Gene Klein President

Gene Klein made a decision in December, 1973, that would mark the most important step in the history of the San Diego Chargers. Klein phased himself out of almost all of his interests in businesses other than football to take a firm hand in the administration of the Chargers. The Los Angeles-based Klein had been principal owner of the Chargers for seven years but had been primarily an observer and had charged others with operation of the franchise and responsibility of putting a winning team on the field.

Since that time the Chargers have progressed to a point where they entered the 1981 season as two-time defending champions in the American Football Conference Western Division and are considered one of the strongest teams in pro football. Klein's first move after a 2-11-1 season in 1973 was to appoint Tommy Prothro head coach. Klein named Johnny Sanders general manager and Tank Younger assistant general manager a year later. Prothro brought an outstanding record as a head coach and great perception in the evaluation of player personnel. Sanders and Younger had outstanding backgrounds as personnel scouts and in the area of franchise operation. With this nucleus, Klein was able to construct a strong management staff and supervise the formation of a team that is young, experienced, and capable of beating any team in football.

Klein's commitment to bringing a championship to San Diego has been underscored over the past few seasons in trades that have solidified the team. Those trades included the acquisition of Willie Buchanon from Green Bay, Ed White from Minnesota, Glen Edwards from Pittsburgh, Mike Thomas from Washington, John Cappelletti from Los Angeles, and Chuck Muncie from New Orleans. Klein also orchestrated a dramatic trade with Cleveland during the first round of the 1979 NFL collegiate draft. The Chargers gave the Browns their first- and second-round choices in exchange for the Browns' first-round pick and then selected tight end Kellen Winslow, who became an immediate star in the NFL.

When Tommy Prothro resigned after the fourth game of the 1978 season, Klein selected Don Coryell as head coach and Coryell provided the final ingredient to success. The former San Diego State coach guided San Diego to an 8-4 record in the last 12 games of 1978 and to a 12-4 record in 1979 that brought the Chargers their first division title in 14 years. The Chargers won the AFC West with an 11-5 record in 1980 and advanced to the AFC championship game.

Klein headed a group that purchased the Chargers for $10 million from Barron Hilton Aug. 25, 1966. The acquisition was small in financial comparison to some of the transactions Klein has made in other areas of American business . . . but Klein had realized a lifelong ambition of owning a professional football team.

Eugene Victor Klein was born in New York City Jan. 29, 1921. He attended New York University and majored in electrical engineering until Dec. 8, 1941, the day after United States military installations were bombed in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. The 6-foot, 5-inch Klein enlisted in the Air Force and attained the rank of captain, serving as a bomber pilot in World War II. Klein went into the automobile business in Los Angeles's San Fernando Valley after the war and eventually became Western States distributor of the Volvo automobile.

In 1961 Klein assumed leadership of a company that had $80 million in assets. That company, renamed National General Corporation, became one of the largest corporations in the country under Klein's guidance. Among its holdings were Bantam Books, largest paperback publishing company in the world; Great American Insurance Company, and Grosset and Dunlap publishers. National General also was involved in motion picture production, distribution, and theaters. NGC had assets of $1.2 billion when Klein negotiated the sale of the company 12 years later.

Klein remains active in civic and charitable projects. He is on the board of directors, Cedars Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles. He is vice chairman, board of trustees, City of Hope. He is a member of the Los Angeles District Attorney Advisory Council, the Mental Health Association, Variety Club, Big Brothers Boosters, American Cancer Society, and National Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Klein is a life member of the San Diego Hall of Champions and a member of the Board of Trustees of the San Diego Museum of Art.

Gene and his lovely wife Joyce maintain residences in Beverly Hills and Rancho Santa Fe. Gene has a son, Michael Klein, and daughter, Rande Klei, both of whom are members of Chargers ownership.

Other members of Chargers ownership are former majority owner Hilton, Jack Foreman, Bill Fox, George Pernicano, John Quirk and Frank Rothman.

Don Coryell
Head Coach

The San Diego Chargers turned a difficult double last season under the guidance of head coach Don Coryell. They repeated as champions of the AFC West and became the only NFL division winner of 1979 to win a title in 1980. Championships are commonplace with Coryell, however. He entered the 1981 season with the sixth highest percentage of victories among active National Football League coaches. Coryell's St. Louis Cardinals and Chargers teams have combined records of 73 victories, 40 losses, and 1 tie for a .648 percentage. His teams have won four division titles in eight years. Coryell's Chargers record of 31-13 is not surpassed by any other coach's over the same period of time. Coryell became the sixth coach of the Chargers when President Gene Klein appointed Don to succeed Tommy Prothro four games into the 1978 season.

Donald David Coryell was born in Seattle Oct. 17, 1924. He played at Seattle's Lincoln High and joined the U.S. Army as a private in the ski troops upon high school graduation in 1943. Coryell was a first lieutenant in the paratroops when he was discharged three-and-a-half years later and entered the University of Washington. Don played defensive back for the Huskies and was graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in 1950. He took a master's degree one year later and accepted his first coaching assignment as an assistant at Punahou Academy in Honolulu. Coryell was head coach at Honolulu Farrington in 1952, then coached two seasons at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver.

Coryell moved to the junior college ranks in Washington in 1955, taking over a Wenatchee team that had been winless the year before. Wenatchee was undefeated under Coryell, who became the athletic director and head coach at the Army base at Fort Ord, California, the following year. Fort Ord emerged as the only unbeaten service team in the country in 1956.

Coryell became head coach at Whittier College in 1957 and led the Poets to a 23-5-1 record, three Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships and number-one ranking among U.S. small colleges in total offense and passing in 1959. Coryell then served one year as offensive backfield coach at the University of Southern California before taking over a down-trodden San Diego State program.

Don was named the San Diego State Aztecs' head coach Jan. 14, 1961, several weeks after San Diego had posted an 0-6-2 record against competition hardly befitting a school of such potential. Coryell immediately embarked on a strong recruiting program and whipped the Aztecs to a 7-2-1 comeback in his first season.

Over the next 11 seasons under Coryell, San Diego State became recognized for great offensive teams and the development of outstanding prospects. Among other achievements:

—San Diego State had unbeaten seasons of 11-0 in 1966, 9-0-1 in 1968, and 11-0 in 1969. The Aztecs won 25 games in a row from 1965-67, then went 31 games without defeat.

—Coryell was named College Division district coach of the year in 1963, '66, '67, and '68.

After a 10-1 season in 1972, Coryell was hired by the St. Louis Cardinals of the NFL.

His San Diego State record was 104-19-2.

The Cardinals were 4-9-1 in 1973, Coryell's first season, then put together records of 10-4, 11-3, and 10-4, winning NFC East championships in 1974 and 1975. Coryell was NFL and NFC coach of the year in 1974.

Don and his lovely wife, Aliisa, live in El Cajon and have a son, Mike (July 16, 1957), a graduate in physics from the University of California at San Diego, and a daughter, Mindy, who became the bride of Michael Lewis of El Cajon this spring.

Johnny Sanders General Manager

Johnny Sanders is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the San Diego Chargers under President Gene Klein, and few are more qualified for the position. National Football League executives were aware of this in 1979 when Sanders was named NFL Executive of the Year in a poll conducted by The Sporting News. Sander's knowledge of player personnel and his experience in management and contracts were among the areas for which Johnny was cited.

Sanders was named general manager of the Chargers Feb. 16, 1976, after having joined the San Diego team as assistant to the president for player personnel Feb. 6, 1975.

Sanders was appointed by Chargers President Gene Klein after a long association with the Los Angeles Rams, with whom Sanders worked in the areas of personnel and contracts as a scout and front-office executive.

Sanders has been involved with football almost from the time his family moved from San Antonio, Texas, where he was born July 26, 1922, to Van Nuys, California, in Los Angeles's San Fernando Valley. Sanders played football for the Van Nuys High Wolves and was a running back and three-year letterman (1946-48) at Occidental College in Eagle Rock.

Johnny was a starter on the 1948 Occidental team that had a 9-0 record, defeated Colorado A&M in the Raisin Bowl in Fresno, California, Jan. 1, 1949, and was the school's first unbeaten squad in 33 years. Sanders is a member of Occidental's Athletic Hall of Fame and Van Nuys Hall of Fame.

Johnny began teaching and coaching in the Los Angeles City Schools system after his graduation from college. He joined the Rams as a parttime scout in 1952 after having been associated with the team during training camps since 1946.

Sanders was head coach at North Hollywood High from 1951-58, posting a 50-16-1 won-lost record, advancing to the Los Angeles City championship game in 1955, and gaining the playoffs six times. Johnny moved to the new Grant High in 1959 and coached there until accepting an invitation from Rams owner Dan Reeves to join the organization as a fulltime scout in 1962.

Sanders was director of player personnel for the Rams from 1964 until his appointment as assistant general manager March 3, 1969.

Johnny and his wife, Peggy, live in San Diego. They have a daughter, Pamela, and a son, Rob, who reside in Los Angeles.

Paul (Tank) Younger
Assistant General Manager

Tank Younger is in his thirty-third season in the National Football League.

Younger's career spans player, scout and administrator, beginning in 1949 as a fullback in the Los Angeles Rams' "Bull Elephant" backfield.

Younger played during what has been described as pro football's Golden Era and he contributed a historic footnote to that period as the first outstanding NFL player from a predominantly black Southern school. Younger was graduated in 1949 from Louisiana's Grambling College, where his size (6-3, 235) and power inspired the nickname Tank.

Younger was named assistant general manager of the Chargers June 17, 1975. He played for the Rams from 1949-57, and served them as a parttime scout from 1958-64 and as a fulltime scout from 1964-75. Younger also played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1958. His career totals included 3,640 yards rushing, a 4.7 average, and 35 touchdowns.

Paul Lawrence Younger was born June 25, 1928, in Grambling, Louisiana. He spent most of his early years in Los Angeles. Tank and his wife Lucille have a son, Howard (Aug. 31, 1956) and two daughters, Harriette (Dec. 21, 1957) and Lucy (March 6, 1961). Howard is a graduate of the University of Southern California with a degree in business. Harriette is attending graduate school at the University of California at Berkeley and Lucy is a student at UC San Diego.

Jack Teele
Assistant to the President

Teele joined the Chargers April 15, 1981, after a long and distinguished career with the Los Angeles Rams. Jack is one of the most experienced persons in pro football in the areas of public relations, ticket office operations, training camp, game management, and administration. He was the most prominent Rams official in the club's move from the Los Angeles Coliseum to Anaheim, working with stadium officials, architects for stadium expansion, contractors, and city management.

Teele's association with pro football began in 1957, when he was assigned to cover the Rams' activities for the Long Beach Independent-Press Telegram newspaper. He joined the Rams as director of public relations in 1960. Teele was appointed Assistant to the President in 1969 and since 1978 had worked as Vice-President, Administration.

Jack Earl Teele was born June 17, 1930, in Bloomington, Illinois. Teele played basketball for Long Beach Poly High and for the first varsity basketball team at Long Beach State, 1951-52. He was named Long Beach State's Outstanding Alumnus in 1971 and to the Long Beach City College Hall of Fame in 1975. Jack served two years with the Army's Counter Intelligence Corps in Japan, 1952-54. He resides in San Diego with his wife (Marilyn). The Teeles have two daughters, Dana, who is Mrs. Robert Thurston, and Lisa, who is Mrs. Richard Owen.

John Trump Administrative Assistant

Trump joined the Chargers July 17, 1978, as administrative assistant for player personnel.

Trump is in charge of the player personnel department and coordinates scouting assignments and the NFL draft.

Trump's appointment in San Diego reunited John with Johnny Sanders, the Chargers' general manager who had started with Trump in the Los Angeles Rams' scouting department and who had played in the same backfield with Trump at Occidental College.

Trump was Little all-Coast and Little all-America as a running back and safety on the 1948 Occidental team. Trump also is a member of the Occidental Hall of Fame.

John became a high-school football and baseball coach in the Los Angeles City Schools in 1950. Three years later he began a 25-year association with the Rams.

He was born John Mountford Trump June 26, 1925, in Glendale, California. Trump played football for the Burbank High Bulldogs and was student body president. John and his wife Jean have two sons, Frank (11/26/52) and Richard (12/25/54).

Aubrey (Red) Phillips Chief Scout

Red Phillips travels more than 100,000 miles a year researching college players for the San Diego Chargers' draft. Phillips joined the Chargers as a scout in 1967. Phillips is on the road almost continually in the spring and fall, charting prospects, filing information, and updating reports.

Phillips played collegiately as a center and line-backer at Texas Tech and professionally with Saskatchewan of the Canadian Football League. He coached at Texas Tech, Southwestern Louisiana, and Northwestern Louisiana.

Red was born Aubrey Clyde Phillips Nov. 14, 1929, in Abbot, Texas. He played football for the Paschal High Panthers in Fort Worth, Texas. Red and his wife Kay reside in Poway. They have three sons, Rusty (May 12, 1953), Mike (Oct. 20, 1955), and Tony (Jan. 11, 1966), and two daughters, Phyllis (May 17, 1964) and Amy (Feb. 2, 1970).

Jack Pardee Assistant Head Coach

The Chargers' first administrative move of the off-season came January 24, 1981, when Pardee was named Assistant Head Coach in charge of defense. Pardee comes to the Chargers with credentials that include twice being named the NFC Coach of the Year. Pardee received his first coach-of-the-year award while in Chicago with a team he guided from a 4-10 season in 1975 to the NFC playoffs in 1977. Pardee's 1979 Washington Redskins team went 10-6 and barely missed the playoffs. Pardee was named coach-of-the-year for the second time after the 1979 season. Pardee played fifteen years in the NFL, the last two with Washington after spending all his previous years with the Los Angeles Rams. He was named all-Pro in 1963 and again in 1971. Pardee announced his retirement after the Redskins' January, 1973, loss to Miami in Super Bowl VII.

Pardee played linebacker and fullback for Paul (Bear) Bryant at Texas A&M, where he earned all-Southwest Conference honors on the field and was named scholastic all-American while majoring in business administration. Pardee's first coaching experience came in 1965 at Texas A&M. An operation to remove cancer in his arm halted Pardee's career after eight seasons with the Rams. He returned to the playing field in 1966 and played for seven more seasons. Pardee coached the linebackers for the Redskins in 1973 before moving to his first head coaching job with the Florida Blazers of the World Football League. In his only season at the helm (1974) Pardee led the Blazers to a 14-6 record and to the championship game which ended in a 21-20 loss to Memphis. In his six years as an NFL head coach Pardee compiled a 42-46 record.

He was born John Perry Pardee April 19, 1936, in Exira, Iowa. Pardee played football for the Christoval High Cougars of Christoval, Texas. Jack and his wife Phyllis have five children, Steven (Sept. 21, 1958); Judee (Sept. 28, 1959); Anne (March 21, 1961); Susan (Jan. 13, 1963), and Ted (Dec. 31, 1968). The Pardees live in La Jolla.

Larrye Weaver
Offensive Coordinator

Weaver moves from defense to offense in 1981 after serving as coach of the defensive backfield for the Chargers the last four seasons. During those four seasons Weaver developed the secondary into one of the strongest units in the NFL. In 1977 his group finished sixth in the NFL; this was preceded by a twenty-seventh-ranked finish in 1976, prior to Weaver's arrival. In 1979 the Chargers secondary ranked second in the AFC, while allowing only 11 touchdown passes over a 16-game schedule. The mark broke the team record of 13 that was over a 14-game schedule in 1974.

Weaver replaced Joe Gibbs as offensive coordinator when Gibbs was named head coach of the Washington Redskins.

Weaver and Chargers offensive backfield coach Earnel Durden teamed on Tommy Prothro's UCLA staff in 1969-70, and moved with Prothro to the Los Angeles Rams 1971-72. He was defensive backfield coach of the New England Patriots from in 1973-76. Weaver also was a college coach at North Dakota State from 1964-66, and at the University of Arizona in 1967-68.

He was born Lawrence Bernard Weaver Nov. 17, 1931, in Monte Vista, Colorado, but grew up in Southern California, playing football for the Anaheim High Colonists and Fullerton Junior College. Weaver was graduated from Adams State College, Colorado.

Larrye and his wife Evelyn live in Escondido. They have three sons, Chris (May 16, 1954), Brett (July 6, 1962), and Greg (May 22, 1965), and two daughters, Vicky (Aug. 24, 1952) and Sandy (Sept. 23, 1955).

Jim Wagstaff
Defensive Backfield

Wagstaff replaced Larrye Weaver as coach of the defensive backfield February 9, 1981, after Weaver became offensive coordinator. Jim spent the last three seasons as defensive backfield coach with the Buffalo Bills, for whom his units led the AFC in pass defense each year. Prior to his service with the Bills, Wagstaff was coach of defensive backs at Los Angeles from 1973-1977, during which time the Ram secondary developed into one of the strongest in the NFC, leading the league in interceptions in 1976.

Jim came to the Rams after serving four years at Boise State as linebacker and secondary coach and defensive coordinator, 1969-72.

Wagstaff was a defensive back for the Buffalo Bills in the infant years of the American Football League (1960-61). After his graduation from Idaho State, where he played running back and cornerback, Wagstaff played one season with the Chicago Cardinals of the NFL before joining the Bills.

He was born James Burke Wagstaff June 12, 1936, in American Falls, Idaho. Wagstaff played football for the American Falls High Beavers. Jim and his wife Nancy have two daughters, Cary (Aug. 26, 1956), and Geniel (Feb. 11, 1959) and are building a home in Poway.

Jerry Smith Defensive Line

In 1980 the Chargers led the NFL in quarterback sacks with 60. The total represents the third highest total in NFL history and a club record, breaking the mark of 54, set by Smith's group in 1978. For the first time in NFL history three members of the same defensive line also were selected as starters in the Pro Bowl. End Fred Dean and tackles Louie Kelcher and Gary Johnson of the Chargers received the honor. Smith has coached the Chargers front four since 1977.

Smith's presence resulted in similar achievement by Baltimore's front four when he was an assistant coach with the Colts from 1973-76. The Colts led the NFL with 59 sacks in 1975 and were second with 57 in 1976. He also was the architect of Buffalo's championship defensive lines in 1964 and 1965.

Smith is one of the last remaining original American Football League coaches, having served on the staff of head coach Lou Saban with the Boston Patriots in 1960. He also has coached at New Orleans, Denver, Cleveland, and Houston. Smith posted a 2-3 record as Denver's head coach in 1970 after replacing Saban, who resigned.

Smith played linebacker for the University of Wisconsin from 1948-51. He was an eighth-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 1952 and played three seasons for San Francisco before entering the military. Smith concluded his playing career with Green Bay in 1957.

He was born Jerome Anthony Smith Sept. 9, 1930, in Dayton, Ohio, and played football for the Chaminade High Eagles. Jerry and his wife Shirley live in Poway. They have 3 daughters, Diane (Nov. 1, 1961), Meghan (Jan. 27, 1965), and Molly (Nov. 17, 1971), and two sons, Jeffrey (May 28, 1962) and Brian (May 15, 1963).

Earnel Durden
Offensive Backfield

(DERD-un)

Durden begins his eighth season as a Chargers assistant coach, which gives Earnel the distinction of having been on the staff longer than any other coach. Earnel also has coached professionally for the Houston Oilers (1973) and for the Los Angeles Rams (1971-72). Durden has coached on the collegiate level at Long Beach State and UCLA.

Earnel was an all-America wingback on Oregon State's Rose Bowl team in 1957. He was Los Angeles City football player of the year in 1954 for the Manual Arts High Toilers.

He was born Earnel Durden Jan. 24, 1937, in Los Angeles. Earnel and his wife, June, live in La Mesa and have three sons, Mike, (May 4, 1959) who plays defensive back on the UCLA varsity; Kevin (Aug. 16, 1962) and Allan (Nov. 26, 1963).

Dave Levy
Offensive Line

(LEV-ee)

Levy's 1980 offensive line crew helped the Chargers establish NFL records of 4,715 yards passing and 6,410 yards in total offense. This will be Levy's second year as coach of the unit.

Levy coached for sixteen years at the University of Southern California (1960-75). During this period USC appeared in the Rose Bowl eight times. The 1960 USC staff was the first put together by Trojans head coach John McKay and united Levy with fellow assistant Don Coryell, who chose Levy to replace Jim Hanifan on the Chargers staff in 1980. Levy also served as Assistant Athletic Director at USC from 1976-79.

He was born David Allan Levy Oct. 25, 1932, in Carrollton, Missouri. Levy grew up in Long Beach, California, and played football for the Poly High Jackrabbits. Levy also played two seasons at Long Beach City College and was a guard at UCLA in 1953-54. He coached the UCLA frosh in 1954, assisted at Long Beach City in 1955, then returned to Poly High, becoming varsity coach in 1957 and compiling a 28-1-1 record in three seasons, capped by Southern California championships in 1958-59.

Dave and his wife, Barrie, reside in Solana Beach. Dave has two sons, John (July 17, 1955) and Robert (Oct. 23, 1958).

Marv Braden
Special Assistant

Braden joined the Chargers February 17, 1981 after serving as special teams coach for Denver, 1977-80. Braden assumed the position of special assistant to head coach Don Coryell. In addition to handling the special teams, Braden will assist in the structure of the offensive game plan.

The San Diego appointment meant a return to San Diego for Braden. He served as head coach a United States International University, 1969-73, during which time his teams posted a 26-12-1 record. Braden's first head coaching post was at Northeast Missouri, 1967-68. Marv was defensive coordinator at Iowa State in 1973, and served as offensive coordinator at Southern Methodist, 1974-75, and at Michigan State, 1976.

Marvin Preston Braden was born January 25, 1938, in Kansas City, Missouri, where he played high school football for the Westport Tigers. Braden also played linebacker at Southwest Missouri, 1956-59.

Marv and his wife Becky have a daughter, Janice (Oct. 14, 1960). The Bradens are building a home in Poway.

Birt Slater
Special Assistant-Defense

Birt Slater has worked with Chargers' defensive coaches since 1977 in the area of film research and evaluation. He came to the Chargers with one of the finest records in the history of high school athletics in San Diego.

Slater coached the Kearny High Komets from 1959-77. His teams won league championships 16 times and San Diego Section titles 3 times. The Komets also set a County record by winning 25 games in a row from 1963-65. Slater was an assistant coach on the powerful San Diego High teams from 1952-58 and his varsity track-and-field team at San Diego High won the Southern California championship in 1957.

Slater lettered three years in football at San Diego State, 1949-51, and was a starting end on the unbeaten, 11-0 team of 1951. He has a master's degree in human relations from U.S. International University in San Diego.

William Birt Slater was born July 2, 1924, in

Culver City, California. Slater played football and was a half-miler in track for the Canoga Park High Hunters in Los Angeles's San Fernando Valley. Birt is married (Evelyn) and lives in Lemon Grove. The Slaters have a daughter, Christine (March 21, 1952), and two sons, John (July 22, 1954) and Steven (March 12, 1958).

Ernie Zampese Wide Receivers

(ZAM-pee-zee)

Of all the NFL records established by the 1980 Chargers perhaps none was more impressive than the feat by Zampese's unit. For the first time in NFL history three receivers on the same team caught passes for more than 1,000 yards. The starting trio of Charlie Joiner, John Jefferson and Kellen Winslow combined for 242 receptions and 3,762 yards.

Zampese is in his third season as coach of the wide receivers. Zampese was defensive backfield coach with the Chargers in 1976, followed by a scouting assignment with the New York Jets in 1977-78. Ernie rejoined the Chargers March 1, 1979.

Ernie was Southern California player of the year, playing for the Santa Barbara High Dons in 1953 and starting tailback at USC in 1955-56.

Zampese was graduated from Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo and earned a master's degree in physical education in 1962. He coached at Allan Hancock Junior College in Santa Maria, California, from 1962-65, and at Cal Poly (SLO) in 1966.

He was born Ernest Eugene Zampese March 12, 1936, in Santa Barbara. Ernie and his wife, Joyce, have four children, daughters Kristin (May 26, 1962), and Laurie (Nov. 22, 1963), and sons Kenneth (July 19, 1967) and Jon (July 13, 1975).

Phil Tyne Conditioning Coach

Tyne joined the Chargers March 13, 1978, working with players in weightlifting, stretching, and conditioning. He has set up programs for the San Diego Sockers soccer team and the U.S. Olympic volleyball team. He also is owner of the Phil Tyne

Athletic Club in San Diego.

Phil attended Ohio State University and was graduated from San Diego State in 1976 with a bachelor's degree in athletic medicine. He is working toward a master's degree in that field.

He was born Phillip James Tyne Oct. 17, 1947, in Columbus, Ohio. He is married (Pamela) and resides in Spring Valley.

Ric McDonald Trainer

McDonald begins his tenth season as the Chargers' trainer. He joined the organization as assistant trainer in 1971 after two seasons as trainer at United States International University in San Diego. McDonald was named to his present position

Feb. 29, 1972.

He was born Thomas Richard McDonald April 10, 1943, in Salt Lake City, Utah. Ric attended East High, where he played football for the Leopards, and is a 1967 graduate of the University of Utah, with a degree in physical education. He holds a certificate in physical therapy from the University of California. He has a master's degree in P.E. from USIU. Ric is married (Jan) and resides in San Diego.

Sid Brooks Equipment Manager

Brooks begins his ninth season with the Chargers, having joined the club Feb. 7, 1973, a few months before discharge after 20 years in the U.S. Air Force.

Brooks earned 20 service ribbons in the Air Force and was the Air Force's Outstanding Airman of 1970. Brooks was stationed at the Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colorado, from 1968-73, and was in charge of the Cadet Athletic Supply during that time. He also holds Associate of Arts degree in four areas of specialization, business management, fashion merchandising, purchasing and materials, and industrial supervision.

Sidney Joseph Patrick Brooks was born March 17, 1935, in Saint Genevieve, Missouri. Sid and his wife, Gerri, reside in Tierrasanta and have three sons, Joe (Dec. 15, 1959), Michael (Nov. 5, 1961), and Brett (Jan. 24, 1969), and a daughter, Allison (May 2, 1965).

Dan Fouts • Quarterback • No. 14

6-3 • 210 • Ninth Year

Oregon • Draft 3—'73

(FOWTS)

The success of the San Diego Chargers has coincided with the raw-tough, determined Fouts's emergence as the most prolific passer in the NFL and as the quarterback with the most awesome two-year record in the history of football . . . set NFL records in 1980 with 589 pass attempts, 348 completions, 4,715 yards, and 8 games in which Fouts threw for at least 300 yards . . . now ranks fifth all-time with 18 300-yard games in the regular season . . . ahead are John Unitas (26), Sonny Jurgensen (25), Joe Namath (21), and George Blanda (19) . . . the Chargers have a 30-9 record (.769) for Fouts's last 39 regular-season starts . . . Fouts has averaged 294.3 passing yards and has thrown for 63 touchdowns in his last 35 starts, during which he has completed 739 of 1,216 passes for 9,714 yards and a 60.8 completion percentage . . . the Chargers are 26-9 over that span . . . named to AFC Pro Bowl team for second year in row . . . needs 546 yards to become twenty-ninth player to pass for 20,000 yards in NFL . . . ranks seventh among active players with 19,454 yards . . . ranks eighth among active players with 112 touchdown passes . . . moved from 21st to 14th place among all-time quarterbacks in 1980 by improving his pass rating to 75.5 . . . Fouts's 84.6 rating in 1980 was career high and second in AFC, fourth in NFL . . . threw for four touchdowns at Seattle in season opener, the fourth time in his career that Fouts has achieved that total . . . came to Chargers in 1973 as third-round draft choice, sixty-fourth player selected in the draft and the sixth quarterback chosen (behind Bert Jones, Gary Huff, Ron Jaworski, Gary Keithley, and Joe Ferguson, in that order) . . . has overcome early-career rap of frailty by starting last 38 games, including post-season, and by playing in 68 of possible 69 games since end of 1975 season . . . holds Chargers record with touchdown passes in 20 consecutive regular season games, 1979-80.

1973 Fouts made professional debut in fourth game of season at Pittsburgh . . . Chargers trailed 38-0 at half-time but Fouts entered game at beginning of third quarter and completed 11 of 21 passes for 174 yards and 1 touchdown and marshaled 2 other scoring drives in 38-21 defeat.

1974 The Chargers, pregame underdogs by 17½ points, trailed 17-13 in the fourth quarter with third down and 10 yards to go on their two-yard line . . . Fouts then marched San Diego 98 yards to a touchdown for a 20-17 victory that snapped the Cincinnati Bengals' Riverfront Stadium unbeaten streak of 15 games . . . Fouts threw for 4 touchdowns and 333 yards (270 in the second half) and rallied the Chargers from second-half deficits of 21-7, 28-19, and 35-26 to a 36-35 victory over Cleveland.

1975 Fouts scored the victory-clinching touchdown on a one-yard run as the Chargers defeated Kansas City 28-20 to end an 11-game losing streak known as "The Bataan Death March."

1976 Fouts completed 15 of 18 passes for 259 yards and 4 touchdowns as the Chargers defeated favored St. Louis 43-24 to start the season with a 3-0 record . . . Fouts completed 19 of 24 passes for 279 yards (171 in the fourth quarter) and 2 touchdowns as the Chargers came from behind to beat Houston 30-27 in San Diego Stadium.

1977 Fouts did not report to the Chargers until the eleventh week of the regular season but the long layoff did not prevent him from leading a 30-28 victory at Seattle in his first appearance . . . he completed 19 of 26 passes for 199 yards and 1 touchdown and directed a 14-play, 58-yard drive that consumed the final 6:55 of play.

1978 Fouts set a Chargers record by completing 22 of 30 passes for 73.3 per cent and 313 yards in a 28-21 loss to Miami in San Diego . . . John Jefferson • Wide Receiver • No. 83

6-1 • 198 • Fourth Year

Arizona State • Draft 1—'78

From the moment he walked on the practice field at his first rookie orientation, stardom was predicted for Jefferson, but no one could have envisioned the outstanding results of this smooth, fluid receiver's first three seasons . . . Jefferson's first regular-season catch was a leaping, endzone reception from

Dan Fouts that resulted in a 29-yard touchdown at Seattle Sept. 2, 1978 . . . in 1980 became the first player in NFL history to gain at least 1,000 yards receiving in each of his first three seasons . . . has caught 199 passes, an average of 66.3 per season . . . Jefferson's 82 pass receptions in 1980 have been topped once in club history . . . teammate Kellen Winslow caught 89 in 1980 . . . Jefferson's 13 touchdown pass receptions led the NFL and equalled his career high, set in 1978 when Jefferson was a rookie and also led the NFL and tied the NFL record of most touchdown receptions by a rookie . . . had 7 regular-season games and 1 playoff game in 1980 in which he gained at least 100 yards receiving . . . has not really been shut out in an NFL game, with catches in 44 of his 45 regular-season starts . . . the Chargers did not aim a pass at Jefferson in a Sept. 16, 1979, game against Buffalo, which assigned double coverage to Jefferson that helped contribute to a 245-yard team

Charlie Joiner • Wide Receiver • No. 18

5-11 • 183 • Thirteenth Year

Grambling • Trade (Cincinnati)—'76

One of the most profitable trades in San Diego Chargers history took place April 2, 1976, when the Chargers traded defensive end Lander McCoy Bacon to Cincinnati for Joiner, who has given San Diego a brand of consistency and professionalism that would be difficult to exceed anywhere in sports

. . . few wide receivers endure as long as Joiner has . . . in 1980, in his twelfth NFL season and at age 33, he caught 71 passes, giving him 142 over the last two seasons and earning Charlie a second straight invitation to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl and his third AFC squad berth in the last 5 seasons . . . Joiner's value and ability to perform in big games was underscored in the 1980 playoffs . . . caught 10 passes for 21.3-yard average and 3 touchdowns in postseason games against Buffalo and Oakland . . . tied AFC Championship-game record with 2 touchdown receptions . . . went over 1,000-yard mark for receptions for third time in career . . . teamed with John Jefferson (1,340) and Kellen Winslow (1,290) to become the first trio of NFL players on same team to gain at least 1,000 yards in a season . . . shared Chargers' most-inspirational-player award with Glen Edwards and Rolf Benirschke . . . was Chargers' NFL Man-of-the-Year candidate and one of five finalists in the league . . . four $500 college scholarships in Joiner's name went to academically-oriented, San Diego-area students whose interests were toward accounting, Joiner's off-season profession . . . named all-pro in 1980 by Associated Press and all-AFC second team by United Press International . . . ranks twenty-first among all-time NFL receivers with 425 receptions . . . Harold Jackson (532), Harold Carmichael (455), and Haven Moses (433) are only active players ahead . . . ranks third among all-time Chargers receivers with 261 catches, an average of 52

1976 Joiner's fourth successive game in which he gained at least 100 yards receiving was against Houston . . . he amassed 106 yards on 2 receptions, including an 81-yard touchdown that helped the Chargers win 30-27 . . . Joiner was named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad and caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from Ken Anderson of Cincinnati for the winning score in the AFC's 24-14 victory over the NFC in Seattle.

1977 Joiner caught 2 touchdown passes with brilliant catches in his first appearance against former Cincinnati teammates as the Chargers scored a 24-3 victory.

1979 Joiner caught 63 passes in the last 11 regular-season games, including 9 each in two games, and 7 for 168 yards in the Chargers' 40-16 rout of Los Angeles . . . Joiner went to the dressing room two times for injuries but got off the floor each time and caught a game-winning, 32-yard pass from Dan Fouts that assured a 17-7 victory over Denver for the Chargers' first AFC West division championship since 1965.

1980 Joiner caught at least 2 passes in all of the Chargers' 18 regular-season and postseason games . . . had career high 10 catches for 171 yards and 1 touchdown in a 44-7 rout of the New York Giants . . . Joiner never was better than in AFC playoffs, catching 4 passes for 83 yards and 1 touchdown in the 20-14 victory over Buffalo and 6 for 130 and 2 touchdowns in the 34-27 loss to Oakland.

Week 6

Oakland 38, San Diego 24

Sunday, Oct. 12

Quarterback Dan Fouts set a Chargers record for passing yardage by completing 23 of 39 passes for 388 yards and 1 touchdown. The record was 387 yards by Fouts against Oakland Sept. 14. San Diego fell behind 24-10 but rallied for a 24-24 tie with 14:03 remaining in the fourth quarter. Raiders running back Kenny King broke the tie with an 89-yard run around left end for a touchdown on the following series. Chuck Muncie fumbled the following kickoff and Oakland's Todd Christensen recovered in the endzone for a touchdown. San Diego lost all-Pro offensive tackle Russ Washington for the remainder of the year with a knee injury.

Week 7

San Diego 44, N.Y. Giants 7

Sunday, Oct. 19

Dan Fouts completed 26 of 41 passes for 444 yards and 3 touchdowns against the Giants. The 444 yards broke the Chargers' record of 388 yards by Fouts against Oakland the previous week. Fouts completed 49 of 80 passes for 832 yards and 4 touchdowns in the last two games. Wide receiver Charlie Joiner was the recipient of 10 passes, a career high for Joiner. He has caught 9 passes in a game twice in his twelve-year NFL career. Joiner's 171 yards were the most by a Chargers receiver since Gary Garrison had 188 yards against the New York Jets, Sept. 28, 1969. The Chargers 37-point margin of victory over the Giants was the largest since San Diego defeated the Buffalo Bills 45-6 Dec. 14, 1969. San Diego's 567 total yards represented the third highest total in Chargers history. Running back Mike Thomas made his first appearance of 1980 after off-season knee surgery and gained 31 yards on 9 carries.

Week 9

San Diego 31, at Cincinnati 14

Sunday, Nov. 2

San Diego put the Bengals away with a no-fumble, no-interception, never-behind performance. After seven minutes of play, San Diego had a 10-0 lead. It started on the team's first blocked punt of the season, setting up a 7-yard touchdown run by Mike Thomas. Then the defense harrassed Pat McNally into a 22-yard punt and Rolf Benirschke followed with a 40-yard field goal. The Chargers broke open the game in the third quarter on two touchdown passes from quarterback Dan Fouts to wide receiver John Jefferson. Running back Mike Thomas had his most productive day rushing since 1978, gaining 71 yards on 16 carries. Safety Pete Shaw tied a Chargers record with 3 pass interceptions. The last time a Chargers player intercepted 3 passes in a game was Oct. 30, 1977, when Clarence Duren accomplished the feat against Miami.

Week 10

Denver 20, San Diego 13

Sunday, Nov. 9

The Broncos handed the Chargers their fourth loss in their last six games. The loss moved San Diego out of the lead of the AFC West for the first time in the 1980 season. Quarterback Dan Fouts completed 29 of 45 passes for 363 yards and 1 touchdown. It was the fifth time in 1980 that Fouts threw for more than 300 yards in a game. The 29 completions tied a Chargers record set by Fouts against Oakland Sept. 14. He also set a Chargers record by completing a touchdown pass in his twentieth straight game when he connected with wide receiver John Jefferson on a 3-yard pass. Running back Chuck Muncie had his most productive day with the Chargers, gaining 115 yards in 23 carries. San Diego outgained Denver 459 to 219 in total yards and first downs, 26-11.

Week 11

San Diego 20, Kansas City 7

Sunday, Nov. 16

The Chargers permitted the Chiefs offense only six plays past mid-field, none in the second half. Running back Mike Thomas led the Chargers' ground game with 109 yards in 27 carries. Quarterback Dan Fouts completed 22 of 39 passes for 222 yards. San Diego has won its last four meetings with the Chiefs. This was the first time Mike Thomas had rushed for more than 100 yards since he gained 195 yards against Don Coryell's St. Louis Cardinals on Nov. 21, 1976. Thomas scored two touchdowns on runs of 4 and 7 yards, the latter capping an 80-yard drive in the third quarter. Fouts' streak for consecutive games throwing a touchdown pass ended at 20 games. Mike Thomas started the game on the bench, but entered the game when Chuck Muncie bruised a knee in the opening period.

Week 12

San Diego 27, at Miami 24

Thursday, Nov. 20

San Diego defeated the Miami Dolphins in a Thursday night overtime game, before 63,013 spectators in the Miami Orange Bowl. Rolf Benirschke kicked a 28-yard field goal at 7:14 of overtime for the victory. The Chargers moved their record to 8-4, tied for first in the AFC West with Oakland, which lost to Philadelphia. The Benirschke field goal was set up when Chargers linebacker Woodrow Lowe intercepted a David Woodley pass and returned the ball 28 yards. In the game, quarterback Dan Fouts completed 25 of 41 passes for 230 yards and 3 touchdowns. It gave Fouts 26 touchdown passes, bettering his single-season high of 24 in 1978 and 1979.

Week 13

San Diego 22, Philadelphia 21

Sunday, Nov. 30

Playing a virtually flawless first half, the Chargers took a 19-0 lead, then held on while penalties, turnovers, and poor field position inhibited them as the Eagles battled back. The only Charger points of the second half came on a fourth-period field goal by Rolf Benirschke, and that 42-yarder was decisive. Eagles' quarterbacks were sacked 6 times as Philadelphia suffered only its second loss. The Eagles came out of the first half scoreless, partially because Tony Franklin missed three field goal attempts. On the first play from scrimmage, quarterback Dan Fouts double pumped and hit John Jefferson for a gain of 50 yards. Two plays later, Fouts hit Kellen Winslow with the first of two touchdown passes. Jefferson became the first wide receiver in the NFL to gain more than 1,000 yards receiving in each of his first three seasons. Jefferson's 164 yards receiving, on 8 catches, was a single-game personal high. Tight end Kellen Winslow became the first NFL tight end since 1967 to catch passes for more than 1,000 yards. Jackie Smith had 1,205 yards on 56 receptions with St. Louis in 1967. Fouts broke the Chargers' record for touchdown passes in a season with 28. The record was 27 by John Hadl in 1968. This game was Fouts' sixth 300-yard passing game of 1980, tying an NFL record he shared with Joe Namath.

Week 14

Washington 40, San Diego 17

Sunday, Dec. 7

Cornerback Joe Lavender, returned an interception 51 yards for a touchdown less than three minutes into the game, setting the tempo for what was to be the Chargers most one-sided defeat of the season. San Diego entered the game tied with Oakland for the lead in the AFC West and left the game still tied as Oakland was defeated by the Dallas Cowboys, 19-13. Lavender was to get three of the four interceptions Dan Fouts would throw. The Chargers turned the ball over seven times. Fouts became the first quarterback in National Football League history to pass for more than 4,000 yards in two consecutive seasons.

San Diego 21, Seattle 14

Saturday, Dec. 13

The Chargers scored on three of their first five possessions. They might also have scored on their other two if an interception and a fumble on the visitors' 6- and 9-yard lines, respectively, hadn't ended the drives. Dan Fouts' seventh 300-yard game of 1980 broke NFL record of 6 games set in 1967 by Joe Namath and last year by Fouts.

Week 16

San Diego 26, Pittsburgh 17

Monday, Dec. 22

San Diego defeated the world champion Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday night for their second straight AFC West title. The Chargers outdone the Steelers, 27-16, outrushed them, 180-49, outpassed them, 308-253, and outgained them, 488-302. Chuck Muncie gained 115 yards and Mike Thomas 64 yards. The Chargers were always driving. They didn't have to punt until 5 minutes into the final period. But they had four drives stalled — on the Pittsburgh 21, 6, 8, and 17 yard lines. Placekicker Rolf Benirschke kicked field goals of 33, 26, 26, and 33 yards. The Chargers' offense became the most productive in NFL history by gaining 488 yards. This gave San Diego 6,414 on the season, breaking Houston's record of 6,288 yards in 1961.

Week 17

San Diego 20, Buffalo 14

Saturday, Jan. 3

Quarterback Dan Fouts connected with Ron Smith on a 50-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 remaining in the fourth quarter. Fouts completed the pass on a third-down-and-10 situation with the Chargers trailing 14-13. The Chargers advanced to the American Football Conference championship against Oakland. Fouts completed 22 of 37 passes for 314 yards and 2 touchdowns. This was the 20th time in Fouts's career he had passed for more than 300 yards in a game. The Chargers' defense held Buffalo to 97 yards rushing. The 50-yard game winning touchdown pass was the longest reception of Smith's career. He had caught 4 passes for 48 yards during the 1980 regular season. The Chargers trailed at half-time 14-13. Momentum changed after halftime, the Chargers going 70 yards in four plays for a touchdown on the first series. Chuck Muncie ran for 18 yards on play 1, Charlie Joiner caught a 45-yard pass on play 2. Play 3 lost 2 yards, then Joiner capped it with a 9-yard scoring reception, making the score 14-10. A 22-yard field goal by Rolf Benirschke narrowed the gap to 14-13 in the fourth period. The Chargers started their final drive at the Buffalo 31-yard-line with 3:59 to play. Two passes—2 yards to Mike Thomas and 17 yards to John Jefferson—got the ball to the 50-yard line.

Chronology

1959 First organizational meeting of proposed football league is held in Chicago with representatives of six teams, including Los Angeles entry headed by Barron Hilton, in attendance, Aug. 14. Second organizational meeting is held in Dallas with announcement that league will be known as "American Football League," Aug. 22. Frank Leahy, legendary former Notre Dame University football coach, is named general manager of Los Angeles team, Oct. 14. Gerald Courtney of Hollywood wins expenses-paid trip to Mexico City and Acapulco after submitting "Chargers" in name-the-team contest, results of which are announced at media luncheon in Beverly Hilton Hotel, Oct. 28.

1960 Sid Gillman, former coach of NFL Los Angeles Rams, signs three-year contract to coach Chargers, Jan. 7. The Chargers announce they will hold their summer training camp at Chapman College in Orange, 30 miles Southeast of Los Angeles, March 11. Owner Hilton unveils Chargers uniforms, blue and gold with lightning bolts on sides of helmets and trousers, at cocktail party in Hilton's Santa Monica home; players Jack Kemp and Ron Mix model uniforms, March 20. A total of 207 candidates is reduced to three who are invited back to summer training camp after a four-day tryout camp in Burbank; athletes were judged on speed and agility, April 9-12. Chargers and other AFL teams sign five-year contract with American Broadcasting Company for network televising of selected games, June 9. General manager Frank Leahy resigns because of ill health, July 1. Chargers open training camp at Chapman College, July 8. Sid Gillman assumes dual role of coach and general manager, July 9. Paul Lowe returns opening kickoff 105 yards for a touchdown as the Chargers defeat New York

Titans 27-7 in first preseason game before 27,778 persons at Los Angeles Coliseum, Aug. 6. Trailing 20-7 with less than 10 minutes to play, the Chargers rally to defeat the Dallas Texans 21-20 in first regular-season game before 17,724 persons at Coliseum, Sept. 10. The Chargers outscore Denver 41-33 to clinch AFL Western Division championship before 9,928 persons in Coliseum, Dec. 10. The Chargers and New York Titans amass 1,351 yards (733 by Los Angeles, 618 by New York) rushing, receiving, and returning as the Chargers score 50-43 victory in final game in Los Angeles in front of 11,457 persons, Dec. 18. Chargers owner Hilton says he will accept an invitation to visit San Diego and listen to civic leaders regarding a possible move of the Chargers from Los Angeles, Dec. 23.

1961 Houston defeats Los Angeles 24-16 in first AFL championship game before 32,183 persons in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium and a national television audience, Jan. 1. Hilton visits San Diego civic leaders; following his departure announcement is made of the forming of the Greater San Diego Sports Committee to bring major league sports to San Diego, Jan. 6. The AFL gives Hilton formal approval to move his franchise to San Diego, Feb. 10. Construction begins on enlarging Balboa Stadium, where the San Diego Chargers will play home games, from 23,000 to 34,000 seats by building upper deck, May 1. The Chargers open training camp at University of San Diego, July 22. Balboa Stadium renovation is not complete and the setting is reminiscent of ancient Roman ruins as Chargers defeat Houston 27-14 on a 93-degree afternoon before a paid crowd of 12,304 persons (total attendance estimated at 15,000) in first preseason game, Aug. 6. Record Balboa Stadium crowd of 33,788 persons watches Chargers defeat Dallas 24-14 for their eleventh victory in row in regular season and fifteenth in succession since 1960; victory clinches AFL West title, although five games remain on schedule; safety Charlie McNeil makes the Chargers' forty-third pass interception, a professional record, Nov. 19. AFL holds "secret" draft to get head start on rival NFL and Chargers select halfback Lance Alworth of Arkansas in the second round; the eight clubs choose 48 players during telephonic meeting, Nov. 4. After AFL secret draft is ruled invalid by commissioner Joe Foss, Oakland drafts Alworth in the second round and then trades his rights to San Diego for flanker Bo Roberson, quarterback Hunter Enis, and guard Gene Selawski during regular AFL draft at Hilton Hotel in Dallas, Dec. 2. Dick Harris's interception of Babe Parilli's pass to Gino Capelletti in fourth quarter of Boston's 41-0 victory increases the Chargers' all-time pro record to 49, Dec. 17. Houston defeats San Diego 10-3 to win second straight AFL championship before 29,556 persons in Balboa Stadium, Dec. 24.

1962 West defeats East 47-27 in Balboa Stadium in first AFL All-Star game, featuring 11 Chargers and coach Sid Gillman and his staff, Jan. 7. Chargers open training camp at University of San Diego, July 16. The Chargers drop their final game of the season to Dallas 26-17 and finish a 4-victories, 10-defeats season in which 23 players miss at least 2 games with injuries, Dec. 16.

1963 The West defeats the East 21-14 in the second AFL All-Star game before 27,641 persons in Balboa Stadium; end Earl Faison of the Chargers is named outstanding defensive player, Jan. 13. The Chargers announce they will train at Rough Acres Ranch, located in Boulevard, a hamlet of 100 persons high in the mountains of East San Diego County, March 7. Barron Hilton and his father, Conrad, sell one-third of their interest in the Chargers to San Diego businessmen John Mabee, George Pernicano, Kenneth Swanson and James Copley, and M. L. Bengtson of Los Angeles, April 30. Lance Alworth catches 9 passes for 232 yards with touchdown plays of 73 and 72 yards as the Chargers erupt for 35 second-half points on a muddy field to bury the Kansas City Chiefs 38-17 before 30,127 persons, a record pro football crowd in Kansas City Municipal Stadium, Oct. 20. Quarterback Tobin Rote completes 21 of 29 passes for 369 yards and 3 touchdowns and Lance Alworth catches 5 for 180 yards and a touchdown in a 53-7 victory over the New York Jets in Polo Grounds, New York, Nov. 2. Alworth's 13 pass catches (for 217 yards and a touchdown) tie an AFL record as the Chargers whip Boston 7-6 in Fenway Park, Boston, Nov. 10. An AFL-record, standing-room-only crowd of 38,592 persons in War Memorial Stadium sees the Chargers complete three-game sweep of Eastern teams with a 23-13 victory over Buffalo, Nov. 17. Paul Lowe rushes for 183 yards in 17 carries and scores two touchdowns as eight Chargers score in 58-20 victory over Denver which clinches AFL West championship; the point total sets a club record, Dec. 22.

1964 Keith Lincoln accounts for 349 yards total offense as the Chargers win their first AFL championship, 51-10 over Boston before 30,127 persons in Balboa Stadium, Jan. 5. Lincoln is named outstanding offensive player after gaining 121 yards in 14 carries and catching 1 pass for 10 yards as West defeats East 27-14 before 20,016 persons at AFL All-Star game in Balboa Stadium, Jan. 19. The Chargers and seven other AFL teams sign a five-year television contract for a record $36 million with National Broadcasting Company to commence with 1965 season. The Chargers open their summer training camp at the Travelodge Motel in Escondido, July 15. The Chargers and New York Jets tie 17-17 before record AFL crowd of 50,222 persons—46,828 paid—in Shea Stadium, Oct. 3. A Balboa Stadium attendance record of 34,865 is set as Buffalo defeats San Diego 27-24 on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26. The Chargers defeat the Jets 38-3 before 25,753 persons in Balboa Stadium to clinch their fourth AFL West title in five years, Dec. 6. With wide receiver Lance Alworth out of the game with a knee injury and fullback Keith Lincoln sidelined in the first quarter with a fractured rib, the Chargers drop a 20-7 decision, and the AFL championship to Buffalo, Dec. 26.

Alworth helped Chargers rout Boston 51-10.

Charles Aqua Viva

1965 Fullback Keith Lincoln is on the receiving end of a 73-yard pass play for a touchdown and runs 80 yards for another score as the West defeats the East 38-14 in the AFL All-Star game before 15,446 persons in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium; the game, originally moved from San Diego to New Orleans, was switched to Houston on one day's notice after black players experienced mistreatment in New Orleans, Jan. 16. The San Diego City Council endorses construction of a multipurpose stadium in Mission Valley and drops the idea of a floating stadium in Mission Bay, April 27. secutive games with John Hadl, to Washington for a draft choice, in Tommy Prothro's first significant deal as head coach, Jan. 29. The Chargers open training camp at a new base, United States International University, 9 miles north of San Diego Stadium, July 3. Rookie Don Woods, claimed on waivers from Green Bay 12 days before, gains 157 yards in 18 carries, including a 56-yard touchdown run, but Miami's defending Super Bowl VIII champion scores three touchdowns in the final 11 minutes for a 28-21 victory before 45,098 persons in San Diego Stadium, Sept. 29. Don Woods runs for 105 yards to set an NFL rookie rushing record and an all-time Chargers rushing record of 1,162 yards as San Diego defeats Denver 17-0 in the final game of the season with their first shutout since Nov. 12, 1967.

1975 Don Woods is named NFL offensive rookie of year, Jan. 2. Johnny Sanders of the Los Angeles Rams is appointed assistant to the president for player personnel, Feb. 21. Former Chargers all-pro tackle Ron Mix is inducted into the San Diego Hall of Fame at the Hall of Champions in Balboa Park, March 10. Paul (Tank) Younger, former Rams running great, is named assistant-general manager, June 17. The Chargers open their training camp at USIU, July 8. The Chargers are beaten 13-10 by Los Angeles in their first overtime game; Tom Dempsey's 27-yard field goal wins for the Rams after nine minutes, 27 seconds of the fifth quarter in San Diego Stadium, Oct. 12. The Chargers end 11-game losing streak by defeating Kansas City 28-20 as rookie running back Rickey Young celebrates his twenty-second birthday with 124 yards in 25 carries, Dec. 7.

1976 Johnny Sanders is named general manager following Jan. 20 termination of services of Harland Svare, Feb. 16. The Chargers open training camp at the University of California at San Diego, their sixth summer base since the team was formed, July 5. The Chargers begin a 15-day preseason odyssey with a 26-17 victory over the New England Patriots in Norman, Oklahoma, Aug. 8. A crowd announced at 38,000 persons in Tokyo's Korakuen Stadium watches the St. Louis Cardinals defeat the Chargers 20-10 in the first NFL game played outside North America, Aug. 15. The Chargers complete their overseas trip with a 17-16 loss to San Francisco in Honolulu, Aug. 21. The Chargers explode for 27 points in the second quarter and demolish St. Louis 43-24 for a 3-0 record, their fastest start since 1968, Sept. 26. The Chargers invite many of their former players to an alumni weekend in San Diego and celebrate the occasion with a 30-27 victory over Houston; the late Frank Buncom, Bob Laraba, Emil Karas, and Jacque MacKinnon are made honorary members of the Chargers' Hall of Fame, Oct. 17.

1977 The Chargers open training camp at UC San Diego, July 15. Rolf Benirschke's point after touchdown with time elapsed, after James Harris's five-yard touchdown run, pushes the Chargers past Miami 14-13 in the Miami Orange Bowl, Oct. 30. Lance Alworth, a Chargers great from 1962-70, becomes the first elected member of the Chargers' Hall of Fame during halftime of Chargers game with Denver in San Diego Stadium, Nov. 13. With quarterbacks James Harris and Bill Munson sidelined by injuries, rookie quarterback Cliff Olander helps the Chargers surprise Oakland's defending Super Bowl XI champion 12-7 before 50,887 in San Diego Stadium, Nov. 20.

1978 Lance Alworth, a Chargers star receiver from 1962-70 and holder of many club records and among all-time pro receivers, becomes the first player from the American Football League named to Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, during halftime of AFC-NFC Pro Bowl in Tampa, Jan. 23. The Chargers open their summer training camp at UC San Diego, July 12. Tommy Prothro resigns as head coach following a 24-3 loss to Green Bay that leaves San Diego with a 1-3 record and Don Coryell, former San Diego State and St. Louis Cardinals leader, is named by president Gene Klein as the Chargers' sixth head coach, Sept. 25. The Chargers control the ball for 45 minutes, 17 seconds and defeat Denver 23-0 for Coryell's first victory, Oct. 8. Dan Fouts's 29-yard pass to tight end Greg McCrary with 52 seconds left in the game provides the winning touchdown in a 27-23 victory over the Oakland Raiders; it was the Chargers' first triumph in Oakland since 1968, Oct. 29. Tackle Ron Mix becomes the second elected member of the Chargers' Hall of Fame at halftime of the Chargers-Cincinnati game, Nov. 5. Dan Fouts's 14-yard touchdown pass to John Jefferson is completed with no time left in overtime and gives the Chargers a 29-23 victory over Kansas City, Nov. 12. The Chargers gain 517 yards—their first game with more than 500 yards since 1971—to beat Houston 45-24 and conclude the season with a 7-1 record in the second half and an overall mark of 9-7, their first winning season since 1969, Dec. 17.

1979 Tackle Ron Mix becomes the second Charger and the second American Football League player to be named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, during halftime of the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl in Los Angeles, Jan. 29. The Chargers trade their twentieth and forty-seventh selections to Cleveland for the Browns' thirteenth choice, with which San Diego chooses Missouri tight end Kellen Winslow during the first round of the NFL draft. The Chargers open their 1979 training camp at the University of California in San Diego, making the La Jolla-located university their summer base for the fourth successive year, July 16. Quarterback Dan Fouts passes for 326 yards and two touchdowns as the Chargers rout Los Angeles 40-16 and Fouts ties an NFL record by throwing for at least 300 yards for the third successive game, Oct. 21. The Chargers lose 45-22 at Oakland in a nationally televised Thursday night game although Fouts breaks Joe Namath's record with 303 yards passing, marking Fouts's fourth consecutive 300-yard game, Oct. 25. Fouts overcomes four pass interceptions by rallying San Diego with 10 points in the final 3:16 of play for a 26-24 victory at Cincinnati, Nov. 11. A strong defensive performance, keynoted by Woodrow Lowe's 77-yard pass interception return for a touchdown propels the Chargers to a 35-7 triumph over Pittsburgh; the victory gave the Chargers a sweep of the Steelers and Los Angeles, the teams that would play in Super Bowl XIV, Nov. 18. Fouts's record sixth 300-yard game—he had 338 yards total—is overshadowed by Atlanta's 28-26 victory in San Diego Stadium, Dec. 4. The Chargers clinch their first playoff berth in 14 years, scoring all points in the first half of a 35-0 victory at New Orleans,

The Chargers on Radio

Tom Kelly, play-by-play broadcaster of Chargers games on radio station KSDO (1130) since 1978 and a nationally acclaimed sports-caster of collegiate football and basketball events for more than 20 years, will be calling the Chargers' action in 1981. Kelly is based in Los Angeles at radio station KNX but is a frequent contributor to sports events in San Diego. Veteran KSDO sports director John DeMott serves as analyst for the fifth year.

The Chargers On Preseason Television

BILL ORWIG

PAT CURRAN

RON REINA

Three Chargers preseason games will be televised by KGTV Channel 10, with Channel 10 sports director Bill Orwig doing the play-by-play call and Chargers Business Manager and former tight end Pat Curran serving as analyst.

Orwig, 41, has been sports director at Channel 10 since August, 1978, and has a long and varied background in sports. He was sports director of a television station in Salt Lake City, Utah, before coming to San Diego and before that served as general manager of the Utah Stars (1974-75) and Indiana Pacers (1970-74) basketball teams in the American Basketball Association. Orwig also broadcast Indiana University football and basketball games.

The St. Louis (Aug. 8), San Francisco (Aug. 15), and Buffalo (Aug. 28) games will be televised on Channel 10. The Aug. 21 game with the Los Angeles Rams also will be on Channel 10 but will be televised nationally by the American Broadcasting Company.

Other Chargers Broadcasts

Ron Reina will continue to serve as co-host with Pat Curran on Chargers Talk broadcasts on radio station KSDO. Chargers Talk will begin three hours before kickoff and will resume after the locker-room show following each game.
