* Please be aware that as part of the National Football League's agreement with NBC to televise Sunday Night Football, the NFL has implemented a flexible schedule for Sunday start times for the final eight weeks of the season.

This will allow the NFL to bring more attractive match–ups to a national audience late in the season. If any of the 49ers games are moved from the original start time, fans will be notified 12 days prior to the date of the game with the exception of a Week 17 game, where the notification will be six days to ensure a Sunday Night game with playoff implications. Starting time changes will be publicized on 49ers.com and through the local print, electronic and internet media

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co–Chairmen of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A THIRTY YEAR LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of more than three decades of 49ers football, including 36 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team winning the Stanley Cup.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500–person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

As owners of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helps to oversee the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of pro football's greatest stars, including 14 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's International Committee. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the boarders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. Under John's direction, the League has expanded its presence abroad with regular season games the past two years as Wembley Stadium in London, England. For the 2010 season, the 49ers will be hosting the Denver Broncos in London, England. John also sits on the League's Audit and Business Ventures Committees, which help to ensure the NFL's standing as the preeminent brand in all of professional sports.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in reaching out to former players and coaches to help celebrate six monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored at Candlestick Park for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports. Under their guidance, the team enhanced its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. As part of the event, the former players are recognized on the field during a halftime celebration at Candlestick Park, where so many of them made their mark on history. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana, Steve Young and Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re–enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year–round. From the team's annual Winter Fundraiser in Lake Tahoe charity event each winter, to its Draft Day celebration in Santa Clara each spring, to Family Day at Candlestick Park each summer, they have made it their mission to embrace the fans as family.

In their efforts to extend the interaction between the fans and the players and coaches, Denise and John have opened a portion of the team's training camp to the public since 2005, giving more than 100,000 49ers fans the opportunity to meet the team before the first snap of the football season.

On game days, they have spearheaded the effort to create a great atmosphere for fans by making significant enhancements to Candlestick Park, from the creation of the Alumni Tailgate Party and Faithful City, to improvements inside the stadium such as new flat screen TVs, new escalators and remodeled restrooms.

They've also provided new opportunities for fans to participate in the excitement of 49ers football by giving local musicians the opportunity to sing the national anthem in front of 68,000 fans at the 'Stick, and providing opportunities to local talent to participate in half–time events on the field.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, the team's community outreach programs and 49ers Foundation have grown tremendously.

Last year, 49ers players, coaches, staff and alumni participated in community events throughout the Bay Area as part of the team's award–winning RESPECT community outreach program. The 49ers Foundation has also grown tremendously, from raising and donating $200,000 per year to Bay Area non–profit organizations, to a record $1.7 million in 2008, bringing the total to more than $10 million over the last eight years.

In recognition of their community involvement, the couple was recently honored as City Year's Service Leadership Award recipient for their work in the Bay Area community. In 2008, the couple was honored with the 2008 Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, a non–profit organization dedicated to fighting bias and racism in the South Bay Area. In 2005, Denise and John were honored with the Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner for their remarkable contributions to the San Francisco community.

The couple's passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John was recently honored with the Loyola University's Strich Medal – the highest honor awarded by the school – for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. In 2008, Denise and John were honored with the Youngstown Hearing & Speech Center's 2008 Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. They were also inducted into the Curbstone Coaches Hall of Fame in Boardman, Ohio, in 2007 for generously giving their time and resources to the Mahoning Valley community.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy begun by his grandfather Edward DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr. and his parents, by serving as President of the 49ers. Their son, Tony, is currently an entrepreneur in the high–tech industry in Silicon Valley, and twins Jenna and Mara are pursuing careers in oenology in the Napa Valley.

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

As President & Chief Executive Officer of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York oversees all aspects of the organization. York is entering his second year in his current position and has made bold decisions to return the team to its winning tradition and ultimate return to the Super Bowl. York recognizes and shares the ongoing passion of the team's faithful fans.

York is spearheading the team's plans for a new state of the art stadium for 49ers fans. This year, the plans made significant steps forward with a certification of the Environmental Impact Report and the overwhelming victory of Measure J which authorizes the plans to move forward with a new stadium in Santa Clara, CA. The team's goal is to open the new stadium in the 2014 season where it will quickly be known as the world's premium sports and entertainment venue in the world.

York's first act as President was the hiring of Mike Singletary to be the 16th Head Coach in 49ers history. York has taken every step possible to improve the team's performance on the field. York directed the organization to undertake a major renovation of the 49ers practice facility in Santa Clara to significantly enhance the team's weight room, locker room, and team meeting rooms in order to give the players the tools they need to be successful. York also has added the 49ers Café, a 3,700 square foot onsite cafeteria where a private chef prepares dietary cuisine to help the players maximize their potential. Likewise, he bolstered the team's football affairs and alumni outreach departments, led by former 49ers linebacker and four–time Super Bowl champion Keena Turner, to help the players better themselves off the field and prepare for life after football.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm. Perhaps his most popular move as President was to direct the organization to create new uniforms for the 49ers that connect the team's future aspirations to its championship glory years of the 1980s and 1990s. He also created a new ticket sales and services department to give each season ticket holder a personal representative and point of contact within the organization. To give fans a forum to interact directly with the team's leaders, he instituted a public "State of the Franchise" meeting for season ticket holders, where they have an opportunity to listen to the team's plans for the future and ask questions of the 49ers management team.

Under York's leadership, the team instituted a new 49ers hall of fame to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats that have either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, upon its creation. York shortly thereafter announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., who was enshrined during the 2009 season.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co–chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr.D", has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School, where he was captain of the baseball team as well student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA and Tipping Point Community.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

Paraag Marathe (PUH–rawg, MUH–rah–TAY) is in his 10th season with the 49ers, and first as Executive Vice President of Football & Business Operations.

In his current role, Marathe plays a key role in the success of the 49ers both on and off the field. He is the club's chief contract negotiator and manages its compliance with the NFL's collective bargaining agreement, while also working alongside Trent Baalke on all player personnel matters. Marathe is also responsible for the management of the club's salary cap, player compensation and the club's research and development efforts.

On the business side, Marathe is at the forefront of the team's business efforts and oversees sales, business development, ticketing, and marketing. On the business side, Marathe constantly evaluates and reviews opportunities to enhance the club's short and long term business strategy. . Marathe is also a key leader in the team's business development and sales efforts to build a new state–of–the–art stadium in the Bay Area for its fans.

Prior to his current role, Marathe spent two seasons as the Vice President of Football Operations for the 49ers. Marathe originally joined the organization as the team's Special Projects Manager, a position he held for three seasons before going on to spend one year as the Assistant to the General Manager.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Marathe worked at management consulting firm Bain & Company, from 1999–2001, as a Senior Associate Consultant, where he advised clients in a variety of industries including private equity, venture capital, computer software, retail, sports footwear, consumer products, and health clubs. Before that, Marathe worked in the sports consulting group at the International Management Group (IMG), from 1997–1999, where he concentrated primarily on stadium naming rights deals, corporate sponsorships, and athlete endorsements.

Born in Sunnyvale, CA, Marathe received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at the University of California–Berkeley and his MBA from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Marathe and his wife Naya, a patent attorney, reside in Sunnyvale, CA.

Lal Heneghan is his fifth season with the 49ers as Executive Vice President of Football Administration.

A proven football administrator with a wealth of experience at the NFL, NFLPA and club level, Heneghan oversees all aspects of the day–to–day football administration, as well as legal affairs for the 49ers.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Heneghan served as Vice President of Football Operations and General Counsel for the Cleveland Browns from November of 1998 until May of 2004.

He was responsible for negotiating all player and coaching contracts, as well as general legal matters. Heneghan also oversaw the club's pro personnel, medical, equipment, video and player development departments.

Prior to joining the Browns, Heneghan spent seven years with the National Football League Management Council as Director of Labor Relations. In that capacity, he supervised the daily operation and interpretation of the NFL salary cap, the Collective Bargaining Agreement, and advised clubs on all aspects of their daily labor operations.

After joining the NFL in 1991, Heneghan initially served as labor relations counsel, representing clubs in grievance arbitrations and counseling clubs on a variety of labor issues. In 1993, he participated in negotiations with the NFLPA, which resulted in the 1993 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Heneghan's contributions to the NFL are reflective of his involvement in a broad range of areas, which includes serving on the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee, while with the Browns. He remains one of three NFL–appointed executives to serve as a Trustee of the NFL Player Insurance Trust.

Previously, Heneghan was a labor attorney at Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld in Washington, D.C. After working with the NFLPA during law school, Heneghan realized a career that combined his two passions—sports and law—gave him the best of both worlds.

An accomplished college athlete, Heneghan was a tight end and co–captain for the 1984 University of Pennsylvania Ivy League Champion football team. He still applies the same ideals of teamwork and leadership to his professional career today.

Born in Rockville, MD, Heneghan received his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center.

Heneghan's family has always been a big part of his life, stretching even to the origin of his name. Lal, an Irish family name, is short for Lally, which was his father's name before he emigrated from Ireland to the United States. Heneghan's wife, Amy, is a pediatrician. The couple has a son, Jack, and a daughter, Lucy.

To Mike Singletary the 2009 season was all about giving the 49ers an identity. One they could point to when times got tough late in a game. Something at the core of each and every player's heart. Stitched to a tapestry in the team meeting room of the 49ers practice facility is their identity – Physical, Tough, Relentless, Disciplined, Smart.

As 2009 unfolded, those characteristics became more and more obvious. When training camp began with full–contact "Nutcracker Drills," players and observ–ers alike questioned the method. But during those days, and more specifically those drills, the 49ers identity started to take shape.

"The thing I really want the guys to understand is the battle," said Singletary. "When you begin to talk about being a great team, about being a championship team, there are some things you need that you can't even explain what they are. You just know it and you just feel it."

The result of creating an identity was an 8–8 record, the 49ers best since 2002, which included a 5–1 record against NFC West foes. Singletary has helped to bring the best of his players, no more notable than TE Vernon Davis who posted one of the most prolific seasons by an NFL tight end in recent years. Davis joined four of his teammates – P Andy Lee, RB Frank Gore, DT Justin Smith and LB Patrick Willis – as participants in the 2010 Pro Bowl. It was the largest 49ers contingent at the NFL's annual All–Star game since 2002.

In numerous areas, the 49ers Faithful saw a marked improvement. Defensively, Singletary's team became one of the most–feared units in the NFL by season's end, having allowed the 4th–fewest points per game in the league. The unit was one of the biggest play–making squads as well, ranking tied for 5th in takeaways and 5th in turnover differential. The defense also finished the year with 44 sacks, tied for 3rd in the league, and with the 6th–ranked unit against the run.

Offensively, the 49ers encountered an up and down year. The unit endured a quarterback change, multiple injuries and various other personnel issues throughout the season. By the time the season started to wind down, starting quarterback Alex Smith began to get hot. As he settled into his role, he allowed his weapons – Gore, Davis and wide receivers Josh Morgan and Michael Crab–tree – to do the heavy lifting.

When Singletary took over as the 49ers interim head coach midway through the 2008 season, he attacked the challenge with the same fervor he shared with opposing ball carriers throughout his Hall of Fame playing career. It was a wel–come challenge that Singletary conquered as the 49ers went on to record five victories in the final seven games of the 2008 season, showing improvements in all three phases of the game.

Team President and CEO Jed York wasted no time and named Singletary the franchise's 16th head coach on December 28, 2008. Since the former All–World middle linebacker took hold of the 49ers reigns mid–way through the 2008 season, the 49ers have had a stellar home–field advantage posting a 9–2 re–cord in the historic confines of Candlestick Park.

WHAT MAKES A MAN

While Singletary was known as a very resilient, tough football player, the early years of his life foreshadowed none of that. Born on October 9, 1958 in Houston, TX, Singletary was bedridden with bronchitis and pneumonia at a very young age, and was allowed to go outdoors sparingly. He was the youngest of 10 children and his father, a Pentecostal minister, left the family when Singletary was just enrolling in junior high. The family was obviously devastated, but Sin–gletary's older brother, Grady, honorably stepped in and became the surrogate father. Tragically, he was killed by a drunk driver six months later.

At that point, 12–year–old Mike was at a crossroads in his life. His mother, Udell, knew her baby boy needed direction and an outlet to deal with the lack of a fa–ther figure in his life and the death of his brother. The family's religion frowned upon participation in sports, but Udell saw football as an opportunity for her son to deal with his emotions. At that same time, Mike was already realizing he needed to have goals in life. The youngster defined what he now calls his "vision statement," and it read as such: play football, graduate from high school, earn a football scholarship to college, become an All–American, graduate from college, get drafted into the NFL, be–come an All–Pro, go to a Super Bowl and own a business. Pretty lofty goals for a 12–year–old – but goals that Singletary has already seen come to fruition.

"I think when you go through things like that, certainly it makes you understand this is a game, even though I'm very passionate about it," Singletary says of football. "I'm very excited about the game of football, and it really has served as sort of a getaway from all the other things in life, and I have come to enjoy it for what it is."

SAMURAI MIKE

Long before Mike Singletary was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1998, he starred at Evan E. Worthing High School in Houston, Texas. Singletary later enjoyed an outstanding career at Baylor University where he earned All–America honors in both his junior and senior years.

Known as a quiet and mild–mannered person off the field, he became one of the most ferocious players in all of college football, exemplified by the fact that he cracked 16 helmets during his stint in Waco. A two–time recipient of the Davey O'Brien Award, given to the most outstanding player in the Southwest Confer–ence, Singletary averaged 15 tackles per game during his college career and established a team record with 232 tackles in 1978. He would later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1995.

After dominating the NCAA ranks, Singletary was selected by the Chicago Bears in the second round of the 1981 NFL Draft with the 38th overall pick. In the seventh game of his rookie season, he earned a starting role and found his niche as the cornerstone of the Bears "46" defense. Chicago's then–defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan's trust in Singletary on the field was unwavering, but that was a trust that took time to develop.

"I was very vocal," said Singletary. "Sometimes that was good, sometimes it was bad. Buddy Ryan didn't like vocal guys in their first year. He wanted you to be quiet and learn, and I couldn't help myself most of the time. He really helped me get out of my own way because I needed to earn a little more respect before I was as vocal as I was. I remember he sat me down for several games until I had learned some humility and earned respect before I talked. I learned the hard way."

"Samurai Mike," as he was fondly called by his peers and fans, went on to enjoy a legendary career with the Bears, quarterbacking a defense that was feared for its tenacity. He was the leader of the renowned "Monsters of the Midway," and was often referred to as the original "Minister of Defense" for his on–field intensity, leadership and motivational speeches.

A two–time Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award winner (1985 & 1988), Singletary was named to the NFL Team of the '80s after being selected to play in a team–record 10 consecutive Pro Bowls. The former Bears defen–sive captain was also named first–team All–Pro eight times (1983–89; 1991), second–team All–Pro twice and All–NFC nine times.

Singletary finished each of his final 11 seasons on Chicago's defense ranked either first or second in tackles and at the end of his career, had amassed 1,488 tackles, 885 solo tackles, 51 passes defensed, 12 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions. He also started a defensive team record 172 games for the Bears, trailing only running back Walter Payton's 184 career starts for the all–time lead.

KNOWING WHAT'S IMPORTANT

When Singletary retired from the Chicago Bears in 1993, coaching was some–thing that greatly interested him. But after consulting several of his former coaches, he decided that the coaching lifestyle was too consuming to allow him to spend enough time with his family.

"I was very excited about the possibility of coaching, and in my last year in the NFL, I began to ask coaches around the league that I really respected how they balance the time between coaching and family, being a father, being a husband," Singletary said. "And they said you have to make a decision very early. You will not see your kids. You won't see your wife, so be prepared for that and based upon that, I knew that I would not be coaching. We have seven kids and I wanted to make sure my kids knew who their father was. I never considered winning Super Bowl trophies being more important than being a Super Bowl Dad, so it's hard work. Being out here, this is easy. Being a parent, that's difficult."

Singletary took time away from the game, but his leadership and inspira–tional roots followed him in all of his endeavors after football. One of the big–gest sources of his strength is his deeply engrained Christian faith. Unlike most coaches in professional sports, Singletary displays his devotion every time he steps onto the field.

"I'm not expecting anything of them that I'm not going to give them. I'm going to give them my best every day, and that's all I'm asking from them."
- Singletary on what he expects from his players.

"I simply wear the cross to remind me of who I represent," said Singletary. "When I go out there, I can be on the verge of losing it and when I feel the cross, I just know, 'Don't go there. That's not who you are. That's not what you are about, and it brings me back.'"

In addition to his faith, Singletary is a leader in the community as well. In 2001, he won the Walter Camp "Man of the Year Award" based on his reputation for integrity and leadership within his profession and contributions benefiting his community, country and fellow man. He also co–founded Leadership Zone, a company that provides leadership training.

Singletary has worked as a motivational speaker and has authored three books: Singletary One on One, Calling the Shots and Daddy's Home at Last.

A CALLING TO COACH

Prior to the 2003 NFL season, Singletary with the help of his wife, Kim, came to the realization that coaching was his calling. As a player, his teammates and coaches all knew this would eventually be his path in life.

So Singletary set out on his journey into NFL coaching. One of the most impor–tant things he did along that path was develop a relationship with Hall of Famer and former 49ers head coach Bill Walsh. Singletary would do whatever he could to pick Walsh's brain, meeting him at Stanford, in hotels or even at airports. He became a sponge, soaking in everything Walsh was willing to share.

"I really, really liked and respected Bill Walsh," said Singletary. "Didn't like him when I had to play against him. But the thing he had, to me, he had the poise and he had the vision, not just to win a championship, but to win several. And he had the people around him to get it done, that he could trust. So Bill was always a step ahead of everybody else mostly. And it wasn't all him. As I learned more about him, he had key, strategically–planned people in place that really helped him. And he knew what his liabilities were and he had strengths around him everywhere."

Singletary's first opportunity came with the Baltimore Ravens as the team's in–side linebackers coach, in 2003. Prior to his hiring, Singletary admits that some coaches were hesitant to hire him, but then head coach Brian Billick showed the utmost confidence in Singletary.

Singletary recalled joining Billick's staff fondly, "Brian brought me in and said, 'Hey, anything you want to know, anything I can help you with, anything you want to do, I am going to make everything accessible to you. Let's go.' And that is what I did. It was a tremendous blessing for me to have the opportunity to be a part of his staff. I learned a lot from him and the way he went about organizing the things he had to do. Of course I met Mike Nolan at the same time, so that just made it great all around."

In two seasons with Baltimore, Singletary led a prolific group of linebackers to even higher heights. In fact, All–Pro Ray Lewis earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2003. During his tenure, Baltimore's defense ranked third in the NFL in 2003 and sixth overall the following year.

When Mike Nolan accepted the 49ers head coaching position in 2005, Singletary was his first hire as assistant head coach and linebackers coach. A year later he would be elevated to assistant head coach/defense. Under Singletary's guidance, 49ers linebacker Patrick Willis was named Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2007 and set an unofficial NFL single-season record for tackles with 226. He became the first 49ers rookie defender to earn Pro Bowl honors since Ronnie Lott in 1981. In 2008, Willis enjoyed another Pro-Bowl selection and finished second in the NFL in tackles.

Heading into his first full season as head coach, Singletary has set no boundaries on the potential of his team, and asks the same of his players.

"That's my approach about everything I do in life," said Singletary. "I don't ever look at things in a finite matter. Everything I do, I do it until someone says 'that's enough' or until my body or my mind, or until my wife says 'that's enough'. That's my mentality, always has been, and that's just the way that I'm wired up."

INTENSE EYES FOCUSED ON THE FUTURE

"I just think the most important thing for me is to know who I am and what it is I want out of life and where I'm going," said Singletary. "I want to go to the Super Bowl. I want to win many Super Bowls. I want to win championships."

That vision as well as the confidence and direction that he shares with his team on a daily basis, has been welcomed by his players, coaches and the 49ers organization as a whole.

"This man is just something amazing,'' 49ers kicker Joe Nedney said of Singletary. "You want to play hard for him because you know that if you don't, he's going to give you that stare and burn a hole right through you."

His attitude as a player is already serving as a model for his coaching philosophy as he strives to bring a mental toughness to his team. Singletary is searching for the very same tough, hard-nosed, blue collar mentality that he witnessed in his own Bears teams of the '80s.

"We had a bunch of blue collar guys that were not afraid to work," said Singletary. "We were so hungry for a win and a championship that it didn't matter how much we worked. As a matter of fact, it became a challenge. 'Go ahead coach. I'm not tired. Is that the best you got?' We didn't say that too often. It's one of those things where our guys have to get to that second wind."

An extremely proud husband and father, Singletary and his wife, Kim, have seven children. His approach at home and at work has extremely close similarities. Singletary manages his players much like he does his own family ... on a very personal level.

"It's just a very natural thing for me," said Singletary. "To me it's as natural as with your own kids, with your own family. It's very important to me, if I'm going to be the coach; I need to know how I am responsible for these 53 guys. At different times I'm going to establish a relationship with every one of them. That's very important to me. Relationships are what make everything go."

With more than 30 years of NFL coaching experience, Jimmy Raye begins his second season as offensive coordinator for the 49ers after being hired on February 6, 2009. It marks his second stint with San Francisco, having served as the wide receivers coach for the team in 1977.

Aside from the 49ers, Raye's has held the post of offensive coordinator for several teams, including the Los Angeles Rams (1983–84, 1991), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985–86), New England Patriots (1990), Kansas City Chiefs (1998–2000), Washington Redskins (2001) and Oakland Raiders (2004–05).

One of the key qualities displayed by Raye in 2009 was his ability to adapt the offense to his playmakers strengths. With a quarterback change taking place six games into the season, and a continual shuffling along the offensive line due to injury, Raye seamlessly transitioned the offense to fit the personnel on the field. In the process, he emphasized the importance of minimizing mistakes, as the team recorded just 24 giveaways compared to a league–high 35 a year prior.

Tight End Vernon Davis, who was named a starter in his first Pro Bowl, was on the receiving end of more than half of those throws as he tied an NFL record (Antonio Gates, 2004) for the most touchdown receptions (13) by an NFL tight end in a single season. Quarterbacks Shaun Hill and Alex Smith combined to throw a total of 23 touchdown passes, marking the most in a season by San Francisco since 2003 (25). On the ground, RB Frank Gore became the first player in 49ers history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in four seasons (2006–09), as the five–year veteran posted 1,120 rushing yards and a career–high 10 rushing touchdowns on the season, despite missing two games due to injury. For his efforts, Gore was named an alternate for the 2010 Pro Bowl, and eventually played in the annual game.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Raye spent the previous three seasons as the running backs coach for the New York Jets. Under his guidance, RB Thomas Jones produced back–to–back 1,000–yard rushing seasons. In 2008, the nine–year veteran earned his first career Pro Bowl nod after rushing for 1,312 yards and 15 touchdowns. A year prior, Jones rushed for 1,119 yards on the ground in his first season with the Jets. Raye's 2006 coaching effort helped then rookie RB Leon Washington rank 4th in rushing among rookies with 650 yards and four touchdowns. Combined with the totals from RBs Kevan Barlow and Cedric Houston, the 2006 Jets running backs platoon produced 1,394 yards and 15 touchdowns.

From 2004 to 2005, Raye served as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders. Under Raye's tutelage, the Raiders ranked 10th in the NFL in passing in 2005 (223.9 ypg), after finishing 8th in passing a year prior (241.1 ypg).

Raye's initial stint with the Jets was from 2002 to 2003. In his second year with the team, Raye served as assistant head coach/senior offensive assistant under then head coach Herm Edwards. In 2002, Raye, as a senior offensive assistant, helped a young offensive coaching staff (five coaches with three years or less NFL coaching experience) produce an offense that ranked 7th in the NFL in yards per play.

Prior to joining the Jets, Raye spent one season as the Washington Redskins offensive coordinator in 2001. That season, the Redskins finished 8th in the NFL in rushing (121.8 ypg), while ranking 6th in the league for fewest interceptions thrown (13). RB Stephen Davis' 1,432 rushing yards were good for 3rd most in the NFL.

Before working with the Redskins, Raye spent eight years with Kansas City (1992–2000) in various coaching capacities. From 1998 to 2000, Raye served as the team's offensive coordinator. Under his guidance in 2000, the Chiefs ranked 8th in the NFL in total offense (350.9 ypg) and 4th in passing (259.3 ypg). A year prior, Kansas City finished fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg), tied for 8th in points scored (24.4 ppg) and ranked 12th in total offense (332.6 ypg). The 390 points marked the 3rd–highest scoring output in team history and its most prolific in 32 years.

From 1993 to 1997, Raye coached running backs for the Chiefs. From 1995 to 1997, the unit ranked as the 3rd best rushing attack in the NFL, averaging 136.0 yards per game. The Chiefs led the league in rushing in 1995, averaging 138.9 yards per game as the team went 13–3 and won the AFC West. While working with the Chiefs' backs, Raye helped revitalize the career of Hall of Famer Marcus Allen, who rushed for 3,698 yards and a club record 44 touchdowns in four years under his guidance. In 1992, Raye joined Kansas City as the offensive assistant/tight ends coach.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Raye served as the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams (1983–84, 1991), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985–86) and New England Patriots (1990). While overseeing those offenses, Raye displayed a penchant for maximizing productivity in the running game. The Rams ranked 2nd in the NFL in rushing in 1984, as Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson became only the second player to top the 2,000–yard rushing mark with an NFL record 2,105 yards. In Raye's two seasons with Tampa Bay, James Wilder reigned as one of the league's top all–purpose threats, combining for 96 pass receptions and 2,004 rushing yards (1985–86). In 1991, the Rams finished 7th in the NFL in passing (225.6 ypg) under Raye's guidance.

Raye also has an extensive background as an instructor in the passing game, serving two stints as Atlanta's wide receivers coach (1987–89, 1980–82) and holding the same position with the Rams in 1983. From 1978 to 1979, he coached running backs for the Detroit Lions.

Raye was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in the 16th round of the 1968 NFL Draft and was converted from a quarterback to defensive back before being traded to the Eagles. As a quarterback at Michigan State, Raye was the quarterback in the historical 1966 "Game of the Century," in which Michigan State and Notre Dame both earned a National Championship after the game ended in a 10–10 tie.

In 1998, he founded the Jimmy Raye Youth Foundation, a program which allows underprivileged youths to broaden their horizons through golf and other athletic endeavors to which they may not otherwise be exposed.

Raye and his wife, Edwena, have a daughter, Robin, and son, Jimmy III, who was a former wide receiver at San Diego State (1988–90) and currently serves as the director of player personnel for the San Diego Chargers. Raye has two grandchildren, Avery Catherine and Derrick Samuel, from his daughter Robin and her husband Derrick. A native of Fayetteville, NC, Raye graduated from Michigan State with a B.A. in education in 1967.

Once a tough, hard–nosed NFL linebacker, Greg Manusky (muh–NUH–ski) has since translated those qualities into a successful 10–year professional coaching career. Manusky brings that mentality to the 49ers defense as he enters his fourth season as defensive coordinator in San Francisco.

Under Manusky's guidance, the 49ers defense has significantly improved in each of the past three seasons. In five games in 2009, Manusky's unit did not allow a single touchdown, marking a franchise record and ranking t–1st in the NFL (NY Jets). San Francisco's defense went on to rank among the top 5 NFL teams in several statistical categories, including forced fumbles (21, t–1st), sacks (44, t–3rd), rushing yards allowed per attempt (3.6 avg., 3rd), opponent red zone scoring (40.4 pct., 3rd), points allowed (17.6 ppg., 4th) and takeaways (33, t–5th). The 44 sacks, 281 points allowed and 1,552 rushing yards allowed marked the best totals by the team since 1997. In addition, the 49ers ranked 6th in the NFL in yards allowed per play (4.97), run defense (97.0 ypg.) and first downs allowed per game (17.4).

Manusky joined the 49ers after serving as the linebackers coach for the San Diego Chargers from 2002–06 and Washington Redskins in 2001. During his 12–year stint as a linebacker with Washington (1988–90), Minnesota (1991–93) and Kansas City (1994–99), Manusky was known as a tenacious workhorse. He said his passion for the game, and mental will to do anything necessary to make an impact on the team, carried him throughout his playing career.

In nine years as a pro coach, Manusky has seen several of his players earn Pro Bowl honors, including 49ers LB Patrick Willis (2007–09), DT Justin Smith (2009) and CB Walt Harris (2007); Chargers LB Shawne Merriman (2006), LB Donnie Edwards (2002) and LB Junior Seau (2002); and Redskins LB LaVar Arrington (2001). Merriman, Edwards, Arrington, Willis and Smith were all named to their first career Pro Bowls under Manusky's tutelage.

Manusky played in games during his career. Following the 1991 season, he was selected to the All–Madden Team put together by Hall of Fame broadcaster and former coach, John Madden. Manusky said the encouragement he received from his coaches during his playing days instilled in him the confidence to enter the coaching profession.

"During my sixth year in the league, I played under Tony Dungy and Monty Kiffin in Minnesota. They were the first ones to say, 'Hey, you'd be a pretty good coach,'" Manusky recalled. "That's the road I've traveled since. During the number of years that I spent in Kansas City and even in my past few years as a coach, I've continued to try and push myself and adopt the mindset of an offensive or defensive coordinator. I've been fortunate to have the opportunity to do that here in San Francisco."

After retiring from the NFL in 1999, Manusky spent the 2000 season as a volunteer at the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' training camp, where he worked with the linebackers and special teams. One year later, he accepted a job as linebackers coach with the Redskins.

A well–regarded teacher and communicator, Manusky developed the Chargers linebacking corps into one of the NFL's stingiest units. They were part of a defense that finished the 2006 season ranked 7th against the rush and 3rd in turnover margin with a +13 balance. The unit alone accounted for 42.5 of the defense's 61 total regular season sacks.

Manusky was born in Wilkes–Barre, PA, and prepped at Dallas (PA) High School. He went on to attend Colgate University, where he was a four–year letterman and an All–Colonial League selection. Manusky was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior and graduated with degrees in education and geology.

Manusky and his and wife, Laurie, have two sons, Colton and Jake, and two daughters, Logan and Chandler.

Named the 49ers special teams coordinator on January 18, 2010, Kurt Schottenheimer, 60, brings with him over 30 years of coaching experience to San Francisco, including 22 seasons in the NFL. It was Schottenheimer's experience and diverse background in both special teams and defense that appealed most to head coach Mike Singletary.

"Kurt brings with him invaluable experience from more than 30 years of service in the NFL and college coaching ranks," said head coach Mike Singletary. "He has a diverse background and a tremendous knowledge of personnel, both of which will serve the 49ers well in producing a top-notch special teams unit."

Schottenheimer spent his first eight seasons in the league as a special teams coach, holding that position first with the Cleveland Browns (1987-88) and then with the Kansas City Chiefs (1989-94).

Said Schottenheimer of his new team and his personal philosophy about special teams, "One of the things that is very entertaining to me is the personality of Mike [Singletary], Greg Manusky and Jimmy Raye. They bring a tremendous amount of enthusiasm and passion, as well as toughness. I think this is a team that is going to be very tough and very physical."

In 1987, as a first-year NFL coach, Cleveland ranked 6th in the NFL in punt return average (11.1), while holding opponents to 5.5 yards per punt return, to rank 5th in the league. The following year, Schottenheimer's kickoff coverage unit ranked 2nd in the NFL with a 16.2-yard average, while the Browns kickoff return unit placed 6th in the league with a 21.1-yard average. That season, the Browns also blocked two punts, both of which were returned for touchdowns, and one field goal.

During his six seasons coaching special teams for the Chiefs, Schottenheimer's units accounted for a total of 22 blocked kicks and eight touchdowns.

The McDonald, Pennsylvania, native was named the co-winner of the NFL's 1990 Special Teams Coach of the Year Award after his unit recorded an NFL-record six blocked punts (two returned for touchdowns) during the regular season, adding another during the playoffs. The club also blocked a field goal and registered two special teams touchdowns.

In 1993, Schottenheimer's special teams group blocked five kicks (two blocked punts, two blocked FGs & one blocked PAT), returning one of its blocked punts for a touchdown. In addition to his special teams responsibilities that season, Schottenheimer oversaw the tight ends as well. In his first year overseeing the unit, Chiefs tight ends accounted for 55-656-5 TDs receiving. The campaign marked the highest reception total by Kansas City tight ends since 1976, the most receiving yards since 1977 and the most touchdowns since 1984. The following season, Kansas City boosted those tight end receiving totals to 63-850-5 TDs.

Following his productive run leading the Chiefs special teams unit and tight ends, Schottenheimer went on to coach Kansas City's defensive backs (1995-98). During his four-year tenure, Kansas City's secondary helped the defense allow a meager 16.4 points per game, which tied for the stingiest mark in the league during that time period. Over that same span, the Chiefs ranked 3rd in the AFC in total defense (304.5 ypg) and finished 5th in the AFC in pass defense (203.2 ypg). Kansas City also led the AFC in turnover ratio two of those four seasons (+12 in '95, +14 in '97), and topped the league with 21 interceptions in 1997.

The Chiefs promoted Schottenheimer to defensive coordinator in 1999, a position he held for two seasons. In his first season steering the defense, Kansas City registered a team record and NFL-high nine defensive touchdowns. The Chiefs also led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and ranked 2nd with 45 takeaways, including 20 fumble recoveries, and 125 points off turnovers. The Chiefs ended that season ranked 2nd in the AFC with 25 interceptions.

Schottenheimer would go on to spend three more seasons as a defensive coordinator in the NFL, serving one year with the Washington Redskins (2001) and two seasons with the Detroit Lions (2002-03).

In 2004, Schottenheimer served as the Packers defensive backs coach, where he tutored S Darren Sharper, who led the team with four interceptions (two of which he returned for touchdowns). A year later, Schottenheimer took over the St. Louis Rams secondary. He successfully converted Mike Furrey from wide receiver to free safety. Under his tutelage, Furrey led the team in interceptions with four (one returned for touchdown).

Schottenheimer served his second stint with the Packers from 2006 to 2008, overseeing a secondary that effectively blended the talents of veteran CBs Al Harris and Charles Woodson, with young, up-and-coming safeties Nick Collins and Atari Bigby. In 2007, Harris made the Pro Bowl for the first time in his decade-long career, while Bigby led the team with five interceptions in his first season as starter. A year later, the entire Packers Pro Bowl contingent came from the secondary, as Harris, Collins and Woodson each made the trip across the water.

Before entering the NFL, Schottenheimer worked 10 seasons in the college ranks. He served as linebackers coach at Notre Dame under Lou Holtz in 1986 after working in the same capacity for two years at Louisiana State (1984-85).

Prior to his tenure at LSU, he spent time at William Patterson College (1974 – defensive coordinator), Michigan State (1978-82 – linebackers/defensive backs), and Tulane (1983 – defensive backs).

A junior college All-American quarterback at Coffeyville (KS) Junior College, Schottenheimer led the nation in passing as a sophomore. The following year, he transferred to the University of Miami, where he started for two seasons at defensive back and earned his degree in 1971.

Schottenheimer and his wife, Colleen Duffey, have two daughters, Steele and Sloane. He is the younger brother of former NFL head coach Marty Schottenheimer and the uncle of current New York Jets offensive coordinator Brian Schottenheimer.

JERRY SULLIVAN

WIDE RECEIVERS/SENIOR ASSISTANT

19TH NFL SEASON, 6TH WITH 49ERS

Jerry Sullivan is in his sixth season with the 49ers after being named wide receivers coach/senior assistant on January 25, 2005. Sullivan boasts 19 years of NFL coaching experience, including one season as the Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator.

In 2009, Sullivan played a significant role incorporating rookie WR Michael Crabtree into the 49ers offense midway through the season. After missing the first five games of the season due to a contract impasse, Crabtree went on to rank 1st among all NFL rookies with 56.8 receiving yards per game in 11 starts. WR Josh Morgan followed up his productive rookie season by setting career highs in receptions (52) and receiving yards (527), to rank 3rd on the team in both categories.

A year prior, Sullivan's unit was highlighted by the play of 15-year veteran WR Isaac Bruce, who caught seven touchdowns, his most since 2002, and led all receivers with 835 receiving yards on 61 catches.

Sullivan joined the 49ers after spending the 2004 season as wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. Sullivan was a member of the Arizona Cardinals' coaching staff for three seasons (2001-03). In his first two years with the club, Sullivan mentored the team's wide receivers, where he worked with a group that included WR David Boston. Under Sullivan's guidance, Boston led the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards on 98 receptions in 2001 and was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. In 2003, Sullivan was promoted to offensive coordinator and worked with rookie wide receiver WR Anquan Boldin, a second-round draft choice who finished third in the league in receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,377) on his way to being named the NFL's Rookie of the Year, as well as a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad.

Sullivan has coached a multitude of Pro Bowl receivers, including San Diego Chargers WR Anthony Miller (1992-93) and WR Tony Martin (1996), Detroit Lions WR Herman Moore (1997-98) and WR Germaine Crowell (1999), and Arizona Cardinals WR David Boston (2001) and WR Anquan Boldin (2003).

Sullivan's NFL coaching career began in 1992 with the San Diego Chargers. Following his five-year term in San Diego, Sullivan coached wide receivers in Detroit from 1997 to 2000. Prior to his tenure in the Motor City, he coached on the collegiate level from 1971 to 1991, including stints with Texas Tech, South Carolina, Indiana, Louisiana State and Ohio State.

Sullivan and his wife, Connie, reside in San Jose, CA. The couple has one son, Jon-Eric, who serves as a regional college scout for the Green Bay Packers. Connie has a daughter, Allison Guay, and grandchildren named Gibson and Harper, who reside in Baton Rouge, LA, and a son, Matthew, who works for an insurance company in Baton Rouge, LA.

Johnnie Lynn is in his 17th NFL campaign and sixth overall season in San Francisco, after having previously tutored the 49ers defensive backs in 1996. He began his second tour of duty as the 49ers secondary coach on February 14, 2006, a role that he shares with Vance Joseph, and was given the additional title of Special Assistant to the Head Coach during the 2009 offseason.

Lynn coached a secondary comprised of both youth and experience in 2009, overseeing a unit that recorded 13 of the team's 18 INTs on the season, with the latter total marking the most by the team since 2003 (23). Lynn successfully transitioned FS Dashon Goldson into a full-fledge starter, as the third-year veteran led the team in INTs (4) and ranked 2nd in tackles (114). After losing veteran Pro Bowler CB Walt Harris in the 2009 offseason, Lynn integrated CB Shawntae Spencer, who was limited the previous two seasons due to injury, back into the starting lineup. Spencer went on to be voted the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner after starting all 16 games and leading the team in passes defensed (17).

Lynn previously served as the secondary coach for the Baltimore Ravens from 2004 to 2005. In 2004, the Ravens secondary accounted for six of the team's seven defensive touchdowns. Lynn also coached two Ravens defensive backs who earned starting Pro Bowl nods—SS Ed Reed and CB Chris McAlister. Reed was also named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year (2004).

Prior to joining the Ravens, Lynn spent seven seasons with the New York Giants, serving five years (1997-2001) as secondary coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. In his first season as defensive coordinator, the Giants stingy defense ranked 3rd in the NFL in points allowed, holding opponents to 17.4 points per game. The Giants also finished 9th in both total defense (309.3 ypg) and pass defense (194.9 ypg). While Lynn mentored the defensive backs, the team consistently had one of the NFL's best pass defenses. In the 2000 NFC Championship Game, the Giants limited Pro Bowlers Cris Carter and Randy Moss of the Vikings to just five catches for 60 yards. Lynn was also instrumental in helping to develop a throng of talented defensive backs including Will Allen, William Peterson, Shaun Williams and Jason Sehorn, to name a few.

Prior to coaching defensive backs for the 49ers in 1996, Lynn was the secondary coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and 1995. Before moving into the NFL coaching ranks, Lynn served in a number of coaching capacities at the University of Arizona from 1987 to 1993. He started as the Wildcats graduate assistant in 1987, and was elevated to outside linebackers coach (1988-91), before taking over the defensive backs (1992-93).

Lynn enjoyed an eight-year NFL career (1979-86) with the New York Jets as a cornerback and safety. He originally joined the Jets as a fourth-round draft pick out of UCLA. He ended his career 10th on the Jets career interception list with 17.

A four-year letterman at UCLA, Lynn played on four bowl teams and garnered All-PAC 10 honors as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in history.

Lynn and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of three children: Ashley, Chazz and Cameron.

Ray Brown was named the assistant offensive line coach for the 49ers on February, 4 2010, returning to the team with whom he played for from 1996 to 2001. In his role, Brown will work alongside the team's new offensive line coach Mike Solari, who joined the team earlier this year.

Brown, 47, joins San Francisco's coaching staff after serving as the assistant offensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills for two seasons (2008–09). Prior to coaching in Buffalo, he spent the second half of the 2006 season as a special assistant on the Washington Redskins coaching staff, working with the offensive linemen.

Originally an eighth round selection (201st overall) by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1986 NFL Draft, Brown went on to play 20 seasons in the NFL with four different franchises – Cardinals (1986–88), Redskins (1989–95, 2004–05), 49ers (1996–2001) and Lions (2002–03). He played in a total of 265 games (202 starts), lining up at both guard and tackle throughout his career. Brown was a member of the Washington Redskins 1991 Super Bowl (XXVI) Championship team, and later earned Pro Bowl and first-team All–Pro honors while playing right guard for the 49ers, in 2001.

Brown was born in Marion, AK, and went on to become an All–Southland Conference selection at Arkansas State.

Duane Carlisle is in his third season as the 49ers head strength and conditioning coach after spending the previous three seasons as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Carlisle is responsible for overseeing the team's comprehensive strength and conditioning program, which includes strength, power development, speed, recovery and regeneration, as well as the nutritional program for the players. He brings an individualized approach to the strength and conditioning position, but within a team-based context.

During the offseason, Carlisle helps direct the team's spring/summer conditioning program, which has been a tremendous success, garnering nearly 100 percent participation. The 14-week progression of exercises is designed to build muscle size, strength and stamina while keying on position-specific speed and proper nutrition.

During Carlisle's three seasons as an assistant, he served under legendary strength and conditioning coach Johnny Parker, a three-time Super Bowl champion and 20-year NFL veteran. Like Parker, Carlisle believes a great strength and conditioning program should never leave the head coach worried about what condition the players are in.

Carlisle's experience before coming to the 49ers includes four teams among three different professional sports, ranging from the high school to the professional levels. He served as a speed development consultant for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2000 to 2004, marking his second stint with the team after having spent time as a seasonal assistant from 1996 to 1997 and a strength and conditioning intern in 1995.

Carlisle served as the head speed, strength and conditioning coach for the Philadelphia Charge of the Women's United Soccer Association, as well as a speed, strength and conditioning consultant for Major League Lacrosse's New Jersey Pride (2001-03). Additionally, he was the speed development coordinator with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays (1997-98) and the sprint and jump coach at Penn State University. Carlisle also served as the director of strength and conditioning at the prestigious Lawrenceville School in Lawrenceville, NJ.

As President & Founder of Lightning Fast Training Systems, Carlisle is one of the leaders in the area of athletic performance training. He has spent the last 16 years pushing athletes to perform to their maximum potential and has prepared numerous NFL stars for the NFL Scouting Combine.

Carlisle starred in track and field at the University of Maryland. He graduated with an emphasis in economics and physical education.

Carlisle is married to Shereese, and the couple has four children.

WENDELL DAVIS

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

2ND NFL SEASON, 2ND WITH 49ERS

This is in his second season as assistant wide receivers coach. In his role, Davis works alongside wide receivers coach Jerry Sullivan.

Davis, 44, joined San Francisco's coaching staff following the signing of WR Michael Crabtree in the midst of the 2009 season and helped acclimate the talented rookie to the NFL level. Crabtree finished the season with 48 receptions for 625 yards and 2 touchdowns in only 10 games played for the 49ers.

A first round selection (28th overall) by the Chicago Bears in the 1988 NFL Draft out of LSU, Davis went on to play six seasons for Chicago and one year with the Colts. He saw action in 81 games, starting in 55, before rupturing both of his patella tendons on the same pass route against the Philadelphia Eagles in 1993. Davis caught 207 passes for 3,000 yards and 14 touchdowns in his career.

Born and raised in Shreveport, LA, Davis went on to become a first–team All–America selection as a senior at LSU. He totaled 183 catches for 2,708 yards during his time with the Tigers. Davis earned a bachelor's degree in organizational management in 1988.

Davis and his wife, Tricia, are the parents of Sydney Pierce, Malcolm Davis and Tori Davis.

Dave Fipp is in his third season with the 49ers as assistant special teams coach after being hired on April 15, 2008.

Fipp has played a substantial role in taking the 49ers special teams unit to new heights since his arrival. In 2009, P Andy Lee earned his second Pro Bowl selection after ranking 2nd in the NFL in gross punting average (47.6) and net punting average (41.0). Known as a special teams ace, RB Michael Robinson was named a Pro Bowl alternate as a specialist for his work in all phases of special teams, marking the second consecutive season he had earned the recognition. K Joe Nedney continued his successful career with Fipp's guidance, finishing the 2009 season ranked 38th on the NFL's all-time scoring list with 1,063 points.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Fipp worked with the San Jose State Spartans for three seasons. He served as defensive coordinator during his final year and had previously held the title of co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach for the Spartans.

Fipp joined the Spartan staff after spending the 2004 season at the University of Nevada as the co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He also served as the defensive coordinator at Cal Poly from 2002 to 2003 after starting out as the Mustangs' defensive backs coach in 2001.

Prior to the 2000 season, Fipp returned to his alma mater, the University of Arizona, as a graduate assistant and coached the safeties. Fipp began his coaching career at College of the Holy Cross as a secondary coach and special teams coordinator in 1998.

A 1997 graduate from the University of Arizona, Fipp played for the Wildcats from 1994 to 1997. He led Arizona's special teams unit in tackles as a sophomore in 1995 and was the Wildcats' starting free safety in 1996 and 1997. The 1997 Wildcats were among the top defensive units in the Pacific-10 Conference and ranked 12th nationally in rushing defense.

He and his wife, Jenny, have two daughters, Ashlee and Lilly, and a son, Tyler.

second season with the 49ers being named the team's pass rush specialist coach on January 12, 2009.

In his first season with the team, San Francisco finished the season ranked tied for 3rd in the NFL with 44 sacks, an improvement from the 30 sacks (t–16th) a year prior. The 44 sacks marked the highest team total and ranking since 1998, when the 49ers recorded 51 sacks to rank 3rd in the NFL. San Francisco had six players record at least four sacks on the season, which included career–highs by LB Manny Lawson (6.5) and LB Ahmad Brooks (6.0).

Harris spent 11 seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1979–84, '86–88) and Philadelphia Eagles (1989–90) after being chosen as the ninth overall draft pick by the Bears in 1979 out of Arizona State. He played in 149 career games, alternating between defensive end (six seasons) and linebacker (five seasons).

Harris played for some of the top coaches in NFL history during his tenures with the Bears and Eagles, learning the game under the likes of head coach Mike Ditka and defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan in Chicago. Harris went on to play for Ryan, who left the Bears prior to the 1986 season for the head coaching position in Philadelphia.

Harris is married to the former Maggie D'Orazio. The couple has two children – daughter Emily and son Jason.

Pete Hoener (HAY–ner) is in his sixth season with the 49ers after being named tight ends coach on February 16, 2005.

Hoener has been instrumental in the development of tight ends Vernon Davis and Delanie Walker, both of whom were selected by the 49ers in the 2006 NFL Draft.

In 2009, Davis enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons by an NFL tight end in recent history, a campaign that landed him a starting role in the 2010 Pro Bowl. With 13 receiving touchdowns, Davis tied an NFL record for the most touchdowns in a season by a tight end (TE Antonio Gates – 13 in 2004). His 13 touchdown catches were tied for the most in the NFL with Patriots WR Randy Moss and Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald in 2009, making him the first tight end in the Super Bowl era to lead or tie for the league lead in touchdown catches in a season. Davis also led the team with career–highs of 78 receptions and 965 receiving yards. Walker also experienced a productive season, using his elusive speed to rack up a career–high 233 receiving yards on 21 catches.

Hoener joined San Francisco after spending the 2004 season as the offensive line coach of the Chicago Bears. Under Hoener, the Bears offensive line paved the way for RB Thomas Jones to tally 948 rushing yards.

Prior to his stint with Chicago, Hoener spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals as both the offensive line coach (2003) and tight ends coach (2001–02). Hoener broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the St. Louis Cardinals (1985–86), tutoring the tight ends while working alongside Jim Hanifan.

In addition to his nine years of NFL experience, Hoener chalks up more than 25 years of college coaching knowledge, including 15 as an offensive coordinator. His coaching stops include Texas A&M (2000), Iowa State (1998–99), Texas Christian (1991–97), Purdue (1989–91), Illinois (1986–88), Indiana State (1978–84), Illinois State (1977) and Missouri (1975–76).

Hoener played football and earned a bachelor's degree from Bradley University (1974).

Mike Johnson is in his second season with the 49ers after being named the quarterbacks coach on February 6, 2009.

Known for his attention to fundamentals and detail, Johnson played a significant role in developing the team's quarterbacks in 2009. Quarterbacks Shaun Hill and Alex Smith combined for 23 touchdown passes on the season, marking the highest total in a single season by San Francisco since 2003 (25). After Hill started the first six games of the season, Smith earned his way back into the starting lineup after having not played a regular season game in over two years due to injury. Under Johnson's tutelage, Smith stepped in and had the best 10-game stretch of his career, setting career highs in touchdown passes (18), completion percentage (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5).

Prior to joining San Francisco, Johnson served as the wide receivers coach in Baltimore from 2006 to 2007. With the Ravens, he helped 12-year veteran receiver Derrick Mason record his sixth 1,000-yard season in 2007. Mason tallied 1,087 yards on 103 receptions with five touchdowns, leading the team in all receiving categories. A year prior, WR Mark Clayton developed into the Ravens top deep threat and playmaker, posting three touchdowns of 62-or-more yards.

Prior to joining Baltimore, Johnson spent three years as the quarterbacks coach with the Atlanta Falcons, tutoring three-time Pro Bowl QB Michael Vick. Vick put up 2,412 passing yards and 15 touchdowns, while ranking second on the team with 597 rushing yards and six touchdowns, in 2005. In 2004, Vick became the first NFL quarterback to throw for more than 250 yards and run for more than 100 yards in a single game (at Den. 10/31/04).

In 2003, Interim Head Coach Wade Phillips asked Johnson to call the Falcons offensive plays for the final two games of the season. In those two contests, Vick compiled his second-highest quarterback rankings of the year (119.2 at Tampa Bay, 12/20/03, and 93.0 vs. Jacksonville, 12/28/03).

In 2002, Johnson guided a young Falcons wide receiver corps that included WR Brian Finneran, who had the best year of his career, recording 838 yards on 56 receptions and six touchdowns.

From 2000 to 2001, Johnson served as the quarterbacks coach for the San Diego Chargers. Under Johnson's guidance, QB Doug Flutie amassed career-highs with 3,464 yards passing and 294 completions in 2001. Flutie's passing yards that season were the most for a Chargers quarterback since QB Dan Fouts put up 3,638 yards in 1985. During the 2001 campaign, Flutie threw for more than 300 yards on four occasions.

Johnson coached the quarterbacks at Oregon State in 1999 after serving as the Beavers wide receivers coach from 1997 to 1998.

Johnson played five pro seasons as a quarterback, beginning his career as a rookie free agent with the Arizona Cardinals in 1990. After being released as part of the team's final cuts of training camp that season, Johnson played two years for the San Antonio Riders of the World League. Johnson moved to the Canadian Football league in 1992 and quarterbacked the British Columbia Lions for two seasons. From 1994 to 1995, he quarterbacked the CFL's Shreveport Pirates for his final two pro playing years.

Johnson was the backup quarterback at ASU from 1985 to 1986, but then transferred to Mesa Community College, where he became a Junior College All-American in 1987. Johnson then transferred to the University of Akron for two years (1988-89) and was named Akron's Athlete of the Year in 1990.

Vance Joseph is in his sixth season in San Francisco and fifth as secondary coach with the 49ers after originally joining the team on February 17, 2005. He shares the secondary duties with Johnnie Lynn.

Joseph coached a secondary comprised of both youth and experience in 2009, overseeing a hard–hitting unit that recorded 8 of the 21 FFs (t–1st in the NFL) by San Francisco. Joseph successfully transitioned FS Dashon Goldson into a full–fledge starter, as the third–year veteran led the team in INTs (4) and ranked 2nd in tackles (114), to go along with 3 FFs, 2 sacks and 1 FR. After losing veteran Pro Bowler CB Walt Harris in the 2009 offseason, Joseph helped integrate CB Shawntae Spencer, who was limited the previous two seasons due to injury, back into the starting lineup. Spencer went on to be voted the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner after starting all 16 games and leading the team in passes defensed (17).

Joseph joined San Francisco after serving as the defensive backs coach at Bowling Green State University in 2004. He joined Bowling Green's staff after working in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of Colorado, for two seasons (2002–03). Joseph also had a brief stint as the secondary coach at Wyoming (2002). He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant for the Buffaloes (1999–01).

Joseph lettered three times during his five–year (1990–94) collegiate career at Colorado as a quarterback. Joseph was a true freshman who saw action on Colorado's 1990 National Championship team.

Joseph signed as an undrafted free agent with the New York Jets in 1995, where he made the transition from quarterback to defensive back. He played 17 NFL games with the Jets and Indianapolis Colts over the course of two seasons. Joseph finished his career with two interceptions.

Born and raised in Marrero, LA, Joseph received a bachelor's degree in marketing from Colorado, in 1994.

the 49ers as the team's offensive assistant, a position in which he works closely on the game plan with offensive coordinator, Jimmy Raye, while also assisting with the quarterbacks.

Michael previously served as the tight ends coach at the University of Tennessee during the 2008 season, after spending the previous two years as a member of the New York Jets coaching staff. During his first year with the Jets in 2006, Michael served as the team's quality control coach, which included working with the quarterbacks alongside offensive coordinator Brian Schottenheimer. The following season, he was assigned to tight ends coach for the team. Prior to joining the Jets, Michael served as an offensive quality control coach and video assistant for the Oakland Raiders in 2005.

Michael broke into the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at the University of Tennessee, where he spent the 2004 season as the primary graduate assistant for defense and special teams. He first arrived at the school as an assistant for both the strength and conditioning and video staffs in 2003.

A collegiate athlete, Michael played quarterback for Western Kentucky from 1999 to 2002, where he threw for more than 1,600 yards and rushed for over 600 yards as a senior. He was named the team's MVP that season after leading the Hilltoppers to the NCAA Division I–AA National Championship.

Michael graduated from Western Kentucky with an undergraduate degree in civil engineering technology. A native of Louisa, KY, he is married to wife, Jamie.

Tom Rathman rejoined the 49ers as the team's running backs coach in 2009 after serving the previous two seasons in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders. It marks Rathman's second coaching stint in San Francisco, having also coached the running backs for the team from 1997 to 2002.

Under Rathman's tutelage in 2009, RB Frank Gore became the first player in 49ers history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in four seasons (2006–09), as the fifth year veteran posted 1,120 rushing yards and a career–high 10 rushing touchdowns on the season, despite missing two games due to injury. For his efforts, Gore was named an alternate for the 2010 Pro Bowl, and eventually played in the honorary game. He also was twice named NFC Offensive Player of the Week (2 & 14).

While with the Raiders, Rathman oversaw a rushing attack that ranked 10th (124.2 ypg) in the NFL in 2008 after ranking 6th (130.4 ypg) a year prior. Rathman played an instrumental role in developing RB Justin Fargas, who rushed for 1,009 yards in 2007 and 853 yards in 2008.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rathman served as the running backs coach for the Detroit Lions from 2003 to 2005. In 2004, Rathman tutored RB Kevin Jones, who rushed for 1,133 yards, including an NFL–leading 825 yards on 153 attempts (5.4 avg.) over the final seven games of the season. Jones' performance in his first NFL season was tops among rookies in the NFL that year and the best rookie season by a Lions running back since RB Barry Sanders in 1989.

During Rathman's first coaching stint with the 49ers, San Francisco's rushing attack finished in the top 10 among NFL teams in five of the six seasons under his guidance, including top–ranked seasons in 1998 (159.0 ypg) and 1999 (130.9 ypg), to go along with a 2nd ranked unit in 2001 (140.3).

In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding RB Garrison Hearst, the two–time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. He coached RB Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000–yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000 after gaining 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career–high seven touchdowns. Garner also eclipsed his career–highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns.

Prior to his coaching career, Rathman enjoyed an NFL playing career of his own that spanned nine seasons (1986–94) as a fullback. He entered the league as a third round pick by San Francisco, where he spent the first eight years of his career helping the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. In 1989, he led all NFL running backs in receiving with 73 receptions for 616 yards. Rathman played his final season in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994, closing out his NFL career with 2,020 rushing yards, 320 receptions for 2,684 yards and 34 total touchdowns.

In between his playing and coaching career in the NFL, the Grand Island, Nebraska native helped rebuild the Menlo College (CA) program by serving as the team's offensive coordinator in 1996 after serving as the running backs coach at Serra High School in San Mateo (CA) in 1995.

A three–year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged more than six yards per carry.

Rathman and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole, Alexandra, and Samantha.

Vantz Singletary enters his second season with the 49ers as the team's inside linebackers coach after having spent 17 successful seasons in the collegiate ranks.

In 2009, Singletary coached an inside linebacker unit that played a significant role in the team finishing ranked 6th in the NFL in rushing defense (97.0 ypg.) and 3rd in the NFL in rushing yards per attempt (3.6 avg.), allowing just 1,552 rushing yards to mark the lowest rushing total allowed by the team since 1997 (1,366 yds.).

Singletary helped LB Patrick Willis set career-highs in INTs (3) and FFs (3), while tying a career high in sacks (4) and leading the NFL in tackles (152), on his way to his second first-team All-Pro honor and third consecutive Pro Bowl. Willis was also named NFL Alumni Linebacker of the Year and won the Butkus Award, given annually to the best linebacker in the NFL. Linebacker Takeo Spikes, who lined up alongside Willis, finished 4th on the team with 95 tackles to go along with 4 sacks, which marked his highest total since 2001.

Opposing running backs found it difficult to get past the second level with the 49ers ranking 5th in the NFL (1st in the NFC) in rushes of 10-or-more yards allowed, thanks to the play of Singletary's group. The team also ranked 3rd in the NFL with a 2.6 avg. on carries up the middle.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Singletary served as the defensive tackles coach and interim defensive coordinator at the University of Buffalo in 2008. During his only season with the Bulls, he was part of a coaching staff that led the school to its first ever bowl appearance. Buffalo's victory over previously unbeaten Ball State in its final regular season game gave the Bulls the 2008 Mid-American Conference title. The defensive unit finished tied for seventh nationally (1st in the MAC) in takeaways (33).

Singletary spent the previous two seasons as the defensive line coach at Tennessee-Chattanooga. In 2007, the Mocs led the Southern Conference in quarterback sacks, takeaways, passes defensed and yards allowed per play. Chattanooga posted a nine-sack outing against Elon in 2006 setting a school record.

For seven seasons, from 1999 to 2005, Singletary worked as the defensive line coach at Hawaii. In Singletary's first season in the South Pacific, the Warriors were WAC Champions with a 9-4 record, won the Jeep O'Ahu Bowl and became the NCAA's all-time turnaround team after a winless 0-12 season the year prior. The defensive unit accounted for five touchdowns, 17 interceptions, 33 sacks and 17 fumble recoveries. In 2003, DE Travis LaBoy, who is now a current member of the 49ers, finished 9th in the nation with 13 sacks under Singletary's tutelage. He went on to earn WAC Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-WAC honors.

During his coaching career at Hawaii, Singletary coached 11 All-WAC selections and was the first coach at Hawaii to receive the Award of Excellence for his outstanding support of academics. The future professional football players he mentored included current 49ers defensive linemen Isaac Sopoaga and LaBoy, as well as Lions Ikaika Alama-Francis.

From 1997 to 1998, Singletary served as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Southern, coaching future NFL player Chris White, who was drafted in the seventh round by the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1999. In addition, the Jaguars won the NCAA I-AA Black College National Championship in 1997 and back-to-back Southwestern Athletic Conference titles in 1997 and 1998.

Singletary's coaching career began at Trinity College in Deerfield, Illinois. During his tenure at Trinity from 1992 to 1996, his roles included defensive coordinator, defensive line coach, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator. Alongside head coach Leslie Frazier, Singletary helped lead the school to two Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles, and under his tutelage, DE Herbert Coleman became the school's first NFL draft pick as he was selected in the seventh round in 1995 by the 49ers.

As a collegiate coach, Singletary coached in seven Bowl Game appearances – 1997 Heritage Bowl, 1998 Heritage Bowl, 1999 Jeep O'ahu Bowl, 2002 Conagra Foods Hawai'i Bowl, 2003 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, 2004 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, 2009 International Bowl.

As a player, Singletary starred at defensive tackle and linebacker for Kansas State in 1987 and 1988 after spending two All-American junior college seasons at Blinn College in Brenham, TX. He received a NFL free agent tryout as a linebacker and lineman with the Philadelphia Eagles.

A native of Houston, TX, Singletary worked as a summer intern at NFL camps for many years, including stints with Arizona, Houston, New Orleans, Tampa Bay, San Diego, San Francisco and Cincinnati. In June 2004, he was one of 10 minority coaches to be invited to the NCAA Expert Coaching Program in Indianapolis, IN.

Vantz, the nephew of current 49ers head coach Mike Singletary, is married to the former Shawndra Saulter of Houston, TX. The couple has four daughters – Courtney, LaShea, Briauna and Keona.

49ers and his sixth as the team's outside linebackers coach.

Under Tarver's guidance in 2009, the 49ers outside linebacker unit proved highly productive, recording 15 takeaways, 17.5 sacks and nine FFs, while helping 'set the edge' in a run defense that ranked 6th in the NFL. LB Manny Lawson enjoyed a breakout season as he led the team with a career–high 6.5 sacks, while LB Ahmad Brooks recorded a career–high 6.0 sacks and LB Parys Haralson posted another 5.0 sacks. Both Lawson and Brooks recorded 4 FFs apiece, which ties for the 49ers single–season record. The 49ers defense as a whole finished the season ranked t–3rd in the NFL in sacks (44), t–1st in FFs (21) and 4th for points allowed per game (17.6).

In 2007, Tarver played an instrumental role in developing Haralson into a starter as he filled in for Lawson, who was sidelined with a season–ending knee injury in Week 2. A year later, Haralson led the team with a career–high 8.0 sacks, a total which t–2nd most among NFC linebackers.

Tarver spent his first three seasons with the 49ers as an offensive quality control coach before becoming the assistant running backs/offensive assistant coach in 2004. He joined the 49ers staff after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA (1998–2000).

In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams. Three of the unit's starting defensive backs during that span went on to join the NFL ranks, including CB Ricky Manning Jr., S Marques Anderson and CB Jason Bell.

A Northern California native, Tarver played defensive back and wing back at Foothill High in Pleasanton. He attended Santa Clara University, but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995 because the Santa Clara Broncos cut their program.

After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons (1996–97) as an assistant coach at West Valley College, where he tutored linebackers, defensive backs and special teams.

Born in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his master's degree in biochemistry and molecular biology from UCLA, and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000.

Tarver and his wife, Katie, reside in San Jose with their sons Merrick and Keegan.

Jim Tomsula is in his fourth season with the 49ers after being named the team's defensive line coach on January 16, 2007.

Since Tomsula's arrival, the 49ers run defense and pass rush has steadily improved. During his three seasons with the team, the defensive line has been stout against the run, allowing a mere 3.7 yards per carry, to rank 4th in the NFL during that span. In terms of yards per carry allowed, San Francisco's defense ranked 5th (3.8) in 2007, 8th (3.8) in 2008 and 3rd (3.6) in 2009, a notable improvement from ranking 16th (4.1) in 2006 prior to Tomsula's arrival.

In 2009, the 49ers ranked 6th in the NFL against the run, allowing just 1,552 rushing yards to mark the lowest rushing total allowed by the team since 1997 (1,366 yds.). DT Justin Smith finished the year among the team leaders in tackles (90), while also posting 6.0 sacks, 2 FFs and 2 FRs. For his efforts, he was named an alternate for the 2010 Pro Bowl, and eventually played in the annual game. A stalwart against the run, DT Aubrayo Franklin played a significant role in limiting opposing ball carriers to just 3.6 yards per carry, which ranked 3rd in the NFL.

Tomsula has also played an instrumental role in developing the team's pass rush. In each season under Tomsula's guidance, the 49ers have seen their sack totals increase, ranking 21st (31) in 2007 and 15th (34) in 2008, before ranking tied for 3rd in the NFL with 44 sacks in 2009. The 44 sacks marked the most by team since 1998, when the 49ers recorded 51 sacks to rank 3rd in the NFL.

Tomsula joined the 49ers after enjoying one of the most successful stints in NFL Europa history. Prior to being named the head coach of the Rhein Fire in 2006, which made him the youngest coach in NFLE history at age 38, Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in 2004. During that season, Tomsula's defense ranked first in the NFLE against the run.

Tomsula joined the NFLE in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Between NFL Europa seasons, Tomsula was also a member of Division II Catawba College's coaching staff and was part of numerous college all-star games in a coaching capacity.

Tomsula was a defensive lineman at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC after transferring from Middle Tennessee State. In 1989, he started his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater. He was then the defensive line coach at Woodland Hills (PA) High School in 1991 and later was an assistant at Charleston Southern University, SC in 1992.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in San Jose with their daughters Britney and Brooke, and son Bear.

Mark Uyeyama (ooh–ee–YAH–muh) is in his third season with the 49ers after being hired as the team's assistant strength coach on January 21, 2008.

Uyeyama joined the 49ers after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at Utah State University from 2004 to 2007.

Uyeyama graduated from Utah in May of 2000 while working as a student assistant strength coach for two years. He then became a graduate assistant at USU before moving to another graduate assistant position at Arizona State from 2001 to 2003, when he was promoted to a full–time assistant.

Prior to working in the strength and conditioning field, Uyeyama played football at Butte Community College in Oroville, CA and Northern State University in Aberdeen, SD.

He earned a master's degree in higher and post secondary education from ASU in May of 2003.

Bill Nayes is in his second season with the 49ers as Special Assistant to the Head Coach.

Prior to joining the 49ers, he served as Assistant Athletic Director/Director of Football Operations at the University of Wisconsin–Madison for three years. With the Badgers, Nayes coordinated all team operations, including game scheduling, budgeting, team travel, camps, operational schedules, and team bowl trips. He also served as a liaison between football and various departments, and supervised office personnel.

Before his time at Wisconsin, Nayes served as Football Operations Coordinator/Team Travel with the Seattle Seahawks under then Head Coach Mike Holmgren from 1999 to 2006. During his seven years in Seattle, he was responsible for all aspects of the team's travel, including the budget, team charters, hotel accommodations, meal arrangements and ground transportation. Nayes also organized the Seahawks' training camp and mini–camps, as well as the team's operational schedules.

Nayes was originally hired full–time by the Packers in 1997 after serving as a training camp intern during the summers of 1995 and 1996. He worked under Holmgren as Administrative Assistant/Football Operations until 1999.

During his years of working in football operations, which initially began at his alma mater as a student football manager before moving into a Football Operations Assistant role upon graduation, Nayes has been a part of six college bowl games, three international games, and seven NFL postseasons, including three Super Bowls.

Nayes graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin–Madison in 1994. He and his wife Paige, have a daughter, Natalia and a son, Joe. They reside in Santa Clara, CA.

Now in his sixth season with the 49ers, Trent Baalke enters his first season as the team's personnel point–man having been promoted to Vice President of Player Personnel in May 2010.

In his 13th NFL season, Baalke oversees all aspects of player personnel, including the draft, free agency, trades and re–signings. As he did as the Director of Player Personnel from 2008 to 2009, he oversees both the college scouting and pro personnel departments.

Prior to being promoted to Director of Player Personnel in 2008, Baalke had served as the team's Western Region Scout for three seasons. Before joining the 49ers, he spent four years on the Washington Redskins scouting staff, serving as the College Scouting Coordinator in his final year. From 2001 to 2003, Baalke served as Washington's National Scout and traveled throughout the country in search of rising talent. Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998–2000) as a scout with the New York Jets.

Baalke's path to the NFL was quite unique. From 1990 to 1995, he held the position of defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State. In that role, he helped promote players such as former Pro Bowl guard Adam Timmerman and current NFL kicker Adam Vinatieri to NFL scouts. Surprisingly, his work in the college ranks did not lead directly to professional sports as he then spent time as the athletic director at Shanley High School in Fargo, ND. It was during that tenure that he received his first NFL opportunity with the New York Jets.

Baalke cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant and defensive line coach in 1989 for North Dakota State. He helped play a role in the team finishing with a 14–0 record and a Division II National Championship, while also working with defensive lineman Phil Hansen, who went on to play 11 seasons for the Buffalo Bills.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State. Baalke played outside linebacker and was a two–time All–Northern Sun Conference and an All–Mid West Region honoree at Bemidji.

Trent and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Katy and Cassie. The family resides in Loveland, CO.

Tom Gamble is in his 23rd NFL season and his sixth year with the 49ers as the Director of Pro Personnel. Gamble's extensive NFL resume includes work in both college and pro scouting, contract negotiations, and a stint in the coaching ranks.

In his role, Gamble monitors every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining continuous depth of personnel on the 49ers roster. In 2010, he was assigned additional responsibilities in collegiate scouting in order to maximize the use of his extensive experience in talent evaluation.

During his time in the NFL, Gamble has helped build nine playoff teams – five with Indianapolis and four with Philadelphia. Prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Gamble served as a college scout for the Colts from 1998 to 2004 under veteran NFL executive Bill Polian.

Gamble originally entered the NFL as an assistant in the player personnel department of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1988. He stayed with the Eagles through 1994, serving as a college scouting administrator, area scout, contract negotiator, and later served as the director of pro scouting.

From 1995 to 1996, Gamble served as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the New York Jets. He then worked as a part–time college scout for the Carolina Panthers before serving as a pro scout for the Baltimore Ravens during the 1997 season.

Gamble earned his B.S. from High Point University in 1987 and an M.S. from Rowan University in 1988. He grew up in a football family, where his father, Harry, served as the head coach at both the University of Pennsylvania and Lafayette College. Harry was also formerly the President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Gamble and his wife, Juliette, have three sons, Tom, Gregory and Matthew.

JOEL PATTEN

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Joel Patten is in his first season with the 49ers as the Director of College Scouting. He joins San Francisco with 14 years of NFL scouting experience and more than a decade of professional playing experience. In his role, Patten oversees the college scouting staff and the daily operations of the department.

In 2009, Patten served as a regional scout for the St. Louis Rams. Prior to joining the Rams, he was a national scout for the Washington Redskins from 2004–08, where he worked alongside 49ers Vice President of Player Personnel Baalke, in 2004. Patten also spent time as a regional scout for the Houston Texans (2000–03) and the Redskins (1996–99).

Patten played eight seasons in the NFL and three in USFL as an offensive tackle. Having originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Cleveland Browns in 1980, he played in 56 career games for the Browns (1980–82), Colts (1987–88), Chargers (1989–90) and Los Angeles Raiders (1991–92). He also played for the Washington Federals (1983–84) and the Orlando Renegades (1985) of the USFL.

A 1980 graduate of Duke University, Patten and his wife, Betsy, live in Chantilly, VA, and have three children – Jake, Christina and Kimberly.

Matt Malaspina is in his sixth season with the 49ers and his first as a national scout. He previously served as the team's Southeast regional scout for five years. In his current role, Malaspina will be responsible for scouting college football's top prospects, as well as various special assignments.

Malaspina joined the 49ers after spending five years as an area scout with the Seattle Seahawks. Prior to the Seahawks, he spent the 1999 season with the Carolina Panthers, where he evaluated college players in the Southeast region. Malaspina spent the previous year with National Football Scouting.

Malaspina was an assistant offensive coach at Jacksonville University from 1997 to 1998. He entered college coaching in 1997 as an intern at his alma mater, the University of Central Florida. A 1993 graduate of Central Florida, Malaspina went on to have a brief playing career as a center for the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian Football League, playing in 1994 and attending training camp in 1995.

Malaspina and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Chuluota, FL, with their son, Carson, and daughters, Grace and Julia.

Todd Brunner is in his 11th season with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent two seasons as an area scout with the Cleveland Browns, where he combed the Northeast region in 1999 and 2000 for college talent. Brunner joined the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles where he spent four seasons (1994–97) as an area scout covering the Northeast. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner attended Lehigh (PA) University and lettered two years in football. As a junior, he led the team in special teams tackles, and as a senior quarterback, tied or broke 14 school passing records. Following his football career at Lehigh, Brunner spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple, in 1991, and earned his master's degree.

Brunner comes from a football family as his father John coached at Temple, Villanova, Princeton and in the NFL ranks with Detroit, Green Bay, Tampa Bay and Minnesota, before scouting for the 49ers for 13 seasons. His brother, Scott, spent time in the NFL with the New York Giants.

Brunner is a regular contributor as an insider columnist on 49ers.com, where he writes a monthly blog.

Born in Middletown, NY, Brunner and his wife, Nancy, reside in Robbinsville, NJ, with their daughter, Annie Elizabeth, and son, Chad Joseph.

Justin Chabot is in his seventh season with the 49ers and his first covering the Southeast region. He had spent the previous six years as the team's Southwest regional scout.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Chabot spent five years as the director of football operations at Northwestern. As part of his role with the Wildcats, Chabot served as the pro liaison to visiting college talent scouts from the NFL. Chabot was extremely familiar with Northwestern's football program, having starred as an offensive lineman on the 1995 and 1996 Big Ten Championship teams.

Chabot recorded 41 career starts on the Northwestern offensive line, including starts on the 1996 Rose Bowl and the 1997 Citrus Bowl teams. A four-year letterwinner and captain of the 1996 squad, Chabot was named first-team All-Big Ten by the media and coaches as a senior. He was also named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 1993.

Born in Washington, DC, Chabot was raised in Oxford, OH. He graduated from Northwestern in 1996 with a degree in sociology, and played professionally during the 1997 season with the Pittsburgh Steelers and the New York Giants.

Chabot resides in Baton Rouge, LA, with his wife, Suzy, and twin sons, Walker and Brant.

Reggie Cobb is in his second season with the 49ers as the club's Western region scout.

Cobb joined the 49ers after spending the previous six years scouting the Southwest region for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and two seasons (2001–02) as a member of the Washington Redskins scouting department.

The 2008 Bucs draft produced CB Aqib Talib, who tied for first in the NFL among rookies with four interceptions, OL Jeremy Zuttah, who started at both guard positions, and LB Geno Hayes, who was a big contributor on special teams. The Buccaneers also signed undrafted rookie free agent RB Clifton Smith, who was selected to the 2009 AFC/NFC Pro Bowl as a kick returner and was named AP Second–Team All–Pro.

The Bucs 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11). In 2007, Cobb helped assemble a Bucs draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All–Rookie team in G Arron Sears and late DE Gaines Adams, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson, who started all 16 games.

Cobb enjoyed a seven–year playing career that began as a second–round pick (30th overall) by the Buccaneers in 1990. Cobb played his first four seasons (1990–93) with Tampa Bay before playing one season each with Green Bay (1994), Jacksonville (1995) and the N.Y. Jets (1996).

Cobb finished his college career ranked third on the University of Tennessee's career rushing chart with 2,360 yards and 26 touchdowns. He was also a member of the school's 100th anniversary team. Cobb lettered in track and graduated with a degree in urban studies in 1990.

Cobb and his son, DeMarcus, live in Sugarland, Texas.

Kent Kahl is in his fourth season with the 49ers as the club's Midlands region scout.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Kahl spent more than 10 years as a contractor, building homes in the greater Iowa City area.

Kahl was a running back at the University of Colorado (1991–92). After two seasons at Colorado, Kahl transferred to Iowa for his final two collegiate campaigns (1993–94), making the switch to fullback, and was voted as the team's MVP his senior year.

In 1995, Kahl spent time in training camp with the San Diego Chargers before returning to the state of Iowa.

Kahl is a native of Ft. Morgan, CO, where he was a running back, forward and hurdler on Ft. Morgan High School's football, basketball and track teams. After his college playing career concluded, Kahl traveled back to his alma mater periodically to assist his father, Rick, who served as the Ft. Morgan football team's head coach for more than 20 years.

Kahl is single and resides in Iowa City, IA.

Bob Morris is in his first season with the 49ers as the club's the Southern region scout.

Morris joined the 49ers after spending the previous eight years as an area scout for the Cleveland Browns.

Prior to becoming a scout, Morris served as a collegiate assistant coach at the Division I–A level for 21 years. He started his coaching career as a secondary coach at Northern Illinois University from 1980 to 1983, after working the previous two years as a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado.

Morris then served as secondary coach for 10 seasons (1984–93) at Indiana University and helped the Hoosiers reach six bowl games. He was defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Purdue University from 1994 to 1995 and served as the Boilermakers' special teams coordinator in 1996. Morris was passing game coordinator/secondary coach at the University of Akron from 1998 to 2000 and was the Zips defensive coordinator/secondary coach in 2001.

A two–year letter winner at defensive back and punt returner for the Colorado Buffaloes, Morris helped the team to a Big–8 Championship in 1976. He later received a master's degree in sports psychology and a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Colorado. Morris also lettered three years in basketball for the Buffaloes.

A native of Boulder, CO, Morris is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Jerod and Joshua. The Morris family volunteers with the Big Brothers and Big Sisters organization. The name of their "little brother" is Bryce.

Ethan Waugh is in his seventh season with the 49ers, and his third covering the Midwest as an area scout after serving as a player personnel assistant and college scouting administrator for four seasons.

In covering the Midwest, he is responsible for an area encompassing six states containing schools from the Big 10, SEC, Big East and Mid–American conferences. Prior to being promoted to an area scout, he was involved in assisting the personnel department in a variety of areas, including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players and working extensively with the 49ers' scouting database.

Waugh joined the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons at Illinois Wesleyan University, where he served as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator.

Prior to his time at Illinois Wesleyan, Waugh served as an assistant at Western Carolina University from 1997–2001. While with the Catamounts, he coached on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball and assisted with special teams.

Waugh grew up in Vernon Hills, IL, and played defensive back for two years at Lake Forest College before transferring to Lawrence University where he played the slot and quarterback positions. He is a 1997 graduate of Lawrence with a bachelor's degree in history and earned a master's degree in American History from Western Carolina in 1999.

Waugh hails from a football family. His father, Maury, currently coaches at the University of St. Francis (IN), his brother, Tucker, coaches the running backs at Army, and another brother, Adam, coaches the safeties at Louisiana–Monroe.

He and his wife, Allison, reside in South Carolina with their sons Spencer and Carter.

Quentus Cumby is in his fifth season in the 49ers player personnel department as the team's pro personnel scout.

In his role, Cumby assists the pro scouting department in their evaluation of NFL talent. Cumby is responsible for maintaining current NFL roster boards and depth charts, in addition to coordinating player tryouts and visits to the 49ers facility. During the offseason, he assists in evaluating the team's roster prior to free agency. Cumby also serves as the 49ers weekly advance scout for the personnel and coaching staffs.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Cumby was a physical education teacher at Ben Franklin Intermediate in Daly City, CA, during the 2005 to 2006 term. He began his teaching career in the fall of 2005 after spending the summer as an intern with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department under Ted Thompson and Reggie McKenzie.

In 2003, Cumby was invited to participate in training camp by the Packers as a free agent safety. One year later, he spent the summer of 2004 playing the position in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Cumby lettered in football and ran track at Cleburne (TX) High School, where he was an all-state free safety in 1999. He went on to earn a football scholarship to the University of Kentucky and was a two-year starter at free safety and cornerback from 1999-02. He graduated in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology.

Cumby resides in Palo Alto, CA, with his wife Liz, and son, Drew.

Ryan Myers is in his second season in the 49ers player personnel department as a pro personnel scout.

In his role, Myers assists the pro scouting department in their evaluation of NFL talent. He is responsible for maintaining current NFL roster boards and depth charts, in addition to coordinating player tryouts and visits to the 49ers facility. Myers also helps with advance scouting, which entails traveling each weekend to watch the 49ers upcoming opponent.

He began with the 49ers in January 2005 as an intern in football operations, assisting with NFL draft preparation and various tasks in player personnel.

Following the internship, Myers worked as a member of security personnel for the 49ers. In June of 2006 Myers was promoted to Community Relations/Youth Football Representative, where he was instrumental in developing and managing 15 different programs catering to youth ages 7–14, high school athletes, and high school and college coaches.

He graduated from Santa Cruz High School in 1999, where he played four years of football and three years of baseball. He went on to play football at Cabrillo College, where he earned a starting spot on the defensive line from 1999 to 2001. From 2001 to 2005, he was the Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line Coach at Santa Cruz High School. In 2006 he became the Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator of the San Jose Predators Semi–Pro football team.

Myers graduated from San Jose State University in December 2005 with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Recreation and an emphasis in Leadership & Administration.

Myers resides in Santa Cruz, CA.

William Homer is in his second season in the 49ers player personnel department as the team's personnel assistant.

In his role, Homer assists the personnel department in a variety of areas, including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players. He works extensively with the 49ers college scouting database.

Homer joined the 49ers after serving as the Director of Personnel and Football Operations for the East–West Shrine Game. From 2001 to 2009, he oversaw much of the day–to–day operations for the game, including the selection of the teams and their travel, while also working closely with scouts.

A graduate of Syracuse University, Homer worked as a student manager at the school from 1997 to 1999, handling equipment duties and serving as an assistant for the offense. He earned a bachelor's degrees in broadcast journalism and political science in 1999.

Homer is a native of Hayward, CA. He resides in Fremont with his wife, Marisa, and daughter.

Brian Hampton is in his seventh season with the 49ers and his first as Director of Football Operations.

Prior to his promotion, Hampton served as the team's Manager of Football Operations for two seasons. He originally joined the 49ers as a football operations intern in late 2003.

In his current role, Hampton is responsible for contract negotiations, CBA compliance, and management of the club's salary cap, in addition to various daily football operations duties. Hampton also manages the football operations R&D efforts, providing frequent analysis on special projects for the owner, head coach, vice president of player personnel and other departments.

Born and raised in Oakley, CA, Hampton earned a M.A. in sport management from the University of San Francisco and a B.A. in business economics from UC–Santa Barbara. While attending UCSB, Hampton worked for the Santa Barbara Foresters Baseball Club and the UCSB athletic department. He also spent two years directing the Gaucho Locos, a club aimed at increasing fan attendance at UCSB sports events. In his senior year, Hampton was elected and served as President of the Associated Students.

Hampton resides in Palo Alto, CA, with his wife, Lindsay. He is an avid tri–athlete and runner, and has completed a number of events, including marathons and a Half–Ironman triathlon.

Jeff Ferguson is in his fifth season as the head athletic trainer for the 49ers. Ferguson oversees the team's rehabilitation procedures, injury records, training room and daily athletic training duties.

Ferguson joined San Francisco after serving as the manager of athletic team development with BREG, an orthopedic company based out of Vista, CA. From June of 2005 until March of 2006 Ferguson specialized in sports medicine bracing for BREG.

Prior to his move to the West coast, Ferguson spent eight years in several capacities at Kansas State University, though he continued to serve as the athletic trainer for the Kansas State football team throughout his time in Manhattan. He began his career in Wildcat athletics in 1997 as an assistant athletic trainer for intercollegiate sports.

In 2002, Ferguson was promoted to assistant athletic director for sports medicine, a position he held until 2005. In his role, Ferguson was responsible for the prevention, evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of all athletic injuries, in addition to supervising medical coverage for 14 collegiate athletic teams. His staff was voted best in the Big 12 for their medical efforts from 2003 to 2004.

The previous two years (1995–97), Ferguson was an athletic trainer with an orthopedic surgeon and physical therapy company in Louisburg, N.C. While doing graduate work at the University of Texas at Arlington, he spent two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer that included the task of head athletic trainer for the track and field teams.

Ferguson earned his bachelor's degree in 1993 at Clemson University and his master's degree in 1995 at Texas–Arlington. He got his start in college athletic training as a student athletic trainer at Clemson from 1989 to 1993 and spent the 1992 summer as a preseason athletic trainer for the New England Patriots. He is also a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

A native of Clemson, S.C., Ferguson is married to the former Rebecca Hopper. The couple resides in Santa Clara, CA, with their two daughters, Madelyn and Alexandra, and son, J.C.

assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers.

Breske joined San Francisco after working at Physical Therapy Specialists in Watertown, South Dakota. After graduating from physical therapy school, Breske founded the outpatient clinic, which specializes in sports medicine, post–op orthopedic cases and pain management. He also served as the director of athletic training for the Watertown School System.

Breske obtained his doctorate degree (2000–04) in physical therapy from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha, Nebraska. In that span, he also interned with the New England Patriots during the 2003 preseason as an athletic trainer.

From 1995 to 2000, Breske pursued a bachelor's degree in athletic training, biology and psychology at Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota. He was the starting quarterback at NSU as a junior and senior. The two–time team captain earned all–conference (NSIC) and academic all–conference honors.

Breske was an all–state football player at Webster (SD) High School. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS).

Born in Pierre, South Dakota, he and his wife, Tia, who is a registered nurse, have two sons, Jherek and Keon Breske and reside in San Jose, CA.

Manny Rivera is in his seventh season as assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers. This is Rivera's second stint with San Francisco after serving as an intern athletic trainer during the 2001 season.

Prior to being hired full time in San Francisco, Rivera spent a year working with the United States Olympic Committee. With the USOC, he provided medical coverage for hundreds of Olympic and Paralympic hopefuls in track and field, softball, baseball, soccer, volleyball and rugby.

After interning with the 49ers, Rivera served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Indiana University football team. While at Indiana, he was directly responsible for the emergency medical supplies, training supplies and inventory, packing for team travel, as well as game day medical logistics. Rivera was also responsible for supervision, instruction and evaluation of undergraduate athletic training curriculum students. Rivera graduated from Indiana with a Master of Science degree in Kinesiology in 2003.

Rivera began his career in athletic training, serving as a student athletic trainer at the University of the Pacific, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Sports Medicine, in 2001. He is a certified member of the NATA.

Rivera, his wife, Lauren, and daughter, Alexis, reside in Benicia, CA.

Steve Urbaniak is in his 12th season with the 49ers and eighth as the team's equipment manager. During his first four seasons in San Francisco, Urbaniak served as an assistant in the equipment department. This season marks Urbaniak's 13th year overall working in the NFL ranks.

He is responsible for the many details that go into filling an NFL team's daily needs. These needs include outfitting players and coaches in safe and advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel. Urbaniak and his staff also transport team equipment to and from all games, as well as assist coaches with daily practice needs.

Urbaniak came to San Francisco in 1999 after serving a one–year internship with the Miami Dolphins in 1998. While in Miami, he served as a member of the host team assigned to the Denver Broncos prior to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Urbaniak attended East Carolina University, where he helped the Pirates reach consecutive Liberty Bowls as a punter before spending two years as the team's student manager. He graduated with a degree in therapeutic recreation in 1998. A certified athletic equipment manager, Urbaniak is also a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He added acting to his resume in 1998, playing a small role in the feature film "Any Given Sunday."

Urbaniak was born in Lowville, NY. He and his wife, Lindsay, reside in San Jose, CA with their dog, Grady.

Signed by San Francisco prior to the final game of the 2009 season, Shane Andrus proved to be an accurate kicker in his only game with the 49ers, connecting on all four extra point attempts. He provides depth behind veteran K Joe Nedney.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed as a free agent by Ind. on 2/7/06…Waived by Ind. on 8/14/06…Signed as a free agent by Ind. on 8/18/06…Waived by Ind. on 9/2/06…Signed as a free agent by Ind. on 2/13/07… Waived by Ind. on 8/28/07…Signed by NYG on 1/9/08…Waived by NYG on 2/13/08...Claimed off waivers by Ind. on 2/14/08...Waived by Ind. on 6/11/08...Signed as a free agent by TB on 1/8/09…Waived by TB on 3/11/09…Signed as a free agent by Ind. on 6/9/09…Waived by Ind. on 9/15/09…Signed as a free agent by TB on 10/5/09…Waived by TB on 11/3/09…Signed as a free agent by SF on 1/1/10…Re–signed as an unrestricted free agent by SF on 3/30/10.

GOLDMINE:

- Shane's first love growing up was baseball. He could be found on the diamond, honing his skills all throughout his youth. Truth be told, Shane didn't start kicking until his junior year of high school. When he enrolled at Murray St., he spent his freshman year playing both baseball and football, before focusing solely on football as a sophomore.

2009 (Ind./TB/SF):

- Played in a combined 5 games for Ind., TB and SF.
- Connected on all 10 extra points attempted.

COLLEGE:

A two–year player at Murray St., connected on 26–36 FG atts. and 61–62 PATs in his career. Connected on 11–14 FGs and 40–41 PATs, as a senior. Hit on 4–5 FGs between 40–49 yards and was 2–2 from 50+ yds. Nailed a school–record 52–yd. FG against Eastern Illinois as time expired, earning the Racers a spot in the I–AA playoffs and share of the conference title. Connected on 15–22 FGs and 21–21 PATs, as a junior, and was selected as an All–America by The Sports Network.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Murray (KY) HS, where he was all–state at K and P, as a senior. Was a three–time all–conference selection. Also played WR, recording 900 rec. yds. and 11 TDs as senior.
- Was an all–state shortstop for the baseball team, hitting a home run in five consecutive games to set a state record.
- Enjoys traveling, including trips to Las Vegas and the Kentucky Derby.
- Born Shane Andrus (10/20/80) in Murray, KY.
- Graduated with a degree in marketing.

Known for his power and versatility, David Baas was drafted in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft. During the 2009 season, Baas started all 16 games at LG. His efforts were noticed by his teammates as he was named the 2009 recipient of the Bobb McKittrick Award. Baas made his first career start at LG in 2008 after having started 13 prior contests at RG.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 2nd–round (33rd pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2005.

GOLDMINE:

- David was the recipient of the Bobb McKittrick Award, which is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the longtime offensive line coach, during his 21 years of service to the 49ers. David felt privileged by the recognition he received following the season. "It's a great honor, being respected among your linemen for your hard work and all your dedication throughout the season. As a 49er it's a great honor and it's something that you strive for. To be able to do that and especially battling last year with a few injuries and still win the award, nothing is better than it coming from your peers. I think that says a lot and I'm very thankful and humbled that I won it."
- Being a man of his size, nicknames come naturally to David. Some of his nicknames include the Jolly Green Giant, Caveman, Bass Man and Seabaas. His most notorious experience with a nickname came at Adventure Island in Tampa Bay where a group of Japanese tourists spotted him standing next to a picture of the Incredible Hulk. They immediately made the connection, crying out "Hulk!" when they first saw David and his tremendous size.
- David came into the world with quite an entertaining birth tale. His unique labor took place in the parking lot of a bank near Tulsa, OK. In a dash to reach the hospital emergency room, David's parents had to come up with an alternate plan. Their son was ready to be delivered with no time to spare. The Baas' stopped in the bank parking lot and David's father delivered him in the family Datsun.
- In Sarasota, the school band was the place to be, so naturally David joined, where he met his future wife, Elizabeth. "The only truthful reason I was in the band was that my girlfriend was in the band. I did the trumpet for the chicks." By the time he reached eighth grade, David had grown to be 6' 3'', 245 pounds and one of the largest trumpet players. The marching band wore kilts as their uniform in high school, but David claims he never wore it, giving up band to pursue football.
- David had never played football other than some Pop Warner when he was a kid. He had grown to 245 pounds at age 13, and at one point, was eating a box of cereal a day. At that size and age, he drew the attention of Riverview HS head coach John Sprague while David was attending a band camp at the local high school. Sprague called him over and suggested he may want to pursue football given his size. "The band was practicing and I'm sure someone said, 'You have to come see this big guy out at band."
- David has been around a fast food restaurant or two in his day, working at both a Wendy's and McDonald's prior to and during college. At Wendy's he did a little bit of everything, but when it came to lunch time he needed to find a place to cool down away from all the grills and fryers. He would get sweaty easily, so David would go into the freezer to eat his lunch and dry off. His second stint in the fast food business came while at Michigan, working at a McDonald's. No stranger to excelling at whatever he did, David once received an award from a customer for the perfect amount of ketchup. She returned hours after receiving her fries with a crown drawn on the fry basket.
- David is a huge karaoke fan. In college, he could often be heard belting out pop, rock, country and even a little rhythm and blues. He tackled the national anthem twice in public settings and began working on a wide range of stylings that included such disparate efforts as Josh Groban's "You Raise Me Up" to old R&B classics.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2009: Bobb McKittrick Award

2009:

- Started every game at LG.
- Helped the team rush for a season–high 246 yds. vs. Sea. (9/20).
- Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack on QB Alex Smith on any of his 41 atts. vs. Jax. (11/29). It marked the first time the 49ers did not give up a sack since 11/10/08, at Arz. (QB Shaun Hill – 40 attempts).

- Saw action in all 16 games, starting the final 9 contests at LG. Originally penciled in as a starter heading into the offseason, but a torn pectoral muscle suffered in April held him out for the majority of training camp.
- Made first career start at LG vs. Sea. (10/26), replacing G Adam Snyder in starting lineup.

2007:

- Played in 15 games (8 starts), becoming the starter at RG after Justin Smiley was placed on IR with a shoulder injury suffered at Atl. (11/4).
- Made first start of season at RG at Sea. (11/12).

2006:

- Played in all 16 games, seeing action along the offensive line in 3 contests.
- Saw action at C at Den. (12/31), helping offense rush for 198 yds., including 153 from Gore in team's 26–23 overtime win.

- Played in 13 games, starting the final 5 contests at RG, and was one of nine 49ers 2005 draft picks who played in a game in 2005.
- Played in first career game at Arz. (10/2) in Mexico City, seeing action on special teams.
- Made first career start when he lined up at RG vs. Arz. (12/4) due to an injury to C Jeremy Newberry, which moved Eric Heitmann from RG to C.

COLLEGE:

Awarded Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year after his final season at Michigan and was the Wolverines top offensive lineman, earning the Hugh H. Rader Award. Started first 3 games at LG before shifting to C during senior season. Michigan avgeraged 106.0 yds. per game on the ground, but increased to 189.7 yds. per game after his move to center. Started entire 2002 season at LG and earned first–team All–Big Ten honors.

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at Riverview HS in Sarasota, FL, and was a USA Today High School All–America honorable mention. Added All–America honors by Super Prep Magazine and Prep Football Report. Named first–team all–state and all–area as a senior. Played in Florida–Georgia All–Star Game and Florida–California All–Star Game.
- Earned four letters in track. Threw career–best (53 ft, 11 inch) shot put in senior campaign and earned all–county and all–area honors three times in shot put.
- David and his wife, Elizabeth, have a son, Bryson.
- Born David Baas (9/28/81) in Bixby, OK.
- Majored in general studies.

Kentwan Balmer was the 29th overall selection in the 2008 NFL Darft by the 49ers. He gained valuable experience in the defensive line rotation in his first two years, seeing action in 27 games, as he learned the ins and outs of the 3–4 scheme. His versatility allows him to play inside or outside along the defensive front.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 1st–round (29th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Spent his entire life in North Carolina, but grew up a 49ers fan as his father followed the team during the 1990s. He remembers watching the 49ers goal line stand against RB Natrone Means in their Super Bowl XXIX victory over the San Diego Chargers when he was 8 years old.

- Finished the season with 20 tackles before being placed on IR on 12/9/09 following a shoulder injury suffered vs. Jax. (11/29).

2008:

- Played in all 16 games and totaled 20 tackles and a PD, seeing action in the D–line rotation, in goal–line situations and on special teams.
- Saw first extensive action on defense at NYG (10/19) when DE Ray McDonald left game with a knee injury.

COLLEGE:

Played in 42 games (23 starts), totaling 93 tackles, 7 sacks, 17 TFLs, 3 PDs and 2 blocked kicks, earning starting assignments at RDE, LDE and RDT during his career. Started all 12 games at DT as a senior captain, totaling 59 tackles and 3.5 sacks. Appeared in 10 games as a junior and started final 8 contests at DE, posting 16 tackles, 2.5 sacks and a pair of blocked extra point attempts.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Weldon (NC) HS, where he was a member of the North Carolina Shrine Bowl Team after finishing his senior year with 113 tackles, 12 sacks and 6 FRs.

A physical offensive tackle, Alex Boone signed as a rookie free agent in 2009 and spent the entire season on the 49ers practice squad.

TRANSACTIONS:

Signed as a rookie free agent by SF on 4/30/09…Waived by SF on 9/3/09… Signed to the practice squad by SF on 9/6/09…Signed by SF to reserve/ future contract on 1/6/10.

GOLDMINE

- This past offseason, Alex returned home to Lakewood, OH, where he began working out with former NFL O–lineman LeCharles Bentley. With Bentley's help and guidance, Alex is now in the best shape of his life, dropping 40 pounds before putting 15 pounds of muscle back on. "LeCharles helped me realize what it takes to be successful in the NFL," Alex said. "He has helped me with my footwork, by initial burst and my quickness. I know I'll be ready for whatever the coaches throw at me this season."
- Alex was featured this offseason in NFL.com's "On The Fringe" series, which highlights lesser–known players as they battle for roster spots.

- Spent the entire season on the 49ers practice squad.

COLLEGE:

A two–time All–Big Ten selection during his four–year career at Ohio State, played in 46 games (35 starts) since his freshman campaign in 2005. Started 22 games at LT for the Buckeyes, earning All–America honors as a senior.

PERSONAL:

- A two–time All–Ohio selection, was a three–year starter at St. Edward (OH) HS. Also competed in shot put and discus and played basketball for a year.
- His uncle, Ed, played football at Penn State.
- Enjoys hunting and playing golf.
- Born Alex Boone on 5/4/87 in Lakewood, OH.
- Majored in history.

Signed as a rookie free agent out of Bowling Green, Diyral Briggs was promoted from the practice squad to the active roster on 10/27/09 and saw action in 4 games. He adds depth at OLB and on special teams.

TRANSACTIONS:

Signed as a rookie free agent by SF on 4/30/09...Waived by SF on 9/7/09... Signed to the practice squad by SF on 9/8/09...Signed to active roster on 10/27/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Diyral grew up in a rough area and moved around a lot between different families as both his parents had substance abuse issues. He leaned toward women to protect and provide for him and always had to fend for himself. Diyral struggled with eating when he came to the 49ers because he only lived on one meal a day growing up. "I was so used to it, so when I came to college they wanted me to eat, eat, eat. I'd eat and end up throwing up because it wasn't normal for me to eat more than once a day. Now that I'm here and in the habit of eating, I eat too much."
- When his playing career is over, Diyral envisions himself going into coaching and being there as a role model for kids. "I really just want to change lives, especially going through what I've been through." He feels the high school level is the perfect spot because, "many teenagers who have a role model, that male figure in their lives. They've really got a chance to go left or right and being a coach you can help mold them into a man and let them know that you do have choices."

- Played in 4 games and notched 4 special teams tackles.
- Made his NFL debut vs. Chi. (11/12) and registered a special teams tackle.

COLLEGE:

A two-time All-MAC selection (2007-08) and MAC Player of the Year (2006), played in 47 games (27 starts) and finished his career with 221 tackles, 36 TFLs, 26 sacks, 5 FRs, 4 PDs and 1 FF. In 2008, led the MAC in sacks (9.5) and recorded 60 tackles, 13.5 TFLs, 1 PD, 1 FF and 1 FR. In 2007, registered 54 tackles, 7 TFLs, 5 sacks and 2 PDs.

PERSONAL:

- A two-time all-league choice, played at Mt. Healthy (OH) HS, where he tallied 16 career sacks on defense and 12 TDs on offense as the team's captain.
- Also lettered in basketball, averaging 15 pts. per game his senior season.
- Earned a degree in sport management.
- Married to wife, Latasha, and the couple has a daughter, Liliana.
- Born Diyral Briggs on 10/31/85 in Mt. Healthy, OH.
- Graduated with a degree in communications.

A versatile and talented linebacker, Ahmad Brooks enters his 3rd season with the 49ers after being signed off of waivers in 2008 from the Cincinnati Bengals. He came into his own as a pass rush specialist, registering a career–high 6 sacks and team–tying record of 4 FFs by a linebacker. Brooks was rewarded with a two–year contract extenstion in 2010.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 3rd–round selection in the 2006 supplemental draft by Cin. on 7/13/06...Waived by Cin. on 8/30/08...Claimed off waivers by SF on 8/31/08...Waived by SF on 11/29/08...Signed by SF on 12/2/08...As a restricted free agent, re–signed with SF on 4/2/10 through 2011.

GOLDMINE:

- Ahmad is no stranger to the NFL. His father, Perry Brooks, played in 92 games at DT for the Washington Redskins from 1978–84.
- Ahmad's father, Perry, ran a barber shop since Ahmad was a freshman in college that was left to his family after his father passed away. Ahmad is not involved in running the business, but admits that he has tried to cut his own hair. While he trusts himself when cutting his hair, he wouldn't try cutting other people's hair just yet. "I work on myself when it comes to facial things, but I mess up quite a bit. I'm not perfect at that yet, so I don't cut anybody else's hair."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Set a career high with 6.0 sacks in 2009.
- Along with LB Manny Lawson, set the 49ers record for most forced fumbles by a LB with 4 in 2009.

2009:

- Appeared in 14 games, registering 23 tackles while notching career highs in both sacks (6) and FFs (4). Also added 8 special teams tackles.
- Made his 49ers debut at Min. (9/27) after recovering from a knee injury and registered 3 tackles.
- Notched his first sack of the season (QB Matt Schaub) at Hou. (10/25).
- Set single–game career highs in sacks (3 – QB Kurt Warner) and FFs (2) vs. Arz. (12/14/09). It marked the first time a 49er registered 3 sacks in a game since DT Bryant Young at StL (9/16/07).
- Registered a sack and 2 FFs vs. Det. (12/27), tying him with LB Manny Lawson for the most FFs in a single season by a 49ers LB with 4.

- Inactive for the first 13 games of the season before being waived (11/29) and re–signed (12/2) by SF. Was inactive for 3 more contests and did not play at Mia. (12/14).

2007:

A 5th–round pick by the 49ers in 2007, Tarell Brown has proven valuable when given the opportunity. Brown started a career–high 4 games in 2009, and finished with 37 tackles, 2 INTs and 9 PDs. Brown was signed to a three–year contract extension on 10/28/09.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 5th–round (147th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2007... Signed a three–year contract extention through 2013 on 10/28/09.

GOLDMINE:

- It's not only Tarell's work ethic that got him to where he is today, but also his ability to overcome a variety of challenges throughout his young life. At the age of 9, Tarell's mother was killed as she was getting into her car to go to work early one morning. Following his mother's death, Tarell moved in with his father, Robert, who not only saw football as an escape for his son, but also as an opportunity for him to earn a scholarship and a solid education. Just prior to the NFL Draft, his father died of a heart attack on Valentine's Day. "A day doesn't go by that I don't think about my mother and father. Everything I do nowadays is dedicated to my parents. I know without them, I wouldn't be where I'm now."
- Tarell hosted his 3rd Annual Summer Sportsfest in Dallas this past June. The highlights of the weekend included free football and cheerleading camps, in addition to a celebrity basketball game featuring a large group of NFL players. Proceeds raised through the raffle and celebrity basketball game benefitted Tarell's Born Again Foundation. The foundation is dedicated to becoming the nation's foremost full–service, ex–offender program. It provides an opportunity for all ex–offenders who desire a significant change to make a positive transition into a new life. The foundation offers job counseling, educational and vocational training, and personal and family support to all who desire to not be defined by negativity in their past.
  Visit tarellbrown.net for additional information.
- In June 2010, Tarell was recognized for his contributions to his hometown, receiving a proclaimation from the city of Mesquite.
- Tarell won the Punt, Pass & Kick Championship at Texas Stadium as a 9–year–old after advancing through the city and regional finals. He was then flown to San Diego for the National Championships, where he placed 3rd.
- When his NFL career is over, Tarell is looking forward to working with kids. "I want to open up a gym and train athletes, train kids. I like to be around kids and I still want to be surrounded by sports. Maybe have a little AAU basketball team and travel around different cities and states."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2007: Thomas Herrion Award

2009:

- Set career highs in tackles (37) and PDs (9), while tying career highs in INTs (2) and special teams tackles (16).
- Made his first start of the season at Ind. (11/1), recording 2 tackles and 1 PD.
- Picked off QB Jay Cutler in the 2nd qtr. and returned it 51 yds vs. Chi. (11/12), setting up RB Frank Gore's 14–yd. TD run on the following play.
- Had a career–high 8 tackles at GB (11/22).
- Intercepted QB Kurt Warner vs. Arz. (12/14).

- Saw action at nickel back due to injuries to CB Shawntae Spencer (knee) and CB Donald Strickland (knee) vs. Det. (9/21) and registered his first career INT.
- Made first career start at Arz. (11/10) when team opened in nickel package and tallied 6 tackles.
- Sealed a 49ers victory at StL (12/21) by intercepting a QB Marc Bulger pass on the 49ers 38–yd. line with 22 seconds remaining in the 4th qtr.

2007:

- Suffered a torn MCL and partially torn ACL in the season finale vs. Cle. (12/30).

COLLEGE:

Played in 47 career games with 35 starts for the Longhorns, finishing with 169 tackles, 3 INTs, 1 sack, 1 FR, 2 FFs and 20 PDs. Also amassed 315 yds. on 17 kickoff returns. As part of Texas' 2005–06 National Championship Team his senior year, did not allow any TD catches and his main pass coverage assignments had just 3 catches for over 20 yds. during his 11 starts. Earned second–team Academic All–Big 12 honors and was a member of UT's Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

PERSONAL:

- Attended North Mesquite (TX) HS, where he was a three–year starter at CB and two–year starter at RB. Rushed for 3,011 yds. and 42 TDs in his final two seasons, receiving an invitation to play in the 2003 U.S. Army All–American Game.
- As a senior, gained 1,885 yds. with 28 TDs on 182 carries (10.4 avg.) and caught 10 passes for 281 yds. with 2 scores. Also threw a 26–yd. TD pass.
- Was a two–year letter–winner in track (100m, sprint and mile relays) and a sophomore starter at shooting guard in basketball.
- Born Tarell Lameek Brown (1/6/85) in New York City, NY. Resides in DeSoto, TX.
- Majored in communications.

Martail Burnett spent the final 12 games of the 2009 season on the 49ers practice squad after signing with the team on 10/7.

TRANSACTIONS:

Signed as a rookie free agent by Min. on 5/2/08…Waived by Min. on 8/29/08…Signed to practice squad by Min. on 8/29/08…Released from practice squad by Min. on 9/4/08…Re-signed to practice squad by Min. on 9/9/08…Signed to reserve/futures contract by Min. on 1/8/09…Waived by Min. on 9/5/09…Signed to practice squad by SF on 10/7/09…Signed to reserve/future contract by SF on 1/6/10.

GOLDMINE:

- Growing up in a bad neighborhood, Martail leaned on the strong role models in his life to keep him on the right path. "My pops was always on me about playing sports and stuff because we grew up in a bad neighborhood. He always stayed on me, not even just sports, but just staying out of trouble." As if his dad wasn't on him enough about something, one of Martail's uncles would be checking up on him. "I had uncles too. My mom had all brothers, so my uncles stayed on me. There were definitely strong male figures in my home." But the last person Martail ever wanted to upset was his mom. "My mom, even though she is tiny, I was scared of her because you just don't mess with mama."

2009 (San Francisco):

- Spent the final 12 games of the season on the 49ers practice squad after signing with the team on 10/7.

2008 (Minnesota):

- Spent 15 weeks on the Vikings practice squad.

COLLEGE:

Started 32 consecutive games to finish his collegiate career. Ranks in the top 10 in school history with 17 sacks and 33.5 TFLs during his career. All-Mountain West Conference first team selection as a senior, starting all 13 games while recording team highs with 7 sacks and 15 TFLs. Named Honorable Mention all-Mountain West as a junior, starting all 13 games with a team leading 5.5 sacks and 10.5 TFLs.

PERSONAL:

- Named all-conference and all-area as a team captain at David Starr Jordan HS in Los Angeles, CA.
- Lettered in 3 sports and was the first person from his high school to qualify for the state track and field meet in 18 years.
- Student vice president of athletics.
- Married to wife, Misty, and the couple has one daughter.
- Born Martail Marta Burnett (1/10/85) in Los Angeles, CA.
- Graduated with degrees in sociology and criminology.

The first overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft out of Fresno State, David Carr adds depth and experience to San Francisco's quarterback corps after spending the last two seasons with the New York Giants as the backup to QB Eli Manning. A tough, strong–armed signal caller, Carr has totaled 65 TD passes and 14,141 passing yds., in his career.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 1st–round (1st overall) draft choice by Hou. in 2002…Released by Hou. on 3/23/07…Signed as a free agent by Car. on 4/10/07…Released by Car. on 2/27/08…Signed as a free agent by NYG on 3/3/08…Signed as an unrestricted free agent by SF on 3/15/10.

GOLDMINE:

- David is not the only member of the Carr family to live and die football. His younger brother, Derek, looks to follow in David's footsteps and is currently a sophomore quarterback at Fresno State. David's other brother, Darren, was a defensive tackle at the University of Houston and now coaches defensive linemen at Bakersfield High School. Growing up, all three looked up to their father, who was quite the athlete. Roger, who stands 6–5, excelled as a point guard in basketball at California State Bakersfield. After graduating college, Roger started punting for fun and ended up spending training camp with the Dallas Cowboys.
- David and his father love collecting classic cars. Every year they attend the Pismo Beach Classic, one of the largest classic car and street rod shows on the West Coast. The show, traditionally on Father's Day Weekend, pulls in 1,000 classic cars and street rods, and over 100,000 spectators in 3 days. "I love Camaros. My favorite is the 1969 Camaro. I actually have two of them at home. One is totally original and it has about 200 original miles on it. My wife got it for me for Christmas a couple years ago. It sits in my garage, I have driven it one time. Then another one we restored with a buddy out in Arizona and it's the one I drive a lot."
- Despite growing up two hours from the coast, it didn't deter David and his friends from making occasional trips to the beach from Bakersfield. He could often be found surfing some of the best waves Southern California had to offer. David has also surfed quite a bit in Northern California.

Signed as an undrafted free agent in 2008 by the Jets, Jehuu Caulcrick bring a physical presence to the 49ers and will compete for a roster spot in 2010.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed as undrafted free agent by NYJ on 5/2/08...Waived by NYJ on 8/30/08...Signed to practice squad by NYJ on 9/1/08...Released from practice squad by NYJ on 12/19/08...Re-signed to practice squad by NYJ on 12/24/08...Signed to reserve/future contract by NYJ on 12/30/08...Waived by NYJ on 9/5/09...Signed by NYJ to practice squad on 9/7/09...Released from practice squad by NYJ on 9/8/09...Signed by TB on 12/29/09 to practice squad...Signed to reserve/future contract by SF on 1/12/10.

GOLDMINE:

- Jehuu was born in Liberia and lived there until he was able to leave the country when he was 9. While living in Liberia a civil war broke out. His father, who was in a politician and security chief for the Liberian secretary of state, was assassinated during the war when Jehuu was only 8. For two years, Jehuu and his family were on the run going from refugee camp to refugee camp before they could obtain visas to come to America and join his mother, Bonita, who had moved to the U.S. years earlier. During that time, he saw his adopted brother killed and his grandfather shot in the leg (he survived). Jehuu witnessed a lot of violence and stated that they literally were stepping over dead bodies at times. Jehuu stated that coming to America was "A new beginning for me. I had the opportunity to come here and start my life over".
- Jehuu has a deep desire to provide help to refugees, much like he was when he was younger. He has been volunteering his time in Lansing, MI, to the Refugee Development Center since he was a sophomore in college. "I go in there to put on fundraisers to raise money for the development center so the kids can get an education and help their parents as well." His ultimate goal is to start a non-profit center of his own.
- Jehuu is going back to Liberia next summer to do a football camp to introduce American football to the children of Liberia. "I didn't know what football was until I came to America. I just want to give back and teach the kids something new."
- Jehuu has aspirations to attend culinary school so he can open his own restaurant.

2009 (New York Jets/Tampa Bay):

- Started season on NYJ practice squad before being released early in season.
- Signed by TB to practice squad on 12/29/09.

2008 (New York Jets):

- Spent the first 16 weeks of the season on the Jets on practice squad.

COLLEGE:

Honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the media. Four-year letterman who rushed for 2,336 career yds. on 517 atts. for 39 TDs. His 39 rushing TDs were 2nd-best at MSU, behind RB Lorenzo White's record 43.

PERSONAL:

- Led Clymer (N.Y.) HS to four straight Section VI Class D championships.
- SuperPrep All-American who was ranked among the nation's top backs.
- Three-time all-state and all-western New York selection who was named Player of the Year by The Buffalo News and The Post-Journal and Class D Player of the Year by the NYS Sportswriters Associaton.
- Western New York's all-time leader with 6,559 career yds., including 2,161 yds. and 28 TDs as a senior.
- Born in Liberia.
- Graduated with a degree in sociology.

A physical defensive back, Nate Clements has provided an impactful presence in the 49ers secondary since joining the team in 2007. Clements, who routinely matches up against the best receivers in the NFL, prides himself on being multi–dimensional when it comes to playing the cornerback position. He is regarded as one of the surest tacklers in the game and has consistently shown an ability to force fumbles and intercept passes. His 14 FFs since 2004 rank 2nd among NFL CBs during that time span. A Pro Bowl selection in 2004, Clements ranks 7th among NFL CBs with 27 INTs since 2002.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 1st–round (21st pick overall) draft choice by Buf. in 2001... Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Buf. on 3/2/07.

GOLDMINE:

- Nate's disciplined approach, humble manner and self–motivation stems from a strong figure in his life, his father. Nate Sr. made sure that his young, talented son was focused solely on school and football so that he could achieve his dream of attending Ohio State on a scholarship. Nate worked out at 6 a.m. before school started during his junior and senior years at Shaker Heights (OH) HS. He stayed up until midnight to finish his homework and study for the SATs after he finished football practice. Nate later became the first player inducted into his high school Hall of Fame and was an USA Today All–American at Ohio State. Nate Sr. has pushed him all the way, and still does today. After being voted to the Pro Bowl, Nate Sr. told his son that while the All–Star game was an impressive achievement, maintaining consistency is how Nate would truly leave his mark in the league and eventually earn the ultimate honor – Hall of Fame status.
- Nate has aspirations on the golf links following his NFL playing days. "After I'm done playing football, I want to turn pro in golf. If I dedicate my time in golf like I do in football, I can definitely make it." As for Nate's account of his game, "I have my days," he said. "Really, I am a golfer. That is what I think I am going to be doing after football. I've been golfing since I was 12. I never really had a chance to pursue it hard because football was my first love. But, whenever I get a chance, I like to get out on the course."
- Since arriving in SF, Nate has been one of the most active players in the community and has taken part in the majority of the "Community Tuesday" events organized by the team. "It's definitely a personal experience for me, giving back each week. I go home with a good feeling knowing that I helped somebody who's not in the position that I'm in. I know that I'm able, so I'm willing. It's not always about giving money, it's giving time. That's what most people want, just a little bit of time."

AWARDS & HONORS:

A tough, hard–nosed runner with excellent vision, Coffee was a solid addition to the 49ers running back corps in 2009, as well as a capable contributer on special teams. Coffee gained valuable experience as he stepped in for the injured RB Frank Gore early in the season and went on to start 2 contests.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 3rd round (74th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2009.

GOLDMINE:

- Glen gets his inspiration through God and tries to display his character as a representative of that. One of his favorite verses in the Bible is Job 39:21–24, which talks about the strength of a horse. Running backs are often compared to a horse because of their strength and speed.
- Glen's number one goal is to be the best dad he can be to his little girl, Ava. "I just want to be the best dad that I can be. I want to be number one in her life."
- Glen was the co–recipient of the University of Alabama's 2008 Derrick Thomas Community Service Award. Shared award with LB Cory Reamer.

2009:

- His 11–yd. recept. from QB Shaun Hill in the 2nd qtr. vs. Sea. (9/20) marked his first career recept.
- Recorded a career–high 25 rushing atts. for 54 yds. at Min. (9/27).
- Made his first career start vs. StL (10/4) and rushed for a career–high 74 yds. Also set career highs in both recepts. (4) and rec. yds. (32).
- Scored his first career TD on a 2–yd. run vs. Atl. (10/11).

COLLEGE:

In 35 games (17 starts) for the Crimson Tide, gained 2,107 yds. and 14 TDs on 410 carries, and 42 catches for 351 yds. and 2 TDs receiving. In his final season at Alabama, the All–SEC selection and Doak Walker Award semi–finalist rushed for 1,383 yds. and 10 TDs. His rushing yds. tied RB Shaun Alexander as the 2nd–most in school history, while his 5.9 yds. per carry in 2008 ranked 6th all–time. In 2007, played in 9 games (3 starts) and rushed for 545 yds. with 4 TDs, and had 18 catches for 118 yds. and one score. Granted a medical redshirt in 2006 after recording 179 rushing yds. and 91 receiving yds. as a true freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Fort Walton Beach (FL) HS, where he had 1,886 yds. rushing and 350 yds. receiving with 29 TDs as a senior, on his way to leading his prep squad to the District 2–4A title and an appearance in the regional championship game.
- Has a daughter, Ava.
- Born Glen Coffee (5/1/87) in Valparaiso, FL.
- Majored in general studies.

During his rookie season, Michael Crabtree exhibited just why he was chosen by San Francisco with the 10th overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Possessing a rare combination of size and run–after–the–catch ability, Crabtree immediately settled into the 49ers receiving corps. After missing the first five games of the season during a contract impass, Crabtree went on to catch at least three passes in every game played.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally drafted in the 1st–round (10th overall) by SF in 2009.

GOLDMINE:

- A nationally–ranked basketball player at Carter HS in Dallas, TX., Michael was rated among the top 50 prospects in Texas and received several scholarship offers from major colleges.

2009:

- Finished the regular season ranked 1st among all NFL rookies with 56.8 rec. yds./game.
- Ranked t–4th in franchise history with 48 recepts. and 625 rec. yds. among all 49ers rookies.
- Ranked 2nd on the team with 625 rec. yds. and 4th on the team with 48 recepts. during the season.
- Started his first career game and registered 5 recepts. for 56 yds. at Hou. (10/25).
- Caught a 38–yd. strike from QB Alex Smith for his first career TD at GB (11/22).
- Recorded his first TD in front of the home crowd on a 35–yd TD recept. from Smith vs. Arz. (12/14).
- Set a career long with a 50–yd. recept. from Smith vs. Det. (12/27).

COLLEGE:

As college football's most productive receiver over his final two seasons, was twice honored as the Fred Biletnikoff Award recipient, becoming the first ever first–year player to receive the award, in 2007. The two–time All–America and Big 12 selection finished his two–year Texas Tech career with 3,127 rec. yds., breaking the previous team record of 3,069 yds. set by Wes Welker. Became only the 7th player in conference history to gain over 3,000 career yds. Ranked 5th in NCAA history in career rec. avg. (120.3) and 6th in career TD recepts. (41), shattering the previous school record (30). His 231 career recepts. and 41 career TDs, which came in 2007–08, set NCAA records for catches and TDs in a two–year span. A model of consistency, put together a string of 13 consecutive games with at least one TD and 5 recepts., tying an NCAA record. In 2008, registered 1,165 yds. rec. (97 recepts.) and 19 TDs. Set school, conference and NCAA freshman single–season records with 134 recepts. for 1,962 yds. (14.6 avg) and 22 TDs, in 2007. His rec. yardage total that year is 3rd–best in NCAA history. Redshirted as a true freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Played QB at Carter (Dallas, TX) HS, finishing his senior season with 870 passing yds. and 11 TDs, while running for 646 yds. and 9TDs on 100 carries.
- Related to former Texas Tech running back Ricky A. Williams.
- Born Michael Crabtree (9/14/87) in Dallas, TX.
- Majored in general studies.

CRABTREE'S CAREER HIGHS

Receptions: 6 (2 times) Last at Sea. (12/6/09)
Receiving Yards: 81 at Ind. (11/1/09)
Long Reception: 50 vs. Det. (12/27/09)
TD Receptions: 1 (2 times) Last vs. Arz. (12/14/09)

Milestones:

NFL Debut: at Hou. (10/25/09); First Start: at Hou. (10/25/09); First Reception: at Hou. (10/25/09 – 4–yd. pass from QB Shaun Hill); First TD Reception: at GB (11/22/09 – 38–yd. pass from QB Alex Smith)

Tony Curtis is a sound blocker with proven hands as a receiver. He spent three seasons with Dallas from 2006–08, serving as the third tight end for the Cowboys. He will look to fill a similar role for the 49ers this season.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by Dal. on 4/28/05...Waived by Dal. on 9/2/05...Signed by Dal. to practice squad on 9/4/05...Signed by Dal. to a reserve/future contract on 1/3/06...Waived by Dal. on 9/2/06...Signed by Dal. to practice squad on 9/4/06...Signed by Dal. to active roster on 10/13/06...Released by Dal. on 11/24/06...Signed by Dal. to practice squad on 11/25/06...Signed to a reserve/future contract on 1/10/07...Allocated to NFL Europe by Dal. on 2/12/07...Re–signed as an exclusive rights free agent by Dal. on 4/11/08...Signed by KC on 4/24/09...Released by KC on 8/4/09... GOLDMINE:

- Every year Tony volunteers at the Herm Edwards Football Camp in Monterey, CA, that houses around 500 children from the ages of 9–17 at Monterey Peninsula College. Edwards has been putting on the camp since Tony was in middle school and he likes to give back to the camp that helped him on his path to the NFL.
- Tony played basketball as a youth, but always wanted to try football. Growing up, however, he wasn't allowed to play because he was more than 150 pounds at age 11. The weight limit for Pop Warner football was 150, but Tony got his first taste of football during his freshman year at Seaside HS. While at Seaside, he played four positions – wide receiver, tight end, defensive end, long snapper and punter.
- Tony hopes to own a business one day, preferably a restaurant, near the Monterey college campus.
- Tony holds the rare distinction of having his first three catches in the NFL result in touchdowns while with the Dallas Cowboys, in 2007. He wasn't expecting his impact on offense to be felt that quickly, but took it in stride. "It was nice. I felt like if I'm the end zone and they throw it up, then I can catch it. I didn't really realize it until I got interviewed by ESPN."

2009 (Baltimore):

- Served stints with KC and Phi. during the offseason before being signed by Bal., where he spent 3 games on the active roster before being waived.

2008 (Dallas):

- Played in 16 games (6 starts), tallying 8 recepts. for 32 yds. and 2 special teams tackles.

2007 (Dallas):

- Saw action in 16 games, catching 3 passes for 18 yds. and 3 TDs.
- Recorded a 2–yd. TD recept. at Mia. (9/16).
- Caught a 1–yd. TD pass at Phi. (11/4).

2006 (Dallas):

- Played 4 games and was inactive another 3 contests after being promoted from practice squad (11/14).

2005 (Dallas):

- Spent the entire season on the Cowboys practice squad.

COLLEGE:

Played in 22 games in two seasons at Portland State, catching 16 passes for 175 yds. (10.9 avg.) with a TD. Saw action in 11 games as a senior in 2004, recording 7 recepts. for 96 yds. with a TD. Appeared in 11 games his junior campaign, in 2003, posting nine catches for 79 yds.

PERSONAL:

- Named all–county and County Defensive POY as a senior at Seaside (CA) HS.
- Earned all–league and all–county honors in baseball.
- Named the Monterey County Athlete of the Year in 2001.
- Married to wife, Angelina, with a daughter, Alena (2).
- Born Tony Curtis (2/11/83) in Ft. Lewis, WA.

Nate Davis, a 5th–round selection in the 2009 NFL Draft, possesses a strong arm and impressive mobility. He was the 3rd QB for the 49ers in 2009.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 5th–round (171st pick overall) choice by SF in 2009.

GOLDMINE:

- Whenever Nate needed guidance growing up, he didn't have to turn far. His older brother, Jose, who is 10 years older than Nate, was a standout athlete and went on to play professionally. "Jose was my role model growing up. He excelled in all the sports and I wanted to be just like him when I got older. He's like my best friend and we still talk every day." Jose played quarterback at Kent State (1996–99), where he set the Mid–American Conference single game record with 8 touchdowns passes in a game against Central Michigan. He went on to play for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL, before spending six seasons in the Arena Football League. In April of 2009, Jose was hired as the head football coach at Bellaire High School, where both he and Nate starred.
- On January 18, 2010, Nate received word that a terrible accident had happened. A three–year old boy, who often played with Nate's young daughter, Mia, had accidentally shot and killed himself with a handgun. Nate was devastated by the news, and since then, has become an active supporter of the Robert Julian Robbins Foundation, which is committed to emphasizing the importance of 'Gun Safety.' On June 13, Nate, along with a handful of 49ers teammate, attended the launch of the foundation in Stockton, CA, where local police handed out gun safety boxes and locks.
- Between schoolwork and sports, Nate didn't have much free time to spare at Bellaire High School, but he always found a way to visit the school's class for physically and mentally disabled kids a few hours a week. "Whenever I had a free minute, I'd stop in, work with them for a bit and just show them I care. Having been diagnosed with a learning disability in middle school, I was able to work my way through it. My message to them is that they are just the same as everyone else, but you just have to work harder in order to succeed." Once his playing days are over, Nate envisions a career as a teacher or aide for disabled youth.
- With an enrollment of only 500 students, Nate's high school has produced a significant amount of NFL talent. When Nate was selected by the 49ers in 2009, he became the sixth Bellaire product to be drafted in the NFL since the late 1970's, joining RB Ron Lee (1976–78), DE Andy Dorris (1973–81), LB Lance Mehl (1980–87), WR Joey Galloway (1995–present) and LB Ben Taylor (2002–06).

- Inactive for all 16 contests, serving as team's 3rd QB.

COLLEGE:

Compiled a 22–12 record as a starter for the Cardinals, where he was twice named MAC Conference Offensive Player of the Year (2007–08). Became the first player in school history with back–to–back 3,000–yd. passing seasons. A finalist for the 2008 Manning Award, given annually to the nation's top passer, went on to set school career records for TD passes (74), passing yds. (9,233), pass attempts (1,124), pass completions (678), 250–yd. passing games (20) and 300–yd. passing games (9). His 74 career TD passes rank 5th in MAC history behind Chad Pennington and Ben Roethlisberger. Compiled 499 rushing yds. and 10 TDs during his career. In 2007, was named the team's MVP while throwing for 3,667 yds. and 30 TDs. Ranked 2nd in the MAC and 15th nationally with an average of 300.3 yds./game in total offense. As a true freshman in 2006, ranked 5th among MAC freshmen all–time as he threw for 1,975 yds., and tied the school record for TD passes (18) in a single season.

PERSONAL:

- Earned all–state and all–conference honors as a senior at Bellaire (OH) HS, compiling a 21–8 record as a starter on his way to setting career–school marks with 7,348 passing yds. and 83 passing TDs. He also was a four–year letter winner in basketball and holds the school record for most points (over 1,800).
- Has a daughter, Mia.
- Born Nate Charles Davis (5/25/87) in Bellaire, OH.
- Majored in communication studies.

Vernon Davis enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons by an NFL tight end in recent history, a campaign that landed him a starting role in the 2010 Pro Bowl. By posting 13 receiving TDs in 2009, he tied the NFL record for most TDs in a season by a tight end (TE Antonio Gates – 13 TDs in 2004). Davis' TD recepts. also were tied for the most in the NFL with Patriots WR Randy Moss and Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald, making him the first tight end in the Super Bowl era to lead (or tie for the lead) league in TD recepts. He set new single-season career highs with 78 recepts., 965 rec. yds. and 13 TDs, as well as single-game highs in recepts. (10) and TDs (3). Davis was named a team captain by head coach Mike Singletary at the beginning of the 2009 season for his hard work and dedication.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two 1st-round (6th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- This offseason, Vernon traveled to Afghanistan along with Cleveland Browns T Joe Thomas, Houston Texans DE Mario Williams, and Dallas Cowboys TE Jason Witten. They traveled first to Al Udeid Air Force Base 40 miles outside of Doha, Qatar, then to Bagram Air Force Base in Afghanistan. The trip gave Vernon perspective and knowledge of the efforts being put forth by our military in the Middle East. "It was a once-in-a-lifetime experience. I gained a lot of information throughout the trip and got a chance to really see what was going on inside and out, so I'm very familiar with everything that is going on out there."
- Vernon was named an honorary captain of the USA Curling Team at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver, BC, Canada. He attended the games and served as an ambassador for the team in order to help gain support for the sport.
- Vernon has always had an affinity for art and is an avid admirer of Michelangelo and the Renaissance period. In 2010, he got the opportunity to give back to his passion for art. Director of Cultural Affairs for the San Francisco Arts Commission Luis R. Cancel in conjunction with the Young at Art Festival, a project of the San Francisco Unified School District and the Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco announced the launch of "Art Impact." Vernon was the inaugural speaker for Art Impact and the San Francisco Unified School District created a scholarship in Vernon's name, called the Vernon Davis Visual Arts Scholarship, which will provide tuition support to a San Francisco youth interested in pursuing a career in the visual arts.
- When Vernon was a freshman in college he wanted to honor the person who raised him to be the person he is today, his grandmother, Adaline. He decided to get a tattoo on the inside of his left arm with her name. His grandmother's reaction wasn't a good one at first, but she understood why he did it because in Vernon's words, he could look onto the inside of his left arm just to think of her. "She's really influenced me and really pushed me, made me open my eyes and see that besides football, there's are other things that I can get involved with if I don't make it." Adaline was the one who raised most of his siblings and gave Vernon direction in his life, teaching him to set goals, helping mold Vernon into the person he is today.
- Who said athletes and the arts don't mix? Vernon brought his football and artistic talents together when he took part in the NFL Players Association and NFL Retired Players Association's Smocks and Jocks event at Super Bowl unites retired and active NFL players to auction off their own original artistic works for charity. Vernon entered a piece called "Kissing Him," which was displayed and auctioned off prior to the Super Bowl. Vernon switched his original major in college, criminal justice, to art studio so he could pursue his passion of art. "Most paintings, it's all about energy and emotion and I'm able to portray that in my painting."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2009: NFC Pro Bowl, Len Eshmont Award

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Set new single-season career highs with 78 recepts., 965 rec. yds. and 13 TD recepts., in 2009. He was one of only two TEs to lead their team in all three categories (Kellen Winlsow, TB). His rec. yds. and TD totals were both single-season records among 49ers tight ends all-time.
- In 2009, his 13 TD recepts. tied the NFL record for most in a season by a TE (Antonio Gates – 13 TDs in 2004).
- Also became the first tight end in the Super Bowl era to lead (or tie for the lead) league in TD recepts.

2009:

- Ranked 5th in the NFL (3rd in NFC) among TEs with 78 recepts. and 965 rec. yds. Davis' totaled three 100-yd. rec. games, which tied him with SD TE Antonio Gates, Dal. TE Jason Witten and Phi. TE Brent Celek for the most 100-yd. rec. games by a tight end in 2009.
- Davis' 965 rec. yds. were the most by a 49er in a single season since WR Terrell Owens (1,102 rec. yds. in 2003).
- Ranked t-7th in the NFL and t-2nd in the NFC in scoring (78 points).
- Notched three, 100-yd. rec. games, marking the most by a 49er in a season since WR Brandon Lloyd in 2005.
- Along with RB Frank Gore (13 TDs – 10 rus. and 3 rec.) became just the second set of 49er teammates to each have at least 13 TDs in a season. In 1995, WR Jerry Rice had 17 TDs and RB Derek Loville registered 13 TDs.
- Earned the 2009 Ozzie Newsome Award from ProFootballTalk.com for best tight end in the NFL.
- Logged 7 recepts. for 93 yds. and a career-high 3 TDs (all in the 2nd half) at Hou. (10/25). Davis became the first tight end in 49ers history to register 3 TD recepts. in a game.
- Established a career-high 10 recepts. (102 rec. yds.) vs. Ten. (11/8). It marked Davis' first career 100-yd. game. His 10-catch performance marked only the 3rd time in franchise history that a TE registered 10 recepts.-or-more in a game. TE Eric Johnson registered 13 recepts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04), and 10 recepts. vs. StL (10/3/04). Davis became the first 49ers TE to notch 100 yds. rec. since TE Eric Johnson recorded 162 yds. vs. Arz. (10/10/04).
- Set the franchise record for most TDs by a TE in a single season on a 33-yd. TD recept. at Sea. (12/6). Finished the day with 6 recepts. for a career-high 111 yds. and 1 TD.
- Recorded his 11th TD of the season on a 5-yd. pass from QB Alex Smith vs. Arz. (12/14). He also tied the 49ers tight end record with his 4th consecutive game with a TD. He joined TE Ted Kwalick (11/12/72 through 12/4/72) as the only 49ers tight ends to accomplish the feat.
- Tied the NFL record for TD receptions by a tight end in a single season at StL (1/3). Davis' career-long 73-yd.TD rec. in the 4th qtr. tied TE Antonio Gates' record (13 TDs in 2004).

- Ranked 3rd on team with 31 recepts. for 358 yds. to go along with 2 TDs as he was named a Pro Bowl alternate.
- Posted a 57–yd. catch vs. Phi. (10/12) and finished day with 6 recepts. for 75 yds.

2007:
- Posted 4 recepts. for 56 yds. at Pit. (9/23) before suffering a partial tear of his right MCL in 3rd qtr. and did not return.
- Recorded 6 recepts. for 45 yds. and a TD in an OT victory at Arz. (11/25).

- Posted 20 catches for 265 yds. with 3 TDs, despite being inactive for 6 contests with a cracked fibula.
- In first career start, caught 5 passes for 37 yds. and a TD at Arz. (9/10). His 31–yd. TD came on his first NFL touch.
- Recorded 3 recepts. for 74 yds., including a 52–yd. TD catch vs. GB (12/10).

COLLEGE:

Ranks t–17th in school history in recepts. (83), 12th in rec. yds. (1,371) and t–13th in TD recepts. (9), as he lined up at fullback, H–back and flanker at Maryland. Started every game as a junior, leading team with 51 recepts. and the conference with 871 rec. yds. (17.1 avg.). Was a consensus first–team All–America and All–ACC selection. Also chosen as a finalist for the Mackey Award, given to the nation's top TE, in addition to earning consensus All–America honors, becoming the first Maryland offensive player since 1955 (center Bob Pellegrini) to be named to AP's first–team. An Iron Terp performer (top weight room award), holds school strength records for a tight end in bench (465), vertical jump (40.5 inches), index (812), squat (685) and 40–yd. dash time (4.41).

PERSONAL:
- Started three seasons at TE and S at Dunbar (Washington, D.C.) HS, but also saw time at WR, KR, LB and DE during his tenure, as team compiled a 31–5 overall record.
- As a senior, was chosen second–team All–USA by USA Today after catching 21 passes for 511 yds. (24.3 avg.) and 5 TDs. Also returned 4 kicks for TDs.
- Selected to play in U.S. Army All–American Bowl as a junior.
- Was the DCIAA champion in the high jump (6'5).
- Nickname "The Duke" originated from a name he inherited from his father who was called "Duke."
- Vernon's younger brother, Vontae, was selected in the first round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.
- In July 2010, traveled to London to promote the upcoming game between the 49ers and the Broncos at Wembley Stadium.

Brian de la Puente rejoins the 49ers after serving a stint on Kansas City's 53–man roster in 2008. He will look to compete for a spot on the offensive line.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed as a rookie free agent by SF on 5/1/08…Waived by SF on 8/30/08…Claimed off waivers by KC on 9/1/08…Waived by KC on 10/29/08…Signed by KC to practice squad on 10/30/08…Signed to 53–man roster by KC on 12/30/08…Waived by KC on 8/24/09…Claimed off waivers by Sea. on 8/25/09…Waived by Sea. on 9/5/09…Signed to practice squad by Sea. on 9/16/09…Released from practice squad by Sea. on 9/22/09…Signed to practice squad by Sea. on 9/30/09…Released from practice squad by Sea. on 11/10/09…Signed to practice squad by Car. on 11/17/09…Signed to reserves/future contract by SF on 1/22/10.

GOLDMINE:

- Brian began learning sign language while he was in high school so he could communicate better with his youngest sister, Riki, who is deaf. "In the future, I would love the opportunity to work with children who are deaf. That's something that hits home for me. My sign language is a little rusty, but I took four years in high school."
- Although sports have always been a part of Brian's life, he was always a beach kid. "I grew up on the beach with my parents and siblings. I would play all kinds of sports, so they were always in the picture, but I was a beach kid. That's what I did. I love to surf. Just being out in the water is amazing." When he was going to school at Cal, Brian would go to the beach in the morning, go to class, go to football practice, then back to the beach to surf.

2009 (Seattle/Carolina):

- Served stints on Seahawks and Panthers practice squads.

2008 (San Francisco/Kansas City):

- Claimed off waivers from San Francisco following final roster cutdown.
- Was inactive for 7 games with Kansas City before being waived and signed to Chiefs practice squad for the remainder of season.

COLLEGE:

Played in 26 games with 16 starts at California. Started all 13 contests as a senior in 2007 and earned honorable mention All–Pac–10 honors. Part of a 2007 unit that allowed a league–low 11 sacks and helped RB Justin Forsett rush for 1,546 yds. to rank 2nd in the conference, 2nd on the Golden Bear' all–time single–season list and 15th nationally. Played in 10 games (3 starts) as a junior in 2006 after seeing first collegiate action with spot duty in 2005.

PERSONAL:

- Earned first–team All–South Coast League, All–CIF Southern Section and All–Orange County as a senior at San Clemente (CA) HS as he led team to CIF semifinals and played in 2002 Shrine All–Star Game.
- Resides in San Clemente, CA, with his fiancé, Makenzie.
- Born Brian de la Puente (5/13/85) in San Clemente, CA.
- Majored in legal studies.

in San Francisco as a part of an active defensive line rotation after serving as a consistent contributor on the Washington Redskins defense throughout the previous 5 years. A stout performer against the run, Evans has also shown an ability to rush the passer. His most extensive action on the line occurred in 2008 when he started 11 games for the Redskins and posted a career–high 3.5 sacks. Evans has posted 225 tackles, 14.5 sacks and 3 FFs in 110 career games (23 starts).

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed by Dal. as a rookie free agent on 4/27/01...Waived by Dal. on 8/31/03...Signed by Was. on 6/15/04...Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 3/10/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Demetric has taken advantage of the NFL's sponsored business school programs over the past several years. He attended the Harvard Business School program in 2005, followed by Northwestern's Business School in 2007. Demetric put the programs into action during the 2008 offseason by interning at an Infiniti dealership in Washington, D.C.

2009 (San Francisco):

- Registered a half sack of QB David Garrard vs. Jax. (11/29).
- Posted a sack of QB Keith Null at StL (1/3).

2008 (Washington):

- Recorded career–highs with 47 tackles and 3.5 sacks.
- In first starting assignment of season, helped defense hold RB Marion Barber to just 26 yds. at Dal. (9/28).
- Put finishing touches on a critical goal line stand vs. Cle. (10/19) by knocking down a QB Derek Anderson pass on 4th down in the 4th qtr.
- Recorded first sack of season by dropping QB Dan Orlovsky for a 6–yd. loss at Det. (10/26).
- Led Redskins pass rush by tallying a career–high 2.5 sacks vs. Pit. (11/3).

2007 (Washington):

- Had a season–high 6 tackles and 1 FF vs. Phi. (11/11).

2006 (Washington):

- Had 1 tackle at Dal. (9/17) in addition to providing a key block that helped Rock Cartwright return a kickoff 100 yds. for a TD.

Finished junior season with 30 tackles and 1 sack after totaling 19 tackles as a sophomore in 11 games. Played in 5 games as a true freshman, recording 2 tackles.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Haynesville (LA) HS, where he played on both the defensive and offensive line, leading team to three consecutive state titles. His high school jersey was retired in 2007.
- Named Louisiana High School POY after posting 75 tackles, 12 sacks and 28 TFLs, as a senior.
- Launched his "92 Blessings" Foundation in 2008 (92blessings.com), which helps single parents for the holidays and those who cannot afford to have their children participate in extracurricular activities.
- Born Demetric Untrell Evans (9/3/79) in Haynesville, LA.
- Married to wife, Dr. Aungel Latchley Evans

An undrafted rookie free agent signed by the 49ers in 2008, Joe Jon Finley provides the 49ers with depth at the tight end position. He spent the past two seasons on San Francisco's practice squad.

TRANSACTIONS:

Signed as an undrafted free agent by SF on 05/01/08...Waived by SF on 08/30/08...Signed by SF to practice squad on 08/31/08...Signed by SF as a free agent on 1/2/09...Waived by SF on 9/5/09... Signed by SF to practice squad on 9/6/09... Signed by SF as a free agent on 1/11/10.

GOLDMINE:

- During the offseason, Joe Jon returns to his hometown of Victoria, TX, to help his dad coach a local high school football team.
- When he isn't playing football, Joe Jon is an avid golfer. While in 8th grade, he was leading by 3 strokes with 1 hole to play in the district championship. On the final hole, Joe Jon hit a drive down the middle that someone picked up, costing him the title. He finished 1 stroke behind the winner. The unfortunate event hasn't soured him from the sport, as he still plays 3–4 times a week during the summer and averages scores in the low 80s.
- Joe Jon's mother, Patty, has been a private investigator, working in her brother's private investigating firm after retiring from school teaching. She has worked everything from worker's compensation to oil field cases. On occasion, Joe Jon has assisted his mother on a case or two, driving her to and from certain locations.
- Joe Jon's favorite subject growing up was history and he continues to take in all that he can, in particular war documentaries. He's a big fan of HBO's mini–series "The Pacific" and "Band of Brothers," and likes to read history books during his spare time. "I think I got into it because I would listen to my grandpa tell stories of World War II. He was in a tank in Iwo Jima."

- Spent entire season on 49ers practice squad.

2008:

- Spent entire season on 49ers practice squad.

COLLEGE:

Played in 51 games (29 starts) at Oklahoma, totaling 62 recepts. for 775 yds. and 10 TDs. Had his most productive season as a senior when he started 13 of 14 games and posted career–highs of 23 recepts., 290 rec. yds. and 4 TDs.

PERSONAL:

- Combined for 2,523 yds. of total offense as a senior at Arlington (TX) HS, passing for 1,626 and gaining another 897 on the ground with 9 TDs, when he led his team to a 12–2 record as well as District and Bi–District titles for second straight year. Earned all–district and all–area TE honors as a sophomore.
- Competed in the 110m hurdles and qualified for the state meet while at Arlington.
- His dad, Mickey, has been a high school football coach for 35 years.
- Brother, Matt, played defensive back at Nebraska and for the Kansas City Chiefs.
- Born Joe Jon Finley (1/30/85) in Brownwood, TX.
- Graduated with a degree in sociology with an emphasis in business.

Aubrayo Franklin has played an instrumental role as a starter on the 49ers defensive line since being signed as an unrestricted free agent from Baltimore in 2007. A stalwart against the run, Franklin started all 16 games at nose tackle in 2009, and played a big role in the run defense holding opponents to 3.6 ypc., good for 3rd in the NFL, while also setting career highs in tackles (88), TFLs (8.5), sacks (2) and INTs (1).

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two 5th–round (146th pick overall) draft choices by Bal. in 2003…Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Bal. on 3/3/07.

- Made NFL debut vs. Den. (10/26) and recorded 1 tackle.
- Allocated to the Frankfurt of NFL Europe and finished the 10–game season with 25 tackles, 3 sacks and 3 PDs as part of Galaxy team that appeared in Championship Game.

COLLEGE:

Finished 2–year career at Tennessee with 70 tackles and 2 sacks. Became a starter for final 8 games of senior season at DT, recording 56 tackles and 2 sacks. Before going to Tennessee, Franklin was a two–year starter at DT for Itawamba (MS) Community College, where he was named all–state and selected Mississippi's Most Valuable Defensive Lineman in 2000.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Science Hill (TN) HS, where he was an all–state LB, recording 180 tackles as a senior.
- Born Aubrayo Razyo Franklin (8/27/80) in Johnson City, TN.
- Majored in arts and sciences.

Ted Ginn Jr. joins the 49ers following an offseason trade from the Miami Dolphins. Ginn continues to be a dynamic threat on both offense and special teams, where he has gained the reputation as one of the most dangerous returners in the league.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 1st–round (9th pick overall) draft choice by Mia. in 2007... Traded by Mia. to SF for a 2010 5th–round (145th overall) draft choice on 4/16/10. The Dolphins selected CB Nolan Barroll (Maryland) with that pick.

GOLDMINE:

- Ted is looking at a fresh start with the 49ers and would like to get back to himself. By getting back to the "old Ted Ginn," he's confident that will award him one of his goals which is heading to the Pro Bowl. "My goal always is to go to the Pro Bowl, but this year, I want to go out and get back to Ted Ginn, Jr. Just go out and make my team better as well as myself. That's the only goal I have. It's not too big, it's not too small. It's right there in my hands. I just have to go out and have fun and be a team player."
- Growing up in Cleveland, Ted had the benefit of having his father, Ted Sr., as his coach and mentor. His father has been the football coach at Glenville High School in Cleveland since 1997 and the track coach there since 2002. In 1999, Glenville became the first Cleveland Municipal School to reach the State Playoffs and made six subsequent appearances from 2000 to 2005. Ted Jr. played for his father during his prep career and credits his father with preparing him for the future. "It helped a lot," said Ted Jr. of having his father as a coach. "It prepared me well for all different sorts of situations. He never showed any favoritism towards me. In fact, he might have been harder on me to make me an example. It prepared me well for the next levels and now, because I played for him, I feel as though I can adjust to any type of coach."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2007: Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week (Week 11)
2009: AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 8)
AFC Special Teams Player of the Month (November)

2009 (Miami):

- Tallied a career–high 11 recepts. for 108 yds. vs. Buf. (9/13). The 11 recepts. tied for the 3rd–highest rec. total in team history, while his 108 rec. yds. were the 2nd–most in his career (175 yds. vs. Buf. 10/26/08).
- Caught a go–ahead 53–yd. TD pass from QB Chad Henne vs. NYJ (10/12).
- Displayed his playmaking ability on special teams, earning AFC Special Teams POW honors after returning two kickoffs (100, 101) for TDs at NYJ (11/1). The two TD returns off kickoffs in a single game tied an NFL record.
- Was later named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month (November) after having returned 21 kickoffs for 646 yds. (31.7 avg.) and 2 TDs in the five–game span.

2008 (Miami):

- Led the Dolphins with career highs in recepts. (56) and rec. yds. (790).
- Had a career day vs. Buf. (10/26), as he led the Dolphins with 7 catches for 175 yds., including a career–long 64–yd. recept. The 175 yds. marked the first 100–yd. rec. game of his career, as well as the most by a Dolphin since WR Chris Chambers hauled in 15 catches for a club–record 238 yds. vs. Buf. on (12/24/05).
- Recorded a season–high 154 kickoff return yds. vs. NE (11/23).

2007 (Miami):

- His 34 recepts. for 420 yds. were the most by a Dolphins rookie WR since 2001, when WR Chris Chambers caught 48 passes for 883 yds.
- Returned 24 punts for a 9.6–yd. average, ranking 4th in the AFC and 6th in the NFL, while fielding 63 kickoffs for a 22.7–yd. avg.
- Set a Dolphins rookie record with 2,086 all–purpose yds.
- Ranked 2nd in franchise history with 1,433 kickoff return yds., trailing only CB Brock Marion (1,524 yds. in 1999).

COLLEGE:

A three–year letterman at Ohio State (2004–06), played in 37 games (31 starts). Amassed 135 recepts. for 1,943 yds. and 15 TDs, while also rushing for 213 yds. and 3 TDs on 28 atts. Also returned 64 punts for a 14.1–yd. avg. and 6 TDs and 38 kickoffs for a 26.6–yd. avg. and 2 TDs. His 8 total TDs via returns tied an NCAA record. As a senior, earned second–team All–American and first–team All–Big Ten honors after recording a career–high 59 recepts. for 781 yds. and 9 TDs. Capped career by scoring on a 93–yd. kickoff return to open the BCS National Championship Game against Florida. In 2005, registered a kickoff return avg. of 29.6 yds. that led the conference and ranked 4th nationally. Became the first player in school history to score a TD receiving, rushing, returning a kickoff and returning a punt in the same season. As a freshman, led the nation and set a school single–season record by averaging 25.6–yds. on 15 punt returns.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Glenville HS in Cleveland, OH, where he lettered in football, basketball and track.
- As a DB, was the USA Today Defensive POY as well as a Parade All–American as a senior. Also played QB, WR and RB, while returning punts and kickoffs.
- Played in the U.S. Army All–America game following his senior season and was named the game's MVP after he returned a punt for a touchdown.
- Was the HS national champion in the 110–meter high hurdles, as a junior, and recorded the best time in the nation as a senior, when he won the state title for the second consecutive year.
- Also clocked a personal best 10.5 seconds in the 100–meter dash.
- Born Theodore Ginn Jr. (4/12/85) in Cleveland, OH.

A talented, young safety with great size and range, Dashon Goldson has earned valuable experience on defense since being selected in the 4th–round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the 49ers. In 2009, his first season as the full–time starter, he proved to be a playmaker in the 49ers secondary, setting career highs in multiple categories.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of three 4th–round (126th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007.

GOLDMINE:

- The Highest Point Foundation was created in 2009 by Dashon to provide motivational outlets for youth through sports programs such as camps and clinics, in order to take them off the streets and onto the field, making more productive use of their time and physical abilities. In many communities throughout Southern California, where Dashon grew up, young people are plagued with issues such as dropping out of school, drug use, tobacco use, underage drinking, gang violence, poverty, parental neglect and homeless–ness. Many of these issues have caused them to make the wrong choices in life, where they often times end up in a far worse place – and possibly jail. Dashon has seen far too much happen to the communities around him and he wants to do his part to give back – utilizing the resources that he has acquired as a professional athlete to help make a difference in people's lives. Whether it's assisting with preventative measures to ensure a child does not take the wrong path in life, or transitional measures to help someone who was previously incarcerated adjust to life as a responsible adult, Dashon vows to encourage individuals to reach "the highest point" in life through the lessons he has personally learned in the sport of football as well as through various programs and initiatives under his Foundation.

- Set career highs in tackles (114), INTs (4), FFs (3) and sacks (2). His 4 INTs led the team, while his 114 tackles ranked 2nd.
- One of only four players (LB Patrick Willis, CB Charles Woodson and LB Paul Posluszny) in the NFL to record at least 3 INTs, 3 FFs, and 1 sack.
- Recorded the first INT of his career off QB Seneca Wallace vs. Sea. (9/20).
- Registered a career high with 11 tackles at Min. (9/27). Also tipped a pass from QB Brett Favre that was intercepted by CB Shawntae Spencer in the 3rd qtr.
- Posted his first career sack vs. StL (10/4).
- Posted 8 tackles to go along with his first career FF and FR on a run by RB Steve Slaton in the 3rd qtr. at Hou. (10/25).
- Tied a career high with 11 total tack–les, while setting a career high with 10 solo tackles vs. Jax. (11/29).
- Set a single–game career high with 2 crucial FFs, to go along with an INT off of QB Kurt Warner vs. Arz. (12/14).
- Registered his 4th INT of the season vs. Det. (12/27).

- Started first game of career when 49ers opened game in nickel defense at Sea. (9/14), finishing the game with 5 tackles.
- Posted 1 tackle at NYG (10/19) before leaving game with a knee injury in 2nd qtr.
- Saw extensive action at safety vs. Was. (12/28) in place of starter S Michael Lewis, who was injured in 2nd qtr.

2007:

- Hampered first 2 weeks of season by an elbow injury suffered in preseason game against Oak. (8/18).
- Played first career game vs. Sea. (10/7), filling in for Lewis, who left field for 5 plays with an injury.

COLLEGE:

Appeared in 43 college games, which includes his career at Coffeyville Community College and the University of Washington, and collected 293 tackles, 6 INTs, 2 FFs, 1 sack and 20 PDs. Started 22 straight games at Washington before being limited by an ankle injury in 2006 season opener. Earned All–Pac 10 honorable mention after moving from free safety to cor–nerback as a senior so team could play its top 4 defensive backs. Attended Coffeyville (KS) Community College as a free safety for one season in 2003, earning first–team National Junior College Athletic Association All–America honors with 99 tackles, 2 INTs, 1 sack and 2 PDs.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Narbonne (CA) HS, where he received two votes in the Long Beach Press–Telegram's 2001 "Best in the West" poll, and earned first–team All–Marine League honors in each of his final two seasons.
- As a senior, totaled 130 tackles and 6 INTs, with 2 returned for TDs.
- Born Dashon Goldson (9/18/84) in Carson, CA.
- Graduated with a degree in American Ethnic Studies.

As the heart of the 49ers offense for the past five seasons, two–time Pro Bowl back Frank Gore has established himself as one of the premier running backs in the NFL. Known as a breakaway threat and tough inside runner, the former 3rd–round pick became the first 49er in team history to record four consecutive 1,000–yd. rushing seasons. Gore's 4,953 rushing yds. over the past four years rank 4th in the NFL over that time span.

TRANSACTIONS:
Originally the first of two 3rd–round (65th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2005.

GOLDMINE:
- Frank's determination to run over defenders comes from his tough upbringing in Miami, FL. Some considered his football career over when he suffered two serious knee injuries at the University of Miami. He relied, however, on his mother Liz's strength to help him through. "She had been on dialysis (awaiting a kidney transplant) since I was in the 11th grade and raised three kids as a single woman," Frank said. Unfortunately, Liz lost her battle with kidney disease before the 49ers second game of the 2007 season against the St. Louis Rams. Playing with a heavy heart, Frank responded by rushing for 81 yds. and 2 TDs, including a 43–yd. score on a 4th–and–1 carry, helping the 49ers to a 17–16 victory.
- During the 2010 offseason, Frank tried his hand at coaching for the first time as the defensive coordinator of the Little 49ers in a Miami youth league. Although his players are only 4–years old, Frank is still teaching them what's important. "The most important part is that the kids enjoy it. You can see how excited they get when they do something right."
- Frank was named 15th winner of the annual Garry Niver Award by reporters covering the team who represent the SF Chapter of the Pro Football Writer's Association in December of 2007. The award is given in honor of the late Garry Niver, the San Mateo Times reporter, and goes to the player who shows "cooperation and professional style" in dealing with Pro Football writers on the job.

AWARDS & HONORS:
2006: NFC Pro Bowl, Ed Block Courage Award, Bill Walsh Award, NFC Offensive Player of the Week (weeks 5 &11)
2007: Garry Niver Award, NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 12)
2009: NFC Pro Bowl, NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 14), NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 2), FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 2)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Enters the 2010 season tied with RB Joe Perry for the most 100–yd. rus. games in franchise history (20). His five 150–yd. performances are the most in 49ers history.
- Has logged four consecutive 1,000–yd. rus. seasons (2006–09), becoming the only player in 49ers history to record a total of four, 1,000–yd. seasons.
- Ranks 6th in franchise history with 7,392 yds. from scrimmage, and ranks 4th on the 49ers all–time rushing list with 5,561 rus. yds.
- Gore and TE Vernon Davis (13 rec. TDs) became just the 2nd set of 49er teammates to each have at least 13 TDs in a season. In 1995, WR Jerry Rice had 17 TDs and RB Derek Loville registered 13.
- Since his rookie season in 2005, the 49ers are 18–2 when Gore has 20–or–more carries and 15–5 when he breaks the 100–yd. plateau.
- Earned Pro Bowl honors in 2006 after setting single–season franchise records with 312 carries, 1,695 rus. yds., 2,180 total yds. from scrimmage and nine, 100–yd. rus. games.
- His 4,953 rus. yds. since 2006 rank as the 4th–most of any NFL RB during that time span.
- Set a 49ers single–game rushing record with 212 yds. vs. Sea. (11/19/06).

- Logged his fourth consecutive 1,000–yd. rus. season (2006–09), becoming the only player in 49ers history to record four, 1,000–yd. seasons.
- Set career highs with 13 combined TDs (10 rush, 3 rec.). His 10 rus. TDs ties a single–season team record with RB Derek Loville (1995), RB Ricky Watters (1993), RB Billy Kilmer (1961), RB J.D. Smith (1959) and RB Joe Perry (1953).
- Ranked t–2nd in the NFC and t–8th in the NFL in scoring (78 pts.)
- Finished the season ranked 5th in the NFC, t–11th in the NFL, with 1,120 rus. yds. and 10 rus. TDs.
- Registered a rus. TD and a rec. TD in the same game for first time in his career at Arz. (9/13).
- Scored 2 rus. TDs (79, 80 yds.), breaking his career long twice in the same game against Sea. (9/20). Joined RB Barry Sanders (at TB – 80, 82 – on 10/12/97) as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75–plus yds. in the same game. Set a new career high with 246 yds. from scrimmage (207 rus. yds., 39 rec. yds.). Became the first player in franchise history to have 2 runs of 79 yds.–or–more in the same game. Named NFC offensive POW and FedEx Ground POW for his performance.
- Registered a 64–yd. TD run vs. Ind. (11/1). It marked his 3rd rus. TD of the season over 60 yds., a feat that hadn't been accomplished by a 49er since RB Garrison Hearst (96t, 71t and 70t) in 1998. Along with Jaguars RB Maurice Jones–Drew, became the first players to record 3 rus. TDs over 60 yds. in one season since 2003 (RB Ahman Green – 98t, 65t and 60t; RB Jamal Lewis – 82t, 72t and 63t).
- Became the 5th player in franchise history to eclipse 5,000 career rus. yds. with a 42–yd. run on his first carry of the game at GB (11/22).
- Extended his career–long streak of consecutive games with a TD to 5 with a 4–yd. TD recept. vs. Jax. (11/29), becoming the first 49er to score a TD in 5 consecutive games since WR Terrell Owens (11/4/01 through 12/2/01).
- Named NFC Offensive POW for his performance vs. Arz. (12/14) on MNF. Rushed for 167 yds. and 1 TD. His 167 rus. yds. were the 2nd highest rus. total on MNF in franchise history (RB Garrison Hearst, 198 yds. rus. vs. Det. 12/14/98). With 104 yds. rus. in the first half, it marked the second time in 2009 that he eclipsed the 100–yd. plateau before halftime (vs. Sea. 9/20/09).
- Rushed for 107 yds. on 16 carries at Phi. (12/20), becoming the first running back in 20 regular season games to rush for over 100 yds. against the Eagles.

- Led team in rushing with 1,036 yds. and 6 TDs, becoming first player in 49ers history to record three consecutive 1,000–yd. rus. seasons.
- Totaled 151 yds. of offense in season–opener vs. Arz. (9/7), rushing for 96 yds. on 14 carries, including a 41–yd. TD run, and catching 4 passes for 55 yds.
- Rushed for 130 yds. on 27 carries and a TD vs. Det. (9/21).
- Scored 2 first half TDs vs. StL (11/16), marking his 15th career 100–yd. rus. game.
- Recorded 52 rus. yds. and a TD vs. NYJ (12/7) before leaving game with an ankle injury in 3rd qtr.

2007:

- Posted a team–high 53 recepts. for 436 yds. and a TD, despite playing ma–jority of season with nagging ankle injury in addition to being slowed with a broken hand suffered in training camp. Finished 6th in NFL in combined yds. with 1,533 yds. (1,102 rus., 436 rec.).
- Named 15th winner of the annual Garry Niver Award by reporters covering the team who represent the SF Chapter of the Pro Football Writer's Associa–tion in December of 2007. The award is given in honor of the late Garry Niver, the San Mateo Times reporter, and goes to the player who shows "coopera–tion and professional style" in dealing with Pro Football writers on the job.
- Gained 81 yds. on 20 carries with 2 TDs at StL (9/16), with one of his scores coming on a 43–yd. run on 4th–and–1 in the 3rd qtr. to give 49ers the lead in the 17–16 win.
- Inactive at Atl. (11/4) due to the ankle injury originally suffered at NYG (10/21), which was further aggravated vs. NO (10/28).
- Named NFC Offensive POW after having one of his best outings of the season at Arz. (11/25), rushing for 116 yds. and 2 TDs on 21 carries and record–ing career–highs with 11 recepts. and 98 receiving yds. in 37–31 OT win. Scored on an 11–yd. run in 2nd qtr. and on a 35–yd., lead–changing run with 1:15 left in 4th qtr. The 11 recepts. by a RB marked the 2nd–most in team history, behind the 12 recepts. RB Roger Craig totaled twice.
- Ran for season–high 138 yds. on 29 carries vs. Cin. (12/15).

2006:

- Named to NFC Pro Bowl after setting franchise records with 312 carries and 1,695 yds. to go along with 8 TDs, while also recording a team–high 61 recepts. for 485 yds. with a score.
- His 2,180 yds. from scrimmage set a franchise record, and ranked 4th in NFL and 2nd in the NFC.
- Finished 3rd in the NFL and led the NFC in rushing yds. with 1,695, while ranking 3rd in the NFL with a 5.4–yd. rus. avg. Also led the NFL with 16 rushes of 20 yds. or more.
- Recorded nine, 100–yd. games in 2006, which shattered the previous fran–chise record of six, 100–yd. games in a season by RB Garrison Hearst (1998) and RB Roger Craig (1988).
- Earned 49ers 2006 Ed Block Courage Award for his tireless work ethic and determination while rehabilitating two surgically repaired shoulders during 2006 offseason. Also named co–recipient of the 2006 Bill Walsh Award (with CB Walt Harris), given to the team's most valuable player as voted on by the coaching staff.
- Named NFC Offensive POW vs. Oak. (10/8) after rus. 27 times for 134 yds. and hauling in 3 recepts. for 38 yds.

Parys Haralson registered another solid season for the 49ers, posting 5 sacks in 2009 to move himself into 4th place in career sacks by a 49ers linebacker (15.5), while also setting career highs in tackles (73), PDs (4) and FFs (1). Haralson had a breakout season in 2008, leading the team with a career-high 8 sacks, a total that tied for 2nd most among NFC linebackers, and marked the most by a 49ers linebacker in a single season since Kevin Greene recorded 10.5 in 1997. His efforts were rewarded with a four-year contract extension through 2013.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 5th-round (140th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006... Signed a four-year contract extension through 2013 on 4/16/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Parys' diligent work ethic was instilled at the age of 14. While growing up in Flora, MS, his uncle and grandparents gave him an early introduction to life in the real world. He worked with his uncle at Sun Belt Bolts and Screws until he was 18 years old. After that, he labored in his grandfather's junkyard. Parys says his family helped instill the blue-collar foundation he leans on now as an NFL player. "You had to have a hard work ethic because it was an 8-hour job in the hot Mississippi sun. Sometimes I didn't want to go, but my grandparents made me go because if I didn't work for what I wanted, they weren't going to give it to me." Those lessons taught Parys that good things don't come without hard work and perseverance.
- Thanks to his upbringing by this mom and grandparents, Parys will always remember where he came from – and now it's his opportunity to give back. Parys is looking to start his own foundation to benefit the children in his hometown of Flora, MS. "There are a bunch of kids in my hometown, they are athletic but they just run around and play football. No one really teaches them the techniques and the specialized training for each position." When he goes home, Parys spends time working out at his old high school and his middle school, taking time to show the students everything it takes to be successful. "You can see how excited the kids get when I walk in. I know that they look up to me and I take that responsibility seriously. I want to show them everything it takes to be successful and show each of them that they have the ability to be successful." As part of his foundation, Parys is looking to run a football camp, teaching kids the importance of eating healthy and staying in shape while teaching them proper football techniques.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Led the team with a career-high 8 sacks in 2008, a total that tied for 2nd-most among NFC linebackers and marked the most by a 49ers linebacker in a single season since Kevin Greene (10.5) in 1997.

- Sacked QB Kurt Warner at Arz. (9/13) for a 6-yd. loss, and later pressured Warner into throwing an INT to CB Nate Clements in the 3rd qtr.
- Tallied 8 tackles and tied a career-high 2 PDs at Min. (9/27).
- Pressured QB Jay Cutler into throwing an INT to S Dashon Goldson vs. Chi. (11/12).
- Set a career high with 11 tackles, while registering a sack and his first career FF at Sea. (12/6).

- Posted 57 tackles and 8 sacks. His sack total ranked t-2nd among NFC linebackers and were the most by a 49er since DE/LB Andre Carter's 12.5 in 2002.
- Had a career-high 2 sacks vs. Arz. (9/7).
- Made first start of season vs. Phi. (10/12).
- Notched 5 tackles and 1.5 sacks vs. NYJ (12/7).

2007:

- Stepped into starting lineup at OLB when Manny Lawson (knee) was injured prior to the third game of season.
- Made first career start at NYG (10/21) and totaled a career-high 7 tackles.
- Recorded 3 tackles and first career sack at Sea. (11/12) when he dropped QB Matt Hasselbeck for a 4-yd. loss in 2nd qtr.

2006:

- Recorded 5 tackles in 7 games played as a reserve OLB and special teamer before being placed on IR (11/7) with a torn pectoral muscle.
- Played in first career game vs. StL (9/17) after missing most of training camp with a foot injury.

COLLEGE:

Three-year starter on the D-line at Tennessee, currently ranking 5th in school history with 21 sacks, topped only by Reggie White (32, 1980-83), Leonard Little (28, 1995-97), Jonathan Brown (25, 1994-97) and Todd Kelly (22.5, 1989-92). Started entire senior season at LDE and earned 2nd-team All-SEC selection by the Associated Press after recording 45 tackles, 3 FFs, 2 FRs and 8.5 sacks.

PERSONAL:

- All-American selection as a senior at Madison Central HS in Madison, MS. Also a two-time Class 5A all-state and three-time all-metro choice.
- Helped Madison Central to a state title his sophomore season with a 15-0 record.
- Has one sister, Allicyn Rosell.
- Born Parys Sharron Haralson (1/24/84) in Flora, MS.
- Graduated with a degree in criminology.

Eric Heitmann has been a mainstay on the 49ers offensive line since being selected in the 7th round of the 2002 NFL Draft. Admired by his teammates for his leadership, Heitmann earned the Bobb McKittrick Award for three straight years (2006–08). In 2007, Heitmann won the Ed Block Courage Award after returning from a broken leg suffered late in the 2006 season. After lining up at both guard positions early in his career, Heitmann moved to center for the final 6 games of the 2005 season and has remained there since. He was the first 49ers rookie to start a game on the offensive line since 1987 when T Harris Barton started at right tackle.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two 7th–round (239th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2002.

GOLDMINE:

- At the age of 5, Eric started playing the piano. By the time he was 8, he could play Billy Joel's "We Didn't Start the Fire" and "Piano Man." At 11, he composed his first original piece while beginning to balance playing piano and football. In 2006, Eric visited Fantasy Studios in Berkeley to meet with renowned composer Gary Malkin. The day began with a tour of Fantasy Studios, including a stop in the recording studio where music and movie visuals come together on screen. As a "homework assignment," Eric was given a video for a commercial that Malkin scored which was played at the Summer Olympics. Eric, in turn, composed a musical score that fit the athletes and emotions in the piece.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2006: Bobb McKittrick Award
2007: Ed Block Courage Award, Bobb McKittrick Award
2008: Bobb McKittrick Award, Garry Niver Award

2009:

- Started every game at C.
- In his 100th career start, helped the team rush for a season–high 246 yds. vs. Sea. (9/20).
- Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack of QB Alex Smith on any of his 41 attempts vs. Jax (11/29), marking the first time the 49ers did not give up a sack since 11/10/08, at Arz. (QB Shaun Hill – 40 attempts).

- Started all 16 games at C and earned the Bobb McKittrick Award for the third consecutive season.
- Only missed one series during the entire season, leaving the game briefly vs. Arz. (9/7) with a shoulder injury.

2007:

- Started all 16 games at C after breaking his leg late in the 2006 season. Won the Ed Block Courage Award for his courageous return from the difficult injury.
- Was one of only 35 NFL players to line up for every snap during season.

2006:

- Started at C for first 14 games of season before suffering a broken leg in 1st qtr. at Sea. (12/14). Finished the season on Injured Reserve after undergoing surgery to repair the injury following the game.
- His blocking helped RB Frank Gore finish with a franchise–record and NFC–best 1,695 yds. rus., as well as his 9, 100–yd. games.
- In a 20–14 win vs. Sea. (11/19), helped team gain 262 yds. on the ground, including a franchise record 212 yds. rushing by Gore. Gore, who earned a game ball for his efforts, in turn gave game balls to his offensive linemen.

2005:

- Started in all 16 games, including 10 starts at RG and 6 at C.
- Played C in preseason for injured Jeremy Newberry (knee) before moving back to RG for majority of 2005 campaign.
- Started at C at Ten. (11/27) when Newberry was placed on IR, and stayed there remainder of season. Rookie David Baas shifted into Heitmann's post at RG.

2004:

- Started all 16 games at LG.
- Helped offense generate 448 total yds. vs. Arz. (10/10).

2003:

- Played in 9 games with 8 starts, missing 7 contests with injuries to both ankles.
- Suffered right ankle injury at Sea. (10/12) and later a left ankle injury vs. StL (11/2). Inactive Weeks 11–12.

2002:

- Played in every regular season game with 12 starts in addition to starting both postseason contests.
- Helped limit opponents to 22 sacks, 3rd–fewest in NFL.
- Replaced injured G Dave Fiore (knee) vs. Was. (9/22) and made first career start at LG vs. StL (10/6).
- Helped hold Giants defense without a sack vs. NYG (1/5/03) in NFC Wild Card Game.
- Started at LG at TB (1/12/03) in NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

COLLEGE:

Started 34 consecutive contests in four seasons at Stanford, earning All–Pac 10 honors three times. Anchored line at RG for three seasons and did not allow a sack in final two years. First–team All–America choice by The NFL Draft Report, Football News and American Football Coaches Association. Added second–team honors from The Sporting News and All–Pac–10 first–team honors. Started every game at LG, collecting 95 key blocks/knockdowns as senior and assisted offense in totaling 451.5 yds. per game. Second–team All–Pac–10 selection as junior and started every game at LG.

earned the 4th–year receiver a spot in the rotation at WR during the 2009 season. A speedy play–making threat, Hill also serves as a playmaker on special teams.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two 3rd–round (76th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007.

GOLDMINE:

- A San Francisco native, Jason was ecstatic when he was selected by the 49ers as it provided him the opportunity to make a difference on the field and in his community. He has since donated his time and money to help under–privileged youth in the tough neighborhood he grew up in. "He's seen a lot of his friends die," said his mother, Laverne Videaux. "The environment was drug–infested." At the same time, she said proudly, all six of her children have grown up educated and "very respectable." Jason "did his schoolwork, he played sports, he was totally focused," recalled an aunt, Barbara Lubinski. Jason has sponsored a dinner for the homeless and a park refurbishing at Hunters Point. This past Christmas, he arranged for his own holiday giving event. He created flyers and used word of mouth to spread the news that he would be giving away gifts at the Margaret Hayward Playground and the Tenderloin Police Department.
- Jason did a 10–week internship in the Stanford athletic department during the 2010 offseason. He met with Senior Associate Athletic Director Darrin Nelson, an 11–year veteran of the NFL, every Wednesday, learning the ins and outs of college athletics. After his football career is over, Jason is inter–ested in one day working towards becoming an athletic director for a college program.
- Another route that Jason has an interest in is possibly becoming a probation officer after football. During his time at Washington State, he was fascinated by the stories of one of his professors. "Coming from the inner city, there's probably some sort of connection, but I think about his stories and how he dealt with the kids. It just seemed fun."
- Jason credits his mother, Laverne, as being the one that made him who he is today. Looking back on his younger years, Jason felt like that he had everything at the time, but didn't realize how little they really had. "She did everything for us, we didn't have much, but you wouldn't know it growing up through it. It seemed like I had everything I needed. Looking back, we didn't have much, but at the time, it seemed like we had the world."
- Jason's father, Jerry, was paralyzed in 1994, which meant Jason had to grow up faster than expected, being the middle child of six kids. "I had to grow up fast, just from watching my little brother and sisters," he said. "I always had to be the grown–up of the family." Unfortunately, his father passed away while he was in college and Jason had to make the funeral arrangements. He also had to be strong for his other siblings. "They took it so hard," Jason said. "I couldn't express the way I really felt because I had to be strong for them so they wouldn't see me cry and break down." Jason, however, looks on the positive side of things and reflects back on that experience and uses what he learned in his life today. "It forced me to mature fast. It was part of my maturation process. Even now, today, I still take that nurturing approach whether it's in the meeting rooms with the guys, or with my own son."
- Growing up, one way that Jason and his father would get away from it all, was watching wrestling. He was a big fan of Hulk Hogan, Randy "Macho Man" Savage and Stone Cold Steve Austin. While Jason admits he doesn't watch wrestling as much as he used to, he now has become a fan of Ultimate Fighting.
- Jason begins every game day with a steak for breakfast. When he drives to the stadium, he avoids the highways and takes surface streets. And although some players will try to get amped up for the game, Jason listens to nice, slow songs. "I want to be relaxed when I play. I think the easy drive in, the soothing music, it just calms my nerves before the game."

2009:

- Registered his first recept. and TD of the season on a 12–yd. pass from QB Alex Smith just before halftime vs. Ten. (11/8). Late in the 4th qtr., Smith found Hill in the end zone for his 2nd TD of the game. It marked Hill's first career 2–TD game.

2008:

- Posted career highs with 30 catches for 323 yds. and 2 TDs. Also had 17 special teams tackles to rank 2nd on team.
- Caught first career TD vs. Sea. (10/26) on a 2–yd. slant pass from QB Shaun Hill in 4th qtr.
- Replaced an injured WR Arnaz Battle (foot) in lineup as 3rd wideout vs. Arz. (11/10) and recorded career–highs with 6 catches for 82 yds., including key sideline grabs late in 4th qtr. to keep 49ers drives alive.
- Made first career start when 49ers opened game in 3–WR set at Dal. (11/23).
- Caught a 9–yd. TD pass in 4th qtr. vs. Was. (12/28) to give 49ers a 21–17 lead.

2007:

- Limited to 5 games due to lingering hamstring and groin injuries
- Saw first NFL action at WR vs. NO (10/28) and hauled in his first career recept. on a 6–yd. pass from QB Alex Smith in the 4th qtr.

COLLEGE:

His 32 TD catches at Washington State broke a school career–record of 22 by Hugh Campbell (1960–62) and tied for 2nd on Pac–10 all–time list. Ac–counted for 32 of team's 68 TD recepts. over his final three seasons (2004–06). His 2,704 yds. receiving broke Campbell's old school career–record of 2,452, and his 148 recepts. rank 2nd behind Campbell's 176. Finished his senior year with 41 recepts. for 600 yds. (14.6 avg.) and 7 TDs.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Sacred Heart Cathedral (CA) HS, where he was runner–up for the City of San Francisco POY Award as a senior, and added honorable mention all–region accolades as a DB and WR by the San Francisco Chronicle.
- Helped Sacred Heart clinch a win over St. Ignatius with an INT return for a TD in oldest high school rivalry west of the Mississippi River, dating back to 1893. The team finished with a 9–1 record during his final campaign.
- One of six children of LaVerne Videau and the late Jerry Hill.
- Met his girlfriend in college and the couple has a son, Jason Jr.
- Born Jason Hill (2/20/85) in San Francisco, CA.
- Majored in sociology.

Ricky Jean Francois is a versatile defender who is able to lineup at all three of the 49ers defensive line positions.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of two 7th–round selections (244th overall) by SF in 2009.

GOLDMINE:

- With relatives in Haiti, Ricky felt obligated this past offseason to help his family and fellow countrymen following the earthquake that left nearly one million people homeless. Unfortunately, Ricky lost some family to the earthquake, but that didn't deter him from trying to make a difference in the wake of the disaster. "I want to obviously help because I have family there, but also if the shoe was on the other foot, I would want other people to help out the same way." He first worked to obtain donations for Haiti, getting GMC to donate 50 brand new 2010 trucks. Ricky recently met with former President Bill Clinton in Miami to discuss Haiti relief efforts with 21 other Haitian–born players. He had a 1–on–1 meeting with Clinton, discussing what he wanted to have built in the capital of Port–Au–Prince, namely a school similar to the ones close to his hometown in Dade County that can house up to 6,000 children.
- While Ricky enjoys the game of football, he also wants to use his position to help make his community a safer place. Growing up in Dade County, it wasn't always easy for people to walk around in his neighborhood and feel safe. Ricky hopes that one day he will be able to help his community and the surrounding communities get to the point where that is no longer a problem. "If I can talk to 10 kids and get in the head of five, I'm good. I'm basically trying to change my community. I want it to get to the point where people can walk outside and not be scared."
- Ricky worked at Habitat for Humanity throughout college during the offseason, helping in a variety of areas. "There were things that were ripped out of houses and walls. We had to put it up and move it. It was to a point where we had to move some concrete and we were ghosts. I'm a dark guy and when I walked out I was white."

2009:

- Made his NFL debut at Phi. (12/20) on special teams.
- Saw his first action on defense vs. Det. (12/27).

COLLEGE:

Played in 25 games (9 starts) and posted 56 tackles, 5.5 sacks, 3 PDs, 3 FRs and a FF during his Tigers career. In 2008, played in 11 games (6 starts) at DT, recording 20 tackles, 2 sacks, 2 PDs and a FR. In 2007, started 2 games and was named Defensive Most Outstanding Player in the BCS National Championship Game, registering 6 tackles, a half sack and a blocked field goal, in LSU's win over Ohio State. As a redshirt freshman in 2006, played in 12 games (1 start) and tallied 27 tackles, 5.5 TFLs, 3 sacks, 1 PD, 1 FF, and 1 FR.

PERSONAL:

- Was rated the No.1 defensive line prospect in Florida while playing at Carol City (FL) HS. As a senior, named first–team all–state with 93 tackles, 15 sacks, 6 FFs, 3 FRs and 3 INTs, while setting the Florida state record for sacks in a game (6.5).
- Won state championships in the shot put and discus as both a junior and senior. Recorded the nation's 3rd–best toss in the shot put with a throw of 65–5 ¾ in 2005.
- Majored in general studies with an emphasis in communication studies and sports studies.
- Born Ricky Jean Francois (11/23/86) in Carol City, FL.

Milestones:

NFL Debut: at Phi. (12/20/09)

One of the NFL's elite long snappers, Brian Jennings has snapped to 8 different placekickers and 4 different punters in his 10 seasons. Jennings size, hands and versatility allow him to play a role as a reserve tight end. A Pro Bowler in 2004, Jennings is also a sure tackler on special teams, having recorded 62 career special teams stops.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of two 7th–round (230th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2000...Signed a five–year contract extension through 2014 on 6/6/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Brian has touched the lives of numerous people as a member of the 49ers, taking part in dozens of speaking engagements and charity events throughout his career. He looks to continue inspiring people once his playing days are over as well. Over the past four years, Brian has been working on his own book. "I believe everyone can find their purpose and live an inspired life. I feel my life has been blessed in so many ways and I want to share it with people. No matter what troubles come your way, you can realize your potential. In my writing, I combine examples throughout history with my own personal story, while using spiritual health and wellness as the vehicle."
- Brian doesn't spend much time relaxing during the offseason. He earned his certification as a yoga instructor in 2008 after taking part in a 200–hour program that lasted five months. With a modern approach, Brian cranks up lively music in the classes he teaches in Scottsdale, AZ. He has plans to open his own yoga studio in the near future.
- Brian believes the sky is the limit when it comes to his knowledge base. "I really see the value of education and continual learning. Every offseason, I try to pursue some kind of intellectual academic project that is measurable. I want to be powerful intellectually." Still undecided on whether to pursue an MBA degree or become a chiropractor once his playing days are over, Brian has been taking classes in both areas at Arizona State and Scottsdale Community College over the past several offseasons. He's also taken part in the NFL's Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at Harvard and Stanford, and has plans to attend the NFL's Broadcast Boot Camp in the near future. "I'm like a sponge when it comes to educating myself. I'm constantly reading the Wall Street Journal and various financial magazines, which has sparked a better understanding of how politics effects the economy and business world."
- An avid golfer during his childhood, Brian picked the sport back up a year ago and has a whole different approach to his game nowadays. "I've been developing my golf game systematically and working to get my handicap down. It starts with the basics – understanding the structure of a golf swing, the different types of shots available, scoring around the green and the keys to managing a successful round." Despite being a 10 handicap during college, Brian has taken lessons recently in hopes of becoming a scratch golfer. He also reads various golf books to help improve his game. One of his favorites is Short Game Bible by David Pelz. Brian believes there is a strong correlation between golfing and his role on the football field. "I would say long snapping and golfing are mentally similar. It's all about practice and having a routine."

A big–bodied wide out with exceptional hands, Brandon Jones was signed by the 49ers during the 2008 offseason after spending his first four years as a member of the Tennessee Titans. Appearing in 8 games in 2009, he was utilized on special teams as a punt returner. In 2006, Jones bounced back to start 10 games as he was named the Ed Block Courage Award winner by his teammates for his commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 3rd–round (96th pick overall) draft choice by Ten. in 2005... Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 2/28/09.

GOLDMINE:

- During the offseason, Brandon and former Oklahoma teammate and current Washington Redskins T Jammal Brown, run their own record label called Dreamkassh. They currently support four artists including their two main artists being A–Mitch and Tweezy. Brown discovered them in his hometown of Lawton, OK, and they have both been listening to their music since they were in college. Their hope is to one day help their artists make it big in the music industry. "It's all we listen to. We wouldn't base it all on our opinion. We base it on our friends and let them listen to it and [he and Jammal] being on different teams and all the players on the team like it." Brandon and Jammal lived in Malibu during the 2010 offseason in order to network with people in the music industry and they've already had some success with their artists writing songs for such artists as Akon, Lady Gaga and Chris Brown. Actor/Singer Jamie Foxx also personally asked his artists to open for him.
- Brandon's love of music hasn't escaped his teammates' attention. Currently, he has over 100 songs by T–Pain on his T–Pain application for his iPhone that allows him to sing just like the recording artist and create his own songs. Whenever he and his fellow wide receivers Josh Morgan and Michael Crabtree are working out, Brandon would have a new song that he made. Thanks to Brandon's talents, Morgan and Crabtree gave him the nickname Batman, after former R&B artist Batman of Immature.
- Brandon grew up in a rough neighborhood in Texarkana, TX, but he credits his mother for making sure that he was raised the right way, calling her "Supermom." If it wasn't for her, Brandon doesn't believe he'd be where he is today. "I just respect her a lot for taking a young kid by herself. I look at it now and if she wasn't so hard on me, I'd be in the same place that I see a lot of other friends right now."
- An all–around athlete, Brandon was drafted by the New York Yankees in the 28th round of the 2001 MLB Draft following his senior year in high school. He decided to accept a football scholarship to Oklahoma instead, but did play for the Sooner baseball team in center field during his freshman and sophomore years. Brandon's most memorable moment in baseball came in his senior year of high school at Liberty Eylau (TX) HS. The team didn't get off to a good start, but worked their way into a tournament against the top three teams in their division, with the winner advancing to the playoffs. In the final game, with the bases loaded in a 6–6 tie, Brandon got a hold of a pitch and hit a game–winning grand slam that sent his team to the postseason.
- Brandon tries to stay active in the community and likes to be involved in a variety of community work. Some of the charities that he is a part of include "Books from Birth" and "Book 'Em" where Brandon reads to children. He also participates in an event in his hometown of Texarkana called "Faith, Love and Hope," which is designed to help kids in rough neighborhoods get out of the house and participate in a football camp and watch a celebrity basketball game.
- After football, Brandon would like to finish his degree in criminology and join the FBI as an agent. He has almost completed his degree and hopes to follow through on a passion that he's had since he was a little kid. "I don't know what inspired it. I guess trying to play the good guy. I just think it would be an interesting job and something that could keep my attention. Criminals aren't going to outwork me, outthink me."

A Bay Area native from Marin County, Travis LaBoy has been a valuable pass rusher coming off the edge throughout his career, totaling 23.5 sacks. He joins his hometown team after spending 2008 with the Arizona Cardinals following a stint with the Tennesse Titans.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 2nd–round (42nd overall) draft choice by Ten. in 2004...Signed as an unrestricted free agent by Arz. on 3/4/08...Released by Arz. on 4/28/09...Signed as a free agent by SF on 4/21/10.

GOLDMINE:

- Started the Travis LaBoy Foundation for Supporting Autistic Causes and Kids (S.A.C.K.), which supports a combination of educational, recreational and physical activities designed to support children with autism and families of children with autism.
- Travis and his older brother, C.J., grew up together, playing football on the same team, but since then, they have joined on the business side of the game. In 2006, C.J. became a sports agent with Octagon Sports and Entertainment and one of his first clients was Travis.
- Life wasn't always the easiest growing up for Travis, especially when he was seven years–old and lived in the family van with his mother and older brother. "It wasn't really that bad. Growing up in Hawaii, we may have been living in a van, but the van's parked in front of probably the most expensive real estate in the country. It wasn't all that bad. I was at an age where I didn't need a whole lot to be happy. I had my brother who was someone to play with. For me, it felt like an extended camping trip. That's how I remember it."
- When Travis' father left at an early age, things became very tough on the family. "We were homeless and living in a van for a little over a year." But regardless of the situation, Travis' mom, Angela, was always there for him. "Going through that and being around someone who is strong like my mom, no matter what the circumstances, she found a way to get done what needed to get done, raising two kids pretty much on her own for a while until she remarried." Travis' stepdad, Art, came into his life and left a lasting impression as well. "My stepdad came into the picture and was a huge influential part of my life especially raising us and taking care of two sons that weren't his and treating us like we were."
- Travis admits that he's quiet and reserved off the field, but as soon as he's strapped up the chinstrap, he becomes another player. His aggressive, outgoing personality on the field has helped him earn another shot in the NFL. "I guess there's two sides to everybody."

- Out of football recovering from a foot injury.

2008 (Arizona):

- Finished t–3rd on the team with 4 sacks, 1 FF and 1 FR.
- Posted 2 sacks, 1 FF and 1 FR at SF (9/7).

The 2006 1st–round draft pick enjoyed his best season in 2009, setting a new single–season career–high with 6.5 sacks. Widely considered one of the finest athletes to ever play at NC State, Lawson made the switch from college defensive end to outside linebacker in his first NFL season.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of two 1st–round (22nd pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- One of Manny's jobs growing up was at Burger King when he attended high school. He worked with his good friends that he ran track with. After hours he and his friends would create their own type of burgers. Another event that they would hold afterhours included the Burger Olympics. The events of the Burger Olympics included the Cheese Stick, seeing who could make slices of cheese stick to the wall. Other events included the Brain Freeze Drink, who could make the best burgers and who looked the most awkward in their Burger King uniform, which unfortunately Manny came out with the gold.
- Manny has a love and passion for architecture. The whole concept of de–signing a home that somebody enjoys and wants to live in is intriguing to him. "It was a class I took as an elective. We just started drawing and I just fell in love with it with the T–squares, triangles and just laying out a nice little house plan. Hopefully, I can work my way back into it." He plans to design his home one day and already has his dream house designed, but admits it's larger than most houses today. "It's huge. It has everything really about the size of a mall, so I'll actually have to shrink it down to scale. It has a bas–ketball court, a game room; it has two floors, an indoor spa, theater, weight room. It has everything."
- When the 49ers drafted Manny, they received a player who not only had ideal physical attributes, but one who also possessed an impressive mental capacity. Manny, whose father was in the Air Force and whose mother was a residential nurse, was taught the values of discipline at an early age. Aca–demics always came first and athletics were just for fun. Anything below a B was not satisfactory to his parents. Fast forward a few years and the early lessons paid off as Manny graduated with a degree in industrial engineering from North Carolina State. He then went on to score a 43 out of 50 on the Wonderlic test, which tied for the highest of his draft class. "For me to play sports, I couldn't make a grade below a B. They were always on me about schooling. They always allowed me to experience other things, skateboard–ing, music and any sport I chose, so I was never pushed to do one thing."
- During the summer, Manny would live with his mother, and his basketball coach became like a second father to him. He looked after his players and was very strict, making sure that his kids were always respectful. "He taught manners, he was strict with manners. Even if we weren't in summer school, we had a book to read. We had a little quiz and then we'd go outside and play basketball. He made us work hard and we actually won several champion–ships underneath him. We could be out there in the hot sun, day in and day out, and we'd get water. If there was a line and a lady were to walk up, the ladies would always go first."

2006: Diet Pepsi Defensive Rookie of the Week (Week 2)
2008: Ed Block Courage Award

2009:

- Led the team with a career–high 6.5 sacks and tied the franchise record for most FFs (4) by a 49ers linebacker in a single season, according to coaches' stats.
- Pressured QB Kurt Warner into throwing an INT to CB Nate Clements at Arz. (9/13).
- Tallied a career–high 11 tackles at Min. (9/27).
- Registered a sack and later forced a fumble that was returned for a TD by DT Ray McDonald in the 4th qtr. vs. StL (10/4).
- Sacked QB Matt Schaub at Hou. (10/25) and QB Vince Young vs. Ten. (11/8).
- With a full sack in 3–straight games [at GB – QB Aaron Rodgers (11/22); vs. Jax. – QB David Garrard (11/29); at Sea. – QB Matt Hasselbeck (12/6)] he became the first 49er to accomplish the feat since DE Andre Carter in 2002.

- Blocked punt in 1st qtr. and tallied 2 special teams tackles at Sea. (9/14).
- Left game at NO (9/28) with a hamstring strain following a kickoff in 3rd qtr.
- Blocked a 35–yd. FG attempt in 3rd qtr., which was returned 74 yds. by CB Nate Clements for a TD at NYG (10/19).
- Posted a career–high 10 tackles vs. Sea. (10/26) to go along with his first sack of season.
- Tallied 5 tackles, 1 sack, 1 FF, 1 FR and 1 PD at Dal. (11/23). The FR occurred on a QB Tony Romo lateral that was intended for RB Tashard Choice, which Lawson broke up and recovered.

- Tallied 9 tackles in season–opening, 20–17, victory vs. Arz. (9/10).
- Placed on Injured Reserve (9/21) after tearing ACL during practice and un–derwent successful surgery (9/26).

2006:

- In first home game vs. StL (9/17), posted 2 sacks in 49ers, 20–13, victory and was voted Week 2 Diet Pepsi NFL Defensive Rookie of the Week.
- Blocked punt early in 3rd qtr. vs. Oak. (10/8), allowing 49ers to start at Raid–ers 9–yd. line, and helped set up QB Alex Smith's 6–yd. TD pass to WR Arnaz Battle. Also deflected pass in 4th qtr., which was then intercepted by CB Walt Harris.
- Recovered a fumble off a QB Brad Johnson sack to help position 49ers for a K Joe Nedney FG in 9–3 victory vs. Min. (11/5).
- Grabbed first career INT at StL (11–26), picking off a QB Marc Bulger pass intended for WR Torry Holt.

- Teamed with DE Mario Williams to form the premier pass rushing tandem in college football as the duo would combine to sack quarterbacks a total of 39 times during their final two years. All–ACC first–team selection by The NFL Draft Report as a senior after registering 58 tackles, 21 pressures, 4 PDs and 10.5 sacks. Ranks 2nd on N.C. State's all–time record list with 7 blocked kicks and 4th with 20.5 sacks. Led nation in 2002 with 3 blocked punts. Competed on Wolfpack track squad in spring of 2003, and in his first meet, won the long jump and the triple jump in the Patriot Games. Also captured 1st place in the Carolina Heels Challenge in the long jump and 2nd in the triple jump. Posted fastest time in 60 meter hurdles (indoors) for N.C. State that season (8.55).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Eastern Wayne HS in Goldsboro, NC, where he was rated as one of the Top 25 players (#21) by Super Prep in the state of North Carolina during his senior year.
- Recorded 54 tackles and 11 sacks on defense, and also rushed for 456 yds. on offense during his final season, picking up Conference Defensive POY honors.
- Competed in four events in track: long jump, triple jump, 55–meter dash, and the 55–meter hurdles.
- Father is a retired member of the Air Force.
- Born Manny Lawson (7/3/84) in Goldsboro, NC.
- Majored in industrial engineering.

Andy Lee has established himself as one of the most productive punters in the NFL since being drafted in the 6th–round of the 2004 NFL Draft. He has earned Pro Bowl honors in two out of the past three seasons ('07, '09). Since 2007, his gross punting avg. (47.5) and his net punting avg. (40.5) both rank 3rd in the NFL.

TRANSACTIONS:
Originally the first of two 6th–round (188th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2004.

GOLDMINE:
- Andy never attended an NFL game growing up in South Carolina. Even when he went on to become a standout punter on the collegiate level at the University of Pittsburgh, he was still a stranger to live NFL action. The first professional game he ever attended was as a player with the 49ers in 2004. In fact, Andy didn't even set out to play football at all. "I was more of a baseball guy growing up. I actually wanted to be a Major League Baseball player. I played quarterback in 8th grade, and the coach asked, 'Who wants to try out for the punting position?' I didn't know you were supposed to spiral a punt, or turn it over, or any of that."
- Andy is considered a 'hometown hero' by his native Westminster, SC. The town mayor, Rusty Cater, presented Andy with a key to the city and a declaration commemorating "Andy Lee Day" on July 12, 2008.

AWARDS & HONORS:
2007: NFC Pro Bowl, AP All–Pro, PFW/PFWA All–NFL Team
2009: NFC Pro Bowl, Second–team AP All–Pro

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- From 2007–09, Lee's 47.5 gross avg. and 40.5 net avg. rank 3rd in the NFL.
- Set an NFL record in 2007 with 42 punts downed inside the 20, and ranked 2nd in the league with a 47.3 gross average and 41.0 net average. His 41.0–yd. net average ranks 6th all–time for a single season in NFL history.
- Enters the 2010 season ranked 1st in team history with a 44.9–yd. career gross avg., while also ranking 1st with 24,896 punt yds.
- Set a team record with his 47.8 gross avg., in 2008.
- Was the first 49ers rookie punter since 1957 to lead the league for the longest punt (81 yds.) of the year, in 2004.

2009:
- Earned Pro Bowl Honors after ranking 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL with a 47.6 gross avg. His 41.0 net avg. ranked 2nd in the NFC and 3rd in the NFL.
- Grossed over a 48.0 avg. in 9 games.
- Punted nine times for 465 yds. (51.7 avg.) at Min. (9/27).
- Grossed a season–high 56.7 avg. and 53.3 net avg. vs. Ten. (11/8).
- Set a career–high and team single–season record with a 47.8 gross avg., breaking his own previous record of 47.3 avg. in 2007.
- Established a career–long 82–yd. punt vs. NE (10/5), which is tied for 2nd–longest in 49ers history with Tommy Davis (82 yds. vs. Min. (9/30/62) and 4 yds. behind a team–record 86–yarder by Larry Barnes vs. Chicago Cardinals (9/29/57).
- In rainy and windy conditions at Buf. (11/30), punted 6 times for 284 yds. (47.3 avg.) with a long of 58 yds. and 3 punts downed inside the 20.

- Earned Pro Bowl and All–Pro honors after setting numerous records on 105 punts (47.3 avg.) with a net average of 41.0 and an NFL record 42 punts downed inside opponents' 20. His yardage, net average and punts downed inside 20–yd. line all set team records.
- His 42 punts downed inside the 20 broke Baltimore's Kyle Richardson's NFL mark of 39 in 1999.
- Ranked 2nd in NFL for gross average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) to Oakland's P Shane Lechler.
- Led NFL with 49 punts over 50+ yds., which was 16 more than 2nd ranked St. Louis' Donnie Jones (33).
- Recorded 4 games in which he dropped 4 punts inside the 20.
- Played key role in 49ers 37–31 overtime victory at Arz. (11/25), booming a 58–yd. punt in OT that wound up pinning Cardinals on their own 3–yd. line. The punt helped set up 49ers winning TD on DT Ronald Fields sack and forced a fumble in the end zone that was recovered by LB Tully Banta–Cain for game–winning score.

- Finished 7th in NFL with 36.8 net yds., while his 44.8 gross average marked team's highest since P Tommy Davis averaged 45.6 in 1964.
- Awarded game ball for his efforts in the 20–14 victory vs. Sea. (11/19) when he landed 2 punts inside the 20 to help the 49ers win the battle of field position.

- Set a career–high with 107 punts (41.6 avg.).
- His 3 touchbacks in 107 punts was 3rd–best ratio of touchbacks–to–punts among punters with 30–or–more kicks, trailing Houston's P Chad Stanley (1–70) and Detroit's P Nick Harris (2–84).
- Ratio of touchbacks–to–punts is best for any 49ers punter since 1970, topping P Joe Prokop (1–40) in 1991.

2004:
- Punted 96 times with 25 dropped inside the 20 and an NFL–long of 81 yds.
- Average of 41.6 yds. per punt was first time a 49ers punter averaged over 40 yds. per punt since P Reggie Roby in 1998.
- Posted 7 punts for 338 yds. (48.3 avg.), including career–long of 81 yds. at TB (11/21).

COLLEGE:

- Was Pittsburgh's starting punter for three seasons after seizing starting role late in true freshman season (2000). His 244 punts and 10,353 yds. are tops in school history. Also had 29 fair catches and 61 kicks downed inside the 20–yd. line. Only player to ever win Big East Conference Special Teams POY honors twice in career. Semi–finalist for Ray Guy Award, given to nation's top punter, and was All–Big East first–team choice.

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at West Oak HS in Westminster, SC, where he was first–team all–state, two–time first–team all–conference and Anderson Independent–Mail all–area selection as four–year starter.
- Averaged 42.8 yds. per punt as senior, while also lining up at TE and WR.
- Lettered three times in baseball and twice in basketball. Two–time all–conference honoree and received all–state honors in baseball as a senior. Standout pitcher, helping West Oak to district championship and baseball state playoffs with 8–2 record as senior. Went 5–0 with a 1.90 ERA as junior.
- Married to wife, Rachel, and the couple has a son, Ryan.
- Born Andrew Paul Lee (8/11/82) in Westminster, SC.

As one of the league's most physical defensive backs, Michael Lewis has ranked among the team's leading tacklers annually after being signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Philadelphia Eagles in 2007. Lewis earned Pro Bowl honors following the 2004 season when he played a key role in helping the Eagles capture the NFC Championship. He played in four NFC Championship games and one Super Bowl during his five seasons in Philadelphia.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 2nd–round (58th pick overall) draft choice by Phi. in 2002... Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Phi. on 3/2/07.

GOLDMINE:

- Having been diagnosed with the heart condition atrial fibrillation in college, Michael has gone on to serve as a spokesperson for the American Heart Association. Atrial fibrillation is a disorder found in about 2.2 million Americans in which the heart's two small upper chambers, the atria, quiver instead of beating effectively. "I want people to know that heart disease is something that can be treated. You can live a normal life and do everything you dream of." Michael participated in San Jose's 2008, 2009 & 2010 National Start! Walking Day, which promotes walking, a healthier lifestyle and the prevention of heart disease.
- Michael grew up as a 49ers fan in Houston, Texas, and idolized Ronnie Lott and Merton Hanks. He spends invaluable time watching others play the safety position. His favorites include John Lynch and Lawyer Milloy.
- During the week of Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville, Michael won the annual EA Sports Madden Bowl competition. The tournament featured eight NFL players and Michael claimed the top spot by defeating Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger, Colts DE Dwight Freeney (the two–time defending champion) and Bills RB Willis McGahee.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2002: Pro Football Weekly All–Rookie Team
2004: NFC Pro Bowl, Pro Football Weekly All–NFC, Football Digest All–Pro

2009 (San Francisco):

- Led the team with 13 tackles vs. StL (10/4).
- Recorded the game–winning INT as time expired, picking off a QB Jay Cutler pass vs. Chi. (11/12).
- Posted 15 tackles including a career–high 14 solo, at GB (11/22).
- Sacked QB Matt Hasselbeck at Sea. (12/6).

2008 (San Francisco):

- Posted a sack late in 4th qtr. at Sea. (9/14) that forced the Seahawks to punt and helped set up a potential game–winning FG. Also recovered a fumble in 2nd qtr. deep in 49ers territory to prevent a Seahawks score.
- Tallied 9 tackles, 2 PDs and 1 FF at NO (9/28). On 4th–and–1 late in 4th qtr., Lewis forced a fumble by Saints FB Olaniyi Sobomehin just before he crossed the goal–line that was recovered by 49ers at 3–yd. line.
- Had season–high 13 tackles at StL (12/21) in 17–16 victory.
- Left game in 2nd qtr. vs. Was. (12/28) with knee injury.

backs and ranked 2nd on the team with 139 tackles.

- Tallied 15 tackles vs. Bal. (10/7).
- Awarded game ball after posting a season–high 16 tackles to go along with 1 sack and 1 FF at Arz. (11/25) in a 37–31 OT win. Sacked QB Kurt Warner for an 8–yd. loss in 3rd qtr., forcing the fumble.
- Recorded 11 tackles, 1 INT and 2 PD at Car. (12/2).

2006 (Philadelphia):

- Notched 1 sack and 1 FF, while recording a team–high 15 tackles at SF (9/24).
- Intercepted a deflected pass from QB Jason Campbell and returned it 84 yds. for his first career TD at Was. (12/10).

2005 (Philadelphia):

- Finished season with a career–high 141 total tackles, which ranked 2nd on the team. Named to The Sporting News "Top 100 NFL Players" list in 2005.
- Hauled in crucial INT off QB Eli Manning in 4th qtr. and logged a season–high 15 tackles vs. NYG (12/11).
- Recorded 1 sack of QB Michael Vick along with 1 FF, 1 FR and 8 tackles at Atl. (9/12).

2004 (Philadelphia):

- Named a Pro Bowl starter after leading team in total tackles (129), while also earning 2nd–team All–Pro by Football Digest and All–NFC by Pro Football Weekly.
- Posted a career–high 17 tackles vs. Car. (10/17).

2003 (Philadelphia):

- Named to Howie Long's "Tough Guys Team" in 2003.
- All three of his INTs in 2003 came late in 4th qtr. of Eagles victories. His INT off QB Chad Pennington vs. NYJ (10/26) led to the game–winning TD, while his INT off QB Jay Fielder at Mia. (12/15) occurred with under 4:00 remaining and with a 7–point Eagles lead.
- Blocked a 45–yd. FG attempt by PK John Carney that would have pulled Saints within a TD late in 3rd qtr. vs. NO (11/23).

2002 (Philadelphia):

- Made Pro Football Weekly's All–Rookie Team as a special teamer after finishing 2nd on team with 20 tackles in 14 games played.
- Started final 4 regular season games of 2002 for an injured S Blaine Bishop (groin).
- Made first career start at Sea. (12/8) and led all defenders with 12 tackles.
- Recorded his first career INT at NYG (12/28) as he snared a pass by QB Kerry Collins that ricocheted off of TE Jeremy Shockey in the end zone to prevent a Giants score.

A mainstay at strong safety since his freshman year at Colorado, closed out his career ranked 9th on school's all–time list with 336 tackles (2nd–best among DBs), 2nd in FFs (10) and tied for 12th with 9 INTs. Twice won school's Dave Jones Award for most outstanding defensive player and the Hale Irwin Award for most outstanding defensive back in his junior and senior seasons. As a senior, was a unanimous All–Big 12 Conference first–team choice and a semi–finalist for the Thorpe Award, given to nation's top defensive back as he led squad with 112 tackles and 5 INTs, one which he returned for a TD.

PERSONAL:

- Was district MVP as a junior and senior while attending Lamar Consolidated HS in Rosenberg, TX, where he played defensive back, quarterback and running back. Also lettered in basketball and track.
- Brother, Rodney Williams, played basketball at Texas Lutheran and is now a lawyer.
- Born Michael Milton Lewis (4/29/80) in Houston, TX. He and his wife, Amaris, a former track star at Colorado, reside in Richmond, TX with daughters Morgan Naomi and Natalie Ann.
- Graduated with a degree in communications.

A 3rd–round pick in 2007, Ray McDonald has seen extensive action over the last three seasons, playing in 40 games (9 starts). Known for his instincts and quickness off the line, McDonald set a career high with 3 sacks in 2009.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of two 3rd–round (97th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007.

GOLDMINE:

- Ray comes from an athletic family as his father, Ray Sr., played wide receiver for the Florida Gators in the mid–80s and was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated (Nov. 11, 1985) after catching both scores in a 14–10 victory at Auburn in 1985. Ray was 1–year old at the time. Ray's grandfather played running back at Bethune Cookman and his uncle was a cornerback at UCF. Ray didn't have strong aspirations of going professional in football until late in high school, when his father began to prepare him for the pro game. "[Ray Sr.] didn't really push me into playing football when I was growing up, but I told him I really wanted to take off with football. So he dedicated his whole year to me, working out. He bought me some strength shoes, he trained me every day. That was my starting point."
- Ray has had his share of success growing up playing football. While in high school, he won a state championship four years in a row, a national title at Florida, but still strives to achieve the ultimate prize of an NFL championship. "I have individual goals, but it all comes down to winning. I come from a winning tradition. All I'm missing out on is an NFL Championship."
- Since the 2008 offseason, Ray looked for other ways to improve himself as a pass rusher. Ray has been boxing with the 49ers training staff in order to help himself on the field by adding more moves to his pass rushing repertoire. "It's something that I can add to my tray with hand–eye coordination. It helps with my endurance and my hand placement and I have enough force to knock someone off balance."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Recorded his first career fumble return for a TD after a FF by LB Manny Lawson in the 4th qtr. vs. StL (10/4/09).

2009:

- Posted a career–high 3 sacks.
- Sacked QB Kurt Warner at Arz. (9/13) in his first game back after undergoing offseason knee surgery.
- Registered sacks in back–to–back games for the first time in his career by dropping QB Matt Hasselbeck vs. Sea. (9/20).
- Blocked a 44–yd. FG att. by K Ryan Longwell that was returned by CB Nate Clements 59 yds. for a TD at the end of the 2nd qtr. at Min. (9/27), putting the 49ers ahead 14–13 at the half. It marked his 2nd career blocked FG.
- Recorded his first career fumble return for a TD after a FF by LB Manny Lawson in the 4th qtr. vs. StL (10/4).

- Ranked 2nd on team with 37 QB pressures.
- Started first career game vs. Arz. (9/7), tallying 6 tackles.
- Tipped a pass that was intercepted by CB Walt Harris at Sea. (9/14). The play occurred at Seattle's 41–yd. line and led to a 49ers TD to give team a 27–20 lead in 3rd qtr.
- Blocked a 54–yd. FG attempt vs. Phi. (10/12) and CB Donald Strickland scooped ball up and raced 41 yds. for a TD.
- Left game in 2nd qtr. at NYG (10/19) with a sprained knee.

2007:

- Played in first career game vs. Bal. (10/7) and tallied 3 tackles.
- Totaled 2 tackles and his first career sack vs. TB (12/23, QB Jeff Garcia).

COLLEGE:

Saw action in 46 games (36 starts) at Florida and collected 137 tackles, 11 sacks, 2 FFs, 1 FR and 1 blocked kick. Became first defensive lineman to start 12 games in a season (2003) as a freshman and was only fourth defensive lineman in school history to start as a freshman in season opener. Earned All–SEC first–team honors from league's coaches as a senior after starting every game and recording 36 tackles, 3 sacks, 1 blocked kick and 1 FR returned for a TD as he split time between defensive end and tackle. SEC All–Freshman Team selection by The Sporting News after starting 12 of 13 games at defensive tackle and posting 54 tackles. Redshirted as a true freshman in 2002.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Glades Central HS in Belle Glade, FL, where he earned All–American honors and was named Palm Beach County Defensive Player of the Year in 2001 as he recorded 132 tackles and 24 sacks as a senior.
- Helped team to Class 3A state championship as a junior and started final 3 seasons at defensive tackle.
- His parents, Ray Sr. and Labrina, own an insurance agency. Ray Sr. played WR at the University of Florida.
- Ray recently took an interest in learning the guitar after listening to a song by blues musician Otis Taylor.
- Born Raymondo Antoine McDonald (9/2/84) in Pahokee, FL.

Scott McKillop made his presence felt on special teams as a rookie, leading the team with 31 special teams tackles, while also providing depth at inside linebacker. The two–time Big East defensive Player of the Year was a two–time All–America selection at Pitt.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two 5th–round (146th overall) draft choices by SF in 2009.

GOLDMINE:

- Scott gives a lot of credit to his mother for everything she sacrificed for her boys. Scott, along with his two older brothers, all played Division I sports, and their mom was there for everything. "I have to give a lot of credit to my mother. She has dedicated her entire life to raising three boys, who all three have degrees." Scott's oldest brother, Robert, was a heavyweight wrestler at Slippery Rock while his other brother, Chris, started at DE for Pittsburgh. Scott was able to follow in both their paths. In high school, Scott was a standout wrestler and finished his senior season as the state runner–up (215–pound division) with a 38–1 record (109–10 career record).
- Although he is only entering his second season in the NFL, Scott has a good idea of what he wants to do when his career is over. "I would love to be a teacher and coach back home in western Pennsyvania. Ideally, I would love to be a defensive coordinator because I feel that I could prepare my players with what they need to succeed at the next level." And to help make this dream a reality, Scott is planning to pursue a Masters in teaching next offseason.
- Led the team with 31 special teams tackles.
- Posted 3 special teams tackles in his first NFL game at Arz. (9/13).
- Tallied a career–high 5 special teams tackles vs. Sea. (9/20).
- Recovered a fumble on a muffed punt by CB Quincy Butler in the endzone for his first career TD vs. StL (10/4).
- Made his debut on defense, registering 3 tackles at Hou. (10/25).

COLLEGE:

Was twice honored as the Big East Defensive POY in 2007 & 2008. The two–time All–America and All–Big East selection finished his four–year Panthers career with 345 tackles (211 solos), 28.5 TFLs, and 8 sacks. In 48 career games (25 starts), also posted 13 PDs, 3 FRs, 2 FFs and 3 INTs, one of which he returned for a TD. A 2008 semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, given annually to the country's best defensive player, led the Big East in tackles (137), ranking 10th in the nation. After becoming a starter in 2007, led the nation in tackles (151), a total that ranked 4th on the school's all–time single–season list. Redshirted as a freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Played LB and FB at Kiski Area HS in Vandergrift, PA, finishing his career with 332 tackles. Led team to three consecutive playoff berths while rushing for 1,121 yds. and 14 TDs over his final two seasons.
- Also advanced to the track & field championships in the shotput and discus.
- Graduated with a degree in Business/Marketing
- Interned in the special events department of the Pittsburgh Pirates.
- Born Scott Kenneth McKillop (3/4/86) in Pittsburgh, PA.

Brit Miller was promoted from the practice squad in 2009, and brought his gritty, hard-nosed work ethic to the 49ers special teams unit. A former standout linebacker at the collegiate level, Miller showed his athletic versatility by making the transition to fullback in the NFL during the 2009 training camp.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed as a rookie free agent by Car. on 5/1/09...Waived by Car. on 6/30/09...Claimed off waivers by SF on 7/7/09...Waived by SF on 9/3/09... Signed to practice squad by SF on 9/4/09...Signed to active roster by SF on 12/1/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Named the recipient of the 2009 Thomas Herrion Award, which was established in 2005 by 49ers owners Denise and John York and is presented to a rookie or first-year player who best represents the dream of Thomas Herrion. The recipient has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive situation and made their dream turn into a reality. While Brit wasn't expecting it, he still was honored to receive it as recognition for all the hard work he put in. "It was awesome to have coaches recognize you for the work you put in. I had to sway all these people so they thought that I deserved it. To be the guy that came away with the award felt pretty good."
- Brit was never the fastest or the biggest athlete in whatever he competed in, but he attributes his blue collar mentality to his lifelong coach, his dad, Randy. "He taught me how to win and persevere. A lot of times I know if I keep wearing somebody down, they are going to give in. It's held true and true forever. I've always been the underdog. There's always more negative than positive until we start playing." When Brit attended Eisenhower High School, the team went 1-8 his first year on the team. The chip on his shoulder served him well as the team went to the state playoffs in his senior year. "We had a nasty team. We came from a rougher area and nobody messed with us and they knew that we meant business."
- Brit is one of 30 grandchildren from 15 aunts and uncles. The majority of his family are either teachers, pipe fitters or beauticians. Brit followed the academic route, majoring in history at Illinois with his passion being the Civil War. At the University of Illinois, he had a professor named Bruce Levine that sparked his interest. "I enjoy it. I think [the Civil War] was something that really shaped our country, the lasting effects that we see, and if something happened differently, we might not be where we are today."
- From a young age, Brit would work for what he wanted, selling his brother's Easter candy when he was five years old. At 16, he started his own lawn mowing business, where he would maintain up to 30 lawns at one time with his best friend, Courtney. Brit admits that he's always been more of an outdoorsman. "That's the kind of stuff I enjoy. If you put me in a class room all day, I'll go crazy, but if I can be outside doing things, then I'll be fine."
- Brit was born and raised in Decatur, IL, and sometimes he doesn't realize how much he talks about his beloved city, noted on Discovery Channel as the most haunted city in the US. He still hasn't been able to experience any of the haunted tourist attractions in Decatur because of football, but vows to go back and try them all out when his football career is over. "It's an old mob town. It's been around for a long time. They have some crazy cemeteries. Growing up you knew around Halloween time, the place gets crazy. They have haunted Decatur books, Haunted Decatur bus rides, things like that."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2009: Thomas Herrion Award

2009:

- Spent the first 12 weeks of the season on the practice squad before being elevated to active roster, serving as a contributor on special teams.

COLLEGE:

Played in 28 games over 4 seasons for Illinois, totaling 283 tackles, including 33 for a loss. A Ronnie Lott Award Semifinalist, earned first-team All-Big Ten honors by the media and second-team by the coaches as a senior. Led the Big Ten and was 5th in the NCAA with 11.0 tackles per game.

PERSONAL:

- Earned academic all-conference scholar-athlete all four years and earned academic all-state honors his senior year at Eisenhower HS in Decatur, IL.
- Was a member of the National Honor Society.
- Born Brit William Miller (9/15/86) in Decatur, IL.

Special Teams Tackles – 6: 2009 (6)

Milestones:

NFL Debut: at Sea. (12/6/09)

A defensive tackle in college, Khalif Mitchell will compete for a spot at nose tackle with the 49ers. He served two separate stints on the team's practice squad in 2009 as both an offensive and defensive lineman.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed as a rookie free agent on 4/30/09 by SF...Waived on 9/3/09...Signed to practice squad by SF on 9/6/09...Terminated from practice squad by SF on 10/7/09...Re-signed to the practice squad by SF on 10/13/09...Signed by SF to a reserve/future contract on 1/6/10.

GOLDMINE:

- As a rookie, Khalif was put to the test by head coach Mike Singletary who had him commit to running extra every day during the season. "He wanted me to grow up and try to grow every day. He wanted me to know that nothing was ever going to be given to me and that I had to work for it. Every day now I just do something more than what is required. At first you don't understand. It's like when your parents tell you to do something and you don't understand why. You just have to listen to them and trust."
- One day as a senior at ECU, Khalif sat down at the piano in his dormitory and started trying to play. A fellow student later taught him a song and since that time he has been teaching himself. "I love music. Everything I play is pretty much original and is classical or theater music." His favorite composer is Chopin.
- Khalif's mother, Denise Mitchell, picked up and moved the family from Jersey City, NJ, when Khalif was 11 years old. She wanted to get her family away from the negative aspects of the big city, namely crime and drugs. Without even a job lined up Denise packed the Ryder moving truck that she had sold her own car to purchase and headed to Virginia Beach, VA, with Khalif. A self-proclaimed "Momma's Boy," Khalif is extremely proud of his mother for what she accomplished.

- Spent the majority of the season on the 49ers practice squad.

COLLEGE:

Spent his first two college seasons at North Carolina, totaling 28 tackles as a part-time starter before transferring to East Carolina. After sitting out the 2006 season, played in 11 games (6 starts) and earned honorable mention All-Conference USA, recording 19 tackles, 5.5 TFLs and 2 sacks. As a senior, posted 16 tackles, 3 TFLs and 1 sack in 7 games (4 starts).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Hargrave Military Academy in Chatham, VA, and helped lead the team to an 8-1 record.
- Started at DE and TE at First Colonial (VA) HS, playing football for just two seasons after moving to Virginia from New Jersey. Also lettered in track, competing in the shot put and discus.
- Is of Jamaican descent and grew up playing soccer. He still plays soccer in the offseason to help with his agility.
- His mom, Denise, works for Sprint in Virginia Beach and his father, Dalton Bramwell, is a public defender in the state court of New Jersey.
- Has a daughter, Khalia Madison, born 11/23/09.
- Born Khalif Quadree Mitchell (4/7/85) in Virginia Beach, VA.
- Majored in communications and broadcast journalism. He plans to complete his degree and would someday like to take a crack at being a news anchor.

Josh Morgan continued to display his playmaking abilities throughout the 2009 season, following up on a productive rookie campaign in 2008. Morgan not only continued to improve at the wide receiver position, developing into one of the better blocking WRs in the league, but also showed his versatility on special teams.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 6th–round (174th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Josh is a writer in the truest sense of the word, dedicating a lot of his time as a youth to writing poems. One of the ways he would avoid finding trouble in the tough streets of Washington D.C. was to not leave his house much. "I would get tired of hearing the gunshots and police sirens. That's why I started writing stories and poetry. I write about how I grew up, situations that I've been through, people I've known in my life." His writing courses were his most enjoyable at Virginia Tech. Josh eventually wants to write books, including a poetry book and an autobiography.
- Josh credits his godparents Patrick Gaither, who was his AAU basketball coach, and Sonja Strickland–Gaither as having the biggest influence on him growing up. "I met them when I was 16 and they've been everything to me. I definitely wouldn't be where I am now without them. They showed me the better aspects of life, including spirituality." In October of 2009, Josh was crushed by the news that Sonja was diagnosed with breast cancer. On his bicep, Josh has a tattoo of a breast cancer ribbon with angel wings coming out of it. On the ribbon it has Sonja's name and the date of her diagnosis. Josh is looking forward to completing the tattoo with an inscription of another date – that which Sonja beat cancer.
- This past offseason, Josh and teammate Dominique Zeigler participated in an internship with Comcast SportsNet Bay Area. The two, who would drive up to station headquarters once a week over a two–month period, had a different role each time. "It was a great learning experience because they showed us all the different parts of their operation. We would work with a producer one day, then the next week we would serve as stage managers. We also got an opportunity to break down highlights and edit, as well as do some on–air stuff. It's definitely a field that I could picture myself in down the line."
- When Josh was drafted by the 49ers in 2008, he became a teammate of one of his biggest rivals – Vernon Davis. Josh attended HD Woodson High School, while Vernon was located at nearby rival Dunbar High School. The two kept the rivalry alive in college as Josh lettered at Virginia Tech and Vernon at Maryland. "Vernon grew up right down the street from me and I got to know him pretty well. There has been a friendly competition between he and I for a long time. I like to claim that I've been beating him my whole life. We beat him in the Championship Game in high school and then we beat him twice when I was at Virginia Tech."
- One event that had a lasting impact on Josh was when he and his Virginia Tech teammates were hit hard emotionally after a gunman went on a campus shooting spree in April 2007. Josh was in the building next door to where the shots first rang out, and raced to safety in his apartment across the street. "It was a real devastating time," he said. "It was kind of surreal. You didn't really expect anything like that to happen. It was a normal day. Everything was going fine."
- When Josh's playing career is done, he definitely sees himself moving to the arts – particularly writing and acting. "I want to write books, do a little acting. I used to act in school and took an acting class in college. I was in some school plays in middle school and high school."

2009:

- Set career highs in recepts. (52), rec. yds. (527), and tied his career high in TDs (3).
- His isolating blocks were essential in helping RB Frank Gore's career rushing day in which Gore set two career–long rushes (79, 80 yds.) vs. Sea. (9/20).
- Set a new career long with a 61–yd. reception from QB Shaun Hill in the 1st qtr. vs. Atl. (10/11).
- Saw action as a kick returner for the first time in his career at GB (11/22), registering the team's longest kickoff return of the season (76–yds.) that helped set up a TD pass by QB Alex Smith.
- Recorded his 2nd TD of the season, hooking up with Smith on a 22–yd. strike at Sea. (12/6). Also had 1 carry for 20 yds., the longest rush of his career.
- Recorded a career–high 183 all–purpose yds. at Phi. (12/20). Set a career high with 7 recepts. (61 yds. and 1 TD) and totaled 122 kickoff return yds., including a long of 52 yds.

2008:

- All 3 of his receiving TDs came from over 30 yds.
- Posted first career catch at Sea. (9/14) for an 8–yd. gain.
- Led team with 5 catches for 86 yds. and 1 TD at NYG (10/19). Caught his first NFL TD in 2nd qtr. on a 30–yd. pass from QB J.T. O'Sullivan.
- Started first career game vs. Sea. (10/26).
- Caught game–winning TD between two defenders at StL (12/21) on a 48–yd. pass from Hill with 1:31 left in 4th qtr.

COLLEGE:

Started 24 of 51 games at Virginia Tech and closed out his college career ranking 2nd in school history with 122 recepts., 4th with 1,817 yds (14.9 avg) and 4th with 16 TDs. Gained 148 yds. on 14 punt returns (10.6 avg) and 450 yards on 26 kickoff returns (17.3 avg), scoring 98 points. Finished career with 2,435 all–purpose yds. Started 11 games as a senior, leading team with a career–high 46 catches for 552 yds. (12.0 avg) with 5 TDs.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Howard D. Woodson HS in Washington, DC, and earned All–DCIAA honors as a senior.
- Made 8 catches for 275 yds. and 3 TDs in a game vs. Glen Mills HS, along with 4 sacks and a blocked punt.
- Spent 2003 fall semester at Fork Union Military Academy, catching 33 passes for 845 yds. with 8 TDs. Also blocked 4 punts and posted 1 punt return for a TD.
- Also excelled in basketball, earning MVP honors in two tournaments.
- Born Joshua Lewis Morgan (6/20/85) in Washington, DC.

As one of the NFL's most accurate kickers, Joe Nedney has provided the 49ers with a reliable weapon over the past 4 seasons. The San Jose native and 14–year veteran has connected on 118/136 (86.8 pct.) FGs since coming to San Francisco, making him the 2nd–most accurate NFL kicker in that span. He ranks 1st in team history with an 86.8 FG pct., while his 1,063 career pts. rank 38th all–time in NFL history.

GOLDMINE:

- Having purchased a home in the Santa Cruz Mountains in 2005, Joe and his wife have spent the past several offseasons making the house more environmentally friendly. "Year by year, we've been tackling different parts of the home and finding various ways to 'go green.' We put photovoltaic solar panels on our roof, installed a tankless water heater and replaced several of our old appliances with more energy efficient ones. We also have been harvesting rain water for our irrigation needs on the property. We're not only being environmentally friendly, but we're also cutting down on our energy consumption, which ultimately gives you a smaller bill." The Nedney's project this past offseason included adding a game room and remodeling the master bathroom. The fields of landscape architecture and "green" construction are ones that Joe can see himself working in once his playing career comes to an end.
- Joe holds the distinct honor of having been a member of the 53–man roster for the most NFL teams (8) of any active player. While some might view that as a negative, Joe believes it has only made him stronger. "The adversity I experienced early in my career really taught me how fragile the NFL existence can be. You're on top of the world one minute, and the next minute you're done. Having been cut so many times, it taught me the work ethic needed to succeed. Looking back, I wouldn't change a thing. It has made me really appreciate being a member of the NFL." Joe has shown that perseverance truly pays off as he ranks second among all NFL kickers in field goal percentage (86.8) since joining the 49ers in 2005.
- While playing for the Arizona Cardinals, Joe got a tattoo that every player strives for. "A local tattoo artist in Flagstaff put his artwork up for a silent auction item," Nedney said. "Whoever was the highest bidder got the artwork they wanted on their body." All of the proceeds went to a charity that supports Northern Arizona youth football. Joe made the winning bid and decided to permanently align himself with the NFL logo. "I brought the logo in and the artist put his own little flair into it. I figured I would get the NFL logo and not the team logo because if I put the team logo I would probably have about 9 logos on my leg. I figured that would be a safe bet," Nedney joked.
- Joe was a huge 49ers fan growing up in San Jose. His parents, who have been attending games for as long as Joe can remember, have been tailgating with the same group of people for over 30 years. "It's really cool to grow up in a 49er family and then be able to play in front of all those same people that I used to go to games with. Not many athletes get the opportunity to play for their favorite childhood team." Joe recalls the first 49ers player he ever met, which ironically was a kicker. "The first 49ers player that I met was Ray Wersching. My family and I were dining at a restaurant and my dad recognized him from across the room. We eventually talked to him for a bit and I got his autograph. Fast forward a couple of decades later when I was in my first year with the 49ers, I found myself standing alongside Ray conducting a chalk talk session for some fans. It was very surreal."
- When Joe started his NFL career in 1995, he was three semesters shy of obtaining a degree from San Jose State. Over the next three offseasons, Joe not only took the necessary classes to obtain his degree, but he also served an internship for the team he was playing for at the time, the Arizona Cardinals. "I interned in the team's community relations department during the 1998 offseason while I was finishing up my classes. It was an invaluable experience for me because I got to see both sides of the organization. As a player you don't really get to see how things operate upstairs versus downstairs. To be able to wear both hats and deal with the corporate side of the team and then throw on my jersey and head out to practice, not many guys get to experience that."
- As Joe begins to think about what he might want to pursue after his days in the NFL are over, two things remain constant – he's going to love what he's doing and it's going to be local. "I know whatever I'll be doing, I'll love to do it. Whatever it is, it'll be local and rewarding and I'll look forward to doing it every day."

A tough, hard–nosed fullback, Moran Norris is utilized as a blocker, receiver and occasional ball carrier. During the 2009 season, Norris played an essential role in helping RB Frank Gore reach a franchise record with his 4th consecutive 1,000–yard rushing season. He returned to the team in 2009 after serving as the 49ers starting fullback from 2006–07, where he helped block for Gore en route to a Pro Bowl season with an NFC–leading and team–record 1,695 rus. yds. in 2006.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 4th–round (115th pick overall) draft choice by NO in 2001… Waived by NO on 9/17/02…Claimed off waivers by Hou. from NO on 9/18/02…Waived by Hou. on 5/4/06…Signed by SF as a free agent on 5/23/06...Waived by SF on 8/31/08...Signed by Det. on 10/9/08..Waived by Det. on 10/12/08...Signed by Det. on 10/13/08...Signed as an unrestricted free agent by SF on 3/2/09.

GOLDMINE:

- When he's not paving the way for Frank Gore to run, Moran can be found working within his community. In 2005, Moran founded the Moran Norris Foundation, seeking to help Houston–area students become champions in athletics, character and education. In San Francisco, Moran "adopted" a group of students in the Brother2Brother/Sister2Sister Mentoring Program as part of his Foundation's initiatives. Moran has hosted the youngsters at 49ers games, provided them with financial support and taught them the importance of life skills, education, goal setting, hard work and good character. "When I was growing up I remember this football player came, and he used to come and just talk to the kids, and I still remember that day. I felt if I ever had a chance to go back like that, I would do the same thing."
- Through his foundation, Moran has donated $10,000 to children through his Shopping for Good Character program. His foundation recognizes children in the Houston Public School District for making strides in the classroom. "Too many programs focus on the "A" students. I wanted to reward the kids who keep working hard and fight to make strides on a consistent basis."
- You wouldn't know it by looking at Moran now, but he was once a chubby little kid. That all changed during his freshman year in high school when his dad, Graston, made a purchase at a neighborhood gym that was closing down. Graston brought home all kinds of weights and benches for Moran and his brother, Graston, to use. Moran's father build a shed in the backyard that turned into a make–shift gym for he and his neighbors. That's where Moran developed his love for working out.
- When Moran was old enough to have a part–time job, he was not afraid of hard work. Through the years, he worked at Six Flags Amusement Park, Kroger's Supermarket and Walgreens. "I was a sack boy (a grocery bagger) and I made good money off of tips. My trick to get tips was once I had packed the bags, to start walking outside with them to the people's cars. Once I started they'd feel bad stopping me. I got some good tips."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2009: Selected to USA Football/NFLPA "All–Fundamentals" Team, which honors the NFL's most fundamentally–sound players who also commit themselves to service in their communities.

2009 (San Francisco):

- Set career highs in rus. atts. (14) and rus. yds. (41), while recording a career–high 7 recepts.
- Rushed for a career–high 16 yds. vs. Sea. (9/20), while also tying his career–high of 3 recepts. Led the way for Gore, helping him set career–long runs twice in the same day on the way to a 207–yd. rushing performance.
- Registered a career–high 3 rus. atts., including converting two 3rd–n–1s, at Ind. (11/1).
- Scored his first career rus. TD and tied his career high with 3 carries at StL (1/3).

2008 (Detroit):

- Saw action in 11 games with 8 starts for Lions after being signed on 10/9.

2007 (San Francisco):

- At NYG (10/21), blocked a punt that went out of the back of the endzone in 3rd qtr., resulting in a safety.

2006 (San Francisco):

- Finished season with a career–high 2 TD recepts. Inactive for first 2 games of season when coaching staff elected to use Chris Hetherington at FB.
- Played a pivotal role as lead blocker for RB Frank Gore, who behind Norris' crushing blocks, went on to set a franchise record for rushing yds. and lead NFC with 1,695 yds.
- Made first start of the season at FB vs. SD (10/15) and caught a 2–yd. TD recept., the second of his career.
- Posted a career–long 32–yd. TD recept. in season finale 26–23 win at Den. (12/31).

2005 (Houston):

- Paved the way for a Texans ground attack that gained 1,816 yds. Tallied 12 tackles and 1 FF on special teams, and caught 1 pass for a 4–yd. TD at Cin. (10/2).

2004 (Houston):

- Played in 12 games with 4 starts and helped RB Dominic Davis set team records with 1,188 rushing yds. and 13 rushing TDs.

2003 (Houston):

- Played in all 16 games with 9 starts, finishing season with 7 catches for 40 yds. and 8 special teams tackles.
- Made first NFL start at fullback at NO (9/14).
- Caught first career pass in win vs. Jac. (9/28), finishing with 3 recepts. for 16 yds.

2002 (New Orleans/Houston):

- Played in 13 games, mainly on special teams, recording 6 special teams stops.

2001 (New Orleans):

- Played in 5 games for New Orleans, primarily on special teams, and recorded 2 special teams tackles.

COLLEGE:

Rushed for 864 career yds. on 199 carries (4.3 avg.) with 10 TDs, adding 17 recepts. for 87 yds. with 1 score. Rushed for 313 yds. and 2 TDs as a senior, earning third–team All–Big 12 honors. Rushed for career–high 537 yds. and 8 scores as a junior, splitting time between fullback and tailback. Arrived in Lawrence as a tight end, but moved to the backfield.

PERSONAL:

- Moran and wife, Tamara, live in Houston with daughter, London. Tamara graduated from Texas A&M and earned her Masters in accounting from there.
- All–city and all–district selection as a senior at James Madison HS in Houston, TX,, where he caught 25 passes for 410 yds. as a TE and also played LB.
- Ran track at Madison HS, competing in the 4x100, the 100 and the mile relay.
- Moran's closest friend on the team is RB Frank Gore, who he looks at as a little brother he can clear the way for and protect. He takes great pride in the success that Frank has had.
- Moran feels that he is the best pool player on the team. At his home he has a customized pool table complete with a cover that says "Welcome to Moran's World."
- Older brother, Gaston, lettered 4 seasons as a running back at Iowa State.
- His father, Graston, was born in Centerville, TX, and owned his own plastics company. His mother, Myrtle, works in jewelry sales. His brother, Graston, works in Dallas for Nestle.
- Born Torrance Moran Norris (6/16/78) in Houston, TX, and grew up in the Hiram Clark area of Houston.
- Was a member of the Kansas Jayhawks Scholar List. Graduated with dual degrees in communications and crime and delinquency.

Signed off the Chiefs practice squad on 10/28/09, Chris Patrick's acquisition provided depth to the 49ers offensive line. Patrick returned to the 49ers after being with team during the 2008 preseason. He spent time on Detroit's and Philadelphia's practice squads before being activated to the Eagles 53–man roster for the final 4 regular season games and 3 playoff games in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Whenever Chris needs a little rest and relaxation, he has a special place that he can go. Back in the late 1950's, Chris' grandfather purchased an 80–acre piece of land in a remote area of central Michigan. "It's a great place to spend time with friends and family. The property has a good size lake that is surrounded by pine trees. We like to ice fish during the winter months and then we'll take the boat out on the lake during the summer." Chris will spend up to a week at a time at the property, staying in a small cabin his uncle built. While the cabin doesn't have running water, it does have electricity. "It's an old rustic cabin and it kind of feels like you're living in the early 1900's."
- One of Chris' biggest influences throughout his childhood was his older brother, Joe, who played guard at Michigan State from 1999 to 2003. "With Joe being 4 ½ years older than me, I really looked up to him. He was an all around athlete and played all the sports. When I saw how cool it was that he played college football, I wanted to follow in his footsteps. He taught me the proper way to workout and how to play with speed and strength." Joe currently serves as an offensive line coach for a high school in Minnesota.
- Armed with a degree in criminal justice from Nebraska, Chris has aspirations to work in law enforcement down the road. "Law enforcement is always something that has interested me. As a little kid, I always watched the show "Cops." I can seriously see myself becoming a police officer or working for the FBI or as a US Marshall."

2009 (San Francisco):

- Played in 3 games after being signed from KC practice squad.

2008 (Philadelphia):

- Signed to Phi. practice squad before being signed to 53–man roster on 12/2/08, where he spent the remainder of the season.

COLLEGE:

Three–year letterman at Nebraska and played in 18 career games, including 14 starts. Started at left tackle during his junior year in 2006. As a sophomore, earned playing time late in the season and played a significant role in final three victories.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Ithaca (MI) HS, where he was the second–leading tackler as a senior, making 102 tackles to go along with 8 sacks.
- Named to Detroit News and Saginaw News Dream Teams, earning first–team AP all–state honors and was Mt. Pleasant Morning Sun's area Defensive POY.
- His mother, Marie, is a nursing home administrator and his father, Philip, is a farmer. He also operates and maintains his own oil well, selling crude oil.
- Born Christopher Patrick (8/22/84) in Ithaca, MI.
- Graduated with a degree in criminal justice.

PATRICK'S CAREER STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS – 3/0; 2009 (3/0)

Milestones:

NFL Debut: at GB (11/22/09)

Karl Paymah joins the 49ers after spending 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings, where he served as a physical corner and special teams standout. Originally a 3rd–round draft choice of the Denver Broncos, he will look to fill a similar role for the 49ers in 2010.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 3rd–round (76th pick overall) draft choice by Den. in 2005... Signed by Min. as an unrestricted free agent on 3/19/09...Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 3/17/10.

GOLDMINE:

- Karl enjoys giving back to the community because he knows what it's like to need a little help. After being involved in after school programs as a youth, including LA's Best, Paymah realized how important it was for those able to give time and effort, to do so. The people that volunteered at those programs had a big impact on his life while his parents worked. A trip to Disneyland was part of the experience Paymah got to enjoy as well as a special trip to the Super Bowl and a meet and greet with Arnold Schwarzenegger. "It blew my mind and I'll think about that the rest of my life that I got to experience that growing up."
- Karl spends time training at his home in Denver during part of the offseason because he feels you have to work twice as hard due to the altitude.
- Paymah is thrilled for the opportunity to be on the 49ers roster and said he can tell there is something special occurring here and he wants to be a part of it, "That's why I came here, I feel it's about that time and I want to be a part of it. I just want to come here and make an impact."

2009 (Minnesota):

- Made first start for Vikings at Pit. (10/25), finishing with 4 tackles, 1 TFL and 1 PD.

2008 (Denver):

- Started games at LCB vs. Mia. (11/2) and at Cle. (11/6), recording a take–away in each game.
- Set a career high with 12 tackles, including an INT vs. Mia. (11/2).

2007 (Denver):

- Started 3 games, recording a career–high 2 INTs.
- Ranked 4th on team in special teams tackles.
- Started first career game, posting first career INT at KC (11/11).
- Recorded an INT and 2 PDs vs. Chi. (11/25).

2006 (Denver):

- Finished 2nd on team with 12 special teams tackles.
- Set a career high with 4 special teams tackles vs. Sea. (12/3).

2005 (Denver):

- Played in 13 games and two playoff contests as a rookie, ranking 2nd on team in special teams tackles with 11.
- Made NFL debut vs. Jax. (10/2).

COLLEGE:

Played in 48 career games (27 starts) for the Cougars, totaling 129 tackles, 3 INTs, 21 PDs and 1 FR. Full–time starter as a junior and senior, earning Honorable Mention All–Pac 10 as a senior. Started all 13 games as a junior, recording a career–best 55 tackles, 1 INT, 1 FR and 10 PDs. As a sophomore, helped the Cougars share the Pac–10 crown and faced Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl.

PERSONAL:

- Earned all–state honors as a senior at Culver City (CA) HS, where he excelled as a WR and DB.
- Tabbed a first–team All–Bay League selection on defense, an All–Westside first–team choice and team MVP on offense after his final prep season.
- Standout sprinter and relay team member in track.
- Graduated with a degree in communications and business.
- Resides in Los Angeles.
- Born Karl Paymah (11/29/82) in Boston, MA.

In just his second season, Chilo Rachal continued to showcase his power and mobility at right guard, starting all but one game in 2009. A 2nd–round pick in 2008, Rachal worked his way into the 49ers starting lineup midway through his rookie season, and since then, has shown improvement in his knowledge of blocking techniques and schemes.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 2nd–round (39th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Chilo wasn't planning on entering the NFL Draft in 2008, but a tumor discovered in his mother's stomach prompted him to enter early so he could help with her medical costs.
- Chilo idolized former 49er Larry Allen and models his play after the All–Pro guard when he switches into his self–proclaimed "Beast Mode" on the football field.

2009 (San Francisco):

- Had two critical blocks that helped spring RB Frank Gore on each of his record–setting 79– and 80–yd. TD runs vs. Sea. (9/20). The offense finished with a season–high 246 yds. rus. on the day.
- Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack of QB Alex Smith on any of his 41 attempts vs. Jax (11/29). It marked the first time the 49ers did not give up a sack since 11/10/08, at Arz. (QB Shaun Hill – 40 attempts).

2008 (San Francisco):

- Saw action in 8 games, starting the final 6 contests at RG.
- Inactive Games 1–2, and was active for first time in career vs. Det. (9/21), but did not play. Inactive Games 4–8.
- Played in first career game at Arz. (11/10) as he rotated at RG with starter Tony Wragge. Made a key block on LB Karlos Dansby on final play of 1st qtr. that helped spring RB Frank Gore for 20 yds. The O–line did not allow a sack in the game.
- Rotated at RG with Wragge vs. StL (11/16).
- Made first NFL start at RG at Dal. (11/23), becoming second member of 49ers 2008 draft class to make a start for 49ers (Josh Morgan).

COLLEGE:

In 21 games as a starter at Southern Cal, never allowed a QB sack as he delivered 155 knockdowns, including 15 TD–resulting blocks. Started 9 games at RG as a senior, earning first–team All–American honors. Started 12 games at RG in 2006 and was named second–team All–American. Appeared in every game as a reserve guard as a redshirt freshman, seeing most of his action on special teams. Redshirted as a freshman after missing all of September following arthroscopic left knee surgery to remove torn cartilage prior to Colorado State game.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Dominguez HS in Compton, CA, where he earned All–American honors.
- Limited to just 4 games as a senior due to a knee injury.
- Born Chilo Rachal (3/15/86) in Compton, CA.

RACHAL'S CAREER NFL STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS – 24/21; 2008 (8/6), 2009 (16/15)

Milestones:

NFL Debut: at Arz. (11/10/08); First Start: at Dal. (11/23/08)

Michael Robinson has provided the 49ers with a consistent weapon on special teams since being selected in the 4th round of the 2006 NFL Draft. Robinson saw action at running back, fullback and kick returner in 2009. Known as a special teams ace, he has been named an alternate to the Pro Bowl for special teams in each of the past two seasons. Robinson finished the 2009 season ranked t-3rd on the team with 20 special teams tackles, while having totaled 79 special teams tackles through his first 4 seasons.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 4th-round (100th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- Michael knows the value of giving back to the community and he currently runs his own foundation, Excel 2 Excellence. The goal of the charity is to put children from low-income families into higher education. Michael is currently in the process of identifying the student that would receive the scholarship, with candidates having to submit a letter explaining why his charity would be beneficial to them. "We are helping them choose majors, we are helping them figure out if college is what they want to do. Maybe trade school or something that might be more useful for them. We want to offer SAT, ACT classes, a variety of things."
- Michael also ran his own football camp during the 2010 offseason which played host to 500 children at Varina HS in Richmond, VA, for his Excel 2 Excellence Foundation. Michael had a great deal of head coaches from the local high schools help out and the camp was sponsored by multiple companies including Cadillac, Qdoba, Little Caesar's, Blimpie's, Chick-Fil-A, Powerade and Vitamin Water. "I just wanted to give back to a community that's given so much to me. Growing up in the streets of Richmond, VA, that made me who I am today, I just wanted to give back. I thought it was my duty. We have a responsibility to give back to our youth."
- Michael's legal name is Burton Michael Robinson IV, but he didn't learn it until a few years after his birth. During his first day of school at Head Start at the age of 5, the teachers were taking attendance, calling out Burton Robinson with no one raising their hands. After they asked for names that weren't called, Michael went up and told them his name and discovered that his real first name was Burton. He came home upset with his mom for not telling him. "I was upset. I said, 'Who is Burton? Why didn't you tell me my name was Burton?' She didn't like the name so she never called me that, but she said, 'That's a name that's in your family, so you kind of have to be that.'"
- One of the most athletic players on the team, Michael is equally adept off the playing field. At Penn State, Michael starred at quarterback and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors three times. More than a football player, Michael gained reporting experience covering Penn State Basketball and on CSTV's Penn State Primetime programs. Robinson has spent time in the television studio in the Bay Area, meeting reporters and gaining experience behind the camera, and also hosts a segment called "The Robinson Report" on 49ers.com. On April 2, 2008, ESPN the Magazine invited Michael to be an on-camera reporter for a Baylor vs. Texas women's softball game. In 2009, he had a weekly segment on KNBR Radio in San Francisco. After his football career is over, Michael hopes to get into broadcasting and do some coaching.
- During his senior season at Varina HS, a teammate of Mike's, T Craig Lobrano, passed away suddenly from a heat stroke. The two had gone to school since he was in first grade. To pay tribute to Lobrano, he has to have Craig's number, 78, written somewhere underneath his jersey. "The thing about it, it wasn't even a hot day and he passed out. Somebody called me early in the morning and said that he died. I didn't believe it until I got to school and everybody was in the parking lot in disbelief. I have to wear number 78 under my shirt."

- Set a single-season career-high with 414 kickoff return yds.
- Finished the season ranked t-3rd on the team with 20 special teams tackles.
- Set a career high with 171 kickoff return yds. vs. Ten. (11/8).

2008:

- Named a Pro Bowl alternate as a specialist after ranking 3rd on team with 16 special teams stops.
- Recorded second career start, and first at FB, at NYG (10/19) and caught two passes for 26 yds.
- Handled kickoff duties vs. Sea. (10/26) in 2nd half after KR Allen Rossum left game with a hamstring injury.
- Provided 2 key blocks on Rossum's 104-yd. kickoff return at Arz. (11/10).
- Caught two passes for a career-high 54 yds. vs. StL (11/16), which included a 36-yd. recept. that he took to the 1-yd. line to set up a QB Shaun Hill rushing TD.

2007:

- Led team with 27 special teams tackles.
- Broke several tackles on a 20-yd. recept. in 3rd qtr. vs. NO (10/28), marking a career-long that helped set up K Joe Nedney's 29-yd. FG.
- Made first career start at RB in place of an injured Frank Gore (ankle) at Atl. (11/4).

2006:

- Recovered onside kick by K Joe Nedney in 3rd qtr. at NO (12/3).
- Executed a fake punt for 33 yds. on a direct snap at Sea. (12/14). Since fake punt attempts count as a rushing attempt, the 33-yd. run established a new career-long.

COLLEGE:

Became fifth player in school history to gain over 5,000 yds. in total offense (5,168) and the only QB in school history to rush for over 1,000 yds. in a career, finishing with 1,637 yds. and 20 TDs on 369 carries. Started a total of 28 games for Nittany Lions (17 at QB, 6 at RB and 5 at WR), and lined up at all 3 receiver positions (slot, split end, flanker), RB, QB and PR during his 44 games. Named Big Ten Conference Offensive POY by the League's coaches and was a consensus second–team All–Big Ten choice as a senior after totaling 3,156 total yds. to set a school season–record, shattering previous mark of 2,660 yds. by Kerry Collins in 1994. Was so highly regarded by his teammates that they gave him serious consideration for captaincy during his freshman year. Tied an NCAA record as he tallied TDs on 3 consecutive carries during 2002 campaign.

PERSONAL:

- Led Varina HS in Richmond, VA, to four consecutive regional titles and two state runner–up finishes. A two–year team captain, rushed for 3,046 yds. on 371 carries, (8.2 avg) and 37 TDs with 2,409 passing yds. on offense to go along with 211 tackles, 18 INTs and 13 sacks as a safety.
- Two–time AP first–team all–state selection. Richmond Times–Dispatch Offensive POY and district and regional POY. Named a Times–Dispatch Scholar–Athlete and rated by Super Prep as third–best athlete in nation during his senior season.
- As a senior, passed for 1,056 yds. and rushed for 1,281 with a combined 15 TDs.
- Participated in sprints for track & field squad.
- Worked at a day care center, driving a bus for kids everyday when he was in high school. He would get out of class at 12:30 pm, then would drive the kids after that.
- His mother, Rita, works at Blue Shield and his stepfather, John, runs his own termite pest control company.
- Married to wife, Shameka, and the couple has three children, Burton Michael Robinson V, Mikayla, and Michael's stepson, Braylon.
- Born Burton Michael Robinson IV (2/6/83) in Richmond, VA.
- Earned advertising and public relations degree in three years, graduating in December, 2004. Added a second undergraduate degree (journalism) in December of 2005.

A versatile and experienced offensive lineman, Barry Sims enters his 3rd season with the 49ers after spending his first 9 NFL campaigns as a member of the Oakland Raiders. Sims stepped in seamlessly when starting T Joe Staley was sidelined with a knee injury for 7 weeks during 2009.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed by Oak. as a rookie free agent 7/12/99…Waived by Oak. on 2/29/08…Signed by SF as a free agent on 7/26/08...Re–signed with SF on 3/23/10.

GOLDMINE:

- Barry didn't have as easy an entrance into the NFL as one might think. It took determination, hard work and a bit of luck for him to beat the odds. Barry never seriously thought about going pro until after his junior season at the University of Utah. With the support of family and friends, he trained hard and had a productive senior year as he was selected to the Hula Bowl All–Star game. Everything was looking promising for the ambitious lineman, but a couple days before the honorary game, Sims blew out his knee in practice. He ended up spending the next year in Salt Lake City rehabbing. Once the rehabilitation concluded, Barry was eager to sign with a team. However, many teams were skeptical about whether his knee would hold up. As time was running out, an opportunity arose in NFL Europe, and Barry was selected in the 17th round of the 1999 NFLE Draft by the Scottish Claymores. He shined overseas and was signed as a free agent by the Raiders in July of 1999. After just four regular season games with the Raiders, he made his 1st NFL start, and has since gone on to make over 100 more.
- Barry was named to the Scottish Claymores Hall of Fame in 2004. "It's cool because there are only 20 guys in there. It was great that they felt I deserved that honor because there were a lot of great players there." Not only is he a member of the Claymores Hall of Fame, but Sims is also the first member in his high school to have his jersey retired.
- As the 2010 offseason program started, Barry went out of his way to help T Anthony Davis and G Mike Iupati, the two rookie offensive linemen, get up to speed with the offense and help prepare them for what's ahead. "I'm trying to prepare those guys so we can depend on them when the season comes around. When I came into the league, I had guys looking out for me and helping me out. Now its my turn to help these guys."

After being named the starting quarterback midway through the 2009 season, Alex Smith stepped in and had the best 10-game stretch of his career, setting career-highs in TDs (18), comp. percentage (60.5) and QB rating (81.5). A tough, cerebral signal caller, Smith showed his development at quarterback after having battled through injuries and scheme changes early in his career.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 1st-round (1st pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2005.

GOLDMINE:

- In early 2007, Alex committed $500,000 to the University of Utah's athletic department. The generous donation was the lead gift for the Alex Smith Strength and Conditioning Facility—a $1.5 million expansion of Utah's varsity athletics weight room. The money kicked off a campaign to raise the remaining funds for the project. Plans called for the expansion of the Dee Glen Smith Center, which houses the strength and conditioning room, as well as the football coaching offices, meeting, training and equipment rooms. The facility covers 11,000 square feet—a 3,500 square foot improvement from its current size, and features new lifting stations and cardiovascular conditioning space.
- One of the main reasons Alex chose to attend Utah was his love for winter sports. "I've skied since I was one-and-a-half. My dad was a ski instructor at one time and my parents have a condo in Montana. When I was 12 I took up snowboarding and that's why I loved Utah. It's tough but I haven't been on a mountain since I was drafted, but I'll wakeboard and water ski whenever I can."
- Alex graduated college in three years with a bachelor's degree in economics and scored one of the highest scores (40) on the Wonderlic Test prior to the NFL Draft.
- Alex has always played with the idea of going to law school at some point in life. With that in mind, he chose to pursue a degree in economics. When he arrived at the University of Utah, his high school workload made him eligible to start his studies as a junior and start his major studies. "I am not going to be able to help you plan for your retirement, but I enjoyed the part of my classes that allowed me to better understand the philosophy of economics and how different economies worked."
- In 2006, Alex established the Alex Smith Foundation (www.alexsmithfoundation.org), which provides foster teens with the tools and resources needed to transition to successful adulthood.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Became the first 49ers QB in club history to take every snap from center over the course of a season, in 2006.
- Set new single-season career highs in TD passes (18), completion percentage (60.5) and QB rating (81.5), in 2009.
- Ranks 7th in franchise history with 7,029 career passing yds.

- Set new single-season career highs in TD passes (18), completion percentage (60.5) and QB rating (81.5).
- Moved into 7th place in team history in pas. yds. (7,029 yds.).

Became the first 49ers QB to throw 3 TD passes in a half since QB Jeff Garcia at Arz. (12/7/03), who had 4 TD passes in the 1st half. His 3 TD passes tied a career-high (vs. Oak. – 10/8/06). His QB rating (118.6) marked the 2nd-highest of his career (120.5 vs. Oak. – 10/8/06).
- Connected with TE Vernon Davis on a 40-yd. recept. to set up the team's first TD of the day vs. Ten. (11/8). Set a career high with 29 comps.
- Tied a career high with 3 TD passes at GB (11/22).
- Set 1st-half career highs in atts. (29), comps. (18), and yds. (169), while throwing 2 TD passes vs. Jax. (11/29).
- Recorded a new career high with 310 yds. at Sea. (12/6), his first career 300-yd. passing game.

- Entered season as team's backup QB behind J.T. O'Sullivan, but injured shoulder in practice three days prior to the season opener and was placed on IR (9/10).

2007:

- In season opener on MNF vs. Arz. (9/10), completed 15 of 31 passes for 126 yds., while rus. for 36 yds. on 3 carries. Led team on game-winning drive, completing 6 of 10 passes for 60 yds. to go along with a 25-yd. rush on 4th down. WR Arnaz Battle scored go ahead TD on 1-yd. rush with :22 remaining in 20-17 win.
- Left game after first series at Sea. (9/30) with a shoulder separation from a sack by DT Rocky Bernard.
- Returned to starting lineup vs. NO (10/28) and completed 22 of 43 passes for 190 yds. with 1 TD.
- Started 2 more games before being placed on IR (12/12) and undergoing shoulder surgery (12/13) to repair ligaments.

2006:

- Became first QB in 49ers history to take every snap over course of a season. The only other NFL QBs to take every snap in 2006 were Peyton Manning (Indianapolis), Jon Kitna (Detroit), and J.P. Losman (Buffalo).
- Set career-highs in comps. (257), atts. (442) and yds. (2,890).
- Completed 23 of 40 atts. for 288 yds., including a 31-yd. TD pass to Davis at Arz. (9/10).
- In home opener vs. StL (9/17), threw a 72-yd. TD pass to WR Antonio Bryant in 3rd qtr.
- Threw for a then-career-high 293 yds. on 27 of 46 passing with 1 TD vs. Phi. (9/24). Completed a career-long 75-yd. pass to WR Bryan Gilmore in 3rd qtr., marking second straight week he bested the mark.
- Recorded first career rus. TD vs. Sea. (11/19).
- Completed 14 of 25 passes for 162 yds. with 2 TDs at Sea. (12/14) to go along with 6 carries for 33 yds. and 1 rushing TD in 49ers 24-14 win. Engineered 4th-qtr. comeback with 2 TD passes and an 18-yd. TD run. Only two other players in NFL history threw at least 2 TD passes in 1 qtr. while also running for a TD of at least 15 yds. in that same qtr. – Phil Simms as a rookie for the 1979 Giants (against the 49ers) and Kordell Stewart for the Steelers in 1997 (against the Ravens).
- Finished season by completing 17 of 32 passes for 194 yds. with 1 TD and 1 INT in OT victory at Den. (12/31).

2005:

- Played first career game at Phi. (9/18).
- Recorded first career completion for 15 yds. to WR Brandon Lloyd at Arz. in Mexico City (10/2).
- Inactive 4 games after suffering knee injury from a LB LaVar Arrington hit vs. Was. (10/23).
- Returned to starting lineup vs. Arz. (12/4) and completed 16 of 24 passes for 185 yds. with 3 INTs. Completed first 8 passes and was 11 of 12 for 138 yds. in 1st half.
- Started at StL (12/24) and recorded first career win as a starter, finishing 12 of 16 for 131 yds. and a 98.7 QB rating.
- Threw first career TD vs. Hou. (1/1/06) on a 14–yd. pass to Lloyd in a 20–17 OT victory.

COLLEGE:

Boasted a 21–1 record as a starter at Utah and became first player in school history to be named a finalist for the Heisman Trophy. Named The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated 2004 National Offensive POY after recording a career TD–to–INT ratio of 6.1:1, best among all passers that played college football in 2004. Earned Mountain West POW honors 6 times while guiding Utes to 12–0 record during final campaign with Utah. Named a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award, given to the nation's top passer. Added second–team Walter Camp All–American, Mountain West Offensive POY and unanimous first–team All–Mountain West accolades. Sophomore All–America honorable mention by College Sports Report. second–team All–Mountain West pick. Took over starting QB role in season's third game vs. California. Appeared briefly in 2 games as a freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Helix HS in La Mesa, CA, with 2006 No. 2 overall draft selection Reggie Bush, guiding team to a 25–1 record during last two seasons, earning team MVP, National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar–Athlete honors twice. Also voted two–time conference Offensive POY and team captain in both his junior and senior years.
- Served as class president and graduated 13th in a class of 430.
- Alex's wife, Elizabeth, is a Morgan Hill, CA, native and is currently attending culinary school.
- Alex is one of four children to Pam and Doug Smith. Doug is retired after serving as the principal at Alex's alma mater Helix HS in San Diego. He also served as the school's football coach after having played center at Weber State in Utah. Pam is currently a deputy director in the county of San Diego working in the areas of aging and individual services as well as protective services overseeing one–fourth of the county.
- Credits his father for instilling a tremendous work ethic in him. "He made me mentally tough and taught me to be an even–keeled logical thinker. I am a very rational person because of how he raised me."
- After being coached by his father in high school, he credits his college coaches Urban Meyer and Dan Mullen for shaping him into the player he is today. Meyer was the head coach at Utah and is now the head coach at Florida. Mullen was the QBs coach at Utah and is now the head coach at Mississippi State.
- His older brother, Josh, holds a PhD in epidemiology, the study of factors affecting health and illness of populations. His sister, Abbey, is a 5th grade teacher while his other sister, Mackenzie, works for a congressman currently pursuing a senate seat.
- Enjoys traveling any chance he gets. He and his wife enjoyed a European vacation in 2010, including a stint in London during the Super Bowl when he promoted the 49ers game in London versus the Broncos in October 2010.
- His favorite hobby is reading. He owns a Kindle wireless reading device which he has loaded up with fiction novels. "I love to read when I'm traveling, but not on game trips. I don't do anything but relax and look at my playbook when we go on the road."
- Born Alexander D. Smith (5/7/84) in Seattle, WA.
- Earned degree in economics.

A relentless and explosive defender, Justin Smith earned his first Pro Bowl appearance following the 2009 season as he ranked t–2nd on the team with 6 sacks to go along with a team–high 78 QB pressures and 52 QB hits. In just 2 seasons with the 49ers, he has led the defensive line in tackles each season and has registered 13 sacks. Smith enters 2010 with an active streak of 139 consecutive starts, which is by far the longest streak of any current NFL defensive lineman (Arz. DT Darnell Dockett is 2nd with 81).

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 1st–round (4th pick overall) draft choice by Cin. in 2001... Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Cin. on 3/1/08.

GOLDMINE:

- Justin was one of the most sought after free agents in the NFL in the 2008 offseason. When the 49ers brought him in for a visit, they knew they had to sell the Midwesterner on the California lifestyle. Justin, who often wears cowboy boots and grew up on his father's cattle ranch in Missouri, discussed the 49ers defensive philosophy in depth with the team's coaches and was also taken on a helicopter tour of the city. It didn't take long for him to make his decision as he cancelled his future visits with prospective teams and signed with San Francisco. Although Justin wants to play in San Francisco for several years to come, he looks to eventually return to his roots. "When I'm done playing ball, I'll probably move to Missouri or Texas and get a ranch. That's how I grew up. I think it teaches you survival."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2008: 49ers Bill Walsh Award, given to the team's most valuable player voted on by the coaches
2009: NFC Pro Bowl

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Played in first career Pro Bowl following the 2009 season after being named an alternate.
- Enters 2010 with a streak of 139 consecutive starts, ranking 11th among all active NFL players, 6th among all defensive players and 1st among defensive linemen.
- Set a career high with 3.5 sacks at StL (1/3/10).
- Played the most snaps of any NFL defensive lineman in 2007, lining up for 97.9 percent of plays on defense as the Bengals franchise player.
- Has posted at least 5 sacks in 8 of his 9 seasons played and has only missed 1 game in his career (contract negotiations as a rookie).

2009 (San Francisco):

- Ranked t–2nd on the team in sacks (6).
- Led defensive linemen and ranked 4th on the team with 90 tackles. Led team in QB pressures (78) and QB hits (52).
- Tallied 1 sack, 1 FF, 13 QB pressures and 9 hits on QB Kurt Warner at Arz. (9/13). The sack and FF came as time expired to seal the victory.
- Posted a season–high 10 tackles and 1 PD at Hou. (10/25).
- Led team with 6 QB pressures and 5 QB hits vs. Chi. (11/12), while limiting RB Matt Forte to 41 yds. rus. on 20 carries (2.1 avg.).
- Registered 1.5 sacks to go along with 1 FF and 1 FR vs. Jax. (11/29).
- Tallied a career–high 3.5 sacks and 10 tackles at StL (1/3).

2008 (San Francisco):

- Started all 16 games for 7th consecutive season and ranked 4th on team in tackles (104), 2nd in sacks (7) and 1st in QB pressures (57).
- Earned the Bill Walsh Award, which is given to team's MVP as voted upon by the coaches.
- Made 49ers debut vs. Arz. (9/7) and had 8 tackles and 1 sack.
- Recorded an INT with 1:50 to play vs. Det. (9/21) in 31–13 victory. Also posted a sack, which forced a fumble by QB Jon Kitna.
- Had 3 tackles, 6 QB pressures and 1 PD vs. NYJ (12/7).

2007 (Cincinnati):

- Led all Bengals D–linemen and ranked 2nd on team with 103 tackles to go along with 2 sacks and 3 PDs. His 103 stops were 34 more than any other Bengals lineman. Lined up 97.9 percent of defensive plays, which was the most of any NFL defensive lineman.
- Led team in tackles in consecutive weeks, recording 10 vs. NYJ (10/21) followed by 11 vs. Pit. (10/28).
- Registered 6 tackles and forced a punt after dropping QB Steve McNair for a sack at Bal. (11/11).

2006 (Cincinnati):

- Posted a career–high 110 tackles.
- Tied career–high with 3 sacks in season opener at KC (9/10) to go along with 7 tackles, 1 FF and 1 FR. On Smith's third sack, he forced a 4th–qtr. fumble by Huard for an 8–yd. loss and recovered loose ball to help seal 23–10 win.
- Matched career–high with 13 tackles vs. Atl. (10/29).

2005 (Cincinnati):

- Logged a team–high 6 sacks.
- Led line with 8 tackles vs. Hou. (10/2), including a key sack of QB David Carr in which he forced a fumble to help set up a FG for 16–10 final margin.
- Led defensive line with 6 tackles in pivotal win at Pit. (12/4), including a 2–yd. sack of QB Ben Roethlisberger on 4th down at Steelers' 19–yd. line late in 4th qtr.

2004 (Cincinnati):

- Notched a team–high 8 sacks. His 97 tackles led the D–line and ranked 3rd on team. Led team in defensive snaps, lining up on 94.4 percent of plays.
- Recorded 10 tackles, 2 sacks and 1 FF vs. Den. (10/25).
- Had key sack of QB Eli Manning vs. NYG (12/26), forcing Giants to settle for FG and 19–17 lead in game Bengals came back to win 23–22.

2003 (Cincinnati):
- Led D–ine with 91 tackles and had 5 sacks.
- Led team with 13 tackles in victory vs. Bal. (10/19).

2002 (Cincinnati):
- Led team with 6.5 sacks.

2001 (Cincinnati):
- Missed season–opener due to contract negotiations, finishing the year with a rookie franchise record 8.5 sacks (breaking James Francis 8.0 in 1990).
- Recorded first career sack at SD (9/30), dropping QB Doug Flutie for 13–yd. loss.
- Posted first NFL INT at Det. (10/28) off QB Charlie Batch.
- Had 3 sacks on QB Mark Brunell vs. Jax. (12/9).

COLLEGE:

Entered 2001 NFL Draft after junior season at Missouri, where he logged 11 sacks, 97 tackles and 24 TFLs. His sacks and TFLs set school season records. Earned first–team All–America honors as a junior and was a unanimous selection to All–Big 12 first team. Earned first–team All–Big 12 honors as a sophomore. In 1998, became first true freshman since 1986 to start every game for Missouri.

PERSONAL:
- All–state and two–time all–district football choice at Jefferson City (MO) HS, where he was selected to Super Prep's All–America and Top 50 teams as a senior.
- Born Justin Smith (9/30/79) in Holts Summit, MO.

Reggie Smith transitioned to the safety position in 2009 after lining up at corner–back during his rookie season. He con–tributed on special teams in 2009. A 3rd–round selection in 2008, Smith made starts at both strong safety and cornerback during his collegiate ca–reer at Oklahoma.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 3rd–round (75th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

2009:

- Suffered a groin injury at Min. (9/27) and was inactive for Weeks 4–9.

2008:

- Posted 2 special teams tackles in first action vs. Det. (9/21).
- Saw action vs. StL (11/16) and made first career tackle.

Saw action in 39 games (36 starts) at Oklahoma, with 20 starts coming at SS and 16 at CB. A two–time All–Big 12 first–team selection, recorded 166 tackles, 22 PDs, 8 INTs (1 returned for TD), 3 FRs (2 returned for TDs) and 1 sack in three–year career. Also returned 33 kickoffs for 721 yds. (21.9 avg) and 67 punts for 490 yds. (7.3 avg) with 1 TD. Started 13 games as a senior after making 10 starts at SS and 3 starts at CB as a junior. Spent first 2 games as a reserve before starting final 10 games at SS as a freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Santa Fe HS in Edmond, OK, lining up as a DB, WR and RB.
- A two–time all–state choice, earned USA Today first–team honors as a se–nior after recording 63 tackles and 6 INTs on defense, while rushing for 935 yds. on 122 carries with 9 TDs and catching 47 passes for 607 yds. with 8 scores.
- Named Oklahoma Offensive POY as a junior after leading team to Class 6A championship game.
- Also lettered in basketball and track, clocking a personal best 10.8 in the 100–meter.
- Born Reginald Smith (9/3/86) in Edmond, OK.

As the second of two 3rd–round selections in 2005, Adam Snyder has shown immense versatility by making a total of 54 starts at every position along the line with the exception of center (21 at LT, 21 at RT, 7 at LG, 5 at RG).

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of two 3rd–round (94th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2005.

GOLDMINE:

- Growing up in Whittier, CA, Adam lived a short distance from the coast. He and his friends would often make the short drive to the beach, where they'd spend some time soaking in the rays and surfing. Due to the cold water in Oregon, Adam didn't surf in college, but he picked the sport back up when he was drafted by the 49ers in 2005. "On one of my first trips to Santa Cruz, I met a local shaper named Doug Haut. He shaped me a board and it kind of took off from there. I surfed quite a bit my first couple years in the league and try to get out there when I can these days." Adam now has a collection of five surfboards – three 10–footers, a nine–footer and a seven–foot fish – that he rides at the local breaks. His wife, Erika, learned how to surf in Hawaii and enjoys going out in the water with Adam.
- Since his early childhood, Adam has had aspirations of one day becoming a police officer. "It's been a line of work that has interested me for a long time. I imagine the camaraderie you build between your fellow officers is similar to the solidarity that's created among teammates on a football team. Everyone has each other's back." If Adam has any questions about the joining the force, he doesn't need to turn far. His good friend and former 49ers teammate, Patrick Estes, recently joined the Santa Clara Police Department. Adam hopes to go on a few ride–a–longs in the near future to get an up–and–close understanding of what being a police officer entails.
- Ever since his freshman year in high school, Adam has made annual camping trips into the middle of the desert with his family and friends. "We've been setting up camp at the same place near Chiriaco Summit for years. It's basically in the middle of nowhere and we just ride 4x4's and enjoy one another's company."
- Adam gained some good work experience growing up in Whittier. He briefly served as a doughnut filler at Krispy Kreme Doughnuts before working a seasonal job at Honey Baked Hams, where he unloaded 50–60 pound boxes of meat in the freezer. Adam's most enjoyable job was at Rockview Dairy. "It wasn't your ordinary dairy, like milk and eggs. It was actually like a grocery store, it had everything. The coolest part was that it was a drive–thru. You'd just drive up, place your order and I'd go pick out the items from the back. I think it's weird that I haven't seen a similar type of place anywhere else."

2009:

- Started every game, lining up at RT in 15 contests and at RG for one game.
- Helped the team rush for a season–high 246 yds. vs. Sea. (9/20).
- Part of an O–line that did not allow a sack of QB Alex Smith on any of his 41 attempts vs. Jax (11/29). It marked the first time the 49ers did not give up a sack since 11/10/08, at Arz. (QB Shaun Hill – 40 attempts).

2008:

- Saw action in 14 games, starting first 7 contests at LG before making 6 starts at RT.
- Replaced in starting lineup vs. Sea. (10/26) by David Baas, but entered game at RT in 2nd qtr. when Barry Sims left with an ankle injury.
- Started at RT at Arz. (11/10) in place of Sims and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack. Went on to start following 5 contests at RT.
- Left game in 1st qtr. at Mia. (12/14) with an ankle injury and was replaced by Sims.
- Did not play final two contests with an ankle injury.

2007:

- Played in all 16 games with 11 starts, becoming a starter at LT after Jonas Jennings was placed on IR with an ankle injury.
- Made first start of season vs. Bal. (10/7) in place of Jennings.
- Stepped in at LT in 2nd half at NYG (10/21) in place of Jennings, who left game with a season–ending ankle injury, and went on to start next 10 contests.

2006:

- Saw action in 14 games (6 starts), making 3 starts at LT for Jennings and 3 starts at LG for Larry Allen. Inactive vs. GB (12/10) and at Sea. (12/14) due to a sprained knee and ankle.
- Started at LT vs. StL (9/17), vs. SD (10/15) and at Den. (12/31) in place of Jennings.
- Started at LG vs. Phi. (9/24) and vs. Oak. (10/8) in place of Allen (sprained MCL).
- Returned to action vs. Arz. (12/24) after missing 2 games with a sprained knee and ankle.

2005:

- Saw action in all 16 games during rookie campaign, starting 7 contests at LT and one game at RG.
- Filled in at guard late in 4th qtr. at Phi. (9/18).
- Saw time at guard when Eric Heitmann moved to center due to an injury to Jeremy Newberry at Arz. (10/2) in Mexico City and vs. Ind. (10/9).
- Made first NFL start at Chi. (11/13) at RG, taking over for Heitmann, who moved to center to fill in for Newberry (knee/shoulder). Started at LG for the remainder of season.

COLLEGE:

Three–year starter who played in 49 games (35 starts) at three different positions (RG, RT and LT). Became Ducks first two–time first–team all–league O–lineman in four decades. Departed as one of Oregon's most decorated lineman of all time, becoming Ducks' third Morris Trophy recipient (as the Pacific–10 top lineman) ever. Allowed only 2 sacks his entire senior season at LT as he was voted All–Pac–10. Enjoyed most consistent year on O–line as a junior, highlighted by earning Oregon's first first–team All–Pac–10 O–line honors in 20 years, anchoring a line that boasted the League's 4th–best rushing offense.

PERSONAL:

- Attended La Serna HS in Whittier, CA, where he was a two–year starter and 1999 team captain. A 2nd–team all–CIF honoree, helped team rush for over 2,400 yds. as a senior.
- Enjoys playing golf with his fellow O–linemen.
- Married to Erika. Couple splits time between Santa Clara, CA and Whittier, CA.
- Born Adam Richard Snyder (1/30/82) in Fullerton, CA.
- Graduated with a degree in journalism/public relations.

SNYDER'S CAREER NFL STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS – 76/54; 2005 (16/8), 2006 (14/6), 2007 (16/11), 2008 (14/13), 2009 (16/16)

Milestones:

NFL Debut: vs. StL. (9/11/05); First Start: at Chi. (11/13/05); 50th Career Start: at Sea. (12/6/09)

Isaac Sopoaga has been a key component of the 49ers defensive line rotation since being drafted in the 4th–round of the 2004 NFL Draft. His size and athleticism make him an ideal fit for the 49ers 3–4 scheme. Sopoaga set career highs in 2009 with 16 starts and 69 tackles. Widely considered one of the strongest players on the team, he is one of three 49ers (Moran Norris and Tony Wragge) who work out with 200–pound dumbbells.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two 4rth–round (104th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2004.

GOLDMINE:

- Growing up in American Samoa, Isaac's first sport was rugby. Part of his conditioning routine was to strengthen his arms by lifting bags filled with coconuts and logs from chopped down trees. The leg workout was also geographically geared. Said Isaac, "Have you ever seen a 325–pound guy climb a coconut tree?"
- The youngest boy in his family, Isaac didn't have the easiest childhood, but he credits his brothers for shaping him into the man he is today. "I really thank my brothers for staying on me when we were growing up. Since I was the youngest, I was responsible for all of the chores. It was definitely hard, but my brothers really taught me the value of hard work and the success that can come of it." Today, Isaac still takes pride in handling a bulk of the chores at home with his wife and four children.

- Registered a career–high 69 tackles.
- Helped hold the Cardinals to 40 yds. rushing on 17 carries (2.4 ypc.) at Arz. (9/13), tallying 4 tackles to go along with 1 PD.
- Registered 7 tackles at Min. (9/27).
- Sacked QB Peyton Manning at Ind. (11/1).

- Had 1 PD and a season–high 6 tackles at NO (9/28).
- Registered 5 tackles and 1 sack vs. NE (10/5).

2007:

- Started vs. Sea. (9/30) in nickel set, and vs. StL (11/18), at Arz. (11/25) and at Car. (12/2) in place of an injured DT Aubrayo Franklin (calf) at NT.
- Started at DT in a 4–3 alignment vs. Min. (12/9) and tallied 4 tackles.

2006:

- Saw action along D–line vs. StL (9/17), recording 3 tackles and recovering a fumble on Rams' 17–yd. line in 4th qtr. when teammate DE Marques Douglas sacked QB Marc Bulger. Fumble recovery yielded 4th–qtr. FG to put 49ers ahead 20–13.
- Posted 3 tackles and first career solo sack at Sea. (12/14), taking down QB Matt Hasselbeck in 3rd qtr. to force a Seattle punt.
- Made first start of season vs. Arz. (12/24) in place of DT Ron Fields (arm) and recorded a career–high 8 tackles.
- Started second consecutive game at Den. (12/31) and posted 3 tackles.

2005:

- Made first career NFL start at Ten. (11/27) when DT Anthony Adams was moved from NT to LDE in place of injured DE Bryant Young (knee), and responded by recording 3 tackles.

2004:

- Spent 2004 on IR due to a back injury suffered in training camp.

COLLEGE:

A mainstay on the D–line his last 2 seasons at Hawaii, posted 128 tackles, 2 FRs, 2 FFs and 3 PDs in 25 games with Warriors. First–team All–WAC selection in 2003 and second–team All–WAC choice in 2002. Played 2 years (1999–2000) at College of the Canyons (Santa Clarita, CA), where he was a two–time All–America selection for Cougars, as team won Western State Conference Championship both years. Named National Defensive POY and first–team all–state as a sophomore in 2001. Recorded national record 31 sacks as freshman in 2000.

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at Samoana HS in Pago Pago, American Samoa, where he lettered twice in football and basketball, and once in baseball.
- Named league's defensive POY and earned first–team all–league honors in football, as a senior. Also earned first–team all–league honors and was a member of league championship team, as a junior.
- Born Isaako Mikelancelot Sopoaga (9/4/81) in Fagasa, American Samoa.
- Resides in San Jose with his wife, Tumua, and their four children, Marcia (11), Valo (4), Isaako Jr. (2) and Hatesa (1).
- Majored in sociology.

A physical and quick cornerback, Shawntae Spencer provides the 49ers with a smooth and steady playmaker in the defensive backfield. Spencer was named the starting left cornerback after training camp in 2009, regularly drawing the opposing team's top receiver, after having been limited the previous two years due to injury.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of two 2nd–round (58th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2004.

GOLDMINE:

- Youth sports were always important to Shawntae when he was growing up in Pittsburgh. But over the years, the number of volunteers declined, as did the options for the kids. To help solve this problem, Shawntae is working on building a YMCA in downtown Pittsburgh. "I want it to be a safe–haven, a hub for kids where they can go after school, where they can go whether they're playing sports or not. We will provide kids with tutoring assistance, a mentoring program and give them someone they can talk with. We will also work with the youth sports. I want to make the sports in the community free for the kids. A lot of times, kids can't play because their parents can't afford it. I just want them to be able to show up and participate in whatever activities they want." Looking to not only impact his hometown, Shawntae is also looking at building a YMCA in the Bay Area, his home since being drafted by the 49ers in 2004. "Once I get this YMCA going in Pittsburgh, I want to build one in the Bay Area, focusing on a poverty stricken area – some place where the kids don't have many options of things to do when they get out of school. I want to try to keep the kids off the street corners and give them some options as far as sports and activities that won't cost them too much money."
- Shawntae was originally a big fan of baseball as a kid, but after getting his first taste of football, he couldn't resist the urge to play the sport. "Growing up in Pittsburgh, football is where it's at," he said. "My first love was baseball, but I got to high school and saw that all of the excitement was at the football games. There were 10,000 plus fans every Friday night, and when you are in high school, you want to be in that spotlight."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2009: Ed Block Courage Award winner

2009:

- Led team with a career–high 17 PDs.

Takeo Spikes provides the 49ers with a proven leader and playmaker at linebacker. The veteran had another solid season in 2009, ranking 4th on the team with 95 tackles. He also registered 4 sacks, his highest total since 2001. Spikes, a former first-round draft choice by Cincinnati in 1998, spent his first 5 years with the Bengals before playing 4 seasons with Buffalo and 1 season with Philadelphia.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 1st-round (13th pick overall) draft choice by Cin. in 1998...Signed by Buf. on 3/10/03...Traded to Phi. from Buf. on 3/26/07 as part of a three-player trade...Waived by Phi. on 3/6/08...Signed by SF as a free agent on 8/10/08...Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 2/27/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Takeo was appointed by NFL commissioner Roger Goodell, in conjunction with the NFLPA, to the first-ever NFL Player Advisory Council in 2007. The six-man committee, which was composed of Spikes, Jaguars S Donovin Darius, Vikings FB Tony Richardson, Redskins WR James Thrash, and free-agent S Troy Vincent, was established to help regularly advise commissioner Goodell on a wide range of issues that affect NFL players.
- His parents named him "Takeo" after Japanese Prime Minister Takeo Miki, who served from 1974-76. "They didn't know a lot about him, but they're big into name research. Takeo means 'great warrior' in Japanese. I guess that's what sealed the deal."
- Launched 51 Ways, Inc. with former Eagles/Giants LB Carlos Emmons in 2003. Both Spikes and Emmons grew up in Georgia and have lost family members to cancer. The foundation is dedicated to supporting families of children diagnosed with cancer and/or blood disorders by providing financial, spiritual, and physical resources. To learn more about 51 Ways, Inc. and their upcoming events, log on to www.TakeoSpikes51.com.

Joe Staley has been a mainstay on the 49ers offensive line since being chosen as the second of San Francisco's two 1st round draft picks in 2007. As a rookie, he started all 16 contests at right tackle before making 25 starts at left tackle in 2008 and 2009 combined. A product of Central Michigan, Staley became the first player in school history to be drafted in the 1st round of the NFL Draft.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of two 1st–round (28th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007 ... Signed a 6–year contract extension through 2017 on 6/6/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Following his rookie season, Joe got a suprise call from a marketing company looking to create a bobblehead of him for a hometown baseball promotion. The former Rockford High School and Central Michigan star was taken back by it. "It's pretty crazy," said Joe. "It's kind of crazy to have something that has your likeness on it. It kind of freaked me out." His bobblehead was given out to the first 1,000 fans at Fifth Third Ballpark when the West Michigan Whitecaps faced the Lansing Lugnuts. On the bobblehead, Joe is holding a helmet and is decked out in his high school uniform with No. 84 on his jersey. "I think they were going for my retro–Rockford days. In the current day, you would have to put 200 pounds on that doll," said Joe, who was a relay runner and tight end in high school.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Became the first 49ers rookie O–lineman to start every single game in a season since Cas Banaszek (1968–77), who started all 14 contests in 1968.
- Was 1 of only 3 NFL rookies (49ers LB Patrick Willis and Browns LT Joe Thomas) to line up for every single snap in 2007, and was 1 of 35 NFL players overall to accomplish the feat out of 1,898 total players.

- Sidelined with sprained knee ligaments suffered at Ind. (11/1) from Weeks 9–14, and was inactive at StL (1/3) with a knee injury.
- Helped the team rush for a season–high 246 yds. vs. Sea. (9/20).
- Suffered a quad contusion at Min. (9/27), marking the first time in his career that he missed an offensive play.
- Started all 16 games at LT and was the only 49ers player to line up for every single snap.
- Was part of an O–line that did not allow a sack at Arz. (11/10), breaking an NFL record 31–game streak by the Cardinals defense with at least one sack.
- Recorded first NFL TD on a fumble recovery following a WR Jason Hill 6–yd. reception vs. NYJ (12/7).

2007:

- Started all 16 games at RT for 49ers after beating out Kwame Harris for position in training camp. Played every single snap on offense as a rookie.

COLLEGE:

Played in 46 games (39 starts) at Central Michigan and helped team produce a 1,000–yd. rusher in three of his four seasons (2003–05). Arrived on Central Michigan's campus as a 225–pound tight end in 2003, but developed into one of the elite offensive tackles in collegiate game. Recorded fastest 40–yd. dash time (4.7) of any offensive lineman at 2007 NFL Combine. Consensus All–MAC first–team choice as one of three team captains as a senior, starting all 14 games at LT and helping team rank 22nd in nation with 245.9 passing yd. per game. All–MAC first–team choice as a junior as he moved to LT and started 11 games. Shifted to RT as a sophomore during preseason and started 11 games as he assisted team in averaging 395.5 yds. per game. Played in team's final 11 games with 4 starts at TE as a freshman and posted 11 recepts. for 130 yds. with 1 TD.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Rockford (MI) HS, where he lettered twice in both football and track.
- Caught 24 passes for 559 yds. with 7 TDs as a senior TE.
- Set three school records in track: 200–meters (21.9), 4x100 (42.5) and 4x200 (1:27) relay teams.
- Placed 6th in state for 200m to earn all–state honors as team finished 4th in state finals in 4x100m, 4th in 4x200m and 6th in 4x400m (43.1).
- Born Joe Staley (8/30/84) in Rockford, MI.

With impressive size for a safety, Curtis Taylor adds depth and explosiveness at both safety positions, while serving as a contributor on special teams.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two seventh–round (219th overall) draft choices by SF in 2009.

GOLDMINE:

- In 2009, Curtis ran his first football camp in his hometown of Franklinton, LA, with teammate Ricky Jean Francois. Curtis was happy to give back to his hometown and he was proud of the work the 100 kids in attendance put in during their time. "I was basically giving back to my community and they did a really good job, considering it was almost 95 degrees outside. We had a real good time."
- After Hurricane Katrina, Curtis and his family took it upon themselves to help out the less fortunate that were forced out of their homes. Whenever, they got an opportunity to help out, Curtis and his family handed out gift bags to families that lost their homes. "It was crazy around there. My family got some money together and made some gift bags filled with shampoo and soap and passed them out. We were doing that as much as we could."
- While Curtis admits he hasn't given a great deal of thought to what he will do after his football career is over, the one thing that he is very interested in creating is a community center. Curtis never went to one while he was growing up because he was so involved in sports. "I want to have an after school spot. A place where kids can get tutored, or on the weekends, they have somewhere to play basketball and learn about different sports."

- Made his 49ers debut vs. Atl. (10/11) and registered 2 special teams tackles.
- Made his debut on defense, recording an assisted tackle at GB (11/22).
- Placed on IR on 12/1/09 following a hip strain suffered vs. Jax. (11/29).

COLLEGE:

In 50 games (22 starts) at LSU, recorded 112 tackles, 2 sacks, 11 PDs, 5 INTs and 1 FR. Became a starter at safety following his sophomore year upon the departure of first–round draft pick Laron Landry. Played in 13 games (9 starts) in 2008, recording 43 tackles, 1 sack, 3 PDs, 2 INTs and 1 FR. In 2007, helped LSU to a national championship by registering 54 tackles, 1 sack, 6 PDs and 3 INTs. As a backup in 2006, tallied 12 tackles and a PD after playing in 11 games with 3 tackles and a PD as a redshirt freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Played S, QB and WR at Franklinton (LA) HS, finishing his senior season with 28 recepts., 562 rec. yds. and 6 TDs. An all–district selection, led his team to a state regional appearance.
- Has 8 siblings, including two brothers, CB Brandon and WR Jhyryn, that play football at LSU.
- Loves to cook and his mother, Annette, has taught him many recipes. He likes to cook a lot of Southern foods that he can't find in the Bay Area.
- Born Curtis Taylor (7/13/85) in Bogalusa, LA.
- Majored in general studies with an emphasis in African–American studies, communication studies and sports studies.

TAYLOR'S CAREER HIGHS

Total Tackles: 1 at GB (11/22/09)

Delanie Walker provides the 49ers with an explosive receiving threat at the tight end position, posing several match–up problems for opposing defenses. Originally a 6th–round selection by San Francisco in 2006, Walker has put his deceptive speed on display not only on offense, but also on special teams, finishing t–3rd on the team with 20 special teams tackles in 2009.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of three 6th–round (175th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- Delanie owns quite a fleet of cars, ranging from classics to newer models. Among his current collection is a 1964 Chevy Impala, 1972 Buick Skylark, 1989 Camaro IROC–Z28, 2008 Mercedes–Benz CL63 AMG and 2010 F250 truck. Delanie's passion for cars can be traced back to his childhood, where he would spend countless hours refurbishing old autos with the help of his friend's dad, who was a mechanic. "Growing up we didn't have much money, so we would buy cars from the junkyard and fix them up. We'd spend all day taking off parts and replacing them, just like new. The most important lesson I learned was 'the way you take it off is the way you put it back on.'" Delanie admits that cars these days have become more advanced and that he is only comfortable working on models that are pre–1990's. After his playing days are over, he envisions owning a car restoration shop.
- Having grown up in a tough neighborhood, Delanie knows first–hand how difficult it is to overcome obstacles in order to achieve one's goals. Throughout the past several offseasons, Delanie has visited delinquent youths across the Bay Area, making it a point to share his story and give positive reinforcement to those who can relate to him. "It's very important that people know about what I've been through. You can grow up in the worst neighborhood and still make it to the NFL. That's why I want kids, especially in the Bay Area, to understand that you can overcome those situations, because I did."
- For a 240–pound tight end, Delanie sure makes a lot of tacklers miss. His speed on the field can be linked to his success on the track as a high school senior. Despite lettering only one year, Delanie won the Division III 100m (10.6) and long jump (21–5) titles, while also serving as a member of the winning 4x100m relay team at the 2002 Miramonte League Meet. Delanie's younger brother, Anthony, currently competes in the 400m and 4x400m at the collegiate level, and has his hopes set on making the Olympic team one day.

- Set a new single–season career high with 233 rec. yds.
- Ranked t–3rd on the team with a career–high 20 special teams tackles.
- Registered a season–high 4 recepts. for 52 yds., including 2 recepts. over 20 yds. vs. Jax. (11/29).

2008:

- Started his first game of season and caught 1 pass for 8 yds. vs. NE (10/5).
- Filled in at fullback vs. Phi. (10/12) when FB Zak Keasey (bicep) left in 2nd qtr.
- Hauled in a career–long 53–yd. catch from O'Sullivan in 1st qtr. vs. Sea. (10/26) to set up the 49ers first score of game. Left game in 2nd qtr. with elbow injury and did not return.
- Returned 5 kickoffs for 112 yds. at Dal. (11/23) after KR Allen Rossum left game with an ankle injury.

2007:

- Posted 21 recepts. and 174 rec. yds. with 1 TD. Also recovered 2 onside kicks on special teams.
- Made first start of season at Pit. (9/23) and caught 3 passes for 19 yds., while returning 3 kickoffs for 63 yds.
- Recorded first career TD on a 21–yd. pass from QB Trent Dilfer at Car. (12/2).
- Established career–highs in recepts. and rec. yds. vs. Min. (12/9), recording 6 catches for 66 yds. as he was on other end of QB Shaun Hill's first career completion.

2006:

- Injured shoulder early in training camp and missed first month of season.
- Played first career game vs. Oak. (10/8) and recorded his first NFL touch when he returned a kickoff 25 yds.
- Made first career start in a two–TE set at NO (12/3) and saw extended playing time due to a knee injury suffered by Eric Johnson.

COLLEGE:

Became first and only player selected in 49ers history from Central Missouri, where he played 20 games and finished his college career tied with Anthony Simpson (1994–95) for 8th on school's career–record list with 113 recepts. When Walker left UCM, his 1,347 rec. yds. ranked 11th in school history, while his 965 yds. on kickoff returns ranked 7th and 2,578 all–purpose yds. ranked 9th. Including his 19 games at Mt. San Antonio College, he caught 199 passes for 2,659 yds. and 23 TDs in 39 contests during his collegiate career. His 2 kickoff returns for TDs in 2003 tied school season–record first set by Walter Rhome in 1971, and his 3 kickoff returns for scores tied CMSU's all–time record also held by Rhome (1969–72).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Pomona (CA) HS, where he was a first–team All–Region selection by The Los Angeles Times, adding all–division and All–San Gabriel Valley honors as a senior.
- Twice chosen Miramonte League Offensive POY and was selected as the 2001 Pomona Red Devil of the Year.
- Has a son, Delanie Jr. (6), who lives with his mom in Los Angeles.
- Born Delanie Walker (8/12/84) in Pomona, CA.
- Majored in video production, with a minor in criminal justice.

Derek Walker was signed as a free agent by San Francisco in 2009. He provides the team with depth along the defenve line.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by Was. on 4/30/09…Waived by Was. on 7/23/09…Signed by Sea. on 7/24/09…Waived by Sea. on 9/14/09…Signed to practice squad by Sea. on 9/15/09…Signed to 53–man roster by Sea. on 11/10/09…Waived by Sea. on 12/26/09…Claimed by SF on 12/28/09.

GOLDMINE:

- In the 2010 offseason, Derek interned with Devcon Construction, a design and build firm based in Milipitis, CA. "I have always had a passion for art and design so I wanted to learn more about architecture." As part of his internship, Derek would shadow different designers, learning the ins–and–outs of the business. He would go to different projects, interacting with the clients and observing the detail and precision that goes into every job. In addition to being out at the different sites, Derek also worked with the designers back in the office, learning the different programs that are used for creating their projects. "It was great to learn the different parts of the business. Seeing how the process works – from design to development to construction – really gave me a better understanding of architecture and fueled my passion even more."

- Inactive for 8 games (7 with Sea., 1 with SF)

COLLEGE:

Started 35 of 51 career games at Illinois, totaling 110 tackles, 15.0 sacks and 24.5 TFLs. Named the team's Defensive Lineman of the Year in 2006, leading the team with 5.5 sacks. Earned Freshman All–America honors from The Sporting News in 2005 after starting all 11 games at defensive end, finishing the year with 26 total tackles and 6 TFLs, 2nd–most on the team.

PERSONAL:

- Earned all–state honors by the Champaign News–Gazette and named the team's MVP in football, track and basketball at Glenbard East HS in Lombard, IL.
- Was an all–conference performer as a senior and named all–area for football and basketball by the Arlington Heights Daily Herald.
- Born Derek Walker (9/16/86) in Chester, PA.
- Graduated with a degree in communications.

A 4th–round pick by the 49ers in 2008, Cody Wallace provides depth along the offensive line after serving as a reserve the previous two seasons. Wallace was a 3–year starter at center during his collegiate career at Texas A&M.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 4th–round (107th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

2009:

- Made his NFL debut vs. Det. (12/27).

2008:

- Inactive all 16 games.

COLLEGE:

During his final two collegiate seasons, registered 252 knockdown blocks, while allowing 4.5 QB sacks and 3 pressures on 706 pass plays. Was the second Aggie to be named a finalist for the Rimington Trophy. Served as team captain as a senior, earning All–Big 12 first–team and the league's Co–Offensive Lineman of the Year honors after starting all 13 games at C. Also was an Academic All–Big 12 first–team selection. Started all 13 games at C as a team captain as a junior, earning All–Big 12 first–team choice and adding Academic All–Big 12 and Academic All–District honors.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Cuero (TX) HS, lining up at C, T and G during his career. Also played on the D–line as a senior, where he recorded 45 tackles.
- Two–time Class 3A all–state gridiron selection and consensus Texas Top 100 choice. Registered over 100 knockdown blocks in each of his junior and senior seasons.
- Also a standout power–lifter, advancing to the state finals.
- Raised by his grandparents, Rachel and Chester Wallace.
- Born Cody Layne Wallace (11/26/84) in Cuero, TX.
- Graduated with a degree in sport management in May 2007, prior to his senior season. He began pursuing his Masters in sport management during his senior year and is looking forward to completing that degree.

- Matt and his wife, Vanessa, oversee a nonprofit foundation, Wilhelm's Tackle it Now Foundation, that works closely with the San Diego County Office of Education, as well as with students in Matt's hometown of Lorain, Ohio. The Wilhelms also are supporters of the Monarch School in San Diego, which is a school for homeless teens.

2009 (San Francisco):

- Made his 49ers debut at Hou. (10/25), registering a special teams tackle.
- Saw first action on defense for the 49ers vs. Chi. (11/12), tallying 6 tackles and 1 TFL.
- Made his first start for 49ers at GB (11/22), replacing an injured LB Takeo Spikes, and totaled 5 tackles.

2008 (San Diego):

- Recorded an INT that helped seal a 34-7 win vs. Oak. (12/4).

2007 (San Diego):

- Had a career year with 14 starts, totaling 144 tackles, 5 TFLs, 1 sack, 3 INTs and 4 PDs.
- Set a career high with 18 tackles to go along with 1 TFL at Min. (11/4).
- Picked off QB Peyton Manning vs. Ind. (11/11).
- Led team with 15 tackles to go along with an INT at Ten. (12/9).

2006 (San Diego):

- Played in all 16 games, serving as a valuable special teamer with 15 special teams tackles.

2005 (San Diego):

- Played a key role for the Chargers on special teams with 15 special teams tackles.
- Posted a sack and 3 special teams tackles vs. Oak. (12/4).
- Registed a FF on a kickoff return that helped preserve a 26-17 win at Ind. (12/18).

2004 (San Diego):

- Registered first career INT vs. KC (1/2/05).

2003 (San Diego):

- Played in first career game vs. Bal. (9/21).

COLLEGE:

Finished his career with 266 tackles, 8 sacks, 44 TFLs (6th-most in OSU history), 3 INTs and 4 FFs. Had a team-high 10 tackles in the 2003 Fiesta Bowl victory over Miami for the National Championship title. Posted a career-high 121 tackles during his senior season. As a junior, earned the Randy Gradishar Award, given to the team's top linebacker, and first-team All-Big Ten honors. Began his college career as an OLB, but was moved to the inside as a sophomore.

PERSONAL:

- Amassed 100 tackles, 26 for loss, 11 sacks and was a first-team All-Ohio selection as a senior at Elyria Catholic (OH) HS.
- Older brother, Zack, played football for the University of Buffalo, and younger brother, Kurt, was a walk on at Ohio State.
- As an Ohio native and an Ohio State graduate, Wilhelm still maintains close ties to his alma mater. He attends numerous Buckeye Alumni events and was named the honorary chairman for the Nationwide Children's Hospital-Woody Hayes Golf Classic in Columbus, Ohio in 2008.
- Away from the field, Matt enjoys spending time with his wife and young son, Mason, while occasionally finding time to play a round of golf or join his teammates for a pickup basketball game on the hardwood.
- His #34 jersey was retired by Elyria Catholic HS in 2002.
- Grew up a fan of the Chicago Bears and Cleveland Browns.
- Matt and his wife, Vanessa, have a son, Mason.
- Born Matthew Wilhelm (2/2/81) in Oberlin, OH.
- Majored in communications.

In a limited amount of time, Patrick Willis made himself a household name with his stellar play, having led the NFL in tackles in two of his three NFL seasons. As the 11th–overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, Willis made an immediate impact as a rookie, earning All–Pro, Pro Bowl and NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. He kept the accolades flowing by earning Pro Bowl recognition in 2008 and 2009. Willis led the NFL in tackles and set career highs in sacks and INTs in 2009, on his way to earning a second All–Pro honor. The leader of the 49ers defense was rewarded with a lucrative five–year contract extension that will keep him in the Bay Area through 2016.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two 1st–round (11th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007... Signed a five–year contract through 2016 on 5/4/10.

GOLDMINE:

- Tragedy struck Willis' family right before Patrick's senior year at Ole Miss. His brother, Detris, drowned in a swimming hole when he was just 17 years old. Detris was a talented FB/LB who was heading into his senior year at Central High School and was a Division I–A prospect. In memory of his late brother, Patrick had the Superman shield tattooed on his chest. "We both loved Superman growing up. We were strong no matter what, but also had our weaknesses." Below Patrick's Superman tattoo reads, "My brother shall rise again." "I believe someday when my time on Earth is over, I'll see him again."
- Patrick has a variety of tattoos, with each carrying its own special meaning. One of his most inspirational tattoos is the word 'Believe' on his forearm. "When a person says 'I think,' I feel that leaves room for doubt. If I want to do something, I want to 'believe' I can do it, not just think." Patrick has three tear drops, which signify three significant people that have passed away in his life – his grandfather, uncle and brother.
- One of Patrick's biggest influences growing up was his uncle Arthur Joe Willis, who was a professional light–heavyweight boxer from 1989–2000, that competed in 33 pro fights. Patrick looked up to his uncle because he was able to make a name for himself as a successful boxer. Arthur matched up against James "Lights Out" Toney in 1990, and Toney later went on to beat former heavyweight champion Evander Holyfield in 2003.
- Patrick and his siblings were separated from his biological father when he was 16. He moved in with his guardians, the Finleys, who were in their 20's when they took in Patrick and his three other siblings. Chris Finley was a math teacher and Patrick's basketball coach in high school. Julie Finley taught 5th grade. He refers to Chris and Julie as dad and mom.
- One would think growing up in a small town of 1,500 people wouldn't provide much of a fan spotlight for young athletes. However, this was not the case for Patrick during his childhood in Bruceton, TN. "Growing up in such a small town, sports would turn into these big events, whether it was football, baseball or basketball. Everybody would come out to see you play."
- Competition is what has driven Patrick throughout his life. "I love to compete, no matter what sport it is. Basketball, baseball, football, golf, bowling, fishing, whatever. Basketball was my first love…I played everything, guard, forward, center. In baseball, I played everything too, except for catcher." Patrick set the record for most home runs in Little League. He started playing golf with his dad, Chris Finley, when he was 16. "Even though I'm not too good, I love to compete."
- Patrick was a standout basketball player at Central High School, where he averaged close to 20 points and 10 rebounds per game throughout his career. An all–district, all–region and All–West Tennessee selection, Patrick played every position on the court and was named the district's Most Valuable Player. It wasn't on the blacktop where he crafted his game, but rather on the dirt in front of his house. At the age of 7, Patrick, his brother and his dad constructed a basketball hoop from cedar planks. For the next 10 years, one could often find Patrick and his family playing toe–to–toe on that very same hoop. "That's what kept me busy. We didn't have sport clubs, malls or movie theatres nearby. All we had was each other."
- Patrick believes several of the jobs he held as a youth have made him into the hard–working person that he is today. At the ripe age of 10, Patrick worked in a cotton field to help financially support his family. "My grandmother got me a job chopping cotton. I got $110 a week for chopping the weeds around the cotton so it could grow." Patrick's next job was in masonry, where he would mix mortar for the building of structures. He then worked alongside his dad, who was a logger. "I would use a chainsaw and cut the limbs off. It was a pretty crazy job, I would get cut up all over." When Patrick was a sophomore and junior in high school, he would perform general maintenance around the school, which included waxing all the floors on the property.
- A fan of all different genres of music, Patrick would like to belt out his own tunes in his very own music studio one day. "I like to sing and can probably carry a tune here or there, but it's not like I'm any good. When I buy my house though, I'm going to put a music studio in it." Patrick enjoys listening to R&B, rap, country and even some Oldies. Some of his favorites are Marvin Gaye, Otis Redding and the Temptations.
- Armed with a degree in criminal justice, Patrick envisions a future in law enforcement. "Whether it be a detective or a member of the secret service or FBI, I'm very interested in the field." Patrick enjoyed watching episodes of "Columbo" and "Matlock" as a youngster. His favorite television programs now are "CSI: Crime Scene Investigation" and "Cold Case."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2008: NFC Pro Bowl

2009: NFC Pro Bowl | AP All–Pro | The Sporting News – All–Pro Defense | PFW/PFWA All–NFL Team | 2009 NFL Alumni Linebacker of the Year | Bill Walsh Award | NFL Butkus Award

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A three–time Pro Bowl selection (2007–09), was the only rookie to earn All–Pro honors in 2007 as he was named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. He became first 49ers defensive rookie to make the Pro Bowl and first–team All–Pro since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. He joined CB Bruce Taylor (1970), DT Dana Stubblefield (1993) and DT Bryant Young (1994) as 49ers who have won the Defensive Rookie of the Year award.
- Was named Defensive Rookie of the Month for October 2007 after totaling 43 tackles, and for December after amassing 53 stops, 3 sacks, 1 FF and 1 PD.
- In 48 starts, Willis has tallied 10–or–more tackles in 36 games and 20–or–more stops in 4 contests.
- Was one of three NFL rookies (49ers T Joe Staley and Browns T Joe Thomas) in 2007 to line up for every single snap.
- According to statistics compiled by Elias Sports Bureau, his 174 total tackles in 2007 led the NFL by more than 30 tackles, his 141 stops in 2008 ranked 2nd (behind Browns D'Qwell Jackson's 154 tackles) and his 152 tackles in 2009 ranked 1st.
- Became the first 49er since S Ronnie Lott to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first three seasons.

2009:

- Earned Pro Bowl honors for the third consecutive season and All–Pro honors for the second time in his career after leading the team in tackles (173) and TFLs (13). According to statistics compiled by the Elias Sports Bureau, he led the NFL in stops (152), marking the second time in his career he has accomplished this feat (2007 – 174 tackles).
- Ranked t–2nd in the NFL among linebackers with 3 INTs.
- Posted a career–high 4.0 sacks.
- Registered his 2nd career INT at Arz. (9/13). Also had 14 tackles to go along with 2 PDs and 2 TFLs.
- Recorded 2nd career INT return for a TD, returning a QB Kyle Boller pass 23 yds. for a score, while posting a career–high 2.5 sacks to go along with 11 tackles vs. StL (10/4). He became the first player in franchise history, and just the third player in the NFL since the sack became an official statistic in 1982, to tally at least 2.5 sacks and an INT return for a TD in the same game.
- Posted 13 tackles and 2 FFs vs. Atl. (10/11), marking the first time a 49ers player forced 2 fumbles in a game since 1998.
- Sacked QB Kurt Warner and registered a FF vs. Arz. (12/14).
- Registered an INT, 12 tackles and a PD vs. Det. (12/27).

2008:

- Led the team with 185 tackles as he earned Pro Bowl honors for second consecutive season.
- At Sea. (9/14), recorded first career INT, returning a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass for an 86–yd. TD, which is the longest INT return by a 49ers LB in team history.
- Posted 13 tackles, 2 PDs, and 1 FR at NO (9/28). His FR occurred at the 49ers 3–yd. line to prevent a Saints score.
- Tallied 4th career 20–plus tackle game after finishing with a franchise–record 22 stops vs. NE (10/6), which also included a sack.
- Tallied 16 tackles, which included 2 key stops on Rams final drive to preserve the 17–16 come–from–behind victory at StL (12/24).

2007:

- Earned starting role in training camp and totaled 226 tackles, 4 sacks, 2 FFs, 1 FR and 6 PDs. Received numerous accolades, including Defensive Rookie of the Year, All–Pro and Pro Bowl honors.
- Led defense with 15 tackles to go along with 1 FF in season–opener vs. Arz. (9/10) and was named Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week.
- Recorded a 21 tackles to go along with a half sack at Arz. (11/25). In a defining moment, ran down WR Sean Morey from behind in OT to prevent him from scoring game–winning TD after a 62–yd. gain. Was named the GMC Defensive POW and the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week for his efforts.
- Posted 20 tackles at Car. (12/2), marking second consecutive game in which he tallied 20 tackles–or–more.
- Registered 10 tackles and 1 FR vs. Min. (12/9), helping the defense hold NFL's then–leading rusher RB Adrian Peterson to 3 yds. on 14 carries.
- Totaled 20 tackles, 2 sacks, 1 FF and 1 PD vs. TB (12/23), and was named GMC Defensive POW. It marked his first career multi–sack game.
- Closed out season at Cle. (12/30) with 16 tackles and 1 sack.

COLLEGE:

Saw action in 45 games with 22 starts, totaling 355 tackles, 11 sacks, 5 FFs and 1 INT during career at Mississippi. Became first Ole Miss player to lead SEC in tackles (128 in 2005 and 137 in 2006) since Abdul Jackson posted 139 in 1994. His 137 tackles ranked 7th on school's season–record list. Named Butkus Award winner in 2006, becoming first player in school history to earn award. Named first–team All–SEC and SEC Defensive POY by Associated Press and league's coaches as a senior after starting 12 games and posting 137 tackles, 3 sacks, 2 FFs, 1 FR and 7 PDs. Tallied at least 10 tackles in 11 contests. Earned South Team Defensive MVP honors at 2007 Senior Bowl, leading all players with 11 stops to go along with 1 FF. Named first–team All–SEC as a junior, leading team with 128 tackles to go along with 3 sacks, 1 INT and 4 PDs.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Central HS in Bruceton, TN, where he earned Class "A" Mr. Football honors and was a two–time All–State choice, helping lead team to 2001 and 2002 Regional Championship and State Quarterfinals.
- Totaled 494 tackles, 23 sacks and 13 INTs (6 returned for TDs) on defense, while tallying 276 carries for 2,486 yds. with 39 TDs and 51 catches for 946 yds. with 17 TDs on offense.
- Also earned 4 letters in basketball and 3 in baseball, garnering all–district in each sport.
- Brother, Orey, recently received his welding degree.
- Sister, Ernicka, transferred to Lane College from Jackson State for the upcoming school year. She was on the basketball team at Jackson State, and plans to play on the basketball team at Lane College.
- Born Patrick L. Willis (1/25/85) in Bruceton, TN.
- Graduated with a degree in criminal justice. He finished his degree while training for the NFL Draft. "I was determined to graduate."

A versatile and powerful offensive lineman, Tony Wragge has served as a valuable player for the 49ers over the past five seasons. Wragge has made starts at center and both guard positions during his career. Originally signed as a rookie free agent by Arizona in 2002, he joined the 49ers in 2005 to provide depth in the trenches.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed by Arz. as a rookie free agent in 2002...Waived by Arz. on 8/27/02...Signed by Arz. to the practice squad on 10/30/02...Signed by Arz. to the 53-man roster from the practice squad on 11/22/02...Waived by Arz. on 8/30/03...Signed by Arz. to the practice squad on 11/11/03...Signed by Arz. on 1/12/04...Waived by Arz. on 9/5/04...Signed by SF as a free agent on 7/7/05...Waived by SF on 9/10/05...Signed by SF on 11/29/05...Allocated to NFL Europa's Rhein Fire on 1/11/06...Re-signed by SF on 3/5/07.

GOLDMINE:

- Aside from his rigorous football training during the offseason, Tony has kept a busy off-the-field schedule as well. In 2010, Tony served as a coaching intern at Cal-Berkeley during the team's spring ball sessions. The internship was not solely coaching oriented, but rather an opportunity for Tony to learn aspects of academic eligibility, recruiting and player evaluation. A year prior, he not only took part in the NFL's Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at Harvard Business School, but he was one of 24 players to participate in the NFL's Broadcast Boot Camp in June.
- One of Tony's greatest accomplishments was earning his college degree in individualized studies, specifically physical education, in 2008. "I wanted to finish my degree for about seven or eight years and it was tough with my football obligations. I talked with an advisor and was able to accrue my final nine credits by taking courses online through New Mexico State's College of Extended Learning. I now have my sights on obtaining a Master's degree in primary or secondary education." Once Tony's playing days are over, he has aspirations to work in administration, teaching or coaching.
- Tony earned valuable experience in 2006 as a member of the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe. Coincidentally, Tony played for current 49ers defensive line coach, Jim Tomsula, who was the Fire's head coach. "I was very fortunate to play for coach Tomsula. He knows his path, the direction the team wanted to go and got everyone on the same page. That's a winning formula. He obviously didn't play defensive back or quarterback, but he knows what it takes for those positions to be successful." While overseas, Wragge became friends with teammate Harvey Dahl, who has gone on to become the starting guard for the Atlanta Falcons. The two still reminisce about their playing days for the Fire from time to time.
- Tony and his wife spent a week at the Winter Olympics in Vancouver. Some of their favorite events to watch were the men's and women's hockey games, as well as the women's luge event in Whistler. The most memorable part of their trip was attending the opening ceremony that kicked off the Olympics.
- Tony grew up on a 600-acre farm in a small, rural town in Nebraska. So rural in fact that the closest McDonald's was located more than an hour away in Yankton, South Dakota. "It's a peaceful and tranquil environment to grow up in, but it was also a lot of hard work." Tony started working on his family's farm at a young age. His responsibilities included helping his dad, a dairy farmer, milk 60 cows twice a day, while also tending to the various crops and feeder cattle on the farm. For Tony, a typical day involved waking up at 5:30 in the morning to milk the cows, getting on the school bus at 7:30, and then returning to the farm at 3:30 pm to help his dad. "There's always something to do on the farm. It's often said that farmers don't take vacations, and I can vouch for that."
- One of Tony's favorite sports to watch on television is power-lifting, particularly the Strongman competitions. "I enjoy watching these guys compete in all the different events, from the log throw to pulling trucks to carrying stones. The power these guys produce is absolutely phenomenal." Tony, who is no stranger to the sport, competed in power-lifting at the high school level and was part of his school's state championship team as a senior. At 270 pounds, Tony still holds the Nebraska state high school lifting records for the deadlift (580 lbs) and bench press (365 lbs).

2009 (San Francisco):

- Saw action in 15 games.
- Stepped in at RG in place of an injured David Baas at GB (11/22).

- Played in 16 games, starting first 10 contests at RG.
- Started at RG vs. Arz. (9/7) and moved to C for one series in place of an injured Eric Heitmann.
- Part of an O-line that did not allow a sack at Arz. (11/10), breaking a 31-game streak by the Cardinals defense with at least 1 sack.

2007 (San Francisco):

- Played in 5 games as a reserve O-lineman. Did not play in 3 contests and was inactive another 8 games.
- Saw first action of season on O-line late in game at Car. (12/2) at RG in place of Baas, who left with an elbow injury.

2006 (San Francisco):

- Saw action in 14 games with 4 starts, starting 2 contests at LG and 2 games at C.
- Started at LG vs. StL (9/17) when starting Larry Allen was sidelined with a knee injury.
- Started at LG vs. SD (10/15) in place of Allen, who was inactive while recovering from a MCL sprain.
- Saw extensive playing time at C at Sea. (12/14) after Eric Heitmann broke his tibia in 1st qtr. Helped pave the way for 228 rushing yds.
- Started at C vs. Arz. (12/24) and at Den. (12/31) in place of Heitmann, who was placed on IR.

2005 (San Francisco):

- Signed (11/29), but did not play in final 5 games of season.
- Allocated to NFL Europa (1/11/06) and played for Rhein Fire during spring.

2004:

- Out of football.

2003 (Arizona):
- Signed to practice squad (9/1). Placed on practice squad/Injured list (11/5) with a knee injury.

2002 (Arizona):
- Signed as an undrafted rookie free agent and released (8/26) during pre-season play, but was later re-signed to practice squad (10/30). Was attending class at New Mexico State in October when the Cardinals called him to return.
- Activated to 53-man roster (11/22) and played in 3 games (1 start).
- Played in first NFL game against Det. (12/8) on special teams and made first NFL start at LG at Den. (12/29).

COLLEGE:

Three-year starter at RG at New Mexico State, where he started 34 consecutive games, earning All-Sun Belt honors twice. Led offense that allowed 13 sacks as a senior (fewest in Conference) and generated 4,324 yds. of total offense (360.3 yds. per game).

PERSONAL:
- Prep athlete at Bloomfield Community (NE) HS, where he earned Class C-2 all-Nebraska honors as a junior and senior. Also a two-time All-Northeast Nebraska Athletic Conference selection and conference POY.
- Also named Northeast Nebraska POY after each of his high school seasons.
- Worked at Home Depot in 2004 before joining the 49ers.
- Met wife, Nicole, at New Mexico St. She was a volleyball player on academic scholarship. She received a career-ending concussion her freshman year and then worked in the PR department for New Mexico St. They started dating in college.
- The couple has two daughters, Addison and Avery.
- Born Tony Wragge (8/14/79) in Creighton, NE.

A sure–handed receiver, Dominique Zeigler provides depth to a talented 49ers receiving corps. He saw actions in 8 games as both a wide receiver and punt returner in 2008. Zeigler was originally signed as a rookie free agent by the 49ers in 2007 and spent his entire rookie year on the 49ers practice squad.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed by SF as a rookie free agent on 5/3/07...Waived by SF on 8/26/07...Signed by SF to the practice squad on 9/2/07...Signed by SF as a free agent on 1/14/08...Waived by SF on 8/31/08...Signed by SF to the practice squad on 9/3/08...Signed by SF to the active roster on 11/8/08... GOLDMINE:

- An avenue that Dominique has already begun pursuing as a potential post–football career move is broadcasting. During the 2010 offseason, he interned at Comcast SportsNet Bay Area. He learned how to produce and edit highlight videos and how to put together a 30–minute show and its stems. "I thought it was something that I would be interested in and something dealing with sports. A lot of people are scared to talk in front of the camera. That's not me."
- Dominique spent some time back home in Killeen, TX, speaking to kids at the local high schools about the importance of staying in school and keeping away from gang violence. Zeigler visited with Tampa Bay Buccaneers DT Roy Miller, Chicago Bears WR Joaquin Iglesias and DT Tommie Harris. "We told them that all your dreams can come true, but the most important things is to stay in school and keep your grades up." During their tour, they also visited Fort Hood, one of the military's largest installations in the world, to let the troops know how much they appreciated that the sacrifices they've made for them allow them to play football today.
- Dominique credits both of his parents for raising him properly, but when it came to sports, his father, Robert, was his coach in everything he played until middle school. His father received a scholarship to Miami (OH) University in basketball, before he had to withdraw due to injury. Dominique played a plethora of sports including football, baseball, soccer and basketball.
- Dominique has given some thoughts to what he wants to do in his post–football career and his first choice would be as a high school coach. He feels that the experience that he's gained so far in the NFL, will serve players well in the high school ranks in making the transition into college or the NFL one day. "There's so much that I've learned from college and being up in the pros that I had no clue about in high school. It would help develop kids in that area a lot better."
- Spent the entire season on the 49ers practice squad.

2008:

- Was named the Thomas Herrion Memorial Award winner. Spent first 8 weeks on the 49ers practice squad.
- Signed to active roster (11/8) and saw first career action at Arz. (11/10), catching a key pass for 22 yds. on a 2nd–and–25 play with 3:15 remaining.
- Tallied 2 catches for 44 yds. vs. NYJ (12/7), including a 31–yd. recept. to position 49ers for their first TD of the game.
- Utilized as a punt returner at Mia. (12/14) in place of KR Allen Rossum (ankle). Returned 2 punts for no gain and had 3 fair catches in windy conditions.

2007:

- Spent 15 weeks on practice squad before suffering a knee injury in practice and being placed on practice squad/injured list (12/18).

COLLEGE:

Appeared in 42 career games (30 starts) at Baylor. Started 10 of 11 games as a senior and registered 54 catches for 741 yds. and 3 TDs. Started all 11 games as a junior and posted 48 catches for team–highs of 563 yds. and 5 TDs. Saw action in 10 games (9 starts) and led team in catches (55) and ranked 2nd in rec. yds. (536) and TDs (5). Caught 9 passes for 83 yds. as a freshman in 10 games.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Harker Heights HS in Killeen, TX, where he lettered in football and track.
- Played QB as a senior and completed 89 of 166 passes for 1,511 yds. and 15 TDs, adding 414 rus. yds., while leading team to an 11–2 record and district title.
- Was a two–year starter at WR as a junior and sophomore, earning first–team all–district honors.
- Recorded nation's best long jump and captured the Texas state high jump crown. Finished 3rd in high jump (7'0 1/4) and 6th in long jump (22'7 1/4) at 2003 USA Junior Championships.
- Learned to cook from his mom. He tries to stay away from fried food, but his favorite meal to cook is fried pork chops with mashed potatoes and greens.
- Born Dominique Roderick Allen Zeigler (10/11/84) in Kalamazoo, MI.

2010 DRAFT CLASS

Anthony Davis, a two–year starter at left tackle for Rutgers, was regarded as one of the top tackles in the draft class. Armed with tremendous size and strength, Davis will look to bolster the 49ers offensive line. Davis entered the 2010 NFL Draft after his junior season at Rutgers.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the first of two 1st–round (11th overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

GOLDMINE:

- Anthony saw firsthand the struggles of life, such as people being shot, but that never discouraged Anthony, or the person he leaned on, his mom. "My mom made it happen, she never played the victim. She always taught me you've got to do what you've got to do." When Anthony was in the 8th grade, the family moved from their rough neighborhood in Irvington to Piscataway. "When we moved to Piscataway that's when I started playing football. Obviously, it was a good move."
- Anthony got his first tattoo when he was 15 and has added many more tattoos on his arms, including one of his favorites on his right hand. "The eye on my hand means wisdom and protection." His favorite tattoo so far is on the inside of his left forearm, "Wealth is of the heart and the mind, not the wallet." The other ink on his arms range from the Scarlet Knight, a dream catcher and a clown in a straight jacket, "I haven't named him yet."

Played in 38 games (32 starts) for the Scarlet Knights, including 9 contests at RG and 23 games at LT. Named All–American first–team selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, third–team All–American honors from The Sporting News while earning second–team All–Big East honors, after starting all 12 games at LT as a junior. Shifted to LT as a sophomore in 2008 and earned first–team All–Big East Conference honors, helping Rutgers lead the conference and rank 18th in the nation in passing (270.4 ypg). Received Freshman All–American first–team honors from the Football Writers Association and The Sporting News, at RG.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Piscataway (NJ) HS, where he was a three–year starter on the O–line and was named first–team All–American by USA Today.
- Was a high school teammate of CB Malcolm Jenkins, who was a 1st round pick by the New Orleans Saints in the 2009 NFL Draft, and CB Kyle Wilson, a 1st round selection by the New York Jets in the 2010 NFL Draft.
- Born Anthony Davis (10/11/89) in Piscataway, NJ.
- Majored in criminal justice.

Mike Iupati, a hard–nosed guard out of Idaho, brings attitude and toughness to the 49ers. Known for his rare combination of size and athleticism, Iupati will look to compete for a starting role along the team's offensive line.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of two 1st–round (17th overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

GOLDMINE:

- After being born and raised in American Samoa, Mike and his family left all of their belongings and moved to California when he was 14 years old. The family moved in with his aunt and uncle and lived there for a year before settling in Orange County. Mike only knew part of the English language and really had to work extra hard to learn the language in school. "It was hard. We spoke English in school, but when I got home we spoke Samoan. We didn't have the comfort of speaking English for about 2–3 years."
- Mike's brother did all of the tattoos on his arm and leg. All of the art on his body reflects on the Samoan culture. "Some of them are Fala, the centipede, the waves, the ocean, fish. It goes back to what we normally use." The lion on his leg was art work that Mike liked and asked his brother to also put it on his leg with a Polynesian design around it.
- Although Mike has not lived in American Samoa for several years, his mother will never let him forget his culture. "My mom was tough on us, but it's discipline. That's why a lot of Polynesians are disciplined when they come to the U.S. You have to always respect your elders. It's our culture."

A three–year starter at Idaho, played in 35 games (33 starts) in his career. Started all 13 games at LG as a senior and became just the second non–BCS player to be named a finalist for the Outland Trophy since the award's inception in 1946 (Willie Roaf, Lousiana Tech – 1992). Also earned All–American first–team honors by the NFL Draft Report, Walter Camp Football Foundation, The American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers of America, Associated Press and Sports Illustrated. In addition, was named first–team All–WAC and was the only active member to be named to the WAC's All–Decade team. Helped lead the Vandals to their first winning season since 1999 and paved the way for an offense that ranked 9th in the nation in total offense (451.4 ypg). As a junior, started the final eight games at LG on his way to earning All–WAC first–team honors by the NFL Draft Report. Started all 12 games at LG as a sophomore in 2007 after serving in a reserve role as a freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Western HS in Anaheim, CA, where he was a captain and played on both sides of the ball, receiving all–state and all–conference honors as a senior.
- Competed on the school's wrestling and track teams.
- Young brother, Andrew, is a defensive tackle for the University of Oregon.
- His family moved to the United States when Mike was 14, moving in with relatives in Garden Grove, CA.
- Was a high school teammate of DT Fili Moala, who was selected in the 2nd round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.
- Born Michael Iupati (5/12/87) in American Samoa.
- Graduated with a degree in general studies.

A four–year starter at USC, Taylor Mays is an explosive safety with great size and speed. He adds immediate depth and physicality to the 49ers defensive back–field.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally 2nd–round (49th overall) draft choice by SF in 2010.

GOLDMINE:

- Taylor is following in the footsteps of his idol – former 49er great Ronnie Lott. Taylor plays the same position, attended USC where he was an All–American and was drafted by the 49ers just like Lott. He tried to emulate him in everything he did growing up and has the opportunity to continue that with the 49ers. Taylor speaks to Lott weekly, "It has amplified our relationship a little bit, now he's really in my ear telling me what he thinks. I'm just doing everything I can to do the best for myself and maybe one day carry on what he did for this team, the organization and the NFL."
- Without question, football has had a lasting impression on Taylor's life, but there's no possiblity of him being where he is today without the strength and support of his parents. "The way they raised me, they were a big influence. The trials and tribulations that come from football have helped develop me to who I am today. My parents have been and will be there forever."

COLLEGE:

Played in 51 games (50 starts) for the Trojans, registering 276 tackles, 5 INTs, 2 FRs, and 1 FF. Earned first–team All–American honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation to go along with second–team accolades from the Associated Press and The NFL Draft Report, as a senior. The consensus All–Pac 10 first–team selection started all 12 games, leading the team and ranking 2nd in the Pac–10 with 96 tackles, while adding 1 INT and 1 FR in 2009. As a junior, selected first–team All–American by The NFL Draft Report, Associated Press, Football Writers Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, The Sporting News, ESPN, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly and College Football News. One of three finalists for the Jim Thorpe Award, the All–Pac 10 first–team choice started all 13 games, notching 53 tackles and helping USC lead the nation in pass defense (134.4 ypg), opponents pass efficiency (85.75) and scoring defense (9.0 ppg), while finishing 2nd in total defense (221.8 ypg) in 2008. As a sophomore, started every game at FS, earning All–American first–team honors from The NFL Draft Report and The Sporting News after finishing 3rd on the team with 65 tackles on a Trojans defense that ranked 2nd in the nation in total defense (273.2 ypg) and scoring defense (16.0 ppg). Named Defensive Freshman of the Year by College Football News, finishing the sea–son with 62 tackles and 3 INTs after taking over the starting FS duties in the team's second game.

PERSONAL:

- Attended O'Dea HS in Seattle, WA, where he earned first–team All–Amer–ican honors from Parade, Super Prep, Prep Star, USA Today and EA Sports. Was also named league's Defensive Co–MVP as a senior defensive back after recording 166 tackles and 5 INTs. Also named league's offensive MVP, catching 36 passes for 765 yds. with 15 TDs and adding 3 more rus. scores, in his final year.
- Was a two–time (2004–05) Class 3A state champion in the 100m and 200m on the track team, with a personal best of 10.88 in the 100m.
- His father, Stafford Mays, was a defensive lineman at the University of Washington from 1978–79, and played in the NFL for the St. Louis Cardinals (1980–86) and Minnesota Vikings (1987–88).
- Born Taylor Mays (2/7/88) in Seattle, WA.

A speedy and athetic defender, Navorro Bowman was a two–year starter for the Nittany Lions of Penn State. His speed and toughness fit perfectly into the 49ers defense.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 3rd–round (91st overall) draft choice by SF in 2010.

GOLDMINE:

- Former Hall of Fame linebacker and current 49ers Head Coach Mike Singletary saw something he liked in Navorro. Being drafted by a coach with the resume Coach Singletary has really means a lot to Navorro and he's using this time to learn everything he can under Singletary's tutelage. "It means a lot with me playing linebacker and my head coach being a linebacker. It shows what he wants in his linebackers. For him to draft me, I must have something that he likes…I really appreciate him having the faith in me to play for this team. I'm willing to learn anything I can from him."
- Navorro was born and raised just outside of Washington D.C. in a high crime environment. It was a tough environment to avoid, but sports became the outlet and a means for not giving into the streets and drugs. "My parents have been with me since day one. Also, having a support system like my high school coach who really let me know early on that I had something special and I shouldn't mess it up."
- Navorro earned his degree in criminal law and justice, and one day would like to use that to help out his hometown. With all of the violence and drugs in District Heights, MD, he believes being from that area will help others listen to him and there are other ways to live life than what they currently know. "That's one of the reasons I got in that field to open doors and possibly be able to get into a young child's head in my neighborhood that's very hard–headed and doesn't want to listen to anyone that he doesn't know."
- Two important and influential people in Navorro's life recently and abruptly passed away. His father passed away from a blood clot that reached his heart and his high school coach died in a car accident before Penn State's bowl game two years ago. "Dealing with as much adversity as I have in a short period of time has made me the man I am today. For me to stay on track and strive to do those things that will possibly help me be successful, not just on the football field, but off the field also."

COLLEGE:

Played in 33 games (21 starts) and totaled 215 tackles, 8.0 sacks, 36 TFLs, 3 FFs, 3 FRs and 3 INTs in his career. Also returned 1 INT and 1 FR for TDs. Earned second–team All–American honors from The NFL Draft Report, The Sporting News, CBS Sports, Phil Steele's College Football, Rvials.com and Sports Illustrated, while garnering third–team honors from the Associated Press and College Football News as a junior. Started 11 games and was named first–team All–Big Ten after registering 93 tackles, 17 TFLs, 3.0 sacks, 2 INTs and 2 FRs, in 2009. Was a consensous All–Big Ten Conference first–team selection as he led the team in tackles (106), ranked 2nd in TFLs (16.5) and t–3rd in sacks (4.0) in 2008, despite not moving into the starting lineup until the fourth game of the season. Added 2 FFs, 1 FR and 1 INT in his sophomore season. As a redshirt freshman, appeared in 9 contests and tallied 16 tackles and blocked a field goal attempt.

PERSONAL:

- Starred at Suitland HS in District Heights, MD, where he was selected as the Maryland Defensive POY, first–team all–state, Washington Post first–team all–metro and first–team all–conference after registering 165 tackles, 9.0 sacks and 3 FRs, while also rushing for 1,200 yds. and 22 TDs.
- Has a son, Navorro Jr.
- Born Navorro R. Bowman (5/28/88) in District Heights, MD.
- Graduated in three years with a degree in crime, law and justice.

A strong and powerful running back from Mississippi State, Anthony Dixon brings additional toughness to the 49ers backfield. For a back his size, Dixon is deceptively agile.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally first of three 6th–round (173th overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

GOLDMINE:

- Anthony was put in a unique situation when he was 10 years–old. His parents had divorced the previous year and debts piled on to where the family became homeless. "As soon as we hit rock bottom, I knew what time it was. It was time for me to step up and become the man of the house. I'm just trying to provide for my family and provide for my momma so she doesn't have to go through that again. I'm really just sacrificing my body for them." Dixon had a lot of free time on his hands growing up while his mom worked three different jobs. It was his responsibility to watch his younger brothers and take care of them until his mom got home from work. "I had to grow up before it was my time, but it made me stronger today just seeing that and going through that."

COLLEGE:

Played in 48 games (40 starts) and set school records with 3,994 yds. on 910 carries (4.4 ypc) and 42 TDs rushing. Also added 56 receptions for 449 yds. and 4 TDs. Became the 7th player in SEC history to lead his team in rushing four times. Only RB Herschel Walker (994 carries) had more carries in SEC history, while his 42 TDs rank t–6th in SEC history. Eclipsed the 100–yd. plateau in 17 games, surpassing RB Jerious Norwood's school record of 13, 100–yd. Set the school record for most points in a career (276) and most all–purpose yds. (4,443 yds.). Earned first–team All–SEC honors as well as third–team All–American honors, as a senior. Became the 3rd Bulldog to claim the Conerly Trophy awarded to the top collegiate player in the state of Mississippi. Rushed for a school–record 1,391 yds. on 257 carries and 12 TDs in 2009, while breaking Mississippi State's record for most 100–yd. games in a season (8). His 126.5 ypg led the SEC and ranked 6th in the nation. Started all 12 games as a junior and rushed for 869 yds. on 197 carries and 7 TDs. Also set his single–season high with 20 receptions for 117 yds in 2008. As a sophomore, played in 13 games (12 starts) and set a single–season school record with 287 carries as he became the first Bulldog sophomore to surpass 1,000 yds. in a season (1,066 yds.). Appeared in 12 games as a true freshman and set school season–records for freshman, while leading the team with 668 yds. on 169 carries and 9 TDs.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Terry HS in New Augusta, MS, where he was named first–team all–state by the Jackson Clarion–Ledger and the Mississippi Association of Coaches following his senior season, when he rushed for 2,683 yds. on 204 carries and 31 TDs. Also earned Metro POY honors as he gained over 150 yds. in 11 of 13 contests and led his team to the state quarterfinals. Selected to play in the Mississippi–Alabama High School All–Star Game.
- Was also a standout baseball player.
- Has 4 brothers; Antwan (20) plays football at Midwestern (a D–II school) in Texas; Rashun (19) was drafted in the 10th round by the Oakland A's in 2008 and currently plays for the A's Class–A affiliate, Kane County; Deshan (18) is a top baseball prospect; Ontario Buford (10) is in the 4th grade.
- Born Anthony Rishard Dixon (9/24/87) in Jackson, MS.

Nate Byham, considered one of the best blocking tight ends in the 2010 NFL Draft, provides a physical presence to the 49ers tight end position. A three–year starter at the University of Pittsburgh, Byham has shown an ability to create space and knock defenders off the ball, while also serving as a reliable receiver.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the second of three 6th–round (182nd overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

GOLDMINE:

- Nate was raised by his grandfather, Ron, from the time he was born. Nate's mom became pregnant with him when she was a junior in high school. Although she tried to raise Nate, her battle with drug and alcohol abuse was too difficult. Nate's grandparents intervened and offered to raise him. Tragically, a short time after taking him in, his grandmother passed away, leaving Ron with a baby boy. Nate stayed with his grandfather up until high school when he was able to have his own car. At that point, Nate's grandfather lived 15 minutes outside of Franklin which was in another school district and they didn't have a football team. "During high school I lived at friends' houses. There were 2–3 families that kind of took me in. I had bedrooms at all of their houses and I lived there and out of my car."
- Nate's grandfather obviously played a huge role in raising him and he continues to be someone he looks up to, but Nate also credits his mother for making him the man he is today. "I saw a lot of things as a child that most grown men haven't seen in their lives. I've seen a lot of eye opening things that made me mature at a young age." By second and third grade, Nate was already taking care of himself and knew what he was going to have to do to get by. "That adversity molded me and helped me become a man."
- Nate had an amazing high school career at Franklin High School and they recently retired his jersey. "Coming from a small town like Franklin, I didn't really realize the numbers that I was putting up." It was a big honor for Nate to become only the second person to have a jersey retired at his high school. "It was a pretty great experience."

COLLEGE:

A three–year starter, saw action in 48 games (36 starts) during his career. A team captain as a senior, earned second–team All–Big East honors after starting 12 games and catching 10 passes for 108 yds. Selected first–team All–Big East as a junior, recording 20 catches for 260 yds. in 12 starts. Started the first 11 games of season as a sophomore, missing season–finale due to a knee injury, and posted 15 catches for 210 yds. and 1 TD. Contributed as a reserve tight end as a true freshman, playing in 11 games (1 start) and posting two catches for 34 yds. with 1 TD.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Franklin (PA) HS, where he helped lead his team to three district playoff berths as a three–year starter, seeing action at both TE and LB. Considered the nation's top TE by Scout.com and was named first–team all–state, all–region, all–district, and all–conference after recording 45 catches for 883 yds. and school–record 9 TDs as a senior.
- Had his No. 20 high school jersey retired.
- Was an all–star performer in basketball, helping Franklin win the state AAA championship in 2006.
- Born Nathan Arthur Byham (6/27/88) in Franklin, PA.
- Majored in communications rhetoric and minor in computer science and plans on getting his masters degree in business after he is finished with his football career.

An explosive receiver and returner, Kyle Williams served as an all–purpose threat during his four–year career at Arizona State. He adds speed and depth to the 49ers receiving corps, as well as a playmaker on special teams.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally the third of three 6th–round (206th overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

PERSONAL:

- Kyle's father, Kenny, is a former major league outfielder and the current general manager of the Chicago White Sox, a title he has held for 10 years. "It's been a great opportunity and an advantage to be around some pros and the best guys in the league growing up." It was an opportunity Kyle learned that very few other children get the chance to see. He saw firsthand what it took to be a professional athlete and believes that experience will help him in his current career.
- Kyle was selected in the 47th round of the 2006 MLB Draft by the Chicago White Sox out of high school.
- People doubted Kyle's ability growing up because of his size. "People telling me that I wouldn't make it fueled me. That's been the biggest motivating force that I've had."

COLLEGE:

Saw action in 41 games (15 starts) during his four–year career. Totaled 109 recepts. for 1,626 yds. and 18 TDs, 74 punt returns for 768 yds. and 31 kickoff returns for 709 yds. in his career. Played in 11 games (9 starts) as a catches for 815 yds. and 8 TDs, while also returning 23 punt returns for 229 yds. Ranked 4th on team with 364 receiving yds. on 19 catches and a team–high tying 4 TDs as a junior, seeing action in 11 games (2 starts). Led the Pac–10 by averaging 17.0 yds. per punt return, earning Honorable Mention All–Pac–10 honors as a returner after posting 238 yds. on 14 returns as he shared duties with senior Nate Kimbrough. Served as team's primary kickoff return man and recorded 27 returns for 630 yds. As a sophomore, played in 13 games (3 starts) and ranked 2nd on team with 6 TD catches, finishing the season with 29 recepts. for 360 yds. Also served as ASU's primary punt returner, earning All–Pac–10 first–team honors after posting 23 returns for 224 yds. Appeared in 6 games (1 start) as a true freshman and caught 4 passes for 87 yds., while also returning 14 punts for 77 yds. and 4 kickoffs for 79 yds.

PERSONAL:

- Starred at Chaparral HS in Scottsdale, AZ, and recorded 30 recepts. for 625 yds. with 6 TDs, 1,160 rushing yds. on 108 carries, 15 punt returns for 316 yds. with 3 TDs and 9 kickoff returns for 364 yds. and 2 TDs. Was named The Arizona Republic Big School State POY, first–team All–American by EA Sports, all–state first–team by The Arizona Republic, AZFCA first–team 4A all–state, the Barry Sollenberger High School POY.
- Led Chaparral to an 11–2 record and a league title in 2005.
- A majority of his family lives in the Bay Area.
- Born Kyle Williams (7/19/88) in San Jose, CA.

Armed with solid ball-hawking skills, Phillip Adams adds depth in the defensive backfield, while looking to contribute on special teams.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 7th-round (224nd overall) draft choice by SF in 2010.

GOLDMINE:

- Last October was when Phillip's life really changed. During the middle of the football season, he got a call saying his mom had been in a car accident and was paralyzed from the neck down. "That's really when I came to a whole different level. It's something I've never dealt with so I had to man-up and do what I have to do. It made me a stronger man." Phillip has talked with his mother and they've realized the similarities they're both going through in their personal lives. "She understands that the way I have to work in football is the way she has to work to walk. She knows that she has to push herself because she doesn't want to sit forever."
- Attending South Carolina State didn't provide the same publicity for Phillip as other schools in the Big 12, SEC or Pac-10. "I come from a small school and that doesn't matter. It was hard for me because we didn't have the means so I had to work harder. It's a challenge, but as long as you don't worry about where the other guy comes from. We're all the same now."

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2009
SAN FRANCISCO 20, ARIZONA 16
UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM ~ 61,981

Head coach Mike Singletary delivered a very simple message to his team in advance of their season opening matchup against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals ... "Believe." His players did just that as they battled through a tremendously physical game highlighted by impressive defensive efforts from both squads. After being stymied on offense for more than 3 quarters, the 49ers embarked on a 15–play, 80–yd. drive that consumed 7:26 of clock time en route to a 3–yd., go–ahead TD pass from QB Shaun Hill to RB Frank Gore. On the drive, offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye scrapped the run game that he had dialed up all afternoon and left the contest to Hill's right arm. The QB responded, going 9 of 13 for 72 yds. and the TD to Gore. On the series, Hill utilized his playmakers including TE Vernon Davis who hauled in 4 passes for 35 yds. The 49ers opened the scoring in the 1st quarter after All–Pro LB Patrick Willis launched himself high in the air to intercept a QB Kurt Warner pass to set his team up at the ARZ 36. Six plays later K Joe Nedney connected on a 37–yd. FG. Nedney later connected on a 50–yd. FG to give the Niners a 6–0 lead entering the 2nd stanza. The Cardinals finally got some offense going in the 2nd quarter as K Neil Rackers drilled a 44–yd. FG on their first possession. As the 49ers run game continued to struggle, Hill aired the ball out to All–Pro WR Isaac Bruce on a 50–yd. bomb, setting the offense up at the 6–yd. line. With a tired Arizona defense, the 49ers called on Gore the very next play. He hit pay dirt, plunging through a massive hole into the endzone. With the momentum in their favor, CB Nate Clements capitalized on another Warner mistake, and intense pressure from his defensive front, as he hauled in his first interception of the year. Clements' effort, and those of his defensive backfield mates, limited one of the game's best WR tandems in Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin to a combined 8 recepts. for 90 yds. and 1 TD. The men up front turned in an impressive performance as well, logging 3 sacks and 22 QB hits. The 49ers were unable to capitalize on Clements' pick, as Hill was sacked and forced to fumble on the next series. The Cardinals jumped on the opportunity, posting another Rackers' FG, this time from 29 yds. San Francisco left the field at the half with a 13–6 lead. The Cardinals carried momentum into the 3rd quarter, and on their 2nd possession, Warner led his team on a 69–yd. scoring drive that resulted in a 5–yd. TD pass to Fitzgerald, knotting the score at 13. After a 49ers 3–n–out, Arizona again moved the ball to post points, a 43–yd. FG by Rackers just seconds into the 4th quarter, for the Cardinals final points of the game. The Niners would then embark on their game–winning drive and back it up with a defensive performance that paralyzed the Cardinals.

Notes: Hill became the 2nd undrafted QB to start the regular season opener in 49ers history, joining Jeff Garcia (2000–03) ... Willis recorded his 2nd–career INT, while Clements registered his 30th ... Nedney posted his 7th career FG of 50–or–more yds. (most in franchise history) ... Gore had a rushing and receiving TD in the same game for the first time in his career.

The San Francisco 49ers took a step forward in the NFC West race as they defeated the Seattle Seahawks in their home opener, 23–10, becoming the only team in the division to start 2009 with a 2–0 record. The 49ers ground attack exploded on the Seahawks defense, registering 256 yards rushing, of which 207 came on the back of RB Frank Gore as he posted the 2nd–highest outing of his career. For the 2nd–straight week the Niners defense shut down their opponent, limiting them to just 283 yards of total offense and a 29% conversion rate on 3rd downs. Following a 3–n–out start by the Seahawks, the 49ers embarked on a 55–yd. drive to start the game that culminated in a 37–yd. K Joe Nedney FG for the game's first points. The 49ers defenders quickly retrieved the ball from Seattle, forcing a punt that set the Niners up at their own 21 yd. line. The very next play Gore blasted through the offensive line and dashed 79 yds. for a score, extending the lead to 10–0. Seattle posted its first points of the game early in the 2nd qtr. as QB Matt Hasselbeck directed the team to the SF 18, where K Olindo Mare booted a 36–yd. FG. After trading possessions, the 49ers were provided tremendous field position by a Seattle punt that was downed at the SEA 43. San Francisco was unable to register a first down and settled for another Nedney FG, this time from 42 yds. With less than 3 minutes remaining, Hasselbeck impressively directed the Seahawks to the SF 1, where he was knocked out of the game by a LB Patrick Willis tackle as he attempted to dive into the endzone for a score. On the next play, backup QB Seneca Wallace connected with RB Julius Jones for a 1–yd. TD pass, narrowing the San Francisco lead to 13–10 at the half. Although the Seahawks went into the locker room with the momentum, Gore quickly stole it back on the first play from scrimmage of the 2nd half. Unsatisfied with a 79–yd. TD scamper in the first stanza, Gore galloped 80 yds. to paydirt through a massive hole created by his offensive line. The two teams went scoreless for the remainder of the 3rd, before Nedney connected from 39 yds. out on the 49ers first possession of the 4th quarter to cap a 16–play, 67–yd. drive for the final points of the day.

Notes: Gore (79, 80) became the only other player in NFL history other than Barry Sanders (80 & 82 at TB, 10/12/97) to register 2 TDs runs of 75–yds.–or–more in the same game. His 12.9 yds./carry avg. ranked 2nd in franchise history (min. 10 carries) and was the 3rd–highest single–game avg. (min. 15 carries) in the NFL, since 1970. His 80–yd. TD was the longest of his career while the 79 yarder was the 2nd–longest. Set a career high with 246 yds. from scrimmage. For his efforts, Gore was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week as well as Fedex Ground Player of the Week … C Eric Heitmann started his 100th career game ... CB/KR/PR Allen Rossum became the 7th player in NFL history to amass 300 career punt returns ... S Dashon Goldson recorded his first career INT in the 3rd qtr. (QB Seneca Wallace).

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2009
MINNESOTA 27, SAN FRANCISCO 24
METRODOME ~ 63,398

The 49ers competed like warriors as they traveled to Minnesota for a battle of undefeated NFC foes, only to fall to the Hall of Fame arm of Vikings QB Brett Favre in the waning seconds of the game. With a four–point lead, San Francisco punted into Minnesota's end zone, setting up the Vikings at their own 20 yd.–line with 1:29 left to play. Just 10 plays later, Favre would fire a 32–yd. TD strike to WR Greg Lewis, who was able to tap both feet in bounds as he fell out of the back of the end zone. After the game began with the two teams combining for 3–straight 3–n–outs, the Vikings struck first as Favre connected with WR Sidney Rice from 30 yds. out. The 49ers continued to struggle in the 1st period, posting their 3rd and 4th 3–play drives. After Minnesota extended their early lead to 10 points on a 40–yd. Ryan Longwell FG, Niners QB Shaun Hill directed the team to its first score of the afternoon with a 7–play, 57–yd. drive that culminated in a 5–yd. TD pass to TE Vernon Davis in the back corner of the end zone. Despite forcing a Minnesota 3–n–out on the following possession, the 49ers gave the ball back, as Hill was intercepted by CB Cedric Griffin on a long pass intended for TE Delanie Walker. The Vikings capitalized on the mistake with another Longwell FG, this time from 52 yds. The Niners had no answer for the score on the ensuing series. With momentum in their favor, Minnesota drove to the SF 26, where Longwell set up for a 44–yd. FG attempt. San Francisco settled down the home crowd with one tremendous play, as DT Ray McDonald busted through the left side of the Vikings line and blocked the attempt. A favorable bounce landed the ball in CB Nate Clements hands, who raced 59 yds. for a TD as time expired in the first half, giving the 49ers an improbable 14–13 lead. Just as the game began with the team's trading 3–n–outs, so did the 2nd half. On the Vikings 2nd pos–session, the 49ers again stole the ball, as CB Shawntae Spencer hauled in a deflected Favre pass. Capitalizing on the theft, K Joe Nedney con–nected from 30 yds. The 49ers elation was short–lived. For on the ensu–ing kickoff, rookie returner Percy Harvin exhibited his first–round talent with a 101–yd. scamper that gave the Vikings a 20–17 lead. Two pos–sessions later, the Niners Hill led his offense on an 80–yd. scoring drive that resulted in a 20–yd. TD pass he threaded through multiple defend–ers into the hands of Davis for his 2nd score of the game. San Francisco's lead appeared to be safe as the Vikings stalled on their next two posses–sions, but the Niners offense could not register a first down on their final possession and was forced to give the ball back to Favre one last time.

Note: The 49ers defense limited All–Pro RB Adrian Peterson to just 85 yds. (19 carries), his lowest total in his last 4 regular season games and the first game of the season he did not post a TD ... McDon–ald's blocked FG marked the 2nd of his career ... It also marked the 2nd blocked FG return for a touchdown for Clements ... Da–vis' 2–TD performance was the first multi–TD game of his ca–reer. He also set a career high with 96 receiving yds. and tied a ca–reer high with 7 recepts. ... Nedney became the 42nd player in NFL history to reach the 1,000–point plateau, with 1,004 career points.

In a game best described as a tale of two halves, the San Francisco 49ers flipped the switch in the locker room at halftime to shutout the visiting St. Louis Rams, 35–0, en route to a 3–0 start in the NFC West. As the offense struggled early, the special teams and defensive units lit up the scoreboard. Both defenses held strong for the first 25 minutes of play, until an unlikely unit registered the first points of the day. With the Niners offense stalling at their own 43, their punt team took the field and P Andy Lee then kicked away to the Rams. But, as luck would have it, the ball ricocheted off the leg of Rams DB Quincy Butler and into the end zone, where 49ers LB Scott McKillop pounced for the 1st TD of his young career. As the offenses continued to struggle for the remainder of the half, San Francisco left the field with a 7–0 lead. After trading punts to start the 2nd half, the Niners took over with the ball on the SL 48. Seven plays later QB Shaun Hill connected from 13 yds. out with his new favorite target, TE Vernon Davis, for the first offensive points of the game. With two phases of the game having registered scores, the 49ers defense desperately wanted to join the party. One minute and 28 seconds later, Pro Bowler Patrick Willis exhibited why many see him as the premier LB in the game today, as he baited Rams QB Kyle Boller into an INT, which he then returned 23 yards for the 2nd TD of his career. Willis also added a career–high 2.5 sacks on the day. As the game progressed, the 49ers defense continued its stingy performance that held the Rams to just 177 yds. of offense and 9 first downs all day. The Niners began the final period with the ball on the SL 29. Hill followed up a 5–yd. run by RB Glen Coffee with a 24–yd. strike to Josh Morgan between two defenders to up the lead to 28–0. San Francisco put the nail in the Rams coffin 14 seconds later, as DT Ray McDonald scooped up a Boller fumble on the Rams ensuing possession and trotted 11 yds. into the end zone for the defender's first NFL points.

Note: The team started 3–0 in the division for the first time since 2002 … The shutout marked the 49ers first since 1/6/02 at NO, 38–0, and the first home shut out since 12/16/01 vs. Mia., 21–0 … It was the first time the 49ers scored 3 non–offensive TDs in a game since 12/11/66 vs. Chi. … The 35–point margin of victory was the 49ers largest since 12/7/03 vs. Arz. GAME 5

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2009
ATLANTA 45, SAN FRANCISCO 10
CANDLESTICK PARK – 69,732

The San Francisco 49ers encountered their first big stumbling block of the season as they were handled by the visiting Atlanta Falcons, 45–10. While Atlanta produced 477 yds. of offense, the 49ers could muster just 279 yds. of their own and uncharacteristically lost the turnover battle 3–2. The visitors got on the board quickly with a 7–yd. TD run by RB Michael Turner, followed less than five minutes later by a 31–yd. TD strike from QB Matt Ryan to WR Roddy White. The 49ers battled back late in the 1st qtr. as QB Shaun Hill completed a 61–yd. pass to WR Josh Morgan, setting up a 2–yd. TD scamper by RB Glen Coffee. After stopping the Falcons on their next possession, the 49ers drove 41 yds. and K Joe Nedney drilled a 39–yd. FG. Sadly, those three points would be San Francisco's last of the day. Atlanta rounded out the 1st half with a 90–yd. TD pass from Ryan to White and two Turner scoring dives, the first from 3 yds. out and the second from 1. The Niners halftime deficit was 25, as the Falcons led, 35–10. Despite the improved play of their defense, San Francisco's offense continued to struggle in the 2nd half and finished the day with seven, 3–and–outs. The Falcons controlled the clock in the 2nd half, holding the ball for more than 19 minutes, posting another 10 points. In the 3rd qtr., the Niners saw a positive moment turn into a negative one as CB Dre' Bly interecepted a Ryan pass, only to have it stripped away by the Falcons White. Seven plays later, Atlanta added 3 more points on a 40–yd. FG by K Jason Elam. The final points of the game came after Ryan directed the Falcons on a 13–play, 73–yd. drive, capping it himself by plunging into the endzone from the 1 yd.–line.

Notes: LB Patrick Willis registered 2 forced fumbles in the 3rd qtr., marking the first time that a 49ers player registered 2 forced fumbles in a single game since DE Chris Doleman recorded 3 forced fumbles vs. Carolina (11/8/98) … Coffee scored the first points of his career.

In a game of firsts, the San Francisco 49ers battled back from a 21–pt. first half deficit only to fall to the Houston Texans, 24–21, in the first meeting between the two teams in the state of Texas. The game opened with the first sighting of 49ers 2009 1st round draft pick WR Michael Crabtree, who started the game in a 3–receiver set. In his first appearance in 28 regular season games, Alex Smith replaced starter Shaun Hill at quarterback in the 2nd half and directed the 49ers offense to 21 pts. in the final two qtrs. The spark provided by Smith's presence also ignited the defense's performance, which held the Texans offense to 3 pts. and just 151 yds. in the 2nd half. After trading two possessions apiece to start the game, Houston struck first with an 8–play, 61–yd. drive that was capped by a 1–yd. TD run by RB Steve Slaton. After a San Fran 3–n–out, Houston took over at their own 22 yd.–line. Ten plays later the home team was forced to punt to WR Arnaz Battle. After Battle muffed the catch, Texans WR Andre Davis alertly hopped on the ball at the SF 10. Slaton then posted his 2nd TD of the game with a 9–yd. TD reception from QB Matt Schaub, putting the visitors down 14–0. With Hill still at the controls of the 49ers offense, the team sputtered and was forced to hand the ball back to the Texans, who quickly posted their 3rd TD of the game, this time a 42–yd. pass from QB Matt Schaub to TE Owen Daniels. The 49ers were unable to answer as the half came to a close with Houston ahead, 21–0. San Francisco's offense was the first to take the field in the 2nd half, and to the surprise of those watching, #11 stepped into the huddle at QB. Smith would go on to complete his first three passes, including the team's first score of the day, a 29–yd. TD to TE Vernon Davis. Those points would prove to be the only of the 3rd qtr. for either team. The 49ers began the 4th quarter in the midst of a drive that would result in another Smith–to–Davis TD pass, this time from 14 yds. out. Up by just 7 pts., Houston answered with a 10–play, 53–yd. drive that resulted in a 50–yd. Kris Brown FG. The Smith–led Niners were not out of the game just yet, and with 3:49 remaining, Davis hauled in his 3rd TD reception of the game on a 23–yd. play. Down by three, the 49ers defense forced the Texans to punt on the ensuing possession, allowing their offense to take over at their own 6 yd.–line. On 4th–n–10 at the SF 38, Smith fired a desperation pass in the direction of WR Isaac Bruce that was intercepted by Texans S Eugene Wilson to end the game.

Note: Davis became the first 49ers TE ever to record 3 TD recepts. in one game. His 7 recepts. also tied a career–high ... Smith tied a career–high with 3 TD passes, throwing his first since 10/28/07 vs. NO. In his first action since 11/12/07 at Sea., Smith was 15–22–206–3TDs–1INT in just one half of play (118.6 QB rating) ... WR Isaac Bruce made his 200th career start ... WR Michael Crabtree started his first game as a 49er and registered 5 recepts. for 56 yds.

For the third time in 2009, San Francisco lost a heartbreaker on the road following a valiant effort. This time the victory belonged to the Indianapolis Colts who entered the game with a perfect 6–0 record, and led by an early–season MVP candidate at the helm, All–Pro QB Peyton Manning. Although Manning would throw for 347 yds. on 49 attempts, the only passing TD the host team could muster came from the arm of an unlikely hurler. The 49ers defense gave fits to the Colts all day long as it deflected the advances of their offense on four red zone trips, dragged their seldom–sacked QB to the turf on three occasions and held their ground game to 62 yds. Even more encouraging than the play of the Niners defense was that of QB Alex Smith, who made his first start since 11/12/07 at Sea. He completed 11 of 19 passes for 121 yds. and a TD in the first half and led the team on two scoring drives. The first drive was extremely quick as RB Frank Gore squirted through the line on its second play and dashed 64 yds. for the score. The Colts had to wait until their 3rd possession before registering points, as Manning directed his team to the SF 20, where they were forced to settle for a 38–yd. K Matt Stover FG. On the 49ers next possession, Smith fired a pass to rookie WR Michael Crabtree, who inadvertently tipped the ball into the hands of Colts S Bob Sanders. With the ball at the SF 40, Indy could only advance the ball 19 yds. and again had to settle for a Stover FG, this time from 33–yds. out. The teams traded multiple possessions until the 49ers took over at their own 11 yd.–line with 1:44 left in the half. Smith was impressive as he completed 6 of 7 passes, including an 8–yd. TD to TE Vernon Davis. With :38 remaining in the first stanza, it appeared the 49ers would enter the locker room up 14–6, but an illegal celebration penalty after the Davis TD forced San Fran to kickoff from its own 15 yd.–line. The Colts began their drive from the IND 39, and 4 plays later, Stover connected from 31 yds., setting the score at 14–9. Indianapolis started the 2nd half as they ended the first, with a 40–yd. Stover FG. The balance of the 3rd qtr. remained scoreless, but the Colts were driving as the teams changed sides of the field. On the first play of the qtr., RB Joseph Addai took a Manning handoff to the left side, but pulled up and tossed a 22–yd. pass to WR Reggie Wayne in the back of the endzone for the go–ahead score. Indianapolis led 18–14 following a failed two–point try. The 49ers offense could not find the magic they had in the 1st half and the home team chewed up the clock to seal the game.

Note: Gore became the first NFL player to record 3 rushing TDs over 60 yds. in a season since 2003 (RB Ahman Green – 98t, 65t and 60t; RB Jamal Lewis – 82t, 72t and 63t). Gore is the first 49er to have three rushing TDs of over 60 yds. in a season since 1998 (RB Garrison Hearst – 96t, 71t, 70t) … NT Aubrayo Franklin sacked Manning in the 2nd qtr., registering the first sack posted on Manning in 178 pass attempts. Along with DTs Isaac Sopoaga and Ray McDonald, the D–line posted 3 sacks, one more than had been registered on Manning in the Colts first 6 games … The 49ers defense also held Manning without a touchdown pass for the first time since 11/30/08 at Cle.

After suffering two heartbreaking road losses, the 49ers returned home to square off with their 3rd–straight AFC South foe, as the Tennessee Titans visited Candlestick Park. With a record of 1–6, the Titans appeared from the outside to be just what the Niners needed to get back on track. But, 4 turnovers and 4 sacks allowed by the host team negated a happy homecoming, sending the Titans off with a 34–27 victory. The day began in promising fashion as San Fran took their first possession, marched 67 yds. and watched K Joe Nedney drill a 40–yd. FG for the game's first pts. Tennessee responded immediately, though, as QB Vince Young connected with WR Justin Gage on the next series for a 49–yd. pass play that set up a 21–yd. FG for K Rob Bironas. As the 1st qtr. wound down, 49ers QB Alex Smith fired a pass to WR Michael Crabtree along the sidelines. The ball was tipped by Titans S Michael Griffin into the hands of CB Rod Hood, who returned the ball 43 yds. to the SF 24. Six plays later, Young scampered 7 yds. for the first TD of the day. Smith and the 49ers answered quickly with a 6–play, 70–yd. drive, highlighted by a 40–yd pass play from Smith to TE Vernon Davis, that culminated in a 3–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore. After trading possessions, the Niners took over at their own 18 with 3:32 left in the half. Smith again engineered an exceptional scoring drive that was capped with a 12–yd. pass to WR Jason Hill in the back corner of the endzone, sending the 49ers into the locker room with a 17–10 lead. On San Fran's second series of the 3rd qtr. Smith was forced to fumble by the Titans, who recovered the ball at the SF 36. RB Chris Johnson dove in from 1 yd. out seven plays later to tie the game at 17. The 49ers then embarked on a 9:45 drive that registered another Nedney FG, this time from 25 yds. out, just minutes into the 4th qtr. The Titans had an answer, as they traveled 81 yds. on the next series, which was highlighted by another Young–to–Gage pass, this time for 33 yds. down to the SF 11. Johnson capped the drive with a 2–yd. TD scamper. Down 24–20, the 49ers took over at their 30 yd.–line, but two plays into the drive Smith was intercepted by S Chris Hope as he tried to connect with Josh Morgan on the sideline. The opportunistic Titans again had good field position and translated it into 3 more pts., as Bironas connected from 28 yds. The opportunities kept coming for Tennessee as Smith was intercepted on the first play of the 49ers next possession by CB Cortland Finnegan, who returned the ball 39 yds. for a TD. Down by 14 pts., Smith attempted to rally his team, leading them on an 11–play, 78–yd. scoring drive that was sealed by a 3–yd. TD pass again to Hill. With :39 left in the game, the Niners onside kick was unsuccessful and the Titans wrapped up the win with two kneel downs.

Note: Davis recorded his first career 100–yd. rec. game and posted a career–high 10 recepts. His performance marked just the 3rd time in franchise history that a TE registered at least 10 recepts. and the first since Eric Johnson registered 13 vs. Arz. 10//10/04. Johnson was the last 49ers TE to post a 100–yd. rec. game (162) that day as well … P Andy Lee notched a career–high 53.3 net avg. on the day. He also registered the 2nd–best gross average (56.7 avg.) of his career … Alex Smith set a career–high with 29 comps.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2009
SAN FRANCISCO 10, CHICAGO 6
CANDLESTICK PARK ~ 69,732

The San Francisco 49ers entered the prime–time, nationally televised game against the visiting Chicago Bears in the midst of a 4–game losing streak. To the delight of those in attendance, they were able to right the ship with a 10–6 victory in the league's first Thursday Night Game of the season. Entering the game, the theme of the week was centered on 49ers head coach Mike Singletary squaring off with his former team for the first time in his current role. By the end of the night, the focus had swayed from Singletary, but not far, as the game evolved into a hard–fought, defensive battle. The game began with a Bears 3–n–out followed by a 38–yd. 49er drive that resulted in no points, as K Joe Nedney misfired from 39 yds. That was the closest either team would come to registering points in the 1st qtr. Early in the 2nd stanza, the Bears drove deep into San Francisco territory to the 1 yd.–line. On 3rd–n–1, QB Jay Cutler fired a pass to the middle of the goal line where 49ers NT Aubrayo Franklin had dropped into coverage. Franklin hauled in the pass, the first INT of his career, and rumbled 10 yds. to the SF 11. The theft was 1 of 5 that the Niners would register on the night at the expense of Cutler. Although the play thwarted a Chicago score, the home team could not take advantage as QB Alex Smith was intercepted on the next series by CB Zack Bowman on a pass intended for WR Michael Crabtree. The INT string continued at the expense of the Bears when Cutler threw a pass into the hands of 49ers CB Tarell Brown 5 plays later. Brown raced to the CB 14, where he set up a RB Frank Gore TD run on the very next play for the first points of the game. Gore would finish the day accounting for 58% of the 49ers offense with 125 yds. from scrimmage. With 2:03 remaining in the first half, the Bears took the ball at their own 17 yd.–line and marched 51 yds. There, K Robbie Gould connected from 50 yds., to pull the Bears within 4 pts. at the half. Despite another Cutler INT, this time to FS Dashon Goldson, the 49ers could not extend their lead before Gould could connect on another FG in the 3rd qtr., this time from 38 yds. The score remained 7–6 as the final period began, but again, Cutler misfired and S Mark Roman was there to claim the ball. San Fran finally registered additional points off the latest turnover as Nedney drilled a 21–yd. FG. Chicago posted a 3–n–out on their next possession, and the Niners answered by chewing up 6:08 of clock on their next possession. Without registering any points, San Fran punted the ball away. With 2:47 left in the game, Chicago gave it one last try from their 20 yd.–line. Faced with a 2nd–n–10 from the 49ers 12 yd.–line and :08 left on the clock, Cutler took one last shot at the endzone. To his dismay, 49ers S Michael Lewis stepped in front of the ball and came away with the win–sealing INT.

Note: The 49ers defense registered 5 INTs. It was the first time the 49ers notched at least 5 INTs since 9/14/97 vs. NO (6 INTs).

Looking to gain a leg up in the race for the playoffs, the 49ers traveled East to battle the Packers at Lambeau Field. As odd as the warm November temperatures for Green Bay, so was San Francisco's flat performance in the 1st half. After digging themselves into a 23–3 hole at halftime, the Niners battled valiantly in the 2nd stanza, only to come up short by less than a TD. The afternoon began with the teams trading FGs. After an impressive drive by the Packers, San Francisco's defense managed to hold the Packers to just a 23–yd. Mason Crosby FG. The Niners offense seemed up to the task by answering immediately with their own scoring drive, highlighted by a 42–yd. RB Frank Gore scamper and a 46–yd. Joe Nedney FG. The home team marched the length of the field on their next possession and again Crosby connected, this time from 27 yds. Sadly for the visitors, the 2nd qtr. was highlighted by a Packers offensive explosion. The scoring began with a 64–yd. TD pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Greg Jennings. After an SF 3–n–out, the Packers took over at their own 19 yd.–line. Rodgers directed his unit 81 yds. and sealed the drive with a 7–yd. TD pass to Jordy Nelson. The Niners again struggled to a 3–n–out on their ensuing possession, and the Packers capitalized with another Crosby FG (27 yds.), sending SF to the locker room down 23–3. The 49ers came out of halftime like a completely different squad on both sides of the ball. After trading scoreless possessions, SF QB Alex Smith connected with rookie WR Michael Crabtree, who made a spectacular play on the ball over Pro Bowl CB Al Harris for a 38–yd. score and the only points of the 3rd qtr. On the 49ers first offensive play of the final qtr., and backed up in their own end of the field, an errant Smith pass landed in the awaiting hands of GB S Nick Collins, who returned the ball to the SF 11. Three plays later, Packers RB Ryan Grant ran in from the 1 yd.–line to give his team a 30–10 lead. Following a 76–yd. kickoff return by 49ers WR Josh Morgan, who was stepping in for the injured RB Michael Robinson, Smith connected with TE Vernon Davis down the middle of the field on a 24–yd. TD pass. The San Fran defense answered the call on the next series and forced GB to punt. Smith took over at his own 17 yd.–line and completed 6 of 8 pass attempts on an 83–yd. scoring drive, capped by a 10–yd. toss to Gore. Despite the 49ers 2nd–half transformation, the Packers took over and embarked on a 10–play drive that ran out the final 5:56 remaining in the game to seal the 30–24 victory.

Note: Gore became the 5th player in franchise history to eclipse 5,000 career rushing yards. He also scored a TD for the 4th straight week for the first time in his career … Crabtree's 38–yd. TD recept. marked the first score of his career.

On a beautiful sunny day in San Francisco, the 49ers welcomed the Jacksonville Jaguars to Candlestick Park for the first time ever, only to send the visitors home with a 20–3 defeat. Much to the liking of their fans and the media, who begged for the 49ers to open up the offense to allow QB Alex Smith to throw the ball from the shotgun formation, the Niners did just that. In the 1st half alone, Smith was 18–29–169–2TDs passing as he connected with 6 different receivers in just the first 30 minutes. Not only did rookie WR Michael Crabtree make big plays in the passing game, 4–54 on the day, but the tight end position made considerable contributions as Vernon Davis and Delanie Walker accounted for 131 yds. from scrimmage and 1 TD (11 touches). The San Fran defense appeared inspired by the early offensive performance, and very well rested, as they recorded 2 takeaways and six 2nd–half sacks. The defense also held the Jaguars to 3 of 12 on 3rd down and allowed just three points on four redzone trips. The 49ers took the opening kickoff and marched 51 yds. to set up a 46–yd. Joe Nedney FG for the game's first points. No further scoring was recorded in the 1st qtr., but the Niners took their first possession of the 2nd period, following a missed 40–yd. FG by the Jaguars Josh Scobee, and made the most of it. Smith was efficient on the drive, connecting on 5 of 8 attempts including a 27–yarder to Crabtree. The drive was highlighted by a tremendous play fake that allowed Davis to come completely free in the endzone for a 3–yd. TD. Two possessions later, the Niners struck again. Faced with a 4th–n–1 at the JAX 37, offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye called the perfect play, as Davis raced down the sideline past Jaguars LB Clint Ingram, Smith lofted a perfect pass into his awaiting hands down to the 7 yd.–line. Two plays later, Smith connected with RB Frank Gore in the back corner of the endzone, who made a tremendous effort to secure the pass and keep his feet just inside the lines. Jacksonville finally got on the board when Scobee connected on a 32–yd. FG as time expired in the 1st half, setting the score at 17–3. The 2nd half began well for the 49ers as LB Manny Lawson thwarted a Jaguars drive when he sacked QB David Garrard and forced him to fumble into the hands of DT Justin Smith at the SF 27. The home team took advantage of the takeaway and registered another Nedney FG, this time from 27 yds. out. On the next series, Jacksonville drove all the way to the 49ers 14 yd.–line where they were faced with a 4th–n–2. As Garrard dropped to pass, he was smothered by LB Parys Haralson and Justin Smith, who forced him to fumble the ball away to DT Ray McDonald. Although the Jaguars had another scoring opportunity on their next possession, Scobee clanked a FG attempt off the left upright from 21 yds. out, summing up the Jaguars luck on the day and sealing the 49ers victory.

Note: The 49ers registered 6 sacks in the second half, marking just the 2nd time since sacks became an official stat in 1982 that a 49ers defense notched 6 sacks in a half (vs. St. Louis on 9/8/96) … The 49ers were flagged just once for 5 yds., marking the team's lowest penalty total since 12/2/01 vs. Buf. … Alex Smith set first half career–highs in attempts (29), completions (18) and yards (169), while tying a career–high with 2 touchdown passes … S Michael Lewis started his 100th career game.

Although the 49ers passing attack was on fire for much of the game, it could not heat up the cloudy, cold temperatures quite enough as San Francisco dropped a heartbreaking 20–17 decision to the Seattle Seahawks at Qwest Field. In the end, the foot of K Olindo Mare was the hottest thing in the stadium, as he drilled a 30–yd. FG to seal the win as time expired. The afternoon began with great promise as the Niners opened the scoring mid–way through the 1st qtr. with a very familiar connection. On 4th–n–1 at the SEA 33 QB Alex Smith tossed a short pass to TE Vernon Davis who raced to the endzone for a 33–yd. score. The San Fran defense followed up the score by forcing a 3–n–out by the Seahawks. But, on the ensuing punt, returners Brandon Jones and Arnaz Battle fumbled the exchange on an attempted reverse that the home team alertly hopped on at the SF 13. Seahawks QB Matt Hasselbeck converted the miscue into 7 pts. three plays later as he connected with WR Deion Branch on a 7–yd. scoring pass. The Seattle defense retrieved the ball from the 49ers and set their offense up for another scoring drive. Hasselbeck then directed the squad on a 12–play, 87–yd. drive that culminated in an 8–yd. screen pass to RB Justin Forsett, who slashed into the endzone. Not to be outdone, Smith connected with Davis on the very next drive for 42 yds., setting up a 22–yd. TD pass to WR Josh Morgan, knotting the score at 14 heading into halftime. The 3rd quarter was a defensive battle that resulted in no points. The 4th qtr. began with an impressive drive by the 49ers that appeared to result in go–ahead points, but a RB Frank Gore fumble at the SEA 22 negated the opportunity. CB Josh Wilson returned the ball to the SF 41, where Smith tracked him down, setting up a 25–yd. Mare FG to give the Seahawks a 3–pt. lead. Smith responded once again by directing the 49ers to the SEA 16, where K Joe Nedney connected on a 34–yarder to tie the game at 17. After stopping the Seahawks on their next possession, the Niners took over at their own 11 yd.–line. The Seahawks defense remained stingy and forced a 3–n–out. Hasselbeck took control at his own 48 with :21 remaining in the game. Three plays later, he had directed his squad to the SF 12, where Mare sealed the game.

Note: Davis set the franchise record for TD recepts. by a TE in a season (10) and set a new career–high with 111 yds. rec. ... Alex Smith set a career high with 310 yds. passing, the first 300–yd. game of his career ... LB Manny Lawson set a franchise record for most forced fumbles in a season by a linebacker (4) ... The game marked the first time since 9/7/03–9/14/03, that the 49ers defense registered at least 5.0 sacks in consecutive games.

Prime time television once again treated the 49ers and their fans well in 2009, as San Francisco defeated the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals, 24–9, at Candlestick Park on Monday Night Football to complete the season sweep. The home team brought a physicality to the game that the Cardinals could not match, as RB Frank Gore pounded out 167 yds. and 1TD on the ground and the defense forced 7 turnovers on the night (5 FRs and 2 INTs). In fact, the 49ers tied a franchise record as they forced 5 turnovers in the 1st half (3 FRs and 2 INTs). Cardinals QB Kurt Warner was held without a TD pass for the first time this season. He was also held to his lowest quarterback rating (44.9) and lowest passing yardage (178) since week 16 of 2008. Defensively, LB Ahmad Brooks (3.0 sacks & 2FFs) and S Dashon Goldson (1INT & 2FFs) pestered Warner all evening. After turning the ball over on their opening drive when a QB Alex Smith pass was batted in the air and intercepted by Cardinals DT Darnell Dockett, the 49ers defense played inspired football. On the Cardinals 2nd possession, Goldson hit RB Tim Hightower at his own 8 yd.–line, jarring the ball loose into the hands of CB Dre' Bly. Two plays later Smith hit TE Vernon Davis in the back of the endzone for the game's first points. The SF defense stood tall again on the Cardinals ensuing possession, as LB Patrick Willis hit RB Larod Stephens–Howling with a thunderous blow that shook the ball loose and into the hands of S Mark Roman, who returned the ball 25 yds. to the AZ 28. 49ers K Joe Nedney later drilled a 37–yd. FG to give his team a 10–0 lead. The Cardinals got the ball back, but not for very long as Goldson intercepted Warner at the SF 9, thwarting the Cardinals first scoring threat. Two possessions later, Nedney had a chance to up the lead, but missed a 53–yd. FG attempt wide right. Again the defense stepped up, as CB Tarell Brown intercepted a Warner pass intended for WR Anquan Boldin with 2:53 left in the half. With momentum in their favor, the Niners embarked on a 68–yd. scoring drive that culminated in a 35–yd. catch and run by WR Michael Crabtree for the game's 2nd TD, sending the 49ers into the locker room with a 17–0 lead at the half. The Cardinals registered the only points of the 3rd qtr. as K Neil Rackers connected from 48 yds. out. On the next drive, Smith threw his 2nd INT of the day into the hands of Cardinals S Adrian Wilson. Arizona converted the takeaway into a RB Beanie Wells TD run, but 49ers DT Ray McDonald blocked the PAT. After a San Fran possession that stalled at midfield, the Cardinals got the ball back at their own 11 yd.–line. On their first play though, Goldson stuck Wells and forced him to fumble the ball away to LB Parys Haralson. The home team quickly converted the theft into 7 points as Gore plunged into the endzone from 2 yds. out. With a 24–9 lead, San Francisco sealed the game, utilizing their ground game to chew up the clock as well as their defense, who forced another turnover with 2:41 left, as S Mark Roman forced and recovered a Boldin fumble.

Note: The game marked the first time the 49ers forced 7 turnovers in a contest since 9/14/97 vs. NO (2 FRs and 6 INTs) ... With a team–record 5 takeaways in the first half, it was the first time the team had done so since 9/14/97 vs. NO (3 INTs/2 FRs) ... The 49ers defense set the franchise record for most FFs in a game (6) ... Davis tied the 49ers tight end record with his 4th consecutive game with a TD. He joins TE Ted Kwalick (11/12/72 through 12/4/72) as the only 49ers TEs to accomplish the feat ... LB Ahmad Brooks set a single–game career–high with 3.0 sacks and 2 FFs of QB Kurt Warner ... Gore set a career–high with 10 TDs on the season (7 rushing, 3 receiving). His 167 rus. yds. are the 2nd–most by a 49er on Monday Night Football. With the win, the 49ers improved their record to 58–29 in prime time games overall (35–13 at home). On Monday Night Football, the 49ers record is now 39–24 overall (22–10 at home).

In the midst of the Holiday Season, the San Francisco 49ers traveled to a Winter Wonderland, also known as Philadelphia, to take on the Eagles who stood in the way of their postseason hopes. As a Nor–Easter struck the mid–Atlantic region, dropping almost 2 feet of snow on the city, the Niners were also dropped from playoff contention by the Eagles with a 27–13 loss. Philadelphia's big–play offense and it's attacking, blitz–happy defense proved to be too much for the inconsistent visitors to handle. The scoring opened as Philly systematically march the length of the field on the opening drive, culminating the drive with a 19–yd. QB Donovan McNabb TD pass to WR DeSean Jackson. The 49ers answered quickly with points of their own as K Joe Nedney drilled a FG from 51 yds. on their first possession. Both teams were stymied for the rest of the 1st qtr. as the defenses put on a clinic, but on the first play of the 2nd period, 49ers TE Delanie Walker fumbled on the PH 8, thwarting a go–ahead score. The Eagles capitalized on the mishap and drove 94 yds. to paydirt as McNabb scrambled 8 yds. for the score and an 11–pt. lead. San Fran's bad luck continued on the next series as CB Asante Samuel stepped in front of a QB Alex Smith pass to haul in the INT. The Eagles translated the takeaway into 3 pts. as K David Akers connected from 22 yds. After the teams traded another INT each, Akers hit from 26 yds., giving the Eagles a 20–3, halftime lead. The 49ers started the 2nd half with the ball and capitalized with another Nedney FG, this time from 25 yds. On the very next play, CB Dre' Bly capitalized on an errant McNabb pass, hauling in an INT with a tremendous effort to set the 49ers up at the PH 35. The Niners Smith made sure his team would walk away with 7 pts. this time, completing 4 of 4 pass attempts, including a 12 yarder to WR Josh Morgan, bringing his squad within 7 pts. of the home team. As the 4th qtr. began, the Eagles embarked on an 89–yd. drive that culminated in a 2–yd. TD run by rookie RB LeSean McCoy. The score upped Philadelphia's lead to 14 pts., sealing their spot in the 2009 playoffs and dashing the 49ers hopes of making noise in the postseason this year.

Note: With 107 yds. rushing, Gore ran for over 100 yards in back–to–back weeks for the first time since 2006 (vs. GB and at Sea.). Gore became the first rusher to top the 100–yd. mark against the Eagles in 20 games … Davis broke the 49ers franchise record for receiving yds. in a season by a tight end, surpassing Eric Johnson's 2004 effort (825 yds.).

GAME 15

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 27, 2009
SAN FRANCISCO 20, DETROIT 6
CANDLESTICK PARK ~ 69,732

The 49ers returned to the warm sunny confines of Candlestick Park to close out their 2009 home slate against the Detroit Lions. San Francisco upped its 2009 home record to 6–2 with a 20–3 victory over the NFC North foe, sparked by a tremendous performance by a defense that recorded 6 take–aways (3 FFs, 3 INTs) and allowed just 289 yds. of total offense. Offensively, RB Frank Gore produced a bulk of the yardage (152 yds. from scrimmage) and 1 TD. Following a sluggish start by the defense that resulted in a PK Jason Hanson 27–yd. FG on the Lions opening possession, the 49ers offense produced an exciting scoring drive of their own. QB Alex Smith connected on a 50–yd. pass play, the team's longest of the season, to WR Michael Crabtree, setting up a 33–yd. FG by PK Ricky Schmitt, who had been signed 4 days earlier to replace the injured Joe Nedney. The 49ers began their bar–rage of takeaways on the Lions next possession as LB Ahmad Brooks sacked QB Drew Stanton and forced him to fumble away to LB Takeo Spikes. The Lions next possession also resulted in a 49ers takeaway as Brooks again forced a fumble, this time by WR Calvin Johnson into the arms of S Mark Roman. Two 49ers possessions later, Schmitt registered the second score of the game as he connected from 39 yds. out. The home defense again came up big, as LB Patrick Willis intercepted Stanton on the following se–ries. The 49ers then drove to the DET 10, but Schmitt's third FG attempt of the day was blocked by DT Grady Jackson, leaving the score at 6–0 in favor of the Niners heading into the half. After the teams traded scoreless possessions to start the 2nd stanza, San Fran traveled 49 yds. in 6 plays to post their first TD of the day, a 2–yd. pass from Smith to TE Vernon Davis. On the ensuing Lions possession, the defense forced a 3–n–out and the 49ers offense gained control of the ball at their own 37 yd.–line. The offense was faced with a 4th–n–1 at their own 46, but head coach Mike Singletary rolled the dice knowing that his defense had been on a roll all afternoon. The gutsy call resulted in a 48–yd. catch and run from Smith to Gore down to the DET 6. Three plays later, Gore dove in from the 1 yd.–line to extend the lead. The Lions later added a 38–yd. Hanson FG with 3:59 left to play.

Note: Gore went over 1,000 yds. for the 4th consecutive season, becoming the only 49er to record four such campaigns. He moved past RB Garrison Hearst (7,139) into 6th place on the team's all–time scrimmage yardage list ... The defense's 6 takeaways on the afternoon marked the 3rd time in 2009 that the defense forced at least 5 turnovers in a game. Includ–ing the two previous games, the 49ers posted 15 takeaways, the most in a 3–game stretch by a 49ers team since 12/6/87 – 12/20/87 (15 takeaways).

With a chance to finish 2009 at 8–8, the best overall record by a 49ers squad since 2002, San Francisco traveled to St. Louis to take on the Rams. In posting a convincing 28–6 victory over the home team, the Niners went 5–1 in the NFC West, a feat they also had not accomplished since 2002. The day was highlighted by another feat that had not been performed in years, as TE Vernon Davis caught his 13th TD reception of the year, tying the NFL record for receiving TDs by a TE (Antonio Gates – 2004) for a single season. Although the defense didn't post a takeaway, as they had so plentifully in recent weeks, it did register a plethora of sacks on both Rams quarterbacks. Led by DT Justin Smith's career–high 3.5 sacks, San Fran registered 8 on the afternoon by 6 different players. Along with the sacks, the 49ers held the Rams to just 109 total yds. in the game. After almost 26 minutes of scoreless football, the Rams struck first with a 54–yd. FG by K Josh Brown for the only points of the 1st half. After trading possessions to begin the 3rd qtr., the 49ers embarked on an 83–yd. drive propelled by the passing of QB Alex Smith and the running of RB Frank Gore, but highlighted by the 1–yd. TD plunge of FB Moran Norris for the first rushing score of his career. The 4th qtr. began in similar fashion to the 3rd, with the teams trading posses–sions, this time the Rams posted the first score. Following a 56–yd. punt return by WR Danny Amendola, Brown connected on a 29–yd. FG, upping the score to 7–6. Three plays later, the 49ers Smith connected with Davis on a 73–yd. pitch–and–catch that resulted in Davis' record–tying score. After the Rams floundered on their next possession, the Niners posted the final 14 points of the game, both Gore TD runs (a 1–yarder and 6–yarder).

Note: Davis' record setting 13 TD receptions tied TE Antonio Gates (13 TDs in 2004) for the most in a single season by a TE … With two rush–ing TDs, Gore set a new career–high (10) and tied the team record for single–season rushing TDs. His 107 rushing yds. marked Gore's 20th career 100–yd. game, tying him with Joe Perry for the most in franchise history … The 49ers defense kept the Rams out of the end zone, ty–ing them with the N.Y. Jets for the NFL–high 5th time the unit had done so in 2009 … For a league–high 7th time in 2009, the 49ers held their opponent to 10 points–or–less … The defense allowed a total of 109 net yds., marking the fewest total yds. allowed since 12/12/00 vs. Chi. (104).

Detroit Lions 31, 49ers 27
NFL Divisional Playoff
December 22 at Kezar Stadium
(San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco made its first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but came up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium. QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18–of–31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34–yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game–high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

49ers 17, Minnesota 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 27 at Metropolitan Stadium
(Bloomington, MN)

QB John Brodie scored on a one–yard run with just under two minutes remaining to provide the difference as the 49ers claimed a 17–14 decision over Minnesota at a frigid Metropolitan Stadium. San Francisco was trailing 7–0 in the first quarter when Brodie connected with WR Dick Witcher on a 24–yard scoring toss. Brodie completed 16–of–32 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown.

NFC Championship
January 3 at Kezar Stadium
(San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie passed for 262 yards and one touchdown, but it wasn't enough as the Cowboys advanced to Super Bowl V with a 17–10 win over the 49ers at Kezar Stadium. RB Duane Thomas rushed for 143 yards and scored on a 13–yard run in the third quarter to put Dallas ahead 10–3. Later in the quarter QB Craig Morton connected with RB Walt Garrison on a five–yard toss to put the Cowboys up 17–3. San Francisco would add to its final score on its next possession with a 26–yard Brodie–to–WR Dick Witcher touchdown, capping an eight–play, 73–yard drive.

NFC Divisional Playoff
December 26 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10–of–19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24–20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park. Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78–yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10–10. On the next 49ers possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two–yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17–10 lead. The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered it for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

Dallas Cowboys 14, 49ers 3
January 2 at Texas Stadium
(Irving, TX)

San Francisco and Dallas combined for just 483 yards of total offense in a low–scoring affair at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys received rushing touchdowns from RB Calvin Hill and RB Duane Thomas as they posted a 14–3 win and earned a bid to Super Bowl VI. San Francisco was paced offensively by RB Vic Washington with 86 yards of total offense. QB John Brodie completed 14–of–30 passes for 184 yards, but was intercepted three times. DE Cedrick Hardman had a big game with 12 tackles, including two sacks. DE Tommy Hart and LB Frank Nunley had 11 tackles each.

NFC Divisional Playoff
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30–28 come–from–behind win over the 49ers. Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20–yard touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner. The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97–yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns. LB Ed Beard led the Niners defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

1981

49ers 38, New York Giants 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted its first postseason win since 1971 with a 38–24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants. Aiding the 49ers cause was CB Ronnie Lott, who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles. Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana, who completed 20–of–31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight–yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58–yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27
January 10 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting end for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28–27. QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six–yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six–point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13–play, 89–yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock. Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22–of–35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark posted eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21
Super Bowl XVI
January 24 at Silverdome
(Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20–0 lead at the half and held on for a 26–21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship. Montana scored on a one–yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12–play, 92–yard drive that resulted in an 11–yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14–of–22 passes for 157 yards. Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards. The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach. LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

1983

49ers 24, Detroit Lions 23
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 31 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

WR Freddie Solomon caught a 14–yard touchdown pass from QB Joe Montana with two minutes remaining to give San Francisco a 24–23 win over the visiting Detroit Lions and earn a berth in the NFC Championship Game. San Francisco's defense kept the team alive on several occasions, intercepting Detroit QB Gary Danielson five times. LB Riki Ellison had two interceptions while LB Keena Turner, S Dwight Hicks and CB Ronnie Lott had one apiece. RB Wendell Tyler and RB Roger Craig each scored a touchdown for San Francisco. Tyler rushed for 74 yards on 17 carries and also caught two passes for 15 yards. Craig led the Niners in receiving with seven receptions for 61 yards.

Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21
January 8 at RFK Stadium
(Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25–yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24–21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium. The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21–0 deficit with 21 fourth–quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five–yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76–yard bomb to pull within seven at 21–14. The Redskins went three–and–out on their next possession, which led to another Montana–to–Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six–minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season. Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27–of–48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown. DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

49ers 21, New York Giants 10
December 29 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship Game with a 21–10 win over the New York Giants. San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark, on a 21–yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions. On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12–yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine–yard strike to extend the lead to 14–0. New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29–yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21–10. DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49ers defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

49ers 23, Chicago Bears 0
January 6 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco advanced to Super Bowl XIX with a 23–0 win over the visiting Chicago Bears. The story of the day was the 49ers defense that recorded nine sacks and held the Bears to 186 yards of total offense. Leading the charge for the defense were DE Gary Johnson and DT Michael Carter. Neither Johnson nor Carter were starters in the game, yet they led the squad with two sacks and six tackles each. LB Riki Ellison recorded a team–high eight tackles. Offensively, San Francisco was led by QB Joe Montana and RB Wendell Tyler. Montana threw for 233 yards and one touchdown, a 10–yard toss to WR Freddie Solomon in the fourth quarter. Tyler had 68 yards on 10 carries and scored on a nine–yard jaunt early in the third quarter.

(Palo Alto, CA)

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38–16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts, Montana was named Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans. Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33–yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight–yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second quarter. On the next 49ers possession, Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six–yard run. His fourth and final score came on a 16–yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and added two scores. San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards. S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24
January 9 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36–24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park. Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears. Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times. San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12–of–17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team–high 72 yards on six carries and had a five–yard touchdown run.

49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9
January 1 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34–9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick. Rice set a record, that he shares with five other players, with three touchdown receptions. He scored on receptions of two, four and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards. Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80–yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74–yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns. The 49ers defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defensed. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

NFC Championship
January 8 at Soldier Field
(Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26 below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28–3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field. QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61–yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27–yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14–3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five–yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21–3. FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four–yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards. The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game–high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass. Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Montana completed 17–of–27 passes for 288 yards.

49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16
Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23–of–36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34–yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3–3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31–yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40–yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10–yard touchdown. An 11–play, 46–yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46–yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16–13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight–yard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27–yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10–yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

49ers 41, Minnesota Vikings 13
January 6 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41–13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early. Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven–yard gain into a 72–yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard touchdown pass and the rout was on. Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17–of–24 passes for 241 yards. The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

NFC Championship
(San Francisco, CA)

The 49ers defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned its fourth trip to the Super Bowl of the decade with a 30–3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship Game. San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49ers offense, completing 26–of–30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20–yard strike to give the 49ers a 7–3 lead. CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27–yard line. A five–play drive culminated in a one–yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig. It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14–play, 97–yard drive that ended with an 18–yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor. K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half. Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig, who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

Super Bowl XXIV
January 28 at Louisiana Superdome
(New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55–10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA. Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven–reception, 148–yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards. The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22–of–29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49ers offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards. The 49ers defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

49ers 28, Washington Redskins 10
January 12 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22–of–31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 28–10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins. The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31–yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one–yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight–play, 74–yard drive to tie the score at 7–7. Washington added a 44–yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10–7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10–yard strike to complete a 10–play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21–10 thanks to an eight–yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard. It was the 49ers defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown. CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

New York Giants 15, 49ers 13
January 20 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15–13. In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6–6 tie. San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61–yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13–6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr. Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13–12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20–yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43–yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29–yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired. Montana completed 18–of–26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61–yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards. Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20–13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park. Young tossed a five–yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16–yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17–3 lead at halftime. The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one–yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49ers lead to 17–13. The locals responded with a 14–play, 59–yard drive that resulted in a 33–yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining. The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on its final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs. DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niners defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team–high six stops in the victory.

Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 20
NFC Championship
January 17 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24–of–34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30–20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park. Dallas opened the scoring with a 20–yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one–yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7–3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four–yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10–7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer. FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three–yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17–10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17–13 heading into the fourth quarter. It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16–yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24–13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93–yard drive resulting in a five–yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboys lead to 24–20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70–yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six–yard touchdown to secure the win. Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25–of–35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown. CB Eric Davis had six tackles to lead the 49ers defense. DT Ted Washington and DE Kevin Fagan had two sacks each.

49ers 44, New York Giants 3
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 15 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

It was a wattered down 49ers attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single–game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44–3 win over the visting New York Giants. Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team–high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17–of–22 passes for 226 yards in the victory. The 49ers defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, with only 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team–high five tackles. The game was marked by several milestone events: Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken), 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game, Watters sets NFL single–game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

Dallas Cowboys 38, 49ers 21
NFC Championship
January 23 at Texas Stadium
(Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7–7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter and that proved to be the difference in their 38–21 win over the visiting 49ers. The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five–yard touchdown run by RB Emmit Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven–yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21–point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28–7 halftime lead. San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six–play, 43–yard drive with a four–yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42–yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50–yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one–yard plunge by Young, capping a 17–play, 94–yard drive. San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27–of–45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown.

49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 7 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44–15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game. The Bears actually took an early 3–0 lead on a 29–yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away. San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13–play, 68–yard drive that ended with a two–yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard scoring play. The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30–3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37–3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters. LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single–game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28
NFC Championship
January 15 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38–28 NFC Championship Game win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park–record 69,143 (since broken). On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29–yard touchdown and a 14–0 lead. The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21–0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter. Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21–7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63–yard drive with a four–yard run that narrowed the gap to 24–14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28–yard score, giving the 49ers a 31–14 lead heading into the locker room. The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13–of–29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49–26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four–yard run and an 11–yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44–yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51–yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13–play, 78–yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one–yard touchdown plunge to make it 14–7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70–yard drive that culminated with a five–yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight–yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31–yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28–10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42–10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine–yard blast up the middle, and a 15–yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven–yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27–17 at 3Com Park. A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one–year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11–6. Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44–yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three–yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13–yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21–yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21–10. On the 14–play drive, Young was 9–of–10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27–10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two–yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40–yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team–high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14–0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10–play, 74–yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine–yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven–yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five–yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone–blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one–handed catch that resulted in a 36–yard gain. He scored on a three–yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14–of–21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason–record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 4 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35–14 in a game that featured 34–degree weather (with a wind chill of nine–degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71–yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four–yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14–0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21–0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight–yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21–7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28–14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11–yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19–of–36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team–high 36 yards receiving. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All–Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career–high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38–22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21–of–30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7–0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66–yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14–7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one–yard plunge. The game–breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34–yard field goal to build the lead to 24–7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24–14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second–year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one–yard run. CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 11 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23–10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10–play, 76–yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19–yard field goal. Favre completed three–of–four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27–yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10–0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48–yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10–yard line. The drive resulted in a 28–yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40–yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43–yard field goal to make the halftime score 13–3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16–3 on a 25–yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five–yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23–3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97–yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23–of–38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team–high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25–yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30–27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23–yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19–yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7–3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two–yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out to take a 17–10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career–long 48–yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48–yard kick with a 37–yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20–20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40–yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23–20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11–yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine–play, 89–yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27–23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24–yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25–yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL–leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20–18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two–yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7–0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14–0 when Anderson finished off a 34–yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven–play, 82–yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine–play, 80–yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36–yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14–10 game at the half with a 36–yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29–yard field goal. Leading 17–10, Andersen added another 32–yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10–point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13–play, 87–yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight–yard touchdown run. A two–point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20–18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four–yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game–high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard–fought 25–15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game–time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five–yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6–0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19–yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34–yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6–0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6–of–9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two–yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15–play, 86–yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7–6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight–yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26–yard field goal for the 9–7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19–yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two–point conversion failed and the score remained 15–7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14–yard touchdown strike and again on the two–point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10–play, 45–yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45–yard field goal to push the score to 18–15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven–yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight–play, 93–yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine–yard touchdown run and the 25–15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13–yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25–15 victory.

49ers 39, New York Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
(San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24–point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39–38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38–14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two–point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27–of–44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14–yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29–of–43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass and a two–point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14–yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25–yard field goal with 7:49 left. Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42–yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25–yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium
(Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31–6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium. The 49ers trailed 28–6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory. Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two–yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12–play, 74–yard drive. San Francisco answered with a 12–play, 63–yard drive capped by a 24–yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30–yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia. Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20–yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12–yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out. Alstott added another two–yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19–yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams. LB Derek Smith led San Francisco with a game–high 14 tackles. LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added 11 tackles apiece. CB Rashad Holman led a banged up secondary with one interception. The unit was minus starting CB Jason Webster, who was inactive with an ankle injury. CB Ahmed Plummer left the game when he separated his right shoulder and did not return. FS Zack Bronson left the game in the third quarter when he aggravated his broken foot and SS Tony Parrish played the contest with a dislocated elbow. LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player–of–the–Year Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

49ERS OVERTIME GAME SUMMARIES

October 31, 1976
St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14–13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on its previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20–14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77–yard touchdown pass for the 20–20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt. Tony Leonard fumbled the kick at the 43–yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched down field to set up Jim Bakken for the 21–yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23–20 victory.

San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

The 49ers and Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0–0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16–play, 80–yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two–yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64–yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight–yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7–6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike–Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven–yard line where Fouts guided them on a nine–play, 93–yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13–yard touchdown run for the 13–7 win.

San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight–yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five–yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41–yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33–yard game–winning field goal.

San Francisco 24, St. Louis 21

San Francisco struck first on a 19–yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Paul Hofer in the second quarter. Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart quickly answered back with a 13–yard touchdown strike to Theotis Brown. The Cardinals pushed the lead to 14–7 with a Doug Marsh five–yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers tied the game at 14, St. Louis drove 75 yards in eight plays to take a 21–14 lead. With 1:51 left in regulation, the 49ers drove 80 yards and scored on a 26–yard touchdown run by Hofer, his second of the day. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and took the ball 52 yards to the 16–yard line, where Ray Wersching kicked a 33–yard field goal for the 24–21 win.

San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35–7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88–yard, nine–play drive that culminated with a one–yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71–yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven–yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss, but failed to pick up a first down on its first possession. San Francisco took the ball on its own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the game–winning 36–yard field goal by Ray Wersching.

Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six–yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45–yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter, the Vikings Issiac Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14–7 lead. San Francisco took a 17–14 lead into halftime after a 39–yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 34–yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six–play, 53–yard drive that ended with a 17–yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26–yard field goal by Chuck Nelson to cut the 49ers lead to 24–17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35–yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and went on a 58–yard drive. Nelson hit a 28–yard field goal for the 27–24 win.

Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7–0 lead on a Roger Craig one–yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17–play, 44–yard drive that resulted in a 47–yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53–yard, 13–play drive, which led to a 24–yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10–3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39–yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10–10 tie.

Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37–yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27–yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six–yard quarterback sneak for a 10–3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27–yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10–6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27–yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13–6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight–yard touchdown pass. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five–and–out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five–yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22–yard game–winning field goal.

San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late–season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two–yard touchdown pass to Craig Taylor. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73–yard drive with a one–yard plunge into the end zone for the 7–7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the second half. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three–yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati, 17–14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they would not regain possession until only 4:11 remained in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29–yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six–yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23–yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer's 23–yard game–winning field goal and the 20–17 victory.

Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill–timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34–yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10–0 lead. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13–yard touchdown to push the lead to 17–3. Brister again guided Philadelphia to an eight–play, 64–yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21–point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three–yard touchdown that brought the score to 24–10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a 60–yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38–yard line. Capping off a punishing 38–yard, nine–play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38–yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31–24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32–yard field goal in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards and scored on a one–yard keeper that closed the gap to 34–31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29–yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20–yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38–yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10–yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28–yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37–34 win.

Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30–yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3–0 lead. They took a 6–0 lead on another Jacke 25–yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six–play, 36–yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48–yard field goal. After a three–and–out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven–yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10–6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17–6 at the half with a 13–yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17–14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59–yard touchdown and followed it with a two–point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35–yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three–and–out. Green Bay received the ball on its own 44 and drove 21 yards to set up Jacke for a 53–yard field goal for the 23–20 victory.

Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid–season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28–yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10–0 on a 29–yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72–yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three–yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10–7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26–yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine–play, 68–yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27–yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15–yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six–yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. After 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game–winning 29–yard field goal for the 20–17 victory.

San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20–yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Washington's Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19 and 48 yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41 yards out to give Washington a 9–6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44–yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78 yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20–yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one–yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48–yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38–yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19–16 win.

San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast–paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17–14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six–yards out for the score with 32 seconds remaining in the second quarter. On its first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22–yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21–yard touchdown and a 24–17 lead. With just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14–yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked and the score remained 24–23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended its lead to 27–23 after a John Hall 32–yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76–yard, five–play drive that was capped by a 38–yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30–27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove the ball to the 49ers 13–yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three–and–out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to mid–field on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four–yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of its second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96–yard, game–winning touchdown run and the 36–30 victory.

San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended its winning streak to four games with an exciting, high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, which covered 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. The 49ers picked up 25 yards driving to the Panthers five, where Wade Richey hit a 23-yard field goal for the 31-28 win.

Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of its own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute to go, driving to the Redskins 22-yard line before fumbling, which Washington recovered to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. On first down, Johnson hit Larry Centers for a 33-yard touchdown pass and the 26-20 win.

Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, but on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and drove all the way to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

San Francisco 16, Atlanta 13

The 49ers began the 2001 regular season in an exciting fashion, defeating the visiting Atlanta Falcons 16-13 in overtime. The 49ers trailed by seven points at halftime and began the fourth quarter with a 10-point deficit. A J.J. Stokes touchdown reception narrowed the gap before Jose Cortez's field goal attempt tied the game at 13 with 11 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. On the drive the 49ers faced a third-and-five when Jeff Garcia rifled a pass to Tai Streets, who raced 53 yards to the Falcons 23-yard line. Three plays later, Cortez nailed a 24-yard field goal to lift the 49ers to victory.

San Francisco 37, Atlanta 31

The 49ers had their second overtime game of the 2001 season against the Falcons, sweeping Atlanta in the season series by winning 37-31. The 49ers rallied back from deficits of 20-7 at the half and 31-17 in the fourth quarter. The Falcons went up 14-0 early in the game. The 49ers put their first points of the game on the board in the second quarter when Jeff Garcia scored on a seven-yard run. The Falcons answered back with two field goals and went up 20-7 at halftime. Terrell Owens, who did not catch a pass in the first half, roared back to catch nine passes for 183 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. After a 49ers touchdown, at the hands of Kevan Barlow, and a touchdown by the Falcons, the 49ers were down 31-24 with just 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia led the team on a 10-play, 72-yard drive when he hooked up with Owens from 17 yards out to tie the game at 31 with just 21 seconds remaining. The 49ers won the toss in overtime and drove to the Falcons 14-yard line. A mishandled snap between Garcia and Dave Fiore, who was filling in at center for an injured Jeremy Newberry, was recovered by the Falcons and their offense took over. The 49ers defense rose to the challenge, forcing Atlanta into a three-and-out possession. After the punt, San Francisco began at its own 33-yard line. After picking up one first down, Garcia faced third-and-five when he connected with Owens, who raced 52 yards for his third touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

Chicago 37, San Francisco 31

The 49ers had their second consecutive overtime game and their third of the 2001 season as they dropped a 37-31 decision to the Chicago Bears. San Francisco went up early in the first quarter after Bryant Young forced a fumble, which Julian Peterson scooped up and returned 26 yards for the touchdown. The 49ers struck again when Jeff Garcia hooked up with Justin Swift for a one-yard touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Bears answered back with a safety and a touchdown, making the score 14-9 at the half. In the third quarter, the 49ers struck first when Garrison Hearst scored his first touchdown since 12-14-98 on a 60-yard bomb from Garcia. The Bears offense then took over and drove down to the 49ers 10-yard line where Zack Bronson intercepted a Shane Mathews pass and returned it a team-record 97 yards for the touchdown. After a Chicago touchdown and a 49ers field goal, the score was 31-16 early in the fourth quarter. The Bears then racked up 15 unanswered points on two touchdown drives to tie the game at 31 and send it into overtime. The 49ers won the coin toss and the offense took over. On the first play from scrimmage, Garcia was intercepted by Mike Brown, who raced 33 yards for the touchdown and the 37-31 victory for Chicago.

San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth overtime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25-22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass, but the two-point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19-14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22-14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22-20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. Jose Cortez came on for the game-winning field goal from 26 yards out, splitting the uprights to give the 49ers the 25-22 overtime victory.

The 49ers visited the Oakland Raiders and turned in an exciting performance. Tied at 13 entering the fourth quarter, the game see–sawed back and forth before heading into overtime. San Francisco scored first in the fourth quarter when Jeff Garcia connected with Tai Streets for a three–yard touchdown to take the lead at 20–13. Oakland answered after the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and the Raiders got the ball at their own 40–yard line. Oakland converted a crucial fourth–and–three play to maintain possession and ended the drive with a 10–yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner with just over six minutes remaining. The 49ers then ate up the clock with an impressive 13–play drive into scoring position, where Jose Cortez missed a 27–yard field goal at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. The 49ers won the toss and launched a 17–yard drive. It was there that Cortez lined up for the game–winning 23–yard field goal that sailed through the uprights.

In their second overtime game in three weeks, the 49ers dropped a close one to the San Diego Chargers. San Francisco took the early lead, leading 17–7 at the start of the fourth quarter. However the Chargers reeled off 10 unanswered points in the final period to tie the game at 17 to send it into overtime. In overtime, the Chargers won the toss and returned the opening kick–off 39 yards. But the drive stalled there and San Diego was forced to punt. On the ensuing 49ers possession, the offense drove down the field to the San Diego 23–yard line where Jose Cortez's game–winning field goal sailed wide right. In an early–season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24–17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game–tying 13–yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29–yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kickoff, which they returned to their 48–yard line. After a one–yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were pe–nalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. Marc Bulger then completed two straight passes which brought St. Louis to the 49ers 10–yard line. Jeff Wilkins then came on and hit the winning 28–yard field goal.

In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1–of–2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3–of–6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13–6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one–yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Fran–cisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16–yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game–winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32–yard line. With five seconds remain–ing in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game–winning 50–yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22–yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game–winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. The kick sailed through the uprights and the Cardinals notched the 16–13 victory.

The two teams traded points back and forth heading into the final quarter. The 49ers kicked a 25–yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to cut Philadelphia's lead to 21–20. On San Francisco's next possession, Kevan Barlow ran for 26 of his career–high 154 total yards and scored from one–yard out to give the 49ers a 26–21 lead. The two–point conversion attempt was successful and the 49ers had a seven–point lead with five minutes remaining in the game. The Eagles answered with a 10–play drive, adding seven points to tie the game on a Todd Pinkston touchdown grab with a little over a minute remaining in regulation. Philadelphia won the overtime coin toss and started its drive at its own 21–yard line. On the first play in the extra period, Tony Parrish, who notched an interception on the game's first drive, intercepted an–other pass and ran it back to the Eagles four–yard line. QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victo–ries in a 31–28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly di–rected two late fourth–quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer pen–alty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Pe–terson banged home the game–winning 32–yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a CAREER–HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favor–ite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career–high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six–yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two–point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28–yard line, Rattay started off with a nine–yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14–yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two–point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Dar–nell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scor–ing position where Peterson knocked home the game–winner.

First–year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball af–ter an inspiring 139–yard performance on 34 attempts. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28–3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17–yard gain that set–up K Todd Peterson's game–winning field goal. Fac–ing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30–yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19–yard catch to keep the 49ers game–winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10–0 first quarter deficit for a 20–17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4–12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game–winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third–and–13 situation with a 14–yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14–yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14–play, 56–yard drive that ended with a 42–yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10–10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31–yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25–yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17–10. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17–17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and alertly lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21–yard line. The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13–0 deficit to pull out a 26–23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come–from–behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28–yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goal–line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first–and–goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first–and–goal inside the five–yard line. Denver went ahead 13–0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46–yard field goal to put the score at 13–3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12–play, 76–yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32–yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17–13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23–16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine–yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23–23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12–yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game–winning drive at their own 39–yard line. The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Arizona Cardinals with a 37–31 overtime victory to snap an eight–game losing streak at the University of Phoenix Stadium. DE Ron Fields forced QB Kurt Warner to fumble on a sack in the end zone, and LB Tully Banta–Cain recovered the ball for a touchdown in overtime to seal the win. The play was set up after PK Neil Rackers missed a 32–yard field goal in overtime. Rackers was successful on a field goal from the San Francisco nine–yard line, but the Cardinals were penalized for a delay of game penalty, moving the ball back to the 14–yard line where Rackers was wide to the left. A 59–yard punt by P Andy Lee followed by an Arizona penalty forced the Cardinals to begin their next drive at the three–yard line, setting up the 49ers defensive touchdown to get the win. RB Frank Gore went over the 100–yard mark for the first time in 2007, finishing with 116 yards and two touchdowns, including a 35–yard touchdown run with 1:25 to play to give the 49ers a 31–28 lead. Warner completed five passes on the ensuing drive to get Arizona to the one–yard line with six seconds to play. CB Donald Strickland broke up a pass in the end zone to force Arizona to settle for a 19–yard field goal as time expired in regulation. In overtime, Warner completed a short pass to WR Sean Morey, who raced down the sidelines for a 62–yard gain before LP Patrick Willis caught up with him to make a game–saving tackle at the 14–yard line. That set up Rackers game–winning field goal attempt. The 49ers had three first half turnovers with two CB Walt Harris interceptions and a strip by CB Nate Clements to lead to 14 points. San Francisco had a 17–7 lead and appeared to be in position to take a 17–14 halftime lead after Harris' second interception gave the 49ers a first down at their own 41–yard line. QB Trent Dilfer moved the team inside Arizona territory to the 37–yard line with 11 seconds to go to set up a field goal attempt. PK Joe Nedney attempted a 55–yard field goal that went wide, leaving six seconds on the board for the Cardinals. Warner completed a short pass to the sideline and then with two seconds left completed a 48–yard Hail Mary pass to WR Larry Fitzgerald for a touchdown and a 21–17 halftime lead. A 57–yard touchdown pass from Dilfer to WR Arnaz Battle in the third quarter pushed the 49ers back in front, 24–21, heading into the final quarter. Cardinals backup QB Tim Rattay completed a two–yard touchdown on a fourth–down play midway in the fourth quarter to take a 28–24 lead. Gore's 35–yard touchdown with 1:25 recaptured the lead for San Francisco, but Rackers last second field goal sent the game to overtime.

San Francisco 33, Arizona 30

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 14–point first quarter deficit to win 33–30 in overtime after PK Joe Nedney nailed a 40–yard game–winning field goal. After closing the gap to 20–13 at halftime, the 49ers intercepted Seattle on the first two drives of the second quarter, including one that was returned for a touchdown. On the first series of the second half, CB Walt Harris tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass that was picked off and returned 86 yards for a touchdown by LB Patrick Willis to tie the game at 20–20. On the next series, DE Ray McDonald tipped a pass that was intercepted by Harris at the Seattle 41–yard line to help set up the go–ahead touchdown. QB J.T. O'Sullivan completed back–to–back passes to WR Bryant Johnson to move the 49ers to the 22–yard line to help get into position for a two–yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore to lift the 49ers in front, 27–20. Seattle responded with a 15–play, 74–yard drive that ended in a touchdown to tie the game at 27–27. After both teams exchanged field goals to get the score tied at 30–30, the 49ers forced Seattle to punt from its own 12–yard line and the 49ers began a drive at the Seattle 49–yard line with 1:09 to play in regulation. The team moved to the 23–yard line with three seconds to play to set up a game–winning field goal attempt. Nedney's 41–yard attempt sailed wide to the right to send the game to overtime. The 49ers won the toss and elected to receive. O'Sullivan completed a 33–yard pass to WR Isaac Bruce on third–and–seven and a five–yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a third–and–two situation to push the 49ers to the 23–yard line where Nedney connected on a 40–yard field goal to give San Francisco the win. O'Sullivan registered his first 300–yard game, finishing 20–of–32 for 321 yards with one touchdown. Bruce had his first 100–yard game as a member of the 49ers with 153 yards on four catches, including a 63–yard catch in the second quarter to help get the 49ers in position for O'Sullivan's three–yard touchdown pass to Johnson. Seattle jumped to a 14–0 first quarter after taking advantage of two miscues by the 49ers. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Seattle punt early in the game, however Seattle recovered the loose ball and converted it into a first down inside San Francisco territory on a drive that ended with a Seattle touchdown. On the next series, Seattle forced Gore to fumble deep in Seahawks territory on a play that resulted in a 10–yard touchdown return by DT Craig Terrill.

Playoff Team

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER

Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito (1910-1957)

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation–wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California–Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but he was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All–America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D–Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league that would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 at the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

As the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast–growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All–America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand–picking an inaugural roster comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17–7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34–14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21–7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9–5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8–4–2 record in 1947, 12–2 finish in 1948 and 10–4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3–1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14–0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14–7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17–7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8–4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

Mieuli's longtime interest and love for sports sparked his future involvement in the professional sports teams that brought him five Super Bowl championship rings as a limited partner with the 49ers and one NBA World Championship as the owner of the Golden State Warriors.

In 1949, he accepted a position in the advertising department of the San Francisco Brewing Company, makers of Burgermeister beer. "Burgie" sponsored broadcasts of 49ers football games and in 1954, Mieuli produced the team's first telecast. Through his business relationship and friendship with Tony and Vic Morabito, the original owners of the 49ers, Franklin was offered the opportunity to purchase a share of the club, and today still holds stake in the 49ers franchise.

When the New York Giants moved west in 1958, Horace Stoneham offered Mieuli stock in the San Francisco Giants. In 1962, Franklin and a group of his friends also purchased the Philadelphia Warriors and the San Francisco Warriors were born. He became the only sportsman to have ownerships in three major league sports teams in the same area.

In the 25 years after he acquired majority ownership, the San Francisco and now Golden State Warriors were in the playoffs ten times, won four division titles and a World Championship in 1974–75. Mieuli is the first professional sports team owner to have named an African American as his head coach, Alvin Attles, a member of the team that moved west from Philadelphia. His longtime friend has served with the Warriors as a player, head coach, administrator, vice president and assistant general manager and in his 48th year with the club, is now a Warriors' ambassador.

Simultaneously, as president of Franklin Mieuli and Associates Radio and TV Production Co., he acquired radio and TV production rights to the Giants, 49ers and Warriors' games and engineered games for the A's and Raiders' broadcasts. He produced and handled the radio coverage for the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley with Lon Simmons, Russ Hodges, Gordy Soltau and Marty Martin as his broadcasting crew. Today, his company, managed by long–time employee Shirley Figgins Mortensen, continues to provide the radio engineering for 25 sports teams, including baseball, football, hockey and basketball, throughout the U.S. and Canada. He also owned radio stations, KPUP, (KHIP and KMPX) in San Francisco and was an owner of KTMX in Colusa, CA.

Mieuli received a degree in advertising from the University of Oregon and served a stint in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Mieuli passed away from natural causes at the age of 89 on April 24, 2010.

Mieuli and his former wife, Hilles Parish Cribari, are the parents of three children, seven grandchildren and five great–grandchildren. Ms. Blake Green, Mieuli's loving companion for the past 30 years, was formerly a feature writer for the San Francisco Chronicle and Newsday in New York.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS TEAM AWARDS

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five–time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

BILL WALSH AWARD

The Bill Walsh Award was established in 2004 in honor of San Francisco's Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Walsh, who passed away in 2007. Walsh served as the team's head coach for 10 seasons from 1979–88. In that time, he compiled a record of 102–63–1 and led the team to three Super Bowl victories. He was twice named NFL Coach of the Year (1981, 1984) and was later named Coach of the Decade for the 1980s. The award, which is voted on by coaches only, is given to the 49ers Team MVP, honoring his outstanding individual performance.

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is named after linebacker/center Matt Hazeltine, a 13–year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1949

December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950

The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951

In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952

After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid–season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER OF THE YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953

The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9–3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10–2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4–0–1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second–worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956

In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid–season with a 1–6 record. They went 4–0–1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957

This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17–7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21–17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8–4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31–27, after holding a 27–7 lead in the third quarter.

1958

An up–and–down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6–6 record, however, was blackened by the 33–3 and 56–7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21–20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960

Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30–22 upset of Baltimore.

1961

The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49–0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing–running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second–place tie, plus a trip to the Runner–up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth–place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962

For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 – A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2–12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20–14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964

Club Chief Executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4–10 record.

1965

Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7–6–1 record included a season–opening 52–24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966

After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6–6–2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All–Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967

An auspicious start (5–1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six–game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season–ending victories and salvage a 7–7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power–laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968

Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7–6–1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26–10, and Green Bay, 27–20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All–NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969

Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4–8–2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All–Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970

This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10–3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. QB John Brodie was the NFL'S Player of the Year, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC Rookie of the Year and Coach Dick Nolan was a near–unanimous choice as NFC Coach of the Year. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971

The 49ers forged a 9–5–0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31–27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

Early–season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third–straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20–17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine–game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All–Pro selections.

In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5–9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974

The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team–record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6–8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All–Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All–NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All–Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11–year career with the 49ers.

1975

A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5–9 season was a 24–23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10–game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first ever two–time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976

A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8–6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6–1), before hitting a mid–season four–game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single–season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All–Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All–Rookie team selection. Hart became a two–time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16–year career with the 49ers.

In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5–9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All–Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2–14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1–8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly–acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979

The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2–14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst–ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980

In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three–game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three–game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6–10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2–14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35–7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38–35. The 28–point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All–Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16–3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach of the Year award and all seven NFL Coach of the Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All–Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26–21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player of the Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman of the Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15–12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Champion– ship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945–47 to go from the worst NFL record (2–14 in 1979) to the league's best (13–3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3–6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike–shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0–5) but did manage a 3–1 road record (the Niners were 0–2 prior to the 57–day players' strike and 3–4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All–Pro and NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second–team All–Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300–yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10–6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24–23, but lost to Washington, 24–21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all–time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team–record 126 points, including a perfect 51–of–51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All–Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison.

The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38–16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team–record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league–low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985

At 10–6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first–year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986

The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981. Offensively, the team was led by All–Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team–record 16 total scores. The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions. The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2–9 due to back surgery, while backup signal–caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8–11 due to a hip injury.

1987

The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13–2 record. It marked a league–leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best win–loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed. WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication. QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine–year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988

The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10–yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s." The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5–2 record, but by Week 12 were 6–5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play. That week's victory over Washington launched a four–game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single–season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27). WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record–tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana–to–Rice battery hooked–up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown. Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail–biting wins at Indianapolis (30–24) and Tampa Bay (20–16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team–record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10–point victory (38–28) in Philadelphia. Under first–year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions. Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player of the Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single–season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. Fueled by Rice's 72–yard first quarter catch–and–run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41–13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest. The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second–quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21–3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30–3 win. The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55–10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

The Niners finished the season with an NFL–best 14–2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15–13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl. In addition to recording the NFL's best win–loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983–84, 1986–90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles). San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team–record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8–0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91. QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team–record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference. On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45–35 victory at Atlanta, October 14. The defensive side of the ball was led by LB–DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC–high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth–year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team–high 72 solo stops. A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all–time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506. The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991. After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982. The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six–game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six–game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process. WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club–record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions. QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title. When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3). LB–DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99–yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history. San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven–year career that he was selected to play on the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14–2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons. In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20–13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30–20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week. WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all–time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11–29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12–6). QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back–to–back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year. RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first–year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year. On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed. Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56–17, 10–18). San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first–time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight–year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10–6 record, marking an NFL–record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game. In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records. The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989. Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club–record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single–season charts. RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000–yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single–game playoff record with a five–touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants. WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles. Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL–record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49–26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16–3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy. The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL–imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first-round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd. Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries. Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park. The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl. Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61. QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP. Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury. Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3). San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players. Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season. Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate. One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami. Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996

One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12-4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense. Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first-team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season. Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season. As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997

Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense. Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season. Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest. The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record-setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team-record and was a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection. The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns. The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover. Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards. San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per-rush average of 5.0 yards. The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances. A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6-10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl – QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens. Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team-record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S Most Improved Player. WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams. The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns. The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12-4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all–star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16–year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001. The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316–of–504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third–year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career–high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000–yard rusher, which set a new team record. The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC Rookie of the Month. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team–record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career–highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career–high and team record 97–yard return at Chicago.

The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5–1 division record and won their first division title since 1997. The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career–high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17. In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth–quarter comebacks. WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career–high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid. Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career–high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12–8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance. DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career–high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

Head Coach Steve Mariucci was released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003. The Erickson era started with a 7–9 record for the 49ers in 2003. The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games. The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii. On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2–1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000–yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000–yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year. The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2–14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16–game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium. The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff. On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best–ever by a 49ers' tight end. WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career–best 417–yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16–point fourth–quarter deficit to win 31–28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team–record 38 passes en route to his first 400–yard game. DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi–sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career–high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third–longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100–tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season–ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles. The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second–year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the starting lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second–year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career–high nine stops against Washington. The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6–yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81–yard punt against Tampa Bay (11–21–04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth–longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4–12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail–biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston. The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL–record 103,467 fans. Even though the 49ers lost a league–high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson). On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28–25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket. WR Brandon Lloyd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100–yard single–game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for 608 yards. After losing C Jeremy Newberry and LT Jonas Jennings to injuries, the offensive line was able to develop some consistency in the second half of the season with rookie LT Adam Sndyer and rookie G David Baas making significant strides as starters. Eric Heitmann also held strong as both a guard and center. Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi–sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all–time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100–yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish posted two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each. The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co–MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56–yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third–best ratio of touchbacks–to–punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75–yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first–ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

2006

Under the direction of second–year Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers continued to build a framework for success – that included utilizing young talent sprinkled with enough veteran leadership to mentor and keep the group heading in the right direction. After a 4–12 campaign in 2005, the 49ers significantly increased their win total to seven and closed the year with two, morale–boosting road wins in Seattle and Denver to finish 7–9. The organization picked up some key free agents prior to the start of the 2006 season, including All–Pro and future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, speedy playmaker CB Walt Harris and 13–year NFL veteran and proven Super Bowl winner QB Trent Dilfer. Their acquisitions paid immediate dividends. Allen and Harris joined second–year RB Frank Gore at the Pro Bowl to mark the 25th time in club history the team has been represented, and Dilfer served as a sturdy mentor to second–year starting QB Alex Smith. The 49ers also added talent through the draft, picking up nine immediate contributors. Eight of the nine draft picks (TE Vernon Davis, LB Manny Lawson, WR Brandon Williams, RB Michael Robinson, DE/LB Parys Haralson, TE Delanie Walker, S Marcus Hudson and DE Melvin Oliver) saw action during the season while three (Davis, Lawson and Oliver) were starters. Offensively, the 49ers grew by leaps and bounds, largely in part to the schemes and game plans run by new Offensive Coordinator Norv Turner. QB Alex Smith began to flourish under Turner's guidance and became the first–ever 49ers quarterback to take every snap for the entire regular season while showing dramatic improvement in year two. He set career highs in every offensive category and led the 49ers to a fourth–quarter comeback win (24–14) in Seattle in his first career primetime game. C Eric Heitmann held strong under center, serving as the line's vocal and emotional leader and Bobb McKittrick Award winner. Leading the offensive production was RB Frank Gore, who plowed behind the line and new free agent FB Moran Norris en route to setting a franchise–record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and another record 2,180 combined yards. His 212–yard performance against Seattle was the highest single–game rushing total in 49ers history and was one of nine 100–yard rushing performances on the season. Gore was voted the team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner and Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Also chipping in was rookie TE Vernon Davis, who scored on his first NFL touch, a 31–yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Arizona. The defensive unit overcame some early struggles and improved significantly during the second half of the season. LB Brandon Moore led the unit in tackles (114) and sacks (6.5) in his first year as a full–time starter. Consummate veterans LB Derek Smith (93 tackles), DT Marques Douglas (75 tackles, three sacks) and seven–time Len Eshmont Award winner DE Bryant Young (60 tackles, 5.5 sacks) led the group up front while CB Walt Harris and S Keith Lewis (72 tackles, two interceptions, one sack) proved to be new, impact presences in the secondary. Harris finished with one sack and a career–high eight interceptions including a 28–yard touchdown return at Denver. Rookie LB Manny Lawson wrapped his inaugural campaign with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one interception and a blocked punt while rookie DE Melvin Oliver had 50 stops, one sack and a 12–yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, K Joe Nedney amassed 116 points, the second–highest total of his career and eighth most in team history. Nedney was also successful on three onsides kicks. RB Maurice Hicks continued to play a key role in the special teams effort. He led the unit with 20 tackles, one fumble recovery and also returned 57 kickoffs for a franchise record 1,428 yards, third best in the NFC. Also making a difference on the special teams unit was rookie RB Michael Robinson, who finished with 16 stops and a 33–yard return for a first down on a fake punt at Seattle.

Head coach Mike Nolan and his team entered the 2007 season believing that anything less than the playoffs would be a disappointment. Unfortunately, the team fell far short of that mark with an overall 5–11 record as four different quarterbacks took the helm of the 49ers offense. 49ers fans did experience some highlights in 2007, including another 1,000–yard rushing season for RB Frank Gore and a stellar season by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers top pick out of Ole Miss won Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. Willis was also the only NFL rookie to be named All–Pro in 2007, becoming the first 49ers defensive rookie to earn the honor since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. His 226 tackles was an unofficial NFL record and Willis earned numerous additional accolades. P Andy Lee joined Willis at the Pro Bowl as he put together one of the greatest punting season in NFL history. Lee set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20–yard line with 42, while ranking second in gross punting average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) behind Oakland's P Shane Lechler. The 49ers went 2–1 in primetime games in 2007, winning the season opener on Monday Night Football against the Arizona Cardinals and defeating the Cincinnati Bengals on a Saturday night game in December. QB Alex Smith started the season with a 2–1 record before experiencing a shoulder injury in the fourth game of the season against Seattle. He eventually was placed on Injured Reserve in December and underwent surgery. QB Trent Dilfer stepped in for Smith and led the team with 1,166 passing yards on 113–of–219 passing. Dilfer eventually would suffer a concussion vs. Minnesota (12–9), and QB Shaun Hill replaced the veteran in Week 13 of the season. Hill was sharp during his three games of action, completing 54–of–79 passes for 501 yards with five touchdowns and one interception. However, Hill would also succumb to injury, being sidelined with a back injury for the season finale. QB Chris Weinke saw action in the final game of the season. Despite inconsistency on offense, the 49ers special teams unit was among the league's most elite in 2007. K Joe Nedney connected on 17–of–19 field goal attempts, while Lee booted 49 punts of 50 or more yards (16 more than any other punter). At the conclusion of the season, one of the all–time great 49ers, DT Bryant Young, retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with San Francisco. Young led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks and finished with 89.5 sacks for his career, which is third on the 49ers all–time sack list behind Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. He earned his eighth Len Eshmont Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2008 season following a simple mantra, 'One game at a time.' Throughout the year, 49ers players and coaches experienced several transitions and tribulations, but did not allow their minds to linger in the past, nor venture too far into the future. The focused approach proved effective as the team won five of its final seven games to close out the season. After a promising 2–1 start to the year, San Francisco dropped four straight contests before making a change at head coach. In his fourth season at the helm of the 49ers, Mike Nolan was replaced by assistant head coach/linebackers coach Mike Singletary. Upon accepting the position, Singletary said the foundation was in place to take the team to the 'next level.' The response by his players and staff proved positive as the 49ers finished with a 5–4 record under Singletary's direction. Immediately following the conclusion of the season finale against Washington, team President Jed York announced to onlooking players and coaches in the locker room that Singletary would remain the 49ers head coach moving forward. The quarterback position was one of the first areas that Singletary addressed when taking over midway through the 2008 season. QB J.T. O'Sullivan started the first eight games of the year and showed an ability to make big plays, but costly turnovers proved to be problematic for the signal caller. O'Sullivan was replaced at the end of the first half of Singletary's first game as head coach against Seattle. Singletary later announced QB Shaun Hill would take over the starting role for the remainder of the season. The move appeared to be the right one as Hill went on to post a 5–3 record and a 87.5 overall passer rating. While Hill made his season debut midway through the year, RB Frank Gore was once again the centerpiece of the 49ers offense. Despite missing two games with an ankle injury, Gore became the first 49ers player to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, finishing the year with 1,036 rushing yards and 1,409 total yards from scrimmage. WR Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first season in a 49ers uniform after spending 14 years with the Rams, recorded team–highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (835) and touchdown catches (7). TE Vernon Davis, who was named as an alternate for the Pro Bowl, finished the season ranked fourth on the team in receptions (31) and receiving yards (358). On defense, Singletary consulted with defensive coordinator Greg Manusky and transitioned the unit into a more simplified, yet productive 3–4 alignment midway through the season. Over the final nine games of the year, the 49ers improved from 23rd in total defense to finish 13th (326.0) in the NFL. LB Patrick Willis earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after totaling a team–high 185 tackles, while LB Takeo Spikes ranked second on the team with 122 tackles to go along with three interceptions in his first year with San Francisco. LB Parys Haralson had a breakout season with eight sacks, the most by a 49ers linebacker since Kevin Greene posted 10.5 in 1997. The 49ers defensive line got a boost with the offseason signing of DE Justin Smith, who ranked second on the team with seven sacks and fourth on the squad with 104 tackles. As one of the most experienced units in the NFL, the 49ers secondary finished the season strong, allowing an average of 177.4 passing yards per game over the final five contests, which ranked third among NFL teams during that time span. For the second year in a row, the 49ers special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. Led by special teams coordinator Al Everest, P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl. Lee finished the season ranked third in the NFL with a career–high and team–record 47.8 gross average.

2009

The 49ers took a step forward in 2009, recording their best finish since 2002 with an 8–8 record in head coach Mike Singletary's first full season, which included a 5–1 record against the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season with a bang against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals. LB Patrick Willis, who was named to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter at year's end, recorded the first of his career–high 3 INTs on the year to propel his team to a 20–16 road victory. RB Frank Gore also played a large role in the win, scoring the go–ahead TD in the 4th qtr. as part of a 2–score performance. On the season, he went on to set personal bests with 10 rushing TDs and 13 total TDs, while becoming the only 49er ever to post four 1,000–yd. rushing seasons, despite missing two games to an ankle injury. Gore repeated his 2–TD performance the following week in a 23–10 victory at home against Seattle, running for scores of 79 and 80 yds. to join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75+ yds. in a single game. With the momentum of a spotless division record, San Fran traveled to Minnesota for what would be an action–packed matchup. In a game where an ankle injury felled Gore on his first attempt, TE Vernon Davis rose to the occasion and recorded 2 TDs, one of which gave the 49ers a 4–point lead in the 4th qtr., which they held until Minnesota's last drive. Vikings QB Brett Favre milked every last second as he fired a 32–yd. TD pass with 2 seconds remaining, stabbing the hearts of 49ers fans. The 49ers bounced back the next week against St. Louis, defeating the Rams 35–0 to mark the first shutout by the team since 2002. Following a crushing 45–10 loss to Atlanta at Candlestick Park, San Fran added another weapon to its arsenal as rookie WR Michael Crabtree joined the team over the bye weekend after missing the first 5 games of the season because of a contract impasse. Crabtree hit the ground running and went on to lead all NFL rookies with a 56.8 yds./game avg. over the final 11 contests. In his debut at Houston, the rookie dazzled the crowd with some acrobatic catches, but the show would eventually turn to two 49er veterans. After falling behind 21 points at halftime, Singletary made a change at quarterback, inserting Alex Smith into the lineup for Shaun Hill. Smith, who hadn't seen any action in nearly two years, responded by throwing a career–high 3 TDs in the final 2 qtrs., all of which were caught by Davis. Following the Texans game, Smith would go on to start the remainder of the season and register career–highs in passing TDs (18), completion pct. (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5), while Davis proceeded to put up historic numbers on his way to being named a starter in his first Pro Bowl. The talented tight end finished the year with 965 yds. and tied the NFL single–season record for TD receptions (13) by a tight end. The next week at Indianapolis, the team lost starting LT Joe Staley on the first offensive play to a knee injury. Behind the crafty play–calling of defensive coordinator Greg Manusky, the 49ers became the only team to hold NFL MVP QB Peyton Manning without a TD on the season. Despite the unit's valiant effort, the 49ers fell 18–14. A 34–27 loss to the Titans at home inspired the squad for a prime–time, Thursday Night Football showdown against Chicago. In what was a microcosm of the defense's season, the unit recorded 5 INTs, including SS Michael Lewis' victory–sealing pick in the end zone. After digging themselves a 23–3 hole at Green Bay, San Fran valiantly battled back in the final 2 qtrs., only to come up short by less than a TD in the 30–24 defeat. The defense exacted revenge at home against Jacksonville the following week, allowing just 3 points as Davis and Gore each scored in the 20–9 victory. Despite a career–high 310 yds. passing from Smith, the 49ers lost in Seattle, 20–17, before returning home for a prime time, MNF rematch against Arizona. A statement game for the defense, the 49ers forced 7 turnovers (5 FRs, 2 INTs), including a franchise record 7 FFs, as the 24–9 win sealed the season sweep of the Cardinals. The Niners penchant for forcing turnovers allowed them to post the NFL's 5th–best turnover ratio in 2009 (33 takeaways; 24 giveaways). In the blizzard–beaten city of Philadelphia the following Sunday, the Niners struggled with turnovers in a 27–13 loss to the Eagles. Facing Detroit a week later, TDs from Davis and Gore led the way as the 49ers outgunned the Lions 20–6. San Fran would move toward its final game in St. Louis with a chance to secure its first non–losing season since 2002. Overcoming a slow 1st half, Alex Smith and Co. put up 28 points in the final half, including a 73–yd. TD catch by Davis to register his record–tying total. Gore capped off the day with 2 TDs and his 5th 100–yd. performance of the year, giving him 20 such career games and tying him with Joe Perry for the franchise record.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980–99), the San Francisco 49ers established themselves as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20–year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back–to–back 2–14 seasons in 1978–79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.
