KEN BEHRING
Owner

Ken Behring is best known as the owner of the Seattle Seahawks football team, the developer of the prestigious Blackhawk community in Northern California and the benefactor of a spectacular automotive museum that bears his name.

He has provided housing to thousands of families in Florida and California. In addition to Blackhawk, he developed the entire city of Tamarac, 10 planned communities in South Florida, and Canyon Lakes in California.

Behring also founded The Behring Educational Institute in 1982, a non-profit charitable corporation that promotes the interests of the University of California at Berkeley and provides world class cultural resources to the East San Francisco Bay area.

Behring traded up from his first automobile, a $90 Pontiac, to rare Packards, Hispano Suizas and Isotta Fraschinis, amassing one of the finest collections of classic and rare cars in the world. Recognizing that these automobiles are "an investment in mankind" and an important aspect of American culture, he built the Behring Auto Museum in affiliation with the University of California at Berkeley to preserve and exhibit the cars for generations.

This kind of foresight and determination has characterized Ken Behring's life. In 1950, he started a car dealership in a muddy lot, using an old chicken coop as an office. Two years later, he acquired a Lincoln-Mercury dealership.

In 1956, opportunity called Behring to then sleepy Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He built a house for his family that sold before it was half-finished. His company developed the entire city of Tamarac, a planned recreational retirement community, where houses initially sold for $8,990 to $9,000. Now they are worth close to $150,000.

Behring foresaw Florida's rapid growth, so he launched a modular home company to meet housing demands. The company built 3,000 homes in 1971, when Behring sold the firm to pursue other interests.

On the advice of friends, Behring flew over the Blackhawk Ranch in the Mount Diablo Foothills of Northern California. He now had the resources to match his vision of the finest planned country club community. The result is Blackhawk, a 2,300-home community that offers residents two 18-hole golf courses, a tennis and swim club, and a 25-acre sports complex.

Located in one of the fastest growing regions in the country, Blackhawk also provided the ideal setting for a world-class cultural plaza. In addition to the Behring Museum, Blackhawk Plaza will feature the University of California at Berkeley satellite facility, which encompasses 27,500 square feet of state-of-the-art lecture, classroom, and exhibit space for University collections of Paleontology, Anthropology, Art and Science. A promenade of specialty retailers, restaurants, a 2-acre water park, a 7-screen movie theater and a variety of cultural events offers Plaza visitors unlimited opportunities.

Since purchasing the Seahawks on August 30, 1988, Behring has become active in the Seattle community affairs by serving as Past President of the American Academy of Achievement, as Honorary Chairman of the "Ken Behring Seahawks Dinner Auction" to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association, and by contributing to the PONCHO Auction and the Seattle Art Museum.

TOM FLORES
President/Head Coach

SEAHAWKS: Named the Seahawks fourth head coach on January 6, 1992, replacing Chuck Knox. Flores has served as the Seahawks President and General Manager since February 22, 1989.

NFL EXPERIENCE: Flores enters into his 31st year in the National Football League in 1992. He was a player for 10 seasons with the Oakland Raiders (1960-61, 63-66), Buffalo Bills (1967-68) and Kansas City Chiefs (1969-70). He was an assistant coach with the Buffalo Bills (1971) and Oakland Raiders (1972-78), head coach of the Raiders (1979-87) and the Seahawks President/General Manager (1989-92)

COMPETITION COMMITTEE: Flores was appointed by Commissioner Paul Tagliabue to the NFL's Competition Committee in 1989.

HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Flores served nine seasons, 1979-87, as the head coach of the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders, compiling an 83-53-0 (61.0%) regular season record and winning two Super Bowl championships. His Oakland Raiders defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 27-10, in Super Bowl XV after the 1980 season, and the Los Angeles Raiders defeated the Washington Redskins, 38-9, in Super Bowl XVIII after the 1983 season. Flores' 1980 Raiders are the only Wild Card team to win the Super Bowl and the only team to win four postseason games enroute to the title. His 1983 team is the last American Football Conference team to win the Super Bowl. In nine seasons, Flores captured three AFC Western Division titles (1982, 1983, 1985) and two AFC Championship Games (1980 and 1983). He was named AFC Coach of the Year by United Press International and the Professional Football Writers' Association in 1982 after a season that saw the Raiders post an NFL-best 8-1 record, despite the fact that they played in Los Angeles and practiced in Oakland. The 1983 title game win was over the Seahawks, 30-14. In the postseason, Flores has won 8-of-11 games (72.7%), losing only to the New York Jets in the 1982 first-round playoffs, the Seahawks in the 1984 Wild Card Game, and to the New England Patriots in the 1985 Divisional Playoffs.

ASSISTANT COACHING EXPERIENCE: Flores began his assistant coaching career with the Buffalo Bills in 1971. He moved to the Oakland Raiders as receivers coach in 1972 and was promoted to head coach, replacing John Madden, on February 8, 1979.

THE SUPER BOWL: Flores is one of only two people in NFL history, along with the Chicago Bears' head coach Mike Ditka, to have a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He earned his rings as a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl IV; as an assistant with the Oakland Raiders in XI; and as a head coach with the Raiders in XV and XVIII. He was the only head coach to guide an AFC team to a Super Bowl title in the decade of the 1980's, something he did twice. His two Super Bowl championships rank him behind only Chuck Noll (four), Bill Walsh and Joe Gibbs (three) in NFL history.

PRO PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Was drafted and released by the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League in 1958 and had a free agent tryout with the Washington Redskins of the NFL in 1959, before signing with the Oakland Raiders of the fledgling American Football League as a free agent in 1960. Played six seasons with the Raiders, missing the 1962 campaign, with a non-infectious lung ailment. He led the AFL in completion percentage (54.0) and fewest interceptions in 1960 and finished second to the Houston Oilers George Blanda in passing with 2,176 yards. After missing the 1962 season, he returned and led the Silver and Black to a 10-4 record. Flores passed for six touchdowns against the Houston Oilers on December 22, 1963, a Raiders record that still stands. He finished his six seasons with the Raiders having completed 810-of-1,640 passes (49.4%) for 11,635 yards, with 93 touchdowns and 92 interceptions. He was traded by the Raiders along with end Art Powell and a second-round draft choice to the Buffalo Bills for quarterback Daryle Lamonica, end Glenn Bass, and third and fifth-round draft choices in 1967. He played two seasons with the Bills, and earned the starting job only to be felled by a knee injury in 1967. One of his Buffalo teammates was current Kansas City Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer and another is current Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Jack Kemp. He was waived and signed by Kansas City as a free agent in 1969. He played two seasons with the Chiefs and was part of their Super Bowl IV championship team.

COLLEGE: Attended Fresno City College and the College of the Pacific. Lettered in football, basketball, and baseball at Fresno and football and baseball at Pacific. Earned a degree in Education at Pacific. As a senior, he ranked fourth in the nation in total offense, and was sixth in passing efficiency. Played in the East-West Shrine Game after graduation.

PERSONAL: Born March 21, 1937, in Fresno, California, and attended Sanger High School in Sanger, California. The Sanger football field is named in his honor. Holds an honorary doctorate degree from Pepperdine University for humanitarian service and is a member of the board of regents at the University of the Pacific. Tom and his wife, Barbara, have three children, twin sons Mark and Scott, and a daughter, Kim.

ASSISTANT COACHES

TOM CATLIN
Assistant Head Coach/Defense

SEAHAWKS: Joined the Seahawks on February 8, 1983, as Assistant Head Coach, Defensive Coordinator, and Linebackers Coach. Elected to stay on the staff on January 10, 1992, four days after Tom Flores was named head coach. In his nine seasons with the Seahawks, his defenses lead the NFL in both total takeaways (366) and in fumble recoveries (157). Seattle's 170 interceptions rank tied for eighth. In 1984, just his second season with the Seahawks, Catlin transformed a defense that had not ranked higher than 13th in a full season in franchise history, into the NFL's sixth best unit and one that allowed a team record 282 points. That defense recorded a league high 63 takeaways, the second-highest total in NFL history, including 38 interceptions, the most in the league since 1961. The Seahawks also posted a league high three shutouts, including two back-to-back, and held two other teams without a touchdown. In 1984, Seattle also became the first team to post a shutout after a Monday night game, defeating the Kansas City Chiefs, 45-0, after blanking the San Diego Chargers, 24-0, in San Diego. The Seahawks returned an NFL record four pass interceptions for touchdowns against the Chiefs. His 1986 unit led the AFC in fewest points allowed. He successfully switched schemes from the 3-4 to the 4-3 in 1990 and the unit has ranked in the top nine each season.

NFL COACHING EXPERIENCE: Catlin is the last original American Football League coach still active and his 32 years as an assistant is exceeded only by the tenures of Miami Dolphins offensive line coach John Sandusky (1959) and the Washington Redskins defensive line coach LaVern "Torgy" Torgeson (1959). Catlin began his career on Hank Stram's staff with the Dallas Texans in 1960, the AFL's first season. He moved with the franchise to Kansas City in 1963. In 1966, he joined George Allen's staff with the NFL's Los Angeles Rams as defensive backfield coach. In 1969, Allen promoted him to defensive coach. He stayed with the Rams from 1966 through 1977, as he coached under Allen (1966-70), Tommy Prothro (1971-72) and Chuck Knox (1973-77). After the 1977 season, he moved along with Knox to the Buffalo Bills, where he served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He assumed the additional responsibilities of assistant head coach after the 1980 season. With the Bills, he took over a defense that ranked 23rd overall in 1977 and had it rated first overall by 1980. His units finished seventh in 1981 and second in 1982. The Bills also finished first against the pass in 1978 and were second in both 1980 and 1982.

NFL PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Was drafted by the Baltimore Colts on the fourth round on January 22, 1953, but was traded to the Cleveland Browns prior to his rookie season in what still ranks as the biggest trade in NFL history. Catlin, along with four other players, including former Seahawks President/General Manager Mike McCormack, were dealt to the Browns for 10 players, including current Miami Dolphins head coach Don Shula on March 26, 1953. Catlin played four seasons with the Browns, 1953-54, and 1957-58, and one with the Philadelphia Eagles, 1959. He spent the entire 1955 and 1956 seasons and all but the last four games of the 1957 season as a pilot in the United States Air Force. He played in three NFL Championship Games with the Browns, winning once, in 1954, as he served as the defensive signal-caller.

COLLEGE COACHING EXPERIENCE: Got his start coaching the Plebes at West Point under head coach Red Blaik in 1957.

COLLEGE PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Lettered three seasons as a center and a linebacker under Bud Wilkinson. Named a first-team All-America center in 1951 and 1952, and three times, 1950-52, was an All-Big Seven Conference choice. Catlin was only the fourth player in Oklahoma history to be named all-conference at least three times. In 1952, he finished tenth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

PERSONAL: Attended Ponca City High School in Ponca City, Oklahoma. Tom and his wife, Betty, have two children, Kim and Tom, and two grandsons. He was born September 8, 1931, in Ponca City.

LARRY KENNAN
Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

SEAHAWKS: Named Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach on January 8, 1992. Kennan was the first assistant hired by President/Head Coach Tom Flores.

WORLD LEAGUE: Named World League of American Football Coach of the Year for guiding the London Monarchs to the WLAF Championship in 1991. The Monarchs posted a league-best 9-1 regular season record, leading the league in total offense, points scored, fewest points allowed, and finishing second in total defense. Once in the playoffs, they defeated the New York/New Jersey Knights, 42-26, on the road and captured the World Bowl

KINGDOME

The Kingdome, at a cost of $67 million and with a seating capacity of 66,000 for football, is the least expensive domed, air-conditioned stadium of its size in the world.

Built on a 35.9-acre site just south of Seattle's central business district, the walls of the Dome anchor the world's largest self-supporting concrete roof.

The first professional football game in the Kingdome, August 1, 1976, between the Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers drew 60,825 fans. Since that time, the Seahawks have soldout 145 of their last 148 games, including preseason and postseason games, dating from 1978 to 1991. The Kingdome is also the home of the American League Seattle Mariners. Among other events held in the Kingdome have been the Auto Show, Big Seattle Boat Show, rock concerts, the 1977 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, 1979 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1984 and 1989 NCAA Final Four Basketball Championships, the 1987, 1988 and 1991 NCAA West Regional Finals, the 1987 NBA All-Star Game, and the Billy Graham Crusade.

COACH HAWK

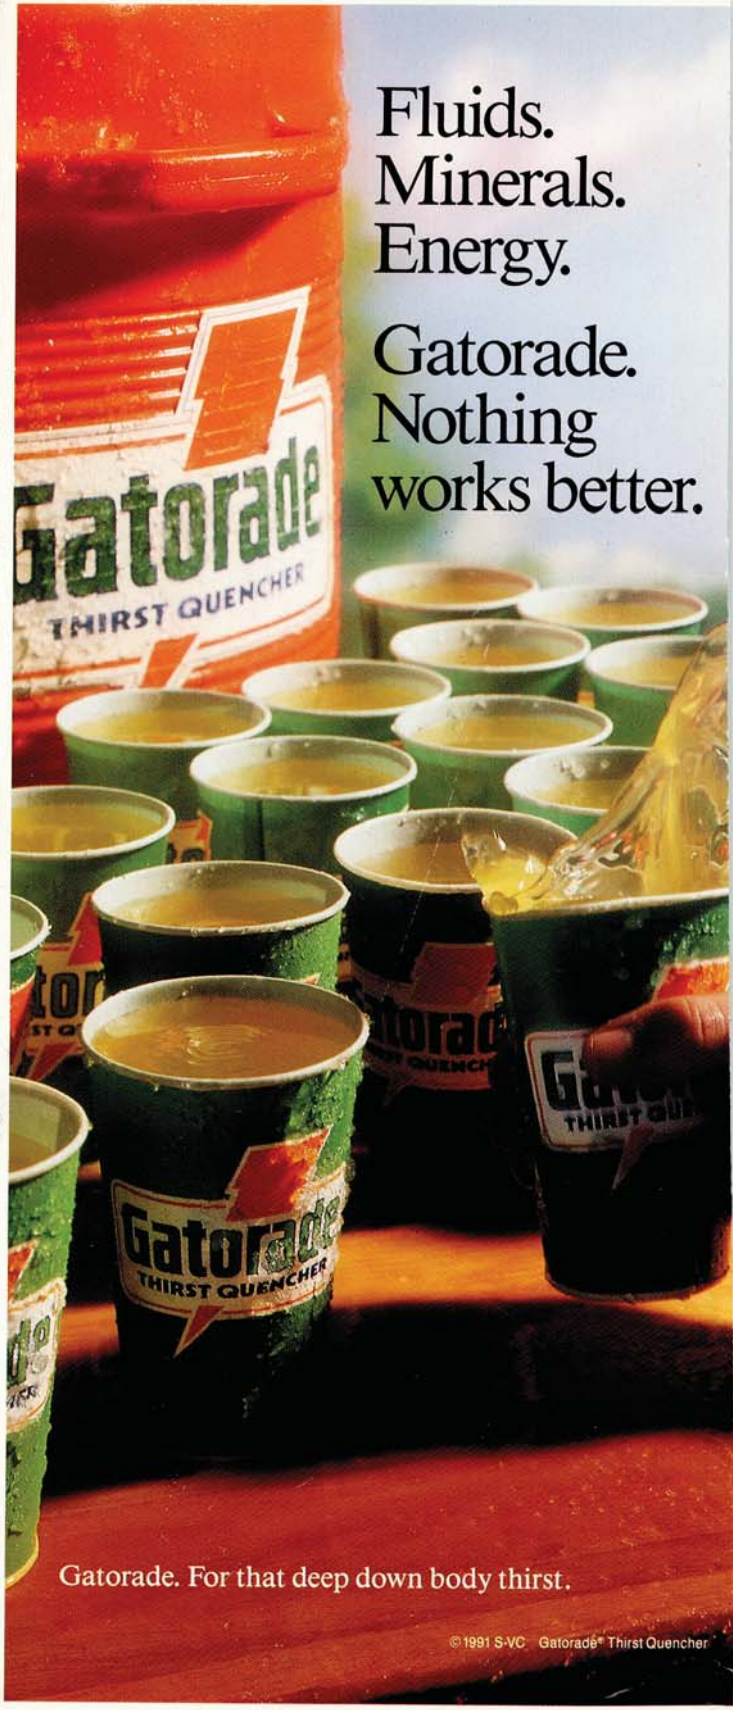

Since his inception in 1990, Coach Hawk, the mascot for the Seahawks anti-drug campaign, has visited over 80 schools and community activities around the state of Washington, enrolling over 20,000 children in the Hawk Club.

Coach Hawk stands for being a good boy or girl, doing the right thing, making the right choices and keeping a healthy mind and body. It's the Seahawks effort to educate young people about the ills of drug use.

The program is two-fold, featuring an activity/coloring book that is sent to all first-graders. Each book contains a card to be filled out by the children, enrolling them in the Hawk Club. Each member receives a membership card signed by Coach Hawk, posters, pens, and decals.

The program was conceived by Seahawks minority owner Ken Hofmann, and developed by Barbara Flores and Reggie McKenzie, with the cooperation of Judith Billings, Washington State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

For more information on the Hawk Club, contact Sarita Marion at the Seahawks Headquarters, (206) 827-9777.
