COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

AL DAVIS

July 4, 1929 – Oct. 8, 2011

Al Davis, a true legend, was a maverick, a giant among giants, a star among stars, a hero, a mentor and a friend.

When Davis passed away during the 2011 season, football lost an innovator, a pioneer with a deep love and passion for the game, a man who most assuredly will never be forgotten or duplicated. A Pro Football Hall of Famer who arguably did more to change the game than any other individual, Davis was honored the day after his passing with a moment of silence at every NFL stadium.

At one of those venues, Houston's Reliant Stadium, Davis' players took the field without his guidance for the first time in 17,710 days. And in one of so many franchise games for the ages, this comeback featuring key contributions from three of his first-round draft choices, the Raiders that day honored Davis by doing what he cared about most – they won.

"Just win," Davis once said. "Play hard. Try not to make mistakes, but don't worry about mistakes because there's only one thing that counts: Just win."

Before that win in Houston, Davis' death spawned an overwhelming outpouring of statements from football executives, coaches and players, past and present. A clear common thread in those expressions of remembrance was that anyone with any level of affinity for football should acknowledge that the game would not be what it is without Davis.

That's not just because Davis held the titles of general manager, head coach, league commissioner and principal owner, and led the Raiders to more wins than any other team. The game would not be what it is because, through his unyielding efforts to build the finest franchise in sports, Davis broke social barriers, creating opportunities for countless individuals, and cared selflessly about people, treating them the way they wanted to be treated. No one has had a more profound and lasting impact on pro football.

SEEDS OF GENIUS...

Fifty years ago this season, on Jan. 15, 1963, the American Football League Raiders made a 33-year-old Davis the youngest general manager and head coach in pro history. And before the budding genius called his first play, Davis took complete control over all phases of the franchise, including changing Oakland's uniform colors to silver and black, to resemble the great Army teams he had idolized during the 1940s, and re-branded the Raiders into an image that is today instantly recognized worldwide.

"If there's anything that we've done that I'm particularly proud of," Davis recalled later in his life, "I would have to say the perpetuation of the greatness of the Raiders; to take a professional football team and give it a distinct characteristic, that's different from all others."

That characteristic in his first season on the Raiders sideline became forever linked to winning. Davis earned Coach of the Year honors after leading the Raiders, 1-13 the season before, to the most significant year-to-year improvement in pro football history, a 10-4 mark. Although he sacrificed his coaching career to become AFL Commissioner following the 1965 season, the profession always remained important to him, partly because it served as the foundation for his contributions to football.

That foundation was first poured in his hometown, the borough of Brooklyn, N.Y., where he played basketball and learned some of his unshakeable principles under Coach Al Badain at Erasmus Hall High School.

Davis graduated with a degree in English literature from Syracuse University, which later honored him with a Letterman of Distinction award, and shortly after, in 1950, launched his career as line coach at Adelphi College.

After entering the Army in 1952, Davis served as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Va. There, he molded a national power, finishing with a win over Maryland, the reigning national champion.

Davis worked in the player personnel office of the Baltimore Colts for one year (1954), then spent two seasons (1955-56) as line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel, before becoming in 1957 the University of Southern California's line coach.

His next job didn't take him very far, moving across town from USC to the Los Angeles Chargers of the new AFL, but the move to pro football was a major step. Hired by Sid Gillman in 1960 as the Chargers' offensive ends coach, Davis helped the team to a pair of division titles in just three years.

That rise gave Davis the opportunity to lead his own team in 1963. Several factors influenced his head-coach blueprints. In addition to his coaching career, the precision of the Black Knights of the Hudson, their quickness and explosion with Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis, left an indelible impression on Davis growing up. He also took several chapters from another sport.

"As a young guy," he said, "I had a dream that someday I would build the finest organization in professional sports. I had a lot of thoughts on how I would do it. I had the inspiration of two great organizations when I was growing up.

"The Yankees to me personified the size of the players, power, the home run, and intimidation and fear. Very important characteristics to me of what I thought a great team and a great organization should have. The Dodgers, under Branch Rickey, were totally different in my mind. They represented speed. They represented development of players, a way of playing the game, the Dodger way of playing the game. And I always thought that someone intelligent could take all the qualities, the great qualities of both, and put them together and use them."

In addition to those qualities, he also instilled in the Raiders tenets that were all his own, and in the process, he revolutionized pro football.

"When we came out of the huddle," he remembered about his Raiders, "we weren't looking for first downs. We didn't want to move the chains. We wanted touchdowns. We wanted the big play, the quick strike. It's No. 1 to say that you want to do that, it's No. 2 to say that you have the players to do it, but it's No. 3 to do it. Do it on first down of any football game, on that defense that you're playing against. For those cornerbacks that play out there on the corners, to know that the Raiders are coming at you, they're coming at you on top, they've got the speed to do it, and they will do it. It's like having the bomb and being willing to drop it. The adage that goes around in professional football, and I hear everyone say it, 'Take what they give you.' That all sounds good to everybody, but I always went the other way: We're going to take what we want."

On the other side of the line, Davis also wanted to attack, to put pressure on the pocket, and do more than just disrupt the offense physically.

"I do believe that this is a game, psychologically, of intimidation and of fear. I don't mean cowardly fear, but fear. I think this: That somewhere within the first five to 10 plays of the game that the other team's quarterback must go down, and he must go down hard. That alone sets the tempo for a game."

Once that tempo was established, taking a cue from college basketball, Davis was the first to utilize his cornerbacks in a bump-and-run principle. "We used to call it the press. We got the idea from John Wooden, when he had his great zone press, with his great basketball teams, where they picked you up as soon as you took the ball out, and they pressured you. And we got the idea and called it press. And then I think Don Shula started calling it bump-and-run, so we changed to bump-and-run."

Davis' vision to see where the game was headed, or to pave a new road to winning, led future successful coaches like Bill Parcells and Bill Belichick to regard Davis as the NFL's most intelligent individual.

From 1963-2002, the Raiders dominated pro football, posting the game's best cumulative won-loss record. Earning the moniker "Team of the Decades", the franchise posted 17 winning seasons over an 18-year stretch from 1963-80. The Raiders then posted 11 more winning campaigns from 1982-2002, including double-digit wins in 1983, 1984, 1985, 1990, 1993, 2000, 2001 and 2002. All told under Davis, the Raiders won four league championships -- Super Bowls XI, XV and XVIII and the 1967 AFL title.

FROM HEAD COACH TO COMMISSIONER, TO MERGER...

Persuaded by American Football League owners who viewed him as the perfect person to lead their battle against the established NFL, Davis reluctantly became league commissioner on April 8, 1966. Remarkably, Davis would spend less than 16 weeks in that role, but the shots his administration fired during that short period still reverberate today.

For the first half of the 1960s, the AFL and NFL fought a tenacious fight for college talent, but they battled with a significant unwritten rule that veterans were off limits. A little more than a month after Davis took office, the NFL's New York Giants violated that rule, signing veteran Buffalo kicker Pete Gogolak. As longtime Raiders executive Al LoCasale remembered, the NFL took a shot with a revolver and Davis shot back using a machine gun.

Davis passionately and strategically convinced AFL owners to go after established NFL stars. In a short period, the AFL had signed many of the NFL's veteran playmakers, including the NFL's leading passer John Brodie, and Roman Gabriel from the Los Angeles Rams.

"We had about four or five quarterbacks all lined up," Davis said. "Three or four of their other great players had already signed. It was a preliminary strike to let them know what's going to happen if they continue this."

Within months, the two leagues had agreed to a merger that formed the league familiar to today's fans, including as part of the agreement a world championship game now known as the Super Bowl. Having served as the driving force behind that merger, Davis resigned on July 25, 1966, returned to Oakland as head of football operations and purchased an interest in the franchise. Davis, who became managing general partner in 1972, teamed with head-coach successors John Rauch, John Madden and Tom Flores in building a stalwart that would become the league's most successful franchise.

A CHAMPION OF DIVERSITY AND EQUALITY

A trailblazer, Davis innovated not only how the game was played and coached, but also changed who held those roles, opening countless doors for qualified individuals, regardless of skin color.

Davis was 17 when, a short distance from his home, Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier in Major League Baseball. Shortly after, at Syracuse, Davis befriended Bernie Custis, who would fight racism and become pro football's first African-American quarterback. At USC, Davis started recruiting players from historically black colleges, and convinced future Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Wood to remain at the school as the Trojans' quarterback. Wood and Ron Mix became the school's first inter-racial co-captains, and Davis helped Mix understand how athletics could serve as a leader in ushering needed social change.

With the Chargers, Davis teamed with Gillman to lead the fight for equality. In addition to refusing to stay at segregated team hotels, the team inspired by Davis recruited players from historically black programs, creating what Eddie Robinson called a new day for players of color, giving them a sense of belonging in the American Football League.

Later that decade, Davis brought to the Raiders guard Gene Upshaw and tackle Art Shell, eventual Hall of Famers. Upshaw and Shell joked that a convention of pro football's African-American offensive lineman could be held in a phone booth. But Davis gave them an opportunity, and Upshaw said he never experienced racism on the Raiders because Davis would never tolerate it.

And neither would Davis tolerate discrimination at the game's most important position. A year after Upshaw as a rookie helped the Raiders to an AFL championship, Davis in 1968 made Eldridge Dickey the first African-American quarterback ever selected in the first round. Again, Davis cared about one thing: Winning.

"We called it an untapped reservoir," Davis recalled. "We wanted to win. We wanted the players. We weren't interested in who they were, or exactly where they came from. I've always said, it's not important to be consistent; it's important to be right. It was done because it was right and fair, and to help the team win, and continue to win.

"The Raiders did become a proving ground for great minority players. I think it was an evolution, an evolution of equity and fairness, and we hope that's one legacy we leave."

Another legacy Davis left was hiring in 1989 the NFL's first African-American head coach, Shell. Davis told Shell the reason he hired him was not because he was black, but because he was the best available candidate for the job, and because he was a Raider. Upon winning his coaching debut, Shell had to remind reporters that he was not the game's first minority head coach. A decade before, Davis had hired Tom Flores to lead the Raiders to two Super Bowl victories. Additionally, Davis made Amy Trask the NFL's first female chief executive.

THE RAIDER MYSTIQUE

To Davis, shattering barriers wasn't only about race or gender. He defined it on a larger scale, by creating an environment that allowed any individual the chance to succeed, and in the process fostered a unique brotherhood.

"The fire that burns brightest in me," Davis said, "and the fire that burns brightest in this organization is the will to win."

That philosophy evolved the Raiders' locker room into an us-versus-them mentality, a group that like its owner valued being feared more than respected. Davis brought in mavericks and molded them into champions, a group of rugged and colorful individualists that carried Davis' torch with swagger and intimidation.

Many of the players that won for the Raiders were rejected by other teams. But Davis did not treat them like misfits. He treated them like men, and those men brought him three Super Bowl titles and dominated the league like no other team.

"We may take a player in who doesn't have good social habits, or has been a failure somewhere else," Davis explained. "But it's predicated on bringing them into an environment, that can inspire them the will to do great, and they have done great."

A BELIEF IN HOW TO TREAT PEOPLE

Part of Davis' ability to acquire the right players and put them in an environment that bred success was his belief in how to deal with people. Davis always said that the Golden Rule was not good enough.

"When you have to lead men, you don't do unto others as you would have others do unto you," Davis said. "You do unto them, in a paramilitary situation, as they want to be done unto. You have to treat them the way they want to be treated."

That way of treating people led friends and former players to remember Davis as the epitome of loyalty. And in turn, he showed the rest of the NFL how to treat former players. Of all the awards he received, the recognition from men that played the game meant the most to Davis. In 1997, the NFL Alumni inducted Davis into the Order of the Leather Helmet, a lifetime-achievement award. Six years earlier, the NFL Players Association honored Davis with its inaugural Retired Players Award of Excellence, citing the care he had shown players long after they retired.

"I feel we're one of the last bastions of hope, as a team image, as a team organization," Davis explained. "I don't want to give that up with the Raiders. We believe in tradition. We believe in the glory. We believe in the debt we owe to our players from the past."

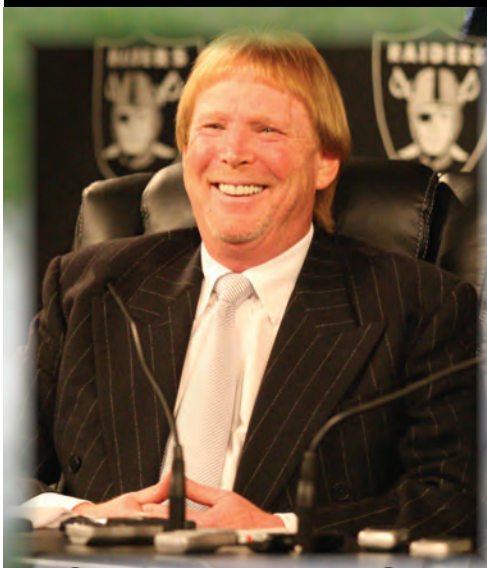

No question, the way Davis treated people led to a record nine Hall of Famers asking him to present them at induction in Canton, Ohio, at their induction ceremonies, an exceptional fact that exists nowhere else in sports, and speaks volumes of Davis' compassion for others.

In 1992, Davis earned his own enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and for the first time stood at the familiar podium after someone else – his most successful Raiders coach, Madden – had introduced him. Davis took the opportunity to look back on the team that mirrored his life.

"Enshrinement is a reflection of a life's work, a reflection of a love affair with the greatest game the world has ever known. This honor is a testament to a great organization, and to all the capable people that have poured their talent and enthusiasm and loyalty into the greatness of the Raiders, and the Raiders legend and mystique."

Reggie McKENZIE

GENERAL MANAGER

27th season in NFL
Sixth season with Raiders

Reggie McKenzie enters his 27th season in the National Football League, his second as General Manager of the Oakland Raiders. Named to his position by Mark Davis on Jan. 10, 2012, McKenzie is the first General Manager of the Raiders since the franchise hired Al Davis as Head Coach and General Manager in 1963.

In his first year as General Manager of the Silver and Black, McKenzie oversaw significant changes in the organization's scouting, player personnel and football operations departments. McKenzie's evaluation and leadership capabilities have already earned plaudits from some of the most respected voices in football.

McKenzie, a Raiders draft pick who played for the Silver and Black from 1985-88, re-joined the franchise after 18 years in the Green Bay Packers personnel department. Since hiring McKenzie in 1994, the Packers captured eight division titles and three conference championships, and won Super Bowls XXXI and XLV.

A key component in acquiring talent, McKenzie was paramount in helping Green Bay establish the league's second-best record, 194-110 (.638), trailing only New England (198-106, .651) since the 1993 dawn of free agency and the salary cap, a period many observers predicted would send the small-market franchise into a downward spiral.

In Green Bay, McKenzie oversaw the team's scouting efforts of all professional football leagues, including the NFL, CFL and Arena Football League. He also played a key role in evaluating both players on the roster and potential free agents across the league.

Building crucial depth, McKenzie was heavily involved in all of the team's transactions and tryouts on a daily basis, including 2010, when the Packers won the Lombardi Trophy despite losing six opening-day starters – and 15 overall -- to season-ending injuries. Also central in signing free agents Ryan Pickett and Charles Woodson, the 2009 Defensive Player of the Year, his work produced several contributors in the run to the Super Bowl XLV crown. A decade earlier, McKenzie helped obtain Eugene Robinson, Santana Dotson, Bruce Wilkerson and Desmond Howard, significant cogs in the Packers' Super Bowl XXXI title.

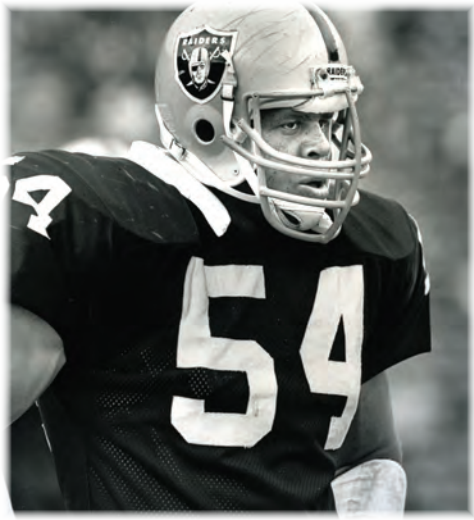

In recent years, including the team's world championship campaign in 2010 and its 15-1 regular season in 2011, McKenzie produced advance scouting reports on upcoming opponents, working closely with the head coach and his staff. He also contributed to the scouting of college prospects and worked in conjunction with general manager Ted Thompson in preparation for the annual draft. Green Bay promoted him to director–football operations in 2008.

McKenzie, 50, was an NFL linebacker for seven seasons (1985-90, 1992) before entering the coaching ranks. He joined Green Bay in 1994 as a pro personnel assistant, hired by former Raiders executive Ron Wolf, then-Executive Vice President/General Manager of the Packers. Wolf met McKenzie, then a University of Tennessee graduate assistant, while in Knoxville to scout future Raider Charlie Garner. Wolf promoted McKenzie to director of pro personnel in May 1997, after Green Bay won Super Bowl XXXI.

Selected by the Silver and Black as a 10th-round draft pick out of Tennessee in 1985, McKenzie excelled in his first year, earning All-Rookie Team honors as the Raiders went 12-4 and won the AFC West. He started all 32 games over his first two seasons at inside linebacker. After four years (1985-88) with the Raiders, McKenzie spent two seasons (1989-90) with the Phoenix Cardinals and one year with the San Francisco 49ers (1992).

Prior to signing with the 49ers, he played with the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football (WLAF) in the spring of 1992. While out of football in 1991, McKenzie spent a season as a defensive coach for Dorsey High School in Los Angeles, helping the program to a CIF Los Angeles Section championship.

In 1993, McKenzie returned to Tennessee and served as an assistant under Philip Fulmer. That year, the Volunteers appeared in the Florida Citrus Bowl and landed one of the nation's top recruiting classes, highlighted by QB Peyton Manning. While back in Knoxville, McKenzie also pursued a master's degree in education administration.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., on Feb. 8, 1963, McKenzie earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in personnel management at Tennessee. An all-state linebacker and a four-sport letterman at Austin East High School in Knoxville, McKenzie was valedictorian of his 1981 graduating class, despite throwing the shot and discus for his track team, playing baseball (first base) and basketball (forward), and starting on both sides of the line on the gridiron. His twin brother, Raleigh, also attended Tennessee and enjoyed a 16-year NFL career before retiring in 2001, and joining his brother in the Raiders' personnel department as a college scout.

Reggie and his wife, June, have two daughters, Jasmin, a student at Wheaton College pursuing a degree in elementary education, and Mahkayla a student at Duke University pursuing a degree in civil engineering. He also has two sons, Reginald Kahlil and Jalen Elijah.

ON REGGIE MCKENZIE

"No one can replace Al Davis. But as far as evaluating talent and getting the Raiders back to where they were, Reggie will do a good job.

"He is an exceptional evaluator of talent. Just has a great skill for it, especially for guys already in the NFL who might be flying under the radar. He was my right-hand man for all those years, a big reason why the Packers were good all those years. He just has a real gift, very rare, and I think it's going to be special for Raiders fans to see that. I would think, knowing what his approach is going to be and how important it is to get quality football players, he will do that there."

--Longtime Raiders executive and former Packers General Manager Ron Wolf

"If you had a question about the defense or the scheme, you could ask Reggie. He was always prepared. He was quiet, he listened and he learned,''

-- Jerry Robinson, former Raiders linebacker and teammate

"Reggie's not going to be polarizing. He'll be able to blend the people that are there, and he'll take charge when he has to take charge. You don't have to rule with an iron fist. You build a consensus, listen to people, and then make the tough decision. Reggie can do all those things."

--Matt Millen, former Raiders linebacker and teammate

FRONT OFFICE EXECUTIVES

DIRECTOR - PLAYER PERSONNEL

Joey Clinkscales came to the Silver and Black in 2012 after serving 17 seasons with the New York Jets, most recently as vice president–college scouting. With the Jets, Clinkscales oversaw the entire college scouting operation and worked with the football staff annually to prepare for the NFL Draft. Clinkscales was promoted to national scout by the Jets in 2002 after serving as a southeast region scout. A former wide receiver for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1987) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1988), Clinkscales joined the Jets from National Football Scouting, where he worked as a scout. A former Tennessee Volunteer, Clinkscales and Reggie McKenzie were teammates in college and high school. The Asheville, N.C., native was a part-time scout for the Steelers from 1989-93.

Tom DELANEY

DIRECTOR - FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Tom Delaney enters his 14th year with the Raiders and his second as director–football administration. Delaney is responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap. He's also involved in maintaining the team's compliance with NFL and Management Council regulations, and roster management. The native of Pleasanton, Calif., holds a math degree from UC Davis and worked in asset management as a financial analyst prior to joining the Raiders. His wife's name is Evelyn.

Shaun HEROCK

DIRECTOR - COLLEGE SCOUTING

Shaun Herock joined the Raiders in 2012 after serving 19 years with the Green Bay Packers, 18 working with Reggie McKenzie and 11 as the team's assistant director of college scouting. Herock, who begins his 25th overall year in scouting, became a full-time scout for the Packers in 1994. A former Raiders ball boy, he began his career with the Atlanta Falcons from 1989-92 before joining the Packers initially as a summer intern in the scouting department. Herock was a four-year letterman at Richmond, playing center and tackle during his collegiate career. He graduated from Richmond with a degree in sociology. Herock's father, Ken, played four seasons for the Raiders and enjoyed a long NFL career in personnel, including a significant role in helping to build the Raiders' Super Bowl XI championship team.

Dennis ALLEN

HEAD COACH

College: Texas A&M
Hometown: Hurst, Texas
High School: L.D. Bell (Hurst, Texas)

12th season as NFL coach
Second season with Raiders

When Dennis Allen became the 18th head coach in Raiders history on Jan. 30, 2012, he promised to field a tough, smart, disciplined and committed football team, noting that organizations win games in the National Football League by more than talent alone.

Allen, 40, is the NFL's youngest head coach, more than six months younger than the league's previously youngest coach, Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin.

In 2012, his first year as a head coach at any level, Allen guided an Oakland team in transition, posting a 4-12 mark. The 2012 Raiders were defined by offensive, defensive and special teams units that improved throughout the season, laying a foundation for future success.

With 17 years of combined coaching experience at the college and professional levels, Allen enters his 12th NFL season. On six occasions during his 10 years as an NFL assistant, his team earned a playoff berth: 2002, 2004, 2006, 2009, 2010 and 2011. And four of those trips came after division championships: The NFC South with Atlanta in 2004 and New Orleans in both 2006 and 2009, and the AFC West with Denver in 2011.

His résumé also includes football's ultimate prize, a Super Bowl XLIV ring he earned by helping the Saints beat season MVP Peyton Manning, who threw for more than 4,500 yards with 33 touchdowns, and the Indianapolis Colts to conclude the 2009 campaign.

AT A GLANCE

- Became the 18th head coach in Raiders history on Jan. 30, 2012.
- At 40 years old, Allen is the NFL's youngest head coach.
- Has 17 years combined coaching experience at college and professional levels.
- Won Super Bowl XLIV with the New Orleans Saints as the defensive backs coach.
- Four-year letterman at Texas A&M as a safety.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
1996-99	Texas A&M	Graduate Assistant
2000-01	Tulsa	Secondary
2002-05	Atlanta Falcons	Defensive Assistant/Quality Control
2006-07	New Orleans Saints	Assistant Defensive Line
2008-10	New Orleans Saints	Defensive Backs
2011	Denver Broncos	Defensive Coordinator
2012-13	Oakland Raiders	Head Coach

The NFL's second-youngest defensive coordinator when the Broncos hired him in 2011, he coordinated a defense that helped Denver parlay an AFC West crown into a Wild Card win and a date in the Divisional round. During his only year in Denver, despite starting three rookies most of the season, the Broncos improved 12 spots over 2010 in overall defensive ranking (from 32nd to 20th) and bettered their points allowed by eight spots (from 32nd to 24th).

Among four Pro Bowlers on Allen's defense, Von Miller thrived. A Pro Bowl starter and the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year, he tied the team's rookie record with 11½ sacks. Elvis Dumervil also flourished under Allen, rebounding from injury to register 9½ sacks. In fact, the Broncos' 41 sacks as a team were their most since 2000.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Allen was an assistant coach for five seasons with New Orleans, first as assistant defensive line coach (2006-07), then as defensive backs coach (2008-10).

Under Allen's direction in 2010, the Saints' secondary allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes while ranking fourth in the NFL in net passing yards per game (193.9).

In 2009, Allen tutored a secondary that played a key role in helping the Saints to their first Super Bowl victory. His unit accounted for an NFL-high six interception returns for touchdowns and totaled 22 picks en route to their championship. One of his pupils, cornerback Tracy Porter, sealed the Saints' 31-17 win over Indianapolis by returning a Manning interception 74 yards for a touchdown late in the game.

He also helped revitalize the career of safety Darren Sharper, who in 2009 tied for the NFL lead with nine interceptions. Sharper joined safety Roman Harper in forming the first pair of defensive backs in franchise history to make the Pro Bowl in the same season.

In 2008, his first year as secondary coach, Allen helped the Saints overcome season-ending injuries to both starting cornerbacks and contributed to a defense that held five opponents under 200 yards passing.

Allen assisted in tutoring the Saints' defensive line from 2006-07, helping defensive end Will Smith become a Pro Bowler in 2006 after posting 10½ sacks and forcing three fumbles.

He originally entered the NFL coaching ranks with Atlanta in 2002, spending four seasons with the Falcons as a defensive assistant. During his stint in Atlanta, the Falcons qualified for the playoffs twice—as a wild card in 2002 and as NFC South champs in 2004—and played in the NFC Championship in 2004.

Allen spent his first two years with Atlanta working primarily with the defensive backs. In 2002, he aided that unit in improving from No. 30 against the pass to 16th, while tying for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions.

In his final two campaigns in Atlanta, Allen assisted in coaching a defensive line that produced Pro Bowlers Patrick Kearney (2004) and Rod Coleman (2005). In 2004, the line helped the Falcons total 48 sacks to lead the NFL for the first time in team history.

Allen kicked off his football coaching career in 1996 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Texas A&M, where he was a four-year letterman as a safety. He worked with Aggies defensive backs for four seasons before coaching the secondary at the University of Tulsa from 2000-01.

A highly recruited defensive back at L. D. Bell High School in Hurst, Texas, before following his father, Grady Allen, to Texas A&M, Dennis went on to start the final 21 games of his career on the top-rated Texas A&M "Wrecking Crew" defense.

The Atlanta native was signed by Buffalo as an undrafted college free agent in 1996 and spent training camp with the Bills. His father, Grady, played in the NFL as a linebacker for the Atlanta Falcons from 1968-72.

Allen and his wife, Alisson, have a son, Garrison, and a daughter, Layla.

Bobby APRIL

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

College: Nicholls State
Hometown: New Orleans, La.
High School: Chalmette (New Orleans, La.)

23rd season as NFL coach
First season with Raiders

Bobby April, entering his 23rd season as an NFL assistant coach, is in his first year as Oakland's special teams coordinator.

April, one of the NFL's most highly regarded special teams coaches, was named to his current position by Raiders Head Coach Dennis Allen on Jan. 19, 2013, after serving as Philadelphia's special teams coordinator from 2010-12.

In 2012, Damaris Johnson returned a punt 98 yards for a touchdown, an Eagles franchise record and tied for third longest in NFL history. In 2011, April successfully integrated both a rookie kicker and a rookie punter on his units. Alex Henry set a team record and an NFL rookie mark by hitting 88.9 percent of his field goals (24-for-27), including his last 16 attempts. The team also ranked third in the league in punt coverage. In his first season with the Eagles (2010), April's special-teams corps ranked seventh in net punting average, ninth in kickoff coverage and 12th in punt-return average. Kicker David Akers led the league in scoring and earned a Pro Bowl selection, while punter Sav Rocca set a franchise record with a 39.0 net punting average.

Prior to joining the Eagles, April spent six seasons (2004-09) with the Buffalo Bills, and in three of those six years, guided the Bills to No. 1 spot in the annual Dallas Morning News rankings. Under April, punter Brian Moorman earned two Pro Bowl berths, and punt returner Roscoe Parrish led the NFL with a 15.3-yard average in 2008. That same year, rookie kickoff returner Leodis McKelvin finished third in the NFL with a 28.2-yard average. In 2004, Terrence McGee earned a Pro Bowl nod after returning a franchise-record three kickoffs for touchdowns. In 2005, Bills long snapper Mike Schneck joined Moorman on the AFC Pro Bowl squad. April was named special teams coach of the year by his peers twice, in 2004 and 2008.

April began his stint in Buffalo in 2004 as the special teams coordinator before being promoted to assistant head coach/special teams following the 2005 season.

AT A GLANCE

- Joined the Raiders on Jan. 19, 2013.
- On three occasions in six seasons, guided Buffalo's special-teams units to the NFL's top spot in the annual Dallas Morning News rankings.
- Owns 22 years of NFL coaching experience.
- Highly regarded in his field, has previously spent time as the special teams coordinator with five NFL teams, Philadelphia, Buffalo, St. Louis, New Orleans and Pittsburgh.
- Twice named special teams coach of the year by his peers, in 2004 and 2008.

2013	Oakland Raiders	Special Teams Coordinator

He joined the Bills after three seasons (2001-03) in charge of the special teams with the St. Louis Rams, where he helped the team to Super Bowl XXXVI.

From 1996-99, April worked with the New Orleans Saints in the same position.

April began his NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons, working as the team's tight ends and special teams coach from 1991-93.

He also served as an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi, Tulane, Arizona, USC and Ohio State in the college ranks, and two years as an assistant high school coach at Chalmette High.

PERSONAL: Born in New Orleans, La., on April 15, 1953, April is a product of Chalmette (La.) High School. He played four years as a linebacker at Nicholls State, where he earned his bachelor's degree in education. April then coached at his high school alma mater, Chalmette High, before launching his collegiate coaching career at Southern Mississippi, where he also earned a master's in education. Bobby and his wife Charlene have five children, a son, Bobby III, currently a member of the N.Y. Jets coaching staff, and four daughters: Julie, Jamie Lee, Angela and Jaclyn.

Keith BURNS

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

College: Arkansas
Hometown: Hurst, Texas
High School: L.D. Bell (Hurst, Texas)

Second season as NFL coach
Second season with Raiders

Keith Burns, a veteran of 28 years in the collegiate coaching ranks, returns to the Raiders in 2013 for his second season as assistant special teams coach.

In Burns' first season with the Raiders, Pro Bowl K Sebastian Janikowski went 31-of-34 on field-goal attempts, hitting 91.2 percent of his tries. Only 10 kickers in league history have hit at least 90.9 percent of their attempts during a season while perfect from 49 yards or less and in that group, Janikowski hit the most from long distance. Janikowski was also named the AFC's October Special Teams Player of the Month. In addition, P Shane Lechler punted twice for 114 yards in the season-opener, pushing his career punting yardage total to 44,503 and eclipsing the franchise record of 44,493 yards set by Ray Guy.

Burns came to the Silver and Black after serving as secondary coach at Mississippi in 2011.

Burns has coached on two occasions in Northern California, serving in various roles at the University of the Pacific (1985-88) and San Jose State (2004-09).

Prior to his stint in Manhattan, Burns spent six seasons on the staff at San Jose State, including three as defensive coordinator. In 2009, the Spartans finished 22nd nationally in pass defense, and in 2008, Burns' unit ranked in the top-20 nationally in tackles for loss (seventh), passing defense (10th) and sacks (11th).

The Spartans were 9-4 in 2006, with wins over Stanford and New Mexico in the New Mexico Bowl, and finished with the program's most victories in a season since 1987.

As cornerbacks coach, Burns mentored three NFL draft choices in his final three seasons at San Jose State. Dwight Lowery became SJSU's first two-time, first-team All-America selection and was a 2008 fourth-round pick of the New York Jets. Christopher Owens, a two-time All-WAC corner, was a 2009 third-round choice by Atlanta, while Coye Francies was taken in the sixth round of the 2009 draft by the Cleveland Browns. In all, Burns has coached 14 players that have gone on to have successful careers in the professional ranks.

Burns was the head coach at Tulsa from 2000-02, when his teams were the basis for the Golden Hurricanes' 2003 Humanitarian Bowl appearance. His first team in 2000 went 5-7 to give Tulsa its most wins in eight seasons.

AT A GLANCE

- Before joining the Raiders in 2012, spent 28 years in collegiate coach ing ranks, including three years as Tulsa's head coach.
- Three-time letterwinner and two-time defensive captain at Arkansas.
- Inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

Prior to arriving at Tulsa, Burns served as defensive coordinator at Arkansas for two seasons (1998-99). During his tenure, Arkansas made consecutive bowl appearances, and following the 1998 campaign, Burns was one of five finalists for the Frank Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Prior to Arkansas, he spent five seasons under John Robinson at USC, the final four as defensive coordinator. While at USC, his defensive units ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense in 1994, first in the Pac-10 in scoring defense in 1995, second in total defense in 1996, and first in rushing defense in 1997.

Burns also coordinated the defense at Pacific (1986-87) and was offensive coordinator for the Tigers for one season (1988). He also spent time at Rice as defensive pass coordinator and special teams coordinator (1989-92). He began his coaching career at Arkansas as a graduate assistant (1984).

PERSONAL: A native of Hurst, Texas, Burns was an All-District Defensive Player of the Year while at L.D. Bell High School (1979). A three-time letterwinner at Arkansas (1980-82), he was voted defensive captain for the Razorbacks two years in a row and was a member of four bowl teams. Burns was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 2008 and the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 2009. He and his wife, Yvonne, have three children.

John DeFILIPPO

QUARTERBACKS

College: James Madison
Hometown: Youngstown, Ohio
High School: Radnor (Radnor, Penn.)

Seventh season as NFL coach
Fourth season with Raiders

Last year, four Oakland passers (Carson Palmer - 565, Matt Leinart - 33, Terrelle Pryor - 30, Shane Lechler - 1) combined to attempt 629 passes, surpassing the franchise record of 619 attempts set during the 2002 season. In addition, Palmer produced one of the most prolific passing seasons in Raider history. Palmer tied for second on the Raiders' single-season list in attempts (565), finished third in completions (345), second in yards (4,018) and 14th in touchdowns (22). Palmer also became just the second quarterback in Raider history to pass for 4,000 yards in a single season with 4,018. Rich Gannon holds the Silver and Black's single-season record with 4,689 passing yards in 2002.

Prior to rejoining the Raiders in 2012, DeFilippo coached at San Jose State from 2010-11, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2011, and quarterbacks coach in 2010. He was assistant quarterbacks coach for the New York Jets in 2009.

During his tenure at San Jose State, the Spartans ranked 23rd in the nation with 276.8 passing yards per game and jumped 32 places nationally in total offense from the previous year. The team also set a single season school record with 297 pass completions. DeFilippo tutored QB Matt Faulkner, who ranked second in the Western Athletic Conference in passing by completing 274 of 422 attempts for 3,149 yards and 13 touchdowns. In 2010, he coached QB Jordan La Secla, who was with the Raiders in training camp last season.

As assistant quarterbacks coach for the Jets in 2009, he helped coach rookie QB Mark Sanchez, who led the Jets to the AFC Championship in his first season as a pro.

DeFilippo's NFL coaching career began with the New York Giants in 2005, when he served as offensive quality control coach on Tom Coughlin's staff for two years. He helped the Giants to two postseason appearances, and New York posted a 19-13 regular-season record during his time there.

He joined the Giants after two seasons as quarterbacks coach at Columbia, where he tutored QB Jeff Otis, who left the school ranked second in program history in completions and passing yards, and went on to spend time on the Raiders practice squad.

From 2001-02, DeFilippo was a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, working with wide receivers and tight ends under Bob Davie in 2001, and with quarterbacks under Tyrone Willingham in 2002. He helped lead the Irish to an 8-0 start in 2002, with wins over No. 7 Michigan and No. 11 Florida State, and a Gator Bowl berth.

He began his coaching career tutoring quarterbacks at Fordham in 2000.

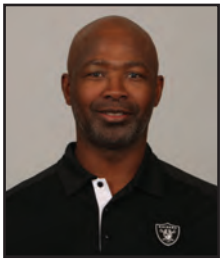

PERSONAL: DeFilippo was a four-year letterwinner, playing quarterback at James Madison University and helped the team to a conference title as a senior in 1999. He held NFL summer coaching internships with the Carolina Panthers in 1997 and the Indianapolis Colts in 1998. A native of Youngstown, Ohio, DeFilippo's father, Gene, served as the athletic director at Boston College.

AT A GLANCE

- Four-year letterwinner as quarterback for James Madison University, where he helped the team to a conference title as a senior in 1999.
- 10 years experience as quarterbacks coach in collegiate and NFL ranks.
- In his second stint with the Raiders, having served as quarterbacks coach from 2007-08.
- Father, Gene, served as athletic director at Boston College.

WIDE RECEIVERS

College: Wyoming
Hometown: Wichita, Kan.
High School: Wichita South (Wichita, Kan.)

Second season as NFL coach
Second season with Raiders

Last year, Gilmore helped wide receiver Rod Streater, who totaled just 19 catches as a senior at Temple, become one of the most productive non-drafted rookie players in recent NFL history. His 39 catches in 2012 were tied for third most among nondrafted rookies since 2000, and fourth most by a Raider rookie.

Gilmore served as wide receivers coach at USC in 2011, when he was named the NCAA's top receivers coach by FootballScoop.com after tutoring Robert Woods and Marqise Lee to respective first-team All-America and Freshman All-America honors.

Gilmore spent six years (2005-10) at Nebraska, coaching the wide receivers. He also was the Cornhuskers' recruiting coordinator for four years (2007-10) and added the title of assistant head coach/offense in 2008.

He coached five receivers that finished among Nebraska's top-eight career receptions leaders: School-record holder Nate Swift (166 catches), Terrence Nunn, Todd Peterson, Niles Paul and Maurice Purify. In both 2007 and 2008, the Huskers ranked among the nation's top 15 in passing offense. Nebraska played in the 2005 Aloha Bowl, 2007 Cotton Bowl (following the 2006 season), 2008 Gator Bowl, and 2009 and 2010 Holiday Bowls.

Gilmore arrived at Nebraska after two seasons (2003-04) at Colorado, where he handled the wide receivers. Under Gilmore's tutelage in 2003, D.J. Hackett set the Buffaloes' season receptions record (78), earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, and was drafted in the fifth round by the Seattle Seahawks. Meanwhile, Derek McCoy added 63 catches (then third on Colorado's season chart), helping CU to the 2004 Houston Bowl.

AT A GLANCE

- Three sport standout at Wichita South High School.
- Earned second-team All-WAC honors as a receiver at Wyoming
- Coached at the collegiate level for 17 seasons prior to joining the Silver and Black in 2012.
- Helped WR Rod Streater become one of the most productive non-drafted rookies in recent NFL history last season.

COACHING BACKGROUND

1994-96	Wyoming	Graduate Assistant
1997-98	Wyoming	Wide Receivers
1999	Kansas	Tight Ends
2000	University of Houston	Wide Receivers
2001-02	Purdue	Wide Receivers
2003-04	Colorado	Wide Receivers
2005-07	Nebraska	Wide Receivers
2008-10	Nebraska	Assistant Head Coach-Offense
2011	USC	Wide Receivers
2012-13	Oakland Raiders	Wide Receivers

Gilmore was Purdue's wide receivers coach for two seasons (2001-02). In 2002, future NFL players Taylor Stubblefield and John Standeford were the Big Ten's top receiving tandem with 152 combined receptions and 2,096 yards. Stubblefield went on to become a consensus All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2004 while setting the NCAA career receptions record with 316. Purdue participated in the Sun Bowl in 2001 and 2002.

Gilmore began his coaching career at his alma mater, Wyoming. He first was a graduate assistant working with the wide receivers and tight ends from 1994-96. During that time, Marcus Harris – the 1996 Biletnikoff winner, a two-time first-team All-American (1995-96) and three-time All-Western Athletic Conference first-teamer – set NCAA records for most career receiving yards (4,518) and consecutive seasons with 1,400 receiving yards (three). And, on two occasions (1994, '96), he led the nation in receiving yards per game before Detroit drafted him in the seventh round.

Promoted to full-time assistant at Wyoming, Gilmore was in charge of the wide receivers for two seasons (1997-98).

He became the tight ends coach at Kansas in 1999 and the wide receivers coach at Houston in 2000 before moving on to Purdue.

PERSONAL: Gilmore lettered two seasons (1988-89) as a wide receiver at Wyoming. He caught 40 passes for a team-best 594 yards and three touchdowns as a junior to help the Cowboys to the 1988 Holiday Bowl. He added 32 receptions for 445 yards and two touchdowns as a senior to earn second-team All-WAC honors. He transferred to Wyoming from Butler Community College in El Dorado, Kan. Gilmore earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Wyoming in 1991. He was a three-sport standout at Wichita (Kan.) South High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two children.

Mark HUTSON

TIGHT ENDS

College: Oklahoma
Hometown: Fort Smith, Ark.
High School: Fort Smith Northside (Fort Smith, Ark.)

Second season as NFL coach
Second season with Raiders

Last season, TE Brandon Myers emerged as a favorite target, as the fourth-year player led the team with 79 catches for 806 yards. Myers recorded a reception in 17 straight games dating back to the 2011 season finale. Myers closed out the season ranked fourth among NFL tight ends with 79 receptions.

Hutson, a 25-year veteran of the college game as both a player and coach, spent the previous five seasons as an assistant at Tulane, serving as the interim head coach for the Green Wave in 2011.

Prior to being named interim head coach in October 2011, Hutson served as offensive line coach for five seasons at Tulane. In 2010, Hutson's offensive line led the way for Orleans Darkwa, who rushed for a Tulane freshman record 925 yards and 11 touchdowns. He also helped the Wave's ground game churn up 127.5 yards per game and score 17 touchdowns. Tulane's aerial game averaged 245.8 yards per game, protected by Hutson's group, and scored 19 touchdowns.

In 2009, Hutson's offensive line paved the way for Andre Anderson, a Doak Walker candidate who rushed for 1,016 yards and eight touchdowns. Behind a Hutson-tutored offensive line, Anderson became the second Tulane running back to surpass 1,000 yards in a single season.

During his first season with the Green Wave, Hutson's line spring-boarded Matt Forte, who rushed for a school-record 2,127 yards, the seventh-best rushing performance in NCAA history. In addition, three of Hutson's players received all-conference honors, including honorable mention selections Troy Kropog and Michael Parenton, while Andrew Nierman was named Freshman All-America by The Sporting News.

AT A GLANCE

- Two-time All-America lineman at Okalahoma (1986-87) and a member of the Sooners' 1985 national championship team.
- Named to the Oklahoma All-Century Team and named one of the top 100 players in OU history.
- Drafted by the Cowboys in the third-round of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Hutson came to Tulane from Eastern Illinois, where he spent four seasons and helped EIU to 26 overall victories, two conference titles and consecutive NCAA I-AA playoff appearances. In addition to his role as assistant head coach, he also served as the Panthers' offensive line coach and offensive coordinator. During the 2006 season, he took over the head coaching duties and guided EIU to a co-Ohio Valley Conference championship and No. 15 national ranking in the final poll. He posted an 8-5 record, including a 7-1 mark in the OVC.

Prior to joining the Panthers, Hutson served as the offensive line coach and student-athlete academic liaison at Tulsa from 2000-02. Hutson entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma in 1990.

Hutson followed Nutt to Boise State for one year as the special teams and tight ends coach, and then to Arkansas for two seasons. At Arkansas, he once again coached tight ends and special teams, winning the Southeastern Conference Special Teams Coach of the Year Award.

PERSONAL: A two-time All-America lineman at Oklahoma (1986-87), he was a team captain and a member of the Sooners' 1985 national-championship team, and made four consecutive Orange Bowl appearances (1985-88). He was named to the Oklahoma All-Century Team and named one of the top 100 players in OU history. A three-time All-Big Eight selection, he capped his career with an appearance in the 1988 Hula Bowl all-star game in Hawaii. The Dallas Cowboys' third-round selection in the 1988 NFL Draft, he returned to OU after his playing career and completed his bachelor's degree in communication in 1990.The Fort Smith, Ark., native has been a part of seven bowl teams, three as a coach and four as a player. Clayton LOPEZ

DEFENSIVE BACKS

College: Nevada
Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.
High School: Serra (Gardena, Calif.)

14th season as NFL coach
Fourth season with Raiders

Clayton Lopez returned to the Raiders as defensive backs coach in 2012. Lopez, who coached in a similar capacity with the Silver and Black for two seasons from 2004-05, has served as an NFL assistant for 14 seasons.

Prior to returning to the Raiders, Lopez served as defensive backs/cornerbacks coach for three seasons (2009-11) with the St. Louis Rams. In 2010, he oversaw one of the NFL's most improved secondaries as the Rams finished seventh in the NFL in opponent-completion percentage (57.5) and ninth in opponent-passer rating (80.4).

Lopez spent three seasons as an assistant with the Detroit Lions, coaching defensive backs (2006-07) and serving as assistant secondary coach (2008). He coached defensive backs for the Raiders for two seasons, working with Pro Bowlers Charles Woodson and Ray Buchanon, and tutoring Nnamdi Asomugha. In Lopez's two-year stint with the Raiders, the team's pass defense improved from 30th to 18th, tying for the fourth-highest improvement in the NFL team rankings in 2005. The Silver and Black's improvement of 42.6 yards per game in pass defense also was fourth in the league.

Lopez began his NFL coaching career with the Seattle Seahawks, serving as defensive assistant/quality control for three seasons (1999-01). He was promoted to assistant secondary coach and spent two seasons (2002-03) in that role with the Seahawks. In Lopez's five seasons with Seattle, the defense recorded 96 interceptions and 433 passes defensed, both of which ranked sixth in the NFL during that span.

His first coaching position came as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Nevada (1995-96). He later served as running backs coach/recruiting coordinator (1997-98).

AT A GLANCE

- As a defensive back at Nevada, helped the Wolf Pack to three conference titles from 1991-94.
- Has accrued 12 years of NFL coaching with defensive backs.
- In his second stint with the Raiders, having coached defensive backs from 2004-05.
- Tutored Charles Woodson, Ray Buchanon and Nnamdi Asomugha during first stop in Oakland.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

College: UCLA
Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.
High School: John Muir (Pasadena, Calif.)

19th season as NFL coach
Second season with Raiders

An assistant coach for 19 years at the NFL level, Lynn previously coached defensive backs for the Philadelphia. Lynn joined the Philadelphia staff after five seasons with San Francisco, marking his second stint with the 49ers. He served as secondary coach and was given the additional title of special assistant to head coach prior to the 2009 season. Lynn oversaw a secondary comprised of two former Pro Bowlers in San Francisco, and through the final five games of 2008, the 49ers boasted the NFL's third-best pass defense, allowing just 887 yards during that span.

Prior to joining the San Francisco staff in 2006, Lynn served as secondary coach of the Baltimore Ravens for two seasons (2004-05). In 2004, the Ravens' secondary accounted for six of the team's seven defensive touchdowns. He also coached two Ravens defensive backs who earned starting Pro Bowl nods: S Ed Reed and CB Chris McAlister. Reed was also named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2004.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Lynn spent seven seasons with the New York Giants, serving five years (1997-01) as secondary coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. In his first season as defensive coordinator, the Giants' stingy defense ranked third in the NFL in points allowed, holding opponents to 17.4 per game. The Giants also finished ninth in both total defense (309.3 per game) and pass defense (194.9).

Lynn coached defensive backs for the 49ers in 1996, coaching a Pro Bowler, and was the secondary coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and 1995. Before moving into the NFL coaching ranks, Lynn served in a number of coaching capacities at the University of Arizona from 1987-93. He started as the Wildcats' graduate assistant in 1987 and was elevated to outside linebackers coach (1988-91) before taking over the defensive backs (1992-93).

PERSONAL: Lynn enjoyed an eight-year NFL career (1979-86) with the New York Jets as a cornerback and safety. He originally joined the Jets as a fourth-round draft pick out of UCLA. He ended his career 10th on the Jets' career interception list with 17. A four-year letterman at UCLA, Lynn played on four bowl teams and garnered All-PAC 10 honors as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in history. Lynn and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of three children.

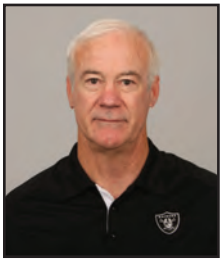

AT A GLANCE

- Earned All-Pac-10 honors as a senior safety at UCLA.
- Spent eight years in the NFL (1979-86) with the New York Jets as a cornerback and safety.
- Finished his career 10th on the Jets' career interception list with 17.
- Enters 19th season as NFL assistant coach.

Greg OLSON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College: Central Washington
Hometown: Richland, Wash.
High School: Richland (Richland, Wash.)

12th season as NFL coach
First season with Raiders

Olson was named to his current position with the Raiders on Jan. 21, 2013, after serving as Jacksonville's assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach for the 2012 season. Olson brings 26 years of coaching experience including 11 in the NFL and 15 at the collegiate level. His resume includes six seasons as an offensive coordinator in the NFL with Detroit (2005), St. Louis (2006-07) and Tampa Bay (2009-11).

Olson served as assistant head coach/quarterbacks for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2012, overseeing the quarterback duo of Blaine Gabbert, the 10th overall pick in the 2011 draft, and Chad Henne, a second-round selection in 2008. With an injury-depleted rushing attack, Gabbert and Henne combined to rank 11th in the NFL with both 586 pass attempts and an average of 36.6 attempts per game.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Olson served four seasons with the Buccaneers including the last three as offensive coordinator. He spent the 2008 season as quarterbacks coach. Olson was responsible for the development of quarterback Josh Freeman, the 17th overall pick in the 2009 draft. Under Olson's guidance, Freeman threw for 8,898 yards and 51 touchdowns in his first three seasons as a starter. In 2011, Freeman ranked eighth in the NFL with a 62.8 completion percentage and 13th with 3,592 passing yards. In Olson's second season as offensive coordinator with the Bucs in 2010, Freeman ranked sixth in the NFL with a 95.9 passer rating while throwing for 3,451 yards, 25 touchdowns and only six interceptions, placing him ninth for touchdown-to-interception ratio in NFL single-season history. Olson helped guide the Buccaneers to one of their best offensive seasons in team history, setting franchise records for yards per play (5.61), average per rush (4.64 yards), average per pass play (7.21), passer rating (96.2) and fewest interceptions thrown (six). The Buccaneers also finished with the fourth-most points scored (341), third-most yards in total offense (5,362) and second-best third down percentage (42.2%) in a single season in team history.

The Buccaneers were the youngest team in the NFL in 2010 and wide receiver Mike Williams, a fourth-round draft pick, finished the year leading all rookie receivers in the league in every major receiving category while setting a single-season team record with 11 touchdown receptions. Running back LeGarrette Blount's 1,007 rushing yards led all rookie running backs and he became just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to finish with over 1,000 yards. It marked the first time since 1968 that a team had two different players lead all rookies in rushing and receiving yards.

Despite his late elevation to the coordinator position in 2009, Olson's offense showed consistent growth around Freeman. The offense recorded three games of 400-plus yards of total offense, including 469 yards at Carolina for the fifth-best single-game performance in team history and the most by the team in over 20 years. Working closely with Olson, Freeman led all rookie quarterbacks in completion percentage (54.5) while setting Buccaneer rookie records for touchdown passes (10) and passing yards (1,855) despite starting in just nine games. He also threw the most touchdown passes by a rookie in a single game in team history as he became the second-youngest quarterback to win his first career start since 1970 with a 38-28 come-from-behind win over Green Bay in Week 9. Kellen Winslow had the best season by a tight end in team history in 2009 as he led or tied for the team lead in receptions in 12 of the 16 games, and also led the team in receiving yards eight times. He led the team in receptions (77) and receiving yards (884), both good for single-season franchise records among tight ends. Winslow also led the team with five receiving touchdowns, tied for the fourth-most in a single season among Buccaneer tight ends.

In his first season in Tampa Bay in 2008, Olson was part of an offense that ranked 14th in the NFL and ninth in the NFC in total offense. In addition, the Buccaneers featured the 11th-ranked passing offense in the NFL as Tampa Bay signal callers passed for 3,788 yards. It marked the second-highest passing yardage total in team history while the 63.2 completion percentage ranked third in team history and the 83.8 passer rating by Olson's unit was the fourth-best in team annals. The Buccaneers offense finished the season amassing 5,456 total yards, the highest total in team history, while scoring 361 points, the second-highest total in team annals. Under Olson's tutelage, Jeff Garcia tied for second in the NFL for fewest interceptions (6), was ninth in the league and third in the NFC in completion percentage (64.9) and ninth in the NFL and fifth in the NFC in quarterback rating (90.2).

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Olson spent two seasons (2006-07) as offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. In his first year with the Rams in 2006, he helped guide a high-powered offense that ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense (360.4 yards per game) and a passing offense that ranked third (247.6) in the NFC. Under Olson's direction, the 2006 Rams became just the fourth team in NFL history to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Marc Bulger), a 1,500-yard rusher (Steven Jackson) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce). Bulger, Jackson and Holt were all selected to the Pro Bowl. Bulger also posted career-highs in passing yards (4,301), passing touchdowns (24) and passing attempts (588) and completions (370) while ranking second in the NFL in interception percentage (1.4%). Jackson also had a career-year in 2006, leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 2,334, and he led all NFL running backs with 90 receptions and was fifth in the NFL in rushing yards with 1,528.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Olson spent one season as quarterbacks coach (2004) and one season as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2005) for the Detroit Lions. In 2004 Olson took over play-calling duties for the Lions with three games remaining in the season and the Lions offense went on to average 403.6 total yards per game. In 2005 Olson was named offensive coordinator of the Lions in Week 11.

Olson entered the NFL as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 2001 under head coach Steve Mariucci. In 2001 49ers quarterback Jeff Garcia threw for a career-high 32 touchdown passes while posting a career-best 94.8 passer rating and 62.7 completion percentage.

Following one season as tight ends/recruiting coordinator at Purdue, Olson spent one season as quarterbacks coach for the Chicago Bears in 2003.

From 1997-2000, as quarterbacks coach at Purdue, Olson played a key role in the development of Pro Bowl and Super Bowl-winning quarterback Drew Brees. Under Olson, Brees was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 1999 and 2000 while winning the Maxwell Award as the nation's most outstanding player in 2000. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback in 1999 and 2000. Brees finished his collegiate career as the Big Ten and Purdue's all-time leader in passing yardage (11,792), touchdown passes (90), total yards (12,693), comple¬tion percentage (61.1%), completions (1,026) and attempts (1,678). He also ranked fourth in NCAA Division I-A history for total offense, completions and attempts upon his departure from Purdue. Under Olson, Brees had seven 400-yard passing games and 16 300-yard passing games. Brees earned Big Ten Player of Year honors in 1998 and 2000 and All-Conference accolades for three straight years (1998-2000).

Olson began his coaching career in 1987 as a graduate assistant under the guidance of head coaches Dennis Erickson (1987-88) and Mike Price (1989) at Washington State, where he earned his master's degree in athletic administration. He spent four seasons (1990-93) as an assistant at Central Washington University and two seasons at Idaho (1994-96). At Central Washington Olson developed quarterback Jon Kitna, who went on to become an NFL starter at Seattle, Cincinnati and Detroit. Olson also served as wrestling coach for four seasons at Central Washington including the last two as head coach.

PERSONAL: A native of Richland, Wash., Olson played quarterback at Spokane Falls Junior College from 1981-82 and at Central Washington from 1983-84, earning his bachelor's degree in education. He and his wife, Lissa, have twins, Kenneth and Grayce. Lissa was the first female to be named head coach of a Division I track and field men's track team when she took over at Purdue in March of 2001. She spent 2011 as an assistant track coach at the University of South Florida.

Bob SANDERS

LINEBACKERS

College: Davidson
Hometown: Jacksonville, N.C.
High School: Jacksonville (Jacksonville, N.C)

13th season as NFL coach
First season with Raiders

Bob Sanders is in his first year as Oakland's linebackers coach, named to his current position by Head Coach Dennis Allen on Jan. 25, 2013. A 33-year coaching veteran, Sanders joins Jason Tarver, Johnnie Lynn and Allen as one of four individuals on staff with NFL defensive-coordinator experience.

Sanders has a strong reputation as a linebackers coach, in addition to his time coaching defensive line. He spent the last four seasons with Buffalo, having joined the Bills as defensive line coach (2009) before coaching the outside linebackers the next two seasons (2010-11) and taking over the entire linebacker unit in 2012.

In Green Bay for four seasons (2005-08), Sanders began as defensive ends coach (2005), then was named by Mike McCarthy as the new head coach's first defensive coordinator, a role he held from 2006-08.

During his final Packers season in 2008, Green Bay paced the NFL with six touchdowns on interceptions, and tied for first in the NFC with 22 total INTs. In 2007, when Green Bay ranked sixth in scoring defense, 11th in total defense and third in opponent third-down-conversion percentage, Sanders helped the 13-3 team to the NFC Championship game. And in 2006, Green Bay led the NFC with 46 sacks.

In his first NFL coaching position, Sanders coached Zach Thomas among others during four years (2001-04) as Miami's linebackers coach, helping Thomas to three straight Pro Bowl selections.

A college assistant for 22 years, his final collegiate stop was the University of Florida, where his tutelage helped three Gators (Jevon Kearse, Kevin Carter and Huey Richardson) earn first-round selections in the NFL Draft.

In Gainesville for 11 years (1990-2000), he held six titles, with responsibilities ranging from defensive line to linebackers. He also spent one season as assistant head coach and nine as assistant defensive coordinator. With Sanders' pupils leading the way, in four straight years (1996-99), Florida led the Southeastern Conference in sacks. A pillar on the Gators' staff, he helped the program to five conference crowns and the 1996 national championship.

Before Florida, Sanders coached five seasons (1985-89) at Duke, the first four as outside linebackers/defensive ends coach, and the final campaign as co-defensive coordinator/outside linebackers. In sharing the reins of the defense, he helped the Blue Devils to an 8-4 season and their first Atlantic Coast Conference title since 1965.

Sanders got to Duke after two years at Richmond (1983-84) and three seasons at East Carolina (1980-82). His first college position was as a part-time coach for Pepper Rodgers in 1978, sandwiched between a three total years (1976-77, 1979) coaching at the high-school level.

PERSONAL: A defensive player at Davidson College (1972-75), he earned a bachelor's degree in political science from the school in 1976. A Jacksonville, N.C., native, Sanders and his wife, Kathie, have three children, Lindsay, Sarah and Robby.

AI SAUNDERS

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

College: San Jose State
Hometown: Oakland, Calif.
High School: St. Ignatius (San Francisco, Calif.)

30th season as NFL coach
First season with Raiders

Al Saunders returns for his third season on the Oakland Raiders' coaching staff. Saunders has over 40 years of coaching experience, including the past 30 in the National Football League. He has been a part of 15 playoff teams, five division titles, one Super Bowl championship as an NFL coach and 19 times his offensive units have ranked 1st in the NFL in total offense, passing, rushing or scoring.

He spent two playoff seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, serving as an offensive consultant in 2009 and as senior offensive assistant in 2010. He was an assistant with the Washington Redskins from 2006-07, serving as associate head coach/offense. The head coach of the San Diego Chargers from 1986-88, he also was as an assistant for the St. Louis Rams on two occasions, helping the Rams win Super Bowl XXXIV in 1999.

Saunders served as the offensive coordinator for the Rams in 2008, returning to the franchise nearly a decade after helping the team to a World Championship in 1999 as associate head coach/wide receivers (1999-2000). Saunders was part of a coaching staff that helped create The Greatest Show on Turf and helped the Rams finish with NFL records in 2000 of 7,075 total yards and 5,232 passing yards, and score 540 points (33.8 avg.), the third-highest single-season total in NFL history. In 1999, the Rams finished atop the NFL with 6,412 yards of total offense, 272.1 passing yards per game and 32.9 points per game en route to a Super Bowl title.

Between stints with the Rams, Saunders led Washington's offense for two seasons as the associate head coach/offense from 2006-07, helping the Redskins to a playoff berth in 2007. In 2006, the Redskins produced one of the league's top rushing attacks and QB Mark Brunell established an NFL record with 22 consecutive completions in a single game.

He served as the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs from 2001-05, having previously spent 10 years in Kansas City as assistant head coach/wide receivers (1989-98). During his second stint with the Chiefs, Saunders' offense established 46 franchise records and exploded with 2,157 points, 262 touchdowns and 30,470 net yards, more than any other NFL team across those five seasons. In 2005, he was named USA Today's Offensive Coach of the Year as the Chiefs offense led the NFL for a second consecutive year.

In 2004, the Chiefs led the NFL in total offense for the first time in team history, accumulating a franchise-record 6,695 yards (418.4 avg.) and breaking or tying 18 single-season records. The Chiefs also broke or tied numerous NFL records, establishing a record with 398 first downs and tying a 42-year old mark with 63 rushing touchdowns over two seasons. Kansas City became the first team in NFL history to produce three running backs that recorded 150-yard rushing performances, and was the first team to post eight rushing touchdowns in one game. Tony Gonzalez also set the NFL single-season receiving mark for tight ends with 102 receptions, and QB Trent Green had over 300 yards passing in eight games to become just the fourth quarterback in NFL history to finish four straight seasons with a QB rating above 90.

In 2003, the Chiefs led the NFL in scoring for the second straight season with a franchise-record 484 points, a feat last accomplished by an AFC team in 1981-82, and RB Priest Holmes set an NFL single-season record with 27 rushing touchdowns. In 2002, Saunders' offense led the league in scoring with 467 points and broke or tied 22 single-season team records, including the long-standing NFL record for fewest fumbles (two) and the mark for longest touchdown pass in league history (99 yards). In 2001, Kansas City's offense ranked in the NFL top-10 in rushing, passing, scoring and total offense, and Holmes led the league in rushing with 1,555 yards.

His first NFL head-coaching position came with the Chargers as interim head coach in 1986, following the resignation of Don Coryell.

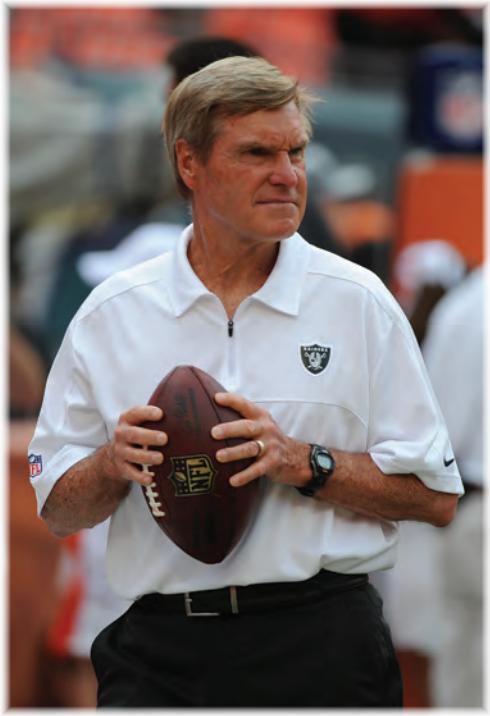

AT A GLANCE

- Member of the San Jose State Hall of Fame, having earned Academic All-America honors as a three-year starter and team captain at defensive back and wide receiver from 1966-68.
- Awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award in 1989, given for community leadership and service.
- Helped St. Louis Rams win Super Bowl title as the offensive coordinator in 2008.
- Served as a ball boy for Raider home games at Frank Youell Field in the 1960s.
- Accomplished distance runner.

He spent two full seasons as the Chargers head coach after previously filling the roles of assistant head coach (1985-86) and wide receivers coach (1983-84) for "Air Coryell," one of the most exciting and prolific offenses in NFL history. In 1985, the Chargers led the NFL in passing and total offense for the fifth time in six seasons.

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Saunders spent 12 years as an assistant at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at USC under the legendary John McKay from 1970-71 and served as wide receivers coach at Missouri in 1972.

Following three seasons as play-caller and offensive backfield coach at Utah State, Saunders spent six seasons at California as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. He helped the Golden Bears set 32 national, conference and school records and finished each season ranked in the top 10 in the nation in passing. His final collegiate stop was in 1982 as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach under head coach Johnny Majors at Tennessee, where he tutored an explosive, record-breaking offense that included future Raider wide receiver Willie Gault.

PERSONAL: Saunders is a member of the San Jose State Hall of Fame, having earned Academic All-America honors as a three-year starter and team captain at defensive back and wide receiver from 1966-68. He was the recipient of California's State Graduate Fellowship and earned a master's degree in education from Stanford. Saunders was recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award in 1989, given for community leadership and service. He is a former All-America swimmer and national record holder in the sport. Also an accomplished distance runner, he was crowned the Road Runners Club of America's Master 5K National Champion in 1996. Saunders and his wife, Karen, have three children: sons Robert and Joseph, and daughter Korrin.

Kelly SKIPPER

RUNNING BACKS

College: Fresno St.
Hometown: Brawley, Calif.
High School: Churchill (Eugene, Ore.)

Seventh season as NFL coach
Seventh season with Raiders

Kelly Skipper is in his seventh season with the Raiders, the fifth in his present capacity tutoring running backs, after two years as tight ends coach.

Skipper, 46, has 25 years of coaching experience and has served as an offensive coordinator at the NCAA Division I level.

Last season, RB Darren McFadden hauled in 13 receptions during the season-opener against San Diego. The total was the most for a Raider running back, and ranks as the second highest single-game total in franchise history. In addition, FB Marcel Reece ranked tied for fourth among all NFL backs with 52 receptions and second among backs with 496 receiving yards.

In 2010, he oversaw a running game that ranked second in the NFL and established a franchise record by averaging 4.9 yards per attempt. Under Skipper's direction, McFadden became the first Raider since 2007 to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark with 1,157 yards on the ground. The tandem of McFadden and Bush totaled 1,812 yards and 15 touchdowns. In 2009, Raiders running backs averaged over 4 yards per carry under Skipper's coaching.

In 2008, tight end Zach Miller led the Raiders in receptions (56) and receiving yards (778) to place eighth in the NFL among tight ends. Skipper tutored a Raider tight ends unit in 2007 that included Miller, who led all rookie tight ends in receptions and ranked fourth in the NFL among all rookie pass catchers with 44.

Before joining the Raiders, Skipper spent four seasons coaching running backs and special teams at Washington State. He also spent two summers, one with Seattle and one with Washington, as an NFL minority fellowship coaching intern.

From 1998-02, Skipper was on the coaching staff at UCLA, where he was offensive coordinator from 2001-02. He has tutored a number of players who went on to the NFL, including Lorenzo Neal, Michael Pittman, DeShaun Foster, Chris Ivory and Jed Collins. Skipper also coached Jerome Harrison, who broke Washington State's single-season rushing record after running for 1,900 yards.

He was an assistant at Fresno State, his alma mater, from 1989-97, beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time assistant in 1991. He handled running backs and return specialists, and served as recruiting coordinator on the Bulldogs' staff.

AT A GLANCE

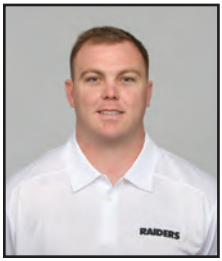

- Has 17 years of collegeiate coaching experience, including two years as UCLA's offensive coordinator (2001-02).
- Played running back at Fresno St. where he rushed for 2,237 yards to rank on the Bulldogs' top-10 list, and earned first-team All-Big West honors.
- Inducted into the Churchill High School Hall of Fame in 2008.
- Father, Jim, is longtime NFL assistant coach currently serving as the running backs coach for the Carolina Panthers.

Tony SPARANO

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE

College: New Haven
Hometown: West Haven, Conn.
High School: Richard C. Lee (New Haven, Conn.)

15th season as NFL coach
First season with Raiders

Tony Sparano is in his first year as Oakland's assistant head coach/offensive line, named to his current position by Raiders Head Coach Dennis Allen on Jan. 23, 2013.

Sparano, who in 2013 enters his 30th year in coaching, has nine combined seasons as a head coach, four (2008-11) at the reins of the Miami Dolphins and five (1994-98) at the University of New Haven. He also owns 14 years of previous NFL coaching experience.

Prior to serving as N.Y. Jets offensive coordinator in 2012, Sparano compiled some impressive accomplishments in his tenure as Miami Dolphins head coach, a position he held from 2008-11.

In 2008, Sparano steered Miami to the greatest year-to-year improvement in NFL history, a 10-game difference as the Dolphins earned the AFC East crown with an 11-5 record, before losing in the Wild Card round of the playoffs. Sparano finished one vote shy of winning the Associated Press Coach of the Year. His career record as an NFL head coach is 29-33.

Sparano helped the Cowboys to three playoff appearances and four winning seasons in five years (2003-07) on the Dallas staff, including four under head coach Bill Parcells. Sparano tutored the tight ends from 2003-04, then served as offensive line coach/running-game coordinator from 2005-06, before shifting to assistant head coach/offensive line in 2007.

Prior to two one-year stops as a tight ends coach, with Marty Schottenheimer's Redskins in 2001 and Tom Coughlin's Jaguars in 2002, Sparano helped launch the expansion Cleveland Browns. In 1999, Cleveland's first year back in the NFL, Sparano was an offensive quality-control coach. He spent 2000 in charge of the Browns' offensive line.

Sparano made the jump to the NFL after five years as head coach (1994-98) of his alma mater, Division II New Haven, where he compiled a 41-14 record (.745), with four winning campaigns and one .500 season. In that tenure, he also guided the Chargers to a pair of NCAA playoff berths. In 1997, his 12-2 club led the country in scoring offense (42.8 points per contest) and ranked second in scoring defense (11.6) before it lost in the national championship.

He spent the previous six seasons (1988-93) at Division I-AA Boston University, coaching the Terriers' offensive linemen from 1988-89, including Cleveland Browns 1989 draft selection Mike Graybill, before serving as offensive coordinator from 1990-93. In his final season at BU, the 12-1 team won the Yankee Conference and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs.

AT A GLANCE

- Joined the Raiders on Jan. 23, 2013.
- Last name is pronounced spuh-RANN-oh.
- Including nine combined seasons as a head coach, enters his 30th year in coaching, his 15th in the National Football League.
- Held the reins of the Miami Dolphins as head coach from 2008-11.
- Finished one vote shy of the 2008 Coach of the Year award after leading Miami to the best year-to-year win improvement in NFL history.
- Has coached under Tom Coughlin and Bill Parcells, who have combined for four Super Bowl titles, and Marty Schottenheimer, who won 200 games, sixth in NFL history.
- Guided the New Haven Chargers to two playoff berths as head coach of the Division II college.

Jason TARVER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College: Santa Clara
Hometown: Stanford, Calif.
High School: Foothill (Pleasanton, Calif.)

12th season as NFL coach
Second season with Raiders

Last season, three Oakland defenders recorded 100-or-more tackles, marking the first time since 2006 that three Raiders have reached the century mark. In 2006, LB Kirk Morrison (127), LB Thomas Howard (110) and S Stuart Schweigert (107) all topped 100. Over the last four weeks of 2012, the Raiders ranked second in the NFL in total defense and fourth in scoring defense. Led in part by fourth-round selection Miles Burris, who established a franchise rookie record with 138 tackles, Oakland over the NFL's final quarter tied for fifth in rushing yards, shutting down the AFC's No. 1 ground-gainer Jamaal Charles, and sixth in net passing yards, including games against explosive Cam Newton and the league's No. 2-rated QB, Peyton Manning.

Tarver served as co-defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Stanford in 2011, after spending 10 seasons in various coaching capacities with the San Francisco 49ers.

Tarver was appointed co-defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Stanford in February 2011 and coordinated one of the top defensive units in the PAC-12. The Cardinal ranked either first or second in the conference in six defensive categories, rushing defense (first-84.4), third-down conversion defense (first-31.1), scoring defense (second-21.9), total defense (second-337.6), sacks per game (second-3.0) and opponent first downs (second-17.5). Stanford finished third nationally in rushing defense, sixth in third-down-conversion defense (31.0; 51-164) and 11th in sacks per game (3.0).

Tarver spent the previous decade on the staff of the 49ers, coaching San Francisco's outside linebackers for six seasons (2005-10) prior to his appointment at Stanford. He began coaching at the NFL level as a quality control coach for the 49ers (2001-03) before being promoted to assistant running backs/offensive assistant coach for the 2004 campaign.

AT A GLANCE

- Played football at West Valley Junior College in Saratoga from 1993-94, then spent the 1996-97 seasons as a defensive assistant coach.
- Earned his bachelor's degree in chemistry in 1997 from Santa Clara University, and his master's degree in biochemistry and molecular biology from UCLA.
- Received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000 from UCLA.
- Spent 10 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, six of which were spent coaching outside linebackers.

COACHING BACKGROUND

1996-97	West Valley College	Assistant Coach
1998-00	UCLA	Graduate Assistant
2001-03	San Francisco 49ers	Offensive Quality Control
2004	San Francisco 49ers	Assistant Running Backs/ Offensive Assistant
2005-08	San Francisco 49ers	Defensive Assistant/Outside Linebackers
2009-10	San Francisco 49ers	Outside Linebackers
2011	Stanford	Co-Defensive Coordinator/Inside Linebackers
2012-13	Oakland Raiders	Defensive Coordinator

Under Tarver's guidance in 2009, the 49ers' outside linebackers recorded 15 takeaways, 17.5 sacks and nine forced fumbles, setting the edge for a run defense that ranked sixth in the NFL. Linebacker Manny Lawson enjoyed a breakout season as he led the team with a career-high 6.5 sacks, while Ahmad Brooks recorded a career-best six sacks. Parys Haralson also posted five sacks. Both Lawson and Brooks recorded four forced fumbles, which tied the 49ers' single-season record. The 49ers finished the season tied for third in the NFL in sacks (44) and tied for first in forced fumbles (21), and ranked fourth in points allowed per game (17.6).

In 2007, Tarver played an instrumental role in the development of Haralson, who was elevated to a starting role after Lawson was lost for the season with an injury during the second week of the season. A year later, Haralson led the team with a career-high eight sacks, tied for second among NFC linebackers.

Prior to joining the 49ers in 2001, Tarver spent three seasons (1998-2000) as a graduate assistant coach at UCLA, where he worked primarily with the defensive backs while assisting with the special teams. During his tenure with the Bruins, three defensive backs, cornerbacks Ricky Manning and Jason Bell along with safety Marques Anderson, joined the NFL ranks.

A Northern California native, Tarver played football at West Valley Junior College in Saratoga from 1994-95. He spent the 1996 and 1997 seasons as an assistant coach on the West Valley staff, tutoring linebackers, defensive backs and special teams.

PERSONAL: Tarver earned his bachelor's degree in chemistry in 1997 from Santa Clara University, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his master's degree in biochemistry and molecular biology from UCLA and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000. Tarver and his wife, Katie, have two sons, Merrick and Keegan.

Terrell WILLIAMS

DEFENSIVE LINE

College: East Carolina
Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.
High School: Dorsey (Los Angeles, Calif.)

Second season as NFL coach
Second season with Raiders

Last season, DE Lamarr Houston earned the AFC Defensive Player of the Week award for his performance against Jacksonville on Oct. 21. Houston totaled seven tackles (six solo), one sack and a critical forced fumble in the Raiders' 26-23 overtime win. In overtime, Houston forced a fumble was recovered by teammate Joselio Hanson, setting up K Sebastian Janikowski's game-winning field goal. In addition, DE Andre Carter ranks eighth among active NFL players with 78.5 career sacks. He posted his first sack as a Raider vs. Tampa Bay on Nov. 4, and added a sack vs. Kansas City on Dec. 16.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Williams spent the previous two seasons in the same capacity at Texas A&M. In two years at Texas A&M, the Aggies advanced to a pair of bowl games, including a win over Northwestern in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2011. The Aggies led the nation with 51 sacks last year and finished third nationally in tackles for loss, with an average of eight per game.

In 2010, Williams helped lead the Aggies to a share of their first Big 12 South crown in more than a decade and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. Texas A&M allowed just 101.9 rushing yards per game, ranking 12th in the nation. In his first season, A&M improved from 90th to 30th nationally in rushing defense, allowing 130.2 yards per contest.

Williams came to A&M after four years as the defensive line coach at Purdue. During his time with the Boilermakers, Williams coached the entire line each year with the exception of 2008, when he focused solely on the defensive end position. He also served as Purdue's liaison to the NFL.

In 2007, Williams served an internship with the Seattle Seahawks, assisting the defensive line during training camp. During the summer of 1999, Williams interned with the Jacksonville Jaguars, assisting with the defensive line, and served an internship with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

During his time at Purdue, Williams tutored the likes of future Dallas defensive lineman Anthony Spencer. Spencer led the NCAA in tackles for loss and was a first-team All-American before becoming a first-round pick of the Cowboys in 2007. Defensive end Cliff Avril was a third-round selection of the Detroit Lions in 2008, with Alex Magee being selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the third round of the 2009 NFL Draft. In addition, Mike Neal was drafted in the second round by the Green Bay Packers in 2010, and Ryan Kerrigan was selected by the Washington Redskins in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft.

Prior to his tenure at Purdue, Williams coached the defensive line at Akron in 2004 and 2005. The Zips won the Mid-American Conference championship game in 2005 and played in the Motor City Bowl. Both the league championship and postseason-bowl appearance were firsts in the school's history.

Williams spent two years (2002-03) as the defensive line coach at Youngstown State before moving on to Akron.

From 1999-2001, Williams served on the coaching staff at North Carolina A&T, working with the defensive line. The Aggies ranked third in total defense among NCAA Division I-AA schools in 1999, allowing 259.4 yards per game, and fifth in 2000 with 261.2 yards per game. The Aggies were the black college national champion in 1999 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs while finishing 10th in the final poll.

PERSONAL: A Los Angeles native, Williams earned a bachelor's degree from East Carolina in 1998. He was a nose guard for the Pirates and a member of the 1995 team that defeated Stanford in the Liberty Bowl, and finished the year ranked No. 23 in the final USA Today/ESPN poll. Williams is married to Tiffini.

Fourth NFL season
Second Raiders Season
High School: Rock Hill (Rock Hill, S.C.)

Selected by San Francisco 49ers in seventh round (224th overall) of 2010 NFL Draft, April 24, 2010…Signed first contract, May 17, 2010…Waived by 49ers, Sept. 3, 2011…Signed by New England Patriots as free agent, Sept. 21, 2011…Waived by Patriots, Oct. 8, 2011…Re-signed by Patriots, Oct. 13, 2011…Waived by Patriots, Oct. 14, 2011…Re-signed by Patriots, Oct. 18, 2011…Waived by Patriots, Nov. 29, 2011…Signed by Seattle Seahawks as free agent, Dec. 20, 2011…Waived by Seahawks, Aug. 31, 2012…Claimed off waivers by Oakland Raiders, Sept. 1, 2012…Placed on injured reserve (groin) by Raiders, Dec. 29, 2012.

CAREER: A cornerback with punt-return capability, has played in 37 career games with two starts in three seasons with Oakland, San Francisco, New England and Seattle…Served as primary punt-return man for Raiders in 2012…Also worked his way into Oakland's starting lineup late in 2012 season, when he made his first two NFL starts…Owns 37 career tackles (27 solo), three INTs and eight passes defensed.

2012: Played in the first 15 games, including his first two NFL starts, before missing the season finale with a groin injury; placed on injured reserve Dec. 29...In 175 defensive snaps, finished with 16 tackles (11 solo), two interceptions and six passes defensed – all career bests…Compiled both INTs and all six passes defensed over a four-game stretch from Dec. 2-23…Also returned 25 punts for 139 yards (5.6 avg.), and added three tackles on special teams…Claimed by Raiders in 2012 off waivers from Seattle entering the regular season, showing potential as a punt-returner early in year…Then, pressed into action at cornerback, capitalized on opportunity and parlayed a solid November-December stretch into his first NFL starts, supplanting veteran starter Ron Bartell, who was waived… However, two concussions and a groin injury conspired to limit his late-season playing time…Joined Raiders Aug. 31, less than 24 hours after returning kickoffs against Oakland in the preseason finale at CenturyLink Field (8/30)…(9/10) vs. SD: Returned a punt 15 yards in first quarter to set up game's initial points, a Sebastian Janikowski field goal; returned his first punts since 2010 with the 49ers…(9/16) at Mia.: Returned a third-quarter punt 47 yards, Oakland's longest in four years, to set up a field goal; also had 24- and 36-yard returns erased due to penalties…His 47-yard return was the longest by a Raider since Johnnie Lee Higgins' 80-yard TD vs. the Houston Texans on Dec. 21, 2008…(10/14) at Atl.: Played 17 snaps at cornerback…(10/28) at KC: Ripped off a 27-yard punt return late in the third quarter…(12/2) vs. Cle.: Registered his second career interception, picking off Brandon Weeden deep in Raiders territory to end a Browns drive late in first half; however, did not return (concussion) after colliding with teammate on same play…(12/06) vs. Den.: Limited in practice due to concussion, nearly intercepted Peyton Manning twice, but settled for one… First, picked off the future Hall-of-Famer with a diving interception at his own goal line in second quarter, snaring an underthrown ball…Then, nearly corralled another Manning pass late in second quarter, forcing a Broncos punt…Also beat a blocker to make a sure third-down stop to force Denver to settle for third-quarter field goal…(12/16) vs. KC: Played well enough over a two-week period to supplant veteran starter Ron Bartell (waived), and made his first NFL start…(12/23) at Car.: Returned to the lineup and broke up a first-quarter pass to force a punt, but sustained a groin injury in the first half and did not return.

AT A GLANCE

- Served as Raiders' primary 2012 punt-returner, and worked his way into starting lineup at CB late in the year. Finished with two interceptions.
- Played in 22 games in two seasons with San Francisco, New England and Seattle, prior to joining Raiders.
- With Patriots, recorded first career interception, picking off pass in end zone against Kansas City in 2011.
- Played in 42 games in four seasons at South Carolina State.

2011: Played in six games with New England and one game with Seattle…Recorded first career interception…In training camp with the 49ers… Signed by Patriots on Sept.21…Signed by Seahawks on Dec. 20…(11/21) vs. KC: Registered his first career INT, picking off Tyler Palko in the end zone…(11/27) at Phi.: Credited with three solo tackles…(12/24) vs. SF: Made only appearance as a Seahawk, on special teams.

2010: Played in 15 games with San Francisco, mostly on special teams… Totaled 13 tackles and one pass defensed…Also returned four punts for 29 yards…(9/12) at Sea.: Made NFL debut, posting one tackle…(11/29) at ARI: Credited with first career pass defensed…(12/5) at GB: Matched a season high with two tackles (one solo).

COLLEGE: Played in 42 games in four years at South Carolina State…A 2009 first-team All-MEAC selection…Led team to a 10-2 record…Finished senior season with 48 tackles and a team-high 11 passes defensed…Led team with five interceptions as a junior…Also served as a spot punt returner.

PERSONAL: Attended Rock Hill (S.C.) High School…Helped football team to state championship in 2004…Also played basketball, helping school to state title during senior season.

Sixth NFL season
Sixth Raiders Season
High School: Cicero (Syracuse, N.Y.)

Selected by Oakland Raiders as first of two selections in fourth round (100th overall) of 2008 NFL Draft, April 27, 2008…Signed first contract, July 16, 2008…Placed on reserve/injured (shoulder), Nov. 5, 2008…Designated franchise player, March 2, 2012…Signed franchise-player contract, May 7, 2012… Signed contract extension, July 14, 2012.

CAREER: Talented safety has topped the 100-tackle mark in each of the last four seasons, including a career-high 146 in 2012…Named an alternate for the Pro Bowl in 2011…Has started 62 of the last 64 games at SS over the past four seasons, since a shoulder injury cut short his rookie campaign…Pivotal to the Raiders, has helped Oakland to a 6-1 record when he registers a takeaway (four INT, three fumble recoveries), and a 5-1 mark when he sacks the quarterback...Career totals include 493 tackles (357 solo), four interceptions, six sacks, 23 passes defensed and three forced fumbles…Also has returned eight kickoffs for 120 yards.

2012: Played and started 14 games, missing one due to a neck injury and the other due to a badly sprained ankle…In 835 snaps, finished second on the team with a career-high 146 tackles (90 solo); also had three tackles for loss, one interception, eight QB hurries, two QB hits and seven passes defensed…Signed a long-term contract over the offseason, after the team designated him its franchise player… (9/10) vs. SD: Credited by coaches with two big hits and a pass broken up…(9/16) at Mia.: Posted at the time a career-best 16 tackles (11 solo), including two big hits; twisted an ankle in the third quarter, but returned to action…(9/23) vs. Pit.: In 34-31 win, eclipsed his career high from the previous week with 17 tackles, two of which came on crushing hits…Also hurried Ben Roethlisberger to force a first-quarter incompletion, and broke up a second-quarter pass to force a punt…(9/30) at Den.: Made a TD-saving tackle of Willis McGahee in first quarter, on a drive ending in a FG…(10/14) at Atl.: In second quarter of heartbreaking loss to undefeated Falcons, registered his first INT since 9/25/11, picking off Matt Ryan to set up a touchdown…(10/21) vs. Jac.: Nearly intercepted a second-quarter pass, unable to corral the throw at his feet…(10/28) at KC: In key road win, broke up a sure go-ahead touchdown in the end zone, a pass intended for Tony Moeaki, to force a field goal in the second quarter; then delivered a big hit on QB Matt Cassel to force an incompletion just before half…(11/4) vs. TB: Dropped Doug Martin for a 1-yard loss with Oakland down 35-32 late in game, then two plays later made a third-down stop to force a punt…(11/11) at Bal.: Delivered a marrow-jarring hit on Jacoby Jones' third-quarter end-around run…(11/18) vs. NO: Inactive with a neck injury, sustained in Ravens contest; missed his first since the end of the 2008 season, snapping a string of 57 games, all starts…(11/25) at Cin.: Returned to the lineup and helped force a first-quarter punt with his QB pressure on third down; later, in a 27-10 game with seven minutes left in the game, had what would've been a 22-yard fumble-return TD taken away after an inadvertent whistle by rule forced a replay of the down…(12/2) vs. Cle.: Slowed in fourth quarter by stinger…(12/06) vs. Den.: Injured an ankle early in game, then returned in the second quarter…Drew a holding penalty in the second half…(12/16) vs. KC: Missed most of the practice week (ankle), but still played every snap in 15-0 win, Oakland's first shutout in 10 years; helped limit Chiefs to 119 total yards, fewest by a Raiders defense since 1975…Stuffed AFC's leading rusher, Jamaal Charles, for no gain on third-and-1 in fourth quarter, helping Oakland match its franchise record by allowing just 10 rushing yards…(12/23) at Car.: Again missed most of practice but still started; drew a first-quarter holding penalty that nullified a 76-yard TD run, then left later in the first quarter with a foot injury, related to his ankle issue, and did not return…(12/30) at SD: Inactive with ankle injury.

AT A GLANCE

- First name is pronounced ty-VAHN.
- Oakland is 6-1 when he has a takeaway (four interceptions, three fumble recoveries). The team is 5-1 when he records a sack.

HT. 6-1 WT. 192
Born: 6/9/83
Acquired: UFA-'13 (Cle.)

Ninth NFL season
First Raiders Season
High School: Dunbar (Washington D.C.)

Signed as a non-drafted free agent by Cleveland Browns, May 2, 2005…Re-signed by Browns as exclusive-rights free agent, July 11, 2006…Signed new contract with Browns, March 6, 2010…Signed by Oakland Raiders as unrestricted free agent, May 16, 2013.

CAREER: Discovered by Browns scouts less than an hour from team headquarters, at Kent State, entered the NFL as an undrafted prospect…A quarterback most of his life, converted as an NFL rookie into a return man by Cleveland's staff…Quickly found his niche and has cemented himself as one of the most dominant special-teams threats in NFL history…Owns two Pro Bowl selections (2007, 2009)…Signed by Oakland as an unrestricted free agent this past offseason, could give the Raiders a boost in their return game…Leads all active players in career kickoff returns and yards…With 11 combined touchdowns on kickoffs (eight) and punts (three), ranks fifth in NFL history, trailing Devin Hester (17, 2006-12), Brian Mitchell (13, 1990-2003), Dante Hall (12, 2000-08) and Eric Metcalf (12, 1989-2002)…Shares another NFL record with nine other players for kickoff-return TDs in a game, with two in a 2009 win at Kansas City…Also enters 2013 ranked sixth all-time in kickoff returns (387), fifth in kickoff-return yards (10,015) and sixth (12,169) in combined kick/punt-return yards…His 10,015 kickoff-return yards are the most for any NFL player with one team…Owns two of the top four days ever recorded by an NFL return man, 306 combined kickoff/punt-return yards in a 2007 contest vs. Baltimore and 305 in a 2009 trip to Kansas City…A wide receiver by trade, has started 31 of 128 games played over an eight-year career, with 107 receptions for 1,161 yards (10.9 avg.) and seven TDs…Also has 128 NFL carries for 753 yards (5.9 avg.) and two TDs.

2012: Played in 16 games with two starts, caught seven passes for 63 yards, and rushed six times for 42 yards…On special teams, averaged 12.0 yards (sixth in NFL) on 38 punt returns, including a 60-yarder, and averaged 27.4 yards (fourth in NFL) on 43 kickoff returns, with a long of 74…Ranked fourth on the team with nine special-teams tackles, playing a key role in a kickoff-coverage unit that ranked second in the NFL (19.8-yard average allowed on 43 returns)…Became just the sixth player in NFL history to reach 12,000 combined kickoff- and punt-return yards…Just missed the Pro Bowl, receiving first-alternate status as both a return man and special-teamer…(9/23) vs. Buf.: With 85 kickoff-return yards, surpassed Michael Bates (9,110) for sixth on the NFL's all-time list…(9/27) at Bal.: Started as a WR, catching two passes for 11 yards, but sustained a concussion on a punt return and did not return…(10/7) at NYG: Set up a Phil Dawson field goal with a 74-yard kickoff return, his longest since Dec. 20, 2009…(10/14) vs. Cin.: Started on offense, had an 8-yard carry and returned two punts for 60 total yards, including a 60-yarder that set up a third-quarter field goal…Additionally, in a 34-24 win, set up a key fourth-quarter TD with a 44-yard kickoff return…(11/4) vs. Bal.: Eclipsed the NFL record held by Brian Mitchell (9,586, Washington) for most kickoff-return yards by a player with the same team…(11/18) at Dal.: In a tough 23-20 loss, paved the way for two touchdown drives, with 20- and 21-yard punt returns…(11/25) vs. Pit.: Sat out portion of game with shoulder injury…(12/9) vs. KC: Took two snaps as a Wildcat QB, and carried twice for 15 yards, including a 12-yard gain…His 38-yard punt return set up a FG in a Browns win…(12/16) vs. Was.: Turned a direct snap into a 16-yard run to the Redskins' 7, setting up a Trent Richardson TD…Matched his single-game career high with seven kickoff returns (third time)…(12/30) at Pit.: Became the Browns' all-time leader in punt-return yards, surpassing Dennis Northcutt (2,149)…Also became the fifth player in NFL annals to reach 10,000 career kickoff-return yards.

AT A GLANCE

- The kickoff returner on the NFL's all-decade team (2000s), currently shares league record with eight career touchdowns on kickoff returns, tied with Seattle's Leon Washington (2006-12) entering 2013.
- A two-time Pro Bowl selection, in eight NFL seasons has played wide receiver and Wildcat quarterback, having completed four of 12 pass attempts, in addition to his renowned return role.
- Did not return a college kickoff or punt in four years at Kent State. Converted from college quarterback to dynamic return man and versatile offensive weapon as a non-drafted rookie by Romeo Crennel's Cleveland staff in 2005.
- Started four years at quarterback and, in addition to record-setting total offense and rushing numbers, punted 10 times (with seven inside the 20) and caught four passes. Served as the Golden Flashes' starting QB as a true freshman in 2001, when he finished second in MAC Freshman of the Year voting to Ben Roethlisberger.
- One of four Kent State players with his number retired, joining a group that includes Jack Lambert.
- A prep quarterback in Washington D.C., concluded his high-school career leading his Dunbar team to a conference championship, throwing a pair of TDs, one to Vernon Davis. Lettered in four sports, including swimming.

CAREER: Won the backup quarterback job with Green Bay as a rookie in 2008...While serving as Green Bay's backup for four seasons (2008-11), played in 34 career games with two starts...During his tenure, he completed 82 of 132 attempts for 1,015 yards with nine TDs and five INTs...In his two career starts, totaled 731 yards with nine TDs and two INTs...Joined Dan Marino and Kurt Warner as the only three QBs to throw three-plus TD passes in each of their first two career starts...With Aaron Rodgers inactive on Dec. 19, 2010, got the starting nod against an 11-2 Patriots team that entered the game with a league-high 15-game winning streak at home...Completed 24-of-37 passes for 251 yards and three touchdowns with one interception for a 100.2 passer rating in Green Bay's 31-27 loss...Became the first Packers QB to throw three TD passes in his first career start since Anthony Dilweg posted the same number on Sept. 9, 1990...Also saw significant time in 2010 in Week 14 at Detroit after Rodgers sustained a concussion in the second quarter...Completed 40-of-66 passes (60.6 percent) for 433 yards, three TDs and two INTs for an 82.4 passer rating...Played in five games at QB in relief of Rodgers in 2009 after seeing action in three contests in his first season.

2012: Saw action in two contests while serving as Seattle's backup quarterback...(12/9) vs. Ari.: Was 5-for-9 (55.6 percent) for 68 yards and a 79.9 passer rating...Helped the team rout the Cardinals 58-0 after coming into the game in the fourth quarter.

2011: Saw action in five games with one start...(9/14) vs. Min.: Was 2-for-2 for 38 yards with a 118.8 passer rating...(1/1/12) vs. Det.: Made the second start of his career on New Year's Day, producing one of the most statistically outstanding performances by a QB in Packers history...Completed 31-of-44 attempts while setting single-game records with 480 yards and six TDs, including an 80-yard touchdown pass...Joined Y.A. Tittle and Joe Namath as the only three QBs in NFL history to have posted 480-plus yards and six-plus TDs in the same game...Completed 5-of-7 attempts for 73 yards and a TD on the game-winning drive.

2010: Appeared in seven games with one start, completing 40-of-66 passes for 433 yards, three TDs and two INTs (82.4 rating)...Active, but did not play in other nine regular-season contests...Played in one postseason contest, serving as the No. 2 QB in the other three, but seeing no action...(12/12) at Det.: Saw the most extended playing time of his career to that point, entering the game for Rodgers (concussion) with 1:12 remaining in the first half...Connected on 15-of-26 passes for 177 yards with an INT...(12/19) at NE: Made first career start...Completed 24-of-37 (64.9 percent) for 251 yards and three TDs with one INT against the 11-2 Patriots...According to Elias Sports Bureau, his 100.2 passer rating was the highest by any NFL quarterback making his first career start against a team with a 10-2 record or better since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

2009: Served as the No. 2 QB for the second straight season...Played in 15 games, handling holding duties for FGs and PATs in the first 13 games and seeing time at QB in five contests, completing 7-of-12 passes for 58 yards with one INT...(10/25) at Cle: Saw first action at QB on the season when he relieved Rodgers with just under nine minutes remaining...Completed 1-of-2 passes...Saw most extensive action of career at that point, coming in for Roders for final snap of the third quarter and playing the entire fourth quarter...Completed 4-of-6 passes for 36 yards.

2008: Played in seven games, three of them at QB and the last four games at holder. Completed 2-of-5 passes for 6 yards...(9/14) at Det.: Took his first NFL snaps with two kneel downs to end game in a 48-25 win...(9/28) vs. TB: Played two series in the fourth quarter after Rodgers was sidelined with a shoulder injury...Completed 2-of-5 passes for 6 yards.

COLLEGE: Capped LSU career by leading the Tigers to the 2007 BCS National Championship with a win over Ohio State and earned Offensive MVP honors in the game...Finished career with an 11-2 record as a a starter, including a 10-2 record as a senior in 2007...Passed for 31 career TDs and served as the holder on FGs and PATs entire career...Threw for 2,407 yards and 21 TDs as a senior, including five games with three or more TD passes...Separated his shoulder in the third quarter of the season finale versus Arkansas, but returned to finish the triple-overtime Tiger victory...Was forced to miss the SEC Championship Game versus Tennessee the following week, but returned to lead LSU to the National Title versus Ohio State tying a school record with four TD passes in the 38-24 victory...Played a reserve role at QB in seven games as a junior...Threw for 133 yards and two TDs with one INT...Played in seven games at QB as a sophomore in 2005 and totaled 457 yards completing 24-of-48 attempts with seven TDs and one INT...As a redshirt freshman, served as the Tigers' No. 3 QB and played in all 12 games, seeing action at QB in three contests.

AT A GLANCE

- Served as the No. 2 quarterback each of the last three seasons, and held for field goals and extra points in separate stints in 2008-09 as well.
- Started his first pro game in 2010 at New England (11-2) with the Packers in Week 15, where his 100.2 passer rating in the contest was the highest by any NFL quarterback making his first career start against a team with a 10-2 record or better since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- Also became the first Packers QB to throw three TD passes in his first career start since Anthony Dilweg posted the same number vs. the Los Angeles Rams on Sept. 9, 1990.
- Was one of only six rookie quarterbacks in the NFL to throw a pass in 2008.
- Finished LSU career by leading the Tigers to the 2007 BCS National Championship with a 38-24 win over Ohio State and earned Offensive MVP honors.
- Capped his college career with an 11-2 record as LSU's starting quarterback.
- His 31 career touchdown passes rank tied for sixth in school history, despite serving as the Tigers' starting quarterback for just one season.

Fourth NFL season
Fourth Raiders Season
High School: Cardinal Newman (West Palm Beach, Fla.)

Selected by Oakland Raiders as second of two fourth-round choices (108th overall) in 2010 NFL Draft, April 24, 2010…Signed first contract, July 19, 2010.

CAREER: Explosive talent was slowed by injuries in second pro season… Already owns Raiders franchise records with four career kickoff-return touchdowns and three in one season (2010)…According to Elias Sports Bureau, his four kick-return TDs are tied for the most ever through a player's first two NFL seasons (Andre Coleman, Devin Hester, Darrick Vaughn and Travis Williams); he needs two more in 2012 to match Gale Sayers' NFL record for a player's first three years, six...Has played in 24 games with 12 starts over two NFL seasons…Owns 44 receptions for 749 yards and three TD catches…Also has averaged 25.3 yards on 64 kickoff returns.

2012: Did not play…Sustained a Lisfranc foot injury after catching a pass in the team's second preseason game, at Arizona (8/17); missed the final two weeks of preseason practice…(9/10) vs. SD: Inactive with foot injury…Opted to undergo foot surgery in North Carolina Sept. 11 and went on season-ending reserve/injured Sept. 16.

2011: Played in just eight games with three starts due to injuries…Totaled 19 receptions for 279 yards and one touchdown…Returned 11 kickoffs for 341 yards (31.0 avg.) and one touchdown…(10/2) vs. NE: Had a season-long 30-yard rush…(10/16) vs. Cle: Part of a strong special-teams effort in first Raiders home game after the passing of owner Al Davis…Garnered AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after returning a kickoff 101 yards for a touchdown, third-longest in franchise history; extended team's career record with his fourth kick-return TD…(11/6) vs. Den.: Posted first 100-yard receiving game of season, hauling in five passes for 105 yards and one touchdown… Score came on an 18-yard pass from Carson Palmer …(11/10) at SD: Had a season-long 41-yard reception to help set up a Raiders touchdown…Injured his foot on play and inactive for the following six games…(1/1/12) vs. SD: Returned to action following injury…Had two catches for 19 yards.

Ninth NFL season
Second Raiders Season
High School: St. Bernard (Playa Del Rey, Calif.)

Signed as a non-drafted free agent by San Francisco 49ers, May 2, 2003…Waived by 49ers, Aug. 31, 2003…Re-signed by 49ers to practice squad, Sept. 9, 2003…Re-signed by 49ers as reserve/future free agent, Jan. 17, 2004…Waived by 49ers, Sept. 25, 2004…Re-signed by 49ers, Sept. 28, 2004…Waived by 49ers, Aug. 29, 2005…Signed by Philadelphia Eagles as free agent, June 5, 2006…Re-signed by Eagles as restricted free agent, April 1, 2008…Re-signed new contract with Eagles, Feb. 23, 2009…Placed on reserve/suspended by commissioner, Nov. 11, 2009…Activated Dec. 7, 2009…Terminated by Eagles, Sept. 3, 2011…Re-signed by Eagles, Sept. 7, 2011…Terminated by Eagles, Aug. 31, 2012…Signed by Oakland Raiders as free agent, Sept. 3, 2012…Re-signed by Raiders as unrestricted free agent, April 9, 2013.

CAREER: One of the league's most reliable slot cornerbacks and special-teams contributors over his long NFL career, enters his ninth season… Initially signed by Oakland just prior to the 2012 opener, re-signed with the Raiders as an unrestricted free agent this past offseason…In his first Raiders season, started five of 16 games and matched his 2009 career high with two interceptions…A speedy and gritty player with a reputation for finding the football…In fact, has recovered a fumble in six consecutive seasons (2007-12), tied for the NFL's second-longest active streak with Josh Wilson (Seattle-Baltimore); only Bradie James (seven, Dallas-Houston) has a longer string …Initially as a rookie free agent after the 2003 draft with the 49ers…Waived by San Francisco in the 2003 preseason, spent his rookie year on the 49ers' practice squad…The following year, played in 13 Niners games with three starts, including his first NFL sack…Played as a non-attached player in NFL Europe, during the spring of 2006, and helped the Frankfurt Galaxy win the league title in May…Signed by the Eagles, who liked the flexibility provided by his NFL Europe roster exemption, to sign him a week after the NFLE title game…Spent the majority of his career in Philadelphia, where he missed just five games over six seasons (2006-11), and played a small but significant role in the Eagles' four playoff berths.

AT A GLANCE

- First name is pronounced ho-SELL-ee-oh.
- A ninth-year veteran, played six seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles after beginning his career with the 49ers as a non-drafted free agent.
- With a reputation for finding the football, shares the NFL's second-longest active streak of seasons with a fumble recovery, six, entering 2013.
- Thought his pro career was over after sitting out the 2005 season. Took one final swing in spring 2006, and helped the Frankfurt Galaxy win the NFL Europe title. One week later, signed with Philadelphia, and helped the Eagles to four playoff berths in six years.
- Inspired to play football as an eighth grader after watching Deion Sanders earn NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in leading the 49ers to a Super Bowl XXIX title.
- Grew up in a family of five boys whose father, John, was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis at the time of Joselio's birth, and passed away in 2000. His mother, Yolanda, met his father at Howard University, after leaving Panama to attend college.

2012: Played in all 16 games, with five starts…In 552 defensive plays, compiled a career-high 68 stops (50 solo), three for loss, seven hurries, four QB hits, two INTs, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery …Signed by Raiders as free agent, Sept. 3, after six seasons with the Eagles…(9/10) vs. SD: Made his Raiders debut, playing on special teams… (9/16) at Mia.: Played much of the game at cornerback with both 2012 starters, Ron Bartell and Shawntae Spencer, sidelined by injury…(9/23) vs. Pit.: Played 49 snaps as a key defensive reserve, and recovered a second-quarter Jonathan Dwyer fumble to set up a game-tying touchdown; wound up with a career-best nine tackles…(9/30) at Den.: Made his first Oakland start, as a fifth DB…(10/14) at Atl.: Halted the Falcons' opening drive by picking off Matt Ryan, perfectly reading the play, jumping the route and returning the ball a career-long 21 yards, his first INT since robbing Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers at Lincoln Financial Field Sept. 12, 2010; in second half with Oakland leading by a TD, broke up a third-down pass to force Atlanta to settle for a field goal, then assisted on a key goal-line stand late in third quarter…(10/21) vs. Jac.: Made two clutch plays in final minutes, breaking up a fourth-quarter pass with Oakland trailing 23-16, then recovering a Cecil Shorts fumble on the third play of overtime at the Jags' 21-yard line, setting up Sebastian Janikowski's game-ending field goal…(10/28) at KC: Made his season's second start, as a fifth defensive back…(11/4) vs. TB: Drew a start as a fifth defensive back, then forced a key incompletion with his pressure on QB Josh Freeman late in the first half…(11/18) vs. NO: A game-week captain, made consecutive plays late in the second quarter to keep his team in the game; first punched the ball from the hands of Jimmy Graham after a reception, then after the Saints recovered the fumble, nearly sacked Drew Brees but corralled him enough to force an intentional grounding…(11/25) at Cin.: In the fourth quarter with Oakland down 27-10, made what may have been the defensive play of the year if not for an inadvertent whistle; stripped Mohamed Sanu in the left flat after a short completion, then somehow tip-toed along the sideline to bat the ball back in bounds before Tyvon Branch scooped it and returned the ball 22 yards for what would've been a mammoth defensive score…Officials took several minutes to determine that their whistle had blown the play dead, then gave the Bengals possession, and played the down over…Earlier in second half, broke up a pass on third down to force a punt…(12/2) vs. Cle.: Made his fourth start, lining up as a free safety on game's first play; also took a good angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle in the third quarter…(12/6) vs. Den.: Started in the nickel package and played 69 snaps…(12/16) vs. KC: Played key role in 15-0 win, Oakland's first shutout in 10 years; helped limit Chiefs to 119 total yards, fewest by a Raiders defense since 1975…Tied his 2009 single-season career high with his second INT, picking off Brady Quinn early in second quarter, then dropped Dexter McCluster for no gain on fourth-and-1 to snuff out a fourth-quarter threat…Helped Oakland match its franchise record by allowing just 10 rushing yards…(12/23) at Car.: Dropped Cam Newton for a 2-yard loss in the first quarter, then forced a third-quarter punt with a sure tackle short of the sticks.

2011: In his final Eagles season, played in all 16 games with one start, posting 35 tackles (29 solo), four passes defensed and a fumble recovery…(12/18) vs. NYJ: Recovered a Mark Sanchez fumble forced by teammate Mike Patterson; turnover led to an Eagles TD and 28-0 lead early in second quarter

2010: Played in 15 games with a career-high six starts, and finished second on the team with 11 pass deflections…Also had 36 tackles (27 solo), one interception and a fumble recovery…(10/10) at SF: Started in place of an injured

Asante Samuel (concussion) and recovered a Frank Gore fumble in the first quarter, setting up a field goal…(9/12) vs. GB: Picked off QB Aaron Rodgers in the first quarter, his second consecutive season-opener with an interception.

2009: Played in 12 games with one start, and amassed 13 special-teams tackles…Also had 35 tackles (28 solo), shared a sack, picked off two passes, broke up eight overall and recovered a fumble… (1/3) at Dal.: Picked off Tony Romo in first quarter… (12/13) at NYG: Combined with Victor Abiamiri on a sack of Eli Manning and later recovered a fumble in the fourth quarter, sealing the victory…(9/13) at Car.: Intercepted Matt Moore.

2008: Played in all 16 games with three starts, posting 32 tackles (14 solo), one sack, one INT, five passes defensed an one electrifying fumble return… Also compiled eight tackles from scrimmage (six solo) in three playoff games, helping Philadelphia advance to the NFC Championship…(12/28) vs. Dal.: Recovered a fumble forced by Brian Dawkins and raced 96 yards for a his first NFL TD in a playoff-clinching win; the play tied for the second-longest fumble return in Eagles history (Joe Lavendar in 1974), trailing only Mike Patterson's 98-yard return in 2006…(11/27) vs. Ari.: Started in place of an injured Asante Samuel and recorded his first career INT in a win, picking off Kurt Warner… (11/16) at Cin.: Sacked Ryan Fitzpatrick in the first quarter.

2007: Saw action in all 16 contests, starting four, and notched 45 tackles (31 solo), one sack and a fumble recovery…(10/14) at NYJ: Registered a sack of Chad Pennington.

2006: Played in 16 games (one start) for the Eagles and finished with career-high 12 passes knocked down…Also ranked fifth on the team in special-teams production points (139)…(12/31) vs. Atl.: Played the majority of the game after starters were pulled midway through the first qtr., and broke up four passes…(10/2) vs. GB: Made his first start as an Eagle, and registered three passes broken up… (9/24) at SF: Contributed six tackles, three PBUs and two hurries as the team's nickel CB…(9/17) vs. NYG: Played the majority of the game at RCB for an injured Rod Hood…With the World Bowl champion Frankfurt Galaxy in the NFL Europe, recorded 15 tackles and seven passes defensed.

2004: With San Francisco, saw field for the first time…Posted 20 tackles and a sack in 13 games (three starts)…(12/26) vs. Buf.: Brought down QB Drew Bledsoe for his first career sack.

2003: Spent the season on the 49ers' practice squad after signing with the team as a rookie free agent.

COLLEGE: Finished his two-year career at Texas Tech with 128 tackles, four INTs, 44 PBUs and a sack…Led the league as a senior with 27 passes defensed, earning third-team All-Big 12 honors…Transferred to Texas Tech from El Camino Junior College, where he tallied 30 tackles, three INTs and one TD…Earned his Texas Tech degree in human development and family studies.

PERSONAL: First name is pronounced ho-SELL-ee-oh…Has a daughter, Skyleigh…Credits Deion Sanders for inspiring him to start playing football in eighth grade, when Sanders was the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in leading the 49ers to a Super Bowl XXIX title…His parents, John and Yolanda, met while they were students at Howard University…Yolanda had moved to Washington, D.C., from Panama to go to college, while John had moved there from Alabama…John eventually earned his Ph.D. in music and became a high-school teacher, but was forced to retire abruptly when diagnosed with multiple sclerosis, around the time Joselio was born; he eventually passed away in 2000 due to complications from the disease…Grew up in a house with five boys, including brothers Johnny, Julio, Jacinto and Javier…Jacinto played RB at El Camino Junior College, while Javier played RB at the University of New Mexico…Joselio and Javier squared off once in college, with Joselio's Red Raiders winning the game…Lettered two years in football at St. Bernard High School in Playa Del Rey, Calif., where he led his team to the state finals as a senior; did not start as a junior…Began his prep career on the other side of the country, at Largo (Fla.) High School, where he played football and basketball for one year…Also lettered two years in basketball at St. Bernard.

WIDE RECEIVER | HILLSDALE

HT. 6-4 WT. 210
Born: 6/16/88
Acquired: W-'13 (NE)

Second NFL season
First Raiders Season
High School: James B. Conant (Hoffman Estates, Ill.)

Signed by Minnesota Vikings as non-drafted free agent, July 27, 2011…Waived by Vikings, Aug. 29, 2011…Signed by Dallas Cowboys to practice squad, Sept. 5, 2011…Promoted by Cowboys to active roster, Dec. 9, 2011…Waived by Cowboys, Nov. 24, 2012…Re-signed by Cowboys to practice squad, Nov. 27, 2012…Signed by New England Patriots as reserve/future free agent, Jan. 21, 2013…Waived by Patriots, May 10, 2013…Claimed off waivers by Oakland Raiders, May 13, 2013.

CAREER: An Oakland waiver-wire acquisition following the 2013 draft…Came into the NFL with the Minnesota Vikings, signed as a rookie free agent just after the 2011 draft…Waived in a preseason roster reduction, landed on the Dallas Cowboys practice squad…Promoted to the 53-man roster for the final quarter of 2011, but never dressed...Made the Cowboys' season-opening roster in 2012, caught his first two passes, and provided solid contributions on special teams, including an onside-kick recovery…Waived by Cowboys later in season, spent the balance of 2012 back on the practice squad…Rejoins college teammate Jared Veldheer in Oakland.

2012: Played in his first seven NFL games, primarily on special teams…Caught two passes for 11 yards (5.5 avg.) and added two coverage tackles…(9/5) at NYG: Made his NFL debut in the league's Wednesday-night opener; on the opening kickoff, made the season's first tackle, dropping David Wilson at his own 16, setting the tone for a 24-17 Cowboys win…(10/1) vs. Chi.: Made his first NFL reception, converting a third down with a 7-yard reception from Kyle Orton on a late touchdown drive…(10/14) at Bal.: With 30 seconds left and Dallas trailing 31-29, recovered his team's onside kick at the Cowboys' 46-yard line…Waived Nov. 24, returned three days later to team's practice squad, where he finished the season.

2011: Spent the final four weeks of his rookie season on the Cowboys' 53-man roster, but did not play...Initially signed with Cowboys Sept. 5...Entered the NFL with Minnesota as a non-drafted free agent.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter and four-year letterman at Division II Hillsdale College, about an hour southwest of Ann Arbor, Mich., garnered first-team all-conference honors three consecutive years…An All-American as a 2010 senior, turned in the most productive receiving season in the program's 119-year football history, with single-season school records in both receptions (104) and receiving yards (1,368), averaging 114.0 per game…Started all 12 games and helped lead his team to the first round of the NCAA playoffs and in his college swan song recorded a Hillsdale-record 16 catches, for 208 yards and two TDs, in a loss to St. Cloud State…As a 2009 junior, had 1,076 yards on 77 receptions...Became a starter as a sophomore after playing in all 11 games as a redshirt freshman...Also lettered in track and won the outdoor triple jump at the 2007 Greater Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships.

AT A GLANCE

- Reunited with college teammate Jared Veldheer, gives the Raiders two-thirds of the active NFL players from Hillsdale College, with first-year Panthers CB Nick Hixson.
- In 2012, became the sixth player from Hillsdale to play in an NFL game, joining G Howard Mudd (1964-70), HB Bruce McLenna (1966), K Chester Marcol (1972-80), WR Nate Johnson (1980) and Veldheer (2010-12).
- Made the first tackle of the 2012 NFL season, on kick coverage in the Wednesday-night opener.
- Father, Kevin, helped DePaul's basketball team to four NCAA tournament appearances in the 1980s.
- Won the triple jump at his conference championships with Hillsdale's track team in 2007.

PERSONAL: Father, Kevin Holmes, played college basketball for DePaul from 1982-86, helping the Blue Demons to four NCAA tournament appearances…Started just one season as a WR at James B. Conant High School in Hoffman Estates, Ill., helping lead the Cougars to a playoff berth.

Selected by Oakland Raiders in first round (17th overall) of 2000 NFL Draft, April 15, 2000…Signed first contract, July 22, 2000.

CAREER: A record-setting kicker with outstanding leg strength and accuracy, is the Raiders' all-time leading scorer with 1,271 points…Tied NFL record with a 63-yard field goal at Denver, 9/12/11…Tied an NFL single-game mark with three field goals of 50 yards or longer at Houston, 10/9/11…Set a team record with six field goals vs. Chicago, 11/27/11…Selected to first Pro Bowl in 2011…Set franchise record with 142 points in 2010…Also kicked the third-longest field goal in NFL history with a 61-yarder at Cleveland, 12/27/09…Received All-Pro recognition from Sports Illustrated in 2009…Has led the team in scoring in each of his 12 seasons…Has played in 188 games and seven postseason contests, including Super Bowl XXXVII…Owns the highest field-goal percentage in Raiders history at 79.6…Has made 293 of 368 FG attempts and is 392 of 395 (99.2 percent) on PATs…Has topped the century mark in scoring in six of his 12 professional seasons…Set an NFL record for longest overtime field goal, a 57-yarder vs. the Jets, 10/19/08…Also set a Raiders record with a 76-yard FG attempt vs. San Diego, 9/28/08…Tied an NFL record with four field goals in one quarter at Chicago, 10/5/03…Has kicked five field goals in a game three times; vs. Denver, 10/29/00; at Chicago, 10/5/03; and at Minnesota, 11/18/07…Set NFL single-game records with eight touchbacks and eight PATs at Denver, 10/24/10…Has made three or more field goals in a game 34 times, and has booted four or more 13 times…Just the fifth kicker ever drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft.

AT A GLANCE

- Last name is pronounced jan-ah-COW-skee.
- Owns two of the top five longest field goals in NFL history.
- Has played in 188 games and seven postseason contests, including Super Bowl XXXVII.
- He is, along with Shane Lechler, one of only three duos in the NFL that had been with their original drafted team for more than 11 seasons.
- Raiders all-time leading scorer with 1,271 career points, and has led the team in scoring in each of his 12 seasons.
- Tied NFL record with a 63-yard field goal, at Denver in 2011.
- Also in 2011, tied an NFL single-game mark with three field goals of 50 yards or longer.
- Turned down various soccer contract offers to play football at Florida State, after playing just one season of high-school football.

2012: Played in all 16 games...A first-level alternate for the Pro Bowl and second-team All-Pro (CBSSports.com), enjoyed arguably the best season by a kicker in Raiders history, missing only three of his 34 FG attempts: 51-, 61- and 64-yarders…Was one of just nine kickers in NFL history to hit at least 91.2 percent of his field goals during a season while perfect from 49 yards or less…Scored 118 points, including a perfect 25-for-25 on PATs…Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October…Enters 2013 having connected on 36 of his last 39 field goals, dating to Dec. 24, 2011, (his only misses 51-, 61- and 64-yarders)…On attempts of 40 yards or less, has hit 53 in a row, having last missed such an attempt on Sept. 26, 2010, at Arizona (32 yards), a 24-23 loss…On attempts of 40 or more, has converted 19 of his last 24 attempts (his five misses: 51-, 59-, 61-, 64- and 65-yarders)…Also enters 2013 with an active streak of 128 successful PATS, having last missed a PAT Dec. 14, 2008, vs. New England…Sustained a groin pull covering a kickoff vs. Detroit (8/25), and missed the preseason finale at Seattle (8/30) for precautionary reasons; has battled the groin issue most of the season…Wife gave birth to twin daughters Sept. 3… (9/10) vs. SD: Hit an important 51-yard field goal – his 37th FG of 50-plus yards – to get Oakland on the board in the first quarter…(9/16) at Mia.: Elected a game-week captain…(9/23) vs. Pit.: Kicked a 43-yard field goal as time expired, his 12th career game-winning kick, giving Oakland a dramatic 34-31 win…On previous drive, booted a 32-yarder to knot the game at 31…(10/14) at Atl.: Connected on a 52-yard field goal, his 38th career FG from 50-or-more yards, and posted four TBs…(10/21) vs. Jac.: Converted four of five FG tries, his lone miss from 64 yards at the end of regulation in attempt to break the NFL record; in 26-23 OT win, hit the game-ender from 40 yards out, on second down – the 13th game-winning kick of his career; also kicked the game-tying PAT with three minutes in regulation, and four touchbacks, one that split the uprights…(10/28) at KC: Improved his outstanding career numbers at Arrowhead Stadium with four FGs in 26-16 win; also had five touchbacks on seven kickoffs…(11/25) at Cin.: Connected on a season-long 55-yard field goal, his 39th career FG of 50-plus yards, extending his lead among active kickers…(12/2) vs. Cle.: Became the ninth player in franchise history to play 200 games in a Raiders uniform…Booted a 51-yarder in the second quarter to give him 40 career FGs of at least 50, tying Morten Andersen for third on the NFL's all-time list…(12/6) vs. Den.: Did not have a FG attempt, snapping a string of 15 straight contests with at least one three-pointer…(12/16) vs. KC: Earned his seventh career AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award…Was the only player to score a point, nailing five of six field goals in 15-0 triumph…With his 42nd career field goal of 50-plus yards, surpassed No. 3 Morten Anderson (40) and matched John Kasay for No. 2 on the NFL's all-time list, trailing an active Jason Hanson…Hit multiple 50-yard field goals for the fourth time in his career (also at Ten., 10/28/07; vs. Ind. 12/26/10; at Hou. 10/9/11), connecting from 57 and 50…On a 51-yard attempt in the second quarter, came about 2 feet wide left of matching the NFL record he shares for most FG of 50-plus in a game…His 57-yarder, a season best, came on the last play of the first half.

CORNERBACK | SOUTH FLORIDA

HT. 5-10 WT. 197
Born: 3/22/85
Acquired: UFA-'13 (Dal.)

Sixth NFL season
First Raiders Season
High School: Southeast (Bradenton,Fla.)

Selected by Dallas Cowboys in the first round (25th overall) of 2008 NFL Draft, April 26, 2008…Signed first contract, July 28, 2008…Signed by Oakland Raiders as unrestricted free agent, April 9, 2013.

CAREER: A first-round selection, selected 25th overall after Dallas traded up with Seattle in the 2008 draft, enters his sixth NFL season… One of two unrestricted free-agent cornerbacks to sign with the Raiders in 2013, joining Tracy Porter, spent his first five NFL campaigns in Dallas…An All-American at South Florida, capitalized on an early playing-time opportunity as a 2008 rookie, filling in for a suspended Adam Jones and an injured Terence Newman; quality of play allowed Cowboys to trade Anthony Henry for QB Jon Kitna after the season…In his second campaign, won a training-camp competition and earned a Pro Bowl selection after his first full season as a starter, 2009, when he led the Cowboys to the NFC playoffs and tied for 12th in the NFL with a career-high five interceptions…Started at least two games in each of his five Dallas seasons, including three straight years (2009-11) as a full-time starter…Saw a hamstring injury end a 38-game starting streak (40 including playoffs) midway through 2011…Limited by injury to 12 games in 2011, then served mainly in a reserve role in 2012… Counting two playoff contests, has started 50 NFL games…Owns 57 career passes defensed, and ranks tied with Porter for first among active Raiders with eight career interceptions, entering 2013.

AT A GLANCE

- Joins the Raiders from Dallas, where injury limited him over his last two seasons; will battle for position in the new-look Oakland secondary, bidding to return to the Pro Bowl form of his early career.
- A former first-round selection, started 38 straight games (40 including playoffs) from 2009-11.
- Led Cowboys to a playoff berth and earned Pro Bowl honors in his second season, 2009.
- An All-America corner at South Florida, also was a dangerous kick-returner for the Bulls.
- Blocked four kicks (two punts, two FGs) as a senior high-school safety in 2002.
- Born during the Cold War in West Germany, where his mom worked for the U.S. Army.

2012: Played in 13 games with two starts after a shoulder injury sidelined him most of the offseason and preseason…Spent the year mostly in a reserve role and for the first time in five NFL seasons did not intercept a pass…Posted 14 tackles (10 solo), with three passes broken up…Inactive for three games, the Sept. 5 NFL opener at the N.Y. Giants (shoulder) and consecutive contests Nov. 11-18 against the Eagles and Browns…(9/23) vs. TB: In his first 2012 start, showed athleticism in elevating to break up a potential Josh Freeman touchdown pass to Vincent Jackson deep down the left sideline, preserving a 10-7 lead in an eventual win…(10/14) at Bal.: Disrupted a second-quarter Joe Flacco pass intended for Torrey Smith… (11/4) at Atl.: Kept Cowboys in a close game, breaking up a fourth-quarter pass in front of Roddy White…(12/16) at Pit.: Made his second start and posted a season-high four tackles (three solo).

2011: Played and started 12 games, missing four consecutive contests in the season's mid-stretch with a hamstring injury…Collected 22 tackles (20 solo) and one interception, and tied for the team lead with 10 passes defensed…(9/11) at NYJ: Limited by a neck injury in the opener, injured his shoulder during the game but played through pain and broke up two passes…(9/26) vs. Was.: Helped Cowboys open home schedule triumphantly with two pass breakups…(10/23) vs. StL: Picked off A.J. Feeley deep in Dallas territory to set up a field goal late in the third quarter of a 34-7 win... (10/30) at Phi.: Sustained a painful hamstring injury that would sideline him each of the next four contests…(11/6) vs. Sea.: Missed his first NFL game since Dec. 7, 2008; had started 38 straight games (40 including playoffs)… (12/4) at Ari.: Returned to action as a starter…(12/11) vs. NYG: Despite battling a shoulder injury, broke up three Eli Manning passes.

2010: Started all 16 games and paced the Cowboys secondary with 15 passes defensed, including one interception; also forced a fumble…(9/12) at Was.: Broke up a season-best three passes…(9/26) at Hou.: Helped limit Andre Johnson to four catches; intercepted a Matt Schaub pass intended for Johnson that set up a third-quarter Dallas touchdown in a 27-13 win... (11/14) at NYG: In second quarter of 33-20 road win, forced an Ahmad Bradshaw fumble before leaving the game later that period with a neck injury…(12/5) at Ind.: Set up the game-winning field goal in overtime by deflecting a Peyton Manning pass into the arms of teammate Sean Lee at midfield; also broke up a fourth-quarter pass and matched a season-high with seven tackles…(12/25) at Ari.: Forced a first-quarter punt with a tackle shy of the sticks, helping Cowboys hold Arizona to 2-for-11 on third down; also broke up a fourth-quarter pass in a tight game.

2009: Blossomed into a Pro Bowler in his first full season as a starter, helping Dallas to the playoffs…Started 15 of 16 regular-season games, as well as both playoff games…Tied for 12th in the NFL with a career-best five interceptions, and broke up 23 passes; scattered another six pass breakups and an interception over two postseason contests…Moved permanently into the starting lineup entering Week 4, concluding a fierce battle with Orlando Scandrick that began in training camp…(9/13) at TB: Started the season-opener and recovered a blocked Mike Nugent field goal, returning the loose ball 17 yards to set up a first-quarter Cowboys field goal in an eventual win…(9/28) vs. Car.: Picked off Jake Delhomme deep in Cowboys territory in second quarter of 21-7 Monday night victory; also threw James Stewart for a 1-yard loss in fourth quarter, with Dallas protecting a 13-7 advantage…(10/25) vs. Atl.: Intercepted a Matt Ryan pass intended for Roddy White in the second quarter of eventual, 37-21 win…(11/8) at Phi.: Sparked a Cowboys comeback by setting up a game-tying field goal, picking off Donovan McNabb in the third quarter of 20-16 win…(11/15) at GB: Bruised his forearm midway through the third quarter, returned, then aggravated the injury…(12/6) at NYG: Broke up two Eli Manning passes, one to force a punt in the first quarter and the other a third-quarter interception in the Dallas end zone, intended for Mario Manningham…at NO (12/19): In road win, kept Saints in check of a 14-3 game late in second quarter, intercepting Drew Brees at the Dallas 4-yard line, after breaking up a pass earlier on same drive; instrumental in holding eventual Super Bowl champion to 1-for-7 on third down…(12/27) at Was.: Helped Cowboys clinch a playoff berth with 27-0 triumph, Dallas' first shutout in six years…(1/3/10) vs. Phi.: Broke up three passes, one to force a fourth-quarter punt and the other on Philly's final snap, as Cowboys registered 24-0 win and first back-to-back shutouts in franchise annals…(1/9/10) vs. Phi.: Started rematch with Eagles in NFC Wild Card game and excelled, leading club with four pass breakups, including an interception…Picked off McNabb late in third quarter…(1/17/10) at Min.: Posted another two pass breakups in NFC Divisional loss…Replaced Minnesota CB Antoine Winfield in the Pro Bowl.

2008: Started three of his 14 games played as a rookie, notched 22 tackles (17 solo), six passes defensed, and returned his first career INT 23 yards for a touchdown…(9/7) at Cle.: Played his first NFL contest, with action in the nickel and dime packages…(10/19) at StL: Replacing Terence Newman (abdomen), made his first pro start…(10/26) vs. TB: Made second of three consecutive starts and posted a season-high seven tackles…(11/2) at NYG: Cut a 14-0 deficit in half with his first career interception, picking off Eli Manning in the second quarter and returning the takeaway 23 yards for a touchdown; became first Dallas rookie with a pick-six since Roy Williams in 2002.

COLLEGE: Started 40 of 48 games played at South Florida…Registered 133 tackles (six for loss), five forced fumbles and a school-record 47 passes defensed, including six interceptions…Also returned kickoffs, scoring on a 100-yard touchdown as a senior…A Thorpe Award candidate as a senior 13-game starter in 2007, finished with career highs in tackles (41), interceptions (three) and tackles for loss (four); also broke up 12 passes…Earned All-America recognition from the American Football Coaches Association, in addition to All-Big East honors…Started 12 of his 13 games played as a junior in 2006, helping the team to a bowl berth with a career-best 15 pass breakups, including an interception; also forced a fumble and recovered another…Got the nod in all 12 games as a sophomore in 2005, collecting 38 tackles, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and five pass breakups…Before playing most of his career at right corner, played mostly on the left side as a freshman in 2004, playing in 10 of 11 games with three starts; broke up nine passes and forced two fumbles.

HT. 6-1 WT. 231
Born: 3/26/85
Acquired: UFA-'13 (Jac.)

Fifth NFL season
First Raiders Season
High School: Lynchburg Christian Academy (Lynchburg, Va.)

Selected by Jacksonville Jaguars as first of two choices in seventh round (250th overall) of 2009 NFL Draft, April 26, 2009…Placed on injured reserve (knee), Sept. 3, 2011…Placed on injured reserve, Dec. 24, 2012…Signed by Oakland Raiders as unrestricted free agent, April 11, 2013.

CAREER: Kicking off his fifth NFL season, came to the Raiders as an unrestricted free agent, and will battle for a reserve role in the Oakland backfield…A reserve back until 2012, his final season with the Jaguars, when he started six games as a replacement for an injured Maurice Jones-Drew…Sat out the 2011 campaign on injured reserve, after sustaining a knee injury during the preseason…Prior to the injury, however, over his first two seasons (2009-10), averaged 5.4 yards per carry (123 attempts, 661 yards), with five touchdowns…Raiders fans remember him for his performance against Oakland late in 2010, when he scampered for a 74-yard touchdown as part of a five-carry, 109-yard day…Also has limited NFL experience as a kickoff-returner…Launched his NFL career when Jacksonville selected him with the 250th overall choice, in the seventh round of the '09 draft.

2012: Played in 10 games with six starts at RB…Had 283 yards on 101 carries (2.8 avg.), with two TDs, and caught 19 passes for 130 yards (6.8 avg.)…Also returned 10 kickoffs for 241 yards (24.1 avg.)…Missed two early games (Sept. 16-23) with a knee injury, then sustained a Week 12 concussion in that sidelined him for the final four contests…(9/9) at Min.: In his first game since Jan. 2, 2011, made his fourth career start with Maurice Jones-Drew having rejoined the team a week prior; however, injured his knee in the season-opener and missed the ensuing two games…(10/21) at Oak.: Replaced an injured Jones-Drew (foot) early in the contest and helped the Jaguars build a 14-3 advantage with a 5-yard TD run in the second quarter; also matched a career best with seven receptions, including his longest career reception, 26 yards on a fourth-quarter grab…(10/28) at GB: Returned to the lineup and posted 115 yards from scrimmage and 59 rushing yards, both season highs; opened a drive late in the first quarter with a 21-yard burst, then caught a 24-yard pass to set up a second-quarter FG…(11/25) vs. Ten.: Gave the Jaguars an early lead they would not relinquish in a 24-19 win, scoring on a 1-yard run…(12/2) at Buf.: Left contest in second quarter with concussion and did not return…Inactive for Weeks 14-16 games before team placed him on injured reserve, Dec. 24.

2010: Enjoyed the top campaign of his career, playing in 13 games with three starts for Jacksonville…Established single-season professional bests with 459 rushing yards, 5.5 yards per carry (84 attempts), four rushing TDs, 26 receptions and 223 receiving yards (8.6 avg.)…Helped Jaguars finish third among NFL rushing offenses (149.7 yards per game)…Posted his first two 100-yard rushing games, each in the final portion of the season…Rushed for touchdowns in three straight games, Weeks 12-14…(9/19) at SD: In his first NFL start, averaged 4.2 yards per carry (9-38) and blocked a Mike Scifres punt, the Jags' first blocked punt since 2006, to set up a Jacksonville score…(10/10) at Buf.: Inactive with a shoulder injury…(10/17) vs. Ten.: Returned to action, but played sparingly and missed the next two contests…(11/28) at NYG: Averaged 7.6 yards on seven carries (53 yards), including a 5-yard TD run in the first quarter to give the Jags a 7-3 lead…(12/5) at Ten.: Scored on an 11-yard carry in the first quarter, en route to 10 carries for 44 yards…(12/12) vs. Oak.: Sparked Jacksonville on its comeback from a 24-14 second-half deficit with a weaving 74-yard TD run in the third quarter; posted his first 100-yard rushing effort (5-109, 21.8 avg.), helping Jags to 38-31 win…Became only the sixth NFL player in 50 years to averaged at least 20.0 yards per carry with at least five attempts…(12/18) at Ind.: Replaced an injured Jones-Drew in the starting lineup and led the team with a career-best seven receptions, for 64 yards…(1/2/11) at Hou.: Started the season-finale and ran for 108 yards on a career-most 22 carries (4.9 avg.), with one TD, a 3-yard plunge in the second quarter.

AT A GLANCE

- Enters his fifth NFL season with a new team, after serving primarily as Maurice Jones-Drew's Jacksonville backup over his first four campaigns.
- Has battled injuries over the previous two years, including a knee injury that ended his 2011 season.
- Recorded his first career 100-yard rushing game in 2010, vs. the Raiders.
- In 2005, before transferring to Liberty to be closer to his ailing father, became just the fourth true freshman to start at Pitt, joining a quartet that includes Tony Dorsett (1973).
- A consensus first-team All-American as a senior at Liberty, earned consecutive Big South Offensive Player of the Year honors.
- Was heavily involved in the Jaguars' community outreach efforts.
- Can write with both hands, something he taught himself at Liberty; also taught himself to play the guitar and perform magic tricks.
- Followed a family path paved by two older brothers, Butch and Bryan, who played briefly in the NFL.

2009: Played 15 games as a rookie reserve, with at least one carry in every contest…Totaled 202 yards on 39 carries (5.2 avg.), with one TD…Also caught 16 passes for 101 yards (6.3 avg.) and returned three kickoffs for 56 yards (18.7 avg.)…(9/13) at Ind.: Dressed for the season-opener but did not play…(9/20) vs. Ari.: Made his NFL debut, registering all three of his 2009 kickoff returns…(10/4) vs. Ten.: Saw his first extensive playing time, leading the team with nine carries and 53 yards in the win…(11/8) vs. KC: In an eventual 24-21 win, gave Jacksonville an early 7-3 lead, breaking free for a 28-yard TD run, the first of his career.

COLLEGE: Played his final three seasons and 31 games at Liberty, after transferring from Pittsburgh, and finished with a combined 4,044 rushing yards and 43 TDs, along with 48 catches for 557 yards, in 39 contests... In 2005 at Pitt, became only the fourth true freshman running back ever to start a game, joining Tony Dorsett (1973), Brandon Williams (1998) and Raymond Kirkley (2001)…In January following his freshman year, transferred to Liberty in Lynchburg, Va., a short drive from his hometown, where his father was sick…Established the Big South's career rushing record with 3,633 yards, averaging 5.7 yards and 633 carries, with 42 touchdowns…

Had at least three rushing TDs in four games and 22 100-yard efforts, two more conference standards…Graduated with 4,155 all-purpose yards at Liberty…As a senior, topped 100 yards on 10 occasions en route to consensus first-team All-America and Big South Offensive Player of the Year honors; finished with 263 carries for 1,500 yards and broke his own record with 17 TDs…Also paced the conference as a junior with 1,113 rushing yards, and set a conference mark with 15 rushing TDs…Started nine games as a sophomore in his initial Liberty season, garnering first-team all-conference honors…Deferred his enrollment at Pitt to January of 2005, then played in eight games as a true freshman, with 411 yards on 86 yards and one TD…Coached by the Jaguars' staff at the 2009 Senior Bowl prior to his selection in the draft…Majored in general studies at Liberty.

PERSONAL: Influenced growing up by his two brothers, Butch and Bryan, 13 and 10 years older than him, respectively…Butch played fullback for both Liberty and Virginia Military Institute, and signed as a non-drafted free agent with the New York Giants in 1995…Bryan played tight end at Virginia Tech and initially signed with San Diego in 1997 before time in the Patriots and Titans organizations…Graduated from Lynchburg (Va.) Christian Academy, where he played two years after transferring from Jefferson Forest, where he lettered two years…A two-time All-Virginia Division II selection, played RB and LB…In two years at LCA, combined for 3,287 yards and 56 TDs, including senior-year totals of 1,978 rushing yards and 28 TDs…Also lettered two years in basketball…Was heavily involved in all aspects of the Jaguars' outreach, including Shop with a Jock, NFL Play 60, Hometown Huddle and Readers Party…Also was a guest on Straight Talk television, which seeks to reduce teen pregnancy and HIV/AIDS…Addressed more than 30 youth pastors on two occasions about his childhood and life experiences, and served as a guest of the Boy Scouts.

Third NFL season
Third Raiders Season
High School: Deer Valley (Antioch, Calif.)

Selected after junior season by Oakland Raiders as second of two fourth-round selections (125th overall) in 2011 NFL Draft, April 30, 2011…Signed first contract, July 31, 2011.

CAREER: Enters his third pro season, his first campaign as an NFL cornerback…Moved across the line of scrimmage in the offseason, switching from running back...Played running back in each of his first two NFL campaigns with the Silver and Black…Recruited to Eastern Washington as a corner, returns to the position for the first time since his redshirt-freshman season in college (switched to running back as a 2009 sophomore; declared for NFL following junior season)…Has used his speed and quickness to develop into one of the league's better gunners and kickoff cover men…Including a team-leading 12 in 2012, has 19 special-teams stops in 24 NFL games; his 0.79 special-teams tackles per game ranks among the best in the NFL over the last two seasons (2011-12)…In two years as a running back, had 94 yards on 22 carries (4.3 avg.), with no touchdowns, and four receptions for 36 yards (9.0 avg.)…Also has returned 10 kickoffs for 187 yards (18.7 avg.) in two seasons.

2012: Played in 14 games, primarily as an ace on the Raiders' coverage units…In 18 offensive snaps, had six carries for 21 yards (3.5 avg.), and caught two passes for 11 yards (5.5 avg.)…Returned two kickoffs for 22 yards (11.0 avg.), and led the team with 12 special-teams tackles (seven on punt coverage, five on kickoffs)…Pulled a hamstring during an Aug. 5 training-camp practice and sat out the next two weeks, including preseason contests vs. Dallas (8/13) and at Arizona (8/17), before returning to action Aug. 19 …(9/10) vs. SD: Returned the season-opening kickoff, but during game bruised his ribs and missed much of practice the ensuing week…(9/16) at Mia.: Made a nice, open-field tackle on a second-quarter punt, but aggravated rib injury…(9/30) at Den.: Made two impressive tackles as a gunner in coverage, on consecutive punts the first half, holding Jim Leonhard for -1 and 0 yards, respectively…Inactive after aggravating knee injury at practice Oct. 17 for ensuing games vs. Jacksonville (10/21) and at Kansas City (10/28) …(11/4) vs. TB: Caught a 4-yard pass from Shane Lechler on a fake-punt attempt; earlier, drew an illegal-block penalty while covering a first-quarter punt…(11/11) at Bal.: Caught a pass and carried twice in an injury-depleted backfield…(11/18) vs. NO: Left early in the second quarter with an ankle injury, but returned in the second half…(11/25) at Cin.: Slowed by an ankle injury sustained during practice, played only on special teams, but made a pair of nice tackles on punt coverage, including a first-quarter stop in which he threw Pacman Jones for 6-yard loss…(12/6) vs. Den.: Used great effort to draw a holding call on punt coverage…(12/16) vs. KC: On a nice effort, corralled Javier Arenas on a first-quarter punt return.

2011: Played in 10 games as a rookie…Totaled 16 carries for 73 yards… Added two receptions for 25 yards…Returned eight kickoffs for 165 yards… Posted seven special-teams tackles…Inactive due to hamstring injury for final six games of the season…(9/12) at Den.: Made NFL debut, on special teams…(9/18) at Buf.: Had first career carry, for 4 yards, the second snap of a 14-play, 71-yard touchdown drive…(9/25) vs. NYJ: Had an 8-yard rush… Made first career reception, on a pass from Jason Campbell for minus-5 yards…(10/23) vs. KC: Rushed for a season-long 14 yards on a first-quarter carry…Registered a 30-yard reception on a pass from Carson Palmer in the fourth quarter…(11/10) at SD: Had three rushing attempts for 19 yards on a second-quarter FG drive …(11/20) at Min.: Had two carries for 3 yards.

AT A GLANCE

- Moves from running back to cornerback prior to his third NFL season.
- Was recruited to Eastern Washington as a CB and projected to that position before the 2011 draft by many NFL teams.
- Developing into one of the NFL's better special-teams aces. Ranks among league leaders with 0.79 special-teams stops per game from 2011-12.
- In college, garnered Big Sky 2010 Offensive Player of the Year on a team that captured the FCS national championship.

Ninth NFL season
First Raiders Season
High School: Los Alamitos (Los Alamitos, Calif.)

Signed by Seattle Seahawks as non-drafted free agent, April 29, 2005…Waived by Seahawks, Sept. 3, 2005…Claimed off waivers by Minnesota Vikings, Sept. 4, 2005…Signed by Vikings as exclusive-rights free agent, May 16, 2007…Signed new contract with Vikings, Oct. 26, 2007…Terminated by Vikings, May 6, 2013…Signed by Oakland Raiders as free agent, May 17, 2013.

CAREER: Signed by Oakland as a free agent in May, adds a veteran element to the team's first punting competition since the 1990s…A ninth-year player, left Minnesota as the best punter in franchise history, holding average career records in gross (44.4) and net (37.2), and punts inside the 20 (198)…In fact, since he entered the league with Seattle as a non-drafted free agent in 2005, only four other players have pinned more punts inside the 20…Also owns arguably the best hands and quickest release in the NFL, considering that no active player has had fewer blocks per season than Kluwe (.125)…His lone blocked punt, in 2008, happened after he dropped the snap…Having played a quiet role in helping Minnesota to three playoff berths (2008-09, 2012), actually owns better gross and net averages over his five postseason games than his regular-season register…Over the last two seasons, punting as consistently well as at any point in his career, ranks third in the NFL with one touchback every 29.8 punts (five touchbacks, 149 punts), trailing only Brad Maynard (81.0) and Sav Rocca (33.5)…Has several years of important experience as a holder for field goals and PATs, including a supportive role in the rookie season enjoyed by All-Pro Blair Walsh…Arrives in Oakland coming off his best season from a net-average standpoint, having posted a career-high 39.7 mark in 2012…Voted Vikings special teams MVP in 2010…In 2008, established Minnesota's single-season records with a 47.6-yard gross average and 33 punts of 50-or-more yards…Also that season, earned recognition on USA Today's All-Joe Team, a collection of the hardest-working players without a Pro Bowl appearance…Claimed off waivers by astute Vikings personnel staff before the 2005 season, when Seattle tried to sneak him through to its practice squad…Provided important stability for Minnesota, which had used six punters over the previous four years in transitioning from Mitch Berger…Enters 2013 having played in 116 consecutive games, including playoffs, since missing his only NFL contest due to a 2005 rookie knee injury.

2012: Played in 16 games on a playoff team, averaging 45.0 gross yards, and establishing a career best with a 39.7-yard net average…Of his 72 punts, 30 covered at least 50 yards (41.7 percent)…Had at least one punt of 50-plus yards in all 16 games…Ranked second in the NFL with 36.0 punts per touchback (two touchbacks on 72 punts), trailing Detroit's Nick Harris (67.0, one in 67)…Helped rookie kicker Blair Walsh earn first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors, holding for all placements, including an NFL single-season record 10 field goals of 50-plus yards…Played significant role in helping Vikings control field position down the stretch and clinch final NFC playoff spot; over final four games – all wins – averaged 46.2 gross yards and 38.9 net yards, with no touchbacks and five inside the 20…(12/23) at Hou.: Held on Walsh's 56-yard field goal, tying a franchise long…(1/5/13) at GB: Served as a bright spot in difficult conditions during Vikings' Wild Card playoff loss, turning in his best career effort in four postseason games…Averaged 49.6 yards on five punts, including a 56-yarder, with no touchbacks and one inside the 20; also surrendered just 17 yards on four returns, a 46.2 net average.

2011: Averaged 45.0 gross yards – the second-best mark of his career – on 77 punts, with only three touchbacks, at the time a career low …Averaged one touchback every 25.7 punts… Also had 22 punts inside the 20 and on 24 occasions booted a punt at least 50 yards…(12/4) vs. Den.: Posted a season-best 49.5-yard gross average, highlighted by a 51-yard punt early in game that pinned Broncos at their 1-yard line; on the next snap, Jared Allen tackled Willis McGahee in the end zone for a safety.

AT A GLANCE

- Last name is pronounced KLOO-ee.
- With one of the quickest releases in the NFL, leads active punters with .125 punts blocked per season (one block, eight years). His lone block, in 2008, was a snap he mishandled.
- Has pinned 198 punts inside the 20 since entering the league in 2005. Only four punters have more during that period.
- Over the last two seasons, punting as consistently well as at any point in his career, ranks third in the NFL with one touchback every 29.8 punts (five touchbacks, 149 punts). Ranked second in the league last season (36.0).
- Left Minnesota as the franchise's all-time leader in gross average (44.4), net average (37.2) and punts inside the 20 (198).
- Has served as a holder for two of the top seasons by a kicker in recent memory, Ryan Longwell in 2009 and Blair Walsh in 2012.
- Authored a book entitled Beautifully Unique Sparkle Ponies, published in June, 2013.

2010: Minnesota's special-teams MVP, compiled a 38.9 net average on 83 punts (43.0 gross)…Captured two of Greg Coleman's Vikings records, most career games with a punt of 50-plus yards and career punts inside the 20…Forced 32 opponent drives to start inside the 20, tied for fifth in the NFL…(11/7) vs. Ari.: Helped Vikings to a win with a career-best 46.0 net punting average, on four punts…(12/13) vs. NYG: At Detroit's Ford Field due to the Metrodome's roof, established his NFL high with 10 punts.

2009: Played a key field-position role on a team that nearly went to the Super Bowl, posting a 37.8-yard net and 43.9 gross average on 73 punts, with 24 inside the 20…Had a 40.4 net average in the postseason, punting nine times in two games…Held for Ryan Longwell on all placements during the kicker's career-best season…(10/5) vs. GB: Trapped Packers inside their 20 on four of five punts, holding them without a return yard in Monday night victory…(1/17/10) vs. Dal.: Hit a 61-yard punt to help Vikings advance in NFC Divisional playoff.

2008: Broke a 39-year-old single-season franchise record with a 47.6-yard gross average, ranking sixth in the NFL in '08, on 73 punts…Also established a Vikings standard with 35 punts of 50-plus yards, including six on two occasions…Recognized by USA Today with a spot on its All-Joe Team, honoring players without a Pro Bowl appearance whose work goes largely unnoticed…Held for placements during Ryan Longwell's best career season, including a team-record six field goals of 50-plus yards…(9/28) at Ten.: Set a single-game franchise record with six punts of at least 50 yards…(10/12) vs. Det.: Matched his own single-game record with another six punts of 50-plus yards.

2007: Wrote his name in the team record book with 34 punts inside the 20 (third in NFL that year)…On 81 punts, his 44.7-yard gross averaged ranked eighth in the league…His 37.0 net average also ranked among the top five seasons in Vikings history…(9/9) vs. Atl.: In season-opener, landed all five punts inside the 20, setting a career high and matching a team record…(9/16) at Det.: Had four punts for 230 yards, a 57.5 gross average that marked the best of his career…(9/23) at KC: Hit his longest NFL punt, 70 yards…(10/14) at Chi.: Secured the placement for Ryan Longwell's 55-yard FG as time expired…(12/2) vs. Det.: Threw a 27-yard pass to Jeff Dugan to pick up a first down on a fake FG.

2006: Punted a team-record 93 times (ranked second in NFL), averaging 42.3 gross yards, with 28 inside the 20…(9/17) vs. Car.: Had three punts of 50-or-more yards, with three inside the 20…Also, on a fake FG, flipped the snap to K Ryan Longwell, who connected with Richard Owens on a 16-yard TD pass…(10/1) at Buf.: Landed all four punts inside the 20…(10/30) vs. NE: Booted three punts at least 50 yards on Monday Night Football, including a 61-yarder…(11/12) vs. GB: Notched four more punts of 50-plus, part of a season-best 41.9-yard net average…(12/10) at Det.: Punted three times of at least 50 yards… (12/17) vs. NYJ: Hit a 68-yarder.

2005: Grabbed off the waiver wire by the Vikings, after Seattle tried to sneak him onto its practice squad in favor of Luis Aguilar, grew into a remarkable rookie story…Ranked sixth in the NFL and second in the NFC with a 44.1-yard gross average…Led all rookies in gross average (44.1), punts (71) and punts of 50-plus yards (15)…Started his career in outstanding fashion and earned NFL Special Teams Player of the Month honors in September…(9/11) vs. TB: Stormed onto the scene in his NFL debut, with a season-high three punts of at least 50 yards, including a rookie-best 62-yarder, a 54.3 gross average and a 42.5 net average…(11/13) at NYG: Had a season-high eight punts in 24-21 road win…Initially entered the league as a rookie free agent, signing with Seattle after the draft.

COLLEGE: Spent his first three years at UCLA backing up first-team all-conference punter Nate Fiske, then excelled over his junior and senior campaigns (2003-04)…A finalist for the 2004 Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter (named in honor of the former Raiders All-Pro and the player he most admired), pinned 25 punts inside the 20 that year and averaged 43.4 yards to rank second in the conference and 14th in the country…As a junior, established single-season program records in both punts (80) and yards (3,908)…In a 2003 game against cross-town rival USC, completed a 17-yard pass on a fake punt…Named Special Teams Player of the Game in the 2003 Silicon Valley Bowl against Fresno State…Punted once as a redshirt freshman in 2001 but injured his knee in an off-field accident and missed practices over the season's final five games…Majored in political science and history as a third-generation UCLA student.

Sixth NFL season
Sixth Raiders Season
High School: Pulaski Oak Grove (North Little Rock, Ark.)

Selected by Oakland Raiders in first round (fourth overall) of 2008 NFL Draft, April 26, 2008…Signed first contract, June 6, 2008.

CAREER: Elite, all-purpose running back, was slowed by injury in fourth pro season…Highly respected by his peers in the league, named a Pro Bowl alternate despite playing in only seven games in 2011…Enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2010, becoming first Raider since 2007 to rush for 1,000 yards, with 1,157…Has played in 57 games with 44 starts in five NFL seasons…Career totals include 769 carries for 3,334 yards and 18 touchdowns…Also has 158 career receptions for 1,449 yards and four touchdowns.

2012: Played in 12 games, all starts, missing four contests with a high-ankle sprain…On 591 offensive snaps, averaged a career-low 3.3 yards per carry (216 attempts, 707 yards), with two rushing TDs…Also caught 42 passes for 258 yards (6.1 avg.), with one TD…Oakland enters 2013 with a 10-2 mark in his 11 career 100-yard rushing games, including a 3-0 mark in 2012…Also finished the season with a 31-game receptions streak, longest on the team, dating to the beginning of the 2010 season…Voted a 2012 captain by his teammates Sept. 3… (9/10) vs. SD: Returned to action following his injury-shortened 2011 campaign and posted 13 receptions – the most ever by a Raiders RB and second-most overall in team annals – for 86 yards, including 12- and 14-yard plays to set up an important second-quarter field goal just prior to half…(9/23) vs. Pit.: Broke out with a 64-yard touchdown burst, his career's second-longest run, to knot the game in the first quarter…En route to his 10th career 100-yard rushing effort; also had a 16-yard run on a third-quarter TD drive, a series in which he initially scored on an outstanding 5-yard carry, but replay review showed his elbow touched the ground a split-second before the ball broke the plane…(10/14) at Atl.: In heartbreaking loss against undefeated Falcons, sprinted more than 30 yards after a sack-fumble to save a TD and tackle Ray Edwards at the Raiders' 2-yard line; also made a shoestring catch for 20 yards on a key third down in the second half, and officially compiled just 70 yards but saw two first-half carries, for 15 and 21 yards, wiped out by holding penalties, to keep him shy of 100 yards…(10/28) at KC: Closed out a win with 73 yards on 12 fourth-quarter carries (6.1 avg.), including four final-period first downs, en route to his 114-yard day…Broke off 19-, 21- and 28-yard runs in second half, and became the 12th player in franchise history to rush for 3,000 career yards…(11/4) vs. TB: Left in the second quarter with a right leg injury and did not return; diagnosed the next day with a high-ankle sprain…(12/6) vs. Den.: Returned to action for the first time since Nov. 4, starting at tailback…Scored a second-quarter touchdown on a short pass from Carson Palmer…Took a sweep around left end for 36 yards on the first play of the second half…… (12/16) vs. KC: Registered his 12th career 100-yard game, helping Oakland improve its mark in those games to 10-2; in 15-0 triumph, matched his career high with 30 carries…Had three explosive runs, a 15-yarder in the first quarter, a 19-yarder in the third quarter and another 15-yarder to reach 100 on the day late in the third quarter…(12/23) at Car.: Had a 3-yard TD run nullified by a holding call in the fourth quarter.

2011: Played in seven games, missing final nine contests with a foot injury… Was among league leaders in rushing through seven games…Totaled 614 rushing yards on 113 carries (5.4 avg.) with four touchdowns…Tabbed as an alternate for the Pro Bowl…(9/12) at Den.: In 23-20 win, carried 22 times for 150 yards, averaging 6.8 yards per carry, with three bursts of 20 or more yards…Had a 20-yard run on a third-and-13 play in the first quarter that helped set up Raiders' first touchdown…Added another 20-yard run late in the second quarter, around left end to the Denver 24-yard line to set up a Sebastian Janikowski field goal…Broke off a 47-yard run in the fourth quarter to set up a critical Raiders touchdown, giving Oakland 23-13 advantage…(9/18) at Buf.: Registered 143 total yards from scrimmage with two touchdowns… Tied a career high with seven receptions, for 71 yards and one touchdown, a 12-yard strike from Jason Campbell that gave Oakland a 28-24 fourth-quarter lead… Also ran for a 5-yard TD in second quarter…(9/25) vs. NYJ: A catalyst in a 34-24 win, tabbed for AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after rushing for 171 yards on 19 carries (9.0 avg.)…Also named FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week…Yardage marked a career high and ranked as the ninth-highest single-game total in franchise history…Produced a career-long touchdown run of 70 yards in the second quarter, cutting the Jets' lead to three points…Also produced a 27-yard run in the third quarter to set up a Raiders touchdown and give the Silver and Black a 24-17 lead…(10/2) vs. NE: Had a 41-yard run in the second quarter that set up a Raiders touchdown…Added four receptions for 48 yards, including a 26-yard catch and run in the fourth quarter…(10/9) at Hou.: Rushed for 51 yards on 16 carries in an emotional victory one day after the passing of owner Al Davis…(10/16) vs. Cle.: Totaled 91 yards on 20 carries with a touchdown…Had a 24-yard run on the Raiders' first play from scrimmage… Carried seven times for 50 yards on the team's opening drive, culminating in his 5-yard touchdown...Inactive for final nine games of the season.

Sixth NFL season
First Raiders Season
High School: Port Allen (Port Allen, La.)

Selected by New Orleans Saints in second round (40th overall) of 2008 NFL Draft, April 26, 2008…Signed first contract, July 26, 2008…Placed on injured reserve (wrist), Oct. 7, 2008…Signed by Denver Broncos as unrestricted free agent, March 23, 2012…Signed by Oakland Raiders as unrestricted free agent, April 3, 2013.

CAREER: Entered the league as the Saints' second-round selection in the 2008 draft, taken 40th overall, 15 picks after new teammate Mike Jenkins…In 49 regular season games (43 starts), has 50 passes defensed and eight interceptions…Spent his first four years with New Orleans, helping the team to three straight playoff berths, a 37-11 regular-season record and a world championship during his three years (2009-11) as a Saints starting CB…Signed with Denver as an unrestricted free agent prior to the 2012 campaign…Has a penchant for late-game heroics, having sealed three career contests, including Super Bowl XLIV against Peyton Manning and the Colts, with a pick-six; all of those touchdowns have occurred in the final 3:30 of games, with his team leading by one score or less…Also returned picks for late TDs in a 2009 Saints win at Miami, and a season-opening 2012 win vs. Pittsburgh, with Denver…In fact, no other NFL player has more fourth-quarter interceptions returned for touchdowns from 2009-12… What's more, nine of his 10 combined regular-season and playoff interceptions have come in the fourth quarter…Résumé includes a fourth-quarter INT of Minnesota's Brett Favre in the 2009 NFC Championship; the takeaway sent the game to overtime and preserved New Orleans' road to a Super Bowl title…Enters 2013 as one of just 10 NFL players with at least one interception in each of the last five seasons (2008-12), joining Sheldon Brown (Phi.-Cle.), Tarell Brown (SF), Ryan Clark (Pit.), Tim Jennings (Ind.-Chi.), Richard Marshall (Car.-Ari.-Mia.), Terence Newman (Dal.-Cin.), Troy Polamalu (Pit.), Tramon Williams (GB) and Will Witherspoon (StL-Phi-Ten).

AT A GLANCE

- Reunites with his former New Orleans position coach, Dennis Allen, after one year in Denver and four with the Saints, where he started six postseason games.
- Three times in his career, all in the final 3:30 of a game with his team leading by one score or less, has returned an interception for a game-sealing touchdown, including a pick-six against Peyton Manning to ice Super Bowl XLIV.
- Nine of his 10 combined regular-season and playoff interceptions have come in the fourth quarter.
- One of just 10 NFL players with at least one interception in each of the last five seasons.
- Authored his best career season to date, 2009, for a Super Bowl-winning Saints squad with Allen as his position coach; saved his best two efforts that year for the NFC Championship and Super Bowl, playing monster roles in each win.
- In college at Indiana, became first player in program history to return an interception, fumble and punt for a touchdown.
- A QB in high school, played just two seasons of football at Port Allen (La.) High School in his hometown, which temporarily renamed itself Porter Allen, La., then named a street in his honor following Super Bowl XLIV.

2012: Played in six games with four starts, registering 21 tackles (16 solo) and six passes defensed, including an interception he returned 43 yards for a touchdown…Started four of the first five games, all at right corner, before an illness sidelined him for nine straight contests…Returned to play in a Week 16 game, but sustained a concussion and missed the final three contests, including the team's playoff loss vs. Baltimore…(9/9) vs. Pit.: In his Denver debut, garnered AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after icing Denver's Game 1 triumph, picking off Ben Roethlisberger and scoring on a 43-yard return; also tied for second on the team's single-game franchise list by matching a career high with five passes defensed…Initially suffered a seizure during the preseason, and began feeling symptoms apparently related to the incident prior to Denver's Week 6 game at San Diego.

2011: Started 11 of 14 games in his final campaign with the Saints, helping the team to its second 13-3 division-winning season in three years, and a third straight playoff berth…Totaled 63 tackles (54 solo), one interception, eight passes defensed, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery…Also started both postseason games...(11/13) at Atl.: Forced a Michael Turner fumble, which flew out of bounds, in the third quarter…(11/28) at NYG: Racked up a career-high 14 tackles (11 solo), one on which he forced a third-quarter fumble recovered by New Orleans to set up a Saints touchdown two plays later…(12/4) vs. Det.: Essentially sealed a 31-17 win by intercepting Matthew Stafford with just under three minutes remaining.

2010: Had 63 tackles (48 solo) in 12 games, all starts, as well as one interception, nine passes defensed and one fumble recovery, helping New Orleans to the postseason…Additionally, returned punts (two attempts, 6 yards) for the first time since college…Underwent knee surgery and missed Games 5-8 before returning to the lineup…(9/20) at SF: Preserved a fourth-quarter Saints lead in eventual 25-22 win on Monday Night Football by intercepting Alex Smith at the New Orleans 10-yard line.

2009: Helped Saints to a Super Bowl XLIV triumph, starting 11 of 12 games played during the regular season and all three in the postseason… Recorded 69 tackles (50 solo), four interceptions and two forced fumbles to assist team to NFC South title, then added 19 stops (15 solo), another forced fumble and two more INTs in the postseson…Overcame a knee injury that forced him out of four games from Nov. 22-Dec. 13…(9/20) at Phi.: Intercepted Kevin Kolb deep in Saints territory on the final play of the game…(10/18) vs. NYG: Broke up three passes…(10/25) at Mia.: Established an early career best by breaking up five Chad Henne passes, one that forced a second-quarter punt and another in the third quarter tipped into the arms of teammate Darren Sharper en route to a 42-yard touchdown return…Returned an interception of his own for a TD, the first of his career, with 1:53 remaining in a 40-34 game to put the game out of reach… (11/2) vs. Atl.: Picked off a pass in a second straight game, intercepting Matt Ryan in the fourth quarter to set up a TD, the Saints' final points in a 35-27 Monday night triumph…(12/27) vs. TB: Intercepted Josh Freeman in the Saints' end zone to extinguish a third-quarter threat…(1/24/10) vs. Min.: Played a key role in two fourth-quarter takeaways, helping send the NFC Championship to overtime and sustain New Orleans' path to a Super Bowl triumph…First, with Vikings driving for game-tying touchdown, forced a Bernard Berrian fumble, recovered by Jonathan Vilma, at the Saints' 10-yard line; then, with Minnesota in range for a game-winning FG, intercepted Brett Favre with 19 seconds left at the Saints' 22-yard line (New Orleans won the toss and never gave Vikings another possession)…(2/7/10) vs. Ind.: Sealed the Saints' Super Bowl XLIV win by returning a Peyton Manning interception 74 yards for a touchdown with 3:12 remaining, the Saints' final score in a 31-17 victory.

2008: Started the Saints' first five games before a wrist injury landed him on injured reserve, truncating his rookie season…Finished with 32 tackles (26 solo), including his first career sack; also posted one interception among six passes defensed…(9/7) vs. TB: Made his NFL debut, starting the season-opener, and broke up a pair of passes…(9/28) vs. SF: Helped Saints to 31-17 win, posting his first NFL sack and interception in the same contest, with two passes defensed…Sacked J.T. O'Sullivan late in the first half, then picked him off in the Saints' end zone with just under 10 minutes remaining in the game…(10/6) vs. Min.: Dislocated his wrist and did not return…Placed on injured reserve Oct. 7.

COLLEGE: Started 43 career games and graduated with 16 interceptions, second in IU history behind Tim Wilbur (19, 1978-82), and racked up a school-record 413 interception-return yards…Also finished with 212 tackles (175 solo),two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries...Additionally, returned 35 punts for 477 yards (13.6 avg.), with one TD, becoming the first player in program history to score on a punt, fumble recovery and interception return…A first-team All-Big Ten performer as a senior in 2007, started every game and posted 83 tackles (63 total), with six INTs…Majored in recreational sports management.

PERSONAL: Married to Devyn, has two children, Samari and Synai...Played only two years of prep football at Port Allen (La.) High School, lining up at quarterback, running back, wide receiver and cornerback…Earned first-team all-district and all-state recognition as a senior DB, with 11 interceptions, two returned for TDs…Also lettered in basketball and track… Following Super Bowl XLIV, hometown temporarily renamed itself Porter Allen, La., then named a street in his honor.

Third NFL season
Third Raiders Season
High School: Jeanette (Jeanette, Pa.)

Selected after junior season by Oakland Raiders in 2011 NFL Supplemental Draft, Aug. 22, 2011…Signed first contract, Aug. 26, 2011…Placed on reserved/suspended by commissioner, Sept. 3, 2011…Reinstated by commissioner, Oct. 10, 2011…Returned to active roster, Oct. 17, 2011.

CAREER: Extremely athletic and talented youngster, enters third pro season...Had opportunity to start final regular season contest of 2012...Saw first significant action in 2012.

2012: Played in three games, with one start; inactive for first 11 games, and dressed but did not play in two contests…In 69 total offensive plays, completed 14 of 30 passes (46.7 percent) for 155 yards, with two touchdowns and one interception, a 70.8 passer rating…Also ran for 51 yards on 10 carries (5.1 avg.), with one touchdown, and caught one pass for 22 yards…Had to overcome personal tragedy entering camp, having lost both his life-long mentor Ted Sarniak III (July 20) and father Craig (July 26) just days apart…(12/2) vs. Cle.: Dressed but did not play…(12/16) vs. KC: After a false-start penalty erased his lone 2011 play, took his first official snaps, getting one series at the beginning of the second quarter… Threw an incompletion as part of a three-and-out…(12/23) at Car.: Saw action on three snaps, including a first-possession razzle-dazzle in which he took a direct snap, threw a lateral to a split-wide Carson Palmer, then caught a 22-yard pass from the QB; broke a Luke Kuechly tackle just after catching the pass...On a QB draw in the third quarter, picked up 2 yards from the Carolina 9, his first career carry, then recorded his first career completion, hitting Marcel Reece in the flat for 5 yards inside the Carolina 10…(12/30) at SD: With Carson Palmer (ribs, lung) inactive, made his first NFL start, and first since leading Ohio State to a 31-26 win over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl, Jan. 4, 2011...In a 24-21 loss, put the Raiders on the board with his first TD pass, a 9-yard fade in the corner of the end zone to Darrius Heyward-Bey on third down, capping a 12-play, 80-yard drive that milked seven minutes off the first-half clock…Then, led the Raiders 76 yards in eight plays, finishing the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run…Got the Raiders to within a field goal by connecting with Denarius Moore with less than two minutes remaining.

2011: Played one snap as a rookie…Inactive for four games…Did not play in five games…(10/23) vs. KC: On only play, lined up as a WR, ran in motion, then took the snap to attempt a QB sneak, but officials called him for a false start, nullifying the play.

COLLEGE: Led Ohio State to a 31-4 record as a starter…Totaled 57 career TD passes to tie Bobby Hoying for most all-time at Ohio State…Accounted for 76 career TDs (57 passing, 17 rushing, two receiving)…Completed 477-of-783 passes (60.9 percent) for 6,177 yards…Rushed for 2,164 yards on 436 carries (5.0 avg.)…As a 2010 junior, his final campaign, completed 65 percent of his passes for 2,772 yards and 27 TDs…Led an offense that averaged 38.8 points per game, second in the Big Ten and 11th in the nation…Ranked 10th nationally in pass efficiency (157.9 rating)… Ohio State's all-time rushing leader among QBs with 2,164 yards, led the Big Ten in 2010 with 25 TD passes in conference play…The 2010 Sugar Bowl MVP, rushed for a career-high 115 yards and threw for 221 yards and two TDs against Arkansas…Responsible for a school-record six TDs in win over Eastern Michigan, throwing for four TDs and adding one score each rushing and receiving…Completed a school-record 16 consecutive passes, against Ohio…An honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection as a sophomore, was 167-for-295 for 2,094 yards, with 18 TDs; also Ohio State's leading rusher with 779 yards…Had six TD passes and only two INT in last five games of regular season, all wins to clinch Big Ten title…Named Rose Bowl MVP…A Big Ten all-academic selection…Went 8-1 as starting QB as a true freshman, when he was Big Ten Freshman of the Year…Was 100-for-165 (60.6) passing for 1,311 yards and 12 scores…Also rushed for 631 yards and six TD…Became only the second true freshman to start at quarterback for the Buckeyes.

AT A GLANCE

- Oakland's selection in the 2011 supplemental draft, did not become eligible to play due to commissioner's suspension until mid-October; then made his NFL debut on a trick play, his lone snap as a rookie, nullified by penalty.
- Dynamic quarterback led Ohio State to a 31-4 record in three years as a starter; his 57 career TD passes tied a school record. Also rushed for more than 2,100 career yards and accounted for 76 Buckeyes touchdowns.
- Scored more than 2,000 career points in basketball as a standout prep athlete in the football-rich Pittsburgh area, where he garnered consecutive area Player of the Year awards.
- One of the more involved Raiders in the community, has made numerous appearances since joining the team.

PERSONAL: Attended Jeannette (Pa.) High School…Quarterbacked team to 16-0 record and the PIAA and WPIAL crowns…Also helped the basketball team to WPIAL and PIAA titles, a first in the Keystone State… Named the USA Today and Parade Player of Year…Had 4,238 career rushing yards and 4,340 career passing yards, the first 4,000-4,000 year ever in Pennsylvania …Posted 1,899 rushing and 1,889 passing yards as a senior, accounting for 58 TD…The MVP of U.S. Army All-American Bowl… Won consecutive Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and Pittsburgh Tribune-Review player of the year awards, as a junior and senior… Scored more than 2,000 points in basketball… Volunteered at the High School Player Development event in Oakland in May 2012…Spent time at Buena Vista UMC in Alameda, Calif., in April 2012…In December 2011, volunteered with Oakland's Solar Rays Extended Day Program and the Henry Robinson Multi-Service Center, and also paid a visit to Oakland Children's Hospital…Volunteered with the Alameda County Food Bank in November 2011... Helped out at the Gatorade Junior Training Camp in October 2012...Has Volunteered at the Children's Hospital and Research Center of Oakland- Sports Medicine Center numerous times throughout 2012 and 2013.

2011: Played in Games 1-11, including one start... Logged 28 tackles with one sack...Placed on Reserve/Injured list on Dec. 7...(9/18) at Den.: Had five tackles...(10/9) at Jac.: Posted three tackles, including five-yard sack of Blaine Gabbert in first quarter...(11/6) at Ten.: Recorded a line-leading four tackles.

2010: Played in 14 games, with eight starts, and had 44 tackles, 2.5 sacks, a pass defensed and nine pressures...(9/19) vs. Bal.: Had a fourth-quarter pass deflection that resulted in an INT by LB Brandon Johnson...(11/8) vs. Pit.: Started as injury replacement, recording a line-leading six tackles (one for loss)...(12/12) at Pit.: Posted Five tackles, including an 8-yard sack of Ben Roethlisberger...(12/19) vs. Cle.: Notched four tackles, including an 8-yard sack of Colt McCoy.

2009: Played every regular-season game with three starts as Bengals claimed AFC North title, but was placed on Reserve/Injured for Wild Card playoff due to right forearm fracture suffered in regular-season finale at Jets... (9/20) at GB: Recovered fumble by Ryan Grant at Bengals' 38 in third quarter, returning ball to offense for TD drive that put Bengals ahead to stay at 28-21... (9/27) vs. Pit.: Had a shared sack of Ben Roethlisberger in fourth quarter that forced Steelers to punt prior to offense's game-winning TD drive...(10/18) vs. Hou.: Had a team-high three QB pressures.

AT A GLANCE

- Signed by Raiders as unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2013.
- After opening 2012 season on Physically Unable to Perform list, return to active status coincided with start of Bengals' 7-1 run over final eight games in '12.
- In 2012 season debut, recorded only career interception—of Eli Manning at the N.Y. Giants 18, setting up a Bengals TD in Week 9 action.
- Youngest among 10 children in his family.
- Helped lead high school basketball team to Florida state championship as a junior.

2008: Played in Bengals' last 11 games as a rookie and started six of the last seven as injuries depleted line depth...Had 50 tackles, including three for losses, with one sack and five QB pressures...Inactive for Games 1-5, due in part to a preseason turf toe injury...(10/12) at NYJ: Made NFL debut...Posted seven tackles, including one for loss...(11/2) vs. Jac.: Logged first NFL sack when he dropped David Garrard for 2-yard loss.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons (2004 and '06-07) at Auburn, entering NFL Draft after junior season...First-team All-SEC choice by Associated Press in 2007, despite playing most of year with cast to protect left hand fracture ...Key force inside for '07 club that ranked sixth nationally in fewest points allowed (16.9) and average net yards allowed (197.9)...Recorded 4.5 sacks as junior… Missed the 2005 season, absent from the team due to family obligations… Public administration major.

PERSONAL: Earned Florida Class 5A all-state honors as a senior at Dillard High School in his hometown of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was named to PrepStar All-America team as a senior ... Also played prep basketball and helped lead team to state championship as a junior…Youngest among 10 children in his family.

DEFENSIVE BACK | MICHIGAN

HT. 6-1 WT. 210
Born: 10/7/76
Acquired: FA-'13

16th NFL season
Ninth Raiders Season
High School: Ross (Fremont, Ohio)

Selected by Oakland Raiders as first of two first-round selections (fourth overall) in NFL Draft, April, 18, 1998…Signed first contract, July 21, 1998… Designated by Raiders as franchise player, Feb. 24, 2004…Re-signed by Raiders as franchise player, Sept. 1, 2004…Designated by Raiders as franchise player, Feb. 22, 2005…Re-signed by Raiders as franchise player, March 7, 2005…Placed on injured reserve (leg), Dec. 29, 2005…Signed by Green Bay Packers as unrestricted free agent, May 1, 2006…Signed new contract with Packers, Sept. 9, 2010…Terminated by Packers, Feb. 15, 2013…Re-signed by Raiders as free agent, May 22, 2013.

CAREER: Re--signed this offseason with Oakland, where he laid the foundation for a full-circle career almost assuredly destined for recognition with a bust in Canton, Ohio…Hall of Fame credentials include the opportunity to become one of just four players in league history with interceptions in 16 straight seasons; should he accomplish that in 2013, would join Darrell Green (19), Eugene Robinson (16) and the Raiders' own Willie Brown (16)… Also needs just one interception-touchdown to match former teammate Rod Woodson's NFL record, 12; currently tied for second with former Dennis Allen pupil Darren Sharper (11)…Incidentally, Rod signed late in his career with Oakland at age 37, just like Charles…Entering 2013, his 55 career interceptions rank second among active players (Ed Reed, 61), and his 26 INTs since 2008 rank third behind Asante Samuel (28) and Reed (27)…Recorded a pick-six in a fifth straight season in 2010, an NFL record…In 2012, for the first time in his career played primarily safety, following a pattern laid by other prominent corners who made the move late in their careers; of his 219 NFL starts, including postseason, has opened 14 as a safety…In his final year as a CB, 2011, garnered his fourth straight and eighth career Pro Bowl selection for the 15-1 Packers… After 13 decorated NFL seasons, earned his first Super Bowl ring in 2010 with career highs in tackles (105) and forced fumbles (five)…Helped Green Bay to the playoffs in five of his final six years there, including 2009, when the Associated Press named him NFL Defensive Player of the Year after his best individual campaign; joined Reggie White (1998) as one of two Packers to receive the honor…Played most of 2008 with a broken toe but still picked off seven passes and recorded a career-best three sacks…Selected by Al Davis fourth overall in 1998, following his junior Heisman Trophy season at Michigan, earned Pro Bowl honors each of his first four years (1998-2001), a run capped by his tuck-rule strip of Tom Brady in the wintry 2001 AFC Divisional playoffs…Also as a Raider, earned first-team All-Pro accolades on three occasions (Associated Press 1999, Sports Illustrated 2000, and Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly in 2001)…Hardware also includes the 1998 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year, after a five-interception season…With an unbridled desire and rare toughness, has fought through various injuries to get back on the field; voted by teammates in 2010 the recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award …After breaking his leg and missing the final 10 games of his initial Raiders tenure in 2005, started 109 of 122 games during his Packers career…Needs just 12 tackles for 1,000 career…His uncommon football life includes experience in dozens of marquee games, including three college bowls on a nationally ranked Michigan squad (capped by a Jan. 1, 1998, Rose Bowl triumph that sewed up the AP national championship), three Michigan-Ohio State battles, 17 NFL playoff games, two Super Bowls and four conference-title tilts…Started the final 34 games of his college career, moving into the Michigan lineup before the second game of his 1995 true-freshman season.

2012: Played and started seven games, and was enjoying transition to safety in Green Bay's base defense until a broken collarbone sidelined him for Weeks 8-17; returned for the playoffs to conclude his Packers career...At time of his injury, had started the first seven games at SS and ranked third on the team with 44 tackles (36 solo), 1.5 sacks, an INT, a forced fumble and five passes defensed…In two postseason games, had 12 tackles (11 solo), and one pass defensed…(9/9) vs. SF: Appeared in his 200th career contest, starting at SS; forced a fumble and posted 1½ sacks, his most in a game since he posted two vs. Seattle in 2001, with the Raiders…(9/13) vs. Chi.: Recorded his 55th career interception, matching Aeneas Williams for 19th on the all-time list; picked off Jay Cutler on a key third down in the third quarter…(9/24) at Sea.: Helped limit Seattle to 111 net passing yards, including 42 in the second half, breaking up two passes…(10/7) at Ind.: In on all 96

- Could become the fifth Raiders defensive back inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, a two-hour drive from his childhood home.
- A three-time first-team All-Pro and eight-time Pro Bowler, earned Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year in 2009.
- Bids to intercept a pass in a 16th straight season and join an elite trio; only Darrell Green (19), Eugene Robinson (16) and Raiders Hall of Famer Willie Brown (16) have achieved the feat. Plus, with an interception touchdown, would match former Raiders teammate and Hall of Famer Rod Woodson (12) for most in NFL history. Like Rod in 2002, when he led the NFL with eight INTs, Charles will be 37.
- Left Green Bay with a franchise-record 10 defensive TDs (nine INTs, one fumble return).
- In 2010, when the Packers captured the Lombardi Trophy, became the first player in NFL annals with an interception touchdown in five straight seasons.
- The 1998 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, became the first Raiders defensive back to start every game in his rookie season since Jack Tatum in 1971.

Usama YOUNG 26

SAFETY | KENT STATE

HT. 6-0 WT. 200
Born: 5/8/85
Acquired: FA-'13

Seventh NFL season
First Raiders Season
High School: Largo (Washington, D.C.)

Selected by New Orleans Saints in third round (66th overall) of 2007 NFL Draft, April 28, 2007…Signed first contract, June 11, 2007…Re-signed by Saints, April 19, 2010…Signed by Cleveland Browns as unrestricted free agent, July 30, 2011…Placed on injured reserve (thumb), Dec. 26, 2012…Terminated by Browns, April 2, 2013…Signed by Oakland Raiders as free agent, April 9, 2013.

CAREER: Begins a new chapter with his third NFL team, having signed with the Raiders as an unrestricted free agent…NFL journey has followed a progressively upward slope, including his best season to date, 2012, when he recorded career highs in both starts (11), interceptions (3) and sacks (1.5) for the Browns…One of three Raiders players with Super Bowl rings, joining Matt Flynn (XLV with Green Bay) and Tracy Porter (XLIV with New Orleans)…In addition to his veteran leadership presence, figures to serve as a coach on the field, having played every position in the secondary during his NFL career…Entered the league as the Saints' third-round selection (66th overall) in the 2007 NFL Draft, and played primarily as a slot corner and reserve defensive back over his first five seasons, all with New Orleans...Signed in 2011 with Cleveland, where he played primarily strong safety that season and free safety in 2012.

2012: Played in 13 Cleveland games with a career-most 11 starts, 10 at free safety and one at strong safety when T.J. Ward went on injured reserve late in the year…Posted 52 tackles (36 solo), seven passes defensed, one fumble recovery and career highs in both interceptions (3) and sacks (1.5)…Tied for the team lead in interceptions…Went on injured reserve himself (thumb) and missed the season finale…Ironically also missed Cleveland's Week 13 win at Oakland (concussion), his future team…(9/9) vs. Phi.: Inactive for the season-opener with a thigh injury…(9/27) at Bal.: With Cleveland trailing, 16-10, in the third quarter, sacked Joe Flacco at the Browns' 24-yard line, three plays before the Ravens missed a field goal…The sack was his first since 10/3/10 at Carolina…(10/7) at NYG: Intercepted Eli Manning in the fourth quarter, returning the takeaway 44 yards to the Giants' 27…Also matched his career high with 10 tackles…(10/14) vs. Cin.: Sealed a 34-24 win by intercepting Andy Dalton in the end zone on the Bengals' final snap…(10/28) vs. SD: Broke up two Philip Rivers passes, one to force a punt, and another to prevent a potential Malcom Floyd score, both in the second quarter, as Cleveland gave up 148 net passing yards and no touchdowns in a 7-6 triumph…(11/18) at Dal.: With Cleveland up 13-0, combined with future Raiders teammate Kaluka Maiava to sack Tony Romo and help hold Dallas to a field goal…(11/25) vs. Pit.: Sustained a knee injury the previous week that kept him out of the starting lineup, but still broke up a pass and notched his first career recovery, scooping up a Rashard Mendenhall fumble near midfield to set up a field goal; the takeaway was the first of eight for Cleveland in a 20-14 win…Left early in the third quarter with a concussion after tackling Heath Miller…(12/23) at Den.: Replaced Ward (knee) in the lineup at strong safety, his first start at the position since the 2011 season finale, and picked off Petyon Manning in the end zone to keep Denver off the board in a 14-3 game just before halftime…Sustained a thumb injury that placed him on injured reserve three days later.

2011: Saw action in all 16 games and started seven, all in succession at strong safety over the final seven contests…In his first season with the Browns, helped Cleveland's pass defense rank second in the NFL, the team's highest finish since 1962…Recorded 66 tackles (47 solo), an interception and a pass defensed, as well as five stops on special teams…(9/18) at Ind.: On the first play of the fourth quarter, intercepted Kerry Collins, and his 28-yard return to set up a FG that gave Cleveland a 17-12 advantage in an eventual win…(11/20) vs. Jac.: Racked up 10 tackles, at the time a career best, in a Browns victory.

AT A GLANCE

- First name is pronounced oo-SAHM-uh.
- A versatile player, has played every position in the secondary during his seven-year NFL career.
- Earned a Super Bowl ring with Dennis Allen as his position coach in 2009 with the Saints.
- In 2008, won a "Super Ad" contest among NFL players and appeared in a 60-second Super Bowl XLIII commercial depicting his childhood, when his father, LeRoi, got him a job selling snow cones at FedEx Field during Redskins games.
- Established the Usama Young Youth Foundation, which serves as a vehicle for building athletic skills and fostering positive academic and social competence through sport, for kids ages 12-15 in the Washington D.C. Metropolitan community.
- Also founded the "Young's Youth" season-ticket program, which provided tickets, apparel and food for several organizations.

2010: In his last season with the Saints, started three games and played in 11; also played in the NFC Wild Card contest at Seattle…Recorded 16 tackles, one sack and 12 stops on coverage units…Was inactive over the regular season's final four contests…(9/26) vs. Atl.: Inactive with a quadricep strain…(10/3) at Car.: In a tie game, dropped Jimmy Clausen on third-and-4 to force a second quarter punt, his first NFL sack…(10/24) vs. Cle.: Started as a cornerback…(10/31) vs. Pit.: Started at free safety…(11/21) vs. Sea.: Started at free safety in a 34-19 win and recorded a career-best three passes defensed, one of which forced Seattle to settle for a first-quarter FG.

2009: Saw action in 12 games with one start, helping New Orleans capture a Super Bowl XLIV championship… Had nine regular-season tackles (seven solo) and one interception on defense, along with six stops and a fumble recovery on special teams… Appeared in all three postseason games, recording two tackles and tying for the team lead with four special-teams tackles…(11/15) at StL: In his season's only start, opened at free safety and picked off Marc Bulger in the end zone, halting a first-quarter drive; posted four tackles in a 28-23 win…(12/6) at Was.: Late in the first half, with New Orleans trailing 17-10, recovered a punt-return muffed by Washington's Kevin Barnes, to set up a game-tying touchdown in an eventual 33-30 win…(2/7/10) vs. Ind.: Posted a pair of special-teams stops in the Saints' Super Bowl XLIV triumph in Miami, over the Colts.

2008: Played in 15 games and started two for the Saints…A special-teams ace, ranked second on the team with 19 coverage stops, adding a fumble recovery…On defense, had 27 tackles and two interceptions… (10/26) vs. SD: In the second quarter of a 37-32 win, set up a touchdown by recovering Darren Sproles' muffed punt return…(11/16) at KC: Late in the fourth quarter, with the Saints up 30-20 and just over two minutes left, picked off Tyler Thigpen on KC's final play to preserve a win…(12/11) at Chi.: Opened at cornerback in his first NFL start…(12/21) at Det.: Started as an extra defensive back and intercepted Dan Orlovsky, jumping a Calvin Johnson route at the Saints' 19, on the last play of the first half, preserving a 28-7 advantage.

2007: Saw action in 14 games as a Saints rookie, primarily as a reserve DB and on special teams…Recorded a team-best 20 special-teams stops, in addition to 10 tackles from scrimmage…(9/6) at Ind.: Made his NFL debut in the season-opener, with two special-teams tackles.

CHARGERS 22, RAIDERS 14

O.co Coliseum; Monday, Sept. 10, 2012; Attendance: 61,896; Time: 3:06; Weather: 67°F; clear and sunny, 59% humidity, wind WNW 11 mph

OAKLAND (AP) -- The San Diego Chargers capitalized on three botched punts following an injury to Oakland's long snapper to beat the Raiders 22-14.

Philip Rivers threw for 231 yards and a 6-yard touchdown to Malcom Floyd in a turnover-free game as San Diego won despite starting undrafted rookie Mike Harris at left tackle and missing starting running back Ryan Mathews and receiver Vincent Brown to injuries. San Diego protected Harris by throwing short often with 16 of Rivers' 24 completions going to running backs and tight ends. Rivers was sacked just once and did not turn the ball over after having 20 interceptions a year ago. Oakland had its own problems with injuries. The absence of deep-threat receivers Denarius Moore (hamstring) and Jacoby Ford (left foot) left Carson Palmer mostly throwing underneath to Darren McFadden, who caught a career-high 13 passes. A head injury to Pro Bowl long snapper Jon Condo in the second quarter proved to be even more significant when backup long snapper Travis Goethel had to fill in. Early in the third quarter, the Raiders lined up to go for it on fourth-and-2 from the San Diego 48. But after a penalty for 12 men in the huddle, Oakland decided to punt. Goethel, who last snapped in high school, rolled one back to Lechler, who was tackled for a loss, giving San Diego the ball at the Raiders 39. That set up a 28-yard field goal by Kaeding. After Oakland was stopped on its next drive, Lechler set up closer to Goethel, whose snap made it back in the air. But Dante Rosario broke through for the first block against Lechler since 2006 — a year before Condo joined the team. The Chargers once again had to settle for a short field goal and led 16-6 heading into the fourth quarter.

Rivers hit Floyd on a 23-yarder on a drive that was extended by three Oakland penalties that gave San Diego a first down, including two offside penalties by Tommy Kelly on third down. Rivers capped the drive by escaping pressure and finding Floyd for a TD.

DOLPHINS 35, RAIDERS 13

Sun Life Stadium; Sunday, Sept. 16, 2012; Attendance: 54,245; Time: 3:10; Weather: 80°F; clear and sunny, 75% humidity, wind E 8 mph

MIAMI (AP) -- Reggie Bush ran for 172 yards and two touchdowns, and the Dolphins won a home opener for the first time since 2005 by beating the Oakland Raiders 35-13.

Ryan Tannehill threw his first NFL touchdown pass, ran for another and avoided any turnovers after tossing three interceptions in his pro debut a week earlier.

Bush broke four tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run that put the Dolphins ahead to stay in the third quarter. After they forced a punt, Bush struck again, this time on a 65-yard scoring run. Far from home on a sweltering afternoon, the Raiders wilted down the stretch. Miami employed a no-huddle approach most of the game and pulled away in the final 20 minutes by mounting touchdown drives of 80, 80 and 75 yards.

Carson Palmer threw for 373 yards, but the Raiders were plagued by poor field position and managed only one touchdown -- when backup running back Mike Goodson took a swing pass and turned it into a 64-yard score.

Darren McFadden was held to 22 yards rushing and 19 receiving. The Raiders were only 1-for-12 on third-down conversions, and they had no takeaways. Tannehill went 18 for 30 for 200 yards, including a 14-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Fasano. But the rookie's niftiest throw came as he was being tackled: Parallel to the ground, he side armed a completion for a 3-yard gain. He hit Brian Hartline nine times for 111 yards.

Bush had a career-high 26 carries and added three receptions for 25 yards. Lamar Miller carried 10 times in his NFL debut for 65 yards, including a 15-yard score to seal the victory.

The Dolphins trailed 10-7 in the third quarter before finally taking advantage of superior field position, when they had the Raiders pinned at their 1 and forced a punt that gave them the ball at the Oakland 44.

RAIDERS 34, STEELERS 31

O.co Coliseum; Sunday, Sept. 23, 2012; Attendance: 62,373; Time: 3:39; Weather: 69°F; clear and sunny, 53% humidity, wind WNW 10 mph

OAKLAND (AP) — Sebastian Janikowski kicked a 43-yard field goal on the last play and the Raiders scored the final 13 points after Darrius Heyward-Bey was knocked out and hospitalized by a scary hit to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-31.

Carson Palmer followed the Heyward-Bey injury by throwing his third touchdown pass and Janikowski kicked two field goals to beat the Steelers (1-2). The Raiders took over at their 25 with the game tied and 1:42 remaining. Palmer got the drive going with a 24-yard pass to Brandon Myers on third-and-10 and then hit Derek Hagan on a 17-yard pass down to the Pittsburgh 26 with 27 seconds left. Oakland then ran down the clock to set up Janikowski's winning kick that sent the crowd into delirium less than an hour after silence overtook the stadium when Heyward-Bey was injured. Heyward-Bey managed to raise his right hand while being taken off the field on a cart to go to the hospital.

Four plays later, Palmer eluded pressure and found Denarius Moore on a 6-yard touchdown pass that brought Oakland within 31-28 early in the fourth quarter. Raiders cornerback Pat Lee then forced a fumble downfield by Pittsburgh receiver Antonio Brown that Philip Wheeler recovered at the Oakland 36. Palmer then drove the Raiders down the field and they tied the game on a 32-yard field goal by Janikowski with 6:30 to play.

Darren McFadden ran for 113 yards, including a 64-yard TD burst in the first quarter that surpassed his rushing total from the first two games of the season combined. Palmer overcame an interception on the first play of the game to go 24 for 34 for 209 yards and three touchdowns, including a 3-yarder to Heyward-Bey late in the first half.

BRONCOS 37, RAIDERS 6

Sports Authority Field at Mile High; Sunday, Sept. 30, 2012; Attendance: 76,787; Time: 2:55; Weather: 72°F; clear and sunny, 26% humidity, wind NE 6 mph

DENVER (AP) -- The Denver Broncos (2-2) outscored their archrival 27-0 in the second half as Manning, who was sacked eight times in his first three games, had plenty of time to throw to his open targets. Picking and poking with short crossing routes and screen passes against a depleted Oakland defense, Peyton Manning finished with 338 yards and three scores on 30 of 38 passing. For the second straight game, he didn't throw an interception. Topping it off, he handed the Raiders (1-3) their worst loss in this heated AFC West rivalry in nearly a half-century.

Manning had his record-extending 65th 300-yard passing game, and Willis McGahee recorded his 32nd 100-yard rushing game, tops among active NFL players. Allen pledged to use the upcoming bye week to evaluate everything from schemes to personnel.

The Broncos gained 101 more yards than the Raiders in the first half, but only led 10-6 going into the locker room, thanks to two big blunders: a Demaryius Thomas fumble after a 40-yard reception and kicker Matt Prater's misfire on a pass to left guard Zane Beadles on a fake field goal.

Thanks to those gaffes, the Raiders came out of the tunnel for the second half feeling like they could win this one.

The Broncos were so efficient that they didn't punt at all - only the fifth time that's happened in franchise history.

The Raiders gave up three TDs in the third quarter while going three-and-out three times.

FALCONS 23, RAIDERS 20

Georgia Dome; Sunday, Oct. 14, 2012; Attendance: 69,383; Time: 2:59; Indoors

ATLANTA (AP) -- Overcoming three interceptions by Matt Ryan, the Falcons (6-0) extended the best start in franchise history and became the NFL's only unbeaten team.

Ryan completed four short passes, the last of them a 13-yarder to Tony Gonzalez that got Bryant in range for his longest field goal since joining the Falcons in 2009 — and his second game-winning kick in three weeks. He beat the Panthers 30-28 on a 40-yard field goal with 5 seconds left. Bryant actually missed one early, pulling a 43-yarder wide left to break a streak of 23 consecutive field goals going back to last season. He bounced back to connect from 41 and 20 yards before making the one that really mattered. After a mostly ugly game, the final 3 minutes were thrilling. Tied at 13, the Raiders were in position for a go-ahead field goal when Samuel stepped in front of Carson Palmer's pass at the Atlanta 21 and returned it for a touchdown, racing to the end zone right in front of the Falcons' bench.

Palmer shook off that mistake, leading the Raiders down the field for the tying score. He connected with Derek Hagan on a 38-yard pass to the Atlanta 5, and Darren McFadden scored on a 2-yard run with 40 seconds left. Ryan finished 24 of 37 for 249 yards and equaled his career high for picks, matching the three he had against New Orleans in 2009. Palmer was 23 of 33 for 353 yards, putting up a much better rating than Ryan. Ryan came into the game with three interceptions in the first five weeks. He doubled his total by halftime. Joselio Hanson picked one off over the middle. Michael Huff snatched another away on a deep throw. And Tyvon Branch grabbed a fluttering ball after Ryan was hit as he threw. Palmer flipped a short pass to Denarius Moore, who took it all the way to the end zone for a 25-yard touchdown that gave Oakland a 13-7 lead at halftime.

RAIDERS 26, JAGUARS 23

O.co Coliseum; Sunday, Oct. 21, 2012; Attendance: 51,634; Time: 3:24; Wind: WSW 11mph, Partly Cloudy

OAKLAND (AP) -- Carson Palmer wasn't going to apologize for a mistake-filled win by the Oakland Raiders a week after they lost what might have been their best-played game of the season. Sebastian Janikowski kicked a 40-yard field goal after Cecil Shorts III fumbled on the opening possession of overtime and the Raiders overcame three turnovers and a 14-point deficit to beat the Jacksonville Jaguars 26-23.

The Jaguars lost Jones-Drew to a left foot injury on the opening drive and Gabbert to an injured left shoulder in the second quarter and managed only two first downs after halftime behind backup quarterback Chad Henne. Jacksonville lost it after Henne took a sack on second down in overtime and Shorts then got stripped by Houston after a short pass over the middle to set up Janikowski's fourth field goal of the game.

Oakland fell behind 20-6 early in the second half and 23-13 early in the fourth before rallying to tie the game on Palmer's 1-yard run with 3:34 remaining. Palmer threw an 8-yard touchdown pass to Denarius Moore to start the comeback and Oakland's next two scoring drives were aided by Jacksonville penalties.

Andre Branch was called for roughing the passer in the end zone on a third-down play stopped short of the yard marker to extend a drive that ended with Janikowski's third field goal.

The Jaguars went three-and-out again on the next drive but were in position to stop Oakland on fourth-and-10 from the Jacksonville 25 with under 4 minutes to go. After the Raiders used their final timeout, Palmer threw deep in the end zone to Darrius Heyward-Bey. Aaron Ross was called for pass interference on the play, putting Oakland at the 1 to set up Palmer's score.

RAIDERS 26, CHIEFS 16

Arrowhead Stadium; Sunday, Oct. 28, 2012; Attendance: 74,730 Time: 3:00; Wind: ENE 3 mph, Sunny

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Carson Palmer threw for 209 yards and two touchdowns, and the Raiders followed up their overtime win over Jacksonville with a comprehensive 26-16 pasting of the Kansas City Chiefs, their sixth straight win at Arrowhead Stadium. Suddenly, Oakland (3-4) is a player in the division race.

The Chiefs committed four turnovers to run their league-leading total to 25, and their fourth-quarter touchdown was the first by the offense since Sept. 30 against San Diego. Jamaal Charles, their biggest offensive weapon, carried only five times for four yards. While the Chiefs struggled to get their ground game going, Oakland finally did with Darren McFadden. He ran for 114 yards, and in doing so opened up the passing game, allowing Palmer to hit Denarius Moore and Darrius Heyward-Bey with touchdown throws.

Sebastian Janikowski was perfect on four field-goal attempts, and the Raiders (3-4) nearly became the third straight team to keep the Kansas City offense out of the end zone. The Chiefs got their lone touchdown on Dexter McCluster's catch with 2:27 left in the game.

The Raiders finally got on the board when Palmer found Moore for a short completion that he turned into a 38-yard gain, and Janikowski connected from 36 yards for a 3-0 lead. The Raiders took the lead into halftime when the Chiefs' Javier Arenas fumbled a punt while attempting to make a fair catch. Jon Condo recovered it at the Kansas City 11, and Palmer hit Moore in the back of the end zone on third down to give Oakland a 13-6 lead with 49 seconds left. Cassel fumbled the snap on the first play of the third quarter and the Raiders' Tommy Kelly recovered, but the Raiders had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by Janikowski.

BUCCANEERS 42, RAIDERS 32

O.co Coliseum; Sunday, Nov. 4, 2012; Attendance: 52,055 Time: 3:32; Wind: NW 7 mph, Sunny

OAKLAND (AP) - Rookie Doug Martin broke through a few holes early only to stumble after a short gain on what he felt should have been big gainers. A small tweak to his style at the suggestion of coach Greg Schiano proved to be just the trick to give Martin a record-setting day. Martin rushed for a franchise-record 251 yards and four touchdowns, and Ahmad Black intercepted a Carson Palmer pass after Oakland had cut an 18-point deficit to three late in the fourth quarter as the Bucs beat the Raiders 42-32.

Palmer threw for 414 yards and had three of his four touchdowns in the fourth quarter as Oakland cut the Bucs' lead to 35-32 with 3:51 to go.

Josh Freeman threw for 247 yards and two touchdowns as Tampa Bay won for the third time in four games. The Bucs are averaging 477 yards and 36 points per game over the past four contests.

The Raiders, coming off two straight victories against one-win Jacksonville and Kansas City, had no answers for Martin and the Bucs, allowing the three long runs in the second half when Martin gained 220 of his yards.

Along with the loss, the Raiders had to deal with another injury to McFadden, who left in the second quarter because of his ankle. X-rays were negative, but McFadden did not return and his status was unknown. He missed 19 games in his first four seasons with foot, toe, shoulder, knee and hamstring injuries.

But McFadden would have been no help trying to stop Martin, who broke the franchise record of 219 yards James Wilder set in 1983 despite the absence of All Pro guard Carl Nicks, who was placed on injured reserve last week with a left toe injury.

RAVENS 55, RAIDERS 20

M&T Bank Stadium; Sunday, Nov. 11, 2012; Attendance: 71,339 Time: 3:06; Wind: SSE 6 mph, Sunny

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ravens QB Joe Flacco threw for 341 yards and three scores, and Baltimore set a club mark for points in a 55-20 victory against the Oakland Raiders.

The Ravens (7-2) scored on six of their first seven possessions against the Raiders (3-6), who have yielded at least 40 points in two straight games for the first time since 1962. The 55 points tied an Oakland record for points allowed, set in 1961 and matched in 1981.

Baltimore led 27-10 at halftime. In the third quarter, Flacco threw touchdown passes of 47 and 20 yards to Torrey Smith, and holder Sam Koch scored on a fake field goal to make it 48-17. In the fourth quarter, Jacoby Jones took a kickoff 105 yards for a 55-20 lead. Baltimore's previous record for points in a game was 48, against Detroit in December 2009.

It was a rare blowout for the AFC North-leading Ravens, who won their previous five games by a total of 23 points. Baltimore has 15 straight home wins, the longest current streak in the NFL.

Carson Palmer went 29 for 45 for 368 yards and two touchdowns for Oakland. Playing without injured running backs Darren McFadden and Mike Goodson, the Raiders gained only 72 yards on the ground.

Baltimore didn't punt until the third quarter, and even that turned out well. Phillip Adams fumbled, the Ravens recovered the ball and Flacco promptly threw a touchdown pass to Smith.

Later in the quarter, Koch ran seven yards for a touchdown on a fake field goal to cap a 74-yard drive.

The Raiders used a 55-yard pass from Palmer to Darrius Heyward-Bey to close to 20-10 with 1:39 left in the second quarter. It was the ninth straight game in which Oakland scored in the final two minutes of the first half.

SAINTS 38, RAIDERS 17

O.co Coliseum; Sunday, Nov. 18, 2012; Attendance: 56,880 Time: 3:11; Wind: W 3 mph, Sunny

OAKLAND (AP) - Drew Brees threw three touchdown passes and Malcolm Jenkins returned an interception for another score to help the Saints get back to even after an 0-4 start by beating the Oakland Raiders 38-17 on Sunday.

Lance Moore caught two touchdown passes and Mark Ingram ran for a score as the Saints (5-5) won for the fifth time in six games and are in position to make a late-season playoff run despite the season-long distraction from the bounty scandal.

The Raiders (3-7) lost their third straight game under first-year coach Dennis Allen as their banged-up defense got picked apart by Brees' precision passing. Oakland has allowed 135 points in those defeats.

Carson Palmer threw one interception that was returned for a score and another in the end zone. The Raiders have been outscored by 56 points the past two games.

The Saints did just about everything starting with an efficient opening drive by Brees that set the tone for the game. Brees finished 20 for 27 for 219 yards, extending his own records by throwing a touchdown in his 53rd straight game and completing 20 passes for the 46th straight game.

Marcel Reece rushed for 103 yards and added 90 yards receiving as he started at halfback in place of injured Darren McFadden and Mike Goodson.

Travaris Cadet returned the second-half kickoff 75 yards and Ingram ran it in from the 27 on the next play. Brees and Moore connected one more time in the third quarter to make it 35-10.

BENGALS 34, RAIDERS 10

Paul Brown Stadium; Sunday, Nov. 25, 2012; Attendance: 56,503 Time: 3:11; Wind: SW 9 mph, Sunny

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Bengals got back into the playoff race by beating their former franchise quarterback and his new team 34-10. Cincinnati (6-5) moved into a tie with Pittsburgh for the second wild card spot, although the Steelers have the head-to-head tiebreaker.

From the coin flip, the attention was on Palmer, who had decided he couldn't play for one of the NFL's most forlorn franchises of the past 20 years. He held out last year, and owner Mike Brown finally relented and traded him to Oakland at midseason.

Palmer hadn't been back to Cincinnati since the trade. He went 19 of 34 for 146 yards with a touchdown, four sacks and an interception that went off the receiver's hands — hardly what he'd hoped. With running back Darren McFadden sidelined again by an ankle injury, the Raiders were missing one of their best options. And Palmer was under heavy pressure all game.

The Bengals had 156 yards after only two series. Dalton's second touchdown pass to Mohamed Sanu made it 21-0 midway through the second quarter. At that point, the Raiders' offense hadn't yet crossed midfield.

Oakland allowed 289 yards in the half — the most this season — and had only 83 yards, its fewest on offense since it managed 52 yards in the first half at Pittsburgh on Nov. 21, 2010.

BROWNS 20, RAIDERS 17

O.co Coliseum; Sunday, Dec. 2, 2012; Attendance: 43,641 Time: 3:03; Wind: W 21 mph, Partly cloudy

OAKLAND (AP) — Brandon Weeden threw for a career-high 364 yards and a touchdown and made key plays on the clinching 94-yard drive that helped the Browns snap a 12-game road losing streak. He hit fellow rookie Josh Gordon on a 44-yard score in the second quarter and Trent Richardson scored on a 3-yard run after Sheldon Brown's key interception. It all added up to the first road win for the Browns (4-8) since beating Indianapolis 27-19 in the second game of the 2011 season. The skid started a few weeks later with a loss in Oakland and went deep into this season.

Weeden completed an 11-yard pass on third-and-3 to Gordon to get the Browns started and also had a big 22-yard pass to tight end Benjamin Watson. Weeden then converted a fourth-and-1 sneak from the Oakland 45 and Desmond Bryant jumped offside on a third-and-1 from the Raiders 10.

Richardson scored two plays later to give the Browns a 20-10 lead with 3:27 to go as the Browns won for the fourth time in seven games since an 0-5 start to match last season's win total.

Palmer was 34 for 54 for 351 yards, including a 64-yard touchdown to rookie Rod Streater. He added a 17-yard TD pass to Brandon Myers with 1 second left, but it was too late. Myers caught 14 passes for 130 yards, tying Tim Brown's franchise record for catches in a game.

Oakland showed signs of life late in the third quarter when Desmond Bryant blocked a 28-yard field goal attempt by Phil Dawson. Four plays later, Streater made a good adjustment on a deep pass from Palmer that cut Cleveland's lead to 13-10. Sebastian Janikowski got Oakland on the board with a 51-yard field goal, but was wide right on a 61-yarder at the end of the half.

O.co Coliseum; Thursday, Dec. 6, 2012; Attendance: 53,807 Time: 2:59; Wind: WNW 7 mph, Cloudy

OAKLAND (AP) — Knowshon Moreno sparked a struggling Denver running game with 119 yards and a touchdown and QB Peyton Manning threw for 310 yards and another score to help the Broncos top the Oakland Raiders, 26-13. Manning extended his franchise record with his 30th touchdown pass on the game's opening drive, becoming the fastest quarterback to reach 5,000 career completions and earned his record 12th 10-win season as a starter.

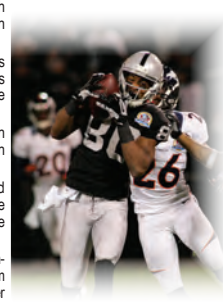

Carson Palmer threw one interception that thwarted a possible scoring chance for the Raiders (3-10) and lost a fumble that set up a touchdown for the Broncos as Oakland lost its sixth straight game. It is the team's longest skid since also losing six in a row in 2007.

The Raiders played the game with heavy hearts as coach Dennis Allen's father, Grady, died earlier in the week from cardiac arrest. Allen was away from the team for two days but returned Wednesday and coached the game.

The game was competitive for a brief time as the Raiders got on the board late in the first half on a touchdown pass from Palmer to Darren McFadden and then started with the ball in the third quarter down 13-7.

McFadden, returning from a four-game absence due to a sprained right ankle, broke off a 36-yard run on the first play from scrimmage, but the Raiders' drive stalled in Denver territory after that and the Broncos took the game over.

Matt Prater added two field goals after Broncos drives stalled inside the Oakland 20 as Denver extended the lead to 13-0. The momentum shifted after Phillip Adams intercepted an underthrown pass from Manning to Matthew Willis in the end zone. Oakland responded with an 80-yard drive capped by a 6-yard screen pass to McFadden.

RAIDERS 15, CHIEFS 0

O.co Coliseum; Sunday, Dec. 16, 2012; Attendance: 51,446 Time: 2:50; Wind: WS 2 mph, Cloudy

OAKLAND (AP) - The defense dominated, the running game clicked and the Oakland Raiders finally ended up on the winning end for the first time in seven weeks.

Sebastian Janikowski kicked five field goals, Darren McFadden rushed for 110 yards and the Raiders shut out Kansas City for the second time ever, beating the Chiefs 15-0 on Sunday. The Raiders (4-10) overwhelmed the Chiefs (2-12) to snap a six-game losing streak. There has been little to cheer for this season for the Chiefs, who have lost 10 of 11 games and are tied for the second-most losses in franchise history behind a 2-14 mark in 2008.

The Chiefs took nearly 40 minutes to earn their initial first down of the game and the Raiders failed to reach the end zone. Oakland allowed just 119 total yards, fewest by a Raiders opponent since 1975.

But strong running by McFadden and Mike Goodson giving the Raiders a season-high 203 yards rushing, Carson Palmer playing turnover-free for the first time since September and the Raiders dominating defensively, Oakland came out on top. The Raiders held Jamaal Charles to 10 yards rushing on nine carries, giving him 14 yards on 14 carries in two games against Oakland this season. Brady Quinn was 18 for 32 for 136 yards and an interception as he missed injured receiver Dwayne Bowe.

Kansas City also failed to capitalize on a fumble by McFadden that Justin Houston recovered at the Oakland 18. An offensive pass interference and four straight incompletions by Quinn gave the ball back to the Raiders and helped seal the shut out.

The last time the Raiders recorded a shutout came in the 2002 regular season finale when they beat Kansas City 24-0. That was also the only other time they shutout the Chiefs in this long rivalry.

The fans even got to see third quarterback Terrelle Pryor for the first time all season. He entered to cheers on the first series of the second quarter. The former Ohio State star player handed off on his first two plays and threw an incompletion on third down before Palmer returned to the game.

PANTHERS 17, RAIDERS 6

Bank of America Stadium; Sunday, Dec. 23, 2012; Attendance: 73,026 Time: 2:55; Wind: NW 3 mph, Cloudy

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Despite the 17-6 victory over the Oakland Raiders, Panthers QB Cam Newton apologized after the win. It had nothing to do with his performance on the field, but rather what he said when he angrily confronted referee Jerome Boger and drew a penalty for unsportsmanlike conduct in the fourth quarter.

The second-year quarterback made up for it by throwing for 170 yards and a touchdown and running for 60 yards and another score.

Newton's frustration stemmed from a heated game featuring several shoving matches, plenty of verbal exchanges and six unnecessary roughness penalties - including one that sidelined Oakland quarterback Carson Palmer in the first quarter for the rest of the day.

Newton took exception with what he felt was a late hit by Raiders safety Mike Mitchell with Carolina up 14-6.

Coach Dennis Allen said Palmer was taken to the hospital after the game, but X-rays on his ribs were negative.

Newton and the Panthers built a 14-3 lead at halftime then let linebacker Luke Kuechly and the defense do the rest.

Palmer's replacement, Matt Leinart, managed 115 yards passing in three-plus quarters and was intercepted once by Kuechly, setting up Carolina's second touchdown of the game.

Newton accounted for 230 of the 271 yards for the Panthers, who have won four of their last five games.

The Raiders (4-11) were held to 47 yards rushing on 22 carries. Their longest play was a 22-yard reception by third-string quarterback Terrelle Pryor on a trick play.

After being penalized for holding on the game's opening drive nullifying a 76-yard touchdown run by DeAngelo Williams, Panthers receiver Steve Smith hauled in a 23-yard touchdown pass from Newton on Carolina's second possession.

Qualcomm Stadium; Sunday, Dec. 30, 2012; Attendance: 66,486 Time: 3:04; Wind: S 3 mph, Cloudy

SAN DIEGO (AP) – Chargers Head Coach Norv Turner watched his San Diego Chargers beat the rival Oakland Raiders 24-21 on a wet, gloomy Sunday that seemed to sum up the state of the franchise. The Chargers (7-9) missed the playoffs for the third straight season. The Raiders finished 4-12.

San Diego linebacker Takeo Spikes and Oakland running back Mike Goodson were ejected following a skirmish in the second quarter.

Oakland quarterback Terrelle Pryor made his first career start, in place of injured Carson Palmer. Pryor threw his first career touchdown pass, a 9-yarder to Darrius Heyward-Bey early in the second quarter, and scored on a 3-yard run midway through the fourth quarter to pull the Raiders to 24-14.

After Oakland scored in the second quarter, San Diego took the ensuing kickoff and went on a long drive that resulted in Rivers' 11-yard touchdown pass to Antonio Gates for a 17-7 lead with 2:48 left before halftime.

Rivers also threw a 34-yard scoring pass to Danario Alexander. Rivers completed 13 of 17 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns.

Pryor was 13 of 28 for 150 yards, with two TDs and one interception.

SUPER BOWL II

Miami Orange Bowl; Sunday, Jan. 14, 1968; Attendance: 75,546; Time: 2:34 PM PST; Weather: 68°F; partly cloudy, 52% humidity, wind W 14 mph

The Raiders stormed into Super Bowl II after claiming the club's first-ever American Football League championship with a 40-7 romp over the Houston Oilers on Dec. 31, 1966. The Raiders mounted a spirited challenge to the Green Bay Packers, the defending Super Bowl champions, but ultimately fell short in Miami, 33-14.

In a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history, the Bart Starr-led Packers jumped out to a 13-0 lead in the second quarter after a 62-yard touchdown reception by Boyd Dowler. The Raiders cut into the lead with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Daryle Lamonica to Bill Miller, the first of two touchdown receptions on the day for the wide receiver, who played collegiately at the University of Miami.

Down 16-7 entering the second half, the Raiders were unable to contain a Packers offense that added a 2-yard touchdown run by Donny Anderson and Don Chandler's fourth field goal of the day, in the third quarter. Herb Adderley's 60-yard interception return for a touchdown on a fourth-quarter Lamonica pass sealed the Packers victory. Lamonica connected with Miller for a 23-yard Oakland touchdown late in the final period.

Starr earned the game's MVP honors after completing 13-of-24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown. Miller hauled in a game-high five passes for 84 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Raiders.

SUPER BOWL XI

Rose Bowl; Sunday, Jan. 9, 1977; Attendance: 100,421; Time: 3:03 PM PST; Weather: 58°F, clear and sunny, 59% humidity, wind NW 5 mph

The 1976 Raiders advanced to Super Bowl XI with a 13-1 regular season record and a 2-0 mark in the playoffs, upending the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Championship Game for the first time in three tries, 24-7. Against the NFC Champion Vikings in front of 103,424 fans at the Rose Bowl, the Silver and Black put forth dominant efforts on both offense and defense in posting a 32-14 victory and capturing the club's first-ever Super Bowl championship.

Oakland built a 16-0 first-half lead as Dave Casper and Pete Banaszak each scored short touchdowns after receptions by Fred Biletnikoff brought the Raiders to the goal line on two separate drives. An additional short-yardage touchdown run by Banaszak in the second half put the Raiders up, 26-7, and set the stage for the signature moment of the contest. With Fran Tarkenton under heavy pressure in the fourth quarter, veteran Willie Brown intercepted a pass and returned it 75 yards for a touchdown to seal the victory.

The Vikings could only muster two second-half touchdowns as the Silver and Black put together a dominant defensive performance, limiting Chuck Foreman to just 44 yards rushing and intercepting Tarkenton twice.

Biletnikoff's 79 yards on four receptions, three of which set up Raider touchdowns, earned him MVP honors, while Clarence Davis helped pace the offense with 137 rushing yards on 16 carries.

SUPER BOWL XV

Louisiana Superdome; Sunday. Jan. 25, 1981; Attendance: 76,135; Time: 3:13 PM PST; Weather: played indoors, domed stadium

The 1980 Oakland Raiders entered Super Bowl XV against the NFC Champion Philadelphia Eagles as the ultimate underdogs. Not only were the Raiders the first wild card team to advance to the Super Bowl since the NFL adopted the new playoff format in 1978, but the Eagles had already defeated the Silver and Black, 10-7, just eight weeks earlier. This matchup would be markedly different, as a team that started the season with just a 2-3 record would claim the club's second championship with a dominating 27-10 victory.

The Raiders wasted no time establishing themselves in New Orleans, as Rod Martin picked off a Ron Jaworski pass on the game's third play and returned it 37 yards to set up a Jim Plunkett touchdown pass to Cliff Branch. Later in the first quarter, Plunkett hit Kenny King for an 80-yard touchdown strike that set a then-Super Bowl record and gave the Silver and Black a 14-0 lead.

Head coach Tom Flores, employing a philosophy of pressure football, kept the offense firing away in the second half. Plunkett engineered a third-quarter drive that culminated in a 29-yard touchdown pass to Branch that gave the Raiders an insurmountable 21-3 lead. Chris Bahr added two field goals in the second half and the defense, led by a Super Bowl-record three interceptions by Martin, surrendered only a fourth-quarter touchdown.

Plunkett was tabbed for MVP honors after completing 13-of-21 passes for 261 yards and three touchdowns as the Silver and Black became the first wild card team in NFL history to win the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

Tampa Stadium; Sunday, Jan. 22, 1984; Attendance: 72,920; Time: 3:31 PM PST; Weather: 68°F; partly cloudy, wind NE 20 mph

Famously dubbed "Black Sunday" by NFL Films, Super Bowl XVIII put on display the best that the NFL had to offer as the Los Angeles Raiders drubbed the Washington Redskins, 38-9. The resounding victory rested on the running brilliance of Marcus Allen and the strength of dominating defense and special teams play that lifted the Raiders to the club's third Super Bowl title in eight years.

Clad in their famous black jerseys, the Raiders jumped on the scoreboard first as Derrick Jensen blocked a first-quarter punt deep in Washington territory and fell on the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. In the second quarter, Jim Plunkett orchestrated an efficient three-play drive that culminated in a 12-yard touchdown pass to Cliff Branch.

After a Redskins field goal, the Silver and Black defense would strike just moments before halftime. Keying on a Washington screen pass play that had worked successfully against the Raiders during a regular season meeting between the two teams, defensive coordinator Charlie Sumner inserted reserve Jack Squirek with time winding down in the first half. As Joe Theismann lobbed a screen out towards Joe Washington from the 12-yard line, Squirek stepped in front of the pass and returned the interception for a touchdown to give the Raiders a 21-3 halftime advantage.

The Raiders' second half performance was just as dominant as the team shifted focus to its running game, led by Allen. The second-year running back scored a third-quarter touchdown on a 5-yard run before breaking off perhaps the finest run in Super Bowl history later in the same period. Allen took a handoff from Plunkett and started left on the play but went too wide for his blocking and reversed his field, burst free of pursuit and found the end zone after a 74-yard sprint to give the Raiders an insurmountable lead and give the city of Los Angeles its first and only Super Bowl victory.

Allen was the easy choice as the game's Most Valuable Player, gaining 191 yards on 20 carries with two touchdowns.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

Qualcomm Stadium; Sunday, Jan. 26, 2003; Attendance: 67,603; Time: 3:50 PM PST; Weather: 81°F; sunny, 21% humidity, wind WSW 8 mph

After three seasons of knocking on the door, the 2002 Raiders broke through to earn a place in the Super Bowl for the fifth time in franchise history. Led by NFL Most Valuable Player Rich Gannon, the Silver and Black claimed a third-straight AFC West title in 2002, and dispatched the Tennessee Titans in the AFC Championship Game, 41-24, in dominating fashion. The team's ultimate goal of a fourth Super Bowl title would prove elusive, however, as the Raiders fell to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego, 48-21.

The Raiders got on the board first, capitalizing on a Charles Woodson interception on the game's first possession and getting a 40-yard field goal from Sebastian Janikowski. The score would be the last until late in the third quarter for the Raiders, as the Buccaneers reeled off 34 unanswered points to build a large lead.

The Silver and Black got back into the game with three touchdowns in the second half. Gannon connected with Jerry Porter and Jerry Rice on touchdown passes of 39 and 48 yards, respectively, and Eric Johnson returned a blocked punt 13 yards for a score to move the Raiders to within two scores at 34-21 in the fourth quarter. Tampa Bay halted any chance of a Raider comeback with two interception returns for touchdowns in the fourth quarter, one by Derrick Brooks for 44 yards and one by Dwight Smith on a tipped pass for 50 yards.

RAIDERS 40, HOUSTON OILERS 7

1967 AFL Championship

Dec. 31 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders made a splash in the organization's first-ever postseason contest, posting an emphatic 40-7 victory over Houston in front of 53,330 fans at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

Fullbacks Pete Banaszak (15-116) and Hewritt Dixon (22-141) each topped 100 yards on the ground and quarterback Daryle Lamonica tossed a pair of touchdown passes and rushed for an additional score in the rout. Veteran kicker George Blanda added three field goals for Oakland. Following a tight first period, Dixon got the Raiders on the board with a 69-yard touchdown scamper around left end in the second quarter. Blanda set up for a field-goal attempt on fourth-and-1 later in the frame, but Lamonica took the snap and connected with tight end Dave Kocourek for a 17-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 17-0 lead at the half.

In the third quarter, Lamonica's 1-yard dive and the first of Blanda's three field goals gave Oakland an insurmountable 27-0 lead. Two more Blanda field goals and a 12-yard touchdown pass from Lamonica to wide receiver Bill Miller in the fourth period closed out the scoring for the day for Oakland, earning for the Raiders the right to represent the American Football League in the second AFL-NFL Championship.

Dec. 22 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

Deadlocked atop the AFL Western Division standings with identical 12-2 records, the Raiders and Chiefs met in a playoff contest to determine the New York Jets' opponent in the 1968 AFL Championship Game. Oakland used a devastating air attack behind quarterback Daryle Lamonica and receivers Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells to hand Kansas City a 41-6 defeat and book a date with Joe Namath's Jets for a shot at the team's second straight AFL title.

Lamonica lived up to his "Mad Bomber" moniker, passing for 347 yards on 19 completions with five touchdowns on the day. All of Lamonica's scoring tosses went to either Biletnikoff (7-180-3) or Wells (4-93-2), while an opportunistic Raider defense picked off Chiefs quarterback Len Dawson four times in the decisive victory.

Oakland jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the first quarter following two touchdown passes from Lamonica to Biletnikoff and an additional scoring toss to Wells. The Chiefs got into the action with a pair of Jan Stenerud field goals in the second quarter, but a 54-yard pass on a third-and-8 play for Biletnikoff's third scoring catch gave the Raiders a 28-6 advantage at the half.

Dec. 29 at Shea Stadium, Flushing Meadow, N.Y.

Just six weeks after the two teams met in the famed "Heidi Game," the Raiders' quest for a second straight AFL title came to an end as Joe Namath's 6-yard touchdown pass to receiver Don Maynard with just under eight minutes remaining in regulation lifted the Jets to a 27-23 win in a back-and-forth struggle.

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica posted a second prolific passing performance in as many weeks, completing 20-of-47 attempts for a franchise-record 406 yards and one touchdown. Fred Biletnikoff hauled in seven passes for 190 yards and one touchdown to lead all receivers.

After surrendering 10 points in the first quarter, a 29-yard scoring pass from Lamonica to Biletnikoff and a George Blanda field goal trimmed the New York lead to 13-10 entering the half. Blanda tied the score with a 9-yard field goal midway through the third period, but the Jets took the lead once again by way of a 20-yard pass from Namath to Pete Lammons, setting up a wildly entertaining fourth quarter.

Blanda's third field goal of the day, a 20-yarder, cut the lead to four points in the final period and rookie George Atkinson picked off a Namath pass and returned it to New York's 5-yard line on the ensuing possession. Fullback Pete Banaszak barreled into the end zone on the very next play, giving the Raiders their first lead of the game.

The Jets came back with a three-play scoring drive, culminating in Namath's touchdown pass to Maynard after the two had hooked up for a 52-yard gain on the previous play. Lamonica took the Raiders deep into scoring range on two more fourth-quarter drives, the second of which ended on an incomplete swing pass intended for Charlie Smith that was ruled a lateral and recovered by the Jets.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

KANSAS CITY 17, RAIDERS 7

Jan. 4 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

The final American Football League Championship fittingly took place in Oakland, as the Raiders had come to dominate the AFL's Western Division, advancing to the championship contest for the third straight season.

A stifling Kansas City defense and a balanced offense led by quarterback Len Dawson conspired to derail the Raiders' attempt for a second AFL title in three seasons. The Chiefs' defense harried Oakland quarterbacks Daryle Lamonica and George Blanda, forcing the signal-callers to throw four interceptions. Despite the best efforts of running back Charlie Smith, who totaled eight catches for 86 yards and rushed for the Raiders' lone touchdown, the high-flying Oakland offense was limited to its lowest point total of the season.

Smith got the Raiders on the scoreboard first, scampering in around left end from 3 yards out to cap a 66-yard drive at the end of the first quarter. The Chiefs leveled the score behind a 1-yard scoring plunge by running back Wendell Hayes, and the teams entered the half tied at seven.

Blanda entered the contest at quarterback for Lamonica, who sustained a hand injury, in the third quarter but was picked off in Kansas City territory. The Chiefs capitalized on the ensuing possession, marching 94 yards on a drive that culminated in a 5-yard touchdown run by running back Robert Holmes. Back in the huddle, Lamonica and Raiders attempted to even the score, but the dinged-up quarterback was picked off on three straight possessions in the fourth quarter. A Jan Stenerud field goal capped the scoring for Kansas City, who came away with the upset victory in Oakland.

RAIDERS 21, MIAMI 14

Dec. 27 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders spoiled Miami's postseason debut on a muddy Coliseum field, using an opportunistic passing attack to upend the upstart Dolphins. Quarterback Daryle Lamonica tossed two touchdown passes and defensive back Willie Brown's 50-yard interception return for a touchdown earned the Raiders a spot in the first AFC Championship game with the win.

Miami struck first, as quarterback Bob Griese found receiver Paul Warfield in the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. Oakland pulled even near the half, as Lamonica connected with receiver Fred Biletnikoff for a 22-yard score with 1:50 left on the clock.

Oakland drove to the Miami 2-yard line on the opening possession of the third quarter, but a fumble by running back Charlie Smith was recovered by safety Jake Scott. The Dolphins drove to their own 38-yard line but a Griese pass intended for Warfield was picked off by Brown and returned half the length of the field for a score.

BALTIMORE COLTS 27, RAIDERS 17

1970 AFC Championship

Jan. 3 at Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md.

The Silver and Black fell short of a Super Bowl berth for the third straight season, falling to Baltimore on a barren Memorial Stadium field in the first AFC Championship game, 27-17.

The matchup between Oakland, owners of the league's top offense, and the Colts, who were led by the legendary signal-caller Johnny Unitas, made for a most compelling championship battle that was dubbed the "Dual in the Dust" by NFL Films.

The Baltimore defense immediately posed problems for quarterback Daryle Lamonica, and the Raider offense stalled in the first quarter, failing to record a first down. Rookie kicker Jim O'Brien gave the Colts the lead midway through the opening frame, booting a 16-yard field goal. Oakland drove into Colts territory early in the second period but Lamonica was sacked by Bubba Smith, forcing the quarterback to leave the game due to injury. Grizzled veteran George Blanda was called into action once again, looking to spark the Raiders to victory as he had over a remarkable five-game stretch during the regular season. After a 2-yard touchdown plunge by rookie running back Norm Bulaich put the Colts up 10-0, the Raiders drove into Colts territory and Blanda put Oakland on the board with a 48-yard field goal.

Blanda quickly drew the Raiders even in the third quarter, piloting the half's opening drive and connecting with receiver Fred Biletnikoff for a 38-yard touchdown pass. The Colts answered immediately with a field goal and took a commanding lead at the end of the period on Bulaich's second rushing touchdown of the day, an expertly-blocked 11-yard scamper around left end.

The Raiders pulled to within three points on first drive of the fourth period. Blanda hit Warren Wells for a 15-yard touchdown, part of a five-catch, 108-yard day for the deep-threat receiver. Matching Blanda blow-for-blow was the immeasurable Unitas, who promptly tossed a 68-yard scoring strike to receiver Ray Perkins to bring the Colts' lead back to 10 points.

PITTSBURGH 13, RAIDERS 7

Dec. 23 at Three Rivers Stadium, Pittsburgh, Pa.

What many have referred to as the greatest and most controversial play of all-time, "The Immaculate Reception," decided an AFC Playoff tilt between the Raiders and Steelers, setting the stage for numerous postseason battles between the two elite teams during the 1970s.

Oakland, returning to the postseason after a one-year hiatus, nursed a 7-6 advantage in a physical contest, and the Steelers were facing a fourth-and-10 as time wound down in regulation. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw's pass, intended for running back Frenchy Fuqua, ricocheted back toward the line of scrimmage and was scooped up by running back Franco Harris, who rumbled 60 yards into the end zone. The pass was deemed by officials to have been deflected by a defender, Raider safety Jack Tatum, and ruled a reception and touchdown in what remains one of the most controversial plays in NFL history.

All of the scoring came in the second half, with defense dominating the first two quarters on both sides. Quarterback Daryle Lamonica was intercepted on Oakland's first drive and a fumble by running back Marv Hubbard put the Raider defense on short fields, but the unit held strong on both occasions and halftime came with no score for either team.

The Steelers, making the organization's first postseason appearance in a decade, struck first with a Roy Gerela field goal early in the third quarter. The Raider offense could not get on track against the "Steel Curtain" defense, and Lamonica was removed in favor of Ken Stabler after throwing a fourth-quarter interception.

Pittsburgh tacked on a 29-yard field goal by Gerela with less than four minutes left in regulation and Stabler assumed the controls from the Raider 20-yard line with 3:42 left on the clock. "The Snake" converted a fourth-down play and connected with four different receivers to move the ball to the Pittsburgh 30-yard line. From there Stabler, almost stopped in the backfield, circled left and darted untouched into the end zone to give the Silver and Black their first lead of the day.

On the Steelers' final possession, Bradshaw moved the offense to the 40-yard but stalled out there, setting up the controversial play that is still debated to this day.

1973 AFC Divisional

Dec. 22 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

Quarterback Ken Stabler's precision passing coupled with a versatile running game, which generated 232 yards on 55 carries, cut through Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense, while a smothering defense limited running back Franco Harris to just 29 yards on the ground and forced quarterback Terry Bradshaw to throw three interceptions.

The Raiders wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as the ground attack keyed a 16-play, 82-yard touchdown drive on Oakland's first possession. Hubbard broke off a 20-yard run to put the Silver and Black in scoring range, while Clarence Davis had four carries for 27 yards to set up Hubbard's 1-yard touchdown run over left tackle.

Blanda's first field goal gave the Raiders a 10-0 lead early in the second period, but 20-yard punt return set up the Steelers in Oakland territory later in the frame. Pittsburgh capitalized and cut the lead to three following Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring toss to Barry Pearson.

The Raiders continued to pound the ball on the ground in the third quarter, racking up yardage and dominating possession, but producing only a pair of field goals. The Pittsburgh offense took to the air in an attempt to make up for lost time, but the game was effectively put out of reach when a Bradshaw pass was picked off by cornerback Willie Brown and returned 54 yards for a touchdown.

Down 23-7, Pittsburgh again tried to move the ball through the air, but Bradshaw was picked off, this time by safety George Atkinson, setting up Blanda's fourth field goal of the day.

MIAMI 27, RAIDERS 10

1973 AFC Championship

Dec. 20 at Orange Bowl, Miami, Fla.

An effective running game, led by Larry Csonka's 117 yards and three touchdowns, lifted the Dolphins to a 27-10 victory over the Raiders in front of 75,105 fans at Miami's Orange Bowl. Csonka's effort paced a Dolphin offense that chewed up 266 yards on the ground, averaging over five yards per rushing attempt.

Miami set the tone early, taking the opening kickoff and embarking on a nine-play, 64-yard drive that included just one pass attempt. Quarterback Bob Griese's 27-yard scamper set up an 11-yard touchdown run by Csonka, giving the Dolphins an early lead.

The Oakland offense failed to get on track, punting twice and missing a field-goal attempt before Miami doubled its lead by virtue of a 2-yard Csonka score. The touchdown capped a drive that included 14 running plays and just two pass attempts, both of which fell incomplete. The Raiders got back into the contest in the third quarter, as kicker George Blanda booted a 21-yard field goal on the first possession of the second half. On the Silver and Black's next offensive series, quarterback Ken Stabler found receiver Mike Siani three times for 45 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown pass that cut the Dolphin lead to 14-10.

Miami returned to the ground game, running the ball on 11 straight plays to set up a Garo Yepremian field goal in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins defense then held firm on a fourth-and-1 play on the Raiders' next possession, stopping running back Marv Hubbard to turn the ball over on downs. Csonka struck again late in the final period, scoring on a 2-yard run with 1:49 remaining to close out the game and send the Dolphins to their third straight Super Bowl.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

Dec. 21 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

In the closing seconds of a tight contest, Clarence Davis hauled in a desperation toss from quarterback Ken Stabler amidst a "Sea of Hands," giving the Raiders a 28-26 victory over the Miami Dolphins in what NBC Sports play-by-play announcer Curt Gowdy called, "the greatest game I have ever seen."

The Dolphins wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as Nat Moore returned the opening kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown to stake the visitors to a 7-0 lead. The Raiders drew even in the second quarter, as Stabler tossed a perfect pass to Charlie Smith in single coverage down the middle for a 31-yard touchdown. Miami turned to the ground game on the ensuing possession, driving into Oakland territory and settling for a 33-yard field goal from Garo Yepremian to enter the half with a 10-7 lead.

Oakland briefly took the lead in the third quarter, with Stabler and Biletnikoff hooking up three times, the third of which was a marvelous one-handed grab just inside the pylon while draped in coverage. The Dolphins quickly retook the lead, as quarterback Bob Griese found a wide open Paul Warfield in the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown after defensive back Nemiah Wilson slipped in coverage.

A memorable fourth quarter began well for Miami, as Yepremian's second field goal increased the Dolphin lead to 19-14. On Oakland's next possession, Stabler's deep pass was caught by a diving Cliff Branch, who having not been touched by a defender, rose to his feet and scampered 72 yards for a touchdown. Running back Benny Malone then gave the Dolphins the advantage once again, breaking tackles and ducking under defenders for a 23-yard touchdown.

Behind the swashbuckling Stabler, the Raiders drove to the Miami 8-yard line with 35 seconds left on the clock. On first-and-goal, the Miami rush closed in on the quarterback and with defensive end Vern Den Herder at his legs, Stabler looped the ball toward the end zone, where Davis outfought a crowd of white jerseys to come down with the football, clutching it to his chest for the game-winning touchdown.

Dec. 29 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

A pair of Franco Harris touchdowns, 21 fourth-quarter points and a stingy Pittsburgh defense ended the Raiders' hopes for an AFC title in Oakland. Quarterback Ken Stabler completed 19 passes for 271 yards, but three interceptions contributed to a second straight championship defeat for the Silver and Black.

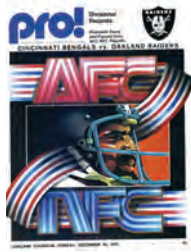

A fumbled punt on the game's first possession put Oakland within scoring range, and a 40-yard George Blanda field goal gave the Raiders the early advantage. A strong Pittsburgh ground game put kicker Roy Gerela in field-goal range late in the first quarter, but his 20-yard effort sailed wide left. A second-quarter field goal by Gerela, this time from 23-yards out, drew the game level and an interception in the end zone by Raider defensive back Nemiah Wilson in the end zone helped preserve the 3-3 tie at the half.

Using an efficient passing attack, the Raiders grabbed the lead midway through the third quarter. Stabler drove the offense to the Steelers' 38-yard line, and connected with receiver Cliff Branch on the left side for a touchdown strike. The Oakland lead was short-lived, however, as Pittsburgh used seven running plays and a 13-yard completion to drive to Oakland's 8-yard line, form where Harris took it up the middle for a score. On the ensuing drive, Stabler was intercepted by linebacker Jack Ham deep in Raider territory, setting up a 6-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Terry Bradshaw to receiver Lynn Swann.

Oakland cut the lead to 17-13 with a 24-yard field goal by Blanda, but Pittsburgh's J.T. Thomas picked off a Stabler pass to dash the Raiders' hopes late in the game. Harris capped the game with a 21-yard touchdown run shortly after the interception, lifting the Steelers to the organization's first Super Bowl appearance.

RAIDERS 31, CINCINNATI 28

1975 AFC Divisional
Dec. 28 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders out-paced a vaunted Cincinnati passing attack, building a significant lead before withstanding a furious Bengal rally to post a 31-28 victory in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in Oakland.

The Silver and Black offense got off to a fast start, driving into field-goal range on the first possession of the game, but the Raiders came up empty as George Blanda's 41-yard effort fell short. Blanda would make amends later in the period, booting a 27-yard field goal to give the Raiders a 3-0 advantage. The Bengals were forced to punt on their opening second-half possession, and a 20-yard return by Neal Colzie put the Raiders in scoring position at the Cincinnati 35-yard line. Four plays later, running back Pete Banaszak rumbled into the end zone from 6 yards out to increase the Raider lead. Cincinnati scored on the ensuing possession, as quarterback Ken Anderson orchestrated an 11-play, 91-yard drive that culminated in a Lenvil Elliott 6-yard touchdown run.

In a fourth quarter that saw the Coliseum air filled with footballs, the Raiders reestablished a significant lead with tight end Dave Casper's 2-yard touchdown catch from a Stabler, his third scoring pass of the game. Cincinnati worked to get back in the game and, following an interception, scored on a 25-yard pass from Anderson to receiver Charlie Joiner. Anderson led a touchdown drive again on the Bengals' next series, connecting with a receiver Isaac Curtis for a 14-yard score.

With the lead cut to three points, Cincinnati had one last chance to score the upset, but a tackle for loss by linebacker Ted Hendricks and three incomplete passes on the Bengals' final drive halted any chance of a come-from-behind triumph for the visitors.

PITTSBURGH 16, RAIDERS 10

1975 AFC Championship

Jan. 4 at Three Rivers Stadium, Pittsburgh, Pa.

On a frigid, ice-covered synthetic turf field at Three Rivers Stadium, the Raiders' vertical passing game was limited to the tune of a 16-10 defeat in what the NFL Network called one of the top "bad weather" games in league history. A defensive struggle turned into an offensive onslaught in the fourth quarter, with the Raiders falling just short against the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers.

With the temperature reaching just 16 degrees at kickoff, both teams struggled to find the end zone through the game's first three quarters. The Steelers got on the scoreboard first in the second period, turning the first of two interceptions by safety Mike Wagner into a 36-yard field goal by Roy Gerela.

Play on both sides got increasingly sloppy on the slippery turf, as the third quarter featured an interception, three turnovers on fumbles, two missed field-goal attempts and two punts, yet yielded zero points.

Pittsburgh broke through early in the fourth quarter, driving to the Oakland 25-yard line before running back Franco Harris bounced to the left after breaking a tackle and raced up the sideline for the game's first touchdown. Oakland answered back, as quarterback Ken Stabler connected with tight end Dave Casper on three consecutive passes for 46 yards, setting up a 14-yard scoring strike to receiver Mike Siani.

The Steelers increased their lead, capitalizing on a fumble recovery deep in Raider territory to score on 20-yard pass from quarterback Terry Bradshaw to receiver John Stallworth. Oakland got a 41-yard field goal from George Blanda late in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 16-10, and recovered the ensuing onside kick, but receiver Cliff Branch was tackled as time expired to dash Oakland's comeback hopes.

RAIDERS 24, NEW ENGLAND 21

Dec. 18 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

Two fourth-quarter touchdowns, including a Ken Stabler scramble with just 10 seconds left in regulation, helped the Raiders avoid a valiant upset bid by the Wild Card qualifier Patriots in Oakland. Stabler's 233 passing yards, and nine receptions for 137 yards from receiver Fred Biletnikoff, put the Raiders through to the team's fourth straight conference championship game with the win.

New England, the only team to defeat the Raiders during the regular season, scored first via a 1-yard touchdown run by running back Andy Johnson. Oakland got on the board with a 40-yard field goal by Errol Mann later in the opening period. A 31-yard touchdown pass from Stabler to Biletnikoff late in the second quarter gave the Silver and Black a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The third quarter was dominated by New England, as second-year quarterback Steve Grogan engineered two long scoring drives. Grogan connected with tight end Russ Francis for a 26-yard touchdown pass to cap off a 9-play, 80-yard drive, and running back Jess Phillips scored on a 3-yard run late in the period to give the Patriots a 21-10 advantage.

The Raiders, in danger of being upset at home after a 13-1 regular season, cut the lead to four points with running back Mark van Eeghen's 1-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Later, facing a third-and-18 from the New England 27-yard line, Stabler was hit as his pass intended for running back Carl Garrett fell incomplete. Patriot defensive lineman Ray "Sugar Bear" Hamilton was flagged for roughing the passer on the play, and the Raiders were given a fresh set of downs. Four plays later, Stabler scrambled left and dove between two defenders into the end zone for the game's winning touchdown.

1976 AFC Championship

Dec. 26 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

A solid rushing performance and a stout defensive effort lifted the Silver and Black to a convincing 24-7 victory over arch-rival Pittsburgh in Oakland. The victory snapped a streak of two straight AFC Championship game victories for the Steelers and punched the Raiders' ticket to Pasadena, Calif., for Super Bowl XI.

Oakland's ground attack, paced by running back Mark van Eeghen's 22 carries for 66 yards, accounted for 157 of the team's 228 total yards of offense. The Raider defense was equally impressive, limiting the Steelers to 72 rushing yards and holding receiver Lynn Swann to just three catches.

A 39-yard field goal by Errol Mann staked the Raiders to an early lead in the first quarter. In the second period, linebacker Willie Hall picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass and returned it 25 yards to the Pittsburgh 1-yard line, setting up a short touchdown run by running back Clarence Davis.

Pittsburgh scored their first points on the ensuing possession, as Bradshaw connected on a pair of deep passes to set up a 3-yard scoring run by running back Reggie Harrison. The Raiders pushed the lead to 10 points just before halftime, mixing a strong running game with mid-range passing to set up Stabler's 5-yard touchdown toss to Warren Bankston in the left side of the end zone.

The Raiders extended the lead on the team's second offensive possession of the third quarter, embarking on a 12-play, 63-yard touchdown drive that culminated in Stabler's 5-yard scoring pass to running back Pete Banaszak.

Oakland's defense clamped down for the remainder of regulation, and jubilant Raider fans poured onto the Coliseum field to celebrate as time expired.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

RAIDERS 37, BALTIMORE COLTS 31

Dec. 24 at Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md.

The defending Super Bowl champion Raiders, a Wild Card entrant after posting an 11-3 regular-season record, engaged in an epic double-overtime battle with Baltimore at Memorial Stadium, a game that is best remembered for a single pass play, the "Ghost to the Post." Tight end Dave Casper was on the receiving end of three touchdown passes from quarterback Ken Stabler on the day, but it was his late grab to set up the game-tying field goal that earned notoriety in a contest that lasted three hours and 50 minutes.

Running back Clarence Davis put the Raiders up in the first quarter, breaking loose over left guard and scoring on a 30-yard run. The Colts drew even in the second quarter when defensive back Bruce Laird intercepted a Stabler pass and raced 61 yards for a touchdown. A Baltimore field goal gave the Colts a 10-7 lead at halfime.

Stabler took to the air on the Raiders' first possession of the second half, connecting with receiver Cliff Branch for a 41-yard gain before hitting Casper in the end zone from 8 yards out. The Colts retook the lead on the ensuing kickoff, with Marshall Johnson returning Ray Guy's kick 87 yards for a score. The see-saw contest swung in the Raiders' favor later in the third period, as linebacker Ted Hendricks blocked a Baltimore punt to set up Casper's second touchdown catch, a 10-yard toss from Stabler.

Quarterback Bert Jones drove the Colts to Oakland's 1-yard line early in the fourth quarter and running back Ron Lee punched it in for the go-ahead score. Raider running back Pete Banaszak countered with a 1-yard plunge of his own, and the Silver and Black went up once again. A four-play, 73-yard drive capped by Lee's second touchdown run, a 13-yarder, gave the Colts the lead and set up one of the most famous plays in NFL history.

After the teams traded punts on the next four possessions, the Raiders found themselves facing a second-and-10 from their own 44-yard line with the clock winding down. Stabler dropped back to pass, pump faked, and passed to Casper who, running a post pattern, split two defenders and made an over-the-shoulder catch for 42 yards to the Baltimore 14-yard line. Three Banaszak runs brought the ball to the 5-yard line and kicker Errol Mann evened the score with a 22-yard field goal.

Both offenses labored through a scoreless overtime period, with the Raiders driving to Baltimore 13-yard line as the quarter closed. Two plays into the sixth period, Stabler, with his 40th pass attempt of the game, fittingly found Casper in the back of the end zone for the game-winning touchdown.

DENVER 20, RAIDERS 17

1977 AFC Championship

Jan. 1 at Mile High Stadium, Denver, Colo.

Denver's "Orange Crush" defense and a controversial ruling on what appeared to be a late-game fumble by Bronco running back Rob Lytle, conspired to deny the Silver and Black a second straight Super Bowl berth at Mile High Stadium. On a frigid, 18 degree day, quarterback Ken Stabler passed for 215 yards, including two touchdown tosses to Dave Casper, but Oakland fell short in the team's fifth consecutive conference championship game appearance.

Kicker Errol Mann scored the first points of the game, booting a 20-yard field goal to cap the Raiders' first drive. The Broncos responded immediately, with quarterback Craig Morton connecting with receiver Haven Moses for a 74-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown. After a scoreless second quarter, the stage was set for a compelling second half between the two AFC West rivals.

Raider running back Clarence Davis fumbled deep in Oakland territory early in the third quarter, and the Broncos took over and drove to the 2-yard line. Lytle got the carry and was blasted by Raider safety Jack Tatum, causing what appeared to be a fumble that was recovered by Oakland lineman Mike McCoy. An official had blown the whistle, however, and after a conference, ruled Lytle down and assessed the Raiders with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty, setting up a first-and-goal from the 1-yard line. On the very next play, Morton pitched to running back Jon Keyworth on the right, who scampered in for the touchdown.

Oakland cut the deficit to 14-10 early in the fourth quarter, as Stabler hit Casper just inside the end zone for a 7-yard touchdown. The Morton-to-Moses connection gave the Broncos a two-score lead following a Stabler interception, with Moses' second touchdown catch covering 12 of his 168 receiving yards on the day.

The Raiders scored on the ensuing possession, Stabler's 17-yard touchdown toss to Casper capping an eight-play, 74-yard drive, but Denver took over with three minutes remaining and was able to run out the clock to seal the AFC title.

RAIDERS 27, HOUSTON OILERS 7

1980 AFC Wild Card
Dec. 28 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

A potent offense and a swarming defense stymied the Houston Oilers and propelled the Raiders to an emphatic 27-7 victory in an AFC Wild Card contest in Oakland. Quarterback Jim Plunkett guided a balanced attack on offense, while cornerback Lester Hayes picked off two passes by former Raider Ken Stabler, returning one for a touchdown.

Houston stumbled out of the gate, as running back Earl Campbell's fumble on the first play from scrimmage was recovered by Raiders safety Mike Davis. Oakland capitalized on the turnover with a 47-yard field goal by kicker Chris Bahr. The Oilers took the lead late in the first period, capping a nine-play, 55-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run by Campbell. Plunkett connected with running back Kenny King for a 37-yard gain in the second quarter, setting up a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Todd Christensen.

A scoreless third quarter gave way to a fourth period that would see the Silver and Black dominate on both sides of the ball. Plunkett hooked up with receiver Cliff Branch for a 33-yard completion at the end of the third quarter, setting up a 44-yard touchdown strike from Plunkett to a streaking Arthur Whittington along the right sideline on the first play of the fourth period.

The Raider defense forced punts on the next two Houston possessions, and Bahr added his second field goal of the day, a 37-yarder, to give the Raiders a 13-point lead. Desperate to get back into the contest, Houston took to the air on the ensuing possession. On a third-and-20 play, Stabler's pass was picked off by Hayes, his second of the game, and returned 20 yards for a touchdown to give the Raiders an insurmountable lead.

RAIDERS 14, CLEVELAND 12

1980 AFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 4 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

Two rushing touchdowns from running back Mark van Eeghen and safety Mike Davis' game-saving interception on a designed pass play called "Red Right 88," propelled the Raiders to a 14-12 victory over the Browns on a bitter-cold afternoon at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

With the temperature at one degree Fahrenheit at kickoff, both offenses struggled to get started on the frozen turf. With whipping winds limiting the passing game, the first quarter came and went with no score and only two Cleveland first downs.

The Browns' defense would provide the first score of the game in the second quarter, with defensive back Ron Bolton intercepting a Jim Plunkett pass and returning it 42 yards for a touchdown. The Raiders answered back before halftime, embarking on a 14-play, 64-yard drive that culminated in a 1-yard touchdown run by van Eeghen to give Oakland a 7-6 lead at the break.

Cleveland promptly retook the lead in the third quarter, driving 48 yards and getting a 30-yard field goal from kicker Don Cockroft. The Browns added another field goal later in the period, making the score 12-7 entering the fourth quarter.

The Raiders opened up the fourth quarter on a steady drive, Plunkett mixing runs and passes all the way down to the Browns' 3-yard line. Oakland gave the ball to van Eeghen on three straight plays, including a 1-yard dive to give the Raiders a slim two-point lead.

RAIDERS 34, SAN DIEGO 27

Jan. 11 at Jack Murphy Stadium, San Diego, Calif.

The Raiders got off to a fast start behind a masterful performance by quarterback Jim Plunkett, and used a ball control offense to upend the Chargers for the AFC title on a slick Jack Murphy Stadium field. Facing a vaunted San Diego passing attack, it was Oakland, led by Plunkett's 14-for-18 passing for 261 yards, which jumped out to a 28-14 halftime lead and held on down the stretch to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time in franchise history. Oakland wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as a Plunkett pass glanced off of the hands of intended receiver Kenny King directly to tight end Raymond Chester, who galloped 65 yards into the end zone for the score. The Chargers used their aerial attack to even the score, with quarterback Dan Fouts connecting on a 48-yard touchdown toss to receiver Charlie Joiner.

The Raiders retook the lead on the ensuing possession, as a 48-yard completion to receiver Cliff Branch and a pass interference call set up a 5-yard scoring scamper by Plunkett. Oakland scored again on its next possession, Plunkett finding King with a perfect pass in the end zone for 21 yards, to close out a wild first quarter.

A second-quarter fumble recovery by linebacker Ted Hendricks led to another Raider score, as running back Mark van Eeghen got into the end zone on a 3-yard run. The Chargers cut the deficit to two scores on the ensuing possession by virtue of an 8-yard pass from Fouts to Joiner, marking the receiver's second touchdown of the day.

After a break-neck scoring pace in the first half, San Diego chipped away at the Oakland lead with a 26-yard Rolf Benirschke field goal to begin the third quarter. The Chargers cut further into the advantage on their next possession, as running back Chuck Muncie capped of a drive by diving into the end zone following a 6-yard sweep around left tackle.

Starting the fourth quarter on offense, the Raiders controlled the ball for over five minutes on a drive that culminated in kicker Chris Bahr's 33-yard field goal. The Chargers followed with a field-goal drive, but over eight minutes had elapsed and the Raiders took over with less than seven minutes left on the clock. Plunkett expertly engineered four first downs on a 15-play drive that included 14 running plays to close out regulation, ending the game with San Diego's potent offense on the bench.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

RAIDERS 27, CLEVELAND 10

1982 AFC Wild Card (first-round playoff)
Jan. 8 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, Calif.

The Raiders, entering the playoffs as the AFC's top seed in a strike-shortened season after posting an 8-1 record, used an efficient passing offense and a smothering defense to dispatch Cleveland at the L.A. Coliseum, 27-10. Quarterback Jim Plunkett completed 24-of-37 pass attempts for 345 yards and rookie running back Marcus Allen found the end zone twice in the Raiders' first playoff game in Los Angeles.

Kicker Chris Bahr opened the scoring with a 27-yard field goal following a 64-yard toss from Plunkett to receiver Cliff Branch, but two Plunkett interceptions halted any further potential damage by the Raiders in the first quarter. Cleveland tied the game with a 52-yard field goal by Chris Bahr's brother, Matt, but the Silver and Black quickly retook the lead on the ensuing possession, driving 88 yards on just eight plays to set up a pitch to Allen for a 2-yard touchdown.

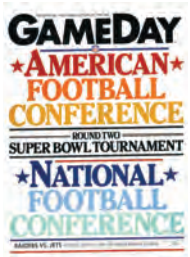

Cleveland briefly tied the game once again, with quarterback Paul McDonald finding receiver Ricky Feacher for a 43-yard touchdown connection. The Raiders' added a field goal at the end of the second quarter, as Chris Bahr was true from 37 yards out, to give the Silver and Black a 13-10 halftime lead.

The Browns drove to the Raiders' 11-yard line on the second half's opening possession, but a fumble by running back Charles White halted their momentum, and the Raiders' capitalized with an 89-yard drive that culminated in Allen's second touchdown of the day, a 3-yard run.

A 1-yard touchdown dive in the fourth quarter by running back Frank Hawkins essentially sealed the victory, and the Raider defense took over, not letting the Cleveland offense advance any further than the Los Angeles 47-yard line for the remainder of the contest.

NEW YORK JETS 17, RAIDERS 14

1982 AFC Divisional Playoff (second-round playoff)
Jan. 15 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum,
Los Angeles, Calif.

The visiting Jets stifled the Raiders' offense and a late touchdown negated 14 third-quarter points from the Silver and Black in an upset at the L.A. Coliseum. Quarterback Jim Plunkett passed for 266 yards and one touchdown, but was intercepted three times as the Raiders dropped a narrow decision.

The Raiders were in position to score first, but a 34-yard attempt by kicker Chris Bahr hit the right upright. The Jets capitalized immediately, with quarterback Richard Todd orchestrating an 80-yard touchdown drive that culminated in a 20-yard scoring pass to receiver Wesley Walker. Los Angeles drove into Jets territory on the ensuing possession, but a Plunkett pass was picked off by cornerback Bobby Jackson at the 12-yard line. The Jets added a 30-yard field goal by kicker Pat Leahy later in the second quarter and entered the halftime break with a 10-0 advantage.

Plunkett got the Raiders on the board immediately in the third quarter, engineering a 12-play, 77-yard scoring drive that was capped by running back Marcus Allen's 3-yard touchdown run. Regaining possession following a partially-blocked punt later, Plunkett promptly connected with receiver Malcolm Barnwell for a 57-yard touchdown strike, giving the Raiders their first lead of the game.

The teams traded turnovers early in the fourth quarter, but a 45-yard completion from Todd to Walker put the Jets in scoring position with just under four minutes remaining in the game. From 1-yard out, running back Scott Dierking dove over the top for the go-ahead touchdown with just 3:45 left on the clock.

The Raiders would have two more opportunities on offense, but on both drives Plunkett was intercepted by linebacker Lance Mehl, ending the Silver and Black's first season in Los Angeles.

RAIDERS 38, PITTSBURGH 10

1983 AFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 1 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, Calif.

Running back Marcus Allen rushed for 121 yards with two touchdowns, and 21 third-quarter points led the Raiders to a dominating 38-10 victory over Pittsburgh in a renewal of one of the NFL's fiercest rivalries at the L.A. Coliseum. Quarterback Jim Plunkett guided an efficient offense and an intimidating defense harried quarterback Cliff Stoudt all afternoon, sacking the Pittsburgh signal-caller five times and intercepting him once.

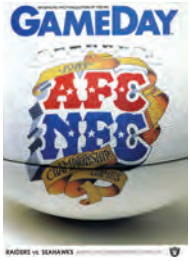

The Steelers got on the board first with a 17-yard field goal by Gary Anderson. On Pittsburgh's next possession, cornerback Lester Hayes picked off a pass from Stoudt and returned it 18 yards for a touchdown. The Raiders added to their lead in the second quarter, with Allen capping off an 80-yard drive with a 4-yard run over right guard for a touchdown, his first of the day. The Los Angeles defense held firm, allowing Pittsburgh to cross midfield just once on their next three possessions, and a 45-yard field goal by Chris Bahr at the end of the half made the score 17-3.

The third quarter belonged solely to the Silver and Black, as a precision passing game and big-play capability on offense dimmed Pittsburgh's hopes. On the half's opening possession, Plunkett promptly guided a scoring drive by moving the Raiders 72 yards on nine plays, culminating in a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Kenny King.

Allen gave Los Angeles a commanding lead on the team's next series, taking a handoff from Plunkett and breaking free up the middle for a dazzling 48-yard touchdown run. Pittsburgh cut into the lead with a long 58-yard touchdown pass from Stoudt to receiver John Stallworth, but running back Frank Hawkins' bull-dozing 2-yard score at the end of the third quarter essentially wrapped up the victory for the Silver and Black.

RAIDERS 30, SEATTLE 14

1983 AFC Championship

Jan. 8 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

The Raiders were not to be denied in the organization's fifth AFC Championship game appearance in nine years, getting out to a fast start and cruising to a 30-14 triumph at the L.A. Coliseum in front of 92,335 fans, a championship game record. A stifling defense held Seattle scoreless deep into the third quarter, and the combination of quarterback Jim Plunkett and running back Marcus Allen proved too much for a Seahawk team that had defeated the Raiders twice during the regular season.

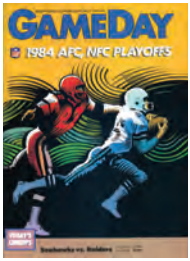

Seattle's game-opening drive was halted by a Lester Hayes interception, the first of five picks on the day for the Raiders, and led to a 20-yard field goal by kicker Chris Bahr. In the second quarter, running back Frank Hawkins got in to the end zone on a 1-yard plunge, capping a 61-yard drive. On the team's next offensive series, Plunkett connected with receiver Malcolm Barnwell for 49 yards, setting up Hawkins' second touchdown of the quarter on a 5-yard run around left end. Safety Mike Davis' first of two interceptions came on the ensuing possession, setting up a 45-yard field goal from Bahr and a commanding 20-0 lead at the half.

The Seahawks switched quarterbacks early in the third quarter, going with veteran Jim Zorn, but the results were much the same, as Davis picked off a pass on Zorn's first series under center. Allen broke off a long run on the very next play, picking up 43 of his 154 yards on the day, and setting up his own 3-yard touchdown reception from Plunkett. Seattle finally got on the board with Zorn's 11-yard touchdown pass to running back Dan Doornink, but the final result was not in doubt.

A fourth-quarter field goal by Bahr and a late Seahawk touchdown rounded out the scoring, and the Raiders advanced the Super Bowl for the fourth time in franchise history.

SEATTLE 13, RAIDERS 7

1984 AFC Wild Card

Dec. 22 at Kingdome, Seattle, Wash.

A grinding Seattle running game and just four completions by Seahawk quarterback Dave Krieg, including one for a touchdown, was enough to edge the Silver and Black in an AFC Wild Card contest in Seattle. Running back Marcus Allen rushed for 61 yards and caught five passes for 90 yards, while Seattle running back Dan Doornink carried the ball 27 times for 123 yards in front of 64,910 fans at the Kingdome.

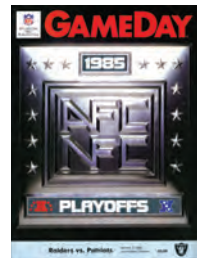

Seattle scored first, capping a nine-play, 93-yard drive with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Krieg to receiver Daryl Turner. The teams traded punts frequently until a fumble by Raiders running back Frank Hawkins led to a short field for Seattle late in the third quarter. A 35-yard field goal by kicker Norm Johnson extended the Seahawks' lead, and the first of two interceptions thrown on the day by Plunkett preserved the 10-0 score at the end of three periods.

Johnson added a 44-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, but the Raiders looked to get Allen going on a drive beginning on their own 22-yard line. Plunkett connected with Allen for two completions for 29 yards before hitting him again over the middle for a 46-yard touchdown catch-and-run.

Looking to hold on to their slim lead, the Seahawks took nearly four minutes off the clock before being forced to punt. Taking over at the 16-yard line with under a minute to go, Plunkett completed two quick passes but his third was intercepted by safety Kenny Easley, sealing Seattle's victory.

NEW ENGLAND 27, RAIDERS 20

1985 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 5 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

Six Raider turnovers led to 20 New England points and Craig James became the first running back to rush for over 100 yards against Los Angeles all season, as the visiting Patriots upended the Silver and Black at the L.A. Coliseum, 27-20. Running back Marcus Allen rushed for 121 yards and one touchdown, but the top-seeded Silver and Black failed to score in the second half in the upset defeat.

A muffed return on a first-quarter punt set up the game's opening score, a 13-yard pass from quarterback Tony Eason to tight end Lin Dawson. Greg Townsend blocked a punt later in the opening period, but the Raider offense stalled and had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by Chris Bahr.

Los Angeles took the lead in the second quarter, as quarterback Marc Wilson found receiver Jessie Hester in the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown. Defensive lineman Howie Long pounced on a fumble on the Patriots' next possession, and the Raiders capitalized with an 11-yard touchdown run by Allen. On the ensuing series, New England covered 80 yards on a 10-play scoring drive, with James capping the sequence with a 2-yard touchdown around left end. After trading field goals, the teams entered halftime with the Raiders clinging to a narrow 20-17 advantage.

Turnovers continued to plague the Raiders in the third quarter, as an Allen fumble in New England territory led to a game-tying, 32-yard field goal by kicker Tony Franklin. On the ensuing kickoff, returner Sam Seale muffed the kick and then fumbled before Jim Bowman fell on the ball in the end zone for a New England touchdown.

The special-teams touchdown would provide the difference in the game, as the Patriots limited the Raiders to just two fourth-quarter possessions, picking off Wilson for the third time to close out the upset.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

RAIDERS 20, CINCINNATI 10

1990 AFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 13 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

Returning to the playoffs after a five-year hiatus, the Raiders used 10 fourth-quarter points to defeat Cincinnati, 20-10, in a game that is perhaps most remembered as running back Bo Jackson's last career appearance on a football field. Quarterback Jay Schroeder passed for 172 yards and two touchdowns on just 11 completions, and running back Marcus Allen gained 140 yards on the ground to lead the Silver and Black.

Art Shell's team drove to the Cincinnati 24-yard line early in the first quarter, but an incompletion on a fourth-and-1 play turned the ball over on downs. A second-quarter field goal gave the Bengals an early lead, but the Raiders' running game got going on the ensuing possession, as Jackson and Allen combined for 56 yards on five rushing attempts before Shroeder found receiver Mervyn Fernandez in the end zone for a 13-yard strike.

Early in the third quarter, Jackson took a pitch from Schroeder and dashed around right end for 34 yards before being dragged down from behind. It would mark the final play of a short but bright career for the dynamic running back, as Jackson suffered a career-ending hip injury on the play.

Kicker Jeff Jaeger booted a 49-yard field goal to cap a third-quarter drive, but the Bengals pulled even when quarterback Boomer Esiason hooked up with Stanford Jennings for an 8-yard touchdown early in the fourth period. On the ensuing possession, Schroeder orchestrated an 80-yard touchdown drive that was highlighted by a 41-yard scoring pass to tight end Ethan Horton, who made a finger-tip grab on the play.

BUFFALO 51, RAIDERS 3

1990 AFC Championship
Jan. 20 at Rich Stadium, Orchard Park, N.Y.

Buffalo's potent offense jumped out to 41 first-half points en route to a 51-3 defeat of the Raiders at Rich Stadium. Quarterback Jay Schroeder, directing an offense devoid of star running back Bo Jackson, threw five interceptions, and the Los Angeles defense could not keep pace with a Bills offense that got 300 passing yards from quarterback Jim Kelly and three rushing touchdowns from running back Kenneth Davis.

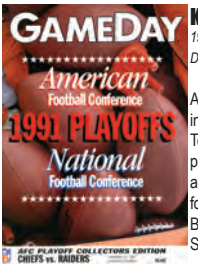

The Bills got off to a fast start, as Kelly connected with former Raider James Lofton for a 13-yard touchdown on the team's first drive. The Raiders answered immediately, getting a 41-yard field goal from kicker Jeff Jaeger on the ensuing possession. A relentless Buffalo offense scored again on 12-yard touchdown run by Thurman Thomas, and added seven points on an interception return for a touchdown by linebacker Daryl Talley to make the score 21-3.

With the Raider offense stuck in neutral, the Bills added 20 points in the second quarter via two short-yardage runs by Davis and Lofton's second touchdown catch of the game.

Any spark the Raiders looked to ignite after halftime flamed out in the form of two interceptions in Buffalo territory. Davis' third score of the game on a 1-yard dive and fourth-quarter field goal from kicker Scott Norwood closed out Buffalo's first conference title.

KANSAS CITY 10, RAIDERS 6

1991 AFC Wild Card
Dec. 28 at Arrowhead Stadium, Kansas City, Mo.

The Raiders fell to the Chiefs, 10-6, in an AFC Wild Card game highlighted by dominating defense on both sides. Rookie quarterback Todd Marinovich, who threw three touchdown passes in his NFL debut the previous week against the same Kansas City squad, threw four interceptions, and Chiefs running back Barry Word rushed for 130 yards at Arrowhead Stadium.

Both offenses struggled to put points on the board in the first half, as the two teams combined for three interceptions, two fumbles, two missed field goals and one punt on the game's first eight possessions. Safety Deron Cherry's second interception of the game midway through the second quarter put Kansas City in scoring position, and quarterback Steve DeBerg capitalized with an 11-yard touchdown strike to receiver Fred Jones. Marinovich engineered a score near the end of the second quarter, getting three points on a 32-yard field Jeff Jaeger field goal following a 10-play, 65-yard drive.

The Raiders drew closer at the start of the second half, driving to the Kansas City 8-yard line before settling for a 26-yard chip shot by Jaeger. The Silver and Black's offense could not remain on track, however, and the Raiders' final three possessions ended in turnovers. The Chiefs added a Nick Lowey field goal in the fourth quarter, handing Los Angeles the narrow defeat.

RAIDERS 42, DENVER 24

1993 AFC Wild Card
Jan. 9 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

A quick-strike offense and three second-half touchdowns by running back Napoleon McCallum propelled the Raiders to a 42-24 shootout victory over Denver at the L.A. Coliseum. Quarterback Jeff Hostetler passed for 294 yards and three first-half scores against a Bronco team that the Silver and Black had defeated in overtime the previous week, forcing Denver to return to Los Angeles for the Wild Card contest.

Los Angeles and Denver exchanged scores on a "blow-for-blow" basis in the first half. The Raiders opened the scoring with Hostetler's 9-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ethan Horton, only to be matched by quarterback John Elway's 23-yard strike to tight end Shannon Sharpe. Hostetler connected on the first long score of the game, hitting receiver Tim Brown for a 65-yard touchdown later in the first quarter. Elway followed suit with a 16-yard touchdown in the second period to tight end Reggie Johnson, but Los Angeles went up again via a 54-yard pass from Hostetler to receiver James Jett. Denver pulled even on Elway's 6-yard toss to receiver Derek Russell, and the game went into the half tied, 21-21.

After posting a pair of three-and-outs on defense, the Raiders took to the ground on offense in the third quarter. McCallum, who had just one carry in the first half, broke loose for a 26-yard touchdown to give the Silver and Black the lead for good. McCallum powered through the middle for a 2-yard score to cap a 52-yard drive later in the period, and the Los Angeles defense did not yield a Bronco first down on four third-quarter possessions to maintain a commanding lead.

BUFFALO 29, RAIDERS 23

1993 AFC Divisional Playoffs
Jan. 15 at Rich Stadium, Orchard Park, N.Y.

The Raiders were edged by the Bills, 29-23, on a frigid artificial turf at Rich Stadium in a competitive AFC Divisional playoff game. With temperatures at game time dipping to zero, the Silver and Black built a 17-13 lead at halftime, but succumbed to Buffalo behind a pair of second-half touchdown passes from quarterback Jim Kelly to receiver Bill Brooks.

The Bills provided the game's initial threat in the first quarter, driving to the Raider 30-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. The Silver and Black responded immediately, embarking on a 58-yard drive that culminated in kicker Jeff Jaeger's 30-yard field goal in the second quarter.

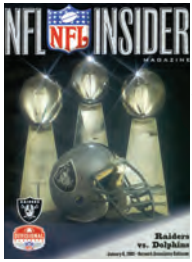

Running back Kenneth Davis put the Bills ahead with a leaping 1-yard touchdown dive on the ensuing possession, but Raiders running back Napoleon McCallum matched the score with a 1-yard scoring run of his own. Los Angeles extended its lead following a fumble recovery, as McCallum capped an 11-play, 40-yard drive with his second 1-yard touchdown run of the day. The Bills got back into the game on the heels of a 37-yard pass interference call, with running back Thurman Thomas punching it into the end zone from 8 yards out.

Buffalo grabbed the lead in the third quarter, getting a touchdown on Kelly's 25-yard pass to Brooks and adding a field goal to move ahead, 19-17. The Bills lead was short-lived, however, as quarterback Jeff Hostetler connected with receiver Tim Brown from the Raiders 24-yard line, and Brown streaked up the middle and eluded a tackler to score.

Kelly guided another scoring drive to put the Bills up for good, connecting with Brooks from 22 yards out to provide the difference. The Raiders' two remaining possessions resulted in three-and-outs, and the Bills ran out the clock to end the Silver and Black's season.

RAIDERS 27, MIAMI 0

2000 AFC Divisional Playoffs
Jan. 6 at Network Associates Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders made a triumphant return to the postseason, dismantling the visiting Miami Dolphins and posting a 27-0 victory, the first postseason shutout in franchise history. Quarterback Rich Gannon's efficient passing and cornerback Tory James' two interceptions, including a 90-yard return for a touchdown, spelled doom for the Dolphins at Network Associates Coliseum.

Miami quarterback Jay Fiedler drove the Dolphins to the Raiders' 16-yard line on the team's first possession, but James jumped receiver Leslie Shepherd's route for a pick and raced 90 yards down the sideline for a tone-setting touchdown. Kicker Sebastian Janikowski added a 36-yard field goal in the opening period and the end result was never in doubt.

Another Janikowski field goal, this one from 33 yards out, boosted the Oakland lead in the second quarter, and when Gannon connected with receiver James Jett on a 6-yard touchdown pass, the rout was truly on.

The Raider defense halted any hope of a Miami comeback, holding running back Lamar Smith, who had rushed for 209 yards the previous week against Indianapolis, to just four yards on eight carries. A 2-yard touchdown run by running back Tyrone Wheatley in the third quarter put the game out of reach, and two fourth-quarter interceptions, including a second of the day by James, closed out the convincing victory.

2000 AFC Championship

Jan. 14 at Network Associates Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

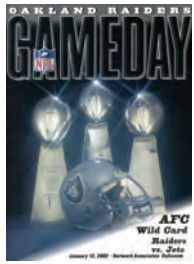

The Baltimore Ravens spoiled the first conference championship game played in Oakland since 1976, using a stifling defense to upend the host Raiders, 16-3. Quarterback Rich Gannon was injured on a second-quarter play, and the Raiders fell short in their bid for a return to the Super Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Ravens got on the board first when quarterback Trent Dilfer hit Shannon Sharpe over the middle and the tight end split two defenders, rumbling 96 yards for a touchdown. Shortly following the Ravens' score, Gannon was forced to leave the game due to a shoulder injury and his replacement, Bobby Hoying, threw an interception that Baltimore capitalized upon with a 31-yard field goal.

With Gannon back under center, the Raiders mounted a scoring drive early in the third quarter. Kicker Sebastian Janikowski booted a 24-yard field goal after the Oakland drive stalled out at Baltimore's 6-yard line. The Ravens added short Stover field goals, one each in the third and fourth quarters, and the Raiders were kept out of the end zone for the first time all season in the defeat.

RAIDERS 38, NEW YORK JETS 24

2001 AFC Wild Card

Jan. 12 at Network Associates Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

An explosive offense led by quarterback Rich Gannon, receiver Jerry Rice and running back Charlie Garner overwhelmed the visiting New York Jets in an AFC Wild Card contest, 38-24. Rice's nine catches for 183 yards and Garner's 158 rushing yards proved too much for the Jets, who had defeated the Raiders at Network Associates Coliseum the previous week to earn a playoff berth.

The Raiders got off to a fast start in the first quarter, with Gannon leading two long drives that resulted in Sebastian Janikowski field goals. After the two teams traded field goals in the second quarter, the Silver and Black got into the end zone on a 2-yard pass from Gannon to receiver Tim Brown to give the Raiders a 16-3 halftime lead.

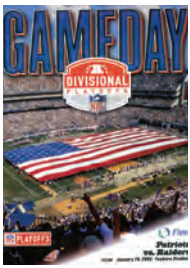

The Jets pulled closer on the second half's opening drive, as QB Vinny Testaverde found receiver Wayne Chrebet wide open for a 17-yard touchdown. The Raiders recovered a fumble near the end of the third period, setting up a wild fourth period in which the teams would combine to score 36 points.

Fullback Zack Crockett got the final quarter started with a 2-yard plunge for a score, and a two-point conversion gave the Raiders a 24-10 advantage. A 3-yard toss from Testaverde to fullback Richie Anderson cut the Oakland lead to seven points, but Gannon promptly led a 68-yard scoring drive on the ensuing possession, connecting with Rice for a 21-yard touchdown toss.

The Jets stormed back, as Chrebet hauled in his second touchdown pass of the game from 4 yards out. On the Raiders' next possession, Garner took a handoff and broke free around right end for 80 yards to set a franchise postseason record and put the game out of reach.

NEW ENGLAND 16, RAIDERS 13

2001 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 19 at Foxboro Stadium, Foxboro, Mass.

A New England snow storm created a majestic setting at Foxboro Stadium, as the Patriots edged the Raiders in the "Tuck Game," one of the most controversial contests in NFL history.

With less than two minutes remaining in regulation and the Raiders clinging to a three-point lead, cornerback Charles Woodson sacked Patriots quarterback Tom Brady, causing what appeared to be a fumble that was recovered by Raider linebacker Greg Biekert to seal a Raider win. Citing Rule 3, Section 22, Article 2, Note 2 in the NFL rule book, the officials ruled the play an incomplete pass, leading to the game-tying field goal by kicker Adam Vinatieri.

The Raiders built an early lead in the contest, as quarterback Rich Gannon connected with receiver James Jett in the corner of the end zone for a 13-yard score in the second quarter. Vinatieri got the Patriots on the board with a 23-yard field goal, but two Sebastian Janikowkski field goals, from 38- and 45 yards out gave the Raiders a 13-3 advantage entering the final period.

Brady was efficient in an early fourth-quarter drive, completing nine consecutive pass attempts before scampering into the end zone for a 6-yard touchdown to cut the Raider lead to three points. Brady then led a late-game drive that culminated in Vinatieri's 45-yard, game-tying field goal that came on the heels of the "tuck" play. In overtime, Brady promptly piloted a 61-yard drive that led to Vinatieri's game-winner from 23 yards out.

RAIDERS 30, NEW YORK JETS 10

2002 AFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 12 at Network Associates Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

An opportunistic offense scored 17 points off of three Jets turnovers, and quarterback Rich Gannon passed for 283 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Raiders to a convincing 30-10 victory over the New York Jets at Network Associates Coliseum.

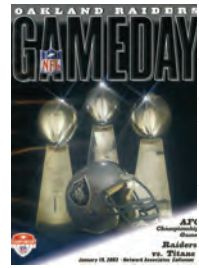

After trading first-quarter field goals, the Raiders capitalized on a fumble recovery in Jets territory by way of a 1-yard dive by fullback Zack Crockett. The Jets drew even late in the second quarter, as quarterback Chad Pennington capped a long drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to fullback Jerald Sowell to tie the game at the half.

The second half was all Silver and Black, with Gannon connecting with receiver Jerry Porter for a 29-yard touchdown in the third quarter to give the Raiders the lead for good. Gannon and Porter hooked up again later in the third period for a 50 of Porter's 123 receiving yards on the day, setting up a 9-yard touchdown pass to receiver Jerry Rice early in fourth quarter.

RAIDERS 41, TENNESSEE 24

2002 AFC Championship
Jan. 19 at Network Associates Coliseum, Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders got out to a fast start and out-lasted Tennessee in the second half to secure the Silver and Black's first Super Bowl berth since the 1983 season. A relentless passing attack, led by quarterback Rich Gannon's 286 yards and three touchdowns through the air, proved too much for the visiting Titans.

Oakland wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as Gannon took the offense 69 yards on the opening possession and connected with receiver Jerry Porter for a 3-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring. The Titans answered immediately, with quarterback Steve McNair hitting receiver Drew Bennett for a 33-yard touchdown on the ensuing drive. The Raiders went up again on their next possession, Gannon moving the offense swiftly downfield to set up a 12-yard touchdown pass to running back Charlie Garner.

Tennessee cut into the Raider lead with a field goal in the second quarter, and the Titans briefly took the lead by virtue of a 9-yard touchdown run by McNair. The Raiders took the lead back near the end of the first half, capitalizing on a fumble recovery deep in Tennessee territory with a 1-yard scoring pass from Gannon to tight end Doug Jolley. A fumble recovery on the ensuing kickoff gave the Raiders the ball in scoring range once again, and kicker Sebastian Janikowski was true from 43 yards out.

A second Janikowski field goal was matched by McNair's second touchdown run of the game, a 13-yard scamper to make the score 27-24 in Oakland's favor entering the fourth quarter. Gannon began the final period by capping off a 66-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run of his own, and closed out the victory by leading the Silver and Black on a time-consuming drive that resulted in fullback Zack Crockett's 7-yard touchdown run. McNair and the Titans moved the ball down to the Oakland 6-yard line, but turned the ball over on downs, and Gannon took a knee as the Coliseum erupted in celebration.

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

The Oakland Raiders and Entercom's 95.7 The GAME (KGMZ-FM), The Bay Area's New Sound For Sports, announced a multi-year agreement for 95.7 The GAME to become the radio flagship station in the Bay Area. 95.7 The Game will broadcast coverage of the Silver and Black's preseason, regular season and postseason games.

Oakland Raiders programming on 95.7 The GAME will include aggressive pre-game and postgame shows complete with key interviews, locker room reaction and listener phone calls. Rounding out Raiders coverage on 95.7 The GAME will be weekly call-in shows with Head Coach Dennis Allen and other key Raiders players and personnel. Every Monday during the NFL season will be re-branded on the station as "Raiders Mondays." 95.7 The GAME is also the broadcast home of Oakland Athletics baseball. In the event of a programming conflict with A's baseball, Oakland Raiders football will be heard on sister station KFOX 102.1/98.5. KFOX is the Bay Area's first full-metro mainstream Classic Rock station, and the strongest FM radio signal in the nine-county Bay Area.

Greg Papa, the voice of the Oakland Raiders, will once again team with former Raiders quarterback, head coach and assistant coach Tom Flores. Flores is one of only two people in NFL history to earn a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He won world championships a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs (Super Bowl IV), as a Raiders assistant coach (Super Bowl XI) and as head coach of the Silver and Black (Super Bowls XV and XVIII).

Papa, named 2013 California Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA), returns for his 17th season broadcasting the Silver and Black. Papa can also be heard weekdays from 12-3 p.m. on 95.7 The GAME, as part of The Wheelhouse, with co-host John Lund. Papa also hosts MLB's San Francisco Giants Postgame Live on Comcast SportsNet Bay Area, and has previously served as the radio and television voice of the Oakland A's, San Francisco Giants and Golden State Warriors.

This exclusive agreement was negotiated by Compass Media Networks, owner and syndicator of the broadcast rights for all Oakland Raiders English language broadcasts. Compass Media Networks is once again responsible for all aspects of the broadcasts of all Oakland Raiders preseason, regular season and postseason games on terrestrial radio.

RAIDERS SPANISH RADIO

Arias

Rico

The Raiders are pleased to welcome back live game action in Spanish on Univision Radio's, Latino Mix 105.7 & 100.7. The Spanish Contemporary music station appeals to a new Hispanic generation. Playing the hits of today, in both Spanish and English, Latino Mix crosses a variety of Spanish music genres including Spanish/English Pop, Spanish Rock, Reggaeton, Bachata and top-40 hits. The on-air delivery is bilingual and is known for its upbeat and high energy sound.

Veteran broadcaster Ambrosio Rico returns for his ninth season and fifth stint of broadcasting Raiders football in Spanish. He previously served as radio broadcaster in Spanish for Raiders games from 2001-05. The Mexico City native played football for 10 seasons as a defensive end in both high school and at the University of Mexico, where he graduated with a degree in Sports Medicine. He also served as an assistant coach at the high school level in Mexico City for two seasons and as a high school athletic trainer for one season. Rico also served as an athletic trainer for a semi-professional soccer team based in San Francisco. In addition, Rico previously was on Spanish radio broadcasting team for the San Francisco 49ers.

Fernando Arias also returns to help with the action. The longtime Bay Area resident and native of Guanajuato, Mexico attended high school in Mexico City and went to City College of San Francisco. Arias has a broad array of broadcast experience, having served as a radio personality in the Bay Area for KIQI and as a sports anchor on television for KBI, Channel 30. Arias, who has worked a number of Raider games, also served as commentator with the San Francisco 49ers and with the Oakland Athletics. He also has broadcast NFL games for SAP for CBS, was an entertainment reporter and has interviewed celebrities such as Ricky Martin and Placido Domingo. The Raiders Spanish Radio Network includes San Francisco/Oakland/San Jose KVVF/KVVZ 105.7 & 100.7FM, Fresno KLLE 107.5FM, and Los Angeles KTNQ 1020AM.

VIDEO AND TELEVISION

VIDEO & TELEVISION PROGRAMMING

Silver and Black Productions, the Emmy® Award winning in-house television production operation provides viewers with innovative, cutting edge and behind-the-scenes content devoted solely to The Oakland Raiders. All shows air in the Bay Area as well as in additional television outlets throughout California and Hawaii. These shows feature the personalities that make up the NFL's most dynamic organization. The Silver and Black Show as well as The Raiders Report are produced in high-definition by the Raiders own Silver and Black Productions, located within the Raiders 100,000 square foot Alameda facility. Archived episodes can be found online at www.raiders.com.

THE SILVER AND BLACK SHOW

The Silver and Black Show consists of an in-depth, comprehensive, week-by-week analysis of the Raiders throughout the 2013 NFL season. The show also offers a retrospective look at the previous week's game and a breakdown of the upcoming contest by identifying key matchups. Weekly in-studio coach and player interviews are supplemented by features on players past and present profiling the Silver and Black. In their second decade together, hosts Greg Papa and Jim Plunkett work together to bring the viewer up to date information regarding The Oakland Raiders.

THE RAIDERS REPORT

In 2013, The Raiders Report returns to bring the viewer an exclusive look at the organization and its parts through the lenses of Silver and Black Productions. Hosted by JT the Brick, the 30-minute program combines news and entertainment through longer, in-depth pieces featuring the Team of the Decades. From the field to community, The Raiders Report gets the viewer up to speed and in touch with everything Oakland Raiders.

RAIDERS POSTGAME LIVE

Comcast SportsNet California is the proud home of The Oakland Raiders post-game live show. Immediately following every game, Raiders Postgame Live is the destination for the Raider Nation with a comprehensive one-hour coverage featuring game analysis, locker room interviews, plus Head Coach Dennis Allen's press conference in its entirety. The reporting for Raiders Postgame Live will be anchored from the network's new state-of-the-art studio, 24-hour newsroom and HD production facilities in San Francisco, as well as a reporter from the site of the game.

RAIDERS PRESS CONFERENCE LIVE

Comcast SportsNet California's Raiders Press Conference Live returns for the ninth season with an extended one-hour format and the introduction of live phone call from the viewers into the program. Raiders Press Conference Live broadcasts the head coach's weekly press conference from the Oakland Raiders' permanent practice facility in Alameda. News, notes, highlights and a statistical breakdown of the team help to supplement this program.

The Raiders were one of the first professional sports franchises to launch an official website when the team went online in 1995. Since, the site has evolved into one of the top online destinations in sports.

Raiders.com continues to provide exclusive video interviews, comprehensive photography, official press releases, transactions, player biographies, profiles on current and former players and team personnel, press conference video and more. The Raiders also use social media- Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and Vine- to communicate with and interact with the worldwide Raider Nation.

Jeanette Thompson hosts Behind the Shield, Raiders.com's official video news program. Featured writer Rebecca Corman delivers the latest news, quotes and features, with special access inside 1220 Harbor Bay Parkway.

During games, fans can access the Raiders.com Game Center and check out live updates, view action photos and listen to a live audio stream from the Raiders' flagship radio station – 95.7 The GAME. Comprehensive recaps, postgame press conferences and complete game statistics are available after each contest.

In addition, complete NFL Draft, team mini-camp, training camp and Raiderette coverage can be found on the site. Raiders.com also offers original and translated content in Spanish, Chinese, German, Japanese and Tagalog. The official website of the Silver and Black is the first and only official NFL team website to offer original content in six languages.

In 2013, the official website of the Oakland Raiders, RAIDERS.COM, will continue to use cutting edge technology to provide the Raider Nation with news, information, team history and entertainment, offering visitors an in-depth, state-of-the-art look at the Silver and Black.

THE RAIDER IMAGE

THE RAIDER IMAGE, LLC (The Image) is the official team shop of the Oakland Raiders. All stores are owned and operated by the Raiders out of the team's headquarters in Alameda, Calif. The Image began as a retail catalog while the team was in Los Angeles.

In addition, The Image currently operates 12 brick-and-mortar locations throughout California. The Raider Image online store opened for business in September 1999 on the Raiders' official web site, Raiders.com.

The Image's e-commerce store provides the best selection of Raider merchandise to Raider fans around the world. In August 2000, the Raiders followed their Internet success with their first store, located at Southland Mall in Hayward, giving Bay Area fans an opportunity to shop in a store dedicated to Raiders merchandise.

There are four Bay Area Raider Image locations: Hegenberger Gateway in Oakland, Oakridge Mall in San Jose, Sunvalley Mall in Concord, and Southland Mall in Hayward. The Image has also expanded outside of the Bay Area with stores in Arden Fair Mall in Sacramento, Fashion Fair Mall in Fresno, Weberstown Mall in Stockton, Solano Mall in Fairfield, and Roseville Galleria in Roseville. To serve their Southern California fans, locations are open at Moreno Valley Mall and in addition, The Image added a new twist with the June 2003 opening of its Signature Store at Universal City Walk in Universal City.

The successful chain of stores will continue to expand to meet the growing needs of Raiders fans around the world.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules. Note: Tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs.

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

- Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs.)
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- Strength of victory in all games.
- Strength of schedule in all games.
- Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
- Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
- Best net points in common games.
- Best net points in all games.
- Best net touchdowns in all games.
- Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one or more clubs are eliminated during any step, tie-breaker re-starts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker re-starts at Step 1 of three-club format.)

- Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs.)
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- Strength of victory in all games.
- Strength of schedule in all games.
- Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
- Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
- Best net points in common games.
- Best net points in all games.
- Best net touchdowns in all games.
- Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD-CARD TEAM

- If necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:
- If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
- If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

- Head-to-head, if applicable.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in the games played within the conference.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
- Strength of victory in all games.
- Strength of schedule in all games.
- Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
- Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
- Best net points in conference games.
- Best net points in all games.
- Best net touchdowns in all games.
- Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one or more clubs are eliminated during any step, tie-breaker re-starts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker re-starts at Step 2 of three-club format.)

- Apply division tie-breaker to eliminate all but highest ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step two. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tie-breaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the two Wild Card participants.
- Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others.)
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
- Strength of victory in all games.
- Strength of schedule in all games.
- Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
- Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
- Best net points in conference games.
- Best net points in all games.
- Best net touchdowns in all games.
- Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step two). In situations where three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tie-breaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

- Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tie-breakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one wins the tie-breaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
- In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
- To determine home-field priority among division-titlists, apply Wild Card tie-breakers.
- To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tie-breakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tie-breakers (if teams are from different divisions).
- To determine the best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed, add a team's position in the two categories, and the lowest score wins. For example, if Team A is first in points scored and second in points allowed, its combined ranking is "3." If Team B is third in points scored and first in points allowed, its combined ranking is "4." Team A then wins the tiebreaker. If two teams are tied for a position, both teams are awarded the ranking as if they held it solely. For example, if Team A and Team B are tied for first in points scored, each team is assigned a ranking of "1" in that category, and if Team C is third, its ranking will still be "3."

ON-FIELD POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Other than network contractual obligations, all Raiders players and coaches must report to the locker room before conducting interviews. There are no interviews on the field in the minutes immediately following a home or road game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: The Raiders will open their locker room to media following the NFL's mandatory cooling-off period following each game. Head Coach Dennis Allen will conduct his postgame news conference in the interview room adjacent to the Raiders locker room. Selected players will also be brought into the interview room following the game. The visiting team's head coach and selected players will be available in the interview room located adjacent to the visitor's locker room.

PRACTICE ACCESS & PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOGRAPHY GUIDELINES: Accredited members of the media that regularly cover the NFL are welcome at the first 30 minutes of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday practices during the regular season. Photography and videography is allowed, in general, during this window. The team reserves the right to limit photography to certain periods for competitive reasons. During any practice open to the media, visitors should stand at a safe distance and hold all belongings, including bags and video cameras, or put them against the fence. Tripods are not allowed on the field during practice, for safety reasons.

CONFERENCE CALLS: The Raiders' media relations department will arrange a conference call with the head coach and a key player from the opposing team each week during the regular season. These conference calls will be made from the media room and in general will take place on Wednesdays.

ONLINE CONTENT POLICY: Accredited organizations may distribute online non-game audio and video content, including interviews, press conferences and team practices at NFL venues, acquired as a result of credentialed access ("Game Information") to games or club/league facilities provided that such distribution: Is 90 seconds maximum per day (180 seconds in two-team markets, 90 seconds per team); may not be "archived" (i.e. made available for on-demand public access) for more than 24 hours; appears in an editorial context only (no sponsorship, merchandising or advertising integrated with or around the content); is not posted live, and is accompanied by links back to NFL.com and to the club Web site. The 90-second limit does not include video/audio material that is comprised entirely of a credentialed media employee providing commentary or analysis ("Talking Head" reporting), including pre- or postgame stand-up material shot on the field or other facility location. While a game is in progress, any forms of accounts of the game must be sufficiently time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g. score updates with detail given only in quarterly game updates, fewer than 10 photographs during the game) so that the accredited organization's game coverage cannot be used as a substitute for, or otherwise approximate, authorized play-by-play accounts.

Regarding practice reporting, the Raiders require that media not reveal plays or formations in any way, for competitive reasons. The team reserves the right to revoke credentials and/or access.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers. All single-game requests must be received by 12 p.m. (PT) on the Monday prior to each home game.

All season and single-game credential requests must be submitted by an editor or sports director to the media relations department via the Raiders' media Web site at media.raiders.com. After logging in, click the credentials link in the left-hand navigation and fill out the online form as completely as possible. Both the username and password are the same: media.

PARKING: Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but due to limited space, parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to the stadium lot. Television trucks that provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Erin Exum of the Raiders' media relations office.

MEDIA WILL CALL: The media will call booth is located in a kiosk on the east side of the "F" parking area, on the north side of the stadium. Each media member must pick up his/her own individual credential and present corresponding photo identification. Photographers and videographers can retrieve appropriate sideline vests at the booth. Media will call opens four hours prior to the scheduled kickoff.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: The media entrance is clearly marked and is located on the Plaza level between the West Side Club and West Side Customer Accommodations. Media credentials will not be honored at any other gate. All media must check in at the media entrance before entering the O.co Coliseum. For security purposes, individuals and their belongings will be searched upon entry into the stadium.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for recognized news or sports organizations. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. All media (photographers, videographers and sideline reporters) working on the field during the game must wear a vest that can be obtained at media will call. Credentials will not be provided to "grips" due to on-field space limitations.

PRESS BOX, SERVICES: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on the Coliseum's third level and can be accessed via the press elevator. Programs, lineups, depth charts, statistics and game notes will be provided for each home game. Game stats are provided at the end of each quarter. Complete team and individual statistics, lineups and substitutions, scoring summary, coaches and player quotations are available after the game.

POOL REPORTER: As assigned by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA), the Oakland pool reporter for the 2013 season is Steve Corkran of the Bay Area News Group.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

The Raiders' media relations department is in place to welcome and serve members of the local and national media in their coverage of the team. The staff looks forward to assisting broadcasters and sportswriters, helping however and whenever possible, and appreciates those that take time and invest resources to visit the team at its Alameda facility and the O.co Coliseum. Members of the media, who should feel free to contact any member of the media relations staff at any time, are encouraged to carefully review the following policies, reminded that these policies are subject to change.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS: The Raiders respectfully request that all interview requests, for any member of the organization, go through the media relations office. Players, coaches or staff should not be contacted by media directly by telephone (desk, home or cell), by e-mail, or via social media, including Twitter.

GENERAL MANAGER REGGIE McKENZIE INTERVIEWS: Media requesting the Raiders' general manager should contact Will Kiss to make their requests. Interviews are scheduled as time allows.

HEAD COACH DENNIS ALLEN INTERVIEWS: Dennis Allen is available after most practices, as well as after every game. He also will conduct a weekly press conference on Mondays during the regular season, in the media room at the Alameda facility. Those needing to schedule one-on-one interviews should contact Will Kiss.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS: Assistant coaches are available by request, provided the request is made at least 24 hours in advance to Erin Exum (eexum@raiders.com). During a regular-season Sunday game week, coordinators are only available on Thursdays, while other assistants are only available Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Following games, Dennis Allen is the only coach available for comment.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: Players are available after games and during practice weeks, and all one-on-one requests should be made through Will Kiss. With respect to all players, the Raiders open their locker room to accredited media on Mondays, as well as following practice on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

MEDIA GUIDE: The 2013 Oakland Raiders media guide includes information current as of July 10, 2013. Photos by Tony Gonzales, Allan Yuan, Jerry Soifer and sports information departments of schools that have produced Raiders players. Additional photos from the Raiders archive. Prepress formatting, desktop layout and design by Erin Exum, Esteban Carbajal, Will Kiss and Maggie Oren, MB Design. Printing by Almaden Press, Santa Clara, Calif.
