RAIDERS COMMEMORATE 50TH SEASON

In February, The Oakland Raiders, the Team of the Decades, unveiled its logo that commemorates the organization's 50th year of professional football. During the 2009 season, the Raiders will celebrate the franchise's exciting history.

The Raiders 50th season logo merges the franchise's glorious history with an eye towards the greatness that lies in its future. It features professional sports' most recognizable mark, the Raiders shield, at the top of a crest displaying the "Commitment to Excellence" word mark that echoes the organization's philosophy.

The number 50, commemorating the team's 50 seasons, is beveled in silver and white, and shaped to resemble the sleeve numbers on the team's 1963 era jerseys. The years 1960 and 2009 mirror the font used for the team's 1963 helmet numeral decals. Three large diamonds commemorate the team's three World Championships, earned in Super Bowl XI, XV and XVIII; while two smaller diamonds signify the American Football League and AFC Championships that led to berths in Super Bowl II and XXXVII. Finally, a lighting effect at the top of the logo represents the organization's focus on its future.

The Raider Nation is an integral part of the 50th season celebration. Many other commemorative activities and events are planned for the 2009 season. The Silver and Black's ardent fans are having the opportunity to share Raider memories through interactive features online and participate in numerous other activities throughout the year.

On Jan. 30, 1960, the city of Oakland was awarded the eighth franchise in the newly formed AFL. The team's first preseason game was played against the Dallas Texans, with the first regular season game against the Houston Oilers on Sept. 11, 1960.

The American Football League, which merged with the NFL in 1970, played its first season in 1960 with eight teams. The original eight AFL teams were the Oakland Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Denver Broncos, Kansas City Chiefs (played as the Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (Boston Patriots), New York Jets (Titans of New York), San Diego Chargers (Los Angeles Chargers), and Tennessee Titans (Houston Oilers). The Miami Dolphins became the ninth AFL franchise in 1966 and the Cincinnati Bengals became the 10th in 1968.

The Oakland Raiders are participating in four of the 16 Legacy Games that will be played during the 2009 NFL season. As part of the celebration, the eight original AFL teams will wear historic uniforms during Legacy Games.

Eleven Legacy Games will be match-ups between the eight original AFL teams. On Sept. 14, ESPN will host a "Monday Night Football" doubleheader that will be part of the NFL's celebration of the AFL's 50th anniversary season. The NFL nightcap (7:15 p.m. PT) will be an AFC West battle as the Raiders play host to the San Diego Chargers.

In the other Raiders Legacy Games, Oakland will play host to the New York Jets on Oct. 25 (1:05 p.m. PT) and Kansas City on Nov. 15 (1:05 p.m. PT). The fourth Legacy Game for the Silver and Black will take place on Nov. 26 (1:15 p.m. PT) when the Raiders visit Dallas. This will be the first Thanksgiving game for the Raiders since 1970.

RAIDERS CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY ONLINE

The Oakland Raiders launched a micro-site, www.raiders50thseason.com, to commemorate the 50th year of Raiders football. The web site includes photo galleries, interactive games and contests and videos showcasing great moments in Raiders history.

BILLBOARD CAMPAIGN PAYS TRIBUTE TO RAIDERS TRADITION

The Oakland Raiders are celebrating the organization's 50th season of professional football in 2009 and this season's billboard campaign pays tribute to Raiders tradition, featuring definitive plays that span the team's history in a groundbreaking way.

The billboards feature striking images, as well as exclusive phone numbers that connect callers to the radio broadcast of the play that is featured on the billboard.

"These unique billboards, which celebrate our rich tradition, allow individuals to revisit with wonderful moments in Raider history," Chief Executive Amy Trask said.

One billboard features an image of Bo Jackson's 91-yard touchdown run during the Raiders Monday Night Football game against the Seattle Seahawks in 1987. On the billboard, the number (1-877-419-5050) is displayed. Fans can call this number and have the opportunity to hear the actual radio call made by Bill King during this historic moment.

Three other plays are featured on billboards throughout the greater Bay Area, including the "Holy Roller" finish against San Diego in 1978, Jim Plunkett's 99-yard touchdown pass to Cliff Branch in 1983 and Tyrone Wheatley's unstoppable run in 2000.

THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS

The Raiders — who began play in the American Football League in 1960 — enter their 50th year of professional football competition, including the last 39 as a member of the National Football League.

In five memorable decades — the 1960s, '70s, '80s, '90s and the 2000s — the Raiders have been dominant in professional football since Al Davis first pledged in 1963 to build the finest organization in pro sports.

During these Decades of Dominance, the Raiders have won an AFL Championship, four American Football Conference Championships, three World Championships of Professional Football, participated in five Super Bowls, played in 14 Championship Games, won or tied for 17 Division Championships, had 21 playoff seasons, finished 33 seasons at .500 or better and played in 40 postseason games.

Pro Football's Dynamic Organization placed first in the AFC West in 2000, 2001 and 2002 despite playing among the toughest schedules in the NFL in each of those seasons. With their appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII, the Raiders became the only NFL team to play in Super Bowls in four different decades.

The Raiders are the only team to have been in Super Bowls in the '60s, the '70s, the '80s and the 2000s and have won the most games of any original AFL franchise.

The Silver and Black are the only AFC team — and one of just two NFL teams (Minnesota) — to play in Championship Games in each of the last five decades.

The Raiders are one of only two original AFL teams to have captured three World Championships of Professional Football with Super Bowl victories. The Raiders are one of only four AFC teams to have won more than one Super Bowl since 1980.

In road games, the Raiders have the best record in the AFC at 179-183-8. In their five Super Bowl appearances, the Raiders have been led by four different head coaches and started four different quarterbacks.

The Raiders are the last AFC Western Division team to go to the Super Bowl. With four postseason victories, the Raiders are one of only two AFC West teams to win more than one playoff game in the new millennium.

Since 1963, when Al Davis first took over the failing Oakland franchise that had struggled to win only nine of 42 league games in the initial three seasons of the new AFL and pledged to build the finest organization in sports, the Raiders have totally dominated professional football in terms of consistent victory. During those memorable 46 years in Oakland and Los Angeles, the Raiders have won 396 league games, tied 11 and lost only 291.

“Commitment to Excellence” has never been an idle phrase to those who have proudly represented the Raider organization during the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and now the new millennium as shown by their domination of pro football.

Sixteen of the great players who proudly wore the Silver and Black, as well as Owner-Leader Al Davis and legendary Head Coach John Madden, have been enshrined in the Professional Football Hall of Fame. The Raiders have also produced five Pro Coaches of the Year.

In addition, 57 Pro Bowl players have made 169 Pro Bowl appearances representing the Silver and Black. In 1970, as the Raiders began their second decade of play, the merger between the AFL and NFL became a reality on the field. In the 1970 through 2008 period of interconference play, the Raiders have compiled a remarkable 87-58-1 record against present National Football Conference rivals.

Another innovation came to professional football in 1970 — “Monday Night Football.” The Raiders total domination of this prime-time television series has seen the Silver and Black build an incredible 36-24-1 record in Monday night play. In the 38 years of this series, the Raiders are 15-6-0 in “Monday Night Football” games at home.

For their five decades — the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and now the 2000s — the Raiders have had the greatest players, the greatest coaches, the greatest plays and participated in the greatest games in the annals of professional sports.

Challengers to Raider domination of professional football will arise as they have in the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and the new millennium. The Raider organization will continue to meet these challenges. The past has been glorious, but THE TRUE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS WILL CONTINUE IN ITS FUTURE.

RAIDERS OWNERS

AL DAVIS OWNER

An unyielding total commitment to excellence has marked the three-time World Champion Raiders monumental rise during the last 46 years to the very top of the professional sports world.

In these memorable 46 years, the Raiders have had 28 winning seasons, including 16 in a row from 1965 through the 1980 World Championship season. In 33 of those seasons, the Raiders earned a record of .500 or better.

Al Davis' six-decade professional football story, from assistant coach of the Chargers, to head coach and general manager of the Raiders, to Commissioner of the American Football League and finally to principal owner and president of the general partner of The Oakland Raiders — is a standard that no one in the history of professional football can match for winning and excellence.

In April 1966, the then 36-year-old Davis, head coach and general manager of the Raiders, became Commissioner of the American Football League. This was a post he accepted reluctantly, for first and foremost, Al Davis was a football coach and knew that assuming the Commissionership would in all probability mean an end to his coaching career.

But AFL owners, in their battle with the rival National Football League, prevailed on Davis to accept the position. He was described by AFL president and Buffalo Bills owner Ralph Wilson as “a coaching genius and astute administrator.”

Just eight weeks later, when pro football's two major leagues put an end to their six-year war, Davis was acclaimed nationally as the driving force who brought the leagues to merge. In 1969, he was once again a prime force in the dramatic realignment of professional football when two, 13-team conferences — the AFC and NFC — were formed for 1970.

As a member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee, Davis has been a major factor in achieving collective bargaining agreements with the players.

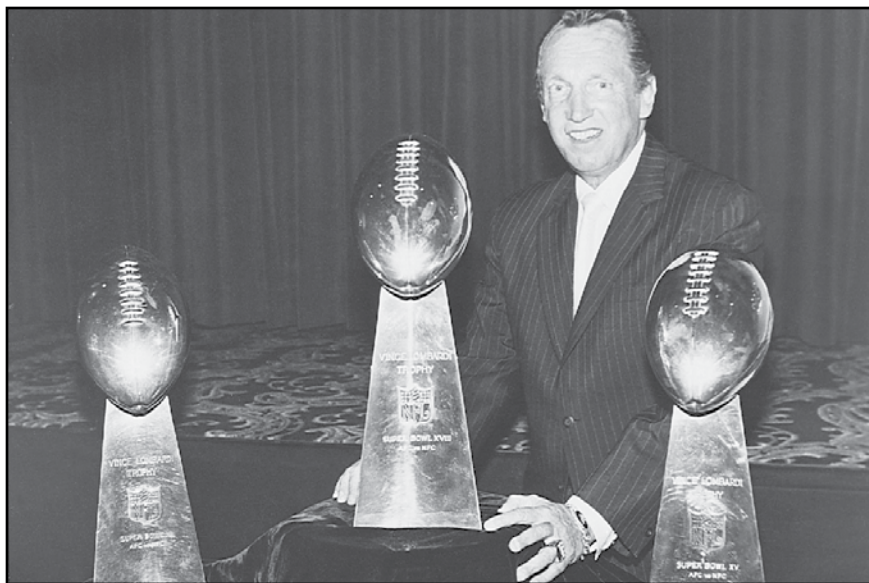

Al Davis first came to the Raiders in January 1963, dedicated to rescuing the faltering Oakland franchise and building the finest organization in professional sports. Just 33, Davis was the youngest man in pro football to hold the demanding dual positions of head coach and general manager.

But Davis already possessed 14 years coaching experience. He had been tabbed a “young coaching genius” by Sports Illustrated and “the most inventive mind in the country” by Scholastic Coach Magazine.

The Raiders — “picked to finish dead last” — thundered to a 10-4 record and just missed the Division Championship. In 1963, Davis was named Pro Football Coach of the Year.

Perhaps his most singular honor is having made a record nine presentations of inductees to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The nine great enshrinees to have selected Al Davis to make the presentation speeches on their behalf are Lance Alworth, Jim Otto, George Blanda, Willie Brown, Gene Upshaw, Fred Biletnikoff, Art Shell, Ted Hendricks and recently retired leading television football analyst John Madden.

Davis himself became enshrined on Aug. 1, 1992 when he was presented for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame by Madden.

In May of 1991, Al Davis became the very first recipient of the NFL Players Association's Retired Players Award of Excellence "for his contributions to the men who played the game."

Born July 4, 1929, Al Davis was raised in Brockton, Mass. and moved at an early age to Brooklyn, N.Y. He attended Wittenberg College and Syracuse University, earning a degree in English while participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Al Davis received a Letterman of Distinction Award from Syracuse University. In March of 1998, Davis was inducted into the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet," presented annually to "Individuals who have made significant contributions to the game of professional football."

On Dec. 29, 1999, the Oakland Tribune and the Alameda Newspaper Group named Al Davis as the Bay Area's most significant sports figure of the 20th Century on a list that included such greats as Joe Montana, Willie Mays, Joe DiMaggio and Bill Russell. The Orange Bowl inducted Davis into its Hall of Fame in 2001.

In 1950, Davis was named line coach at Adelphi College in New York. He then went into the Army, being assigned as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Va. There he molded a national power service team and capped one season by defeating the University of Maryland, National Collegiate Champions, in a squad game.

Davis next served on the staff of the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, at age 24, concentrating on player personnel work. During 1955-56, he was line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel. He then spent three years at the University of Southern California as line coach.

In 1960, head coach Sid Gillman hired Davis as offensive end coach of the newly formed Los Angeles Chargers. After two Division Championships in just three years there, it was on to meet the challenges with the Raiders of Oakland in 1963.

Based on personal achievement, team achievement and contributions to the game, no one has had a more profound and lasting impact on professional football. In recognition of his status in pro football annals, NFL Films produced a film entitled, "AL DAVIS, NO. 1 FOR ALL TIME."

SUPER BOWL RINGS

The Raiders World Championship rings — awarded to players, coaches, staff and owners after the dominating victories in Super Bowl XI, Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII — are renowned as the most memorable pieces of championship team jewelry ever produced.

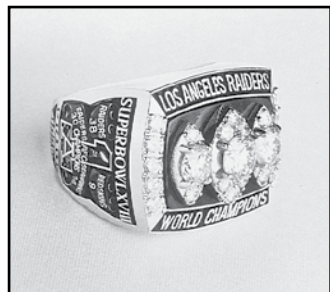

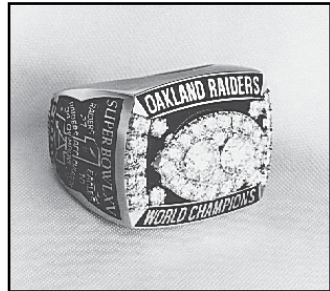

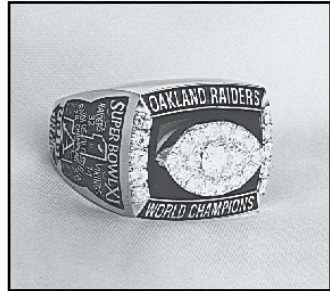

The rings were produced by Lenox Awards of St. Charles, Ill., whose staff developed creative concepts incorporating the explicit guidelines established by the Raiders — white gold, a raised football-shaped crest of diamonds on a black surface and a design based on “massive excellence” that would recognize these crowning achievements by the Raider organization.

The Super Bowl XI ring design, featuring a large center diamond and 26, five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Raiders Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach John Madden, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards artist Elliot Ingberg.

The Super Bowl XV ring design, featuring two large center diamonds to symbolize the two World Championships won within five years and 33, five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Brasher.

The Super Bowl XVIII ring design features three large diamonds to represent the three World Championships won within eight years, each centered in a football-shaped crest plus an additional 20, five-point diamonds.

The ring was developed by Al Davis, Tom Flores, Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Marzullo.

RAIDERS COACHES

TOM CABLE Head Coach

Tom Cable was named the 17th head coach of The Oakland Raiders by Owner Al Davis on Feb. 3, 2009. Cable served as the interim head coach for 12 games of the 2008 season following his appointment on Sept. 30, 2008 and led the Raiders to victories in the campaign's final two games. In addition to his duties as head coach, Cable tutored an offensive line that helped the Raiders rank 10th in the NFL in rushing.

"He was steadfast in his belief for the Raiders, steadfast in his passion for the Raiders," Davis said.

Cable, who has 22 years of coaching experience, including four as a head coach at the college level, joined the Raiders in 2007 as the offensive line coach. In 2007, Cable coached a Raiders offensive line that contributed to the Silver and Black finishing sixth in the NFL in both rushing and Inside-the-20 touchdown percentage.

"I'm honored to have the privilege and the responsibility to be the head coach of the Oakland Raiders," Cable said while being introduced as permanent head coach of the Silver and Black. "I look forward to getting to work and working hard to bringing a championship to Oakland. It is something that is dear to all of us, dear to the city and it is something that we will set out to do beginning now."

Cable, 44, spent the 2006 season as offensive line coach for Atlanta, where he tutored a unit that was the driving force behind helping the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing.

From 2004-05, Cable was both the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at UCLA, where he helped develop one of the most productive offensive units in the nation.

In 2005, Cable coordinated a UCLA offense that averaged 431 yards in total offense per game while earning 10 wins and a bowl berth. In 2004, the Bruin offense under Cable improved by more than 1,000 yards from the previous season while averaging 410 yards per game.

Cable was head coach of the University of Idaho from 2000-03. During his tenure at Idaho, his teams averaged 424.1 yards of total offense per game. Cable also spent two years at the University of Colorado.

In 1998, he served as the offensive line coach and the following year was promoted to offensive coordinator. Under his direction, the Buffaloes offense was ranked 14th in the nation in 1999, averaging 424.9 yards per game.

He spent six seasons (1992-97) as offensive line coach at the University of California, where he tutored four first team All-Pac-10 selections, including Jeremy Newberry, who played for the Raiders in 2007. Cable began his coaching career at his alma mater, serving as a graduate assistant at Idaho in 1987 and 1988.

He was a graduate assistant at San Diego State in 1989, defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1990 and offensive line coach at Nevada-Las Vegas in 1991. The Merced, Calif. native played four years at Idaho, three as a starting guard, and spent one season with the Indianapolis Colts before beginning his coaching career. Cable and his wife Carol have four children: Ryan, Amanda, Alex and Zach.

1989	Graduate Assistant, San Diego State
1987-88	Graduate Assistant, Idaho

DWAIN BOARD

Defensive Line

Dwaine Board is in his first season on the Raiders coaching staff. Board tutored the defensive line with the Seattle Seahawks from 2003-08. Before that, he spent 23 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, 10 as a player and 13 as an assistant coach. In 19 seasons as a coach, Board has tutored 10 players who went to the Pro Bowl and has coached one NFL Defensive Player of the Year. From 2005-07, Board's linemen helped Seattle rank second in the NFL with 136 sacks. His group generated 36 sacks in 2004 and in 2005, his unit contributed 32.5 of Seattle's NFL-leading 50 sacks. They also helped to allow just one 100-yard rusher, set the franchise mark by allowing only 94.4 rushing yards per game (fifth in the NFL) and ranked second in the NFL by allowing only five rushing touchdowns. Board made an immediate impact in his first season, helping improve Seattle's run defense from last in the NFL to 19th in 2003, the second-greatest turnaround in the NFL. He also helped the club rank fourth in the NFC and seventh in the NFL with 41 sacks. Board began his coaching career in 1990 as a defensive line assistant with San Francisco before being promoted to defensive line coach in 1994. Among those tutored by Board in San Francisco was DT Dana Stubblefield, who was named the 1997 NFL Defensive Player of the Year. A member of four World Championship San Francisco teams as a player and coach, Board recorded 61 career sacks and eight more in the postseason from 1979-88. His play in Super Bowl XIX earned him Defensive Player of the Game honors. A graduate of Franklin County (Va.) High, Board was a three-time All-America selection at North Carolina A&T and a fifth round draft choice of the Steelers in 1979. Following his release by Pittsburgh, Board signed with the 49ers and registered a team-leading seven sacks as a rookie in 1979. He retired following the 1988 campaign after joining the New Orleans Saints in midseason. The Rocky Mount, Va. native has three daughters, Camille, Allie and Tessa Raine.

WILLIE BROWN

Defensive Backs, Squad Development

Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Brown is in his 39th year with the Raiders and 15th season as director of squad development and defensive backs assistant. He was secondary coach for the Raiders from 1979-88, during which the team won two World Championships of Professional Football in Super Bowls XV and XVIII. He also coached the secondary in 1997 while serving as director of squad development. Brown was an assistant at Long Beach State before taking over as head coach in 1991. In 1994, he was head coach at Los Angeles Jordan High. Brown earned his master's degree in education at Long Beach State. He starred for the Raiders from 1967-78, beginning his pro career as a free agent with Houston. He spent 1963-66 with Denver before being traded to the Raiders. Brown played in 205 games and was chosen for three American Football League All-Star Games and four NFL Pro Bowls. He shares the Raider career interceptions record with 39, set the Super Bowl record for the longest interception return with a 75-yard TD in Super Bowl XI and is one of only two players to have intercepted at least one pass in 16 straight seasons. He intercepted 54 passes in his pro career and was selected to the AFL-NFL 25-Year All-Star Team. The Yazoo City, Miss. native starred at Grambling from 1959-62 and is a member of the Louisiana Sports, Grambling State, Southwestern Athletic Conference, Mississippi Sports, Black Sports and Bay Area Sports Halls of Fame. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1984. The Brown family includes wife Yvonne, two daughters and one son.

JOHN FASSEL

Special Teams Coordinator

John Fassel is in his second year with the Raiders coaching staff, the first in his current capacity. Before joining the Raiders, Fassel spent three years as the assistant special teams coach for the Baltimore Ravens. Fassel served in a special teams quality control role in 2008 where he helped tutor one of the top units in the NFL as the Raiders ranked ninth in the league in kickoff returns (receiving team) with an average start of 28.8 and 10th in the league in kickoff coverage (kicking team) with a 26.4 average start for opponents. As a punt return unit, he helped guide the Raiders to the second-best punt return average in the NFL at 13 yards per return. In addition, Fassel's unit contributed five touchdowns on returns and included punter Shane Lechler, who led the NFL with a 41.2 net punting average and earned a Pro Bowl berth. From 2005-07, Fassel was Baltimore's assistant special teams coach. He helped the Ravens to top-10 finishes in punt and kickoff return average in 2006 and 2007 and his units returned five kicks for touchdowns in two seasons. From 2003-04, he was the head coach and assistant athletic director at New Mexico Highlands University. Fassel also served six months as the school's interim athletic director and taught undergraduate and graduate courses. In 1999 and 2001, Fassel coached wide receivers and recruited for Bucknell. In Spring 2000, Fassel was the strength and conditioning and wide receivers coach for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe. After graduating from Weber State in 1999 with a degree in Exercise Science, Fassel signed as a rookie free agent wide receiver with the Indianapolis Colts. He earned a master's degree in Athletic Administration at Idaho State University, where he was a graduate assistant and sports science instructor from 2000-01. JOHN MARSHALL

Defensive Coordinator

John Marshall is in his first season with The Oakland Raiders as defensive coordinator. Marshall, who most recently served in the same capacity with the Seattle Seahawks, enters his 30th season as an NFL assistant coach. Since beginning his coaching career in 1967, Marshall has helped coach two Super Bowl Champions and one National Champion at the collegiate level. Since entering the NFL ranks in 1980, Marshall has assumed the defensive coordinator role five times: Atlanta (1983-85), San Francisco (1997-98), Carolina (1999-01), Seattle (2006-08) and now with the Raiders. Marshall began his tenure with the Seahawks as linebackers coach from 2003-05 before moving to defensive coordinator. He helped tutor a defense that ranked second in the NFL in sacks from 2005-07 with 136. In 2007, Marshall's defense led the NFL in touchdown passes allowed (15) and ranked fourth in the NFL with 20 interceptions. His defensive unit boasted four Pro Bowlers and two AP First Team All-Pros. Two players earned Pro Bowl selections under Marshall's tutelage in 2006 and one player earned a Pro Bowl spot in 2005. Marshall was elevated to the defensive coordinator position before the 2005 season. His defense led the NFL with 50 sacks, allowed only one 100-yard rusher, finished second in the NFL in red zone defense (40.4 percent) and rushing touchdowns allowed (five) en route to a berth in Super Bowl XL. Marshall joined the Seahawks after one season as an assistant defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions in 2002. Before Detroit, Marshall spent three seasons (1999-01) as the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. His defense ranked fourth in the NFL with 105 takeaways over his three-year tenure. Before Carolina, Marshall was part of two Super Bowl squads in San Francisco from 1989-98, working with the defensive line from 1989-93, linebackers from 1994-96 and two years as defensive coordinator from 1997-98. As defensive coordinator in 1997, he spearheaded the NFL's top-rated defense, second vs. the rush and pass, while helping send five players to the Pro Bowl. Marshall coached nearly a decade in the NFL before going to San Francisco, starting as the Green Bay Packers special teams coach in 1980 and taking over as linebackers coach in 1981. He served as defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons from 1983-85 and coached the defensive line of the Indianapolis Colts from 1986-88. Marshall's coaching career started as an assistant at Hancock (Calif.) Junior College in 1967 before holding several positions for the University of Oregon from 1968-76: freshman assistant coach (1968), freshman head coach (1969-71) and offensive line coach (1972-76). He then moved to the University of Southern California where he coached linebackers from 1977-79 and helped lead the Trojans to two Rose Bowl victories and the 1978 National Championship. In 1964, Marshall began his college playing career at Washington State before having his playing career cut short due to a neck injury. He went on to major in health education at the University of Oregon in 1969. Marshall and his wife, Becky, have two daughters, Sarah and Meg.

JIM MICHALCZIK

He attended Nebraska, where he played offense and defense, leading the Big Eight in scoring as a senior. McCloughan, 65, attended Broken Bow High and was all-state in basketball and All-America in both football and track and set a state record in the 220. McCloughan and his wife Elnora have three sons — including David, who played in the NFL, and Scot, both of whom are player personnel executives for the San Francisco 49ers.

KEITH ROWEN

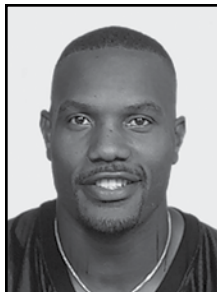

Player Personnel

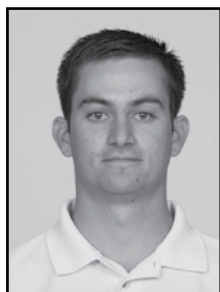

Keith Rowen is in his second year in player personnel with the Raiders and in his fourth season overall with the Silver and Black. Rowen, who coached offensive line for the Raiders from 1997-98, was tight ends coach for Atlanta in 2007. He also coached tight ends as well as offensive line and special teams for the Falcons from 1990-93. He was offensive coordinator for Arizona from 2005-06 and guided the Cardinals to the NFL's top rated passing offense in 2005. He coached tight ends for Kansas City from 1999-04 and the Minnesota Vikings offensive line from 1994-96. He was a three-year letterman at Stanford and was drafted by Philadelphia as an offensive lineman. Rowen began his coaching career at Stanford in 1975 and coached offensive line at Long Beach State (1978) and Arizona (1974-77). He coached the USFL's Boston/New Orleans Breakers from 1983-84 before joining Cleveland as running backs coach for one season. He then coached offensive line/special teams for Indianapolis from 1985-88 before spending a season with New England. Rowen, whose father, Vic, was a legendary coach at San Francisco State, holds a Master's from Stanford and a doctorate from Southern California. His family includes wife Kimberly and four children: Mandee, Holly, Kelly and Michael.

WILLIAM THOMAS

Player Personnel

William Thomas, who played 11 seasons in the NFL including his last two with the Raiders, re-joined the Silver and Black in 2008. Most recently, Thomas was on the coaching staff at La Salle University as a volunteer assistant working with linebackers. Thomas entered the NFL as a fourth round pick by Philadelphia in 1991 and spent nine seasons with the Eagles. He ended his career with 37 sacks and 27 interceptions and was a two-time Pro Bowler (1995-96). Thomas was the Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year and an All-American honorable mention pick as a senior when he led Texas A&M with 13 sacks. As a junior, he was All-American honorable mention after finishing second on the team with 8.5 sacks. A three-year starter, he played his final two seasons at linebacker after beginning as a free safety. Thomas was an all-conference defensive back as a senior while also seeing time on offense at Palo Duro High School in Amarillo, Texas. He was a sprinter in track and member of the school's relay team. He is married with three children.

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

For the sixth straight year, The Oakland Raiders, The Team of the Decades, will broadcast their games on KSFO 560 AM, the Bay Area's Talk Leader.

This year, Oakland Raiders broadcasts on KSFO will include extensive pre- and postgame shows as well as Raiders-specific programming during the week.

KSFO Radio has enjoyed a very successful relationship with Oakland Raiders football. The Raiders Commitment to Excellence and commitment to winning in 2009 is the quality of professional sports that KSFO is excited about presenting on the radio.

KSFO 560 AM is the Bay Area's Talk Leader, committed to presenting "The News and Views You Won't Hear Anywhere Else" along with Oakland Raiders football. KSFO Radio is the talk radio station broadcasting at 560 AM in San Francisco, throughout Northern California and online at www.KSFO.com.

Greg Papa returns for his 13th season broadcasting the Silver and Black. Papa also serves the Bay Area as the radio and television voice of the San Francisco Giants after previously handling broadcast duties for the Oakland Athletics. Papa got his start in broadcasting in 1984 as the Indiana Pacers back-up announcer and in 1986, did play-by-play for the Golden State Warriors.

Papa will once again team up with former Raiders quarterback and Head Coach Tom Flores. Flores is one of only two people in NFL history to have a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He earned his rings as a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl IV, as a Raiders assistant coach in Super Bowl XI and as a head coach of the Silver and Black in Super Bowls XV and XVIII.

Raiders Legends George Atkinson and David Humm will again collaborate on the pre- and postgame shows, as will KSFO Radio's Rich Walcoff.

RAIDERS SPANISH / NAVAJO RADIO

Raiders fans can listen to veteran broadcasters Armando Botello and Angel Dinamita call the action on KZSF 1370 AM — “La Kaliente,” the official flagship Spanish radio station for the Oakland Raiders 2009 season.

La Kaliente is a full power radio station based in San Jose and covers the entire Bay Area. One of the most listened to radio stations in the Bay Area for its variety of programming, air personalities and its format content which is Hispanic Regional Mexican, La Kaliente has almost 100 hours of sports shows per month, plus talk shows and music. La Kaliente is also the official station of Chivas Mexican Championship Soccer Team, broadcasting all of their games live directly from Mexico.

Botello enters his fourth season as part of the Raiders Spanish radio broadcasts and will be in charge of the color analyst duties this season. With more than 30 years of experience, Botello has held positions ranging from television to print to radio in Sacramento's local media scene. Botello has served as the Spanish radio play-by-play announcer for the Sacramento Kings for the past 11 years. He has co-hosted “Voz y Voto,” a weekly political television show broadcast by the Unvision Network throughout California. He was inducted into the California Chicano News Media Association Hall of Fame in 2002.

Dinamita enters his third season with the Raiders as part of the Raiders Spanish radio broadcasts and will be the play-by-play announcer this season. He's currently on KSTN-FM's “La Ponderosa” and is the station's operations manager. Born in Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua Mexico, Dinamita has won various awards during his career including “DJ of the Year” in 1996.

Popular Los Angeles radio personality Victor Zaragoza along with veteran journalist Sal Acevedo are each entering their third season as the Spanish radio team's sideline reporters.

Zaragoza, a 20-year radio veteran, currently hosts a morning show at Hot 92.3 in Los Angeles.

Acevedo is editor-in-chief for Primer Round Magazine and Boxingtimes.com en Español as well as a feature writer and radio reporter for Fightbeat.com.

RAIDERS IN NAVAJO

The Oakland Raiders will broadcast one 2009 home game — Nov. 15 vs. Kansas City — in Navajo through an agreement with KTNN 660 AM. Ten Raider games have been broadcast in Navajo over the past four seasons — two in 2008, four in 2007, two in 2006 and two in 2005. L.A. Williams and Ray Tsosie, both award-winning newscasters, will again call the action.

L.A. WILLIAMS

RAY TSOSIE

Williams, KTNN's sports and rodeo director, began her broadcasting career with KTNN in 1993 and since then has broadcast a variety of sports including football, basketball and volleyball. Williams recently brought home a gold medal for Outstanding Media Coverage at the North American Indigenous games in Denver.

Tsosie, who's considered a Navajo Nation radio icon, was named outstanding newscaster in 1999 by the Arizona Broadcasting Association for his work in broadcasting Navajo news. Tsosie burst upon the broadcasting scene when he took the opportunity to host the KTNN 660 AM morning show. KTNN, “The Voice of the Navajo Nation,” broadcasts a 50,000-watt clear channel signal from its Window Rock, Ariz. studio that reaches the entire western United States and Northern Mexico.

RAIDERS TV

Silver and Black Productions, the Raiders in-house television production operation, provides viewers with innovative, cutting edge and behind-the-scenes content devoted solely to The Oakland Raiders. Two dynamic television shows air in the Bay Area as well as in additional television outlets throughout California, Oregon, and Nevada. These shows feature the personalities that make up the NFL's most dynamic organization.

In 2009, popular radio personality JT the Brick will again join the Raiders television broadcasting team for the preseason. JT the Brick will be joined with The Voice of the Oakland Raiders, Greg Papa; two-time Super Bowl winning Head Coach Tom Flores; Super Bowl XV MVP Jim Plunkett and Super Bowl XI Championship-winning defensive back George Atkinson. The cast will not only provide inside analysis of the Raiders as they make final preparations for the season, but relive some great moments of the Raiders 50 seasons of excellence.

"The Silver and Black Show" consists of an in-depth, comprehensive, week-by-week analysis of the Raiders throughout the 2009 NFL season. The show also offers a retrospective look at the previous week's Raiders game and a breakdown of the upcoming contest with a look at the matchups. Features on players past and present are part of the cutting-edge program profiling the Silver and Black. Papa hosts the half-hour show alongside Plunkett.

"The Raiders Report" is a half-hour long show which combines analysis and a behind the scenes look at the Oakland Raiders hosted by JT the Brick with further analysis from Papa and Plunkett. "The Raiders Report" focuses on longer, in-depth pieces featuring the Team of the Decades. All shows are produced by the Raiders own Silver and Black Productions. The shows originate from Silver and Black Productions state-of-the-art production facility located within the Raiders 100,000-square foot Alameda facility. Archived episodes can be found online at www.raiders.com.

The Raiders were among the first professional sports teams to launch an official web site when the team went online in 1995. Since then, the site has evolved into one of the top online destinations in sports.

In late 2002, the Raiders broke new ground again with the launch of Raiders en Español (www.raidersenespanol.com), the first complete Spanish-language web site in the NFL. Raiders.com also offers original and translated content in Chinese, German, Japanese and Tagalog. The official web site of the Silver and Black is the first and only official team web site in the NFL to offer original content in six different languages.

In March 2007, www.raiders.com was re-launched, the first such undertaking since August 2002. In April 2008, www.raidersenespanol.com was re-launched for the first time since its inception. Both sites feature new technology and content. Raiders.com continues to provide comprehensive photography, official press releases, transactions, player biographies, profiles on current and former players and team personnel, press conference video and more.

During games, fans can access the Raiders.com Game Center and check out live updates, view action photos and listen to a live audio stream from the Raiders flagship radio station — KSFO 560. Comprehensive game recaps, postgame press conferences and complete game statistics are available after each game.

In addition, complete NFL Draft, team mini-camp, training camp and Raiderette coverage can be found at www.raiders.com. Since 2004, the team has offered live coverage of the NFL Draft in English and Spanish.

In 2009, The Official Web Site of The Oakland Raiders — www.raiders.com — and its sister site — www.raidersenespanol.com — will continue to use cutting edge technology to provide the Raider Nation with news, information, team history and entertainment, offering visitors an in-depth, state-of-the-art look at the Silver and Black.

THE RAIDER IMAGE

THE RAIDER IMAGE, LLC (The Image) is the official team shop of The Oakland Raiders. All stores are owned and operated by The Oakland Raiders out of the team's headquarters in Alameda. The Image began as a retail catalog while the team was in Los Angeles.

In addition, The Image currently operates 16 brick and mortar locations throughout California.

The Raider Image online store opened for business in September 1999 on the Raiders official web site, Raiders.com. The Image e-commerce store provides the best selection of Raider merchandise to Raider fans around the world. In August 2000, the Raiders followed up their Internet success with their first store located in Southland Mall in Hayward, giving Bay Area fans an opportunity to shop in a store dedicated to Raiders merchandise.

There are six Bay Area Raider Image locations — including Hegenberger Gateway in Oakland, Oakridge Mall in San Jose, Sunvalley Mall in Concord, Southland Mall in Hayward, NewPark Mall in Newark and West Gate Center in San Leandro.

The Image has also expanded outside of the Bay Area with stores in Arden Fair Mall in Sacramento, Fashion Fair Mall in Fresno, Weberstown Mall in Stockton, Solano Mall in Fairfield and Roseville Galleria in Roseville. To serve our Southern California fans, locations were opened at Lakewood Mall, Montebello Town Center, Ontario Mills and Moreno Valley Mall. In addition, The Image added a new twist with the June 2003 opening of its Signature Store at Universal City Walk in Universal City.

The successful chain of stores will continue to expand to meet the growing needs of Raider fans around the world.

THE OAKLAND RAIDERS FACILITY

The Oakland Raiders permanent facility sits on approximately 13 acres in the Harbor Bay Business and Research Park in Alameda. The state-of-the-art facility is located just west of the Oakland International Airport, about one mile from the team's former training facility on Doolittle Drive in Oakland and about three miles from the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

The 100,000-square foot facility houses the team's executive and administrative offices as well as coaches offices, player meeting rooms, locker rooms, training facility, television and radio studios and media center. Three full-sized practice fields are located on the property. The Silver and Black moved football and business operations into the facility in mid-June 1996 and in 1997, major improvements and renovations were made at the facility to suit the team's present needs. In 2002, the Raiders installed FieldTurf, an all-weather, state-of-the-art synthetic turf.

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM

Oakland Raiders home games are played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum in Oakland. The Coliseum opened on Sept. 18, 1966 with the Raiders playing hosts to the Kansas City Chiefs. The Coliseum, located three miles from Oakland International Airport, was built by the City of Oakland and Alameda County.

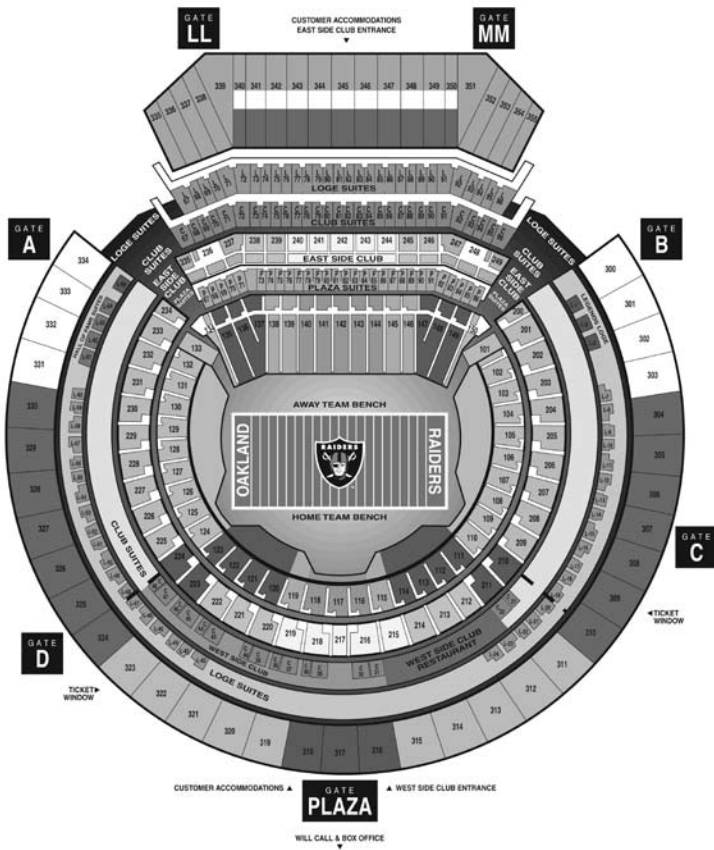

The all-time Coliseum record for football attendance is 62,748 fans on Jan. 14, 2001, when the Raiders played hosts to the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Championship Game.

The Coliseum underwent a major renovation that began during the Raiders 1995 season. The remodeled Coliseum's capacity is now 63,132, including added luxury suites, club levels, two new club lounges, new locker rooms, remodeled press box, new video scoreboards and additional amenities. The playing surface is natural grass. Nearly 100 million people have passed through the turnstiles of the Coliseum, which rests on 120 acres. Originally known as the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, it was re-named Network Associates Coliseum in October 1998, then was re-named McAfee Coliseum in 2005. The Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum reverted to its original name in 2008.

RAIDERS TRAIN IN NAPA

The Oakland Raiders are now in their 14th year of summer training in Napa, Calif. The Raiders are housed at the Napa Valley Marriott Hotel and Conference Center with practice sessions held at the adjacent Redwood Middle School.

The state-of-the-art facility located in the Napa Valley has two, 100-yard practice fields with an additional 50-yard field.

The Raiders summer training facility also consists of a 10,000-square foot field house that includes locker rooms, showers, training and equipment quarters. There's an additional 3,000-square foot outdoor weight training area.

The facilities serve the Raiders during the summer training camp period and are available for Napa youth activities and other community functions during the year.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news or sports organization. All credential requests must be issued to the Raiders Public Relations Department on the official Credential Request Form. The Credential Request Form can be faxed or emailed to you by request via email (raiderspr@raiders.com). Please send all completed forms to: 2009 MEDIA CREDENTIALS, c/o Oakland Raiders, 1220 Harbor Bay Parkway, Alameda, Calif. 94502 or by fax to 510-864-5160, and email all headshots to raiderspr@raiders.com. All season-long requests must be received by Aug. 1 prior for the 2009 season and all game-by-game requests must be received by noon, Monday, prior to the home game.

PARKING: Media parking is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to stadium parking. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Ron Little (rlittle@coliseum.com) at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum at 510-383-4817 to secure locations.

MEDIA WILL CALL: The Media Will Call booth is located on the east side of the "F" parking lot in a kiosk. Each person must pick up their own credential and present corresponding photo identification. Media Will Call will open three hours before the scheduled kickoff. Club entrance and west side customer accommodations and will be clearly marked. Media credentials will not be honored at any other gate. All media must check in at the media entrance before entering the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Individuals and their belongings will be searched upon entry into the stadium.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: The media entrance is located on the Plaza Level between the West Side Club entrance and West Side customer accommodations and will be clearly marked. Media credentials will not be honored at any other gate. All media must check in at the media entrance before entering the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Individuals and their belongings will be searched upon entry into the stadium.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Individuals will need to present a valid credential to access the media dining room. The media dining room is located on Level 1 of the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum and can be accessed by via the press elevator.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. All media (photographers, videographers and sideline reporters) staying on the field during the game must wear a vest which can be obtained at Media Will Call.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Raiders Head Coach Tom Cable conducts his postgame news conference in a room adjacent to the Raiders locker room. Selected players will also be brought into the interview room following the game. The opponent's head coach and selected players will be available in the interview room located adjacent to the visitor's locker room.

PRESS BOX, SERVICES: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on Level 3 accessed by the press elevator. Programs, lineups, depth charts, statistics and game notes are provided. Game stats are provided at the end of each quarter. Complete team and individual statistics, lineups and substitutions, scoring summary, coaches and players comments and quarter summaries are available after the game. If postgame faxing of final stats or play-by-play is needed, contact a member of the Raiders P.R. staff. There is a nominal charge for faxing postgame stats, as agreed upon by the Pro Football Writers Association.
