VIRGINIA MASON ATHLETIC CENTER

The Seahawks announced on May 9, 2006, plans for a state-of-the-art training facility to be located along Lake Washington. The 200,000 square foot waterfront facility, second-largest in the NFL, will be located within the northern city limits of Renton and the team will move in August 2008. The property is bounded by Interstate 405 to the east, Lake Washington to the west, residential property to the north and 44th Street to the south.

On March 20, 2007, the Seattle Seahawks announced an expanded partnership with Virginia Mason Medical Center, naming the club's new state-of-the-art football training facility the Virginia Mason Athletic Center (VMAC).

"Virginia Mason is recognized as one of the top hospitals in the country," said Seahawks CEO Tod Leiweke. "The VMAC will allow our organization to consolidate into one facility, attract and retain free agents and bring training camp back home. The Seahawks, like Virginia Mason, strive to be at the top of our profession and this partnership helps accomplish that goal."

The privately funded practice facility is situated on 19 acres of industrial property. It houses a permanent indoor practice facility, the team's current Kirkland front office departments and will also accommodate Corporate Sponsorships and Fan Development that are currently located at Qwest Field.

In addition, there will be four outdoor practice fields, 50,000 square feet of training facility space (16,000 in Kirkland), 15,000 square feet of player meeting space (5,700) and 48,000 square feet of administrative office space (14,500).

The facility will also include access for fans to attend training camp beginning in 2009.

Purchased by Vulcan Real Estate in 2000, the land was formerly home to a coal tar refinery & creosote plant, since remediated by Vulcan in concert with the City of Renton and the Washington State Department of Ecology. The project will improve the environmental climate of Renton and its wetlands by improving and redeveloping the site.

Since the team's inaugural season in 1976, the Seahawks were housed at Carillon Point for 10.5 years from 1976-1986.

SPRIT OF 12 PARTNERS™

Founded in 2004, the Spirit of 12 Partners embodies the team's commitment to the Pacific Northwest community and its fans. At every home game, Pacific Northwest youth service organizations partner with the Paul G. Allen Family Foundation and Seahawks fans to raise funds for kids' programs. As Spirit of 12 Partners, members of community-based nonprofits distribute the Seahawks Gameday Magazine, keeping 100 percent of the proceeds which are then matched by the Paul G. Allen Family Foundation. In 2007, more than $288,000 was raised in the Qwest Spirit of 12 Partner Program and more than $1.1 million in total funds since 2004. The Paul G. Allen Family Foundation enriches lives and strengthens communities by providing $30 million in annual grants to Pacific Northwest nonprofits in the areas of arts and culture, youth engagement, health and human services, and science and technology.

The Seattle Seahawks hard-driving dedication to succeed on the football field is indicative of the attitude taken towards work in the community. The goal of the organization is to have an impact on those who are less fortunate, focusing on developmental programs for youth, especially academic and athletic programs. Following are some of the programs developed by the Seahawks, all of which have the intent of creating a positive impact in the community and on the 12th man.

CAPTAINS' BLITZ

The holiday season is a difficult time for many families who have children or loved ones in the hospital. Since 1978, the Captains' Blitz program has helped to put smiles on the faces of those who are hospitalized by visiting them and spreading holiday cheer. This past year, Seahawks players and Sea Gals visited bone marrow transplant patients and passed out Seahawks hats and year-books at UW Medical Center and gave teddy bears to patients at Children's Hospital.

COMMUNITIES IN SCHOOLS FIRST & GOAL LUNCHEON

Setting goals in school is easy, but actually achieving those goals is a challenge in itself. Since 1995, the Seahawks have teamed up with Communities in Schools to host a luncheon for over 1,000 students from the Puget Sound Region who have set and achieved personal goals. The students are recognized for accomplishing short-term personal improvement goals in academics, attendance, behavior, and/or community service since the school year began. The luncheon also gives the students the opportunity to meet and interact with numerous Seahawks players and Sea Gals.

Last season fans participated in the "Stuff the Bus" program before the Seahawks preseason game on August 30. Two school buses were parked in front of the Qwest Field Event Center for fans to drop off school supplies. Fans filled the bus with supplies and also donated more than $2,000. The promotion benefited over 3,000 students in the Seattle and Tacoma area.

BOEING CLASSIC

Experience the Excitement • Make a Difference

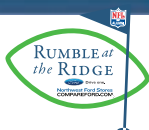

COMMUNITY

Working with the PGA and civic leaders, the Seahawks were instrumental in bringing the Boeing Classic to the Pacific Northwest in 2007. This PGA Champions Tour event has attracted over 100,000 spectators to TPC Snoqualmie Ridge and has generated over $2.3 million to benefit The Heart Institute at Virginia Mason Medical Center. The Heart Institute, widely recognized for excellence in cardiac care, serves patients throughout the Northwest and Alaska.

The inaugural Rumble at the Ridge event featured NFL Hall of Famers Steve Largent, Lynn Swann, Mike Haynes and Gene Upshaw among others. Seahawks' Ring of Honor members were also present. This year's event takes place August 18-24. A full week of golf is scheduled leading up to the Champions Tour event which begins on August 22. Rumble at the Ridge, which kicks off a week of activities, has featured other NFL Hall of Famers including Hugh McElhenny, Mike McCormack and Ring of Honor members Jacob Green, Kenny Easley, Dave Krieg and Kurt Warner.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

In a league-wide day of community service called Hometown Huddle, all 32 NFL teams participate in a project that benefits a local United Way agency. Last year was the eighth year the Seahawks participated in the program.

The Seattle Seahawks donated a $25,000 HOPSports Fitness System to Dimmitt Middle School/Skyline Boys & Girls Clubs in Renton. The Seahawks hosted a fit clinic at the school that utilized the new fitness system. Bobby Engram, Nate Burleson, Mike Green and C.J. Wallace participated in this event.

CHILDHAVEN

Childhaven, an organization designed to assist abused or neglected children five years old or younger, was named the Seahawks Courage House in 1999. Last year, the team held the sixth annual Seattle Seahawks Tackle Child Abuse Dinner/Auction at The Westin Bellevue to benefit Childhaven. The event raised over $445,000 for Childhaven's Capital Campaign, including 175,000 to Fund-A-Mission. More than 450 guests were in attendance as Mack and Zoe Strong were honorary chairs. Seneca Wallace was honored as the Seahawks Courage Award winner.

PETE GROSS HOUSE

The Pete Gross House, which opened in November of 1999, is a 69-unit apartment complex providing housing for families undergoing treatment at the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. The Pete Gross House is also the location of The Hutch School, a fully accredited K through 12 school for cancer patients and their siblings. The apartments have been at capacity since this housing development opened.

This housing project is named after Pete Gross, the Seahawks play-by-play announcer from 1976-92, who succumbed to cancer in 1992 just three days after being inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor. The Seahawks took a very active role in seeing this project through to completion and annually hold the "Pete Gross House Luncheon." In 2007, over $280,000 was raised for the house. Steve and Sharon Raible were honored for their work.

Seahawks broadcaster Steve Raible and his wife, Sharon, were nominated for their work.

Youth Football

STATE OF FOOTBALL

The Seahawks and Qwest Communications unveiled the "State of Football" at Qwest Field in September 2004 to honor the rich tradition and legacy of high school football in the State of Washington. The helmet wall features replica helmets from every Washington State high school football program.

On hand to help with the official unveiling and to represent their state high schools were Marcus Trufant, Jack Thompson, Michael Jackson and Mike Alcantera, who all spoke to the significance of high school football and the tribute that is made by the Helmet Wall to the hard working high school student athletes. Also speaking were Seahawks CEO Tod Leiweke and Qwest Communications Washington State President Kirk Nelson.

QWEST LEADERSHIP CHALLENGE

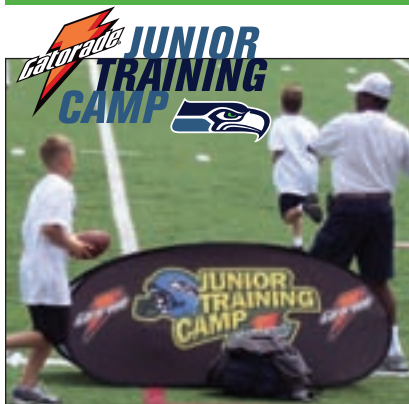

The Seattle Seahawks and Qwest Communications offer the "Qwest Leadership Challenge" as a leadership development program for high school football athletes. The program promotes and inspires involvement in charitable causes and rewards community service. Over 20,000 Washington students from 335 schools are engaged in high school football each fall.

In 2007, more than 165 students volunteered over 6,000 hours of community service during the 5 month program. $20,000 in college scholarships were distributed to four students (5,000 each) for their outstanding leadership and service in their communities. The 2007 winners were Annie Saunders, Whitney Burgett, John Paul Bruckner and Nick Tengtio.

Seahawks CEO Tod Leiweke presents the Qwest Leadership Challenge winners before the Seahawks game on October 21.

GATORADE JR. TRAINING CAMPS

The Seahawks have made a commitment to the athletic improvement and life skills development of the youth of the Pacific Northwest by holding football camps at a number of locations throughout the region. These three-hour camps, free to all boys and girls ages 8-14, feature Seahawks players and area high school coaches who teach basic football skills to all participants. Seahawks Gatorade Junior Training Camps are scheduled during the summer months and are held in Seattle and various cities in Central and Eastern Washington.

SEAHAWKS HIGH SCHOOL MENTORSHIP ACADEMY

For the third consecutive year the Seattle Seahawks hosted the Seattle Seahawks High School Coaches Mentorship Academy. This year's event was held on May 3-4, 2008. The Mentorship Academy is designed to provide high school coaches with an opportunity to learn about leadership and effective ways to develop and lead young men who participate in high school football. All of the coaches involved in the program attended the Seattle Seahawks Mini-Camp practice on May 3rd. Prior to practice Seahawks Head Coach Mike Holmgren shared his thoughts on the value of high school football and the importance of teaching young people the values of sportsmanship, citizenship and hard work.

HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK AND COACH OF THE YEAR

Tom Yearout was presented with the High School Coach of the Year Award at the Seahawks game vs. the New Orleans Saints.

During the 10-week high school football season, the Seattle Seahawks and the Washington State Football Coaches Association select two high school football coaches as the Coach of the Week winners. Each recipient receives several items and privileges, including a $500 donation to the school's football program from the Seattle Seahawks and the NFL Youth Football Fund and a $100 savings bond from Sterling Savings Bank. At the conclusion of the high school season all 20 coaches are invited to attend the Seattle Seahawks High School Coach of the Week Luncheon.

Lewis & Clark High School's Tom Yearout was named the 2007 Seattle Seahawks High School Coach of the Year after his team posted a 12-2 season and won the 4A State Championship. Yearout received a $2,000 grant from the Seattle Seahawks as well as the Jim Ennis Award.

CHARITY TICKET PROGRAM

The Player Charity Ticket Program is designed to allow groups of people the opportunity to attend a Seahawks game who typically would not be able to go. Seahawk players buy tickets and donate them to various charities around the Northwest. Last season six players participated in the program, each donating 20 tickets to every game. The players donated more than 1,080 tickets for the season. Over 35 different charities benefited from the players' donations.

Each player who donated tickets received a banner in the end zones at Qwest Field with his program's name on it. Last year's participants included Matt Hasselbeck, Walter Jones, Marcus Tubbs and Mack Strong.

The Komen Seattle Race for the Cure is a benefit to raise funds for the Puget Sound Affiliate of the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. Every year 15,000 team members and individuals gather to walk, run, enjoy entertainment, and sample treats from race sponsors. Breast cancer survivors are celebrated, and the memory of those whose lives have been lost to the disease are honored. Funds raised support breast cancer screening programs, educational outreach, treatment projects and cutting edge research programs. On June 21, 2008, over $1.6 million was raised on race day. There is an event for everyone: a 1k coed walk, a 5k co-ed walk, a 5k competitive co-ed/ family run, a 5k competitive women's only run, a fun kids' race, and Sleep in for the Cure!

WELLS FARGO READY, SET, GOALS

Ready, Set, Goals is the Seahawks literacy program. Presented by Wells Fargo Bank, this program is designed to enhance reading comprehension, writing and goal-setting skills in third through sixth grade students. Approximately 100 classrooms throughout the state of Washington participate in the program.

Created in partnership with the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction in 1999, Ready, Set, Goals brings Seahawks players and Blitz directly into participating classrooms. Each month during the school year, a player writes a story based around a goal he had set and achieved. The students then write stories about their own personal goals.

Five classrooms are chosen each month to participate in a live videoconference with the Seahawks player of the month. Participating players included Deon Grant, Kelly Jennings and Ben Obomanu.

WHAT MOVES U

American Heart Association

Learn and Live®

We're about healthy kids.

Addressing the continuing decline of physical education programs in many of America's schools and diminishing amount of exercise among today's children, the National Football League and American Heart Association launched the What Moves U national program. The awareness campaign is designed to incorporate physical activity in classroom lessons and encourage physical activity to an increasingly inactive generation of children.

The program includes an in-school activity kit created which includes curriculum-based activity sheets, program-specific learning materials and in-school promotional materials; and, an interactive fitness website for children. NFL teams and American Heart Association affiliates are working together to reach kids in local communities nationwide.

The program encourages teachers to begin their students' days with morning stretches, incorporate two minutes of activity for every 20 minutes of desk time, and assign homework that includes physical activity.

FISH AND FEAST

The Seahawks teamed up with the C.A.S.T. for Kids Foundation to host the 2nd Annual Seahawks Fish and Feast Charity Fundraiser on June 7, 2008, at Southport on Lake Washington. The day kicked off with event sponsors spending a few hours on the water with Seahawks players and coaches followed by a BBQ hosted by Bill's Bodacious BBQ and live and silent auctions. Seahawks defensive tackle Craig Terrill provided vocal entertainment.

Last year more than 15 players and coaches participated in the event.

All proceeds from this event benefit the C.A.S.T. for Kids Foundation, to provide recreational fishing opportunities for disabled and disadvantaged children. The inaugural event raised more than $20,000 while last year's event raised more than $25,000.

New Orleans Rebuilding Project

Ms. Gibbs stands in front of her rebuilt home after it was completed in April.

The Seattle Seahawks, NewsTalk 710 KIRO and Rebuilding Together, a non-profit organization based in New Orleans, set a goal to help one family move back into their home in New Orleans.

Last season Seahawks fans donated more than $85,000 to help Ms. Aniece Gibbs, 88, move back into her home after it was destroyed in Hurricane Katrina. The campaign was launched prior to the Seahawks game vs. the New Orleans Saints on October 14, 2007.

"My heartfelt thanks to all the Seahawks fans and my new Seattle family who provided the resources for me to move back into my home of 50 years," said Ms. Gibbs after the project was completed in April.

The first volunteers worked on the house during the week of November 12 and performed vital tasks to continue the process for professionals. Volunteers from Rebuilding Together affiliates across the country removed old insulation, demolished old plumbing and separated nails from floorboards and the ceiling. A house that was in dire straits at the start of 2007 is now structurally sound one year later.

"I remember taking pictures of this house with no front porch, a gaping hole in its exterior and a gutted, debris filled interior a few months ago," said Information and Research Officer Jon Skvarka. "Now there's this beautiful bright yellow house expressing the resilience and determination of Ms. Gibbs to the rest of the Hollygrove neighborhood."

The campaign included an opportunity for fans to bid on a variety of exclusive Seahawks merchandise and one-of-a-kind collectibles in addition to purchasing Mardi Gras beads prior to the Seahawks vs. Saints game.

"We were elated by the support from our fans and partners," said vice president of community outreach Mike Flood. "We were able to kick things off in Seattle and pass the ball to the 48 hands-on volunteers who worked a total of 1,920 hours over four months to move Ms. Gibbs back into her home."

PAUL G. ALLEN

CHAIRMAN, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS AND FIRST & GOAL INC.

Growing up in the Northwest, Paul G. Allen's passion for football was kindled attending University of Washington football games as a youth. As years passed, a fondness toward the Seahawks developed. When former ownership threatened to move the Seahawks to southern California in 1996, Allen acted on an opportunity to purchase the club and save pro football in Seattle. Along with the purchase came the vision of a new multi-functional stadium and exhibition hall. On June 30, 1997, the purchase was completed and secured that the future of the Seahawks would remain in the Great Northwest.

"From the beginning of this process, my goals have been to work with the community to create a lasting asset for our future; and to ensure the long-term success of the Seahawks," said Allen at the time of purchasing the franchise. "Moving forward, our goals are to build a playoff caliber team and to create a world-class facility for the state of Washington."

Both goals have been realized. In 2002, the vision of Seahawks Stadium and Exhibition Center, renamed Qwest Field &

Qwest Field Event Center in 2004, became reality. An open air facility which many critics argue is the best venue in the National Football League, Qwest Field is home to over 300 events annually ranging from soccer, to Supercross, concerts, graduation ceremonies, and trade shows. The Seahawks have also reached the postseason the last four seasons, including their first ever Super Bowl trip in 2005 after a franchise-best 13-3 record.

"It exceeds the vision we had originally," Allen said shortly after the opening of the stadium. "We had a bunch of goals about trying to create a really intimate stadium that would be great for the fans, to have elegant architecture, and I think we've ended up with a fantastic facility."

An investor and philanthropist, Allen creates and advances world-class projects and high-impact initiatives that change and improve the way people live, learn, work and experience the world through arts, education, entertainment, sports, business and technology. He co-founded Microsoft with Bill Gates in 1976, remained the company's chief technologist until he left Microsoft in 1983, and is the founder and chairman of Vulcan Inc., and chairman of Charter Communications. In addition, Allen's multibillion dollar investment portfolio includes large stakes in DreamWorks Animation SKG, Oxygen Media and more than 40 other technology, media and content companies. Allen also owns the Portland Trail Blazers NBA franchise.

Raised in the Pacific Northwest, Paul Allen has been named one of the top philanthropists in America - with lifetime giving totaling more than $900 million - and is committed to giving back to communities in the region he still calls home. Allen gives back to the community through the Paul G. Allen Family Foundation, which strengthens communities and supports vulnerable populations in the areas of arts and culture, health and human services, opportunities for youth, and scientific advancement. In 2003 Allen announced a commitment of $100 million in seed money dedicated to brain research and unveiled the creation of the Allen Institute for Brain Science in Seattle. The nonprofit Allen Institute was founded as an innovative and unprecedented resource for neuroscientists around the world. In 2006 the Allen Institute completed its inaugural project, the Allen Brain Atlas—Mouse Brain. The mouse brain atlas is a Web-based, three-dimensional map of gene expression in the mouse brain which is freely accessible online and available at no cost. Detailing more than 21,000 genes at the cellular level, the Atlas continues to help lead scientists to new insights about neurological function and disease. In 2008 the Allen Institute announced three new major atlas projects -- the Allen Brain Atlas (ABA)—Human Brain, ABA—Developing Mouse Brain, and ABA—Mouse Spinal Cord. The new atlases are designed to accelerate brain, and spinal cord research, dramatically advancing the field of neuroscience.

Inspired by growing up in the era of the “space race,” with its Mercury, Gemini, and Apollo missions, Allen underscored his passion for rocketry by sponsoring the development of SpaceShipOne, the first privately funded spacecraft to successfully attain sub-orbital space. SpaceShipOne won the Ansari X-Prize in 2004. Additionally, In 1998, Allen began acquiring and preserving rare aircraft of 20th-century military aviation, many of which are the last of their kind. The Collection’s purpose is to preserve and highlight the increasing rarity of original vintage aircraft, to restore these artifacts to the highest standard of authenticity, and to share them with the public.

Allen is also founder of Experience Music Project, Seattle’s critically acclaimed interactive music museum; the Science Fiction Museum and Hall of Fame; Flying Heritage Collection -- a collection of rare World War II aircraft restored to flying condition; and, Vulcan Productions, the independent film production company behind Hard Candy, Far From Heaven, “RX for Survival: A Global Health Challenge” series on PBS, “The Blues,” executive produced by Martin Scorsese in conjunction with Allen and Jody Patton and the 2001 “Evolution” series on PBS. Learn more about Allen online at www.paulallen.com.

JODY PATTON

He begins his fifth season in the college scouting department and has served three years (2002-2004) as an assistant in the Seahawks pro personnel department. College scouting is an area Stokes is familiar, having broke into the front office ranks as a midlands scout in 2000. While serving in the pro personnel department, Stokes was responsible for the weekly advance of upcoming opponents as well as assisting in the evaluation and writing of player reports on potential talent in free agency, NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League. Stokes played three seasons as a safety in the NFL, but his career was shortened due to injury. Stokes graduated from the University of Nebraska with a degree in sociology. He was selected in the fifth round (121st overall) by Seattle in the 1997 NFL Draft and spent two seasons with the Seahawks before being selected by the Cleveland Browns in the 1999 expansion draft. Eric and his wife, Tisa, have three daughters Erisa (1/7/01), Payton (1/20/04), and Madison (1/15/06).

KIRK PARRISH

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Kirk Parrish begins his 10th year with the Seahawks organization. He is responsible for maintaining the day-to-day operations of the College Scouting Department, including organizing all college prospect information (scouting database/draft boards), managing university relations, and serving as the liaison between the front office and on-the-road scouting staff. He also assists with the evaluation of draft-eligible players in the Pacific Northwest. Prior to joining the Seahawks, Parrish was the administrative assistant/football operations at Texas A&M University from 1997-99. Parrish coached tight ends and quarterbacks at the University of San Diego from 1995-96. Prior to USD, he was a graduate assistant at Washington State University from 1992-94, where he earned a Ph.D. in educational administration in 2003, and a Master's Degree in athletic administration in 1993. Parrish earned his BA in education from Central Washington University where he was a quarterback for the Wildcat football program. His father, Jerry Parrish, is a member of the Seahawks' High School Coaches Council and Washington State Football Coaches Hall of Fame. His wife, Carol, is the Director of Marketing for the University of Washington Athletic Department. They have a daughter, Jill, and reside in Bothell, Wash.

SAM RAMSDEN

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Ramsden begins his fifth season as the franchise's head athletic trainer having originally joined the Seattle Seahawks as an associate athletic trainer in February of 1999.

Although his primary area of expertise for much of his 16 seasons in the NFL has been centered on physical rehabilitation and conditioning of professional football players, Ramsden is now charged with coordinating the healthcare provided for Seahawks players and staff. Before Seattle, he served six seasons with the Green Bay Packers as an assistant athletic trainer and was a member of the Super Bowl XXXI championship team. Ramsden was recently elected to the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society's executive board and is recognized for his contributions to the PFATS Sponsorship Committee. As a student athletic trainer at the University of Wisconsin at La Crosse, Ramsden worked with several intercollegiate sports teams before joining the Packers' staff. He received a Bachelor's Degree in physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from the La Crosse school in 1992. A La Crescent, Minnesota native, he, his wife, Lisa and son, Henry, live near Snoqualmie, Washington, in the foothills of the Cascade Mountains.

The Scouts defeated the Coaches in the Fourth Annual Draft Bowl Home Run Derby.

MIKE HOLMGREN

Executive Vice President & Head Coach

Seahawks Experience: 10th Year
Total NFL Experience: 23rd Year
NFL Head Coaching: 17th Year

Mike Holmgren enters his tenth season as head coach of the Seattle Seahawks after guiding the club to its fourth straight NFC West title in 2007 and the club's fifth consecutive postseason appearance. His clubs have posted winning records seven of his nine seasons, including five division titles after winning the AFC West in 1999, his first season with the team and a club-record 13 wins in 2005. He announced on January 22, 2008, that this season will be his last in Seattle.

The league's winningest active head coach, Holmgren is tied (Philadelphia's Andy Reid) as the third longest-tenured head coach with the same club behind Tennessee's Jeff Fisher and Denver's Mike Shanahan (14 years). His 170-110 (.607) career head coaching record trails Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs' 171-101 record for tenth place in NFL history.

As the league's longest-tenured coach in club history, he passed Chuck Knox last season for most career Seattle victories. He is currently 86-68 (.558) while Knox compiled an 83-67 record in his nine years at the helm.

Holmgren originally joined the Seahawks as Executive Vice President/General Manager & Head Coach on January 9, 1999. Following the 2002 season, Holmgren decided to focus exclusively on coaching and relinquished his duties as general manager.

Since 2003, the Seahawks 51-29 record (.638) is the best in the NFC and are the only team in the NFC with a winning record each of the last five seasons. Seattle has posted five consecutive winning seasons for the first time in club history.

The Seahawks have made significant strides in becoming one of the elite teams in the NFL under Holmgren the last five seasons. The Seahawks reached 10 wins for just the fifth time in franchise history in 2007, marking the second time in three years that has been accomplished (2005).

Last season, Seattle made its third consecutive trip to the NFC Divisional Playoff round, only to fall to the Green Bay Packers, 42-20, at Lambeau Field in heavy snow. After a 4-4 start and his running game slowed, Holmgren leaned on the pass and his offense answered. Seattle posted a 6-2 record over the second-half of the season heading to the playoffs. Matt Hasselbeck carried the load and set Seattle single-season records for attempts (562), completions (352) and yards (3,966). He also threw for a career-high 28 touchdowns. Hasselbeck looked often to Bobby Engram, who himself had a career-year, with a team-record 94 catches for a career-high 1,147 yards, becoming only the sixth Seattle receiver to record a 1,000-yard season.

In 2006, Holmgren guided the Seahawks to the NFC Divisional Playoff Game after winning the NFC West and posting a 9-7 record. After beginning the season 4-1, Seattle persisted through injuries to nine offensive starters (totaling 48 combined games), including 2005 MVP Shaun Alexander who missed six games with a broken foot. Matt Hasselbeck missed four games in the middle of the season with an injured knee and finished the season with a small fracture in his left hand.

It was the first time Seattle has won a game in back-to-back postseasons since the 1983 and 1984 seasons and ended a five-season NFL streak in which the Super Bowl runner-up did not make the following postseason.

In 2005, he joined an elite group of coaches, becoming just the fifth coach in NFL history to take two different teams to the Super Bowl (1996 & 1997 Green Bay, 2005 Seattle).

2007 HERRIGAN AWARD WINNER

Voted on by the Professional Football Writers of America, this award is given to the person (not a player or team media relations member) who helped the media best do its job last season.

In that group are Bill Parcells, Dan Reeves, Don Shula and Dick Vermeil.

Holmgren guided Seattle's second-ranked NFL offense to its best year in club history. Beginning the season 2-2, the Seahawks posted a club-record 11 straight wins en route to a 13-3 record. Undeclared at home for the second time under Holmgren (2003), Seattle earned the top seed in the NFC and a first-round bye to begin the postseason. The Seahawks defeated the Redskins, 20-10, and Carolina, 34-14, to advance to Super Bowl XL in Detroit. Seattle dropped the game to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-10.

In 2004, the Seahawks opened 3-0, including back-to-back road wins at New Orleans and at Tampa Bay before defeating San Francisco 34-0 ending the 49ers NFL-record streak without being shutout at 420 games. The Seahawks ended the season winning three of their last four, including wins over two playoff teams to secure its NFC West title.

Holmgren's offense ranked sixth in the NFL in 2003 and produced four Pro Bowlers (Shaun Alexander, Hasselbeck, Steve Hutchinson, Walter Jones) along with Alex Bannister who earned a trip for his special teams play. The club finished seventh in scoring, third in total first downs while leading the league in third-down percentage.

After a slow start in 2002, Holmgren kept his club focused and finished the season winning five of the last eight games, including three consecutive to finish a season for the first time since 1986. His offensive unit finished the year ranked seventh in total offense and third in passing while compiling more yards than any other club over the last six weeks of the season. Trent Dilfer and Hasselbeck combined for a franchise-record five 300-yard passing games, and Koren Robinson became only the second receiver (Steve Largent) in Seahawks history to surpass the 1,200-yard receiving mark.

In 2001, Holmgren guided his young roster back to winning form and bounced back to post a 9-7 record. That was good for second place in the AFC West and equalled the team's best mark since 1999 and 1990. The team won three of its last four contests and just missed the playoffs, being eliminated in the final week of the regular season.

The 2000 campaign saw Holmgren continue to mold the Seahawks into his vision, revamping the roster and adding players that would be the backbone of the team for seasons to come. He suffered his first losing season as a head coach, posting a 6-10 record with his young roster (AFC-high 17 rookie or first-year players) while shaping the team financially for years to come.

It is that financial foundation that allowed the club to add Deion Branch in 2006, retain key unrestricted free agents Jones and Hasselbeck in 2005, while adding key free agents Nate Burleson, Julian Peterson, Deon Grant and Julius Jones over the last couple of seasons. In his four seasons as general manager, Holmgren drafted 2005 MVP Alexander and was instrumental in trading for Hasselbeck in 2001.

In his first season with the Seahawks, Holmgren helped guide the club into their first postseason since 1988, breaking a 10-year playoff drought. The 9-7 regular-season record by the 1999 Seahawks was the best mark since posting a similar record in 1990.

By leading Seattle into the postseason, he became just the second coach in team history to take the Seahawks to the playoffs, and just the third coach in NFL history to guide a team to at least seven straight postseasons, joining Tom Landry (nine years, and eight years) and Chuck Noll (eight years).

Holmgren took control of the Seahawks following one of the most successful coaching stints in league history as head coach of the Green Bay Packers from 1992-98 that included a 75-37 (.670) regular-season record, a 9-5 (.643) postseason mark, and two Super Bowl appearances, including a 35-21 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl

XXXI played in New Orleans. By winning at least one game in five consecutive post-seasons (1993-97), Holmgren joined John Madden (1973-77) as the only coaches in league history to accomplish the feat.

From 1995-98, Holmgren's Packers posted an NFL-best 48-16 (.762) record, finished first in the NFC Central Division three times, second once and posted a 7-3 mark in the playoffs.

By taking the Packers to six consecutive

In 22 NFL seasons (1999-07 head coach Seattle, 1992-98 head coach Green Bay, 1986-91 assistant coach San Francisco), Holmgren's teams posted a 228-122-1 (.651) regular season record, hit double digits in the win column 13 times, made the postseason 17 times, won three Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIV, XXXI), and reached two other Super Bowls (XXXII & XL).

Holmgren's 1996 team that won the Super Bowl, led the NFL in scoring with a team-record 456 points and also led the league in defensive scoring, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1972.

Before becoming the Packers' head coach, Holmgren served as an assistant coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 1986-91. He coached the 49ers' quarterbacks from 1986-88 under head coach Bill Walsh, and was the team's offensive coordinator from 1989-91 under George Seifert. During his tenure in San Francisco, the 49ers posted a 71-23-1 (.753) regular-season record to reach the post-season each year, and won Super Bowl XXIII over Cincinnati and Super Bowl XXIV over Denver. As offensive coordinator in 1989, the 49ers boasted the NFL's top-ranked offense.

Prior to joining the 49ers staff, Holmgren coached quarterbacks at Brigham Young University from 1982-85, including a national championship in 1984. He also served as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at San Francisco State in 1981.

As a quarterback at San Francisco's Lincoln High School, Holmgren was named 1965's "Prep Athlete of the Year," before continuing his playing career at the University of Southern California from 1966-69. He was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the eighth round of the 1970 draft and went to camp with both the Cardinals and the New York Jets that year.

Holmgren, born June 15, 1948, began his coaching career in 1971 at his alma mater Lincoln High, where he also taught history. One year later, he moved to San Francisco's Sacred Heart High as a teacher and assistant coach. He also coached at Oak Grove High from 1975-80.

He received a Bachelor of Science Degree from USC in 1970.

Holmgren returned to the NFL's influential Competition Committee February 6, 2002, after a three-year layoff, but stepped down in February 2006. He served as co-chair of the Committee along with former Buccaneers General Manager and current Falcons President and GM Rich McKay, having taken over for Don Shula, from 1996-98.

Mike and his wife, Kathy, have four daughters—twins Calla and Jenny, Emily, Gretchen, four granddaughters, Emma, Emerson, Mary, Isabell and one grandson, Luke.

GIL HASKELL
Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator

Seahawks Experience: 9th Year
NFL Experience: 26th Year

Named to his current position on January 20, 2000, Haskell joined his long-time friend and peer Mike Holmgren. As the team's offensive coordinator, Haskell works closely with Holmgren in implementing an innovative and precise offensive scheme. His sole responsibility is guiding the offense.

Last year, the Seahawks offense took to the air over the last half of the season and as a result saw Matt Hasselbeck and Bobby Engram turn in the finest seasons in Seahawks history. Hasselbeck set Seattle single-season records for attempts (562), completions (352) and yards (3,966). He also threw for a career-high 28 touchdowns. He looked often to Engram, with a team-record 94 catches for a career-high 1,147 yards, becoming only the sixth Seattle receiver to record a 1,000-yard season. Also, Haskell's seven-year run of sending at least one player to the Pro Bowl continued, as Walter Jones and Hasselbeck were voted to the NFC roster.

The 2006 edition of Haskell's offense was hit by injuries to key players, as a total of nine offensive starters missed 48 combined games. He lost reigning league MVP Shaun Alexander for six games and Hasselbeck for four games while Maurice Morris and Seneca Wallace filled in, respectively. Morris set career-highs in rush yards (604) and posted two 100-yard games while Wallace saw his most extensive playing time of his career and tossed eight touchdowns while posting a 2-2 record. In addition, Haskell's six-year run of sending at least one player to the Pro Bowl continued, as Walter Jones and Mack Strong were voted to the NFC roster.

It was a banner year in 2005 for the Seahawks offense as it finished the season ranked second in total offense and earned a trip to Super Bowl XL. Haskell's unit led the NFL in points per game (28.3), red zone offense (71.7%), fourth-down efficiency (7/8), a club-record 57 touchdowns and 24 80+ yard drives. His playbook allowed Alexander to lead the league in rushing with a club-record 1,880 yards and an NFL-record 28 total touchdowns (NFL-record 27 rush, 1 rec.), since eclipsed by San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson. The offense also boasted six Pro Bowlers (Alexander, Hasselbeck, Steve Hutchinson, Jones, Strong, Robbie Tobeck).

Haskell helped the Seahawks ground attack rank 2nd in the NFC in 2004, and also helped Alexander rank 2nd in the NFL with a franchise-record 1,696 rushing yards. His 20 total touchdowns topped the NFL and club charts.

Haskell's 2003 offense was highlighted by sending four offensive players to the Pro Bowl (Alexander, Hasselbeck, Hutchinson, and Jones). Seattle's offense ranked 6th in the NFL (4th NFC) and led the League in first downs/game (21.1) and third-down conversions (46.8%). He helped Hasselbeck set a franchise record for passing yards (3,841) and tie the record for most completions in a season (313). He also helped Hasselbeck become the highest-rated passer in club history.

In 2002, Haskell guided a Seattle aerial attack that ranked third in the NFL averaging 254.9 yards a game. Seattle also set a franchise record gaining 5,818 total offensive yards that included a franchise-record three 500-yard games of total offense. Haskell coordinated an offense that allowed Hasselbeck to finish the season ranked first in the NFC with a 63.7 completion percentage and second in the NFC with a 87.8 passer rating. Not only did the offense excel through the air, Haskell kept Alexander on track setting a franchise record with 16 rushing and 18 total touchdowns.

Haskell's 2001 offensive plan was tailored to the running style of second-year back Alexander. His schemes helped Alexander enjoy a breakout year and rush for the NFL's fourth-best performance in history (currently fifth) with 266 yards vs. Oakland. Add Ricky Watters in the mix and Seattle ranked fifth in the AFC (9th NFL) with 121.0 yards per game. Overall, Seattle's offense increased to 298.3 yards per game.

In his first year as offensive coordinator for Seattle, Haskell oversaw the AFC's top-ranked (2nd NFL) red zone offense, scoring 60.9% of the time. His offense gained 292.5 yards per game, threw for 185.0 yards and rushed for 107.5 yards, ranking 11th in each category in the AFC.

Haskell joined the Seahawks after serving in the same capacity for the Carolina Panthers (1998-99) where his offense finished sixth in the NFL in 1999, with 355.4 yards per game in total offense, including the second-ranked passing attack in the NFL with 260.1 passing yards per game. He orchestrated an offense in 1999 that set team records in total yards (5,686), points (421) and passing yards (4,161), and also sent three players (QB Steve Beuerlein, WR Muhsin Muhammad and TE Wesley Walls) to the Pro Bowl.

The 25-year NFL coaching veteran rejoined Holmgren after serving six seasons (1992-97), three as wide receivers coach (1995-97) and three as running backs coach (1992-94), for the Green Bay Packers.

While receivers coach under Holmgren, Haskell coached the Packers' record-setting Pro Bowl receiving duo of Antonio Freeman and Robert Brooks.

Before his tenure with the Packers, Haskell entered the NFL in 1983 and served nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (1983-91), the first four as special teams coach, four seasons as running backs coach, and one as tight ends/special teams coach. Haskell coached three 1,000-yard rushers (Eric Dickerson, Greg Bell and Charles White) and sent two to the Pro Bowl (Dickerson, White) during his four years coaching the position.

Directing special teams, Haskell's unit was ranked number one. Led by 1984 Pro Bowl punt returner Henry Ellard, Haskell's units ranked first in the NFL in 1984 and 1985. After the 1985 season, Ellard's 13.51 punt return average was an NFL record for highest-career average. Haskell also sent kick returner Ron Brown and punter Dale Hatcher to the 1985 Pro Bowl.

Prior to a distinguished NFL career, his late uncle, Dr. William O'Grady, was part owner of the San Francisco 49ers, and before leaving for the University of Southern California in 1978, Haskell worked for the 49ers for 22 years.

Haskell spent five seasons as wide receivers and special teams coach for USC (1978-82) and nine years at San Francisco's St. Ignatius High School (1969-77), serving as head coach the final five seasons.

He was reunited with his former St. Ignatius assistant coach, Bill Laveroni, in 2002 who was hired at the time to be the Seahawks' assistant offensive line coach.

Haskell, born September 24, 1943, and his wife, Nancy, have four grown daughters, Paula, Patty, Jenny, Julie and three granddaughters, Avery, Ryan and Isabella.

Defensive Coordinator

Seahawks Experience: 6th Year
NFL Experience: 29th Year

John Marshall joined the Seahawks' defensive coaching staff on February 12, 2003, as linebackers coach, while taking over coordinating duties before the 2006 season.

Marshall welcomes the task of his fourth defensive coordinator position in the NFL since 1980. He previously held coordinating jobs in Atlanta (1983-85), San Francisco (1997-98) and Carolina (1999-01).

The defense, which ranks second in the NFL in sacks since the 2005 season, was led in 2007 by Patrick Kerney's career-high 14.5 sacks. The addition and leadership of safeties Deon Grant and Brian Russell allowed former first-round pick Marcus Trufant to pick off a career-high seven interceptions and earn his first Pro Bowl berth. Marshall's defense also led the NFL in touchdown passes allowed (15) and led the NFC (4th NFL) with 20 interceptions. Along with Trufant, his unit boasted three more Pro Bowlers (Kerney, Julian Peterson, Lofa Tatupu) and two AP first-team All-Pros (Kerney, Tatupu).

His 2006 defense was led by Pro Bowl linebackers Peterson and Tatupu. Marshall's scheme helped Peterson to a career-high 10.0 sacks while Tatupu led the team for the second straight season in tackles, this with a career-high 123 (93 solo).

Marshall served as interim defensive coordinator in 2005 after Ray Rhodes suffered stroke-like symptoms before the season opener. Marshall's defense led the NFL with 50 sacks, allowed only one 100-yard rusher, finished second in the NFL in red zone defense (40.4%), rushing touchdowns allowed (5) and saw rookie linebacker Tatupu earn a trip to the Pro Bowl.

Marshall joined the Seahawks after one season as an assistant defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions in 2002.

Before Detroit, Marshall spent three seasons (1999-01) as the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. His defense ranked fourth in the NFL with 105 takeaways over his three-year tenure.

Prior to Carolina, Marshall was part of two Super Bowl squads in San Francisco from 1989-98 working with the defensive line from 1989-93, linebackers from 1994-96 and two years as defensive coordinator from 1997-98.

As defensive coordinator in 1997, he spearheaded the NFL's top-rated defense, second versus the rush and pass, while helping send five players to the Pro Bowl. Marshall coached nearly a decade in the NFL before going to San Francisco, starting as Green Bay Packers' special teams coach in 1980 and taking over as linebackers coach in 1981. He served as defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons from 1983-85 and coached the defensive line of the Indianapolis Colts from 1986-88.

Marshall's coaching career started as an assistant at Hancock (Calif.) Junior College in 1967 before holding several positions for the University of Oregon from 1968-76, serving under freshman head coach George Seifert as freshman assistant for one season (1968), freshman head coach (1969-71) and offensive line coach (1972-76).

He then moved to the University of Southern California where he coached linebackers from 1977-79 and helped lead the Trojans to two Rose Bowl victories and the 1978 National Championship.

In 1964, Marshall began his college playing career at Washington State before having his playing career cut short due to a neck injury. He went on to major in health education at the University of Oregon in 1969.

Marshall, born October 2, 1945, and his wife, Becky, have two daughters, Sarah and Meg.

DWAINE BOARD

Defensive Line

Seahawks Experience: 6th Year
NFL Experience: 19th Year

Seattle made significant moves prior to the 2003 season to shore up a defense that had ranked last against the run in 2002. One of the most important moves was hiring former San Francisco 49ers defensive line coach Dwaine Board on January 29, 2003.

Since 2005, his linemen have helped Seattle rank second in the NFL with 136 sacks. Rocky Bernard's 15.5 sacks in that span leads the league among interior linemen.

Board will work in to the rotation first-round pick Lawrence Jackson and fourth-round pick Red Bryant, in addition to the continued development of Brandon Mebane.

His group generated 36 sacks in 2004, and in 2005, his unit contributed 32.5 of Seattle's NFL-leading 50 sacks on the season. They also allowed only one 100-yard rusher, set the franchise mark allowing only 94.4 rushing yards per game (5th NFL) and was second in the NFL allowing only five rushing touchdowns. Board saw the emergence of free agent pick-up Bryce Fisher have a career-high 9.0 sacks and Bernard finish with a career-high 8.5 sacks, good for second among NFL interior linemen.

Board made an immediate impact in his first season, helping improve Seattle's run defense from last in the NFL in 2002 to 19th in 2003, the second-greatest turnaround in the NFL behind New England. He also helped the club rank fourth in the NFC (7th NFL) with 41 sacks.

Board was part of a 49ers defensive staff in 2002 that designed a defense that ranked second in the NFC (7th NFL) against the run allowing an average of 103.3 yards per game. Board's line also contributed to a defense that ranked fourth in the NFC (7th NFL) in sacks, while coaching DT Bryant Young to his fourth Pro Bowl.

Before joining Seattle, Board previously served 23 years in the 49ers' organization, 10 as a player (1979-88) and 13 as a coach. He began his coaching career in 1990 as a San Francisco defensive line assistant before being promoted to defensive line coach in 1994.

In 17 seasons as a coach, Board has sent players to 10 Pro Bowls, including Dana Stubblefield who was named 1997 NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Board and Mike Holmgren were on the same 49ers coaching staff from 1990-91.

In 2001, Board's defensive line was anchored by three-time Pro Bowler Young and the return of Stubblefield. He also tutored rookie lineman Andre Carter, who led the team in sacks with 6.5.

The 2000 season was led by Young and Brentson Buckner, who combined for 16.5 sacks.

Young was the bright spot of Board's 1999 defensive line. Returning to the starting line-up after a career-threatening injury in 1998, Young recorded 11 sacks, was voted NFL Comeback Player of the Year by Associated Press and was selected to his second Pro Bowl. Under Board, the 1998 defensive unit recorded 51.0 sacks to rank second in the NFL, including Chris Doleman's 15.0 that ranked second in the NFC (3rd NFL). Board was a factor in the development of Stubblefield in 1997, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year after a career-high 15.0 sacks.

A member of four world championship 49ers teams as a player and coach, Board recorded 61.0 career sacks and eight more in the postseason from 1979-88. His four tackles, two sacks and constant pressure in Super

Following his release by Pittsburgh, Board

BRUCE DEHAVEN

Special Teams

Seahawks Experience: 2nd Year
NFL Experience: 22nd Year

Bruce DeHaven joined Seattle on January 22, 2007 after four years with the Dallas Cowboys.

In his first season in Seattle, DeHaven's return schemes aided Nate Burleson to return one punt return and one kickoff return for touchdowns. With his 94-yard punt return at Cleveland, Burleson is the only player in NFL history to return three punts 90+ yards for a touchdown in his career. He also helped Josh Brown to a career-year. Brown set career-highs in field goal attempts (34), field goals made (28), points scored (127) and touchbacks (13).

In 2006, DeHaven saw punter Mat McBriar lead the NFL with a 48.2 punting average and more importantly rank second in the NFC (4th NFL) with a 38.6 net punting average. His punt return team allowed Terence Newman to be one of five NFC returners to average over 10 yards per punt return and a 56-yard touchdown.

In 2004, the Cowboys kickoff coverage unit finished first in the NFL by limiting opponents to an average of 17.5 yards per return.

There were a number of outstanding individual performances in 2003, DeHaven's first season in Dallas, with lineman Flozell Adams setting a team-record by blocking three extra point attempts, kicker Billy Cundiff tying the NFL record for field goals in a game with seven and Randal Williams returning an onside kick attempt 38 yards for a touchdown to open the Philadelphia game.

Under DeHaven's guidance, the special teams in Buffalo (1987-99) and San Francisco (2000-02) thrived and were considered some of the most consistent units in the NFL. During DeHaven's three years with San Francisco, the 49ers special teams shined. In 2002, return man Jimmy Williams led the NFL with a 16.8-yard punt return average. This performance came on the heels of a 2001 season that saw Vinny Sutherland break the team record for most kick return yards by a rookie with 1,140.

Prior to joining the 49ers, DeHaven spent

13 seasons with the Buffalo Bills. During his tenure in Buffalo, the club made four consecutive Super Bowl appearances, won six AFC East championships and appeared in 20 playoff games. In those 13 years, DeHaven helped develop two of the greatest special teams players in NFL history: Mark Pike and Steve Tasker. Under DeHaven's tutelage, Tasker was invited to seven Pro Bowls as the AFC's Special Teams Player and was voted the 1993 Pro Bowl MVP. In 1998, kicker Steve Christie set the Bills single-season club records for points (140) and field goals (33) and became the franchise's all-time leading scorer.

In 1996, The Dallas Morning News, in a ranking of the 19 most important statistical categories, named the Bills special teams unit the best in the NFL. His 1991 punt coverage unit led the NFL in fewest punt return yards allowed with 53, the lowest total since the NFL changed the rules allowing only the ends to release on punt coverage before the ball is snapped. DeHaven also guided the Bills kickoff coverage unit to the top NFL ranking four consecutive years (1987-90).

Prior to joining the Bills staff in 1987, DeHaven spent three seasons in different coaching capacities in the USFL. He was the running backs and special teams coach with the Orlando Renegades (1985), special teams coach and offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Maulers (1984) and special teams and assistant offensive line coach with the New Jersey Generals (1983).

DeHaven began his collegiate coaching career at Kansas (1979-81), working with the defensive backs and offensive line, as well as heading up recruiting. He served as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at New Mexico State in 1982 before breaking into the pro ranks.

Before joining the college ranks, DeHaven spent nine years as a high school coach. As an assistant at Southeast (Wichita, Kan.) High School during part of that time, he helped lead the school to three consecutive Kansas state football championships.

DeHaven was born in Trousdale, Kan. on September 6, 1948. He played eight-man football at Belpre-Trousdale, Kan., High School. A graduate of Southwestern College in Kansas with a degree in history and political science, DeHaven was a basketball standout, leading the team in scoring two consecutive years. He also participated in track and field. He and his wife, Kathy, have a son Tobin Scott and daughter AnnieMaude.

DARREN KREIN

Assistant Strength & Conditioning

Seahawks Experience: 10th Year
NFL Experience: 10th Year

Darren Krein originally joined the Seahawks in his current position March 1, 1997, for two seasons and re-joined the team in 2001 in the same capacity, now working alongside Mike Clark.

The first-ever assistant hired by the Seahawks to help in the weight room, Krein has worked on a daily basis with players' weight training, as well as helping coordinate the team's offseason conditioning program.

Krein plays an integral role in the players' rehabilitation process. He works with players that were previously injured and helps build strength and flexibility to become game ready.

One of Krein's achievements is the physical development of Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Hasselbeck. After an injury-plagued 2001 season, and a 2002 season that saw him as a backup for most of the year, Hasselbeck's off-season training allowed him in 2003, 2005 and 2007 to become the first Seahawks quarterback since Rick Mirer in 1993 to start all 16 games.

Before joining the Seahawks, Krein was a 1994 fifth-round draft choice by the AFC champion San Diego Chargers. He missed his rookie season due to a knee injury. Claimed off waivers by the Green Bay Packers on June 17, 1995, but did not play. While there, he trained under former Seahawks head strength and conditioning coach Kent Johnston, who was head strength and conditioning coach for the Packers.

Krein played the 1996 World League season with the Barcelona Dragons, but re-injured his knee and retired.

Was a four-year letterman under former Seahawks head coach Dennis Erickson at the University of Miami and a unanimous first-team All-Big East defensive end as a senior. Had 190 career tackles and 17.5 sacks as a defensive end after beginning his career as a middle linebacker. Graduated with a degree in Business Management.

Attended Smoky Hill High School in Aurora, Colo. He lives in Kirkland with wife, Jennifer, daughter Ella and sons Aiden and Kellen.

BILL LAZOR
Quarterbacks

Seahawks Experience: 1st Year
NFL Experience: 6th Year

On February 14, 2008, Seattle named former Washington Redskins quarterbacks coach Bill Lazor to replace the departed Jim Zorn, who took over head coaching duties in Washington the week prior.

Lazor will begin his sixth NFL season in 2008 after spending the previous four with Washington, serving his final two years as quarterbacks coach. He originally began his Redskins career as an offensive assistant in 2004 after a season with the Atlanta Falcons in 2003.

Before breaking in to the NFL, he was an offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Buffalo from 2001-02. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Cornell, working with running backs, receivers, quarterbacks and tight ends while also serving as the recruiting coordinator from 1998-2000.

While at Cornell, he set 26 school passing and total offensive records. He earned his degree in human development and family studies. He is married to wife, Nicole, with one son, Nolan.

JIM LIND

Tight Ends

Seahawks Experience: 10th Year
NFL Experience: 17th Year

Jim Lind originally joined the Seahawks on January 14, 1999. He enters his tenth year with the Seahawks and ninth coaching tight ends.

The only coach still with Mike Holmgren since 1999, Lind works with second-round pick John Carlson in 2008.

Originally joined the team as its linebackers coach. With the untimely passing of defensive coordinator Fritz Shurmur in 1999 prior to training camp, Lind coordinated the Seahawks' defensive unit.

That defense recorded an NFL-leading 30 interceptions while holding opponents to just 19 passing touchdowns.

Lind enters his 17th year as an NFL coach having spent four seasons as the Green Bay Packers linebackers coach under Holmgren.

The Packers' 1996 defense, with help from Lind, set the NFC record for fewest touchdowns allowed in a 16-game schedule.

His 1998 linebacking corps helped the Packers' defense finish fourth in the NFL, limiting opponents to just 281.7 yards a game while plugging holes for a bare 90.1 opponent rushing average.

He broke into the NFL as a defensive assistant/quality control coach in 1992 under Holmgren. This was the second time Lind crossed paths with Holmgren, previously coaching together at Brigham Young University while Lind was a graduate assistant in 1981-82.

Before breaking into the professional ranks, he served nine years as a collegiate head coach, most recently at Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1987-91). Lind enjoyed his most success while a head coach at the University of Minnesota-Morris (1983-86) where he directed the Cougars to two Northern Intercollegiate Conference championships earning NIC Coach of the Year in 1984 and NAIA District 13 Coach of the Year in 1986.

He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at St. Cloud State (1977) before earning the offensive coordinator job there in 1978. He then moved to nearby St. Johns University (1979-80) before crossing paths with Holmgren at BYU as a graduate assistant (1981-82).

Lind entered coaching in 1974 as head football coach at Underwood (Minn.) High School holding that position until joining St. Cloud State.

Lind played three years of collegiate football as a linebacker his freshman year at

LARRY MARMIE

Assistant Defensive Backs

Seahawks Experience: 3rd Year
NFL Experience: 13th Year

Larry Marmie enters his third season with Seattle after being hired on February 16, 2006.

Along with Jim Mora in 2007, he helped the revamped secondary lead the NFL in touchdown passes allowed (15) and lead the NFC (4th NFL) with 20 interceptions. The group saw Marcus Trufant lead the team with a career-high seven interceptions and earn his first Pro Bowl berth.

Marmie joined Seattle after serving the previous two seasons as the St. Louis Rams defensive coordinator. In his first year, he led the Rams to a 17th overall defensive ranking.

He began his NFL coaching career with the Arizona Cardinals where he served as defensive backs coach (1996-00) and as a defensive coordinator his last three-plus seasons after Dave McGinnis was named head coach during the 2000 season (2000-03).

Marmie has 28 years of collegiate coaching experience after his quarterback playing days at Eastern Kentucky (1962-65), with his main duties emphasizing the secondary positions.

JIM MORA

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Backs

Seahawks Experience: 2nd Year
NFL Experience: 25th Year

Named to his current position on January 21, 2007, Mora enters his second year with the Seahawks and brings 24 years of defensive philosophy to the club.

In his first season with an overhauled secondary with the additions and leadership of safeties Deon Grant and Brian Russell, Mora's squad led the NFL in touchdown passes allowed (15) and led the NFC (4th NFL) with 20 interceptions. He saw former first-round pick Marcus Trufant pick off a career-high seven passes and earn his first Pro Bowl berth.

Mora joined Seattle after serving as Executive Vice President/Head Coach of the Atlanta Falcons from 2004-06. He compiled a 26-22 (.542) record during his three years in Atlanta.

He and his staff guided the Falcons to an 11-5 record in 2004, becoming just the eighth rookie head coach in NFL history to win 11 games, captured the NFC South Division title, and led the Falcons to their second-ever appearance in the NFC Championship Game. The Kansas City 101 Club named him the 2004 NFC Coach of the Year.

The defense, which ranked dead last the year before, improved to 14th overall en route to leading the league with a franchise-record 48 quarterback sacks. Mora's defense, coordinated by defensive coordinator Ed Donatell, held opposing offenses to zero points in the first quarter nine times, and also led the league in rushing defense (167.0 ypg).

Mora joined the Falcons from the San Francisco 49ers where he spent seven seasons (1997-03), including the last five as defensive coordinator. His last two seasons, Mora's defense finished no worse than fourth in the NFC against the run and in 2003, the 49ers recorded 36 takeaways, their most since 1997. In addition, at least one player from Mora's defense was named to the Pro Bowl in four of his last five seasons as defensive coordinator.

Included among his 49ers coaching highlights, Mora's defense tied for first in the NFC with a +11 turnover differential on the heels of 36 takeaways. San Francisco's defense continued an impressive trend in 2003 as the 49ers did not allow a rusher to run for over 100 yards in their last 19 home games. San Francisco's staunch run defense at home was highlighted in 2003 by holding the St. Louis Rams to a mere nine yards rushing, which was the second-lowest rushing total by an opponent in 49ers team history. Mora's aggressive defense also produced 42 sacks in 2003 to tie for second in the NFC and it was the highest team total since 51 in 1998.

Mora's defensive creativity with talent was witnessed when he utilized Julian Peterson at four positions against Dallas in 2002 in which the 49ers clinched the NFC West Division title. Mora devised a clever game plan to move the athletic linebacker all over the field. Peterson played linebacker, defensive end, strong safety and cornerback because of injuries on defense. The Pro Football Hall of Fame recognized the unique feat as Peterson was the first player since the NFL merger in 1970 to play four positions in a game as he packed his bags for the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career.

In Mora's first season as the 49ers defensive coordinator in 1999, he developed DT Bryant Young and FS Lance Schulters into Pro Bowl performers and tutored his defense to a team-record tying five defensive touchdowns.

In his first year in 1997, the 49ers finished first in the NFL in total defense, second in pass defense (with 25 interceptions), takeaways (41) and run defense, as well as third in the League in sacks (54). Mora helped San Francisco advance to the NFC Championship Game where five members of the defense were voted to the Pro Bowl. A year later, Mora's troops tied for first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with 21 interceptions.

James Lawrence Mora joined his father, James Ernest Mora, in 1992 as the secondary coach for the New Orleans Saints. Growing up with a father in the NFL gave Mora the opportunity to be a visiting locker room attendant for the Seattle Seahawks at a young age and was a ball boy at the 1978 Rose Bowl.

It was in New Orleans that Mora started to distinguish himself as one of the NFL's premier position coaches as the Saints boasted the top-ranked pass defense in the NFL during his first two years. Mora remained with New Orleans through the 1996 season.

Mora broke in to the NFL with the San Diego Chargers in 1985. In his first year, his position was the first-ever in the NFL to be known as a quality control coach, consisting of duties such as breaking down game film, charting defenses, opponent tendencies, self-scout tendencies and game analysis reports.

He was named defensive assistant/secondary one year later, a position he held until earning the role of defensive backs coach in 1989.

After his playing days at the University of Washington as a walk-on linebacker (1981-83), he began his coaching career as a defensive assistant under Don James in 1984. While at Washington, Mora had the opportunity to be a part of two Rose Bowl teams, in addition to helping the Huskies to a berth in the Orange Bowl as a graduate assistant in 1984.

Established the Jim Mora Count on Me Family Foundation on April 25, 2006 at the Georgia Aquarium. The foundation targets three areas: children from low socio-economic backgrounds, mentally and physically challenged children, and "at-risk" children who lack stability or support in their lives.

Married to wife, Shannon, with daughter Lillia, and sons, Cole, Ryder and Trey. Has two brothers, Stephen, a mortgage broker in Bend, Ore., and Michael, an architect in Seattle.

Prior to his stint at Tiffin, Phair spent two seasons (1999-2000) as a defensive graduate assistant at Arizona State, working with the defensive line.

A two-year starting linebacker at ASU, where he began his career as a walk-on in 1990, Phair also played two seasons at Mesa Community College and garnered first-team all-conference in 1989. Phair graduated from ASU with a Bachelor's Degree in sociology in 1994 and his Master's Degree in education, curriculum, and instruction in 2000.

Mike and his wife, Jennifer, have four children.

ZERICK ROLLINS

Seahawks Experience: 8th Year
NFL Experience: 8th Year

Zerick Rollins begins his eighth season with the Seahawks and third in the role of coaching linebackers, serving the previous four years as defensive line/quality control coach and the 2001 season as defensive assistant.

Last season he saw Lofa Tatupu make his third career Pro Bowl in as many years, while also making the AP All-Pro first team for the first time in his career with his third straight 100-tackle season. He became first Seahawks player since Chad Brown (1997-99) to lead the team in tackles three straight seasons and first since Brown to post 100+ tackles in three straight seasons. For the second straight year, his linebackers were three of the top four tacklers on the team, with Julian Peterson recording 9.5 sacks and his second straight Pro Bowl berth.

In 2006, his linebacking trio were three of the top four tacklers on the team, while Peterson turned in a Pro Bowl season with a career-high 10.0 sacks, Tatupu making his second Pro Bowl appearance in as many years and Leroy Hill setting a career-high with 92 tackles (70 solo).

Rollins served as interim linebackers coach in 2005 when John Marshall took over coordinating duties in place of Ray Rhodes. In his role, he guided rookie Tatupu's development as he became the first rookie to lead the team in tackles (105, 86 solo) since 1977 and Tatupu was also named to the Pro Bowl. Rollins tutelage also developed Hill into another rookie standout as his 7.5 sacks set the club record for sacks by a rookie and ranked third among all NFL rookies.

Rollins began his coaching career serving as a graduate assistant from 1998-00 at his alma mater, Texas A&M, assisting the defensive line for the first two years and safeties in his final season.

Was a two-year starter at defensive end for the Aggies, where he helped lead A&M to its first Big 12 South Division crown in 1997. During that season, Rollins received the Academic Achievement Award, given to the student-athlete who "excelled in both academics and sports," as well as a Hitachi Post Graduate Scholarship for his studies.

He graduated with a degree in Economics and earned his Master's Degree in Educational Administration. Born June 20, 1975 in Houston, Texas. Rollins and his wife, Chandra, have three daughters, Zeria, Zenae, Adanna, and two sons, Zachary and Zerick.

MIKE SOLARI

Offensive Line

Seahawks Experience: 1st Year
NFL Experience: 20th Year

Hired on January 24, 2008 to take over offensive line duties, Solari brings 19 years of offensive experience to Seattle.

Solari spent the past 11 seasons with Kansas City Chiefs, including the last two as offensive coordinator. He was one of just six assistant coaches in team history to boast over a decade of service with the franchise.

Prior to his role as offensive coordinator, he spent nine years as the Chiefs offensive line coach. Since 2001, Kansas City's rush offense finished in the top-10 on five occasions, while Larry Johnson set Kansas City records with 1,789 yards and 11 100-yard games in 2006.

Solari's line produced a trio of Pro Bowl offensive linemen in 2004 and 2005 in guards Will Shields and Brian Waters as well as tackle Willie Roaf. Kansas City became the first club to accomplish that feat since Dallas from 1993-96.

Thanks in part to his strong line, the Chiefs offense led the league in total offense in 2004 (franchise-record 418.4 ypg) and 2005 (387.0 ypg).

Solari spent five seasons (1992-96) as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers before joining the Chiefs. He was largely responsible for the development of tight end Brent Jones, who made four Pro Bowl appearances, and instrumental in the team's successful Super Bowl XXIX season.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987 where he was the assistant offensive line/special teams coach for two seasons. He moved on to the Phoenix Cardinals for one season, working with Gene Stallings before joining him at the University of Alabama (1990-91).

His coaching career began at Mission Bay (Calif.) High School in 1976, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College (1978) and U.S. International (1979). In 1980, he helped lead Boise State to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship. He also spent time at the University of Cincinnati (1981-82), Kansas (1983-85) and served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh (1986).

A former offensive lineman at San Diego State, he was a teammate of Chiefs Head Coach Herm Edwards and Carolina Panthers Head Coach John Fox.

Solari is married to wife, Patti, with three children, Tamara, Stephanie and Michael.

2007: Started 12 of 16 games while leading the team with 11 total TDs (9 rec., 2 ret.). Had at least one catch in each game and finished the season second with 50 receptions for 694 yards. Led team with nine receiving TDs. Tied a club record with a 94-yard punt return for TD (Charlie Rogers, at Pitt, 9/26/99) at Cleveland (11/4) and became the only player in NFL history to return three punts 90-plus yards for a TD in his career. Returned first-career kickoff return 91 yards for a TD versus St. Louis (10/21).

PRO: Acquired as a restricted free agent by the Seahawks March 31, 2006. Enjoyed a breakout season in his second year in the NFL in 2004, becoming only the ninth player in Vikings history to post a 1,000-yard season. Joined Randy Moss as the only players in team history to catch a touchdown pass and return a punt for a touchdown in the same game when he accomplished the feat at Indianapolis (11/8/04). Originally selected in the third round (71st overall) of the 2003 Draft by the Vikings, the highest receiver drafted by the Vikings since Moss in 1998. 2003: Started first career game and scored first career touchdown on a 22-yard pass from Gus Frerotte versus San Francisco (9/28). Caught first career pass on a 6-yarder from Daunte Culpepper versus Chicago (9/14) on ESPN Sunday Night game. 2004: Played in all 16 games with 15 starts and led the team with 1,006 yards receiving to give the Vikings a 1,000-yard receiver for the 12th straight season. Broke the 100-yard mark in four games and nine receiving touchdowns were the most by a Vikings wide receiver other than Moss since Cris Carter's nine in 2000. Posted the Vikings' first punt return for a touchdown since 1999 and the second-longest punt return in team history with a 91-yarder at Indianapolis (11/8) on Monday Night Football. Posted first-career multi-touchdown receiving game with two at Detroit (12/19). Recorded

Led team to 32 first downs versus Kansas City, and com-

PRO: Chosen with the 30th selection in the 5th round (163 overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. First player drafted from West Virginia in club history. Third fullback selected since 2005 (Tony Jackson, 2005; David Kirtman, 2006) and fifth since 2001 (Chris Davis, 2003; Heath Evans, 2001).

COLLEGE: Most agree he is a throwback to an era where the fullback delivered devastating blocks. In 38 games at West Virginia, Schmitt earned a total of 21 starts, including four at tight end. Carried 160 times for 1,003 yards (6.3-yard average) and 13 touchdowns. Caught 32 passes for 288 yards (9.0-yard avg) and two scores, adding 34 yards on two kickoff returns. Punted three times for 61 yards (20.3 avg) with two kicks downed inside the 20-yard line and recorded two solo tackles. behind the line of scrimmage.

Finished fourth on the team with 12 receptions for 121 yards (10.1-yard average) and a score while also having two of three punts downed inside the 20-yard line, finishing with a 20.3-yard average and one solo tackle. JUNIOR: Started four of 13 contests, seeing action mostly at fullback, but also lined up at tight end and tailback. Earned All-American second-team honors from The NFL Draft Report and Scout.com, and was the recipient of the Whitey Gwynne Award, given by the WVU coaches to the team's unsung hero. PRO: Drafted with the 23rd pick in the 6th round (189 overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft. First long snapper drafted by the Seahawks in club history. Fourth player drafted out of San Diego State in team history and first since 1991 (Dan McGwire).

COLLEGE: One of only two long-snappers invited to the Combine, Schmitt may lack the bulk scouts prefer at the position, but he is among the best in every other facet of the game. Schmitt, who also practiced at linebacker for the Aztecs, had only two career tackles, but his value lies in his deep snapping accuracy and speed. A four-year starter, Schmitt never had a bad snap on punts or field-goal attempts and generates good speed on his snaps. Timed snaps as fast as .53 seconds from his hands to the punter. NFL scouts generally consider times in the .60-.70 range worthy of consideration.

PERSONAL: Attended Cactus High School. All-state defensive end in Arizona who led the state with 20 quarterback sacks as a senior and had 31 in his career. Ranked second in the west in that category by Metropolitan Sports Review. A strong student.

Seattle Seahawks 20, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 6

Sunday, September 9, 2007 — Qwest Field

The Seahawks won their second-consecutive season opener defeating the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 20-6 at Qwest Field. After allowing six first-quarter points, Seattle's defense stiffened and held the Bucs scoreless and allowed just 138 yards over the next three quarters. Seattle's offense got on track in the second quarter scoring 10 points in the final 2:39 of the half. Josh Brown put Seattle on the board with a 28-yard field goal. Following Nate Burleson's 56-yard punt return to the Tampa Bay 14-yard line, Shaun Alexander punched in his 108th career touchdown from 1-yard out to give Seattle a 10-6 halftime lead. Seattle's defense continued to pressure Tampa in the second half and finished the game with five sacks, led by last year's leading sacker, Julian Peterson, who finished the game with 2.0 sacks, three quarterback hurries, a forced fumble and recovery. Seattle's offense put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter following a 46-yard field goal by Brown and a 34-yard touchdown connection from Matt Hasselbeck to Maurice Morris who beat Bucs linebacker Derrick Brooks in one-on-one coverage down the left sideline. Alexander finished the game with 105 yards and a touchdown on 27 carries. Hasselbeck posted a 113.5 passer rating completing 17 of 24 attempts for 222 yards.

Seattle couldn't quite hold onto a 20-17 fourth-quarter lead as two Neil Rackers field goals in the final five minutes carried Arizona to a 23-20 victory. Seattle got off to a slow start punting on their first five possessions of the first half. In the mean time, Arizona built a 17-0 lead behind a balanced attack of Matt Leinart and Edgerrin James. After an opening quarter Rackers' 28-yard field goal, Leinart connected with Leonard Pope on a 30-yard scoring pass and James scored on a 17-yard run. However, on Seattle's final possession of the first half, Matt Hasselbeck commanded a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive ending with a 24-yard touchdown pass to Nate Burleson with 1:16 remaining in the half. After a Lofa Tatupu interception on the Cardinals' first series of the second half, Shaun Alexander cruised into the end zone from 16 yards on a fourth-and-1 play pulling Seattle to within 17-14. A pair of 28-yard field goals by Josh Brown gave Seattle a 20-17 lead with 9:52 to play in the final quarter. With the score tied at 20-20, Seattle drove the ball to Arizona's 36-yard line where on first-and-5 with 1:55 to play, the Cardinals recovered a fumble and proceeded to drive for the game-winning score.

Seattle Seahawks 24, Cincinnati Bengals 21

Sunday, September 23, 2007 — Qwest Field

Matt Hasselbeck's 22-yard touchdown pass to Nate Burleson with 1:00 remaining in the game lifted Seattle to a 24-21 victory while the Seahawks' bend-but-don't-break defense limited the Bengals to only two touchdowns. Josh Wilson sparked Seattle with a 72-yard return on the opening kickoff allowing Hasselbeck to connect with Bobby Engram just three plays later on an 18-yard scoring pass. After the Bengals took a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter, Hasselbeck hooked up with Deion Branch for a 42-yard touchdown reception giving the Seahawks a 14-10 lead at half-time. Pinned at their own 6-yard line, Hasselbeck was sacked in the end zone for a safety pulling the Bengals to within 14-12. The teams swapped field goals in the fourth quarter before the Bengals' Kenny Watson scored on an 8-yard run giving the Bengals a 21-17 lead (2-point conversion failed) with 2:42 to play in the game. Hasselbeck drove Seattle to the Bengals' 36-yard line in five plays and facing a 4th-and-1 with 1:41 to play, Shaun Alexander burst for 14 yards and a first down. Hasselbeck connected with Burleson on the very next play. On the ensuing kickoff, Deon Grant covered up a Lance Laury forced fumble and Seattle ran out the clock. Both Grant and Brian Russell had interceptions in the game. Seattle's defense allowed 412 yards, including 342 passing yards for Carson Palmer and a pair of 100-yard receivers (T.J. Houshmandzadeh-141, Chad Johnson-138); however, those yards did not translate on the scoreboard.

Seattle used pressure defense and an effective passing game to upend the 49ers at Monster Park 23-3. Seattle's defense didn't allow the 49ers to creep into positive yardage until 5:31 was left in the first half. Until that point, the Seahawks had limited San Francisco to -4 in total yards on 15 plays. The 49ers lost starting QB Alex Smith on the third play of the game when Rocky Bernard sacked him forcing a punt. The Seahawks waited until the second quarter to get on the scoreboard when Josh Brown booted a 23-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead. A two-play touchdown drive, a Deion Branch 65-yard reception and a 17-yard Bobby Engram touchdown catch, led to a 10-0 lead. Another Brown field goal gave Seattle a 13-0 halftime lead. The 49ers recovered an onside kick coming out of the half, but Marcus Trufant had the first of two interceptions on the very next play. That turnover led to a 14-yard Matt Hasselbeck to Marcus Pollard touchdown. Brown added a third field goal to give Seattle a 23-3 win. All of Seattle's six sacks on the day came in the first half, led by Julian Peterson's career-high three to go along with two forced fumbles. Hasselbeck tied a season high with 281 yards for a 109.7 passer rating. Branch's 130 receiving yards were a career best.

Pittsburgh Steelers 21, Seattle Seahawks 0

Sunday, October 7, 2007 — Heinz Field

The Seattle Seahawks were held scoreless for the first time since the 2000 season opener at Miami, a span of 115 games, losing to the Pittsburgh Steelers 21-0. The Steelers controlled the ball 40:45, including 24:37 in the second half. Both defenses played stout in the opening half, until Pittsburgh mustered a touchdown when Ben Roethlisberger connected with Heath Miller on 13-yard pass with 1:56 remaining in the first half. The Seahawks screamed down the field in the final two minutes, but facing second-and-10 from Pittsburgh's 14-yard line with :07 remaining Matt Hasselbeck's pass was intercepted at the goal line by Steelers' Ike Taylor. Leading 7-0 and receiving the second-half kickoff, Pittsburgh chewed up the opening 10:17 on a 17-play touchdown drive for a 14-0 lead. Seattle was forced to a quick three-and-out before the Steelers hammered out a 13-play, 85-yard touchdown drive for a 21-0 lead. The Seahawks were only able to retain possession for 1:31 in the third quarter. Seattle's 144 total yards were the fewest since totaling 128 in a 17-15 win versus the San Diego Chargers on November 5, 2000.

The Seahawks could not rally from a 21-0 deficit in the first half to overcome the New Orleans Saints who prevailed 28-17 on a nationally televised Sunday night contest in front of a record crowd at Qwest Field. New Orleans put consistent pressure on Matt Hasselbeck while the Seahawks did not register a sack for the second time this season. Seattle also struggled to contain Reggie Bush in the first half, totaling 88 yards rushing and another 42 receiving (97 and 44 for the game). Seattle allowed the Saints to jump out to an early 7-0 lead after a punt snap was one-hopped, fumbled and recovered by the Saints' Pierre Thomas and returned 5 yards for the touchdown. After Seattle failed to recover a Saints' fumble near midfield, New Orleans went up 14-0 on a Drew Brees-to-Eric Johnson 3-yard scoring pass capping a 13-play, 86-yard drive. Attempting to tie a club record with his 16th-consecutive made field goal on the ensuing drive, Josh Brown's 44-yard attempt was blocked and the Saints took a 21-0 lead six plays later when Lance Moore scored on a 7-yard end around. Seattle refused to be shut out in the half as Hasselbeck and Ben Obomanu hooked up on a 17-yard scoring pass. The Saints struck back for a 28-7 lead with a 2-yard Brees-to-Marques Colston touchdown with :30 remaining in the first half. Seattle found themselves in range for a Brown 52-yard field goal with :02 remaining to pull within 28-10 at the end of the first half. Seattle threatened late, but could only score one touchdown in the fourth quarter, a 22-yard catch and run by Nate Burleson. Hasselbeck ended the day with 362 yards, tied for the fourth-highest total of his career and first 300-yard game since October 9, 2005, at St. Louis.

Seattle Seahawks 33, St. Louis Rams 6

Sunday, October 21, 2007 — Qwest Field

The Seahawks' defense contained the Rams' offense limiting their attack to six points while forcing five turnovers and posting seven sacks. Seattle scored on the opening drive for the second time of the season using an 11-play drive culminated with a 1-yard Will Heller touchdown reception from Matt Hasselbeck. The Rams countered with a Jeff Wilkins field goal, but Seahawks kicker Josh Brown matched Wilkins to extend Seattle's lead to 10-3 at the half. Nate Burleson returned the opening kickoff in the second half 91 yards for his first-career kickoff return for a touchdown, which led to NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Wilkins connected on another field goal try to bring the Rams to within 17-6; however, that is all the scoring Rams would get. Brown connected on three second-half field goals and Heller scored on an 11-yard pass from Hasselbeck with 6:08 remaining in the game for the 33-6 final score. DE Darryl Tapp tied a club record with 4.0 sacks in the game. Deon Grant, Julian Peterson and Marcus Trufant each recorded interceptions.

Cleveland Browns 33, Seattle Seahawks 30 OT

Sunday, November 4, 2007 — Cleveland Browns Stadium

Despite winning the coin toss and receiving the ball first in overtime, the Seahawks could not pull off the victory and lost to the Cleveland Browns 33-30 on a Phil Dawson 25-yard field goal. Seattle held a commanding 21-9 halftime lead, but surrendered 24 second-half points, including overtime. Seahawks Bobby Engram gave Seattle an early 7-0 lead before the first of four Jamal Lewis touchdown runs pulled the Browns to within 7-6 after a failed PAT. D.J. Hackett, in his first game back from an ankle injury since Week 1, scored on a 6-yard pass play and Nate Burleson tied a club record with a 94-yard punt return for a 21-6 lead. Dawson connected on a 19-yard field goal just before half. After the third quarter saw Lewis score from 1-yard out and Josh Brown connect on the first of his three second-half field goals, the game was 24-16. Lewis scored on a 2-yard run early in the fourth quarter, but the two-point conversion failed and left the score 24-22. Brown booted a 26-yard field goal before Lewis' fourth touchdown run, a 1-yarder, gave Cleveland their first lead of the game, 30-27, with 2:17 remaining. Seattle could not find the end zone in the final seconds so they settled for a 22-yard Brown field goal as time expired to tie the game at 30-30 and push the game into overtime. Seattle received the kickoff and moved to Cleveland's 44-yard line. Facing fourth-and-1, Maurice Morris, subbing for Shaun Alexander who suffered a sprained ankle and knee, was stopped short of the line to gain. Cleveland moved into position for the game-winning field goal aided by a 34-yard screen pass to Jamal Lewis. In the game, Engram set career a high with 14 receptions, second-most in team history (Steve Largent, 15) while Matt Hasselbeck passed for 318 yards, 14th time of his career with 300 or more passing yards in a game.

GAME 9

 Seattle Seahawks 24, San Francisco 49ers 0
 Monday, November 12, 2007 — Qwest Field

Seattle's defense recorded a Monday Night Football record fifth shutout en route to a 24-0 win over the San Francisco 49ers in front of a record crowd of 68,331 at Qwest Field. Seattle allowed just 76 total yards at the half and did not allow a first down until the final play of the first half, a Hail Mary pass that was ruled complete on the field. Since the play did not involve a score, instant replay was not used which could have ruled the 45-yard pass play incomplete. The six total first downs allowed tied a club record for fewest in a game, also accomplished versus San Diego on November 22, 1987. Seattle scored on their opening possession using 11 passes and two runs to drive 84 yards culminating in a 1-yard touchdown pass from Matt Hasselbeck to Will Heller. Seattle added a Josh Brown 20-yard field goal after Patrick Kerney sacked Alex Smith and forced a fumble which was recovered by Rocky Bernard. Maurice Morris, filling in for Shaun Alexander (knee), scored on a 6-yard run in the second quarter to give Seattle a 17-0 halftime lead. San Francisco threatened midway through the third quarter; however, facing fourth-and-inches from the Seahawks' 2-yard line, Frank Gore was stuffed by Kevin Bentley and Lofa Tatupu. Bentley led the team with 10 tackles filling in for Leroy Hill (hamstring). D.J. Hackett added a touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Hasselbeck on the first play of the fourth quarter to give Seattle a 24-0 lead. Hackett led the team tying a career high with eight receptions for 101 yards, his second-career 100-yard game.

Seattle Seahawks 30, Chicago Bears 23
Sunday, November 18, 2007 — Qwest Field

The Seahawks fell behind 10-0 midway through the first quarter, but battled back for a 30-23 victory in front of a boisterous crowd of 68,249. Cedric Benson gave the Bears their first score on the second play of the game when he escaped for a 43-yard touchdown run. Benson's 20-yard rush on their following drive set up a Robbie Gould 31-yard field goal. However, after those two Benson runs, Seattle's defensive adjustments corralled him for 26 yards on nine attempts for the remainder of the game. Seattle took a 14-10 lead midway through the second quarter following a 19-yard scoring pass from Matt Hasselbeck to D.J. Hackett and a 19-yard Maurice Morris touchdown scamper. The Bears answered Seattle's touchdown with a scoring drive of their own capped by a 5-yard Adrian Peterson touchdown run with 1:16 remaining in the half to take a 17-14 lead. However, Seattle responded with a 40-yard Josh Brown field goal with :17 left to tie the game 17-17 at the half. The Seahawks' Nate Burleson returned the second-half kickoff 44 yards to the Chicago 49. Facing fourth-and-1, Mike Holmgren's decision to go for it paid off when Hasselbeck hooked up with Marcus Pollard for 20 yards eventually setting up a 4-yard Hasselbeck-to-Burleson touchdown connection. With Seattle up just one touchdown, 24-17, the Bears threatened midway through the third quarter from Seattle's 25-yard line but were stuffed on a fourth-down attempt. Following another Gould field goal, Brown answered with two of his own giving Seattle a 30-20 lead with 3:31 remaining in the game. The Bears tacked on a late field goal but their ensuing onside kick attempt failed. Hasselbeck passed for 337 yards on 30 completions while Hackett set career highs with nine catches for 136 yards. Patrick Kerney led the way with 3.0 second-half sacks including one that forced a fumble at Seattle's 42-yard line with 5:55 remaining in the game and the Seahawks clinging to just a touchdown lead.

GAME 11

Seattle Seahawks 24, St. Louis Rams 19

Sunday, November 25, 2007 — Edward Jones Dome

Seattle shut out the Rams in the second half and stymied their rushing attack over the final three quarters to pull out a 24-19 victory at the Edward Jones Dome. Seattle's offense started slowly with their first four plays resulting in an incomplete pass, two sacks and then a safety. Following a Steven Jackson 53-yard run on the first play following the safety, Seattle was down 9-0. However, Josh Wilson got Seattle on the board on the ensuing kickoff with an 89-yard touchdown return. An Isaac Bruce touchdown reception and a Jeff Wilkins 23-yard field goal following a Seattle goal-line stand facing first-and-goal from the 1, gave St. Louis a 19-7 lead at the half. Seattle's second-half defense shut the Rams down long enough to allow Seattle's offense to claw its way into the lead. A Josh Brown field goal and Deion Branch's 9-yard touchdown reception brought the Seahawks to within 19-17 by the end of the third quarter. Patrick Kerney, already with an interception and a sack earlier in the game, notched his second sack of the game early in the fourth quarter knocking the Rams out of field goal range forcing a punt. Seattle took that opportunity 80 yards in 10 plays resulting in Leonard Weaver's first-career touchdown from 5 yards out giving Seattle their first lead of the game, 24-19. Another Kerney third-down sack on the Rams' next drive forced a punt. Seattle drove in range for a Brown 52-yard field goal attempt, but the kick was pushed wide right and the Rams took over at their own 42-yard line. Needing a touchdown, the Rams were stuffed at the goal line after facing a first-and-goal from the 4. On the final play of the game, Rams' Gus Frerotte, who replaced Marc Bulger who left the game in the first quarter following a sack by Leroy Hill, fumbled the snap and was tackled by Darryl Tapp.

The Seahawks improved to 8-4 with a 28-24 victory over the Eagles in Philadelphia. The Seahawks jumped to a 7-0 lead after Lofa Tatupu intercepted the Eagles' A.J. Feeley on the first play of the game and returned it to the Philadelphia 18-yard line leading to a 2-yard Shaun Alexander touchdown run. The Eagles evened the score on a Correll Buckhalter 30-yard run on the ensuing drive. Tatupu again intercepted Feeley on Philadelphia's next possession and returned it 49 yards to the Eagles' 8-yard line setting up a Matt Hasselbeck-to-Bobby Engram touchdown play for a 14-7 lead. Philadelphia's David Akers added a 31-yard field goal but Seattle responded with a 43-yard Hasselbeck-to-Nate Burleson for a touchdown and a 21-10 lead. The Eagles answered midway through the second quarter with a 24-yard touchdown Kevin Curtis touchdown reception to pull within 21-17. Facing fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line with :07 remaining in the half, Philadelphia decided to go for the touchdown and the lead; however, Rocky Bernard tripped up Brian Westbrook and the Eagles were unable to convert. After a Seattle fumble on the opening drive of the second half, Westbrook traveled 29 yards for a touchdown to give Philadelphia a temporary lead, 24-21. After an exchange of punts, facing third-and-2, Maurice Morris took a pitch left and scampered 45 yards for a touchdown and the final score of the afternoon. The Eagles threatened late after Westbrook returned a punt 64 yards to the Seattle 14-yard line where he was forced out of bounds by Kevin Bentley with 1:16 to play in the game. However, Tatupu's club-record tying third interception at the Seahawks' 4 with :23 remaining sealed Seattle's fourth-straight victory. After allowing a touchdown on the opening drive of the second half, Seattle's defense forced Philadelphia's remaining eight drives to end in four three-and-outs, two interceptions, a missed field goal and a turnover on downs.

Seattle Seahawks 42, Arizona Cardinals 21

Sunday, December 9, 2007 — Qwest Field

The Seahawks jumped out to a 24-0 first-half lead and never looked back as they clinched their fourth-consecutive NFC West title defeating the Cardinals 42-21. The Seahawks scored on each of their first four possessions with a Josh Brown 23-yard field goal and three Matt Hasselbeck touchdown passes to Nate Burleson, Bobby Engram and Deion Branch. The Cardinals got on the board with a Kurt Warner to Bryant Johnson touchdown pass with 1:04 to play in the first half; however, Seattle countered with another Brown field goal with :02 left for a 27-7 halftime lead. The Cardinals would pull as close as 27-14 after Jerheme Urban scored on a 2-yard pass. Seattle answered with a 3-yard Hasselbeck to Marcus Pollard touchdown pass. Seattle tacked on a safety after a fumbled punt snap by Mitch Berger and later added another touchdown on an 84-yard interception return by Marcus Trufant, the first of his career, to go up 42-14. The Cardinals' Larry Fitzgerald added a late touchdown for a 42-21 final. In the game, Trufant tied a franchise record with a career-high three interceptions giving him a career-high seven for the season. Patrick Kerney notched his third 3.0 sack game in four weeks giving him the NFL lead with 13.5, the most for the Seahawks since Michael Sinclair led the NFL with 16.5 in 1998. Hasselbeck's 131.6 passer rating was the fourth best of his career and the fourth time he's passed for four or more touchdowns in a game. Bobby Engram moved into fifth place on Seattle's receiving yards list passing John L. Williams.

The Seahawks and Panthers both struggled offensively and failed to light up the scoreboard until the fourth quarter on a blustery December day in Charlotte with Carolina coming away with a 13-10 victory. A scoreless first half featured 11 punts by both teams and a Panthers missed field goal. The third quarter saw Seattle punt twice and Carolina stopped on fourth-and-1 at the Seahawks' 33-yard line. Aided by the wind, John Kasay finally put the first points on the board early in the fourth quarter connecting on a 53-yard field goal. Seattle countered with a Josh Brown 23-yard field goal on the ensuing drive to tie the score 3-3. The Panthers mustered another field goal to go up 6-3 with just 2:59 to play. Seattle drove into Carolina territory on their next drive, but facing second-and-2, Matt Hasselbeck was sacked and fumbled. The fumble was recovered by Carolina and three plays later DeAngelo Williams escaped for a 35-yard touchdown run to put the Panthers up 13-3 with 1:17 to play in the game. The Seahawks scored on a 15-yard Hasselbeck to Deion Branch pass with :01 remaining and Carolina covered up the ensuing kickoff and won 13-10. In the game, Bobby Engram led Seattle with nine receptions for 84 yards. The game gave him his first-career 1,000-yard season and 85 receptions helped him become just the third receiver in team history with 80 or more receptions in a season. His total is just three away from setting a club record (Darrell Jackson 87 in 2004).

Seattle Seahawks 27, Baltimore Ravens 6

Sunday, December 23, 2007 — Qwest Field

The Seahawks and Ravens both started slow but the Seahawks soared to a 27-0 win after outscoring the Ravens 21-0 in the second quarter. Seattle jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Nate Burleson hauled in his team-leading seventh touchdown from 21 yards away. Following a Matt Hasselbeck interception on the Seahawks next possession, Leroy Hill recovered a Ravens fumble and returned it 20 yards for his first-career touchdown. After five-straight Baltimore punts to begin the game, Shaun Alexander took a screen pass from Hasselbeck 14 yards for a touchdown and a Seahawks 21-0 halftime lead. The Ravens didn't cross over into Seahawks territory until their final possession of the half that resulted in a Patrick Kerney sack and forced fumble which was recovered by Julian Peterson. After forcing two more Ravens' punts to open the second half, Josh Brown connected on a 42-yard field goal and after another Ravens fumble Brown tacked on a 39-yard field goal for a 27-0 lead. The Ravens scored late on a 79-yard pass from Troy Smith, making his first NFL start, to Derrick Mason. The Seahawks rushed for 144 total yards against the Ravens, second-ranked run defense. It was the most yards the Ravens had allowed this season and most since allowing 162 versus Tennessee in 2006. Bobby Engram led the team with five receptions giving him a club record for most receptions in a season with 90.

Atlanta Falcons 44, Seattle Seahawks 41
Sunday, December 30, 2007 — Georgia Dome

The Seahawks wrapped the 2007 regular season with a 44-41 shootout loss at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The Seahawks jumped out to a 10-0 first-quarter lead behind Shaun Alexander's 100th-career rushing touchdown and a 54-yard Josh Brown field goal. The Falcons scored two second-quarter touchdowns to go up 14-10, but with 1:10 remaining in the half, Matt Hasselbeck connected with Bobby Engram on a 30-yard lob pass for a 17-14 lead. Morton Andersen tied the game as time expired with a 30-yard field goal. With several Seahawks starters inactive, the team sprinkled in the reserves in the second half. Seneca Wallace took over in the second half and led the Seahawks to a 27-20 lead following a 51-yard Brown field goal and a 29-yard touchdown dash by Maurice Morris. A Chris Redman to Alge Crumpler 55-yard completion tied the game at 27-27. Following two Seattle turnovers deep in their own territory on their next two drives, the Falcons capitalized with two Redman touchdown passes to take a 41-27 lead early in the fourth quarter. Wallace connected on a 45-yard pass with Nate Burleson to pull within 41-34. A third Andersen field goal gave the Falcons a 10-point lead with 3:23 remaining. Wallace again connected with Burleson on a 13-yard pass with :54 to go in the game to pull within 44-41. Seattle recovered an onside kick attempt, but were flagged for being offsidess and the next attempt failed. Seattle recorded a season-high 501 yards of total offense, 30 first downs and 167 rushing yards in the loss. Hasselbeck set a franchise record for passing yards in a season while Wallace recorded the highest passer rating of his career.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 30, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 14 SUNDAY, JANUARY 8, 1984 — MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Raiders stopped the Seahawks dream of a trip to the Super Bowl with a convincing 30-14 win in Seattle's first appearance in the AFC Championship Game. The Raiders, who compiled an AFC-best 12-4 record during the regular season, jumped to a 27-0 lead and were never threatened. Frank Hawkins rushed for a pair of touchdowns and Chris Bahr had two field goals in the first half, which saw Los Angeles score 17 points in the last 4:17 of the second quarter. Key was a 49-yard Malcolm Barnwell pass reception setting up a touchdown and a Mike Davis interception which led to a Bahr field goal. The Raiders held a 226-16 total-yard advantage at halftime, including holding Seattle to minus 9 yards passing. The Raiders also ran 36 plays to Seattle's 23. Marcus Allen extended the Raiders lead to 27-7 with a third-quarter touchdown reception. The Seahawks scored two late touchdowns sandwiched around another Bahr field goal for the final margin. Los Angeles controlled the ball for 37:06 and outgained Seattle 401 yards to 167. Seattle suffered five interceptions and allowed four sacks. Allen accounted for 216 total yards from scrimmage, rushing for 154 and catching seven passes for 62. The Raiders were playing in their eleventh AFL/AFC title game and won for the fourth time to earn a berth in Super Bowl XVIII. Los Angeles went on to defeat the defending world-champion Washington Redskins, 38-9, in the Super Bowl.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 13, LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 7 SUNDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1984 — KINGDOME

Dan Doornink rushed for a career-high 123 yards to help the Seahawks eliminate the defending Super Bowl champion Raiders. Seattle took a 7-0 lead into halftime on Dave Krieg's 26-yard second-quarter touchdown pass to Daryl Turner. Seattle rushed for 34 yards on the 93-yard drive, which was keyed by a 23-yard pass interference penalty on Los Angeles' Lester Hayes putting the ball at the Raiders' 33. Doornink contributed 18 yards on a third-quarter drive to Norm Johnson's 35-yard field goal. That drive was set up by Keith Simpson's recovery of a Bruce Scholtz forced fumble at the Raiders' 38. Johnson upped the lead to 13-0 with a 44-yard fourth-quarter field goal. The Raiders broke into the scoring column on Jim Plunkett's 46-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Allen with 5:05 left. Seattle ran the clock down to 45 seconds on their next drive behind the running of Doornink, who carried four times for 13 yards, including a five-yard run on a third-and-two. He also contributed a 14-yard reception. The Raiders' last drive ended with Kenny Easley's interception with four seconds left. Doornink, a seven-year veteran, had started only three times in the regular season and rushed for 215 yards. He contributed 82 of his total in the second half. The Seattle defense limited Los Angeles to 240 total yards, recorded six sacks, and forced three turnovers. Jacob Green had 2.5 of the sacks. Keith Butler had nine tackles, including a sack. Bill Pickel had 15 tackles and Vann McElroy 11 for the Raiders. Seattle played the game without starting left tackle Ron Essink (flu) and started Sid Abramowitz, who had one career start, in his place. Seattle's reliance on the run caused the Raiders to switch to a 4-4 defense for most of the second half, removing Hayes for an extra linebacker.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS MIAMI DOLPHINS 31, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 10 SATURDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1984 — ORANGE BOWL

Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a divisional playoff win in the Orange Bowl. Miami, which had the AFC's best regular-season record, 14-2, would host the AFC Championship Game. Seattle, which finished the regular season a franchise best 12-4, was eliminated. The win also avenged a 27-20 Seahawks win in the divisional round of the 1983 AFC playoffs. Marino threw two of his scoring passes in the third quarter to break open what had been a 14-10 Miami halftime lead. Marino, who set an NFL record with 48 touchdown passes during the season, was 7-of-8 for 50 yards on the first scoring drive. On the second, he found Mark Clayton two plays after a short punt gave Miami the ball at the Seattle 33. Uwe von Schamann closed out the scoring with a fourth-quarter field goal. Miami struck first on their second possession as Tony Nathan scored on a 14-yard run. After Seattle closed to 7-3, Marino found Jimmy Cefalo for a 34-yard touchdown on the Dolphins' next possession, one play after a Seattle interception was nullified by an offsides penalty. Seattle closed to 14-10 on Dave Krieg's 56-yard touchdown pass to Steve Largent with 3:23 left in the half. Miami gained 405 yards as Marino passed for 262. Seattle's John Harris, a Miami native, picked off two passes in the first half. His 32-yard return with the first set up a field goal. He returned the second 13 yards to the Miami 45, but the Dolphins held, forcing a punt.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS

HOUSTON OILERS 23, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 20 (OVERTIME)

SUNDAY, JANUARY 3, 1988 — ASTRODOME

Tony Zendejas' 42-yard field goal 8:05 into overtime gave the Oilers the win over the Seahawks in Houston's first playoff game since 1980. The win put the Oilers in the divisional playoffs at the Denver Broncos. Zendejas' kick capped a 61-yard drive on the Oilers' first overtime possession. Warren Moon completed 3-of-4 passes on the drive's first five plays, for 37 yards, before Mike Rozier ran six times for 27 yards setting up Zendejas. Seattle forced overtime with an 80-yard drive that ended with Steve Largent's touchdown reception from Dave Krieg with 26 seconds left. The drive, which was set up because of a miss by Zendejas from 29 yards, featured fourth-and-10 and third-and-10 conversions from Krieg, who was only 4-of-10 on the drive, but accounted for all 80 yards. Seattle won the overtime coin toss, but was forced to punt after three plays. Playing without Curt Warner (ankle), the NFL's third-leading rusher, Seattle was outgained 437-250, including 178-29 on the ground. Houston held the ball for 47:44 compared to Seattle's 20:21. Despite this, the Seahawks grabbed a 7-0 lead just 3:16 into the game. Melvin Jenkins picked off a pass on Houston's third play setting up a Krieg touchdown pass. Zendejas had a pair of field goals around a Rozier touchdown. After two Norm Johnson field goals tied the score, Moon threw a touchdown pass to Willie Drewrey, the first of his career, for a 20-13 lead.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS CINCINNATI BENGALS 21, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 13 SATURDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1988 — RIVERFRONT STADIUM

In a matchup of division winners, the Bengals used the running of rookie Ickey Woods to defeat the Seahawks in Riverfront Stadium. With the win, Cincinnati earned the right to host the AFC Championship Game. Woods rushed for 126 of the Bengals' 254 rushing yards helping set up two short Stanley Wilson touchdown runs. Woods scored on a third short run to give the Bengals a 21-0 halftime lead. Cincinnati rushed for 165 yards in the half, 70 by Woods and 60 by James Brooks, and controlled the ball for 20:35. The Seahawks scored first in the fourth quarter after Joe Nash recovered a Jacob Green forced fumble on the Bengals' 31. Dave Krieg passed seven yards to John L. Williams for the score. After a punt, Seattle drove 69 yards capped by Krieg's one-yard run, but missed the extra point, to trail by eight. Seattle outgained the Bengals 245-116 in the second half. Williams caught 11 passes for 137 yards for the Seahawks, both team postseason records. The 11 receptions were also the third most in a postseason game in NFL history. The Seahawks were hampered by an ankle injury suffered by Curt Warner in the season finale at the Los Angeles Raiders. The Bengals held Warner 11 yards on eight carries. The Bengals earned the right to host the game after posting an AFC-best 12-4 record. Seattle was 9-7 and won their first AFC West title. Cincinnati went on to defeat the Buffalo Bills and represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXIII.

MIAMI DOLPHINS 20, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 17

SUNDAY, JANUARY 9, 2000 — KINGDOME

Charlie Rogers' 85-yard kickoff return touchdown proved not to be enough as the Seattle Seahawks lost to the Miami Dolphins at the Kingdome, 20-17, in their first playoff appearance since 1988. Seattle held a 17-13 lead in the fourth quarter, but Dan Marino led an 85-yard touchdown drive with 4:48 remaining which proved to be the game-winner. The Seahawks jumped to a 7-0 lead when Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins on a 9-yard scoring pass. The Dolphins' Olindo Mare put Miami on the board in the first quarter with a 32-yard field goal. Seattle countered with a 50-yard Todd Peterson field goal with 45 seconds remaining in the half for a 10-3 Seahawks halftime lead. Miami came right out of the gate to open the second half trying to work their way back into the game. Marino connected with Orande Gadsden on a 1-yard touchdown pass, which tied the game at 10-10. However, on the ensuing kickoff, Rogers bobbled the kick, but was able to retain possession and returned it 85 yards for an electrifying touchdown giving Seattle a 17-10 lead. Following an exchange of punts, Miami crept to within 17-13 on a 50-yard Mare field goal in the third quarter. Trying to catch Seattle by surprise, the Dolphins attempted an onside kick and recovered, but Seattle's defense held and forced the Dolphins to punt. The Dolphins scored the go-ahead touchdown on a J.J. Johnson 2-yard touchdown run with 4:48 remaining. The Seahawks would have two opportunities to catch up, but were forced to punt on the first and an interception with 23 seconds left in the game sealed the victory for the Dolphins.

NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS GREEN BAY PACKERS 33, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 27 (OT) SUNDAY, JANUARY 4, 2004 — LAMBEAU FIELD

The "Frozen Tundra" provided the stage for another epic playoff battle as the Seahawks and Packers went toe-to-toe for the right to play another week. After battling four and half quarters, the Packers' Al Harris sent the Seahawks home and the Packers to Philadelphia for the NFC divisional playoff when he intercepted a Matt Hasselbeck pass in overtime and returned it 52 yards for the score. Things started slowly as both teams warmed to the 20 degree temperatures and the Seahawks heated up first with a 30-yard field goal from Josh Brown. The Packers got even in the second quarter following a Ryan Longwell field goal. The Seahawks responded with another Brown field goal before Brett Favre led the Packers down the field ending with a 23-yard touchdown strike to tight end Bubba Franks. Another Longwell field goal gave the Packers a 13-6 lead at the half. Hasselbeck and the Seahawks began the second half with a Shaun Alexander tying touchdown. After forcing the Packers to punt, Hasselbeck again picked apart the Packers' secondary and led the Hawks down to the Green Bay 1-yard line where Alexander punched it in for his second score of the game. The Pack retaliated with an Ahman Green touchdown and another tie game. Another Green touchdown put the Packers up 27-20 with 2:44 to play. Hasselbeck's seven-play, 67-yard drive set up a Seahawks record third touchdown run by Alexander to tie the game with :51 remaining. Favre raced the Packers down to the Seattle 29 with five seconds on the clock but it wasn't close enough as Longwell came up short from 47 yards out. The Seahawks won the overtime coin toss and a confident Hasselbeck assured a score. The two teams traded three and outs. Five plays into the Seahawks' second drive, Hasselbeck looked left and tried to sneak a pass into Alex Bannister but Harris stepped in front.

NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS

ST. LOUIS RAMS 27, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 20

SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 2005 — QWEST FIELD

Hosting only their fourth home playoff game in team history, the Seahawks took on the St. Louis Rams for the third time of the season, only to have the same outcome of the previous two matchups. The Rams scored first as Marc Bulger found Torrey Holt from 15 yards out on their opening possession. Seattle answered with a Josh Brown 47-yard field goal. Trailing 14-10 at the half, Seattle took the second-half kickoff and pulled to within 14-13 after another Brown field goal. The Rams answered with a field goal of their own, giving them a 17-13 lead heading into the fourth quarter. Seattle's next possession at the end of the third and beginning of the fourth quarter, was a seven-play, 76-yard drive in which Darrell Jackson caught four passes for 50 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown to give the Seahawks their first lead of the day, 20-17. The Rams tied the game with a Jeff Wilkins' 27-yard field goal. St. Louis forced a Seattle punt and received the ball with 5:42 left to play. Bulger connected with Cam Cleeland for a 17-yard touchdown and a 27-20 Rams' lead. On their final drive, Seattle drove to the Rams' 11-yard line with under one minute to play. Facing third-and-16 after a sack and incompleteness, Hasselbeck found Ingram for a 12-yard gain but left the Seahawks with fourth down and 0:27 remaining. Seattle's fourth-down play was something that plagued the team the last two seasons as Ingram had Hasselbeck's pass go off his hands in the end zone. St. Louis took over the ball on downs. Jackson caught a career-high 12 passes for 128 yards and Hasselbeck became only the third quarterback (Dan Fouts, Bulger) in NFL history to throw for more than 300 yards in his first two career postseason starts.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 20, WASHINGTON REDSKINS 10

SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 2006 — QWEST FIELD

The Seattle Seahawks ended their 21-year streak without a postseason win with a 20-10 victory over the Washington Redskins in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Qwest Field. In the wet afternoon, Seattle's trouble holding on to the ball stalled drives and gave Washington good field position after a Shaun Alexander fumble at the Redskins 12-yard line and two special teams fumbles on the day. Seattle's defense weathered the storm in the first half and held Washington to only a John Hall second-quarter field goal. Seattle's offense took another hit when Alexander left the game with a concussion in the first quarter after gaining only 9 yards on six carries. Maurice Morris gained the tough yards and Coach Mike Holmgren put the outcome on Matt Hasselbeck's arm and leadership for the remainder of the game. The Redskins took a 3-0 lead midway through the second quarter and Seattle responded with a 29-yard scoring pass from Hasselbeck to Darrell Jackson. Seattle took a 7-3 lead into halftime, before Hasselbeck beat Redskins CB Shawn Springs to the pylon for a 14-3 midway through the third quarter. Josh Brown added a field goal to begin the final quarter for a 17-3 lead. The Redskins tried to hang on when Mark Brunell connected with Santana Moss for a 20-yard touchdown. The Seahawks capped the day with a 31-yard Brown field goal for a 20-10 victory.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 34, CAROLINA PANTHERS 14 SUNDAY, JANUARY 22, 2006 — QWEST FIELD

The Seahawks advanced to their first Super Bowl in club history as they defeated the Carolina Panthers 34-14 in front of a 12th Man crowd of 67,837 in the NFC Championship Game. The Seahawks' offense got on the board first as it needed only five plays to cover 57 yards ending with a Matt Hasselbeck to Jermaine Stevens 17-yard touchdown pass. Seattle's defense, aided by the raucous crowd, allowed only 6 total first-quarter yards and forced two Jake Delhomme interceptions; one each by Lofa Tatupu and Marquand Manuel. Seattle's offense turned the takeaways into 10 points and took an early 17-0 lead in the second quarter. Carolina's touchdown in the second quarter was a 59-yard punt return by Steve Smith that was allowed after a penalty flag for an illegal block in the back that was picked up. Josh Brown tacked on a 39 yard field goal midway through the quarter for a 20-7 lead at the half. Receiving the opening kickoff, Seattle drove 65 yards in eight plays with Hasselbeck and Darrell Jackson hooking up from 20 yards out for a 27-7 lead. The teams then exchanged two punts each until Michael Boulware intercepted Delhomme with 1:25 left in the third quarter. Seattle jumped out to a 34-7 lead after Shaun Alexander scored his second of two 1-yard runs with 6:00 left to play in the game. Carolina added its first offensive score of the day with 5:09 remaining in the game and after a Seattle punt, Smith caught a 7-yard pass but Craig Terrill forced a fumble that was recovered by Marcus Trufant to seal Seattle's trip to Super Bowl XL in Detroit.

SUPER BOWL XLPITTSBURGH STEELERS 21, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 10
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2006 — FORD FIELD - DETROIT

Playing in the Super Bowl for the first time in their 30-year history, Seattle faced the Pittsburgh Steelers at Ford Field in Detroit, losing 21-10. Both teams were held scoreless on their first two possessions. But on Seattle's ensuing drive, Darrell Jackson caught a 16-yard touchdown only to have it called back because of offensive pass-interference. This forced the Seahawks to settle for a 47-yard field goal by Josh Brown with 0:22 left in the first quarter. Closing the half, Pittsburgh converted a 3rd-and-28 with a 37-yard catch by Hines Ward, which helped set up Ben Roethlisberger's 1-yard score. The Steelers led 7-3 at halftime before scoring on the second play from scrimmage to start the second half as Willie Parker ran right for 75 yards and a touchdown. It was the longest run in Super Bowl history. The Seahawks battled back as Kelly Herndon intercepted Roethlisberger at the Seattle 4-yard line and ran it back 76 yards, the longest interception return in Super Bowl history. Three plays later, Jerramy Stevens caught a 16-yard touchdown from Matt Hasselbeck to pull the Seahawks within 14-10. The Seahawks were on the verge of scoring again when Sean Locklear's holding penalty erased an 18-yard catch by Stevens that would have left the Seahawks at the Pittsburgh 1-yard line. This sent the Seahawks back to the air as Hasselbeck threw an interception in Pittsburgh's territory. The Steelers took advantage of the turnover and with 9:04 to play, the Steelers used some trickery as Antwaan Randle El took a reverse and threw a 43-yard touchdown pass to Ward giving the Steelers a 21-10 lead. On the Seahawks' next possession, they were forced to punt, allowing the Steelers to run the clock down to the two-minute warning before giving Seattle one last shot. The Seahawks drove the ball down to the Pittsburgh 23-yard line before an incompletion on fourth down with :08 remaining in the game.

NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 21, DALLAS COWBOYS 20 SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 2007 — QWEST FIELD

Seattle advanced in the postseason for the second straight year with a 21-20 win in the closing minutes of its Wild Card Game vs. Dallas. The Seahawks got on the board first after their opening drive ended with a Josh Brown 21-yard field goal. Martin Gramatica tied the game 3-3 with a 50-yard field goal. Brown made his second field goal midway through the second quarter for a 6-3 lead, but Tony Romo gave Dallas a 10-6 lead with a 13-yard touchdown toss to Patrick Crayton with 0:11 left before halftime. Seattle took its first second-half possession and regained the lead 13-10 on a Matt Hasselbeck to Jerramy Stevens hookup. However, Miles Austin returned the ensuing kickoff 93 yards for a score, and the lead, 17-13. After Hasselbeck's second interception of the day, Gramatica gave Dallas a 20-13 lead on a 29-yard field goal to open the fourth quarter. Facing a fourth-and-2 from the Dallas 2, the Seahawks scoring attempt was thwarted. On the next play, Kelly Jennings forced Terry Glenn to fumble into the end zone resulting in a safety, making the score 20-15. Following the ensuing free kick, Hasselbeck found Stevens for the second time on the day for a 37-yard score and a 21-20 Seattle lead. Seattle failed on its two-point conversion attempt. On third-and-7 from Seattle's 11-yard line, Romo found Jason Witten for 7 yards but the spot was reviewed by instant replay. The spot was reversed and Gramatica came on for a 19-yard field goal attempt. Romo bobbled the snap, picked it up and rushed 7 yards until being tripped up by Jordan Babineaux at the Seattle 2, 1 yard short of a first down. Seattle took over with 1:14 left and Seattle held on for victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 27, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 24 (OT)

SUNDAY, JANUARY 14, 2007 — SOLDIER FIELD - CHICAGO

The Seahawks season ended to eventual Super Bowl XLI participant the Chicago Bears in overtime, 27-24, in Chicago. The Bears opened the game with a 12-play, 80-yard scoring drive with Thomas Jones taking it in from 9 yards out for the only score in the opening quarter. Seattle's first play to open the second quarter tied the game at 7-7 when Matt Hasselbeck found Nate Burleson for a 16-yard touchdown. However, Chicago took the lead right back as Rex Grossman threw a 68-yard bomb to Bernard Berrian for a 14-7 lead. The teams then forced a combined six punts until the teams each scored once more in the quarter. Shaun Alexander ran for his first of two scores on the day, this from 4 yards out, with Jones answering from 7 yards out to give Chicago a 21-14 halftime lead. Seattle held Chicago to just 52 total yards of offense in the third quarter while scoring 10 points and taking a 24-21 lead into the fourth quarter. Josh Brown opened the third with a 40-yard field goal and Alexander scored his second touchdown of the day from 13 yards out. Following back-to-back interceptions to begin the fourth, each team punted once with Devin Hester's 66-yard punt return for a score called back due to a penalty. The Bears put together a 12-play, 48-yard drive with Robbie Gould tying the game at 24-24 with a 41-yard field goal. On Seattle's next possession at the Chicago 44 with 2:26 left, the Seahawks failed to gain a yard on third-and-1 and fourth-and-1 and turned the ball over. Chicago went three-and-out but Seattle was unable to score in regulation. Seattle won the toss to begin overtime but was forced to punt. Grossman, facing a third-and-10, found Berrian for a 30-gain to the Seattle 36. Four plays later, Gould ended Seattle's season with a 49-yard field goal.

NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 35, WASHINGTON REDSKINS 14 SATURDAY, JANUARY 5, 2008 — QWEST FIELD

The Seahawks won their fourth-consecutive home playoff game trouncing the Washington Redskins 35-14 in front of a Seahawks record postseason crowd of 68,297. The Seahawks' defense stymied the Redskins in the first half jumping out to a 10-0 lead behind Leonard Weaver's postseason club-record 17-yard touchdown run. Josh Brown tied a club record with a second-quarter 50-yard field goal. Seattle tacked on another Brown field goal in the third quarter to take a 13-0 lead. The fourth quarter would see the two teams score 36 combined points beginning with the Redskins who took a 14-13 lead. The Redskins scored on the first play of the fourth quarter when Todd Collins connected with Antwaan Randle El on a 7-yard touchdown pass. On the second play of Seattle's following possession, Redskins safety LaRon Landry intercepted Matt Hasselbeck and Washington turned the turnover into seven points three plays later when Collins found Santana Moss on a 30-yard touchdown pass. On the ensuing kickoff, a gust of wind knocked the kickoff out of the air short of the returners and was recovered by Washington at Seattle's 14-yard line. Seattle's defense forced the Redskins to a 30-yard field goal attempt which missed wide left. Seattle took a 21-14 lead after a 20-yard Hasselbeck-to-D.J. Hackett touchdown connection and a successful two-point conversion. On Washington's first play following Seattle's touchdown, Marcus Trufant intercepted Collins and returned it 78 yards for a touchdown, the first in Seattle postseason history. On Washington's final drive, Seahawks' Jordan Babineaux intercepted Collins and returned it 57 yards for a touchdown.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS GREEN BAY PACKERS 42, SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 20 SATURDAY, JANUARY 12, 2008 — LAMBEAU FIELD

The Seattle Seahawks hopes for returning to another Super Bowl were whited out at Green Bay's Lambeau Field, 42-20, in the NFC Divisional round. Most of the final three quarters were played on a snow-covered field. Seattle jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead in the first five minutes of the game after forcing two Ryan Grant fumbles. Leroy Hill jarred the ball loose on the first play from scrimmage and Lofa Tatupu returned the fumble 12 yards to Green Bay's 1-yard line setting up a Shaun Alexander 1-yard run just 20 seconds into the game. On the Packers' next possession Grant again fumbled after a Brian Russell tackle. Matt Hasselbeck capped the ensuing drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Engram for a 14-0 lead with 10:59 remaining in the first quarter. The Packers roared back tying the game 14-14 by the end of the first quarter. Green Bay capitalized on Seattle's first turnover taking a 21-14 lead after an 18-yard drive that resulted in Brett Favre's second TD pass to Greg Jennings. Seattle tacked on a second-quarter field goal, but the Packers' Ryan Grant scored his second TD on a 3-yard run with 26 seconds remaining in the half for a 28-17 halftime lead. The Packers added to their lead on Favre's third TD pass, this one a 13-yard pass to Brandon Jackson. Josh Brown connected on his second field goal attempt to pull within 35-20 late in the third quarter. Grant's third TD run in the fourth quarter capped the game for the Packers who won 42-20. Grant set a club postseason record with his 201 yards on 27 carries. For Seattle, Bobby Engram led the team with six catches for 67 yards and became the team's all-time leader in the postseason with 35 receptions. Leroy Hill led the team with 11 tackles becoming Seattle's all-time postseason leader with 64.

HALL OF FAME

STEVE LARGENT, WR 1976-89

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Steve Largent became the first Seahawks player to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, January 28, 1995. Largent was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, July 29, along with Jim Finks, Henry Jordan, Lee Roy Selmon, and Kellen Winslow. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by Seahawks' Vice President Gary Wright. Largent was the 23rd player to be elected in his first year of eligibility.

NFL Records: Concluded his 14 National Football League seasons with league career records for receptions, 819; yards, 13,089; touchdowns, 100; consecutive games with a reception, 177; 50-catch seasons, 10; and 1,000-yard seasons, 8. Became only the second player in NFL history to be the career leader in receptions, yards and touchdowns at the same time joining Green Bay's Don Hutson (1945). Ranked third all-time at the time of his retirement with 40-career 100-yard games, trailing Don Maynard (50) and Lance Alworth (41). Still ranks 18th in total touchdowns with 101 (has one rushing), 11th with 40 100-yard games, and is 32nd in combined yards with 13,396.

Pro Career: Finished in the AFC's (or NFC's in 1976) top 10 in receptions 10 times in his first 12 seasons, failing only in 1977 and 1982, and in the top five seven times. Led the AFC in receptions in 1978 with 71 and finished second in 1981 (75) and 1987 (58), and was third in the NFC in 1976 (54). The only NFC wide receiver to catch more passes than Largent in 1976 was Dallas' Drew Pearson (58). Largent's total did lead all rookie wide receivers. Finished in the NFL's top 10 in receiving yards seven times, including a first-place finish in 1985, and a second in 1978, missing the lead by one yard. Missed only 10 games in his career due to injury, including six in 1989 with a broken elbow. Selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game seven times, after the 1978, 1979, 1981, 1984, 1985, 1986, and 1987 seasons. Unable to play in the 1979 game because of a wrist injury. Set the Pro Bowl career yardage record with 236, since surpassed by Jerry Rice with 495, and had 17 Pro Bowl receptions. Originally drafted in the fourth round in 1976 by the Houston Oilers. Was waived by the Oilers on August 24, recalled, and traded to the Seahawks for an eighth-round 1977 draft choice on August 26. The Oilers used that choice to select wide receiver Steve Davis from the University of Georgia.

Seahawks Records: Led the team in both receptions and yards in each of the team's first 12 seasons. Voted by his teammates as the Seahawks' Most Valuable Player after the 1977, 1979, 1981, 1985, and 1987 seasons. Was also elected Offensive Captain from 1979-83 and 1985-89. Second in games played (200) but has more starts (197) than any other player in team history. He was the first player voted into the team's Ring of Honor December 23, 1989.

Personal: Represented the 1st District of the State of Oklahoma for four terms. Was elected to the United States House of Representatives on November 8, 1994, and sworn in on November 29. Re-elected to a second two-year term in 1996, and resigned following his first-year of his fourth-term and sought election as the governor of Oklahoma in November, 2002. Attended Putnam City High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he lettered in football and baseball. Steve and his wife, Terry, have three sons, Kyle, Kelly, and Kramer, and a daughter, Casie.

MIKE McCORMACK 1982-88

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Mike McCormack was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 28, 1984. He was one of four players honored in 1984 along with Arnie Weinmeister, Willie Brown and Charley Taylor. McCormack played with the Cleveland Browns from 1954-1962 and served as head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles (1973-75), Baltimore Colts (1980-81) and Seattle Seahawks (1982). He also served as president and general manager of the Seahawks. In 1993, he was hired by the newly formed Carolina Panthers as their team president and general manager. He retired from the Panthers' organization in 1997.

Pro Career: One of the game's greatest offensive tackles, he began his pro football career with the NFL's 1951 New York Yanks where as a rookie he earned the starting right tackle spot. That year he earned the first of six trips to the Pro Bowl, before being called into military service. The Baltimore Colts, who acquired his rights before the start of the 1953 season, traded him to the Cleveland Browns in a massive 15-player deal. Even though the Browns knew McCormack would not be available for a full year, he was the key man in the trade. Coach Paul Brown always considered it one of his wisest personnel moves. In his first season in Cleveland, McCormack, a former University of Kansas star and Chicago native, was asked to fill the middle guard position that had been vacated by the retiring Bill Willis on the defensive unit. It was a tall order, considering Willis would himself be elected to the Hall of Fame. McCormack, not surprisingly, was up to the challenge. He quickly became an important factor on an excellent Cleveland defensive team. Mike enjoyed perhaps his most memorable individual moment on the defensive team when, in the 1954 NFL Championship Game, he stole the ball from Detroit Lions quarterback Bobby Layne to set up one of the early touchdowns in a 56-10 Cleveland rout. But it was as an offensive tackle that McCormack made his lasting mark in pro football. Mike was the Browns' offensive right tackle for eight years from 1955 through 1962. During that period, the Browns' forward wall played a major role in assuring a balanced offensive approach and McCormack, equally adept as a blocker on rushing plays and as a quarterback protector, was a stabilizing factor throughout the period.

Seahawks Career: In 1982, McCormack joined the Seattle Seahawks as director of football operations, eventually becoming president and general manager the following season. He also served as the Seahawks' interim head coach for the remainder of the 1982 season when Jack Patera was fired after the first two games. McCormack took over during the 57-day players strike and led the team to a 4-3 record. He then returned to his management position when the Seahawks hired Chuck Knox as their new head coach in 1983. Under McCormack's leadership, the Seahawks enjoyed the franchise's finest years until the mid 2000's. During his seven seasons with the team, Seattle reached the postseason four times, including the AFC Championship Game in 1983.

Personal: Married to wife Ann and has four children; Michael, Tim, Molly and Colleen. Was a member of the University of Kansas' all-time team and served as co-captain of the 1950 Jayhawks team.

WARREN MOON QB 1997-98

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Warren Moon was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 4, 2006, the day before the Seahawks played the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL. Moon was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Sunday, August 6, along with Troy Aikman, Harry Carson, John Madden, Reggie White and Rayfield Wright. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by friend, agent and business associate Leigh Steinberg. Moon was the first African-American quarterback to be inducted.

Pro Career: Prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, some NFL scouts suggested that since University of Washington quarterback Warren Moon had played in a rollout rather than a drop-back passing offense, he would be a mid-round pick. Others speculated that since only one African American quarterback, James Harris, had achieved any measurable success in the NFL, Moon would have to play some other position. Regardless of which misguided reason motivated NFL scouts, Moon remained confident of his abilities and opted to sign with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League. He went on to lead the Eskimos to an unprecedented five consecutive Grey Cup victories. Eventually, Moon returned to the United States to play for the Houston Oilers in 1984. He racked up nearly 50,000 passing yards in 17 NFL seasons. Moon set a new club record with 3,338 yards passing in his first year with Houston, a mark he would break four more times. In 1986, when the Oilers installed the run-and-shoot offense, Moon's quarterback skills finally became apparent to all. The wide-open offense showcased Moon's strong arm, running skills, and big-play ability. In 1990, Moon led the league with 4,689 passing yards. He also led the league in attempts (584), completions (362), and touchdowns (33), and tied Dan Marino's NFL record with nine 300-yard games in a season. The following year, he again led the league in passing yards 4,690. At the same time, he joined Hall of Fame quarterbacks Marino and Dan Fouts as the only quarterbacks to post back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons. Moon also established new NFL records that season with 655 attempts and 404 completions. Moon was traded to the Minnesota Vikings before the 1994 season. In his debut season, he passed for 4,264 yards and led the team to the playoffs. In his second season in Minnesota, he again passed for more than 4,200 yards. Moon moved on to the Seattle Seahawks as a free agent in 1997 where the veteran star set franchise records for completions (313) and yards passing (3,678) and earned his ninth Pro Bowl selection. Injuries limited his play in 1998. In 1999, Moon joined the Kansas City Chiefs and spent two seasons as a backup there before retiring. Despite spending his first six professional seasons in the CFL, Moon ranked third all-time in NFL passing yardage and fourth in touchdown passes thrown at the time of his retirement.

Seahawks Records: The 17-year NFL veteran played for the Seahawks from 1997-98, setting the franchise record for passing yards in one season with 3,678 in 1997, surpassed by Matt Hasselbeck in the 2003 season. His 313 completions in 1997 are second-most in club history, behind Hasselbeck's 352 completions in 2007. He also holds the club record for most consecutive completions (17).

Personal: Named the NFL's Man of the Year in 1989 for his work in the community, Warren established the Crescent Moon Foundation in 1989 to raise money for college academic scholarships in Seattle, Los Angeles, Houston, and Minneapolis/St. Paul. He remains active in charity work, co-hosting a celebrity golf tournament with Steve Pool which benefits Seattle's Children's Hospital. Additionally, Warren has worked as an ambassador for the NFL promoting the game of football both nationally and internationally to young people. He returns to the Seahawks radio team for his fifth season and serves as the team's preseason television analyst.

Largent led the team in both receptions and yards in each of the team's first 12 seasons. Second in games played (200) but has more starts (197) than any other player in Seahawks history. After retiring from the game in 1989, Largent would gain political aspirations and represented the 1st District of the State of Oklahoma for four terms. He would then serve and be re-elected for his home state in the United States House of Representatives before resigning in his first-year of his fourth term to pursue the governorship of Oklahoma.

Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1991, Jim Zorn was the starting quarterback for the Seahawks during their inaugural season in 1976 and would remain at the helm for the next seven years. Named the NFC Offensive Rookie of the Year in 1976 as he led the NFL in attempts with 439 and set a then-record 2,571 passing yards, which was also a record for an expansion team. By the end of the 1979 season, Zorn became only the third player to throw for 10,000 yards in his first four seasons. In 1978, he earned numerous accolades, which included being named AFC Player of the Year by the Washington D.C. Touchdown Club and first-team All-NFL by the NEA. Zorn, along with current protégé Matt Hasselbeck, are the only two Seahawks quarterbacks to throw for 300 yards in back-to-back games which he accomplished twice, once in 1979 and again in 1981. Zorn finished his career leading the Seahawks in every passing category amassing 20,122 passing yards and 107 touchdown passes.

Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1992, Dave Brown was an 11-year starter in the Seahawks' secondary from 1976-1986. Coming over from the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Veteran Allocation Draft in 1976, Brown Seattle at the free safety position leading the team with four interceptions. The following season #22 would shift over to the right-side cornerback position where he would be the "cornerstone" of the Seahawks' defense for the next 10 years, picking off another 46 passes, retiring as the all-time Seahawks leader in the category with 50. In 1984, Brown picked off eight passes and was named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad and first-team All-NFL by NFL Films. Two of those interceptions were part of a NFL-record four interception returns for touchdowns on November 4, 1984 against the Kansas City Chiefs. Brown had returns of 90 and 58 yards. Brown retired as the Seahawks' leader in interception return yards (643), interception returns for touchdowns (5), and the aforementioned interceptions (50).

PETE GROSS

Radio

17 Seahawks Seasons

Birthdate: December 28, 1936
Whittier, California
Ring of Honor: November 30, 1992

Inducted into the Seahawks' Ring of Honor in 1992, Pete Gross served as the radio play-by-play for 17 seasons from the Seahawks' inaugural 1976 season through 1992. One of the most beloved people to have ever been associated with the Seahawks' franchise, fans will never forget his numerous "touch-down Seahawks" calls. Over his 17 seasons, Gross called all but the five games he missed in 1992 while battling cancer. His career included eight playoff games and in the 1983 season Gross came within one game of the Super Bowl when Seattle faced the Los Angeles Raiders in the AFC Championship Game. The Seahawks lost that game 30-14. Gross was diagnosed with cancer in 1989. He succumbed to the disease in 1992, just three days after his induction into the Ring. He was inducted into the Ring during a Monday night game versus the Denver Broncos, a game the 2-14 Seahawks won in overtime. Prior to moving to the Seahawks, he was the play-by-play voice of the University of Washington in both football and basketball. He came to Seattle after calling play-by-play for the University of the Pacific. Gross' legacy remains; the Seahawks are actively involved with the Pete Gross House. The Pete Gross House, which opened in November of 1999, is a 69-unit apartment complex that provides housing for families undergoing treatment at the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. The Pete Gross House is also the location of the Hutch School, a fully accredited K through 12 school for cancer patients and their siblings. The Seahawks took an active roll in seeing the project through to completion and annually hold the "Pete Gross House Luncheon" to raise funds for the continued upkeep of the facility.

Gross was inducted into the Seahawks' Ring of Honor during the Seahawks Monday night game versus the Denver Broncos. The Seahawks won the game and presented Gross with the game ball. Gross passed away three days later.

Immediately thrust into the Seahawks' lineup his rookie season, Warner would rush for 1,449 yards and 13 touchdowns highlighted by a then, Seahawks record 207-yard effort against Kansas City. The season was capped off by being named a starter in the Pro Bowl, 1983 AFC Player of the Year by the Washington D.C. Touchdown Club and NFLPA, AFC Offensive Player of the Year by the NFLPA and UPI, second-team All-NFL by the AP and Football Digest and first-team All-Rookie by Pro Football Digest and Pro Football Weekly. After suffering a season-ending injury in the first game of 1984,

Curt would bounce back in 1985 rushing for 1,094 yards and being named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. Warner would not look back his final three seasons leading the team in rushing each year averaging 1,164 a season and 10 touchdowns, including a then Seahawks record four TDs vs. Denver in 1988. Warner would be named to two more Pro Bowls (1986-87) bringing his career total to three, and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Year by the UPI in 1986, and first-team All-NFL by Sports Illustrated in 1987. Curt finished his career with 6,705 yards rushing on 1,649 carries with 62 touchdowns. Jacob Green became the second Seahawks defensive player to be inducted into the Ring of Honor on September 3, 1995. Green was a fixture at the left defensive end position for 11 years (1980-1991). From the time the NFL made it an official statistic in 1982 until his retirement, Jacob was the third-most productive sack artist in the game, trailing only the likes of Lawrence Taylor and Reggie White. In 1983, Green registered a single-game Seahawks record 3.5 sacks against the Los Angeles Raiders, and the NFL's longest interception return for the season, a 73-yard touchdown at Cleveland. The following year, Jacob equaled a team-record four fumble recoveries and registered a then-playoff record 2.5 sacks in a Wild Card game against the Los Angeles Raiders. Jacob's career was highlighted by two Pro Bowl selections in 1986 and 1987. In '86, he set a Seattle record with 4.0 sacks vs. the Giants. Green can be found scattered all over the Seahawks' record book having played in the third-most games (218), second-most starts (176), most fumble recoveries (17), fourth most tackles (779), and most career sacks (116.0).

Kenny Easley was inducted into the Ring of Honor on October 14, 2002, with a sellout crowd and millions watching the Monday Night Football halftime ceremony at home. Easley redefined the strong safety position in seven years from 1981-87. Voted by the Associated Press as the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1984, Kenny had 32 interceptions in his storied career. This fierce hitter registered 107 tackles, three interceptions and returned an interception 82 yards vs. Cleveland in his rookie campaign, earning him AFC Rookie of the Year by the NFL Players' Association. The following season, Kenny would earn the first of five Pro Bowl appearances, including being named a starter from 1983-1985, and again in 1987. The crowning jewel of Easley's career came in 1984 where he spearheaded the NFL's sixth-rated defense that culminated in a Seahawks record 12 wins in the regular season and a Wild Card victory over the rival Los Angeles Raiders. He tied a Seahawks team record by intercepting 10 passes, including three against San Diego on October 29. Easley would be named first-team All-NFL by the Associated Press for the second year in a row and was bestowed that honor again in 1985. Easley finished his career with 498 tackles, seven sacks, 10 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries, and 32 interceptions.

Dave Krieg became the eighth member of the Seahawks' Ring of Honor on September 26, 2004. Krieg spent the first 12 years (1980-1991) of his 19-year NFL playing career with the Seahawks while becoming the club's all-time leader in 31 career, season and single-game passing categories at the time of his departure. He is still at the top of 20 of those categories, including career passing yards (26,132), completions (2,096), attempts (3,576), and touchdowns (195). Krieg originally joined the Seahawks as an undrafted free agent from Milton College in 1980, and became the regular starter nine games into the 1983 season. The three-time Pro Bowler (1984, 1988 and 1989) is the only Seattle quarterback with a playoff victory and led the Seahawks to their only conference championship game in 1983, a club-record 12 wins and the playoffs in 1984, and back-to-back playoff appearances again in 1987 and 1988, since matched and surpassed in 2005 by Matt Hasselbeck.

Ring of Honor: September 25, 2005

Chuck Knox was the ninth member inducted to the Ring. He spent nine of his 22 illustrious seasons at the helm of the Seahawks from 1983-1991, during which time he led Seattle to 80 wins en route to becoming the winningest coach in club history. Compared to 63 losses, his winning percentage of .559 is the second-best among Seattle coaches with at least eight games coached. Knox posted six winning seasons with Seattle and led the Seahawks into postseason play four times. The Seahawks' three playoff wins under Knox were the only postseason wins in club history until 2005. Knox was named NFL Coach of the Year following both the 1983 and 1984 seasons, where Seattle posted a 21-11 record, advanced to the 1983 AFC Championship Game and in 1984 posted the best record in franchise history at the time with a 12-4 mark. One of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches, Knox ranks eighth in league history with 193 career victories (193-158), including playoffs. He was the first coach in NFL history to lead three different franchises to the playoffs and was named NFL Coach of the Year four times while coaching three different teams (L.A. Rams-1973, Bills-1980, Seahawks-1983-84).

A TRADITION CONTINUES

In 2003, the 12th Man was honored once again, this time with a flag. The tradition of the 12th Man Flag began October 12, 2003, when 12 original season ticket holders hoisted the flag versus the San Francisco 49ers. Now, at every home game just before kickoff, the flag is raised in honor of the 12th Man. From former Seahawks greats, to local celebrities and sports personalities, being called upon to raise the flag has become an honor within itself. The flag has become a symbol of Seahawks supporters all over the Northwest and the spirit of community that the organization and fans share.

SEA GALS

28 women make up the Sea Gals, a sideline dance group that balances a busy schedule of practicing, performing and making public appearances in the community throughout the year.

Sherri Thompson, who has been involved with the Sea Gals since 1981 as a squad member (1981-83) and choreographer (1984-86) will begin her 22nd year as director. Her assistants are Robin Houlbjerg and Shannon Kingsley, also former Sea Gals.

In addition to numerous practices and game day performances, the Sea Gals are heavily involved in the community, donating much of their time to benefit local charities and organizations.

The Sea Gals hold an annual fund-raising event to provide Christmas presents for the women and children living at a local women's shelter. The dance group also established the Sea Gal's Guild at Children's Hospital, which they contribute to annually.

The Sea Gals have also developed a "Show Group," a one-hour variety show that includes character dance routines, singing and crowd participation for all ages. The Show Group has performed across the nation, Middle East and European military bases. Information about the Sea Gals can be obtained by accessing www.seahawks.com or by calling (425) 827-9777.

BLITZ

Blitz, the Seahawks mascot is the big blue bird with crazy hair. He makes sure that Qwest Field is the loudest, most exciting place to play in the NFL. He is also the Seahawk's biggest fan! Along with football, Blitz loves to exercise his brain and body. He goes to the gym everyday, eats healthy foods and reads anything he can get his wings on. Blitz also launched a statewide "Ready, Set, Goals" literacy program, designed to enhance reading comprehension, writing, and goal-setting skills among 3rd through 6th grade students. Three classes per month are selected at random to participate in a live video conference with Blitz and a Seahawks player or Sea Gal. Blitz is available for parades, parties and corporate event appearances. For booking information please visit Seahawks.com.

BLUE THUNDER

Seahawks Blue Thunder is the heartbeat of the fans. This high-energy, entertainment drumline was established in 2004 at Qwest Field, performing throughout the stadium before, during and after games. Not your typical drumline, Blue Thunder uses a variety of rhythms and visuals, incorporating rock and roll drumming alongside drum corps style, endearing them to Seahawks fans of all ages. Blue Thunder is also available for parades, parties and corporate event appearances.

For booking information please visit Seahawks.com.

KIDS CLUB

The Seattle Seahawks Kids Club is the premier kids club in the Pacific Northwest, offering young fans, 14 and under, the opportunity to uniquely connect with the Seattle Seahawks. Members enjoy benefits such as a membership kit, exclusive events, member only e-blasts, contests, and special mailings throughout the year. Fans can sign up online at Seahawks.com.

The Seattle Seahawks are dedicated to providing our fans with a unique game-day entertainment experience. Part of this commitment to the fan experience is the development of American Family Insurance Touchdown City. Located in the Qwest Field Event Center, American Family Insurance Touchdown City is a high energy interactive theme park where fans can experience the pageantry and spectacle of the NFL before each Seahawks home game.

American Family Insurance Touchdown City has something for fans of all ages and interests. You can test your quarterbacking accuracy, get timed in the 40 yard dash, and participate in other interactive exhibits that test your football skills or knowledge. For those who want to relax and watch NFL games from across the country, there's Budweiser's "Linebacker Lounge," a NFL themed section with giant projection screens that show all NFL games from around the league, energizing performances by the Sea Gals, the Seahawks "Blue Thunder" drumline and Chalk Talk with Steve Rabile and Warren Moon.

American Family Insurance Touchdown City features more than twenty-five entertaining exhibits including a full scale Seahawks locker room replica, inflatable games, a broadcast booth where fans make the calls, Measure up to the Pros football combine, 710 KIRO's pre-game broadcast stage, Seahawks Alumni autographs, face painting booth, and energizing performances by the Sea Gals and the Seahawks "Blue Thunder" drumline.

Admission into Touchdown City is free and open to all Seahawks fans three hours before each home game. Touchdown City is located inside the Qwest Field Event Center, which is connected to the south end of Qwest Field.

SEA HAWKERS 2008

Just as the Seattle Seahawks are entering 2008 with renewed energy, the Sea Hawks Booster Club enters the new year with some energy of their own.

MEMBERSHIP

There is strength in numbers, and this year the Sea Hawks will be looking to attract a new legion of members. The Sea Hawks will be actively recruiting through membership drives, as well as an increased visibility in the media, in the stands, and in the community. Look for them at an event near you!

BENEFITS

In 2008, a Sea Hawks Membership Card will be your ticket to events not available to the general public. The Sea Hawks have always enjoyed "members-only" events: a BBQ at the Kirkland Headquarters, the annual Sea Hawks Spring Banquet at the stadium, and much more. However, this year that list includes a Sea Hawks-only tailgate area at the Qwest Events Center prior to each game.

CHARITY EVENTS

Since their inception in 1976, the Sea Hawks have been involved in helping charities throughout the community. This year the Sea Hawks will again support the Boyer's Children's Clinic "Thunder Ride," and many other Seahawks supported charity events.

The Sea Hawks expect to do great things in 2008. Join us and be part of the fun! Call us at 1-888-Hawk-Fan or visit us in the Fan Zone at www.Seahawks.com.

SEAHAWKS PRO SHOP

Located inside Qwest Field, the Seahawks Pro Shop features official sideline product and the best selection of Seahawks merchandise available. Shoppers will find everything from Seahawks sweatshirts to water bottles, as well as their favorite player's jersey.

During the season, fans are encouraged to come meet their favorite player at the weekly autograph sessions. For the best selection of Seahawks merchandise, fans can also shop www.seahawks.com and visit the Pro Shop online. For more information fans can call 206-682-2900.

A TRADITION CONTINUES

KEEPING THE SEAHAWKS LEGACY ALIVE

Seahawks alumni continue to make their mark off the playing field by making various appearances year after year.

After giving their heart and soul during their playing days with the Seahawks and the National Football League, they continue that drive and urgency off the field well after their professional playing days are over.

Seahawks alumni in the state of Washington made over 150 appearances in 2007. Those visits ranged from community celebrations to check presentations and everything in between.

Former players like Charley Young, (TE, 1983-85), Sam Adkins (QB, 1977-82), Blair Bush (C, 1983-88), Randall Morris (RB, 1984-88), and Manu Tuiasosopo (DT, 1979-83) all participated in community events that left lasting impressions on everyone involved.

Seahawks alumni are also successful in business and politics as well.

Steve Largent (WR, 1976-89) is the lone Seahawks player in the NFL Hall of Fame and has made his mark in national politics as a U.S. Congressman in the 1st District of the State of Oklahoma. In 2002, his run for Governor of Oklahoma was unsuccessful, but he continues to make a difference with community organizations.

His 13,089 yards and 100 touchdowns made him an instant choice for the prestigious honor in his first year of eligibility. He is in the Seahawks Ring of Honor (1989) and was inducted into the Washington Sports Hall of Fame.

Seahawks Ring of Honor inductee Jacob Green, (DE, 1980-91), gives back to the community year in and year out.

Green, the Seahawks' all-time sack leader with 116.0, is the celebrity host of a golf outing each year. The Jacob Green Charity Golf Classic benefits the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center and has raised over a million dollars since 1988.

Steve Raible (WR, 1976-81) an original member of the Seahawks, now enters his 27th season broadcasting Seahawks games for KIRO Radio.

Sam McCullum (WR, 1976-81), is the president and owner of Meat Distributors and Central Food Sales in Kirkland and Renton, Wash. McCullum ranks in three receiving categories: pass receptions, receiving yards, and receiving touchdowns. He now supplies meat to restaurants, hotels, and schools in Washington.

Kenny Easley (S, 1981-87) is the former owner of the Norfolk Nighthawks, an Arena Football League team in Virginia. His three interceptions versus the San Diego Chargers in October 1984 still ties a Seahawks record. In 2002, Easley became only the sixth player to be inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor.

WARREN MOON - ANALYST

Hall of Fame quarterback, Warren Moon, returns to the Seahawks radio team for his fifth season after serving as the preseason television analyst for the previous two seasons. He has spent recent years as a Westwood One radio analyst and sideline reporter and also spent time in the booth during Fox Sports Net's Pac-10 College Game of the Week.

The 17-year NFL veteran played for the Seahawks from 1997-98, setting the franchise record for passing yards in one season with 3,678 in 1997, surpassed by Matt Hasselbeck in the 2003 season. He also ranks in the top-three of 11 categories all-time in the NFL record books, including most career passing yards (third with 49,325), most career completions (third with 3,988), most yards passing in a single game (second with 527) and most career 400+ passing games (tied for second with seven).

SEATTLE SOUNDERS FC

When Qwest Field was approved in June of 1997, it was intended to house both football and soccer. Eleven years later, Vulcan Sports & Entertainment, along with Majority Owner Joe Roth, Minority Owner Adrian Hanauer and Minority Owner Drew Carey made this dream come true. In 2009, the world-class stadium will be the home of the Seattle Sounders FC.

The Seattle Sounders FC announced a multi-year sponsorship with Microsoft Corp. and Xbox 360 video game and entertainment system on May 28, 2008. The landmark deal is highlighted by the 'Xbox 360 LIVE' logo featured prominently on the Sounders FC jersey. Sounders FC will debut its new uniforms when the team takes the field for the first time in Spring 2009.

Xbox 360 also will be featured as the presenting sponsor of the Sounders FC annual international tour and will gain entitlement to the team's playing surface, "The Xbox Pitch at Qwest Field". Xbox 360 will be recognized as the official and exclusive video game console of Major League Soccer.

At the heart of the sponsorship is a commitment from the Sounders FC and Xbox 360 to collaborate in developing the team's overall community and philanthropic initiatives.

Additionally, the sponsorship gives Xbox 360 the right to use MLS league and team marks along with logos and marketing assets at league and select team events such as the Pepsi MLS All-Star Game and MLS Cup, Major League Soccer's championship game. The agreement includes player appearances, intellectual property, title nights, website presence, in-stadium exposure - including Xbox 360 fieldboards to be displayed at every MLS game. Xbox 360 also will be a sponsor of MLS grassroots and community initiatives including MLS Futbolito, the League's official 4-v-4 soccer tournament.

In 1996, Paul G. Allen obtained an option to purchase the Seattle Seahawks and launched a campaign to win public support for a new world-class football/soccer stadium and exhibition center. Six years later, the dream became reality as the Seahawks opened the 2002 pre-season against the Indianapolis Colts in new Seahawks Stadium, renamed Qwest Field on June 2, 2004. The facility, built atop of the site of the Kingdome, is not only home to the Seahawks, but the stadium accommodates many levels of soccer competition, including Major League Soccer, amateur, international, World Cup and collegiate soccer.

Qwest Field is designed with a 67,000 seat capacity, with 5,000 additional seats available for special events, and 1,400 seats for fans with disabilities. With a roof covering 70 percent of the seating area, fans will enjoy wide, comfortable seats with sideline seating a mere 52 feet from the playing field and end-zone seats just 40 feet from the action. The facility also features a dozen elevators and expansive concourses with an ample provision of concessions stands and restrooms.

In addition to having perfect views of the field and surrounding areas, fans experience elements of diversity and culture in part of the Stadium Art Program. In 1998, a request for qualifications yielded a total of 254 responses from around the United States and Canada. After reviewing the full range of submissions, 12 artists and projects were selected. Today, the stadium includes nearly $2 million worth of art. For more information about the Seahawks new home, go to qwestfield.com.

QWEST FIELD FUNDING

The $430 million facility is owned by the public and was funded by a private-public partnership. Private contributions totaled at least $130 million, while the public contributed up to $300 million through a lottery and a variety of taxes generated by events in the stadium/exhibition center.

A breakdown of the funding package:

- $130 million private investment led by Paul Allen
- $127 million from new, sports related games, similar to the Mariners' baseball-themed scratch games
- $101 million in sales taxes collected in King County attributable to events in the stadium/exhibition center
- $56 million from facility admission and parking taxes
- $15 million from extending King County's share of the existing hotel-motel tax
- $1 million per year of in-kind advertising for the new lottery games will be provided by Paul Allen
- All excess stadium revenues will fund youth athletic facilities throughout Washington State in addition to a $10 million contribution from Paul Allen
- $14 million of the public contribution will come from interest earned on the $50 million private contribution from Paul Allen
- Paul Allen agreed to pay for any construction cost overruns
- As an added measure, the debt on the Kingdome was retired, freeing property taxes for other purposes

FIRST & GOAL INC.

In June of 1997, Washington State voters approved a funding package to build a new football/soccer stadium and exhibition center. With that, Paul G. Allen and Football Northwest created First & Goal Inc., an entity that represented the interests of Qwest Field in the construction of the new stadium and now manage the stadium and exhibition center on a daily basis.

The building itself, contained 52,800 cubic yards of concrete and 443 tons of structural steel.

It was 250 feet high and 660 feet across to the inside walls making it wider than the Space Needle is tall.

The roof and ceiling renovation was $70 million.

The total debt on the Kingdome is $127 million with the majority of it due to be retired in the year 2016.

Annual payments of $6.3 million are received from a 2% hotel/motel room tax and a 1% rental car tax. This pays for the original construction, the roof and ceiling repair and millions of dollars in improvements.

The stadium employed 70 full-time staff and up to 1,200 part-time event personnel.

At one point, the Kingdome was home to four professional sports- baseball, football, basketball and soccer (Seattle Sounders).

The Kingdome was imploded on March 26, 2000.

HUSKY STADIUM

The Seattle Seahawks played their entire 2000 and 2001 home schedule at Husky Stadium. With the demolition of the Kingdome and creation of the new football stadium, the Seahawks looked to the home of the Washington Huskies for the 2000 and 2001 NFL seasons.

Seating capacity at Husky Stadium for Seahawks games was 68,589, with nearly 70 percent of those seats between the end-zones.

The Seahawks played three regular season and two preseason games at the stadium in 1994, when ceiling tiles fell from the Kingdome's roof.

Built in 1902 at a cost of $600,000, the stadium's initial capacity was 30,000. The stadium officially opened on November 27, 1920, when Dartmouth defeated the University of Washington, 28-7.

Capacity was increased to 40,000 in 1936 and again to 55,000 in 1950. The second of these upgrades included roof-covered seats in the south stands and cost $1.7 million.

The current press box was originally constructed as part of the 1950 expansion.

An additional 4,000 seats were added in 1968, to take capacity to 59,000.

Husky Stadium became just the second stadium to don AstroTurf, when it replaced the original natural grass in 1968. The University of Washington supplied more than 200 pairs of shoes for opponents, due to the rarity of the surface.

The turf was replaced in 1972, 1977, 1987, 1995, and new FieldTurf was laid down in 2000.

Seating capacity increased one more time in 1987, in a $13 million project.

KIRKLAND HEADQUARTERS

From June 18, 1986 through training camp of 2008, the Seattle Seahawks office and training headquarters was located adjacent to Northwest College in Kirkland, Washington.

The two-story building went through major renovation that was completed in 1999, to create a first-class facility. The lower-level houses meeting rooms, locker rooms for the players and coaches, training and equipment rooms as well as an expanded strength and conditioning area.

Upstairs houses the administrative offices, coaches offices, and conference rooms.

The Seahawks are able to practice on three regulation fields, two natural grass and one artificial turf. The original turf field was replaced by a new one in 1997. That field is then covered by an inflatable bubble as the weather worsens.

To reach the headquarters from Seattle,

From Sea-Tac Airport, follow the signs to I-405 North. Exit onto Highway 520 Westbound (Seattle) after 20-25 minutes. Take Highway 520 from I-405 and exit onto 108th Avenue NE. Turn right at the stop light at the end of the exit and proceed up the hill on 108th. Go approximately one mile to NE 53rd Street and turn right. Turn left at top of the hill into the visitor's parking area.

The Seahawks ticket offices are located inside Qwest Field. Fans may purchase tickets in person at the stadium's ticket windows, by phone or via www.seahawks.com. Questions during the week may be directed to one of the following offices:
