MALCOLM GLAZER
OWNER/PRESIDENT

In just his fourth year as the owner and president of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Malcolm I. Glazer has developed a reputation among his NFL peers as a dynamic leader who is committed to building a successful franchise.

The hard-working Glazer, who purchased the club on January 16, 1995, has carefully constructed a multi-faceted plan which calls for stable ownership, a talented coaching staff, experienced football executives, and a solid business partnership within the Tampa Bay/St. Petersburg communities. The most visible aspect of the success of this plan is the new state-of-the-art $168-million-dollar Raymond James Stadium the Bucs will christen in their 1998 home opener September 20th when they battle the Chicago Bears.

Glazer's finest hour so far as an NFL owner may have occurred last season as the Buccaneers emerged as one of the year's biggest surprises, tying the club record for wins in a season (10) and recording the franchise's first playoff victory since 1979 — a 20-10 downing of the Detroit Lions on December 28 at Houlihan's Stadium.

"We had an outstanding season," said Glazer, who oversaw an unprecedented rise in the club's season attendance both at home and on the road last season. "Winning 10 games during the regular season and then winning a playoff game for the first time since 1979 were two tremendous accomplishments. But our focus is to improve and compete for the championship. There is a lot of excitement surrounding the Buccaneers both locally and nationally. We have a talented team, we are moving into what will be the finest stadium in the NFL, and we've got an attractive national television schedule including two Monday Night games. We're looking forward to another great season."

During the 1997 offseason, Glazer continued to demonstrate his commitment to winning by extending the contracts of head coach Tony Dungy, general manager Rich McKay and Pro Bowl defensive tackle Warren Sapp, and by signing talented free agent wide receiver Bert Emanuel away from the Atlanta Falcons. Glazer also provided the necessary financial support during the season to allow McKay to extend the contracts of Pro Bowlers quarterback Trent Dilfer, linebacker Derrick Brooks, safety John Lynch, and key contributors guard Jorge Diaz, defensive tackle Brad Culpepper, wide receiver Karl Williams, and safety Charles Mincy.

"We are doing all of the necessary things a team needs to do to remain competitive and make a run for the championship," Glazer said. "We just have to remain focused, and play up to our capabilities. The rest will take care of itself."

During his inaugural season as owner of the Buccaneers, Glazer displayed a strong and dedicated commitment toward building a winning and successful franchise and was the behind-the-scenes driving force in the construction of Raymond James Stadium, located across from the Buccaneers' former home — Houlihan's Stadium.

At the conclusion of the 1996 season, Glazer spearheaded massive changes at One Buccaneer Place, home of the team's administrative offices and practice facility. The upgrades included more than 20,000 square feet of new office space, a re-vamped season ticket and club seat purchasing operation, new computers, and more than 90 additional employees working to make the Buccaneers one of the most innovative and respected organizations in all of professional sports.

Additionally, Glazer devoted a significant amount of time working to make the organization more fan-friendly by greatly expanding fan activities at Buccaneer home games through the formation of the club's special events department in 1997. His mandate to increase player and coach visibility in the community was reflected in the more than 700 appearances made by Buccaneer players, coaches, and front office officials last year including running back Warrick Dunn's "Home for the Holidays" Program — an initiative in which Dunn provided the down payment which enabled four Hillsborough County single-parents to purchase their first homes.

"It is important for us to succeed on the field, but I want us to be good citizens in our community as well," Glazer said. "We are role models. Children and adults look up to us. I want us to set the right example."

Glazer's input has been sought on the league level as well, as evidenced by his position on the NFL's Finance Committee.

Glazer, a resident of Palm Beach, Florida, is president and chief executive officer of First Allied Corporation. First Allied serves as a holding company for Glazer's varied business interests. Mr. Glazer owns, controls or is the largest shareholder of companies with $1.5 billion in sales which employ more than 17,000 people.

A true American success story, Glazer began working in his father's watch-parts business at the age of eight. When Glazer was 15, his father died and the son assumed responsibility for the family business and expanded it.

Mr. Glazer owns a diverse portfolio of nationwide investments whose interests include restaurants, food service equipment, food packaging and food service supplies, marine protein, broadcasting, health care, real estate, banking, natural gas and oil production, internet publications, stocks, government securities, and corporate bonds. He has been profiled in The New York Times, USA Today, and Forbes Magazine, which stated that Glazer has "an eye for value."

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities have included significant involvement with the American Cancer Society, Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, United Jewish Appeal, and the Jewish Guild for the Blind. Glazer has also been a benefactor for such worthwhile causes as the Muscular Dystrophy Association, Cystic Fibrosis, the American Heart Association, the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation, the Leukemia Society, St. Jude's Children's Hospital, the March of Dimes, Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD), the Jewish Home for the Aged, and Junior Achievement.

Born in Rochester, New York, Glazer and his wife, Linda, have six children: Avram, Kevin, Bryan, Joel, Ed and Darcie.

MALCOLM GLAZER'S RECONSTRUCTION OF THE BUCCANEERS

In 1995, Malcolm Glazer paid a record price for a professional football team that had a 19-year winning percentage of .307. Nevertheless, he predicted success on the field; in fact, practically the first words he uttered as new owner of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were, "We expect to be winners."

Three years later, the Buccaneers are enjoying one of the most remarkable turnarounds in recent sports history. Below is a chronology of the events that led to the Buccaneers being termed a "model franchise" in the NFL.

- Just months after buying the team, Glazer announces that his first priority is to build a new state-of-the-art stadium in the Tampa Bay area. After passage of the Community Investment Tax, plans are unveiled for the 65,000-seat facility (Raymond James Stadium) that will host Super Bowl XXXV in 2001.
- On January 22, 1996, Glazer hires Tony Dungy as the sixth head coach in team history, proclaiming the former Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator as "not only one of the finest coaches, but one of the finest people in the NFL." Glazer's words seem prophetic as Dungy directs the team to a franchise record-tying 10-6 season in '97 and guides the club to its first playoff victory in 18 years.
- On April 9, 1997, the Buccaneers unveiled new, hard-hitting uniforms sporting primary colors of red and pewter. The team's new look is enthusiastically embraced by players and fans.
- In his continuing efforts to transform the organization into one of the league's model franchises, Glazer undertakes a complete overhaul of the team's front office, greatly expanding the sales and marketing staffs to meet the team's growing demands.
- Glazer shows his long-term commitment to bringing a championship to Tampa Bay by extending the contracts of key football personnel this past offseason. Beginning with a new five-year deal for Dungy, Glazer also locks up General Manager Rich McKay and cornerstone player DT Warren Sapp, as well as signing emerging free agent WR Bert Emanuel away from the Atlanta Falcons.

BRYAN GLAZER
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Bryan Glazer begins his fourth season as Executive Vice President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Glazer, who originally was one of the more influential figures in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, has since been a driving force in improving every aspect of the franchise and the National Football League's impact in Tampa Bay.

Along with brothers Joel and Edward, Bryan oversees the day-to-day operation of the franchise, including financial operations, marketing, ticketing, and communications. Since the purchase of the team, he has devoted a significant amount of his efforts to such massive projects as the development and construction of Raymond James Stadium, the overhaul of the team's logo, colors and uniforms and the restructuring and expansion of the Buccaneers' staff. He is also currently overseeing the final plans for the Buccaneers' new administrative offices and training facility slated for completion in 1999.

Glazer worked alongside stadium architects and contractors to produce his vision of what the premier stadium in the National Football League should resemble. The Buccaneers will face NFC Central Division rival Chicago on September 20 in what will be the club's 1998 regular-season home opener and inaugural game in Raymond James Stadium.

Glazer oversaw all phases of the construction of the new 65,000-seat, open-air stadium which will host Super Bowl XXXV in 2001. The state-of-the-art stadium features such amenities as 19-inch wide seats with chairbacks, cupholders, armrests, concourse televisions, full-color replay boards at both ends of the stadium, one of the most sophisticated scoreboard systems in all of professional sports, and the centerpiece of the stadium — the luxurious club seats and air-conditioned club lounges that will surely make Tampa Bay's new home the envy of the NFL. League insiders are calling Raymond James Stadium the crown jewel of the National Football League.

In 1996-97, Glazer worked closely with designers and graphic artists from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles to develop and refine the Buccaneers' new logo, which was successfully unveiled before an estimated crowd of 5,000 frenzied Buccaneer fans at the Tampa Convention Center on April 9, 1997.

The new logo, which drew rave reviews from such national media outlets as USA Today, Fox Sports, The New York Times, and the Washington Post, consists of a skull and crossed swords on a blood-red, wind-swept flag that is displayed on unique pewter-colored helmets. The modifications, based on research of Caribbean buccaneer history, were the first significant changes to the logo and uniform in the team's 22-year history.

A native of Rochester, the 33-year-old Glazer makes countless community and charitable appearances on behalf of the organization, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center. Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986 before completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989.

A member of the Florida Bar Association, Glazer is single and resides in Tampa.

JOEL GLAZER EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Fourth-year Executive Vice President Joel Glazer has been a driving force in the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' renaissance, which began with the team's new look last season. Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, oversees every facet of the Buccaneers' non-football operations, including sales, marketing and accounting as well as community and public relations.

Glazer played a crucial role in the franchise's efforts to gain approval for the construction of Raymond James Stadium. From the beginning, Joel and Bryan Glazer have been intimately involved in every aspect of the new stadium's design and construction. With a tremendous attention to detail and a focus on enhancing the fan's enjoyment of the game, tours of over 25 other facilities around the world led to a final design that will set the standard for all future football stadiums in America.

Glazer is the club's point man for the Buccaneers' ticket sales, luxury suites, club seats, group sales and customer service departments. Placing a high priority on customer relations, Glazer continues to lead the team's effort to expand and improve in all areas of business operations. Under his guidance, the Buccaneers have replaced their aging ticketing process with an innovative, integrated system that ensures an immediate response to inquiries from Tampa Bay fans. The Buccaneers have become one of the first professional sports teams to successfully launch a customer service center staffed by more than 30 employees. These employees assist fans and ticketholders on matters regarding the status of their accounts, invoices, seat assignments and locations.

Glazer also oversaw the task of establishing departmental budgets in order to maintain and efficiently administer the overall fiscal performance of the organization. Under his leadership, the Buccaneers have developed an innovative system for all financial operations including budgeting, payroll, invoices, accounts payable, purchase orders and expense reports.

Under Glazer's leadership, the Buccaneers have established a strong bond with the local corporate community, which resulted in record season ticket, club seat and luxury suite sales. Glazer was also heavily involved in the conception, design and construction of the state-of-the-art luxury suites, which quickly sold to 100% capacity for the team's first season at Raymond James Stadium.

Glazer, who represents the club at all National Football League meetings, has been an active member of the Tampa Bay Super Bowl Task Force which succeeded in bringing Super Bowl XXXV to Raymond James Stadium in January, 2001. In addition, he is a member of the Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee.

Before his family purchased the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer worked as Vice President of First Allied Corporation, the family's holding company for its diversified business entities. Glazer sought out and negotiated new commercial real estate acquisitions for the company.

Glazer, 31, earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from the American University in 1989. Born in Rochester, New York, Glazer is single and lives in Tampa.

EDWARD GLAZER
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Edward Glazer, who joined the Buccaneers as Executive Vice President in 1997, oversees all aspects of the Buccaneer administrative office. Glazer's impact on the organization was felt immediately.

One of Glazer's first original concepts was the "Buccaneer Battle Flags." Each time the Buccaneer offense penetrates the opposition's 'red zone,' the Buccaneer Battle Flags are raised throughout the stadium. This dramatic game enhancement has quickly become a signature of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Many of Glazer's improvements have taken place at the team's executive offices. Under Glazer's leadership, the Buccaneers have hired a new security force to help protect the players and staff. In addition, Glazer oversaw the installation of new computer systems and multi-media equipment throughout the organization, making the Buccaneers one of the most technologically advanced teams in the NFL.

Tireless and conscientious, Glazer has overseen all aspects of the Buccaneers' 1998 sales campaign, including television, radio and outdoor billboards. He was the creative force and designer of the Buccaneers' nationally-recognized club seat sales program. The short film designed to educate fans about the luxurious club seating has won such awards as the Communicator Crystal Award, the ITVA Video Festival Bronze Reel Award and the Telly Award for short film. By winning a Telly, the club seat film was singled out as one of the year's most outstanding non-network video productions from among a pool of over 9,000 entries.

To ensure that all Buccaneer fans are provided with first-class assistance, Glazer installed a TTY phone service that allows hearing-impaired fans to communicate with the customer service and sales offices.

Edward, along with brothers Bryan and Joel, is already heavily involved in the design of the Buccaneers' state of the art training facility and administrative offices which will be the finest in the NFL upon their much-anticipated completion in 1999.

He also devotes a significant amount of time to the national development of the club's community relations department. Last season, the Buccaneers were recognized as one of the most charitable teams in the league with programs such as Warrick Dunn's "Homes for the Holidays."

Glazer is also Vice President of Acquisitions and Financing for the First Allied Corporation, the holding company for the Glazer family's varied business interests. At First Allied, Glazer was instrumental in the expansion of the company's real estate portfolio in Washington, D.C. Additionally, Glazer serves on the board of directors of Zapata, a New York Stock exchange corporation.

He and his wife Shari live in Tampa and are deeply committed to providing aid in their community. Shari serves on the board of directors and volunteers her time at many local charities, including Camp Good Days and Special Times, The Children's Cancer Center, The Spring of Tampa Bay, The Children's Hospital at St. Joseph's and the Tampa Aids Network, where she was co-chairperson along with Miss America 1998 for Tampa's first-ever Aids Walk. Edward Glazer was born in Rochester, New York and earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from Ithaca College.

RICHARD MCKAY GENERAL MANAGER

Rich McKay enters his fourth season as the team's general manager. In this role, McKay supervises the entire football administrative operations as well as the negotiation of all player contracts. In addition, he presides over the club's college and pro personnel departments, including the NFL draft, waiver wire transactions, trades, free agency and salary cap management.

The primary architect behind the team's past six drafts, McKay has the distinction of having at least one player from five consecutive draft classes earn a Pro Bowl selection: John Lynch (1993), Trent Dilfer (1994), Warren Sapp (1995), Derrick Brooks (1995), Mike Alstott (1996) and Warrick Dunn (1997). In 1997, the Buccaneers sent a league-high eight players to the Pro Bowl, marking the first time in team history that more than three players have attended the league's post-season all-star event.

Under McKay's leadership, the 1995-97 drafts produced nine starters with 18 of 28 picks throughout that span still on the roster at the end of last season. McKay has proven to be an astute draft-day trader, positioning the team with a league-high six first-round selections over that same three-year time period.

In 1997 the franchise experienced a monumental turnaround, tying the team record for wins in a season with 10 and winning its first playoff game since 1979. McKay has negotiated contract extensions for many of the players vital to that success, ensuring the core of the team will remain intact through the turn of the century. Players who have agreed to new contracts or extensions prior to the '98 season include: Sapp, Brooks, Lynch, Dilfer, Brad Culpepper, Jorge Diaz, Karl Williams and Charles Mincy.

This past off-season, McKay was appointed co-chairman of the NFL Competition Committee, replacing retired New York Giants General Manager George Young. Past chairmen of the Committee include Tex Schramm, Don Shula and Paul Brown. McKay has served on the group of league coaches and executives primarily responsible for studying the game and passing rules modifications to ensure player safety and promote competitiveness in the league since 1994.

During his years as a committee member, McKay has had a hand in helping pass such progressive rules changes as the two-point conversion, spotting of missed field goals from the point of the kick, and moving of the kickoff spot from the 35 to the 30-yard line. At the time of his appointment, NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue acknowledged McKay's understanding of league procedures and dedication to the game.

"Rich McKay has a deep knowledge of the game and the operation of the league," said the Commissioner. "He was a strong contributor to the Competition Committee in recent years and has the leadership ability to be an outstanding co-chairman along with (Green Bay Packers Head Coach) Mike Holmgren."

McKay also coordinated the team's search for a new head coach following the 1995 season which culminated in the hiring of Tony Dungy in 1996. Under Dungy's unwavering guidance, Tampa Bay emerged as one of the NFC's most physical units the past two years. Dungy's leadership abilities, combined with McKay's knowledge of player personnel matters, have produced the foundation for one of the league's most promising young teams.

From 1992-94, McKay was the club's Vice President/Football Administration, handling many of his present-day responsibilities as well as dealing with the everyday running of the front office. An experienced contract negotiator, McKay worked with the three Trustees entrusted with the sale of the team from the Culverhouse estate to the Glazer family in 1995. As one of the negotiators in the sale process, McKay played a role in striking the sale agreement that ensured the franchise would remain in Tampa.

Regarded as one of the nation's leading experts on facility leases, McKay has represented a number of professional sports teams on a variety of stadium issues regarding acquisitions, leasing, financing, and debt service. In this regard, McKay played a key role in securing the new community stadium that will serve as the new home of the Buccaneers beginning with the 1998 season and host Super Bowl XXXV in 2001. McKay, along with Buccaneers Executive Vice Presidents Bryan and Joel Glazer, negotiated the terms for the lease of the new stadium with Tampa Mayor Dick Greco and Hillsborough County Administrator Dan Kleman.

"Rich's experience in negotiating contracts proved to be an invaluable asset in our ability to get the stadium lease completed," said Joel Glazer. "Without Rich's input, it would have been a far tougher challenge reaching an agreement."

Prior to joining the Buccaneers on a full-time basis, McKay was an attorney with the Tampa law firm of Hill, Ward, and Henderson, joining them in 1986. While in that position, he served as the team's legal counsel for six years and helped facilitate the reworking and extension of the team's lease with the Tampa Sports Authority in 1991.

McKay, who also taught a course in sports/entertainment law at Stetson University's College of Law, earned his bachelor's degree with honors in 1981 from Princeton University. He also graduated from Stetson's College of Law in 1984 and clerked for two years for Tampa U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges.

McKay is the son of legendary coach John McKay, who won four national championships at the University of Southern California and was the first head coach in Buccaneers history (1976-84). Born March 16, 1959 in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School, where he was the football team's starting quarterback. An avid long-distance runner, he has participated in and finished two New York City Marathons. McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons, Hunter (7/20/88) and John (9/24/92). The family resides in Tampa.

RICH MCKAY'S DRAFT-DAY DEALING

General Manager Rich McKay has helped shape the Buccaneers' draft-first approach to the team's construction, and he's made that philosophy work with consistently shrewd maneuvering on draft day. Below is a look at McKay's most important draft-related moves over the last five years.

- ❖ Traded TE Harold Bishop to Cleveland in 1995 for a second-round pick in 1996, which was used to select FB Mike Alstott, a 1997 Pro Bowler. Bishop had been selected by Tampa Bay in the third round in 1994 and had played in just six games with no starts as a rookie.
- ❖ After acquiring an extra second-round pick in the 1995 draft by trading down five spots in the first round, selected eventual Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp 12th overall. That extra second-round pick was then used in tandem with another second-rounder to trade up into the first round and select eventual Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks.
- ❖ Traded QB Craig Erickson to Indianapolis in 1995 for a first-round draft choice in 1996. That pick was used on DT Marcus Jones.
- ❖ Traded a 1996 second-round pick to San Diego for the Chargers' first-round choice in 1997. That pick was eventually used to select all-rookie WR Reidel Anthony, the team's leading receiver in '97. The Buccaneers' six first-round picks over a three-year span were the most by any NFL team in that period.
- ❖ Traded first-round pick in 1998 draft to Oakland for two of the Raiders' second-round picks. Tampa Bay then selected WR Jacquez Green and CB Brian Kelly, two players projected as first-round picks, and used the additional second-round choice to acquire a first-round pick from San Diego in 2000.

TONY DUNGY HEAD COACH

18th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

In just his second season as head coach, Tony Dungy guided the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to the franchise's first playoff appearance in 15 years. Under Dungy's steady hand the Buccaneers became one of 1997's biggest surprises, tying the club record for wins in a season with 10 and recording the franchise's first playoff victory since 1979.

Long considered one of the league's top defensive minds, Dungy's two-year coaching record of 16-16 (.500) is the best winning percentage of any previous Buccaneer head coach. Following the '97 season, Dungy was selected as the Professional Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club for his accomplishments in turning the Buccaneers into legitimate playoff contenders. On March 11, 1998, Dungy received yet another reward for his outstanding achievements — a new five-year contract that essentially voided out the terms of his original contract and ensured he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

"Two years ago, we decided Tony was the right man to lead this team into the future," Buccaneers Owner/President Malcolm Glazer said. "Since that time, he has exceeded even our highest expectations. When my family took ownership of this team in 1995, we pledged to bring a championship to Tampa Bay. We have no doubt that Tony will be the person to one day bring a title to our loyal fans."

The Buccaneers opened the 1997 season with an emotionally charged 13-6 downing of perennial powerhouse San Francisco en route to matching the franchise's 1979 mark for most wins to start a season with five. After losing its next three contests, the team displayed a new-found resolve, winning five of its last eight games to qualify as an NFC Wild Card participant. Under Dungy's supervision an NFL-best eight Buccaneer players were selected to the Pro Bowl, including first timers QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, FB Mike Alstott, C Tony Mayberry, DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and three-time participant LB Hardy Nickerson.

Dungy's squad made the jump to elite status led by a talented defense that combined youth and veteran leadership and finished the season as the league's third-ranked unit (fifth rushing, 10th passing). Following in the traditional Dungy mold of establishing a strong pass rush, the Buccaneer front four broke loose for a team-record 44 quarterback sacks with all four starters achieving career highs in that category.

The team's offense made considerable strides in '97 as well, scoring the fourth highest point total in club history (299) behind one of the league's most dangerous running attacks. Throughout his coaching career, Dungy has had few reservations about inserting rookies into the starting lineup and last season was no exception. First-rounders Dunn and WR Reidel Anthony both earned starting assignments early into their first seasons. Dunn combined with Alstott to form the core of a Buccaneer rushing attack that finished the season ranked sixth in the NFC and ninth overall in rushing yards (1,934) and Anthony finished as the club's leader among wide receivers with 35 receptions for 448 yards and four touchdowns.

"Last year was a great experience for everyone in our organization," said Dungy following the season. "As a team, we learned a lot about what it takes to compete and win on a championship level. The marker has been set and now it is our challenge to meet and exceed those higher expectations. There are still areas that need improvement in order for us to bring a championship to Tampa Bay, but I am confident we have the personnel in place to meet those challenges."

Dungy was named head coach of the Buccaneers on January 22, 1996. Eleven months later, he guided his club to victories in five of their final seven games including a franchise-record five consecutive victories at home. The strong finish would serve as an early indicator of the organization's eventual rise to prominence the following year.

Buccaneer fans found out almost immediately what kind of football coach Dungy is in '96 when his team stumbled out of the blocks with an 0-5 record before recording their first victory of the season and Dungy's first as an NFL head coach — a 24-13 triumph over the Minnesota Vikings on October 13.

Dungy oversaw a defensive unit that held seven straight opponents to 17 points or less during one late-season stretch. His aggressive defenses have been known for takeaways and scoring touchdowns. In his last 15 seasons, his units have scored an amazing 48 defensive TDs. In fact, since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, only nine teams have scored as many as seven defensive touchdowns in a season and four of those have come under Dungy's guidance.

When Dennis Green became the Minnesota Vikings' head coach in 1992, he named Dungy as his defensive coordinator. In his four seasons with the Vikes, his defenses intercepted an NFL-best 95 passes as the team qualified for post-season play three times. In 1995, Dungy's troops racked up impressive statistics. The Vikes finished second in the NFL in takeaways with 40, ranked second in the league in interceptions with 25, ended up fourth in the NFL against the rush and were tied for first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44.

Dungy directed another successful defensive effort for the Vikings in 1994 despite having fewer first round picks (one) than any other playoff defense. Minnesota ranked first in the NFL in defensive TDs with seven, first in the league in run defense, was fifth in the NFL in total defense, tied for first in the NFC in fumble recoveries with 16, fourth in the conference in takeaways with 34 and tied for fifth in the NFC with 36 sacks. The Vikings' league-best 68.1 rushing yards allowed per game was the fourth-best in NFL history and the top league mark in 30 years (Buffalo 65.2 in 1964). Three of the four NFC Defensive Players of the Month for the '94 campaign were Vikings. CB Anthony Parker established a new NFL record with a defensive touchdown in three consecutive games while CB Dewayne Washington tied a league rookie record with three defensive scores for the season.

In 1993, under the direction of Dungy, the Vikes boasted the NFL's number one ranked defense (275.3 yards per game). Minnesota was also the league's only team to rank in the top six defenses against both the run and the pass. Only the defenses of the Vikings, Oilers and Jets produced more than one shutout in '93. Dungy's corps also led the NFC and ranked second in the NFL in interceptions with 24, was third in the NFC in takeaways with 34, paced the league in fewest first downs permitted (259), was number one in highest percentage of opponents' passes intercepted (5%) and finished fourth in the conference in sacks with 45.

In his first year with Minnesota (1992), Dungy's defense had five new starters yet still led the NFL in interceptions with 28, ranked first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 42 takeaways, tied for the league lead in defensive touchdowns with eight (NFL's best total in eight years), and tied for third in the NFL in sacks with 51. Additionally, the Viking defense was second in the league in yards allowed per play (4.5), finished first in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per pass play, had the NFL's lowest percentage of TD passes allowed (2.4%), finished third in the league in fewest TDs allowed with 23, ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and was seventh in the NFL against the pass. Four Viking defensive players were selected to participate in the Pro Bowl.

From 1989-91, Dungy was the defensive backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs under Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer. In 1989, the Chiefs finished first in the AFC and second in the NFL in pass defense while the club qualified for the playoffs in 1990 and '91. From 1989-90, Kansas City allowed both the second-fewest completions in the NFL (503 behind Minnesota's 470) and the league's second-lowest completion percentage (51.2% behind Philadelphia's 48.5%). Under Dungy's guidance, CBs Albert Lewis and Kevin Ross were two-time Pro Bowl selections.

Dungy's first NFL coaching stop was with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1981-88. In '81, he became the youngest assistant coach in the NFL (25) when he joined the Steelers as a defensive assistant. From 1982-83, Dungy served as Pittsburgh's defensive backs coach, tutoring such Steeler stars as Mel Blount and Donnie Shell. In 1983, the Steelers' secondary permitted just seven touchdown passes in 16 games. In '84, Dungy became the youngest coordinator in the NFL when, at the age of 28, the Steelers tabbed him to run their defense. Pittsburgh's "D" ranked among the league's top six in each of his first two seasons as coordinator and, in his five years in that position, his defenses averaged 24 interceptions and 37 takeaways per season while scoring 20 touchdowns (including a league-best seven in 1987).

Dungy began his coaching career in 1980 at the age of 24 when he served as the defensive backs coach at the University of Minnesota (his alma mater).

As a player, Dungy was a quarterback at the University of Minnesota from 1973-76. He finished his Golden Gopher career as the school's all-time leader in pass attempts (576), completions (274), passing yards (3577) and touchdown passes (25). Dungy also rushed 413 times for 1,345 yards and 16 touchdowns. A two-time team Most Valuable Player, Dungy played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Japan Bowl. At the time he completed his college career, he ranked fourth in Big Ten history in total offense behind Mike Phipps, Archie Griffin and Bob Griese. As a junior, he established a single-season school record with 15 TD passes while leading the Big Ten and ranking fifth nationally in both total offense and passing. As a freshman, Dungy played for the 1973-74 Gophers varsity basketball team, averaging 2.6 points per game before ultimately playing football only. He earned a B.A. in business administration.

Following his UM career, Dungy signed as a free agent with the Steelers in May, 1977. In training camp, he was converted from quarterback to wide receiver to safety, and he impressed the Pittsburgh coaching staff sufficiently to become the first free agent to make the team's final roster in two years. Dungy appeared in 14 games as a rookie and notched three interceptions. In a '77 game against the Houston Oilers, Steeler QBs Terry Bradshaw and Mike Kruczek were both injured and Dungy completed three of eight passes for 43 yards and rushed three times for eight yards. He had the unusual experience of making an interception and throwing one in the same game.

In 1978, Dungy played in all 16 games and, despite starting just two contests, he ranked second in the AFC with six interceptions. He saved the Steelers' 15-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns with an end zone interception on the game's final play which he returned 65 yards. Dungy played in the Steelers' 35-31 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl XIII. During training camp in 1979 (8/21), Dungy was traded to the San Francisco 49ers in exchange for a 1980 tenth-round draft choice. He participated in 15 games for the 49ers in '79. Prior to the 1980 campaign (3/27), Dungy was dealt to the New York Giants along with RB Mike Hogan in exchange for WR Jimmy Robinson and CB Ray Rhodes (current head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles).

Since arriving in the Tampa Bay area, Dungy and his wife, Lauren, have been very active in community affairs. Dungy has done extensive work as a speaker for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Athletes in Action. In 1997, he participated in Mentors for Life, a program which provides tickets to Buccaneer home games to area youth and their mentors. Additionally, he has been a large supporter of a variety of children's charitable programs such as Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Boys and Girls Clubs and foster parenting organizations. Lauren has volunteered regularly at The Spring, a shelter for abused women and children, as well as the First Baptist Church of College Hill lunch program.

Born Anthony Kevin Dungy on October 6, 1955 in Jackson, Michigan, he graduated from Parkside High School in Jackson. He and Lauren have three children, including daughter Tiara (12/28/84), and sons James (1/6/87) and Eric (1/12/92).

MARK ASANOVICH
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

4th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Mark Asanovich enters his third season as the team's strength and conditioning coach. A four-year NFL coaching veteran, Asanovich joined the team in 1996 after spending the '95 season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Minnesota Vikings. The 39-year-old oversees all aspects of Tampa Bay's strength and conditioning program, including the highly successful four-month off-season voluntary workout program.

Under Asanovich's guidance, the team has upgraded virtually every facet of its weight training facility, investing more than $100,000 in new equipment over the past three seasons. The voluntary off-season conditioning program has been another key to the team's success in recent years, with participation levels of eligible rostered players hovering around 100 percent.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Asanovich worked from 1987-95 as the strength and conditioning coach at Anoka (Minn.) High School. During his tenure there, the school captured state football championships in 1990 and 1994. Anoka also won state titles in soccer (1989), wrestling (1991), and basketball (1992) during his nine years at the school. Asanovich came to Anoka after spending 1986 in a similar capacity at The Citadel.

In 1984, Asanovich was hired as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl that season. That same season, he also worked as the strength and conditioning coach at Grove City (Ohio) High School. Asanovich was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach at Ohio State the following year as the team went 9-3 and defeated Brigham Young in the Citrus Bowl.

While in Minnesota, Asanovich was a member of the Governor's Council for Health and Physical Fitness and also was on the Executive Board of the Minnesota Association of Physical Education, Health, Exercise, Recreation, and Dance. He was also one of the first 15 coaches certified by the National Strength Conditioning Association.

Asanovich earned his bachelor's degree in special education from St. Cloud State and his master's in strength training and athletic conditioning from Ohio State.

A native of Duluth, Minnesota, Asanovich played guard and linebacker at the city's East High School. He and his wife, Allisen, reside in Odessa.

CLYDE CHRISTENSEN
TIGHT ENDS COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Clyde Christensen was named as the Buccaneers' tight ends coach on February 1, 1996. Christensen joined the Bucs after spending the previous 16 years in a variety of coaching positions on the collegiate level.

In his first two seasons with the Bucs, he has overseen the development of a young tight end corps that is anchored by steadily emerging veteran Dave Moore. Under Christensen's guidance, Moore has made the transition from backup role player to starter, equaling receivers Karl Williams and Reidel Anthony with a team-high four receiving touchdowns in '97 and more than doubling his career reception totals over the past two seasons. This season, Christensen will also be entrusted with the further development of second-year player Patrick Hape, who spent most of his '97 rookie season splitting time between fullback and tight end.

Before coming to Tampa, the 40-year-old Christensen spent two years (1994-95) as the co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Clemson. From 1992-93, he served as the quarterbacks coach at Maryland where he tutored John Kaleo and current Buccaneer backup quarterback Scott Milanovich. Under Christensen's direction, Maleo ranked second in the nation in total offense in 1992 while Milanovich finished fourth in 1993.

In 1991, Christensen served as running backs coach at South Carolina after spending 1989-1990 as an assistant coach at Holy Cross. While coaching the Crusaders, he oversaw the receivers and tight ends in '89 before being promoted to offensive coordinator for the '90 season. From 1986-88, Christensen was the offensive coordinator and was also in charge of recruiting at East Carolina as the Pirates built a reputation for offensive explosiveness against ranked opponents.

Christensen oversaw the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Temple from 1983-85 after holding the position of offensive coordinator at East Tennessee State from 1980-82. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Mississippi in 1979.

As a player, Christensen was an All-America quarterback for Fresno City Junior College from 1975-76. He continued his collegiate career as a QB at North Carolina where he lettered for the Tar Heels from 1977-78 as they earned trips to the Peach Bowl and Liberty Bowl. Christensen earned his bachelor's degree in industrial relations from UNC.

Born January 28, 1958 in Corvina, California, Clyde and his wife, Debbie, reside in Tampa with their three daughters, Rachel (7/15/83), Rebecca (9/12/85) and Ruth (9/6/90).

HERMAN EDWARDS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

9th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

A long-time acquaintance of Buccaneers Head Coach Tony Dungy, Herman Edwards enters his third season as the team's assistant head coach and defensive backs coach. Edwards, who met Dungy while participating in the Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl college all-star games in 1976, is responsible for assisting the head coach with various administrative functions in addition to his on-field work with the team's defensive secondary.

In '97, the Buccaneer secondary put forth its second consecutive stellar performance under Edwards' tutelage finishing in the league's top 10 in pass defense. Aided by an improved defensive line that constantly harassed opposing passers, the Buc defensive backfield allowed an average of just 188.0 passing yards per game. Edwards coached his unit to new heights last season, elevating the play of established veterans CB Donnie Abraham and SS John Lynch, and maximizing the talents of newly acquired veteran starters CB Anthony Parker and FS Charles Mincy. One of the unit's biggest beneficiaries of Edwards' teaching style was Lynch, who became the first defensive back to earn a Pro Bowl selection since Wayne Haddix ('90) after posting a career-best 154 tackles and two interceptions.

In 1996, under Edwards' guidance, the Buccaneer pass defense rose from 16th in the league after the second week to fourth place by season's end. Led by Lynch and rookie sensation Donnie Abraham, the Tampa Bay defensive backs limited opposing offenses to an average of just 182.8 passing yards per game, the team's lowest mark since 1991 (179.5).

Edwards, 44, joined the Buccaneers after spending the past seven years in several different capacities with the Kansas City Chiefs. In 1995, he served as a pro scout in the Chiefs' player personnel department. From 1992-94, he was the team's defensive backs coach and was credited with the development of Dale Carter (AFC Defensive Rookie of the Year in '92) and Mincy while also coaching Pro Bowlers Kevin Ross and Albert Lewis. In each of Edwards' three seasons as the Chiefs' DBs coach, the team ranked in the NFL's top three in takeaways and in the top ten in pass defense. In 1992, under Edwards' guidance, the Chiefs led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL in pass defense (158.6 yards per game). K.C.'s 24 interceptions was the third highest total in the league that season as Chief DBs scored five touchdowns. In 1993, injuries rocked the Kansas City secondary and Edwards was forced to use five different starting combinations. Still, the Chiefs permitted just 196.6 yards per game and had 21 interceptions (seventh in NFL).

From 1990-91, Edwards was a talent scout for the Chiefs while also spending training camps as an assistant to Dungy who was then K.C.'s defensive backs coach. Edwards initially worked for the Chiefs in the summer of 1989 as the recipient of the team's Minority Coaching Fellowship. He began his coaching career at San Jose State as the Spartans' defensive backs coach from 1987-89. During each of his three seasons at SJSU, Spartan opponents completed less than 50% of their passes.

As an NFL player, Edwards played ten seasons including nine with the Philadelphia Eagles (1977-85). Undrafted following his college career, he was signed as a free agent by current Chiefs' President/General Manager Carl Peterson who was then the Eagles' Director of Player Personnel. As a rookie cornerback, Edwards started the first pre-season game and then proceeded to start all 135 games during his nine-year Eagle tenure. He earned Second Team All-NFC honors in 1980 and 1982, and played for the Eagles in Super Bowl XV (27-10 loss to Oakland Raiders).

However, Edwards is best remembered for recovering a fumble by New York Giant QB Joe Pisarcik and returning it 26 yards for a touchdown with 31 seconds remaining in Philadelphia's 19-17 "Miracle in the Meadowlands" (11/19/78). He left Philly with 33 career interceptions which ranks second on the team's all-time list behind Bill Bradley and Eric Allen (34). Including post-season play, his 38 interceptions is an Eagle record. Edwards' final NFL season came in 1986 when he played four games for the Los Angeles Rams and three for the Atlanta Falcons before announcing his retirement during the season (11/11).

Edwards began his college career at Cal-Berkeley and played there in 1972 and '74, earning All-PAC 8 (now PAC 10) honors. He set a Golden Bear record with four interceptions in one game. In 1973, he played at Monterrey Peninsula Junior College. Edwards played his senior season at San Diego State where he received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

Last season, Edwards and the Buccaneers' secondary implemented a youth enrichment program called "Focus and Finish", which they will sponsor again this season. The program encourages high school athletes to excel in athletics and as citizens in their respective communities through volunteering, tutoring, and mentoring programs. The student-athletes involved in "Focus and Finish" must have a minimum 3.0 grade-point average and be involved in community service. The group sits in a special section each game, courtesy of tickets purchased by Edwards and members of the Bucs secondary.

Edwards, for the third straight year, hosted the Herm Edwards Football Camp, which was attended by more than 300 underprivileged youth living on the Monterey Peninsula. The camp, which is offered at no cost to participants, raises money through an auction and raffle dinner which is then distributed to five area schools. In years past, he also hosted the Annual Herman Edwards Charity Golf Classic which benefited the Boys and Girls Club in Seaside, California.

A native of Monmouth, New Jersey, Edwards grew up in Seaside, California. He has a son, Marcus (12/13/81), and resides in Tampa.

CHRIS FOERSTER
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

6th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Chris Foerster enters his third season as coach of the Buccaneer offensive line after spending three years (1993-95) as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings. One of the first assistants hired by Tony Dungy upon his arrival in '96, Foerster has been responsible for a dramatic improvement in the team's offensive line play the past two seasons.

Prior to 1997, no Buccaneer offensive lineman had ever been selected to represent the NFC in the league's Pro Bowl. All that changed last season however, when C Tony Mayberry earned that honor and LT Paul Gruber was chosen as a first alternate. Those individual honors serve as a testament to Foerster's coaching abilities. Last season, the Buccaneer offensive line finished tied for fifth in the league in sacks allowed, surrendering just 32 takedowns. In his first two seasons with Tampa Bay, Foerster has been instrumental in the rapid progress of early-round selections T Jason Odom ('96), T Jerry Wunsch ('97) and G Frank Middleton ('97) as well as '96 surprise college free agent G Jorge Diaz, giving all four significant rookie-season playing time.

In his first Tampa season, Foerster took over an offensive line unit that suffered various injuries to key personnel. Despite the fact that the unit's five starters played together in just one game, the Buc offensive line ranked 12th in the league in sacks allowed, surrendering just 30 takedowns.

Foerster joined the Vikes in 1993 as assistant offensive line coach and also helped with the tight ends in 1994. In 1996, he was promoted to tight ends/assistant offensive line coach by Minnesota Head Coach Dennis Green. The Vikings' offensive line solidified their reputation for getting the tough yards as the team earned a first down on 25 of 27 third or fourth down tries from three yards or less. In '94, Minnesota gained a club-record 5,848 yards and permitted just 31 sacks in 704 pass attempts. That ratio of a sack every 22.7 passes was the second best in team history. In Foerster's first Viking season, the club produced a sackless streak of 14 consecutive quarters which was a team record.

In Foerster's three years with the Vikes, G Randall McDaniel was selected to three Pro Bowls. In '94, TE Andrew Jordan and T Todd Steussie were named as consensus all-rookie picks.

In 1992, prior to accepting his post with the Vikings, Foerster worked as the offensive line coach at the University of Minnesota under Head Coach Jim Wacker. That season, the Gophers set a school mark for completions while also leading the Big Ten in passing yards. One of Foerster's players, T Keith Ballard, was named as the team's Most Valuable Player.

From 1988-91, Foerster tutored the offensive line at Stanford, working the last three years for then-Cardinal Head Coach Dennis Green. While Foerster was at Stanford, T Bob Whitfield developed into an All-America and 1992 first-round draft choice, and FB Tommy Vardell set a school career and single-season record for rushing TDs. Foerster began his college coaching career at Colorado State in 1983 as a graduate assistant. He was promoted to offensive line coach the following season and remained with the Rams through the 1987 campaign. While at CSU, Foerster's line played in front of the school's all-time leading rusher (Steve Bartalo) and passer (Kelly Stouffer), and the school boasted three First Team All-Western Athletic Conference offensive linemen.

Foerster played center at Colorado State from 1979-82, originally as a walk-on before earning a starting job and a scholarship as a junior. In his senior year, the Rams set a school record for passing yards in a season. The previous year, Foerster was named as CSU's outstanding scholar-athlete. Foerster earned his bachelor's degree in history in Colorado State.

A native of Milwaukee, Foerster grew up in Tucson, Arizona where he earned all-city honors in football. He and his wife, Michelle, live in St. Petersburg with daughter Kathleen (8/9/88) and son Jake (12/6/91).

MONTE KIFFIN
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

16th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

A 16-year coaching veteran, Defensive Coordinator Monte Kiffin enters his third Buccaneers campaign as the team's most experienced assistant. In '97, Kiffin's defense continued to gain respect as one of the league's most feared units. After finishing the '96 season with a respectable 11th-place overall league ranking, Kiffin's unit reached elite status last season, finishing third in overall defense.

Kiffin's talent-laden one-gap defensive scheme overmatched many opponents in '97, allowing an average of 16.4 points per game and limiting teams to less than 300 total yards in nine regular season contests. Fueled by Pro Bowlers LB Hardy Nickerson, DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks and SS John Lynch, the Buccaneer defense finished sixth against the run and 10th versus the pass in the league's overall rankings. A key ingredient to the team's defensive improvement was a young and aggressive defensive line unit that accumulated a franchise-record 44 quarterback sacks and was led by Sapp's 10.5 takedowns.

The 58-year-old Kiffin came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 campaign as the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. In 1995, the Saints tied for fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44 as DT Wayne Martin led the team with 13. Just prior to coaching in New Orleans, Kiffin spent four seasons (1991-94) as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive coordinator for Head Coach Jerry Burns in 1991 and as inside linebackers coach for Head Coach Dennis Green and Defensive Coordinator Tony Dungy from 1992-94. During that tenure in Minnesota, Kiffin's star pupil was Jack Del Rio as the Vikes led the league in both total defense and run defense in 1994. In '93, Minnesota allowed the fewest first downs in the NFL while pacing the NFC in rushing defense. In 1992, the Vikings rated second in the league as the defense permitted just 4.5 yards per play.

In 1990, Kiffin tutored the linebackers for the New York Jets under then-Head Coach Bruce Coslet and Defensive Coordinator Pete Carroll. Kiffin helped Kyle Clifton tie for the NFL lead in interceptions among linebackers. Kiffin had his first tour of duty with the Vikings as the team's linebackers coach from 1986-89. During that time, he coached standout Viking LBs Scott Studwell, Chris Doleman and Mike Merriweather. In both '88 (255.7, 4.3) and '89 (261.5, 4.1), Minnesota was the league leader in both total defense and yards allowed per play.

From 1984-85, Kiffin coached the linebackers for the Buffalo Bills, overseeing players like Darryl Talley and Jim Haslett who later coached with Kiffin in New Orleans. Kiffin's first professional coaching job came in 1983 as the linebackers coach for the Green Bay Packers under then-Head Coach Bart Starr.

Kiffin was the head coach at North Carolina State from 1980-82, compiling a 16-17 record including 6-5 marks in 1981 and '82. Former Philadelphia Eagle Pro Bowl WR Mike Quick played for the Wolfpack under Kiffin. From 1977-79, Kiffin was defensive coordinator for Lou Holtz at Arkansas while also serving as assistant head coach in '79. Chicago Bear great Dan Hampton was coached by Kiffin at Arkansas as the Razorbacks led the nation in scoring defense in 1977.

Kiffin began his coaching career at Nebraska where he worked from 1966-76 under both Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. NU captured national championships in both 1970 and '71. He was a defensive assistant from 1966-72 before being promoted to defensive coordinator. Future NFLers like Outland Trophy winner Rich Glover, John Dutton and Bob Nelson were Cornhuskers under Kiffin.

As a player, Kiffin played both offensive and defensive tackle at Nebraska from 1959-63. Following graduation, he sat out the 1964 season due to a knee injury before playing defensive end for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 1965.

A native of Lexington, Nebraska, Kiffin was that state's High School Athlete of the Year in 1958. Monte and his wife, Robin, live in St. Petersburg. They have three children including daughter Heidi (9/5/68) and sons Lane (5/9/75) and Chris (1/19/82). Lane played quarterback at Fresno State with current Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer.

AARON KOMAREK
ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

At 27, assistant strength and conditioning coach Aaron Komarek is already in his third full season with the Buccaneers. Komarek assists Strength and Conditioning Coach Mark Asanovich in all areas of Tampa Bay's conditioning program, including one-on-one strength workouts with each Buccaneer player.

Before coming to Tampa Bay, Komarek worked with Asanovich from 1993-95 as a strength and conditioning intern for the Minnesota Vikings and as a strength and conditioning coach for Minnesota's Anoka High School. With his assistance, the 1994 Anoka football team went undefeated (14-0) and captured the high school state championship.

Komarek graduated with honors from the University of Minnesota in 1995, earning a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. The St. Paul, Minnesota native is a member of Florida's Expert Strength Council (1996-97) and served as Minnesota's Co-State Director of the National Strength & Conditioning Association in 1994. This past off-season, he also served as a trainer for professional tennis player Jennifer Capriati. He is single and resides in Tampa.

JOE MARCIANO
SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

13th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Over the National Football League's last decade, special teams have gradually gained emphasis and the prominence of Joe Marciano's outstanding work has increased accordingly. One of the NFL's most respected special teams coaches, Marciano is entering his third season in charge of those units for the Buccaneers.

Marciano and the Buccaneers' special teams continued to shine in 1997 and are expected to further improve in '98 with the addition of potent return man Jacques Green. Last season, WR Karl Williams recorded just the third punt return for a touchdown in franchise history and rookie LB Alshermond Singleton blocked two punts. Williams finished as the NFC's second-leading punt returner and the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field goal percentage, fourth in punt return average and opponent average kickoff drive start and fifth in opponent gross punting average.

Marciano has turned the Bucs' special teams units into big-play producers. In just two seasons under his tutelage, Buccaneer special teamers have recorded three NFC Player of the Week awards, eight blocked or deflected kicks and five of the seven longest punt and kickoff returns in team annals. Marciano joined Tampa Bay after spending the previous ten years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. In 1995, the Saints ranked third in the league in lowest punt return average allowed (6.5) and sixth in lowest kickoff return average permitted (19.8).

During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Head Coach Joe Paterno at Penn State. There, he coached future NFL offensive lineman Ron Heller who played TE for the Nittany Lions. Marciano also coached tight ends at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pennsylvania in 1976.

The 44-year-old Marciano was a quarterback at Temple where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. A native of Dunmore, Pennsylvania, he is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and resides in Odessa.

ROD MARINELLI DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Rod Marinelli joined the Buccaneers in 1996 with a reputation as one of the nation's finest collegiate assistants and a consummate teacher. In just two seasons, he has proven to be more of an architect, building Tampa Bay's defensive line into perhaps the finest pass-rushing unit in team history. Marinelli will enter his third NFL season and third campaign with the Bucs hoping to build on a team-record total of 44 sacks.

Marinelli helped every member of the Bucs' defensive line record a career year in 1997, as DT Warren Sapp emerged as a bona fide NFL star, DE Chidi Ahanotu made a name for himself as much more than a dependable performer, DT Brad Culpepper finally shed the mantle of 'overachiever' and DE Regan Upshaw gave the team its first significant production at right end in years.

A veteran of 20 seasons as a college assistant coach, Marinelli came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 season as the defensive line coach at Southern Cal under Head Coach John Robinson. From 1992-94, Marinelli was the assistant head coach/defensive line for Head Coach Bruce Snyder at Arizona State. In 1993, three of his starting linemen earned All-PAC 10 honors. Shante Carver (now with the Dallas Cowboys) was an All-America pick and was also a finalist for the Outland and Lombardi trophies.

From 1983-91, Marinelli coached the defensive line at California, adding assistant head coach to his title for his final two Golden Bear seasons. Snyder became the school's head coach in 1987 and retained Marinelli. While at California, Marinelli coached several future NFLers including Chidi Ahanotu, Rhett Hall and Natu Tuatagaloa.

Marinelli's first coaching job came in 1976 from Snyder who was then the head coach at Utah State. From 1976-81, Marinelli oversaw the Aggies' defensive line before becoming USU's offensive line/special teams coach for the 1982 campaign. In six seasons as the D-Line coach for Utah State, three of his players (Rulon Jones, Mike Perko, Shawn Miller) won conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Marinelli began his coaching career at his alma mater, Rosemead High School in San Gabriel Valley, California, from 1973-75.

Marinelli played offensive and defensive tackle at Utah in 1968 before serving a one-year stint in Vietnam. He returned from the service and attended California Lutheran from 1970-72, earning NAIA All-America honors as an offensive tackle in '72. Marinelli earned his bachelor's degree in history from CLC.

Born July 13, 1949 in Rosemead, California, Rod and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tampa. The family includes daughters Christine (2/11/70) and Gina (8/8/81). Christine is married to Joe Barry, a linebackers coach at Northern Arizona University.

TONY NATHAN
RUNNING BACKS COACH

11th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

The Buccaneers spent two high draft choices on running backs in Tony Nathan's first two years in charge of that position in Tampa Bay, and were pleased to see both make enormous contributions almost as soon as they pulled on their uniforms. Entering his third season as Tampa Bay's running backs coach, Nathan will again look to maximize the potential of RBs Mike Alstott and Warrick Dunn as well as this year's new addition at fullback, trade acquisition Lorenzo Neal.

Nathan, a versatile, pass-catching running back for nine seasons in a Miami Dolphin uniform, has helped mold Alstott and Dunn in that same fashion. Alstott and Dunn have led the team in receptions in the last two seasons, respectively, and the two combined for 1,643 rushing yards, 640 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns in 1997.

Nathan, in his 11th season as an NFL assistant coach, helped the Bucs improve from 22nd in the league in rushing in 1996 to 11th last year and will look to prompt further improvement out of his corps in 1998.

From 1988-95, Nathan was an assistant coach for the Dolphins. Initially hired by legendary Miami Head Coach Don Shula as a coaches' assistant, Nathan's responsibilities included breaking down game film and charting plays. In 1993, he was promoted to Miami's offensive backs coach. His coaching philosophy, which puts an emphasis on a back's ability to catch the ball as well as run with it, mirrors his own style during his playing days.

In 1995, Bernie Parmalee, formerly an undrafted free agent, led the Dolphins in rushing with 878 yards and nine TDs while Terry Kirby finished in the AFC's top ten in receptions. In 1993, Nathan's first season supervising the team's RBs, Kirby (75) and Keith Byars (61) combined for an NFL backfield-best 136 receptions which was also the highest total by two backs in Dolphin annals.

Nathan was a running back for Miami from 1979-87. He ranks fourth on the club's all-time list in rushing attempts (732), rushing yards (3,543) and receptions (383). He is also fifth in receiving yards (3,592), tied for ninth in scoring (198 points, 33 TDs), seventh in punt return yards (484) and ninth in kick return yards (1,133).

In 1981, Nathan was named the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player after leading the team in rushing with a career-high 782 yards and posting an NFL-best 5.3-yard rushing average.

Nathan played in Super Bowls XVII and XIX for the Dolphins when the team lost to the Washington Redskins and the San Francisco 49ers. Perhaps the single play Nathan is most remembered for occurred in one of the NFL's greatest games, a 41-38 OT playoff loss to San Diego on January 2, 1982. Nathan scored on a 25-yard run following a lateral from WR Duriel Harris on the famous "hook and ladder" play.

As a collegian, Nathan starred at Alabama from 1975-78. In both his junior and senior seasons, the Crimson Tide posted an 11-1 record, winning a national championship in 1978. In his Alabama career, Nathan rushed for 1,997 yards on 310 carries with 29 touchdowns. He gained 770 yards in the national championship season and ran for 127 yards in the Tide's 14-7 Sugar Bowl win over Penn State that clinched the title.

Born December 14, 1956 in Birmingham, Alabama, Nathan was a four-sport letterman at that city's Woodlawn High School. Tony and his wife, Johnnie, have three daughters including Francheria (7/8/80), Natalie (8/9/83) and Nadia (5/27/87).

KEVIN O'DEA
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT COACH

5th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Kevin O'Dea begins his third season as a defensive assistant on Head Coach Tony Dungy's staff. In his role with the Bucs, the 38-year-old O'Dea works closely with Defensive Coordinator Monte Kiffin in preparing game plans, breaking down film of opponents' tendencies and producing scouting reports.

O'Dea joined the Buccaneers after spending the 1994-95 seasons in a similar role with the San Diego Chargers under Head Coach Bobby Ross. In his first San Diego season, O'Dea worked with the linebackers, then was primarily involved with the defensive backs in 1995.

Prior to his stint in San Diego, O'Dea spent three years (1991-93) working for Joe Paterno at Penn State. In 1991, he was a graduate assistant coach working with the wide receivers before being promoted to assistant strength coach and also working with the defensive line (1992) and the linebackers (1993).

O'Dea also had a similar three-year stint at the University of Virginia from 1988-90. He began as a graduate assistant (defensive backs) for two years under Head Coach George Welsh before moving on to become the assistant strength coach in his final season with the Cavaliers. In 1987, O'Dea was the defensive backs coach at Cornell University.

After a four-year term in the Coast Guard from 1979-83, O'Dea enrolled at Lock Haven University. He played defensive back and wide receiver for the Bald Eagles from 1983 until suffering a back injury during the 1985 season. He helped out coaching the receivers for the remainder of the '85 campaign, then served as the team's receivers coach in 1986 while still a student at the school.

O'Dea earned his bachelor's degree in fitness management from Lock Haven and also has a master's in sports medicine from Virginia. A native of Williamsport, Virginia, he is single and lives in Tampa.

MIKE SHULA
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

11th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Mike Shula begins his third season as the Buccaneers' offensive coordinator. After spending 1997 overseeing the development of Pro Bowlers QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, FB Mike Alstott and C Tony Mayberry, Shula is expected to orchestrate an even stronger offensive unit this year.

Shula's offensive scheme received a boost during the 1998 off-season when the Bucs acquired free agent receiver Bert Emanuel from the Atlanta Falcons. Emanuel's big-play abilities, coupled with the continued development of WR Reidel Anthony, WR Karl Williams and '98 second-round pick WR Jacquez Green, will provide Shula with perhaps the most solid pass-catching unit he has ever worked with.

Leading the Bucs' passing game will be fifth-year player Dilfer, who, under Shula's direction, set Tampa Bay records for touchdown passes (21) and consecutive passes thrown without an interception (152) in 1997, while finishing the year with the second highest single-season passer rating (82.8) in team annals. Shula will also enjoy the return of Alstott and Dunn, who helped produce the third-most rushing yards in Buccaneer history (1,934) last season.

The 33-year-old Shula joined the Bucs in 1996, marking the return to where he began his coaching career, after spending the 1993-95 seasons as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears. During his stint in Chicago, he assisted Head Coach Dave Wannstedt and Offensive Coordinator Ron Turner with the planning and implementation of the Bears' game plans.

From 1991-92, Shula was a coaches' assistant for the Miami Dolphins. In that role, he worked not only with the coaching staff but also assisted the player personnel department in pro scouting.

He began his coaching career with the Buccaneers as the NFL's youngest assistant (23), working as a coach on Head Coach Ray Perkins' staff from 1988-90. In his first two seasons, Shula was an offensive assistant before being promoted to quarterbacks coach for the 1990 campaign.

A quarterback as a player, Shula was a 12th round draft choice of the Bucs in 1987, but was waived in the final cut. He was later re-signed and finished the season with Tampa Bay.

Shula was a three-year starter for Perkins at Alabama, completing 298 of 552 passes (54.0%) for 3881 yards, 33 touchdowns and 30 interceptions. He was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection and led the Crimson Tide to victories in the Aloha and Sun bowls in his final two seasons. As a junior, he became only the second Alabama QB ever to throw for over 2000 yards in a season (also Scott Hunter in 1969). Shula earned his bachelor's degree in labor relations from Alabama.

Born June 3, 1965 in Baltimore, Shula attended Columbus High School in Miami where he earned all-state honors and led his team to the state championship game as a senior. He is single and resides in Clearwater.

LOVIE SMITH LINEBACKERS COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

The 1998 season marks Lovie Smith's third as the team's linebackers coach. Smith's group is led by three-time Pro Bowl MLB Hardy Nickerson and 1997 Pro Bowl WLB Derrick Brooks. Under Smith's direction in 1997, the linebacker corps played a key role in helping the Bucs defense finish the year ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL against the run, while ranking best in the league inside the 20.

Smith's linebackers are expected to exhibit the same power in 1998. Nickerson, selected to his third Pro Bowl following the '97 season, enters the season 73 stops away from becoming the franchise's all-time leading tackler. His team-leading 194 stops in 1997 were closely trailed by Brooks, who racked up 182 en route to earning his first Pro Bowl trip. The dominating duo now own the top three spots on the Buccaneers' single-season tackle total list. Smith will strive to fill the SLB spot this season with linebackers Jeff Gooch, Shelton Quarles, Al Singleton and newly acquired Stephen Grant competing for a starting role.

Before joining the Bucs, the 39-year-old Smith spent the 1995 season coaching defensive backs for John Cooper at Ohio State. The Buckeyes enjoyed a highly-successful season capped off by an appearance in the Citrus Bowl against Tennessee. Smith spent the 1993-94 campaigns in a similar capacity at Tennessee under Head Coach Phil Fulmer. In 1992, Smith coached the outside linebackers for Bill Curry at Kentucky.

From 1988-91, Smith oversaw the linebackers at Arizona State for Head Coach Larry Marmie who later served as Tennessee's defensive coordinator when Smith was at UT. Smith had joined the Sun Devils after spending 1987 as the linebackers coach at Wisconsin. His first college coaching position came at Tulsa (his alma mater). Smith coached linebackers for the Golden Hurricane from 1983-86 when Cooper was the head coach at TU. Smith's first jobs came at Big Sandy (Tex.) High School in 1980 and at Tulsa's Cascia Hall prep school in 1981.

As a player, Smith was a two-time All-America and three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference linebacker for Cooper at Tulsa. Smith enjoyed a spectacular prep career at Big Sandy High School in which he was named all-state on three occasions as his school captured three state championships.

A native of Big Sandy, Texas, Lovie and his wife, MaryAnne, have three sons, Mikal (11/16/76), a junior defensive back at Arizona, Matthew (8/26/86) and Miles (9/27/89). The family resides in Tampa.

RICKY THOMAS

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT COACH

3rd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Ricky Thomas joined the Buccaneers' coaching staff on April 11, 1997, when he was named the team's offensive assistant. A former Seattle Seahawk safety who has coached for nine years at the high school and collegiate levels, Thomas works closely with Offensive Coordinator Mike Shula in preparing game plans. His duties also include film analysis of upcoming opponents and the production of scouting reports.

The 33-year-old Thomas came to the Buccaneers after a short stint on the coaching staff at Gardner Webb University. He was named Gardner Webb's defensive backs coach on January 20, 1997 after spending one season as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Kentucky.

Prior to joining Kentucky's staff, Thomas spent five years (1992-96) on the faculty at the McCallie School in Chattanooga, TN teaching human development and coaching the football, wrestling and track and field teams. During this time, he also completed his master's degree in secondary education at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. Thomas arrived at McCallie after serving three years as the academic advisor for the football and men's basketball teams at the University of Alabama.

As a player, Thomas was a four-year starter at strong safety for the University of Alabama, where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. Though not drafted, he joined the Seahawks' training camp in 1987 and made the team as a free agent rookie, appearing in one game. Thomas also went to training camp with the Indianapolis Colts in 1988.

Long associated with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Thomas served as that organization's co-president in 1985-86. A native of Niceville, Florida, Thomas and his wife, Kimberly, have two children, daughter Kaitlyn (3/24/93) and son Ricky, Jr. (12/25/96). The family lives in Tampa.

ANOTHER TOUGH ROAD

One of the most remarkable aspects of the Buccaneers' breakthrough season in 1997 was that they forged their 10-6 record against one of the toughest schedules in the league. Tampa Bay's opponents compiled a .529 winning percentage in 1997, tied for the sixth-highest mark in the league.

It won't get any easier for Tampa Bay in 1998. The Buccaneers' '98 schedule has been ranked as the third toughest in the league (tied with Cincinnati), using last year's winning percentages. Only Pittsburgh and Chicago must face tougher opponents than the Bucs, whose combined mark in 1997 was 138-116-2 (.543). Of the Bucs' 16 regular-season games, nine are against fellow 1997 playoff participants and four are against division winners.

CHARLIE WILLIAMS

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Charlie Williams enters his third season as wide receivers coach for the Buccaneers with a high-powered group of pass-catchers.

Led by fifth-year standout Bert Emanuel, whom the Bucs acquired through free agency in 1998, Williams' receivers are expected to provide Pro Bowl QB Trent Dilfer with fast and reliable targets. In addition to guiding Emanuel, Williams will coach a solid receiving corps that features rising stars in Reidel Anthony, Karl Williams, Horace Copeland and this year's second-round draft-pick Jacquez Green.

A college quarterback who was converted to wide receiver upon reaching the NFL, Emanuel is still considered an improving player despite a four-year career average of 65 receptions and 900 receiving yards. Anthony and Karl Williams are also expected to further progress under Charlie Williams, and Green is expected to provide speed and depth in his first season.

Prior to coming to Tampa, Williams spent three years in a similar capacity at the University of Miami. With the 'Canes, he was instrumental in the development of their outstanding group of young receivers. In 1995, Williams was retained by new UM Head Coach Butch Davis after spending his first two Miami seasons working for Dennis Erickson.

Williams spent one year (1992) coaching the receivers at the University of Minnesota for Head Coach Jim Wacker. He had followed Wacker to UM from Texas Christian where he had spent the 1988-91 seasons coaching the Horned Frogs' wideouts. In 1989, The Sporting News recognized TCU's group of receivers as the best in the nation. From 1986-87, Williams tutored the running backs at New Mexico State after serving as the defensive backs coach at Long Beach City College from 1984-85. Williams' first two coaching jobs were on the high school level, at Long Beach Poly in 1983 and at Fairview H.S. in Boulder, Colorado in 1982. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State in 1981.

As a collegian, Williams played defensive back at Long Beach City College from 1977-78 before transferring to Colorado State where he played from 1979-80. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from CSU.

A native of Long Beach, California, Charlie and his wife, Shellie, reside in Tampa with daughter Sydney (12/11/90) and son Gregory (3/16/94).

JERRY ANGELO
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

18th NFL Season, 12th with Buccaneers

Jerry Angelo is in his 12th year as the Buccaneers' director of player personnel. In that role, he oversees the team's scouting department and also coordinates the Bucs' internal information network on all other NFL players for free agency purposes. Angelo has 18 years of experience in NFL scouting and 12 years of coaching at the college and professional level.

Angelo joined the Buccaneers in 1987 after spending four seasons (1983-86) as a regional scout for the New York Giants. During his tenure with New York, he helped build the '86 Giants team that won Super Bowl XXI in 1987. Prior to that, he spent one year as the linebackers coach for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. Angelo's first post with an NFL team came as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys from 1980-81.

Angelo was the defensive line coach at Syracuse from 1975-80 after serving as the defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator at the University of Tampa from 1973-74. Angelo left UT after the Spartans eliminated their football program. His first full-time coaching job came as the defensive line coach at Colorado State in 1972. Angelo served as a graduate assistant at Miami of Ohio in 1971.

Angelo obtained his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Miami of Ohio where he played three years as a defensive tackle for Bo Schembechler and Bill Mallory. Angelo also earned a master's degree in education from Miami.

Jerry and his wife, Bernie, have two daughters, Leisa (9/4/69) and Sutton (12/4/85). The family resides in St. Petersburg.

TIM RUSKELL
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

12th NFL Season, 12th with Buccaneers

Tim Ruskell joined the Buccaneers as a regional scout in 1987 and was promoted to his current position of director of college scouting in 1992. He coordinates a staff of five regional scouts and oversees the team's compilation of information on college players.

Before moving to the Bucs, Ruskell served as the director of scouting for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits from 1985-86. Ruskell worked as a scout for the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders from 1983-85. He was hired in Saskatchewan by then-General Manager John Herrera who had previously been a scout for the Buccaneers. From 1978-83, Ruskell worked as an on-air radio talent in Tampa.

Ruskell attended the University of South Florida and earned his bachelor's degree in journalism in 1978. While a student at USF, he worked for the Bucs during their inaugural training camp of 1976 and also did research projects for the team's scouting department.

Ruskell was born on October 20, 1956 in Yokohama, Japan where his father was stationed in the Army. The family eventually relocated to Tampa, and Ruskell graduated from King High School. Tim and his wife, Linda, live in Carrollwood with daughter Samantha (2/26/96).

MIKE ACKERLEY

COLLEGE SCOUT

6th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

In his sixth year with the Buccaneers, Mike Ackerley is responsible for scouting the west coast for the team. He joined Tampa Bay after spending four years (1988-91) as the defensive line coach at Arizona State.

Prior to going to ASU, Ackerley spent 1987 as the defensive backs coach at Bakersfield Junior College where he had coached the linebackers in 1985. In between those Bakersfield assignments, Ackerley was the defensive line coach for Ted Tollner at Southern California. From 1984-85, he worked as the linebackers coach for the USFL's Los Angeles Express, ultimately being promoted to defensive coordinator.

Ackerley spent one year (1983) as the defensive line coach at Iowa State after spending the 1980-82 campaigns coaching outside linebackers at Kansas. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1970-72 until being promoted to coach CSU's defensive line from 1973-79.

As a collegian, Ackerley played offensive line for Bakersfield J.C. and for Colorado State where he earned his bachelor's degree. A native of St. Paul, Minnesota, he has three children including sons Chad (6/27/70), Cale (8/15/80), and daughter Carrie (3/31/73). Mike and his wife, Jeanne, reside in Mesa, Arizona.

JOE DIMARZO

COLLEGE SCOUT

16th NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Since joining the Buccaneers in June, Joe DiMarzo has taken over the team's college scouting responsibilities in the northeast region. DiMarzo comes to Tampa Bay after spending the past 15 years as a northeast area scout with National Football Scouting (NFS). During his tenure with NFS, he also served as the assistant field director at the NFL's annual scouting combine.

Prior to joining NFS in 1983, DiMarzo spent 13 years coaching football and teaching in Massachusetts and Florida, including the University of Tampa where, in 1974, he was on the same football staff as current Buccaneer Director of Player Personnel Jerry Angelo. DiMarzo also worked at Clearwater High School as well as Massachusetts high schools Stoughton, Oliver Ames, Whitman Hanson Regional, and East Bridgewater.

While teaching in the Boston area, DiMarzo also worked part-time for the New England Patriots, grading film, scouting and serving as a team representative at the NFL's New York draft headquarters.

DiMarzo graduated from the University of South Florida with a bachelor's degree in physical education, grades K-12. A Boston native, he was a member of Whitman Hanson Regional's 1966 undefeated state championship football team. He is single and splits his residence between Boston and Tampa.

DENNIS HICKEY
COLLEGE SCOUT

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

The 1998 season marks Dennis Hickey's first as a college scout for the Buccaneers. He is responsible for scouting the midwestern states for the team.

Before assuming his role as a scout for Tampa Bay, Hickey spent the 1996 and '97 seasons as a pro personnel assistant in the Bucs' scouting department. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, the 27-year old Hickey spent 1994-95 as an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas. At Blinn, he coached the defensive backs and was responsible for recruiting in the state of Texas.

Hickey played collegiate football at Coffeyville Community College and the University of Tulsa. He received his bachelor's degree from Tulsa in 1994 and his master's degree from Texas A&M University in 1996. He and his wife, Stephanie, live in Kansas City, Missouri.

RUSTON WEBSTER
COLLEGE SCOUT

11th NFL Season, 11th with Buccaneers

Ruston Webster is in his 11th year as a member of the Buccaneers' scouting and personnel department, and is responsible for the southwestern portion of the United States. He joined the team in 1988 as the Bucs' scout for the northeast.

From 1989-91, Webster served as the club's director of pro personnel. In 1992, he returned to the field as the Buccaneers' scout for the southern states and shifted to the midwest region in '93 and the southwest region in 1995.

Before joining Tampa Bay, Webster was the tight ends/safeties coach at Tulsa University in 1987. In 1986, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama under former Buccaneer Head Coach Ray Perkins. Webster also served a graduate assistantship at Southwestern Louisiana in 1985.

Webster earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from the University of Mississippi. A native of Madison, Mississippi, Ruston, his wife, Gayle, and their two children, Hannah (1/27/98) and Jacob (1/27/98), live in Cordova, Tennessee.

RAISE THE RED FLAGS

The excitement and success of Buccaneer football in 1997 attracted a near-record number of fans to the team's eight regular-season home games. In an effort to enhance the game experience for these newly-energized crowds, the Buccaneers started what will now become a tradition at Tampa Bay games: the raising of the red flags.

Any time the Buccaneers' offense penetrates the opponent's red zone (inside the 20-yard line), 28 red flags were raised simultaneously around the perimeter of the stadium. Did this stunning visual effect even improve the Bucs' performance on the field? Perhaps. The Buccaneers were fourth in the NFC in red zone efficiency, scoring a touchdown on 56.5% of its red zone trips. The Tampa Bay defense was even more dominating in those situations, holding opponents to an NFL-low 38.6% TD success rate.

MIKE YOWARSKY

COLLEGE SCOUT

8th NFL Season, 8th with Buccaneers

An eight-year member of the Buccaneers' scouting staff, Mike Yowarsky is responsible for the southeastern portion of the United States. He joined Tampa Bay in 1991 after spending the 1990 campaign as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under Head Coach Steve Spurrier.

Prior to working at UF, Yowarsky spent 1989 as a teacher, assistant football coach and wrestling coach at Bradley High School in Cleveland, Tennessee. From 1984-85, he was a graduate assistant at Kansas and then served as a defensive assistant for the Jayhawks from 1986-88. Yowarsky taught in the Knoxville school system from 1983-84.

Yowarsky earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education from Tennessee, and his master's in athletic administration and sports psychology from Kansas. A native of Cleveland, his father, Walt, is a scout for the Dallas Cowboys.

Mike and his wife, Viva, live in Cleveland, TN with their daughter, Maclain (4/29/94).

JOHN IDZIK

Before joining the Bucs, the 33-year-old Shermansky worked from 1993-97 as the assistant trainer for the University of Miami (FL) football team and head trainer for the school's baseball team. He also spent 1993 as the head trainer for the Arena Football League's Miami Hooters.

Shermansky graduated from Miami in 1987 with a bachelor's degree in sports medicine, and earned a master's in movement science from Long Island University in 1990. The Levittown, New York native lives in Tampa.

KEITH ABRAMS
ASSISTANT TRAINER

Keith Abrams begins his second season as the Buccaneers' assistant trainer. His job responsibilities entail assisting Head Trainer Todd Toriscelli with the treatment and rehabilitation of players. Abrams came to the Bucs after spending 1996 and part of '97 working for the Atlanta Braves' minor league system as a team trainer.

Abrams completed his undergraduate studies at Kean College of New Jersey, earning a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1994. He is currently in the final stages of finishing up work on a master's degree in kinesiology from San Jose State University (CA). The 28-year-old from Trenton, New Jersey, resides in Tampa.

KEVIN WINSTON
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PROGRAMS

Kevin Winston enters his second season with the Buccaneers as director of player programs. Winston serves as the primary contact between the players, coaches, and the community.

Winston's responsibilities include involving players in continuing education programs, off-season internships and jobs that provide insight into possible post-NFL careers. He also is the main liaison between the players and the Bucs' community relations department, and encourages player involvement in charities and community activities.

Before joining the Bucs, Winston worked from 1989-1996 at The Seneca Center for emotionally-challenged adolescents in San Francisco and San Leandro, California. At the Center, he directed the In-Touch Program and the Day Treatment Program for students, served as a crisis management specialist, led crisis intervention teams and coordinated interaction between students and community leaders. He also organized all aspects of the Center's vocational placement program.

Winston graduated from Indiana University in 1988 with a degree in Physical Education. He and wife Dana live in Tampa.

DARIN KERNS
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Darin Kerns was named equipment manager for the Buccaneers on March 22, 1997 after nine seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs. He is responsible for outfitting Buccaneer players and coaches, purchasing equipment, and maintaining the team's locker room facilities. Kerns also handles the transportation of Tampa Bay's equipment for the team's road contests.

Kerns, 30, came to the Bucs from the Kansas City Chiefs where he served as an assistant equipment manager from 1989-97. During his Kansas City tenure, Kerns was selected as a member of the AFC Pro Bowl equipment staff in 1994 and also worked for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in the spring of '96. While a student at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, he served as the school's student manager from 1987-90.

Born in Marshall, Missouri, Kerns graduated from UMKC in 1991 with a degree in physical education. He resides in Tampa with his wife, Julie.

MARK MESCHEDÉ
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Before coming to Tampa, Meschede served as the equipment manager for NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy from 1995-97. He was an equipment assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs from 1992-94, where he worked with Kerns for three seasons.

Meschede owns a bachelor's degree in history from Missouri Valley College and a master's in history from Central Missouri State University. Originally from Marshall, Missouri, the 28-year-old Meschede now lives in Tampa.

DAVE LEVY
VIDEO DIRECTOR

Dave Levy begins his eleventh season as the team's video director. His responsibilities include all videotaping, editing and production for the team. He also oversees the Bucs' game film library and handles film trade-outs with the other NFL clubs. In preparation for each season's NFL draft, Levy's department also aids the personnel department in acquiring, editing and maintaining videotape on draft-eligible players. He was hired by the Bucs after spending two years (1986-87) as an assistant in the Pittsburgh Steelers' video department.

A native of Pittsburgh, the 31-year-old Levy went to high school in nearby Bethel Park. Levy also attended the Community College of Allegheny County, the University of Pittsburgh, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Kelly, a registered nurse, live in New Tampa with sons Andrew (4/22/91) and Garrett (9/24/96).

ADMINISTRATION

RICHARD MCNERNEY
VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING &
COMMUNICATIONS

Vice President, Marketing & Communications Richard McNerney joined the club's front office staff on January 21, 1997.

McNerney oversees all aspects of the club's marketing, communications, community relations, special events and game operations. He also develops and implements creative marketing promotions designed to increase the fans' involvement with the team.

The 38-year-old McNerney worked five years with NFL Properties at League headquarters in New York City as a Senior Marketing Manager. There, he worked with domestic corporate sponsors and in the NFL's International Division managing the American Bowl series and World League sponsors. He also spent three years (1994-96) as the Director of Marketing for the ATP Tour, the men's professional tennis circuit.

Before his five-year stint at the League office, McNerney spent two years (1989-90) as a marketing consultant for the Chicago Bears. McNerney received his bachelor's of arts degree from Yale University in 1982, and his MBA from Northwestern's Kellogg School in 1990.

Born 11/7/59 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, McNerney and his wife Susan, reside in Tampa with their three children, Graham (9/8/92), Maggie (11/4/94), and Samantha (5/7/98).

VERONICA (RONI) COSTELLO
VICE PRESIDENT, LUXURY SERVICES AND GUEST RELATIONS

In an effort to strengthen its ticket and luxury suite sales departments, the Buccaneers added Veronica (Roni) Costello to the organization in January, 1997, as vice president, sales administration. Costello brings to the Buccaneers a strong background in corporate communications and a tremendous knowledge of the Central Florida region.

With the opening of Tampa's new stadium, Buccaneer fans will witness a new level of luxury services to enhance the game experience. Costello, who coordinated the sale of suites and club seats in 1997, assumed responsibility for luxury and guest services in 1998.

Costello, a native of Hollywood, Fla., was one of the first senior executive staff members hired by the Glazer family during their restructuring of the front office following the 1996 season, and is one of only four female senior club executives in the NFL.

She comes to the Bucs from Tucker/Hall Incorporated, a Tampa-based corporate communications company where she was senior vice president of public affairs for five years. Her main focus at Tucker/Hall was corporate positioning, grassroots marketing strategies, and government relations.

Prior to that, Costello was vice president of public affairs for Hill and Knowlton Incorporated based in Tampa and Washington, D.C. She gained extensive knowledge and experience of the Tampa Bay market between 1987 and 1990 as District Representative for U.S. Senator Bob Graham.

Costello is a 1978 graduate of Florida State University and has participated in the MIT-Harvard Public Disputes Program in Cambridge, MA. Born 5/5/56, Costello and her husband, Harry, live in Tampa. She has two stepsons, Brian (11/27/75) and Mark (3/23/78).

MEREDITH CHIMERINE
DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL EVENTS

Tampa Bay's special events department is directed by Meredith Chimerine, who handles the club's game-day-related entertainment and operations, non-game-day team events, and manages the club's special events throughout the Tampa Bay community. Chimerine serves as the team's liaison with the Tampa Sports Authority for all other stadium-related issues, and oversees the SwashBuclers and team-mascot programs.

Chimerine, 28, spent four years at PGI in Chicago as an event producer. Among her direct responsibilities at PGI were management of the NBA's Jam Session held at the league's All-Star Weekend, and the direction of the ATP Tour's Smash Tennis, the touring grassroots youth festival.

Prior to her stint at PGI, Chimerine spent two years at the Law and Economics Consulting Group in Washington, D.C., as a research analyst.

Chimerine, a native of New York who was born March 6, 1970, received her degree in business economics/organizational behavior and management from Brown University in 1992. She lives in Tampa.

JIM OVERTON
DIRECTOR OF PREMIUM SEATING

Entering his seventh consecutive season with the Buccaneers, Jim Overton is in his first year as Director of Premium Seating. In this role, Overton is responsible for luxury suite sales and services to luxury suite owners. In addition to attracting new suite owners, he coordinated the move of longtime suiteholders into the new stadium.

Since the successful campaign to bring a new stadium to Tampa Bay, Overton has helped shape the luxury suite sales campaign that resulted in record sales for the Buccaneers. Overton is also the team's representative with the Florida Sports Foundation.

Before coming to the Buccaneers, Overton spent four years (1986-89) as the Director of Sales and Promotions for Tampa's Hall of Fame Bowl. Those duties included generating sponsorship activity and creating various promotional activities. Overton initially was with the Bucs from 1984-85, working in the ticket office and marketing department.

The 38-year-old Overton is a graduate of Florida State University with a degree in communications. A native of St. Petersburg, Jim and his wife, Susan, have three children: daughters Katherine (11/26/90) and Alison (12/5/95) and son Benjamin (4/12/93).

REGGIE ROBERTS
DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Reggie Roberts begins his second season as director of communications for the Buccaneers. Roberts came to Tampa Bay from the NFL's New York headquarters where he was the National Football Conference Director of Information since 1990.

After the 1997 season, Roberts and his staff received the Rozelle Award from the Professional Football Writers of America, an annual award given to the league's top public relations/communications staff. It marked the first time the Buccaneers' staff has received this honor.

During seven seasons with the League office, Roberts was the public relations director and primary league office contact for the 15 NFC teams. He coordinated media operations at seven NFC Championship Games, seven Super Bowls (XXV-XXXI), and three Tokyo American Bowls in Tokyo, Japan. Roberts was also a member of the NFL's Communications Staff at Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.

With the Bucs, Roberts, 33, is responsible for coordinating all media coverage and publicity for the team. He is the club liaison between local, national, and international media, and the primary club contact with the television networks that broadcast Buccaneer games.

Before joining the NFL in 1990, Roberts spent four-and-a-half years as a sportswriter with the Austin American-Statesman in Austin, Texas where he won two national Associated Press Sports Editor awards and one Texas Associated Press Sports Editor award.

Roberts, a native of Alexandria, Louisiana, earned his bachelor's of science degree in journalism from Northeast Louisiana University in 1986. He and his wife, Wendy, reside in Carrollwood.

GEORGE WOODS
DIRECTOR OF MARKETING

George Woods joined the Buccaneers in 1997 after spending nearly 10 years at Anheuser-Busch.

Woods, 35, is in charge of developing sponsorship packages for the club's pewter partners and oversees the team's advertising campaign.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Woods spent nine-and-a-half years in marketing and media planning with Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., in Atlanta and St. Louis.

His previous position with Anheuser-Busch involved implementing national and local promotions as well as developing marketing objectives and strategies for Budweiser.

Woods is a graduate of the University of Florida with a degree in advertising and a minor in marketing. The Lakeland native is married to Jennifer, his high school sweetheart. They are the parents of three children: Alexis (4/26/91), Lindsey (1/6/94), and Lloyd (12/29/95).

DONNIE ABRAHAM
CORNERBACK

Height 5-10
 Weight 190
 Born 10/8/73

NFL 3rd Year
 How Acquired ... D3, 1996
 College East Tennessee State

PRO: Ballhawking cover man who has solidified spot as team's top cornerback... In just two NFL seasons, has established himself as one of the league's standout cornerbacks... Career total of 10 interceptions already ranks tied with Neal Colzie and David Lewis for 10th all-time in franchise history... Became first player in team history to record at least five INTs in each of first two seasons... Has played in all 32 games and started 28 during two-year professional career.

1997: Started 16 regular-season and two playoff contests at LCB and established himself as one of NFC's most reliable cornerbacks, consistently shutting down opposing teams' top receiver... Key member of Buc secondary unit that finished the season 10th in the league in pass defense, allowing just 188.0 passing yards per game... Finished the regular season with career-highs in tackles with 61 (32, 29) and passes defended (20), then added eight takedowns, four passes defended and a pair of interceptions in two playoff contests... Repeated rookie season mark of five interceptions to pace the team for the second consecutive season... Played pivotal role in tight 19-18 victory over Arizona (9/28), recording six tackles, a pass defended and first INT of the season... In most complete outing of season at Indianapolis (11/2), posted five tackles along with season and career-high four passes defended and an interception on game's final play... Recovered a loose ball and tied a career-best with eight tackles in season's second Green Bay contest (12/7)... In first career playoff game against Detroit (12/28), notched six tackles and tipped away a pair of third down conversion attempts... Established a Buc playoff record with two INTs the following week in NFC Divisional Playoff game at Green Bay (1/4)... In that game, made a leaping third-quarter pickoff at the Tampa Bay six-yard line that prevented a possible Packers score, and later redirected a fourth-quarter pass attempt on third-and-13 at the Buc three-yard line to end another scoring threat.

1996: Had remarkable season as key player in Bucs' defensive secondary, earning All-Rookie Team honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and the Pro Football Writers of America... Led all league rookies and tied for sixth in NFC in interceptions with five... Tied Bucs' rookie record for interceptions and was the first to lead Tampa Bay in picks since 1991... Finished seventh on the team in tackles with 57 (49, 8), tied for team lead in passes defended (12) and had two fumble recoveries... Was vital part of Bucs' secondary that propelled Tampa Bay's defense to 11th in the NFL, fourth against the pass... Started two out of first six games at nickel back before becoming starting RCB in final 10 contests... Also saw extensive action on special teams... In first NFL start at Detroit (9/8), tied for team lead in tackles with seven and also made two special teams stops... Came up with first career interception in primetime contest at Denver (9/15)... Played nearly every defensive play against Detroit (9/29), recording season-high eight tackles and batting down two passes... Turned in four solo tackles, a pass defended and an interception at Chicago (11/3)... Recorded a team-high and season-best three passes defended in victory at San Diego (11/17) while posting three solo stops and an interception... Aggressive coverage vs. Chargers limited primary receiver Tony Martin to only one catch for 18 yards... Displayed versatility on the field at Minnesota (12/15) with three tackles, a fumble recovery, a pass defended and an interception... Drafted by Buccaneers in third round in 1996 (71st overall).

COLLEGE: Was a four-year starter at cornerback for East Tennessee State... Statistics included 246 tackles (164, 82), 15 interceptions, 50 passes defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries... Also lettered twice for Buccaneers' track team in 100 and 200-meters... In senior season, honors included first-team All-Southern Conference (coaches and media)... As LCB, started all 11 games and compiled career-best 75 tackles (55, 20), five pickoffs and 10 pass breakups (1st on team, 3rd in conference)... Earned second-team All-Southern Conference accolades as a junior with 60 tackles (37, 23), an interception and team-best 12 pass batdowns... Also was first-team all-conference for ETSU's track team... Had standout sophomore campaign with conference-best seven interceptions plus 60 tackles (37, 23) and school-record 22 passes defended... Was second-team all-conference selection... Was finalist in both 100 and 200-meters at Southern Conference track meet... As a freshman, earned starting job and played both LCB and FS... Contributed 51 tackles (35, 16) plus two interceptions (1 TD) and six pass breakups... Was redshirted as incoming 1991 freshman... Owns B.S. in business management.

PERSONAL: Married to Tunisia, couple lives year-round in Tampa... Last year, welcomed first child Devin Isaiah (7/23/97)... Attended Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School in Orangeburg, South Carolina, lettering in football (team MVP), basketball and track... Full name is Nathaniel Donnell Abraham, born October 8, 1973 in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

PRO: Team's most consistent defensive lineman who has provided a steady stream of backside pressure while manning the LDE position the past five seasons... A versatile performer, began Buc career as primarily an interior lineman in rookie campaign prior to becoming a starter at left end the following season... Total of 69 career starts are most of any Buccaneer defensive lineman, while 77 games played ranks as the second most by a member of that unit... Has 21 career sacks to rank seventh on team's all-time list.

1997: Played in all 16 regular season games (15 starts) for the fourth time in five-year career... Enjoyed breakout season, registering personal highs in tackles with 65 and sacks with 10, nearly doubling previous career sack total of 11... Posted three multi-sack performances, including a four-game stretch in which he recorded six takedowns, while helping defensive unit to franchise-best 44-sack performance, which was good for a ninth-place overall league ranking... Key contributor to defensive line unit that limited opposing offenses to just 101.1 average rushing yards per game and ranked sixth overall against the run... Tallied season-high seven tackles and third multi-sack game of career against Arizona (9/28) with a pair of fourth-quarter bringdowns... The ensuing week at Green Bay (10/5), followed up with four tackles, a fumble recovery and second consecutive multi-sack performance, bringing Packers QB Brett Favre down for losses of six and eight yards... Went on to record a sack in games against Detroit (10/12), Minnesota (10/26) and Atlanta (11/9)... In week 13 contest at New York Giants (11/30), posted third multi-sack performance of season, to become the first player since Santana Dotson (1992) and only the fifth player in team history to record 10 sacks in a season... After missing first start of the year in season finale against Chicago (12/21) due to a bout with the flu, came back to start both post-season games, recording three tackles and a sack against Detroit (12/28) and adding another three stops at Green Bay (1/4).

1996: Made recovery from pre-season hand injury to start at LDE in final 13 games... Enjoyed productive season, ranking second among defensive linemen with 47 tackles (37, 10)... Finished the 1996 season with 5.5 sacks (third-best on the team), doubling four-year total to 11... Had most productive game of season vs. Minnesota (10/13) with three solo tackles, a sack, a pass defended and a fumble recovery that sealed the Bucs' 24-13 victory... In win over New Orleans (11/24), came up with two sacks of Saints QB Jim Everett... Had solid game at Minnesota (12/15), with career-best eight tackles, and brought down QB Brad Johnson for a three-yard loss in the fourth period.

1995: Had strong season as Bucs' most consistent D-line performer... For third time in three-year league tenure, played in all 16 games... Had 15 starts, all at LDE (only start missed was vs. Falcons, 10/22)... Led all defensive linemen and was eighth on team overall in tackles with 48 (36, 12)... Also was second on the club in both sacks with three and tackles for loss with nine...

Six passes defended tied for third on team, unusual for a defensive lineman... That total marked most pass batdowns by a Buccaneer lineman in 14 years (David Logan's 13 in 1981)... Produced first sack of season but had streak of 23 consecutive starts snapped as Bucs altered defense to combat Falcons' run-and-shoot (10/22)... Came up with season-best six tackles at Houston (10/29)... Vs. Jaguars (11/19), notched first multi-sack game of career (2)... In final five games, only missed two defensive snaps.

1994: Was one of only seven Bucs (only defensive lineman) to start all 16 games... 14 of 16 starts came at LE with other two at RDT... Finished ninth on team with 46 tackles (31, 15) plus a sack and five tackles for loss... In season finale, chipped in with six tackles plus a sack.

1993: As rookie, had impressive training camp to cement roster spot... Appeared in all 16 games with 10 starts... Starts included four at NT, three at DE and three at DT... Ended season with 31 tackles (15, 16), 1.5 sacks, a forced fumble and four passes defended... Started the season's first six games (three at end, three at tackle), then also started games #9-12 at NT in place of injured Mark Wheeler... Top game of campaign came with five tackles, a sack and a forced fumble at Minnesota (10/10)... Drafted by Bucs in sixth round (145th overall) in 1993.

COLLEGE: Had four-year career at California after initial Berkeley arrival as 215 lb. walk-on... Statistics included 111 tackles and 8.5 sacks... As a senior, started all 11 games and contributed career-high 56 tackles, five sacks and pair of fumble recoveries... Earned All-PAC 10 honors and was selected to play in the Japan Bowl... In 11 starts as a junior, totaled 28 tackles and 3.5 sacks... Was named Honorable Mention All-PAC 10... Slowed during sophomore season after pre-season bout with mononucleosis... Returned to see action in all 12 games as reserve lineman and was credited with nine total tackles and a fumble recovery... Got considerable playing time as a freshman, appearing in all 11 games with three starts... Racked up 18 tackles and a fumble recovery while being named team's Most Improved Lineman... Was redshirted as 1988 incoming freshman... Majored in human biodynamics.

PERSONAL: Single, lives in Tampa year-round... Has one son, Ijehi Woodrow (6/29/97)... Owns entertainment business that specializes in promotion of clubs and various music events... Also works as a travel agent and as a consultant to B.R.E., a black radio trade magazine... Has done extensive work for United Way, Big Brothers & Big Sisters, Save a Child and the Ahanotu Foundation... Father, Austin, is native of Nigeria and a professor of African history at Stanislaus State... Has made three trips to Nigeria... Attended Berkeley (Cal.) High School, lettering in football, rugby and soccer... Captained football squad and was all-conference linebacker... Full name is Chidi Obioma Ahanotu, born October 11, 1970 in Modesto, California.

PRO: Bruising fullback who combines powerful running style with exceptional quickness... Widely regarded as the league's premier fullback after earning first career Pro Bowl selection last season... Soft-handed receiver who has developed into team's most consistent pass catcher out of the backfield, hauling in a team-high 88 passes for 735 yards and six TDs over the past two seasons... 10 rushing touchdowns ranks seventh on team's all-time list and 16 total touchdowns scored is good for 11th on franchise career chart... 1,042 career rushing yards ranks eighth on team's all-time rushing chart.

1997: Started all 15 games in which he played, missing first game of two-year career at New York Jets (12/14) with a quad contusion... Went to first Pro Bowl as NFC's leading vote-getter at fullback... Selected to AP All-Pro, Sports Illustrated All-Pro and CPFW All-Pro (second team) squads... Produced a combined 843 total yards from scrimmage (665 rushing, 178 receiving) on 199 touches (176 rushes, 23 receptions), scored 10 touchdowns (seven rushing, three receiving), and led or tied for the club lead in rushing yards a team-high nine times... With those 10 scores, became just the third player in team history to register double-digit touchdown totals... Teamed with first-year sensation Warrick Dunn to form Tampa Bay's "Thunder and Lightning" offensive backfield which was largely responsible for producing the third-most rushing yards in franchise history (1,934)... Despite sharing much of offensive load with Dunn, still ranked third in scoring by a running back and 13th in rushing in the NFC... Recorded 100+-combined yards three times: vs. San Francisco (119), vs. Miami (115) and vs. New England (126)... In season opener against 49ers (8/31), paced the team in rushing with 69 yards on 14 carries (4.9 avg.) and hauled in three passes for 50 yards... In prime time 31-21 beating of Dolphins (9/21), recorded career-high 95 rushing yards on season-most 18 carries (5.3 avg.) and reeled in season-high four passes for 20 yards on way to scoring two touchdowns... Led the team in rushing at Atlanta (11/9) with 77 yards on 14 attempts (5.5 avg.), including a career-long 47-yard touchdown scamper in which he trampled through three potential tacklers before diving into the corner of the end zone... The next week vs. New England (11/16), had most productive combined day of season with 126 yards (91 rushing, 35 receiving) and a one-yard fourth-quarter touchdown run... In post-season action vs. Detroit (12/28), hauled in one pass for 12 yards and contributed 68 yards rushing on 11 carries (6.2 avg.), including a 31-yard TD scamper that stands as the longest run in franchise playoff history... At Green Bay the following week (1/4), ran seven times for 21 yards and his second post-season score, a six-yard TD burst.

1996: Enjoyed phenomenal rookie campaign, leading Tampa Bay with six touchdowns and becoming first Buc ever to compile at least three rushing TDs and three receiving TDs in same season... Inaugural year honors included first-alternate selection for 1996 Pro Bowl, 1996 AP All-Pro second-team, 1996 Football Digest All-Pro second-team and NFC Offensive Rookie of the Month in November... In first NFL season, amassed 377 rushing yards and three TDs on 96 attempts and 557 receiving yards and three TDs on 65 catches... Set new Buccaneer rookie record for receptions in a season, pacing all players on the '96 squad and leading all NFC rookies... Among all league running backs, trailed only Arizona's Larry Centers (99) in receptions... Finished second on squad in rushing yards, averaging team-best 3.9 yards per carry... Was one of only four offensive players to start in all 16 games, and was only Buccaneer to reel in at least two passes in all 16 contests... Enjoyed first career score in victory over Minnesota (10/13) on tackle-breaking 12-yard reception after carrying the ball eight times and catching three passes... Recorded first career rushing touchdown in 10/20 game at Arizona on one-yard dive over center... Had strong game in OT victory over Oakland, setting career high and team season-high in receptions with eight... Helped lead Bucs to victory over Raiders during overtime period, catching 20-yard pass and following with a 10-yard carry two plays later to set up Michael Husted's game-winning field goal... Led team with seven catches for 91 yards and a TD in home win over New Orleans (11/24)... Total of 91 receiving yards vs. Saints was highest by a Buc running back since Gary Anderson contributed 96 yards vs. Green Bay (10/14/90)... Set season-high mark in rushing (67 yards) in home triumph over Washington (12/8)... Recorded season-best 39-yard run at Minnesota (12/15)... Drafted by the Buccaneers in the second round in 1996 (35th overall).

COLLEGE: Was Purdue's Most Valuable Player in each of last three seasons, the only player ever to accomplish that feat for Boilermakers... Statistics in 43 games included 3,635 rushing yards on 644 carries (5.6 avg.) with 39 touchdowns... Also caught 93 passes for 1,075 yards (11.6 avg.) with three scores... Finished as Purdue's all-time leading rusher, surpassing Otis Armstrong... Also is school's all-time leader in rushing TDs, total TDs and points... Is only Purdue player ever to accumulate over 2,500 rushing and 1,000 receiving yards... As a senior, finished 11th in Heisman Trophy balloting, was a Gannett All-America and was either a first or second-team All-Big 10 choice by all selectors... Rushed for a school-record 1,436 yards on 243 attempts (5.9 avg.) with 11 TDs... Established school records with eight straight 100-yard performances and nine overall for season... Caught 25 passes for 162 yards... In junior year, ran for 1,188 yards on 202 totes (5.9 avg.) with career-best 14 touchdowns, and had 23 receptions for 298 yards... Was first Purdue player in 18 years to rush for over 1,000 yards, averaging 108 yards per contest... 14 TDs tied school record set by Tony Butkovich (1943) and Leroy Keyes (1967)... In sophomore season, credited with 816 rushing yards on 153 attempts (5.3 avg.) with 12 touchdowns... Also had career-best 30 catches for 407 yards with pair of scores... Was first Boilermaker sophomore in 48 years to be named team's MVP... As a freshman, ran for 195 yards on 46 carries (4.2 avg.) with two TDs while also catching 15 passes for 208 yards with one score... Missed most of final two games after suffering fractured fibula versus Michigan State... Holds B.S. in business.

PERSONAL: Single, lives year-round in St. Petersburg... Through involvement with the Boys & Girls Club, established the Mike Alstott Football Camp for youths ages 8-18 during '97 off-season... Hobbies include golf, basketball and fishing... Attended Joliet Catholic High School, lettering in football and baseball... In high school, was Parade All-America and Chicago Sun-Times Player of the Year... High school team won state title in junior year with 14-0 record... Full name is Michael Joseph Alstott, born December 21, 1973 in Joliet, Illinois.

Versatile performer who utilized good field awareness to excel on reverse running plays and proved to be exciting kickoff returner... Enjoyed successful inaugural campaign, leading Tampa Bay receiving corps with 35 receptions and earning All-Rookie team honors from Pro Football Weekly and College and Pro Football Newsweekly.

1997: Started 13 of 16 regular-season games played in addition to two post-season starts... Began season as team's third receiver before moving into starting lineup in second week with only other missed starts coming at Atlanta (11/9) and vs. New England (11/16) due to ankle injury... Finished season as NFC's third-leading rookie receiver with 35 catches for 448 receiving yards and four touchdowns (tied for team lead)... Proved extremely adept at running reverse plays, gaining 84 yards on five carries (16.8 avg.)... Also served as team's primary kickoff returner after inheriting those duties at mid-season, bringing out 25 kickoffs for 592 yards for a team-leading 23.7 average (min. of 10) and recording long returns of 41, 45 and 51... In season's third game vs. Minnesota (9/14), paced team with four receptions for 58 yards and ran first reverse of season, picking up 26 yards... In Sunday night victory over Miami (9/21), caught two passes for 50 yards, including first career score on a season-long 38-yard touchdown grab... Against Arizona the following week (9/28), hauled in season-high five catches for 49 yards and an eight-yard TD... Matched season high for receptions three games later vs. Minnesota (10/26), with five catches for season-best 92 yards and third score of season... At Indianapolis (11/2), made heavy impact on special teams, returning four kickoffs for 97 yards, including a season-long 51-yarder... In Wild Card game vs. Detroit (12/28), compiled third-highest playoff receiving yardage total in franchise history (62) on team-leading three receptions... In following week's Divisional Playoff contest at Green Bay (1/4), hauled in 52-yard pass completion that stands as the second-longest in team playoff annals.

COLLEGE: Extremely productive receiver at Florida who finished career third in team history with 26 receiving touchdowns... Tallied 126 career receptions to tie fellow teammate and 1997 draftee Ike Hilliard (N.Y. Giants, seventh overall) for seventh on Gators' career record list... Finished second in Florida history with 2,274 receiving yards, trailing only Carlos Alvarez's 2,563 (1969-71)... Also stood out on special teams during UF career, averaging 23.2 yards per kickoff return (35-812) and 10.8-yards per punt return (24-258)... Long runbacks included 90-yard TD kickoff return, 93-yard TD kickoff return (bowl game) and 52-yard punt return... Played in 33 games and earned 23 starts... In three bowl games (two starts), contributed 14 receptions for 147 yards and seven kickoff returns for 226 yards (32.3 avg.) and one score... In addition to consensus All-SEC honors as a junior, was an All-America choice by Football News... Caught 72 passes for 1,293 yards (18.0 avg.), single-season totals exceeded at Florida only by Alvarez in 1969 (88-1,329), and one-upped Chris Doering's one-year-old school record of 17 receiving TDs by scoring 18 times... Led SEC with 107.7 receiving yards per game... Emerged as dual receiving-returning threat as a sophomore, catching 24 passes for 366 yards and three TDs, returning 19 kickoffs for 472 yards (24.8 avg.) and another score and bringing back 11 punts for 122 yards (11.1 avg.)... Saw action in nine games (including bowl) with eight starts... Named team's Outstanding Freshman Player after catching 30 passes for 615 yards (20.5 avg.) and five touchdowns... Also returned nine kickoffs for 227 yards (25.2 avg.) and five punts for 46 yards (9.2 avg.)... Scored first collegiate touchdown on 65-yard catch against Kentucky... Majored in Public Recreation.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in South Bay, Florida... Also enjoys playing basketball... An all-state selection as a senior at Glades Central (FL) High School... College Virginia

PRO: Headly player who is expected to compete for more playing time at cornerback and on special teams in '98 after playing in just one regular season and one playoff game last season... Twin brother of New York Giants running back Tiki Barber.

1997: Saw action in only game of season against Arizona (9/28) during week five contest, contributing three tackles while participating on primarily passing downs... Stayed on the active roster the remainder of the season but was declared an inactive for each contest until the second playoff game at Green Bay (1/4) in which he registered two tackles and a pass defended as the team's primary nickel back.

COLLEGE: Finished Cavalier career with 15 interceptions, third-highest total in school history and just two shy of UVa record (17 by Keith McMeans, 1987-90)... Also broke up 26 passes, made 154 tackles, forced one fumble and recovered another during three-year Virginia career... Started all 36 Cavalier games and earned All-ACC first-team honors each of three seasons (redshirted as a freshman), including two bowl games... In a pair of bowl games, added two interceptions, 10 tackles, four passes defended and a fumble recovery... Started every game at LCB during junior campaign and earned his third consecutive All-ACC first-team selection... Posted 38 tackles (26, 12) and trio of interceptions for 38 yards while also breaking up five passes and forcing and recovering a fumble... As a sophomore, earned first-team All-ACC accolades while manning the Cavs' LCB slot... Joined twin brother Tiki on all-conference squad as the two became just the third pair of brothers to gain that distinction in the ACC in the same year... In six of UVa's 11 games, held his specific opponents to no receptions... Registered 63 tackles (38, 25) and came up with four interceptions for 18 yards... Credited with 10 passes broken up... Made outstanding college debut as a redshirt freshman, earning AP All-America third-team honors and the first of three straight All-ACC first-team selections... Also tabbed as the ACC's Freshman of the Year and was given UVa's Bill Dudley Award recognizing the team's most outstanding first-year player... Picked off an ACC-leading (second in the nation) eight passes, returning the picks for a total of 56 yards, while also making 53 tackles (26, 27) and breaking up 11 passes... Recorded the second-highest single-season interception total in school history behind the nine posted by McMeans in 1987... Was named ACC Rookie of the Week after efforts against Clemson that included two kickoff returns for 34 yards, four tackles and two interceptions, including one that set up UVa's game-winning field goal in a 9-6 decision... Also won ACC Rookie of the Week honors and was tabbed as Sports Illustrated's National Defensive Player of the Week after stinging North Carolina with two interceptions and seven tackles, including two stops for losses... Graduated with B.A. in commerce with a concentration in marketing.

PERSONAL: Single, spends off-seasons in Tampa... Member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes... Twin brother Tiki was a teammate at Virginia, an All-America running back and a 1997 second-round draft choice (36th overall) of the New York Giants... Member of the Phi Eta Sigma Honor Society at Virginia... Father, James Barber, also a UVa grad, played in the former World Football League... Won all-district honors each of his last three seasons at Cave Spring High School in Roanoke, Virginia... Rated as one of Virginia's top five prospects and shared Male Athlete of the Year honors in the state with brother Tiki... Lettered three times each in football and track and won the national title in the 55-meter hurdles as a senior after coming in second as a junior... Also twice won the state outdoor 110-meter hurdle title... Full name is Jamael Oronde Barber, born April 7, 1975 in Montgomery County, Virginia.

NFL 12th Year
How Acquired ... FA, 1996
College North Carolina

PRO: Strong-legged veteran punter who has ability to pin opponents deep in their own territory by consistently placing high-hanging kicks inside the 20-yard line... Prior to sustaining season-ending shoulder injury in sixth game last season, had played in 129 consecutive games dating back to 1989... In 11-year NFL career, has kicked 648 times for 27,709 yards and a 42.8 average... Prior to joining Tampa Bay in 1996, had one-year stint with Carolina Panthers (1995) after a six-year stay with the New Orleans Saints (1987, 89-94)... Also had limited playing experiences in Washington (1988) and Chicago (1987).

1997: Appeared headed towards a repeat stellar performance in early part of season before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury in week six contest that eventually led to him being placed on the injured reserve list (10/9)... Finished the season with 29 punts for 1,304 yards and a 45.0 gross average (39.1 net), with a long of 61... At time of injury, was tied for NFC lead in punts inside-the-20 with 12 and ranked second in the conference in net average with a 39.1 mark... In game at Detroit (9/7), had season-best four of seven punts land inside opponents' 20-yard line, limiting Lions return specialist Glyn Milburn to just 14 return yards on the day... Established a career first against Miami (9/21) when he was not called on to punt in a game in which he dressed for... Came back the following week to play a vital role in team's narrow 19-18 defeat of Arizona (9/28)... In that game, had one of finest games of career, booting eight punts a total of 395 yards for third-best gross punting average of career (49.4), while also completing a 25-yard pass to S Tony Bouie on a fake punt attempt that eventually set up a Buccaneer touchdown... Had promising season come to an end the following week at Green Bay (10/5) after being forced to make a TD-saving tackle of Packers PR Bill Schroeder and suffering a broken collarbone... Placed on injured reserve on 10/9.

1996: Recorded the finest season by a punter in Tampa Bay history, breaking or tying three major Buccaneer records... Selected as a first alternate for Pro Bowl... Kicked in all 16 games and compiled gross punting average of 43.1 (seventh in the NFC), surpassing Reggie Roby's 1995 team record of 42.8... Also established a new Buccaneer standard for net punting average, eclipsing Dan Stryzinski's 1992 mark of 36.2 with his 37.8 (third in the NFC, tied for sixth overall)... Landed punts inside Tampa Bay opponents' 20-yard line during 11 games, tying the Buccaneer record for most punts inside the 20 with 24... Hit four punts of 60 or more yards in '96, matching his total of 60+ yard punts from the first nine years of his career... Was critical in helping team finish third in the league in opponents' punt return average (6.5)... Had excellent start in season opener against Green Bay (9/1), punting three times for an average of 46.3, (with a long of 54 yards,) and pinning the Packers inside their 20-yard line once... Continued to give Buc opponents poor field position the following week at Detroit, with four out of six punts landing inside the 20-yard line... Long, high punts at Denver (9/15) held Broncos PR Todd Kinchen to just six yards on four returns (one fair catch)... Another outstanding performance against Seattle the following week (9/22) limited Seahawks PR Joey Galloway to six yards on four returns... Suffered first touchback of the season during Detroit game (9/29), after kicking a 60-yarder that rolled into the end zone on Bucs' first possession... Also vs. the Lions, put two kicks inside Detroit's 20-yard line and nailed a 62-yard punt that tied for second-longest of career... In home win over Minnesota (10/13), landed three out of six punts inside the Vikings' 20-yard line, and also hit third punt of the year of 60 or more yards... Had first and only block of season in loss at Green Bay (10/27)... Recorded season-best 53.3 average (net of 42.0) on two punts at San Diego (11/17)... Also at San Diego, ran for 25 yards and a first down on a fake in the third quarter to prolong a Buccaneer drive... At Minnesota, tied career high in punts (10) and recorded second-most punt yards (429) of career.

1995: Signed by Carolina as unrestricted free agent (3/2)... Punted in all 16 games for Panthers and averaged 41.1 yards with a 35.2 net on career-high 95 punts (second NFL)... Ranked 10th in NFC in gross average and was second in NFC (fourth NFL) with a career-best 27 kicks inside-the-20... Also served as team's holder for PK John Kasay... In season-opener at Atlanta (9/3), had season and career-high (tied) 10 punts including five inside-the-20... Averaged 44.0 yards on nine punts in game with Buffalo (9/10)... Had season-long 54-yard boot as part of eight punts for 42.6 mark against Bears (10/8)... Matched season-bests in punts (10) and long kick (54 yds.) against former Saint teammates (10/22)... Booted five of seven kicks inside-the-20 in season finale at Washington (12/24).

1994: In final New Orleans campaign, punted in all 16 contests and finished fourth in the NFC (sixth NFL) with a 43.6-yard average on 67 punts... Had 14 kicks inside-the-20 and posted a 33.5 net average... Against San Francisco (9/25), had season-high seven punts and also had 21-yard run on fake punt... In season finale vs. Denver (12/24) was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week with 47.0 mark on five punts.

1993: Kicked in all 16 games and finished with 43.6 average on 77 punts...

Ranked fourth in NFC and ninth in NFL in gross average, and was fifth in NFC and sixth in NFL in net with a 37.5 mark... Had NFL-best 26 punts inside-the-20 with just six touchbacks... Notched at least one 50-yard punt in 10 of 16 games... In game versus Broncos (9/19), had seven punts with six inside-the-20 and forced four fair catches by Pro Bowler Mel Gray to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors... Ran 18 yards on fake punt versus Rams (10/3)... In game against Giants (12/20), completed first pass of NFL career on seven-yarder to Brad Muster on fake FG.

1992: In 16 games, punted 67 times for a 37.7 net average and a career-best 44.0 gross average... Gross average was a Saints record and ranked second in the NFC (fifth NFL)... Averaged 52.3 yards against Phoenix (10/18) including boots of 60 and 62 yards... Gained 12 yards running for a first down on fake punt against Tampa Bay (11/1)... In playoff loss to Eagles (1/3/93), punted three times for 45.3 average.

1991: Punted in 16 matches and was third in NFC (seventh NFL) with a 43.5 average on 86 kicks... 35.3 net rated sixth in the conference... Booted season-long 61-yarder and averaged 44.4 yards versus Chiefs (9/8), then had four punts inside the 20 in following game against 49ers (9/15)... Had top game of season against Minnesota (9/22) with 48-yard average on five kicks including 57-yarder... Averaged 54.0 yards on three punts in post-season loss to Falcons (12/28).

1990: In first full NFL season, punted 70 times for Saints and averaged 42.7 gross and 36.2 net... Rated fourth in NFC (sixth NFL) in gross, and third in conference (sixth NFL) in net... At Cincinnati (11/4), averaged 48.2 yards on six kicks including career-best 65-yarder... Notched 50.4-yard mark on five boots including three of 50+ versus Rams (12/9)... In wild card loss to Bears (1/6/91), punted three times for 30.0 average.

1989: Waived by Redskins (5/11) prior to training camp and signed by Lions (7/20)... Waived by Detroit (8/30) and inked by New Orleans (10/11) following season's fifth game... Kicked in 11 games and averaged 39.6 yards on 55 punts with a 35.0 net... Had career-high (later tied) 10 punts for 41.5-yard average in game with Rams (11/5).

1988: Was released by Chicago during training camp (8/24) but was subsequently signed by Washington (9/9)... Punted in four games before suffering quad injury in fourth contest... Was subsequently placed on injured reserve on 10/11 and missed remainder of season... Prior to injury, credited with 15 punts for a gross average of 41.9 and a net average of 34.3.

1987: Signed by Tampa Bay on 2/6 as a free agent but was waived during camp (8/5)... PRO: Relentless special teams standout who has developed into one of team's most consistent kick coverage men... Also serves as back-up at both safety positions... Non-drafted free agent who signed with the team in 1995 and has ranked in the top three in special teams tackles over the past two seasons, posting 26 stops during that period.

1997: Played in all 16 regular season games and started one, plus both playoff contests, primarily on special teams... Also saw limited action in back-up safety duty... Made greatest mark on special teams, placing third on squad with 11 special teams stops while also partially blocking a punt... Contributed 11 defensive stops as a back-up safety and nickel back... In season opener against San Francisco (8/31), recorded two special teams stops while also partially blocking a Tommy Thompson punt that went just 27 yards... Played crucial role in Bucs' tight 19-18 victory over Arizona (9/28) by hauling in a second-quarter 25-yard pass from P Tommy Barnhardt on fourth-and-16 that eventually set up Tampa Bay's second TD of the day... Recorded first start of the season and fourth of his career against the New York Jets (12/14) as an extra DB and delivered two defensive stops in addition to a special teams tackle... In season finale against Chicago (12/21), turned in best special teams performance of career with four stops and a fumble recovery against the Bears... In first career playoff action, recorded two tackles on special teams in two games.

1996: Played in all 16 games, contributing both at safety and on special teams... Took the highest percentage of special teams snaps of any Buccaneer player... Finished second on the team with 15 kick-coverage tackles... Came up with the Bucs' only two forced fumbles on special teams... Key part of Buccaneer kickoff unit that ranked second in the NFL in opponent kickoff return average (19.1) and third in opponent punt return average (6.5)... Saw most extensive action at safety during the Buccaneers' last five games of the season... Vs. Seattle (9/22), led team and set season high with three unassisted special teams tackles... At Green Bay (10/27), saw action on majority of special teams plays, making two tackles and forcing a fumble by Packer PR Desmond Howard... Recorded three solo tackles as sub at FS in overtime win vs. Oakland (11/10)... After leaving Minnesota game (12/15) in the third quarter with an ankle sprain, contributed at safety and special teams the following week in victory against Bears (12/22)... In final game of the season vs. Chicago, made a stop and forced a fumble on same play on special teams.

PRO: Heady and poised QB who has made the most of limited NFL action... In eight career games, has displayed a very accurate arm (63.8% completion percentage) and an ability to lead an offense in relief... Guided San Francisco to comeback win in first extended NFL action (vs. Houston, 1996) and has shown athleticism and mobility in subsequent appearances.

1997: Spent most of season as San Francisco's second-string quarterback... Got into three games and completed 16 of 24 passes (75.0%) for 164 yards and one interception... Thrust into action almost immediately, relieving starter Steve Young in the first quarter of the season opener at Tampa Bay (8/31) and playing well into fourth period... Before leaving with a hip pointer in loss to Bucs, completed 10 of 13 passes for 99 yards despite a fierce Tampa Bay rush (seven sacks, three of Brohm)... Closed out games vs. St. Louis (10/12), at New Orleans (10/26) and at Kansas City (11/30) but attempted only one pass in that trio of contests, a throw against Chiefs that was picked off for his only career interception... Played the second quarter of 49ers' regular-season finale at Seattle (12/21) and was successful on six of 10 aerials for 65 yards.

1996: Saw first career regular-season action, getting into three games as a sub for QB

Steve Young and completing 21 of 34 passes (61.8%) for 189 yards and one touchdown... Did not throw a pass in NFL debut at St. Louis (9/8), but played most of fourth quarter in Rams rematch (10/6) and hit on two of four throws for 13 yards while rushing four times for 12 yards... Played almost entire game at Houston (10/27) after Young suffered a concussion on third play of game and set career highs in every offensive category against Oilers, completing 19 of 30 tosses for 176 yards and one touchdown, with a long completion of 49 yards, while also rushing nine times for 35 yards... Led 49ers to 10-9 win at Houston with a 20-yard TD pass to WR Terrell Owens in game's last five minutes... Was inactive as the team's third QB in other 13 games.

1995: Spent '95 pre-season in San Diego's training camp but was released before the season... Signed with San Francisco on 12/6 and was inactive for final three games of regular season.

1994: Served as San Diego's inactive third QB for entire season, including Chargers' run to Super Bowl XXIX... Originally signed by Chargers as an undrafted free agent.

COLLEGE: Started final two seasons at Louisville and finished four-year career third on Cardinals' passing yardage chart (5,451)... Completed 402 of 715 passes (56.2%, a school career record) as a collegian and tossed 38 touchdowns versus 28 interceptions... Was named team MVP after each of his last two campaigns... Earned All-America honorable mention accolades as a senior after setting Cardinal single-season records for passing yardage (2,626), TD passes (20) and completion percentage (60.8)... Led Cardinals to 9-3 record, including 18-7 win over Michigan State in the Liberty Bowl... Directed comeback 35-27 win over Southern Mississippi by accounting for 367 yards, 304 on 22-of-34 passing and 63 on 16 carries... Grabbed starting reins as a junior and took every snap, completing 155 of 297 passes for 2,008 yards and nine touchdowns... Rallied Cardinals to victories in four of last six games, including win over Tulsa in which he completed 16 of 25 throws for 292 yards, one TD and one INT... Granted a medical redshirt early in first junior season (1991) after suffering a broken leg at the end of the second contest... Completed 24 of 47 passes for 217 yards, three TDs and two INTs, compiling a passer efficiency rating of 102.4... Saw limited action as Browning Nagle's back-up as a sophomore, tossing 55 passes and completing 29 for 482 yards, four touchdowns and four interceptions... As a freshman, threw just 12 passes but completed nine for 118 yards, two touchdowns and one interception... Business management major.

PRO: Extremely agile linebacker who uses superior quickness to make sideline to sideline tackles... Intelligent player who possesses stellar pass-rush and coverage abilities... Matured into one of NFC's leading outside linebackers last season, as evidenced by first career selection to the Pro Bowl... Has averaged 133 tackles in three professional seasons and has reached double-digit tackle totals in 18 games during that period... Needs 152 stops in 1998 to pass Cedric Brown (550) for 10th place on the team's career tackles list... Has also demonstrated top-notch cover skills with a three-year total of 26 passes defended, an outstanding total for a linebacker.

1997: One of only five defensive players to start all 16 regular season and both playoff games... Season tackle total of 182 (118, 64) was second highest on team behind fellow LB Hardy Nickerson's 194 and the third-best single-season mark in team history... Those two marks trailed only Nickerson's total of 214 in 1993... Also contributed 1.5 sacks, two interceptions, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 10 passes defended on way to earning first career Pro Bowl selection... Additional honors included Pro Football Weekly's All-NFC Team, College & Pro Football Weekly's All Pro First Team and John Madden's All Madden Team... Led or tied for the team lead in tackles in nine games and posted double-digit tackle totals in 13 contests, including six of first seven games... Member of defensive unit that ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the league against the run, allowing an average of just 101.8 rushing yards per game... Contributed to season-opening 13-6 defeat of San Francisco 49ers (8/31) by matching DT Warren Sapp with a team-best 11 tackles and assisting on a sack... In week-six contest at Green Bay (10/5) posted season-high 18 tackles, ending two Packer drives with clutch third-down stops to force punts... In following week's contest vs. Detroit (10/12), tallied team-leading 12 tackles along with a pass defended and a forced fumble that ended a potential Lions scoring threat at the Buccaneers' two-yard line... Hauled in first interception of season against New England (11/16), adding three tackles and a pair of pass defenses... Two weeks later at New York Giants (11/30), had most complete outing of season, pacing team with 11 tackles, breaking up two pass attempts and snaring second interception of season on a diving effort at the Tampa Bay 10-yard line... Led team in post-season tackles with a combined 21 in two games, including team-high 13 in 20-10 Wild Card victory over Detroit (12/28) and another eight at Green Bay (1/4).

1996: Started all 16 games at RLB and led team with 133 tackles (92, 41)... Broke fellow LB Hardy Nickerson's three-year string of leading the defense in tackles... Posted seven or more stops in 12 contests... Provided outstanding pass coverage as well, tying for the team lead with 12 passes defended, the most ever recorded in a single season by a Tampa Bay linebacker... Critical player in Bucs' defensive unit that ended season ranked 11th overall and fourth against the pass in the NFL... Turned in Buccaneers' top single-game performance of the year during nationally-televvised game at Denver with career-best 19 tackles (18 solos), an interception and a pass defended... Tackle total vs. Broncos tied for third-highest single-game total in franchise history... During game at Green Bay (10/27) once again led team with game-high 12 tackles and had one pass defended... In victory over Washington (12/8), tied fellow LB Hardy Nickerson for team lead with 10 tackles and added a team season-best four passes defended... In game at Minnesota (12/15), led squad with 11 stops, forced a Viking fumble and broke up a pass.

1995: Enjoyed productive rookie campaign, earning starting spot in training camp... Was perhaps top rookie LB in league as evidenced by First Team All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly, PFWA, Football News and College and Pro Football Newsweekly... Overall, appeared in all 16 games with 13 starts at RLB... Three non-starts came when Bucs opened with extra DBs against run-and-shoot teams... Ranked second on club with 79 tackles (60, 19) to go with one sack, one forced fumble, four passes defended and three special teams solos... In first NFL game, started at RLB and notched seven tackles and a pass breakup in win at Philadelphia (9/3)... Had season-best nine stops in triumph over Redskins (9/24)... In best outing, was team's Player of the Game at Minnesota (12/3) with seven solos, first career sack and a forced fumble... Drafted by Buccaneers with second of two first-round picks (28th overall) in 1995... Choice was obtained from Cowboys for pair of 1995 second rounders.

COLLEGE: Was four-year letterman at Florida State... Played first season at safety before shift to linebacker... Career statistics included 274 tackles (153, 121), five interceptions, 8.5 sacks, 13 passes defended, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries... Senior honors included First Team All-America by American Football Coaches, UPI and Walter Camp... Was also a GTE Academic All-America choice... Was First Team All-Atlantic Coast Conference and was selected for Senior Bowl... For second straight year, was a finalist for Vince Lombardi Award, symbolic of nation's top lineman/linebacker... In nine starts, finished second on team with 77 tackles (41, 36) to go with three interceptions, three sacks, six passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery... In 23-17 Sugar Bowl edging of Florida, notched eight tackles, a pass theft and pair of pass batdowns... As a junior, was named First Team All-America by Football Writers' Association and Walter Camp... Also was consensus First Team All-ACC choice and was that conference's Defensive Player of the Year... Was a finalist for the Butkus Award, the Lombardi Award and the Football Writers' Defensive Player of the Year award... Racked up 77 tackles (47, 30), two interceptions, two sacks, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries... Had two TDs on interception returns which tied single-season school record set by Deion Sanders and Terrell Buckley... Three defensive TDs overall tied John Wessel's FSU mark... Missed two games due to ankle injury... Against Clemson, had seven stops, a blocked punt (35-yd. return) and two fumble recoveries including one for an 83-yard TD... Was credited with nine tackles plus 49-yard TD interception return in 33-7 defeat of North Carolina... Earned sophomore All-America honors from Football News and was also a First Team All-ACC choice... Started all 11 games at OLB and produced career-best 98 tackles (55, 43), 3.5 sacks and a fumble recovery... Was one of only two true freshman to earn a letter... Saw action in all 11 matches and produced 22 tackles (10, 12) as a reserve strong safety... Was moved to outside LB in spring practice prior to second season... Holds B.A. in business communications.

PERSONAL: Single... Has done considerable work with March of Dimes, D.A.R.E. and the Audley Evans Center, an after-school youth center... PRO: Hard-working and relentless interior lineman who has proven to be one of team's most consistent performers in three seasons with Buccaneers... His 90 career games played are most of any current Buccaneer defensive lineman... Played in 61 of 64 games, including 48 starts, for Tampa Bay since joining the team prior to the start of the 1994 season after being claimed off waivers from Minnesota... Has posted 225 tackles (144, 81) and 18 sacks in six-year career.

1997: Started all 16 games and both playoff contests... Enjoyed best season of career, recording personal highs in tackles (80) and sacks (8.5) and becoming first player in franchise history to tally two three-sack performances in the same season... Turned in five or more tackles in 10 regular-season games as well as both playoff contests... Key starter on defensive line unit that finished season with 44 sacks during the regular-season, a new team mark... Became just fifth player in team history to record three sacks in a game against Arizona (9/28) with takedowns of eight, two and nine yards... Following week at Detroit (10/12), added five tackles and a three-yard sack of Lions QB Scott Mitchell... Had best performance at Atlanta (11/9), posting season-best seven tackles (later tied at Green Bay, 12/7) and recording second three-sack performance of season... Helped establish defensive tone the following week in 27-7 drubbing of New England (11/16), with four tackles and a 10-yard first-quarter takedown of QB Drew Bledsoe... Provided steady inside presence in Wild Card victory over Detroit (12/28), posting five tackles and helping limit Lions RB Barry Sanders to just 65 yards on 18 carries... Teamed with fellow defensive tackle Warren Sapp to pressure Green Bay QB Brett Favre on majority of passing plays in NFC Divisional Playoff Game loss (1/4), equaling Sapp's eight tackles and adding a sack.

1996: Played in and started 13 games at NT, missing three mid-season contests due to an ankle injury sustained at Arizona (10/20)... Ranked third among defensive linemen with 42 tackles (28,14) and second on team in tackles for loss with six... Finished the year with 1.5 sacks and registered four or more tackles in seven games... Recorded first sack of year at Detroit (9/8)... Tied a career high with seven stops at Denver (9/15)... During strong performance vs. Seattle (9/22), recorded four tackles and had first pass defended of career... Suffered ankle injury during second quarter of Arizona game (10/20) that kept him out for next two contests... During first game after returning from ankle injury, played critical role in pressuring San Diego QB Stan Humphries into three turnovers during a victory over the Chargers (11/17).

1995: Appeared in all 16 games for Tampa Bay with four starts at LDT... Contributed 23 tackles (16, 7), two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery... Finished second on club with four sacks, which matched career best at the time... Got first sack in team's triumph at Philadelphia (9/3)... In loss versus Chicago (9/17), had a fumble recovery and a forced fumble on same play that set up Buc FG... Started games #10-12 versus Lions (11/12), Jaguars (11/19) and Packers (11/26) in place of injured Mark Wheeler (toe)... Other sacks came versus Redskins (9/24), Oilers (10/29) and Vikings (12/3).

1994: Was waived by Vikings on final roster cutdown (8/29) and claimed the next day by Buccaneers... Turned out to be a key acquisition for the Tampa Bay defense... Played in all 16 games with 15 starts (nine at LDT, six at RDT)... Subbed in first game as a Buc but then took over starting spot and never relinquished it... Established personal bests in virtually every statistical category... Ranked sixth on club (first among linemen) with 61 tackles (47, 14) and also had two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery... Was the team's surprise sack leader with four... Was named "Unsung Buc of the Year" by area booster club... Got first Buc start in victory over Colts (9/11) and responded with first career sack plus a forced fumble... In clutch OT win against former Viking teammates

(11/27), contributed six tackles plus a QB sack... In win over Washington (12/4), had three tackles and a sack.

1993: For Vikings, played in 15 games as reserve defensive tackle and had nine tackles (7, 2) plus one on special teams... In season's final three games, split extensive playing time at NT with Esera Tuaolo following injury to Henry Thomas... Suffered concussion in game versus Chargers (11/7) and had to remain in San Diego overnight, but returned to action in next contest... Saw action in playoff loss to Giants (1/9/94) but did not have any tackles.

1992: As a rookie, appeared in 11 games with two starts... Earned roster spot after leading team with 4.5 sacks during pre-season... Finished with 10 tackles (4, 6)... Started opening regular-season game against Green Bay (9/6) at RDT, becoming first Viking defensive rookie to start first game in four years (Al Noga, 1988)... Was the lowest round draftee (tenth) to start for any NFL team on opening weekend... Notched other start versus Browns (11/22), posting season-best three tackles... Suffered dislocated toe in that Cleveland game and was placed on injured reserve (11/23) for remainder of season... Drafted by Vikings in tenth round (264th overall) in 1992.

COLLEGE: Played four years as defensive tackle at Florida... Career statistics included 227 tackles (156, 71), 18 QB sacks, five forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and four pass breakups... Ended up fifth on UF's all-time list for tackles for loss (47.5)... As a senior, honors included first-team All-America by AP, Football News and Kodak, plus consensus first-team All-Southeastern Conference... Was one of 15 recipients of Hall of Fame Athlete/Scholar Award and was member of every Academic All-America team... Started every game at RDT and notched career-best 82 tackles (56, 26) and seven sacks... Junior totals showed 64 tackles (47, 17) plus 5.5 sacks as starter at LDT... Was Academic All-SEC choice... In sophomore season, credited with 60 tackles (40, 20) plus 3.5 sacks and three forced fumbles in earning Academic All-SEC honors... Started 10 games, missing season-opener while still recovering from pre-season arthroscope... Played in 10 games as a reserve DT in freshman campaign and posted 21 tackles (13, 8) and pair of QB drops... Was given a medical redshirt as incoming freshman in 1987 due to serious staph infection... Holds B.A. in history.

PERSONAL: Married to Monica, couple lives in Gainesville during off-season ... Has done considerable work for Children's Miracle Network and Shands Hospital in Gainesville while also holding an annual charity golf tournament in Tallahassee... Was one of only three players in Florida history to earn SEC all-academic honors in all four seasons... Was senior captain of Florida's football team after father, Bruce, had held same distinction in 1961-62... Attended Leon High School in Tallahassee, lettering in football and baseball... Was a two-time first team all-state selection and was city's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior... As a pitcher, led Leon's baseball team to the state finals... Full name is John Broward Culpepper, born May 8, 1969 in Tallahassee.

Born 5/14/73

NFL 3rd Year
How Acquired ... FA, 1997
College Emporia State

PRO: Big, physical tight end who has developed into solid blocker and special teams performer... Also displayed receiving skills when late-season string of injuries depleted Bucs' tight end unit... Expected to compete for backup tight end and special teams duties... Spent entire 1994 season on Dallas Cowboys' practice squad after being waived on 8/28... In 1995, waived on 10/31 following season after spending first half of season on injured reserve... Participated in New Orleans Saints' training camp in '96 before signing with Buccaneers on 1/22.

1997: Saw action in eight games with two starts at tight end, catching three passes for 35 yards, all in Bucs' final four games... After being inactive for first eight games, participated in final eight regular-season games and both playoff contests... Played in first career regular-season game at Indianapolis on 11/2 as a member of special teams unit... Hauled in first career pass reception for a gain of three yards at New York Giants (11/30) after filling in for injured backup tight end Patrick Hape... Made first career start as primary tight end upon return trip to New York against the Jets (12/14) due to absence of Jackie Harris and Dave Moore...Saw most extensive action of season and hauled in a career-long 16-yard reception... Following week versus Chicago (12/21), made second consecutive start, this time as second tight end in two-TE set and matched personal mark with 16-yard grab... Saw limited playoff action as primarily a special teamer and caught one pass for no gain at Green Bay (1/4)... Reception against Packers was actually during special teams action, as a failed fake field goal attempt resulted in a shovel pass from holder/quarback Steve Walsh.

COLLEGE: Split time between tight end and tailback at Emporia State... Recorded 624 yards on 128 carries (4.9 avg.) and seven touchdowns and added 13 receptions for 172 yards and two additional scores... Named honorable mention All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association for his efforts... Transferred to ESU after two seasons at Cisco (TX) Junior College.

PERSONAL: Lettered in football, basketball and track at Jasper (TX) High School... Helped set a national high school record in 4x100 meter relay time by compiling time of 39.9 seconds... Born in Jasper, Texas.

PRO: Versatile lineman who can play either guard position and has proven to be an exceptional drive blocker on running plays... Expected to make shift to starting left guard this season... Originally signed as undrafted college free agent in 1996, but quickly emerged as a solid offensive line performer, playing in 11 games with six starts before assuming starting right guard duties in '97... Has started 22 of first 27 career games.

1997: Started all 16 games, lining up at RG for 13 contests before moving over to left side for final portion of season due to injuries on the offensive line... One of three offensive linemen to start every game and help the Buccaneer rushing attack average 120.9 yards per game and record nine 100+-yard outings on its way to an 11th place league ranking... Member of unit that held opponents without a quarterback sack in three games and allowed just 32 takedowns all season, the fifth-lowest 16-game season total in team history... Contributed to offensive effort that logged five 100+-yard rushing games in first six contests, including a standout 191-yard effort at Minnesota (9/14)... The following week vs. Miami (9/21), delivered timely block on screen pass to spring RB Warrick Dunn for a 59-yard TD... Provided interior line blocking that assisted Buc backfield in recording best rushing totals of season with 217 yards on 36 carries (6.0 avg.)... In season finale versus Chicago (12/21), forced to move to LG due to injuries and helped pave the way for 183-yard rushing performance by Buc runners... Did not start first playoff game of career vs. Detroit (12/28) due to a shoulder sprain, but forced into the game after replacement went down with injury and was vital part of unit that blocked for 141-yard rushing day... Started first playoff game the following week at Green Bay (1/4).

1996: Participated in 11 games, starting five at LG and one at RG... Saw first career action at LG in 9/22 contest versus Seattle after filling in for injured starter Jim Pyne for most of the second half... Opened first career game against Detroit (9/29) when Pyne was sidelined by a neck injury and played entire game at LG... Entered Arizona (10/20) contest after Bucs' first possession when Pyne suffered an ankle injury and started the next three games against Green Bay (10/27), Chicago (11/3) and Oakland (11/10)... In Oakland contest, helped pave the way for 162-yard rushing output (second-best of season) by Buccaneer RBs... Started only game at RG in season's 15th week against Minnesota (12/15), filling in for an injured Ian Beckles... In season finale vs. Chicago once again took over for an injured Pyne making sixth start of season (fifth at LG) and allowing just one sack of Dilfer in Bucs' 34-19 victory.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons for Texas A&M-Kingsville after transferring from Kilgore (TX) Junior College (was a two-time All-America and all-conference selection)... A key contributor to Javelinas' offensive unit that averaged 286 rushing yards and 5.7 yards per carry in 1995... Credited with 77 knockdown blocks as a senior... One of five members of the Javelinas' offensive line to earn All-Lone Star Conference recognition... Moved into the starting lineup early in junior season... Helped the Javelinas average 283.2 yards per game.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Tampa... Chosen All-District and All-Conference in football while attending Katy (TX) High School... Is Buccaneers' only Spanish-speaking player... Full name is Jorge Armando Diaz, born November 15, 1973 in New York City, New York.

NFL 5th Year
How Acquired ... DT, 1994
College Fresno State

PRO: Strong-armed pocket passer who broke numerous team passing records in 1997 and directed the Buccaneers' first playoff run in 15 years... Earned first Pro Bowl selection for a quarterback in franchise history... Showed dramatic improvement for third consecutive season and improved passing accuracy for third straight year... Current consecutive starts streak of 48 games is second only to Green Bay's Brett Favre (93) among league quarterbacks... Enters 1998 needing just 819 yards to pass Steve DeBerg for third all-time on Buccaneers' passing list.

1997: Started every game for the third consecutive season, equaling Doug Williams' team mark (1979-1981), and threw all but 18 of the team's pass attempts... Connected on 217 of 386 attempts for career-best 56.2 completion percentage and 2,555 yards... Established new Buccaneer record for touchdown passes with 21 and finished with the second highest single-season passer rating (82.8) in team annals... Set new team mark for consecutive passes thrown without an interception (152), besting his own previous team record of 138 set in 1995, while his interception percentage of 2.8 was lowest of four-year career... Finished as league's second-rated passer in third-down situations with 93.8 mark and 11 TD strikes in that situation were tops in the NFL... Equalled second-highest single-game completion percentage mark by hitting on 15 of 20 attempts (75%) for 191 yards and two touchdowns at Minnesota (9/14), connecting on deep passes of 49 and 27 yards (TD) with WR Horace Copeland... Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors the following week vs. Miami (9/21), after completing 18 of 24 passes (75%) for season-high 248 yards and career-best four TDs... In that game, threw scoring tosses of 3, 1, 38 and 58 yards en route to a 31-21 downing of the Dolphins... Beginning with 10/26 Minnesota contest, went five consecutive games without an interception... In 11/16 contest vs. New England, completed season-high 21 passes on 29 attempts (72.4%) for 209 yards and a TD and was extremely efficient in third-down situations with six of 10 passing... Suffered late second-quarter ankle injury vs. Green Bay (12/7) when his right ankle got caught under Packers DE Reggie White in a pileup... Returned to field for first two possessions of second half but was forced to leave due to severe pain... Started the following week at N.Y. Jets (12/14) despite continued pain from ankle injury, but left after completing just two passes... In first career playoff start against Detroit (12/28), completed team playoff record 13 of 26 passes for 181 yards, one TD and one INT, while also directing the second-longest post-season scoring drive in team history (17 plays, 89 yards)... In following week's NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/4), established Buc playoff records for most pass attempts (36) and yards (200), while moving the team on a franchise-record 94-yard scoring drive.

1996: Served as the Bucs' starting quarterback and played nearly every down of the season while starting all 16 games... After a slow start and a 35.6 passer rating through the first five games of the year, showed drastic improvement during games six-16, more than doubling his rating to 77.5... Recorded career highs in pass attempts (482), completions (267), passing yards (2,859) and rushing yards (124)... Also completed 55.4 percent of pass attempts, connecting for 12 touchdowns and compiling 64.8 passer rating... 267 completions were second highest season total in team history (308, Steve DeBerg, 1984)... Came up with strong performance during home win over Minnesota (10/13), completing 22 of 35 attempts for 218 yards and a season-high three TD passes... During following week's contest at Arizona, again completed 22 of 35 passes for 229 yards, marking second consecutive week with no interceptions, a first since 11/19-11/26/95... In OT triumph over Oakland (11/10), boasted 69 percent completion rate and led Bucs to their first opening-series score of the year by hitting five of first six attempts... Set up overtime battle with Raiders with a 14-play, 73-yard fourth-quarter drive that ended with a two-yard pass to FB Mike Alstott to tie the game... Came up with best performance of year in victory at San Diego (11/17) with season best in attempts (40) and completion percentage (75.0), while recording season and personal bests in completions (30) and yards (327)... Against Chargers, came within one completion of tying club record of 31 set by Vinny Testaverde against Houston (12/10/89) and led the team to three scores with five drives of 50+ yards... In home victory over New Orleans (11/24), threw for 253 yards and ran for 21 yards... Recovered from a finger injury to lead Bucs to a triumph over Washington (12/8) by completing eight of 15 passes for 112 yards... Also showed running skills vs. Redskins, rushing four times for 27 yards, including a 19-yard dash.

1995: Started all 16 games for Bucs, thus becoming first Tampa Bay quarterback to accomplish that since Doug Williams in 1981... Completed 224 of 415 passes (54.0%) for 2,774 yards with four TDs and 18 interceptions... Had QB rating of 60.1... Also ranked third on team with 115 rushing yards on 23 carries with two touchdowns... Broke Williams' 1982 record by throwing 138 consecutive passes without an interception (9/24-10/29, 5 games)... Got first win as a starter by completing 11 of 19 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and an interception, including 64-yarder to WR Horace Copeland in 21-6 victory at Philadelphia (9/3)... Had third-highest passing yardage total of career with 255 (on 20 of 36) in loss at Cleveland (9/10)... In 14-6 win over Washington (9/24), hit on 13 of 18 passes... In 20-13 win at Carolina (10/1), was replaced by Casey Weldon in second quarter after suffering concussion on hit by LB Carlton Bailey and DE Mike Fox... Keyed team's fourth straight win, an OT victory over Vikings (10/15), by connecting on 24 of 37 passes for 249 yards with no pickoffs... Scored first NFL touchdown on 21-yard run in loss at Houston (10/29)... Enjoyed performance at Green Bay (11/26) by racking up career best attempts (48) while adding season-high 312 yards and 27 completions... That performance marked his first NFL 300-yard game and first by a Buccaneer in 26 games (Craig Erickson's 313 vs. Colts

9/11/94)... Helped engineer nationally-televised OT upset of Green Bay (12/10) by hooking up on 23 of 42 throws for 240 yards.

1994: As a rookie, played in five games with two starts... Did not play in 10 games and was inactive for one (at Lions 11/13)... Completed 38 of 82 passes (46.3%) for 433 yards with one TD and six interceptions... Also was credited with two rushes for 27 yards... Saw first regular-season action in fourth quarter relief of Craig Erickson in loss at Green Bay (9/25)... Completed five of 10 passes for 73 yards in that Packer contest... Also saw extensive action at Atlanta (10/9), connecting on six of 11 throws for 81 yards but had three interceptions... Got first NFL start in loss at San Francisco (10/23) and completed seven of 23 passes for 45 yards with one pickoff... Again relieved Erickson in following week's loss to Vikings (10/30) and was accurate on seven of 13 tosses for 75 yards with one TD and one interception... In loss to Bears (11/6), got second start (first at then-Tampa Stadium) and completed 13 of 25 passes for 159 yards with a long completion of 42 yards... Was inactive for Lions game after suffering rib cage injury in practice... Did not take a snap in any of the season's final seven games... Drafted by Buccaneers in first round (sixth overall) in 1994... Declared for the draft with one season of eligibility remaining and was highest drafted player in Fresno State history (CB J.D. Williams was 16th pick by Buffalo in 1990).

COLLEGE: Enjoyed outstanding three-year career at Fresno State... Career statistics included 461 completions in 774 attempts (59.6%) for 6,944 yards, 51 TDs and 21 interceptions... Also rushed 140 times for 195 yards and eight scores... In two bowl games, added 50 completions in 91 throws (54.9%) for 687 yards, two TDs and one pickoff... Was 20-9 as a starter as team won or shared conference title in all three seasons... In junior season, was AP and Football News Third Team All-America while also being a consensus First Team All-Western Athletic Conference choice and that conference's Offensive Player of the Year... Completed 217 of 333 passes (65.2%) for school record 3,276 yards with an incredible 7-to-1 TD to interception ratio (FSU record 28 TDs, 4 int.)... Led the nation with a 173.1 passing efficiency which was the third highest in NCAA history (Jim McMahon's 176.9 in 1980, Ty Detmer's 175.6 in 1989)... Also set an NCAA record with 271 consecutive passes without an interception (almost ten full games), shattering Matt Blundin's (Virginia, 1991) previous mark of 224... Added 47 attempts without a pick, counting bowl game, bringing total to 318 (24 TDs during that span)... In sophomore campaign, became just third WAC QB to earn All-America honors, joining McMahon (1978) and Detmer (1989)... For season, connected on 175 of 332 passes (52.7%) for 2,836 yards, 21 TDs and 14 interceptions... In NCAA, finished fifth in TD passes and ninth in passing efficiency (136.9)... Began freshman season as a reserve before starting final four games and helping club earn berth in California Raisin Bowl... Totals included 69 completions in 109 attempts (63.3%) for 832 yards, two TDs and three interceptions... Also rushed for 177 yards on 31 attempts (5.7 avg.) with five touchdowns... Was redshirted as incoming freshman in 1990... Majored in speech communications.

PERSONAL: Married to Cassandra, couple lives full-time in Tampa with daughter Madeleine (3/31/96) and son Trevin (11/10/97)... Wife is a former Fresno State swimmer... Is very involved with Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Athletes in Action, The United Way (spokesperson for Tampa Bay area), Big Brothers, Big Sisters, Police Athletic League and Hardy's Huddle... Has turned hobby of playing golf into second successful athletic endeavor, winning three off-season celebrity tournaments since 1997... At Fresno State, academic honors included All-Western Athletic Conference and a spot on the CFA's Scholar-Athlete team... Attended Aptos (CA) High School, lettering in football, golf, basketball and baseball... Played quarterback, safety and punter in high school... Was two-time high school all-conference choice in both football and basketball, and was also hoops player of the year as a senior... Graduated with 3.9 GPA from Aptos... 28 WARRICK DUNN RUNNING BACK

Height 5-8
Weight 178
Born 1/5/75

NFL 2nd Year
How Acquired ... D1a, 1997
College Florida State

PRO: Game-breaking runner with lightning quick moves who uses excellent field vision and slashing running style to evade opposing defenders... Combined with Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott to form arguably the most lethal two-pronged running attack in the league with a combined 1,643 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns... Earned NFC Offensive Rookie of the Year honors from the NFL and the NFL Players Association after leading all league rookies in combined yards (1,440) and placing second in rushing yards to Cincinnati's Corey Dillon (1,129) with 978... Earned distinction as only 1997 NFL rookie and first Buccaneer running back since James Wilder (1984) to be selected to the Pro Bowl.

1997: Started 10 of 16 regular-season games played and led the team in both receptions and rushing... Along with Pro Bowl honors, was named NFL Rookie of the Year by Football News, Pro Football Weekly and Sports Illustrated, and designated Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press, Football Digest and College and Pro Football Newsweekly... Other first-year honors included selection to Pro Football Weekly's and College and Pro Football Newsweekly's All-Rookie Teams... As team's primary ball carrier, gained 978 yards and four touchdowns on 224 carries (4.4 avg.)... Also proved to be QB Trent Dilfer's favorite receiving target, catching at least one pass in every game and leading the team with 39 receptions for 462 yards and three TDs... Combined yardage totals of 1,440 also stands as a Buccaneer rookie record and the fourth-highest single-season mark among all players in team history... Accounted for 100+ yards of total offense in eight games and broke off a team-high seven plays of 40 yards or more... Tied James Wilder (1984 and '85) and Ricky Bell (1979) for club record with five 100+ yard rushing performances, including three in his first six games... Earned NFC Offensive Rookie of the Month honors for September after rushing for 312 yards and two touchdowns on 69 totes (4.5 avg.) and hauling in 13 passes for 141 yards and one TD during that five-game span... Received NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors following week #2 contest at Detroit (9/7) in which he collected 130 yards on 24 carries (5.4 avg.), including a 49-yard scamper that was team's longest since 9/15/96 (Reggie Brooks, 56 yards)... At Minnesota (9/14), became first Buccaneer running back since Errict Rhett (11/12/95, 11/19/95) to record consecutive 100-yard rushing performances with 101 yards on 16 carries (6.3 avg.), including a 52-yard touchdown scamper for the team's final score of the game... Showcased receiving skills vs. Miami (9/21) by catching six passes for 106 yards, including a fourth-quarter screen pass on third-and-29 which he turned into a highlight reel 58-yard touchdown score... At Green Bay (10/5), broke the 100-yard rushing mark for the third time with 125 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries (7.8 avg.), despite not starting due to the offensive formation used... Recorded season-high 59-yard scoring grab at Detroit (10/12) after catching a 10-yard pass in the flat and bursting down the sideline for the touchdown... Caught one touchdown pass and ran for another at Atlanta (11/9), marking first career multi-score game... Accounted for 169 total yards of offense behind 120-yard rushing performance on 24 carries (5.0 avg.) at New York Giants (11/30)... In return to New York, against the Jets (12/14), produced seventh 100+ yard day with 88 rushing and 22 receiving yards... Finished regular-season with 119 yards on just 16 touches, including a season-high 76-yard run in the third quarter that ranks as the longest running play in franchise history... Led team in rushing in both playoff contests, first with 72 yards on 18 carries vs. Detroit (12/28), then with 64 yards on 18 attempts at Green Bay (1/4).

COLLEGE: A three-time first-team All-ACC performer, became the first back in Florida State history to record three 1,000-yard rushing seasons... Finished as Seminoles' career leader in rushing yards, gaining 3,959 to surpass Greg Allen's 3,769 (1981-84)... Averaged 6.9 yards per carry as a collegian, a Seminole record and the top mark by a NCAA Division I-A player (minimum 300 carries) in 50 years (Army's Glenn Davis, 8.3 avg., 1943-46)... Also considered one of nation's top pass-catching backs, snaring 132 career receptions for 1,314 yards... Scored 47 touchdowns in four FSU seasons, 37 rushing and 10 receiving, to break Allen's previous school record of 46... In four career bowl games, added 46 carries for 240 yards (5.2 avg.) and one touchdown, 14 receptions for 112 yards, one kickoff return for 17 yards and one completion in two attempts for 73 yards and a touchdown... Broke Allen's school mark for all-purpose yards (4,996) with a total of 5,321... Secured 21 100-yard rushing games, the most in Seminole history... As a senior, earned second-team All-America accolades from Associated Press and was a first-team choice by Football News... Rushed 189 times for 1,180 yards and 12 touchdowns and added 30 catches for 355 yards and a pair of TDs... Started all 11 games and averaged 6.2 yards per carry and 107.3 rushing yards per game... Selected to All-ACC first team for third consecutive year and was presented with the conference's Commissioner's Award... Surpassed 100 rushing yards six times... Saved top outing of season for November battle with Florida for nation's top ranking, weaving for 185 yards on 24 carries and adding four receptions for 24 yards as Seminoles prevailed 24-21... Named to All-ACC first team for second straight year and was an honorable mention to AP's All-America team as a junior... Averaged 112.9 rushing yards per game en route to breaking school single-season records for rushing yards (1,242) and yards per carry (7.5)... Rushed 166 times and scored a career-best 13 TDs on the ground... Also broke Seminole season records for 100-yard rushing games (eight) and consecutive 100-yard games (six)... Finished third on team with career-best 43 receptions for 294 yards and three scores... Led Seminoles in scoring and finished 12th in nation with 96 points... Earned first All-ACC first-team honors in sophomore campaign as he became just the fifth Seminole to record a 1,000-yard rushing season... Led team with 1,026 rushing yards on 152 carries (6.8 avg.) and scored eight times on the ground... Added 34 receptions for 308 yards and an additional TD... Compiled six 100-yard rushing games... Had unusually large impact for a freshman, leading team with 10 touchdowns (four rushing, six receiving)... Finished second on team with 511 yards on 68 carries (7.5 avg.) and added 25 receptions for 357 yards... Also returned four kickoffs for 48 yards... Graduated in May 1997 with a bachelor's degree in information studies.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Tampa... Received Giant Steps Award in civic leadership from President Bill Clinton this past off-season for his involvement in starting up "Homes for the Holidays" program... The program helped four low-income families in Tampa buy homes through a large down payment provided by Dunn... Also received recognition as one of The Sporting News' Top 100 most powerful sports personalities... All-America honorable mention selection by USA Today as a prep at Catholic High School in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where he played cornerback, quarterback and running back... Full name is Warrick De'Mon Dunn, born January 5, 1975 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

37 JERRY ELLISON RUNNING BACK

Height 5-10
Weight 207
Born 12/20/71

NFL 4th Year
How Acquired ... FA, 1994
College Tennessee-Chattanooga

PRO: Versatile, quick-footed runner who has served as backup running back for majority of three-year career and has made most of limited opportunities, posting 334 rushing yards on 63 carries (5.3 avg.), and recording second-longest run from scrimmage in Buccaneer history with a 75-yard scamper versus Detroit (12/23/95)... Of all running backs in team history with at least 50 rushes, owns the highest career per-carry average... Has also scored five career touchdowns on just 63 carries, a remarkable rate of one every 12.6 totes... Though used sparingly in three seasons, has been solid on kickoff returns, averaging 18.9 yards on 17 runbacks, with a long of 49 yards... Also has developed into solid special teamer the past two seasons with 11 special teams tackles on kick coverage units... After spending first NFL season on Buccaneers' practice squad, made the active roster in 1995 and has since appeared in 48 consecutive games

1997: Played in all 16 regular-season games as a member of most special teams units and contributed with five tackles (3, 2), tied for eighth-most on team... Also subbed in on several occasions as a third-down back and registered two carries for 10 yards and one reception for eight yards... In 10/12 Detroit contest, recovered loose ball after WR/KR Karl Williams fumbled a first-quarter kickoff... Also carried two times for 10 yards and caught one pass for eight yards... In most significant game action of season at New York Giants (11/30), caught eight-yard pass on offense, then returned a kickoff 49 yards, the team's second-longest return of the season... In special teams action in both playoff contests, tallied one solo tackle vs. Detroit (12/28).

1996: Saw increased action, starting the first two games of the season and playing in all 16... Finished the season fifth on the team in rushing yards (106) and eighth in receiving (208)... Also played extensively on special teams, tying for fifth on the squad with six kick-coverage tackles... In first two games of season (vs. Green Bay 9/1, at Detroit 9/8), collected 22 yards on 16 carries as starting RB... Subbed at RB during most third-down situations in game five against the Lions (9/29), recording career-best and game-high 42-yard catch-and-run on a short pass from QB Casey Weldon... In Carolina contest (12/1), added three carries for nine yards and caught career-high four passes for 32 yards... Used extensively as third-down back in season's final month, catching nine passes for 93 yards.

1995: Re-signed by Buccaneers (1/24) after spending a year on team's practice squad... Earned position on roster and appeared in all 16 games with three starts... Ranked second on club with 218 rushing yards on 26 carries... Averaged team-best 8.4 yards per carry which was a club record for players with at least 100 yards in a season (Rod McNeill's 5.0 in 1976)... Was second on team with five touchdowns, scoring a TD on 19.2% of all rushing attempts... Had four of team's six longest runs despite having just 26 of club's 398 carries... Also caught seven passes for 44 yards

(6.3 avg.) and returned 15 kickoffs for 261 yards (17.4 avg.)... Tied for eighth on team with six special teams tackles (4, 2)... PRO: Prototype number one receiver with blazing speed, soft hands and an ability to separate... Despite switching from quarterback to receiver upon reaching the pros, immediately emerged as a proven producer at his new position... Became Tampa Bay's most significant free agent acquisition of '98 when Atlanta chose not to match the Buccaneers' Offer Sheet to the Falcons' transition player... Career total of 260 receptions for 3,600 yards is an average of exactly 65 catches for 900 yards per season... His 195 catches through 1996 stood as the eighth-highest total ever posted by an NFL receiver in his first three seasons... Has scored 24 receiving touchdowns, with a TD total that has increased every season of his career... A starter from his first game as a professional, has played in 62 of a possible 64 NFL games and started 61... Led the Falcons in receptions and receiving yards in each of the last two seasons.

1997: Led Falcons in receptions and receiving yards with 65 catches for 991 yards, marking third straight campaign with at least 900 receiving yards... Also paced team and tied for sixth in the NFL with nine touchdown catches... Averaged a career-best 15.2 yards per catch, helped by 11 grabs of 25 or more yards, 11th-most in the league... Owned all three of the Falcons' catches of 50 or more yards... Opened season at Detroit (8/31) with team-high four receptions for 88 yards, including a 56-yarder that remained the team's longest pass play throughout the season... Provided near identical performance vs. Oakland (9/14) two weeks later by snatching four passes for 92 yards with a long reception of 54 yards... Including 50-yard grab vs. Carolina on 9/7, turned in three consecutive games with a catch of 50 or more yards... Scored first TD of season at San Francisco (9/21) amid a team-best six catches for 62 yards... Notched a 1997-high eight receptions the following week vs. Denver (9/28), accounting for 58 yards and another TD... Also scored touchdowns in the Falcons' next two games (at New Orleans, 10/12; vs. San Francisco, 10/19) for a streak of four straight contests with a TD... Ran up most prolific '97 numbers vs. St. Louis (11/2), grabbing six passes for 108 yards and two touchdowns... Against New Orleans (11/23), turned four catches into 98 yards and a score... Finished season at Arizona with five receptions for 75 yards and his ninth TD.

1996: Led Falcons with 75 receptions for 921 yards... Despite missing two contests and all but one series of a third game (hamstring strain), fell just 79 yards shy of his second consecutive 1,000-yard season... Turned in three 100-yard games and was the team's leading passcatcher in seven games... Posted five receptions of 40 or more yards... Tied a career high with nine catches vs. Minnesota (9/8) for 116 yards, then matched that total with nine more grabs the following game vs. Philadelphia (9/22), posting 93 yards and a TD... Suffered a hamstring strain at San Francisco (9/29) and missed the Falcons' next two games, marking the only action he has missed in four pro seasons... Came back with a bang at Dallas (10/20), hauling in a team-leading eight passes for 71 yards and a TD... Racked up 109 yards on four catches at St. Louis (11/10), with long receptions of 50 and 40 yards... In Rams rematch (12/15), came up with a career-best 173 yards on a team-high nine catches, including a TD grab... Finished season at Jacksonville (12/22) by leading team with six receptions for 67 yards.

1995: Posted a 1,000-yard campaign in just second season at the wide-receiver position, pulling down 74 aerials for 1,039 yards... Scored five touchdowns... Started all 16 games at WR for the second time in two years... In season opener vs. Carolina (9/3), caught six passes for 90 yards and a TD, including a long grab for 46 yards... Grabbed six receptions for 104 yards at New Orleans (9/17), highlighted by a 49-yard play on third-and-13... Five receptions for 74 yards vs. N.Y. Jets (9/24) included an acrobatic four-yard TD grab... For the fourth time in the season's first five games, caught a pass of over 40 yards vs.

New England (10/1), as his 52-yarder led to a team high 95 yards on six receptions... Tied a career high with nine receptions for 121 yards and two touchdowns at Tampa Bay (10/22)... Had back-to-back 100-yard games on 11/5 vs. Detroit (7-104) and 11/12 at Buffalo (6-100)... Surpassed 1,000-yard mark with seven-catch, 86-yard effort vs. San Francisco (12/24) in season finale... In first career playoff action, at Green Bay (12/31), hauled in six passes for 62 yards and added a tackle after a Packer INT.

1994: Quickly proved he could make conversion from college QB to NFL WR by ranking second among league rookies with 46 receptions for 649 yards and four touchdowns... Trailing leader Derrick Alexander of Cleveland by just two catches... Immediately inserted into starting lineup and remained there for all 16 games... Posted four-catch, 64-yard effort at Washington (9/25) that included a 31-yard one-handed grab for his first career touchdown... Hauled in six passes for 86 yards at L.A. Rams (10/2)... Set a career high (later equaled) vs. San Francisco (10/16) by snaring nine receptions, good for 91 yards... Gave preview for breakthrough 1995 season by finishing '94 with four-catch, 136-yard outing vs. Arizona (12/27), marking first career 100-yard game... Efforts in Cardinal game included 85-yard TD catch that remains the fifth-longest pass play in Falcon history... Drafted by the Falcons in the second round (45th overall) in 1994.

COLLEGE: Two-year all-conference performer at Rice as a quarterback after transferring from UCLA... A dual passing/running threat, completing 212 of 384 pass attempts for 3,079 yards, 23 touchdowns and 10 interceptions, while also running 307 times for 1,156 yards and 11 more scores... As a senior, set a Rice record by completing 57.8% of his passes, connecting on 118 of 204 tosses for 1,521 yards, 12 TDs and four INTs... Also ran 144 times for 476 yards and four touchdowns... In junior campaign, first as an Owl, passed for 1,558 yards on 94 completions in 180 attempts, throwing 11 TDs versus six interceptions... Set a school record for rushing by a quarterback with 680 yards and seven touchdowns on 163 totes... Ranked fourth in the nation and first in the SWC with a passing efficiency of 139.2... Forced to sit out sophomore season after transferring from UCLA... Saw limited duty as a freshman at UCLA after being redshirted for one year, running twice for 11 yards... Majored in electrical engineering and business and earned a bachelor's degree in business.

PERSONAL: Married to Teri, couple has two daughters, Sydni Brook (8/30/95) and Cortni Paige (1/6/97)... Also an outstanding baseball player, was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays out of high school... Also drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1992 while playing outfielder on the Rice baseball team... Lettered three times on the diamond for Rice and batted .313 in 1993 with eight stolen bases in 10 tries... Starred in three sports at Langham Creek (TX) High School... On the gridiron, was tabbed "the best QB in the Longhorn State" and was a second-team choice to USA Today's All-America team... Averaged 15.4 points and six rebounds per game on the basketball court... Pitched and played centerfield on the baseball squad... Was a National Honor Society member and graduated from Langham Creek with a 3.9 GPA... Father, Ervin, works for NASA... Full name is Bert Tyrone Emanuel, born October 26, 1970 in Kansas City, MO.

College Austin Peay

PRO: Hard-nosed linebacker who is expected to compete for starting strong side spot after serving as primary backup and standout special teamer the past two seasons... Signed with team as an undrafted college free agent from Austin Peay in 1996... In rookie campaign, played in first 15 games before suffering torn anterior cruciate ligament in right knee... Last season, sustained a broken thumb in training camp that forced him to miss a pair of games.

1997: Played in 14 games with five starts at SLB and contributed career-high 29 tackles (17, 12) and a forced fumble to go along with 10 special teams stops... Missed season opener due to a broken right thumb suffered in training camp... In second game back against Minnesota (9/14), was forced into early-game action as a replacement at SLB for injured starter Rufus Porter and delivered with three tackles and a forced fumble of Vikings WR Cris Carter... Started next two games vs. Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28), making four tackles and a special teams stop against the Dolphins and five tackles against the Cardinals... Forced to miss second game of the season due to an infected finger against Detroit (10/12)... Started remaining three games of regular-season in place of injured Porter, beginning with 12/7 contest vs. Green Bay and notched career-high eight tackles the following week at New York Jets (12/14)... Played in both post-season games and had one special teams tackle.

1996: Contributed six stops (4, 2), forced a fumble and recovered another on defense while also posting eight special teams tackles... In 9/22 game versus Seattle, inserted as LLB in place of injured starter Lonnie Marts and responded with four tackles and a forced fumble... Saw only other significant action on defense at Green Bay (10/27), making two stops... Suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in right knee at Minnesota (12/15) and was placed on injured reserve two days later.

COLLEGE: Recorded 17 tackles for losses and five sacks in primarily three seasons on defense at Austin Peay... Moved to SS during senior season after playing OLB the previous year and responded with 87 tackles (49, 38), and one INT... On East roster for 1996 Hula Bowl all-star game... Finished second on team with 59 tackles (33, 26) as OLB during junior campaign despite missing two games due to knee injury... Led team with four sacks and 11 tackles for losses... Began sophomore season as Governors' OLB until a rash of injuries forced shift to QB for the remainder of season... Completed 33 of 71 passes for 431 yards, one TD and four INTs... Also rushed for 287 yards on 106 attempts and three TDs... Played in all 11 games and started seven as a freshman and recorded 57 tackles (36, 21) after shifting from FS to OLB.

NFL 7th Year
How Acquired ... FA, 1998
College West Virginia

PRO: Intelligent, productive veteran who has started at both inside and outside on the Colts' linebacking corps over the past six seasons... Signed by Tampa Bay as a free agent on June 25 and will provide depth and compete for starting strongside LB spot... Has played in 83 career games and started 47, opening every game he's played in since the fifth game of 1994... Career totals include 487 tackles (229, 258), three sacks, two forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, 13 passes defended and one interception... Also started all four of Colts' 1995-96 playoff games and racked up 43 tackles and an interception... Exceeded 100 tackles each season from 1994-96 and missed repeating that feat in 1997 only due to seven-game injury absence (neck).

1997: Racked up 69 tackles despite missing games five through 11 due to a neck injury... Also pitched in with one fumble recovery and one pass defended while starting nine games at middle linebacker... When healthy, made successful transition to the middle after five seasons at LLB (played two games at MLB in 1996)... In first game in new role, at Miami (8/31), came up with six tackles (five solos)... Followed with a team-high 10 stops (six solos) against New England (9/7)... In contest at Buffalo (9/21), combined nine tackles with a fumble recovery, setting up an Indianapolis field goal with that takeaway... Sustained a neck injury against Buffalo that kept him out of the lineup for the next seven contests... Made immediate impact upon return at Detroit (11/23), tying season high with 10 tackles and adding a pass defended... Had eight tackles the following week at New England (11/30) but left game in second quarter due to a neck injury... Returned to action for final three games and added 20 more tackles combined, including nine vs. Miami (12/14) and seven at Minnesota (12/21).

1996: Started a total of 11 games, nine at LLB and two at MLB... Missed a total of five games due to injuries to groin (at Dallas, 9/15; at Buffalo, 10/6; vs. Baltimore, 10/13), knee (vs. Philadelphia, 12/5) and back (at Cincinnati, 12/22)... Also missed majority of Miami (9/23) contest after reaggravating groin injury early in the game... Opened season as starter at LLB and finished with a mark of 102 tackles (53, 49), one sack, two passes defended and a fumble recovery... Kicked off season with 11-tackle effort against Arizona (9/1)... Stung Washington (10/27) with 10 tackles (nine solos) and a sack... Led team with 12 tackles against New York Jets while still manning strongside spot... Switched to MLB vs. N.Y. Jets (11/17) and responded with team-leading 14 tackles... Remained at MLB vs. New England (11/24) and again led team in stops, posting 19, the highest total for a Colt in 1996... In Indy's playoff contest at Pittsburgh (12/29), tallied a dozen tackles and recovered a fumble.

1995: Started 15 games at LLB, missing just one outing (vs. San Diego, 12/17) due to an ankle injury... Ranked third on squad with 145 tackles (68, 77) and added five passes defended, three fumble recoveries, two sacks and an interception... Also contributed six stops on special teams... Turned in double-digit tackle totals in eight games... Had fumble recoveries in consecutive games (at Jets, 9/10 and at Buffalo, 9/17), the first setting up a Colts touchdown... Had one of top career outings at Oakland (10/22), combining 13 tackles (seven solos) with first career interception... Other top performance occurred against Miami (11/26), with season-best 14 tackles and one sack... Also garnered a sack at New Orleans (11/12)... Started all three Indianapolis playoff games at LLB and finished with a combined 31 tackles plus an interception and one stop on special teams... Hauled in pick at San Diego (12/31).

1994: Cracked starting lineup for first time in three-year career, moving into LLB spot after four games... Started final 12 contests in that slot and came up with a career-best 161 tackles (70 solos) to rank second on the team... Also had only two forced fumbles of career and added a fumble recovery, five passes defended and 19 special teams tackles (second on team)... Turned in nine double-digit tackle efforts and was the team leader in stops on four occasions... Amassed 18 tackles in game at N.Y. Jets (10/9)... Forced and recovered a fumble at Cincinnati (11/20)... Finished regular season with 17 tackles vs. Buffalo (1/2).

1993: Played primarily on special teams in second NFL season and paced Colts with 22 kick-coverage stops... Top outing came vs. Miami (9/5) with a season-best four kick-coverage stops... Also served as spot sub at outside LB and had one defensive tackle at Denver (10/3).

1992: As a rookie, was mostly utilized on special teams... Finished third among Colts with 14 special teams tackles... Also subbed at LB and finished with nine tackles on defense... Saw LB action at San Diego (11/1), at Pittsburgh (11/22) and vs. Miami (11/8) and came up with three tackles on each occasion... At Miami (10/25), pitched in with three special teams stops... Drafted by Indianapolis in the 10th round (253rd overall) in 1992.

COLLEGE: Earned four letters at West Virginia and was a starter for his final three seasons... Career collegiate marks include 437 tackles, 16 passes defended, five sacks and two interceptions... As a senior was a Mountaineer team captain and the team leader in tackles with 147 (94, 53)... Also recorded two sacks... Earned honorable mention status on Football News' All-America team as a junior... Also garnered second-team All-East accolades from AP after turning in 141 tackles (91, 50), six passes defended, two sacks and two interceptions... Jumped into starting lineup as a sophomore and immediately posted 100-tackle campaign, finishing with 102 (53, 49)... Was the only true freshman on West Virginia's roster to see action in 1988 as he posted 55 tackles (33, 22)... Majored in sociology and anthropology.

PERSONAL: Married to Leslie, couple resides in Indianapolis with one son, Michael (1/11/95)... Was a prep gridiron star at Southridge High School in Miami, Florida... Was twice chosen as the team's most valuable player and was also an all-city choice... Excelled on the hard-court as well, earning MVP honors for the basketball team... Earned Athletic Director's Honor Roll recognition while at West Virginia... Serves as an Associate Pastor at Victory Christian Center... Full name is Stephen Mitchell Grant, born December 23, 1969 in Miami, Florida.

PRO: Eleventh-year veteran who has served as the anchor of the team's offensive line at left tackle for the last 10 seasons... Perennially regarded as one of the NFC's most dependable and consistent offensive linemen, has missed just nine games and only four due to injury throughout his career... Has started every contest he has played in and enters the 1998 season as the franchise's all-time leader in games played and starts with 151... Only member of the team drafted by the Buccaneers prior to 1990... Ten seasons of continuous service are tied with Steve Wilson (1976-85) for the most in team history.

1997: Started every game for the eighth time in 10-year career... Enjoyed one of best seasons of career as evidenced by his selection as a first alternate on the NFC Pro Bowl squad... Vital component of Buccaneer blocking unit that surrendered the fifth-lowest number of quarterback sacks in a 16-game season (32) and enabled Buccaneer running game to record nine 100+-yard rushing days, including a pair of 200+-yard performances... Contributed to offensive effort that finished season with 1,934 rushing yards, the third highest total in team history and most since 1979 (2,437)... Part of offensive line unit that assisted in holding opponents without a sack in three games... Helped in strong offensive effort vs. Miami (9/21) by providing solid back-side protection of QB Trent Dilfer, who recorded season highs in passing yards (248) and touchdowns (4), while not suffering a sack... Assisted in paving way for season-high 217-yard rushing effort at Green Bay (10/5)... Took part in O-line's best overall performance of season at New York Giants (11/30), helping Buc running backs collect 147 yards and keeping the Giants defense without a sack of Dilfer... In season's final game against Chicago (12/21), provided a clutch goal-line block on Dilfer's seven-yard touchdown scramble... Started both playoff games, helping Buc rushers collect 141 yards vs. Detroit (12/28) and throwing a key block on FB Mike Alstott's third-quarter, six-yard TD run at Green Bay (1/4).

1996: Enjoyed another outstanding season, building on career-long streak of starting every NFL game in which he's played... Did not miss a snap in seven of 13 games played/started... Key part of offensive line that finished the year ranked 12th in the NFL in quarterback sacks allowed (30) and allowed one or fewer QB sacks eight times... Played majority of game at Detroit (9/8) before leaving during fourth quarter with a sprained ligament in right knee... Injury prevented him from playing vs. Denver (9/15), Seattle (9/22) and Detroit (9/29), accounting for three out of four games missed due to injury in nine-year career... Absence at Denver marked end of 41-game successive starts streak... Returned full-force from injury in home victory over Minnesota (10/13) for only game that featured the Bucs' full expected starting offensive line... Provided support that opened doors for Buc running backs to rush for 162 yards in OT edging of Oakland (11/10)... In 11/17 win at San Diego, helped Bucs' offense gain season-best 423 total yards... Started 133rd game at LT in victory over Washington (12/8), passing Richard Wood's Buccaneer career record of 132 games played... Also vs. Redskins, enabled Buccaneer running backs to rush for a season-best 209 yards.

1995: For seventh time in first eight seasons, started all 16 games at LT... Despite playing with shoulder injury, was only offensive or defensive player on roster who did not miss a snap... Helped Bucs average 4.0 yards per rush, the third-best mark in team history... Also was major factor in Errict Rhett becoming only second Buccaneer to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons... Team set club record with 19 rushing touchdowns which tied for third best in NFL... In loss at Green Bay (11/26), provided added significance to return to home state of Wisconsin by starting 118th career game to break Lee Roy Selmon's team record... Part of offensive line that provided blocking when Bucs set team record with 9.0-yard rushing average (16/144) in season finale versus Detroit (12/23).

1994: Was one of seven Bucs (four offensive linemen) to start all 16 games (all at LT)... Enjoyed another standout season and was voted team's Most Valuable Player by area media... For season, permitted just one sack and was flagged for holding on just one occasion... Helped Bucs allow a league-low two sacks in season's final six games... Part of offensive line quintet that started last 10 contests together which was first time that had occurred for Bucs in 15 years... With start in loss at Detroit (11/13), became first player in Buccaneer annals to start first 100 games of career... Bucs had three straight games without permitting a sack for first time since 1979 (vs. Seahawks 11/20, Vikings 11/27, Redskins 12/4).

1993: Started 10 games at LT for Buccaneers... Missed season's first five contests, which snapped streak of 80 straight starts, due to contract holdout (signed 10/20)... Started against Green Bay (10/24) just four days after signing... Left Packer game after 12 offensive snaps, thus ending incredible streak of 4,862 consecutive plays (five-plus seasons while under contract) which had begun with first play of rookie season... Did not play against San Francisco (11/14) due to a groin injury, thus signaling first missed game (or play) due to injury in NFL career.

1992: Started all 16 matches for Tampa Bay while not missing a single offensive play... Allowed just 3.5 sacks all season... Honors included AP second team All-Pro and NEA first team All-Pro... Was only lineman to stay in game when, for season's first three contests, team utilized a two-line platoon.

1991: Was team's starter at LT for all 16 games while not missing any offensive plays.

1990: As usual, started in every game at left tackle without missing a snap... Honors included Football News first team All-NFC, and second team All-Pro by The National and College and Pro Football Newsweekly... Partially blocked a FG attempt by Minnesota's Donald Igwebuike in overtime to help Bucs win 23-20 (9/30)... Had amazing streak of 35 games without a holding penalty (last one allowed vs. Colts 10/16/88) snapped against Saints (11/11).

1989: Started all 16 games at LT, did not miss an offensive snap and was not flagged for holding in team's 1,025 offensive plays... Post-season recognition included first team All-NFC from UPI and All-Pro honors from the New York Daily News.

1988: Despite not signing until three weeks into training camp (8/7), was impressive enough to become first rookie left tackle starter in team history... Started all 16 games and was a first team All-Rookie selection by Pro Football Weekly... Helped team improve rushing attack by over 18 yards per game... Drafted by Buccaneers in first round (4th overall, 1st offensive lineman) in 1988.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed standout four-year career at Wisconsin, starting 32 of 33 games in last three seasons... As a senior co-captain, was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and NEA, and was also an All-Big Ten selection... Was voted Badgers' MVP... Helped Wisconsin average 202.5 rushing yards per game... Recovered fumble in end zone for a TD in game with Illinois... Was UPI second-team All-Big Ten as a junior while starting 12 games at LT... Twice was named team's Player of the Week including game against Indiana when Badgers rolled up 285 rushing yards and 441 total yards... In sophomore season, was named AP and UPI Honorable Mention All-Big Ten... Was also cited as team's Most Improved Player... Started first 10 games before missing Michigan State match due to leg injury... Played in all 12 games as a freshman... Was redshirted as a 1983 incoming freshman... Holds B.A. in communications.

PERSONAL: Married to Brenda, couple resides in Tampa with sons Blake (6/4/89) and Chase (1/3/91), and daughter Ashlyn (7/20/94)... Is actively involved with Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Metropolitan Ministries, Athletes in Action and also directs a football camp for the Police Athletic League... Attended Sauk Prairie High School in Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, lettering in football, basketball and track... Full name is Paul Blake Gruber, born February 24, 1965 in Madison, Wisconsin.

PRO: Versatile performer with outstanding blocking skills who split time at tight end and fullback in rookie season... Expected to make full-time switch to tight end and compete for backup job behind starter Dave Moore.

1997: Began season as backup tight end but was also used extensively at fullback in order to lighten blocking responsibilities on starter Mike Alstott... Played in 14 games and made all three starts from the FB position, finishing season with four receptions for 22 yards and a touchdown and one carry for one yard... Scored first career touchdown in second game of season at Detroit (9/7) after lining up at FB and catching a one-yard toss from QB Trent Dilfer in the end zone... Made first career start at FB when Alstott began game at RB at Green Bay (10/5), contributing to fourth-quarter TD drive with a season-long 13-yard catch out of the backfield... Caught one pass for seven yards in second start at Atlanta (11/9)... Replaced injured Alstott in starting lineup at New York Jets (12/14)... Saw limited post-season action as primarily a blocking fullback in both games.

COLLEGE: Recorded career totals of 24 receptions for 321 yards and one touchdown plus seven rushes for 25 yards in four-year career at Alabama... Played in 47 games with Crimson Tide, starting 26... Played in all 12 games and started 10 at tight end as a senior... Recorded a career-high 12 receptions for 134 yards and one touchdown and ran twice for four yards... Helped Tide defeat Southern Mississippi with a seven-yard TD catch among three receptions for 25 yards... Played in Outback Bowl against Michigan and contributed a 12-yard catch... As a junior, played in all 11 games and earned five starts at fullback... Tallied four receptions for 48 yards and added four carries for 19 yards... Helped Crimson Tide average 145.7 rushing yards per game... Hauled in a 14-yard pass vs. Mississippi State and also pitched in with a key block on Riddle's four-yard TD run as 'Bama prevailed 14-9... Played in 12 games and started all but one at TE as a sophomore, pitching in with six catches for 115 yards and one carry for two yards... Notched a career-long 45-yard catch vs. Southern Mississippi... Set up an Alabama field goal in the SEC Championship Game against Florida with a 14-yard reception... Saw action in every game of freshman campaign and snared two passes for 24 yards... Tallied first career reception on an eight-yarder vs. Arkansas... Majored in business management.

PERSONAL: Single, split past off-season between Tampa and Alabama... Enjoys outdoor activities such as hunting and fishing... Also spends free time playing golf and has an all-around interest in sports... Considered one of nation's top TE prospects as a prep at Brooks High School in Killen, Alabama... Earned all-state accolades while playing TE, LB and RB... Rushed for 660 yards and seven touchdowns as a prep... Full name is Patrick Stephen Hape, born June 6, 1974 in Killen, Alabama.

NFL 1st Year
 How Acquired ... FA, 1996
 College Georgia

PRO: Polished and very sure-handed passcatcher... Has size to stand out among Buc receivers and was extremely productive on the college level... Has spent much of the past two seasons on the Bucs' practice squad but has also been promoted to the active roster on several occasions, though not for enough games to accrue a year of free-agency credit.

1997: Made the team's opening day roster out of training camp and appeared in season-opening win over San Francisco (8/31)... Played on special teams against 49ers, then was inactive for following two games at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14)... Returned to practice squad on 9/18 and remained on that unit until 11/28 when he was again signed to the active roster... Played on special teams in games at N.Y. Giants (11/30) and vs. Green Bay (12/7)... Went back to practice squad for season's last two games and both post-season contests... In total, was on active roster for five games, one too few to accrue a year of free agency credit.

1996: Spent most of the season on Tampa Bay's practice squad... Joined Bucs on 10/16 after spending 10 days on San Francisco's practice squad in September... Went to San Francisco after pre-season waiver by Miami Dolphins... Originally drafted by Miami in the seventh round (251st overall) in 1996.

COLLEGE: Earned four letters and started for three seasons at Georgia, where he finished as the school's all-time leader in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns... Caught 182 passes as a Bulldog for 2,373 yards and 19 touchdowns... Was a two-time All-SEC choice, including first-team honors as a sophomore... Finished second on Georgia squad as a senior, with 44 catches for 574 yards and three touchdowns... Hauled in eight passes for 163 yards and a touchdown against Vanderbilt... Won second-team all-conference accolades as a junior, pulling down 59 receptions for 799 yards and seven touchdowns... Finished season with nine receptions for 104 yards and a score vs. Georgia Tech... Turned in best numbers during sophomore campaign, setting Bulldog single-season records with 76 receptions for 970 yards and nine touchdowns... Placed on SEC's all-conference first team and was named a Sophomore All America by Football News... Grabbed 10 passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns against Southern Mississippi... Played in nine games as a freshman and contributed three receptions for 30 yards... Originally slated to redshirt but was forced into action due to injuries to the Georgia receiving corps... Majored in consumer economics.

PERSONAL: Single, split past off-season between Tampa and Valdosta, Georgia... Has one son, Brice Tyler (3/24/93)... Named to Georgia's all-state team as a prep start at Valdosta (GA) high school... Helped lead team to 24-1-1 in last two seasons... Also lettered in track... Full name is Brice H. Hunter, born April 21, 1974 in Valdosta, Georgia.

5 MICHAEL HUSTED KICKER

Height 6-0
Weight 190
Born 6/16/70

NFL 6th Year
How Acquired ... FA, 1993
College Virginia

PRO: Consistent placekicker who possesses one of the league's strongest kicking legs... Has scored 410 career points and needs just seven more to surpass Donald Igwebuike's 416 on the team's all-time scoring list... Has converted on 122 of 126 point-after attempts... Holds team record for field goals with 96 and needs just 13 more PATs to surpass Igwebuike's career mark of 134... Has recorded five of the 10 longest field goals in team history and is tied with Igwebuike for most FGs of 50+ yards with nine.

1997: Led the team in scoring for fifth consecutive season with 71 points by connecting on 32 of 35 PATs and drilling 13 of 17 FGs (.765)... High and deep kickoffs were instrumental in keeping Buccaneer opponents' average drive starts limited to their own 23.5-yard line, the fourth lowest mark in the league... Total of 24 touchbacks were second-most in league and tops in NFC... Also very active on kickoff coverage, tying for seventh on team with seven tackles... Began season making good on two of three FG attempts (40, 34) to seal tight victory over San Francisco (8/31)... Forced season-high three touchbacks vs. Detroit (10/12)... Put finishing touch on 31-28 victory at Indianapolis (11/2) by drilling a 36-yarder with :08 left to secure the victory... Followed up with strong performance at Atlanta (11/9) the following week by striking season-long 54-yard FG, the second longest of his career, and tying season mark with three touchbacks... Had streak of 10 consecutive FGs snapped at Chicago (11/23)... Hit FGs of 22 and 42 yards and converted both extra point opportunities in Wild Card Game victory over Detroit (12/28)... At Green Bay (1/4) the following week, had 43-yard FG attempt blocked and another from 38 yards out aborted after snap sailed over holder's head.

1996: Served as Bucs' placekicker and handled kickoff duties in all 16 games... Led team in scoring for fourth consecutive season with total of 93 points, connecting on a career-high and team-record 25 of 32 FG opportunities (.781) while also drilling 18 of 19 PATs... Total of 93 points ranks fifth on Bucs' all-time single season scoring list... 78.1% FG conversion percentage set a new career mark... High-hanging kickoffs helped unit pace the league in opponent average drive start allowed (22.3) for second consecutive season... Also achieved third-place ranking in opponent kick return average (19.1)... Set new team record for consecutive FGs made with 16 (dating back to 1995)... In season's third game at Denver (9/15), nailed both PATs and converted all three FG attempts (24, 35 and 28), surpassing Steve Christie's team record for consecutive FGs (11) in the process... In 24-13 victory over Minnesota (10/13), misfired wide right on first FG attempt from 31 yards, thereby ending consecutive FG streak at 16... In same game, came back to ice the Buc win in final minute of play with a 35-yarder... The next week at Arizona (10/20), had career-long streak of converting every extra point attempt halted at 78 when S Matt Darby blocked the only Buc PAT try... Hit two of three FGs in week 10 contest versus Oakland (11/10), including a game-winning 23-yarder in overtime (fourth OT game-winner of career) to clinch 20-17 victory... Had one of best days in four-year career the following week at San Diego (11/17), drilling a season-high four of five FG attempts (33, 29, 27 and 19) and converting only PAT attempt... Four FGs and 13 points tied career marks (vs. Cincinnati, 10/8/95)... Made first 50-yard FG of season in final game versus Chicago (12/22).

1995: Was Tampa Bay's placekicker for all 16 games... Led team with 82 points on 19 of 26 FGs and 25 of 25 PATs... Made three game-winning field goals in either overtime or final minute of regulation, a feat achieved only once in team annals (Donald Igwebuike in 1988)... Largely responsible for Bucs' league-leading rank in opponent average kickoff drive start (24.2)... In Cincinnati contest (10/8), was team's Player of the Game after converting game-winning 53-yard field goal with 29 seconds to play that tied for third-longest of career... In very next game, again produced game-winner with 51-yard field goal in overtime that defeated Vikings 20-17 (10/15)... That marked just the sixth 50+-yard overtime FG in NFL history and the second longest ever in OT (Colts' Mike Cofer, 52 vs. Jets 9/10/95)... Thus became first Buccaneer to hit 50-yard FGs in consecutive games in 10 years (Igwebuike 11/3, 11/10/85)... In OT victory over Green Bay (12/10), scored winning points on 47-yard FG with 11:14 remaining after tying game with 38-yarder in fourth quarter... Converted 50-yard field goal in game at Chicago (12/17).

1994: For second straight season, was Bucs' kicker in all 16 games... Ranked third in the NFC with 23 field goals, tying Steve Christie's 1990 club record (later broke mark in 1996)... Overall, connected on 23 of team-record 35 FG attempts and 20/20 PATs for 89 points... Also finished seventh on team in special teams tackles with five (4, 1)... In opener at Chicago (9/4), had season-high (later tied) four FG attempts and hit on season-best three FGs (31, 49, 30 yds., missed from 54)... Also had three FGs (20, 41, 34 yds.) on four tries at Detroit (11/13)... Got first game-winning kick of NFL career with 22-yarder in overtime of 20-17 victory at Minnesota (11/27)... Had 53-yard FG in that Redskin game which ranks as fourth-longest of career (later tied) and second longest in NFC in '94... First block of NFL career came on 36-yard try versus Rams (12/11).

1993: Signed by Bucs as undrafted free agent (5/3)... Won four-man training camp battle for job... Kicked in all 16 contests and converted 16 of 22 FGs (72.7%) and 27/27 PATs for 75 points... Earned spot on Football Digest's All-Rookie team... Tied team record with three FGs of 50+ yards (on five attempts) and was 10/11 from inside the 40... Had outstanding total of 25 touchbacks to rank third in the league after Bucs had just five TBs in previous season... In victory over Lions (10/3), kicked field goals of 52 and 46 yards, and drove all five kickoffs into end zone including four touchbacks... Was accurate on three-pointers from 54, 26 and 21 yards and drilled five of six KOs into end zone in win over Vikings (11/21)... That 54-yarder tied longest ever kicked at Houlihan's Stadium (Steve Christie vs. Detroit, 9/23/90)... Against Raiders (12/19), set franchise record with 57-yard FG.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons at Virginia, finishing with 148 points on 24/33 FGs and 76/81 PATs... Was 21/23 on FG tries from inside 40 yards... As a senior, finished fifth in Atlantic Coast Conference with team-leading 74 points on 13/16 FGs and 35/40 PATs... In junior season, played all 11 games and had 72 points on 11/17 FGs and 39/39 PATs... Point total ranked third in ACC... Served as Cavs' kickoff specialist as a sophomore for team that scored an ACC-record 442 points... Did not play in the first three games of freshman season and took over kickoff chores fulltime in fifth game... Got extra season of eligibility after not seeing any action as a 1988 walk-on... Holds B.A. in sociology.

PERSONAL: Single, lives year-round in Tampa... One of the team's most community-minded players, has been very active on a personal basis with The Tampa Children's Home and Big Brothers/Big Sisters... Also has Michael Husted's Kick for Kids which raises money for area charities... Attended Hampton (Va.) High School, lettering in football, soccer, swimming and baseball... Was an all-state selection as a kicker... Was MVP of soccer team and an all-district choice... Full name is Michael James Husted, born June 16, 1970 in El Paso, Texas.

PRO: Extremely powerful pass rusher who combines unusual mix of size and speed... Expected to make move from defensive tackle to end this season after battling through injuries to both ankles in 1997 that limited his impact... As a rookie first round selection in '96, played in all 16 games and started three mid-season contests.

1997: Played in six games, with one start, and contributed one tackle and a pass defended while playing majority of season with bone chips in both ankles... Saw action in six of first nine games before being declared inactive for the season's remaining seven games... Posted lone tackle of season vs. Miami (9/21) after starting in place of injured starter Warren Sapp... In last action of season at Indianapolis (11/2), recorded only other defensive statistic with a pass defended... Placed on injured reserve on 12/23 prior to Wild Card game vs. Detroit.

1996: Saw substantial action in first 16 contests of NFL career, equaling fellow rookie first-round draft pick Regan Upshaw's tackle total with 25 (17, 8)... Recorded three stops for loss, a pass bat-down and one sack... Served as starting LDT in contests against Green Bay (10/27), Chicago (11/3) and Oakland (11/10)... Made strong NFL debut, tallying season-high five stops in first game against Green Bay (9/1)... Registered four tackles as sub for both DT positions at Denver (9/15)... Had first career start and recorded four tackles at Green Bay (10/27)... Made first career sack as team's starting LDT in overtime conquest of Oakland (11/10), taking down QB Jeff Hostetler for a six-yard loss on the Raiders' opening series... Drafted by Buccaneers with second of two first-round picks (selected with pick obtained from Indianapolis in 1995 Craig Erickson trade) in 1996 (22nd overall).

COLLEGE: Played three seasons at DT and one (junior) at DE... Four-year statistics showed 222 tackles (132, 90), 24 sacks, 17 passes defended, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery... In four bowl games, added 19 tackles (12, 7), two sacks and a pass defended... Broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks (21)... As a senior, was first UNC consensus first team All-America in 12 years (DE William Fuller, 1983) and was only Atlantic Coast Conference player to accomplish that in '95... Was also ACC Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC choice... First Tar Heel since Lawrence Taylor (1980) to be named conference player of the year and first UNC player since Natrone Means (1991-92) to earn back-to-back first-team All-ACC accolades... Also was semi-finalist for Lombardi Trophy... Ended up with career-best 94 tackles (53, 41) plus seven sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery... In junior campaign, came up with 62 tackles (39, 23), 7.5 sacks (second in ACC) and nine passes defended in only season at defensive end... Honors included first-team All-ACC thus becoming first UNC defensive lineman so honored in seven years (Carlton Bailey, Tim Goad in 1987)... Was voted team's Most Valuable Defensive Player... In sophomore season, contributed 50 tackles (30, 20), 8.5 sacks and five pass breakups... Was selected as second-team All-ACC... Sack total was best by a UNC player in 12 years (William Fuller's nine in 1981)... Played as a true freshman, notching 16 tackles (10, 6) and a sack... Majored in communications.

PRO: Solid pass-catching and blocking tight end who had immediate rookie season impact as a sixth-round pick by Minnesota in 1994 draft... Signed with Buccaneers as a free agent on 12/9/97 after being released by the Vikings on 9/22... Has played in 44 career games with 28 starts in four league seasons.

1997: Played in final two regular season games after signing with team on 12/9... Brought in as late-season addition in order to provide depth at tight end after starter Jackie Harris underwent surgery to repair a hernia... Saw first action of season the following week at New York Jets (12/14) when he entered game on punt team, marking the first time the number 48 has been worn in a regular-season game in Buccaneer history... In season finale vs. Chicago (12/21) caught lone pass reception for no gain... Declared a pre-game inactive in both playoff games.

1996: Led all Vikings tight ends in receptions with 19 for 128 yards as the team's primary starter for most of the season... Saw action in 13 games with nine starts in addition to playing in lone playoff contest... Hauled in season-high three catches for 21 yards against Green Bay on 9/22, then matched it on 10/13 at Tampa Bay (23 yards) and once again at Seattle on 11/10 (18 yards)... Also scored second career two-point conversion in that Seahawks game... Was deactivated for the following week's game against Denver (11/24), then also for 12/8 contest at Detroit and 12/22 game at Green Bay... Posted one catch for 10 yards in playoff game at Dallas (12/28).

1995: Started seven of 13 games played, paced all Viking tight ends with 27 receptions for 185 yards and scored only two touchdowns of career... Hauled in first career touchdown pass in season opener versus Chicago (9/3) on an 11-yard first-quarter pass from QB Warren Moon... Posted season highs in receptions with four versus Dallas (9/17) and again against Green Bay (10/22)... Scored second touchdown against Green Bay (11/6) on a three-yard throw in the first quarter... Incurred ankle injury in game against Bucs on 12/3 and missed the season's remaining three games.

1994: As a rookie sixth-round selection, had banner inaugural season, starting 12 of 16 games and Minnesota's lone playoff appearance... Led all NFL rookie tight ends in receptions with 35 for 336 yards... Caught most passes by a Vikings rookie since Sammy White's 51 in 1976 and the fourth-most in team history... Posted a career high five catches in contests versus Tampa Bay (10/30) and New England (11/13)... In that New England contest, also established career mark for receiving yards with 57 and long reception with a 25-yard connection... Scored two point conversion in game against Chicago (12/1)... In playoff game vs. Bears (1/1), recorded four receptions for 35 yards, including a long of 16... Earned consensus all-rookie team honors from Pro Football Weekly/Professional Football Writer's Association, Football News, and College and Pro Football Newsweekly.

COLLEGE: Played final two seasons at Western Carolina after transferring over from North Greenville Junior College... In two seasons with the Catamounts, snagged 21 balls for 227 yards and four TDs while serving as primarily a blocker... Received first-team All-Southern Conference honors as a senior... In two seasons at NGJC, had three catches for 123 yards and two TDs... Graduated from Western Carolina with a degree in criminal justice.

PRO: Strong cover man who saw majority of playing time as nickel back during 1997 season... Continued to be a hard-hitting member of Bucs special teams squad, finishing second on team in tackles with 14... Played in all 16 regular season games and both post-season contests, making first start of Buccaneer career against Arizona (9/28).

1997: Provided depth for Bucs secondary, serving as primary backup to starting RCB Anthony Parker... Recorded 32 tackles (16 solo) in that role... Also broke up three passes, forced a fumble and recorded second interception of career in 1997... In season opener against San Francisco (8/31), filled in at RCB when Parker left game with hamstring injury and intercepted a Steve Young pass in fourth quarter... Saw extensive action as sub at Detroit (9/7), tying Pro Bowl LB Hardy Nickerson for team lead in tackles with seven (four solo)... Contributed heavily following week at Minnesota (9/14) by recording three solo tackles, nearly intercepting a pass intended for WR Cris Carter and forcing RB David Palmer to fumble... Made first start in two seasons as a Buccaneer during victory over Arizona (9/28) when Parker sat out with a strained hamstring... Had strong outing against Cardinals, finishing third on team in tackles with a personal-best 10 (seven solo) and leading team in passes defended with two... Finished year second in special teams tackles with 14, while adding one stop in post-season play... Key part of kick-coverage unit that ranked fourth in NFL in average opponent drive start after kickoff (23.5).

1996: Appeared in 15 games, missing only action of season after being placed on inactive list for week five contest versus Detroit (9/29) due to a hamstring injury... Paced Bucs' special teams with a career-best 19 stops (17, 2) while also serving as team's primary nickel back in passing situations, recording four solo tackles in that role... Key member of punt-coverage team that allowed opponents an average of 6.5 yards per return (third-best in league)... Also stood out on kickoff coverage unit as Bucs finished first in NFL in average opponent drive start (22.3)... Had rare four-tackle special teams performance not once but twice (vs. Green Bay, 9/1; at Minnesota, 12/15)... Also had two kick-coverage tackles vs. Chicago (11/3), then matched that feat two weeks later at San Diego (11/17).

1995: Saw action in all 16 games for New Orleans, with two starts as an extra defensive back... Statistics included 41 tackles (36, 5), one interception, five passes defended and one sack... Also ranked fifth on club with eight special teams tackles... Started as extra defensive back against Falcons' (9/17) run-and-shoot and contributed four tackles... Posted five tackles plus a special teams hit in game against Philadelphia (10/1)... Won game ball in victory at New England (12/3) with three special teams tackles plus four total stops on defense... Got second start of season, again as extra defensive back against Atlanta (12/10), and registered eight tackles... Recorded first career interception with a 43-yard return plus a six-yard punt return in season-ending 12-0 shutout of New York Jets (12/24).

1994: For Saints, played in 15 games with pair of starts and ended up with 32 tackles (30, 2), two passes defended, a sack and a forced fumble... Also was fourth among Saints with eight special teams tackles... Amazingly, won both defensive and special teams game balls in win over Giants (10/2)... In that contest, had four tackles and a sack on defense plus three ST hits... Missed only game of season versus Rams (10/23) due to sprained ankle suffered the previous week... Racked up nine tackles (all solos) in win over Atlanta Falcons (11/13)... Was awarded defensive game ball with six tackles in victory over Los Angeles Rams (12/4).

1993: Appeared in 14 games with one start... Tallied nine solos on defense... Led team with 10 special teams tackles... Had five tackles during first career start in season-opener as part of six-DB set versus Houston (9/5)... Missed San Francisco (11/22) and Minnesota (11/28) games after suffering separated shoulder in practice... Posted season-best three special teams hits against Cincinnati (1/2/94).

1992: As a rookie, appeared in eight games, exclusively on special teams... Had two ST hits... Played in season's first eight contests before incurring hamstring strain against Tampa Bay (11/1)... Suffered injury while making a punt coverage tackle against Bucs... Was placed on injured reserve two days later (11/3) and remained there for rest of season... Drafted by Saints in third round (72nd overall) with pick obtained from Tampa Bay in 1992 in a swap of third-round draft picks.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons for Nebraska plus one for Cornhuskers' junior varsity... Appeared in all 36 games during three varsity campaigns... Three-year totals as NU cornerback included 81 tackles (42, 39), four interceptions, three forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and 11 passes defended... As a senior, had career-best 45 tackles (24, 21), team-best nine passes defended and an interception... Started all 11 games at RCB... Honors included All-Big Eight by AP and league coaches... In junior year, totaled 22 tackles (11, 11), three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and pair of interceptions... Split time in starting lineup, opening five contests at cornerback... Came up with picks in games against Oregon State and Missouri... Saw action at both LCB and RCB... In sophomore season, contributed 14 tackles (7, 7) and one pickoff... Played for NU's J.V. team as a freshman and averaged 40.2 yards on kickoffs to go with two interceptions and nine tackles (8, 1)... Majored in speech communication.

PERSONAL: Married to Reginene, couple lives in Kenner, Louisiana... Is very active with the Fellowship Foundation... Hobbies include fishing and bowling... Attended Spring Valley High School in Columbia, South Carolina, lettering in football, track and basketball... Played CB and RB in high school, earning all-area honors on defense as a junior and the same accolades on offense as a senior... Full name is Tyrone Christopher Legette, born February 15, 1970 in Columbia, South Carolina.

PRO: Executed perhaps the best season of five-year professional career, establishing himself as one of the hardest-hitting safeties in the league... Moved into elite level in NFL at his position with first Pro Bowl appearance... One of five Buccaneer players to be named to FOX Sports Commentator John Madden's "All Madden Team"... Extended consecutive-starts streak to 30 after earning the starting job three games into the 1996 season.

1997: Tough player who started every regular and post-season game at strong safety for Bucs... Finished season third on team in tackles with 154 (75, 79), trailing only Pro Bowl linebackers Hardy Nickerson (194) and Derrick Brooks (182) in that category... Also added 12 stops (7, 5) and broke up three passes in post-season play... Outstanding regular-season tackle total marked his career best and the most ever recorded by a Buccaneer defensive back... Paced all defensive backs in stops in 10 games and led entire defense in tackles during four of those contests... Recorded nine double-digit tackle days and matched or surpassed his previous single-game career mark of 13 on four different occasions (vs. Arizona 9/28, vs. Minnesota 10/26, at Indianapolis 11/9, at Chicago 11/23)... Added two interceptions, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and four passes defended in regular-season play... During victory at Minnesota (9/14), recovered fumble when WR Cris Carter coughed up ball on Bucs' 35-yard line... Recovery set stage for RB Warrick Dunn's 52-yard TD run on the following series... During outstanding performance against Arizona (9/28), led team with 13 tackles, broke up one QB Kent Graham pass and intercepted another... Interception came on the Arizona 35-yard line in fourth quarter when Bucs trailed 18-12, and paved way for WR Karl Williams' game-winning, 31-yard TD catch on the next series... Tied Brooks for team lead in tackles with 12 against Detroit (10/12) and teamed up with the LB to stop RB Barry Sanders' TD attempt by recovering his fumble on the Bucs' two-yard line... In home win over New England (11/16), led all DBs and tied Nickerson for team lead in tackles with 10 while serving as anchor of secondary that helped prevent Patriots offense from getting a first down until the third quarter... Led DBs in tackles with 15 at Chicago (11/23), marking his career-best single-game performance... Against Green Bay (12/7), led all DBs with 12 stops, forced a fumble, broke up a pass and returned an interception for a career-long 28 yards... Both Packer turnovers caused by Lynch resulted in Buccaneer field goals... During post-season action at Green Bay (1/4), notched four tackles and broke up two Brett Favre passes before leaving game in third quarter with knee sprain... Hit Favre's arm during a pass intended for WR Robert Brooks that was picked off by fellow DB Donnie Abraham.

1996: Started season as Todd Scott's backup at SS but quickly moved into starting lineup by the third game of year due to a season-ending injury to Scott... Made most of opportunity by posting breakthrough season, starting 14 of 16 games... Led all Buc defensive backs in tackles with 103 (74, 29) while also matching personal best of three interceptions set in 1995... One of two Buc defenders (LB Hardy Nickerson) to record a mark in each defensive category kept by team, adding a sack, four tackles for loss, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and nine passes defended... Despite not starting season-opener versus Green Bay (9/1), finished game with seven tackles... Received first start of season in third game at Denver and turned in five tackles... Dashed 40 yards on a direct-snap fake punt to set up a touchdown vs. Seattle (9/22)... Recorded first career sack along with five solo stops in Arizona contest (10/20)... Posted eight stops, an interception and a team-high three passes defended in second Green Bay game (10/27)... The following week at Chicago (11/3), set season high with 10 tackles... Led team with five solo takedowns and set up Bucs' game-winning touchdown by posting second interception of the season and returning it for 25 yards at San Diego (11/17)... Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week (career first) after being credited with five tackles, an interception, a pass defended, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble in Tampa Bay's victory over New Orleans (11/24).

1995: Enjoyed strong season but was slowed by various injuries... Played in nine games with six starts at SS... Ranked ninth on team with 47 tackles (37, 10), was second with three interceptions and also added five passes defended... Began season alternating games as starter at SS with Barney Bussey... Suffered ankle sprain in home-opener versus Bears (9/17) and was inactive for following two games versus Redskins (9/24) and Panthers (10/1)... In win over Cincinnati (10/8), played most of second half following groin injury to Bussey and posted first career interception to set up game-tying FG... Had finest game of season in 20-17 OT victory over Vikings (10/15) with 11 tackles plus pair of interceptions off QB Warren Moon... Played just first two plays at Detroit (11/12) before incurring partially torn knee ligament... Missed next three games before returning to start in 13-10 OT win over Packers (12/10)... Re-injured knee in that Green Bay contest and diagnosed with torn posterior cruciate ligament... Was subsequently placed on injured reserve (12/12) and missed season's final two games.

1994: Appeared in all 16 games for Tampa Bay as reserve safety, and special teamer... Ended up with 15 tackles (11, 4) while also ranking second on club with eight special teams tackles... Playing LB and FS, was credited with pair of solos at San Francisco (10/23)... Contributed season-best four solos plus a special teams hit at Detroit (11/13)... Returned Tony Zendejas' blocked field goal attempt 27 yards to set up clinching touchdown in victory over Rams (12/11).

1993: As a rookie, saw action in 15 games with four starts... Finished with 13 tackles (8, 5) plus six stops on special teams, two passes defended and a forced fumble... Started in first NFL regular-season game and had two tackles against Kansas City (9/5)... In 27-10 triumph over Detroit (10/3), started as extra LB and notched four tackles and pair of pass breakups... Started back-to-back games at strong safety against 49ers (11/14) and Vikings

(11/21), posting season-best seven tackles versus San Francisco... Drafted by Buccaneers in third round (82nd overall) in 1992.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons at Stanford, including two at quarterback and two at safety... As a QB, completed 17 of 39 passes (43.6%) for 229 yards with three interceptions and rushed 29 times for 53 yards... As a DB, had 95 tackles (50, 45), four interceptions, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and a sack... As a senior starter, was named Football News second-team All-America and first-team All-PAC 10... Also earned berths in Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl... Led team with 76 tackles (37, 39) to go with four interceptions and pair of forced fumbles... Was Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week in 33-16 victory over Notre Dame with nine tackles, a pass interception and a key forced fumble on Jerome Bettis... In junior season, played in ten games with two starts totaling 19 tackles (13, 6)... Appeared in five contests as a sophomore quarterback, connecting on ten of 25 passes (40%) for 184 yards and two pick-offs... Played in three games as a freshman and was seven of 14 (50%) for 45 yards... Majored in communications.

College Wisconsin

PRO: Intense young player who saw significant increase in playing time during second year as pro... Played in 10 regular season and both playoff games for Buccaneers, contributing on special teams and as backup DT... Provided depth at defensive line and is expected to grow in that role in '98.

1997: In regular season, saw limited action as reserve DT in eight of 10 games played and subbed at that spot during both post-season contests... Registered three tackles, recovered a fumble and notched first QB sack of career... Tackles came at Atlanta (11/9), Chicago (11/23) and New York Jets (12/14)... Contributed on special teams during each game and finished season with one tackle... After spending first three games on team's inactive list, made first appearance of year against Miami (9/21) as backup to starting NT Brad Culpepper... Made one special teams stop against Dolphins and partially blocked a third-quarter field goal attempt, giving the Bucs possession on their own 37-yard line and helping set stage for QB Trent Dilfer's TD pass to WR Reidel Anthony on following series... In victory over Atlanta (11/9), subbed at DT and recorded first sack of career during second quarter, a takedown that helped put Bucs in position to score a 54-yard FG with nine seconds left in half... Against New England (11/16), recovered loose ball after DT Warren Sapp sacked Drew Bledsoe and forced a fumble.

1996: Finished with two tackles and one forced fumble... Saw action as sub at DT and on special teams during games against Detroit (9/8 and 9/29), Green Bay (10/27), Chicago (11/3) and Oakland (11/10)... In OT victory vs. Oakland, brought down scrambling QB Jeff Hostetler and forced a fumble on same play... Drafted by the Bucs in the fifth round in 1996 (140th overall).

COLLEGE: Played four seasons at Wisconsin totaling 170 tackles (104, 66) and five passes defended... In senior season, racked up career-best 80 tackles (50, 30), four sacks and four pass breakups... Was second-team All-Big 10 by the coaches and Honorable Mention by the media... Had nine hits plus a sack against both SMU and Penn State... Was second-team All-Big Ten and first-team All-Academic as a junior nose tackle... Tallied 76 tackles (47, 29) and pair of sacks... In season-opener versus Eastern Michigan, had eight tackles, a sack and a fumble recovery as Badgers limited EMU to 33 rushing yards on 35 carries... As a sophomore, was Big Ten All-Academic selection... Played in Rose Bowl... Received a medical redshirt for "true" sophomore season due to knee injury suffered in fall practice... In freshman campaign, played in seven games and recorded eight tackles (2, 6)... Majored in marketing.

PERSONAL: Single, lives year-round in St. Petersburg... Did not speak any English until move to United States from Poland at age 11... Never touched an American football until seventh grade... Hobbies include fishing, golf and computers... Attended Wisconsin Dells (Wis.) High School, lettering in football, track and wrestling... Was first team all-state selection on both offense and defense... Also was two-time state high school wrestling champion... Full name is Jason Zbigniew Maniecki, born August 15, 1972 in Rabka, Poland.

College South Carolina State

PRO: Shifty wide receiver who made impact as kick and punt returner in 1996 after beginning the season on the Buccaneers' practice squad... Missed 1997 season on injured reserve but, after undergoing re-constructive surgery on his right knee in September, is fully recovered and expected to vie for backup WR position in 1998.

1997: Spent entire season on injured reserve after suffering knee injury while returning a punt during Bucs' pre-season victory over Miami (8/15)... Underwent reconstructive surgery for torn anterior cruciate and medial cruciate ligaments in right knee in September... Before injury, spent '97 training camp returning punts and competing for fifth receiver spot on Bucs roster.

1996: Played in five games after being signed from team's practice squad on 11/9...

Finished season as Bucs' third-leading punt (13 for 95 yards) and kickoff (12 for 264 yards) returner... Also added two receptions for 27 yards... In first career action, against Oakland (11/10), returned four kickoffs 79 yards and four punts 24 yards while also snatching first career reception... Recorded personal bests with 29-yard punt return and 37-yard kickoff return against San Diego (11/17).

COLLEGE: Started every game at QB during final three seasons at South Carolina State... Completed 187 of 420 passes during career for 3,257 yards, 37 touchdowns and 25 interceptions... Also rushed for 2,220 yards and 26 TDs on 380 carries, averaging 5.8 yards per tote... Named MEAC Offensive Player of the Year as a senior while leading Bulldogs to a 10-2 record and a Heritage Bowl victory over Grambling... Weight 304
Born 2/9/71

NFL 5th Year
How Acquired ... UFA, 1998
College Texas A&M

PRO: Experienced and sizeable lineman who will look to provide depth at Bucs' tackle slots... Has shown versatility by starting at both tackle spots during first four years of career... In four seasons with Indianapolis (1994-97), appeared in 58 games and started 31... Missed only one start from 1995-96 and also opened the Colts' four playoff contests in that span.

1997: Played in all 16 games as a reserve lineman and special teamer... Extended string of consecutive games played to 53... Saw limited offensive line action in two of Colts' first three games, at Miami (8/31) and vs. Seattle (9/14)... Garnered most extensive playing time of season vs. N.Y. Jets (10/5), replacing an injured Tony Mandarich at RT in the second quarter and playing the remainder of the game... Also subbed in briefly at RT vs. Cincinnati (11/9) and at Detroit (11/23).

1996: Played in all 16 games and started 15, missing only start of '95-96 at Washington (10/27) due to a sprained ankle... During first 11 games, opened all but Redskin contest at RT before switching to LT for final five games... Helped open holes for Colts' 171-yard rushing performance vs. Miami (9/23)... Started Colts' post-season contest at Pittsburgh (12/29) at LT.

1995: Was Colts' starting RT for all 16 games plus both post-season contests... Paved way for RB Marshall Faulk's 1,078-yard season... Helped Colts O-line record top outing against St. Louis (10/1) as the team rushed for 235 yards and three touchdowns and the Rams were held without a sack... Suffered a concussion at Jacksonville (12/10) and was forced to miss second half, but returned to starting lineup the following week vs. San Diego (12/17)... Started all three playoff games as Indianapolis advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

1994: Got into 10 games as a back-up at RT and a special-teamer... Though majority of action was on special teams, did sub for extensive second-half periods at New England (12/11) and vs. Buffalo (12/24)... Drafted by Colts in the third round (67th overall) in 1994.

COLLEGE: Earned three letters and was a two-year starter at Texas A&M... Originally went to Brigham Young as a defensive lineman before transferring after one year... Anchored powerful Aggie offensive line that helped the team average over 225 rushing yards per game in both of his seasons as a starter... Started at RT as a senior and helped A&M roll to SWC championship and berth in the Cotton Bowl... Opened holes for an Aggie rushing game that racked up 234.3 yards per game... Also held down starting RT job as a junior as A&M won the conference title and landed in the Cotton Bowl... Aided rushing game that posted 227.8 yards per contest and possessed a 1,000-yard runner in Greg Hill... Did not open season as the starter after spring conversion from tight end, but earned that spot by the third game... As a sophomore, made successful conversion to tight end and saw extensive action in that role... Used solely in two-TE sets as an extra blocker... Sat out in 1990 as a transfer after spending freshman campaign at BYU... Was on the Cougars' varsity squad but was not awarded a letter... Majored in agricultural economics.

PERSONAL: Married to Kim... The couple resides in Indianapolis... Worked with Indianapolis youth as part of Colts' Gridiron Geography program... Lettered in basketball, football and track at Bridge City (TX) High School... Earned all-district honors as a two-way lineman... Full name is Samuel Jason Mathews, born February 9, 1971 in Orange, Texas.

College Wake Forest

PRO: Strong, intelligent veteran who has spent every season of eight-year NFL career with the Buccaneers... Has not missed a game since being drafted into the league in 1990... Started 104th consecutive game against Minnesota (10/26), setting Tampa Bay's all-time record for continuous starts by breaking previous mark of 103 set by DT Dave Logan (1979-86)... Extended streak of consecutive games played to 128, closing the gap on franchise record of 132 set by LB Richard Wood (1976-84)... Rewarded for diligent efforts with invitation to 1998 Pro Bowl, becoming the first Buccaneer offensive lineman in team history to receive the honor.

1997: Started at C in all 16 regular-season games and two post-season contests, seeing first playoff action of his career... After season, joined seven other Bucs in Hawaii for first Pro Bowl appearance of career... Received the Tampa Sports Club's 1997 Most Valuable Player award, an honor based on Tampa Bay area fan votes... During prime-time victory over Miami (9/21), threw several key blocks that helped rookie RB Warrick Dunn get open for 106 receiving yards, the first 100-yard receiving game recorded by a Buccaneer RB since James Wilder's 106 yards against Cleveland (11/5/89)... At NFC rival Green Bay (10/5), helped clear way for Buc running backs to accumulate season-high 217 rushing yards and two touchdowns on the ground... Started 104th consecutive game against Minnesota (10/26), setting the new all-time team record for consecutive starts... Against New England (11/16), helped QB Trent Dilfer complete 21 of 29 passes and finish fourth consecutive game with no interceptions... In season finale against Chicago (12/21), made key blocks during Dunn's 76-yard run, the longest recorded in franchise history... After starting playoff contest at Green Bay (1/4), left game for parts of the second half due to lower back spasms.

1996: Only member of Bucs' offensive line to start all 16 games... Missed only significant action of season at Detroit (9/8) after leaving game in second half due to a sprained toe suffered in the first quarter... Reached the 100-game career mark against Seattle (9/22)... In 20-17 overtime victory over the Oakland Raiders (11/10), helped Buccaneer offense chew up the clock for a team-record 48:09... In week 14 contest versus Washington (12/8), joined offensive line mates in paving the way for season-best 209-yard rushing performance by Buc running backs.

1995: Was one of five members of Buccaneer offense to start all 16 games... Tampa Bay established club mark with 19 rushing touchdowns which tied for third best in NFL... Actually suggested play on Casey Weldon's fourth quarter game-winning QB sneak in victory at Carolina (10/1)... Broke thumb in three places in practice (10/4) prior to victory over Cincinnati (10/8) but played into fourth-quarter before pain caused removal... In 20-17 OT win over Vikings (10/15), was forced to leave game in second quarter due to thumb but had to come back when replacement Mike Sullivan shifted to RG to fill in for injured Ian Beckles.

1994: Started all 16 games for Bucs... Tampa Bay had same offensive line start for season's final 10 games which was the team's longest such streak since 1979... Bucs allowed NFL-low two sacks over season's last six contests... In win over Washington (12/4), Tampa Bay did not permit a sack for third straight game for the first time in 15 years... Also in that Redskin victory, blocked for Errett Rhett's 192-yard effort as team totaled most rushing yards (213) in six years (225 vs. Lions 11/13/88).

1993: Prior to season, signed offer sheet with New England (3/11) but Buccaneers matched it seven days later... Was Tampa Bay starter in all 16 games at customary center spot despite season-long back pain... Missed fewest plays of any offensive lineman, seeing action on 97% of snaps.

1992: Started 16 contests at center... Allowed just two sacks all season, lowest total among Tampa Bay linemen... Helped offense gain 395 yards against both Packers (9/13) and Lions (9/27).

1991: Won starting center job in training camp following season-ending injury to Randy Grimes... Started all 16 games... In victory over Lions (11/10), blocked for offense that ran for season-best 181 yards (346 overall).

1990: Participated in all 16 games with one start... Was primarily used as third tight end in short yardage situations and as special teamer... Got first NFL start in season-opening win at Detroit (9/9) as Grimes recovered from arm injury... Saw action at center in just one other game, at San Diego (10/28)... Drafted by Buccaneers with their second pick in fourth round (108th overall) in 1990.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons at center for Wake Forest... Was a starter in every game of final three years (33 consecutive games)... As a senior, started all 11 games and earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors... Was also selected to play in East-West Shrine Game... In junior campaign, was Demon Deacons' starter for every game... Leader of offensive line that allowed just 10 sacks in 11 contests... Won starting center job as a sophomore and kept it for all 11 games... Played sparingly as a freshman reserve... Also played on special teams... Was redshirted as incoming 1985 freshman... Holds B.A. in sociology.

PERSONAL: Married to Rachel, couple resides in Tampa with son Joshua (2/3/96) and newborn daughter, Briana (12/12/97)... Hobby is playing golf... Attended Hayfield High School in Alexandria, Virginia, lettering in football and track... Played guard and defensive line in high school and was an all-state selection... Threw shot put and discus for track team... Until age of 12, spent considerable time living in Europe when father was in U.S. Army Corps of Engineers... Mother is from Finland... Full name is Eino Anthony Mayberry, born December 8, 1967 in Wurzburg, West Germany.

How Acquired ... D3a, 1997
College Arizona

PRO: Immense, fluid lineman who brings aggressiveness and strength to Tampa Bay's offense... Demonstrated versatility during rookie campaign by filling in at both right and left guard slots... Made immediate impact on Bucs' offensive line by serving as primary backup at RG slot and eventually earning starting duties during four out of last five games played (including playoffs)... Even during non-starts, was a frequent substitute due to his outstanding drive-blocking abilities... Is expected to step into starting right guard slot in second pro campaign... First-year highlights include selection to Pro Football Weekly's and College & Pro Football Newsweekly's All-Rookie Teams.

1997: During first NFL season, played in all 16 regular-season games and two post-season contests... Started at RG in two regular-season bouts and both playoff games... Also contributed on PAT unit... In rookie debut against San Francisco (8/31), subbed at LG for starter Jim Pyne, then spent majority of season at RG slot... Saw first significant action at Minnesota (9/14), helping clear the way for Buccaneer running backs to rank first in NFC and second in NFL after that game... Served as backup to starting RG Jorge Diaz against Miami (9/21), blocking for every play of a third-quarter series that included four Tampa Bay first downs and a 70-yard march down field resulting in a 22-yard field goal... At Green Bay (10/5), contributed key blocking during fourth-quarter scoring drive that began on the Tampa Bay 10-yard line and concluded with a two-yard touchdown run by RB Warrick Dunn... Against New York Giants (11/30), entered game as backup to Diaz, then ended up playing entire second half at that position when Diaz moved to LG to fill in for Pyne, who left with groin injury... Saw first start of NFL career against Green Bay (12/7) when Diaz again moved to LG slot in place of the injured Pyne... Continued to start at RG when Pyne's injury forced him to miss regular-season finale against Chicago (12/21) and held on to that spot for playoff games against Detroit (12/28) and Green Bay (1/4)... In third quarter against Lions, contributed key block that cleared way for FB Mike Alstott's 31-yard touchdown burst up the middle of the field, a run that stands as the longest in Buccaneer playoff history.

COLLEGE: Started 18 games at LG over two seasons at Arizona... Transferred to Arizona after two seasons as a JuCo standout at Fort Scott (KS) Junior College... As a senior, started 10 games at left guard for Wildcat squad... Credited with 74 knock-down blocks, helping Arizona offense average 173.5 rushing yards per game... Started eight games at LG, including the final five as a junior... In starting lineup at LG for first game as a Wildcat and put on an impressive debut, contributing 10 knock-down blocks as Arizona racked up 475 yards against Pacific... Stood out as two-way lineman at Fort Scott, earning JuCo All-America honors as a sophomore after posting 78 tackles and nine sacks... Majored in criminal justice.

PERSONAL: Single, splits off-season between Tampa and Beaumont, Texas... All-America, all-state and all-conference prep star as a two-way lineman at West Brook High School in Beaumont, Texas... Lettered three times in football and was on Texas Football's "Top 50" list... Full name is Frank Middleton, Jr., born October 25, 1974 in Beaumont, Texas.

PRO: Accomplished veteran whose big-play ability and knack for causing turnovers earned him spot as Bucs' starting free safety midway through 1997 season... Originally signed with Tampa Bay on 10/2/96 after being released by Minnesota on 2/9/96... Has played defense for Head Coach Tony Dungy on three separate occasions (Kansas City Chiefs '91, Vikings '95 and Buccaneers)... Career statistics include 366 tackles (200, 166), 17 interceptions, 37 passes defended, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries.

1997: Played FS in every game and assumed the starting role in season's eighth contest against Minnesota (10/26)... Compiled 62 tackles (26, 36), an interception and eight passes defended during regular season... Eight pass break-ups tied career mark set during 1994 season with Kansas City... Added 15 stops (8, 7) and three passes defended during post-season play, finishing third in tackles behind Pro Bowl linebackers Derrick Brooks and Hardy Nickerson... Also contributed regularly on special teams... Had solid outing during second game of season at Detroit (9/7), contributing five stops, two passes defended and a 14-yard interception return that came on his first defensive play of afternoon... Got first start of year against Minnesota (10/26) after replacing FS Melvin Johnson on depth chart and finished second among DBs in tackles with season-best seven (three solo)... Posted six stops against New England (11/16), and played role in limiting Patriots' offense to 16 total yards in the first half... During outstanding performance against Green Bay (12/7), recorded five tackles, broke up two passes and had string of drive-ending plays in first half... Halted a Packer drive that had reached midfield by notching consecutive pass break-ups with hard hits of WR Robert Brooks, then stopped another by dropping RB Dorsey Levens behind line of scrimmage on third-and-two... Recovered a fumble at New York Jets

(12/14) after fellow DB Anthony Parker intercepted a first-quarter pass then coughed up the ball upon being tackled... Posted five tackles and broke up a pass during playoff victory over Detroit (12/28)... Had another solid performance during Divisional Playoff game at Green Bay (1/4), finishing second on team in stops with 10 (seven solo).

1996: Signed with Tampa Bay on 10/2 but did not play until the last two games of the season... Saw substantial action as a backup in the last two contests and immediately justified big-play reputation, registering nine tackles, one interception and a forced fumble... Replaced the injured John Lynch at strong safety and responded with six tackles and a forced fumble at Minnesota (12/15)... Notched first interception as a Buccaneer, returning the pick 26 yards (a team season-long) in the season finale against Chicago (12/22)... On Inactive List for games six through 14.

1995: Had a solid season playing both the free and strong safety positions for Minnesota Vikings... Signed by the Vikings during the off-season (3/7/95) as unrestricted free agent after spending four seasons with the Chiefs... Saw extensive action, playing in all 16 games and starting nine... Helped the Vikings' defense place second in the league in takeaways (40) under Defensive Coordinator Tony Dungy... Tied for second on the Vikings' squad with three interceptions... Finished seventh on the team with 62 tackles while knocking down 10 passes.

1994: Despite starting in only seven games, led the Chiefs with three interceptions, and ended the season third in passes defended and sixth in tackles... Appeared in all 16 games and completed season with 71 tackles (31, 40)... Helped the Chiefs tie for second in the league in takeaways with 38... Contributed a career-high 13 tackles versus the Rams (9/25).

1993: In just four starts, turned in five interceptions, placing him ninth in the AFC... Was second on team in pickoffs and sixth in tackles (66)... Contributed a key late-fourth-quarter interception to preserve a 17-15 win over Cincinnati (10/20)... Recorded best playoff performance in a win over Houston (1/16/94), accounting for eight tackles and an interception.

1992: Saw most extensive action of eight-year career, starting 16 games at free safety... Posted a career-best in tackles (96), placing him second on the team... Was tied for second among the Chiefs with four interceptions... Became the first Chiefs player since 1986 to score three defensive TDs... Returned his first career NFL interception 25 yards for a touchdown against the Redskins (9/28)... Scored on a 30-yard fumble return versus New England (12/13)... Last score came on a 32-yard lateral return after Bennie Thompson's interception in a playoff clinching win over Denver (12/27).

1991: With a strong pre-season performance, made the Chiefs' final roster as rookie fifth-round draft choice out of the University of Washington but suffered toe and ankle injuries and was placed on injured reserve on 8/30... Missed the entire regular season but was activated to roster in time for playoffs... Appeared in two post-season games, recording two tackles.

COLLEGE: Played two years at the University of Washington after transferring from Pasadena (Ca.) City College... Compiled 68 tackles and three interceptions... In senior season, started every game at LCB, notching 37 tackles (24, 13), one interception, one fumble recovery and three passes defended... Starred in the 1991 Rose Bowl, garnering Player of the Game honors after returning an interception 37 yards for a touchdown in the Huskies' victory over Iowa... Junior totals included 31 tackles (21, 10), two interceptions, four pass defenses and a pair of fumble recoveries... At Pasadena City College, recorded 56 tackles (40, 16) and 12 pass defenses... Majored in African-American Studies at Washington.

PRO: Versatile athlete whose superior blocking abilities and scoring touch provided a welcome boost to team's tight end corps last season... Despite starting 1997 as Jackie Harris' back-up, made most of opportunities and developed into team's most productive TE... Streak of consecutive games played (55) ranks fourth on team, behind C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and PK Michael Husted... Has played all but one of 83 career games with Buccaneers... Is expected to start at TE for Tampa Bay in 1998.

1997: For third consecutive season, did not miss a game... Started six regular-season contests and both playoff bouts at TE while also serving as long snapper for punts during every game... Enjoyed most prolific season of career in terms of scoring touchdowns by matching his previous five-year career total of four on 19 receptions (217 yards) and accounting for all but one of the touchdowns scored by Buc tight ends... Four receiving TDs tied receivers Reidel Anthony and Karl Williams for most on team... Scored Bucs' first touchdown of regular season on one-yard pass from Trent Dilfer early in fourth quarter against San Francisco (8/31)... In match-up with Green Bay (10/5), reeled in a 12-yard pass that brought Bucs down to the Packers' two-yard line and set up Alstott's TD two plays later... Against Minnesota (10/26), saw significant action at TE after starter Jackie Harris left game in first quarter with groin pull... Finished second in receiving yardage with two catches for 35 yards against Vikings, including a career-high 28-yarder that helped set up a Buc TD a few plays later... Had first of five consecutive starting assignments at Indianapolis, 11/2, and gave solid performance, finishing game as team's top receiver with a career-high six catches for 53 yards, a long catch of 27 yards and a touchdown... As starting TE at Atlanta (11/9), caught third TD of season and tied his career mark set in 1996... Reeled in team-high three passes for season-best 55 yards as starting TE at New York Giants (11/30)... Due to neck strain suffered during Green Bay game (12/7), did not play TE at New York Jets (12/14) but still snapped for punts... During season finale against Chicago (12/21), made key block of a would-be tackler during RB Warrick Dunn's franchise-best 76-yard run... During post-season contest at Green Bay, (1/4), started at TE and led receiving corps in yardage with 54 on three catches... Every catch against the Packers (11, 15, and 28 yards) brought Bucs a critical first down, and the 28-yarder set up a Bucs TD a few plays later.

1996: Enjoyed productive season, doubling previous personal bests for receptions (27) and yards (237) in a season... Three touchdown catches were good for fourth on the team's scoring list... Played in every game for second consecutive season, equaling '95 start total of eight... Became valuable contributor on offense in mid-season while filling in as primary TE for injured starter Jackie Harris... Came into Seattle contest (9/22) after Harris injury and ended up with four receptions for 21 yards... Had string of four starts against Arizona (10/20), Green Bay (10/27), Chicago (11/3) and Oakland (11/10)... Caught second career touchdown in Packer contest... Following week against Bears (11/3), set season high marks with five receptions for 62 yards and a touchdown... That 17-yard TD reception in second quarter marked first time in career with scoring catches in consecutive games... Grabbed a season-long 23-yarder among three receptions for 38 yards at San Diego (11/17)... In season finale versus Chicago (12/22), caught third touchdown of season in first quarter on two-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer.

1995: For first time of career, played in all 16 games with eight starts at FB/H-back... Posted 13 receptions for 102 yards... Had previously accumulated a total of just nine catches in three years... Also had one rush for four yards and three special teams tackles (1, 2)... Played H-back for much of season and had only career rush (gained four yards) versus Cincinnati (10/8)... Had two receptions plus two ST tackles at Houston (10/29)... Caught 21-yard pass at Green Bay (11/26), then had three receptions in Packer rematch (12/10).

1994: Played in 15 games with five starts, missing second Chicago game (11/6) due to ankle sprain... All five starts came in season's final six games when Buccaneers opened in double-TE formation... Caught four balls for 57 yards (14.3 avg.) and also had pair of special teams tackles... First catch of season came on 13-yarder versus Detroit (10/2) and first start was in 22-21 loss at Seattle (11/20)... Had season-long 18-yard reception in season finale against Packers (12/24).

1993: Saw action in 15 games and made one start in first full season with Tampa Bay... Totaled four receptions for 47 yards (11.8 avg.) with one score... Added four special teams tackles (3, 1)... Scored first NFL touchdown on 19-yard pass from QB Craig Erickson in 17-10 win at Denver (12/26).

1992: Spent most of rookie campaign bouncing on and off Dolphins' roster... Was waived by Miami on final cutdown (8/31) and signed to practice squad one day later... Was cut from practice squad (9/16) before being re-signed to it the following month (10/21)... Activated to Dolphins' 47-man roster (10/23), played first NFL game against Indianapolis (10/24) and was then waived (10/28)... Was re-signed once more to practice squad (10/28) and was subsequently released (11/18)... Signed to Bucs' practice squad (11/24) and was eventually placed on active roster (12/4)... Played final four games for Bucs with two starts... First NFL reception (and only one of season) came on 10-yard pass from QB Vinny Testaverde in game with 49ers (12/19)... Drafted by Dolphins in seventh round (191st overall) in 1992.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons at Pittsburgh, beginning Panther career as a full-back before sophomore shift to tight end... Pitt statistics included 89 receptions for 1,023 yards (11.5 avg.) with five TDs... Ranked seventh on school's all-time receptions list... Also rushed 17 times for 51 yards and returned three kickoffs for 39 yards... As a senior, honors included AP second-team All-Big East and was also a member of CFA's Scholar-Athlete team... Played in 11 games with 10 starts and contributed career bests in catches (team-leading 51) and yards (505) with one TD... Receptions total came within three of school record held by Bryan Thomas (54 in 1982)... Appeared in all 11 games with four starts as a junior, totaling 32 grabs for 399 yards (12.5 avg.) and career-best three touchdowns... In sophomore campaign, played in all 11 games and earned five starts... Caught six passes for 119 yards (19.8 avg.) with one TD... Played in six games as a freshman fullback and had 15 carries for 46 yards (3.1 avg.)... Holds B.A. in administration of justice.

PERSONAL: Married to Ann Marie, couple lives in Madeira Beach with daughter Halee (4/24/96)... Hobbies include fishing, boating and all water sports... Attended Roxbury High School in Succasunna, New Jersey, lettering in football, basketball, baseball and track... Was a high school All-America as a senior... Full name is David Edward Moore, born November 11, 1969 in Morristown, New Jersey.

PRO: Acquired by Tampa Bay from New York Jets during the off-season in exchange for a fifth-round draft choice... Bruising blocker expected to provide significant backfield help to duo of FB Mike Alstott and RB Warrick Dunn... In four seasons with New Orleans (1993-96) and one with the Jets (1997), has played in 66 games and started 36... Owns career totals of 87 carries for 356 yards and three touchdowns plus 53 receptions for 364 yards and three scores... Is the only player in Saints history to own both a rushing TD and receiving TD of 60 yards or longer... Also owns New Orleans record for highest single-game rushing average (10.8).

1997: Served as the Jets' primary backfield blocker, playing in all 16 games and starting 10 at FB... Opened holes for RB Adrian Murrell, who rushed for 1,088 yards... Started season's first three and last seven contests... Took 10 handoffs for 30 yards and added eight receptions for 38 yards and a touchdown... Tallied all 10 carries and seven of eight receptions in the season's last seven games... Also played extensively on special teams, primarily on kick return and coverage units, and contributed four tackles... Turned first reception of season into a touchdown, catching a five-yard scoring pass against New England (10/19) that provided the winning margin in the Jets' 24-19 decision... Most extensive rushing effort came at Chicago (11/16) where he carried six times for 10 yards... Snared three passes for 19 yards vs. Minnesota (11/23).

1996: Started 11 of 16 contests and posted a career high with 31 receptions for 194 yards and a touchdown... Also ran 21 times for 58 yards and an additional score... Hauled in a career-high six passes for 40 yards and a touchdown at Atlanta (11/17)... Matched reception mark three weeks later in rematch with Falcons (12/8), gaining 19 yards on six catches.

1995: Primarily utilized as a blocker in all 16 games, earning six starts... Carried just five times for three yards but added 12 receptions for 123 yards and a touchdown... Also returned two kickoffs for a total of 28 yards... Contributed two catches for 78 yards and first career receiving touchdown versus New England (12/3), turning a screen pass into a career-long 69-yard score... TD catch vs. Patriots stands as the second-longest reception by a RB in Saints annals and the longest that resulted in a score.

1994: Started seven games at fullback and saw action in all 16 contests... Rushed a career-high 30 times for 90 yards and one touchdown and added two receptions for nine yards... Tallied most of rushing yards at Chicago (10/9), posting 63 yards on 14 carries.

1993: Recorded a career-high 175 yards on 21 carries despite playing in just two games... Averaged 8.3 yards per tote and scored one touchdown... Started first two NFL games at FB before suffering a season-ending broken ankle in the third quarter of the second contest, at Atlanta (9/12)... Placed on injured reserve on 9/15... Led team in rushing in his NFL debut at Houston (9/5), gaining 89 yards on 13 carries... Before injury at Atlanta, exploded for 86 yards on just eight carries, including a 74-yard touchdown jaunt that is tied for the third-longest run in Saints history... Averaged 10.8 yards per carry vs. Falcons, establishing a New Orleans single-game record... Drafted by the Saints in the fourth round (89th overall) in 1993.

COLLEGE: Racked up 2,405 yards and 27 touchdowns on 487 carries to finish as Fresno State's second all-time leading rusher... Also caught 59 passes for 500 yards and a pair of scores... Averaged 4.9 yards per carry and had at least eight rushing touchdowns in all three seasons that he played in Bulldogs' backfield... As a senior, earned spot on All-Big West Conference first team with a career-best 988 yards and 10 touchdowns on 184 carries... Averaged 5.9 yards per tote... Also pitched in with 19 catches for 131 yards and a TD... Opened senior season in style, rushing for a career-high 196 yards on 21 carries (9.3 avg.) against Pacific... Also named to all-conference first team after junior campaign in which he totaled 837 yards and eight touchdowns on 195 carries... Tallied best receiving numbers of college career, hauling in 25 passes for 155 yards and a score... First moved into starting lineup in second game of sophomore season and went on to contribute 580 yards and nine touchdowns on 108 carries and 15 receptions for 214 yards... Posted two 100-yard rushing games... Did not play as a freshman... Also was one of the nation's top wrestlers as a collegian, earning All-America honors as a junior heavyweight... Won the conference heavyweight title as a junior and went on to finish seventh in the NCAA Championship meet... Majored in criminology.

PERSONAL: Very active in community events in both previous NFL stops... Extensive charitable work in New York included involvement with the Move in New York initiative that promotes home ownership among minorities... As a member of the Japan Bowl's West Squad at conclusion of college career, defeated a sumo wrestler in an exhibition match... Selected player of the year as a prep football player at Lemoore High School in Fresno, California... Played both fullback and linebacker... Also won state wrestling title as a senior... Full name is Lorenzo LaVonne Neal, born December 27, 1970 in Hanford, California.

PRO: Three-time Pro Bowler who, year after year, has been considered one of the best middle linebackers in the NFC... With three selections to Pro Bowl (1993, '96 and '97), is one of only four players in franchise history to earn multiple trips... Has owned team's best season tackle mark four out of five years as a Buccaneer... Also owns the top two single-season tackle totals in franchise history, with 214 stops in 1993 and 194 takedowns in 1997... Has posted six consecutive 100+-tackle seasons (1992-97)... In 78-game Buc career, has led or tied for team lead in tackles 51 times and has reached double-digits in stops on 43 occasions... Total of 783 tackles as a Buccaneer ranks second on team's all-time list... Needs just 63 stops in 1998 to become the all-time leading tackler in Buccaneer history... Streak of 58 consecutive starts ranks second-longest on active roster behind C Tony Mayberry's franchise-record of 112... Has played more NFL games (162) than any other member of squad... Spent first six NFL seasons with Pittsburgh (1987-92), where he played under then-Steelers defensive coordinator Tony Dungy in 1987-88.

1997: For third consecutive season, started all 16 games at MLB... Owned the team's top season tackle mark, with 194 stops (108 solo), for fourth time in five-year Tampa Bay career... Led the team in stops during eight contests, tied for the club lead in another and notched double-digit stops in all but four games... Tallied one quarterback sack, broke up two passes, blocked two field goal attempts, forced two fumbles and recovered two more... Also posted 16 stops during post-season play... Earned third invitation to Pro Bowl and started at MLB... Other 1997 honors included being named to the Associated Press All-Pro team, Pro Football Weekly's All-NFC Team, and College & Pro Football Weekly's All-Pro second team... As team's most seasoned linebacker, helped defensive unit finish year ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL against the run, giving up an average of just 101.8 yards per game... Also proved to be key component of the defense that ended the year with the third-best overall rating in the NFL and the top rating in the league inside the 20-yard line, limiting opponents to a 36.8 touchdown percentage inside their own red zone... Recorded lone sack of season, along with seven tackles, in season-opening defeat of San Francisco (8/31)... Registered a team-high 16 tackles in victory over Miami (9/21) and broke up a fourth-quarter Dan Marino pass... During fake field goal attempt by Arizona (9/28), stopped Cardinals LT Eric Swann for no gain and forced him to fumble ball into Bucs' possession... Blocked first field goal attempt of career at Green Bay (10/5), giving Bucs the ball and setting up touchdown run on the next series... Had outstanding effort against Vikings (10/26), leading defense with 20 tackles (14 solo) and surpassing his previous single-game high of 19 (vs. Chicago 12/12/93)... Continued to pace defense at Indianapolis (11/2), leading team in tackles with 16 and forcing a fumble... Against New England (11/16), tied for team lead in tackles with 10 (four solo), broke up a pass and recovered a fumble to set up Bucs' 44-yard field goal... Had stellar performance at Chicago (11/23) with a career-high 22 tackles (17 solo), which set the team's all-time single-game record... During second Packers match-up (12/7), blocked PK Ryan Longwell's 31-yard field goal attempt, his second of the season against Green Bay... Sixteen tackles registered during post-season were second-most on squad.

1996: Capped off another sensational season for Tampa Bay by starting all 16 games and earning second Pro Bowl trip... Along with S John Lynch, recorded marks in every defensive category compiled by team, combining 120 tackles (76, 44) with three sacks, five tackles for loss, two INTs, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and six passes defended... Led Tampa Bay's defense in tackles on six different occasions but finished second on team to fellow LB Derrick Brooks' 133, marking first time in four-year Buc career he did not lead team in that category... Earned team Most Valuable Player honors (as voted on by local media) for third time in four years... In week-four contest versus Seattle (9/22), led Buc defense with nine stops, a pass defended and an interception... Posted seven tackles and recovered a Cris Carter fumble in first Minnesota contest (10/13)... The following week at Arizona (10/20), paced the team again with season-high 10 tackles (later tied)... In overtime 20-17 victory over Oakland (11/10), led team with six defensive stops, a pass defended and a timely interception that ended an Oakland scoring threat on the Buc four-yard line... Matched season high with 10 takedowns and a sack the following week against Washington (12/8)... In that game, recorded 1,000th career tackle on game's third play by sacking Redskin QB Gus Frerotte... Saved most impressive outing for season finale against Chicago (12/22), contributing seven stops, two sacks, a pass defended and a fumble recovery.

1995: Enjoyed usual productive season for Buccaneers, starting all 16 games at MLB... For second time in three seasons, voted by area media as team's Most Valuable Player... Only missed 10 defensive snaps all season (after ejection vs. Packers 11/26)... For fifth straight season and third as a Buccaneer, paced team in total tackles with 143 (89, 54)... That signaled fourth consecutive year with 100+ tackles... Also led team with career highs in both forced fumbles (4) and fumble recoveries (3) while adding 1.5 sacks and five passes defended... In season-opener at Philadelphia (9/3), notched six tackles, a key sack and a pass defended... Had a forced fumble plus 12 tackles at Cleveland (9/10)... Went over 800 career tackles with season-best 13 in 14-6 win over Washington (9/24)... In 20-17 OT victory over Vikings (10/15), recorded 12 tackles and stripped RB Amp Lee of ball with CB Martin Mayhew recovering and returning the ball 78 yards for TD... Suffered broken toe at Detroit (11/12) but did not miss a play and had nine tackles plus a fumble recovery... Matched season-high with 13 stops in nationally-televised 13-10 OT win over Green Bay (12/10).

1994: Started 14 games at MLB for Tampa Bay, missing two contests and most of a third due to ankle sprain... Still led the team in tackles with 122 (86, 36)... Also tied for interception lead (2) and added a sack, two forced fumbles and three passes defended... In triumph over Colts (9/11), was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week following outstanding performance that included 18 tackles and a fourth-down goal line stop... Suffered severe ankle sprain on first play from scrimmage at Green Bay (9/25) and missed subsequent games versus Lions (10/2) and Falcons (10/9)... Notched eight tackles and forced pair of fumbles at San Francisco (10/23)... Got first interception of season with diving pick of Warren Moon aerial versus Vikings (10/30)... Again garnered NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after making 14 tackles and a sack in 20-17 OT win at Minnesota (11/27)... In season finale against Packers (12/24), totaled 10 tackles, had an interception of Brett Favre and made two TD-saving stops on FB Edgar Bennett.

1993: Signed with Tampa Bay as unrestricted free agent (3/18)... Enjoyed one of the finest single-season performances in Buccaneer history... Was the only 1993 free agent to earn AP first-team All-Pro recognition... Was only second Tampa Bay player to ever be so honored (Lee Roy Selmon, 1979)... Chosen first-team All-Pro by The Sporting News... Was also voted as the NFC's starting MLB in the Pro Bowl, thus becoming first Buc since Selmon in 1984 to start in that prestigious event... Was sixth in balloting for AP Defensive Player of the Year... Was unanimous choice as team's MVP... Broke Cecil Johnson's single-season team tackle record (174 in 1981) with an incredible 214 (124, 90)... Posted double-digit tackle total in every game except season finale... Also added an interception, a sack, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and six pass breakups... Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week with ten tackles and an interception at Atlanta (10/31)... Racked up 18 hits in game with Green Bay (11/28), and 19 tackles in 13-10 edging of Bears (12/12)... Had five tackles in a half of action in Pro Bowl.

1992: In final Steeler season, played and started 15 games (missed season-opener vs. Oilers 9/6), ending up with a team-leading 114 tackles (68, 46), two sacks, two fumble recoveries and seven passes defended... Notched 15 tackles versus Green Bay (9/27) and was credited with season-best 16 hits and a fumble recovery against Buffalo

(11/8)... Both season sacks came versus Bengals (10/19, 11/29)... Started in post-season loss to Bills (1/9/93) and contributed seven tackles (6, 1) plus a pass breakup.

1991: Appeared in all 16 games with 14 starts... Statistics featured a team-best 94 tackles (70, 24), a QB drop and a pair of forced fumbles... Only two non-starts came against Oilers (11/24, 12/8) when team opened with extra DBs versus run-and-shoot.

1990: For Steelers, saw action in 16 contests with 14 starts and tied for third on club with 67 tackles (58, 9) plus two sacks, two forced fumbles and three pass breakups... QB drops came against Browns (9/9) and Chargers (10/7).

1989: Got in 10 games with eight starts at LB... Totals showed 35 tackles (26, 9) and a sack... Started first eight games at RLB before suffering fractured ankle in game with Chiefs (10/29)... Was placed on injured reserve (11/3) before eventual activation (12/16) after missing six games... Served as sub for final two regular season contests before starting both playoff games against Houston and Denver... Totaled seven tackles (4, 3) plus two passes defended in post-season action.

1988: Played in 15 games with 10 starts and was second on team with 99 tackles (73, 26) plus a career-best 3.5 sacks, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery... Also had career-best nine special teams tackles... Had first career multi-sack game with two vs. Cincinnati (9/18)... Made first NFL start against Bills (9/25) and notched six tackles and a half-sack... Got first league interception off Boomer Esiason pass in Bengal rematch (11/6).

1987: As a rookie, appeared in all 12 non-strike games with 17 tackles (10, 7)... Served as backup to Robin Cole and had season-high three tackles against both Saints (11/29) and Seahawks (12/6)... Drafted by Steelers in fifth round (122nd overall) in 1987.

COLLEGE: Had four productive seasons as linebacker for California... Statistics included 501 tackles (281, 220), eight interceptions, 4.5 sacks, four forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and seven passes defended... Broke Golden Bears' school tackle record before reaching senior season... Was a second-team All-PAC 10 selection as a senior, registering team-best 132 tackles (61, 71), three interceptions, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries... Was team MVP and a finalist for the Butkus Award, symbolic of the nation's top line-backer... Enjoyed top statistical season as a junior with career-best (and school record) 167 tackles (91, 76), one pass theft, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries... Honors included second-team All-America, first-team All-PAC 10 and team MVP... PRO: Strong, versatile lineman who performs well at both tackle slots... After spending rookie campaign playing both RT and LT, settled in at RT in 1997 and started all 16 games at that position.

1997: Exhibited outstanding pass protection skills during second pro year... Started all 16 games, as well as two post-season contests, at RT... Key part of line that helped Bucs' running game finish year ranked sixth in the NFC... In nationally-televised victory over Miami (9/21), contributed to solid offensive effort that kept the Bucs from punting the entire game, a feat accomplished only one other time in franchise history (11/22/81 at Green Bay)... Against Arizona (9/28), provided protection that allowed QB Trent Dilfer to throw fourth-quarter, game-winning 31-yard TD pass to WR Karl Williams on fourth-and-six... In first match-up at Green Bay (10/5), helped clear path for Buc running backs to accumulate season-high 217 yards on the ground... Helped Dilfer complete five straight games (Minnesota 10/26, Indianapolis 11/2, Atlanta 11/9, New England 11/16 and Chicago 11/23) without throwing an interception... Started in first playoff game of career against Detroit (12/28)... Efforts throughout year helped Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn and FB Mike Alstott enhance their performances and receive selections to the Pro Bowl.

1996: Enjoyed active rookie year, playing in 12 games and starting seven... Saw action at LT in two games and on the right side in seven... Four contests missed (Seattle 9/22, Detroit 9/29, Minnesota 10/13, Arizona 10/20) were due to a knee injury suffered in week before Seahawks game... Made first career start against Broncos in place of injured LT Paul Gruber and helped clear the way for Buc RBs to gain a season-best average of 5.5 yards per carry... Assumed starting RT role after Doug Riesenber was placed on IR following a knee sprain suffered vs. Oakland (11/10), and finished the remaining six games as team's starter in that position... During victory at San Diego (11/17), helped Bucs amass season mark for total yardage (423)... Drafted by the Buccaneers with the first of two fourth-round selections (96th overall) in 1996.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed honor-studded four-year career at Florida... Earned starting spot during freshman season, playing in 49 games with 46 starts... Played LT in final two UF seasons after starting at RT in first two years... Was first back-to-back winner of Southeastern Conference's Jacobs Trophy (symbolic of conference's top blocking lineman) in 13 years (Mississippi State's Wayne Harris, 1981-82)... As a senior, was named first-team All-America by AP, UPI, American Football Coaches Association and Walter Camp... Was also chosen first-team All-SEC... Was one of three finalists for Outland Trophy and was also a semifinalist for Lombardi Trophy... In junior campaign, honors included second-team All-America by Football News, third-team from AP and Honorable Mention from UPI... Was a first-team All-SEC pick by AP and league coaches while also earning mention on All-Academic team... Started in 11 of 13 games, missing Auburn and Georgia contests due to knee injury suffered against LSU... In sophomore season, was voted second-team All-SEC by AP and league coaches while also being selected as an All-Academic pick... Started all 13 games at RT... Along with teammate Reggie Green, was first true freshman to start on Gators' offensive line in 11 years (Lomas Brown, 1981)... Holds B.S. in sports management.

PERSONAL: Married to Linda, couple recently welcomed birth of their first child, daughter Lauren Hannah (6/4/98)... Is active with Metropolitan Ministries and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes... Attended Bartow (Fla.) High School, lettering in football, baseball and basketball... Was first-team All-State and district MVP... Full name is Jason Brian Odom, born March 31, 1974 in Winter Haven, Florida.

PRO: Big-play veteran signed at beginning of 1997 training camp to solidify Bucs' cornerback position... Nine-year NFL career is marked by game-turning plays, including 16 interceptions and seven defensive touchdowns... Tied with Dallas CB Deion Sanders for lead among active players in career defensive touchdowns... Tied for fourth place all-time in that category and stands just three shy of Ken Houston's NFL record of 10... Tampa Bay marks fifth stop of Parker's career, including two seasons in St. Louis (1995-96) and three in Minnesota (1992-94), plus brief stops in Kansas City (1991) and Indianapolis (1989)... Also played in World League in 1991... Owns 345 career tackles, seven fumble recoveries, 53 passes defended and 42 punt returns for 400 yards (9.5 avg.).

1997: Played in and started 15 games at RCB and just missed setting a career high with 75 tackles... Also snared one interception, batted down 11 passes and recorded first career regular-season sack... Added 12 tackles, an interception and two passes defended in a pair of playoff starts... In addition to five tackles against Miami (9/21), recorded a season-high four passes defended, including two on third downs... Racked up nine tackles at Indianapolis (11/2)... Posted first career sack vs. New England (11/16), dropping QB Drew Bledsoe on a third-down blitz... Came up with first interception as a Buccaneer at New York Jets (12/14)... Finished season strong with 11-tackle effort vs. Chicago (12/21)... In Bucs' playoff win over Detroit (12/28), rang up eight tackles plus an interception, returning the pick 19 yards to help set up a Tampa Bay field goal.

1996: Played in and started 14 games at RCB for the Rams and tied a career-high with four interceptions (also 1994), bringing two back for scores... Finished third on the club in that category and second with 13 passes defended... Contributed 71 tackles, third-highest total of his career and forced and recovered a fumble... Returned his four interceptions for a total of 128 yards, topped by a career-long 92-yard TD runback vs. Jacksonville (10/20)... Had perhaps finest game as a pro in that Jaguar tilt, adding 16 tackles and a second pick and compiling 106 interception return yards, just one shy of the Rams' single-game record (107 by Aaron Martin, 10/18/64)... Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for efforts against Jacksonville... Also returned an interception 22 yards for a touchdown against Carolina (10/13) and contributed four tackles and a pass defended... Recorded 200th career tackle and recovered a fumble against Arizona (9/29)... On inactive list at New Orleans (12/1) due to sprained right knee, snapping string of 34 consecutive starts at RCB... Also did not play at Chicago (12/8), but returned in force at Atlanta (12/15) with three tackles, one interception, two passes defended and a fumble recovery.

1995: In first season as a Ram, started all 16 games at RCB and came up with 51 tackles and a team-leading four fumble recoveries... Also broke up 12 passes to rank second among Rams and added a pair of interceptions... In first game for St. Louis, made two tackles against Green Bay (9/3) and recovered Packers' onside kick attempt to clinch Rams win... At Carolina (9/17), displayed amazing scoring touch for the first time with the Rams, picking up a loose ball and returning the fumble 28 yards for a touchdown in St. Louis' 31-10 win... Contributed seven tackles and a fumble recovery at Chicago (9/24)... Recovered a fumble for the third straight week at Indianapolis (10/1) and added five tackles and a pass defended... Against Carolina (11/12), came up with three tackles, an interception and a pass defended and, for the second time in '95, recovered an onside kick attempt to clinch a Rams victory... Matched season high with seven stops against San Francisco (11/26) and intercepted QB Steve Young's first pass attempt in six weeks.

1994: Started 15 games at LCB for Minnesota and finished with a career-best 78 tackles... Also matched career high and tied for Viking lead with four interceptions, returning them for a total of 99 yards and two touchdowns... Named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October, a month in which he set an NFL record by scoring a defensive touchdown in three consecutive games... Opened that stretch with a 44-yard interception return for a TD against the N.Y. Giants on Monday Night Football (10/1)... Followed next week with 23-yard return of a fumble for a touchdown on another national broadcast as the Vikings faced Green Bay on TNT's Thursday Night game (10/20)... Also scored on Houlihan's Stadium turf the next week on a 41-yard interception return against the Buccaneers (10/30)... Missed only game of season against New England (11/13) due to strained left hamstring... Started Vikes' playoff game against Chicago (1/1/95) and recorded first sack of NFL career.

1993: Limited by leg and ankle injuries to 14 games and no starts but pitched in with 20 tackles and one interception... Also assumed some of punt return duties, running back nine kicks for 64 yards (7.1 avg.)... Missed two pre-season games and the season opener at the L.A. Raiders (9/5) due to leg injury... Also missed 12/5 contest at Detroit with an ankle ailment... Helped spark Vikings to season-closing 30-10 downing of Kansas City (12/26) with a first-quarter interception of a Joe Montana pass, one of only seven picks tossed by Montana during the season... Appeared in Minnesota's playoff contest (1/9/94) at N.Y. Giants and contributed one tackle.

1992: In first season with Vikings, saw action in all 16 games and earned three starts... Finished fourth on squad with three interceptions, returned for a total of 23 yards, and added 29 tackles... Also served as Vikings' primary punt returner, with 33 PRs for 336 yards and a 10.2 average that ranked fourth in the NFC... Played primarily as secondary's nickel back... Snagged first career interception against Bucs (11/8)... Scored first of seven career defensive touchdowns on a 58-yard fumble return against Houston (11/15)... Set up Vikings' first score in 17-13 win over Cleveland

(11/22) with a career-long 42-yard punt return... Intercepted two passes in Vikings' game against L.A. Rams (11/29)... Played in Minnesota's playoff game at Washington (1/2/93) and pitched in with seven tackles.

1991: Originally signed with Phoenix but released during training camp before landing on Kansas City's practice squad... Was added to 53-man roster on 9/15 and was active for two games in September and two in December... Played in two Chiefs contests and pitched in with two tackles... Also played in World League during spring of '91 for the New York/New Jersey Knights, starting at cornerback and leading league with 11 interceptions... Returned two of those picks for touchdowns.

1990: Signed with New York Jets as a Plan B free agent from Indianapolis but was waived prior to season.

1989: Entered NFL as college free agent signee by Indianapolis... Spent the first 10 games of season on injured reserve due to hamstring injury.

COLLEGE: Played in only six games as a senior due to knee injury requiring reconstructive surgery... Received All-Pac 10 honors as a CB and punt returner as a junior... Led conference with 19.8-yard punt return average... Helped lead Sun Devils to 1987 Pac-10 championship and Rose Bowl win over Michigan... As a sophomore, set school record with 148 punt return yards vs. SMU, including 65-yard TD runback... Graduated from Arizona State with degree in physical education.

PRO: Immense, durable athlete who has demonstrated potential during four-year pro career... Has served as backup tackle, but contributes most significantly on special teams... After spending majority of rookie season on Bucs' practice squad, has had six starts on team's offensive line... Is expected to provide depth at tackle in 1998.

1997: Saw most playing time of career, with appearances in 15 regular season games and one playoff contest... Played on field goal and extra point attempt units in each of those bouts... Enjoyed only offensive line action of season in backup tackle role at Atlanta (11/9)... Was declared inactive for second Green Bay game (12/7) and Wild Card match-up against Detroit (12/28)... Played in first post-season contest of career during Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/4).

1996: Played in 11 games with two starts at LT, was inactive for two contests and did not play in another... Released in team's initial training camp roster cut-down (8/18) but was re-signed on 9/10 when starting LT Paul Gruber suffered knee sprain in season's second game at Detroit (9/8)... Saw initial game action on special teams unit in following week's game at Denver (9/15)... Inserted into starting lineup at LT for next two games at Seattle (9/22) and versus Detroit (9/29) after Gruber's replacement, Jason Odom, suffered mid-week practice injury which caused him to miss both contests... Spent limited time as a sub on offensive line the remainder of season and participated on majority of extra point and field goal attempts.

1995: Played in 12 games with four starts for Buccaneers... Was inactive for three games and DNP in season opener against Eagles (9/3)... Made first regular season NFL appearance following hand injury to RT Scott Dill at Cleveland (9/10)... Got first league start in following week's contest against Chicago (9/17)... Also started for Dill (ankle) at Minnesota (12/3) and replaced him in first quarter of following week's 13-10 OT win versus Green Bay (12/10)... Started season's final two games against Bears (12/17) and Lions (12/23).

1994: Despite solid training camp showing, was waived on final roster trim (8/28) and claimed off waivers by Chiefs (8/29)... After being waived by Chiefs (8/31), was signed to Bucs' practice squad (9/2)... Spent first 11 games on practice squad before being signed to active roster (11/22)... Was on inactive list for remaining five games of season, thus did not see any regular season action... Drafted by Buccaneers in fifth round (136th overall) in 1994.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons at Washington and was member of three Rose Bowl teams... Started all 11 games as a senior and earned Honorable Mention All-America and second-team All-PAC 10 honors... Also earned school's Lineman of the Year award... Led blocking for Napoleon Kaufman who ran for 1,299 yards... Appeared in all 11 games at both LT and RT in junior campaign... Born	12/19/72	College	Miami (FL)

PRO: Confident, aggressive player who is regarded as one of the top defensive players in the National Football League... Came into his own in 1997, using powerful pass-rushing skills, run-stopping abilities and brute strength to earn first career Pro Bowl selection... Continues to stand out as Tampa Bay's most dominating lineman, despite having to constantly fight through double and triple teams... In just three NFL seasons, has racked up 22.5 sacks, 146 tackles, five forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and six passes defended... Has only missed two games during career... After recording a team-high nine sacks in 1996, and 10.5 in '97, joined Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon as the only Bucs ever to have at least nine sacks in a season twice... Signed new, six-year contract this past off-season, ensuring his tenure with the Buccaneers through the 2003 season.

1997: Played and started in 15 regular season games and two playoff contests, missing just second game of career against Miami (9/21) due to sprained right ankle... Joined seven Buccaneer teammates in Hawaii for first career Pro Bowl appearance... Week before Pro Bowl, won the NFL Lineman Challenge for second consecutive year... Also voted to College & Pro Football Weekly's All-Pro Second Team and Fox Sports commentator John Madden's All Madden Team... Incredible early-season performance resulted in NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors for September... Recorded 68 tackles (45 solo), 10.5 sacks, one fumble recovery, one pass breakup and a team-high three forced fumbles during the regular season before adding 11 stops, three sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery during two playoff games... Despite near-constant double-teaming and an early-season ankle sprain, recorded at least one QB sack in nine different contests... Career-best sack total (10.5) was tops on team and tied for eighth in the NFC, and also led Bucs defense to team-record 44 sacks... Tackle tally (68) ranked second among Bucs defensive linemen and sixth overall... Helped Buccaneers rank sixth in the NFL against the run en route to a number-three ranking in overall defense... Opened season vs. San Francisco (8/31) with perhaps the most dominant performance by a defensive lineman all year, leading teammates with an amazing 11 tackles and 2.5 sacks and notching career single-game highs in both of those categories... Dropped QB Steve Young 2.5 times for losses of 16 yards, including a stuff for 11 yards on the 49ers' opening drive... Despite suffering sprained right ankle in first half that was aggravated again in third quarter at Detroit (9/7), posted three stops and one QB takedown... Eventually left Lions game in fourth quarter with compound fracture of left pinky finger that protruded through skin and required stitches... Missed only action of season against Miami (9/21) after sprained right ankle landed him on Sunday inactive list... Went on three-game sack-attack with consecutive QB takedowns against Detroit (10/12), Minnesota (10/26) and Indianapolis (11/2)... Against New England (11/16), leveled Patriots' QB Drew Bledsoe with a hit that brought him back 11 yards and caused him to fumble... Key part of defensive line that shut down Pats' normally high-powered offense and prevented them from gaining a first down until the third period... Finished off regular season the way he started it, notching eight tackles, two sacks, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery during victory over Chicago (12/21)... Continued to harass opposing offenses during playoffs, with a three-sack, five-tackle performance during Bucs' Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/4) in which he also forced two fumbles and recovered another... During second quarter, halted Packers' offense on three consecutive series with two forced fumbles that were recovered by Tampa Bay and a stuff of RB Dorsey Levens that resulted in lost yardage and a Packers punt.

1996: Started 14 of 15 contests played in, missing the season's second week at Detroit (9/8) and played but did not start the following week at Denver (9/15)... Developed into Bucs' most dominating performer on defensive line, typically attracting two and three blockers... Collected nine sacks (highest total since Santana Dotson recorded 10 in 1992) along with nine tackles for loss to lead team in both categories... 51 tackles (41, 10) were tops among team's defensive linemen... Also blocked first field goal attempt of career, forced a fumble and recovered another... Notched four solo tackles and recorded team's first sack in season's first game versus Green Bay (9/1) after recovering from a pre-season ankle injury... Missed first action the following week at Detroit (9/8) after reaggravating ankle injury but returned as a sub against Denver (9/15) to post three tackles... Had outstanding outing against Seattle (9/22), recording season-best six tackles and two sacks... Against Minnesota (10/13), had another strong day, tying season mark for tackles with six while also posting 1.5 sacks and causing a fumble... In that game, sealed Buc victory with a fourth-quarter takedown of Minnesota's Warren Moon, stripping him of the ball which was recovered by Buc DE Chidi Ahanotu... Displayed tremendous quickness in chasing down New Orleans QB Jim Everett for a sack at the Buc one-yard line while also posting four stops in tight 13-7 Buc victory over the Saints (11/24)... Member of defensive unit that limited Washington (12/8) to a season low 41 rushing yards... Collected five solo tackles, two QB takedowns and a fumble recovery against the Vikings (12/15)... Finished season with three tackles and a sack against Chicago (12/22).

1995: Earned starting RDT job in training camp... Started season's first five and final three contests... Overall, saw action in all 16 games... Finished with 27 tackles (17, 10), one interception, one forced fumble and five passes defended... Tied for third on team with three sacks... Was a consensus first-team All-Rookie choice including selection by Pro Football Weekly, PFWA, Football News and College and Pro Football Newsweekly... Was used in four games as blocking back on goal-line plays (five plays, three TDs)... Started in NFL regular season debut in opening-day win at Philadelphia (9/3) and had three tackles plus team's first sack of the year... Helped thwart Redskins' final drive with key sack of QB Gus Frerotte in 14-6 Tampa Bay win (9/24)...

Enjoyed top performance of season against Falcons (10/22) with an interception, a touchdown, a sack and lead block (as FB) on Errict Rhett TD... On that interception, picked off a QB Jeff George shovel pass intended for FB Craig Heyward and returned it five yards for the score... Drafted by Buccaneers with first of two first-round picks (12th overall) in 1995... Team moved down from seventh spot in trade with Philadelphia, acquiring Eagles' first-round pick plus two second-rounders in exchange for Bucs' first and third-round choices.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons at Miami, electing to forego senior year for NFL draft... Originally arrived at UM as a tight end... Three-year Hurricane totals included 176 tackles (81, 95), 19.5 sacks, four forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and five passes defended... In three bowl games, added 13 tackles (7, 6) and three sacks... Many honors as a junior co-captain included first-team All-America from AP, UPI, Football Coaches' Association and Walter Camp... Also won the Lombardi Award, symbolic of the nation's top lineman/linebacker... Was a finalist for the Outland Trophy... Named Defensive Player of the Year by Football Writers' Association, Football News and ABC... Was also the Big East's Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-Big East selection... In 11 starts, statistics showed 84 tackles (37, 47), team-best 10.5 sacks (2nd in Big East), four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries (1st in Big East)... In sophomore season, accolades included second-team All-America and first-team All-Big East... Started ten games at RDT and had 52 tackles (27, 25) and six sacks... Saw action in ten games as a freshman reserve, backing up Mark Caesar... Registered 40 tackles (17, 23) and three sacks... Was red-shirted as 1991 incoming freshman... During redshirt season, was shifted from tight end to defensive tackle... Majored in criminology.

PERSONAL: Married to Jamiko Vaughn during 1998 Pro Bowl festivities in Honolulu, Hawaii... Couple and newborn daughter, Mercedes, live in Tampa... Hobby is swimming... A native of Plymouth, Florida, attended Apopka (Fla.) High School, lettering in football, track and basketball... Played linebacker, tight end and punter (43.5 avg.) in high school... As a senior, was all-state and USA Today Honorable Mention All-America... Full name is Warren Carlos Sapp, born December 19, 1972 in Orlando, Florida.

PRO: Versatile, young linebacker with excellent mix of size, speed and aggressiveness... Did not play at LB during rookie season, but made big impact on special teams where he contributed during all but four games... Is expected to see increased playing time as backup LB in 1998.

1997: Saw action in 12 games as member of special teams unit and posted four stops and two blocked punts... Was only member of Buccaneers' squad to block a punt in '97... Also stood out as only defensive player to score TD during season... Was inactive for games against Detroit (9/7), Minnesota (9/14 and 10/26) and Green Bay (10/12), as well as both playoff contests... Had best game of year against Arizona (9/28), when he blocked P Jeff Feagles punt attempt and returned it 28 yards for the Bucs' first TD of afternoon... Blocked second punt of season at New York Jets (12/14), then recovered the loose ball to give Tampa Bay the ball back on the Jets' 23-yard line.

COLLEGE: Finished Temple career as school's third all-time leading tackler, notching 390 stops (246, 144)... Also tallied seven forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, five sacks, 11 passes defended and an interception during Owl career... Started 39 of 41 games played as a collegian, seeing time at both inside and outside LB slots... Selected to the Big East's all-conference first team as a senior after leading the Owls with 134 tackles (87, 47), causing two fumbles, snaring one interception and breaking up five passes... Was tabbed the team's defensive captain and started all 11 games at MLB... Tied a team record with 23 stops against Miami... As a junior, opened all 11 contests at MLB and notched a career-high 151 tackles (101, 50) along with a fumble recovery, a pass break-up and a sack... Became just the fourth Owl to surpass the 150-tackle mark in a single season... Hit double digits in tackles in each of the Owls' last 10 games... Pounded out 20 tackles, including a school-record 17 solos, against West Virginia... Finished the season with three straight 15-tackle efforts, against Miami, Boston College and Virginia Tech plus a 20-stop game versus Rutgers.... Played strongside outside linebacker as a sophomore and started all 11 games... Finished second on the squad with 74 tackles (44, 30) and set a school single-season record with five forced fumbles... Also pitched in with a sack, five passes defended and a blocked punt... Played in eight games and started six at strongside OLB as a freshman... Recorded 31 tackles (14, 17) and added 1.5 sacks... Holds B.S. in Sports Recreation Management.

PRO: Dependable veteran who has enjoyed two productive seasons with Buccaneers... Tenth-year pro played for Kansas City Chiefs (1989-91) and Seattle Seahawks (1992-95) before signing with Tampa Bay in August of 1996... Career numbers include 172 receptions for 2,166 yards (50t long) and 10 touchdowns... Has also recorded eight catches for 116 yards (50-yard long) during five career playoff contests... Is expected to compete for backup WR spot in 1998.

1997: Played at WR in all 16 regular season contests and both playoff games, making only start during season opener against San Francisco (8/31)... Also contributed on special teams during every game and posted seven tackles... Finished season with 129 yards on 13 catches, including a season-long 21-yarder made at Chicago (11/23)... In game three at Minnesota (9/14), contributed two catches for 26 yards, including a 15-yard grab on third-and-six from the Vikings' 18-yard line that helped set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run... During victory over Miami (9/21), was the last special teamer between Dolphins KR Irving Spikes and the end zone, stopping him after a 41-yard return to the Miami 43-yard line... Made another key special teams contribution as part of punt unit at Indianapolis (11/2), downing Bucs P Sean Landeta's 39-yarder and pinning the Colts on their own five yard line... At Chicago (11/23), subbed at WR but remained in game after starter Horace Copeland went down with an ankle injury... Had best day of year against Bears, tying starting WR Reidel Anthony for team-best reception total (four) of 53 yards... Those totals, along with 21-yard catch, marked personal bests of season... Finished second on squad in receiving yardage during post-season play, with 82 yards on three receptions (50-yard long)... Led team in receiving yardage with 66 yards on two catches during Wild Card victory over Detroit (12/28)... Longest effort of day came in the fourth quarter on third down, when he caught a 50-yard pass and outran three Lions defenders down the left sideline... That reception, which tied his career long, was good for the second-longest playoff catch in Buccaneer history.

1996: Despite playing only a few snaps at receiver in Bucs' first four games, finished season second among team's wideouts in receptions... Was chosen Tampa Bay's Unsung Hero through the NFLPA as voted on by teammates and fans... With 33 catches for 427 yards and two touchdowns, nearly matched combined totals from four-year stay in Seattle (34-512-1)... Released by Seahawks in training camp then signed by Bucs on 8/27... After sitting out first three games on inactive list, saw duty on special teams against former team Seattle (9/22) and received a few late-game snaps at WR versus Detroit (9/29)... Got first extensive action of season vs. Minnesota (10/13) and, with one of finest career outings, was key part of Bucs' 24-13 win... Tallied first career two-touchdown game in Viking effort, hauling in TD passes of 31 and 11 yards among five receptions for 73 yards... Rewarded with first Tampa Bay start the following weekend at Arizona (10/20) and responded with four receptions for 67 yards... Did not start at Chicago (11/3) but came on to lead team in receptions with six for 75... Started but missed most of game vs. Oakland (11/10) due to shoulder sprain suffered on opening series... Tied season high at Carolina (12/1) with six receptions for 66 yards... Caught two passes for 17 yards at Minnesota (12/15) but sustained rib injury that forced him to inactive status for season finale vs. Chicago (12/22).

1995: Played in 15 games and started two for Seattle... Hauled in 12 receptions for 239 yards and one TD... Averaged 19.9 yards per reception, helped by a career-long 50-yard TD grab vs. Cincinnati (9/19)... Also contributed heavily on special teams throughout season, tying for second on club with 15 kick-coverage stops.

1994: Played in all 16 games, making one start for Seahawks... Proved valuable on special teams as well, making 13 kick-coverage tackles to tie for third on squad... Pitched in with four receptions for 70 yards... Versus Indianapolis (12/4), responded to only '94 start with top output of season, snaring three passes for 55 yards, including a season-long 35-yarder.

1993: Saw action in all 16 games for Seattle and recorded seven receptions for 67 yards... Also contributed six special teams tackles... Turned in five receptions in last four games, including two each vs. Phoenix (12/19) and Pittsburgh (12/26).

1992: Signed as a free agent on 9/8, in time to appear in Seattle's final 15 games... Pitched in with 11 receptions for 136 yards and eight tackles on special teams... Played sparingly at WR in first four games as a Seahawk but was a frequent sub in games six through nine, compiling nine catches for 85 yards in that span.

1991: Emerged as leading receiver for Kansas City Chiefs, posting a career-best 43 receptions for 495 yards and one score... Started 12 games and appeared in 15, missing 11/17 contest at Cleveland due to an ankle injury... Pulled down five receptions for 52 yards vs. New Orleans (9/8)... Posted six receptions for 38 yards at L.A. Rams (11/10), then followed with career-high seven catches for 89 yards vs. Denver (11/17)... Started both Chiefs playoff games and totaled four receptions for 19 yards.

1990: Broke into Chiefs' starting lineup and responded with 41 receptions for career-high 545 yards and four touchdowns... Saw action in all 16 games and started 12... Scored touchdowns in consecutive games with 47-yarder vs. Cleveland (9/30) and 21-yard grab at Indianapolis (10/7)... Came down with a career-high seven receptions (later tied) for 53 yards vs. Seattle (11/11)... Caught five passes for a season-high 63 yards in battle with Houston (12/16)... Snared one 15-yard pass in playoff contest at Miami (1/5/91) but missed majority of game after spraining knee in second quarter.

1989: Showed promise as a Chiefs rookie with eight receptions for 58 yards and two touchdowns, but missed eight mid-season games due to shoulder injury... Made first NFL start vs. Cincinnati (10/1) and finished with season highs in receptions (three) and receiving yards (23) while scoring first pro touchdown on five-yard grab... Followed with 11-yard scoring catch at L.A. Raiders (10/5)... Drafted by Kansas City in sixth round (143rd overall) in 1989.

COLLEGE: Finished Oregon State career as Beavers' all-time recordholder in receptions (138) and receiving yards (2,043)... Scored 18 career touchdowns, one shy of top school mark... Also returned 68 kickoffs for 1,341 yards during four-year collegiate career, averaging 19.9 yards per run-back... Earned first-team All-Pac 10 honors as a senior, hauling in exactly 58 catches for the second straight year and compiling 763 receiving yards and six touchdowns... Named Honorable Mention All-America by AP and was a second-team All-Pac 10 as a junior... Posted 58 receptions for a career-best 891 yards, fifth-most in school annals... Also tied a Beaver single-season record with 10 touchdown receptions... Broke one school record with 230 yards on nine receptions vs. Akron and tied another by reaching the end zone on four of those catches... As a sophomore, caught 22 passes for 389 yards as a reserve flanker... Played in every game during freshman campaign, returning 19 kickoffs for 416 yards (21.9 avg.)... Majored in business administration.

PERSONAL: Married to Melinda, couple has two children, son Cole (3/30/94) and daughter Alexa (4/3/96)... Family lives in Redmond, WA during off-seasons... Father, Aaron, is a former Pro Bowl WR (1965) who played one year with the San Francisco 49ers (1961) and nine with the New York Giants (1962-70)... During off-season, works for a securities firm in Seattle and is pursuing license to be a broker... At Corvallis (OR) High School, was a first-team all-state choice as a senior running back and defensive back... Led team to 23-3 record over last two seasons, including a Class AAA state championship during junior campaign... Finished second in the 100 meters and the long jump at Oregon state track meet... Full name is Robb Douglas Thomas, born March 29, 1966 in Portland, Oregon.

JAVELINA PIPELINE

In 1997, one college had four of its alumni on the Buccaneers' roster, with a fifth on the team's practice squad. That NFL factory was not Notre Dame, USC or Ohio State, or even local favorites Florida, Florida State or Miami; the most common alma mater of the 1997 Buccaneers was the relatively obscure Texas A&M-Kingsville, a school of 6,000 students 100 miles north of the Rio Grande.

There were only ten Javelinas in the pro ranks in 1997. Amazingly, that means half of the Kingsville products who made it to the NFL last year ended up in a Buccaneer uniform. For the record, those proud Javelinas are: G Jorge Diaz, C Kevin Dogins, WR Karl Williams and CB Floyd Young, plus practice-squad member and sixth-round 1997 draft choice CB Al Harris.

PRO: Talented, aggressive pass rusher whose 7.5 QB takedowns in 1997 helped Bucs' defense pile up the most prolific combined sack total in franchise history (44 total)... Extremely strong and agile lineman who has played in and started all but one game of his three-year NFL career... Career marks include 60 tackles (43 solo), 11.5 sacks, two passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

1997: Built on tremendous rookie season enjoyed in 1996, chipping in career-high numbers in tackles (35), sacks (7.5) and passes defended (2), while also adding one forced fumble... Nearly doubled rookie total of four QB sacks with 7.5, which also ranked fourth on team... Recorded multiple stops in all but two games played in... Started 15 contests at RDE, missing first career game against Minnesota (10/26) due to flu symptoms... Key starter on defensive line that accounted for all but four of the team's record 44 takedowns... Opened season with strong outing against San Francisco (8/31), notching a career-best two sacks and three tackles... In third quarter, forced 49ers QB Jeff Brohm to fumble after sacking him for a one-yard loss... Posted four tackles (three solo) at Minnesota (9/14)... Also credited with half of a sack when he teamed up with DT Tyoka Jackson to take down Vikings QB Brad Johnson for a six-yard loss late in the second quarter... Led two-play Buc sack-attack at Green Bay (10/5) with eight-yard drop of QB Brett Favre that helped force Packers to punt two plays later... Following week against Detroit (10/12), tied Warren Sapp for most tackles among defensive linemen with five (four solo)... Also sacked Lions QB Scott Mitchell for 10-yard loss, setting stage for Detroit to punt its way out of a 20-yard hole two plays later... Missed Minnesota game (10/26) after catching the flu over the weekend... Made key fumble recovery at Indianapolis (11/2) that eventually led to a Bucs TD when Colts C Jay Leeuwenburg muffed the snap during the team's first possession of the game... In final minutes of that contest, with Colts in scoring position, sacked QB Kelly

Holcomb and forced him to fumble ball into Bucs' possession... At New York Giants (11/30), tied season-best tackle mark with five (four solo)... Recorded three tackles and one QB sack in season-ending victory over Chicago (12/21)... That sack marked team's 43rd of season and broke previous franchise single-season record of 42... Started both playoff contests and recorded five tackles.

1996: In rookie year, ranked 12th on the team with 25 tackles (20, 5), and also compiled four sacks, a pass break-up, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery... Only defensive lineman to start every game... Played both RDE and LDE, contributing season-high three stops in games against Green Bay (9/1), Detroit (9/29), Arizona (10/20), San Diego (11/17) and Chicago (12/22)... Had strong outing against Detroit (9/29), batting down a pass and recording first career sack... Had solid effort at San Diego, forcing first career fumble while sacking Chargers QB Stan Humphries for a 12-yard loss... Recovered first fumble of career in victory over Washington (12/8)... Against Redskins, helped defense limit Washington to lowest rushing total of season (41 yards)... In season finale against Chicago, recorded three tackles and a sack... Drafted by Buccaneers with first of two first-round picks (12th overall) in 1996.

COLLEGE: Passed up remaining season of eligibility in order to be available for NFL draft... Three-year statistics at California showed 142 tackles (95, 47), 28 sacks, an interception and nine passes defended... As a junior, honors included Pro Football Weekly first-team All-America and consensus first-team All-PAC 10... Was selected to play in Hula Bowl and earned Defensive MVP honors with five tackles and an interception... For Golden Bears, totaled 45 tackles (31, 14), 9.5 sacks (third in PAC 10) and four pass breakups... In sophomore season, contributed 59 tackles (40, 19), career-best 11 sacks (third in conference) and a pair of passes defended... Was second-team All-PAC 10 selection... Saw significant action as a freshman with 38 tackles (24, 14) plus 7.5 sacks, an interception and three pass batdowns... Was a first-team Freshman All-America and Honorable Mention All-PAC 10... Became a full-time starter in just third game of college career... Majored in economics.

PERSONAL: Lives year-round in Lutz, Florida... Hobby is raising pit bulls and rottweilers... Attended Pittsburg (Cal.) High School, lettering in football and track... Was a Parade and USA Today All-America... Full name is Regan Charles Upshaw, born August 12, 1975 in Barrien Springs, Michigan.

NFL 10th Year
How Acquired ... UFA, 1997
College Miami (FL)

PRO: Experienced veteran who played backup to Trent Dilfer and saw QB action in five games of first season with Tampa Bay... Before signing with Bucs (4/16/97), spent one year with St. Louis (1996), two with Chicago (1994-95), four with New Orleans (1990-93) and one with Dallas (1989)... In 38 NFL starts, has compiled a 20-18 career record and led two teams (Saints and Bears) to post-season action... Should vie for number two QB spot in 1998.

1997: Played in 12 games, seeing limited action as reserve QB... Completed six of 17 pass attempts for 58 yards (38-yard long) and one INT... Played just one snap during first five games of season, coming in on one play against Miami (9/21) when starting QB Trent Dilfer retreated to sidelines with knee bruise... After punter/regular holder Tommy Barnhardt broke his collarbone at Green Bay (10/5), stepped in as holder for remainder of season... Saw brief action against Detroit (10/12) when Dilfer was hit hard in abdomen and sat out for one play... Played in fourth quarter at Atlanta (11/9) but did not throw a pass... Accumulated first passing yardage of season against Green Bay (12/7) after Dilfer left game in fourth quarter with an ankle sprain... Completed four of nine attempts for 50 yards (38-yard long) and had one interception against Packers... Completed one of seven attempts at New York Jets (12/14)... Against Chicago (12/21), handed ball off to RB Errict Rhett for five-yard TD run... Served as holder for PATs and field goal attempts during both playoff contests.

1996: Opened season under center for St. Louis and started Rams' first three contests... Completed 33 of 77 passes for 344 yards and five interceptions in first three games but was inactive for final 13 contests... Led Rams to 26-16 victory over Cincinnati (9/1) with 13 completions in 35 attempts for 154 yards and one pick... Connected on 18 of 36 passes for 177 yards and three INTs vs. Washington (9/15).

1995: Served as back-up to Bears QB Erik Kramer, appearing in just one game as the holder on a fake field goal attempt (vs. Philadelphia, 12/24)... Did not attempt a pass.

1994: Led Chicago to first playoff berth since 1991 by opening 11 of last 13 games and posting 8-3 record as a starter... Made first start of season at N.Y. Jets (9/25) and contributed to Bears' win by completing 14 of 24 passes for 113 yards... Also opened Bears next two victories, connecting on 19 of 28 passes for 160 yards, one TD and one INT and adding a one-yard TD run vs. Buffalo (10/2)... Did not start following two contests, but relieved Kramer in second half vs. Green Bay (10/31) and was successful on 16 of 25 passes for 140 yards, one TD and one INT... After relief stint vs. Packers, given starting nod for remainder of season, beginning at Tampa Bay (11/6), where he completed 19 of 32 tosses for 205 yards, two TDs and one interception... Posted a season-high 25 completions on just 31 attempts in win over Detroit (11/20)... Secured first post-season victory as a starter with 15 completions in 23 attempts for 221 yards, two TDs and one INT at Minnesota (1/1/95).

1993: Played in final two games and started season finale after being designated as Saints' third quarterback for first 14 contests... Completed 20 of 38 passes for 271 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions... Replaced starter Mike Buck in second half at Philadelphia (12/26) and connected on five of 11 aerals for 78 yards and two interceptions... Opened game vs. Cincinnati (1/2/94) and was successful on 15 of 27 tosses for 193 yards, two TDs and one INT... Efforts vs. Bengals included 54-yard TD pass to WR Eric Martin, the longest scoring throw of Walsh's career.

1992: Active for two games with New Orleans but did not see action on field... Designated third quarterback for the remaining 14 contests.

1991: Got into eight games for the Saints, starting seven... Saw first '91 action at Philadelphia (10/13) after first-half injury to Bobby Hebert and led Saints to 13-6 win on 8-of-17 passing for 96 yards and one touchdown... Started following week vs. Buccaneers (10/20) and directed Saints victory by notching 19 completions in 31 attempts for 205 yards, one TD and two interceptions... Regained starting job on 11/3 vs. Rams and completed 17 of 33 aerals for 269 yards, two touchdowns and one INT... Opened next five games under center, including San Francisco contest (12/1) in which he racked up a career-best 317 yards on 25-of-42 passing... Notched a career-high 26 completions (in 39 attempts) at Dallas (12/8) the following Sunday.

1990: In first season with New Orleans, started 11 of 12 games and steered Saints into playoffs for second time in franchise history... After appearing in one game for Dallas (vs. N.Y. Giants, 9/16), joined Saints in a trade for 1991 first- and third-round picks on 9/25... First action in New Orleans uniform came in relief of John Fourcade vs. Cleveland (10/14), as he led Saints to 25-20 victory on 15-26 passing for 243 yards and three TDs... Debut effort for Saints included career-long 58-yard pass to WR Eric Martin and led to installment as starting QB for remainder of the season... In playoff contest at Chicago (1/6/91), connected on six of 16 throws for 74 yards and one interception.

1989: As a rookie, played in eight games and started five for an injured Troy Aikman... Piloted Cowboys to only win of season at Washington (11/5), completing 10 of 30 passes for 142 yards... Had top output of season vs. San Francisco (10/15), connecting on 23 of 36 throws for 294 yards and a touchdown... Attempted a career-high 49 passes against Phoenix (10/29), completing 21 for 264 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions... Drafted by Cowboys in first round (1st overall) of 1989 supplemental draft.

COLLEGE: Finished extremely productive career at Miami with a record that included 23 wins in 24 starts plus one national championship... Started for two seasons and racked up prolific career numbers including 410 completions in 690 attempts (59.4%) for 5,369 yards, 48 touchdowns and 19 interceptions... Also played in a pair of Orange Bowl games and completed 39 of 74 aerals for 486 yards, four touchdowns and four interceptions... As a junior, led Miami to 11-1 record, connecting on 233 of 390 aerals for 3,115 yards, 29 touchdowns and 12 interceptions... Named first-team All-America by AP and Player of the Year by Football News... Suffered only collegiate loss as a starter in Notre Dame's 31-30 edging of the Hurricanes, but still completed a school-record 31 passes in 50 attempts, including four TD throws... Passed Miami to second straight Orange Bowl win, a 23-3 downing of Nebraska, with 21 completions in 44 attempts for 277 yards and two touchdowns... In first year as a starter, led Miami to 12-0 record and national championship as a sophomore... Found his mark on 176 of 298 passes (59.1%) for 2,249 yards, 19 touchdowns and seven interceptions... Completed Hurricanes' title run by leading team to 20-14 decision over Oklahoma in Orange Bowl, connecting on 18 of 30 tosses for 209 yards and two touchdowns... As a freshman, was third-string QB behind Testaverde and Geoff Toretta... Got into two games and completed one of two passes for five yards... Redshirted in 1985... Graduated from Miami with a degree in finance.

PERSONAL: Married to Lara, couple has two daughters, Haille (3/5/93) and Jordan (12/19/95), and one son, Cameron

(12/12/97)... Family resides in West Palm Beach, Florida... Golf tournament has raised over $250,000 over the past three years for the Boys and Girls Club of Palm Beach County... 86 KARL WILLIAMS WIDE RECEIVER

Height 5-10
Weight 174
Born 4/10/71

NFL 3rd Year
How Acquired ... FA, 1996
College Texas A&M-Kingsville

PRO: Speedy, sure-handed receiver who emerged as one of team's most reliable targets during second pro year... Has established himself as QB Trent Dilfer's third-down go-to man after consistently converting in those situations... One of the NFL's top punt returners and the Bucs' most dangerous return man, owns the franchise record for career punt return average (14.8 yards) and has scored two touchdowns on punt returns... Has set other franchise records, including most punt return yards in a single game (116, vs. Chicago 12/21/97), best single-season punt return average (21.1 in 1996) and best single-season kickoff return average (27.4 in 1996)... Is expected to share return duties with '98 second-round draft pick Jacquez Green and vie for third receiver position this season.

1997: Enjoyed breakthrough season, playing in all 16 games with seven starts at WR... Established several career marks, including first start (against San Francisco 8/31), first TD catch (against Arizona 9/28) and most receiving yards in a single game (87 against Green Bay 12/7)... Boasted most receiving yardage and best average among all Buccaneer receivers with 486 yards on 33 catches (14.7-yard average) and a long reception of 55 yards... Tied WR Reidel Anthony and TE Dave Moore for most receiving touchdowns with four... Proved to be clutch third-down target for QB Trent Dilfer, finishing in the top 20 among NFC receivers in third down catches with 16, including a TD... Average of 17.1 yards-per-catch in those third-down situations was most of all wideouts on that list... Excelled as Bucs' top punt returner with 46 returns for 597 yards (63-yard long) and one TD... Also finished second on team in kickoff returns with 15 for 277 yards (28-yard long)... Superior play during week nine at Indianapolis (11/2) earned him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors... Finished year ranked above all NFC punt returners in several categories, including most return yards (597), most yards in a single game (116 yards and one TD on six returns against Chicago 12/21), and most punts returned for touchdowns (one-tied with San Francisco's Chuck Levy, Washington's Brian Mitchell, Dallas' Deion Sanders and New York Giants' Amani Toomer)... Punt return average of 13.0 ranked second in NFC and fourth in NFL... Got first start of NFL career at WR during victory over San Francisco (8/31) and finished as team's leading receiver with three catches for 74 yards, including a career-best 55 yarder... Scored fourth quarter, game-winning touchdown against Arizona (9/28), with a 31-yard reception on fourth-and-six that signaled the first TD catch of his career... Won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after performance at Indianapolis (11/2), where he reeled in two passes for 30 yards and two touchdowns and helped set up two other Buc scores with third-best punt return day of career (three for 99 yards)... Led team in receptions with four for 38 yards in victory over Atlanta (11/9)... Started at WR against Green Bay (12/7) and accounted for 54% of the Bucs' total offense with a career-best 87 yards on five catches... In finale against Chicago (12/21), returned punt 61 yards for a touchdown, marking the 5th-longest in team history and the 4th-longest of his career... Ended up returning six punts for a season-high 116 yards against Bears... Was also team's top receiver, reeling in four passes for 47 yards and one TD... Snared one 23-yard catch in Wild Card bout with Detroit (12/28) before bruising ribs and seeing limited playing time throughout remainder of playoffs.

1996: Played in all 16 games after earning roster spot as a back-up receiver and special teamer... Caught just two passes in the first six games but finished the season with 22 receptions for 246 yards... Of 22 catches, 15 came on third down... After a brief mid-season stint as the team's kick return man, reassumed those duties in the final month and produced three of the five longest returns in team history... Finished the season with 14 kickoff returns for 383 yards (27.4 avg.) and 13 punt returns for 274 yards (21.1 avg.)... 27.4 kickoff return avg. bested Charles Wilson's previous team high of 25.1 (1994); 21.1 punt return avg. shattered Courtney Hawkins' mark of 11.1 (1993)... Did not have enough PRs to qualify for league lead, but still posted fourth-highest average in NFL history among players with at least 12 returns... Garnered NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month and NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for December accomplishments which included two of the three longest punt returns in team history... In 12/8 contest against Washington, nearly ran back first kickoff in team history on opening play of third quarter, returning it a season-best 63 yards... That runback was second-longest in team history to Vernon Turner's 77-yarder vs. Minnesota (10/30/94)... Set another team mark the following week against the Vikings (12/15) with 109 return yards on four punts, including a 72-yard bring back that ranks third on the team's all-time list... TD return of 88 yards against Chicago in the season finale (12/22) established a new team record and was just the second such score in Buc history (Vernon Turner, 80t vs. Detroit, 10/2/94).

COLLEGE: Led Texas A&M-Kingsville squad in receiving in 1994-95 seasons after earning junior college first-team All-America honors at Tyler (TX) Junior College in 1993... Posted 66 receptions for 1,190 yards and 10 touchdowns in two seasons with Javelinas while also returning 29 punts for 182 yards (6.3 avg.)... Emerged as a deep threat for the Javelinas with an 18.0 yards per catch average... Also racked up 62 catches for 1,067 yards and seven TDs at Tyler J.C.... As a senior, earned All-Lone Star Conference honors after leading team with 34 receptions for 668 yards and seven scores... Also ran back 25 punts for 156 yards (6.2 avg.)... Helped Javelinas reach NCAA Division II semifinal game... In first season at Kingsville, snared a team-best 32 passes for 522 yards and three TDs as a junior... Returned four punts for 26 yards (6.5 avg.)... As a sophomore at Tyler J.C., earned All-America accolades with 62 receptions for 1,067 yards and seven touchdowns... Averaged an outstanding 17.2 yards per reception.

PRO: Powerful tackle whose aggressiveness and intelligence helped him become a solid contributor during every game of first pro year... Stands as the highest-drafted offensive lineman by the Bucs since Charles McRae was chosen in the first round (seventh overall) in 1991... After impressive rookie campaign, should compete for starting line position in upcoming seasons.

1997: Played in all 16 games as backup to starting RT Jason Odom and subbed in two playoff contests... Also contributed on PAT unit... Saw first NFL action in victory over San Francisco (8/31) and provided key blocking for QB Trent Dilfer's fourth quarter TD pass to TE Dave Moore... Saw first significant playing time at Minnesota (9/14), where he helped pave way for Buccaneer running backs to finish first in NFC and second in NFL after week three... At Green Bay (10/5), part of offensive line that cleared way for Buc running backs to accumulate season-high 217 rushing yards and two touchdowns on the ground... Recovered first fumble of career against Detroit (10/12) when QB Trent Dilfer was sacked and the ball popped loose... Solid blocking helped Dilfer complete a five-game, mid-season streak without throwing an interception (Minnesota 10/26 - Chicago 11/23)... During victory over New England (11/16), threw several key blocks that helped FB Mike Alstott bounce off tacklers and drag defenders along for 27-yards on a three-play series... Saw first career playoff action against Detroit (12/28) and helped fellow linemen block for 141-yard rushing effort by Bucs running backs.

COLLEGE: Helped four different Badger running backs crack the 1,000-yard barrier during his college tenure... Started final 36 collegiate games at right tackle... Redshirted in 1992... As a senior, earned first-team All-Big Ten honors after starting every game at right tackle and helping Badgers rack up 249.4 rushing yards per game... Was a second-team All-America selection by Football News... Chosen as team's offensive captain... Notched 14 knockdown blocks against Minnesota as RB Ron Dayne repeatedly ran over right tackle en route to Big Ten freshman-record 297 rushing yards... Was named team's Most Valuable Offensive Player in Ohio State clash... Started all 12 games at right tackle in junior campaign and helped the team average a school-record 221.7 passing yards per game... In 42-0 whitewash of SMU, aided Badgers in compiling 534 total yards, including 284 on the ground... Started every game at right tackle as a sophomore and helped pave the way for a Wisconsin offense that averaged 244.5 rushing yards per game... Key part of Wisconsin offense that rolled to amazing 632-yard total against Indiana... Given credit for seven knockdowns in 31-19 win over Michigan, including key block on 31-yard TD pass... Backed up Joe Panos at right tackle during freshman campaign... Lined up in tight end slot against UCLA in Rose Bowl, playing a season-high 17 snaps... Graduated with a bachelor's degree in history.

PERSONAL: Single, lives in Tampa... Enjoys sports in general and lists fishing and hunting among his favorite activities... Works closely with Camp Good Days and Special Times, a non-profit organization that plans and supervises outdoor activities for seriously ill children... In February, 1998, took 11 pediatric cancer patients from the Tampa Bay area and seven kids from Wisconsin and New York to spend a weekend playing in the snow and touring Niagara Falls... As a prep at West High School in Wassau, Wisconsin, was named to Parade's All-America squad and was an honorable mention to the team chosen by USA Today... Twice chosen the team's Most Valuable Lineman and was the squad's captain during senior campaign... Also lettered in basketball, averaging double figures in points and rebounds... Full name is Gerald Wunsch, born January 21, 1974 in Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

PRO: Talented but unheralded college free agent who made surprise impact in Bucs' secondary in 1997... Has displayed poise on field well beyond his age and experience... After earning part-time nickel back role in '97, will look for continued playing time in Tampa Bay's defensive backfield in 1998.

1997: Opened season on Buccaneers' practice squad but was making strong contributions in the secondary by the end of September... Ended up with 16 tackles and six passes defended... Signed to the active roster from the practice squad on 9/27 and played the following afternoon against Arizona (9/28)... Subbed at CB in the second half against Cardinals and came up with a tackle and a pass defended... After two games of mostly special teams duty, moved into nickel back role for Minnesota contest (10/26) and turned in strong performance with five tackles and a pass deflection... Also broke up a pass the following week at Indianapolis (11/2) in nickel back role and made it three straight games with another pass defended at Atlanta (11/9)... Had three tackles plus a stop on special teams at N.Y. Giants (11/30)... Served as extra defensive back in Bucs' Wild Card playoff win over Detroit (12/28) and recorded two tackles and a pass defended plus a key special teams play in which his near block of a Detroit punt forced P John Jett to pull up and try unsuccessfully to run for a first down... Was inactive for second playoff game at Green Bay (1/4).

COLLEGE: Turned in two prolific seasons at Texas A&M-Kingsville after a pair of standout junior college years at Scottsdale (AZ) Junior College... In two years as a Javelina, racked up 67 tackles, six interceptions, three fumble recoveries and 14 passes defended... Played in 10 games as a senior and pitched in with 29 tackles, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and eight passes defended... All-around effort against West Texas A&M included five tackles, an interception, a fumble recovery and two passes defended... in first season as a Javelina, as a junior, appeared in 12 games and came up with 38 tackles, four interceptions, a fumble recovery and eight passes defended... Was a two-time all-conference choice at CB at Scottsdale J.C.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Tampa... Earned letters in football and track at Clark High School in New Orleans, Louisiana... Garnered all-district honors as a prep senior on the gridiron... Full name is Floyd Alexander Young, born November 23, 1975 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

COLLEGE: First-team All-America receiver and one of the most dangerous return men in the college game... Feared deep threat who also ranked as one of the most polished and precise route-runners in the NCAA... Finished fifth on Gators' all-time list with 2,181 receiving yards on 113 career catches despite starting just 19 games as a collegian... Scored a total of 30 touchdowns, 23 receiving, three rushing and four on punt returns... Four career punt return TDs established new Florida record... Averaged 12.6 yards on punt returns (61-776) and 20.3 yards on kickoff returns (26-528)... Also a threat to run, averaged 8.3 yards on 20 career carries, including three TDs... Majored in public recreation.

1997: Earned first-team All-America status from AP and most publications as a junior... Was a finalist for the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver, and a semi-finalist for Football News' Offensive Player of the Year award... Also placed on SEC's all-conference first team... Started all 12 games (including bowl). Led Gators with 61 receptions for 1,024 yards and nine touchdowns, becoming just the fifth receiver in school history to breach 1,000-yard barrier... Also Florida's primary punt returner, running back 27 for 392 yards (14.5 avg.) and two touchdowns... Caught 10 passes for 185 yards and a touchdown against Tennessee... Followed with 10-catch, 139-yard, three-touchdown effort in downing of Kentucky... Amazingly, accounted for all three TDs in 24-10 win over Auburn in three different ways: a 12-yard TD pass to Jamie Richardson, a 10-yard scoring reception and a five-yard touchdown run... Ran a punt back a career-long 89 yards for a touchdown versus South Carolina... Helped key 32-29 win over Florida State with seven receptions for 145 yards, then finished career with two-TD outing in Citrus Bowl win over Penn State.

1996: Played in every game and started seven plus the bowl game during sophomore campaign... Tallied 33 receptions for 626 yards and nine scores... Also returned 25 punts for 324 yards (13.0 avg.) and two touchdowns and 10 kickoffs for 216 yards (21.6 avg.)... In 65-0 shutout of Kentucky, returned punts for 66 and 79-yard touchdowns, becoming the first Gator to score on a punt return since 1984... Hauled in five passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns against Vanderbilt... Also scored twice against arch-rival Florida State... 106-yard effort against Alabama included season-long 85-yard touchdown catch... In national-championship-deciding rematch against Florida State in Sugar Bowl, contributed five catches for 79 yards.

1995: After red-shirting in 1994, contributed strongly as a freshman... After sitting out opener, played in every remaining game and started one contest... Blocked three punts on special teams to tie a school single-season record... Caught 19 passes for 531 yards and five touchdowns, averaging an astounding 28 yards per grab... Also returned nine punts for 50 yards (5.6 avg.) and 16 kickoffs for 312 yards (19.5 avg.) and ran seven times for 93 yards and a touchdown... Tackled Kentucky's punter behind the line of scrimmage on first play as a Gator and followed later in game with a blocked punt... Ran a career-long 42 yards for a touchdown on a reverse against Mississippi and added a 33-yard scoring catch... In first career start against Northern Illinois, turned in a career-long 96-yard TD catch, the second-longest reception in school history... Had five catches for 155 yards and a TD vs. Vanderbilt.

PERSONAL: Single, will spend off-season in Tampa... Was a first-team all-state selection as a prep at Peach County High School in Fort Valley, Georgia... IMMEDIATE IMPACT

How much impact will the draft class of 1998 have on the Buccaneers' roster this season? While a 10-6 record in 1997 may indicate little room for new players, Head Coach Tony Dungy has used rookies liberally in his first two seasons at the helm.

Last season, all seven of the Bucs' first through fifth-round draft picks spent the entire season on the active roster, and nine of the 10 1997 draft choices are back for the 1998 training camp. Rookies RB Warrick Dunn, WR Reidel Anthony, T Jerry Wunsch, G Frank Middleton, LB Alshermund Singleton and TE Patrick Hape combined to make 28 starts and accounted for 55.0% of the team's rushing yards, 36.2% of the receptions and 34.5% of the touchdowns.

In 1996, four of the team's nine draft choices were starters as rookies, as DE Regan Upshaw, FB Mike Alstott, CB Donnie Abraham and T Jason Odom combined for 51 starts.

GAME ONE SUNDAY, AUGUST 31 TAMPA BAY 13, SAN FRANCISCO 6 HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the San Francisco 49ers for the first time in 17 years and in the process became the first team to hold the Niners without a touchdown since 11/10/91. Led by inspired DT Warren Sapp, the Buccaneer defense set the tone early, holding the 49ers to a pair of field goals in the first half. The San Francisco offense was slowed by the loss of QB Steve Young on its first drive due to a concussion suffered while being sacked by Sapp. Pro Bowl WR Jerry Rice went down in the next quarter when he sustained a knee injury while being tackled by Sapp on an unsuccessful reverse. Still, the Buccaneer offense couldn't find the end zone and San Francisco went into the intermission with a 6-0 lead. In the second half, the Buccaneer defense buckled down even further, holding the 49ers to just 45 yards in the last two periods. Four of the Bucs' seven sacks came in the second half as Tampa Bay put up its top sack total since 10/18/87. In the third quarter, QB Trent Dilfer hit WR Karl Williams with a 55-yard pass down to the San Francisco 20. Though that scoring chance was fumbled away at the four-yard line, the Bucs' defense kept the Niners pinned down by their goal line and wound up with good field position following San Fran's punt. A 45-yard Michael Husted field goal followed, closing the gap to 6-3 heading into the final 15 minutes. Tampa Bay then took the lead early in the fourth period on a one-yard Dilfer-to-TE Dave Moore toss, capping a 52-yard drive that was mostly the work of second-year FB Mike Alstott. Alstott's work included a 26-yard reception, a six-yard run to the 49ers' 15 and a 14-yard catch-and-run down to the one. The Bucs' lead was a slim three points with nine minutes to play, but Tampa Bay got the ball back in short order when Young, who re-entered the game for the final quarter, was sacked by LB Hardy Nickerson on first down and intercepted by CB Tyrone Legette on second down. Husted's 34-yarder followed, giving the Bucs a 13-6 lead. On San Francisco's next possession, Young was sacked twice more and the 49ers were forced to punt. Tampa Bay then ran most of the last 4½ minutes off the clock thanks to the power running of Alstott.

GAME TWO
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 7
TAMPA BAY 24, DETROIT 17
PONTIAC SILVERDOME

Signalling a new-found competitiveness on the road, the Bucs' jumped out to a 17-0 lead over the Lions in the Silverdome and held on for a 24-17 victory. Rookie RB Warrick Dunn earned his first 100-yard rushing game, but it was the Buccaneer defense that set the early tone. S Charles Mincy intercepted Lion QB Scott Mitchell's second pass of the game, giving the Bucs possession at the Lions' 37. Dunn's 16-yard run on the next play set up PK Michael Husted's 41-yard field goal. The Bucs took possession again just two minutes later and embarked on a 71-yard drive that concluded in rookie TE Patrick Hape's first career score on a one-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer. The drive, however, was mostly the work of Dunn again, who took a handoff up the middle, broke outside and ran 49 yards down to the Lions' nine. Detroit did get close enough for a 52-yard field goal drive in the second quarter, but when PK Jason Hanson missed, Tampa Bay turned the resulting field position into a 58-yard TD drive. After a five-yard penalty, all 53 yards were gained on the ground, 40 by Dunn, 11 by Dilfer and two by FB Mike Alstott. Dunn finished it, dipping under Lion tacklers for a six-yard touchdown run. DT Warren Sapp snapped the Lions' next drive with a sack of Mitchell, but Detroit got the ball back once more and posted a 40-yard field goal drive just before halftime.

Detroit struck first in the second half on the strength of a big play. On the team's second possession, Mitchell threw a deep sideline pass to WR Johnnie Morton that Buccaneer CB Anthony Parker attempted to intercept but managed only to tip to Morton. The Lion receiver took the catch 73 yards down the sideline for a touchdown to make the score 17-10. Each team then punted twice before Tampa Bay took over at its own 29-yard line. WR Karl Williams hauled in an 18-yard catch on third-and-six despite a hard hit, then WR Horace Copeland induced a 45-yard pass interference on rookie CB Bryant Westbrook three plays later. The Bucs were given possession on the one-yard line and FB Mike Alstott barreled in two plays later for a touchdown. After LB Derrick Brooks broke up a Mitchell pass on the next possession and forced a punt, Alstott killed most of the remaining clock time by running six consecutive times before a Tommy Barnhardt punt. The Lions did manage to turn the final few minutes into another score, thanks to a phenomenal play by the sublime Barry Sanders. Held in check for most of the game and limited to just 20 rushing yards, Sanders took a short pass on fourth-and-12 and eluded tackler after tackler for a 66-yard score. All but 15 seconds were extinguished from the clock, however, and the Bucs left with a seven-point win.

GAME THREE
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14
TAMPA BAY 28, MINNESOTA 14
HUBERT H. HUMPHREY METRODOME

For the second straight week, Tampa Bay's running attack was potent on indoor road turf as RB War- rick Dunn's 101 yards led a 191-yard outburst. The Bucs again jumped off to an early lead, though Minnesota scored first on a 25-yard field goal by PK Greg Davis. That drive was built on a 56-yard pass from QB Brad Johnson to WR Jake Reed, a toss that was answered minutes later by Buc WR Horace Copeland's 49-yard catch. Positioned at the Viking nine-yard line by that reception, the Bucs scored two plays later when TE Jackie Harris hauled in QB Trent Dilfer's five-yard toss. S John Lynch stopped Viking RB Robert Smith for a five-yard loss on the Vikings' next drive, leading to a punt and a Buc drive that started at their own 15. The resulting march showcased all the skills that FB Mike Alstott brings to the NFL. To position the Bucs for a score, Alstott caught two passes and ran twice for 28 yards to get the Bucs down to the one. From there, he provided one of the season's most amaz- ing highlights, scoring on a third-effort one-yard TD run in which he bounced off a failed dive over the middle, faked out one Viking defender and bowled backwards over two more for the score. Tampa Bay pumped its lead up to 21-3 in the third quarter when it took its opening possession 72 yards for a touchdown. Dilfer connected with rookie WR Reidel Anthony on a 28-yard pass, then fin- ished the drive with a 27-yard scoring strike to WR Horace Copeland that Copeland hauled in despite pass interference on the Viking defender. The Vikings scored next, but only three points as a 75- yard march ended in Davis' 24-yarder. Minnesota punched into Buc territory on their next drive, too, but LB Jeff Gooch forced WR Cris Carter to fumble and S John Lynch recovered at the Tampa Bay 25. The Bucs' resulting drive appeared to be in trouble at their own 48, as the team faced a third-and- seven, but Dunn took a delayed handoff into the middle, eluded several tacklers and broke it out- side for a 52-yard TD run. Though the next two possessions by a desperate Viking squad produced nothing, the team's final possession in the last two minutes finished with a 30-yard Johnson-to-Carter TD pass. Despite a Viking two-point conversion, the Bucs walked away with a two-touchdown win.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21
TAMPA BAY 31, MIAMI 21
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

The Bucs continued their offensive surge with a 357-yard outing against the Dolphins during a nationally-televised Sunday night outing, moving to 4-0 with a 31-21 victory. RB Warrick Dunn followed his two 100-yard rushing games with a 100-yard receiving game (6-106), while FB Mike Alstott took over the rushing load with 95 yards on 18 carries. After forcing three straight Dan Marino incompletions, the Bucs took over on the Dolphins' 49 thanks to a 25-yard punt return by WR Karl Williams. QB Trent Dilfer hit Dunn on a 21-yard sideline route, then followed a few plays later with a three-yard scoring pass to Alstott. On the last play of the quarter, Tampa Bay took off on a longer drive that included similar components: a 23-yard reception by Dunn and a one-yard TD reception by Alstott. The score was set up by a 13-yard reception by Williams on third-and-seven that put the Bucs at the one-yard line. Miami used the remainder of the second quarter's clock for an extended drive, covering 85 yards in seven minutes as Marino hit WR O.J. McDuffie on four passes for 37 yards including a 10-yard scoring pass. Tampa Bay recaptured control of the game in the third quarter by scoring the next 10 points, including an opening-drive 70-yard march for a field goal. The biggest play of the drive was a 41-yard pass interference call by CB Terrell Buckley drawn by WR Horace Copeland, leading to a 22-yard chip shot by PK Michael Husted. On the ensuing kickoff, RB Irving Spikes fumbled the kick then picked up the ball and raced all the way to the Dolphins' 43. That return led to a 47-yard field goal try by PK Olindo Mare, but DT Jason Maniecki got a piece of the kick, preserving the Bucs' 17-7 lead. Four plays later, Dilfer hooked up with WR Reidel Anthony on a 38-yard pass that resulted in the rookie receivers' first career touchdown and a 24-7 lead. The Dolphins, though, had awoken on offense and a 71-yard touchdown march followed, mostly on the strength of two Marino passes to TE Troy Drayton for a total of 34 yards. Miami appeared to be in position to regain control of the ball a few minutes later when they forced Tampa Bay into a desperate third-and-29. Dunn solved that quandary by taking a short screen pass and weaving 58 yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins added another touchdown on an 80-yard march when Marino passed on 10 of 13 downs, including a one-yard scoring toss to WR Fred Barnett, but Alstott then ran four straight times for 22 yards to kill the clock. Remarkably, the Bucs did not punt once during the game, only the second time in team history that had happened. In addition, Dilfer turned in his first career four-touchdown performance while not being sacked once.

GAME FIVE
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28
TAMPA BAY 19, ARIZONA 18
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

The Buccaneers equaled the best start in franchise history by winning their fifth straight game despite losing in most statistical categories. Tampa Bay was outgained 364 to 147 total yards, but managed to sack QB Kent Graham six times (three by DT Brad Culpepper) and intercept two of his passes. The Bucs' special teams made the difference in the game, beginning with the opening score courtesy of rookie LB Alshermond Singleton. Singleton blocked a punt by Jeff Feagles, scooped up the bounding ball and raced 28 yards for the game's first touchdown, followed by an unsuccessful extra point try. Culpepper ended the Cardinals' next drive with an eight-yard sack on third down, but Arizona's next possession reached into Buccaneer territory in the second quarter. After the Bucs stopped the Cardinals at the 37-yard line, Arizona lined up for a 54-yard field goal attempt but suddenly shifted into an offensive formation and tried to get the yard on a handoff to massive DT Eric Swann, only to have Swann stopped and forced to fumble by LB Hardy Nickerson. Just a few minutes later, the Bucs responded with more successful special teams trickery as P Tommy Barnhardt completed a 25-yard pass to S Tony Bouie on a fake punt. That resuscitated a drive that ended in rookie WR Reidel Anthony's second touchdown in as many games, this one on an eight-yard reception on third down. The Bucs went for two on the conversion but were thwarted on a Mike Alstott run up the middle. On the following drive, Graham kept a drive alive with two third-down completions, including a 28-yarder to WR Rob Moore on a scramble, leading to a 21-yard Graham-to-Moore scoring hook-up. Trailing by just five, the Cardinals quickly got the ball back but were just as quickly halted by consecutive sacks by Culpepper and DT Warren Sapp. In the third quarter, the Cards pulled within two points on their first possession by driving 61 yards for a field goal on the strength of a 41-yard Moore reception. Later in the period, Arizona took the lead thanks to its defense, as All-Pro CB Aeneas Williams anticipated a short third-down pass by QB Trent Dilfer and dashed in front of it for an interception and a 42-yard touchdown return, followed by a two-point conversion. The Buccaneers could get nothing started on their next two drives, but were given another chance by S John Lynch's interception at the Cardinals' 35. On fourth-and-six, Dilfer found WR Karl Williams on a short crossing route that turned into a 31-yard touchdown and the winning points. DE Chidi Ahanotu killed the next Cardinal drive with an 11-yard sack, but Arizona had one more chance and drove close enough for a 47-yard field goal attempt by PK Kevin Bulter. Butler missed, short and to the right.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 5
GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 16
LAMBEAU FIELD

After an amazing 5-0 start that marked the franchise's best since 1979, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers suffered their first loss of the season at the hands of the defending Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers. The Bucs showed signs of a newfound strength, however, with a second-half comeback that brought them within one touchdown of upsetting the Pack in their own house. After halting the Packers' opening drive, Tampa Bay marched 63 yards down the field to score the first points of the game, a 23-yard field goal. But the rest of the first half belonged to the Packers, who scored all 21 of their points in the second quarter. In the final seconds of the first period, Green Bay CB Tyrone Williams forced a RB Warrick Dunn fumble that the Packers recovered on the Bucs' 35-yard line. This allowed Packers QB Brett Favre to throw his first TD pass of the day three plays later, a 31-yarder to WR Antonio Freeman. A second Buc turnover resulted in the Packers' second touchdown, when 295-pound DL Gabe Wilkins rumbled 77 yards for a score on an interception return. Wilkins had picked off a short screen pass intended for FB Mike Alstott and taken off in the other direction, leaping over an attempted tackle by QB Trent Dilfer in the process. The Packers took a 21-3 lead into the locker room at the half after they were able to sustain their only significant drive of the period, a 50-yarder that ended in a 6-yard Favre-to-Freeman TD pass. Just when the 18-point deficit looked overwhelming, however, the Bucs came back and forced a 13-0 second-half shutout at Lambeau. The defensive unit forced Green Bay to punt four times and the special teams blocked a third-quarter field goal attempt. Rookie RB Warrick Dunn ignited the Buccaneers offense with an 18-yard run that helped set up Tampa Bay's first touchdown of the day, a one-yard leap into the end zone by FB Mike Alstott. Additionally, his 44-yard run in the final period helped set up his own 2-yard TD run, bringing the Bucs within striking distance. Tampa Bay had one more solid chance at the comeback, but were turned away at the Green Bay 48-yard line when a fourth-and-six pass to Dunn fell incomplete.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12
DETROIT 27, TAMPA BAY 9
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

The Buccaneers fell victim to Detroit RB Barry Sanders, as the eight-time Pro-Bowler dashed 215 yards through the hands of Tampa Bay defenders and scored all three Detroit touchdowns during the Lions' 27-9 besting of the Bucs. The Lions accumulated an explosive 447 yards on offense, most of which came from 80- and 82-yard Sanders runs. After forcing the Lions to punt on their opening series, the Bucs sustained a 51-yard drive behind the powerful running of FB Mike Alstott and capped it off with a 25-yard field goal. That lead dissipated quickly, however, when Sanders took the ball 80 yards down the field for a score midway through the opening period. It seemed the Bucs would not be intimidated when rookie RB Warrick Dunn nearly matched Sanders' play by catching a mid-range pass on third-and-10 and turning it into a 59-yard scoring play on the following series. The Buccaneers were able to sustain their two-point lead throughout the second quarter, until the Lions intercepted a QB Trent Dilfer pass, moved the ball 41 yards, and kicked a 34-yard field goal during the final seconds of the half. Detroit's first big play of the second half was again courtesy of Sanders. With his 82-yard TD run up the right sideline during the third quarter, he became the first player in NFL history to score on two running plays of over 80 yards in the same game. LB Derrick Brooks saved another potential Lions score by forcing Sanders to fumble on the Bucs' three-yard line where S John Lynch recovered. Unfortunately for the Bucs, any momentum gained by that play slipped away shortly thereafter with a 40-yard punt return by Glyn Milburn that set up another Lions' field goal, and WR Herman Moore's 79-yard catch that led to a seven-yard TD reception by Sanders.

GAME EIGHT
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26
MINNESOTA 10, TAMPA BAY 6
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

After its offense came up short during the previous week's loss to the Detroit Lions, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were not pleased to find the unit struggling again against the Vikings. The first half of the contest proved to be a defensive battle, as neither team made a mark on the scoreboard. In the second half, however, the Vikings' offense and special teams managed to record a few more game-turning plays than the Bucs, allowing Minnesota to win by a narrow four-point margin. Neither team was able to enter the others' 'red zone' in the first quarter, but the Buccaneers' defense gained some momentum for the team by halting a Vikings drive. Minnesota reached the Tampa Bay 34-yard line with their second possession of the game, but were forced back when DT Warren Sapp dropped QB Brad Johnson for a 10-yard loss on third-and-goal from the six. The Vikings attempted a field goal, which sailed wide right after bouncing off the right goal post. Minnesota ended up scoring first, with a 75-yard, seven-minute drive that ended with a third-quarter field goal. The Vikings were forced to settle for the three-pointer after LB Hardy Nickerson stopped RB Leroy Hoard on third-and-three from the 11-yard line. Minnesota made the game's biggest play shortly thereafter when RB David Palmer returned a Sean Landeta punt 57 yards to the Bucs' eight. Three plays later, the Vikings increased their lead to 10-0 on a one-yard run by FB Charles Evans that was ruled a touchdown amid some dispute. The Bucs fought back on their next possession, marching 77 yards in just nine plays. QB Trent Dilfer came up big, hitting rookie WR Reidel Anthony with a 30-yard pass and TE Dave Moore with a 28-yarder during the drive. Anthony got the ball in the end zone on a two-yard catch on third-and-goal, however the PAT was no good and the Bucs remained down by four. The Bucs drove most of the way down the field on their final drive in the last two minutes, aided by Anthony's 19-yard catch on fourth-and-15. The clock ran out on Tampa Bay's last chance, however, and a final desperation pass fell incomplete in the end zone.

GAME NINE
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2
TAMPA BAY 31, INDIANAPOLIS 28
RCA DOME

The Buccaneers snapped a three-game losing skid, the team's longest winning drought of the season, with an emotionally draining 31-28 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The win improved Tampa Bay's non-division record to a perfect 4-0 and marked the third time this season that QB Trent Dilfer had to rally the Buccaneer offense in the fourth quarter. Dilfer completed seven of his final nine passes, marching the team to two scoring drives in the final 10 minutes. Tampa Bay capitalized early, converting a muffed C Jay Leeuwenburg to QB Paul Justin shotgun exchange on Indy's third offensive play of the game into a one-yard touchdown leap by fullback Mike Alstott five plays later. The Colts came back with a field goal on the next series and went ahead 10-7 a few moments later on a RB Marshall Faulk four-yard touchdown run in the opening moments of the second quarter. A 63-yard punt return by Karl 'The Truth' Williams following Indianapolis' next offensive series set the Buc offense up at the Indy nine-yard line. Three plays later, Dilfer connected with tight end Dave Moore on a two-yard TD toss to give Tampa Bay a slim 14-10 lead. However, that was not to be the only Buc score of the quarter, as the offensive unit orchestrated a masterful 70-yard scoring drive that culminated with a six-yard Dilfer-to-Williams touchdown toss for a 21-10 Buc half-time advantage. The third quarter, however, belonged to the Colts who scored 11 unanswered points to even the game at 21. The fourth quarter got off to an ominous beginning when an Alstott fumble at the Buccaneer 18-yard line was picked up and run in by Indy SS Robert Blackmon for an apparent go-ahead touchdown. From there it was all Tampa Bay as Dilfer again directed another long 80-yard drive resulting in a second touchdown score to Williams, this time from 24-yards out. With the game deadlocked at 28 and seemingly headed for overtime, Williams came to the rescue once more, putting the finishing touches on his best day as a pro with a crucial 21-yard punt return to the Colts' 45-yard line. With just :52 remaining, Dilfer connected on three straight passes of 12, nine and six yards to set up PK Michael Husted's game-winning 36-yard field goal with just :11 remaining.

GAME TEN
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9
TAMPA BAY 31, ATLANTA 10
GEORGIA DOME

The Buccaneers returned to early-season form with a 31-10 drubbing of the Atlanta Falcons, just one week after pulling out a thrilling last-second road victory at Indianapolis. Tampa Bay used a three-pronged attack by its offense, defense and special teams to secure the victory and improve its record in domes to 4-0. The special teams drew first blood on the Bucs' first punt of the game with long-snapper Dave Moore forcing a fumble by Atlanta return man Todd Kinchen that was recovered by fellow Buc LB Shelton Quarles at the Buccaneer 48-yard line. Two plays later, FB Mike Alstott showed why he is the premier player at his position, bouncing off a tackle inside and bursting around the right side for a spectacular 47-yard touchdown jaunt, the longest of his career. After a 68-yard Atlanta scoring march that culminated in a QB Chris Chandler to WR Bert Emanuel 30-yard scoring strike, the Buccaneers again asserted themselves reeling off the game's next 10 points. QB Trent Dilfer took the team down the field on a 73-yard drive that was highlighted by a short toss to RB Warrick Dunn out of the backfield which the amazing rookie turned into a 24-yard score. A meager 21-yard effort by Falcons punter Dan Stryzinski on the ensuing Atlanta series set up Bucs PK Michael Husted for a season-best 54-yard field goal and a 17-7 halftime advantage. Atlanta opened up the third quarter with a 63-yard march that resulted in a 34-yard Morten Andersen field goal. Tampa Bay then proceeded to drain 8:19 off the clock in the third quarter while driving 81 yards on the strength of three third-down conversions, including a 14-yard scoring hookup between Dilfer and Moore that put Tampa Bay up 24-10. In the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay forced yet another Kinchen punt muff that resulted in a Quarles recovery. Dunn then closed out the scoring on a 30-yard run up the middle. Defensive tackle Brad Culpepper put the finishing touches on his dominating three-sack performance to help short circuit the Falcons' next drive. After the Buc offense managed a pair of first downs to kill more time off the clock, Atlanta's final series ran out of time for the 31-10 final.

GAME ELEVEN
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16
TAMPA BAY 27, NEW ENGLAND 7
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

Tampa Bay made it three straight wins with a dominating 27-7 dispatching of the former AFC Champion New England Patriots in a game that sold out prior to the season opener. In a game that was highlighted by a special performance by the Buccaneer defense, the Patriots' vaunted high-powered offensive attack was grounded, managing under 100 total yards until a 75-yard drive in the game's final two minutes. Regardless, Tampa Bay finished with a commanding 343-168 advantage in net yards and kept the Patriots without a first down until 11 minutes remained in the third quarter. New England QB Drew Bledsoe spent much of the day running for his life, getting dropped five times. Tampa Bay jumped out to a quick 7-0 first quarter advantage following a 70-yard drive which featured a 25-yard pass completion to tight end Jackie Harris and later a 16-yard connection with his understudy Dave Moore to set up a one-yard run by RB Errict Rhett. Although not resulting in a score, the Bucs' next drive was an impressive sight. Seventy-nine yards and 9:26 off the second-quarter game clock resulted in a turnover on downs at the New England one-yard line when QB Trent Dilfer's pass to WR Karl Williams fell incomplete. Tampa Bay would score once more prior to the half when PK Michael Husted drilled a 44-yard field goal. The third quarter proved to be much of the same for the two teams as Tampa Bay forced a quick three-and-out series and a short New England punt. A few plays later, Moore hauled in a tight seven-yard frozen rope from Dilfer to put Tampa Bay up 17-0. The scoring ceased until the fourth quarter when CB Donnie Abraham picked off a Bledsoe pass at the Patriot 21-yard line to set up a one-yard plunge by FB Mike Alstott. The following series, LB Derrick Brooks intercepted another Bledsoe pass to set up an eventual 44-yard Michael Husted field goal. Yet another New England drive was snuffed out when DT Warren Sapp sacked Bledsoe and forced a fumble recovered by line mate Jason Maniecki. New England finally scored on a 75-yard QB Scott Zolak-led drive in the final two minutes to narrowly avert the shutout.

GAME TWELVE
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 23
CHICAGO 13, TAMPA BAY 7
SOLDIER FIELD

The Bucs hoped to end a franchise record of struggles in Chicago, but received a determined fight from a 1-10 Bears team. Tampa Bay essentially lost the game with a pair of first-quarter turnovers, surrendering a 10-0 lead in the first quarter after two fumbles. The Bucs' very first play from scrimmage started the troubles when FB Mike Alstott fumbled and CB Walt Harris recovered. QB Erik Kramer scrambled around left end for 31 yards three plays later, setting up RB Raymont Harris' two-yard touchdown run. The Bucs did not fare much better with their next possession as WR Horace Copeland caught QB Trent Dilfer's first pass on second down but fumbled after a six-yard gain. Harris forced this turnover and LB Barry Minter recovered, leading to a short Chicago drive ending in a 32-yard Jeff Jaeger field goal. As the second quarter began, the Bucs took off on a drive that reached Bear territory thanks mostly to a 39-yard Dilfer pass to TE Jackie Harris. However, PK Michael Husted's subsequent 50-yard field goal attempt fell short. The Bears followed with a field goal drive of their own, eating seven minutes off the clock with a 53-yard march before Jaeger nailed a 25-yarder. Tampa Bay moved into Chicago territory again on its next drive when Dilfer hooked up with WR Karl Williams on a 37-yard pass, but a holding penalty erased an Alstott reception down to the five and DE Carl Simpson sacked Dilfer on the next play, forcing a punt. Tampa Bay finally capitalized on a scoring drive in the third quarter when Dilfer zipped a 12-yard touchdown pass to rookie WR Reidel Anthony on a quick slant-in route. That pass finished off a 69-yard drive that saw the benefit of consecutive personal fouls by the Chicago defense. After the Bears' next drive stalled, the Bucs took off on another drive into the Bears' side of the field but Husted misfired on a 40-yard attempt. The Bears then methodically drained five of the remaining eight minutes off the clock behind the running of Harris before punting down to the Bucs' 16. Dilfer threw a 21-yard pass to WR Robb Thomas and ran for 13 yards on the next snap, but the Bucs' drive ended just past midfield when Alstott caught a short pass on fourth-and-two but was able to blast for just one yard.

GAME THIRTEEN
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 30
TAMPA BAY 20, NEW YORK GIANTS 8
GIANTS STADIUM

The Buccaneers rebounded strongly from their surprising loss in Chicago, winning in New York for the first time in 10 tries. Rookie RB Warrick Dunn ground out 120 yards on 24 carries, FB Mike Alstott scored one touchdown each in the running and passing games and the Buc defense contributed two crucial interceptions and held the Giants to just 202 total yards. The Giants' opening drive moved quickly into field goal range, but a delay of game penalty before the kick attempt contributed to Brad Daluiso's miss from 47 yards. The Bucs threatened late in the first quarter, but a third-down pass from QB Trent Dilfer bounced through WR Karl Williams' hands and into those of CB Phillippi Sparks. Though Sparks ran the pick far down the left sideline, Dilfer cut him off at the Bucs' 27 and the New York scoring threat was ended when LB Derrick Brooks dove for a pick of his own. At the beginning of the second quarter, Dilfer attempted a long pass over the middle to Williams, but Sparks made a leaping interception at the New York 32. CB Donnie Abraham continued the turnover tradeoff minutes later when he snared Kanell's pass at the Bucs' 44. Dilfer then hooked up with Dunn on a 53-yard catch-and-run, setting up Alstott's one-yard TD reception. New York had the only other score of the first half when a Dilfer pass went through WR Robb Thomas' hands and appeared to hit the ground before S Tito Wooten scooped it up and raced 53 yards to set up a 45-yard Daluiso field goal. Tampa Bay quickly took control in the second half with an 84-yard TD drive. Dunn ran four times for 22 yards to kickstart the drive, followed by a 42-yard pass interference penalty on CB Jason Sehorn. On the next play, Alstott plowed through several defenders to score a nine-yard TD. Seemingly in control, the Bucs saw the Giants climb back into the game in a three-minute span over the third and fourth quarters when a 30-yard Daluiso field goal was followed by a Buccaneer safety. The Giants got those two points when Dilfer was called for intentional grounding after throwing a pass away from the Bucs' end zone. The resulting Tampa Bay kickoff gave the Giants possession at their own 44, but their go-ahead drive attempt was thwarted at the Bucs' 47 when S John Lynch nailed RB Tyrone Wheatley in the backfield on a fourth-and-one rushing attempt. Tampa Bay ran the next five minutes off the clock with a clinching scoring drive, moving 52 yards behind the running of Dunn and Alstott before RB Errict Rhett finished with a one-yard TD carry. The Bucs went for two on the conversion but failed. The Giants' last drive was kept alive by a three-yard scramble up the middle by Kanell on fourth-and-one, but Kanell's subsequent passes were broken up by Brooks and Abraham and the Bucs forced a Giants' punt. Tampa Bay's running game finished the job by draining the last five minutes off the clock.

GAME FOURTEEN
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7
GREEN BAY 17, TAMPA BAY 6
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

In a contest that promised either an NFC Central championship to the Packers or a guaranteed playoff berth to the Buccaneers it was Green Bay that realized its goal in a 17-6 defensive struggle. Tampa Bay was outgained 362-161 in total net yards, but a ball-hawking Buc defense kept the game close through the first half. Tampa Bay scored first after S John Lynch forced TE Mark Chmura to fumble on the Packers' first play from scrimmage. LB Hardy Nickerson recovered and, three plays later, PK Michael Husted drilled a 24-yard field goal. The Packers took the lead, however, on their third possession of the quarter, set up by Mike Alstott's fumble. Starting at the Bucs' 36-yard line, Green Bay scored on its second play when a scrambling Brett Favre fired a 43-yard TD pass to WR Robert Brooks. The Bucs would post the only other score of the first half in the next period, thanks again to a turnover. S John Lynch redirected an overthrown Favre toss and the Bucs took over at the Pack's 30. The Bucs failed to move the ball, but Husted succeeded on a 48-yarder to reduce the halftime margin to one, 7-6. However, QB Trent Dilfer suffered a badly sprained right ankle on the play just before Husted's field goal and was taken to the locker room. Dilfer returned to play in the second half, but two long Packer drives spelled doom for Tampa Bay, beginning with a 10-play, 73-yard march in the third quarter. Keyed by a 20-yard Favre-to-Chmura relay, the drive ended with another scrambling Favre throw, this one an eight-yarder to RB Dorsey Levens. With Dilfer struggling on his drop-backs, the Bucs moved to midfield on their next drive but were forced to punt, pinning the Packers at their own three. That potentially dangerous situation for the Packers turned around when Favre drove his team 88 yards for a clinching field goal. Chewing 10 minutes off the clock, Favre got the ball to Levens on handoffs or passes nine times for a total of 50 yards before PK Ryan Longwell's 27-yard kick. QB Steve Walsh relieved Dilfer in the fourth quarter, but a Buccaneer drive that reached Green Bay's 31 ended in an interception by S Mike Prior.

GAME FIFTEEN
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 14
NEW YORK JETS 31, TAMPA BAY 0
MEADOWLANDS

The Buccaneers' worst Sunday of 1997 came at the hands of a Jets team desperate for a win to remain in the AFC playoff picture. Little went well for the Bucs who, despite a solid defensive unit that gave up just 234 yards and no scoring drives of over 24 yards, surrendered their highest point total of the year and scored their lowest. The Bucs actually turned in the first big play of the game when CB Anthony Parker intercepted QB Neil O'Donnell's first pass of the game, but Tampa Bay was unable to gain a first down following the turnover. With 1:05 remaining in the first quarter, the Jets struck first with a 32-yard field goal set up by a short Sean Landeta punt into a 22-mph wind. Landeta's next try was blocked by S Raymond Austin, but the Buccaneers defense thwarted New York's efforts to capitalize by shutting down RB Leon Johnson on a fourth-and-one run at the Bucs' 10. However, the Jets scored moments later when an on-target pass by QB Trent Dilfer bounced sideways out of WR Horace Copeland's hands into those of CB Otis

Smith, who returned the pick 45 yards for a touchdown. That scenario was unfortunately repeated five minutes later when Smith jumped in front of another Dilfer offering and returned it 51 yards for another score. Any hopes for a second-half momentum switch vanished quickly when RB Leon Johnson returned the opening kickoff 101 yards for a touchdown. The situation quickly worsened for Tampa Bay after the following chain of events: a penalty on the kickoff return that put the Bucs at their own eight, three offensive plays for a total of one yard and a 23-yard punt return to the Bucs' 24. The Jets covered that distance in four plays, culminating in a seven-yard TD run by RB Adrian Murrell. Dilfer, struggling through a sprained right ankle suffered the week before, was replaced by Walsh in the second half of the third quarter, but the Bucs' offense was able to get little going beyond the 88 rushing yards and 22 receiving yards posted by rookie RB Warrick Dunn. Neither team scored in the fourth quarter.

GAME SIXTEEN
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21
TAMPA BAY 31, CHICAGO 15
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

In a near carbon copy of the Buccaneers' 1996 season finale, Tampa Bay built an early first-half lead thanks in part to an outstanding special teams play, then used a strong running game to finish up a rout of the Chicago Bears. The Buccaneer running game produced 183 yards, including 153 in the second half, largely on the legs of rookie RB Warrick Dunn. On the Bucs' second possession, QB Trent Dilfer sustained an impressive drive by converting three straight third-and-long situations with two passes of 17 yards each to WR Karl Williams and one 16-yard toss to TE John Davis. Dilfer then finished the drive himself by scrambling seven yards into the end zone for his first rushing touchdown of the year. On the final play of the opening period, Williams turned in perhaps the most exciting special teams play in team history, weaving and spinning out of multiple tackles to record a 61-yard punt return touchdown. It was the second punt return TD of Williams' career and only the third in team history. Chicago cut the Bucs' lead in half with their next drive by marching 76 yards for a touchdown. The big play in the drive was a 16-yard reception by TE Ryan Wetnight, and rookie RB Darnell Autry finished it up with a three-yard scoring burst. Tampa Bay then gave themselves a comfortable halftime margin after CB Donnie Abraham picked off an Erik Kramer pass at the Bears' 36. Dilfer led the Bucs to paydirt from there, finding Williams in the back of the end zone with a seven-yard pass with just 11 seconds remaining on the clock. In the third quarter, Tampa Bay struck first with a 20-yard Michael Husted field goal. Though that play was routine, it was set up by another Buccaneer milestone, Dunn's 76-yard run that ranked as the longest in team annals. Tampa Bay truly salted the game away on their next drive by moving 45 yards for another touchdown, this one culminating in RB Errict Rhett's five-yard scamper up the middle. The key play in that drive was its first, a 23-yard gain on a reverse by rookie WR Reidel Anthony. Though the Buc defense stopped Chicago on its next possession, Williams muffed the ensuing punt, giving the Bears the ball at Tampa Bay's 24. Five plays later, the Bears posted the game's final score when reserve QB Rick Mirer sneaked across the goal line from one yard out. On the following two-point play, Mirer again ran it in for a successful conversion. The Bears' last two drives were thwarted by a Melvin Johnson interception and a Warren Sapp sack and fumble recovery, respectively.

WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 28
TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lion RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies — RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards — the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME
SUNDAY, JANUARY 4
GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7
LAMBEAU FIELD

The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay actually had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) — After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) — By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) — The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) — As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) — After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract. The new deal ensures Dungy will be with the team through the 2002 season.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) — Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

EMANUEL LANDS IN TAMPA (4/14) — Less than a week after signing an offer sheet with the Bucs, Atlanta transitional free agent WR Bert Emanuel officially joins the team after the Falcons fail to match the four-year offer.

McKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) — Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

Two separate awards are presented each year to the team member chosen as the Bucs' Most Valuable Player. The St. Petersburg Times' award is determined by a vote of writers who regularly cover the team. The Tampa Sports Club, a cross section of the Tampa sports community, votes for its award. The Newspaper Enterprise Association no longer conducts a poll which was won in 1977 and 1979 by Lee Roy Selmon, in 1976 by Dave Pear and in 1978 by David Lewis.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and for families in crisis.

BUCCANEERS IN OVERTIME

September 9, 1979 - Tampa Bay 29, at Baltimore 26:

Colts win the toss. On Baltimore's third play from scrimmage, Buccaneer DE Randy Crowder sacks Colt QB Greg Landry, forcing a fumble that is recovered by DT Bill Kollar at the opposition's 14-yard line. PK Neil O'Donoghue kicks a 31-yard field goal on the next play to win the game at 1:41 of OT.

October 12, 1980 - at Tampa Bay 14, Green Bay 14:

Packers win the toss. After the two teams exchange a pair of punts, Green Bay QB Lynn Dickey continues the most prolific passing day ever by a Buccaneer opponent (418 yards), guiding the Packers into Tampa Bay territory in the final minute of overtime. A 21-yard completion to WR Aundra Thompson helps Green Bay reach the Bucs' 18-yard line, but a 36-yard field goal attempt by PK Tom Birney sails wide right as time expires, resulting in the NFL's first tie since 1978.

January 2, 1983 - at Tampa Bay 26, Chicago 23:

Bears win the toss. Chicago takes possession on its own 20 but gains just five yards as QB Jim McMahon is nearly sacked on successive plays. After a 35-yard punt, the Bucs take over on their own 40-yard line. RB James Wilder takes a pitch around the right end on the Bucs' first play and runs 47 yards to the Chicago 13. Two plays later, PK Bill Capece hits a 33-yard field goal at 3:14 of OT to send the Bucs into the playoffs.

September 18, 1983 - Minnesota 19, at Tampa Bay 16:

Vikings win the toss. The Buccaneers force a Minnesota punt and take over on their own 47-yard line. QB Jack Thompson produces three first downs and leads the Bucs down to the Vikings' 15-yard line, but PK Bill Capece misses a 33-yard field goal. Minnesota RB Ricky Young turns a short pass into a 48-yard gain to the Buccaneer 27-yard line, setting up a 42-yard game-winning field goal by PK Benny Ricardo at 5:33 of OT.

October 9, 1983 - at Dallas 27, Tampa Bay 24:

Cowboys win the toss. Dallas takes over on its own 10-yard line after the kickoff and reaches Buccaneer territory with a 46-yard pass from QB Danny White to RB Ron Springs. RB Tony Dorsett's 12-yard jaunt around end sets up a 50-yard field goal try by PK Rafael Septien. Septien's attempt falls short, but a roughing the kicker penalty sets up another try by the Cowboy kicker and he converts from 42 yards out at 4:38 of OT.

December 12, 1983 - Green Bay 12, at Tampa Bay 9:

Packers win the toss. Green Bay keeps the ball on the ground in the opening drive with RBs Jessie Clark and Harlan Huckleby running for 43 of the 65 yards gained on the possession. A 20-yard sweep by Huckleby down to Tampa Bay's seven-yard line sets up a game-winning chip of 23 yards by PK Jan Stenerud at 4:07 of OT.

September 30, 1984 - at Tampa Bay 30, Green Bay 27:

Packers win the toss. After the teams trade punts, Green Bay begins at its own 27-yard line but is again forced to punt after three plays. A 16-yard Steve DeBerg pass to FB Adger Armstrong brings the Bucs down to the Packers' 17-yard line and, despite consecutive holding penalties, PK Obed Ariiri connects on a 48-yard field goal at 10:38 of OT.

October 14, 1984 - at Detroit 13, Tampa Bay 7:

Buccaneers win the toss. Buccaneer QB Steve DeBerg leads Tampa Bay into Detroit territory with consecutive completions of 10, 19 and 14 yards, but RB James Wilder fumbles at the Lions' 41-yard line (recovered by William Gay). On Detroit's fifth play, QB Gary Danielson hits WR Leonard Thompson in stride for a 37-yard TD at 4:34 of OT.

November 24, 1985 - at Tampa Bay 19, Detroit 16: Lions win the toss. After forcing two three-and-out series by Detroit, Tampa Bay takes over at its own 38-yard line. After opening the drive with a 19-yard Steve Young to WR Gerald Carter completion, the Bucs run on nine straight plays, driving to the Detroit eight to set up a 24-yard field goal by Donald Igwebuike at 12:31 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - at Atlanta 23, Tampa Bay 20: Falcons win the toss. Neither team advances with its first possession, but the Falcons put together a 52-yard drive after taking a Buccaneer punt at their own 33-yard line, keyed by a 22-yard scamper by RB Cliff Austin on a draw play. PK Mick Luckhurst converts on a 34-yard field goal attempt to win the game at 12:35 of OT.

October 5, 1986 - at L.A. Rams 26, Tampa Bay 20: Rams win the toss. The Bucs lose their second overtime game in as many weeks on L.A.'s first possession as RB Eric Dickerson breaks a 42-yard touchdown run up the middle at 2:16 of OT.

December 11, 1988 - at New England 10, Tampa Bay 7: Buccaneers win the toss but elect to kick. Patriot QB Tony Eason opens New England's first possession with a 21-yard completion to WR Irving Fryar and follows three plays later with a 26-yard hookup with Fryar. Two short runs by FB John Stephens set up a 27-yard field goal by PK Jason Staurovsky at 3:08 of OT.

September 30, 1990 - Tampa Bay 23, at Minnesota 20: Vikings win the toss. Minnesota drives to the Buccaneer 31, but former Buc PK Donald Igwebuike's 48-yard field goal try is wide left. After a Tampa Bay punt, CB Wayne Haddix picks off QB Rich Gannon's pass on the Vikings' next play and returns it to the Minnesota 26-yard line. RB Reggie Cobb runs up the middle for six yards to position the Bucs for a successful 36-yard field goal by PK Steve Christie at 9:11 of OT.

November 27, 1994 - at Tampa Bay 20, at Minnesota 17: Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay's initial drive opens with a 16-yard reception by WR Courtney Hawkins but stalls at the Vikings' 49-yard line. P Dan Stryzinski's punt is fielded at Minnesota's 18, but is nullified by a penalty. On the re-kick, Viking WR Eric Guliford muffs the punt at Minnesota's four-yard line where it is recovered by long-snapper Ed Brady. PK Michael Husted wins the game with a 22-yard field goal on the next play which came at 2:08 of OT.

October 15, 1995 - at Tampa Bay 20, Minnesota 17: Buccaneers win the toss. Minnesota forces a Tampa Bay punt and takes over on its own 48. QB Warren Moon drives the Vikings to the Buccaneer 35-yard line, but PK Fuad Reveiz misses a 53-yard field goal attempt. The Bucs' ensuing possession nearly ends on a fumble by TE Jackie Harris, but WR Lawrence Dawsey strips Viking S Orlando Thomas during the return and G Ian Beckles falls on the loose ball at the Viking 45. A 15-yard Trent Dilfer-to-Alvin Harper pass then positions the Bucs for PK Michael Husted's game-winning 51-yard field goal at 8:37 of OT.

December 10, 1995 - at Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10: Buccaneers win the toss. Trent Dilfer passes to TE Jackie Harris for nine yards and WR Horace Copeland for 23 yards, plus an eight-yard scamper by RB Errict Rhett moves Tampa Bay into Packer territory. Rhett is stopped for a loss of one on a third-and-one attempt from Green Bay's 28-yard line, but PK Michael Husted kicks a 47-yard game-winning field goal on the next play at 11:14 of OT.

November 10, 1996 - at Tampa Bay 20, Oakland 17: Buccaneers win the toss. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Buc defense forces a Raider three-and-out and the home team gets the ball back at its own 39. Two big-gainers by rookie FB Mike Alstott, a 20-yard reception of a QB Trent Dilfer pass and a 10-yard run up the middle, position Tampa Bay at the Oakland five, from where PK Michael Husted kicks the game-winner, a 23-yarder with 3:11 remaining.

BUCS IN THE COMMUNITY

In accordance with their reputation of being involved in the community, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers players, coaches and team owner Malcolm Glazer assisted an unprecedented number of Tampa Bay area non-profit organizations in 1997. Members from all areas of the Buccaneer organization donated significant amounts of time and funding to established charities, and several created their own philanthropic programs. The following is just a sample of the many programs Buccaneers supported in 1997:

● Glazer donated up to $3 million over a 30-year period to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, a contribution that will promote the continued development of amateur sports in Hillsborough and Pinellas counties. Glazer made a preliminary donation of $75,000 in 1997, and will donate an additional $7,500 for every Buccaneer home game victory over the next 30 years.

● RB Warrick Dunn established the "Homes for the Holidays" program in November of 1997, in which he assisted four single mothers in becoming first-time homeowners. After making the down payments on four homes, Dunn filled each household with such necessities as furniture, washer and dryer, kitchen appliances and lawn mowers. He also stocked each kitchen with food, all in time for the Thanksgiving holiday. In 1998, Dunn plans to assist eight more families in fulfilling their dreams of home ownership.

● Since 1993, the Buccaneers have served as "Big Brothers" through the Big Brothers / Big Sisters of Tampa Bay organization. Five players and one coach currently have Little Brothers. PK Michael Husted met his Little Brother in 1995, while G Jorge Diaz, WR Karl Williams, T/G Steve Ingram and LB Shelton Quarles adopted their Little Brothers in 1997. Additionally, Offensive Assistant Coach Ricky Thomas recently met his Little Brother.

● LB Hardy Nickerson manages the Hardy Nickerson Foundation, which benefits at-risk Bay area youth and targets those in need of strong male role models and mentors. The Foundation has donated over 12 computers to local Boys & Girls Clubs through the "Hardy's Homework Shops" program, and is currently creating a mobile computer center to benefit inner city youth. In addition, the Foundation has also made contributions to benefit Cystic Fibrosis, provided funding for 11 children to attend a local private school, and hosted 20 youth at each Buccaneer home game.

For the second year, the Buccaneers continued the "Buccaneers' Super Challenge" in Hillsborough and Pinellas County schools. The program was designed by Athletes in Action to challenge middle school students to improve their lives in five areas: academic excellence, drug and alcohol abstinence, positive attitude, non-violence and personal responsibility. Bucs players who participated in the challenge were PK Michael Husted, LB Shelton Quarles, S Tony Bouie, T Paul Gruber, S Charles Mincy, TE Dave Moore, T Jason Odom and WR Horace Copeland.

During last year's holiday season, G Jorge Diaz adopted Wimama Elementary School, a predominately Hispanic school, and took 25 students on a shopping trip to buy Christmas presents. In addition to the gifts, each child was sent home with a new pair of shoes. Diaz will be expanding his outreach into Tampa's Latin community in 1998.

DT Warren Sapp donated over 100 pairs of shoes to students at Dover Elementary School through his "Sapp for Shoes" program. Sapp will be expanding "Sapp for Shoes" in 1998 to benefit more Hillsborough county youth.

QB Trent Dilfer makes financial contributions and time commitments to the American Red Cross, American Cancer Society, Underprivileged Children's Fund, United Way, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Metropolitan Ministries, Joshua House, Habitat for Humanity, the Spring of Tampa Bay, Police Athletic League, Hillsborough and Pinellas law enforcement agencies and several California homeless shelters.

Through his relationship with Camp Good Days and Special Times, T Jerry

Wunsch funded a trip for 20 pediatric cancer patients to travel to New York to see snow for the first time.

For the third year, LB Derrick Brooks will work with the youth at the Audley Evans Center as part of his "Brooks Bunch" program. Kids in Brooks Bunch receive tickets to all Buccaneer home games and have a chance to travel to various locations on education field trips. After studying the history of Atlanta during the 1997-98 school year, 12 students spent three days with Brooks in Atlanta, where they visited all the places they learned about in school. Brooks funded the entire trip, including airfare, hotel rooms, meals and ground transportation.

FB Mike Alstott hosted the 2nd Annual Mike Alstott Youth Football Camp. The four-day camp involved over 350 Bay area children, including 75 underprivileged kids who were able to participate through camp scholarships.

Several Buccaneer players and coaches have established scholarships that benefit either Bay area students or kids from that player's or coach's high school or college. Those Bucs include DE Chidi Ahanotu, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, T Paul Gruber, PK Michael Husted, CB Tyrone Legette, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and Defensive Backs/Assistant Head Coach Herman Edwards.

PK Michael Husted begins the sixth year of his "Kicks for Kids" program in which he donates money to The Children's Home after every successful field goal. In 1997, P Tommy Barnhardt participated in Kicks for Kids by making contributions to the Shriners Hospital for every punt he placed inside the 20-yard line. In addition to Kicks for Kids, Husted is involved with Camp Good Days and Special Times, the Pediatric Cancer Foundation, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, and frequently visits local schools to mentor students.

T Paul Gruber hosted his fourth annual Police Athletic League Youth Football Camp with the help of QB Trent Dilfer and several other Buccaneer players. In addition to sponsoring the youth football clinic, Paul and his wife, Brenda, have worked closely with Tampa's homeless population through their commitment to Metropolitan Ministries.

Defensive Backs/Assistant Head Coach Herman Edwards is in his 11th year hosting the Herm Edwards Youth Football Clinic. He is the only NFL coach to host a week-long youth football camp. The camp, which is held in California, is free of charge, typically attracts over 300 children, and features an end-of-camp banquet and an auction that raises money for academic scholarships.

The Ahanotu Foundation, established by DE Chidi Ahanotu, has assisted 28 students since its inception in late 1996. Providing either tuition or living assistance, the Foundation has made awards ranging from $500 to $5,000. In partnership with Transworld Diversified Services, Ahanotu has also developed Transworld Inner-City Technical Achievement Centers (TICTAC) to assist children in learning how to use and apply computer technology.

Head Coach Tony Dungy, CB Donnie Abraham, FB Mike Alstott, S Tony Bouie, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, LB Hardy Nickerson and the entire Buccaneers secondary hosted youth groups from local charities and schools at each Buccaneer home game in 1997.

DT Brad Culpepper hosts an annual golf tournament each off-season that benefits The Children's Miracle Network at Shands Hospital in Gainesville. Brad also donated funds to Head First, a national non-profit organization promoting helmet safety to youth, for every sack he made in 1997.

In an effort to assist their favorite charities through funding and creative programming, RB Warrick Dunn, FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks and T Jerry Wunsch established funds in their names through the Community Foundation of Tampa Bay during the 1998 off-season.

G Frank Middleton adopted the dropout prevention classrooms at Jefferson High School by making frequent visits to the school, where he encouraged the students to improve their grades and start setting goals to attend college. At the end of the 1997-98 school year, over 30 seniors were able to improve their grades in order to graduate on time. Middleton rewarded them with dinner at Landry's Seafood House. He also spent most of his Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the Skyway little league park giving lessons in football and life to the Tampa Bay Youth Football League's Jr. Buccaneers.

S Charles Mincy and CB Tyrone Legette provided over 300 needy families with baskets of food for Thanksgiving and Christmas through the Project "H" program. The baskets included a turkey, fresh fruit and vegetables, rice, milk and eggs. The players also gave the children new books and Reebok shoes for Christmas.

TE Dave Moore and his wife, Ann Marie, funded an activity cart for the children at All Children's Hospital. Youth staying at the hospital get to select a craft activity each day to help fill the long hours of the day.

THE SWASHBUCLERS

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers portray a winning image both on the football field and in the community, and the team's cheerleaders exemplify the same captivating attitude. The SwashBucIers bring a fresh, energetic style of entertainment to the Buccaneers' sidelines every Sunday and share a community-minded spirit with Tampa Bay area residents throughout the year.

The 44-person troupe of SwashBucIers, that includes a 10-member band of pirates who carry the signature Buccaneer attack flags, represent a variety of professional fields. The team is comprised of athletes, businesswomen, mothers and full-time college students. While not working at their jobs or performing at a game, SwashBucIers volunteer a considerable amount of time to various community organizations. The group makes routine appearances at Tampa Bay area hospitals, nursing homes, and organizations like the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa, American Cancer Society and United Way.

While many squad members are returning for their second and third seasons with the team, several new faces joined the group of ambitious women this year, as well. Cheerleading Coordinator Carole Wood joined the Buccaneers this past off-season after serving as captain and guest choreographer for the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders since 1991. Wood will use her 16 years of cheerleading and dance choreography experience to map out all of the squad's pre-game and sideline dance routines, while also managing its day-to-day operations and community and corporate appearances.

Under Wood's direction, the SwashBucIers plan to create the most dynamic, exciting game day atmosphere Buccaneer fans have ever experienced.

BUCCANEERS ON THE AIR

BUCCANEER RADIO NETWORK

Gene Deckerhoff

David Logan

For the eighth consecutive year, WQYK-FM (99.5) will serve as the flagship station for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Radio Network. WQYK broadcasts all Buccaneer games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. WQYK will also simulcast Buccaneer football on its AM affiliate, 50,000-watt WQYK (1010 Talks).

For the past eight years, WQYK has been the top-rated radio station in the Tampa Bay market. The station has consistently been an industry leader and has also been an active corporate participant in the Tampa Bay community. This season, WQYK's coverage will again include the pre-game show along with a post-game report.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the tenth straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball for the past 19 years. He is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a five-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Joining Deckerhoff in the booth as the color analyst will be former Buccaneer David Logan who is in his eighth season in that role. Logan played nose tackle during a successful career with the Buccaneers (1979-86) and Packers (1987), and ended his playing days with a streak of 103 consecutive starts. Ranked as one of the NFC's top nose tackles, Logan was an All-Pro and All-NFC selection in 1984. Since ending his career as an active player, he has worked as a Tampa network affiliate sports caster and continues to work for CBS-TV, Jefferson-Pilot, the Sunshine Network and Tampa's 24-hour news station Bay News 9.

Jeff Ryan will again serve as the pre-game and halftime host, as well as producer for the broadcasts on the Buccaneer Radio Network. A native of Chicago, Ryan has been with WQYK since 1976.

BUCCANEER PRE-SEASON TV

Doug Graber

Randy Cross

Dave Sims

John Peterson

For the ninth consecutive year, WTOG-TV, UPN 44, will serve as the official pre-season television station for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, providing live coverage of three Bucs pre-season games. The station will also air a live pre-game show, "Countdown to Kickoff," from each pre-season game location starting 90 minutes before kickoff.

WTOG's pre-season package will feature live telecasts of the Buccaneers' bouts with the Kansas City Chiefs (August 8 at 8:00 p.m., at Norman, Oklahoma), Oakland Raiders (August 24 at 9:00 p.m.) and New Orleans Saints (August 28 at 7:30 p.m.). The Buccaneers' other two pre-season bouts, against the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio (August 1, 7:00 p.m.), and at the Miami Dolphins (August 13, 8:20 p.m.), will be broadcast nationally on ABC and ESPN, respectively.

Doug Graber will serve as color analyst for the Chiefs game. The former Buccaneers defensive coordinator (1987-89) also currently serves as the color analyst for the University of South Florida Bulls football program and spent 1997 working with USF, ESPN-Regional and Sports Channel. Before he entered the field of broadcasting, Graber worked since 1966 as a football coach at the high school, college and professional level. His coaching experience includes stints with Rutgers University (head coach, 1990-95), Kansas City Chiefs (secondary coach, 1983-86), and the Buccaneers.

Randy Cross will provide color analysis for the Bucs' games at Oakland and New Orleans. After spending five seasons as an NFL analyst for CBS and four years in a similar capacity with NBC, Cross returned to CBS where he currently serves as an NFL analyst. Cross' TV background also includes a stint as the Buccaneers' pre-season color analyst with WTOG (1996) and duties as an NBC color man for its telecasts of Notre Dame football.

Joining Graber and Cross in the broadcast booth will be play-by-play announcer Dave Sims. The only returning member of WTOG's broadcast team, Sims is an Emmy award-winning announcer who has called college basketball action for CBS Sports during NCAA tournaments and regular-season action with ESPN and the Big East/Creative Sports Network. Sims' other credits include Major League Baseball play-by-play announcing for ESPN and track and field coverage for NBC Sports at the 1988 Seoul Olympics and 1990 Goodwill games. Sims is currently entering his fourth year with WCBS-TV in New York as a sports correspondent, weekend anchor and host of a weekly half-hour sports show.

WTOG-TV Sports Director John Peterson will provide sideline reporting during the games and will host "Countdown to Kickoff." Before coming to UPN 44, Peterson was the sports director at WXLV-TV (ABC) in Greensboro, North Carolina, where he covered two Final Four NCAA Playoffs, ACC Basketball and several Winston Cup NASCAR races, including the Daytona 500. From 1987-95, Peterson served as the sports director for WTXL-TV (ABC) in Tallahassee, Florida, where he worked for the Seminole Radio Network broadcasting Florida State University football and basketball games. His accolades include "Best Sportscast" from the Florida Sportscasters Association and two Associated Press Awards in the "Best Feature" category.

LEE ROY SELMON #63

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995. The Buccaneers' first draft choice in 1976, Selmon proved to be the best player to date in team history. Drafted out of Oklahoma where he won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season, Selmon went on to become the cornerstone of the Buccaneer franchise for nearly a decade.

A member of eight All-America teams while with the Sooners, Selmon was an even greater professional. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), Selmon anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. His lengthy list of Buccaneer records include: career starts (118), career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13), career fumbles caused (28.5) and Pro Bowl selections (six). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equalled only by his generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service.

Since his retirement, Selmon has remained highly-visible in community affairs. In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon has taken on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's new football program. As Associate Athletic Director at USF, since August of 1994, Selmon has been entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's fledgling football program.

Selmon was born and raised in Eufaula, Okla. He has five brothers and three sisters including Dewey who played for the Bucs from 1976-80 and Lucious who is currently the outside linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Lee Roy and his wife, Claybra, have three children, Brandy (20), Lee Roy, Jr. (17) and Christopher (15).

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

September 20, 1998 signals a new era in Tampa Bay Buccaneer football. When the Buccaneers take the field in Raymond James Stadium for the first time, they will have relocated only a few hundred yards from their original home, but they will have abruptly moved into the future of the National Football League. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Already being referred to as the crown jewel of the NFL by league insiders, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneer game. Below are some of the exciting new features that Buccaneer fans will encounter at Raymond James Stadium. For information on purchasing tickets for the Tampa Bay's inaugural season in their gleaming new home, please see the reverse side or call the Buccaneers' ticket office at 1-800-282-0683.

General Seating. After 22 years of watching Buccaneer football from bench seating, Tampa Bay fans can now comfortably settle into individual seats, measuring 19-21" wide and with 32-33" from one seat back to the next. Overall, Raymond James Stadium holds over 65,000 fans, 52,000 of which will be in general seating. There are up to 650 wheelchair-accessible seats located in all areas, not just the end zone. Seats in all sections also feature cupholders.

Club Seats. Raymond James Stadium features up to 12,000 club seats, a modern feature that allows fans to experience Buccaneer games and entertain guests in maximum comfort. Club seats are extra-wide and padded and feature waiter service and prime sideline locations. The seats are accessible from a luxurious, air-conditioned club level that houses restaurants, sports bars, video walls, lounge seating and additional views of the field.

Luxury Suites. A total of 159 suites on two floors at mid-level along both sidelines offer absolutely the most luxurious setting to watch a Buccaneer game. Each suite has retractable glass windows, private bar and restroom and five televisions that can carry other NFL action. The suites are accessible from private elevators.

Concessions. Raymond James Stadium has over 600 points of sale for food, beverages and merchandise, a ratio of one point for every 103 seats. Houlihan's Stadium had 393 points of sale, or one for every 186 seats. A wide variety of concessions will be available, from hot dogs and sodas to gourmet pizzas and cappuccino.

Restrooms/Services. Raymond James Stadium is equipped with 44 restroom locations and a total of 841 fixtures. That ratio of one fixture for every 76 fans is an immense improvement in comfort over the ratio of one for every 129 fans that Houlihan's Stadium offered. The ratio for women fans is one fixture for every 66 people, improved from 1 for every 131 in Houlihan's. There are also five first aid stations, with at least one on each level.

SEE REVERSE SIDE FOR TICKET INFORMATION

End Zone Terraces. Each end zone in Raymond James Stadium features an area unique to NFL stadiums. Above approximately 30 rows of seating, the end zones turn into a wide, flat congregating area with an outstanding view of the field. With a full assortment of concession stands, Buccaneer fans will mingle in this sunny area before, during and after the game and surely be the envy of all Northern NFL fans watching the contest on television.

BucVision. Raymond James Stadium boasts the most advanced videoboard technology in the NFL. The two massive scoreboards, one in each end zone, can display enormous singular replays or up to six different images simultaneously. Replays, statistics and messages can now be clearly seen from any angle in the stadium. The videoboards also support high-definition television (HDTV) technology, further improving the clarity of images for Buccaneer fans. With a high-tech control center and over 30 game-day staffers, the scoreboards will keep Buccaneer fans updated on NFL activity better than any other venue in the league. There are also four matrix message boards on the upper level facing the two sidelines that display NFL scores and game statistics.

Media Facilities. The Raymond James Stadium press box seats up to 225 members of the media in a spacious, comfortable box on the west side upper suite level. A dining area featuring a multiple-screen video wall has been added, and the box is accessible from an elevator dedicated specifically to the media. The media entrance is located at Dock D on the southwest corner of the stadium.

 Escalators. An added comfort feature in Raymond James Stadium is a total of 20 escalators. With a bank of four escalators located at each corner ramp and an additional four in the club lounge, Buccaneer fans will find it easier and quicker to navigate the stadium than ever before.

TICKET INFORMATION

Tickets for all Buccaneer home games are available at the Buccaneer Ticket Office, currently located on the northeast side of Houlihan's Stadium, just north of Raymond James Stadium. Office hours from Monday through Friday are 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Tickets purchased at the Buccaneer Ticket Office may be paid for with Visa, MasterCard, American Express or cash.

If tickets remain available on game day, they will be sold at Raymond James Stadium ticket booths on the south end of the stadium, beginning at 9:00 a.m. Single-game tickets are also available at all Ticketmaster outlets throughout Florida, including Blockbuster Music, Peaches and select Spec's Music stores. Visa, MasterCard and American Express are accepted for Ticketmaster phone orders. For Ticketmaster's Bay area locations, please see the chart below.

Single-game Buccaneer tickets are available in four price ranges, as shown by the colored boxes below. The colors correspond to areas indicated on the stadium diagram on the reverse side. Several sections are sold out for the 1998 season through season-ticket sales and are not available on a game-by-game basis.
