BILL COWHER

Head Coach

Bill Cowher enters the 2003 season as the longest tenured coach with one team in the NFL.

The Steelers head coach also has become one of the NFL's most successful.

In Cowher's 11 seasons, the Steelers have captured seven division titles, earned eight postseason playoff berths, advanced to four AFC Championship games and made one Super Bowl appearance. He is one of only six coaches in NFL history to claim at least seven division titles.

Cowher, 46, ascended the coaching ranks as a special teams coach to defensive coordinator to become one of the youngest coaches ever named to an NFL head-coaching post.

Cowher's coaching career has been a model of consistency. In 11 seasons, he has missed the playoffs just three times.

In his first six seasons, Cowher joined the legendary Paul Brown as the only head coach to lead a team to six straight trips to the playoffs in his first six seasons as a head coach. Additionally, Cowher's .622 winning percentage (109-66-1) ranks fourth among active coaches with at least 75 victories. Cowher's overall record is an impressive 116-74-1 (.610), which ranks third among active coaches.

Cowher earned his 100th career win (Dec. 21, 2001 vs. Minnesota) and 50th regular-season win Nov. 3, 1996 in his 73rd game to become the eighth-fastest coach in NFL history to reach 50 wins. He claimed his 100th regular-season coaching victory in a 16-13 overtime win versus Cleveland (Sept. 29, 2002). Presently with 116 career wins, Cowher moved into second in team victories behind Chuck Noll (209 wins) during his fifth season when he recorded his 57th win. In 1997, Cowher surpassed Ray Parker's 105 games for the second-most games (191) as the Steelers head coach. Only Noll (366 games) guided the Steelers longer.

During Cowher's tenure, the Steelers have featured a trademark running attack and a solid, aggressive defense. During his 11 seasons as head coach, the team has averaged a league-leading 137.1 rushing yards a game and has rushed for more yards (24,136) than any team in the NFL during the period, the only club to rush for more than 24,000 yards. In that same period, the offense has churned out a league-high 74 100-yard rushing games—followed by Dallas' 68.

Cowher has built a defense that mirrors his fiery attitude. In the 176 regular-season games since becoming head coach, the defense has allowed an average of 94.2 rushing yards a game and 195.5 yards passing.

In 2002, Cowher once again led the Steelers to the postseason. Entering the season as heavy favorites for the Super Bowl, the Steelers staggered to a 0-2 start and a 1-3 record. But, Cowher's intuitive change at starting quarterback—from Pro Bowl Kordell Stewart to backup Tommy Maddox—sparked the Steelers, who won nine of their remaining 12 games to capture the first AFC North Championship and compile a 10-5-1 record. The Steelers advanced to the AFC Divisional playoffs where they were defeated in overtime to the host Tennessee Titans, 34-31.

Cowher guided the Steelers back to the postseason in 2001 after a three-year absence. Despite predictions to the contrary, the team captured its 15th AFC Central crown—the sixth under Cowher—and posted an AFC best 13-3 regular-season record.

After achieving great success in his first six seasons as the Steelers head coach, the team experienced two subpar seasons in 1998 and '99, and a play-off-absent 2000 campaign. Many predicted the same for the 2001 Steelers—or worse.

But, Cowher had a different resolve. Determined to reverse the fortunes of the previous three seasons, Cowher rededicated himself—and the team. He instilled a commitment and focus that were earmarks of teams from Cowher's first six campaigns. A rigorous offseason conditioning program and an intense, physical training camp characterized the 2001 team.

After a humiliating 21-3 season-opening defeat to the Jacksonville Jaguars in Florida, the Steelers developed a resolve over the course of the next three weeks that led the team on a journey of success.

The tragic events of Sept. 11, 2001, coupled with an NFL scheduled bye week, gave the Steelers an unusual three-week reprieve. While some teams may have been affected adversely from the layoff, the Steelers re-energized and refocused to win 13 of their last 15 games en route to the AFC Championship game—the fourth appearance under Cowher.

If one were to chronicle Cowher's career with the Steelers, through all his successes, the 2000 season could rate as one of his finest coaching performances. After two non-playoff seasons and many predicting a similar fate in 2000, the Steelers lost the first three games of the year, and the critics seemed prophetic. But, Cowher once again met the challenge and rallied the team to a 9-4 finish, a surge that kept the Steelers in playoff contention until the last game of the season.

The 1999 season marked his second straight losing season. In a year that began with a 2-0 start and high expectations, the 1999 Steelers ended with a lackluster 1-7 finish and a 6-10 record, the worst of Cowher's career.

In 1998, Cowher experienced uncharted territory. For the first time in his head-coaching career, the Steelers did not make the playoffs. Nevertheless, despite several key injuries throughout the season, especially along the offensive line, the team remained competitive and had opportunities to clinch a playoff berth until the 15th week of the season.

The elements heading into 1997 didn't favor the Steelers. Ten key players departed from the previous season. A new defensive coordinator was hired. A first-year quarterback took control of the offense. Still, the Steelers overcame these obstacles to post an 11-5 record, and Cowher led his team to their third home AFC Championship game in four seasons. The Steelers season ended with a 24-21 loss to the eventual-Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos.

While the 1996 outcome didn't compare to the Super Bowl appearance of the previous season, it might have been one of the Cowher's best coaching jobs at that point of his young career. For the second straight season, Cowher was forced to overcome losses of key starting personnel on a team that already featured a re-tooled offense. During the course of the season, the Steelers had 14 starters miss 64 starts due to injury. Those adjustments forced Cowher to play 40 different starters throughout the season. Despite this adversity, Cowher led the Steelers to their fifth consecutive playoff berth and their fourth AFC Central title in five seasons.

In 1995, at the age of 38, the Pittsburgh-area native became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl. Along the way, Cowher's team captured its third AFC Central Division title in four years, made its fourth straight playoff appearance, and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979.

The Steelers' 11-5 regular-season record was the second best in the AFC, which exceeded the expectations of most. In the offseason, the team lost seven veterans through free agency and trades. They had to play four games without starting quarterback Neil O'Donnell and almost the entire season without 1994's starting cornerbacks Deon Figures and Rod Woodson, a perennial All-Pro. In addition, linebacker Chad Brown missed six games after a phenomenal start.

Despite the setbacks, Cowher was able to rally his team from a near-disastrous 3-4 start to an NFL-best eight-game winning streak and a bye in the first round of the playoffs. This was accomplished with a major change in both offensive and defensive strategies, as the Steelers made key adjustments to compensate for their personnel losses.

The 1995 Steelers led the AFC in scoring with 407 points and set eight new offensive team records. They also led the NFL in time of possession (an average of 32:36). On defense, they established new team marks for fewest yards allowed rushing and fewest yards per game rushing (82.6/game). Their 22 interceptions were second most in the NFL.

Cowher was introduced as the Steelers head coach on January 21, 1992, 26 days after the retirement of Hall of Fame coach Chuck Noll. At the age of 34, Cowher was two years younger than Noll was upon becoming the Steelers head coach in 1969.

Cowher returned to his hometown following seven years as an assistant under Marty Schottenheimer in Cleveland and Kansas City. His appointment as the Steelers head coach immediately followed a three-year stint as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Chiefs.

Cowher has 23 years of NFL experience, including five as a player, seven as an assistant coach and 11 as a head coach.

In his first 13 years of coaching, Cowher had never been associated with a team that posted a losing record. In fact, in 14 of his 18 seasons as a coach, Cowher's teams have advanced to the playoffs.

In his first year as head coach, Cowher was selected the 1992 National Football League's Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and The Sporting News. Cowher was also named Pittsburgh's Man of the Year in Sports by the Dapper Dan Club. He directed the Steelers to their first AFC Central Division crown in eight years with an 11-5 record, the team's best mark since they last won a Super Bowl in 1979. One of four AFC teams to win 11 games in 1992, the Steelers shared the best record in the conference as Cowher became one of only 12 coaches in NFL history to win 11 games in his first season as head coach.

The 1993 Steelers started slowly at 0-2, but six wins in the next seven games brought the team to a 6-3 mark and first place in the AFC Central division. On the final weekend of the regular season the Steelers claimed the final AFC Wild-Card berth after winning three of the last five games. Offensively, the team finished with the exact same AFC rankings as the previous year, but it improved from 21st to 13th in NFL passing rankings. The defense jumped from eighth to first in AFC total defense rankings, and from 17th to third in NFL run defense.

Cowher began his coaching career in 1985 with the Cleveland Browns. At age 28, he was the league's second-youngest assistant coach.

He served on Schottenheimer's staff as the Browns' special teams coach in 1985-86 and secondary coach in 1987-88. As secondary coach, Cowher's 1987 group produced 23 interceptions to tie for third in the AFC, while in 1988 the Cleveland defense ranked fourth overall in the conference. The following year Cowher joined Schottenheimer on the Kansas City coaching staff.

In 1989, Cowher's first season as a 32-year-old defensive coordinator, the Kansas City defense led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL in total defense. The following year the unit led the league in three categories with 60 sacks, 25 fumbles recovered and 45 takeaways. In 1991 the Chiefs ranked third in the conference and fifth overall in the NFL en route to a 10-6 finish and a Wild-Card playoff berth.

A former linebacker and special teams standout, Cowher enjoyed a five-year NFL playing career with the Browns (1980-82) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1983-84). He signed with Philadelphia in 1979 as an undrafted free-agent rookie, but was the last linebacker waived in training camp after playing in three preseason games. The following year he signed with Cleveland and earned a roster spot, playing in all 16 games, including two starts at inside linebacker.

Cowher sat out the 1981 campaign after suffering a season-ending knee injury in the third preseason game. Returning in 1982 as special teams captain, he started at outside linebacker in two games while playing in all nine contests.

Cowher was traded to Philadelphia prior to the start of the 1983 season (Aug.

21) for a ninth-round draft pick. He was selected the Eagles most valuable special teams player that year and played in all 16 games. In 1984, a knee injury kept him out of all but four games and ended his career as a player. Cowher returned to Cleveland the following season and began his coaching career as a member of Schottenheimer's Browns staff.

Cowher grew up in the Crafton area west of Pittsburgh. He is a 1975 graduate of Carlynton High School, where he excelled in football, basketball and track. He was selected honorable mention All-State in football as a senior before moving on to North Carolina State, where he earned four letters and was a three-year starter at linebacker. As a senior in 1978, Cowher was selected team captain and Most Valuable Player after leading the defense in tackles for the second straight year. He also received the 1978 Cary Brewbaker Award as the school's outstanding defensive lineman as selected by the coaching staff. In 1979, Cowher graduated with a bachelor of science degree in education.

William Laird Cowher was born May 8, 1957 in Pittsburgh. It was at North Carolina State that Cowher met his wife, Kaye. Also a graduate of North Carolina State, Kaye and her twin sister Faye played professional basketball for the New York Stars of the Women's Professional Basketball League. The Cowhers have three daughters: Meagan Lyn (17), Lauren Marie (15), and Lindsay Morgan (12).

With six straight playoff berths from 1992-97, Cowher became the second head coach in NFL history to lead his team to the playoffs during his first six seasons as a head coach. The other was Paul Brown of Cleveland (1950-55).

TIM LEWIS

Defensive Coordinator

Tim Lewis begins his fourth season as the Steelers defensive coordinator and continues to forge a reputation as one of the top defensive strategists in the NFL.

Under Lewis' guidance in 2002, the Steelers once again established themselves as one of the top defenses in the NFL. The squad finished third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in total defense and first in rushing defense for the second straight year and the third time in six years, marking the first time in team history the team led the NFL in rushing defense in two consecutive seasons. The 2001 defense was the number-one unit in the NFL.

Lewis quickly proved his credentials as a defensive coordinator. In his first year, the Steelers were seventh in the NFL in total defense. During one five-game stretch, the defense allowed no touchdowns and only 18 points. Additionally, its streak of no touchdowns in 21 consecutive quarters was the second-longest in the NFL since 1970.

Lewis, a standout player at the University of Pittsburgh and a former NFL All-Pro, was promoted to Steelers defensive coordinator on Feb. 8, 2000 after spending the previous five years as the team's defensive backs coach. He originally joined the Steelers Feb. 7, 1995 after spending two seasons coaching defensive backs at his alma mater.

The 11th overall selection in the 1983 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Lewis was the first cornerback chosen that year. He played 52 games for the Packers, but suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth game of the 1986 season. He ended his career with 16 interceptions and twice led or shared the team lead in that category. His 99-yard interception return for a touchdown versus the Los Angeles Rams in 1984 still stands as a Packers' team record.

After his injury, Lewis entered the coaching ranks in 1987 as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M, where he remained for two years under his former college coach Jackie Sherrill. Five of his students found NFL success, including Dallas' 1992 first-round draft selection Kevin Smith.

Lewis coached defensive backs at Southern Methodist (1989-92) and his alma Pittsburgh (1993-94), before joining the Steelers staff.

A standout at Pittsburgh from 1979 through 1982, Lewis started at cornerback for the Panthers in 1981 and 1982. He was named an NEA All-American in 1982. Lewis also earned Defensive MVP honors for the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Game that year.

Lewis received an economics degree from Pittsburgh in 1983. Born Dec. 18, 1961 in Quakertown, Pa., he and his wife Shawn reside in the North Hills.

MIKE MULARKEY

Offensive Coordinator

Mike Mularkey enters his third season as the Steelers' offensive coordinator.

After spending five seasons as the team's tight ends coach, Mularkey was promoted to offensive coordinator January 5, 2001.

Mularkey's innovation has helped develop the Steelers into an efficient and often dynamic offense that has become the talk of the NFL.

The Steelers offense has been ranked in the top five in total offense the past two years. In 2002, the Steelers improved to seventh in the NFL in passing offense compared to 21st the previous season, while maintaining their Top 10 ranking in rushing. The Steelers offense produced two 1,000-yard receivers in Hines Ward and Plaxico Burress for the second consecutive season and for the first time in Steelers' history.

Mularkey, 41, a former tight end for the Steelers from 1989-91, originally joined Bill Cowher's staff as tight ends coach Feb. 8, 1996.

Prior to his Steelers' appointment, Mularkey was in charge of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' tight ends in 1995. He previously served as the team's quality control coach in 1994, where he was responsible for analyzing film of opponents and compiling coaching reports on their offensive and defensive tendencies. He also assisted with tight ends and special teams.

Mularkey spent one year as the offensive line coach for Concordia (Minn.) College in 1993. He entered coaching after spending nine seasons in the NFL as a tight end, playing for the Minnesota Vikings from 1983-88 and the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989-91. Originally a 1983 ninth-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers, Mularkey was waived prior to the season and was picked up by the Vikings. He joined the Steelers as a Plan B free agent. His career statistics included 102 receptions for 1,222 yards and nine touchdowns.

Mularkey attended the University of Florida and finished his Gator career with 55 receptions for 628 yards and three touchdowns. He has dual bachelor of science degree in kinesiology/sociology from the University of Minnesota.

Born Nov. 19, 1961 in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Mularkey and his wife Betsy live in Pittsburgh with sons Patrick (2/15/86) and Shane (1/14/91).

KEITH BULTER

Linebackers Coach

Keith Butler is the newest member of the Steelers coaching staff, replacing linebackers coach Mike Archer.

Butler joined the Steelers Jan. 28, 2003, after serving the previous four seasons in a similar capacity with the Cleveland Browns (1999-02).

Prior to the Browns, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97 and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State University in 1998.

Butler was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87) with Seattle. He served as a defensive captain for the team and started 132-of-146 games in his career and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the school in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He finished his collegiate career with 384 tackles and seven interceptions. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game.

Butler was born May 16, 1956 in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons—Blake (9/8/83), Brandon (1/16/85) and Brett (6/26/87).

TOM CLEMENTS

Quarterbacks Coach

Tom Clements was named the Steelers' first quarterbacks coach since 1973 (Babe Parilli) and his influence the past two seasons has been dramatic.

Last year, he helped resurrect the career of Tommy Maddox, who had not started an NFL game in 10 years, into a record-setting quarterback. With Maddox at quarterback, the Steelers finished seventh in the NFL in pass offense, their highest ranking since 1980.

Clements was instrumental in the development of former Steelers quarterback Kordell Stewart, who had his best season as a pro in 2001, earning a spot in the Pro Bowl and Steelers MVP honors.

A McKees Rocks, Pa., native and former Canevin High School football standout, Clements, 50, joined the Steelers Jan. 12, 2001 with 17 years of professional experience as a player and a coach.

Clements also coached quarterbacks in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints (1997-99) and the Kansas City Chiefs (2000). In Kansas City, Clements helped groom quarterback Elvis Grbac, who enjoyed his finest year as a pro and earned a trip to the Pro Bowl.

After a 13-year professional career at quarterback in both the Canadian Football League and the NFL, Clements began his coaching career as the quarterbacks coach at his alma mater Notre Dame (1992-95).

Clements enjoyed an outstanding 12-year career in the CFL with Ottawa (1975-78), Hamilton (1979, 1981-82) and Winnipeg (1983-87) that culminated in his 1994 induction into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame. A seven-time divisional All-Star, Clements led two teams — Ottawa (1976) and Winnipeg (1984) — to Grey Cup championships, and earned the Outstanding Offensive Player in both of those contests. During his career, Clements completed 2,807-of-4,657 passes (60.3 percent) for 39,041 yards and 252 touchdowns. He was the league's Rookie of the Year in 1975 and MVP in 1987. He also served as a backup for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1980.

A 1974 All-American at Notre Dame, Clements started three seasons for the Fighting Irish (1972-74) and led them to a 29-5 record during his tenure, including an unbeaten National Championship season in 1973. He finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior in 1974.

A licensed attorney, Clements worked from 1988-92 for Bell, Boyd & Lloyd, a Chicago-based law firm, and in 1996 he worked in the law department of Republic Industries, Inc. He pursued his law degree while playing in Canada, graduating magna cum laude from Notre Dame's School of Law in 1986.

Born June 18, 1953, Clements and his wife Kathe live in Pittsburgh with their two children, Stephanie and Tom.

RUSS GRIMM

Offensive Line Coach

Russ Grimm is in his third season as the Steelers offensive line coach.

Grimm, 44, joined the Steelers Jan. 10, 2000 as only the second offensive line coach in Bill Cowher's 10 seasons and was instrumental in developing one of the most-improved areas on the team in 2001. Grimm spent the previous 19 years as a player and a coach with the Washington Redskins.

Grimm has molded an offensive front that is considered one of the best in the NFL. Among the group are guard Alan Faneca, who earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors for a second consecutive season in 2002, and center Jeff Hartings, who developed in one of the best in the NFL after just two seasons there. Grimm also has tutored three-year offensive tackle Marvel Smith, who blossomed into a consistent tackle, guard Kendall Simmons, who had an outstanding rookie season in 2002—earning a starting role at right guard in Week 2—and has helped developed reserve linemen tackles Oliver Ross and Mathias Nkweni, guard Keydrick Vincent, and center Chukky Okobi.

A native of Scottsdale, Pa. and a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Grimm coached the Redskins' offensive line from 1997-2000. He is credited with the development of Washington tackles Jon Jansen and Chris Samuels, who each earned starting spots as rookies on the Redskins' offensive line. Prior to coaching the offensive line, Grimm spent five seasons (1992-96) as Washington's tight ends coach.

Grimm started 11 seasons at guard for the Redskins (1981-91) and helped lead the team to four Super Bowl appearances and three victories. He was voted to four consecutive Pro Bowls (1983-86) and was a first-team selection to the 1980s all-decade team.

An All-American center at Pittsburgh, Grimm was selected by the Redskins in the third-round of the 1981 NFL Draft. His younger brother, Donn, was a starting linebacker on Notre Dame's 1988 national championship team.

Born May 2, 1959, Grimm has been inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He has four children, Chad (5/18/85), Cody (2/26/87), and fraternal twins Devin and Dylan (4/3/90).

DICK HOAK

Running Backs Coach

Dick Hoak, the longest tenured coach in Steelers history, is in his 42nd year with the team and his 32nd consecutive season as a Steelers assistant coach.

He served as offensive backfield coach for 20 seasons under Chuck Noll, before being named running backs coach by Bill Cowher on Jan. 27, 1992, the only coach retained from the previous Steelers' staff. Hoak is also the only remaining assistant coach from Cowher's original coaching staff.

During Hoak's 11 seasons under Cowher, the team has compiled 24,136 rushing yards, the most in the NFL and the only club to rush for more than 24,000 yards. Pittsburgh has led the league in rushing yards in three of the past nine years (1994, 1997 and 2001) and has been ranked in the top five in six of the past 11 seasons.

Hoak joined the Steelers' staff in 1972 under Noll after one year of coaching high school football and just two years after retiring from an outstanding playing career for the Steelers.

The Steelers' seventh-round draft choice out of Penn State in 1961, Hoak spent 10 seasons in the Pittsburgh backfield. He led the Steelers in rushing three times (1965, 1968, 1969) and played in one Pro Bowl (1969) after finishing the 1968 season fourth in the NFL with 858 rushing yards.

When he retired following the 1970 season, Hoak had gained 3,965 rushing yards and ranked second in team history. Presently, he is fifth behind Hall of Famers Franco Harris and John Henry Johnson, current Steelers running back Jerome Bettis, and Frank Pollard.

In addition, Hoak currently ranks 11th in Steelers history for career touchdowns with 33, is seventh in rushing touchdowns with 25, fifth in rushing yards (3,965) and fourth in rushing attempts (1,132). He also had 146 receptions for 1,452 yards and eight touchdowns in his career.

As a standout running back and quarterback for Penn State from 1958-60, Hoak was named his team's MVP as a senior. He graduated in 1961 with a bachelor's degree in social studies.

Born Dec. 8, 1939 in Jeannette, Pa., Hoak and his wife Lynn have three children, daughters Kelly and Katie, and son Richard. The Hoaks live in Greensburg.

KENNY JACKSON

Wide Receivers Coach

Kenny Jackson is in his third year as the Steelers wide receivers coach.

Appointed Feb. 8, 2001, Jackson has made quite an impact. He has helped groom a group of young, talented receivers, and the results have been significant, especially the improvement of second-Pro Bowler Hines Ward and Plaxico Burress.

Burress and Ward, who made his second Pro Bowl appearance following the 2002 season, became the first receiving duo in team history to each surpass 1,000-receiving yards in back-to-back seasons. Ward has set team reception records in each of the past two seasons.

Prior to his Steelers' appointment, Jackson, 41, spent the previous eight years (1993-2000) coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Penn State. During his eight seasons with the Nittany Lions, he helped develop several game-breaking receivers, including Bobby Engram, Joe Jurevicius, Freddie Scott and Chafie Fields.

A former 1984 first-round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles, Jackson played eight years with the Eagles (1984-88, 90-91) and Houston Oilers (1989) and caught 126 passes for 2,170 yards and 11 TDs.

Jackson enjoyed an All-American career at Penn State from 1980-83, in which he set 27 team records. During his four seasons at Happy Valley, Jackson caught 109 passes for 2,006 yards and 25 TDs, and helped Penn State win the national championship after the 1982 season.

Born Feb. 15, 1962 in Neptune, N.J., Jackson and his wife Ruth Ann have one daughter, Sara Jane (4/21/93). The Jacksons live in Pittsburgh.

JOHN MITCHELL

Defensive Line Coach

John Mitchell begins his 10th season as the Steelers defensive line coach.

Mitchell is in his 30th season of coaching, including 16 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his 12th season as an NFL coach. Mitchell joined the Steelers' coaching staff Jan. 31, 1994.

In his nine years with the Steelers, Mitchell has been instrumental in the development of several defensive linemen, including current Steelers Kimo von Oelhoffen, Aaron Smith, Casey Hampton and Rodney Bailey, a sixth-round draft pick in 2001 who accumulated a lot of playing time the past two seasons. He also helped develop former Steelers such as former All-Pro nose tackle Joel Steed, Kevin Henry and Orpheus Roye.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches.

Mitchell began his coaching career in 1973 as defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama. After four years at Alabama (1973-76), Mitchell spent six seasons as defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) on Lou Holtz's staff.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions and returned to the college ranks in 1986 as defensive ends coach at Temple.

Mitchell began a four-year stint in 1987 as linebackers coach at Louisiana State (1987-90) under former Steelers linebacker coach Mike Archer, who was the head coach. In 1990, Mitchell became the first African-American defensive coordinator in Southeastern Conference history when he was named Louisiana State's defensive coordinator, while continuing to coach linebackers.

Mitchell, 50, joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time Junior College All-American defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College in 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama where he became the first African American to play for the Crimson Tide. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972.

Born Oct. 14, 1951 in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife Joyce live in Pittsburgh.

DARREN PERRY

Assistant Defensive Backs Coach

Darren Perry, a standout Steelers safety during the 1990s, returned to Pittsburgh this year as the Steelers assistant defensive backs coach.

Perry was named to his position Jan. 28, 2003, after serving the 2002 season as the safeties coach for the Cincinnati Bengals. He will work primarily with the safeties.

Perry was originally drafted by the Steelers in the eighth round of the 1992 NFL Draft—the Steelers' first draft under Bill Cowher—and immediately became a starter at free safety. Perry played seven seasons (1992-98) with the Steelers and started the first 110 games of his career, including the postseason. He is currently tied for seventh in Steelers' history with 32 interceptions.

Perry signed with the San Diego Chargers in 1999 but did not play due to a neck injury. He finished his playing career in 2000 as the starting free safety for the New Orleans Saints. Perry played in 139-of-141 possible games, missing only two games in 1997 due to a groin injury.

During his collegiate career at Penn State, Perry collected 15 interceptions to tie for second in school history. He established school records for interception return yards (299) and interceptions for touchdowns (3). Perry had six interceptions his senior year and returned two for TDs.

Born Dec. 29, 1968, Perry and his wife Errika have four children—Danielle (10/26/92), Dominique (8/20/95), Debriana (7/4/99) and Devan (2/7/03).

WILLY ROBINSON

Defensive Backs Coach

Willy Robinson is in his fourth season as Steelers defensive backs coach after joining the team Feb. 14, 2000.

Since Robinson's arrival, the Steelers secondary has been one of the most consistent areas on the team, featuring an aggressive, hard-hitting style. He has been instrumental in the development of players such as Chad Scott, Deshea Townsend and Hank Poteat.

Robinson, an eight-year NFL veteran coach, joined the Steelers after serving in 1999 as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Oregon State, where he coordinated the number-one ranked defense in the Pac-10 for Head Coach Dennis Erickson.

Prior to joining the Beavers' staff, Robinson spent the previous four seasons (1995-98) on Erickson's staff as the secondary coach for the Seattle Seahawks. During his four years, he coached two All-Pros (Shawn Springs in 1998 and Darryl Williams in 1997).

Robinson, 47, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fresno State University (1978) under Coach Jim Sweeney, where he coached the outside linebackers and also was in charge of film breakdown. He then accepted a position at San Jose State as a part-time assistant in 1979 and coached outside linebackers.

Robinson returned to Fresno State in 1980 as a full-time assistant coach for Jim Sweeney and spent 14 years in various capacities with the Bulldogs. He coached the secondary at Fresno State from 1980-86. He switched to outside linebackers from 1987-89 and returned to coach the secondary and special teams from 1990-91. He was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 1988 and to defensive coordinator in 1992.

In 1994, Robinson joined Dennis Erickson's staff at the University of Miami as the Hurricanes' secondary coach before following Erickson to Seattle (1/12/95). He served as Seattle's secondary coach for four seasons (1995-98) before following Erickson to Oregon State to become the Beavers' defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

Born Feb. 10, 1956, in Fort Carson, Colo., Robinson has two children—Brittany and Mallory.

KEVIN SPENCER

Special Teams Coach

Kevin Spencer begins his second season on the Steelers staff, joining the team Feb. 13, 2002 as special teams coach.

Spencer is a 12-year NFL coaching veteran. Prior to his current position, he spent the previous four seasons in a similar capacity with the Indianapolis Colts. Spencer also served three seasons with the Oakland Raiders as the special teams and quality-control coach (1995), assistant linebackers coach (1996) and a defensive assistant (1997). He began his NFL career in 1991 as a coaching assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

While at Indianapolis, Spencer worked with Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt, regarded as one of the premiere kickers in the NFL.

Spencer, 49, began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at the State University of New York, where he also coached wrestling and lacrosse. He also coached at Detroit Country Day High School (1977-78) in Birmingham, Mich., before becoming a graduate assistant at Cornell (1979-80). Spencer held positions as the head freshman coach (1981-85) and offensive coordinator (1986) at Ithaca College. From 1987-90, he served four years as the head coach at Wesleyan (Conn.) University, where he compiled a 14-26 overall record, including a 6-2 mark in 1990.

As a collegian, Spencer played football and lacrosse at Springfield (Mass.) College (1972-75) and earned a master's degree from SUNY-Cortland in 1976.

Born Nov. 2, 1953 in Queens, N.Y., Spencer and his wife, Rosemarie, have two sons, Timothy (7/7/97) and Jack (2/1/99).

KEN WHISENHUNT

Tight Ends Coach

Ken Whisenhunt enters his third season as the Steelers' tight ends coach.

In his seventh season as an NFL coach, Whisenhunt joined the Steelers' coaching staff as tight ends coach in January 2001 when Mike Mularkey was promoted to offensive coordinator. He spent 2000 as tight ends coach for the New York

Jets.

Prior to the Jets, he spent the 1999 season coaching special teams for the Cleveland Browns. Whisenhunt's first NFL coaching job was with the Baltimore Ravens in 1997, where he coached tight ends for two seasons.

Whisenhunt, 41, began his coaching career at Vanderbilt University, where he coached special teams, tight ends and H-Backs for the Commodores from 1995-96. In 1996, he oversaw Bill Marinangel, who led all NCAA Division I punters with an average of 46.6 yards-per-punt, and finished third in the nation with a 42.7 net punting average.

A graduate of Georgia Tech, Whisenhunt played nine seasons as a tight end/H-Back for the Atlanta Falcons (1985-88), Washington Redskins (1989-90) and New York Jets (1991-93). He caught 62 passes for 601 yards and six TDs and earned a reputation as a well-rounded tight end and special teams player.

Whisenhunt finished his Georgia Tech career ranked second on the Yellow Jackets' all-time receiving yardage list (1,264 yards) and fourth in career receptions (82). He was a consensus All-ACC and honorable mention All-America selection as a senior in 1984 when he averaged 19.1 yards-per-catch.

Born Feb. 28, 1962 in Atlanta, Ga., Whisenhunt and his wife, Alice, live in Pittsburgh with their son, Kenneth Jr. (3/27/91), and daughter Mary Ashley (3/5/93).

LOU SPANOS

Defensive Assistant

Lou Spanos is in his 10th season with the Steelers and his ninth year as a defensive assistant for the coaching staff.

As a defensive assistant, Spanos assists the defensive coaching staff with game preparation, video analysis and scouting of Steelers' opponents.

A 1994 graduate of the University of Tulsa, he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at offensive center. Spanos stayed at Tulsa for a year after his playing career concluded to assist coaching the linebackers. He then joined the Steelers as an intern in the scouting department. After his one-year internship, Spanos was promoted to his current position of defensive assistant.

Spanos and his wife Timme reside in Pittsburgh with their two sons, Zachary (5/6/00) and Caleb (6/3/03).

MIKE MILLER

Offensive Assistant

Mike Miller is in his seventh season with the Steelers and his fifth year as an offensive assistant for the coaching staff.

In his position, Miller helps with the offense and the entire coaching staff with its game preparation, video analysis and scouting of opponents.

Miller, a 1992 graduate of Clarion University of Pennsylvania, first served the Steelers as an intern in the public relations and player personnel departments (1994-95). Following a year (1996) as a public relations intern with the Indianapolis Colts, he joined the Robert Morris College coaching staff as a graduate assistant/running backs coach (1997-98) and earned a master's degree in education.

Miller, a Plum Borough native, is single and resides in Carnegie.

CHET FUHRMAN

Conditioning Coach

Chet Fuhrman was named conditioning coach in February 1992 following 10 years as strength and conditioning coach at Penn State University.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., Fuhrman is in his 12th season with the team and his 26th year in the field of strength and conditioning. He served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Penn State from 1979-80. He was named the first strength and conditioning coach ever at Weber State in Ogden, Utah, in 1981, before returning to Penn State to take charge of the strength and conditioning program in 1982.

Fuhrman, 51, graduated from the University of Central Oklahoma in 1973 with a degree in physical education. He spent the next five years as strength coach and assistant coach in football at Harrisburg and Steelton-Highspire high schools. Fuhrman is a member of the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. He was the recipient of the 2001-2002 Presidents Award for his contribution to the field of strength and conditioning.

Fuhrman and his wife Lisa have three children, son Michael (4/12/90), and daughters Erica (10/27/88) and Maria (10/13/95).

ANTHONY GRIGGS

Player Development

Anthony Griggs begins his 12th season with the Steelers and his 18th in the NFL.

Griggs joined the Steelers in 1992 to work in the area of player programs. His responsibilities include continuing education, internships, investment information and counseling services for the players. Griggs also assists Conditioning Coach Chet Fuhrman with the strength and conditioning program for the players.

Griggs worked in strength and conditioning with the Atlanta Falcons in 1990 before working for two years with a fitness consultation firm and an athletic club in Atlanta, Ga.

A former linebacker with the Philadelphia Eagles (1982-85) and Cleveland Browns (1986-88), Griggs began his NFL career as a fourth-round draft choice of the Eagles in 1982 out of Ohio State. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications from Villanova in 1983.

Born Feb. 12, 1960 in Lawton, Okla., Griggs and his wife, Beth Ann, live in Pittsburgh with their two daughters Alexiss (3/7/98) and Aaryn (4/13/99).

KEVIN COLBERT

Director of Football Operations

Kevin Colbert begins his fourth year as the Steelers director of football operations.

A Pittsburgh native, Colbert was named to his position Feb. 15, 2000.

Colbert oversees the personnel area of the team and supervises the scouting staff. Among his duties, Colbert is in charge of administering player acquisitions and transactions, including the draft, free agent signings and trades, and evaluating pro and college personnel. He also serves as the Steelers' liaison with the NFL office and the other NFL teams on football matters.

Colbert served as the Detroit Lions pro scouting director from 1990 to 1999. He was responsible for scouting NFL players, the NFL Europe League and the Canadian Football League. He also assisted in the evaluation of college talent. Prior to joining the Lions, Colbert spent five seasons as a college scout for the Miami Dolphins (1985-89) and one season (1984) with the Blesto Scouting Service.

Colbert began his career as a coach and had experiences in three sports—football, basketball and baseball. He was the backfield coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio Wesleyan University for three years (1981-83) and in 1984 also served as the school's head baseball coach. From 1979-81, Colbert was a graduate assistant basketball coach at Robert Morris College. He also served as the school's head baseball coach in 1981.

Born Jan. 29, 1957, Colbert graduated from North Catholic High School in Pittsburgh and received his bachelor's degree from Robert Morris in 1979. He and his wife, Janis, have three children: Kacie, Jennifer and Daniel.

RON HUGHES

College Scouting Coordinator

Ron Hughes joins the Steelers for his first season as the club's college scouting coordinator.

Named to his position April 30, 2003, Hughes has served as a consultant for the Steelers for the past 2½ years.

Hughes, 58, a Charleroi High School and California University of Pennsylvania graduate, spent 18 seasons with the Detroit Lions, serving his last four years as the Lions' vice president of player personnel until his departure prior to the 2001 season. He coordinated and supervised all of Lions' college and pro scouting in his role as vice president.

After coaching football at the high school level in the Pittsburgh area for 14 years, Hughes began his career in professional football in 1979 as scout for BLESTO scouting service. He joined the Lions scouting department in 1983 and was later promoted to director of pro scouting and then to director of player personnel in 1990.

Hughes and his wife Adrienne have three children, sons Ted and Scott, and daughter Jennifer.

DOUG WHALEY

Pro Scouting Coordinator

Doug Whaley begins his fifth season as Steelers pro personnel coordinator after spending the three previous years as an area scout with the Seattle Seahawks.

In his current position, Whaley is responsible for scouting Steelers opponents and evaluating pro players.

Whaley joined Seattle in July 1996 and was in charge of scouting college players throughout the East Coast. Prior to joining Seattle, Whaley spent the 1995 season as an assistant in the Steelers' pro personnel department.

A native of Upper St. Clair, Whaley lettered four seasons at the University of Pittsburgh as a safety and linebacker. After earning a degree in business finance, Whaley worked for one year as a retail stockbroker on Wall Street before joining the Steelers. Whaley attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, lettering in football, wrestling and track.

PHIL KREIDLER

Pro/College Scout

Phil Kreidler is in his 13th season with the Steelers as a college scout and pro scout. After spending his first eight years with the team scouting the college players, Kreidler was given additional responsibilities scouting pro teams in 2000.

Kreidler served a full-time internship in the Steelers' personnel department in 1991-92, and was named to the scouting staff in June 1992.

From 1988-90, Kreidler served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati, where he helped coach the wide receivers and quarterbacks.

Kreidler, 36, attended Furman University, where he played free safety. He was a member of two Southern Conference championship teams as Furman posted a record of 35-11 during his four seasons. He graduated in 1988 with a degree in history and a minor in physical education.

Kreidler and his wife, Kim, live in Pittsburgh.

KELVIN FISHER

BLESTO Scout

Kelvin Fisher enters his fourth season as the Steelers' BLESTO scout after joining the team in June 2000.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Fisher, 33, served one year as the coordinator of academic accountability at his alma mater, Arizona State University. At Arizona State, he was a liaison between student-athletes, coaches, professors and academic counselors.

Fisher worked as a juvenile probation officer in Maricopa County, Arizona, from 1993-96, and with the State Office for Service to Children and Family in Portland, Oregon (1996-99).

After playing fullback for Arizona State (1988-91), Fisher graduated in 1992 with a degree in social work.

A native of Ambridge, Pa., Fisher currently lives in Gilbert, Az., with his wife Angela and two children, Kelvin Jr. (1/14/93) and Kailie (7/16/95).

MARK GORSCAK

College Scout

Mark Gorscak is in his ninth season with the Steelers. This is Gorscak's sixth year as an area scout, after spending his first three years as the Steelers' BLESTO scout.

Gorscak previously coached on the high school and college levels for 16 years. His first coaching experience was at Perkiomen (Pa.) Prep School.

He followed that with coaching assignments at Western Maryland College, Dickinson College (his alma mater), Gulliver Prep (Fla.) High School, and two tenures at Weber State University. In 1987, between stints at Weber State, he became the first general manager of the Pittsburgh Gladiators in its inaugural season of the Arena Football League.

Additionally, Gorscak has been an athletic administrator at Dickinson and Weber State. He graduated with a degree in psychology from Dickinson and received a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla.

Gorscak is a native of Donora, Pa., and currently resides in Pittsburgh.

BOB LANE

College Scout

Bob Lane is in his 17th season with the Steelers and 19th year in scouting.

Lane joined the personnel department as a college scout in June 1995, after spending the previous eight seasons as the Steelers' BLESTO scout. Lane is primarily responsible for scouting the Western region.

Lane played linebacker and tight end for Baylor, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1963.

He signed with the San Diego Chargers, where he played linebacker for Chuck Noll from 1963-64 and was a member of their 1963 AFL Championship team.

Lane coached college football for 20 years with stops at Yakima J.C. (1965-67), University of California-San Diego (1968), San Diego State (1969), Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1970-81) and Northern Arizona (1982-84). He joined BLESTO in 1985.

Lane, 63, and his wife Dawn have five children, daughters Duffy and Kelly; and sons Randy, Curtis, and Robby. Lane lives in Bend, Ore.

BRUCE McNORTON

College Scout

Bruce McNorton is in his fourth season as a member of the Steelers' scouting department.

McNorton, who joined the Steelers in May 2000, had previously worked with Director of Football Operations, Kevin Colbert, as a part-time scout with the Detroit Lions.

A highly successful coach at Pontiac North High School in Michigan, where he was selected the 1999 Class A Coach of the Year, McNorton led his team to the state quarterfinals.

Additionally, McNorton, 43, enjoyed a 10-year playing career as a defensive back with the Lions and Miami Dolphins.

He and his wife Rosalind have three children, daughters Mykeshia and Britteny, and son Bruce Jr.

DAN ROONEY

College Scout

Dan Rooney is in his seventh season as a college scout after serving several years as a part-time scout.

The son of Steelers president Dan Rooney, Rooney was a four-year standout safety for Washington & Jefferson (Pa.), starting his sophomore and junior years. After graduating with a degree in business administration, he stayed at W&J and coached the running backs from 1986-1991.

In 1993, he moved to North Carolina and coached at Northern Durham High School in 1994. He also served as an assistant coach at Leesville Road High School in Raleigh, N.C. (1995 and 1996), before joining the Steelers as a college scout in 1997.

Rooney and his wife Allison live in Gastonia, N.C. They have two sons, John Patrick (6/16/99) and Brendan Charles (6/24/02)

BILL NUNN

College Scout

Bill Nunn is in his 36th season in the Steelers player personnel department, where he helps evaluate college talent.

After originally joining the Steelers as a scout in 1968, Nunn was promoted to assistant director of player personnel in 1970 when he served the dual role of training camp director and personnel scout. Prior to joining the Steelers, Nunn was the sports editor for the Pittsburgh Courier.

A 1948 graduate of West Virginia State University, where he earned a degree in English, Nunn and his wife, Frances, split time between Pittsburgh and Florida.

The Nunns have one daughter Lynell Wilson and a son, William III, and three grandchildren.

BOB McCARTNEY

Video/Facilities Coordinator

Bob McCartney has seen the responsibilities of his job undergo dramatic changes in his 30 years as the Steelers' film and video director. He was named film director in 1973, until the advent of video in 1986 when the NFL went from film to videotape format.

Prior to taking over the filming operation, McCartney worked in the Steelers' ticket office. He also currently serves as the Steelers facility coordinator for headquarters in the UPMC Sports Performance Complex.

McCartney, a Pittsburgh native, attended South Catholic High School. He graduated from Wheeling (W.Va.) Jesuit College in 1972 with a bachelor's degree in English.

Born May 16, 1950 in Pittsburgh, McCartney and his wife Gail have two children, daughter Kathleen and son Robert. The McCartneys live in Mt. Lebanon.

JOHN NORWIG

Head Athletic Trainer

John Norwig is in his 13th year as the Steelers' head athletic trainer and his 25th year in athletic training.

His training career began in 1979 as athletic trainer at Bellefonte (Pa.) High. Norwig then served six years as assistant trainer and health education instructor at Penn State (1980-85). During that time he assisted the San Francisco 49ers at their 1984 training camp. He then became head athletic trainer at Vanderbilt (1986-91) before joining the Steelers.

Norwig earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Penn State in 1979 and a master's in health education in 1984. He is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine, American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine, and the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Born Nov. 6, 1957 in Hanover, Pa., Norwig and his wife Emily have three children, daughter Erin (11/12/92), and sons Nicholas (12/20/95) and Luke (4/14/98). The Norwigs live in the North Hills.

RYAN GROVE

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Ryan Grove, a former athletic training intern for the Steelers, rejoined the team in March 1999 as the club's assistant athletic trainer.

Grove graduated magna cum laude, receiving his bachelor of science degree in athletic training from the University of Pittsburgh in 1993 and a master's degree in athletic training/exercise physiology in 1996.

An Indiana, Pa., native, Grove previously served as an assistant athletic trainer at East Tennessee State, where he was the head athletic trainer for the school's men's basketball, baseball and tennis teams. He also served as an intern athletic trainer for the Steelers for the 1992-93 seasons and a graduate athletic trainer for the team from 1994-96. In April 1996, Grove worked as the athletic trainer for the Tri-Star Pictures movie Jerry Maguire.

Grove is a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers' Society and National Athletic Trainers' Association.

Born Jan. 27, 1971, Grove and his wife, AnnMarie, reside in Pittsburgh. The couple has one daughter, Samantha Ann (2/13/03).

ARIKO ISO

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Ariko Iso enters her second season as an assistant athletic trainer for the Steelers.

The first and only full-time female athletic trainer in the NFL, Iso generated international notoriety when she was announced as the Steelers' assistant trainer.

Iso, who spent five seasons as head football athletic trainer at Portland State University, gained NFL experience by working as an intern with the Steelers during the team's 2000 and 2001 training camps.

Iso spent six years at Portland State and was promoted from assistant athletic trainer to associate athletic trainer in 2001. Prior to working with the football team, Iso worked with the Vikings' women's basketball team, wrestling team and the track and field squad.

She is responsible for assisting the Steelers' athletic training and medical staff in all areas.

RODGERS FREYVOGEL

Equipment Manager

Rodgers Freyvogel begins his 24th season with the Steelers and his seventh as the team's equipment manager.

Freyvogel oversees all of the purchasing, fitting, customizing, issuing and reconditioning of the Steelers equipment and uniforms.

Freyvogel joined the Steelers as field manager in 1980 and was responsible for the preparation and maintenance of the Steelers' practice fields, while assisting equipment manager Tony Parisi.

Born Aug. 13, 1951 in Pittsburgh, Freyvogel grew up on Pittsburgh's North Side, where he attended North Catholic High School. He and his wife Rebecca live in Warrendale. They are the parents of two sons, William (3/9/99) and Trevor (4/29/01).

RICH BAKER

Assistant Equipment Manager

Rich Baker begins his seventh season as the Steelers' field manager and his 10th with the team.

He joined the organization in 1994 after a two-year stint as a warehouse sales representative with Frito Lay.

Baker, 36, assists equipment manager Rodgers Freyvogel in the issuing and reconditioning of the players' equipment and uniforms.

Baker majored in elementary education at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Born June 14, 1967 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Baker is a native of Homestead and attended Steel Valley High School. He and his wife Patty live in Pittsburgh.

Sept. 9, 2002

FOXBORO, Mass.—The Steelers kicked off the 2002 season with a disappointing 30-14 loss to the New England Patriots in the inaugural game at Gillette Stadium.

Pittsburgh committed five turnovers, allowed five quarterback sacks and was penalized 13 times for 112 yards as the team lost their season-opener for the third consecutive year.

Steelers quarterback Kordell Stewart threw interceptions on Pittsburgh's first two possessions. The second interception led to a four-yard touchdown pass from New England quarterback Tom Brady to tight end Christian Fauria to give the Patriots a 7-0 lead.

The Steelers tied the score at 7-7 later in the first quarter on a 13-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to wide receiver Hines Ward. Ward caught eight passes on the night to move into 10th place on the Steelers' all-time receiving list with 226 receptions.

A 45-yard second-quarter field goal by Patriots kicker Adam Vinatieri gave New England a 10-7 halftime lead.

The Patriots scored 17 points in the third quarter while holding the Steelers without a first down in the period. Touchdown passes of 40 and 22 yards to wide receivers Donald Hayes and Deion Branch, respectively, combined with a 28-yard Vinatieri field goal gave New England a 27-7 lead.

A 27-yard field goal by Vinatieri in the fourth quarter increased the Patriots' lead to 30-7.

The Steelers made the final score 30-14 by adding a touchdown on a one-yard Stewart touchdown run on the final play from scrimmage.

RAIDERS 30 STEELERS 17
Sept. 15, 2002

PITTSBURGH—The Steelers dropped to 0-2 after suffering a disappointing 30-17 loss to the Oakland Raiders during Pittsburgh's home opener at Heinz Field.

Outside linebacker Joey Porter produced an All-Pro caliber performance, registering 12 tackles (11 solo), three sacks and two interceptions, which he returned for a combined 114 yards. However, the Steelers were not able to stop Oakland's offense, which passed 65 times for 403 yards. Both of Porter's interceptions came near the Steelers' goal line to end Oakland scoring threats.

Oakland took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 41-yard field goal by kicker Sebastian Janikowski.

The Steelers responded on the ensuing possession with a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kordell Stewart to Hines Ward for a 7-3 Steelers lead.

The Raiders quickly regained the lead on their next possession when Charlie Garner broke free for a 36-yard touchdown run to give Oakland a 10-7 lead.

The Steelers appeared on the verge of regaining the lead when Stewart fumbled the center snap at the Oakland three-yard line. The Raiders then drove the length of the field and took a 17-7 lead on a 21-yard touchdown catch by Jerry Porter.

Todd Peterson's 46-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter, which was set up by a blocked punt by Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, closed the score to 17-10. However, Janikowski booted a 45-yard field goal in the third quarter to make the score, 20-10.

Porter's second interception came at the Steelers' goal line and was returned 84 yards to set up a five-yard touchdown catch by Hines Ward to make the score 20-17.

But Oakland's Terry Kirby returned the ensuing kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown and a 27-10 Oakland lead. Janikowski's third field goal of the game made the final score, 30-17.

STEELERS 16 BROWNS 13 OT
Sept. 29, 2002

PITTSBURGH—The Steelers defeated the Cleveland Browns, 16-13, in overtime on a 31-yard field goal to win their first game of the season.

Head Coach Bill Cowher's 100th regular-season victory came in the 100th game between the Steelers and the Browns, the AFC's oldest rivalry.

The game was highlighted by an exciting overtime period in which each team blocked a field goal, and the Steelers converted the game-winning kick after recovering their own blocked kick.

Cleveland took a 6-0 lead on two 28-yard field goals by kicker Phil Dawson.

The Steelers tied the game at 6-6 in the second quarter on field goals of 19 and 27 yards, respectively, by kicker Todd Peterson. The second field goal was set up by linebacker Joey Porter's third interception of the season, which he returned 27 yards to the Cleveland 34.

The Browns took a 13-6 lead on Jamel White's four-yard touchdown run to start the fourth quarter.

Backup quarterback Tommy Maddox replaced Kordell Stewart in the fourth quarter and immediately led the Steelers on a seven-play, 77-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a 10-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress. The touchdown tied the game at 13-13 with 2:12 left in the fourth quarter.

The Steelers received the kickoff in overtime, but Cleveland linebacker Andre Davis intercepted Maddox on the first play from scrimmage. However, defensive lineman Kimu von Oelhoffen blocked a 45-yard field goal attempt and Pittsburgh regained possession at their own 35-yard line.

The Steelers drove to the Cleveland six-yard line and attempted a 24-yard field goal on second down. The kick was blocked by Cleveland defensive lineman Alvin McKinley, but Peterson recovered the ball and ran three yards before fumbling. Steelers linebacker John Fiala recovered Peterson's fumble, enabling Peterson to convert the 31-yard game-winning kick on third down.

SAINTS 32 STEELERS 29
Oct. 6, 2002

NEW ORLEANS—The Steelers lost their third game of the season and dropped to 1-3, after losing to the New Orleans Saints, 32-29.

Steelers quarterback Tommy Maddox started his first NFL game since 1992 and completed 22-of-38 passes for 268 yards, three touchdowns, an interception and a 95.1 passer-rating.

The Saints took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter on a 40-yard field goal by John Carney and a 15-yard touchdown pass from Aaron Brooks to wide receiver Jerome Pathon. Carney increased New Orleans' lead to 13-0 in the second quarter with a 48-yard field goal.

The Steelers responded on their next possession with a 10-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Maddox throwing a 20-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress to make the score, 13-7.

New Orleans immediately fired back on their next play from scrimmage with a 64-yard completion to Pathon to the Steelers one-yard line. Running back Deuce McAllister's one-yard touchdown run on the next play, and a failed two-point conversion attempt, gave the Saints a 19-7 lead.

A 54-yard screen pass to running back Amos Zereoue on Pittsburgh's next possession, set up a two-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Hines Ward to make the score 19-14 at halftime.

The Saints received the second-half kickoff and immediately increased their lead to 26-14 on a 52-yard touchdown run by McAllister.

Steelers running back Jerome Bettis, who rushed for a season-high 84 yards and became only the 12th player in NFL history to surpass 11,000 yards rushing in a career, scored his first touchdown of the season on a one-yard run to make the score, 26-21.

Carney increased the Saints' lead to 32-21 by kicking two more field goals, from 31 and 48 yards.

A 14-yard touchdown pass from Maddox to wide receiver Terance Mathis, followed by Hines Ward's reception for a two-point conversion, pulled Pittsburgh to within 32-29 with 1:26 left in the game. However, the Saints recovered the ensuing onside kick and New Orleans held on for the victory.

GAME
5STEELERS 34 BENGALS 7
Oct. 13, 2002

CINCINNATI—The Steelers improved to 2-3 and moved into a tie for first place in the AFC North Division after a convincing, 34-7, win versus the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium.

Running back Jerome Bettis rushed for 109 yards and two touchdowns on 21 carries (5.2 avg.) and Plaxico Burress tied a career-high by catching eight passes for 149 yards. In all, the Steelers gained 408 total yards on offense, including 211 yards rushing.

Bettis' one-yard touchdown run on Pittsburgh's opening drive gave the Steelers a 7-0 lead. It was the team's first lead since the first quarter of Week 2, a span of 175 minutes and 50 seconds.

The Steelers scored on three consecutive drives in the second quarter. First came a 34-yard field goal by Todd Peterson to increase Pittsburgh's lead to 10-0.

Strong safety Lee Flowers' career-high second interception of the game set up a 41-yard touchdown run by Bettis and a 17-0 Steelers lead.

Joey Porter's first of two sacks in the game forced a Jon Kitna fumble, which was caught in the air by nose tackle Casey Hampton, who rumbled 36 yards to the Cincinnati seven-yard line. Fullback Dan Kreider caught his first career touchdown reception three plays later and the Steelers had a 24-0 halftime advantage.

The Steelers picked up where they left off in the third quarter when rookie Antwaan Randle El returned the second-half kickoff 99 yards for the first touchdown of his career. It was the second-longest kickoff return for a touchdown in Steelers history and gave Pittsburgh a 31-0 lead.

Pittsburgh's defense continued to dominate in the second half, led by defensive end Rodney Bailey's career-high 2½ sacks and an interception by cornerback Deshaea Townsend.

Cincinnati managed their only points on a two-yard touchdown run by running back Corey Dillon after Steelers' quarterback Tommy Maddox threw his second interception of the game.

Pittsburgh made the score 34-7 on their final drive in the fourth quarter when Peterson booted a 30-yard field goal.

PITTSBURGH—The Steelers exploded for 21 first-half points en route to a 28-10 victory against the Indianapolis Colts on Monday Night Football.

The victory improved Pittsburgh's record to 3-3 and enabled them to remain in a first-place tie with the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC North. It also improved Head Coach Bill Cowher's record to 10-0 in home games on Monday Night Football.

Quarterback Tommy Maddox continued to play well, completing 15-of-23 passes for 188 yards, two touchdowns and a 101.4 passer-rating. The Steelers have scored at least 28 points in each of Maddox's three starts.

The Steelers scored on their opening possession when Maddox connected with Hines Ward for a 17-yard touchdown pass to give Pittsburgh a 7-0 lead. The drive was set up when linebacker Joey Porter deflected an Indianapolis punt to give the Steelers the ball at the Colts' 41-yard line.

Pittsburgh scored again on their next possession when running back Jerome Bettis scored the first of his two touchdowns, from three yards out, to increase the lead to 14-0 in the first quarter.

The Steelers scored again on their next drive when Bettis scored his fifth rushing touchdown of the season on a five-yard run that made the score, 21-0.

The Colts added a 41-yard field goal by kicker Mike Vanderjagt to close the score to 21-3 late in the second quarter. Indianapolis had one more scoring opportunity in the first half, but it was denied when Steelers safety Brent Alexander's intercepted a pass at the one-yard line to end the second quarter.

The Colts scored on their opening possession of the third quarter on a 41-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Peyton Manning to tight end Marcus Pollard, making the score, 21-10.

However, safety Mike Logan intercepted his first pass of the season to set up Pittsburgh's final score midway through the third quarter. Maddox threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Ward to make the final score 28-10.

It was Ward's sixth touchdown reception of the season, one shy of his career-high seven touchdown catches in 1999.

BALTIMORE—The Steelers improved their record to 4-3 and claimed sole possession of first place in the AFC North by defeating the Baltimore Ravens, 31-18. The victory improved the Steelers' record to 6-0 at Ravens Stadium.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 21-0 first-quarter lead and a 28-3 advantage at halftime behind the precision passing of quarterback Tommy Maddox.

Maddox completed his first 11 passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns to wide receiver Plaxico Burress. Burress caught five passes for 55 yards and two scores before being ejected in the second quarter.

Running back Amos Zereoue, who made his first career regular-season start, exploded for a 35-yard touchdown run on Pittsburgh's opening possession to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead.

The Steelers scored on their first four possessions of the game, including touchdown passes of 20 and nine yards to Burress, and a one-yard run by Zereoue. Only Matt Stover's 28-yard field goal prevented the Ravens from being shut out in the first half.

Maddox injured his left ankle on the Steelers' first play from scrimmage in the third quarter when he was stepped on by Ravens defensive tackle Kelly Gregg. Maddox was forced to leave the game but would return.

The Steelers' defense refused to let Baltimore back in the game and forced the Ravens to commit four second-half turnovers. Interceptions by cornerbacks Dewayne Washington and Deshea Townsend, and linebacker Joey Porter's team-leading fourth interception of the season, combined with Washington's fumble recovery to end four of Baltimore's six second-half possessions.

The Ravens did score twice on an 18-yard touchdown pass to tight end John Jones — followed by a two-point conversion — and a one-yard run by quarterback Jeff Blake.

Pittsburgh's only second-half score came on a 34-yard field goal by kicker Todd Peterson, as the Steelers improved their division record to, 3-0.

STEELERS 23 CLEVELAND 20
Nov. 3, 2002

CLEVELAND—The Steelers won their fourth consecutive game and improved their record to 5-3 after defeating the Cleveland Browns, 23-20, at Cleveland Stadium.

Running back Amos Zereoue rushed for a career-high 112 yards on 28 carries (4.0 avg.), his first career 100-yard game, as the Steelers improved to 4-0 in the AFC North.

The Browns took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on an 87-yard punt return by Dennis Northcutt. However, the Steelers closed the score to 7-3 on their next drive when kicker Todd Peterson connected on a 43-yard field goal.

A 63-yard reception by Cleveland wide receiver Quincy Morgan to the Pittsburgh seven-yard line, set up a one-yard touchdown catch by tight end Steve Heiden, increasing the Browns' lead to 14-3.

The Steelers rallied behind the passing of quarterback Tommy Maddox, who completed all five of his passes on the drive, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Hines Ward to make the score, 14-10.

Zereoue's 25-yard reception on a shovel pass, followed by his game-long 27-yard run set up Maddox's one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Mark Bruener. It was Bruener's first touchdown since Dec. 3, 2000 (versus the Oakland Raiders) and gave the Steelers a 17-14 halftime lead.

Pittsburgh controlled the ball for 42:10 of the game, including most of the second half. The Steelers increased their lead to 23-14 on Peterson's two fourth-quarter field goals, from 28 and 42 yards, the second of which was set up by Dewayne Washington's second interception of the season.

Morgan's 31-yard touchdown catch, followed by kicker Phil Dawson's missed extra point attempt, closed the score to 23-20 with 4:32 remaining. The Browns received the ball one more time, but it was deep in their own territory and the Steelers defense held them off to secure the victory.

PITTSBURGH—A record-setting performance on offense was not enough to help the Steelers avoid a 34-34 overtime tie with the Atlanta Falcons at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh came up a half-yard short of an overtime win when wide receiver Plaxico Burress caught a 50-yard a Hail Mary pass, but was tackled just short of the goal line as time expired.

Burress set a Steelers record with a career-high 253 yards receiving, and caught two touchdowns on nine receptions. Steelers quarterback Tommy Maddox set a career-high and a Steelers record with 473 yards passing, and also set career highs with 28 completions and four touchdown passes.

Wide receiver Hines Ward set career highs with 11 receptions and 139 yards receiving, while running back Amos Zereoue's 37 rushing attempts and 123 yards were also personal bests.

Pittsburgh's 645 total yards on offense were the second-most in team history to the 683 yards gained Dec. 13, 1958 versus the Chicago Cardinals.

The Steelers took a 17-7 halftime lead on a 34-yard field goal by kicker Todd Peterson, and touchdown passes of 33 yards to Burress and five yards to Ward. Atlanta scored on a 43-yard touchdown pass to Shawn Jefferson.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 34-17 in the second half on a 62-yard touchdown pass to Burress, an 18-yard touchdown catch by tight end Jerame Tuman, and Peterson's second 34-yard field goal of the game.

However, Atlanta touchdown runs of 59 yards by running back Warrick Dunn, one yard by fullback Bob Christian, and 11 yards by quarterback Michael Vick, along with field goals of 36 and 40 yards by kicker Jay Feely, tied the score, 34-34, at the end of regulation.

Each team had a field-goal attempt blocked in overtime, including a block by Steelers linebacker James Farrior, and the game ended in a 34-34 tie. It was the NFL's first tie since Nov. 23, 1997, and the first for the Steelers since Sept. 22, 1974.

Nov. 17, 2002

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—The Steelers suffered more than a loss when they were defeated 31-23 in Tennessee, they lost starting quarterback Tommy Maddox.

Maddox suffered a concussion and a spinal concussion and lay motionless on The Coliseum field before being taken to Baptist Hospital, where he spent the night. Maddox eventually regained motion and sensation in his extremities.

The Steelers, meanwhile, were unable to overcome three Maddox interceptions and two missed relatively close field-goal attempts, despite a terrific start.

Maddox connected with receiver Hines Ward with a perfect strike on the first play from scrimmage for a 77-yard TD to give the Steelers an early lead.

The Titans responded, though, and despite slipping, Justin McCareins returned the ensuing kickoff 48 yards to the Steelers 43-yard line. The return curbed the momentum gained by the Steelers' early TD.

The Steelers held the Titans but a Craig Henrich punt pinned Pittsburgh at the nine-yard line. Maddox's first interception of the game three plays later gave the Titans possession at the one. On the first play, quarterback Steve McNair connected with Kevin Dyson for a one-yard TD pass to tie the score.

Pittsburgh responded on the ensuing series and marched to the 13-yard line. A 31-yard field-goal attempt by Todd Peterson sailed wide right.

Steelers linebacker Joey Porter helped set up a potential scoring opportunity when he recovered a McNair fumble at the Tennessee 36. A second Maddox interception ended that drive.

Tennessee managed to forge a 14-7 advantage prior to halftime.

The Titans added two more scores in the third quarter for a 28-7 lead before Maddox suffered his injury on the final play of the third quarter.

After a 43-yard field goal by Tennessee to increase the lead to 31-7, quarterback Kordell Stewart, who completed 13-of-17 passes for 124 yards and two TDs in relief, led the Steelers on two scoring drives and two two-point conversions to close the score to 31-23.

An onside kick attempt with 1:32 remaining failed, and the Titans held on for the 31-23 victory.

STEELERS 29 BENGALS 21
Nov. 24, 2002

PITTSBURGH—The Steelers jumped out to a 17-0 lead and then held on to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 29-21, and maintain sole possession of first place in the AFC North.

Kordell Stewart made his first start at quarterback since Sept. 29 (versus Cleveland) and set a Steelers' single-game record by completing 84.6 percent (22-of-26) of his passes for 236 yards and one touchdown.

Wide receiver Hines Ward had his third straight 100-yard receiving game, catching five passes for 125 yards (25.0 avg.) and his league-leading 11th touchdown reception. Running back Jerome Bettis started his first game in five weeks and gained 79 yards and two touchdowns on 22 carries. Rookie kicker Jeff Reed played in his first NFL game and converted three-of-four field-goal attempts and kicked off well.

The Steelers received the opening kickoff and drove 68 yards in nine plays to take a 7-0 lead on Bettis' one-yard touchdown. They extended their lead to 14-0 on their next possession when Stewart connected with Ward for a 64-yard touchdown pass. Reed booted a 33-yard field goal on the team's third drive, giving Pittsburgh a 17-0 advantage in the second quarter.

Cincinnati closed the score to 17-14 at halftime on touchdown runs of 10 and two yards by Corey Dillon.

Reed's 43-yard field goal in the third quarter extended the Steelers' lead to 20-14. But Cincinnati took the lead for the first time in the fourth quarter on a 20-yard touchdown catch by tight end Matt Schobel that made the score 21-20.

The Steelers were stopped on their next possession, but Mike Jones recovered T.J. Houshmandzadeh's fumbled punt return, which set up Reed's 45-yard field goal and a 23-21 Steelers lead.

Bettis' 24-yard touchdown run extended Pittsburgh's lead to 29-21 after Reed missed the extra point, wide left.

Houshmandzadeh's 44-yard kickoff return plus a facemask penalty on Reed gave the Bengals possession at the Pittsburgh 31. Cincinnati drove to the Pittsburgh five-yard line, but the Steelers' defense denied the Bengals to hold on for the victory.

STEELERS 25 JAGUARS 23
Dec. 1, 2002

JACKSONVILLE—A team record-tying six field goals by rookie kicker Jeff Reed helped the Steelers defeat the Jacksonville Jaguars, 25-23, and improve their record to 7-4-1.

Reed, who has converted nine-of-10 field-goal attempts in his first two NFL games, booted kicks from 25, 29, 30, 46, 33 and 50 yards, respectively. Reed tied Gary Anderson's team-record of six field goals in a game set Dec. 23, 1988 versus the Denver Broncos.

Pittsburgh's defense was efficient throughout the game, punting only once, while gaining 403 total yards and controlling the ball for 38:41. Running back Jerome Bettis, who broke his nose in the second quarter, stayed in the game to rush for 86 yards on 20 carries and move past Hall of Fame running back John Riggins for 10th place on the NFL's all-time rushing list.

Pittsburgh's defense limited Jacksonville to only three-of-11 (27 percent) on third downs, while holding the Jaguars' offense to 226 total yards.

Reed's first two field goals gave the Steelers a 6-0 lead after their first two possessions. However, a 53-yard kick-off return by Jacksonville's Elvis Joseph set up Fred Taylor's 18-yard touchdown run for a 7-6 Jaguars lead.

Kordell Stewart, who made his second consecutive start, threw for 202 yards and rushed for 84. His 28-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter gave the Steelers a 13-7 lead.

Jacksonville closed the score to 13-10 in the second quarter, but Reed kicked his third field goal of the game to give the Steelers a 16-10 halftime advantage.

Reed's 46-yard field goal was the only score in the third quarter, and increased Pittsburgh's lead to 19-10. Reed made the score 22-10 in the fourth quarter, but Jacksonville responded with a 42-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kyle Brady to close the score to 22-17.

Reed then booted a 50-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 25-17 lead with 4:30 remaining.

The Jaguars closed the score to 25-23 on Jimmy Smith's seven-yard touchdown catch, however, cornerback Dewayne Washington batted down the pass on the two-point conversion attempt to preserve the Steelers victory.

PITTSBURGH—Three Steelers turnovers were returned for touchdowns as the Houston Texans upset the Steelers, 24-6, at Heinz Field.

The Steelers dominated in almost every statistical category, particularly on defense, but scored only six points on field goals by kicker Jeff Reed.

Pittsburgh's defense limited the Texans to 47 total yards on offense — including only three completions and 10 net yards passing — the fewest yards gained by a winning team in NFL history. The only Houston player to catch a pass was tight end Billy Miller who caught three for 33 yards.

The Steelers gained 422 yards to Houston's 47, and limited the Texans to only three first downs — including two on their opening drive. Pittsburgh controlled possession for 39:41 and allowed Houston to convert only one third-down attempt.

However, five Steelers turnovers resulted in all 24 Houston points, including a fumbled punt return by Antwan Randle El in the fourth quarter that resulted in Kris Brown's 43-yard field goal.

Quarterback Tommy Maddox made his first start since Nov. 17 at Tennessee and completed 30 of a career-high 57 passes for 325 yards. However, Maddox turned the ball over three times, each resulting in Houston scores.

Maddox fumbled without being hit on Pittsburgh's first possession, and the ball was scooped up and returned 40 yards for a touchdown by Texans cornerback Kenny Wright for a 7-0 Houston lead.

Houston cornerback Aaron Glenn intercepted Maddox on Pittsburgh's next possession and returned it 70 yards for a score and a 14-0 lead.

Reed's 40-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter made the score 14-3 at halftime. His 31-yard kick closed the score to 14-6 after Pittsburgh's first possession in the third quarter.

Neither team scored until Brown's field goal with 3:40 remaining increased Houston's lead to 17-6.

The Steelers drove the ball to the Houston 38-yard line on their next possession, but Glenn intercepted Maddox a second time and raced 65 yards for a touchdown to make the final score, 24-6.

Dec. 15, 2002

PITTSBURGH—The Steelers dominated on defense for the second consecutive week and overwhelmed the Carolina Panthers, 30-14, at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh held the Panthers to zero yards in the first half and 131 for the game, sacked Carolina quarterbacks six times, intercepted one pass and forced 11 Carolina plays to net negative yardage.

Outside linebacker Jason Gildon registered five tackles (three solos) and 2½ sacks, while defensive end Aaron Smith led the Steelers with seven solo tackles. Inside linebacker Kendrell Bell recorded his fourth sack in the last three games. Free safety Brent Alexander intercepted his fourth pass of the year, tying him for most on the team.

The Steelers' offense was led by wide receiver Plaxico Burress' six catches for 120 yards (20.0 avg.) and an 11-yard touchdown that gave Pittsburgh a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Running back Jerome Bettis gained 73 yards on 18 carries (4.1 avg.) and scored two touchdowns on runs of nine and eight yards, respectively, in the third and fourth quarters.

Steelers quarterback Tommy Maddox also played well, completing 20-of-33 passes for 209 yards and a touchdown. Maddox's only interception came on a play where Burress slipped and Carolina's Mike Minter picked off the ball. Minter returned the interception 62 yards to the Steelers' four-yard line to set up the Panthers' only touchdown of the first half.

Rookie kicker Jeff Reed continued to kick well for the Steelers, converting field goals of 36 and 41 yards, respectively, in the second quarter to give Pittsburgh a 13-7 halftime lead.

Bettis' first touchdown gave the Steelers a 20-7 lead in the third quarter. Carolina cut Pittsburgh's lead to 20-14 on running back Dee Brown's one-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter.

On third-and-11 from the Steelers' 19-yard line, on the ensuing drive, Maddox connected with Burress for a 47-yard completion that may have been the key play of the game. Reed completed the 75-yard drive when he converted his third field goal, from 23 yards, to give Pittsburgh a 23-14 advantage. Bettis' final touchdown made the final score 30-14, as Pittsburgh extended its lead in the AFC North to 1½ games.

15STEELERS 17 BUCCANEERS 7
Dec. 23, 2002

TAMPA—The Steelers clinched the first-ever AFC North division title by defeating the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 17-7, at Raymond James Stadium.

Pittsburgh won their second consecutive division title and their seventh in 11 years under Head Coach Bill Cowher.

The Steelers dominated the Buccaneers at the line of scrimmage and held Tampa Bay scoreless until 1:14 remained in the game.

Steelers quarterback Tommy Maddox had an outstanding game against the NFL's top-ranked pass defense, completing 17-of-23 passes for 236 yards, one touchdown and a 120.9 passer-rating. Maddox also did not throw an interception for the first time this season.

Wide receiver Plaxico Burress had his second consecutive 100-yard game, catching five passes for 127 yards (25.4 avg.). Burress' 41-yard reception on the opening drive helped set up an 11-yard touchdown catch by rookie Antwaan Randle El, the first of his career, which gave the Steelers a 7-0 lead.

Steelers cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Tampa Bay quarterback Shaun King on the Buccaneers' second play from scrimmage and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 14-0 Steelers lead.

After forcing a Tampa Bay punt on their next possession, Maddox led Pittsburgh 70 yards on nine plays to set up kicker Jeff Reed's 26-yard field goal and a 17-0 Steelers lead.

The Steelers would not score again, but Pittsburgh's defense dominated the game the rest of the way. The Steelers sacked Tampa Bay quarterbacks six times, led by defensive end Aaron Smith's two sacks. Nose tackle Casey Hampton registered his second sack of the season and his second sack in as many weeks, and forced two fumbles. Hampton forced Tampa Bay running back Mike Alstott to fumble at the Steelers' seven-yard line in the second quarter, and sacked Buccaneers quarterback Rob Johnson late in the third quarter, to force a fumble at the Steelers' three.

Free safety Brent Alexander led the Steelers with seven tackles (five solo). Cornerback Dewayne Washington defended three passes, while defensive back Mike Logan defended two passes and recorded a sack.

Tampa Bay wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson's 18-yard touchdown catch prevented the shutout, but the Buccaneers could not prevent the Steelers victory.

GAME
16STEELERS 34 RAVENS 31
Dec. 29, 2002

PITTSBURGH—The Steelers swept the season series from the Baltimore Ravens for the first time since 1998, when they defeated Baltimore, 34-31, to close the regular season at Heinz Field.

The victory allowed the Steelers to finish the regular season with the third-best record in the AFC.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 17-7 lead in the second quarter but had to rebound from a 31-20 fourth-quarter deficit to win the game.

The Steelers took a 7-0 lead on their opening possession on a 23-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Tommy Maddox to wide receiver Hines Ward. It was Ward's 12th touchdown catch of the year, which tied the Steelers' single-season record.

Baltimore tied the score at 7-7 when fullback Alan Ricard recovered Jamal Lewis' fumble in the end zone. However, a 23-yard field goal by kicker Jeff Reed helped Pittsburgh regain the lead, 10-7, on its next possession.

Steelers' running back Amos Zereoue rushed for more than 100 yards (104) for the third time this season and scored two touchdowns. Zereoue rushed for two touchdowns in a game against the Ravens for the second time this season — accounting for all of his touchdowns during the regular season.

Zereoue's first touchdown was a one-yard score, which gave Pittsburgh a 17-7 lead in the second quarter.

Baltimore closed the score to 17-14 on Ricard's second touchdown of the game.

Steelers linebacker Jason Gildon sacked Baltimore quarterback Jeff Blake, forcing a fumble that was recovered by defensive end Aaron Smith with 16 seconds left in the first half. Reed's 48-yard field goal three plays later increased the Steelers' lead to 20-14 at halftime.

Matt Stover's 43-yard field goal closed the score to 20-17 in the third quarter. Baltimore took a 24-20 lead on their next possession on a 31-yard touchdown pass to tight end Todd Heap. Chester Taylor's 20-yard touchdown catch increased the Ravens' lead to 31-20 in the fourth quarter.

Zereoue scored his second touchdown of the game on Pittsburgh's next drive to make the score 31-26 when Pittsburgh failed on a two-point conversion attempt.

Taylor muffed the ensuing kickoff and it was recovered by Steelers rookie linebacker Larry Foote. Pittsburgh drove 31 yards on nine plays and scored on rookie wide receiver Antwaan Randle El's eight-yard touchdown reception. Wide receiver Plaxico Burress' reception to convert the two-point conversion gave the Steelers a 34-31 lead.

Baltimore had one last chance to score or tie the game, but cornerback Dewayne Washington intercepted a pass in the end zone with 14 seconds left in the game to secure the Steelers' victory.

STEELERS 36 BROWNS 33

Jan. 5, 2003

PITTSBURGH—The Steelers rallied from a 13-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, in one of the most thrilling games in team history.

The Steelers overcame three early turnovers and several big plays by Cleveland to register their third come-from-behind victory over the Browns this season.

Pittsburgh trailed 24-7 in the third quarter and 33-21 in the fourth period before scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:06 to win the game.

The Browns took a 14-0 lead on a one-yard touchdown run by running back William Green and a 32-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kelly Holcomb to wide receiver Dennis Northcutt.

Northcutt's touchdown was set up when Steelers rookie wide receiver Antwaan Randle El muffed a punt and the Browns recovered. However, Randle El rebounded to return his next punt 66 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 14-7. It was the longest postseason punt return in Steelers history and the first-ever punt return for a touchdown in the postseason by a Steeler.

The Browns increased their lead to 24-7 on a 31-yard field goal by kicker Phil Dawson in the second quarter and a 15-yard touchdown pass to Northcutt in the third period.

Steelers quarterback Tommy Maddox, who threw for a team postseason-record 367 yards and three touchdowns, connected with wide receiver Plaxico Burress for a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:50 left in the third quarter to close the score to 24-14.

A 22-yard touchdown pass from Holcomb to wide receiver Andre Davis increased Cleveland's lead to 33-21 after the Browns failed on a two-point conversion attempt.

The Steelers refused to quit, and with 5:30 remaining in the game, Maddox led Pittsburgh on a 10-play, 77-yard drive, including a five-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Hines Ward that made the score, 33-28.

The Steelers forced Cleveland to punt on their next possession, and Pittsburgh drove 61 yards in 1:41, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by running back Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala. Randle-El then completed a pass to Tuman for the two-point conversion to give the Steelers a 36-33 lead with 0:54 left in the game.

Cleveland had one more possession, but Pittsburgh's defense denied the Browns and secured the Steelers' victory.

TITANS 34 STEELERS 31
Jan. 11, 2003

NASHVILLE—The Steelers lost a hard-fought game against the Tennessee Titans in overtime, 34-31, and finished short of their goal of a sixth Super Bowl appearance.

The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, but the Steelers battled back to score 20 straight points by early in the third quarter.

Safety Lee Flowers recovered a fumble by Tennessee running back Eddie George at the Titans' eight-yard line. Steelers quarterback Tommy Maddox completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Hines Ward two plays later to close the score to 14-7 in the second quarter.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott, who played the game with a broken right thumb, intercepted Tennessee's Steve McNair at the Pittsburgh 41-yard line on the Titans' next drive. The interception led to kicker Jeff Reed's 30-yard field goal, which closed the score to 14-10 midway through the second quarter.

Maddox led Pittsburgh on an eight-play, 61-yard drive at the end of the second quarter and Reed's 39-yard field goal made the score 14-13 at the end of the half.

Tennessee received the second-half kickoff, and on the first play from scrimmage, Steelers nose tackle Casey Hampton tackled George for a two-yard loss, forcing a fumble that was recovered by defensive end Aaron Smith. George received a concussion and did not return to the game.

Pittsburgh capitalized on the fumble on the first play from scrimmage when running back Amos Zereoue broke several tackles and raced 31 yards for a touchdown and a 20-14 Steelers lead.

The Titans took a 21-20 lead on their next possession on a seven-yard touchdown pass from McNair to tight end Frank Wycheck. Tennessee increased their lead to 28-20 when tight end Erron Kinney caught a two-yard touchdown pass from McNair.

Maddox connected with Ward for a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to make the score 29-26. Ward tied the game when he rolled right and completed a pass to Plaxico Burress for the two-point conversion.

Reed's 40-yard field goal and a 42-yard kick by Tennessee kicker Joe Nedney made the score 31-31 in the fourth quarter. However, Nedney missed a 48-yard attempt at the end of regulation and the game went into overtime.

Tennessee received the ball in overtime and McNair completed two passes for 53 yards to wide receiver Justin McCareins to put the Titans in field-goal position. Nedney missed a 31-yard attempt, but Steelers cornerback Dewayne Washington was flagged for running into the kicker. Nedney then converted a 26-yard attempt to give the Titans a 34-31 victory.

STEELERS HISTORY

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933 by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988 following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief," as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901 in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he still lived on the North Side just a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931 to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Steelers founder Art Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. New York Giants owner Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Now in his 48th year with the organization, he is one of the most active NFL owners and one of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The United Way of America, The American Ireland Fund, The American Diabetes Association, Presbyterian University Hospital, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and Duquesne University.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30-plus years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976 Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney is currently a member of the eight-person Management Council Executive Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee, and the NFL Properties Executive Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children.

1930s: After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1940s: In 1940 Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game, 21-0, to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1950s: Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952 Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44, and 1954-56 campaigns.

1960s: Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne quarterbacked the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game vs. Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks third among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, remains the only Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

Brief stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of the 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1970s: A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted nine players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970, when the Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69 the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders 13-7 with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973 the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory vs. the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975 the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claim their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 win versus the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories including five shutouts to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland, 24-7, after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978 the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

1980s: As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982 the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by 6-10 in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988 the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heart-breaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1990s: A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991 Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed new-found success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers played in the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers in exactly 10 years the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with the AFC's best record of 12-4. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted their first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers, 17-13.

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance, and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Arizona.

In 1996, injuries forced Cowher to use 40 different starters during the course of the season. But the Steelers' "never-say-die" attitude led to a 10-6 finish and their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher earned his 50th regular-season win Nov. 3, 1996 in his 73rd game to become the eighth fastest to reach 50 wins. He ended the season with 57 career victories ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997, while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance and lost to Denver, 24-21, in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Bill Cowher. It marked the first time that Cowher had been associated with a team with a losing record during his 14-year coaching career.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season under Cowher in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10, including a six-game losing streak. The Steelers fourth-place finish in the AFC Central was the team's worst finish under Bill Cowher.

2000s: The Steelers began a new century with a renewed commitment. After starting the 2000 season with an 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to win five straight games, finished the year at 9-7, and barely missed their seventh postseason appearance under Cowher during the final week of the season. Much of the team's success was the result of what many considered to be the finest coaching job of Cowher's career, combined with a resurgent running game that ranked fourth in the NFL and a defense that finished the year fifth overall.

However, 2000 may be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers, 24-3, against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with an 182-73 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, second-best in team history, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens, 27-10, in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing, 24-17, loss at home in the AFC Championship game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots, and fell short of their sixth appearance in the Super Bowl.

The Steelers entered the 2002 season with high hopes and Super Bowl aspirations. An 0-2 start to the season and a sluggish offensive performance through three quarters of the team's third game triggered a change at quarterback. Tommy Maddox replaced Kordell Stewart and led the Steelers to an overtime victory over the Cleveland Browns. Maddox remained the starter through the rest of the season, elevating the team's passing attack to new heights, while setting several team records along the way.

Pittsburgh reached the postseason for the second consecutive season and the eighth time under Cowher. The Steelers came from behind to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, at Heinz Field in the AFC Wild Card game. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended the following week, when they lost, 34-31, in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The 2002 season ended with many positives on which the team can build in the future. A rejuvenated passing attack featuring two 1,000-yard receivers, the NFL's top-ranked defense against the run for the second straight season, and a strong-legged kicker who helped boost the performance of Pittsburgh's special teams provide a strong foundation as the Steelers enter the 2003 season.
