MEDIA INFORMATION

Please direct requests for information, photos and interviews to the Buccaneer Public Relations Department, One Buccaneer Place, Tampa, FL 33607, (813) 870-2700. After 5 p.m. and on weekends call (813) 879-5592. Rick Odioso, Director—Home (813) 962-1559; Cheryl Harden, Asst. Director—Home (813) 886-5520; Mark Schiefelbein—Home (813) 885-2461. The Buccaneers' PR Fax number is 813/878-0813. The phone number for the media trailer is 871-2179.

PRESS BOX: The Bucs maintain two press boxes on the first (auxiliary) and third levels (main press box) of Tampa Stadium. All working news media with the proper credentials should enter the press gate (west side of stadium). The main press box number is (813) 875-2827. Please keep this number confidential.

CREDENTIALS: News media representatives on assignment who do not hold press box credentials for the season should request single-game reservations one week in advance by writing or calling Rick Odioso. Reserved credentials may be picked up at the press gate on game day. The press gate is located on the Dale Mabry Highway side (west) of Tampa Stadium and is open four hours before kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Field photographers should enter the press gate and proceed to the media room to obtain a sideline pass for field admission. No one except network television and game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. There is also a photo deck located on the fourth level. Space is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Field photographers are cautioned that the bench area inside the 35-yard line is off-limits to all non-playing personnel. Field photographers must also remain at least 12 feet outside of the sideline boundary.

Photographers are asked to take special note of the following conditions for use of press credentials:

Any secondary non-editorial use of any picture, film/tape or drawing of the game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including but not limited to use in advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the National Football League. Additionally, television stations are prohibited from making available game film or tape to any other organization even though the planned use may be editorial in nature without advance written permission from the NFL or one of its member clubs. Such film or tape may be aired only by the specific station or entity to whom this credential is issued.

Television stations filming or taping NFL games recognize that any film or tapes may only be used in connection with a regularly scheduled television newscast within a seven-day period following the game and the film clip or taped portion of each such showing will not exceed two (2) minutes in length.

Additionally, television stations agree not to use more that six (6) minutes of filmed or taped "same-day" highlights from NFL games on any regularly scheduled news programs (i.e. no more than six minutes of highlights on Sunday night). This is the only exception to the two-minute limitation.

TELEPHONE: There are three outside lines and four pay telephones located in the main press box, and an additional outside line in the auxiliary box. Requests for individual telephone circuits should be directed to Debbie Marchitto, Service Representative, Tampa Stadium, General Telephone Company, (813) 664-2475 or 1-800-782-4801.

GAY CULVERHOUSE
President

Gay Culverhouse is now carrying on a family tradition with her recent appointment as President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. An academic achiever in the field of education, she has quickly made her mark in business as well.

She formally joined the Buccaneers in 1986 and became Vice President/Treasurer in 1990. Now she has advanced to the role of President. "Gay has established her leadership skills in the last year and is well qualified to serve as president," says Owner Hugh Culverhouse. "She will oversee the operations of the corporate sales, business, public relations and ticket departments."

After graduating with honors with a bachelor's degree in special education from the University of Florida in 1969, she earned a master's degree in mental retardation (1970) and a doctoral degree in special education (1982) from Columbia University. She was formerly a professor in the psychiatry department of the University of South Florida's College of Medicine and is a member of the Phi Lambda Theta scholastic honor society.

She is also highly active in a wide range of civic and community affairs, most notably as a member of the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce's Executive Committee and member of the Board of Governors. She is currently the Chamber's Secretary/Treasurer and will become President in 1994.

In addition, she is a member of 18 Boards of Directors (including those of Bethune-Cookman College, the Hillsborough County Family Services Association, the Hillsborough County United Way and St. Petersburg's All Children's Hospital) and is the director of the Hugh F. Culverhouse Foundation, Inc. She is president of the Board of Directors of Tampa Crossroads, a program helping those who have been incarcerated adjust to a return to society.

During her tenure with the Buccaneers, she has initiated dropout prevention programs with the public schools and a variety of anti-drug programs in the Tampa Bay area. She founded the Buccaneer Grant program, which helps channel needed funds to a wide variety of agencies in the Bay area.

The past year, while she served as Vice President/Treasurer, has been a busy and productive one as she oversaw the negotiation of an extension on the team's lease at Tampa Stadium and the installation of a Jumbotron replay board.

Her husband, Tampa attorney William Reece Smith, Jr., is the Past President of the International Bar Association and Chairman of the Tampa Committee of 100. She has two children; a son, Chris (18) and a daughter, Leigh (17).

PHIL KRUEGER
General Manager

Hugh Culverhouse's February 4th press conference brought the naming of the fourth Buccaneer head coach, Richard Williamson, plus a general manager - a position left void in the organization since 1977. The job may be unfamiliar to Tampa Bay, but many of the duties are not new to the new general manager, Phil Krueger.

For 13 years, Krueger has worked with the Buccaneers in a role similar to that of many NFL general managers. Since being named as the assistant to the owner in 1978, he has been one of the league's most successful negotiators in player contracts. The Buccaneers have never had a player holdout last into the regular season.

He has also been responsible for many of the Bucs' day-to-day football activities such as training camp, representing the team at NFL functions, dealing with the NFL Players Association and the administration of the football budget.

The difference now is one of accountability, as Krueger is the first to point out. "In the past I've implemented the policies of others, particularly the various head coaches," he says. "Now the formulation of our overall football plan is my responsibility. It will be a management team in every sense of the word. We will rely on all of our resources, coaches and scouts in reaching our decisions."

It would seem to be a substantial increase in duties, but a heavy workload is nothing new to Krueger. For 44 years of his life, Krueger has been involved with football in one way or another, including all 16 years of the Buccaneers' existence.

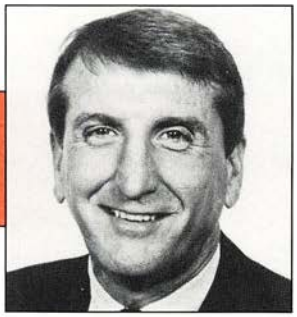

Philip C. Krueger was born in LaSalle, Illinois on October 6, 1929 and graduated from University City High School near St. Louis. He is an honors graduate in English from Southeast Missouri State (bachelor's degree) and Missouri (master's). He served in the US Army during the Korean War and earned a Bronze Star.

After an outstanding career as a high school and junior college coach (assistant for Long Beach City College's 1960 national junior college champions), he was an assistant at Utah State in 1963 and head coach at Fresno State (1964-65). He joined John McKay's staff at the University of Southern California in 1966 where he coached the linebackers, including six All-American selections.

Krueger was recruiting coordinator and linebacker coach at the University of Illinois in 1971-72, before assuming the head coaching position at Utah State for three seasons (21-12 overall). He was the coach at Utah State when John McKay tabbed him as the Buccaneers' first assistant in 1976. He coached the Bucs' special teams, while assuming contract negotiator status in 1978.

An avid jogger and tennis player, he is the president of the Fairway Town Homes Owner's Association. His wife, Kathy, is a practicing registered nurse. Their daughter, Kristi, is a news anchor at WDIV-TV in Detroit.

RICHARD WILLIAMSON
Head Coach

Schooled in nearly a lifetime of winning football, Richard Williamson brings a firm, yet congenial, approach to his role as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' new head coach.

He moved immediately into coaching following his graduation from the University of Alabama and has been involved in football in the 28 years since - eight as an NFL assistant and six as a college head coach.

His focus has been offense, as a receiver and as a coach, although he did coach defensively for two years at Alabama. "I believe that you can't do anything without a strong kicking game and defense. Offensively, I believe it's important to be balanced," he says. "When I was a receiver and receivers coach, I liked to throw the ball. I believe in the passing game. But I also believe you have to be flexible. You can't live by the pass alone if they don't respect your run."

Richard A. Williamson was born in Fort Deposit, Alabama on April 13, 1941 and graduated from Lowndes County High School. He went to the University of Alabama where he was a star receiver and a strong safety. He led the Crimson Tide in receiving in both 1961 and 1962 as Alabama won the 1961 national championship and finished a combined 21-1 with victories in the Sugar and Cotton Bowls. He was selected All-SEC third team at end in 1962.

Upon graduation, Williamson signed as a free agent with the Boston Patriots but was waived. He then immediately began his coaching career as the University of Alabama's receivers coach. For 12 years he served as an assistant at two of the nation's finest college programs, Alabama and Arkansas. He was receivers coach at Alabama from 1963 to 1967, moved to Arkansas as receivers coach for two years, returned to Alabama as a defensive coach for two years in 1970 and then back to Arkansas as backfield coach for three seasons in 1972.

In 1975, at the age of 34, he became the head coach at Memphis State and produced a 31-35 record in six years at the Tigers' helm. In 1976 Williamson was named the Southern Independent Coach of the Year and twice coached in the Blue-Gray Game.

After a brief stint as executive director of the Bluebonnett Bowl, Williamson moved to the pro ranks in 1983 with Kansas City. The Chiefs' receiving corps developed into one of the league's best under his direction. He joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1987 and was a finalist for the head coaching jobs at Alabama and Kentucky in 1989.

Kansas City's Carlos Carson (1984) and the Bucs' Mark Carrier (1989) are Pro Bowl receivers he has coached, while it was the Chiefs' Stephone Paige who set an NFL record with 309 yards receiving in a game against San Diego on December 12, 1985. Two of his receivers, Bruce Hill (1988) and Mark Carrier (1989), were selected as the Bucs' Most Valuable Player, while Ron Hall was chosen as Sports Illustrated's All-Pro tight end in 1990.

He and his wife, Norma, a real estate broker, have two children, Rich (25) and Caroline (23). In his spare time he enjoys golf. He has been active with a number of charities in the Tampa Bay area.

ASSISTANT COACHES

HANK KUHLMANN
Offensive Coordinator and Running Backs

NFL veteran Hank Kuhlmann brings 27 years of coaching experience at the college and professional level to his new role with the Buccaneers.

A scout for the Phoenix Cardinals in 1990, Kuhlmann coached the Cardinals' running backs the previous four seasons. He also served as the interim head coach for the final five games of the 1989 season.

After graduating from the University of Missouri, Kuhlmann returned to his alma mater (1962-1965) as the freshman football coach. In 1966, he was promoted to running backs coach as Missouri appeared in the 1968 Gator Bowl and the 1969 Orange Bowl.

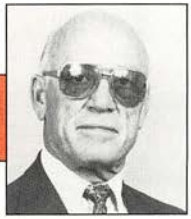

He then moved to the NFL in 1972 as the special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers as the Packers won the NFC Central Division title. He followed Packers' Head Coach Dan Devine to Notre Dame in 1975 and served as the running backs and special teams coach for three seasons. During Kuhlmann's stint with Notre Dame, the Irish appeared in the 1976 Gator Bowl and won the 1977 National Championship in the Cotton Bowl.

Kuhlmann returned to the NFL (1978-82) as running backs and special teams coach for the Chicago Bears. He honed the exceptional skills of Walter Payton as the Bears gained a wild card playoff berth in 1979. Kuhlmann also served for three years (1983-1985) as the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions, who won the 1984 Southern Division crown and the 1985 Eastern Conference title.

Born on October 6, 1937, the native of Webster Groves, Missouri, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the University of Missouri before playing four seasons as a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization from 1959-1962. Kuhlmann and his wife, Donna, have two children, Jeff (22) and Tracey (14).

Coaching Experience: Phoenix Cardinals (1990), scout; Phoenix Cardinals (1986-1989), running backs coach; Birmingham Stallions - USFL (1983-1985), assistant head coach/offensive coordinator; Chicago Bears (1978-1982), running backs/special teams coach; Notre Dame (1975-1977), running backs/special teams coach; Green Bay Packers (1972-1974), special teams coach; Missouri (1966-1971), running backs coach, freshman coach (1962-65).

FLOYD PETERS
Defensive Coordinator and Defensive Line

Floyd Peters brings an impressive resume to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in his first year as defensive coordinator. This is his 18th consecutive year as an NFL defensive line coach and 10th consecutive season as a coordinator. The last 15 defenses he has been associated with have all ranked in the NFL's top 15.

Peters shaped the Minnesota Vikings' defense for the past five seasons (1986-1990), developing them into one of the most feared units in the league. His Viking defense was the number one-rated defense in the NFL in both 1988 and 1989. The 1989 Vikings also led the NFL in passing defense and sacks (71), while his 1988 squad topped the NFL in takeaways (53), interceptions (36) and fewest first downs allowed (243). During his tenure with the Vikings, he developed such Pro Bowl talents as Keith Millard (NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1989), Chris Doleman, Joey Browner and Carl Lee.

Before his stint with the Vikings, Peters was assistant head coach/defensive coordinator with the St. Louis Cardinals (1982-85), where his 1983 unit led the NFL with 59 sacks. He also served as defensive line coach at Detroit (1978-81), where defensive end Al "Bubba" Baker was a two-time Pro Bowl selection. The 1978 Detroit line set a team sack record with 55 and the 1981 Lions topped the NFC with 47 sacks.

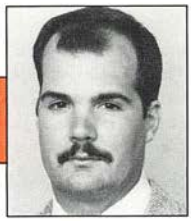

In 1976, while serving as defensive line coach with San Francisco, his defensive line led the NFL in sacks with 61. He spent the 1970 season with Vince Lombardi and the Washington Redskins as player/coach and became a fulltime NFL defensive line coach with the New York Giants in 1974.

Peters was an eighth-round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts out of San Francisco State in 1958, where he played defensive tackle and guard. He spent one year with the Colts and then went on to play for Cleveland, Detroit and Philadelphia. While at Philadelphia, he was selected to play in three Pro Bowls (1964, 1966 and 1967) and was named Most Valuable Lineman of the 1967 game. He also served as the Eagles' captain.

Peters was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa on May 21, 1936. He graduated from Swett High School in Crockett, California. He and his wife, Nancy, have four sons: Craig (33), Kelly (30), Dean (27) and Allen (26).

JEFF FITZGERALD
Defensive Assistant

Jeff Fitzgerald begins his second season as defensive assistant with the Buccaneers. His duties include assisting Steve Shafer with the defensive backs and the breakdown of opponent's video for the defensive coaches, as well as directing the scout team.

Fitzgerald started his coaching career in 1981 at Burroughs High School in Burbank, California, as a varsity assistant. He spent two seasons there before moving to Burbank High School in the same capacity for three years (1983-85). He was a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati for two seasons (1985-86) before going to Alabama for four seasons (1986-1989); three as a graduate assistant and one as a volunteer assistant. Among his duties at Alabama were assisting with linebackers and special teams, coordinating the walk-on program and being a full-time faculty instructor.

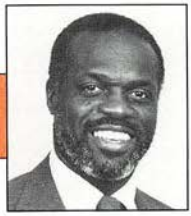

He played collegiately at Pierce Junior College in Southern California for two years before transferring to Oregon State for his final two years. He played semi-pro football for the Burbank Bandits for two years.

Fitzgerald earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal State at Northridge and his master's degree in physical education from Alabama. He was a volunteer at the 1984 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles in the weightlifting events.

He was born on April 18, 1960, in Burbank, California, where he graduated from John Burroughs High School. His wife's name is Leslie.

Coaching Experience: Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1990-present), defensive assistant; Alabama (1988-89), volunteer linebacker coach; Alabama (1986-87), graduate assistant; Cincinnati (1985), graduate assistant.

RAY HAMILTON
Defensive Line Assistant

Ray Hamilton brings nine years of playing experience and six years of coaching to his new position with the Buccaneers. Hamilton, widely known as "Sugar Bear" while one of the NFL's best nose tackles for the New England Patriots from 1973 to 1981, will assist Defensive Coordinator Floyd Peters with the defensive line.

Hamilton spent the 1990 season as head coach of the Bay State Titans, a minor league team, who finished the year 10-1. Defensive lineman Eric Swann, who was the sixth player chosen overall by the Phoenix Cardinals in the 1991 draft, was one of his players.

Hamilton had previously coached the defensive line for the Patriots from 1985 to 1989 and he and his wife, Paula, owned and operated their own printing company, Hamilton Printers. During his first year on Raymond Berry's staff, the Patriots advanced all the way to the Super Bowl.

A 14th-round draft choice from Oklahoma in 1973, Hamilton started every game but one during his first eight seasons and finished with 132 games played and 117 started. The 6-1, 245-pound Hamilton made up for his relative lack of size with quickness and technique to record 53.5 sacks during his career. Fritz Shurmur, one of his coaches at New England, said, "Ray is the best I've seen at executing the mechanics of the nose tackle position." He recovered 14 fumbles, the third-best figure in Patriot history.

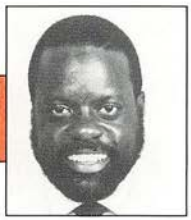

Hamilton was a two-time All-Big Eight performer for the Sooners before his professional career began with the Patriots in 1973. He immediately set a team record for quarterback sacks by a rookie with seven. In 1977, he recorded a career-high 9.5 sacks.

He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Oklahoma (1973) and a master's degree in public administration from Suffolk University (1977), making the dean's list at both schools. Hamilton, an avid tennis player, is also an accredited tennis official who has worked several professional tournaments in the Boston area.

Hamilton was born on January 20, 1951, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, as the second of 12 children. He and his wife, Paula, have two sons, Kadar (15) and Damon (12).

Coaching Experience: Bay State Titans (1990), head coach; New England Patriots (1985-89), defensive line.

TIM HARKNESS
Receivers

Tim Harkness comes to Tampa Bay after a successful four-season stint as receivers and tight ends coach at the University of Illinois (1987-1990). During that time he tutored two Illini players who were drafted by the NFL, Darryl Usher and Mike Bellamy.

Harkness is no stranger to the Sunshine State. From 1977 to 1981 he worked for IBM at the Kennedy Space Center as a system's software programmer for the Space Shuttle. He also assisted with the football team at Merritt Island High School.

He then decided to turn his attention to coaching and secured a graduate assistant's position at Georgia Tech while earning his master's degree in business administration systems from Georgia State University. He was a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech for three years (1982-84) and at Alabama (1985-86) before taking the fulltime position at Illinois in 1987, where he served on the staffs of Mike White and John Mackovic.

A graduate of Johnson C. Smith University, he earned four varsity letters as an offensive guard and was named co-captain his senior year.

He was born on April 2, 1955, in Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He graduated from W.J. Keenan High School where he lettered in football, wrestling and track. In his spare time he enjoys listening to jazz music and playing basketball.

Coaching Experience: Illinois (1987-1990), receivers/tight ends; Alabama (1985-86), graduate assistant; Georgia Tech (1982-84), graduate assistant.

KENT JOHNSTON
Strength and Conditioning

Kent Johnston enters his fifth season as the Buccaneers' strength and conditioning coach. He oversees all the weight training and fitness, including structuring specific training programs for each athlete.

He earned high marks as a strength and conditioning coach at Alabama in 1985 and 1986 as the Crimson Tide weight program was regarded as one of the finest in the country. Among the many athletes he has developed include such NBA players as Buck Johnson (Houston Rockets), Derrick McKey (Seattle Super Sonics) and Michael Ansley (Orlando Magic) as well as NFL stars Cornelius Bennett (Buffalo Bills) and Derrick Thomas (Kansas City Chiefs). He has implemented karate as part of the Bucs' conditioning program.

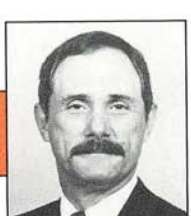

Johnston began his coaching career in 1978 at Teague (TX) High School as an assistant coach before moving to Northeast Louisiana in 1979. From there he went to Northwestern State, where he became the strength coach in 1980 and 1981. After another brief stint as a high school assistant in 1982, he joined the University of Alabama as a graduate assistant for two seasons (1983-84) before being named strength and conditioning coach in 1985.

Johnston lettered in football as a defensive back at Stephen F. Austin, where he received his bachelor's degree in physical education and history. He earned his master's degree in physical education from Alabama in 1984.

Johnston was born on February 21, 1956, in Mexia, Texas and graduated from Mexia High School where he participated in football, tennis and track. He and his wife, Pam, have a son, Kody (1).

Coaching Experience: Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-present), strength and conditioning coach; Alabama (1985-86), strength and conditioning coach; Alabama (1983-84), graduate assistant; Northwestern State (1980-81), strength coach; Northeast Louisiana (1979), assistant coach.

DALE LINDSEY
Linebackers

Dale Lindsey joins the Buccaneers as the latest stop in an extensive and impressive coaching career. He brings 16 years of coaching and nine years as a linebacker with the Cleveland Browns to his new position.

Lindsey spent the 1990 season as the defensive line coach for the New England Patriots after spending the previous two seasons as defensive coordinator for Forrest Gregg at Southern Methodist. Prior to that he served as Gregg's linebacker coach at Green Bay (1986-87) where he honed the talents of All-Pro linebacker Tim Harris.

He began his four-league coaching career with the Cleveland Browns as linebacker coach in 1974 before moving on to the WFL's Portland Storm in 1975. Lindsey also served as head coach at Warren Central High School in Bowling Green, Kentucky (16-6 in 1977-78). He spent four years as linebacker coach with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts (1979-82) before going to the USFL's Boston Breakers (1983) and New Jersey Generals (1984-85).

Lindsey was born on January 18, 1943, in Bedford, Indiana, and grew up in Bowling Green, Kentucky. He was an outstanding player at Western Kentucky and was twice chosen as an All-Ohio Valley Conference linebacker and was a first team Little All-America selection as a senior. He was drafted by both the Browns (NFL, 7th round) and New York Jets (AFL) in the 1965 draft and played for Cleveland from 1965 to 1972.

He has three children, Nicholas (27), Jennifer (26) and Kimberly (24); two stepsons, Johnny (18) and Derek (16), and one grandchild, Heather. His wife's name is Eva.

Coaching Experience: New England Patriots (1990), linebackers; Southern Methodist (1988-89), defensive coordinator; Green Bay Packers (1986-87), linebackers; New Jersey Generals - USFL (1984-85), defensive coordinator; Boston Breakers - USFL (1983), linebackers; Toronto Argonauts - CFL (1979-82), linebackers; Portland Storm WFL (1975); Cleveland Browns (1974), linebackers.

ALAN LOWRY
Special Teams/Tight Ends

After a successful playing and coaching career in the state of Texas, Alan Lowry now joins the Buccaneers coaching the special teams and tight ends.

Lowry was the special teams coach for the Dallas Cowboys for six seasons and the receivers coach for three years, most recently in 1990. He joined the Cowboys and Tom Landry in 1982 as the special teams coach and during the next five seasons, they became one of the most respected units in the NFL. Under Lowry's coaching, Bill Bates, a rookie free agent, became a Pro Bowl performer in 1984. Bates was the first NFC player chosen for the Pro Bowl for his special teams coverage.

Lowry spent 1987-88 as the Cowboys receivers coach but returned to special teams in 1989. Dallas finished second in the league in kickoff return average and in the top 10 in kickoff coverage.

As a player at the University of Texas, Lowry performed the rare feat of being selected to the All-SWC team on both offense and defense. During 1970 and 1971, Lowry earned all-conference honors as a defensive back as the Longhorns won a national championship and two SWC titles. In 1972, Lowry switched to quarterback and earned All-SWC honors while leading Texas (10-1) to victory over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl.

Lowry received his degree in physical education from Texas. After graduation, he served as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech in 1974 and briefly served under Fred Akers at the University of Wyoming in 1975. Briefly in the Cowboys' scouting department in 1976, he returned to Texas where he coached the secondary for six years, including such All-America defensive backs as Raymond Clayborn and Johnnie Johnson.

He was born on November 21, 1950, in Irving, Texas, where he graduated from Irving High School. He and his wife, Donna, have two daughters, Marta (8) and Lindsay (3).

Coaching Experience: Dallas Cowboys (1982-1990), special teams (1982-1986, 1989), receivers (1987-88, 1990), scout (1976); Texas (1976-81), defensive backs; Wyoming (1975); Virginia Tech (1974).

CARL MAUCK
Offensive Line

Carl Mauck brings 20 years of NFL experience - 13 as a player and seven as a coach - to his new position tutoring the offensive line.

Mauck (pronounced ''mock'') initially joined the coaching ranks with the New Orleans Saints in 1982, under the direction of Bum Phillips, following his retirement as a player after the 1981 season. After four years with the Saints, Mauck spent three seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (1986-88) under John Mackovic and Frank Gansz. He spent the last two years in the lumber business in Missouri.

During his NFL career as a center, Mauck started 155 consecutive games and played in 156 straight contests. He was a 13th round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1969 and played one season there. Mauck then spent the 1970 season with the Miami Dolphins, before being traded to the San Diego Chargers in 1971.

In 1975 he was traded to the Houston Oilers, where he was the club's starting center until his retirement after 1981. While with Houston, he anchored an offensive line which blocked for Hall of Fame running back Earl Campbell and started in seven playoff games.

Mauck played both linebacker and center at Southern Illinois University. He also played basketball his freshman year at SIU with former NBA great Walt Frazier. Mauck graduated with honors in 1969, earning a degree in business management, and is enshrined in the SIU Sports Hall of Fame.

Mauck was born July 7, 1947, in McLeansboro, Illinois, where he graduated from Township High School. His hobbies include racquetball. He and his wife, Vicki, have four children -Tim (18), Chrissy (16), Teresa (14) and Cathy (11).

Coaching Experience: New Orleans Saints (1982-85), offensive line; Kansas City Chiefs (1986-88), offensive line.

TOM SCHERTZ
Offensive Assistant

Tom Schertz begins his first year as offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. His main job responsibility will be quality control, the breaking down of game film, and assisting Carl Mauck with the offensive line.

In 1990, Schertz served as the tight end coach at Southern Illinois and was responsible for film breakdown and scouting reports. In 1988 and 1989 he served as a graduate assistant under John Mackovic at Illinois.

Schertz played at Illinois from 1983 until 1987. He was a tight end during the Illini's Rose Bowl season in 1983. He missed the 1984 and 1985 seasons due to a knee injury and returned in 1986 and 1987 to a starting role at left tackle.

He won the Bruce Capel Award in both 1987 and 1988, given annually to the Illini player that shows the most courage and determination as voted by the team and staff. In 1987 and 1988 he made the dean's list and also received the George Huff Award which is given to athletes who maintain a 4.0 GPA.

He earned a bachelor's degree in program management in 1988 and obtained his master's degree in athletic administration from Illinois in 1990.

Schertz was born on August 7, 1965, in Tiskilwa, Illinois, where he was a standout athlete at Tiskilwa High School. He was a first team all-conference selection in football for three years as a tight end while garnering first team honors for two years as a defensive end and one year as a safety. His senior year he was a consensus all-state pick as a tight end. In basketball he was a three-year all-conference performer earning all-state honors his junior and senior seasons (first team selection as a senior) while in track he holds school records in the shot put (56-11.5) and discus (174-0). As a 13-year-old, he won the national AAU track and field championship in the discus, while finishing second in the shot put. In his spare time he enjoys hunting and fishing.

Coaching Experience: Southern Illinois (1990), tight ends; Illinois (1988-89) graduate assistant.

STEVE SHAFER
DEFENSIVE BACKS

Steve Shafer brings a wealth of coaching experience, eight years at the professional level and ten at the collegiate level, to his new position with the Buccaneers.

Shafer spent the previous eight seasons (1983-1990) as defensive back coach with the Los Angeles Rams. During his stint there the Rams averaged over 21 interceptions per year. In 1989, All-Pro cornerback Jerry Gray finished tied for third in the NFC with six interceptions. In 1986, the Rams picked off 28 passes, good for fourth in the NFL. The Rams' best season under Shafer came in 1985 with 29 passes intercepted (third in the NFC) with four of those interceptions returned for touchdowns.

During Shafer's tenure with the Rams he coached such Pro Bowl players as Gray, LeRoy Irvin, Nolan Cromwell and Gary Green.

Shafer began his coaching career at the College of San Mateo in 1968, where he took over as head coach in 1973. In his two years at the helm (1973-74), San Mateo went 15-6-1. From there he moved to San Diego State for eight seasons (1975-82) where he coached each of the defensive positions for the Aztecs before moving on to his position with the Rams for the 1983 season.

As a player, Shafer was a quarterback and defensive back at Utah State (1961-62). He was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers as a quarterback in the 11th round in 1963, but instead he opted to play for the British Columbia Lions of the CFL. He spent five years with the Lions, while also serving as athletic director and head of the physical education department at Westminster High School in British Columbia.

Shafer was born on December 8, 1940, in Glendale California. He and his wife, Jane, have two children, Don (27) and Shawn (24).

Coaching Experience: Los Angeles Rams (1983-1990), defensive backs; San Diego State (1975-82); College of San Mateo (1968-74), head coach (1973-74).

MORRIS WATTS
Quarterbacks

Success has followed Morris Watts and his quarterbacks just about everywhere he has gone in his 28 years of coaching.

Watts spent five seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Michigan State (1986-1990) as the Spartans went to four bowl games, including the Rose Bowl after the 1987 season. In 1986, Dave Yarema enjoyed the greatest passing season in Spartan history, completing 200 of 297 passes (67.3%) for 2,581 yards. In his four years at Michigan State, the Spartans had a record of 25-5-2 in Big Ten play.

Watts is reunited with offensive coordinator Hank Kuhlmann, with whom he worked with the USFL's Birmingham Stallions in 1984-85. While with Birmingham, quarterback Cliff Stoudt enjoyed the greatest success of his career completing 478 of 810 passes (59.0%) for 6,749 yards, 60 touchdowns and 26 interceptions. He led the league in passing in 1984 and finished second to Jim Kelly in both 1985 and USFL career passing efficiency (95.9 rating). Birmingham won the Southern Division title in 1984 and the Eastern Conference championship in 1985.

After four years of high school coaching in his native Missouri, Watts began his college coaching career at Drake in 1965. He then began a 10-year association with Lee Corso at Louisville in 1972 as both the Cardinal offensive unit and quarterback John Madeya led the Missouri Valley Conference in total offense.

From 1973 to 1981, he served as the offensive coordinator at Indiana with Corso as the Hoosier's program advanced to the Holiday Bowl. Under his guidance, Indiana's offense was consistently among the league's best. Quarterback Tim Clifford was the Big Ten's MVP in 1979 and Babe Laufenberg followed him to another outstanding career. In 1982, he coached the quarterbacks at Kansas before moving to LSU in 1983.

Watts was born on January 26, 1938, in Seneca, Missouri. He was an All-America running back at Seneca High School in 1956 and went on to star at Tulsa. He graduated from Tulsa with a degree in physical education and added a master's degree from Kansas State in 1964. He and his wife, Kay, have two children, Charlavan (24) and Danny (23).

Coaching Experience: Michigan State (1986-1990), offensive coordinator; Birmingham Stallions - USFL (1984-85), quarterbacks; Louisiana State (1983), quarterbacks; Kansas (1982), quarterbacks; Indiana (1973-81), offensive coordinator; Louisville (1972); Drake (1965-71), quarterbacks.

RICHARD WOOD
Defensive Assistant

Richard Wood's dream came true when head coach Richard Williamson added him to the Buccaneer coaching staff as a defensive assistant. "I was ecstastic," says Wood. "This is something I've dreamed about."

Wood, known as "Batman" during his playing days, will assist linebacker coach Dale Lindsey as well as work on film breakdowns.

Wood played linebacker for the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and is the team's all-time tackle leader with 847. He played in a team-record 132 games. Wood started 88 consecutive games between 1976 and 1981 and never missed a game due to injury in his career. He had five seasons of over 100 tackles and led the team in tackles four times, including the 1979 team which led the NFL in defense. He also intercepted nine passes during his career, caused 12 fumbles and scored three touchdowns.

He had a star-studded career in college as the first three-time All-American in the history of USC (1972-74) while playing on two national championship teams. He was a third-round draft choice of the New York Jets in 1975 and played one season there before being reunited with his college coach John McKay in a 1976 trade to Tampa Bay.

Wood was born on May 31, 1953, in Elizabeth, New Jersey, where he graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School. His interests include tae kwon do (holds a first degree black belt) and long distance bicycle riding. Since his retirement from the Bucs, he has owned a gas station and worked for Stroh's Brewing Company. He and his wife, Karen, a marketing director at Chase Bank, have two children, Rachelle (9) and Marlon (7).

NFL Acquisition: Drafted by Tampa Bay in the first round, 1989

PRO: Play improved greatly in 1990 as he led the Bucs with 7.5 sacks from his left outside linebacker position (most ever by a Buc LB — previous mark was 6.5 by Chris Washington in 1987)... the Bucs' first-round draft choice in 1989 as the sixth player chosen in the draft... 1990: Impressive season as he recorded 72 tackles, 7.5 sacks and a team-leading 33 QB pressures... quarterback pressures, like sacks, are most ever by a Buc linebacker... finished second on team with five tackles for loss... started 15 of 16 games at LOLB... twice recorded season-high and career-high eight tackles: vs. N.Y. Jets (12/30) and at Dallas (10/7)... earned Miller Lite Player of the Game honors vs. Chicago (11/4) with two sacks, seven tackles, one pass defensed, one fumble recovery, one tackle for loss and five QB pressures... excellent game at Dallas (10/7) with three sacks, including two on successive plays in the second quarter, among eight tackles to earn Miller Lite Player of the Game selection... first Buc LB to ever record three sacks in one game (equals team record for all players set six times previously)... 1989: Recorded 27 defensive tackles in a supporting role... missed 43 days of 1989 training camp delaying his development... increased playing time as season progressed... first sack caused Mark Rypien fumble at Washington (10/22)... ended rookie year on a positive note with a sack vs. Pittsburgh (12/24)... DRAFT POSITION: The sixth player chosen overall in the 1989 draft... GAMES (STARTS): 32 (15): 1989 - 16 (0); 1990 - 16 (15).

COLLEGE: A unanimous first-team All-America selection by AP, UPI, NEA, The Sporting News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Walter Camp and Kodak... chosen as an end by the Associated Press, NEA and Kodak All-American teams, while selected as a linebacker by UPI, The Sporting News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Walter Camp teams... Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year in 1988 and a three-time All-Big Eight selection... a Lombardi Award finalist as the nation's top defensive linemen and Butkus Award finalist given to the nation's outstanding linebacker... finished eighth on Husker career tackle chart with 242, the most by an outside linebacker/defensive end... 1988: Moved to left outside linebacker on a full-time basis as a senior, after seeing double-duty at linebacker and defensive end throughout majority of career... led the team in tackles with 98 (53 unassisted), tackles for losses with 17 (minus 111 yards) and sacks with 10... also had 35 quarterback pressures... tied for team lead in both fumbles caused (3) and interceptions caused (2), for a share of the team lead in 10 of 14 possible defensive statistical categories... career-high 14 tackles vs. Texas A&M in Kickoff Classic... 1987: First-team All-America choice by Walter Camp and College and Pro Football Weekly after standout junior season... also garnered second-team honors by The Sporting News, AP and UPI... a first-team All-Big Eight choice as well... recorded 73 tackles, including a team-high 41 unassisted stops and 6.5 sacks... 1986: First-team All-Big Eight choice producing 58 tackles, including 11 for losses and four sacks as a sophomore... set Nebraska record with six fumble recoveries... scored his only TD of his career with four-yard fumble recovery of team-mate's bobble following an interception vs. Oregon... majored in human and family development.

FREE AGENTS

WIDE RECEIVERS

Chris Harkness (6-0, 185) was signed as a free agent by the Phoenix Cardinals in 1989 after graduating from Ashland (Ohio) College, but was waived late in preseason. He spent the 1990 season with the Bay State Titans, a semi-pro team, where his coach was Ray Hamilton, now a defensive line assistant with the Buccaneers. Harkness was a two-year starter at Ashland where he totaled 113 receptions for 2,317 yards and 23 touchdowns. He earned AP honorable mention Little All-America honors in 1988. He enjoyed an outstanding junior season hauling in 41 catches for 1,131 yards and an NCAA Division II record 27.6-yard average per catch with 10 touchdowns. He is from Norwalk (OH) High School.

TIGHT ENDS

David Colonna (6-4, 245) was a free agent signee by the San Diego Chargers in 1990 after a fine college career at Duke. He caught 92 passes for 1,300 yards in four seasons, led by 35 catches in 1989. A first team All-ACC choice as a 1988 junior (34 receptions, 529 yards), he earned third team All-ACC selection as a senior. An outstanding all-around athlete, he finished sixth in the decathalon in the 1989 ACC Track championships, played briefly with Duke's basketball team and was invited to tryout for the US National Handball Team. A Duke political science graduate, he is from Central High School in High Point, North Carolina. Married, his wife's name is Kristin. Pronounced "ka-LONE-uh".

Bennie Jennings (6-4, 250) was a versatile performer for North Alabama. He was a first team All-America pick as a tight end by Football Gazette and USA Today in 1990. He also earned All-Gulf South Conference honors as a tight end in 1988 and 1990 (second team choice in 1987). He finished his career with 59 receptions for 959 yards and four touchdowns. Jennings saw time as a defensive end where he recorded 7.5 career sacks. In 1986 he was electrocuted while working on a summer job during his college years, but revived by his father. He graduated from North Alabama with a degree in marketing. His hometown is Fayetteville, Tennessee where he played on a state champion team at Lincoln County High School.

LINEBACKERS

Maurice Crum (6-0, 220) earned first team All-America honors at the University of Miami in 1990 by AP, Walter Camp and Football News. He was also selected as one of the five finalists for the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's outstanding linebacker. Crum led the Hurricanes in tackles in each of the last three years with 334 (a 10.1 average per game), including 128 on last season's top-ranked defense, which led the nation in fewest points allowed and fewest total yards. He also played baseball for the Hurricanes and was drafted out of high school by the Chicago White Sox. He was graduated from Miami with a degree in business. He is from Tampa, where he attended Hillsborough High School.

Pat Hinton, (6-2, 230), was a three-year starter and four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at South Carolina. Earned All-South Independent honors in 1988 and honorable mention All-America. Finished his career with 328 tackles and nine interceptions. Led team in tackles in 1989 (108) and 1990 (109). He had a career-best performance vs. North Carolina State in 1988 as he intercepted three passes (including an 83-yard TD) and recovered a fumble. He also had a 28-yard interception touchdown against Virginia in 1987. He is from Lakeshore High School in Atlanta.

Malvin Hunter (6-2, 235) was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter for Wisconsin. He was an All-Big Ten honorable mention choice by UPI in 1989 and 1990. He played inside linebacker for three seasons, before making the switch to outside his senior year. He finished his career at Wisconsin with 307 tackles and 19 tackles for loss. His hometown is Harvey, Illinois where he graduated from Thornton High School.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Eddie Godfrey, (5-9, 180), was a three-year letterwinner for Western Kentucky. He finished third on the team with 78 tackles in 1990 and also had one interception and one sack. Godfrey led the Hilltoppers in kickoff returns (12-336 yards, 28.0-avg.), including a 100-yard return for a touchdown. His hometown is Lakeland, Florida where he graduated from Lake Gibson High School.

Defensive back Dale Joseph, (6-2, 175), missed two games in 1990 for Howard Payne University but still finished with 75 tackles and one interception. He also returned four kickoffs for 68 yards (17.0-yard average). Joseph made a successful switch from receiver to defensive back while at Howard Payne. He still holds the school record for yards receiving in a game - 260 vs. Midwestern State in 1988. He is from Channelview High School, near Houston.

Cornerback Kim Phillips (5-10, 190) was signed by the Buccaneers in June. A three-year starter and two-time All-Southland Conference choice at North Texas State, he was drafted in the third round (79th player overall) in 1989 by the New Orleans Saints. Spending time on injured reserve with a hamstring injury, he played in five games for the Saints in 1989, making seven kick coverage tackles. Cut by the Saints in 1990, he spent a month with the Buffalo Bills (9/27 to 10/30), playing in one game. While at North Texas State he intercepted nine passes and returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown in 1986. He graduated from New Boston (TX) High School.

Glenn Rogers (6-0, 185) was a three-year letterman and two-year starter at cornerback (1989-90) for Memphis State. He finished his career with the Tigers with 12 interceptions (229 return yards) and 146 tackles. Rogers also played some free safety. He graduated from South Side High School in Memphis where his father is the head football coach. An outstanding receiver as well for the South Side Scrappers, he had 18 interceptions and 100 receptions for 1,711 yards and 16 touchdowns on his career and was a National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete.

KICKERS/PUNTERS

Virginia placekicker Jake McInerney (6-1, 200) was an All-ACC first team selection in 1990 and a second team pick in 1989. He finished his career with 182 points scored on 31 of 37 field goals and 89 consecutive extra points. He set a Cavilier record with 94 points scored in 1990, including 15 of 17 field goals. In 1989 he set a Virginia season record with 16 field goals (in 20 attempts) enroute to 88 points. He defeated Louisville in 1989 with a last-second 37-yard field goal that was part of a school-record streak of 14 consecutive field goals. His longest collegiate field goal was a 51-yarder against Georgia Tech in 1990, although he connected from 55 yards for Bishop O'Connell High School in McLean, Virginia. James Eugene McInerney graduated from Virginia with a degree in rhetoric and communication studies.

Punter Eric Nyhus (6-5, 195) was a second team Football Gazette Division III All-America in both 1989 and 1990 at Washington University in St. Louis. BUCS-LIONS NOTES

John Harvey's three-yard touchdown reception with 4:21 remaining was decisive as the Buccaneers rallied to the victory in the Sunday night game, televised nationally on TNT... Gary Anderson gave the Bucs a 16-13 lead early in the fourth quarter with an electrifying 11-yard run, hurdling numerous defenders after an option attempt went amiss... Vinny Testaverde went 5 of 7 for 91 yards in the fourth quarter... Steve Christie's 54-yard field goal (originally scored as a 55-yarder) was the longest ever in NFL play at Tampa Stadium and one-yard shy of the team record. (A—55,075)

BUCS-VIKINGS NOTES

Vinny Testaverde led the Buccaneers' dramatic rally to their first victory in the Metrodome since 1983... after Minnesota took a 20-13 lead with 1:19 left, Testaverde hit four of five passes on 74-yard drive to tying TD... Bruce Hill caught three of the passes on drive including 11-yard touchdown with 24 seconds left... Paul Gruber partially deflected Donald Igwebuike's 48-yard field goal attempt in overtime to preserve game... Bucs' winning field goal set up when Wayne Haddix intercepted Rich Gannon's deflected pass... Steve Christie's clutch kicking included rekicked 30-yard tying extra point with 24 seconds left and game-winning 36-yard field goal with 5:49 left in overtime... Gary Anderson gained 108 yards rushing for his only 100-yard rushing game of the season and only the second 100-yard rushing performance by a running back against Minnesota in the last 70 games. BUCS-SAINTS NOTES

The Saints' 211-yard ground game carried the day for New Orleans... Craig Heyward gained 93 yards by halftime and finished with 155 yards, the most by an individual against Tampa Bay in 1990... Chris Chandler made his second start at quarterback and directed a sharp 80-yard, 15-play scoring drive with the opening kickoff, culminated by his spectacular cartwheeling 12-yard touchdown run... but Chandler had to leave the game with a concussion in the second quarter and Vinny Testaverde finished up against a New Orleans' pass rush which totaled six sacks... Paul Gruber was flagged for a second-quarter holding penalty which ended a streak of 2,155 plays (nearly 35 games) without a holding penalty... Mark Royals' 46.0-yard punting average was a season-high. (A - 67,865)

BUCCANEER HISTORY

FOUNDATION

November 4, 1967: Tampa Stadium is dedicated as Tennessee defeats the University of Tampa, 38-0. The dedication concludes planning begun in 1965 by the Tampa Sports Authority, an 11-member public agency formed by the Florida Legislature. The price tag of the 46,700-seat stadium is $4.1 million.
August 10, 1968: The first NFL preseason game is played in Tampa Stadium as Washington defeats Atlanta before a crowd of 42,000.
November, 1968: First group attempting to secure an NFL franchise for Tampa Bay is formed. This group, known as the Suncoast Pro Football Committee, functions until 1972 when the Tampa Chamber of Commerce appoints the formal West Coast NFL task force headed by J. Leonard Levy.
Summer, 1972: The Baltimore Colts train in Tampa and play three preseason games at Tampa Stadium.
April 24, 1974: Tampa Bay is awarded the NFL's 27th franchise. As part of the franchise award for the area, Tampa Stadium will be enlarged to 72,000 seats.
October 30, 1974: Philadelphia construction man Tom McCloskey is awarded the new Tampa Bay franchise, but soon backs off accepting ownership.
December 5, 1974: Hugh F. Culverhouse, Jacksonville attorney and real estate investor who had earlier declined ownership of the Seattle franchise for geographic reasons, is awarded ownership of the Tampa Bay franchise.
February 15, 1975: It is announced that the club will be known as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, which was also the choice of a local contest to name the new team.
April 21, 1975: Tampa Sports Authority unanimously approves a 30-year lease agreement with the Buc officials for Tampa Stadium. Three days later the Tampa City Council votes 6-1 for approval of the stadium lease and expansion to 72,000 seats.
July 9, 1975: Ground is broken for the Tampa Stadium expansion financed by the sale of $13 million in bonds by the Tampa Sports Authority.
October 31, 1975: John McKay, four national championships behind him at the University of Southern California, is announced as the head coach of the Buccaneers.

1976 (0-14, 5th AFC Central)

March 30,1976: The Buccaneers chose 39 players (20 offensive and 19 defensive) from other NFL rosters in the veteran allocation draft.
April 8, 1976: Lee Roy Selmon, All-America defensive end from Oklahoma, is the first pick of the entire college draft.
July 5, 1976: The Bucs welcome the first rookies and free agents to training camp at their recently completed office complex known as One Buccaneer Place.
July 31, 1976: Tampa Bay's first ever action is a preseason game at the Los Angeles Coliseum with the Rams. Los Angeles wins 26-3 (Pete Rajecki's 18-yard FG).
August 14, 1976: The Buccaneers are winners for the first time, defeating Atlanta 17-3 in a preseason game at Jacksonville's Gator Bowl.
August 21, 1976: After three road preseason games, the Buccaneers open at home against the Miami Dolphins. As 67,466 fans watch, the Bucs drop a close one, 28-21.
September 12, 1976: Tampa Bay's first regular season game is a 20-0 defeat at Houston. One week later, San Diego spoils the home opener, 23-0.

1977 (2-12, 5th NFL Central)

December 11, 1977: The Bucs tie an NFL record with three interceptions returned for touchdowns and end 26 games of frustration with a 33-14 win at New Orleans. Over 8,000 fans greet the team when it returns to One Buccaneer Place.
December 18, 1977: Tampa Bay makes it two in a row with its first home win ever, a 17-7 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

1978 (5-11, 5th NFC Central)

October 22, 1978: Tampa Bay defeats Chicago 33-19, to up its record to 4-4, but injuries cripple the team during the second half of the season.

1979 (10-6, 1st NFC Central)

September 30, 1979: The Bucs become the only undefeated team in the NFL (5-0) with a 17-13 win at Chicago. The game proves decisive in the NFL Central race when Tampa Bay and Chicago end the season tied at 10-6.

December 16, 1979: The Bucs wait until the final game of the season to clinch their first NFC Central crown. Tampa Bay edges Kansas City 3-0 in pouring rain at Tampa Stadium with Neil O'Donoghue's decisive 19-yard fourth quarter field goal.

December 29, 1979: Tampa Bay is successful in its first-ever NFL playoff appearance, defeating Philadelphia, 24-17, as Ricky Bell rushes for 142 yards and two TDs.

January, 6, 1980: The Bucs finish just one game short of the Super Bowl as Los Angeles wins the NFC Championship Game at Tampa Stadium, 9-0.

1980 (5-10-1, 4th NFC Central)

September 11, 1980: Tampa Bay avenges January's NFC Championship Game defeat with a 10-9 victory over Los Angeles in the Buccaneers' first appearance an ABC's national television series. The game is played on a Thursday night.

1981 (9-7, 1st NFC Central)

June 3, 1981: A Tampa Bay Super Bowl Task Force, assisted by Hugh Culverhouse, makes a successful presentation at the NFL Owners' Meeting in Detroit and by a vote of 24-2 Tampa Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XVIII on January 22, 1984.

December 20,1981: Tampa Bay wins an exciting winner-take-all showdown with the Detroit Lions (20-17) for the NFC Central Division title. Two weeks later (January 2, 1982), Dallas eliminates Tampa Bay from the playoffs.

1982 (5-4, 7th in NFC, Super Bowl Tournament Qualifier)

November 29, 1982: After an 0-3 start and a 57-day interruption due to the NFL players' strike (9/21 to 11/15), Tampa Bay posts its first win of the season defeating cross-state rival Miami, 23-17, in the first nationally-televised Monday night game at Tampa Stadium.

January 2, 1983: The Bucs qualify for postseason play for the third time in four years when Bill Capece's 33-yard field goal 3:14 into overtime provides a 26-23 win over the Chicago Bears. The Buccaneers win five of their final six games in their late-season drive, securing each triumph in the final minute. The next Sunday (January 9, 1983), Dallas defeats Tampa Bay in playoff action for the second time in as many years (30-17).

1983 (2-14, 5th NFC Central)

November 6, 1983: James Wilder gains 219 yards rushing, as the injury-riddled Buccaneers break into the win column with a 17-12 victory at Minnesota.

January 22, 1984: Tampa Stadium hosts Super Bowl XVIII. The Los Angeles Raiders defeat the Washington Redskins 38-9 before a crowd of 72,920.

1984 (6-10, 3rd NFC Central)

November 5, 1984: John McKay announces his resignation as head coach, effective at the end of the season. It comes one day after a 27-24 loss at Minnesota on Jan Stenerud's 53-yard field goal on the last play of the game. The Bucs are 4-6 at the time.

December 16, 1984: Tampa Bay defeats the Jets 41-21 in John McKay's last game after 25 years as a head coach. McKay finishes 44-88-1 in nine regular seasons (plus 1-3 in playoffs) with the Bucs. His overall 25-year coaching record is 171-128-9.

1985 (2-14, 5th NFC Central)

January 23, 1985: Leeman Bennett, former head coach of Atlanta is named head coach.
November 10, 1985: The Bucs post their only shutout since 1979, defeating St. Louis 16-0 to snap a nine-game losing streak.

1986 (2-14, 5th NFC Central)

September 7, 1986: In halftime ceremonies at the season opener with San Francisco, Lee Roy Selmon's jersey #63 becomes the first to be retired by the Bucs.
December 21, 1986: Bucs fall at St. Louis, 21-17, in Leeman Bennett's final game as Buccaneer head coach (4-28). He is relieved of his position on December 29th.

1987 (4-11, 4th NFC Central)

December 31, 1986: Ray Perkins is hired as Head Coach/VP-Football Operations.
April 3, 1987: Vinny Testaverde, All-America quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner from the University of Miami, signs a six-year contract. Testaverde is formally drafted on April 28th, one of a record 20 players selected by the Bucs.
May 20, 1987: Tampa Bay is awarded its second Super Bowl with the selection of Tampa Stadium to host Super Bowl XXV, the Silver Super Bowl, on January 27, 1991. The selection comes on the sixth ballot at a meeting of NFL owners in San Diego.
September 13, 1987: Tampa Bay routs Atlanta 48-10 in Ray Perkins' debut as head coach. Quarterback Steve DeBerg throws five touchdown passes.
October 25, 1987: Following the 24-day NFLPA strike, during which the Bucs' replacement team won two of three games, Tampa Bay loses to Chicago 27-26.
December 6,1987: Vinny Testaverde makes his debut as Tampa Bay's starting quarterback in New Orleans. He passes for 369 yards (22-47-2) and two touchdown passes. Rookie wide receiver Mark Carrier sets a Buc record with 212 receiving yards.

1988 (5-11, 3rd NFC Central)

October 16, 1988: Vinny Testaverde passes for 469 yards at Indianapolis.
December 4, 1988: Tampa Bay's win over AFC East Champion Buffalo is the first 10-5 score in NFL history.

1989 (5-11, 5th NFC Central)

October 8, 1989: As the largest crowd in Tampa Stadium history watches (72,077), the Bucs end 12 games of frustration against the Bears with a 42-35 win (first Tampa Bay win over Chicago since 1/2/83). Tampa Bay also defeats the Bears in Soldier Field for the first time since 1979, 32-31, on November 19th for the first Bear sweep in team history.
December 24, 1989: Mark Carrier completes an outstanding season against the Pittsburgh Steelers with six catches for 101 yards. Carrier earns a Pro Bowl berth with a league-leading nine 100-yard receiving games and club records of 86 receptions and 1,422 receiving yards.

1990 (6-10, 2nd NFC Central)

October 14, 1990: The Buccaneers advance to 4-2 with a 26-14 win over the Packers. But starting with a last-minute loss to Dallas the next week, the Bucs lose six straight.
December 16, 1990: The Bucs defeat Minnesota, 26-13, in Richard Williamson's first game as head coach. It is Tampa Bay's first-ever series sweep of the Vikings. Williamson, until then the team's assistant head coach and receivers coach, was named interim coach on December 3rd after Ray Perkins was relieved of his duties. Tampa Bay was 19-41 under Perkins. The Bucs go 1-2 under Williamson's direction in 1990.
January 27, 1991: The New York Giants edge the Buffalo Bills, 20-19, in Super Bowl XXV played at Tampa Stadium.
February 4, 1991: Owner Hugh Culverhouse names Richard Williamson as head coach with a two-year contract. Gay Culverhouse is announced as president and Phil Krueger is named general manager.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

To be listed on the all-time Buccaneer roster, a player must have played in at least one regular season game. There have been 411 Buccaneers, including 46 replacement players during the 1987 NFLPA players strike, in 15 seasons.

PLAYOFF SCHEDULE

December 28-29— Wild Card Playoff Games
January 4-5 — Divisional Playoff Games
January 12 — Conference Championship Games
January 26 — Super Bowl XXVI at Metrodome, Minneapolis
February 2 — Pro Bowl in Honolulu

PLAYOFF SITE PRIORITIES

Wild Card Games — The division champion with the third-best record will host the Wild Card team with the third-best record. The Wild Card team with the best record will host the Wild Card team with the second-best record. There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

Divisional Playoff Games — In each conference the two division champions with the best record will host the First-Round winners. The division champion with the best record in each conference is assured of playing the Wild Card survivor with the poorest record. There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

Championship Games — The home teams will be the surviving playoff winners with the best record during the regular season. A Wild Card team can only play host to the game if two Wild Card teams are in the game.

PLAYOFF INFORMATION

Division Ties

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a CHAMPION is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played with the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated, tie-breaker reverts to Step One of two-club format.

1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net touchdowns in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

Wild Card Ties

If necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

1. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card (i.e. - eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step two), and repeated a third time if necessary, to identify the third Wild Card. In situations where three or more teams from the same divison are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tiebreaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-Head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

1. Head-to-Head sweep (applicable only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

NFL PERSONNEL/ROSTER GUIDELINES

ROSTER LIMITS:

June 1 - August 27 — No more than 80 players can be under signed contract. August 20 — Rosters must be cut to 60 active players. (Tuesday after 3rd preseason game.)

August 26 — Rosters must be cut to 47 players. Clubs will be permitted to dress 45 players for each regular season game. Teams will list two players as inactive for each game. Provided that a club has only two quarterbacks on its 45-player Active List, a third quarterback from the Inactive List is permitted to dress for the game. If he participates in the game, the other two quarterbacks are thereafter prohibited from playing.

RESERVE/INJURED:

- Any player placed here before the final 47-man roster can NOT return to the Active List this season. Such players are not eligible to practice.
- Any player placed here after the final 47-man roster will be eligible to return after a minimum of four games missed. The move will require one of the club's free activations or by procedural recall waivers.
- Clubs will be permitted five free roster activations during the regular season.

TRADES:

Teams are permitted to trade personnel in 1991 through the Tuesday following the sixth week (Oct. 8), after which trading will end until January 27, 1992.

WAIVERS:

(The procedures by which players are made available to other NFL clubs.) A club may make a claim to obtain a player by another club or "waive" its right to do so. Claiming clubs are assigned on a priority, based upon the inverse won-lost record. From July-December, the claiming period is 24 hours and are no-recall. After 24 hours, if unclaimed, the player becomes a free agent.

FIGURING THE 1992 SCHEDULE

Beginning in 1992, NFL teams will play a 16-game schedule over a span of 18 weeks. Non-division opponents will continue to be assigned by a formula. For non-division games against NFC opponents, the formula calls for the five NFC Central teams to play the following opponents in 1992, based on their finish in 1991 (certain adjustments in game site may be required in applying a formula based on previous game sites between the teams):

FIRST PLACE

Home	Away
NFC West 1	NFC East 1
NFC East 2	NFC West 3
AFC Cent 1	AFC Cent 2
AFC Cent 3	AFC Cent 4

SECOND PLACE

TAMPA STADIUM

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: Joe Zalupski
STADIUM MANAGER: Rick Nafe
ADDRESS: North Dale Mabry Highway, Tampa, FL 33607
CAPACITY: 74,321
TELEPHONE (813) 872-7977

After the excitement of hosting the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl, Tampa Stadium now looks ahead to its 16th year of NFL football.

Known for the outstanding field and layout, Tampa Stadium also has many other features to boast of, some from improvements made before the 1990 season.

The 1990 improvements include the Buccaneers' 24-foot by 32-foot Sony Jumbotron towers above the south end zone and offers playbacks and features for the fans to watch. Four additional game-display boards were added to the end zone corners to keep fans informed of the game's progress. Another project completed before the 1990 season was the installation of seatbacks throughout the stadium.

With the addition of extra seating in 1983, Tampa Stadium now seats 74,296 for Buccaneer games, (including 57 sky suites over the east stands with seating capacity varying between 16 and 33 seats). With the addition, Tampa Stadium is now the third largest stadium in the NFC. Only the Pontiac Silverdome and Giants Stadium can boast greater capacity.

Construction started in October, 1966, and Tampa Stadium was dedicated on November 7, 1967. The stadium originally seated 46,500 fans in concrete stands along either sideline. The initial structure cost only $4.6 million. In this configuration, it served as home to the University of Tampa, as well as other college football games and professional preseason contests.

As part of the awarding of an NFL franchise to Tampa Bay in 1975, the end zones were enclosed to raise seating capacity to over 72,000. Other additions in 1975 were new computerized scoreboards at either end and an additional level on the press box above the west stands.

The complex is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority, a public board composed of 11 members from both the city of Tampa and Hillsborough County, which was established by the State of Florida in 1965.

Tampa Stadium has hosted two Super Bowls: XVIII won by the Los Angeles Raiders over the Washington Redskins, 38-9, on January 22, 1984, and XXV, won by the New York Giants over the Buffalo Bills, 20-19, on January 27, 1991.

Tampa Stadium is also the home of the Hall of Fame Bowl, inaugurated in December, 1986.

WTOG-TV

KELLY

ALVAREZ

Buccaneer football returns to WTOG-TV, Channel 44, in 1991 with all four preseason games, three preseason specials and Richard Williamson's television show.

The Buc Report with Richard Williamson will be telecast live every Monday night at 8:00 p.m. Gene Deckerhoff, the Bucs' radio play-by-play voice, will host the show which will include a comprehensive review of the previous day's Buc action. WTOG-TV sports director Bob Alvarez will also be featured each week.

Jim Kelly, Joe Namath and Alvarez will be the announcers for WTOG's preseason coverage of Buccaneer football.

This is the fifth season behind the Buccaneer microphone for ESPN's Kelly, also known for his reports of golf and America's Cup ocean racing.

Namath, former Hall of Fame quarterback for the New York Jets, enters his first season as analyst for Buc preseason games. One of the most widely recognized figures in sports, Namath led the Jets to an upset victory over the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III earning MVP honors along the way. He holds the record for yardage passed in a 14-game season with 4,007. Currently a football analyst with NBC, Namath was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1985 and later that same year he was the first New York Jets player to have his number retired.

The 1991 preseason will be highlighted by three live Countdown To Kickoff specials August 5th (at 8 p.m., 30 minutes prior to the live game telecast from Cleveland), August 10th (10:00 p.m.) and August 17th (at 6:30 p.m. 30 minutes prior to the live game telecast from Atlanta).

In addition to the live telecasts from Cleveland and Atlanta, the Buccaneers' two home preseason games will be replayed on a tape delay basis (Miami - twice, Saturday, August 10th at 11:00 p.m. and Sunday, August 11th at 8:00 p.m. and following the Kansas City game on Saturday, August 24th at 8:00 p.m.).

SWASH-BUC-LERS

Sandy Karl

Leading the cheers and performing various dance routines are the Swash-buc-lers. The group was founded with the team in 1976 and has 36 members. The squad performs many complicated dance routines during breaks in the game action, in addition to leading the crowd in cheers. The squad will be directed by Sandy Karl who is entering her third year as director and choreographer. Karl, along with her husband Bob, has operated the Karl and DiMarco School of Theatre in Tampa for the past 19 years. The group is sponsored by Paul Mitchell Hair Products and Sacino's Formal Wear.

WQYK BUCCANEER RADIO NETWORK

DECKERHOFF

LOGAN

CRIPPEN

Buccanner football in 1991 can be heard for the first time on the WQYK Buccaneer Radio Network, AM & FM (1010 AM, 99.5 FM).

Gene Deckerhoff returns for his third season as the play-by-play voice of the Buccaneers. Joining him in the broadcast booth will be former Buccaneer David Logan, complemented by Dick Crippen, who will handle pregame, halftime and postgame locker room duties as well as updates from other NFL games.

Deckerhoff, one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, has been the popular voice for Florida State football and basketball broadcasts for the past 14 years. He is the former radio voice of the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and former sports director of WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. He has received the Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award five times.

Logan begins his first season as analyst after a successful playing career with the Buccaneers (1979-86). Recognized as one of the top nose tackles in the NFC during his playing days, he finished his career in 1986 with a string of 103 consecutive starts. In 1984 he was chosen All-Pro by The Sporting News and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly. He was also a Pro Bowl alternate for three consecutive seasons (1983-85).

Crippen has been the sports director at WFLA-TV since 1981 after 15 years with WTSP-TV. He also hosts many national hydroplane events. He has been on Buccaneer radio broadcasts for 13 years. He is the 1990 Florida Sportscaster of the Year.

10 YEARS AGO

THE 1981 NFC CENTRAL DIVISION CHAMPIONS

The 1981 Tampa Bay Buccaneers won four of their final five games to claim their second NFC Central Division championship. The title was secured in a dramatic 20-17 win over the Detroit Lions at the Pontiac Silverdome on December 20th.

The Bucs traveled a dramatic path to reach the showdown game with the Lions. After a November loss to Denver the Bucs stood 5-6, but Tampa Bay won its next three games.

The Bucs had a chance to clinch the division title with a win over San Diego in the 15th game but the Chargers pulled out a thriller, 24-23, on Rolf Benirschke's 29-yard field goal with 45 seconds remaining. Coupled with Detroit's route of Minnesota, the Bucs and Lions were tied at 8-7 entering a winner-take-all showdown in the Silverdome where Detroit had not lost all year.

The Bucs won the game 20-17 on big plays such as Doug Williams' 84-yard touchdown pass to Kevin House and David Logan's 21-yard touchdown return of a fumble caused by Lee Roy Selmon.

Instant Replay Approved for 1991

For the sixth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

All replay reviews which involve contact to the field from the Replay Booth will be a maximum of two minutes in duration, timed from the moment when the Umpire signals timeout.

The Replay Official will be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

The following table outlines the number of reversals and plays closely reviewed by instant replay in each of the previous five regular seasons.

	Games	Reversals	Plays Closely Reviewed
1986	224	38	374
1987	210	57	490
1988	224	53	537
1989	224	65	492
1990	224	73	504

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote and in 1987 the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4. In 1990, the vote was 21-7. In 1991, Instant Replay was approved by a 21-7 vote.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks–an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a no-frills approach using existing TV coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted and has been used since 1986. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed calls, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed, and 6 no replay shown) were closely examined in the 1985 experiment.

Q—What is the objective of this system?

A—The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Q—Who will be involved?

A—The Replay Official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline Replay Booth, which will house two TV monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The Replay Official makes the decision although a Communicator (normally a member of the League Office staff) and a Technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Q—Why is the system referred to as "Limited" Instant Replay?

A—This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (e.g. fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g. receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Q—Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

A—It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that Instant Replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls:

1. Clipping
2. Encroachment and offsides
3. Grasp of facemask
4. False start
5. Defensive pass interference
6. Offensive pass interference
7. Offensive holding and illegal use of hands
8. Illegal batting or punching ball
9. Illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick
10. Illegal crackback
11. Illegal motion
12. Illegal use of forearm or elbow
13. Illegal use of hands by defense
14. Illegally kicking ball
15. Illegally snapping ball
16. Intentional grounding
17. Member of punting team downfield early
18. Illegal formation
19. Palpably unfair act
20. Piling on
21. Roughing the passer
22. Running into/roughing kicker
23. Striking, kicking, or kneeing
24. Unnecessary roughness
25. Unsportsmanlike conduct
26. Use of helmet as a weapon

Q—Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

A—No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show. The Replay Official does not hear the TV commentators.

Q—What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

A—The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within two minutes after the Umpire signals timeout.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.
