What it takes to be No.1

by Vince Lombardi

You've got to pay the price.

"Winning is not a sometime thing; it's an all-the-time thing. You don't win once in a while, you don't do things right once in a while, you do them right all the time. Winning is a habit. Unfortunately, so is losing.

"There is no room for second place. There is only one place in my game and that is first place. I have finished second twice in my time at Green Bay and I don't ever want to finish second again. There is a second place bowl game, but it is a game for losers played by losers. It is and always has been an American zeal to be first in anything we do and to win and to win and to win.

"Every time a football player goes out to ply his trade he's got to play from the ground up—from the soles of his feet right up to his head. Every inch of him has to play. Some guys play with their heads. That's O.K. You've got to be smart to be No. 1 in any business. But more important, you've got to play with your heart—with every fiber of your body. If you're lucky enough to find a guy with a lot of head and a lot of heart, he's never going to come off the field second.

"Running a football team is no different from running any other kind of organization—an army, a political party, a business. The principles are the same. The object is to win—to beat the other guy. Maybe that sounds hard or cruel. I don't think it is.

"It's a reality of life that men are competitive and the most competitive games draw the most competitive men. That's why they're there—to compete. They know the rules and the objective when they get in the game. The objective is to win—fairly, squarely, within the rules—but to win.

In 1967 Smith's receptions were the most ever in the NFL by a Tight End and his 12 touchdown catches tied him for leadership in most TD receptions by a Tight End with Mike Ditka, who caught 12 for the Bears in 1961. It also tied him with teammate Charley Taylor for the Redskin mark, 12. Smith's second place finish to Taylor was the closest a Tight End has ever come to winning the pass receiving title. He is the third tight or closed receiver ever to finish in the top ten with his two consecutive finishes. The others to finish in the top ten have been Tight Ends Mike Ditka (four times) and Pete Retzlaff (three times).

Johnny Morris (93), Mike Ditka (75) and Jon Arnett (25) for 193 receptions in 1964 was the former high.

Charley Taylor — Wide Receiver — 6:03 — 210

6th Year Arizona State University Born: Sept. 28, 1941, Grand Prairie, Tex.

Notable: His 53 receptions on way to 1964 Rookie of Year honors set new NFL record for most receptions by a running back in the NFL.

Became Redskin: Dec. 2, 1963. Redskins No. 1 draft choice for 1964.

Pro Career: 1964 Rookie of the Year, first Redskin to win this honor. First rookie since 1943 to be in top ten, rushing and receiving—6th rushing; 8th receiving. All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection first four years in the league, Taylor won the pass receiving title for 1966, catching 72 passes for 1119 yards and 12 touchdowns. He repeated in 1967 as top NFL receiver with 70 for 990 yards and 9 TDS. The 72 receptions tied the Redskin season record held by Mitchell. Taylor was part of the "big switch" midway through the 1966 season. The Redskins' finest running back was moved to split-end. The switch came in the seventh game against St. Louis. It was late in the first quarter that Taylor surprised and left his halfback post and went outside. Before the switch, from his halfback spot, Taylor caught 18 passes for 348 yards and 4 scores. Seven games later, he finished as the league leader. His 12 TDs by receptions tied him with Hugh "Bones" Taylor for most touchdowns by receptions for a Redskin and his total of 15 set a new Redskin touchdown mark for a season. Against Dallas in the first game, Taylor caught 11 passes to tie Mitchell's mark for most receptions in a game. He caught passes for more than 100 yards in five games. He had 4 in 1967.

The 1-2-4 finish by Taylor, Smith and Mitchell marked the first time in the history of the NFL that three receivers on the same team finished that high, and the combined 197 receptions was the most by a three-some in the top-finishers, ever. The pass receiving title went down to the final game of the season as the four battled back and forth to the leadership throughout the last half of the campaign. In fact, Taylor and Smith went into the final game tied for the lead with 62 catches each. Taylor won it with 8 catches against Smith's 5 against New Orleans.

In '66, the trio finished first, sixth and tenth. Taylor led the league, with Mitchell sixth and Smith tenth.

The finish in 1967 is even more phenomenal since Taylor missed three games because of an injury and Mitchell was running back for five games, from the second through the sixth game. Taylor led the team in receptions again in 1968 with 48, 7th in the NFL.

Gogo demonstrates how to kick side-winder.

We stand behind our used cars the way other people stand behind their new cars. For keeps!

Most any car dealer goes all-out to back new cars he sells.

But we Ford Dealers believe the used car buyer rates the same kind of protection for his investment. So we stand solidly behind every used car sold off our lot.

We make sure every vehicle is just as represented. That way, we aim to make you a friend. Maybe even sell you a new Ford some day.
