CEDRICK HARDMAN, above is in his seventh year as starting right defensive end for the 49ers, and is now generally recognized as one of the top defensive ends in the NFL. One of two 49er No. 1 draft choices prior to the 1970 season (Bruce Taylor was the other), Hardman made his second Pro Bowl appearance for the NFC after last season.

The San Francisco 49ers, oldest original major league professional football franchise west of the Mississippi, begin their 31st year representing San Francisco and the Bay Area with the 1976 season, and their 31st year under the basic original ownership with which they began.

Over the previous 30 years, the 49ers have established themselves among the most exciting and colorful teams in professional football. There have been great players, great games and highly-successful seasons.

And there has been established a lasting tradition for operating as an always first class organization.

That reputation did not come easily and is the result of a strong pioneering effort—and enduring faith.

When Anthony J. "Tony" Morabito, the club's founder, watched the first 49er team take the field in 1946, he had set in motion the first major league professional sports operation ever to originate in the State of California.

Tony, later joined by his younger brother, Victor, survived those early days, many of them tough, struggling days, to achieve a level of success with the 49ers which enabled sports fans of Northern California, in fact, the entire state, to enjoy what has become one of the national hotbeds of professional sport.

In the beginning, the 49ers were members of the All-America Football Conference. They joined the National Football League prior to the 1950 season.

Tony Morabito passed away during the 1957 season, to be succeeded by Vic Morabito as the club's chief executive officer. Upon Vic's death, in 1964, Louis G. Spadia, then general manager, became the team's top working executive. He was named president prior to the 1967 season.

The San Francisco 49ers are a limited partnership with the major interest being held by Mrs. Raymond Fox and Mrs. Victor P. Morabito.

FORTY NINER PROSPECTUS — 1976

NEW COACH — NEW APPROACH . . .

Although yet to coach a down as a head coach, Monte Clark, the new man at the controls of the San Francisco 49ers, has altered the personality, character—and prospects—of the team to such an extent that there is strong feeling that the 49ers will soon be back in the midst of the title chase in the National Football League.

Most of the excitement stems from a two-trade "package" conceived and executed by Clark shortly after he was named to succeed Dick Nolan as 49er head coach following the 1975 season in which San Francisco won five games, lost nine to finish a distant second, behind Los Angeles, in the NFC Western Division.

The first deal sent nine-year veteran quarterback Steve Spurrier to the newly franchised Tampa Bay Buccaneers in return for two players, wide receiver Willie McGee, obtained by Tampa from Los Angeles, and young linebacker Bruce Elia, a 1975 rookie with Miami, and Tampa's bonus choice in the second round of the college draft.

Only days after that trade, Clark dropped the other shoe, in effect, by announcing that San Francisco had acquired quarterback Jim Plunkett, former Heisman Trophy winner and Stanford All-American, from the New England Patriots, for two first-round draft choices in 1976, a first and second in 1977, and young quarterback Tom Owen.

Thus, with that package, Clark accomplished a number of positives such as (1) stabilizing the unsettled quarterback situation which had troubled the 49ers ever since the retirement of John Brodie in 1973; (2) bringing back to The Bay Area a player whose fabulous career at Stanford had made him one of the area's all-time favorites; and (3) added youthful depth at positions where the club was in need (wide receiver, linebacker).

McGee, a former collegiate sprinter from Alcorn A&M, is considered a "burner" (he has run the 100-yd. dash in 9.1) and a possible challenger to incumbent wide receivers Terry Beasley and Gene Washington, and Elia, also with good speed, was a 4th-round choice by the Dolphins out of Ohio State and had an impressive rookie year at Miami.

Standing with Plunkett at quarterback will be 15-year veteran Norm Snead, who completed 108 of 189 passes for 1,337 yards and nine TDs before giving up the starting job to Spurrier just past midpoint last year, a drafted rookie, Scott Bull, of Arkansas, Rick Worley, who returns from Canada after having been a 12th-round 49er draft choice in 1975, and two other free agent signees.

And even without a first-round choice, San Francisco's 1976 draft is considered a potentially helpful one. Their first pick was UCLA center Randy Cross, 6-3, 245, and they used the Tampa pick to choose Eddie Lewis, 172-pound cornerback from Kansas. Both of those players will compete at positions where help and depth are needed.

In the fourth round, the 49ers went for Steve Rivera, the gritty little wide receiver from California, compared, by Clark, to Miami's skillful veteran Howard Twilley. That, too, was a popular decision in the 49ers' home area.

In yet another aspect of the "new coach, new approach" theme, Clark moved the 49ers' pre-season training camp from the University of California at Santa Barbara, some 350 miles away from The Bay Area, to nearby San Jose State University, just 45 miles from San Francisco.

At 39, Clark is the youngest, and at 6-6, 250, also the biggest head coach in the NFL. He comes to San Francisco, where he began his professional career as a player in 1959, after a six-year stint as Don Shula's chief offensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins where he was considered one of the main architects of that club's rise to championship prominence.

JIM PLUNKETT

NORM SNEAD

CHANGES, CHANGES . . .

In San Francisco, Clark takes over a team that has experienced three troubled years (1973, 5-9; 1974, 6-8; 1975, 5-9) after having won NFC Western Division titles in 1970-71-72.

Yet, despite the disappointments of recent seasons, the 49ers do possess a number of strong points upon which the new coach can build.

On offense, there is a cadre of young running backs with quality—Delvin Williams, who averaged 5.4 yards a carry last year, just a 10th of a yard behind league leader O. J. Simpson, Wilbur Jackson, the club's No. 1 draft choice in 1974, and former UCLA All-American Kermit Johnson, all at halfback, along with fullbacks Larry Schreiber and Sammy Johnson.

Williams and Schreiber were the starters most of 1975 with Williams picking up 631 yards in 117 carries. Clark has indicated there may be a training camp look at Jackson as a fullback bringing up the possibility of a Williams-Jackson backfield tandem, an awesome prospect to devotees of speed. And both are good receivers.

The wide receiver spots are manned by superbly talented people, seven-year veteran Gene Washington, who caught nine TD passes last year despite the 49ers' offensive stutters, and four-year man Terry Beasley, who matured greatly in 1975. Both are former No. 1 draft choices. The addition of McGee should be a big help and the rookie Rivera is expected to make a strong run.

Note: The last time Gene Washington and Jim Plunkett played together, in Gene's senior season and Jim's sophomore year at Stanford, the combination resulted in 71 completions and eight TDs.

At tight end there is tough veteran Tom Mitchell and a free agent signee from last year, Bill Larson. Mitchell played hurt all of last year and did a good, gutty job in catching 25 passes and three TDs, but help is needed here and the club was unable to draft what it considered a suitable prospect.

That leaves the offensive line. There is good veteran talent here, guards John Watson and Woody Peoples, tackle Cas Banaszek, but the unit simply hasn't worked very well the past couple of seasons.

Clark has faced this sort of problem before at Miami where he took a number of "castoffs" from other teams and turned them into one of the NFL's best. He will probably call on young giants like Jean Barrett, 6-6, 254, Keith Fahnhorst, 6-6, 265, Jeff Hart, 6-5, 266, along with the rookie Cross, to take a very active part in the reconstruction project.

Bill Reid, the surprising free agent who surfaced to be the team's starting center last year, figures to get a lot of competition for the job, both from Cross and from Barrett, who has started at the position before.

San Francisco's defense, which spent a lot of time on the field in 1975, is considered good (it finished 10th overall in the NFL last year, ninth against the rush, 11th against the pass), but it, too, has needs.

The front four is tough with ends Cedrick Hardman, San Francisco's only Pro Bowl selection last year, and Tommy Hart, and tackles Bob Hoskins and Bill Sandifer. Two rookies from last year, No. 1 choice Jimmy Webb, at tackle, and No. 4 choice Cleveland Elam, at end, made strong impressions in 1975 so the line is young, talented and aggressive.

DELVIN WILLIAMS

GENE WASHINGTON

MORE TO COME . . .

Hart enters his ninth season, Hardman and Hoskins their seventh and Sandifer his third. Forty Niner defenders tackled opposing passers 40 times last season, fourth-best in the NFC.

At linebacker, veteran Frank Nunley enters his 10th season after having survived a number of challenges for his starting spot in the middle. He'll face still another challenge from second-year man Greg Collins and from Elia, whose speed and agility make him a prospect.

The outside jobs will be contested by Skip Vanderbundt, in his eighth year, Dave Washington, entering his seventh after having been acquired from Buffalo just prior to last season and Willie Harper, who struggled with injury during much of last season.

Vanderbundt and Washington were the starters through most of 1975, but Harper, a fine player who enters just his fourth year, played quite a bit, and well, in the latter stages of the season. He had been a starter before injury struck him down.

It is in the defensive secondary where there is most concern. The brilliant Jimmy Johnson, still a cornerback after 15 superlative years in the NFL, is now 38 years old, but will return with skills undiminished, for his 16th season.

Bruce Taylor is sound, sometimes outstanding at the right cornerback spot, but strong safety Mel Phillips, one of the best at that job in the league, has broken an arm five times in the past three seasons and his situation is in question.

Regular free safety Ralph McGill was also injured much of last season and his full recovery will be closely checked during the training period.

With both Phillips and McGill out last year, young Tim Anderson, in his first year in the NFL after four years of Canadian football, worked at strong safety and four-year veteran Windlan Hall played at free safety.

Nate Allen, gained in a trade from Kansas City, backed up at the corners.

However, the "iffy" situation prompted the drafting of Lewis, the Kansas cornerback, Anthony Leonard, a cornerback from Virginia Union, and strong safety Jay Chesley, from Vanderbilt.

Forty Niner kickers are good. Punter Tom Wittum finished third-ranked in the NFL, second in the NFC with a 41.9 average after having been the NFC Pro Bowl punter the previous two seasons.

TOM WITTUM

Rookie place kicker Steve Mike-Mayer was erratic as a field goal kicker (although he hit 50%), but is a deep kickoff specialist, and, besides, he endeared himself forever to 49er fans with a last-second 54-yarder that beat the Rams in Los Angeles.

San Francisco lost Manfred Moore, a reserve running back but a superb special teams player, to Tampa in the expansion draft, but the acquisition of McGee and the presence of Taylor, McGill and Kermit Johnson provide them with plenty of kick return talent. It is in kick coverage where Moore's loss may be most keenly felt.

Many of the 49er problems have already been attacked, perhaps solved, but there are still others to be handled. On the basis of his fast start, nobody's betting that Monte Clark won't handle them.

GEDRICK HARDMAN

BY POSITIONS . . .

OFFENSE

Receivers: Gene Washington, entering his eighth season as a professional, remains one of the top wide receivers in the NFL, now ranks ninth among active receivers in the NFC, 13th in the entire NFL. In his seven seasons to date, he has caught 306 passes for 5,569 yards and 48 TDs. Overall per catch average is 18.2 yards. Terry Beasley, entering just his fourth year, is the other returning starter. A No. 1 draft choice out of Auburn prior to the 1972 season, Beasley played hardly at all during his first two seasons due to injury, but he made it through 1974 injury-free and stepped into a starting job last year. Has great speed. The 49ers picked up speed burner Willie McGee, former Alcorn A&M sprinter who has run the 100-yd dash in 9.1, a player many observers feel is just beginning to hit his stride after three years in the league (one with San Diego, two with Los Angeles). McGee is the only other veteran. San Francisco drafted California's fireball Steve Rivera, 3rd-ranked receiver in the NCAA last year, in the fourth round and added Kenny Harrison, from SMU, in the ninth. At tight end tough Tom Mitchell returns after having played injured virtually all of 1975. Behind him are veterans Bill Larson and Len Garrett, both signed on as free agents last year and played very little. Larson caught five passes and Garrett, a late addition, none. SUMMARY: The starters are excellent and the addition of McGee could be a major one. The speed present in the wide receivers gives the club a constant deep threat from both positions.

TERRY BEASLEY

Running Backs: This unit is staffed with fine, young talent. Larry Schreiber is the elder as he enters his sixth year, while the other veterans, Delvin Williams, Wilbur Jackson and Sammy Johnson, all enter their third season and Kermit Johnson only his second. Williams was the club's leading ground gainer last year with 631 yards in 117 carries for a 5.4 average, an average second in the NFL only to O. J. Simpson's 5.5. He and Schreiber were the starters with Jackson and Sammy Johnson as the backup men. Kermit Johnson played very little. The 49ers drafted two running backs, Paul Hofer, from Mississippi, in the 11th round, and Darrell Jenkins, from San Jose State, in the 17th. Coach Clark has indicated that Jackson will get a good look as a fullback in training camp. SUMMARY: A young group with great promise whose talents should be just maturing.

WILBUR JACKSON

Quarterback: The acquisition of Jim Plunkett stabilizes an unsettled situation which has troubled the 49ers since John Brodie's retirement in 1973. Plunkett, entering his sixth season, and with a clean bill of health after a struggle with injuries last year, is considered one of the fine young QBs in the game and, while Coach Clark is quick to point out that it is unrealistic to think the 49ers are just one or two players away from greatness, Plunkett's joining the 49ers is one of the most positive moves the team could have made. In addition to his obvious playing talents, Plunkett is a great favorite in the Bay Area and his presence should inject new enthusiasm, both from within the club and from its followers. Veteran Norm Snead, who started the first seven games last season and wound up the 5th-ranked passer in the NFC, will serve as the backup. In addition, there will be four rookie aspirants in training camp—Scott Bull, 6th-round draft choice from Arkansas, Rick Worley, drafted 12th out of Howard Payne last year, but decided to play in Canada. and free agent Jack Graham, of Colorado State. SUMMARY: This is now a good, sound position with a certified leader in Plunkett, a veteran backup man in Snead and some strong potential among the rookies.

BY POSITIONS . . .

Line: There are good veterans—tackles Cas Banaszek and John Watson, and guard Woody Peoples—to blend with a group of highly-promising young players like Keith Fahnhorst, Jean Barrett and Jeff Hart, all of whom played last year, but not consistently enough for this to form into a cohesive unit. Bill Reid, a free agent last year who wound up with the starting center job, will probably face competition from Barrett, who has started at the position in the past, and rookie Randy Cross, from UCLA. Cross was the first player San Francisco drafted this year with their first of two-second-round choices. He could also play guard. Other offensive line draftees were tackle John Ayers (8th), from West Texas State, and Gerald Loper (12th), a guard from Florida. SUMMARY: Good personnel with a balanced blend of veteran and youthful talent. Could develop into an outstanding unit.

BOB HOSKINS

DEFENSE

Line: Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart continue as a fine set of defensive ends with last year's performance from Hardman confirming the judgment—and the promise—that made him a first-round draft choice six years ago. He was All-Pro on a number of selections and the 49ers' only invitee to the Pro Bowl. Last year also saw an increase in defensive pressure from the inside with tackles Bob Hoskins and Bill Sandifer, and, later, rookie Jimmy Webb, all doing a good job. Cleveland Elam, a 4th-round choice from Tennessee State, showed outstanding promise as a rookie in a backup role to Hardman and Hart. One of the results of the overall improvement was that the 49ers sacked opposing QBs 40 times last season, 4th-best in the NFC. Also returning will be six-year veteran Rolf Krueger, back after 2 year's retirement. There will be two drafted rookies in camp—tackle Johnny Miller (14th), from Livingstone College, and end Reggie Lewis (16th), from San Diego State. SUMMARY: There are three No. 1 choices among the veterans (Hardman, Sandifer and Webb). This is a strong unit that should do nothing but improve.

FRANK NUNLEY

Linebackers: Good veterans in Skip Vanderbundt, Frank Nunley, Dave Washington and Willie Harper, plus a strong addition in the person of Bruce Elia, a Miami rookie last year who comes to San Francisco via Tampa. Elia is expected to challenge Nunley and last year's 2nd-round choice, Greg Collins, of Notre Dame, in the middle. Harper, an outstanding young player, injured a foot last year and was never able to mount the All-Pro candidacy expected of him, but Washington, acquired in a trade from Buffalo in pre-season, did an outstanding job filling the right side position. Harper will be back and healthy and the competition for the outside linebacking jobs should be intense. Jim Sniadecki, a former 49er back from the WFL, also joins the competition. Among the newcomers in the battle will be USC's Dale Mitchell, 13th-round choice last year who was injured all season, and drafted rookies Robert Pennywell (6a), from Grambling, and Howard Stidman (15th), from Tennessee Tech. SUMMARY: Harper's return to health and the addition of Elia's speed should improve the overall situation at linebacker. There are good veterans here.

BY POSITIONS . . .

Secondary: The return, for his 16th season, of Jimmy Johnson, the most respected 49er of them all, is of key importance here. He had talked of retiring, but agreed to give his former teammate, Coach Monte Clark, at least one more year. Johnson has been a starter at left cornerback for San Francisco for 14 of his 15 seasons (the one year he was not, he was a starting wide receiver), and, even though he will be 38 this year, his skills have not visibly diminished and he has had two good years in 1974-75. Last year he won the club's Len Eshmont Award for the second time in his career, the first 49er ever to win it twice since its inception in 1957. On the right corner Bruce Taylor, who goes into his seventh season, has also had two good years back-to-back and has stayed healthy. He is now considered a good, reliable cornerback. Backup man to both Johnson and Taylor is five-year veteran Nate Allen, acquired in a trade from Kansas City last year. Battle-scarred Mel Phillips, who has broken an arm five times in the last three seasons, will make another run at strong safety, where, when healthy, he is considered among the NFL's best. He made it through nine games last year, but Windlan Hall and reclaimed rookie Tim Anderson finished up the year. When regular free safety Ralph McGill was hurt, Hall had to move to that vacancy and Anderson, a 49er No. 1 choice in 1971 who returned after four years in Canada, finished the year as the starting strong safety. The return to health of both Phillips and McGill is very important here. San Francisco used the 2nd-round draft choice it got from Tampa in the Spurrier trade to choose Eddie Lewis, a cornerback from Kansas, and also drafted Anthony Leonard (5th), from Virginia Union, also a cornerback, Jay Chesley (7th), a strong safety from Vanderbilt, and Larry Brumfield (13th), from Indiana State. SUMMARY: Johnson's return and the health of Mel Phillips and Ralph McGill are of great importance. If all goes well, this is an eminently effective group.

BRUCE TAYLOR

SPECIAL TEAMS

The 49ers lost an outstanding special teams man when Tampa Bay picked up running back Manfred Moore in the expansion selection. Moore led the team in kickoff returns and was second in punt returns and was the "wedge-breaker" on kick coverage. However, there are a number of good return men available such as Taylor and McGill, who have each led the NFC at least once in punt returns, Kermit Johnson and Mike Holmes. And Willie McGee was the Rams' leading kickoff returner last year. Punter Tom Wittum is one of the best in the NFL, having represented the club in the Pro Bowl two times. Last year, despite having three kicks blocked, he finished second in the NFC and third in the NFL with a 41.9-yds. average. He is the top active punter in the NFC with a three-year average of 42.3. Steve Mike-Mayer returns for his second year after having hit 50% of his field goal attempts in 1975, his longest being a 54-yarder against the Rams to win the game in the final minutes. Mike-Mayer is also a strong kickoff man. Wittum can also placekick, if needed, and former 49er placekicker Bruce Gossett, inactive last year, will be back for another shot.

PRO: Drafted by Kansas City on the 11th round prior to the 1971 season and spent two seasons as a backup cornerback and special teams player before taking over as the Chiefs' starting left cornerback in 1973. Acquired by the 49ers just prior to the 1975 season. Allen played in all 14 games in 1975, starting three at right cornerback when Bruce Taylor was out with an injury. No. 26 WILLIAM TIM ANDERSON Off-Season
 Pos. Born Ht. Wt. College NFL Yr. Residence
S 8/1/49 (27) 6-0 194 Ohio State 2 Foster City, Cal.
Joined 49ers: No. 1 prior to the 1971 season.

PRO: Selected by the 49ers in the first round of the 1971 draft but signed with Toronto of the CFL. Played four seasons with Toronto before becoming a free agent and signing with the 49ers prior to the 1975 season. Played safety his first year in Canada and then was switched to cornerback. A broken leg cut short his 1972 season but he bounced back and was named All-CFL in 1973. Played in 13 games for the 49ers in 1975, starting two games at strong safety in place of the injured Mel Phillips.

COMMENT: From Tim Anderson on his reputation as a hitter—"I try to hit people, hit them hard. I have the ability to hit real nice. That's why I like strong safety. It's a good position for someone who likes hitting and has the desire to compete. I was a cornerback in college and Canada. A corner really just concentrates on the man he's covering, but a strong safety has to do more thinking. You have to make more defensive calls, you're more in the pass coordination and you have to force the run. There's a lot of action at strong safety."

COLLEGE: Consensus All-America at Ohio State where he gained a reputation as an intelligent player and a consistent hard hitter. Teamed with Jack Tatum (now of the Oakland Raiders) to give the Big 10 and Rose Bowl champion Buckeyes one of the best collegiate defensive backfields in the country.

PERSONAL: Born in Colliers, W. Vir., graduated from Follansbee HS, Follansbee, W. Vir. Lettered four years in football as a running back and was named All-State his final two prep seasons when he gained over 2,000 yards rushing. Also earned four letters as a baseball pitcher. Married, wife's name is Dianne. They have a son, Tim, Jr., age 3.

No. 79 CASIMIR JOSEPH (Cas) BANASZEK (BANA-zek)

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
T	12/24/45 (30)	6-3	254	Northwestern	9	San Carlos, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 1b (la was Steve Spurrier) prior to the 1967 season. Activated in 1968.

PRO: Started all 14 games at right tackle in 1975. Entering his ninth season, Banaszek is generally recognized as one of the most effective tackles in the league. Superior pass blocker. Drafted originally as a linebacker, but an ankle injury kept him out of what would have been his first season (1967). Returned in 1968 scheduled to play tight end, but a trade and an injury opened a tackle position and he moved into a starting job which he has never relinquished.

COMMENT: From Cas Banaszek on holding—"I hold. You have to hold. I defy any offensive lineman not to hold on pass protection. They (defensive ends) can slap you, hold you, shove you, pull you—do anything they want. That's why I have to hold. A lot of times though, you fall into things. Sometimes your hand goes into the right spot when bodies come together, like under the armpit. But you also know when to remove the hand, when you've been there too long."

COLLEGE: Was a tight end for three seasons at Northwestern, All-Big 10 and played in the North-South game after his senior year. Earned three varsity letters and holds Northwestern's career record for pass receptions at 88. Earned one baseball letter at 1st base. Came to college from Gordon Tech high school in Chicago where he earned three letters each in football, basketball and baseball. Was All-State and MVP in both football and basketball.

PERSONAL: Born in Chicago. Is one of five children (2 brothers, 2 sisters). Is married and he and wife, Diann, have a daughter, Jennifer Lynn (4/15/69), and a son, Casimir III (8/4/71). Now lives full time in The Bay Area, plays with the 49er basketball team in the off-season. Is an outstanding golfer. He and former offensive line mates Len Rohde and Randy Beisler are in business together, a cocktail lounge in Los Altos, Calif.

No. 77 JEAN MARTIN BARRETT, JR.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
C-G-T	5/24/51 (25)	6-6	250	Tulsa	4	Tulsa, Okla.

Joined 49ers: No. 2b prior to the 1972 season.

PRO: Very versatile performer who has played all five positions across the offensive line for the 49ers. He will probably be considered a center candidate this season although he will still get some work at guard. Played in nine games in 1975 and started seven, six at left guard and one at center. Started some games at tackle as a rookie in 1973, and has started at both guard and center the past two seasons.

COMMENT: From Jean Barrett on why he considers guard the most difficult line position—"There's a little more to playing guard. For one thing, you're playing against more people. You block against both tackles whenever you face an 'odd' defense and also the middle linebacker. And a guard has to pull, so you're hitting the strong safety, outside linebackers—or whoever shows up."

COLLEGE: Started three years at Tulsa, finished his career as an All-Conference choice and played in The Blue-Gray Game, the Coaches' All-America Game and The College All-Star game after his senior year. Was the biggest player on the Tulsa squad in his senior season.

PERSONAL: Born in Ft. Worth, Tex., but graduated from W. T. White HS in Dallas. Was the first football player ever to receive an athletic scholarship from that school. Has younger brother and sister. Is married, and he and wife, Jane, are parents of a son, John Carl (9/19/73). Lives in Tulsa in the off-season where he operates a football camp for junior high school youngsters and is president of a warehouse construction company.

Has great speed, outstanding hands and runs well with the ball after the catch. In 1975 he had 20 receptions for 297 yards, a 14.8 yards per catch average. Played in eight games as a rookie in 1972, but missed all of the 1973 season with injuries. Came back in 1974 and shared time at wide receiver as a play-calling messenger.

PERSONAL: Born in Memphis, Tenn. Was a standout in both football and basketball at Lester HS in Memphis. Has one brother and three sisters. Single.

No. 71 KEITH VICTOR FAHNHORST (FAHN-horst)

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
T	2/6/52 (24)	6-6	258	Minnesota	3	Minneapolis, Minn.

Joined 49ers: No. 2a prior to the 1974 season.

PRO: Has played both tackle and tight end (his college position) the past two seasons. Has played in every game since he arrived as a number 2 draft choice prior to the 1974 season. Very strong special teams player who started three games in 1975, two at tackle and one at tight end. Had a thyroid problem his rookie year which dropped his weight down to 231 pounds but he did not miss any time. The problem corrected and the weight regained. Fahnhorst is expected to make a strong bid for a starting tackle spot in 1976. With experience, Fahnhorst is expected to become one of the top linemen in the NFL.

COMMENT: From Keith Fahnhorst on moving from tight end to tackle—"I didn't think when I came into the league that it would take this long to become a starter. I thought the move to tackle would be easy for an ol' tight end. The run blocking wasn't that hard, because that's what I did in college mostly. But the pass protection gave me trouble, because it was so new to me. The main thing is to gain confidence, and I really feel I improved last year."

COLLEGE: Was regular tight end at Minnesota for three years, but, in the Gophers run-oriented offense, caught only 28 passes for 416 yds. and one TD during the three seasons. Was the leading receiver on the team as a senior with 10 catches. A devastating blocker, he made All-Big 10 as a senior and played in the East-West Game and the Senior Bowl. Majored in psychology.

PERSONAL: Born in St. Cloud, Minn. Went to St. Cloud Tech and earned three varsity letters as a tight end-linebacker, two as a basketball center and three as a discus man in track. No. 30 DANIEL BRUCE GOSSETT

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
K	11/9/41 (34)	6-1	229	Richmond	12	Cupertino, Cal.

Joined 49ers: From Rams in a trade (Kernit Alexander, draft choice) prior to the 1970 season. Rejoined the 49ers as a free agent prior to the 1976 season.

PRO: Rejoins the 49ers in an attempt to regain the placekicking job he lost to rookie Steve Mike-Mayer in 1975. Last active in 1974 when he hit on 11 of 24 field goal attempts and 25 of 27 PATs for 58 points. That brought his career to 1,031 points. In his career he has hit on 96.6% of his PATs (376 of 383) and 60.8% of his field goals (219 of 360). Co-holder (with Steve Mike-Mayer) of the record for longest field goal in 49er history, a 54-yard shot against New Orleans in 1973. During that 1973 season, Gossett set several other 49er records including most field goals in one season (26), most consecutive field goals (13 in a row over five games, 2nd longest streak in NFL history, Jan Stenerud had one of 16), most field goals in one game (five for five against Denver), and highest field goal percentage in one season (78.7% on 26 of 33).

COMMENT: From Gossett—"I realize I'm not going to make all of my kicks, that would be unrealistic, but the longer I have to work with a holder the better chance I have. The holder is about 85 percent of the success in field goal kicking, especially from outside the 25-yd. line. He has to get the ball down fast, laces facing away. It's a matter of timing and the center has a big part, too, because the snap has to be good. The sooner the ball is down, the better chance the kicker has."

COLLEGE: Gossett played for three different colleges in Virginia and Pennsylvania, wound up as a punter and place-kicker at Richmond.

PERSONAL: Born in Canonsburg, Pa. and attended Cecil Township H.S. Has been very active in the annual March of Dimes pro athlete decathlon and has done Chamber of Commerce public relations work. Is marketing director of a savings and loan company in the off-season. Married, and he and his wife, Jeanette, are parents of two children, daughter Kimberly Renae (4/12/60) and son Danny (11/4/66).

No. 43 WINDLAN EDESEL HALL

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
S	3/11/50 (26)	5-11	175	Arizona State	5	San Jose, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 4 prior to the 1972 season.

PRO: Despite his lack of size, recognized as one of the hardest-hitting defensive backs around. Has played both free and strong safety as well as cornerback during his four years with the 49ers. Played in 13 games in 1975, starting in seven of them, one at strong safety, and the final six games of the season at free safety after Ralph McGill was lost to an injury. Has intercepted two passes, one his rookie year and one in 1973. Has scored two TDs, both on fumble recoveries. His 66-yard TD dash with a fumble recovery against Philadelphia in 1973 is the 3rd longest in 49er history.

COMMENT: From Windlan Hall—"I may be a lightweight, but I hit like a heavyweight. You don't have to be big to hurt people with a good hit. You have to explode at the point of impact, that's what makes the difference."

COLLEGE: Gained the optimum respect as a collegiate cornerback in that opponents didn't throw in his direction very much. Starter for three years. No. 86 CEDRICK WARD HARDMAN

Off-Season

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Residence
DE	10/4/48(27)	6-4	258	North Texas State	7	Menlo Park, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 1a prior to the 1970 season (1b was Bruce Taylor).

PRO: Begins his 6th year as a 49er starter. Started all 14 games at right defensive end in 1975. Recognized as one of the most formidable pass rushers in the NFL. Was credited with 15 single-handed sacks last season to bring his career total to 76 in six seasons. Has tremendous speed and agility combined with size. Was named All-Pro after last season by NEA. Played in the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career (first was after the 1971 season).

COMMENT: From Cedrick Hardman—"A sack for me must be the equivalent of a wide receiver scoring on a long pass, it's always a great, great thrill, especially on third down when you can stop a drive. I don't worry about who I'm up against that much now, but it would be a lie to say I'm not aware of some and I'm sure they know who they are. It's like a team that might have 200 plays, but only uses those that work for one game against one team. I have a basic attack and I have variations that I use every week, different variations against different people."

COLLEGE: Late-blooming college performer who finally settled at defensive end as a senior and turned in a sensational final year. Originally reported to North Texas State as a 5-11, 185-pound freshman, worked at both offensive and defensive back. By his junior year, however, he weighed 240, stood 6-3 and became an immediately successful defensive lineman. As a senior, he was All-MVC, played in both Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games, in each of which he was selected the outstanding defensive player.

PERSONAL: Born in Houston, Tex., where his family still lives. Graduated from Houston's Carver HS where he was a basketball player (guard and forward), a baseball player (pitcher) as well as a football player. Now lives in The Bay Area with wife, Carolyn, son Clayton and daughters Trenay and Tysha. Tysha was born this past off-season. Has done some acting for both movies and television.

No. 59 WILLIE MILES HARPER

Off-Season

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Residence
LB	7/30/50 (26)	6-2	209	Nebraska	4	San Jose, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 2 prior to the 1973 season.

PRO: A sure tackler with great speed and range, Harper became a starter in the fourth game of his rookie season and held the job until a painful foot injury suffered in training camp last season forced him out of the lineup. Missed the entire pre-season and first league game, but came back to see action in the final 13 games of the season, although the injury hampered him throughout the year. Fully recovered, he will try to reclaim the starting right linebacker job from Dave Washington this season.

COMMENT: From Willie Harper—"I have all kinds of goals before the year. I think Pro Bowl. All-NFC, whatever's out there to get. All during the off-season I think about how I can improve my game mentally. But I'm a team man first and I really think we have a chance to accomplish something."

COLLEGE: Consensus All-America defensive end for two years after earning sophomore Lineman of the Year honors. Earned three varsity letters at Nebraska, played some middle guard and running back before settling in as a defensive end. Had a career record of 178 tackles (90 unassisted), including 40 in which he threw opposing ball carriers for a remarkable 258 yards in losses.

PERSONAL: Born in Toledo, Ohio, earned two football letters, three in basketball and one in track (discus) at J. W. Scott High School. Football coach there was former Nebraska and Cardinal great, Bill "Thunder" Thornton. Has one brother, four sisters.

T	9/10/53 (22)	6-5	252	Oregon State	2	Corvallis, Ore.

Joined 49ers: No. 3a prior to the 1975 season.

PRO: Strong, active offensive lineman who played in all 14 games as a rookie in 1975. Saw action as a backup tackle and on all special teams. Expected to make a bid for a starting job this season. Very effective blocker who is improving all the time, only thing he lacks is experience.

COMMENT: From John Michelosen, 49er Head Scout—"It's pretty easy to draft for size, but when speed comes with that size, you have a pretty good nucleus to work with. This guy (Hart) not only has size, but he can really move."

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Oregon State. All-Pacific 8 after his senior season. Played in the East-West Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Born in Portland, Ore., attended South Salem HS where he earned three letters as a defensive tackle and tight end, one as a basketball center. Father is a dentist in Turner, Ore. Has one sister. Married, no children. Completed work on his degree at Oregon State during the off-season.

No. 53 TOMMY LEE HART

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
DE	11/7/44 (31)	6-4	251	Morris Brown	9	Atherton, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 10 prior to the 1968 season.

PRO: Starting left defensive end for the past six seasons. Hart is recognized as one of the most dependable and effective players on the 49ers squad. In his six seasons as a starter, he has averaged 15 sacks and 76 unassisted tackles a season despite drawing doubleteam blocking a great deal of the time. Has great speed, 4.7 seconds for 40 yds., outstanding for a lineman. Has a knack for coming up with the big play. Ran a fumble recovery 63 yds. for a TD against St. Louis in 1971, and returned another one 10 yds. for a score against Chicago last season. Came to the 49ers as a 213-pound linebacking prospect. Teammates voted him the Len Eshmont Memorial Award in 1972.

COMMENT: From Paul Wigen, former 49er defensive line coach (now head coach of the KC Chiefs)—"Tommy Hart's evolving into a defensive end was built around his personality. Tommy's an attack guy. At linebacker you have to be ready to cover the pass, but everything Tommy does, he wants to be on the attack, and that's the perfect personality for a lineman."

COLLEGE: Earned four varsity football letters as a "both ways" performer, playing offensive guard and offensive tackle, defensive tackle and defensive end. He was All-Conference three years, second-team NAIA All-American his senior year. Also has three letters in track as a sprinter/shot putter. Had a :09.7 in the 100-yd. dash, :48.0 in 440-yd. dash.

PERSONAL: Born in Macon, Ga., one of eight children (2 brothers, 5 sisters). Attended Ballard Hudson HS in Macon. Married, wife's name is Cherie Ann, and they have three daughters. Joined 49ers: No. 1 prior to the 1973 season, not active until 1974.

PRO: Missed what would have been his rookie season in 1973 with an injury, but joined the team in 1974 and started some games at free safety. Intercepted three passes and returned them for 26 yds. that season and led the 49ers in kickoff returns with 25 for 612 yds., a 24.5 average, sixth best in the NFC. Was named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie team. Switched to wide receiver last season and saw action in all 14 games, was a starter in four of them. Caught 16 passes good for 220 yds., a 13.8 yds. per reception average, one TD. Also returned two kickoffs for 59 yds.

COLLEGE: Set a Texas Southern career record for interceptions at 20 over a four-year period as a varsity starter. Also set the school's single-season record of nine as a junior. Called the team's defensive signals as a senior, unusual for a free safety. In his first year at TSU, Holmes was the only freshman starter, intercepted six passes as a safety. Switched to receiver as a sophomore and became the team receiving leader with 23 catches for 354 yards. Back at safety the next year he intercepted nine passes, then five more as a senior to set his record. Was selected to play in the College All-Star Game, but injury forced him out.

Scored the clinching TD against Washington in the NFC playoff game five years ago when he recovered a fumble in the end zone. Played defensive end and tackle for Seattle in the old Continental League for a year before joining the 49ers.

COMMENT: From Bob Hoskins—"I came to camp last year with the goal of working on my pass rush, and I really think it has improved. I think people now are starting to accept me as a football player and not just someone who came back from cancer."

COLLEGE: Played one season of varsity football at Wichita State University as a fullback and defensive end before going into the Continental League. Also earned a varsity letter in track as a discus thrower.

No. 40 WILBUR JACKSON

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
RB	11/19/51 (24)	6-0	215	Alabama	3	Ozark, Ala.

Joined 49ers: No. 1a (1b was Bill Sandifer) prior to the 1974 season.

PRO: After a sensational rookie season in which he gained 705 yds. and was named NFC Rookie of the Year by Sporting News and selected for Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie team, Jackson suffered a "sophomore slump" in 1975. Bothered by fumbles the first two games, Jackson lost his starting job to Delvin Williams and never regained it. Rushed for 303 yds. in 78 attempts, a 3.9 yds. per carry average. Longest run was a 44-yd. dash against Atlanta. Also caught 17 passes for 128 yds. Two-year totals show 252 carries for 1,008 yds., exactly 4.0 yds. per carry, and 40 receptions for 318 yds. and two TDs. Was the first rookie to lead the 49ers in rushing since Ken Willard did it in 1965. May be moved from halfback to fullback in 1976. Expected to rebound to his rookie form.

COMMENT: From Wilbur Jackson on rotating backfields—"With the kind of runners we have, I think that moving four or five guys in and out is a good idea. Not only is it good for the morale, but it will keep everyone fresh."

COLLEGE: At Alabama, despite the fact the team rotated its backfield units, Jackson amassed a 3-yr. total of 1,537 yards on just 212 carries for a brilliant 7.2-yds. per carry average. Scored 17 TDs. Was a member of Alabama's Orange (1972), Cotton (1973) and Sugar (1974) Bowl teams (the Tide was 32-1 during his tenure there), as well as the Senior Bowl in 1974. Injured in the Coaches All-America Game.

PERSONAL: Born in Ozark, Ala., graduated from Carroll High School there where he earned two letters as a wide receiver, three as a basketball forward and two as a baseball outfielder. Not married. Has one brother, two sisters. Family still lives in Ozark.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
CB	3/31/38 (38)	6-2	185	UCLA	16	San Carlos, Cal.

Joined 49ers: First of three 1st-round choices (Bernie Casey and Billy Kilmer were the others) prior to the 1961 season.

PRO: The most respected 49er of them all, Jimmy returns for his 16th season showing no signs of slowing down. Started all 14 games in 1975 and has not missed a game the past six seasons. Last year intercepted two passes to bring his career total to 46 interceptions returned for 598 yds., both figures 49er team records. Last year was his 14th as a starter in the 49er secondary. Broke in as a rookie defender, intercepted five passes and returned them 116 yds. Switched to offense the following year, he wound up the team's leading receiver with 34 catches for 627 yds. Went back to defense in 1963 and has been at left corner ever since. One of the best man-to-man defenders in history. Named to the Pro Bowl five times. Won the PFWA George Halas Award denoting courageous play following the 1971 season. Won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award last season, becoming the first 49er to ever win that coveted award twice (1969 was the first time).

COMMENT: From Jimmy Johnson on concentration—"Basically every football player has the foundation for concentration. It just depends on how you develop it. I was very fortunate to play under Jack Christiansen (now head coach at Stanford) when he coached the 49ers' defensive backfield. He taught me the man-to-man technique and that's where I learned to concentrate. The biggest threat to concentration is to start thinking about a team's statistics or tendencies during the game. I think about those things before the game, then I put them out of my mind so I can concentrate on the man and the coverage."

COLLEGE: Played wingback and defensive back in earning 3 varsity football letters at UCLA, one at Santa Monica City College. Also was an outstanding track man at UCLA with a 13.9 figure on high hurdles and a 25-foot broad jump to his credit. Was an honor roll student in his junior and senior years.

PERSONAL: Born in Dallas, Texas, but graduated from Kingsburg, (Calif.) High School. Has two brothers (including former Olympic decathlon champ, Rafer) and two sisters. Enjoys off-season travel, has toured Europe, parts of the Orient and Pacific, Africa and South America. Married, wife's name is Gisela.

Saw limited action with the 49ers last season, appearing in 11 games and carrying the ball just four times for 25 yds. Also returned six kickoffs for 135 yds., a 22.5 yd. average. Figures to see a lot more action this season.

COMMENT: From Kermit Johnson on returning kickoffs—"Returning kickoffs isn't so rough. I feel that's the best position the runner can be in because he's looking down the whole field. He doesn't have to look around him, only forward."

COLLEGE: As a senior at North Carolina gained 1,012 yards, scored eight TDs in just 180 carries. Lettered three years at North Carolina as a halfback, but also played some linebacker as a sophomore. Joined 49ers: No. 2a prior to the 1972 season.

Returned a fumble recovery 14 yards for his first TD as a 49er last season against the Patriots. Fearless punt returner who ran back 31 punts (never calling for a fair catch) for 290 yds., a 9.4 yd. average. Won the starting free safety position in 1974 and led the club in interceptions with five. As a rookie against Atlanta (10/29/72), he tied NFL record and set a 49er record for number of punts

COMMENT: From Ralph McGill on his practice of talking to his opponents on the field—"I know some of these fellows can't take what I say. So I try to distract them from their game, and once I get them mad at me and worrying about what I'm going to do or say, then they can't do their job. I won't tell you what I say, but I try to psyche them out, make them lose their concentration. Once I've done that to them, they're hooked."

PRO: Won the kicking job with the 49ers last season as a rookie and led the team in scoring. Hit on 14 of 28 field goals and 27 of 31 PATs for 69 points. Named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. Played a big part in the highlight of the 49ers' season when he booted a 54-yd. field goal with 38 seconds remaining in the game to beat the Rams. The 54-yarder tied a 49er record for longest field goal (Bruce Gossett also kicked one). Steve also handles the kickoff chores for the 49ers.

COMMENT: From Nick Mike-Mayer, Steve's brother, kicker for the Atlanta Falcons—"Steve can be as excellent as they come. He has the strongest leg in the league, stronger than mine. I know at Maryland he practiced from 70 yards. If the conditions were right, he might be able to do it from there."

COLLEGE: Led major college kick scoring in 1974 with 79 points on 34 of 36 PATs and 15 of 25 field goals. Maryland's all-time leading scorer with 213 points over a three-year varsity career. Longest field goal was 54 yds. against Villanova as a junior. Once had a kickoff travel 87 yds. in the air. Kicked in the Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in Hungary, went to high school in Italy where his father was a professional soccer player. Has one sister and five brothers, including younger brother, Nick, who kicks for the Atlanta Falcons. Single.

No. 84 THOMAS GORDON (Tom) MITCHELL

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
TE	8/22/44 (32)	6-3	233	Bucknell	10	Ruxton, Md.

Joined 49ers: In a trade from Baltimore (draft choices) prior to the 1974 season.

PRO: Finished up his second year as starting tight end for the 49ers and, despite being hampered by painful rib injuries most of the year, played in 13 games. Had 25 catches for 366 yds., a 14.6 yds. per catch average, and 3 TD receptions, one of them a 60-yard play with Norm Snead against New Orleans. Had eight catches for 91 yds. against New England. Number one draft choice of Oakland prior to the 1966 season. Joined the Colts in 1968. During a strong six-year career with Baltimore, he beat out both John Chester for the starting tight end job. His career totals now read 200 catches for 2,717 yards (13.6 avg.) and 23 TDs. Best year so far was 1972 when he had 40 catches for 494 yds. and four TDs. Best single game was against the Jets in 1972 when he caught eight passes for 114 yds. Played some wide receiver for the Colts.

COMMENT: From tackle Cas Banaszek who plays next to Mitchell on the offensive line—"He (Mitchell) is the meanest man on our football team, bar none. He can not be intimidated by anyone. Tom doesn't start fights, but if there is one ounce of provocation. . . That's probably why he is such a great blocker, he's so tenacious. As long as I've been in pro football, he's the best blocking tight end I've seen. He's like an interior lineman."

COLLEGE: Was the leading collegiate receiver in the East during all three varsity seasons at Bucknell compiling 2,358 yards and 18 TDs with 173 receptions. Bucknell's all-time leading receiver. First team Little All-America junior and senior years.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
LB	10/1/45 (30)	6-2	230	Michigan	10	Los Altos, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 3 prior to the 1967 season.

PRO: A solid veteran, Frank started all 14 games at middle linebacker in 1975. Extremely intelligent player, with veteran savvy, who is noted for his unending enthusiasm. Intercepted one pass last season and returned it six yds. Had four interceptions for 30 yds. in 1974. Career interception totals read 13 for 110 yds.

COMMENT: From Frank Nunley—"The most important thing for a defense to do is to keep the opposition from controlling the ball and the game. If they get a lot of third-and-short situations, the defense will be spending a lot of time on the field. The thing you have to do is force them to go to the air, then you have the chance for the turnover."

COLLEGE: All-Big 10 for two years in earning three varsity letters at Michigan as a linebacker. Played on Michigan's Rose Bowl team, in Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games. Also lettered in baseball. Majored in education.

PERSONAL: Born in Florence, Ala., but grew up and attended high school in Belleville, Mich. Now lives full time in the Bay Area (Los Altos), and works for BankAmericard in the off-season. PRO: A starting guard for seven seasons, Woody has missed only four games over those years, all in the 1974 season, and only five in his entire career. Played in the Pro Bowl after the 1972 and 1973 seasons. Strong and fast, is considered a model pulling guard. Spent two years in the service before coming to the 49ers as a free agent. First Grambling player the 49ers ever had.

COLLEGE: Three-year varsity letterman guard for Grambling, and all-league choice in his senior year. Played in the Orange Blossom Classic.

Last college season was in 1965. Majored in business and social science.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
SS	1/6/42 (34)	6-2	195	No. Carolina A&T	11	San Mateo, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 5 draft choice prior to the 1965 season.

PRO: One of the hardest hitters in the game—and he pays for it. Has had the incredible misfortune to have broken an arm five times in the past three seasons. Played in just nine games last year, six the year before when he broke both arms. However, he heads into his 11th season healthy and hopeful. Most observers agree that, when he is 100%, there is no better strong safety playing. Voted the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award in 1973 for courageous and inspirational play. Has been starting strong safety for six years. Intercepted one pass last year, returned it three yards to bring his career interception mark to eight for 92 yards, one (in 1970) a 35-yd. TD.

COMMENT: From Mel Phillips—"I don't know which I'm most tired of, breaking the arms or having to talk about it all the time. They told me when I came into pro ball that you needed some breaks, but this is ridiculous. My kids think a cast is part of the uniform."

COLLEGE: Lettered two years as halfback and played both offense and defense on team that won the CIAA championship for North Carolina A&T. In the title game he intercepted two passes, scored two TDs. As a senior at A&T, carried the ball 100 times for 648 yards, 11 TDs, caught 19 passes for 277 yards, 4 TDs. Also earned two swimming letters. All-CIAA in football as a senior.

PERSONAL: Born in Shelby, N.C. Has an older brother. Has worked, along with teammate Tommy Hart, at the Youth Guidance Center in San Francisco in the off-season. Is a regular with the 49er basketball team in the off-season. Wants to go into physical therapy work when football days are over. Married, he and wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette (6/4/67), and Yvette (5/9/73).

No. 14 JAMES WILLIAM PLUNKETT, JR.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
QB	12/5/47 (28)	6-2	220	Stanford	6	San Jose, Cal.

Joined 49ers: Trade (Tom Owen and draft choices) from New England prior to the 1976 season.

PRO: First player taken in the 1971 draft when the Patriots selected him as their top choice. Stepped right in as the starting QB his rookie year and earned "Rookie of the Year" honors from The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, NEA, UPI and AP. Threw 19 TD passes as a rookie, second only to the Giants' Charley Conerly for most TD passes for a rookie. Started every game for the Patriots his first four seasons in the league, but had the string snapped in 1975 when injuries forced him to the sidelines. In limited action in 1975, Plunkett completed 36 of 92 passes for 571 yards, 3 TDs, 7 interceptions. Has connected on 62 TD passes in his five-year career. With Plunkett at the controls, New England had the second highest scoring offense in the NFL in 1974 (258 points). Lifetime stats show 729 completions in 1,503 attempts, a percentage of 48.5, for 9,932 yards, 62 TDs, 87 interceptions.

COMMENT: From receiver Gene Washington, who caught 71 passes, all from Jim Plunkett, as a Stanford senior: "That was only 10 games. I can't wait to see what happens in 14." From Monte Clark: "It would be unrealistic to think that the 49ers are just one or two players away from what we eventually want to be, the best in the business, but we feel that acquiring a quarterback of Jim's stature is a strong step in the right direction." From Jim Plunkett (grinning): "I liked Coach Clark from the first moment I met him, when he said we would not be running the option."

COLLEGE: Capped a fabulous college career by winning the Heisman Trophy and the Maxwell Award in 1970. A unanimous All-America selection. Made an auspicious debut as a sophomore in 1968 by completing 10 of 13 passes for 277 yards and four TDs. Finished up his sophomore year with 2,156 yards passing, more than any other player in the history of the Pac-8 Conference. Shattered more Pac-8 records the following two seasons and ended up his varsity career with three-year totals of 530 completions in 962 attempts for 7,544 yards and 52 TDs. Still holds a number of Pac-8 and NCAA records. Was the hero of Stanford's sensational upset win (27-17) over Ohio State in the 1971 Rose Bowl. Played in the Hula Bowl, Coaches' All-America Game, and the College All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Born and still lives in San Jose, Calif. Starred in five sports in high school—basketball, baseball, track and wrestling—in addition to football. Attended Overfelt and James Lick high schools in San Jose. Plays a lot of tennis in the off-season. Has acting aspirations and tested for the title role in a proposed movie-for-TV about Jim Thorpe last spring. Single.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
C	5/2/52 (24)	6-1	239	Stanford	2	Palo Alto, Cal.

Joined 49ers: Free agent prior to 1975 season.

PRO: Starting center in all but one game (New England) last year as a rookie and was named to the All-Rookie team. Joined the 49ers as a free agent after having played with the Southern California Sun in the WFL in 1974. First free agent to start regularly for the 49ers since Woody Peoples broke into the lineup in 1969.

COMMENT: From Bill Reid: "Center is a different position. You do a lot of slip blocking and reach blocking. And it's easier to get into blocking position against a pro defensive lineman than a college lineman because the pros don't slant as much."

COLLEGE: Started two years at center at Stanford after having transferred from Long Beach City College. While at Long Beach, he played tight end as well as guard and center. Played in the East-West Game, the Blue-Grey Game and the Hula Bowl after Stanford.

PERSONAL: Born in Long Beach, Calif., but went to high school at St. John Bosco in Bellflower, where he earned two varsity letters in football playing linebacker, tackle and running back along the way. Has one brother, three sisters. Married, wife's name is Rebecca. Travelled across the U.S. by automobile and helped coach spring football at Stanford in the off-season.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
DT	1/5/52 (24)	6-6	262	UCLA	3	Oceanside, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 1b (1a was Wilbur Jackson) prior to the 1974 season.

PRO: After an injury-stunted rookie season in 1974, Sandifer came back from knee problems and started 12 of last season's 14 regular season games. Last year he returned with three games left to play, played experience and there was some talk prior to the opening of pre-season training camp that coaching staff might give him a look as offensive lineman. On defense, prime asset is strong inside pass rush.

COMMENT: From Bill Sandifer—"I'm really starting to recognize things now, like influence blocks and cut blocks and beginning to work on ways to counter or handle them. There's so much to learn I doubt if you ever quit learning this game. The one thing I want more than anything else from a personal standpoint is the respect of the people I play against."

COLLEGE: Transferred to UCLA from Mira Costa JC. Was named UCLA's MVP on defense his senior year after being credited with 86 tackles for the year. Was chosen as outstanding defensive player in the East-West Shrine Game following the 1973 season.

Joined 49ers: Signed as a free agent with three games remaining in the 1975 season.

PRO: For the second-consecutive year, Saunders was called upon by the 49ers for late-season help after injury had decimated the defensive secondary. In 1974 he was signed with four games left to play, came back to the following pre-season training camp, but was waived before the regular season opened. Last year he returned with three games left to play, played in all three of them and started at free safety in the final one. Originally drafted in the 4th-round by Los Angeles prior to the 1972 season, he was later claimed by Buffalo and eventually wound up as a starter in the Bills' secondary.

COLLEGE: Starred on the Toledo teams that recorded 35 consecutive wins, including a Tangerine Bowl victory over Richmond. All-Mid American Conference performer as a safety.

Has had one 100-yd. day (11/24/74) against Atlanta.

COMMENT: From John Brodie, former 49er QB and Schreiber teammate—"He (Schreiber) does so many things so well. He's more than just a runner. Larry is a fine blocker and great receiver. He runs great patterns. I always knew I could depend on him to be in the right spot when I was throwing to him."

COLLEGE: Amassed an amazing total of 4,421 yards rushing in a 4-year varsity career at Tennessee Tech. Wound up as 4th-leading rusher in college football history. Also scored a total of 32 TDs, all by rushing. Holds NCAA record for times carried ball (877), seven Ohio Valley Conference records and 25 Tennessee Tech records. Joined 49ers: No. 1b - '70 (1a was Cedrick Hardman)

PRO: Begins his 7th season as starting right cornerback for the 49ers. Consistent, good play over the past two years has established him as one of the NFL's most reliable practitioners in the game's toughest position. With those totals his career mark in punt returns moved to 139 returns for 1,307 yds., a good 9.4-yd. career average which ranks him 7th among active NFC returners. He also intercepted three passes last season to lead his team in that department and bring his career total to 18 for 201 yards returned. Led the NFL in punt returning in 1973 and his career totals for number of returns and yards are both 49er team records. Was NFC "Defensive Rookie of the Year" in 1970 and started at cornerback for the NFC in the Pro Bowl following the 1971 season. In 1970 he set 49er records for most punt return yardage in a single season (516), most punt return yardage in a single game (133 on six returns against Houston), records he still holds. Has returned two missed FG attempts for TDs, both against the same team, New Orleans, 92 yards in 1970 and 55 yards in 1971.

COMMENT: From Bruce Taylor regarding a visual therapy method geared toward increasing an athlete's concentration, a method Taylor studied and employed the past three seasons—"I was worried. I recognized there was a problem with my concentration and figured this program couldn't hurt. The idea is that while my whole body is moving, I just forget about it and center on what my eyes are seeing. In the past when I made a mistake or got beat, I didn't know why and I let it get me down. Now, the mistakes are fewer and, even when they come, I can identify why they happened and not let it destroy my concentration. I think that's why I improved."

COLLEGE: Earned three football letters at Boston University, was MVP and All America as a senior. Played in East-West Game. Also was considered major league prospect in baseball as an outfielder. Earned one track letter as a sprinter. As a senior led team in scoring (six TDs) despite playing only one down on offense (a 48-yard end around for a TD). Has a 104-yard punt return TD. Majored in history.

Bruce, who works for a savings and loan company in the off-season, is very active in the Sickle Cell Anemia Disease Research Foundation and has served as chairman of one of the Foundation's divisions in Northern California. He was selected the 49ers' "Man Of The Year" in the Dodge-sponsored program last year and a $2,000 scholarship has been awarded in his name.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
WR	1/14/47 (29)	6-1	183	Stanford	8	San Francisco, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 1b (la was Ted Kwalick) prior to 1969 season.

PRO: In spite of last season's unsettled QB situation, Washington had his best year since 1972 in catching 44 passes for 735 yards, a 16.7 avg., and nine TDs. That performance ranked him 10th in the NFC last year, and, now, after just seven seasons, ranks 9th among active NFC receivers with a career total of 306 passes caught for 5,569 yards and 48 TDs. His career per catch average is 18.2 yards. When he catches his first TD pass of the 1976 season, he will tie the 49er career record of 49, held jointly by Alyn Beals (1946-52) and Billy Wilson (1951-60). And he is just 233 yards short of matching Wilson's career record of 5,802 yards, although 101 catches short of Wilson's career mark of 407. Has been All-Pro and a starter in the Pro Bowl four times. Note—Washington set a Stanford single-season record of 71 catches in his senior, all thrown by current 49er QB Jim Plunkett.

COMMENT: From Gene Washington—"To me the top priority is just making a good contribution to the team. If my being double-covered (and he generally is) means opening it up for somebody else to catch the passes, that's fine as long as I know I'm playing well. The highest accolade you can get is to have the respect of the other players and coaches. If they play you one-on-one, to me it shows they don't think you can hurt them."

COLLEGE: As a Stanford senior he set single-season records for number of catches (71), yards (117) and TDs (8). His 3-yr. totals were 122 catches (a school career record), 1785 yds. (a school career record) and 10 TDs. Began his career as a QB, but suffered a shoulder injury his sophomore year and asked to be switched to receiver. Led Pacific Eight Conference in pass receiving as a junior and was unanimous All-Conference. Outstanding offensive player in East-West Game, played in Hula Bowl, Senior Bowl, and College All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Born in Tuscaloosa, Ala., but grew up in Long Beach, Calif. Has three brothers, one sister. Graduated from Long Beach Poly, where he was a track man and played baseball in addition to football. Married, wife's name is Cynthia. They are parents of a daughter, Tiffany. Gene has had roles in several movies and has done work on fund drives for sickle cell anemia and was the chairman of the annual March of Dimes pro athlete decathlon. Chairman of San Francisco's Special Olympics for handicapped children this past off-season.

His three-year stats show 214 kicks for 9,059 yds., a sparkling 42.5 yd. average. Selected as the NFC's punter in the Pro Bowl after the 1973 and 1974 seasons. Can also place kick. MONTE CLARK, Head Coach

COACHING

Monte Clark becomes the San Francisco 49ers' seventh head coach after a six-year stint as assistant to Don Shula at Miami, where he served his first two seasons as offensive line coach before being named offensive coach with the primary responsibility of developing the Dolphin running game. That task he handled with such skill that the Dolphins led the AFC in rushing three times (1972-73-74) and set an NFL single-season rushing record in 1972 (2,960 yds., since broken). Possibly even more impressive was the 1975 accomplishment of finishing fourth in the rush-heavy AFC, without the benefit of Larry Csonka and Co. His Dolphin offensive line, generally regarded as one of the best in the NFL, was composed entirely of castoffs from other teams—Center Jim Langer (Browns), guards Larry Little (San Diego) and Bob Kuechenberg (Eagles, Atlanta), tackles Norm Evans (Houston) and Wayne Moore (49ers)—yet, under Clark's tutelage, in addition to being an effective, cohesive unit, Little became All-NFL four times, Langer All-NFL twice, Kuechenberg, Moore and Evans were All-AFC—and all five of them appeared at least once in the Pro Bowl. Considered a strong teacher of fundamentals, Clark is also regarded as a strong motivator and innovator. During his tenure with Shula, Miami won 67, lost 16 regular season.

PLAYER

Drafted in the fourth round prior to the 1959 season by the San Francisco 49ers, Clark began his professional career as a defensive lineman, played in San Francisco in 1959-60-61 before being traded (for a 4th-round draft choice) to Dallas prior to the 1962 season. At Dallas he switched to offensive tackle and played there one season before being traded to Cleveland. He was starting offensive tackle for seven seasons with the Browns before retiring after the 1969 season to go into coaching as a member of Shula's original Dolphin staff prior to the 1970 season. As a collegian at the University of Southern California, Clark lettered three years as a USC starter playing both offense and defense, mostly defense. He was co-captain of the USC squad in 1958. Monte played football, basketball, baseball and was a discus man in track at Kingsburg High School in Central California.

PERSONAL

Born 1-24-37 in Fillmore, Calif., but grew up and went to high school in Kingsburg.

Married to Charlotte Palm in 1957 and they have three boys—Bryan (7-27-60), Randy (7-3-62) and Eric (3-17-67).

Lived in Redwood City, Calif. throughout his playing career and all three boys were born in Sequoia Hospital there.

NOTES

From Dolphin guard Larry Little: "He's a motivator, a teacher but more than anything, a devout fundamentalist. I attribute whatever success I have had as a professional lineman to Coach Clark. Our offensive line here was just like a family, we felt like we grew up together. I've never known a man more dedicated or one who worked harder. Yet he can lighten up because he's got a dry sense of humor."

From Dolphin center Jim Langer: "He came to the team as a rookie coach and we were all new players to the system. With him leading us, we all just sort of built the thing. He is the most thorough and intense coach I've ever known. He leaves nothing to chance when it comes to preparing his people for a game. I've never worked harder than I did under Coach Clark, but I've never learned more or had a better time."

49ERS' 1975 FINAL GAME SUMMARIES

49ERS 17, VIKINGS 27

Metropolitan Stadium (48,418 sold) (46,479 att.)

The 49ers opened their 30th season of professional football with veteran quarterback Norm Snead at the controls. Defending NFC champion Minnesota jumped out to a quick 13-0 lead on two Fred Cox field goals and a 26-yard fumble return by Terry Brown. The 49ers stormed back to cut the deficit to 13-10 at halftime as Snead completions to Gene Washington and newly-acquired Bob Hayes set up rookie placekicker Steve Mike-Mayer's first professional field goal, a 19-yarder, and a Bruce Taylor interception set the stage for a 22-yard Snead to Washington TD pass. The defenses took over until Minnesota exploded for two TDs in the fourth quarter to settle the issue. Fran Tarkenton hit Brent McClanahan with a 10-yard scoring strike and Chuck Foreman scored from a yard out for the Vikings. Skip Vanderbunt blocked a Neil Clabo punt and Dave Washington returned it 15 yards for a TD to close out the scoring. Gene Washington finished the day with six receptions good for 86 yards and one TD.

Candlestick Park (57,379)

A second half comeback perpetuated the Rams' dominance over the 49ers as Los Angeles won for the 12th time in the last 13 meetings between the two old rivals. A stubborn 49er defense held the Rams to just 71 yards and a Tom Dempsey field goal in the first half, while the offense rang up two TDs in a span of three minutes in the second quarter. An 80-yard drive was capped by Norm Snead's 30-yard TD pass to Gene Washington and, after forcing the Rams to punt, the 49ers went right in for TD number two, Delyia Williams getting the score as he skirted left end and outraced the Ram defenders for a 38-yard jaunt. The second half was all Los Angeles. 37 and 51-yard field goals by Dempsey and a blocked punt that Monte Jackson carried six yards for a TD gave the Rams a 16-14 lead early in the final quarter. James Harris looped a 22-yard scoring pass to Lawrence McCutcheon late in the game to ice the win for the Rams.

49ERS 20, CHIEFS 3

Arrowhead Stadium (58,386 sold) (54,490 att.)

A smothering 49er defense gave San Francisco their initial win of 1975 at the expense of former 49er assistant Paul Wiggin. Len Dawson was subjected to six sacks, two apiece for Cedrick Hardman, Tommy Hart, and Willie Harper, and the 49er defense forced four KC turnovers. The Chiefs opened the scoring with a 19-yard Joe Stenerud field goal in the second quarter, the only points the 49ers would yield all afternoon. Norm Snead responded with a 24-yard TD pass to Tom Mitchell, Mitchell's first TD reception as a 49er. Steve Mike-Mayer widened the margin with field goals of 19 and 29 yards, and a 5-yard scoring burst by Larry Schreiber closed out the scoring.

49ERS 3, FALCONS 17

Candlestick Park (48,066 sold) (44,043 att.)

Rookie quarterback Steve Bartkowski made a triumphant return to the Bay Area leading the Falcons to a hard-fought win over the 49ers. Atlanta's defense yielded 338 yards, 231 through the air, but came up with the big play when they needed it in holding the 49ers to only three points. Norm Snead, who had not thrown an interception all season, had four picked off by the opportunistic Falcon defenders. The Falcons also recorded six sacks on the afternoon. An interception set up an early Atlanta TD. Bartkowski finding Jim Mitchell from nine yards out, and Haskell Stanback dashed 26 yards to give the Falcons a 14-0 half-time edge. The only scoring in the second half resulted in a draw in the personal battle between the Mike-Mayer brothers, Steve of the 49ers and Nick of Atlanta, each of them getting a third quarter field goal. Gene Washington had five receptions for 66 yards to move him over the 5,000 yard mark in career reception yardage.

Candlestick Park (46,046 sold) (40,990 att.)

Norm Snead tossed three first half TD passes as the 49ers got their offense untracked in a turnover-plagued game with the Saints. Snead, completing 11 of 16 on the day, fired TD passes of 29 and 20 yards to Gene Washington within a 60 second span in the opening quarter and followed that up with a 60-yard bomb to Tom Mitchell. Delvin Williams raced for a TD from 25 yards out and the 49ers found themselves up 28-0 early in the second quarter. The defense never gave Archie Manning a chance, sacking him seven times and picking off two of his passes, Nate Allen returning one interception 37 yards for a TD. The 49er offense turned the ball over five times themselves and the Saints got two of their touchdowns on fumble returns, Larry Cipa connected with Rod McNeill on a 5-yard TD pass after the issue was settled for the only points scored on the 49er defense.

Schaefer Stadium (60,691 sold) (60,358 att.)

Rookie quarterback Steve Grogan, taking over for injured regular Jim Plunkett, completed 12 passes in 20 attempts, two of them for scores, in directing the Patriots to a win over the 49ers. The Pats opened up a 17-0 first half lead on a 44-yard John Smith field goal, an 11-yard sweep by Sam Cunningham, and an 11-yard pass from Grogan to Andy Johnson following Ken Sanders block of a Tom Wittum punt deep in 49er territory. The 49ers got one TD back on the first play of the third quarter when Ralph McGill scooped up a Johnson fumble and returned it 14 yards for a score. Steve Mike-Mayer closed the gap with a 28-yard field goal, but Grogan found Randy Vataha on a 7-yard TD pass to put the game away. Mike Holmes caught a 24-yard scoring strike from Norm Snead to register his first pro TD. Snead's first completion of the day made him only the fifth man in NFL history to pass for over 30,000 yards. Rugged tight end Tom Mitchell, playing with bruised ribs, had seven receptions good for 85 yards.

49ERS 17, LIONS 28

Candlestick Park (48,166 sold) (43,209 att.)

After being held scoreless in the first half, the Lions turned things around and exploded for four second half TDs to overtake the 49ers. The game started quietly enough with the 49ers taking the opening kickoff and driving to within range for a 25-yard Steve Mike-Mayer field goal on their first possession and moving down for a TD, Norm Snead keeping from the 1-yard line, the next time they had the ball. Down 10-0, Joe Reed came out throwing in the second half and capped an 80-yard drive with a 10-yard toss to Ray Jarvis for the Lions' first score. The 49ers struck right back with Tom Mitchell grabbing a deflected Snead pass to stretch the 49er margin to 17-7. Key play in the drive was a 52-yard burst off right tackle by Delvin Williams, the 49ers' longest run from scrimmage of the year. That was it for the 49ers, but Detroit was just getting started. Reed connected with Dexter Bussey for a 65-yard TD play, and Lem Barney's interception set up a 2-yard plunge by Altie Taylor to give the Lions their first lead of the day. Detroit put the game away when Ed O'Neil grabbed a fumble and carried it 49 yards for a TD.

49ERS 24, RAMS 23

Los Angeles Coliseum (78,995 sold) (74,064 att.)

Steve Mike-Mayer's 54-yard field goal with 38 seconds remaining in the game gave the 49ers their first win over the Rams since 1970. Steve Spurrier made his first start of the season at quarterback and bombarded the Rams with 19 completions in 38 attempts for 290 yards and three TDs. Gene Washington caught two long TD passes, one of 48 yards and the other a 68 yarder on a third and one situation that gave the 49ers the lead for the first time in the game. Washington ended up with five receptions for 144 yards. Delvin Williams was the recipient of the third Spurrier TD pass, a 19-yard strike that tied the score and set the stage for the hectic final quarter. Entering that final period deadlocked at 14-14, Tom Dempsey kicked a 23-yard field goal that was immediately followed by the 68-yard Spurrier to Washington bomb. The defenses took hold until Jim Bertelsen plunged over from 1 yard out with scarcely over a minute remaining. Dempsey missed the conversion attempt leaving the Rams up by two points and giving Mike-Mayer the opportunity to win it with his club record-equaling 54-yard boot.

49ERS 31, BEARS 3

Candlestick Park (47,874 sold) (41,726 att.)

The 49er defense kept the Bears out of the end zone all afternoon and a sluggish offense came to life in the final quarter to give the 49ers a lopsided win over Chicago. The Niner defense gave up only 44 yards through the air for the game, allowing only a scant eight yards passing in the second half. Delvin Williams became the first 49er to have a 100-yard day in 1975 picking up 112 yards in 12 carries for a sparkling 8.8 yards per carry. Leading only 10-3 entering the final period, Steve Spurrier got the 49ers untracked with a 92-yard touchdown march capped by Larry Schreiber powering in from three yards out. Much of the 92 yards was picked up by Williams on runs of 31 and 23 yards. Cedrick Hardman forced Gary Huff to fumble on the ensuing Bear possession and Tommy Hart picked up the loose ball and scrambled 10 yards for a TD. Sammy Johnson hit the middle for a 1-yard TD to provide the final margin.

Another banner day for the defense as the 49ers opened their record at 5-5 and won three games in a row for the first time since 1972. The Saints failed to score a TD as the 49er defense chalked up their second straight game without giving up a TD. Archie Manning put the ball up 52 times, completing 25, but was sacked four times and intercepted by Skip Vanderbundt and Bruce Taylor. Steve Spurrier completed 13 of 22 passes, including a 26-yard scoring strike to Gene Washington. The 49ers scored the first time they had the ball, Larry Schreiber sweeping left end for the final three yards, and then sputtered until the last quarter when Spurrier unloaded his TD pass and Steve Mike-Mayer booted a 35-yard field goal.

Veterans Stadium (65,863 sold) (56,694 att.)

Turnovers, a season-long nemesis of the 49ers, and the passing of Mike Boryla combined to stop the Niners' three-game winning streak. The offense gained 404 yards, but seven turnovers, four lost fumbles and three interceptions, thwarted the 49er attack. Neither team could move on the ground and Boryla won the aerial duel completing 23 of 36 for 241 yards and three TDs. Boryla's TD passes, five yards to James McAlister, 11 yards to Harold Carmichael, and a 42 yarder to Charlie Young, coupled with Horst Muhlmann's two long field goals accounted for the Eagles' scoring. The 49ers countered with a 20-yard Steve Mike-Mayer field goal, a 3-yard TD burst by Sammy Johnson, and a 17-yard Norm Sneed to Gene Washington scoring pass. Despite the great day for Boryla, all was not easy for the young quarterback as he was sacked five times by the 49er defense.

49ERS 13, OILERS 27

Candlestick Park (49,618 sold) (44,015 att.)

The 49er rushing game suffered the worst day in the team's history as the offense was able to gain a net of only five yards against the aroused Oilers. Despite this the 49ers led late into the third quarter when the first Houston TD of the afternoon tied the score a 13-13. Two more Oiler scores in the final period provided the final margin. Two Skip Butler field goals were matched by Steve Mike-Mayer, who made good on hoots of 42 and 41 yards, and a 1-yard plunge by Larry Schreiber had the 49ers out in front until the Oilers came up with three TDs in the final 20 minutes. Don Hardeman scored on a 4th and goal situation from the 1-yard line and, shortly thereafter, Willie Rodgers crashed over on another 1-yard plunge. Billy "White Shoes" Johnson's 76-yard punt return set up the final Oiler score, a 2-yard slant by Ronnie Coleman.

49ERS 9, FALCONS 31

Atlanta Stadium (46,174 sold) (38,501 att.)

Both teams gained over 400 yards, but the Falcons washed in on big plays to defeat the 49ers for the second time in 1975. Rookie quarterback Steve Bartkowski picked up 305 yards in the air, completing 19 of his 37 passes, two of them TD tosses of 20 and 63 yards to Alfred Jenkins. Jenkins finished the day with seven receptions good for 117 yards. Wallace Francis scored Atlanta's final TD on a halfback pass from Haskell Stanback. The 49ers' only scoring came in the second quarter on a 26-yard Steve Mike-Mayer field goal and a 4-yard TD run by Delvin Williams. Williams gained 104 yards on 10 carries to become the first 49er running back to have more than one 100-yard game in a season since Ken Willard turned the trick in 1968.

49ERS 23, GIANTS 26

Candlestick Park (46,039 sold) (34,354 att.)

Tom Owen started the final game of the year for the 49ers but came up just short as a fourth quarter TD gave the Giants the win in a seesaw game. The Giants jumped out to an early two TD lead on a 1-yard plunge by Marsh White and a 14-yard dash by Doug Kotar. Sammy Johnson skirted left end for 26 yards and a score and Steve Mike-Mayer hit on a 40-yard field goal to bring the 49ers within range at 13-10 at intermission. Craig Morton hit Ray Rhodes with a 30-yard TD pass on the Giants first possession in the second half, but a 1-yard TD burst by Larry Schreiber and an 18-yard Owen to Schreiber TD pass, set up by Bruce Taylor's 66-yard punt return, gave the 49ers their first lead of the day early in the final quarter. In the waning moments, with a heavy rain coming down, Morton directed the Giants downfield and a pass to Jim O'Bradovich and a pass interference penalty set up Larry Watkins' 1-yard burst off tackle to give the Giants the win.

EXPANSION INFORMATION

Two new franchises, the Seattle Seahawks and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, begin on-field competition as members of the National Football League with the opening of the 1976 season.

Seattle will be a member of the NFC Western Division for purposes of standings only. Actually, the Seahawks will play every member of the NFC once, and will play Tampa Bay.

Tampa Bay will be a member of the AFC West, again for purposes of standings only, but will play every member of the AFC, as well as Seattle.

In 1977, the two teams switch conferences, Seattle moving into the AFC Central, Tampa Bay to the NFC Central. Again, they will each play every member of their assigned conference as well as each other.

In 1971, after the completion of the merger between the AFL and NFL and the divisional realignments which comprise the current NFL, schedules designating opponents—but not dates and sites—were set through 1978. Obviously, due to the addition of the two new franchises, those earlier schedules no longer apply.

ESHMONT MEMORIAL AWARD—A secret ballot by 49er players the night before the last home game of the season determines the winner of the Len Eshmont Memorial Award—a $1,000 watch. Eshmont, a Fordham graduate, was a member of the first 49er squad in 1946. He coached at the Naval Academy and the University of Virginia before his untimely death in May, 1957. 49er founder Tony Morabito established the award in 1957. Y. A. Tittle was the first winner. Cornerback Jimmy Johnson won it last year to become the first two-time winner in history. He first won it in 1969.

THE FORTY NINER STORY — 1946-1975

From a modest beginning in 1946, the San Francisco 49ers have grown into one of the most flourishing franchises in professional sports.

A major league football franchise in the City by the Golden Gate had long been the cherished dream of Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito, a native son and 1931 graduate of the University of Santa Clara. Failing to win recognition from the National League, Tony turned to the All-America Conference, which began operations in 1946 with the late Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, as the guiding genius.

Although the AAC went under after four years of intense competition with the NFL, it proved Morabito's point that San Francisco was a major league city. Sports fans of the entire Bay Area took the 49ers to their hearts and attendance grew by the proverbial leaps and bounds.

The club's success was predicated on Tony's oft-repeated slogan of "Go first class or not at all," and his early organization was built around such honored names as Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw, head coach; and Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee, Alyn Beals, Johnny Strzykalski and Len Eshmont—all of whom were already top drawing cards in collegiate and pro football.

The 49ers were the perennial runners-up to the mighty Cleveland Browns throughout the history of the AAC and, masterminded by Shaw on the bench and Albert on the field, became noted nationally for daring, colorful football. The AAC ended its short but exciting life when the Browns defeated the 49ers, 21-7, in the championship game of 1949, San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore became members of the NFL.

In recent years the 49ers have crowned the realization of Tony Morabito's dream by winning three division titles and, with the move to Candlestick Park, becoming one of the most successful franchises in the NFL.

Here are the highlights, beginning with the first year in the NFL:

1950—The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

49ER STORY (Con't)

1951—In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y. A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952—After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. It can't be written off as unsuccessful for Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953—The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. But Detroit was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Tittle benched because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954—Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Tittle, McElhenny, and Joe Perry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.

1955—With McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Shaw as head coach.

1956—In Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957—This undoubtedly was the most emotional and dramatic season in 49er history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Tittle to rookie R. C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing, 17-7, the 49ers fought back for their greatest victory of all time, 21-17. The magnificent Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958—An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of Los Angeles and Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959—With Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J. D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960—Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Waters threw the passes that upset Baltimore, 30-22, in the final two minutes.

1961—The success of Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, especially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, Brodie took over again in the T and had the finest season in 49er q.b. annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49er history.

1962—For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished the frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963—Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964—Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injury to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season, although they proved to be one of the toughest defensive clubs in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira and linebacker Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 overall record.

1965—Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie Ken Willard and veteran John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The over-all record was 7-6-1 and the season-opening 52-24 beating of the Chicago Bears marked the largest number of points ever scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966—After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before midway in the season and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual World Champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they rolled to a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. Guard John Thomas and end Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined guard Howard Mudd, center Bruce Bosley, fullback Ken Willard and linebacker Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967—An auspicious start (they were 5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. Quarterback George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as, with John Brodie in fine form, the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game, guard Howard Mudd and linebacker Dave Wilcox were named to All-Pro teams, and Mudd and center Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight time.

1968—Under new coach Dick Nolan the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record as the season turned on key wins over New York, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, receiver Clif McNeil and running back Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while tackle Charlie Krueger, linebacker Dave Wilcox and defensive back Kermit Alexander, sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and guard Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL, and joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969—Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season, went five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had done that in 13 previous games. It got a little better after that (final record was 4-8-2) and five players—Jim Johnson, Dave Wilcox, Elmer Collett, Ken Willard and rookie Gene Washington—were selected for the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Eshmont Award.

1970—This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The 10-3-1 record was the best as an NFL club, the Western Division (NFC) championship was the first in the NFL. In a season of superlatives, John Brodie was the NFL's "Player of the Year," Bruce Taylor was NFC "Rookie of the Year," Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC "Coach of the Year." Brodie, receiver Gene Washington, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined by tackle Len Rohde in being selected for the Pro Bowl.

1971—The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in the bitterly-remembered 1957 game. The season was also the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. Center Forrest Blue, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Gene Washington, Vic Washington, Cedrick Hardman and Bruce Taylor.

1972—Early-season inconsistency compounded by an injury to John Brodie in the fifth game of the season cast a pall on 49er prospects for a third-straight NFC West title, but Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game the recovered Brodie relieved Steve, threw two TD passes for 20-17 win over Minnesota that clinched NFC West title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. Center Forrest Blue, defensive back Jimmy Johnson, tight end Ted Kwalick, wide receiver Gene Washington and linebacker Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973—In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule and falling victim to a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of quarterback John Brodie and defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. Center Forrest Blue and Dave Wilcox were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Woody Peoples and Tom Wittum.

1974—The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter Steve Spurrier a week before the season opened sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of the last five games to finish the season at 6-8. Running back Wilbur Jackson was named SPORTING NEWS "Rookie of the Year" and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with quarterback Tom Owen and defensive back Mike Holmes. Center Forrest Blue and punter Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro linebacker Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975—A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. High point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles in Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, defensive end Cedrick Hardman was the club's only All-Pro selection and only player chosen for the Pro Bowl. Jimmy Johnson became the club's first-ever two-time Eshmont Award winner.

Morabito Fund

The San Francisco 49ers are one of the few organizations in professional sport to fund annual scholarship grants for high school and junior college students. The Morabito Fund, named in memory of the club's founder, provides $25,000 annually to San Francisco Bay Area students hopeful of attending Bay Area colleges and universities. They are not athletic grants, but are awarded to a student upon recommendation and application based upon the applicant's academic promise. Since its inception in 1968, the fund has averaged 90 grants a year.

Mayor's Youth Bowl

The San Francisco 49ers and The City of San Francisco annually work together in funding many of The City's youth-oriented programs. Each year one of the 49ers' home pre-season games is designated "The Mayor's Youth Bowl," and one-third of the net proceeds from that game are directed toward operating young people's programs in The City. In the two years of its existence, "The Mayor's Youth Bowl" has contributed more than $200,000 to the youth programs.

"Name" Backfields

The San Francisco 49ers have been known for their "name" backfields. From 1954 through 1956 it was "The Million Dollar Backfield" of Y. A. Tittle, Joe Perry, Hugh McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. Then, in 1960, came "The Alphabet Backfield" of Y. A. Tittle, J. D. Smith, R. C. Owens and C. R. Roberts.

Hall of Fame

Three members of San Francisco's "Million Dollar Backfield" of the mid-1950's are enshrined in Pro Football's Hall of Fame. They are Y. A. Tittle, Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Another member of that same team, tackle Leo Nomellini, is also a member of the Hall of Fame.

Nomellini

Former San Francisco 49er tackle Leo "The Lion" Nomellini is a member of Pro Football's Hall of Fame, but he also has another distinction. He is the only player ever to make All-Pro both on offense and defense since two-platoon all-stars have been selected. Nomellini was an All-Pro choice on offense in 1951 and 1952, then switched to defense and was an All-Pro selection in 1953, 1954, 1957 and 1959 as a defender. Leo also played in 10 Pro Bowl games, two on offense, eight on defense.

The San Francisco 49ers have officially retired five jerseys in their 30-year history. Those retired are, in order of their retirement, No. 34, Joe "The Jet" Perry; No. 39, Hugh McElhenny; No. 73, Leo Nomellini; No. 12, John Brodie; No. 70 Charlie Krueger.

49ER RADIO

LON SIMMONS

GORDY SOLTAU

Veteran Sportscaster Lon Simmons and former outstanding pass receiver Gordy Soltau form the radio broadcasting team for the 49ers, originating from KSFO, San Francisco, and serving a 14-station Golden West Network. Simmons does the play-by-play and Soltau does the analysis. Stu Smith is producer of the broadcasts. Golden West Network stations are KFBK, Sacramento; KMJ, Fresno; KBEE, Modesto; KOH, Reno; KVCV, Redding; KINS, Eureka; KIDD, Monterey; KWSD, Mt. Shasta; KSYC, Yreka; KUKI, Ukiah; KDAC, Ft. Bragg; KHVH, Honolulu; KFLS, Klamath Falls; KVML, Sonora.

49ERS ON TELEVISION

The 49ers will appear on national television three times in 1976, once in the pre-season and twice in the regular season. Their pre-season games at Seattle, Honolulu, and Los Angeles will be carried live by KBHK-TV, Channel 44, in San Francisco.

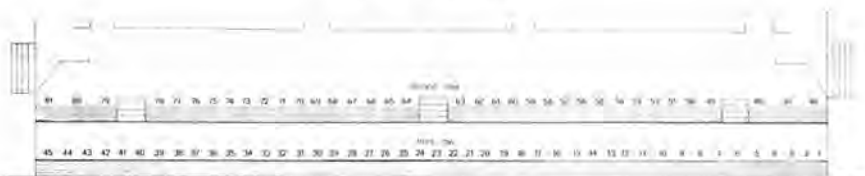

The pre-season meeting with the cross-bay rival Oakland Raiders, Aug. 29, at Candlestick Park, will be telecast nationally by the CBS Television Network. CBS will assign the broadcast team.

In addition to the Raider pre-season game, the 49ers will be featured in two Monday night games, one at home and one on the road. The away game will be at Los Angeles on Oct. 11, the home encounter will be Nov. 29 when the 49ers host the Minnesota Vikings. Both Monday night games will start at 6:00 p.m., West Coast time. ABC Television Network will telecast the Monday night games, with Howard Cosell, Frank Gifford, and Alex Karras as the broadcast team. The 49ers last appeared on the Monday night game in 1974, when they hosted Los Angeles at Candlestick.

PRESS BOX DIAGRAM

UPPER LEVEL

Candlestick Park - PRESS BOX

LOWER LEVEL

MEDIA INFORMATION

The football press box at Candlestick Park will open three hours prior to game time, as will the Curley Grieve Room (press room) on the promenade level. Lunch and other refreshments will be available in the press room, and there will be a snack bar in operation in the press box.

Western Union and Sportscom services will both be available in the press box and each will provide runners for copy.

All credential requests should be made to George McFadden in the 49er office no later than Wednesday prior to the game to be covered, if possible. No individual game credentials will be mailed. There is a special press "will call" booth at Gate A at Candlestick Park.

There is a limited amount of photo deck space available, so all requests for camera positions should be made as early as possible. When the space is all allocated, additional requests must be refused. Photo positions are on the second level of the press box and on the balcony areas on either end of the first level outside.

The press box is accessible only from the elevator from ground level. The elevator makes only one stop—at the press box.

With two minutes remaining in each game a member of the 49er public relations staff will guide writers to the team dressing rooms. From the elevator the group will walk the main concourse to the dressing room elevator. There will be no need to go onto the field.

Photographers working on the field are asked to check in at the dugout at the south end (first base line) of the stadium. They will be issued arm bands upon presentation of their credential. Food and drink will be available in the dugout at halftime.

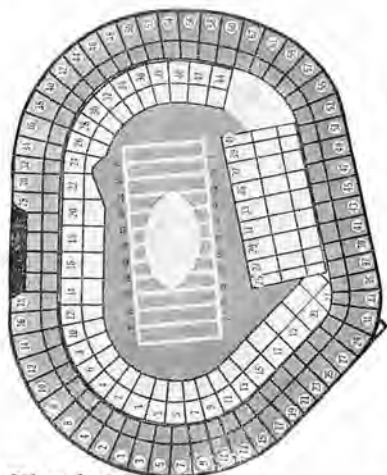

STADIUM INFORMATION

The San Francisco 49ers begin their sixth year in Candlestick Park, now recognized as one of the better combination stadiums in the United States.

The "new" Candlestick was completed in 1972 (the 49ers played in the park while it was still under construction in 1971), and, completely encircled, carpeted with Astroturf, furnished throughout with comfortable chairs (no bleachers), surrounded by adequate parking space, it was an immediate hit as a football facility.

The stadium seats 61,246 for football. There are three major ticket plazas and entry areas, each served by escalators which move spectators to and from the various seating levels. Every seat in the stadium is a chair-type plastic unit for comfort and durability.

Completely double-decked, the park features a 6,000-seat movable section. Astroturf facilitates rapid conversion from baseball to football configuration.

Other facts:

Original ground-breaking for Candlestick Park was in 1958. The expansion program began November 19, 1969.

The stadium covers 14½-acres on an 82-acre site.

Stadium diameter is 680 feet at its shortest, 840 feet at its longest.

The highest point from field to roof is 120 feet.

There are 29 concession stands, 54 rest rooms.

There are parking spaces for 14,400 automobiles in the stadium and auxiliary lots, as well as space for 175 buses.

Stadium construction required 1,034 tons of structural steel, 8,000 tons of reinforcing steel and 50,000 cubic yards of concrete.

STADIUM DIRECTORY:

First Aid is located on the main level concourse opposite Section 7.

Police Station is located on main level concourse opposite Section 5.

Lost and Found is in the Burns Security Office on the mezzanine level opposite Section 7.

Telephones are located throughout the stadium. Specifically, at each ticket plaza, along the main concourse and along the upper mezzanine level.

"WILL CALL" window is at Gate A, south end of the stadium.

Gates, A, E and F provide escalator service to the upper seating levels and are reversible for exiting after the game.

TICKET INFORMATION

Prices—Reserved seats $10.00, $9.00 and $5.50.

When available, reserved seat tickets for individual games will be on sale at all Ticketron outlets and at the 49er ticket office at 1255 Post Street, San Francisco 94109. Mail orders will be accepted.

Ticket office telephone: (415) 441-4900.
