Finished fourth in the AFC (second among wide receivers) and ninth in the NFL with 74 catches for 1,164 yards, and 12 touchdowns. Was fifth in yards in the conference and second, to Mark Clayton's 18, in touchdowns in the league. His 12 scores broke his team record of 11 set in 1983 and placed him tied for third among non-kick scorers in the AFC. Finished the season one reception off his team record of 75 set in 1981 and 73 yards off his club record 1,237 in 1979. Caught at least one pass in each game and will enter the 1985 season having at least one reception in 107 straight regular season games, the NFL's third-longest all-time streak. Had the best day of his career with 12 receptions for 191 yards and a touchdown in 27-24 win at Denver. The 12 catches tied the team record, while the 191 yards eclipsed the old mark of 173. Started the season slowly with eight receptions in the first four games, but caught 24 in his next four, including three 100-yard afternoons. Had eight for 130 yards and a touchdown at Minnesota, five for 106 and two touchdowns against Buffalo, and seven for 129 yards and a score versus Green Bay in Milwaukee. In the season's last four games he accounted for two more 100-yard days and two games that just fell short. Had 191 at Denver and 104, on eight receptions and two TDs, versus Detroit. Accounted for 98 yards on four catches at Kansas City, and 96 on seven against the Broncos. His five 100-yard receiving games were one off his club record six in 1979. Of his season's 74 receptions, 61 gave Seattle either a first down or a touchdown. His 51-yard scoring catch with 8:07 left gave the Seahawks a 31-28 win over Buffalo. Had four receptions in the Monday night game at San Diego, the first three of which went for touchdowns, tying his team one-game record. Started both Seahawks playoff games. Was held without a reception for the first time in 110 regular season and playoff games in the wild card game versus the Raiders. Seahawks completed only four passes (in 10 attempts) on the afternoon. Came back the following week to score Seattle's only touchdown in a 31-10 AFC Divisional Playoff loss at Miami. Caught six passes that afternoon for 128 yards, including a 56-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. The 128 yards and 56-yard scoring play were both Seahawks single-game playoff records.

Enters the 1985 season as the NFL's ninth all-time leading receiver with 545 receptions for 8,772 yards and 72 touchdowns. He's the only player in the league's all-time Top 20 with less than 10 seasons experience. Only one active player, San Diego's Charlie Joiner with 657, has more catches than Largent entering 1985. Also ranks ninth all-time in receiving yards and tenth in touchdowns scored. Has averaged 60.5 receptions, 974.6 yards, and eight touchdowns in nine seasons. His 107 straight regular season games with at least one reception is third in history trailing Harold Carmichael (127) and Mel Gray (121). Has six seasons with at least 1,000 yards receiving, second all-time to Lance Alworth's seven and 32 career 100-yard receiving games, third in history trailing Don Maynard (50) and Alworth (41). Four of his 1,000-yard seasons (1978-81) came consecutively. Led the AFC in receptions in 1978 with 71 and finished second in yardage with 1,168 in the NFL. Was fourth in the conference in 1979 and 1980 with 66 each season. Finished 1981 second (to Kellen Winslow's 88) in the AFC with a team-record 75 receptions. His 1,224 yards was third. Finished sixth in 1983 with 72 catches and was seventh in yards with 1,074. Has four seasons with 70 or more receptions and two, 1978 and 1981, with 1,200 or more yards, becoming the seventh player in league history to do so. KINGDOME

The Kingdome, at a cost of $67 million and with a seating capacity of 64,984 for football, is the least expensive domed, air-conditioned stadium of its size in the world.

Built on a 35.9-acre site just south of Seattle's central business district, the walls of the Dome anchor the world's largest self-supporting concrete roof.

The project was completed by Peter Kiewit Sons' Construction Co. and was originally a bond issue passed by a 62 percent majority of the voters of King County and spearheaded by former County Executive John Spellman. Construction began on November 2, 1972.

The first professional football game in the Kingdome, August 1, 1976, between the Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers drew 60,825 fans. Since that time, the Seahawks have soldout 66 of their last 67 games, including preseason and postseason games, dating from 1978 to 1984. The Seahawks have finished in the top nine among all NFL clubs in attendance each of their first nine seasons. The Kingdome is also the home of the American League Seattle Mariners. Among other events held in the Kingdome have been the Auto Show, Big Seattle Boat Show, rock concerts, the 1984 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament, and the Billy Graham Crusade. The Billy Graham Crusade on May 14, 1976, which attracted 74,000 people, still ranks as the single event attendance leader in the Kingdome.

KINGDOME DIRECTIONS

Cars arriving from the north on I-5, take Airport Way exit (#164). Turn left onto I-90 Truck Route and follow Royal Brougham Way to south parking lot entrance.
