KEN BEHRING
Owner

Kenneth E. Behring is best known as the owner of the Seattle Seahawks football team, the developer of the prestigious Blackhawk community in northern California and the benefactor of a spectacular automotive museum that bears his name.

He has provided housing and recreation for thousands of families in Florida and California. In addition to Blackhawk, he developed the entire city of Tamarac, 10 planned communities in South Florida, and Canyon Lakes in San Ramon, California.

Behring also founded The Behring Educational Institute in 1982, a non-profit charitable corporation that promotes the interests of the University of California at Berkeley and provides world-class cultural resources to the East San Francisco Bay area.

Behring traded up from his first automobile, a $90 Pontiac, to rare Packards, Hispano Suizas and Isotta Fraschinis, amassing one of the finest collections of classic and rare cars in the world. Recognizing that these automobiles are "an investment in mankind" and an important aspect of American culture, he built The Behring Auto Museum in affiliation with the University of California at Berkeley to preserve and exhibit the cars for generations.

This kind of foresight and determination has characterized Ken Behring's life. In 1950, he started a car dealership in a muddy lot, using an old chicken coop as an office. Two years later, he acquired a Lincoln-Mercury dealership.

In 1956, opportunity called Behring to then sleepy Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He built a house for his family that sold before it was half-finished. His company developed the entire city of Tamarac, a planned recreational retirement community, where homes initially sold for $8,990 to $9,900. Now they are worth close to $150,000.

Behring foresaw Florida's rapid growth, so he launched a modular home company to meet housing demands. The company built 3,000 homes in 1971, when Behring sold the firm to move to other interests.

On the advice of friends, Behring flew over the Blackhawk Ranch in the Mount Diablo foothills of northern California. He now had the resources to match his vision of the finest planned country club community. The result is Blackhawk, a 2,300-home community that offers residents two 18-hole golf courses, a tennis and swim club and a 25-acre sports complex.

Located in one of the fastest growing regions in the country, Blackhawk also provided the ideal setting for a world-class cultural plaza. In addition to The Behring Auto Museum, Blackhawk Plaza will feature the University of California at Berkeley satellite facility, encompassing 27,500 square feet of state-of-the-art lecture, classroom and exhibit space for University collections of Paleontology, Anthropology, Art and Science. Joining the Plaza in the summer of 1992, will be an Academy of Achievement, using advanced exhibitry to allow visitors to interact with the great figures of the 20th century. A promenade of specialty retailers, restaurants, a 2-acre water park, a 7-screen movie theater and a variety of cultural events will offer Plaza visitors unlimited opportunities.

Since purchasing the Seahawks on August 30, 1988, Behring has become active in Seattle community affairs by serving as President of the American Academy of Achievement, as Honorary Chairman of the "Ken Behring Seahawks Dinner Auction" to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association, and as an underwriter of the annual PONCHO Auction.

COACHING STAFF

CHUCK KNOX
Head Coach

SEAHAWKS: Chuck Knox enters his eighth season as the head coach of the Seattle Seahawks ranking as the most succesful coach in franchise history. Hired on January 26, 1983, he has led the Seahawks to the only four playoff appearances in team history, including capturing the franchise's first-ever American Football Conference Western Division title in 1988. Knox came to Seattle after five seasons as the vice president of football operations and head coach of the Buffalo Bills and immediately turned around a franchise that had recorded the NFL's third-worst record over the previous three seasons into one that has posted the NFL's seventh-best regular season win total (64-47) over the past seven seasons. Seattle's four playoff appearances in seven seasons ranks behind only the seven of the San Francisco 49ers, the six of the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns, and the five of the Chicago Bears and Denver Broncos. In 1983, Knox and his staff turned a team that posted a 14-27 record over the 1980-82 seasons into a 9-7 squad, one that earned the first playoff appearance in franchise history and advanced into the AFC Championship Game. The trip to the AFC title game included a 31-7 win over Denver in the wild card game and a 27-20 upset over the defending AFC Champion Miami Dolphins in the Orange Bowl in the divisional playoffs. The eventual Super Bowl XVIII Champion Los Angeles Raiders eliminated Seattle, 30-14, in the AFC title game. The next season, Knox overcame injuries to several players, including one that put 1983 AFC Offensive Player of the Year Curt Warner out for the year in the first game, to post the franchise's best-ever record, 12-4, and again advance as a wild card entrant to the postseason. The Seahawks eliminated the defending NFL champion Raiders in the wild card game before losing at Miami to the eventual AFC Champion Dolphins. After both those seasons Knox was named NFL Coach of the Year. After an 8-8 record in 1985, the Seahawks registered the team's second-best record, 10-6, in 1986 and were denied a playoff berth on a tie-breaker. His 1987 squad went 9-6 and lost at Houston in overtime, 23-20, in the AFC First-Round Playoff Game. In 1988, Seattle held down first place in the AFC West for all 16 weeks and clinched their first division title with a 43-37 win over the Raiders in Los Angeles on the season's final weekend. The Seahawks were eliminated in the AFC Divisional Playoffs by the eventual AFC Champion Cincinnati Bengals, 21-13. In 1989, Seattle suffered their first losing season under Knox finishing 7-9. Knox ranks as the winningest coach in Seahawks' history with a 64-47 record (57.7%). He's earned NFL Coach of the Year honors after the 1983 season by the Seattle Gold Helmet Committee and the Vince Lombardi Committee and AFC Coach of the Year honors by UPI, Football News, and the Kansas City 101 Club. After the 1984 campaign, he received NFL Coach of the Year honors by the Gold Helmet Committee and AFC Coach of the Year honors from UPI and the Pro Football Writer's Association.

HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Knox has guided 11 of his 17 teams into the postseason, including seven divisional championships. He is the only coach in NFL history to win divisional titles with three different franchises (Los Angeles Rams 1973-77, Buffalo Bills 1980, and Seahawks 1988). Knox was the second coach in NFL history to win divisional titles in each of his first five seasons, following Cleveland's Paul Brown, and is one of only nine coaches in league history to inherit a losing team and take it into the playoffs in his first season, something he has done twice, with the Rams in 1973 and the Seahawks in 1983. He ranks ninth all-time in wins among coaches with 10 or more seasons. Only Miami's Don Shula (269-119-6, 64.2%) ranks ahead of Knox in winning percentage among active coaches. In 1983, he was the 15th coach in NFL history to win 100 regular season games and in 1989 became only the tenth coach in NFL history to coach in 250 regular season games. He has been named NFL Coach of the Year four times; in 1973 with the Los Angeles Rams, in 1980 with the Buffalo Bills, along with the Seahawks in 1983 and 1984. With Los Angeles from 1973 through 1977, his teams won five straight division championships and compiled a 54-15-1 record. He moved to Buffalo in 1978 and inherited a team that had won just two games in 1976 and three games in 1977. He equalled that total in his first year with a 5-11 mark and improved that to 7-9 the following season. In 1980, the Bills captured their first division title since 1966 with an 11-5 record. Buffalo finished 10-6 in 1981 and advanced to the playoffs and were 4-5 in 1982.

ASSISTANT COACHING EXPERIENCE: Prior to being named head coach for the Rams in 1973, Knox worked as an NFL assistant coach for 10 seasons. He joined the New York Jets in 1963 as offensive line coach and then moved to Detroit as offensive line coach in 1967. He broke into coaching as an assistant coach at Juniata College, his alma mater, in 1954, and then coached one year at Tyrone High in Tyrone, Pa., before being named head coach at Ellwood City High in Ellwood City, Pa., in 1956. He remained there until joining the Wake Forest University staff for the 1959 and 1960 seasons and then to Kentucky for the 1961 and 1962 seasons.

COLLEGE: Graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in history from Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pa., where he lettered four years as a tackle and served as a team co-captain as a senior. He received the school's National Alumni Achievement Award in 1974, is currently on the college's Board of Directors, and was given an honorary doctorate in 1983.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Sewickley High in Sewickley, Pa.

PERSONAL: He is married to the former Shirley Rhine and they have four children, Chris, who operates a travel agency; Kathy, a former teacher; Colleen, a health management director; and Chuck, a graduate of the University of Arizona; and one grandchild, Lee Ann. Established a $20,000 scholarship at Quaker Valley High School in Sewickley, Pa., in the name of longtime friend Dominic Roppa, who passed away in 1988. Both his high school and college football fields have been renamed in his honor, Knox Field at Quaker Valley High (formerly Sewickley High) and Knox Stadium at Juniata College. Co-authored the Northwest's best-selling book of 1988, "Hard Knox," with Bill Platschke. Annually donates fine money collected from the players to local charities and has donated over $63,000 since arriving in Seattle. Dieted away 63 pounds during the off-season with the aid of Ultra Slim Fast to help raise over $124,000 for the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis. He was born April 27, 1932, in Sewickley, Pa.

The Seahawks retired jersey number 12 prior to the final game of the 1984 regular season in appreciation of the support provided by their fans, the Twelfth Man. The jersey was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Randy Ford of Tukwila who originated the idea to retire a number in honor of the fans.

SEAHAWKS HEADQUARTERS

In June, 1986, the Seattle Seahawks moved into their new office and training headquarters on a 12-acre site adjacent to Northwest College in Kirkland.

The 37,000 square foot, two-story building is the Seahawks year-round home, containing facilities for training camp as well as offseason and regular season practices.

Downstairs contains a 105-man meeting room, six 10-man meeting rooms, a weight room, two racquetball courts, an enlarged locker room, training room with rehabilitative facilities, and equipment room.

Upstairs houses the administrative offices, coaches offices, ticket office, and conference rooms.

Outside, the Seahawks are able to practice on three fields, two of natural grass and one artificial turf field. The turf field is covered by a 55-foot high inflatable bubble top eliminating travel to the Kingdome in inclement weather.

To reach the headquarters, take the N.E. 70th Street exit off I-405 travelling either north or southbound. If arriving southbound, take a left at N.E. 72nd Place and another left at 108th Avenue N.E. Go left at N.E. 53rd Street. The headquarters' visitor's entrance is the second driveway approximately one-quarter mile up N.E. 53rd Street.

KINGDOME

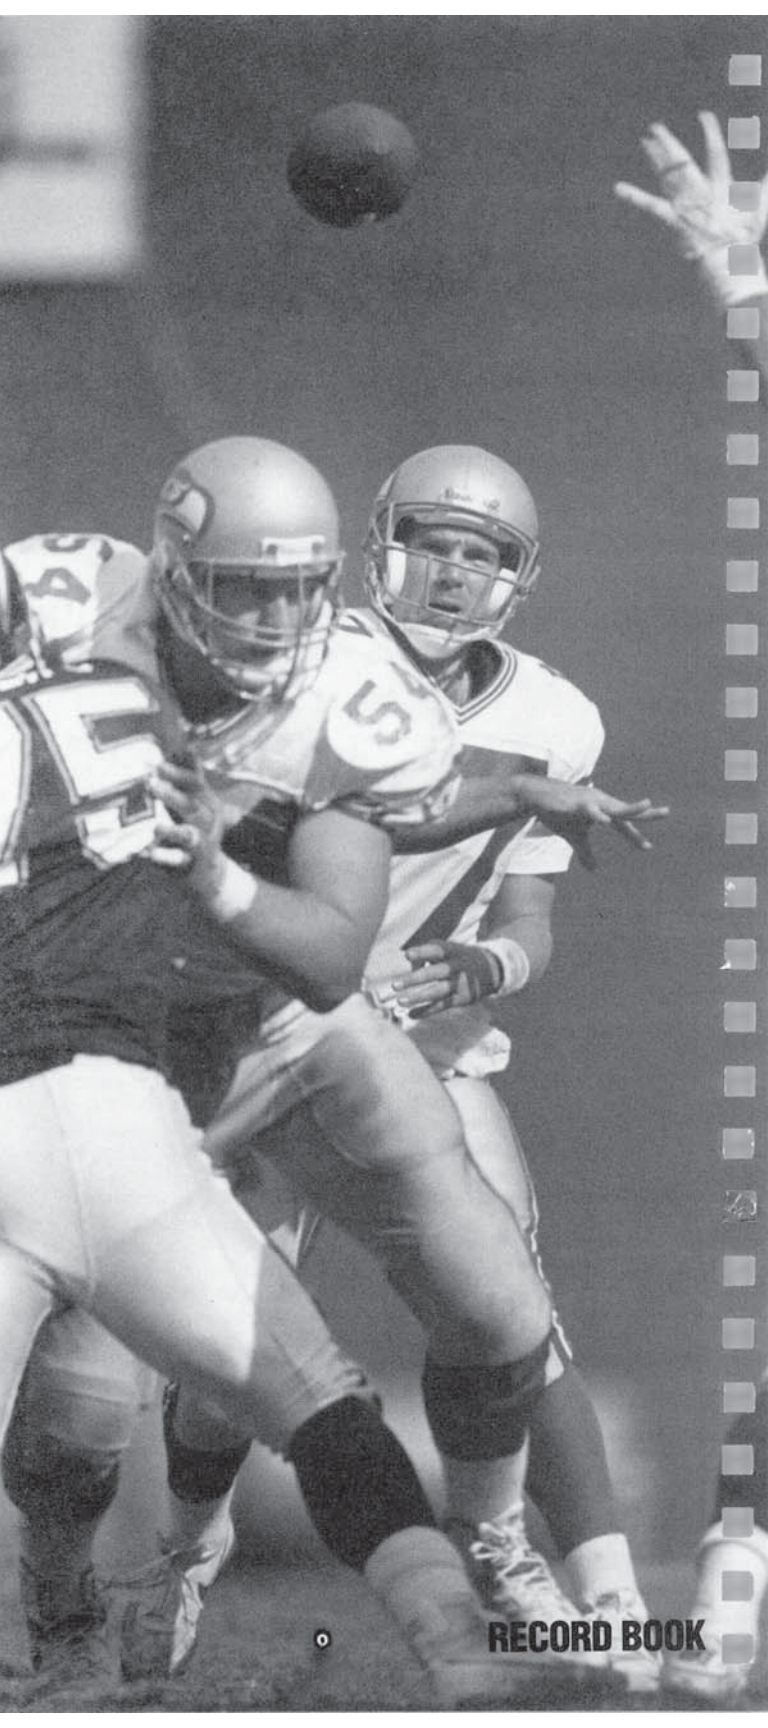

The Kingdome, at a cost of $67 million and with a seating capacity of 64,981 for football, is the least expensive domed, air-conditioned stadium of its size in the world.

Built on a 35.9-acre site just south of Seattle's central business district, the walls of the Dome anchor the world's largest self-supporting concrete roof.

The first professional football game in the Kingdome, August 1, 1976, between the Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers drew 60,825 fans. Since that time, the Seahawks have soldout 115 of their last 118 games, including preseason and postseason games, dating from 1978 to 1989. The Seahawks have finished in the top nine among all NFL clubs in attendance each of their fourteen seasons. The Kingdome is also the home of the American League Seattle Mariners. Among other events held in the Kingdome have been the Auto Show, Big Seattle Boat Show, rock concerts, the 1977 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, 1979 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1984 and 1989 NCAA Final Four basketball tournaments, the 1987 and 1988 NCAA West Regional Finals, the 1987 NBA All-Star Game, and the Billy Graham Crusade. The Billy Graham Crusade on May 14, 1976, which attracted 74,000 people, still ranks as the single event attendance leader in the Kingdome.

Instant Replay Approved for 1990

For the fifth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

There is one significant change in the system from 1989. All replay reviews which involve contact to the field from the Replay Booth will be a maximum of two minutes in duration, timed from the moment when the Umpire signals timeout.

The Replay Official will be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

The following table outlines the number of reversals and plays closely reviewed by instant replay in each of the previous four seasons.

	Games	Reversals	Plays Closely Reviewed
1986	224	38	374
1987	210	57	490
1988	224	53	537
1989	224	65	492

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4. In 1990, the vote was 21-7.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a "no-frills" approach using existing TV coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally-televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted for 1986, 1987, and 1988. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed calls, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed, and 6 no replay shown) were closely examined in the 1985 experiment.

Q—What is the objective of this system?

A—The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Q—Who will be involved?

A—The Replay Official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline Replay Booth, which will house two TV monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The Replay Official makes the decision although a Communicator (normally a member of the League Office staff) and a Technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Q—Why is the system referred to as "limited" Instant Replay?

A—This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (e.g. fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g. receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Q—Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

A—It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that Instant Replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls:

1. Clipping
2. Encroachment and offsides
3. Grasp of facemask
4. False start
5. Defensive pass interference
6. Offensive pass interference
7. Offensive holding and illegal use of hands
8. Illegal batting or punching ball
9. Illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick
10. Illegal crackback
11. Illegal motion
12. Illegal use of forearm or elbow
13. Illegal use of hands by defense
14. Illegally kicking ball
15. Illegally snapping ball
16. Intentional grounding
17. Member of punting team downfield early
18. Illegal formation
19. Palpably unfair act
20. Piling on
21. Roughing the passer
22. Running into/roughing kicker
23. Striking, kicking, or kneeing
24. Unnecessary roughness
25. Unsportsmanlike conduct
26. Use of helmet as a weapon

Q—Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

A—No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show. The Replay Official does not hear the TV commentators.

Q—What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

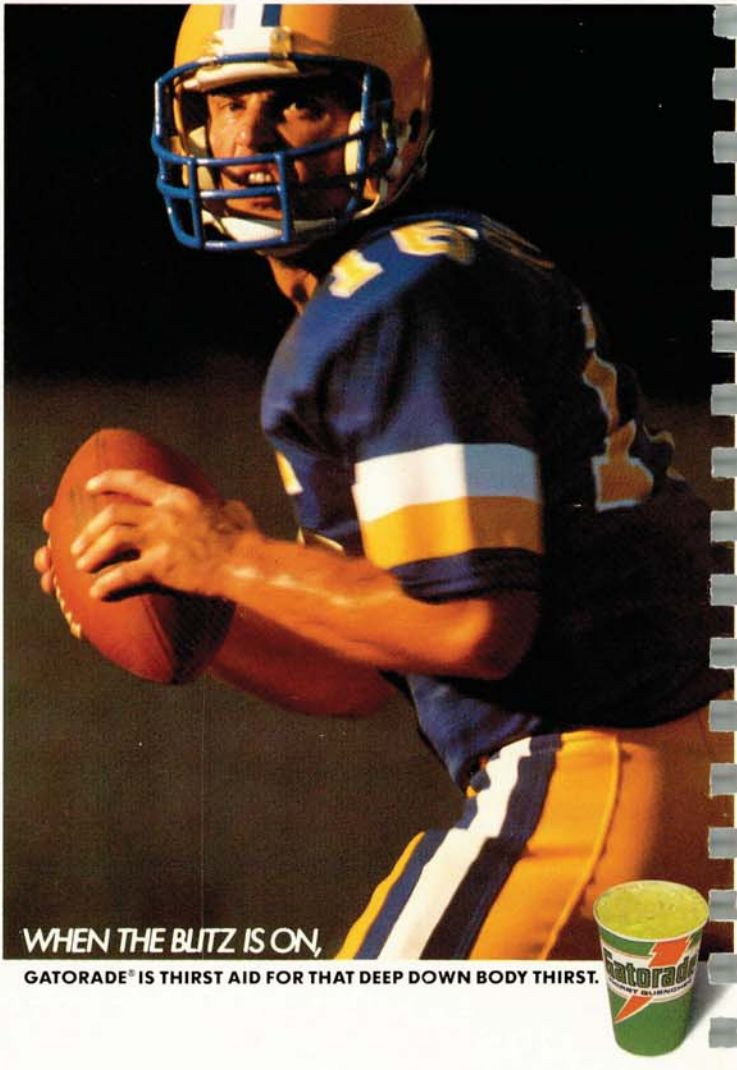

A—The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

Gatorade is proud to be part of the Seattle Seahawks' winning tradition. Best of luck for the '90 season!
