COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

AL DAVIS

JULY 4, 1929 - OCT. 8, 2011

Al Davis, a true legend, was a maverick, a giant among giants, a star among stars, a hero, a mentor and a friend.

When Davis passed away during the 2011 season, football lost an innovator, a pioneer with a deep love and passion for the game, a man who most assuredly will never be forgotten or duplicated. A Pro Football Hall of Famer who arguably did more to change the game than any other individual, Davis was honored the day after his passing with a moment of silence at every NFL stadium.

At one of those venues, Houston's Reliant Stadium, Davis' players took the field without his guidance for the first time in 17,710 days. And in one of so many franchise games for the ages, this comeback featuring key contributions from three of his first-round draft choices, the Raiders that day honored Davis by doing what he cared about most – they won.

"Just win," Davis once said. "Play hard. Try not to make mistakes, but don't worry about mistakes because there's only one thing that counts: Just win."

Before that win in Houston, Davis' death spawned an overwhelming outpouring of statements from football executives, coaches and players, past and present. A clear common thread in those expressions of remembrance was that anyone with any level of affinity for football should acknowledge that the game would not be what it is without Davis.

That's not just because Davis held the titles of general manager, head coach, league commissioner and principal owner, and led the Raiders to more wins than any other team. The game would not be what it is because, through his unyielding efforts to build the finest franchise in sports, Davis broke social barriers, creating opportunities for countless individuals, and cared selflessly about people, treating them the way they wanted to be treated. No one has had a more profound and lasting impact on pro football.

SEEDS OF GENIUS

Had Davis remained in coaching, fellow innovator Bill Walsh once theorized, Davis would be considered one of the greatest coaches of all-time.

On Jan. 19, 1963, the American Football League Raiders made a 33-year-old Davis the youngest general manager and head coach in pro history. And before the budding genius called his first play, Davis took complete control over all phases of the franchise, including changing Oakland's uniform colors to silver and black, to resemble the great Army teams he had idolized during the 1940s, and re-branded the Raiders into an image that is today instantly recognized worldwide.

"If there's anything that we've done that I'm particularly proud of," Davis recalled later in his life, "I would have to say the perpetuation of the greatness of the Raiders; to take a professional football team and give it a distinct characteristic, that's different from all others."

That characteristic in his first season on the Raiders sideline became forever linked to winning. Davis earned Coach of the Year honors after leading the Raiders, 1-13 the season before, to the most significant year-to-year improvement in pro football history, a 10-4 mark. Although he sacrificed his coaching career to become AFL Commissioner following the 1965 season, the profession always remained important to him, partly because it served as the foundation for his contributions to football.

That foundation was first poured in his hometown, the borough of Brooklyn, N.Y., where he played basketball and learned some of his unshakeable principles under Coach Al Badain at Erasmus Hall High School.

Davis graduated with a degree in English literature from Syracuse University, which later honored him with a Letterman of Distinction award, and shortly after, in 1950, launched his career as line coach at Adelphi College.

After entering the Army in 1952, Davis served as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Va. There, he molded a national power, finishing with a win over Maryland, the reigning national champion.

Davis worked in the player personnel office of the Baltimore Colts for one year (1954), then spent two seasons (1955-56) as line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel, before becoming in 1957 the University of Southern California's line coach.

His next job didn't take him very far, moving across town from USC to the Los Angeles Chargers of the new AFL, but the move to pro football was a major step. Hired by Sid Gillman in 1960 as the Chargers' offensive ends coach, Davis helped the team to a pair of division titles in just three years.

That rise gave Davis the opportunity to lead his own team in 1963. Several factors influenced his head-coach blueprints. In addition to his coaching career, the precision of the Black Knights of the Hudson, their quickness and explosion with Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis, left an indelible impression on Davis growing up. He also took several chapters from another sport.

"As a young guy," he said, "I had a dream that someday I would build the finest organization in professional sports. I had a lot of thoughts on how I would do it. I had the inspiration of two great organizations when I was growing up.

"The Yankees to me personified the size of the players, power, the home run, and intimidation and fear. Very important characteristics to me of what I thought a great team and a great organization should have. The Dodgers, under Branch Rickey, were totally different in my mind. They represented speed. They represented development of players, a way of playing the game, the Dodger way of playing the game. And I always thought that someone intelligent could take all the qualities, the great qualities of both, and put them together and use them."

In addition to those qualities, he also instilled in the Raiders tenets that were all his own, and in the process, he revolutionized pro football.

Offensively, Davis created the vertical game, now known as stretching the field.

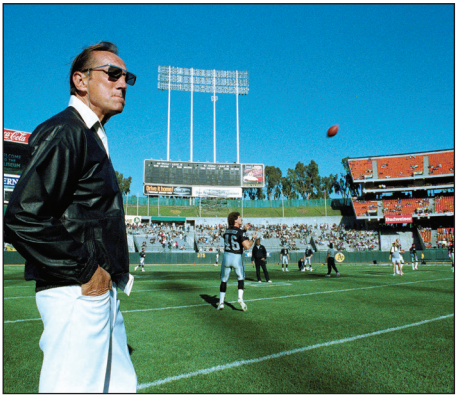

"When we came out of the huddle," he remembered about his Raiders, "we weren't looking for first downs. We didn't want to move the chains. We wanted touchdowns. We wanted the big play, the quick strike. It's No. 1 to say that you want to do that, it's No. 2 to say that you have the players to do it, but it's No. 3 to do it. Do it on first down of any football game, on that defense that you're playing against. For those cornerbacks that play out there on the corners, to know that the Raiders are coming at you, they're coming at you on top, they've got the speed to do it, and they will do it. It's like having the bomb and being willing to drop it. The adage that goes around in professional football, and I hear everyone say it, 'Take what they give you.' That all sounds good to everybody, but I always went the other way: We're going to take what we want."

On the other side of the line, Davis also wanted to attack, to put pressure on the pocket, and do more than just disrupt the offense physically.

"I do believe that this is a game, psychologically, of intimidation and of fear. I don't mean cowardly fear, but fear. I think this: That somewhere within the first five to 10 plays of the game that the other team's quarterback must go down, and he must go down hard. That alone sets the tempo for a game."

Once that tempo was established, taking a cue from college basketball, Davis was the first to utilize his cornerbacks in a bump-and-run principle.

"We used to call it the press. We got the idea from John Wooden, when he had his great zone press, with his great basketball teams, where they picked you up as soon as you took the ball out, and they pressured you. And we got the idea and called it press. And then I think Don Shula started calling it bump-and-run, so we changed to bump-and-run."

Davis' vision to see where the game was headed, or to pave a new road to winning, led future successful coaches like Bill Parcells and Bill Belichick to regard Davis as the NFL's most intelligent individual.

From 1963-2002, the Raiders dominated pro football, posting the game's best cumulative won-loss record. Earning the moniker "Team of the Decades," the franchise posted 17 winning seasons over an 18-year stretch from 1963-80. The Raiders then posted 11 more winning campaigns from 1982-2002, including double-digit wins in 1983, 1984, 1985, 1990, 1993, 2000, 2001 and 2002. All told under Davis, the Raiders won four league championships -- Super Bowls XI, XV and XVIII and the 1967 AFL title.

FROM HEAD COACH TO COMMISSIONER, TO MERGER

Persuaded by American Football League owners who viewed him as the perfect person to lead their battle against the established NFL, Davis reluctantly became league commissioner on April 8, 1966. Remarkably, Davis would spend less than 16 weeks in that role, but the shots his administration fired during that short period still reverberate today.

For the first half of the 1960s, the AFL and NFL fought a tenacious fight for college talent, but they battled with a significant unwritten rule that veterans were off limits. A little more than a month after Davis took office, the NFL's New York Giants violated that rule, signing veteran Buffalo kicker Pete Gogolak. As longtime Raiders executive Al LoCasale remembered, the NFL took a shot with a revolver and Davis shot back using a machine gun.

Davis passionately and strategically convinced AFL owners to go after established NFL stars. In a short period, the AFL had signed many of the NFL's veteran playmakers, including the NFL's leading passer John Brodie, and Roman Gabriel from the Los Angeles Rams.

"We had about four or five quarterbacks all lined up," Davis said. "Three or four of their other great players had already signed. It was a preliminary strike to let them know what's going to happen if they continue this."

Within months, the two leagues had agreed to a merger that formed the league familiar to today's fans, including as part of the agreement a world championship game now known as the Super Bowl. Having served as the driving force behind that merger, Davis resigned on July 25, 1966, returned to Oakland as head of football operations and purchased an interest in the franchise. Davis, who became managing general partner in 1972, teamed with head-coach successors John Rauch, John Madden and Tom Flores in building a stalwart that would become the league's most successful franchise.

A CHAMPION OF DIVERSITY AND EQUALITY

A trailblazer, Davis innovated not only how the game was played and coached, but also changed who held those roles, opening countless doors for qualified individuals, regardless of skin color.

Davis was 17 when, a short distance from his home, Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier in Major League Baseball. Shortly after, at Syracuse, Davis befriended Bernie Custis, who would fight racism and become pro football's first black quarterback. At USC, Davis started recruiting players from historically black colleges, and convinced future Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Wood to remain at the school as the Trojans' quarterback. Wood and Ron Mix became the school's first interracial co-captains, and Davis helped Mix understand how athletics could serve as a leader in ushering needed social change.

With the Chargers, Davis teamed with Gillman to lead the fight for equality. In addition to refusing to stay at segregated team hotels, the team, inspired by Davis, recruited players from black programs, creating what Eddie Robinson called a new day for players of color and giving them a sense of belonging in the American Football League.

Later that decade, Davis brought to the Raiders guard Gene Upshaw and tackle Art Shell, eventual Hall of Famers. Upshaw and Shell joked that a convention of pro football's black offensive linemen could be held in a phone booth. But Davis gave them an opportunity, and Upshaw said he never experienced racism on the Raiders because Davis would never tolerate it.

And neither would Davis tolerate discrimination at the game's most important position. A year after Upshaw as a rookie helped the Raiders to an AFL championship, Davis in 1968 made Eldridge Dickey the first African-American quarterback ever selected in the first round. Again, Davis cared about one thing: Winning.

"We called it an untapped reservoir," Davis recalled. "We wanted to win. We wanted the players. We weren't interested in who they were, or exactly where they came from. I've always said, it's not important to be consistent; it's important to be right. It was done because it was right and fair, and to help the team win, and continue to win.

"The Raiders did become a proving ground for great minority players. I think it was an evolution, an evolution of equity and fairness, and we hope that's one legacy we leave."

Another legacy Davis left was hiring in 1989 the NFL's first African-American head coach, Shell. Davis told Shell the reason he hired him was not because he was black, but because he was the best available candidate for the job, and because he was a Raider. Upon winning his coaching debut, Shell had to remind reporters that he was not the game's first minority head coach. A decade before, Davis had hired Tom Flores to lead the Raiders to two Super Bowl victories. Additionally, Davis later made Amy Trask the NFL's first female chief executive.

THE RAIDER MYSTIQUE

To Davis, shattering barriers wasn't only about race or gender. He defined it on a larger scale, by creating an environment that allowed any individual the chance to succeed, and in the process fostered a unique brotherhood.

"The fire that burns brightest in me," Davis said, "and the fire that burns brightest in this organization is the will to win."

That philosophy evolved the Raiders' locker room into an us-versus-them mentality, a group that like its owner valued being feared more than respected. Davis brought in mavericks and molded them into champions, a group of rugged and colorful individualists that carried Davis' torch with swagger and intimidation.

Many of the players that won for the Raiders were rejected by other teams. But Davis did not treat them like misfits. He treated them like men, and those men brought him three Super Bowl titles and dominated the league like no other team.

"We may take a player in who doesn't have good social habits, or has been a failure somewhere else," Davis explained. "But it's predicated on bringing them into an environment, that can inspire them the will to do great, and they have done great."

A BELIEF IN HOW TO TREAT PEOPLE

Part of Davis' ability to acquire the right players and put them in an environment that bred success was his belief in how to deal with people. Davis always said that the Golden Rule was not good enough.

"When you have to lead men, you don't do unto others as you would have others do unto you," Davis said. "You do unto them, in a paramilitary situation, as they want to be done unto. You have to treat them the way they want to be treated."

That way of treating people led friends and former players to remember Davis as the epitome of loyalty. And in turn, he showed the rest of the NFL how to treat former players. Of all the awards he received, the recognition from men that played the game meant the most to Davis. In 1997, the NFL Alumni inducted Davis into the Order of the Leather Helmet, a lifetime-achievement award. Six years earlier, the NFL Players Association honored Davis with its inaugural Retired Players Award of Excellence, citing the care he had shown players long after they retired.

"I feel we're one of the last bastions of hope, as a team image, as a team organization," Davis explained. "I don't want to give that up with the Raiders. We believe in tradition. We believe in the glory. We believe in the debt we owe to our players from the past."

No question, the way Davis treated people led to a record nine Hall of Famers asking him to present them in Canton, Ohio, at their induction ceremonies, an exceptional fact that exists nowhere else in sports, and speaks volumes of Davis' compassion for others.

In 1992, Davis earned his own enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and for the first time stood at the familiar podium after someone else – his most successful Raiders coach, Madden – had introduced him. Davis took the opportunity to look back on the team that mirrored his life.

"Enshrinement is a reflection of a life's work, a reflection of a love affair with the greatest game the world has ever known. This honor is a testament to a great organization, and to all the capable people that have poured their talent and enthusiasm and loyalty into the greatness of the Raiders, and the Raiders legend and mystique."

MARK DAVIS

OWNER

SANDRA DOUGLASS MORGAN

PRESIDENT

Sandra Douglass Morgan was named President of the Las Vegas Raiders by Owner Mark Davis in July of 2022. She has more than two decades of leadership experience in the sports, gaming, legal and corporate sectors, and has served as a chief regulator, director, attorney, and advisor to integrated resorts, casinos, and telecommunications companies. Having an adept understanding of the community as a native Las Vegan, Sandra is incredibly proud to lead the Silver and Black in her hometown.

Prior to her joining the Raiders, Sandra served as Chairwoman of the Nevada Gaming Control Board. As the chief regulator for Nevada's dominant billion-dollar gaming industry, Sandra led the passage and implementation of cashless wagering regulations, ensured that gaming licensees adopted policies prohibiting discrimination and harassment, and led a team of 400 employees in five cities across the state of Nevada. Sandra also served as a Commissioner on the Nevada State Athletic Commission and was the first Black City Attorney in the State of Nevada when she was the chief legal officer for the City of North Las Vegas, where she served from 2008 to 2016.

Sandra was previously with Covington & Burling, LLP and served as an advisor to the State of Nevada's COVID-19 task force charged with finding solutions for access to personal protection equipment, virtual education options, and expanding testing capabilities so that the state could reopen its doors to tens of millions of visitors from across the globe.

Widely recognized for her commitment to Nevada businesses, education, and support for local causes, she is the recipient of the UNLV Boyd School of Law's Distinguished Service Alumni Award and the Corporate to Community Connector award from the National Urban League Young Professionals. She was honored to be included in the EBONY 2022 Power 100 List, the most influential "Women in Business and Politics," receiving an award from the Urban Chamber of Commerce in 2015 along with the Ladies of Distinction Award in 2013 from Olive Crest, a non-profit organization dedicated to assisting abused and neglected children. In 2012, Sandra was named Attorney of the Year by the Las Vegas Chapter of the National Bar Association which recognized her commitment to serving the local community, especially communities of color.

Sandra has served on a variety of nonprofit boards and is currently the vice chair of Super Bowl LVIII Host Committee, which will take place at Allegiant Stadium in 2024, marking the first time Las Vegas will host one of the most-watched annual sporting events in the world. Additionally, Sandra serves on the Board of Directors of Allegiant Travel Company and Fidelity National Financial, Inc., and is on the Board of Trustees for the UNLV Foundation. She is also a member of the State Bar of Nevada and the District of Columbia Bar.

Sandra graduated from the University of Nevada, Reno with a degree in Political Science and holds a Juris Doctor from the William S. Boyd School of Law at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. She resides in Las Vegas with her husband Don and their two children.

DAVE ZIEGLER

GENERAL MANAGER

14th Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

Dave Ziegler enters his second season as General Manager of the Las Vegas Raiders. Named to his post by Owner Mark Davis on Jan. 30, 2022, Ziegler is the just the fourth general manager in Raiders franchise history. Prior to arriving in Las Vegas, Ziegler spent nine seasons with the New England Patriots, most recently serving as the director of player personnel.

Ziegler continued to build the roster this offseason, adding 15 players in the early free agency period to improve depth and competition on both sides of the ball and special teams. In April's draft, Ziegler orchestrated four draft day trades, moving up in draft order each time to select top prospects at several different positions.

BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2010-12	Denver Broncos	Scouting Department
2013-15	New England Patriots	Asst. Director of Pro Personnel
2016-19	New England Patriots	Director of Pro Personnel
2020	New England Patriots	Asst. Director of Player Personnel
2021	New England Patriots	Director of Player Personnel
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	General Manager

In his first offseason with the Raiders, Ziegler executed a blockbuster trade to bring elite wide receiver Davante Adams to Las Vegas. Despite not owning a selection until the third round of the NFL Draft, Ziegler and his staff were able to compile a solid draft class in 2022. Third-round selection Dylan Parham contributed immediately, starting all 17 regular season games on the offensive line and earning consensus All-Rookie honors, and four undrafted rookie free agents made the team's initial 53-man roster.

In 2021, Ziegler served his lone season as director of player personnel for the Patriots. He spent the 2020 season as assistant director of player personnel following four seasons as the director of pro personnel and three as the assistant director of pro scouting. During his time in New England, the Patriots won seven AFC East Division titles, advanced to six AFC Championship Games and claimed three Super Bowl championships (XLIX, LI and LIII).

Prior to joining the Patriots, Ziegler spent three seasons with the Denver Broncos, serving in a variety of roles for the club in their scouting department. During his time in Denver, the Broncos won two AFC West Division titles.

Before entering the NFL, Ziegler was the special teams coordinator at Chaparral High School in Scottsdale, Ariz., where he also coached running backs and tight ends. Previously, Ziegler coached wide receivers and special teams at Iona College in New Rochelle, N.Y., and at John Carroll University in University Heights, Ohio.

A three-time, all-conference honoree as a wide receiver, punt returner and kick returner at John Carroll, Ziegler holds several school records, including career return yards, return average and touchdowns. He was inducted into the John Carroll Hall of Fame in 2010. Ziegler was college teammates with Raiders Head Coach Josh McDaniels.

A native of Tallmadge, Ohio, Ziegler and his wife Carissa have two sons, Asher and Camden and a daughter, Georgina.

JOSH McDANIELS

HEAD COACH

23rd Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

Josh McDaniels enters his second season as Head Coach of the Las Vegas Raiders and his 23rd overall campaign in the NFL. McDaniels was named Raiders head coach by Owner Mark Davis on Jan. 31, 2022, following 19 seasons with the New England Patriots, including 13 as offensive coordinator. He also served as the Denver Broncos' head coach from 2009-10 and the St. Louis Rams' offensive coordinator in 2011.

In his first season at the helm in Las Vegas, McDaniels laid a solid foundation for the organization both on and off the field. McDaniels orchestrated an offense that was among the best in the NFL, as the Raiders scored on 42.4 percent (73-for-172) of the team's offensive possessions, a mark that ranked fifth in the league and was the second highest for a Raiders offense since 2001.

Individual standouts highlighted the offensive attack, as running back Josh Jacobs totaled 1,653 yards on the ground to become the first Raider to lead the NFL in rushing since 1985. Wide receiver Davante Adams was equally outstanding in the passing game, setting a franchise record with 1,516 receiving yards and leading the NFL with 14 touchdowns through the air. The Raiders became just the fifth team in history, and the first since 1999, to have both a rusher and receiver eclipse the 1,500-yard mark in the same season.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
1999	Michigan State	Graduate Assistant
2001	New England Patriots	Personnel Assistant/ Coaching Assistant
2002-03	New England Patriots	Coaching Assistant
2004-05	New England Patriots	Quarterbacks
2006-08	New England Patriots	Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks
2009-10	Denver Broncos	Head Coach
2011	St. Louis Rams	Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks
2012-19	New England Patriots	Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks
2020	New England Patriots	Offensive Coordinator
2021	New England Patriots	Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Head Coach

In his 13 seasons as the Patriots offensive coordinator, McDaniels guided an offense to top-10 finishes eight times, including the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense in 2007, 2012 and 2017. He has also coached the team to 12 seasons with 10-or-more wins, while the offense has scored 400-plus points in 11 seasons. Overall, McDaniels was a part of six Super Bowl championships, 14 division titles and eight conference crowns with New England.

Regarded as one of the league's top quarterback coaches, McDaniels tutored quarterback Tom Brady to 10 Pro Bowl selections, two NFL Most Valuable Player awards and nine 4,000-yard passing seasons. Brady also led the league in touchdown passes two times (2007 and 2015) and passing yards three times (2005, 2007 and 2015) with McDaniels serving as his position coach.

In 2021, McDaniels played a key role in the development of quarterback Mac Jones, who led all rookie quarterbacks with 3,801 passing yards and 22 touchdowns. Jones' 10 wins are the most in a season by a Patriots rookie quarterback and his completion percentage of 67.6 was the second-best for a rookie quarterback in a season in league history. Under the guidance of McDaniels, tight end Hunter Henry set a single season career-high with nine receiving touchdowns, tied for the NFL lead among tight ends. Additionally, the offense finished eighth in rushing with 2,151 yards behind running back Damien Harris' career-high 929 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns, tied for second-most in the NFL in 2021.

In 2020, McDaniels oversaw an offense that finished fourth in the NFL with 2,346 rushing yards, a mark that ranked as the fourth-highest rushing total in team history. The Patriots finished the season with 4.67 yards per rush attempt, the fourth-best average in franchise history. Additionally, the offense scored 20 rushing touchdowns, tied for sixth-most in the NFL. McDaniels guided quarterback Cam Newton to double-digit rushing touchdowns for the third time in his career. Newton set the franchise record for most rushing attempts (137) and yards (592) by a quarterback, while also finishing with the most rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (12) in the NFL. In 2019, McDaniels helped lead the Patriots to a 12-4 record and claim their 11th consecutive division title. Brady threw for 4,000-plus passing yards for the 11th time in his career and became the all-time leader in NFL history with his 17th season of at least 20 passing touchdowns. Additionally, McDaniels saw running back Sony Michel record 912 rushing yards to become only the second player in team history to post 900-plus rushing yards in each of his first two NFL seasons.

Under McDaniels' guidance in 2018, QB Tom Brady was selected to his 14th Pro Bowl and surpassed 4,000 passing yards for the 10th time in his career. The Patriots offense ranked top-5 in total points (436), total yards (6,295) and rushing yards (2,037). Additionally, McDaniels saw running back James White set the team franchise record by a running back for receptions (87) and receiving yards (751) in a single season. Rookie RB Sony Michel finished with 931 rushing yards and four 100-yard rushing games.

In 2017, McDaniels helped the Patriots reach their second consecutive Super Bowl by leading a unit that finished No. 1 in the NFL in total offense (394.2 yards per game). McDaniels helped guide the No. 2 passing offense (276.1 yards per game) and the No. 2 scoring offense (28.6 points per game). Brady and tight end Rob Gronkowski were both named to the Pro Bowl, while the Patriots offense had three players with 1,000-plus scrimmage yards in the same season for the first time in franchise history with wide receiver Brandin Cooks (1,122), Gronkowski (1,084) and running back Dion Lewis (1,110).

In 2016, McDaniels saw Brady earn his eighth consecutive Pro Bowl selection (2009-16) after finishing the season with 28 touchdown passes and only two interceptions in 2016 for a TD/INT ratio of 14.00, the best in a single season. Brady threw just two interceptions in 432 pass attempts in 2016 for an interception percentage of 0.46, the fourth lowest in NFL history. Additionally, McDaniels guided running back LeGarrette Blount to a team single-season record with 18 rushing touchdowns while becoming the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing touchdowns. Wide receiver Julian Edelman recorded his second career 1,000-plus yards receiving season.

Under the guidance of McDaniels in 2015, the Patriots advanced to their fifth-straight conference championship game. The offense set an NFL record by scoring in 38 straight quarters, while Brady became just the fourth player in NFL history to reach 30 touchdown passes in six seasons and just the third player in league history with at least eight 4,000-plus yards passing seasons. Additionally, Gronkowski surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third time in his career.

In 2014, McDaniels helped the Patriots earn the fourth Super Bowl championship in franchise history. New England finished with the top-ranked red-zone offense, leading the league with 338 points scored (39 TDs, 22 FG) in 67 trips to the red zone. McDaniels offensive unit finished with 52 touchdowns, marking the eighth time in franchise history that New England has scored at least 50 touchdowns in a season. The offense's 468 points ranked fourth in the league.

In his two seasons after returning to Foxborough (2012-13), McDaniels guided the offense to a top-10 finish in total offense both seasons. Additionally, Brady was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2012 and 2013 and eclipsed 4,000 passing yards for the sixth time in 2013. In 2011, McDaniels served as offensive coordinator of the St. Louis Rams. Under his guidance, Rams running back Steven Jackson eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the seventh consecutive season.

McDaniels served as head coach of the Denver Broncos from 2009-10, becoming the fifth-youngest head coach in NFL history at the time (32 years, 8 months).

In his first season with the Broncos in 2009, McDaniels guided the club to a 6-0 start that tied for the third-best start by a rookie head coach in the NFL history. Five Broncos made the Pro Bowl under McDaniels in 2009 while quarterback Kyle Orton enjoyed the best season of his five-year career, posting 10 games with a passer rating of at least 90.0 that tied for fifth in the league. The Broncos' 23 giveaways were their fourth-fewest total for a season in club history.

McDaniels began his NFL career with New England as a personnel assistant/coaching assistant in 2001, then serving as a coaching assistant from 2002-03. McDaniels was named the Patriots quarterbacks coach in 2004 and later promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2006.

During his first three years (2006-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, McDaniels directed a New England offense that led the NFL in points per game (28.8) while ranking second in the league in yards per game (370.8). The Patriots also committed the third-fewest turnovers (63) and ranked fourth in the league in third-down success (44.4 percent) under McDaniels during that period. Under McDaniels' guidance during 2007, the Patriots set several league offensive records en route to becoming the first team in NFL history to win its first 18 games and advancing to Super Bowl XLII. New England's 589 points (36.8 ppg.) and 75 touchdowns were the most in league history for a season while its 6,580 yards (411.3 ypg.) ranked seventh in NFL history for a single campaign. McDaniels saw Brady earn the league MVP after setting a then-NFL record for touchdown passes (50) in a single-season and registered the third-most passing yards (4,806) for a year in league history, while wide receiver Wes Welker set the franchise record for receptions in a season (112) and wide receiver Randy Moss broke the NFL record for touchdown receptions with 23.

In his five seasons (2004-08) handling positional coaching responsibilities, McDaniels guided six different players to a total of nine Pro Bowl selections.

McDaniels began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Michigan State University in 1999, working under head coach Nick Saban and helping the Spartans to a 10-2 record and a Citrus Bowl victory.

PERSONAL: A native of Canton, Ohio, McDaniels attended John Carroll University, where he played quarterback and wide receiver from 1995-98. McDaniels was a college teammate of Raiders General Manager Dave Ziegler. Josh and his wife, Laura, have four children.

2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Defensive Backs

Ash served as the defensive coordinator/safeties coach for Texas in 2020 and helped guide the team to a 7-3 record and victory in the Alamo Bowl. Prior to that, Ash spent four years (2016-19) as head coach at Rutgers, including a 2017 season that saw the team match its program record for victories in Big Ten play and tie a league win total from 2014.

Ash spent eight years in the Big Ten Conference, including four as a defensive coordinator with four Big Ten championships. Ash led four groups that ranked in the top 25 statistically, including a top-10 defensive unit in 2015 at Ohio State.

In 2015, the Buckeyes' defense ranked second nationally in scoring defense, ninth in total defense and ninth in sacks. The Buckeyes earned a berth in the Fiesta Bowl, finishing the season with a 12-1 record after defeating Notre Dame in the bowl game.

Ash saw six defensive players from his unit taken in the NFL Draft, including three in the first round. DE Joey Bosa was twice a unanimous First-Team All-American in 2014 and 2015 and Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year. CB Eli Apple was chosen 10th overall by the New York Giants and LB Darron Lee was selected 20th by the New York Jets.

In his first season, OSU's defense ranked 19th nationally in total defense and 26th in scoring defense. The Buckeyes also ranked fourth nationally with 24 interceptions en route to Big Ten, Sugar Bowl and National Championships.

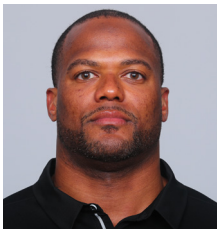

Prior to taking over the OSU defense, Ash held the defensive coordinator post and coached the secondary at Arkansas in 2013. He helped improve Arkansas' pass defense in his one season in Fayetteville, with the Razorbacks defense finishing 72nd nationally in passing yards allowed after ranking 113th in 2012.

Ash was first promoted to the defensive coordinator role in the Big Ten while at the University of Wisconsin, where he spent three seasons with the Badgers. His 2011 defense led the Big Ten (conference games only) in total defense and pass defense efficiency, and it ranked fourth nationally in fewest passing yards allowed (163.6), 13th in scoring (19.0) and 15th in total defense (316.4). In 2012, Ash's defense ranked 15th nationally in total defense (322.5), 17th in scoring (19.1), 18th in fewest passing yards allowed (193.6), 22nd in pass efficiency and 24th against the run (128.9).

Ash began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Drake, in 1997. He was promoted to defensive coordinator for the next two seasons before moving on to Iowa State in 2000.

Ash spent eight seasons over two different stints at Iowa State. Ash served as a graduate assistant with the Cyclones in 2000-01 before being promoted to defensive backs coach for a total of six seasons, adding the title of recruiting coordinator for 2006 and 2009. Ash spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at San Diego State as the defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator.

PERSONAL: A native of Ottumwa, Iowa, Ash earned his undergraduate degree from Drake in 1996 and was a two-time letter winner at defensive back for the Bulldogs…Ash completed his master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2005…Ash and his wife, Doreen, are the parents of a son, Brady, and daughter, Alexis. Ash also has a son, Tanner, and a daughter, Jacey.

D'ANTHONY BATISTE

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

14th Season in NFL (8 as a player) 6th Season with Raiders

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2018-19	Oakland Raiders	Strength and Conditioning Assistant
2020-	Las Vegas Raiders	Strength and Conditioning Assistant

D'Anthony Batiste enters his 14th NFL season in 2022 and sixth as a Raiders strength and conditioning assistant. He brings 12 years of playing experience as an offensive lineman to the post, competing at the sport's highest levels.

Using his experience as a former offensive lineman, Batiste has worked extensively with offensive and defensive lineman during his time with the Silver and Black, tailoring his training to increase their skill sets in the trenches.

In 2022, Batiste's strength training helped the offensive line unit tie for the ninth-fewest sacks allowed (35) in the NFL. The Raiders offensive line paved the way for 2,059 rushing yards, the most in a single season since 2011. He was also instrumental in helping to produce five Pro Bowlers in WR Davante Adams, DE Maxx Crosby, RB Josh Jacobs, QB Derek Carr and P AJ Cole, the most by the Raiders since 2016.

In 2021, Batiste helped the Raiders finish with a 10-7 record, earning their first postseason berth since 2016. He also saw the Silver and Black produce four Pro Bowlers in P AJ Cole, DE Maxx Crosby, LB Denzel Perry and WR Hunter Renfrow, marking the first career selection for all four players.

In 2020, Batiste saw RB Josh Jacobs and TE Darren Waller both earn their first Pro Bowl selections. Waller led the team in all major receiving categories, setting a new club record with 107 receptions and posting career highs in receiving yards (1,196) and touchdowns (nine), while Jacobs surpassed the 1,000-yard mark with 1,065 yards on the ground and set a career high with 12 touchdowns.

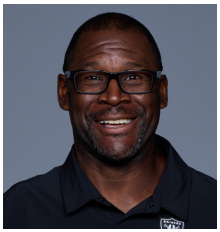

In 2019, Batiste's training helped T Trent Brown and C Rodney Hudson as they each earned Pro Bowl honors, while G Richie Incognito was named a Pro Bowl alternate. The Raiders offensive line also paved the way for Pro Bowl alternate Jacobs, who was the first-ever 1,000-yard rookie rusher in team history.

Batiste helped the 2019 rookie class successfully transition from college to the NFL as they combined to lead the NFL in scrimmage touchdowns (17), sacks (14.5), yards after the catch (676), rushing yards (1,167) and rushing touchdowns (seven) among their rookie peers.

In 2018, his work with the men upfront helped produced Pro Bowl alternates in Hudson and G/T Kelechi Osemele. Batiste also worked with TE Jared Cook as he earned his first Pro Bowl selection, while setting career highs in receptions (68), receiving yards (896) and touchdowns (six). Cook tied for third-most among tight ends with four 100-yard games, including a franchise best performance among his position group in Week 1 with 180 yards.

Batiste came to the Raiders following his playing career in the Canadian Football League for the Edmonton Eskimos. He played in 56 games for Edmonton, helping the team capture the Grey Cup in 2015.

PERSONAL: Native of Marksville, La. …Has numerous certifications, including USAW Level 1, personal training, health and wellness, FMS Level 1, YBT, CPR and AED…Earned his bachelor's degree from Louisiana-Lafayette in May 2022…Spent eight seasons as an NFL offensive lineman, playing for the Dallas Cowboys, Arizona Cardinals, Atlanta Falcons, Denver Broncos, Washington Redskins, Carolina Panthers and Pittsburgh Steelers…Appeared in 37 career games and made 14 starts…Made 10 starts with the Cardinals in 2012 and four starts for the Falcons in 2007…Played in 56 games from 2014-17 with the Edmonton Eskimos and was named a West Division All-Star at right tackle and the team's most outstanding offensive lineman in 2015…Originally joined the Eskimos in 2006 before the club let him out of his contract to join the Dallas Cowboys…Went undrafted in 2004…Played collegiately at Louisiana-Lafayette, appearing in 39 games and earned second-team All-Sun Belt honors as a senior in 2003.

EDGAR BENNETT

WIDE RECEIVERS

31st Season in NFL (8 as a player) 6th Season with Raiders

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2005-10	Green Bay Packers	Running Backs
2011-14	Green Bay Packers	Wide Receivers
2015-17	Green Bay Packers	Offensive Coordinator
2018-19	Oakland Raiders	Wide Receivers
2020-	Las Vegas Raiders	Wide Receivers

Edgar Bennett, now entering his 31st season in the NFL, embarks upon his sixth year with the Silver and Black as the club's wide receivers coach.

In 2022, Bennett coached WR Davante Adams to his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl selection. In his first season with the Raiders, Adams set a franchise record with 1,526 receiving yards on 100 receptions, while his 14 receiving touchdowns ranked as the most in the NFL and tied for second-most in a single season in franchise history. Bennett also coached WR Mack Hollins to career highs with 57 receptions, 690 receiving yards and four touchdowns. His position group accounted for 21 of the team's 28 receiving touchdowns, the ninth-most receiving touchdowns by any team in the league and a seven-spot improvement from the previous season's ranking.

Under Bennett's guidance in 2021, WR Hunter Renfrow put together one of his greatest seasons in franchise history by a Raiders wide receiver to earn his first Pro Bowl selection. In his third season, Renfrow joined Hall of Fame WR Tim Brown as the only Raiders wide receiver to eclipse 100-plus receptions with a career-high 103. Bennett also saw Renfrow set a career high with 1,039 receiving yards, becoming the first Raiders wide receiver to surpass 1,000-plus receiving yards since 2016.

In 2020, Bennett tooled a wide receiver group that was paramount to the offense's success. The position group posted 14 receiving touchdowns on the campaign and recorded an NFL-best average of 15.2 yards per reception. It marked the highest average yards per reception by a Raiders wide receiving corps since 2004.

Highlighted among the receivers was newly acquired WR Nelson Agholor, who posted 48 receptions for a career-high 896 receiving yards while tying a career high with eight touchdown receptions. Agholor recorded six touchdown receptions of at least 20 yards this past season, including five of which that were at least 40 yards, ranking second and tied for fourth in the NFL among all players, respectively. His 18.7 yards per receptions marked a career high, as he finished first in the AFC and second in the NFL, while being etched in Raiders lore as the 10th-best mark all-time.

Bennett also coached Renfrow to a successful sophomore campaign, as he recorded then career highs in receptions (56) and receiving yards (656), while adding two touchdown receptions. Renfrow's 105 receptions are the third-most by a player through his first two seasons in Raiders history.

Bennett's ability to develop young players was magnified in his second season with the Silver and Black in 2019, as rookie receiver Renfrow recorded one of the most prolific campaigns by a rookie receiver in club history. Renfrow logged 49 receptions for 605 yards and four touchdowns, marks that rank second, sixth and tied for fourth, respectively, in franchise annals among all rookie players. Under Bennett, Renfrow became a third-down machine, notching 16 first-down receptions on third down, the second-most in the NFL among rookies in 2019. Furthermore, Renfrow was one of two players in the NFL, joining WR DeSean Jackson, to tally multiple receiving touchdowns of at least 50 yards on third down.

With another year of constant change at the wide receiver position, Bennett worked to provide a seamless transition between his receivers and QB Derek Carr, who set career highs in yards, completion percentage, yards per attempt and passer rating, while connecting with 10 different wide receivers throughout the year. Bennett was also tasked with mentoring newly acquired free agent signing WR Tyrell Williams. Although hampered by a foot injury for the majority of the season, Williams led the club with six touchdown receptions in addition to his 42 catches and 651 receiving yards. Among players with at least 40 receptions in 2019, Williams' average of 15.5 yards per reception was tied for 13th-most in the NFL.

In Bennett's first season with the Raiders in 2018, he oversaw a group of wide receivers that provided flexibility and interchangeability in the offense. Leading the way was WR Jordy Nelson, who spent 10 years in Green Bay under Bennett. Nelson finished second on the team in both yards (739) and touchdown receptions (three), while finishing third in receptions (63). Under Bennett's direction, WR Seth Roberts set career highs in both receptions (45) and yards (494), while adding two scores to his campaign.

Bennett came aboard the staff in 2018 having spent the previous 17 seasons with the Packers' club in multiple roles, serving as the team's offensive coordinator from 2015-17, wide receivers coach from 2011-14, running backs coach from 2005-10 and as the team's director of player development from 2001-04. Bennett also spent five seasons playing running back for the Packers. As a player and coach, Bennett has won 11 division titles, appeared in six conference championships and won both Super Bowl XXXI in 1996 and XLV in 2010.

During his tenure as the offensive coordinator, Bennett helped orchestrate an offense that finished with 96 touchdown passes since 2015, the most in the NFC and second most in the NFL during that time frame despite missing All-Pro quarterback Aaron Rodgers for nine games in 2017 due to injury. As a former running back, Bennett was able to guide his running back corps to an average of 4.41 yards per carry in the same time frame, a mark that ranked sixth in the NFL. Additionally, Bennett led an offense that ranked eighth since 2015 with a 58.8 percent conversion rate in the red zone, including a third-place finish in 2017 with a success rate of 61.9 percent.

In 2017, Bennett's offense ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per rush (4.47 avg.), despite having to shuffle the backfield due to numerous injuries, including starting RB Ty Montgomery who missed eight games. The offense also tied for sixth in the NFC with 25 touchdown passes on the season.

Guided by Bennett, Rodgers put together one of the most prolific passing seasons in club history in 2016, tossing for 4,428 yards, completing over 400 passes for a completion percentage of 65.7, while adding an NFL-high 40 touchdowns through the air to just seven interceptions. In wake of Rodgers' success under Bennett's tutelage, Nelson and WR Davante Adams combined for a league-best 26 touchdown receptions. Nelson led the league with 14 scores of his own, adding 1,257 yards receiving and 97 receptions, the fifth most in the Packers history, en route to earning the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year Award. Additionally, the offense as a whole averaged 27.0 points per game, the fourth-best mark in the league.

At the helm of the offense for the first time in 2015, Bennett emphasized ball security, as the team's 17 turnovers were the fifth fewest in club history and also ranked fourth fewest in the NFL that year. Bennett's primary focus was most apparent with Rodgers, as he posted the third-best pass interception percentage (1.4) in the NFL, throwing just seven interceptions on 572 attempts. Bennett oversaw an offense that saw its quarterback post over 30 touchdown passes (31) for the fifth time in career. Green Bay also rostered four wide receivers that notched at least 50 receptions in the same season, just the third time (1983 and 2002) the feat has been accomplished since 1940. The offense's incredibly efficient play helped guide the club to a franchise record seventh consecutive playoff berth (2009-15). From 2011-14, Bennett put together one of the finest receiving trios in the NFL, as WRs Randall Cobb, James Jones and Nelson made the Packers one of just three teams to roster three receivers with at least 20 receiving scores each during that span. The three combined for 92 receiving touchdowns. Nelson accounted for 43 of those, the fourth-most in the NFL since 2011 and also finished sixth in the league with 4,841 receiving yards in the same time frame.

In 2014, Bennett mentored Cobb and Nelson to one of the greatest single-season performances the NFL has seen by two teammates, as they became the first duo in league history to each record 90-plus receptions, 1,200-plus yards and 12-plus receiving touchdowns. Nelson's 1,519 receiving yards set a club record, while his 98 receptions were fourth-most in franchise annals. For Cobb, it was the first 1,000-yard season of his career. The two both earned Pro Bowl selections after becoming the first pair of Packers players to notch at least 90 receptions in the same season.

A 2013 campaign saw Green Bay receiving corps account for 3,319 yards receiving, the second most in a single season in club history, despite dealing with the loss of Rodgers for seven games due to injury. With four different quarterbacks taking the snap from under center that season, the group of receivers still managed to average 207.4 yards per game, second most in the league.

In 2012, Jones led the NFL with 14 receiving touchdowns, becoming the first Packer to lead the league in receiving scores since WR Shannon Sharpe (18) accomplished the feat in 1994. With the absence of two of their top wide receivers for multiple games, Bennett helped second-year receiver Cobb emerge as a versatile threat, as he led the team with 80 receptions and 954 yards, while also hauling in eight touchdown passes.

In 2011, the receivers posted some of the best numbers in club history, accounting for a team-record 3,667 yards receiving and 38 touchdowns, the second-highest touchdown total in NFL history by a receiving group at the time. Bennett coached Nelson to a career-high 15 touchdown receptions, the third most in team history, adding 68 receptions for 1,263 yards (18.6 avg.), marking the second-best receiving average in the league that year among wide receivers with at least 50 receptions. WR Greg Jennings earned a Pro Bowl selection that season, posting 949 yards and nine touchdowns in just 13 games played.

Prior to his move to wide receivers, Bennett served six years as a running backs coach for the Packers from 2005-10. In his six years, Bennett coached running backs to 1,000-yard seasons three different times.

In his last season as running backs coach, Bennett oversaw the development of sixth-round draft pick RB James Starks, who set a franchise rookie playoff-record with 123 rushing yards in 2010 in the NFC Wild Card round and was instrumental down the stretch during the Packers' Super Bowl XLV title run. From 2008-09, Bennett coached RB Ryan Grant to over 1,200 yards on the ground in consecutive seasons, just the third tailback in team history to accomplish the feat. Grant also finished second in the NFC in 2009 with 11 rushing scores, the most by a Packers running back since 2003.

Bennett was key to the initial progress of Grant in 2007, Grant's first season with the team, as he totaled five 100-yard performances and set a Green Bay postseason record with 201 yards on the ground against the Seahawks. In 2006, Bennett helped lead the Packers' all-time leading rusher RB Ahman Green to his final 1,000-yard season. Due to injuries in Year 1 as running backs coach in 2005, Bennett mentored undrafted rookie RB Samkon Gado to the second-most productive season by a first-year running back in club history, as Gado posted 582 yards and six scores on the ground.

Prior to his move to coaching, Bennett spent four years in the Packers front office, serving as the team's director of player development from 2001-04. Bennett and his developmental cast around him were recognized in 2003 as the NFC's best player development department.

CARMEN BRICILLO

OFFENSIVE LINE

5th Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

Carmen Bricillo embarks on his second season as the offensive line coach with the Las Vegas Raiders, entering into his 20th year of coaching experience, his fifth at the NFL level.

In his first season with the Raiders in 2022, despite starting seven different offensive line combinations and not having a consistent front five until Week 5, Bricillo led an offensive line unit that only allowed 35 sacks, tied for the ninth fewest in the NFL. Under his leadership, the offensive line improved from allowing 40 sacks in 2021 (19th in the NFL) to 35 in 2022 (t-9th in the NFL). Bricillo's unit also paved the way 2,059 rushing yards by the Raiders offense, the most in a single season since 2011. Raiders rushers were also stuffed for a loss or no gain only 68 times in 2022, the fewest in the NFL.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2003-04	Indiana Area High School	Assistant Coach
2005	Duquesne	Offensive Line
2006	Akron	Director of Video Services

2010-18	Youngstown State	Offensive Line
2019	New England Patriots	Coaching Assistant
2020-21	New England Patriots	Offensive Line
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Offensive Line

Bricillo entered the NFL coaching ranks with the New England Patriots in 2019, serving as a coaching assistant before being promoted to offensive line coach in 2020-21. During his three years in New England, Bricillo helped the Patriots earn one AFC East title and make two playoff appearances.

In 2021, Bricillo helped the Patriots finished eighth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (126.5) and sixth in points per game (27.2). Additionally, Bricillo's line helped pave the way for RB Damien Harris, who set career highs with 202 carries for 929 yards and 15 touchdowns. Harris tied for second in the league with 15 rushing touchdowns, while recording the second most rushing touchdowns in franchise history. Collectively, the Patriots recorded 24 rushing touchdowns in 2021 behind Bricillo's line, a mark that tied third most in franchise history.

Bricillo helped the Patriots finished fourth in the NFL with 146.6 rushing yards per game in 2020. New England's 146.6 rushing yards per game also ranked seventh in franchise history, marking their best rushing attack since 1983.

From 2010-18, Bricillo spent nine years coaching the offensive line at Youngstown State. During his time with the program, Bricillo coached 15 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections and the Penguins advanced to the 2016 NCAA FCS National Championship Game. Behind his offensive line, the offense set multiple school years during his tenure including total yards (6,766 in 2016), yards per game (458.6 in 2011), rushing yards (3,883 in 2016), completion percentage (64.2 percent in 2011), passing yards (2,883 in 2016), passing touchdowns (27 in 2011) and points per game (36.2 in 2011).

Prior to his time at Youngstown State, Bricillo spent the 2009 season as an offensive assistant coach at Illinois and worked at Akron as director of video services in 2006 and a coaching assistant from 2007-08. Bricillo helped with the offensive line with Illinois and worked with the tackles and tight ends as a coaching assistant at Akron.

Bricillo began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Duquesne, as the offensive line coach in 2005. Bricillo saw the team posted a 7-3 record and win a conference title that season, while also guiding four linemen to all-conference honors.

Prior to joining the staff at Duquesne, Bricillo spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Indiana Area High School.

PERSONAL: Native of Shelocta, Pa. …Played center at Duquesne, earning first-team all-conference honors in 1995 and 1996…Won two league championships while playing at Duquesne, including the school's first-ever Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference title in 1995… Earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Duquesne…Earned his master's degree in sports science and coaching from Akron...Bricillo and his wife, Megan, have a daughter named Rilyn.

CAMERON CLEMMONS

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

4th Season in NFL 4th Season with Raiders

Cameron Clemmons enters his fourth season with the Raiders and his third as the team's assistant offensive line coach. He previously held the role of offensive quality control coach with Las Vegas in 2020.

In 2022, Clemmons supported an offensive line that only allowed 35 sacks, tied for the ninth fewest in the NFL. The offensive line also paved the way for 2,059 rushing yards by the Raiders offense, the most in a single season since 2011. The line also helped RB Josh Jacobs lead the NFL with 1,653 rush yards, just the third time in Raiders history a back has led the league in rushing.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2015	Eastern Kentucky	Offensive Intern
2016-18	Tennessee	Graduate Assistant
2019	Tennessee	Offensive Quality Control Analyst
2020	Las Vegas Raiders	Offensive Quality Control
2021-	Las Vegas Raiders	Assistant Offensive Line

In 2021, Clemmons worked with an offensive line that helped pave the way for the sixth-ranked passing offense (268.6 yards per game) in the NFL. Despite constant shuffling on the unit, the offense recorded a 4,000-yard passer and 1,000-yard receiver. The offensive line helped RB Josh Jacobs rank in the top-4 in the league in rushing yards per game (94.0) over the final four weeks of the season (Weeks 15-18). Clemmons saw C Andre James, G John Simpson and T Brandon Parker make career highs in starts, while G/T Alex Leatherwood became the first rookie offensive lineman to start in every contest since 2018.

In 2020, Clemmons assisted a tight ends unit that led the league in receptions (128) and yards after catch (661) and ranked second in receiving yards (1,419) and receiving touchdowns (13).

With Clemmons' help, TE Darren Waller posted one of the most historic receiving campaigns in franchise history and earned his first Pro Bowl selection after posting career highs in receiving yards (1,196) and touchdowns (nine), while setting a new club record with 107 receptions.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Clemmons spent four years coaching at the collegiate level with the University of Tennessee (2016-18) and Eastern Kentucky University (2015). Under Clemmons' guidance in 2019, G Trey Smith earned first-team All-SEC honors, while both T Wanya Morris and T Darnell Wright garnered freshman All-American and freshman All-SEC accolades in 2019. The program earned its first bowl game appearance since 2016, completing the season with a win over Indiana in the Gator Bowl.

Clemmons first joined Tennessee as a graduate assistant from 2016-18. In 2016, Clemmons primarily mentored the running backs, guiding RBs Alvin Kamara and John Kelly each to 500-plus rushing yards on the season. Kamara was selected in the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft, while Kelly was drafted in the sixth round in 2018.

While in his assistantship with the Volunteers, Clemmons participated in the Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship with the New England Patriots in 2017, working with club throughout the offseason program, minicamp and training camp to gain coaching experience.

Clemmons began his coaching career in 2015 as an offensive intern at Eastern Kentucky.

PERSONAL: A native of Mt. Juliet, Tenn. …Signed as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers in 2015…Played one season in the Canadian Football League with the Ottawa Redblacks following his stint with the Chargers…Four-year starter at Western Kentucky (2010-14), playing in 46 games for the Hilltoppers and earning All-Conference USA honors as a senior, while also starting at offensive tackle in the East-West Shrine All-Star Game…Earned a bachelor's degree from Western Kentucky in biochemistry before completing his master's degree in agricultural leadership, education and communications at Tennessee in 2018.

MATT EDWARDS

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT, PASS RUSH SPECIALIST

6th Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

Matt Edwards enters his second season as defensive assistant/pass rush specialist for the Raiders. Edwards joined the Silver and Black in 2022 having spent the previous four years with the Tennessee Titans, holding multiple positions during his tenure.

In his first season with Las Vegas, Edwards helped guide DE Maxx Crosby to his second Pro Bowl selection after career bests in tackles (88), tackles for loss (22) and sacks (12.5). Crosby's 88 tackles are the most in a single season by a Raiders defensive lineman and he became only the second defensive lineman in franchise history to record 20+ tackles for loss in a single season. Edwards also worked closely with DE Chandler Jones, helping Jones earn AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in Week 13 after posting a three-sack game. Jones finished second on the team with 4.5 sacks and 15 quarterback hits.

In 2021, Edwards returned to assistant special teams coach after holding the title for each of his first two seasons (2018-19) with the Titans. Edwards helped coach K Randy Bullock, who finished ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, while P Brett Kern had the league's third best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1). WR/RS Chester Rogers ranked fifth in the NFL with a 9.8-yard punt return average, the best by a Titans player since 2012, and the kickoff coverage unit ranked eighth in the league (20.3-yard average).

In 2020, he served as the defensive assistant for a unit that ranked seventh in the NFL with 23 takeaways, which tied for the most by a Titans' defense since 2013. Edwards also helped coach the defense to tally 15 interceptions, which ranked seventh in the NFL and was the most by the Titans since 2012.

In 2019, Edwards served as the assistant special teams coach for a unit that tied New England for the league lead with four total blocked kicks and punts. He also helped coach Kern to his third consecutive Pro Bowl after leading the NFL with 37 punts placed inside the 20-yard line and recording a 43.1-yard net average on punts, ranking second in team history.

In 2018, the Titans set a new NFL record by averaging 32 yards per kickoff return. Edwards helped coach WR/RS Darius Jennings as he set a franchise record with a 31.7-yard kickoff return average. He also saw Kern set a team record with 39 punts inside the 20-yard line.

Prior to the NFL, Edwards spent 15 seasons coaching collegiately. From 2014-17, he served as the defensive coordinator for Tiffin University. He helped Tiffin to consecutive winning seasons in his final two years. In 2017, the Dragons led the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in sacks and tackles for loss.

Edwards served as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach at Florida Atlantic University in 2013.

In 2011, Edwards returned to his alma mater at Miami (Ohio) and served as the defensive ends coach before adding the responsibility of special teams coordinator and linebackers coach in 2012.

After starting his coaching career in 2003 as the linebackers coach at the College of Wooster, Edwards spent the next seven seasons working at Kent State, beginning as a graduate assistant (2004-05) before being promoted to defensive line coach (2006-10).

MATT FEENEY

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

2nd Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

Matt Feeney enters his second season as the defensive quality control coach for the Raiders.

In 2022, Feeney worked closely with the linebackers and aided in the development of undrafted rookie linebacker Luke Masterson, who finished with 50 tackles (26 solo), ranking third-most in the NFL among undrafted rookies and second-most in a single season in Raiders' history by an undrafted rookie. With Feeney's assistance, the Raiders saw four undrafted free agents play significant snaps on defense in Masterson, CB Sam Webb, S Isaiah Pola-Mao and LB Darien Butler.

Prior to joining the Silver and Black, Feeney spent three seasons (2019-21) as the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at the University of Akron.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2014	John Carroll	Linebackers
2015-16	John Carroll	Special Teams Coordinator/ Linebackers
2017	Tennessee at Chattanooga	Linebackers
2018	Tennessee at Chattanooga	Defensive Coordinator/ Outside Linebackers
2019	Akron	Defensive Coordinator/ Inside Linebackers
2020-21	Akron	Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Defensive Quality Control

During his tenure at Akron, Feeney mentored LB John Lako and CB Alvin Davis Jr. to All-Mid-American Conference honors in 2019. Lako received first-team All-MAC recognition as he was the Zips' defensive leader for the second consecutive season, finishing with 138 tackles and recording double-digit tackles in nine games. Davis was the top defensive back on the team, recording 79 tackles and garnering third-team All-MAC honors after being named a first-team All-MAC selection in 2018 and second-team selection in 2017. In 2020, DB AJ Watts was named third-team All-MAC.

Prior to that, Feeney spent two seasons at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. He served as the team's defensive coordinator in 2018 after coaching the linebackers in 2017.

In 2018, Feeney's defense was ranked No. 1 in the Southern Conference in scoring defense (18.5), pass defense (172.0) and fumbles recovered (20). Under Feeney's tutelage, DL Isaiah Mack earned Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors after finishing second in the conference and 19th in the FCS with 8.5 sacks. In total, Feeney saw six players from his defensive unit earn All-Conference honors. Mack and CB Kareem Orr both signed with the Tennessee Titans as undrafted free agents in 2019.

In 2017, Feeney's defense ranked No.1 in the Southern Conference and No. 25 in the FCS in total defense (326.4). He mentored LB Tae Davis, who converted from safety and finished his senior season with 74 tackles in nine games and was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Cleveland Browns.

Feeney entered the collegiate coaching rankings with his alma mater, John Carroll University, where he coached linebacker from 2014-16. During each of his three seasons, the Blue Streaks defense finished in the top-15 among all Division III schools.

In 2016, Feeney helped LB Mason McKenrick earn All-OAC first team honors and be named a first-team All-America selection. LB Andy Bryan earned first-team All-OAC honors in 2015 under Feeney's guidance. In 2014, he coached LB Kevin Cope to All-American honors, while LB Jimmy King earned second-team All-League honors.

PERSONAL: Feeney was a standout linebacker and team captain at John Carroll University from 2010-13, earning the Gene Slaughter Most Outstanding Linebacker Award as a senior as the top linebacker in the Ohio Athletic Conference…He earned his degree in marketing… Feeney and his wife, Katie, have three daughters.

PATRICK GRAHAM

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

15th Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

Patrick Graham enters his second season as defensive coordinator with the Silver and Black, bringing with him 14 years of experience in the NFL, including four years as a defensive coordinator.

In his NFL career, Graham has coached in the playoffs in eight seasons, winning seven division titles, two conference championships and one Super Bowl (XLIX).

In his first season with the Raiders, Graham oversaw a unit that scored three defensive touchdowns, tied for the third-most in the NFL in 2022. His defense ranked 19th in rushing yards allowed per game (122.8) and saw a slight improvement in tackles for loss (68) and stuffs (39) from the 2021 season.

Under Graham's guidance, DE Maxx Crosby was named to his second career Pro Bowl after registering career highs in tackles (88), tackles for loss (22) and sacks (12.5). Crosby's 88 tackles are the most in a single season by a Raiders defensive lineman and he became only the second defensive lineman in franchise history to record 20+ tackles for loss in a single season. Graham also aided in the development of several young players who got significant playing time, including undrafted rookie CB Sam Webb, who posted 33 tackles, the fifth-most in the NFL among undrafted rookies. LB Luke Masterson finished with 50 tackles (26 solo), ranking third-most in the NFL among undrafted rookies and second-most in a single season in Raiders' history by an undrafted rookie.

2019	Miami Dolphins	Defensive Coordinator
2020-21	New York Giants	Assistant Head Coach/ Defensive Coordinator
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Defensive Coordinator

Graham served his second stint with the New York Giants from 2020-21, serving as the club's assistant head coach/defensive coordinator.

In 2021, Graham oversaw a defense that tied for fourth in the league in passes defensed (83), a mark that ranked 12th in franchise history, and tied for 12th in interceptions (15). Graham's defense was effective against the pass, holding teams to 225.8 passing yards per game, which ranked 15th in the NFL.

Under Graham's guidance, the Giants defense improved significantly in 2020, ranking ninth with 357 points allowed, which marked 94 fewer than their total in 2019. The defense was 12th in the NFL by allowing 349.3 yards per game after finishing 27th at 377.3 yards the previous season. It marked the club's best defensive finish since 2016 when they ranked 10th in the league with 339.7 yards a game. Additionally, the Giants defense allowed an average 5.3 yards a play in 2020, the NFL's ninth-lowest figure.

After placing 20th in the NFL in 2019, Graham helped the rushing defense rank 10th 111.4 yards a game and mark a season best since 2016 when they tied for third at 88.6 rushing yards a game. The pass defense improved from 28th in the NFL in 2019 to tie for 16th with 237.9 yards allowed a game, the team's best since 2013 when the Giants allowed 223.3 yards a game and ranked 10th in the league. Graham saw the Giants record 40 sacks in 2020, their highest total since 2014. DE Leonard Williams led the team with 11.5 sacks, the most by a Giants' player since OLB Jason Pierre-Paul's 14.5 in 2014.

With Graham's direction, veterans ILB Blake Martinez, Pro Bowl CB James Bradberry and S Logan Ryan excelled in their first season in a new defense. Martinez led the Giants and ranked third in the NFL with 151 tackles (86 solo). Bradberry started all 15 games in which he played, leading the team with three interceptions and tied for second in the NFL with 18 passes defensed. Ryan, a cornerback most of his career, started 13 games at safety in Graham's defense and finished second on the team with 92 tackles (67), one sack, one interception, nine passes defensed, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Graham earned his first defensive coordinator role with the Miami Dolphins in 2019. He led a unit that had a constantly evolving cast of players because of roster transactions and injuries. The secondary's best player, former first-round draft choice Minkah Fitzpatrick, was traded to Pittsburgh on Sept. 17. CB Xavien Howard played in five games before going on injured reserve with a knee injury. S Reshad Jones, a two-time Pro Bowler, and Bobby McCain appeared in four and nine games, respectively, before they were placed on the injured reserve list on the same day.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Graham spent the 2018 season as the Green Bay Packers inside linebackers coach and defensive run game coordinator. Under his tutelage, Martinez totaled 144 tackles (91) and a career-high five sacks. Green Bay's defense limited opponents to 4.3 yards per rush, which ranked 13th in the league.

In his first stint with the Giants, Graham coached the defensive line from 2016-17. In 2017, Graham helped Pierre-Paul lead the team with 8.5 sacks and DT Damon Harrison posted 76 tackles, which led all NFL defensive tackles.

In 2016, Graham's unit was instrumental in the Giants defense becoming the most improved in the NFL. The team allowed 158 fewer points and 1,290 fewer yards than it did in 2015. Their 17.8 points per game allowed was second in the NFL and the team's best since 2002.

Graham began his NFL coaching career in New England, where he spent seven seasons with the Patriots (2009-15), working with current Raiders head coach Josh McDaniels from 2012-15. He was a coaching assistant in 2009 before being promoted to defensive assistant in 2010 and linebackers coach in 2011. Graham moved to defensive line from 2012-13 before returning to linebackers in 2014-15.

During his tenure in New England, the Patriots won the AFC East title all seven season, the conference championship twice and Super Bowl XLIX. In his five years as a position coach (2011-15), New England led the NFL in takeaways (150) and was tied for fourth in sacks (214).

Graham's linebacker unit helped the team finish ninth in total yards allowed (339.4) in 2015 and 10th in points allowed (19.7). LB Jamie Collins tied a franchise record with five forced fumbles, earning the first Pro Bowl selection of his career and was named second-team All-Pro.

In 2014 Patriots finished their season with a Super Bowl victory against Seattle. Graham's linebackers helped the team's defense rank eighth in the league in points allowed (19.6) and ninth in rushing yards allowed (104.3) despite LBs Jerod Mayo and Don't'a Hightower missing 14 games combined due to injury. Collins led the team with 115 tackles (74) and also totaled four sacks and four forced fumbles.

Graham worked with the defensive line for the second straight year in 2013. Despite DT Vince Wilfork suffering a season ending injury in Week 4, New England's defense finished fifth in the league in sacks (48) and 10th in points allowed (21.1). The team's five top sack totals all came from defensive linemen, topped by DE Chandler Jones (11.5).

In 2012, Graham helped Wilfork earn his fifth Pro Bowl selection and first-team All-Pro honors, after totaling 59 tackles (41) with three sacks, two forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. Additionally, Graham helped Rob Ninkovich transitioned from linebacker to defensive end in 2012, while totaling eight sacks.

Graham's first season as a position coach was in 2011 with the linebackers. New England finished with a 13-3 record, winning the AFC Championship. Mayo led the team with 103 tackles (97) and became the first player in franchise history to total 100-plus tackles in each of his first four seasons.

In 2010, Graham served as a defensive assistant with the Patriots, who finished second in the NFL with 38 takeaways and eighth in points allowed (19.6). He began his NFL coaching career in 2009 as a coaching assistant with New England.

Graham joined New England following two seasons (2007-08) as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, where he worked with the defense. He spent three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach at Richmond, mentoring tight ends from 2005-06 and the defensive line in 2004.

Graham began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Wagner (2002-03), while he pursued an MBA with a concentration in finance. He coached the junior varsity team to an undefeated season, while also serving as strength and conditioning coach and academic coordinator.

DEUCE GRUDEN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

8th Season in NFL 6th Season with Raiders

Deuce Gruden enters his eighth season in the NFL and sixth with the Silver and Black as a strength and conditioning assistant.

Gruden works extensively with all position groups throughout the roster with a focus on strength training. His responsibilities also include assisting the athletic training staff in transitioning players back from injury into participation and managing performance data for the team's strength and conditioning staff.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2016	Washington Redskins	Strength and Conditioning Intern
2017	Washington Redskins	Strength and Conditioning Ass't
2018-19	Oakland Raiders	Strength and Conditioning Ass't
2020-	Las Vegas Raiders	Strength and Conditioning Ass't

Last season, Gruden saw five Raiders players make the Pro Bowl in WR Davante Adams, DE Maxx Crosby, RB Josh Jacobs, QB Derek Carr and P AJ Cole. He also assisted in the strength development of four undrafted free agents who made the final 53-man roster, tied for the most over the last 10 seasons by the Raiders and the most since 2019.

In 2021, Gruden helped the Raiders finish with a 10-7 record, earning their first postseason berth since 2016. Gruden also saw the Silver and Black produce four Pro Bowlers in P AJ Cole, DE Maxx Crosby, LB Denzel Perry and WR Hunter Renfrow, marking the first career selection for all four players.

Gruden's assistance in the weight room helped the Raiders produce two Pro Bowlers in 2020, as RB Josh Jacobs and TE Darren Waller each earned the nod for the first time in their careers. Waller set a new club record with 107 receptions and posted career highs in receiving yards (1,196) and touchdowns (nine), while Jacobs surpassed the 1,000-yard mark with 1,065 yards on the ground and a career-high 12 touchdowns.

In 2019, Gruden continued his work with implementing the team's strength and conditioning program and saw T Trent Brown and C Rodney Hudson earn Pro Bowl honors, while G Richie Incognito, FB Alec Ingold, Jacobs and Waller were named as alternates. Gruden also saw the 2019 rookie class combine to lead the NFL in scrimmage touchdowns (17), sacks (14.5), yards after the catch (676), rushing yards (1,167), rushing touchdowns (seven) and rushing first downs (60) among their rookie peers. The Raiders rookies also ranked second in receptions (107) and receiving yards (1,112).

During his first season with the Raiders in 2018, Gruden worked with TE Jared Cook as he earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2018. Gruden also helped train Hudson and G/T Kelechi Osemele in 2018, who were named Pro Bowl alternates.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Gruden served as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Washington Redskins for two seasons (2016-17). He was promoted as a full-time strength and conditioning coach during the 2017 offseason after initially joining Washington as a strength and conditioning intern during the 2016 season, a year in which the strength staff helped produce five Pro Bowlers.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Gruden played an integral role in training athletes at ESPN's Wide World of Sports in Orlando for Jon Gruden's QB Camp, where he led workouts for college players preparing to participate in the NFL Combine.

PERSONAL: Native of Tampa, Fla. …Earned a master's degree from A.T. 2016-18	Miami Dolphins	Quarterbacks
2019-20	New York Jets	Offensive Assistant
2021	New England Patriots	Quality Control/Quarterbacks
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Quarterbacks

In 2021, Hardegree played a key role in the development of rookie quarterback Mac Jones, who led all rookie quarterbacks with 3,801 passing yards and 22 touchdowns. Jones' 10 wins are the most in a season by a Patriots rookie quarterback and his completion percentage of 67.6 was the second-best for a rookie quarterback in a season in league history.

Prior to joining the Patriots, Hardegree spent two seasons as an offensive assistant with the New York Jets. Under the guidance of Hardegree in 2019, quarterback Sam Darnold improved in multiple categories from his rookie season, recording career highs in completion percentage (61.9 percent), passing yards (3,024) and touchdowns (19), while recording the league's 10th best passer rating (84.3) and compiling a 6-2 record over the final eight games of the season.

Before joining the Jets, Hardegree spent three seasons as quarterbacks coach of the Miami Dolphins. During his tenure, Hardegree worked with several different quarterbacks, including Jay Cutler, Matt Moore, Brock Osweiler and Ryan Tannehill.

In his first season with the Dolphins in 2016, Hardegree guided Tannehill to career highs with a 93.5 quarterback rating, 7.7 yards per attempt and a 67.1 completion percentage. Under Hardegree's tutelage, both Tannehill and Moore led the NFL in red zone passer rating. Tannehill posted a 119.7 mark to lead the league, while Moore finished second at 118.8.

Prior to the Dolphins, Hardegree spent one season in Chicago as an offensive assistant in 2015. He helped the Bears' rushing attack improve from 27th in 2014 to 11th in the NFL in 2015 as the unit averaged 25.6 more rushing yards per game. Bears quarterback Jay Cutler finished the 2015 season with the highest passer rating (92.3) of his career, while his 64.4 completion percentage, 2.3 interception percentage and 7.6 passing yards per attempt were all second best of his career.

Hardegree entered the NFL as an offensive quality control coach with the Denver Broncos in 2014. During that season, the Broncos offense ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring, averaging 30.1 points per contest. Quarterback Peyton Manning completed 66.2 percent of his passes for 4,727 yards and 39 touchdowns and set the NFL's then-career-passing touchdown record.

Prior to Denver, Hardegree spent three years (2011-13) as an intern at Louisiana State, working with the offense in 2012-13 and the defense in 2011. During his three seasons, LSU went 33-7 overall, winning the SEC in 2011 and advancing to the 2012 BCS National Championship game. In 2013, LSU ranked No. 23 in the FBS in scoring, averaging 35.8 points per game.

Hardegree began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Duke (2008-10), where he earned his master's degree.

TOM MCMAHON

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

17th Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

Tom McMahon enters his second season as special teams coordinator of the Las Vegas Raiders. In his first season with the Raiders in 2022, McMahon led a special teams unit that produced two Pro Bowl selections in K Daniel Carlson and P AJ Cole. Carlson broke an NFL record in 2022, making 11 field goals of 50+ yards and ranked tied for second in the league in field goal percentage (91.9). Cole finished fifth in the NFL in yards per punt (48.8) and downed 8.5 percent of his punts inside the five-yard line, the second best percentage in the NFL. Under McMahon, the special teams unit also only allowed 20.1 yards per kick return last season, the second lowest average in the NFL.

McMahon is a 31-year coaching veteran who has coached special teams at the NFL level for the past 16 seasons. Before joining the Raiders, he served four seasons as special teams coordinator for the Denver Broncos. Before joining the Broncos' staff, he worked as special teams coordinator for Indianapolis (2013-17), Kansas City (2012) and St. Louis (2009-11). During his time in the NFL, McMahon has coached seven players to Pro Bowl selections: K Daniel Carlson (2022), P AJ Cole (2022), P Dustin Colquitt (2012), LS Matt Overton (2013), K Adam Vinatieri (2014), P Pat McAfee (2014, '16) and LS Casey Kreiter (2018).

2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Special Teams Coordinator

McMahon has seen his units establish all-time records in several categories. His Falcons unit in 2008 set an NFL mark by allowing just 49 yards in punt returns for the season, while his Colts group in 2015 allowed only 156 yards on kickoff returns to set a league record. In addition, Vinatieri set the NFL record by making 44 consecutive field goal attempts in a stretch from 2015-16.

During McMahon's four seasons in Denver, K Brandon McManus has ranked among the league's best, making 103-of-124 field goals (83.1 percent) and 117-of-122 extra point attempts (95.9 percent). McManus ranked second in the NFL with 21 made field goals from 50-plus yards, including an NFL single-season record tying 10 made field goals from 50-plus yards in 2020.

In 2021, McMahon saw P Sam Martin place 28 punts inside the 20-yard line, which ranked tied for fifth-most in the league. Under his guidance, K Brandon McManus moved into second all-time for field goal percentage (82.7 percent), total points (837) and field goals made (195) in team history.

McMahon guided the Broncos to improvement in net punting and punt returns in 2020. He saw PR Diontae Spencer ranked second in the league among qualifying players in punt return yards (15.8 avg.) while P Sam Martin helped the Broncos improve from 26th to 14th in net punting. McMahon's unit was the only team in the AFC to earn three Special Teams of the Week Honors in 2020 with key performances from McManus (Week 4 and 6) and Spencer (Week 14). McManus, who had three games with two 50-plus yard field goals, became the first kicker in NFL history with two games with a pair of 50-plus yard made field goals in the fourth quarter or overtime of the same season.

In 2019, Denver's special teams units ranked third in the NFL in kickoff return average (25.4 yards per return) while allowing the sixth fewest yards on kickoffs (439). Spencer was named a Pro Bowl alternate in his first season after finishing third in the league in kickoff return average (29.1) and tied for seventh in punt return average (8.0) among qualifying players.

In its first year under McMahon's guidance in 2018, Denver's special teams units improved in several significant categories. The Broncos led the NFL with four blocked kicks and were one of only two teams to block a field goal attempt (2), an extra point attempt and a punt. LS Casey Kreiter was selected to his first career Pro Bowl that season.

The Colts featured one of the NFL's most consistent special teams units during McMahon's five seasons in Indianapolis, ranking in the league's Top 5 in field goal percentage (89.6 / 3rd), net punting average (41.3 / 3rd), gross punting average (46.4 / 4th) and kickoff return average (24.5 / 5th) during that span. Three Colts special-teamers combined for five Pro Bowl selections playing for McMahon: punter Pat McAfee (2014, '16), kicker Adam Vinatieri (2014) and long snapper Matt Overton (2013).

In 2017, the Colts were one of just four clubs to produce multiple special-teams takeaways without committing a turnover on those units. Indianapolis was also one of just two teams to allow fewer than 100 punt return yards (80) as punter Rigoberto Sanchez ranked fourth in the NFL with his 42.6-yard net punting average that broke the NFL rookie record. McAfee set a Colts record with a league-leading 49.3-yard gross punting average under McMahon in 2016 to earn his second career Pro Bowl selection. Vinatieri made his first 19 field goals that season to set an NFL record with 44 consecutive field goals made dating to the previous year. In 2014, McMahon helped Vinatieri (30-of-31 FGs) and McAfee (42.8 net avg., 30 punts inside the 20, 70 kickoff touchbacks) become just the fourth kicker-punter duo to both earn First Team All-Pro recognition from the Associated Press.

With the Chiefs in 2012, McMahon's special-teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL with three takeaways. Punter Dustin Colquitt earned his first career Pro Bowl selection after ranking second in the league with 45 punts placed inside the 20.

Coaching special teams for the St. Louis Rams from 2009-11, McMahon worked with talented returner Danny Amendola, who led the NFL with 3,572 combined return yards (812 PR / 2,760 KR) during his first two NFL seasons (2009-10).

McMahon began his NFL career as an assistant special teams coach for Atlanta from 2007-08. During his two years with the Falcons, Jerious Norwood ranked third in the NFL with a combined 2,628 kick return yards.

Before joining the NFL, McMahon coached outside linebackers and special teams at the University of Louisville in 2006. That season, kicker Art Carmody was named the Lou Groza Award winner as the nation's top kicker after converting 21-of-25 field goals (.840) and all 60 extra point attempts for 123 total points.

McMahon spent 11 seasons at Utah State University from 1995-2005 in a variety of roles. After beginning his tenure with the Aggies as a graduate assistant from 1995-97, he went on to serve as special teams/linebackers coach from 1998-2000 and defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator from 2001-05.

PERSONAL: A native of Helena, Mont., McMahon got his start in coaching at his alma mater, Carroll College, in 1992 as the school's secondary coach…He spent one year as an assistant coach at Bozeman (Mont.) High School in 1993 before returning to Carroll to coach the secondary in 1994…McMahon is married to his wife, Kim, and the couple has three children: Dawson, Emmett and Quincy.

A.J. NEIBEL

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

19th Season in NFL 11th Season with Raiders

A.J. Neibel, who holds 18 years of NFL experience in the sports performance and strength and conditioning realm, enters his fifth season as head strength and conditioning coach of the Silver and Black.

Neibel oversees all elements of the Raiders' strength and conditioning program, developing and implementing a comprehensive strategy for all position groups throughout the roster. Neibel directs all strength training, manages the team's performance data and works closely with the athletic training staff to transition players back from injury into participation.

Last season, Neibel's staff helped produce five Pro Bowlers in WR Davante Adams, DE Maxx Crosby, RB Josh Jacobs, QB Derek Carr and P AJ Cole, the most by the Raiders since 2016. He saw Jacobs total 1,653 yards on the ground to become the first Raider to lead the NFL in rushing since 1985, while Adams set a franchise record with 1,516 receiving yards and lead the NFL with 14 touchdowns through the air. Neibel also excelled in helping the 2022 undrafted free agent class, with four players making the 53-man roster out of training camp, tied for the most over the last 10 seasons by the Raiders and the most since 2019.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2003-08	Oakland Raiders	Strength and Conditioning/ Sports Medicine Associate
2009-10	San Francisco Giants	Strength and Conditioning Consultant
2011-12	Atlanta Falcons	Strength and Conditioning Assistant
2013-15	Atlanta Falcons	Head Strength and Conditioning
2016	Atlanta Falcons	Athletic Performance Manager
2017-18	Jacksonville Jaguars	Athletic Performance Specialist/ Physical Therapy Assistant
2019	Oakland Raiders	Head Strength and Conditioning
2020-	Las Vegas Raiders	Head Strength and Conditioning

In 2021, Neibel and his staff's work with the team helped the Raiders earn a 10-7 record, clinching the club's first postseason berth since 2016. Under Neibel's guidance, the Raiders produced four first-time Pro Bowlers in P AJ Cole, DE Maxx Crosby, LB Denzel Perryman and WR Hunter Renfrow. Renfrow set career highs in catches (103), receiving yards (1,038) and touchdowns (nine), while Cole averaged a league- and career-high 50.0 yards per punt, a mark that ranks eighth all-time in NFL history. Additionally, Crosby and Perryman anchored a defensive unit that ranked sixth in the AFC with just 337.2 yards per game allowed.

In 2020, Neibel and his staff helped field a team that produced two offensive Pro Bowlers in RB Josh Jacobs and TE Darren Waller, while also seeing numerous other veteran players establish career highs in appearances, starts and statistical milestones. Jacobs appeared in a career-high 15 contests, setting personal bests in carries (273), rushing touchdowns (12), receptions (33) and receiving yards (238).

In part due to Neibel's strength program, Waller was once again able to compete in all 16 contests for the second consecutive campaign. He put together one of the most prolific campaigns by a player in Raiders history, compiling 1,196 receiving yards and nine touchdowns, while breaking Hall of Famer WR Tim Brown's single-season receptions record by tallying 107 on the year, fourth-most in the NFL and most among all tight ends. Waller became just the sixth tight end in NFL history to surpass 100 receptions in a single season, while also hauling in at least five passes in an incredible 13 contests and tallying five 100-yard contests.

In his return to the Silver and Black in 2019 after previously spending six seasons with the Silver and Black from 2003-08, Neibel helped produce two Pro Bowlers in T Trent Brown and C Rodney Hudson. The two paved the way for rookie running back Jacobs, who became the first-ever 1,000-yard rookie rusher in team history, while helping the club surrender just 29 sacks on the year, good for eighth-fewest in the NFL.

Neibel and his staff also excelled in helping the 2019 rookie class make the transition from college to the NFL, as the Raiders rookies combined to lead the NFL in scrimmage touchdowns (17) amongst their rookie peers. The Raiders rookies also ranked first in sacks (14.5), yards after the catch (676), rushing yards (1,167), rushing touchdowns (seven) and rushing first downs (60), while ranking second in receptions (107) and receiving yards (1,112).

Neibel's return to the Raiders came after spending the previous two seasons (2017-18) with the Jacksonville Jaguars as the club's athletic performance specialist/physical therapy assistant. In his role with the Jaguars, Neibel assisted both the medical and strength and conditioning staff transition players from injury back into participation, while helping manage performance data for the team's coaching staff. The team garnered eight Pro Bowl selections over two seasons under Neibel's guidance.

Prior to his stint with the Jaguars, Neibel spent six years (2011-16) with the Atlanta Falcons in a variety of roles. Over his five years with the club, the Falcons earned 21 total Pro Bowl selections under Neibel's direction, including four from WR Julio Jones (2012, 2014-16), and three apiece from TE Tony Gonzalez (2011-13) and QB Matt Ryan (2012, 2014, 2016).

In 2016, Neibel was tabbed as the club's athletic performance manager after serving as the team's head strength and conditioning coach during the previous three seasons (2013-15). In his first two seasons (2011-12) with the Falcons, Neibel was on staff as strength and conditioning assistant. Before joining the club, Neibel spent time working for the Atlanta Falcons' Therapy Center in Snellville, Ga.

Prior to Atlanta, Neibel also worked in the Bay Area with the San Francisco Giants of Major League Baseball and their affiliate, the San Jose Giants, as a strength and conditioning consultant from 2009-10. In his first tour with the Raiders, Neibel helped train athletes as a strength and conditioning/sports medicine associate.

PERSONAL: Native of Cupertino, Calif. ...Earned a degree in sports psychology from Long Beach State in 1996…Earned a second degree in physical therapy from Cerritos College in 1998 and a master's degree in advance exercise science from Concordia University in Chicago…Notable qualifications include being USA weightlifting certified, level one, Olympic lifting coach, a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association and certified in Russian Kettle bell training.

ANTONIO PIERCE

LINEBACKERS

11th Season in NFL (9 as a player) 2nd Season with Raiders

Antonio Pierce enters his second season as linebackers coach for the Las Vegas Raiders, bringing with him nine years of NFL playing experience.

In his first season with the Silver and Black, Pierce helped in the development of undrafted rookie linebacker Luke Masterson, who finished with 50 tackles (26 solo), ranking third-most in the NFL among undrafted rookies and second-most in a single season in Raiders' history by an undrafted rookie. Pierce also guided LB Divine Deablo as he averaged 9.25 tackles per game, the 11th best average in the league, despite only playing in eight games. LB Denzel Perryman finished third on the team with 83 tackles and registered career highs in tackles for loss (15) and interceptions under Pierce's leadership.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2014-17	Long Beach Poly High School	Head Coach
2018-19	Arizona State	Linebackers/ Recruiting Coordinator
2020	Arizona State	Associate Head Coach/ Co-Defensive Coordinator/ Recruiting Coordinator
2021	Arizona State	Associate Head Coach/ Defensive Coordinator/ Recruiting Coordinator
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Linebackers

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Pierce spent five seasons at Arizona State, serving as linebackers coach before adding the titles of associate head coach and defensive coordinator.

In 2021, Pierce was promoted to defensive coordinator and helped the Sun Devils' defense rank first in the PAC-12 in scoring defense (20.8), first in total yards allowed per game (326.3), tied for first in defensive touchdowns (three), second in interceptions (16) and second in sacks (27). Pierce saw three members of his defense earn Pac-12 honors with DL Tyler Johnson being named first-team All-Pac-12, while DL D.J. Davidson and LB Darien Butler were both named to the second-team defense.

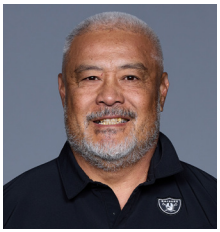

In 2020, the Sun Devils ranked first in the PAC-12 in scoring defense (23.3) and first in turnover margin (+8). Pierce helped mentor Johnson and CB Chase Lucas to second-team All-Pac-12 honors, while DL Jermayne Lole, LB Kyle Soelle and CB Evan Fields earned conference honorable mention recognition.

In 2019, Pierce led a linebacker group that helped the Sun Devils rank third in the Pac-12 in rushing defense (125.1) and second in turnover margin (+14). He helped guide current Raiders LB Darien Butler to a career season finishing 11th in the Pac-12 with 90 total tackles and tied for second with three forced fumbles. He also saw LB Khaylan Kearse-Thomas earn All-Pac-12 honorable mention after recording 57 tackles, including a team-high 11 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks.

In 2018, Pierce lead a young linebacking core that saw LB Merlin Robertson earn Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year honors after recording 77 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss, five sacks and one interception.

Prior to ASU, Pierce spent four seasons as the head coach of the Long Beach Poly High School football program following a nine-year career in the NFL.

PERSONAL: A native of Long Beach, Calif., Pierce played collegiately for two seasons at Arizona after transferring from Mount San Antonio College…Played in 23 games and totaled 152 tackles, 20 tackles for loss and seven sacks…Entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent by the Washington Redskins and played four seasons with the club before signing with the New York Giants as an unrestricted free agent in 2005…Over his nine-year career, played in 115 games with 85 starts, totaling 732 tackles (462 solo), eight sacks, seven interceptions, eight forced fumbles and 11 fumble recoveries…He was named to his first Pro Bowl in 2006 and was a member of the Giants Super Bowl XLII championship team in 2007.

KENNEDY POLAMALU

RUNNING BACKS

13th Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

Kennedy Polamalu enters his 32nd season in coaching at both the NFL and collegiate levels and his second season as running backs coach with the Las Vegas Raiders.

In his first season with the Raiders in 2022, Polamalu led a running back unit that combined for 2,059 yards and 12 touchdowns, the most rushing yards in a single season for the Raiders since 2011 (2,110). Polamalu saw RB Josh Jacobs rush for a career-high 1,653 rushing yards to become just the third player in franchise history to win the league rushing title en route to First Team All-Pro honors and his second career Pro Bowl. His 1,653 rushing yards are also the most in a single season since Marcus Allen rushed for 1,759 yards in his 1985 MVP season. Jacobs also recorded 93 rushing first downs, the most in the NFL and the most in a single season by a Raiders back since 1994.

Prior to arriving in Las Vegas, Polamalu spent five seasons as the running backs coach with the Minnesota Vikings. In 2021, Polamalu coached Vikings RB Dalvin Cook to his third-straight 1,000-season, as the veteran back totaled 1,159 yards on the ground to rank fifth in the NFL. Cook carried the ball 20-or-more times in seven different games and totaled six TDs on the ground. Additionally, Polamalu aided RB Alexander Mattison in setting a career high with 491 rushing yards and Mattison combined with Cook to account for 66 receptions out of the backfield.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
1992-93	UCLA	Graduate Assistant
1994-96	San Diego State	Special Teams/Running Backs
1997-98	Colorado	Running Backs
1999	San Diego State	Linebackers
2000	USC	Running Backs
2001	USC	Special Teams Coordinator
2002-03	USC	Special Teams Coordinator/ Running Backs
2004	Cleveland Browns	Running Backs
2005-09	Jacksonville Jaguars	Running Backs
2010-12	USC	Offensive Coordinator/ Running Backs
2014-15	UCLA	Running Backs
2016	UCLA	Offensive Coordinator
2017-21	Minnesota Vikings	Running Backs
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Running Backs

The 2020 Vikings offense established a balanced attack and Cook enjoyed a career-best 1,557 yards and 16 TDs on the ground. Cook earned a second-straight Pro Bowl berth and All-Pro accolades on several teams. Cook ranked second in the NFL in rushing and posted the third-best mark in team history despite missing two games. He ranked second in NFL scrimmage yards with 1,918 (1,557 rushing/361 receiving) and broke the 100-yard rushing mark 8 times, including a career-high 206 vs. Detroit. Cook's 16 rushing TDs tied for second in the NFL and ranked second in team history. His 108 points (17 TDs, three 2-point conversions) ranked tied for second in the NFL and the trio of 2-pointers tied for the second-most in a season in NFL history. Mattison had his first career 100-yard game at Seattle after replacing an injured Cook. The Vikings' No. 5-ranked rushing attack helped the club rank No. 4 in the NFL in total offense in 2020, the highest ranking since 2004 and a 12-position jump from 2019.

In 2019, Polamalu coached Cook to a breakout season as he earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week and FedEx Ground Player of the Week honors and was named as a Pro Bowl starter after leading all non-quarterbacks in fan voting. FB C.J. Ham also was named to the Pro Bowl for his part in the Vikings rushing attack. Cook finished the 2019 regular season with 1,135 rushing yards, 10th-most in the NFL, and became the eighth player in franchise history to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards in a single season. Cook's 13 rushing TDs in 2019 ranked fourth in the NFL and tied for the second most by a Viking in a single season. Cook also became one-of-nine players in NFL history to record 500-plus rushing yards and 200-plus receiving yards in the first five games of a season. He became the fifth player in NFL history to open a season with three consecutive games of 110-plus rushing yards and a rushing TD, joining Hall of Famers Jim Brown, Curtis Martin, O.J. Simpson and Emmitt Smith.

The 2018 backfield workload was split equally between veteran Latavius Murray and Cook as he returned from a knee injury suffered early in his rookie season. Murray posted a career-high 155-yard rushing day vs. Arizona and Cook had a strong day vs. Miami when he posted 163 scrimmage yards with 136 yards and two TDs on the ground to earn his first NFC Offensive Player of the Week Award. Cook proved his value in the passing game during the season as well, reeling in 40 catches and two TDs.

In his first season with the Vikings in 2017, first-year sensation Cook set a team record for rookies with 288 yards in the opening three games of the season but was lost to injury for the season in the fourth game. Cook's production was replaced by the duo of Murray (842 yds, 8 TD) and Jerick McKinnon (574 yds, 3 TD) who combined for 1,412 yards and 11 rushing TDs. Murray carried the load with a team-high 216 attempts and 842 yards. Murray came on strong late in the season, notching 745 of his yards and all 8 TDs, including a pair of 100-yard outings, in the final 10 games of the season.

Under Polamalu's guidance at UCLA, RB Paul Perkins became the first Bruin since DeShaun Foster (2000-01) to register consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons and the first running back in program history to record 80 career receptions. Perkins, who was selected by the New York Giants in the 2016 NFL Draft, earned second-team All-Pac-12 recognition after rushing for 1,343 yards and 14 TDs as a senior. In 2014, Perkins experienced a breakout campaign, becoming the second player in school history to lead the Pac-12 in rushing with 1,575 yards.

Prior to his second UCLA stint, Polamalu was the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at his alma mater, USC, from 2010-12. In Polamalu's system, QB Matt Barkley became the all-time leading passer in school and conference history, throwing for 12,327 yards and 116 TDs. In 2011, Barkley finished sixth in the Heisman voting after completing 308 of 445 passes for 3,528 yards, 39 TDs (school record) and a 69.2 percent completion rate (school record), leading the Trojans to a No. 6 finish in the AP poll.

Polamalu previously coached the running backs in Jacksonville (2005-09) and Cleveland (2004). The Jaguars totaled the third-most rushing yards (133.7 ypg) and second-most rushing TDs (95) in the league from 2005-09, and two Jacksonville running backs earned Pro Bowl nods during that span: Fred Taylor (2007) and Maurice Jones-Drew (2009). In his Pro Bowl season under Polamalu, Jones-Drew rushed for 1,391 yards (4th in the NFL) and 15 TDs (second). With the Browns, they were one-of-seven NFL teams with multiple 500- yard rushers: Lee Suggs (744) and William Green (585).

Polamalu has deep roots at USC where he was a player and was involved in coaching or recruiting Heisman winners Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart and Reggie Bush. He also recruited the heralded 'Thunder and Lightning' backfield of Bush and Lendale White. He joined USC for the 2000-03 seasons, coaching running backs and special teams during that span. Prior to joining the USC coaching staff, Polamalu served as Colorado's running backs coach for two seasons (1997-98) between stints at San Diego State as the linebackers coach (1999) and running backs coach (1994-96).

PERSONAL: Native of Pago Pago, American Samoa…Attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, Calif., where he was an All-American in football, lettered in basketball and track, and served as the student body president…Played fullback and linebacker at USC from 1982-85, graduating with a bachelor's degree in history…Nephew, Troy Polamalu, played at USC and played 12 seasons in the NFL, winning two Super Bowls with the Pittsburgh Steelers and earning induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2020…Brother, Ao Polamalu, played football at Penn State and nephew, Nicky Sualua played running back at Ohio State before playing for the Bengals and Cowboys in the NFL…Great nephew, Isaiah Pola-Mao, currently plays safety for the Las Vegas Raiders…Polamalu and his wife, Stephanie, have six children, KC, Matthew, Tre, Sophia, Andrew and Xander, as well as a daughter-in-law, Theresa, and grandsons, Tre and Koa.

ROB RYAN

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

23rd Season in NFL 7th Season with Raiders

Rob Ryan returned to the Silver and Black and enters his second season as the Raiders' senior defensive assistant, bringing 33 years of coaching experience to the position, including 22 seasons in the NFL ranks. Ryan has served as the defensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders (2004-08), Cleveland Browns (2009-10), Dallas Cowboys (2011-12) and New Orleans Saints (2013-15), while also holding coaching positions with the Arizona Cardinals (1994-95), New England Patriots (2000-03), Buffalo Bills (2016), Washington Redskins (2019) and Baltimore Ravens (2021).

In his first season since rejoining the Silver and Black, Ryan helped guide DE Maxx Crosby to his second Pro Bowl selection after career bests in tackles (88), tackles for loss (22) and sacks (12.5). Crosby's 88 tackles are the most in a single season by a Raiders defensive lineman and he became only the second defensive lineman in franchise history to record 20+ tackles for loss in a single season. He also worked with four-time Pro Bowler DE Chandler Jones, who finished second on the team with 4.5 sacks and 15 quarterback hits. Under the guidance of Ryan, the defense ranked 19th in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game (122.8 yards per game) and saw a slight improvement in tackles for loss (68) and stuffs (39) from the previous year.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
1987	Western Kentucky	Defensive Assistant
1988	Ohio State	Outside Linebackers
1989-93	Tennessee State	Running Backs/Linebackers/ Defensive Line
1994-95	Arizona Cardinals	Defensive Backs
1996	Hutchinson (KS) CC	Defensive Coordinator
1997-99	Oklahoma State	Defensive Coordinator
2000-03	New England Patriots	Linebackers
2004-08	Oakland Raiders	Defensive Coordinator

2016	Buffalo Bills	Assistant Head Coach/Defense
2019	Washington Redskins	Inside Linebackers
2021	Baltimore Ravens	Inside Linebackers
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Senior Defensive Assistant

Ryan spent the 2021 season as the inside linebackers coach for the Baltimore Ravens. During his time with the Ravens, Ryan helped guide LB Patrick Queen as he led the team with 98 tackles. Ryan's group was instrumental to the No. 1 ranked run defense in the NFL (84.5 yards per game).

In 2019, Ryan coached inside linebackers for Washington, helping guide LB Jon Bostic to a career-high 105 tackles. He also tutored rookie LB Cole Holcomb, who finished second in the NFL among rookie defenders with 101 tackles.

In 2016, Ryan served as the Buffalo Bills' assistant head coach/defense under his brother Rex Ryan. The defense ranked sixth in the NFL in passing defense (223.9 yards per game) and eighth in sacks (39) and produced four Pro Bowlers in DT Kyle Williams, LB Lorenzo Alexander, LB Zach Brown and CB Stephon Gilmore.

From 2013-15, Ryan served as defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints…In 2015, Ryan led a defensive unit that was among the youngest in the NFL and helped mentor a rookie class that included LB Stephone Anthony and LB Hau'oli Kikaha. Under the guidance of Ryan, Anthony finished with 144 tackles, first among rookies, and was named to the All-Rookie Team, while Kikaha recorded four forced fumbles, tied for second in the NFL and ranked first among rookies.

Ryan helped DE Cameron Jordan earn his second Pro Bowl selection after finishing with 10 sacks. In 2014, Ryan guided LB Curtis Lofton to a career-high 144 tackles, the fourth-most in the NFL, while DE Cameron Jordan recorded 7.5 sacks.

In 2013, Ryan led a Saints' defensive unit that finished fourth in the NFL in total defense (305.7), a 28-place improvement from the prior season. The unit ranked in the top-10 in many defensive categories, including sacks (49-fourth), pass defense (194.1-second), scoring defense (19.0-fourth) and third down conversion percentage (34.7-ninth). Ryan helped S Kenny Vaccaro earn PFWA All-Rookie Team honors after leading the secondary with 77 tackles and saw DE Cam Jordan selected to his first Pro Bowl after ranking fifth in the league with a career-high 12.5 sacks.

Ryan spent two seasons as the Dallas Cowboys' defensive coordinator from 2011-12, working with OLB DeMarcus Ware who recorded double-digit sacks totals and earned Pro Bowl honors in both seasons. In 2012, Ryan led a defense that produced two Pro Bowl selections in DE Anthony Spencer and Ware. Spencer posted a career-high 11 sacks while Ware led the team with 11.5 sacks, making the Cowboys one of three teams in the NFL to have two players with 11-plus sacks. In 2011, Ryan helped Ware to his sixth Pro Bowl selection and fourth first-team All-Pro recognition after finishing second in the NFL with 19.5 sacks…Ryan also helped second year LB Sean Lee lead the team with 102 tackles.

From 2009-10, Ryan served as the defensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns. In 2010, the Browns' defense tied for eighth in the NFL with 19 interceptions and Ryan saw six different players post multiple takeaways…Ryan guided a secondary that included rookie CB Joe Haden, who tied for fifth in the NFL and second among rookies with a career-high six interceptions. Ryan also mentored rookie S T.J. Ward, who finished first among all rookies and sixth among all defensive backs in the NFL with 105 tackles. Both players were named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. Under Ryan's guidance, the Browns defense allowed the fourth-fewest rushing touchdowns (seven). During his first season with the Browns, Ryan led a defensive unit that ranked eighth in the NFL in sacks (40).

Ryan earned his first NFL defensive coordinator position with the Raiders and spent five seasons (2004-08) with the club, helping produce a pair of Pro Bowlers DE Derrick Burgess and CB Nnamdi Asomugha. In 2006, Ryan oversaw a defense that led the NFL in pass defense and ranked third in total defense. The Raiders defense under Ryan also ranked fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per play, fifth in defense inside the 20, fifth (tie) in defensive touchdowns and fifth in net passing yards per play. Ryan's defensive schemes in 2006 also helped Derrick Burgess record 12 sacks and play in his second straight Pro Bowl and Warren Sapp record 10 sacks, an NFL high for defensive tackles. In addition, the defensive schemes helped Nnamdi Asomugha post a career high eight interceptions. In 2005, Ryan saw Burgess named to his first Pro Bowl after leading the NFL with a career-high 16 sacks.

Prior to the Raiders, Ryan spent four years (200-03) as the linebackers coach for the New England Patriots…Ryan was part of two Super Bowl championship teams (XXXVI and XXXVIII). In 2003, Ryan's squad helped the Patriots defense rank first in the NFL in fewest points allowed (238) while ranking seventh overall in the NFL in total defense (291.6 yards per game). Ryan's unit also contributed to one of the best scoring defenses in franchise history in 2001, as the Patriots allowed just 14.9 points per game and produced Pro Bowlers Willie McGinest and Tedy Bruschi.

Ryan originally entered the NFL coaching ranks in 1994 as defensive backs coach on his father's staff at Arizona. He also coached Cardinals cornerbacks and safeties in 1995. With Ryan as his position coach, CB Aeneas Williams earned two trips to the Pro Bowl in 1994 and 1995. In 1995, the Cardinals led the NFL with 32 interceptions and 42 total takeaways. The 1994 Cardinals ranked second in the NFL total defense, second in run defense and third in pass defense.

From 1997-99, Ryan was Oklahoma State's defensive coordinator, where the Cowboys defense continually ranked among the best in the nation. He was named Coordinator of the Year by The Sporting News in 1997. In 1999, they were ranked 10th in the nation in total defense. In 1998, they were second in the nation with 41 sacks. In his first season at Oklahoma State, the Cowboys defense finished among the nation's top-20 in turnover margin, rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense, allowing just 302.7 yards per game… It was an over 100-yard improvement per game from the year before and helped the Cowboys produce an 8-4 mark and an Alamo Bowl berth.

Ryan was a graduate assistant at Western Kentucky in 1987 and at Ohio State in 1988. Ryan then spent five seasons at Tennessee State, where he coached running backs (1989-91), linebackers (1992) and the defensive line (1993).

He served as defensive coordinator at Hutchinson Community College in 1996, where they led the nation in total defense (228 yards per game) and in sacks (56)…His defense also set a national record by forcing 49 turnovers.

PERSONAL: Ryan played three seasons as an outside linebacker at Southwestern Oklahoma State…He is the son of NFL defensive coaching legend Buddy Ryan…His twin brother, Rex, was a head coach in the NFL for the New York Jets (2009-14) and Buffalo Bills(2015-16)…Rob and his wife, Kristin, have two sons, Joseph and Matthew, and a daughter, Dimitria.

TIGHT ENDS

11th Season in NFL 2nd Season with Raiders

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2000-01	John Carroll University	Running Backs/Special Teams
2002-06	Trinity (Ohio) High School	Head Coach
2007-12	Case Western Reserve	Linebackers/Special Teams
2013-15	New England Patriots	Coaching Assistant
2016-18	New England Patriots	Assistant Quarterbacks
2019	Miami Dolphins	Quarterbacks
2020-21	New York Giants	Quarterbacks
2022	Las Vegas Raiders	Senior Offensive Assistant
2023	Las Vegas Raiders	Tight Ends

Jerry Schuplinski enters his 11th season as an NFL assistant and his first as tight ends coach with the Las Vegas Raiders.

In his first season with the Silver and Black, Schuplinski served as a senior offensive assistant and helped a unit that ranked in the top-12 in the NFL in total offense (352.5 yards per game), passing offense (231.4 yards per game) and scoring offense (23.2 points per game). Schuplinski also saw three offensive players be named to the Pro Bowl, including RB Josh Jacobs, WR Davante Adams and QB Derek Carr.

Prior to joining the Raiders, he spent two seasons as the New York Giants' quarterbacks coach.

In 2021, Schuplinski led a quarterback group that saw three different signal callers make starts due to injury. Quarterback Daniel Jones, in his second season under Schuplinski's tutelage, established a career high by completing 64.3 percent of his pass attempts (232-for-361). Jones also passed for 2,428 yards and 10 TDs despite making just 11 starts due to a neck injury suffered in Week 12.

In Schuplinski's first year with New York in 2020, the Giants completed 62.1% of their passes, the seventh-highest single-season figure in franchise history. Jones started all 14 games in which he played and completed 62.5 percent of his throws (280-for-448 passes) for 2,943 yards, 11 TDs and 10 INTs for a passer rating of 80.4. From Nov. 2 against Tampa Bay until the season finale vs. Dallas on Jan. 3, Jones threw a career-high 177 passes without an INT. In addition, Jones had 65 rushing attempts for 423 yards, the team's second-highest total and the record for a Giants quarterback in the Super Bowl era. Pro Football Hall of Famer Fran Tarkenton previously held the record with 306 yards in 1967. Jones' 6.5-yard average was the NFL's highest among the 91 players with at least 50 rushing attempts in 2020.

Schuplinski was the Miami Dolphins' quarterbacks coach in 2019, helping the team finish 12th in the NFL with 237.8 passing yards a game. Veteran quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick threw 20 TD passes – his highest total since 2015 – and Miami won five of its last nine games after an 0-7 start.

Before joining the Dolphins' staff, Schuplinski spent six seasons (2013-18) with the New England Patriots. He was a coaching assistant for three seasons before beginning a three-year stint as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach. New England won three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI and LIII), four AFC titles and advanced to the conference championship game in every season Schuplinski was on the Patriots' staff under Bill Belichick.

Schuplinski spent his final three seasons in New England working closely with Tom Brady. In 2018, Schuplinski's final year with the team, the Patriots won Super Bowl LIII while finishing eighth in passing, averaging 266.1 net passing yards per game. Brady was seventh in the NFL with 4,355 passing yards and 10th with 29 passing TDs, earning his 14th Pro Bowl selection. The previous season, Schuplinski helped Brady win his third NFL Most Valuable Player Award. Brady was the NFL's leading passer, throwing for 4,577 yards. His 32 passing TDs and 102.8 passer rating were both third in the league. The Patriots led the NFL in total offense, averaging 394.2 yards per game, and finished second in scoring, averaging 28.6 points per game. In Schuplinski's first season as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2016, the Patriots won Super Bowl LI. Brady was named Super Bowl MVP after he passed for 466 yards and two TDs in a dramatic come-from-behind overtime victory against Atlanta. Patriots quarterbacks set an NFL record with 258 pass attempts without an INT to start the season. With Brady out for the first four games of the season, Schuplinski's extensive early season prep work with QBs Jimmy Garoppolo and Jacoby Brissett helped the team start 3-1 in Brady's absence.

Schuplinski got his start in the NFL in 2013 with the Patriots as a coaching assistant. During his three years in that position, New England won Super Bowl XLIX and compiled a 36-12 (.750) regular-season record.

Prior to New England, Schuplinski spent six seasons (2007-12) as the linebackers and special teams coach at Case Western Reserve in Cleveland. During his tenure, Schuplinski mentored 22 University Athletic Association (NCAA Division III) all-conference selections. Schuplinski was head coach and athletics director at Trinity High School in Garfield Heights, Ohio, from 2002- 06. He began his coaching career as a running backs and special teams coach at his alma mater, John Carroll, from 2000-01.

PERSONAL: Native of Garfield Heights, Ohio…Played collegiately at John Carroll University, where he was teammates with Raiders General Manager Dave Ziegler, Head Coach Josh McDaniels, former NFL linebacker London Fletcher and Houston Texans' general manager Nick Caserio…Graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration/marketing and a master's degree in business administration…He and his wife, Megan, have four daughters, Macy, Bryn, Jaxi and Josy.

2019	Green Bay Packers	Defensive Backs
2020-21	Carolina Panthers	Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Secondary
2022-	Las Vegas Raiders	Defensive Backs, Pass Game Coordinatorr

In 2021, Simmons' unit was part of a defense that allowed just 192.1 passing yards per game, ranking fourth in the NFL and marking the Panthers fewest since 2009. The defense also held its opponents to 305.9 total yards per game, ranking second-best in the NFL and marking the fewest yards per game allowed by a Carolina defense since 2013. Under the direction of Simmons, the Panthers tallied nine interceptions by six different players.

In 2020, Simmons helped a young Panthers defense improve to 18th in the NFL in points allowed per game after the team finished 31st in the category in 2019. Under Simmons' guidance, S Jeremy Chin was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team after leading all rookies with 116 tackles and becoming the first player in franchise history to win two Defensive Rookie of the Month Awards.

Simmons joined the Panthers after spending the previous nine years in various roles on the Green Bay Packers staff. During Simmons' tenure (2011-19), Green Bay's defense recorded 146 total interceptions, tied for the fourth most by any team in that span.

In 2019, Simmons served as the Green Bay's defensive backs coach, where he helped the team advance to the NFC Championship game and finish the regular season tied for third in the league in interceptions, third in completion percentage allowed, fourth in pass breakups, fifth in forced fumbles, tied for fifth in passing touchdowns allowed and sixth in defensive passer rating. CB Kevin King totaled five interceptions (t-4th) and 15 passes defensed (t-8th), while CB Jaire Alexander added two interceptions and finished tied for fourth in the league in passes defensed with 17.

In 2018, Simmons served as the Packers' secondary coach, helping the team finish 12th in the NFL in pass defense (234.5 yards per game) – a 11-spot improvement after Green Bay finished 23rd in the category in 2017. Under Simmons' tutelage, Alexander led the team with 11 passes defensed and finished second in tackles (64), earning him a spot on the PFWA's All-Rookie team.

Prior to coaching the secondary, Simmons served as an assistant special teams coach for Green Bay from 2015- 17.

From 2015-17, the Packers ranked No. 2 in the league in opponent punt return average (5.7). Additionally, Green Bay's 10.7 yards per punt return in 2017 ranked No. 2 in the NFL.

In 2017, Simmons helped tutor undrafted rookie punter Justin Vogel as he ranked No. 7 in the NFL in net punting average (41.6). With Simmons' assistance, Green Bay's special teams continued to excel in punt coverage and punt returns in 2017 as the Packers finished No. 6 in the NFL in opponent punt return average (5.7).

In 2016, Simmons helped kicker Mason Crosby register 122 points, his 10th consecutive season with 100-plus points. Crosby finished the season 26-of-30 on field-goal attempts (86.7 pct.), his fourth consecutive season above 80 percent and the fifth of his career.

In 2015, Simmons saw Crosby surpass K Ryan Longwell for No. 1 on the all-time franchise scoring list and P Tim Masthay set a then-franchise record with a 40.3-yard net punting average. Simmons made an impact on the coverage unit, helping WR Jeff Janis (15) and S Chris Banjo (21) post career highs in special teams tackles.

Simmons entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Packers as the team's coaching administrator in 2011.

PERSONAL: As a player, Simmons was drafted in the fifth round by the Steelers in the 1998 NFL Draft and went on to play in 121 games over a 10-year career from 1998-2007. RICK SLATE

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

6th Season in NFL 6th Season with Raiders

Rick Slate, who brings 35 years of strength and conditioning experience, enters his sixth season with the Silver and Black as a strength and conditioning assistant. He joined the Raiders after spending 25 seasons in Major League Baseball with the Florida Marlins, New York Mets and Atlanta Braves.

Working extensively with all position groups on the roster, Slate focuses include strength training and assistance in transitioning players back from injury into participation. He also helps manage performance data for the team's strength and conditioning staff.

In 2022, Slate worked with a group that helped produce five Pro Bowlers in WR Davante Adams, DE Maxx Crosby, RB Josh Jacobs, QB Derek Carr and P AJ Cole. He also assisted in the strength development of four undrafted free agents who made the final 53-man roster, tied for the most over the last 10 seasons by the Raiders and the most since 2019.

In 2021, Slate's work with the team helped the Silver and Black earn a 10-7 record, clinching their first postseason berth since 2016. Slate also saw the Raiders produce four first-time Pro Bowlers in P AJ Cole, DE Maxx Crosby, LB Denzel Perryman and WR Hunter Renfrow. Renfrow set career highs in catches (103), receiving yards (1,038) and touchdowns (nine), while Cole averaged a league- and career-high 50.0 yards per punt, a mark that ranks eighth all-time in NFL history. Additionally, Crosby and Perryman anchored a defensive unit that ranked sixth in the AFC with just 337.2 yards per game allowed.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
1987-92	Florida State	Assistant Strength and Conditioning
1992	Florida Marlins	Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator
1993-2001	Florida Marlins	Strength and Conditioning Coordinator
2003-10	New York Mets	Strength and Conditioning Coordinator
2011-12	Atlanta Braves	Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator
2012-17	Atlanta Braves	Director of Strength and Conditioning
2018-19	Oakland Raiders	Strength and Conditioning Assistant
2020-	Las Vegas Raiders	Strength and Conditioning Assistant

Under Slate's training, QB Derek Carr put together one of his best seasons as a Raider. Carr set a career and franchise record with 4,804 yards and became the only quarterback in the NFL to rank in the top-five in passing yards (4,804) and completion percentage (68.4).

During his third season with the Raiders in 2020, Slate's guidance in the weight room helped the Raiders produce two Pro Bowlers in RB Josh Jacobs and TE Darren Waller, both earning the nod for the first time in their careers. Waller led the team in all major receiving categories, setting a new club record with 107 receptions and posting career highs in receiving yards (1,196) and touchdowns (nine), while Jacobs surpassed the 1,000-yard mark with 1,065 yards on the ground and set a career high with 12 touchdowns. Slate also saw Carr set personal bests in yards per attempt (7.9 avg.) and passer rating (101.4), while extending his streak of most seasons (three) in franchise history with at least 4,000 passing yards.

In 2019, Slate continued to help implement the team's strength and conditioning program while working with multiple position groups throughout the roster. Slate saw T Trent Brown and C Rodney Hudson earn Pro Bowl honors, while G Richie Incognito, FB Alec Ingold, Jacobs and Waller were named as alternates.

Slate helped guide the 2019 rookie class in their transition from college to the NFL, as Raiders rookies combined to lead the NFL in scrimmage touchdowns (17), sacks (14.5), yards after the catch (676), rushing yards (1,167), rushing touchdowns (seven) and rushing first downs (60) among their rookie peers. The Raiders rookies also ranked second in receptions (107) and receiving yards (1,112).

In 2018, Slate worked with TE Jared Cook as he earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2018. Cook set career highs in receptions (68), receiving yards (896) and touchdowns (six) and tallied four 100-yard contests on the season. Slate also helped train Hudson and G/T Kelechi Osemele in 2018, who were named Pro Bowl alternates.

With Slate's guidance in the weight room, Carr started in all 16 contests for the third time in his career and finished the season with 4,049 yards on 381-of-553 passing (68.9 percent), 19 touchdowns against 10 interceptions for a passer rating of 93.9. In his fifth season in the league, Carr's completions, completion percentage, yards and yards per attempt (7.3 avg.) all marked then-career highs.

Prior to entering the NFL, Slate was with the Braves organization from 2011-17 serving as the team's director of strength and conditioning. Slate initially joined Atlanta in 2011 and served as the Braves' minor league strength and conditioning coordinator before being promoted in 2012.

In Atlanta, Slate oversaw all aspects of the Braves' strength and conditioning program throughout all levels of the organization. Under his program, the Braves reached the postseason in back-to-back seasons from 2012-13 and saw the team capture the NL East title in 2013.

From 2003-10, Slate was with the Mets for eight seasons as New York's strength and conditioning coordinator. Slate helped the club win the NL East title in 2006, their first division crown since 1988, and went on to reach the League Championship Series.

Slate began his professional career with the Marlins in 1992, one year prior to their inaugural season, as the team's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator. He was promoted in 1993 and served as Florida's strength and conditioning coordinator for nine years. During his tenure with the Marlins, Slate helped them win the 1997 World Series, becoming the first wild card team ever to win the World Series.

Before entering professional baseball, Slate spent six years at Florida State as an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 1987-92. During his time at Florida State, he helped the football program record six consecutive seasons with 10 or more wins, while earning six bowl wins and one ACC championship. He also helped his collegiate teams make it to the Sweet 16 in basketball and the College World Series in baseball while at Florida State.

SUPER BOWL II

Miami Orange Bowl; Sunday, Jan. 14, 1968; Attendance: 75,546; Time: 2:34 PM PST; Weather: 68°F; partly cloudy, 52% humidity, wind W 14 mph

The Raiders stormed into Super Bowl II after claiming the club's first-ever American Football League championship with a 40-7 romp over the Houston Oilers on Dec. 31, 1967. The Raiders mounted a spirited challenge to the Green Bay Packers, the defending Super Bowl champions, but ultimately fell short in Miami, 33-14.

In a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history, the Bart Starr-led Packers jumped out to a 13-0 lead in the second quarter after a 62-yard touchdown reception by Boyd Dowler. The Raiders cut into the lead with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Daryle Lamonica to Bill Miller, the first of two touchdown receptions on the day for the wide receiver, who played collegiately at the University of Miami.

Down 16-7 entering the second half, the Raiders were unable to contain a Packers offense that added a 2-yard touchdown run by Donny Anderson and Don Chandler's fourth field goal of the day, in the third quarter. Herb Adderley's 60-yard interception return for a touchdown on a fourth-quarter Lamonica pass sealed the Packers victory. Lamonica connected with Miller for a 23-yard Oakland touchdown late in the final period.

Starr earned the game's MVP honors after completing 13-of-24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown. Miller hauled in a game-high five passes for 84 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Raiders.

SUPER BOWL XI

Rose Bowl; Sunday, Jan. 9, 1977; Attendance: 103,424; Time: 3:03 PM PST; Weather: 58°F; clear and sunny, 59% humidity, wind NW 5 mph

The 1976 Raiders advanced to Super Bowl XI with a 13-1 regular season record and a 2-0 mark in the playoffs, upending the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Championship Game for the first time in three tries, 24-7. Against the NFC Champion Vikings in front of 103,424 fans at the Rose Bowl, the Silver and Black put forth dominant efforts on both offense and defense in posting a 32-14 victory and capturing the club's first-ever Super Bowl championship.

Oakland built a 16-0 first-half lead as Dave Casper and Pete Banaszak each scored short touchdowns after receptions by Fred Biletnikoff brought the Raiders to the goal line on two separate drives. An additional short-yardage touchdown run by Banaszak in the second half put the Raiders up, 26-7, and set the stage for the signature moment of the contest. With Fran Tarkenton under heavy pressure in the fourth quarter, veteran Willie Brown intercepted a pass and returned it 75 yards for a touchdown to seal the victory.

The Vikings could only muster two second-half touchdowns as the Silver and Black put together a dominant defensive performance, limiting Chuck Foreman to just 44 yards rushing and intercepting Tarkenton twice.

Biletnikoff's 79 yards on four receptions, three of which set up Raider touchdowns, earned him MVP honors, while Clarence Davis helped pace the offense with 137 rushing yards on 16 carries.

A startling 12 Raiders from Super Bowl XI would go on to enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, with Owner Al Davis joining Head Coach John Madden, Biletnikoff, Brown, Ted Hendricks, Ray Guy, Ken Stabler, Gene Upshaw, Art Shell, Casper, assistant coach Tom Flores and Cliff Branch in Canton.

SUPER BOWL XV

Louisiana Superdome; Sunday. Jan. 25, 1981; Attendance: 76,135; Time: 3:13 PM PST; Weather: played indoors, domed stadium

The 1980 Oakland Raiders entered Super Bowl XV against the NFC Champion Philadelphia Eagles as the ultimate underdogs. Not only were the Raiders the first wild card team to advance to the Super Bowl since the NFL adopted the new playoff format in 1978, but the Eagles had already defeated the Silver and Black, 10-7, just eight weeks earlier. This matchup would be markedly different, as a team that started the season with just a 2-3 record would claim the club's second championship with a dominating 27-10 victory.

The Raiders wasted no time establishing themselves in New Orleans, as Rod Martin picked off a Ron Jaworski pass on the game's third play and returned it 25 yards to set up a Jim Plunkett touchdown pass to Cliff Branch. Later in the first quarter, Plunkett hit Kenny King for an 80-yard touchdown strike that set a then-Super Bowl record and gave the Silver and Black a 14-0 lead.

Head coach Tom Flores, employing a philosophy of pressure football, kept the offense firing away in the second half. Plunkett engineered a third-quarter drive that culminated in a 29-yard touchdown pass to Branch that gave the Raiders an insurmountable 21-3 lead. Chris Bahr added two field goals in the second half and the defense, led by a Super Bowl-record three interceptions by Martin, surrendered only a fourth-quarter touchdown.

Plunkett was tabbed for MVP honors after completing 13-of-21 passes for 261 yards and three touchdowns as the Silver and Black became the first wild card team in NFL history to win the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

Tampa Stadium; Sunday, Jan. 22, 1984; Attendance: 72,920; Time: 3:31 PM PST; Weather: 68°F; partly cloudy, wind NE 20 mph

Famously dubbed "Black Sunday" by NFL Films, Super Bowl XVIII put on display the best that the NFL had to offer as the Los Angeles Raiders drubbed the Washington Redskins, 38-9. The resounding victory rested on the running brilliance of Marcus Allen and the strength of dominating defense and special teams play that lifted the Raiders to the club's third Super Bowl title in eight years.

Clad in their famous black jerseys, the Raiders jumped on the scoreboard first as Derrick Jensen blocked a first-quarter punt deep in Washington territory and fell on the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. In the second quarter, Jim Plunkett orchestrated an efficient three-play drive that culminated in a 12-yard touchdown pass to Cliff Branch.

After a Redskins field goal, the Silver and Black defense would strike just moments before halftime. Keying on a Washington screen pass play that had worked successfully against the Raiders during a regular season meeting between the two teams, defensive coordinator Charlie Sumner inserted reserve Jack Squirek with time winding down in the first half. As Joe Theismann lobbed a screen out towards Joe Washington from the 12-yard line, Squirek stepped in front of the pass and returned the interception for a touchdown to give the Raiders a 21-3 halftime advantage.

The Raiders' second half performance was just as dominant as the team shifted focus to its running game, led by Allen. The second-year running back scored a third-quarter touchdown on a 5-yard run before breaking off perhaps the finest run in Super Bowl history later in the same period. Allen took a handoff from Plunkett and started left on the play but went too wide for his blocking and reversed his field, burst free of pursuit and found the end zone after a 74-yard sprint to give the Raiders an insurmountable lead and give the city of Los Angeles its first Super Bowl victory.

Allen was the easy choice as the game's Most Valuable Player, gaining 191 yards on 20 carries with two touchdowns.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

Qualcomm Stadium; Sunday, Jan. 26, 2003; Attendance: 67,603; Time: 3:50 PM PST; Weather: 81°F; sunny, 21% humidity, wind WSW 8 mph

After three seasons of knocking on the door, the 2002 Raiders broke through to earn a place in the Super Bowl for the fifth time in franchise history. Led by NFL Most Valuable Player Rich Gannon, the Silver and Black claimed a third-straight AFC West title in 2002, and dispatched the Tennessee Titans in the AFC Championship Game, 41-24, in dominating fashion. The team's ultimate goal of a fourth Super Bowl title would prove elusive, however, as the Raiders fell to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego, 48-21.

The Raiders got on the board first, capitalizing on a Charles Woodson interception on the game's first possession and getting a 40-yard field goal from Sebastian Janikowski. The score would be the last until late in the third quarter for the Raiders, as the Buccaneers reeled off 34 unanswered points to build a large lead.

The Silver and Black got back into the game with three touchdowns in the second half. Gannon connected with Jerry Porter and Jerry Rice on touchdown passes of 39 and 48 yards, respectively, and Eric Johnson returned a blocked punt 13 yards for a score to move the Raiders to within two scores at 34-21 in the fourth quarter.

Tampa Bay halted any chance of a Raider comeback with two interception returns for touchdowns in the fourth quarter, one by Derrick Brooks for 44 yards and one by Dwight Smith on a tipped pass for 50 yards.

RAIDERS 40, HOUSTON OILERS 7

1967 AFL Championship

Dec. 31, 1967 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders made a splash in the organization's first-ever postseason contest, posting an emphatic 40-7 victory over Houston in front of 53,330 fans at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

Fullbacks Pete Banaszak (15-116) and Hewritt Dixon (21-144) each topped 100 yards on the ground and quarterback Daryle Lamonica tossed a pair of touchdown passes and rushed for an additional score in the rout. Veteran kicker George Blanda added four field goals for Oakland.

Following a tight first period, Dixon got the Raiders into the endzone with a 69-yard touchdown scamper around left end in the second quarter. Blanda set up for a field-goal attempt on fourth-and-1 later in the frame, but Lamonica took the snap and connected with tight end Dave Kocourek for a 17-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 17-0 lead at the half.

In the third quarter, Lamonica's 1-yard dive and the second of Blanda's four field goals gave Oakland an insurmountable 27-0 lead. Two more Blanda field goals and a 12-yard touchdown pass from Lamonica to wide receiver Bill Miller in the fourth period closed out the scoring for the day for Oakland, earning for the Raiders the right to represent the American Football League in the second AFL-NFL Championship.

1968 AFL Playoff

Dec. 22, 1968 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

Deadlocked atop the AFL Western Division standings with identical 12-2 records, the Raiders and Chiefs met in a playoff contest to determine the New York Jets' opponent in the 1968 AFL Championship Game. Oakland used a devastating air attack behind quarterback Daryle Lamonica and receivers Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells to hand Kansas City a 41-6 defeat and book a date with Joe Namath's Jets for a shot at the team's second straight AFL title.

Lamonica lived up to his "Mad Bomber" moniker, passing for 347 yards on 19 completions with five touchdowns on the day. All of Lamonica's scoring tosses went to either Biletnikoff (7-180-3) or Wells (4-93-2), while an opportunistic Raider defense picked off Chiefs quarterback Len Dawson four times in the decisive victory.

Oakland jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the first quarter following two touchdown passes from Lamonica to Biletnikoff and an additional scoring toss to Wells. The Chiefs got into the action with a pair of Jan Stenerud field goals in the second quarter, but a 54-yard pass on a third-and-8 play for Biletnikoff's third scoring catch gave the Raiders a 28-6 advantage at the half.

Following a scoreless third period, Lamonica hooked up with Wells for a 35-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to extend the Oakland lead. Wells' second touchdown of the day and a pair of George Blanda field goals following interceptions by defensive backs Willie Brown and Nemiah Wilson sealed the victory for the Silver and Black.

NEW YORK JETS 27, RAIDERS 23

1968 AFL Championship

Dec. 29, 1968 at Shea Stadium; Flushing Meadows, N.Y.

Just six weeks after the two teams met in the famed "Heidi Game," the Raiders' quest for a second straight AFL title came to an end as Joe Namath's 6-yard touchdown pass to receiver Don Maynard with just under eight minutes remaining in regulation lifted the Jets to a 27-23 win in a back-and-forth struggle.

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica posted a second prolific passing performance in as many weeks, completing 20-of-47 attempts for a franchise-record 401 yards and one touchdown. Fred Biletnikoff hauled in seven passes for 190 yards and one touchdown to lead all receivers.

After surrendering 10 points in the first quarter, a 29-yard scoring pass from Lamonica to Biletnikoff and a George Blanda field goal trimmed the New York lead to 13-10 entering the half. Blanda tied the score with a 9-yard field goal midway through the third period, but the Jets took the lead once again by way of a 20-yard pass from Namath to Pete Lammons, setting up a wildly entertaining fourth quarter.

Blanda's third field goal of the day, a 20-yarder, cut the lead to four points in the final period and rookie defensive back George Atkinson picked off a Namath pass and returned it to New York's 5-yard line on the ensuing possession. Fullback Pete Banaszak barreled into the end zone on the very next play, giving the Raiders their first lead of the game.

The Jets came back with a three-play scoring drive, culminating in Namath's touchdown pass to Maynard after the two had hooked up for a 52-yard gain on the previous play. Lamonica took the Raiders deep into scoring range on two more fourth-quarter drives, the second of which ended on an incomplete swing pass intended for Charlie Smith that was ruled a lateral and recovered by the Jets.

RAIDERS 56, HOUSTON OILERS 7

1969 AFL Divisional Playoff

Dec. 21, 1969 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

Quarterback Daryle Lamonica, in perhaps his finest hour as a pro, set a single-game playoff record with six touchdown passes to lead the Silver and Black to a swift and decisive 56-7 victory over the visiting Houston Oilers in an AFL Divisional Playoff.

Under the direction of first-year head coach John Madden, a quick-strike offense and a smothering defense paced the Raiders to 28 first-quarter points. On the team's second possession, Lamonica connected with running back Larry Todd for a 40-yard completion, setting up a 13-yard scoring pass to receiver Fred Biletnikoff. On the ensuing possession, defensive back George Atkinson picked off a pass from Houston quarterback Pete Beathard and returned it 57 yards for a touchdown, staking the Raiders to a 14-0 advantage.

The Raider defense struck again on the Oilers' next series, as lineman Carleton Oats recovered a fumble on a first-down play. The turnover set up another scoring strike, with Lamonica finding receiver Rod Sherman for a 24-yard score. Another Oiler fumble, this time by Beathard on a first-down snap, set up an immediate 31-yard scoring pass from Lamonica to Biletnikoff.

Oakland's offense continued to fire on all cylinders in the second quarter, as Lamonica hooked up with running back Charlie Smith for a 60-yard touchdown catch-and-run to make the score 35-0.

Third-quarter touchdown passes to Sherman and tight end Billy Cannon gave Lamonica the record and effectively put the game out of reach for Houston. A late fourth-quarter touchdown pass from Beathard was equaled by a 4-yard touchdown run from fullback Marv Hubbard to round out the scoring.

Lamonica's touchdown bounty established the single-game playoff standard, and has been matched only twice since his record-setting day. As a team, the win over Houston remains the highest playoff point total and largest postseason margin of victory in franchise history.

KANSAS CITY 17, RAIDERS 7

1969 AFL Championship

Jan. 4, 1970 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

The final American Football League Championship fittingly took place in Oakland, as the Raiders had come to dominate the AFL's Western Division, advancing to the championship contest for the third straight season.

A stifling Kansas City defense and a balanced offense led by quarterback Len Dawson conspired to derail the Raiders' attempt for a second AFL title in three seasons. The Chiefs' defense harassed Oakland quarterbacks Daryle Lamonica and George Blanda, forcing the signal-callers to throw four interceptions. Despite the best efforts of running back Charlie Smith, who totaled eight catches for 86 yards and rushed for the Raiders' lone touchdown, the high-flying Oakland offense was limited to its lowest point total of the season.

Smith got the Raiders on the scoreboard first, scampering in around left end from three yards out to cap a 66-yard drive at the end of the first quarter. The Chiefs leveled the score behind a 1-yard scoring plunge by running back Wendell Hayes, and the teams entered the half tied at seven.

Blanda entered the contest at quarterback for Lamonica, who sustained a hand injury, in the third quarter but was picked off deep in Kansas City territory. The Chiefs capitalized on the ensuing possession, marching 94 yards on a drive that culminated in a 5-yard touchdown run by running back Robert Holmes.

Back in the huddle, Lamonica and the Raiders attempted to even the score, but the dinged-up quarterback was picked off on three straight possessions in the fourth quarter. A Jan Stenerud field goal capped the scoring for Kansas City, which came away with the upset victory in Oakland.

RAIDERS 21, MIAMI 14

1970 AFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 27, 1970 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders spoiled Miami's postseason debut on a muddy Coliseum field, using an opportunistic passing attack to upend the upstart Dolphins. Quarterback Daryle Lamonica tossed two touchdown passes and defensive back Willie Brown's 50-yard interception return for a touchdown earned the Raiders a spot in the first AFC Championship game with the 21-14 win.

Miami struck first, as quarterback Bob Griese found receiver Paul Warfield in the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. Oakland pulled even near the half, as Lamonica connected with receiver Fred Biletnikoff for a 22-yard score with 1:50 left on the clock.

Oakland drove to the Miami 2-yard line on the opening possession of the third quarter, but a fumble by running back Charlie Smith was recovered by safety Jake Scott. The Dolphins drove to their own 38-yard line but a Griese pass intended for Warfield was picked off by Brown and returned half the length of the field for a score.

Following a missed Miami field-goal attempt early in the fourth quarter, Lamonica unleashed an 82-yard touchdown pass to receiver Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play, extending the Raider lead. Griese led the Dolphins to within one score with a 7-yard scoring toss to Willie Richardson, but the Oakland defense held firm on Miami's following possession to close out the victory.

BALTIMORE COLTS 27, RAIDERS 17

1970 AFC Championship

Jan. 3, 1971 at Memorial Stadium; Baltimore, Md.

The Silver and Black fell short of a Super Bowl berth for the third straight season, falling to Baltimore on a barren Memorial Stadium field in the first AFC Championship game, 27-17.

The matchup between Oakland, owners of the league's top offense, and the Colts, who were led by legendary signal-caller Johnny Unitas, made for a most compelling championship battle that was dubbed the "Duel in the Dust" by NFL Films.

The Baltimore defense immediately posed problems for quarterback Daryle Lamonica, and the Raider offense stalled in the first quarter, failing to record a first down. Rookie kicker Jim O'Brien gave the Colts the lead midway through the opening frame, booting a 16-yard field goal.

Oakland drove into Colts territory early in the second period but Lamonica was sacked by Bubba Smith, forcing the quarterback to leave the game due to injury. Grizzled veteran George Blanda was called into action once again, looking to spark the Raiders to victory as he had over a remarkable five-game stretch during the regular season. After a 2-yard touchdown plunge by rookie running back Norm Bulaich put the Colts up 10-0, the Raiders drove into Colts territory and Blanda put Oakland on the board with a 48-yard field goal.

Blanda quickly drew the Raiders level in the third quarter, piloting the half's opening drive and connecting with receiver Fred Biletnikoff for a 38-yard touchdown pass. The Colts answered immediately with a field goal and took a commanding lead at the end of the period on Bulaich's second rushing touchdown of the day, an expertly-blocked 11-yard scamper around left end.

The Raiders pulled to within three points on their first drive of the fourth period. Blanda hit Warren Wells for a 15-yard touchdown, part of a five-catch, 108-yard day for the deep-threat receiver. Matching Blanda blow-for-blow was the immeasurable Unitas, who promptly tossed a 68-yard scoring strike to receiver Ray Perkins to bring the Colts' lead back to 10 points.

Blanda's magic could not rally the Raiders again, however, as two of the team's final four possessions resulted in interceptions deep in Baltimore territory and the Colts advanced to Super Bowl V.

PITTSBURGH 13, RAIDERS 7

1972 AFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 23, 1972 at Three Rivers Stadium; Pittsburgh, Pa.

What many have referred to as the greatest and most controversial play of all-time, "The Immaculate Reception," decided an AFC Playoff tilt between the Raiders and Steelers, setting the stage for numerous postseason battles between the two elite teams during the 1970s.

Oakland, returning to the postseason after a one-year hiatus, nursed a 7-6 advantage in a physical contest, and the Steelers were facing a fourth-and-10 as time wound down in regulation. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw's pass, intended for running back Frenchy Fuqua, ricocheted back toward the line of scrimmage and was scooped up by running back Franco Harris, who rumbled 60 yards into the end zone. The pass was deemed by officials to have been deflected by a defender, Raider safety Jack Tatum, and ruled a reception and touchdown in what remains one of the most controversial plays in NFL history.

All of the scoring came in the second half, with defense dominating the first two quarters on both sides. Quarterback Daryle Lamonica was intercepted on Oakland's first drive and a fumble by running back Marv Hubbard put the Raider defense on short fields, but the unit held strong on both occasions and halftime came with no score for either team.

The Steelers, making the organization's first postseason appearance in a decade, struck first with a Roy Gerela field goal early in the third quarter. The Raider offense could not get on track against the "Steel Curtain" defense, and Lamonica was removed in favor of Ken Stabler after throwing a fourth-quarter interception.

Pittsburgh tacked on a 29-yard field goal by Gerela with less than four minutes left in regulation and Stabler assumed the controls from the Raider 20-yard line with 3:42 left on the clock. "The Snake" converted a fourth-down play and connected with four different receivers to move the ball to the Pittsburgh 30-yard line. From there Stabler, almost stopped in the backfield, circled left and darted untouched into the end zone to give the Silver and Black their first lead of the day.

On the Steelers' final possession, Bradshaw moved the offense to the 40-yard line but stalled out there, setting up the controversial play that is still debated to this day.

RAIDERS 33, PITTSBURGH 14

1973 AFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 22, 1973 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

A pair of Marv Hubbard touchdown plunges and four George Blanda field goals helped the Raiders exact a measure of revenge for the previous season's "Immaculate Reception" game with a 33-14 win over Pittsburgh.

Quarterback Ken Stabler's precision passing coupled with a versatile running game, which generated 232 yards on 55 carries, cut through Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense, while a smothering defense limited running back Franco Harris to just 29 yards on the ground and forced quarterback Terry Bradshaw to throw three interceptions.

The Raiders wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as the ground attack keyed a 16-play, 82-yard touchdown drive on Oakland's first possession. Hubbard broke off a 20-yard run to put the Silver and Black in scoring range, while Clarence Davis had four carries for 27 yards to set up Hubbard's 1-yard touchdown run over left tackle.

Blanda's first field goal gave the Raiders a 10-0 lead early in the second period, but a 20-yard punt return set up the Steelers in Oakland territory later in the frame. Pittsburgh capitalized and cut the lead to three following Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring toss to Barry Pearson.

The Raiders continued to pound the ball on the ground in the third quarter, racking up yardage and dominating possession, but producing only a pair of field goals. The Pittsburgh offense took to the air in an attempt to make up for lost time, but the game was effectively put out of reach when a Bradshaw pass was picked off by cornerback Willie Brown and returned 54 yards for a touchdown.

Down 23-7, Pittsburgh again tried to move the ball through the air, but Bradshaw was picked off, this time by safety George Atkinson, setting up Blanda's fourth field goal of the day.

Pittsburgh got a late touchdown, but Hubbard's leaping 1-yard touchdown dive over the middle with 19 seconds left in regulation put an exclamation point on an outstanding all-around performance.

MIAMI 27, RAIDERS 10

1973 AFC Championship

Dec. 30, 1973 at Orange Bowl; Miami, Fla.

An effective running game, led by Larry Csonka's 117 yards and three touchdowns, lifted the Dolphins to a 27-10 victory over the Raiders in front of 75,105 fans at Miami's Orange Bowl. Csonka's effort paced a Dolphin offense that chewed up 266 yards on the ground, averaging over five yards per rushing attempt.

Miami set the tone early, taking the opening kickoff and embarking on a nine-play, 64-yard drive that included just one pass attempt. Quarterback Bob Griese's 27-yard scamper set up an 11-yard touchdown run by Csonka, giving the Dolphins an early lead.

The Oakland offense failed to get on track, punting twice and missing a field-goal attempt before Miami doubled its lead by virtue of a 2-yard Csonka score. The touchdown capped a drive that included 14 running plays and just two pass attempts, both of which fell incomplete.

The Raiders got back into the contest in the third quarter, as kicker George Blanda booted a 21-yard field goal on the first possession of the second half. On the Silver and Black's next offensive series, quarterback Ken Stabler found receiver Mike Siani three times for 45 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown pass that cut the Dolphin lead to 14-10.

Miami returned to the ground game, running the ball on 11 straight plays to set up a Garo Yepremian field goal in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins defense then held firm on a fourth-and-1 play on the Raiders' next possession, stopping running back Marv Hubbard to turn the ball over on downs.

Csonka struck again late in the final period, scoring on a 2-yard run with 1:49 remaining to close out the game and send the Dolphins to their third straight Super Bowl.

1974 AFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 21, 1974 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

In the closing seconds of a tight contest, Clarence Davis hauled in a desperation toss from quarterback Ken Stabler amidst a "Sea of Hands," giving the Raiders a 28-26 victory over the Miami Dolphins in what NBC Sports play-by-play announcer Curt Gowdy called, "the greatest game I have ever seen."

In an epic contest chock full of individual heroes, Stabler's 293 passing yards and four touchdowns and receiver Fred Biletnikoff's knack for timely receptions to the tune of eight catches for 122 yards, edged out Miami's vaunted running game and 114 yards from running back Larry Csonka.

The Dolphins wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as Nat Moore returned the opening kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown to stake the visitors to a 7-0 lead. The Raiders drew even in the second quarter, as Stabler tossed a perfect pass to Charlie Smith in single coverage down the middle for a 31-yard touchdown. Miami turned to the ground game on the ensuing possession, driving into Oakland territory and settling for a 33-yard field goal from Garo Yepremian to enter the half with a 10-7 lead.

Oakland briefly took the lead in the third quarter, with Stabler and Biletnikoff hooking up three times, the third of which was a marvelous one-handed touchdown grab just inside the pylon while draped in coverage. The Dolphins quickly retook the lead, as quarterback Bob Griese found a wide open Paul Warfield in the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown after defensive back Nemiah Wilson slipped in coverage.

A memorable fourth quarter began well for Miami, as Yepremian's second field goal increased the Dolphin lead to 19-14. On Oakland's next possession, Stabler's deep pass was caught by a diving Cliff Branch, who having not been touched by a defender, rose to his feet and scampered 72 yards for a touchdown. Running back Benny Malone gave the Dolphins the advantage once again, breaking tackles and ducking under defenders for a 23-yard touchdown.

Behind the swashbuckling Stabler, the Raiders then drove to the Miami 8-yard line with 35 seconds left on the clock. On first-and-goal, the Miami rush closed in on the quarterback and with defensive end Vern Den Herder at his legs, Stabler looped the ball toward the end zone, where Davis outfought a crowd of white jerseys to come down with the football, clutching it to his chest for the game-winning touchdown.

PITTSBURGH 24, RAIDERS 13

1974 AFC Championship

Dec. 29, 1974 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

A pair of Franco Harris touchdowns, 21 fourth-quarter points and a stingy Pittsburgh defense ended the Raiders' hopes for an AFC title in Oakland. Quarterback Ken Stabler completed 19 passes for 271 yards, but three interceptions contributed to a second straight championship defeat for the Silver and Black.

A fumbled punt on the game's first possession put Oakland within scoring range, and a 40-yard George Blanda field goal gave the Raiders the early advantage. A strong Pittsburgh ground game put kicker Roy Gerela in field-goal range late in the first quarter, but his 20-yard effort sailed wide left. A second-quarter field goal by Gerela, this time from 23-yards out, drew the game level and an interception by Raider defensive back Nemiah Wilson in the end zone helped preserve the 3-3 tie at the half.

Using an efficient passing attack, the Raiders grabbed the lead midway through the third quarter. Stabler drove the offense to the Steelers' 38-yard line, and connected with receiver Cliff Branch on the left side for a touchdown strike.

The Oakland lead was short-lived, however, as Pittsburgh used seven running plays and a 13-yard completion to drive to Oakland's 8-yard line, from where Harris took it up the middle for a score. On the ensuing drive, Stabler was intercepted by linebacker Jack Ham deep in Raider territory, setting up a 6-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Terry Bradshaw to receiver Lynn Swann.

Oakland cut the lead to 17-13 with a 24-yard field goal by Blanda, but Pittsburgh's J.T. Thomas picked off a Stabler pass to dash the Raiders' hopes late in the game. Harris capped the game with a 21-yard touchdown run shortly after the interception, lifting the Steelers to the organization's first Super Bowl appearance.

RAIDERS 31, CINCINNATI 28

1975 AFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 28, 1975 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders outpaced a vaunted Cincinnati passing attack, building a significant lead before withstanding a furious Bengal rally to post a 31-28 victory in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in Oakland.

The Silver and Black offense got off to a fast start, driving into field-goal range on the first possession of the game, but the Raiders came up empty as George Blanda's 41-yard effort fell short. Blanda would make amends later in the period, booting a 27-yard field goal to give the Raiders a 3-0 advantage.

Capitalizing on a short field following a late first-quarter punt, the Raiders added to their lead when quarterback Ken Stabler found receiver Mike Siani in the middle of the end zone for a 9-yard touchdown completion. Cincinnati got on the board via a 1-yard plunge over right tackle by running back Stan Fritts, but Oakland regained its 10-point advantage with an 8-yard touchdown pass from Stabler to tight end Bob Moore with just two minutes remaining in the first half.

The Bengals were forced to punt on their opening second-half possession, and a 20-yard return by Neal Colzie put the Raiders in scoring position at the Cincinnati 35-yard line. Four plays later, running back Pete Banaszak rumbled into the end zone from 6 yards out to increase the Raider lead. Cincinnati scored on the ensuing possession, as quarterback Ken Anderson orchestrated an 11-play, 91-yard drive that culminated in a Lenvil Elliott 6-yard touchdown run.

In a fourth quarter that saw the Coliseum air filled with footballs, the Raiders re-established a significant lead with tight end Dave Casper's 2-yard touchdown catch from a Stabler, his third scoring pass of the game. Cincinnati worked to get back in the game and, following an interception, scored on a 25-yard pass from Anderson to receiver Charlie Joiner. Anderson led a touchdown drive again on the Bengals' next series, connecting with receiver Isaac Curtis for a 14-yard score.

With the lead cut to three points, Cincinnati had one last chance to score the upset, but a tackle for loss by linebacker Ted Hendricks and three incomplete passes on the Bengals' final drive halted any chance of a come-from-behind triumph for the visitors.

PITTSBURGH 16, RAIDERS 10

1975 AFC Championship

Jan. 4, 1976 at Three Rivers Stadium; Pittsburgh, Pa.

On a frigid, ice-covered synthetic turf field at Three Rivers Stadium, the Raiders' vertical passing game was limited to the tune of a 16-10 defeat in what the NFL Network called one of the top "bad weather" games in league history. A defensive struggle turned into an offensive onslaught in the fourth quarter, with the Raiders falling just short against the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers.

With the temperature reaching just 16 degrees at kickoff, both teams struggled to find the end zone through the game's first three quarters. The Steelers got on the scoreboard first in the second period, turning the first of two interceptions by safety Mike Wagner into a 36-yard field goal by Roy Gerela.

Play on both sides got increasingly sloppy on the slippery turf, as the third quarter featured an interception, three turnovers on fumbles, two missed field-goal attempts and two punts, yet yielded zero points.

Pittsburgh broke through early in the fourth quarter, driving to the Oakland 25-yard line before running back Franco Harris bounced to the left after breaking a tackle and raced up the sideline for the game's first touchdown. Oakland answered back, as quarterback Ken Stabler connected with tight end Dave Casper on three consecutive passes for 46 yards, setting up a 14-yard scoring strike to receiver Mike Siani.

The Steelers increased their lead, capitalizing on a fumble recovery deep in Raider territory to score on 20-yard pass from quarterback Terry Bradshaw to receiver John Stallworth. Oakland got a 41-yard field goal from George Blanda late in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 16-10, and recovered the ensuing onside kick, but receiver Cliff Branch was tackled as time expired to quell Oakland's comeback.

RAIDERS 24, NEW ENGLAND 21

1976 AFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 18, 1976 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

Two fourth-quarter touchdowns, including a Ken Stabler scramble with just 10 seconds left in regulation, helped the Raiders avoid a valiant upset bid by the Wild Card qualifier Patriots in Oakland. Stabler's 233 passing yards, and nine receptions for 137 yards from receiver Fred Biletnikoff, put the Raiders through to the team's fourth straight conference championship game with the win.

New England, the only team to defeat the Raiders during the regular season, scored first via a 1-yard touchdown run by running back Andy Johnson. Oakland got on the board with a 40-yard field goal by Errol Mann later in the opening period. A 31-yard touchdown pass from Stabler to Biletnikoff late in the second quarter gave the Silver and Black a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The third quarter was dominated by New England, as second-year quarterback Steve Grogan engineered two long scoring drives. Grogan connected with tight end Russ Francis for a 26-yard touchdown pass to cap off a 9-play, 80-yard drive, and running back Jess Phillips scored on a 3-yard run late in the period to give the Patriots a 21-10 advantage.

The Raiders, in danger of being upset at home after a 13-1 regular season, cut the lead to four points with running back Mark van Eeghen's 1-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Later, facing a third-and-18 from the New England 27-yard line, Stabler was hit as his pass intended for running back Carl Garrett fell incomplete. Patriot defensive lineman Ray "Sugar Bear" Hamilton was flagged for roughing the passer on the play, and the Raiders were given a fresh set of downs. Four plays later, Stabler scrambled left and dove between two defenders into the end zone for the game's winning touchdown.

RAIDERS 24, PITTSBURGH 7

1976 AFC Championship

Dec. 26, 1976 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

A solid rushing performance and a stout defensive effort lifted the Silver and Black to a convincing 24-7 victory over arch-rival Pittsburgh in Oakland. The victory snapped a streak of two straight AFC Championship game victories for the Steelers and punched the Raiders' ticket to Pasadena, Calif., for Super Bowl XI.

Oakland's ground attack, paced by running back Mark van Eeghen's 22 carries for 66 yards, accounted for 157 of the team's 220 total yards of offense. The Raider defense was equally impressive, limiting the Steelers to 72 rushing yards and holding receiver Lynn Swann to just three catches.

A 39-yard field goal by Errol Mann staked the Raiders to an early lead in the first quarter. In the second period, linebacker Willie Hall picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass and returned it 25 yards to the Pittsburgh 1-yard line, setting up a short touchdown run by running back Clarence Davis

Pittsburgh scored their first points on the ensuing possession, as Bradshaw connected on a pair of deep passes to set up a 3-yard scoring run by running back Reggie Harrison. The Raiders pushed the lead to 10 points just before halftime, mixing a strong running game with mid-range passing to set up Stabler's 4-yard touchdown toss to receiver Warren Bankston in the left side of the end zone.

The Raiders extended the lead on the team's second offensive possession of the third quarter, embarking on a 12-play, 63-yard touchdown drive that culminated in Stabler's 5-yard scoring pass to running back Pete Banaszak.

Oakland's defense clamped down for the remainder of regulation, and jubilant Raider fans poured onto the Coliseum field to celebrate as time expired.

RAIDERS 37, BALTIMORE COLTS 31 (2 OT)

1977 AFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 24, 1977 at Memorial Stadium; Baltimore, Md.

The defending Super Bowl champion Raiders, a Wild Card entrant after posting an 11-3 regular-season record, engaged in an epic double-overtime battle with Baltimore at Memorial Stadium, a game that is best remembered for a single pass play, the "Ghost to the Post." Tight end Dave Casper was on the receiving end of three touchdown passes from quarterback Ken Stabler on the day, but it was his late grab to set up the game-tying field goal that earned notoriety in a contest that lasted three hours and 50 minutes.

Running back Clarence Davis put the Raiders up in the first quarter, breaking loose over left guard and scoring on a 30-yard run. The Colts drew even in the second quarter when defensive back Bruce Laird intercepted a Stabler pass and raced 61 yards for a touchdown. A Baltimore field goal gave the Colts a 10-7 lead at halftime.

Stabler took to the air on the Raiders' first possession of the second half, connecting with receiver Cliff Branch for a 41-yard gain before hitting Casper in the end zone from 8 yards out. The Colts retook the lead on the ensuing kickoff, with Marshall Johnson returning Ray Guy's kick 87 yards for a score. The see-saw contest swung in the Raiders' favor later in the third period, as linebacker Ted Hendricks blocked a Baltimore punt to set up Casper's second touchdown catch, a 10-yard toss from Stabler.

Quarterback Bert Jones drove the Colts to Oakland's 1-yard line early in the fourth quarter and running back Ron Lee punched it in for the go-ahead score. Raider running back Pete Banaszak countered with a 1-yard plunge of his own, and the Silver and Black went up once again. A four-play, 73-yard drive capped by Lee's second touchdown run, a 13-yarder, gave the Colts the lead and set up one of the most famous plays in NFL history.

After the teams traded punts on the next four possessions, the Raiders found themselves facing a second-and-10 from their own 44-yard line with the clock winding down. Stabler dropped back to pass, pump faked, and passed to Casper who, running a post pattern, split two defenders and made an over-the-shoulder catch for 42 yards to the Baltimore 14-yard line. Three Banaszak runs brought the ball to the 5-yard line and kicker Errol Mann evened the score with a 22-yard field goal.

Both offenses labored through a scoreless overtime period, with the Raiders driving to Baltimore 13-yard line as the frame closed. Two plays into the sixth period, Stabler, with his 40th pass attempt of the game, fittingly found Casper in the back of the end zone for the game-winning touchdown.

DENVER 20, RAIDERS 17

1977 AFC Championship

Jan. 1, 1978 at Mile High Stadium; Denver, Colo.

Denver's "Orange Crush" defense and a controversial ruling on what appeared to be a late-game fumble by Bronco running back Rob Lytle, conspired to deny the Silver and Black a second straight Super Bowl berth at Mile High Stadium. On a frigid, 18 degree day, quarterback Ken Stabler passed for 215 yards, including two touchdown tosses to Dave Casper, but Oakland fell short in the team's fifth consecutive conference championship game appearance.

Kicker Errol Mann scored the first points of the game, booting a 20-yard field goal to cap the Raiders' first drive. The Broncos responded immediately, with quarterback Craig Morton connecting with receiver Haven Moses for a 74-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown. After a scoreless second quarter, the stage was set for a compelling second half between the two AFC West rivals.

Raider running back Clarence Davis fumbled deep in Oakland territory early in the third quarter, and the Broncos took over and drove to the 2-yard line. Lytle got the carry and was blasted by Raider safety Jack Tatum, causing what appeared to be a fumble that was recovered by Oakland lineman Mike McCoy. An official had blown his whistle, however, and after a conference, ruled Lytle down and assessed the Raiders with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty, setting up a first-and-goal from the 1-yard line. On the very next play, Morton pitched to running back Jon Keyworth on the right, who scampered in for the touchdown.

Oakland cut the deficit to 14-10 early in the fourth quarter, as Stabler hit Casper just inside the end zone for a 7-yard touchdown. The Morton-to-Moses connection then gave the Broncos a two-score lead following a Stabler interception, with Moses' second touchdown catch covering 12 of his 168 receiving yards on the day.

The Raiders scored on the ensuing possession, Stabler's 17-yard touchdown toss to Casper capping an eight-play, 74-yard drive, but Denver took over with three minutes remaining and was able to run out the clock to seal the AFC title.

RAIDERS 27, HOUSTON OILERS 7

1980 AFC Wild Card

Dec. 28, 1980 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

A potent offense and a swarming defense stymied the Houston Oilers and propelled the Raiders to an emphatic 27-7 victory in an AFC Wild Card contest in Oakland. Quarterback Jim Plunkett guided a balanced attack on offense, while cornerback Lester Hayes picked off two passes by former Raider Ken Stabler, returning one for a touchdown in the win.

Houston stumbled out of the gate, as running back Earl Campbell's fumble on the first play from scrimmage was recovered by Raiders safety Mike Davis. Oakland capitalized on the turnover with a 47-yard field goal by kicker Chris Bahr. The Oilers took the lead late in the first period, capping a nine-play, 55-yard drive with a 10-yard touchdown run by Campbell. Plunkett then connected with running back Kenny King for a 37-yard gain in the second quarter, setting up a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Todd Christensen.

A scoreless third quarter gave way to a fourth period that would see the Silver and Black dominate on both sides of the ball. Plunkett hooked up with receiver Cliff Branch for a 33-yard completion at the end of the third quarter, setting up a 44-yard touchdown strike from Plunkett to a streaking Arthur Whittington along the right sideline on the first play of the fourth period.

The Raider defense forced punts on the next two Houston possessions, and Bahr added his second field goal of the day, a 37-yarder, to give the Raiders a 13-point lead. Desperate to get back into the contest, Houston took to the air on the ensuing possession. On a third-and-20 play, Stabler's pass was picked off by Hayes, his second of the game, and returned 20 yards for a touchdown to give the Raiders an insurmountable lead.

1980 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 4, 1981 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium; Cleveland, Ohio

Two rushing touchdowns from running back Mark van Eeghen and safety Mike Davis' game-saving interception on a designed pass play called "Red Right 88," propelled the Raiders to a 14-12 victory over the Browns on a bitter-cold afternoon at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

With the temperature at one degree Fahrenheit at kickoff, both offenses struggled to get started on the frozen turf. With whipping winds limiting the passing game, the first quarter came and went with no score and only two total first downs, both by Cleveland.

The Browns' defense would provide the first score of the game in the second quarter, with defensive back Ron Bolton intercepting a Jim Plunkett pass and returning it 42 yards for a touchdown. The Raiders answered back before halftime, embarking on a 14-play, 64-yard drive that culminated in a 1-yard touchdown run by van Eeghen to give Oakland a 7-6 lead at the break.

Cleveland promptly retook the lead in the third quarter, driving 48 yards and getting a 30-yard field goal from kicker Don Cockroft. The Browns added another field goal later in the period, making the score 12-7 entering the fourth quarter.

The Raiders opened up the fourth quarter on a steady drive, Plunkett mixing runs and passes all the way down to the Browns' 3-yard line. Oakland gave the ball to van Eeghen on three straight plays, including a 1-yard dive to give the Raiders a slim two-point lead.

Quarterback Brian Sipe and the Browns' offense, known as the "Cardiac Kids" for their propensity for late comebacks, took over with 2:22 left in the game and drove all the way down to Oakland's 13-yard line. Instead of opting for a field-goal attempt, and facing a second down with :49 left in regulation, Cleveland coach Sam Rutigliano called for a pass play, "Red Right 88." Davis cut in front of tight end Ozzie Newsome on the play, tumbling to the ground with the ball and preserving the narrow victory for the Silver and Black.

RAIDERS 34, SAN DIEGO 27

1980 AFC Championship

Jan. 11, 1981 at Jack Murphy Stadium; San Diego, Calif.

The Raiders got off to a fast start behind a masterful performance by quarterback Jim Plunkett, and used a ball control offense to upend the Chargers for the AFC title on a slick Jack Murphy Stadium field. Facing a vaunted San Diego passing attack, it was Oakland, led by Plunkett's 14-for-18 passing for 261 yards, which jumped out to a 28-14 halftime lead and held on down the stretch to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time in franchise history.

Oakland wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as a Plunkett pass glanced off of the hands of intended receiver Kenny King directly to tight end Raymond Chester, who galloped 65 yards into the end zone for the score. The Chargers used their aerial attack to even the score, with quarterback Dan Fouts connecting on a 48-yard touchdown toss to receiver Charlie Joiner.

The Raiders retook the lead on the ensuing possession, as a 48-yard completion to receiver Cliff Branch and a pass interference call set up a 5-yard scoring scamper by Plunkett. Oakland scored again on its next possession, Plunkett finding King with a perfect pass in the end zone for 21 yards, to close out a wild first quarter.

A second-quarter fumble recovery by linebacker Ted Hendricks led to another Raider score, as running back Mark van Eeghen got into the end zone on a 3-yard run. The Chargers cut the deficit to two scores on the ensuing possession by virtue of an 8-yard pass from Fouts to Joiner, marking the receiver's second touchdown of the day.

After a break-neck scoring pace in the first half, San Diego chipped away at the Oakland lead with a 26-yard Rolf Benirschke field goal to begin the third quarter. The Chargers cut further into the advantage on their next possession, as running back Chuck Muncie capped off a drive by diving into the end zone following a 6-yard sweep around left tackle.

Starting the fourth quarter on offense, the Raiders controlled the ball for over five minutes on a drive that culminated in kicker Chris Bahr's 33-yard field goal. The Chargers followed with a field-goal drive, but over eight minutes had elapsed and the Raiders took over with less than seven minutes left on the clock. Plunkett expertly engineered four first downs on a 15-play drive that included 14 running plays to close out regulation, ending the game with San Diego's potent offense on the bench.

RAIDERS 27, CLEVELAND 10

1982 AFC Wild Card

Jan. 8, 1983 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

The Raiders, entering the playoffs as the AFC's top seed in a strike-shortened season after posting an 8-1 record, used an efficient passing offense and a smothering defense to dispatch Cleveland at the L.A. Coliseum, 27-10. Quarterback Jim Plunkett completed 24-of-37 pass attempts for 386 yards and rookie running back Marcus Allen found the end zone twice in the Raiders' first playoff game in Los Angeles.

Kicker Chris Bahr opened the scoring with a 27-yard field goal following a 64-yard toss from Plunkett to receiver Cliff Branch, but two Plunkett interceptions halted any further potential damage by the Raiders in the first quarter. Cleveland tied the game with a 52-yard field goal by Bahr's brother, Matt, but the Silver and Black quickly retook the lead on the ensuing possession, driving 88 yards on just eight plays to set up a pitch to Allen for a 2-yard touchdown.

Cleveland briefly tied the game once again, with quarterback Paul McDonald finding receiver Ricky Feacher for a 43-yard touchdown connection. The Raiders' added a field goal at the end of the second quarter, as Chris Bahr was true from 37 yards out, giving the Silver and Black a 13-10 halftime lead.

The Browns drove to the Raiders 11-yard line on the second half's opening possession, but a fumble by running back Charles White halted their momentum, and the Raiders capitalized with an 89-yard drive that culminated in Allen's second touchdown of the day, a 3-yard run.

A 1-yard touchdown dive in the fourth quarter by running back Frank Hawkins essentially sealed the victory, and the Raider defense took over, not letting the Cleveland offense advance any further than the Los Angeles 47-yard line for the remainder of the contest.

NEW YORK JETS 17, RAIDERS 14

1982 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 15, 1983 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; Los Angeles, Calif.

The visiting Jets stifled the Raiders' offense and a late touchdown negated 14 third-quarter points from the Silver and Black in an upset at the L.A. Coliseum. Quarterback Jim Plunkett passed for 266 yards and one touchdown, but was intercepted three times as the Raiders dropped a narrow decision.

The Raiders were in position to score first, but a 34-yard attempt by kicker Chris Bahr hit the right upright. The Jets capitalized immediately, with quarterback Richard Todd orchestrating an 80-yard touchdown drive that culminated in a 20-yard scoring pass to receiver Wesley Walker. Los Angeles drove into Jets territory on the ensuing possession, but a Plunkett pass was picked off by cornerback Bobby Jackson at the 12-yard line. The Jets added a 30-yard field goal by kicker Pat Leahy later in the second quarter and entered the halftime break with a 10-0 advantage.

Plunkett got the Raiders on the board immediately in the third quarter, engineering a 12-play, 77-yard scoring drive that was capped by running back Marcus Allen's 3-yard touchdown run. Regaining possession following a partially-blocked punt, Plunkett promptly connected with receiver Malcolm Barnwell for a 57-yard touchdown strike, giving the Raiders their first lead of the game.

The teams traded turnovers early in the fourth quarter, but a 45-yard completion from Todd to Walker put the Jets in scoring position with just under four minutes remaining in the game. From 1-yard out, running back Scott Dierking dove over the top for the go-ahead touchdown with just 3:45 left on the clock.

The Raiders would have two more opportunities on offense, but on both drives Plunkett was intercepted by linebacker Lance Mehl, ending the Silver and Black's first season in Los Angeles.

RAIDERS 38, PITTSBURGH 10

1983 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 1, 1984 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; Los Angeles, Calif.

Running back Marcus Allen rushed for 121 yards with two touchdowns, and 21 third-quarter points led the Raiders to a dominating 38-10 victory over Pittsburgh in a renewal of one of the NFL's fiercest rivalries at the L.A. Coliseum. Quarterback Jim Plunkett guided an efficient offense and an intimidating defense harried quarterback Cliff Stoudt all afternoon, sacking the Pittsburgh signal-caller five times and intercepting him once.

The Steelers got on the board first with a 17-yard field goal by Gary Anderson. On Pittsburgh's next possession, cornerback Lester Hayes picked off a pass from Stoudt and returned it 18 yards for a touchdown. The Raiders added to their lead in the second quarter, with Allen capping off an 80-yard drive with a 4-yard run over right guard for a touchdown, his first of the day. The Los Angeles defense held firm, allowing Pittsburgh to cross midfield just once on their next three possessions, and a 45-yard field goal by Chris Bahr at the end of the half made the score 17-3.

The third quarter belonged solely to the Silver and Black, as a precision passing game and big-play capability on offense dimmed Pittsburgh's hopes. On the half's opening possession, Plunkett promptly guided a scoring drive by moving the Raiders 72 yards on nine plays, culminating in a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Kenny King.

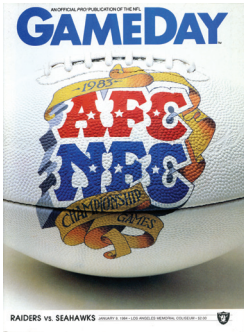

Allen gave Los Angeles a commanding lead on the team's next series, taking a handoff from Plunkett and breaking free up the middle for a dazzling 49-yard touchdown run. Pittsburgh cut into the lead with a long 58-yard touchdown pass from Stoudt to receiver John Stallworth, but running back Frank Hawkins' bull-dozing 2-yard score at the end of the third quarter essentially wrapped up the victory for the Silver and Black.

RAIDERS 30, SEATTLE 14

1983 AFC Championship
Jan. 8, 1984 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; Los Angeles, Calif.

The Raiders were not to be denied in the organization's fifth AFC Championship game appearance in nine years, getting out to a fast start and cruising to a 30-14 triumph at the L.A. Coliseum in front of 92,335 fans, a championship game record. A stifling defense held Seattle scoreless deep into the third quarter, and the combination of quarterback Jim Plunkett and running back Marcus Allen proved too much for a Seahawk team that had defeated the Raiders twice during the regular season.

Seattle's game-opening drive was halted by a Lester Hayes interception, the first of five picks on the day for the Raiders, and led to a 20-yard field goal by kicker Chris Bahr. In the second quarter, running back Frank Hawkins got into the end zone on a 1-yard plunge, capping a 61-yard drive. On the team's next offensive series, Plunkett connected with receiver Malcolm Barnwell for 49 yards, setting up Hawkins' second touchdown of the quarter on a 5-yard run around left end. Safety Mike Davis' first of two interceptions came on the ensuing possession, setting up a 45-yard field goal from Bahr and a commanding 20-0 lead at the half.

The Seahawks switched quarterbacks early in the third quarter, going with veteran Jim Zorn, but the results were much the same, as Davis picked off a pass on Zorn's first series under center. Allen broke off a long run on the very next play, picking up 43 of his 154 yards on the day, and setting up his own 3-yard touchdown reception from Plunkett. Seattle finally got on the board with Zorn's 11-yard touchdown pass to running back Dan Doornink, but the final result was not in doubt.

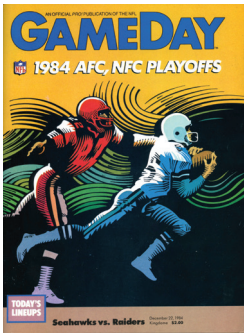

A fourth-quarter field goal by Bahr and a late Seahawk touchdown rounded out the scoring, and the Raiders advanced to the Super Bowl for the fourth time in franchise history.

SEATTLE 13, RAIDERS 7

1984 AFC Wild Card
Dec. 22, 1984 at Kingdome; Seattle, Wash.

A grinding Seattle running game and just four completions by Seahawk quarterback Dave Krieg, including one for a touchdown, was enough to edge the Silver and Black in an AFC Wild Card contest in Seattle. Running back Marcus Allen rushed for 61 yards and caught five passes for 90 yards, while Seattle running back Dan Doornink carried the ball 29 times for 126 yards in front of 64,910 fans at the Kingdome.

Seattle scored first, capping a nine-play, 93-yard drive with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Krieg to receiver Daryl Turner. The teams traded punts frequently until a fumble by Raiders running back Frank Hawkins led to a short field for Seattle late in the third quarter. A 35-yard field goal by kicker Norm Johnson extended the Seahawks' lead, and the first of two interceptions thrown on the day by Plunkett preserved the 10-0 score at the end of three periods.

Johnson added a 44-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, but the Raiders looked to get Allen going on a drive beginning on their own 22-yard line. Plunkett connected with Allen for two completions for 29 yards before hitting him again over the middle for a 46-yard touchdown catch-and-run.

Looking to hold on to their slim lead, the Seahawks took nearly four minutes off the clock before being forced to punt. Taking over at the 16-yard line with under a minute to go, Plunkett completed two quick passes but his third was intercepted by safety Kenny Easley, sealing Seattle's victory.

NEW ENGLAND 27, RAIDERS 20

1985 AFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 5, 1986 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum;
Los Angeles, Calif.

Six Raider turnovers led to 20 New England points and Craig James became the first running back to rush for over 100 yards against Los Angeles all season, as the visiting Patriots upended the Silver and Black at the L.A. Coliseum, 27-20. Running back Marcus Allen rushed for 121 yards and one touchdown, but the top-seeded Silver and Black failed to score in the second half in the upset defeat.

A muffed return on a first-quarter punt set up the game's opening score, a 13-yard pass from quarterback Tony Eason to tight end Lin Dawson. Greg Townsend blocked a punt later in the opening period, but the Raider offense stalled and had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by Chris Bahr.

Los Angeles took the lead in the second quarter, as quarterback Marc Wilson found receiver Jessie Hester in the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown. Defensive lineman Howie Long pounced on a fumble on the Patriots' next possession, and the Raiders capitalized with an 11-yard touchdown run by Allen. On the ensuing series, New England covered 80 yards on a 10-play scoring drive, with James capping the sequence with a 2-yard touchdown around left end. After trading field goals, the teams entered halftime with the Raiders clinging to a narrow 20-17 advantage.

Turnovers continued to plague the Raiders in the third quarter, as an Allen fumble in New England territory led to a game-tying, 32-yard field goal by kicker Tony Franklin. On the ensuing kickoff, returner Sam Seale muffed the kick and then fumbled before Jim Bowman fell on the ball in the end zone for a New England touchdown.

The special-teams touchdown would provide the difference in the game, as the Patriots limited the Raiders to just two fourth-quarter possessions, picking off Wilson for the third time to close out the upset.

RAIDERS 20, CINCINNATI 10

1990 AFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 13, 1991 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum;
Los Angeles, Calif.

Returning to the playoffs after a five-year hiatus, the Raiders used 10 fourth-quarter points to defeat Cincinnati, 20-10, in a game that is perhaps most remembered as running back Bo Jackson's last career appearance on a football field. Quarterback Jay Schroeder passed for 172 yards and two touchdowns on just 11 completions, and running back Marcus Allen gained 140 yards on the ground to lead the Silver and Black.

Art Shell's team drove to the Cincinnati 24-yard line early in the first quarter, but an incompletion on a fourth-and-1 play turned the ball over on downs. A second-quarter field goal gave the Bengals an early lead, but the Raiders' running game got going on the ensuing possession, as Jackson and Allen combined for 56 yards on five rushing attempts before Shroeder found receiver Mervyn Fernandez in the end zone for a 13-yard strike.

Early in the third quarter, Jackson took a pitch from Schroeder and dashed around right end for 34 yards before being dragged down from behind. It would mark the final play of a short but bright career for the dynamic running back, as Jackson suffered a career-ending hip injury on the play.

Kicker Jeff Jaeger booted a 49-yard field goal to cap a third-quarter drive, but the Bengals pulled even when quarterback Boomer Esiason hooked up with receiver Stanford Jennings for an 8-yard touchdown early in the fourth period. On the ensuing possession, Schroeder orchestrated an 80-yard touchdown drive that was highlighted by a 41-yard scoring pass to tight end Ethan Horton, who made a finger-tip grab on the play.

The Bengals began to drive on their next possession, but Greg Townsend's third sack of the game helped derail their offense. Jaeger's 25-yard field goal with just 19 seconds left on the clock ended Cincinnati's hopes and sent the Raiders to the AFC Championship game for the first time since the 1983 season.

BUFFALO 51, RAIDERS 3

1990 AFC Championship

Jan. 20, 1991 at Rich Stadium; Orchard Park, N.Y.

Buffalo's potent offense jumped out to 41 first-half points en route to a 51-3 defeat of the Raiders at Rich Stadium. Quarterback Jay Schroeder, directing an offense devoid of star running back Bo Jackson, threw five interceptions, and the Los Angeles defense could not keep pace with a Bills offense that got 300 passing yards from quarterback Jim Kelly and three rushing touchdowns from running back Kenneth Davis.

The Bills got off to a fast start, as Kelly connected with former Raider James Lofton for a 13-yard touchdown on the team's first drive. The Raiders answered immediately, getting a 41-yard field goal from kicker Jeff Jaeger on the ensuing possession. A relentless Buffalo offense scored again on a 12-yard touchdown run by Thurman Thomas, and added seven points on an interception return for a touchdown by linebacker Daryl Talley to make the score 21-3.

With the Raider offense stuck in neutral, the Bills added 20 points in the second quarter via two short-yardage runs by Davis and Lofton's second touchdown catch of the game.

Any spark the Raiders looked to ignite after halftime flamed out in the form of two interceptions in Buffalo territory. Davis' third score of the game on a 1-yard dive and a fourth-quarter field goal from kicker Scott Norwood closed out Buffalo's first conference title.

KANSAS CITY 10, RAIDERS 6

1991 AFC Wild Card

Dec. 28, 1991 at Arrowhead Stadium; Kansas City, Mo.

The Raiders fell to the Chiefs, 10-6, in a contest highlighted by dominating defense on both sides in an AFC Wild Card game. Rookie quarterback Todd Marinovich, who threw three touchdown passes in his NFL debut the previous week against the same Kansas City squad, threw four interceptions, and Chiefs running back Barry Word rushed for 130 yards at Arrowhead Stadium.

Both offenses struggled to put points on the board in the first half, as the two teams combined for three interceptions, two fumbles, two missed field goals and one punt on the game's first eight possessions. Safety Deron Cherry's second interception of the game midway through the second quarter put Kansas City in scoring position, and quarterback Steve DeBerg capitalized with an 11-yard touchdown strike to receiver Fred Jones. Marinovich engineered a score near the end of the second quarter, getting three points on a 32-yard Jeff Jaeger field goal following a 10-play, 65-yard drive.

The Raiders drew closer at the start of the second half, driving to the Kansas City 8-yard line before settling for a 26-yard chip shot by Jaeger. The Silver and Black's offense could not remain on track, however, and the Raiders' final three possessions ended in turnovers. The Chiefs added a Nick Lowery field goal in the fourth quarter, handing Los Angeles the narrow defeat.

RAIDERS 42, DENVER 24

1993 AFC Wild Card

Jan. 9, 1994 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; Los Angeles, Calif.

A quick-strike offense and three second-half touchdowns by running back Napoleon McCallum propelled the Raiders to a 42-24 shootout victory over Denver at the L.A. Coliseum. Quarterback Jeff Hostetler passed for 294 yards and three first-half scores against a Bronco team that the Silver and Black had defeated in overtime the previous week, forcing Denver to return to Los Angeles for the Wild Card contest.

Los Angeles and Denver exchanged scores on a "blow-for-blow" basis in the first half. The Raiders opened the scoring with Hostetler's 9-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ethan Horton, only to be matched by quarterback John Elway's 23-yard strike to tight end Shannon Sharpe. Hostetler connected on the first long score of the game, hitting receiver Tim Brown for a 65-yard touchdown later in the first quarter. Elway followed suit with a 16-yard touchdown in the second period to tight end Reggie Johnson, but Los Angeles went up again via a 54-yard pass from Hostetler to receiver James Jett. Denver pulled even on Elway's 6-yard toss to receiver Derek Russell, and the game went into the half tied, 21-21.

After posting a pair of three-and-outs on defense, the Raiders took to the ground on offense in the third quarter. McCallum, who had just one carry in the first half, broke loose for a 26-yard touchdown to give the Silver and Black the lead for good. McCallum powered through the middle for a 2-yard score to cap a 52-yard drive later in the period, and the Los Angeles defense did not yield a Bronco first down on four third-quarter possessions to maintain a commanding lead.

Kicker Jason Elam booted a 33-yard field goal to get Denver back on the board in the fourth quarter, but McCallum's third touchdown of the game following a long Raider drive sealed the victory for the Silver and Black.

BUFFALO 29, RAIDERS 23

1993 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 15, 1994 at Rich Stadium; Orchard Park, N.Y.

The Raiders were edged by the Bills, 29-23, on a frigid artificial turf at Rich Stadium in a competitive AFC Divisional playoff game. With temperatures at game time dipping to zero, the Silver and Black built a 17-13 halftime lead, but succumbed to Buffalo behind a pair of second-half touchdown passes from quarterback Jim Kelly to receiver Bill Brooks.

The Bills provided the game's initial threat in the first quarter, driving to the Raider 30-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. The Silver and Black responded immediately, embarking on a 58-yard drive that culminated in kicker Jeff Jaeger's 30-yard field goal in the second quarter.

Running back Kenneth Davis put the Bills ahead with a leaping 1-yard touchdown dive on the ensuing possession, but Raiders running back Napoleon McCallum matched the score with a 1-yard scoring run of his own. Los Angeles extended its lead following a fumble recovery, as McCallum capped an 11-play, 40-yard drive with his second 1-yard touchdown run of the day. The Bills got back into the game on the heels of a 37-yard pass interference call, with running back Thurman Thomas punching it into the end zone from 8 yards out.

Buffalo grabbed the lead in the third quarter, getting a touchdown on Kelly's 25-yard pass to Brooks and adding a field goal to move ahead, 22-17. The Bills' lead was short-lived, however, as quarterback Jeff Hostetler connected with receiver Tim Brown from the Raiders 24-yard line, and Brown streaked up the middle and eluded a tackler to score an 86-yard touchdown.

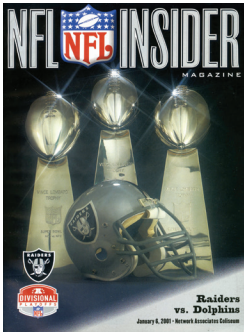

Kelly guided another scoring drive to put the Bills up for good, connecting with Brooks from 22 yards out to provide the difference. The Raiders' two remaining possessions resulted in three-and-outs, and the Bills ran out the clock to end the Silver and Black's season.

RAIDERS 27, MIAMI 0

2000 AFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 6, 2001 at Network Associates Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders made a triumphant return to the postseason, dismantling the visiting Miami Dolphins and posting a 27-0 victory, the first postseason shutout in franchise history. Quarterback Rich Gannon's efficient passing and cornerback Tory James' two interceptions, including a 90-yard return for a touchdown, spelled doom for the Dolphins at Network Associates Coliseum.

Miami quarterback Jay Fiedler drove the Dolphins to the Raiders' 16-yard line on the team's first possession, but James jumped receiver Leslie Shepherd's route for a pick and raced 90 yards down the sideline for a tone-setting touchdown. Kicker Sebastian Janikowski added a 36-yard field goal in the opening period and the end result was never in doubt.

Another Janikowski field goal, this one from 33 yards out, boosted the Oakland lead in the second quarter, and when Gannon connected with receiver James Jett on a 6-yard touchdown pass, the rout was truly on.

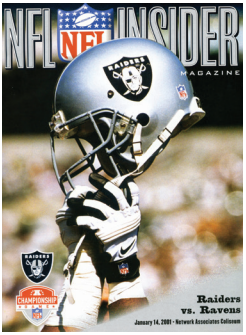

The Raider defense halted any hope of a Miami comeback, holding running back Lamar Smith, who had rushed for 209 yards the previous week against Indianapolis, to just five yards on eight carries. A 2-yard touchdown run by running back Tyrone Wheatley in the third quarter put the game out of reach, and two fourth-quarter interceptions, including a second of the day by James, closed out the convincing victory.

BALTIMORE RAVENS 16, RAIDERS 3

2000 AFC Championship
Jan. 14, 2001 at Network Associates Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

The Baltimore Ravens spoiled the first conference championship game played in Oakland since 1976, using a stifling defense to upend the host Raiders, 16-3. Quarterback Rich Gannon was injured on a second-quarter play, and the Raiders fell short in their bid for a return to the Super Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Ravens got on the board first when quarterback Trent Dilfer hit Shannon Sharpe over the middle and the tight end split two defenders, rumbling 96 yards for a touchdown. Shortly following the Ravens' score, Gannon was forced to leave the game due to a shoulder injury and his replacement, Bobby Hoying, threw an interception that Baltimore capitalized upon with a 31-yard field goal.

With Gannon back under center, the Raiders mounted a scoring drive early in the third quarter. Kicker Sebastian Janikowski booted a 24-yard field goal after the Oakland drive stalled out at Baltimore's 6-yard line. The Ravens added short Matt Stover field goals, one each in the third and fourth quarters, and the Raiders were kept out of the end zone for the first time all season in the defeat.

RAIDERS 38, NEW YORK JETS 24

2001 AFC Wild Card

Jan. 12, 2002 at Network Associates Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

An explosive offense led by quarterback Rich Gannon, receiver Jerry Rice and running back Charlie Garner overwhelmed the visiting New York Jets in an AFC Wild Card contest, 38-24. Rice's nine catches for 183 yards and Garner's 158 rushing yards proved too much for the Jets, who had defeated the Raiders at Network Associates Coliseum the previous week to earn a playoff berth.

The Raiders got off to a fast start in the first quarter, with Gannon leading two long drives that resulted in Sebastian Janikowski field goals. After the two teams traded field goals in the second quarter, the Silver and Black got into the end zone on a 2-yard pass from Gannon to receiver Tim Brown to give the Raiders a 16-3 halftime lead.

The Jets pulled closer on the second half's opening drive, as QB Vinny Testaverde found receiver Wayne Chrebet wide open for a 17-yard touchdown. The Raiders recovered a fumble near the end of the third period, setting up a wild fourth period in which the teams would combine to score 36 points.

Fullback Zack Crockett got the final quarter started with a 2-yard plunge for a score, and a two-point conversion gave the Raiders a 24-10 advantage. A 3-yard toss from Testaverde to fullback Richie Anderson cut the Oakland lead to seven points, but Gannon promptly led a 68-yard scoring drive on the ensuing possession, connecting with Rice for a 21-yard touchdown toss.

The Jets stormed back, as Chrebet hauled in his second touchdown pass of the game from 4 yards out. On the Raiders' next possession, Garner took a handoff and broke free around the right end for 80 yards to set a franchise postseason record and put the game out of reach.

NEW ENGLAND 16, RAIDERS 13 (OT)

2001 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 19, 2002 at Foxboro Stadium; Foxboro, Mass.

A New England snow storm created a majestic setting at Foxboro Stadium, as the Patriots edged the Raiders in the "Tuck Game," one of the most controversial contests in NFL history.

With less than two minutes remaining in regulation and the Raiders clinging to a three-point lead, cornerback Charles Woodson sacked Patriots quarterback Tom Brady, causing what appeared to be a fumble that was recovered by Raider linebacker Greg Biekert to seal a Raider win. Citing Rule 3, Section 22, Article 2, Note 2 in the NFL rule book, the officials ruled the play an incomplete pass, leading to the game-tying field goal by kicker Adam Vinatieri.

The Raiders built an early lead in the contest, as quarterback Rich Gannon connected with receiver James Jett in the corner of the end zone for a 13-yard score in the second quarter. Two Sebastian Janikowkski field goals, from 38 and 45 yards out, gave the Raiders a 13-3 advantage entering the final period.

Brady was efficient in an early fourth-quarter drive, completing nine consecutive pass attempts before scampering into the end zone for a 6-yard touchdown to cut the Raider lead to three points. Brady then led a late-game drive that culminated in Vinatieri's 45-yard, game-tying field goal that came on the heels of the "tuck rule" play.

In overtime, Brady promptly piloted a 61-yard drive that led to Vinatieri's game-winner from 23 yards out.

RAIDERS 30, NEW YORK JETS 10

2002 AFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 12, 2003 at Network Associates Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

An opportunistic offense scored 17 points off of three Jets turnovers, and quarterback Rich Gannon passed for 283 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Raiders to a convincing 30-10 victory over the New York Jets at Network Associates Coliseum.

After trading first-quarter field goals, the Raiders capitalized on a fumble recovery in Jets territory by way of a 1-yard dive by fullback Zack Crockett. The Jets drew even late in the second quarter, as quarterback Chad Pennington capped a long drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to fullback Jerald Sowell to tie the game at the half.

The second half was all Silver and Black, with Gannon connecting with receiver Jerry Porter for a 29-yard touchdown in the third quarter to give the Raiders the lead for good. Gannon and Porter hooked up again later in the third period for 50 of Porter's 123 receiving yards on the day, setting up a 9-yard touchdown pass to receiver Jerry Rice early in fourth quarter.

Two fourth-quarter field goals by Sebastian Janikowski closed out the victory and pushed the Raiders one step closer to the Super Bowl.

RAIDERS 41, TENNESSEE 24

2002 AFC Championship

Jan. 19, 2003 at Network Associates Coliseum; Oakland, Calif.

The Raiders got out to a fast start and out-lasted Tennessee in the second half to secure the Silver and Black's first Super Bowl berth since the 1983 season. A relentless passing attack, led by quarterback Rich Gannon's 286 yards and three touchdowns through the air, proved too much for the visiting Titans.

Oakland wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as Gannon took the offense 69 yards on the opening possession and connected with receiver Jerry Porter for a 3-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring. The Titans answered immediately, with quarterback Steve McNair hitting receiver Drew Bennett for a 33-yard touchdown on the ensuing drive. The Raiders went up again on their next possession, Gannon moving the offense swiftly downfield to set up a 12-yard touchdown pass to running back Charlie Garner.

Tennessee cut into the Raider lead with a field goal in the second quarter, and the Titans briefly took the lead by virtue of a 9-yard touchdown run by McNair.. The Raiders took the lead back near the end of the first half, capitalizing on a fumble recovery deep in Tennessee territory with a 1-yard scoring pass from Gannon to tight end Doug Jolley. A fumble recovery on the ensuing kickoff gave the Raiders the ball in scoring range once again, and kicker Sebastian Janikowski was true from 43 yards out.

A second Janikowski field goal was matched by McNair's second touchdown run of the game, a 13-yard scamper to make the score 27-24 in Oakland's favor entering the fourth quarter. Gannon began the final period by capping off a 66-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run of his own, and closed out the victory by leading the Silver and Black on a time-consuming drive that resulted in fullback Zack Crockett's 7-yard touchdown run. McNair and the Titans moved the ball down to the Oakland 6-yard line, but turned the ball over on downs, and Gannon took a knee as the Coliseum erupted in celebration.

HOUSTON 27, RAIDERS 14

2016 AFC Wild Card

Jan. 7, 2017 at NRG Stadium; Houston, Texas

The Raiders' return to the postseason was spoiled by injuries and an efficient Houston Texans team that capitalized on three turnovers and 20 first half points en route to a 27-14 verdict at NRG Stadium.

Quarterback Connor Cook became the first rookie to make his first career start in a playoff game, taking the reins following a season-ending injury to Derek Carr in Week 16 and a shoulder injury to backup Matt McGloin in the regular season finale.

Houston got off to a fast start, opening the scoring with a 50-yard field goal by Nick Novak. On the ensuing possession, Texans defensive end Jadeveon Clowney tipped and intercepted a third-down screen pass from Cook deep in Raiders territory, setting up a 4-yard touchdown run by Lamar Miller and a 10-0 lead for the home team. The Raiders cut the lead to 10-7 later in the first period, as a 37-yard punt return by rookie running back Jalen Richard started the Raiders at the Texans' 38-yard line, initiating a drive that saw running back Latavius Murray grind out 27 yards on four carries, including a 2-yard touchdown run.

The Texans stemmed the tide and took control in the second quarter, getting a 38-yard field goal from Novak before quarterback Brock Osweiler found wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins for a 38-yard gain and a 2-yard touchdown connection to close the half with a 20-7 lead.

Oakland and Houston combined for seven punts in a third quarter that was dominated by defense, and the Texans moved the score to 27-7 with a 1-yard run by Osweiler early in the final period. The Raiders answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive, culminating in an 8-yard scoring pass from Cook to receiver Andre Holmes.

Battling a dwindling clock in addition to the NFL's top-ranked defensive unit, the Raiders' final two drives of the game ended in interceptions for Cook, who finished 18-for-45 passing for 161 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions in his debut start.

CINCINNATI 26, RAIDERS 19

2021 AFC Wild Card

Jan. 15, 2022 at Paul Brown Stadium; Cincinnati, Ohio

A furious comeback that had the Silver and Black inside the Bengals' 10-yard line and poised to tie the game ended with the ball in the hands of the defense at the 2-yard line, spoiling the Raiders' return to the postseason.

The 26-19 verdict was an abrupt conclusion to a season full of valiant efforts by the Raiders, who went on a remarkable four-game winning streak to close out the season and secure the franchises' first postseason berth in five years.

Quarterback Derek Carr, making his postseason debut, piloted an opening drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Daniel Carlson to begin the scoring. Cincinnati roared back with a 7-yard touchdown pass from Joe Burrow to tight end C.J. Uzomah and the Bengals defense then harried Carr with sacks on back-to-back possessions. A stout defensive effort held Cincinnati to two field goals on their next two possessions despite Cincinnati taking possession in Las Vegas territory on both occasions.

Carlson pulled the Raiders closer with a second-quarter field goal, but the Bengals extended their lead on a controversial play in which Burrow scrambled right towards the sideline and connected with receiver Tyler Boyd in the back of the end zone. An inadvertent whistle was audible as Burrow released the ball but the result of the play stood, giving the Bengals a two-touchdown advantage. The Raiders took possession with 1:51 left in the half and Carr promptly executed an efficient scoring drive, connecting with five different receivers for 55 yards and rushing for 20 more himself, the sequence culminating in a 14-yard strike to Zay Jones to make the score 20-13 at intermission.

The Raiders and Bengals traded a pair of field goals in the second half, Carlson's fourth score of the day tying a franchise single-game record originally set by George Blanda, and Carr took the helm from the 35-yard line facing a seven-point deficit with just 1:51 left in regulation. Remarkable third-down completions to Darren Waller and Jones set the Raiders up at the Cincinnati 9-yard line, but their quest fell just short as Carr's attempt to find Jones on fourth down was intercepted by linebacker Germaine Pratt.

RAIDERS RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

Jason Horowitz returns for his second season as radio play-by-play announcer for the Silver and Black. Horowitz will again be joined on the call for all Raiders games this season by former All-Pro tackle Lincoln Kennedy, who starred for the Silver and Black from 1996-2003, where he anchored the offensive line that captured three straight AFC West titles (2000, 2001, and 2002) and played in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Horowitz has most recently called Army Football games for CBS Sports Network and has been the lead studio anchor of Westwood One's NCAA Football and Basketball coverage, a role he held since 2009. His additional work with Westwood One includes NCAA tournaments and Final Four games since 2014 and various shows on SiriusXM NFL Radio and ESPNU over the past 13 years. Horowitz's work has also included coverage of Super Bowls, Olympic Games and Final Four Games. He has also called FCS Championship Games and hosted NFL Drafts.

Kennedy, who moved to the booth to handle color analyst duties in 2018 after serving as Raiders Radio sideline reporter for four seasons, continues to call PAC-12 college football games as the color analyst. Prior to joining the Raiders Radio Network broadcast, Kennedy hosted a national radio show on Fox Sports Radio, was on the NFL Network for two years and served as a track reporter during NASCAR races. Kennedy has also made numerous appearances on both the large and small screen. An All-American at the University of Washington, Kennedy was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2015.

Hosts/analysts of the Raiders Radio pregame and postgame shows are JT The Brick and Eric Allen.

JT The Brick, in his fourth decade with the Raiders, hosts his popular show on Raider Nation Radio 920 AM and is a regular on a number of Raiders media platforms.

Allen spent the last four of his 14 NFL seasons with the Raiders, where he played in 58 games and picked off 15 passes for 256 yards, scored three defensive touchdowns and helped the Silver and Black win the AFC West in 2000 and 2001. Over his NFL career, Allen recorded 54 interceptions, nine defensive touchdowns and played in six NFL Pro Bowls.

THE RAIDER IMAGE

OFFICIAL TEAM STORE

The Raider Image is the official merchandising arm of the Las Vegas Raiders. There are seven Raider Image stores in Southern Nevada and one in California, all owned and operated by the Las Vegas Raiders. The flagship Raider Image, an 18,500-square-foot store that opened in September 2020, is located at the north entrance of Allegiant Stadium and is open year-round for fans.

Two new Raider Image locations opened in Southern Nevada early last year, one in Downtown Summerlin and the other at the Harry Reid International Airport C Gates. The other locations in the Las Vegas Valley are the flagship location at Allegiant Stadium, Town Square Las Vegas, Fashion Show Mall, The Shoppes at Mandalay Place and Miracle Mile Shops. In addition, there are "shop-in shops" at the Aria, Bellagio, and M Resort. The Raider Image continues to expand in the Las Vegas market, with a secondary location at Harry Reid Airport opening in the Fall – T3, Gate E9.

In addition, The Raider Image e-commerce store provides the best selection of merchandise for Raider fans around the world with thousands of products available online and on the mobile app. Find the online store through RAIDERS.COM/SHOP and follow @theraiderimage on Instagram for on-field style updates and new arrivals.

The Las Vegas Raiders Community Relations Department strives to enrich the community and enhance the lives of others through outreach programs, initiatives and partnerships in the areas of education, health and fitness, volunteerism, community engagement and charitable giving. During the 2022 season, these efforts impacted 3,661 people, 264 nonprofit organizations and provided 2,609 meals in Nevada. Additionally, 92 players have made 519 total appearances supporting 85 Raiders community programs and events.

The 2022 season encapsulated giveback that included, but was not limited to, hosting youth holiday celebrations for children across the Las Vegas valley, honoring teachers for their work inside and outside of the classroom and showing appreciation to healthcare professionals, local police and firefighters for their contributions to the Las Vegas community.

Additional Raiders community activations included creating memorable experiences for children and teens battling critical illnesses, facilitating shopping sprees for needed items with at-risk youth struggling with addiction, reading to local students to encourage learning outside of the classroom, and creating opportunities for youth to become active outside through fitness programs that promote living a healthy lifestyle.

The Raiders celebrate youth and high school football year-round through camps, activities and engaging experiences. Our goal as a department is to engage players at every stage to develop them as great people on and off the field. The game inspires character, leadership, resilience and teamwork along with key life skills that transfer from the huddle to the classroom and beyond.

The Raiders have made substantial investments in supporting youth and high school football, donating equipment, funding coach certification and engagement of the entire student body throughout the state of Nevada. Since 2018, the Raiders have donated $610,000 worth of football equipment including helmets, cleats, gloves, uniforms and tackle pads.

In 2022, the Raiders collaborated with the City of Las Vegas Parks & Recreation Department to create Silver & Black Flag Football Leagues. Through partnership with NFL FLAG, the Silver & Black League produced raiders branded uniforms, flag kits and special Raiders experiences for 1,500 youth.

The Raiders honor a coach each week during both tackle and flag football high school football seasons with the Tom Flores High School Coach of the Week award. Named after Raiders two-time Super Bowl winning Head Coach and Pro Football Hall of Famer Tom Flores, the Tom Flores High School Coach of the Week Program recognizes local high school football coaches who continuously demonstrate hard work and dedication to their communities creating successful teams on and off the field. Through partnerships with USA Football, the Raiders facilitated the certification of 12,000 youth football coaches across Nevada allowing them to provide exceptional and safe football experiences to student athletes.

Since 2018, The Raiders have conducted 290 Raiders Junior Training Camps in Southern Nevada serving over 35,000 youth. Raiders Junior Training Camps features the educational and recreational benefits of football presented in a safe and fun environment for kids regardless of age, gender, ability or experience.

FOUNDATION

The Raiders Foundation is the charitable arm of the Las Vegas Raiders and advocates for the community through the support of active military and veterans, youth development, and growing the game of football.

ALUMNI

The Raiders Alumni Relations Department serves to preserve and promote the relationships between the organization, its fans and its more than 900+ Alumni. By utilizing outreach and camaraderie, we aim to ensure the overall well-being of our organization's most valuable asset, the Raiders Alumni. The department upholds the motto "Once a Raider, Always a Raider" through intentionally developing opportunities for meaningful Alumni engagement.

@RAIDERS_PR TWITTER: Media can retrieve up-to-date schedules, notes and team information via the official Twitter account of the Raiders' Media Relations department, @RAIDERS_PR. The Raiders Media Relations department's email address is raiderspr@raiders.com.

TRAINING CAMP 2023: Training Camp will be hosted at Intermountain Health Performance Center/Raiders Headquarters, located at 1475 Raiders Way in Henderson, Nev., 89052.

TRAINING CAMP CREDENTIALS: Media requesting access to Training Camp should contact Raiders Media Relations Manager Cam Russo (crusso@raiders.com). Credential requests must be received 72 hours in advance of the desired date to attend.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY: Press conferences for all coaches, players and other personnel will be executed in person and potentially via video conference or conference call. Video of press conferences will be provided to local television and web-based outlets regularly. A media advisory with times and dates will be distributed to media via email.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests for home games will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers. All single-game requests must be received by 5 p.m. (PT) (crusso@raiders.com) on the Monday prior to each Sunday home game. All full-season and single-game credential requests must be submitted by an editor or sports director.

PARKING: Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but due to limited space, parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. Television trucks that provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with the Raiders Media Relations department.

MEDIA WILL CALL: Media Will Call is located at the Southwest entry gate of Allegiant Stadium, closest to Parking Lots A and K on Polaris Ave. Each member of the media must pick up their own individual credential and present corresponding photo identification. Media will call opens four hours prior to the scheduled kickoff and stays open until the end of the first quarter.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: The media entrance is clearly marked and located at the Southwest entry gate of Allegiant Stadium. Media credentials will not be honored at any other gate. All media must check in at the media entrance before entering Allegiant Stadium. For security purposes, individuals and their belongings will be searched upon entry into the stadium. Photographers and videographers can retrieve appropriate sideline vests at the media entrance.

MEDIA INFORMATION POOL REPORTER: As assigned by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA), the Las Vegas pool reporter for the 2023 season is Vic Tafur of The Athletic.

ON-FIELD AND POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: On-field postgame interviews will be accommodated in accordance with the NFL media policy.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS: The Raiders respectfully ask that all interview requests, for any member of the organization, be submitted through the team's Media Relations department. Players, coaches, executives or other team personnel should never be contacted by media directly by telephone, email, or via social media. Interview requests for Owner Mark Davis, General Manager Dave Ziegler, Head Coach Josh McDaniels and other club executives should be directed to Will Kiss (wkiss@raiders.com).

Interview requests for assistant coaches should be directed through the Raiders Media Relations department. Those requesting interviews with Raiders Coordinators should contact Will Kiss (wkiss@raiders.com).

Other assistant coaches will be made available in accordance with the NFL media policy. Individual interview requests will also be considered, provided the request is made at least 24 hours in advance to the Raiders Media Relations department. During a typical regular-season Sunday game week, coordinators are only available on Tuesdays, while other assistants are only available Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Following games, McDaniels is the only coach available for comment.

All player one-on-one requests should be made through the Raiders Media Relations department. With respect to all players, the Raiders will make them available to accredited media in accordance with the NFL's media policy.

Interview requests for Raiders Alumni, the team's Community, Foundation initiatives and Raiderettes should be directed to Director of Public Affairs Mike Taylor (mtaylor@raiders.com).

PRACTICE ACCESS & PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOGRAPHY GUIDELINES: Accredited members of the media that regularly cover the NFL are welcome to attend the first 30 minutes, or until the "team" portion, of regular-season practices. Photography and videography are allowed, in general, during this window. The team reserves the right to limit photography to certain periods due to competitive-advantage reasons. During any practice open to the media, media should stand at a safe distance and hold all belongings, including bags and video cameras. Tripods are not allowed on the field during practice, for safety reasons.

NFLOMG MEDIA WEBSITE: Launched in 2020, The Las Vegas Raiders Online Media Guide is also accessible through an interactive platform on NFLOMG.com. Tailored to be a one-stop shop for all media members, the Raiders' new home for online media will provide standard media guide information, weekly game releases, in-game player tracking features, in addition to statistical reports generated directly from NFL GSIS. If you wish to request a personal account, please contact Joseph Hooven(jhooven@raiders.com).

PRACTICE REPORTING POLICY: Blogging and tweeting from offseason, training camp and regular-season practices are permitted for practices that are open to the public. For all practices that are closed to the public, blogging and tweeting are permitted only within the designated viewing window. Consistent with Super Bowl reporting protocol for practices, the following are general reporting policies for all media, including blogging and tweeting:

- Media may note which players are practicing as well as those who are not.
- Media may report non-strategy and non-game plan observations.
- Not permitted is any reference to plays run or game strategy. This includes describing formations, personnel groupings (i.e., composition of offensive line) or non-conventional (i.e., "trick") plays.
- Not permitted is the reporting of which players are practicing with individual units (goal line offense, nickel/ dime defense, etc.)
- Not permitted is the reporting of practice injuries until the team has provided an official update.
- Access to the head coach will be provided for comments and injury updates.
- Not permitted is quoting, paraphrasing or reporting comments made by coaches, players or team personnel during a practice session.
- Not permitted are any photo/video transmissions after the designated shooting period has closed.
- Not permitted are wide-view photos/videos of formations and/or personnel groupings (shots must be tightly focused on the player/ball.)
- Not permitted is any audio of quarterback cadence, keywords, audibles, etc.
- All cell phones must be turned to "silent" or "vibrate" mode for practice and all press conferences.

MEDIA GUIDE: The 2023 Las Vegas Raiders Media Guide includes information current as of July 10, 2023. All writing, research and editing by Will Kiss, Mike Taylor, Cameron Russo, Joseph Hooven, Jade Capristo and Ashley Smith. Photography by Michael Clemens, Matt Aguirre, Jeff Bennett, the Associated Press and Sports Information departments of schools that have produced Raiders players. Additional photos are from the Raiders archive. The 2023 Las Vegas Raiders Media Guide is available online at Raiders.com.
