TABLE OF CONTENTS

ROBERT STANFORD "BOB" BROWN
2004 Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee

Position: Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-4, 280
Born: 12/8/41 in Cleveland, OH
High School: East Tech, Cleveland, OH
College: Nebraska
Acquired by Eagles: D1-1964 (2nd overall selection)
Years with Eagles: 1964-68
Other NFL Experience: Los Angeles Rams 1969-70; Oakland 1971-73
Pro Football Hall of Fame: Elected 1/31/04; Enshrined 8/8/04

One of the most dominant linemen in NFL history, Bob Brown had a simple philosophy, "I beat on people from the opening kickoff. I want them to not be sure they want to keep coming. I try to take a toll on them."

An All-America guard at Nebraska who was voted college football's Lineman of the Year in 1963, Brown was drafted in the first round in 1964 by both the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles (2nd overall) and the Denver Broncos of the then-rival American Football League (1st overall). Choosing the NFL, Brown began his impressive pro football career in Philadelphia.

Although a knee injury suffered in 1967 bothered him through much of the rest of his career, Brown continued to excel. He was named All-NFL nine of his 10 seasons with the Eagles (1964-68), Los Angeles Rams (1969-70), and Oakland Raiders (1971-73). Named the NFL/NFC offensive lineman of the year three times and a member of the 1960's all-decade team, Brown was also chosen to play in six Pro Bowls, including three with the Eagles. In 1969, after five consecutive all-league seasons with the Eagles, the behemoth lineman was traded to Los Angeles.

Lincoln Financial Field

Upon purchasing the Eagles in 1994, Jeffrey Lurie stated, unequivocally, that building a new, state-of-the-art stadium would be a key component in the effort to build the Eagles into an elite NFL franchise.

"Winning the Super Bowl is the ultimate goal," said Lurie, the team's Chairman/CEO. "Stadiums and training facilities, however, are a vital element in the success and stability of franchises on both a present and long-term basis. As an organization, you want to assemble the best staff and players, but you also have to provide them with the best facilities and environment in which to achieve success.

"That's what we want to do with Lincoln Financial Field and the NovaCare Complex. With regard to each venue, we have made a dramatic leap. Both are striking in terms of their architecture and amenities, and can be seen as icons for the Eagles and for Philadelphia."

NovaCare™ COMPLEX

In grand fashion, the Eagles opened their NovaCare Complex practice facility in the spring of 2001. The spectacular 108,000-square-foot facility offers the very best in terms of space, amenities and care and effort put forth for the players, coaches and staff of the Eagles.

"The NovaCare Complex allowed us to go from having one of the worst facilities in the National Football League to the very best of facilities," said team Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie. "It means so much for everyone in this organization to go to work each day and be proud of where they are working, from the executives, to the assistants, to the trainers, and, of course, to the players. Everyone in the organization, I think, is very proud of where they are working. It provides the whole organization with a great atmosphere and enhances the degree of camaraderie because there are all sorts of rooms people can actually spend time with each other as opposed to the setup we had to endure whereby people were so compartmentalized."

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP GAME PLAN

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP
inspiring kids to learn, to play, to dream, to achieve, and ultimately to live healthy lives

OUR MISSION
To enhance opportunities and improve the quality of life for children and youth in the Greater Philadelphia region through health and education partnerships.

OUR STRATEGY FOR WINNING
Eagles Youth Partnership teams the resources of our corporate and nonprofit partners with the star power of the Eagles organization and its players to:
- capture the attention of young people
- inspire kids to learn and to embrace healthy lifestyles
- deliver critical services to those school-age youth who would be difficult to reach without the leverage of the football team

OFFENSE
EDUCATING youth to achieve their life goals

Eagles Book Mobile
The Eagles Book Mobile visits underserved children in schools, shelters, libraries, recreation centers, after-school/summer programs and parks. At each stop, the "Storybook Man" reads aloud to the children and invites them aboard to select their very own books to keep. Since 2000, the Eagles Book Mobile program has distributed more than 170,000 books to children, most of whom had never owned a book. Partners include: Lincoln Financial Group Foundation, Sovereign Bank, AMETEK Foundation, Target, First Book and United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania.
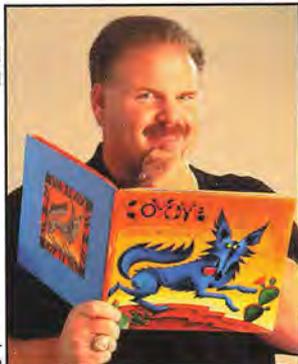

DEFENSE
Tackling HEALTH problems that block children from achieving their maximum potential

Eagles Eye Mobile
In eight successful seasons on the road, the ongoing Eagles Eye Mobile program has provided free eye exams for more than 10,000 children in the Philadelphia and Chester-Upland public schools. This year, the Eagles Eye Mobile will expand its operation to 165 days on the road, examining nearly 4,000 children. More than 75% of those examined need and receive free prescription eyeglasses and many others underwent vision-saving surgery. This innovative partnership of Eagles Offensive Lineman Jermane Mayberry, St. Christopher's Hospital for Children, Lincoln Financial Group Foundation, Tenet Pennsylvania, Independence Blue Cross and the school districts, continues to attract international attention and acclaim.

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP GAME PLAN

SPECIAL TEAMS
Leveraging the Philadelphia Eagles to INSPIRE youth and communities toward a better "field position" in their lives

Eagles Playground Builds

Each year Eagles Youth Partnership and the Eagles organization devote a full day building a playground in an underserved community. Eagles players, staff, coaches and management work together with neighborhood adults and children to landscape, paint murals, inlay tile mosaic and build play structures. A grant from Eagles Youth Partnership covers the cost of each community build.

Eagles Top Achiever Awards

EYP created the Top Achiever Awards to recognize academic excellence among area high school football players. Varsity football players from Allentown, Camden, Chester, Coatesville, Philadelphia, and Reading who maintain a 3.0 GPA are invited to an awards reception and are treated like MVPs at the Eagles Summer Training Camp. Since 1997, more than 700 scholar athletes have won this award.

500 Gallons of Paint and 250 Gallons of Hope

Across the street from Lincoln Financial Field, Eagles Youth Partnership commissioned a mural entitled "Moving Toward Your Dreams." Mural artist, Don Gensler, spent nine months on the project and included 250 Philadelphia children in the design and painting of it. One section of the mural shows a boy, jumping into the clouds -- into his future. Where he lands is up to all of us.

EYP is Nationally Recognized

In 2002, EYP was presented the Human and Civil Rights Award by the Pennsylvania State Education Association, and was also named Outstanding Corporate Foundation of the year by the Regional Association of Fundraising Professionals. In 2001, EYP won the National Humanitarian Award from the National Recreation and Park Association. The Franklinville Eagles Playground, built in 1999, was voted one of the three most beautiful streets in Philadelphia by the City's Philadelphia More Beautiful Committee. The Camden Children's Garden was awarded Camden County's Economic Development Award for the Eagles Butterfly House and Education Center, which we built together in 2001.

Jeffrey Lurie
Chairman/Chief Executive Officer

Jeffrey Lurie has shaped the Eagles into one of the most competitive organizations in professional sports on and off the field. During his tenure, Lurie has fueled energy, optimism, and pride throughout the entire organization, and has surrounded this team with state-of-the-art working facilities along with a family atmosphere. The results have been dramatic.

Philadelphia has been in the playoffs six times since 1995, Lurie's first full season owning the Eagles. Only Green Bay (7) has been in the postseason more during that span. In the last four seasons, the Eagles have won an NFL-best 46 regular season games. Under Lurie, the Eagles have a greater overall winning percentage (.555) and appeared in more playoff games (12) and won more (6) than any other ownership group in team history. Only two teams in professional sports (Los Angeles Lakers and New York Yankees) have advanced more times in their respective playoffs than the Eagles current consecutive streak of four.

In addition, the Eagles play at Lincoln Financial Field, the cutting edge NFL stadium featuring unparalleled fan amenities, are housed in the state-of-the-art NovaCare Complex, their day-to-day workplace since 2001, and have founded and nurtured one of professional sports most dynamic charitable foundations, Eagles Youth Partnership.

"I'm very pleased with the direction of the organization from top to bottom," said Lurie. "It takes a real commitment doing what we believe in, and we're all together in our focus to be the best sports franchise possible on and off the field."

Armed with team president Joe Banner, one of the league's sharpest minds and top salary cap experts, two-time NFL coach of the year Andy Reid, who was boldly hired in 1999 after a two-year stint as Green Bay's quarterback coach, and a franchise quarterback · in Donovan McNabb, the Eagles are considered by many observers as a top contender for the Super Bowl.

"I have said so many times, winning the Super Bowl is the ultimate goal of this organization," said Lurie, who serves on the NFL's Finance Committee, Broadcast Committee, Diversity in the Workplace Committee, Super Bowl Policy Committee, and is on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities. "Stadiums and training facilities, however, are a vital element in the success and stability of sports franchises. As an organization, you want to assemble the best coaching staff and best players, but you also have to provide them with the best facilities and environment in which to achieve that success."

* * * *

On May 6, 1994, NFL owners approved the sale of the Eagles from Norman Braman to Lurie, who fulfilled a lifelong dream of owning an NFL franchise.

Since becoming owner of the Eagles, Lurie, who was named NFL Owner of the Year by The Sporting News in 1995 and by Pro Football Insider in 2000, has gone about the business of shaping the football team and the franchise on and away from the playing venue.

Describing his philosophy of ownership as a "partnership between the city, the fans and the team," one of Lurie's primary objectives early in his time in Philadelphia was the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the team's non-profit, charitable wing. Now in its 10th year, EYP has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in Philadelphia and in the entire NFL.

In 1996, Lurie was the recipient of the Torch of Liberty Award conferred by the Anti-Defamation League of Philadelphia and a year later was honored by Philadelphia's Operation Understanding, an acclaimed group that fosters interracial harmony among future leaders of the African-American and Jewish communities.

In addition, Lurie is a director of the Autism Research Foundation and the NLM Family Foundation.

"Autism is one of the most under-funded conditions in the country, and we need to raise awareness," said Lurie. "Those who have autism are wonderful people, usually highly intelligent, sweet and caring. They are often unable to effectively communicate with others. A great deal more research needs to be done."

Prior to entering business, Lurie served as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University.

He earned a B.A. from Clark University, a master's degree in psychology from Boston University and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. Lurie also served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985. Lurie and his family are also primary shareholders of the Neiman Marcus Group.

Born on Sept. 8, 1951 in Boston, MA, Lurie now resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and their 2 children.

In 1995, Lurie, (pictured with Andy Reid and Donovan McNabb) and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership.

Joe Banner
President

Overseeing the day-to-day operations of the franchise since May 6, 1994, Joe Banner has been long known as one of the NFL's top executives. Banner was named to his current post of team president on August 1, 2001.

"Joe plays a crucial role in most everything we accomplish. His determination, intelligence and desire for success are invaluable assets to the Philadelphia Eagles," said Jeffrey Lurie, Chairman/Chief Executive Officer of the Eagles. "He's a great team player, unselfish and wants what's best for the franchise, our fans and our players."

Banner has led the plan to make the Eagles the best organization on and off the field in the NFL. His tireless efforts to forge a partnership with the City of Philadelphia to build a football-based stadium in Philadelphia came to fruition when Lincoln Financial Field opened in 2003.

Banner was also key in the Eagles successful efforts to secure a partnership with NovaCare, which resulted in the building of the spectacular NovaCare Complex, the 108,000-square foot training facility. The NovaCare Complex, which houses the entire organization on a day-to-day basis, is the largest such facility in sports, and has been hailed as the most state-of-the-art building of its kind.

"As I've told Jeff Lurie many times," said Philadelphia Mayor John Street, "deals of this nature wouldn't get done without having someone who demonstrates the tenacity and diligence of Joe Banner."

Banner has been involved in the creation and execution of every department in the organization. Whether it was the restructuring of the football operation and bold hiring of Andy Reid, the creation of the league's most respected marketing operation, or the formation of the nationally-acclaimed Eagles Youth Partnership, he was at the center of what has led the Eagles to being thought of as one of the most dynamic and progressive organizations in all of sports.

The Eagles have earned several awards over the past few years, including being selected the best overall web site amongst NFL teams, while securing 16 sports Emmys and 19 Tellys for the Eagles Television Network. In addition, the Eagles media relations department earned the Pete Rozelle Award for the league's top public relations operation.

Under Banner's leadership, the Eagles popularity has soared in recent years. The waiting list for season tickets is over 60,000 people, merchandise sales and internet hits have increased yearly, and media attention is at an all-time high. In fact, the Eagles three Monday night games in 2003 were the highest ranked games on a national level in terms of ratings.

Banner's salary-cap expertise has been highlighted in recent years by a USA Today poll of team general managers and NFL executives which listed him as one of the league's most creative and innovative salary cap management experts and contract negotiators. The New York Times hailed him as "the Joe Montana of the salary cap. He's simply the best." ESPN.com's Len Pasquarelli says he "should be the poster child for crafty and responsible salary cap management." Esteemed Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin stated, "The Eagles [under Banner] have developed a strategy for the salary cap. And now it's the blueprint for financial success in the NFL: Draft well, play them young, extend them early."

Banner's salary cap management skills do not go unnoticed within the Eagles organization, as well. "With all the recent success of the team, most of the credit usually goes to the players and coaches," said Reid. "But without the support and hard work of the front office, we would not have that success. Joe Banner is a big part of that support. As I've said many times before, Joe is the best as far as managing that salary cap."

The results on the field are very tangible. Since 1995, Lurie and Banner's first full year with the Eagles, no team has appeared in the postseason more than Philadelphia (six out of eight seasons). Only two teams in professional sports (LA Lakers and NY Yankees) have advanced more times in their respective playoffs than the Eagles current consecutive streak of four. In addition, the Eagles have won an NFL-best 46 regular season games since 2000.

* * * *

While football is a huge focus in his life, Banner also has time for being a devoted husband to his wife, Helaine, and a loving father to daughter Jill (15) and sons Jason (9) and Jonathan (7). The Banner family resides in the suburban Philadelphia area.

Banner also devotes a lot of time and energy to community service and is active in nonprofit groups. He is the co-chair of the Philadelphia City Year Board and is responsible for bringing that program to Philadelphia. Most recently, Banner joined City Year's national Board of Trustees and is also the chair of its National Leadership Committee.

Of City Year, Banner says: "City Year is extremely important to me because I believe we live in a community and we each have an obligation to try to make our communities better places. For me, City Year epitomizes the values and beliefs by which I have tried to live my life."

For his efforts, he was named Citizen of the Year by the American Red Cross in 2004 for outstanding corporate leadership and commitment to Southeastern Pennsylvania's civic and charitable organizations.

In 2001, Banner also received a prestigious leadership award from the renowned PARTNERS Program, a charitable organization that aims to enhance social and race relations in the Philadelphia region.

Said Lurie of Banner's community involvement: "Joe is invaluable not only to the Philadelphia Eagles organization but to the Philadelphia community as a whole. On the professional side, Joe has been the point person on the most crucial issues facing our organization. Joe's impact on the community, however, is of equal importance."

Banner's expertise has led to a great deal of respect within the field of higher education. In 2004, he taught a class on creating a corporate culture at the Harvard Business School and a class on leadership at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

In 1995, President Bill Clinton appointed Banner to a panel of 10 judges nationwide, which selected the 15 recipients of the prestigious President's Service Award. He is also on the board of the Maxwell Football Club and the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Banner (born 2/13/53) is a graduate of Denison University and was a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU 1210 AM.

Tom Heckert
Vice President of Player Personnel

One of the league's top young executives, Tom Heckert enters his 4th season in Philadelphia. He was promoted to his current role of vice president of player personnel in 2003. In this role, he works closely with Andy Reid in all player personnel matters while managing the player personnel department, which includes both college and pro scouting.

"Tom has proven to be a tremendous worker," said Reid after promoting Heckert on May 21, 2003. "He has done an excellent job in all aspects of the football operations department. He was well deserving of this promotion."

Heckert, 37, joined the Eagles as the club's director of player personnel on May 21, 2001, after a 10-year stint as a member of the Miami Dolphins player personnel department, including the 2000 season as the club's director of pro personnel. In 1999, he served as the Dolphins assistant director of pro personnel/college scout. Heckert served as both a pro scout and as a college scout during his first nine seasons in South Florida.

Heckert's scouting talents have been valued by the NFL. In 2003, he was appointed by the league to the 12-person College Advisory Committee, which advises college football juniors on the their draft status.

Over his 13-year career in the NFL, Heckert's teams have never had a losing season, won their division six times and made the playoffs 10 times, including the last three in Philadelphia.

During Heckert's tenure in Miami, he worked under two of the most successful head coaches in NFL history - Don Shula and Jimmy Johnson - who both personally recommended Heckert for his current post with the Eagles.

Said Johnson when Heckert was hired, "Tom's smart, aggressive, and a good talent evaluator. He's a hard worker and has a strong opinion. As I told Coach Reid, if I were to come back as a head coach, Tom would be one of the first guys I'd try to hire."

A native of Adrian, Michigan, Heckert joined the Dolphins after spending two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. He also was a defensive back at Hillsdale.

Heckert's father, Tom, began his coaching career in 1961 and now has 20 years of experience in the NFL player personnel ranks, including the last 13 seasons with Miami. Recalled the younger Heckert, "I was around the football field and football offices probably more than I was home. I was always there. After school, I'd watch his practices. We'd go to every game. When I was really young, he'd be upstairs in his office working and I'd just watch tape, because it was there."

Heckert (born 7/17/67) and his wife, Kathy, have a son, Griffin (9), and a daughter, Madison (7), and reside in Glen Mills, PA.

Don Smolenski
Senior Vice President/ Chief Financial Officer

Serving as the club's senior vice president/chief financial officer, Don Smolenski is a valuable member of the Eagles front office. In his role, Smolenski works closely with team president Joe Banner and senior vice president of business operations Mark Donovan in developing and implementing initiatives and strategies throughout the entire organization. He also plays a major part in instituting policies and procedures for all employees.

Known for his effective, easy-going style, Smolenski oversees all aspects of the facility operation teams at Lincoln Financial Field and the NovaCare Complex, the organization's financial operations (including stadium financing, debt management, budgeting, and financial reporting), human resources, information services, insurance, and team travel.

"With his broad range of thinking, Don has helped to develop ways of melding the business facets of the Eagles organization with the football," said Banner.

With that macro view of the entire organization in mind, Smolenski successfully led a collaborative effort in the opening of Lincoln Financial Field in 2003.

Smolenski joined the Eagles in 1998 as the club's vice president/chief financial officer and was promoted to his current post two years later.

Smolenski came to the Eagles from the International Hockey League where he was the chief financial officer. During his tenure, he oversaw all league financial issues and played an integral role in the expansion of the league. Through the development of expansion models and the analysis of league performance models, Smolenski saw the league expand from 12 to 19 teams. He also spearheaded the development of a salary cap and several other cost management programs as well as interfaced with each of the team finance directors.

Prior to his term with the IHL, Smolenski worked as a public accountant with Arthur Andersen.

An avid runner, Smolenski has completed the Detroit, Pittsburgh and Boston Marathons. After graduating with a BA in biology from Amherst College, he continued on to earn his masters in accounting from the University of Hartford. Don and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Jake (6) and Shane (4).

Mark Donovan
Senior Vice President of Business Operations

Entering his second season as the Senior Vice President of Business Operations, Mark Donovan is responsible for all revenue generating, marketing, and branding activities for the Eagles organization.

He leads the club's efforts in sponsorship sales and service, television and radio production, retail operations, event acquistion and ticket sales, new media, premium sales and customer service, as well as community and public relations.

Mark has brought a wealth of sport marketing experience to the Eagles having served as the Senior Director of Marketing and Sales for the National Football League. His "league" experience began at the National Hockey League, where he held the position of Director of Corporate Sales and Marketing.

"We take a great deal of pride in hiring the best people in their respective fields and in the case of Mark we have done that," said team president Joe Banner. "His track record in terms of forming and managing corporate partnerships and sales strategies is second to none."

Recognized as one of the most aggressive and successful business operations in sports, the Eagles have earned several awards over the past year, including being selected the best overall web site amongst NFL teams, while securing 2 Emmys for Eagles Television Network.

In addition to serving as the home of the Philadelphia Eagles, Lincoln Financial Field has quickly developed a reputation as a premier sports facility hosting events ranging from Bruce Sprinsteen in concert, Manchester United soccer matches, the annual Army/Navy Game, Temple Football and Women's World Cup Soccer. In 2005 the venue will be christened with its first NCAA Championship as the National Lacrosse Championships will be hosted over Memorial Day weekend.

A native of Pittsburgh, Mark graduated from Brown University with a double major in political science and organizational behavior and management. He played quarterback and was elected team captain his senior season. Upon graduation he signed a free agent contract with the New York Giants. Mark previously held sales and marketing positions with National Media Group, AMC Events, Regency Productions by Hyatt and Synergetics.

Mark and his wife, Kathleen, have a son Luke.

Sarah Martinez-Helfman
Executive Director
Eagles Youth Partnership

When Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) as the team's non-profit charitable wing in 1995, they named Sarah Martinez-Helfman as its executive director. Now in her tenth year, Martinez-Helfman, frequently described as a "dynamo," is recognized as a leader in the field of sports philanthropy.

"From the start, we were all convinced she had the ability to not just manage grants, but create programs, work with our players, and get them involved," said Joe Banner, team president. "I don't think there's anyone here who doesn't feel she has exceeded the expectations we had. Sarah is more passionate about what she does than anyone can be about what they do."

Under her direction, the award-winning EYP has given free books to more than 215,000 low-income children through the Eagles Book Mobile program and has exam-ined the eyes of more than 10,000 children aboard the Eagles Eye Mobile. More than 75% of those children have received free eyeglasses.

"Eagles Youth Partnership helps define the cutting edge in the emerging field of national sports philanthropy," said Greg Johnson, Director of the Sports Philanthropy Project at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. "Nowhere have I witnessed more compelling examples of the strategic use of a professional sports team's assets than in the direct programming offered by EYP."

Martinez-Helfman has devoted much of her career to working with young people. She has helped develop two National Service AmeriCorps Programs, has served as Chief Clinician of a residential treatment center for adolescent males in the juvenile justice system and as the lead advocate of a Rape Crisis Center.

On the corporate end, Martinez-Helfman spent three years in Europe, advising corporations, groups, and individuals on their charitable giving in England, Ireland, and Russia.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Martinez-Helfman earned her B.A. in English literature and her M.S. degree in counseling psychology. She also holds certificates as a trainer of diversity, conflict resolution and nonprofit management. Having lived in four countries, she now is happily settled with her family in Haverford, PA. Her simple mission in life is to leave the world better than she found it.

Andy Reid
Head Coach/Executive Vice President of Football Operations

One of the most successful head coaches in recent NFL history, Andy Reid has really put his stamp on this city's beloved football team. After taking over a 3-13 club on January 11, 1999, Reid has been simply masterful in turning the Eagles into one of the NFL's elite teams.

During his tenure, Reid, 46, has earned coach of the year honors twice, compiled the highest winning percentage (.629) in team history, captured three consecutive division titles and three trips to the NFC Championship game for the first time in franchise history, and registered the most playoff wins (5) in club history.

In 2003, the Eagles overcame a sluggish 0-2 start and a slew of injuries to post their second consecutive 12-win season. During that season, Reid registered his 50th career win (in his 81st game) to become the fastest coach in team history to reach that milestone. A year earlier, Reid was the overwhelming choice as the NFL's coach of the year as they thrived without the services of Donovan McNabb to still capture home field advantage in the NFC playoffs.

After a 5-11 mark in his first season, Reid led the 2000 Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5 and earning a trip to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. For his efforts, Reid was named the NFL's coach of the year by the Maxwell Football Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest.

His vision, his dedication, his passion, and his organizational skills are impeccable. For those reasons he was promoted to head coach/executive VP of football operations on May 8, 2001.

Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie said, "I've always said, he's like a CEO on the field. He understands the big picture and the short-term picture. You have to always balance the two. Disciplined. Prepared. Smart. It's an awfully good combination."

Reid came to the Eagles after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach with Green Bay under Mike Holmgren. During that span, the Packers reached the playoffs six times and defeated New England in Super Bowl XXXI.

In his 12-year NFL coaching career, Reid's teams have made the playoffs 10 times (14-9 record in those games), has coached in the Super Bowl twice, in the NFC Championship game six times, and in the Pro Bowl four times.

"Everyone who works with him and plays for him knows exactly where he is coming from," said team president Joe Banner. "We wanted someone with a strong set of convictions and who wasn't going to be affected by ups and downs and public pressure."

The Plan:

"The important thing is to lay a plan, and then follow it step by step no matter how small or large each one by itself may seem." This quote by Charles A. Lindbergh is scribed behind Reid's desk and reflects his coaching philosophy.

From the first day Reid set foot in the Eagles office, he orchestrated a plan on what it was going to take to make this a championship-level team. That plan, Banner said, "changed the personality of the whole organization."

Said FOX Sports Troy Aikman, "Andy's the perfect fit for the city of Philadelphia. He has the right demeanor for the job and doesn't let things affect him. He has strong convictions, believes in what he's doing and doesn't waver."

A meticulously organized man, Reid began keeping a notebook as a Packers assistant - a three-ring binder - that would help prepare him to one day become a successful head coach.

Reid saved the old ideas and devised new plans, plans that he would later implement as a head coach. But this was not about game plans. It was about how to build a winning organization. It included practice, travel, and offseason schedules, notes from Holmgren's speeches, biographical information of other coaches, and much more.

REID ALL ABOUT IT

- Among active NFL coaches in their first five full NFL seasons, Reid's 51-29 (.638) mark is ranked 4th behind Joe Gibbs (51-22, .699 from 1981-85), Mike Shanahan (54-26, .675 in 1988 and from 1995-98), and Bill Cowher (53-27, .663 from 1992-96).

- Reached the 50-win milestone faster than any coach in team history (81 games). Dick Vermeil did so in 88 games.
- Earned NFL coach of the year honors in 2002 and 2000.
- Is a member of the NFL's Competition Committee Coaches Subcommittee.
- In his 12-year NFL coaching career, his teams have made the playoffs 10 times (14-9 record). He has coached in the Super Bowl twice and in the NFC Championship game six times.
- Owns an 11-1 record in regular season prime time games, a 37-15 mark (including playoffs) in games in November and later, and a 26-14 regular season road record.

Offensive Lineman Mentality:

Reid attributes his modest, selfless nature to his days as an offensive lineman in high school and college saying, "I'm glad to be of offensive lineman roots. That way you don't lose perspective amidst the glamour, the monetary things. You have that hardwork thing ingrained in your brain. You understand you haven't gotten to where you are without hard work."

Said Lurie, "He won't talk about himself. But he has a tremendous work ethic and a sense of honesty and genuineness. And he's a great leader. Everyone respects his human qualities."

That work ethic was developed growing up in Los Angeles. Reid's mother, Elizabeth, was a radiologist while his father, Walter, was an artist working primarily on backdrops for theatrical sets. Father and son would leave their house at 4:30 a.m. Walter, who worked across the street from a junior high, would drop Andy off at the school and the younger Reid would work on various projects in the wood shop.

To this day, he is a skilled craftsman who has built cabinets and clocks. He also enjoys tinkering with old cars and, in fact, owns a 1928 "Model A" Ford.

Climbing the Coaching Ladder:

Reid enjoyed a two-year stint as the Packers quarterbacks coach, working with Brett Favre from 1997-98. Reid took over that role after Marty Mornhinweg departed to become San Francisco's offensive coordinator under Steve Mariucci, the original QB coach on Holmgren's staff.

In 1997, Green Bay won its 2nd straight NFC crown and Favre garnered league MVP honors for the third consecutive season. Prior to tutoring Green Bay's quarterbacks, Reid oversaw the tight ends, while assisting offensive line coach Tom Lovat. Under Reid's watch, Mark Chmura and Keith Jackson earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

It was in his first years with Green Bay that Holmgren urged Reid to learn the entire offensive system, not just the roles of the offensive line and tight ends. "It was his curiosity, the questions he would ask, his note taking," said Holmgren. "He was just a sponge."

In fact, Holmgren placed the "supervisory" tag on Reid in 1996 to prevent NFL clubs from hiring him as anything other than a head coach unless given permission.

A tackle and guard at Brigham Young from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant under Lavell Edwards in 1982. It was at BYU that Reid met and worked with Holmgren, who served as the QB coach.

Reid next moved to San Francisco State in 1983 and helped them lead the nation in passing and total offense three consecutive years (1983-85). He went on to develop quality offensive lines at Northern Arizona, Texas-El Paso, and Missouri.

REID'S COACHING INFLUENCES

Hiro Tanaka, John Marshall HS, Los Angeles: "He took a bunch of kids of different races and combined them into making a team. We never had a problem."

Jim Sartoris, Glendale Junior College: "I was in that first group, and he came in, took a terrible program and built it back up into a championship team. I was right there for that."

LaVell Edwards, BYU: "I saw a man who knew how to treat people. He didn't care who you were, what you were about. At the same time, now, he could crack the whip. He never turned away an autograph seeker. And he didn't lose his cool during tough times."

Vic Rowan, San Francisco State: "Whenever he saw an interesting play on TV, he'd call up that coach and ask him to go through it with him in detail. He collected playbooks from all over the place."

Bob Stull, UTEP/Missouri: "He showed me how an ex-offensive lineman and offensive line coach could become a offensive coordinator and a great head coach."

Mike Holmgren, Green Bay: "I had a hard time believing anyone did it better than him when I was working for him."

Personal:

Born Andrew Walter Reid in Los Angeles on March 19, 1958, Reid has an older brother, Reginald. Raised not far from Dodger Stadium, Reid was a devoted fan of both the Dodgers and Rams (Merlin Olsen and Deacon Jones in particular). He went on to attend John Marshall HS in LA and Glendale (CA) Junior College (where he was inducted into that school's Hall of Fame in 2003) before matriculating at Brigham Young where he earned both a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

As a player at BYU, Reid was also a columnist for the Provo Daily Herald. "I had my own little column," said Reid, who once longed to be a writer for Sports Illustrated. "I loved Jim Murray (a long-time columnist with the LA Times). I wrote one of these cutesy deals, trying to write like Jim. (laughing) The editors took it easy on me. I enjoyed writing. I still do. I keep a journal to this day. It's a great release."

It was at a physical education class at BYU that Reid met the woman who would become his wife, Tammy. "What attracted me to him more than anything was his character. He's just a really good guy, very honorable and very conscientious." Reid converted to the Mormon faith in 1979 which Tammy and her family had practiced.

They have five children, each of whom was born in a different state - sons Garrett, 21 (4/13/83); Britt, 19, (4/28/85); and Spencer, 12 (6/16/92); and daughters Crosby, 16 (3/17/88); and Drew Ann, 14 (3/9/90).

Marty Mornhinweg
Assistant Head Coach

Marty Mornhinweg enters his second season in Philadelphia and his first as the Eagles assistant head coach.

Mornhinweg, 42, joined the Eagles as a senior assistant coach in 2003 after spending the previous two seasons as head coach of the Detroit Lions. From 1997-2000, he served as the offensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers. In 1998, the 49ers became the first team since the 1941 Chicago Bears to lead the league in gross passing and rushing yards.

Mornhinweg and Reid coached together as offensive assistant coaches in Green Bay from 1995-96. In 1996, Mornhinweg tutored the Packers quarterbacks as Brett Favre captured MVP honors in leading his team to a Super Bowl XXXI win over New England. The two also coached together at Texas-El Paso in 1987 and at Missouri in 1991. Mornhinweg and Eagles offensive coordinator Brad Childress coached together at Northern Arizona in 1988.

Four quarterbacks have earned Pro Bowl honors while working under Mornhinweg: Donovan McNabb, Favre, and San Francisco's Steve Young and Jeff Garcia.

In all, Mornhinweg coached on the college level for 10 seasons: Northern Arizona (1994 and 1988), Missouri (1991-93), Southeast Missouri State (1989-90), Texas El-Paso (1986-87), and Montana (1985).

Born in Edmond, OK (3/29/62), Mornhinweg was the Northern California player of the year and an all-state quarterback as a senior at Oak Grove HS in San Jose, CA, where he played under current Seahawks coach Mike Holmgren, an assistant coach at that school. He went on to be a four-year starter at Montana, where he established 15 passing records for the Grizzlies. Mornhinweg also was a quarterback for the 1987 Arena Football League champion Denver Dynamite before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

Mornhinweg earned a degree in health and physical education from Montana and a master's degree in health and physical education/sports administration from Texas-El Paso in 1988. He and his wife, Lindsay, have four children, two daughters, Madison (13) and Molly Lynn (8), and two sons, Skyler (10) and Bobby Cade (5).

Jim Johnson
Defensive Coordinator

On January 22, 1999, Eagles head coach Andy Reid targeted and hired Jim Johnson as the Eagles new defensive coordinator. A veteran of 18 seasons as a NFL assistant, Johnson has proven to be the right man in leading the team's defense to become one of the premier units in the NFL.

"As I've said many times over the past few years, I'm very partial to Jim and I believe he's the best in the business," said Reid upon signing his prized defensive coordinator to a lucrative four-year contract extension following the 2002 season.

The Eagles defense knows only one way to play and that is to attack. Over the last four years, Johnson's units ranked first in the league in fewest points allowed (974, 15.5 per game), 3rd down defense (32.2 %), and red zone defense (63 TDs in 166 attempts), 2nd in sacks (185), 7th in opponent's QB rating (73.2), and 8th in take-aways (126).

In 2001, Johnson's unit became the fourth team in NFL history to go all 16 games without allowing more than 21 points. Their streak of allowing 21 or fewer in 34 straight games was second longest in NFL history (Minnesota, 1968-71). In 1999, Johnson's unit forced a NFL-best 46 turnovers, including a team-record 5 interceptions returned for TDs.

Over the last five years, Johnson's defense has produced 15 Pro Bowl selections: Troy Vincent (5), Brian Dawkins (3), Hugh Douglas (3), Jeremiah Trotter (2), Corey Simon (1), and Bobby Taylor (1).

In 1998, he helped the Seahawks register 10 TDs on defense, including 8 INTs returned for scores, 2nd most in NFL history. Johnson arrived in Seattle after a four-year tenure in Indianapolis, the last two as defensive coordinator.

He spent eight seasons with the Arizona Cardinals (1986-93). After overseeing the Cards defensive line for four seasons, Johnson excelled as their secondary coach, helping Aeneas Williams become the first rookie cornerback to lead the league in interceptions (6) since 1981.

An all-conference quarterback himself at Missouri (where he played in the same backfield with long-time NFL executive Bill Tobin), Johnson went on to spend two seasons with Buffalo as a tight end (1963-64).

A native of Maywood, Ill., the 63-year old Johnson (born 5/26/41) has a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in physical education from Missouri. He and his wife, Vicky, reside in suburban Philadelphia. They have two children, Scott and Michelle, and three grandchildren, Katie, Justin, and Brandon.

Brad Childress
Offensive Coordinator

One of the league's brightest minds on the offensive side of the ball, Brad Childress enters his 6th season as an Eagles assistant coach and his third as the team's offensive coordinator. The 48-year old Childress was named to his current post on April 10, 2002, and less than one year later was rewarded with a substantial three-year contract extension on January 31, 2003.

"I do believe that Brad is one of the top assistant coaches in the National Football League," said head coach Andy Reid. "He's done a great job and he's going to get rewarded for it sooner or later [with a head coaching opportunity]."

In 2003, the Eagles established a team record for fewest turnovers in a season (22) as Childress orchestrated a versatile offense that employed a three-headed monster at running back that each scored 7 touchdowns and sported a league-best 7 players with 23+ receptions.

"There are a lot of different ways to win a football game," Childress says. "You have to be open-minded. Innovate and adjust, play to the tools you have. We've done that here. We have different personnel now than we had in the past. You need to utilize what you have."

Childress' group set a team record with 415 points in 2002 despite starting three different quarterbacks. After starter Donovan McNabb and Koy Detmer went down with injuries, the Eagles turned to little-used A.J. Feeley, who compiled a 4-1 record down the stretch.

The club's quarterback coach from 1999-2001 (he was hired one day after Reid was named head coach on January 11, 1999), Childress is credited with the development of McNabb. Under Childress' tutelage, McNabb learned the intricacies of the West Coast offense as a rookie and then quickly became a four-time Pro Bowl selection and an MVP candidate.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Childress orchestrated one of the nation's most productive offenses at the University of Wisconsin, where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1992-98.

During his 8-year tenure at Wisconsin, the team played in five bowl games, including Rose Bowl victories over UCLA in 1994 and in 1998. In '93, the Badgers set a school record and ranked fourth in Big Ten Conference history with 455.2 yards per game. QB Darrell Bevell (quarterbacks coach at Green Bay), RB Ron Dayne (NY Giants), and WR Lee DeRamus all flourished under Childress.

A graduate of Eastern Illinois, Childress began his coaching career with a seven-year stint at Illinois. It was there that WR David Williams set a Big Ten record for receptions (101 in 1984).

Then, after spending the 1985 season as the quarterbacks coach on Rod Dowhower's Colts staff, he returned to the collegiate ranks for the next 13 seasons with stops at Northern Arizona (1986-89), and Utah before moving to Wisconsin. It was during the first of his three seasons as offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona that Childress first worked with Reid. He also worked with Nebraska head coach Bill Callahan and Eagles assistant head coach Marty Mornhinweg at NAU.

Childress and his wife, Dru-Ann, have four children: sons Andrew, Christopher, and Kyle, and daughter Cara. Born 6/27/56 in Aurora, Ill., Childress attended Marmion Military High School.

John Harbaugh
Special Teams Coordinator

One of the top men in his profession, 41-year old John Harbaugh enters his 7th season in Philadelphia as the Eagles special teams coordinator. Harbaugh's units finished the 2003 season ranked first in the NFL in the articulate special teams ranking system by esteemed Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin. It marked the 2nd time in three years that the Eagles special teams finished atop those rankings.

In fact, during the last four years, Harbaugh's units are one of two in the NFL (New England) to rank in the top ten in those rankings. After improving steadily in 1998 and 1999, his units vaulted to 8th in 2000, 1st in 2001, 6th in 2002, and 1st once again in 2003. In 2001, Harbaugh was chosen as the league's special teams coach of the year in a vote of his peers.

"I've said time and time again that John is the best in the business at what he does and the statistics back it up," said head coach Andy Reid, who gave Harbaugh a lucrative three-year contract extension in 2004. "He spends so much time and effort preparing his guys each and every week. Special teams are such an integral part of this game today."

Under Harbaugh's guidance, David Akers progressed from a street free agent pick-up in 1999 to a two-time Pro Bowl selection and one of the league's most reliable kickers. In addition, Brian Westbrook ranked 2nd in the NFL with a 15.3 punt return average in 2003 and tied for first with 2 touchdowns. Special teams aces Sean Morey (Sports Illustrated All-Pro) and Ike Reese (first alternate to the Pro Bowl) also earned special teams honors.

Over the last six years, Harbaugh's units have produced 12 NFC special teams player of the week honorees: David Akers (5), Brian Mitchell (3), Sean Landeta (2), Brian Westbrook (1) and Allen Rossum (1). In addition, Akers earned NFC Special Teams player of the month honors in November, 2000.

Originally hired by Ray Rhodes on February 18, 1998, Harbaugh was one of just four assistant coaches to be retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Harbaugh began his coaching career in 1984 at Western Michigan. Three years later, he joined the University of Pittsburgh staff, serving under his uncle Mike Gottfried (now a college football analyst for ESPN).

After a one-year stint at Morehead State, Harbaugh spent eight seasons (1989-96) as assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati. Harbaugh then joined Cam Cameron's Indiana staff for the 1997 campaign as defensive backs and special teams coach.

The versatile Harbaugh has coached on both sides of the ball throughout his collegiate coaching career and was the assistant head coach at Cincinnati.

The product of a football family, Harbaugh has been in and around the game his entire life. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran and won the 2002 Division I-AA National Championship as head coach of Western Kentucky. In 2003, Jack was hired as Associate AD at Marquette where he oversees community affairs and public relations. His younger brother, Jim, a for-mer NFL quarterback, is the head coach at the University of San Diego. Other relatives in the sports spotlight include his cousin, Mark Gottfried, the head basketball coach at Alabama, and his brother-in-law, Tom Crean, Marquette's head basketball coach.

Harbaugh (born 9/23/62) attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS before earning a degree in political science from Miami (OH) where he also played defensive back. He went on to earn his master's degree in physical education from Western Michigan.

John and his wife, Ingrid, reside in suburban Philadelphia, with their daughter, Alison (3).

Brasher served in the same capacity with the Eagles in 1985 as a member of then-head coach Marion Campbell's staff. In his one season with the Eagles, two of his defensive ends notched 13 sacks apiece - Greg Brown and a rookie named Reggie White.

Brasher enjoyed a 7-year stint as Seattle's defensive line coach, seeing two of his lineman - Cortez Kennedy and Michael Sinclair - earn multiple Pro Bowl appearances. Kennedy was also named defensive player of the year in 1992. He also held identical posts at New England, Atlanta, and Tampa Bay.

An all-conference selection himself as a linebacker at Arkansas from 1962-63, Brasher was a college teammate of Cowboys owner Jerry Jones and former Dolphins and Cowboys head coach Jimmy Johnson.

After beginning his coaching career with a six-year stint on the high school level, Brasher's alma mater provided him with his first collegiate coaching assignment when he became the Razorbacks defensive assistant in 1970. He sandwiched stops at Virginia Tech, NE Louisiana, and Southern Methodist around a one-year stint as the defensive coordinator of the World Football League's Shreveport Steamer in 1975.

Born on 12/30/40, Brasher attended El Dorado High in his hometown and birthplace of El Dorado, AR. He and his wife, LaNelle, have two daughters, Melodie and Christy, and two grandsons, Nicholas and Brennen.

Tommy Brasher
Defensive Line

One of the most successful defensive line coaches in league history, Tommy Brasher (pronounced BRAY-zure) enters his 6th season during his second tour of duty in Philadelphia.

Brasher, 63, is a model of toughness and courage. Throughout most of 2001, Brasher battled a bout with cancer. After being diagnosed with a cancerous tumor in his parotid gland (one of the salivary glands) on October 16th, Brasher underwent a six-hour surgery to have it removed. Three weeks later, he underwent another procedure to have 67 lymph nodes removed from his neck and shoulder. He missed just five days of work and not one snap of football on game day. His battle with cancer earned him the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001. Although this award is given annually to one player from each NFL team, Brasher became just the third special non-player recipient of this prestigious honor.

Under Brasher's guidance, the defensive line has become a strong point of the Eagles. DT Corey Simon earned his first Pro Bowl bid in 2003 and has developed into a top-flight defender (26.5 sacks in first 62 games). DT Darwin Walker also enjoyed great success (13.5 sacks) during his first two years as a starter. In addition, former DE Hugh Douglas became a three-time Pro Bowl selection.

Juan Castillo
Offensive Line

Juan Castillo is in his 10th season with the Eagles and his seventh as the club's offensive line coach. After years of multiple changes along the line, Castillo's unit has become a force in the last four seasons paving the way for the emergence of Pro Bowl QB Donovan McNabb.

Under Castillo's tutelage, three lineman earned their first Pro Bowl selections: LT Tra Thomas (2001 and 2002), RG Jermane Mayberry (2002), and RT Jon Runyan (2002). In fact, Thomas and Mayberry earned starting roles for the NFC squad following the 2002 campaign. In 2002, his troops gave up just 36 sacks, the least allowed by the club since 1982 (31). In 2003, the Eagles ranked 4th in the NFL in yards per carry (4.8)

Castillo is one of four coaches in the National Football League of Hispanic descent. In fact, Castillo is fluent in Spanish and has done some work for the National Football League in promoting the game for its Spanish-speaking audience. In the 2002 off-season, Castillo and his wife were special invitees of President Bush for a Cinco de Mayo celebration at the White House.

"A lot of people laughed at me when I said I wanted to coach in the NFL," Castillo said.

"You have to have a dream, and then you have to have a plan, and you have to stick to the plan. I'm proud to represent the Hispanic community. I started just like all those people back in Texas. I was there with them."

Castillo was one of four members of former coach Ray Rhodes' staff to be retained by head coach Andy Reid in 1999. He originally joined the Eagles on March 1, 1995 as an offensive assistant, a post he held until being promoted to tight ends coach in 1997. One year later, Castillo became the club's offensive line coach.

Castillo's work as an offensive line coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I University) caught the eye of Rhodes. During his five seasons there, Castillo aided in the development of five Division II All-America linemen, including future NFL players Mayberry, Jorge Diaz, Kevin Dogins, and Earl Dotson. In that span, Castillo gained valuable experience as a summer coaching intern for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1994), Seattle Seahawks (1993), and Buffalo Bills (1992).

A former linebacker with Texas A&M-Kingsville and the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers, Castillo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater before spending 1986-89 on the staff at Kingsville (TX) High School.

The 44-year old Castillo (born 10/8/59) is a native of Port Isabel, TX. He and his wife, Zaida, have four sons, Gregory, John, Andres, and Antonio.

The 48-year old Culley came to the Eagles after a three-year stint as the Pittsburgh Steelers wide receivers coach. During that three-year span, the Steelers reached the playoffs twice, advancing to the AFC title game in 1997 and to the divisional playoffs the previous season. In all, Culley has been to the playoffs six times in his last eight seasons as an assistant coach, including four appearances in the conference championship game.

A native of Sparta, TN, Culley was recruited by current Dallas Cowboys head coach Bill Parcells as a quarterback at Vanderbilt University. Culley then followed a succession of one-year stops at Middle Tennessee State, Tennessee-Chattanooga, and Western Kentucky with a four-year stint as quarterbacks coach at Southwestern Louisiana, where he tutored Brian Mitchell. Under Culley's direction, Mitchell became the first player in NCAA history to pass for over 5,000 yards and rush for over 3,000 yards in a career.

From 1989-90, Culley was the offensive coordinator/running backs/wide receivers coach at Texas-El Paso before joining R.C. Slocum's staff at Texas A&M. While there, Culley oversaw that school's receivers and helped the Aggies dominate the SWC from 1991-93.

Culley then jumped to the NFL ranks to tutor wide receivers, first with Tampa Bay (1994-95) and then with the Steelers (1996-98). It was under Culley's supervision in 1997 that Pittsburgh WR Yancey Thigpen hauled in 79 passes for a Steelers single-season record, 1,398 yards and 7 touchdowns en route to Pro Bowl honors.

Shurmur's first three seasons in Philadelphia were spent as the Eagles tight ends coach and he received praise for the development of three-time Pro Bowl TE Chad Lewis.

In 2002, Shurmur earned praise not only for the continued progress of McNabb, but for his poise displayed after McNabb and Koy Detmer went down with injuries late in the season. Down to little-used A.J. Feeley, who had not started since his junior year at Oregon, the Eagles went 4-1 down the stretch. In addition, Shurmur helped Derrick Mason establish a school record with 2,575 career kickoff return yards.

Shurmur himself was a four-year letter winner at Michigan State, earning All-Big Ten conference and honorable mention All-America honors in 1987. That same year, Shurmur co-captained a Spartans squad that defeated USC in the Rose Bowl. A solid student as well, he earned his MBA in financial administration. THE BULLET

Keith Adams sprints down the field as fast as he can and zeroes in on his target, just as his nickname, "The Bullet," suggests. His is a job not many NFL players desire, but it's what he prides himself on. He is what people know as the "wedge-buster."

"I do whatever it takes to make a play and help the team," said Adams. "I sprint down the field to the ball to try and make a play. If a wedge appears, I have to blow it up. You have to be fearless and sacrifice your body for the team. A lot of guys wouldn't do that to risk injury, but the team is more important."
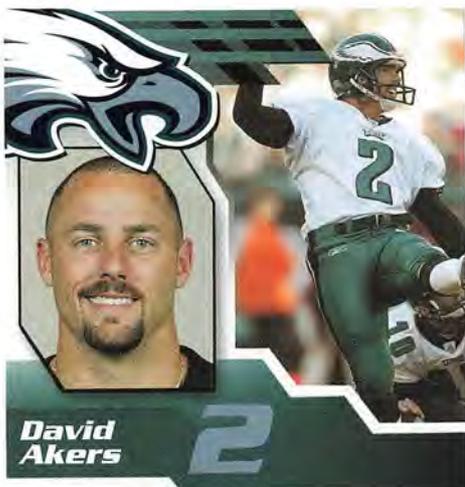

David Akers

Position: Kicker
Height, Weight: 5-10, 200
Born: 12/9/74 in Lexington, KY
College: Louisville
High School: Tates Creek, Lexington, KY
NFL Experience: 6th (6th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: FA - 1999
Originally joined NFL: Signed as rookie free agent by Carolina in 1997

The NFL's most reliable kicker over the last four years, two-time Pro Bowl selection, David Akers currently ranks 2nd in league history with an 83% field goal percentage, while recording a NFC-leading 483 points since 2000. Akers, who also ranks first on the club's all-time list with 112 field goals and second in points (494), is definitely the "rags to riches" story of the Eagles roster, having landed on the waiver wire three times before settling into his current position in Philadelphia. A former waiter and substitute teacher, Akers has worked extremely hard to establish himself as an All-Pro. The team's first Pro Bowl kicker since Sam Baker (1969), he originally signed with Philadelphia on 1/11/99 after short stints earlier in his career with the Panthers, Falcons, and Redskins. He spent his first season with the Eagles as a long field goal and kickoff specialist behind veteran Norm Johnson.

THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED

In 1997-98, Akers worked as a substitute teacher at Westport Middle School in Louisville between stints with Carolina and Atlanta. After being released by Washington in 1998, he returned to Atlanta because his wife, Erika, had found a good job with Lucent Technologies. David then picked up a part-time job as a waiter at a Longhorn Steakhouse in Lawrenceville, GA, until signing with the Eagles on 1/11/99.

BIRDSEED:

- During the offseason, Akers trains in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and Shaolin Kempo under the guidance of Allan Manganello at the Shaolin Kempo Jiu-Jitsu Academy in Louisville. Said Akers, "The martial arts influence is the part where you don't think about [the kick]. You've trained yourself so much to where you go and just do it. Same thing in a fight. You prepare for that one instance where someone is coming at you, and you're not trying to think."
- Akers on his abilities, "I have a weird, God-given talent to kick an oblong ball between two poles."
- His instructional video, "Consistent Place Kicking" can be ordered by calling 1-888-330-7529 ext. 11
- Played for the Berlin Thunder of the NFL Europe in 1999. He contracted salmonella poisoning late in the season and lost 30 pounds prior to his first training camp with the Eagles

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Ranks 2nd on the NFL's all-time list with an 83.0 career field goal percentage behind the Colts Mike Vanderjagt (87.9%)

- Ranks 1st on the Eagles all-time list in field goals (112) and 2nd in points (494)

- In Eagles postseason history, ranks first in points (58), PATs (19) and FGs (13)

- Holds the club record for consecutive PATs made with 114 (2001-present)

- Owns three of the six longest FGs in Eagles history: 57 yds. vs. NE (9/14/03), 53 yds. at Mia. (10/24/99), & 52 yds. vs. Was. (10/5/03). The 57 ydr. is the longest FG ever in Philadelphia

- Has posted the top four consecutive field goal streaks in team history: 17 (10/22/01 - 12/30/01), 13 (11/10/03 - 12/15/03), 13 (1/2/00 - 10/22/00), and 12 (9/8/02 - 10/20/02)

- Became the first Eagle to post 4-straight 100-plus-point seasons

- Has a 95.1% (77-81) career success rate in field goals inside 40 yards

- Earned NFC Special Teams POW honors five times during his career: 11/30/03 at Car., 9/28/03 vs Buf., 9/30/01 vs. Dal., 11/12/00 vs Pit., and 10/15/00 at Arz. Against the Cardinals, faked a field goal and raced 15 yards for a first down on a 4th-and-4 to set up a TD. Became the Eagles all-time leader when he hit his 92nd career FG against the Bills

- Connected on the game-winning FG in OT (31 yds.) during the NFC Divisional playoff game vs. GB (1/11/03). Also nailed a 37-yd. FG with :05 remaining to send the game into OT

- Was 4-for-4 on FG attempts in consecutive games - vs. NO (11/23) & at Car. (11/30/03). It also marked

GREEN AKERS

In the 2004 offseason, David purchased 38 acres of land in Simpsonville, KY, and fittingly named it "Green Akers." His new property is just 25 miles east of Louisville and sits adjacent to a farm belonging to the owners of famed racehorse, "Funny Cide." He is also just 10 minutes from the former home of the late Colonel Sanders.

"I want the house I build on this land to be the last one I ever build," said Akers. "I've already thought about installing an elevator now so that when we get to the point where climbing stairs becomes a trouble, we'll have no reason to move."

Although he is still in the development stages of his home, he has already built a 3-acre pond on the land and will stock it with catfish, blue gill, large mouth bass and grass carps. The land currently has two standing structures: a two-bedroom tenant house and a covered bridge.

Akers founded "Kicks For Kids" in the fall of 2001. It's focus is to help at-risk children in the Greater Philadelphia and Delaware Valley area pursue their dreams. Akers sponsors a kicking camp and a golf tournament in Philadelphia benefitting Kicks For Kids. Corporate sponsors of Kicks for Kids include: Lincoln Financial Group, Acme Markets, Sovereign Bank, Mike's Famous Harley-Davidson, Tattersall Golf Club, US Airways, Seidel Printing, and Krispy Kreme. Born: 6/23/70 in Gallipolis, OH
College: Marshall
High School: Meigs, Pomeroy, OH

Originally joined NFL: Signed as rookie free agent by Kansas City in 1993

His head coach calls him "the best in the business." The special teams coordinator refers to him as "irreplaceable." But the player is just amazed he can make a career out of his unusual skill. "It's crazy. [10 years] just snapping the ball between my legs." The humble but valuable Mike Bartrum continues to perfect his role in Philadelphia as the club's long snapper and reserve tight end, after signing a five-year contract on 2/14/03. In his 10 NFL seasons, his teams have made the playoffs 9 times. A rookie free agent signee of Kansas City in 1993, Bartrum enters his 5th season in Philadelphia after originally signing with the Eagles on 4/17/00.

BIRDSEED:

• Earned a degree in elementary and special education at Marshall and taught 4th and 5th grade special education classes at Louisburg (KS) Elementary School in the offseason from 1995-99. Also taught at Louisburg HS in the fall of '95 after being placed on IR by Green Bay

• His long snapping skills were featured by Philadelphia's NBC affiliate in 2002 and in 2003, as he toured the city testing his accuracy. Along the way, launched footballs at street signs from 20 yards away, into 12-inch wide mail box slots, into a Burger King drive thru window, into a moving news vehicle and into a basketball hoop from mid-court during one of Villanova's basketball practices

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

• Known as one of the league's best long snappers, has played in 128 regular season games and 14 postseason contests with the Eagles, Chiefs, Packers, and Patriots, while logging 59 career special teams tackles

• In his 10 NFL seasons, his teams have made the playoffs nine times

HOME ON THE RANGE

A self-proclaimed "country boy," Bartrum and his family reside on their farm in his hometown of Pomeroy, OH. The Bartrum's country farmhouse, complete with a beautiful wrap-around porch reminiscent of the Waltons', lies on 119 acres of land. A 30-acre pasture, a 30-acre hayfield and almost 60 acres of hunting land comprise the property.

"When my kids are old enough to participate in 4H, we'll stock the farm with sheep and steer," said Bartrum. "My wife, Jennifer, was in 4H when she was younger and it's a great way to teach the kids about responsibility and hard work."

Bartrum even uses his land to train during the off-season, "I love to run the hills. I get out there with my sons, Cody and Zach. When I get hot and take my shirt off, they get a kick out of it and do it too."

- While with the Packers in 1995, was tutored by then tight ends coach Andy Reid. The following season appeared in Super Bowl XXXI vs. the Packers as a member of the Patriots

ONE OF THE GOOD GUYS

Established the Mike Bartrum Foundation which generates money to benefit the athletic department of his alma mater, Meigs HS, in Pomeroy, OH, and the local Boy's and Girl's Club.

"When I was in high school there was one universal machine on the stage in the auditorium for students to workout with," said Bartrum. "Now there's an entire weight room. That's not too common in these parts."

Every June, Bartrum teams with fellow Marshall alum and current New England Patriot, Troy Brown, to host the Bartrum-Brown Football Camp. The weekend-long event, held at Spring Valley HS in Huntington, WV, consists of a golf tournament and a football clinic for area kids. This past June, the Jets Chad Pennington, the Jaguars Byron Leftwich and a number of other Marshall alumni, participated in the event. Bartrum and Brown also teamed up for a flag football event this past May, which benefited both of their foundations.

Bartrum's next charitable endeavor is founding "New Horizon's Childhood Enrichment," a day care center for families with children between the ages of three and five in the Pomeroy area . The center is being developed in cooperation with God's NET, a religious ministry that provides facilities, volunteers and role models for the underprivileged.

- Made the Eagles 2003 opening day roster but was inactive for all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests

- As a youngster growing up in McComb, always played quarterback and running back. He once dreamed of playing those skills positions in the NFL until he became too big in the 10th grade and switched to the offensive line

Sheldon Brown

Position: Cornerback
Height, Weight: 5-10, 200
Born: 3/19/79 in Lancaster, SC
College: South Carolina
High School: Lewisville, Ft. Lawn, SC
NFL Experience: 3rd (3rd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: 02b-02 (59th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

After the offseason departures of Troy Vincent and Bobby Taylor, the Eagles will turn to Sheldon Brown as a starting cornerback in 2004. Over his first two NFL seasons, he saw plenty of action at cornerback and provided tight coverage and dependable tackling to go along with 3 interceptions. Said head coach Andy Reid, "Sheldon is one of my favorites. He is not the biggest guy or the most gifted guy, but he is going to be the toughest guy on the field and he's a great competitor."

BIRDSEED:

- Upon signing his rookie contract, paid off his parents' bills and set it up so his mother would never have to work another day in her life. Also put a deposit down on a house for his sister, Tasha, so that his nephews, Tyrell (9) and Ahmad (4), could relocate to a better school district. Also had his grandmother's roof repaired
- Mentored on life in the pros by former NFL RB Harold Green, a fellow South Carolina alum, who serves as the school's career development coordinator. "He's taught me so much about the NFL," said Brown. "Just because you have a nice car, a nice house, and a lucrative high-paying job doesn't mean you don't have problems. Most people don't realize that or believe it. Even other players. He also taught me about dealing with the media during the good times and bad."
- Said former teammate Troy Vincent, "Sheldon's going to play in this league for a long time. He prepares...on the first day he came into meetings with a pen and notebook (not common for a rookie)."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Made his first career start (vs. Was. 10/5/03) at RCB for Bobby Taylor (foot). Started one other game for Taylor at RCB and two more at LCB for Troy Vincent (hip) in 2003
- Set up an Eagles TD as he snagged an INT vs. Dal. (12/7/03) when he stepped in front of a Quincy Carter pass intended for WR Terry Glenn
- Tied a career high with 10 tackles vs. NYG (11/16/03)
- Had a critical block on Brian Westbrook's 84-yd. game-winning punt return for a TD at NYG (10/20/03)
- Finished his rookie season ranked 2nd on the team in special teams production points (166)
- Recorded his first career sack at SF (11/25/02) when he dropped Jeff Garcia
- Snared his first career INT vs. Dal. (QB Quincy Carter - 9/22/02). Also pumped up the home crowd with two highlight-film hits of WR/KR Reggie Swinton
- Made his NFL debut at Ten. (9/8/02) as the nickel back, after Vincent (knee) was deactivated

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Jenny, were married on 5/22/04 and reside in Sicklerville, NJ
- An avid golfer, he sponsors an annual tournament that serves as a fundraiser for Camden (NJ) County College

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?

Inspired by the TV show, "Trading Spaces," he and his wife, Jenny, enjoy working on renovation projects around the house. Over the past few years, the Browns have installed bench seating under the bay window in their dining room, finished their basement with a bar, designed their home office, and painted numerous rooms.

- Rushed for 2,020 yards and 31 TDs as a senior and was named 1996 Associated Press South Carolina player of the year as Lewisville HS won the Class A state title
- Also named all-state in basketball and baseball three times
- His most memorable football moment was beating Clemson as a college senior. He was the game's MVP with 2 INTs and it was the first time his grandmother attended a game since suffering a stroke four years earlier
- Full name: Sheldon Dion Brown

COLLEGE:

A semi-finalist for the 2001 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's premier defensive back, he collected 204 tackles, 10 INTs and 37 knockdowns during his career. A three-year starter, was the only player in school history to lead the team in interceptions in three seasons (1999-2001). Earned first-team All-America honors as a junior and All-SEC honors as a senior and junior. Lined up at free safety for the first four contests of his sophomore year before shifting to cornerback. Also played on the school's baseball team as a designated hitter and right fielder.

Correll Buckhalter
28

Position: Running Back
Height, Weight: 6-0, 222
Born: 10/6/78 in Collins, MS
College: Nebraska
High School: Collins, Collins, MS
NFL Experience: 4th [4th as an Eagle]
Acquired by Eagles: D4-01 [121st selection overall]
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A strong back with a great burst, Buckhalter is in his fourth season in Philadelphia after successfully returning from a torn ACL suffered during mini-camp in 2002, that kept him out the entire season. Last year, Buckhalter teamed with Duce Staley and Brian Westbrook in the three-headed monster attack at running back and finished with a career-high 9 touchdowns. The Eagles fourth round draft pick in 2001, out of a run-oriented offense at Nebraska, Buckhalter set the team rookie rushing record with 586 yards.

BIRDSEED:

- After an impressive debut as a rookie, Buckhalter tore the anterior cruciate ligament of his left knee in a non-contact drill on the first day of mini-camp (4/26/02). After missing the 2002 season, he was back on the field in 2003 and never looked back. For his hard work and dedication he was awarded the team's Ed Block Courage Award. The award honors those NFL players who exemplify commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. They are selected in a vote by their teammates for team effort as well as individual performance

- In the final game of his career at Collins HS, amazingly carried the ball on every single offensive play in the first half. Head coach Royce Foster allowed Buckhalter to showcase his skills for interested college recruiters. He finished the day with 47 carries, a then state record, for 387 yds. and 6 TDs

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Posted a career-high 9 total TDs in 2003, while leading the team in carries (126) and rushing TDs (8)
- With a 6.1 yds. per touch avg. in 2003, ranked T-16th among all NFL RBs (min. 100 touches)
- Was part of the Eagles "Three-Headed Monster" RB attack in 2003 that together accounted for 1,618 rushing yards, 2,157 total yards from scrimmage and 29 total TDs. The Eagles were the first team to have 3 RBs with 7-plus TDs (Westbrook 13, Buckhalter 9, Staley 7) since the StL Cardinals in 1979 (Ottis Anderson, 10; Wayne Morris, 9; and Theotis Brown, 7). The trio scored at least one TD in 14 of 16 games in 2003. Westbrook (15.15) and Buckhalter (15.11) led the NFL in TDs per touch
- Notched his 1st career TD reception, an 11-yd. pass from Donovan McNabb at Was. (12/27/03)
- Rushed for 115 yds. in a victory over Dal. (12/7/03) including a career-long 64-yd. TD scamper. His 144 total yds. from scrimmage were also a career high
- Registered a career-high 23 rushing attempts (92 yds.) at Atl. (11/2/03)
- Scored a career-high 2 rushing TDs (100 yds.) vs. NYJ (10/26/03)

FLOAT LIKE A BUTTERFLY, STING LIKE A BEE

In order to strengthen and maximize the mobility of his knee that underwent surgery to repair a torn ACL in 2002, Buckhalter sought out renowned boxing trainer Mackie Shilstone. Shilstone is the same trainer boxers such as Roy Jones Jr., Michael Spinks and Riddick Bowe have relied on over the years to get them into peak fighting condition.

After spending three weeks in New Orleans during July of 2003, he was ready to return to the field. "Working with him, man, I feel strong," Buckhalter said. "I have my explosion back, I'm working out with him again when the season is over."

That's exactly what Buckhalter did in June of 2004, as he returned to New Orleans to prepare for the season.

- Created one of the most exciting scoring plays of the season on Monday Night Football at Mia. (12/15/03). From the 1 yard line, he sprinted for the right corner of the end zone. As defenders closed in, he jumped backwards into the air but managed to keep the ball inside the pylon with his right hand, before being shoved out of bounds (pictured right)
- With 586 yards on just 129 carries in 2001, broke the Eagles rookie rushing record set by Keith Byars (177-577) in 1986
- Also broke the club's single-game rookie mark with 134 yards on 21 carries (6.4 avg.) in his first NFL start vs. Arz. (10/7/01). Steve Van Buren (129 yards on 11/5/44) previously held that mark. Became the first Eagles rookie to rush for 100 yards in first start since Charlie Garner (16-129-2TDs) on 10/2/94 at SF
- After Duce Staley (shoulder) was injured in game 2 of 2001, stepped in as the #1 RB vs. Dal. (9/30/01) and ran for 99 yards and his first career TD
- In 2001, ranked 3rd in the NFC/6th in the NFL in rushing yards among all rookies. Also ranked 2nd among NFL rookies (min. 100 carries) in yards per carry (4.5) behind Colts RB Dominic Rhodes (4.7)
- Ran for 50 yards on 6 carries, including a 31-yd. scamper that set up the Eagles first TD in the NFC Championship Game at StL before leaving late in the 1st half with an ankle injury

PERSONAL:

- Single and resides in Cherry Hill, NJ
- All-state selection at Collins (MS) HS, he rushed for 1,302 yards as a junior and gained 1,722 yards with 12 TDs on 235 carries (7.3 avg.) as a senior
- His brother, Chris, was a member of the Eagles practice squad in 1996
- Has a younger brother, Justin, a 6-0, 200-pound RB in the 11th grade at Collins HS. "Just wait, you're gonna start hearing about him," boasted the big brother
- Visited the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia for Halloween in 2003 dressed as a scarecrow
- Claims to have always been the class clown. "I love to be funny and have a good time. I got away with a lot of stuff because of my smile"
- Grew up listening to The Isley Brothers, Al Green and Teddy Pendergast
- The nickname "The General," was given to him after ESPN's Chris Berman referred to him as Correll "General" Buckhalter, referring to General Albert Burkhalter, from the TV show "Hogan's Heroes"
- Majored in sociology

This photo of Buckhalter managing to keep the football inside the pylon for the score at Mia. (12/15/03), was taken by team photographer Drew Hallowell. The shot entitled, "Got Air?," earned honorable mention in the annual NFL Hall of Fame photo contest in 2003.

COLLEGE:

Finished his career at Nebraska ranked 8th in school history with 2,522 rushing yards. Played in 46 games (9 starts) and gained 2,522 yards with 27 touchdowns on 413 carries (6.1 avg.). Topped the 100-yard barrier on 11 occasions. As a senior, earned All-Big XII Conference honorable mention accolades after posting 106-750-7TDs rushing (7.1 avg.) and 5-85-1TD receiving totals.

INJURY HISTORY:

Suffered a torn ACL in his left knee on 4/26/02 during the first practice of the first minicamp of 2002. Underwent surgery on 5/22/02 by Dr. Arthur Bartolozzi and Dr. Peter DeLuca. Was placed on Physically Unable to Perform List on 8/27/02. Suffered ankle injury in first half of the NFC Championship game at StL (1/27/02) and did not return.

am and not get home until 7:00 pm. If she can do that much for me, I figure there's a lot more I can do for her."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

One game in two years. Even though it may not seem very significant, it's a statistic that goes a lot deeper for Derrick Burgess. He endured two foot surgeries in 2002 and a torn Achilles tendon in the 2003 preseason. He's missed 31 regular season and four postseason games. Although it has been a trying time for Burgess, he's stayed positive. "Being away from the game made me miss it even more," said Burgess during a 2004 mini-camp. "It's just like in life, you don't know how much you miss something until it's gone." A 3rd round draft choice in 2001, Burgess took advantage of his limited playing time and recorded 6 sacks, 5th-highest among rookies that year.

BIRDSEED:

- His mother, Priscilla, took a job at a Wendy's chain in Greenbelt, MD, over 20 years ago in order to move her son to a much safer school than the one he attended in Washington, DC. Since that time she has become the manager of the company's training center in Greenbelt. Burgess admires how hard his mother has worked, "She would go to work at 5:00

HE'S OLD-SCHOOL

Brian Dawkins

20
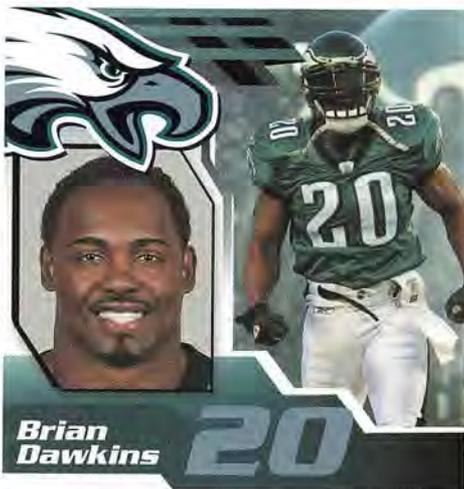

Position: Safety
Height, Weight: 6-0, 210
Born: 10/13/73 in Jacksonville, FL
College: Clemson
High School: Raines, Jacksonville, FL
NFL Experience: 9th (9th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D2b-96 (61st selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

To understand this three-time Pro Bowl safety, just take a look on the top shelf of his locker. There you will find multiple figurines of his favorite comic book hero, Wolverine, some of which have been sent by his fans. Wolverine is the low-key leader of the X-Men, a comic book action series, an animated cartoon and two full-length feature films. Wolverine is known for his animal-keen senses that allow him to track his adversaries with great ease, very much like Dawkins hunts down opposing ball carriers and receivers. The Eagles 2nd round draft choice in 1996 landed a starting role in the 2nd game of his rookie season and has averaged 90 tackles per year while posting 21 interceptions and countless train-wreck hits. Said Monday Night Football analyst John Madden, "Brian Dawkins is the best free safety in football. He's good at covering. He's good at blitzing and he's good at tackling." He was rewarded for his tremendous efforts with a lucrative seven-year contract on 4/28/03.

BIRDSEED:

- Earned NFC defensive POW honors after being the first player in NFL history to record a sack, an INT, FR, and TD reception in a single game vs. Hou. (9/29/02). It was the first time a fake punt was converted into a TD by the Eagles since 1988 (Terry Hoage). He victimized Texans QB David Carr for the defensive trio of events before taking a pitch from Brian Mitchell on the fake punt and racing 57 yds. for his 4th career TD

- "I wish I could eat cereal for breakfast, lunch and dinner and watch as much cartoons as my son and daughter." A huge fan of cartoons, he watches "Tom & Jerry" with his daughter, Briani, and "Yu-Gi-Oh!" with his son, Brian. He estimates that he watches as much if not more cartoons than his kids

- Named the best "blitzer to complement the rush of the front four" in Sports Illustrated's NFL Preview (9/1/03) wrote Paul Zimmerman. "You've got to have speed and a killer instinct, because if you're crafty enough and time your blitz just right, you might have a free shot at the passer. Lawyer Milloy excels in this area, but Dawkins is the master"

- Said Cowboys Pro Bowl safety Darren Woodson: "Brian Dawkins is the best safety in the league, bar none. He has been consistent each and every time I've seen him play. He does all the little things that help his team win."

*Wolverine of the X-Men
(c) Marvel Comics*

- Has appeared in more games as an Eagle (110) than any other player on the curent roster

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A three-time Pro Bowl selection in 1999, 2001 and 2002, was also named first alternate in 2000, despite missing three games due to an emergency appendectomy

- Since 2000, the Eagles are 7-0 when Dawkins records at least a partial sack

- Currently ranks tied for 11th in INTs (21) and 4th in INT return yds. (387) on the Eagles all-time lists
- Intercepted Brett Favre in OT of the NFC Divisional playoff game vs. GB (1/11/04) which led to the game-winning 31-yd. FG by David Akers
- Recorded 8 tackles, a half sack and an INT at Mia. (QB Jay Fiedler - 12/15/03) on Monday Night Football. Was named "Co-Horse Trailer Player of the Game" along with Donovan McNabb

- Selected by his teammates as the Eagles defensive MVP in 2002, and was an all-NFL selection by the Associated Press, Football Digest, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, College and Pro

AN X-TRA SPECIAL VISIT

Dawkins and his family visited the Marvel Comics headquarters in New York City in 2002 to meet with Adam Kubert and Danny Miki, the artists who draw the X-Men comics. While there, he was presented with Kubert's rendering of Dawkins as Wolverine. (pictured below)
Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly and USA Today Sports Weekly

- Collected a sack and an INT at Was. (QB Danny Wuerffel - 9/16/02)

- Began the 1999 season with an interception in each of the first three games: vs. Arz., vs. TB and vs. Buf. In doing so he became the first Eagle to record an INT in three consecutive games since CB Eric Allen and S Rich Miano did so in games 2-4 in 1993
- His 67-yard INT return for a TD off of Damon Huard at Mia. (10/24/99) was his longest INT return
- In the 2000 Pro Bowl, tied a then NFL record with 2 INTs for the NFC squad
- Picked off Giants QB Danny Kanell on 12/7/97 and returned the ball 64 yds. for his first TD as a pro
- Earned NFL All-Rookie team honors from Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football News in 1996
- Notched his first career INT vs. Atl.'s Bobby Hebert (9/22/96). The following week in a Monday night game vs. Dal. (9/30) sacked Troy Aikman, forcing a fumble that Rhett Hall returned 32 yds. for a TD

PERSONAL:

- Brian and his wife, Connie, were high school sweethearts and have known each other since they were 15 years old. They have a son, Brian, Jr. (8/2/96), and a daughter, Brionni (9/23/99)

- Serves as the regional spokesman for the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation
- Has become quite the pitch-man. His clients include print ads for Zinman Furs (with his wife Connie) and Auntie Ann's Pretzels, and a TV ad for Ventresca's Men's Clothing
- Was hired as the 2004 Eagles defensive insider for FOX-29's "Eagles Gameday Live" pregame show
- Was an all-state selection at Raines HS in Jacksonville, FL (the same school attended by former Eagles WR Harold Carmichael and current Eagles CB Lito Sheppard) and helped lead that team to 30 consecutive wins. In 2003, the school ranked 2nd in the NFL in number of current players. The others were all wide receivers: Lions Shawn Jefferson, Texans Jabar Gaffney and Redskins Rod Gardner
- Also earned all-conference honors in basketball
- Was inducted into the Raines HS Hall of Fame in 2004
- Made a contribution to Raines HS that, among many things, helped refurbish the weight room. The facility was named the Brian Dawkins Training Complex

NO HOLDS BARRED

In the 2002 offseason, Dawkins began teaming up with NHB (No Holds Barred) ultimate fighting champion, Tim Catalfo (a.k.a. Obake) for his offseason workouts. Three years later, he still finds the unorthodox training methods to be the best way to prepare for battle.

A 44-year-old northern New Jersey native and Syracuse graduate who practices as a chiropractor, Catalfo is the reigning world extreme fighting super heavyweight champion.

Obake has taught Dawkins to lift properly by controlling the weights and "using every muscle fiber" during his intense training. He had always focused his lifting on his upper body, but it was the power and movement that was developed in his legs that has made a difference.

"Obake knows what it takes to be the best," said Dawkins. "My only regret is that I didn't train with him sooner."

Team Obake has currently trained 12 world champions in extreme fighting and works with other pro athletes, including Donovin Darius (Jaguars).

"As soon as we hit the floor to train, it's on," said Obake of his prized pupil. "Brian transforms immediately and puts on his game face."

IDIOT MAN

During the week, Dawkins walks the Eagles locker room as a humble, mild mannered, God-fearing man. But on game day he transforms into one of the most fierce and energetic creatures ever to occupy a secondary. What's the secret?

"My man Peduzzi hooks me up," explains Dawkins. "When he puts that Breathe Right on my nose, I just become the idiot man!"

Chris Peduzzi, one of the Eagles athletic trainers, prepares that Breathe Right strip before Dawkins even gets to the stadium. He colors the strip with a midnight green marker on one half and a silver paint pen on the other. Although he is not a superstitious man, Dawkins is very particular about the application of the strip as the silver side must be on the left side of his nose.

Once the strip has been applied Dawkins has one more ritual. He drinks his "Idiot Juice," a pinch of Vitamin B-12.

- Has contributed to Forest View Pop Warner in Jacksonville where he started his football career
- Was named the first-team strong safety on Clemson's all-centennial team in 1995
- Joined Wolverine to drop the ceremonial first puck at a Philadelphia Phantoms (AHL) game in 2003. It was just his second hockey game ever
- "Stop, Drop, Roll, Cool and Call," that is the catch phrase of the public service announcement that Dawkins filmed with the Burn Prevention Foundation in 2002. The PSA was a part of a national educational video and Brian is still active with the cause
- An active member of the Eagles Bible study group and a huge fan of gospel music
- Earned his degree in education
- Full name: Brian Patrick Dawkins

COLLEGE:

A three-year starter at strong safety for Clemson, finished his career with 234 tackles and 11 interceptions. Was an All-ACC and a 2nd-team All-America selection as a senior when his team-high 6 INTs tied him for the conference lead. Also an outstanding special teams player, he made 35 stops on those units.

INJURY HISTORY:

Suffered a Lis Franc sprain in his foot vs. TB (9/8/03) and missed nine of the next 10 games. In 2000, missed games 4-6 while recovering from an emergency appendectomy (9/19). Broke his hand at Arz. on 12/5/99, but did not miss a game. Sprained his right ankle vs. Wash. (10/11/98) and subsequently missed the next two games. Suffered a bruised fibula at Jax. (10/12/97) and missed the following week's matchup vs. Arz. Strained his groin at Ind. (12/5/96) and was sidelined for the final two regular season contests, but returned for the playoffs.

Koy Detmer 10

Position: Quarterback
Height, Weight: 6-1, 195
Born: 7/5/73 in San Antonio, TX
College: Colorado
High School: Mission, San Antonio, TX
NFL Experience: 8th (8th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D7a-97 (207th selection overall)

The son of a renowned Texas high school football coach, Detmer brings a special element to the Eagles equation. With a unique sense of humor, toughness, and his unassuming athletic ability, Koy is a perennial locker room favorite. A 7th round draft choice in 1997, he earned his role as the Eagles backup QB in an unorthodox manner. He went from the Injured Reserve list as a rookie, to being a five-game starter in 1998 and then back to the 3rd quarterback role in 1999, before taking over his current job in 2000. Detmer is an important component of the special teams as the holder on all FGs and PATs. He signed a four-year contract on 2/26/03.

BIRDSEED:

- Trained actor Ryan Kwanten, the star of "American Brown," a movie produced by Christina Lurie, the wife of Eagles owner Jeffrey Lurie. The movie was about a West Texas QB and his relationship with a priest in New York. Kwanten spent a few days at a football camp run by Koy's father, Sonny. Koy taught Kwanten, who had never thrown a football before the movie, the proper mechanics of throwing

- Travels to road games with the clothes on his back, his playbook and a toothbrush. In fact, goes to Target each summer to get a new travel ensemble that he wears on each trip. Koy bragged, "I can get an entire outfit for under 100 bucks."

- Is the younger brother of former Eagle and current Falcons QB Ty Detmer. Joined Ty in becoming the 1st pair of brothers to each start an NFL game at QB

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2003, appeared in 3 regular season games as well as the NFC Championship game on offense

- In his first start since 1999, led the Eagles to an emotional Monday Night Football win at SF (11/25/02), in place of McNabb (ankle). After throwing for 2 TDs and rushing for another score, he left during the 3rd qtr. with a gruesome injury. As he tried to brace himself from a hit after releasing a pass attempt, his left arm was jolted into the turf and the elbow was dislocated. Earned "Horse Trailer" POG honors from ABC for his efforts

- Converted a perfect option pitch to K David Akers on a fake FG attempt vs. Dal. (9/22/02) that resulted in a 10-yard gain and a first down

- Executed a perfect behind-the-back, no-look lateral to Akers who galloped 15 yards for a 1st down on a fake FG at Arz. (10/15/00)

- In his only playing time of the 1999 season led the Eagles to a 24-9 victory vs. NE (12/19) as he fired 3 TD passes, including a 50 ydr. to Torrance Small

- Began the 1998 season as the 3rd QB behind Bobby Hoying and Rodney Peete. When both suffered injuries, Detmer landed his first career starting role at GB (11/29). He then went on to start the final four games of the season, including the season finale at Dal. (12/20) when he posted career highs in atts. (43), completions (24), and yards (231)

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Katie, a former University of Colorado skier, have two sons, Koy, Jr. (3/1/96) and Koal (1/30/03), and a daughter Katie (11/17/00). The family resides in San Antonio, TX

- Helped coach little Koy's baseball team in the 2004 offseason as an assistant coach

- Detmer, along with other Eagle players, were instructors at NFL 101, a workshop designed especially for women to teach them the ins and outs of football. Detmer and teammate Dirk Johnson did their part by educating the class on the finer points of special teams

- For Halloween dressed as a mariachi musician in 2002 and a Musketeer in 2001 and visited the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia with his teammates
- Was an all-state QB in a pro-style passing offense at Mission (TX) HS, where he was coached by his father, Sonny. Finished his career with a state-record 8,221 passing yards and 82 TDs
- Also lettered in basketball and golf
- Is the Eagles ace golfer. His handicap is currently an 8. His favorite course is The Quary in San Antonio, TX. In Philadelphia he likes to play at Laurel Creek Country Club in Mt Laurel, NJ
- When asked who would comprise his ultimate four-some besides himself, he listed Bill Murray, Tiger Woods, and former teammate Steve Everitt
- List of favorites: Okie From Muskogee (song), Aquaman (super hero), and science (subject in school)
- Boyhood heroes include Roger Staubach and Tom Landry
- Earned his degree in communications
- Full name: Koy Dennis Detmer. Was named after Ernie Koy, Sr. and Jr., both legendary football players in the state of Texas

COLLEGE:

One of the most prolific passers in Colorado history, set the school record for most touchdown passes with 40. By throwing for 3,156 yds. and 22 TDs in 1996, became the first QB in Buffaloes history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season. Capped his career with a 45-25-371-0-3TD passing effort in a 33-21 win over Washington in the Holiday Bowl. Earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors and was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award given to the nation's top senior passer. Amassed career passing totals of 594 atts., 350 comps., 5,390 yds., 25 INTs, and 40 TDs.

INJURY HISTORY:

Dislocated his left elbow at SF (11/25/02) and was inactive for two games. Injured his right knee on 8/19/97 and spent the rest of his rookie season on the Injured Reserve list. He had previously undergone season-ending surgery to the same knee in '95 while at the Univ. of Colorado.

High School: Shelton, Shelton, WA
NFL Experience: 3rd (3rd as an Eagle)

A highly productive player during his college career at BYU, Justin Ena was disappointed his name was not announced as one of the 261 players selected in the 2002 draft. He quickly turned that disappointment into determination, soaking in advice from fellow BYU alum and Pro Bowl TE Chad Lewis, who, like Ena, was a 25-year-old rookie with high aspirations. Ena became one of two undrafted rookies who earned a spot on the Eagles opening day roster (Artis Hicks was the other). Ena has since been a very productive player on special teams (34 tackles in 29 overall games).

BIRDSEED:

- Comes from a family of football players - uncle Tali (Washington State), brothers Packy (Oregon State) and Tali (currently at New Mexico)

- As the son of a principal, Ena and his family moved around a number on times during his youth. His most interesting stops came at the Collville Indian Reservation and at the Arrow Lake Preservation, home to a Nez Perce Indian community, on the Canadian border in Northeastern Washington. Peato, his father, was the principal of that school (kindergarten through 12th grade) while Justin was in 8th through 10th grade. With just 78 students in the senior high portion of the school, Justin was only able to play 8-man football in his freshman and sophomore years. "I loved being in such a small community. It was comfortable. I'm a quiet guy and it suited me well."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A staple on the Eagles special teams, tied for 3rd on those units in tackles (22) and 4th in production points (168) in 2003
- Had a critical block to help spring Brian Westbrook on an 84-yd. punt return at NYG (10/19/03)

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Dana, have a son, Justice (2/19/02), and reside in Spanish Fork, UT
- Attended Shelton (WA) HS where he also lettered in basketball and baseball
- Graduated with a degree in history
- Would be teaching if not playing football
- Has a dream of flying planes one day. Growing up he wanted to be an Air Force pilot
- Enjoys hunting, fishing, and camping, but his favorite thing to do is hiking in the mountains by himself
- Full name: Justin Peato Ena

Earned All-Mountain West first-team honors in 2000 and 2001, and 2nd team honors in 1999. In 48 career games, amassed 279 tackles, including 29 for a loss and 4 sacks. Added 2 INTs, 6 FFs and 4 FRs.

Hank Fraley 63

Position: Center
Height, Weight: 6-2, 300
Born: 9/21/77 in Gaithersburg, MD
College: Robert Morris
High School: Gaithersburg, Gaithersburg, MD
NFL Experience: 5th (5th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: Waivers (Pit) 2000
Originally joined NFL: Signed as a rookie free agent by Pittsburgh in 2000

The anchor of the Eagles offensive line since 2001, Hank Fraley climbed a steep ladder to find himself at the current rung of his career. An undrafted free agent, Fraley stepped in for injured center Bubba Miller at the end of the 2001 preseason and has not looked back. It's no accident Fraley has progressed so much as a player. He works hard, studies hard, and stays late, watching hour after hour of film with the quarterbacks. Fraley took that blue-collar attitude plus a feisty style of play, to earn a lucrative five-year contract extension in 2002. A non-scholarship player at Division I-AA Robert Morris in Pittsburgh, PA, Fraley signed as a rookie free agent with the Steelers in 2000, but was released and claimed off waivers by the Eagles on 8/28/00.

BIRDSEED:

- Sponsors the Hank Fraley Award which is presented annually to a high school football player in the Philadelphia area who gets the most from his abilities. The 2004 recipient was Nick Colleluori, 5-9, 170-pound, defensive lineman from Ridley (PA) HS

- A big fan of motorcycles, owns a Harley Softtail Heritage Classic. Enjoys taking it out for long rides and has trekked to the Jersey Shore on the back roads "just enjoying the ride." Also participated in a charity ride with teammates, David Akers and Jon Runyan, sponsored by Mike's Famous Harley-Davidson of New Castle, DE, in June of 2004

- Hank's brother, David, was stationed with the United States Army's 3rd Infantry Division in Iraq as part of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Their father is also a Vietnam veteran. David now resides in Pittsburgh and is in the Army Reserves

"His job and my job are totally different," said Hank of his brother while he was oversees. "He's fighting for and securing our freedom and I'm just entertaining people. I have all the respect for him. He's my little brother. We've been through a lot."

- An undersized lineman in high school, Fraley was not heavily recruited and decided to attend Robert Morris because the head coach was Joe Walton, the former coach of the New York Jets. Recalled longtime Gaithersburg HS coach John Harvill, "Hank worked his tail off. He would work all summer. What a great young man. He was so coachable. I didn't think he'd ever make it to the pros ... The first two years he was an average football player. Hank did everything anyone ever asked him to do."

- Prior to starting his NFL career, Fraley planned on teaching history and coaching football

- Became only the 2nd player in Robert Morris history to have his number, 75, retired (the other was RB Tim Hall who played for the Raiders)

- In his first ever NFL game (vs. StL 9/9/01), was fined for an illegal downfield block

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 55 games played as an Eagle has started all but one, including 7 starts in the postseason. He did not start the 2001 regular season finale, a meaningless game in terms of playoff standings

- Was part of an offensive line in 2003 that protected QB Donovan McNabb on the way to his 4th-straight Pro Bowl appearance, and paved the way for the "Three Headed Monster" RB attack that posted a combined 1,618 rushing yds. and 2,465 total yds. from scrimmage

Subbing successfully for injured Pro Bowl FS Brian Dawkins is a daunting task in itself. But for a former college baseball pitcher who began his pro football career at an Arena Football League2 tryout to do so, this is the stuff movies are made of. Simply stated, Hart took the long road to the NFL. After graduating from high school, he did not play football for five years. Instead, he played baseball at Central Florida Community College in order to stay closer to his family, who were dealing with many difficulties at the time. His AFL2 tryout turned into a two-year career in the indoor game. While playing for Tallahassee of AFL2, he earned $162 per week and endured bus trips as long as 20 hours without a hotel to stay in. He then moved to the AFL where he earned rookie of the year honors in 2001 with the Tampa Bay Storm. That success landed him a contract offer from Philadelphia and an allocation to NFL Europe in 2002. One year later, he ended up in the starting lineup at free safety, making 61 tackles in 9 starts as the Eagles posted a 7-2 record in those games.

BIRDSEED:

- A two-year veteran of Arena Football he says, "It takes a different type of athlete to play Arena Football. You need to be a versatile athlete. It was definitely a training ground for me to play in the NFL."

- With his father and older brother serving time in prison, serves as a mentor to his younger brother, Keanu (9) and even attends his parent/teacher conferences at school. Said Hart's mother, Kathy, "Whenever Clinton calls, Keanu wants the phone. After that, all I can hear on this end is Keanu saying, 'OK, OK, OK.'"

- Worked at a juvenile detention center in Ocala, FL, prior to signing with the Eagles. He credits working with those kids, for inspiring him to pursue his dream of playing professional football

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Began the 2003 season as the backup at both safety spots, but stepped into the starting lineup for Pro Bowl FS Brian Dawkins (foot injury) in games 2-9 & 11. The Eagles posted a 7-2 record in those contests

- Registered his 1st career sack (QB Kurt Kittner) at Atl. (11/2/03)

- Posted a career-high 10 tackles at NYG (10/19/03)

- Earned his first career start vs. NE (9/14/03) in place of the injured Dawkins

- Re-signed to a three-year contract on 1/30/03

- Was released by the Eagles during training camp on 8/24/02 but was later signed to the Eagles practice squad on 11/19/02 where he spent the final 9 games of the season

A LEARNING EXPERIENCE

Hicks looks at his path to the NFL as a humbling experience. As a senior at Memphis, he was fully expecting to be drafted in the third or fourth round pick. His name was never called and he signed with the Eagles as a free agent.

"When I wasn't drafted," he recalls. "I knew it would be a challenge, but I just looked at it as a different path I had to take."

Hicks learned from the experience and is out to prove wrong those who passed on him.

"It wasn't my decision not to be drafted," he said. "I am a better individual because of it."

Roderick Hood 29

Position: Cornerback
Height, Weight: 5-11, 196
Born: 10/3/81 in Columbus, GA
College: Auburn
High School: Carver, Columbus, GA
NFL Experience: 2nd (2nd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie free agent in 2003
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A former walk-on at Auburn, Roderick Hood knows all about battling the odds. After suffering through an injury-plagued high school career and a coaching change in college that shuffled the depth chart in the defensive backfield, he became one of six rookie free agents to make the opening day roster in 2003. Hood proved to be a valuable commodity on defense in his rookie season as injuries ravaged the Eagles defensive backfield. He was also a solid contributor on special teams.

PERSEVERANCE PAYS OFF

Standing 5-foot-3 as a sophomore in high school, Hood grew to 5-10 in just one year. However, his high school career was marred by a broken growth plate in his shoulder as a junior and by a broken ankle during his senior season. As a result, he received no scholarship offers from Division I programs. Eventually, he turned down Division I-AA offers to walk-on at Auburn as a wide receiver.

After making a head-turning catch on his first play in practice at Auburn, was reluctantly moved to cornerback where he went on to see action as a true freshman. Earned a scholarship as a sophomore, but a coaching change, and a change in position to safety, tainted his college career. He was not invited to the NFL combine or any all-star games and went undrafted.

BIRDSEED:

- Prior to the NFL draft, moved in with Carolina Panthers DT Brentson Buckner, a fellow Carver HS alum. "I don't think I would be in the NFL today without Brentson," said Hood, who lived with Buckner at his home in South Carolina. "He taught me about being a pro in the NFL, how to eat right, work out the right way, dealing with the media." Hood knew Buckner through his older brother Benjamin

- The youngest of four children, Hood's older brother, Benjamin, is an account executive for Clear Channel in Atlanta. Said Hood, "Besides my dad, there has not been a single greater influence on my football career than my brother. Words can't describe how much he meant to me. He was always there during the rough times, especially when I was hurt back-to-back years in high school."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Ranked tied for 5th on the team in special teams tackles (21) and 5th on those units in production points (155) in 2003

Philadelphia Eagles

COOKIE MONSTER

The son of Lamar, a Baptist minister, and Patricia, a worker at the Keebler cookie factory in Columbus, he lived a childhood fantasy. He could eat unlimited, free cookies.

"My mom would bring us cookies home all the time," said Hood. "It was great. My personal favorites were chocolate chip and animal crackers. [Laughing] I ended up getting so tired of those cookies, but it was fun."

- Recorded his 1st career INT vs. Was. (10/6/03 - QB Patrick Ramsey) which led to an Eagles TD
- Subbing as the nickel CB after an injury to Troy Vincent, recorded a career-high 4 tackles and returned a fumble (forced by Michael Lewis) 27 yds. at Buf. (9/28/03)

PERSONAL:

- Single and lives in Columbus, GA
- A quarterback, wide receiver and cornerback at Carver HS in Columbus, he also lettered in basketball as a point guard and in track as he made the state finals in the 4x100
- Credits John Lovett, his position coach at Auburn and a long-time coaching friend of Eagles assistant Steve Spagnuolo, for becoming an Eagle. It was Lovett who highly recommended that he join Spagnuolo and the Eagles following the 2003 draft
- Hobbies include playing basketball, vacationing with family, and talking to kids about persevering through tough times

- Plays regularly on the Eagles offseason basketball team
- Has two sisters, Tracy and Lakeya
- Majored in public administration

COLLEGE:

A former Auburn walk-on who earned a scholarship with excellent special teams play as a freshman. Played in 47 games (18 starts) recording 106 tackles, 5 INTs, and 18 KDs. Played left and right CB as well as FS. Also registered an 11.2-yard avg. on 51 punt returns and 19.9 yds. on 44 kickoff returns.

THE SOURCE OF HIS INSPIRATION

Dirk is inspired by his older sister, Darcy, who battled bouts with life-threatening epileptic seizures after being born with a mild case of cerebral palsy.

"She's always so positive," said Dirk. "She's had all this stuff go wrong. She's come so far, but she never says anything bad about it. She never lets it get her down. It's crazy. I don't know if I could do that."

In 2003, Darcy underwent a 3-hour surgical procedure in her brain to try to eliminate those seizures. Although she has occasional seizures, she's able to hold a job, live on her own, and limit the amount of medication she has to take.

CADDY SHACK

After four trips to the waiver wire since 1998, Johnson made a living as a caddy at Castle Pines Golf Club in Castle Rock, CO. During the 2003 off-season, Johnson earned a couple of extra bucks at Aronomink Golf Club outside of Philadelphia.

In the non-golfing months, he also worked for Handy-Man Express, where he cleaned gutters, hung dry wall, and finished basements, for Serv Pro, a fire and flood restoration company, and for Mile High Valet as a parking attendant.

COLLEGE:

Was a three-time All-America selection at Division II Northern Colorado (as a punter in 1995, as a DB and punter in 1996 and as a DB in 1997). Finished his college career ranked 2nd on the school's all-time list with a 40.8 career punting average. Won two Division II national championships with the Bears (1996 and 1997). An athletic and smart linebacker, Jones gets a fresh start at SAM linebacker after signing a five-year contract with the Eagles on 3/9/04. A distinct personality off the field, Jones is excited about joining the Philadelphia community as well. "I fit in a certain type of market, a fast-paced market, one that excels not only in the sports industry, but also in the media industry and the art industry," said the well-rounded Jones, who's also a musician and an admirer of fine art. "Philadelphia is right in the middle of everything. It's the East Coast Mecca." Originally drafted in the 6th round by the New York Giants in 2000, Jones served as the Giants starting weak side linebacker for the past two seasons, tallying 100-plus tackle efforts in each of those years. In 2003, he notched a career-high 154 tackles and 3 sacks.

His first name, Dhani, means "thinking man" in the Hindi language. His middle name, Makalani, means "skilled in writing" in the Polynesian language. This guy was destined to become a renaissance man. His stable of hobbies include his love for poetry, classical music, oil painting, wood working and photography. His favorite artist is Salvador Dali. His favorite quote is "Carpe Diem" latin for "seize the day." He plays in the NFL. Where did this guy come from?

Fittingly, one of Jones' favorite pieces of art is Auguste Rodin's, "The Thinker."

"When I was choosing colleges I saw a pamphlet from Michigan that had the "Block M" sitting on top of the world," said Jones. "I wanted to be on top of the world. I knew that if football wasn't going to get me there, my education from Michigan could."

The son of Samuel, a Navy Commander, and Nancy, an anesthesiologist, Dhani grew up in a setting he described as "just like the Cosby Show."

"There was an emphasis on education and hard work," said Jones. "I worked hard in school and I delivered pizzas for four years. I was pretty good at it. I even delivered one to Wonder Woman (Linda Carter)."

Growing up, he also developed a strong sense of world awareness and social responsibility.

"Someday I want to take a group of kids and teach them about what's out there," said Jones. "I want to show them that the $100 dollars they may spend on a pair of shoes could be used to live for a week in some countries."

THE GUT-BUCKET BASS

Jones built his own "gut-bucket bass" and took to the subways of New York City to demonstrate his musical skills. The bass was inspired by an episode of the "Fat Albert" cartoon, "The Band," and is pictured here on the far right. The homemade instrument consists of a metal wash tub, a wooden pole and twine. FIVE STAR BOW TIES

Jones earned rave reviews as the dapper, bow-tie-wearing player reporter for the NFL Network during the 2003 playoffs. The exposure and positive feedback he received from his re-introduction of the bow tie into pop culture influenced him to begin developing his own line of the classic tie, Five Star Bow Ties.

"I really never thought about wearing bow ties until a friend put it to me as kind of a challenge," said Jones. "He had fought through cancer and I started wearing them as a tribute to his fight. Then I really started to like them and figured it would make a great calling card."

The company is still in the early stages of production, but Jones has already put together a staff of four to oversee the operation. The fabrics will be imported from Italy and the manufacturing is scheduled take place in Brooklyn, NY.

BACK TO HIS ROOTS

Being the only American-born member of his family, Kalu has a great deal of pride and respect for his native Nigeria. Nestled on the west coast of Africa, Nigeria is the home to Jonah Ndukwe Kalu, N.D.'s grandfather, a legend in the town of Abiriba. He was a renowned and respected businessman.

Kalu, who had not been to Nigeria since he was 13, and his parents, Dr. Dike and Carolyn, took a two-and-a-half week trip to Nigeria in 2003 and again in 2004.

"It was so good to get back to my roots and know the land where my family is from," said Kalu. "I got a sense of self pride. My uncle owns and operates a water company, where they engineer, filter and bottle water. In spite of what many people think, Nigeria has some thriving businesses without the help of the Western World."

Kalu, whose parents bring tapes of his games back to Nigeria for his family to see, plans to go back each and every year. In 2004, he and his uncle, Nwokocha, held a football camp for the young men of Abiriba. About a dozen 19-year-olds attended the camp.

Said Kalu of the participants, "Some could play college football here in the United States right away. One difference from American kids was that Nigerians took to being linemen instead of wanting to play quarterback or receiver. They did have trouble throwing the football; I guess they don't do much of that over there. It's a new concept."

Kalu is now trying to pull together a group of Nigerian NFL players to organize an annual football camp in their native land. There are approximately 17 other Nigerian players currently in the league.

Kalu (right) is pictured with some of the young men who participated in the camp that he and his uncle, Nwokocha, organized in Nigeria this past offseason.

Kalu is pictured above with his father, Dike (2nd from left), and his uncles in the town of Abiriba during his trip to Nigeria in 2003.

- The first of two 5th round selections by Philadelphia in 1997, saw action in 3 games on special teams and in passing situations

PERSONAL:

- Welcomed his first child, Karolyn, on 2/6/02. He resides in Houston, TX, in the offseason
- Was the first in his family to be born in the United States (Baltimore, MD) after the family moved from Nigeria
- Was an all-state selection as a senior at John Marshall (TX) HS. In his junior year, led his team to the state Class 5A Division II title along with Chiefs RB Priest Holmes

- Also lettered in basketball and track and set the San Antonio district and city record in the high jump at 7 feet
- Earned his degree in English during the 2002 offseason

Jevon Kearse

Position: Defensive End
Height, Weight: 6-4, 265
Born: 9/3/76 in Ft. Myers, FL
College: Florida
High School: North Ft. Myers,
Ft. Myers, FL
NFL Experience: 6th (1st as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (Ten) 2004
Originally joined NFL: D1-99 by Tennessee (16th selection overall)

"We always say we like to throw fastballs at the offense, now we have Nolan Ryan." That quote from Eagles head coach Andy Reid portrays the Eagles desire to have speed and depth on the defensive line. One of the NFL's premier defensive ends, Kearse brings an impressive resume to Philadelphia after putting his signature on an eight-year contract on the first day of the free agency signing period (3/4/04). A three-time Pro Bowl selection, Kearse earned Rookie of the Year honors after setting an NFL rookie record with 14.5 sacks, a total made him the first rookie in NFL history to lead a conference in sacks. With double-digit sacks in each of his first three professional seasons, Kearse joined Reggie White and Derrick Thomas as the only players

LENDING A REALLY BIG HELPING HAND

When Kearse was growing up in Ft. Myers, FL, life wasn't always easy. Despite what was going on around him, he had one escape, his local Boys and Girls Club. Now, many years later he makes it a point to help out those who helped him out, as they are the main beneficiary of The Jevon Kearse Foundation.

"It was an outlet for me growing up," said Kearse. "It helped me get focused on education and athletics. It showed me how things should be. I want kids to have the same opportunities I had."

The Jevon Kearse Foundation is committed to giving young people hope and joy. His foundation generates proceeds to put back into the community, giving youth who are considered economically and socially disadvantaged, the opportunity to experience different opportunities, that they may have not in NFL history to do so. The 16th overall selection by Tennessee in 1999, Kearse recorded 47.5 sacks in five seasons with the Titans. In that span he also totaled 311 tackles, 86 hurries, 23 tackles for loss, 24 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception.

BIRDSEED:

- Kearse has become one of the NFL's most recognizable stars. He has appeared in national ad campaigns for such products as Direct TV, Pepsi, Reebok and NFL Gameday (Playstation). He made his acting debut in the Disney Channel series, "The Jersey." He has been on numerous magazine covers such as Sports Illustrated and Street& Smith's. While in Nashville was a spokesman for Baptist Hospital

- Nicknamed "The Freak" by teammates while at the University of Florida for his combination of power, quickness and intensity, Kearse is one of the fastest and most athletic defensive ends in football. He clocked a 4.43 in the 40-yard dash at the NFL Scouting Combine in 1999, tying CB Deion Sanders for the fastest first 10 yards of the 40-yard dash in Combine history

- Prior to every game, Kearse can be found saying a prayer for his younger brother, Rocky, who died before Jevon made it to the NFL. He paid homage to his younger sibling by tattooing his name inside of a cross on his left shoulder

- After two weeks of taking out the trash, peeling shrimp, bagging zucchini, cleaning dishes and serving as a prep cook, Kearse decided to quit his high school job at Red Lobster to pursue other career endeavors which he found more entertaining
- His favorite throwback jersey is his Wilt Chamberlin Los Angeles Lakers jersey. "Wilt was a one-man wrecking crew."
- Hosts his annual celebrity charity weekend in his hometown of Ft. Myers during the offseason, where he was inducted into the Boys and Girls Club Hall of Fame

Most sons look up to their fathers as role models. In Chad Lewis' case, he also looks to his dad as his source for inspiration. On July 2, 1990, three months before Chad was to leave on his LDS mission, Dr. Roger Lewis suffered a stroke because of an abscessed tooth. He was told he might never walk again. When he left the hospital two months later under his own power, though, his son felt the same pride most fathers have watching their sons succeed. Lewis may look to his father for inspiration, but he himself has a truly inspiring story. Now a three-time Pro Bowl selection, he began the journey to his NFL success as a walk-on on the BYU football squad and ended up starting 22 games and catching 111 passes in his college career. Undrafted, Lewis signed a rookie free agent contract with the Eagles in 1997 and caught 4 TDs in his rookie campaign. With two trips to the waiver wire (Philadelphia and St. Louis both released him) that followed in just over a year, Lewis stayed focused and refused to give up. He returned to Philadelphia on 11/17/99 and earned three Pro Bowl berths along with a four-year contract extension on 12/23/00.

BIRDSEED:

- For several years has taken a "Brothers Trip" along with his 4 brothers and their father, Roger. The six Lewis men go for a weekend hike through the mountains of Utah or Montana
- Was in Taichung, Taiwan from October, 1990 through October, 1992 as part of his LDS mission (said Lewis, "The only thing I knew about Taiwan was that everything is made there. Everything except me.")
- His favorite quote is: Jen Jin Bu Pa Hwo, which is chinese for, "True gold does not fear the refiners fire"
- Earned degrees in both communications and Chinese and was twice named to the Academic All-WAC squad. Also named a GTE Academic All-American in 1996
- Has been surrounded by an athletic family. His wife, Michele, was a two-time volleyball All-American at BYU, and led her team to the Final Four in 1993. She was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2003. Three of his four brothers played Division I football. Todd and Dave were linebackers at BYU and Mike was a defensive end at Utah

BACK TO YOU CHAD...

Served as the color commentator for Super Bowl XXXVIII on the China Central Television broadcast.

"I had never done commentary for a football game before," said Lewis. "Never. Not college, not high school, never in English, much less the Super Bowl in Chinese!"

After taping several promotional spots for NFL Films to air in China leading up to the big game, he was asked to do the Super Bowl broadcast when the Eagles were eliminated in the NFC Championship Game. Lewis spent the following two weeks preparing for the gig by reading the study guide books he used for his mission, listening to Chinese language tapes in his car, and talking in only Chinese. Was helped by Don Yang, a Chinese immigrant who works in the IT department of NFL Films.

"I was nervous for the first three days," admitted Lewis. "But I decided to cut it loose, have a great time, and not worry if I made a mistake. Just keep it simple."

Believed to be the only NFL player fluent in Mandarin Chinese, Chad Lewis has drawn the interest of many fans and media from that country. The following verse is an excerpt from his bio using the Chinese language:

大部份的兒子都會向自己的父親看齊。Chad Lewis也不例外，以他的父親為榜樣。1990年7月2日，在Chad即將展開末世聖徒（LDS）傳教之旅的三個月前，Roger Lewis醫生因為一顆長膿瘡的牙齒而中風，被告知也許永遠無法再走路。可是兩個月後他憑著自己的力量離開醫院，而他的兒子就像大部份看到自己兒子成功的父親一樣，也感到與有榮焉。Lewis向他的父親看齊，可是他自己的故事也足以激勵人心。他已經三次入選Pro Bowl，但是在這份全國橄欖球聯盟（NFL）的榮耀背後，他卻是以BYU橄欖球隊的臨時隊員起家，在大學生涯中擔任22場球賽的開場球員，接到111次傳球。由於未被點召，Lewis在1997年和老鷹隊簽了一紙新人的自由經紀合約，在第一季四次觸地得分。之後的一年內Lewis連續兩次被球隊放棄（費城隊和聖路易隊），可是他並不氣餒，仍舊全神貫注，勇往直前。他在1999年11月17日重返費城，贏得三次Pro Bowl席次，並在2000年12月23日獲得四年的續約。

- Said FOX Sports analyst Troy Aikman in 2003: "On this Eagles football team, the guy who epitomizes unselfishness is Chad Lewis. In 2000, he had 69 receptions. Now he doesn't have near the receptions he is accustomed to having. He has been a great mentor for L.J. Smith and has done a great job of putting his ego aside."

- When Lewis was a youngster he was very particular about how he was to be thrown the football. "I made my brothers throw me over-the-shoulder balls," said Lewis. "One after the other. That's all I wanted. I wanted to be Lynn Swann. That's who I was when we played in the back yard. I idolized him."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Snagged a 29-yd. pass on a crucial 3rd-n-9 late in the 4th qtr. at Car. (11/30/03) which led to a FG that clinched the win

- Hauled in a critical 20-yd. reception late in the 4th qtr. that set up the eventual game-winning TD by Todd Pinkston at GB (11/10/03) on MNF

- Made his third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl in 2002 with 42 receptions, 398 yards, 3 TDs

- Was a reliable target for backup QBs Koy Detmer and A.J. Feeley during the final 6 regular season games of 2002 (17-198 receiving)

- Caught 5 passes for 41 yds., highlighted by a 6-yd. TD pass from Feeley, at SF (11/25/02). Also filled in at holder when Detmer went down with a dislocated left elbow

- Returned to the Pro Bowl for the 2nd consecutive year following a 41 reception, 422 yd., 6 TD (career-high) performance in 2001. Also earned second team All-NFL honors from AP

IMPROVING FOREIGN RELATIONS

Lewis trekked around Southeast Asia for 11 days in May of 2002 promoting American football in Thailand, Singapore and Taiwan. It was not his first trip to the region; he had spent two years (1990-92) in Taichung, Taiwan serving a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. "It was so crazy. I put a helmet on and they would crack up laughing. I'd show them a football and they didn't know what the (laces) were for."

An ideal representative for the sport, Lewis is fluent in Mandarin Chinese. While visiting, he taught a football clinic in Taiwan, threw out the first pitch at a professional baseball game and gave interviews to the media. "When they found out I'd do interviews in Chinese the requests tripled," said Lewis.

"They're getting to understand football, they love the Eagles," said Lewis. "All they know is I care about them. If you show the people there you care about them, they care about you."

- In the NFC East Division-clinching win vs. NYG (12/30/01) went 5-53 receiving on the Eagles first possession, including a 5-yd. TD catch. With the Eagles trailing late in the 4th qtr., snagged a 7-yd. TD pass tying the score at 21 with 1:49 remaining. Posted season-highs in every category (7-74-2TDs)

- Went 12-145 receiving in the 2001 playoffs, including a 16-yd. TD catch vs. TB in the NFC Wild Card game (1/12/02)

- In 2000, led the team and all NFC tight ends with 69 catches for 735 yards. Those totals were the most by an Eagles TE since Keith Jackson (81-869-6TDs) in 1988. He became the first Eagles TE to exceed the 50-catch plateau since Jackson's 63 in '89

- Grabbed 3 passes in OT vs. Dal. (11/5/00) to set up a game-winning FG in a 16-13 victory
- His career-long 52-yard catch on the opening drive at Cle. (12/10/00) set up the Eagles first score and his first career 100-yard receiving day (5-100)
- Was claimed off waivers by Phi. from StL on 11/17/99. In his first game back with the Eagles vs. Ind. (11/21/99), grabbed a 6-yd. TD pass from McNabb (it was McNabb's first career TD pass)
- Played in two contests with the Eagles in 1998 before being released on 9/15. Was signed by the Rams on 12/9, but was deactivated for their final three contests
- Made the Eagles in 1997 as an undrafted, 25-year old free agent and hauled in 4 TDs on 12 recepts.
- Made his first career start in a Monday Night Football game at Dal. (9/15/97) and caught his first TD pass (a 14-yarder from Ty Detmer)
- His 8-yd. TD grab from Rodney Peete vs. Dal. (10/26/97) tied the game with 0:45 left before Chris Boniol's PAT gave the Eagles a 13-12 victory

PERSONAL:

- Chad and his wife, Michele, have two daughters, Emily (9/30/96) and Sarah (11/12/97), and two sons, Jacob (10/19/00) and Jefferson (1/2/04). The family resides in Cedars Hills, UT
- Was the keynote speaker at the Pennsylvania Special Olympics Hall of Fame Induction dinner in May of 2004. Many in attendance noted that he was by far the most moving speaker in the history of the event
- Traveled to Mexico in the 2003 offseason with his family to visit his father-in-law, Doug Fellows. Fellows, who has been a Spanish teacher for 40 years, served a mission for the LDS Church in Mexico
- For Halloween, dressed as Uncle Sam in 2002 and as a pirate in 2001 and visited the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia with his teammates
- Joined the Teen Leadership Assistants and the Youth Advisory Council of the Free Library of Philadelphia to address the theme "Stepping Out of the Shadows" at the annual Youth Empowerment Summit.
- Works with the American Indian Services to help with education and raising money for scholarships

One year earlier capped his junior season by earning UPI All-America honorable mention and All-WAC first-team honors after posting 31-456-2TD receiving. Blocked 3 FG tries and one PAT during his career.

"I want to go play against the old guys in the park with the large boards on top of buckets," said Lewis of his future plans in the world of chess.

In the spring, he brought his board skills to the Eagles Youth Partnership Chess Tournament. The tournament benefits the many programs that EYP has established to help the youth of Philadelphia.

Reno Mahe — 34

Position: Running Back
Height, Weight: 5-10, 212
Born: 6/3/80 in Los Angeles, CA
College: BYU
High School: Brighton, Salt Lake City, UT
NFL Experience: 2nd (2nd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie free agent in 2003
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A former wide receiver at BYU, Mahe (pronounced mah-hay) not only made the Eagles 53-man roster as a rookie free agent running back, but became the team's primary punt returner at season's end, after an injury to Brian Westbrook. A shifty running back with great hands out of the backfield, Mahe looks for an increased role in 2004.

BIRDSEED:

• Mahe's real first name is Sateki. The football world calls him Reno, his middle name. His family calls him Junior. Reno really doesn't care what you call him as long as it's not Ma-HEE, which translates to underwear in his native Tongan language

• Upon arrival in Philadelphia as a rookie free agent, Mahe, a receiver in college, asked Andy Reid's son, Garrett, who also attended BYU, who the other receivers on the roster were. The younger Reid replied, "You are playing running back here." A stunned Mahe replied, "Oh really. That's great. I'll clean laundry here if I can stay."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

• One of 6 undrafted rookie free agents to make the Eagles 2003 opening day roster

EXCUSE ME, YOUR TABLE'S READY

Reno Mahe might have been the busiest Eagle this past offseason. While participating in the offseason conditioning program, he also served as a host at "Chickie's and Pete's" restaurant in South Philadelphia.

"Diapers aren't free! If they are, let me know where I can get them," Mahe answers to those who question his moonlighting.

The work week didn't stop there for Mahe. He also spent his Fridays as a substitute teacher in the Spring (TX) School District.

- Caught 2 passes in 2003, both against the Packers. First, a 5 ydr. at GB (11/10/03) on Monday Night Football and the other an 8 ydr. vs. GB (1/11/03) in the NFC Divisional playoff
- Played in his 1st NFL game at Atl. (11/2/03) and returned 2 punts for 25 yds.

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Sunny, have one child, Evie (1), and reside in Spring, TX, during the offseason. Reno also has a son, Jeffrey (4), who resides in Nevada
- Sunny was an All-America volleyball player at BYU
- Attended Brighton HS in Salt Lake City, UT. A two-time all-state selection and Gatorade Utah player of the year as a senior
- Attended Utah Valley State and Dixie Junior College in between stints at BYU

His receiving yardage ranked 10th on the school's all-time list. A two-time All-Mountain West Conference selection in 2001 and 2002, he posted 59 recepts. for 771 yards and 2 TDs as a senior. Began his career as a RB at BYU in 1998 before sitting out the 1999 season. Returned to the squad in 2001 after spending the 2000 campaign at Dixie Junior College. Jermane Mayberry 71
Position: Guard/Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-4, 325
Born: 8/29/73 in Floresville, TX
College: Texas A&M-Kingsville
High School: Floresville, Floresville, TX
NFL Experience: 9th (9th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D1-96 (25th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Jermane Mayberry has quietly gone about his business as a solid performer on the Eagles offensive line over the last eight years. But quiet is not necessarily a bad thing for an offensive lineman. Said offensive coordinator Brad Childress, "You know an offensive lineman is playing well when you're not talking about him." A Pro Bowl performer in 2002, Mayberry suffered a season-ending elbow injury in 2003 after just five games played. Mayberry, who suffered from an underdeveloped optic nerve in his left eye, is an All-Pro off the field as the founder of the Eagles Eye Mobile, a vision-testing program that has touched thousands of children in the Philadelphia region.

BIRDSEED:

- Has started 84 regular season games at 4 different positions (53 at RG, 17 at LT, 10 at LG, and 4 at RT)
- Started his college career as a non-scholarship player at Texas A&M-Kingsville. To help pay for his tuition, he worked in the school library for his first year until receiving a scholarship in 1994
- Said Mayberry of Juan Castillo, who also coached him in college, "The whole time I've known him he has not changed. He was a tireless worker as a college coach, to his early years in the NFL as an assistant. He still has that same drive now."

Mayberry has a frozen treats shop called "J Berries" in his offseason home of Austin, TX. The shop serves water ice, gelatis and smoothies. Mayberry also sponsors scholarships to local high school students through the shop.

"I've learned a lot from running my own business," said Mayberry. "It's important to pay attention to every aspect of the business."

SEEING IS BELIEVING

Having suffered from amblyopia (an underdeveloped optic nerve) in his left eye throughout his life, Jermane contributed $117,500 to help start a vision-testing program sponsored by Eagles Youth Partnership, the charitable wing of the Eagles.

"The success of the Eye Mobile Program is more important than anything I've done on the field."

This program, which began operating in 1996 as a half-year program, circulates the Eagles Eye Mobile (a 36-foot, mobile vision clinic) to Philadelphia-area schools throughout the entire school year and summer. Over the past eight years, more than 10,000 low-income students have been provided with free on-site eye exams. Approximately 75% of the students received free prescription eyeglasses through the program, while many other children were referred to the program's medical partner for treatment of more serious eye ailments.

During the 2003-2004 school year, the Eagles Eye Mobile expanded to run year round with a new medical partner, St. Christopher's Hospital for Children. This expansion will allow the program to run for 165 days per year, with an expectation to examine the eyes of close to 4,000 children per year.

For his efforts, Mayberry received the NFL's Extra Effort Award for the month of Dec. 1996. In subsequent years, Mayberry's work in conjunction with the Eye Mobile has earned him special recognition from Prevent Blindness Massachusetts (1998), the Philadelphia Chapter of the NFL Alumni Association (1999), The Sporting News (1999), and The Helen Keller Achievement Award (2003) presented by the American Foundation for the Blind.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Played in 5 of the first 6 games of 2003 before being placed on the Injured Reserve list on 10/27 with an elbow injury
- Played in his 100th NFL game at NYG (10/19/03)
- A first-time Pro Bowl selection in 2002, was named a starter on the NFC squad. Was the first Eagles guard to be named to the Pro Bowl since Buck Lansford in 1957. He, LT Tra Thomas, and RT Jon Runyan were the first trio of Eagles offensive linemen to ever go to the Pro Bowl in one season
- Earned All-Pro honors by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest and All-NFC honors by Pro Football Weekly
- Started all 16 games in 2002 and helped pave the way for the league's 4th-highest scoring offense (25.9 pts/gm), the best output in team history (415)
- The 2002 offensive line allowed the team's lowest sack total (36) in a 16-game season since 1981 (22)
- In 2000 was a member of an offensive line that started all 16 regular season games (and both playoff contests) in the same combination. As such, the Eagles were just one of four clubs to have the unit stay intact throughout the season and, since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978, became the first Philadelphia team to accomplish that feat
- Signed a 4-year contract extension on 12/23/00
- Entered 1999 training camp as the starting RT, but when John Welbourn took over that spot late in the preseason, shifted to RG. However, when Welbourn went down with a season-ending knee injury on opening day, Mayberry moved back to right tackle
- Rotated with Lonnie Palelei at RT in games 7-10, 12-14 and 16 in '99, after missing 3 games (hamstring). Replaced an injured Palelei (knee) in game 10 and started game 11 at RT. Also started at RT in game 15
- In 1997, won the starting LT spot in training camp after a battle with incumbent Barrett Brooks and was the only offensive lineman to play every snap
- In 1996, was slated to be the Eagles starter at LT but a preseason bout with pneumonia caused him to be deactivated for the first five games. He saw his first game action on special teams in games 7-8
- Earned the first starting assignment of his career vs. NYJ on 12/14, replacing LT Barrett Brooks

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Danielle, live in Austin, TX, with their son, Jermane (6/29/99) during the offseason

- Was recognized by The Sporting News as one of the their Good Guys in 1999
- Starred at Floresville (TX) HS and also lettered in basketball

INJURY HISTORY:

Suffered an elbow sprain at Buf. (9/28/03). Played one series vs. Was. (10/5/03), before re-aggravating that injury, causing him to miss the game the following week. Returned to the lineup at NYG (10/19/03), but suffered an unrelated elbow sprain in that game. Was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 10/27/03 and had season-ending surgery two days later. Donovan McNabb 5
Position: Quarterback
Height, Weight: 6-2, 240
Born: 11/25/76 in Chicago, IL
College: Syracuse
High School: Mount Carmel, Chicago, IL
NFL Experience: 6th (6th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D1-99 (2nd selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A multi-dimensional threat from the quarterback position, Donovan McNabb can make plays with his arm, his feet, his strength, his toughness, and his creativity. His leadership and play-making ability has helped raise the standards of success of this franchise since 1999, when the Eagles chose him with the 2nd overall pick in the draft. Along the way, McNabb has become one of the NFL's most recognizable and elite players, and was rewarded with a lucrative, 12-year contract extension in 2002. A four-time Pro Bowler who has led the Eagles to three NFC Championship game appearances and more postseason wins (5) than any other quarterback in team history, the youthful McNabb has his eyes focused on even loftier goals.
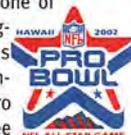

Along with his production on the field, his personality, leadership skills, sense of humor, hard-work ethic and attitude, all add up to give Philadelphia one of the most well-rounded athletes in sports. "I play this game to be the best," said McNabb. "And the only sure way I know to be the best is to outwork everybody else. Some people take one step toward their dream, accomplish a little something and then feel like that's it. Not me. I'm never satisfied."

BIRDSEED:

- For the past four years has appeared in the Campbell's Chunky Soup commercial series, the past three with his mother, Wilma. In the 2004, he became the sole NFL spokesperson for Chunky Soup and included several of his teammates in the campaign
- Was the youngest person ever elected to the Board of Trustees at Syracuse in 2002
- Dresses up as Santa Claus each year before Christmas to deliver toys and entertain kids. When asked by a child if he plays football, Santa replied, "Yeah, every now and then. We get it going up there in the North Pole." Visited The Children's Crisis Treatment Center in Philadelphia in 2003

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Is one of 18 players in NFL history to have amassed over 10,000 passing yards (13,051) and 2,000 rushing yards (2,239)
- Among active starting quarterbacks with at least 60 starts, ranks 1st in win percentage (.672)
- The Eagles are 13-1 when he posts a 100-plus QB rating

OPERATION DESERT STORM

Truly one of the hardest working players in the league, McNabb and his offseason workouts at MakePlays.com in Phoenix, Arizona, are becoming legendary. Besides honing his football skills, McNabb can be found fine-tuning all parts of his body with weight training, running, Pilates, agility drills with dog toys, as well as vision training. To help his eyes process information at a faster rate, McNabb dons a pair of "strobe specs" or "Star Trek glasses" (as McNabb calls them) and goes through simulated football situations, such as finding receivers or picking up oncoming blitzers.

"The good quarterbacks are probably like fighter pilots," said Eagles coach Andy Reid. "You always heard Ted Williams talk about this with his hitting. The fighter pilots have that extra sense of feeling what's going on around them and then they can react calmly in stressful times."

The Donovan McNabb Foundation

The Donovan McNabb Foundation raises awareness of diabetes through Donovan's position as the national spokesman for the American Diabetes Association. Through the foundation, he has also donated hundreds of thousands of dollars to Mt. Carmel HS and Syracuse. During the Eagles bye week, he and his immediate family, participated in the Diabetes Walk to raise awareness and funds.

A 3rd round draft choice out of Tennessee-Chattanooga in 1996, Owens is a tenacious worker on and off the football field. That tenacity has even been used in his fight to find a

NEAR AND DEAR TO HIS HEART

Owens holds one charity very near and dear to his heart, the Alzheimer's Association. His family is personally touched by Alzheimer's as his grandmother, Alice Black, is afflicted by the disease. In order to help find a cure, he has served as the celebrity chairperson for the Alzheimer's Association and even addressed Congress in 2003 to request more funding for Alzheimer's research.

In 2004, hosted a charity weekend in Atlanta, "Stars with a Cause," that benefitted the Atlanta Chapter of the National Alzheimer's Foundation. A COUNTRY BOY FROM A HUMBLE PAST

Although Terrell Owens has been surrounded by glitz and glamour in recent years, the Alexander City, AL, native came from very humble beginnings.

"Everybody worked at Russell Athletics," recalled Owens of his town of 15,000 people. "My mother, my father, my grandmother, my uncles. It was like all the people I knew worked there. I even worked there repairing shipping boxes on the loading dock."

T.O. also had a humble beginning in sports. He didn't start on his high school team until his senior year and had to be convinced not to quit the sport by his coach. He wouldn't have been recruited to play at Tennessee-Chattanooga if it weren't for a teammate who brought college coaches to watch their games.

"I never got to make the big plays when I was younger, and even early in my NFL career," said Owens. "I had to wait my turn. You've got to work hard and when you get a shot you have to prove yourself."

Owens also had to wait for the first 5 seasons of his pro career to become "the guy," while playing in the shadows of All-World WR Jerry Rice.

"I got to see how champions work from Jerry," said Owens. "I always wanted to win championships and I got to see the level of commitment it takes."

CATCH THIS

"This might be the most exciting thing I've done since I've been in the NFL." That's how strongly Terrell Owens feels about his upcoming autobiography, "Catch This – Going Deep With The NFL's Sharpest Weapon." The book, co-written with Stephen Singular and published by Simon & Schuster, is a personal account of T.O.'s life.

"I decided to go ahead with the book because I want to give people a better perspective on who I really am," explained Owens. "I am always listening to people and observing things. I think some people get that confused with arrogance when it's really not. When I was younger I was never the star. I had to work my butt off to get where I am. I still have that same attitude."

- Provided one of the most memorable plays in league playoff history with his dramatic 25-yd. game-winning TD reception, from Steve Young, with :03 remaining in the game, to give the 49ers a 30-27 come-from-behind win over GB (1/3/99) in the NFC Wild Card game. He labeled the catch "The Redemption Reception" after dropping 4 passes earlier in the game. Eagles head coach Andy Reid was the Packers QB coach at the time

- Recorded 140 yds. on 5 recepts. vs. NYG (11/30/98). Caught a career-long 79-yd. TD reception from Young vs. the Giants

- Had 5 recepts. for 120 yds. and 1 TD receiving and also scored on a 21-yd. reverse at StL (10/25/98) for the first rushing TD of his career

- Ranked 5th in NFC and 9th in NFL with 8 TD recepts. in 1997. That year became the first player other than Jerry Rice to lead 49ers in recepts. (60) since 1988. Produced first downs on 48 of his 60 recepts. (80%)

- Posted 6 recepts. for 100 yds. in the NFC Championship Game vs. GB (1/11/98)

- Led 49ers in 1996 with a 14.9-yd. per catch average

- Had 5 catches for 110 yds., including a 46-yd. TD vs. Car. (12/8/96), for his first career 100-yd. receiving game

- Made first career start, replacing an injured J.J. Stokes and caught 4 passes for 94 yds. vs. Cin. (10/20/96). His 45-yd. TD from Young tied the game late in 4th qtr. and was the first score of his career

- Caught his first career pass, a 7 ydr. from Young, at Car. (9/22/96)

PERSONAL:

- Single and resides in suburban Atlanta in the off-season

- A four-time letterman in football and track at Benjamin Russell (Alexander City, AL) HS. Added 3 letters in basketball and 1 in baseball

- Is the son of Marilyn Heard and Tit Russell. Has two sisters, Sharmaine Stowes (21) and Latasha Scales (29), and a brother, Victor Stowes (19). Sharmaine is currently enrolled at the University of Alabama-Birmingham, Latasha was recently married, and Victor, a basketball player, attended Georgia Perimeter College in 2003

- When you see T.O., two gentlemen are usually not far behind, "Coop" and "Pablo." He calls them his confidants and truest friends. Pablo (a.k.a. Carlos Cosby) is an imposing presence, but also adds the levelest of heads. Coop (a.k.a. Theron Cooper) is the light-hearted one in the group. Said Owens of his buddies, "Coop keeps me laughing and upbeat, while Pablo keeps things organized."

- Celebrated first NFL touchdown by doing the "bankhead bounce" for his mother

THE CHOCOLATE ROOM

Elvis had "The Jungle Room." T.O. has "The Chocolate Room." Owens has a place in his home where he can get away and relax. That room for Owens is The Chocolate Room, located in the basement of his 6 bedroom home in suburban Atlanta.

"That's where I escape," said Owens. "Everything is chocolate-colored and over-sized. Not many people go in that room."

Owens is not kidding about limiting access to the room. You need to know the combination to get trough the door. Once inside it's extremely plush, from the sofas to the carpeting. With a stereo system and a plasma screen TV, he's got all the ingredients to chill out.

"The way I've set it up I never have to go out," said Owens. "We can have a good time right in my house."

Along with the Chocolate Room, Owens home includes a fully loaded pool hall and an indoor basketball gymnasium. With pool tables, pin ball games, an air hockey table and an assortment of video games, it's safe to say there's a competitive nature in his home.

"It gets pretty competitive in my house," he said. "Whether we're playing basketball, dominoes or shooting pool, by the end of the night the loser's going to be doing pushups."

- Won the 100-meter race at Superstars competition two consecutive years (2000-01)
- Majored in merchandising
- Full name: Terrell Eldorado Owens

Played 3 years on the UTC basketball team and made 5 starts for a team that qualified for the NCAA tournament in 1995. Ran the anchor leg on the 4 x 100 relay team as senior.

Suffered a turf toe injury at NO (11/5/00) and did not start the following week vs. KC (11/12) and was inactive a week later. Left the game at StL (11/21/99) with a high ankle sprain and was inactive the next 2 weeks.

HE'S GOT GAME

Owens' love for the game of basketball is very serious. So serious that he built a full-size basketball gymnasium in his home and uses it as part of his off-season conditioning.

In college, Owens played 3 seasons on the Tennessee-Chattanooga basketball team and made 5 starts for a team that qualified for the NCAA tournament in 1995. In 2002, he played in 5 games for the Adirondack Wildcats of United States Basketball League. In 2000, he won the celebrity slam dunk competition at the NBA All-Star game in Oakland. He also suits up on occasion for the Eagles offseason basketball team.

A reliable receiver with speed and toughness, the wiry Pinkston is a big-play target in the Eagles offense. Over the final six regular season games of 2003, Pinkston averaged an eye-popping 27.6 yards per grab. PINK'S PRIORITY

"Giving kids another opportunity to go the extra mile to enhance their lives." That's the mission statement behind "Todd Pinkston's Enhancement Program," based at Slaughter Memorial Library in his hometown of Forest, MS. This after-school program for children in grades 6-12 gives them an opportunity to meet with tutors, who guide them through anything from homework problems or general life issues and questions. Pinkston keeps track of the children's progress by reviewing their progress reports and report cards throughout the year, even when he is in Philadelphia. On average, the students have increased one letter grade since joing the program.

IKE'S SIDE GIG

One of the most media-savvy players in the Eagles locker room, Reese has set his eyes on a post-football career in the media and he is well on his way.

"TV is more than just a face in front of the camera," said Reese. "There's a lot of work that goes into the production," said Reese.

- Fall 2003 - hosted "Inside the Eagles," a one-hour show produced by Eagles Television Network that aired locally on UPN-57

While he has done production and analyst work, he looks forward to having the opportunity to anchor a news desk.

Exemplifying his strong relationship with the media, Reese was presented the 2002 Jack Edelstein Memorial Award, which is selected by the Philadelphia media and given annually to the Eagles player with an uplifting manner, a love for life, and an exceptional sense of humor who makes all with whom he comes in contact with, feel good.

Jon Ritchie

Position: Fullback
Height, Weight: 6-2, 250
Born: 9/4/74 in Mechanicsburg, PA
College: Stanford
High School: Cumberland Valley, Mechanicsburg, PA
NFL Experience: 7th (2nd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (Oak) 2003
Originally joined NFL: 03-98 by Raiders (63rd selection overall)

A gritty, hard-nosed fullback, Jon Ritchie added an element of toughness to the Eagles backfield after inking a two-year contract in 2003. "I love the way that guy plays the game," said FOX Sports analyst Bill Maas. "He's a throwback kind of guy. His specialty is just putting his head on somebody and getting into the body and blowing it up." Ritchie, a native of nearby Mechanicsburg, PA, which lies 90 miles west of Philadelphia, was a 3rd round draft choice of the Raiders in 1998. He spent his first 5 seasons in the Bay Area, playing in one of the most prolific offenses in the NFL. The personable Ritchie also has many talents and interests off the field, including a love for music and writing.

BIRDSEED:

- A man of many talents, Ritchie is now the lead singer and guitarist for the alternative rock band, "Jon Ritchie's Fault," who cut their first demo in May of 2004. Ritchie is accompanied by drummer, Myxilplyk, and bassist, Dr. Crack. His band hopes to take next step towards landing a record contract

- Ritchie is very proud of his Scottish heritage. His ancestor's last name was originally MacRitchie, and his family was part of the MacKintosh clan, whose motto was "Touch not the cat without a glove." Ritchie wore a kilt made of his clan's tartan (the plaid material distinctive to each clan) to the rehearsal dinner the night before his wedding. Interestingly, Ritchie's grandfather, Joseph Wallace Ritchie, was given that middle name in honor of Sir William Wallace, one of Scotland's greatest national heroes

- Every spring Jon and his father, Jon, embark on their annual Canadian fishing trip to Plevna, Ontario. Since 1980, the Ritchie men make the 10-hour drive into Canada to fish for northern pike and the occasional walleye bass. In the "Land O' Lakes" region of Ontario, they rent wooden fishing boats rigged with outboard motors and head out onto a number of different lakes. At night they reside in cabins at Tooley Lodge. "We never went to Disney World growing up," said Ritchie. "What we do instead is great. I still look forward to the trip every year."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Named to Phil Simms' All Iron Man Team in 2003 and 2001
- Rushed once for 1 yd. vs. SF (12/21/03). It was his first rushing attempt since 12/5/99 and the 1st by an Eagles FB since Cecil Martin (9/8/02)
- Registered a career-high 3rd receiving TD of the season on a 2-yd. pass from McNabb vs. NO (11/23/03)
- Scored the go-ahead TD late in the 4th qtr. on a 4-yd. pass from McNabb vs. NYJ (10/26/03)
- Recorded his first TD as an Eagle on a 4-yd. reception from McNabb vs. Was. (10/5/03)
- In his five-year Raiders career (1998-2002), played in 75 games (48 starts) and hauled in 129 passes for 1,026 yards and 4 TDs
- Scored on a 7-yd. pass from Rich Gannon vs. SD (10/20/02)

MacRITCHIE'S PUB

When Jon and his wife, Marielle, were looking for a home in suburban Philadelphia, Jon had his own ideas for making his home unique. Now, as visitors to the Ritchie homestead descend the stairs into the basement, they are transported into an old-world Pub complete with a stage for his band to perform from.

"It's a fun place to go," said Ritchie. "We never have to go out to have a good time. We just have to go downstairs."

One of the most ingenious features of the pub, are the windows that Marielle designed. Although the room is completely underground, they installed windows to give the room an "above-ground" feel. The windows contain stained glass fabricated by Marielle and are lit from behind to give a "night-time" effect. Keeping with Jon's Scottish heritage, she incorporated the lion from the Royal Flag of Scotland into the design of the windows.

HEAD CASE

Made famous by the calcium deposits on his fore-head that left blood gushing down his face on gameday, Ritchie's weekly blood donations came to a halt in 2003. Prior to the season he was sent to the Riddell plant in Chicago by Eagles head equipment manager, John Hatfield, to have a new helmet custom made.

The changes in the padding included the molding of the front section in the helmet to tightly fit the shape and slant of his forehead. The padding on the sides of the helmet have also been custom fit to the width of his head to reduce any movement.

When Ritchie's playing days are over he intends on having the "horns" that have made him famous, shaved down.

"I could get them shaved down now, but why? As long as I keep playing they'll just grow back."

- Scored first touchdown of NFL career on Monday Night Football at Den. (11/22/99), a 20-yd. pass from Gannon
- Pulled in a career-high 8 passes for 50 yards at KC (1/2/00)
- Caught 2 passes for a career-high 51 yds. at KC (9/6/98)

PERSONAL:

- On May 2, 2003, married the former Marielle Schlueter in Harrisburg, PA. The couple have since moved to Broomall. Ritchie feels that he and Marielle (pronounced MAR-ee-ell) are "the perfect compliment to one another." I am no good with any kind of math and anything that has to do with my hands. I rely on her to put stuff together." Marielle is a tremendous athlete in her own right as she qualified for the NCAA Championships while starring on the Cal-Berkeley track team. She left the school as its record-holder in the 3000m steeple-chase with a time of 10:22:38.
- Marielle qualified for the 2004 Boston Marathon on 11/23/03 by running the Philadelphia Marathon in under 3 hours and 40 minutes. She elected not to run in Boston
- Was a consensus All-America selection at Cumberland Valley (PA) HS. Led his team to a state championship as a senior in 1992 and then played for the Pennsylvania squad in the "Big 33" All-Star Classic the following summer. In his career, gained 5,017 all-purpose yds., including 4,062 yards rushing and 69 TDs

- A member of the National Honor Society. Lettered in track and field as a sprinter and shot putter
- Wrote a column for The Sporting News entitled "I-Formation," which offered his own unique insights into football
- An avid traveler, went to Spain in 1992 as part of the Spanish Honor Society. Plans on visiting France where his wife has family
- Hosted a segment on the Bay Area Sports Report called "Mental Blocks"
- Plays the saxophone and guitar, and enjoys writing lyrics. Performed for the Raiders Rally in Jack London Square in Oakland
- Full name: Jon David Ritchie

COLLEGE:

Spent two seasons at Stanford after transferring from Michigan. Began at Stanford as an inside linebacker but was moved to his natural position, fullback. As a senior, carried the ball 17 times for 95 yards while also hauling in 9 passes for 80 yards and 2 TDs. Named to the PAC 10 all-academic team in 1997 and the Big 10 all-academic team in 1994. In two seasons as a Wolverine, tallied 120 rushing yards and 2 TDs on 33 carries and caught two passes for 13 yards.

MIDNIGHT GREEN DAY

Jon Ritchie's love for music far exceeds that of most NFL players. He is a fan of its history as well as its diversity having been influenced by an eclectic combination of Jimi Hendrix, Metallica, Bruce Springsteen, Johnny Cash and the Oakland-based band Green Day.

It was while with the Raiders that Ritchie began to form a close relationship with one of the best bands ever to come out of the Bay Area. Green Day, comprised of lead singer and guitarist Billy Joe, bassist Mike Dirnt and drummer Tré Cool, have helped Ritchie to further his pursuit of a post-football career in music even going so far as to let him record a song he wrote in their studio.

"Getting a chance to record in a studio with these guys was a thrill of a lifetime," recalled Ritchie. "I'm a fan of their music and they're fans of football. We hit it off right away."

Jon Runyan 69

Position: Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-7, 330
Born: 11/27/73 in Flint, MI
College: Michigan
High School: Carman-Ainsworth, Flint, MI
NFL Experience: 9th (5th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (Ten) 2000
Originally joined NFL: 04b-96 by Houston (109th selection overall)

Armed with a feisty, on-the-field mentality, Jon Runyan takes pride in being a physical force each and every time he exits the locker room. At 6-7, 330, his relentless, physical play has trickled down to each of his linemates. "What Jon has brought to the offensive line is that temperament of his," said Andy Reid. "He is going to maul you and beat you up and feel pretty good about doing it. That's been contagious all the way across the line." Runyan, who suited up for the NFC's Pro Bowl squad in 2002, signed a six-year contract on 2/14/00 and teams with LT Tra Thomas (6-7, 349) to form one of the largest tackle tandems in league history. The 8th-year pro enters the 2004 season having started 112 straight contests.

BIRDSEED:

- Has started 13 postseason games since 1999, more than any other current NFL player. Sam Adams (10) is 2nd on that list

LAWN DOCTOR

If you ever get a chance to stop by the Runyan household in Mt. Laurel, NJ, chances are you'll find Jon working hard out in the yard. As his wife, Loretta, has made the inside of their beautiful home her personal project, Jon has made the grounds his baby.

"I'm a very simple man," said Runyan. "Yard work calms me down and relaxes me. It gives me something I can take pride in. Sometimes I get bored and all I have to do is walk out the door and there's something to do."

He gets all 6-foot-7, 330-pounds of himself atop his Kubota lawn tractor and handles business. Whether its chopping down trees, cutting firewood, or ripping out dams built by neighborhood beavers that have caused his lawn to flood, he'll do it. He's even looking into raising some cattle on his land and is shopping around for a good deal on fencing. He still knows his limits.

"I stay out of the flower beds," he laughed. "I don't mess with that stuff. I trust my wife when it comes to that."

- The extremely handy Runyan participated in a Home Depot demonstration on hanging wallpaper. He is also very mechanical. He once took his own car apart to have his transmission rebuilt. When he finished there were "only four bolts left over"

- Was a member of an offensive line that started all 16 regular season games (and both playoff contests) in the same combination in 2000. - At Dal. (9/3/00), helped the Eagles to their first 300-yard rushing day since 11/4/90 (304 vs. NE) and Staley to only the second 200-yard output in team history (Steve Van Buren rushed for 205 yards vs. Pittsburgh on 11/27/49)

- Was a first-year starter on an O-line in 1997, that helped RB Eddie George to eight 100-plus-yard performances, including a 216-yard outing vs. Oak. (8/31), that tied a club record

A NEW ARENA FOR JON

Runyan had been interested in getting involved in arena football for some time and after a suggestion from his Southern California-based financial adviser, Eby Dobson, he purchased a minority interest in the AFL2's San Diego Riptide.

"Arena Football is an exciting game with a bright future," said Runyan. "I think the Riptide have a chance to play a major role in the growth of the sport. It's something I have an interest in and I have a knowledge of, so it makes it a little fun, too."

"We wanted to get him in some games," said General Manager Gil Saidy of his new owner, "but he wasn't too interested in the $200 per game salary."

While he's not about to tell head coach Moose Davis which plays to call, he's glad to make himself available to the Riptide players.

"They're interested in, especially some of the big guys, my opinions on techniques and that kind of stuff," Runyan said.

Lito Sheppard 26

Position: Cornerback
Height, Weight: 5-10, 194
Born: 4/8/81 in Jacksonville, FL
College: Florida
High School: Raines, Jacksonville, FL
NFL Experience: 3rd (3rd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: 01-02 (26th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Entering his third NFL season, the speedy and fearless Sheppard is now entrenched as a full-time starter at cornerback. The first cornerback taken by the Eagles in the first round since 1980, he has already seen valuable game action during his first two NFL campaigns. In 2003, he started 9 games due to injuries to starters Troy Vincent and Bobby Taylor and led the team with 15 knockdowns and added 55 tackles, a forced fumble and his first career interception. For Sheppard, the opportunity was priceless. "[Sheldon Brown and I] got a chance to play against some of the best receivers and best quarterbacks in the game," Sheppard said. "Experience like that is invaluable. You don't really get a chance to cut loose in practice and show what you can do. You can only do that in the games ... This game is all about confidence, and now we have it. And I don't know if I could have said the same thing at this time last year."

BIRDSEED:

- A reality-TV junky, who's favorite shows include: "American Chopper," "Fear Factor," and Junkyard Wars, he claims, "TV has taught me a lot. I have learned a lot from the Discovery Channel. I don't know how much of it is useful, but now when I get to talking about cars I can hold my own."
- Sheppard enjoys a challenge on and off the field. While battling with receivers by day, at home he prefers to go one-on-one with the contestants of "Jeopardy." Said Sheppard, "I love Jeopardy. I try and watch it whenever I can. I enjoy trying to answer along with the contestants."

As lightning fast as he is on the field, Sheppard has a need for speed off the field. A self-proclaimed "thrill-seeker," he loves fast cars and more passionately fast motorcycles. "I'm going to take it easy with the bikes now," said Sheppard. "I'll wait until my playing days are over. I like the adrenaline rush and someday I'd like to try organized racing."

Corey Simon 90

Position: Defensive Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-2, 293
Born: 3/2/77 in Pompano Beach, FL
College: Florida State
High School: Ely, Pompano Beach, FL
NFL Experience: 5th (5th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D1-00 (6th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

The sixth overall pick in 2000, Corey Simon recorded a sack on his first play from scrimmage and has not looked back. After a 2000 season in which he shattered the club rookie record with 9.5 sacks, Simon has since received a great deal of attention in the form of double teams from opposing offensive lines. In 2003, Simon led the team and ranked second in the league among defensive tackles with 7.5 sacks and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. With 26.5 career sacks, he ranks 4th on the club's all-time list among defensive tackles.

BIRDSEED:

• Before he ever made a living hunting quarterbacks, Simon had his dream set on offense. "I wanted to be Tony Dorsett," said Simon. "I didn't even like the Cowboys, but I thought I was a running back. I was living a fantasy. The first day of JV practice, my coach said, 'OK, let me teach you a three-point stance. He put me in the dirt and I've been there ever since."

• He and his wife vacationed in South Africa in the Spring of 2004 with teammate Paul Grasmanis and his wife, Kerry

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

• With 26.5 career sacks, he is just the 4th Eagles DT to reach the 25-sack plateau in their career. The others are: Andy Harmon (40.0), Ken Clarke (31.0) and Jerome Brown (29.5)

• Was named to the NFC's Pro Bowl squad in 2003 with a team-high 7.5 sacks, the 2nd highest total among all NFL DT's. Also tied career highs in hurries (25) and forced fumbles (2) and posted the 2nd-highest tackle total (64) of his career

• Teamed with Darwin Walker in 2003 to register 13.5 sacks, a total that ranked the tandem atop the NFL

• Was ranked No. 94 in The Sporting News 2003 edition of the "NFL's 100 Best" feature

• Dropped QB Tim Hasselbeck at Was. (12/27/03) and forced a fumble that was recovered by N.D. Kalu

• Sacked QB Jeff Garcia and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Carlos Emmons vs. SF (12/21/03)

• Tied a career high with 7 solo tackles at NYG (10/19/03) including a sack (QB Kerry Collins), and recovered a fumble caused by LB Mark Simoneau at the Eagles own 10 yard line keeping the Eagles within 3 pts. late in the game

• Posted career-highs in hurries (25) and batted passes (5) in 2002, despite missing two games with an ankle sprain

• Collected 5 tackles and added a sack of Michael Vick in the NFC Divisional playoff win vs. Atl (1/11/03). He was inspired by the birth of his first child, Corey Jr., at 5:00 am the morning of the game

SPREADING THE GOOD WORD

When Simon was drafted by Philadelphia in 2000, he and some of his teammates organized a Bible study group that met weekly at his home. Now the group has grown so large (60-70 members) that they started a church, the Morning Star Church of Greater Philadelphia. The congregation now meets at a hotel in Mt. Laurel, NJ, but plans to move into their own building.

Always a believer, his devotion became more focused during his latter college years. "I sensed my life had a greater purpose," said Simon. "There is a great deal of attention paid to us as athletes. I realized that I could use the field as a pulpit."

Philadelphia Eagles

- With 7.5 sacks in 2001, ranked tied for 3rd among all NFL DTs behind John Randle (11) and La'Roi Glover (8) on his way to earning All-NFL honors from Football Digest
- Made 7 tackles, including 4 for a loss, and 3 hurries vs. Dal. (9/30/01)
- Recorded 2 sacks in consecutive games vs. Was. (11/25/01) and at KC (11/29/01), and halted a Chiefs drive by chasing down speedy RB Priest Holmes 16 yards downfield and forcing a fumble. Tied a career-high with 9 tackles in game vs. Was.
- Made 5 solo tackles vs. TB in the NFC Wild Card game (1/12/02) and helped to limit their rushing game to just 63 yards
- Set a team rookie record and recorded the 5th-highest sack total for an Eagles DT with 9.5 sacks in 2000, surpassing Mike Mamula's 5.5 in 1995. Trailed only Saints DE Darren Howard (11) in sacks among NFL rookies and tied for 5th among all NFL DT's. Among Eagles DTs, only Andy Harmon (11.0 and 11.5), Jerome Brown (10.5) and Ken Clarke (10.5) finished with more sacks in one season
- Among his rookie honors were selections to the Howie Long Tough Guy Team (FOX Sports), All-NFL Rookie Team (Pro Football Weekly and Football News), and Top 16 Rookies (Football Digest)
- On his very first play from scrimmage as a pro, he sacked Cowboys QB Troy Aikman at Dal. (9/3/00)
- Although he ranked 2nd on the team with 9.5 sacks in 2000 (behind Hugh Douglas' 15), he would have been the sack leader for 17 of the other 30 teams
- Earned NFL defensive rookie of the month honors in November, 2000, tallying 26 tackles and 2.5 sacks
- Collected a career-high 9 tackles during OT win at Pit. (11/12/00)
- Was the first defensive tackle and second defensive lineman taken in the 2000 draft (Cleveland selected DE Courtney Brown #1 overall)

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Natasha, reside in Tallahassee, FL, with their son Corey Jr. (1/11/03). Was married in Disney World on 3/3/01; fellow Eagles DT Paul Grasmanis, as well as former Florida St. teammates Peter Boulware and Andre Wadsworth were in the wedding party

SIMON SAYS ... SUCCESS

Away from the football field, one of Simon's top priorities is the forming of the Corey Simon Success Center in Tallahassee, FL. The center, which is being renovated from an abandoned warehouse, will host under-privileged children from that city and offer after-school and summer programs to help them enhance their education and lives in general.

"I'm building this for kids who are struggling so they can understand that there's a way out," says Simon, who hopes to officially open the 40,000 square foot center in the Fall of 2006. "Just being able to let them know and teach them how to get out of their rut and let them understand that their calling is bigger than the front yard of their neighborhood. And giving them the tools necessary to go out there and succeed in life. This was something that was given to me, so it was only fitting for me to do everything in my power to make it happen for them.

Simon has spent a great amount of time in the offseason with architects and engineers, working on the re-zoning details and making sure the building is structurally sound. Until the center is completed, the Tallahassee Museum of History & Natural Science serves as the students' meeting place. Simon's dream is closing in on reality.

"This is something God put in my heart a while ago. My wife and I definitely have a heart for kids and we want to see this next generation succeed."

Big Tra Thomas has made a nice living out of being Donovan McNabb's blindside bodyguard. One of the most accomplished left tackles in his profession as well as in Eagles history, Thomas is a two-time Pro Bowl selection. A mainstay at the left tackle spot since being selected in the first round in 1998, Thomas' goals are much loftier, "I want to be the league MVP as an offensive lineman. I want to get nine or 10 Pro Bowls under my belt. When people talk about the greatest linemen of all time, they talk about Anthony Munoz and Art Shell and Bob Brown. I want my name in there, too."

BIRDSEED:

- Invested in 10 rental properties in Florida (4) and Philadelphia (6). His interest in the music industry influenced him to build a recording studio in the basement of his home in Florida

- When Thomas was young he was too big for Pop Warner football, but that didn't stop him from establishing his athletic prowess. "He got his first trophy when he was 4 for swimming," recalled Ethyl Thomas, Tra's mother

- Organized an annual scholarship fund at his alma mater, Deland (FL) HS, which benefits deserving, minority students. There are five, $5,000 scholarships given annually. He also participates in a book club and toy drive at Deland

- Participated in the development of an exhibit at the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia called "Sports Challenge." A plaster mold of his head was made and a life-size statue was erected of Thomas pouring a Gatorade bucket in a post game celebration

- Said Thomas when asked how he would describe the Eagles offensive line, "We're a dirty group. I don't think people like us too much. We're a dirty, physical group. I think people know that when they come to play us, it's not going to be much fun."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Was part of an offensive line that protected QB Donovan McNabb on his way to his 4th-straight Pro Bowl appearance in 2003. Also helped pave the way for the "Three Headed Monster" RB attack that posted a combined 1,618 rushing yds. and 2,465 total yds. from scrimmage

- A two-time Pro Bowl selection (2002 and 2003), was a first-time starter on the '03 NFC squad. He, RT Jon Runyan, and RG Jermane Mayberry were the first trio of Eagles offensive linemen to ever go to the Pro Bowl in one season

- Also an All-Pro selection in 2002 by AP, The Sporting News, USA Today Sports Weekly. Was also named All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly

- Started all 16 games in 2002 and helped pave the way for the league's 4th-highest scoring offense (25.9 pts./game), the best output in team history (415)

- Helped Duce Staley notch his 3rd career 1,000-yd rushing season in 2002

- The 2002 offensive line allowed the team's lowest sack total (36) in a 16-game season since 1981 (22)

- Made his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2001 season. Was originally selected as the first alternate behind the Rams Orlando Pace (starter), the Redskins Chris Samuels (starter) and the Bears James Williams (reserve). When Pace withdrew from the game due to injury, Thomas filled in just days before the game

- Missed the first game of his career, at TB (1/6/02) as many starters were rested
- Helped RB Correll Buckhalter to a team rookie rushing record 134 yds. vs. Arz. (10/7/01). Buckhalter, (129-586) also broke the Eagles single-season rookie rushing record set by Keith Byars (177-577) in 1986
- In 2000, was selected as the first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad behind Pace, William Roaf, and Korey Stringer
- Was a member of an offensive line that started all 16 regular season games (and both playoff contests) in the same combination in 2000. As such, the Eagles were just one of four clubs to have the unit stay intact throughout the season and, since the NFL went to a 16 game schedule in 1978, became the first Philadelphia team to accomplish that feat
- Helped open up holes during one of the greatest rushing performances in club history as Staley gained 201 yds. in the season opening win at Dal. (9/3/00) and the Eagles, as a team, ran for over 300 yds.
- Helped pave the way for Staley's consecutive 1,000-yd. rushing campaigns in 1998-99
- Earned NFL All-Rookie team honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly in 1998
- In the 4th game of his rookie season vs. KC (9/27/98), held Chiefs all-pro LB Derrick Thomas without a sack or tackle

PERSONAL:

- Tra and his wife, Rosa Chanea, have two sons
- His father, William "Crane" Thomas, was an offensive tackle at Florida A&M and attended Atlanta's training camp in 1974

- His 550-lb. bench press was a FSU record
- Majored in criminology
- Was a two-way tackle at Deland (FL) HS
- Enjoys fishing, reading, and eating peanut butter and jelly sandwiches
- Full name: William Thomas III

COLLEGE:

Polished his pass blocking skills during Florida State practices against top-flight defenders such as Andre Wadsworth, Peter Boulware, Reinard Wilson, and Greg Spiers (Boulware and Wilson were NFL 1st round picks in 1997 by Baltimore and Cincinnati, respectively; Wadsworth was the third selection overall in 1998 by Arizona; and Spiers was taken in the 3rd round by New England in 1998). Played the "tight" tackle position, switching from left to right tackle in order to match up against opponents' top pass rushers. As a senior, earned 2nd team All-America honors, 1st team All-Atlantic Coast Conference recognition, and the Jacob's Trophy given to the ACC's top offensive lineman. Helped the Seminoles' offense lead the ACC and rank 8th in the nation with 452.1 total yards per game. Switched to offense after originally being recruited as a defender.

INJURY HISTORY:

Was inactive at Mia. (12/15/03) due to back spasms.

THOMAS' CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: (Eagles 1998-2003); 1998 (16/16), 1999 (16/15), 2000 (16/16), 2001 (15/15), 2002 (16/16), 2003 (15/15), TOTALS: (94/93).

- Gained strength as a youth by mixing mortar for his father, James, a brick mason by trade. "It taught me how to develop a good work ethic," said Walker, who was 8-years old when he began his summer job. "I'm glad he made me do it. And he paid me too! He also gave me his car after the work day was done. That was a big deal for me." Walker's post-sack celebration simulates raking mortar

- Keeps a set of over-sized "Hulk Hands" in his locker. When he hits something with the gloves they sound like he is breaking through a wall. "They were given to me by a fan. I'm as powerful as the Hulk, so why not? (laughing)"

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Ranked 2nd on the team and tied for 4th among all NFL DTs in sacks (6) in 2003. Also recorded career highs in tackles (65) and hurries (19)
- Teamed with Corey Simon in 2003 to register 13.5 sacks, a total that ranked the tandem atop the NFL
- Named to the 2003 NFC All-Pro team by CBS Sportsline.com writer Pete Prisco
- Recorded a career-high 14 tackles vs. Dal. (12/7/03) including a sack (QB Quincy Carter). It was the most tackles by an Eagles defensive linemen since Brandon Whiting notched 14 vs. Dal. in 2000
- Recovered a fumble by Panthers QB Jake Delhomme that was caused by Nate Wayne at Car. (11/30/03)

Darwin Walker 97

Position: Defensive Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-3, 294
Born: 6/15/77 in Walterboro, SC
College: Tennessee
High School: Walterboro, Walterboro, SC
NFL Experience: 5th (5th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: Waivers [Arz] 2000
Originally joined NFL: 03-00 by Arizona (71st selection overall)

"Engineered to sack." That's the slogan that adorns his personal website. It's what motivates the two-year starter at defensive tackle, who earned his degree in civil engineering and owns his own successful structural engineering firm. With 14.5 sacks since 2002, Walker has played an integral role in the middle of the Eagles defensive line. Not bad for a player that was claimed off waivers from Arizona on 9/12/00. After receiving a steady dose of intense tutoring and coaching by renowned defensive line coach Tommy Brasher, Walker was thrown into the fire in 2002 and flourished. He was rewarded with a 7-year contract extension on 10/22/02 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2008.

BIRDSEED:

- With his structural engineering firm, has developed a passion for negotiating business deals, "There's nothing like that rush from closing a deal. It's almost as good as sacking the quarterback."

ENGINEERED TO SACK

Growing up in a family-owned construction company in South Carolina, Walker went on to earn his degree in civil engineering from Tennessee and later passed the stringent Fundamentals of Engineering examination.

Now, Walker is co-founder of Progressive Engineering, a civil and structural engineering firm in Knoxville, TN. "Engineering is what I love to do most, outside of football," said Walker. "I love being involved in hands-on stuff."

He and his partner, Paul Tucker, have accounted for over $250 million worth of projects and are planning on establishing an office in Philadelphia.

When asked about similarities between his two occupations, Walker pointed to one aspect - teamwork. "One engineer doesn't do the whole project," said Walker. "It's a collaboration of minds. Teamwork is so vital to our success. Same with football."

- In 2002, ranked 3rd on the team in sacks (7.5) and 2nd among all defensive linemen in tackles (49), both career highs. His 7.5 sacks tied for 1st among all NFC DT's with TB's Warren Sapp and tied for 2nd in the NFL behind Oak.'s Roderick Coleman (11)
- Was named "Best Player You Probably Don't Know Much About" in 2002 by cnnsi.com's Don Banks
- Dropped Michael Vick for an 11-yd sack vs. Atl. (1/11/03) in NFC Divisional playoff game
- Registered at least a half of a sack in six straight games early in 2002 (weeks 2-7) for a total of 6.5. Also forced 2 fumbles and recovered another during that span
- Sacked Quincy Carter, posted 8 tackles and recovered a fumble vs. Dal. (9/22/02)
- Claimed off waivers by the Eagles on 9/12/00 and was inactive for 13 games and both postseason contests

POLICING THE FIELD

After earning a degree in criminal justice from Ole Miss, Wayne planned for his future regardless of whether it included football. In February of 1998 following his senior season and prior to the draft, he took the physical training test for the Oxford (MS) Police Department.

Drafted by the Broncos in the 7th round he still continued his pursuit of a career in law enforcement by working as an Oxford police officer for the next three months before reporting to camp. Had he not made the team he would have returned to Oxford and attended the police academy in September. After spending a short time on patrol with a supervisor, Wayne went on patrol by himself and actually had to make one arrest. The arrest came when a local college student was taken into custody for public drunkenness.

"I always wanted to be in law enforcement," said Wayne. "Growing up I thought I would work for the DEA (Drug Enforcement Administration) or the ATF (Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms) someday. I'd love the rush of it."

"A BOTTLE OF RED ..."

A self-proclaimed connoisseur of wine, Wayne is slowly building a nice collection of his own. A large portion of his collection consists of bottles of red wine, in particular merlot. His current red of choice is a California vintage called Opus One.

The Opus One winery is located in Oakville, CA, right in the heart of the Napa Valley. A bottle of Opus One retails for roughly $150.

- Allocated to Barcelona of NFL Europe in 1999. Was limited to just three starts due to a hamstring injury
- Saw action in one regular season game as a rookie during Denver's Super Bowl XXXIII championship season

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Tamiko, have a newborn son, Nalen, and two daughters, Nata (9/12/94) and Tamia (6/30/99)
- Nicknamed "Bump" by Shannon Sharpe. For more information on Wayne log on to Bump54.com
- Was an honorable mention all-state and all-district selection at strong safety at Noxubee County HS in Macon, MS

- Has done work with Big Brothers and Big Sisters. Hosted a bowling tournament in Green Bay to benefit Cerebral Palsy. While in Green Bay also participated in "Coats for Kids," a clothing drive to benefit underprivileged children
- Lists Target as one of his favorite stores. "Most people look at me funny when they see me at Target, but I'm just like them. I can get everything I need there."
- Enjoys playing golf
- Holds a degree in criminal justice
- Credits his high school coach, James T. Thomas, as, "the reason why I'm here." Wayne wasn't going to play football, he didn't really enjoy it. He wanted to play basketball. Coach Thomas talked him into it with lots of encouragement
- Full name: Nathaniel Wayne Jr.

College: Villanova
High School: DeMatha, Hyattsville, MD
NFL Experience: 3rd (3rd as an Eagle)

"He never did learn how to walk," said his mother, Zelda. "He ran to do everything." And he has not stopped. An explosive weapon as a running back, receiver, and kick returner, Brian Westbrook had one of the most electrifying seasons in team history in 2003. He amassed 13 total touchdowns (4th-most in team history), including two 80-plus-yard punt returns for scores (a team record), led the team in rushing (613 yards) and finished 2nd in receptions (37). "I think Brian Westbrook reminds me of a young Marshall Faulk," said FOX Sports and HBO Sports Cris Collinsworth. "I know that is a major statement, but this kid can play. He makes great catches coming out of the backfield and gives them speed around the corner." A third round draft choice in 2002, Westbrook was one of the most decorated players in NCAA Division I-AA history at nearby Villanova. Said head coach Andy Reid, "For the first ten yards, there are not a lot of people in this league that are as explosive as him."

BIRDSEED:

- Received several write-in votes in the 2003 Philadelphia Mayoral election. Also received write-in votes for Supreme Court Justice, Superior Court Judge, Traffic Court Judge, and registrar of wills. Said Westbrook of the news, "That's great! Maybe one day I'll decide to switch careers, but for now, I'm happy as an Eagle."
- Posed with his mother, Zelda, for a Mother's Day photo shoot for Philadlephia Magazine. Said Westbrook after seeing the picture with his mother, "That was a great experience to be in the Philadelphia magazine for Mother's Day. It was a great opportunity for people to see what a great influence she has been in my life."
- In 2003, organized "The Westbrook Bowl," a celebrity bowling tournament that benefits the Variety Club of Philadelphia
- Nicknamed "Seabiscuit" by defensive coordinator Jim Johnson following his last-minute, game-winning gallop down the sidelines to beat the Giants with an 84-yd. punt return for a TD
- A fan of mafia movies, his Rottweiler, Capone, is named after the famous Chicago mobster

- Named to Howie Long's 2003 Tough Guy Team

- Was part of the Eagles "Three-Headed Monster" RB attack in 2003 that accounted for 1,618 rushing yards, 2,157 total yards from scrimmage and 29 total TDs. The Eagles were the first team to have 3 RBs with 7-plus TDs (Westbrook 13, Buckhalter 9, Staley 7) since the StL Cardinals in 1979 (Ottis Anderson, 10; Wayne Morris, 9; and Theotis Brown, 7). 2003 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 2003
TAMPA BAY 17, PHILADELPHIA 0
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,772

The Eagles opened the 2003 season, the first ever at Lincoln Financial Field, with a 17-0 loss to the defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Despite a raucous crowd on a beautiful Monday night, the Eagles could not overcome mistakes in the face of the team who eliminated them from the playoffs one year earlier. The Bucs defense flexed their muscles and their blazing speed throughout the night to limit the Eagles to just 245 yards and 22 minutes of possession time. It was Philadelphia who had the first major scoring opportunity of the contest as they marched to the TB 1-yard line early in the first stanza. But the Bucs froze the Eagles with three straight stops and forced the kicking team to come out for a field goal. Holder Koy Detmer took the snap and faked the field goal attempt, lofting a pass to rookie TE L.J. Smith in the back of the end zone. The ball bounced off of Smith's hands as the Eagles came away with no points. The Bucs finally lit the scoreboard at the new stadium with a 23-yard field goal by Martin Gramatica early in the 2nd quarter. The score stayed that way until the 3rd quarter when the Bucs used a 13-yard scoring pass from Brad Johnson to Joe Jurevicius. Those two connected once again on a 7-yard play early in the 4th quarter to finish the scoring.

NOTES: Eagles CB Troy Vincent recorded the 40th interception of his career, his 26th as an Eagle ... James Thrash's 47-yd. run on an end around was the longest rushing attempt of his career.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2003
NEW ENGLAND 31, PHILADELPHIA 10
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,624

A plethora of turnovers and another offensive power shortage proved costly to the Eagles as the Patriots overcame a 7-3 deficit to roll to a 31-10 victory in Philadelphia. As a result, the Eagles fell to 0-2 for the first time since 1999, as they dropped two straight regular season games in a row for the first time since weeks 2-3 of the 2000 season. The Eagles used a 2-yard TD run by RB Duce Staley, the team's first points at Lincoln Financial Field, to grab a short-lived lead early in the 2nd quarter. The turnover bug then struck the Eagles as Donovan McNabb fumbled after a sack at their own 35-yard line. Four plays later, Patriots quarterback Tom Brady connected with TE Christian Fauria on an 8-yard scoring play. Later in the 2nd stanza, Eagles punt returner Brian Westbrook fumbled a punt deep in Eagles territory and Brady and Fauria connected again on a 5-yard TD. With a 17-7 lead at halftime, the Eagles started off the 2nd half the same way they ended it – with a turnover. This time Duce Staley fumbled after a rushing attempt inside Patriots territory. Two Patriots possessions later, Brady hit the speedy Deion Branch with a 26-yard scoring play to give the Patriots a commanding 24-7 lead. The Eagles showed some life early in the 4th quarter with a career-long 57-yard field goal by David Akers to pull within two scores. But McNabb and the Eagles offense stalled the rest of the day. In fact, one of McNabb's final pass attempts went straight into the hands of Pats LB Tedy Bruschi, who rumbled 18 yards for the game's final score.

NOTES: Akers' 57-yard field goal was the 2nd longest in team history and the longest by any kicker in Philadelphia. Tony Franklin's team-record 59 yarder occurred at Dallas in 1979 ... Akers also moved past Roger Ruzek (382) and into 8th place on the Eagles all-time scoring list ... The Eagles played without three injured defensive starters (FS Brian Dawkins, CB Bobby Taylor, and DE Brandon Whiting) ... McNabb became the 5th Eagle to surpass the 10,000-yard passing plateau, joining Ron Jaworski, Randall Cunningham, Norman Snead, and Tommy Thompson.

Philadelphia Eagles

The Eagles got off to a quick start and registered their first win of the season with a 23-13 triumph over Buffalo at Ralph Wilson Stadium. They blistered the Bills with 177 yards on the ground, including 67 in the first quarter in which the Eagles built a 10-0 lead. On the first play from scrimmage, Donovan McNabb connected with Todd Pinkston on a 27-yard completion. Two plays later, McNabb scrambled for 25 more to set up a two-yard TD run by Correll Buckhalter. After forcing a three-and-out by the Bills, the Eagles marched 65 yards on 16 plays to set up a 26-yard field goal by David Akers that gave Philadelphia a 10-0 lead with just :09 remaining in the first quarter. In all, the Eagles had possession of the ball for 13:18 of the first quarter. Buffalo squandered a scoring attempt early in the 2nd quarter as Rian Lindell came up short on a 51-yard field goal attempt. Late in the 2nd quarter, Buffalo threatened again with a drive inside Eagles territory. But Eagles SS Michael Lewis knocked the ball loose from Bills WR Bobby Shaw at the Eagles 23-yard line. Rookie free agent cornerback Rod Hood, who was pressed into action after a hamstring injury to Pro Bowl CB Troy Vincent early in the first quarter, scooped up the ball and returned it to midfield before fumbling himself. FS Clinton Hart, subbing for the injured Brian Dawkins, recovered for the Eagles, who utilized their two-minute offense to the tune of a 34-yard field goal by Akers that gave Philadelphia a 13-0 advantage at halftime. They went up 16-0 with a 14-play, 70-yard drive that chewed up 9:24 of the 3rd quarter. The Bills fought back with two 4th quarter touchdowns, but McNabb connected with WR James Thrash on a key 3rd-and-7 play late in the game that set up a 62-yard touchdown run by Brian Westbrook to put the game away.

NOTES: Akers moved past Paul McFadden (91) and into first place on the Eagles all-time field goal list ... The Eagles defense, who played without starters Dawkins, Vincent, Bobby Taylor and Brandon Whiting, held Buffalo to just 21 rushing yards on 12 attempts. It was their lowest total allowed since holding the Oilers to 21 yards on 12/2/91, the only lower rushing total allowed in team history came when the Eagles held the Redskins to 14 yards on 9/28/47 ... Under head coach Andy Reid, the Eagles are 6-0 (including playoffs) following a bye week ... Westbrook's TD was the first of his career and was the longest rushing score by an Eagles since Brian Mitchell's 85 yarder vs. Atlanta in 2000.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2003
PHILADELPHIA 27, WASHINGTON 25
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,792

The Eagles capitalized on great play by their defense and won for the first time ever at Lincoln Financial Field as they held off a furious comeback attempt by the Redskins who failed on a two-point conversion attempt in the game's final minute. The Eagles defense, playing without their three injured Pro Bowl defensive backs (Troy Vincent, Bobby Taylor, and Brian Dawkins), pressured Redskins quarterback Patrick Ramsey all day long and forced him into two turnovers that resulted in 14 Eagle points, including the first career TD by DE N.D. Kalu. The Eagles built a 10-0 lead early after a 52-yard field goal by David Akers and a 4-yard TD catch by FB Jon Ritchie. That touchdown was set up after an interception by rookie CB Roderick Hood, who snared a pass attempt that deflected off the hands of Redskins WR Laveranues Coles. The Redskins bounced back with an interception of their own. Former Eagle LB Jeremiah Trotter intercepted a pass attempt by Donovan McNabb and rumbled 21 yards to the Eagles one-yard line. Three plays later, Ramsey scored on a quarterback sneak. On the ensuing possession, McNabb connected with WR Freddie Mitchell on a 39-yard catch and run that set up another field goal by Akers to give them a 13-7 lead. The Redskins responded with a field goal of their own at the end of the half and another one to start the second half tying the contest at 13. But a huge trio of plays by Eagles DT Darwin Walker forced another turnover. After a tackle for loss that was negated by a facemask penalty, Walker then sacked Ramsey. On the next play, Walker pressured Ramsey and struck his arm on a pass attempt that was snatched out of the air by Kalu, who rumbled 15 yards for a TD and gave the Eagles a 20-13 lead. The Redskins cut the lead to four after a field goal by John Hall early in the 4th quarter. On their next possession, though, the Eagles drove 70 yards on 11 plays, culminating in a 19-yard TD scamper by Brian Westbrook. But the Redskins would not quit in the final 3:10 as Hall made a 53-yard field goal, Bryan Johnson recovered an onside kick, and Ramsey connected with Darnerien McCants on a 32-yard TD to pull within two points. However, a pressured Ramsey overthrew Coles on the two-point conversion attempt, securing an Eagles win.

NOTES: Kalu's INT was the first of his NFL career and his TD was his first since high school ... Akers moved past Tommy McDonald (402) and into 6th place on the Eagles all-time scoring list ... The Eagles shut out the Redskins (0-9) in third down situations of four yards or more.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12, 2003
DALLAS 23, PHILADELPHIA 21
TEXAS STADIUM • 63,648

Cowboys kicker Billy Cundiff drilled a game-winning, 28-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining in the fourth quarter to lift Dallas to a 23-21 win over the Eagles at Texas Stadium. The Eagles fought back from a poor start and a 17-7 deficit late in the third quarter to take a 21-20 lead in the final minutes. But a big kickoff return by Zuriel Smith and a key first down on 3rd and 7 paved the way for Cundiff's heroic kick. Dallas took a quick 7-0 lead after the Eagles attempted an onside kick to start the game. Randal Williams snared the bouncing ball and returned it 37 yards for the score. After punting following each of their first four possessions, the Eagles came to life early in the 2nd quarter as RB Brian Westbrook scooted 5 yards for a TD to tie the score at 7-7. In the final seconds of the first half, Cundiff drilled a 51-yard field goal to give Dallas a three-point lead. The Cowboys expanded their lead to 17-7 in the third quarter after marching 80 yards on 11 plays culminating in a 1-yard TD run by Troy Hambrick. The drive was highlighted by a 37-yard halfback pass from Aveion Cason to Joey Galloway. But the Eagles answered right back on their next possession as Donovan McNabb scrambled out of harm's way and tossed a short pass to RB Duce Staley, who ran down the sideline for a 52-yard scoring play. After another field goal by the Cowboys early in the 4th quarter made it 20-14, the Eagles embarked on their most impressive drive of the game, a clutch, 14-play, 61-yard jaunt capped by a 20-yard touchdown run by Correll Buckhalter, the third Eagles running back to reach the end zone on the day. Philadelphia, however, could not hold onto the lead and lost the ball on their final opportunity in the waning seconds after McNabb was hit by a blitzing Dexter Coakley and Roy Williams.

NOTES: Three Eagles running backs notched TDs in a game for the first time since 11/22/92 when Herschel Walker, Keith Byars, and Heath Sherman scored at NYG ... Staley's 52-yard catch was a career long ... Eagles punter Dirk Johnson pinned 5 punts inside the Cowboys 20-yard line, including 4 in the first quarter ... Westbrook left the game late in the first half after a hip injury and did not return. James Thrash took over for him as the team's punt and kickoff returner ... The Eagles lost to the Cowboys for the first time since 1999.

Philadelphia Eagles

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2003
PHILADELPHIA 14, NEW YORK 10
GIANTS STADIUM • 78,883

It wasn't quite the Miracle of the Meadowlands from 1978, but the story line was similar. Trailing 10-7 late in the fourth quarter, the Eagles were down to their last breath when the Giants took over at the Philadelphia 44-yard line with just under two-minutes left to play. But three straight running plays resulted in a 4th-n-12 situation after the Eagles used up their final timeout with 1:34 remaining in the contest. Lined up in punt block formation, the desperate Eagles could not get near Giants punter Jeff Feagles who lofted a punt deep into Eagles territory. Fielding the ball, after a bounce, at the Eagles 16-yard line, Brian Westbrook eluded a would-be tackler and found open territory along the sideline. From there, Westbrook turned on the afterburners as he raced into the end zone giving the Eagles a dramatic touchdown and a 14-10 lead in front of a stunned crowd at Giants Stadium. Needing a touchdown on the ensuing possession and having all three of their timeouts in their back pocket, the Giants drove to the Eagles 38-yard line, where they faced a 4th-n-4. Eagles CB Bobby Taylor, returning from a four-game absence after a foot injury, knocked down a Kerry Collins pass attempt to TE Jeremy Shockey as the Eagles went home with a heart-stopping victory. The Eagles defense withstood 80 plays, 25 first downs, and 35 minutes of possession time by the Giants to set up Westbrook's heroics. Down 10-7 early in the 4th quarter, MLB Mark Simoneau halted a Giants drive deep in Eagles territory as he knifed through the line on a 3rd-n-goal play to knock the ball loose from Collins. DT Corey Simon fell on the loose ball and the Eagles survived. Late in the first half, LB Nate Wayne forced a fumble by Shockey at the PE19 to stop another scoring attempt. The Eagles took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter as Westbrook capped a 10-play, 89-yard drive with a 6-yard touchdown run. That drive was fueled by a 41-yard pass interference penalty (by Giants CB Ralph Brown on a pass attempt to Todd Pinkston) and a 25-yard connection from Donovan McNabb to rookie TE L.J. Smith. New York kicker Brett Conway nailed a 39-yard field goal late in the first half and Collins connected with Shockey on a one-yard scoring play late in the third to give the Giants the lead until Westbrook's heroics.

NOTES: Westbrook's punt return was the 2nd longest in team history and longest since 11/22/92, when Vai Sikahema returned a punt 87 yards for a score at Giants Stadium. Sikahema was in attendance for Westbrook's remarkable return as he now serves as a sports anchor for NBC10 in Philadelphia ... Westbrook became the first Eagle since Ricky Watters in 1996 to score a rushing touchdown in four consecutive games.

GAME 7

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26, 2003
PHILADELPHIA 24, NEW YORK 17
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,853

The Eagles blistered the Jets with 194 yards rushing, including 100 by Correll Buckhalter, en route to a 24-17 victory at Lincoln Financial Field. Both teams came out smoking offensively, scoring on each of their first two possessions. The Eagles answered a Jets field goal to go up 7-3 following a 6-yard touchdown run by Buckhalter. But New York struck back immediately to take the lead after Vinny Testaverde took a pitch from RB Curtis Martin on a flea-flicker and tossed a 60-yard scoring strike to Santana Moss. The Eagles answered back again with a 12-play, 68-yard drive that culminated in another TD run by Buckhalter. Later in the 2nd quarter, Eagles LB Ike Reese blocked a punt by Dan Stryzinski that set them up in Jets territory. But the Eagles could not convert. The Jets took over and were poised to put points on the board late in the first half, but Moss was hit by Carlos Emmons after a wide receiver screen and fumbled at the Eagles 23 yard line. Reese pounced on the loose ball and halted their scoring opportunity. Unlike the first half, the Eagles committed two turnovers on their first two possessions of the 3rd quarter and the Jets made them pay. Lamont Jordan scooted home on a 4-yard touchdown run late in the 3rd to give the Jets a 17-14 lead. Philadelphia attempted a 55-yard field goal early in the 4th quarter, but David Akers misfired for the first time of the season. With good field position after the missed field goal attempt, the Jets drove into Eagles territory. But Chad Pennington, who saw his first action of the 2003 regular season, threw an errant pass to Eagles SS Michael Lewis, who returned the interception 23 yards. That critical error proved costly to the Jets as Donovan McNabb fired a 4-yard TD strike to FB Jon Ritchie to give the Eagles the lead for good at 21-17. Faced with a 4th-and-1 situation at the NYJ46 with 4:34 remaining, Jets coach Herman Edwards decided to go for the first down instead of punting. Jordan was stuffed by DT Darwin Walker for no gain and Akers nailed a 30-yard field goal to give the Eagles a seven-point lead. The Jets final hail mary attempt fell incomplete.

NOTES: The Eagles, who have won all seven of their all-time outings with the Jets, met them in Philadelphia for the first time since 1978 ... Duce Staley moved past Randall Cunningham (4,482) and into 3rd place on the Eagles all-time rushing list ... Akers moved past Tony Franklin (412) and into 5th place on the Eagles all-time scoring list ... Buckhalter registered the first multi-touchdown game of his career ... The Eagles overcame a fourth quarter deficit in consecutive games for the first time since the final two regular season games of the 2001 season ... Reese's blocked punt was the first by the Eagles since N.D. Kalu's block vs. the Cowboys on 9/30/01.

Philadelphia Eagles

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2003
PHILADELPHIA 23, ATLANTA 16
THE GEORGIA DOME • 70,064

Donovan McNabb threw for 312 yards and the Eagles defense stifled the Falcons in the 2nd half of a 23-16 win at the Georgia Dome. McNabb's 300-yard game was his first since the 2001 opener vs. the Rams as he diced up a revamped Falcons secondary, which featured four new starters. After allowing 111 rushing yards and 13 first downs in the first half, the defense tightened up to a suffocating level in the final 30 minutes. During the 2nd half, Atlanta managed only 4 first downs, 20 yards rushing, and 3 points, while benching starting quarterback Kurt Kittner. The Eagles took an early 10-0 lead in the first quarter as Falcons kickoff returner Allen Rossum lost the opening kickoff deep in Philadelphia territory. Sean Morey recovered the loose ball at the 11-yard line, but the Eagles stalled and settled for a 21-yard field goal by David Akers. Atlanta drove deep into Eagles territory on their ensuing possession but Lito Sheppard picked up his first career interception at the 2-yard line. After a 34-yard return by Sheppard, the Eagles embarked on a 9-play, scoring drive as McNabb connected with Freddie Mitchell on a 37-yard TD play. The Falcons, who entered the contest 1-6, mounted a comeback behind the strength of their running attack and took the lead. First, T.J. Duckett scored on a one-yard plunge early the 2nd quarter to cap a 75-yard drive which saw the Eagles allow 51 yards on the ground. After two consecutive three-and-outs by Philadelphia, the Falcons used two field goals by Jay Feely (40 and 25 yards) to find themselves ahead, 13-10, at halftime. McNabb came out smoking in the 3rd quarter, engineering a pair of drives deep into Falcons territory, but could only come away with three points. Akers nailed a 25-yard attempt on the first possession, but had a 41 yarder blocked by Ed Jasper later in the quarter. With the stingy defense holding down the fort, the Eagles finally took the lead early in the 4th quarter as McNabb and L.J. Smith set up a 4-yard touchdown run by Duce Staley. The rookie tight end caught a pair of long passes of 36 and 28 yards to set up Staley's run. The two teams traded field goals later in the quarter (a 40 yarder by Akers and a 46 yarder by Feely), but the Eagles defense was too much down the stretch for the Falcons and relief QB Doug Johnson to handle.

NOTES: McNabb threw for 300-plus yards in a winning effort for the first time since 12/10/00 at Cleveland ... Correll Buckhalter carried the ball a career-high 23 times for 90 yards ... In addition to Sheppard's interception, other firsts for the Eagles: Clinton Hart's first career sack, Nate Wayne's first sack as an Eagle, Greg Lewis' first career reception, and Reno Mahe's first game played. (He went 2-25 subbing for injured punt returner Brian Westbrook).

Philadelphia Eagles

A last-minute comeback at a cold and rain-soaked Lambeau Field on Monday Night Football. That familiar script has starred the Packers Brett Favre so many times over the last decade. But this time, Donovan McNabb took center stage in that role, as the Eagles pulled out a dramatic, 17-14 win in Green Bay. Down by four points with 2:43 remaining, McNabb orchestrated the most memorable two-minute drill of his young career as he drove the Eagles 65 yards on 8 plays, which culminated in a 6-yard TD pass to WR Todd Pinkston with 32 seconds remaining on the clock. A sluggish Eagles offense, which managed just 3 points in the first 50 minutes of the game, was jump-started by a 51-yard pass from McNabb to WR James Thrash to the Packers 3-yard line early in the 4th. Three plays later, McNabb willed his way into the end zone on a 1-yard TD run, giving the Eagles a 10-7 lead. On their ensuing possession, the Packers faced a 4th-n-1 situation at the PE45. Deciding to go for the first down, Favre handed off to RB Ahman Green, who not only picked up the first down, but scampered 45 yards for a touchdown. But Pinkston and McNabb put the game away for Philadelpha two possessions later. Early on, the Eagles could not capitalize on multiple opportunities as they struggled to get on the scoreboard. Their most notable chance came after a 33-yard interception return by former Packer Nate Wayne, who made a one-handed grab of a Favre pass attempt midway through the 2nd quarter. But David Akers misfired on a 47-yard field goal attempt to keep the score tied 0-0. Late in the first half, Favre connected with Green on a 24-yard screen pass for a touchdown. Akers nailed a 21-yard field goal on the first possession of the 3rd quarter to get the Eagles within four. Shortly thereafter, Longwell came up short on a 45-yard field goal later that quarter to set the stage for the dramatic fourth quarter finish.

NOTES: The Eagles became the fourth team in NFL history to win their fourth consecutive game when trailing by 3+ points in the 2nd half during each of those contests ... The Eagles won at Lambeau Field for the first time since September 12, 1993 ... The Eagles became the 4th team to win a Monday Night game at Lambeau, the last team to do so was Seattle, 27-7, on 11/1/99 ... McNabb threw and ran for a touchdown in the same quarter for the first time since 10/6/02 at Jacksonville ... Green set the Packers single game rushing record with 192 yards ... The Packers fumbled 6 times (3 by Favre, 2 by Green, 1 by Davenport), but only lost 2.

Donovan McNabb completed 24 of 30 passes for 314 yards and 2 touchdowns, Brian Westbrook piled up 108 total yards from scrimmage and 3 touchdowns, and the defense welcomed back all-pro free safety Brian Dawkins to the lineup with a stifling effort as the Eagles cruised to a 28-10 win over the Giants at Lincoln Financial Field. The Eagles overcame a 3-0 deficit early in the game with a 1-yard touchdown run by Correll Buckhalter, who capped off an impressive 9-play, 61-yard drive, which saw four different players record first downs. They opened up their lead to 14-3 late in the 2nd quarter as McNabb lofted a perfectly thrown 29-yard touchdown pass to Westbrook. The defense then took center stage as the half came to close with the Giants set up at the Eagles one-yard line with a 1st-and-goal situation. On first down, LB Nate Wayne stopped RB Dorsey Levens for no gain. Then Dawkins knocked down a pass attempt in the end zone before CB Troy Vincent snuffed out Levens again for no gain. On fourth down, the Giants pitched to RB Tiki Barber, who was stopped on a sweep by LB Carlos Emmons and Dawkins for a loss. Late in the 3rd quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach with an 8-play, 95-yard drive that was capped by a 4-yard touchdown run by Westbrook. On that drive, McNabb completed all four of his passes for 55 yards and Westbrook totaled 40 yards on the ground. The two teams traded touchdowns in the 4th quarter as Barber caught a 10-yard TD pass and Westbrook registered his third score with a 5-yard catch from McNabb.

NOTES: Westbrook, who registered 5 touchdowns vs. the Giants in two games in 2003, became the first Eagle to record 3 TDs in a game since Duce Staley had three vs. the Chiefs on 9/27/98 ... McNabb, who registered the 2nd-highest single-game QB rating (132.5) and yardage total (314) of his career, completed his last 12 pass attempts, including all 10 in the 2nd half ... Nine different players caught passes for the Eagles and nine different players recorded a first down ... The Eagles allowed no sacks to the Giants, who entered the game with a league-high 28 ... Eagles P Dirk Johnson pinned four punts inside the Giants 20-yard line ... The Eagles wore black jerseys for the first time in team history.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 2003
PHILADELPHIA 33, NEW ORLEANS 20
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,802

The Eagles took advantage of a turnover-prone Saints team as they cruised to a 33-20 victory over New Orleans at Lincoln Financial Field. As a result, Philadelphia won their 6th straight game and captured their 8th victory in their last nine contests. Donovan McNabb completed 64% of his passes (16-25) to 10 different receivers for 259 yards and 1 touchdown. The Eagles three-headed running back attack of Duce Staley, Brian Westbrook and Correll Buckhalter combined for 30 touches for 240 yards and 2 TDs. On the first play from scrimmage, McNabb connected with Todd Pinkston on a 48-yard grab to set up a 36-yard field goal by David Akers. On their ensuing possession, the Saints drove to the PE1, but QB Aaron Brooks fumbled away a handoff attempt to RB Deuce McAllister, which was recovered by CB Troy Vincent. The Eagles then drove 80 yards on six plays for their next score, a nifty 15-yard TD run by Westbrook to make the score 10-0. Thanks to a sack and forced fumble by LB Nate Wayne, the Eagles opened up a 17-point lead late in 2nd quarter on a 1-yard touchdown run by Buckhalter. McNabb's 28-yard completion to TE L.J. Smith set up the score after the fumble recovery by DE N.D. Kalu. But the Saints would not lie down on the road as they scored on a 6-yard TD grab by TE Boo Williams from Brooks. With 1:51 left on the clock in the half though, McNabb drove the Eagles to the Saints 23 yard-line, where Akers connected on a 41-yard field goal to give the Eagles a 20-7 lead. On the Saints first possession of the 3rd quarter, WR Jerome Pathon was forced to fumble after a tackle by LB Ike Reese. Kalu came up with his second fumble recovery of the game to set up another field goal by Akers (42 yds.) to give the Eagles a commanding 23-7 lead. But on New Orleans' next play from scrimmage, McAllister raced 76 yards for a touchdown. Late in the third quarter, the Saints were poised to move within 6 points, but Eagles SS Michael Lewis blocked a 45-yard field goal attempt by John Carney. The Eagles answered right back with a 33-yard field goal by Akers, his fourth of the game. McNabb then connected with FB Jon Ritchie on a 2-yard TD pass to put the game out of reach.

NOTES: Akers first of four field goals was the 100th of his career ... McNabb tied Bobby Hoying's team record for most consecutive completions (13) ... Lewis' blocked field goal was the first by the Eagles since Joe Kelly blocked an attempt vs. the Cardinals in 1996 ... 26 penalties were called in the game for a total of 272 yards.

The Eagles put together their first seven-game winning streak since 1980 as they downed the Carolina Panthers, 25-16. Both teams entered Ericsson Stadium with 8-3 records and a hold of first place in their respective divisions. The kicking game was the difference, as David Akers boomed four field goals, while John Kasay missed three field goals and an extra point attempt. Donovan McNabb finished off a stellar month of November by completing 69% of his passes to nine different receivers against a feisty Panthers defense. He overcame an interception on the first offensive play from scrimmage that led to an early 20-yard field goal by Kasay. On the very next drive, McNabb directed a 10-play, 68-yard drive that was capped by a 2-yard TD plunge by Duce Staley. The Panthers threatened on the ensuing possession, but Kasay's nightmare day began as he misfired on a 32-yard attempt. Early in the 2nd quarter, Brian Westbrook fumbled away a punt return deep inside Eagles territory, but Kasay's 38-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. After Akers 35-yard FG late in the 2nd quarter made it 10-3, the Eagles defense faced a 4th-and-1 situation at their own 8-yard line, but DE Brandon Whiting stopped RB Stephen Davis for no gain. Another missed field goal by Kasay (49 yards) early in the 3rd quarter plagued the Panthers as Akers responded with a 49 yarder to build the lead to 10 points. But Carolina QB Jake Delhomme orchestrated a 70-yard scoring drive that ended with a 24-yard TD toss to WR Steve Smith. The Eagles responded once again with a field goal by Akers (38 yards) to build a 16-10 lead. On the Panthers next offensive play, Delhomme was sacked and forced to fumble by LB Nate Wayne. The ball was recovered by DT Darwin Walker at the Panthers 11-yard line. Two plays later, McNabb connected with WR James Thrash on a 10-yard scoring play. TE Chad Lewis dropped the 2-point conversion attempt, but the Eagles held a 22-10 advantage. Midway through the 4th quarter, Delhomme would not let the Panthers die as he connected with Muhsin Muhammad on a 23-yard TD, but Kasay botched the extra point attempt as the Eagles maintained a 6-point lead. The Panthers next possession was halted by two big plays by CB Lito Sheppard, who batted down a long pass attempt to Smith on 2nd down before drawing an offensive pass interference penalty by Smith on third down. The Eagles then chewed up over 5 minutes of clock time before Akers ended the Panthers comeback attempt with a 29-yard field goal. On that drive, McNabb connected with TE Chad Lewis on a clutch 29-yard grab on third down to keep the drive alive.

NOTES: Akers posted back-to-back four field games for the first time in his career ... Kasay became the first kicker to miss 3 field goals in a game vs. the Eagles since the Redskins Chip Lohmiller in 1990 ... McNabb, who led the Eagles to a franchise-first 5-0 record in a single month, finished the month of November with the following passing numbers: 94 for 145 (64.8%) for 1,265 yds, 6 TDs, 1 INT and a 103.4 QB rating ... The Eagles starting defensive backfield featured Pro Bowlers Brian Dawkins, Bobby Taylor, and Troy Vincent for the first time since opening day ... The Eagles recorded a rushing TD in their 11th straight game, a team record ... Wayne registered a sack and forced fumble for the 2nd consecutive game. Both plays resulted in touchdowns ... The Eagles registered their first-ever win at Ericsson Stadium.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2003
PHILADELPHIA 36, DALLAS 10
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 69,773
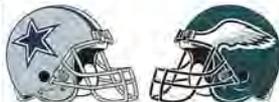

In a NFC East showdown, the Eagles used a dominating 2nd half performance that lifted them to a 36-10 win over the Dallas Cowboys at a frigid and windy Lincoln Financial Field. With the win, the Eagles posted their first 8-game win streak since 1980 and clinched their fourth consecutive playoff berth. In that decisive final 30 minutes, Dallas was held scoreless and to 61 total yards, 2 turnovers and 4 first downs. Meanwhile, the Eagles offense piled up 26 points, 216 yards, and 12 first downs. Although the final score was lopsided, the first half was exactly the opposite as both teams engaged in a hard-fought, physical battle that ended in a 10-10 tie. But the Cowboys first possession of the 3rd quarter began the Eagles rout after CB Sheldon Brown stepped in front of a Quincy Carter for an interception. The opportunistic Eagles converted that turnover into a touchdown as Donovan McNabb shoveled a pass to RB Duce Staley, who darted 5 yards for a touchdown. Late in the 3rd quarter, the Cowboys were pinned deep in their own territory, facing a 3rd-n-24 at their own 13-yard line. The center snap by Matt Lehr zipped past Carter, who was in shotgun formation, and through the back of the end zone for a safety. Leading 19-10 at that point, the Eagles scored again following the free kick, as McNabb connected with rookie TE L.J. Smith for his first career TD, a 6 yarder, which stretched the lead to 26-10. After a field goal by David Akers upped their lead to 19, Eagles RB Correll Buckhalter put on the finishing touches as he raced a career-long 64 yards for another touchdown.

NOTES: The Eagles held the Cowboys talented trio of wide receivers – Terry Glenn, Joey Galloway, and Antonio Bryant – without a catch ... The Eagles three-headed monster at running back (Staley, Brian Westbrook and Buckhalter) each reached the end zone for the 2nd straight game vs. Dallas ... Buckhalter, meanwhile, registered a career high with 144 total yards from scrimmage ... Akers moved past Steve Van Buren (464) and into 4th place on the Eagles all-time scoring list ... McNabb's 3 TD passes were a season high ... Eagles rookie DT Sam Rayburn posted his first career sack on the drive that resulted in a safety ... That safety was the first by the Eagles since 10/3/99 at NYG.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15, 2003
PHILADELPHIA 34, MIAMI 27
PRO PLAYER STADIUM • 73,780

The Eagles lit up the scoreboard early and often at Miami's Pro Player Stadium as they rolled to their 9th straight victory with a 34-27 decision over the Dolphins on Monday Night Football. Donovan McNabb and Todd Pinkston connected on a 59-yard reception on the game's first play from scrimmage to set the tone for a high-octane offensive output that torched the Dolphins with 401 net yards and featured 14 plays of 13-yards-or-more. Two plays after Pinkston's catch, Brian Westbrook scored his first of two touchdowns with a 21-yard scamper to give the Eagles a quick 7-0 lead just 1:11 into the contest. The Dolphins responded with a one-yard TD run by former Eagles QB Jay Fiedler. But Philadelphia struck back to take a 7-point lead as McNabb's 44-yard connection to James Thrash highlighted an 8-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard run by the Eagles signal caller. The Dolphins marched right back down the field to tie the game with a 2-yard TD plunge by Travis Minor, but the Eagles reached into their bag of tricks to regain the lead. WR Freddie Mitchell caught a backwards pass from McNabb and heaved a picture-perfect pass of his own across the field to Westbrook for a 25-yard TD. Both teams traded field goals late in the 2nd quarter as the Eagles took a 24-17 lead into the intermission. Miami tied the scored on their first possession of the 3rd quarter as RB Ricky Williams' 3-yard TD run capped off an 80-yard drive. The scored remained tied at 24 until the first play of the 4th quarter when Eagles RB Correll Buckhalter dove above Miami LB Junior Seau and reached over the goal line outstretching the ball inside the pylon before landing out of bounds. The play was originally ruled down at the one-yard line, but head coach Andy Reid correctly challenged the play and was awarded the touchdown. With 3:24 remaining, the Dolphins took over at their own 20-yard line poised to tie the score, but Eagles SS Michael Lewis intercepted a pass attempt by Fiedler to end Miami's comeback attempt. From there, David Akers connected on a 42-yard field goal to widen the lead to 10 points with 2:00 remaining. The Dolphins managed a field goal to make the score 34-27, but their onside kick attempt went out of bounds and the Eagles celebrated their first win ever in Miami.

NOTES: The Eagles played without the services of Pro Bowl LT Tra Thomas, who was sidelined with back spasms, but held the Dolphins to just one sack (0 yards). 2nd-year pro Artis Hicks started in place of Thomas and matched up very well vs. Pro Bowl DE Jason Taylor ... The Eagles first score was the fastest touchdown to start a game by their offense since Ollie Matson scored 35 seconds into an October 18, 1964 contest vs. the Giants at Yankee Stadium ... Akers moved past Harold Carmichael (474) and Sam Baker (475) and into 2nd place on the Eagles all-time scoring list ... McNabb moved past Norm Snead (1,154) and into 3rd place on the team's all-time list for completions.

Philadelphia Eagles

The Eagles nine-game win streak came to end as Todd Peterson nailed a 22-yard field goal in overtime, lifting the visiting San Francisco 49ers to a 31-28 win at Lincoln Financial Field. Philadelphia fought back from a 28-21 deficit late in the 4th quarter with a dramatic touchdown drive to send the game into overtime. But Eagles QB Donovan McNabb was intercepted by Tony Parrish on the first play from scrimmage in the extra period leading to the game-winning field goal. Parrish began the day the same way, intercepting a McNabb pass on the game's first play from scrimmage, which led to a 30-yard field goal attempt by Peterson. But holder Bill LaFleur mishandled the snap from center as the 49ers missed a golden scoring opportunity. Later in the first quarter, the 49ers made the most of their next opportunity with a 15-yard scoring pass from Jeff Garcia to RB Kevan Barlow. Trailing 7-0 early in the 2nd quarter, the Eagles used a turnover to manufacture the tying score as DT Corey Simon sacked and forced a fumble by Garcia that was recovered by LB Carlos Emmons at the SF20. Two plays later, RB Duce Staley scored on a 7-yard TD run. On the Eagles next possession, McNabb connected with WR Todd Pinkston on what appeared to be 48-yard TD. But after an official challenge by the Niners, the play was ruled a touchback as the replay showed Parrish knocked the ball out of Pinkston's hands and out of the end zone before it crossed the goal line. The Eagles managed to score on the their next possession, however, as James Thrash drew a pass interference penalty in the end zone to set up Staley's 2nd TD run of the day, a 1-yard run. San Francisco knotted the score with a 33-yard TD catch by Brandon Lloyd late in the 2nd quarter. After a three-and-out by the 49ers on their first possession of the 3rd quarter, Brian Westbrook took the long punt by LaFleur and raced 81 yards for an electrifying touchdown that gave Philadelphia a 21-14 lead. The Niners answered with a 33-yard field goal by Peterson, Pinkston's 47-yard grab on the Eagles next possession set up a 42-yard field goal attempt by Akers. But he came up short in the windy conditions, and Peterson responded with a 25-yard FG of his own to make the score 21-20 early in the 4th quarter. Akers again misfired on the Eagles next possession as his 47-yard attempt sailed wide left. The 49ers took the lead with a one-yard touchdown run by Barlow and a two-point conversion. But McNabb and the Eagles fought back with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that was capped off by a 19-yard TD catch by Pinkston with just 1:08 remaining.

NOTES: Westbrook became the first Eagle ever to record two punt returns for a touchdown in the same season ... Staley rushed for two touchdowns for the third time in his career ... Pinkston logged his first career 100-yard receiving game, finishing with 5 catches for 121 yards and 1 TD ... Simon became the 4th Eagles defensive tackle to record 25.0 sacks, joining Andy Harmon, Ken Clarke, and Jerome Brown ... Eagles FB Jon Ritchie recorded his first rushing attempt, a one-yard gain, since 12/5/99 vs. Seattle ... Emmons left the game with a broken fibula and 49ers Pro Bowl WR Terrell Owens left the game in the first half with a broken collarbone.

The Eagles clinched their third consecutive NFC East title and a first round bye in the playoffs with a dominating 31-7 victory over the Redskins at FedEx Field. Donovan McNabb accounted for all four touchdowns (three passing and one rushing) and completed 71.9 percent of his passes to 10 different receivers for 242 yards. The Eagles scored on their first three possessions of the game to build a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter to cruise to the victory. First, McNabb alertly found an uncovered Chad Lewis, who was split out and hauled in a 3-yard TD. Then, McNabb capped off a season-long 96-yard touchdown drive (14 plays) as he rolled out and ran in from one yard out to make it 14-0 early in the 2nd quarter. After a sack and forced fumble by DT Corey Simon on the ensuing possession, McNabb connected with Freddie Mitchell on an 8-yard TD completion. After a touchdown by the Redskins late in the 2nd quarter, the Eagles responded on their first drive of the 2nd half as McNabb connected with RB Correll Buckhalter on a swing pass that resulted in an 11-yard score. With the score 28-7, the Eagles defense pressured former teammate Tim Hasselbeck and the Redskins offense for the rest of the night. David Akers nailed a 26-yard field goal in the final minutes to seal the victory.

NOTES: The Eagles registered a season-high 5 sacks ... RB Duce Staley moved past Wilbert Montgomery (2,447) and into 3rd place on the club's all-time receiving yards list for running backs ... Buckhalter's score was the first receiving TD of his career ... Brian Westbrook left the game in the 2nd quarter with a torn tricep in his left arm ... McNabb tied a career-high with four total TDs ... Eagles P Dirk Johnson pinned all three of his punts inside the 20 yard line.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

SUNDAY, JANUARY 11, 2004
PHILADELPHIA 20, GREEN BAY 17 - (OT)
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,707

It was simply an instant classic. In the first ever playoff game at Lincoln Financial Field, the Eagles roared back from a 14-0 deficit in the first quarter and a 17-14 deficit in the final minutes of regulation to defeat the Packers, 20-17, in overtime. David Akers booted a 37-yard field goal with 0:05 remaining in the 4th quarter to tie the game and then nailed a 31-yard kick in overtime to win the contest. With the Packers holding a 3-point lead late in the 4th quarter and driving, the Eagles stopped Packers QB Brett Favre 1-yard shy on what would have been a critical first down with 2:39 left on the clock. The Eagles took over at their own 20-yard line after a punt and embarked on a dramatic game-tying drive. After a 22-yard carry by Duce Staley got the offense going, Donovan McNabb and the Eagles seemed to stall on their next set of downs, facing a 4th-and-26 situation at their own 26. But McNabb connected with WR Freddie Mitchell for a dramatic 28-yard gain over the middle to give the Eagles another breath of life. They then faced a 3rd-and-7 at the GB29 with a stiff breeze blowing in their face. McNabb calmly found Todd Pinkston for a 10-yard gain with 25 seconds remaining. After two incomplete passes in the end zone, the Eagles settled for the tie and overtime as Akers drilled the field goal. In overtime, the Eagles won the toss, but stalled on their opening possession, giving Favre and the Packers a shot to win. On their first play from scrimmage, Favre tossed a long pass downfield intended for Javon Walker. It ended up in the waiting hands of Eagles FS Brian Dawkins, who raced back to the GB34. Six plays later, Akers ended up back on the field with a chance to win the game and he did not disappoint the frenzied home crowd. That same crowd was very docile in the early going as Favre and the Packers mounted a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on a pair of TD passes to Robert Ferguson. The Eagles managed to get on the board midway through the 2nd quarter as McNabb and Pinkston connected on a 45-yard pass play to the GB7. That play set the stage for a 7-yard shovel pass for a TD to Staley. On their ensuing possession, Green Bay threatened to add to their lead as they set up shop with a first and goal at the Eagles four-yard line. After an incomplete pass, the Eagles twice stopped Packers RB Najeh Davenport short of the goal line to set up a 4th and goal at the PE1. This time, RB Ahman Green was halted for no gain to cap off a dramatic goal line stand. The Eagles finally drew even on the first play of the 4th quarter as McNabb eluded defensive lineman Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila and Cletidus Hunt to free himself in time to fire a strike to Pinkston from 12 yards out. The Packers drove inside the Eagles 5-yard line once again in the 4th quarter, but managed just a field goal by Ryan Longwell to give the Packers their final lead at 17-14.

NOTES: McNabb set an NFL playoff record for most rushing yards by a quarterback (11-107) ... Staley and Chad Lewis overtook Keith Byars and Harold Carmichael (29) for most catches in Eagles playoff history ... McNabb became the Eagles all-time leader in career touchdown passes during the postseason ... The Eagles played without Pro Bowl CB Troy Vincent (hip injury).

SUNDAY, JANUARY 18, 2004
CAROLINA 14, PHILADELPHIA 3
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,862

The Carolina Panthers took advantage of four interceptions (three by rookie CB Ricky Manning, Jr.) and an injury to Eagles quarterback Donovan McNabb to earn their first Super Bowl appearance by defeating the Eagles, 14-3. As a result, the Eagles dropped their third consecutive NFC Championship Game. Late in the 2nd quarter, McNabb suffered a rib injury after a questionable hit by LB Greg Favors, who pounced on McNabb after a sack by Mike Rucker. Although he missed one play at the time, McNabb fought through the injury until early in the 4th quarter when he was replaced by Koy Detmer for the remainder of the contest. At the time of McNabb's injury the Eagles trailed 7-0 after a 24-yard touchdown pass from Jake Delhomme to Muhsin Muhammad early in the 2nd quarter. On the drive McNabb was injured, the Eagles eventually got on the scoreboard with a 41-yard field goal by David Akers. Later in that quarter, an injured McNabb threw the first of his three interceptions, thwarting a chance to get some points on the board before halftime. On their first possession of the 2nd half, the Eagles used the run game to march to the Panthers 18-yard line, but an interception by Manning stopped a scoring opportunity. After the Eagles defense forced another punt, Eagles WR James Thrash was thumped by safety Mike Minter after a catch, but the ball was jarred loose and ended up in the hands of Manning, who returned it to the Eagles 37. Five plays later, RB DeShaun Foster made the Eagles pay as he broke three tackles en route to a one-yard TD run, giving the Panthers a commanding 14-3 lead. McNabb played two more series before giving way to Detmer, who led a drive to the Panthers 11-yard line with 5:22 remaining. But Carolina LB Dan Morgan intercepted a pass that all but ended the Eagles comeback hopes.

NOTES: With 384 career postseason rushing yards, RB Duce Staley moved past Steve Van Buren (365) and Donovan McNabb (327) to move into 2nd place on the club's all-time list. Staley had 112 total yards from scrimmage.

1943 STEAGLES

With the shortage of manpower due to World War II, the Eagles and Steelers merged for the 1943 football season to become the Steagles. The Steagles, who finished their only season 5-4-1, split their home games between Philadelphia's Shibe Park and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field.

WHAT WAS THE PLAYOFF BOWL ?

Following the 1961 and 1966 seasons, the Eagles participated in the Playoff Bowl. If case you never heard of the Playoff Bowl, here's the scoop. From 1960-1969, the National Football League took each conference's runner-up and matched them up in a consolation game at the Orange Bowl in Miami. The Eagles, by the way, lost both of their Playoff Bowl appearances (28-10 to Detroit in 1962 and 20-14 to Baltimore in 1967).

EAGLES ON FOREIGN SOIL

During their history, the Eagles have played four preseason games outside of the United States, compiling a 1-3 record along the way. The Eagles three most recent ventures abroad were as participants in the NFL's American Bowl series, a series that has included games in London, Berlin, and Tokyo. In 1989, Philadelphia opened its preseason with a victory over Cleveland in the fourth annual American Bowl in London, England. The Birds returned to London's Wembley Stadium two years later for the sixth American Bowl in Great Britain and fell to the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills in the preseason opener for both clubs. The results of the Eagles games on foreign soil are as follows:

August 5, 1978	vs. New Orleans	.....L 7-14	..Mexico City (Estadio Olimpico)
August 6, 1989	vs. Cleveland	.......W ...17-13	..London, England (Wembley Stadium)
July 28, 1991	vs. Buffalo	..........L ...13-17	..London, England (Wembley Stadium)
August 1, 1993	vs. New Orleans	.....L ...28-16	..Tokyo, Japan (Tokyo Dome)

1948 AND 1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

Honor Roll Inductee: 1999

No NFL team before or since ever posted consecutive shutouts in championship play. No NFL team can claim to be more dominant over a two-year period. The Eagles won back-to-back NFL Championships in 1948 and 1949, first shutting out the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, and then blanking the Los Angeles Rams, 14-0. The foundation of this team began in 1947, when the Eagles lost to the Cardinals, 28-21, in the championship game. Under legendary head coach Greasy Neale, Philadelphia finished the 1948 regular season with a 9-2-1 record and took on the Cardinals in the championship game with a foot of snow covering Shibe Park.

Superstar running back Steve Van Buren scored the game's only touchdown on a 5-yard TD run, while the defense limited the Cards to just 6 total first downs. The Eagles continued their dominance in 1949 with an 11-1 record in the regular season and a victory over the Rams in the championship game on a rain-soaked Los Angeles Coliseum field. Van Buren again led the Eagles' offensive charge as he rumbled for 196 yards on 31 carries. In those two seasons, the Eagles outscored their opposition 761-290. They were lovingly called "the duffel-bag dynasty." Many players were young men who had served their country in World War II and returned home trying again to settle into a regular life. Said Hall of Fame LB Chuck Bednarik, a rookie on the 1949 team, "I think we belong with the best teams ever. Look at what we accomplished."

Philadelphia Eagles

1933 — Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2,500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 — General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in the league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 — Eagles have first choice in the inaugural college draft and select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of the team with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 — Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-America quarterback, signs with the Eagles for a reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. O'Brien plays in every game and sets NFL passing yardage record with 1,324 yards. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and fell to the host Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC from Ebbett's field to the approximate 1,000 TV sets then in Brooklyn.

1940 — Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park (later known as Connie Mack Stadium). Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Steelers franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York, a 30-year old heir to a six million fortune in steel stocks.

1941 — Bell and Rooney swap franchises with Thompson, Rooney returning to Pittsburgh and Thompson taking over the Eagles. Bert Bell joins Rooney as a full-time partner in Pittsburgh. Thompson hires Earl (Greasy) Neale as head coach of the Eagles.

1943 — Eagles merge with Pittsburgh Steelers to form the "Steagles" due to manpower shortage during World War II. Merger dissolved at end of season.

1944 — First draft choice Steve Van Buren debuts as Eagles' halfback. Team finishes in second place with 7-1-2 record.

1945 — Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 838 rushing yards and 110 points.

1947 — Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time but the Chicago Cardinals earn the NFL title with a 28-21 victory at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 — Eagles win their first NFL championship, defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park.

1949 — Thompson sells the team to 100 buyers, each of whom paid $3,000 for one of the 100 shares. They were called the "Happy Hundred" or the "100 Brothers." Their leader was James P. Clark, a Philadelphia sportsman and business executive, and the 100 investors included some of the leading names in Philadelphia business, government, and politics, including Leonard Tose. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania All-America C/LB Chuck Bednarik is a 1st round draft choice. The Eagles win their 3rd straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 win over the Los Angeles Rams.

1951 — Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced by Wayne Millner. End-placekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.

1952 — Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.

1953 — Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.

1954 — Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third consecutive year with second straight 7-4-1 record.

1955 — Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.

1956 — Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.

1957 — Rookie QB Sonny Jurgensen highlights a 4-8 season by passing Eagles to a 17-7 upset of the NFL Eastern Division Champion Cleveland Browns.

1958 — Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.

1959 — With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

Philadelphia Eagles

1960 — QB Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay at Franklin Field. Van Brocklin, the league's MVP, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.

1961 — Nick Skorich is named head coach and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season as a passer and a 10-4 record, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions.

1962 — Injuries in unprecedented numbers hit Eagles as the team wins only three games and falls to last place.

1963 — RB Timmy Brown sets a then NFL record for total offense (2,436 yards; 841 rushing, 487 receiving, 11 passing, 945 kickoff returns, and 152 punt returns) in a season. With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and self-made millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charle Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season. CB Herman Edwards provided the "Miracle of the Meadowlands" when he scooped up a fumbled handoff from Joe Pisarcik to Larry Csonka and raced 26 yards for the winning touchdown with 20 seconds left to play before a stunned Giants Stadium crowd of 70,318.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allows (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 69 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL QBs).

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota.

1986 — Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game.

1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds' replacement team goes 0-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in non-strike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1988 — The Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that NY Jets' QB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles. Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the Pro Bowl. Cunningham, who sets a number of Eagles' single-season passing records and leads the club in rushing for the second straight season, earns Pro Bowl MVP honors. He also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 — The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense — which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks — to finish 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in head-to-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on Dec. 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovil passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from playing. CB Eric Allen led the NFC in interceptions with 8.

1990 — In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and time of possession (33:19) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). The defense led the NFL in stopping the run thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card Game loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. QB Randall Cunningham flourished with an NFC-leading 30 TD passes and 942 rushing yards, while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to make 17 TD receptions. RB Keith Byars tied a team record with 81 receptions and also threw 4 TD passes.

1991 — On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite, making him the 18th head coach in club history. They opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost QB Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. After coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined, the Birds suffered through a four-game skid. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. But a loss at home to Dallas in game 15 ended Philadelphia's playoff hopes. With a record of 10-6, the Eagles joined the 49ers as the only NFL clubs to post 10-or-more wins in each of the last four seasons. The defense finished the season ranked #1 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in sacks and fumble recoveries and tied for the league lead in takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl – DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt a huge blow before the season even began as all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham - out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury - as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. They finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 record and returned to the playoffs, earning a Wild Card victory over the Saints before dropping a Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Offensively, Walker became the fourth Eagle to top 1,000 rushing yards in a season and the first since Earnest Jackson in '85. Off the field, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 — In January, the NFL and the Players Association signed a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a 7-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles produced an 8-8 record. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-0 record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, season-ending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak (their worst skid since '83). Nonetheless, backup QB Bubby Brister led them to wins in 4 of their final 6 contests, a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season.

1994 — A new chapter in Eagles history began on April 6th when Norman Braman, the team's owner since 1985, reached an agreement in principle to sell the franchise to Jeffrey Lurie, a Boston native and president of a Hollywood-based movie production company. Once NFL owners voted to approve the sale on May 6th, Lurie officially took over the club on May 17. Despite losing the opener, the Birds bounced back to win 7 of their next 8 contests, including a 40-8 thumping of the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. However, the Eagles went on to drop their last 7 games, finishing 7-9 and out of the playoffs for the second consecutive season. Two days after the season finale, Rich Kotite's 4-year reign as head coach ended when he was dismissed. RB Herschel Walker etched his name into the NFL record books as the first player in the 75-year history of the league to record a 90-plus yard run, reception, and kickoff return in a single season. To appreciate the uniqueness of this feat, one need only note that just one other player - Hall-of-Famer Bobby Mitchell - had previously recorded that trifecta in a career. With back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances at SF and vs. Wash., rookie RB Charlie Garner became only the 7th back in NFL history to eclipse the century mark in his first two contests. DE William Fuller, a free agent acquisition from Houston, notched at least one sack in 7 straight games and subsequently broke the club record of 6 consecutive games shared by Reggie White and Clyde Simmons.

1995 — On February 2, owner Jeffrey Lurie named Ray Rhodes as the 19th head coach in team history. Eleven months and a playoff victory later, that decision resulted in numerous NFL coach of the year honors for Rhodes. In just his first season at the helm, the former San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator battled through major roster turnover, a slew of injuries to key personnel, an early season QB change, and a sluggish 1-3 start to put the Eagles back on the winning track. Following that 1-3 start, Rodney Peete took over at QB for Randall Cunningham and led them to 9 wins in their final 12 games. The result was a 10-6 record and a spot in the playoffs for the first time since 1992. RB Ricky Watters, one of the NFL's most prominent free agent acquisitions of the year (he left the 49ers for the Eagles on 3/25/95), combined with Charlie Garner to give Philadelphia the league's 4th best rushing attack. Watters was 6th in the league in rushing with a career-high 1,273 yards and 11 TDs. In the postseason, the Eagles routed the favored Detroit Lions, 58-37, in a Wild Card game. Philadelphia's season, ended, however, a week later as they bowed out to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 30-11, at Texas Stadium. At season's end, Watters, DE William Fuller (an NFC-high 13 sacks), and LB William Thomas (whose 7 INTs were the most by an NFL linebacker since 1983) represented the Eagles in the Pro Bowl. Off the field, team owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP). The charitable wing of the Eagles, EYP was formed in order to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children in the Greater Philadelphia region.

1996 — For the second consecutive year the Eagles compiled a 10-6 regular season record and earned a Wild Card playoff berth. As such, Ray Rhodes became the first coach to lead the Eagles into the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. In the NFC Wild Card game, however, the Eagles fell to the host San Francisco 49ers, 14-0, in rain-drenched 3Com Park. For the third time in six seasons, the Eagles lost their starting QB to injury early on as Rodney Peete ruptured a tendon in his right knee vs. Dallas on 9/30. Ty Detmer, the former Green Bay Packer and Heisman Trophy winner, led the Birds to four straight wins and teamed with WR Irving Fryar and RB Ricky Watters to fuel the conference's #1 offense (351.7 yds/game). Fryar recorded career highs in TDs (11) and receptions (a team-record 88) and also tied a Birds' single-game record with four TD catches vs. Miami on 10/20. Watters earned his fifth trip to the Pro Bowl - his second as an Eagle - with personal bests in rushing atts. (353), rushing yards (1,411), TDs (13), and total yards from scrimmage (a league-leading 1,855). DE William Fuller again led the Birds with 13 sacks en route to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl. MLB James Willis' interception in the end zone in the final moments of game 9 at Dallas sealed a win. Willis' theft off QB Troy Aikman and subsequent lateral to CB Troy Vincent resulted in a 104-yard TD return, the longest in NFL history. Prior to the season, the Birds had once again been one of the NFL's most aggressive teams in terms of free agency. The signing of Vincent from Miami, along with that of Watters from San Francisco the previous year, made Philadelphia the only team to land another club's "transition" free agent in 1995 and '96.

1997 — After a 4-6 start clouded the club's shot at the post-season, the Eagles turned to 2nd-year QB Bobby Hoying. A 2-0-1 record in his first three starts brought them back into contention, but ended the year with a 6-9-1 record. Injuries plagued the club as 42 different players started, including three different QBs (Ty Detmer, Rodney Peete and Hoying). WR Irving Fryar posted 86 receptions for a career-high 1,316 yards, including a team-record six 100-yd. games. RB Ricky Watters became the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in three consecutive campaigns. The defensive unit's most memorable performance came in a win vs. Green Bay as they held the Pack without a TD, snapping a string of 85 straight games (including playoffs) in which they had scored a TD.

1998 – A disappointing 3-13 season led to the dismissal of head coach Ray Rhodes on December 28th, one day after the season finale. In Rhodes' fourth season at the helm, the Eagles never could get on track as they slipped to 0-5 before posting their first win. RB Duce Staley led the Eagles in rushing (1,065 yards), receptions (57), total yards from scrimmage (1,497), and TDs (6) as he became the first Eagle draft pick to top the 1,000-yd. rushing plateau since Wilbert Montgomery did so in 1981. On defense, the Eagles procured one of the league's top, young pass rushers - Hugh Douglas - in a trade with the Jets. Douglas led the Eagles and finished 7th in the NFL with a career-high 12.5 sacks, including a club-tying record of 4.5 at San Diego.

1999 – Former Green Bay quarterback coach Andy Reid was named head coach on January 11th. Three months later, the club used the 2nd overall draft choice to select QB Donovan McNabb, one of the most accomplished athletes to ever come out of Syracuse. With their revamped roster, the Eagles got off to a 2-7 start, prompting Reid to insert McNabb into the starting lineup for six of the final seven contests. In his first start on Nov. 14th vs. Washington, McNabb sparked the Eagles to a 35-28 win over the Redskins. RB Duce Staley garnered his second straight 1,000-yd. rushing season and accounted for a NFL-best 41% of his team's offense. New defensive coordinator Jim Johnson turned up the heat as his troops accounted for a league-best 46 take-aways, including 28 interceptions (3rd in NFL), five of which were returned for TDs (a team record). FS Brian Dawkins and CB Troy Vincent earned their first Pro Bowl team selections. Vincent's 7 INTs tied for the league lead and became the first Eagle to top the entire NFL in INTs since 1972 (Bill Bradley). Although the Eagles finished with a 5-11 record, Reid implemented a positive attitude as the Eagles possessed one of the youngest teams in the NFL. At season's end, there were 14 true rookies on the roster.

2000 – Andy Reid, the NFL's coach of the year by the Maxwell Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest, led the Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5. The season started with a perfectly executed onsides kick by David Akers to kickoff the season opener at Dallas, leading to a 41-14 win. The Eagles won 10 of their next 13 contests and earned the top Wild Card spot in the NFC. In the playoffs, the Eagles overwhelmed Tampa Bay, 21-3, before losing to the eventual NFC Champion NY Giants in the Divisional Playoffs. When RB Duce Staley went down for the season with a foot injury in game 5, Donovan McNabb became a legitimate MVP candidate (he finished 2nd in AP voting to Rams RB Marshall Faulk). McNabb accounted for 74.6% of the team's total net yards and broke the club's single season record for most attempts (569) and completions (307). TE Chad Lewis led all NFC tight ends in receptions (69) and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. The defense featured 3 Pro Bowlers in CB Troy Vincent, DE Hugh Douglas (15 sacks, 2 in playoffs), and MLB Jeremiah Trotter. First round draft choice DT Corey Simon recorded a rookie team-record 9.5 sacks. A full-time kicker for the first time, Akers etched his name into the club's record book for most points (121).

2001 — The Eagles captured their first NFC Eastern Division Championship since 1988 and their first appointment in the NFC title game since 1980. Adversity hit this club early and often. The first preseason game was cancelled due to problems with the Veterans Stadium NeXturf. Starting C Bubba Miller was lost to a season-ending foot injury. And they dropped their season opener in overtime to the Rams before true adversity devastated the entire world on September 11th when terrorist attacks struck the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. As a result, a week's worth of NFL games were postponed. The Eagles were 2-2 before beating the Giants, 10-9, on Monday Night Football for the first time since 1996 (a span of nine games). The Eagles won 8 of their last 10 games, including a dramatic 24-21 win over the Giants on December 30 to clinch the NFC East title. In the playoffs, the Eagles defeated the Bucs again, 31-9, and in the Divisional playoffs, Donovan McNabb made his homecoming to Chicago a sweet one, winning 33-19 at Soldier Field. McNabb threw for a career-high 25 touchdown passes in the regular season and 5 five more in the playoffs. The Pro Bowlers on defense were DE Hugh Douglas, MLB Jeremiah Trotter, CB Troy Vincent, and FS Brian Dawkins. The unit allowed the 2nd fewest point total in the NFL (208), including a league low 64 points permitted in 8 road games. In fact, their 7-1 road record was the best in franchise history. David Akers earned his first Pro Bowl berth with 115 points and set a club record with 17 consecutive FGs made.

2002 — In the 31st and final season at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles set a team record for points scored (415), tied a team record for wins (12), and sent a league-high 10 players to the Pro Bowl. However, they fell in the NFC Championship game for the second consecutive season. Andy Reid, the consensus coach of the year, proved that the Eagles were not a one-man show, winning five of six games without Donovan McNabb (broken ankle). McNabb returned for the playoffs and directed a win over Atlanta in the Divisional playoff. 3rd stringer A.J. Feeley started the final five games of the regular season, winning his first four. Although the Eagles lost their season finale to the Giants, they were still able to clinch home field after the Jets trounced the Packers in the same stadium one day later. The defense finished in the top five in numerous categories, including points allowed, takeaways, and sacks and sent four players to the Pro Bowl: CB Troy Vincent, CB Bobby Taylor, FS Brian Dawkins, and DE Hugh Douglas. The offensive line also featured multiple Pro Bowl selections for the first time since 1980 with Tra Thomas, Jon Runyan and Jermane Mayberry. David Akers set a team record with 133 points to earn his 2nd consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

2003 — In a season marred with injuries, controversy, and a slow start, the Eagles forged their way to a third consecutive NFC East division title and their third straight trip to the NFC title game. Although they came up short in that contest to the visiting Carolina Panthers, the Eagles revamped roster provided many memorable moments. Lincoln Financial Field officially became the Eagles new nest with a season-opening Monday night contest vs. Tampa Bay. But the Eagles not only lost their first two contests (a 17-0 shutout to the Bucs and a 31-10 drubbing by the Patriots), they were left without the services of Pro

Bowl defensive backs Brian Dawkins and Bobby Taylor for a large chunk of the regular season with foot injuries. Already playing without starting DE Derrick Burgess (Achilles) and rookie DE's Jerome McDougle (ankle) and Jamaal Green (ankle), the injury bug continued to spread like a rampant virus. Two key reserve DTs Paul Grasmanis (Achilles) and Hollis Thomas (biceps), and RG Jermane Mayberry (elbow) were lost for the season before the calendar reached November, while LB Carlos Emmons (ankle) and RB Brian Westbrook (triceps) were felled by season-ending ailments in December. Remarkably, as the injuries mounted so did the wins. In fact, after a 2-3 start, the Eagles rattled off nine straight wins, tying a team record previously set during their 1960 NFL Championship season. That win streak was propelled by an improbable win at Giants Stadium on October 19. Trailing the Giants 10-7 with 1:34 remaining, no timeouts and a sputtering offense, Westbrook fielded a bouncing punt and raced 84 yards for the dramatic, game-winning score. During that win streak, the Eagles toughed out crucial wins at Green Bay with a last-minute, game-winning drive directed by Donovan McNabb, at Carolina, vs. Dallas, and at Miami. Although they stumbled in a week 15 contest vs. San Francisco, the Eagles managed to gain home-field advantage in the playoffs for the 2nd straight season. Indeed, McNabb was a major component of the Eagles reversal of fortunes. After suffering through a paltry QB rating of 51.1 in the first six games, a nagging thumb injury in his throwing hand, and disgraceful, racial commentary by former ESPN analyst Rush Limbaugh following the 0-2 start, McNabb thrived. Over the last 10 regular season contests, he registered an eye-popping 98.5 QB rating fueling his 4th consecutive berth in the Pro Bowl. Along the way, he garnered NFC offensive player of the month honors in November, leading Philadelphia to a 5-0 month. In the playoffs, he engineered a come-from-behind win vs. Green Bay and set an NFL playoff rushing record for QBs (107 yards) before suffering a rib injury a week later vs. Carolina that sidelined him in the 4th quarter. The Eagles employed a unique running back trio (Westbrook, Correll Buckhalter, and Duce Staley), dubbed the "three-headed monster," that racked up 1,618 rushing yards, 2,465 total yards from scrimmage, and 29 total TDs. Despite giving up the ball 8 times during their 0-2 start, the team established a club record for fewest turnovers in a season with 22. They also turned in a franchise-record 6 games without a give-away.

EAGLES TELEVISION NETWORK

In 1997 the Philadelphia Eagles formed the Eagles Television Network (ETN). CBS-3 (formerly KYW-3) has been a broadcast partner of ETN the past four seasons, and is ETN's flagship station. Other members of the broadcast Network are UPN – 57 Comcast SportsNet, and in the outlying markets, WOLF – Scranton/Wilkes Barre and WPMT – Harrisburg/York/Lancaster.

ETN combines state of the art programming with exclusive access to the field, locker room and the personal lives of our players and coaches. ETN earned 16 regional Emmy nominations in 2003, and has totaled 16 wins and 64 nominations in the last six years. Other awards include 19 national Telly Awards over the past four years as well as multiple local awards in the Philadelphia region.

ETN is housed within Lincoln Financial Field and is headed by Director of Broadcasting and Executive Producer, Rob Alberino. Along with Alberino a production crew of 6 fully executes the Networks productions not only for broadcast but within the stadium as well.

In 2004, ETN will produce the following programs...

Eagles Preseason Games – The Eagles Television Network will broadcast two preseason games in 2004, starting August 13th at the New England Patriots. For the fifth straight year Eagles great Ron Jaworski will provide color analysis, and is joined this year with play-by-play announcer Dave Simms. CBS-3 / UPN 57 will carry the games in Philadelphia while WPMT airs the games to our fans in Harrisburg, York and Lancaster, and WOLF airs the games in Scranton-Wilkes Barre. Each game is re-aired after the live broadcast on the previously mentioned ETN affiliate stations.

Inside The Eagles with Andy Reid presented by Chrysler/Jeep – UPN-57 will air this 60-minute program this season. The show will be a true "inside" look at the lives of both the players and coaches. Off the field features highlight the personalities and excitement that surrounds the team with exclusive footage privy to the ETN cameras. Eagles Insider Dave Spadaro gives viewers the latest Eagles news while NFL Films Director of Archives Ace Cacchiotti takes us back in time to some of the greatest moments in team history.

The Donovan McNabb Show – Hosted by CBS-3 sports anchor Beasley Reese, this program will not only bring viewers closer to the biggest star in Philadelphia, it will also go inside the locker room as well as go on location with Eagles players and coaches. This half hour show will air every Sunday morning at 11 am on CBS-3, and is a showcase of some of the best ETN has to offer.

Eagles Total Access presented by Sovereign Bank – The fastest half-hour on Philadelphia television airs on CBS-3 Sunday nights at 11:35 pm. See all the highlights from the game, one on one interviews with players, and exclusive locker room access only ETN cameras can provide.

EAGLES IN THE COMMUNITY

Eagles' Philosophy of Community Involvement Starts at the Top

In addition to being responsible for the founding and operation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the club's non-profit, charitable wing, Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie, and team President Joe Banner, are both personally committed to improving the lives of children.

Foremost among Lurie's passions is the fight against autism, a biological disorder of the brain that impairs communication and social skills, basically rendering children, and later adults, unable to communicate their feelings and emotions. It is a fight he takes personally since he has a brother who is autistic. A director of both the NLM Family Foundation and the Autism Research Foundation, Lurie's involvement has been lifelong. In 2003, Lurie and his wife Christina chaired The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Daisy Day Luncheon benefiting autism. In 2000, the Lurie family donated $1,000,000 to autism research.

Similarly, Banner's passion revolves around City Year, a non-profit community service organization that brings together young adults from diverse backgrounds for a challenging and rewarding year of community service. Throughout the country, over 1,500 corps members, from all races, economic and social backgrounds, tutor, mentor and support children of all ages. They help them develop their potential and play a more active role in their schools, homes and neighborhoods. Banner serves as Co-Chair of City Year Greater Philadelphia.

Players in the Community

In addition to taking part in various events on behalf of EYP, players often participate in community events by serving as reading mentors at local schools, and by speaking at youth summits about the importance of staying in school and staying away from drugs. Players also frequently welcome special children on visits to the team's summer training camp as well as to the club's year-round headquarters, the NovaCare Complex.

The contribution of time and effort to the community by Eagles players is not limited to those few acts, though. Here's a brief list of other activities Eagles players have taken part in:

- LB Mark Simoneau, FS Clinton Hart, and DT Paul Grasmanis helped dedicate EYP's mural entitled "Moving Towards Your Dreams." The mural is the largest in the City of Philadelphia.
- K David Akers spoke to kids at Rosa International Middle School about healthy eating habits on behalf of the NJ Department of Agriculture for National School Lunch Week

- RB Correll Buckhalter, DT Paul Grasmanis, LB Ike Reese, and C Alonzo Ephraim dressed up as the Scarecrow, Bob the Builder, Spiderman, and Dracula, respectively, when they visited kids at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia for Halloween
- TE Chad Lewis went on a good will tour of the Far East on behalf of the NFL
- T Tra Thomas literally donated his head to science when he allowed it to be molded for a permanent exhibit at the Franklin Institute Science Museum
- S Brian Dawkins has done a PSA for the Burn Prevention Foundation
- DT Hollis Thomas joined the Army National Guard for a trip in a Blackhawk helicopter
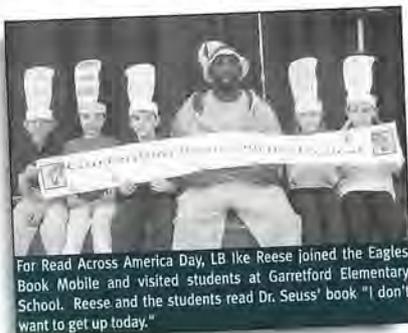

For Read Across America Day, LB Ike Reese joined the Eagles Book Mobile and visited students at Garretford Elementary School. Reese and the students read Dr. Seuss' book "I don't want to get up today."

- T Jon Runyan has donated his time and been included as a supporter of Variety Club and Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in local advertising campaigns
- At Thanksgiving, the Eagles hold a stadium-wide food drive to benefit the Greater Philadelphia Food Bank. The past four drives were record-breaking endeavors as fans donated over 11,000 pounds of food at each drive
- Later in each holiday season, the Eagles host a highly successful Book & Toy Drive which results in tens of thousands of toys being donated to the United States Marines "Toys for Tots" effort.

United Way

As part of the NFL's partnership with the United Way, the Philadelphia Eagles work closely with the Southeastern Pennsylvania chapter of this nationwide charity. The Eagles participate annually in the Hometown Huddle event, which takes place in October. On this day, each NFL team partners with local United Way agencies to positively influence their community.

EAGLES IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles worked with Children and Adult Disability Education Services (C.A.D.E.S.). Four players spent the day with children from C.A.D.E.S. decorating cookies and cupcakes, which were then sold, with the proceeds benefiting C.A.D.E.S. and EYP.

Additionally, this year, All-Pro safety Brian Dawkins is representing the club in the NFL's annual series of televised promotional spots for United Way. Dawkins' spot, will debut in September.

Player Foundations

Many Eagles players are active in the community through foundations of their own. Donovan McNabb, David Akers, Hollis Thomas, and Jevon Kearse have created their own foundations in order to support various causes in their hometowns and the Philadelphia-area community. For specific information on each of their foundations, please refer to the player bios in this media guide.

Every year QB Donovan McNabb visits with underprivileged children in the Philadelphia area during the holiday season. He is pictured here with Brooke at The Philadelphia Ronald McDonald House.

Hospital Visits

Eagles players and coaches frequently visit children and adults during their hospital stays. In particular, kicker David Akers routinely visits a Philadelphia-area children's hospital during the football season. Similarly, head coach Andy Reid also makes visits to local children's hospitals during the off-season.

Practice Visits

The Eagles regularly take the opportunity to host local children at private team practices. This type of visit is usually reserved for children who are generally too sick to attend a game, and always creates lasting memories.

Coaches

Eagles coaches, including head coach Andy Reid, donate their time to worthy causes. Many act as reading "coaches" in local schools. Coaches also develop individual programs for their player-position groups, and frequently take the groups into the community.
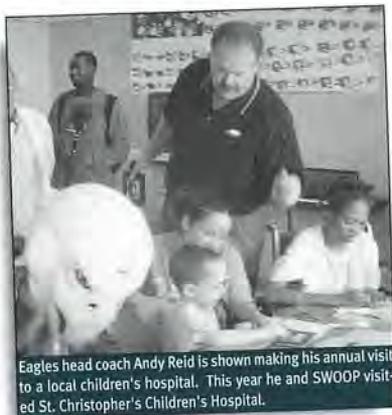

Eagles head coach Andy Reid is shown making his annual visit to a local children's hospital. This year he and SWOOP visited St. Christopher's Children's Hospital.

Magee Eagles Rugby Team

The Magee Eagles Wheelchair Rugby team is a competitive wheelchair team that wears authentic Eagles jerseys provided by the Philadelphia Eagles. Sponsored by Magee Rehabilitation Hospital and the Philadelphia Eagles, the Magee Eagles participate in numerous tournaments, including the Beast of the East Wheelchair Rugby Tournament here in Philadelphia. In 2003-04, the Magee Eagles had their most successful season to date, going 12-2 in the regular season. Also, for the first time in its 14-year history, the team was one of just eight from across the nation to qualify for the United States Wheelchair Rugby Association Division II National Championship Tournament.

NOTES

Philadelphia Eagles

GREEN IS MORE THAN JUST THE COLOR OF OUR JERSEYS.

Last year, as we moved to Lincoln Financial Field, we launched a "Go Green" initiative. The entire Philadelphia Eagles organization made a commitment to become an environmentally responsible company.

Our mission? "To create and sustain championship performance on the field and in the community through programs that promote the quality of life in our region, green the environment and to improve our impact on the planet."

Such a program, by its nature, requires breaking new ground. As we enter our second season, the program has produced a shift towards greener procurement practices, cleaner energy from wind sources, printing of our publications on recycled paper, and active recycling around our stadium, headquarters, and training facilities. As a result, green has become more than just the color of our jerseys. GO GREEN has become a rallying cry for our team and a good citizenship message for our community. We invite you to join us.

WHEN WE RECYCLE, EVERYBODY WINS.
