1 yards per game, finishing second overall in the NFL. The 2008 Ravens allowed 244 points, third-fewest in the NFL, and led the NFL with 34 takeaways, 26 interceptions and a league-low 60.6 opponents' passer rating. Baltimore also yielded a league-low four rushing touchdowns.
- ◇ As the Ravens outside linebackers coach, Terrell Suggs, Adalius Thomas and Jarret Johnson are among the players he tutored on a defensive unit that had always been among the stingiest in the NFL.
- ◇ Before he was promoted to OLB coach in 2005, Pettine assisted Ryan in 2004 coaching the defensive line. In 2002-03, Pettine used his computer expertise to help develop playbooks, scouting reports and video analysis for the defensive coaches. Through the years he has produced innovative coaching programs that utilize football video to develop playbooks and analyze game video.

- ◇ Before entering the NFL, Pettine was the head coach at North Penn HS in Towamencin Township, PA, a suburb of Philadelphia. Pettine's 1999 team was featured in the ESPN documentary, "The Season." That team went 11-2, with the only two losses to his father's Central Bucks (CB) West team, which won the state title in his father's final season as a head coach.
- ◇ Pettine's teams won 45 games in five seasons at North Penn. He was also the head coach at William Tennent HS in Warminster, PA for two seasons, leading that team to a school-record nine wins in 1996.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ◇ Pettine played free safety at Virginia under Head Coach George Welsh and was a two-year letterman (1986-87). He led the team in interceptions in 1986, including a school-record three in one contest vs. North Carolina State.

OFF THE FIELD

- Joined childhood idol, Walter Payton, as the only players to be named MVP of league on the field and Man of the Year off it in the same season when he accomplished the feat in 2006.
- Together with wife LaTorsha, the two oversee the Tomlinson Touching Lives Foundation. The foundation hosts events throughout the year, including youth football camps in San Diego and Texas, a golf tournament, a fishing trip for kids from The Monarch School for homeless and at-risk teens, a Thanksgiving program in which they provide more than 2,100 families with complete holiday dinners and a Christmas program in which they give away more than 1,500 holiday gifts to the patients at San Diego's Children's Hospital and Health Center.
- Another important branch of the Touching Lives Foundation is the "School is Cool Scholarship Fund," which awards 30 annual scholarships to college-bound students based on academics, community involvement and volunteerism. Of the 30 students selected by Tomlinson each year, 15 are selected from San Diego and 15 are chosen from LT's alma mater, University High School in Waco, TX. Proceeds from his annual golf tournament help support the scholarship fund.

HISTORY

NEW YORK JETS

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

The newest reign in franchise history began two years ago under a man named Rex.

“Coming here to the New York Jets, where my father once coached and was part of the Super Bowl III staff, is fantastic,” said Rex Ryan, referencing his dad, Buddy Ryan, upon being named the 15th full-time head coach of the Jets on Jan. 19, 2009. “I look around at the facilities and the people they have in place and see a first-class organization. I’m just proud to be part of it.

“There is no doubt in my mind that Rex has the expertise and instincts to build on the foundation we have in place and take this franchise to the ranks of the NFL’s elite,” owner Woody Johnson said. “He brings an aggressive, physical brand of football that will captivate our fans and ignite their passion. I’m confident Rex is the right fit for us.”

In the circle of history, it is only appropriate that Buddy’s son, a ballboy for the 1968 Jets who triumphed in Super Bowl III, should now be orchestrating the Jets’ return to the big dance. The seeds of Super Bowl victory were sown in 1959-60, when the New York Titans and the American Football League struggled to life. The kindest way to describe owner Harry Wismer’s stewardship was that it was “fraught with controversy” before the bankrupt Titans were taken over by the league in Nov. 1962.

Four months later, the five-man syndicate headed by David A. “Sonny” Werblin bought the Titans, rechristened them the Jets and hired Weeb Ewbank as coach. They got their on-field pilot when quarterback Joe Namath signed his legendary $427,000 rookie contract the day after the 1965 Orange Bowl. He joined an offensive cast that included wide receivers Don Maynard and George Sauer, the one-two backfield punch of Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer, and a line anchored by perennial AFL All-Star tackle Winston Hill. The defense was built around linebackers Larry Grantham and Al Atkinson and ends Gerry Philbin and Verlon Biggs.

And they took off on a flight plan that in 1969 landed Namath at the Miami Touchdown Club, where he accepted an award and made “the Guarantee” that in three days the Jets would defeat the heavily favored Baltimore Colts.

“When I look back at that period now,” Namath reflected decades later, “I realize not only was I a very confident young man, I was also very angry. It was more or less anger and frustration stemming from how everybody was putting the team and the league down that led me to make that guarantee.”

Raspberries morphed into respect after the Jets turned five takeaways into a 16-0 lead en route to rocking the football world with their 16-7 win over the Colts at the Orange Bowl on Jan. 12, 1969.

The Jets hosted a playoff game at Shea Stadium in 1969 (a wind-marred 13-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs) and made television history, taking on the Browns on opening night in 1970 when the NFL and ABC first unveiled “Monday Night Football.”

The teams of the early Eighties were led by “the New York Sack Exchange,” the front four of Joe Klecko, Mark Gastineau, Marty Lyons and Abdul Salaam that piled up QB sacks at a blistering pace. “It always feels good when you feel appreciated,” Lyons has said, “and that was reflected in the way we played. We didn’t want to disappoint ourselves or our teammates.”

That group guided the Jets to the 1981 playoffs, a home AFC Wild Card affair that began badly as Buffalo opened a 24-0 lead and ended heartbreakingly at the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds left as Richard Todd’s interception sealed their 31-27 loss.

Then Todd, tailback Freeman McNeil and the Sack Exchange led the Jets to a 6-3 record in the strike-shortened 1982 season, and on to two road playoff victories. But the run ended in the Orange Bowl with a 14-0 loss to the Dolphins in the AFC Championship Game — a.k.a. “the Mud Bowl” — on Jan. 23, 1983.

There were playoff berths in 1985 and 1986. The latter appearance ended in a road defeat as the Jets of McNeil and Al Toon, with quarterbacks Ken O’Brien and Pat Ryan and coach Joe Walton, lost to the Browns in the second overtime, 23-20.

For the next decade, there was just one more postseason berth, in 1991, before Bill Parcells’ 1998 team almost topped them all. Behind Vinny Testaverde and Curtis Martin, that team finished 12-4 by winning 10 of its last 11, including a 17-10 win at Buffalo that clinched the club’s first AFC East title. Then came the first home playoff win since 1986, 34-24 over Jacksonville before a jubilant Meadowlands sellout crowd. But on a windy day at Denver’s Mile High Stadium, the Jets 10-0 lead with 25-and-a-half minutes to play, John Elway’s Broncos weren’t to be denied, striding back for the 23-10 victory on Jan. 17, 1999.

Eleven seasons later, Ryan didn’t wait long to get the Jets back as far as Parcells had gotten the ‘98 team. The ‘09 Jets went on a run of seven wins in eight games, including road playoff wins at Cincinnati and San Diego, before running out of gas in Lucas Oil Stadium in the second half of the AFC Championship Game in the 30-17 loss to the Colts.

Since Johnson took the franchises’ reins in 2000, the Jets have been to the postseason six times. Through ‘08 they tried to return to the Super Bowl under three coaches (Al Groh, Herm Edwards, Eric Mangini) and three dynamic QBs (Vinny Testaverde, Chad Pennington, Brett Favre). Now in Year 2 for Ryan, QB Mark Sanchez and a top-ranked defense, moving into a new stadium, the Jets may well have their best chance yet to find a companion for the single trophy that stands on display in the lobby of the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center.

SIGNIFICANT HONOR: The Jets honored Byrd with the Most Inspirational Player Award, which the next year was renamed the Dennis Byrd Award and has been presented annually to the Jets' "Most Inspirational Player" as voted by the team.

BYRD WALKS: Dennis Byrd, with the aid of two canes, walked into a news conference at Mount Sinai Medical Center in New York to announce he would be leaving New York and returning home to Tulsa, Okla., to continue his rehab (Feb. 12). Byrd returned to the Meadowlands for the first time since his paralyzing accident, walking unaided onto the field to be honored at halftime ceremonies on opening day (Sept. 5).

LOTT SIGNS: GM Dick Steinberg made his first major signing under the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement by adding nine-time Pro Bowl S Ronnie Lott to the Jets' roster (March 8).

BOOMER COMES HOME: Steinberg completed a trade with Cincinnati, bringing Pro Bowl QB and Long Island native Boomer Esiason to the Jets in exchange for a third-round draft pick (March 17).

O'BRIEN PACKS IT IN: QB Ken O'Brien, at the time second on the Jets' all-time passing list, was traded to Green Bay for a fifth-round draft pick (Apr. 5).

McNEIL RETIRES: RB Freeman McNeil, then the Jets' all-time leading rusher and 14th on the NFL's all-time list, retired. McNeil set an NFL record with at least a 4.0 yard average in each of his 12 seasons (Apr. 21).

DRAFT-DAY TRADE: The Jets traded the third selection in the draft to Phoenix in exchange for the Cardinals' fourth overall pick and Pro Bowl RB Johnny Johnson. Then the Jets drafted the player they had wanted, Florida State All-America LB Marvin Jones (Apr. 25).

SHULA DENIED: The Jets defeated Miami, 27-10, at the Meadowlands, forcing Dolphins coach Don Shula to wait another week before getting his 325th career victory and breaking George Halas' all-time record (Nov. 7).

SUPER REUNION: The members of the Jets' Super Bowl III team were reunited at the game against the Bengals to celebrate the 25th anniversary season of that historic victory. A weekend of activities was capped by the players being honored at halftime of the Jets' 17-12 victory over the Bengals while wearing "throwback" uniforms (Nov. 21).

CARROLL PROMOTED: Defensive coordinator Pete Carroll became the ninth full-time head coach in club history when he replaced Bruce Coslet, who compiled a 26-38 record in his four seasons at the helm (Jan. 7).

RECORD CROWD: The franchise's largest home crowd to date, 75,606, watched the Jets battle Miami for a share of first place in the AFC East. The Jets led, 24-6, in the third quarter before Dan Marino led a furious comeback, capped by the "fake spike" TD pass to Mark Ingram, for the Dolphins' 28-24 win (Nov. 27).

STEINBERG ILLNESS: The team announced before its season finale against the Houston Oilers that vice president/general manager Dick Steinberg had stomach cancer (Dec. 24). Steinberg died Sept. 25, 1995.

RICHIE'S BALL: Owner Leon Hess named Rich Kotite the 10th full-time head coach in franchise history after firing Pete Carroll after the Jets finished 6-10 in his only season as coach (Jan. 5).

MOORE, MOORE, MOORE: WR Rob Moore was traded to Arizona the night prior to the draft for RB Ronald Moore and the Cardinals' No. 1 choice (Apr. 21). As a result, the Jets held two first-round picks for the first time since 1984 (Russell Carter, Ron Fautot) and selected Penn State TE Kyle Brady and DE Hugh Douglas from Central State of Ohio (Apr. 22).

KOTITE'S FIRST: Kotite won his first game as Jets head coach with a 27-10 victory over the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars at the Meadowlands (Sept. 17).

WAYNE'S WORLD: WR Wayne Chrebet, the rookie FA from Hofstra, passed WR Al Toon the previous week, then became the Jets' all-time leading rookie receiver with four catches at New England in game 14, surpassing Matt Snell's 56-catch mark set in 1964 (Dec. 10).

THANK HUGH: Douglas was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year after leading all first-year players with a team-rookie-record 10 sacks.

NEIL LEADS PARADE: QB Neil O'Donnell, after leading Pittsburgh to four straight playoff appearances that included a berth in Super Bowl XXX, signed with the Jets as an unrestricted free agent (Feb. 28). O'Donnell was one of a long line of veteran free agents that included tackles Jumbo Elliott and David Williams, WR Jeff Graham and QB Frank Reich, to join the Jets in the off-season.

KEY DRAFT PICK: For the first time in club history, the Jets had the first overall pick of the NFL Draft and selected Southern Cal All-America WR Keyshawn Johnson (Apr. 20).

O'DONNELL'S WOES: O'Donnell suffered a shoulder injury in Game 6 against Oakland (Oct. 6). After sitting out six games, the QB was preparing to return for Game 13 vs. Houston when he tore a calf muscle during pregame warmups (Dec. 1), which would sideline him the rest of the season.

MURRELL GETS A THOU: With 103 rushing yards in a loss at Buffalo, RB Adrian Murrell reached 1,000 yards for the season (Nov. 24) and ultimately became only the third RB in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards for a one-win team.

KOTITE STEPS ASIDE: Two days before the season finale against Miami, Rich Kotite stepped aside as head coach (Dec. 20). The loss to the Dolphins dropped Kotite's two-season record to 4-28.

A PRESIDENT PASSES: Former Jets president and NFL official Jim Kensil, who spent 12 seasons with the club from 1977-88 and helped guide the Jets to four playoff appearances before retiring, died (Jan. 16).

A LITTLE BUBBLY: The Jets upgraded their Hofstra University practice facilities with improved grass and turf fields and a new air-supported indoor practice bubble (July 2).

BOFFO DEBUT: Jets fans had to be delirious with the result of the first game of the Parcels era, a 41-3 rout of the Seahawks in Seattle in which Neil O'Donnell threw five touchdown passes and the Jets gained 434 yards.

A.G. ACHIEVEMENT: Aaron Glenn became the first cornerback in franchise history to be named a starter in a pro football all-star game when he was elected to the Pro Bowl (Dec. 11).

WINNERS AGAIN: The Jets didn't make it to the playoffs in Parcels' first year, but they posted their first winning season at 9-7 in nine years and at least played in a win-you're-in-lose-you're-out game, the regular-season finale at Detroit in which Barry Sanders and the Lions prevailed, 13-10 (Dec. 21).

THE NEXT NEW LOOK: The Green & White went back to the future with a "new" logo. Actually, the team returned to the uniform and logo worn at the Jets' inception in 1963 and during their Super Bowl III victory season (Feb. 3).

THEIR FAVORITE MARTIN: RB Curtis Martin officially became a New York Jet as the restricted free agent offer sheet he signed was not matched by the Patriots. The Jets did have to give up first and third-round picks, but coach Bill Parcells stated that Martin was worth it (March 25).

VINNY FROM ELMONT: QB Vinny Testaverde signed as a free agent and returned to Long Island, where he grew up, and fulfilled a lifetime dream of playing for the Jets. With the signing, QB Neil O'Donnell was released (June 24).

DIVISION CONQUERED: The Jets defeated the Bills, 17-10, at Buffalo to clinch their first AFC East title. The tough road victory also assured them of a first-round bye in the playoffs (Dec. 19).

A DOZEN W'S: The Jets set a club season record for victories when they beat the New England Patriots, 31-10, in their regular-season finale for their 12th win (Dec. 27).

HOME FOR THE PLAYOFFS: The Jets, playing in their first home playoff game since 1986, won their first playoff game since that season when they defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars at the Meadowlands, 34-24 (Jan. 10).

FALLING SHORT AT MILE HIGH: The Jets took a 10-0 third-quarter lead but were unable to play the mistake-free football they had played all season in committing six turnovers and saw the Broncos come back for a 23-10 victory in Denver en route to defending their Super Bowl championship (Jan. 17).

VINNY'S SPOILS: Vinny Testaverde, after going 12-1 as the regular-season starting QB, throwing a club-record 29 TD passes, being named team MVP, guiding the Jets to the AFC Championship Game and playing in the Pro Bowl, was signed to a three-year deal with a four-year option (March 1).

HESS PASSES ON: Owner Leon Hess died at 85 due to complications from a blood disease (May 7). Hess started Hess Oil from his father's one truck heating oil delivery business during the depression and built it into a multibillion-dollar company. He was one of a group of five who originally bought the New York Titans out of bankruptcy in 1963, and he became the sole owner of the Jets in 1984.

JETS FOR SALE: The estate of Leon Hess announced the Jets would be sold according to wishes expressed in Hess' will (May 21).

ACHILLES HEEL: Testaverde ruptured his Achilles tendon in the second quarter of the season opener against New England and was lost for the season (Sept. 12). It was the first of numerous injuries as 15 Jets combined to miss 108 games and 89 starts due to injuries.

TUNA SWIMS UPSTAIRS: Bill Parcells announced a day after the 1999 season ended that "I'm not going to coach any more football games." Parcells stayed on as director of football operations, and by contract Bill Belichick took over for Parcells as head coach (Jan. 3).

ONE AND DONE I: A day after taking the job, Belichick stunned the Jets and the football world by resigning as head coach, citing the uncertainty of the new ownership situation. Jets president Steve Gutman said Belichick had a signed contract "that is clear, unambiguous and specific" (Jan. 4).

WOODY'S TEAM: The estate of Leon Hess entered into an agreement to sell the New York Jets to Robert Wood Johnson IV for $635 million. The NFL voted unanimously to accept its finance committee's recommendation to approve the sale to Woody Johnson (Jan. 18).

GROH STEPS UP: The Jets elevated linebackers coach Al Groh to head coach, making him the 12th full-time head coach in the franchise's 40-year history (Jan. 24).

DEAL STRUCK: After NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue and Federal Judge John W. Bissell ruled the Jets' contract with Belichick was valid, Parcells and New England owner Robert Kraft ended the "border war" between the teams and brokered compensation for Belichick to become head coach of the Patriots. The Jets received the Pats' first-round pick (16th overall) in the 2000 draft plus its fourth- and seventh-round picks in 2001. The Jets sent the Patriots a fifth-round pick in 2001 and a seventh-rounder in 2002 (Jan. 27).

KEY TRADE: The Jets sent WR Keyshawn Johnson, the first overall pick in the 1996 draft, to Tampa Bay for two first-round draft choices (Nos. 13 and 27) in the 2000 draft (April 12).

FOUR OF A KIND: The Jets became the first team ever to make four first-round selections in the NFL Draft, selecting DE Shaun Ellis at No. 12, DE John Abraham at No. 13, QB Chad Pennington at No. 18 and TE Anthony Becht at No. 27 (April 15).

CROSS TABBED TO HEAD JETS DEVELOPMENT: Jay Cross, president of business operations of the NBA's Miami Heat, was hired as president of Jets development (July 25).

TESTAVERDE RETURNS: QB Vinny Testaverde, who missed virtually all of 1999 with a ruptured Achilles' tendon, completed 23 of 44 for 261 yards and a TD in the Jets' season-opening 20-16 win at Green Bay, the first victory in their club-record 4-0 start (Sept. 3).

MIRACULOUS: The fourth comeback victory of the season was the most incredible in franchise history as the Jets rallied from a 30-7 deficit for a 40-37 overtime victory over the Miami Dolphins on Monday Night Football at the Meadowlands. The Green & White scored a club-record 30 fourth-quarter points en route to the biggest comeback in franchise history (Oct. 23).

ONE AND DONE II: After less than one year on the job, Groh accepted an offer to coach at his alma mater, the University of Virginia (Dec. 29).

OVER AND OUT: Bill Parcells resigned from the Jets, ending his four-year reign (three as head coach) in charge of the football operations with a 39-26 regular-season record and 1-1 in the postseason (Jan. 9).

GIVE MY REGARDS: Two days after Parcells resigned, owner Woody Johnson chose Terry Bradway, the Kansas City Chiefs' vice president of player personnel, as his new general manager (Jan. 11).

HERM'S TURN: The Jets named Herman Edwards, Tampa Bay's assistant head coach and secondary coach, as their 13th full-time head coach. Edwards was tabbed after he, Maurice Carthon, Dom Capers and Ted Cottrell interviewed with Johnson and Bradway (Jan. 18).

JOB WELL DONE: Bill Hampton, the Jets' equipment manager for 37 seasons, retired and turned over the department's reins to his son, Clay (March 1).

TERROR HITS HOME: The second week of the season was postponed due to the terror attacks against the United States. The games were rescheduled to be played after the original last week of the regular season (Sept. 13).

HERM'S FIRST: Edwards earned his first NFL head-coaching win when the Jets defeated the Patriots, 10-3, at New England (Sept. 23).

EMOTIONAL MONDAY: The Jets honored the victims and heroes of the World Trade Center attacks in a stirring pregame ceremony before their 19-17 loss to the 49ers on Monday Night Football. Edwards presented the game ball the Jets players had presented to him after his first NFL head-coaching win the week before to New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani (Oct. 1).

HALL OF A KICK: John Hall's 53-yard field goal with 59 seconds left lifted the Jets over the Raiders, 24-22, in Oakland in the regular-season finale and into the playoffs. Herm Edwards thus became the first coach in club history to guide his team to the playoffs in his first year at the helm. The Jets' reward: a return trip to Oakland six days later for the AFC Wild Card Game (Jan. 6).

RAIDERS' REVENGE: The Jets fell to Oakland in the rematch in a 38-24 Saturday night shootout that was the NFL's first-ever prime-time postseason game (Jan. 12).

MORTON'S OF BUFFALO: Chad Morton became the first player in NFL history to return kickoffs for TD in both regulation and overtime, with his 96-yard OT return lifting the Jets past the Bills at Buffalo, 37-31, on opening day (Sept. 8).

PACKING FOR PLAYOFFS: The Jets qualified for the playoffs and won the AFC East when their 42-17 thumping of the Green Bay Packers followed New England's 24-21 OT win over Miami. The Jets, Patriots and Dolphins all finished at 9-7, with the Green & White winning the division based on a better record in common-opponent games (9-5 to the Pats' and Dolphins' 8-6 records) (Dec. 29).

PENNINGTON IMPACT: The Green Bay game was QB Chad Pennington's 12th of the season and was his best of the regular season in terms of passer rating — his 17-for-24 accuracy for 196 yards and four TD gave him a 134.7 rating and lifted his season rating to 104.2, the best in club history and the top mark among qualifying NFL quarterbacks (Dec. 29).

COLTS CORRALED: The Jets rolled to the first postseason shutout in club history when they blanked Indianapolis, 41-0, in the AFC Wild Card Game. The 41-0 win tied the New York Giants (2002 NFC Championship vs. Minnesota) for the second-most points in a shutout victory in NFL history (Jan. 4).

TARGETING D-ROB: The Jets traded two first-round draft choices (Nos. 13 and 22) and a conditional pick to Chicago for the Bears' fourth overall pick (April 25). The next day they selected Kentucky DT Dewayne Robertson fourth overall.

JOE'S NEW TITLE: The Jets announced that Hall of Fame QB Joe Namath would serve as the club's ambassador-at-large (June 25).

EASTERN EXPOSURE: The Jets became New York's first pro football team to travel to Asia as they took on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the defending Super Bowl champions, in the American Bowl. The Bucs downed the Jets in the Tokyo Dome, 30-14, in the season's first preseason game (Aug. 2).

CHAD'S CALAMITY: QB Chad Pennington suffered a fracture/dislocation of his left wrist while scrambling out of the pocket during the annual preseason game against the New York Giants (Aug. 23). He had surgery that night and was able to return to action 10 weeks after the operation in relief of Vinny Testaverde against the Eagles in Philadelphia (Oct. 26).

THURSDAY KICKOFF: The Jets kicked off the NFL's regular season, opening the schedule with a 16-13 Thursday night loss to the Redskins at Washington (Sept. 4).

FIVE ALIVE: After a rare home opener, a win against the Bengals, the Jets reeled off four more wins to open the season 5-0 for the first time in franchise history. Included in the streak were wins at San Diego and Miami, then home over Buffalo and San Francisco (Oct. 17).

CHAD CUFFED: QB Chad Pennington suffered what turned out to be the first rotator cuff tear in his throwing shoulder when falling awkwardly at the end of scramble in the third quarter of the 22-17 loss at Buffalo (Nov. 7). Pennington missed three games before returning to lead a 29-7 win over Houston (Dec. 5), and he played through the playoffs before undergoing surgery (Feb. 8).

MAWAE-HAWAII VI: Kevin Mawae was selected to play in his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl. It was the second-longest all-star streak in club history behind OT Winston Hill, who played in seven straight, three AFL All-Star Games and four Pro Bowls, from 1967-73 (Dec. 29).

CURT BY A NOSE: RB Curtis Martin gained just enough in the regular-season finale at St. Louis, 153 yards on 28 carries, to edge Seattle's Shaun Alexander by a single yard for the NFL's 2004 rushing title. Martin, with 1,697 yards, became just the second player in club history to capture the prestigious title, 23 years after Freeman McNeil (Jan. 2).

VAUNTED VILMA: LB Jonathan Vilma, the Jets' first-round draft choice, was named NFL

Defensive Rookie of the Year (Jan. 7).

WORKING OVERTIME: The Jets became the first NFL team to play three consecutive overtime games, including their regular-season-ending 32-29 loss in St. Louis (Jan. 2), their 20-17 Wild Card win at San Diego (Jan. 8) and their heartbreaking 20-17 Divisional Round loss at Pittsburgh (Jan. 15).

CHAD CUFFED II: Chad Pennington suffered the second rotator cuff tear in his right shoulder in less than a year when his arm was yanked from behind as he was trying to pass against Jacksonville (Sept. 25). He then underwent arthroscopic surgery, his second shoulder operation in eight months (Oct. 6).

VINNY REDUX: Vinny Testaverde was signed as the emergency backup to Brooks Bollinger (Sept. 27) after Pennington and No. 2 QB Jay Fielder were injured vs. the Jaguars. Testaverde moved into the starting lineup and directed an inspirational 14-12 home win over Tampa Bay (Oct. 9) before losing his next three starts and handing the reins back to Bollinger.

END OF A TRADITION: The Jets, who played in ABC's first Monday Night Football telecast in 1970, played in the network's last in a 31-21 loss to New England at the Meadowlands (Dec. 26).

DEAL HERM OUT: Jets deal head coach Herm Edwards to Kansas City for the Chiefs' fourth-round draft choice. General manager Terry Bradway immediately began setting up interviews to find a successor (Jan. 6).

ERIC ERA: Eric Mangini was hired as the team's 14th full-time head coach. Mangini, a Jets defensive assistant under Bill Parcells from 1997-99 became, at the time, the 15th-youngest head coach in league history, holding his introductory news conference two days before his 35th birthday (Jan. 17).

T, TOO: Mike Tannenbaum is promoted to general manager by Woody Johnson as Terry Bradway steps back to focus exclusively on player personnel and the draft (Feb. 7).

ABE TRADED: The Jets completed a three-team trade with Atlanta and Denver that sent DE John Abraham, one of their first-round picks in 2000, to the Falcons for the 29th overall pick, which the Broncos traded to the Falcons (March 21).

BRICK AND NICK: The Jets begin rebuilding their offensive line through the draft by selecting tackle D'Brickshaw Ferguson with their fourth overall pick and center Nick Mangold with the 29th pick from the Abraham deal (April 29).

NO. 80 SAYS GOODBYE: Wayne Chrebet, one of the most popular players in franchise history, announced his retirement from football (June 2).

PATS ON THE BACK: After a 4-4 first half, the Jets opened the second half of the season with a 17-14 upset of the Patriots at Gillette Stadium, Mangini's "home office" for the previous four seasons (Nov. 12).

FANTASTIC FINISH: The Jets picked up speed with five wins in their last six games to gain the AFC's fifth seed in the playoffs. The victory that locked it up was the solid 23-3 home win over the Raiders on New Year's Eve that secured a 10-6 record and clinched the postseason berth (Dec. 31).

LYING IN WAIT: The Jets' second visit of the season to Gillette Stadium didn't go as well as the first in November as the Patriots pulled away for a 37-16 AFC Wild Card victory (Jan. 7).

NEW BACK IN TOWN: The Jets announced the acquisition of the Bears' Thomas Jones after negotiating a contract extension with his agent and swapping second-round picks, their 37th overall for the Bears' 63rd (March 6).

TRADE WINDS: Mike Tannenbaum consummated two dramatic first-day draft trade-ups, moving 11 rungs to No. 14 overall in a trade with Carolina to select CB Darrelle Revis, then 16 slots in Round 2 to No. 47 in a trade with Green Bay to take LB David Harris (April 27).

FAREWELL, CURT: RB Curtis Martin formally announced his retirement from the Jets and the NFL with an 11-stop media blitz around New York City. "Retirement's not an end but a beginning ...I don't see this as a sad time," Martin said (July 26).

CHREBET ENCORE: Wayne Chrebet returned to the Meadowlands turf one more time to be honored at halftime on Wayne Chrebet Day. Fittingly, the Jets defeated No. 80's favorite opponents, the Dolphins, 31-28, for their first win of the season (Sept. 23).

REMEMBER THE TITANS: The Jets set aside their green and white uniforms for navy and gold throwback threads worn by the New York Titans of 1960-62 and recognized four Titans who went on to play for the Jets' Super Bowl III team — WR Don Maynard, RB Bill Mathis, LB Larry Grantham and P Curley Johnson. The new look didn't help in the 16-9 loss to the Eagles (Oct. 14), but the Jets served in the navy one more time and scored their most points of the season in their 40-13 victory at Miami (Dec. 2).

NO. 28 AGAIN: Curtis Martin was back in the Meadowlands on Curtis Martin Day to receive tribute from Jets fans in honor of his outstanding career. The opponent was fitting — Pittsburgh is Martin's hometown — and the occasion helped lift the Jets to their most noteworthy win of the season, 19-16 in OT over the playoff-bound Steelers.

IN WITH THE NEW: The Jets made aggressive roster moves once the unrestricted free agency period began. They signed perennial Pro Bowl G Alan Faneca, OT Damien Woody, LB Calvin

Pace, Pro Bowl FB Tony Richardson and TE Bubba Franks as free agents and traded with Carolina for DT Kris Jenkins. They also traded two former first-round picks, LB Jonathan Vilma (to New Orleans) and DT Dewayne Robertson (to Denver) (Feb. 29-April 25).

BRETT THE JET: GM Mike Tannenbaum struck a trade with Packers GM Ted Thompson that brought Brett Favre, the NFL's all-time passing leader to the Jets for a conditional (2009 third round) draft pick (Aug. 6). Favre made his Green & White debut in the second preseason game at home vs. the Redskins (Aug. 16) and his regular-season debut in the 20-14 victory over the Dolphins at Miami (Sept. 7). Favre finished the season with 22 touchdowns passes and led the Jets to a 9-7 record.

PILES OF POINTS: The Jets enjoyed two historic home offensive explosions. They stopped the Super Bowl-bound Arizona Cardinals, 56-35, grabbing a 35-0 halftime lead as Favre threw six touchdown passes for the first time in his career and tying Joe Namath's franchise record (Sept. 28). Against the Rams, the Jets opened a record-setting 40-0, first-half lead en route to a 47-3 victory, the largest margin-of-victory in franchise history (Nov. 9).

ROAD RAGE: The Jets 8-3 start was punctuated by the best three-game road stretch in franchise history. They trimmed the Bills (5-2 coming in), 26-17, at Buffalo (Nov. 2). Two weeks later they went to New England on Thursday night and outdueled the Patriots (6-3), 34-31, winning on Jay Feely's overtime field goal (Nov. 13). Finally, they knocked out the Titans (10-0), the NFL's last unbeaten team, 34-13 at Tennessee (Nov. 23).

EXIT ERIC: The day after their 2008 season ended with four losses in their last five games to finish 9-7, owner Woody Johnson and GM Mike Tannenbaum held a news conference to announce that Eric Mangini would not return after three seasons as the Jets head coach. He left with a 23-26 record, including a loss in his only playoff appearance after the 2006 season (Dec. 29).

REX REIGN BEGINS: After an aggressive three-week search, during which a half-dozen candidates were interviewed for the Jets' head-coaching position, owner Woody Johnson announced that Rex Ryan, the highly successful defensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens from 2005-08, would become the team's 15th full-time head coach (Jan. 19).

NO. 4 SAYS NO MORE: The Jets place Brett Favre on the reserve/retired list, after his 18th NFL season. Favre told reporters on a conference call, "It was worth a shot for me to go to New York. I wish I could've played better down the stretch. I didn't. It's time to leave." (Feb. 11) The Jets released Favre on April 28.

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING - 11.24.60

When Titans' founder Harry Wismer announced the 1960 schedule, he trumpeted the Thanksgiving Day game as an annual fixture to the AFL landscape. The victory for the Titans that first Thanksgiving Day was the first of three straight for the franchise, which in becoming the Jets in 1963 gave up the traditional spot on the calendar. The Jets have only appeared three times since 1962 on Thanksgiving Day, losing to the Detroit Lions in 1972 and 1985 and, in a renewal of the original Thanksgiving rivalry, they lost to the Dallas Cowboys in 2007.

TITANS 41, TEXANS 35

(as described by the legendary Dick Young in the New York Daily News)

"A piping-hot Turkey Day football feast, stuffed with 76 juicy points, whetted the appetites of 14,344 late diners at the Polo Grounds, as the Titans outgorged the Dallas Texans, 41-35...Most responsible for the satisfying PG finale was Al Dorow, the hairless wower. He fired the ball 301 yards via 21 completions in 33 heaves - mostly to Don Maynard and Art Powell, the most sure-handed duo in the loop...It seemed, with the fourth period well under way, that the Titans had a breeze. Maynard's incredible pass-clutching, with defenders clinging to his thin neck, had moved New York ahead, 34-13. Then the Texans came on with a rush as big as all Alaska. They scored three TDs within a space of seven minutes - and in between their second and third scores, the Titans also put one across. That's the type of game it was."
