HISTORY OF THE STEELERS

Arthur Joseph Rooney, the founder of the Pittsburgh Steelers, passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. The man affectionately known as "The Chief" will always be remembered as one of the greatest men in sports. More importantly, he will be remembered by Pittsburghers as the common man's man.

Born on January 27, 1901 in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death still lived a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney was educated at St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He went on to study at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, now known as Indiana University of Pa., Georgetown University, and Duquesne.

An outstanding athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships. He was named to the 1920 U.S. Olympic Boxing team, though he did not participate in the Olympic games. From 1921 to 1925 Rooney played minor league baseball, but a promising career was ended by an arm injury. He continued playing semi-pro football for several teams in the Pittsburgh area.

Rooney was married to Kathleen McNulty on June 11, 1931. The Rooneys had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John, and Pat.

Art Rooney founded the Steelers on July 8, 1933, which makes them the fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL today. They were a member of the Eastern division of the 10-team NFL. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, Rooney's club struggled through its first seven years with five different head coaches and just 22 victories. Home games were played at Forbes Field, but in the 1930s Rooney often took his team to such places as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville because of competition from baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-American Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first big-money player in the league. White led the NFL in rushing his rookie year, and today is one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni as a U.S. Supreme Court Justice.

In 1940, Rooney changed his team's name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the city's heritage, but the name change did not drastically change the team's losing ways. A 7-4 record in 1942 under head coach Walt Kiesling marked the Steelers' first winning season, due in part to the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the following year Dudley joined the armed forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with Philadelphia (Phil-Pitt) in 1943 and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned to win NFL MVP honors after leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 1947 Sutherland led the Steelers to an 8-4 finish to share the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever post season game, 21-0 to Philadelphia. That spring, Sutherland died unexpectedly while on a scouting trip.

John Michelosen succeeded Sutherland, and posted a 20-26-2 record while coaching the Steelers through the 1948-51 seasons.

In 1952, Joe Bach returned to coach the team he had previously coached in 1935-36. That year the Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T formation. When Bach resigned for health reasons in 1954, assistant Walt Kiesling began his third stint as the Steelers' head coach. Kiesling had coached the team in 1939-40 and 1941-44, with his third stint lasting from 1954-56.

In 1957 Buddy Parker was named head coach, and he directed the Steelers to five non-losing records in his eight seasons with the flamboyant Bobby Layne quarterbacking the team for three years. In Layne's last year with the Steelers, 1962, the team finished 9-5 to earn its second postseason berth before losing to Detroit, 17-10. Parker finished his stay with a 13-10-1 record, ranking third in team history today to Chuck Noll and Sutherland.

Brief stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of Noll in 1969. The 37-year-old Noll became the 14th man to coach the Steelers, and he brought with him a belief in building through the draft. His first selection in 1969 was All-America defensive tackle Joe Greene, the initial building block of the "Steel Curtain" defense and now a member of the Hall of Fame.

A 1-13 finish in Noll's first year gave him the opportunity to select first overall in the 1970 draft, so Noll tabbed quarterback Terry Bradshaw, around whom he would bring a dominating offensive attack.

In 1970 the Steelers made two significant changes, moving from the NFL's Century division to the new AFC's Central division with the merger of the NFL and AFL. They also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium was opened. Prior to Three Rivers, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and from 1958-63 at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium. Pitt Stadium was the team's home from 1964-69 until Three Rivers was built in 1970.

The Steelers showed gradual improvement at the start of the 1970s, with 5-9 and 6-8 records in 1970 and '71. In 1972 the Steelers came of age with an 11-3 finish to win their first-ever division title. It had been 40 years since their birth before the Steelers won a championship, but once they did, they achieved a degree of success unprecedented and still unequalled in professional football.

The Steelers' first playoff game of 1972 was against the Oakland Raiders, and it marked the team's first postseason victory in its 40-year history when Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute decided the 13-10 win. The Steelers' dream season ended the next week when Miami claimed the AFC Championship with a 21-17 decision, but the Steelers had risen to a new level which would continue to the end of the decade.

A 10-4 mark and wild card playoff berth in 1973 preceded a second post-season game against Oakland, but the Raiders avenged the previous year's loss, 33-14. In 1974 the Steelers won the division title with a 10-3-1 record and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) on their way to Super Bowl IX. A fierce Pittsburgh defense posted the 16-6 victory over Minnesota to give the Steelers their first of an NFL-record four Super Bowl championships.

In 1975, the Steelers won 11 consecutive games to finish 12-2 for their second straight division title. They defeated Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, setting up their second straight Super Bowl win, this time over Dallas by a 21-17 margin. The victory made the Steelers the third team to win back-to-back Super Bowls.

Postseason losses after consecutive division titles ended the 1976 and 1977 seasons. In 1976 the Steelers rebounded from a 1-4 start to win nine straight and finish 10-4, but they lost to Oakland (24-7) in the second round after beating Baltimore (40-14) in the playoffs. In 1977, the Steelers dropped a playoff game to Denver (34-21) after completing the regular season with a 9-5 mark and their fourth straight AFC Central title.

Returning to make their third Super Bowl appearance in 1978, the Steelers rode the momentum of a league-best 14-2 record to get past Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5) en route to Super Bowl XIII and a rematch with Dallas. The 35-31 decision made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

In 1979 history was made when the Steelers claimed Super Bowl win number four, marking the second time they won consecutive Super Bowls. They beat the Los Angeles Rams 31-19 following a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins over Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central titles, eight straight years of playoffs, and four Super Bowl championships (IX, X, XIII, XIV), the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

The new decade was not as friendly as the Steelers failed to qualify for the playoffs after finishing 9-7 in 1980 and 8-8 in 1981.

In 1982 the Steeler organization celebrated its 50th anniversary by returning to postseason play with a 6-3 record in the strike-shortened campaign. An anniversary banquet was held during the season to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh during the week of activities and exhibits, but the San Diego Chargers ended the Steelers' anniversary campaign with a 31-28 playoff win.

In 1983 the Steelers claimed their eighth AFC Central title with a 10-6 record, but once again fell short in the playoffs, 38-10 to the Los Angeles Raiders.

Moving a step closer to returning to the Super Bowl in 1984, the 9-7 Steelers won their 9th division championship and followed with a playoff win at Denver (13-7). In the AFC Championship game, however, Miami dominated with a 45-28 assault.

FRITO-LAY "CHALLENGE FOR CHILDREN"

Since the "Challenge For Children" program began in 1983, the Frito-Lay Corporation has donated $211,100 to youth-related charities in the Tri-State area. In 1989, for the seventh consecutive season, Frito-Lay will contribute $100 for every point the Steelers score in regular and post-season games.

Last year's total was $33,600. In 1983 the amount was $36,500, in 1984 it was $43,900 as the Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship game, in 1985 the total was $37,900, in 1986 the donation was $30,700, and in 1987 the sum was $28,500.

Charities which have been a part of this program are Children's Hospital, Ronald McDonald House, American Diabetes Youth Research, Cystic Fibrosis, Sickle Cell Society, National Society for Autistic Children, the Abraxas Foundation, Boys Clubs of Western Pennsylvania, Spina Bifida, and the Parental Stress Center. Grants were also provided to the Western Pennsylvania School for Blind Children, March of Dimes, Pittsburgh Rehabilitation Institute, Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, the Lupus Foundation of America, and Make-A-Wish Foundation. This year the donations will go to Project Bundle-Up, Boy Scouts of America, Association for Retarded Citizens, and the Abraxas Foundation.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 when they finished 7-9, followed by a 6-10 record in 1986. Losses in the last two games of 1987, another strike-shortened season, dropped the Steelers to 8-7 and out of playoff contention. Last year the team struggled through its worst campaign since Noll took over in 1969, finishing 5-11 with six- and four-game losing streaks. But three wins in the final four weeks got the Steelers pointed in the right direction entering 1989.

The patriarch of the Steelers, Art Rooney, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1964. At that time he had begun turning over much of the operation of the team to his oldest son, Dan. Having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Dan Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. Now in his 35th year with the Steelers, he is one of the most active NFL executives and one of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs.

Among his community activities, Dan Rooney serves as vice president for The United Way, and is an officer and board member for The American Ireland Fund, The American Diabetes Association, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation, and Duquesne University.

As a key member of several NFL committees over the past 16 years, Dan Rooney has served on the board of directors for NFL Properties, the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films, the Scheduling Committee, and the Ring Committee. In 1973 he was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion clubs in 1976. That year Dan was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL owners and the Players' Association. Rooney is currently a member of the six-person Management Council Executive Committee and is chairman of the Worldwide American Football League Committee.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High, where he played quarterback. He went on to Duquesne University and was graduated in 1955 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. Dan and his wife Patricia live in Mt. Lebanon, where they raised nine children.

The Steelers' single game regular season home attendance record is 59,541 established September 30, 1985 vs. Cincinnati. The single game postseason mark is 53,546 vs. San Diego on January 9, 1983.

SELLOUT STRING ENDED AT 119

From November 5, 1972 until October 18, 1987, the Steelers had 119 consecutive sellouts for regular season and postseason games at Three Rivers Stadium. Entering the 1987 season it was at 118, the NFL's third-longest behind Washington (158) and Denver (126). The Steelers' 1987 home opener vs. San Francisco was consecutive sellout #119, but in the final week of the strike vs. Indianapolis the Steelers saw their first non-sellout at Three Rivers in 16 years.

Entering the 1989 season, the Steelers' last 13 home games have been sold out. In total, the Steelers have played before a sellout crowd at Three Rivers in 132 of their last 133 games, and 132 of the 150 played in Three Rivers.

STEELER COACHES

CHUCK NOLL

Head Coach

Entering his 21st season with the Steelers, Chuck Noll ranks as the second-winningest active coach in the National Football League. His overall career record of 183-132-1 (.581) also places him fifth in career wins among the league's all-time coaches, trailing only George Halas (325), Don Shula (277), Tom Landry (270), and Curly Lambeau (234).

The 57-year old Noll is also one of just four men who have coached the same team for 21 consecutive seasons, joining Lambeau (29), Landry (29), and Steve Owen (23). 1989 is his 37th consecutive year in professional football, a career that has included seven years as a player, nine as an assistant coach, and 21 as a head coach.

The most distinguishing among Noll's many accomplishments is his status as the only coach with four Super Bowl championships, and the only active coach who has won at least two Super Bowls without a loss. Just three former coaches — Bill Walsh (3-0), Vince Lombardi (2-0), and Tom Flores (2-0) — were undefeated in at least two Super Bowl appearances.

Noll also heads the list of the six all-time coaches with 15 or more postseason game appearances, owning a 15-7 record (.682), and he ranks second behind Joe Gibbs (11-3) among active coaches with 10 or more postseason games.

The Chuck Noll era in Pittsburgh began in 1969 when he was named the 14th head coach in the team's history. In the previous nine years as an assistant coach, Noll had developed his firm belief that champion teams are built through sound drafting. His first act with the Steelers was to select North Texas State All-America defensive tackle Joe Greene on the first round of the 1969 draft. After struggling through a 1-13 campaign, the Steelers won the rights to the first overall pick in 1970, which Noll used to tab Louisiana Tech quarterback Terry Bradshaw. With those two selections, Noll had begun building the foundation of what would become the most dominant dynasty in football. In fact, three of the first 20 and four of the first 38 players

Noll drafted — Greene, Bradshaw, cornerback Mel Blount, and linebacker Jack Ham — are now members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The 1970 Steelers improved to 5-9 in their first season in Three Rivers Stadium. Continued improvement resulted in a 6-8 mark in 1971 before the Steelers turned the corner in 1972 with an 11-3 finish for their first division title in the 40-year history of the franchise. A 13-7 last-minute playoff win over Oakland marked the team's first postseason victory, and although that win was followed by a 21-17 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game, Noll had elevated the Steelers to a new level and opened the door to a streak of eight years of postseason play.

In 1973 the Steelers qualified for a wild-card berth before losing to Oakland, 33-14. The following year Noll's troops stormed through a 10-3-1 season for the first of six consecutive Central division titles. They then marched by Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) to reach Super Bowl IX, where they dominated Minnesota for a 16-6 win and Noll's first NFL title.

A repeat performance the next year, when the Steelers went 12-2 and beat Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs before finishing off Dallas with a 21-17 decision in Super Bowl X, made Noll only the third coach in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. Lombardi and Shula were the others.

In 1976 the Steelers stumbled through a 1-4 start, but Noll regrouped his team and they reeled off nine straight wins to finish 10-4. They victimized Baltimore (40-14) in the playoffs but could not get past Oakland, falling by a 24-7 margin. The next year the team finished 9-5 before losing to Denver (34-21) in the opening round of the playoffs.

History was made at the end of the 1978 campaign, when Noll led the Steelers through a team-record and NFL-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins over Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Super Bowl XIII was a rematch against Dallas, and the Steelers prevailed with a 35-31 win to become the only team to win three Super Bowls.

The record books were rewritten again in 1979 when Noll claimed Super Bowl win number four in a 31-19 victory over the Los Angeles Rams following a 12-4 regular season and postseason victories over Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With four Super Bowl wins in six years, the Steelers were tagged the 1970s "Team of the Decade."

In 1980 and 1981 the Steelers' playoff streak was broken after records of 9-7 and 8-8. 1982, which marked the Steelers' 50th season, saw the team return to postseason action after going 6-3 in a strike-interrupted year. The Steelers lost to San Diego (31-28) in the Super Bowl tournament, but they were back on track as they claimed the division title each of the next two years.

In spite of a 10-6 finish in 1983, the Steelers bogged down in the playoffs and lost to the Los Angeles Raiders (38-10). The next year they gained momentum at the end, claiming the division crown on the final weekend with a 13-7 win over the Raiders. They traveled to Denver for a 24-17 playoff victory, but were outgunned by Miami in the AFC Championship (45-28) in their last postseason appearance.

In 1985 Noll's Steelers began their current playoff drought of four years, their longest since Noll took over in 1969. But a return to sound drafting has given the Steelers a nucleus of young talent that will improve with experience. The Steelers' 1-6 start in 1988 was their worst since Noll began in 1969, but he brought his team back to win three of their final four games and get them headed in the right direction once again entering the 1989 season.

After his college playing career at Dayton, where he was team captain, Noll was drafted by the Cleveland Browns on the 21st round in 1953. He played guard and linebacker for seven seasons (77 games), during which the Browns made the playoffs five times with four Eastern conference championships (1953-55, '57) and two NFL titles (1954, '55).

Noll retired as a player following the 1959 season at the age of 27, and embarked upon his coaching career in 1960 as an assistant to Sid Gilman with the Los Angeles (later San Diego) Chargers. In Noll's six seasons with the Chargers (1960-65), the team went to the playoffs five times with five Western conference titles (1960, '61, '63, '64, '65), and won the AFL Championship in 1963.

In 1966 Noll joined Shula's Baltimore Colts staff for three campaigns, during which the Colts lost a total of seven games and played in Super Bowl III against the New York Jets. Following the Super Bowl, Noll was named head coach of the Steelers.

In his 36 years of pro football, a career which has spanned four decades, Noll has been involved with a winning team 27 times and participated in post-season play 22 times. As one of the NFL's most respected coaches, Noll was asked by Commissioner Pete Rozelle to serve a two-year term on the league's competition committee in 1984-85.

Charles Henry Noll was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on January 5, 1932. He attended Holy Trinity School and Benedictine High in Cleveland prior to enrolling at Dayton, where he was captain of the football team. He was graduated from Dayton in 1953 with a bachelor of science degree in education. Chuck and his wife Marianne have one son, Chris, who is a teacher at Proctor Academy in Andover, New Hampshire. The Nolls live in Upper St. Clair.

RON BLACKLEDGE
Offensive Line Coach

Ron Blackledge begins his eighth year on the Steeler coaching staff and takes on the responsibility of the entire offensive line. Employing more pulling and trapping than any other NFL team, the Steelers' blocking schemes are among the most complex in the league.

Blackledge started with the Steelers on Aug. 31, 1982 as an offensive assistant, and was named offensive line coach two days later when Rollie Dotsch left for the USFL. From 1984-88 Blackledge shared the offensive line coaching duties, focusing on the tackles and tight ends.

Blackledge's 31-year coaching career includes 9 years at the high school level, 14 in college, and 8 in the NFL.

A native of North Canton, Ohio, Blackledge started his coaching career at Canton South High in 1960. He coached at Timken (1963-65) and Glenwood (1966-67) High Schools in Canton before breaking into the college ranks when he moved to Ashtabud College in 1968 as offensive line coach.

Stops as offensive line coach for Cincinnati (1970-72), Kentucky (1973-75), and Princeton (1976) followed.

In 1977 Blackledge was named offensive coordinator at Kent State, and was head coach from 1979-81 before joining Noll's staff the next year.

As a player, Blackledge starred as a tight end and defensive end for Bowling Green from 1957-59, and was later inducted into the school's Hall of Fame. He was graduated in 1960 with a bachelor's degree in physical education, and in 1967 received his master's in guidance and physical education from Ohio University.

Ron and his wife Linda have three children — daughters Michelle (6-13-84) and Traci (8-17-71) and son Todd (2-25-61), who is a Steelers quarterback. Ron was born April 15, 1938 in North Canton, Ohio. The Blackledge family lives in the North Hills.

DAVE BRAZIL
Linebacker Coach

Dave Brazil joined the Steeler coaching staff on Feb. 9 of this year as the team's new linebacker coach. He arrived with new defensive coordinator Rod Rust after both spent the 1988 season with the Kansas City Chiefs. Brazil was a defensive coach for the Chiefs for the past five years.

Brazil is a veteran of 19 years of coaching at the collegiate and professional levels. In 1989 he celebrates his 30th season of coaching, including 10 years at the high school level in Michigan. In 10 seasons (1958-67) of high school coaching his teams enjoyed a streak of eight years during which they never lost more than two games. From there Brazil held offensive or defensive coordinator positions at five different colleges.

In 1968 Brazil joined the college ranks at Holy Cross, where he spent two seasons as offensive and defensive coordinator. Two years as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1970-71) were followed by three seasons (1972-74) as offensive and defensive coordinator for Eastern Michigan.

In 1975 Brazil got his first position at the professional level as defensive coordinator for the World Football League's Detroit Wheels. The next year he held the same post for the WFL Chicago Fire.

In 1978 Brazil returned to college coaching with two years as Boston College's defensive coordinator, followed by three (1980-82) at Kent State.

Brazil's first NFL position was as a defensive assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs (1984-86). In 1987 he coached the secondary and in 1988 the team's linebackers.

Brazil was graduated from the University of Detroit in 1958 with a business administration degree.

Dave and his wife Bridget have six children — daughters Kathleen and Mary Ann, and sons Michael, Daniel, Thomas, and Patrick. Dave was born in Detroit, Michigan, on March 25, 1936. The Brazils live in Pittsburgh.

JOHN FOX
Defensive Backs Coach

John Fox was named the Steelers' defensive backs coach last Feb. 10 after three years as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh. This is the first NFL coaching position for the 34-year old Fox.

In taking over the Steeler secondary, Fox inherits a very talented yet very young group of players. But his track record in working with youth is impressive, having his Pitt defense ranked among the top 10 in the nation for pass defense each of his three seasons there.

A veteran of 10 years of coaching defensive backs at seven different colleges, Fox began in 1979 at U.S. International University. Following were one-year stops at Boise State (1980), Long Beach State (1981), Utah (1982), Kansas (1983), and Iowa State (1984).

In the summer of 1985 Fox took the defensive backs coaching position for the United States Football League's Los Angeles Express. He returned to the college ranks that fall, and to Kansas, joining Mike Gottfried's staff.

In 1986 Fox went with Gottfried from Kansas to Pittsburgh as defensive coordinator, where he had been the past three years. In his first season, Fox's defense ranked ninth in the country, yielding 276.9 yards per game. The following year they jumped to fourth, with 233.0 yards per game, and last season they finished fourth again with a 254.2-yard-per-game average including second in pass defense with 118.9 yards per game. Three of Fox's Pitt-players were taken in the NFL draft in 1988 — Quintin Jones, Gary Richard, and Billy Owens.

Fox was a standout defensive back at San Diego State from 1975-77, and was graduated in 1977 with a bachelor's degree in physical education as well as a teaching certificate.

John and his wife Robin have one son, Matthew (6-5-87). John was born Feb. 8, 1955 in Virginia Beach, Virginia. The Fox family lives in Upper St. Clair.

JOE GREENE
Defensive Line Coach

Joe Greene embarks upon his third year of coaching the Steeler defensive line, where he is still remembered as one of the greatest players ever to play the position. He joined Chuck Noll's staff on Feb. 19, 1987, just five months before being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

Greene, one of three assistants who also played under Noll, was the first player drafted by Noll into the NFL. A perennial All-Pro defensive tackle for the Steelers for 13 seasons, his career, spanning 1969-1982, included 10 Pro Bowl appearances at the top of a long list of honors. He retired following the 1982 season.

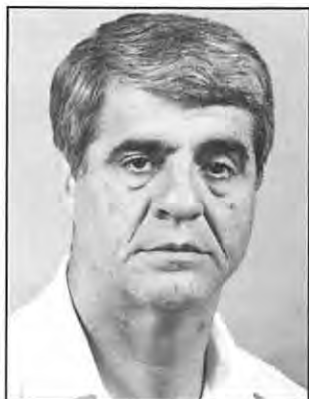

After being the fourth player selected overall in the 1969 draft, Greene won NFL defensive rookie of the year honors and played in the first of eight consecutive Pro Bowls following his first season. As the heart of the famed "Steel Curtain" defense of the 1970s, Greene was considered the most dominating defensive lineman in the league. He accumulated 66 career quarterback sacks, which still ranks second in team history, seven years after his retirement.

In 1982 Greene was named to the Steelers' All-Time team, and in 1987 was presented the first Walter Camp Football Foundation Alumni Award.

A native of Temple, Texas, Greene attended Dunbar High prior to developing into a consensus All-American at North Texas State. The head coach for Greene's final two seasons (1967-68) was Steeler defensive coordinator Rod Rust.

Greene was graduated from North Texas State in 1968 with a bachelor's in physical education, and now serves on the university's board of trustees.

Joe and his wife Agnes have three children — sons Major (7-29-68) and Delon (10-13-69), who both attend North Texas State, and daughter JoQuel (10-13-73). Joe was born in Temple, Texas on Sept. 24, 1946.

DICK HOAK
Offensive Backfield Coach

Dick Hoak is in his 28th year with the Steeler organization and his 18th on the coaching staff. He is the longest-tenured Chuck Noll assistant and one of three who also was a player under Noll. Hoak's last year as a player (1969) was Noll's first as the team's head coach.

Hoak was named the Steelers' offensive backfield coach in 1972 after one year of coaching high school football. He is the only remaining assistant from all four Steeler Super Bowl staffs.

As a seventh-round draft choice out of Penn State in 1961, Hoak enjoyed an outstanding 10-year career as a running back for the Steelers. He amassed 3,965 career rushing yards, and upon his retirement following the 1970 season Hoak was the second-leading ballcarrier in team history behind Hall of Famer John Henry Johnson. Today, 20 years after the end of his career, Hoak still ranks fourth behind Franco Harris, Johnson, and Frank Pollard. He led the team in rushing in 1965, '68, and '69. In 1968 Hoak's career-best 858 yards ranked fourth in the NFL and led him to the Pro Bowl that season. He was also honored as the Dapper Dan 1968 man of the year in sports.

Hoak's name still appears in the Steeler record book, ranking eighth in career TDs (33), fourth in rushing TDs (25), and second in career rushing attempts (1,132). He added 145 receptions for 1,152 yards and eight TDs and had a 77-yard TD run in 1968 which is the fourth-longest in team history.

A native of Jeannette, Pa., the 49-year old Hoak was a standout running back and quarterback for Penn State, receiving MVP honors his senior year. He was graduated from Penn State with a degree in social studies in 1961.

Dick and his wife Lynn have three children — daughters Kelly (5-18-65) and Katie (7-23-68), and son Richard (7-5-72). Dick was born in Jeannette Dec. 12, 1939. The Hoak family lives in Greensburg.

TOM MOORE
Offensive Coordinator

Tom Moore is in his seventh year as the Steelers' offensive coordinator and his 13th as a member of Chuck Noll's staff. He originally joined the Steelers as wide receivers coach in 1977, taking over as offensive coordinator in 1983 after six seasons. Other than Dick Hoak, Moore is the only remaining coach from the Steelers' Super Bowl teams, having been on the staff for Super Bowls XIII and XIV.

Moore oversees the Steelers' offense, focusing on the team's quarterbacks and the passing game. A veteran of 27 years of coaching, his career includes 12 years at the college level, two in the military, one in the World Football League, and 12 with the Steelers.

Moore began his coaching career in 1961 at his alma mater, Iowa. He started with two years as freshman coach before coaching for the Army in 1963 and 1964. In 1963 he was stationed in Korea and the following year at Ft. Benning, Georgia.

A four-year stint as offensive backfield coach at Dayton (1965-68) preceded stops at Wake Forest as offensive coordinator in 1969 and Georgia Tech as offensive backfield coach in 1970-71.

In 1972 Moore was named offensive coordinator at Minnesota. He left the next year to coach one season for the WFL's New York Stars in 1974, returning to Minnesota for the 1975 and '76 seasons as offensive coordinator. In 1976, Moore's quarterbacks were the Kansas City Chiefs' defensive backs coach and former Steeler defensive coordinator Tony Dungy, and the Cleveland Browns' quarterback coach, Marc Trestman.

As a player, Moore quarterbacked Iowa from 1957-60. He was graduated with a bachelor's degree in history in 1961, and earned his master's in guidance from Dayton in 1966.

Tom and his wife Emily have two children — daughter Terry (8-31-64) and son Daniel (1-17-68). Tom was born Nov. 7, 1938 in Owatonna, Minnesota. The Moores live in Upper St. Clair.

DWAIN PAINTER
Receivers Coach

Dwain Painter is in his second season with the Steelers after joining the team Feb. 15, 1988. Painter celebrates his 25th year of coaching this season, including six at the high school level, 17 in college, and two with the Steelers.

In overseeing the Steelers' wide receivers, Painter works closely with offensive coordinator Tom Moore in mapping the team's passing game.

A native of nearby Monroeville, Pa., Painter began his coaching career at Wall High School in Wall Township, New Jersey. He coached there from 1965-70 before breaking into college coaching.

In 1971 he moved into the college ranks as offensive coordinator at San Jose State, and two years later was named quarterbacks/receivers coach at the College of San Mateo. In 1974-75 Painter served as offensive coordinator at Brigham Young.

For three seasons, 1976-78, Painter handled the quarterbacks and receivers at UCLA, which led to his first head coaching position in 1979 at Northern Arizona. After compiling a record of 16-17 in three seasons at Northern Arizona, Painter served as assistant head coach for four years (1982-85) at Georgia Tech.

Two more stints as offensive coordinator, at Texas (1986) and Illinois (1987), were followed by his move to Pittsburgh and the Steelers.

The 47-year old Painter attended Gateway High in Monroeville. He played under the successful Pete Antimmarino, who is still coaching at that school. Painter was a member of the school's first graduating class in 1960.

From 1961-64 Painter played defensive back at Rutgers. He was graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1964. Painter also received his master's in education in 1966.

Dwain and his wife Diane have two children, daughter Deborah (12-23-62) and son, Doug (10-21-71). Dwain was born in Monroeville, Pa. on Feb. 13, 1942. The Painters live in Wexford, Pa.

ROD RUST
Defensive Coordinator

Rod Rust, a veteran of 11 years as a defensive coordinator in the NFL, was named the Steelers' defensive coordinator on Jan. 25 of this year. He joined the Pittsburgh staff after a year as defensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Rust has established a widely respected track record in his 14 NFL seasons. He started with the Philadelphia Eagles under Dick Vermeil in 1976-77 after 13 years of coaching at the college level.

Rust, 60, embarked upon a coaching career in 1960 at New Mexico. After three seasons he began a four-year stint at Stanford (1963-66).

In 1967 Rust was named head coach at North Texas State. His star player for his first two seasons was Steeler defensive line coach Joe Greene. Rust coached at North Texas State until 1973, when he moved to the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes for three campaigns.

Rust got his start in the NFL as Philadelphia's linebackers coach, coaching there in 1976-77. In 1978 he was hired as Marv Levy's defensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs, where he spent five seasons (1978-82).

In 1983 Rust was named defensive coordinator for the New England Patriots. He held that position for five seasons, during which New England finished in first or second place in the AFC East every year. Rust's 1985 defensive unit ranked third in the AFC as the team won the AFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XX.

Rust returned to Kansas City for the 1988 season under Frank Gansz, and joined the Steelers after Gansz was replaced by Marty Schottenheimer.

Rust played center and linebacker at Iowa State from 1947-49.

Rod and his wife Jean have four children — sons Jeff and Greg and daughters Kris and Amy. Rod was born Aug. 2, 1928 in Webster City, Iowa. The Rusts live in Bethel Park, Pa.

GEORGE STEWART
Special Teams Coach

George Stewart is the newest member of Chuck Noll's staff, having joined the Steelers last March 3 to coach the special teams. Stewart has been an assistant coach at the college level for the past six years. This is his first NFL coaching position.

Stewart, a former All-America guard at Arkansas under Lou Holtz, began his coaching career in 1983 as a graduate assistant at Arkansas. The following year, when Holtz was hired as head coach at Minnesota, Stewart joined him as offensive line coach.

After two seasons at Minnesota, Stewart became a member of Holtz's staff at Notre Dame in 1986 as tight ends coach. He coached the tight ends and special teams for two seasons, and the defensive ends in 1988.

Stewart starred as a guard at Arkansas from 1977-80. As a junior he was named to the All-Southwest Conference team, representing the 10-2 Razorbacks. For his senior year he was appointed team captain. A knee injury four weeks into the season, however, ended his college career which included appearances in the Fiesta, Sugar, and Hall of Fame Bowls his last three years.

In 1981 Stewart signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs. After the injury put an end to his playing career, he went into business in his native Little Rock, Arkansas. He returned to Arkansas as a graduate assistant two years later.

Stewart, 30, attended Parkview High School in Little Rock, where he was a prep All-America.

George and his wife Cindy have a daughter, Tiffany, and a son, Christopher. Cindy's brother is NBA standout Sidney Moncrief. George was born in Little Rock on Dec. 29, 1958. The Stewarts live in Allison Park, Pa.

MEDICAL & TRAINING STAFF

JON KOLB
Conditioning & Training
Coordinator

Jon Kolb brings a wealth of football experience to his role as the team's conditioning & training coordinator. Now in his eighth year as a Steeler assistant and his 21st with the organization, he is one of three men on Chuck Noll's staff who was previously a player for Noll. Kolb is also one of the 22 players who were on all four Steeler Super Bowl champion teams.

Kolb's career with the Steelers began in 1969, when he was the third player chosen in Noll's original draft class, two choices after Joe Greene

For the next 13 seasons Kolb helped pave the way to four Super Bowl championships from his offensive tackle position. He played in 177 games, sixth-most in team history, including 156 of a possible 157 in his first 10 seasons with 112 consecutive starts. He is one of only 12 men to have played at least 13 years for the Steelers.

On Feb. 17, 1982, Kolb announced his retirement and joined the coaching staff as conditioning coach. He took over as defensive line coach later that year when George Perles left, and coached the defensive line from 1982-86. In 1987-88 he coached special teams and was an offensive assistant prior to returning to the weight room this year to oversee the team's conditioning and training program.

A two-time All-Big Eight center and linebacker for Oklahoma State, Kolb was a second-team All-America selection his senior year and played in every major postseason bowl game. He was graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education.

In 1982 Kolb was honored by being named a member of the Steelers' All-Time team, and in 1987 he was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Hall of Fame.

Jon and his wife Debbie have two sons, Eric (8-28-71) and Tanner (10-26-80), and a daughter, Cyndi (7-6-71). Jon was born Aug. 30, 1947 in Ponca City, Oklahoma. The Kolbs live in the North Hills.

RALPH BERLIN

Trainer

Ralph Berlin is in the 30th year of his training career, his 22nd as trainer for the Steelers.

Berlin began as a student trainer at Iowa State after his playing career there was ended by a knee injury. He continued as a trainer until his graduation in 1962 with a bachelor's in physical education. That year Berlin began a three-year stint as head trainer at DePauw University. He held the same position at the University of Kentucky from 1964-67. While at Kentucky, he earned his master's degree in health and safety from Indiana, graduating in 1965.

Berlin is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the American College of Sports Medicine.

Ralph and his wife Dee have two children, daughter Beth (27) and son Steven (25). The Berlins live in Bethel Park.

FRANCIS FELD

Trainer

Francis Feld joined the Steelers as trainer in 1986 after eight years as a clinical instructor at Pitt, including the last three as head football trainer.

The 35-year-old New Castle native began his training career as a student trainer at Pitt from 1972-76. He was head trainer at Center High in Monaca for two years before joining the Pitt faculty in 1978.

In addition to his duties as trainer for the Steelers, Feld is a paramedic for the St. Margaret Hospital Paramedic Response Team. He is also a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, and an examiner for the NATA certification exam.

Feld received his bachelor's degree in history from Pitt in 1976, and his master's in physical education in 1985. Francis is single and resides in Baldwin.

EQUIPMENT & VIDEO STAFF

TONY PARISI
Equipment Manager

Tony Parisi celebrates his 25th year with the Steelers in 1989, having joined the organization in 1965 as equipment manager. He joined the Steelers after five years as head trainer and backup goaltender for the Pittsburgh Hornets hockey team.

For 25 years Parisi has been in charge of the purchasing, fitting, customizing, issuing, and reconditioning of the Steelers' equipment and uniforms.

Parisi grew up playing hockey in his native Canada. He enjoyed a 16-year playing career from 1949-65, mostly at the professional level. He played the 1950-51 seasons in the Chicago Blackhawk organization as well as a five-year stint in Europe.

Tony and his wife Joan have two daughters, Paula (24) and Beth (20). The Parisi family lives in Mt. Lebanon.

RODGERS FREYVOGEL
Field Manager

Rodgers Freyvogel enters his 10th year with the Steelers as field manager. He joined the organization in 1980 to oversee the preparation and maintenance of the team's practice fields at St. Vincent College as well as Three Rivers Stadium. He also assists Tony Parisi with the issuing and reconditioning of the players' equipment and uniforms.

Freyvogel also manages the miscellaneous practice equipment, such as footballs, blocking sleds, and field equipment, that the team uses throughout training camp and the season.

A Pittsburgh native, the 37-year-old Freyvogel grew up on the North Side, where he attended North Catholic High. Rodgers is single and lives in Sewickley.

BOB McCARTNEY
Video and Film Director

Bob McCartney was named the Steelers' film director in 1973, and in the past 16 years he has seen his job undergo dramatic changes, particularly since the NFL went from film to video tape format in 1986.

McCartney began with the Steelers working in the team's ticket office prior to taking over the filming operation.

A native of Pittsburgh, McCartney attended South Catholic High. He went on to Wheeling (W.V.) Jesuit College, and was graduated in 1972 with a bachelor's degree in English.

Bob and his wife Gail have two children — daughter Kathleen (8) and son Robert (2). Bob was born in Pittsburgh on May 16, 1950. The McCartney family lives in Mt. Lebanon.

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT

DICK HALEY

Director of Player Personnel

Dick Haley begins his 19th season as the Steelers' director of player personnel this year. It is also his 24th season with the organization including four years as a player.

Haley was named director of player personnel in 1971 to oversee the scouting, testing, evaluating, and drafting of college players, as well as personnel moves and trades.

A native of Midway, Pennsylvania, Haley started his scouting career with the BLESTO scouting combine in 1966. After five years with BLESTO, he joined the Steelers.

In his 19 years of handling the Steelers' drafting, Haley has seen two of those classes, 1971 and '74, considered two of the most productive in the history of the draft. Prior to this year, the Steelers' last two draft classes combined had 18 of the 22 players make the roster.

Haley's NFL career began in 1959 when he was drafted as a defensive back in the ninth round by the Washington Redskins, where he played two seasons before going to the expansion Minnesota Vikings in the veteran draft pool in 1961. Later that year he was acquired by the Steelers, playing four seasons and ranking among the team's interception leaders all four years, 1961-64.

Haley was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh, where he played halfback from 1955-59. He was a member of Pitt's Sugar Bowl and Gator Bowl teams, and was the rushing and scoring leader as a senior.

Dick and his wife Carolyn have two children, daughter Callie and son Richard. The Haleys live in Bridgeville.

TOM DONAHOE

Director of Pro Personnel and Development

Tom Donahoe takes on new duties in his fourth season with the Steelers. He spent his first three years as the team's East talent scout before being named director of pro personnel and development in January of this year.

In his new role, Donahoe is responsible for the scouting of opposing NFL teams and personnel liaison to the league office and the other teams.

Donahoe began his scouting career with BLESTO, joining the Steeler personnel department in 1986. That followed a 16-year career as a high school football and basketball coach in western Pennsylvania, highlighted by consecutive WPIAL football championships by his 1979 and 1980 Seton LaSalle teams.

Donahoe attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania, graduating in 1969 with a bachelor's degree in English. Tom and his wife Mary Margaret live in Mt. Lebanon.

TOM MODRAK
College Scouting Coordinator

Tom Modrak is in his 11th year with the Steelers since joining the organization full-time in 1979 as pro talent scout. This year he takes on new responsibilities as college scouting coordinator. Modrak's duties involve

BOB SCHMITZ
Talent Scout

CHARLES BAILEY
Talent Scout

Charles Bailey joined the Steelers in June following eight years as a scout for National Football Scouting. He is a lifelong resident of Winston-Salem, N.C. Bailey played football at Winston-Salem State from 1969-73 and was graduated with a physical education degree in 1974. He received his master's in guidance and counseling from North Carolina A&T in 1980. Bailey, 38, coached at Winston-Salem State from 1976-81 before joining National, for whom he scouted the east region of the country for the past eight years. Charles and his wife Carolyn have two daughters, Kahmil (5) and Aundrea (3), and live in Winston-Salem, N.C.

overseeing the complex process of evaluating the college talent pool.

After spending his first eight seasons as pro talent scout, Modrak served as director of pro scouting for two years, 1987 and '88, before taking over the coordination of college scouting in January of this year.

In 1987 Modrak was responsible for assembling the Steelers' strike replacement team, which won two of its three games and outscored its opponents 70-50 in those three contests. Eight of the Steelers' replacement players stayed on the roster for the rest of the 1987 season, and five were still on the 1989 training camp roster.

Modrak began his scouting career in 1973 as a part-time scout for the Steelers, followed by six years scouting for BLESTO. He rejoined the Steelers on a full-time basis in 1979.

Modrak attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he was graduated in 1965 with a bachelor's degree in geology. In 1972 he received his master's in physical education from West Virginia.

Tom and his wife Sandy have two daughters, Stephanie and Erin. The Modraks live in Pittsburgh.

Bob Schmitz is a veteran of 14 seasons of scouting for the Steelers. He is responsible for evaluating the college talent in the west region of the country. Schmitz began scouting for the Steelers in 1976.

A former player for the Steelers, Schmitz was the team's 14th-round draft choice in 1961. He played linebacker for six years, from 1961-66.

Schmitz got his start in scouting in 1971 with BLESTO. After five years he joined the Steelers' personnel department.

Schmitz played college football at Montana State, and was graduated in 1961 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

Bob and his wife Kathryn have four children — daughters Meghan and Amy and sons Bobby and Michael. The Schmitz family lives in Glendale, Arizona.

MAX McCARTNEY
Talent Scout

Max McCartney joined the Steelers in June for his 30th year in football as an administrator, coach, and scout. He began as a college coach in 1959 and spent 21 seasons coaching at Whittier College, San Diego State, Utah State, Stanford, Cal-Berkeley, and Illinois. McCartney also coached in the CFL for the British Columbia Lions (1977) and Calgary Stampeders (1988). His previous NFL experience includes one year as administrative assistant to Bill Walsh for San Francisco in 1979, and in 1987 he was a scout for the San Diego Chargers. McCartney, 52, grew up in Los Angeles and played running back and linebacker for Whittier College. He was graduated in 1959 with an education degree and received his master's in 1962. Max and his wife Pamela live in Monticello, Ill.

BIRTHDATE—July 16, 1959

BIRTHPLACE—Parys, Orange Free State, South Africa

HOW ACQUIRED—Waivers (1982 from Buffalo)

NFL EXP.—8th Year

GAMES PLAYED-STARTED—'82 (9-0), '83 (16-0), '84 (16-0), '85 (16-0), '86 (16-0), '87 (12-0), '88 (16-0)

CAREER TOTALS: 101-0

PRO: One of the most consistent and productive placekickers in NFL history. Ranks 3rd in history of league for FG accuracy, converting 77.8% (165 of 212) of FG tries, trailing only New Orleans' Morten Andersen (151/193, 78.2%) and Kansas City's Nick Lowery (201/258, 77.9%). Held top ranking from Oct. 13, 1986 to Oct. 25, 1987, when Andersen qualified with 100th FG. Is also 7th-leading active scorer in AFC with 727 career points, and needs just 5 more points to break 11-year old team mark of 731 by Roy Gerela.

Owner of 10 all-time team records including most single season points (139), most single game kicking points (21), most FGs in career (165), season (33), and game (6), longest FG (55), highest FG pct. for career (77.8%) and single season (87.0%), most consecutive FGs (18), and most consecutive PATs (202). Streak of 202 PATs is 3rd-best in NFL history, as is 99.1% PAT rate. Has converted 6 longest FGs in team history, all of 50+ yards.

Played in 2 Pro Bowls (1984, '86). Has made game-winning kick in final 2 minutes 4 times, and accounted for more points than Steelers' margin of victory in 21 of team's 51 wins since 1982. 1988: Converted 2nd-most FGs in NFL in making 28 of 36 attempts (77.8%) including 21 of 22 inside the 40.

Finished with 118 points to rank 3rd in NFL and mark 1st 100-point campaign since 1985, 4th overall. Made 8 of 1st 12 FG attempts, with only misses coming from 46, 48, 49, and 47 yards. Week 4 at Phoenix (10/9) had FG try blocked for 1st time in 36 straight attempts. Had best game of career and broke 3 team records week 8 vs. Denver (10/23) in making all 6 FG attempts, all 3 PATs for 21 points. 2nd of 6 FGs was 147th of career, eclipsing Gerela's record of 146. 21 points were most ever scored by an AFC kicker and made him 4th player in history to make 6 FGs without a miss. Continued streak to 12 straight FGs over 4 weeks before having 57-yard attempt blocked vs. Philadelphia (11/13) after making 1st 4 FG tries in that game.

At Houston (12/4) week 14 converted 1st 2 PAT attempts to extend streak to 200, becoming 4th player in NFL history to make 200 straight, but missed on 5th PAT try of game to end streak at 202 for 3rd-best in history. 1987: Made 22 of 27 FG tries and 21 of 21 PATs for 87 points to rank 5th in AFC.

Tallied 12 points in opener vs. San Francisco (9/13), followed by 11 in 1st game after strike, a 23-20 win vs. Cincinnati (10/25). Hit 20-yard game-winner with 1:47 remaining in that contest, but slipped from 1st to 2nd in NFL history for FG accuracy as Saints' Andersen hit 100th FG that day. Two weeks later vs. Kansas City (11/8) converted 44-yard FG with 4:02 remaining for winning points and 1st of 7 straight FGs over 4 games. Accounted for 12 points vs. Cincinnati (11/22) including 52-yard effort. Selected alternate to Colts' Dean Biasucci for Pro Bowl. 1986: Scored 95 points with 21 of 32 on FG attempts, 32 of 32 on PATs. Started slowly with just 2 FG tries in 1st 3 games, but hit 3 of 4 to spark 1st win of season week 4 at Houston (9/28). Became NFL's all-time leader in career FG accuracy week 6 at Cincinnati (10/13) with 2nd FG of the day marking 100th of career.

Forced overtime at Cleveland (11/23) in game 12 with 40-yard FG tying score at 31-31. Converted just 9 of 15 FG tries in final 5 games, but closed out with 4 of 5 performance vs. Kansas City (12/21). Had 19-yard try blocked.

STEELER TOTALS: 3-3

PRO: Experienced veteran who joined Steelers in 1988 in trade with Kansas City Chiefs. Spent first 5 years of NFL career with Kansas City, ranking 5th or 6th in team history in all passing categories. Started 24 of 40 games played for K.C. with 13-11 record as a starter. Extremely intelligent player with good size and a strong arm. 2nd QB, following David Woodley (1984), to be acquired in trade by Noll. 1988: Joined Steelers March 29 in trade that sent 4th-round pick to Chiefs. Made 3 starts when Bubby Brister was out with dislocated finger, completing 38 of 79 passes (48.1%) for 494 yards, 2 TDs, 3 Ints. First action as Steeler came in starting role week 6 at Phoenix (10/9). Completed 8 of 20 for 114 yards in 3 quarters of play. The next week vs. Houston (10/16) threw for 251 yards in completing 21 of 42 with 9-yard TD pass to Charles Lockett in addition to 2 Ints. In final action of season got first win as Steeler starter vs. Denver (10/23). Threw just 17 times, completing 9 for 129 yards, as ball-control offense gained 256 yards rushing. 1987: Played in just 3 games, including starting first 2 of season, his fewest since rookie year. Finished with 154 yards on 15 of 31 passing. Started opener vs. San Diego (9/13) and was 6 of 15 for 79 yards with 1 Int. The next week made final start for Chiefs vs. Seattle (9/20), completing 8 of 15 for 59 yards with 1 TD. Played briefly in relief of starter Bill Kenney in first game after strike, and did not play again for remainder of season. Was on 5-man inactive list for last 4 games. 1986: Started first 7 games before being replaced by Kenney. Completed season with 5-3 record in 8 total starts, and compiled 2nd-best totals of career with 96 completions on 211 passes for 1,200 yards with 10 TDs, 6 Ints. Posted career-high 63.0% completion rate week 4 in come-from-behind win at Buffalo (9/28). Connected on 17 of 27 attempts for 210 yards, 2 TDs. Was replaced in 2nd half vs. San Diego (10/19) in game 7 and made just one more start in regular season. Replaced injured Kenney as starter vs. Denver (12/7) and kept playoff hopes alive in sparking 37-10 win with 14 completions on 29 attempts for 106 yards, 2 TDs. Also started playoff game at N.Y. Jets (12/28) when Kenney was out with hand injury, but threw for just 80 yards with 2 Ints. while completing 12 of 21 passes. 1985: Started last 5 games and 6 overall, posting 3-3 record. First start came week 7 vs. L.A. Rams (10/20), but suffered worst game of career with 6 Ints. while completing 14 of 32 passes for 161 yards. Helped team snap 7-game losing streak in next start week 12 vs. Indianapolis (11/24) with 246 passing yards on 16 of 31 outing with 1 TD. Tossed career-best 3 TD passes 2 weeks later vs. Atlanta (12/8). Suffered dislocated thumb in 2nd quarter after good start vs. San Diego (12/22), with 143 yards on 4 completions including 56-yarder to Stephone Paige. Passer rating in final 5 starts was 77.6. 1984: Started first 7 contests after Kenney suffered broken thumb in final preseason game. First NFL start was opening day at Pittsburgh (9/2), when he led team to 37-27 win. Directed scoring drives on first 3 possessions, finishing with 19 completions on 36 passes for 170 yards, 1 TD. Completed 18 of 35 for 280 yards and 2 TDs for 2nd straight road victory the next week at Cincinnati (9/9). Contributed 295 yards in completing 23 of 48 passes, all career-highs, 2 weeks later in loss at Denver (9/23). Was backup after Kenney's return in 2nd half vs. San Diego (10/14) week 7, but started for injured Kenney in game 11 vs. Houston (11/11). 1983: Completed 20 of 34 passes (58.8%) for 259 yards with 3 TDs in 4 relief appearances. First NFL action came week 5 vs. St. Louis (10/2), with TD pass to Willie Scott capping first drive. Was 7th player drafted overall in 1983 and 2nd among 6 1st-round QBs — John Elway (#1), Blackledge (#7), Jim Kelly (#14), Tony Eason (#15), Ken O'Brien (#24), and Dan Marino (#27).

COLLEGE: Led team to national championship as senior and finished 6th in Heisman Trophy balloting. Completed career with 4,812 yards and 341 completions on 658 passes (51.8%) with 41 TDs and 41 Ints. Set 28 school records and was 29-4 as starter.  NFL EXP.—4th Year
 GAMES PLAYED-STARTED—'86 (2-2), '87 (2-0),
 '88 (13-13)
 CAREER TOTALS: 17-15

PRO: Explosive young signal-caller who has brought bomb back to offensive attack . . . Possesses strong arm and excellent mobility, and has emerged as emotional field leader since winning starting job in 1988 . . . As 3rd-round selection in 1986 was highest QB drafted by Steelers since Mark Malone in 1980 . . . In just 17 career games (15 starts) has risen to 9th on team's all-time passing list with 2,945 yards (195/start) . . . In spite of 4-9 record as starter last year, was most improved member of offense and primary reason for 3-1 finish at end of season . . . 1988: Won starting nod in training camp in open competition with Todd Blackledge and Steve Bono . . . Completed season with 2,634 passing yards for 6th in AFC and best by a Steeler QB since Bradshaw's 2,887 in 1981 . . . Also scored 6 TDs rushing, 2nd best ever by a Steeler QB . . . Rating of 65.3 was 12th in AFC, but 5 of his 11 TD passes were 65 yards or longer (89, 80, 80, 72, 65) . . . First win in starting role came opening day vs. Dallas (9/4) with 13 of 27 passing for 214 yards, 1 TD rushing . . . Week 2 at Washington (9/11) threw for 258 yards with TDs of 80 to Louis Lipps, 72 to Dwight Stone . . . Had 330 passing yards on 22 completions, both career-highs, week 4 at Buffalo (9/25). Personal-best 61.1% completion rate (22/36) also included TD passes to Weegie Thompson and Warren Williams, but had 3 passes picked off. Added 2 rushing TDs in losing cause.

Suffered dislocated middle finger on throwing hand at end of 3rd quarter week 5 vs. Cleveland (10/2), and was placed on inactive list for 3 games, returning to start at N.Y. Jets (10/30) . . . Gradually returned to form after completing just 11 passes in each of first 3 games back . . . Week 11 vs. Philadelphia (11/13) completed 89-yard TD pass to Lipps for longest completion in AFC in 1988 . . . Spearheaded exciting 37-34 upset at Houston (12/4) week 14 to hand Oilers their only home loss, decided on 80-yard scoring drive in final minute. Tossed 3 TD passes for first time in career while completing 17 of career-high 36 attempts in that game for 311 yards, earning AFC offensive player of the week honors. Connected with Lipps for TDs of 80 and 65 yards and later marched team 80 yards in 8 plays (1:10) on game-winning drive, capped by 16-yard toss to Merrill Hoge with :20 remaining . . . 1987:

Made just 2 brief appearances in relief in game 2 at Cleveland (9/20) and week 10 vs. Houston (11/15). Attempted only 12 passes, completing 4 with 3 interceptions. Was placed on inactive list for final game vs. Cleveland (12/26) with the flu. 1986: Started 2 games when Malone was out with thumb injury. First NFL action game as starter week 6 at Cincinnati (10/13) in Monday night game. Completed 12 of 33 passes for 191 yards, including 58-yarder to Calvin Sweeney, and scored on 1-yard sneak. Demonstrated great poise and mobility in pro debut. The next week vs. New England (10/19) got starting call again, but managed just 9 completions for 100 yards on 27 attempts with 2 interceptions while being sacked 5 times. Did not play again for remainder of season. Had been kept in favor of QB Scott Campbell, who was waived Sept. 23 to make room on roster for Earnest Jackson. Was 5th QB drafted in 1986, 67th player overall. Needs 2,877 passing yards in 1989 to jump from 9th to 5th in team history, passing Eric Brown (5,821).

COLLEGE: Ranked 7th in nation as senior, his only year as starter, with 134.8 rating after completing 191 of 342 passes (55.8%) for 2,880 yards, 17 TDs. Had 5 300-yard outings and 9 completions of 50 or more yards. Was named Louisiana's 1985 most valuable offensive football player and 1st team All-Southland Conference in leading league in passing and total offense. # 1988 STEELER REVIEW

STEELERS 24, DALLAS 21

September 4 at Pittsburgh, 56,813

The Steelers claimed their 100th regular season win in Three Rivers in opening their 20th season under Chuck Noll. Despite a statistical dominance by the Cowboys, Pittsburgh won by not turning the ball over and by taking it away three times. Earnest Jackson ran for 76 yards and scored two touchdowns and Bobby Brister added a touchdown while making just his third NFL start. Thomas Everett played an outstanding game with six tackles, a fumble recovery which set up Gary Anderson's only field goal, and an interception at the Steeler 15-yard line to halt a Dallas scoring threat in the second quarter. David Little came up with the biggest turnover of the day when he intercepted Steve Pelluer in the endzone with 3:14 left in the game and the Steelers clinging to a three-point lead.

WASHINGTON 30, STEELERS 29

September 11 at Washington, 54,083

The Steelers held a nine-point lead over the defending Super Bowl champion twice in the second half and were in position to win until a 19-yard field goal by Chip Lohmiller with 12 seconds left gave the Redskins a 30-29 edge. Redskin QB Doug Williams picked up where he left off as the Super Bowl MVP by completing 30 of 52 passes for 430 yards and two touchdowns. Bobby Brister threw the first two touchdown passes of his career on strikes of 80 yards to Louis Lipps and 72 yards to Dwight Stone as the teams combined for 856 total offensive yards and 680 passing yards. The deciding point proved to be a failed PAT try by the Steelers in the third quarter when Harry Newsome mishandled the snap. Washington's 515 total yards and 83 plays were the third-most ever allowed by a Steeler team.

CINCINNATI 17, STEELERS 12

September 18 at Pittsburgh, 56,647

Cincinnati snapped a three-game losing streak to the Steelers and took over the division lead with an opportunistic defense which forced six turnovers and five sacks. Despite their problems, which included seven fumbles and two interceptions, the Steelers were never out of the game as both teams' offensive units struggled. Pittsburgh lost fumbles on all three of their second quarter possessions, but took a 9-7 lead on their initial second half drive. A 65-yard Boomer Esiason to Eddie Brown scoring play in the fourth quarter reversed the Steelers' 12-10 margin and marked the fifth lead change of the game. On the final drive of the day, Bubby Brister led the Steelers to Cincinnati's 20-yard line before Eric Thomas' interception at the eight.

BUFFALO 36, STEELERS 28

September 25 at Buffalo, 78,735

The Steelers committed five turnovers and had two punts blocked to beat themselves for the second straight week. Despite making three takeaways in the first half and converting one into a touchdown, the Steelers could not overcome a two-point halftime deficit. Bubby Brister had the first 300-yard game of his career, threw two touchdown passes, and scored two touchdowns himself, but he was intercepted three times by a much-improved Bills defense. Buffalo stretched their lead to 30-14 in the third quarter when Robb Riddick scored a touchdown off Harry Newsome's second blocked punt, and when Scott Norwood made his fourth and fifth field goals the Bills led by 36-14. Brister brought the Steelers back for two quick touchdowns on 73- and 53-yard drives, but he was intercepted by Mark Kelso at the Bills' 24 in the final minute.

CLEVELAND 23, STEELERS 9

October 2 at Pittsburgh, 56,410

Cleveland forced five Steeler turnovers to set up 13 of 16 second half points and post the Browns' fifth straight win over the Steelers. QB Bubby Brister struggled through three quarters before dislocating the middle finger on his throwing hand at the start of the fourth period. Steve Bono threw 23 passes in relief and was intercepted twice as the Browns held on to a 13-9 lead. Gary Anderson's third field goal gave the Steelers a 9-7 halftime edge, but Matt Bahr added two field goals to build a 13-9 lead before SS Brian Washington's 75-yard interception return put the Browns ahead 20-9. Cleveland's five second-half takeaways included four interceptions and a fumble recovery.

PHOENIX 31, STEELERS 14

October 9 at Phoenix, 53,278

Cardinal QB Neil Lomax threw for three touchdowns and completed 65% of his passes in 94-degree heat and Todd Blackledge made his first start as a Steeler in the team's first-ever visit to Phoenix. The Cardinals' win, their first over the Steelers since 1969, was built by holding Pittsburgh to season-lows in possession time, first downs, and rushing yards. The Steelers' four first quarter possessions resulted in two fumbles, a punt, and a blocked field goal, but KR Rod Woodson kept the score even at 7-7 with a 92-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, the first by a Steeler since 1978. The Cardinals, however, scored on their first three drives of the second quarter to build a 24-7 lead, and in the second half forced the Steelers to punt the first five times they had the ball. LB Bryan Hinkle's fumble recovery which he returned to the 16-yard line set up a 12-yard touchdown pass.

HOUSTON 34, STEELERS 14

October 16 at Pittsburgh, 52,229

For the first time since the 1970 merger the Steelers failed to win any home games against an AFC Central team. The Oilers forced four turnovers and blocked two punts to hand the Steelers their sixth straight loss for the team's longest losing streak since 1969. The Steelers had more first downs, total yards, and passing yards than Houston, but could not overcome the mistakes which had become too common during the losing streak. The two blocked punts were the third and fourth by the Oilers and the third and fourth allowed by the Steelers. Houston's 34 points were the most they ever scored vs. the Steelers, and the 20-point loss tied for the Steelers' third-worst in Three Rivers. WRs Louis Lipps and Ernest Givins each had their eighth 100-yard receiving day.

STEELERS 39, DENVER 21

October 23 at Pittsburgh, 49,811

The Steelers snapped their six-game skid by utilizing a no-huddle offense, reverses by WR Louis Lipps, a halfback pass, and a record-setting performance by PK Gary Anderson. QB Todd Blackledge and RB Rodney Carter accounted for all three Pittsburgh touchdowns and Anderson made all six of his field goal attempts and accounted for a career-high 21 points. Carter broke off right tackle on the third play from scrimmage for a 64-yard scoring run, leading the Steelers to 256 rushing yards with 105 of his own. All four Denver turnovers were converted for 16 points, and the Steelers capitalized on all seven drives that penetrated the Denver 20-yard line. Pittsburgh made 11 first downs and scored 24 points before the Broncos managed a first down in the second quarter. Anderson became the fourth player in league history to make six field goals without a miss, tying an NFL record.

NEW YORK JETS 24, STEELERS 20

October 30 at New York, 64,862

Bubby Brister returned to the starting lineup after a three-week absence, but the Jets claimed their first-ever win over Pittsburgh despite being held under 200 yards in total offense. The Steelers took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter but the Jets tied it before halftime after former Steeler LB Robin Cole recovered Merrill Hoge's fumble at the Steelers' 25 to set up New York's first touchdown. Rod Woodson muffed a fair catch to sustain a third quarter Jets' drive which put them ahead 17-10 after they benefitted from a running-into-the-kicker penalty and interference in the endzone on successive plays. In the fourth quarter Harry Newsome had a punt blocked and the Jets recovered it at the seven to set up RB Freeman McNeil's touchdown run. RB Earnest Jackson capped a 68-yard drive with a 17-yard scoring run to close the score to 24-20. After forcing the Jets to punt, the Steelers made a final comeback attempt, but Brister was intercepted at the Jets' 43 with two minutes left.

CINCINNATI 42, STEELERS 7

November 6 at Cincinnati, 56,403

In spite of making no turnovers for the first time since opening day, the Steelers hit the low point of the season in being dominated by the eventual conference champion. The Bengals' 559 total offensive yards were an all-time high allowed by a Steeler team, and included 221 rushing yards and 28 first downs. RB James Brooks ran for three touchdowns. FB Ickey Woods rushed for 110 yards, and WR Eddie Brown caught 7 passes for 216 yards for a Bengal team record. QB Boomer Esiason, who threw for 318 yards and three touchdowns, hit Brown with an 86-yard scoring pass on Cincinnati's second play from scrimmage to mark the longest pass play vs. the Steelers since 1971. The Bengals' 42 points were the most they ever scored vs. the Steelers and the 35-point deficit was their biggest win of the series.

PHILADELPHIA 27, STEELERS 26

November 13 at Pittsburgh, 46,026

In the first intrastate matchup in nine years, Pittsburgh scored on all four of their first half possessions to build a 16-14 lead, but Philadelphia rallied with 13 points in the second half despite three turnovers to win by a point. PK Gary Anderson, who hit a 52-yard field goal to open the scoring, saw his 57-yard try on the final play of the game blocked by Clyde Simmons. WR Louis Lipps lofted his first NFL pass 13 yards for a touchdown to RB Merrill Hoge on the Steelers' second possession. Lipps caught an 89-yard touchdown pass from Brister in the third quarter and finished with 6 receptions for 171 yards for his ninth 100-yard game and second-best of his career. Hoge ran for 102 yards for his first 100-yard game, adding 4 catches for 56 yards. Eagle QB Randall Cunningham accounted for 324 offensive yards with 276 passing and 48 rushing with two touchdowns.

CLEVELAND 27, STEELERS 7

November 20 at Cleveland, 77,131

The Steeler punting unit made three critical mistakes, two of which directly resulted in touchdowns as the Steelers lost their sixth straight decision to the Browns and their fifth Central division game of the season. The Browns' first touchdown, a 2-yard Bernie Kosar pass, came after a high snap from C Mike Webster went over the head of P Harry Newsome and rolled to the 2. On the Steelers' next series, Newsome suffered his NFL record-breaking sixth blocked punt of the season when Don Bragg broke through. Frank Minnifield picked up the ball at the 11 and scored to put the Browns ahead 17-0. The Steelers then countered after P Max Runager was unable to handle the snap from punt formation, giving the Steelers a first down at the Cleveland 5. WR Reggie Langhorne caught a 77-yard touchdown pass from Kosar on the second play of the second half as the Browns extended their lead.

STEELERS 16, KANSAS CITY 10

November 27 at Pittsburgh, 42,057

Ball-control offense and a productive rushing attack paved the way for the Steelers' third victory, snapping a four-game losing streak. Six players contributed to the Steelers' 214 rushing yards, while Kansas City was held to 88 yards on the ground. Making few mistakes and consuming time with sustained drives, the Steeler offense managed just one touchdown, a 10-yard Merrill Hoge blast, but set up PK Gary Anderson for three chip shot field goals. The Steeler defense did its share by stopping the Chiefs on three goal line stands in the fourth quarter as they drove to Pittsburgh's 7, 8, and 14-yard lines. CB Rod Woodson intercepted at the goal line to halt the first drive. PK Nick Lowery settled for a 26-yard field goal on the second, and the Chiefs ran out of time at the end as QB Steve DeBerg threw incomplete into the endzone over WR Kitrick Taylor from the 14-yard line on the final play.

STEELERS 37, HOUSTON 34

December 4 at Houston, 47,791

The Steelers drove 80 yards to battle back after letting an 11-point third quarter lead evaporate, scoring the winning touchdown with 20 seconds left in a wide-open game that saw the lead change hands five times. Bubby Brister threw for 311 yards with three touchdown passes for the first time in his career, with bombs of 80 and 65 yards going to Louis Lipps. Dwight Stone's 92-yard kickoff return in the second quarter gave Pittsburgh its first lead. Lipps' second touchdown catch put the Steelers ahead 24-13, but Lorenzo White raced 90 yards with the next kickoff to close to within four. QB Warren Moon and RB Merrill Hoge each scored twice in the second half to cap the scoring. PK Gary Anderson made his first four PATs to extend his streak to 202, the fourth-longest in league history, but his final kick hit the left upright for his first miss since 1983. The Steelers' 426 total yards and 332 passing were season-highs, and the win was their only road victory and the Oilers' only loss at home. Lipps turned in 166 receiving yards and CB Dwayne Woodruff had two interceptions for the fifth time.

SAN DIEGO 20, STEELERS 14

December 11 at San Diego, 33,816

Former Steeler QB Mark Malone completed 71% of his passes and RB Gary Anderson rushed for 170 yards as the Chargers led the entire game. Malone threw for a touchdown and scored one himself in the first half while the Steelers were forced to punt four times and were intercepted once in their five first half possessions. An interception and fumble ended their first two drives of the second half before Preston Gothard caught a Brister touchdown pass at the start of the final period to get the Steelers on the scoreboard. A 28-yard punt return by Rod Woodson coupled with a personal foul then got the Steelers to the 25, from where Brister hit Rodney Carter with a 22-yard pass and then scored from the 3, narrowing the margin to 17-14. PK Steve Deline hit a 42-yard field goal with 1:07 left before Brister moved the Steelers to midfield. Three desperation passes in the final 20 seconds fell incomplete.

STEELERS 40, MIAMI 24

December 18 at Pittsburgh, 36,051

Season-highs in rushing yards and points paced the Steelers to their best outing of the season and their first defeat of Miami since 1980. Pittsburgh's 305 rushing yards, the fifth-highest in club history, were led by rookie RB Warren Williams, whose 117 yards marked his first 100-yard game. CB Dwayne Woodruff and LB Darin Jordan returned interceptions 78 and 28 yards, respectively, for touchdowns, and WR Louis Lipps scored on a 39-yard reverse in the second quarter. PK Gary Anderson made all four of his field goal attempts, and RB Merrill Hoge caught 3 passes to break the team record for running backs with 50. C Mike Webster, playing in his 220th regular season game, was awarded the only game ball.

STEELER MILESTONES IN 1989

HEAD COACH CHUCK NOLL

- 6th game of 1989 will be his 300th regular season contest as Steeler head coach. Enters 1989 with regular season record of 168-125-1 (.573) in 294 games. Will be the 5th coach in NFL history to coach 300 regular season games, following George Halas (498), Tom Landry (418), Curly Lambeau (380), and Don Shula (378 entering 1989).

PK GARY ANDERSON

- With 727 career points to rank 2nd in team history, needs 5 points to break Roy Gerela's 12-year old team record of 731.
- Has attempted 212 field goals in career, and with 16 more will eclipse Gerela's team mark of 227.
- Needs to score 100 points to become 1 of 8 all-time NFL players to have had at least 5 seasons with 100 or more points.

QB BUBBY BRISTER

- Has 2,945 career passing yards to rank 9th in team history, and needs 273 to pass Cliff Stoudt (3,217) for 8th place, 334 to top Dick Shiner (3,278) for 7th, 1,496 to move ahead of Bill Nelsen (4,440) for 6th, and 2,876 to pass Ed Brown (5,821) for 5th place.

WR LOUIS LIPPS

- Has 203 career receptions to rank 7th in team history. Needs 27 to move to 6th ahead of Buddy Dial (229) and 28 to top Ray Mathews (230) for 5th place.
- Ranks 6th in career receiving yards with 3,721, and needs 199 to move to 5th ahead of Mathews (3,919) and 1,003 to pass Dial (4,723) for 4th place.
- With 29 touchdown receptions is tied for 6th in team history. Needs 6 to pass Mathews (34) for 5th place, 9 to top Elbie Nickel (37) for 4th, and 13 to eclipse Dial (42) for 3rd. 13 TD catches would also be a new single season team record.
- Has 35 career touchdowns to rank 7th. Needs 3 to move to 6th ahead of Nickel (37), 8 to pass Dial (42) for 5th, and 9 to move ahead of Mathews (43) for 4th.
- With 210 career points ranks 11th in team history, and needs 13 to move to 10th (Nickel 222), 43 for 9th (Dial 252), and 52 for 8th (Mathews 261).
- When season opens looks to extend streak of at least 1 pass reception in his last 25 games.

DE KEITH WILLIS

- Has 40.5 career sacks to rank 4th in team history. Needs 6 to surpass Dwight White (46) for 3rd place behind leader L.C. Greenwood (73.5) and Joe Greene (66).

CB DWAYNE WOODRUFF

- Has 30 career interceptions to rank 6th in team history. Needs 3 to pass Jack Ham (32) for 5th, and 7 to top Mike Wagner (36) for 4th place.

STEELERS IN HALL OF FAME

MEL BLOUNT

TERRY BRADSHAW

Pro Football Hall of Fame, Class of 1989

Former Steeler greats Mel Blount and Terry Bradshaw were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 5 of this year, both in their first year of eligibility. They are the third and fourth members of the Steelers' four Super Bowl champion teams to be enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

Blount roamed the Steeler defensive secondary for 14 seasons after becoming the team's third-round draft choice in 1970. At 6-3, 205 pounds, Blount was an intimidating physical force, but it was his ability to cover receivers that set him apart. His bump-and-run style prompted rule changes in the 1970s which gave receivers an advantage, but Blount adapted and continued to dominate. Upon his retirement following the 1983 season, Blount had 57 interceptions in his career, a figure that still stands as a team record and tied for seventh in NFL history. He played in 200 regular season games over 14 seasons, missing only one, played in five Pro Bowls, and was named the NFL's most valuable defensive player in 1975.

Bradshaw also joined the Steelers in 1970, as the first overall selection in the draft, and played 14 record-breaking seasons for the Steelers. The three-time Pro Bowl player and two-time Super Bowl Most Valuable Player finished his career with 3,901 pass attempts and 2,025 completions for 27,989 yards, 12 touchdowns, and 210 interceptions. In postseason play, where Bradshaw really shined, he completed 261 of 456 passes (57.2%) for 3,833 yards, 10 touchdowns, and 26 interceptions. That includes his four Super Bowl winning performances, which totalled 49 completions on 84 passes (58.3%) for 822 yards, nine touchdowns, and just three interceptions. Bradshaw is the only quarterback ever to lead his team to a Super Bowl title four times.
