Denise DeBartolo York
OWNER/CHAIRMAN

With more than 25 years experience in the field of sports management and real estate development and operations, Denise DeBartolo York has received accolades as one of the most successful business women in the United States as well as being inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame.

DeBartolo York serves as chairman of The DeBartolo Corporation and oversees the Corporation's portfolio, including the five-time world champion San Francisco 49ers.

DeBartolo York, who previously served as Executive Vice President of Personnel and Corporate Marketing/Communications for The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (EJDC), was instrumental in the development of the corporation's employee programs and communications tools. Based on her accomplishments, she was elevated to the position of Vice Chairman in April 1994. After the death of her father, Edward J. DeBartolo in December 1994, DeBartolo York was named Chairman. In February 2001, the assets of her father's estate, including EJDC, were equally distributed between Denise and her brother, Edward Jr., with Denise retaining ownership of the San Francisco 49ers, among other resources and properties.

When the Corporation owned the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League (1981-91), Denise was one of only a few female executives in the league. She was team President when the Penguins won their first Stanley Cup title in 1991. During three seasons as Pittsburgh's President, DeBartolo York helped the Penguins post a 113-106-21 record and qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs twice. She also was instrumental in securing Pittsburgh's first ever NHL All-Star game, January 21, 1990. Denise and her father have been widely recognized as the individuals who saved hockey in the tri-state area by establishing a championship caliber organization and drafting star players like Mario Lemieux (1984) and Jaromir Jagr (1990).

In April 2003, DeBartolo York was inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame, joining a class that included former NBA coach Mike Fratello, Heisman Trophy winner Gino Torreta, former Brooklyn Dodgers pitcher Ralph Branca and former baseball manager Bobby Valentine, among others.

In addition to her business responsibilities, DeBartolo York gives generously of her resources and time to numerous charitable and community organizations, including the recent contribution of $500,000 to the women's athletic programs at Youngstown State University and the development of the DeBartolo Stadium Club, also at YSU. Just this year, she made a significant contribution of $1 million to St. Mary's College for building construction and renovations. As a member of Ursuline Sisters Financial Advisory Board, DeBartolo York assisted them in developing and implementing a massive fundraising drive in 1991 for the construction of a new preschool, kindergarten and adult education center. In 2001, Denise once again took the lead in a second fundraising effort for assembly of an additional school building for inner-city children, by providing leadership and several million dollars of financial assistance.

Along with her husband, John York, and the San Francisco 49ers, DeBartolo York was of paramount importance with the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project in San Francisco, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for citizens of all ages in the Bay Area. She also has given substantial support to many youth organizations in San Francisco. She is a regular contributor, both financially and with support, to numerous agencies in the Bayview Hunter's Point area, including the Bayview YMCA, Charles Drew Elementary School and the Bayview Boys and Girls Club.

She supports the Marie Denise DeBartolo York and the Denise & John York Foundations' intent to utilize grant funds to provide help for the poor, the underprivileged and the needs of children. Additionally, she is committed to the efforts of the 49ers Foundation, helping hundreds of organizations and awarding well over $2 million of financial support to Bay Area agencies over the last three years.

In September 2002, she presented a check for $100,000 behalf of LISC (Bay Area Local Initiatives Support Corporation) and NFL Grassroots for the creation of a new football field and facility in Crocker-Amazon Park located in South San Francisco.

Continuing her father's tradition of a strong belief in education, Denise has awarded over $275,000 in scholarships to high school seniors in the Mahoning Valley (OH) through the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which was established upon his death in 1994. Additionally, she is the campaign chairman and major donor for the Youngstown Diocese Catholic Education scholarship league, and chairman of "Operation Education," a fundraising effort by Youngstown's Catholic High Schools. Through her generosity and commitment, she was financially responsible for the Chapel at Cardinal Mooney (OH) High School, among other structures and renovations.

In 1991, she served as the chairperson for MADD's (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) Project Red Ribbon Campaign and is currently involved with the efforts of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. She was recognized for the contribution of three additional classrooms and library to St. Charles Elementary School in Boardman, OH. As a major contributor, she is responsible, among other projects, for the new concourse at Fellows Riverside Gardens in Mill Creek Park, located in Youngstown. In keeping with her tradition of commitment and kindness to children, she has made generous donations to Tod Children's Hospital in Youngstown, and her concern with patients and families of the terminally ill, she continues to be a major supporter of Hospice.

DeBartolo York began her career with The DeBartolo Corporation after graduating from St. Mary's College at Notre Dame. She and her husband, John York, are the parents of two sons and twin daughters.

DID YOU KNOW...

Denise is naturally left handed but writes with her right hand. When she was in elementary school the nuns would not allow her to write with her left hand, insisting that she learn to write right-handed. They even resorted to hitting her with the ruler if they caught her writing with her left hand.

John York
OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN

As Owner of the San Francisco 49ers, John York has been instrumental in guiding the organization through one of the most difficult transitions in team history, rebuilding the 49ers and putting a senior management team in place to run the operations of the franchise on a day-to-day basis.

York's drive to succeed is immeasurable. Since stepping into a leadership role with the 49ers, York has had to handle a variety of issues to clearly define the vision and direction of the organization. For example, simply look at how the 49ers rebounded from the crisis that struck the organization in 1999, the first year the Yorks owned the team. By putting together a highly successful senior management team, led by Bill Walsh, John McVay and Terry Donahue, the 49ers went from a 4-12 team with very little hope to a 12-4 Super Bowl contender in just two seasons. Despite taking over a franchise that most media pundits predicted would be a cellar dweller for at least five years, the 49ers are 39-31 under York's leadership.

Aside from his duties with the 49ers, York doubles as the President of the DeBartolo Corporation, where he oversees the day-to-day operations of the corporation's portfolio. A member of the Board of Directors, York is essential in steering the DeBartolo Corporation's other business responsibilities while maintaining interests in several other ventures, including an investment firm based in Youngstown, OH, and a software systems organization in Nashville, TN.

York, a successful entrepreneur with a multi-faceted business background, has a proven record for developing turnkey operations. In 1982, he founded DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH. From three employees, York molded a 500-person operation with facilities in three states. With revenues between $25 and $30 million annually, his business was considered among the largest in the Midwest. DeYor Laboratories was sold to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

Bringing this expertise to the DeBartolo Corporation, York assumed the position of Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations in December 1994. York successfully instituted programs designed to streamline operations and enhance the overall value of the racing portfolio. He developed the inaugural DeBartolo Racing Challenge in 1997, tying together the Derbies at Thistledown, Remington Park and Louisiana Downs for three-year olds. Thistledown in Cleveland, OH, and Remington Park in Oklahoma City, OK, were sold to Magna International, Inc., in 1999. In 1996, while operating Louisiana Downs, York, along with three other Louisiana race tracks and the Louisiana Horsemen, helped develop legislation to provide slot machines at race tracks. The legislation was passed in 2000. During the process, Harrah's Entertainment made a significant offer to purchase Louisiana Downs. The deal was consummated in the last quarter of 2002.

In addition to his business acumen, York is noted for his generous support of youth activities and education. Through contributions of time and resources, he has actively participated in many worthwhile community organizations. In 2002, the Yorks made a $500,000 contribution to the Youngstown State University women's athletic programs. He serves on the Science Advisory Council at the University of Notre Dame and also was selected to be a member of Youngstown State University's Search Committee for a new athletic director.

York has been extremely active throughout the Bay Area community. He, along with his wife, Denise, and the San Francisco 49ers, was instrumental with the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for San Franciscans of all ages. Also in San Francisco, he is a member of the Board of Directors for the Committee On Jobs, a coalition of the city's largest private employers who work together to promote good public policy.

York has been particularly active with the 49ers Foundation and the 49ers Academy. With his input, the 49ers Foundation has reached the highest levels of success in its history, distributing more than $2.3 million in grants to Bay Area organizations focusing on education, literacy, child abuse and vision over the last three years. He is a frequent visitor at the Bayview YMCA and 49ers Academy, where he periodically teaches classes throughout the year. Most recently, because of his concern for children who are unable to get eye exams in the Bay Area, York helped develop Play Focused, a program to provide needy children with eye care resources. Under the program, Vision Service Plan (VSP) provides free eye care and prescription eyeware to low income and uninsured children.

York currently holds the position of Vice President for the Boardman Community Baseball Association, an area baseball league for children ages five through 18. He was instrumental in the construction of "Fields of Dreams," a local baseball complex comprised of 20 baseball fields, and has participated in local youth basketball programs as a coach and organizer.

Supporting local education, York was recognized in 1996 for his generosity and guidance in the renovation of the library at St. Charles Elementary School, as well as the addition of three new classrooms in 1997. In the spring of 1999, York donated a new math and science building at his alma mater, Little Rock Catholic High School, which celebrated a grand opening this year. Also this year, he sponsored the medical ethics symposium during the Third National Undergraduate Bioethics Conference at the University of Notre Dame.

A native of Muskogee, OK, York graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1971. After receiving his doctorate from Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in 1975, York underwent seven years of post-doctorate training at such prominent universities as Loyola of Chicago and Vanderbilt. An accomplished writer and lecturer, York has numerous presentations to his credit.

York and his wife, Denise DeBartolo York, have four children.

DID YOU KNOW...

For the last 15 years, York, a few of his friends and his children have been making a trip twice each summer to Boundary Waters in Minnesota. Each trip is highlighted by hours of fishing. They fish out of canoes and have to paddle and portage (carry) the canoes everywhere they go. Their trips usually last four to five days and consist of canoeing 12-20 miles, although they found themselves canoeing 105 miles on a six-day trip in 1991. Everything they take on the trip has to be carried on their backs, including fishing poles, food and camping supplies.

Terry Donahue

VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Terry Donahue, in his sixth season with the 49ers, was named General Manager of the team May 2, 2001. His responsibilities include all aspects of football operations, including contracts, personnel decisions, the college draft, as well as being involved in the daily management of the organization.

Since joining the team in 1999, Donahue has been instrumental in restocking the 49ers roster. After he overhauled San Francisco's college draft procedures following the 1999 draft, the 49ers have continually brought in productive draft classes. His influence on the roster helped the 49ers rapid rebound from the 4-12 finish in 1999 to a 12-4 mark in just two seasons.

Donahue's latest undertaking is restructuring the 49ers salary cap practices in order to achieve "cap health." Faced with a deficit of $28 million in dead money in 2004, Donahue ushered in the new strategy that will consist of spending to the cap while limiting dead money deficits. He kick started the program by once again turning to the draft to reconstruct the team. Donahue led an aggressive effort that saw the 49ers turn an original eight draft choices into 10, including three in the first two rounds, through a series of trades. With the additional picks, the 49ers were able to fill needs and create more depth on the roster.

The long time UCLA head coach was hired by the 49ers in 1999 as Director of Player Personnel and was elevated to Assistant General Manager prior to the 2000 season. While being groomed by Bill Walsh to take over the General Manager post, Donahue's primary duties included managing the 49ers scouting and draft activities in addition to coordinating the team's pro personnel department. Donahue deserves credit for making adjustments to San Francisco's drafting system, which resulted in a retooled, energetic roster. The highlight came in 2000, when the 49ers landed five starters with their first six picks.

Donahue joined the 49ers after spending three years (1996-98) as the lead college football analyst for CBS Sports. Prior to going into broadcasting, Donahue enjoyed a Hall of Fame coaching career at UCLA. He became the winningest coach in Pac-10 history, posting a 151-74-8 (.665) record during a 20-year (1976-95) head coaching career with the Bruins. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

During his two-decade coaching career, Donahue built UCLA into one of the top programs in the country. The Bruins finished in the Top 20 12 times and cracked the Top 10 five times under Donahue's direction. He registered a 98-51-5 (.653) conference record and guided the Bruins to 13 bowl games, including four Rose Bowls, and five Pac-10 championships. The 98 wins are the most in conference history and included a winning record against every Pac-10 opponent. Donahue had an 8-4-1 record in bowl games and is one of only two coaches in NCAA history to win eight consecutive bowl appearances.

He made six appearances in the Rose Bowl, including one as a player, one as an assistant coach and four as a head coach. He guided the Bruins to three Rose Bowl championships as a coach and was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1997.

UCLA produced 34 first-team All-Americans and had 14 players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft during Donahue's tenure. He was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2001.

The Southern California native went to UCLA as a walk-on and started two seasons (1965-66) at defensive tackle. After graduating in 1967, he became defensive line coach at Kansas before

Murlan Fowell

VICE PRESIDENT/OPERATIONS

With his extensive knowledge of business management, Mo Fowell is entering his 19th year with the 49ers and his first as Vice President of Operations. Prior to his promotion, Fowell served as the Director of Stadium Operations for the 49ers for 15 years. He initially began with the 49ers back in 1986 as the team's Luxury Suite Manager.

In his new role, Fowell splits his time between the 49ers two facilities – the stadium in San Francisco and the practice facility in Santa Clara. He is now responsible for the supervision of stadium operations and the practice facility, where he oversees security, field maintenance, building maintenance, reception and all other aspects relating to the facility.

Among the many things Fowell has been responsible for at the stadium in his 18 years, one of the major undertakings was coordinating the $30 million renovation of Candlestick Park in 1986. Part of that task included the implementation of the luxury suite sales and marketing program.

A charter member of the Stadium Managers Association (SMA), Fowell is also a member of the NFL Task Force on Security, which was established after the events of September 11, 2001.

Before joining the 49ers, Fowell spent 15 years in the restaurant industry, compiling an impressive resume and honing his managerial skills. For three years, he worked as Vice President of Operations for Ole International Foods (1983-86) and was responsible for operating three full service restaurants in Boise, ID and Lewiston, ID. From 1980-82, he worked as a District Supervisor for El Torito Restaurants, Inc. and oversaw the company's regional expansion into the Northwestern United States.

Fowell attended the University of Wyoming and Montana State and majored in business administration.

Born (2-27-44) in Billings, MT, Fowell and his wife, Cheryl, reside in Half Moon Bay, CA.

David Peart

VICE PRESIDENT/SALES AND MARKETING

With more than two decades as a sports marketing professional, David Peart enters his first season with the 49ers as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Peart will oversee the sales and marketing staffs, as well as the public relations and community affairs departments.

Peart comes to the 49ers from the Houston Texans, where he spent the past four years as the Vice President of Corporate Sales. While there, he was a member of the executive team that managed the most successful expansion team launch in U.S. sports history. Peart oversaw the Texans Alliance Partnership program and directed the team's corporate sales efforts. In addition, he coordinated the Texans efforts to secure naming rights for Reliant Stadium and managed the radio and television broadcasting business relationships. The Texans have earned several distinctions, including the top rating in J.D. Power and Associates NFL Fan Experience Index and the 2003 PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major league professional sports team based on business excellence criteria.

Prior to joining the Texans, Peart was Assistant VP of Advertising Sales for the Southwest Sports Group in Dallas. Prior to his stint in Dallas, Peart served as Regional VP of Sales for Network International/SMG. From 1987-1993, he was Director of Advertising Sales for the Pittsburgh Penguins. He has been involved in seven naming rights projects, most recently Reliant Stadium.

A Pittsburgh native, Peart earned a bachelor's degree from Point Park College in Pittsburgh and attended Carnegie Mellon University for his graduate studies. In 2003, Peart completed the prestigious Rice University Program for Managers. He is a founding member of the Advisory Board of Baylor University's Center for Sports at the Hankamer School of Business. He and his wife, Julie, have two children, Tyler and Kelsey.

Larry MacNeil

VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

With 18 years of experience in finance and accounting, Larry MacNeil is in his second year with the 49ers. This past offseason, MacNeil was promoted to Vice President/Chief Financial Officer for the 49ers. He is responsible for the management of the organization's business office, budgeting, forecasts, financial reporting, internal controls, partnership tax matters and cash management. MacNeil also works closely with the team's General Counsel with respect to insurance and contract matters, as well as the football operations staff on salary cap issues.

MacNeil's record as a financial leader and problem solver is extensive. After beginning his career in public accounting, MacNeil spent 12 years as a partner with a management consulting firm delivering financial expertise to a broad range of companies across the country. Over the course of his career, MacNeil has worked with clients in commercial banking, real estate development and management, insurance, investment banking, transportation, litigation, reorganization and education. MacNeil is a seasoned negotiator, having executed more than $2 billion in acquisitions, sales and financing transactions.

Prior to joining the 49ers early in 2003, MacNeil was the financial leader for the Glendale Galleria, a $400 million institutionally owned retail/office complex in Southern California (2000-02). MacNeil oversaw the financing and ultimate sale of the property, as well as handling complex negotiations with lenders, investors, tenants and the City of Glendale. Prior to the Glendale Galleria, MacNeil served for 12 years as a Senior Partner with National Advisors, a San Diego-based management consulting firm (1988-00). MacNeil began his career with Kenneth Leventhal & Company, CPAs in Southern California, supervising audit and consulting engagements (1984-88). He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Kansas in 1982 and is a licensed CPA in California.

Ed Goines

VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS/GENERAL COUNSEL

Ed Goines is in his fourth season as Vice President of Business Affairs and General Counsel for the 49ers. Goines oversees the 49ers legal, risk and insurance matters, provides strategic counsel to senior management and assists in structuring the team's player contracts. Goines reviews, analyzes and assists in the structuring of commercial relationships with the team's marketing partners, local broadcast partners and other service providers. Additionally, Goines serves as legal counsel to the team's non-profit charitable entity, the 49ers Foundation.

Goines is active in several San Francisco Bay Area community service organizations, including serving on the board of the San Francisco Bar Association and taking a leading role in expanding mentoring opportunites for urban youth.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Goines spent more than 10 years in senior positions in the legal and business affairs departments of several industry-leading companies, including Ticketmaster, Mattel, Inc. and Major League Soccer, L.L.C. In 2000, Goines served as Vice President, Assistant General Counsel and Chief Privacy Officer of Ticketmaster Corporation. While at Ticketmaster, Goines was responsible for the legal and business aspects of the company's online ticketing operations and established the ticketing company's online consumer privacy standards.

Goines was senior counsel for Mattel, Inc., principally involved in negotiating and drafting license and sponsorship agreements relating to Mattel toys and software products involving the Barbie and Hot Wheels brands. He also managed the international prosecution and enforcement of Mattel's trademarks and copyrights. Before that, Goines was in-house counsel for Major League Soccer, responsible for structuring the soccer league's licensing and sponsorship arrangements and leading its trademark and copyright anti-counterfeiting efforts.

In 1992, Goines began his legal career in the Los Angeles office of the Cleveland, OH based national law firm of Baker and Hostetler. He is a graduate of the UC Berkeley-Boalt Hall School of Law and a 1988 graduate of Stanford, where he received a degree in political science. Goines was born (12-29-65) in Hot Springs, AR. He is single and resides in Foster City, CA.

Dominic Corsell

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Dominic Corsell is in his 14th year with the San Francisco 49ers and his third as Assistant Director of Football Operations. Prior to being elevated to his current role, Corsell served as the team's Salary Cap Coordinator for eight years.

Corsell is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the 49ers salary cap and roster, while serving as the liaison between football operations and the team's business office. He is one of the team's primary player contract negotiators and serves as a conduit between the 49ers and NFL Management Council and Players Association.

In addition to managing the cap, Corsell is responsible for the research of player movement and contract developments within the league in order to forecast league market values and trends. He also assists General Manager Terry Donahue with general football management duties.

Corsell spent six years working for the DeBartolo Corporation as an audit supervisor before joining the 49ers business office in 1990. He is a 1984 graduate of Youngstown State with a bachelor's degree in business administration and accounting.

Born (8-11-61) in Youngstown, OH, Dominic and his wife, Donna, reside in San Jose, CA.

Paraag Marathe

ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Paraag Marathe enters his fourth season with the 49ers, his first as Assistant to the General Manager. He spent the previous three seasons as special projects manager in the 49ers personnel and football operations departments.

In his current role, Marathe is responsible for the management of the club's salary cap as well as multi-year forecasting at both the individual club and league level. He works with the CFO in the coordination of cash versus cap compensation. In addition, he works with the football operations department in contract negotiations and is frequently used by General Manager Terry Donahue and Owner/Chairman John York for special assignments within both the business and football sides of the organization.

In his time with the 49ers, Marathe has developed new systems within the football operations department to better understand and predict market trends on player contracts and their salary cap ramifications. He has also developed new methods and systems for evaluating and acquiring players for the College Draft and at the professional level.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Marathe worked at the management consulting firm Bain & Company from 1999-01 as a Senior Associate Consultant. He advised clients in a variety of industries including private equity, software, retail, sports footwear and health clubs. Before that, Marathe worked in the corporate consulting group at the International Management Group (IMG) from 1997-99, where he worked primarily on stadium naming rights deals and corporate sponsorships.

Born in Sunnyvale, CA, Marathe received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at UC, Berkeley and received his masters in business administration from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business. He resides in Santa Clara, CA.

Terry Tumey

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

With an extensive background in football and advanced experience in business, Terry Tumey has excelled in his role as Assistant Director of Football Administration for the 49ers and enters his second season in this role.

After spending two years as a personnel assistant (2001-02), evaluating talent and scouting opponents, Tumey was elevated to his current position in March 2003. While maintaining a voice in personnel, Tumey is responsible for managing the budgets and financing for the football operations department, including the training room, video department, strength and conditioning and equipment room. He also assists in the coordination and management of training camp.

Tumey's experience in business is substantial, having worked as senior associate for Coopers & Lybrand (1993-94), where he analyzed and advised on corporate relocation strategies among many other duties. He served as a capital planning manager for Panda Management Company in Pasadena (1994-95), developing marketing plans and analyzing the viability of potential restaurant sites. From 1988-90, Tumey gained experience in real estate as an assistant project manager for Griffin Homes in Calabasas (1988-89) and as project manager with Crescent Bay Company in Santa Monica (1989-90).

Prior to coming to San Francisco in 2001, Tumey spent two years as a defensive assistant coach (1999-00) for the Denver Broncos. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, UCLA, in 1992 and later joined the Bruins staff full-time in 1995, serving as the defensive line coach for four years (1995-98).

A three-time All-Pac-10 first-team choice as a nose guard at UCLA (1985-87), Tumey helped the Bruins win four bowl games, compile a record of 36-10-2 and finish ranked in the top 10 three times during his four-year career.

Tumey earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 1988 and returned to UCLA's Andersen School of Business, where he received a master's in business administration in 1993.

A native of Tulsa, OK, Tumey and his wife, Candace, have one daughter, Cameron.

MARIE P. DeBARTOLO SPORTS CENTRE

In loving memory of their mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers Owner Denise DeBartolo York and her brother, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., dedicated the team's training facility and office complex to her in August of 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of the stadium), the complex provides players, coaches and staff with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the facility exemplifies the DeBartolos' strive for perfection and drive for superiority. It also reflects their dedication to the organization and first-class standard for operating procedures.

Three natural grass practice fields with underground drainage and watering systems allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions.

A two-story, 52,000 square-foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities with the exception of the ticket and stadium operations. Located upstairs at the facility are offices for coaches, administration, sales and marketing, business operations, public and community relations, pro scouting and college scouting.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with 60 permanent lockers and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps and training camp when squads are larger.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-by-40-foot hydro-therapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms, each featuring a digital projection unit, allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games, practice sessions and upcoming opponents.

Media facilities include two interview rooms and a 120-seat auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), making the set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the weightroom is a canopied patio area used for team meals, press luncheons and other team-related activities.

UNBEAT-A-BOWL

With a 5-0 mark in the Super Bowl, the 49ers own the best record in the history of the NFL's biggest game. San Francisco is one of five unbeaten teams in Super Bowl play, and the only unbeaten in multiple appearances. The Chicago Bears, New York Jets, Baltimore Ravens and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers are each 1-0. The 49ers are 5-1 in league title games if you count the 21-7 loss to Cleveland in the 1949 AAFC Championship Game.

Dennis Erickson
HEAD COACH

Dennis Erickson enters his second season as head coach of the San Francisco 49ers. He is the 14th head coach in team history. Erickson is no stranger to coaching success, posting a career record of 182-99-1 in the collegiate and professional ranks. In his first season in San Francisco, he directed a 49ers offense that ranked third in the NFL in total offense and first in the NFC with a +12 takeaway/giveaway ratio.

Erickson's 2003 team featured three Pro Bowlers, FB Fred Beasley, LB Julian Peterson and WR Terrell Owens. He also unleashed an aggressive and opportunistic defense. Under Erickson, the 49ers allowed only 268 yards per game, their lowest total since 1997, and tallied 42 sacks, their highest total since 1998. San Francisco also caused turnovers including 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

In his 17 years as a collegiate head coach, Erickson produced an impressive record of 144-57-1. He joined the 49ers after spending four years at Oregon State, where he led the team to a 31-17 record. Erickson breathed new life into the Beavers program to the tune of three bowl berths in four seasons and a No. 4 final ranking in 2000. During the 2000 campaign, he guided OSU to an 11-1 record, a Pacific 10 Conference co-championship and a 41-9 victory over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. It marked the Beavers first ever 11-win season and first Conference title since 1964.

For his efforts in 2000, Erickson was named National Coach-of-the-Year by The Sporting News and garnered Pac-10 Coach-of-the-Year honors. In 1999, Erickson led OSU to a 7-4 regular season record (7-5 overall), the first winning season for the Beavers since 1970.

A proven winner in each of his four college head coaching jobs, Erickson has been named Coach of the Year in three different conferences—Big Sky, Pac-10 and Big East. He reached 100 career wins in his 137th game, becoming the third fastest to reach that plateau among Division I head coaches who were active in 1994, trailing Penn State's Joe Paterno (122 games) and former Nebraska coach Tom Osborne (126 games).

Erickson also had successful coaching stints at the University of Idaho (32-15), Wyoming (6-6) and Washington State (12-10-1). However, most of his success occurred as head coach at the University of Miami, where Erickson rewrote the record books.

During Erickson's six-year stint with the Hurricanes, he compiled an NCAA-best record of 63-9 (.875), which included a 35-2 home mark at the Orange Bowl. In 1989, he became only the second head coach in NCAA history to win a National Championship in his first season at a school. Erickson is also one of 15 head coaches in NCAA history to have won more than one National Championship during his career, leading Miami to national titles in 1989 and 1991. His 1989 team produced an 11-1 record, while his 1991 squad went undefeated at 12-0.

After leading Miami to a 10-2 record and No. 6 national ranking in 1994, Erickson accepted the head coaching position with the Seattle Seahawks. He took over a team that had posted a 14-34 record in the three years prior to his arrival—the second worst mark in the NFL during that period. The improvement was dramatic and immediate. During his four seasons in Seattle (1995-98), Erickson produced a record of 31-33 (.484), finishing 8-8 three times and 7-9 in 1996, the best mark in Seattle since a 9-7 finish in 1990. In 1997, Erickson's high-powered offense ranked third in the NFL overall and led the league in passing with 274.4 yards per game.

Erickson was a three-year starter at quarterback at Montana State from 1966-68, twice earning first-team All-Big Sky Conference honors in 1967 and '68. He was also named honorable mention All-America as a senior. He set Montana State records for career total offense (3,945 yards), career passing yards (3,181), passing yards in a single season (1,189 in 1968), passing yards in a single game (282 vs. Montana), while ranking second all-time with 126 points and 21 touchdowns. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1968. Born (3-24-47) in Everett, WA, Dennis and his wife, Marilyn, have two sons, Bryce and Ryan.

Erickson's coaching background: 1971-73 (Montana State), 1974-75 (Idaho), 1976-78 (Fresno State), 1979-81 (San Jose State), 1982-85 (Idaho), 1986 (Wyoming), 1987-88 (Washington State), 1989-94 (Miami), 1995-98 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-02 (Oregon State), 2003-curr. (49ers).

JERRY ATTAWAY PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Now in his third decade with the San Francisco 49ers, Jerry Attaway begins his 22nd season as coordinator for physical development, supervising the team's weight/exercise training, injury rehabilitation, as well as the dietary/nutritional needs of the players.

Attaway came to the 49ers following five years in a similar capacity at the University of Southern California (1978-82). During his first three years at USC, he was the assistant offensive line coach, as well as coordinator for physical development.

A product of UC Davis and Sacramento State, Attaway transferred to Sacramento State after an injury ended his football career.

Collegiately, he served as an assistant coach at UC Davis (1970-72), the College of Idaho (1973-75) and Utah State (1976-77), prior to his USC coaching stint.

After earning a degree in physical education and biology from Sacramento State in 1972, Attaway received his master's degree in education, with an emphasis in guidance and counseling, from the College of Idaho in 1974.

Born (1-3-46) in Susanville, CA, Jerry and his wife, Cheryl, live in San Jose, CA.

Attaway's coaching background: 1970-72 (UC Davis), 1973-75 (College of Idaho), 1976-77 (Utah State), 1978-82 (Southern California), 1983-curr. (49ers).

JAMIE CHRISTIAN DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

A Bay Area native, Jamie Christian enters his second season as defensive quality control coach.

Christian came to San Francisco from Oregon State, where he was preparing to debut as defensive line coach for the Beavers before head coach Dennis Erickson made the move to San Francisco.

For three years, Christian played fullback at Fresno State before transferring to Central Washington. After making the switch to running back, Christian helped the Wildcats win the NAIA Championship in 1995, leading the team in rushing while scoring 13 touchdowns. After working as a juvenile corrections officer in Seattle, WA for four years, Christian accepted his first coaching position in 1999 at Ballard High School in Seattle. While at Ballard, Christian coached varsity running backs for one season, as well as serving as head coach for the junior varsity squad. He joined the Oregon State staff as a graduate assistant in 2000, where he helped the Beavers defense for two seasons. He moved on to Northern Arizona University in 2002, where he served as secondary coach before returning to Corvallis in January of 2003.

Born (2-10-72) in Auburn, WA, Christian prepped at Milpitas (CA) High, where he was a three-sport standout. On the football field, he earned offensive Player-of-the-Year honors as a junior and league MVP as a senior. He earned a bachelor's in law and justice from Central Washington in 2000 and is working towards a master's in education. He and his wife, Deja, have one daughter, Cree.

DAN COZZETTO TIGHT ENDS

Dan Cozzetto, a veteran collegiate coach, makes his professional debut directing tight ends for the 49ers after spending the last 14 seasons coaching offensive line and running backs at four different Pacific 10 schools.

Cozzetto joins the 49ers from the University of Washington, where he served as the Huskies offensive line coach during the 2003 season. Prior to his stint at Washington, Cozzetto was on Dennis Erickson's staff at Oregon State, serving as the running backs coach in 2000-01 and tight ends coach in 2002 while also assisting with the Beavers offensive line. During Cozzetto's first year at OSU, Beavers running back Ken Simonton earned All-America honors after rushing for 1,559 yards and 19 touchdowns.

Cozzetto began his coaching career at the University of Idaho, his alma mater, where he remained for 11 seasons (1979-89). After serving two years as a graduate assistant (1979-80), he moved into full-time status in 1981 as wide receivers and tight ends coach. He coached wide receivers and tight ends until 1985 and then moved to the offensive line starting with the 1986 season. Additionally, he was also the special teams coordinator from 1983 until 1988. During his final season at Idaho, Cozzetto served as offensive coordinator and Idaho led the nation in total offense, registering 495.9 yards per game. The Vandals were also number one in passing offense (374.3) and number six in scoring offense (35.1 points per game). All five of his offensive linemen at Idaho earned some type of All-Conference recognition in both 1988 and '89, with three receiving Division I-AA All-America status in '88 and two in '89.

After Idaho, Cozzetto joined the staff at the University of California as offensive line coach from 1990-92. In his first season, the offense had it most productive offensive output in 15 seasons, collecting 2,235 yards. Cozzetto's offensive line was also responsible for Cal being only the second team in NCAA history to have two 1,000-yard rushers and a 2,000-yard passer on the same team.

He then moved to Arizona State, where he was named the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the Sun Devils (1993-99). The Sun Devils offense ranked fourth in the nation in 1996, averaging 492.5 yards per game and was third in scoring, averaging 42.8 points per outing as the team finished with a number four ranking and earned their first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 years. In 1997, Cozzetto's offense led the Pac-10 in rushing (193.8) and was fourth in total offense (406.5).

Cozzetto was born in Spokane, WA where he attended Gonzaga Preparatory (Spokane, WA) High before attending Idaho. He and his wife, Debbie, have four children, Adrian, Rachel, Ryan and Tara.

Cozzetto's coaching background: 1978-89 (Idaho), 1990-92 (California), 1993-99 (Arizona State), 2000-01 (Oregon State), 2003 (Washington), 2004 (49ers).

TERRELL JONES STRENGTH DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Terrell Jones is in his fifth season with the 49ers. His primary role with the team focuses on the area of strength training. He also assists Jerry Attaway with conditioning and nutritional needs for the players.

Jones joined the 49ers full-time in the middle of the 2000 season. He had served as an intern for the 49ers for three years (1997, 1999-00) prior to taking on the role full-time.

Before coming to the 49ers, Jones was the strength and conditioning coach at San Jose City College from 1998-00. Prior to that, Jones was a security specialist in the United States Air Force for nine years, stationed at several stateside and overseas bases, including Tyndall AFB in Florida. While at Tyndall, he supervised the strength and conditioning program for the Emergency Services Team (SWAT) as a member of the team.

Born (4-25-61) in Chicago, IL, Jones was raised in Duluth, MN. He attended San Jose State and received a degree in kinesiology in 1998. He often speaks at local high schools and colleges about the importance of exercise, nutrition and the strength and conditioning field. Jones is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

Jones' coaching background: 1998-00 (San Jose City College), 2000-curr. (49ers).

TIM LAPPANO RUNNING BACKS

Tim Lappano enters his second season as the 49ers running backs coach. He joined the 49ers in 2003 after spending three seasons on Dennis Erickson's staff at Oregon State. Lappano spent last season with a running backs unit that ranked third in the NFC with 2,279 yards. Under Lappano, FB Fred Beasley made his first Pro Bowl appearance and RB Kevan Barlow rushed for a career-high 1,024 yards despite starting only four games.

While the offensive coordinator at Oregon State, Lappano contributed heavily to the resurgence of the Beavers program. OSU led the Pac-10 in rushing yards with 1,933, and in rushing offense, averaging 148.7 yards per game in 2002. Running back Steven Jackson led the conference with 1,690 yards while earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors.

A long-time veteran of Dennis Erickson's coaching staff, Lappano began his coaching career as Erickson's running backs coach at the University of Idaho in 1982, helping the Vandals to a Big Sky Conference championship in 1985. After one season as running backs coach for Wyoming in 1986, Lappano served as running backs coach at Washington State before moving to offensive coordinator in 1989. He led the Cougars to a top 10 finish with Pro Bowl quarterback Drew Bledsoe and Pac-10 Offensive Player-of-the-Year, running back Steve Broussard.

Lappano moved on to the University of California in 1992 as assistant head coach and running backs coach. While in Berkeley, Lappano coached Heisman Trophy candidate Russell White and helped lead Cal to an Alamo Bowl victory over Iowa in 1993. He returned to Wyoming in 1996 as receivers coach, helping the Cowboys to a WAC Championship while coaching All-American Marcus Harris to the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver.

Lappano joined the Purdue coaching staff in 1997 as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach. The Boilermakers led the Big Ten in offense that season and ranked seventh in the nation.

Lappano rejoined Erickson and made his NFL debut in 1998 with the Seattle Seahawks. During his one season as running backs coach, he helped Ricky Watters rush for 1,239 yards and nine touchdowns, earning team Offensive Player-of-the-Year honors.

A four-year letterman at Idaho, Lappano finished his collegiate career as the school's second all-time leading rusher with 2,196 yards. He earned a bachelor's degree in general studies in 1983. He prepped at Gonzaga (Spokane, WA) High, earning All-State honors as a senior.

Born (10-14-56) in Spokane, WA, Lappano and his wife, Sandi, have two sons, Taylor and Kyle.

Lappano's coaching background: 1982-85 (Idaho), 1986 (Wyoming), 1987-91 (Washington State), 1992-95 (California), 1996 (Wyoming), 1997 (Purdue), 1998 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-02 (Oregon State), 2003-curr. (49ers).

THE MAGIC NUMBER IS 17

San Francisco is 99-6 in their last 105 games when holding an opponent to 17 points or less. The team has an overall record of 283-55-4 since 1950.

RON LYNN SECONDARY

A 38-year coaching veteran, Ron Lynn joins the 49ers staff in 2004 as secondary coach.

Lynn comes to the 49ers from across the Bay, where he served as the defensive backs coach for the Oakland Raiders the past four seasons (2000-03). Under his direction, CB Charles Woodson made two consecutive appearances in the Pro Bowl and S Rod Woodson make one appearance in Hawaii.

He joined Oakland after serving as the secondary coach for the New England Patriots (1997-99). In his three seasons with New England, Lynn developed a secondary that included Pro Bowlers Ty Law and Lawyer Milloy. In his first season with the Patriots, he initiated an aggressive, ball-hawking secondary which was responsible for 16 of the team's 19 interceptions and 21 of the 32 takeaways, good for third in the AFC.

Prior to his stint with the Patriots, Lynn spent 12 years as a defensive coordinator in the NFL with the Washington Redskins (1994-96), Cincinnati Bengals (1992-93), San Diego Chargers (1986-91) and the USFL's Oakland Invaders (1983-85).

Adept at reinventing defenses, Lynn took over a Redskins unit that had finished 26th in the league in 1993 and improved to 18th by 1995. In a year in which scoring was up league-wide, the Redskins allowed 53 fewer points than in 1994, the third-best improvement in the league. In 1992, he took over a Bengals defense that was ranked as the worst in the NFL. In his first season with Cincinnati, the Bengals totaled 46 sacks, doubling their total from the previous season. In just two seasons, Cincinnati's defense evolved from the 28th ranked unit in the league to 16th overall.

Lynn's Bay Area connections are not limited to the Raiders, having spent nine seasons with various Bay Area staff's including San Jose State, the University of the Pacific, the University of California and the USFL's Oakland Invaders.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Toledo while earning his master's degree in education. Lynn was then defensive coordinator and secondary coach at his alma mater, Mt. Union College, from 1967-73 before moving to Kent State, where he served in the same capacity from 1974-76. Lynn then coached running backs at San Jose State in 1977 before being promoted to assistant head coach/defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Pacific in 1979.

Lynn was born in Youngstown, OH and was a quarterback at Mt. Union College in Ohio. Lynn and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons, Ryan, John and Alec.

LARRY MAC DUFF SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

A 30-year veteran of the collegiate and NFL coaching ranks, Larry Mac Duff is in his second season as special teams coordinator for the 49ers. Under Mac Duff in 2003, San Francisco led the NFL with six special teams takeaways, improved its punt and kickoff return coverage units and had a kickoff return for a touchdown for the first time since 1997.

Mac Duff came to the 49ers after two stints at the University of Arizona, where he worked as defensive coordinator.

In between stops in Tucson, Mac Duff spent four seasons as special teams coordinator for the New York Giants from 1997-00. Under Mac Duff, the Giants led the NFL in field goal defense in 1999 and 2000 and paced the NFC in punt returns in 1999. Kick returner Ron Dixon became the first player in NFL history to return two postseason kickoffs for touchdowns during the Giants NFC Championship run in 2000.

Mac Duff's first stop in Arizona set standards for defense in the early 1990s. The Wildcats

'Desert Swarm' unit led the nation in scoring defense in 1992, allowing only 8.9 points per game and finished second in total defense. The impressive display was repeated in 1993 when the Wildcats led the nation in rushing defense while allowing a conference-record 30.1 yards a game. Arizona finished among the top 10 defenses for four consecutive years from 1992-95.

After a decade coaching in the high school and junior college ranks, Mac Duff joined Stanford as defensive line coach in 1980. He moved west to Hawaii in 1984 to run the defensive line and special teams. Under Mac Duff's tutelage, Hawaii produced its first Division I first-team All-American in defensive tackle Al Noga.

An All-American defensive end at Fullerton (CA) Junior College, Mac Duff helped his team to a national title in 1967. Moving on to Oklahoma in 1968, he played linebacker for the Sooners, graduating with a degree in physical education in 1970. He later earned a master's degree in physical education from Cal State Fullerton in 1972. Mac Duff prepped at Sunny Hills (Fullerton, CA) High, where he lettered in football and baseball.

Born (6-22-48) in Clinton, IA, Mac Duff and his wife, Barbie, have one son, Justin.

Mac Duff's coaching background: 1980-83 (Stanford), 1984-86 (Hawaii), 1987-96 (Arizona), 1997-00 (New York Giants), 2001-02 (Arizona), 2003-curr. (49ers).

GREG MCMACKIN ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/LINEBACKERS

Greg McMackin is in his second season as associate head coach/linebackers coach. He brings a wealth of experience to the 49ers defense. The 30-year coaching veteran will tutor the linebackers as well as serve as a sounding board for defensive coordinator Willy Robinson.

Under McMackin's tutelage, LB Julian Peterson earned his second straight Pro Bowl nomination and LB Derek Smith set a team-record with 189 tackles in 2003. As a unit, the defense finished with 42 sacks and 36 takeaways, the second highest total in the NFC in both categories.

McMackin joined the 49ers staff after a successful three-year run as defensive coordinator at Texas Tech. His defense made an immediate impact in 2000 as the Red Raiders led the nation with three shutouts. Tech also held two other opponents without an offensive touchdown as the Red Raiders finished the 2000 campaign ranked sixth in the nation in pass defense and 10th in pass efficiency defense. They also finished fourth in the Big 12 in total defense, while finishing in the top 25 nationally. In 2002, four Tech starters recorded more than 100 tackles, led by All Big-12 LB Lawrence Flugence.

Prior to his arrival at Texas Tech, McMackin helped orchestrate one of the biggest single-season turnarounds in NCAA history. During his only season as defensive coordinator at the University of Hawaii, McMackin helped lead the Rainbow Warriors to a 9-4 mark in 1999, one year after the program suffered through an 0-12 season. His defense accounted for five touchdowns, 17 interceptions, 33 sacks and 17 fumble recoveries.

McMackin also served as the defensive coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks under Dennis Erickson from 1995-98. During his time with Seattle, he coached seven All-Pro selections and helped lead the Seahawks to an NFL-record 12 defensive touchdowns in 1998. The team also ranked among the league's best in turnovers, sacks, passes defensed, scoring defense, total defense per play and red zone defense. Seattle also established a franchise-record seven interceptions in one game during the 1998 season. During his first three seasons in Seattle, he helped improve the team's NFL defensive rank from 30th to eighth and the pass defense from 30th to sixth.

McMackin spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons at the University of Miami under Erickson. The team won two Big East Championships and ranked first in the nation in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. The Hurricanes allowed only seven touchdowns in one season and led the Big East in all defensive categories. He coached six first-team All-Americans, including Warren Sapp, who earned National Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors as well as the Lombardi Award in 1994.

McMackin began his career as an offensive backfield coach at the University of Arizona in 1968 and moved on to Aloha High School in Beaverton, OR, where he served as an assistant coach and head coach for four seasons. He then went to Western Oregon State College for three seasons as defensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator and assistant professor in physical education.

Born (4-24-47) in Springfield, OR, McMackin and his wife, Heather, have one daughter, Shannon, and two grandchildren.

McMackin's coaching background: 1974-76 (Western Oregon), 1977-78 (Idaho), 1979-83 (San Jose State), 1984 (Stanford), 1985-86 (Denver Gold, USFL), 1986-89 (Oregon Tech), 1990-91 (Utah), 1992 (Naval Academy), 1993-94 (Miami), 1995-98 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999 (Hawaii), 2000-02 (Texas Tech), 2003-curr. (49ers).

RICH OLSON QUARTERBACKS

Rich Olson returns to the professional coaching ranks, entering his first season as the quarterbacks coach for the 49ers.

Olson comes to the 49ers from the Arizona Cardinals, where he served as the offensive coordinator for two seasons (2001-02). His first offense displayed marked improvement in 2001. The unit threw only 14 interceptions and had just 27 total turnovers, a team low in a 16-game season. The offense's 5.13-yard average per play was the Cardinals best since 1993. Arizona scored at least 30 points three times, the most in one season since 1996.

Before joining the staff in Arizona, Olson spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach for the Washington Redskins (1999-00). In Washington, Olson tutored 1999 Pro Bowl quarterback Brad Johnson, who completed a team-record 316 passes for 4,005 yards and 24 touchdowns. Olson also served as the quarterbacks coach for four seasons (1995-98) with the Seattle Seahawks under Dennis Erickson.

He began his coaching career in 1970 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Washington State, and then coached at the high school level from 1971-74. He returned to the college ranks in 1976 at Fresno State for one season and served as an assistant offensive line coach on John Robinson's staff at Southern California in 1977.

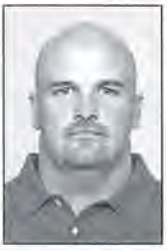

The following season, Olson moved to Southern Methodist and tutored the offensive line and running backs for three seasons (1978-80), where he helped recruit future NFL running backs Eric Dickerson and Craig James. Following SMU, he coached defensive backs at Arkansas (1981-83) and then returned to Fresno State for eight seasons (1984-91) as offensive coordinator when the school compiled a 77-20-1 record.

In 1992, Olson coached wide receivers at the University of Miami and later was the Hurricanes offensive coordinator under Erickson from 1993-94. The Hurricanes forged a 30-6 overall mark during his three-year stay.

Born in Los Angeles, CA, Olson attended Montebello (CA) High prior to attending Washington State, where he was a quarterback and free safety. Olson and his wife, Cindy, have a daughter, Kasey.

Olson's coaching background: 1970 (Washington State), 1976 (Fresno State), 1977 (Southern California), 1978-80 (Southern Methodist), 1981-83 (Arkansas), 1984-91 (Fresno State), 1992-94 (Miami), 1995-98 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-00 (Washington Redskins), 2001-02 (Arizona Cardinals), 2004 (49ers).

DAN QUINN DEFENSIVE LINE

Dan Quinn is in his fouth year with the 49ers and second as defensive line coach. He joined the 49ers after spending five years coaching at Hofstra.

In 2003, Quinn's defenive line finished with 21.5 sacks. He received help from a wide variety of sources as DE Andre Carter led the defensive front for the third consecutive season with 6.5 sacks. DE John Engelberger added a career-high 4.5 sacks and reserve lineman DE Chidi Ahanotu had 4.0 sacks.

Quinn made the move to defensive line coach after spending two seasons with the 49ers in charge of defensive quality control. In 2002, he played a large role in the development of Carter and DE Chike Okeafor. Carter paced the team with 12.5 sacks and Okeafor added six. Quinn also worked closely with DT Bryant Young, who made his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

Before joining the 49ers, Quinn spent five years coaching Hofstra's defensive line, serving double duty in his final season as the defensive coordinator.

Prior to joining the Hofstra staff, Quinn spent one season coaching the defensive tackles at Virginia Military Institute. He also served as the recruiting coordinator at VMI. Quinn worked as a graduate assistant for the defensive line at the College of William and Mary prior to VMI.

Quinn, a four-year starter at defensive end and defensive tackle at Salisbury State University, was also a four-year letterwinner in track and field.

Born (9-11-70) in Orange, NJ, Quinn and his wife, Stacey, reside in Santa Clara, CA.

Quinn's coaching background: 1994 (College of William & Mary), 1995 (Virginia Military Institute), 1996-00 (Hofstra), 2001-curr. (49ers).

WILLY ROBINSON DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Willy Robinson enters his first season with San Francisco as defensive coordinator. No stranger to Head Coach Dennis Erickson, Robinson has served on Erickson's staff at Fresno State, Miami, the Seattle Seahawks and Oregon State. In fact, Erickson recruited Robinson as a defensive back while at Fresno State.

Robinson comes to the 49ers from Pittsburgh where he had spent the previous four seasons (2000-03) as the Steelers defensive backs coach. Under Robinson, the Steelers secondary had been one of the most consistent areas on the team, featuring an aggressive hard-hitting style. He was instrumental in the development of players such as Chad Scott, Deshea Townsend and Hank Poteat.

Robinson, a nine-year NFL veteran coach, joined the Steelers after serving as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Oregon State in 1999, where he coordinated the number-one ranked defense in the Pacific 10 Conference for Erickson.

Prior to joining the Beavers staff, Robinson spent the previous four seasons (1995-98) on Erickson's staff as the secondary coach for the Seattle Seahawks. During his four years, he coached two All-Pros (Shawn Springs in 1998 and Darryl Williams in 1997).

Robinson began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fresno State (1978), where he led the outside linebackers and was also in charge of film breakdown. He then accepted a position at San Jose State as a part-time assistant in 1979 and coached outside linebackers.

He returned to Fresno State in 1980 as a full-time assistant coach and spent 14 years in various capacities with the Bulldogs. He coached the secondary (1980-86), outside linebackers (1987-89) and returned to coach the secondary and special teams (1990-91). He was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 1988 and to defensive coordinator in 1992.

In 1994, Robinson joined Erickson's staff at Miami as the Hurricanes secondary coach. He also served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach under Erickson at Oregon State (1999).

Born (2-10-56) in Fort Carson, CO, Robinson attended Redwood (Visalia, CA) High. He also attended the College of Sequoia in Visalia prior to attending Fresno State, where he played defensive back. He has two daughters, Brittany and Mallory.

Robinson's coaching background: 1978 (Fresno State), 1979 (San Jose State), 1980-93 (Fresno State), 1994 (Miami), 1995-98 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999 (Oregon State), 2000-03 (Pittsburgh Steelers), 2004 (49ers).

JEFF RODGERS SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

Jeff Rodgers is in his second season as special teams quality control coach of the 49ers and works directly with special teams coordinator Larry Mac Duff.

Rodgers joined the 49ers staff from the University of Arizona, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on defense, working with the secondary in 2001 and the flex linebacker in 2002.

Rodgers played four seasons at linebacker for North Texas. He earned his bachelor's degree in business, specializing in entrepreneurship and strategic management, in 2000. He prepped at Westlake (Austin, TX) High.

Born (1-12-78) in St. Paul, MN, Rodgers is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

Rodgers' coaching background: 2001-02 (Arizona), 2003-curr. (49ers).

AL SIMMONS SECONDARY

Al Simmons is in his second season with the 49ers as secondary coach. Last season he was influential in the development of second-year CB Mike Rumph, who established career-high numbers in almost every category, and CB Ahmed Plummer, who continued his ascension to a top-tier NFL cornerback.

Simmons arrived in San Francisco after a two-year stint as secondary coach on Dennis Erickson's staff at Oregon State (2001-02). Under Simmons' direction, the Beavers led the Pacific 10 in pass defense and allowed a conference-low 10 touchdown receptions in 2002.

Simmons' first coaching opportunity came at his alma mater, Cal State Hayward, when he was named secondary/linebackers coach in 1986. He was named defensive coordinator in 1988 and stayed there until the spring of 1994 when he joined San Francisco State as the defensive coordinator/secondary coach. At Cal State Hayward, his defense finished number one in the conference in scoring defense and number two in total defense in 1992. When he moved to San Francisco State, he helped the Gators place second in their conference in total defense, pass defense, takeaways and scoring defense.

From 1995-96 he served as the secondary coach at Montana State before joining Idaho State as defensive coordinator in 1997. In 1998, he joined Tom Holmoe's staff at the University of California, where he was instrumental in turning Deltha O'Neal from a back-up tailback into the first cornerback chosen in the 2000 NFL Draft.

Simmons has also participated four times in the NFL's Minority Fellowship Coaching program. He spent training camps with the Raiders (1993), Arizona (1996), San Diego (1999) and Dallas (2000).

A Northern California native, Simmons was born (12-6-62) in Oakland, CA. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in physical education from Cal State Hayward. As a player, Simmons was a two-time All-Nor Cal Conference selection as a strong safety in 1983 and 1984. Simmons prepped at Oakland (CA) High where he played linebacker for three years before graduating in 1981.

Simmons' coaching background: 1986-93 (Cal State-Hayward), 1994 (San Francisco State), 1995-96 (Montana State), 1997 (Idaho State), 1998-00 (California), 2001-02 (Oregon State), 2003-curr. (49ers).

GREGG SMITH ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE

A member of Dennis Erickson's staff for more than two decades, Gregg Smith is in his second season with the 49ers as assistant head coach. He will coach the offensive line after coaching tight ends in 2003. In addition, he will assist Erickson with practice plans and other team-related decisions.

Despite the loss of TE Eric Johnson to a broken collarbone, Smith directed TE Jed Weaver to career-high numbers in recepitons and yards. Smith also aided in the development of 2003 fifth-round pick TE Aaron Walker, who scored his first career touchdown last season.

Smith came to San Francisco from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive line coach for three seasons. Under Smith's direction in 2002, the offensive line helped the Beavers lead the Pac-10 Conference in rushing offense by averaging 148.7 yards per game. Thanks in part to the blocking of the offensive line, RB Steven Jackson led the conference with 1,690 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns in 2002.

Prior to his arrival at Oregon State, Smith spent four seasons with the Seattle Seahawks, coaching the tight ends from 1995-96 before taking over the offensive line in 1997. The Seahawks enjoyed solid performances on the line of scrimmage during Smith's tenure, finishing third in the NFL in rushing in 1995, fifth in 1996 and third in overall offense in 1997.

After winning two state championships as head coach of Buhl High School in Buhl, ID, Smith began his collegiate career in 1982 as offensive line coach at his alma mater, the University of Idaho. Following a one-year stint at Wyoming in 1986, Smith joined Erickson at Washington State, where he coached first-team All-American guard, and Detroit Lions third-round pick, Mike Utely.

Smith moved with Erickson in 1989 to Miami, where he served again as offensive line coach while gaining the title of assistant head coach. During his time with the Hurricanes, Smith saw five of his linemen drafted by the NFL, including tackle Leon Searcy with the 11th overall pick in 1992. Smith's offensive line was the foundation for a Miami offense that won two National Championships.

Smith played one season at tight end at Idaho before a knee injury ended his career. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in education from Idaho in 1969. As a prep athlete, Smith earned All-State honorable mention honors as a senior at Moscow (ID) High in 1962.

Born (10-28-46) in Oklahoma City, OK, Smith and his wife, Gloria, have three children, Cori, Laci and Tyler.

Smith's coaching background: 1982-85 (Idaho), 1986 (Wyoming), 1987-88 (Washington State), 1989-94 (Miami), 1995-98 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-02 (Oregon State), 2003-curr. (49ers).

SCOTT SWARTZ OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Scott Swartz is in his first season as offensive quality control coach for the 49ers.

Swartz joins the 49ers from Northern Arizona University, where he spent the previous two seasons as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator (2002-03). During Swartz's last season at Northern Arizona, the Lumberjacks finished with a 9-4 record and senior receivers Clarence Moore and Johnny Marshall broke almost every school receiving record.

A San Jose native and Oak Grove High alum, Swartz returns to the Bay Area and reunites with Dennis Erickson with whom he spent three seasons (1999-01) at Oregon State as a graduate assistant working with the offense. He received his master's degree in history and rhetoric from Oregon State in 2002.

Prior to his time in Corvallis, OR, Swartz was an undergraduate assistant at San Jose State from 1997-98. He graduated from San Jose State in 1999.

A former collegiate quarterback, Swartz set a California state junior college record for most completions in a game with 41 while playing one season at De Anza Community College from 1994-95. He still holds most of the school's single season passing records.

Born (8-11-75) in Santa Barbara, CA. Swartz and his wife, Suzanne, reside in San Jose, CA.

Swartz's coaching background: 1997-98 (San Jose State), 1999-01 (Oregon State), 2002-03 (Northern Arizona), 2004 (49ers).

JASON TARVER ASSISTANT RUNNING BACKS/OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Jason Tarver enters his fourth season with the 49ers and was promoted to assistant running backs coach after three years as the offensive quality control coach.

Tarver joined the 49ers staff after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA. In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams.

A Northern California native, Tarver played defensive back and wing back at Foothill High in Pleasanton. He attended Santa Clara University, but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995 because the Broncos cut their program. After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons as an assistant coach at West Valley in 1996-97.

Born (8-28-74) in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his master's degree in biochemistry from UCLA and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000. Married, he and his wife, Katie, reside in Menlo Park, CA.

Tarver's coaching background: 1996-97 (West Valley College), 1998-00 (UCLA), 2001-curr. (49ers).

TED TOLLNER OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Ted Tollner enters his third season with the 49ers and first as offensive coordinator. He spent two previous seasons as quarterbacks coach.

Tollner has more than 30 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and professional level, including four years as a head coach at the University of Southern California (1983-86) and eight at San Diego State (1994-01), compiling a 69-68 record during that time.

Tollner will now direct a San Francisco offense that finished third in the NFC in total offense, averaging 355 yards per game in 2003. He also led QB Tim Rattay to a 2-1 record as a starter and a 96.6 quarterback rating, throwing for seven touchdowns and only two interceptions in that span.

Tollner wasted little time making a contribution to the 49ers during the 2002 season, helping QB Jeff Garcia reach his third consecutive Pro Bowl by throwing for 3,344 yards and 21 touchdowns, while throwing only 10 interceptions.

Tollner served as offensive coordinator and running backs coach at USC during the 1982 season, and in November of 1982, was named John Robinson's successor as Trojans head coach. He compiled a 26-20-1 record and directed the team to a Pacific 10 Conference title and three bowl berths. His 1984 USC squad posted a 9-3 record, finished 10th in the AP poll and upset fifth-ranked Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 20-17. The Trojans finished 7-1 in the conference that year and earned their first trip to the Rose Bowl as conference champs since 1979. Tollner was named Pac-10 Coach-of-the-Year that season. His two other bowl appearances with the Trojans include the 1985 Aloha Bowl and the 1987 Citrus Bowl. He has worked with three current NFL head coaches, the Lions Steve Mariucci, the Raiders Norv Turner and the Dolphins Dave Wannstedt.

After leaving USC, Tollner served as wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills from 1987-88. He moved from Buffalo to San Diego, where he was offensive coordinator for the Chargers from 1989-91. He then moved to Los Angeles, where he was the Rams quarterbacks coach for the 1992 and '93 seasons.

Tollner compiled a record of 43-48 at San Diego State. He posted two eight-win seasons in his second and third years with the Aztecs (1995 and '96), which marked the first consecutive eight-win seasons since 1976-77. Tollner also directed San Diego State to its first postseason bowl game in seven years with a berth in the Las Vegas Bowl (1998).

Tollner began his career in the Bay Area, coaching at Woodside High School (1963-66) and at San Mateo College (1968-72).

Born 5-29-40, Tollner earned a bachelor's degree in 1962 and later a master's degree in physical education at Cal Poly. He was a starting quarterback for the Mustangs for two years and pitched for the baseball team for four seasons. He was one of 26 survivors of the tragic Cal Poly plane crash on 10-29-60, which killed 22 people, 16 of them players.

Tollner and his wife, Barbara, have two daughters, Linda and Tammy, one son, Bruce, and 10 grandchildren.

Tollner's coaching background: 1973-80 (San Diego State), 1981-82 (Brigham Young), 1982-86 (Southern California), 1987-88 (Buffalo Bills), 1989-91 (San Diego Chargers), 1992-93 (Los Angeles Rams), 1994-01 (San Diego State), 2002-curr. (49ers).

ERIC YARBER WIDE RECEIVERS

An NFL veteran as both a player and coach, Eric Yarber enters his second season as wide receivers coach for the 49ers.

In 2003, Yarber made an immediate impact leading WR Terrell Owens to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl and fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season. He also played an integral part in the development of rookie WR Brandon Lloyd, who led the team with a 15.1-yard average per catch.

Yarber accompanied Head Coach Dennis Erickson from Oregon State, where he coached the receivers for three seasons after switching from running backs coach following the 1999 season. During Yarber's tenure, the Beavers sent two receivers to the NFL in 2000, as Chad Johnson was a second-round selection of Cincinnati and T.J. Houshmandzadeh was the seventh-round pick of the Bengals.

Yarber's coaching career began at his alma mater, the University of Idaho, as secondary coach in 1996. He spent one season at Idaho before joining the staff at UNLV as receivers coach. Erickson brought Yarber to the NFL ranks as offensive quality control coach for the Seattle Seahawks in 1998.

A 12th-round draft pick out of Idaho by the Washington Redskins in the 1986 NFL Draft, Yarber spent three seasons with the Redskins as a wide receiver and kick returner. He was a member of Washington's Super Bowl XXII championship team in 1988.

Yarber played for Erickson at Idaho (1984-85) and was a Kodak All-American and the Big Sky Conference Most Valauble Player as a senior after catching 75 passes for 1,103 yards. As a junior, he finished 10th in the nation in punt returns and third in the conference with 817 yards receiving on 54 catches. He graduated from Idaho with a bachelor's degree in general studies with an emphasis in criminal justice in 1985.

Born (9-22-64) in Chicago, IL, Yarber has one son, Robert.

Yarber's coaching background: 1996 (Idaho), 1997 (UNLV), 1998 (Seattle Seahawks), 1999-02 (Oregon State), 2003-curr. (49ers).

BILL REES DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Bill Rees is in his fourth season with the San Francisco 49ers and first as the Director of Player Personnel. He spent the previous three seasons as special assistant to the general manager and as a national scout.

Rees came to the 49ers staff after four seasons as the Director of College Scouting with the Chicago Bears. While there, Rees oversaw a staff of six scouts and helped produce successful drafts that generated 14 starters over three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, Rees served as a regional scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. He was primarily responsible for scouting the college talent in the western region.

The majority of Rees' experience came during his 15 years spent with UCLA (1979-93). Rees served as both an assistant football coach and as a recruiting coordinator for the Bruins, earning a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters. While at UCLA, Rees signed 90 prep All-Americans and helped the Bruins earn 12 bowl appearances and win five Pac-10 Championships.

Rees began his football career as an assistant with the Northwestern Wildcats for three seasons, coaching defensive backs for two seasons (1976-77) and running backs for one season (1978). He played three years at quarterback at Ohio Wesleyan and graduated with a degree in history and earned a master's degree in education from Northwestern in 1978.

Born 4-2-54, Rees and his wife, Susan, have three children, Dan, Meghan and Tommy.

JIM ABRAMS NATIONAL SCOUT

Jim Abrams is in his 13th year with the 49ers and fourth as a national scout. Previously, Abrams spent seven years as a regional scout for the 49ers after serving as a scouting assistant for the team in his first two years.

A 1987 graduate of Kent State, Abrams served as a graduate assistant at UNLV (1988), Purdue (1989-90) and Ohio State (1991). At all three schools he served as linebackers coaching assistant.

Born (10-12-62) in Warren, OH, Abrams attended McAteer High in San Francisco before attending City College (1981-82). He later transferred to Kent State (1983-87), where he played free safety and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Abrams and his wife, Penny, reside in Westlake, CA with their sons, Aleksandr James (8-23-95) and Sedrick Jameson (8-24-99).

TODD BRUNNER REGIONAL SCOUT

Todd Brunner is in his fifth season with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent two seasons with the Cleveland Browns as an area scout. He scouted the Northeast region for the Browns in 1999. Brunner came to the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he spent four seasons (1994-97) as an area scout for the Northeast region. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner went to Lehigh, where he lettered two years in football. As a junior, he led the team in special teams tackles and as a senior quarterback he tied or broke 14 school passing records. After Lehigh, he spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple in 1991 and earned his master's.

Born (10-1-67) in Middletown, NY, Brunner is the son of 49ers personnel consultant John Brunner. He and his wife, Nancy, have one daughter, Annie Elizabeth (2-3-99), and son, Chad Joseph (5-16-02), and reside in Robbinsville, NJ.

JUSTIN CHABOT REGIONAL SCOUT

Justin Chabot enters his first season with the 49ers as a regional scout. Previously, Chabot spent five years as Director of Football Operations at Northwestern.

Chabot was extremely familiar with the Wildcats program, having starred as an offensive lineman on the 1995 and 1996 Big Ten Championship teams.

Chabot tallied 41 career starts on the line for Northwestern, including the 1996 Rose Bowl and the 1997 Citrus Bowl. A four-year letterwinner and captain of the 1996 squad, Chabot was named first-team All-Big Ten by the media and coaches his senior year. Chabot was also named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 1993.

Born (11-14-74) in Washington, DC, Chabot was raised in Oxford, OH. He graduated from Northwestern in 1996 with a degree in sociology and played professionally during the 1997 season with the Pittsburgh Steelers and the New York Giants.

BRIAN GARDNER REGIONAL SCOUT

Brian Gardner is in his 10th year with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to joining San Francisco in 1995, he spent three seasons as a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

His football background includes time in the Arena Football League with the New Orleans Night franchise as both defensive coordinator and Director of Player Personnel. He also served as Director of Player Personnel and receivers coach for the Washington Marauders of the Professional Spring Football League.

Gardner played three seasons in the Arena Football League with New England, Pittsburgh and New York. He spent time in the CFL with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders and with the Barcelona Dragons in the original World Football League (WLAF).

A standout athlete in college, Gardner originally signed with Nicholls State and played for one season before transferring to Prairie View A&M. At Prairie View, Gardner was a three-year starter and letterman at wide receiver. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications.

Gardner is a native of New Orleans. Married, he and his wife, Vanessa, have two sons, Royal and Tyler.

OSCAR LOFTON REGIONAL SCOUT

Oscar Lofton, who joined the 49ers scouting staff in 1992, begins his 13th season with the club as a regional scout.

His football background includes six years as a scout for the National Football Scouting Combine (1986-92) and coaching stints at Holy Cross College (1963-66), Hammond (LA) High (1967-73) and Tulane (1973-79).

A three-sport athlete in football, basketball and track at Southeastern Louisiana, Lofton was enshrined into that school's Hall of Fame in 1960. He received his master's degree in physical education in 1966 and served SLU as athletic director (1979) and head coach (1980-85). He played three seasons (1960-61 and '63) for the Boston Patriots, missing the 1962 campaign while in the U.S. Army.

Born in McCall Creek, MS, Lofton and his wife, Billie Jean, have three grown sons, Kelly, Andy and Kyle, and seven grandchildren. The couple lives in Hammond, LA.

JIM ZECHES REGIONAL SCOUT

Jim Zeches is in his fourth season with the San Francisco 49ers as a regional scout.

Zeches came to the 49ers staff after spending 12 years in various positions with Washington State. He served as the recruiting coordinator for the Cougars during his last seven years. He originally joined the WSU staff in 1989 as defensive line coach and moved to outside linebackers from 1991-94. In addition to coordinating the recruiting, Zeches also coached the tight ends his final two seasons.

A Los Angeles native, Zeches earned two varsity letters while playing center at Cal-State Northridge (1971-72). Following five years of coaching preps, Zeches served as a graduate assistant at UCLA from 1978-80 under Terry Donahue. Zeches joined Dennis Green's staff at Northwestern in 1981 coaching the defensive line until '86.

In 1987, Zeches began his 14-year tenure under Mike Price by taking the inside linebackers coaching spot on Price's Weber State staff. Zeches was hired as defensive line coach when Price was named the Cougars head coach in '89.

Born 10-4-50, Zeches and his wife, Kathy, have one son, Brian, who is a quarterback at Idaho State. The couple resides in Tempe, AZ.

JOHN BRUNNER PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

John Brunner is in his 13th season with the 49ers and begins his second season as a personnel consultant.

He has 20 years experience as an NFL assistant coach and scout, including duties with Detroit (running backs coach, 1980-82), Green Bay (running backs coach, 1983), Tampa Bay (offensive coordinator, 1984), New England (scout, 1985-86) and Minnesota (running backs coach, 1987-91).

Brunner played college football at Maryland (1955-56) and East Stroudsburg State (1958-59). After earning his master's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1960, he coached high school and college football for 20 years, holding positions at Middletown (NY) High (1960-66), Villanova (1967-69), Temple (1970-73 & 1977-79) and Princeton (1974-75).

Born in Perkesie, PA (9-6-37), Brunner has seven children: Scott (former NFL quarterback), Jack, Penny, Jan, Jeff, Todd (regional scout for the 49ers) and Mark. John and his wife, Pat, reside in Clearwater, FL.

BILL MCPHERSON PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

After 24 years of service for the 49ers as a coach (20) and director of pro personnel (4), Bill McPherson scaled back his duties in June 2003 and is in his second season as a personnel consultant. He will advise the personnel department.

McPherson served 20 years (1979-98) as an assistant coach for the 49ers. One of the most respected teachers in the game, his coaching capacities included assistant head coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach, defensive coordinator and defensive assistant. He was the Director of Pro Personnel from 1999-02.

A defensive tackle at Santa Clara in the early '50s, McPherson began coaching in 1956 at his high school alma mater, San Jose's Bellarmine Prep (1956-62), following U.S. Army service in Korea.

He later was the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Santa Clara for 12 years (1963-74) before moving to UCLA as defensive line coach (1975-77).

At UCLA, he worked with Dick Vermeil, whom he later joined as an assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles (1978) as linebackers coach for one year before joining the 49ers in 1979.

"Mac" was inducted into Santa Clara's Athletic Hall of Fame as a player and coach (1984) and was appointed to the University's Board of Fellows in 1989. He holds a business degree from Santa Clara ('54) and a teacher's certification (secondary degree) from San Jose State ('58).

Born (10-24-31) in Santa Clara, CA, Bill and his wife, Elsie, have five grown children: Michael, Claire, Joanne, Marianne and Patrick, who is the quarterbacks coach for the Denver Broncos. The couple lives in San Jose, CA.

ETHAN WAUGH PLAYER PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Ethan Waugh enters his first season as a player personnel assistant for the San Francisco 49ers. His duties include assisting the personnel department in a variety of areas, including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players. He will also work extensively with the 49ers College Scouting database.

He joins the 49ers after spending the past two seasons at Illinois Wesleyan, where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Prior to that, Waugh was an assistant at Western Carolina from 1997-01, where he worked with linebackers, defensive ends, tight ends and special teams. He also worked with the running backs in 2000 and '01.

Waugh grew up in Libertyville, IL and attended Lake Forest College, lettering two seasons as a defensive back before transferring to Lawrence University in Appleton, WI. A 1997 graduate of Lawrence with a bachelor's degree in history, he lettered for two seasons as a quarterback and as a receiver. He earned a master's degree in American history from Western Carolina in 1999.

Waugh comes from a football family—his father, Maury, was Ethan's head coach at Lake Forest and is currently coaching at Wayne State in Detroit, MI.

He and his wife, Allison, were married in the spring of 2003.

MIKE WILLIAMS PLAYER PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Mike Williams is in his fifth season with the 49ers. He joined the 49ers in 1999 as a volunteer in the personnel department and became full-time as a player personnel assistant in the spring of 2000.

His duties include advance scouting, evaluating free agents, setting up free agent workouts, establishing and maintaining contacts with player agents and coordinating draft room operations.

Prior to the 49ers, Williams was the defensive coordinator at De Anza College in Cupertino, CA in 1998. He served one year as the linebackers coach at Southern Utah University in 1997. Before working at Southern Utah, he was the defensive coordinator at St. Lawrence (Santa Clara, CA) High for three seasons. While volunteering for the 49ers in 1999, he taught at St. Lawrence.

Williams earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Santa Clara in 1989, where he was a four-year starter at safety and graduated as the school's all-time leading tackler. He attended Mater Dei (Santa Ana, CA) High, where he participated in football, basketball and track.

He and his wife, Holly, have a daughter, Emily Angeline (4-28-04). The family resides in Menlo Park, CA.

TODD LAZENBY HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Todd Lazenby is in his ninth year with the 49ers and second as head athletic trainer.

In 2001, Lazenby and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award. The Ohio native was particularly active in treating and rehabbing both Bryant Young (leg) and Garrison Hearst (ankle) from career-threatening injuries.

Lazenby joined the organization following five years with the HealthSouth Corporation in Orlando, FL, where he was the staff athletic trainer. During his tenure with HealthSouth (1991-95), Lazenby coordinated the HealthSouth golf program, covered high school athletics and treated patients in the clinic. He arrived with familiarity to the 49ers organization, having worked the team's 1990 training camp.

Prior to joining HealthSouth in 1991, Lazenby served as a graduate assistant on the training staff at Ohio State. While with the Buckeyes, he worked with a number of sports including the football, ice hockey and men's gymnastics teams, among a host of others.

Lazenby earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio State in health education and a master's degree in sports management. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

He and his wife, Stevie, have a son, Caleb (8-3-95), and a daughter, Lilli (12-10-98) . The family lives in Milpitas, CA.

JEFF TANAKA ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Tanaka is in his sixth year as an assistant athletic trainer and his second coordinating the rehabilitation programs of the 49ers injured players. He spent the two previous years at the University of California in the same capacity.

In 2001, Tanaka and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award.

Tanaka had four stints in the professional ranks before his tenure at Cal, beginning with a training camp internship with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant with the 49ers (1995-96) before accepting a position as an assistant athletic trainer for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1997.

After one season in Amsterdam, Tanaka spent the next three years at Cal, where he was head athletic trainer for men's basketball, the men's and women's swim teams, as well as assisting with the football team.

Tanaka received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in 1994 and, in 2001, earned a master's degree in kinesiology from San Jose State. As a student trainer at Cal Poly, Tanaka had experience with all 17 sports for the Mustangs, including football, basketball and women's volleyball. While serving his graduate assistantship through San Jose State, he was the first athletic trainer at Santa Teresa (CA) High, where he implemented the program and facility.

Born (4-14-71) in San Jose, CA, Tanaka graduated from Branham High. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers Association (CATA).

He is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

DIONNE CALHOUN ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dionne Calhoun enters his second season as assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers.

Prior to getting the full-time position with San Francisco, Calhoun spent the 2002 season as an intern for San Francisco and was a training camp intern from 1999-01.

Calhoun worked the early part of 2003 as a trainer at Pacific Threx and was responsible for implementing rehab programs. Prior to the 49ers, he worked at South Bay Spine and Sport as an athletic trainer, designing and implementing post-operative rehab programs and assessing patients.

Calhoun received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, with an emphasis in athletic training, from San Diego State in 2000. While a student at SDSU, he was a student trainer and helped with the football, men's basketball, hockey, lacrosse, rugby and men's volleyball programs. After graduation, he was the head football trainer at Marion Catholic (Imperial Beach, CA) High.

Born (7-9-76) in Compton, CA, Calhoun graduated from Banning (Wilmington, CA) High in 1995. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers Association (CATA).

He is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

STEVE URBANIAK EQUIPMENT MANAGER

After five seasons with the 49ers as an assistant, Steve Urbaniak is in his second season as equipment manager with the 49ers.

He came to San Francisco in 1999 after serving a one-year internship with the Miami Dolphins in 1998. While in Miami, he served as a member of the host team assigned to the Denver Broncos prior to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Urbaniak attended East Carolina University, where he helped the Pirates reach consecutive Liberty Bowls as a punter before spending two years as the team's student manager. He graduated with a degree in therapeutic recreation in 1998. A certified athletic equipment manager, Urbaniak is also a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He added acting to his resume in 1998, playing a small role in the feature film Any Given Sunday.

Urbaniak was born (1-6-76) in Lowville, NY. He is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

SACKING LINEBACKERS

Julian Peterson, Derek Smith, Jeff Ulbrich and Jamie Winborn did a tremendous job of putting pressure on the quarterback. Peterson had 7.0 sacks, Smith had 3.5, Winborn had 3.0 sacks and Ulbrich had 2.5 sacks. The unit accounted for 39 percent of the team's 42 sacks. This was the highest percentage that a 49ers linebacking crew accounted for since 1993 when Tim Harris, Bill Romanowski, Mike Walters, John Johnson and Martin Henderson accounted for 57 percent of the sack total (23.5 out of 41 sacks). The unit was buoyed by Harris' 17 sacks, the third highest total in team history.

49ERS FOUNDATION

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The 49ers Foundation was established in 1991 as the non-profit community outreach extension of the San Francisco 49ers. It is dedicated to enhancing the educational, social and cultural needs of our community. The 49ers Foundation offers unique resources and financial support to non-profit organizations, working to enrich and strengthen communities throughout the greater San Francisco Bay Area.

The money raised by the 49ers Foundation is allocated through grants to local Bay Area charities. The 49ers Foundation enables individuals and corporations to make contributions to help those in need of assistance in our community. Participation in one of several outstanding events or programs through charitable donations is a win-win for everyone.

The 49ers Foundation awarded grants totaling over $900,000 in 2003-04. Recipients included the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto, the YMCA of San Francisco, Architectural Foundation of San Francisco, East Side College Preparatory School, Young Dreams Foundation, Boys and Girls Club, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Cadence Stars and Strikes, After-School All-Stars and Halloween Heroes.

The 49ers Academy

Since opening in 1995, the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto has received a steady stream of support from the entire 49ers organization. From owners Denise DeBartolo York and John York to 49ers defensive tackle Bryant Young and his wife Kristin, there has been a strong commitment to the ideals of the 49ers Academy.

The school provides students in grades six through eight with comprehensive academic, social and emotional services such as conflict resolution, art therapy and grief counseling.

49ers Community Quarterback Awards

Through a grant from NFL charities, the 49ers Foundation awarded $20,000 to six agencies who thrive due to outstanding volunteer support. Paul Sanford of Trips for Kids (TFK) was the 49ers 2003 Community Quarterback Award winner. Because of Paul's dedication and commitment, TFK of Mill Valley, CA received $10,000.

Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team

The Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team is a unique collaboration between the San Francisco 49ers, the San Francisco Giants, the Oakland A's, the Golden State Warriors, the San Jose Sharks and the Oakland Raiders to provide scholarship assistance to deserving Bay Area high school students. Each team has a special presentation to honor the winners collectively. The program began in 1996 and has received national recognition for its ability to bring all teams in one market together for a worthy cause.

Fundraising Activities

The 49ers Foundation presents a variety of fundraising activities during the year to bring players and fans together to raise the funds necessary to grant to charitable organizations.

• 49ers Foundation Celebrity Ski Classic

The 49ers Foundation Celebrity Ski Classic has grown into one of the premiere social and fundraising events in 49ers history. The 4th Annual Celebrity Ski Classic brought 49ers players, coaches and management together with Olympians and top corporate executives in a combined effort to support the 49ers Foundation. Since its inception in 2001, the 49ers Ski Classic has raised over one million dollars for the 49ers Foundation. The money raised is donated to Bay Area charities benefiting children.

• 49ers Foundation Golf Tournament

The 11th Annual 49ers Golf Tournament was held May 2-3, 2004. The pre-tournament dinner was hosted at 49ers headquarters in Santa Clara Sunday evening, May 2, followed by a successful day of golf at Castlewood Golf and Country Club in Pleasanton.

• Open Your Hearts to the Children Benefit

The 49ers Foundation, in conjunction with Hedge Funds, a group of concerned Hedge Funds Care professionals dedicated to raising money for child abuse treatment and prevention in Northern California, held the third annual "Open Your Hearts to the Children Benefit." The event raised over $600,000 at the Westin St. Francis Hotel in March 2004.

49ERS FOUNDATION GRANT FUNDING

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR A GRANT AND HOW DO YOU APPLY?

If your organization is a 501(c)3 non-profit, located in the greater San Francisco Bay Area, you are eligible for a 49ers Foundation grant. Grant proposals are accepted January through April each year.

Requests should be no more than two pages and must include the following information:

- A description of the organization
- A description of the project in need of funding
- A copy of the organization's IRS determination letter granting tax exempt status
- A list of prior contributors

Please be advised that we do not fund the following areas:

- Land, building or vehicle purchases
- Endowments
- Political campaigns
- Religious organizations (projects to promote a given religion)
- Loans of any type
- Personal scholarships (ask for further information on the Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team (BAAST) Program)
- Travel
- Organizations based outside the greater Bay Area

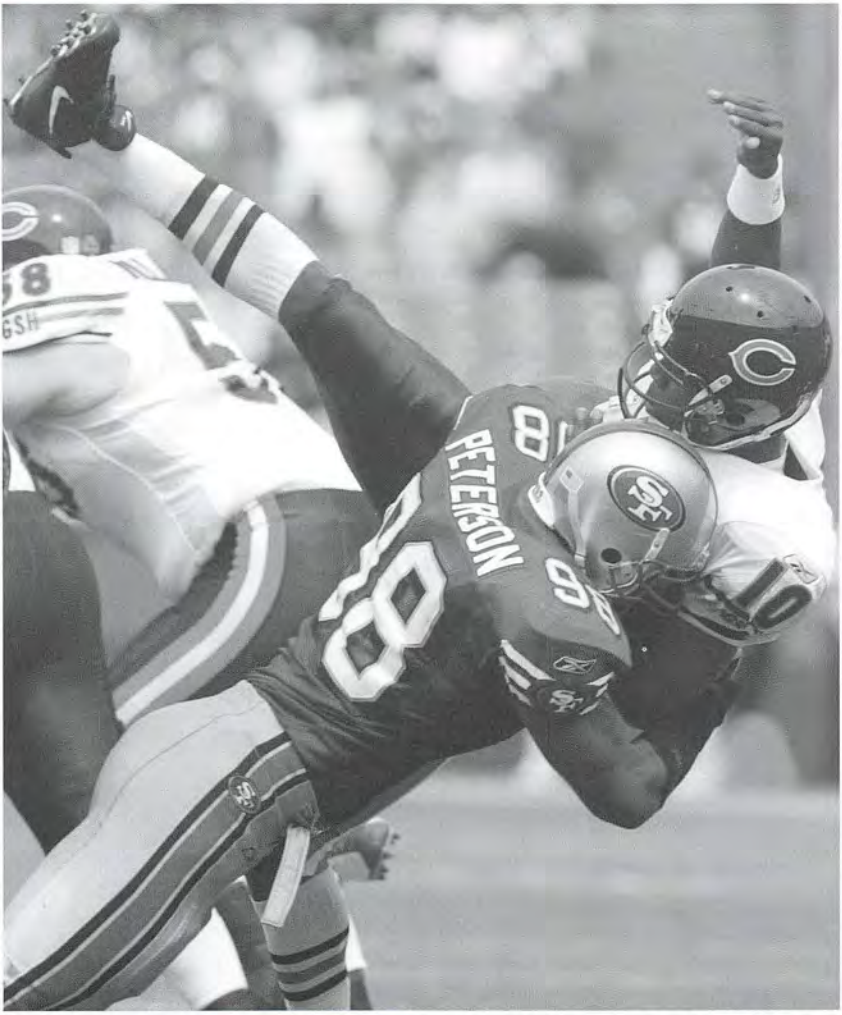

Please mail your proposal to:

San Francisco 49ers Foundation
Attn: Grant Funding
4949 Centennial Blvd.
Santa Clara, CA 95054-1229

Grants are awarded once a year (May) and a few charities will be chosen to attend a check presentation at a 49ers home game.

Non-profit organizations are eligible to receive a maximum of one grant within a two-year period.

Due to the volume of proposals we receive, not all funding requests can be fulfilled. Please allow two to four weeks for review of your proposal. All applicants will receive written notification of our decision.

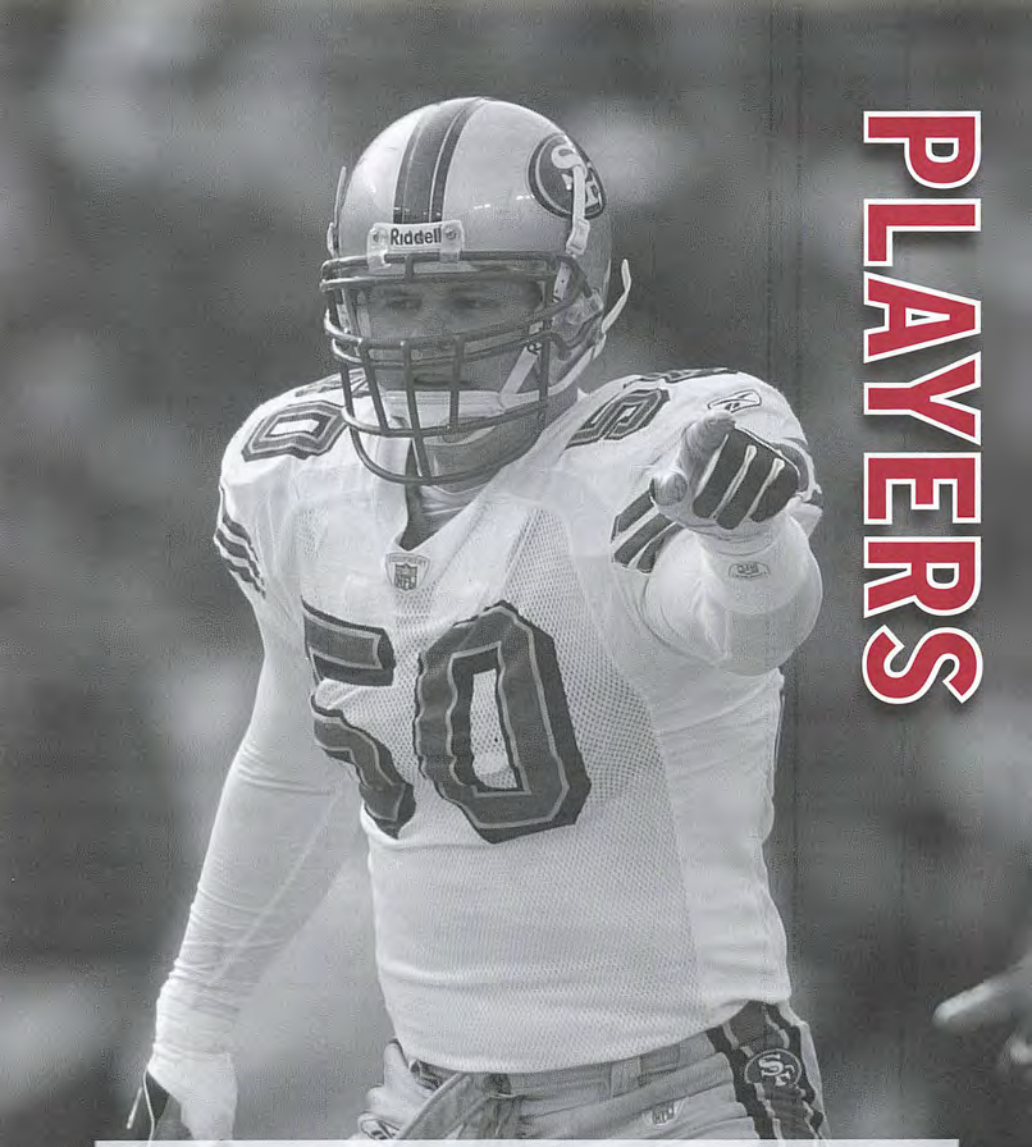

LB Julian Peterson was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl in 2003 after recording a career-high seven sacks.

RUN DEFENSE

San Francisco's run defense was one of the tops in the NFL and was very stiff at home in 2003. In eight games, the 49ers allowed only 459 yards, good for an average of 57.4 yards per game. This was tied with the 2001 Pittsburgh Steelers for the second-lowest total in an NFL 16-game schedule.

DID YOU KNOW...

Growing up in Louisiana, in the land of New Orleans Saints and Dallas Cowboys fans, Arnaz grew up a San Francisco 49ers fan. A high school quarterback, Arnaz was a huge fan of Joe Montana and naturally became a fan of Montana's alma mater, Notre Dame. So not only did he end up playing as a quarterback at Notre Dame and wearing Montana's #3 jersey, he's also now wearing the uniform of another Montana team–a 49ers uniform.

DID YOU KNOW...

For all his life, Fred has been breaking horses in and around Alabama. The purpose of breaking horses is to transform a wild horse into a tame horse in order for people to be able to handle them suitably. Whenever Fred finds time and makes his way home to Alabama, he and his brother-in-law spend time out on the ranch working with the wild horses. At times, Fred will ride the wild horse until it becomes used to the human touch.

DID YOU KNOW...

While most players look for a second career in front of the camera when they retire, Curtis has charted out the opposite approach. He has worked on establishing a movie production company for the last two years and looks forward to dabbling in the art of making movies when his playing days are over. He has also appeared on "Married with Children" and various other projects.

DID YOU KNOW...

When Brandon Doman and his wife Alisha were married, they had their wedding reception at the University of Utah's football stadium. As a huge Utes fan, Alisha's father recommended that they use Utah's football field for the reception. Even though Brandon attended rival BYU, the soon to be son-in-law was a good sport and agreed. All of his football coaches that attended the wedding wore BYU Cougar blue in support.

Ken began playing the flute in the third grade. He chose the flute after his dad recommended it, even though he didn't know what a flute was. His dad described it with an air demonstration that was so good that Ken played the flute in his school band through seventh grade.

MR. TAKEAWAY

Tony Parrish finished tied for the NFL lead with nine interceptions in 2003. A San Francisco player has only led the league in interceptions on two other occasions. The last time a 49er led the league in picks was 1986 when Ronnie Lott had 10. The only other time was in 1960 when Dave Baker also had 10. Parrish had nine interceptions on the season, three led to 49ers touchdowns and another that led to a game-winning field goal. Since last season, Parrish has 18 total takeaways (16 interceptions and two fumble recoveries) that have led to nine scores for the 49ers offense (four touchdowns and five field goals).

BIG PLAY DEFENSE

In 2003, San Francisco's defense had a penchant for making game altering plays. The 49ers were 13th in yards allowed, ninth against the run and 17th against the pass. However, San Francisco was fifth in both sacks per pass play and interceptions per pass and tied for fourth with 37 takeaways. Baltimore and Philadelphia are the only other teams to rank in the top five in percentage of interceptions and sacks per play.

FAST, YOUNG AND HEALTHY

When Terry Donahue took over as General Manager of the 49ers, his mission was to make the 49ers "fast, young and healthy." San Francisco's roster has greatly improved since 1999, primarily through the draft. In 1999, there were 19 players drafted by the 49ers on the roster. Currently there are 31 drafted players on the roster, not including the team's 10 2004 draft picks. The team had two Pro Bowlers in 1999, three in 2000, six in 2001 and 2002, along with three in 2003.

DID YOU KNOW...

During his junior and senior year at Crossland High, Julian got a job installing and repairing air conditioning and heating units. While Peterson naturally enjoyed building and working with his hands, the job required training. He had to take a three-hour, five day a week course at Crossland before he and his classmates could see time in the field.

Jamal was discovered to play college football in an interesting turn of events. He originally played at Central State (OH) and after his first year the school dropped the football program. Jamal was out of football for a year and a half. He was walking through the mall one day when a coach who played high school football against Jamal's brother stopped him and asked him if he wanted to play football at Ohio Northern, a non-scholarship school. Jamal took a chance and starred at the school, becoming Ohio Northern's all-time career leader in rushing and the 2002 Offensive MVP of NFL Europe, earning a spot on San Francisco's roster last season.

DID YOU KNOW...

After his playing career, Brandon wants to own a real estate development company. He's inspired by his grandfather, who use to work in a lumberyard. Brandon has become an avid handyman, working on his house in Lake Tahoe. He would love one day to renovate some of the older homes in the Tahoe area and then resell them. He finds doing home improvement work "very therapeutic."

DID YOU KNOW...

An aspiring music producer, Jamie has a horn up on some of his competition. He has been interested in a wide variety of instruments since a young age and was even "first chair" as a clarinet player as an eighth grader. No stranger to the arts and education, Jamie recently went back to school and graduated with a degree in human organizational development at Vanderbilt University, fulfilling a promise he made to his family and friends when he left school early as a junior in 2001.

DID YOU KNOW...

Bryant and his wife, Kristin, have been following a class at the 49ers Academy since the group was in the sixth grade. The Youngs encouraged these at-risk students to study with various incentives, including private tutors, pizza parties and classroom visits. The 50 members of the "Dream Team" graduated this June where Bryant was the guest speaker. The Youngs will continue to support the group throughout high school with support and assistance. Upon graduation, if the students follow certain requirements, they will be provided with college tuition through the Young Dreams Foundation.

YOUNG'S NFL HONORS: Pro Bowl - 1996, 1999, 2001, 2002; All-Pro - 1996, 1998, 1999, 2001; NFL Defensive Rookie-of-the-Year (UPI) - 1994; NFL Comeback Player-of-the-Year - 1999

CAREER YEAR

Kevan Barlow's first career 1,000-yard season was significant in San Francisco's history. With a 5.1-yard rushing average, Barlow was tied for the third highest average in team history for a 49ers running back with over 1,000 yards. His 201 carries were also the third fewest for a San Francisco running back with 1,000 yards.

LINEBACKER U

Julian Peterson, Derek Smith, Jeff Ulbrich and Jamie Winborn combined for 532 tackles, 16.0 sacks, five forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and two interceptions in 2003. All three starting linebackers had over 100 tackles (Smith 189, Peterson 144 and Ulbrich 138). The 471 tackles from Smith, Peterson and Ulbrich were the most by a linebacking trio in team history. The last time three players each had more than 100 tackles in a season was 1998 when Ken Norton Jr. led the team with 155, Tim McDonald had 131 and Winfred Tubbs added 112.

HISTORIC START

When Kwame Harris started against St. Louis (9-14-03), it was the first time a rookie started for San Francisco at left tackle since 1953. In 1953, two rookies, Doug Hogland and Hal Miller, started at left tackle. At 21 years, five months and 29 days, Harris was the third youngest starter at any position in San Francisco history.

BRINGING THE HEAT

With 7.0 sacks in 2003, Julian Peterson tied with Seattle's Chad Brown as the NFC's top pass-rushing linebacker. The four-year veteran led the 49ers in sacks and ranked fourth in the NFL among linebackers. Terrell Suggs (12.0), Mike Vrabel (9.5) and Peter Boulware (8.5) were the top three pass-rushing linebackers in the NFL. The last time a 49ers linebacker led the team in sacks was 1995 when Rickey Jackson had 9.5 sacks.

GAME 1
VS. CHICAGO BEARS
SEPTEMBER 7, 2003 @ 3COM PARK
WON 49-7 RECORD 1-0

San Francisco showed the best offense is a great defense in a 49-7 home opener rout against the Chicago Bears.

The 49ers put up impressive numbers in their first game in the Dennis Erickson era. San Francisco finished with a staggering 26 points off turnovers with three interceptions, one interception return for a touchdown and five sacks. Defensively, San Francisco only gave up 95 yards passing and 55 yards rushing. Chicago QB Kordell Stewart had a quarterback rating of 21.9.

Stewart was on the run all day and was constantly battered by a ferocious, determined 49ers defense. The defense helped establish the 49ers offense, often leaving them with a short field to work with. San Francisco finished with 391 total yards (229 passing, 162 rushing).

K Jeff Chandler opened the scoring with a 22-yard field goal in the first quarter. After a Chicago punt, San Francisco marched down the field with a seven-play, 71-yard drive capped by a 12-yard touchdown pass from QB Jeff Garcia to RB Garrison Hearst.

After the 49ers forced another Bears punt, Garcia threw his only interception of the day to S Mike Brown. The Bears quickly capitalized when Stewart found TE Desmond Clark on a three-yard touchdown reception.

Garcia added a three-yard touchdown run after CB Jimmy Williams made the special teams play of the day, forcing and recovering a fumble on WR Bobby Wade on the rookie's first punt return.

Garcia then connected with WR Tai Streets on a 16-yard touchdown. CB Ahmed Plummer added the highlight of the day, a 68-yard interception return for a touchdown, the first of his career. Plummer ended with two interceptions on the day, the ninth and 10th of his young career.

Chandler then connected on four additional field goals from 29, 28, 24 and 26 yards to cap off a CAREER-HIGH day. Hearst added his second touchdown of the day on a one-yard run.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a team-high seven tackles. CB Mike Rumph and LB Derek Smith each added five stops. Rumph notched his first career sack, while Smith added a half sack.

GAME 2
VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
SEPTEMBER 14, 2003 @ EDWARD JONES DOME
LOST 27-24 (OT) RECORD 1-1

REVIEW

With injuries to every member of the offensive line, the San Francisco 49ers dropped a lively 27-24 overtime contest against St. Louis when former 49ers K Jeff Wilkins hit the game-winning field goal in overtime.

San Francisco opened up the scoring with a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Jeff Garcia to WR Tai Streets. The score was set up by a fumble recovery by S Dwaine Carpenter after a muffed punt return by St. Louis.

The Rams answered with a score of their own when QB Marc Bulger found WR Torry Holt in the back of the end zone for an 11-yard score.

San Francisco ended the scoring in the first half with a 35-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler.

The second half opened and the momentum jumped quickly to the Rams side when St. Louis made a concerted effort to get the ball to RB Marshall Faulk. Bulger also had a big second half, leading the Rams on three scoring drives. He was 7-of-8 for 70 yards in the fourth quarter alone. He connected with WR Dane Looker on a 19-yard scoring pass to put the Rams up 21-17 with 13:15 remaining.

Wilkins responded with a 29-yard field goal to extend the Rams lead, 24-17, with 3:20 remaining.

Undaunted, Garcia rallied his troops down the field and relied on the veteran legs of RB Garrison Hearst. Garcia completed passes to WR Terrell Owens and WR Cedrick Wilson before Hearst ripped off a 36-yard run to the Rams 41-yard line.

Two plays later, Hearst busted off a 13-yard gain up the middle and the 49ers were within scoring position. After a penalty and some incompletions, the 49ers found themselves staring at fourth down from the 13-yard line and 19 seconds on the clock. Garcia dropped back and quickly found Owens across the middle for the game-tying touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff the 49ers recovered a fumble and had another chance. On second down with nine seconds remaining, Garcia hit Wilson down the sideline. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled and time ran out. The game was forced into overtime, where Wilkins made the game-winning 28-yard field goal.

VS. CLEVELAND BROWNS
SEPTEMBER 21, 2003 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 13-12 RECORD 1-2

On an afternoon where the heat took center stage, the Cleveland Browns squeaked out a come-from-behind victory as they used two fourth quarter QB Kelly Holcomb touchdown passes to defeat the San Francisco 49ers 13-12.

The San Francisco offense looked poised to put the visitors in a hole early as QB Jeff Garcia led San Francisco on an impressive opening drive. However, the offense was unable to capitalize as FB Fred Beasley was stymied on two attempts from the one-yard line by the Cleveland defense.

San Francisco dominated the first half statistics as its 158 yards nearly doubled the offensive output of the Browns. But the Cleveland defense kept the 49ers out of the end zone on three trips to the red zone, including two times in the first half.

The 49ers did manage to build a 6-0 first-half lead as K Owen Pochman connected on the first two field goals of his career from 38 and 44 yards.

The second half saw more of the same for the 49ers as Pochman extended the San Francisco lead to 9-0 with a 46-yard field goal on the 49ers opening possession. San Francisco continued to build on its lead as the fourth quarter opened as Pochman added his fourth field goal of the game to give the 49ers a 12-0 lead.

The fourth quarter brought the revival of the Cleveland offense as the Browns answered the 49ers scoring drive with a score of their own. They drove 75 yards in eight plays, reaching the end zone on a two-yard pass from Holcomb to WR Andre' Davis with just under 11 minutes remaining, cutting the San Francisco lead to 12-7.

Following an unsuccessful drive by the offense, the 49ers defense provided a lift when LB Julian Peterson intercepted a Holcomb pass. San Francisco's offense was unable to capitalize on the turnover and the 49ers were forced to punt the ball to the Browns.

A strategically-placed 31-yard punt by P Bill LaFleur pinned the Browns deep in their own territory. The Cleveland offense then mounted what would turn out to be the most impressive drive of the afternoon. Holcomb guided Cleveland on a 91-yard, 17-play drive that culminated in the game-winning score, when he found Davis in the back of the end zone for his second touchdown of the game with just 29 seconds remaining.

San Francisco was unable to counter the Browns fourth-quarter attack as the three possessions by the 49ers in the final stanza resulted in just one yard of offense and a turnover. CB Anthony Henry intercepted Garcia to end the game.

VS. MINNESOTA VIKINGS
SEPTEMBER 28, 2003 @ METRODOME
LOST 35-7 RECORD 1-3

WR Randy Moss had five receptions for 93 yards and two touchdowns in the first half as Minnesota improved to 4-0 with a 35-7 victory against San Francisco in a noisy Metrodome.

The Vikings scored on the opening possession on a 15-yard touchdown catch by Moss. San Francisco turned it over on the next possession when a QB Jeff Garcia pass intended for WR Cedrick Wilson was intercepted by S Corey Chavous. The Vikings immediately answered with an eight-play, 38-yard drive, capped by a five-yard touchdown run by RB Onterrio Smith to extend the lead to 14-0.

Minnesota QB Gus Frerotte threw three touchdowns to Moss and finished the game completing 16-of-21 passes for 267 yards and four touchdowns. His quarterback rating was 157.2

Playing without injured starters T Derrick Deese and G Eric Heitmann, Garcia completed 11-of-23 passes for 108 yards and three interceptions. He gave way to QB Tim Rattay, who completed 12-of-18 passes for 146 yards and one touchdown, a 37-yard strike to WR Tai Streets.

The 49ers did most of their damage on the ground with 145 yards rushing. RB Kevan Barlow led all runners with 72 yards. RB Garrison Hearst added 56 yards on 13 carries.

Defensively, DT Anthony Adams recorded his first career sack and DE John Engelberger also registered a sack.

GAME 5
VS. DETROIT LIONS
OCTOBER 5, 2003 @ 3COM PARK
WON 24-17 RECORD 2-3

QB Jeff Garcia threw two touchdowns and rushed for one as San Francisco used two timely interceptions to defeat the Detroit Lions 24-17 in San Francisco.

The victory spoiled former 49ers coach Steve Mariucci 's homecoming in his first return visit to the team he coached from 1997-02.

Detroit had the game's opening possession; however, CB Ahmed Plummer stepped in front of a QB Joey Harrington pass for his third interception of the season.

The 49ers immediately capitalized with a six-play, 23-yard drive capped off with a six-yard touchdown pass from Garcia to WR Terrell Owens. Garcia's touchdown pass was the 100th of his career.

K Owen Pochman continued the scoring with a CAREER-LONG 48-yard field goal and Garcia connected with TE Aaron Walker on his first career touchdown from 14 yards to extend the lead to 17-0.

The Lions roared back, scoring the next 10 points on a 28-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson and a six-yard touchdown reception by TE Michael Ricks from Harrington.

After forcing San Francisco to punt, Detroit started a drive on its own 46-yard line. The Lions took a gamble on fourth and two from the 49ers 35-yard line, but S Tony Parrish intercepted a pass intended for WR Charles Rogers. Parrish returned the ball 49 yards to the Detroit 38-yard line.

After an 11-yard screen pass to RB Kevan Barlow and a 26-yard reception by WR Brandon Lloyd, Garcia perfectly executed a fake and ran a bootleg from one-yard out for San Francisco's final score.

GAME 6
VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS
OCTOBER 12, 2003 @ SEAHAWKS STADIUM
LOST 20-19 RECORD 2-4

Seattle K Josh Brown kicked a 37-yard game-winning field goal with 3:03 remaining to defeat San Francisco 20-19 in front of a nationally-televised Sunday night audience. The game was played at Seahawks Stadium in front of a record 66,437 fans.

Seattle jumped on San Francisco early when QB Matt Hasselbeck connected with TE Itula Mili on a 15-yard touchdown. After sacks by LB Chad Brown and DE Chike Okeafor on QB Jeff Garcia, the Seahawks marched on a 10-play, 57-yard drive, capped by a Brown 27-yard field goal.

Not helping matters for San Francisco in the opening half were injuries to T Derrick Deese and G Eric Heitmann. Deese suffered a sprain to his right ankle, while Heitmann re-injured his right ankle on the opening play of the game.

The Seahawks then tacked onto their lead with a 21-yard touchdown run by FB Mack Strong.

San Francisco got in the scoring column with a nine-play, 46-yard drive that ended when K Owen Pochman connected on a 42-yard field goal to end the half.

The field goal served as a wake up call for the 49ers, who scored on the first possession of the third quarter when RB Garrison Hearst took a handoff up the middle for a six-yard touchdown run to make the score 17-10.

After punts by both teams, S Tony Parrish intercepted a Hasselbeck pass that led to a two-yard bootleg touchdown by Garcia. The 49ers were looking to tie the score at 20; however, P Bill LaFleur mishandled the snap on an extra point attempt and Pochman's desperation effort missed to the right.

The break led to Brown's game-winning field goal en route to the Seattle victory.

The San Francisco defense had four sacks. LB Julian Peterson and LB Derek Smith led the 49ers with 13 tackles apiece.

FOR STARTERS

San Francisco's offense has played especially well when T Kwame Harris starts the game. In the five games Harris started in 2003, the 49ers amassed 1,740 yards, good for an average of 348 yards per game. During this span, the offense averaged 137 rushing yards per game.

GAME 7
VS. TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS
OCTOBER 19, 2003 @ 3COM PARK
WON 24-7 RECORD 3-4

San Francisco avenged its playoff defeat with a 24-7 dismantling of the defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers in front of a sold-out crowd at home.

The 49ers jumped out early to a 7-0 lead when QB Brad Johnson threw a pass that ricocheted off RB Michael Pittman and into the arms of CB Ahmed Plummer for his fourth interception of the season. San Francisco immediately reeled off a five-play, 38-yard drive capped by a seven-yard touchdown run off the right tackle by RB Garrison Hearst.

The two teams traded possessions before Johnson connected with WR Keenan McCardell for a 75-yard touchdown on third down to tie the score at seven.

After the Tampa Bay score, the 49ers established a commanding running game behind T Scott Gragg, G Ron Stone, C Jeremy Newberry, G Kyle Kosier, T Kwame Harris and FB Fred Beasley. The unit led the way for 212 rushing yards and set up play-action passes for the offense to accumulate 458 total yards.

On the first play of the second quarter, QB Jeff Garcia found a wide open WR Tai Streets on a hitch pass. Streets eluded the first Tampa Bay defender and jumped into the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown reception to extend the lead to 14-7.

After a Buccaneers punt, Garcia threw his second touchdown pass, this time to WR Terrell Owens. Owens caught a five-yard out and turned it into an electrifying 75-yard run after eluding two Tampa Bay defenders.

Tampa Bay mounted several drives in the second half, but the 49ers defense was able to seize momentum each time and thwarted their efforts. CB Mike Rumph had his first career interception against Johnson and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Jamie Winborn. When the Buccaneers were driving late in the fourth quarter, LB Julian Peterson intercepted a pass intended for McCardell to seal the victory.

San Francisco's front four had consistent pressure on Johnson throughout the game and DE Andre Carter and DE Chidi Ahanotu each had a sack.

GAME 8
VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS
OCTOBER 26, 2003 @ SUN DEVIL STADIUM
LOST 16-13 (OT) RECORD 3-5

Arizona used an impressive rushing performance, led by 165 yards from RB Marcel Shipp, to defeat San Francisco 16-13 in overtime in the heat of Tempe, AZ. The win was the first for the Cardinals against the 49ers in a decade.

San Francisco jumped out early to a 6-0 lead when QB Jeff Garcia turned an attempted pass play into a 21-yard scramble for a touchdown. However, the 49ers botched the snap on the extra point. That led to a pass from P Bill Lafleur to TE Jed Weaver, which was stopped well short of the goal line.

Arizona immediately answered when QB Jeff Blake converted on a quarterback sneak. San Francisco marched down the field on its next possession. However, an apparent 27-yard touchdown from Garcia to WR Terrell Owens was overturned when officials ruled that Owens did not catch the ball with both of his feet inbounds. The drive ended when K Owen Pochman missed a 45-yard field goal attempt wide right.

The Cardinals reverted to its power running game behind Shipp, who consistently recorded positive yardage behind a mammoth Arizona offensive line. However, San Francisco's defense held on successive possessions in the first half, limiting Arizona to a 53-yard field goal by K Tim Duncan.

Duncan added a 20-yard field goal to extend the Cardinals lead to 13-6 in the third quarter.

San Francisco answered in the fourth quarter with one of the most improbable touchdowns in recent memory when T Kwame Harris caught an errant fumble by Garcia and scored his first career touchdown.

The 49ers defense held again; however, Pochman missed his second field goal of the day, a 35-yarder, which gave the Cardinals possession of the ball with 2:25 left in the game. The Cardinals drove to San Francisco's 32-yard line, but Duncan missed a field goal from 50 yards out to force the game into overtime.

Arizona won the toss in overtime, and after a Pochman kickoff sailed out of bounds, the Cardinals used the advantageous position to win the game on a 39-yard Duncan field goal.

GAME 9
VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
NOVEMBER 2, 2003 @ 3COM PARK
WON 30-10 RECORD 4-5

In a game San Francisco had to win to keep its playoff hopes alive, the 49ers had their most complete game of the season in all three facets of the game as they defeated St. Louis 30-10.

WR Cedrick Wilson opened the game in impressive fashion with a 95-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. The kickoff return for a touchdown was the first by a 49er since RB Terry Kirby took one back 101 yards in a 29-17 win over the Carolina Panthers on November 16, 1997.

St. Louis responded when former 49ers K Jeff Wilkins connected on a field goal from 39 yards to cut the San Francisco lead to 7-3.

QB Tim Rattay started the first game of his career in place of injured QB Jeff Garcia. Rattay calmly led San Francisco down the field and completed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Terrell Owens, extending the lead to 14-3. After the 49ers defense held, newly-signed K Todd Peterson connected on his first field goal as a 49er from 44 yards to increase the lead to 17-3.

Rattay added his second touchdown pass of the first half when he connected with WR Brandon Lloyd on a 27-yard pass. The touchdown was the first of Lloyd's career.

The 49ers opened the second half strong when DT Bryant Young sacked Rams QB Marc Bulger and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Derek Smith.

The 49ers offense and Rattay responded quickly as he found WR Tai Streets on a five-yard slant for his fifth receiving touchdown of the season.

The Rams answered with their first and only touchdown of the game when Bulger found WR Torry Holt in broken coverage for a 41-yard pitch and catch. However, the 49ers did not allow another score en route to the victory.

San Francisco's defense held the Rams rushing game in check only allowing nine yards on the ground. The 49ers sacked Bulger five times with Young, CB Mike Rumph, LB Jeff Ulbrich, LB Jamie Winborn and LB Julian Peterson getting to the Rams quarterback. S Tony Parrish and Rumph also recorded interceptions.

GAME 10
VS. PITTSBURGH STEELERS
NOVEMBER 17, 2003 @ 3COM PARK
WON 30-14 RECORD 5-5

On a star-studded night that featured the jersey retirement of Hall of Fame defensive back Ronnie Lott, it was the young stars of the 49ers that sparkled brightest on Monday Night Football as the 49ers defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers 30-14.

RB Kevan Barlow scored on a 78-yard run, WR Terrell Owens caught eight passes for 155 yards and QB Tim Rattay played his second consecutive brilliant game, completing 21-of-27 passes for 254 yards and two scores.

The big news heading into the game was the jersey retirement of Lott. The big news coming out of the game was the continuing impressive play of Rattay. In his first two starts replacing QB Jeff Garcia, Rattay completed 40-of-56 passes for 490 yards and five touchdowns.

In addition to the touchdown grab, Owens displayed his versatility with a big downfield block on Barlow's run that took out two Steelers defenders.

While the 49ers offense rolled to 423 total yards, the defense, led by safety S Tony Parrish, put on a display that Lott would be proud of. QB Tommy Maddox was sacked twice and Pittsburgh managed just 44 yards rushing—with 14 of those coming on one RB Jerome Bettis run. Parrish also had an interception that he returned 48 yards.

GAME 11
VS. GREEN BAY PACKERS
NOVEMBER 23, 2003 @ LAMBEAU FIELD
LOST 20-10 RECORD 5-6

The weather was damp and dreary, and, unfortunately, the 49ers moods matched the weather after dropping a 20-10 contest to the Green Bay Packers. The loss dropped the 49ers record to 5-6 overall and put a serious damper on their playoff hopes.

The 49ers offense had a performance that they would rather forget. Untimely penalties stalled several scoring opportunities in the first half as the Packers built a 14-3 lead on two QB Brett Favre touchdown passes. The 49ers defense did pick Favre off twice in the first half, one by S Zack Bronson and the other by S Tony Parrish.

QB Tim Rattay was sacked three times by a Packers defense that exploited the 49ers offensive line after G Ron Stone left the game with a hamstring injury. With Stone's absence, the Packers took advantage by increasing the amount of blitzing.

The poor execution resulted in just 110 total yards and one field goal for the 49ers offense. The second half, though better, was still punctuated with inconsistency and penalties. Rattay did connect with WR Terrell Owens on a 24-yard touchdown after CB Mike Rumph picked off Favre for the Green Bay quarterback's third interception of the game.

The Packers added a field goal in the fourth quarter for the game's final score to seal the victory and extend their lead to 20-10.

For the 49ers defense, DE Andre Carter added the team's only sack and LB Derek Smith led all defenders with 15 tackles.

GAME 12
VS. BALTIMORE RAVENS
NOVEMBER 30, 2003 @ M&T BANK STADIUM
LOST 44-6 RECORD 5-7

Three huge breakdowns in the final three minutes of the first half were the 49ers undoing in Baltimore as they fell to the Ravens 44-6.

The 49ers were in the game late into the second quarter despite struggling offensively. After cutting the Ravens lead to 7-6, the 49ers special teams unit gave up a 75-yard kickoff return to Baltimore's DB Lamont Brightful. Taking advantage of excellent field position, K Matt Stover drilled a 28-yard field goal for a 10-7 lead.

After a 49ers punt, the special teams unit was again at the center of attention, this time being flagged for a 15-yard facemask penalty giving the Ravens the ball at midfield. Two plays later, QB Anthony Wright connected with WR Marcus Robinson on a 38-yard touchdown pass.

After the kickoff, the 49ers offense took over and disaster struck quickly. QB Jeff Garcia's pass to WR Cedrick Wilson bounced in the air and into the arms of LB Ray Lewis, who raced 29 yards into the end zone.

Garcia also was victimized on the opening drive of the game after a pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was intercepted by LB Ed Hartwell and returned to the 30-yard line. Three plays later RB Jamal Lewis rolled in from six yards out for the score.

All of the sudden the 49ers found themselves trailing 24-6 in a span of three minutes that ultimately led to the Baltimore victory. Garcia finished the day completing just 14-of-29 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions.

GAME 13
VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS
DECEMBER 7, 2003 @ 3COM PARK
WON 50-14 RECORD 6-7

QB Jeff Garcia was the story of the day as the 49ers pounded the Arizona Cardinals. Garcia threw for four scores and ran for two more as San Francisco throttled the visitors and improved to 6-7 overall. On the opening drive of the game, Garcia completed all three of his passes for 59 yards, while capping the 73-yard scoring drive with a three-yard touchdown run.

Closing out the first quarter, Garcia connected with WR Terrell Owens on a one-yard scoring toss to cap a 56-yard drive. Garcia's second touchdown pass of the day came on the opening drive of the second quarter. One play after throwing a beautiful 31-yard pass to Owens, Garcia connected with WR Tai Streets on an 18-yard touchdown strike down the middle of the Cardinals defense.

After LB Julian Peterson forced a fumble in Arizona territory, Garcia struck again for his fourth touchdown of the first half. On third-and-six from the 27-yard line, Garcia connected with WR Cedrick Wilson on a short crossing pattern that Wilson turned into a touchdown. The extra point attempt was no good after a mishandled snap.

The 49ers defense set up the fifth score of the day. Following a S Tony Parrish interception, Garcia directed a five-play, 50-yard scoring drive that was capped with a two-yard pass to Owens, who was left uncovered by the Arizona defense. Parrish's interception was his fifth in as many games and is the second-longest streak in team history.

After being dropped for a safety, McCown bounced back with a three-yard touchdown pass to FB James Hodgins. Arizona's excitement was short-lived as San Francisco answered with yet another touchdown by Garcia. The quarterback capped a five-play, 41-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run–his second rushing score of the day and his sixth total touchdown. The six scores were a CAREER-HIGH for Garcia, who became only the third person in NFL history to throw four touchdowns and rush for two touchdowns in a game.

RB Kevan Barlow added a CAREER-HIGH 154 rushing yards in his first career start.

GAME 14
VS. CINCINNATI BENGALS
DECEMBER 14, 2003 @ PAUL BROWN STADIUM
LOST 41-38 RECORD 6-8

Cincinnati defeated San Francisco in a shootout in the snow, 41-38, at Paul Brown Stadium.

RB Kevan Barlow, who at times flashed his explosive skills and finished with two touchdowns, also put the ball on the ground twice within the Bengals 15-yard line. Each of his fumbles turned into touchdowns for Cincinnati, who also returned a QB Jeff Garcia fumble for a touchdown.

The 49ers defense couldn't stop the Bengals on offense, especially in the ground game. RB Rudi Johnson rushed 21 times for 174 yards and two touchdowns on the day, but more importantly he stuck a dagger in the defense's heart with two long touchdown runs–one a 49-yard touchdown run and the second, a 47-yard run late in the fourth quarter that led to a score.

Twice in the fourth quarter the 49ers pulled to within three points and were an onside kick recovery away from a chance to win the game. But the end result was a painful one for a San Francisco team that never quit, especially Garcia. The quarterback posted his first 300-yard passing game of the season and frequently moved the offense by his will alone.

Garcia finished the game completing 26-of-33 passes for 344 yards, two passing touchdowns, a running score and the continued respect of his team.

WR Terrell Owens finished with his best outing of the season and was the recipient of Garcia's accurate delivery. Owens finished with eight receptions for 127 yards and one touchdown.

GAME 15
VS. PHILADELPHIA EAGLES
DECEMBER 21, 2003 @ LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD
WON 31-28 (OT) RECORD 7-8

San Francisco used a team effort to thwart Philadelphia's quest for home field advantage in the playoffs with a 31-28 overtime win at Lincoln Financial Field. The victory was the first for the 49ers on the road this season.

Specifically, it was S Tony Parrish who made some of the biggest plays of the game, including his interception in overtime. Parrish also had an interception on the Eagles first play of the game and he saved a touchdown by poking a ball out of WR Todd Pinkston's hands and into the back of the end zone.

Parrish finished with five tackles, three passes defensed and one forced fumble in addition to his two interceptions. Another player deserving of a game ball was RB Kevan Barlow, who had a monster game, finishing with a CAREER-HIGH 30 carries, tying a CAREER-HIGH with 154 yards and rushing for one touchdown on the ground. Barlow also caught three passes for 33 yards and one score.

San Francisco and its fans caught a glimpse of what its future receivers will look like with a great performance from WR Brandon Lloyd. The rookie had two receptions in the game, one for a touchdown, and one that doesn't count in the books, but was equally monumental. His first was a beautiful 33-yard grab for a touchdown in the second quarter. Perhaps his biggest impact was the successful two-point conversion he caught that put the 49ers up by seven points and ultimately led to their overtime win.

QB Jeff Garcia continued a torrid three-game stretch, completing 15-of-29 passes for 225 yards and two touchdowns. His quarterback rating of 100.5 was the third straight game where his rating was over the century mark.

San Francisco's defense limited Philadelphia to only 88 rushing yards. LB Derek Smith led the team in tackles with nine and LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added seven apiece.

GAME 16
VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS
DECEMBER 27, 2003 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 24-17 RECORD 7-9

San Francisco jumped out to an early 14-0 advantage. However, Seattle outscored the 49ers 24-3 the rest of the game en route to a 24-17 victory in San Francisco. The win secured a playoff berth for the Seahawks.

QB Jeff Garcia opened the scoring with a 18-yard pass to TE Jed Weaver in the second quarter. San Francisco's defense took charge on the next possession. LB Jeff Ulbrich sacked QB Matt Hasselbeck and then intercepted a pass on the next play.

The turnover set up Garcia's second touchdown of the day when he connected with WR Cedrick Wilson on a 14-yard score.

The Seahawks answered with five minutes left in the second half when Hasselbeck connected with WR Alex Bannister on a 31-yard touchdown. CB Marcus Trufant intercepted a Garcia pass on the next possession and RB Shaun Alexander ran around the left end for a three-yard score to tie the score at 14 heading into the intermission.

San Francisco extended its lead to 17-14 when K Todd Peterson booted a 38-yard field goal with 9:34 in the third quarter. This would ultimately be the last score in 2003 for the 49ers as WR Koren Robinson hauled in a 30-yard touchdown from Hasselbeck. K Josh Brown also connected on a 33-yard field goal for the Seahawks with 1:56 left in the game to seal the victory.

Perhaps most surprising was the 49ers inability to run the ball. The Seahawks held the 49ers to just 59 yards rushing on 22 carries—an average of 2.7 yards, well below the 49ers season average. RB Kevan Barlow paced the efforts with 40 yards on just 14 carries.

Defensively, Ulbrich led San Francisco with 12 tackles. LB Derek Smith, who finished with a TEAM-RECORD 189 tackles, added 10 tackles. CB Jason Webster added an interception and three passes defensed.

SPECIAL PLAYER

Jimmy Williams made an immediate impact on special teams against Chicago (9-7-03). Williams recorded three special teams tackles, forced a fumble and recovered the ball on the same play. He also added an interception as the nickel corner. The last time a player had an interception, forced fumble and fumble recovery was against New Orleans (9-14-97) when Rod Woodson had three interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

ANNUAL LEN ESHMONT AWARD

The Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers most prestigious annual honor, has been given each year to the 49er who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont. A member of the original 1946 49ers team, Eshmont coached at Navy and Virginia following his playing days with the 49ers. Eshmont died in 1957.

LEN ESHMONT AWARD WINNER

Julian Peterson was named the winner of the 2003 Len Eshmont award in a vote by his teammates. He is the first linebacker to win the award since 1984 when Keena Turner picked up the honor. At 25 years of age, Peterson is the second youngest 49er to win the award following safety Dave Baker, who received the award in 1960 at 23 years of age.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and committment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl Champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979. He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl Championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements," Walsh said.

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

TOUGH UNDER CENTER

One year after Jeremy Newberry became a regular member of the starting lineup, the 49ers own the league's second most productive regular season rushing attack with 13,208 yards. Newberry has started 69 consecutive games in which he has been active, although he fought a variety of nagging injuries that limited his effectiveness during practice in 2003. After sustaining multiple high ankle sprains the past two seasons, he had exploratory surgery where it was determined that one of the ligaments in his ankle had degenerated to the point that it was virtually missing. With training camp a few weeks away, Newberry decided to forgo a surgical repair because it would have meant missing the 2003 season. In order to manage his ankle during the season, he had to modify his practice schedule. Newberry worked tirelessly with the athletic training and strength and conditioning staffs to maintain his high level of play. His workout regimen consisted of pool work and heavily taping his injured ankle for practice. He had surgery in the off-season to repair the ligaments in his ankle.

2003 AWARD WINNING 49ERS

PRO BOWL

FRED BEASLEY — Beasley earned his first career trip to the Pro Bowl and was voted as the starting fullback for the NFC squad. With Beasley and a strong offensive line leading the way, running backs Garrison Hearst and Kevan Barlow made a productive one-two combination, amassing 1,797 yards and nine touchdowns between the two of them. Beasley had 19 receptions for one touchdown and rushed 17 times in 2003.

TERRELL OWENS — Owens was voted to his fourth consecutive trip to Hawaii. Owens again led the 49ers in receiving in 2003, finishing the season with 80 receptions for 1,102 yards and nine touchdowns. It was his fifth 1,000-yard season and fourth consecutive.

JULIAN PETERSON — Peterson earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. He is one of the best all-around linebackers in the NFL and finished the 2003 season with 144 tackles and a CAREER-HIGH 14 passes defensed. He also led the team with seven sacks.

ALL-PRO/ALL-NFL/ALL-NFC

FRED BEASLEY — Named All-Pro by Associated Press (second team) and Football Digest (first team).

TONY PARRISH — Named All-Pro by Associated Press (second team) and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly.

JULIAN PETERSON — Named All-Pro by Associated Press (first team), Sports Illustrated (first team), Football Digest (first team), The Sporting News, All-NFL by Pro Football Weekly and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly.

RON STONE — Named All-Pro by Football Digest (second team).

LEN ESHMONT AWARD

JULIAN PETERSON — Named the recipient of the 48th annual Len Eshmont Award, the team's most prestigious honor. At 25 years of age, Peterson is the second youngest 49er to win the award following safety Dave Baker, who received the award in 1960 at 23 years of age. In a vote by his teammates, the award is given annually to the 49ers player who best exemplifies inspiration and courage. The award was established in 1957 in memory of Len Eshmont, an original member of the 49ers 1946 team, who died in 1957.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

JEREMY NEWBERRY — Named the recipient of the 2003 Bobb McKittrick Award. One year after Newberry became a regular member of the starting lineup in 1999, the 49ers own the league's second most productive regular season rushing attack with 13,208 yards. The award was established by the 49ers in 1999 in honor of longtime offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick. The award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

DEREK SMITH — Smith was named the recipient of the Matt Hazeltine Award, which is named for linebacker/center Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from ALS and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

JEREMY NEWBERRY — Newberry was named the 49ers recipient after starting every game last season despite battling a myriad of injuries, including chronic ankle problems that required surgery, and a right knee bone bruise. The NFL award honors one player from each team who displays courage in overcoming injury or hardship.

GARRY NIVER AWARD

JEFF GARCIA — Given annually to the 49ers player who is most professional with the media.

NFC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

TERRY JACKSON — Special Teams Player of the Week (Week One) — Jackson took part in 23 special teams plays, recording a CAREER-HIGH five special teams tackles and recovering two fumbles in the 49-7 win over Chicago.

AHMED PLUMMER — Defensive Player of the Week (Week Five) — Plummer finished with three tackles, one interception and three passes defensed in the 49ers 24-17 win over Detroit. Plummer intercepted a pass on the Lions opening drive, which the 49ers turned into a touchdown and gave San Francisco the early 7-0 lead.

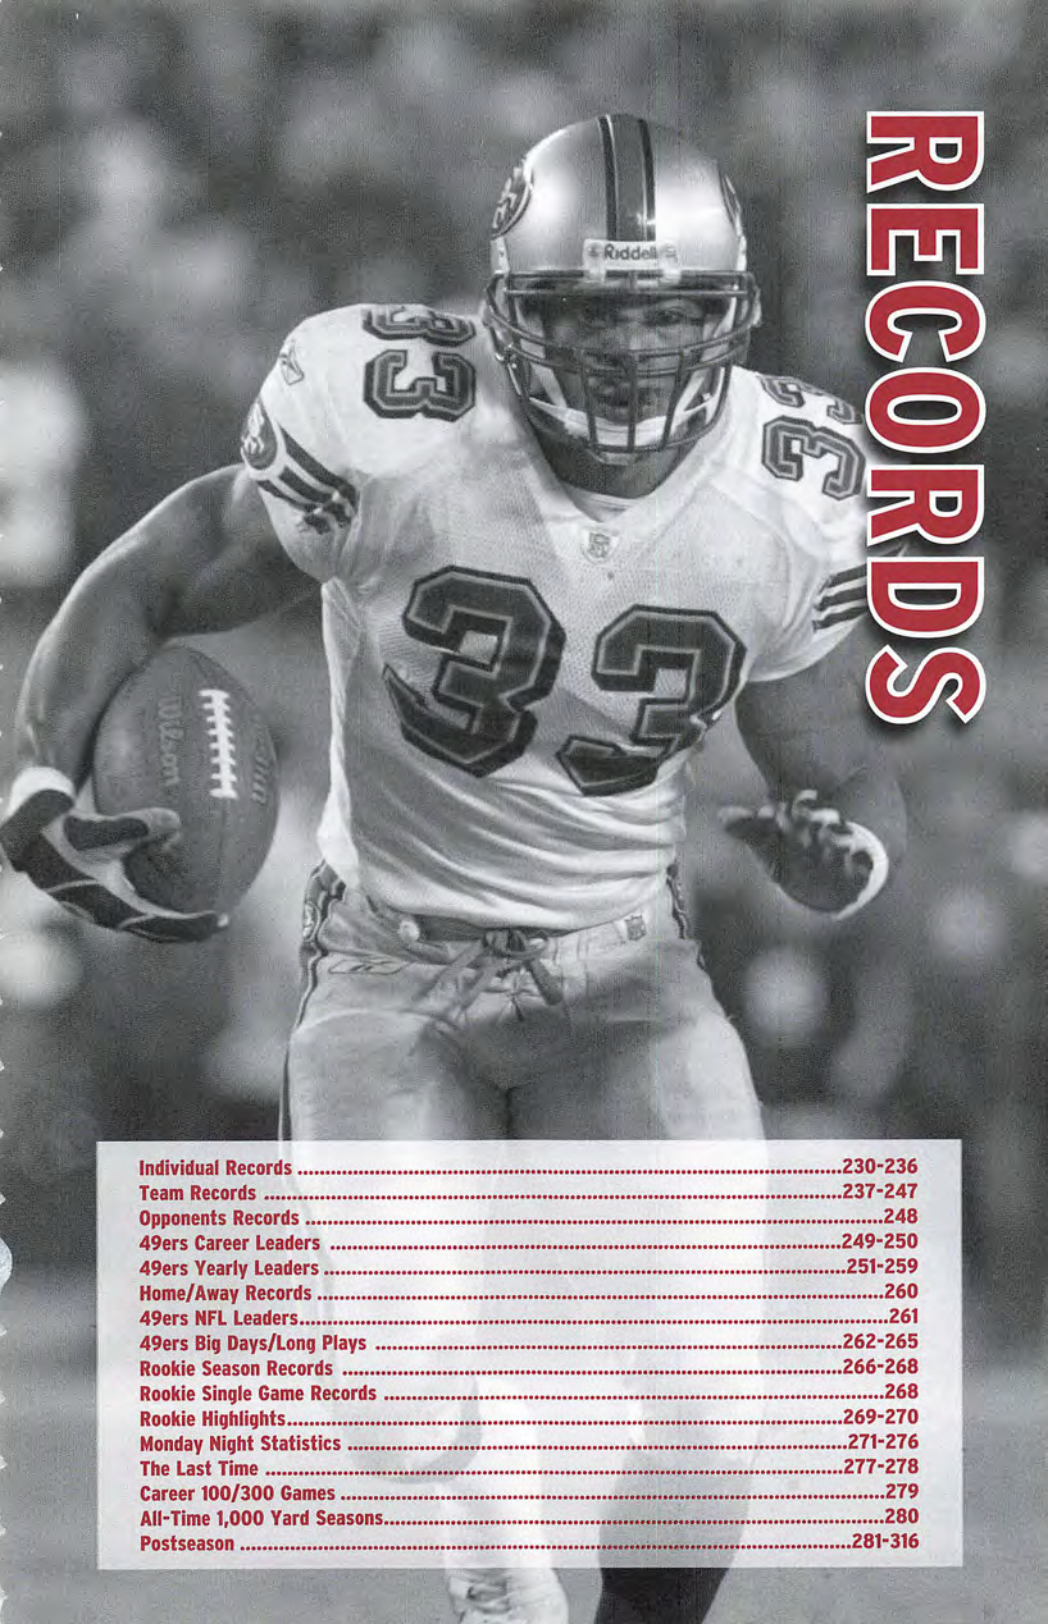

CEDRICK WILSON — Special Teams Player of the Week (Week Nine) — Wilson returned the opening kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown in the 49ers 30-10 win over NFC West rival St. Louis. The kickoff return touchdown was the first by a 49er since Terry Kirby took one back 101 yards in a 29-17 win over the Carolina Panthers (11-16-97). Wilson's return was also the first time a 49er returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown since Carl Monroe scored on a 95-yarder in a 35-8 win over Washington (12-1-85).

JEFF GARCIA — Offensive Player of the Week (Week 14) — Garcia completed 19-of-28 attempts for 252 yards, tied a CAREER-HIGH with four touchdowns and threw no interceptions for a 135.7 passer rating in a 50-14 win over the Arizona Cardinals. He also added 32 yards rushing on five carries, including tying a CAREER-HIGH with two touchdowns. Garcia became the third player in NFL history with four touchdown passes and two touchdown runs in a single game. Kansas City Chiefs quarterback Bill Kenney did it November 27, 1983 in a 51-48 overtime loss to the Seattle Seahawks and Detroit Lions passer Eric Hipple also accomplished the rare six-touchdown effort in a 48-17 win over the Chicago Bears October 19, 1981.

TONY PARRISH — Defensive Player of the Week (Week 16) — Parrish intercepted a pass on the first drive of regulation and the first drive of overtime in the 49ers 31-28 overtime win over Philadelphia. The interception in overtime came deep in Eagles territory and led to the winning field goal for San Francisco. The win was the first on the road for the 49ers in 2003. Parrish also added five tackles, three passes defensed and a forced fumble, in addition to the two picks.

KOSIER ON THE SPOT

Kyle Kosier joins a growing list of 49ers that have started multiple games at multiple positions. He started two games at right tackle, seven at left guard and three at right guard. Other 49ers that have started games at multiple positions along the offensive line include Derrick Deese who played every position on the line during his 10-year career. The last time a San Francisco lineman started at three different positions was 1995 when Kirk Scrafford started four games at left tackle, two games at left guard and four games at right tackle.

KWAME IN THE GAME

When T Kwame Harris started in 2003, San Francisco's offense was extremely potent, especially in its run game. In Harris' five starts with the 49ers, San Francisco averaged 348 yards of total offense a game. The 49ers averaged 137.2 yards on the ground and rushed for over 100 yards in four of his five starts. In fact, San Francisco amassed over 140 yards in two contests (148 vs. St. Louis and 145 vs. Minnesota) and over 200 yards in one (212 vs. Tampa Bay).

49ERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

'57 Detroit Lions 31, 49ers 27
NFL Divisional Playoff
December 22 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco made its first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but came up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium.

QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18-of-31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34-yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game-high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

'70 49ers 17, Minnesota 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 27 at Metropolitan Stadium (Bloomington, MN)

QB John Brodie scored on a one-yard run with just under two minutes remaining to provide the difference as the 49ers claimed a 17-14 decision over Minnesota at a frigid Metropolitan Stadium.

San Francisco was trailing 7-0 in the first quarter when Brodie connected with WR Dick Witcher on a 24-yard scoring toss. Brodie completed 16-of-32 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown.

'70 Dallas Cowboys 17, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 3 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie passed for 262 yards and one touchdown, but it wasn't enough as the Cowboys advanced to Super Bowl V with a 17-10 win over the 49ers at Kezar Stadium.

RB Duane Thomas rushed for 143 yards and scored on a 13-yard run in the third quarter to put Dallas ahead 10-3. Later in the quarter QB Craig Morton connected with RB Walt Garrison on a five-yard toss to put the Cowboys up 17-3.

San Francisco would add to its final score on its next possession with a 26-yard Brodie-to-WR Dick Witcher touchdown, capping an eight-play, 73-yard drive.

'71 49ers 24, Washington Redskins 20
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 26 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10-of-19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24-20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park.

Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78-yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10-10. On the next 49ers possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two-yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17-10 lead.

The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered it for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

'71 Dallas Cowboys 14, 49ers 3
January 2 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

San Francisco and Dallas combined for just 483 yards of total offense in a low-scoring affair at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys received rushing touchdowns from RB Calvin Hill and RB Duane Thomas as they posted a 14-3 win and earned a bid to Super Bowl VI.

San Francisco was paced offensively by RB Vic Washington with 86 yards of total offense. QB John Brodie completed 14-of-30 passes for 184 yards, but was intercepted three times.

DE Cedrick Hardman had a big game with 12 tackles, including two sacks. DE Tommy Hart and LB Frank Nunley had 11 tackles each.

'72 Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 28
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 23 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30-28 come-from-behind win over the 49ers.

Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20-yard touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner.

The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns.

LB Ed Beard led the Niners defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

'81 49ers 38, New York Giants 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted its first postseason win since 1971 with a 38-24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants.

Aiding the 49ers cause was CB Ronnie Lott, who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles.

Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana, who completed 20-of-31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight-yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58-yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

'81 — 49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27
NFC Championship
January 10 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting ending for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28-27.

QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock.

Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark had one of his finest days, posting eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

CB Carlton Williamson led the defensive charge with 12 tackles. LB Jack Reynolds added nine stops and DT Archie Reese added six.

'81 — 49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21
Super Bowl XVI
January 24 at Silverdome (Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20-0 lead at the half and held on for a 26-21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship.

Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards.

Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards.

The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach.

LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

NFC Divisional Playoff
December 31 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

WR Freddie Solomon caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from QB Joe Montana with two minutes remaining to give San Francisco a 24-23 win over the visiting Detroit Lions and earn a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

San Francisco's defense kept the team alive on several occasions, intercepting Detroit QB Gary Danielson five times. LB Riki Ellison had two interceptions while LB Keena Turner, S Dwight Hicks and CB Ronnie Lott had one apiece.

RB Wendell Tyler and RB Roger Craig each scored a touchdown for San Francisco. Tyler rushed for 74 yards on 17 carries and also caught two passes for 15 yards. Craig led the Niners in receiving with seven receptions for 61 yards.

'83 — Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21
NFC Championship
January 8 at RFK Stadium (Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24-21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium.

The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21-0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21-14.

The Redskins went three-and-out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season.

Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

'84 — 49ers 21, New York Giants 10
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 29 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship Game with a 21-10 win over the New York Giants.

San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark, on a 21-yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12-yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine-yard strike to extend the lead to 14-0.

New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29-yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21-10.

DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49ers defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

'84 — 49ers 23, Chicago Bears 0
January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco advanced to Super Bowl XIX with a 23-0 win over the visiting Chicago Bears. The story of the day was the 49ers defense that recorded nine sacks and held the Bears to 186 yards of total offense.

Leading the charge for the defense were DE Gary Johnson and DT Michael Carter. Neither Johnson nor Carter were starters in the game, yet they led the squad with two sacks and six tackles each. LB Riki Ellison recorded a team-high eight tackles.

Offensively, San Francisco was led by QB Joe Montana and RB Wendell Tyler. Montana threw for 233 yards and one touchdown, a 10-yard toss to WR Freddie Solomon in the fourth quarter. Tyler had 68 yards on 10 carries and scored on a nine-yard jaunt early in the third quarter.

'84 — 49ers 38, Miami Dolphins 16
Super Bowl XIX
January 20 at Stanford Stadium (Palo Alto, CA)

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38-16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts, Montana was named Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans.

Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33-yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight-yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second quarter. On the next 49ers possession, Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six-yard run.

His fourth and final score came on a 16-yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and added two scores.

San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards.

S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

'87 Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36-24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears.

Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times.

San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12-of-17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 72 yards on six carries and had a five-yard touchdown run.

S Jeff Fuller established a new 49ers postseason record when he returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. LB Mike Walter posted nine tackles and S Ronnie Lott added eight.

'88 49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9
January 1 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34-9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick.

Rice set a record, that he shares with five other players, with three touchdown receptions. He scored on receptions of two, four and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards.

Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74-yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns.

The 49ers defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defensed. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

January 8 at Soldier Field (Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26 below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28-3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61-yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27-yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14-3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21-3.

FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four-yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards.

The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game-high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass.

Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Montana completed 17-of-27 passes for 288 yards.

Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last.

The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie.

The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown.

An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight-yard line. What happened next is legendary.

Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41-13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park.

The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early.

Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven-yard gain into a 72-yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the rout was on.

Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17-of-24 passes for 241 yards.

The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

NFC Championship
January 14 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

The 49ers defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned its fourth trip to the Super Bowl of the decade with a 30-3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship Game.

San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49ers offense, completing 26-of-30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20-yard strike to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead.

CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27-yard line. A five-play drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig.

It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor.

K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half.

Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig, who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

Super Bowl XXIV
January 28 at Louisiana Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA.

Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards.

The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22-of-29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49ers offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards.

The 49ers defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22-of-31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 28-10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins.

The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10-7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters.

Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to complete a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21-10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard.

It was the 49ers defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown.

CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

'90 New York Giants 15, 49ers 13
January 20 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15-13.

In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6-6 tie.

San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13-6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr.

Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13-12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired.

Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

'92 49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20-13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park.

Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16-yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17-3 lead at halftime.

The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49ers lead to 17-13. The locals responded with a 14-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining.

The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on its final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs.

DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niners defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team-high six stops in the victory.

'92 Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 20
January 17 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24-of-34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30-20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park.

Dallas opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one-yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7-3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10-7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer.

FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three-yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17-10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16-yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24-13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93-yard drive resulting in a five-yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboys lead to 24-20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70-yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six-yard touchdown to secure the win.

Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25-of-35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown.

CB Eric Davis had six tackles to lead the 49ers defense. S Dana Hall, CB Don Griffin and LB Bill Romanowski added five tackles each. DT Ted Washington and DE Kevin Fagan had two sacks each for San Francisco.

'93 49ers 44, New York Giants 3
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

It was a wattered down 49ers attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single-game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44-3 win over the visting New York Giants.

Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team-high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17-of-22 passes for 226 yards in the victory.

The 49ers defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, with only 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team-high five tackles.

The game was marked by several milestone events:

- Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken).
- 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game.
- Watters sets NFL single-game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

'93 Dallas Cowboys 38, 49ers 21
January 23 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7-7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter and that proved to be the difference in their 38-21 win over the visiting 49ers.

The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmit Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven-yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21-point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead.

San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with a four-yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42-yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50-yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Young, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27-of-45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 38 yards. Watters added 37 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown.

LB Michael Walter led the 49ers defense with eight tackles. He was joined by S Merton Hanks and DT Dennis Brown who had seven stops each.

'94 49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15
January 7 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game.

The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away.

San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play.

The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters.

LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single-game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

'94 49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28
January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38-28 NFC Championship Game win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park-record 69,143 (since broken).

On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21-0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter.

Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21-7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63-yard drive with a four-yard run that narrowed the gap to 24-14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28-yard score, giving the 49ers a 31-14 lead heading into the locker room.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13-of-29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

'94 — 49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego.

San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike.

Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play.

The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10.

The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

January 6 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27-17 at 3Com Park.

A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one-year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11-6.

Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining.

The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was 9-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game.

Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40-yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

'96 49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game.

Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt.

Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the end-zone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five-yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage.

The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage.

Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing.

The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

'96 Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of nine-degrees) and driving rain.

It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0.

San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game.

Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19-of-36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 yards receiving.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

'97 49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park.

In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown.

San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. The game-breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone.

In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-yard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run.

CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

'97 Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10
January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park.

The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed three-of-four passes for 37 yards in the series.

Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0.

San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson.

Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40-yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3.

After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five-yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3.

San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972.

Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

'98 49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27.

The 49ers forced three Green Bay turnovers and racked up 178 yards rushing, including 128 yards on 22 carries by RB Garrison Hearst, but still needed last-second heroics to defeat their rival and nemesis.

On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead.

Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. The score capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out. The extra point by Longwell was good and Green Bay took a 17-10 halftime lead.

The third quarter opened with another big play from the 49ers defense. With Green Bay driving at its own 41-yard line, DE Charles Haley pressured Favre into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall and returned 17 yards to the Packers 33-yard line. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career-long 48-yard field goal from Richey. The kick capped an 11-play, 48-yard drive that took 5:33 off the clock.

In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48-yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game.

The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. From there Young would lead the team on a drive for the ages. Young opened the drive with completions of 17 and nine yards to WR J.J. Stokes. His third straight completion was for three yards to FB Marc Edwards, who broke three tackles to pick up a first down. After using the first timeout, Young threw incomplete to Stokes and then had a six-yard completion to WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers second timeout was followed by a nine-yard completion to RB Terry Kirby who ran out of bounds at the Green Bay 32-yard line. A seven-yard completion to RB Garrison Hearst was followed by the 49ers final timeout with 14 seconds remaining on the clock. After the timeout, Young passed incomplete to Stokes with eight seconds to play. On the next play Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

CB Marquez Pope and Woodall paced the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Woodall also recorded an interception and had two passes defensed. DT Brentson Buckner added six tackles, while LB Ken Norton Jr. and DT Junior Bryant recorded five stops each. CB Darnell Walker added an interception.

'98 Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground.

Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82-yard drive.

San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining.

San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left.

After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four-yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired.

After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

'01 Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25-15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field.

With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6-0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco picked up two first downs as they moved the ball down to the Green Bay 16-yard line, where the drive stalled. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6-0 early in the second quarter. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6-of-9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst carried the ball three times for 13 yards, including a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7-6 halftime lead.

On their first possession of the second half, the Packers took over on their own 20-yard line. They moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9-7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15-7. The 49ers picked up one first down on their next drive before punting for the fifth time of the game. The Packers were forced into a three-and-out and San Francisco took over at its own 39-yard line. The 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18-15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25-15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25-15 victory.

NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the San Francisco 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39-38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game.

The 49ers trailed 38-14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens.

The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle.

Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. After New York was penalized for illegal men downfield, San Francisco leaped, sprinted and collapsed onto the field in a raucous celebration before an exhausted home crowd.

The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Only Buffalo's 32-point comeback in a 41-38 victory over Houston in January 1993 was by a larger margin in the postseason.

Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards.

The Giants won four straight to make the postseason and dominated the first 40 minutes. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving.

San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score.

After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25-yard field goal with 7:49 left.

Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left.

Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

'02 Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium (Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31-6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium.

The 49ers trailed 28-6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory.

Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12-play, 74-yard drive.

San Francisco answered with a 12-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia.

Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12-yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out.

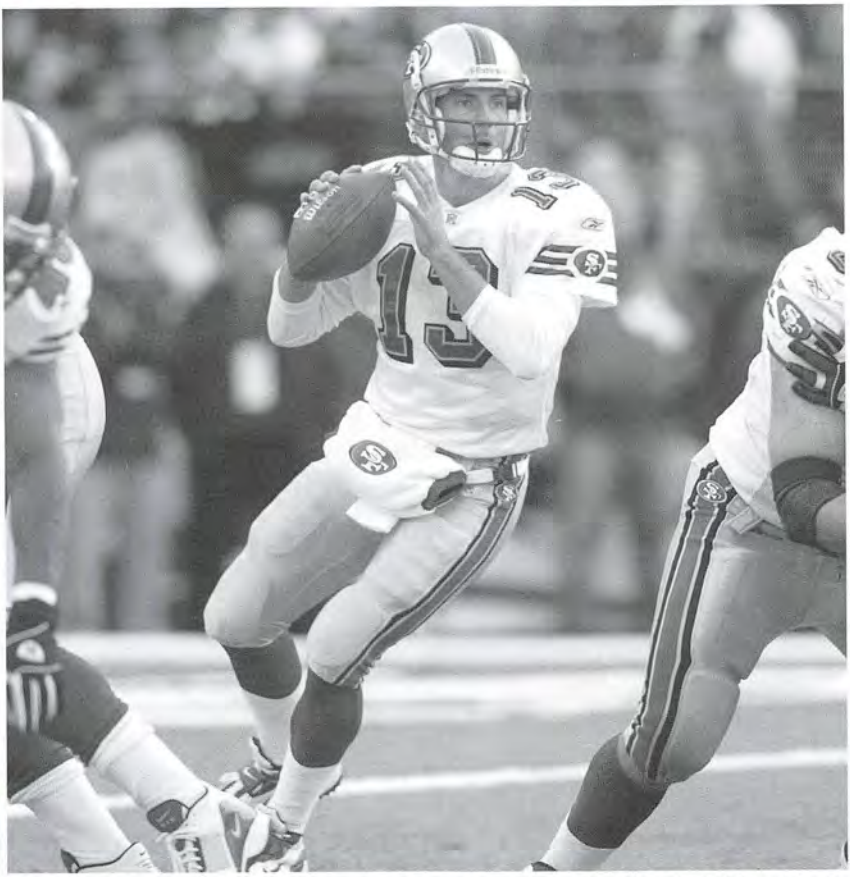

Alstott added another two-yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19-yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams.

LB Derek Smith led San Francisco with a game-high 14 tackles. LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added 11 tackles apiece. CB Rashad Holman led a banged up secondary with one interception. The unit was minus starting CB Jason Webster, who was inactive with an ankle injury. CB Ahmed Plummer left the game when he separated his right shoulder and did not return. FS Zack Bronson left the game in the third quarter when he aggravated his broken foot and SS Tony Parrish played the contest with a dislocated elbow.

LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player-of-the-Year Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

49ERS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS
(NFL 1949-03)

Following are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1949 - December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950 - The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 - In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952 - After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953 - The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9-3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 - The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4-0-1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955 - With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second-worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956 - In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid-season with a 1-6 record. They went 4-0-1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 - This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, after holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 - An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 - With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 - Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30-22 upset of Baltimore.

1961 - The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49-0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 - For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road." proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 - A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964 - Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 record.

1965 - Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7-6-1 record included a season-opening 52-24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 - After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 - An auspicious start (5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968 - Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 - Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4-8-2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970 - This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10-3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. In a season of superlatives, QB John Brodie was the NFL'S PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC COACH-OF-THE-YEAR. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971 - The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972 - Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20-17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973 - In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974 - The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6-8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 - A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976 - A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 - In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5-9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978 - The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979 - The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 - In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 - It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16-3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC COACH-OF-THE-YEAR award and all seven NFL COACH-OF-THE-YEAR honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All-Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, NFL OUTSTANDING DEFENSIVE LINEMAN-OF-THE-YEAR (NFL Players Association) and NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15-12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 - As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second-team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 - For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's number one all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 - The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985 - At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986 - The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981.

Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 - The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed.

WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 - The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single-season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27).

WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989 - George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia.

Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions.

Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award.

Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest.

The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win.

The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990 - The Niners finished the season with an NFL-best 14-2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15-13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl.

In addition to recording the NFL's best won-loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983-84, 1986-90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91.

QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 SPORTSMAN-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference.

On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14.

The defensive side of the ball was led by LB-DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops.

A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506.

The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process.

WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches.

Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions.

QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories.

On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3).

LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history.

San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play in the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992 - The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14-2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons.

In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20-13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30-20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11-29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12-6).

QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year.

RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56-17, 10-18).

San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993 - The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10-6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game.

In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records.

The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club-record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single-season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five-touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants.

WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles.

Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994 - The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL-record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16-3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first-round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd.

Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries.

Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park.

The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl.

Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127.

Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995 - San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury.

Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3).

San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players.

Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate.

One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami.

Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996 - One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12-4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense.

Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first-team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers

Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season.

As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997 - Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season.

Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

1998 - Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record-setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team-record and was a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999 - San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover.

Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards.

San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per rush average of 5.0.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000 - San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances.

A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6-10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl - QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens.

Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team-record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S MOST IMPROVED PLAYER.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams.

The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

2001 - The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12-4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all-star game.

In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316-of-504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third-year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career-high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000-yard rusher, which set a new team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-MONTH. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team-record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career-highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career-high and team record 97-yard return at Chicago.

2002 – The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5-1 division record and won their first division title since 1997.

The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career-high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17.

In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth-quarter comebacks.

WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career-high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career-high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12-8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career-high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

2003 – Head Coach Steve Mariucci is released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003.

The Erickson era started with a 7-9 record for the 49ers in 2003. The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games.

The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii.

On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2-1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000-yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year.

The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

PICK LINE

The 49ers recorded an interception in nine consecutive games in 2003. The streak ended when they didn't record an interception at Cincinnati (12-14). This was the longest streak the team had since 1996, when San Francisco caught an interception in 11 straight games. The team record is 13 consecutive games in both 1984 and 1986.

49ERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Leo Nomellini

1969-DT Leo Nomellini (1950-63). Was the first ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, including 10 trips to the Pro Bowl, and played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All-NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19,1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969-FB Joe Perry (1948-60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961-62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, AR.

Hugh McElhenny

1970-HB Hugh McElhenny (1952-60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42-yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952 McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touchdowns in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), New York Giants (1963) and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Y. A. Tittle

1971-QB Y.A. Tittle (1951-60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valuable Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career-high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948-50) and the New York Giants (1961-64). Played college ball at Lousiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, TX.

Bob St. Clair

1987-FB John Henry Johnson (1954-56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Backfield" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, including 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957-59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960-65) and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

1990-T Bob St. Clair (1953-63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when blocking a punt. Earned All-NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appearances. Attended University of San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

Bill Walsh

Jimmy Johnson

1994-CB Jimmy Johnson (1961-76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962 he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

Joe Montana

Ronnie Lott

Dave Wilcox

2000-QB Joe Montana (1979-94). Solidified his place in professional sports annals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all-time with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman-of-the-Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.3 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, PA.

2000-DB Ronnie Lott (1981-94). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Championships. Earned All-Pro honors at three different positions: cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks fifth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All-Time team, 1980's All-Decade team and Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, NM.

2000-LB Dave Wilcox (1964-74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard-nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, OR.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980-99), the San Francisco 49ers established themselves as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20-year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

OVERTIME GAMES

October 31, 1976 - St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14-13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on its previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20-14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown pass for the 20-20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt. Tony Leonard fumbled the kick at the 43-yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched down field to set up Jim Bakken for the 21-yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23-20 victory.

December 5, 1976 - San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

In a battle of Northern and Southern California, the San Francisco 49ers and San Diego Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0-0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7-6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike-Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line where Fouts promptly guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13-7 win.

November 13, 1977 - San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

September 14, 1980 - San Francisco 24, St. Louis 21

San Francisco struck first on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Paul Hofer in the second quarter. Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart quickly answered back with a 13-yard touchdown strike to Theotis Brown. The Cardinals pushed the lead to 14-7 with a Doug Marsh five-yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers tied the game at 14, St. Louis drove 75 yards in eight plays to take a 21-14 lead. With 1:51 left in regulation, the 49ers drove 80 yards and scored on a 26-yard touchdown run by Hofer, his second of the day. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line, where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal for the 24-21 win.

December 7, 1980 - San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35-7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88-yard, nine-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven-yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss, but failed to pick up a first down on its first possession. San Francisco took the ball on its own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the game-winning 36-yard field goal by Ray Wersching.

October 12, 1986 - Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45-yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter, the Vikings Issiac Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14-7 lead. San Francisco took a 17-14 lead into halftime after a 39-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson in the third quarter to cut the 49ers lead to 24-17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and elected to receive. They promptly went on a 58-yard drive and Nelson hit a 28-yard field goal for the 27-24 win.

October 19, 1986 - Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7-0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10-3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10-10 tie.

October 9, 1988 - Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10-3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10-6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13-6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 13 with 6:23 remaining. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

December 9, 1990 - San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass to Craig Taylor. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the second half. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati, 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they would not regain possession until only 4:11 remained in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer's 23-yard game-winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

January 3, 1994 - Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. On their second possession, Young led the 49ers on a seven-play, 46-yard drive capped by a Mike Cofer 30-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. The Eagles quickly got the ball back on a punt after a three-and-out series by the 49ers. Brister guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half strong, beginning with a 60-yard kick-off return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38-yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards in just over four minutes and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20-yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

October 14, 1996 - Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on another Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. Green Bay received the ball on its own 44 and drove 21 yards to set up Jacke for a 53-yard field goal for the 23-20 victory.

November 10, 1996 - Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. After 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game-winning 29-yard field goal for the 20-17 victory.

November 24 1996 - San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Washington's Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19 and 48 yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41 yards out to give Washington a 9-6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44-yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78 yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one-yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19-16 win.

September 6 1998 - San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast-paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17-14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six-yards out for the score with 32 seconds remaining in the second quarter. On its first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22-yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21-yard touchdown and a 24-17 lead. With just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14-yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked and the score remained 24-23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended its lead to 27-23 after a John Hall 32-yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76-yard, five-play drive that was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30-27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove the ball to the 49ers 13-yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three-and-out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to midfield on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four-yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of its second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96-yard, game-winning touchdown run and the 36-30 victory.

December 6, 1998 - San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended its winning streak to four games with an exciting, high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, which covered 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. December 26, 1999 - Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of its own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard out to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute remaining, driving to the Redskins 22-yard line before fumbling, which Washington recovered to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. October 8, 2000 - Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, but on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and put a drive of their own together, all the way to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

October 14, 2001 - San Francisco 37, Atlanta 31

The 49ers had their second overtime game of the 2001 season against the Falcons, sweeping Atlanta in the season series by winning 37-31. The 49ers rallied back from deficits of 20-7 at the half and 31-17 in the fourth quarter. The Falcons went up 14-0 early in the game. The 49ers put their first points of the game on the board in the second quarter when Jeff Garcia capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run. The Falcons answered back with two field goals and went up 20-7 at halftime. San Francisco came back in the second half due to the hands of Terrell Owens. Owens, who did not catch a pass in the first half, roared back to catch nine passes for 183 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. The 49ers scored 10 unanswered points in the third quarter, but Atlanta answered back in the fourth quarter. After a 49ers touchdown, at the hands of Kevan Barlow, and a touchdown by the Falcons, the 49ers were down 31-24 with just 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia calmly led the team on a 10-play, 72-yard drive when he hooked up with Owens from 17 yards out for his second touchdown of the day. The extra point was good and the game was tied at 31 with just 21 seconds remaining. The 49ers won the toss in overtime and drove to the Falcons 14-yard line. On the sixth play of the drive, a mishandled snap between Garcia and Dave Fiore, who was filling in at center for an injured Jeremy Newberry, was recovered by the Falcons and their offense took over. The 49ers defense rose to the challenge, forcing Atlanta into a three-and-out possession. After the punt, San Francisco began its second overtime drive from its own 33-yard line. After picking up one first down, Garcia faced third-and-five when he connected with Owens, who raced 52 yards up the sideline for his third touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

October 28, 2001 - Chicago 37, San Francisco 31

The 49ers had their second consecutive overtime game and their third of the 2001 season as they dropped a 37-31 decision to the Chicago Bears. San Francisco went up early in the first quarter after Bryant Young forced a fumble, which Julian Peterson scooped up and returned 26 yards for the touchdown. The 49ers struck again when Jeff Garcia hooked up with Justin Swift for a one-yard touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Bears answered back with a safety and a touchdown, making the score 14-9 at the half. In the third quarter, the 49ers struck first when Garrison Hearst scored his first touchdown since 12-14-98 on a 60-yard bomb from Garcia. The Bears offense then took over and drove down to the 49ers 10-yard line where Zack Bronson intercepted a Shane Mathews pass and returned it a team-record 97 yards for the touchdown. After a Chicago touchdown and a 49ers field goal, the score was 31-16 early in the fourth quarter. The Bears then racked up 15 unanswered points on two touchdown drives to tie the game at 31 and send it into overtime. The 49ers won the coin toss and the offense took over. On the first play from scrimmage, Garcia was intercepted by Mike Brown, who raced 33 yards for the touchdown and the 37-31 victory for Chicago.

November 18, 2001 - San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth ovetime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25-22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass, but the two-point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19-14 lead. On the next 49ers drive,

Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22-14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22-20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, including a crucial fourth down conversion, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. Jose Cortez came on for the game-winning field goal from 26 yards out, splitting the uprights to give the 49ers the 25-22 overtime victory.

November 3, 2002 - San Francisco 23, Oakland 20

The 49ers visited the Oakland Raiders and turned in an exciting performance. Tied at 13 entering the fourth quarter, the game see-sawed back and forth before heading into overtime. San Francisco scored first in the fourth quarter when Jeff Garcia connected with Tai Streets for a three-yard touchdown to take the lead at 20-13. Oakland answered after the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and the Raiders got the ball at their own 40-yard line. Oakland converted a crucial fourth-and-three play to maintain possession and ended the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner with just over six minutes remaining. The 49ers then ate up the clock with an impressive 13-play drive into scoring position, where Jose Cortez missed a 27-yard field goal at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. The 49ers won the toss and launched another impressive drive, this one 17 plays in length. It was there that Cortez lined up for the game-winning 23-yard field goal that sailed through the uprights. All totaled, the 49ers held onto the ball for the final 30 plays of the game.

November 17, 2002 – San Diego 20, San Francisco 17

In their second overtime game in three weeks, the 49ers dropped a close one to the San Diego Chargers. San Francisco took the early lead, leading 17-7 at the start of the fourth quarter. However the Chargers reeled off 10 unanswered points in the final period to tie the game at 17 to send it into overtime. In overtime, the Chargers won the toss and returned the opening kickoff 39 yards. But the drive stalled there and San Diego was forced to punt. On the ensuing 49ers possession, the offense drove down the field to the San Diego 23-yard line where Jose Cortez's game-winning field goal sailed wide right. The Chargers took over and promptly drive down the field in nine plays where Steve Christie nailed the 40-yard game-winning field goal.

September 14, 2003 – St. Louis 27, San Francisco 24

In an early-season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24-17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game-tying 13-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29-yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kickoff, which they returned to their 48-yard line. After a one-yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were penalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. Marc Bulger then completed two straight passes which brought St. Louis to the 49ers 10-yard line. Jeff Wilkins then came on and hit the winning 28-yard field goal.

October 26, 2003 – Arizona 16, San Francisco 13

In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1-of-2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3-of-6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13-6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one-yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Francisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16-yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game-winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32-yard line. With five seconds remaining in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game-winning 50-yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22-yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game-winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. The kick sailed through the uprights and the Cardinals notched the 16-13 victory.

December 21, 2003 – San Francisco 31, Philadelphia 28

The 49ers recorded their first overtime win of the season and also their first road win of 2003 with a 31-28 victory over Philadelphia. The two teams traded points back and forth heading into the final quarter. The 49ers kicked a 25-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to cut Philadelphia's lead to 21-20. On San Francisco's next possession, Kevan Barlow ran for 26 of his career-high 154 total yards and scored from one-yard out to give the 49ers a 26-21 lead. The two-point conversion attempt was successful and the 49ers had a seven-point lead with five minutes remaining in the game. The Eagles answered with a 10-play drive, adding seven points to tie the game on a Todd Pinkston touchdown grab with a little over a minute remaining in regulation. Philadelphia won the overtime coin toss and started its drive at its own 21-yard line. On the first play in the extra period, Tony Parrish, who notched an interception on the game's first drive, intercepted another pass and ran it back to the Eagles four-yard line. Todd Peterson then came out and nailed the 22-yard game-winning field goal.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.

Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.

Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.

Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.

Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.

Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.

Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).

Arthroscope - An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity; sometimes referred to as "scope."

Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.

Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).

Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.

Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).

Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.

Axilla - The armpit.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for blending the elbow.

Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.

Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Ecchymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle, which upon contraction, results in straightening a joint.

External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, encomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Heat Cramps - Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs causes by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide facial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma ad a cause of a lesion.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebrael fixation or immobility.

Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle of a tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Fourth-year DE Andre Carter ranked second on the team in 2003 with 6.5 sacks.

ACCRUED SEASON
A player receives one accrued season when he is on full pay status for a total of six or more regular season games. This does not include players placed on the Exempt Commissioner Permission list, the Reserve PUP list as a result of a non-football injury, or the practice squad.

RESTRICTED FREE AGENT
Any veteran player with less than four accrued seasons in a capped year is considered a restricted free agent at the expiration of his player contract. Any such player is free to negotiate and sign with any team, but is restricted under the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. In order to receive right of first refusal and/or draft choice compensation the prior club must tender the player a qualifying offer on or before the first date of the restricted free agent signing period.

UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT
Any player with four or more accrued seasons in a capped year becomes an unrestricted free agent at the expiration of his player contract. Any such player is completely free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any team.

EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS FREE AGENT
Any player with less than three accrued seasons in a capped year whose contract has expired may negotiate or sign a player contract only with his prior club, if his prior club tenders the player at least a one-year contract at or above the minimum salary applicable to that player. If the prior club does not make or withdraws the required tender by that date, the player is free to negotiate and sign a contract with any club.

FRANCHISE PLAYER
Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a franchise player. The designation restricts the player from negotiating or signing a contract with another club. The designation will remain with that player for the duration of the contract signed. It may be removed by the club at the conclusion of the contract. Franchise players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL player contract for the average of the five largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120 percent of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

TRANSITION PLAYER
Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a transition player. The player is free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any club, but the designation gives the prior club right of first refusal on any contract the player signs. Transition players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL player contract for the average of the 10 largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120 percent of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

OFFER SHEET
When a restricted free agent receives and agrees to an offer to sign a player contract from another NFL club, the player must submit a certificate which contains the principal terms of the contract (offer sheet) to the prior team. The prior club has seven days from the time it receives the offer sheet to exercise or not exercise its right of first refusal.

PHYSICALLY UNABLE TO PERFORM (PUP)
Players placed on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform may attend team meetings, but are ineligible for all games and all practice sessions. Players on the PUP list are allowed to begin practicing with the team after the conclusion of the sixth regular season weekend and continuing after the conclusion of the ninth regular season weekend. The practice period is not to exceed 21 days. Any time during that 21-day period, teams are allowed to restore the player to the Reserve/PUP list or to the active roster.

MINI-CAMPS

Each team is allowed to hold one mandatory mini-camp for veteran players. If a team hires a new head coach it is allowed to hold two additional voluntary mini-camps for veteran players. There is no limitation on the number of mini-camps a club may hold for rookie players. Each mini-camp can be three days in length and no pads, excluding helmets, are allowed.

TRAINING CAMP

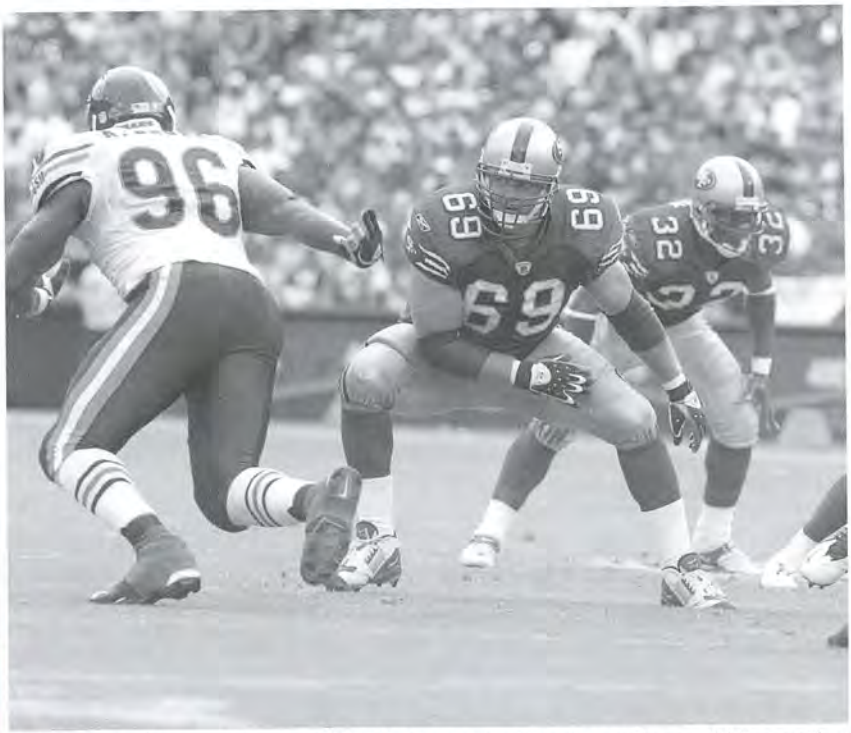

No veteran player, other than quarterbacks and injured players, will be required to report to a team's official training camp earlier than 15 days prior to the first scheduled preseason game or July 15, whichever is later. The July 15 date does not apply to teams participating in the Hall of Fame Game or any American Bowl game.

ACTIVE LIST

Each club is allowed to carry no more than 53 players on its active roster during the season. For each regular season game, the active list limit is 45 players per team. If a team carries the full squad limit of 53 players, it has to place eight players on the inactive list prior to each game.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Each team is allowed to establish a practice squad of no more than five players on the Monday after the final roster cutdown. Players who have served more than one season on the practice squad or have one accrued season of free agent credit are not eligible for the practice squad. A player who gained his one season of accrued free agent credit while being on the Reserve/Injured or Reserve/PUP list for an entire season is eligible for the practice squad.

Third-year offensive lineman Kyle Kosier proved his versatility in 2003, starting seven games at left guard, three at right guard and two at right tackle.

TRAINING CAMP

The 49ers will hold their training camp at their Santa Clara training facility again this season. Since the practices will be closed to the public, there will be one public practice held at Kezar Stadium so that fans can come out to watch the team. The practice will be held Saturday, August 7 at the 49ers first home, Kezar Stadium.

Location: Marie P. DeBartolo Sports Centre
4949 Centennial Blvd.
Santa Clara, CA 95054

Camp Dates: July 29-August 28

Reporting Dates: Entire team reports July 29, 2004

Camp Facts: The San Francisco 49ers will open training camp when the entire team reports to Santa Clara, CA on July 29, 2004. This is the second year the 49ers will be in Santa Clara. The 49ers spent the previous five years (1998-02) at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, CA. Prior to that, the team spent 17 years (1981-97) at Sierra College in Rocklin, CA before making the move to the University of the Pacific. The 17-year Rocklin stint tops the 13-year stay (1955-67) at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA as the longest training camp visit in team history. San Francisco has trained at Menlo College (1946-54), UC Santa Barbara (1968-75), San Jose State (1976-78) and Santa Clara (1979-80) as well.

Public Practice: Saturday, August 7
Kezar Stadium

MEDIA SERVICES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for 49ers players, coaches or members of the administration should be made through the 49ers public relations department. Head coach Dennis Erickson will hold his weekly press luncheon during the season, Monday at noon. He will be available to the media after practice Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and following each game throughout the season. The locker room will be open for player interviews Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after practice.

Practice Policy: 49ers practices are open to local media only. Visiting and national media will not be permitted to attend practice. Photographers will be allowed to shoot up to, and including, stretching exercises.

Credential Requests: All home game credential requests must be submitted in writing on letterhead to Kirk Reynolds or Cindy Krawczyk no later than Tuesday before the requested game. Media members applying for credentials must call the 49ers public relations department beginning Thursday to verify approval. Credentials will be left at Press Will Call Gate B on game day. Two forms of identification will be required to pick up credentials.

Phone Lines: To order phone lines for 49ers home games, members of the media must call 800-339-3204 (newspapers) or 800-400-6990 (radio & TV) and request service to the minimum point of entry. Then call Curly Hardy at 415-804-0669 to finalize the service.

Photographers: The digital photo compound is located under the stands on the visiting sidelines at 3Com Park. Pool phones are available. To order a dedicated phone line, follow the instructions above.

High Speed Internet Access: The 49ers offer free wireless Internet access via a high speed DSL line in the press box on game days. It can be accessed by purchasing a wireless Internet card from the 49ers ($50). For further information on how to obtain a wireless card, please contact Rich Hilgersom, Senior Network Engineer for the 49ers, at (408) 562-4919.
