HISTORY OF THE STEELERS

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933 by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the ten-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988 following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief," as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901 in Coultersville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he still lived on the North Side just a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931 to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art, Jr., Tim, John and Pat.

1930s After founding the Pirates in 1933, Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and is one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He retired in 1993 after serving 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

1940s In 1940 Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record for a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game, 21-0 to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1950s Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952 Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44, and 1954-56 campaigns.

1960s Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne quarterbacked the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game vs. Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks second among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

Brief stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of the 37-year-old Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1970s A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin loss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added on the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted six players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970, when the Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69 the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders 13-7 with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973 the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory vs. the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975 the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claim their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 win vs. the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

The 1976 Steelers struggled in a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories including five shutouts to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but could not get past Oakland in a 24-7 loss after both starting running backs, Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular season record.

In 1978 the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins vs. Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win vs. Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year as the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams 31-19 in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins vs. Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

1980s As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982 the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10 to the Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 Miami assault in the AFC Championship game, however, prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by 6-10 in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7.

In 1988 the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1990s A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991 Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. The first season of the new era saw the Steelers win the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed new-found success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's coach of the year and six Steelers played in the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its tenth division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers the home field throughout the playoffs, but in the first postseason game at Three Rivers in exactly 10 years the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss in Kansas City in the wild card round of the postseason.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their third division title in three years with the AFC's best record of 12-4. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted their first AFC Championship game since 1984. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers, 17-13.

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance, and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys 27-17 in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Arizona.

Steelers founder Art Rooney, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1964, had begun by that time to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. A decade later, after having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Dan Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. Now in his 38th year in the organization, he is one of the most active NFL owners and one of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs.

Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The United Way of America, The American Ireland Fund, The American Diabetes Association, Presbyterian University Hospital, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation, and Duquesne University.

Dan Rooney has also been a member of several NFL committees over the past 20 years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films, and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976 Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993.

Rooney is currently a member of the eight-person Management Council Executive Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee, and the NFL Properties Executive Committee.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Dan and his wife Patricia live on the North Side.

BILL COWHER
HEAD COACH

Bill Cowher continued his assault on the NFL record books in 1995 when the 38-year-old Pittsburgh-area native became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance, and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979.

The Steelers' 11-5 regular season record was the second best in the AFC and ran Cowher's four year mark to 43-21-0 (.672). His 43 victories are the fifth most by an NFL coach in his first four seasons. Only George Seifert (52), Paul Brown (47), Joe Gibbs (44) and Chuck Knox (44) won more games in their first four seasons.

Cowher is also only the fourth head coach in NFL history to make the playoffs in each of his first four seasons. The others were Brown, Knox and John Robinson.

The 1995 season was probably Cowher's best coaching job since taking over the Steelers' head position in 1992. In the offseason, the team lost seven veterans through free agency and trades. They had to play four games without starting quarterback Neil O'Donnell and almost the entire season without 1994's starting cornerbacks Deon Figures and Rod Woodson, a perennial all-Pro. In addition, linebacker Chad Brown missed six games after a phenomenal start.

Despite the setbacks, Cowher was able to rally his team from a near-disastrous 3-4 start to an NFL-best eight-game winning streak and a bye in the first round of the playoffs. This was accomplished with a major change in both offensive and defensive strategies, as the Steelers made key adjustments to compensate for their personnel losses.

The 1995 Steelers led the AFC in scoring with 407 points and set eight new offensive team records. They led the NFL in time of possession (32:36/game). On defense, they established new team marks for fewest yards allowed rushing and fewest yards per game rushing (82.6/game). Their 22 interceptions were second highest in the NFL.

Cowher was introduced as the Steelers' head coach on January 21, 1992, 26 days after the retirement of Hall of Fame coach Chuck Noll. At the age of 34, Cowher was two years younger than Noll was upon becoming the Steelers' head coach in 1969.

Cowher returned to his hometown following seven years as an assistant under Marty Schottenheimer in Cleveland and Kansas City. His appointment as the Steelers' head coach immediately followed a three-year stint as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Chiefs.

Cowher has 16 years of NFL experience, including five as a player, seven as an assistant coach and four as a head coach. In his 11 years of coaching, Cowher has never been associated with a team that posted a losing record. In fact, in 10 of the 11 seasons he has been a coach, Cowher's team has advanced to the playoffs.

Under his watch, the Steelers returned to NFL prominence. Over the past three seasons the Steelers defense allowed a league-low 280 yards a game and fell just 21 yards shy of Dallas for allowing the fewest yards by any team since Cowher's tenure began.

The defense improved from 22nd in 1991 to third overall last season. The 1994 Steelers established a new team record with a league-leading 55 sacks. Only one team (Cleveland) in 1994 allowed fewer touchdowns or points per game, and they ranked no worse than second in eight of the 17 defensive categories.

In 1992, the Steelers defense posted a league-leading 43 takeaways. During Cowher's first two seasons, the team posted a +11 turnover ratio each year to rank second and third in the league in that category. In 1994, they led the NFL with a +14 ratio.

Since 1992, the Steelers' are one of only three teams to average over 2,000 yards a season and have averaged 128 yards a game to post the NFL's third best rushing attack during the Bill Cowher era. The 1994 Steelers won their first NFL rushing title since 1976 with an average of 136 yards per game.

In his first year as head coach, Cowher was selected the 1992 National Football League's Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and The Sporting News. Cowher was also named Pittsburgh's Man of the Year in Sports by the Dapper Dan Club. He directed the Steelers to their first AFC Central division crown in eight years with an 11-5 record, which was the team's best mark since they last won a Super Bowl in 1979. One of four AFC teams to win 11 games in 1992, the Steelers shared the best record in the conference as Cowher became one of only 12 coaches in NFL history to win 11 games in his first season as head coach.

The 1993 Steelers got off to a slow start at 0-2, but six wins in the next seven games brought the team to a 6-3 mark and first place in the AFC Central division. On the final weekend of the regular season the Steelers claimed the final AFC wild card berth after winning three of the last five games. Offensively, the team finished with the exact same AFC rankings as the previous year, but it improved from 21st to 13th in NFL passing rankings. The defense jumped from eighth to first in AFC total defense rankings, and from 17th to third in NFL run defense.

Cowher began his coaching career in 1985 with the Cleveland Browns. At age 28, he was the league's second-youngest assistant coach. He served on Schottenheimer's staff as the Browns' special teams coach in 1985-86 and secondary coach in 1987-88. As secondary coach, Cowher saw his 1987 group make 23 interceptions to tie for third in the AFC, while in 1988 the Cleveland defense ranked fourth overall in the conference. The following year Cowher went with Schottenheimer to the Kansas City coaching staff.

In 1989, Cowher's first season as a 32-year-old defensive coordinator, the Kansas City defense led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL in total defense. The following year the unit led the league in three categories with 60 sacks, 25 fumbles recovered and 45 takeaways. In 1991 the Chiefs ranked third in the conference and fifth overall in the NFL en route to a 10-6 finish and a wild card playoff berth.

A former linebacker and special teams standout, Cowher enjoyed a five-year NFL playing career with the Browns (1980-82) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1983-84). He signed with Philadelphia in 1979 as an undrafted free agent rookie, but was the last linebacker waived in training camp after playing in three preseason games. The following year he signed with Cleveland and earned a roster spot, playing in all 16 games including two starts at inside linebacker.

Cowher sat out the 1981 campaign after suffering a season-ending knee injury in the third preseason game. Returning in 1982 as special teams captain, he started at outside linebacker in two games while playing in all nine contests.

Cowher was traded to Philadelphia prior to the start of the 1983 season (Aug. 21) for a ninth-round draft pick. He was selected the Eagles' most valuable special teams player that year and played in all 16 games. In 1984, a knee injury kept him out of all but four games and ended his career as a player. Cowher returned to Cleveland the following season and began his coaching career as a member of Schottenheimer's Browns staff.

Cowher grew up in the Crafton area west of Pittsburgh. He is a 1975 graduate of Carlynton High School, where he excelled in football, basketball and track. He was selected honorable mention all-state in football as a senior before moving on to North Carolina State, where he earned four letters and was a three-year starter at linebacker. As a senior in 1978, Cowher was selected the team's captain as well as most valuable player after leading the defense in tackles for the second straight year. He also received the 1978 Cary Brewbaker Award as the school's outstanding defensive lineman as selected by the coaching staff. In 1979 Cowher graduated with a bachelor of science degree in education.

William Laird Cowher was born in Pittsburgh on May 8, 1957. It was at North Carolina State that Cowher met his wife, Kaye. Also a graduate of North Carolina State, Kaye and her twin sister Faye played professional basketball for the New York Stars of the Women's Professional Basketball League. The Cowhers have three daughters: Meagan Lyn (10), Lauren Marie (8), and Lindsay Morgan (5).

COACHING WINS AFTER FOUR SEASONS

With his fourth straight playoff berth, Cowher becomes the fourth head coach in NFL history to lead his team to the playoffs during his first four seasons as a head coach. The others were: Paul Brown, Cleveland (1950-53); Chuck Knox, Rams (1973-76); and John Robinson, Rams (1983-86).

Below is a list of NFL coaches with the most regular-season wins in their first four seasons:

MIKE ARCHER
Linebackers Coach

Mike Archer was named linebackers coach on March 6 of this year. This is his first NFL coaching position following 19 years of coaching at the college level.

Archer, 43, previously served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Kentucky and was named assistant head coach in 1995. He joined UK in 1993 following two-years (1991-92) as linebackers coach at Virginia.

Archer served as head football coach at Louisiana State University from 1987-90. He led the Tigers to a 27-18-1 record with appearances in the 1987 Gator Bowl and 1989 Hall of Fame Bowl, and one Southeastern Conference Championship in 1988. As the nation's youngest Division I-A head football coach (34) in 1987, Archer led the Tigers to a 10-1-1 record and 30-13 Gator Bowl victory over South Carolina. A year later, Archer directed the Tigers to the SEC title with a 6-1 league record and finished 8-4 overall. In 1990, Archer was named coach for the East-West Shrine Game.

Archer, a native of State College, Pennsylvania, lettered three seasons (1973-75) in football at Miami where he started at free safety for two seasons and also punted. As a senior, Archer was named UM's Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Archer graduated from Miami in 1975 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Hurricanes in 1976 and served under Lou Saban from 1977-78.

Howard Schnellenberger named Archer defensive backs coach in 1979. During his five seasons, Archer's teams posted a 41-16 record, which included a 31-30 Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska and subsequent 1983 national championship.

Archer joined Bill Arnsparger as defensive backfield coach for LSU in 1984, and was named defensive coordinator 1985-86. During that period, LSU had a 26-8-2 record with appearances in three bowl games - 1985 Sugar, 1986 Liberty, and 1987 Sugar — and the 1986 Southeastern Conference championship.

Mike was born July 26, 1953 in State College, Pennsylvania. He and his wife Barbara have two children - Jeffrey Matthew, 15, and Betsy Anne, 12.

DAVID CULLEY
Wide Receivers Coach

David Culley brought 18 years of coaching experience to the Steelers February 13 of this year, when he was named wide receivers coach. For 16 seasons as a college coach, Culley tutored quarterbacks, running backs, wide receivers and also served as an offensive coordinator.

Most recently Culley coached wide receivers for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1994-1995, where he was charged with molding the team's young group of receivers.

Prior to joining the Bucs, Culley served as the receivers coach at Texas A&M from 1991-93. Working under Head Coach R.C. Slocum, the Aggies dominated the Southwest Conference.

Culley was offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach for Texas-El Paso 1989-90. While with the Miners, Culley coached Victor Bailey (Eagles) and Reggie Barrett (Seahawks). From 1985-88, he was the quarterbacks coach at Southwestern Louisiana after spending 1984 tutoring the wide receivers at Western Kentucky.

In 1983, Culley was the wide receivers coach at Tennessee-Chattanooga. He served as quarterbacks/running backs coach for Middle Tennessee in 1982. From 1979-81, Culley coached wide receivers at Vanderbilt. He broke into the coaching ranks in 1978, in charge of the running backs at Austin Peay.

Culley was a quarterback at Vanderbilt where he earned his bachelor of science in health and physical education. Born September 17, 1955 in Sparta, Tennessee, David and his wife Carolyn, live in Pittsburgh with son Monty (9/5/74) and daughter Jessie (10/17/90).

CHAN GAILEY
Offensive Coordinator

Chan Gailey was named offensive coordinator on February 5 of this year, after spending the last two seasons as the Steelers wide receivers coach. This is Gailey's ninth NFL season and his 21st year in coaching. He joined the Steelers on January 24, 1994 following one season as head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama in 1993.

Under Gailey, receiver Yancey Thigpen became a pro bowl performer with a team record 85 catches and his more than 1,300 yards made him the Steelers first 1,000-yard receiver and Pro Bowler in 10 years. The receivers corp accounted for 15 touchdowns in 1995, five more than in 1994.

The 44-year-old Gailey spent six seasons as an assistant coach with the Denver Broncos (1985-90). He was Denver's offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (1989-90). During Gailey's six seasons, the Broncos won three AFC Championships and played in Super Bowls XXI, XXII and XXIV.

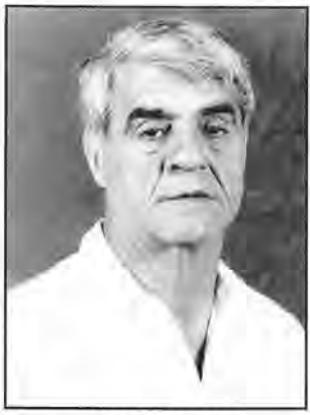

Gailey was a graduate assistant at Florida in 1974-75. He began his coaching career as defensive backfield coach at Troy State (1976-78), followed by four years at Air Force (1979-82), which included the last two seasons as defensive coordinator.

Gailey returned to Troy State as head coach for the 1983 and 1984 seasons. His 1984 team won the NCAA Division II national championship, and he was honored as conference coach of the year.

After leaving the Broncos, Gailey was named head coach of the World League's Birmingham Fire in 1991 and 1992. He led his teams to 5-5 and 7-2-1 records and joined the Barcelona Dragons as the only two World League teams to earn a playoff berth in both years of World League play.

Gailey played quarterback for Florida from 1970-73 and received a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1974.

Chan was born in Gainesville, Georgia on January 5, 1952. He and his wife Laurie have two sons, Tate (20) and Andrew (16). The Gaileys live in Pittsburgh.

DICK HOAK
Running Backs Coach

Dick Hoak, the longest tenured coach in Steelers history, is in his 35th year with the Steelers and his 25th consecutive as a Steelers assistant coach. He served as offensive backfield coach for 20 seasons under Chuck Noll, before being named running backs coach by Bill Cowher on January 27, 1992 as the only coach retained from the previous Steelers' staff.

Since 1992, the Steelers' are one of only three teams to average over 2,000 yards a season and have averaged 128 yards a game during the Bill Cowher era. In 1994, the Steelers captured their first rushing title since 1976 with 2,180 yards.

Hoak, 56, joined the Steelers' staff in 1972 under Noll after one year of coaching high school football and just two years after retiring from an outstanding playing career for the Steelers.

The Steelers' seventh round draft choice out of Penn State in 1961, Hoak spent 10 seasons in the Pittsburgh backfield. He led the Steelers in rushing three times (1965, 1968, 1969) and played in one Pro Bowl (1969) after ranking fourth in the NFL in 1968 with 858 rushing yards.

When he retired following the 1970 season, Hoak had gained 3,965 rushing yards, to rank second in team history and today stands fourth behind Hall of Famers Franco Harris and John Henry Johnson, and Frank Pollard.

Hoak also currently ranks ninth in Steelers history for career touchdowns with 33, is tied at fourth in rushing touchdowns with 25, and second in rushing attempts with 1,132. In addition to his rushing total, Hoak made 146 receptions for 1,452 yards and eight touchdowns in his career.

As a standout running back and quarterback for Penn State from 1958-60, Hoak was named his team's MVP as a senior. He graduated in 1961 with a bachelor's degree in social studies.

Dick was born on December 8, 1939 in Jeannette, Pennsylvania. He and his wife Lynn have three children-daughters Kelly (31) and Katie (28) and son Richard (24). The Hoaks live in Greensburg.

DICK LeBEAU
Defensive Coordinator

Dick LeBeau was named defensive coordinator January 25, 1995, after spending the previous three seasons coaching the defensive backs.

LeBeau is in his 38th NFL season and his 24th in coaching. He was named defensive backs coach on February 7, 1992 following 12 years with the Cincinnati Bengals, the last eight as defensive coordinator.

During his three seasons as defensive backs coach, the Steelers had one of the NFL's lowest opponent passer ratings including a 65.6 rating in 1994 to rank second in the NFL. In his first season as coordinator, the Steelers allowed 285 yards a game to rank third in the NFL. Their 82.6 rushing yards per game ranked second.

LeBeau spent his first 14 NFL seasons as a cornerback for the Detroit Lions. After being drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the fifth round in 1959, he was waived and signed with Detroit. LeBeau played in 171 consecutive games for the Lions from 1959-72 and was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1965, 1966, and 1967.

LeBeau's 62 career interceptions, which included a career-high nine to lead the NFC in 1970, ranked third in NFL history at the time of his retirement. He is tied for sixth on the NFL all-time list, trailing only Paul Krause, Emlen Tunnell, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ken Riley and Ronnie Lott, sharing sixth place with Dave Brown.

LeBeau retired following the 1972 season and began his coaching career as special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (1973-75). He also served four seasons as defensive backs coach for the Green Bay Packers (1976-79) before taking the same position with Cincinnati in 1980. In 1984 LeBeau was promoted to defensive coordinator, a position he held through the 1991 season.

LeBeau, 58, attended Ohio State, where he played offensive and defensive back. He was a member of the Buckeyes' 1957 national champion team and graduated in 1959 with a bachelor's degree in education.

Dick was born on September 9, 1937 in London, Ohio. He and his wife Nancy, have one son, Brandon Grant (17).

TIM LEWIS
Defensive Backs Coach

Tim Lewis enters his second season as the Steelers' defensive backs coach. He joined the Steelers on February 7, 1995.

His first season presented many challenges. Starting cornerback Deon Figures suffered an offseason knee injury, then Rod Woodson was lost in the season opener. Despite the losses, the secondary ranked sixth in the NFL in pass defense. The defense was paced by Willie Williams, who led the conference with seven interceptions in his first season as a starter.

This is Lewis' second stop in the NFL. He was selected 11th overall in the 1983 draft by the Green Bay Packers and was the second defensive back chosen that year. Lewis played 52 games for the Packers. He ended his career with 16 thefts and twice led or shared team honors for interceptions. His 99-yard interception return for a touchdown versus the Los Angeles Rams in 1984 still stands as a Packers' team record.

Lewis suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth game of the 1986 season. Lewis entered the coaching ranks in 1987, as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M where he remained for two years under his former college coach Jackie Sherrill. Three of his students found NFL success, including Dallas' 1992 first-round draft selection Kevin Smith.

Lewis coached defensive backs at Southern Methodist in 1989-92. Lewis' 1992 Mustang secondary led the Southwest Conference in pass defense, allowing just 182.3 yards passing per game. Starting cornerbacks Marcello Simmons (1993 4th-round, Cincinnati) and Cary Brabham (1993 free agent, Raiders) both headed to the NFL.

Lewis returned to the University of Pittsburgh in 1993 to coach the Panthers' secondary for two seasons before joining the Steelers.

A native of Quakertown, Pennsylvania, Lewis played for Pitt from 1979 through 1982 and was a starting cornerback for the Panthers in 1981 and 1982. Lewis was named an NEA all-American in 1982. He was also selected to the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Bowl that year.

Lewis received his bachelor's degree in economics from University of Pittsburgh in 1983.

JOHN MITCHELL
Defensive Line Coach

John Mitchell joined the Steelers as defensive line coach on January 31, 1994, following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell is in his 24th season of coaching including 15 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his sixth season as an NFL coach.

Under Mitchell, the defensive linemen accounted for 14.5 of the teams 42 sacks, paced by Ray Seals who tied his career best with 8.5 sacks.

A former all-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's great coaches.

Mitchell began his coaching career in 1973 as defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama. After four years at Alabama (1973-76), Mitchell spent six seasons as defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) on Lou Holtz's staff.

In 1983 Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as defensive line coach for the USFL Birmingham Stallions. In 1986 he returned to the college ranks as defensive ends coach at Temple.

In 1987 Mitchell began a four-year stint as linebackers coach at Louisiana State (1987-90). In his final season at Louisiana State, Mitchell was named defensive coordinator while continuing to coach the linebackers.

Mitchell, 45, joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles.

Mitchell played defensive end and was a two-time Junior College All-American at Eastern Arizona Junior College in 1969-70. He then transferred and played defensive end at Alabama from 1971-72.

Mitchell was named all-America in 1972, the year he graduated with a bachelor's degree in social work.

John was born October 14, 1951 in Mobile, Alabama. He and his wife Joyce live in Pittsburgh.

MIKE MULARKEY
Tight Ends Coach

Mike Mularkey, a former tight end for the Steelers in 1989-91, returned to Pittsburgh and joined Bill Cowher's staff February 8, 1996 as tight ends coach.

Mularkey, 34, was in charge of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' tight ends last season. He coached one of the NFL's most productive players - Jackie Harris - who led Tampa Bay and NFC tight ends with 62 grabs. Mularkey previously served as the team's quality control coach in 1994.

Mularkey's role as quality control coach included "breaking down" film of opponents and compiling coaching reports on their offensive/defensive tendencies. He also assisted with tight ends and special teams.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Mularkey also served as the Buccaneers's director of player programs. In that role, he assisted players in continuing their education, advised them in regards to off-season jobs and internships, provided financial education and offered family assistance.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Mularkey spent one year as the offensive line coach for Concordia (Minn.) College. He entered coaching after spending nine seasons in the NFL as a tight end, playing for the Minnesota Vikings from 1983-88 and the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989-91. Originally a 1983 ninth-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers, Mularkey was waived prior to the season and was picked up by the Vikings. He joined the Steelers as a Plan B free agent. Mularkey's career statistics included 102 receptions for 1,222 yards and nine touchdowns.

Mularkey attended the University of Florida and finished his Gator career with 55 receptions for 628 yards and three touchdowns. He is finishing his bachelor of science degree in kinesiology and sociology from the University of Minnesota.

A native of Ft. Lauderdale, Mularkey was born November 19, 1961 in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. He and his wife Betsy live in Pittsburgh with sons Patrick (10) and Shane (5).

KENT STEPHENSON
Offensive Line Coach

Kent Stephenson enters his 32nd season of coaching, his 12th in the NFL and his fifth with the Steelers. He was named offensive line coach on February 7, 1992 following seven years in the same capacity with the Seattle Seahawks.

Stephenson has been a stabilizing force for a line that has undergone many changes. During his four years, only once (1992) did Stephenson complete a season with the same starters from opening day. Due to injuries in 1995, Stephenson fielded five different starting units. The line held opponents to 24 sacks as the team set a record with 592 pass attempts. Their average of one sack per 24.7 pass attempts was just shy of the 24.6 record set in 1986 and the second-best for a Steelers' team since the NFL merger.

Under Stephenson, four of his players have earned Pro Bowl honors, including Dermontti Dawson, Carlton Haselrig, Duval Love and John Jackson (alternate).

Stephenson's coaching career began in 1965 and includes 18 years at the college level and two in the USFL prior to his entering the NFL in 1985 with Seattle.

In 1965 Stephenson began his coaching career at Wayne State (1965-68). He spent the next 18 years at North Dakota (1969-71), Southern Methodist (1972-73), Iowa (1974-76), Oklahoma State (1977-78), and Kansas (1979-82).

Stephenson moved to the professional level in 1983 as offensive line coach of the USFL Michigan Panthers (1983-84). In 1983 the Panthers won the USFL championship.

In 1985 Stephenson entered the NFL as the Seahawks' offensive line coach under Chuck Knox. He was there for the 1985-91 seasons before joining the Steelers.

Stephenson was an all-conference selection as an offensive and defensive lineman at Northern Iowa. He graduated with a degree in history and physical education in 1965, and received his master's degree in education from Wayne State in 1966.

Kent was born on February 4, 1942 in Anita, Iowa. He and his wife Shirley have two children - daughter Heidi and son Kyle.

RON ZOOK
Special Teams Coach

Ron Zook brought 18 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Steelers when he was named special teams coach February 13, 1996.

For the previous five years, Zook served on the University of Florida coaching staff. He was defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach from 1991-93. During that time Florida was the only SEC school to rank among the league's top four run defenses in all three seasons, rating second in 1993, fourth in 1992 and first in 1991. They ranked fifth in the nation in 1991 and 1994.

Zook was named special teams coordinator in 1994 and continued working with the defensive secondary. His 1994 special teams unit set a school record with five blocked punts, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

In 1995, Zook was named the Gators assistant head coach, while retaining his other responsibilities.

Before joining Florida, Zook coached defensive backs for Ohio State 1988-90. He was defensive coordinator/assistant head coach for Virginia Tech in 1987, defensive backs coach for Tennessee 1984-86, defensive coordinator for Kansas in 1983 and was the University of Cincinnati defensive coord. from 1981-82. Zook began his collegiate coaching career as the defensive backs coach for Murray State 1978-80.

Zook played defensive back for Miami of Ohio (1972-75), where he earned three letters and was selected team captain in 1975. During his tenure, Miami posted a 34-1-1 record from 1973-75 and won the Mid-American Conference title in each of those three seasons.

Zook received his bachelor's degree in comprehensive science from Miami of Ohio in 1976. He received his first coaching assignment at Orrville (Ohio) High that year and remained through 1977. Zook has tutored several NFL players during his career, including first-round draft selections Vinny Clark (Packers, '90) and Terry McDaniel (Raiders, '87).

Zook was born April 28, 1954 in Ashland, Ohio. He and his wife Denise have two children - daughter Jacquelyn (13) and son Casey (10). The Zooks reside in Pittsburgh.

STEELERS 23, DETROIT LIONS 20

September 3 at Pittsburgh, 58,002 (3:04) GAME 1

The Steelers turned the ball over four times, lost all-Pro Rod Woodson, and then lost Neil O'Donnell before Norm Johnson hit his seventh career game-winning field goal with no time remaining. Two Norm Johnson field goals provided all the Steelers' first-half points. The Lions countered with a TD pass from Scott Mitchell to Brett Perriman and a Jason Hanson field goal to take 10-6 halftime lead. The Steelers took a 20-10 lead on two Bam Morris rushing TDs, including one that was the end of a 13-play, 94-yard drive. The Lions made it a three-point game when they moved 72 yards and scored on a Mitchell pass to Herman Moore on their next possession. The Lions tied the game with a 36-yard Jason Hanson field goal with 4:26 remaining. The score came as the result of the Steelers fourth interception. The Steelers took over the ball at their own 20-yard line with 3:01 remaining. Tomczak hit six straight passes to advance the Steelers to the Lions' 26 yard line. Pittsburgh added 13 more yards rushing to run down the clock. And with four seconds remaining in the game, Norm Johnson hit the game-winning 31-yard field goal. The lost of O'Donnell earned Jim Miller his first NFL snaps.

STEELERS 34, HOUSTON OILERS 17

September 10 at Houston, 48,035 (3:11) GAME 2

The Steelers turned in a total team effort and scored in all phases of the game. After the Oilers went three and out in the game's opening series, Andre Hastings returned the following punt 72 yards for a touchdown. The defense harassed Oilers' quarterback Chris Chandler with five sacks and nine pressures. The offense added 10 points when Mike Tomczak hit Mark Bruener for a 15-yard touchdown pass and Norm Johnson connected with a 42-yard field goal. The Steelers headed into halftime with 17-3 lead. Pittsburgh extended that lead to 21 points with a Fred McAfee 22-yard touchdown run on the opening drive in the second half. The Oilers pulled within eight by taking advantage of an 11-play goal-line stand that was fueled by four Steelers' penalties. The Steelers defense responded with one forced fumble and two interceptions in the game's closing quarter. Safety Carnell Lake returned the latter interception 37 yards for a touchdown. The Oilers added one more touchdown. Pittsburgh closed the scoring with a 40-yard field goal to seal a 34-17 win. During the game, Kevin Greene recorded his 100th career sack as the defense allowed a season-low 34 yards rushing.

MIAMI 23, STEELERS 10

September 18 at Miami, 72,874 (3:15) GAME 3

The Steelers let opportunity slip into Miami's hands in the form of three interceptions and two fumbles. The Dolphins converted three of the turnovers into 17 first-half points to take a 17-3 halftime lead. The Dolphins added a field goal on their opening second-half drive to extend the lead to 20-3. An ineffective Mike Tomczak yielded to Jim Miller in the fourth quarter. Miller, who had just one snap of previous NFL experience, led the Steelers on a 14-play, 88-yard drive for a touchdown. On the Steelers' next possession, Miller got the team to the eight yardline before throwing a fourth-down interception. In one quarter of play, Miller completed 18 of 29 passes for 210 yards, 1 TD and 1 int. The loss was Bill Cowher's first Monday Night loss in 7 games.

MINNESOTA 44, STEELERS 24

September 24 at Pittsburgh, 57,853 (3:15) GAME 4

For the second straight week, turnovers became the difference as seven Pittsburgh giveaways led to 24 Minnesota points. The teams played through a scoreless 1st quarter. The Steelers made two field goals before the half, but a 58-yard TD run by Robert Smith and two Fuad Reveiz field goals gave the Vikings a 13-6 halftime lead. The Steelers started the second half with turnovers on five straight drives. Minnesota converted the thefts into 24 third-quarter points and jumped out to a 37-6 lead. Jim Miller entered the game. After throwing two interceptions of his own, Miller led the Steelers 80 yards in 15 plays for a touchdown. After the 5-yard Eric Pegram TD-run, Jim Miller hit Yancey Thigpen on a 42-yard TD pass. The Vikings added another TD reception. Pittsburgh's final score came on an eight-play, 62-yard drive that ended in a second Pegram TD. Yancey Thigpen had his first career 100-yard game. The 44 points allowed was the third most allowed by the Steelers in Three Rivers and the 20-point margin in the loss is the sixth worst loss in TRS.

STEELERS 31, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 16

October 1 at Pittsburgh, 57,012 (3:06) GAME 5

It was a game of backups and big plays as the Steelers defeated the San Diego Chargers 31-16 in a rematch of last season's AFC Championship game. The Steelers started with an 11-play, 75-yard drive and used just over six minutes before punching in a Bam Morris rushing TD on the game's opening drive. CB Willie Williams returned a Stan Humphries pass 63 yards for a TD on the Chargers first possession. Before the end of the first quarter, Pittsburgh held a 21-0 advantage after CB Alvoid Mays returned a second Humphries pass 28 yards for a score. The Chargers converted a Mike Tomczak interception into a TD, but didn't make a two-point conversion. The Steelers added a 25-yard Norm Johnson field goal and an 82-yard drive and second Morris rushing TD to take a 31-6 lead into the locker room. Humphries found Tony Martin for a 19-yard TD strike in the third quarter. The Bolts ended the scoring with a John Carney 28-yard field goal. During the game Rohn Stark made his 1000th career punt. The Steelers' defense returned two interceptions for TDs for the first time since vs. Miami (12/18/88). The Steelers held an 11:07 to 3:53 time advantage in the 4th quarter.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS 20, STEELERS 16

October 8 at Jacksonville, 72,042 (3:06) GAME 6

The Steelers fell 20-16 in the inaugural meeting between the two franchises. Jacksonville jumped out to a 7-0 lead with a seven-play, 79 yard opening drive. An Andre Hastings fumble on a punt return set up a second Jaguars touchdown. The Steelers cut the lead in half with an 88-yard drive, capped by an 18-yard touchdown catch and run by Steve Avery. With under two minutes left in the half, Jacksonville extended their lead to 17-7 with a 53-yard field goal by Mike Hollis. The Steelers moved the ball between the 20s, but continued to have problems in the "redzone." Three second-half drives inside the Jaguars' 20 yielded just two field goals. WR Yancey Thigpen had a career-best six receptions for 160 yards.

CINCINNATI BENGALS 27, STEELERS 9

October 19 at Pittsburgh, 56,684 (2:52) GAME 7

The Steelers had more "redzone" troubles and suffered their second straight division loss when they fell 27-9 to the Cincinnati Bengals. The Steelers gained 468 yards. In six trips inside the Bengals 20 yard line, Pittsburgh only made three field goals. The Bengals used big pass plays from Jeff Blake to Darnay Scott (47 yards) and Carl Pickens (41 yards) to take and hold their lead. Statistically, the Steelers dominated in most categories except the final score. During the game, Stark moved into third on the NFL's all-time list for punting yardage with 44,023 yards.

STEELERS 24, JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS 7

October 29 at Pittsburgh, 54,516 (2:54) GAME 8

The Pittsburgh Steelers pulled out all the stops against the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars and earned a 24-7 win. The Steelers lined SS Carnell Lake up at left cornerback, QB Neil O'Donnell lined up at wide receiver, QB/WR Kordell Stewart took his first snap under center, and they played a nickel defense for the first time in two years. After punting on their first possession, Pittsburgh took their second drive 10 plays and 83 yards capped by a six-yard Erric Pegram TD run. The offense outgained Jacksonville 246 total yards to 54 and took a 21-point halftime lead, while the defense forced the Jaguars to punt five times. The Steelers found a solution to their redzone problems. Four trips inside the opponent's 20 yielded three touchdowns and a field goal. Jacksonville got on the board with a third-quarter touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Pete Mitchell. The Steelers added a fourth-quarter field goal. Jerry Olsavsky made his first start since injuring his knee 10/23/93. The defense featured two new and two players in new positions.

STEELERS 37, CHICAGO BEARS 34

November 5 at Chicago, 61,838 (3:37) GAME 9

The Steelers ended a Chicago jinx as they defeated the Bears 37-34 in overtime. It was the Steelers first win in Chicago in 12 tries. Pittsburgh came back after trailing the Bears three times, before winning on a 24-yard Norm Johnson field goal, the eighth game-winner of his career. The Steelers converted four first-half turnovers into 14 points to take a 17-10 lead at the half. The Bears controlled the third quarter, producing touchdowns after a Steelers' fumble and a stalled drive to take a 24-17 lead. Pittsburgh pulled within four on Johnson's second kick, but the Bears added a field goal of their own to take a seven-point advantage. Ernie Mills returned the ensuing kickoff 49 yards to set up a game-tying score. However, on the Steelers next possession Barry Minter intercepted Neil O'Donnell at the Pittsburgh two-yard line and returned it for a touchdown and a 34-27 Chicago lead. With 3:53 remaining in the game, O'Donnell hit seven of 10 passes for 86 yards, including the game-tying 10-yard touchdown strike to Ernie Mills. Bears' quarterback Erik Kramer threw his third interception of the day to Willie Williams to send the game to overtime. The Bears won the toss, but the Steelers' defense held Chicago to four plays. Pittsburgh responded with a 13-play, 63-yard drive that included three third-down conversions. With 8:19 elapsed in overtime, Johnson kicked a 24-yard field goal.

STEELERS 20, CLEVELAND BROWNS 3

November 13 at Pittsburgh, 58,675 (2:59) GAME 10

After a sluggish first quarter, the Steelers offense began to click and the defense closed the door on the Cleveland Browns. The Steelers struck first with some razzle-dazzle as Kordell Stewart lined up at quarterback and Neil O'Donnell played wide receiver. Stewart found Ernie Mills as he streaked to the back left corner of the endzone to take a 7-0 lead. Cleveland marched to the goal line in the closing seconds of the half, but the defense held the Browns on a four-play goal-line stand and Cleveland had to settle for a field goal. After the half, Pittsburgh scored on three of their next five possessions and doubled their first half production. The Steelers defense limited Cleveland to just 10 yards in the second half (negative 9 yards net passing and 19 rushing yards). On the day, the defense allowed a season-low 120 yards.

STEELERS 49, CINCINNATI BENGALS 31

November 19 at Cincinnati, 54,636 (3:29) GAME 11

The Steelers rode into a shootout in "The Jungle" and came away with a 49-31 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals and their fourth straight win. The game looked like it might be a rout, but in the Bengals' favor. Cincinnati scored three touchdowns and a field goal on their first four possessions to take a 21-3 lead. Pittsburgh responded with a 42-yard touchdown pass from Neil O'Donnell to Ernie Mills. The two teams traded field goals before halftime and the Bengals commanded a 24-13 lead. The Bengals gained an 18 point advantage after Pittsburgh fumbled on the opening drive in the second half. The Steelers offense then took control and scored on five straight drives and the defense forced three punts and two turnovers on Cincinnati's next five possessions. The Bengals gained 185 total yards and 14 first downs in the first half, but settled for five first downs and 80 yards in the second half. Pittsburgh produced 340 yards in total offense (128 rushing, 212 passing) and 19 first downs in the second half. Forty-nine points in a game ranked sixth in team history and was the second most allowed in the history of Cincinnati. The Steelers returned from an 18-point deficit, their greatest comeback since 12/15/85 vs. Buffalo. Their 36 points in a half is the most since scoring earning 38 points in the first half versus San Diego 10/7/73.

STEELERS 20, CLEVELAND BROWNS 17

November 26 at Cleveland, 67,269 (2:54) GAME 12

The Steelers and the Browns met for the last time in Cleveland Stadium. True to the history of this series, the game wasn't decided until the 4th quarter. Pittsburgh forced turnovers on Cleveland's first two offensive plays and gained a 10-point advantage with a Norm Johnson field goal and a Mark Bruener touchdown reception. The Browns added a second-quarter field goal, but Pittsburgh took a 14-point lead with a Bam Morris touchdown. On their last drive before halftime, Cleveland marched 83 yards and Vinny Testaverde hit Michael Jackson for an 11-yard touchdown pass and pulled within seven. Cleveland opened the 2nd half with a 16 play, 73-yard drive to tie the game at 17-17. The Steelers responded with a 14-play, 70 yard drive of their own that ended with a 27-yard field goal by Norm Johnson in the fourth quarter. The Steelers' defense forced the Browns to punt on their next two series and then the vaunted Steelers' ground game came to life. Pittsburgh took over with 8:52 remaining in the game. They converted three of four third downs and Bam Morris had seven carries for 37 yards during a 16-play drive. The Steelers marched to the Browns' six-yard line before taking a knee to end the game. It was the Steelers sixth consecutive win over Cleveland, and their ninth sweep in the series.

STEELERS 21, HOUSTON OILERS 7

December 3 at Pittsburgh, 56,013 (3:09) GAME 13

The Pittsburgh Steelers produced two big plays in a defensive struggle, but they proved to be enough to defeat the Houston Oilers. Yancey Thigpen scored on a 33-yard touchdown reception in the closing seconds of the first quarter. Houston responded with a 76-yard strike from Chris Chandler to Chris Sanders in the second quarter. Pittsburgh moved to the Oilers' 26 yard line before the drive was stopped by an interception. The defense held the Oilers to five plays, when Neil O'Donnell and the offense took over with 1:40 remaining in the half. Six plays and 59 yards later, Neil found Mark Bruener for a seven-yard touchdown to take a 14-7 halftime lead. In nine second half possessions, Houston punted six times, had one drive end on downs and turned the ball over twice. Pittsburgh punted five times, but added a fourth quarter touchdown on a 30-yard run by Bam Morris to give the Steelers a 21-7 victory. The win, gave Pittsburgh Steelers their third division title in four years.

STEELERS 29, OAKLAND RAIDERS 10

December 10 at Oakland, 54,444 (3:02) GAME 14

The Pittsburgh Steelers earned their first win in Oakland since 1974, and only their third win over the Raiders in 20 years. The NFL's number one ranked defense controlled the tempo of the game all afternoon and forced the Raiders to punt on five of seven possessions in the first half. A sixth drive ended in an interception by Greg Lloyd and a seventh ended with the half. The Steelers jumped out to a 20-7 lead with two TD passes to Ernie Mills and two Norm Johnson field goals. The Raiders only first-half score came from a Neil O'Donnell interception. Oakland's final score came on their first possession of the second half, when an Erric Pegram fumble at the Pittsburgh 37 yard line resulted in a 39-yard Jeff Jaeger field goal. Willie Williams (2) and Myron Bell combined for three second-half interceptions to stop other drives. The defense held the Raiders to 28 rushing yards, the lowest since holding the San Diego Chargers to 19 (20 attempts) Oct. 10, 1993.

STEELERS 41, NEW ENGLAND 27

December 16 at Pittsburgh, 57,158 (3:04) GAME 15

For once, the Steelers came out on the plus side of a lopsided statistical battle by scoring 14 points in the closing minutes of the half and the final gun. The Patriots dominated the NFL's top ranked defense all day, but in the end, it was the defense that secured the win. With 2:15 remaining before halftime, New England had a 6-3 edge before the Steelers' offense marched 67 yards in 1:07 to take a 10-6 advantage. Then, with New England on the move, Ray Seals forced a Drew Bledsoe fumble that Brentson Buckner took 46 yards to the endzone for a 17-6 Steelers' halftime lead. The two teams traded touchdowns to open the second half. Patriots QB Drew Bledsoe found Ben Coates to end an 11-play, 83-yard drive. Pittsburgh's score came on a third down and four play, "Slash" Stewart broke free for a 22-yard rushing TD. The Patriots and the Steelers traded fourth-quarter scores before New England tied the game at 27-27 with a 22-yard touchdown run by Curtis Martin and a two-point conversion. With 1:37 remaining in the game, Neil O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills for a 62-yard touchdown to go up by 7 points. On the Patriots next possession, Greg Lloyd forced a Ben Coates fumble which Chris Oldham returned 23 yards for a touchdown. The Steelers won 41-27. Drew Bledsoe was the only QB to surpass the 300-yard mark vs. Pittsburgh this season.

GREEN BAY 24, STEELERS 19

Dec. 24 at Green Bay, 60,649 (2:59) GAME 16

The Steelers faced an aerial assault and responded with one of their. A win meant a division title for Green Bay and pride for the Steelers. It came down to an 80-yard drive and a Neil O'Donnell pass on fourth-down and five yards to go. On a day when Yancey Thigpen eclipsed the Steelers' all-time receiving mark, it was the pass he dropped in the endzone with 11 seconds remaining that determined the game. The Packers took advantage of a short field to gain the early lead on an Edgar Bennett rushing touchdown. Pittsburgh countered with a field goal, but the Packers added a second touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Robert Brooks. The Steelers offense came to life with a trademark two-minute drill. The team marched 70 yards on nine plays as Neil O'Donnell connected with Ernie Mills for an eight-yard score. The Pack cushioned their lead with a third quarter touchdown and a fourth quarter field goal. The Steelers responded with a Norm Johnson field goal and a Tim Lester touchdown to pull within five points (24-19). The defense forced a Green Bay punt and the offense took over at the Pittsburgh 20 to embark on a 19-play drive, but fell short. The loss ended the Steelers' winning streak at eight games.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

STEELERS 40, BUFFALO BILLS 21

January 6 at Pittsburgh, 59,072 (3:19)

The Pittsburgh Steelers dealt the Buffalo Bills their first postseason loss in non-Super Bowl play with a 40-21 defeat in Three Rivers Stadium. Pittsburgh scored on five of their seven first-half possessions, including touchdowns by John L. Williams and Ernie Mills on their first two drives. Buffalo added a Thurman Thomas touchdown at 49 seconds before the half, but Pittsburgh closed the half with Norm Johnson's third field goal to take a 23-7 halftime lead. It seemed the game might turn into a rout when Pittsburgh marched to the Bills' four-yard line on the first possession of the second half, but the drive ended with a Greg Evans interception. The Steelers added a record fourth field goal by Norm Johnson in the third quarter to take a 19-point lead. Buffalo battled back with a touchdown pass from Alex Van Pelt to Tony Cline and a touchdown pass from Jim Kelly to Thurman Thomas to cut the lead to less than a touchdown with over 11 minutes remaining in the game. Pittsburgh responded with a 76-yard drive that included key third-down receptions by Yancey Thigpen for 21 yards and Andre Hastings for 17 yards. Bam Morris finished off the drive with a 13-yard TD run. Interceptions by Jerry Olsavsky and Levon Kirkland ended the Bills' next two drives, the latter at the Bills' 17-yard line. Four plays later, the Steelers added a second Bam Morris touchdown and gained a 40-21 advantage at the two-minute warning. The 40 points scored tied Steelers postseason game high (40, 12/19/76 at Baltimore). The offense ran 78 plays, second most all-tome postseason, as the line allowed 0 sacks for the 12th time in Steelers postseason history.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

STEELERS 20, INDIANAPOLIS COLTS 16

January 14 at Pittsburgh, 61,062 (2:59)

The Pittsburgh Steelers exorcised the demons of last season's American Football Conference Championship game with a 20-16 heart-stopper over the Indianapolis Colts to advance to the Super Bowl. For the second straight year it was a pass on the game's final play that determined Pittsburgh's Super Bowl future. A Hail Mary pass by Colts' quarterback Jim Harbaugh to Aaron Bailey was batted away by DB Randy Fuller to send the Steelers to Arizona. The game was reminiscent of last season's championship game. The Steelers had a 10-6 advantage at halftime with 5-yard TD reception from Neil O'Donnell to Kordell Stewart in the closing seconds of the half and a first quarter Norm Johnson field goal. The Colts' scoring came from the foot of kicker Cary Blanchard. Indianapolis added a third field goal on their opening drive in the third quarter to pull within one point. The Steelers countered with a second Norm Johnson field goal, but found themselves behind 16-13 after Jim Harbaugh hit Floyd Turner for a 47-yard TD strike with 8:46 remaining in the game. The Steelers and the Colts traded punts as the clock slipped to 3:03 and Pittsburgh took over the ball at their 33-yard line. After a fourth-down reception by Andre Hastings, O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills along the right sideline for a 37-yard gain to advance to the Colts' one-yard line. Two plays later, Bam Morris punched in the go-ahead touchdown. However, the Colts weren't ready to be corralled. Starting at their own 16-yard line, Jim Harbaugh led Indianapolis to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line before throwing the "Hail Mary" pass with just five seconds left in the game

DALLAS COWBOYS 27, STEELERS 17

January 28 at Tempe, 76,347 (3:24)

The Steelers struggled early and fell behind 13-0. Twice the Cowboys got within 25 yards of the goal line but were stopped with only field goals. With time 3:52 remaining in the half, Pittsburgh took advantage of good field position to march 54 yards in 13 plays. During the drive, the Steelers converted three third downs and Kordell Stewart converted on fourth and one yard to keep the drive alive. With 17 seconds remaining Neil O'Donnell hit Yancey Thigpen for a six-yard touchdown strike to pull the Steelers within a towndown. The second half was all Pittsburgh as the defense moved in high gear. After allowing Emmitt Smith 40 yards in 11 carries, the Steelers held the NFL's leading rusher to just nine yards on his next seven rushes. The Cowboys earned only 5 first down, made no third-down conversions, and gained just 61 yards in the second half. The Steelers came to life with 201 second-half yards. An O'Donnel interception led to an Emmitt Smith touchdown in third quarter and the Cowboys took a 20-7 lead. Pittsburgh responded in the fourth quarter with an 11-play, 52-yard drive to add a Norm Johnson 46-yard field goal. Then the surprise play of the day came when Cowher called for an onside kick which was recovered by Deon Figures at the Pittsburgh 48 yard line. Nine plays later, the Super Bowl's leading rusher Bam Morris got the score. With 6:36 remaining, Pittsburgh had pulled within three, 20-17. The defense held Dallas to five plays on their next possession. But a O'Donnell interception by Larry Brown sealed the Dallas win as Smith added his second touchdown.
