STEELER HISTORY

In their 48th year, the Pittsburgh Steelers can become the first team in pro football history to make the playoffs nine straight seasons. Entering this season, they share the record of eight with Dallas (1966-73). The 1980 Steelers also have the opportunity to become the first team to win three straight Super Bowls and only the third team to ever win three NFL titles in a row.

Last season Pittsburgh won an unprecedented fourth Super Bowl. It was the second time the Steelers have won two Super Bowls in a row and their total of four is twice as many as any other team. Since their playoff string began in 1972, they have compiled a 88-27-1 (.763) record which is the best in the NFL during that period.

The Steelers were founded in 1933 by Art Rooney and today are the fifth oldest team in the NFL. Until 1940 the team nickname was the Pirates.

Mr. Rooney was born in Coultersville, Pa. on January 26, 1901 and moved to Pittsburgh with his family when he was a year and a half old. He spent his boyhood on the site which Three Rivers Stadium now occupies and still lives just a five minute walk from the Steelers' home field.

He was an outstanding athlete and excelled in football, baseball and boxing. Knute Rockne wanted him to play at Notre Dame but he attended Indiana State (Pa.), Georgetown and Duquesne. In baseball he was signed by the Boston Red Sox and Chicago Cubs. An arm injury ended his major league ambitions. He was selected to represent the United States on the Olympic boxing team.

For the Steelers and other pro football teams, the early years were a struggle as they competed with major league baseball, then the national pastime, and college football, the more established and popular version of the gridiron sport. The Steelers played their home games at Forbes Field but often it was necessary to take the game to the fans. It was not unusual for home games to be held in places such as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, Louisville and New Orleans.

In 1938 Mr. Rooney shocked the sports world by signing Colorado All America Whizzer White to a contract calling for $15,800, an unheard of sum at that time in pro football. The NFL's first big-money player is now United States Supreme Court Justice Byron White.

It was not until 1942 that the Steelers had their first winning season. Sparked by rookie halfback Bill Dudley, a genuine triple threat who is now in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, they compiled a 7-4 record and finished second in the Eastern Division.

But this success was short-lived and the nucleus of a promising team was soon in the military. Because of the manpower shortage created by World War II, the Steelers combined forces with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 and the Chicago Cardinals the next season.

After the war the Steelers made another major move in an attempt to bring Pittsburgh a winner when Jock Sutherland was appointed head coach in 1946. Dr. Sutherland had become a legend in the city coaching the University of Pittsburgh.

Utilizing the single wing offense, he quickly had the Steelers headed in the right direction and they tied for the divisional title in 1947 before losing a playoff to Philadelphia.

Again fate was unkind to the Steelers when Sutherland died unexpectedly while on a scouting trip in the spring of 1948. He was succeeded by John Michelosen.

An era ended in 1952 when Joe Bach began his second term as the team's coach and the Steelers became the last pro club to abandon the single wing. Bach had the Steelers playing more exciting football and improved their performance to .500 in 1953 when he resigned because of failing health.

For the third time, Rooney called on his long-time friend, Walt Kiesling, to take over. He held forth until Buddy Parker arrived from Detroit in 1957 and gave Pittsburgh its best professional football until the present era.

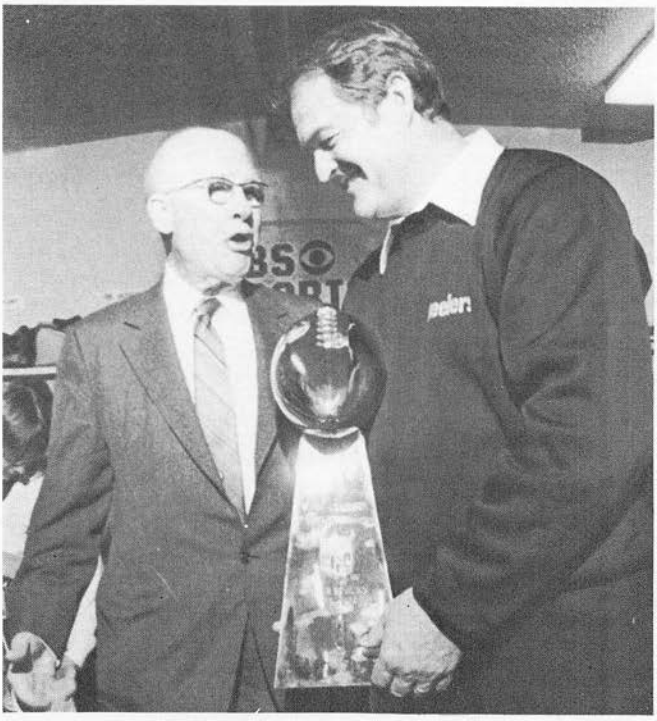

With the flamboyant Bobby Layne joining his former coach in 1958, the Steelers went 7-4-1 and started a string of four winning seasons in six years. However, they fell short of a title although the 1963 team could have delivered one if it had won its final game against the New York Giants.

In 1964 Art Rooney, Sr. was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. At about the same time, a transition was beginning to take shape in the front office. Dan and Art, Jr., the oldest of Mr. Rooney's five sons, became active in the organization on a full-time basis.

As youngsters both had performed menial duties in training camp and their life spans actually parallelled that of the Steelers. Dan's first formal assignment was selling ads and editing the program. Art, Jr. worked in the ticket office, specializing in group sales.

At 48 Dan is one of the most able and respected executives in sports. He currently serves on the three-member Executive Committee of NFL Properties and the same body of the Management Council and is on the

CHUCK NOLL

Head Coach

Chuck Noll is one of the most successful coaches in National Football League history. He is one of only four who have won four league championships. He and Vince Lombardi, who won five, are the only coaches to do it in the modern post-World War II era of the sport.

Now in his 12th season with the Steelers, the 48-year old Noll has the best record of any coach in the league since 1972. His teams have compiled a 88-27-1 (.763) regular season mark during this eight-year period and have made the playoffs in each of those seasons, winning the division title outright six times and tying for it in two other years. He can set a new pro football record in 1980 by making the playoffs for the ninth straight time, a mark he currently shares with Tom Landry of Dallas (1966-73).

In postseason play, Noll has a phenomenal 14-4 ((.778) record which is topped only by Lombardi's 9-1 (.900). Chuck has won four Super Bowls, twice as many as any other coach. He and Lombardi are the only coaches who have been in that classic more than once without losing.

In 1979, Noll became the 14th pro coach to win 100 regular season games. His overall record is 100-57-1 (.636). If you include postseason games he is 114-61-1 (.651), which elevates him to 12th place and just nine victories out of tenth.

If Noll can win his fifth Super Bowl this season, it will enable the Steelers to match Green Bay's incredible string of five championships in seven years, an accomplishment considered the most outstanding team feat in pro football history. Another title would enable him to become the third coach to win three straight league championships. Curly Lambeau (1929-31) and Lombardi (1965-76) are the others.

The 1980 season is Noll's 28th straight year in professional football. His NFL career began in 1953 when he was selected on the 21st round of the player draft by his hometown Cleveland Browns. He played seven years with them, three as a guard and four as a linebacker. He was on five teams that won Eastern Conference titles and two of those went on to capture NFL championships. At 27, he prematurely retired as a player to go into coaching, which had been his ultimate goal. When a position at the University of Dayton, his alma mater, did not materialize, he was the last man added to Sid Gillman's staff with the Los Angeles (now San Diego) Chargers who were being formed in 1960 to play in the new American Football League. In his six years as a defensive assistant with the Chargers, they won five division titles and two AFL crowns.

In 1966 he returned to the NFL in Baltimore as a defensive aide to Don Shula. In three years there the Colts lost just seven regular season games and won the NFL championship in 1968 before losing Super Bowl III to the New York Jets.

In 1969 Noll became the 14th man to coach the Steelers. The team had only four winning seasons in 19 years, and had only 18 victories in the previous five seasons.

The new Steelers' coach committed himself to building his team through the annual college drafts, and last season every player on the Steelers was a home-grown product, either selected in the draft or signed as a free agent immediately following the draft.

This has been the major factor in Noll's success. He and the efficient Steeler personnel department have done an excellent job in acquiring top-flight talent, and Noll has been patient enough to let it mature and develop.

One of Noll's greatest assets is his ability and desire to teach. Unlike many of his contemporaries, he enjoys this phase of his profession more than any other. This has been another key to his and the team's success. The tedious process of working on a man-to-man basis with players appeals to his teaching instincts.

Noll seldom makes trades. In the early years of his Steeler tenure, he resisted the temptation to make deals, some of which probably would have brought the team closer to respectability, but no closer to the ultimate objective of a championship. The Steelers have not made a trade in which they acquired a player since the spring of 1978 and during Chuck's 12 years in Pittsburgh, have made just five deals of this nature. His usual pattern is to trade expendable players for future draft choices. As a result, 13 players on the active roster at Super Bowl time last season were players drafted with extra picks.

Noll is very flexible in his strategy and has won in a variety of ways. He has played to his team's strengths and personnel. In the early winning years, the Steelers' success was basically the result of one of the greatest defenses in pro football history which was combined with a conservative ball-control offense. As the offense matured and rule changes were legislated that made it easier to throw the football, the style and image of the team was altered to capitalize on these changes. Now the offense has great balance and striking power, and with some player turnover on defense in recent seasons, this unit still remains among the best.

Noll's original task was not an easy one and success was not immediate. His initial act was drafting Joe Greene, which provided the nucleus of the great defense that followed. In his first season, the team won its opening game and lost the next 13. This gave the Steelers the first choice in the 1970 draft, which they used to pick Terry Bradshaw, who became the foundation of a potent offense. The record improved to 5-9 that year and to 6-8 in 1971.

In 1972 the Steelers surprised the pro football world with an 11-3 record, the best in the team's history, which earned them their first division title. They beat Oakland on a miraculous last-second touchdown in an opening round playoff game before losing in the AFC Championship game to Miami which went on to win its first Super Bowl. Noll was named AFC Coach of the Year by UPI.

The following season the Steelers made the playoffs again as a wild-card team before being eliminated by Oakland in the first round.

After posting the best regular season record in the league at 12-2 in 1974, the Steelers reached Noll's goal of an NFL championship. The march to the title was highlighted by one of the most incredible defensive performances ever, when Oakland was held to 29 yards rushing in the AFC title game and Minnesota to 17 in Super Bowl IX. Chuck became the third coach to win back-to-back Super Bowls the following season when the Steelers came from behind to beat Dallas in Super Bowl X.

After losing four of their first five games in 1976, Noll rallied his team to win ten in a row. However, the Steelers first bid to win three straight NFL titles fell short when they lost to Oakland in the championship game. Football News honored Chuck as its NFL Coach of the Year. The next year they lost to Denver in the first round of the playoffs, only the second time in eight years that has happened.

The Steelers again registered the league's best record of 14-2 in 1978 and became the first of the three teams that had won back-to-back Super Bowls to come back with an unprecedented third victory. They overcame a Dallas lead to defeat the Cowboys in Super Bowl XIII. It was the highest scoring Super Bowl ever and the most exciting to that point.

Last season their 12-4 mark was again the NFL's best, and they topped their performance of the previous year in Super Bowl XIV by rallying for 14 points in the fourth quarter to win their fourth SB title and their second pair of back-to-back victories in the big game.

Most of Chuck's day-to-day responsibilities involve the offense. He is in reality the offensive coordinator, working with the quarterbacks in meetings and practices. He also coaches the special teams.

By nature, he is a low-profile type and derives as much satisfaction in the daily routine of football as he does from the excitement of the games. He is a private person with the ability to relate well on a face-to-face basis. His relationship with his players is one of mutual respect but he can be tough when necessary.

Away from football, Chuck has a wide variety of interests which are unusual in their scope but truly reflect the type person he is. He is well-read and conversant on a myriad of subjects. He has his own plane which he utilizes to scout college players. His hobbies are golf, tennis, scuba diving, photography, gardening and he enjoys classical music. He is a wine connoisseur and food gourmet.

Chuck was born in Cleveland on January 5, 1932. He and his wife Marianne have a 22 year old son, Chris, who is a graduate student at Brown University.

ROLLIE DOTSCH
Offensive Line Coach

In just his second season as Offensive Line Coach, Rollie Dotsch did a tremendous job in 1979 under very difficult conditions.

In spite of injuries to several starters and their backups, the Steeler offensive line ranked high in all categories as the team had the best rushing average in the NFL and gave up the third fewest QB sacks in the AFC.

A testimony to Rollie's coaching ability was the play of the young replacements. They performed like veterans and maintained their poise through a series of important, pressure games.

Dotsch came into the league in 1971 with Green Bay as the offensive line coach. After four seasons there, he went to New England in 1975 to work with the linebackers and took the same position with Detroit for a year before joining the Steelers in 1978. In his two years in Pittsburgh, the team has won the Super Bowl twice.

Rollie is the only Steeler assistant who has head coaching experience at the college level. From 1966-70 he compiled a 33-15-1 record at Northern Michigan where he was also the Athletic Director. Prior to that he had been an assistant there, at Colorado and Missouri.

A graduate of Michigan State, Rollie lettered three years as a two-way lineman and played on the 1952 national championship team. He majored in History and earned his master's at Michigan in Secondary Education.

The 47-year-old Dotsch is a native of Escanaba, Michigan where he began his coaching career in 1956 at the high school level. He and his wife Carol have two daughters, Helen (19) and Molly (4), and one son, Michael (24).

DICK HOAK
Offensive Backfield Coach

Offensive backfield coach Dick Hoak is the only Steeler assistant who played pro football and brings to coaching the same outstanding qualities he possessed as a player for ten years in the NFL. He is intelligent and low-key and is a good teacher who has an excellent rapport with the players.

Since joining the staff in 1972 he has developed the team's running backs into a versatile and productive unit. Last year he did a superb job in using his personnel, particularly with the Bleier-Thornton tandem. The team led the NFL in average yards per rushing attempt and the three top backs not only had high averages but each set career marks for pass receptions. He has been instrumental in helping to make Franco Harris one of the greatest runners of all-time and was one of the first to recognize his great potential.

Dick was a halfback and quarterback at Penn State and was selected on the seventh round of the pro draft. He was used only as a running back with the Steelers from 1961-70. He was a complete player and a very resourceful one. He is the team's third leading rusher of all-time with 3,965 yards and was also an outstanding receiver and passer.

His best season was 1968 when he gained 858 yards to rank fourth in the NFL. He played in the Pro Bowl and was named to the All Eastern Conference team. He was selected as Pittsburgh's outstanding sports figure by the Dapper Dan Club.

Dick is a native of Jeannette, Pa. and will be 38 in December. He and his wife Lynn have two daughters, Kelly (15) and Katie (12), and a son, Richard (8). They live in Greensburg.

TOM MOORE
Receiver Coach

The Steeler receiving corps is one of the best in the history of pro football and has played a major role in the team's success, especially the last two years. The man behind the individual and collective accomplishments of this group is Receiver Coach Tom Moore.

Now in his fourth year with the Steelers, Tom arrived as the team was changing its offensive philosophy and was instrumental in the successful transition to a more wide open style of play. The key was the passing game and during the period since then the Steelers have had the ability to score from anywhere through the air.

In addition to tutoring the receivers, Tom has contributed greatly to the weekly game plan and in this position has been able to maximize the potential of the passing game.

The Steeler post is his second stint in pro football. In 1974, between assignments at the University of Minnesota, he was an offensive aide with the World Football League's New York Stars.

He began his coaching career in 1961 as the freshman coach at Iowa, his alma mater, where he lettered three years and played on the Big 10 titlist in 1958. After two years in coaching, he went into the Army for two more. From 1965-68 he was the offensive coordinator at Dayton. He filled the same position at Wake Forest for a year and spent another season at Georgia Tech as backfield coach. In 1972-73 he was at Minnesota and returned in 1975-76.

A native of Owatonna, Minn., Tom was an All America high school quarterback in Rochester. He will be 41 in November. He and his wife Willy have a daughter, Terry (15), and a son, Thomas (10).

GEORGE PERLES
Assistant Head Coach

As the assistant head coach, George Perles has a wide range of responsibilities. In addition to his primary duty as the defensive line coach, he relieves Chuck Noll of part of his workload by handling some administrative tasks. In this role he complements the head coach well and it still enables him to utilize his unique ability to relate to people, especially the players.

George joined the Steelers in 1972 and the team has made the playoffs every year since. At the time, the defensive line was the key to the Steeler success. It was his ability to fully develop this talented unit that was primarily responsible for establishing the team's incredible winning pattern. Since then he has skillfully made the necessary changes in personnel and strategy to maintain this level of excellence.

In 1978 George was promoted to defensive coordinator and the defense returned to its championship level. Last year he became the first assistant head coach ever for the Steelers.

Before going to Michigan State, George spent two years in the Army. In college he was a starting two-way tackle. He earned a master's in Physical Education.

His coaching career began in the high school ranks with a pair of two year stints in Chicago and Detroit, his hometown. His first college job was at Dayton as defensive coordinator in 1965. In 1967 he returned as an assistant at Michigan State and remained there until joining the Steelers.

The 46-year old Perles is a native of Detroit. He and his wife Sally have four children, one daughter, Kathleen (22) and three sons, Terrence (20), John (17) and Patrick (16).

PAUL URAM
Conditioning Coach

Paul Uram has been with the Steelers since 1972 as flexibility coach and this season takes on the added duties of strength coach. He also works with the special teams and kickers. His new title is Conditioning Coach.

The Steelers have made the playoffs each of the first eight years Paul has been on the staff. One reason for their success has been the limited amount of playing time lost to preventable injuries which is the intended function of the flexibility program. It has been designed to better prepare athletes for competition through stretching exercises.

Paul was a pioneer in this field and prior to joining the Steelers worked with several pro football and major league baseball teams. He has written a book on the subject which is titled "Refining Human Movement."

As strength coach also, he will continue the fine program instituted by Lou Riecke in 1970. Paul's long background in overall conditioning and his success in the field makes him a natural for the dual role. In both of these capacities, he works with the players daily in training camp and during the season. He tailors an individual flexibility and weight program for each of the players. These programs are particularly helpful for players rehabilitating Uram was an outstanding athlete in football, track and gymnastics. At Slippery Rock, he lettered in football and track. He has a master's in Physical Education from Pitt.

At Butler High School, he coached gymnastics and football. He is a member of the Helms and Western Pennsylvania Halls of Fame.

A native of Butler, Paul and his wife Helen live there with their son, Ron(23).

DICK WALKER
Defensive Backfield Coach

Defensive Backfield Coach Dick Walker is one of five former Big 10 assistants with the Steelers and the winning reputation he earned in his prior coaching experiences has carried over to Pittsburgh. The Steelers have won two Super Bowls since he was added to the staff in 1978.

In his two years with the team there has been a marked improvement in the secondary. Last year it allowed a completion rate of 47.1%, the lowest in the NFL, and had 27 interceptions to rank third in the AFC. The team is now deeper in the defensive backfield than ever before.

Dick's only previous pro coaching assignment was with New England in 1977 and while he was there the Patriots had one of the NFL's top secondarys. He began his career at Cathedral Latin High in Cleveland in 1957 and moved to Watterson High in Columbus. In seven seasons there he compiled a 51-11-3 record and won the state title in 1966.

From there he moved into college coaching and spent 1967-68 as an assistant at Toledo. In 1969 he went to work for Woody Hayes at Ohio State and remained through 1976. The Buckeyes were a perennial national power and won or tied for seven Big 10 titles. Their strength was in their defense and Walker helped develop six All America backs.

Dick lettered three years as a center and linebacker at John Carroll where he majored in History. He was an All Conference choice twice.

Dick is 47. He and his wife Eleanor have two sons, Brad (23), and Tom (17), and a daughter, Kim (20). They live in Upper St. Clair.

WOODY WIDENHOFER
Defensive Coordinator

Although he is just 37, Defensive Coordinator Woody Widenhofer is in his eighth season with the Steelers and his 16th year of coaching. His accomplishments are very impressive and he is a prime prospect for a future head coaching post.

Actually his present post is his third assignment with the Steelers. He began as linebacker coach in 1973 and developed the skills of All Pros Jack Ham and Jack Lambert. Shortly after, he brought along the younger players and now Robin Cole and Dennis Winston are on the verge of stardom. In 1978 he took over the entire secondary which resulted in a dramatic improvement.

In Woody's first year as the coordinator last season, the Steeler defense had greater versatility and was more flexible than at any time since the team started winning in 1972. This enabled this unit to overcome a series of injuries and utilize its tremendous depth, a situation he played a major role in creating.

Widenhofer came to the Steelers from the Minnesota where he spent one season as the linebacker coach. That was preceded by a year at Eastern Michigan as the defensive coordinator. His first college post was at Michigan State in 1969-70 where he also earned his master's degree in Physical Education.

An injury at Missouri ended his playing career after he lettered two years as a linebacker and led to coaching. He began with four years at the high school level in Detroit.

Woody spent the first years of his life in Butler, Pa. before moving to Detroit where he was an outstanding high school athlete.

RALPH BERLIN
Trainer

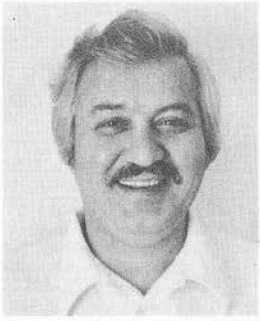

Ralph Berlin is the Steelers' head trainer and is in his 13th season with the team. He had previous pro experience with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Ralph was born in Pasadena, California but grew up in Philadelphia. After completing high school, he enlisted in the Marine Corps for three years.

In 1958 at Iowa State, Berlin's playing career was shortened by a knee injury.

After finishing college as a physical education major, Ralph went into training on a full-time basis at DePauw (Ind.) and Kentucky. During this period, he earned his master's in health and safety.

Ralph and his wife Dee have a daughter Beth (18) and a son Steven (16).

TONY PARISI
Equipment Manager

A transplanted Canadian who found his way from hockey to football, Tony Parisi is in his 16th year with the Steelers. He is the team's equipment manager and is responsible for the purchasing, care and reconditioning of the equipment. He was the trainer of the Pittsburgh Hornets' hockey team for four years before coming to the Steelers. He played pro hockey as a goaltender. Tony and his wife Joan have two daughters, Paula (15) and (11).

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT

DICK HALEY
Director of Player Personnel

Dick Haley has been in his present position since 1971. During this period, the Steelers have earned an excellent reputation for their ability to draft college players and he has made a major contribution to the team's success in this area. He spends most of the football season away from home scouting pro prospects. A native of Midway, Pa., Dick was a star halfback at Pitt from 1955-59 and played on the Sugar and Gator Bowl teams. He was a defensive back in the NFL from 1959-65 with Washington, Minnesota and the Steelers. He served five seasons with the scouting combine of BLESTO as an area scout in the south before moving into his present post.

BILL NUNN, JR.
Assistant Director of Player Personnel

Bill Nunn began his career with the Steelers in 1968 when he worked on a part-time basis as a scout. In 1970, he assumed his present duties and in that role has been instrumental in building the current team.

Bill is a Pittsburgh native and was an outstanding basketball player. He attended West Virginia State College. Before joining the Steelers, he had been the Sports Editor of the Pittsburgh Courier and still selects that publication's annual All-America team.

TOM MODRAK
Pro Talent Scout

Tom Modrak is a native of Pittsburgh and is a graduate of Indiana (Pa.) University where he was a linebacker. After five years as a part-time scout for the Steelers, he joined the scouting combine of BLESTO in 1978 and a year later returned to Pittsburgh. His primary responsibility is to scout the Steelers' next opponent.

BOB SCHMITZ
Talent Scout-West Coast

Bob Schmitz played college football at Montana State. He was the Steelers' 14th round draft choice in 1961 and played six seasons as a linebacker. In 1966, he finished his playing career with Minnesota. He then went into scouting with BLESTO and in 1976 was added to the Steeler staff.

JOE KRUPA
College Talent Scout

After an outstanding college career at Purdue, Joe Krupa was the Steelers' second draft choice in 1956 and played nine years with the team, making the Pro Bowl in 1964. Before joining the team's scouting department in 1979, he had coached 14 years in the high school ranks in the Chicago area and one year of junior college.

PRO: Moved into fourth place on the Steelers' all-time rushing list in 1979 with 3,525 yards and needs 441 to pass Dick Hoak (3,965) . . . Started seven regular season and the Houston and Los Angeles postseason games, his fewest starts since he became a regular in 1974 . . . Even though he was a part-time player early in the season, had one of his best years with 434 yards and a career-high 4.7 average . . . Excelled as a pass receiver, a role he frequently specialized in early in the season, and had a career-high 31 receptions . . . Had his best game vs. St. Louis with 73 yards rushing and 44 yards receiving and sparked a great 17-point fourth quarter rally . . . Had the longest run of his career of 70 yards (TD) vs.

Continued . . .

Cleveland . . . Scored TDs in the first two playoff games and his great third down catch vs. Houston kept the Steelers' final scoring drive alive . . . Teamed with Franco Harris for the first time in 1974 and he developed into one of the best blocking backs in pro history . . . During this period the team has won four of six Super Bowls . . . Played one of his best games that season in the AFC Championship vs. Oakland, gaining a personal postseason high of 98 yards . . . Had his best season in 1976 when he rushed for 1,036 yards to rank fourth in the AFC and is only the third Steeler to reach the 1,000-yard mark . . . Harris also gained over 1,000 that season and it was only the second time ever that two players from one team reached that level in the same season, matching the feat of Miami's Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris in 1972 . . . Combined with Harris to equal another NFL record when each rushed for 100 yards in back-to-back games which has been done just four times . . . Had his first 100-yard game in 1975, a 163-yard performance vs. Green Bay which is the second best by a Steeler since 1970, and brings a total of five into the 1980 season . . . Made a great leaping catch for a TD in SB XIII vs. Dallas to put the Steelers ahead for good . . . Was drafted into the Army near the end of his rookie season in 1968 and suffered foot and leg injuries in Vietnam in August, 1969 that required extensive surgery, jeopardizing his career . . . After missing all of 1969, made a remarkable recovery and spent all but the final game of the 1970 season on the taxi squad . . . Before becoming a starter was one of the best special teams players in the league and still performs very effectively in that capacity on a limited basis . . . At 34 is the second oldest RB in the league and the second oldest Steeler . . . Will again share playing time with the younger Sidney Thornton . . . Won the Halas Award as the NFL's Most Courageous Player in 1974 . . . In 1975 won the Whizzer White Humanitarian Award and the Vince Lombardi Award from the Wisconsin Pro Football Writers . . . Was named the Most Courageous Athlete of the Decade by the Cleveland Touchdown Club.

HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (3rd in '70)
COLLEGE—Southern
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—205
NFL EXP.—11
GAMES PLAYED—'70 (14), '71 (14), '72 (14), '73 (14), '74 (13), '75 (14), '76 (14), '77 (14), '78 (16), '79 (16)

PRO: Has been one of the mainstays of the great Steeler defenses since the team first started winning in 1972 . . . At 32 is still one of the fastest CBs in pro football and consistently excels against the top WRs . . . Handles single coverages as well as anyone in the NFL . . . Has missed just one regular season game in 10 seasons and has played in 143 out of a possible 144, the last 74 in a row . . . With 42 interceptions is second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL among active players . . . Needs eight interceptions to become the 18th player in NFL history to get 50 and the reaching of this significant milestone could pave way to the Hall of Fame . . . Should eventually finish in the all-time Top Ten . . . Is second on the Steelers' all-time list behind Jack Butler who had 52 . . . In recent years opponents have been reluctant to throw in his area, especially deep, and this has limited his interception opportunities . . . Had three in 1979 with two coming in division games . . . Nineteen of his 42 interceptions have been vs. Central Division foes . . . Played in the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in five years . . . Named to AP All NFL 2nd team and UPI All AFC 2nd team . . . Was a third round draft choice in 1970 and the fifth defensive back selected . . . Was used as a kickoff returner in his rookie season and averaged 28.3 yards which is still the second best in Steeler history . . . Became a regular in 1972, the first year Pittsburgh made the playoffs . . . Had his most spectacular season in 1975 when he set a Steeler record and led the league in interceptions with 11, the first to do so since Bill Dudley in 1946 . . . Was named the NFL's Most Valuable Defensive Player and was a unanimous All Pro . . . Was elected MVP by his teammates . . . Played in the Pro Bowl for the first time . . . In three games had two interceptions and was the 11th player in league history to intercept a pass in six straight games . . . In the playoffs that year, his interception vs. Baltimore late in the third quarter was a key play and set up the Steelers' go-ahead TD . . . In SB IX in 1974 his interception on the goal-line ended Minnesota's most serious scoring threat . . . Another interception vs. Dallas in SB XIII stopped a Cowboy drive and led to the TD that put the Steelers ahead to stay . . . Was the MVP in the 1977 Pro Bowl when he had two interceptions . . . Has scored two TDs, one on a 35-yard fumble return vs. Dallas in 1972 and the other on a 52-yard interception return vs. Philadelphia in 1974.

COLLEGE: Played both S and CB . . . Selected to Sporting News, Pro Scouts and Pittsburgh Courier All America teams in 1969 . . . Team MVP final two seasons . . . Physical Education major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Slidell, La . . . Married (Leslie) . . . Has one daughter (Tanisia, 11) . . . Raises quarter horses on a farm he owns in Georgia . . . Rides show horses in competition . . . Is a very active campaign worker for President Carter.

PRO: Has won more league championships than any QB in history except Bart Starr . . . Can equal the latter's record with his fifth in 1980 . . . Had his two greatest seasons the last two years and is the indispensable man on the Steeler roster . . . Followed his sensational 1978 performance with his best season statistically last year . . . Set team and personal records for attempts (472), completions (259) and yards (3,724), becoming the first Steeler to ever throw for 3,000 yards . . . Was third in the NFL in total yardage . . . Had the first 300-yard regular season games of his career, topping that total three times in a five game span vs. Washington (311), Cleveland (364) and Cincinnati (339) . . . Threw four touchdown passes in a regular season game for the first time against the Redskins . . . Had at least one TD pass in 17 of 19 games and was second in the NFL with 26 TD passes . . . For the second year in a row was the most productive postseason player in the league and won the Most Valuable Player award in the Super Bowl a second consecutive year, matching Starr's feat . . . The two are the only players to earn the honor more than once . . . Completed 53 of 82 passes for 64.6 percent and six TDs in three postseason games to continue his career pattern of performing better in the playoffs than the regular season . . . Was 14 for 21 (66.7 percent) with two TDs for 309 yards in the SB vs. Los Angeles . . . Scoring passes were 47 and 73 yards . . . In four Super Bowls is 49 for 84 (58.3 percent) for 932 yards with nine TD passes and only three interceptions . . . Holds Super Bowl career records for yards passing (932) and TD passes (9) . . . Owns single game SB marks for yards (318) and TDs (4), both vs. Dallas in SB XIII and his 75-yard TD pass to John Stallworth in that game equalled the longest pass play in SB history . . . Is the NFL's all-time postseason leader in attempts (417), completions (233), yards (3,508), average yards per attempt (8.41) and TD passes (28) . . . SB XIII climaxed his greatest season to date . . . During that season (1978) he became the first Steeler to win a passing title when he led the AFC with a rating of 84.8, one tenth of a point less than NFL leader Roger Staubach . . . Topped the league in TD passes in 1978 with a career-high 28 (plus 8 in the postseason), the most in pro football since the 1970 merger, and threw at least one TD pass in 18 of 19 games . . . Was first in the NFL in yards per passing attempt with a 7.92 average, the second straight year he led in that department . . . Was a unanimous All Pro and selected as the NFL Player of the Year by Associated Press, Sport Magazine and the Maxwell Club of Philadelphia . . . Was voted the Steelers' MVP by his teammates for the second year in a row, the only player to win that award twice . . . Needs 72 yards passing to become the 27th player to pass for 20,000 yards and during the 1980 season should move up a couple of notches by passing Billy Kilmer (20,495) and Earl Morrall (20,809) . . . With 147 TD passes will become the 26th to throw 150 . . . Passing yardage and TD passes are fourth highest among active AFC players and could easily move into second place, then trailing only Miami's Bob Griese in both . . . Is the ninth leading rusher in team history with 1,971 yards but had only 21 attempts and 83 yards, both career lows, last season . . . Did not score a TD for the first time in his career but still holds second place on the team's all-time list with 28 TDs rushing . . . Was the first player selected in the 1970 draft after the Steelers won that choice in a coin flip with Chicago . . . Started eight games and led the NFL in interceptions (24) in his rookie year . . . In 1971 started all but one game and led the Steelers to their best record in eight years . . . With the addition of Franco Harris in 1972 the Steelers achieved offensive balance . . . Guided team to best record ever (11-3) to that point and first of eight straight playoff appearances . . . Following season a separated shoulder kept him out of four games . . . Turning point of his career came in 1974 when Joe Gilliam won regular job in training camp and preseason while the veterans were on strike . . . Regained starting position after six games with Steelers in first place . . . Completed 58 percent of his passes in the playoffs, including a 9 for 14 game with one TD vs. Minnesota in SB IX . . . Had his best season prior to 1978-79 in 1975 when he became the youngest QB since John Unitas (1958-59) to win back-to-back titles . . . Established a team record for passing accuracy (57.8 percent) and had best TD (18)-interception (9) ratio of career with highest passer rating (88.2) . . . In SB X vs. Dallas threw two TD passes, including a 64-yarder to Lynn Swann for the game-winner . . . Suffered a concussion on that play which kept him from playing in his first Pro Bowl . . . Named 1975 NFL Player of the Year by the Football News . . . Was plagued by neck and wrist injuries in 1976 which sidelined him for four games completely and halves of four others . . . Set an AFC playoff record by completing 77.8 percent (14-18) of his passes in a first-round win over Baltimore . . . Steelers went to more of a passing game in 1977 and he played the last 11 games with a hard cast protecting a fractured left wrist injured vs. Houston . . . Voted team MVP for the first time that year . . . Has been selected to the Pro Bowl three times including the last two seasons and played in the game twice . . . Early in his career was a great threat running the ball and is still an effective scrambler with exceptional speed and strength . . . Is very tough to bring down . . . Is very durable . . . Has played in every game the last three years and in his entire career has missed just eight out of a possible 162 games because of injury . . . Has talked of retirement but is in great physical condition and can play several more seasons on a full-time basis . . . Is a sure future Hall of Famer.

Continued . . .

College: Holds all school passing and total offense records . . . Completed 52.5 percent of his passes for 7,149 yards and 42 TDs . . . Was co-captain in senior year . . . 1st team AP College Division, Coaches and Time All America teams and 2nd team UPI and Sporting News . . . Played in North-South game and was MVP in Senior Bowl . . . Liberal Arts major.

Personal: Lives in Grand Cane, Louisiana where he has a 400-acre cattle ranch . . . Is married to JoJo Starbuck, a professional ice skater . . . Has performed as a professional entertainer in singing and acting roles . . . Once held the national scholastic javelin record . . . Was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree by Alderson-Broaddus (W. Va.) in 1979.

BRADSHAW: ONE TITLE AWAY

Only one quarterback—Green Bay's Bart Starr with five—has won more NFL football championships than Terry Bradshaw. The Starr-led Packers posted world titles in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Bradshaw, with four Super Bowl wins, is tied with Chicago's Sid Luckman, who led the Bears to championships in 1940, 1941, 1943 and 1946. Baltimore's John Unitas and Cleveland's Otto Graham won three each.

LARRY BROWN—OT

BIRTHDATE—June 16, 1949
BIRTHPLACE—Jacksonville, Florida
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (5th in '71)
COLLEGE—Kansas
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—255
NFL EXP.—10
GAMES PLAYED —'71 (13), '72 (9), '73 (14), '74 (14), '75 (14), '76 (13), '77 (14), '78 (8), '79 (15)

PRO: Is one of the most complete and consistent offensive linemen in the NFL . . . Came off a 1978 ankle injury which kept him out of eight games and severely limited his playing time in several others to have his best season last year since switching from tight end to offensive tackle in 1977 . . . Is now totally familiar with the position and ranks with the premier tackles in the NFL . . . Is a genuine candidate for All Pro . . . Was outstanding in the post-season, particularly in the Super Bowl where he had a great game against Jack Youngblood . . . Had played TE his first six seasons and was a key player in the Steelers' great ground game at that time . . . Was one of the best blockers at that position which prompted position change . . . Played a little at OT in 1976 before moving exclusively to that position the next season . . . Added 30 pounds after making the switch . . . With extra weight still fits Steeler mold of quick, fast offensive linemen . . . Became a starter at TE in 1974, the season the team won its first Super Bowl . . . Had his best season as a receiver that year and led the team in receptions with six in the postseason which included three in SB IX . . . Scored the final TD in that game vs. Minnesota on a 4-yard pass . . . Caught 1-yard TD vs. KC last season . . . Played mostly on the special teams because of his speed his first three years . . . Selected in the 1971 draft with a choice obtained from New Orleans for RB Earl Gros.

COLLEGE: Co-captain in 1970 . . . Pro Football Weekly 1st team All America that season . . . Played DE, OT, LB and TE . . . Participated in North-South Shrine and College All Star games . . . Education major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Carnegie, Pa . . . Married (Vanessa) . . . Has one daughter (Tiffany, 3).

PRO: Continued steady progress in 1979 which could lead to eventual All Pro status . . . In spite of a knee injury which sidelined him for three games and parts of five others, had the best year of his career and approached his exceptional potential . . . Won starting position from Loren Toews in training camp and preseason and started every game he was healthy . . . Before his injury was one of the team's top defensive players and by the end of the season when he regained his form was again among the unit's best . . . Was second on the team in total tackles in the postseason and had seven unassisted stops in the Super Bowl . . . Has improved in all areas but most in his pass coverages . . . Was always strong against the run and is one of the team's toughest tacklers . . . Has developed very rapidly after frustrating rookie season when he broke his right arm in the 1977 opener vs. SF and was limited mostly to special teams play . . . After corrective surgery came on very strong late in the 1978 season when he started eight games . . . Was a standout in the playoffs and SB with six unassisted tackles vs. Dallas . . . With his exceptional strength and speed can play either side effectively . . . Is a very aggressive player whose physical style of play is well suited for his team . . . When the Steelers go to a 3-4 is excellent, especially on the blitz . . . Did not have an interception in his first three seasons . . . Was the first LB ever drafted by the Steelers in the first round and the 22nd player and third LB chosen in the 1977 draft . . . Is the first player from New Mexico to ever play for Pittsburgh.

COLLEGE: Four year regular as a standup DE . . . Was team captain in final two years . . . Named team MVP in 1976 . . . Selected to UPI, Sporting News, Football News and Football Writers 2nd team All America and AP's 3rd team in 1976 . . . All Western Athletic Conference 1st team his final two years . . . Played in the East-West Shrine game . . . Physical Education major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Pittsburgh . . . Married (Sylvia) . . . Has one son (Robin, Jr., 2) . . . Participated in Super Team competition in 1980 . . . Was All City in football and baseball in high school.

PRO: Followed his great rookie season with another fine one in 1979 . . . His 40.2 average was seventh in the AFC and the highest by a Steeler since 1973 . . . As a rookie led the NFL in net punting average with a 35.2 mark . . . Has been outstanding in the postseason, averaging 42.3 in 1978 and 42.4 last season . . . Had the longest punt of his pro career vs. Houston in the AFC Championship last year with a 66-yarder . . . Combining both seasons he has had just 12 touchbacks and 69 returns on 134 punts, both excellent ratios, and indicators of his overall net effectiveness . . . Is a two-step punter and gets the ball away very fast . . . Has never had a punt blocked in the NFL . . . Was the first kicker drafted by the Steelers since 1971.

COLLEGE: Three year starter as a punter . . . Was a walk-on who did not go to college until two years after graduating high school . . . Named to All SEC 1st team his final two seasons . . . Was second in the nation with a 45.0 average in 1977 and had a career mark of 42.5 . . . Art major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Knoxville . . . Married (Anne) . . . Was a HB and DB in high school.

PRO: Is one of the most promising young offensive linemen in the NFL who has All Pro potential . . . Has great physical ability with exceptional speed and strength . . . Was very impressive last season as injuries to Sam Davis and Gerry Mullins enabled him to start eight regular season and the first two postseason games . . . Missed the Super Bowl with a sprained ankle . . . Will battle the two veterans for a starting berth this season . . . Speed enables him to be outstanding at leading sweeps and strength makes him a good straight ahead blocker . . . Because of these qualities, is also an excellent special teams player . . . Was on injured reserve all of his first pro season with an ankle injury suffered in 1977 training camp . . . Saw considerable playing time in 1978 because of injuries to other offensive lineman and got first pro start vs. San Francisco.

COLLEGE: Two year starter . . . Was DT as a freshman . . . Named 1st team All South Carolina and All South Independent in 1978 . . . Played in East-West Shrine and Blue-Gray games . . . Liberal Arts major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Columbia, South Carolina . . . Single.

GAMES PLAYED—'76 (12), '77 (12), '78(6), '79 (15)

PRO: Although he was slow to recover from off-season knee surgery, approached his great potential in 1979 but can still get better and has all the tools to be an All Pro . . . Is beginning to achieve the consistency in all phases of his game he needs to become a super star . . . Started just eight games and missed one completely but caught 36 passes last season compared to a total of 41 in his first three seasons . . . Scored career-high four TDs . . . Had a good postseason and caught a 16-yard TD pass vs. Houston in the AFC Championship game which pulled the Steelers into a tie . . . Was on his way to an outstanding season in 1978 when he injured his left knee in the sixth game vs. Atlanta which sidelined him for the rest of the season . . . Averaged 20.1 yards on 16 catches which was the highest at his position in the NFL . . . Highlight of 1978 for him was his 37-yard overtime score vs. Cleveland . . . Was a first round draft choice in 1976 but his appearance in the College All Star game and minor injuries limited his opportunities . . . Played mostly on the special teams . . . Scored a TD vs. Minnesota on his first pro reception . . . Physically has it all . . . Has a lineman's size and a receiver's speed . . . Can run deep patterns and is a devastating runner after he catches the ball . . . His strong blocking helps make the Steeler running game effective . . . If he can stay healthy and continue normal improvement, should move into the ranks of the top TEs in pro football.

COLLEGE: Three year starter and led team in receiving each year . . . Career totals of 64 receptions and 1,044 yards are both fifth highest in Clemson history . . . Caught 10 TD passes with seven in 1974 being a season school high . . . Concensus All America and unanimous All Atlantic Coast Conference in 1974 and 1975 . . . Played in East-West game and Hula and Japan Bowls . . . Secondary Education major . . . Earned his B.S. degree in the off-season.

PERSONAL: Single . . . Lives in Seneca, South Carolina . . . His brother Grant plays football for Duke.

PRO: Is one of the most underrated offensive linemen in the league . . . At 36 is the oldest player on the team but has not lost any of his speed and is as good a pulling guard as there is in the NFL . . . Has had two of his best seasons the last two years . . . Played much of 1979 with a variety of nagging injuries to his legs but still was exceptional . . . Has been outstanding in the last two Super Bowls and performed courageously in SB XIV with a painful hamstring injury that took months to heal afterwards . . . Originally made it in pro football because of his outstanding special teams ability . . . By playing in every regular season game in 1980 can set a Steeler record for games played . . . Has 167 and trails Ray Mansfield (182) and Ernie Stautner (173) . . . Is only the second player in team history to play 14 seasons . . . Stautner is the other . . . He and Rocky Bleier are the only two players remaining from the pre-Noll era and was a key man in the transition when Noll took over . . . In Noll's second season in 1970 became a regular and was named offensive captain . . . His leadership qualities match his playing ability and he has made a major intangible contribution to the team's great success . . . Is the only player from Allen University in the NFL.

COLLEGE: Played all line positions on offense and defense . . . Team MVP in 1966 and All Southwest Intercollegiate Conference 1st team that year . . . Lettered in track and as a shot putter and 440-yard dash man . . . Physical Education major.

PRO: Received a starting opportunity early in the 1979 season when the defensive line was banged up and played so well he became a regular, starting all but one of the Steelers' 19 games . . . Had three QB sacks vs. New England in the opener playing for Joe Greene . . . Then took over at the other tackle in the third game when Steve Furness was hurt . . . Finished the season splitting time with Furness . . . Tied for fourth in sacks with five and was in on two more in the playoff game vs. Miami . . . Recovered two opponents fumbles . . . Injuries and getting a chance to break into the Steel Curtain were his biggest problems early in his career . . . After beating out the highly-regarded number two draft choice Bob Barber in training camp, suffered a knee injury after five games . . . Reinjured the same knee in 1977 camp and spent the entire year on injured reserve . . . Split playing time with Furness the latter part of 1978 and played very well . . . Will battle Furness for starting job in 1980 training camp and preseason . . . Can also play defensive end effectively.

COLLEGE: Played first two years at DE before moving to DT for his final two . . . Made AP All Independent South 1st team in 1975 . . . Played in the American Bowl . . . Business Administration major.

PRO: In 1979 for the second year in a row an early-season injury sidelined him for an extended period and resulted in him eventually splitting time with Gary Dunn during the second half of the season . . . Missed four full games and part of several others because of a knee injury suffered in the second game of the season vs. Houston . . . Still tied with L. C. Greenwood for team lead in QB sacks with seven . . . Five came in a four game period late in the season . . . Added one in the Super Bowl . . . In 1978 a freak ankle injury in the warmup before the opening game in Buffalo forced him to miss five games and did not get his first start until the 11th game . . . Broke his ankle late in SB XIII . . . Became a full-time regular in 1977 while starting every game but playing three different positions . . . Led team in sacks with a career-high 8½ and topped all defensive linemen in tackles . . . Prior to that had been a spot performer , playing mostly for Joe Greene when Greene was hampered by back and shoulder problems . . . In that role started six games in 1975 and played the entire second half of SB X, leading both teams in tackles . . . Was on the taxi squad most of first two seasons . . . Was outstanding on the special teams early in career . . . Will battle Dunn for starting position . . . He and teammate Rick Moser are the only NFL players from Rhode Island.

COLLEGE: All New England and All Yankee Conference in 1971 . . . Played FB, TE and OT . . . Lettered in track as a hammer thrower and passed up the 1972 Olympic trials to play with the Steelers . . . Honor student . . . Physical Education major.

PRO: In 1979 recaptured the peak level of performance of his best years and added another jewel to a remarkable career in which he has been one of the greatest defensive linemen in pro football history . . . Once again was a major contributor to the team's great success especially in the drive to the division crown and in the postseason . . . Earned near-unanimous All Pro honors . . . Was selected to the Pro Football Writers, Pro Football Weekly and College and Pro Football Newsweekly All NFL 1st teams and the UPI and Sporting News All AFC 1st teams . . . Named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad for a team record 10th time, breaking the mark he shared with Ernie Stautner and has played in the game more times than any other active AFC player . . . Missed the opener vs. New England with a bruised knee and started all 18 games after that . . . Followed his pattern of getting better as the season progressed and peaked in the postseason, especially vs. Houston in the AFC Championship game when he dominated the line of scrimmage and helped collar Earl Campbell . . . Three of his five regular season QB sacks came vs. Cincinnati . . . Was Chuck Noll's first choice and the fourth player selected in the NFL draft in 1969 . . . Was the initial building block and the nucleus of what was to become one of the greatest defenses in pro football history . . . Was an immediate star and named UPI NFL Rookie of the Year, the first of three Steelers to win the award in a six-year period . . . Played in the Pro Bowl the first time . . . In 1970 continued his meteoric rise to the top when he was named All AFC for the initial time . . . The following season he was selected to the All NFL team, an honor that he earned for the next five years . . . In 1972 won the George Halas Award as the NFL's Most Valuable Defensive Player and was chosen AP Defensive Player of the Year and UPI's Lineman of the Year as he sparked the Steelers to their first division title in 40 years . . . Played one of the greatest games of his career late that season vs. Houston when the team was decimated by injuries and needed a victory to remain in first place . . . Had five QB sacks and recovered a fumble he had forced in a 9-3 win . . . His 11 sacks that season led the team and are a career-high . . . Was unstoppable from the middle of the 1974 season through the postseason as the Steelers won their first NFL title . . . Made his only regular season interception and a fumble recovery which he lateraled for the winning TD in the team's first win in Cleveland in 10 years . . . It was the same year (1974), he started lining up at a sharp angle between the center and guard and was devastating vs. Oakland and Minnesota . . . In SB IX had an interception and fumble recovery vs. Vikings . . . In 1975 started experiencing injury problems and missed the first game of his career when a groin injury and pinched shoulder nerve ended his consecutive game streak at 91 and limited his play the remainder of that season . . . In the postseason that year did not play vs. Baltimore and was limited vs. Oakland and Dallas as the Steelers won their second straight NFL title . . . Rebounded in 1976 to play all 14 games and was a key man in the team's comeback from a 1-4 start . . . Led team in sacks and regained All Pro status . . . Cut his weight to present 260 in 1977 and was named to AP's All NFL 1st team and UPI's All AFC 1st team but was not selected to the Pro Bowl squad for the only time . . . Was named defensive captain that year, succeeding the retired Andy Russell . . . Since then has been a solid performer who has had to work harder to excel . . . In recent years has been lifting weights regularly, something he did not do when he was at his best . . . Still has exceptional strength and quickness and ability to make the big-play, a career trademark . . . In eight of his first 11 seasons has played every game and in two others missed just one game . . . His contributions go far beyond the playing field and his great leadership qualities have been significant in enabling his team to play to its maximum potential . . . Has been a unanimous choice on all 1970 Teams of the Decade . . . Is a sure Hall of Fame selection . . . Won the Dapper Dan Award as Pittsburgh's Outstanding Sports Figure in 1977.

COLLEGE: Consensus All America 1st team in 1968 . . . Unanimous choice as the top defensive lineman in the nation that year . . . 1st team All Missouri Valley Conference for three years . . . Conference Athlete of the Year in 1968 . . . Played in East-West game and was voted the Outstanding South Lineman in the Senior Bowl . . . Selected but did not play in the College All Star and Coaches All America games . . . Physical Education major.

PERSONAL: Lives in the Dallas suburb of Duncanville . . . Married (Agnes) . . . Has two sons (Charles, 12 and Edward, 11) and one daughter (Jo Quel, 6) . . . Spends the off-season making personal appearances and is an excellent speaker . . . Success with commercials and bit movie roles could lead to a possible post-football career.

PRO: Is one of the greatest running backs in pro football history and a certain future Hall of Famer . . . Has been remarkably consistent and durable, playing in 123 of 128 games including postseason and missed his first regular season game since 1974 last season when a sprained ankle sidelined him vs. Baltimore . . . Is the leading active rusher in the NFL with 8,563 yards and has the fourth highest total of all-time . . . Needs 35 yards to move into third place past Jim Taylor (8,597) and then will trail only Jim Brown (12,312) and O. J. Simpson (11,236) . . . Joins those two as the only players to gain 8,000 yards in first eight seasons . . . His rushing attempts (2,012) are third most ever behind Simpson (2,404) and Brown (2,359) and in fifty regular season games has carried the ball 20 or more times . . . Has gained over 1,000 yards in seven of his eight seasons and became the first player in pro history to have six consecutive 1,000-yard years . . . Needs one more 1,000-yard season to set new all-time mark of eight . . . With seven, shares that honor with Brown . . . In 1979 had one of his best seasons after the slowest start of his career with 189 yards in the first five games . . . Gained 1,186 yards, his second highest total, and averaged 4.4, also his second best, although he had his fewest carries per game since 1974 . . . Ranked third in the AFC and has been in the top four of the conference in seven of his eight seasons . . . Had five 100-yard games to push career total to 35 which is the third most ever behind Brown (58) and Simpson (42) . . . Had five runs of 30 yards or more including a 70-yarder vs. Cleveland which was the second longest of his career . . . Has been used more in recent seasons as a receiver and had a career-high 36 receptions last year . . . Added 14 in the postseason to lead the team . . . With 174 catches in regular season is the Steelers' seventh leading receiver of all-time and can move up one notch in 1980 with 26 catches to pass Roy Jefferson . . . Scored 12 TDs, 11 rushing, in 1979 . . . With 456 points is the eight leading active scorer in the NFL and is first among non-kickers . . . His 72 TDs rushing are the fourth most ever behind Brown (106), Taylor (83) and Leroy Kelly (74) . . . Has scored two or more TDs in a regular season game 19 times and four times in the postseason . . . Three times has had three TDs in a game, most recently vs. Cleveland in 1979 . . . Is the NFL's all-time postseason leader in yards rushing (1,488), rushing attempts (384) TDs (17) and 100-yard games (5) . . . Has been the leading rusher in 13 of the 17 postseason games he has played . . . Holds career Super Bowl records for TDs (4), yards rushing (354) and rushing attempts (101) and single game marks for TDs (2 vs. LA in SB XIV), yards rushing (158 vs. Minn. in SB IX) and rushing attempts (34 vs. Minn.) . . . Owns AFC Championship career records for yards rushing (402), rushing attempts (113) and TDs rushing (4) and AFC Playoff highs for most TDs (9), yards rushing (732), rushing attempts (170) and TDs rushing (8) . . . Also has AFC Playoff single highs of yards rushing (153 vs. Balt. in '75), rushing attempts (28 vs. Den. in '77), longest run (50 vs. Balt. in '76) and TDs rushing (3 vs. Buf. in '74) . . . Was a first round choice in 1972 draft, the first RB selected and the 13th player overall . . . Became the fifth first year player in history to rush for 1,000 yards as the Steelers recorded an 11-3 record and made the playoffs for the first time ever . . . Was fourth in the AFC in rushing and led the NFL in 100-yard games with seven, including six in a row which at the time tied Jim Brown's league record . . . Topped the NFL with a 5.6 rushing average . . . Had 75-yard scoring run vs. Cleveland which is the longest of his career . . . Was on the receiving end of the "Immaculate Reception," a 60-yard pass play which beat Oakland in the final five seconds of a first-round playoff game . . .

BIRTHPLACE—Fort Worth, Texas
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '79)
COLLEGE—Baylor
HEIGHT—6-2
WEIGHT—225
NFL EXP.—2
GAMES PLAYED—'79 (15)

PRO: Even though his playing time was cut by injuries in 1979, he was impressive in limited opportunities . . . Has great potential if he can stay healthy . . . Suffered a pulled hamstring on the first day of training camp and fell behind as he missed most of the important two-a-days . . . Recovered and was used on a spot basis early in the season . . . Was very productive as a runner and receiver . . . Scored on an 8-yard run vs. Houston on his first pro carry . . . Was instrumental in the fourth quarter rally vs. St. Louis with 34 yards rushing and two receptions for four first downs . . . Suffered an ankle injury which kept him out of one game . . . Prior to that was averaging five yards a carry . . . Later bruised a shoulder and after that his play was limited almost exclusively to special teams . . . Has a great running style . . . Is a slasher who hits the hole very quick and is always leaning forward . . . Also is very shifty and has an effective change of pace . . . Catches the ball well . . . Has 4.55 speed . . . Was the fifth RB selected in the 1979 draft and the first RB by the Steelers in the first round since Franco Harris in 1972.

COLLEGE: Played only three games in his senior year before suffering a broken hip vs. Ohio State . . . Began freshman season as a regular defensive end before being moved to wingback early in the season and played there through his sophomore season . . . Was switched to running back for final two years . . . Career rushing totals were 236 attempts for 1,184 yards for a 5.0 average . . .Caught 45 passes for 579 yards . . . Had three 100-yard games, two in senior season, and scored seven TDs . . . In junior year had 80-yard run and caught a 74-yard pass . . . Sociology major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Fort Worth . . . Married (Linda) . . . Was a tight end and linebacker in high school where he also lettered in track and basketball.

HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '78)
COLLEGE—Eastern Michigan
HEIGHT—5-10
WEIGHT—200
NFL EXP.—3
GAMES PLAYED—'78 (16), '79 (11)

PRO: Is the youngest starter on the defensive unit and has had fine back-to-back seasons in his first two years of pro football . . . Has quickly developed into one of the top CBs in the NFL at supporting the run and with more experience should achieve that rating as a pass defender . . . Is a very aggressive player who has been challenged constantly because of his youth and size (5-10) . . . Has handled the best WRs with consistency . . . Has the versatility and intelligence to play all coverages well . . . Missed five games in 1979 with a lingering hamstring problem . . . Was the 22nd player selected in the 1978 draft and did not miss a defensive play all season as he took over for J. T. Thomas who was sidelined with a blood disorder . . . Was named to every NFL All Rookie team . . . Had four interceptions in the regular season and one in the AFC Championship vs. Houston . . . Was the first rookie to start for the Steelers since 1974 and is the only first-year CB to play regularly in Chuck Noll's 12 seasons . . . Became the first rookie CB to start for the winning team in a Super Bowl . . . Is a very determined athlete who will push himself to continue to improve.

COLLEGE: Was a walk-on . . . Started four years at S and CB . . . Tri-captain senior year . . . All Mid-American Conference 1st team in final two seasons when he was his team's Most Valuable Defensive Player . . . AP 3rd team All America in 1977 . . . JON KOLB—OT

BIRTHDATE—August 30, 1947
BIRTHPLACE—Ponca City, Oklahoma
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (3rd in '69)
COLLEGE—Oklahoma State
HEIGHT—6-2
WEIGHT—262
NFL EXP.—12
GAMES PLAYED—'69 (14), '70 (14), '71 (14), '72 (14), '73 (14), '74 (14), '75 (14), '76 (14), '77 (13), '78 (16), '79 (14)

PRO: Has been one of the major contributors to the Steeler success and is one of three players remaining from Chuck Noll's first draft in 1969 . . . Is the best OT in Steeler history and is probably the most underrated player at his position in the NFL . . . Has received token recognition but has never been selected to play in the Pro Bowl although he was the first alternate last season . . . Named to UPI All AFC 2nd team in 1979 when he was bothered by a pinched shoulder nerve which kept him out of two regular season games and two of the playoff games . . . Came back to play very well in the Super Bowl . . . Until last season had missed just one game in ten seasons . . . Is the dean of the Steeler offensive linemen and has been a full-time starter longer than any of the others . . . Has been a standout when the offense was basically run-oriented and still is now that it is more balanced with greater emphasis on passing . . . Is the team's heaviest offensive lineman but has outstanding agility and quickness . . . Is one of the strongest players in the NFL and can bench press 550 pounds . . . Was a center in college and took a couple of seasons before he mastered the transition to OT and was confident . . . Since the team began its playoff run in 1972 has been one of the most consistent and effective players in the league at his position and an indispensable member of the offensive unit.

COLLEGE: Was C and LB . . . Twice All Big 8 and consensus 2nd team All America in senior season . . . Played in Senior and American Bowls and North-South Shrine, Coaches All America and College All Star games . . . Physical Education major.

PERSONAL: Lives in McMurray, Pa. . . . Married (Debbie) . . . Has one son (Eric, 9) . . . Has a farm in Ninevah, Pa. which he works himself and a meat packing business in Washington, Pa. . . . Is active in church youth work.

GAMES PLAYED—'76 (10), '77 (2), '78 (9), '79 (8)

PRO: Because of injuries to Bradshaw, saw action in eight games and logged most playing time since rookie season . . . Completed 65 percent of his passes . . . Was five of seven for 79 yards in the Washington game when he played the entire fourth quarter . . . Was his longest appearance since he played the second half vs. Denver in the 1978 finale . . . Started six games in his rookie year and Steelers won all of them as they rallied from a 1-4 start to win nine straight . . . In 1977 suffered a separation of the right shoulder in the fourth game vs. Houston and spent the rest of the season on injured reserve . . . Did not throw a TD pass in his first four seasons . . . Has the tools to play in the NFL.

COLLEGE: Two year starter who missed the 1972 season with a broken left arm . . . Completed 235 of 337 for 2,590 yards and 12 TDs in career . . . His 67.8 percent career mark is the all-time NCAA accuracy record . . . Was unanimous All East in 1975 and won the Harry Aggannis Award as the outstanding college player in New England . . . BIRTHDATE—July 8, 1952
BIRTHPLACE—Mantua, Ohio
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (2nd in '74)
COLLEGE—Kent State
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—220
NFL EXP.—7
GAMES PLAYED—'74 (14), '75 (14), '76 (14), '77 (11), '78 (16), '79 (16)

PRO: Was the NFL's outstanding defensive player in 1979 . . . Named the UPI AFC Defensive Player of the Year and was a near-unanimous All Pro first team selection . . . Made AP, NEA and Pro Football Weekly All NFL 1st teams and UPI and Sporting News All AFC 1st teams . . . In spite of a partially separated right shoulder suffered in practice early in the season played in every game for the fifth time in six years . . . Consistently made the big plays . . . Led the team in tackles for the sixth straight season and was in double figures in 10 of the 19 games . . . Had a high of 13 unassisted tackles vs. Philadelphia and led both teams in the Super Bowl with 10 vs. LA . . . Topped all NFL linebackers in interceptions with a career-high six, the first Steeler to accomplish that feat since Jack Ham in 1974 . . . Stopped a serious LA threat in the Super Bowl with an interception deep in Steeler territory late in the fourth quarter . . . Joined the Steelers in 1974 and became an immediate starter, filling the only remaining hole in what has become one of the greatest defenses in pro football history . . . Has had a meteoric career and a remarkable record of being a starter on four winning SB teams in his first six seasons . . . Was NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1974 as the team won its first title . . . Was a consensus All Pro in 1975 . . . Named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1976 and was elected the Steelers' MVP by his teammates . . . Selected to the Pro Bowl after the 1975 season and has made it five straight years now . . . Had an interception in last season's game . . . Holds the Steeler season record with six fumble recoveries in 1976 and the NFL-AFC Championship games mark with three against Oakland in 1975 . . . Only playing time he has ever missed was in 1977 when he was sidelined three games with a knee injury . . . At 220 he is light for a MLB but plays much stronger . . . Is unique in his ability to get under plays and use his great upper body strength and leverage . . . Has extraordinary speed and quickness . . . Gets a deeper pass drop than any MLB in the league . . . Produces in the clutch and is one of the best big-play players in the NFL . . . Has been a defensive captain since 1977.

COLLEGE: Three year starter who played DE as a sophomore . . . Tri-captain in senior year . . . Mid-American Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1972 . . . All Conference 1st team in final two seasons . . . Was MVP in the 1972 Tangerine Bowl vs. Tampa . . . Played in the North-South and All America postseason games . . . Management major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Pittsburgh . . . Single . . . Was a QB in high school . . . Toured military bases in the Far East in 1976 and in southern Europe in 1977 . . . Participated in team Super Star competition in 1979 . . . Active with Children's Hospital's Ronald McDonald House.

GAMES PLAYED—'78 (15), '79 (16)

PRO: Is an outstanding special teams player, especially on kickoff coverages . . . In his two seasons, has graded the highest on the team in these areas . . . This ability was what originally attracted the Steelers to him and was the reason he was drafted . . . Did not play on the offensive unit as much in 1979 as he did in his rookie season when he displayed an ability to gain in short-yardage situations and blocked well as a backup . . . Scored first pro TD vs. Washington last season . . . He and Steve Furness are the only players in the NFL from Rhode Island.

COLLEGE: Four year letterman and three year starter . . . All Yankee Conference 1st team his final two seasons . . . Gained 1,299 yards in career with a high of 691 in his junior year . . . Marketing major . . . Two time NCAA Division II Academic All America.

PERSONAL: Lives in Marina del Rey, Calif . . . Married (Elizabeth) . . . Operates a Nautilus Fitness Center in Southern California.

PRO: Is one of the unsung heroes of the Steeler reign . . . One of the better and more versatile athletes among the team's offensive linemen which he combines with great football intelligence . . . After having his best season in 1978 was bothered by injuries last year . . . Started just 11 games and missed two completely and spent some of the time as a swing man because of elbow and shoulder problems, a role he has played frequently in his career . . . As a result, he will have to again battle for a starting position in 1980 with Steve Courson and Sam Davis . . . Has the ability to play both guard and tackle positions effectively and is used as a tight end in short-yardage situations . . . In the past his great versatility has often made him more valuable as a backup than a starter and has been shuttled between the two roles . . . Because of his size, speed and quickness is best at guard . . . Has had his most productive seasons when playing there on a full-time basis and at that position is one of the best players in the league, handling blocking equally well for the run or pass . . . Came in the great 1971 draft and earned a starting role at OT the next season, the first year the Steelers made the playoffs . . . Was part of the Steelers' three-guard system from 1974 through 1977 . . . Was the outstanding offensive lineman in Super Bowl IX vs. Minnesota . . . Has scored four touchdowns in his pro career . . . Two TDs came as a TE on pass receptions vs Cleveland in 1972 and Cincinnati in 1974 . . . Other two were on fumble recoveries vs. Miami in AFC Championship game in 1972 and vs. San Diego in 1975.

COLLEGE: Consensus All West Coast and All PAC-8 and team Most Valuable Lineman in 1970 . . . Was DE as a sophomore and TE in final two seasons where he was used primarily as a blocker . . . Caught just 15 passes in his career . . . Business and Physical Education major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Pittsburgh . . . Married (Cindy).

TED PETERSEN—OT

BIRTHDATE—February 7, 1955
BIRTHPLACE—Kankakee, Illinois
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (4th in '77)
COLLEGE—Eastern Illinois
HEIGHT—6-5
WEIGHT—244
NFL EXP.—4
GAMES PLAYED—'77 (14), '78 (15), '79 (16)

PRO: Took longer to develop because of small college background but made a big contribution to the Steeler success in 1979 . . . Injuries at OT resulted in him starting six games plus two postseason vs. Miami and Houston . . . Had other tough assignments vs. New England, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Houston twice and did very well in each . . . Does not figure as a starter but his experience now gives the Steelers tremendous depth in the offensive line where he can also fill in at center, his college position.

COLLEGE: Co-captain in senior year . . . Named to AP 1st team Little All America in 1976 . . . Was school's first All America . . . Began as a TE and switched to center in junior year . . . Physical Education major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Bridgeville, Pa. . . . Single.

RAY PINNEY—OT

BIRTHDATE—June 29, 1954
BIRTHPLACE—Seattle, Washington

COLLEGE—Washington
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—250
NFL EXP.—5
GAMES PLAYED—'76 (14), '77 (14), '78 (13), '79 (0)

PRO: After having the best season of his career in 1978, could not play last year because of complications following an appendectomy in June . . . Is fully recovered and must re-establish himself although at 26 he is expected to pick up where he left off when he was one of the Steelers' most promising offensive linemen . . . Can play all interior line positions well . . . Has the speed to play guard and the strength for tackle . . . Can handle snaps for punts and in this role gets more speed into the coverage team . . . Produced at a critical point in the 1978 season when Larry Brown was injured . . . Moved in when Brown was hurt in the fifth game and started every game after that . . . Played the first playoff game vs. Denver at guard for Gerry Mullins . . . Threw the key block on Franco Harris' winning TD run in the Super Bowl vs. Dallas . . . Gained considerable experience in 1977 in running situations, playing for Jon Kolb who had a shoulder injury . . . Development in rookie season was slowed by a broken wrist suffered in a preseason game but made progress late in the season as he successfully made the transition from his college position of center to OT.

COLLEGE: Three year starter at center . . . Captain for two years . . . AP and UPI West Coast and All PAC-8 1st team twice . . . Played in the East-West, Blue-Gray and College All Star games and the Senior Bowl . . . Finance major . . . Honor student.

PERSONAL: Lives in Seattle . . . Married (Pam) . . . Sells commercial real estate in the off-season.

WEIGHT—190
NFL EXP.—7
GAMES PLAYED—'74 (14), '75 (14), '76 (14), '77 (12), '78 (16), '79 (16)

PRO: Is one of the younger of the Steelers' defensive standouts . . . At 28 and with two All Pro seasons behind him is entering the prime of his career where he should be able to combine his experience and youth to continue to excel . . . In 1979 was named to AP, NEA and College and Pro Football News All NFL 1st teams and Sporting News All AFC 1st team . . . In just his third year as a starter was elected to the Pro Bowl for a second straight time . . . Was second on the team in interceptions with a career-high of five with four coming in a five game stretch in mid-season . . . Was fourth in total tackles and was very effective on the safety blitz with four QB sacks . . . Had a great game in the AFC Championship vs. Houston, forcing one fumble and recovering another . . . His tackling skills and ability to cover the tight ends enables the Steelers to play him at strong safety full-time and use Mike Wagner at free safety which strengthens both positions . . . Became a starter in 1977, beating out former All Pro Glen Edwards . . . Has consistently improved since then and maintains the big play ability which first attracted attention . . . Before becoming a regular was one of the best special teams players in the NFL and was that unit's captain, the first and only one in Steeler history . . . Was also used as a fifth DB in goal-line and short-yardage situations to take advantage of his physical style of play . . . Had the unique experience of receiving a pass and intercepting one in the same game vs. San Diego in 1975 . . . Is very durable and has missed just two games in six seasons . . . Was one of six regulars to start every game last season . . . One of five rookie free agents to make the team in the strike-year of 1974.

COLLEGE: Twice All Mid-Eastern Conference 1st team . . . Pittsburgh Courier and Kodak All America and All NAIA District Six in 1973 . . . Had

COLLEGE—Michigan
HEIGHT—6-2
WEIGHT—205
NFL EXP.—4
GAMES PLAYED—'77 (14), '78 (9), '79 (15)

PRO: Is one of the outstanding young receivers in the league and probably the best backup in the NFL . . . Is the Steelers' third WR and in that role received the most playing time of his pro career in 1979 . . . Started four games and team often went to a three WR offense to capitalize on his talent . . . Set single game career high with five catches in back-to-back games vs. Cincinnati and Denver . . . Had four receptions in AFC playoff game vs. Miami . . . Was slated for more playing time in 1978 but broke his left ankle in training camp and played in just nine regular season games . . . Is an excellent punt returner but has not been the primary man in that department since his rookie season . . . Has returned 61 while making just one fair catch . . . Had a career-long of 38 yards vs. St. Louis last season which set up tying TD in a great Steeler comeback win . . . In 1977 ranked fifth in kickoff returns and 15th in punt returns in the AFC . . . Had his first big game as a receiver that year vs. Cincinnati when he caught four passes in a critical game . . . Would start for many teams but has been forced to play behind Stallworth and Swann in Pittsburgh.

COLLEGE: Four year letter winner . . . Played first two seasons at split end and final two at wingback . . . Is school's all-time leader in TD receptions (14) and receiving yardage (1,687) and is third in total receptions (73) . . . Receiving average of 23.1 is all-time Michigan high . . . AP and Football News 1st team and UPI and NEA 2nd team All America in 1976 . . . Played in Orange Bowl in junior year and Rose, Hula and Japan Bowls in senior season . . . Radio-TV major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Ypsilanti, Michigan . . . Married (Gail) . . . Has one son (James Arthur III).

Continued . . .

yards receiving . . . Ran consecutive regular game streak to team-record 43 with at least one catch in every game . . . Set personal single game career high with seven receptions against Dallas and in four other games had six . . . Twice equalled career high with 126 yards receiving against Cincinnati and Washington . . . In three playoff games added 12 receptions for 259 yards and a 21.6 average with three touchdowns . . . Total postseason catches tied him for NFL postseason lead with Swann . . . Has now caught a TD pass in six straight postseason games . . . For the second straight year was a strong candidate for Super Bowl MVP honors . . . Had three receptions vs. LA for 121 yards including a 73-yard score which put the Steelers ahead to stay . . . Played in the Pro Bowl for the first time and six receptions led both teams . . . Jumped from 14th to fifth on the all-time Steeler receiving list with 200 receptions . . . Will move past Buddy Dial (229) and Ray Mathews (230) into third place this season behind Elbie Nickel (329) and Swann (240) . . . His 3,568 yards receiving is sixth and should pass Roy Jefferson (3,761) and Mathews (3,919) in 1980 . . . His 31 TDs receiving is fifth, just 11 behind all-time leader Dial (42) with Swann (39), Nickel (37) and Mathews (34) in between . . . Early in his career shared time with Frank Lewis and was bothered by leg pulls and cramps which also reduced playing time . . . Still made significant contributions in the Steelers' first two Super Bowl seasons, starting nine games in 1975 and averaged 21.2 yards per catch to tie Cincinnati's Isaac Curtis for the highest mark in the NFL . . . In the AFC Championship game that year against Oakland caught a pass for the winning score and threw a great block to free Franco Harris for the first TD . . . Had back-to-back 40-catch seasons in 1977-78, averaging 19.5 yards a reception in the latter season . . . Then starred in the 1978 postseason, leading all NFL players with 14 catches, 288 yards and 4 TDs . . . Set AFC Playoff record vs. Denver with 10 catches for 156 yards . . . In SB XIII vs. Dallas caught three passes for 115 yards and two TDs, all in the first half as leg cramps sidelined him the second half . . . Tied SB game records for TD receptions (2) and longest reception, a 75-yarder . . . Shares SB career record for TD receptions (3) with Swann . . . Has averaged over 20 yards a catch in each of the last three postseasons . . . Is one of the most dangerous deep threats in the NFL and his career average of 17.8 per reception is one of the highest of any active player . . . Has tremendous leaping ability . . . Combines with Swann to give the Steelers one of pro football's best receiving tandems and one of the best in the history of the game, especially in big games.

COLLEGE: All Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference twice . . . Pittsburgh Courier All America in 1973 . . . Had 498 receptions for a 19.3 average and 7 TDs his senior year . . . Played in Senior Bowl . . . Business Management major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Huntsville, Alabama . . . Married (Flo) . . . Has one son (John, Jr., 5) and one daughter (Natasha, 1) . . . Is a Real Estate executive there . . . Participated in Super Star team competition the last two years and in the individual competition this past off-season.

LYNN SWANN—WR

BIRTHDATE—March 7, 1952
BIRTHPLACE—Alcoa, Tennessee
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '74)
COLLEGE—Southern California
HEIGHT—6-0
WEIGHT—180
NFL EXP.—7
GAMES PLAYED—'74 (12), '75 (14), '76 (12), '77 (14), '78 (16), '79 (13)

PRO: Is one of the greatest big-game and clutch receivers in pro football history . . . Because of court action which forced him to miss the first three weeks of training camp and toe and hamstring injuries, his receptions dropped in 1979 but still delivered in key situations, especially in the postseason . . . Missed three full games and was limited in several others which nullified All Pro chances . . . Failed to lead the team in receiving for the first time in five seasons . . . Had 41 receptions and five touchdowns with 32 catches and all TDs coming in the last nine games . . . Jumped from fourth to second on the Steelers' all-time receiving list with 240 career catches and trails only Elbie Nickel (329) . . . Had a career-high 192 yards receiving in the second Cincinnati game and scored his first pro TD rushing vs Houston . . . Average of 19.7 per catch was the highest of his career and 65-yard play vs. Denver was the longest of his career . . . Is third on team's all-time yardage receiving list with 3,982 behind Nickel (5,133) and Buddy Dial (4,723) and trails only Dial in TD catches, 42-39 . . . Is the 15th leading active receiver in the AFC and is tied for 8th in TD catches in the conference . . . His 12 postseason receptions last year tied him with teammate John Stallworth for the NFL lead and for the third time topped all players in receptions in the Super Bowl . . . Had five for 79 yards and one TD, a sensational, leaping 47-yard catch between two LA defenders . . . Holds SB career records for receptions (16), yards receiving (364), average yards per catch (22.8) and is tied with Stallworth for TD receptions (3) . . . Also owns single game yardage mark of 161 on four catches vs. Dallas in SB X which earned him MVP honors . . . Also holds SB records for highest average gain pass receiving (40.3 vs. Dallas, 1-18-76) . . . Nine postseason TDs is only one behind all-time leader Fred Biletnikoff and 47 receptions and 893 yards rank him third in these categories behind Biletnikoff (70-1,167) and Paul Warfield (58-1,121) . . . His postseason average of 19.0 is one of the highest of all-time and considerably better than regular season mark . . . Had best season in 1978 when he ranked third in the AFC with 61 receptions, the fourth highest total in team history and matched his career high of 11 TDs . . . Was the only WR to make every major All Pro team that season and was elected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad for the third time in four years . . . Had best single game totals of eight catches vs. SF . . . Was a number one draft choice and first WR selected in 1974 draft . . . Was outstanding as a punt returner in his first season . . . Had a 14.1 average which was third in the AFC and fourth highest in Steeler history . . . Set team records with 41 returns for 577 yards, the first of which was broken last season by Theo Bell (45) . . . Had a 64-yard TD return vs. New Orleans which is the last time a Steeler scored a TD on a punt return . . . Since then has been used infrequently in this role . . . Scored the winning TD on a pass reception in 1974 AFC Championship game vs. Oakland . . . In the SB that year set game record vs. Minnesota which still stands of 11.3 average on punt returns . . . Became a starter in 1975, replacing Ron Shanklin, and caught 49 passes to rank sixth in AFC . . . His 11 TD receptions tied for NFL lead . . . Made All Pro and played in the Pro Bowl for the first time . . . His great SB vs. Dallas followed which included the game-winning score on a 64-yard pass . . . Injuries slowed him in 1977 but he came back the following year to again earn All Pro honors . . . Has had eight two-TD games and eight 100-yard games in his career . . . Was named to the All NFL Team of the Decade by College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Is a complete player and one of the best blocking WRs in the NFL . . . Has great timing and jumping ability and is a very fierce competitor.

COLLEGE: Three year starter . . . 1st team All America AP, UPI, Football Writers, Time and Kodak in 1973 . . . Also selected to "Blocking" All America team . . . Holds all-time school record with 95 receptions and has 1,562 yards which is second best career mark . . . Led PAC-8 in receiving in 1973 with 42 catches . . . Caught 11 passes in two Rose Bowls . . . Is USC's third leading all-time punt returner . . . Lettered as a long jumper in sophomore year . . . Public Relations major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Marina del Rey, Calif . . . Married (Bernadette) . . . Works as a sportscaster for KABC-TV in Los Angeles in the off-season and does considerable network broadcasting for ABC . . . Is on the Board of the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre . . . Received the Image Award from the NAACP in 1979 and named the Multiple Sclerosis Athlete of the Year in Pittsburgh in 1980 . . . Was a high school All America in San Mateo, Calif . . . Has participated in several Super Star team and individual competitions . . . Wife is a top fashion model.

PRO: After sitting out 1978 with a blood disorder, made a remarkable comeback last season and contributed greatly to the Steelers' fourth title . . . Had an ankle problem early in the season which kept him out of the first two games . . . Started every game after that, four at natural position of cornerback and last 13 at free safety for Mike Wagner . . . Had never played the latter position but did an outstanding job . . . Was a number one draft choice in 1973, the 24th player selected, and became a starter the following season when the Steelers won their first Super Bowl . . . Led team with a career-high five interceptions . . . Developed into one of the NFL's best CBs at supporting the run . . . Played in the Pro Bowl following the 1976 season . . . Had a sub-par year in 1977 when an off-season nose operation prevented him from working out prior to training camp and the blood condition first became a problem . . . Had not missed a game in his first five seasons . . Had key interceptions in two of the biggest games in Steeler history . . . His one against Oakland clinched the 1974 AFC Championship game and had another in SB X against Dallas . . . Has scored two TDs, both on laterals after fumble recoveries vs. Cleveland in 1974 and Cincinnati in 1975.

COLLEGE: Played CB his first two years and was moved to strong safety as a senior to take advantage of his tackling ability . . . Selected to NEA, Time and Pro Football Weekly All America teams . . . Played in the Senior Bowl and East-West and College All Star games . . . Lettered in track as a long jumper . . . Real Estate and Insurance major.

PERSONAL: Lives in Monroeville, Pa. . . . Married (Deborah) . . . Has one daughter (Kimberly Nicole, 5) and one son (James T., 1) . . . Is a sales agent with Lincoln National Life Insurance Co.

PRO: Developed into one of the AFC's most productive running backs in 1979 until an ankle injury sidelined him for three games and limited his play the balance of the season . . . Started the first 10 regular season games and the playoff vs. Miami . . . Was the Steelers' most productive offensive player early in the season and picked up much of the slack while Franco Harris struggled . . . Scored 9 touchdowns in the first eight games and three times had two TDs in a game . . . In a three game stretch during this period rushed for 315 yards and his 129 vs. Baltimore were a career-high which included a 75-yard run, his longest as a pro . . . It was the longest by a Steeler since 1972 . . . Before getting hurt ranked ninth in the conference in rushing with 534 yards and eventually finished 15th . . . His 5.0 average was the highest among the leading rushers in the AFC and the highest by a Steeler since 1972 when Harris had a 5.6 mark . . . Also became an outstanding receiver and four of 16 catches were for TDs which tied the modern Steeler record for a RB . . . Is a very tough short-yardage runner . . . Has the potential to become a consistent 1,000-yard-rusher . . . Is one of the NFL's best blocking backs and complements Harris perfectly.

COLLEGE: Four year starter . . . Holds school career rushing records with 2,662 yards and 573 attempts . . . Had nine 100-yard games and scored 25 TDs . . . Top season was senior year when he gained 901 yards, including 192 vs. Northeast Louisiana . . . Named to the AP All South Independent 1st team in 1976 . . . Won the Offensive MVP award in the Blue-Gray game with a record 151 yards rushing and two TDs . . . Physical Education major.

PERSONAL: Single . . . Lives in Baton Rouge, La.

PRO: Has been a semi-starter the last three years and will again face heavy competition for a regular berth in 1980 . . . Should see plenty of action regardless of his status as the Steelers continue to use four linebackers frequently . . . Since getting an opportunity as a regular in 1976 when Andy Russell retired, has played in hard-luck with a series of injuries that for the most part were not serious but prevented him from performing at peak efficiency . . . Has alternated with Robin Cole and is often used on passing downs which has been the strength of his game throughout his career . . . Was one of only two 1973 draft choices to make the team . . . Played mostly on the special teams his first four seasons . . . Is still an excellent player on those units and won a game ball for his performance there in the AFC Championship game vs. Houston last season . . . Had his best season in 1978 which was his second as a regular . . . Was fifth on the team in tackles and second in QB sacks with 4½ . . . Last season missed five games with a neck injury and was on injured reserve for four weeks . . . Is heavier, stronger and more aggressive than he was earlier in his career . . . Should be able to contribute on a championship level for several seasons.

COLLEGE: Two year starter . . . Was a RB as a sophomore . . . Lettered three years in Rugby . . . Was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award winner . . . Biological Sciences major.

PRO: Spent most of his rookie season on the special teams and played a key role in these units outstanding performance, particularly in the second half of the regular season and the postseason . . . Got some time at linebacker because of injuries to other players . . . Has excellent size, speed and mobility and the overall ability to play in the NFL . . . His biggest problem is the quality of the players in front of him.

COLLEGE: Four year starter at DE . . . Was usually in a standup position in a five man front . . . Made All South Independent 1st team his final two seasons . . . Was the defensive MVP in the Independence Bowl . . . Health and Physical Education major.

PRO: Is one of the best and smartest defensive backs in the NFL but is a questionmark after additional surgery to correct an upper leg and hip problem which sidelined him after the eighth game last season . . . If he can come back as he did in 1978 after a serious neck injury, it will give the Steelers tremendous depth in the secondary and free J. T. Thomas for backup duty at all four DB positions . . . Is the team's third all-time leader in interceptions with 30 and is tied for eighth place among active AFC players . . . Is fourth in interception return yardage with 464 . . . Had four last season with a pair of two-interception games vs. Houston and Cleveland which gives him 18 vs. AFC Central foes (Cleveland-7, Cincinnati-6, Houston-5) . . . Was a product of the great 1971 draft and has been a starter since the first game of his rookie season . . . First earned All Pro honors in 1973 when his career-high eight interceptions tied for NFL lead with Miami's Dick Anderson . . . Is one of six Steelers to ever lead the league . . . Had three in one game that season vs. Cincinnati and scored his only pro TD when he recovered a blocked punt vs. Houston . . . Was selected to play in the Pro Bowl for the first of two consecutive years after the 1975 season and had an interception in his second appearance . . . Received the most honors of his career in 1976 when he was named to the UPI, Pro Football Weekly and Sporting News All AFC 1st teams and AP All NFL 2nd team . . . Made a tremendous comeback in 1978 after suffering his neck injury in the third game of the 1977 season vs. Cleveland . . . Ranked high in all defensive categories and was a major factor in the Steelers winning an unprecedented third Super Bowl . . . Played exclusively at free safety which enables him to fully maximize his many talents . . . Plays the ball very well in this role . . . Has always been a great clutch player and has excelled in postseason . . . Is tied with Jack Ham as the team's all-time postseason interception leader with five . . . In 1975 had two vs. Oakland in the AFC Championship and followed with another one in SB X vs. Dallas which led to a key fourth quarter score . . . Had an interception in SB IX vs. Minnesota . . . Provides many of the intangibles championship teams need to win.

COLLEGE: All Illinois, All NAIA District 20 and Illinois Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in final two seasons . . . Co-captain senior year . . . Holds school records for interceptions in a season (9) and career (15) . . . Lettered in track and wrestling . . . Accounting major.

PRO: Is now the premier center in the NFL and at 28 should occupy that role for many years . . . Was a unanimous All Pro in 1979 for the second straight season and in 1978 was the Steelers first offensive lineman to ever win such recognition . . . In both seasons made the AP, NEA, Pro Football Writers, College and Pro Football News and Pro Football Weekly All NFL 1st teams and the UPI and Sporting News All AFC 1st teams . . . Was also a unanimous first team choice to the AFC Pro Bowl team last season . . . The year before was the first Steeler offensive lineman elected to start in the game since 1964 and is only the third to play in the game during that period . . . Has made an incredibly fast rise to the top considering the fact he did not become a starter until his third season . . . Only weighed 225 when he came into pro ball and shared playing time with veteran Ray Mansfield his first two seasons . . . Occasionally played guard during that time . . . Built himself up to 255 with a rigorous strength program and now possesses all the attributes of a great offensive lineman with no weaknesses . . . Was named to UPI All AFC 2nd team in 1977, his second year as a starter . . . Is most effective when an opponent is playing over him in a 3-4 or an odd-man front when he has a chance to utilize his strength which is his greatest asset . . . Is also very agile and quick on his feet which enables him to be an excellent pass blocker . . . Has never missed a game . . . Has played in 103 in a row which includes postseason and is the longest streak of any active Steeler . . . Has been on four Super Bowl championship teams in his six years of pro football.

COLLEGE: Three year starter . . . Tri-captain his senior year . . . Played in East-West, Hula Bowl, Senior Bowl, Coaches All America and College All Star games . . . Honor student . . . Physical Education major.

PRO: After seeing very little action the first half of the 1979 season because of an ankle injury, made an impressive contribution in the second half as he alternated with John Banaszak . . . Followed his career pattern of peaking for the postseason and once again was one of the team's top defensive players during this period . . . First started splitting time with Banaszak in the latter part of the 1978 season . . . Was a product of the strong 1971 Steeler draft and selected on a choice obtained from Baltimore in the Roy Jefferson trade . . . Has been a regular since his rookie season . . . Was the youngest member of the original Steel Curtain . . . Made the Pro Bowl in 1972 and 1973 and received All Pro recognition during those years . . . In his prime was one of the top pass rushers in the game and has a career total of 56 regular season sacks . . . Has been an iron man for most of his career and played in every game in six of his first seven seasons . . . Came out of a hospital bed after losing 20 pounds to play in Super Bowl IX vs. Minnesota and recorded the first safety in SB history when he trapped Fran Tarkenton for the first score of that game . . . Excelled in SB X with three more QB sacks vs. Dallas . . . In 1979 led the team in sacks in the postseason with three including one in the SB vs. the Cowboys . . . Twice has intercepted two passes in one game . . . Did it first in 1973 vs. Oakland and again in 1977 vs. Houston.

PRO: Is the best linebacker in the NFL who is not a full-time starter and an indispensable member of the Steelers' defensive unit . . . Team could not have won without him last season and his ability to play all three LB positions makes him invaluable . . . Because of injuries to the regulars, started eight games on the right side, a position he has never played previously, one in the middle and the last four on the left including the entire postseason . . . Was second in solo tackles and third overall . . . Had 13 vs. Dallas which earned him his third game ball, all for his play against the Cowboys . . . Topped the team with three opponents' fumble recoveries . . . Had career high three interceptions and scored his first pro TD on a 41-yard return in the first Houston game . . . Added one in the playoffs vs. Miami which saved a sure score . . . When not starting is the fourth LB . . . Started four games in his rookie season and in Super Bowl XIII his

STEELERS BEST SINCE 1972

Since 1972, the first year they made the playoffs, the Steelers have had the best regular season record in the NFL. During this eight-season span, they have a 88-27-1 (.763) mark. Combining their 14-4 playoff record, they are 102-31-1 (.765).

. . . AND TOUGH AT HOME

Entering the 1980 season, the Steelers' all-time regular season record at Three Rivers Stadium is 61 wins and 12 losses for a percentage of .836. Their playoff record at home is 8-1 which gives them an overall mark of 69-13 (.841). They were 10-0 at home in 1979 and bring a 16-game home field winning streak into this season.

Pittsburgh 16, New England 13

Sept. 3 at Foxboro, 60,978

Rookie Matt Bahr atoned for an earlier missed extra point with his first NFL field goal, a 41-yarder at 5:10 of sudden-death to give the undermanned Steelers a tough come-from-behind victory. The winning kick came after the Steelers had held NE without a first down after the overtime kickoff. Sidney Thornton and Franco Harris rushed for 36 yards and Thornton added six on a pass to set up the field goal. NE scored after the opening kickoff with most of the yardage coming on Steve Grogan passes. The Steelers came back to get their first TD after a Jack Lambert interception. Grogan's passes and a Harris fumble led to two second quarter field goals. After a Thornton fumble ended a Steeler threat at the NE 19, a 14-yard punt led to the tieing score. The Steelers covered 34 yards on two Terry Bradshaw passes, the first for 13 yards to John Stallworth and the second to Thornton who was all alone in the middle of the end zone. The Steelers played without six players, two more were lost during the game and three others were used sparingly. Gary Dunn, subbing for Joe Greene, had three sacks and paced the defense which allowed the Patriots one first down in their final five possessions.

Pittsburgh 38, Houston 7

Sept. 9 at Pittsburgh, 49,972

The Steeler defense played one of its finest games ever in a surprisingly easy victory. The defense had a hand in 24 of the Steelers' 38 points, their most ever against Houston, on six turnovers. In the first half the Oilers made just two first downs and netted 21 yards and 71 of their 124 yards came on a late fourth quarter scoring drive. Earl Campbell was held to a career-low of 38 yards rushing and that was the key to the outcome. Pittsburgh's pass defense was just as tough. Before leaving the game Dan Pastorini completed just four of 16 attempts and for the day the Steelers had five interceptions and five sacks. Tom Beasley, Mike Wagner, Dennis Winston and John Banaszak were among the defensive standouts.

Beasley had a team record 11 unassisted tackles. Wagner had two interceptions. Winston forced a fumble and scored his first pro TD and Banaszak had his first interception ever. For the second straight game Sidney Thornton scored two TDs, duplicating his opening day feat of one rushing and one receiving. Greg Hawthorne scored on an 8-yard run the first time he carried the ball as a pro. Another big factor was the play of the Steeler special teams which consistently had a big edge on the exchanges.

Pittsburgh 24, St. Louis 21

Sept. 16 at St. Louis, 50,416

For the third straight week, the Steelers had to go to their bench and again the reserves came through. After four turnovers and several other offensive mistakes they fought back to score 17 points in the fourth quarter to overcome a 21-7 St. Louis lead. It took another great defensive performance to keep the Cards within reach. They were held to 37 net yards and two first downs in the second half and could not get the ball into the end zone after taking possession early in the third quarter on the Steeler 11 and 13-yard lines. In the process, Ottis Anderson, the sensational rookie, was held to 37 yards. The offensive hero for the Steelers was Rocky Bleier. He got his first chance of the season at extensive playing time when he took over for the injured Franco Harris and sparked all three scoring drives. He accounted for 106 yards in these drives and had help from Greg Hawthorne who picked up three first downs rushing and one receiving in the rally. Terry Bradshaw came back in the second half after bruising his ankle and the Steelers again had injury problems in the offensive line but the young players — Steve Courson, Ted Petersen and Thom Dornbrook — did the job when it counted. Jim Smith set up the final TD with a 38-yard punt return.

Pittsburgh 17, Baltimore 13

Sept. 23 at Pittsburgh, 49,483

The Steelers won a team record 12th straight game as they came from behind in the fourth quarter for the third time in four games. Four reserves on defense and three on offense were in the starting lineup and several key players were either sidelined or played with injuries. Franco Harris had his regular season playing streak end at 70 games because of a sprained ankle. Turnovers again plagued the offense and had it playing catchup for most of the game. But they managed to overcome their errors with three drives of 80 yards or more and the ability to come up with the big play. Sidney Thornton had a 75-yard run enroute to his first 100-yard game and a career-high of 129 yards. With that exception, most of the offense was generated by passing. Terry Bradshaw again bounced back from an injury to rally his team and John Stallworth and Bennie Cunningham made superb plays for the two Steeler TDs. On defense, Jack Ham and an injured Jack Lambert had interceptions that stopped serious Colt threats and for the third time in four games, the undermanned defense gave up just one TD.

Pittsburgh 14, Philadelphia 17

Sept. 30 at Philadelphia, 70,352

The Eagles captialized on Steeler mistakes to snap Pittsburgh's 12-game winning streak and throw the AFC Central Division race into a three-way tie. The Steeler offense continued to have problems and turned the ball over on four consecutive possessions in the second half. Terry Bradshaw's first interception was returned to the 2-yard line and led to the Eagles' final score. His second in the fourth quarter stopped a Steeler drive that had reached the 14-yard line. On Pittsburgh's next series, Franco Harris lost a fumble going into the end zone. These two lost scoring opportunities eventually led to the Steelers' first loss. When the Steelers finally put an 80-yard scoring drive together on five straight Bradshaw passes, it was too late as they never regained possession . The defense was again superb in playing without five starters. In the second half the Eagles gained just 88 yards but they broke the halftime tie with a 35-yard field goal drive and then the gift touchdown enabled them to sit on their lead. Injuries in the offensive line and at wide receiver where Lynn Swann missed the game hampered the Steelers but the fumbles and interceptions are what really doomed them.

The Steelers regained sole possession of first place in the second highest scoring game in team history and scored more points (51) than at any time in Chuck Noll's 11 seasons as their coach. With the regular line intact for the first time this season, the offense rushed for a team record 361 yards and scored TDs on four of its first 15 plays. Franco Harris snapped his early season slump with the fourth best regular season game of his career and his 71-yard run was his second longest ever. Rocky Bleier's 70-yard run was his longest ever and moved him past Fran Rogel into fourth place on the all-time team rushing list. Sidney Thornton brought his total in the last three games to 315. For the ninth time in his career Terry Bradshaw threw three TD passes and the Steelers committed just one turnover after having four in each of the three previous games. Brian Sipe's 365 yards passing and five TD tosses were the most ever against a Noll-coached Steeler team. It was the first time this season the defense allowed more than two TDs in a game. Mike Wagner intercepted two passes for the second time in 1979.

Cincinnati 34, Pittsburgh 10

Oct. 14, at Cincinnati, 52,381

In the most shocking upset in recent Steeler history, the Bengals won their first game of the season with a lot of help from their error-prone opponents. The Steelers committed nine turnovers, a high during Chuck Noll's 11-year regime, and three of them led directly to TDs. With Cincinnati leading, 7-3, the Steelers turned the ball over on three straight possessions which the Bengals converted into 20 points in a one minute, 54-second span of the second quarter to assume a near-insurmountable 27-3 halftime lead. What little chance the Steelers had to get back into the game ended when they turned the ball over on four of their five third quarter possessions. The big Cincinnati lead forced the Steelers into a passing game as Terry Bradshaw threw a career-high 40 passes and the team ran just 18 times, the fewest rushing attempts since 1971. The losing margin of 24 points was the widest in a Pittsburgh loss since 1971. In spite of giving up 34 points, the Steeler defense played well enough to win, allowing the Bengals just two bonafide scoring drives and only seven points after the second quarter disaster.

For the second time in three weeks the Steelers gained over 500 yards and took undisputed possession of first place. They broke the game open with 21 second quarter points with three plays that covered over 50 yards setting up three of their four first half touchdowns. Terry Bradshaw and Franco Harris were the big guns in the Steeler offense. Bradshaw, helped by the return of Lynn Swann who missed three games with a hamstring injury and the continued fine play of John Stallworth and Jim Smith, completed 75 percent of his passes for his second best percentage game of his career. Harris had his 32nd 100-yard game to move right on schedule for a 1,000-yard season. He scored two TDs in a game for the 16th time. Sidney Thornton also scored twice in a game for the third time this season and rookie Anthony Anderson registered his first pro TD. With the exception of a 64-yard TD pass which tied the game following Pittsburgh's first score, the Broncos were held in check by a Steeler defense that forced three turnovers and had four QB sacks, its highest in six weeks, and allowed just 57 yards rushing, a season-low for Pittsburgh.

The Steelers reverted to the formula that first took them to the top of the NFL in the mid-seventies. They rode a stingy defense, paced by L. C. Greenwood's two QB sacks and Dennis Winston's 10 unassisted tackles, to hold Dallas to its lowest point total in 108 games. On offense Pittsburgh went to a ball-contol running game and gained more yards on the ground than in the air for the second time this season. The Cowboys came into the game as the NFL's top offensive team but the Steelers completely shut down their running game, holding them to 17 yards in the first half, and forced them to throw 42 passes. The Steelers had their best pass rush of the season. Of the Cowboys' 278 yards, 168 came after the Steelers had scored their second TD. The Pittsburgh offense consisted mainly of their one-two running punch of Franco Harris and Sidney Thornton who totaled 170 yards and averaged over five yards a carry. Harris had his 33rd 100-yard game and third in the last four. He scored two TDs in a game for the 17th time. John Stallworth had a regular-season career-high seven receptions.

Franco Harris and Terry Bradshaw set records as the Steeler offense gained over 500 yards for the third time in five games. Harris became the fifth player in history to gain 8,000 yards rushing and only the third to do it in his first eight seasons. Bradshaw had personal regular season highs of 311 yards and four TD passes while playing only the first half and the first series of the third quarter. He and Mike Kruczek combined for 390 yards in the air, another high under Noll who won his 96th game to tie Vince Lombardi for 14th place. John Stallworth and Lynn Swann both gained over 100 yards receiving as Stallworth set a new personal season high with 47 catches. For the third straight game and the fourth time in the last five the Steeler defense did not allow 100 yards rushing and had permitted just two TDs in the last three games. Donnie Shell intercepted a pass for the third straight week and had a QB sack. It was the Steelers' 11th straight win at home and their 12th inter-conference victory in a row here.

Scoring on four of their five first-half possessions, the Steelers won their fourth straight game as Chuck Noll became the 14th winningest coach of all-time with 97 regular-season victories. Terry Bradshaw threw three touchdown passes and rookie Matt Bahr kicked three field goals for his best day as a pro. After forcing the Chiefs to punt after the opening kickoff, the Steelers used a flea-flicker for their first score. Franco Harris lateraled to Bradshaw who passed 26 yards to John Stallworth. An interception ended their second opportunity but they cashed in on their next three chances for a commanding 20-0 halftime lead. The defense continued its outstanding play as it limited the run-oriented Chiefs to 65 yards rushing which was the fourth straight game the Steelers held their foes under 100 yards on the ground. Only three of KC's 27 running plays went for more than four yards. It was the second time in the last three games the Steelers did not allow a TD and the third straight game they have not permitted a scoring pass. Dennis Winston had nine unassisted tackles and an interception.

The Steelers suffered their worst loss since 1969 and fell into a first place tie with Houston. Their points and offensive yardage were their least of the season. They committed eight turnovers, five of which were interceptions of Terry Bradshaw passes, and four of the mistakes led to Charger scores. In spite of the score, the Pittsburgh defense played well. It did a good job of containing the NFL's most productive passing game and forced four turnovers but the Steeler offense could not convert any of them into points. Bradshaw had trouble finding his wide receivers and did not complete a pass to any of them until the third quarter. The two key plays were an interception the Steelers did not make and one the Chargers did. With San Diego leading 7-0, Mel Blount misjudged a pass which resulted in a 33-yard gain and set up the second TD. After narrowing the lead to 21-7 midway through the third quarter, the Steelers were moving again when former Steeler Glen Edwards deflected a fourth down pass which Woody Lowe intercepted and returned 77 yards for a TD.

Matt Bahr's 37-yard field goal with nine seconds to play in overtime enabled the Steelers to remain tied with Houston for first place. It climaxed an uphill battle which forced the Steelers to overcome 14 and 10 point deficits. For the fourth time this season, the Steelers gained over 500 yards and their total of 606 was the highest in the NFL this season and the most in the league since 1969. Terry Bradshaw set personal single game highs with 364 yards, 30 completions and 44 attempts but it was his 28 yard, third down run with less than two minutes to play that put the ball in position for the winning kick. Franco Harris had his 34th 100-yard game and equalled his single game high with nine receptions. John Stallworth became the third Steeler to gain over 1,000 yards receiving. After being riddled by Brian Sipe for three quarters, the Steeler defense sacked him six times in the fourth quarter and overtime with L. C. Greenwood being in on 4½ of the team's season high seven. It was the sixth straight game the Steelers held their opponent to under 100 yards rushing.

The Steelers regained sole possession of first place and all but mathematically clinched a playoff berth. It was another big day for the offense as they scored 24 points on their first four possessions and committed just one turnover. Franco Harris reached the 1,000-yard mark for a record tying seventh season and moved into fourth place on the all-time rushing list with a total of 8,404, passing Joe Perry. Terry Bradshaw had his third 300-yard passing game in the last five weeks and became the first Steeler to ever pass for 3,000 yards in a season. He connected with Lynn Swann on two long scoring plays. Swann's receiving yardage of 192 was the fourth highest in team history. It was the fourth time in the last five games the Steelers had scored 30 or more points. Joe Greene and Steve Furness led a rejuvenated pass rush with two sacks each as the team registered six. It was the Steelers 13th straight victory at home.

The Oilers stopped the Steelers from clinching the division title as they were able to control the football and capitalize on one of two Steeler turnovers for the first score. With the game scoreless late in the first half Bob Brazile intercepted a pass and returned it 26 yards. On the next play, Dan Pastorini passed to Ken Burrough for the TD. After a rocky first half the Pittsburgh offense got in gear the final 30 minutes but never caught up although a tying TD was nullified by a holding penalty and the recovery of an onside kick was disallowed after the Steelers pulled to within three points a second time midway through the final quarter. The first time came on Lynn Swann's first pro TD rushing. But the Oilers came back on a 69-yard drive, highlighted by Earl Campbell's 31-yard run. The Oilers rushed for 190 yards and Campbell had 109, both team and individual seasons highs against the Steelers. Even though they lost and fell into a first place tie with Houston, the Steelers made the playoffs for a record-tying eighth straight season. They played without regulars Gerry Mullins and Jon Kolb and lost Jack Ham early in the game.

Pittsburgh 28, Buffalo 0

Dec. 16 at Pittsburgh, 48,002

Chuck Noll became the 14th coach in pro football history to win 100 regular season games as the Steelers clinched their sixth straight AFC Central Division title and the seventh in the last eight seasons. It was their 14th victory in a row at home. The shutout was the Steelers first since 1977 and they limited Buffalo to 156 yards and one first down rushing. A 31-yard field goal was nullified by a delay penalty on the Bills' first possession and then Joe Greene blocked the next kick which ended Buffalo's deepest penetration. The victory for the Steelers concluded their most successful season ever offensively. They gained the second highest yardage total in pro football history and set a team record with 416 points. John Stallworth's 70 receptions established a new team high. Franco Harris registered his 35th 100-yard game and scored his 71st and 72nd TDs rushing, the fourth most ever. Theo Bell's 10 punt returns set another team record.

AFC PLAYOFF GAME

Pittsburgh 34, Miami 14

Dec. 30 at Pittsburgh, 50,214

The Steelers were flawless in the first quarter and controlled the football for over 13 minutes as they scored TDs the first three times they had the ball while Miami was able to run just seven plays for a net of two yards. Pittsburgh converted four of four third-down plays in the opening period and was successful on 11 of 14 the entire game. In directing the three early drives, Terry Bradshaw completed 7 of 9 passes. With a big cushion, the defense never gave Miami a chance, stopping the Dolphins without a score twice in the second quarter when they had first downs inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line. Dennis Winston's interception ended one drive and a great goal-line stand the other. At halftime the Steelers held a 229-35 edge in yardage and a 15-4 margin in first downs. For the game, the Dolphins, a ball-control team, rushed for 25 yards on 22 carries with 21 of those yards coming in the final quarter. It was the fourth straight postseason game in which the Steelers had scored over 30 points. Bradshaw set a personal postseason record with 21 completions and Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 12th time in 15 postseason games as he upped his all-time leading total to 1,357 yards and scored his 15th TD, another postseason record. The victory was the Steelers' 15th straight at home and sixth postseason win in a row at Three Rivers.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Pittsburgh 27, Houston 13

Jan. 6 at Pittsburgh, 50,475

The Steelers won their fourth AFC Championship in six years in a hard-fought, physical game that was much closer than the final score indicates and typifies the rivalry that exists between the AFC Central rivals. Even though the statistics favored the Steelers, their last TD came in the final minute and the final score was their largest margin of the game. Terry Bradshaw continued his spectacular postseason play, converting 13 of 19 third-down opportunities, and the defense did not allow a TD, holding the Oilers to just 24 yards rushing and Earl Campbell to 15 yards on 17 attempts. Houston jumped in front when Vernon Perry stopped a promising drive with an interception which he returned 75 yards. The teams traded field goals on back-to-back possessions. Bradshaw guided his team to TDs on their next two chances which gave the Steelers a lead they never surrendered although it was seriously threatened late in the third quarter when the officials ruled Mike Renfro did not have possession of what appeared to be a tying TD pass. The Oilers settled for a field goal which the Steelers soon matched. A fumble led to Pittsburgh's last score. Bradshaw's two TD passes gave him a postseason career total of 26, an NFL record, and upped his yardage record to 3,199. Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 13th time in 16 postseason games and increased his rushing yardage to 1,442, another NFL mark. The win was the Steelers 16th straight at home and seventh playoff win in a row at Three Rivers.

CHUCK NOLL'S A WINNER

As a player, assistant and head coach, this is Chuck Noll's 28th consecutive year in pro football. In his first 27 seasons, his teams have had 22 winning records and made the playoffs 18 times. The cumulative mark of Noll's team's is 265-125-11.

Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19

Jan. 20 at Pasadena, 103,985

The Steelers won an unprecedented fourth Super Bowl. It was their fourth NFL title in six seasons and the second time they had won Super Bowls back to back. For the second year in a row, the Super Bowl itself matched the buildup as the lead changed hands six times. The Steelers did not go ahead to stay until early in the fourth quarter and their final TD came with less than two minutes to play. It was a much higher scoring game than anticipated with the big-play featuring both offenses as six plays from scrimmage went for more than 30 yards. The Steelers' Larry Anderson added four kickoff returns of 37 yards or more to give the Pittsburgh offense excellent field position after each of the Rams' first half scores and then put the offense in high gear with a long return to start the second half. The Steelers scored the first two times they had the ball and the Rams, after failing on their initial possession scored on three of their next four for a 13-10 halftime lead. Both teams tallied the first time they had the ball in the second half on long but quick drives. The Rams failure to convert two third quarter interceptions kept the Steelers within one score which they got on a third down and seven bomb. Their final score was set up by another Bradshaw-Stallworth long-gainer of 45 yards and an interference penalty. In spite of three interceptions, Terry Bradshaw earned his second straight Super Bowl MVP trophy and set career SB records for passing yards (932) and TD passes (9). His counterpart, Vince Ferragamo, matched Bradshaw for three quarters but Jack Lambert's interception with a little more than five minutes to play was the game's biggest defensive play and LA's only turnover. Franco Harris set SB career records for TDs(4), rushing attempts (101) and rushing yardage (354). Lynn Swann, who was injured early in the third quarter and did not return, established new career marks for receptions (16) and yards receiving (364) and he and John Stallworth now share the record for TD receptions (3). Anderson's 162 yards on five kickoff returns for an average of 32.4 are all new SB game records.

FRANCO RUSHES ON!

Franco Harris, the Steelers' all-time leading rusher and fourth all-time in the NFL, needs just 35 yards to pass Jim Taylor for third place.

Harris trails Jim Brown (12,312) at the top of the NFL's all-time top 10 rushers list and O.J. Simpson (11,236). His 1,186-yards in 1979 moved him past Joe Perry (8,378) into fourth place.

Players completing the top 10 include Leroy Kelly (7,274), Larry Csonka (8,081), John Henry Johnson (6,803), Floyd Little (6,323) and Lydell Mitchell (6,518).

Board of NFL Films. He served in the past as Chairman of the NFL's Expansion Committee and guided the league through the difficult process that resulted in the current labor contract with the players. On a club level, he has been the architect of one of the most successful franchises in professional sports and guides it with a steady hand.

Art's most significant contribution was and still is in personnel. A former football player at St. Vincent College, he is the man behind the great Steeler drafts. He oversees a department that has been creative and productive and still spends many hours himself scouring the country for talent.

After Parker left prior to the 1965 season, Mike Nixon and Bill Austin attempted to produce a winner. They failed.

In 1969 the Rooneys named 37-year-old Chuck Noll as the 14th coach in the club's history. Relying solely on the draft to build the team, he patiently nursed his young team to maturity.

The team's ability to maximize their draft selections has been the key to their unprecedented success. When Joe Greene was picked in the first round in 1969, he became the nucleus of what was to become a great defense. The following year Terry Bradshaw was the first choice and it was the makings of an explosive offense.

After three building years under Noll in which the team went from 1-13 in 1969 to 5-9 and 6-8 the next two seasons, the big breakthrough came in 1972 as the Steelers won their first division title ever. They lost to Miami, the eventual NFL champion, in the AFC Championship game but it was to be their first of six trips in eight years to that plateau.

In 1974 the Steelers won their first league crown. The next season they became the third team to win back-to-back Super Bowls. In 1978 they were the first team to win three Super Bowls and last season the first to win four and win two consecutively twice. Their total of four league championships is third to Green Bay (11) and Chicago (8).

STEELER MILESTONES

Things That Could Happen in 1980:

STEELERS

- Need to make the playoffs this season to set a pro football record of nine straight post-season appearances. The mark of eight is now shared with Dallas (1966-73).

CHUCK NOLL

- Needs five victories to move into 11th place on pro football's all-time list. He has 114 (regular and post-season) and trails George Allen (118). Noll needs 11 to pass Sid Gillman (124), who is tenth.

THEO BELL

- Needs 22 yards in punt returns to pass Glen Edwards (941) to become the Steelers' all-time leader.

ROCKY BLEIER

- Needs 441 yards to pass Dick Hoak (3,965) and become the Steelers' third leading rusher of all-time. He now has 3,525 yards.

MEL BLOUNT

- Needs 11 interceptions to break Jack Butler's club record (52) and eight to become the 18th player in pro football history to intercept 50 passes.

TERRY BRADSHAW

- Needs 72 yards passing to become the 27th player in pro history to pass for 20,000 yards. He needs 891 yards to pass Earl Morrall (20,809) and 577 yards to pass Billy Kilmer (20,495) and move into 25th place.
- Needs three TD passes to become the 26th player to throw 150 in a career.

SAM DAVIS

- Needs to play one regular season game to tie Ernie Stautner's club record of 14 seasons played.
- Needs to play seven regular season games to pass Ernie Stautner (173) and move into second place on the team's all-time games played list. He needs to play in 16 games to set a new record, breaking Ray Mansfield's (182).

JACK HAM

- Needs two interceptions to become the second linebacker in pro football history to reach 30 and 10 to break Don Shinnick's all-time record for linebackers (30).

FRANCO HARRIS

- Needs 35 yards to become the third leading rusher of all-time. He now has 8,563.
- Needs three TDs rushing to move into third place past Leroy Kelly (74) and 12 to pass Jim Taylor (83). He has 72 TDs compared to Brown's first place total of 106.
- Needs 26 receptions to move past Roy Jefferson (199) to become the Steelers' sixth leading receiver of all-time.
- Needs 437 yards to become the third player to rush for 9,000 yards and the third to do it in his first nine seasons. Brown and Simpson are the others.
- Needs to gain 1,000 yards rushing to become the first player in NFL history to do it eight times. He and Brown have done it seven times.
- Needs to gain 1,000-yards rushing to extend his all-time record of six straight 1,000-yard years to seven.
- Needs 273 rushing attempts to move past O.J. (2,284) into second place on all-time list behind Brown (2,359). He has 2,012.

JOHN STALLWORTH

- Has caught at least one pass in 43 straight regular season games which is a Steeler record.
- Needs 352 yards receiving to move past Ray Mathews (3,919) into fourth place on team's all-time list.
- Needs 30 receptions to pass Buddy Dial (229) to become Steelers' fourth leading receiver all-time receiver and 31 to pass Ray Mathews (34) to move into third place.
- Needs four TD receptions to pass Ray Mathews (34) to move into fourth place and nine to pass Elbie Nickel (39) for third place.

LYNN SWANN

- Needs four TD receptions to break Buddy Dial's team career record of 42.
- Needs 742 yards receiving to pass Buddy Dial (4,723) to move into second place on team's all-time list and 1,152 to break Elbie Nickel's (5,133) team record.
