ONE BUCCANEER PLACE

They grace the Bay area skyline as twin monuments to the power and passion of professional football: Raymond James Stadium, "The Crown Jewel of the NFL," and now its partner in excellence, One Buccaneer Place, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers new training facility.

Within walking distance of the stadium, the Buccaneers' new home is already being touted as the standard by which all future sports facilities will be measured. No effort was spared in making this the most expansive facility in the NFL, equipped with every modern amenity and the latest tools of the profession. Opening to rave reviews among league insiders last summer, it has made Tampa the preferred destination for free agent players, prospective coaches and administrators.

The new team headquarters is a combination of function, style and space - much, much more space than the Buccaneers have ever enjoyed. The facility encompasses 145,155 square feet covering 14.2 acres and includes three practice fields behind the main buildings.

The Buccaneers have used that space to raise the bar in every category of team preparation, from a 7,000-square-foot locker room to a weight room building that measures more than 16,000 square feet. Add in a 4,000-square-foot team auditorium, a remarkably-equipped team dining room and countless other features and you have, hands down, the best facility in the NFL.

"The new facility gives our players, coaches and staff an unparalleled environment in which to work," said Buccaneers Executive Vice President Joel Glazer.

Stylistically, the signature of the new facility is its spectacular entrance, which is adorned with the world's largest football. The sleek steel-and-glass construct is five stories tall, point to point, and angles against the main building as if it were on a tee, ready to start the game.

The two-story main building stretches away to both sides of the football, fronted by appealing walls of glass that call to mind the most notable exterior feature of Raymond James Stadium. Inside, the building is state-of-the-art in every way, from the rehabilitation pools in the training room to fully-integrated video equipment in every meeting room and coach's office.

It is, simply, the ideal place to build a championship football team.

"We were already playing in the NFL's best stadium and working for owners who are completely dedicated to winning," said Head Coach Jon Gruden. "Now we are working, practicing and preparing every day in a state-of-the-art facility that has everything we need. This represents an exciting time to be associated with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers."

ADMINISTRATION

MALCOLM GLAZER

OWNER/PRESIDENT

When Malcolm Glazer triumphantly hoisted the Lombardi Trophy on January 26, 2003 after his Tampa Bay Buccaneers emphatically defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 in Super Bowl XXXVII, his celebratory stance and smile signified to a world-wide audience that the Buccaneers had indeed arrived.

That world championship – the franchise's first in its then 27-year history – marked the fulfillment of a vow by Glazer and his family to not only restore the long-lost success of Tampa's much-beloved franchise, but in fact to surpass any and all previous standards by capturing the team's first World Championship.

Glazer and the Buccaneers helped wipe away years of futility experienced by the team, its players and their fans in fulfilling that promise. The club continues to be one of the most successful in the league under his leadership. Among the vanguard of the business elite, Glazer has, through his dedication and diligence, helped mold the Buccaneers into a model franchise, one respected league-wide and one other sports franchises endeavor to emulate.

Since being purchased by Glazer on January 16, 1995, the Buccaneers franchise has experienced a dramatic upswing in its fortunes, posting a .521 winning percentage, earning six playoff berths and capturing its first Super Bowl championship. In 2005, the team notched its 100th overall victory with the Glazers at the helm. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting a .300 winning percentage.

Under Glazer's watch, the Buccaneers' six playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for third-most in the NFL. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

The drive to the Super Bowl title began when he made the controversial and courageous decision to hire Jon Gruden as the Buccaneers' seventh head coach in club history on February 18, 2002. Gruden, one of the rising coaching stars in the National Football League, became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. He was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

Tampa Bay also eclipsed the club record for wins in a regular season with 12 in 2002. In fact, the top five single-season win totals in club history (12 in 2002, 11 in 2005, 11 in 1999, 10 in 2000 and 10 in 1997) have all come under Glazer's helm, and Tampa Bay was the only team in the league to play in the postseason every year from 1999 to 2002. The 2005 campaign saw the Buccaneers claim their second NFC South Division title in four years, the fifth division crown in franchise history.

The Buccaneers have an 87-73 record since the start of the 1997 season, a winning percentage of .544 that ranks in the top five in the NFC over that span. The dominating Buccaneers defense ranked in the NFL's Top 10 for nine consecutive years from 1997-2005, then the longest streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970.

Glazer also continued to upgrade off the field, hiring Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, was reunited with Gruden after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

"Outside of the X's and O's, Mr. Glazer is why we're here," said Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott. "He came in and built the franchise up, allowed us to get some players in here that cared about winning. It has to start from the owner if you're going to get anywhere and be competitive in this league."

With his first Super Bowl title in hand, Glazer has his sights set on continued success and that drive led to another significant improvement. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 145,155 square-foot state-of-the-art training center, promising a "world-class facility." The new facility, considered the largest free standing training structure of its kind in professional sports according to industry sources, opened to rave reviews in August of 2006 following training camp.

When it opened last summer, NFL Insiders were calling it, hands down, the finest training facility in the NFL. The spectacular and innovative facility includes a breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. It was built on the former Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The facility provides the ideal training environment to continue Tampa Bay's tradition of winning championships.

"Just like our stadium, our new training facility and administrative offices are the finest in the NFL," Glazer says. "To ensure that our facility would be the best, we sent our football and administrative staffers to visit what we felt were the best NFL training facilities and, in some cases, the best collegiate facilities in the country. We instructed our people to take notes and photographs, and to design their respective areas the way they wanted them to be once the facility was finished. The information our people returned with was amazing. We then took that information, presented it to the architects, and let them create the NFL's best training facility."

Known among his league peers as an innovative thinker, Glazer has infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization has provided the foundation for continued success on and off the field. That success has resulted in a level of popularity and support that is unmatched in franchise history.

Glazer has successfully constructed a multi-faceted plan, which calls for stable ownership, a talented coaching staff, knowledgeable personnel executives and a solid business partnership within the Tampa/St. Petersburg communities. The most visible aspect of this plan's success is Tampa Bay's state-of-the-art Raymond James Stadium, which has been dubbed the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium offers an unmatched game-day atmosphere for fans and players alike. Since it opened in 1998, every regular season and playoff game at the stadium has been a sellout, and the Buccaneers boast a 48-26 record (.649 winning percentage) at home. In the fall of 2006, FoxSports.com named Raymond James Stadium the best in the National Football League. In addition, the stadium was rated as having the best grass turf in the League in 2006, according to a biennial survey conducted of the league's players. The home of the Buccaneers has also ranked first in the four previous surveys – 1998, 2000, 2002 and 2004 – since RJS opened in 1998.

Additionally, Glazer devoted a significant amount of time working to make the organization more fan-friendly by greatly expanding fan activities at Buccaneer home games through the formation of the club's special events department. His mandate to increase player and coach visibility in the community was reflected in the more than 700 appearances made by Buccaneer players, coaches and front office officials last year, including nationally-acclaimed programs such as LB Derrick Brooks' "Brooks' Bunch" trips throughout the world.

"It is important for us to succeed on the field, but I want us to be good citizens in our community as well," Glazer says. "We are role models. Children and adults look up to us. I want us to set the right example."

Glazer's input has been sought on the league level as well, as evidenced by his position on the NFL's Finance Committee. He has also played a major role in Tampa becoming a host for the Super Bowl on several occasions. The Bay area was awarded the 2009 Super Bowl in May 2005, marking the second time during Glazer's ownership the area will welcome the world's most spectacular event. Glazer played an enormous role in helping to land each of the Super Bowls to Raymond James Stadium.

"I think it is the fact that the Glazers are tremendous team players within the league. Since they took ownership of the team, they have made it into a model franchise. They won the Super Bowl. They have been part of the community partnership presenting the last great Super Bowl in Tampa. I think the community's investment in a world-class stadium. But the friendship and the hospitality and the track record of the three prior Super Bowls in Tampa, coupled with this partnership here between the team and the community, obviously that is what did it. Those are the critical components."

— Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue on the Glazer family and Tampa winning the bid to host Super Bowl XLIII in February of 2009

During the 1999 offseason, Glazer launched the much-anticipated Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the Tampa Bay community. In its eight years of existence, the Foundation has donated nearly $3 million in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions.

The Glazer Family Foundation has been supporting the NFL Y.E.T. Centers, donating grant money to more than 130 organizations, providing 1,050,000 Buccaneer bookmarks to public libraries throughout seven Bay area counties and supplying 10,500 backpacks to more than 40 organizations for its back-to-school program. The foundation's signature program is the one Glazer is most proud of: The "Cheering You On Program," which has distributed more than 211,000 teddy bears to hospitalized children throughout central Florida.

In July of 2006, the Glazer Family donated more than $40,000 in vision screening equipment to the Hillsborough and Pinellas County school systems. The vision program will continue by supporting vision testing programs in the school districts of two counties within the Greater Tampa Bay Area each year. In 2007, the foundation donated $50,000 in equipment to Sarasota and Pasco county schools. There are also future plans for the initiative to provide equipment to other Bay area school districts.

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities have also included the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, an organization that promotes amateur sports activities. Glazer has committed $2 million dollars to the Commission.

A true American success story, Glazer began working in his father's watch-parts business at the age of eight. When Glazer was 15, his father died and the son assumed responsibility for the family business and expanded it.

In 2005, Glazer purchased the world's most popular and valuable sports team, Manchester United, for more than $1.5 billion. The club captured the Premier League title in May of 2007. In addition, Glazer owns, has owned or has been the largest shareholder of a diverse portfolio of international holdings and public companies, including: Shopping Centers, Zapata Corporation, Houlihan's Restaurant Chain, Harley Davidson, Formica, Tonka, Specialty Equipment and Omega Protein.

A resident of Palm Beach, Florida, Malcolm Glazer was born in Rochester, New York. He and his wife, Linda, have six children and 13 grandchildren.

MALCOLM GLAZER'S RECONSTRUCTION OF THE BUCCANEERS

In 1995, Malcolm Glazer paid a record price for a professional football team that had a 19-year winning percentage of .307. Nevertheless, he predicted success on the field; in fact, practically his first words uttered as new owner of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were, "We expect to be winners."

Eight years later, the Buccaneers reached the top of the NFL world with their first Super Bowl victory on January 26, 2003 over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. The team has enjoyed one of the most remarkable turnarounds in recent sports history. Below is a chronology of the events that led to the Buccaneers being termed a "model franchise" in the NFL.

- Just months after buying the team, Glazer announces that his first priority is to build a new state-of-the-art stadium in the Tampa Bay area.
- On January 22, 1996, Glazer hires Tony Dungy as the sixth head coach in team history, proclaiming the former Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator as "not only one of the finest coaches, but one of the finest people in the NFL." Glazer's words seem prophetic as Dungy directs the team to a 10-6 record in 1997 and a then club-record 11-5 mark in 1999 en route to Tampa Bay's first NFC Central Division title in 18 years.
- On April 9, 1997, the Buccaneers unveil new uniforms sporting primary colors of red and pewter. The team's new look is enthusiastically embraced by players and fans.
- In his continuing efforts to transform the organization into one of the league's model franchises, Glazer undertakes a complete overhaul of the team's front office in 1996, greatly expanding the sales and marketing staffs to meet the team's growing demands.
- Glazer shows his long-term commitment to bringing a championship to Tampa Bay by extending the contracts of key football personnel in 1998. Beginning with a new five-year deal for Dungy, Glazer also locks up General Manager Rich McKay and cornerstone player DT Warren Sapp. The Bucs then sign FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks and S John Lynch, among others, to long-term deals.
- Glazer and his sons open Raymond James Stadium in grand style with a 27-15 victory over the Chicago Bears before a crowd of 66,321 fans. After trailing 15-0 at halftime, the Buccaneers storm back with 27 unanswered points to defeat the Bears. Tampa Bay's win is the first of 32 in 42 games over five seasons at RJS.
- After signing Pro Bowl linemen Jeff Christy and Randall McDaniel to shore up the offensive line, Glazer gives McKay the go-ahead to trade both 2000 first-round picks to the New York Jets for WR Keyshawn Johnson. The Buccaneers then sign Johnson to an eight-year contract.
- Tampa Bay lands two of the biggest names on the free-agent market in 2001, signing Pro Bowlers QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice to five-year contracts.
- The Buccaneers name Jon Gruden the seventh coach in team history on February 18, 2002.
- Tampa Bay completes the busiest offseason in team history by signing Pro Bowl WR Keenan McCardell on June 8, 2002. McCardell joins several other acquisitions, including RB Michael Pittman, WR Joe Jurevicius, Pro Bowl TE Ken Dilger, G Kerry Jenkins and T Roman Oben.
- The Buccaneers advance to their first-ever Super Bowl with a convincing 27-10 victory in the NFC Championship Game over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium on January 19, 2003.
- Tampa Bay defeats the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, on January 26, 2003, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium to give the Buccaneers their first-ever Super Bowl title.
- Bruce Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, is named the third General Manager in club history on January 9, 2004. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.
- Tampa Bay reclaims one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team on February 12, 2004. A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Buccaneers to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.
- Tampa Bay defeats the New Orleans Saints 27-13 in the final game of the 2005 regular season (1/1/06) to claim its second NFC South division title in four seasons. The division title is the fifth in Buccaneers history, and third in 11 years under Glazer.
- In August 2006, the Buccaneers open their new, 145,155 square-foot world class training facility, featuring its signature five-story high football at the entranceway. According to industry sources, the new facility is the largest free standing training structure of its kind in professional sports.

BRYAN GLAZER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Executive Vice President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Bryan Glazer has helped revitalize the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business acumen, Glazer has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League as he enters his 13th season with the club.

Working with his brothers, Edward and Joel, Bryan has been instrumental in the team's ascension through the NFL ranks and transformation into one of the most recognizable teams in the league. His innovative approach to business and proclivity for "thinking outside the box" has resulted in the creation of the club's "Pewter Partners" program, which rewards Buccaneers' sponsors with deeper advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

Glazer also worked closely with designers and graphic artists from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles who developed the Buccaneers new logo in 1996-97. The new design, which was based on research of Caribbean buccaneer history, marked the first significant change to the team logo and uniform in franchise history. Upon its successful unveiling on April 9, 1997, the logo garnered rave reviews from such media outlets as USA Today, Fox Sports, The New York Times and The Washington Post. Perhaps the ultimate testament to the effectiveness of the logo, which consists of a skull and crossed swords on a blood-red, wind swept battle flag, is that it became – and remains – wildly popular among Buccaneers fans. It exemplifies the brand of football played in Tampa Bay.

In addition to his myriad of business-oriented achievements, Glazer also has been involved in a number of vital football-related efforts directly related to the on-the-field success experienced by the Buccaneers, certainly including but not limited to the team's first Super Bowl championship.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also claimed the 2005 NFC South title after an 11-5 regular season resume.

During the 2002 offseason, Bryan worked with brothers, Edward and Joel, in hiring one of the rising coaching stars in the NFL; Jon Gruden. Glazer, and his family, showed their commitment to building a championship team for the Tampa Bay community in hiring Gruden, who became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. Gruden was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

Glazer continued to upgrade off the field, hiring Bruce Allen; veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, on January 9, 2004 as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, was reunited with Bucs head coach Jon Gruden after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Glazer worked diligently on helping the organization prepare for the next step in the future. The new, 145,155 square-foot state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility, located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, is the finest in the National Football League. The signature of the new facility is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. The facility opened to rave reviews in August of 2006 following training camp. It is considered the largest free standing training structure of its kind in professional sports according to industry sources.

An instrumental force in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region. His commitment to the organization and the local community culminated with the club's effort in constructing the finest stadium facility in professional sports – Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in January 2001 and will play host to Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to the Bay area, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the Tampa Bay community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005.

Glazer worked alongside stadium architects and contractors during the construction of Raymond James Stadium to produce his vision of what the premier stadium in the NFL should resemble. Glazer oversaw all phases of the construction of Raymond James Stadium, where the Buccaneers have notched an impressive 48-26 record. The state-of-the-art stadium features such amenities as 19-inch wide seats with chairbacks, cupholders, and armrests, concourse televisions, full color replay boards at both ends of the stadium, one of the most sophisticated scoreboard systems in all of professional sports and the centerpiece of the stadium – luxurious club seats and air-conditioned club lounges that make Tampa Bay's stadium the envy of the NFL.

Along with brothers Edward and Joel, Bryan oversees the day-to-day operation of the entire franchise, including financial operations, marketing and communications. Since the purchase of the team, he has devoted a significant amount of his efforts to such massive projects as the development and construction of Raymond James Stadium, and the restructuring and expansion of the Buccaneers' staff.

Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers can boast a 100-92 (.521) regular-season record and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the post-season all four years. In addition, the Buccaneers' six playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for third-most in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

A native of Rochester, New York, the 42-year-old Glazer serves on the NFL's Digital Media Committee as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, and he makes countless community and charitable appearances on behalf of the organization. He is also on the Board of Directors Advisory Council for Ronald McDonald House.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986 prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989. Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which captured the Premier League title in May of 2007.

JOEL GLAZER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

The fast-paced and ultra-competitive environment that characterizes the National Football League is a perfect match for Joel Glazer's savvy management style and attention to detail. Combined these attributes have proven integral to the Buccaneers' transformation into one of the most successful franchises in the league.

Now in his 13th season as Executive Vice President of the Buccaneers, Joel, along with his brothers, Bryan and Edward, oversees the day-to-day operations of the franchise, ensuring the club achieves and maintains the highest levels of success in all aspects.

His leadership has been more than validated evidenced by the Buccaneers' .521 winning percentage, six playoff berths and first NFL title since – all of which have come under Glazer ownership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase by the Glazer family.

As Executive Vice President, Glazer's keen insight and tireless dedication continue to enhance the reputation of the Buccaneers. Glazer has passionately spearheaded a number of vital efforts throughout the years that have not only helped shape the club into a perennial contender but a model NFL franchise as well.

Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995: build a franchise from the ground up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful franchises in the NFL. That vision was realized when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also claimed the 2005 NFC South title after an 11-5 regular season performance.

During the 2002 offseason, Joel worked with brothers, Bryan and Edward, in orchestrating the now famous "midnight deal" with Al Davis that brought Jon Gruden to Tampa. Glazer, and his family, showed their commitment to building a championship team for the Tampa Bay community by hiring Gruden, who became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. Gruden was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

Glazer also led the search to reshape the Buccaneers football front office by hiring Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, was reunited with Bucs head coach Jon Gruden after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Glazer, promising a "world-class facility," led the design for the current cornerstone of the franchise, a 145,155 square-foot state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility. Located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, the facility is the finest in the National Football League. The signature of the new facility is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Considered the largest free standing training structure of its kind in professional sports according to industry sources, One Buccaneer Place opened to rave reviews in August of 2006 following training camp.

After successfully negotiating an agreement to acquire the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers can boast a 100-92 (.521) regular-season record and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years. In addition, the Buccaneers' six playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for third-most in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

Following the purchase of the team in 1995, Glazer directed his attention on vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office, recruiting talented people from a variety of backgrounds, Glazer worked tirelessly alongside Bryan and former General Manager Rich McKay to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. Glazer and his brother set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort at a stadium. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drawing from their experiences as fans, ultimately shaping every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "crown jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never seen before in modern stadiums, including the 24'x92' BucVision video boards now emulated at all new stadiums. However, the true signature of Raymond James Stadium is Buccaneer Cove, featuring the 103' larger-than-life replica pirate ship. With the pieces of the puzzle in place, as well as a state-of-the art new stadium, the stage was set to put a final stamp on the rebirth of the franchise. The team needed a new look. Glazer, along with Bryan, worked closely with NFL Properties to create a dynamic look that would illustrate the attitude and class of the franchise. The result was a complete logo and uniform redesign and Buccaneers merchandise sales immediately soared throughout the country, vaulting the Buccaneers into the top of NFL merchandise sales almost immediately. On the field, the new look helped create the attitude of a winner.

Throughout the construction of RJS, Glazer created the sales and marketing strategies and campaigns that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate "Pewter Partners," Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

Glazer also represents the team at all NFL Owners' Meetings. He played an integral role at the 2005 Spring Meetings to help Tampa Bay land the 2009 Super Bowl. The Bay area won the bid for Super Bowl Super Bowl XLIII, marking the fourth Super Bowl for Tampa Bay.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community. Glazer Family Foundation programs such as "Cheering You On," "Prevent Blindness" and the "Ticket Rewards" programs are just a few of the programs in which he takes great pride. In addition, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee. Glazer currently sits on the NFL International and NFL Stadium committees. Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which captured the Premier League title in May of 2007.

Glazer, 40, earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989, The Rochester, New York native is married to his wife Angela and has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Forward-thinking Edward Glazer, Executive Vice President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, has instilled a sense of innovation in the club that has helped place it on the cutting edge of technology as well as enhance the overall fan experience.

Implementing comprehensive improvements at each level of the organization, Glazer has ensured the Buccaneers remain the most respected NFL franchise on and off the field.

Glazer continues to oversee the development, design and construction of Buccaneers.com, the team's official Web site, which the Tampa Bay Advertising Federation recognized as the region's top interactive media effort by awarding it a "Best of the Bay" Addy Award. The site also earned top honors as the number-one designed Web site in all of professional sports, according to Sports Business Journal magazine. A new Buccaneers.com was launched this fall to put the team on the cutting edge of internet sports coverage and provide more direct access to the site's most popular features.

Ever the ardent fan, Glazer has continuously sought methods of enhancing gameday experiences for all Buccaneers faithful. One of his most popular concepts among fans has been the creation of the "Buccaneer Battle Flags." The dramatic and inspiring game enhancement has become a staple at home games and features red flags being raised throughout Raymond James Stadium each time the Buccaneers offense advances into the opposition's red zone.

Glazer also worked closely with his brothers on the design and construction of the Buccaneers' new world-class training facility. The state-of-the-art complex, which opened in August 2006, is a technological marvel and sets a new standard of excellence for training facilities in the NFL. The 145,155 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility is located across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall.

As President of the Glazer Family Foundation, Glazer is heavily involved in the implementation of the foundation programs including the "Cheering You On" program that gives every child admitted to a local area hospital a Buccaneers teddy bear and activity book. To date the program has given out more than 205,000 teddy bears.

Glazer and his wife, Shari, are deeply committed to providing aid and assistance in the community. Edward and Shari continue to support many causes, including the Zimmer Children's Museum, Jewish Federation, UCLA Jonsson Cancer Center Foundation and the Fulfillment Fund.

Shari has been involved with organizing the charity work of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which annually hosts children from the Boys and Girls Clubs, The Spring, Joshua House and the Children's Home at local petting zoos and cultural events at the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center. Shari has volunteered her time at many local charities, including Camp Good Days and Special Times, the Children's Cancer Center, and the Tampa Aids Network, where she served as co-chairperson for the Tampa AIDS Walk for two years. Shari was also named honorary co-chair for the Susan G. Komen Tampa Bay Race for the Cure.

Glazer is also President of First Allied Corporation, the family's Real Estate business. First Allied is the holding company for real estate investments in more than 20 states. Glazer also serves on the Board of the Manchester United Soccer Club, which captured the Premier League title in 2007.

Glazer was born in Rochester, New York and earned a bachelor's degree from Ithaca College.

BRUCE ALLEN

General Manager

Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, was named the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004.

Recognized as the 2002 George Young NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, Allen is widely respected around the league. Since his arrival in Tampa Bay, Allen has played a key role in the re-shaping of the Buccaneers' roster through free agency, the draft and via trade. Allen also helped the Buccaneers acquire draft picks after his arrival, giving the team an NFL-high 12 choices in the 2005 NFL Draft. Allen has been a part of four division titles in the past seven years, including Tampa Bay's 2005 NFC South crown.

Before his arrival in Tampa prior to the 2004 campaign, Allen spent the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII. Allen has been reunited with head coach Jon Gruden, who he worked together with in Oakland from 1998-2001.

"I've had the pleasure of being associated with some of the most legendary owners, coaches and players in the history of the NFL," said Allen at a press conference after his arrival in Tampa Bay. "We look forward to our future here with high hopes and great expectations."

Allen embarked on his professional football career as a 12th-round selection by the Baltimore Colts in 1978. He played football at the University of Richmond from 1974-77 where he earned a degree in business marketing. Allen garnered All-ECAC and All-South Independent honors during his junior season for the Spiders, when he ranked 16th in the nation and broke a school punting record with a 42.9-yard average.

A native of Pasadena, California, Allen and his wife, Kiersten, have a son, George (10), and daughter, Mikayla (9).

Along with his father, the late George Allen, who was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2002, Allen's brother, George, also has held positions of distinction. He was elected to the United States Senate in 2000 after serving as the 67th Governor of Virginia from 1994-98. Allen also has two other siblings who both reside in Los Angeles, Greg, a psychologist, and Jennifer Allen Richard, a well-known author.

His wife, Kiersten, has also become heavily involved in the local community with her participation in the Buccaneers Women's Organization, which consists of wives, fiancées and girlfriends of players and coaches who perform community service projects and aid in fundraisers throughout the year. In each of the last three years, Kiersten joined the Women's Organization for the annual Fall Festival at Raymond James Stadium for underprivileged children in the Bay Area. She also took part in the Susan B. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Race for the Cure and helped support the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and Muscular Dystrophy Association. The women often have fun while supporting a great cause as they did during the Buccaneer Women's Organization Holiday Fashion Shows in 2004, 2005 and 2006. Kiersten, along with several Buccaneer wives, took to the runway in order to raise money for a local women's hospital. Through Allen's Special Teams, Bruce and Kiersten provide tickets to each Buccaneer home game for families of local military personnel.

ERIC S. LAND

Chief Operating Officer

Eric S. Land joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Chief Operating Officer in January, 2006 following a career in television that spanned more than three decades. Land oversees all day-to-day non-football business operations for the organization.

During his first 18 months with the club Land led the transition to the team's new One Buccaneer Place headquarters and has worked to enhance the organization's commitment to the community. He has made dozens of appearances on behalf of the team, welcomed a number of civic groups to the Buccaneers' new facility and is expanding the team's community outreach programs.

This past offseason, Land and his wife Cindy served as honorary co-chairs of the Florida Orchestra's "Mozart, Motown and More" event benefiting the Orchestra's youth and education programs. Land also took the baton and led the Orchestra as the evening's guest conductor.

Land, along with Buccaneers quarterback Chris Simms, accepted a Certificate of Appreciation for Patriotic Civilian Service on behalf of the organization from the United States Army in the spring of 2007. The award is believed to be the first such honor of its type for a sports team in Florida. Land also serves on the board of both the United Way and the Florida Sports Commission.

"We are very excited to have Eric join our organization," said Buccaneers Executive Vice President Bryan Glazer on the day Land was hired. "He has been a valuable leader in this community for many years and has developed a great relationship with the people of the Bay area."

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Land served as President and General Manager at WFLA News Channel 8 in Tampa. Land took over at WFLA in July 2001, and the station enjoyed unprecedented success under his leadership. The station ranked as the top-rated station in the entire state of Florida, and was also honored by Media Week in 2001 as one of "10 stations that do it right" in the United States.

Prior to that, Land served as President and General Manager at WIAT TV in Birmingham, Alabama for the previous four years from 1998-01. Land has also operated television stations in Flint, Michigan (WEYI-TV) and Buffalo (WGRZ-TV) as President and General Manager.

From 1983-89, Land handled duties as General Sales Manager for television stations in Norfolk, Virginia, Indianapolis and Phoenix. His career began as a television journalist with Scripps-Howard in Cincinnati. He then held sales and sales management positions in Cincinnati, Cleveland and Chicago prior to 1983.

Land graduated from Ohio University in 1973 with a bachelor's of science degree, with a major in radio/television and a minor in business law. He received the Jesse P. Zousmer Award, given to the outstanding graduating senior in the School of Radio/Television. Land was also nominated for a local Emmy Award while working as a television anchor and student news director at WOUB in Athens.

Land established the Allan H. Land Award through the Ohio University School of Radio and Television in living memory of his father, whose footsteps he followed in the television business. The annual award is a cash prize to the outstanding graduating senior in the program.

Land's wife, Cindy, is a Special Education teacher in the Hillsborough County School District. They reside in Tampa, as do their two grown sons, Garrett and Jordan.

JON GRUDEN

HEAD COACH

In just five seasons in Tampa Bay, and nine seasons overall as a head coach, Jon Gruden has established himself among the premier coaches in the National Football League. Since arriving in Tampa Bay, Gruden has led the team to the first Super Bowl title in franchise history, along with two division championships. In nine seasons as a head coach, he has compiled an 82-70 overall record and his teams have captured four division titles.

In 2005, Gruden led the Buccaneers to their second NFC South title in four years, becoming the first coach in team history to win two division titles in his first four seasons with the team. Gruden's two division titles tie John McKay for most in team history, and he is also the first coach to win multiple NFC South titles since the division was created in 2002. Tampa Bay's 11-5 regular season record in 2005 tied for the second-best mark in franchise history and the club's 6-2 home mark tied for the second-best home slate in franchise history.

Gruden, who was named the seventh head coach in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on February 18, 2002, has led the team to a 42-42 overall record, including a 3-1 mark in the postseason. On the day he was officially introduced as head coach, Gruden stood in front of a standing-room only crowd at a downtown Tampa hotel on February 20, 2002.

"I'm thrilled to be here, and all I can guarantee is a lot of hard work and effort to try to put the Buccaneers into championship form," Gruden said that day.

Less than 11 months later, Gruden had more than delivered on his promise. Tampa Bay had claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then just the fourth division crown in team history.

Over that period, the Buccaneers established a club record for victories in a regular season with 12 wins, breaking the previous mark of 11 in 1999, and their 15 overall wins stand as the most for a club in the 31-year history of the franchise. In fact, two of the top three regular season victory totals in franchise history, 12 in 2002 and 11 in 2005, have occurred during the Gruden era. In addition, Gruden became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl and was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team. In the process, Gruden became just the third coach since 1966 to win 40 games before his 40th birthday while also becoming only the third head coach in NFL history to lead a different team to a playoff appearance in consecutive years.

"We took our time and got the man we really wanted, and we couldn't be more thrilled," said Buccaneers Executive Vice President Bryan Glazer after the hiring. "This was one of the most important decisions in the history of this franchise and it certainly paid off in a big way."

The Buccaneers offense came together down the stretch, averaging 35.3 points and 334.0 yards per game in its three postseason contests. Even more impressive was the fact that the offense allowed just one total sack in the postseason after giving up nearly 2.5 per game in the regular season.

Under Gruden's watch, former QB Brad Johnson finished first in the NFC and third in the NFL in passer rating and established club single-season records in touchdowns (22), completion percentage (62.3), lowest interception ratio (1.3%) and passer rating (92.9) in 2002. He became the first quarterback in team history to lead the NFC in passer rating and also earned a pair of NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, becoming the first offensive player in club history to accomplish that feat.

On the other side of the ball, the 2002 Buccaneers defense made a case as one of the greatest in NFL history. Tampa Bay became the first team since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions in the same season. Tampa Bay ranked first in the NFL in both total defense (252.8 ypg) and pass defense (155.6 ypg) for the second time in team history. The Buccaneers defense also ranked first in the league in fewest points per game (12.3), opponent passer rating (48.4), interceptions (31), fewest yards per play (4.2) and fewest first downs (236).

In 2002, Tampa Bay's defense featured five Pro Bowlers: 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, NFC Sack Leader DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. CB Brian Kelly ranked tied for first in the NFL with eight interceptions in 2002 and Rice ranked first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 15.5 sacks, one sack shy of his career-high of 16.5 sacks.

The Buccaneers' offensive revival continued in 2003 as the Buccaneers reached all-time franchise season-highs in both total offense (340.8 ypg) and passing offense (237.8 ypg), while ranking in the league's Top 10 in both categories in the same year for just the second time in team history (also 1984). Tampa Bay ranked 10th in total offense and sixth in passing offense, tying for the best final rankings in club history. In fact, the Buccaneers scored at least one offensive touchdown in all 16 games in 2003 for just the third time in franchise history (also 1984 and 1992). The offense also ranked fifth-best in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed with 23.

Tampa Bay's defense also remained among the NFL's elite in 2003, continuing its streak in the top 10. The defense ranked fifth in the NFL, marking the seventh consecutive year the defense finished among the NFL's Top 10, the only current team to accomplish that feat. The Buccaneers defensive unit also finished third in passing defense, marking the seventh time in the last eight seasons, including three straight, that the club finished in the Top 10 in pass defense.

As a rookie in 2004, WR Michael Clayton flourished under Gruden's watch, setting several club rookie records. Clayton, who was named one of five finalists for the PEPSI NFL Rookie of the Year award, ranked fifth all-time in NFL history among rookies with 80 receptions and 1,193 yards. He ranked first on the team and first among all NFL rookie wide receivers with the 80 receptions for 1,193 yards, and established himself as the top rookie receiver in team history in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns.

The 2004 defense ended the season ranked fifth in the NFL in total defense, marking the third consecutive season the unit ranked in the top five and sixth time in the previous eight years. That showing also marked the eighth consecutive season that the defense finished among the NFL's Top 10.

Gruden has long developed some of the league's best signal-callers, and has already tutored seven different starters in his five seasons in Tampa. He had a major impact on former QB Brian Griese, who ranked first in the NFL in completion percentage (69.3%) in 2004, and also set franchise single-season records for passer rating, completion percentage and yards per pass attempt. The 2004 Buccaneers offense set all-time marks for best completion percentage, most yards per pass play, and its 24 touchdown passes ranked second in team history. Griese passed for at least one touchdown in 12 consecutive games from 2004-05, a new club record. Gruden has also mentored QB Chris Simms, who took over when Griese suffered a season-ending injury against Miami in 2005. Simms led Tampa Bay to six wins in its final eight regular season games and his .610 completion percentage ranked fourth-best for a single season in team history.

In 2006, Gruden was forced to start three different quarterbacks, with Simms opening the first three contests before being lost for the season following an emergency appendectomy. Rookie sixth-round draft choice quarterback Bruce Gradkowski started 11 contests and statistically established himself among the top rookie signal callers in team history. Gradkowski's 1,661 passing yards, nine touchdowns, 177 completions and 328 attempts in 2006 were all the most by a rookie in franchise history, and he also set an NFL record for the most pass attempts (202) before throwing his second interception of the season. Veteran quarterback Tim Rattay came on to start the final two contests, leading the Bucs to a victory at Cleveland in the road finale.

Rookie RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, Tampa Bay's first-round selection in the 2005 NFL Draft, was the consensus 2005 Rookie of the Year after rushing for a Buccaneer single-season rookie-record 1,178 rushing yards. Williams also set a franchise mark with six 100-yard rushing games and he became only the sixth player in team history to rush for at least 1,000 yards in a single season.

The 2005 season also extended some impressive trends for the Buccaneer defensive unit. Tampa Bay finished the season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL in total defense, marking the fourth consecutive season the unit has ranked in the top five and seventh time in the last nine years. It also marked the second time in the past four years and third time in team history that the defense finished No. 1 overall, and was the ninth consecutive season that the defense has finished among the NFL's Top 10 in total defense, tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970.

Gruden owns a 77-67 career record in the regular season and a 5-3 mark in the postseason in his nine seasons as a head coach. His 77 victories since 1998 are seventh-most among all NFL coaches over that span and his 61 wins since 2000 are eighth-best in the league. He has also led Tampa Bay to 10 or more wins twice in his first five campaigns, the second-most seasons for a Buccaneers head coach with double digit victories.

In Gruden's five seasons in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneer defense has continued its run as the league's most dominant unit in the NFL. Tampa Bay's defense finished the 2005 regular season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL for the second time in a four-year span (also 2002) and ranked in the NFL's Top 10 for nine consecutive seasons (1997-2005), the longest streak in the league at the time and tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970. The 2005 season marked the fourth consecutive season and the seventh time in the last nine years the unit has ranked in the top five. It was also the second time in five years under Gruden, and third time in team history, that the defense finished No. 1 overall in total defense. Tampa Bay's pass defense has also remained among the league's elite, finishing No. 1 in the NFL in two of the last five seasons, and in the Top 10 in four of five seasons since Gruden's arrival.

Prior to his arrival in Tampa, Gruden steered the Raiders to a 38-26 regular season mark in his four seasons (1998-2001) with the club, including postseason appearances in 2000 and 2001. He led Oakland to division titles in each of the final two seasons (2000-01) and the Raiders ranked seventh in the NFL in total offense, including fourth in passing offense, in 2001. Oakland won its first back-to-back AFC West crowns since 1982-83. Under Gruden, the Raiders advanced to the AFC title game in 2000 and lost in a second round playoff game to eventual Super Bowl champion New England following the 2001 campaign. Gruden's offenses finished among the league's Top 10 in his last three seasons with the Raiders, including fifth in 1999.

The Raiders ranked seventh in the NFL in total offense, including fourth in passing offense, on their way to a second consecutive division title in 2001. Oakland won its first back-to-back AFC West crowns since 1982-83. The Raiders also ranked first in the AFC in red zone touchdown percentage and Pro Bowl QB Rich Gannon was the conference leader in passing, throwing for 3,828 yards and a completion percentage of 65.8. Over his last three seasons under Gruden, Gannon totaled 949 completions on 1,537 attempts (61.7%) for 11,098 yards with 79 touchdowns and just 34 interceptions.

Five Raiders were named to the 2002 Pro Bowl squad, including WR Tim Brown, who made his ninth trip to Hawaii this past season. CB Charles Woodson made his fourth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl, while Gannon, who led the AFC with a 95.5 QB rating, headed to Hawaii for the third consecutive season. Gannon was named the game's MVP in each of his last two contests.

The Raiders ranked among the NFL's elite in offense, defense and special teams under Gruden's leadership in 2000, advancing to the AFC Championship Game. The offense led the league in rushing at nearly 155 yards per game and ranked third in the NFL in scoring at almost 30 points per game. Oakland's 58 touchdowns were tied for the second-most in the league. The Raiders ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing defense (96.9 rushing yards allowed) and fourth in the AFC (seventh in NFL) in takeaways with 37. The Raiders led the NFL in touchbacks (15) and in net punting average (38.0). Gruden and his staff also coached the victorious AFC squad in the Pro Bowl.

In 1999, Gruden led the Raiders to an 8-8 record despite facing the toughest schedule of any NFL team. The Raiders ranked third in rushing yards and fifth in total offense in 1999. In 1998, his first year as the Raiders head coach, Gruden led the Silver and Black to a four-game improvement over the previous year, going 8-8 and the defense finished fifth in the NFL. Gruden inherited a Raiders team that had not posted a winning season since 1994, but quickly returned Oakland to the postseason.

Gruden was the third-youngest head coach in the 40-year history of the Oakland franchise. Raiders owner Al Davis was 33 when he was named head coach and general manager of the Silver and Black in 1963. John Madden was 32 when he was promoted to the head post in 1969.

Gruden spent the three seasons (1995-97) before arriving in Oakland as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles. Gruden was the NFL's youngest offensive coordinator at age 31 when Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired him in 1995. The Eagles had a 26-21-1 record during his tour of duty, including playoff appearances after both the 1995 and 1996 campaigns in the highly competitive NFC Eastern Division.

In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in the NFC. In 1996, they led the NFC in passing, were second in rushing and led the conference in total offense. In Gruden's first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 1995, the Eagles finished fourth in the entire league in rushing.

Before joining Philadelphia, Gruden worked for three seasons with the Green Bay Packers from 1992-94. He served as an offensive assistant to head coach Mike Holmgren in 1992, then spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons as Green Bay's receivers coach.

As a seven-year NFL assistant, Gruden saw his teams qualify for the playoffs five times. He also coached five seasons at the collegiate level. Gruden spent the 1991 football season in the college ranks as wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh under head coach Paul Hackett, who is now entering his third season as Tampa Bay's quarterbacks coach.

Gruden was an offensive assistant to head coach George Seifert with the San Francisco 49ers in 1990, working closely with offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren. The 49ers were an NFL-best 14-2, finally losing in the NFC Championship Game.

In his first four seasons in the coaching profession from 1986-1989, Gruden was an assistant at the University of Tennessee in 1986 and 1987 as the Volunteers totaled a 17-7-1 record and won against Big Ten opponents in the Liberty Bowl and Peach Bowl. In 1988, he was passing game coordinator at Southeast Missouri State and in 1989 coached wide receivers at the University of Pacific.

Born August 17, 1963 in Sandusky, Ohio, Gruden attended South Bend Clay High School in Indiana and was a three-year letterman at quarterback at the University of Dayton, graduating in 1985 with a degree in Communications. The Flyers had a 24-7 record in Gruden's three varsity seasons there and he was honored with the prestigious Lt. Andy Zulli Memorial Award, given to the senior player who best exemplifies the qualities of sportsmanship and character. Gruden and his wife Cindy, a former University of Tennessee cheerleader, have three sons, Jon II, 13, Michael, 10 and Jayson, 6.

Gruden has already made an impact in the Tampa Bay community, serving as a spokesperson for the Florida Citrus Commission, which is focused on building statewide awareness of the ways in which citrus contributes to Florida's social and economic welfare. He also sponsors a ticket program called Gruden's Gridiron, in which he and Cindy host youth from Hillsborough County Schools at every Buccaneers home game. Kids are selected to sit in Gruden's Gridiron based on their displaying good conduct, a positive attitude and success in the classroom. The entire family took part in the annual Tuxes and Tails event, which included a celebrity fashion show benefiting The Humane Society of Tampa Bay, in April 2005. Jon and Cindy also served as honorary chairs for the 2006 MASH BASH, an annual fundraiser to benefit the Tampa Bay chapter of the American Red Cross. The couple also donated a dinner at an auction in the spring of 2006 to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Following Tampa Bay's Super Bowl victory in January, 2003, Gruden, along with QB Brad Johnson, was the first non-player ever invited by Disney to star in their popular post-Super Bowl "What's Next" commercial. His off-the-field popularity continues to grow, marked by the success of his 2003 book "Do You Love Football?! Winning with Heart, Passion, and Not Much Sleep," which he wrote with longtime NFL scribe Vic Carucci. Gruden was also named one of People Magazine's "50 Most Beautiful People in the World" in 2001. Gruden was also the recipient of the 2002 Coach of the Year honor at the ESPY awards and was recognized as Professional Coach of the Year at the 37th Victor Awards in 2003.

His wife, Cindy, has also become heavily involved in the local community. Cindy continuously shows her commitment to the Tampa Bay community through her leadership and active participation in the Buccaneers Women's Organization, which consists of wives, fiancées and girlfriends of players and coaches who perform community service projects and aid in fundraisers throughout the year. Cindy not only aids in the planning and implementation of each Women's Organization service project, but she also participates in each event. In 2004, 2005 and 2006, Cindy and the Women's Organization organized the annual Fall Festival at Raymond James Stadium for underprivileged children in the Bay Area, read to elementary-aged children as part of a literacy program and stuffed holiday stockings with items they purchased for students at the PACE Center for Girls. During the holiday season, several wives volunteered an afternoon at Metropolitan Ministries to help sort donated food items and create food baskets for those in need. The women have also participated in the annual walk for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation as part of the Buccaneers race team.

The women often have fun while supporting a great cause as they did during the last three Buccaneer Women's Organization Holiday Fashion Shows. Cindy, along with several Buccaneer wives, took to the runway in order to raise money for a local women's hospital.

During the 2005 and 2006 seasons, the organization adopted youth from various nonprofit organizations during the holiday season in order to provide them with gifts and stockings full of desired items. The women purchased goodies for more than 50 children and stuffed the stockings to be delivered to the organizations.

Cindy continues to develop new ideas about ways to support the community and its members. Prior to the 2005 season, Cindy devoted countless hours to organizing the production of a Buccaneers Family Cookbook. The book included recipes from Buccaneers owners, players, coaches and staff, and the proceeds from book sales benefited the PACE Center for Girls.

Gruden's father, Jim, is a veteran of 37 professional and collegiate football seasons who enters his fourth season as personnel consultant with the Buccaneers in his second stint with the club. Prior to returning to the organization, Gruden spent 17 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as a regional scout responsible for the Southeast region. Before working with the 49ers, he spent five seasons with Tampa Bay as Director of Player Personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

His brother, Jay, served as an offensive assistant coach with the Buccaneers in each of the last five seasons (2002-06) and has spent the past 18 seasons in professional football, 17 of which in the Arena Football League. He has never missed the playoffs in the AFL as either a player or coach. In eight seasons as head coach of the Orlando Predators (1998-01, 2004-07), Jay has led the team to four ArenaBowl appearances with two championships and ranks eighth all-time in AFL wins with a 73-47 record. In six seasons as quarterback of the Tampa Bay Storm from 1991 to 1996, Jay won four ArenaBowl championships. He returned to the playing field for the 2002 and 2003 seasons as Orlando's quarterback, but he returned for his second stint as head coach of the Predators during the 2004 season. Jay played quarterback at Tampa's Chamberlain High School before heading to the University of Louisville to play for head coach Howard Schnellenberger. Jay's wife, Sherry, worked in the Buccaneers' marketing department from 1993-96. Gruden's other brother, Jim, is a radiologist at the Mayo Clinic in Scottsdale, Arizona.

MONTE KIFFIN

Defensive Coordinator

25th NFL Season, 12th with Buccaneers

The longest tenured defensive coordinator in the league, Monte Kiffin enters his 25th season in the NFL and 12th with the Buccaneers in 2007. Father of the often imitated 'Tampa Cover 2' defense, Kiffin has established himself as one the NFL's best defensive minds of the modern era.

Equal parts talent and scheme, Kiffin's defense has been the NFL's benchmark for more than a decade. The 'Tampa Cover 2,' while often described as simplistic, has remained successful by consistently creating turnovers and pressuring the quarterback utilizing its trademark speed, discipline and cohesiveness. In his 11 seasons (1996-2006) with the Buccaneers, Kiffin's unit has registered 340 takeaways to rank 10th in the NFL while also posting 441 sacks to rank tied for 11th during that span.

In 2006, Kiffin had to endure the loss of several starts by three of the defense's main contributors. The Buccaneers best pass rusher, DE Simeon Rice, missed eight contests because of a shoulder injury while shut-down CB Brian Kelly was lost for the season after only two starts because of a foot injury. LB Shelton Quarles, the quarterback of the Buccaneers defense, battled injuries throughout the season and missed a total of four games. Despite the challenges, Kiffin's unit finished the 2006 season strong by totaling 13 sacks and forcing nine turnovers in the last seven games. Additionally, the defense limited opponents to less than 200 yards passing in four of the final seven games.

Statistically, Kiffin's defense has been the league's most dominant unit in the NFL during his time at the helm. Tampa Bay's defense finished the 2005 regular season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL for the second time in a four-year span (also 2002) and ranked in the NFL's Top 10 for nine consecutive seasons (1997-2005), the longest streak in the league at the time and tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970. The 2005 season also marked the seventh time in 10 seasons (1996-2005) that the defense finished the year ranked in the top five in the NFL.

Additionally, Tampa Bay's defensive unit finished 2005 in the Top 10 in passing defense for the ninth time in 10 seasons, ranking sixth in the NFL. The 2004 season saw the Buccaneers pass defense rank first the NFL after surrendering just 161.2 yards per game passing. It was the second time Kiffin's group led the league in pass defense, joining the 2002 team. After ranking just 19th against the run in 2004 (123.3 rushing ypg allowed), Kiffin's run defense was dominating in 2005, finishing the season as the sixth-ranked unit in the NFL against the run (94.7 rushing ypg allowed). The 94.7-yard rushing average allowed by the Bucs in 2005 was the second best in team history. The Buccaneers defensive dominance was on display in the 2005 Wild Card playoff contest against the Washington Redskins. Tampa Bay limited the Redskins to 120 total yards of offense, the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history.

The catalyst for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl championship in 2002 was Kiffin's suffocating defense that finished the season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL. The Buccaneers became the first team since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense (252.8 ypg), fewest points allowed (196) and total interceptions (31). Under Kiffin's command, the Buccaneers were one of only four teams in the NFL to rank in the top 10 in all three defensive categories during the 2002 season, ranking first in pass defense (155.6 ypg) and tied for fifth in rush defense (97.1 ypg).

Employing an attacking style that is predicated on speed, Kiffin's unit continued its impressive play in the 2002 postseason, shutting down some of the league's best offenses. During the divisional playoff win against the San Francisco 49ers and the NFC Championship victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, Tampa Bay allowed just 16 points. They turned it up a notch in Super Bowl XXXVII, taking center stage in the Buccaneers' 48-21 win over the Oakland Raiders. Tampa Bay recorded a Super Bowl-record five interceptions, including three picks which were returned for touchdowns (also a Super Bowl record) off NFL MVP Rich Gannon. The Buccaneers allowed the Raiders just 269 total yards, including 62 total yards in the first half, and 19 total rushing yards. Tampa Bay's ferocious defensive line posted five sacks, capping off one of the most dominating defensive performances in Super Bowl history.

The Buccaneer defense was just as impressive in 1999. Boasting four Pro Bowlers and three first-team All-Pro selections, Tampa Bay's defense electrified the league with one of the most dominating defensive stretches in recent memory. The Bucs rallied to win eight of nine games to capture their first NFC Central title in 18 years. In the playoffs, Tampa Bay's defense posted phenomenal performances. The Buccaneers held Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive touchdowns in Tampa Bay's 14-13 divisional playoff win. Both of the Buccaneers' scores came off Redskins turnovers. In the NFC Championship Game, Kiffin's lightning-quick defense held the top-ranked Rams offense to 11 points, 22 below their season average.

The Buccaneers allowed just three 100-yard rushers in 1999 and set then club single-season marks for fewest opponent first downs (228), fewest opponent rushing yards (1,407), fewest opponent rushes (361) and lowest opponent completion percentage (52.7 percent).

As is a trait for any great defense, Kiffin's unit has been proficient at keeping opponents off the scoreboard. The Buccaneers have finished in the NFL's top 10 in points allowed in 10 of the 11 seasons Kiffin has been defensive coordinator and have also allowed the fewest points (2,733) in the NFL since 1997. Tampa Bay's defense ranked first in the NFL in points allowed in 2002 (12.3 ppg), fourth in the league in 2003 (16.5 ppg), tied for ninth in 2004 (19.0 ppg) and eighth in 2005 (17.1 ppg). The 196 total points surrendered by the Bucs in 2002 eclipsed the previous team-low of 223 set in 1977. Since 1998, the Buccaneers have posted seven shutouts to rank second in the NFL, including a team-record two shutouts in both the 2002 and 2003 seasons. Additionally, the 63 rushing touchdowns surrendered by the Tampa Bay defense since the 2000 season ranks second in the NFL.

While Kiffin's defense has been characteristically stingy since his arrival in 1996, it has been its ability to provide an abundance of scoring that routinely distinguishes the unit. The Buccaneers defense scored 30 points en route to the Super Bowl in 2002, led by LB Derrick Brooks' four defensive touchdowns. The five defensive touchdowns and four interception returns for touchdowns in 2002 matched team records set in 1981 and 2000. Additionally, CB Ronde Barber and Brooks, both who have developed into perennial Pro Bowl players under Kiffin, rank first and second in team history for most touchdowns by a defensive player with nine and seven touchdowns, respectively.

The defense has also pieced together some impressive streaks during Kiffin's tenure. From 1999-2003, the Buccaneer defense established an NFL record by posting at least one sack in 69 consecutive games. Tampa Bay also recorded a takeaway in 54 consecutive games, the second-longest streak in the NFL over the previous 20 years, until the defense failed to post a takeaway in Week 15 of the 2003 season. Additionally, the defense registered at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 straight contests, the longest streak in the league since 1963, before the streak was snapped against Green Bay in Week 11 of the 2003 season.

Clearly, much of the success of Kiffin's defense can be attributed to the abundance of talent discovered and cultivated under Kiffin. Under Kiffin's guidance, two Buccaneer defenders earned Pro Bowl honors after the 2005 and 2006 seasons, Barber and Brooks. The 2006 selection marked Brooks' 10th consecutive selection to the Pro Bowl, tops in team history for most total and consecutive appearances. It also marked Barber's third consecutive and fourth appearance in the all-star game. During Kiffin's tenure, the defense has produced 34 Pro Bowl selections over the last 11 seasons. Prior to that, the Buccaneers' defense had just 12 Pro Bowl selections in the previous 20 years. Kiffin has had at least one player named to the Pro Bowl in every season he has served as a defensive coordinator in the NFL (Minnesota, 1991; New Orleans, 1995; Tampa Bay, 1996-2006). Additionally, Kiffin has had two players earn AP Defensive Player of the Year honors under his tutelage, Brooks in 2002 and DT Warren Sapp in 1999.

Kiffin came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 campaign as the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. In 1995, the Saints tied for fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44. Prior to coaching in New Orleans, Kiffin spent four seasons (1991-1994) as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive coordinator for head coach Jerry Burns in 1991 and as inside linebackers coach for head coach Dennis Green and defensive coordinator Tony Dungy from 1992-1994. During that tenure in Minnesota, the Vikings led the league in both total defense and run defense in 1994.

In 1990, Kiffin tutored the linebackers for the N.Y. Jets under head coach Bruce Coslet and defensive coordinator Pete Carroll. Kiffin originally joined the Vikings as the team's linebackers coach from 1986-1989. During that time, he coached standout Viking linebackers Scott Studwell, Chris Doleman and Mike Merriweather. In both 1988 (255.7, 4.3) and 1989 (261.5, 4.1), Minnesota was the league leader in both total defense and yards allowed per play.

From 1984-1985, Kiffin coached linebackers for the Buffalo Bills, overseeing players like Darryl Talley and Jim Haslett, who later coached with Kiffin in New Orleans. Kiffin's first professional coaching job came in 1983 as the linebackers coach for the Green Bay Packers under Bart Starr.

Kiffin was the head coach at North Carolina State from 1980-1982, compiling a 16-17 record, including 6-5 marks in 1981 and 1982. Former Philadelphia Eagle Pro Bowl WR Mike Quick played for the Wolfpack under Kiffin. From 1977-1979, Kiffin was defensive coordinator for Lou Holtz at Arkansas while also serving as assistant head coach in 1979. Arkansas led the nation in scoring defense in 1977.

Kiffin began his coaching career at Nebraska, where he worked from 1966-1976 under both Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. Kiffin directed a Cornhuskers defense that led Nebraska to consecutive national championships in 1970-1971. When Osborne became Nebraska's head coach in 1973, he named Kiffin as his defensive coordinator.

As a player, Kiffin was both an offensive and defensive tackle at Nebraska from 1959-1963. Following graduation, he sat out the 1964 season because of a knee injury before playing defensive end for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 1965.

Kiffin was involved with the first-ever "Buccaneers Coaching Academy" in 2003. The hands-on clinic for area high school coaches focused on several essential areas of football knowledge and player development.

A native of Lexington, Nebraska, Kiffin was that state's High School Athlete of the Year in 1958. Monte and his wife, Robin, live in Tampa. They have three children, including daughter Heidi and sons Lane and Chris and three grandchildren, Preston, Landry and Presley. This past offseason, Lane was named as the Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders, becoming the youngest head coach in NFL history. Chris currently serves as a graduate assistant at the University of Mississippi.

BILL MUIR

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR - OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

30th NFL Season, 10th with Buccaneers
(Scout from 1978-1981)

A veteran of over four decades in the coaching profession, Bill Muir enters his sixth season in his second stint with the Buccaneers as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach. In his first appointment with Tampa Bay, Muir spent the 1978-1981 seasons in the personnel department as a scout.

Although Muir has spent the majority of his coaching career tutoring the offensive line, he has also served as a defensive coordinator and defensive line coach on the collegiate and professional levels. He is universally regarded as one of the NFL's finest and most respected instructors of offensive linemen. Joining Tampa Bay in 2002 after seven seasons with the N.Y. Jets (1995-2001), Muir's impact was immediate as he helped lead the Buccaneers to their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII.

The 2006 season saw Muir's line suffer numerous injuries while protecting three different starting quarterbacks. The anticipated starting offensive line, T Anthony Davis, G Dan Buenning, C John Wade, G Davin Joseph and T Kenyatta Walker, never appeared in a game together. Joseph, a 2006 first-round pick, was injured in practice prior to the season opener, but returned in Week 5 and put together a solid rookie campaign, starting 12 games. Coming off a great rookie season, Buenning struggled with an ankle injury much of the first half of the season and was subsequently lost for the year after tearing his ACL at Dallas on Thanksgiving. Walker, a sixth-year veteran, only started three contests at right tackle before being placed on injured reserve with a knee injury. Davis and Wade were the only anticipated starters to start all 16 games in 2006. Muir relied on the versatile G/C Sean Mahan to fill in at both guard spots as he started in 12 games. Muir also oversaw the development of rookie T Jeremy Trueblood, a second-round selection who posted 13 starts while admirably replacing Walker at right tackle. Despite the influx of young talent and numerous injuries, Muir's line only surrendered 33 sacks to rank 15th in the NFL. The 33 sacks were also the second-lowest total given up by the Buccaneers since 1999. Additionally, the 25 combined starts for Joseph and Trueblood were tied for third most in the NFL among rookie tandems on the offensive line in 2006.

For the first time in team history, Muir led an offensive line in 2005 that featured the same five starters for all 16 games, one of only three teams in the NFL that could make that claim, including Buenning, who was one of just four rookie offensive linemen in the NFL to start every game in 2005. Muir's line was instrumental in the impressive campaign of NFL Rookie of the Year RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, who finished the season by setting a Buccaneers rookie record with 1,178 rushing yards while also rushing for 100 or more yards in a team-record six games in 2005. Overall, Muir saw his line help improve the Buccaneers rushing attack from the 29th-ranked rush offense (93.1 ypg rushing) in 2004 to the 14th-ranked unit (114.1 ypg rushing) in 2005.

In 2004, Muir's offensive line was charged with the task of blocking for three different starting quarterbacks while helping the offense rank 10th in the NFC. QB Brian Griese took the reins of the offense in Week 5, and under the protection of Muir's line, set multiple team passer records, including highest passer rating (97.5), highest completion percentage (69.3) and most yards per pass play (7.83).

Muir's men were also largely responsible for RB Michael Pittman's best statistical season as a professional in 2004. Despite missing the first three games of the season, Pittman rushed for a career-high 926 yards on 219 carries (4.2 avg.). He also reached the end zone a career-high 10 times to rank ninth in the NFC among non-kickers in points scored (60).

Behind the valor of Muir's unit, the Buccaneers finished 2003 as the 10th-rated offense in the NFL, marking the second time in club history that Tampa Bay finished the season ranked in the top 10 in total offense in the NFL. Additionally, the Bucs scored at least one offensive touchdown in all 16 games in 2003 for just the third time in franchise history, joining the 1984 and 1992 clubs. Former QB Brad Johnson set several team passing records in 2003 as he broke his own team record with 26 touchdown passes and set team single-season records for attempts (570), completions (354) and tied the club mark for 300-yard passing games with four. Most impressively, the offensive line prevented Johnson from being sacked in a team-record 160 consecutive pass attempts in 2003. His 3,811 passing yards also established a team record as Johnson started all 16 games for the third time in his career.

Despite losing several starts due to injury, Muir's unit displayed consistent improvement throughout the 2002 season, culminating with the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship. Super Bowl XXXVII saw the offensive line pave the way for Pittman as he ran for a game and season-high 124 yards on 29 carries (4.3 avg.) against Oakland. The entire offensive unit was stout throughout the playoffs, averaging 35.3 points and 334.0 yards per game while surrendering only one sack in three postseason contests. Muir's offense churned out 24 first downs, 365 total yards and helped the Buccaneers hold nearly a 15-minute advantage in time of possession in the 48-21 rout of the Raiders.

QB Brad Johnson established then club single-season records in touchdown passes (22) and completion percentage (62.3). Additionally, Tampa Bay's offensive line helped the Buccaneers net 779 rushing yards (111.3 ypg) in the club's final seven games, including the postseason.

In 2001, Muir's final season in New York, the Jets finished with their best rushing totals during his tenure with the club. Behind Pro Bowl RB Curtis Martin, the Jets finished fourth overall in rushing offense and second in the AFC, averaging 128.4 yards per game, which marked the best ranking rushing offense since the Jets finished fifth in that category in 1991. Martin earned his fourth Pro Bowl selection after finishing second in the NFL with a career-high and club-record 1,513 yards rushing and 10 touchdowns. Martin posted four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons behind the Jets offensive line. Under Muir's direction, the Jets allowed the fewest sacks in the AFC (19), which also marked the second-lowest total in the NFL. In addition, Muir was instrumental in the development of C Kevin Mawae, who was selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl in 2001.

In 2000, New York's offensive line tied Indianapolis for the fewest sacks allowed (20), despite being part of an offensive line that had the most pass attempts of any team in the NFL. The Jets offense averaged 337.2 yards per game, and Martin raced for 1,204 yards rushing, including galloping for a club-record 203 yard rushing day against Indianapolis.

Muir displayed his outstanding teaching and developmental skills in 1999 when he integrated three new starters on the offensive line — Guards Randy Thomas and Kerry Jenkins and RT Ryan Young in the starting lineup. Despite the injuries, Muir developed a cohesive unit that helped Martin post a then-team record 1,464 yards rushing, marking just the third time in team history that a Jets running back had posted consecutive 1,000 yard campaigns.

Muir joined the Jets after spending three seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles in the same capacity (1992-1994). He was instrumental in an Eagles' rushing attack that averaged 110.1 yards per game over two seasons (1993-1994) and ranked fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL in 1994. Prior to joining the Eagles, he spent three seasons with Indianapolis as an assistant head coach/offensive line in 1991 and defensive coordinator in 1989-1990. He has also served as an offensive line coach with the Detroit Lions from 1985-1988 and New England Patriots from 1982-1984.

Muir is in his second stint with the Buccaneers organization. He spent four years with the Buccaneers as a college scout and in pro player personnel from 1978-1981. During his first tenure with the Buccaneers, Tampa Bay advanced to the postseason twice (1979 and 1981) and reached the NFC Championship Game in 1979 in just its fourth year of existence.

Muir began his coaching career at the collegiate level at his alma mater Susquehanna (1965)

before moving onto Delaware Valley, Rhode Island, Idaho State, Southern Methodist, Orlando of the Continental Football League and the Texans of the World Football League. He played at Susquehanna from 1962-64 and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1990 after being named to the school's "Top 100" players of all-time in a recent study done at the conclusion of the millennium.

During the 2003 and 2004 offseasons, Muir joined several other Buccaneers coaches to host the High School Coaching Academy in conjunction with the National Football Foundation. The academy was a one day, hands-on clinic designed to elevate the quality of football coaching at the high school level.

Muir was born in Pittsburgh and is married to wife Barbara. The couple has two children, daughter Keelan and son Brady, as well as four grandchildren: Ryan, Kendall and twins, William and Kaylan. Barbara has been active in the Tampa community as a member of the Buccaneers Women's Organization, participating in the Reading Program to promote literacy in children, the Fall Festival and the Metropolitan Ministries' Holiday Tent.

RICHARD BISACCIA

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

6th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Richard Bisaccia is in his sixth season leading the Buccaneers special teams unit. In his five seasons on the Tampa Bay sideline, the Buccaneers special teams unit has had arguably its most successful stretch in team history.

Under the direction of Bisaccia, K Matt Bryant continued to be a consistent scoring threat for the Buccaneers in 2006 while authoring one of the most exciting finishes to a game in NFL history. In a Week 7 contest against the Philadelphia Eagles, Bryant connected on a 62-yard, game-winning field goal as time expired while garnering NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. It was the second-longest game-winning field goal in NFL history and the third longest field goal overall. Bryant also connected on 11 consecutive field goal attempts during the season and his career field goal percentage as a Buccaneer (.809) is tied for first in team history. Additionally, the Bucs kickoff coverage unit excelled in 2006, ranking first in the NFL in opponent kickoff return average (18.4 avg.).

For the second consecutive season in 2006, a member of Bisaccia's unit was sent to the Pro Bowl. TE/LS Dave Moore was added to the NFC Pro Bowl roster as a need player to handle the long snapping chores in the all-star game, marking the first time in team history a Buccaneers special teamer was named to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons. Additionally, CB Torrie Cox was named as the first alternate as the NFC special teams player and earned USA Today All-Joe Team honors. Cox, who excelled on the punt and kickoff coverage units while also sharing the kickoff return duties, finished the 2006 season ranked tied for first on the team with 20 special teams tackles.

In his third season under Bisaccia in 2006, P Josh Bidwell was again a steady performer as the Buccaneers captured the NFC South title. His 43.8-yard average as a member of the Buccaneers is tops in team history and his 52.3-yard average against Seattle in Week 17 was his highest single-game gross average as a member of the Buccaneers and the third highest of his career. Additionally, his 43.5 average in 2006 was the second highest of his career.

In his second year with the Buccaneers under Bisaccia in 2005, Bidwell was named to his first Pro Bowl and earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors while ranking third in the NFL and first in the NFC with a career-best 45.6-yard average. His 45.6-yard gross average in 2005 was the best single-season average in team history. Bidwell also garnered NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors in November and NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 3 and Week 6. Bidwell placed 24 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2005, the second-highest total of his career, to rank fifth in the NFC and tied for fourth all-time in team history. Against Miami in Week 6, Bidwell placed a single-game career high five punts inside the 20-yard line.

Bryant also flourished in his first season under Bisaccia in 2005, connecting on 21-of-25 (.840) field goal attempts, including two game-winners (at Atlanta and vs. Atlanta), while connecting on a then career-long 50-yard field goal. His .840 field goal percentage was the third-highest single-season percentage in team history. WR Mark Jones ranked fourth in the NFC in punt return average, returning a conference-leading 51 punts for 492 yards (9.6 avg.).

Bisaccia's unit challenged several team and individual records in 2004, including best kickoff return average, most kickoff return yardage, most punts inside the 20-yard line and highest net and gross punting averages. Bidwell placed 23 punts inside the 20 to rank, at the time, tied for fifth in team history and tied for eighth in the NFC. Cox recorded an impressive 26.2-yard kickoff return average to finish fourth in the NFL and second in team history for a single season. Additionally, the 24.2-yard team kickoff return average in 2004 was tops in Buccaneers history and ranked fourth in the NFL, while the 1,450 total kickoff return yards were second-best all-time in team annals. LB Keith Burns led the team with 23 special teams tackles while earning Buccaneers special teams MVP and USA Today All-Joe Team honors.

In his first season with Bisaccia in 2004, Bidwell posted a 42.3-yard average, then the second-highest average of his career, to rank eighth in the NFC and, at the time, seventh-best in team history. Bidwell also tied or established new single-game career highs in net punting average (44.3 avg. at St. Louis, 10/18), gross punting yards (371 yards vs. Seattle, 9/19) and punts placed inside the 20 (four vs. Denver, 10/3) which he topped in 2005.

The Buccaneers special teams enjoyed success throughout the 2002 season and proved vital in the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl title. Buccaneers career scoring leader, K Martin Gramatica, hit 32-of-39 (.821) field attempts in 2002, including 5-of-6 from 50 or more yards while also hitting all 32 of his PATs. Gramatica tied for the NFC lead with a career-high 32 field goals, while his 39 field goal attempts and 128 points in 2002 were new club single-season records. Additionally, his five field goals from over 50 yards were tied for the league lead with Paul Edinger of the Chicago Bears. P Tom Tupa's 42.8-yard average ranked fourth in the NFC and he set a team single-season record with 30 punts placed inside the 20. He also set a Buccaneers single-game record for gross punting average (52.0) in a game at New Orleans.

Bisaccia joined the Buccaneers in 2002 after spending the previous three seasons at the University of Mississippi. Bisaccia was assistant head coach in 2000 and 2001, while also serving as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator throughout his three seasons at Ole Miss.

Bisaccia tutored All-SEC performers RB Deuce McAllister, RB Joe Gunn and K Les Binkley during his tenure. Ole Miss also excelled in special teams under Bisaccia, with Binkley setting a single-season scoring mark for a kicker. In 2000, the Rebels returned both a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown, and the 2001 unit led the conference and ranked 12th in the nation in kickoff returns with a 24.4-yard average. Jason Armstead finished second in the SEC and ninth nationally with a 27.6-yard average on kickoff returns in 2001.

McAllister, who was chosen in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft by New Orleans, established 18 school records in his career. He ended his career with a team-record 3,060 yards rushing and was named all-conference in both 1999 and 2000. McAllister was also selected to the All-SEC team as either an all-purpose player or a punt returner during his final two seasons. In 1999, both McAllister and Gunn earned first-team All-SEC recognition as they formed one of the top rushing tandems in the nation, combining for more than 1,700 rushing yards. Gunn closed his career in 2001 second to McAllister in rushing yards with 2,749.

Prior to his stint at Ole Miss, Bisaccia spent five seasons (1994-1998) as the running backs coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Clemson. Under his tutelage, the Tigers set a school record with eight blocked kicks in 1997, and were the only team in the nation to have four players ranked in the Top 25 in four special teams categories in 1995. Bisaccia also coached three-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference running back Raymond Priester, who set 18 school rushing records. Over the three-year period from 1995-1997, Clemson had 15 blocked kicks, the most-ever for a three-year span in school history. In addition, Tony Horne ended his Tiger career ranked sixth in career kickoff return yardage and 16th in punt return yardage.

Bisaccia served on the coaching staff at South Carolina from 1988-1993, beginning as a graduate assistant for tight ends and receivers. He also served as a volunteer assistant coach for defensive ends. Bisaccia took over as an assistant coach in charge of running backs and special teams in 1992 and 1993. Under Bisaccia, the Gamecocks led the SEC in kickoff returns in 1992. South Carolina also had a pair of All-SEC running backs in Brandon Bennett and Rob DeBoer.

Bisaccia began his coaching career in 1983 at Wayne State College in Nebraska, coaching defensive backs and special teams. He switched to the offensive side of the ball in 1984, tutoring quarterbacks and receivers for the next four seasons (1984-1987) in Wayne State's run-and-shoot offense.

Bisaccia, a native of Yonkers, N.Y., attended Yankton College in South Dakota from 1979-1982 and was a four-year starter at defensive back. He served as the team captain in 1982 and earned All-South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference honors in 1981 and 1982. Bisaccia was a free agent signee with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL in 1983. He received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Wayne State (Nebraska). Bisaccia grew up in Connecticut and graduated from New Fairfield High School in 1979.

Prior to the 2002 season, Bisaccia participated in the "Bucs on the Beach" volleyball tournament, in which all proceeds went to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Glazer Family Foundation. Bisaccia was also involved with the first-ever "Buccaneers Coaching Academy" in 2002. The hands-on clinic for area high school coaches focused on several essential areas of football knowledge and player development. During the 2003 and 2004 offseasons, he also lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football.

Bisaccia is married to the former Jeanne Jons and the couple has four children: Michele, Elizabeth, Madeline and Richie. Jeanne has been an active member of the Buccaneers Women's Organization, participating in the Metropolitan Ministries' Holiday Tent, the Buccaneer Wives Holiday Fashion Show, the Fall Festival and the 2005 Buccaneers Family Cookbook.

ART VALERO

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs Coach

6th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Art Valero enters his sixth with the Buccaneers and second as assistant head coach/running backs coach. He also spent two seasons (2004-2005) as running backs coach and two seasons (2002-2003) with the club as the tight ends coach. Valero's versatility has been invaluable to head coach Jon Gruden's offense as the Buccaneers have set a variety of team and individual offensive records since 2002.

In 2006, Valero helped lead a rushing attack that produced 1,523 yards on 404 carries and six touchdowns. Despite missing two games because of injury, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams led the team in rushing for the second consecutive season, totaling 798 yards on 225 carries and one rushing touchdown. Additionally, Williams ranked sixth on the team with a career-high 30 receptions last season.

In 2005, Valero welcomed Williams to his stable as he became one of the most exciting rookie running backs in NFL history. Williams set a Buccaneer rookie record by rushing for 1,178 yards in 2005 and was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. He also won the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Week award in each of the season's first three weeks and was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for September. Additionally, Williams totaled an NFL-rookie record 434 yards over his first three NFL games and rushed for 100 or more yards in a team-record six games in 2005 under the tutelage of Valero.

Providing unmatched leadership and toughness for Valero has been venerable FB Mike Alstott. He has helped pave the way for Williams the past two seasons while also doubling as one of the club's top scoring threats. The Buccaneers' all-time touchdown leader totaled six rushing touchdowns in 2005 to rank tied for ninth in the NFC and tied for first on the team with Williams, while reaching the end zone three times in 2006. Valero helped the Buccaneers offense rush for an average of 114.8 yards per game in 2005, Tampa Bay's highest per-game average since the 2000 season.

RB Michael Pittman, who arrived with Valero in 2002, has been a valuable asset as both a starter and key reserve since joining Tampa Bay's backfield. Perhaps his most valuable contribution has been as a receiver, ranking third in the NFL for most receptions by a running back (258) since 2002. Additionally, his 258 receptions since 2002 lead the team and he finished second on the club with 47 catches in 2006.

Valero led one of the NFL's most experienced and accomplished backfields in 2004, helping the Buccaneers total 1,489 rushing yards on 393 carries (3.8 avg.) with nine rushing touchdowns. Valero's backfield also made a significant contribution in the team's passing attack, accounting for 93 receptions, 738 receiving yards and four touchdowns.

For three consecutive seasons (2002-2004) Pittman was Tampa Bay's leading rusher, piecing together his finest season as a professional in his first season under the tutelage of Valero in 2004. Despite missing the season's first three contests, Pittman rushed for a career-high 926 yards on 219 carries. His 4.2 yards-per-carry average in 2004 was the highest of his career (min. 100 carries) and his seven rushing touchdowns were also a personal best. Pittman also hauled in 41 receptions for 391 yards (9.5 avg.) and a career-best three receiving touchdowns. His 10 total touchdowns in 2004 ranked him ninth in the NFC among non-kickers in points scored (60) and marked the sixth time in team history that a player reached double digits in touchdowns in a single season.

Valero's men proved to be a viable target for QB Brad Johnson throughout the 2003 season, his last season as the Bucs tight ends coach. Valero's unit totaled 38 receptions for 369 yards (9.71 avg.) with five touchdowns. TE Ken Dilger led the group with 22 receptions for 244 yards (11.1 avg.) and one touchdown in 15 starts in 2003.

Under Valero's direction, Dilger, TE Rickey Dudley and TE Todd Yoder combined to haul in 52 receptions for 547 yards and five touchdowns in 2002, helping lead the Buccaneers to their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. By comparison, in 2001 the tight ends unit combined for a total of 39 receptions with four scores. Dilger's 34 receptions in 2002 ranked sixth on the team and he added two touchdowns.

Valero joined Tampa Bay after spending four seasons (1998-2001) as assistant head coach and offensive line coach at the University of Louisville. During his tenure, the Cardinals boasted one of the nation's top offensive attacks, including finishing first nationally in total offense in 1998, averaging nearly 560 yards per game. Before heading to Louisville, Valero spent three years at Utah State (1995-1997) as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach.

Prior to that, Valero served as an offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Idaho (1990-1994), helping the Vandals to a combined record of 44-18, including four appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. Under his direction, Idaho produced four 1,000-yard rushers, with Sherriden May becoming just the second back in Big Sky Conference history to record three 1,000-yard campaigns. In 1994, Idaho finished first in the conference in total offense, rushing offense and scoring offense.

Valero also worked as offensive line coach for three seasons at New Mexico (1987-1989) and served in a similar capacity at Long Beach State (1984-1986) and Iowa State (1983). Valero originally began his coaching career at his alma mater, Boise State, from 1981-1982 as offensive line coach.

Valero has previous NFL experience with the Kansas City Chiefs (1994), Buffalo Bills (1996) and the New York Jets (1998), serving minority coaching fellowships with those clubs.

Valero, a native of La Mirada, California, was a two-time letterwinner along the offensive line at Boise State from 1979-1980, where he played on the 1980 NCAA I-AA national championship squad. He graduated in 1981 with a degree in psychology and sociology.

Valero joined several other Buccaneers coaches to host the High School Coaching Academy during the 2004 offseason in conjunction with the National Football Foundation. The academy is a one day, hands-on clinic designed to elevate the quality of football coaching at the high school level.

In 2003, Valero lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football. Prior to the 2002 season, Valero participated in the "Bucs on the Beach" volleyball tournament, sponsored by Checkers, in which all proceeds went to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Glazer Family Foundation.

Valero has two children: daughter Kimberly and son Kyle.

LARRY COYER

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line Coach

9th NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

In his 43rd year of coaching on either the collegiate or professional level, Larry Coyer enters his first season as the Buccaneers assistant head coach/ defensive line coach after spending the past seven seasons on the Denver Broncos coaching staff as defensive coordinator (2003-2006) and linebackers coach (2000-2002).

Coyer's defense consistently ranked among the NFL's most productive during his four seasons as the Broncos defensive coordinator, helping the club advance to the playoffs in three of four seasons. The Broncos placed in the league's top-seven in run defense in three of four seasons under Coyer and allowed an average of 98.3 rushing yards per game from 2003-2006 to rank fourth in the NFL during that period.

Denver also ranked among the league's best teams in overall defense under Coyer, posting consecutive top-four NFL rankings in yards per game allowed from 2003-2004. In addition, the Broncos surrendered an average of 18.3 points per game from 2003-2006 to rank sixth in the NFL in scoring defense with Coyer at the helm. In 2006, the Broncos began the season by not allowing a touchdown in the first 11 quarters of play, marking the longest such streak to begin a season since 1942

Coyer's defense was instrumental in the Broncos going 13-3 in 2005 and advancing to the AFC Championship Game. Denver, which sent CB Champ Bailey, S John Lynch and LB Al Wilson to the Pro Bowl, ranked second in the NFL in run defense (85.2 ypg) and posted the third-best such mark in franchise history. The Broncos allowed only 16.1 points per game to tie for third in the NFL and surrendered a total of 37 points in their final four games (9.3 ppg) en route to capturing the AFC West title.

In 2004, Coyer's defense featured two Pro Bowl selections in Lynch and Bailey. Additionally, Coyer aided in the development of rookie LB D.J. Williams, who became only the second Broncos rookie and the first in 32 years to lead the team in tackles (114). Along the way, Williams was the only 2004 rookie to be named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 16) and finished third in the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting.

Coyer wasted no time in making a positive impact in his first year as the Broncos defensive coordinator in 2003. Denver's defense allowed an average of only 277.1 yards per game under Coyer's direction to rank fourth in the NFL and help the team to its first postseason berth since 2000.

Coyer began his Broncos coaching career as their linebackers coach from 2000-2002. In Coyer's first year instructing Denver's linebackers in 2000, John Mobley and fellow LB Bill Romanowski finished first and second on the team in tackles (133 and 121) while Wilson ranked fourth (104).

While at the University of Pittsburgh (1997-1999) as its defensive coordinator, Coyer directed a defensive unit that showed significant improvement each season, culminating in a 1999 showing that included top-five rankings in the Big East Conference in all major defensive statistical categories. Two of his standouts, safety Ramon Walker and defensive lineman Demond Gibson, earned All-Big East Conference honors that season.

In 1998, the Panthers ranked third in the Big East in total defense, and over the course of the 1997-1998 seasons, the unit amassed 62 sacks, the highest two-season total at Pittsburgh since 1990-1991.

Before his stint at Pittsburgh, Coyer was defensive coordinator at Iowa State University for two seasons (1995-1996). That post was preceded by a one-year assignment as defensive line coach for the New York Jets in 1994.

Coyer's other professional coaching experience came in the United States Football League as linebackers coach with the Michigan Panthers (1983-1984) and defensive coordinator with the Memphis Showboats (1985). Coyer helped Michigan capture the inaugural USFL championship in 1983 with a win against Philadelphia.

Additionally, Coyer was the defensive coordinator in 1993 at East Carolina University, where under his guidance the Pirates improved in virtually every defensive category. He also served as defensive backs coach at Ohio State (1991-1992), assistant head coach/defensive backs coach at the University of Houston (1990) and linebackers coach at UCLA (1987-1989). Before his stint in the USFL, Coyer was defensive coordinator at Iowa State (1979-1982), Oklahoma State University (1978) and the University of Iowa (1974-1977) after serving as defensive backs coach at Bowling Green (1968-1973).

A 1964 graduate of Marshall University, Coyer is a member of the Football Hall of Fame at Marshall for his achievements as a player. He began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1965 as secondary coach, a position he maintained through 1967. An additional coaching stint came at the acclaimed Massillon (Ohio) High School, where NFL Legend Paul Brown once coached.

A native of Greenbottom, West Virginia, Coyer was born in Huntington, West Virginia. Married to Jan, Coyer has two sons, Matt and Justin. Matt was a member of an NCAA Champion soccer team at Indiana University. He and his wife Kristin are the parents of five-year-old Rachel and two-year-old Ryan. Justin was an Iowa all-state football player in high school.

TIM BERBENICH

Offensive Quality Control Coach

6th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Tim Berbenich enters his second season as offensive quality control coach with the Buccaneers. Berbenich joined the Tampa Bay staff after spending parts of six seasons (2000-2005) with the N.Y. Jets organization, including three years (2003-2005) on the coaching staff. Berbenich works closely with head coach Jon Gruden and quarterbacks coach Paul Hackett in the assembling of playbooks and weekly game plans.

Berbenich spent three seasons on the Jets offensive staff, as an offensive assistant during the 2003 and 2004 seasons before adding quality control duties in 2005. He initially joined the Jets on a full-time basis in 2002 as an operations assistant after interning with the team in operations during training camp from 2000-2002. During his tenure in New York, the Jets reached the playoffs during the 2002 and 2004 seasons.

Berbenich played wide receiver for Hamilton College in Clinton, New York from 1998-2001 while earning his degree in economics. Born December 19, 1979 in Huntington, New York, Berbenich is single and resides in Tampa.

CASEY "GUS" BRADLEY

Linebackers Coach

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Casey Bradley enters his second season with the Buccaneers and first as the linebackers coach after serving as a defensive quality control coach in 2006.

Bradley commands one of the most veteran and decorated units of the Buccaneers defense, featuring perennial Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks. Last season, Bradley worked closely with defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin in the organization and implementation of the defensive game plan that featured Pro Bowlers Brooks and CB Ronde Barber. Bradley helped the defensive unit finish strong in 2006, totaling 13 sacks and forcing nine turnovers in the last seven games

Bradley joined the Buccaneers after spending 10 seasons (1996-2005) as an assistant at North Dakota State, including six as assistant head coach (2000-2005). He also served as defensive coordinator for NDSU from 1997-2002 and again in 2005.

Under Bradley's guidance, North Dakota State's defense led the Great West Football Conference in scoring defense (13.7 ppg), pass defense (150.3 ypg), total defense (272.4 ypg) and turnover margin (+1.00) in 2005.

Bradley was the head coach at Fort Lewis College for four months (December 1995 - March 1996) and was defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Fort Lewis for four seasons (1992-1995). Prior to Fort Lewis, he was a graduate assistant coach at NDSU for two seasons (1990-1991).

Bradley played his college football at North Dakota State (1984-1988), where he was a free safety and punter, a four-time academic all-North Central Conference selection and a valuable member of the 1988 national championship football team.

Bradley earned bachelor's degrees in business administration (1989) and physical education (1990) from North Dakota State as well as a master's degree in athletic administration from NDSU in 1992.

Casey and his wife, Michaela, have three children, Carter, Anna and Eli.

BOB CASULLO

TIGHT ENDS COACH

8th NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Bob Casullo enters his first season as the Buccaneers tight ends coach after serving on the Seattle Seahawks coaching staff for the past two seasons (2005-2006) as special teams coordinator. In his seven seasons as an NFL assistant, Casullo has been a part of six playoff teams, including appearances in Super Bowls XXXVII and XL.

In his final season as the Seahawks special teams coordinator in 2006, K Josh Brown connected on 25-of-32 field goal attempts (80.6%), including three-of-five from more than 50 yards. Additionally, rookie P Ryan Plackemeier finished fourth in the NFL with a 45.0-yard average on the season.

During the 2005 season, Casullo's first with the Seahawks, Brown was named a Pro Bowl alternate as he attempted a career-high eight field goals of at least 50 yards, making five, which tied Norm Johnson's 1986 club record. The overall play of his group helped Seattle to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XL.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Casullo spent the 2004 season as the tight ends coach for the New York Jets. His tight end corps helped sustain a balanced offense that allowed RB Curtis Martin to win the NFL rushing title and the Jets quarterbacks to post better than a 90.0 passer rating.

Before arriving in New York, Casullo was special teams coordinator at Oakland. His special teams units helped earn Oakland three AFC West titles (2000-2002) in his four seasons, including a Super Bowl XXXVII appearance against Tampa Bay following the 2002 season. In 2003, he fielded a unit that ranked second in the AFC and third in the NFL in punt return average. His group was the NFL's best kickoff coverage team in 2001, stopping opponents 17 times inside the 20. He produced a Pro Bowl punter, Shane Lechler, who led the AFC in punting average with a 46.2 average in 2001 and his 2000 crew led the NFL in net punting average.

Before breaking into the National Football League, Casullo enjoyed 15 seasons and 10 bowl game appearances in the college ranks. He coached special teams/tight ends (1999) at Michigan State; special teams/defensive ends (1998) and special teams/running backs (1995-1997) at Georgia Tech; and special teams/tight ends (1991-1994) and running backs (1985-1990) at Syracuse.

Prior to beginning his collegiate coaching career, Casullo spent two years as the head coach at Baldwinsville High School in Syracuse, New York, and 10 seasons as an assistant at Henninger High School, also in Syracuse.

Born March 24, 1951, Casullo and his wife, Pat, have two sons, Rocco and Jamie.

EJIRO EVERO

Defensive Quality Control Coach

1st NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Ejiro Evero enters his first season as a defensive quality control coach with Tampa Bay.

Evero spent two seasons (2005-06) as an assistant coach at the University of California-Davis, helping the Aggies to the Great West Conference Championship in 2005. In 2004, he served as football intern at his alma mater, in addition to coaching at Davis High School as an assistant with the junior varsity team.

Evero was a four-year letterman at UC-Davis, where he started for three seasons at safety. A two-time captain, he was named a Division II All-American in 2002 and 2003. Following his college career, he signed with the Oakland Raiders in 2004 as a rookie free agent.

Evero is single and resides in Tampa.

JAY GRUDEN

Offensive Assistant Coach

6th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

HHaving served as a player and coach for the past 18 years in professional football, Jay Gruden begins his sixth season with Tampa Bay as an offensive assistant coach. Gruden works closely with his brother and head coach Jon Gruden in the development of the weekly offensive game plan. On game days, Gruden resides in the coaches' booth, providing play-calling assistance and in-game adjustments.

His impressive list of accomplishments as both a player and coach include 17 seasons of service in the Arena Football League, where he has never missed the playoffs as a player or coach. In 2007, Gruden completed his fourth season in his second stint as head coach of the Orlando Predators. The Predators tallied an 8-7 mark this past season and once again advanced to the playoffs.

In 2002, Gruden's first season with the Buccaneers, he helped guide an offense that showed consistent improvement and proved vital in the club's first NFL championship in Super Bowl XXXVII against Oakland. With Tampa Bay's Super Bowl championship, he has been a member of seven championship teams as both a player (four) and a coach (three).

In eight seasons as head coach of the Orlando Predators (1998-2001, 2004-2007), Jay has led the team to four ArenaBowl appearances with two championships and ranks eighth all-time in AFL wins with a 73-47 regular-season record. The first championship came in 1998 with a 62-31 win over Tampa Bay at ArenaBowl XII and the second, a 41-38 win over the Nashville Kats in 2000.

Gruden also spent one season as offensive coordinator of the Nashville Kats in 1997, tutoring QB Andy Kelly and helping set an expansion-team record of 10 wins. As quarterback of the Tampa Bay Storm from 1991 to 1996, Gruden won four ArenaBowl championships in six years, passed for more than 15,000 yards and 280 touchdowns, while also completing almost 60 percent of his passes. He retired as the league's all-time leading passer, carrying with him a league MVP award in 1992 and an ArenaBowl MVP trophy in 1993.

Elected to the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999, Gruden returned to the playing field three years later and led the Predators to the 2002 Southern Division Championship, throwing 68 touchdown passes in 14 games. In 10 games in 2003, Gruden passed for 49 touchdowns against only two interceptions and including the playoffs, finished the season 11-1 as a starter.

A three-year starter at Louisville (1985-1988) under head coach Howard Schnellenberger, Gruden set numerous passing records and earned team MVP recognition twice (1987 and 1988).

Gruden is the younger brother of Buccaneers head coach Jon Gruden and their father Jim, a former coach with the Buccaneers and scout for the San Francisco 49ers, is currently a personnel consultant with the Bucs. Jay and his wife, Sherry, reside in Orlando with their three sons: JJ, Joey and Jack.

NATHANIEL HACKETT

Offensive Quality Control Coach

2nd NFL Season, 2nd Season with Buccaneers

Nathaniel Hackett enters his second season as offensive quality control coach with the Buccaneers after spending three seasons (2003-2005) at Stanford. In his current role, Hackett works closely with all members of the offensive coaching staff in the preparation and implementation of the offensive game plan, including wide receivers coach Richard Mann while helping guide WR Joey Galloway to his second consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season in 2006.

From 2003-2004, Hackett worked as an assistant to the offensive and defensive coordinators at Stanford. In December, 2004, Hackett accepted the position of linebackers coach at Western Michigan, but returned to Stanford after he was offered a full-time position with the Cardinal as specialists coach and recruiting coordinator. His first coaching position came at his alma mater, U.C. Davis, during the spring of 2003 as the assistant linebackers coach.

Hackett was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker and long snapper at U.C. Davis from 1999-2002. He helped the Aggies, one of the top programs in NCAA Division II, reach the playoffs each of his four seasons. During his four seasons, U.C. Davis had a combined record of 41-9. Hackett won the George Belenis Award in 1998 as the team's Most Outstanding Redshirt and the "Aggie Pride" Award in 2002 as a senior.

Hackett, the son of Buccaneers quarterbacks coach Paul Hackett, was born December 19, 1979 in Fullerton, California. Hackett is married to the former Megan Baumgartner and the couple resides in Tampa.

PAUL HACKETT

Quarterbacks Coach

20th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Paul Hackett enters his third season as quarterbacks coach with the Buccaneers. A 37-year coaching veteran, Hackett has served on both a Super Bowl and national championship staff while coaching some of football's greatest players, including QB Joe Montana, WR Jerry Rice, RB Marcus Allen, RB Tony Dorsett, RB Curtis Martin, RB Herschel Walker, QB Danny White, WR Michael Irvin, QB Steve Bartkowski, QB Brian Sipe, QB Rich Gannon, QB Chad Pennington and QB Carson Palmer. He has also worked for notable head coaches such as Bill Walsh, Tom Landry, Marty Schottenheimer, John Robinson, Herm Edwards and Jon Gruden. Hackett has been part of four division winners, helped lead teams to seven playoff appearances and compiled a 90-54 record in nine years as an NFL offensive coordinator. In his last 11 seasons as an assistant coach in the NFL (1993-1997, 2001-2006), Hackett has helped lead eight teams to the playoffs.

For the second consecutive season in 2006, Hackett had to endure the loss of his starting quarterback. QB Chris Simms saw his season end in Week 3 against Carolina, suffering a ruptured spleen in the contest. Hackett was forced to turn to rookie sixth-round pick QB Bruce Gradkowski, who showed signs of promise in his 11 starts. Gradkowski completed 177-of-328 passes for 1,661 yards on the season with nine touchdowns and nine interceptions, all team rookie quarterback records. Hackett also relied on veteran QB Tim Rattay, who made four appearances with two starts. Rattay led the team to its final victory of the season at Cleveland in his first start as a Buccaneer, and nearly led Tampa Bay to a comeback victory at Chicago against the eventual NFC champion Bears. Working in relief of Gradkowski, Rattay helped erase a 21-point deficit by completing 20-of-35 passes for 268 yards with three touchdowns, tying his career-high, as the Bucs took the Bears to overtime.

In 2005, Hackett guided one of the most talented groups of signal callers in the NFL as the Buccaneers captured their second NFC South Division crown in four years. Prior to sustaining a season-ending knee injury in Week 6, QB Brian Griese directed the Buccaneers to a 5-1 start while completing 64.4 percent of his passes with seven touchdowns. Following Griese's injury, Hackett was charged with helping to prepare Simms to lead the offense. Simms responded, winning six games as a starter, including back-to-back last-minute wins against Washington and at Atlanta in Weeks 10 and 11, along with an overtime win vs. Atlanta in Week 16. Simms passed for 2,035 yards on 191 completions in 313 attempts (61.0%) with 10 touchdowns, seven interceptions and an 81.4 efficiency rating. An avid preacher of ball security and turnover ratio, Hackett's emphasis helped the Buccaneers improve their turnover ratio from minus-9 in 2004 to plus-7 in 2005, a turnaround of plus-16 to rank fourth in the NFL in turnover ratio improvement in 2005.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hackett spent the previous four seasons (2001-2004) as offensive coordinator with the N.Y. Jets. He helped lead the Jets to the playoffs in three of his four seasons, coaching an offense that featured 2004 NFL rushing leader, RB Curtis Martin. Martin led the NFL with a career-high 1,697 rushing yards on 371 carries (4.6 avg.) with 12 touchdowns. Under Hackett, Martin produced three of the top five single-season rushing totals in Jets history. Additionally, Jets QB Chad Pennington ranked sixth in the AFC with a 91.0 quarterback rating in 2004, throwing for 2,673 yards, 16 touchdowns and just nine interceptions. The Jets finished the 2004 season as the 12th-ranked offense in the NFL and the third-best rushing offense in the league. As a result of his attention to detail, the Jets committed the fewest number of turnovers (76) in the NFL from 2001-2004. In 2004, New York committed just 16 turnovers, the fifth-lowest turnover total for a single season in NFL history.

In 2003, Hackett fielded a Jets offense that produced Martin's fifth-best career rushing total (1,308). His offense also allowed third-year WR Santana Moss to have his best statistical year at that point in his career, finishing with 74 catches for 1,105 yards and 10 touchdowns. In 2002, his second season at the helm, Hackett's offense spearheaded the Jets' playoff push, scoring 72 points in the final two games of the regular season against New England and Green Bay. The offense also scored 41 points against Indianapolis in the club's first home playoff game since 1998. The Jets offense finished ranked fourth in the AFC in yards gained per play (5.5 yards) and fourth in the NFL in net yards per passing play in 2002.

Under Hackett's tutelage, Pennington led the NFL with a 104.2 QB rating and a 68.9 completion percentage, while throwing for 3,120 yards, 22 touchdowns and just six interceptions. With Hackett's guidance, Martin rushed for his then eighth consecutive 1,000-yard season and WR Laveranues Coles enjoyed a breakout year when he finished the 2002 season with 89 catches for 1,264 yards and five touchdowns.

In Hackett's first season as the offensive coordinator for the Jets in 2001, the offense finished second in the AFC in rushing and fourth in the NFL, averaging 129.0 yards per game on the ground, while finishing tied for eighth in the NFL and tied for fourth in the AFC in yards gained per play, averaging 5.2 yards. The Jets lost only seven fumble, the fewest in the NFL, under Hackett and only turned the ball over a total of 21 times, placing them in a tie for first in that category. The offense also paced the AFC and finished second in the NFL, allowing only 19 sacks during the 2001 season. Hackett's group also reached the 300-yard plateau eight times on the season and broke the 130-yard rushing mark nine times. In his first year in Hackett's offense, Martin produced a then career-high 1,513 yards on 333 carries and scored 10 rushing touchdowns.

The highly respected Hackett joined the Jets after serving the three previous seasons (1998-2000) as the head coach of the University of Southern California. Before joining Southern Cal, Hackett was the offensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs (1993-1997), where he worked with current Chiefs head coach Herman Edwards and then general manager Terry Bradway, helping the Chiefs win 57 games and advance to the playoffs four times in the five seasons he was on the staff, including the 1997 season when the Chiefs won the AFC West with an AFC-best regular season record of 13-3. In 1995, the Chiefs also posted an AFC-best 13-3 record. Kansas City produced its best season with Hackett as the coordinator in 1993 when the team won the AFC West with an 11-5 record and advanced to the AFC Championship Game. During his five-year tenure in Kansas City, Hackett helped guide the Chiefs to the lowest turnover total in the NFL (119).

Before joining the Chiefs, Hackett spent three years at the University of Pittsburgh from 1989-1992, the first season as the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator and the next three as head coach. Hackett took over the reigns of the offense prior to the 1989 John Hancock Bowl, a 31-28 win over Texas A&M. Under his guidance, Pitt ranked eighth nationally in total offense and passing offense in 1992 and Panthers quarterback, former NFL signal caller Alex Van Pelt, ranked in the NCAA's top 10 in total offense in 1991 and 1992. In 1991, Buccaneers head coach Jon Gruden served on Hackett's staff as the Panthers wide receivers coach.

From 1986-1988, Hackett worked with the Dallas Cowboys as the passing coordinator. Prior to his stint with the Cowboys, he began his pro coaching career as the quarterbacks coach of the Cleveland Browns (1981-1982) and then moved on to become the quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends coach for Walsh's San Francisco 49ers for the next three years (1983-1985) and was a member of the 49ers' Super Bowl XIX team in 1984 that finished 18-1, the second-best record in a single season in the history of the NFL.

Hackett joined the legendary Walsh and his staff following a five-year stint (1976-1980) at USC, where he worked for Robinson and was in charge of the quarterback and wide receiver positions for the first two seasons and then became the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator the final three years. During his first tenure with the Trojans, Hackett helped lead the team to the 1978 national championship, four bowl games, including three Rose Bowls, posted a 50-8-2 record and produced a Heisman trophy winner in Charles White.

Hackett began his coaching career at his alma mater, U.C. Davis, in 1969, first serving as an assistant to the freshman squad and later directing the freshman team to a 13-0 record over the course of the next two seasons. Following his appointment at U.C. Davis, he moved on to an assistant coaching job at the University of California for four seasons (1972-75), the first two seasons as a graduate assistant and the next two as the quarterbacks coach, where he worked with former Jets star Wesley Walker and current Chiefs head coach Edwards, who served as the captain of Hackett's scout team during his first season at Cal. As the Golden Bears quarterbacks coach, Hackett had great success in tutoring Steve Bartkowski, who went on to become a first-round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons (first overall) in 1975 after earning All-America honors and leading the nation in passing yardage. The following season, Hackett helped the late Joe Roth lead the Pac-8 in passing and total offense while directing the NCAA's top-ranked offense.

As a player, Hackett started at quarterback for three years at U.C. Davis (1966-68) and led the Far Western Conference in passing as a senior while earning all-conference honors. Hackett earned his bachelor's degree in history from U.C. Davis in 1969.

Hackett played football, basketball and baseball at Miramonte High School in Orinda, California in the Bay Area. In his spare time he collects old juke boxes filled with 1950's and 1960's rock 'n roll tunes.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, who met as students at U.C. Davis, have two sons; David, (and his wife, Maya, along with their sons, David Mahal and Lake), and Nathaniel (and his wife Megan). His son, David, played on the 1988 Texas Division III state football championship team while at Carroll High School in Southlake, Texas. Nathaniel played linebacker and long snapper for four U.C. Davis playoff teams. He is currently the offensive quality control coach for the Buccaneers.

PAUL KELLY

Assistant to the Head Coach - Football Operations

10th NFL Season, 4th with Buccaneers

Paul Kelly enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers as the Assistant to the Head Coach - Football Operations after spending the previous six years with the Oakland Raiders.

Kelly works directly with Head Coach Jon Gruden in organizing football operations for the club and is involved in many of the day-to-day operations of the team. Kelly manages several elements of Gruden's off-field agenda, including various football operations, player and staff communications and the football calendar, including the offseason programs, mini-camps, and training camp.

The 2006 season saw Kelly assist Coach Gruden in the preparation of the weekly offensive game plan that included three different starting quarterbacks and WR Joey Galloway, who finished with his second consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season. In 2005, Kelly helped lead the Buccaneers to the NFC South title.

While with the Raiders, Kelly spent his last two years as the Assistant to the Head Coach. In 2002, Kelly helped guide Oakland to its first Super Bowl appearance in 19 years as the Raiders represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXVII against the Buccaneers.

Kelly joined the Raiders in 1998 under Gruden as a coaches assistant. He served in that capacity for four years before being named the Assistant to the Head Coach in 2002. Prior to joining the Raiders, he owned and managed his own San Francisco Bay Area based businesses.

Kelly, a San Francisco bay area native, was raised in San Diego and attended University of San Diego High School, where he lettered in basketball. From 1982-1984, he served as a team attendant for the San Diego Clippers.

Kelly graduated with a degree in business administration with an emphasis in new ventures and small business management from Cal State University, Hayward in 1990.

He currently resides in Tampa with wife, Catherine, his two sons, Colin and Hunter, and daughter, Lauren. Catherine has been involved in numerous community events as a member of the Buccaneers Women's Organization, including the Fall Festival and the Buccaneer Wives Holiday Fashion Show.

AARON KROMER

Senior Assistant/Offensive Line

7th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Aaron Kromer enters his third season with the Buccaneers and second season as senior assistant/offensive line coach after spending the 2005 season as senior assistant. Kromer coaches with offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Bill Muir in the instruction and development of the Buccaneers offensive line.

After a 2005 season in which the offensive line featured the same five starters for all 16 games, Kromer saw the offensive line beset with injuries in 2006, losing a total of 23 starts and two players to injured reserve. However, Kromer helped oversee the development of two rookie starters, first-round pick G Davin Joseph and second-round pick T Jeremy Trueblood on the right side of the offensive line as the tandem performed well throughout the season, combining for 25 starts. The 25 starts were tied for the third most among rookie offensive line tandems in the league in 2006.

With Kromer's input in 2005, the offensive line helped the Buccaneers surpass the 100-yard rushing plateau in 10 games. For the first time in team history, Tampa Bay was one of only three teams in the NFL that featured the same five starters on the offensive line for all 16 games. Additionally, the offensive line helped NFL Rookie of the Year, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, rush for a team-record six 100-yard games in 2005, including an NFL-record 434 rushing yards in his first three career games.

Kromer joined the Tampa Bay coaching staff after spending four seasons with the Oakland Raiders as the offensive line coach (2002-2004) and assistant offensive line coach (2001). While in Oakland, Kromer coached an offensive line that protected the 2002 NFL Most Valuable Player, QB Rich Gannon, while also helping the Raiders rank first in the NFL in total offense en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII following the 2002 season. During his tenure with the Raiders, T Lincoln Kennedy (2001-2002) and C Barret Robbins (2002) were named to the Pro Bowl and the All-Pro team. Kromer also coached T Robert Gallery, who was named to ESPN.com's All-Rookie team in 2004.

Prior to his stint in Oakland, Kromer spent two seasons (1999-2000) as an assistant at Northwestern, coaching the offensive line as the Wildcats led the Big Ten in total offense in 2000. Kromer spent the 1990-1998 seasons at his alma mater, Miami of Ohio, coaching the offensive line in 1998 after spending time working with the tight ends and H-backs, defensive line and special teams during his first eight seasons in Oxford.

Kromer began his tenure in Miami as a graduate assistant (1990-1991) after lettering for the RedHawks as an offensive tackle from 1987-1989. A captain his last two seasons, Kromer is one of only four players in the history of Miami football to be a two-time captain. In addition, he earned second team All-MAC honors in 1989 and was the recipient of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award.

During the 2005 offseason, Kromer was selected by head coach Jon Gruden to attend the NFL's Coaches Career Development Symposium.

Kromer graduated from Miami of Ohio in 1989 with a degree in education while also earning his masters degree in education administration in 1991. Kromer and his wife, Dawn, have one son, Zachary, and one daughter, Brooke.

JIMMY LAKE

Assistant Defensive Backs Coach

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Jimmy Lake enters his second season with the Buccaneers as assistant defensive backs coach. In his first season with the Buccaneers, Lake helped direct a secondary that featured CB Ronde Barber, who earned his fourth trip to the Pro Bowl in 2006.

Lake came to the Buccaneers after one season at Montana State as secondary coach. While at Montana State, his unit led the Big Sky in total defense and pass defense in 2005. Lake's secondary allowed just 165.6 yards per game through the air, and the team's multiple coverage schemes helped the Bobcats total 26 sacks, third in the Big Sky.

Prior to his appointment at Montana State, Lake coached cornerbacks and nickel backs at the University of Washington in 2004 where he led a secondary that ranked first in the Pac-10 and 17th in the nation in pass defense. While with the Huskies, he coached CB Derrick Johnson who was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers in the sixth round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

Lake also worked as the secondary coach at Eastern Washington from 2000-2003 and was an undergraduate assistant for the Eagles in 1999. Additionally, he served as an account executive for the Spokane Indians Baseball Club of the Northwest League in 1999.

Lake was a standout safety for Eastern Washington from 1995-1998, earning All-Big Sky Academic honors and honorable mention All-Big Sky accolades at strong safety as a senior. He graduated from Eastern Washington in 2000 with a degree in business administration.

Lake was born December 17, 1976, in San Francisco, California. He and his wife, Michele, have two sons, Jimmy Jr. and Bronson and one daughter, Faith.

RICHARD MANN

Wide Receivers Coach

26th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Richard Mann enters his sixth season as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach. Possessing more than 30 years of coaching experience at the collegiate and professional levels, Mann has had the opportunity to coach some of the game's top receivers, including Tim Brown, Mark Clayton, Joey Galloway, Keyshawn Johnson, Keenan McCardell, Rob Moore, Andre Rison, Webster Slaughter and Hall of Fame TE Ozzie Newsome.

For the second consecutive season in 2006, Galloway led Mann's unit with 62 receptions for 1,057 yards and seven touchdowns. Defying age and maintaining his reputation as the league's best breakway threat, Galloway's 17.0-yard average per catch led all NFL receivers with at least 50 receptions. It also marked his second consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season under Mann, making him just the second player in team history to accomplish the feat. Additionally, it was his first back-to-back 1,000-yard performance since 1997-1998.

In 2005, Mann coached Galloway to his best season as a professional. The veteran pass catcher enjoyed a Pro Bowl-caliber season while setting career highs in receptions and receiving yards in 2005. His 83 receptions ranked seventh in the NFC and were the fifth-highest total in team history while his 1,287 receiving yards ranked sixth in the NFL and second in team history. Galloway surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving plateau in 11 games, fastest in team history. Additionally, Mann's pupil set a new team record with 10 touchdown receptions in 2005, tying him for fifth in the NFL.

In his third season with Tampa Bay in 2004, Mann oversaw the development of first-round selection WR Michael Clayton, the highest wide receiver (15th overall) ever taken by the Buccaneers in the NFL Draft. Under the instruction of Mann, Clayton became one of the most productive rookie wide receivers in NFL history. Named one of the five finalists for the PEPSI Rookie of the Year award and selected to ESPN.com's All-Rookie team, he posted 80 receptions for 1,193 yards (14.9 avg.) with seven touchdowns.

Clayton's 80 receptions and 1,193 yards led the team and all NFL rookie wide receivers in 2004 and ranked fifth all-time in NFL history among rookie pass catchers. His season totals also established him as the top rookie receiver in team history. Additionally, Clayton led or tied for the team lead in receptions in eight games while leading the team in receiving yards in 10 contests.

Despite losing two of his top performers in 2003, Mann's unit provided a consistent threat as the Buccaneers offense finished in the top 10 in the NFL in total offense for the second time in team history. Utilizing seven different members of Mann's wide receivers corps, former QB Brad Johnson set numerous team records in 2003, including touchdown passes (26), passing yards (3,811) and completions (354). Led by McCardell, the receiving unit posted 188 receptions for 2,503 yards and 16 touchdowns. McCardell led all Buccaneers with 84 receptions for 1,174 yards (14.0 avg.) and nine touchdowns (eight receiving touchdowns and one fumble return for a touchdown) while earning his second career Pro Bowl appearance.

Under Mann's guidance in 2002, the Buccaneers' wide receivers hauled in 184 receptions for 2,281 yards and 16 touchdowns while helping Tampa Bay earn its first Super Bowl title. Mann was reunited with Keyshawn Johnson in 2002, who hauled in 63 receptions for 844 yards and eight touchdowns during his rookie season with the N.Y. Jets under Mann. Johnson's success continued in 2002 as he recorded 76 receptions for 1,088 yards and five touchdowns, making him the first player in Bucs' history to record consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Upon arriving in Tampa from Jacksonville in the offseason, McCardell made an immediate impact. McCardell led all Buccaneers receivers and tied a then career-high with six touchdown receptions in 2002 — as well as a pair of touchdowns in the Super Bowl XXXVII win over the Oakland Raiders — and added 61 receptions for 670 yards. Signed as a free agent in the offseason, WR Joe Jurevicius flourished under Mann as he hauled in 37 receptions for 423 yards and a then career-high four touchdowns as the Buccaneers' third receiver in 2002. Jurevicius caught a touchdown in the divisional playoff win against San Francisco and set up the go-ahead score in the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia with a 71-yard reception. He added four catches for a game-high 78 yards in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Mann spent the 2001 season with the Washington Redskins as wide receivers coach, tutoring Michael Westbrook and rookie Rod Gardner, who combined for 103 receptions, 1,405 yards and eight touchdowns in 2001. Prior to working with the Redskins, Mann served as the receivers coach for Kansas City in 1999 and 2000. Under Mann, the Chiefs' passing attack produced a club-record 4,388 passing yards and 28 touchdowns in 2000. Mann tutored standout receivers Derrick Alexander and Rison during his time in Kansas City, with Alexander producing four 100-yard games in 1999 and Rison becoming just the 12th player in NFL history to break the 700-catch barrier. Mann also tutored Joe Horn in his final campaign with the Chiefs in 1999, a breakout season in which Horn totaled 35 receptions for 586 yards and six touchdowns. Horn went on to become the New Orleans Saints all-time leader in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns after his time with Mann.

Mann spent the 1997 and 1998 seasons as the Baltimore Ravens wide receivers coach. Under his guidance, Alexander grabbed 65 catches for 1,009 yards and nine touchdowns in 1997, while Michael Jackson snagged 69 passes for 918 yards and four scores.

Mann also coached on the N.Y. Jets staff, coaching both wide receivers and tight ends during his three seasons (1994-1996). While in New York, he worked with Johnson and also mentored Wayne Chrebet, who set a Jets rookie record in 1995 with 66 catches for 726 yards and four touchdowns. In 1994, Mann helped Rob Moore make his first Pro Bowl appearance after catching 78 passes for 1,010 yards and six touchdowns, becoming the first Jets Pro Bowl wideout since Al Toon in 1988. In addition to working with the New York receiving corps, he also handled Jets tight end coaching duties in 1995, where he tutored first-round draft choice Kyle Brady.

From 1985-1993, Mann served as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns, where he coached Hall of Famer Newsome. Newsome finished his stellar career with 662 catches for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. In addition, Webster Slaughter hauled in 305 passes for 4,834 yards and 27 touchdowns in six seasons (1986-1991) under Mann's tutelage and was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 1990.

He originally began his NFL coaching career as a receivers coach with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts from 1982-1984. With the Colts, he worked under Frank Kush, his college head coach at Arizona State. Mann also coached on the collegiate level at the University of Louisville from 1980-1981 and Arizona State from 1974-1979 as wide receivers coach. During that time, he helped nurture a pair of receivers who enjoyed considerable success in the NFL, Clayton at Louisville and John Jefferson at Arizona State. Clayton went on to produce 582 catches for 8,974 yards and 84 touchdowns in his 11-year career with Miami (1983-1992) and Green Bay (1993), while Jefferson totaled 315 receptions for 5,714 yards and 47 scores with San Diego (1978-1980), Green Bay (1981-1984) and Cleveland (1985).

Mann, a native of Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, was a three-year starter at flanker and tight end for the Sun Devils from 1966-1968. He began his coaching career at his prep alma mater of Aliquippa High School from 1970-1073. A member of the Aliquippa Hall of Fame since 1982, Mann is also a member of the Beaver County (PA) Hall of Fame.

Mann joined several other Buccaneers coaches to host the High School Coaching Academy during the 2004 offseason in conjunction with the National Football Foundation. The academy is a one day, hands-on clinic designed to elevate the quality of football coaching at the high school level.

Mann and his wife, Karen, have four children: daughters Deven and Brittany, and sons Richard II and Mario.

MIKE MORRIS

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

9th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Mike Morris enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers and second as head strength and conditioning coach after spending his first four seasons as assistant strength and conditioning coach. Morris and his staff are responsible for overseeing one of the league's most highly-attended NFL off-season conditioning programs, which puts an emphasis on not only improving strength and cardiovascular endurance, but also enhancing speed and flexibility.

Morris also supervises the club's personalized in-season training regiment designed to maintain off-season gains and assists the team's athletic trainers with the reconditioning of injured players as they prepare to return to the playing field. In 2002, Morris helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Morris is in his ninth season in the National Football League after spending the 1997-1999 seasons with the New England Patriots. Morris, who served as speed coach in 1997-1998 and assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1999, oversaw a program that emphasized strength, speed, conditioning and coordination. In 1997, Morris helped lead the Patriots to the 1997 AFC Eastern Division Championship.

In 1990, Morris served as the president and founder of Elite Level Training Systems, a leader in athletic performance training. He has spent the last 14 years pushing NFL, Olympians, and World Champion athletes to perform to their maximum potential.

Morris served as fitness director for the Track and Racquet Club in Syracuse from 1987-1989, designing and executing numerous health and fitness programs for the health club. He also was a member of a select group of fitness consultants invited by the NFL to take part in a two-week program covering health and fitness issues for elite level athletes.

Morris, who was a three-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at Syracuse, was also an All-American sprinter for the Orangemen. Morris still holds numerous Syracuse records, including marks in the 55 meters, 100 meters and 200 meters.

In 1981, Morris was the number one high school sprinter in the country in the 100 meters. Morris ranked ninth in the world in the 100 meters in 1985, and participated in the Olympic Trials in both 1984 and 1988. He was an All-American from 1981-1984, as well as an All-Big East performer for four years. Morris also earned silver medals in the 100 meters at both the 1985 World University Games and the 1985 National Sports Festivals.

Morris is the younger brother of former NFL players Jamie and Joe Morris. Morris and his wife, Thomasina, have two children: daughter Paige and son Travis.

RAHEEM MORRIS

Defensive Backs Coach

5th NFL Season, 5th with Buccaneers

Raheem Morris is in his second stint and fifth season overall with the Buccaneers in 2007 after serving as Kansas State's defensive coordinator in 2006. Morris has quickly risen through the Buccaneers coaching ranks during his time with the team, serving as defensive quality control coach in 2002, defensive assistant in 2003 and assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-2005 before taking over as defensive backs coach this season. During his previous four seasons with the club, Morris worked closely with former Bucs defensive backs coach and current Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin in the development of one of the NFL's top secondaries.

In his lone season with Kansas State in 2006, Morris coordinated a defense that displayed improvement in several statistical categories from the previous season, including total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. Last season, Morris oversaw a Kansas State defense that included seven players who received conference recognition, including two first-team All-Big 12 honorees and one second-team selection.

During his four seasons in Tampa Bay, the Bucs finished ranked in the top five in the NFL in total defense every year, including No. 1 rankings in 2002 and 2005. Additionally, the defense finished as the top-ranked pass defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and never ranked lower than sixth while Morris was on the staff.

In 2002, his first season as a coach in the NFL, Morris helped guide the Buccaneers top-ranked defense as they captured the franchise's first world title in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Morris joined Tampa Bay after spending the 2000 and 2001 seasons as defensive backs coach at Hofstra University. He also spent time in the fall of 2001 with the New York Jets serving a defensive minority internship.

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports and handling video breakdown and computer input and analysis. He then landed at Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season.

Morris played collegiately as a safety at Hofstra from 1994-1997, and received his bachelor of science degree in physical education. He hails from Irvington, New Jersey.

KURT SHULTZ

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

5th NFL Season – 2nd with Buccaneers

Kurt Shultz enters his second season as assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Buccaneers. His duties include assisting head strength and conditioning coach Mike Morris in the implementation of the Buccaneers conditioning program.

In his first season with the Buccaneers in 2006, Shultz helped three Buccaneers earn trips to the Pro Bowl, CB Ronde Barber, LB Derrick Brooks and LS Dave Moore. Shultz was also vital in the preparation and layout of the 16,000-square foot weight room building at the team's new training facility. Additionally, he has implemented swimming and boxing into the Buccaneers offseason conditioning program.

Shultz joined the Buccaneers after spending two seasons (2004-2005) with the Minnesota Vikings as head strength and conditioning coach. In his first season with the Vikings in 2004, Shultz implemented a dynamic and intense strength and conditioning program. The results were immediate as the Vikings made dramatic gains in strength, flexibility and endurance. The 2005 Vikings continued to build on the foundation that Shultz' program established as the team sent a pair of first-year Vikings, FS Darren Sharper and KR/WR Koren Robinson, to the Pro Bowl.

Shultz came to the Vikings after spending the 2003 season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cincinnati Bengals. Shultz was part of a first-year Bengals staff under head coach Marvin Lewis that went 8-8, the best record by a Bengals club since the 8-8 team in 1996. The 2003 Bengals were able to stay remarkably healthy, losing only two players to injured reserve.

Shultz gained the bulk of his professional experience as strength coach for the University of Maryland basketball team, helping the team to the NCAA title during the 2001-2002 season in his third season with the team. Shultz left Maryland for the Bengals during the 2002-2003 season but was part of a Terrapin program that played in the NCAA Tournament each of his four seasons on the staff, advancing to the Final Four in 2000-2001 and the Sweet 16 in 2002-2003. While working for the Terrapins, he also headed the strength and conditioning programs of four Johns Hopkins University sports.

Shultz got his start in coaching at Loyola College (MD), where he spent four years (1995-1998). He diversified the Loyola program by incorporating CSA kickboxing into their traditional workouts. During his collegiate positions, Shultz also spent time working as a personal trainer at Padonia Fitness Center, an elite fitness facility in the Baltimore area. He served as a consultant and kickboxing instructor for the Baltimore Ravens and trained an elite list of professional athletes, including 2000 NFL Defensive Player of the Year Ray Lewis and former Baltimore Orioles Jerry Hairston and Gary Matthews, Jr. More than a dozen professional lacrosse players also turned to Shultz for training.

Shultz was a forward on the Maryland basketball team from 1991-1995, playing in 67 career games. A team captain as a senior, Shultz was a part of Terps teams that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in his final two seasons. As a prep player, Shultz played at prestigious DeMatha High in Washington, D.C. under legendary coach Morgan Wooten.

Shultz was born on March 10, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland. He majored in kinesiology/physical education at Maryland. Shultz is married to the former Sharon Jacob of Cincinnati.

DWAYNE STUKES

Coaches Assistant

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Dwayne Stukes enters his second season with the Buccaneers as a coaches assistant, primarily supporting special teams coordinator Richard Bisaccia. Stukes, a former defensive back, spent parts of four seasons in the NFL from 2000-03 as a member of the Buccaneers, Atlanta Falcons and Pittsburgh Steelers. He also spent time with NFL Europe's Berlin Thunder (2001-02) and the Arena Football League's Colorado Crush (2004).

Stukes was a four-year letterman at the University of Virginia, seeing action at cornerback and safety. A history major, Stukes was awarded UVA's Gretchen Savin Macillwaine Football Scholarship, given for outstanding academic achievement. He is single and resides in Tampa.

TODD WASH

Defensive Quality Control Coach

1st NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Todd Wash enters his first season with the Buccaneers as defensive quality control coach after two stints (2002-2003, 2005-2006) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, North Dakota State. While with the Bison, Wash tutored the defensive line and coordinated the run defense. In between appointments at NDSU, Wash spent the 2004 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Missouri Southern State.

Wash previously worked as defensive coordinator at the University of Nebraska-Kearney (2000-2001) and held the positions of defensive line coach (1996) and head coach/defensive coordinator (1997-1999) at Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colorado.

A two-time All-North Central Conference outside linebacker at North Dakota State, Wash played on two national championship teams with the Bison in 1988 and 1990. A preseason All-American and team captain in 1991, he went to camp as an undrafted free agent with the Houston Oilers in 1992. Wash holds two degrees from NDSU, including a bachelor's degree in physical education (1994) and a master's in athletic administration (1996).

Todd and his wife, Darci, are the parents of two daughters, Alyssa and Jenae, and one son, Marcus. Darci was an All-American basketball player for NDSU and played on three national championship teams.

MARK ARTEAGA

Director of Football Operations

Mark Arteaga is in his sixth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after being promoted to Director of Football Operations following the 2003 season. He spent his first two seasons in the organization as the assistant to head coach-football operations. In 2002, his first full season with Tampa Bay, Arteaga helped guide the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in club history against the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Arteaga works directly with Bucs General Manager Bruce Allen and oversees all daily football operations for the club, as well as serves as a liaison between Allen, head coach Jon Gruden and the entire coaching staff.

Arteaga's experience in all aspects of football administration and his excellent organizational skills have been invaluable to maintaining the success of one of the league's most respected franchises. He is able to rely on more than 19 seasons of experience in the National Football League in dealing with the day-to-day business of the team and every component of the club's football operation.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Arteaga spent 13 seasons with the Raiders, including his final 11 campaigns as the club's administrative assistant to the head coach for four different Raider head coaches. Arteaga spent his last four seasons in Oakland (1998-2001) working with Gruden, who led the Raiders to consecutive postseason appearances (2000 and 2001), including an appearance in the AFC Championship Game in 2000.

Arteaga joined the Raiders on a full-time basis under head coach Mike Shanahan as the coaches' administrative assistant prior to the 1989 season. He served in that capacity for two seasons before being named the team's administrative assistant to the head coach in 1991.

Arteaga worked for the Raiders as a summer training camp football intern during the 1988 and 1989 summers. Prior to joining the Raiders, Arteaga worked as a spring training intern with the New York Yankees in 1987 and 1988 in Fort Lauderdale.

Arteaga studied sports administration at St. Thomas University in Miami. He hails from Chicago and graduated in 1985 from St. Rita High School, where he lettered in baseball for one season as an infielder. He and his wife, Jacqueline, live in Tampa with their daughter Marianna and son Anthony.

ROXANNE KOSARZYCKI

General Counsel

One of the most well-respected female executives in professional football, Roxanne Kosarzycki enters her fourth season with the Buccaneers as general counsel after spending the previous 14 years with the Oakland Raiders in legal affairs.

Kosarzycki's main responsibilities include overseeing a variety of in-house legal matters for both football and administration. She is instrumental in the negotiation and drafting of player contracts as well as the review and drafting of agreements with the club's marketing and media partners and other service providers. Kosarzycki is involved with the Buccaneers trademark protection and enforcement. Additionally, she maintains an open door policy using her legal skills and years of experience to assist players and staff with a variety of issues. Her unique talents and vast knowledge provide the Buccaneers with a valuable resource in every facet of the organization.

While in Oakland her duties were vastly similar, but also included assisting in various business litigation matters and overseeing the legal affairs for the Raiders' retail department. Kosarzycki was also the co-director of the player development department as she managed such programs as continuing education, financial and family assistance and career internships.

A native of Newport Beach, California, Kosarzycki holds a bachelor's degree in sociology with a minor in psychology from UCLA and a Juris Doctorate from Southwestern School of Law in Los Angeles. She is married to Gene, and the couple has two children, Christopher and Sarah.

MARK DOMINIK

Director of Pro Personnel

Mark Dominik enters his 13th year with the Buccaneers organization, including his seventh as Tampa Bay's Director of Pro Personnel. Dominik was added to the Buccaneers' staff in June 1995 as a pro personnel assistant. He served in that capacity through the 1997 season before assuming the title of pro scout in 1998. In 2000 he was elevated to the coordinator of pro personnel before being promoted to his current position. In 2002, his eighth season with Tampa Bay, Dominik helped guide the Buccaneers to their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII against Oakland.

Dominik's responsibilities include coordinating the recruiting and signing of all NFL free agents, while also monitoring NFL transactions and handling player tryouts. In addition, he is in charge of Tampa Bay's scouting efforts of all other professional football leagues, including the NFL, NFL Europa, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football Leagues.

Dominik, a native of St. Cloud, Minnesota, joined Tampa Bay after spending a year-and-a-half working in both the college and pro personnel departments for the Kansas City Chiefs. Dominik has a bachelor's of science degree in sports management from the University of Kansas. He and his wife, Amy, live in Tampa and have one son, Davis.

DOUG WILLIAMS

Personnel Executive

Doug Williams enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers as personnel executive. He re-joined the Buccaneers in 2004 following a successful tenure as head coach at his alma mater, Grambling State, and one of the most storied playing careers in league and team history. As personnel executive, he returned to lend his expertise and more than 20 years of experience in football to Tampa Bay's front office. Williams' duties include scouting, player evaluations and recruiting free agents.

In six seasons (1998-2003) at Grambling State University, Williams brought one of the most storied programs in college football history back to prominence, compiling a 52-18 record as head coach after succeeding the legendary Eddie Robinson, who was at the helm for 57 years from 1941-1997 and re-wrote the record books as the winningest coach in the history of college football with 408 career wins.

"We are thrilled to welcome Doug back to our family," said Executive Vice President Joel Glazer upon the hiring of Williams. "He was one of the cornerstones in the early years of our franchise as a player, and his wealth of experience in coaching and scouting will be a major asset in our future."

Williams led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles from 2000-02 as they were named National Black College Champions during the same three-year span. He was also named SWAC Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons, and was also honored as Street and Smith's Black College Coach of the Year in 2000. Williams was a two-time finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson (Division I-AA) National Coach of the Year.

Williams, a first-round pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981, 1982), including an amazing appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the fourth year of existence. He propelled the team to three winning seasons (10-6 in 1979, 9-7 in 1981 and 5-4 in 1982), the only campaigns in franchise history with a winning record until more than 15 years later, in the 1997 season. Williams also guided Tampa Bay to its first NFC Central title in 1979.

Tampa Bay's starting quarterback from 1978-82, Williams still ranks among the leaders in club history in several major passing categories: second in touchdown passes (73), third in passing yards (12,648), third in pass attempts (1,890) and fourth in pass completions (895). Williams, who started 67 career games for the Buccaneers, was a two-time team MVP in 1980 and 1981. He ended his Tampa Bay career in 1982 as the all-time franchise leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, attempts and completions.

"Doug has been successful at every level of football he has been associated with," said General Manager Bruce Allen. "He has helped us improve our team. His accomplishments here in Tampa were really stunning when you look at what occurred prior to his arrival, and what occurred after his departure."

In 1986, Tampa Bay traded the NFL rights to Williams to the Washington Redskins for a 1987 fifth-round pick, which was used on S Tony Mayes, who never saw action in a Buccaneer uniform. The trade followed two seasons for Williams with the Oklahoma Outlaws of the USFL. Williams led the Redskins to a 42-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXII following the 1987 season, and was anointed the game's MVP after he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (4), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards). He was the first black quarterback to ever start a Super Bowl. Williams ended his playing career following the 1989 season with the Redskins.

Williams has gained invaluable experience at many levels, including the start of his college head coaching career at Morehouse College in 1997. He also has previous NFL experience as a scout for Jacksonville in 1995 and as offensive coordinator for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1995, and tutored running backs for Navy in 1994. Williams also excelled on the high school level as head coach and athletic director at Point Coupee High School in New Roads, Louisiana in 1991, and in 1993, he was head coach at Northeast High School in his hometown of Zachary, La., where he guided the team to a 13-1 record and the state semifinals.

As Grambling's quarterback from 1974-77, Williams had a spectacular college career as he passed for more than 8,000 yards and 93 touchdowns, leading the Tigers to three National Black College National Championships and two SWAC titles. He posted a 36-7 record as a starter and finished fourth in voting for the 1977 Heisman Trophy.

Williams has been vital in the development of The Field Generals, an organization founded by and composed of retired NFL African American quarterbacks (Williams, James Harris, Marlin Briscoe, Randall Cunningham, Vince Evans and Warren Moon) who are dedicated to teaching and preserving the history of the African American quarterback. Williams was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. He returned to South Bend, Indiana in 2006 to speak, along with other members of the Field Generals, about the struggles and perseverance African American quarterbacks endured while integrating the position. In February 2007, Williams, along with fellow members of the Field Generals, and author William C. Rhoden, released Third and a Mile, a story of the trials and triumphs of the black quarterback in conjunction with ESPN.

In 2004, Williams was named to the preliminary list of nominees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He also was honored by Pop Warner as the Joseph J. Tomlin Award recipient in 2004. The Tomlin award is presented to an individual who has demonstrated outstanding character development, physical fitness and scholastic achievement.

He and his wife, Raunda, have six children: Ashley, Adrian, Doug, Jr., Jasmine, Laura and Temessia.

DENNIS HICKEY

Director of College Scouting

Dennis Hickey enters his third season as the Director of College Scouting and 12th season overall with the organization.

Hickey is responsible for coordinating a staff of regional scouts and managing the compilation of information on college players.

In 2005, Hickey helped assemble a draft class that provided three new starters on offense, including consensus NFL Rookie of the Year RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, G Dan Buenning and TE Alex Smith. The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11).

Prior to his promotion to director of college scouting, Hickey spent seven seasons as a college scout for Tampa Bay scouting the midwestern states for the team. Hickey was a member of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship in 2002, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Before assuming his role as a scout for Tampa Bay, Hickey spent the 1996-97 seasons as a pro personnel assistant in the Bucs' scouting department. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hickey spent two years (1994-95) as an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas. At Blinn, he coached the defensive backs and was responsible for recruiting in the state of Texas.

Hickey played collegiately at Coffeyville Community College and was a three-year starter and captain at the University of Tulsa, where he was also named an academic All-American. He received his bachelor's degree from Tulsa in 1994.

He and his wife, Stephanie, have one daughter, Breanna, and one son, Barrett. They live in Tampa.

KEVIN DEMOFF

Senior Assistant

Kevin Demoff enters his second season as senior assistant and sixth season in professional football.

Demoff, who served as a consultant with the Buccaneers in 2005, assists General Manager Bruce Allen in contract negotiations, salary cap management, scouting, strategic planning and salary cap forecasting.

From 2001-04, Demoff served as the Director of Football Operations for the Arena Football League's Los Angeles Avengers. In his last three seasons with the Avengers, the team finished 28-18, third-best in the AFL, including three consecutive playoff appearances.

Demoff graduated with a master's degree in business administration from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth in 2006. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in history from Dartmouth in 1999.

From 1999-03, Demoff served as an editorial consultant on The NFL Show on Fox Sports Net, helping write and edit show copy and provide detailed research for talent. From 1999-00, he was part of a team at Broadband Sports that helped design and develop the Dallas Cowboys' new Web site. He also negotiated deals with NFL teams to build new websites for NFL teams.

Demoff and his wife, Jennifer, live in Tampa with their daughter, Claire.

SETH TURNER

College Scout

Seth Turner enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers and third year as a college scout. Turner is responsible for scouting the Midwest region of the United States after spending four seasons as Tampa Bay's national combine scout.

In 2005, Turner helped assemble a draft class that provided three new starters on offense, including consensus NFL Rookie of the Year RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, G Dan Buenning and TE Alex Smith. The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11).

Prior to scouting the Midwest, Turner spent four years as Tampa Bay's scout for the annual NFL combine as well as a scout for the southeastern United States. In 2002, Turner was a part of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

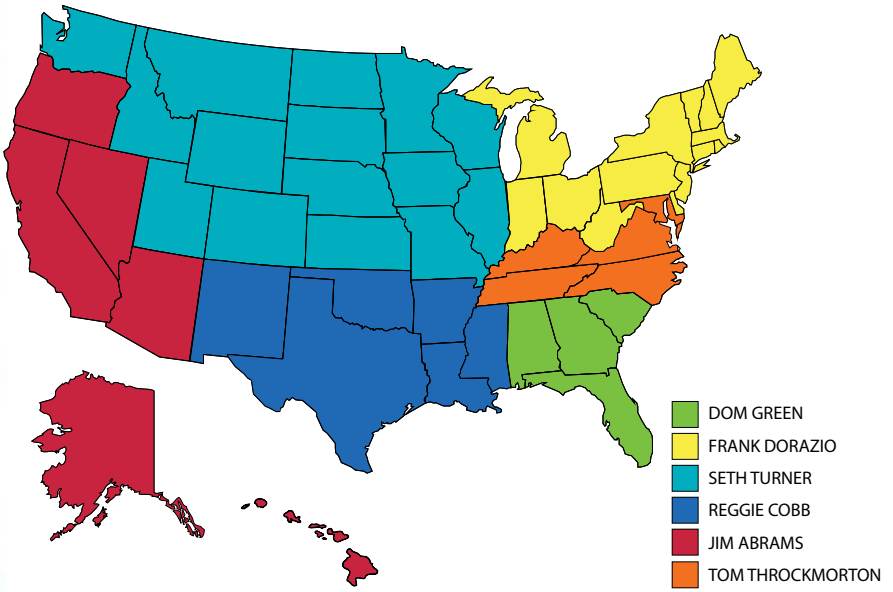

Turner joined the Buccaneers in July of 2000 as an intern in the college and pro scouting department. In that role, he assisted in the evaluation of professional free agents and draft-eligible college players. He also served as one of Tampa Bay's representatives at the 2001 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Turner was an intern for the NFL's player personnel department, as well as a summer intern for the Buffalo Bills' player personnel staff in 1999.

Turner graduated with a B.S. in physical education from Baker University in Kansas in 1997 and then earned a master's in sport management in 1999 from Indiana State. He was a four-year letterman at linebacker and defensive end at Baker, garnering third-team all-conference honors in 1996 as a senior.

Turner, a native of Lansing, Kansas, lives in Columbia, Missouri with his wife, Ariana and son, Graham.

Personnel Consultant

Jim Gruden, a veteran of 37 professional and collegiate football seasons, enters his fourth season as personnel consultant with the Buccaneers in his second stint with the club. Gruden works directly with general manager Bruce Allen and the entire personnel department as well as the Buccaneers coaches in all personnel matters.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Gruden spent 17 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as a regional scout responsible for the Southeast region. Before working with the 49ers, he spent five seasons with Tampa Bay as director of player personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Gruden joined the NFL ranks in 1982, after eight years of high school coaching and 15 years of collegiate coaching at Heidelberg (OH) College (1966-68), Dayton (1969-72), Indiana (1973-77) and Notre Dame (1978-80). He was with the Fighting Irish during Joe Montana's playing days, and at Dayton he was an assistant coach under John McVay, former general manager of the San Francisco 49ers.

Gruden and his wife, Kathy, have three sons: Jon (Buccaneers head coach), Jay (Orlando Predators head coach/Buccaneers offensive assistant) and Jim (radiologist at the Mayo Clinic in Scottsdale, Arizona).

CHET FRANKLIN

Senior Consultant

Chet Franklin, a veteran of 36 years in professional football as an assistant coach and personnel executive, enters his third season with the Buccaneers as a Senior Consultant. Franklin works directly with general manager Bruce Allen and the personnel department in evaluating current NFL and college players.

Franklin spent 16 seasons as an assistant coach, including seven years with the Oakland Raiders (1980-86). He also spent four seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (1971-74), three seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (1975-77) and two seasons with the New Orleans Saints (1978-79).

After coaching, Franklin moved into the front office and was named the Director of Player Personnel for the San Diego Chargers (1987-89). He also served as Director of Player Personnel for the World League (later renamed NFL Europa) from 1990-92.

Franklin returned to the NFL as Director of Pro Personnel for the Saints for three seasons (1994-97) before being promoted to Senior Vice President of Football Operations (1997-98). He also returned to the Raiders for four seasons as a member of Oakland's player personnel department from 1999-02.

During his career with the Raiders Franklin helped guide the team to three Super Bowl appearances, including two wins (XV and XVIII) as an assistant coach. He also helped the Raiders to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII as a front office executive.

ERIC VANCE

Director of Player Development

Eric Vance enters his second season with the Buccaneers as Director of Player Development. Vance, a former safety with the Buccaneers from 1998-01, serves as the primary contact between the players, coaches and the community.

Vance's responsibilities include facilitating the league's personal conduct policy and implementing Buccaneer University which involves helping players with continuing education, financial education, career transition and other off-field issues. He is also the main liaison between the players and the club's community relations department, and encourages player involvement in charities and community activities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Vance spent time as a financial advisor with Raymond James Financial in St. Petersburg and as a teacher at Robinson High School in Tampa. In 2005, he was named the Ida S. Baker Distinguished Minority Educator of the Year.

Vance spent four seasons (1998-01) with the Buccaneers, playing in 33 games with one start. He also spent time with the Indianapolis Colts and San Diego Chargers after entering the league as an undrafted free agent with the Carolina Panthers in 1997.

Vance graduated from Vanderbilt University with a double major in mathematics and secondary education. He was also a four-year starter, along with a team captain. He also earned his Master's in Educational Leadership from the University of South Florida.

Vance and his wife, Inika, reside in Tampa with daughter, Jalyn, and son, Jordan.

JUSTIN SHERIDAN

Pro Personnel Assistant

Justin Sheridan enters his second season as pro personnel assistant for Tampa Bay. He assists in evaluating pro personnel, advance scouting and data maintenance.

Sheridan spent two seasons as the Director of Football Operations at Northwestern University from March 2004 to June 2006. In his role, he supervised the day-to-day administrative operations of the football team, while also serving as a liaison to the athletic department, business office and academic services, among others.

Sheridan originally joined NU as a recruiting assistant in July 2001, serving in that role until taking over as the Assistant Director of Football Operations in February 2003.

From May 1999 to December 2000, Sheridan spent time as an assistant coach at Western Maryland College. Later, he served as the Assistant Director of Football Operations at the University of Pennsylvania from January 2001 to July 2001.

Sheridan spent one season as facilities operations assistant with the Baltimore Ravens from July 1998 to August 1999.

Sheridan earned his bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in accounting, from Western Maryland College. At the school, he was a four-year letterwinner, playing on two conference Centennial Conference champions.

Sheridan, and his wife, Kristen, reside in Tampa.

TODD TORISCELLI

Head Athletic Trainer

Head Athletic Trainer Todd Toriscelli enters his 11th season with the Buccaneers. In 2002, Toriscelli helped guide the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. Prior to coming to Tampa Bay, he spent a combined seven years as a head trainer for Stanford, Miami (FL) and Kansas State universities.

Toriscelli and his staff are involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat. This has been done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Toriscelli spent 1995-96 as Stanford's head trainer, while also serving as the National Athletic Trainers Association's liaison to the NCAA Football Rules Committee during that time period. He worked as the head athletic trainer at the University of Miami during the 1993-94 seasons, and spent three years in the same capacity for Kansas State (1990-92).

A native of Steubenville, Ohio, Toriscelli holds a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Ohio University (1984) and a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis on sports medicine from the University of North Carolina (1985).

Toriscelli and his wife, Chris, reside in Tampa with their son Shane and daughter Jenna.

SHANNON MERRICK

Director of Rehabilitation

Shannon Merrick enters his fourth season as the Buccaneers' Director of Rehabilitation. Merrick works directly with Head Trainer Todd Toriscelli to treat and rehabilitate injured Buccaneer players.

He joined the Buccaneers after spending the previous eight years as a site coordinator/rehabilitation director for HealthSouth in Melbourne, Florida. Prior to his appointment at HealthSouth, Merrick held athletic training internships at the University of Notre Dame (1989-90) and Indianapolis Colts (1988-89). While an undergraduate at Purdue University, he also served as a student athletic trainer from 1985-89.

Tampa Bay's staff is involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat. This has been done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Merrick earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training, pre-physical therapy from Purdue in 1990, and a master's degree in physical therapy from Washington University School of Medicine (St. Louis, MO) in 1992.

A native of Goshen, Indiana, Merrick and his wife, Lynne, reside in Tampa with their daughter Elani and sons Joshua and Jack.

PAT JERNIGAN

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Pat Jernigan begins his sixth season as the Buccaneers' assistant athletic trainer. In his first season in his current role with the organization, Jernigan helped the Buccaneers capture their first Super Bowl title.

His job responsibilities entail assisting Head Athletic Trainer Todd Toriscelli with the treatment and rehabilitation of players. Jernigan spent two seasons (2000-2001) as Tampa Bay's seasonal intern and also served as the Buccaneers' intern during training camp from 1998-2000. Tampa Bay's staff is involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat. This has been done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Jernigan graduated from Valdosta State (GA) in 1998 with a bachelor's of science degree in sports medicine and earned a master's degree in health science from Middle Tennessee State University in 2000. While pursuing his master's degree at MTSU, he worked as a athletic trainer for both the football and baseball teams.

A native of Atlanta, Jernigan enjoys golfing, jogging and weightlifting. Jernigan, who resides in Tampa, is married to the former Krisden Wunsch.

DR. JOSEPH DIACO

Team Physician

Dr. Joseph Diaco enters his 32nd year with the Buccaneers and 30th as the chief team physician. Diaco currently practices general and laparoscopic surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tampa. In 2002, Diaco helped the Buccaneers claim their first Super Bowl title in team history with a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Besides his aforementioned duties, Diaco is also an associate clinical professor at the University of South Florida and at one time served as the president of the Tampa Surgical Society. A fellow of the American College of Surgeons, Diaco came to the Tampa Bay area 30 years ago. From 1971-74, he served as the chief of surgery at the Air Force Hospital at Warner Robbins Air Force Base in Georgia. Diaco served his residency in general surgery at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital from 1965-70. Diaco was also named Community Leader of the Year by the Arthritis Foundation in 2003.

A Tampa resident, Diaco earned his bachelor's degree from Villanova and also graduated from Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital in his native Philadelphia. His twin brother, Nick, is a heart specialist in Los Angeles. Diaco has three sons: Daniel, Stephen and Joseph. Daniel is the Chief of Plastic Surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital and will be assisting Diaco again this upcoming season. Stephen and Joseph are both Tampa attorneys.

DR. JOHN ZVIJAC

Head Team Orthopedic Surgeon

Dr. John Zvijac enters his 10th season as the Buccaneers head team orthopedic surgeon. Dr. Zvijac is a professor at the University of Miami School of Education, Department of Exercise Science and Sports Medicine, as well as a professor in Exercise and Sports Science at Florida International University. In addition, he is a member of the Athletic Training Education Advisory Board at Florida International University. He is in private practice at the UHZ Sports Medicine Institute in Coral Gables. Zvijac's contributions were vital to the Buccaneers as the club claimed its first Super Bowl title in 2002 against the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Zvijac is also the team physician for the University of Miami and Florida International University, while providing medical care for all Miami-Dade County Public High Schools.

Zvijac graduated from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Medicine and completed his residency at the University of Miami School of Medicine. He also fulfilled an additional year of fellowship training in arthroscopy and sports medicine at the American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Alabama.

Zvijac resides in Miami with wife Gail.

DAVE LEVY

Video Director

Dave Levy begins his 20th season as the team's video director. Levy's contributions helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in 2002, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

His responsibilities include all videotaping, editing and production for the team. He also oversees the Bucs' game film library and handles film trade-outs with the other NFL clubs. In preparation for each season's NFL draft, Levy's department also aids the personnel department in acquiring, editing and maintaining videotape on draft-eligible players. He was hired by the Bucs after previously serving as an assistant in the Pittsburgh Steelers' video department.

A native of Pittsburgh, Levy went to high school in nearby Bethel Park. Levy also attended the Community College of Allegheny County, the University of Pittsburgh, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Kelly, a registered nurse, live in New Tampa with sons Andrew, Garrett and Bryce.

CHRIS BRYAN

Assistant Video Director

Chris Bryan enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers and second as assistant video director. He assists video director Dave Levy in the shooting and duplicating of games and practices while also editing and producing various other tapes for the coaching staff. The 2002 season saw Bryan help lead the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl XXXVII victory over the Oakland Raiders.

Bryan, a native of St. Petersburg, spent his first six seasons with the Buccaneers as a video assistant from 2000-05.

JAMES SORENSON

Head Equipment Manager

James Sorenson, who first started working in the NFL in 1986, is in his second season as equipment manager with the Buccaneers.

Sorenson is responsible for distributing all equipment and apparel to Buccaneer players and coaches, along with purchasing and inventorying all team equipment. He also maintains the locker room and oversees the transportation of the team's equipment to training camp and for all home and road games.

Sorenson spent eight seasons as an assistant equipment manager with the Jacksonville Jaguars, from 1998-05. He began his career in the NFL in 1986 as a ball boy with the Minnesota Vikings before serving as equipment assistant with the team from 1991-97.

Sorenson earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biomedical Science from St. Cloud State in 1998. He is single and resides in Tampa.

LARRY HOYT

Assistant Equipment Manager

Larry Hoyt enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers' equipment staff. His responsibilities with the staff include assisting equipment manager James Sorenson with the outfitting of players and serving as the team's main liaison for footwear and gloves with Reebok and Nike. In his first year with the Buccaneers in 2002, Hoyt was part of the team's first Super Bowl championship.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Hoyt held two different stints as the equipment manager for the Arena Football League's Orlando Predators, from 1995-99 and again from 2000-02. He also worked in sponsorship sales for the Predators and served as the team's interim ticket manager for a three-month period in 2000. During his tenure in Orlando, Hoyt was part of Arena Bowl championships in 1998 and 2000.

A native of Englewood, Florida, Hoyt earned a bachelor's of science degree in exercise and sports science from the University of Florida. He earned a scholarship while working as a student equipment manager for the Gator football team from 1990-95, and was part of SEC Championships in 1990, 1991, 1993 and 1994.

1998: Started all 16 games with the Seahawks… Led the team in receptions and touchdowns for the third consecutive season while being named first alternate for the AFC Pro Bowl squad… Tied for the AFC lead with 10 receiving touchdowns and tied for third with 12 total touchdowns, tying his career-high set in 1997… Finished the season eighth in the AFC with 1,047 receiving yards, the third 1,000-yard season of his career… His punt return average of 10.0 was seventh in the AFC… Led the team with 65 receptions and four 100-yard games during the year… In the season opener at Philadelphia (9/6), posted his ninth career 100-yard game with a then career-high 142 yards on six receptions, including touchdown catches of 35 and 25 yards… Scored another touchdown among his two receptions vs. Arizona (9/13)… Added his 10th career 100-yard game came at Pittsburgh (9/27) with a 139-yard outburst on a season-high seven receptions… Caught a career-long 81-yard touchdown pass at San Diego (10/25) and later connected on a 41-yard pass to the one-yard line to set up the game-winning touchdown… Finished the game with four catches for 130 yards… Also returned a punt 74 yards for his third career punt return touchdown… Returned a punt 56 yards for a touchdown vs. Oakland (11/15) and caught four passes for 71 yards, including a 44-yard touchdown pass… Against Tennessee (11/29), caught a seven-yard touchdown pass before posting his fourth 100-yard receiving day of the season with 127 yards and two touchdowns on two receptions at the N.Y. Jets (12/6)… The touchdowns against the Jets were from 70 and 57 yards out and marked his seventh-career multi-touchdown game… Tied a season-high with seven receptions vs. San Diego (12/13), including a touchdown, and then led the team in receptions vs. Indianapolis (12/20) with five, including a three-yard touchdown pass… Presented the ball to a Make-A-Wish child, Sterling Grover, following the touchdown.

1997: Started 15 games, missing only the Tennessee game (10/5) because of injury… Suffered the injury the previous week at Kansas City (9/28), an injury suffered on a first quarter touchdown reception which kept him out the remainder of that game… For the season, led the team in receptions, yards and touchdowns for the second consecutive year with 72 receptions, 1,049 receiving yards and a career-high 12 touchdowns – averaging 28.6 yards on each of his scores… His touchdown total was the most by a Seahawks player since WR Steve Largent had 12 in 1985 and was one off the club record by WR Daryl Turner in 1984… His 12 touchdowns tied for the AFC lead and was the third-best total touchdown figure in the NFL… Twice during the season, tied his single-game high with eight catches at St. Louis (10/19) and again at Denver (11/2), in addition he had at least five receptions in eight games… Against Oakland (10/26), had seven receptions for 117 yards and three touchdowns… Scored all three touchdowns in the second half, including the game-clincher with 2:24 left… One of three 100-yard efforts on the year… Caught five passes for 106 yards vs. San Diego (9/21) and six for 101 with two touchdowns vs. San Francisco (12/21)… Totaled 98 yards receiving at Denver (11/2)… At San Diego (11/9), scored the game-winning touchdown on a 40-yard reception with 2:20 remaining… Named a first alternate to the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

1996: Started all 16 games with the Seahawks… Finished the season leading the team in receptions (57), yards (987) and touchdowns (seven)… Posted two 100-yard games during the season… Opened the season with a 60-yard reception at San Diego (9/1) before tallying his second career punt return touchdown with an 88-yarder vs. Denver (9/8)… Turned out a season-best 137 yards on five receptions, including touchdowns of 51 and 65 yards at Miami (10/6)… Had a single-game high eight receptions in back-to-back midseason games against Houston (11/3) and Minnesota (11/10)… In the Oilers' contest, had 94 yards receiving and the game-tying touchdown reception with 3:30 left… Eight catches against the Vikings were good for 91 yards and one score… In a late season AFC West showdown vs. Oakland (11/24), had three receptions for 99 yards, with receptions of 40 and 42 yards to set up touchdowns… Caught five balls for 108 yards, with a 43-yarder to set up a touchdown at Denver (12/1)… Through the first seven games of the season, averaged 11.8 yards on 12 punt returns to rank fourth in the AFC before relinquishing those duties to concentrate on offense.

1995: Started all 16 games for the Seahawks… Was the first rookie wide receiver to start every game for Seattle and the first since 1976 to start the opener… Along the way, was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by College and Pro Football News Weekly and was a consensus All-Rookie choice… Caught 67 passes for 1,039 yards and seven touchdowns, becoming the 10th rookie in NFL history to surpass 1,000 yards and the first since 1986…

Combined with WR Brian Blades to form the first duo with 1,000 yards in the same season in Seattle history… Also added 154 rushing yards and a touchdown while returning 36 punts for a 10.0-yard average and one touchdown… Along the way, set franchise season records for receptions, yards and 100-yard games (three) by a rookie, totals that also led all NFL rookies – as did his seven touchdown receptions… The first record to fall was WR Daryl Turner's for yardage (715 in 1984) 11 games into the season… In Week 14, broke WR Steve Largent's record for rookie receptions (54 in 1976)… Prior to his arrival, the franchise had seen only five 100-yard games by a rookie, but he almost matched that himself, posting a franchise rookie-best three 100-yard games: five receptions for 102 yards and one touchdown at Buffalo (10/15); five receptions for 114 yards and two scores at Jacksonville (11/12); and five catches for 108 yards against Oakland (10/08)… In the Jaguars game, established a franchise record for the longest run from scrimmage with an 86-yard touchdown dash… Accounted for 200 yards from scrimmage in the game and earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his performance… A club-record 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against the N.Y. Giants (11/5) started him on his way to AFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for November, a month in which he returned 13 punts for a 13.2 yard average and one touchdown… Both the 89-yard punt return and the 86-yard run were the longest such plays in the NFL in 1995… For the season, averaged 48.0 yards on each of his nine touchdowns (seven receiving, one rushing, one punt return) and was one of two players in the NFL (San Francisco's WR Jerry Rice) to score three different ways.

College: Finished his college career second in Ohio State history in touchdown receptions with 19 – trailing only WR Cris Carter's 27 – and had two games with three touchdowns… Finished fourth in both career receptions (108) and receiving yards (1,894)… Also added 20 kickoff returns for a 25.0-yard average and one score and 34 punt returns for a 7.8 average… Earned First-Team All-Big Ten Conference honors as a junior and Second-Team accolades as a senior while leading the team in receiving both years… As a senior, recorded 44 receptions for 669 yards and seven touchdowns… Also returned 18 kickoffs for 462 yards (25.7 avg.) and one touchdown… Also returned 16 punts for a 10.6 average… Finished his senior season catching eight passes for 146 yards and two touchdowns in the Citrus Bowl against Alabama, including a career-best 69-yard reception… As a junior, caught 47 passes for 946 yards and a school-record equaling (Carter – 1986) 11 touchdowns… His yardage total ranked third for a single-season in school history trailing Carter's 1,127 in 1986 and 950 in 1985… Posted four 100-yard games, including 186 yards (third best single-game total in school history) on nine receptions with three touchdowns against Michigan State… Was a National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete and National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Scholarship recipient… Majored in business/marketing.

Amassed 161 total yards at Carolina (12/30) with 12 carries for 89 yards, two receptions for 28 yards, and two kickoff returns for 44 yards in 30-7 win... Exploded in second half for 60 yards on just five carries, highlighted by 39-yard run from own 10-yard line in third quarter, then a 24-yarder from own 16-yard line midway through final period... Finished season at Washington (1/6) with two kickoff returns for 21 and 44 yards.

2000: Saw action in all 16 games with 12 starts... First Cardinal to lead club in receptions (73) and rushing yardage (719) since RB Terry Metcalf in 1975... Tallied 10 pass receptions vs. N.Y. Giants (11/26), most by Cardinal running back in 64 games (Larry Centers, 1996)... Finished season with 73 pass receptions for 579 yards (7.9 avg.) and two touchdowns and rushed 184 times for 719 yards (3.9 avg.) and four scores... Finished second in the NFC among running backs with 80 receptions (to Redskins Larry Centers)... Rushed four times for nine yards but collected 71 yards on six pass receptions at N.Y. Giants (9/3)... Five catches for 53 yards in second half included a 21-yard gain to convert a third-and-five situation in a third quarter scoring drive... Added another 21-yard run-and-catch in the fourth quarter... Gained 28 yards on nine carries and vaulted over from one yard out in second quarter to give Cards 10-7 lead in eventual 32-31 win over Dallas (9/10)... Supplied spark at San Francisco (10/1) with 144 yards of total offense... Finished game with team-best 11 carries for 72 yards and impressive 6.5-yard average... Also led Cardinals in receiving with six receptions for 72 yards... Started vs. Cleveland (10/8) and responded with 16 carries for 107 yards and two pass receptions for 10 yards... Finished second quarter with 33 yards on six carries, added 36 more rushing yards in third quarter alone with a 21-yard run in scoring drive... Had 21 yards rushing on nine carries at Dallas (10/22) and scored on one-yard plunge in fourth quarter… Added team-best seven pass receptions for 24 yards... 126 yards from scrimmage vs. New Orleans (10/29) with 20 carries for 86 yards and 4.3-yard average and three receptions for 40 yards against talented Saints' defense... Gained 30 yards on 15 carries vs. Washington (11/5), including a seven-yard burst for a touchdown in a 16-15 win... Added three pass receptions for 28 yards... Led Cardinals with 50 rushing yards on 12 attempts and eight pass receptions for 63 yards at Minnesota (11/12)... Scored only Cardinals points on offense with one-yard vault... Six of his receptions came on third down... 113 combined yards from scrimmage accounted for 45 percent of team total of 249 yards... Though slowed by tender ribs and shoulder, rushed for 49 yards on 13 carries and caught six passes for 29 yards at Philadelphia (11/19)... Accounted for 173 yards from scrimmage, 65 percent of Cardinals total offense, with 13 carries for 77 yards and career-best 10 pass receptions for 96 more yards vs. N.Y. Giants (11/26)... Scored Arizona's only touchdown with 36-yard rumble on textbook screen pass in third quarter... Added season-best 29-yard run earlier in the period... Left game at Baltimore (12/17) after suffering a concussion... Another ironman effort at Cincinnati (12/3) as only Cardinal to carry the ball from scrimmage with 19 attempts for 72 yards and added six pass receptions for 31 yards... Rebounded for season finale at Washington (12/24) to collect 72 yards rushing on 16 attempts and catch three passes for 13 yards.

1999: In 10 games (two starts), rushed for 289 yards on 64 carries for team-best 4.5-yard average per attempt with two touchdowns... Also caught 16 passes for 196 yards and returned four punts (16 yards) and two kickoffs (31 yards)... Flashed glimpses of talent and productivity in frustratingly-short sophomore season marred by turf-toe injury... In first pro starting role vs. Detroit (11/14), amassed 177 yards total offense with 133 rushing yards on 23 carries and two receptions for 44 yards in 23-19 win... Featured plays were 58-yard scoring run and 46-yard pass reception... The 58-yard run was the longest by a Cardinal in 52 games and the longest scoring jaunt in 53 contests (LeShon Johnson, 70 yards at New Orleans, 9/22/96)... The 133 rushing yards rank 10th among NFL players in their first starts in the 1990s... The effort also was Arizona's only 100-yard rusher during the 1999 season... Extensive action both from scrimmage and on special teams in season opener at Philadelphia (9/12)... Caught two passes for 26 yards, and returned four punts for 16 yards and one kickoff 22 yards in 25-24 win... Converted key third-and-eight play with 13-yard grab from QB Jake Plummer in third quarter scoring drive, then made diving catch for 13-yard gain to open game-winning march with less than two minutes left to place the ball at the Eagle 30-yard line with 1:43 to play... Also posted two assisted tackles on kick-coverage units... Completed a 26-yard pass to WR Frank Sanders at Miami (9/19)... Rushed six times for 35 yards vs. San Francisco (9/27)... Caught season-best four passes for 42 yards, including third-down catches of 18 and 15 yards in the fourth quarter, at Dallas (10/3)... Left outing early vs. Washington (10/17) with concussion after two carries for 15 yards and a pair of pass receptions for another 33 yards... Four carries for 29 yards vs. New England (10/31), including a 21-yarder up the middle near the end of the first half... Scored first NFL touchdown on four-yard burst up the middle to give Cardinals 7-3 lead at N.Y. Jets (11/7)... Finished game with nine rushing attempts for 41 yards and 4.6-yard average per carry... Earned first NFL start the following week vs. Detroit (11/14)... Enjoyed outstanding success with 133 yards rushing and 44 yards receiving for 177 yards of offense... Later bolted 58 yards to the end zone on third quarter draw play as he took the ball inside, bounced outside and streaked down the left sideline and outraced the Detroit secondary to the end zone to give the Cardinals a 23-7 lead with 11 minutes remaining in the period... Inactive next three games... Returned to starting lineup at Washington (12/12) but lasted for just three carries for eight yards and a pair of pass receptions as he left game in second quarter after aggravating the toe... Declared inactive for final three games.

1998: Played in 15 of 16 games for the Cardinals, primarily on special teams... Also played in both playoff games… 91 rushing yards on 29 carries (3.1 avg.), four kickoffs returns for 84 yards (21.0 avg.) and 17 tackles on special teams... Played almost exclusively on special teams in season opener at Dallas (9/6) where he teamed with DB J.J. McCleskey to put fierce stop on CB Deion Sanders in first quarter for three-yard loss on punt return... First action from scrimmage with two carries for two and five yards in second quarter at Seattle (9/13)... Finished with 17 carries for 56 yards vs. Chicago (10/11)... Returned two kickoffs, 22 and 18 yards, and made a solo tackle and assist on coverage units at N.Y. Giants (10/28)... Contributed mightily on special teams in 45-42 win at Washington (11/22)... Recovered a muffed punt by Redskins RB Brian Mitchell in first quarter at the Washington 29-yard line as Cardinals scored six plays later to take 3-0 lead... In fourth quarter, returned a Washington squib kick 20 yards to the Card 45-yard line, setting stage for 10-play, 55-yard drive to take 45-35 lead with 3:49 left in game... Also sparkled with four tackles on coverage units... Sustained broken bone in right hand on opening kickoff vs. N.Y. Giants (12/6) and did not play remainder of game... Inactive the next week for the Cardinals assignment at Philadelphia (12/13)... Casted hand limited him to special-teams play vs. New Orleans (12/20), but still managed three solo stops on coverage units... Tallied four special teams tackles in two playoff games.

RAVENS 27 BUCS 0
September 10, 2006
Raymond James Stadium (65,087)

TAMPA – The visiting Baltimore Ravens handed Tampa Bay its first home shutout since 1996 and the first shutout ever at Raymond James Stadium with a 27-0 victory in the 2006 season opener. The Ravens opened the game with an 80-yard drive that consumed over nine minutes of the first quarter, culminating with a four-yard touchdown run by RB Jamal Lewis. On the first play of the second quarter, QB Chris Simms pass was intercepted by CB Chris McAlister, who returned it 60 yards for a touchdown and a 14-0 Baltimore lead. Following another Simms interception that was returned 60 yards by DT Haloti Ngata, K Matt Stover pushed the lead to 17-0 with a 20-yard field goal late in the second quarter. Stover added another field goal early in the second half to push the lead to 20-0 and Baltimore finished off the scoring with 7:17 remaining in the contest on a QB Steve McNair to TE Daniel Wilcox four-yard touchdown pass.

FALCONS 14 BUCS 3
September 17, 2006
Georgia Dome (70,828)

ATLANTA – Tampa Bay's three-game winning streak against the Falcons came to an end as the Buccaneers opened their 2006 road schedule with a loss in Atlanta. The Falcons churned out 306 rushing yards, the most ever surrendered by a Buccaneers defense. For Tampa Bay, WR Joey Galloway tied his career high with nine receptions for 161 yards, the second-highest total of his career. Additionally, QB Chris Simms passed for a career-high 313 yards, the first 300-yard passing day of his career. Following a missed field goal by Tampa Bay and a pass interference penalty deep in Buccaneers territory, Atlanta took a 7-0 lead on a QB Michael Vick one-yard touchdown run. CB DeAngelo Hall's interception and return in Tampa Bay territory set up Atlanta's second score of the day as Vick found FB Fred McCrary on a four-yard touchdown pass for a 14-0 Falcons lead midway through the second quarter. Tampa Bay drove to the Atlanta four-yard line just before halftime, but had to settle for a 22-yard field goal by K Matt Bryant. Tampa Bay again had a chance to cut into the lead on the first drive of the second half, but Simms was intercepted at the Atlanta goal line. On Atlanta's ensuing possession, LB Derrick Brooks intercepted Vick and returned it 63 yards for a touchdown. However, the score was nullified because of an illegal block penalty on the return. The Buccaneers could not capitalize on the turnover as Bryant missed a 43-yard field goal. Following Falcons K Michael Koenen's fourth missed field goal of the day, including one blocked kick, Tampa Bay again threatened to break the goal line but Simms' deep pass to Galloway was intercepted by Hall late in the fourth quarter.

PANTHERS 26 BUCS 24
Raymond James Stadium (65,423)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay erased a 17-point first half deficit, but K John Kasay's 46-yard field goal with two seconds remaining lifted the Panthers. QB Chris Simms accounted for one touchdown passing and one rushing, and DE Simeon Rice led the defensive effort as he recorded four tackles, including one sack, and two forced fumbles. Carolina wasted no time getting on the scoreboard after Simms was intercepted on his first pass attempt, and on the next play, Panthers QB Jake Delhomme found WR Keyshawn Johnson for a 31-yard touchdown reception. Carolina increased its lead to 10-0 near the end of the first quarter on Kasay's 51-yard field goal, his first of four field goals over 45 yards on the day. The lead was pushed to 17-0 early in the second quarter on Johnson's four-yard touchdown run. On the Buccaneers ensuing possession, Simms led the offense on a 10-play, 82-yard drive that culminated with an eight-yard touchdown pass to WR Joey Galloway, trimming the lead to 17-7. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the second half, Tampa Bay got back in the contest as Rice registered a sack and forced fumble that was recovered by the Bucs, setting up a four-yard touchdown run by RB Carnell Williams. Rice forced another Panthers fumble on the ensuing possession as Tampa Bay recovered near midfield. The Buccaneers captured their first lead of the day following a 10-play drive as Simms barreled into the end zone from two yards out for a 21-20 lead. Carolina regained the lead on the next possession, going up 23-21 on Kasay's 49-yard field goal. Following another sack and forced fumble of Delhomme by the Buccaneers defense at the start of the fourth quarter, K Matt Bryant reclaimed the lead for Tampa Bay at 24-23 with a 28-yard field goal. Taking possession with 1:41 remaining in the contest, Carolina drove 48 yards in eight plays to set up the 46-yard game-winner.

NEW ORLEANS – Saints rookie RB Reggie Bush's 65-yard punt return for a touchdown with 4:17 remaining in the game proved to be the difference. The Buccaneers offense racked up 406 total yards and for the second game in a row rallied from a deficit of 10 or more points to take a late lead. Making his first career start, rookie QB Bruce Gradkowski completed 20-of-31 pass attempts for 225 yards and two touchdowns while Carnell 'Cadillac' Williams recorded his first 100-yard rushing performance of the season. Tampa Bay took an early 7-0 lead, driving 61 yards in six plays on its first possession as Gradkowski found Galloway on an 18-yard scoring strike. Set up by a 57-yard run by RB Deuce McAllister, New Orleans got on the board with a 21-yard FG by K John Carney late in the first quarter. New Orleans grabbed the lead just after the two-minute warning in the first half as McAllister darted through the Buccaneers defense for a 24-yard TD run and a 10-7 lead. Following a sack and forced fumble of Gradkowski in Buccaneers territory midway through the third quarter, QB Drew Brees connected with TE Ernie Conwell on a nine-yard scoring pass that put the Saints up 17-7. Tampa Bay trimmed the lead on its next possession as Gradkowski hit Galloway for a 52-yard gain down to the New Orleans two-yard line, setting up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD plunge two plays later. After a 34-yard run by Williams to the Saints six-yard line, Tampa Bay recaptured the lead as Gradkowski found TE Alex Smith for a three-yard TD pass and a 21-17 lead with 10:03 remaining. Tampa Bay regained possession with 6:16 left in the contest, but failed to gain a first down, setting up Bush's game deciding score. The offense was driving with less than four minutes to play as Gradkowski found WR Ike Hilliard deep in Saints territory, but an offensive pass interference penalty was called on Galloway.

BUCS 14 BENGALS 13
Raymond James Stadium (65,732)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay earned its first victory of the season as QB Bruce Gradkowski found WR Michael Clayton on an eight-yard touchdown pass for the game-winning score with 35 seconds remaining. For the third consecutive game, Tampa Bay rallied from a fourth quarter deficit to take the lead as they trailed the Bengals 13-7 before the Clayton score. Defensively, DT/DE Ellis Wyms recorded his first career multi-sack game for the Buccaneers, posting two sacks of QB Carson Palmer on the afternoon. After a scoreless first quarter, Palmer connected with WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh on a 33-yard touchdown pass with 9:08 remaining in the second quarter to give the Bengals a 7-0 lead. Set up by a 38-yard run by RB Carnell 'Cadillac' Williams, Tampa Bay got on the board on its first drive of the second half as Gradkowski found TE Alex Smith from two yards out to tie the game at 7-7. Cincinnati regained the lead on the following drive as K Shayne Graham hit a 37-yard field goal for a 10-7 lead. Graham tacked on another field goal early in the fourth quarter to push the Bengals lead to 13-7. Taking possession for the final time at the Tampa Bay 46-yard line with 4:21 remaining in the game, Gradkowski led the Buccaneers on a nine-play, 54-yard game-winning drive. On the drive, the first-year signal caller completed 6-of-8 pass attempts for 57 yards, including the game-winning pass to Clayton, which was initially ruled incomplete, but the call was overturned after replays showed that Clayton extended the ball over the goal line before losing control of the ball. Cincinnati had an opportunity on its final possession, but Graham's 62-yard field goal attempt fell short as time expired.

BUCS 23 EAGLES 21

Raymond James Stadium (65,808)

TAMPA – In one of the most thrilling games in team history, K Matt Bryant connected on a 62-yard FG with no time remaining for the win. The 62-yard FG was the second longest game-winning field goal in NFL history and the third longest overall. Tampa Bay did not commit a turnover while forcing four Eagles turnovers as Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber became the first player in team history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in the same game during the regular season, taking two QB Donovan McNabb pass attempts back from 37 and 66 yards for scores. Barber put Tampa Bay up 7-0 early in the second quarter on his first interception return for a touchdown. Philadelphia threatened before halftime, driving to the six-yard line, but bypassed a FG attempt with eight seconds remaining for a shot at the end zone, which failed when TE L.J. Smith was tackled at the two-yard line by Barber after a short pass from McNabb. The Buccaneers extended the lead to 10-0 on the first drive of the second half as Bryant connected on a 30-yard FG. On the Eagles ensuing possession, Barber recorded his second interception return for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. The Eagles responded on their next drive as McNabb found FB Thomas Tapeh on a 12-yard TD pass. McNabb brought the Eagles to within three points at 17-14, finding WR Reggie Brown for a seven-yard TD pass. Tampa Bay pushed the lead to 20-14 on its next drive on Bryant's second FG of the day, a 44-yarder. Philadelphia began its final possession of the game with 2:49 remaining and drove near midfield. McNabb found RB Brian Westbrook on a short pass over the middle, which Westbrook turned into a 52-yard TD after breaking numerous tackles. Tampa Bay started the final drive on its own 36-yard line with 27 seconds remaining. Following a reception by WR Michael Clayton and a nine-yard scramble by QB Bruce Gradkowski, Bryant connected on his historic FG as time expired.

Giants Stadium (78,647)

EAST RUTHERFORD – Battling a fierce wind, including gusts up to 40 mph, Tampa Bay's record fell to 1-10 all-time in the Meadowlands as the host Giants defeated the Buccaneers. New York took a 7-0 lead with 3:27 remaining in the first quarter as QB Eli Manning hit WR Plaxico Burress on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Following a QB Bruce Gradkowski fumble inside Tampa Bay territory, the Giants increased their lead to 14-0 on RB Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown plunge midway through the second quarter. On the Giants' next possession, DE Simeon Rice sacked Manning and forced a fumble at the New York 10-yard line, but the Bucs could not capitalize as Manning recovered. The Buccaneers got on the board just before halftime as K Matt Bryant connected on a 43-yard field goal in the swirling winds. Following a scoreless third quarter, the Giants pushed their lead to 17-3 as K Jay Feely hit a 31-yard field goal with 3:43 left in the contest to close out the scoring. For Tampa Bay, DT Ellis Wyms recorded his fourth sack in the past three games and LB Derrick Brooks appeared in his 183rd career game, tying him for most in team history.

November 5, 2006

Raymond James Stadium (65,561)

TAMPA – Despite battling back from a 17-point, first-half deficit, Tampa Bay dropped its second game of the season to the visiting New Orleans Saints. The Buccaneers got behind early as the Saints scored on their first three possessions; including a QB Drew Brees' 15-yard touchdown pass to WR Marques Colston, a 52-yard touchdown pass to WR Devery Henderson and a 46-yard field goal by K John Carney. The Buccaneers began to battle back late in the second quarter as QB Bruce Gradkowski hit WR Joey Galloway deep down the sideline for a 44-yard touchdown. Tampa Bay pulled within three at 17-14 on its next drive when Gradkowski found Galloway again, this time from 17 yards with less than 10 seconds remaining in the first half. It marked the 12th multi-touchdown performance of Galloway's career and moved him into sole possession of sixth place in team history with 19 touchdown catches as a Buccaneer. Additionally, the 44-yard scoring pass to Galloway was Gradkowski's longest touchdown pass of his career and marked the third time in five career games that he has thrown multiple touchdown passes. The Buccaneers would get no closer as New Orleans added two touchdowns in the third quarter to retake a 17-point advantage. RB Deuce McAllister scored on a three-yard touchdown run and Brees threw a 45-yard touchdown pass to Henderson, his second touchdown reception of the day. The contest marked LB Derrick Brooks' 184th career game, moving him into first place for most games played in franchise history.

PANTHERS 24 BUCS 10
November 13, 2006
Bank of America Stadium (73,573)

CHARLOTTE – The Buccaneers took an early lead, but could not overcome four turnovers and a 14-point, second-half deficit, falling to the Panthers for the second time on the year. Defensively, Tampa Bay limited the Panthers to just 78 rushing yards for the contest, while CB Ronde Barber intercepted the 31st pass of his career to move into a tie for first place in team history for most career interceptions. Following a WR Keyshawn Johnson fumble on the Panthers second drive of the game, the Buccaneers took over near midfield and five plays later QB Bruce Gradkowski hit WR Ike Hilliard on a six-yard TD pass for a 7-0 lead. Late in the first half, Gradkowski tried to hit WR Joey Galloway deep down the sideline but was intercepted by CB Ken Lucas at the one-yard line, breaking a streak of 147 pass attempts without an interception. Two plays later, Barber intercepted QB Jake Delhomme at the Carolina 30-yard line with just over a minute remaining in the half. Three plays after Barber's pick, Gradkowski again tried to go deep, but S Shaun Williams picked off the pass intended for WR Michael Clayton at the six-yard line. The Panthers got on the board on their first possession of the second half as K John Kasay connected on a 28-yard FG. On Tampa Bay's ensuing possession, Gradkowski fumbled and DE Julius Peppers recovered at the Buccaneers 44-yard line. Carolina took a 10-7 lead on the resulting possession as Delhomme found Johnson from four yards out for the score. Following a RB Carnell Williams fumble late in the third quarter, Carolina went up 17-7 as FB Brad Hoover scored on a five-yard TD run. Tampa Bay trimmed the lead to 17-10 on a K Matt Bryant 28-yard FG with 8:32 remaining in the fourth quarter. However, Carolina responded on its next possession as Delhomme hit WR Steve Smith on a 36-yard TD pass to close out the scoring with 3:11 remaining in the contest.

BUCS 20 REDSKINS 17
Raymond James Stadium (65,699)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay churned out 181 yards on the ground, including 122 rushing yards by RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, and scored 17 straight points to take control in the second half. The Buccaneers got on the board first, taking a 3-0 lead with 3:50 remaining in the first quarter on a K Matt Bryant 26-yard FG. Washington tied the game on its next drive as K Nick Novak connected on a 45-yard FG. Tampa Bay breached Redskins territory on its next possession, but a fumbled center-quarterback exchange was recovered by the Redskins at the 35-yard line. Following a Redskins punt, Tampa Bay took over with 8:00 remaining in the first half and drove to the Washington 10-yard line before QB Bruce Gradkowski was intercepted by CB Shawn Springs at the three-yard line with less than a minute remaining in the first half. The two teams exchanged long scoring drives at the beginning of the second half. Washington took the lead at 10-3 when QB Jason Campbell hit TE Chris Cooley on a three-yard TD pass. On their ensuing possession, the Buccaneers pieced together their longest TD drive of the season, a 14-play, 85-yard drive that took 8:36 off the clock, culminating with a two-yard scoring pass from Gradkowski to TE Anthony Becht to tie the game at 10-10. The TD pass, Gradkowski's eighth of the season, also established a new franchise rookie record for most TD passes by a rookie in a single season in team history. Early in the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay capitalized on a Redskins fumble in their own territory as Gradkowski hit WR Joey Galloway on a 34-yard scoring strike to take a 17-10 lead. Tampa Bay pushed the lead to 20-10 with 3:50 remaining in the game on Bryant's 31-yard FG. Washington trimmed the lead to 20-17 with 32 seconds left in the contest as Campbell hit TE Todd Yoder on a four-yard TD pass, but the Buccaneers recovered the ensuing onside kick to secure the win.

COWBOYS 38 BUCS 10
November 23, 2006
Texas Stadium (63,183)

IRVING – Making its first ever appearance on Thanksgiving, Tampa Bay drove 80 yards following the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead on the host Cowboys. However, Dallas racked up 28 points during the second and third quarters and 435 total yards in the game on their way to victory. FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run with 9:18 remaining in the first quarter gave Tampa Bay the early advantage, but Dallas responded by scoring touchdowns on two of its next three drives as QB Tony Romo hit WR Terry Glenn on touchdown passes of 30 yards and two yards. Buccaneers K Matt Bryant cut the Cowboys lead to 14-10 on a 46-yard FG with 6:38 remaining in the first half, but Dallas again responded by scoring two touchdowns in its next three drives. Both scores were short touchdown passes from Romo to RB Marion Barber, the first with 30 seconds remaining in the first half and the second on the opening drive of the second half for a 28-10 Dallas lead. On Tampa Bay's first drive of the second half, QB Bruce Gradkowski was intercepted in Buccaneers territory and five plays later, Romo threw his fifth touchdown pass of the day to WR Terrell Owens for a 35-10 Cowboys lead. Dallas K Mike Vanderjagt closed out the scoring early in the fourth quarter with a 22-yard field goal. For the Buccaneers, LB Derrick Brooks made his 184th career start to move into first place in team history for most career starts.

STEELERS 20 BUCS 3
December 3, 2006
Heinz Field (59,843)

PITTSBURGH – In only its third game in Pittsburgh in team history, Tampa Bay fell 20-3 as the Steelers scored 17 points off Buccaneers turnovers. Following a QB Bruce Gradkowski interception in Buccaneers territory late in the first quarter, Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with TE Jerame Tuman on a two-yard touchdown pass for a 7-0 lead. The Steelers tacked on a field goal just after the two-minute warning of the first half to take a 10-0 lead into the intermission. On its first possession of the second half, Tampa Bay drove into Pittsburgh territory, but a RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumble ended the Buccaneers threat. Late in the third quarter, the Buccaneers threatened again, driving to the Steelers four-yard line before Gradkowski was intercepted in the end zone by CB Bryant McFadden. On the ensuing possession, Pittsburgh drove 80 yards in five plays as Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a 16-yard touchdown pass and a 17-0 lead. Following Pittsburgh's third interception of Gradkowski, the Steelers pushed the lead to 20-0 on K Jeff Reed's 39-yard field goal with 1:56 remaining in the game. Tampa Bay got on the board on the final play as K Matt Bryant hit a 27-yard field goal. In the contest, LB Derrick Brooks intercepted the 23rd pass of his career to move into a tie for fifth place all-time in team history.

FALCONS 17 BUCS 6
Raymond James Stadium (65,691)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay controlled much of the first half and took a 6-0 lead into halftime, but Atlanta scored 17 unanswered points in the second half. The Buccaneers drove to the Atlanta 24-yard line on their opening drive, but had to settle for a 42-yard K Matt Bryant FG. Atlanta threatened to tie the game on its ensuing drive, but holder Matt Schaub mishandled the snap on the field goal attempt. Taking over at its own 38-yard line, Tampa Bay drove 57 yards in 12 plays to the Atlanta five-yard line, but again had to settle for a Bryant field goal, his 11th consecutive successful attempt, and a 6-0 lead. Late in the first half Atlanta drove to the Tampa Bay four-yard line, but CB Phillip Buchanon, making his first start for the Buccaneers, intercepted QB Michael Vick's pass in the end zone. On the opening drive of the second half, the Buccaneers drove to the Falcons 34-yard line but DE John Abraham forced a QB Bruce Gradkowski fumble, which LB Demorrio Williams returned 54 yards for a touchdown and a 7-6 Atlanta lead. Following a Buccaneers three-and-out, Atlanta pieced together a 71-yard scoring drive, pushing their lead to 14-6 on FB Justin Griffith's 21-yard TD run. Late in the fourth quarter, QB Tim Rattay made his Buccaneer debut, but on his second play from scrimmage, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and the Falcons capitalized four plays later on K Morten Andersen's 23-yard FG for a 17-6 lead. On his second drive, Rattay guided the Buccaneers to the Atlanta two-yard line but his rushing attempt on fourth down failed as time expired.

BEARS 34 BUCS 31 (OT)

December 17, 2006

Soldier Field (62,260)

CHICAGO – Trailing by 21 points late in the third quarter, Tampa Bay rallied to tie the game and force overtime, but K Robbie Gould's 25-yard field goal with 3:37 remaining in the extra frame won it for the Bears. Buccaneers QB Tim Rattay replaced starting QB Bruce Gradkowski in the second quarter to complete 20-of-35 pass attempts for 268 yards, a career-high tying three TDs and one interception as he helped erase the 21-point deficit. Chicago managed the only points of the first quarter as QB Rex Grossman hit TE Desmond Clark on a 24-yard TD reception. Tampa Bay cut the lead to 7-3 on K Matt Bryant's 45-yard FG midway through the second quarter, but the Bears scored touchdowns on two of their next three drives, including a five-yard scoring run by former Buccaneer RB Thomas Jones and another Grossman to Clark touchdown pass from 12 yards. Chicago pushed its lead to 24-3 with 5:22 remaining in the third quarter, but Tampa Bay's offense came to life on the next possession as FB Mike Alstott brought the Buccaneers within 14 on his 14-yard TD run. Bears KR Devin Hester fumbled the ensuing kickoff and LB Wesly Mallard recovered for Tampa Bay on the Chicago 16-yard line. Three plays later, Rattay found TE Alex Smith for a nine-yard TD, cutting the lead to 24-17 with 14:13 remaining in the contest. Chicago went back up by 14 on its next possession as RB Cedric Benson scored from four yards out. Tampa Bay again trimmed the lead to seven on the next drive as Rattay hit WR Joey Galloway over the middle and he outraced two Bears defenders for a 64-yard TD. The Bucs defense forced a Bears three-and-out on their next possession and two plays later, Rattay hit WR Ike Hilliard on a short slant, which he turned into a 44-yard TD to tie the game at 31-31 and force overtime. Following a fumble by Smith on the opening drive of the extra frame, Chicago missed the potential game-winning FG from 37 yards. On their next drive after a Buccaneers punt, Grossman hit WR Rashied Davis for a questionable 28-yard reception on third down as replays showed the ball hitting the ground, though it was never reviewed by replay officials. Three plays later, Gould connected on the game-winner.

BUCS 22 BROWNS 7
Cleveland Browns Stadium (69,603)

CLEVELAND – Tampa Bay's offense posted 355 total yards and the defense did not surrender an offensive touchdown while forcing four turnovers in the Buccaneers first road victory of the season. Tampa Bay scored on two of its first four possessions and advanced inside the Cleveland red zone in four-of-five first half possessions, taking a 6-0 halftime lead. The Buccaneers scored on their first possession on K Matt Bryant's 23-yard effort for an early 3-0 lead. S Jermaine Phillips picked off Browns QB Derek Anderson twice in the second quarter, with the second setting up Bryant's second FG from 24 yards. The Buccaneers increased their lead on the first drive of the second half as RB Michael Pittman found the end zone on an 11-yard TD run, but the extra point attempt was blocked, leaving Tampa Bay with a 12-0 advantage. On the second play of the fourth quarter, the Buccaneers built a 19-0 lead as LB Derrick Brooks picked off Anderson and returned it 21 yards for the score. On the ensuing possession, Anderson was picked off by CB Phillip Buchanon, Anderson's fourth of the day, but the Buccaneers could not capitalize as Rattay was sacked three plays later by LB Kamerion Wimbley, forcing a fumble that was returned 40 yards for a touchdown by CB Daven Holly. The Buccaneers went back up 22-7 on the next drive as Bryant hit his third FG of the day from 37 yards. Cleveland took possession for the final time with 5:47 left, but never threatened as DT Chris Hovan and DE Greg Spires recorded sacks, helping Tampa Bay run out the clock.

SEAHAWKS 23 BUCS 7
Raymond James Stadium (65,660)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay fell to the visiting Seattle Seahawks in its final contest of the 2007 season as the Seahawks owned a 15-minute advantage in time of possession and racked up 28 first downs. For the Buccaneers, WR Joey Galloway led all players with eight catches for 118 yards and one touchdown as he surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the second consecutive season. Seattle went up 3-0 on its first drive of the game on K Josh Brown's 35-yard FG. Following a missed field goal by the Buccaneers, the Seahawks pushed their lead to 10-0 late in the first quarter on RB Shaun Alexander's one-yard TD run. Tampa Bay responded on its next drive as QB Tim Rattay hit Galloway for a 44-yard gain, setting up a four-yard TD pass to Galloway three plays into the second quarter. The Buccaneers forced a Seattle turnover on the next drive and advanced to the Seahawks five-yard line, but TE Dave Moore fumbled and Seattle S Michael Boulware returned it to the Seahawks 37-yard line. Seattle pushed its lead to 17-7 with 19 seconds remaining in the first half as QB Matt Hasselbeck connected with WR D.J. Hackett on a five-yard TD pass. Tampa Bay forced a punt on Seattle's first drive of the second half, but FB Mike Alstott fumbled on the first play of the ensuing possession at the Buccaneers 11-yard line, setting up Brown's 30-yard FG and a 20-7 Seattle lead with 10:14 left in the third quarter. Seattle provided the game's final scoring on the second play of the fourth quarter as Brown hit his third FG of the day from 23 yards for a 23-7 lead.

HISTORY

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

Pre-1974

TAMPA STADIUM DEDICATED (11/4/67) – Tennessee defeats the University of Tampa, 38-0 in the first contest played in the facility. The 46,700-seat stadium costs $4.1 million to build.

FIRST PRESEASON GAME (8/10/68) – Washington defeats Atlanta 16-14 before a crowd of 42,000 in first NFL action at new stadium.

EXPANSION COMMITTEE FORMED (11/68) – Suncoast Pro Football Committee is formed with the purpose of securing an NFL franchise for Tampa Bay. The group functions until 1972 when the Tampa Chamber of Commerce formally appoints the West Coast NFL Task Force headed by Tampa businessman J. Leonard Levy.

TAMPA BAY AWARDED FRANCHISE (4/24) – Tampa Bay is awarded the league's 27th franchise. As part of the award, Tampa Stadium will be enlarged to 72,000 seats.

MCCLOSKEY SELECTED AS OWNER (10/30) – Philadelphia construction executive Tom McCloskey is awarded the new Tampa Bay franchise, but soon declines ownership.

CULVERHOUSE AWARDED OWNERSHIP (12/5) – Hugh F. Culverhouse, a Jacksonville attorney and real estate investor who had previously declined ownership of the Seattle franchise due to geographic reasons, is awarded the Tampa Bay franchise.

TEAM NICKNAME ANNOUNCED (2/15) – After reviewing over 400 name possibilities, an advisory board announces the team's new nickname will be the Buccaneers.

STADIUM LEASE APPROVED (4/21) – The Tampa Sports Authority unanimously approves a 30-year lease agreement with the Buccaneers for use of Tampa Stadium. Three days later, the Tampa City Council votes 6-1 to approve the lease and expansion to 72,000 seats.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL LOGO AND COLORS (4/15) – The team unveils a logo designed by Tampa Tribune artist Lamar Sparkman consisting of Florida orange, white and red.

STADIUM EXPANSION BEGINS (7/9) – Ground is broken for the expansion of Tampa Stadium, financed by the sale of $13 million in bonds by the Tampa Sports Authority.

MCKAY NAMED COACH (10/31) – John McKay leaves the University of Southern California where he had coached four national championship teams, signing a five-year contract to coach the Buccaneers.

BUCS PLACED IN DIVISION (11/4) – Tampa Bay is placed in the AFC West with the understanding that it will switch to the NFC Central the following season.

BUCS WIN FIRST OVERALL SELECTION (12/27) – In a drawing held prior to the Pittsburgh vs. Baltimore playoff game, Bucs owner Hugh Culverhouse is awarded the first pick in the following year's NFL college draft while Seattle receives the initial pick in the veteran allocation draft.

WARNER BUYS LARGE SHARE OF TEAM (2/15) – Cincinnati businessman Marvin L. Warner, president of Warner National Corp. and a longtime friend of Hugh Culverhouse, buys a large share of the team.

VETERAN ALLOCATION DRAFT (3/30) – The Buccaneers stock their roster by adding 39 players through the NFL's veteran allocation draft.

FIRST TRADE ANNOUNCED (4/2) – The Bucs make the first trade in franchise history, acquiring former Heisman Trophy winner QB Steve Spurrier from the San Francisco 49ers for two players and a second-round draft choice.

SELMON DRAFTED (4/8) – Tampa Bay takes Lee Roy Selmon with the first selection in the NFL college draft.

INAUGURAL SEASON BEGINS (7/31) – In the team's first-ever pre-season action, the Bucs lose 26-3 at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams at the L.A. Coliseum. PK Paul Rajecki's 18-yard FG goes down as the first points in team history.

FIRST PRESEASON VICTORY (8/14) – The Buccaneers win their first preseason game, defeating the Atlanta Falcons 17-3 at the Jacksonville Gator Bowl.

REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/12) – Tampa Bay loses its first regular season game 20-0 at Houston.

GREEN SCORES FIRST REGULAR SEASON POINTS (9/26) – In a 14-9 loss to the Buffalo Bills, K Dave Green connects on a 39-yard FG, posting the franchise's first regular season points.

FIRST REGULAR SEASON VICTORY (12/11) – The Bucs tie an NFL record with three interceptions returned for TDs and end 26 games of frustration with their first regular season victory, a 33-14 win at New Orleans. Over 8,000 fans greet the team when it returns to One Buccaneer Place.

BACK-TO-BACK WINS (12/18) – Tampa Bay wins its second game in a row and first at home, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 17-7.

TAMPA HOSTS PRO BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Stadium is the site of the 1978 Pro Bowl.

DUBOSE RUNS FOR 100 YARDS (10/15) – RB Jimmy DuBose becomes the first Buc to rush for 100 yards in a game (109 yards on 24 carries) as the Bucs lose on the road to the Giants 17-14.

BUCS REACH .500 (10/22) – Tampa Bay defeats Chicago 33-19 to up its record to 4-4, but injuries ultimately cripple the team during the second half of the season.

CULVERHOUSE BUYS CONTROLLING INTEREST (1/3) – Hugh Culverhouse purchases Marvin Warner's minority interest, thereby gaining control of the team.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) – The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo, consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are Buccaneer red, pewter, black and orange.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) – The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Tampa Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) – The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) – C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) – DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) – After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) – By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) – The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) – As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) – After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) – Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

EMANUEL LANDS IN TAMPA (4/14) – Less than a week after signing an offer sheet with the Buccaneers, Atlanta transitional free agent WR Bert Emanuel officially joins the team after the Falcons fail to match the Bucs' four-year offer.

MCKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) – Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) – For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including pre-season) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sells out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) – Raymond James Stadium, already known as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) – The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Dunn (115).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) – Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dilfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to WR Jacquez Green and WR Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) – Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/7) – A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips.

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) – Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) – Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) – Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) – Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dilfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdome. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) – Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) – Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) – Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous best home record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) – The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs. An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM-ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) – Four Buccaneers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp — earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first-team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) – DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon turned the trick in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 12½ sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) – Tampa Bay rallies from a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) – The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players – FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a QB Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER MCDANIEL (3/1) – The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) – The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only WR Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and WR Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) – Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears just 165 total yards,including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) – The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) – DT Warren Sapp breaks DE Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two — giving him 13.5 for the year — as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) – Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FG prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED (12/10) – S Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18) – RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

BUCS HOST THIRD SUPER BOWL (1/28) – Baltimore defeats the N.Y. Giants, 34-7 as Tampa Bay plays host to Super Bowl XXXV at Raymond James Stadium.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) – Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) – Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

JOHN MCKAY DIES (6/10) – John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

BUCS SECOND GAME POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS (9/16) – Due to the terrorist attacks on America of September 11, the NFL postpones all of its games on September 16 and 17, including the Bucs' home contest against Philadelphia. The games are rescheduled for the first weekend in January, with the rest of the playoff schedule, including the Super Bowl, moving back one week. Due to an already-scheduled bye in Week Three, the Bucs have a bizarre, 21-day layoff between the first and second games of the season.

ALSTOTT LEADS ANOTHER HOME POUNDING OF THE VIKINGS (10/28) – Almost exactly one year after demolishing Minnesota, 41-13, in Raymond James Stadium on 10/29/00, the Bucs prove it was no fluke with a 41-14 decision over the Vikings on 10/28/01. FB Mike Alstott leads the runaway victory with 129 rushing yards, tying a team and personal record with three rushing touchdowns.

FIRST MNF ROAD VICTORY GIVES BUCS ANOTHER PRIME-TIME WIN OVER RAMS (11/26) – For the second time in two years, the Buccaneers defeat the St. Louis Rams on Monday Night Football, following up a 38-35 thriller in Tampa in 2000 with a 24-17 victory at St. Louis in 2001. The win, which stands as the first road win for the Bucs on Monday Night Football in team history, gives the Bucs a measure of revenge in the stadium that saw their run to the 1999 Super Bowl come to an end.

BUCS RECORD THIRD STRAIGHT ROAD WIN (12/2) – During yet another December surge, the Buccaneers defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 16-13 in overtime, when S John Lynch forces and recovers a fumble at the Bengals' three-yard line early in the extra period, setting up K Martin Gramatica's game-winning field goal. Following wins at Detroit and St. Louis, the victory over Cincinnati gives Tampa Bay three consecutive road wins for the first time in franchise history.

BUCS TIE SINGLE-GAME SCORING RECORD IN CRUCIAL WIN OVER NEW ORLEANS (12/23) – In a contest that would basically eliminate the loser from playoff contention and nearly guarantee the winner a postseason spot, the Buccaneers explode for 48 points in a blowout win over New Orleans. Taking a 30-0 halftime lead, the Bucs cruise to the 48-21 win, tying the team record for points scored in a single game (also against Atlanta, 9/13/97).

DUNGY DISMISSED (1/14) – The team announces that Head Coach Tony Dungy has been relieved of his coaching duties after six seasons. Dungy posted a 54-42 record at the helm and led the Buccaneers to the playoffs in four of his six campaigns.

GRUDEN INTRODUCED (2/20) – New Head Coach Jon Gruden is introduced at a press conference at a downtown hotel after becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Gruden, 38, spent four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

TAMPA BAY STARTS TRAINING CAMP AT DISNEY (7/29) – The Buccaneers begin their first season under new Head Coach Jon Gruden at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. For the first time, Tampa Bay will conduct training camp at Disney after training at the University of Tampa since 1987. The Buccaneers are the first NFL team to conduct training camp at Disney's sports complex.

GRUDEN MAKES BUCCANEERS DEBUT (9/8) – Jon Gruden, the Buccaneers seventh head coach, makes his regular season debut at Raymond James Stadium in a 26-20 overtime loss to the New Orleans Saints. Tampa Bay trails 20-10 late in the fourth quarter when they post a frantic 10-point comeback to send the game into overtime. The Bucs are forced to punt deep in their own territory on their third possession of overtime. P Tom Tupa lines up to punt, but senses pressure and is forced to pull the ball down and attempt a pass. Saints LB James Allen intercepts the pass in the end zone, giving New Orleans the vcitory.

TAMPA BAY DEFENSE STIFLES ANOTHER ROAD OPPONENT (10/6) – For the third straight road contest, the Bucs defense does not allow a touchdown and posts an interception return for a score in a club-record fourth straight game en route to a 20-6 win over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome. The defense ties a then season-high with four interceptions—all in the second half—and adds four sacks against the Falcons. LB Derrick Brooks becomes the first linebacker in NFL history with three interception returns for touchdowns in a single season.

RICE SETS NFL RECORD (12/1) – In a Week 13 contest at New Orleans, DE Simeon Rice sets an NFL single-season record by recording his fifth consecutive multi-sack game. His three-sack performance against the Saints highlights a five-game streak that began at Carolina on October 27, during which he totaled 11 sacks, 29 tackles, four forced fumbles and one pass defensed.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM FIRST NFC SOUTH TITLE (12/22) - Tampa Bay and New Orleans enter their Week 16 contests with the Bucs holding a one-game advantage in the NFC South. New Orleans suffers a 20-13 loss at Cincinnati on Sunday, thereby giving the first NFC South Division title to Tampa Bay before the Buccaneers take the field the following night against Pittsburgh. The division title is the fourth in Buccaneers history.

GRAMATICA LEADS BUCS TO FRANCHISE-BEST 12TH VICTORY (12/29) – Tampa Bay closes out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win against the Chicago Bears in Champaign, IL. K Martin Gramatica kicks a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Bucs defense registers four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout. The win also marks the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers and is the first Tampa Bay victory in 22 tries when the thermometer reads below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay finishes 6-2 on the road; the most wins away from home in franchise history, and secures the No. 2 seed in the NFC playoffs.

BROOKS NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/8) – LB Derrick Brooks, the Bucs all-time leader in tackles, garners NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. As part of the league's top-ranked defense in 2002, Brooks led the team with 170 tackles and tied for fourth in the NFC with five interceptions. Brooks was also selected to a club-record sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (as was DT Warren Sapp). His four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He later adds another touchdown on an interception return in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/12) – Tampa Bay qualifies for the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history by defeating San Francisco 31-6 at Raymond James Stadium in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest. Tampa Bay races to a 28-6 halftime lead, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the first half. The Bucs force five 49er turnovers and keep San Francisco out of the end zone for the first time in 50 games (including postseason).

BUCS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/19) – Tampa Bay clinches its first NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs defense forces three Eagle turnovers en route to securing the club's first postseason road win in franshise history. CB Ronde Barber paces an outstanding defensive effort and secures the victory with a club-record 92-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

BUCS WIN SUPER BOWL XXXVII (1/26) – The Bucs defeat the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego behind a suffocating defense, setting Super Bowl records with five interceptions and three interception returns for touchdowns. It is the first NFL Championship in club history. At the age of 39, Jon Gruden becomes the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl. S Dexter Jackson is named the game's MVP as the Bucs' top-ranked defense stifles the Raiders and the league's number one ranked offense. Tampa Bay limits Oakland to just 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history, and finishes the game surrendering just 269 total yards and 11 first downs. RB Michael Pittman runs for a season-high 125 yards and WR Keenan McCardell scores two touchdowns. LB Derrick Brooks seals the victory with a late fourth quarter interception return for a touchdown and CB Dwight Smith sets a Super Bowl record by returning a pair of second-half interceptions for touchdowns.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (1/28) – Following their 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers parade through downtown Tampa where more than 150,000 fans line the streets and crowd office buildings to celebrate the city's first major professional sports championship.

BUCS SIGN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR MONTE KIFFIN TO A NEW CONTRACT (1/30) – Tampa Bay signs Monte Kiffin, architect of the NFL's top-ranked defense, to a new, three-year contract. Kiffin, a head coaching candidate, is rewarded for designing the first defense since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense allowed just 196 points in 2002, the fifth-fewest in a single season in NFL history during a 16-game schedule.

SEVEN BUCS APPEAR ON PRO BOWL ROSTER (2/2) – Tampa Bay has seven players on the roster for the 2003 Pro Bowl in Hawaii; FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Brad Johnson, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. A total of six Buccaneers, all but Sapp due to an injury, see game action in the 45-20 AFC victory.

BUCS DEFEAT THE JETS IN THE 2003 AMERICAN BOWL IN TOKYO, JAPAN (8/2) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers opened the preseason with a 30-14 victory over the N.Y. Jets in the 2003 American Bowl in their first-ever international appearance at the Tokyo Dome. Tampa Bay, which played in the final game of the 2002 season in its victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, joined the Jets in the first game of the 2003 preseason in Tokyo, Japan. Tampa Bay also conducted a pair of practices at the Tokyo Dome in preparation for the exhibition contest.

BUCS DEFEAT EAGLES IN 2003 REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/8) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers open up the regular season with a convincing 17-0 victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. WR Joe Jurevicius caught a pair of second half touchdowns, including a spectacular fourth quarter scoring reception in which he deflected the ball over an Eagles defender, spun to his left and dove to haul in the improbable touchdown catch. Tampa Bay's defense limited the Eagles to just 245 total yards as Philadelphia suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998.

BUCS POST SECOND SHUTOUT OF THE SEASON (10/26) – Tampa Bay forces three turnovers and limits Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Bucs post their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons (2002 and 2003).

BUCS RECORD-SETTING SACK STREAK ENDS AT 69 (11/16) – Tampa Bay, which had recorded at least one sack in an NFL-record 69 consecutive games, is held sackless by the Green Bay Packers. It was the first time the Bucs defense had failed to register at least one sack since October 3, 1999 at Minnesota. During that 69-game streak, the Bucs defense also became the first unit to register at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 consecutive games since 1963.

ATLANTA FALCONS NAME RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER (12/15) – The Atlanta Falcons name Rich McKay President and General Manager. McKay spent the previous 12 seasons with Tampa Bay (1992-2003), including the past nine years (1995-2003) as the club's general manager. Under McKay, the Bucs made five playoff appearances, won two division titles and captured the club's first Super Bowl championship in 27 seasons with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

FOUR BUCS SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL (12/18) – Tampa Bay has four players selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl: LB Derrick Brooks, WR Keenan McCardell, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. Brooks and Sapp are named to the Pro Bowl for the seventh consecutive time, eclipsing Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's club record of six total appearances and consecutive appearances at the annual All-Star game.

ALLEN NAMED THIRD GENERAL MANAGER IN CLUB HISTORY (1/9) – The Bucs name Bruce Allen the third general manager in club history. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS NAME DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE (2/12) – The Bucs reclaim one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team. Williams, who spent the last six seasons (1998-2003) as head coach of his alma mater at Grambling State University, compiled a 52-18 record and led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles (2000-2002). A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

BUCS UNVEIL PLANS FOR NEW TRAINING FACILITY (3/17) – The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 145,000 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world-class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

BUCS ACQUIRE WR JOEY GALLOWAY (3/19) – The Bucs acquire WR Joey Galloway from the Dallas Cowboys for WR Keyshawn Johnson.

HURRICANE CHARLEY FORCES BUCS TO RESCHEDULE PRESEASON GAME (8/14) – Because of the threat of Hurricane Charley, the Buccaneers reschedule their August 14 preseason contest against the Cincinnati Bengals for Monday, August 16. The Bucs organize a program to collect monetary donations at the contest that will be directed to appropriate Hurricane Charley relief efforts.

DERRICK BROOKS AND THE BUCS COLLABORATE TO HELP HURRICANE IVAN VICTIMS (9/18) – Derrick Brooks Charities and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers organize a program to collect monetary donations prior to the game between Tampa Bay and Seattle at Raymond James Stadium on September 19. In addition, Derrick Brooks Charities donates $1000 for each tackle Derrick makes against the Seahawks. All funds collected are directed to appropriate Hurricane Ivan relief efforts in Brooks' hometown of Pensacola, Florida.

BROWN RECORDS 100TH CAREER TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION AGAINST FORMER TEAM (9/26) – In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, Buccaneers WR Tim Brown returns to Oakland to haul in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter.

BUCS EARN LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY SINCE 2000 SEASON (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the San Francisco 49ers 35-3 at Raymond James Stadium to post its largest margin of victory since the 2000 season. The Bucs defense limits the 49ers to 26 total yards and two first downs in the first half and finishes the contest surrendering just 197 total yards, while forcing five sacks and two turnovers. The offense is equally impressive, racking up 352 yards as RB Michael Pittman rushes for 106 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns.

CLAYTON SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORD (11/28) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton hauls in eight receptions for 77 yards in the Week 11 contest at Carolina to move into first place all-time in team history for most receiving yards by a rookie in a season. Through 11 contests in 2004, Clayton posts 60 receptions for 828 yards, surpassing WR Lawrence Dawsey's 818 yards as a rookie in 1991.

RICE RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK AS BUCS POST NINTH SHUTOUT IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (12/5) – Tampa Bay records the ninth shutout in franchise history with a 27-0 victory over the Atlanta Falcons at Raymond James Stadium. Buccaneers DE Simeon Rice records the 100th and 101st sacks of his career, becoming just the 22nd player in league history and only the second active player to reach the 100-sack plateau. The Buccaneers defense records five sacks and forces five turnovers, intercepting QB Michael Vick twice and forcing two fumbles by the Falcons signal caller.

TWO BUCS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/22) – The NFL announces that two Buccaneers, LB Derrick Brooks and CB Ronde Barber, have been selected to the 2005 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Brooks, who was selected for the eighth time to the Pro Bowl, becomes the franchise's all-time leader in Pro Bowl appearances, breaking a tie with former teammate DT Warren Sapp. Brooks' eight consecutive Pro Bowl appearances (1997-04) also establish a new team record. Barber is named to his second career Pro Bowl after making his first appearance in 2001.

BUCS CLAYTON SETS ROOKIE TOUCHDOWN RECORD (12/26) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton catches a career-high two touchdowns against the Carolina Panthers at Raymond James Stadium, moving him into first place for most touchdown receptions by a rookie in franchise history. His six touchdown receptions on the season surpass the previous rookie record of five touchdown catches by WR Kevin House in 1980.

BUCS SELECT CARNELL "CADILLAC" WILLIAMS WITH FIFTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/23) – The Buccaneers draft Auburn RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams with their first selection (fifth overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft. The selection of Williams marks the fourth time in team history that Tampa Bay has drafted a running back in the first round and the first time since 1997 (Warrick Dunn – 12th overall).

WILLIAMS SETS NFL RECORD FOR MOST RUSHING YARDS IN FIRST THREE GAMES (9/25) – In his first three games, Bucs rookie RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams totals an NFL-record 434 rushing yards, becoming the first running back to begin his career with three consecutive 100-yard performances. Following his record-breaking performance, Williams' shoes and gloves are displayed at the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BARBER MATCHES OWN CLUB RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (12/4) – CB Ronde Barber records a career-high tying three interceptions against the New Orleans Saints in Baton Rouge, LA to tie his own club record. His previous three interception performance also came against the Saints in 2001. Barber goes on to finish the season with five picks to lead the Buccaneers and tie for seventh in the NFC.

BARBER BECOMES MEMBER OF EXCLUSIVE 20/20 CLUB (12/11) – CB Ronde Barber records the 20th sack of his career at Carolina to join the 20 sack/20 interception club. He becomes the first cornerback in NFL history and just the seventh player all time to accomplish the feat.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/21) – The NFL announces that three Buccaneers, CB Ronde Barber, P Josh Bidwell and LB Derrick Brooks, have been selected to the 2006 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It marks Brooks' ninth consecutive selection to the all-star game, a team record for total and most consecutive appearances. Barber will make his third career appearance and second consecutive while Bidwell will play in his first career Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS NOTCH 100TH OVERALL WIN UNDER GLAZER LEADERSHIP (12/24) – In one of the most thrilling games in team history, the Buccaneers notch their 100th overall win since being purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. The contest, against the division rival Atlanta Falcons, features four separate occasions in which the score is tied and five lead changes. The epic battle is prolonged when Bucs running back Cadillac Williams scores from six yards out on a fourth down run with 31 seconds remaining in regulation that forces overtime. In the extra period, the Buccaneers block a potential game-winning Atlanta field goal before successfully connecting on a 41-yard attempt of their own with only 54 seconds remaining in overtime. The milestone win emphasizes a reversal of fortunes for the Buccaneers, who prior to being purchased by Mr. Glazer, won just 87 games in 19 seasons.

BUCS CLAIM SECOND NFC SOUTH CROWN IN FOUR YEARS (1/1) – Tampa Bay defeats the New Orleans Saints 27-13 in the final game of the regular season to earn its second NFC South division title in four seasons. Tampa Bay and the rival Carolina Panthers finish the regular season with identical 11-5 records, but the Buccaneers claim the NFC South by virtue of a better divisional record. The division title is the fifth in Buccaneers history.

GALLOWAY SETS NEW FRANCHISE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/1) – WR Joey Galloway records two touchdown receptions in the season finale against the New Orleans Saints, giving him 10 on the season to establish a new franchise record. Galloway's 10 touchdown receptions best the previous high of nine, held by WR Kevin House (1981), WR Bruce Hill (1988) and WR Mark Carrier (1989).

WILLIAMS SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECORD FOR RUSHING YARDS IN A SEASON (1/1) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams finishes the season with 1,178 rushing yards to set a Buccaneers rookie record. His impressive rookie performance includes a team-record six 100-yard rushing games and three of the top 10 single-game rushing performances in team history.

BUCCANEERS DEFENSE FINISHES THE SEASON AS THE TOP-RANKED UNIT IN THE NFL (1/1) – Tampa Bay's defense finishes the season ranked No. 1 in total defense for the third time (1979, 2002 and 2005) in team history. The 2005 season also marks the ninth consecutive year (1997-2005) the Buccaneers ranked in the Top 10 in total defense, the longest active streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak since 1970.

WILLIAMS NAMED NFL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR (2/2) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams beats out LB Shawne Merriman of the San Diego Chargers, LB Lofa Tatupu of the Seattle Seahawks, LB Odell Thurman of the Cincinnati Bengals and LB Demarcus Ware of the Dallas Cowboys for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year honors. Williams is selected by fans on NFL.com as more than one million votes are cast during the regular season and playoffs for NFL Rookie of the Week and Rookie of the Year honors.

BROOKS NAMED 2006 PRO BOWL PLAYER OF THE GAME (2/12) – Making his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, LB Derrick Brooks earns Player of the Game honors after returning an interception 59 yards for a touchdown to catapult the NFC to a 23-17 victory over the AFC in the 2006 Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS PLAYERS AND COACHES BEGIN WORK AT NEW HEADQUARTERS (8/21) — Arriving immediately after the conclusion of training camp in Central Florida, Buccaneers players and coaches move into the team's new 145,155-square-foot headquarters. Unmatched in grandeur by any other professional sports headquarters, the new base of operations spans more than 14 acres and provides the team with unparalleled resources of the highest quality. Some of those include a 16,000-square-foot weight room, technically advanced meeting rooms, three practice fields, a grand auditorium, high-tech coaches' studios with instant access to game film, a video-editing suite and a state-of-the-art training and rehabilitation area.

BARBER RETURNS TWO INTERCEPTIONS FOR TOUCHDOWNS IN SAME GAME (10/22) – Facing a Philadelphia Eagles team he had tormented in the past, CB Ronde Barber propels the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a 23-21 victory by twice picking off QB Donovan McNabb, returning each interception for a touchdown. Barber's two TD returns mark the first time in franchise history that a player accomplishes such a feat in a regular season game. His two scores also make Barber the first player in team history to score two defensive touchdowns of any kind in a regular season game.

BRYANT KICKS HIS WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS (10/22) – With the Buccaneers trailing the Philadelphia Eagles 21-20 with only four seconds remaining in the game, K Matt Bryant produces a last-second miracle, kicking a 62-yard field goal to give the Bucs a 23-21 victory. Bryant's kick is the second-longest walk-off field goal in NFL history and the third-longest overall field goal in league annals. The previous long for the Buccaneers franchise was 57 yards by Michael Husted (12/19/93).

BROOKS MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE IN TEAM HISTORY FOR GAMES PLAYED (11/5) – In front of a home crowd and against the New Orleans Saints, perennial Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks plays in his 184th career game, moving into first place in Buccaneers' history for games played. The veteran defender shows no signs of slowing down as he finishes the contest with a team-leading and season-high 15 tackles, including two for a loss. Brooks finishes the season with 192 consecutive games played and 176 straight starts to lead all active Bucs players in both categories. He also ranks first in team history with 189 total starts.

ROOKIE QB GRADKOWSKI MAKES HISTORY WITH INTERCEPTION-FREE STREAK (11/5) – After a game against the New Orleans Saints in which he completes 18 of 31 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns, Tampa Bay Buccaneers rookie QB Bruce Gradkowski runs his mark of pass attempts to 186 with only one interception. That number stands as a record for most attempts in NFL history by a quarterback before throwing a second interception. A week prior against the New York Giants, Gradkowski became just the third quarterback in league history to throw only one interception in his first 150 pass attempts.

BARBER MOVES INTO TIE FOR MOST INTERCEPTIONS IN TEAM HISTORY (11/13) – With his third interception of the season, this time against Carolina Panthers QB Jake Delhomme, CB Ronde Barber notches his 31st career interception. That total places him in a tie for most interceptions by a Buccaneers player in team history with CB Donnie Abraham, who played for Tampa Bay from 1996-2001. Barber's historic pick comes in front of a Monday Night Football audience with 1:09 remaining in the second quarter of the contest.

BUCCANEERS PLAY IN THANKSGIVING GAME FOR FIRST TIME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (11/23) – For the first time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, the Buccaneers participate in one of the NFL's nationally televised Thanksgiving Day games, squaring off against the Dallas Cowboys. The contest is the third game in an 11-day stretch for the Buccaneers, marking only the fourth time since 1978 that a team has played three games in 11 days, with two of the contests on the road.

BUCCANEERS WELCOME BACK PAST PLAYERS FOR TEAM'S FIRST ALUMNI WEEKEND (12/8) – Approximately 120 former players representing a little over three decades of Buccaneers football are honored when the franchise holds its first Alumni Weekend. During the three-day celebration, former Bucs players who have given the franchise at least one full season of service watch practice, tour the team's new facility, participate in a golf event and attend a dinner party and gala at Raymond James Stadium. The weekend's activities culminate in a halftime tribute during a game against Atlanta in which the players take the field and are recognized by Buccaneers fans.

GLAZER FAMILY REACHES 100TH REGULAR SEASON WIN (12/24) – A 22-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the penultimate game of the season marks the 100th regular-season victory for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since it was purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. Under the ownership of Mr. Glazer and his family, the club has posted a .521 winning percentage and captured its first Super Bowl championship. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting a .300 winning percentage.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/19) – For the third consecutive season and fourth overall, CB Ronde Barber earns Pro Bowl honors after leading the Buccaneers with three interceptions and 20 passes defensed to go along with his 108 tackles. Barber is later joined by Bucs TE/LS Dave Moore, who is selected as a "need player" by the NFC, and LB Derrick Brooks, who initially was chosen as first alternate at the outside linebacker position. For Moore, the selection represents the first of his career and first for a Bucs tight end since Jimmie Giles was selected in 1985. Moore is the first Buccaneers player to be chosen to the Pro Bowl as a long-snapper and just the third special teams performer to earn the invitation. Brooks is added to the NFC's roster when Chicago LB Lance Briggs pulls out of the game. His selection marks his 10th consecutive and 10th overall Pro Bowl selection – both team records.

GALLOWAY REACHES 1,000 YARDS FOR SECOND STRAIGHT SEASON (12/31) – For only the second time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, a Buccaneers receiver gains at least 1,000 receiving yards in two straight seasons when Joey Galloway reaches that mark against the Seattle Seahawks. Galloway finishes the season with a team-high 1,057 yards after logging 1,287 yards in 2005, also a club-high. Prior to Galloway's two consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, only Keyshawn Johnson achieved that feat, posting 1,266 yards in 2001 and 1,088 yards the following year.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

Two separate awards are presented each year to the team member chosen as the Bucs' Most Valuable Player. The St. Petersburg Times' award is determined by a vote of writers who regularly cover the team. The Tampa Sports Club, a cross section of the Tampa sports community, votes for its award. The Newspaper Enterprise Association no longer conducts a poll which was won in 1977 and 1979 by Lee Roy Selmon, in 1976 by Dave Pear and in 1978 by David Lewis.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and families in crisis.

BUCCANEERS IN OVERTIME

September 9, 1979 – Tampa Bay 29, at Baltimore 26:
Colts win the toss. On Baltimore's third play from scrimmage, Buccaneer DE Randy Crowder sacks Colt QB Greg Landry, forcing a fumble that is recovered by DT Bill Kollar at the opposition's 14-yard line. PK Neil O'Donoghue kicks a 31-yard field goal on the next play to win the game at 1:41 of OT.

October 12, 1980 – at Tampa Bay 14, Green Bay 14:
Packers win the toss. After the two teams exchange a pair of punts, Green Bay QB Lynn Dickey continues the most prolific passing day ever by a Buccaneer opponent (418 yards), guiding the Packers into Tampa Bay territory in the final minute of overtime. A 21-yard completion to WR Aundra Thompson helps Green Bay reach the Bucs' 18-yard line, but a 36-yard field goal attempt by PK Tom Birney sails wide right as time expires, resulting in the NFL's first tie since 1978.

January 2, 1983 – at Tampa Bay 26, Chicago 23:
Bears win the toss. Chicago takes possession on its own 20 but gains just five yards as QB Jim McMahon is nearly sacked on successive plays. After a 35-yard punt, the Bucs take over on their own 40-yard line. RB James Wilder takes a pitch around the right end on the Bucs' first play and runs 47 yards to the Chicago 13. Two plays later, PK Bill Capece hits a 33-yard field goal at 3:14 of OT to send the Bucs into the playoffs.

September 18, 1983 – Minnesota 19, at Tampa Bay 16:
Vikings win the toss. The Buccaneers force a Minnesota punt and take over on their own 47-yard line. QB Jack Thompson produces three first downs and leads the Bucs down to the Vikings' 15-yard line, but PK Bill Capece misses a 33-yard field goal. Minnesota RB Ricky Young turns a short pass into a 48-yard gain to the Buccaneer 27-yard line, setting up a 42-yard game-winning field goal by PK Benny Ricardo at 5:33 of OT.

October 9, 1983 – at Dallas 27, Tampa Bay 24:
Cowboys win the toss. Dallas takes over on its own 10-yard line after the kickoff and reaches Buccaneer territory with a 46-yard pass from QB Danny White to RB Ron Springs. RB Tony Dorsett's 12-yard jaunt around end sets up a 50-yard field goal try by PK Rafael Septien. Septien's attempt falls short, but a roughing the kicker penalty sets up another try by the Cowboy kicker and he converts from 42 yards out at 4:38 of OT.

December 12, 1983 – Green Bay 12, at Tampa Bay 9:
Packers win the toss. Green Bay keeps the ball on the ground in the opening drive with RBs Jessie Clark and Harlan Huckleby running for 43 of the 65 yards gained on the possession. A 20-yard sweep by Huckleby down to Tampa Bay's seven-yard line sets up a game-winning chip of 23 yards by PK Jan Stenerud at 4:07 of OT.

September 30, 1984 – at Tampa Bay 30, Green Bay 27:
Packers win the toss. After the teams trade punts, Green Bay begins at its own 27-yard line but is again forced to punt after three plays. A 16-yard Steve DeBerg pass to FB Adger Armstrong brings the Bucs down to the Packers' 17-yard line and, despite consecutive holding penalties, PK Obed Ariri connects on a 48-yard field goal at 10:38 of OT.

October 14, 1984 – at Detroit 13, Tampa Bay 7:
Buccaneers win the toss. QB Steve DeBerg leads Tampa Bay into Detroit territory with completions of 10, 19 and 14 yards, but RB James Wilder fumbles at the Lions' 41-yard line (recovered by William Gay). On Detroit's fifth play, QB Gary Danielson hits WR Leonard Thompson in stride for a 37-yard TD at 4:34 of OT.

November 24, 1985 – Tampa Bay 19, Detroit 16:
Lions win the toss. After forcing two three-and-out series by Detroit, Tampa Bay takes over at its own 38-yard line. After opening the drive with a 19-yard Steve Young completion, the Bucs run on nine straight plays, driving to the Detroit eight to set up a 24-yard field goal by Donald Igwebuike at 12:31 of OT.

September 28, 1986 – at Atlanta 23, Tampa Bay 20:
Falcons win the toss. Neither team advances with its first possession, but the Falcons put together a 52-yard drive after taking a Buccaneer punt at their own 33-yard line, keyed by a 22-yard scamper by RB Cliff Austin on a draw play. PK Mick Luckhurst converts on a 34-yard field goal attempt to win the game at 12:35 of OT.

October 5, 1986 – at L.A. Rams 26, Tampa Bay 20:
Rams win the toss. The Bucs lose their second overtime game in as many weeks on L.A.'s first possession as RB Eric Dickerson breaks a 42-yard touchdown run up the middle at 2:16 of OT.

December 11, 1988 – at New England 10, Tampa Bay 7:
Buccaneers win the toss but elect to kick. Patriot QB Tony Eason opens New England's first possession with a 21-yard completion to WR Irving Fryar and follows three plays later with a 26-yard hookup with Fryar. Two short runs by FB John Stephens set up a 27-yard field goal by PK Jason Staurovsky at 3:08 of OT.

September 30, 1990 – Tampa Bay 23, at Minnesota 20:
Vikings win the toss. Minnesota drives to the Buccaneer 31, but former Buc PK Donald Igwebuike's 48-yard field goal try is wide left. After a Tampa Bay punt, CB Wayne Haddix picks off QB Rich Gannon's pass on the Vikings' next play and returns it to the Minnesota 26-yard line. RB Reggie Cobb runs up the middle for six yards to position the Bucs for a successful 36-yard field goal by PK Steve Christie at 9:11 of OT.

November 27, 1994 – Tampa Bay 20, at Minnesota 17:
Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay's initial drive opens with a 16-yard reception by WR Courtney Hawkins but stalls at the Vikings' 49-yard line. P Dan Stryzinski's punt is fielded at Minnesota's 18, but is nullified by a penalty. On the re-kick, Viking WR Eric Guliford muffs the punt at Minnesota's four-yard line where it is recovered by long-snapper Ed Brady. PK Michael Husted wins the game with a 22-yard field goal on the next play which came at 2:08 of OT.

October 15, 1995 – at Tampa Bay 20, Minnesota 17:
Buccaneers win the toss. Minnesota forces a Tampa Bay punt and takes over on its own 48. QB Warren Moon drives the Vikings to the Buccaneer 35-yard line, but PK Fuad Reveiz misses a 53-yard field goal attempt. The Bucs' ensuing possession nearly ends on a fumble by TE Jackie Harris, but WR Lawrence Dawsey strips Viking S Orlando Thomas during the return and G Ian Beckles falls on the loose ball at the Viking 45. A 15-yard Trent Dilfer-to-Alvin Harper pass then positions the Bucs for PK Michael Husted's game-winning 51-yard field goal at 8:37 of OT.

December 10, 1995 – at Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10:
Buccaneers win the toss. Trent Dilfer passes to TE Jackie Harris for nine yards and WR Horace Copeland for 23 yards, plus an eight-yard scamper by RB Errict Rhett moves Tampa Bay into Packer territory. Rhett is stopped for a loss of one on a third-and-one attempt from Green Bay's 28-yard line, but PK Michael Husted kicks a 47-yard game-winning field goal on the next play at 11:14 of OT.

November 10, 1996 – at Tampa Bay 20, Oakland 17:
Buccaneers win the toss. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Buc defense forces a Raider three-and-out and the home team gets the ball back at its own 39. Two big-gainers by rookie FB Mike Alstott, a 20-yard reception of a QB Trent Dilfer pass and a 10-yard run up the middle, position Tampa Bay at the Oakland five, from where PK Michael Husted kicks the game-winner, a 23-yarder with 3:11 remaining.

October 1, 2000 – at Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17:
Redskins win the toss. The Buccaneer defense forces a Washington three-and-out, but Tampa Bay starts at its own 14-yard line. After Washington forces a three-and-out, Deion Sanders returns the punt 57 yards to the Tampa Bay eight-yard line. After three rushes by TB Stephen Davis, former Buccaneer K Michael Husted kicks a 20-yard field goal with 10:51 remaining for the victory.

December 24, 2000 – at Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14:
Packers win the toss. Green Bay starts at its own 38 and uses nine plays to move the ball to the Tampa Bay four-yard line. On the drive, the Packers convert two third downs and K Ryan Longwell nails the game-winning 22-yard field goal with 8:29 left in overtime.

October 14, 2001 – at Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 28:
Buccaneers win the toss. Joe Nedney nails a 49-yard field goal less than three minutes into overtime to give Tennessee the win. Tennessee forced a three-and-out and starts at the Tampa Bay 46-yard line following a punt. Steve McNair completes a 14-yard pass to the Buccaneer 32-yard line on the first play and Nedney knocks down the game-winner four plays later.

December 2, 2001 – Tampa Bay 16, at Cincinnati 13:
Buccaneers win the toss. The Bucs are forced to punt on their first possession of the extra period, but S John Lynch strips RB Corey Dillon on Cincinnati's three-yard line on the Bengals' first play. Gramatica nails the game-winner on a 21-yarder on the next play just over five minutes into overtime.

September 8, 2002 – New Orleans 26, at Tampa Bay 20:
Buccaneers win the toss. Each team punts twice in the first four possessions of overtime as the Saints pin Tampa Bay at its own six-yard line to begin the Buccaneers third possession in the extra period. Punting from the Tampa Bay end zone, Tom Tupa pulled the ball down and attempted a pass when he sensed a potential block. Tupa's off-balance pass was intercepted by Saints LB James Allen in the end zone for the game-winning score with 2:59 left in overtime.

September 14, 2003 – Carolina 12, at Tampa Bay 9:
Panthers win the toss. Carolina punts on its first possession, pinning the Bucs inside their own 20-yard line. Tampa Bay advances to the Carolina 42-yard line, but the drive stalls and the Buccaneers are forced to punt. Carolina's Steve Smith returns the punt 52 yards to the Tampa Bay 40-yard line. The Panthers advance to the Bucs 29-yard line on four plays, setting up John Kasay's 47-yard game winner with 3:34 left in the extra period.

October 6, 2003 – Indianapolis 38, at Tampa Bay 35:
Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay advances to the Colts 41-yard line on the first possession of overtime, but is forced to punt. Indianapolis takes over at its own 13-yard line and pieces together a 15-play drive that places Mike Vanderjagt in position for a 40-yard field goal attempt. Vanderjagt misses wide right, but Bucs DE Simeon Rice is flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct for "leaping." The Colts retain possession and gain 11 yards as a result of the penalty, setting up Vanderjagt's 29-yard game winning field goal on the next play with 3:50 remaining in overtime.

December 24, 2005 – at Tampa Bay 27, Atlanta 24
Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay WR Edell Shepherd fumbles the overtime kickoff, giving the Falcons possession at the Buccaneers 18-yard line. Three plays later, Atlanta K Todd Peterson's 28-yard field goal attempt is blocked by Buccaneers DE Dewayne White. On the ensuing possession, Tampa Bay marches to the Falcons nine-yard line, but K Matt Bryant misses the potential game winner from 27 yards out. Tampa Bay regains possession near midfield with 54 seconds left in the extra frame following a 28-yard punt return by WR Mark Jones. The Buccaneers march 26 yards in five plays as Bryant connects on the game winner from 41 yards out with 15 seconds remaining.

December 17, 2006 - at Chicago 34, Tampa Bay 31:
Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay turns the ball over on its opening possession on a TE Alex Smith fumble, giving the Bears possession at the Buccaneers 22-yard line. Three plays later, K Robbie Gould misses a 37-yard field goal. The teams trade punts before Tampa Bay takes over with 8:50 remaining in overtime at its own two-yard line. The Buccaneers are forced to punt and Chicago takes over at midfield with 6:23 left in the extra frame. Six plays later, Gould connects on the 25-yard game winner.

BUCCANEERS IN PRIME TIME

Tampa Bay 10, Los Angeles Rams 9:
In a rematch of the 1979 NFC Championship Game, the Bucs exacted a small measure of revenge with a 10-9 win over the Rams before 66,576 at Tampa Stadium. Quarterback Doug Williams scored the game's only touchdown on a one-yard sneak with 57 seconds remaining to seal the victory. Despite yielding 360 total yards, the Bucs defense intercepted Rams quarterback Vince Ferragamo four times and held Los Angeles to just three Frank Corral field goals.

Monday Night, 10/6/80 (ABC)
Chicago 23, Tampa Bay 0:
Chicago's defense held the Bucs to 147 total yards en route to a 23-0 Monday Night win before 61,350 at Soldier Field. The Bears held a 3-0 lead heading into the third quarter, when Tampa Bay quarterback Doug Williams hit tight end Jimmie Giles for an apparent touchdown. The play was nullified because of a penalty and the Bears' defense stiffened from there.

Tampa Bay 23, Miami 17:
The Bucs intercepted five passes to pick up their first win of the strike-shortened season, a 23-17 triumph over Miami before 65,854 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay led 23-10 late, when Dolphins quarterback Don Strock hit tight end Joe Rose on an 11-yard scoring strike to cut the Bucs lead to six with 34 seconds remaining. Miami recovered the ensuing onside kick, but cornerback Mike Washington intercepted Strock on the game's final play to secure the win.

Green Bay 12, Tampa Bay 9 (OT):
Veteran kicker Jan Stenerud booted a 23-yard field goal with 4:07 left in overtime to lift Green Bay to a 12-9 win over the Bucs before 50,763 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay led 9-6 when kicker Bill Capece missed a 35-yard attempt with 2:49 remaining in regulation. The Packers then drove 65 yards to set up Stenerud for a 23-yarder that sent the game into overtime. The Bucs' defense – which surrendered 55 points to the Packers in their first meeting of the season – kept Green Bay out of the end zone but couldn't prevent the team's third overtime defeat of 1983.

Sunday Night, 9/23/90 (TNT)
Tampa Bay 23, Detroit 20:
Vinny Testaverde hit running back John Harvey on a three-yard touchdown pass with 4:21 remaining to rally the Bucs past Detroit, 23-20, before 55,075 at Tampa Stadium. Testaverde completed 5 of 7 passes for 91 yards in the fourth quarter, as the Bucs erased their third deficit of the contest. Gary Anderson rushed for 71 yards and one touchdown.

Sunday Night, 12/8/91 (ESPN)
Minnesota 26, Tampa Bay 24:
A valiant Bucs rally fell short as Minnesota escaped with a 26-24 win before 41,091 at Tampa Stadium. The Vikings jumped out to a 20-3 lead before Tampa Bay battled back behind QB Vinny Testaverde, who threw for a season-best 330 yards. Testaverde hit wide receiver Mark Carrier on a 21-yard scoring toss to cut the lead to two late in the fourth quarter, but the Bucs could pull no closer. Carrier totaled 110 yards on six catches.

Sunday Night, 12/6/92 (ESPN)
Los Angeles Rams 31, Tampa Bay 27:
The Los Angeles Rams erased a 24-point halftime deficit to stun the Bucs 31-27 before 38,387 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 27-3 lead, thanks to two touchdown passes from QB Vinny Testaverde and a 26-yard fumble return on a kickoff by cornerback Roger Jones. But the Rams scored three touchdowns in an eight-minute span of the third quarter to close the gap to 27-24. Quarterback Jim Everett then hit tight end Pat Carter on an eight-yard scoring toss with six minutes left to cap the comeback.

Tampa Bay 23, Minnesota 10:
Bucs running back Vince Workman keyed a workman-like dismantling of Minnesota as Tampa Bay rolled to a 23-10 victory before 40,848 at Tampa Stadium. Workman rushed for 58 yards and one touchdown, adding seven catches for 65 yards in his first career start. The Vikings led 7-6 at halftime before cornerback Milton Mack returned a Sean Salisbury pass 27 yards for his first career touchdown. Workman sealed the win with a one-yard scoring plunge in the fourth quarter. The Bucs' offense did not commit a turnover for the first time all season, while the defense turned in its best effort of 1993, limiting Minnesota to 235 total yards.

Detroit 14, Tampa Bay 9:
Detroit running back Barry Sanders rushed for 237 yards, leading the Lions to a 14-9 win over the Bucs before 50,814 at the Silverdome. Tampa Bay marched to the Lions' one-yard line twice in the first half but could only muster a 3-0 halftime lead. Detroit regrouped in the second half as Sanders careened for 200 yards after the intermission. Michael Husted's third field goal cut the margin to five points in the fourth quarter, but Sanders sealed the win with a 48-yarder late in the game, enabling Detroit to run out the clock.

Sunday Night, 12/10/95 (ESPN)
Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10 (OT):
Michael Husted nailed a 47-yard field goal 2:46 into overtime, vaulting the Bucs to a pulsating 13-10 win over the Green Bay Packers before 67,557 at Tampa Stadium. Earlier, Husted had tied the game at 10 with a 38-yard field goal. The Packers had a chance to win with eight seconds remaining in regulation, but Chris Jacke missed a 45-yarder wide left. Wide receiver Horace Copeland caught a career-high eight passes for 122 yards, including a 23-yarder that led to the Bucs' lone touchdown, a one-yard plunge by running back Jerry Ellison.

Sunday Night, 9/15/96 (TNT)
Denver 27, Tampa Bay 23:
Denver quarterback John Elway engineered another of his patented fourth-quarter comebacks, rallying the Broncos past the Bucs 27-23 before 71,535 at Mile High Stadium. Elway directed a 14-play, 80-yard march, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by Terrell Davis with 3:32 remaining. Earlier, Michael Husted had given the Bucs a 23-20 lead on a 28-yard field goal, set up by Derrick Brooks' first career interception. Tampa Bay running back Reggie Brooks ran for 114 yards, while tight end Jackie Harris paced the Bucs receiving corps with five catches for 96 yards.

Sunday Night, 9/21/97 (TNT)
Tampa Bay 31, Miami 21:
The Bucs ran their record to 4-0 with an electrifying 31-21 win over Miami before 73,314 at Houlihan's Stadium. Tampa Bay rang up 357 yards on the Dolphins' defense while holding Miami to just 48 yards on the ground. Rookie running back Warrick Dunn—fresh off two straight 100-yard rushing outings—caught six passes for 106 yards, including a 58-yard touchdown catch. Meanwhile, fullback Mike Alstott rushed for 95 yards and caught two short scoring tosses from Trent Dilfer in the first half. Dilfer outdueled Miami's Dan Marino, completing 18 of 24 passes for 248 yards and a career-high four touchdowns.

Detroit 27, Tampa Bay 6:
Detroit made the Bucs' first Monday Night appearance in 15 years a sobering one, racing past Tampa Bay 27-6 before 74,724 at the Silverdome. Despite being doubled in total yardage (170-85) in the first half, Tampa Bay trailed just 6-3 as the third quarter opened. Bryant Westbrook then intercepted a Trent Dilfer pass and raced 34 yards for a score to give Detroit a 13-3 lead. Quarterback Charlie Batch added a one-yard scoring run before Michael Husted's 47-yard field goal closed the gap to 20-6. Cornerback Terry Fair returned the ensuing kickoff 105 yards for a touchdown to ice the contest.

Sunday Night, 11/8/98 (ESPN)
Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 22:
Quarterback Steve McNair raced 71 yards for a touchdown with 1:46 left, squelching a Bucs comeback and lifting Tennessee to a 31-22 win over Tampa Bay before 65,054 at Raymond James Stadium. Trent Dilfer connected with wide receiver Reidel Anthony on a 10-yard scoring strike to pull the Bucs within 24-22, but misfired on the subsequent two-point conversion. Tampa Bay pressed the Oilers into a third-and-eight at their own 29 before McNair scampered to the end zone. The Bucs jumped out to a 16-3 halftime lead, but Tennessee stormed back behind running back Eddie George, who totaled 134 rushing yards.

Tampa Bay 24, Green Bay 22:
The Bucs ended a string of futility against Green Bay in style, beating the defending NFC champions 24-22 before 65,497 at Raymond James Stadium. Quarterback Trent Dilfer connected on two long scoring strikes in the first half—a 64-yarder to Jacquez Green and a 62-yarder to Bert Emanuel—to give the Bucs a 14-6 halftime lead. Meanwhile, Tampa Bay's defense was suffocating, sacking quarterback Brett Favre eight times and forcing a team-record eight fumbles, recovering two. The Packers clawed to within two points with 2:20 remaining, but the Bucs then ran all but 24 seconds off the clock. Defensive tackle Brad Culpepper and Warren Sapp capped the sack parade by downing Favre on the last play of the game.

Green Bay 26, Tampa Bay 23:
QB Brett Favre hit WR Antonio Freeman on a 21-yard touchdown pass with 1:05 left, capping a wild fourth quarter and lifting the Packers to a 26-23 win over Tampa Bay before 59,868 at Lambeau Field. The Bucs fell behind 10-0 early, but rallied to take a 13-10 lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Trent Dilfer to RB Warrick Dunn and two field goals by Martin Gramatica. Ryan Longwell booted a 49-yarder to tie the score at the half. After the team traded field goals, Longwell hit from 43 yards to give Green Bay a 19-16 lead. But FB Mike Alstott scored on a 22-yard rumble with 1:45 remaining, giving the Bucs a 23-19 lead. Favre wasn't done, however, ushering Green Bay to the winning score in just 40 seconds. He threw for 390 yards on the night, the most ever against Tampa Bay in regulation.

Detroit 20, Tampa Bay 3:
For the second consecutive week, Tampa Bay's offense could not reach the end zone, resulting in a 20-3 loss to Detroit before 63,135 at the Silverdome. The Bucs rolled up 292 yards of total offense, besting the Lions by 36 yards. But one Tampa Bay fumble led to a Lions TD, while the other miscue prevented a seemingly certain Bucs TD. The team traded field goals before Detroit pinned the Bucs back at their goal line, forced an errant punt and took over at the Tampa Bay 36. Greg Hill's 27-yard scamper set up Sedrick Irvin for a two-yard TD run, lifting Detroit to a 10-3 lead. Two plays into the second half, it was 17-3. LB Chris Claiborne nailed QB Eric Zeier, forcing a fumble that LB Allen Aldridge returned 21 yards for a score. Hanson booted a late field goal to make it 20-3.

Tampa Bay 24, Minnesota 17:
The Bucs coupled a big-play defensive effort with some timely offense to rally for a 24-17 win over Minnesota before 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out on top on the third play of the game. CB Donnie Abraham blitzed from the left side, timed his jump perfectly and picked off a Jeff George pass. He raced 55 yards for a TD to give Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead. Martin Gramatica hit a 20-yard FG to push the lead to 10-0. But the Bucs coughed the ball up twice in the second quarter, leading to two Vikings touchdowns. Tampa Bay answered midway through the third quarter, when QB Shaun King—making his first NFL start— hit WR Jacquez Green on a 29-yard scoring strike. After Minnesota muffed a punt, King found TE Dave Moore in the back of the end zone on a one-yard toss, giving Tampa Bay a 24-14 lead. Gary Anderson pulled Minnesota within seven points on a 34-yard FG, then George mounted one final charge. But a 4th and 19 pass from the Bucs 34 fell incomplete.

Monday Night, 10/9/00 (ABC)
Minnesota 30, Tampa Bay 23:
For the second time in its last three games, Tampa Bay lost a fourth quarter lead as Minnesota rallied for a 30-23 victory before 64,162 at the Metrodome. The Bucs, who trailed for most of the game, took their first lead with 12:13 remaining in the game when CB Donnie Abraham returned a blocked field goal attempt 53 yards for a 23-20 Bucs lead. The block by DT Warren Sapp, his second in the last two weeks, gave Tampa Bay its first touchdown on a return of a blocked field goal since 1978. But the Vikings regained the lead on a 42-yard scoring pass from QB Daunte Culpepper to WR Randy Moss and then extended the edge to seven on a Gary Anderson field goal with 59 seconds left in the game. Tampa Bay reached the Viking 43-yard line, but QB Shaun King's "Hail Mary" pass on the final play of regulation fell incomplete in the end zone.

Thursday Night, 10/19/00 (ESPN)
Detroit 28, Tampa Bay 14:
For the first time since 1996, Tampa Bay lost its fourth straight game as Detroit came back for a 28-14 victory before 65,557 fans at Raymond James Stadium. The Lions, who had trailed for most of the first half, scored 14 points in the final quarter on two short touchdown runs by James Stewart after K Martin Gramatica had tied the game at 14-14 with a career-long 55-yard FG. Gramatica, who tied his single-game mark with four field goals, connected on his first two and the Bucs added a safety after a blocked punt by LB Nate Webster for an 8-0 lead early in the second period. The two teams traded field goals, but Detroit evened the game at 11-11 just before the half on the first of Stewart's three TDs. Gramatica and Lions K Jason Hanson swapped field goals again after the break before Detroit took control in the final 13 minutes. DE Marcus Jones set a club record with four sacks and added a blocked field goal as the Bucs totaled seven quarterback sacks.

Tampa Bay 38, St. Louis 35:
RB Warrick Dunn scored his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallied for a 38-35 win over St. Louis at Raymond James Stadium. After the Rams had stormed back from a 10-point deficit to grab a 35-31 lead, QB Shaun King drove the Bucs 80 yards on 13 plays for the game-winning score on a one-yard run by Dunn. S John Lynch sealed the victory with an interception of Rams QB Kurt Warner, his third of the game, with less than 30 seconds remaining. In a game that featured seven lead changes, Tampa Bay grabbed a 24-14 halftime lead, thanks to a two-yard score by Dunn and two scoring strikes from King to WR Keyshawn Johnson. Rams RB Marshall Faulk, who scored four touchdowns on the night, accounted for St. Louis first-half points with two rushing TDs. Faulk added a TD reception following the break to cut the lead to three, but Dunn broke free for a 52-yard run to extend the edge to 31-21 and eclipse the 1,000-yard mark for the season. But the Rams responded with 14 straight points on Faulk's third rushing TD and a 72-yard score from Warner to WR Torry Holt. The Rams defense then stopped Tampa Bay on downs, but the Bucs defense responded by forcing the Rams to punt with 2:22 left in the game, setting up the game-winning drive. Dunn tied a team single-game record with three rushing touchdowns and the Bucs offense gained a season-high 446 yards.

Tampa Bay 24, St. Louis 17:
RB Warrick Dunn snapped a 17-17 tie early in the fourth quarter on a 21-yard touchdown run as Tampa Bay gained its first-ever win at St. Louis with a 24-17 triumph at the Dome at America's Center. The Tampa Bay defense shut down the Rams' top-ranked offense, holding St. Louis scoreless in the final 15 minutes. Overall, the Bucs allowed just one touchdown and permitted St. Louis only 345 total yards, which was below its league-leading average of nearly 425 yards per game. Tampa Bay also forced five Rams turnovers, including two interceptions of QB Kurt Warner. DT Warren Sapp posted his second two-sack performance in the last three games, and S John Lynch sealed the win for the second consecutive meeting with an interception on the final drive of the game.

Saturday Night, 12/29/01 (ABC)
Tampa Bay 22, Baltimore 10:
Tampa Bay moved closer to the playoffs with a 22-10 win over defending Super Bowl champion Baltimore at Raymond James Stadium on a special Saturday Night edition of ABC's Monday Night Football. The Bucs reached the postseason for the third straight year the next day when Atlanta lost to Miami. The Bucs defense held the Ravens to just 257 yards and 4-of-17 on third down conversions. QB Brad Johnson scored on a one-yard sneak to give the Bucs a 16-7 edge at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, the Ravens cut the lead to 16-10 on a Matt Stoverfield goal, but FB Mike Alstott sealed the victory with a 32-yard touchdown with 1:35 left on the clock. The win marked the third straight year the Bucs have defeated the defending Super Bowl champions.

Philadelphia 17, Tampa Bay 13:
Tampa Bay concluded its 2001 regular season as Philadelphia rallied to score a pair of touchdowns in the final 2:12 in a 17-13 win over the Bucs at Raymond James Stadium. With the playoff picture already set prior to the game for both clubs, many of the second-team players saw significant action. The game marked just the seventh time since 1970 that teams have met in the regular season finale before playing in the playoffs. Despite the loss, the Buccaneers finished 9-7 and advanced to the playoffs for the fourth time in five seasons under head coach Tony Dungy.

Tampa Bay 26, St. Louis 14:
Tampa Bay's defense posted five sacks and four interceptions, including a 39-yard interception return for a touchdown by LB Derrick Brooks with 59 seconds remaining, giving head coach Jon Gruden his first victory at Raymond James Stadium with a 26-14 win over the Rams on Monday Night Football. The Buccaneers took a 3-0 lead after K Martin Gramatica connected on a 39-yard field goal to open up the game. The Rams responded on their initial drive, when RB Marshall Faulk scored on a five-yard touchdown run for a 7-3 lead. Tampa Bay QB Brad Johnson led a drive culminated by a 47-yard field goal by Gramatica and cut the Rams lead to 7-6. With the Rams driving in the second quarter, DE Simeon Rice dropped into pass coverage and snared his second career interception. Johnson followed by connecting with TE Rickey Dudley, who played in his first game with Tampa Bay, for a nine-yard scoring pass with less than one minute left in the first half. After a scoreless third quarter, CB Brian Kelly intercepted a Warner pass and returned it 31 yards to the Rams' one-yard line, setting up FB Mike Alstott's two-yard touchdown run for a 19-7 lead two plays later. Rams RB Lamar Gordon, who replaced an injured Faulk, scored on a 21-yard run to cut the deficit to 19-14. The Rams had one last opportunity late in the fourth quarter, but Brooks, who left in the third quarter with a left hamstring strain, returned for one play, replacing an injured Al Singleton. Brooks immediately clinched the win, registering his third career interception return for a touchdown and his second pick for a score in as many games in 2002.

Sunday Night, 12/1/02 (ESPN)
New Orleans 23, Tampa Bay 20:
New Orleans held off a late rally by Tampa Bay for a 23-20 victory at the Superdome to snap the Buccaneers' four-game winning streak. Saints WR Joe Horn, who posted five receptions for 106 yards and one touchdown, set up another score with a 52-yard catch and secured the win with a key 10-yard reception on third down in the final two minutes of the contest. Tampa Bay, which trailed 23-12 late in the fourth quarter, cut the lead to 23-20 with 2:54 remaining in the game as QB Brad Johnson led Tampa Bay on a 17-play, 84-yard TD drive, capped off by WR Keenan McCardell's two-yard TD reception on fourth-and-goal and the two-point conversion. But New Orleans converted a key first down when backup QB Jake Delhomme, who replaced an injured Aaron Brooks, connected with Horn for 10 yards on his only passing attempt on third down to seal the win. DE Simeon Rice became the first player in NFL history to record two or more sacks in five consecutive games. Rice, who tied his career high with three sacks, sacked Brooks on successive plays on New Orleans' opening possession. Rice's third sack, late in the first quarter, gave the Bucs a 2-0 lead when he forced a Brooks fumble, which rolled out of the end zone for a safety. Saints RB Deuce McAllister's six-yard TD run in the second quarter lifted New Orleans to a 6-2 lead. On the following series, Brad Johnson marched the Buccaneers on a season-long 90-yard TD drive, capped off by FB Mike Alstott's 44-yard TD catch to give the Bucs a 9-6 lead. New Orleans regained the lead early in the second half on a three-yard reception by WR Jake Reed and the Saints added another score less than four minutes later when Brooks found Horn for a 14-yard TD. Tampa Bay responded on its next possession as K Martin Gramatica nailed a 51-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh 17, Tampa Bay 7:
Tommy Maddox threw for 236 yards and one touchdown and Pittsburgh's defense forced two Tampa Bay fumbles inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line en route to a 17-7 win over the Buccaneers on Monday Night Football at Raymond James Stadium. Despite the loss, Tampa Bay claimed the NFC South Division title when New Orleans lost to Cincinnati, while the Steelers clinched the AFC North Division with the victory over the Bucs. Tampa Bay played without starting quarterback Brad Johnson, who missed the game with a right lower back contusion. QB Shaun King started in his place and completed 9-of-26 passes for 73 yards and one interception prior to being replaced by QB Rob Johnson in the third quarter. Pittsburgh raced out to a 14-0 lead with 11:10 remaining in the first quarter. Maddox hit WR Antwaan Randle El for an 11-yard score on the Steelers opening possession and on Tampa Bay's second offensive play, CB Chad Scott stepped in front of a King pass and raced 30 yards for a TD. The Steelers added a 26-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to build a 17-0 lead in the first quarter. Tampa Bay had a pair of opportunities to score inside the Steelers 10-yard line, but NT Casey Hampton forced a pair of turnovers. Hampton forced a fumble by FB Mike Alstott on the Steelers' seven-yard line on the first play of the second quarter and then produced another turnover after sacking and forcing a fumble by Rob Johnson inside the 10-yard line in the third quarter. Rob Johnson completed 12-of-18 passes for 159 yards and one TD, but was sacked five times. WR Keyshawn Johnson had a game-high eight receptions for 132 yards and added an18-yard TD late in the fourth quarter.

Sunday Night, 12/29/02 (ESPN)
Tampa Bay 15, Chicago 0:
Tampa Bay closed out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win as K Martin Gramatica kicked a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Buccaneers defense registered four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout of the Chicago Bears. The win also marked the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers, who also blanked the Baltimore Ravens, 25-0 in Week 2. In addition, the temperature at kickoff was 38 degrees, marking the first time Tampa Bay won in 22 tries when the thermometer read below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay improved to 6-2 on the road, the most wins away from home in franchise history and secured the No. 2 seed in the NFC. The NFL's top-ranked defense intercepted Bears QB Henry Burris four times, setting up three of Gramatica's five field goals. Burris, making his first career NFL start, completed just 7-of-19 passes for 78 yards and the four interceptions for a 10.3 passer rating. Tampa Bay built a 6-0 halftime lead behind a pair of Gramatica field goals (30 and 32 yards), the second of which was set up by LB Derrick Brooks career-high fifth interception of the season. Tampa Bay sealed the win in the fourth quarter with three fourth quarter INTs and field goals from 33, 26 and 33 yards. CB Brian Kelly, who tied for the NFL lead with a career-high eight interceptions, added a pair of fourth quarter picks and CB Dwight Smith reeled in the final interception. QB Rob Johnson, filling in for the injured Brad Johnson, directeda balanced attack as he passed for 134 yards and the Buccaneers registered 161 yards rushing.

Tampa Bay 17, Philadelphia 0:
Tampa Bay opened up the regular season in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. The Eagles, who were limited to just 245 total yards and converted on 2-of-11 (18%) third down conversions, suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998. Tampa Bay's defense set the tone early, holding the Eagles scoreless on a goal-line stand in the first quarter. WR Joe Jurevicius reeled in a pair of second half touchdowns from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 13-of-14 passes in the second half. Jurevicius gave the Buccaneers a 10-0 lead as he hauled in a 13-yard score in the corner of the end zone. He followed with another improbable catch in the fourth quarter, deflecting the ball over an Eagles defender, spinning to his left and diving for his second TD reception of the contest for a 17-0 lead. Brad Johnson, who marched Tampa Bay on consecutive TD drives of 80 and 73 yards in the second half, completed 27-of-36 passes for 238 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Johnson's top target, WR Keyshawn Johnson, reeled in a team-high six receptions for 83 yards, and DT Warren Sapp caught his first career pass, a 14-yard grab in the fourth quarter for a first down. DE Simeon Rice added two sacks on Eagles QB Donovan McNabb.

Monday Night, 10/6/03 (ABC)
Indianapolis 38, Tampa Bay 35:
QB Peyton Manning led the Colts to three touchdowns in the final five minutes of regulation to overcome a 21-point deficit and force overtime, leading Indianapolis to a dramatic 38-35 overtime win in former head coach Tony Dungy's return to Raymond James Stadium. Manning led the Colts to four TDs in the fourth quarter after Tampa Bay built a 35-14 lead with 5:09 left after CB Ronde Barber's 29-yard interception return for a score. But that would be the last score of the night for the Bucs. WR Brad Pyatt returned the ensuing kickoff 90 yards and four plays later RB James Mungro ran in from three yards out on fourth-and-1 for the score. The Colts recovered an onside kick and Manning connected with WR Marvin Harrison, who hauled in a game-high 11 receptions for 176 yards and two TDs, from 28 yards on fourth-and-six to cut the deficit to 35-28. After a Bucs punt, the Colts took over with 1:41 remaining in the contest. Manning marched the Colts on a five-play, 85-yard drive in just 1:06 that was capped off by RB Ricky Williams, whose one-yard run tied the game at 35. In overtime, Tampa Bay won the toss but was forced to punt on the first possession. Manning moved the Colts downfield to set up a 40-yard field goal attempt by K Mike Vanderjagt. He missed it wide right, but DE Simeon Rice was flagged for leaping and the Colts received another chance because of the unsportsmanlike conduct penalty. Vanderjagt's 29-yard kick bounced off the right post and through the uprights to complete the improbable comeback. WR Keenan McCardell caught two TD receptions, including a then career-long 74 yarder, and added a third score on a 57-yard fumble return for a touchdown.

Tampa Bay 19, New York Giants 13:
WR Charles Lee's career-long 53-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown late in the first half helped Tampa Bay snap a three-game losing skid en route to a 19-13 win over the New York Giants at Raymond James Stadium. Lee, who posted his first career TD as a Buccaneer and his second career scoring reception, finished with five receptions for a game-high 91 yards, while WR Keenan McCardell added a game-high nine receptions for 83 yards. RB Thomas Jones' one-yard TD run in the second quarter gave Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead. After K Matt Bryant's 30-yard field goal, Lee's 53-yard TD reception lifted the Buccaneers to a 14-3 advantage. The Giants had an opportunity to cut the deficit, but DE Simeon Rice, who posted his NFL-leading 12th sack, nailed QB Kerry Collins on the Tampa Bay 29-yard line and forced a fumble that was recovered by DT Chartric Darby as time expired in the first half. The Giants, who entered the contest ranked third in the NFL in total offense (365.9 ypg.), could muster just 212 total yards of offense as the Buccaneers forced four turnovers. After the team exchanged field goals in the third quarter – a 30-yarder by Bryant and a 21-yarder by K Martin Gramatica – Giants rookie CB Frank Walker intercepted QB Brad Johnson and returned it 56 yards for a score to cut the Buccaneers' lead to 17-13 early in the fourth quarter. But Tampa Bay's defense closed out the game, stifling the Giants on their final two offensive possessions. S John Lynch intercepted a Collins pass and on the following series DT Warren Sapp recorded his second sack of the game.

Jacksonville 17, Tampa Bay 10:
WR Jimmy Smith's diving 48-yard touchdown reception with 10:23 remaining in the fourth quarter lifted Jacksonville to a 17-10 win at ALLTEL Stadium. Smith and WR Keenan McCardell, teammates with the Jaguars from 1996-2001, became the 16th and 17th players, respectively, to reach the 700-reception mark as Smith finished with a game-high 10 receptions for 136 yards, while McCardell paced the Buccaneers with eight catches for 74 yards. Stifled in the first half, Jaguars RB Fred Taylor emerged in the second half, finishing with 118 yards on 29 carries to help the Jaguars run out the clock in the waning minutes with a pair of first down runs. Jacksonville jumped out to a 7-0 lead behind QB Byron Leftwich's 10-yard scoring pass to TE Kyle Brady following LB Mike Peterson's interception of Bucs QB Brad Johnson. The Buccaneers responded on the following offensive series with an 11-play, 56-yard drive capped off by Thomas Jones' five-yard TD run to tie the score at 7. On the ensuing possession, LB Derrick Brooks forced a fumble that was recovered by CB Tim Wansley as the Buccaneers recorded a takeaway in their 53rd consecutive game. Tampa Bay took advantage with a 47-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica as Tampa Bay took its only lead of the game. But Jacksonville responded on its next possession as Leftwich, who completed 20-of-34 passes for 224 yards and the aforementioned two TDs, drove the Jaguars down the field before the half to set up K Seth Marler's 28-yard FG, tying the score at 10. Despite numerous chances, the Jaguars failed to score three times inside the Buccaneers' 30-yard line, missing a pair of field goals and losing the ball on downs. But Leftwich found Smith in the end zone for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, and Jacksonville's defense kept the Buccaneers scoreless in the second half.

Sunday Night, 9/26/04 (ESPN)
Oakland 30, Tampa Bay 20:
In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, the Buccaneers fell to the Raiders in head coach Jon Gruden's first game in Oakland against his former team. The evening was highlighted by Tampa Bay WR Tim Brown's return to Oakland as he hauled in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter. Tampa Bay fought hard in the final period, gaining nearly 200 yards of offense as Johnson found Brown and connected with WR Bill Schroeder for a 41-yard scoring strike to pull the Bucs within 10 late in the fourth quarter. The two teams exchanged pairs of field goals in the first half, with Bucs K Martin Gramatica connecting from 36 and 30 yards and Raiders K Sebastian Janikowski hitting from 23 and 40 yards. Late in the second quarter, Raiders backup QB Kerry Collins, who had replaced injured starter Rich Gannon, found WR Ronald Curry for a 19-yard touchdown reception and a 13-6 halftime lead. The Raiders utilized the opening possession of the second half to push their lead to 16-6 on a 39-yard Janikowski field goal. On the next drive, QB Brad Johnson was intercepted by Oakland CB Philip Buchanon, who returned it 32 yards for the score and a 23-6 Raiders lead. Oakland took a commanding lead on its next drive as RB Tyrone Wheatley hurdled into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown run and a 30-6 Raiders advantage.

Monday Night, 10/18/04 (ABC)
St. Louis 28, Tampa Bay 21:
Tampa Bay outgained the NFL's fourth-ranked offense, but Rams WR Torry Holt's two TD receptions led St. Louis to a 28-21 victory on Monday Night Football. In his first start for the Buccaneers, QB Brian Griese completed 27-of-40 passes for 286 yards with two TDs and one INT. Griese found rookie WR Michael Clayton for a season and game-high eight receptions for 142 yards. DE Greg Spires led the defensive effort, forcing a fumble and posting two sacks of Rams QB Marc Bulger as the Bucs defense forced two turnovers and notched four sacks. St. Louis got on the board first, taking a 7-0 lead on its first drive as Bulger connected with WR Torry Holt on a 52-yard scoring pass. On the ensuing kickoff, CB Torrie Cox gave the Buccaneers possession at the Rams 43-yard line following a 59-yard return. Six plays later, Tampa Bay knotted the score at 7-7 with a one-yard scoring plunge by FB Mike Alstott, and then took a 14-7 lead early in the second quarter on a five-yard TD pass to RB Michael Pittman. Rams RB Marshall Faulk evened the score at 14-14 with a one-yard TD run following a Buccaneers fumble inside its own 10-yard line. Midway through the third quarter, Bucs LB Ian Gold intercepted a Bulger pass and returned it 31 yards to the St. Louis 15-yard line. However, on the next play, St. Louis S Adam Archuleta forced a Pittman fumble and returned it 93 yards for a 21-14 lead. Tampa Bay responded two drives later to tie the game at 21-21 when Griese found TE Will Heller from one yard out. Though Tampa Bay would threaten until the final seconds of the contest, St. Louis closed out the scoring and secured the victory early in the fourth quarter when Bulger found Holt for the decisive 36-yard TD.

Monday Night, 11/13/06 (ESPN)
Carolina 24, Tampa Bay 10:
The Buccaneers took an early lead, but could not overcome four turnovers and a 14-point, second-half deficit, falling to the Panthers for the second time on the year. Defensively, Tampa Bay limited the Panthers to just 78 rushing yards for the contest, while CB Ronde Barber intercepted the 31st pass of his career to move into a tie for first place in team history for most career interceptions. Following a WR Keyshawn Johnson fumble on the Panthers second drive of the game, the Buccaneers took over near midfield and five plays later QB Bruce Gradkowski hit WR Ike Hilliard on a six-yard TD pass for a 7-0 lead. Late in the first half, Gradkowski tried to hit WR Joey Galloway deep down the sideline but was intercepted by CB Ken Lucas at the one-yard line, breaking a streak of 147 pass attempts without an interception. Two plays later, Barber intercepted QB Jake Delhomme at the Carolina 30-yard line with just over a minute remaining in the half. Three plays after Barber's pick, Gradkowski again tried to go deep, but S Shaun Williams picked off the pass intended for WR Michael Clayton at the six-yard line. The Panthers got on the board on their first possession of the second half as K John Kasay connected on a 28-yard FG. On Tampa Bay's ensuing possession, Gradkowski fumbled and DE Julius Peppers recovered at the Buccaneers 44-yard line. Carolina took a 10-7 lead on the resulting possession as Delhomme found Johnson from four yards out for the score. Following a RB Carnell Williams fumble late in the third quarter, Carolina went up 17-7 as FB Brad Hoover scored on a five-yard TD run. Tampa Bay trimmed the lead to 17-10 on a K Matt Bryant 28-yard FG with 8:32 remaining in the fourth quarter. However, Carolina responded on its next possession as Delhomme hit WR Steve Smith on a 36-yard TD pass to close out the scoring with 3:11 remaining in the contest.

BUCCANEER PLAYOFF HISTORY

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17

TAMPA STADIUM

DECEMBER 29, 1979

The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settle for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

TAMPA STADIUM

JANUARY 6, 1980

In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charle Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into a other field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was interception in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

1981 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 38, TAMPA BAY 0

TEXAS STADIUM

JANUARY 2, 1982

The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

TEXAS STADIUM
JANUARY 9, 1983

For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dextor Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

HOULIHAN'S STADIUM

DECEMBER 28, 1997

In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lion RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies—RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards—the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

LAMBEAU FIELD
JANUARY 4, 1998

The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay actually had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

1999 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

JANUARY 15, 2000

The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6

TRANS WORLD DOME

JANUARY 23, 2000

Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

2000 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3

VETERANS STADIUM

DECEMBER 31, 2000

Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the post-season (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

2001 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9

VETERANS STADIUM

JANUARY 12, 2002

Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added 57 yards rushing.

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

JANUARY 12, 2003

Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

2002 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

TAMPA BAY 27, EAGLES 10
VETERANS STADIUM
JANUARY 19, 2003

Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defensed, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

QUALCOMM STADIUM

JANUARY 26, 2003

Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at age 39 to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders and the league's No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

2005 NFC WILD CARD GAME

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

JANUARY 7, 2006

Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near midfield with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

SIDELINES

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001 from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. With his passing, the Buccaneer family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

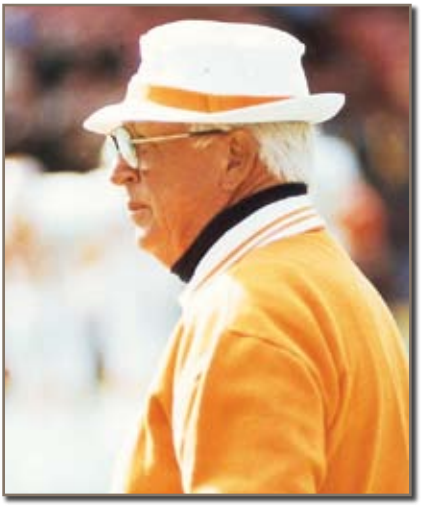

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the lone Hall of Famer in Buccaneer history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). McKay produced outstanding players at nearly every position at USC, including RB Ricky Bell, FB Sam Cunningham, QB Pat Haden, WR Lynn Swann, LB Richard Wood, OT Ron Yary and TE Charles Young. During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettsville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (the former Nancy Jean Hunter) had four children, sons John and Rich and daughters Michele and Terri. Rich now serves as President and General Manager of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

LEE ROY SELMON

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995. The Buccaneers' first draft choice in 1976, Selmon proved to be the most outstanding player to date in team history. Drafted out of Oklahoma where he won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season, Selmon went on to become the cornerstone of the Buccaneers franchise for nearly a decade.

A member of eight All-America teams while with the Sooners, Selmon was an even greater professional. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), Selmon anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career fumbles caused (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equalled only by his generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Since his retirement, Selmon has remained highly-visible in community affairs. In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon took on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. Selmon, who held that spot until 2004, was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

Selmon was born and raised in Eufaula, Okla. He has five brothers and three sisters, including Dewey, who played for the Bucs from 1976-80, and Lucious, who served as the linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Lee Roy and his wife, Claybra, have three children, Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL RING

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

A new era in Tampa Bay sports opened on September 20, 1998, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Chicago Bears, 27-15, in the inaugural event at Raymond James Stadium. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Referred to as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL' by league insiders, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game.

Raymond James Stadium was designed by HOK Sports Facilities Group and constructed under the joint management of Huber, Hunt & Nichols and Metric Constructors. It is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority and includes among its tenants the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League, the University of South Florida football team and college football's Outback Bowl.

The $168.5 million facility was financed by a half-cent sales tax for community investment purposes that was approved by voters on September 3, 1996. A Florida sales tax rebate also funded the stadium construction, as did a portion of a tourist development tax. The remainder of the stadium's finances were provided by Buccaneers Owner/President Malcolm Glazer. Bryan Glazer and Joel Glazer, team executive vice presidents, oversaw stadium design and were responsible for the development of the stadium's unique fan enhancements. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers hope you enjoy Raymond James Stadium throughout the 2007 NFL season and share in the bright future of the team, the stadium and the Tampa Bay community.

TICKET INFORMATION

For the eighth consecutive year, the Buccaneers have sold out Raymond James Stadium to season ticket holders. The Buccaneers Ticket Office is adding names to their season ticket waiting list, which remains one of the largest in the NFL. The ticket office may be reached by phone at (813) 879-2827 or (800) 282-0683, over a TDD line for hearing-impaired guests at (813) 387-6390, and via e-mail at buccaneersticketoffice@buccaneers.nfl.com. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Buccaneers single-game tickets can be found in four price levels, (as shown by the accompanying stadium diagram). Raymond James Stadium is currently sold out through season ticket sales and most sections are not available on a game-by-game basis.

Should any single game tickets become available, they may be purchased through TicketMaster outlets, TicketMaster charge by-phone, and online at TicketMaster.com. If tickets remain available on game day, they will be sold at the Raymond James Stadium box office at the south end of the stadium beginning three hours before kickoff.

AMENITIES AT RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

General Seating After 22 years of watching Buccaneers football from bench seating, Tampa Bay fans now comfortably settle into individual seats, measuring 19"-21" wide and with 32"-33" from one seat back to the next. Overall, Raymond James Stadium holds over 65,000 fans, 50,000 of which are in general seating. There are up to 600 wheelchair-accessible seats located in all areas, not just the end zone. Seats in all sections also feature cupholders.

Club Seats Raymond James Stadium also has over 12,000 club seats, a modern feature that allows fans to experience Buccaneers games and entertain guests in maximum comfort. Club seats are extra-wide and padded and feature prime sideline locations. The seats are accessible from a luxurious, air-conditioned club level that houses restaurants, sports bars, video walls, lounge seating and additional views of the field.

Luxury Suites A total of 195 suites on three floors at mid-level along both sidelines offer absolutely the most luxurious setting to watch a Buccaneers game. Each suite has retractable glass windows, private bar and restroom and televisions that can carry other NFL action. The suites are accessible from private elevators.

Concessions Raymond James Stadium has over 550 points of sale for food, beverages and merchandise, a ratio of one point for every 126 seats. A wide variety of concessions will be available, from hot dogs and sodas to gourmet pizzas and cappuccino.

Restrooms/Services Raymond James Stadium is equipped with 88 restroom locations and a total of 1,073 fixtures. That ratio of one fixture for every 81 fans is an immense improvement in comfort for Buccaneers fans. The ratio for women fans is one fixture for every 70 people, improved from 1 for every 129 in Houlihan's Stadium. There are also five first aid stations, with at least one on each level.

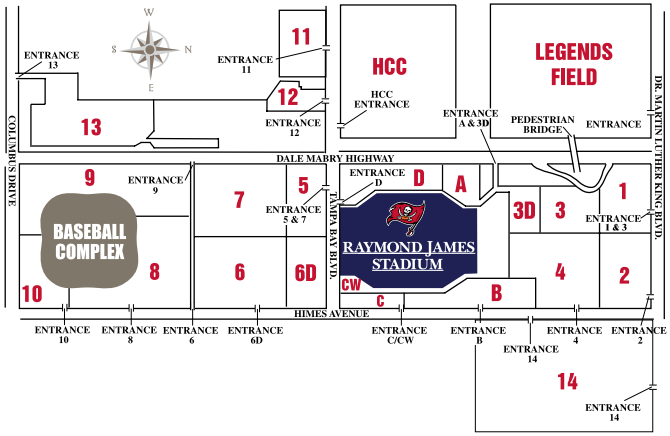

Media Facilities The Raymond James Stadium press box seats up to 225 members of the media in a spacious, comfortable box on the west side upper suite level. The dining area features a multiple-screen video wall, and the box is accessible from an elevator dedicated specifically to the media. The media entrance is located at Dock D on the southwest corner of the stadium.

Escalators An added comfort feature in Raymond James Stadium is a total of 20 escalators. With a bank of four escalators located at each corner ramp and an additional four in the club lounge, Buccaneers fans will find it easier and quicker to navigate the stadium than ever before.

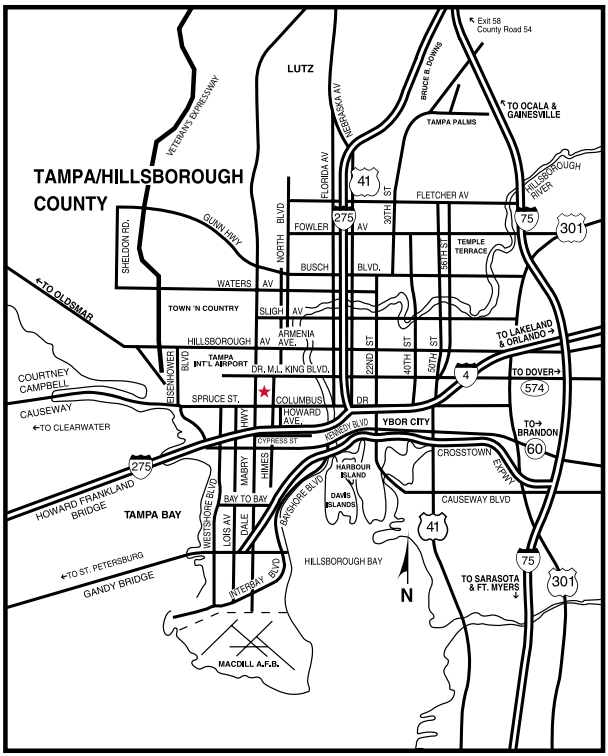

Traffic Control Patrons of events at Raymond James Stadium can be assured that their travel to and from the facility will be as time-efficient as possible. The stadium is outfitted with a comprehensive traffic control system that automatically assists with the progression of traffic in and around the stadium traffic area. The system is comprised of a traffic control center located adjacent to the Tampa Sports Authority offices on the ground level of the south end zone plaza. From there, a crew of over 50 uniformed officers will assist in easing traffic flow. In addition, the system is equipped with 10 cameras and a staff of four constantly monitoring each major intersection surrounding the stadium and altering traffic light cycles accordingly, as well as constant communication with a police and sheriff's helicopter to further update present traffic conditions.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that combine to create the most exciting and enjoyable game atmosphere in the National Football League. Some of the most extraordinary features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

In an effort to expand and enhance the overall game experience at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers constructed a $3 million pirate ship extravaganza called Buccaneers Cove. Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneers Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions and other game enhancements.

The centerpiece of Buccaneers Cove is the majestic, 103-foot long ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s pirate ship, arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the pirate ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. The ship is also complete with working rigging and a crew to raise and lower its huge 32'x50' sails.

The ship's dock serves as an interactive entertainment area from which patrons enjoy the most unique vantage point in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneers Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneers Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Buccaneers Cove was designed by HOK Studio E and constructed by The Nassal Company. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew on game day who are responsible for ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic ship looms out over the the crowd in the north end zone.

• Ship Length	103'
• Ship Weight	43 tons
• Ship Height	78'
• Bow Detail	9'x7'
• Ship Width	32'
• Swords	16' each

The ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

MILLER LITE PARTY DECK

The Buccaneers have added another exciting element to the gameday experience at Raymond James Stadium. The Miller Lite Party Deck is an exclusive area in the south end zone where a select number of fans can watch the game from an awesome view. Fans are eligible to win a ticket to this private oasis where guests may enjoy complimentary Miller products on the deck. Winners receive a ticket and special pass to access the deck and Buc Dollars for stadium goods. All winners must be 21 and above.

BUCVISION

BucVision, which features two massive videoboards at each end of Raymond James Stadium, is arguably the most sophisticated video and scoreboard system in the NFL.

The main attraction of BucVision is the sheer size of the two videoboards, each measuring 24 feet high by 92 feet wide, which is significantly larger than conventional NFL scoring systems.

In addition to viewing plays from three different angles at each end of the field, fans are also treated to highlights from up to six games simultaneously from around the NFL before and after Buccaneer games, essentially transforming Raymond James Stadium into the world's largest sports bar.

THE BEST IN THE NFL

Raymond James Stadium was rated as having the best natural grass field in the National Football League in 2006. The NFL Players Association polled 1,511 active players, who voted Tampa Bay's home stadium the top turf in the NFL. The home of the Buccaneers has also ranked first in the six previous surveys- 1994, 1996, 1998, 2000, 2002 and 2004. Tampa Bay has played in RJS since the start of the 1998 campaign.

Operated by more than 30 technicians, BucVision allowed Tampa Bay to become the first professional team in any sport to show images through high-definition television (HDTV), the wide-screen television images which are revolutionizing the television industry. In addition to showing the network feeds, the system incorporates five in-house cameras that capture the festive atmosphere of Raymond James Stadium patrons.

The system also contains a crystal-clear sound system which enhances the gameday experience for general fans, club seat holders, and luxury suite patrons.

GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

In addition to Buccaneer Cove and BucVision, Raymond James Stadium offers numerous attractions to fans that make the Buccaneers gameday experience unlike any other in professional sports. Some of the attractions include:

- Pre-Game Bands – Eight bands perform for two hours prior to every game.
- Animated Parrot – A "talking parrot" located on the aft of the pirate ship entertains fans prior to the game.
- Pre-Game Ceremony – During the National Anthem, a 125-person crew unfurls the NFL's largest United States Flag across the playing field.
- Face-Painting Pirates – Approximately 30 face-painting pirates stroll in Buccaneer Cove, the concourses and club level throughout the game.
- Buccaneer Battle Flags – Each time the Buccaneers offense advances into the opposition's 'red zone,' red flags that adorn the top of the stadium are raised while a 60-person crew waves red flags throughout the stadium as the pirate ship's cannons are fired.

LIKE HOME: BUCS COMPLETE FIRST YEAR AT NEW HEADQUARTERS

The Buccaneers' new headquarters, a 145,155-square-foot complex with every conceivable advancement related to the game of football, is an NFL landmark. Every player, coach and staff member who left the team's old and outdated facility last summer became better equipped to do their jobs the moment they walked through the front door of the new place.

The main building's entrance, wrought in steel and glass and backlit at night in red, is visually stunning but it is also plainly symbolic. Simply put, everything that goes on through those doors is dedicated to one overriding pursuit.

Football.

The Buccaneers' new facility opened for business in August 2006, just in time for the team's return from training camp. By the end of September, the entire organization had moved over from the former One Buccaneer Place, which had been its home since 1976. There are three full-sized practice fields out back; a 12,000-square-foot weight room in a separate building; a sprawling training area with the most modern tools for the team's medical staff; a 4,000-square-foot team auditorium fronted by an enormous video screen; a video control room that looks like the bridge of a spaceship; dozens of wired meeting rooms; a dedicated draft room, spacious coaches offices; a fully-contained kitchen and dining area; a locker room more than double the size of its predecessor and much, much more. The new One Buccaneer Place also houses all of the front office departments, including human resources, ticket sales, customer service, public relations, information technology, community relations and marketing.

It is, in a word, everything. The Buccaneers have everything they need to pursue the team's ultimate goal of Super Bowl championships.

ROOM TO BREATHE: THE LOCKER ROOM AND PLAYERS LOUNGE

The locker room at the new facility covers 7,000 square feet – more than twice the size of the one it replaced – and looks even more spacious thanks to the vaulted ceilings, subtle lighting and lack of clutter in the middle. The locker room at One Buccaneer Place needed two rows of back-to-back lockers in the middle of the floor to get every player into one, and those rows removed any hope of clear sight lines or walking paths.

The oak paneling and accents are everywhere, giving the room an opulent feel. The carpet, in turn, returns the focus to the team; it is dominated in the middle by a huge versions of the team's logo, measuring about 40 feet from one tip diagonally to the other.

The most noticeable feature of the room is its depth. One can walk into the east end of the locker room, across the hall from an equally cavernous equipment room and feel like you're a Joey Galloway bomb away from the west end, where many of the veterans have set up shop.

The size of the lockers themselves is an improvement, too. Four feet across, these wood-paneled lockers have enough drawers, shelves and hooks to store any equipment a player might need. Each locker is wired for power and the ergonomic chairs that sit in front of each locker can be folded easily and tucked away in a compartment at the bottom of the space.

Each locker is also equipped with a ventilation system and two large vents, one behind the low shelf where shoes are stored and one behind the top shelf where shoulder pads are usually kept. In addition to keeping the lockers smelling fresh, these vents also allow the players' shoes and pads to dry 60% quicker than before.

The locker rooms are supported by a much improved shower and restroom area, as well.

At One Buc Place, up to 90 players often had to share four urinals, four toilets, four sinks and about five working showerheads. The new locker room has eight urinals, seven toilets, 14 sinks and 24 showerheads, all in perfect working order and all utilizing automatic sensors. The showers, for instance, only work if a person is standing right in front of the showerhead. Around the four walls of the beautifully-tiled shower room, where 16 of the 24 showerheads are located, there are also 12 mounted dispensers of shampoo and shower gel. The showerheads are equipped with high-pressure, adjustable nozzles.

Sitting side-by-side between the shower and the sinks are a tiled steam room and a wood-paneled sauna. The sinks are set in black marble and set in front of long mirrors. Players can choose between towels and mounted hand dryers after using the sinks.

Gone, too, are the days when players had to eat, play dominoes or read the newspaper at their lockers, or some other stolen corner of the building. Walk through the south doors of the locker room and down a short hall and you're in another expansive, wood-paneled room: the Players Lounge.

The lounge sits on the back edge of the building, facing the practice field with 27 windows stretching up to its high, vaulted ceiling. The room is filled with two black leather couches and 14 black leather chairs, several of them facing the gigantic entertainment center along the east wall. The entertainment center is fitted with five flat screen TVs, one very large one surrounded by four smaller ones. It also houses a sophisticated sound system, which is hooked up to speakers around the room.

For players to relax, the lounge is equipped with two pool tables, a bank of free-standing video games and tables at which to play dominoes or other games.

WIRED FOR EFFICIENCY: THE VIDEO EDITING SUITE

Everything in the Buccaneers' new video department, located across a broad swath of the second floor of the team's brand new facility, is wired for ease and efficiency. Every likely request by a coach or player has been planned for in advance.

In the main video area, which is raised a foot or so from the rest of the second floor to allow for intricate cabling under the floor, a long, three-sided deck of editing machines forms the central control area. Here, five editing stations (there were three at old One Buc) allow for the rapid cut-up of game and practice footage. Every play in practice or a game is categorized and entered into the system, where it is instantly available to coaches and players all across the building.

In the video room at the old headquarters, this control center was surrounded by shelves holding hundreds of tapes, the main library for any footage a coach might want to view or combine into a highlight reel. In the new facility, there is a separate room for storage of current footage, as well as the department's servers. There is also a another separate room, located just across the hall, that holds 22 long shelves to be used for storage of tapes from many years past.

Off the main video floor is a fourth room, and it doesn't take a cynic to notice that this room is about the exact same size and shape as the department's lone room back at One Buccaneer Place. This room has a shelf running around the circumference of the room, on which is arranged various clumps of equipment. This room, this doppelganger for where the video team used to perform all of its work, is solely for the purpose of such side projects as printing labels, repairing equipment and stripping cable.

At One Buc, all these activities went on inside that little rectangle, wherever a piece of real estate could be found.

A PLACE OF HEALING: THE TRAINING ROOM

Todd Toriscelli, the Bucs' head trainer since 1997, and team physician Joe Diaco are very experienced veterans in their fields, and each insists that the team's new medical area is the best in the NFL by a long shot.

There is, for instance, a huge physician's room, replacing a thin closet that served that purpose in the old building. Now when Diaco and the team's other attending physicians visit, they can see a player privately, examine him as thoroughly as necessary and provide treatment in a space that, alone, is as big as the entire training area at One Buccaneer Place. And that's only a small corner of the new facility's medical footprint.

The physician's room is off to the right of Toriscelli's office, next to the expansive rehab area, which looks like a slightly miniaturized version of the facility's already legendary weight room. That, too, is something completely new for the training staff. At One Buccaneer Place, the rehab area was also known as "the weight room." Now, says Toriscelli, the medical staff is completely self-contained in terms of the equipment it needs to return injured players to health.

Players who need aquatic rehab can do it right on site, in the already very popular hydro room. The team has gone from three metal tubs to three large pools – one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. This pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill.

The hydro room is to the left of Toriscelli's office, past additional large offices for his assistants. In the middle of all of this is the main training area, with a dozen large taping tables and all sorts of equipment. The old training area at One Buc could fit into this middle space several times over. The whole place has a quiet, professional atmosphere, which is a function of its enormous space.

A REAL STRENGTH: THE WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at the Bucs' new headquarters happens to be its own separate building, covering 16,000 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway. The very first time it opened its doors for an official team workout, two-thirds of the team was waiting to use it. That would not have been remotely possible at the old headquarters.

There are 60-70 different types of machines, about 30 of which are completely new to the Bucs' inventory, and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

In the past, as the Bucs have moved from one coaching staff to another and one strength and conditioning leader to another, the weight room's overriding philosophy has changed. One strength and conditioning coach might favor free weights over machines and stock only those; the next coach might believe in the opposite and clear out the weights to make room for new machines.

The Bucs' current program, under Mike Morris and Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach Kurt Shultz, doesn't believe in limiting its scope to one of those two philosophies. Tampa Bay players have access to weights and machines, and to coaches who are eager to devise specific regimens that will work for specific individuals.

The team also wants to encourage strength training by giving the weight room a very inviting atmosphere. As such, it has been fitted with a sensational sound system, a must in any workout area. Also, the wall that faces the field is dominated by six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year. There is a strong air-conditioning system, of course, and the room's many windows keeps the place bright and uplifting.

AT YOUR FINGERTIPS: STATE-OF-THE-ART MEETING ROOMS

The NFL is a fully-wired world these days, and that concept is executed to perfection by the state-of-the-art technology that traces through the Buccaneers' headquarters like a nerve system.

That is certainly true in the player meeting rooms, which occupy a good portion of the ground floor, stretching around two sides of the enormous locker room. Coaches and players have gone from cramped, multi-purpose rooms with outdated equipment to spacious, specific areas outfitted with an incredibly efficient system for the sharing of information.

It starts in the back of each room, where a futuristic-looking desk called the Coach's Command Station is situated. It might be the most aptly-named piece of equipment in the building, because it looks as if it was lifted right from the bridge of a Star Trek cruiser. It doesn't have force fields or phasers, but it does allow a coach to run his meeting at warp speed.

The Coach's Command Station is fitted with five possible methods of output: a Betacam deck, a document camera, a DVD/VCR combo deck, an XOS PC link and a guest PC hookup. Seated behind his curved and compact desk, the coach controls all of these possibilities with a single remote and can flick quickly from one to the next. Whatever he chooses to share with his players is instantly displayed on a huge screen at the front of the room.

By the coach's right hand in his command station is a gray console with a small screen showing his touch options. The universal remote, set up in a way familiar to the coaches from the systems they've worked on for years, is also by his right hand. With these two devices, he can quickly take his players through any splice of footage he needs them to see, from practices, Buc games or opponents' games.

The system already includes every game played in the NFL over the last four years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Dave Levy's crew. Every practice is shot by several video workers on lifts located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his men.

Sometimes, too, a coach wishes to draw up a few Xs and Os. For generations, that's been done on a blackboard or a greaseboard. Now, with a flick of a switch, a coach can whip up any diagram while seated at his command station and share it instantly with his players.

That's possible through the aforementioned document camera, which looks like a futuristic cross between a desk lamp and a telephone. The lead arm of the doc cam is aimed down at the coach's desk, and anything slid underneath it is projected with extreme clarity on the same huge screen used to watch cutups.

Every coach also has his own spacious office on the second floor, where he can access the same cut-up footage and assemble reels of whatever subject he wishes. Those reels can then be accessed virtually anywhere in the football side of the building.

The wonders of the new One Buccaneer Place go beyond these few areas, spilling out, for instance, into a high-tech field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a state-of-the-art studio for press conferences. What is it's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its wells, but suffice it to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA BAY

SUPER BOWL XLIII

The Super Bowl returns to the Tampa Bay area on February 1, 2009, when Raymond James Stadium will host Super Bowl XLIII.

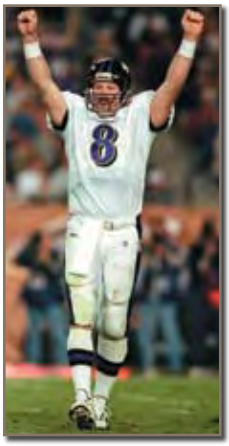

This will mark the fourth time that Tampa has hosted the world's premier sporting event, and second time that the game will be played at Raymond James Stadium. Super Bowls XVIII and XXV were both played in Tampa Stadium, and Super Bowl XXXV was held at Raymond James Stadium.

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning their first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defensed against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

Current Buccaneer CB Ronde Barber's twin brother, RB Tiki Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins's pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. However, WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's Run-and-Shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded FGs, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

ABOUT RAYMOND JAMES

In 1962, Raymond James was founded as a different kind of financial services firm. While other organizations were simply selling stocks or mutual funds, the company was created to focus on financial planning for the individual. This approach based investment decisions on a full understanding of each client's unique needs and goals, enabling informed choices to be made about investment alternatives that would help meet those specific personal objectives. The firm has grown into a respected, multinational company with distinct business units that serve a variety of clients, from individuals and small business owners to municipalities and major corporations. However, Raymond James' founding commitment to individual solutions from independent advisors remains.

INDIVIDUAL SOLUTIONS FROM INDEPENDENT ADVISORS

Having a long-term outlook and thoroughly preparing before taking action. Developing a process to guide decision making so that discipline outweighs emotion. Building a solid, diversified foundation to mitigate risk and perpetuate lasting growth. As a pioneer of financial planning, Raymond James has long been a proponent of these principles and strongly believes they are key to any investor's long-term success. They are also the ideas upon which Raymond James was established. Raymond James is committed to growth, but not at the expense of lasting stability. The firm is dedicated to growing its businesses, but only after conducting thorough research, developing a strategy and examining the potential outcome of any decision. And the company is focused on maintaining a diversified businesses – one comprised of the complementary operations listed below.

FOUR CORE BUSINESS UNITS

Private Client Group

Representing nearly two-thirds of total firm revenues, this network of support associates and financial advisors – who can choose from five ways of affiliating with the firm – provides investment services to more than 1.8 million accounts throughout the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom. Services include:

- Financial planning,
- Securities and insurance brokerage,
- Cash management, and
- Trust services.

Capital Markets Group

Made up of Institutional Sales, Investment Banking, Syndicate, Equity Research, Equity and Fixed Income Trading, Public Finance, and the Raymond James Tax Credit Funds, Raymond James' Capital Markets Group offers:

- Trading for nearly 1,500 active accounts for U.S., Canadian and European institutions, pension funds and municipalities;
- Consultation on public and private financings for corporations, municipalities and other targeted clients;
- Merger and acquisition advice;
- Marketing, distribution and pricing support in lead- and co-managed equity underwritings;
- Nationally recognized research on over 850 U.S. and Canadian companies;
- Market-making in more than 340 common stocks; and
- Trading in corporate, municipal, government agency and mortgage-backed bonds.

Asset Management Group

Managing more than $37.4 billion of assets for both institutional and individual investors, Raymond James' distinctive asset management platforms offer more than 70 investment objectives and access to a variety of fee-based accounts that allow advisors to choose solutions best suited for their clients. Platforms include:

- Eagle Asset Management, which manages $13 billion for high-net-worth investors, pension and profit sharing plans, retirement funds, foundations, and variable annuity and mutual fund portfolios;
- Heritage Asset Management, which oversees $8.9 billion – managed through two money market accounts and eight equity and fixed income mutual funds;
- Asset Management Services, consisting of Raymond James Consulting Services and Freedom, which employs sophisticated, institutional-quality programs to manage $15.5 billion;
- Raymond James Capital, a merchant banking fund making private equity investments; and
- Ballast Point Venture Partners, which manages a venture capital fund.

Raymond James Bank

Complementing the firm's more traditional brokerage business, Raymond James Bank offers services nationwide through financial advisors affiliated with the company's broker/dealers. Offerings include:

- FDIC-insured accounts totaling more than $4.6 billion in deposits;
- Customized CDs and sweep accounts for cash portions of Raymond James brokerage accounts;
- Direct account access through raymondjamesbank.com, ATM networks, TeleDirect® toll-free telephone banking, VISA® debit cards and the Raymond James Bank Client Service Desk;
- Residential, consumer and commercial lending programs; and
- Investments in bank participations and corporate loan syndications representing over $3 billion in loans outstanding.

COMMITTED TO THE COMMUNITY

Raymond James is distinguished for its commitment to serving the communities in which its associates live and work. In fact, the firm has been recognized for its philanthropy and community support by such organizations as the National Business Committee for the Arts and the United Way of Tampa Bay.

In addition to having the naming rights to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' stadium, charitable programs have also resulted from the firm's relationship with the team. For example, Kicking for Kids is a program that pairs financial gifts from Raymond James to a children's hospital in each city where the Buccaneers kick a field goal during their regular and post season games. Since 2000, a combined total of $88,250 has been raised for children's hospitals around the country.

Over the past four years the Buccaneers and Raymond James have also worked to "sack hunger" by stocking Tampa bay area food banks before the Thanksgiving holiday. Since the program's inception, Raymond James – in coordination with the Buccaneers and other corporate sponsors – has collected over 102 tons of nonperishable and canned food items.

Most recently, Raymond James partnered with the Buccaneers to host The Buccaneer Wives Holiday Fashion Show in downtown Tampa. The event raised more than $42,000, all of which was donated to benefit the St. Joseph's Hospital Cancer Program in Tampa.

THE TOM AND MARY JAMES/RAYMOND JAMES FINANCIAL ART COLLECTION

One of the Southeast's largest private art collections is housed at the Raymond James International Headquarters in St. Petersburg. More than 95% privately owned by Chairman and CEO Tom James and his wife Mary, the collection consists of nearly 1,850 pieces and provides associates and clients with a rare environment for conducting business. A virtual tour of some of the collection is available on the firm's Web site at raymondjames.com; on-site tours can also be arranged.

"The Invocation," a bronze sculpture by Buck McCain, is part of the Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection and is featured outside the Raymond James Financial Center in St. Petersburg.

BUCCANEERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers remained champions in the community during the 2006 season. Buccaneers players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff members all joined the team to positively impact those in the Tampa Bay area.

The following includes highlights from the 2006 season and information about the number of lives touched by the team through far-reaching initiatives.

2006 YEAR IN REVIEW

- More than 35,000 fans got up-close and personal with their favorite Buccaneers at FanFest
- $12,000 was donated in support of youth football
- 10 high school coaches were recognized for excellence
- Nearly 3,500 students were impacted by a Buccaneers' message or visit to their school
- Almost 500 families received food during the holidays
- 40 Metropolitan Ministries families picked up Buccaneers team apparel and clothing items and several hundred items were distributed through the center's Outreach & Prevention program
- 100 parents were recognized for great achievements
- More than 1,000 local children received toys collected by Buccaneers players in exchange for their autographs during Metropolitan Ministries "Sports Day"
- Nearly 1,000 kids learned football from several starting players who each hosted their own training camp
- 20 players and coaches hosted more than 4,000 youths from area non-profits at home games
- More than 600 children in need celebrated holidays with the Bucs
- More than 400 patients at local children's hospitals received get well wishes from the Bucs

ROOKIE CLUB

The Buccaneers Rookie Club was established during the 2001 season as a way to involve the Buccaneers rookie class in charitable appearances throughout the season to help them learn more about their new community.

In 2006, the Rookie Club hosted a bowling outing for youngsters on the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Hillsborough County waiting list, celebrated Halloween at The Children's Home, visited patients at All Children's Hospital and sang holiday carols for residents of Westminster Palms Retirement Home. Each Thanksgiving, Buccaneers Rookie Club members distribute dinners at the Metropolitan Ministries Holiday Tent for those who receive assistance during the holidays.

T Jeremy Trueblood passed out holiday dinners at the Metropolitan Ministries Holiday Tent in November 2006. Each Thanksgiving, Buccaneers Rookie Club members distribute meals to those who receive assistance during the holidays.

STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD (SAB)

During the 1999 offseason, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Community Relations Department formed their inaugural Student Advisory Board (SAB). While this team of about 40 motivated high schoolers may not appear on the roster, the SAB is an integral part of the Buccaneers community outreach efforts.

The Buccaneers created this council, comprised of high school sophomores, juniors and seniors, in an effort to bring together intelligent, energetic and motivated students to perform community service projects, create Buccaneers spirit in their schools and develop leadership skills in preparation for continuing education.

All SAB members are required to attend Buccaneers home games either as team representatives or enthusiastic fans. At each game, half of the council members work as customer service representatives in the East and West Club Lounges of Raymond James Stadium, while the rest of the members enjoy the opportunity to relax and be fans for the day.

During their one-year term, SAB members also have the opportunity to tour Raymond James Stadium, learn from distinguished guest speakers at monthly meetings and participate in Buccaneers charitable events.

This year, SAB members served as volunteers at the Buccaneers Women's Organization Fall Festival, The Children's Home Halloween Party, Gatorade Junior Training Camp and Metropolitan Ministries. SAB students also participated in the Susan G. Komen Foundation Race for the Cure, as well as the American Heart Association Heartwalk and a beach cleanup on the Dunedin Causeway.

THE GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

The Glazer Family Foundation is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the West Central Florida region. The Foundation works with established not-for-profit organizations that work with youth and families to help identify and create programs that support positive social and economic development within our communities.

The Foundation has contributed nearly $3 million in programs, grants, tickets and merchandise to the Bay area. In 2007, the Foundation will continue to support youth through community programs and corporate partnerships.

CHEERING YOU ON!

An ongoing program that provides all pediatric patients admitted to seven area hospitals with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers stuffed teddy bear and activity book. The Foundation has distributed more than 211,000 bears and books in West Central Florida.

YOUTH WITH PROMISE

During each NFL season, the Foundation hosts 100 Youth with Promise at all Buccaneers home games. More than 8,000 youth representing 100 organizations from the Bay area have been rewarded with free game tickets, food and car flags. The youth receive this privilege based on achieving goals of incentive programs implemented by community agencies.

MAKE READING YOUR GOAL

Last summer, the Foundation continued its reading program, which provided area children with a free Buccaneer bookmark when they checked out a book from their local public libraries. Over the past seven years, the Foundation has provided over 1 million bookmarks to libraries throughout seven counties. The bookmarks, which highlight a different Buccaneer player on each successive bookmark, have featured FB Mike Alstott, CB Ronde Barber, LB Derrick Brooks, WR Michael Clayton, Head Coach Jon Gruden, CB Brian Kelly, WR Carnell Williams and QB Chris Simms.

BACKPACK IT BACK-TO-SCHOOL

In its seventh year, the Foundation's Back-to-School program donated backpacks to 35 different organizations throughout Hillsborough, Pinellas, Pasco, Polk and Orange counties. A total of 10,500 backpacks filled with school supplies and Buccaneers merchandise have been distributed. Some recipient organizations include NFL YET Centers, Boys & Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay and Salvation Army.

THE GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

VISION SCREENING DONATION

This past spring, the Foundation presented vision screening equipment valued at more than $50,000 to the Pasco and Sarasota Counties' school systems. The Foundation will continue to provide screening equipment to two new school districts each year until every district in the Tampa Bay area receives the needed support to ensure that children can learn in an environment where vision problems are not an obstacle.

TOYS FOR TOTS DRIVE

The Foundation teamed up with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve (USMC) for the annual Toys for Tots drive last season. The event celebrated 30 years of the Buccaneers and the USMC partnering for the Toys for Tots program. The Marines collected thousands of toys from the generous Buccaneers fans at the Atlanta game in 2006.

"CAN HUNGER" FOOD DRIVE

For the seventh year, the Foundation teamed up with Raymond James and four Bay area food banks to help "CAN HUNGER" at the Buccaneers game against the Redskins. This annual food drive has contributed more than 162,000 pounds of food to assist community food banks.

TAMPA BAY SPORTS COMMISSION

During the 2006 season, the Foundation donated $62,000 to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission for its support of amateur athletic activities in Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties. The Foundation donates this fixed sum following each season and has contributed a total of $759,500 to the commission.

TEACHING TOOLS FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY SCHOOLS

For the fourth consecutive season, the Foundation teamed up with Teaching Tools for Hillsborough County Schools to conduct a school supply drive. Representatives from Teaching Tools for Hillsborough County Schools, an organization which provides classroom materials free of charge to teachers, collected school supplies as fans entered the stadium to watch the Buccaneers take on the Eagles. Over $15,000 worth of school supplies have been collected and distributed back into the Tampa Bay community in the three years of the program.

HOLIDAY SHOPPING SPREE

In 2006, the Glazer Family Foundation helped kids at The Spring of Tampa Bay enjoy the holiday season. Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders escorted 17 kids through a local store where they were able to select holiday gifts for themselves and their families.

THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers Women's Organization consists of wives, fiancées and girlfriends of Buccaneers players, coaches and front-office staff members.

Throughout the year, the Women's Organization participates in charitable functions and community service projects in the Bay area.

Each year, the Women's Organization holds a Fall Festival at Raymond James Stadium for children of local non-profit agencies. At the festival, children make arts and crafts, run through football drills on the stadium's field, get their faces painted and receive goodie bags. Annually, Women's Organization members also sort food at Metropolitan Ministries during the Thanksgiving season, stuff stockings for children in need, read to elementary-aged children as part of a literacy program and model in a fashion show to raise money for a local hospital. In 2007, the Buccaneers Women's Organization took to the fashion runway to raise money for St. Joseph's Women's Hospital Cancer Program.

Many women have made the Buccaneers Women's Organization a force in the community. Those who have participated include: Kiersten Allen, Nicole Alstott, Jacqueline Arteaga, Claudia Barber, DeeAnn Becht, Bethany Bidwell, Jeanne Bisaccia, Carol Brooks, Melissa Bryant, Ashley Buenning, Pam Foster, Cindy Gruden, Stephanie Hickey, Lourdes Hilliard, Cathy Kelly, Jaimi Hovan, Dawn Kromer, Katy McCown, Ann Marie Moore, Barbara Muir, Melissa Pittman, Danielle Simms, Chris Toriscelli and Natalie Wade.

BUCCANEERS PRESEASON TELEVISION

CHRIS MYERS

JP PETERSON

WFLA-TV will continue its Fanatical Bucs coverage in 2007, with all four of the local preseason broadcasts shown in dazzling High Definition. Buccaneer fans with High Definition television sets can tune to WFLA-DT Channel 8.1 to see all the action in wide screen with stunning, lifelike clarity. Cable subscribers are advised to check local listing for HD service detail. Standard Definition viewers will also benefit with higher resolution video and improved audio.

Emmy-Award winning broadcaster Chris Myers will enter his fourth season in the broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man during the preseason. A versatile member of FOX Sports programming, the Emmy-award winning broadcaster has handled play-by-play and sideline duties for the NFL on FOX, as well as serving as host of FOX's NASCAR pre-race show and as a sideline reporter during the Major League Baseball postseason. He also hosts his own national radio show called The Drive on FOX Sports Radio, and hosts his own television show, CMI, on FOX Sports Net.

During an 11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with a number of programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers began his career at age 16 in Miami when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard.

JP Peterson will continue to serve as the game day anchor for the Buccaneers preseason broadcasts where he also served from 1997-99. Peterson will handle the sideline duties for pre-game, halftime and post-game interviews. Peterson is the lead sports anchor for News Channel 8 WFLA-TV, Tampa Bay's NBC Affiliate and has been with the station since 1999. Among his duties on WFLA-TV, Peterson also hosts the station's Sunday Sports Extra show. The show was named the Best Sportscast in the State of Florida by the Associated Press, and Peterson also earned a SPJ Award (Society Professional Journalist) for his role on the show. Peterson has won numerous awards, including the prestigious Edward R. Murrow award for sports reporting, multiple AP awards and one of his features was recognized for a prestigious Emmy award.

Former Tampa Bay Buccaneer defensive coordinator Doug Graber will be returning as analyst for WFLA's coverage of the Buccaneers. Known as the "Titan of the Telestrator," Graber has been covering the Buccaneers since 1998. After 18 years as a college coach, seven as a head coach, Graber entered the NFL, coaching five different defensive backs to Pro Bowls. In 2000, Graber became head coach of NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy, winning the World Bowl and Coach of the Year in 2003.

Graber has served as telecast analyst for ESPN's College Football for the past 10 years, while also serving as the USF Bulls booth analyst.

NewsChannel 8 WFLA-TV will also produce a one hour pre-game show, Bucs Bonus, leading up to every game. The show reviews the previous week's contest and will look ahead to the upcoming opponent. In addition, Sunday Sports Extra will air weekly at 11:25 p.m. featuring JP Peterson, Dave Reynolds, Dan Lucas and from The Tampa Tribune, Roy Cummings.

News Channel 8
Your Official Bucs Station

BUCCANEERS RADIO NETWORK

In its fourth year, Clear Channel's US 103.5 FM will serve as the flagship station for the Buccaneers Radio Network. US 103.5 will broadcast all Buccaneers games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. Clear Channel will also simulcast Buccaneers football on its sister station, 620 WDAE-AM.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the 19th straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Deckerhoff's 19 years of service with the Buccaneers currently ranks as the fifth-longest in the NFL. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball since 1979.

Deckerhoff is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a 10-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Joining the Buccaneers Radio Network in his first season as color analyst will be former Tampa Bay Buccaneers tight end Dave Moore. Following 15 seasons in the NFL and a Pro Bowl appearance in 2006, Moore will join Deckerhoff in the booth.

Moore spent 13 seasons with the Buccaneers, the most of any player in team history. The seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) started his first season with the Dolphins in 1992 before joining the Buccaneers. Following a stint in Buffalo during the 2002 campaign, Moore returned to the Bay area and finished his NFL career with 207 receptions for 2,028 receiving yards and 28 touchdowns.

T.J. Rives begins his third season as Tampa Bay's sideline reporter. Rives currently serves as the radio play-by-play voice for Men's Basketball at the University of South Florida and has hosted radio and television programs in the Tampa Bay area since 1992. Rives currently hosts a national college sports show on XM Satellite Radio.

Buccaneers fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers Radio Network. Deckerhoff's descriptions of the action and all of the attending pre-game, halftime and post-game action are simulcast on radio stations throughout the state.

Once again, Orlando fans can catch all the Buccaneers game day action on WQTM, 740 AM. A full list of Buccaneers Radio Network affiliates is in the box below.

CHEERLEADERS

They have charmed fans from the sidelines and cheered the Buccaneers to many victories, including a Super Bowl Championship. Since 1976, the Buccaneers Cheerleaders have captivated audiences worldwide with their energetic and contemporary routines.

The squad includes local athletes, businesswomen, mothers and full-time college students – who still find time to make hundreds of appearances every year for both non-profit organizations and corporate events.

The cheerleaders are ambassadors for the Buccaneers, performing throughout the United States and internationally. Following the 2006 season, the Buccaneers Cheerleaders traveled to military bases across the Pacific as part of the Armed Forces Entertainment tour to bring Buccaneers spirit to those serving our country and to thank the troops for their continued service to America.

Sandy Charboneau

Cheerleading/Mascot Coordinator

Sandy Charboneau enters her 14th season overall with the Buccaneers Cheerleaders. She spent her first seven seasons with the team performing as a member of the cheerleading squad. Charboneau, who boasts more than 20 years of cheerleading and dance experience, prepares the squad's pre-game and sideline dance routines, and manages its day-to-day operations. Each year, Charboneau searches for beautiful and dynamic candidates to entertain Buccaneers fans at each home game. She is committed to spreading Buccaneers spirit around the Bay area through community and corporate appearances. Charboneau also manages the team mascot, Captain Fear, and the Pewter Pirates, a crewe that invades the Buccaneers' end zone each time the team scores a touchdown. Additionally, she directs the Junior Cheerleaders, a cheerleading clinic for young cheerleaders that concludes with a performance at a Buccaneers Halftime Show.

For more information about the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders and Captain Fear, please visit www.buccaneers.com or call (813) 870-2700.

BUCCANEERS.COM

THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS' HOME ON THE WEB

Since its launch in 1999, Buccaneers.com has emerged as the definitive source for information, entertainment, video, photography, game coverage and locker-room access regarding the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2007, a new Buccaneers.com was launched to put the team on the cutting-edge of internet sports coverage and provide more direct access to the site's most popular features.

Buccaneers.com hosts updated news, video and photos, contests, interactive opportunities and a fan message board. Visit the site and watch Head Coach Jon Gruden's weekly press conference stream live each Monday.

Buccaneers.com remains the only source of up-to-the-minute information for Buccaneers fans.

2007 TRAINING CAMP

For the sixth consecutive season, the Buccaneers' training camp will be held at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex in Lake Buena Vista, Florida.

Tampa Bay is the first and only NFL team to conduct training camp at the sports complex at Walt Disney World Resort. Prior to the 2002 training camp, the Buccaneers trained at the University of Tampa from 1987-2001. Disney's complex, which is approximately one hour east of Tampa, provides the Buccaneers with practice fields, locker room, training room and many other first-class facilities.

DATES: The Buccaneers will report to training camp on Thursday, July 26 and begin practices on Friday, July 27. The club is scheduled to break camp on Thursday, August 16 following a morning practice. All dates and times are subject to change.

PRACTICES: While Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex has a daily admission for its events, Buccaneer practices at training camp will be free to all fans and open to the public.

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials for training camp, go to www.wdwpress.com/bucs.

MEDIA PARKING: The sports complex includes ample parking in excess of more than 3,500 spaces. Media parking will be available on a first-come, first-served basis with a parking pass in the front two rows of the parking lot. All parking locations are free of charge. The main lot offers handicap-accessible spaces closest to the sports complex main walkway.

DIRECTIONS TO DISNEY'S WIDE WORLD OF SPORTS COMPLEX

• Traveling East on I-4

Take I-4 East to Exit 62 (World Dr. North). Exit right to Osceola Parkway. Take a right on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of the main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

• Traveling West on I-4

Take I-4 West to Exit 65 (Osceola Parkway West). Take a left on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

• From the Orlando International Airport

Take 417 South to Walt Disney World and take Exit 3 (Osceola Parkway West). Go over I-4 onto Disney property and then take a left on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of the main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

DIRECTIONS TO THE FOOTBALL FIELDS AFTER ENTERING THE COMPLEX

Media may get from the parking lot to the field by walking along the main sidewalk past the ballpark and the Milk House to the sports fields. Media may get from the parking lot to the press room by walking along the main sidewalk and taking a left into the ballpark. (There will be an open gate directly across from the main entrance to the All Star Cafe). The opening in the gate is adjacent to an elevator. Take the elevator to the fourth floor and the press box is just ahead to the right.

To get from the press box to the sports fields, take the elevator back down to the second floor. Exit the elevator and walk outside the ballpark gate. Walk past the ballpark and the All Star Cafe and then past the Milk House. The fields are down the stairs and directly ahead.

IN MEMORIAM
STEPHANIE BYARS, 1971-2007

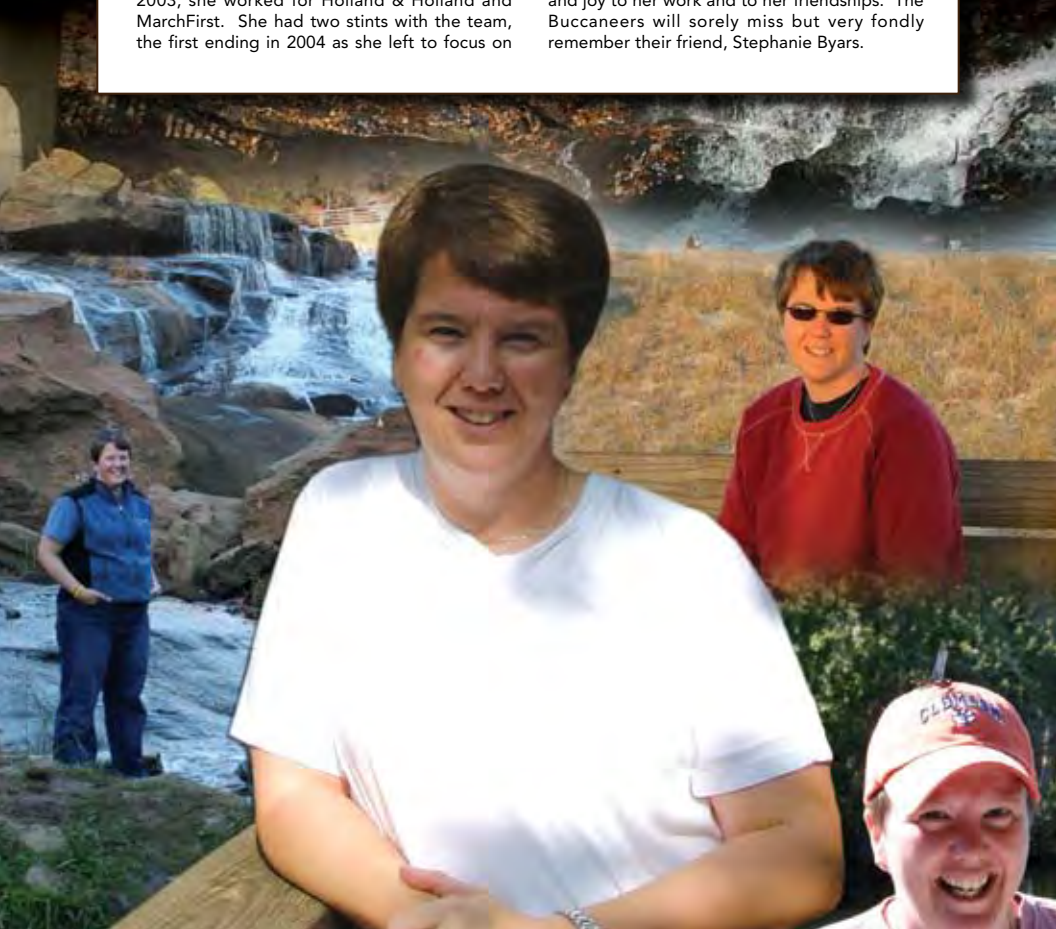

Stephanie Byars, friend, artist and valued member of the Buccaneers family, passed away on July 2, 2007 after a long and courageous battle with cancer. The 2007 Tampa Bay Buccaneers Media Guide is dedicated to her memory.

Stephanie, a graphic artist, spent four years with the Buccaneers and made significant contributions to the team's publications, advertising efforts, stadium signage and web site design. In the summer of 2007, the team launched a new and upgraded version of Buccaneers.com based largely on her design work. Each day, tens of thousands of Buccaneer fans witness her artistic achievements on the site; in this way, Buccaneers.com remains as a tribute to Stephanie and her contributions to the team.

Stephanie graduated from Winthrop University with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Graphic Design. Before joining the Buccaneers in 2003, she worked for Holland & Holland and MarchFirst. She had two stints with the team, the first ending in 2004 as she left to focus on her health. With the cancer temporarily under control, Stephanie agreed to return in 2005, to the Buccaneers' delight. Her previous design for Buccaneers.com had won awards for Best Web Site Design in 2003 and 2004, and her input was valued for the new site design and numerous other projects.

Stephanie will long be remembered for her warm and caring manner, her passion for her work and her generosity of spirit. Perhaps most of all she will be remembered for her courage. Facing a rare and baffling form of cancer, she fought for every day of her life, and though she ultimately had too few of them to satisfy her friends and loved ones, she inspired everyone she knew with her bravery and optimism. Surely, her strong-willed efforts to overcome her own cancer have helped the search for an effective treatment for future sufferers.

As befitting her occupation, Stephanie truly had an artist's soul. She brought color, beauty and joy to her work and to her friendships. The Buccaneers will sorely miss but very fondly remember their friend, Stephanie Byars.
