ORGANIZATION

Denise DeBartolo York
OWNER

With more than 25 years experience in the field of sports management and real estate development and operations, Denise DeBartolo York serves as chairman of The DeBartolo Corporation and oversees the Corporation's portfolio, including the five-time world champion San Francisco 49ers. Headed by Denise, the corporation is ranked in the top 50 of this year's Working Woman Top 500 Woman-Owned businesses in the country.

DeBartolo York, who previously served as Executive Vice President of Personnel and Corporate Marketing/Communications for The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (EJDC), was instrumental in the development of the corporation's employee programs and communications tools. Based on her accomplishments, she was elevated to the position of Vice Chairman in April 1994. After the death of her father, Edward J. DeBartolo in December 1994, DeBartolo York was named Chairman. In February 2001, the assets of her father's estate, including EJDC, were equally distributed between Denise and her brother, Edward Jr., with Denise retaining ownership of the San Francisco 49ers, among other resources and properties.

When the Corporation owned the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League (1981-91), Denise was one of only a few female executives in the league. She was team President when the Penguins won their first Stanley Cup title in 1991. During three seasons as Pittsburgh's President, DeBartolo York helped the Penguins post a 113-106-21 record and qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs twice. She also was instrumental in allowing the city of Pittsburgh to host the NHL All-Star game for the first time ever, January 21, 1990. Denise and her father have been widely recognized as the individuals who saved hockey in the tri-state area by establishing a championship caliber organization and drafting star players like Mario Lemieux (1984) and Jaromir Jagr (1990).

In addition to her business responsibilities, DeBartolo York generously gives her time and resources to numerous charitable and community organizations, including the recent contribution of $500,000 to the women's athletic programs at Youngstown State University and the development of the DeBartolo Stadium Club, also at YSU. Last year, she made a significant contribution of $1 million to St. Mary's College for building construction and renovations. As a member of Ursuline Sisters Financial Advisory Board, DeBartolo York assisted them in developing and implementing a massive fundraising drive in 1991 for the construction of a new preschool, kindergarten and adult education center. In 2001, Denise has once again taken the lead in a second fundraising effort for assembly of an additional school building for inner-city children, by providing leadership and several million dollars of financial assistance.

Along with her husband, John York, and the San Francisco 49ers, DeBartolo York was of paramount importance to the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project in San Francisco, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for citizens of all ages in the Bay Area. She also has given substantial financial support to many youth organizations in San Francisco, including a $300,000 donation to the Police Athletic League's youth center at Hunter's Point.

She supports the Marie Denise DeBartolo York and the Denise & John York Foundations' intent to utilize grant funds to provide help for the poor, the underprivileged and the needs of children. Additionally, she is committed to the efforts of the 49ers Foundation, helping hundreds of organizations and awarding well over $1 million of financial support to Bay Area agencies.

Continuing her father's tradition of a strong belief in education, Denise has awarded over $150,000 in scholarships to high school seniors in the Mahoning Valley (OH), through the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which was established upon his death in 1994. Additionally, she is the campaign chairman and major donor for the Youngstown Diocese Catholic Education scholarship league, and chairman of "Operation Education," a fundraising effort by Youngstown's Catholic High Schools. Through her generosity and commitment, she was financially responsible for the Chapel at Cardinal Mooney (OH) High School, among other structures and renovations.

In 1991, she served as the chairperson for MADD's (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) Project Red Ribbon Campaign and is currently involved with the efforts of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. She was recognized for the contribution of three additional classrooms and a library to St. Charles Elementary School in Boardman, OH. As a major contributor, she is responsible, among other projects, for the new concourse at Fellows Riverside Gardens in Mill Creek Park, located in Youngstown. In keeping with her tradition of commitment and kindness to children, she has made generous donations to Todd Children's Hospital, also in Youngstown.

DeBartolo York began her career with The DeBartolo Corporation after graduating from St. Mary's College at Notre Dame. She and her husband, John York, are the parents of two sons and twin daughters.

NOW THAT'S A STREAK!

The 49ers closed the 2001 regular season having scored in 420 consecutive games, including the postseason. The streak is by far the longest in NFL history. Dallas scored in 248 consecutive games from 1970-85 to rank second. Cleveland had a 274 game scoring streak from 1950-71 but that did not include postseason games. The second longest current streak is 182 consecutive games by Green Bay.

SCORING STREAKS

1.	San Francisco (1977-curr.)	420
2.	Dallas (1970-85)	248
3.	Oakland (1966-81)	241
4.	New Orleans (1983-97)	220
5.	Kansas City (1963-76)	186

John York

DIRECTOR/OWNER'S REPRESENTATIVE

As Director/Owner's Representative of the San Francisco 49ers, the DeBartolo Corporation's largest asset, John York is the fundamental source providing oversight between the company's home office in Youngstown, OH and the 49ers in San Francisco. He has been instrumental with the rebuilding of the 49ers and putting a senior management team in place to run the operations of the franchise on a day-to-day basis.

Since stepping into a leadership role with the 49ers in 1998, York has had to handle a variety of issues to clearly define the vision and direction of the organization. He joined forces with Bill Walsh, John McVay, Terry Donahue and Steve Mariucci to guide the team through a difficult salary cap crisis. He also is credited with forming a dynamic management team headed by Peter Harris, a highly successful business leader, as team President/CEO.

Aside from his duties with the 49ers, York doubles as the President of the DeBartolo Corporation, where he oversees the day-to-day operations of the corporation's portfolio. A member of the Board of Directors, York is essential in steering the DeBartolo Corporation's other business responsibilities while maintaining interests in several other ventures, including an investment firm based in Youngstown, OH, and a software systems organization in Nashville, TN.

York, a successful entrepreneur with a multi-faceted business background, has a proven record for developing turnkey operations. In 1982, he founded DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown. From three employees, York molded a 500-person operation with facilities in three states. With revenues between $25 and $30 million annually, his business was considered among the largest in the Midwest. DeYor Laboratories was sold to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

Bringing this expertise to the DeBartolo Corporation, York assumed the position of Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations in December 1994. York successfully instituted programs designed to streamline operations and enhance the overall value of the racing portfolio. He developed the inaugural DeBartolo Racing Challenge in 1997, tying together the Derbies at Thistledown, Remington Park and Louisiana Downs for three-year olds. The single winner of the three DeBartolo races collected a $1 million bonus. Thistledown in Cleveland, OH, and Remington Park in Oklahoma City, OK, were sold to Magna International, Inc., in 1999. Seeing the value in the DeBartolo Challenge, Magna has continued this tradition and invited York to sit on their Board of Directors. Since 1995, York has been a director of Equibase, providing statistical racing information to the industry and patrons.

In addition to his business acumen, York is noted for his generous support of youth activities and education. Through contributions of time and resources, he has actively participated in many worthwhile community organizations. Last year, a $500,000 contribution was made to the Youngstown State University women's athletic programs. He serves on the Science Advisory Council at the University of Notre Dame and also was selected to be a member of Youngstown State University's Search Committee for a new athletic director.

York also has given substantial financial support to many youth organizations in the San Francisco Bay Area, including a $300,000 donation to the Police Athletic League's youth center at Hunter's Point. He, along with his wife, Denise, and the San Francisco 49ers, were instrumental to the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for San Franciscans of all ages. Also in San Francisco, he is a member of the Board of Directors for the Committee On Jobs, a coalition of the city's largest private employers who work together to promote good public policy.

York currently holds the position of Vice President for the Boardman (OH) Community Baseball Association, an area baseball league for children ages five through 18. He was instrumental in the construction of "Fields of Dreams," a local baseball complex comprised of 20 baseball fields, and has participated in local youth basketball programs as a coach and organizer.

Supporting local education, York was recognized in 1996 for his generosity and guidance in the renovation of the library at St. Charles Elementary School, as well as the addition of three new classrooms in 1997. In the spring of 1999, York donated a new math and science building at his alma mater, Little Rock Catholic High School, which celebrated a grand opening this year. Also this year, he sponsored the medical ethics symposium during the Third National Undergraduate Bioethics Conference at the University of Notre Dame.

A native of Muskogee, OK, York graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1971. After receiving his doctorate from Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in 1975, York underwent seven years of post-doctorate training at such prominent universities as Loyola of Chicago and Vanderbilt. An accomplished writer and lecturer, York has numerous presentations to his credit. He also belongs to several professional societies, including the American Society of Clinical Pathology, International Academy of Pathology and the American Medical Association.

Peter Harris

PRESIDENT/CEO

Peter Harris is in his third year as President/CEO of the San Francisco 49ers. He is the eighth President in team history and has responsibility for all football and business activities. With his leadership, the entire organization has come together around a shared vision to be "the best of the best" and "set the standard" in everything the 49ers organization does both on and off the field.

Harris brings to the organization a highly successful track record in business, a passion for winning and a commitment to teamwork and oneness of purpose. He has helped formulate a management team that features some of the brightest and most talented people in the industry. He has increased the scope of the organization and is focused on developing the most entertaining and fan-friendly environment possible.

Harris came to the 49ers with a reputation as a successful business leader, developed over 20 years as a CEO. He is considered one of the creators of what is known today as "entertainment retailing," creating interactive and entertaining experiences for customers while they shop.

He began his career in Southern California at Gemco Department Stores, a subsidiary of Lucky Stores. He spent 18 years with the company, rising to President/CEO at the age of 36. Gemco grew to $2.2 billion in sales with 18,000 employees during his leadership.

Harris and an investor partner purchased FAO Schwarz in 1985 when the company was floundering. With a focus on the customer and the creation of an interactive retail shopping experience, the beloved New York-based toy store chain moved back to the position it holds today as the world's preeminent retailer of fine toys and gifts for children. The chain was sold in 1990 and Harris remained CEO until 1992.

After FAO Schwarz, he moved back to Northern California where he entered the Silicon Valley technology sphere and became CEO of Accolade, an entertainment software developer and publisher. He helped re-capitalize and re-position the company and built a new management team.

From 1995 until joining the 49ers, Harris served as CEO of The Picture People headquartered in Foster City, CA. Their business concept created children's and family portraits in a fun, friendly, interactive mall store environment. He built the company into a successful 300-store chain and sold the operation in 1999 to Hallmark, remaining as CEO until joining the 49ers.

Harris serves on the boards of The Bay Area Sports Organizing Committee, which is leading the effort for San Francisco's bid for the 2012 Olympic Games, The George Lucas Education Foundation, the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, Pacific Sunwear and a private grammar school. He also is active in three non-profit children's wellness organizations.

A native of Stockton, CA, Harris was born December 17, 1943. The oldest of four siblings, he has two sisters and a brother, all of whom live in the Bay Area. Harris prepped at Lincoln High in Stockton, where he was a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball. He earned all-city honors at center and linebacker as a junior and senior.

Harris played football and baseball at Whittier College, where he graduated with a degree in business administration in 1965. He and his wife Jan, have three boys, Michael, David and Richard.

Terry Donahue

GENERAL MANAGER

Terry Donahue, in his fourth season with the 49ers, was named General Manager of the team May 2, 2001. His responsibilities include all aspects of football operations, including contracts, personnel decisions, the college draft, as well as being involved in the daily management of the organization.

Donahue has been instrumental in the rapid and highly successful rebuilding project that saw the 49ers plummet to 4-12 in salary cap quick sand in 1999 before rebounding to 12-4 and playoff participant in just two seasons.

The long time UCLA head coach was hired by the 49ers in 1999 as Director of Player Personnel and was elevated to Assistant General Manager prior to the 2000 season. While being groomed by Bill Walsh to take over the General Manager post, Donahue's primary duties included managing the 49ers scouting and draft activities in addition to coordinating the team's pro personnel department. Donahue deserves credit for making adjustments to San Francisco's drafting system, which resulted in a retooled, energetic roster. The highlight came in 2000, when the 49ers landed five starters with their first six picks.

Donahue joined the 49ers after spending three years (1996-98) as the lead college football analyst for CBS Sports. Prior to going into broadcasting, Donahue enjoyed a Hall of Fame coaching career at UCLA. He became the winningest coach in Pac-10 history, posting a 151-74-8 (.665) record during a 20-year (1976-95) head coaching career with the Bruins. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

During his two-decade coaching career, Donahue built UCLA into one of the top programs in the country. The Bruins finished in the Top 20 12 times and cracked the Top 10 five times under Donahue's direction. He registered a 98-51-5 (.653) conference record and guided the Bruins to 13 bowl games, including four Rose Bowls, and five Pac-10 championships. The 98 wins are the most in conference history, and he posted a winning record against every Pac-10 opponent. Donahue had an 8-4-1 record in bowl games and is one of only two coaches in NCAA history to win eight consecutive bowl appearances.

He made six appearances in the Rose Bowl, including one as a player, one as an assistant coach and four as a head coach. He guided the Bruins to three Rose Bowl championships as a coach and was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1997.

UCLA produced 34 first-team All-Americans and had 14 players selected in the first round of the NFL draft during Donahue's tenure. He was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2001.

The Southern California native went to UCLA as a walk-on and started two seasons (1965-66) at defensive tackle. After graduating in 1967, he became defensive line coach at Kansas before returning to UCLA as offensive line coach in 1971 under Pepper Rodgers. At age 31 he assumed the head coaching position when Dick Vermeil resigned to coach the Philadelphia Eagles in 1976.

Donahue was a starting linebacker at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks, CA. After playing freshman football at San Jose State, he attended L.A. Valley College before enrolling at UCLA, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history in 1967. He later added a master's degree from UCLA in kinesiology in '77.

Terry was born (6-24-44) in Los Angeles, CA. He and his wife, Andrea, have three grown children: Nicole, Michele, and Jennifer; and two granddaughters, Brooke and Alexandra. The Donahues live in Los Gatos, CA.

Les Schmidt

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

The 49ers landed one of the Silicon Valley's true business leaders when Les Schmidt was named Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer January 29, 2001. He brings more than 20 years of company building experience to an organization committed to leadership in a competitive business environment that is increasingly influenced by technology.

As COO, Schmidt oversees the day-to-day business operations of the 49ers, which includes stadium operations, ticketing, security, insurance, legal matters and others. Schmidt has led the integration of technology into many aspects of the 49ers operations. Most recently, he has focused on improving coaching systems, providing better service to the fans and introducing new office technologies that improve the team's efficency and effectiveness.

Schmidt has been instrumental in building several Bay Area companies over the last two decades, including Quokka Sports, The Learning Company, MECON, Inc. and Applied Immune Sciences.

Prior to joining the 49ers, he served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for Quokka Sports, a digital sports entertainment company that produced real time coverage of sporting events, with the idea of changing the way fans experienced sports. Quokka gained notoriety by creating and managing the nbcolympics.com web site during the 2000 Summer Games in Sydney, Australia.

Schmidt brings with him an extensive background in finance. He graduated from Antioch College in Yellow Springs, OH, with a degree in political science and economics in 1976. He earned his master's degree in taxation from Golden Gate University in 1981. Following graduation, Schmidt began his career as a certified public accountant at Coopers and Lybrand in San Jose.

After four years (1981-84) at Coopers and Lybrand, Schmidt served as CFO (1984-87) for Applied Immune Sciences, a venture-backed start-up research and development company that specialized in bio-medical devices.

From 1987-93, he was the CFO for The Learning Company, an innovator and developer of educational, foreign language and home office productivity software. He was promoted to COO in 1994 and remained in that capacity until 1996. Under Schmidt's leadership, The Learning Company generated $350 million in annual revenues. He managed 700 employees in four locations and was responsible for product development, finance, legal, marketing, customer support and operations.

In 1997, Schmidt was named President/CEO of MECON Inc., a publicly-traded health care services provider. Following the two-year tenure at MECON, Schmidt was named Executive Vice President/CFO for Quokka Sports.

Born 7-31-54, Schmidt is a native of Newton, KS and attended Shawnee Mission West High in Overland Park, KS. He and his wife JoAnne have three children.

John McVay

VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

For more than two decades the 49ers have greatly benefitted from the steady and consistent leadership of John McVay, who is in his 21st season. During his tenure with the 49ers, McVay has helped the organization claim five Super Bowl titles and has been the one constant decision-maker through the transition from salary cap crisis to playoff participant.

As Vice President/Director of Football Operations he is responsible for many duties including contract negotiations, preseason scheduling and salary cap management. He returned to the 49ers in October of 1998 and has orchestrated the team's extensive efforts to get under the salary cap in each of the last four years.

McVay spent 17 years (1979-95) with the 49ers with administrative responsibilities including Vice President and General Manager, Director of Player Personnel, Director of Football Operations, Vice President for Football Administration, Administrative Vice President and Assistant to the President. During his tenure, the 49ers claimed five Super Bowl titles, three with Bill Walsh and two with George Seifert. He was named The Sporting News NFL Executive-of-the-Year in 1989, following the team's fourth Super Bowl.

He came to the 49ers after three seasons with the New York Giants (1976-78) and two years as the head coach and General Manager of the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League, where his teams were 24-7 during the 1974 and '75 seasons. During his tenure with the Giants, McVay was elevated to head coach after seven games in 1976. He led the Giants to three consecutive wins over long time nemisis the Washington Redskins. McVay retired from the 49ers February 1, 1996 and returned to the team October 20, 1998.

McVay's coaching career included nine years of high school football in Ohio: Three years at Lancaster High, one year at Franklin High and five years at Canton Central Catholic High, where he compiled a 41-7 record.

From the prep ranks, he became an assistant on Duffy Daugherty's Michigan State staff (1962-64) before taking over at Dayton prior to joining the WFL. He was Head Coach (1965-73) and Athletic Director (1972-73) at Dayton, where he led the 1966 Flyers to their first winning season (8-2) in 10 years.

Born (1-5-31) in Bellaire, OH and a product of the famous high school football town of Massillon, OH, McVay was an All-Ohio center as a Massillon schoolboy. He was elected to the prestigious Massillon Hall of Fame in 1994.

An All-Midwest selection as a center at Miami University (known nationally as the "Cradle of Coaches") in Oxford, OH, he played for both Woody Hayes and Ara Parseghian. Hayes awarded McVay Miami's last available football scholarship, and John went on to become a team captain for the Redskins and ironically wore number 49. He is a member of Miami's athletic Hall of Fame.

McVay's three sons all followed in his collegiate football footsteps. Jim, the Executive Director for college football's Outback Steakhouse Bowl in Tampa, FL, was quarterback/safety at Dayton; John Jr. played safety for Miami; and Tim, who was captain at Indiana, also played safety.

John, and his wife Susan, live in Granite Bay, CA

Bill Walsh

CONSULTANT

Bill Walsh, the man who took over a losing San Francisco 49ers team in 1979 and built it into the most successful NFL franchise over the last two decades, will provide his knowledge, experience and eye for talent to the 49ers as a Consultant. He stepped down as Vice President/General Manager May 2, 2001.

Walsh returned to the organization as Vice President/General Manager January 20, 1999 with a plan to correct San Francisco's salary cap problems and restock the roster with young, talented players. Under his leadership, the 49ers landed 11 players in the 2000 draft, including five rookie starters on defense, and have trimmed the salary cap overruns to manageable levels without sacrificing too much talent. It was the second time the Hall of Famer was able to right the 49ers ship.

Under Walsh's direction the 49ers experienced heights of victory never reached prior to his arrival as head coach in 1979. He was appointed the team's General Manager in 1982 and ascended to the role of President in 1985. During this period, Walsh was responsible for all major organizational decisions. During the 10-year tenure (1979-88), Walsh laid the foundation of success that the 49ers have achieved over the last 20 years, including the beginning (1983) of an unprecedented streak of 16 consecutive 10-win seasons.

Walsh was at the helm of one of the greatest success stories in the history of professional sports. In 1979, he took over a team that went 2-14 the previous season and transformed it into a Super Bowl champion in just three years. Under Walsh's direction, the 49ers won three Super Bowl titles (1981, '84 and '88), made seven NFC postseason appearances and claimed six NFC West division championships. He was twice named NFL Coach-of-the-Year (1981, 1984) and was later named NFL Coach-of-the-Decade for the 1980s.

Walsh became one of only 14 coaches in the history of professional football to be elected to the Hall of Fame, when he was enshrined in 1993. He compiled a .617 winning percentage with a 102-63-1 career record that included 10 wins in 14 postseason games. He was the first coach in team history to reach the 100-win plateau.

Walsh's first collegiate head coaching job came at Stanford in 1977, where he directed the Cardinal to a 17-7 record and captured wins in the Bluebonnet and Sun Bowls during his two-year tenure. Walsh returned to Stanford in 1992 and promptly led the Cardinal to a 10-3 record that concluded with a New Year's Day win over Penn State in the Blockbuster Bowl. It was the school's first New Year's Day bowl game victory in 21 years. He remained at Stanford through the 1994 season.

In 1994, Walsh was instrumental in the establishment and management of the World League of American Football, now known as NFL Europe. He has continued to serve the league as a consultant and representative in various NFL ventures.

Walsh's impact on the coaching industry is apparent by the rise of former assistants, players and people who have come under his influence, include Dennis Green, Mike Holmgren, Mike Shanahan, Ray Rhodes, Jeff Fisher, Sam Wyche, Rod Dowhower, Bruce Coslet, Sherman Lewis, Brian Billick, Gary Kubiak, George Seifert, Jon Gruden, Paul Hackett, Dwaine Board, Bobb McKittrick, Bill McPherson, Tom Rathman, Harry Sydney and Tom Lovat.

In 1987, Walsh created the Minority Coaching Fellowship program that has produced, among others, Tyronne Willingham, Notre Dame's current head coach, Marvin Lewis, Washington's defensive coordinator and NFL assistants Bobby Turner, Don Martin and Don Treadwell. The NFL later adopted this Fellowship as a league-wide program.

After 10 seasons with San Francisco, Walsh joined NBC Sports in 1989 and teamed with award-winning announcer Dick Enberg for three seasons as the network's top analyst on NFL and Notre Dame telecasts.

Walsh earned a bachelor's degree (1955) and a master's in education (1959) from San Jose State. He is author of two books Finding the Winning Edge and Building a Champion.

Walsh and his wife, Geri, are the parents of three grown children: Steve, Craig and Elizabeth.

Ed Goines

VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS/GENERAL COUNSEL

Edward T. Goines is in his second season as Vice President of Business Affairs and General Counsel for the 49ers. Goines oversees the 49ers legal matters, provides strategic counsel to senior management and assists in growing the team's sales and marketing relationships.

Goines brings more than 10 years of business and legal experience to the 49ers. Over the past decade, Goines has held senior positions in the legal and business affairs departments of several industry-leading companies, including Ticketmaster, Mattel, Inc. and Major League Soccer, L.L.C.

Most recently, Goines served as Vice President, Assistant General Counsel and Chief Privacy Officer of Ticketmaster Corporation, the world's leading ticketing service provider, selling 83 million tickets valued at more than $3.2 billion in 2000. While at Ticketmaster, Goines was responsible for the legal and business aspects of the company's online ticketing operations, including negotiation of Internet license, sponsorship and media agreements and establishing the company's consumer privacy standards.

Prior to Ticketmaster, from 1997-2000, Goines was Senior Counsel for Mattel, Inc., principally involved in negotiating and drafting license and sponsorship agreements relating to Mattel toys, software and other entertainment products involving the Barbie and Hot Wheels brands. He also managed the international prosecution and enforcement of Mattel's trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property. In 1996-97, Goines was in-house counsel for Major League Soccer, L.L.C., responsible for structuring the soccer league's licensing and sponsorship arrangements and leading its anti-counterfeiting efforts.

In 1992, Goines began his legal career in the Los Angeles office of the Cleveland, Ohio-based national law firm of Baker and Hostetler. He is a graduate of the California-Boalt Hall School of Law and a 1988 graduate of Stanford University where he received a degree in political science. Born 12-29-65, Goines is a native of Hot Springs, AR.

David Goldman

VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

David Goldman is in his second year as Vice President of Business Development for the 49ers. He oversees several areas of the 49ers business operations, including sales and marketing, public and community relations, special events and game day presentation. He also will assist with the stadium development plans.

Goldman came to the 49ers with 14 years of experience in marketing and public relations, including six with the National Football League, where he served as the Director of Club Marketing.

During his six years with the NFL, Goldman gained extensive experience with stadium development working closely with ownership groups in Tampa Bay, Cleveland, Tennessee and Houston to identify marketing opportunities, sponsorship and fan support during their transitional periods. He was instrumental in creating an effective stadium presentation in each of those cities, including Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, the site of Super Bowl XXXV.

Goldman joined the NFL in 1995 as a Senior Manager for Club Marketing. He was promoted to Director of Club Marketing in 1998. Providing support and business development ideas to each of the NFL's 32 clubs, Goldman was involved in team uniform design, sponsorship sales and local marketing program establishment.

Prior to the NFL, the Philadelphia native served for three years (1993-95) as Marketing Manager for TL Partnership in New York, where he worked extensively in the national sales group for Pepsi-Cola.

After graduating from Fairleigh Dickinson with a degree in marketing in 1987, Goldman worked for the Philadelphia 76ers as a marketing and public relations assistant in 1988. He was an Account Supervisor for the public relations agency Alan Taylor in New York from 1988-92, handling the event planning for specialty sports like pro beach volleyball, auto racing, arm wrestling and boxing. In 1992, Goldman joined the management team of former heavyweight champion Riddick Bowe, assisting Rock Newman with promotions and marketing. His initial exposure to the NFL came as a public relations/marketing intern for the Washington Redskins in 1986.

Born (2-5-65) in Philadelphia, PA, Goldman grew up in Cherry Hill, NJ and attended Cherry Hill High West. He and his wife, Deborah, have one son, Gabriel, and reside in Menlo Park, CA.

Bill McPherson

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

In 1999, Bill McPherson made the transition from the coaching staff to administration, taking over as the Director of Pro Personnel. McPherson handles the research of player movement and evaluation of talent in the NFL, as well as assisting with game plan formulation. He retired from coaching following the 1998 season.

McPherson served 20 years (1979-98) as an assistant coach for the 49ers. One of the most respected teachers in the game, his coaching capacities included assistant head coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach, defensive coordinator and defensive assistant.

A defensive tackle at Santa Clara in the early '50s, McPherson began coaching in 1956 at his high school alma mater, San Jose's Bellarmine Prep (1956-62), following U.S. Army service in Korea.

He later was the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Santa Clara for 12 years (1963-74) before moving to UCLA as defensive line coach (1975-77).

At UCLA, he worked with Dick Vermeil, whom he later joined as an assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles (1978) as linebackers coach for one year before joining the 49ers in 1979.

"Mac" was inducted into Santa Clara's Athletic Hall of Fame as a player and coach (1984) and was appointed to the University's Board of Fellows in 1989. He holds a business degree from Santa Clara ('54) and a teacher's certification (secondary degree) from San Jose State ('58).

Born in Santa Clara, CA, Bill and his wife, Elsie, have five grown children: Michael, Claire, Joanne, Marianne and Patrick, who works for the Denver Broncos as an Offensive Assistant. The couple lives in San Jose, CA.

Dominic Corsell

ASSISTANT DIR. OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/SALARY CAP COORDINATOR

Dominic Corsell is in his 12th year with the San Francisco 49ers. During an eight-year tenure (1994-01) in Football Operations as the Salary Cap Coordinator, Corsell proved to be an effective planner, negotiator and decision-maker, prompting a boost to his current role as Assistant Director of Football Operations/Salary Cap Coordinator in 2002.

Corsell is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the 49ers salary cap and roster, while serving as the liaison between football operations and the team's business office. He is one of the team's primary player contract negotiators and serves as a conduit between the 49ers and NFL Management Council and Players' Association.

In addition to managing the cap, Corsell is responsible for the research of player movement and contract developments within the league in order to forecast league market values and trends. He also assists General Manager Terry Donahue and Director of Football Operations John McVay with general football administration duties.

Corsell spent six years working for the DeBartolo Corporation as an audit supervisor before joining the 49ers business office in 1990. He is a 1984 graduate of Youngstown State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration and accounting.

Born (8-11-61) in Youngstown, OH, Dominic, and his wife, Donna, reside in San Jose, CA.

DOUBLE DIGITS

Bill Walsh produced seven 10-win seasons during his 10-year NFL head coaching career. Reaching double-digit wins 70 percent of the time is the second highest success rate by an NFL coach in league history. George Seifert produced eight 10-win seasons during his 11-year tenure (.727).

MARIE P. DeBARTOLO SPORTS CENTRE

In loving memory of their mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers Owner Denise DeBartolo York and her brother, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., dedicated the team's training facility and office complex in August 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of the stadium), the complex provides players, coaches and staff with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the facility exemplifies the DeBartolos' strive for perfection and drive for superiority. It also reflects their dedication to the organization and first-class standard for operating procedures.

Three natural grass practice fields, with underground drainage and watering systems, allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions.

A two-story, 52,000 square-foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities with the exception of the ticket and stadium operations. Located upstairs at the facility are offices for coaches, administration, marketing, business operations, public relations, pro scouting and college scouting.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with 60 permanent lockers and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps when squads are larger.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-by-40-foot hydro-therapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms, each featuring a video cassette projector, allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games, practice sessions and upcoming opponents.

Media facilities include two interview rooms, a sizable workroom, alongside a 120-seat auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), making the set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the media workroom is a canopied patio area used for team meals, press luncheons and other team-related activities.

UNBEAT-A-BOWL

With a 5-0 mark in the Super Bowl, the 49ers own the best record in the history of the NFL's biggest game. San Francisco is one of four unbeaten teams in Super Bowl play, and the only unbeaten in multiple appearances. The Chicago Bears, New York Jets and Baltimore Ravens are each 1-0. The 49ers are 5-1 in league title games if you count the 21-7 loss to Cleveland in the 1949 AAFC Championship Game.

Steve Mariucci
HEAD COACH

Steve Mariucci is in his sixth season as the head coach for the San Francisco 49ers. The former college quarterback has posted a 47-33 (.587) regular season record during his tenure with the 49ers and under his guidance the 49ers have posted the best record among NFC West teams (prior to realignment since 1997). He also has a 32-10 home mark, including playoffs. Mariucci is the 13th head coach in team history.

During his five years with the 49ers, Mariucci has had to deal with enormous turnover on the roster. During the 2000 season, he started as many as seven rookies on defense, including five at one time. Despite the constant change and adversity, Mariucci has not only maintained a positive disposition, but has directed one of the most explosive offenses in the NFL. Since 1997, the 49ers rank second in the NFL in total offense with 362.8 yards per game, trailing only St. Louis (367.6 yards per game). His teams have led the league in rushing twice (1998-99), ranked number one in total offense in 1998, averaged 24.3 points per game during his five years and have been the most efficient in handling the football. The 49ers have averaged just 1.5 turnovers per game since Mariucci took over, ranking him first among head coaches since 1970 for fewest giveaways per game in NFL history.

Mariucci set an NFL record for the fastest start at home in league history, winning his first 18 games, eclipsing the 13-0 mark John Madden had with Oakland in 1969-70. He also established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game winning streak in his first season in 1997.

In 2001, Mariucci led a young team to a 12-4 record and a berth into the NFC Playoffs for the first time in three years. The team effort was highlighted by the Pro Bowl performances of Jeff Garcia (second consecutive), Bryant Young (third career), Ray Brown (first), Jeremy Newberry (first), Terrell Owens (second consecutive) and Garrison Hearst (second career). Hearst earned the Comeback-Player-of-the-Year award, rushing for 1,206 yards and four touchdowns after a two-year absence due to an ankle injury.

With 12 wins in 2001, Mariucci became only the second coach in NFL history to win 12-or-more games in three of his first five seasons as head coach. The only other coach in league history to achieve that feat is former 49ers head coach George Seifert who did it in 1989, 1990 and 1992.

In his tenure with the 49ers, Mariucci has had 23 of his players earn Pro Bowl bids. Mariucci has placed two different players in the Pro Bowl at quarterback (Steve Young and Jeff Garcia), running back (Garrison Hearst and Charlie Garner) and wide receiver (Jerry Rice and Terrell Owens) over the last five years.

Mariucci has had two primary starting quarterbacks while with the 49ers and both, Steve Young and Jeff Garcia, enjoyed multiple Pro Bowl appearances under his watch. Young threw for 4,170 yards and a team record 36 touchdowns in 1998. He helped develop Garcia from a free agent from the Canadian Football League in 1999 to a two-time Pro Bowler. Garcia set a team record with 4,278 yards passing in 2000 and became the first quarterback in team history with 30-or-more touchdown passes in consecutive seasons with 32 in 2000 and 31 in 2001.

Mariucci joined the 49ers staff January 16, 1997 after spending one season as head coach at the University of California. In 1996, he led a young Cal team to a 6-5 regular season record and a trip to the Aloha Bowl. His implementation of the West Coast offense helped the Bears average 457.6 yards per game, including a school record 321.5 through the air.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Mariucci was quarterbacks coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1992-95, tutoring the likes of three-time MVP Brett Favre, Mark Brunell and Ty Detmer.

During his college days, Mariucci led Northern Michigan on the greatest turnaround in college football history. After posting an 0-10 record in 1974, Mariucci directed the Wildcats to a 13-1 record and the 1975 NCAA Division II National Championship. The two-time All-America quarterback (1976-77) was voted the team MVP for three consecutive seasons, establishing 14 school passing records prior to his graduation in 1977.

Mariucci was inducted into Northern Michigan University Hall of Fame in 1988 and elected into the Upper Peninsula of Michigan Hall of Fame in 1995.

Mariucci hosts an annual celebrity Bocce Ball tournament, including celebrities John Madden, Danny Glover, Willie Mays, Brandi Chastain, Jonny Moseley, George Seifert, Peggy Fleming and many current and former 49ers players. The 2002 tournament helped to raise more than $200,000 for various Bay Area charities. He also co-hosts several charity golf tournaments, including one with longtime friend Tom Izzo in Iron Mountain, MI each summer to raise money for Iron Mountain High School and other youth organizations. He is also a supporter of Boys and Girls Club, March of Dimes and is an honorary chairman for CYO.

A native of Iron Mountain, MI, Steve was born November 4, 1955. He and his wife, Gayle, have four children: sons, Tyler (11-28-84), Adam (8-23-86), Stephen (2-3-89) and daughter, Brielle (9-19-95).

Mariucci's coaching background: 1978-79 (Northern Michigan), 1980-82 (Cal State-Fullerton), 1983-84 (Louisville), 1985 (Orlando Renegades, USFL), 1985 (Los Angeles Rams), 1986 (Southern California), 1987-91 (California), 1992-95 (Green Bay Packers), 1996 (California), 1997-curr. (49ers).

FOUR POINTS OF PRESSURE

It is no secret that Steve Mariucci preaches ball security. His "four points of pressure" drills and speeches have clearly paid off. The 49ers' head coach is the NFL's all-time leader in fewest turnovers as a head coach. During 80 regular season games, Mariucci's teams have turned the ball over just 1.5 times per game. No coach since the NFL merger has produced better numbers than that.

QUICK FIX

Steve Mariucci became just the 24th head coach to improve from six-or-fewer wins to 10-or-more wins in back-to-back seasons since the merger in 1970. He is one of only 30 coaches in NFL history, including the AFL, to accomplish the dramatic turnaround. The 49ers were 6-10 in 2000 and improved to 12-4 in 2001. Mariucci is the third 49ers coach to direct such a turnaround. Dick Nolan went 4-8-2 in 1969 before jumping to 10-3-1 in 1970. Bill Walsh molded a 6-10 in 1980 into a 13-3 Super Bowl champion in 1981. Bill Parcells is the only coach to do it three times: 1987-88 (N.Y. Giants), 1993-94 (New England) and 1995-96 (New England).

BALANCE BAR

As head coach of the 49ers, Steve Mariucci has stressed balance during his five years and the numbers show it. Since 1997, the 49ers offense has a run-pass average of 29.3-33.9 per game. San Francisco is averaging 132.9 yards per game on the ground compared to 229.2 yards passing during Mariucci's tenure.

JERRY ATTAWAY PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Jerry Attaway, in his 20th season as coordinator for physical development, supervises the team's weight/exercise training and the dietary/nutritional needs of the players.

Attaway came to the 49ers following five years in a similar capacity at the University of Southern California (1978-82). During his first three years at USC, he was the assistant offensive line coach, as well as coordinator for physical development.

A product of UC Davis and Sacramento State, Attaway transferred to Sacramento State after an injury ended his football career.

Collegiately, he served as an assistant coach at UC Davis (1970-72), the College of Idaho (1973-75) and Utah State (1976-77), prior to his USC coaching stint.

After earning a degree in physical education and biology from Sacramento State in 1972, Attaway received his master's degree in education, with an emphasis in guidance and counseling, from the College of Idaho in '74. He often conducts health workshops that focus on weight loss and nutrition.

Born (1-3-46) in Susanville, CA, Jerry and his wife, Cheryl, live in San Jose, CA.

Attaway's coaching background: 1970-72 (UC Davis), 1973-75 (College of Idaho), 1976-77 (Utah State), 1978-82 (Southern California), 1983-curr. (49ers).

TOM BATTA TIGHT ENDS

Tom Batta is in his fourth season with the 49ers as tight ends coach and in his 19th year as an NFL coach.

Under the tutelage of Batta, Eric Johnson went from never lining up in a three-point stance, to becoming the 49ers go-to tight end. Johnson earned All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly and broke the team record for receptions in a season by a rookie tight end, with 40 catches during the 2001 season.

San Francisco represents the fourth team Batta has worked for during his NFL coaching career, which began in 1984 as defensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings. He served as special teams coach for Bud Grant in 1985 before taking over as tight ends/special teams coach under Jerry Burns from 1986-91. Batta handled special teams on Dennis Green's staff from 1992-93. After a 10-year stint in Minnesota, Batta joined the staff of the Indianapolis Colts in 1994 as special teams coach and was moved to tight ends/quality control coach from 1995-97. He was quality control coach for Pittsburgh in 1998.

Batta entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Akron University in 1973 after leading Warren Harding High in Warren, OH, to a state championship. He moved to Colorado as defensive line coach from 1974-78. He served as defensive coordinator at Kansas (1979-82) and North Carolina State (1983) before jumping to the NFL in 1984.

Before becoming a coach, Batta played three years on the offensive and defensive lines for Kent State from 1961-63. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Kent State and a master's in education at Akron.

Batta was born (10-6-42) in Youngstown, OH. He and his wife, Liz, have two grown sons, Jeff and Tom.

Batta's coaching background: 1973 (Akron), 1974-78 (Colorado), 1979-82 (Kansas), 1983 (North Carolina State), 1984-93 (Minnesota Vikings), 1994-97 (Indianapolis Colts), 1998 (Pittsburgh Steelers), 1999-curr. (49ers).

CHRIS BEAKE DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Chris Beake is in his third year as a defensive assistant coach with the 49ers, following one season as the team's defensive quality control coach. He also spent one year as a pro personnel assistant with the team.

Beake assists linebackers coach Richard Smith, working this past season in the development of the 49ers young linebackers Jamie Winborn and Quincy Stewart.

Beake was a Civil Engineer Officer for the Air Force from 1996-98, designing and managing contract work at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida, among others. While a lieutenant, Beake was a graduate assistant coach for the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, CO, where he assisted the defensive coordinator and helped with the defensive backs from 1994-95.

A graduate of the Air Force Academy in 1994, Beake earned his bachelor's degree in civil engineering. He received a master's degree in business administration from the University of West Florida in 1997.

Born (9-10-72) in Kansas City, MO, Beake and his wife, Andrea, reside in Mountain View, CA.

Beake's coaching background: 1994-95 (Air Force), 1999-curr. (49ers).

DWAINE BOARD DEFENSIVE LINE

One of the 49ers' all-time sack leaders, Dwaine Board is in his 13th season with San Francisco, his ninth as defensive line coach. Board spent four years as the team's defensive line assistant, working primarily with the team's nickel defense and the "elephant" spot, a combination lineman-linebacker, prior to his promotion in February of 1994.

In 2001, Board's defensive line was anchored by three-time Pro Bowler Bryant Young, and the return of Dana Stubblefield. Board also tutored rookie lineman Andre Carter, who led the team in sacks with 6.5.

Board's 2000 defensive line was led by veteran DTs Young and Brentson Buckner, who combined for 16.5 sacks. Board, who lost DE Junior Bryant to a neck injury in the third game of the season, tutored rookie linemen Cedric Killings, John Milem and John Engelberger, who started the final 13 games in place of Bryant.

Young was the bright spot of Board's 1999 defensive line. Returning to the starting lineup after a career-threatening injury in '98, Young recorded 11 sacks, was voted Comeback-Player-of-the-Year by Associated Press and was invited to his second Pro Bowl.

Under Board's tutelage, the 1998 defensive unit recorded 51.0 sacks to rank second in the NFL. Individual performances included Chris Doleman who tied for second in the NFC and third in the NFL with 15.0 sacks. In 1997 Board was a factor in developing the NFL's Defensive Player-of-the-Year in Dana Stubblefield, who led the team with a career-high 15.0 sacks.

A member of three world championship 49er teams, Board recorded 61.0 career sacks and eight more in the postseason from 1979-88. His four tackles, two sacks and constant pressure in Super Bowl XIX, earned him Defensive Player-of-the-Game honors in San Francisco's 38-16 win over Miami.

A graduate of Franklin County (VA) High, Board was a three-time All-America selection at North Carolina A&T and a fifth-round draft choice of the Steelers in 1979.

Following his release by Pittsburgh, Board signed with the 49ers and registered a team-leading seven sacks as a rookie in '79. He retired following the '88 campaign, after joining the Saints midseason.

Born in Rocky Mount, VA (11-29-56), "Pee Wee" and his wife, Lynne, have three daughters: Camille (6-11-89), Allie (1-21-91) and Tessa Raine (3-22-95). The family lives in Redwood City, CA.

Board's coaching background: 1990-curr. (49ers).

BRUCE DEHAVEN SPECIAL TEAMS

Bruce DeHaven is in his third year with San Francisco. He joined the 49ers coaching staff after spending 13 seasons with the Buffalo Bills.

Under the tutelage of DeHaven, KR Vinny Sutherland broke the team record for most kick return yards by a rookie with 1,140 yards. DeHaven also was instrumental in helping P Jason Baker to be selected to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly.

In his first season, DeHaven helped with the improvement of the 49ers coverage units. Under DeHaven's guidance the 49ers became young and aggressive in covering kicks. Six special teams players totaled double-digit tackles in 2000, and three of those six were in their first year with the 49ers.

During his tenure in Buffalo, the Bills made four consecutive Super Bowl appearances, won six AFC East championships and appeared in 20 playoff games. In those 13 years, DeHaven helped develop two of the greatest special teams players in NFL history: Mike Pike and Steve Tasker. Under DeHaven's tutelage, Tasker was invited to seven Pro Bowls as the AFC's Special Teams Player and was voted the 1993 Pro Bowl MVP. In 1996, The Dallas Morning News, in a ranking of the 19 most important statistical categories, named the Bills special teams unit the best in the NFL. His 1991 punt coverage unit led the NFL in fewest punt return yards allowed, the lowest total since the NFL changed the rules allowing only the ends to release on punt coverage when the ball is snapped. DeHaven also guided the Bills kickoff coverage unit to a No.1 ranking in the NFL four consecutive years (1987-90).

Prior to joining the Bills staff in 1987, DeHaven spent the previous 15 years in various coaching capacities. He spent three seasons with the USFL as running backs and special teams coach with the Orlando Renegades (1985), special teams coach and offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Maulers ('84) and with the New Jersey Generals as special teams and assistant offensive line coach ('83).

DeHaven served as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at New Mexico State in 1982, before breaking into the pro ranks. From 1979-81, he coached at Kansas, working with the defensive backs, offensive line, as well as heading up the recruiting program. He spent nine years as a high school coach prior to joining the college ranks. As an assistant at Wichita Southeast High School, he helped lead the school to three straight football titles.

An avid St. Louis Cardinals baseball fan, DeHaven was born in Trousdale, KS (9-6-48). He played eight-man football at Belpre-Trousdale (KS) High. A graduate of Southwestern College (KS), DeHaven was a basketball standout, leading the team in scoring two consecutive years. He also participated in track and field. Bruce and his wife, Kathy, have a son, Tobin Scott (3-17-97) and a daughter, Annie Maude (3-23-99). The family resides in Livermore, CA.

DeHaven's coaching background: 1979-81 (Kansas), 1982 (New Mexico State), 1983 (New Jersey Generals, USFL), 1984 (Pittsburgh Maulers, USFL), 1985 (Orlando Renegades, USFL), 1987-99 (Buffalo Bills), 2000-curr. (49ers).

TERRELL JONES STRENGTH DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Terrell Jones is in his third season with the 49ers. His primary role with the team focuses on the area of strength training. He also assists Jerry Attaway with conditioning and nutritional needs for the players.

Jones joined the 49ers full-time in the middle of the 2000 season. He had served as an intern for the 49ers for three years (1997, 1999-00) prior to taking on the role full-time.

Before coming to the 49ers, Jones was the strength and conditioning coach at San Jose City College from 1998-00. Prior to that, Jones was a security specialist in the United States Air Force for nine years, stationed at several stateside and overseas bases, including Tynall AFB in Florida. While at Tynall, he supervised the strength and conditioning program for the Emergency Services Team (SWAT) as a member of the team.

Born (4-25-61) in Chicago, IL, Jones was raised in Duluth, MN. He attended San Jose State and received a degree in kinesiology in 1998. He often speaks at local high schools and colleges about the importance of exercise, nutrition and the strength and conditioning field. He is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

Jones' coaching background: 1998-00 (San Jose City College), 2000-curr. (49ers).

GREG KNAPP OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Greg Knapp is in his eighth season with the 49ers and his second as offensive coordinator. Knapp spent three seasons as quarterbacks coach, and spent the previous three years as the team's offensive quality control coach.

During his first year as offensive coordinator, Knapp helped to lead a young offense to fourth in the NFL in total offense and second in the NFL in rushing. Under his guidance, five offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl: Jeff Garcia, Terrell Owens, Jeremy Newberry, Garrison Hearst and Ray Brown. Knapp's offense also finished with more than 1,000 yards rushing for a team record fifth consecutive year.

Prior to being named offensive coordinator, Knapp tutored the quarterbacks, helping QB Jeff Garcia set a new team record with 4,278 passing yards in a single season. Garcia, who was handling the full-time starting duties for the first time in his NFL career, finished the season fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. He completed 355-of-561 passes with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions, and earned the NFL's Most Improved Player Award.

The quarterback front had its share of adversity in '99, but Knapp was instrumental in keeping continuity at the position. Steve Young, out for the season in Week 3, was replaced by Garcia. The former CFL quarterback started 10 games and finished the season with a 77.9 QB rating (225-of-375 passes for 2,544 yards and 11 touchdowns). Garcia closed the '99 season by completing 26-of-34 passes for 373 yards and two touchdowns at Atlanta. He posted a 98.3 rating over the final five games, third highest in the NFL.

In 1998, Knapp played a key role in Steve Young reaching career-highs in touchdown passes (36) and passing yards (4,170). Young finished the season with a 101.1 quarterback rating, ranking over 100 for the sixth time in his career.

Knapp spent nine years on the coaching staff at Sacramento State University, serving as running backs coach (1986-89), receivers coach (1989-90) and offensive coordinator/assistant head coach (1991-94).

A collegiate quarterback at Sacramento State, he was one of the most prolific signal callers in that school's history. He ranks among the Hornets' career leaders with better than 3,800 passing yards and 32 touchdown passes. He participated in training camps of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1986, the Los Angeles Raiders from 1987-90 and the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-94.

Born (3-5-63) in Seal Beach, CA, he and his wife, Starla, have one daughter, Jordan.

Knapp's coaching background: 1986-94 (Sacramento State), 1995-curr. (49ers).

BRETT MAXIE SECONDARY

Brett Maxie is in his fourth year with the 49ers and first as secondary coach. Maxie served as assistant secondary coach from 1999-2001. He joined the 49ers after spending the 1998 season as a defensive backs/defensive quality control coach with the Carolina Panthers.

Maxie has spent the past two seasons turning a young secondary into one of the most talented units in the league. Cornerbacks Jason Webster and Ahmed Plummer have combined for 137 tackles, 10 interceptions and 39 passes defensed. In 2001, Plummer and S Zack Bronson tied for the team lead with seven interceptions each. Plummer also added an interception at Green Bay in the 2001 NFC Wild Card Game.

A 13-year veteran of the NFL, Maxie has spent his entire career in the NFC West, playing nine seasons with the New Orleans Saints (1985-93), one with Atlanta ('94), two with Carolina (1995-96) and one in San Francisco (1997). Maxie was the first player to ever record an interception with Carolina and had a career-high six picks in '95 with the Panthers. He completed his career with 23 interceptions.

Maxie graduated in 1985 with a degree in biology from Texas Southern, where he played safety. Maxie originally planned to attend optometry school before signing as an undrafted free agent with New Orleans.

Born (1-13-62) in Dallas, TX, Brett and his wife, Angela, have four children: sons, Brett (7-14-92) and Adam (11-18-93), and daughters, Maya (11-21-95) and Olivia (4-15-97). The family resides in San Jose, CA.

JIM MORA DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Jim Mora is in his sixth year with the 49ers, and fourth as defensive coordinator. Mora spent the first two years as the 49ers defensive backs coach.

Under Mora's tutelage, the 2001 defense saw continued improvement from the 2000 season. His 2001 defense allowed only 309 yards per game and 24 interceptions compared to 357 yards per game and 13 interceptions in 2000. The 24 interceptions last season were good for third in the league. On the season, the defense ranked sixth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing only 16.3 points per game. The team also registered three shutouts, the most in team history.

In 2000, Mora's defense started seven different rookies, including four who started seven or more games. The 49ers young defense saw marked improvement from the first half of the season to the second half. In the first 10 games, the defense allowed 30.9 points a game. In the final six, the defense allowed only 16.5 points a game, which included the team's first shutout since 1998, a 17-0 blanking of Chicago. Mora tutored many of the young defenders, including CB Ahmed Plummer, who was named to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football News Weekly and Pro Football News.

Despite the many line-up changes in his 1999 defensive unit, Mora developed two Pro Bowlers (DT Bryant Young and FS Lance Schulters) and tutored his troops to a team-tying record five touchdowns. Young, coming back from a career-threatening broken leg (11-30-98), not only was selected to his second Pro Bowl, but was named second-team All-Pro and was named Comeback-Player-of-the-Year by Associated Press. Schulters finished second in the NFC in interceptions (6) and his 127 return yards tied for third in the NFL.

Mora's secondary unit tied for first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with 21 interceptions in 1998, including four players who were credited with four picks apiece. During Mora's first season, the 49ers ranked second in the NFL in passing defense and were tied for second in the league with 25 interceptions.

Mora played defensive back for the University of Washington from 1980-83, appearing in two Rose Bowls with the Huskies. Following graduation, he served one season (1984) on Don James' staff as an assistant, helping the squad earn a berth in the Orange Bowl.

In 1985, Mora joined the San Diego Chargers in their pro personnel department before being named a defensive assistant in the secondary from 1986-88. He became the Chargers' defensive backs coach in 1989 and served in that capacity for three seasons.

Mora was named as the secondary coach for the Saints in 1992. During his five-year tenure in New Orleans (1992-96), the team twice led the NFL in fewest passing yards allowed (1992-93).

Born (11-19-61) in Los Angeles, CA, Mora attended Interlake High in Bellevue, WA. He is the son of former NFL Head Coach Jim Mora. He and his wife, Shannon, have three children: Cole (1-7-95), Lillia (8-19-96) and Ryder (1-11-99). The family lives in Los Gatos, CA.

Mora's coaching background: 1984 (Washington), 1985-91 (San Diego Chargers), 1992-96 (New Orleans Saints), 1997-curr. (49ers).

PATRICK MORRIS OFFENSIVE LINE

Patrick Morris is in his sixth year with the 49ers, his fourth as offensive line coach. He spent the previous two years as tight ends/assistant offensive line coach.

The 49ers have maintained an efficient and productive offensive line under the tutelage of Morris. The 49ers have ranked second in the NFL in rushing since 1998 and the offensive line has helped to lead the way for the 49ers to record a 1,000-yard rusher for a team record five consecutive years. With Morris at the helm, the 49ers offensive line also was represented at the 2001 Pro Bowl by Ray Brown and Jeremy Newberry, who each made their first career appearances.

In 2000, the offensive line was one of the best in the league. The line allowed only 25 sacks all season, which was the third lowest in the NFL behind Indianapolis and the New York Jets (20). The offensive line also helped RB Charlie Garner rush for 1,142 yards, becoming only the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Prior to joining the pro ranks, Morris accumulated 19 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level. He worked at Stanford University (1995-96) coaching the offensive line (tackles and tight ends) prior to joining Steve Mariucci's staff in '97.

A 1976 graduate of Southern California, Morris began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1976-77. He then spent one season at Northern Arizona in 1978 as offensive line coach. Following the stint at NAU, he handled offensive line duties at Minnesota (1979-82), USC (1983-86) and Michigan State (1987-94) prior to joining Stanford's staff in 1995.

Morris has been associated with five Rose Bowl victories and two National Championships during his football playing and coaching career: 1973 and '75 Rose Bowls and National Championships as a player at USC, 1977 and '85 Rose Bowls as a coach at USC and 1988 Rose Bowl as a coach at Michigan State University.

Born in Cleveland, OH (4-7-54), Patrick and his wife, Kathy, reside in Mountain View, CA.

Morris' coaching background: 1976-77 (Southern California), 1978 (Northern Arizona), 1979-82 (Minnesota), 1983-86 (Southern California), 1987-94 (Michigan State), 1995-96 (Stanford), 1997-curr. (49ers).

DAN QUINN DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dan Quinn enters his second season with the 49ers as defensive quality control coach. He joined the 49ers after spending five years coaching at Hofstra.

During his first season with the 49ers defense, Quinn was instrumental in helping the young defense to improve. The San Francisco defense posted a team high three shutouts in 2001, and in their 12 wins, gave up only 12 points per victory.

Quinn spent five years coaching Hofstra's defensive line, serving double duty in his final season as the defensive coordinator.

Prior to joining the Hofstra staff, Quinn spent one season coaching the defensive tackles at Virginia Military Institute. He also served as the recruiting coordinator at VMI. Quinn worked as a graduate assistant for the defensive line at the College of William and Mary prior to VMI.

Quinn, a four-year starter at defensive end and defensive tackle at Salisbury State University, also was a four-year letterwinner in track and field.

Born (9-11-70) in Orange, NJ, Quinn and his wife, Stacey, reside in San Jose, CA.

Quinn's coaching background: 1994 (College of William & Mary), 1995 (VMI), 1996-00 (Hofstra), 2001-curr. (49ers).

TOM RATHMAN RUNNING BACKS

Tom Rathman is in his sixth year as the 49ers running backs coach. A nine-year veteran of the National Football League, Rathman is considered to be one of the most dedicated and consistent players to ever wear a 49ers uniform.

Once again Rathman had an exciting corps of running backs in 2001, led by two-time NFL Comeback Player-of-the-Year Garrison Hearst. He was instrumental in guiding Hearst to his second career Pro Bowl selection. Rathman also helped to tutor rookie Kevan Barlow to rush for more than 500 yards during his first season. The 49ers ranked second in the league with 140.3 rushing yards per game.

In 2000, Rathman coached RB Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection. Garner rushed for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns during the 2000 campaign, joining Joe Perry (1953-54), Roger Craig (1988-89) and Hearst (1997-98) as the only 49ers running backs to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Also under Rathman, third-year FB Fred Beasley continued to improve and helped Garner as his primary lead blocker. Beasley finished the season rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries, with three touchdowns. He also caught 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

As a player, Rathman helped the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles during his years as a 49er (1986-93). He totaled 4,392 yards from scrimmage and scored 34 touchdowns while playing in 113 games during his 49ers years. He also played one year (1994) with the Los Angeles Raiders.

A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged over six yards per carry.

Prior to joining the 49ers staff, Rathman helped rebuild the Menlo College program by serving as the offensive coordinator in 1996 and coached the running backs at Serra High School (San Mateo) in 1995.

Born 10-7-62, Tom is a native of Grand Island, NE. He and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole Christine (10-25-86), Alexandra Elizabeth (2-10-89) and Samantha Lynn (5-11-92). The family lives in Redwood City, CA.

Rathman's coaching background: 1996 (Menlo College), 1996-curr. (49ers).

RICHARD SMITH LINEBACKERS

Richard Smith enters his 15th season as an NFL assistant coach and his sixth as the 49ers linebackers coach.

Going into the 2001 season, Smith's entire group of starting linebackers had never started a game in a 49ers uniform and only two of the six linebackers on the 49ers roster had more than one year of NFL experience. And although the unit was young and had never played together as a unit, they were still very productive, combining for seven sacks for 43 yards. Derek Smith and Jeff Ulbrich led the team in tackles, Smith with 126 and Ulbrich with 92. Smith's group of linebackers were aggressive, quick and helped the 49ers to rank ninth in rushing defense, up from 16th the previous season.

In 2000, Smith tutored a young group of linebackers, including rookies Julian Peterson and Ulbrich. Peterson, despite missing three games with injury, finished third on the squad with four sacks and also grabbed two interceptions.

In Smith's first three years with the 49ers, he helped produce three Pro Bowl linebackers. Lee Woodall and Ken Norton, Jr. were Pro Bowlers in Smith's first season in 1997. In the following year, Winfred Tubbs made his first career trip to the all-star game in Hawaii.

From 1993-96, Smith helped develop one of the league's top special teams corps in Denver, while assisting with the linebackers for two seasons (1994-95). Prior to coaching in Denver, Smith spent five seasons as special teams coach with the Houston Oilers (1988-92). During his tenure in Houston, Smith's special teams played a key role in helping the Oilers earn five consecutive playoff berths. Smith also assisted with the offensive line ('92), linebackers (1990-91) and tutored the tight ends (1988-89) with the Oilers.

In 1987, Smith spent one year at the University of Arizona coaching linebackers and special teams. Before that, he handled outside linebackers and special teams at California (1984-86). From 1981-83, Smith was defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton, helping the Titans win the PCAA title in '83. He began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Rio Hondo (CA) Junior College from 1979-80.

Born (10-17-55) in Los Angeles, CA, Smith played offensive line at Rio Hondo from 1975-76 before transferring to Fresno State in 1977. Smith helped the Bulldogs claim the 1977 PCAA title before graduating with a degree in physical education in '79.

Smith and his wife, Patti, have four children: daughters, Morgan (1-29-81), Aimee (2-24-89) and Whitney (8-23-91), and son, Travis (12-10-85).

GEORGE STEWART WIDE RECEIVERS

George Stewart is in his seventh year with the 49ers, his third as wide receivers coach, and 14th season as an NFL coach. He made the switch to receivers after serving four years (1996-99) as San Francisco's special teams coach.

Under Stewart's direction, San Francisco's receiving corps continued to be one of the most explosive in the NFL in 2001. Besides earning his second consecutive bid to the Pro Bowl, Terrell Owens led the league with 16 receiving touchdowns and became only the second player in team history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons. The receiving corps also paved the way for QB Jeff Garcia to become the first quarterback in team history to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in two consecutive seasons.

In 2000, his first season in charge of the receivers, the 49ers were led by Owens who earned his first ever Pro Bowl appearance. Owens set career-highs in receptions (97) and receiving yards (1,451) and also broke a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions in a game. With his 20 receptions against the Chicago Bears (12-17-00), Owens broke the previous record of 18 receptions set by Tom Fears on the L.A. Rams (12-3-50).

Considered to be one of the top special teams coaches in the National Football League, Stewart's 1999 special teams corps was highlighted by Wade Richey, who led the NFC and was third in the NFL with 17 touchbacks. He led the NFL in field goal accuracy hitting 21-of-23 (.913) and made 30-of-31 PATs.

In '98 Stewart helped develop Richey into an NFL kicker, as he finished third in the NFL and second in the NFC with 27 touchbacks. Richey also was named Special Teams Player-of-the-Week with three field goals vs. Green Bay in the NFC Wild Card Game. Stewart's 1998 kickoff coverage units improved to second-best in the NFL.

Stewart began his NFL career as special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989-91. He also served double duty in Tampa Bay, handling the team's tight ends during three of his seasons (1992-94).

His coaching career began under the tutelage of Lou Holtz at Arkansas (1983), where he was a graduate assistant and coached the tight ends. He spent the next two seasons (1984-85) at Minnesota as offensive line coach. He later followed Holtz to Notre Dame as linebackers coach (1986-88) before moving into the pro ranks.

An All-American and All-Southwest Conference selection as a guard at Arkansas, Stewart earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1981. Stewart is a native of Little Rock, AR.

ANDY SUGARMAN OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Andy Sugarman is in his fifth year with the team and his third as offensive assistant. He spent his first two seasons as offensive quality control coach.

Sugarman assists tight ends coach Tom Batta, working this past season in the development of rookie TE Eric Johnson, who made the switch from college wide receiver to starting tight end in the NFL. He handles the computer operations (inputting game plans) and coordinates the scout teams for special teams coach Bruce DeHaven.

Sugarman joined Steve Mariucci's staff after spending seven years (1991-97) as an assistant to the offensive and special teams coaching staff at California. As a youngster, Sugarman was a Cal team manager while he was a student at Acalanes High School in Lafayette. His younger brother, Adam, was a cornerback at Cal and voted team captain in 2001.

Born 5-23-72, Andy is single and resides in San Francisco, CA.

Sugarman's coaching background: 1991-97 (California), 1998-curr. (49ers).

JASON TARVER OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Jason Tarver is in his second season with the 49ers as offensive quality control coach.

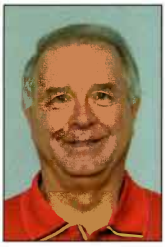

Tarver joined the 49ers staff after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA. In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams.

A Northern California native, Tarver played defensive back and wing back at Foothill High in Pleasanton. He attended Santa Clara University with the intention of playing football. After the Broncos cut their program, Tarver stayed at Santa Clara but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995. After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons as an assistant coach at West Valley in 1996-97.

Born (8-28-74) in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his Master's degree in biochemistry from UCLA and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000.

Tarver's coaching background: 1996-97 (West Valley College), 1998-00 (UCLA), 2001-curr. (49ers).

TED TOLLNER QUARTERBACKS

Ted Tollner enters his first season as the 49ers quarterbacks coach. Tollner has 30 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and professional level, including four years as a head coach at Southern California (1983-86) and eight at San Diego State (1994-01), compiling a 69-68 record during that time.

Tollner served as offensive coordinator and running backs coach at USC during the 1982 season, and in November of 1982, was named John Robinson's successor as Trojan head coach. He compiled a 26-20-1 record and directed the team to a Pac-10 title and three bowl berths. His 1984 USC squad posted a 9-3 record, finished 10th in the AP poll and upset fifth-ranked Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 20-17. The Trojans finished 7-1 in the conference that year and earned their first trip to the Rose Bowl as conference champs since 1979. Tollner was named the Pac-10's Coach-of-the-Year that season. His two other bowl appearances with the Trojans include the 1985 Aloha Bowl and the 1987 Citrus Bowl. Also on his staff at USC were Steve Mariucci, who coached wide receivers and special teams (1986), and Pat Morris who handled the offensive line (1983-86).

After leaving USC, Tollner joined the Buffalo Bills in 1987 as wide receivers coach. Tollner was offensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers from 1989-91. He then moved to Los Angeles where he was the Rams quarterbacks coach for the 1992 and '93 seasons.

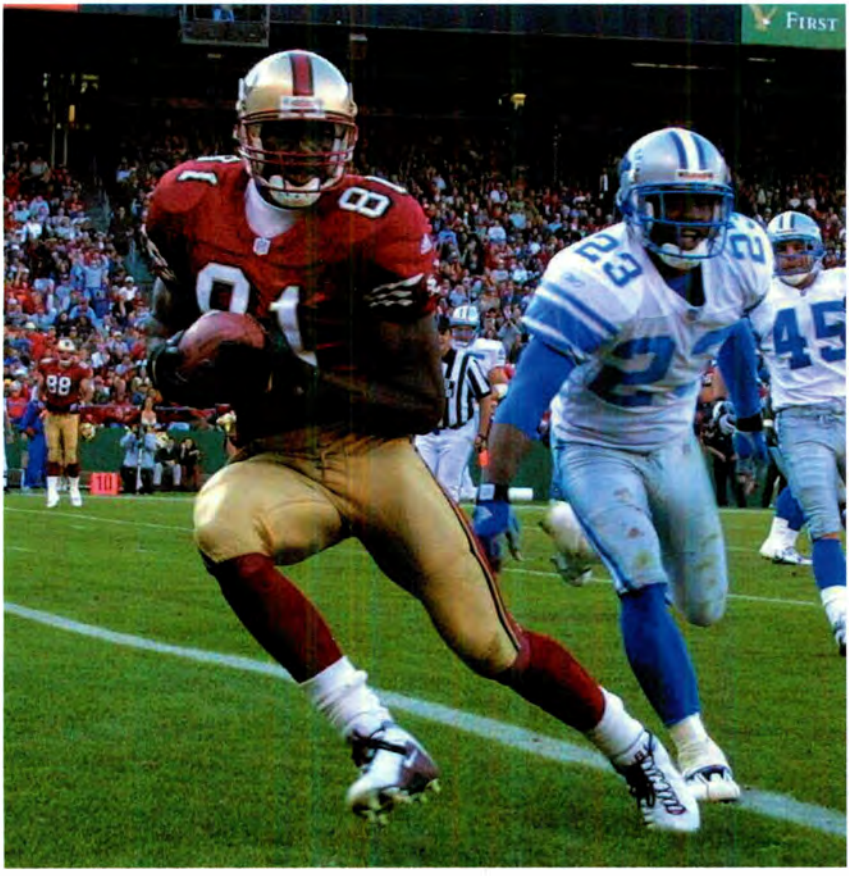

Tollner compiled a record of 43-48 at San Diego State. He posted two eight-win seasons in his second and third years with the Aztecs (1995 and '96), which marked the first consecutive eight-win seasons since 1976-77. Tollner also directed San Diego State to its first postseason bowl game in seven years with a berth in the Las Vegas Bowl (1998).

Prior to San Diego State, Tollner began his career in the Bay Area, coaching at Woodside High School (1963-66) and at San Mateo High (1968-72).

Born 5-29-40, Tollner earned a bachelor's degree in 1962 and later a master's degree in physical education at Cal Poly SLO. He was a starting quarterback at Cal Poly for two years and pitched for the baseball team for four seasons. He was one of 26 survivors of the tragic Cal Poly plane crash on 10-29-60, which killed 22 people, 16 of them players.

He and his wife, Barbara, have two daughters, Linda and Tammy; one son, Bruce; and 10 grandchildren.

Tollner's coaching background: 1983-86 (USC), 1987 (Buffalo Bills), 1989-91 (San Diego Chargers), 1992-93 (Los Angeles Rams), 1994-01 (San Diego State), 2002 (49ers).

Terrell Owens led the NFL with 16 touchdown receptions in 2001, including this one against Detroit.

Personnel and Scouting

JIM ABRAMS NATIONAL SCOUT

Jim Abrams is in his ninth year with the 49ers and second as a National Scout. Previously, Abrams spent five years as a regional scout for the 49ers after serving as a scouting assistant for the team in his first two years.

A 1987 graduate of Kent University, Abrams served as a graduate assistant at UNLV (1988), Purdue (1989-90) and Ohio State (1991). At all three schools he served as linebackers coaching assistant.

Born in Warren, OH (10-12-62), Abrams attended McAteer High in San Francisco before attending City College (1981-82). He later transferred to Kent (1983-87), where he played free safety and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Abrams and his wife, Penny, reside in Westlake, CA with their sons, Aleksandr James (8-23-95) and Sedrick Jameson (8-24-99).

JOHN BRUNNER REGIONAL SCOUT

John Brunner is in his 12th season with the 49ers as a scout for the Midwest region.

He has 20 years experience as an NFL assistant coach and scout, including duties with Detroit (running backs coach, 1980-82), Green Bay (running backs coach, 1983), Tampa Bay (offensive coordinator, 1984), New England (scout, 1985-86) and Minnesota (running backs coach, 1987-91).

Brunner played college football at Maryland (1955-56) and East Stroudsburg State (1958-59). After earning his master's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1960, he coached high school and college football for 20 years, holding positions at Middletown (NY) High (1960-66), Villanova (1967-69), Temple (1970-73 & 1977-79) and Princeton (1974-75).

Born in Perkesie, PA (9-6-37), Brunner has seven children: Scott (former NFL quarterback), Jack, Penny, Jan, Jeff, Todd (regional scout for the 49ers) and Mark. John and his wife, Pat, reside in Clearwater, FL.

TODD BRUNNER REGIONAL SCOUT

Todd Brunner is in his third season with the 49ers as a scout for the East region.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent one season with the Cleveland Browns as an area scout. He scouted the Northeast region for the Browns in 1999. Brunner came to the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he spent four seasons (1994-97) as an area scout for the Northeast region. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner, a Lehigh University graduate in 1990, spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple University in 1991.

Born (10-1-67) in Middletown, NY, Brunner is the son of 49ers area scout John Brunner. He and his wife, Nancy, have one daughter, Annie Elizabeth (2-3-99), and son, Chad Joseph (5-14-02), and reside in Bordentown, NJ.

Personnel and Scouting

BRIAN GARDNER REGIONAL SCOUT

Brian Gardner is in his eighth year with the 49ers as a scout for the Southwest region.

Prior to joining San Francisco in 1995, he spent three seasons as a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

His football background includes time in the Arena Football League with the New Orleans Night franchise as both defensive coordinator and director of football operations. He also served as pro personnel director for the Washington Marauders of the professional spring football league.

Gardner played three seasons in the Arena Football League with New England, Pittsburgh and New York. He spent one season in the CFL with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders.

Gardner, 36, is a native of New Orleans. He played college football at Prairie View A&M, where he was a three-year letterman and graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications. Married, he and his wife, Vanessa, have two sons, Royal Jalvia (11-2-95) and Tyler J. (2-27-99), and live in LaPlace, LA.

JIM GRUDEN REGIONAL SCOUT

Jim Gruden, a veteran of 33 professional and collegiate football seasons, is in his 17th year with San Francisco. Gruden is responsible for scouting the Southeast region for the 49ers.

Gruden came to the 49ers in 1987 following five seasons with Tampa Bay as director of player personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

Born in Cleveland, OH, Jim joined the NFL ranks in '82, after 15 years of assistant collegiate coaching at Heidelberg (OH) College (1966-68), Dayton (1969-72), Indiana (1973-77) and Notre Dame (1978-80). He was with the Fighting Irish during Joe Montana's playing days, and at Dayton he was an assistant coach under John McVay.

Gruden and his wife, Kathy, have three adult sons: Jim (a radiologist in New York City), Jay (the Arena League's all-time leading passer and head coach of the Orlando Predators) and Jon (Tampa Bay Buccaneers head coach). The couple lives in Tampa, FL.

OSCAR LOFTON REGIONAL SCOUT

Oscar Lofton, who joined the 49ers scouting staff in 1992, begins his 11th season with the club as a scout for the South region.

His football background includes six years as a scout for the National Football Scouting Combine (1986-92) and coaching stints at Holy Cross College (1963-66), Hammond (LA) High (1967-73) and Tulane (1973-79).

A three-sport athlete in football, basketball and track at Southeastern Louisiana, Lofton was enshrined into that school's Hall of Fame in 1960. He received his master's degree in physical education in 1966, and served SLU as athletic director (1979) and head coach (1980-85). He played three seasons (1960-61 and '63) for the Boston Patriots, missing the 1962 campaign while in the U.S. Army.

Born in McCall Creek, MS, Lofton and his wife, Billie Jean, have three grown sons (Kelly, Andy and Kyle) and seven grandchildren. The couple lives in Hammond, LA.

Personnel and Scouting

BILL REES SPECIAL ASSISTANT/NATIONAL SCOUT

Bill Rees is in his second season with the San Francisco 49ers Personnel and Scouting department as Special Assistant/National Scout.

Rees came to the 49ers staff after four seasons as the Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears. While there, Rees oversaw a staff of six scouts and he helped produce successful drafts that generated 14 starters over three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, Rees served as a regional scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. He was primarily responsible for scouting the college talent in the western United States.

The majority of Rees' experience came during his 15 years spent with UCLA (1979-93). Rees served as both an assistant football coach and as a recruiting coordinator for the Bruins, earning a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters. While at UCLA, Rees signed 90 prep All-Americans and helped the Bruins earn 12 bowl appearances and win five Pac-10 Championships.

Rees began his football career as an assistant with the Northwestern Wildcats for three seasons, coaching defensive backs for two seasons (1976-77) and running backs for one season (1978). He earned three letters as a quarterback at Ohio Wesleyan, and earned a master's degree in education from Northwestern in 1978.

Born 4-2-54, Rees and his wife, Susan, have three children (Danny, Meghan and Tommy).

JIM ZECHES REGIONAL SCOUT

Jim Zeches is in his second season with the San Francisco 49ers Personnel and Scouting department as the West Region Scout.

Zeches came to the 49ers staff after spending 12 years in various positions with Washington State University. Zeches served as the recruiting coordinator for the Cougars during his last seven years. He originally joined the WSU staff in 1989 as defensive line coach and moved to outside linebackers from 1991-94. In addition to coordinating the recruiting, Zeches also coached the tight ends his final two seasons.

A Los Angeles native, Zeches earned two varsity letters while playing center at Cal-State Northridge (1971-72). Following five years of coaching preps, Zeches served as a graduate assistant at UCLA from 1978-80 under Terry Donahue. Zeches joined Dennis Green's staff at Northwestern in 1981 coaching the defensive line until '86.

In 1987, Zeches began his 14-year tenure under Mike Price by taking the inside linebackers coaching spot on Price's Weber State staff. Zeches was hired as defensive line coach when Price was named the Cougars head coach in '89.

Born 10-4-50, Zeches and his wife, Kathy, have one son, Brian.

LINDSY MCLEAN HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Lindsy McLean, who has been an athletic trainer for 40 years, is in his 24th season with the 49ers.

McLean's 2001 staff was honored with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award. The award is voted on by all the training staffs in the NFL. Aside from dealing with the many injuries that occur in football, McLean and his staff drew praise for treating and rehabbing Garrison Hearst's career-threatening ankle injury. Hearst returned to the field and the Pro Bowl in 2001 after a two-year absence.

The team's head athletic trainer since 1982, McLean joined the 49ers as co-trainer in 1979, following 11 years as head trainer at the University of Michigan (1968-78).

Besides working with Michigan's athletes (1961-62 and 1968-78), McLean also served as head trainer at UC Santa Barbara (1963-64) and San Jose State (1965-67). He was named United States Collegiate Trainer-of-the-Year in '76.

A Vanderbilt graduate (1960), McLean received his certification in physical therapy from Herman Hospital in Houston, TX in '61. He entered the training profession as an assistant at Michigan prior to joining the UC Santa Barbara staff.

McLean served as chairman of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) Certification Committee for 10 years, was a U.S. Olympic Team trainer for the '76 Winter Games and was inducted into the NATA's Hall of Fame in 1988. He also has served as chairman of NATA's sub-committee for its prestigious Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award.

Additionally, Lindsy has served on the NATA Grants and Scholarship Committee and served on the 50th Anniversary Task Force. He is a charter member of the Far West Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame and is also a member of the Michigan Athletic Trainers' Society Hall of Fame.

Born in Nashville, TN (6-28-38), McLean is single and lives in Redwood City, CA.

TODD LAZENBY ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Todd Lazenby is in his seventh year as assistant athletic trainer.

Last season, Lazenby and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award. The Ohio native was particularly active in treating and rehabbing both Bryant Young (leg) and Garrison Hearst (ankle) from career-threatening injuries.

Lazenby joined the organization following five years with the HealthSouth Corporation in Orlando, FL, where he was the staff athletic trainer. During his tenure with HealthSouth (1991-95), Lazenby coordinated the HealthSouth golf program, covered high school athletics and treated patients in the clinic. He arrived with familiarity to the 49ers organization, having worked the team's 1990 training camp.

Prior to joining HealthSouth in 1991, Lazenby served as a graduate assistant on the training staff at Ohio State University. While with the Buckeyes, he worked with a number of sports including the football, ice hockey and men's gymnastics teams, among a host of others.

Lazenby earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio State in health education and a master's degree in sports management. He is a certified member of the NATA.

He and his wife, Stevie, have a son, Caleb (8-3-95), and a daughter, Lilli (12-10-98) . The family lives in Milpitas, CA.

JEFF TANAKA ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Tanaka is in his fourth year as an assistant athletic trainer. He spent the two previous years at the University of California, in the same capacity.

Last season, Tanaka and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award.

Tanaka had four stints in the professional ranks before his tenure at Cal, beginning with a training camp internship with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant with the 49ers (1995-96), before accepting a position as an assistant athletic trainer for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1997.

After one season in Amsterdam, Tanaka spent the next three years at Cal, where he was head athletic trainer for men's basketball, the men's and women's swim teams, as well as an assistant for the football team.

Jeff received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, in 1994, and recently completed his thesis at San Jose State to earn a master's degree in kinesiology. As a student trainer at Cal Poly, Tanaka had experience with all 17 sports for the Mustangs, including football, basketball and women's volleyball. While serving his graduate assistantship through San Jose State, he was the first athletic trainer at Santa Teresa (CA) High, where he implemented the program and facility.

Born and raised in San Jose, CA (4-14-71), Tanaka graduated from Branham High. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers' Association (CATA).

Jeff is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

KEVIN LARTIGUE EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Kevin Lartigue enters his sixth year with the 49ers, and fifth as the team's equipment manager.

Lartigue served as assistant equipment manager in 1997 before being promoted to equipment manager during the '97 offseason. His background includes six years in the equipment department at his alma mater, Michigan State.

Lartigue is only the third person in team history to hold the title of equipment manager and all three are known for their nicknames and not their first names—Forrest "Chico" Norton, Frank "Bronco" Hinek and Kevin "Tique" Lartigue.

"Tique" gained valuable experience at MSU, having spent the previous two and a half years (1994-97) as assistant equipment manager for Nick Saban's football program. Serving as student manager (1991-94) under the direction of head football coach George Perles, Lartigue was honored as Student Manager-of-the-Year in 1994.

Lartigue earned his bachelor's degree in advertising in 1994. A certified equipment manager, Lartigue is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers' Association. He is also a certified group cycling (spinning) instructor and teaches at various clubs throughout the Bay Area.

Born (11-16-67) in Lansing, MI, Kevin is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

49ERS FOUNDATION

Just as the San Francisco 49ers take pride in their drive to win, the 49ers Foundation takes great pride in playing an active role in Northern California's communities. The Foundation is dedicated to supporting Northern California communities by providing financial and other support to education, health-care and programs that encourage, enrich and empower disadvantaged youth. Over the past five years, the Foundation has contributed over $1,000,000 to community-based organizations that enhance the quality of life and well being of youth.

Established in 1991 as a 501 (c) (3) organization, the 49ers Foundation serves as the team's non-profit charitable arm. The Foundation is led by a strong working Board of Directors, comprised of a dedicated group of business executives from the public sector. These Board Members play an important role in fund raising, grant selection and are devoted to productive community service.

The goal of the 49ers Foundation is to be the premier Foundation in the NFL, respected for their leadership in improving the lives of youth in our community.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAMS & PARTNERSHIPS

The 49ers Foundation was proud to contribute just over $250,000 to non-profit agencies in Northern California in 2001. Some of the organizations that benefited in 2001 included: YMCA of San Francisco, 49ers Academy, Exploratorium, Camp Okizu and Vision Youthz.

The 49ers Academy

Located in East Palo Alto, the 49ers Academy serves 153 students in fifth through eighth grade who are identified as children "at risk" of dropping out of school. The school provides students with comprehensive academic, social and emotional services to keep them in school and off the streets. The 49ers Academy provides many different and important services such as art therapy, conflict resolution, grief counseling and mentor programs. In 2001, the 49ers Foundation made a grant to establish a scholarship fund to provide financial aid to college bound Academy graduates.

49ers Reading Team

The 49ers support the San Francisco Public Library and their efforts to keep children reading during the summer. The relationship with SFPL is the cornerstone to the 49ers Reading Team, a program that supports library and school reading programs. Through Foundation grants, the support of 49ers players, alumni and the team's Community Relations Department, the 49ers continuously promote literacy to children during their summer vacations and after school. The program targets children in grades K through five.

Juma Ventures

The 49ers Foundation works with Juma to provide low-income/at-risk youth with employment opportunities at Candlestick Park. Our funds helped provide over 100 youth with jobs, job skills and financial management training to help them become economically stable adults.

49ers Community Quarterback Awards

In 2001, the 49ers organization recognized 10 outstanding community volunteers with their Community Quarterback Awards and a Foundation donation to the agencies served by these volunteers. Vision Youthz volunteer Santosh Phillip was named the 2001 Community Quarterback winner. Vision Youthz is a unique mentoring program for young men in San Francisco's Youth Guidance Center which provides them with support to help them break the cycle of a life of crime.

The Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team

The Foundation awards a college scholarship to a local high-school student as part of a collaborative effort between the six professional sports teams in the Bay Area. Formed in 1996, BAAST is a partnership between the Golden State Warriors, Oakland A's, Oakland Raiders, San Francisco 49ers, San Francisco Giants and San Jose Sharks. Each participating team contributes to the scholarship program in a collective effort to assist Bay Area high school students achieve goals of higher education.

FUNDRAISING ACTIVITIES

The 49ers Foundation presents a number of fundraising events throughout the year. These events bring players and fans together to raise the money necessary to grant funds to charitable organizations.

49ers Foundation Celebrity Ski Classic

Moving into its third year, the Celebrity Ski Classic offers a select group of corporate sponsors the opportunity to ski and socialize with 49ers players, coaches, alumni and former Olympians. Held in Lake Tahoe, at the Resort at Squaw Creek, the event provides sponsors with a comprehensive hospitality package that includes everything from luxury gift bags and lift tickets to private concerts and fabulous food.

49ers Foundation Golf Tournament

The 49ers Foundation will hold their 10th annual golf tournament in 2003. This fundraiser features a pre-tournament dinner and auction hosted at the 49ers training facility in Santa Clara. The tournament offers fans the chance to play with 49ers players, alumni, coaches and media personalities.

Coach Mariucci's Bocce Ball Tournament

Coach Mariucci's Bocce Ball Tournament will be five years old in 2003. Held at Campo di Bocce in Los Gatos, the event attracts 49ers coaches, players and alumni plus celebrities like John Madden, Danny Glover, Peggy Fleming, Jonny Moseley and Willie Mays. The proceeds from this event support the 49ers Foundation and other charities.

Open Your Heart to the Children

In 2002, the 49ers Foundation teamed up with Hedge Funds Care, a group of concerned Hedge Fund professionals, to raise more than $450,000 for child abuse treatment and prevention programs in Northern California.

SECOND HALF SUCCESS

The San Francisco offense seemed to come alive at the end of the half and the end of the game during the 2001 season. The 49ers outscored their opponents 139-72 in the second quarter and 124-59 in the fourth quarter last season.

RUN GAME

Steve Mariucci has made it clear that a formidable ground game is vital to the 49ers offense. The 49ers have had three 2,000-yard rushing seasons during Mariucci's five seasons compared to two during George Seifert's eight-year tenure and five during Bill Walsh's 10 seasons. Under Seifert, the 49ers averaged 118.9 yards per game rushing and 4.1 yards per carry. Those numbers have improved to 132.9 per game and 4.5 per carry since 1997, when Mariucci took the reins.

FOUR GRAND MAN

Jeff Garcia became only the second former CFL quarterback to throw for more than 3,500 yards in consecutive NFL seasons. The former Calgary Stampeder threw for a TEAM-RECORD 4,278 yards in 2000 and threw for 3,538 yards in 2001. Warren Moon reached the 3,500-yard mark for three consecutive years (1989-91) with Houston and did it back-to-back (1994-95) with Minnesota. Joe Theismann had multiple 3,500-yard passing seasons for Washington, but never back-to-back.

FOOT WORK

Much has been said about Jeff Garcia's ability to make plays on the run. He doesn't just make plays, he makes big plays. During the 2001 season, Garcia was flushed out of the pocket 129 times. He completed 57-of-94 passes for 675 yards, seven touchdowns and no interceptions for a quarterback rating of 107.4 while on the move. He also ran 35 times for 229 yards (6.5 avg.) and three touchdowns. Garcia was sacked just six times for 18 yards when scrambling.

TRAVELING MAN

Jeff Garcia has been more than effective on the road. Since 2000 in 18 road starts, he has completed 330-of-544 passes for 3,901 yards and 37 touchdowns. That is a passer rating of 97.5.

PROLIFIC PAIR

Jeff Garcia and Terrell Owens have developed into one of the most formidable touchdown duos in the NFL. The two have hooked up for 31 touchdowns in 42 games since 1999 and for 29 touchdowns in 30 games together since 2000. Taking a closer look at the league's top touchdown producing pairs, Garcia and Owens stack up favorably. When breaking down the numbers to touchdowns per game, Peyton Manning and Marvin Harrison at .79 (47 touchdowns in 59 games played) are just ahead of Owens and Garcia .74 (31 touchdowns in 42 games) since 1999 when Garcia was rushed into action. Garcia and Owens lead the league as the average has skyrocketed to .96 (29 in 30 games) since Garcia became the full-time starter.

CONSIDERABLE CONNECTION

Peyton Manning and Marvin Harrison have become the most publicized touchdown combo in the league, but over the last two years, they have nothing on Jeff Garcia and Terrell Owens. The 49ers touchdown tandem has 29 scoring connections since 2000. Harrison and Manning are close behind with 27.

RARE AIR

With consecutive seasons of at least 3,500 yards passing, Jeff Garcia has a chance to join Warren Moon as the only two former CFL quarterbacks to reach that plateau three consecutive years. Moon did it 1989-91 with 3,631, 4,689 and 4,690 yards for the Houston Oilers. Garcia threw for 4,278 and 3,538 yards in 2000-01.

JEFF GARCIA'S FOURTH QUARTER COMEBACKS (4)

September 9, 2001 vs. Atlanta – Began the fourth quarter with a 13-3 deficit. Garcia hit WR J.J. Stokes with a 16-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within three at 13-10. Garcia then moved the team down to the Falcons two-yard line and K Jose Cortez nailed a 20-yard field goal to send the game into overtime. On the first possession of overtime, Garcia led the team to the Falcons six-yard line where Cortez kicked the 24-yard game winning field goal.

October 14, 2001 at Atlanta – Trailing 20-17 entering the fourth quarter, Atlanta kicked a field goal to push the score to 23-17 early in the fourth. Garcia moved the team down to the Atlanta two-yard line, where RB Kevan Barlow plunged in for a touchdown and brought the 49ers to within one at 24-23. Atlanta answered back with a 47-yard touchdown and a two-point conversion to push the score to 31-24. Garcia hooked up with WR Terrell Owens on a 17-yard strike with 17 seconds remaining to knot the score at 31. After failing to score on their first possession of overtime, the 49ers forced the Falcons to punt. Garcia then moved the 49ers from their own 33 to the 48 and hit Owens with a 52-yard touchdown strike with 6:26 remaining in overtime for the 37-31 victory.

November 11, 2001 vs. New Orleans – The 49ers began the fourth quarter trailing 24-21. With 11:06 remaining, Garcia hit TE Eric Johnson on a 10-yard touchdown strike to take a 28-24 lead. The Saints hit a 36-yard field goal with 7:56 remaining to cut the lead to 28-27, but could not score again and the 49ers notched a one-point victory.

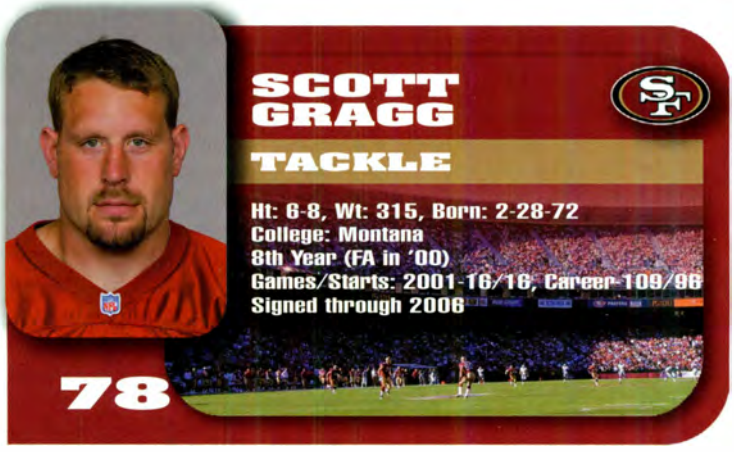

November 18, 2001 at Carolina – Trailing 22-14 with 1:52 remaining in the fourth quarter, the 49ers took the ball from their own 34 and moved down to the Carolina seven-yard line, where Garcia connected with WR Terrell Owens on a seven-yard touchdown strike to bring the score to 22-20 with one second remaining in regulation. Garcia then hooked up with TE Eric Johnson for the two-point conversion to knot the score at 22. On the first possession of overtime, Garcia led the 49ers from their own 26, down to the Carolina eight-yard line, where K Jose Cortez kicked a 26-yard field goal for the 25-22 overtime victory.

POINT PRODUCERS

Jeff Garcia joins Daunte Culpepper as the only two quarterbacks in the NFL who have produced more than 70 percent of their team's touchdowns over the last two seasons. Garcia has had a hand (or foot) in 72 of the team's 100 touchdowns (.720) since 2000 to rank second in the league. Culpepper has produced 59 of his team's 81 touchdowns (.728) during that stretch.

G FORCE

For years the 49ers were known as a passing team, but with Garrison Hearst in the lineup the shift to the run has been noticeable. In the years that Hearst has played for the 49ers (1997-98, 2001), the team is averaging 148.5 yards per game on the ground. San Francisco has rushed for 6,683 yards on 1,484 carries during the Hearst era.

LONG TIME COMING

Garrison Hearst went over 1,000 yards for the season with his 103-yard effort against the Miami Dolphins (12-15-01). It marked Hearst's third 1,000-yard season in a 49ers uniform, and it also marked the first time in NFL history a player has rushed for 1,000 yards or more after a two-year absence. He also is the first player in franchise history to record three 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

ROOKIE ROMP

The 49ers started as many as seven rookies on defense in 2000, including five regulars. TE Eric Johnson became the first rookie to crack the starting lineup on offense since Terrell Owens in 1996.

DOWN, DOWN, DOWN

The 49ers committed 82 penalties for 662 yards in 2001, down from 134 penalties for 1,135 yards in 2000. The difference of 52 penalties and 473 yards is the biggest improvement in 49ers team history. It also marked the largest decrease in the NFL since teams went to the 16-game schedule in 1978 (does not include 1982 strike season). San Francisco also decreased its penalty yards by 466, which represents the biggest decrease since 1993 (New England had a decrease of 583 penalty yards from 1992).

CAREER: Aggressive and fearless run stopper who excels in pass defense...Injuries have halted his first two seasons...Tore knee (left) ligaments in 2001 and suffered broken arm in 2000...Has shown promise, even cracking starting lineup before getting hurt.

AQUIRED: Drafted by 49ers in the fourth round (No. 108 overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft.

NON-KICKER SCORING

Terrell Owens has made a habit of scoring touchdowns. Over the last two years, the six-year veteran has produced 29 touchdowns and has scored 176 points. He is second in the league in points since 2000. Marshall Faulk is the league leader in that category with 288 points during that stretch.

COMPARE AND CONTRAST

The 1996 draft was known as the year of the wide receiver. There were five wideouts selected in the first round and five more picked in the second. Terrell Owens was not one of the first 10. He was 11th and the only receiver selected in the third round. Owens has developed into perhaps the most complete receiver in the NFL. His numbers are certainly comparable to the players who were selected ahead of him during the 1996 draft. Three players picked before Owens (Alex Van Dyke, Bryan Still and Derrick Mayes) were not on active rosters in 2001.

YAC IT UP

During his breakout year in 2000, Terrell Owens smashed personal and NFL records on his way to a Pro Bowl nomination. Owens gained a career-high 1,451 yards on 97 receptions, which included 677 yards after the catch. He averaged 7.0 additional yards after each reception. Owens picked up where he left off in 2000. Owens led the team in 2001 with 542 yards after the catch on 93 touches, averaging 5.8 yards after the catch.

AMONG THE BEST

It would be premature to claim that Terrell Owens is one of the NFL's all-time greatest receivers, but he is off to a considerable start. Owens' numbers after 92 games compares favorably to some of the most heralded receivers in recent memory.

THE CHAIN GANG

To say that J.J. Stokes makes the most of his catches would be accurate. Over the last two seasons, Stokes has recorded 84 receptions for 1,109 yards, with 56 of them producing first downs. The seven-year veteran is moving the chains 66.6 percent of the time he has touched the ball since 2000.

CAREER: A two-time Pro Bowler for the N.Y. Giants, Stone is versatile, seeing time at every position on the offensive line except center…Has excellent size and power...Tremendous run blocker…Has been on three Super Bowls squads (two with Dallas and one with New York)…A solid reserve and spot starter through his first three pro seasons, stepped into the regular lineup at right guard in his first season with the Giants in 1996.

ACQUIRED: Signed by 49ers as unrestricted free agent (4-12-02)…Signed by N.Y. Giants as restricted free agent (3-8-96)…Originally selected by Cowboys in fourth round (No. 96 overall) of 1993 NFL Draft.

2001: (With N.Y. Giants) Started 15 games, missing final game of season with wrist sprain…Named to PRO BOWL for second consecutive season...Started at right guard vs. New Orleans (9-30)…Offensive line's solid run blocking helped Giants gain 135 yards on ground vs. Saints…Started at right guard and helped offensive line allow season-low one sack and enabled season-high 142 yards on ground vs. Washington (10-7)…Started at right guard and helped offense gain 332 total yards at St. Louis (10-14)…Started at right guard and helped QB Kerry Collins throw for season-high 346 yards at Washington (10-28)…Started at right guard vs. Dallas (11-4)…Offensive line's play enabled offense to score 27 points, which was highest point total of season, vs. Cowboys...Recovered QB Kerry Collins fumble in second quarter vs. Dallas…Started at right guard and helped offense gain season-high 186 yards on 41 carries at Arizona (11-11)…Left game late in fourth quarter after being dinged on play at Cardinals…Started at right guard and helped offensive line open enough holes to gain 153 yards on ground vs. Oakland (11-25)…Started at right guard vs. Seattle (12-23) as offense gained 420 yards, highest total since posting 490 yards in 41-28 victory over N.Y. Jets (12-5-99)…Started at right guard and forced to leave game in second quarter with sprained left wrist at Philadelphia (12-30)…Inactive at Green Bay (1-6) due to wrist sprain.

2000: (With N.Y. Giants) Started 15-of-16 regular season games, missing one contest with injury…Started three postseason games, including Super Bowl XXXV vs. Baltimore (1-28), his second appearance in Super Bowl and third time he played for Super Bowl team…Selected as starting guard for NFC PRO BOWL squad...Key figure on offensive line that enabled Giants to average 125.6 rushing yards a game and exceed 100 yards 10 times…Line also helped Kerry Collins pass for 3,610 yards, third-highest total in team history…Line allowed no more than one sack in seven separate games…Run blocking and pass protection helped Giants offense gain 167 yards on ground and 220 in air at Philadelphia (9-10)…Suffered ribs injury vs. Detroit (11-19) and missed following game at Arizona (11-26)…Line did not allow sack and helped Giants rush for 141 yards in key victory at Washington (12-3)…Blocking vs. Jacksonville (12-23) helped Giants gain 373 yards of total offense…Stone and offensive line had one of best games of season in NFC Championship Game vs. Minnesota (1-14) when team gained 518 total yards.

1999: (With N.Y. Giants) One of three Giants offensive linemen to play every down…Started all 16 games at right guard…Run blocking vs. Philadelphia (10-3) opened enough holes to rush for 128 yards…Offensive line had best game of season vs. Jets (12-5), allowing just one sack and committing no penalties…Helped provide pass protection and run blocking to enable offense to have quarterback throw for over 300 yards (Kerry Collins 341), two receivers catch passes for over 100 yards (Amani Toomer 181 and Ike Hilliard 121) and running back rush for over 100 yards (Joe Montgomery 111) for first time in club history vs. Jets…Line followed that performance with only no sack game of season at Buffalo (12-12).

1998: (With N.Y. Giants) Started 14 games at right guard…Dressed but did not play vs. Atlanta (10-11) due to a coccyx contusion, injury suffered at San Diego (9-27)…Started next week at Tampa Bay (10-4), but was forced out during second series because of injury…Suffered calf strain during last drive of game vs. Denver (12-13) and was inactive vs. Kansas City (12-20)…Blocking helped RB Gary Brown finish seventh in NFC with 1,063 yards rushing…Play at Arizona (12-6) helped Giants produce 200 yards on ground, including 124-yard rushing effort by Brown.

1997: (With N.Y. Giants) Started at right guard for all 16 regular season games and postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)…Named Offensive MVP by coaching staff for effort vs. Dallas (10-5)…Made key block on three-yard touchdown run in fourth quarter to give Giants a 20-9 lead vs. Cowboys…Helped Giants offense generate 426 yards total offense, including 239 rushing, at Arizona (10-12)…Helped Tyrone Wheatley gain 103 yards on 33 carries, which ended Giants streak of 23 straight games without 100-yard rusher, at Cardinals…Entire offensive line was awarded game ball by coaching staff for performance at Arizona.

1996: (With N.Y. Giants) Started all 16 games at right guard…Named Offensive Lineman of Game vs. Dallas (11-24) by coaching staff…Along with rest of line, allowed Giants to control ball for 36:28 and allowed running game to gain 131 yards at Miami (12-8)…Giants ground game held ball for 10:33 of final quarter to seal 17-7 victory at Dolphins.

1995: (With Dallas) Played in all 16 games with one start…Was used as third tight end in short yardage and goal line situations throughout season…Earned first start of season, replacing Erik Williams (left calf), vs. Arizona (9-24)…Stone helped Cowboys gain 195 yards rushing and line did not allow sack vs. Cardinals…Took over at right tackle temporarily for Williams in first half and moved to left tackle in fourth quarter to rest Mark Tuinei vs. Philadelphia (11-6)…Saw action at both right guard and left guard due to injuries to Larry Allen and Nate Newton vs. Washington (12-3)…Filled in at right tackle for Williams at Arizona (12-25)…Saw action in all three postseason games, including victory over Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XXX (1-28).

1994: (With Dallas) Played in all 16 regular season games...Saw action mostly on field goal and extra point attempts…Did receive significant playing time on offensive line…Saw fourth quarter action at left guard in place of Nate Newton at Washington (10-2) and against Arizona (10-9)…Played entire second half at Arizona (10-23) after replacing Newton in second quarter…Made first career start at left guard for injured Newton in NFC Divisional Playoff game vs. Green Bay (1-8)…Also saw action at right tackle for injured Larry Allen vs. Packers…Filled in at right tackle in fourth quarter of NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1-15).

Did You Know...

While Dana was on the set making Reindeer Games, he was working on a shot with Ben Affleck. After working all night on a scene, the director (John Frankenheimer) finally said "cut." Affleck started messing around with Dana, causing Dana to slip on some food. As he did, Dana's backhand slapped him in the face, which caused Affleck to fall and hit his head on the concrete floor and suffer a mild concussion. When they resumed filming the scene a month later, Affleck showed up on the set wearing a football helmet.

RECEIVERS

Z receiver—Also known as the flanker. This receiver is usually off the line of scrimmage and is able to go in motion, one way or the other. Normally he will set up to the strength of the formation, which is the tight end side.

X receiver—Also referred to as the split end receiver. Lines up opposite of the strength call. He is on the line of scrimmage and is not allowed to go in motion

Y receiver—The tight end. The man in the middle that dictates the strength. He lines up on one side or the other. Normally, near the offensive line, but not always. He has the right to be off the ball, split out wide, in the backfield. But traditionally he's lined up on the line of scrimmage right next to one of the tackles.

THREE TYPES OF PRESSURES

Rush zone—you bring a linebacker or a safety up, so you are rushing five guys and you are playing a zone coverage around it, either a two-deep zone or a three-deep. Typically you rush four players.

Dog—rushing five guys and you are playing man-to-man around it.

Blitz—you are bringing six, seven or eight guys and everybody's got to cover. So when you blitz, there's no one in the middle of the field, deep. Someone like Zack Bronson has to cover a man so he can't just roam out deep. It's a little more risky.

Versatile and durable with ability to play multiple positions…Tremendous upside will allow him to add extra weight and increase effectiveness…Able to maintain leverage and position with leg strength.

THE IVY TREE

Since 1990 there have been 19 former Ivy league players who have entered the National Football League. Of those 19, only six have become regular starters. That number has increased to seven now that TE Eric Johnson has earned the starting tight end job for the 49ers. Johnson joins Minnesota's Matt Birk (Harvard), San Diego's Marcellus Wiley (Columbia), Miami's Jay Fiedler (Dartmouth), Arizona's Zack Walz (Dartmouth), Jacksonville's Seth Payne (Cornell) and Indianapolis' Jim Fenn (Penn). Johnson is one of three players from Yale currently in the NFL. Chris Hetherington (St. Louis) and Than Merrill (Chicago) are the only other former Bulldogs in the NFL.

ROAD SHOW

With a 5-3 record on the road during the 2001 season, the 49ers had a winning road record for the first time since 1997. The 49ers have registered four-or-more road victories 21 times since the merger in 1970. The team has reached the playoffs in 20 of those 21 seasons. The only miss was in 1976 when they went 4-3 away from home and 8-6 overall.

2001 GAME SUMMARIES

VS. ATLANTA FALCONS
SEPTEMBER 9, 2001 @ 3COM PARK
WON 16-13 (OT) RECORD 1-0

The 49ers opened the 2001 season in thrilling fashion with a 16-13 overtime victory against division rival Atlanta Falcons at 3Com Park.

The 49ers were led by a dominating offensive and defensive performance in the second half. WR J.J. Stokes hauled in five passes for 93 yards and the 49ers only touchdown of the game, while WR Terrell Owens had seven catches for 93 yards in the victory. QB Jeff Garcia was 26-of-40 for 335 yards, with one touchdown.

Trailing 13-3 with just three minutes left in the fourth quarter, Garcia found Stokes for a 16-yard touchdown pass to cut the Falcons lead to three. After two unsuccessful drives by the Falcons, San Francisco began at its own 17-yard line with four minutes remaining in the game. The 49ers proceeded to go on an 11-play, 84-yard drive, including a Garcia-to-Owens 40-yard pass play on second-and-10, to set up a K Jose Cortez's 20-yard field goal to tie the game at 13 with only 11 seconds remaining.

San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. Following a touchback, the 49ers had the ball on their own 20. Facing third-and-five, after a FB Fred Beasley five-yard run and a Garcia incomplete pass, Garcia rifled a pass to WR Tai Streets and he raced 53 yards down to the Falcons 23-yard line. Following three runs, Cortez nailed a 24-yard field goal to lift the 49ers to the overtime victory.

VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
SEPTEMBER 23, 2001 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 30-26 RECORD 1-1

The 49ers faced their second straight division opponent at home as they dropped a tough 30-26 decision to the St. Louis Rams at 3Com Park.

After falling behind 12-0 early, the 49ers stormed back in the second quarter when QB Jeff Garcia scored on a 10-yard run capping a 16-play, 76-yard drive to cut the lead to 12-7. After a CB Ahmed Plummer interception, San Francisco drove downfield and rookie RB Kevan Barlow rumbled in from one-yard out for his first-career touchdown. After failing to convert on a two-point attempt, the 49ers led 13-12. On the Rams ensuing possession, DE John Engelberger sacked QB Kurt Warner and forced the ball loose. Rookie DE Andre Carter scooped it up and gave the 49ers the ball in St. Louis territory with 24 seconds left. After failing to pick up the first down, 49ers K Jose Cortez nailed a CAREER-HIGH 52-yard field goal with no time left on the clock for the 16-12 halftime lead.

The Rams scored twice (a touchdown and a field goal) in the third quarter to regain the lead 22-16 heading into the fourth quarter. On St. Louis' first possession of the fourth, Warner hooked up with WR Issac Bruce for a 39-yard touchdown and 30-16 lead. San Francisco immediately answered with a 10-play, 60-yard drive, which culminated with a FB Terry Jackson 10-yard touchdown reception to bring the 49ers within seven. On the second play of the Rams next possession, Warner hit Bruce for a 33-yard gain when CB Jason Webster knocked the ball loose and S Lance Schulters recovered the fumble and returned it 15 yards to midfield. When the 49ers drive stalled at the St. Louis 15, Cortez kicked his second field goal to bring the score to 30-26 with just over six minutes remaining. San Francisco, however, could not force a punt and the Rams ran the clock out for the victory.

VS. NEW YORK JETS
OCTOBER 1, 2001 @ MEADOWLANDS
WON 19-17 RECORD 2-1

The 49ers made a statement in their return to Prime Time after a two-year hiatus with a 19-17 thriller over the New York Jets at the Meadowlands.

New York struck first, late in the first quarter, when RB Curtis Martin scored on a two-yard run. The 49ers answered on their ensuing possession with an eight-play, 69-yard drive that culminated with QB Jeff Garcia hitting WR Terrell Owens on a six-yard touchdown strike to knot the game at seven. On the Jets next possession, they drove down to the 49ers 32. Following a delay of game penalty, K Jason Hall attempted a 50-yard field goal that was blocked by DT Dana Stubblefield. With just over three minutes remaining in the second quarter, K Jose Cortez connected on a 19-yard field goal to take a 10-7 lead. After a three-and-out possession by the Jets, San Francisco moved the ball down to the Jets 31-yard line and with five seconds remaining in the half, Cortez hit a 49-yard field goal to give the 49ers a 13-7 lead.

San Francisco received the second half kickoff and fumbled on its second play to give the Jets the ball on the 49ers 30. Hall nailed a 24-yard field goal eight plays later to bring the Jets within three. After a 65-yard kickoff return by KR Vinny Sutherland that gave San Francisco possession deep in New York territory, the 49ers pushed down to the Jets 17-yard line where Cortez kicked a 35-yard field goal for a 16-10 lead. The San Francisco defense forced the Jets into a three-and-out and the 49ers offense embarked on a 17-play, 87-yard drive, which culminated with Cortez kicking his third field goal of the game and a nine-point lead. With just over two minutes remaining, the Jets went 84 yards in 10 plays and Martin scored on a one-yard run to cut the 49ers lead to 19-17. Special teams ace, FB Terry Jackson recovered the ensuing onside kick to secure the win.

VS. CAROLINA PANTHERS
OCTOBER 7, 2001 @ 3COM PARK
WON 24-14 RECORD 3-1

The 49ers pushed their division record to 2-1 with a 24-14 victory over the Carolina Panthers, marking the first time San Francisco defeated Carolina since George Seifert took over as head coach in 1999.

With neither team able to score in the first quarter, the 49ers broke the tie early in the second period when QB Jeff Garcia raced in for a one-yard touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Carolina tied the game later in the second after producing a 10-play, 99-yard drive, which ended with a TE Wesley Walls 10-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers began their next drive on their own 31-yard line with one minute remaining in the half. Garcia led the 49ers on an eight-play, 47-yard drive that ended with a K Jose Cortez 40-yard field goal as time ran out in the half for the 10-7 lead.

San Francisco received the second half kickoff and began the drive at its own 30. After a WR Terrell Owens 20-yard reception was nullified by a Carolina challenge, RB Garrison Hearst rushed up the middle for a six-yard gain. On the following play, Garcia's pass was intercepted by CB Doug Evans and returned 39 yards for a touchdown and a 14-10 Carolina lead. The 49ers immediately answered back with an eight-play, 67-yard drive, ending with a Garcia-to-Owens 29-yard touchdown strike. After the defense forced Carolina to punt, Garcia led San Francisco on another eight-play drive, this time covering 80 yards, and connected with Owens again for a 20-yard touchdown pass and a 10-point lead. Neither team could score in the fourth quarter and with just over two minutes remaining in the game, CB Ahmed Plummer intercepted a QB Chris Weinke pass to end a threat and seal the 24-14 victory.

VS. ATLANTA FALCONS
OCTOBER 14, 2001 @ GEORGIA DOME
WON 37-31 (OT) RECORD 4-1

WR Terrell Owens had nine receptions for 183 yards and three touchdowns as the 49ers picked up their third consecutive victory, and first division road win since 1998, with a 37-31 overtime thriller at Atlanta. With the victory, the 49ers swept the season series with the Falcons, going to overtime in both games.

After returning the opening kickoff to their own 19-yard line, the Falcons went 81 yards in eight plays for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. The 49ers lost starting C Jeremy Newberry on their first drive of the game to an existing ankle injury and G Dave Fiore was moved to center. After forcing the 49ers to punt, the Falcons received the ball on their own eight. QB Chris Chandler led Atlanta on an eight-play, 92-yard drive, capped by a RB Michael Smith three-yard touchdown run and a 14-0 lead.

San Francisco received the ball on its own 20-yard line with 55 seconds remaining in the first quarter and QB Jeff Garcia led them on an 11-play, 80-yard drive, which ended with a seven-yard touchdown run by Garcia to cut the Falcons lead to seven. On its second possession of the second quarter, Atlanta drove down to the San Francisco 21-yard line where K Jay Feely connected on a 39-yard field goal. With just 15 seconds remaining in the first half, Feely nailed another field goal, this time from 24 yards out, to push the Falcons lead to 20-7.

The 49ers started the second half with a 67-yard, 13-play drive that culminated with a K Jose Cortez 27-yard field goal to cut the lead to 20-10. After the 49ers and Falcons exchanged possessions, San Francisco needed just three plays to travel 42 yards for a touchdown. Garcia hit Owens on a 33-yard touchdown strike to cut the Falcons lead to three.

On its first possession of the fourth quarter, Atlanta moved down to the 49ers 18-yard line and Feely connected on his third field goal of the game to push the Falcons lead to 23-17. San Francisco immediately answered with a 74-yard drive of its own, culminated by a RB Kevan Barlow two-yard touchdown plunge for the 49ers first lead at 24-23. Atlanta retook the lead when Chandler hit WR Brian Finneran with a 47-yard touchdown strike. After Chandler connected with WR Shawn Jefferson for the two-point conversion, the Falcons led 31-24 with 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia threw for 49 yards and rushed for 11 more to lead the 49ers on a 10-play, 72-yard scoring drive. He hooked up with Owens on a 17-yard touchdown strike to tie the game with 21 seconds left and send the contest into overtime.

The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and promptly pushed the ball down to the Atlanta 14-yard line. On the sixth play of their first overtime possession, the Falcons recovered a mishandled snap between Garcia and Fiore. The San Francisco defense forced Atlanta into a three-and-out and regained possession at its own 33-yard line. It didn't take long for the Garcia-to-Owens tandem to strike. Facing third-and-five, Garcia threw a bomb to Owens, who raced 52 yards up the sidelines for a touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

VS. CHICAGO BEARS
OCTOBER 28, 2001 @ SOLDIER FIELD
LOST 37-31 (OT) RECORD 4-2

RB Garrison Hearst scored his first NFL touchdown since 12-14-98 and had a CAREER-HIGH 105 receiving yards, but it wasn't enough as the 49ers dropped their first decision since September in an overtime loss to the Chicago Bears.

The 49ers scored first thanks to their defense. DT Bryant Young sacked Chicago QB Jim Miller and forced him to fumble, which was picked up by LB Julian Peterson, who returned it 26 yards for his first career touchdown and a 7-0 lead. After the Bears were forced to punt, San Francisco received the ball at its own 15-yard line. QB Jeff Garcia went seven-of-eight for 78 yards as San Francisco marched 85 yards in 10 plays, which resulted in a Garcia one-yard touchdown connection with TE Justin Swift for the first touchdown of his career. Neither team could score late into the second quarter until, with 1:54 remaining in the first half, P Jason Baker mishandled the snap, which went out of bounds for a Bears safety. Following a free kick, Chicago had the ball on its own 45 and went 55 yards in seven plays and QB Shane Matthews, playing for the injured Miller, hit FB Daimon Shelton on a three-yard touchdown pass to cut the 49ers lead to 14-9 going into the half.

The 49ers began their first drive of the second half on their 29. On the third play of the half, Garcia hooked up with Hearst on a 60-yard touchdown pass to push the lead to 21-9. On the ensuing possession, Chicago moved the ball down to the San Francisco 10-yard line but were stopped abruptly when S Zack Bronson stepped in front of a Matthews pass and raced a TEAM RECORD 97 yards for his first career touchdown and a 28-9 lead. On their next possession, the Bears went 66 yards in eight plays and scored when RB Anthony Thomas rumbled 19 yards to cut the lead to 28-16.

San Francisco struck first in the fourth quarter when Cortez connected on a 40-yard field goal and extended the lead to 15 points. The Bears immediately answered back with a 66-yard drive when Matthews hit WR David Terrell on a 13-yard touchdown strike to bring the Bears to within eight. The 49ers failed to pick up a first down and were forced to punt. Starting from their own 33, the Bears marched 67 yards in 13 plays, which resulted in a Matthews-to-Terrell touchdown connection. After a two-point conversion, the score was tied with 22 seconds remaining.

The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. On the first play from scrimmage, Garcia's pass intended for Owens was picked off by Bears S Mike Brown and returned 33 yards for the touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

GAME 7
VS. DETROIT LIONS
NOVEMBER 4, 2001 @ 3COM PARK
WON 21-13 RECORD 5-2

WR Terrell Owens hauled in nine receptions for 125 yards and two touchdowns and rookie TE Eric Johnson scored his first career touchdown as the 49ers defeated the winless Detroit Lions 21-13.

The 49ers started their first drive from their own 15. San Francisco moved the ball to the Detroit 45 when CB Robert Bailey intercepted a QB Jeff Garcia pass intended for WR Tai Streets and returned it 74 yards for a touchdown and the 7-0 lead.

K Jason Hanson gave Detroit a 10-0 lead in the second quarter with a 39-yard field goal. Just before halftime, the 49ers traveled 74 yards in eight plays as Garcia went five-for-five for 64 yards. The drive ended with a four-yard touchdown strike from Garcia to Johnson, and the 49ers went into the locker down 10-7 at halftime.

The 49ers opened the second half with a 10-play, 65-yard scoring drive as Garcia hit Owens on a 30-yard touchdown to take the lead at 14-10. Detroit immediately answered with a nine-play, 36-yard drive and Hanson hit his second field goal of the game to bring Detroit to within one at 14-13. San Francisco's next threat was thwarted when CB Todd Lyght stepped in front of a Garcia pass for the interception, ending the drive. Beginning its next drive at its own 13, Garcia led San Francisco 87 yards and Owens caught his second touchdown pass of the game from seven yards out to put the 49ers up 21-13 at the beginning of the fourth quarter. After trading possessions, the 49ers attempted a 19-yard field goal with 2:17 remaining in the game, which was blocked. Detroit picked up a first down on a QB Charlie Batch-to-WR Bert Emanuel 11-yard strike and another on a pass interference call on 49ers CB Jason Webster. Detroit failed to pick up another first down and San Francisco knelt on the ball to end the game and secure the 21-13 victory.

GAME 8
VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
NOVEMBER 11, 2001 @ 3COM PARK
WON 28-27 RECORD 6-2

QB Jeff Garcia tied a CAREER-HIGH with four touchdowns on 21-of-34 passing for 252 yards as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints 28-27 in a division battle.

New Orleans struck first as they marched 42 yards in 11 plays, and scored on a K John Carney 43-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. On its second possession, San Francisco went 78 yards in eight plays, which resulted in a Garcia-to-WR Terrell Owens 25-yard touchdown pass and a 7-3 lead. The Saints responded with a drive, but momentum suddenly shifted. Facing fourth-and-one from the San Francisco 31-yard line, RB Ricky Williams ran off the left end, where he was met by LB Derek Smith and a gang of San Francisco tacklers and was denied the first down. Garcia led San Francisco on an eight-play, 68-yard drive, which ended with Garcia and Owens hooking up for the second time of the day for a five-yard touchdown pass. After a Williams six-yard run and a QB Aaron Brooks-to-WR Joe Horn 44-yard pass, CB Ahmed Plummer was flagged for pass interference and gave the ball to New Orleans on the San Francisco 22. On the ensuing play, Brooks found Horn in the end zone for a touchdown. Brooks then hooked up with WR Willie Jackson for a two-point conversion and cut the 49ers lead to 14-11. Three plays later, RB Kevan Barlow took a Garcia pass 61 yards for the first receiving touchdown of his career and pushed the 49ers lead to 21-11. The two teams traded punts, and with 1:35 remaining in the first half, New Orleans drove the ball down to the 49ers 24-yard line where Carney nailed a 42-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven at the half.

The 49ers were forced to punt on their first drive of the second half and the Saints drove down deep into San Francisco territory where Carney hit a 35-yard field goal to cut the lead to 21-17. The Saints regained the lead on their next possession, driving 89 yards in 10 plays as Brooks hooked up with Horn for the six-yard touchdown and a 24-21 lead. On the first play of the Saints next drive, DE Chike Okeafor stripped Williams and Plummer recovered the fumble. It took only four plays for Garcia to find rookie TE Eric Johnson for a 10-yard touchdown strike and the 28-24 lead. The Saints attempted to answer back when Brooks found Jackson on a short pass and Jackson raced 63 yards down to the 49ers 10-yard line, where S Ronnie Heard made a touchdown-saving tackle. After two false start penalties, the Saints were backed up to the San Francisco 18 and failed to pick up a first down. They settled for the field goal with eight minutes remaining in the game to come within one. San Francisco's defense came up big, not allowing the Saints into 49ers territory for the remainder of the game. RB Garrison Hearst, with 145 yards rushing had his first 100-yard rushing game since 12-20-98 at New England, ran out the clock with runs of 23 and 17 yards after the two-minute warning for the 28-27 win.

GAME 9
VS. CAROLINA PANTHERS
NOVEMBER 18, 2001 @ ERICSSON STADIUM
WON 25-22 (OT) RECORD 7-2

WR J.J. Stokes posted his best game of the season with a season-high eight receptions for 72 yards and two touchdowns as the 49ers picked up their first victory in Carolina since 1998 with a thrilling 25-22 overtime victory over the Carolina Panthers.

After receiving the opening kickoff, the 49ers marched down to the Carolina 39-yard line, where FB Fred Beasley fumbled and the Panthers recovered. Carolina promptly marched 63 yards in seven plays, when QB Chris Weinke hit RB Richard Huntley for a 13-yard touchdown strike and the early 7-0 lead. San Francisco was held scoreless for the remainder of the first quarter.

San Francisco began the second quarter on its own 39 and QB Jeff Garcia led the team on a 10-play, 61-yard drive, culminating with Garcia hooking up with Stokes on a 14-yard touchdown to tie the game at seven. On the ensuing possession, Carolina ripped off a 61-yard drive of its own and K John Kasay connected on a 25-yard field goal to retake the lead. Neither team scored for the remainder of the second quarter and the Panthers went into the half with a 10-7 lead.

On its first possession of the second half, San Francisco was forced into a three-and-out possession. Carolina began at its own 41 and pushed down to the San Francisco 41 where Kasay hit his second field goal of the game for the 13-7 lead. The 49ers immediately answered with an eight-play, 79-yard drive when Garcia and Stokes connected again for a nine-yard touchdown and the 14-13 lead.

The 49ers kept the slim one-point lead going into the fourth quarter, when Carolina CB Doug Evans intercepted a Garcia pass intended for WR Terrell Owens and gave the ball to the Panthers on the San Francisco 46-yard line. Five plays later, Weinke hit TE Wesley Walls on a 24-yard touchdown strike to regain the lead. But the two-point conversion failed and the score remained 19-14. Late in the fourth, Garcia had San Francisco rolling until DT Brentson Buckner intercepted a pass and rumbled down to the 49ers 14-yard line. After a defensive stand, the Panthers had to settle for a field goal and a 22-14 lead. With 1:52 remaining on the clock, the 49ers started on their own 34-yard line and moved down to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Owens with one second remaining on the clock to cut the Panthers lead to two. Garcia then found TE Eric Johnson for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime.

San Francisco won the coin toss, and KR Vinny Sutherland returned the ensuing kickoff to the 26-yard line. Garcia went three-for-four for 27 yards on the drive, including a crucial fourth down conversion. RB Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards during the drive, including a 31-yard carry on third-and-two, which got the 49ers down to the Carolina nine-yard line. It was here that K Jose Cortez kicked the 26-yard game-winning field goal in overtime.

GAME 10
VS. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS
NOVEMBER 25, 2001 @ RCA DOME
WON 40-21 RECORD 8-2

RB Garrison Hearst ran for 106 yards and two touchdowns, including his first rushing touchdown since 12-14-98, in the 49ers 40-21 victory over the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome.

The Colts struck first after receiving the opening kickoff and promptly marching 85 yards in 14 plays, resulting in a RB Dominic Rhodes one-yard touchdown plunge and a 7-0 lead. San Francisco immediately answered back. After KR Vinny Sutherland ran the kickoff back 38 yards to the San Francisco 46 and the Colts were flagged for a personal foul, the 49ers began on the Indianapolis 39-yard line. QB Jeff Garcia led the 49ers on an eight-play, 27-yard drive and K Jose Cortez nailed a 30-yard field goal to cut the Colts lead to 7-3.

After the Colts were forced to punt, the 49ers raced 78 yards in four plays, ending with Garcia hitting WR J.J. Stokes for a five-yard touchdown strike and their first lead of the game at 10-7. Both teams were forced to punt on their next two possessions. Indianapolis then had the ball on its own 47 with just over three minutes remaining in the half when QB Peyton Manning hit WR Marvin Harrison in the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown and a 14-10 lead. After a Sutherland 50-yard kickoff return, Garcia hit WR Terrell Owens and TE Eric Johnson on short passes before Hearst rumbled 28 yards for a touchdown and a 17-14 lead with 57 seconds remaining in the half. The touchdown was the first rushing touchdown for Hearst since 12-14-98. On the Colts next possession, CB Ahmed Plummer intercepted a Manning pass intended for Harrison and returned it to the Colts 47. Following three plays, Cortez split the uprights for a 46-yard field goal and a 20-14 halftime lead.

San Francisco opened the second half with the ball, but on the third play from scrimmage, Garcia was intercepted by CB Jeff Burris, who returned it 13 yards to the 49ers 44. Rhodes rushed three times on the Colts possession, including a one-yard touchdown romp, for a 21-20 lead. On the next Colts drive, S Zack Bronson picked off a Manning pass and returned it 48 yards for his second interception return for a touchdown this season. The 49ers led 27-21. On the Colts following possession, Manning was again intercepted, this time by CB Rashad Holman. San Francisco took advantage when Garcia hit Owens on a 35-yard bomb to push the San Francisco lead to 33-21. With six minutes remaining, Hearst busted loose for a 43-yard touchdown run and a 40-21 lead. The San Francisco defense did not allow the Colts into the end zone in the fourth quarter and sealed a 19-point win.

GAME 11
VS. BUFFALO BILLS
DECEMBER 2, 2001 @ 3COM PARK
WON 35-0 RECORD 9-2

It was a game of firsts as the San Francisco 49ers earned their first shutout of the season with a 35-0 blanking of the Buffalo Bills in the first meeting between the clubs since 1998.

The 49ers began the game on their own 31. With an even mix of pass and run, San Francisco moved the ball down to the Buffalo 14 where K Jose Cortez missed a 32-yard field goal. QB Jeff Garcia went four-for-four for 41 yards and KR Vinny Sutherland took his first career carry 16 yards on the 49ers second drive that moved to the Buffalo one-yard line as the first quarter ended. On the first play of the second quarter, RB Garrison Hearst scored on a one-yard plunge for a 7-0 lead. The Bills began their second possession of the second quarter at their own 13 and QB Alex Van Pelt was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Bills 29-yard line. Three plays later, Garcia hooked up with WR Tai Streets on a 23-yard touchdown pass for the first score of Streets' career and the 49ers led 14-0 at halftime.

In the third quarter, from its own 32, San Francisco marched 68 yards in nine plays, ending with Garcia hitting WR Terrell Owens for a 17-yard touchdown to push the lead to 21-0. Buffalo moved the ball down to the San Francisco 31, and on fourth down, S Lance Schulters intercepted a Van Pelt pass intended for WR Eric Moulds. Early in the fourth quarter, Plummer picked off his second pass of the day, his fourth in the last two games, and returned it to the Buffalo 26. Four plays later, FB Fred Beasley rumbled three yards for his first touchdown of the season and a 28-0 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, Buffalo KR Chris Watson fumbled the ball and San Francisco RB Paul Smith recovered at the Buffalo 21. Smith carried the ball three consecutive times, ending with a 13-yard jaunt and the first touchdown of his career and a 35-0 lead. On its final possession of the game, Buffalo drove down to the 49ers 19-yard line and with five seconds remaining, LB Jamie Winborn stepped in front of a Van Pelt pass for the first interception of his career as time ran out on the clock.

GAME 12
VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
DECEMBER 9, 2001 @ DOME AT AMERICA'S CENTER
LOST 27-14 RECORD 9-3

In a battle for the best record in the NFC West, San Francisco had its five-game winning streak snapped as they dropped a 27-14 decision to the St. Louis Rams.

The 49ers began the first drive on their own 27-yard line. Following an incomplete pass and a three-yard reception by TE Eric Johnson, QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted by CB Aeneas Williams and the Rams began their first drive at the San Francisco 41-yard line. St. Louis marched 41 yards in 12 plays, ending with a RB Marshall Faulk six-yard scamper for a 7-0 lead. San Francisco began its third drive of the game from its own 20 and was forced to punt after a three and out. The Rams took possession on the San Francisco 38 and five plays later, Warner hit WR Ricky Proehl on a 15-yard strike and a 14-0 lead. After taking possession on the last play of the first quarter, the 49ers went 71 yards in 13 plays, consuming more than seven minutes off the clock, and cut the Rams lead to 14-7 when RB Garrison Hearst scored on a one-yard plunge. With just over two minutes remaining in the half, St. Louis marched 80 yards in nine plays and Faulk scored on a three-yard run for the 21-7 halftime lead.

St. Louis began the opening drive of the second half from its own 20-yard line. After moving the ball to the San Francisco 40, S Zack Bronson intercepted a Warner pass intended for RB Trung Canidate and returned it to the 46-yard line. After moving the ball to the St. Louis 40, the drive stalled and the 49ers were forced to punt. St. Louis took possession at its own 20-yard line and promptly moved down to the 49ers four-yard line where the San Francisco defense held tough and forced St. Louis to settle for a field goal and the 24-7 lead. Garcia was intercepted again by Williams and the Rams took over on the San Francisco 16-yard line. The San Francisco defense forced the Rams offense into a three-and-out and another field goal which lifted the lead to 27-7. The 49ers answered with a 17-play, 81-yard drive, including converting on two fourth down plays, where Garcia ran in for the one-yard score to cut the lead to 27-14. St. Louis recovered the K Jose Cortez onside kick, but three plays later S Ronnie Heard forced WR Az-Zahir Hakim to fumble and LB Derek Smith recovered the ball at the Rams 36-yard line. After Garcia and WR Terrell Owens hooked up for an 11-yard pass play and the first down, San Francisco could not convert again and the Rams took possession. After running three plays, the Rams knelt on the ball for the 27-14 victory.

VS. MIAMI DOLPHINS
DECEMBER 16, 2001 @ 3COM PARK
WON 21-0 RECORD 10-3

The 49ers posted their second consecutive shutout at home with an impressive 21-0 victory against the Miami Dolphins, marking the first time in team history San Francisco posted back-to-back home shutouts.

On Miami's first possession, S Zack Bronson intercepted a QB Jay Fiedler pass. Bronson then fumbled the ball, which S Lance Schulters recovered and returned to the San Francisco 44-yard line. The 49ers took immediate advantage with a seven-play, 56-yard drive, ending with a RB Kevan Barlow two-yard touchdown run and the early 7-0 lead. The Dolphins were forced to punt after a three-and-out on their next possession. The 49ers promptly went on a 13-play, 64-yard drive chewing up 6:58 of clock time, capped off with a QB Jeff Garcia-to-TE Eric Johnson 12-yard touchdown pass to push the lead to 14-0.

In the second half, the 49ers defense picked up right where it left off, forcing Miami to punt on its first possession. San Francisco began the first drive of the second half on its own two-yard line and marched 98 yards in 17 plays, capped off with Barlow's second rushing touchdown of the game, and a 21-0 lead. The 49ers drive took 11:05 off the clock. After trading punts, Miami moved the ball from its own 32-yard line to the San Francisco 26. The drive ended when CB Jason Webster intercepted a pass intended for WR Jeff Ogden and returned it to the San Francisco 26-yard line. San Francisco was forced to punt after picking up a first down and Miami took possession at its own 27-yard line. The Dolphins moved the ball to the San Francisco 35, when Bronson picked off his second pass of the day. The 49ers knelt on the ball for the 21-0 victory.

VS. PHILADELPHIA EAGLES
DECEMBER 22, 2001 @ 3COM PARK
WON 13-3 RECORD 11-3

San Francisco notched its second consecutive home victory and 11th win overall in a hard fought, defensively dominated battle.

Philadelphia began its second drive of the game from its own 18-yard line, and moved the ball down to the 49ers two-yard line where the drive stalled and K David Akers kicked a 20-yard field goal for an early 3-0 lead. The 49ers took the ball on their own 40-yard line and went 57 yards in 11 plays, ending with a K Jose Cortez 21-yard field goal to tie the game at three going into the half.

In the second half, San Francisco embarked on a 16-play, 66-yard drive and Cortez hit his second field goal of the day with a 32-yarder to put the 49ers up 6-3. The Eagles moved the ball from their own 40-yard line down inside the San Francisco 10-yard line. After RB Deuce Staley ran down to the 49ers two-yard line, QB Donovan McNabb moved it down to the one-yard line where the Eagles faced fourth-and-goal from the one. McNabb was pushed out of bounds after no gain, but S Lance Schulters was called for holding, which gave Philadelphia a first down from the 49ers half-yard line. The 49ers defense stuffed Staley, and the Eagles twice for the fifth and sixth straight plays from inside the two-yard line. On third-and-one, LB Derek Smith intercepted a McNabb pass in the end zone for the touchback. On the ensuing possession, QB Jeff Garcia went three-of-four for 41 yards and ran once for six yards as he led San Francisco on a seven-play, 80-yard drive, ending with Garcia hitting WR Terrell Owens on a 32-yard touchdown and the 13-3 lead. The 49ers defense forced Philadelphia into its seventh punt of the day and they ran the clock down to 2:28 remaining and Baker boomed a 45-yard punt down to the Philadelphia 26-yard line. The 49ers defense held strong and stopped McNabb short of the first down on fourth-and-11 to take over with 58 seconds left in the game. San Francisco knelt on the ball twice for the 13-3 victory.

VS. DALLAS COWBOYS
DECEMBER 30, 2001 @ TEXAS STADIUM
LOST 27-21 RECORD 11-4

The 49ers dropped a tough 27-21 decision to the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium snapping their two-game winning streak.

The game moved slowly until K Jason Hilbert converted a short field goal for a 3-0 Dallas lead. The 49ers quickly answered back after RB Terry Jackson recovered the onside kick attempt, and QB Jeff Garcia led the team on a four-play, 43-yard drive capped off with a Garcia six-yard touchdown scamper to take a 7-3 lead. The Cowboys immediately struck back as they marched 80 yards in nine plays and QB Quincy Carter hit WR Darrin Chiaverini for a two-yard touchdown reception to retake the lead at 10-7. San Francisco recaptured the lead, 14-10, after Garcia connected with WR J.J. Stokes on a seven-yard touchdown pass to cap a 73-yard, six-play drive just before the half.

Dallas came out on its first possession of the second half with a 10-play, 75-yard drive. After the San Francisco defense turned Dallas back four times inside the five-yard line, Carter scored on a one-yard plunge to grab a three-point lead at 17-14. The 49ers went three-and-out on their first possession of the second half as P Jason Baker pinned the Cowboys down at the 11-yard line. Carter then led Dallas 89 yards in six plays as he hit WR Joey Galloway on a 47-yard touchdown strike to push its lead to 24-14. Dallas took a 27-14 lead after Hilbert nailed a 20-yard field goal capping a 78-yard drive. After punting on the previous possession, the 49ers promptly raced the ball downfield to the Dallas five-yard line, where on fourth-and-five Garcia's pass was too high for RB Garrison Hearst and the 49ers turned the ball over on downs. After the San Francisco defense held strong, the Cowboys punt was blocked by Jackson and recovered by CB Jimmy Williams on the Dallas four-yard line. Three plays later, Garcia found Stokes in the back of the end zone for their second touchdown connection of the game to cut the lead to 27-21 with 42 seconds remaining. Dallas recovered the onside kick and knelt on the ball for the six-point victory.

GAME 16
VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
JANUARY 6, 2002 @ LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
WON 38-0 RECORD 12-4

San Francisco set a new TEAM RECORD with its third shutout of the season and finished the 2001 regular season with a 12-4 record, including a 6-2 division mark, with a convincing 38-0 victory over the New Orleans Saints.

As it had for much of the second half of the season, the 49ers defense came up with the big plays to turn the game. The first came when DE John Engelberger forced RB Ricky Williams to fumble and LB Derek Smith recovered the fumble at the San Francisco 45. On the very next play, Garcia hooked up with WR Terrell Owens for a 56-yard touchdown and an early 7-0 lead. After the San Francisco defense forced New Orleans into a three-and-out, the 49ers took the ball on their own 19-yard line. Three plays later, Garcia found Owens again for their second touchdown hook-up of the day on a 60-yard bomb. New Orleans failed to move the ball for the remainder of the first quarter, and three plays into the second quarter, QB Aaron Brooks was intercepted by S Zack Bronson, who returned the ball to the 49ers 12-yard line. Following a three-and-out by San Francisco, the ball went back to the Saints. Brooks threw two incomplete passes before Williams went off left and was hit by CB George McCullough and fumbled. Rookie LB Jamie Winborn picked up the ball and raced down to the New Orleans 28 before he was knocked out of bounds. San Francisco struck quickly again as Garcia found FB Terry Jackson for a six-yard touchdown catch to push the lead to 21-0. New Orleans moved the ball up to its own 37-yard line before Brooks' pass intended for WR Joe Horn resulted in Bronson's second pick of the game. It capped off three possessions in a row where the 49ers defense forced a turnover. The two teams didn't score the rest of the half and the 49ers went in with the 21-0 halftime lead.

New Orleans received the second half kickoff and moved the ball to its own 40-yard line before S Lance Schulters picked off Brooks at the San Francisco 25-yard line. The 49ers took advantage, and moved the ball down to the New Orleans 21-yard line where K Jose Cortez drilled a 39-yard field goal to push the lead to 24-0. The 49ers moved the ball from their own 43 to the New Orleans 11-yard line on the first play of the fourth quarter. Garcia then hit WR J.J. Stokes and Stokes bulled into the end zone from six yards out for Garcia's fourth touchdown toss of the game and the 31-0 lead. Following two passes and a Williams run, the Saints faced a fourth-and-one from the 49ers 34-yard line, where Winborn intercepted another Brooks pass and returned it to the Saints 44-yard line. With QB Tim Rattay at the helm, the 49ers moved the ball to the Saints nine-yard line, where Jackson rolled into the end zone for the 49ers first rushing touchdown of the game and a 38-0 lead. On the Saints first play of the next series, Williams fumbled when he was hit by DE

Andre Carter. Williams tracked it down at the New Orleans four-yard line after a 22-yard loss. Following two unsuccessful plays, New Orleans punted and San Francisco took possession on the New Orleans 42-yard line. The 49ers advanced the ball down to the New Orleans eight-yard line when Rattay downed the ball three consecutive times after the two-minute warning. New Orleans took possession with 31 seconds remaining and QB Jeff Blake knelt on the ball to end the game.

Postseason Game 1 – NFC WILD CARD GAME
VS. GREEN BAY PACKERS
JANUARY 13, 2002 @ LAMBEAU FIELD
LOST 25-15 RECORD 12-5

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25-15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card game at Lambeau Field.

With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, it took a while for the two offense's to get rolling. Green Bay struck first marching 40 yards in seven plays, when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6-0. The Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line and on the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco picked up two first downs as they moved the ball to the Green Bay 16-yard line, where the drive stalled. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6-0 early in the second quarter. Despite a slow start, the 49ers offense got on track late in the second quarter. QB Jeff Garcia directed a 15-play, 76-yard drive that chewed up 6:55 off the clock and put the 49ers ahead 7-6 at the half. RB Garrison Hearst capped the drive with a two-yard touchdown run.

On their first possession of the second half, the Packers took over on their own 20-yard line. They moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9-7 lead. Following two consecutive first downs on two Garcia passes to WR Terrell Owens and WR Tai Streets, the 49ers could not move the ball further and were forced to punt. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15-7. After stalling on the previous drive, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with a Garcia-to-Streets 14-yard touchdown strike. The two hooked up on the two point conversion to tie the game at 15.

The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18-15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25-15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25-15 victory.

GOLD RUSH

The 49ers are 34-7 since 1981 when they rush for 200-or-more yards in a game. They registered 233 yards in the 19-17 win over the Jets (10-1-01), and 230 yards in a 35-0 win over the Buffalo Bills (12-2-01). They have registered a 115-18 (.865) record when rushing for 100-or-more yards during that same stretch.

ANNUAL LEN ESHMONT AWARD

The Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers most prestigious annual honor, has been given each year to the 49er who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont. A member of the original 1946 49ers team, Eshmont coached at Navy and Virginia following his playing days with the 49ers. Eshmont died in 1957.

ONE OF A KIND

The No. 8 is the only jersey number that has been worn once in team history. Steve Young broke out the number in 1987 and is the only 49er ever to use it. The 49ers have used every other number more than once. Twenty-two players have worn No. 32, making it the most frequently worn number in team history.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and committment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl Champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979. He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl Championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements," Walsh said.

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES

One of the ways the 49ers defense improved since 2000 is that it cut down on the number of big plays allowed. In 2000, the 49ers defense gave up 65 plays of 20-or-more yards, including 55 passing. Fast-forward to 2001 and San Francisco allowed just 42 plays of 20-or-more yards, including 36 through the air. They allowed 23 fewer big plays than the previous season.

2001 AWARD WINNING 49ERS

PRO BOWL

Ray Brown — Earned his first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career after not giving up a sack in three seasons.
Jeff Garcia — Participated in his second consecutive Pro Bowl by leading the 49ers offense in 2001, completing 316-of-504 passes for 3,538 yards with 32 touchdowns and 12 interceptions for a rating 94.8.
Garrison Hearst — Earned his second Pro Bowl appearance as a 49er, returning after a devastating ankle injury that almost sidelined him for his career, and became the only player in NFL history to rush for more than 1,000 yards after a two-year layoff. Hearst finished the 2001 regular season as the team leader with 1,206 yards on 252 rushing attempts and four touchdowns.
Jeremy Newberry — Named to his first Pro Bowl appearance after originally being named as a first alternate. (Matt Birk from Minnesota had to pull out because he was getting married.)
Terrell Owens — Selected to his second straight Pro Bowl, including his first time as a starter. Owens led the 49ers in receiving in 2001, finishing with 93 receptions for 1,412 yards and an NFL leading 16 touchdowns.
Bryant Young — Named to his third career Pro Bowl after finishing with 49 tackles (36 solo), 3.5 sacks for 24 yards and one forced fumble.

LEN ESHMONT AWARD

RB Garrison Hearst — Was named the recipient of the team's most prestigious honor. Hearst battled back from an ankle injury that was once thought to be career ending. He missed two seasons (1999-00) and endured five surgeries on his ankle. Hearst fought back to become the only 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards three times in his career. In a vote by teammates, the award is given annually to the 49er player who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

Ray Brown - Brown became the first three-time winner of the award, winning previously in 1997 and 1999. Brown and the 49ers front five paved the way for the league's second-ranked rushing offense in 2001 and also has produced a 1,000-yard rusher for five consecutive years, establishing a TEAM RECORD. Established by the 49ers in 1999 in honor of longtime offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, the award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by Coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

Lance Schulters — In memory of former 49ers linebacker Matt Hazeltine, who died of ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease), the award is given annually to the 49ers defensive player who best displays leadership, inspiration and productivity.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Lance Schulters — Was named the team's recipient after starting every game in 2001 after missing the final four games of 2000 with a knee injury, despite dislocating his shoulder at Atlanta in Week 5.

GARRY NIVER AWARD

Jeff Garcia — Given annually to the 49ers player who is most professional with the media.

NFC PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK/MONTH

Jose Cortez — Special Teams Player of the Week (Week One) — Cortez, in his first NFL game, kicked the 24-yard, game-winning field goal in overtime to give the 49ers a victory in the season opener vs. Atlanta. Cortez also kicked the game-tying field goal with 11 seconds remaining to send the game into overtime. Cortez finished the game three-for-three on field goal attempts and hit his lone extra point attempt.

Jeff Garcia — Offensive Player of the Week (Week Nine) — Garcia completed 21-of-34 passes (61.8 percent) for 252 yards and tied a CAREER-HIGH with four touchdown passes and no interceptions in the 49ers 28-27 victory over the New Orleans Saints. Garcia also posted a passer rating of 123.7, which was a CAREER-HIGH and the highest by a 49ers passer since 11-22-98 (Steve Young — 126.3). The win was the third fourth quarter comeback win for San Francisco of in 2001.

Jeff Garcia — Offensive Player of the Month (November) — In four games, Garcia completed 95-of-145 passes (65.5 percent) for 1,032 yards with 12 touchdowns and five interceptions for a 99.6 passer rating. Garcia led the 49ers to a 4-0 record in the month of November, including two fourth quarter comeback wins.

Garrison Hearst — Offensive Player of the Week (Week 11) — Hearst averaged 8.8 yards per rush on 12 carries for 106 yards and two touchdowns against Indianapolis. It was his first rushing touchdown since 12-14-98 vs. Detroit and his first multi-touchdown day since 9-6-98 vs. the N.Y. Jets.

Andre Carter — Defensive Player of the Week (Week 17) — Carter finished out the regular season with a bang at New Orleans. Carter helped the defense record its third shutout of the season, a TEAM RECORD, by recording two sacks for 22 yards, six solo tackles and forcing one fumble. Carter and the defense also held the Saints to 126 total yards of offense — 40 rushing and 86 passing.

Andre Carter — Rookie of the Month (December) — Carter, a first-round draft choice from California, had 17 tackles, six for losses, including 4.5 sacks, and one forced fumble in helping the 49ers to a 4-2 record and a TEAM RECORD three shutouts. The defense allowed just three points in three December home games.

ALL-MADDEN

Ray Brown — Selected for the first time in his 16-year career.
Jeff Garcia — Earned his second consecutive selection.
Garrison Hearst — Selected for the second time with the 49ers.
Ahmed Plummer — Second-year player earned first career honor.

HALFTIME ADJUSTMENT

After posting an 0-6 mark when trailing at the half in 2000, the 49ers proved to be much more effective coming from behind in 2001. San Francisco trailed at the half in five games during the 2001 season and rebounded to post a 4-1 record in those games.

* NFL Record

BREAKING THE PLANE

With a career-high three touchdown receptions at Atlanta (10-14-01), Terrell Owens reached 50 scores for his career. After catching one touchdown against the Bills (12-2-01), the six-year veteran is fifth on the team's all-time touchdown list with 58. It took Owens 81 games to reach the 50-touchdown plateau, which is the second fastest in team history. Jerry Rice scored his 50th in 61 games. Roger Craig and Ken Willard each made it in 85 games.

The 49ers defensive unit constantly improved throughout the 2001 season. The young group set a team record with three shutouts during the campaign, including back-to-back home shutouts in December, a first in team history.

TO THE POINT

Since 2000, Jeff Garcia has produced or helped produce 72 touchdowns with his feet or with his arm. That adds up to 432 points in the last 33 games. Breaking it down even further, Garcia has been responsible for an average of 2.25 touchdowns per game over that span.

GROUND GAME

The 49ers have been difficult to beat in the postseason when they get their running game going. San Francisco is 22-4 when rushing for more than 100 yards and 8-0 when going over the 150-yard mark in the postseason. The 49ers are 19-2 when carrying the ball 30 times-or-more during the playoffs.

49ERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

'57 Detroit Lions 31, 49ers 27
NFL Divisional Playoff
December 22 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco made its first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but came up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium.

QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18-of-31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34-yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game-high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

'70 Dallas Cowboys 17, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 3 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie passed for 262 yards and one touchdown, but it wasn't enough as the Cowboys advanced to Super Bowl V with a 17-10 win over the 49ers at Kezar Stadium.

RB Duane Thomas rushed for 143 yards and scored on a 13-yard run in the third quarter to put Dallas ahead 10-3. Later in the quarter QB Craig Morton connected with RB Walt Garrison on a five-yard toss to put the Cowboys up 17-3.

San Francisco would add its final score on its next possession with a 26-yard Brodie-to-WR Dick Witcher touchdown, capping an eight-play, 73-yard drive.

'71 49ers 24, Washington Redskins 20
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 26 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10-of-19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24-20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park.

Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78-yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10-10. On the next 49ers possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two-yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17-10 lead.

The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

December 23 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30-28 come-from-behind win over the 49ers.

Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20-yard touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner.

The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns.

LB Ed Beard led the Niners defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

'81 49ers 38, New York Giants 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted its first postseason win since 1971 with a 38-24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants.

Aiding the 49ers cause was CB Ronnie Lott who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles.

Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana who completed 20-of-31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight-yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58-yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

'81 — 49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27
January 10 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting ending for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28-27.

QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock.

Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark had one of his finest days, posting eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

CB Carlton Williamson led the defensive charge with 12 tackles. LB Jack Reynolds added nine stops and DT Archie Reese added six.

'81 — 49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21
Super Bowl XVI
January 24 at Silverdome (Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20-0 lead at the half and held on for a 26-21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship.

Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards.

Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards.

The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengal attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach.

LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

NFC Divisional Playoff
December 31 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

WR Freddie Solomon caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from QB Joe Montana with two minutes remaining in the game to give San Francisco a 24-23 win over the visiting Detroit Lions and earn a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

San Francisco's defense kept the team alive on several ocassions, intercepting Detroit QB Gary Danielson five times. LB Riki Ellison had two interceptions while LB Keena Turner, S Dwight Hicks and CB Ronnie Lott had one apiece.

RB Wendell Tyler and RB Roger Craig each scored a touchdown for San Francisco. Tyler rushed for 74 yards on 17 carries and also caught two passes for 15 yards. Craig led the Niners in receiving with seven receptions for 61 yards.

'83 Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21
NFC Championship
January 8 at RFK Stadium (Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24-21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium.

The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21-0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21-14.

The Redskins went three-and-out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season.

Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and linebackers Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

'84 49ers 21, New York Giants 10
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 29 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship with a 21-10 win over the New York Giants.

San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark, on a 21-yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12-yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine-yard strike to extend the lead to 14-0.

New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29-yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21-10.

DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49ers defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

NFC Championship
January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco advanced to Super Bowl XIX with a 23-0 win over the visiting Chicago Bears. The story of the day was the 49ers defense that recorded nine sacks and held the Bears to 186 yards of total offense.

Leading the charge for the defense were DE Gary Johnson and DT Michael Carter. Neither Johnson nor Carter were starters in the game, yet they led the squad with two sacks and six tackles each. LB Riki Ellison recorded a team-high eight tackles.

Offensively, San Francisco was led by QB Joe Montana and RB Wendell Tyler. Montana threw for 233 yards and one touchdown, a 10-yard toss to WR Freddie Solomon in the fourth quarter. Tyler had 68 yards on 10 carries and scored on a nine-yard jaunt early in the third quarter.

'84 49ers 38, Miami Dolphins 16
Super Bowl XIX
January 20 at Stanford Stadium (Palo Alto, CA)

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38-16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts Montana was named as the Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans.

Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33-yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight-yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second quarter. On the next 49ers possession, Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six-yard run.

His fourth and final score of the day came on a 16-yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and adding two scores.

San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards.

S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

'87 Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36-24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears.

Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times.

San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12-of-17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 72 yards on six carries and had a five-yard touchdown run.

S Jeff Fuller established a new 49ers postseason record when he returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. LB Mike Walter posted nine tackles and S Ronnie Lott added eight.

'88 49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 1 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34-9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick.

Rice set a record with three touchdown receptions that he shares with five other players. He scored on receptions of two, four and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards.

Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74-yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns.

The 49ers defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defensed. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

'88 49ers 28, Chicago Bears 3
NFC Championship
January 8 at Soldier Field (Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26 below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28-3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61-yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27-yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14-3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21-3.

FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four-yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards.

The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game-high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass.

Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Montana completed 17-of-27 passes for 288 yards.

Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last.

The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie.

The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown.

An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight-yard line. What happened next is legendary.

Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41-13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park.

The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early.

Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven-yard gain into a 72-yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the rout was on.

Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17-of-24 passes for 241 yards.

The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

'89 49ers 30, Los Angeles Rams 3
NFC Championship
January 14 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

The 49ers defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned its fourth trip to the Super Bowl that decade with a 30-3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship.

San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49ers offense, completing 26-of-30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20-yard strike to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead.

CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27-yard line. A five-play drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig.

It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor.

K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half.

Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

'89 49ers 55, Denver Broncos 10
Super Bowl XXIV
January 28 at Louisiana Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA.

Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards.

The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22-of-29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49ers offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards.

The 49ers defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22-of-31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship with a 28-10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins.

The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10-7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters.

Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to complete a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21-10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard.

It was the 49ers defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown.

CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

NFC Championship
January 20 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15-13.

In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6-6 tie.

San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13-6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr.

Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13-12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired.

Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

'92 49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20-13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park.

Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16-yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17-3 lead at halftime.

The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49ers lead to 17-13. The locals responded with a 14-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining.

The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on its final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs.

DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niners defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team-high six stops in the victory.

'92 Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 20
January 17 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24-of-34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30-20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park.

Dallas opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one-yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7-3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10-7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer.

FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three-yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17-10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16-yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24-13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93-yard drive resulting in a five-yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboy lead to 24-20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70-yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six-yard touchdown to secure the win.

Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25-of-35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown.

January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

It was a wattered down 49ers attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single-game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44-3 win over the visting New York Giants.

Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team-high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17-of-22 passes for 226 yards in the victory.

The 49ers defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, with only 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team-high five tackles.

The game was marked by several milestone events:

- Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken).
- 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game.
- Watters sets NFL single-game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

'93 Dallas Cowboys 38, 49ers 21
January 23 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7-7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter, and that proved to be the difference in their 38-21 win over the visiting 49ers.

The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmit Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven-yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21-point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead.

San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with a four-yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42-yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50-yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Young, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27-of-45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 38 yards. Watters added 37 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown.

LB Michael Walter led the 49ers defense with eight tackles. He was joined by S Merton Hanks and DT Dennis Brown who had seven stops each.

January 7 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game.

The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away.

San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears' next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play.

The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters.

LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single-game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

'94 49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28
January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into a touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38-28 NFC Championship win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park-record 69,143 (since broken).

On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin, and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21-0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter.

Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21-7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63-yard drive with a four-yard run that narrowed the gap to 24-24. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28-yard score, giving the 49ers a 21-14 lead heading into the locker room.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13-of-29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

'94 — 49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26

Super Bowl XXIX

January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego.

San Francisco wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers' end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike.

Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play.

The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10.

The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

'95 Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27-17 at 3Com Park.

A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one-year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11-6.

Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining.

The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was nine-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game.

Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40-yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions.

Defensively, T Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game.

Led by its marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship game, the 49ers advanced to the Divisional Playoff round.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt.

Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the end-zone by Niners' interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five-yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage.

The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage.

Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing.

The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

'96 Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of nine) and driving rain.

It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0.

San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game.

Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Elvis completed 19-of-36 for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 yards receiving.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park.

In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown.

San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings' 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. Then the game-breaker occurred two plays later. After the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket, he threw over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone.

In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-yard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Then Young hit WR Terrell Owens, with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender, then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run.

CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park.

The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed three-of-four passes for 37 yards in the series.

Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0.

San Francisco then broke the drought on a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson.

Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later Favre hit Freeman for a 40-yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3.

After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five-yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3.

San Francisco closed out the game scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972.

Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

'98 49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27.

The 49ers forced three Green Bay turnovers and racked up 178 yards rushing, including 128 yards on 22 carries by RB Garrison Hearst, but still needed last-second heroics to defeat their rival and nemesis.

On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens, and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one-yard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead.

Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. The score capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out. The extra point by Longwell was good and Green Bay took a 17-10 halftime lead.

The third quarter opened with another big play from the 49ers defense. With Green Bay driving at its own 41-yard line, DE Charles Haley pressured Favre into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall and returned 17 yards to the Packers 33-yard line. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight-yards out for the score.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team-postseason record and career-long 48-yard field goal from Richey. The kick capped an 11-play, 48-yard drive that took 5:33 off the clock.

In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48-yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game.

The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. From there Young would lead the team on a drive for the ages. Young opened the drive with completions of 17 and nine yards to WR J.J. Stokes. His third straight completion was for three yards to FB Marc Edwards, who broke three tackles to pick up a first down. After using the first timeout, Young threw incomplete to Stokes and then had a six-yard completion to WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers second timeout was followed by a nine-yard completion to RB Terry Kirby who ran out of bounds at the Green Bay 32-yard line. A seven-yard completion to RB Garrison Hearst was followed by the 49ers final timeout with 14 seconds remaining on the clock. After the timeout, Young passed incomplete to Stokes and eight seconds remained on the clock. On the next play Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

CB Marquez Pope and Woodall paced the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Woodall also recorded an interception and had two passes defensed. DT Brentson Buckner added six tackles, while LB Ken Norton Jr. and DT Junior Bryant recorded five stops each. CB Darnell Walker added an interception.

'98 Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading running game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground.

Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82-yard drive.

San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 19th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards, to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining.

San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left.

After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four-yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired.

After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

'01 Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25-15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card game at Lambeau Field.

With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6-0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco picked up two first downs as they moved the ball down to the Green Bay 16-yard line, where the drive stalled. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6-0 early in the second quarter. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went six-of-nine for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst carried the ball three times for 13 yards, including a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7-6 halftime lead.

On their first possession of the second half, the Packers took over on their own 20-yard line. They moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9-7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15-7.

The 49ers picked up one first down on their next drive before punting for the fifth time of the game. The Packers were forced into a three-and-out and San Francisco took over at its own 39-yard line. The 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18-15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25-15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25-15 victory.

PRODUCTIVE AND POTENT

The 49ers defense was so productive during the second half of the 2001 season it was down right offensive. The 49ers defense registered 23 takeaways during the final eight games and posted a +15 takeaway-giveaway margin during that stretch. Over the final eight games, the 49ers averaged 10.4 points per game off of turnovers. They scored 83 of their 122 points off of turnovers during the second half of the season. San Francisco scored 39 points off of takeaways in the first half.

49ERS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS
(NFL 1949-01)

Following are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1949 - December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950 - The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 - In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952 - After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953 - The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9-3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 - The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4-0-1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955 - With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second-worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956 - In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid-season with a 1-6 record. They went 4-0-1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 - This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a "cliffhanger" and the "Alley Oop" pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, after holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 - An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 - With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 - Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his "shotgun attack" and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30-22 upset of Baltimore.

1961 - The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially a 49-0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the "T" formation and had the finest season in 49er QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 - For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 - A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1965 - Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran

HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7-6-1 record included a season-opening 52-24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 - After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 - An auspicious start (5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968 - Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 - Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4-8-2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970 - This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10-3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. In a season of superlatives, QB John Brodie was the NFL'S PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC COACH-OF-THE-YEAR. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971 - The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972 - Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on 49ers prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20-17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973 - In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974 - The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6-8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 - A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first-ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976 - A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 - In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5-9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978 - The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979 - The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 - In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at .645 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 - It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16-3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC COACH-OF-THE-YEAR award and all seven NFL COACH-OF-THE-YEAR honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All-Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, NFL OUTSTANDING DEFENSIVE LINEMAN-OF-THE-YEAR (NFL Players Association) and NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15-12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 - As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 - For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13),

CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 - The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners' secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985 - At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986 - The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981.

Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 take-aways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 - The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed.

WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide-out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 - The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27).

WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989 - George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia.

Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions.

Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award.

Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest.

The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win.

The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990 - The Niners finished the season with an NFL-best 14-2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15-13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl.

In addition to recording the NFL's best won-loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983-84, 1986-90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91.

QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 SPORTSMAN-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference.

On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14.

The defensive side of the ball was led by LB-DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops.

A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506.

The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship game.

After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process.

WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches.

Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions.

QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories.

On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3).

LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history.

San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy

McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play in the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992 - The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14-2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons.

In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20-13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30-20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11-29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12-6).

QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year.

RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56-17, 10-18).

San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993 - The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10-6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game.

In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records.

The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a club-record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single-season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and then set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five TD outburst vs. the New York Giants.

WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by the Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles.

Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994 - The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL-record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16-3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd.

Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries.

Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park.

The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl.

Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers' offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127.

Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for TDs (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995 - San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October 29 New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury.

Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3).

San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for TDs at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players.

Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular-season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate.

One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami.

Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996 - One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12-4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense.

Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first-team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season.

As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997 - Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season.

Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the off-season. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49er running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by the Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

1998 - Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also was a team-record and a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl Selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999 - San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover.

Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for quarterbacks Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards.

San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per rush average of 5.0.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000 - San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances.

A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6-10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl - QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens.

Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S MOST IMPROVED PLAYER.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 recpetions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams.

The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

2001 - The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12-4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all-star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in defense in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316-of-504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third-year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career-high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000-yard rusher, which set a new Team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-MONTH. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career-highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career-high and team record 97-yard return at Chicago.

The 49ers offensive line is a key to the team's offensive success. The line helped produce a 1,000-yard rusher for a team record fifth consecutive season in 2001.

POSSESSION IS POWER

Taking care of the ball was a premium in the NFL during 2001 and the 49ers were prime examples of that. San Francisco was 8-2 when winning the takeaway-giveaway battle, and were an even more impressive 4-0 in games when committing no turnovers.

49ERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Leo Nomellini

1969-DT Leo Nomellini (1950-63). Was the first-ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, including 10 trips to the Pro Bowl, and played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All-NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19,1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969-FB Joe Perry (1948-60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961-62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, AR.

Hugh McElhenny

1970-HB Hugh McElhenny (1952-60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42-yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952, McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touchdowns in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), New York Giants (1963) and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Y. A. Tittle

1971-QB Y.A. Tittle (1951-60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valuable Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career-high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948-50) and the New York Giants (1961-64). Played college ball at Lousiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, TX.

Bob St. Clair

1987-FB John Henry Johnson (1954-56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Backfield" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, including 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957-59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960-65) and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

1990-T Bob St. Clair (1953-63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal-line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when blocking a punt. Earned All-NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appearances. Attended University of San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

Bill Walsh

Jimmy Johnson

1994-CB Jimmy Johnson (1961-76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five INTs his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962, he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

Joe Montana

Ronnie Lott

Dave Wilcox

2000-QB Joe Montana (1979-94). Solidified his place in professional sports annals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all time with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman-of-the-Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.3 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, PA.

2000-DB Ronnie Lott (1981-94). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Championships. Earned All-Pro honors at three different positions: cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks fifth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All-time team, 1980's All-Decade team and Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, NM.

2000-LB Dave Wilcox (1964-74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard-nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, OR.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980-99), the San Francisco 49ers established itself as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20-year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

OH LINE

The 49ers offensive line deserves a little credit for some of the numbers the team has compiled over the last couple of seasons.

- The 49ers are second in the NFL with 8,693 yards rushing yards since 1998
- The 49ers rank fourth in the NFL with 11,750 total yards over the last two seasons
- The 49ers have allowed 52 sacks over the last two seasons, the fourth fewest in the NFL
- The 49ers rank fourth in the NFL with 662 first downs since 2000

OVERTIME GAMES

Oct. 31, 1976 - St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14-13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on its previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20-14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown pass for the 20-20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt. Tony Leonard fumbled the kick at the 43-yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched down-field to set up Jim Bakken for the 21-yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23-20 victory.

Dec. 5, 1976 - San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

In a battle of Northern and Southern California, the San Francisco 49ers and San Diego Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued in the second half and remained 0-0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7-6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike-Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line, and Fouts promptly guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13-7 win.

Nov. 13, 1977 - San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first-ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime, but a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the touchdown. The 49ers tied the score in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team could score at the end of the third quarter or in the fourth, and the game went in to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss but were unable to move the ball and were forced to give the ball back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from their own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints' 16-yard line where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

Sept. 14, 1980 - San Francisco 24, St. Louis 21

San Francisco struck first on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Paul Hofer in the second quarter. Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart quickly answered back with a 13-yard touchdown strike to Theotis Brown. The Cardinals pushed the lead to 14-7 with a Doug Marsh five-yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers tied the game at 14, St. Louis drove 75 yards in eight plays to take a 21-14 lead. With 1:51 left in regulation, the 49ers drove 80 yards and scored on a 26-yard touchdown run by Hofer, his second of the day. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line, where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal for the 24-21 win.

Dec. 7, 1980 - San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35-7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88-yard, nine-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven-yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss and failed to pick up a first down on its first possession. San Francisco took the ball on its own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the 36-yard winning field goal by Ray Wersching.

Oct. 12, 1986 - Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45-yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter, the Vikings' Issiac Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14-7 lead. San Francisco took a 17-14 lead into halftime after a 39-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson in the third quarter to cut the 49ers lead to 24-17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and elected to receive. They promptly went on a 58-yard drive and Nelson hit a 28-yard field goal for the 27-24 win.

Oct. 19, 1986 - Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7-0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10-3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime and could not produce a score, and the game ended in a 10-10 tie.

October 9, 1988 - Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter-conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10-3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes left in the quarter, cutting the 49ers lead to 10-6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13-6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 13 with 6:23 remaining. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession of overtime, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

Dec. 9, 1990 - San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the third. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one-yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they did not receive the ball back until there was 4:11 remaining in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer for the 23-yard game winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

Jan. 3, 1994 - Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. On their second possession, Young led the 49ers on a seven-play, 46-yard drive capped by a Mike Cofer 30-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. The Eagles quickly got the ball back on a punt after a three-and-out series by the 49ers. Brister guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at the half. San Francisco started the second half strong, beginning with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38 yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards in just over four minutes and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive; they failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove down to San Francisco's 20-yard line, and with four seconds showing on the clock, set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

Oct. 14, 1996 - Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on another Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. Green Bay received the ball on its own 44 and drove 21 yards to set up Jacke for a 53-yard field goal for the 23-20 victory.

Nov. 10, 1996 - Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. In 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game-winning 29-yard field goal for the 20-17 victory.

Nov. 24 1996 - San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19 and 48 yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41 yards out to give Washington a 9-6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44-yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78 yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one-yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19-16 win.

Sept. 6 1998 - San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast-paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17-14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six-yards out for the score with 32 seconds left in the second quarter. On its first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22-yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21-yard touchdown and a 24-17 lead. With just over three minutes left in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14-yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked, and the score remained 24-23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended its lead to 27-23 after a John Hall 32-yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76-yard, five-play drive that was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30-27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove the ball down to the 49ers 13-yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three-and-out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to midfield on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four-yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of its second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96-yard, game-winning touchdown run and the 36-30 victory.

Dec. 6, 1998 - San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended its winning streak to four games with an exciting high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, covering 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays, and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third play, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. The 49ers picked up 25 yards on the possession and drove down to the Panthers five, where Wade Richey hit a 23-yard field goal for the 31-28 victory.

Dec. 26, 1999 - Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of its own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins to within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard out to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute remaining, driving down to the Redskins 22-yard line, before a fumble, which Washington recovered, to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. On first down, Brad Johnson hit Larry Centers for a 33-yard touchdown pass and the 26-20 win.

Oct. 8, 2000 - Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, and on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took over possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss, and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and put a drive of their own together, all the way down to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but it was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

Sept. 9, 2001 - San Francisco 16, Atlanta 13

The 49ers began the 2001 regular season in an exciting fashion, defeating the visiting Atlanta Falcons 16-13 in overtime. The 49ers trailed by seven points at halftime and began the fourth quarter with a 10-point deficit. A J.J. Stokes touchdown reception narrowed the gap before Jose Cortez's field goal attempt tied the game at 13 with 11 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. On the drive, the 49ers faced a third-and-five when Jeff Garcia rifled a pass to Tai Streets, who raced 53 yards to the Falcons 23-yard line. Three plays later, Cortez nailed a 24-yard field goal to lift the 49ers to victory.

Oct. 14, 2001 - San Francisco 37, Atlanta 31

The 49ers had their second overtime game of the 2001 season against the Falcons, sweeping Atlanta in the season series by winning 37-31 in overtime. The 49ers rallied back from deficits of 20-7 at the half and 31-17 in the fourth quarter. The Falcons went up 14-0 early in the game. The 49ers put their first points of the game on the board in the second quarter when Jeff Garcia capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run. The Falcons answered back with two field goals and went up 20-7 at halftime. San Francisco came back in the second half due to the hands of Terrell Owens. Owens, who did not catch a pass in the first half, roared back to catch nine passes for 183 yards and a CAREER-HIGH three touchdowns. The 49ers scored 10 unanswered points in the third quarter, but then Atlanta answered back in the fourth quarter. After a 49ers touchdown, at the hands of Kevan Barlow, and a touchdown by the Falcons, the 49ers were down 31-24 with just 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia calmly led the team on a 10-play, 72-yard drive when he hooked up with Owens from 17-yards out for his second touchdown of the day. The extra point was good and the game was tied at 31 with just 21 seconds remaining. The 49ers won the toss and drove down to the Falcons 14-yard line. On the sixth play of the drive, there was a mishandled snap between Garcia and Dave Fiore, who was filling in at center for an injured Jeremy Newberry. The Falcons recovered the fumble and their offense took over. The 49ers defense forced Atlanta into a three-and-out possession. After a punt, San Francisco began its second overtime drive from its own 33-yard line. After picking up one first down, Garcia faced third-and-five when he connected with Owens, who raced 52 yards up the sideline for his third touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

Oct. 28, 2001 - Chicago 37, San Francisco 31

The 49ers had their second consecutive overtime game and their third of the 2001 season as they dropped a 37-31 decision to the Chicago Bears. San Francisco went up early in the first quarter after Bryant Young forced a fumble and Julian Peterson picked it up and returned it 26 yards for the touchdown. The 49ers struck again when Jeff Garcia hooked up with Justin Swift for a one-yard touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Bears answered back with a safety and a touchdown, making the score 14-9 at the half. In the third quarter the 49ers struck first when Garrison Hearst scored his first touchdown since 12-14-98 on a 60-yard bomb from Garcia. The Bears offense then took over and drove down to the 49ers 10-yard line where Zack Bronson intercepted a Shane Mathews pass and returned it a TEAM RECORD and CAREER-HIGH 97 yards for the touchdown. After a Chicago touchdown and a 49ers field goal, the score was 31-16 early in the fourth quarter. The Bears then racked up 15 unanswered points on two touchdown drives to tie the game at 31 and send it into overtime. The 49ers won the coin toss and the offense took over. On the first play from scrimmage, Garcia was intercepted by Mike Brown, who raced 33 yards for the touchdown and the 37-31 victory for Chicago.

Nov. 18, 2001 - San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In its fourth ovetime game of the season, which set a new TEAM RECORD, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25-22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle that saw each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass and the two-point conversion failed and the Panthers held a slim 19-14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was again intercepted, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22-14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22-20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, including a crucial fourth down conversion, and Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. Jose Cortez came on for the game-winning field goal from 26 yards out and split the uprights to give the 49ers the 25-22 overtime victory.

Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).

Axilla - The armpit.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for blending the elbow.

Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.

Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Ecchymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle, which upon contraction, results in straightening a joint.

External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, encomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Heat Cramps - Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs causes by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide facial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma ad a cause of a lesion.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebrael fixation or immobility.

Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle of a tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

ACCRUED SEASON
A player receives one accrued season when he is on full pay status for a total of six or more regular season games. This does not include players placed on the Exempt Commissioner Permission list, the Reserve PUP list as a result of a non-football injury, or the practice squad.

RESTRICTED FREE AGENT
Any veteran player with less than four accrued seasons in a capped year is considered a restricted free agent at the expiration of his player contract. Any such player is free to negotiate and sign with any team, but is restricted under the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. In order to receive right of first refusal and/or draft choice compensation the prior club must tender the player a qualifying offer on or before the first date of the restricted free agent signing period.

UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT
Any player with four or more accrued seasons in a capped year becomes an unrestricted free agent at the expiration of his player contract. Any such player is completely free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any team.

EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS FREE AGENT
Any player with less than three accrued seasons in a capped year whose contract has expired may negotiate or sign a player contract only with his prior club, if his prior club tenders the player at least a one-year contract at or above the minimum salary applicable to that player. If the prior club does not make or withdraws the required tender by that date, the player is free to negotiate and sign a contract with any club.

FRANCHISE PLAYER
Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a franchise player. The designation restricts the player from negotiating or signing a contract with another club. The designation will remain with that player for the duration of the contract signed. It may be removed by the club at the conclusion of the contract. Franchise players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL player contract for the average of the five largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120 percent of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

TRANSITION PLAYER
Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a transition player. The player is free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any club, but the designation gives the prior club right of first refusal on any contract the player signs. Transition players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL player contract for the average of the 10 largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120 percent of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

OFFER SHEET
When a restricted free agent receives and agrees to an offer to sign a player contract from another NFL club, the player must submit a certificate which contains the principal terms of the contract (offer sheet) to the prior team. The prior club has seven days from the time it receives the offer sheet to exercise or not exercise its right of first refusal.

PHYSICALLY UNABLE TO PERFORM (PUP)
Players placed on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform may attend team meetings, but are ineligible for all games and all practice sessions. Players on the PUP list are allowed to begin practicing with the team after the conclusion of the sixth regular season weekend and continuing after the conclusion of the ninth regular season weekend. The practice period is not to exceed 21 days. Any time during that 21-day period, teams are allowed to restore the player to the Reserve/PUP list or to the active roster.

MINI CAMPS

Each team is allowed to hold one mandatory mini camp for veteran players. If a team hires a new head coach it is allowed to hold two additional voluntary mini camps for veteran players. There is no limitation on the number of mini camps a club may hold for rookie players. Each mini camp can be three days in length and no pads, excluding helmets, are allowed.

TRAINING CAMP

No veteran player, other than quarterbacks and injured players, will be required to report to a team's official training camp earlier than 15 days prior to the first scheduled preseason game or July 15, whichever is later. The July 15 date does not apply to teams participating in the Hall of Fame Game or any American Bowl game.

ACTIVE LIST

Each club is allowed to carry no more than 53 players on its active roster during the season. For each regular season game, the active list limit is 45 players per team. If a team carries the full squad limit of 53 players, it has to place eight players on the inactive list prior to each game.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Each team is allowed to establish a practice squad of no more than five players on the Monday after the final roster cutdown. Players who have served more than one season on the practice squad or have one accrued season of free agent credit are not eligible for the practice squad. A player who gained his one season of accrued free agent credit while being on the Reserve/Injured or Reserve/PUP list for an entire season is eligible for the practice squad.

WR J.J. Stokes finished second on the team in 2001 with 54 receptions for 585 yards and seven touchdowns.

MEDIA SERVICES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for 49ers players, coaches or members of the administration should be made through the 49ers public relations department. Head coach Steve Mariucci will hold his weekly press luncheon during the season, Monday at noon. He will be available to the media after practice Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and following each game throughout the season. The locker room will be open for player interviews Wednesday and Thursday from 12:30-1:00, and after practice Monday, Friday and Saturday.

Credential Requests: All home game credential requests must be submitted in writing on letterhead to Kirk Reynolds or Cindy Krawczyk no later than Tuesday before the requested game. Media members applying for credentials must call the 49ers public relations department beginning Thursday after 10 a.m. to verify approval. Credentials will be left at Press Will Call Gate B on game day, unless other arrangements are made. Two forms of identification will be required to pick up credentials.

Practice Policy: 49ers practices are open to local media only. Visiting and national media will not be permitted to attend practice. Photographers will be allowed to shoot up to and including stretching exercises.

TRAINING CAMP

The University of the Pacific became the seventh summer training camp home for the San Francisco 49ers in 1998. Located on 175 acres next to the Calaveras River in Stockton, CA, the campus provides players and coaches all the necessary elements to prepare for the upcoming season.

Location: University of the Pacific
3601 Pacific Avenue
Stockton, CA 95211

Camp Dates: July 21 through August 15

Reporting Dates: Entire team reports July 21.

Camp Facts: The San Francisco 49ers will open training camp when the entire team reports to Stockton, CA Sunday, July 21, 2002. The 49ers spent 17 years (1981-97) at Sierra College in Rocklin, CA before making the move to the University of the Pacific in 1998. The 17-year Rocklin stint tops the 13-year stay (1955-67) at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA as the longest training camp visit in team history. San Francisco has trained at Menlo College (1946-54), UC Santa Barbara (1968-75), San Jose State (1976-78) and Santa Clara (1979-80).

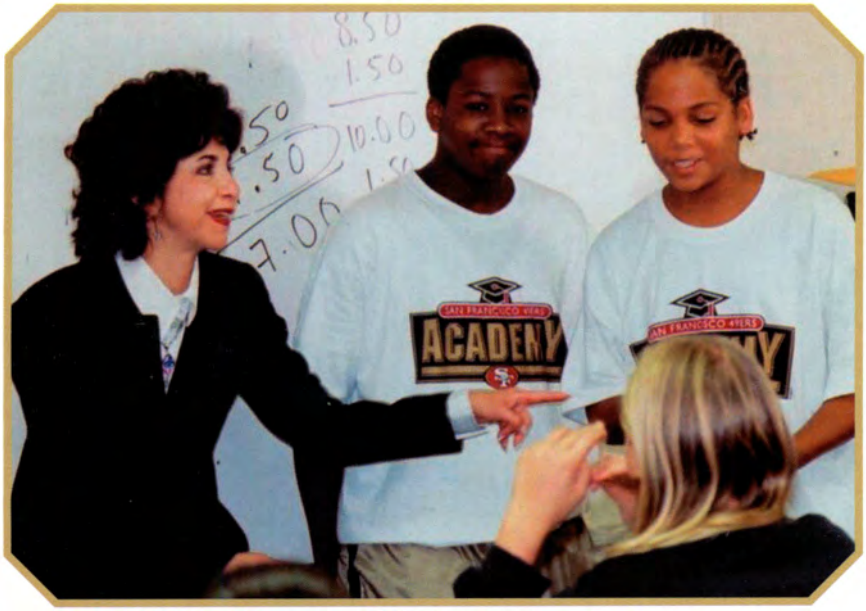

UOP Facts: Founded in 1851 as the first chartered university in California, the University of the Pacific is comprised of 11 schools and colleges on three campuses. Two specialty schools, UOP's School of Dentistry in San Francisco and the McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento, complement the main campus in Stockton. Pacific provides its 6,000 students 80 major fields to choose from and an average class size of under 30. The main campus features the central liberal arts division, schools of music, engineering, education, pharmacy, business and public administration, international studies, a graduate school and University College, which is designed specifically for adult re-entry students.

Stockton Facts: The Stockton metropolitan area has a population of over 230,000. It is surrounded by over 1,000 miles of waterways, making it the largest inland seaport in California.
